The chapters which in terms or in effect amend certain chapters, sections or subsections of the Consolidated Statutes have been brought forward in this bulletin and are arranged according to the section number of the Consolidated Statutes. In each case the chapter number is given so that reference may be made to the session laws.

Several laws, such as the Revenue and Machinery Act, Motor Vehicle Laws, the School Law, Game and Fish Laws, Local Government Act, Election Law, including the Australian Ballot Law, Road Law, Workmen's Compensation Act, Banking Laws, and others, are not brought forward here since they have been published in pamphlet form and may be had free upon application by persons interested in them.

Amendments to the Consolidated Statutes

ENACTED BY THE
GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF NORTH CAROLINA
REGULAR SESSION 1931

CHAPTER I
ADMINISTRATION

1. Add at end of section: "Provided, that in all cases where the Clerk of the Superior Court is interested in an estate, the Judge of the Superior Court resident in the district or the Judge of the Superior Court holding the courts of the county by regular or special assignment shall have jurisdiction to take proof of wills and grant letters testamentary, letters of administration with the will annexed and letters of administration in cases of intestacy, to audit and approve the accounts of executors and administrators, to make orders and to do any and all things in connection with the administration of estates which the Clerk of the Superior Court might or could have done, had he not been interested in the estate."
1931, c. 165.

16. Add at end of section: "Where more than one executor is appointed in any last will and testament duly probated in any court of this State, and one or more of such executors shall have qualified before the Clerk of such Court, and the other executor or executors shall have failed within thirty (30) days thereafter to qualify or shall have renounced in writing, then the qualifying executor or executors shall be clothed with all the powers, rights and duties, and be subject to all the obligations imposed upon all of said executors, in and by the terms of said will and the laws of this State, in like manner as if the non-qualifying executor or executors had not been named in said will."
1931, c. 183.

45. In line 7, after the word "county" in both instances in which the word occurs, insert the words: "or in the city or town in which the deceased resided at the time of death."
1931, c. 64.

65(a). Vol. III. In line 15 as amended, after the word "Mecklenburg" insert the word "Wake."
1931, c. 21.

92. Add new article as follows: "Article 13-A. In all cases where sales have been made by administrators of deceased persons of real estate, in good faith and upon a valuable consideration to obtain assets to pay debts of the estate and deeds executed by such administrators to the purchaser, who paid the purchase price thereof, and no action taken by the heirs of such deceased person to annul such sale by litigation or otherwise, such sale be and the same is hereby validated.

"In all cases where sales have been made under the circumstances narrated in the preceding section, and deeds have been made by administrators of such deceased persons to the purchaser that the recitals contained in such deeds; that the sale was made under order or license of the court for the purpose of obtaining assets to pay debts of the estate, that such recitals shall be presumed to be prima facie correct, and that the proceeds of sale of said land have been applied to the payment of the necessary indebtedness of said estate and the cost of administration thereof: Provided, however, that this act shall not apply to any sale of land made in which the administrator of such deceased persons shall have been directly or indirectly the purchaser thereof and nothing herein contained shall prevent such sale from being impeached for fraud.

"This act shall only apply to sales by administrators made prior to January first, nineteen hundred, and shall not apply to pending litigation nor to any pending or unsettled administration or estate."
1931, c. 146.

CHAPTER IV
ATTORNEYS AT LAW

198. Provisions of section not applicable to Fred W. Ashcraft, R. B. Dawes and Carl Massey appointed Justices of the Peace in 1931, except in cases with which they may have been connected as Justices of the Peace.
1931, c. 321, ss. 2, 3.

215. Add following section a new article as follows: "Article 6. It shall be unlawful for any corporation or any person or association of persons, except members of the Bar of the State of North Carolina admitted and licensed to practice as attorneys at law, to appear as attorneys or counsellors-at-law in any action or proceeding in any court in this State or before any judicial body or the North Carolina Industrial Commission; to maintain, conduct, or defend the same, except in his own behalf as a party thereto; or, by word, sign, letter, or advertisement, to hold out himself, or themselves, as competent or qualified to give legal advice or counsel, or to prepare legal documents, or as being engaged in advising or counselling in law or acting as attorney or counsellor-at-law, or in furnishing the services of a lawyer or lawyers; and it shall be unlawful for any person or association of persons except members of the Bar, for a fee or any consideration, to give legal advice or counsel, perform for or furnish to another legal services, or, for or without a fee or any consideration to prepare directly or through another for another person, firm or corporation, any will or testamentary disposition, or instrument of trust serving purposes similar to those of a will, except life insurance trusts, or, for a fee or any consideration, to organize corporations or prepare for another person, firm or corporation, any other legal document.

Provided, that nothing herein shall prohibit any person from conferring with a person, firm or corporation with respect to the creation of a fiduciary relationship, or from cooperating with a licensed attorney of another in preparing any such legal document, if such attorney maintains his own place of business and is not an officer of a corporation represented by such person; or from drawing a will for another in an emergency wherein the imminence of death leaves insufficient time to have the same drawn and its execution supervised by a licensed attorney at law.

"It shall be unlawful for any corporation to practice or appear as an attorney for any person other than itself in any court in this State, or before any judicial body or the North Carolina Industrial Commission; or hold itself out to the public or advertise as being entitled to practice law; and no corporation shall organize corporations, or draw agreements, or other legal documents not relating to its lawful business, or draw wills, or practice law, or give legal advice not relating to its lawful business; or hold itself out in any manner as being entitled to do any of the foregoing acts, by or through any person orally or by advertisement, letter or circular: Provided, that the foregoing shall not prevent a corporation from employing an attorney in regard to its own affairs or in any litigation to which it may be a party.

Provided, further, that the above provisions of this act shall not be construed to prohibit a person or corporation acting in a fiduciary capacity from transacting the necessary clerical business incidental to the routine or usual administration of estates, trusts, guardianships, or other similar fiduciary capacities, such as offering wills for probate in common form, securing authority to expend principal as guardian or trustee, filing accounts, preparing and filing tax returns of every nature, and other such administrative acts, where no special compensation is charged for such service and no compensation whatever is charged or received other than the usual commissions allowed by the court for administering the trust, or provided for by the instrument creating the trust or other fiduciary relationship.

And provided, further, that nothing herein shall prohibit any insurance company from causing to be defended, or prosecuted, or from offering to cause to be defended, through lawyers of its own selection, the insureds in policies issued or to be issued by it, in accordance with the terms of such policies; and shall not prohibit one such licensed attorney at law from acting for several common carriers and/or other corporations and/or associations or any of its subsidiaries pursuant to arrangement between said corporations and/or associations.

"It shall be unlawful to exact, charge, or receive any attorney's fee for the foreclosure of any mortgage under power of sale, unless the foreclosure is conducted by a licensed attorney at law of North Carolina, and unless the full amount charged as attorney's fee is actually paid to and received and retained by such attorney, without being directly or indirectly shared with or rebated to any one else, and it shall be unlawful for any such attorney to make any showing that he has received such a fee unless he has received the same, or to share with or rebate to any other person, firm, or corporation such fee or any part thereof received by him; but such attorney may divide such fee with another licensed attorney at law maintaining his own place of business and not an officer or employee of the foreclosing party, if such attorney has assisted in performing the services for which the fee is paid, or resides in a place other than that where the foreclosure proceedings are conducted, and has forwarded the case to the attorney conducting such foreclosure.

"The solicitor of any of the Superior Courts shall, upon the application of any member of the Bar, or of any bar association, of the State of North Carolina, bring such action in the name of the State as may be proper to enjoin any such person, corporation, or association of persons who it is alleged are violating the provisions of this act, and it shall be the duty of the solicitors of this State to indict any person, corporation, or association of persons upon the receipt of information of the violation of the provisions of this act.

"Any person, corporation, or association of persons violating the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and punished by a fine or imprisonment, or both, in the discretion of the court.

Provided, that this act shall not apply to any Law School or Law Schools conducting a Legal Clinic and receiving as their clientele only those persons unable financially to compensate for legal advice or services rendered."

1931, c. 137, c. 347.

CHAPTER XII

CIVIL PROCEDURE

439. Add new sub-section as follows: "4. Against a corporation, or the holder of a certificate or duplicate certificate of stock in the corporation, on account of any dividend, either a cash or stock dividend, paid or allotted by the corporation to the holder of the certificate or duplicate certificate of stock in the corporation."

1931, c. 169.

442. Add new sub-section as follows: "3. The forfeiture of all interest for usury."

1931, c. 231.

444. Add new sub-section as follows: "Upon a contract, transfer, assignment, power of attorney or other instrument transferring or affecting unearned salaries or wages, or future earnings, or any interest therein, whether said instrument be under seal or not under seal. The above period of limitation shall commence from the date of the execution of such instrument: Provided, however, that the period of limitations for any action upon such instrument executed prior to the ratification of this act shall be six months from and after its ratification."

1931, c. 168.

455. Now reads: "All persons having an interest in the subject of the action and in obtaining the relief demanded may be joined as plaintiffs, either jointly, severally, or in the alternative, except as otherwise provided. If, upon the application of any party, it shall appear that such joinder may embarrass or delay the trial, the court may order separate trials or make such other order as may be expedient."

1931, c. 344, s. 1.

456. Now reads: "All persons may be made defendants, jointly, severally, or in the alternative, who have or claim an interest in the controversy adverse to the plaintiff, or who are necessary parties to a complete determination or settlement of the questions involved. In an action to recover the possession of real estate, the landlord and tenant may be joined as defendants. Any person claiming title or right of possession to real estate may be made a party plaintiff or defendant, as the case requires, in such action. If the plaintiff is in doubt as to the persons from whom he is entitled to redress, he may join two or more defendants, to determine which is liable."

1931, c. 344, s. 2.

473. Now reads: "473. Additional jurors from other counties instead of removal. Upon suggestion made as provided by the second section preceding, or on his own motion, the presiding judge, instead of making order of removal may cause as many jurors as he deems necessary to be summoned from any county in the same judicial district or in an adjoining district by the sheriff or other proper officer thereof, to attend, at such time as the judge designates, and serve as jurors in said action. The judge may direct the required number of names to be drawn from the jury box in said county in such manner as he may direct, and a list of the same to be delivered to the sheriff or other proper officer of the county, who shall at once summon the jurors so drawn to appear at the time and place specified in the order. In case a jury is not obtained from those so summoned the judge may, in like manner, from time to time, order additional jurors summoned from any county in the same judicial district or in an adjoining district, or from the county where the trial is being held, until a jury is obtained. These jurors are subject to challenge for cause as other jurors, but not for non-residence in the county of trial, or service within two years, or not being freeholders, and all jurors so summoned are entitled to compensation for mileage and time, to be paid by the county to which they are summoned, at the rate now provided by law for regular jurors in the county of their residence."

1931, c. 308.

480. Add at end of section: "Provided, however, that in case of tax suits brought under the provisions of Consolidated Statutes, section eight thousand thirty-seven, as amended, an alias or pluries summons may be sued out at any time within two years after the issuance of the original summons, whether any intervening alias or pluries summons has heretofore been issued or not, and after the issuance of such alias or pluries summons, the chain of summonses may be kept up as in any other action."

541. Add new section: "541(a). When any question shall arise as to the law of the United States, or of any other state or territory of the United States, or of the District of Columbia, or of any foreign country, the court shall take notice of such law in the same manner as if the question arose under the law of this State.

"Does not apply in any cause of action which has accrued prior to the ratification of this act."

1931, c. 30.

625. Following section add new article as follows: "Article 24(a). Declaratory Judgments. Scope. Courts of record within their respective jurisdictions shall have power to declare rights, status, and other legal relations, whether or not further relief is or could be claimed. No action or proceeding shall be open to objection on the ground that a declaratory judgment or decree is prayed for. The declaration may be either affirmative or negative in form and effect; and such declarations shall have the force and effect of a final judgment or decree.

"Power of construction. Any person interested under a deed, will, written contract or other writings constituting a contract, or whose rights, status or other legal relations are affected by a statute, municipal ordinance, contract or franchise, may have determined any question of construction or validity arising under the instrument, statute, ordinance, contract, or franchise, and obtain a declaration of rights, status, or other legal relations thereunder. A contract may be construed either before or after there has been a breach thereof.

"Who may apply for a declaration. Any person interested as or through an executor, administrator, trustee, guardian or other fiduciary, creditor, devisee, legatee, heir, next of kin, or cestui que trust, in the administration of a trust, or of the estate of a decedent, an infant, lunatic, or insolvent, may have a declaration of rights or legal relations in respect thereto: (a) To ascertain any class of creditors, devisees, legatees, heirs, next of kin or others; or (b) to direct the executors, administrators, or trustees to do or abstain from doing any particular act in their fiduciary capacity; or (c) to determine any question arising in the administration of the estate or trust, including questions of construction of wills and other writings.

"Enumeration not exclusive. The enumeration in sections two and three does not limit or restrict the exercise of the general powers conferred in section one in any proceedings where declaratory relief is sought, in which a judgment or decree will terminate the controversy or remove an uncertainty.

"Discretion of court. The court may refuse to render or enter a declaratory judgment or decree where such judgment or decree, if rendered or entered, would not terminate the uncertainty or controversy giving rise to the proceeding.

"Review. All orders, judgments and decrees under this act may be reviewed as other orders, judgments and decrees.

"Supplemental relief. Further relief based on a declaratory judgment or decree may be granted whenever necessary or proper. The application therefor shall be by petition to a court having jurisdiction to grant the relief. If the application be deemed sufficient, the court shall, on reasonable notice, require any adverse party whose rights have been adjudicated by the declaratory judgment or decree, to show cause why further relief should not be granted forthwith.

"Parties. When declaratory relief is sought, all persons shall be made parties who have or claim any interest which would be affected by the declaration, and no declaration shall prejudice the rights of persons not parties to the proceedings. In any proceeding which involves the validity of a municipal ordinance or franchise, such municipality shall be made a party, and shall be entitled to be heard, and if the statute, ordinance or franchise is alleged to be unconstitutional, the attorney general of the State shall also be served with a copy of the proceeding and be entitled to be heard.

"Jury trial. When a proceeding under this act involves the determination of an issue of fact, such issue may be determined in the same manner as issues of fact are tried and determined in other civil actions in the court in which the proceeding is pending.

"What judge may hear the proceeding. Proceedings under this act shall stand for trial at a term of court, as in other civil actions. If no issues of fact are raised, or if such issues are raised and the parties waive a jury trial, by agreement of the parties the proceedings may be heard before any judge of the Superior Court. If in such case the parties do not agree upon a judge for the hearing, then upon motion of the plaintiff the proceeding may be heard by the resident judge of the district, or the judge holding the courts of the district, or by any judge holding a term of the Superior Court within the district. Such motion shall be in writing, with ten days' notice to the defendant, and the judge so designated shall fix a time and place for the hearing and notify the parties. Upon notice given, the Clerk of the Superior Court in which the action is pending shall forward the papers in the proceeding to the judge designated. The hearing by the judge shall be governed by the practice for hearing in other civil actions before a judge without a jury. The term 'Superior Court Judge' used in this section shall include emergency and special judges of the Superior Court.

"Costs. In any proceeding under this act the court may make such award of costs as may seem equitable and just.

"Construction. This act is declared to be remedial; its purpose is to settle and to afford relief from uncertainty and insecurity with respect to rights, status, and other legal relations, and it is to be liberally construed and administered.

"Words construed. The word 'person' wherever used in this act, shall be construed to mean any person, partnership, joint stock company, unincorporated association, or society, or municipal corporation or other corporation of any character whatsoever.

"Provisions severable. The several sections and provisions of this act, except sections one and two, are hereby declared independent and severable, and the invalidity, if any, of any part or feature thereof shall not affect or render the remainder of the act invalid or inoperative.

"Uniformity of interpretation. This act shall be so interpreted and construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of those states which enact it, and to harmonize, as far as possible, with Federal laws and regulations on the subject of declaratory judgments and decrees."

1931, c. 102.

672. Now reads: "Executions shall be dated as of the day on which they were issued, and shall be returnable to the court from which they were issued, not less than forty nor more than ninety days from said date, and no executions against property shall issue until the end of the term during which judgment was rendered."

1931, c. 172.

690. Now reads: "All real property sold under execution shall be sold at the court house door of the county in which all or a part of the property is situated on the first Monday in any month or during the first three days of any term of the Superior Court of said county. That all sales of real property sold under order of court shall be sold at the court house door in the county in which all or any part of the property is situated on any Monday in any month or during the first three days of any term of the Superior Court of said county, unless in the order directing such sale some other place and time are designated and then it shall be sold as directed in such order on any day except Sunday after advertising as required by law. That all sales heretofore made under execution or by order of court on any day other than the first Monday in any month are hereby validated, ratified and confirmed, provided this act shall not affect pending legislation."

1931, c. 23.

730. In line three, between the word "sheriff" and the word "or" insert the words "a Deputy Sheriff designated by the Sheriff, and who shall be twenty-one years of age or over."

"Any sale made by a receiver may be confirmed outside of the county in which said action is pending, either by the resident judge or the judge assigned to hold any of the courts of the district in which said sale is made, upon proof of written notice to each creditor who has filed his claim with said receiver of at least ten days prior to the date of confirmation. The said notice shall specify the time and place when application for confirmation shall be made, and an affidavit of the receiver showing that notice was mailed to each creditor at his last known post office address shall be sufficient proof of notice to said creditors.

"All receiver's sales heretofore made where orders were made and confirmation decreed or either outside the county in which said actions were pending by a resident judge or the judge assigned to hold the courts of the district be and they are hereby validated, ratified and confirmed."

CHAPTER LXXXVIII CRIMINAL PROCEDURE

4556. Following this section add new article as follows: "Article 6-A. Extradition. Definitions. Where appearing in this act, the term 'Governor' includes any person performing the functions of Governor by authority of the law of this State. The term 'Executive Authority' includes the Governor and any person performing the functions of Governor in a State other than this State. And the term 'State,' referring to a State other than this State, refers to any other State or territory, organized or unorganized, of the United States of America.

Criminals to be delivered upon requisition. Subject to the qualifications of this act, and the provisions of the Constitution of the United States controlling, and acts of Congress in pursuance thereof, it is the duty of the Governor of this State to have arrested and delivered up to the executive authority of any other State of the United States any person charged in that State with treason, felony, or other crime, as provided in section 4550 of the Consolidated Statutes or abandonment of wife and/or children who has fled from justice and is found in this State.

Form of demand. No demand for the extradition of a person charged with crime in another State shall be recognized by the Governor unless in writing and accompanied by a copy of an indictment found or by an information supported by affidavit made before a magistrate there, or by a copy of any warrant which was issued thereon. The indictment, information, or affidavit made before the magistrate must substantially charge the person demanded with having committed a crime under the law of that State; and the copy must be authenticated by the executive authority making the demand, which shall be prima facie evidence of its truth.

Governor may investigate case. When a demand shall be made upon the Governor of this State by the executive authority of another State for the surrender of a person so charged with crime the Governor may call upon the attorney general or any prosecuting officer in this State to investigate or assist in investigating the demand, and to report to him the situation and circumstances of the person so demanded, and whether he ought to be surrendered.

What papers must show. A warrant of extradition must not be issued unless the documents presented by the executive authority making the demand show that the accused was present in the demanding State at the time of the commission of the alleged crime, and that he thereafter fled from that State, and is now in this State, and that he is lawfully charged by indictment found or by an information filed by a prosecuting officer and supported by affidavit to the facts, or by affidavit made before a magistrate in that State, with having committed a crime under the laws of that State, or that he has been convicted of crime in that State and has escaped from confinement or broken his parole.

"Issue of Governor's warrant of arrest; its recitals. If the Governor shall decide that the demand should be complied with, he shall sign a warrant of arrest, which shall be sealed with the State seal, and be directed to a sheriff, marshal, coroner, or other person whom he may think fit to entrust with the execution thereof; and the warrant must substantially recite the facts necessary to the validity of its issue.

"Manner and place of execution. Such warrant shall authorize the officer or other person to whom directed to arrest the accused at any place where he may be found within the State and to command the aid of all sheriffs and other peace officers in the execution of the warrant, and to deliver the accused subject to the provisions of this act, to the duly authorized agent of the demanding State.

"Authority of arresting officer. Every such officer or other person empowered to make the arrest, shall have the same authority in arresting the accused to command assistance therein, as sheriffs and other officers have by law in the execution of any criminal process directed to them with the like penalties against those who refuse their assistance.

"Accused may apply for writ of Habeas Corpus. No person arrested upon such warrant shall be delivered over to the agent whom the executive authority demanding him shall have appointed to receive him unless he has been informed of the demand made for his surrender and of the crime with which he is charged, and that he has the right to demand legal counsel; and if the prisoner, his friends, or counsel shall state that he or they desire to test the legality of the arrest, the prisoner shall be taken forthwith before a judge of a court of record in this State, who shall fix a reasonable time to be allowed him within which to apply for a writ of habeas corpus. And when such writ is applied for, notice thereof, and of the time and place of hearing thereon, shall be given to the public prosecuting officer of the county in which the arrest is made and in which the accused is in custody, and to the said agent of the demanding State.

"Penalty for non-compliance with preceding section. Any officer who shall deliver to the agent for extradition of the demanding State a person in his custody under the Governor's warrant in disobedience to the last section or any agent for extradition who shall attempt to deprive the defendant of the benefits of section nine shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction shall be fined (not more than one thousand ($1,000) dollars, or be imprisoned not more than six months, or both).

"Confinement in jail when necessary. The officer or person executing the Governor's warrant of arrest, or the agent of the demanding State to whom the prisoner may have been delivered, may, when necessary, confine the prisoner in the jail of any county or city through which he may pass; and the keeper of such jail must receive and safely keep the prisoner until the person having charge of him is ready to proceed on his route, such person being chargeable with the expense of keeping.

"Arrest prior to requisition. Whenever any person within this State shall be charged on the oath of any credible person before any judge or other magistrate of this State with the commission of any crime in any other State and with having fled from justice; or whenever complaint shall have been made before any judge or other magistrate in this State setting forth on the affidavit of any credible person in another State that a crime has been committed in such other State and that the accused has been charged in such State with the commission of the crime, and has fled therefrom and is believed to have been found in this State, the judge or magistrate shall issue a warrant directed to the sheriff of the county in which the oath or complaint is filed directing him to apprehend the person charged, wherever he may be found in this State, and bring him before the same or any other judge, court or magistrate who may be convenient of access to the place where the arrest may be made, to answer the charge or complaint and affidavit; and a certified copy of the sworn charge or complaint and affidavit upon which the warrant is issued shall be attached to the warrant.

"Arrest without a warrant. The arrest of a person may be lawfully made also by an officer or a private citizen without a warrant upon reasonable information that the accused stands charged with a crime punishable by death or life imprisonment or ten years in the State's Prison in the courts of another State; but when so arrested the accused must be taken before a judge or magistrate with all practicable speed and complaint must be made against him under oath setting forth the ground for the arrest as in the last section; and thereafter his answer shall be heard as if he had been arrested on a warrant.

"Commitment to await requisition; bail. If from the examination before the judge or magistrate it appears that the person held is the person charged with having committed the crime alleged and that he probably committed the crime, and, except in cases arising under section six, that he has fled from justice, the judge or magistrate must commit him to jail by a warrant reciting the accusation for such a time specified in the warrant as will enable the arrest of the accused to be made under a warrant of the Governor on a requisition of the executive authority of the State having jurisdiction of the offense, unless the accused give bail as provided in the next section, or until he shall be legally discharged.

"Bail except in capital and life imprisonment cases; condition and requisites of bond. Unless the offense with which the prisoner is charged is shown to be an offense punishable by death or life imprisonment under the laws of the State in which it was committed, the judge or magistrate must admit the person arrested to bail by bond or undertaking, with sufficient sureties, and in such sum as he deems proper, for his appearance before him at a time specified in such bond or undertaking, and for his surrender, to be arrested upon the warrant of the Governor of this State.

"If no arrest made on Governor's warrant before the time specified. If the accused is not arrested under warrant of the Governor by the expiration of the time specified in the warrant, bond or undertaking, the judge or magistrate may discharge him or may recommit him to a further day, or may again take bail for his appearance and surrender, as provided in section sixteen; and at the expiration of the second period of commitment, or if he has been bailed and appeared according to the terms of his bond or undertaking, the judge or magistrate may either discharge him, or may require him to enter into a new bond or undertaking, to appear and surrender himself at another day.

"Forfeiture of bail. If the prisoner is admitted to bail, and fails to appear and surrender himself according to the condition of his bond, the court, by proper order, shall declare the bond forfeited; and recovery may be had thereon in the name of the State as in the case of other bonds or undertakings given by the accused in criminal proceedings within this State.

"If a prosecution has already been instituted in this State. If a criminal prosecution has been instituted against such person under the laws of this State and is still pending, the Governor at his discretion either may surrender him on the demand of the executive authority of another State, or may hold him until he has been tried and discharged, or convicted and punished in this State.

"Governor may recall warrant or issue alias. The Governor may recall his warrant of arrest, or may issue another warrant whenever he deems proper.

"Fugitives from this State. Whenever the Governor of this State shall demand a person charged with crime in this State from the chief executive of any other State, or from the chief justice or an associate justice of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia authorized to receive such demand under the laws of the United States, he shall issue a warrant under the seal of this State, to some agent, commanding him to receive the person so charged if delivered to him and convey him to the proper officer of the county in this State in which the offense was committed.

"Manner of applying for requisition. When the return to this State of a person charged with crime in this State is required, the prosecuting attorney (of the county in which the offense is committed) shall present to the Governor his written application for a requisition for the return of the person charged, in which application shall be stated the name of the person so charged, the crime charged against him, and the approximate time, place and circumstances of its committal, the State in which he is believed to be, including the location of the accused therein at the time the application is made, and certifying that in the opinion of the said prosecuting attorney the ends of justice require the arrest and return of the accused to this State for trial, and that the proceeding is not instituted to enforce a private claim. The application shall be verified by affidavit, shall be executed in duplicate and shall be accompanied by two certified copies of the indictment returned, or information and affidavit filed, or of the complaint made to the magistrate, stating the offense with which the accused is charged. The prosecuting officer may also attach such further affidavits and other documents in duplicate as he may deem proper to be submitted with such application. One copy of the application with the action of the Governor indicated by endorsement thereon, and one of the certified copies of the indictment or complaint or information and affidavit, shall be filed in the office of the Governor, to remain of record in that office. The other copies of all papers shall be forwarded with the Governor's requisition.

"Costs and expense. When the crime shall be a felony, the expenses shall be paid out of the State Treasury, on the certificate of the Governor and warrant of the Auditor; and in all other cases they shall be paid out of the county treasury in the county wherein the crime is alleged to be committed. The expenses shall be the actual travelling and subsistence costs of the agent of the demanding State, together with such legal fees as were paid to the officers of the State on whose Governor the requisition is made. In every case, the officer entitled to these expenses shall itemize the same and verify them by his oath for presentation, either to the Governor of the State, in proper cases, or to the board of county commissioners, in cases in which the county pays such expenses.

"Exemption from civil process. A person brought into this State on extradition based on a criminal charge, shall not be subject to service of personal process in civil actions arising out of the same fact as the criminal proceeding to answer which he is returned, until he has been convicted in the criminal proceeding, or if acquitted, until he has had ample opportunity to return to the State from which he was extradited.

"No right of asylum. After a person has been brought back to this State upon extradition proceedings, he may be tried in this State for other crimes which he may be charged with having committed here, as well as that specified in the requisition for his extradition.

"Interpretation. This act shall be so interpreted and construed as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law of those States which enact it.

"If any part of this act is for any reason declared void, such invalidity shall not effect the validity of the remaining portions of this act."

Now reads: "It shall be the duty of the sheriff or tax collector of a county or municipality, immediately after the sale of land for taxes to prepare a book containing a list of the names of all persons whose land has been sold for taxes showing the names of each delinquent taxpayer, the amount of taxes, penalty, cost of sale, the total amount of the certificate of sale and the name of the purchaser. If the county or municipality become the purchaser, under the provisions of law, he shall record the fact in such book. The sheriff or tax collector shall certify such book and file the same in the office of register of deeds and said register of deeds shall keep and preserve said book. Said book and record of certificates of sale shall be sufficient notice to lien holders and other parties interested in the property sold for taxes. Any delinquent taxpayer, lien holder or party interested in said property may, upon presentation to the register of deeds of the certificates of sale marked paid and signed by the proper collecting officer, cause the register of deeds, upon payment of a fee of ten cents, to make an entry on said record giving the amount paid, the description of the property, whether in whole or a part thereof, and by whom said taxes were paid. Where the word 'sheriff' appears in this act, it shall mean 'the sheriff or tax collector of each county,' or, 'the tax collector of each city or town.'"
1931, c. 260, s. 7.

8037. Now reads: "Every holder of a sheriff's certificate of sale of real estate for taxes shall have the right of lien against all real estate described in the certificate as in case of mortgage, and shall be subrogated to the rights of the State and of the county, or other municipal corporation, for the taxes for which such real estate was sold, and shall be entitled to a judgment for the sale of such real estate for the satisfaction of whatever sums may be due to him upon such certificate of sale and for any other amount expended by him upon any other such certificate of sale of such real estate, or for taxes or assessments paid which were a lien upon such real estate, whether paid prior or subsequent to the acquisition of such certificate of sale. Such relief shall be afforded only in an action in the nature of an action to foreclose a mortgage, which action must be commenced as herein provided. Such action shall be governed in all respects as near as may be, by the rules governing actions to foreclose a mortgage. The person in whose name said real estate has been listed for taxation, together with the wife or husband, if married, shall be made defendants in said action and shall be served with process as in civil actions.

"Notice, by posting at the courthouse door, shall be given to all other persons claiming any interest in the subject matter of the action to appear, present and defend their claims. Said notice shall describe the nature of the action and shall require such persons to set up their claims in six months from the date of the final appearance of the general advertisement of such notice as required herein, otherwise they shall be forever barred and foreclosed of any and all interest or claims in or to the property or the proceeds received from the sale thereof. General advertisement shall be made of such notice by publication, which advertisement shall appear once a week for four successive weeks and shall contain substantially the following:

FORECLOSURE SUITS FOR TAXES
ACTIONS INSTITUTED DURING THE MONTH OF
....., 19.....
..... Advertisement.
(First, second, third, or final)
Names of Plaintiffs. Names of Defendants. Township.
Year Taxes Delinquent.

The cost of the general advertisement shall be pro rated and taxed against each defendant. Upon the return of the summons executed upon the taxpayer, his/her wife or husband, the court shall proceed to judgment without awaiting the six months allowed to other claimants. In case the action is prosecuted by the State, county or other municipality, no prosecuting bond shall be required to be deposited or paid any officer; costs shall be taxed against the defendant or defendants as in other cases and after and when collected shall be paid to the officers entitled to receive the same: Provided, the fees allowed any officer shall not exceed one-half such fees allowed in other civil actions. The deed which shall be made to the purchaser as herein-after provided for, shall convey the real estate to the purchaser in fee simple free from any and all claims or interest of the taxpayer, his/her wife or husband or of any other person.

"In the complaint filed in such action each certificate of sale held by the plaintiff and each sum expended by him for taxes or assessments on such real estate, or claimed by him as a lien on same, shall be set out separately. The description set out in the tax sale certificate shall be sufficient to support the lien and certificate of sale and the court shall require a description which is in fact and in law sufficient description of the real estate to be set out in the published notice, if any, as above provided, and in the interlocutory judgment of sale and in the final judgment of confirmation and to the end that such description may be obtained, the resident or presiding judge may order a survey of said real estate, if in his opinion a survey is necessary.

"Every county, or political sub-division of the State which is now, or may hereafter become, the holder by purchase at sheriff's sale of land for taxes of any certificate of sale, shall bring action to foreclose the same within eighteen months from the date of the certificate.

"The certificate of sale shall bear interest at the rate of 10 per centum per annum on the entire amount of taxes and sheriff's cost, for a period of twelve months from the date of sale and thereafter shall bear interest at the rate of eight per centum per annum until paid, or until the final judgment of confirmation is rendered, but every holder of a certificate other than county, municipal corporation or other political sub-division, shall, in case said action is not instituted within eighteen months from the date of the first certificate of sale, only receive after the expiration of eighteen months on all amounts expended on, or in connection with, said purchase interest at the rate of 6 per centum per annum. In any action to foreclose the cost shall be taxed as in other civil actions and shall include an allowance for the commissioner appointed to make the sale, which shall not be more than 5 per centum of the amount at which the land is sold and one reasonable attorney's fee for plaintiff: Provided, however, the board of commissioners of any county or the governing body of any municipality shall employ an attorney to conduct such actions, and shall fix his compensation, which shall be paid out of the general fund, and shall cause to be taxed in the bill of costs a fee which in no event shall exceed ten dollars ($10) in each suit for foreclosure for the purpose of reimbursing the general fund for the compensation of said attorney; and: Provided, further, no process tax shall be taxed for the use of the State against the defendant in any action to foreclose a certificate of sale.

"All certificates of sale evidencing purchases by counties shall immediately, upon being allowed as a credit in the settlement with the sheriff of the county, be delivered to the county accountant, county auditor, or other officer, specifically designated by the board of county commissioners, or other governing board of the county, except sheriff or tax collecting officer, and it shall be the duty of the officer, or such officer designated, to collect the same. In making the collection he shall collect interest at the rate provided in this chapter, which shall not be remitted either by said officer or the governing board of the county, or other political sub-division. If, at the end of sixteen months from the date of the certificate of sale, full collection of the tax, interest and cost has not been made, such officer shall proceed to foreclose the certificate of sale under the provisions of this article, and said action shall be instituted within twenty-four months from the date of the certificate of sale. Such officer shall call upon the county attorney to conduct the action to foreclose the certificate of sale and it shall be his duty to prosecute said action as vigorously as may be necessary to obtain early final action. After the institution of the action by counties or municipalities, the taxpayer shall have no right of redemption except upon the payment of the full tax, interest and other sums, and all cost and allowances: Provided, that the institution of the action to foreclose shall not affect the rate of interest to be collected and the governing board of the county, or municipality, shall have no authority to remit or reduce the interest due under the certificate of sale, or otherwise interfere with the action to foreclose.

"Where the certificate of sale is taken by a municipality, all the provisions of this section shall apply to the foreclosure of such certificate of sale and to its collection and the governing authorities of the municipalities may place such certificates of sale in the hands of one of its officers for collection and he shall have the same authority to collect them as the officer herein provided for counties.

"In any action to foreclose the certificate of sale under the provisions of this act when it has been properly instituted and all party defendants have been properly served and the complaint is duly verified and no answer is filed by some or all of said defendants, the Clerk of the Superior Court in which such action is instituted may give a judgment pro confesso in which all the essential facts alleged in the complaint are recited against those defendants not answering. If none of the defendants, so properly served, file any answer, said Clerk may proceed and make the orders provided for in this section without transferring the cause to the Superior Court in term time, and the same jurisdiction in such cases to make sure orders as that conferred upon the resident Judge of the Superior Court or the Judge riding the district, is conferred upon the Clerk. Where any of the parties, however, have answered and the answer creates any issue as to those parties, the subsequent proceedings shall be provided as in substitute section eight thousand and thirty-seven of chapter two hundred and twenty-one of the Public Laws of one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven, except that the judgment pro confesso shall bind the parties who have not answered, and the facts so found shall be taken by the Judge of the Superior Court as binding upon those particular defendants.

"Any person, corporation or firm, or the board of commissioners of any county or the governing body of any municipality holding a certificate of sale on which an action to foreclose has not been brought but according to the terms of chapter two hundred twenty-one of the Public Laws of one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven as amended should have been brought, shall have until the first day of December, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, to institute such action. This section and extension shall include all certificates executed for the sales prior to and including sales for the tax levy of the year one thousand nine hundred twenty-eight. The board of commissioners or the governing body of any county or municipality holding any certificate upon which action has been brought, but upon which final judgment of confirmation has not been rendered, may, by recorded resolution, cause such action to be held in abeyance until the first day of December, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, and the court shall abide by such resolution: Provided, however, that where any action to foreclose has heretofore been instituted or brought for the collection of any tax certificate, prior to the ratification of this act, under the then existing laws, nothing herein shall prevent or prohibit the continuance and suing to completion any of said suit or suits under the laws existing at the time of institution of said action.

"When a certificate of sale is held by a county and also by a city or town for the same tract or parcel of real property, both of such governmental units may be joined as parties plaintiff in the same foreclosure action, and in such event the proceeds derived from a foreclosure sale of such real property, or so much thereof as may be necessary to satisfy the claims, shall be apportioned by the court to the parties according to their respective liens.

"This act shall apply to all taxes and tax certificates up to and including the nineteen and twenty-nine levy but subject to pending litigation and contracts with attorneys as above set out in section eight and subject to section seven of chapter two hundred four, laws of one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine.

"Nothing in this act shall affect pending actions brought by any holder of a tax certificate other than a county, city or town."

1931, cc. 260, 324, 389. (See also 1927, c. 221; 1929, cc. 204, 334.)

8037(b). Insert a new section as follows: "8037(b). Between the first day of December and the first day of May after taxes are due, any lienholder or interested party may file a list with the register of deeds containing the names of taxpayers on whose property a lien or interest is held, showing such information with respect to each of such taxpayers as is hereinafter required to be recorded by said register of deeds. Such list shall be accompanied by a fee of ten cents for each name contained therein, and may be filed with the register of deeds by registered mail, with a return receipt requested therefor. It shall thereupon be the duty of the register of deeds to record such list in a book designated as 'Record of Taxes for Mortgagees,' and such record shall contain with respect to each taxpayer included in such list as filed the following:

"The date when the list was filed; the name of the taxpayer; the name and address of the lienholder or other interested party; the book and page in his office wherein such lien or liens are recorded; and if said property is subject to taxes of a municipality, the name of such municipality.

"The register of deeds shall keep a cross-index to such 'Records of Taxes for Mortgagees,' and in any action to foreclose a certificate of sale, all lienholders or other interested parties having filed a list as provided herein, and if such list contains the name of the defendant in the action, shall be made parties to said action, and the cost of the service of the summons shall be taxed against the lienholder. The rights of such lienholders shall not be affected unless made parties to the action."
