NORTH CAROLINA
INDUSTRIAL COMMISSION

LETTER FROM THE CHAIRMAN

Having been around the Industrial Commission for a number of years – as a law clerk, a Deputy Commissioner, a private attorney, and now Chairman – many people have asked me: What is the Industrial Commission? The name itself is not necessarily self-explanatory.

Since 1929, the Industrial Commission has administered North Carolina's Workers' Compensation Act. This responsibility includes administering and processing claims and, when disputes arise, determining what benefits are owed under the law.

Over the years, the General Assembly has entrusted the Commission with additional responsibilities, including administering and judging claims under the State Tort Claims Act, the Public Safety Employees' Death Benefits Act, the Childhood Vaccine-Related Injury Compensation Program, and the statute providing compensation to people erroneously convicted of felonies.

Our mission is to serve the people of North Carolina with excellence in every area entrusted to the Commission. We are committed to efficient administration of all claims, timely and just resolution of disputes, and providing excellent customer service to those who interact with the Commission.

I am pleased to present the North Carolina Industrial Commission's 2026 Annual Report. It highlights the efforts of our dedicated employees and provides an account of the Commission's activities and accomplishments over the past year. In the year ahead, I look forward to continuing to build upon that work and seeking ways to better serve the people of North Carolina.

Tyler Younts
Chairman

THE NORTH CAROLINA INDUSTRIAL COMMISSION

Mission Statement

The mission of the Industrial Commission is to serve the people of North Carolina with integrity, professionalism, and respect; to administer the laws within its jurisdiction fairly and impartially; and to provide timely and just resolution of disputes.

About the Commission

The North Carolina Industrial Commission is an agency of the State of North Carolina, created by the General Assembly in 1929 to administer and adjudicate the North Carolina Workers' Compensation Act. In 1949, the Industrial Commission also was given authority by the General Assembly to administer and adjudicate the North Carolina State Tort Claims Act. Additionally, the Industrial Commission is charged with efficiently administering the Public Safety Employees' Death Benefits Act, the Childhood Vaccine-Related Injury Compensation Program, and claims under G.S. 148-82 et seq. for Compensation to Persons Erroneously Convicted of Felonies.

The Full Commission consists of six Commissioners who are required by statute to devote their entire time to the duties of the Industrial Commission. Each Commissioner's term lasts six years, and a Commissioner may serve up to two six-year terms.

The Full Commission sits in panels of three to hear appeals of Deputy Commissioner decisions. The Full Commission conducts a de novo review of all appeals and, thus, is the ultimate fact-finding body at the Commission. Appeals from Full Commission decisions are heard by the North Carolina Court of Appeals.

The Full Commission also adopts agency rules pursuant to the requirements of the North Carolina Administrative Procedure Act.

Management and Operations

The Chairman of the Full Commission is, by statute, the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Judicial Officer of the Industrial Commission. The Chairman has the authority to direct and oversee the Industrial Commission and may delegate duties as needed for the proper management of the Industrial Commission.

CLAIMS ADMINISTRATION SECTION

Mission Statement

The Claims Administration Section seeks to provide prompt, accurate, and efficient claims service to employees, employers, insurance companies, third party administrators, and the citizens of North Carolina.

About the Claims Administration Section

The Claims Administration Section processes documents filed at the inception of a workers' compensation claim and during its pendency. At the outset of a new claim, the Claims Administration Section is responsible for researching insurance coverage, assigning Industrial Commission file numbers, identifying any discrepancies in information provided by employers, insurers, and/or injured workers, and notifying injured workers of their rights under the Workers' Compensation Act. As the claim progresses, the Claims Administration Section processes forms filed by insurers and employers regarding the acceptance or denial of claims, initiation and termination of benefits, and return to work status. The Claims Administration Section also processes occupational disease claims, including conducting research necessary to identify insurance coverage in claims with multiple employers.

Additionally, the Claims Administration Section reviews form agreements for payment of death benefits, compensation for disfigurement, and permanent partial disability compensation. In conjunction with those agreements, the Claims Administration Section also reviews applications for lump sum payments. At the request of the parties, the Claims Administration Section will provide an advisory opinion in disfigurement claims to assist the parties in reaching agreement on fair and equitable compensation for disfigurement. The Claims Administration Section also handles interim attorney fee requests, Forms 51, and motions to extend the time to accept or deny a claim. In addition, the Claims Administration Section assesses penalties against employers or insurers who fail to file a Form 60, 61, or 63 within 30 days of receipt of notice by the Industrial Commission of the filing of a Form 18.

The Claims Administration Section provides monthly "action" reports to every carrier, third-party administrator, and self-insured employer who has complied with Rule 11 NCAC 23A .0302 by providing the Industrial Commission with their contact information. This monthly report lists all of the entity's claims in which either a Form 18, 19, 60, 61, or 63 was filed during the preceding month. In addition, a separate monthly report of workplace fatalities is provided to the North Carolina Department of Labor. Finally, the Claims Administration Section also operates as a call center to answer inquiries from injured workers, employers, insurers, and attorneys concerning proper form filing, insurance coverage, the status of pending form agreements, and other general questions regarding the Workers' Compensation Act.

Most Frequently Processed Claims Administration-Related Forms

Employers or insurers are required to file a Form 19 First Report of Injury (FROI) when an injured worker is out of work more than one day OR when more than $4,000 has been paid in medical benefits. All FROIs must be filed electronically via the Electronic Data Interchange (EDI), except in claims involving non-insured employers, in claims for lung disease, in claims with multiple employers or multiple carriers, or in claims with six-character IC file numbers, in which case the Form 19 shall be filed electronically or as otherwise permitted pursuant to Rule 11 NCAC 23A .0108(a).

A Form 18 Notice of Accident to Employer and Claim of Employee, Representative, or Dependent must be filed by the injured worker or his or her legal representative within two years after the injury by accident (or, in cases of an occupational disease, within two years after death, disability, or disablement and being advised by competent medical authority that the employee has an occupationally-related disease, whichever occurs later), or within two years of the last payment of medical compensation when no other compensation has been paid, or the claim may be barred. Provided, however, in occupational disease claims involving the lungs, a Form 18B Claim by Employee, Representative, or Dependent for Benefits for Lung Disease should be used instead of a Form 18.

A Form 26A is entitled an Employer's Admission of Employee's Right to Permanent Partial Disability. This form is used when the parties agree on the amount of permanent partial disability benefits to be paid to the employee pursuant to G.S. 97-31 once he or she reaches maximum medical improvement.

A Form 60, 61, or 63 is filed by an employer or insurer in response to a claim for benefits made by an injured worker or his or her representative. One of these three forms must be filed with the Industrial Commission to admit, deny, or pay without prejudice within 30 days following notice from the Commission of the filing of a Form 18. Failure to file a Form 60, 61, or 63 within 30 days will result in the imposition of sanctions pursuant to G.S. 97-18(j).

Compliance with G.S. 97-18(j)

When the Claims Administration Section processes a Form 18, it sends a letter to the insurer, third-party administrator, or self-insured employer advising that it has 30 days to file a Form 60, 61, or 63. The Industrial Commission tracks the filing of these forms, and if the defendants fail to file a Form 60, 61, or 63 within 30 days following notice that a Form 18 was filed, the Claims Administration Section will enter an Order directing defendants: (1) to file a Form 60, 61, or 63; and (2) to pay a sanction in the amount of $400. Failure to comply with this Order within 30 days results in the imposition of further sanctions, including assessment of an additional $200 penalty.

If defendants believe that the sanction was assessed in error, the Claims Administration Section conducts further investigation to determine whether the sanction was assessed in error. If it is found that defendants, in fact, complied with G.S. 97-18(j), the sanctions Order is rescinded. The most common reason for erroneous assessment of a sanction is the existence of duplicate files, which occurs when two or more claims are created for the same injury due to variations in information provided by the parties at the outset of the claim. Once discovered, these files are merged under one Industrial Commission file number. If examination of the duplicate file shows that a Form 60, 61, or 63 was timely filed, the sanction Order is rescinded.

CLERK'S OFFICE

Mission Statement

The Clerk's Office ensures that all filings intended for the Executive Secretary's Office, the Deputy Commissioner Section, and the Full Commission are promptly and appropriately catalogued in the Commission's electronic document repository and routed to the appropriate Commission staff. All cases to be heard by the Commission are timely placed on a docket and moved through the system efficiently and expeditiously.

About the Clerk's Office

The Clerk's Office is the clearinghouse for documents filed pursuant to Industrial Commission Rule 11 NCAC 23A .0108, which requires most documents filed with the Commission in workers' compensation cases to be transmitted electronically. It is now also mandatory for attorneys to electronically file documents in claims filed under the State Tort Claims Act, pursuant to Rule 11 NCAC 23B .0104. The Clerk's Office processes workers' compensation hearing requests, State tort claims, claims filed under the Public Safety Employees' Death Benefits Act, and claims filed under the Compensation to Persons Erroneously Convicted of Felonies statute. The Clerk's Office also processes requests for copies of files. Through the Attorney File Access Service (AFAS), released in September 2026, attorneys now have secure access to Commission case information and documents online.

The Clerk's Office ensures that filings are properly identified and delivered electronically to the appropriate Commission staff. The Clerk's Office also is responsible for filing and serving all Full Commission decisions, as well as certain decisions from the Deputy Commissioner Section. In addition, the Clerk's Office provides customer support to stakeholders who have questions about filing procedures or who may initially misfile documents. Ultimately, the Clerk's Office is responsible for the integrity of the Commission's files. In addition to overseeing the Clerk's Office, the Clerk of the Commission acknowledges appeals to the Court of Appeals and rules on various administrative motions, including motions to withdraw requests for hearing and motions to consolidate cases for hearing.

Docketing responsibilities of the Clerk's Office include processing requests for hearings and appeals, as well as processing related documents filed in all types of cases administered by the Commission, including workers' compensation and State tort claims. For cases appealed to the Full Commission, the Clerk's Office organizes the evidentiary exhibits of record, orders official hearing transcripts, and provides copies of the transcripts to the parties. The Clerk's Office assembles exhibits and filings into electronic working files for each case on appeal and prepares and electronically distributes the Full Commission hearing calendars. The Clerk's Office also serves as the custodian for recordings of Commission hearings and coordinates assignments of court reporters for hearings before the Deputy Commissioners and the Full Commission. In addition, the Clerk's Office provides trial court administration for workers' compensation cases for the Deputy Commissioner Section. Finally, the Clerk's Office maintains the Commission's attorney database by adding new attorneys and updating attorney contact information upon receipt.

The Clerk's Office continues to support the Commission's goal of becoming a paperless organization. Since most documents are filed with the Commission electronically, there has been a dramatic decrease in the amount of incoming paper documents required to be scanned by the Commission. The Clerk's Office no longer provides central scanning services for the Commission. Instead, all incoming documents are now scanned by the Commission section handling the particular type of document.

COMPLIANCE DIVISION

Mission Statement

The Compliance Division seeks to work effectively with businesses operating in North Carolina to ensure compliance with the insurance requirements of the North Carolina Workers' Compensation Act.

About the Compliance Division

The Compliance Division identifies and investigates cases involving employers who are operating as non-insured employers in violation of G.S. 97-93 and G.S. 97-94. An employer is non-insured if the employer is subject to the North Carolina Workers' Compensation Act but does not carry workers' compensation insurance and does not obtain a license from the Commissioner of Insurance as a self-insured employer. The Compliance Division investigates referrals to determine whether an employer is subject to the Workers' Compensation Act and, if so, whether the employer is compliant in terms of insurance requirements. An administrative penalty can be assessed for a period during which the employer was subject to the Act but not compliant with insurance requirements. The Compliance Division also assists the North Carolina Department of Justice with the enforcement and collection of penalty assessments and facilitates adjudication of contested penalty cases and settlements.

The Compliance Division uses a database known as the Noncompliant Employer Tracking System (NETS). NETS is a software tool that analyzes data sources from other State agencies to identify potential non-compliant employers who may be in violation of the requirement to maintain workers' compensation insurance coverage. The Compliance Division also receives alerts from the Industrial Commission's Employee Classification Section, which are generated by the Employee Classification Application (ECA). The ECA utilizes data from multiple State agencies.

As a result of the leads generated by the NETS system, the Industrial Commission initially assessed $5,196,872 in penalties for Fiscal Year 2025-26. After alternative penalties were calculated under G.S. 97-94(b2), the penalties assessed were reduced by $1,269,423 thus resulting in a modified penalty assessment of $3,927,449 for Fiscal Year 2025-26.

The Industrial Commission's collection of penalties in Fiscal Year 2025-26 totaled $1,513,863. This includes penalties that were assessed during a prior fiscal year but not collected until Fiscal Year 2025-26.

In Fiscal Year 2025-26, the Compliance Division brought 549 non-insured employers into compliance with their obligation to obtain workers' compensation insurance coverage.

CRIMINAL INVESTIGATIONS AND EMPLOYEE CLASSIFICATION DIVISION

Mission Statement

The Criminal Investigations and Employee Classification Division serves the citizens of North Carolina by investigating potential criminal violations of the Workers' Compensation Act and by identifying and investigating businesses that engage in employee misclassification.

About the Criminal Investigations and Employee Classification Division

In Fiscal Year 2025-26, the Industrial Commission's Criminal Investigations and Employee Classification Division received 6,616 employee misclassification reports/alerts for potential violations of the Workers' Compensation Act and Employee Fair Classification Act. 153 employers were brought into compliance with the Workers' Compensation Act, and 59 employees who had been misclassified as independent contractors were identified.

CRIMINAL INVESTIGATIONS

About Criminal Investigations

Criminal Investigations operates as a law enforcement agency and is responsible for conducting criminal investigations in cases of suspected workers' compensation fraud and violations related to workers' compensation claims involving employees, employers, insurers, health care providers, attorneys, and vocational rehabilitation providers. Investigators examine all criminal complaints filed with the Industrial Commission regarding failure of employers to maintain workers' compensation insurance coverage (G.S. 97-94(d)); fraud on the part of employees with regard to obtaining workers' compensation benefits (G.S. 97-88.2); fraud on the part of employers with regard to deducting workers' compensation premiums from employees' salaries (G.S. 97-21); medical payment fraud; and any other claims arising out of violations of Chapter 97 by employees or employers. Criminal Investigations works with judicial officials and other law enforcement agencies throughout the State to resolve cases related to the above matters in criminal court.

The Criminal Investigations staff consists of six sworn law enforcement officers and two administrative positions. During Fiscal Year 2025-26, Criminal Investigations processed a total of 23,285 cases, including 572 misdemeanor charges for failure to maintain workers' compensation insurance in violation of G.S. 97-94(d) and 13 felony charges for willfully making a false statement in violation of G.S. 58-2-180. In addition, 103 employers were issued warnings for failure to maintain workers' compensation insurance coverage in violation of G.S. 97-94(d) and were brought into compliance. These cases were pursued through field investigations and administrative analysis of data utilizing the Noncompliant Employer Tracking System (NETS), the Employment Classification Application (ECA), and other available technology.

The information on the next page is provided pursuant to G.S. 97-88.2(e). The 23,285 reported cases of fraud included allegations of employers not carrying workers' compensation insurance and allegations of employers making unlawful payroll deductions. These cases were generated from various sources, including NETS and ECA technology, calls received on the Criminal Investigations & Employee Classification Division hotline, and proactive enforcement operations.

EMPLOYEE CLASSIFICATION

About the Employee Classification Section

Employee misclassification is defined in G.S. 143-786(a)(5) as avoiding tax liabilities and other obligations imposed by Chapters 95, 96, 97, 105, or 143 of the North Carolina General Statutes by misclassifying an employee as an independent contractor. Pursuant to Session Law 2017-203, the Employee Classification Section was established within the Industrial Commission under the Employee Fair Classification Act. The Employee Classification Section's statutory mandate includes, among other duties, receiving and investigating reports of employee misclassification; coordinating with and assisting all relevant State agencies in recovering any back taxes, wages, benefits, penalties, or other monies owed as a result of an employer engaging in employee misclassification; coordinating with relevant State agencies and district attorneys' offices in the prosecution of employers and individuals who fail to pay civil assessments or penalties assessed as a result of an employer's or individual's involvement in employee misclassification; and providing all relevant information pertaining to each instance of reported employee misclassification to the North Carolina Department of Labor, North Carolina Division of Employment Security, North Carolina Department of Revenue, and North Carolina Industrial Commission to facilitate investigation of potential violations of Chapters 95, 96, 97, 105, or 143 of the North Carolina General Statutes.

The Employee Classification Section collaborates with the Criminal Investigations and Compliance Divisions of the Industrial Commission, as well as with other State agencies, and utilizes the Employee Classification Application (ECA) to identify and investigate potential employee misclassification. The ECA was developed in collaboration with SAS, Inc., the Government Data Analytics Center (GDAC), and other State agencies.

Employee Classification Section Statistics

In Fiscal Year 2025-26, a total of 6,616 employee misclassification reports/alerts came through the ECA for investigation, and the Criminal Investigations & Employee Classification Division (in conjunction with the Compliance Division of the Industrial Commission) investigated and resolved a total of 5,944 reports/alerts, representing reports/alerts that came through the ECA either in Fiscal Year 2025-26 or in prior fiscal years. The remaining 672 reports/alerts were pending resolution as of the end of Fiscal Year 2025-26.

Of the 5,944 reports/alerts investigated and resolved in Fiscal Year 2025-26, 1,659 employers were found to be in compliance with the Workers' Compensation Act; 3,708 employers were found not to be subject to the Workers' Compensation Act; 424 employers were found to be no longer in business; and 153 employers were found to be subject to the Workers' Compensation Act, non-insured, and brought into compliance with the Act. Of these 153 non-insured employers that were brought into compliance, 62 were referred by the Compliance Division to the Commission's Deputy Commissioner Section for consideration of a penalty assessment.

A total of $1,309,593 in penalty assessments was made initially by the Industrial Commission against non-insured employers based upon referrals from the Employee Classification Section. After alternative penalties were calculated under G.S. 97-94(b2), the amount assessed was reduced by $239,809, thus resulting in a modified assessed amount of $1,069,784 in penalties for Fiscal Year 2025-26 based upon referrals from the Employee Classification Section.

In Fiscal Year 2025-26, $248,568 of the Commission's penalty collections came from non-insured employers who were referred to the Compliance Division by the Employee Classification Section. This includes penalties collected in cases referred during a prior fiscal year but not collected until Fiscal Year 2025-26. (These penalty collections are included in the Compliance Division's total penalty collections of $1,513,863 for Fiscal Year 2025-26).

North Carolina Division of Employment Security Statistics Related to Employee Misclassification

The Criminal Investigations & Employee Classification Division shares information about employee misclassification identified during field investigations and reports/alerts through the ECA with the North Carolina Division of Employment Security (NCDES).

As a result of 4,172 audits performed by the NCDES Tax Audit Unit, $10,593,044,486 in reported wages was audited and 13,910 workers were found by NCDES to be misclassified from the third quarter of 2025 through the second quarter of 2026. This resulted in $1,482,311 in taxes assessed by NCDES.

North Carolina Department of Labor Statistics Related to Employee Misclassification

The North Carolina Department of Labor (NCDOL) shared information from 162 of its investigations involving suspected employee misclassification for entry into the ECA by the Employee Classification Section. Additionally, the NCDOL Wage and Hour Bureau referred 133 complaints to the Employee Classification Section.

As a result of investigations performed by the NCDOL, wages in the amount of $104,557 were found to be due to employees who were deemed to be misclassified, and $35,765 in wages was collected and paid to the misclassified employees. Additionally, penalties in the amount of $32,625 were assessed by the NCDOL Wage and Hour Bureau, and $10,312 in penalties was collected by the NCDOL.

NCDOL DISCLAIMER: All amounts are subject to change. Issued penalties may not be paid in a timely manner and may be sent to collections. Wages owed to an employee may not be immediately collected. Final totals may change if penalties and/or wages are paid after the close of the fiscal year.

North Carolina Department of Revenue Statistics Related to Employee Misclassification

The North Carolina Department of Revenue (NCDOR) currently does not have initiatives that are specifically designed to identify cases of employee misclassification. However, the NCDOR's Schedule C Initiative and 4% ITIN Withholding Initiative may identify employers who are misclassifying workers as independent contractors. The NCDOR may attempt to reclassify the workers, depending on the facts of the case. The Schedule C Initiative performs audits of taxpayers who have overstated expenses or understated income based upon their Federal Schedule C. The 4% ITIN Withholding Initiative identifies and audits taxpayers who have made payment to an ITIN holder under a 1099-Misc but have failed to withhold 4% in income tax. In Fiscal Year 2025-26, the NCDOR's 4% ITIN Withholding audits resulted in $12,301,116 in additional tax, penalties, and interest due, and its Schedule C Initiative audits resulted in $9,039,029 in additional tax, penalties, and interest due.

Criminal Investigations and Employee Classification Division Data by Industry Type (Using North American Industry Classification System (NAICS) Industry Code Categories)

The NAICS code is a six-digit number used to classify businesses by industry. When making tax filings, businesses self-select the NAICS code that best reflects their principal business activity. The Industrial Commission's Criminal Investigations and Employee Classification Division began compiling data on the NAICS code associated with its caseload this past fiscal year.

The chart below summarizes the data for the 2025-26 Fiscal Year. For ease of understanding, this chart does not use NAICS code numbers, but, instead, lists the name of the industry category.

The first column reflects all potential cases of violations of the Workers' Compensation Act that were reviewed by the Criminal Investigations and Employee Classification Division. The second column reflects all cases assigned to a Criminal Investigations and Employee Classification Division investigator for a field investigation. The third column reflects all cases in which warning citations were issued by the Industrial Commission for failure to secure and maintain workers' compensation insurance in violation of the Workers' Compensation Act. The fourth column reflects cases in which criminal charges were issued for failure to secure and maintain workers' compensation insurance in violation of the Workers' Compensation Act.

MEDIATION SECTION

Mission Statement

The Mediation Section administers the Industrial Commission's mediation program effectively, fairly, and efficiently. The Section's goal is to empower the parties in pending cases to take an active role in resolving their disputes, thereby minimizing the need for hearings and appeals, expediting the dispute resolution process, and enabling the Industrial Commission to devote its adjudicatory resources to cases not conducive to settlement.

About the Mediation Section

The Mediation Section educates the Commission's stakeholders concerning mediation rules and procedures; orders and enforces the mediation deadlines set forth in the Commission's mediation rules; processes Industrial Commission mediation forms; and invoices Report of Mediator fees. The Mediation Section's Dispute Resolution Coordinator rules on all mediation-related motions.

Mediations and Settlements

When a claim is contested and one or both parties have requested a hearing, the case is normally ordered into mediation by the Industrial Commission's Dispute Resolution Coordinator so that the parties can attempt to settle their dispute at mediation before proceeding to a hearing. One exception is when an injured worker is not represented by counsel, in which case the Dispute Resolution Coordinator usually enters an order dispensing with mediation. Other exceptions include hearing requests made under the G.S. 97-25(f) expedited medical motion procedure and certain cases involving administrative appeals.

Even if a claim is not contested, the parties may agree to mediate their case in an effort to enter into a Compromise Settlement Agreement. Such cases are not ordered into mediation; instead, they are voluntarily mediated. However, these voluntary mediations still fall under the jurisdiction of the Industrial Commission's Mediation Section.

The mediators who serve in Industrial Commission cases must complete a formal mediation training program and be certified by the North Carolina Dispute Resolution Commission. Most of these mediators also have significant workers' compensation experience from practicing law in the field, mediating workers' compensation cases, or both.

When a case is settled, the parties enter into a Compromise Settlement Agreement, which must be reviewed by the Industrial Commission pursuant to G.S. 97-17, G.S. 97-82, and Rule 11 NCAC 23A .0502.

G.S. 97-73(e) limits the fees the Industrial Commission may charge to support its receipt-funded operations. Pursuant to Rule 11 NCAC 23E .0203, the Commission charges a $200 fee to process the Report of Mediator form that must be filed by the mediator in each workers' compensation case. Under this same rule, the Commission charges a $400 fee to review a Compromise Settlement Agreement that is submitted in a workers' compensation case.
