Chapel Hill, NC 27516

Dear Dr. Trice:

Pursuant to §120-14 of the North Carolina General Statutes, the House Select Committee on Oversight and Reform (“the Committee”) requests your appearance to testify on April 23, 2026, at 9:00 am in the Legislative Building Auditorium.

As the Superintendent of Chapel Hill-Carrboro City Schools (“CHCCS”), you are uniquely qualified to discuss books currently on the shelves and otherwise available in CHCCS elementary school libraries. As your own Digital Learning & Library Services Department states, “[t]he objective of the library media center is to make available to faculty and students a collection of materials that will enrich and support the curriculum and meet the needs of the students and faculty served.”

As you are keenly familiar, N.C. Gen. Stat. § 115C-76.55 makes clear that “curriculum includes the standard course of study and support materials, locally developed curriculum, supplemental instruction, and textbooks and other supplementary materials...”

Therefore, we implore you to familiarize yourself with the attached list of one hundred and fifty-five (155) books currently embedded across your elementary schools, in direct conflict with the Parents’ Bill of Rights (“S49”).

Please read the remainder of this letter carefully to ensure that you comply with all hearing requirements and that you understand your rights as a witness.

Each witness who is to appear before the House Oversight Committee must file with Committee Staff a written statement of proposed testimony. This must be filed by 12:00 noon one week before your appearance. Failure to comply with this requirement may result in the exclusion of your written testimony from the hearing record, the barring of your oral presentation of the testimony, or both.

A witness appearing before the Committee must include with their written testimony and a current résumé summarizing education, experience, and affiliations pertinent to the subject matter of the hearing.

Witnesses at hearings may be accompanied by counsel to advise them concerning their constitutional rights, but accompanying counsel shall not directly respond to questions. We reserve the right to place any witness under oath. Finally, witnesses may obtain a transcript copy of their testimony given in open, public session, or in a closed session only when authorized by the Committee.

To fully prepare for this hearing, your testimony must be submitted electronically in Microsoft Word (docx), PowerPoint (pptx), or Adobe Acrobat (pdf) format to Mary.Moorefield@ncleg.gov no later than 12:00 noon one week before the hearing.

Accommodations for individuals with disabilities, including assistive listening systems, interpreters, and materials in alternate formats, may be arranged by contacting Committee Staff in advance of the hearing.

Should you or your staff have any questions or need additional information, please contact Mary Moorefield at (919) 301-2025 or Mary.Moorefield@ncleg.gov.

Sincerely,

Rep. Jake Johnson

are." Girls, boys, neither, both, or just not sure. Kids are kids! There are different ways to show and be who you are. It's up to you-how you feel, how you dress, how you act, how you play, learn, and love. Who is the true you? With the permission of their parents, the children in this photographic picture book were recorded and transcribed by authors Gwen Agna and Shelley Rotner as they were photographed. These powerful testimonials paired with a spare narrative and vibrant, joyful portraits offer up a humanizing and moving exploration of kids and how they feel about their true selves.
