Executive Summary

G. S. §115C-12(25) requires the State Board of Education to submit a report to the Joint Legislative Education Oversight Committee (JLEOC) annually regarding districts and schools identified as low-performing, effective improvement planning, and recommendations for additional legislation to improve student performance and increase local flexibility.

This report contains information regarding the implementation of new and/or amended statute in G. S. §115C-105.37. Identification of low-performing schools and G. S. §115C-105.39A. Identification of low-performing local school administrative units. Specifically, the report provides a summary about the results of the steps and process developed and implemented by the North Carolina Department of Public Instruction to support those districts and schools identified as low performing from the 2016-17 results, and a summary of the 2017-18 accountability results for low performing districts and schools around the School Performance Grades and EVAAS Growth status. Additionally, the report includes the plans for reviewing and providing feedback on the improvement plans based on the 2017-18 results and appendices with the resources, documents, and calendar of events to be provided to districts and schools across the state with low performing schools.

Overview of Legislation and District/School Data

The following report provides a brief summary of legislation about the definition of low performing schools and low performing local school administrative units. In addition, the report provides a general analysis of trends and patterns identified in the plans submitted to the Department of Public Instruction for feedback. Also included in the report are the final results of performance and growth data for low performing districts and schools for the 2017–18 school year based on the analysis of School Performance Grades (SPG) and EVAAS Growth data according to the End of Grade (EOG) and End of Course (EOC) assessments, which are aligned to the North Carolina Standard Course of Study in English Language Arts/Reading and Mathematics and the Essential Standards in Science, for all public schools and public charter schools. The report specifically presents the following information and data:

1. Summary of the legislation concerning low performing districts and schools,
2. Summary of findings based on the submitted Low Performing Local School Administrative Units' and Schools' improvement plans,
3. Summary analysis of the 2017-18 Accountability results, and
4. Overview of the projected timeline and process for the improvement plans based on the 2017-18 low performing results.

Legislation

In September 2015, Session Law 2015-241 House Bill 97, provided amended definitions for low performing schools and a new designation for low performing districts. Included in both the amended and new designations were specifically defined processes, procedures, and requirements for low performing schools and districts. The following tables provide summary information regarding the legislative changes having an immediate impact on North Carolina schools and districts now designated as low performing and the requirements based on the new legislation:

Table 1: September 2015 Statute for Low Performing Schools and Local School Administrative Units

General Statute	Explanation
§ 115C-105.37. Identification of low-performing schools	Defines low performing schools as those that receive a school performance grade of D or F and a school growth score of " met expected growth " or " not met expected growth "
§ 115C-105.39A. Identification of low-performing local school administrative units	Defines a low performing local school administrative as a unit in which the majority of the schools in that unit that received a school performance grade and school growth score have been identified as low-performing schools

Trends and Patterns from Low Performing Plans

Examining how low performing schools combine and/or implement improvement practices is an important first step to better understanding why some schools are successful in improving low performance. The plans for improvement submitted by low performing districts and schools contained strategies developed by the improvement teams and were submitted to the North Carolina Department of Public Instruction's Service Support Teams and District and School Transformation for feedback. Many of the plans contained similar strategies for addressing the needs in low performing schools and the data summarized in Table 3 also suggests implications for possible changes in legislation as well as the need for ongoing professional development to continue to build the capacity of district and school personnel. Identifying these trends has been an integral aspect of developing and continuing effective practices of support through inter-agency collaboration, service and support teams, varying professional development offerings and direct coaching for classroom, building level and district level personnel.

Table 3: Common Themes in Low Performing Plans

Identifying and analyzing relevant, high yield data points
Developing goals aligned with identified needs that are Specific, Measurable, Attainable, Relevant, and Time-Bound (SMART)
Integrating evidence-based strategies and action steps
Understanding improvement is a process and the plan is a living document that should change to best meet the needs of students
Identifying those areas for improvement to target rather than trying to address all areas of need- a concentrated approach to school improvement
Continuously revisiting the school's improvement plan and adjusting as needed for progress
Continuing need for professional development of new teachers since many of the low performing schools experience as much as 50% turnover year to year
Approaches that include the community and family engagement and support in improving the schools

In addition to the themes identified through these plans, the North Carolina State Board of Education (NCSBE) sought to identify practices that nationally supported school and district improvement. Successful implementation with fidelity of the components of the school reform models Transformation, Turnaround, Restart, and Closure showed promise in improving chronically under performing schools nationally. Aligning with North Carolina's law for reform of low performing schools (G.S. 115C-105.37B) the NCSBE adopted a policy allowing recurring low performing schools an opportunity to apply for approval to implement components of these reform initiatives. Summarized information about each reform initiative can be found in Table 4. Recurring low performing schools are those schools that have been low performing for two of the previous three consecutive years. The list of recurring low performing schools for 2016-17 can be found in the Appendix.

Table 4: School Reform Models

Transformation	In order to qualify for implementation of the transformation model, the LEA must demonstrate that a school has created a plan for developing and improving teacher and school leader effectiveness; for implementing comprehensive instructional reform strategies; for increasing learning time; for creating community-oriented schools; and for providing operational flexibility and sustain support. The LEA shall submit specific goals for academic achievement and shall submit a budget showing the revenues and expenditures needed to reach the goals.
Turnaround	In order to qualify for implementation of the turnaround model, the LEA submits specific grounds supporting the implementation of this model; specifies the academic goals expected from implementation of this model; specifies the procedures to be utilized in removing staff, including procedures consistent with Due Process; describes with specificity the new governance structure and the budget to be implemented; sets forth specific academic achievement expected to be realized from use of this model.
Restart	In order to qualify for implementation of the restart model, the LEA submits a detailed plan outlining the goals to be achieved, including how to provide each student with the opportunity for a sound basic education; a statement as to how operating the school with the same exemptions from statutes and rules as a charter school authorized under N.C.G.S. 115C-218 et seq. will facilitate accomplishing these goals; how these exemptions will increase student achievement; whether the LEA will employ an educational management organization and, if so, the name and credentials of that organization and a budget setting out anticipated revenue and expenditures necessary to achieve the goal. A school operated under this subdivision remains under the control of the local board of education, and employees assigned to the school are employees of the local school administrative unit.
Closure	In order to qualify for implementation of the closure model, the LEA submits the specific grounds recommending closure of a particular school; the procedures it intends to follow in closing the school, including opportunities for public hearing; the procedures for ensuring a smooth transition for employee and students affected by the closure; how the resources realized from closure will continue to support student achievement, and the specific academic gains expected to be realized by the closure.

Several school districts have submitted applications for approval to implement a reform model. Table 4.1 summarizes the current information of applications for reform model implementation. Many of the schools are in the initial stage of this new initiative so summary data regarding results is not included at this time.

Low Performing Districts and Schools

In September of 2016 the NC State Board of Education approved the lists of low performing schools, traditional and charter, and low performing local school administrative units and recurring low performing schools. The full list of schools and districts can be found in the Appendix beginning on page 15. The table below provides a summary of the low performing schools and districts by NC State Board Region.

When comparing the results from 2016-17 to 2017-18, there is an overall decrease of 25 low performing schools, from 505 to 480. The same is true when comparing the low performing districts in 2016-17 to 2017-18, with an decrease of 3. Further analysis of the data shows a breakdown of schools and districts that remain on the list, the totals that are no longer low performing and those schools and districts newly identified in the recent release of Accountability results. Table 6 provides the summary of schools and districts removed, newly identified, the net change and new total from the 2017-18 data.

Overview of North Carolina Department of Public Instruction Support

The North Carolina Department of Public Instruction (NCDPI) provides a series of support services to guide districts and schools through the requirements. Upon the State Board's final approval of the low performing local administrative units' and low performing schools' lists, communication was shared with all superintendents and charter school directors regarding next steps. In the month of September, 2018 the Department's District and Regional Support (DRS) unit provided multiple opportunities to attend a webinar explaining the requirements of the law and the processes and procedures in place to support districts and schools through the requirements. At the same time DRS, in collaboration with NCDPI's Federal Programs and Monitoring Division will provide training to schools and districts on the NCStar tool which all low performing districts and schools will utilize to develop and monitor implementation of their district/school improvement plan.

Table 7 below lists the support and corresponding resources provided to all districts and schools. Included in the Appendix are samples of each of the resources listed.

District and Regional Support

To embed strategies that should support long-term sustained progress for low performing districts and schools, District and Regional Support will develop a new regional support structure that continues to work collaboratively with the district and/or school to incorporate evidence-based practices. This regional structure will be designed to develop the leadership capacity of central office staff, principals, and teachers through a case management approach utilizing the regional staff in place at the NCDPI. Following are strategies implemented by the Department to support and serve the districts and schools identified above:

Comprehensive Needs Assessments

Comprehensive Needs Assessments involve the collection and analysis of data to assess districts' and schools' processes, procedures, and instructional practices and their impact on student learning. Prior to the assessment, professional development is provided to principals and central office staff that explains the following:

- the Comprehensive Needs Assessment process;
- the rubric utilized during the district/school assessment;
- personnel's role in the assessment; and
- preparation of a Self-Evaluation that begins the review process.

The site visit conducted as part of the process consists of the following:

- collaborative discussions with district and school leadership;
- classroom visits; and
- focus group sessions with teachers, students, and parents.

The assessment culminates with a report that

- triangulates the evidence found during the assessment process;
- is written in draft form and sent to district and school leadership for a check of factual accuracy; and
- is finalized and provided to district, school, and Department of Public Instruction leaders.

Regional Support Teams

NCDPI will establish a regional structure responsible for coordinating academic supports to the field, including strategic or intensive support for low performing LEAs/schools. Each region will be led by a Regional Case Manager (RCM) who will oversee the team's efforts by coordinating the provision of identified academic supports across existing field staff and ensuring communication and support of high-quality implementation of new initiatives, programs or policies in the field. The Regional Teams will utilize a deep data analysis process to drive the identification of necessary supports, manage communication, and coordinate any implementation/roll-out of new initiatives from the Department.

Notification Letter to Superintendents

October 5, 2017

TO LEA Superintendents
Charter School Directors

FROM Dr. Maria Pitre Martin, Deputy State Superintendent
Office of the Deputy State Superintendent

Dr. Nancy N. Barbour, Director
District and School Transformation

Dear Superintendents:

Congratulations on a successful opening of schools. Since approximately sixty-three percent of the school districts in the state are impacted by the low performing statute, we included all of you in this correspondence. As a superintendent of a district with one or more schools that were identified as low performing or a superintendent seeking further information regarding low performing schools and districts, we would like to invite you to read the information below and act accordingly.

As you know the law regarding low performing schools and districts was implemented in 2015 for the first time. As a reminder, the following information provides an overview of the current statutory definition and requirements for low performing districts and schools:

Definitions:

Low Performing LEAs are those administrative units in which the majority of the schools in that unit have been identified as low-performing (NC G.S. 115C-39A).

Low Performing Schools are those schools receiving a D or F School Performance Grade and a “met expected growth” or “not met expected growth” status (NC G.S. 115C-105.37).

Requirements:

All low performing schools and districts are required to submit plans for improving School Performance Grades and student growth to the NC State Board of Education

Last year all low performing school plans were submitted through our NCStar system, a system many of you have utilized in Priority and Focus Schools as well as district wide by request. Utilizing this tool was intended to prevent schools from having multiple plans for improvement, establish a system to keep the improvement planning process an active practice and allow schools to receive the statute required feedback from a NCDPI coach assigned through the system. We will utilize this same process for plan submission and feedback.

Please be sure the principal and NCStar Administrator for each low performing school has been identified and trained. If your district has not had training in NCStar please reach out to Alessandro Montanari at alessandro.montanari@dpi.nc.gov to discuss opportunities for training. We will work closely with each of you through the process and hope you find NCStar to be a helpful and engaging tool.

Dear Parent/Guardian:

I hope the school year has started successfully for all of you. North Carolina law defines “Low Performing Schools”, with required criteria and “Low Performing Districts” with required criteria and the law has given some specific guidance and direction to these schools and districts. As a member of this community, I am writing to let you know Insert name of the district has been designated as a low performing district by the North Carolina State Board of Education. As defined in G.S. 115C-105.37: “The State Board of Education shall design and implement a procedure to identify low-performing schools on an annual basis. Low-performing schools are those that receive a school performance grade of D or F and a school growth score of "met expected growth" or "not met expected growth" as defined by G.S. 115C-83.15.” Additionally, the new law, G.S. 115C-105.39A states, “A low-performing local school administrative unit is a unit in which the majority of the schools in that unit that received a school performance grade and school growth score as provided in G.S. 115C-83.15 have been identified as low-performing schools, as provided in G.S. 115C-105.37.”

The State Board of Education has found that insert the percent of schools identified as low performing in the district of the schools in Insert name of the district have received a school performance grade of D or F and a school growth score of "met expected growth" or "not met expected growth" which designates the district as low-performing.

The School Performance Grades are based on student achievement (80%) and growth (20%). The indicators and the proficiency standard or benchmark used for achievement include:

1. Annual EOG mathematics and reading assessments in grades 3–8 and science assessments in grades 5 and 8 (Level 3 and above)
2. Annual EOC assessments in Math I, Biology, and English II (Level 3 and above)
3. The percentage of graduates who complete Math III, Algebra II, or Integrated Math III with a passing grade

4. The percentage of grade 11 students who achieve the minimum score required for admission into a constituent institution of The University of North Carolina on The ACT (composite score of 17)
5. The percentage of graduates identified as Career and Technical Education concentrators who meet the Silver Certificate or higher on the ACT WorkKeys assessment
6. The percentage of students who graduate within four years of entering high school (Standard [4-Year] Cohort Graduation Rate)

As a low performing district, we are required to develop an improvement plan that specifically addresses how the district will improve both the school performance grade and school growth score of each low-performing school in the district, and how the superintendent and other central office administrators will work with each low-performing school and monitor the low-performing school's progress. In addition, the plan will address how current district policy should be changed to improve student achievement throughout the district, specifically focused on improving both the school performance grade and school growth score. The plan will be presented to our local school board at their next meeting, insert date, time and place of the local school board meeting where the plan will be presented for approval. After the initial approval by our board of education, we will submit the plan to the State Board of Education for review. The State Board's designee, staff members of NCDPI's District and School Transformation Division, will read each plan and provide feedback to the district. After considering the feedback from the state, our local board of education will give final approval to the plan so that the final plan for improvement can be posted on our local district website Insert district website as well as the NCDPI's website (www.ncpublicschools.org).

Our district is focused on continuous improvement and I look forward to working with each of you as we continue to focus on providing the best education for our children. Please don't hesitate to contact me with any specific questions as we move through this process.

Sincerely,
[Superintendent's name]
