

I support the rules as written. I am concerned about water quality issues facing our communities now and would like to ensure that plenty of clean water is available for future generations. Clean water is an inexpensive resource that we often take for granted. If we have to pay a little bit more for that resource now so to avoid higher future costs I back the measures that will do this.

David Welch