(10) and (11) – Our Board is currently in negotiations with the NC Barber Board Examiners for a possible merger in 2018. The Electrolysis Practice Act, G.S. 88-A will require modifications during the course of this merger, i.e., composition of merged board, licensee fees, etc. Further, the administrative rules will require modifications in the successor organization to implement the new statute. The substance of these modifications is not known at this time.

Susan Magas
Administrative Assistant to the Board.
