Volume 2 of the General Statutes of North Carolina of 1943 was replaced in 1950 by recompiled volumes 2A, 2B and 2C, containing Chapters 28 through 105 of the General Statutes, as amended and supplemented by the enactments of the General Assembly down through the 1949 Session. In 1958 a replacement volume 2C was published in which the statutes and annotations appearing in the recompiled volume 2C and in the 1957 Cumulative Supplement thereto were combined. In 1960 a replacement volume 2B was published in which the statutes and annotations appearing in the recompiled volume 2B and in the 1959 Cumulative Supplement thereto were combined. Replacement volumes 2B and 2C have now been replaced by replacement volumes 2B, 2C and 2D, which combine the statutes and annotations appearing in the previous volumes 2B and 2C and in the 1963 Cumulative Supplement thereto.

In replacement volume 2D the form and the designations of subsections, subdivisions and lesser divisions of sections have in many instances been changed, so as to follow in every case the uniform system of numbering, lettering and indentation adopted by the General Statutes Commission. For example, subsections in the replacement volume are designated by lower case letters in parentheses, thus: (a). Subdivisions of both sections and subsections are designated by Arabic numerals in parentheses, thus: (1). Lesser divisions likewise follow a uniform plan. Attention is called to the fact that it has not, of course been possible, except in replacement volumes 2B, 2C, 3B, 3C and 3D, to make corresponding changes in any references that may appear in other volumes to sections contained in volume 2D.

The historical references appearing at the end of each section have been rearranged in chronological order. For instance, the historical references appended to § 31-5.1 read as follows: (1784, c. 204, s. 14; 1819, c. 1004, ss. 1, 2; 1840, c. 62; R. C., c. 119, s. 22; Code, s. 2176; Rev., s. 3115; C. S., s. 4133; 1945, c. 140; 1953, c. 1098, s. 3.) In this connection attention should be called to a peculiarity in the manner of citing the early acts in the historical references. The acts through the year 1825 are cited, not by the chapter numbers of the session laws of the particular years, but by the chapter numbers assigned to them in Potter's Revisal (published in 1821 and containing the acts from 1715 through 1820) or in Potter's Revisal continued (published in 1827 and containing the acts from 1821 through 1825). Thus, in the illustration set out above the citations "1784, c. 204, s. 14; 1819, c. 1004, ss. 1, 2" refer to the chapter numbers in Potter's Revisal and not to the chapter numbers of the Laws of 1784 and 1819, respectively. The chapter numbers in Potter's Revisal and Potter's Revisal continued run consecutively, and hence do not correspond, at least after 1715, to the chapter numbers in the session laws of the particular years. After 1825 the chapter numbers in the session laws are used.

This replacement volume has been prepared and published under the supervision of the Department of Justice of the State of North Carolina. The members of the North Carolina Bar are requested to communicate any defects they may find in the General Statutes, and any suggestions they may have for improving them, to the Department, or to The Michie Company, Law Publishers, Charlottesville, Virginia.

THOMAS WADE BRUTON,
Attorney General.

§ 97-1. Official title.—This article shall be known and cited as “The North Carolina Workmen’s Compensation Act.” (1929, c. 120, s. 1.)

Editor’s Note.—For case law survey on workmen’s compensation, see 41 N. C. Law Rev. 409.

In General.—It was the purpose of the General Assembly in providing for compensation for an employee, that the North Carolina Industrial Commission, created by the Workmen’s Compensation Act for that purpose, shall administer its provisions to the end that both employee and employer shall receive the benefits and enjoy the protection of the act. The act contemplates mutual concessions by employee and employer; for that reason, its validity has been upheld, and its policy approved. Winslow v. Carolina Conference Ass’n, 211 N. C. 571, 191 S. E. 408 (1937); See Lee v. American Enka Corp., 212 N. C. 455, 193 S. E. 809 (1937); National Labor Relations Board v. Moss Planing Mill Co., 224 F. (2d) 702 (1955).

Purpose of Act.—The primary purpose of legislation of this kind is to compel industry to take care of its own wreckage. Barber v. Minges, 223 N. C. 213, 25 S. E. (2d) 837 (1943).

The underlying purpose of the Workmen’s Compensation Act is to provide compensation for workmen who suffer disability by accident arising out of and in the course of their employment. Henry v. A. C. Lawrence Leather Co., 234 N. C. 126, 66 S. E. (2d) 693 (1951).

One of the purposes of compensation laws is to grant certain and speedy relief to injured employees, or, in case of death, to their dependents. Cabe v. Parker-Graham-Sexton, 202 N. C. 176, 162 S. E. 223 (1932).

One of the purposes of the Workmen’s Compensation Act is to relieve against hardship rather than to afford full compensation for injury. The fixing of maximum and minimum awards in industry is a compromise. Kellams v. Carolina Metal Products, Inc., 248 N. C. 199, 102 S. E. (2d) 841 (1958).

It is not the purpose of the Workmen’s Compensation Act to exculpate or absolve employers from the consequences of their negligent conduct. Tscheller v. National Weaving Co., 214 N. C. 449, 199 S. E. 623 (1938).

The philosophy which supports the Workmen’s Compensation Act is that the wear and tear of human beings in modern industry should be charged to the industry, just as the wear and tear of machinery has always been charged. And while such compensation is presumably charged to the industry, and consequently to the employer or owner of the industry, eventually it becomes a part of the fair money cost of the industrial product, to be paid for by the general public patronizing such products. Vause v. Vause Farm Equipment Co., 233 N. C. 88, 63 S. E. (2d) 173 (1950).
The Workmen's Compensation Act is primarily for the protection and benefit of the employee, and he is entitled to know with certainty when his right of action accrues. Hartsell v. Thermoid Co., 249 N. C. 527, 107 S. E. (2d) 118 (1959).

Application. — The Workmen's Compensation Act deals with the incidents and risks of the contract of employment, in which is included the negligence of the employer in that relation. It has no application outside the field of industrial accident; and does not intend, by its general terms, to take away common-law or other rights which pertain to the parties as members of the general public, disconnected from the employment. Barber v. Minges, 223 N. C. 213, 25 S. E. (2d) 837 (1943).

Constitutionality. — The Workmen's Compensation Act of North Carolina has been held to be constitutional by the Supreme Court of that State, and the Supreme Court of the United States has upheld the constitutionality of similar compensation acts. Jenkins v. American Enka Corp., 95 F. (2d) 755 (1938).

Mother of deceased employee contended that she was entitled under the statute of distribution to any sum receivable for death of deceased and that the Workmen's Compensation Act, which deprived her of that right, was unconstitutional. It was held that compensation legislation is a valid exercise of police power. Heavner v. Lincolnton, 202 N. C. 400, 162 S. E. 909 (1932), appeal dismissed, 287 U. S. 672, 53 S. Ct. 4, 77 L. Ed. 579 (1932).

Basis of Liability. — The Workmen's Compensation Act takes into consideration certain elements of a mutual concession between the employer and employee by which the question of negligence is eliminated, and liability under the act rests upon the employer upon the condition precedent of an injury by accident occurring in the course of employment and arising out of it. Conrad v. Cook Lewis Foundry Co., 198 N. C. 723, 158 S. E. 266 (1930).

The Workmen's Compensation Act eliminates the question of negligence as a basis for recovery thereunder, but it is not the equivalent of general accident or health insurance, and provides for compensation only for those injuries by accident which arise out of and in the course of the employment. Vause v. Vause Farm Equipment Co., 233 N. C. 88, 63 S. E. (2d) 173 (1951).

The Workmen's Compensation Act Is Not an Accident and Health Insurance Act. — The legislative intent seems clear that our Workmen's Compensation Act is an industrial injury act, and not an accident and health insurance act. The court should not overstep the bounds of legislative intent and make by judicial legislation the compensation act an accident and health insurance act. Lewter v. Abercrombie Enterprises, Inc., 240 N. C. 399, 82 S. E. (2d) 410 (1954).

Construction. — The Workmen's Compensation Act is to be construed liberally to effectuate the broad intent of the Act to provide compensation for employees sustaining an injury arising out of and in the course of the employment, and no technical or strained construction should be given to defeat this purpose. Johnson v. Asheville Hosiery Company, 199 N. C. 38, 153 S. E. 591 (1930). See Roberts v. City Ice, etc., Co., 210 N. C. 17, 185 S. E. 438 (1936); Barbour v. State Hospital, 213 N. C. 515, 196 S. E. 812 (1938).

The Workmen's Compensation Act is a radical and systematic change in the common law and must be liberally construed to accomplish its purposes. Its provisions are superior to the common law in all respects where it deals with the liabilities arising out of the relationship of employer and employee. Essick v. Lexington, 232 N. C. 200, 60 S. E. (2d) 106 (1950).

The Workmen's Compensation Act requires that it be liberally construed to effectuate the objects for which it was passed to provide compensation for workers injured in industrial accidents. Keller v. Electric Wiring Co., Inc., 259 N. C. 222, 130 S. E. (2d) 342 (1963).

The Workmen's Compensation Act should be liberally construed to the end that the benefit thereof should not be denied upon technical, narrow and strict interpretation. Henry v. A. C. Lawrence Leather Co., 231 N. C. 477, 57 S. E. (2d)

However, the rule of liberal construction cannot be extended beyond the clearly expressed language of the act. Gilmore v. Hoke County Board of Education, 222 N. C. 358, 23 S. E. (2d) 292 (1942).

Nor can the rule of liberal construction be carried to the point of applying the act to employments not within its stated scope, or not within its intent or purpose. Wilson v. Mooresville, 222 N. C. 283, 22 S. E. (2d) 907 (1942).

The doctrine of liberal construction of the Workmen's Compensation Act arises out of the act itself and relates only to cases falling within the purview of the act. It cannot be invoked to determine when the act applies. Hayes v. Elon College, 224 N. C. 11, 29 S. E. (2d) 137 (1944).

The courts are without authority to enlarge the meaning of the terms used in the Workmen's Compensation Act by the legislature or to extend by construction its scope and intent so as to include persons not embraced by its terms. Hayes v. Elon College, 224 N. C. 11, 29 S. E. (2d) 137 (1944).

The provisions of the Workmen's Compensation Act are to be liberally construed to effectuate the legislative intent as gathered from the act to award compensation for the injury or death of an employee arising out of and in the course of his employment, irrespective of the question of negligence. Reeves v. Parker-Graham-Sexton, Inc., 199 N. C. 236, 154 S. E. 66 (1930).

The various provisions of the Workmen's Compensation Act are to be construed in their relations to each other as a whole to effectuate the intent of the legislature to provide compensation to an employee for injury arising out of and in the course of his employment. Rice v. Denny Roll & Panel Co., 199 N. C. 154, 154 S. E. 69 (1930).

Ordinarily, when the pleadings in a common-law tort action disclose that the parties are subject to and bound by the provisions of the North Carolina Workmen's Compensation Act with respect to the injury involved, dismissal is proper, for the Industrial Commission has exclusive jurisdiction in such cases. Neal v. Clary, 259 N. C. 163, 130 S. E. (2d) 39 (1963).

Findings of fact of the Industrial Commission, supported by competent evidence, were to the effect that defendant's employee was temporarily employed in pumping water from a barge which was being loaded with logs on a navigable river, that the barge careened, that the employee fell or jumped from the shore side of the barge and was actually killed on land as a result of the barge crushing him. It further appeared that the barge was without means of propulsion and was at the time incapable of navigation, and that both the employee and the defendant had accepted, and were amenable to this chapter. It was held that the North Carolina Industrial Commission had jurisdiction to hear and determine the claim for compensation for the employee's death, its jurisdiction not being ousted by the admiralty and maritime jurisdiction of the United States. Johnson v. Foreman-Blades Lbr. Co., 216 N. C. 123, 4 S. E. (2d) 334 (1939).

Judicial Notice.—Our courts will take judicial notice of a public statute of the State, which therefore need not be pleaded, and the North Carolina Workmen's Compensation Act is a public statute. Miller v.

(1) Employment. — The term "employment" includes employment by the State and all political subdivisions thereof, and all public and quasi-public corporations therein and all private employments in which five or more employees are regularly employed in the same business or establishment, except agriculture and domestic services, and an individual sawmill and logging operator with less than ten (10) employees, who saws and logs less than sixty (60) days in any six consecutive months and whose principal business is unrelated to sawmilling or logging.

(2) Employee. — The term "employee" means every person engaged in an employment under any appointment or contract of hire or apprenticeship, express or implied, oral or written, including aliens, and also minors, whether lawfully or unlawfully employed, but excluding persons whose employment is both casual and not in the course of the trade, business, profession or occupation of his employer, and as relating to those so employed by the State, the term "employee" shall include all officers and employees of the State, except only such as are elected by the people, or by the General Assembly, or appointed by the Governor to serve on a per diem, part time or fee basis, either with or without the confirmation of the Senate; as relating to municipal corporations and political subdivisions of the State, the term "employee" shall include all officers and employees thereof, except such as are elected by the people: Provided, that the governing body of any municipal corporation or political subdivision may, in its discretion, bring officers elected by the people within the coverage of this article by adopting an appropriate resolution, and during the time such resolution is in effect any such elected officer shall be deemed to be an "employee" of such municipal corporation or political subdivision under this article. The term "employee" shall include members of the North Carolina National Guard, except when called into the service of the United States, and members of the North Carolina State Guard, and members of these organizations shall be entitled to compensation for injuries arising out of and in the course of the performance of their duties at drill, in camp, or on special duty under orders of the Governor. The term "employee" shall include deputy sheriffs and all persons acting in the capacity of deputy sheriffs, whether appointed by the sheriff or by the governing body of the county and whether serving on a fee basis or on a salary basis, or whether deputy sheriffs serving upon a full time basis or a part time basis, and including deputy sheriffs appointed to serve in an emergency, but as to those so appointed, only during the continuation of the emergency. The sheriff shall furnish to the board of county commissioners a complete list of all deputy sheriffs named or appointed by him immediately after their appointment, and notify the board of commissioners of any changes made therein promptly after such changes are made. Any reference to an employee who has been injured shall, when the employee is dead, include also his legal representative, dependents, and other persons to whom compensation may be payable: Provided, that the third and fourth sentences herein shall not apply to Alleghany, Avery, Bladen, Carteret, Cherokee, Gates, Hyde, Macon, Pender, Perquimans, Union, Watauga and Wilkes counties: Provided, further, that any employee as herein defined of a municipality, county, or of the State of North Carolina while engaged in the discharge of his official duty outside the jurisdictional or territorial limits of the municipality, county, or the State of North Carolina and while acting pursuant to authorization or instruction from any superior officer, shall have the same rights under this article as if such duty or activity were performed within the territorial boundary limits of his employer.

Every executive officer elected or appointed and empowered in accordance with the charter and by-laws of a corporation, other than a charitable, religious, educational or other non-profit corporation, shall be an employee of such corporation under this article.

Any such executive officer of a charitable, religious, educational, or other non-profit corporation may, notwithstanding any other provision of this article, be brought within the coverage of its insurance contract by any such corporation by specifically including such executive officer in such contract of insurance and the election to bring such executive officer within the coverage shall continue for the period such contract of insurance is in effect, and during such period such executive officers thus brought within the coverage of the insurance contract shall be employees of such corporation under this article.

A county agricultural extension service employee holding an appointment as a member of the staff of the United States Department of Agriculture shall not be an employee of the county under this article.

(3) Employer.—The term “employer” means the State and all political subdivisions thereof, all public and quasi-public corporations therein, every person carrying on any employment and the legal representative of a deceased person or the receiver or trustee of any person. The board of commissioners of each county of the State, for the purposes of this law, shall be considered as “employer” of all deputy sheriffs serving within such county, or persons serving or performing the duties of a deputy sheriff, whether such persons are appointed by the sheriff or by the board of commissioners and whether serving on a fee basis or salary basis. Each county is authorized to insure its compensation liability for deputy sheriffs to the same extent it is authorized to insure other compensation liability for employees thereof: Provided, that the last two sentences herein shall not apply to Alleghany, Avery, Bladen, Carteret, Cherokee, Gates, Hyde, Macon, Pender, Perquimans, Union, Watauga and Wilkes counties.

(4) Person.—The term “person” means individual, partnership, association or corporation.

(5) Average Weekly Wages. — “Average weekly wages” shall mean the earnings of the injured employee in the employment in which he was working at the time of the injury during the period of fifty-two weeks immediately preceding the date of the injury, including the subsistence allowance paid to veteran trainees by the United States government, provided the amount of said allowance shall be reported monthly by said trainee to his employer, divided by fifty-two; but if the injured employee lost more than seven consecutive calendar days at one or more times during such period, although not in the same week, then the earnings for the remainder of such fifty-two weeks shall be divided by the number of weeks remaining after the time so lost has been deducted. Where the employment prior to the injury extended over a period of less than fifty-two weeks, the method of dividing the earnings during that period by the number of weeks and parts thereof during which the employee earned wages shall be followed; provided, results fair and just to both parties will be thereby obtained. Where, by reason of a shortness of time during which the employee has been in the employment of his employer or the casual nature or terms of his employment, it is impractical to compute the average weekly wages as above defined, regard shall be had to the average weekly amount which during the fifty-two weeks previous to the injury was being earned by a person of the same grade and character employed in the same class of employment in the same locality or community.

But where for exceptional reasons the foregoing would be unfair, either to the employer or employee, such other method of computing average weekly wages may be resorted to as will most nearly approximate the amount which the injured employee would be earning were it not for the injury.

Wherever allowances of any character made to an employee in lieu of wages are specified part of the wage contract they shall be deemed a part of his earnings.

Where a minor employee, under the age of twenty-one years, sustains a permanent disability or dies, the compensation payable for permanent disability or death shall be calculated, first, upon the average weekly wage paid to adult employees employed by the same employer at the time of the accident in a similar or like class of work which the injured minor employee would probably have been promoted to if not injured, or, second, upon such other method as may be used to compute the average weekly wage as will most nearly approximate the amount which the injured employee would be earning as an adult if it were not for the accident. Compensation for temporary total disability shall be computed upon the average weekly wage at the time of the accident, unless the total disability extends more than fifty-two weeks and then the compensation may be increased in proportion to his expected earnings.

In case of disabling injury to a volunteer fireman under compensable circumstances, compensation payable shall be calculated upon the average weekly wage the volunteer fireman was earning in the employment wherein he principally earned his livelihood as of the date of injury.

(6) Injury.—“Injury and personal injury” shall mean only injury by accident arising out of and in the course of the employment, and shall not include a disease in any form, except where it results naturally and unavoidably from the accident.

(7) Carrier.—The term “carrier” or “insurer” means any person or fund authorized under § 97-93 to insure under this article, and includes self-insurers.

(8) Commission.—The term “Commission” means the North Carolina Industrial Commission, to be created under the provisions of this article.

(9) Disability.—The term “disability” means incapacity because of injury to earn the wages which the employee was receiving at the time of injury in the same or any other employment.

(10) Death. — The term “death” as a basis for a right to compensation means only death resulting from an injury.
(11) Compensation.—The term “compensation” means the money allowance payable to an employee or to his dependents as provided for in this article, and includes funeral benefits provided herein.

(12) Child, Grandchild, Brother, Sister.—The term “child” shall include a posthumous child, a child legally adopted prior to the injury of the employee, and a stepchild or acknowledged illegitimate child dependent upon the deceased, but does not include married children unless wholly dependent upon him. “Grandchild” means a child as above defined of a child as above defined. “Brother” and “sister” include stepbrothers and stepsisters, half brothers and half sisters, and brothers and sisters by adoption, but does not include married brothers nor married sisters unless wholly dependent on the employee. “Child,” “grandchild,” “brother,” and “sister” include only persons who at the time of the death of the deceased employee are under eighteen years of age.

(13) Parent.—The term “parent” includes stepparents and parents by adoption, parents-in-law, and any person who for more than three years prior to the death of the deceased employee stood in the place of a parent to him, if dependent on the injured employee.

(14) Widow.—The term “widow” includes only the decedent’s wife living with or dependent for support upon him at the time of his death; or living apart for justifiable cause or by reason of his desertion at such time.

(15) Widower.—The term “widower” includes only the decedent’s husband who at the time of her death lived with her and was dependent for support upon her.

(16) Adoption.—The term “adoption” or “adopted” means legal adoption prior to the time of the injury.

(17) Singular.—The singular includes the plural and the masculine includes the feminine and neuter.

(18) Hernia.—In all claims for compensation for hernia or rupture, resulting from injury by accident arising out of and in the course of the employee’s employment, it must be definitely proven to the satisfaction of the Industrial Commission:
   a. That there was an injury resulting in hernia or rupture.
   b. That the hernia or rupture appeared suddenly.
   c. That it was accompanied by pain.
   d. That the hernia or rupture immediately followed an accident.
   e. That the hernia or rupture did not exist prior to the accident for which compensation is claimed.

All hernia or rupture, inguinal, femoral or otherwise, so proven to be the result of an injury by accident arising out of and in the course of employment, shall be treated in a surgical manner by a radical operation. If death results from such operation, the death shall be considered as a result of the injury, and compensation paid in accordance with the provisions of § 97-38. In nonfatal cases, if it is shown by special examination, as provided in § 97-27, that the injured employee has a disability resulting after the operation, compensation for such disability shall be paid in accordance with the provisions of this article.

In case the injured employee refuses to undergo the radical operation for the cure of said hernia or rupture, no compensation will be allowed during the time such refusal continues. If, however, it is shown that the employee has some chronic disease, or is otherwise in such physical condition that the Commission considers it unsafe for the employee to undergo said operation, the employee shall be paid compensation in accordance with the provisions of this article. (1929, c. 120, s. 2; 1933, c. 448; 1939, c. 277, s. 1; 1943, c. 543; c. 672, s. 1; 1945, c. 766; 1947, c. 698; 1949, c. 399; 1953, c. 619; 1955, c. 644; c. 1026, s. 1; c. 1055; 1957, c. 95; 1959, c. 289; 1961, cc. 231, 235.)

I. IN GENERAL.

Editor's Note. — The 1933 amendment added to subdivision (1) of this section a clause applicable to sawmill and logging operators.
The 1939 amendment inserted the present third and fourth sentences in subdivision (2) and added the second and third sentences to subdivision (3).
The first 1943 amendment added the first proviso in subdivision (2) and the proviso at the end of subdivision (3). The second 1943 amendment inserted the second sentence in subdivision (2).
The 1945 amendment rewrote the latter part of subdivision (1) relating to sawmilling and logging, and added the fourth paragraph of subdivision (5).
The 1947 amendment inserted in subdivision (5) the provision as to subsistence allowance paid to veteran trainees.
The 1949 amendment added the last proviso in the first paragraph of subdivision (9).
The 1953 amendment inserted “to serve on a per diem, part time or fee basis” in the first sentence of subdivision (2) and added the former second paragraph thereof.
The first 1955 amendment added “Alleghany” to the list of counties in subdivisions (2) and (3). The second 1955 amendment added the last paragraph of subdivision (5) and the third 1955 amendment substituted the present second and third paragraphs of subdivision (2) for the former second paragraph.

The 1957 amendment deleted "Ashe" from the lists of counties in subdivisions (2) and (3).

The 1959 amendment rewrote the latter part of the first sentence of subdivision (2).

The first 1961 amendment deleted "Caswell" from the list of counties near the end of the first paragraph of subdivision (2). It also deleted "Caswell" from the proviso at the end of subdivision (3).

The second 1961 amendment added the last paragraph of subdivision (2).

For brief comment on the 1949 amendment, see 27 N. C. Law Rev. 495.

For brief comment on the 1953 amendment, see 31 N. C. Law Rev. 451.

Burden of Proving Claim Compensable.

— Claimant in a proceeding under the Workmen's Compensation Act has the burden of proving that his claim is compensable under the act. Henry v. A. C. Lawrence Leather Co., 231 N. C. 477, 57 S. E. (2d) 760 (1950).

II. EMPLOYMENT; EMPLOYEE; EMPLOYER.

A. Employment.

Having five or more employees is a jurisdictional prerequisite and must appear of record on appeal. Chadwick v. North Carolina Dept. of Conservation & Development, 219 N. C. 766, 14 S. E. (2d) 842 (1941).

As to what constitutes "five or more employees," etc., see § 97-13 (b).

Subdivision (1) of This Section Modified by § 97-19.—As a general proposition the only private employments covered by the Workmen's Compensation Act are those "in which five or more employees are regularly employed in the same business or establishment." But this general rule is subject to the exception created by § 97-19, which was manifestly enacted to protect the employees of financially irresponsible subcontractors who do not carry workmen's compensation insurance, and to prevent principal contractors, immediate contractors, and subcontractors from relieving themselves of liability under the act by doing through subcontractors what they would otherwise do through the agency of direct employees. Withers v. Black, 230 N. C. 428, 53 S. E. (2d) 668 (1949).

Same—Secondary Liability of Contractor to Employees of Subcontractor.

— Where a contractor sublets a part of the contract to a subcontractor without requiring from the subcontractor a certificate that he has procured compensation insurance or has satisfied the Industrial Commission of his financial responsibility as a self-insurer under § 97-93, such contractor is properly held secondarily liable for compensation to an employee of the subcontractor, even though the contractor regularly employs less than five employees. Withers v. Black, 230 N. C. 428, 53 S. E. (2d) 668 (1949).

Evidence Sufficient to Show Five or More Persons Regularly Employed.—Evidence tending to show that the employer regularly employed three persons in his general mercantile business and that for more than two months prior to the accident in suit he had employed two other persons at stated weekly wages to deliver fertilizers by truck in the operation of his Right to Compensation Depends on Existence of Employer-Employee Relationship.—In Hollowell v. North Carolina Department of Conservation and Development, 206 N. C. 206, 173 S. E. 603 (1934), the court, at 208, states that "The liability of one to pay, and the right of another to receive, compensation . . . depends . . . upon some appointment or the existence of the relation of employer and employee . . . and is to be determined by the rules governing the establishment of contracts . . ." It was held that no such relation existed between the defendant and the game warden who was injured as a result of testifying in a criminal prosecution.

Acts Constituting Acceptance of Offer of Employment.—Under the circumstances, the act of an employee in reporting to the union office in this State, accepting a referral slip, and starting upon the trip to the job, constituted an acceptance of an offer of employment, so that the contract of employment was made and completed in this State. Warren v. Dixon & Christopher Co., 252 N. C. 534, 114 S. E. (2d) 250 (1960).

Authority of Driver to Employ Helper.—Where deceased was employed and paid by defendant's driver to assist him in delivering bottled drinks, but the defendant knew of, and consented to, the arrangement between deceased and the driver, evidence is sufficient to support a finding that deceased was an employee of defendant. Michaux v. Gate City Orange Crush Bottling Co., 205 N. C. 786, 172 S. E. 406 (1934).

No Employment before Appointment as Game Warden Accepted.—X requested the State Game Commission to appoint the plaintiff as a deputy game warden. After the papers had been mailed out but before they were accepted by plaintiff, he went with X to assist in breaking bear traps. He was injured while employed in this work. The court affirmed the Commission's holding that there was no employment until after the appointment had been accepted. Birchfield v. Dept. of Conservation and Development, 204 N. C. 217, 167 S. E. 855 (1933).

State Compensation Laws Inapplicable to Employment of Purely Admiralty Cognizance.—In London Guarantee and Acci. Co. v. Industrial Acci. Comm., 279 U. S. 109, 49 S. Ct. 296, 73 L. Ed. 632 (1929), the rule was stated as follows: "To hold that a seaman engaged and injured in an employment purely of admiralty cognizance could be required to change the nature or conditions of his recovery under a state compensation law would certainly be prejudicial to the characteristic features of the general maritime law."

Injury to Employee Temporarily Engaged in Pumping Water from Barge.—Employee, hired for other types of work, was temporarily engaged in pumping water from a leaking and powerless barge which was being loaded with logs on the Roanoke River. "The logs started rolling, the barge careened toward the channel," and the employee, on jumping ashore, was crushed by the barge and killed. He and his employer had both accepted the State compensation act. It was held that the claim was properly cognizable by the Commission. The application of the State act to such a situation does not violate the federal Constitution by interference with the uniformity of the general maritime law. Johnson v. Foreman-Blades Lbr. Co., 216 N. C. 123, 4 S. E. (2d) 334 (1939).

Sawmills and Logging Operations. —Plaintiff was injured while serving as a brakeman on a train that was used exclusively for the purpose of moving timber from defendant's land to its mill. The court treated the action as one for negligence and did not mention the Workmen's Compensation Act. Bateman v. Brooks, 204 N. C. 176, 167 S. E. 627 (1933).

B. Employee.

1. In General.

What Employees Excluded.—This chapter excludes persons whose employment is casual and not in the course of the trade, business, profession or occupation of the employer, and specifically excepts from its provisions casual employees, farm laborers and domestic servants. Burnett v. Palmer-Lipe Paint Co., 216 N. C. 204, 4 S. E. (2d) 507 (1939).

One who seeks to avail himself of the Workmen's Compensation Act must come within its terms and must be held to proof that he is in a class embraced in the act. Hayes v. Board of Trustees, 224 N. C. 11, 39 S. E. (2d) 137 (1944).

Claimant Must Be Employee of Employer from Whom Compensation Is Claimed.—An injured person is entitled to compensation under the Workmen's Compensation Act only if he is an employee of the party from whom compensation is claimed at the time of his injury. Hart v. Thomasville Motors, Inc., 244 N. C. 84, 92 S. E. (2d) 673 (1956).

Whether an injured person is an employee of the defendant is a matter of proof which may properly be determined in the Supreme Court. Charnock v. Reusing Light & Refrigerating Co., 202 N. C. 105, 161 S. E. 707 (1931) (where plaintiff brought a common-law action to recover for injuries received while riding as a guest).

2. Casual Employees; Employment in the Course of Trade, etc.

Cross Reference.—See also note to § 97-13.

When Casual Employee Entitled to Compensation.—Section 97-13 of this chapter, providing that the act shall not apply to casual employees, is not totally repugnant to this section, providing for compensation for an injury to an employee while “in the course of the trade, business,” etc., and an employee is entitled to compensation even if the employment is casual, if he is injured in the course of the trade, business, etc. Johnson v. Asheville Hosiery Co., 199 N. C. 38, 153 S. E. 591 (1930).

The restriction of this act excluding injuries sustained in casual employment will not exclude an applicant under the provisions of the act when he sustains injuries in the course of the general trade, business, etc., of the employer and material or expedient therein, and the painting of the interior of a machine room to give the employees therein a better light or for the protection of the permanent structure, is not a casual employment and is one in the general course of business, and the Workmen’s Compensation Act applies to an injury received by a workman engaged in such painting. Johnson v. Asheville Hosiery Company, 199 N. C. 38, 153 S. E. 591 (1930).

Employment Is Not Casual because Intermittent. — The Commission has said: “... we must conclude that the legislature did not contemplate an employment to be continuous in order to bring it within the act, as they certainly would not enact a statute with such requirements that common knowledge would show to be a nullity under such construction.” Employment that is definite, whether for a day or for a year, is not casual. § N. C. Law Rev. 422.

Employment continuously for five or six weeks in construction of facilities for defendant’s plant may not be held to be either casual or not in the course of defendant’s business. Smith v. Southern Waste Paper Co., 226 N. C. 47, 36 S. E. (2d) 730 (1946).

Decedents Held Not Casual Employees. —The evidence tended to show that the defendant operated a general mercantile business, which included the selling and delivery of commercial fertilizers, and that plaintiffs’ intestates had been working for a period of more than two months at stated weekly wages in delivering the fertilizers by truck, when they met with a fatal accident arising out of and in the course of their employment. It was held that decedents were not casual employees, and further, the injury arose within the scope of the employer’s regular business, and therefore they were employees of defendant within the coverage of the Workmen’s Compensation Act. Hunter v. Peirson, 229 N. C. 356, 49 S. E. (2d) 653 (1948).

3. Employees and Independent Contractors.

Cross Reference.—For further cases involving independent contractors, see note to § 97-19.

Common-Law Meaning of “Employee” and “Independent Contractor” Not Changed.—Except as to public officers the definition of “employee” contained in this section adds nothing to the common-law meaning of the term. Nor does it encroach upon or limit the common-law meaning of “independent contractor.” These terms must be given their natural and ordinary meaning in their accepted legal sense. Hayes v. Board of Trustees, 224 N. C. 11, 29 S. E. (2d) 137 (1944).

Whether a person is an independent contractor or an employee within the meaning of the Workmen’s Compensation Act is to be determined in accordance with the common law. Scott v. Waccamaw Lbr. Co., 232 N. C. 162, 59 S. E. (2d) 425 (1950).

Independent Contractor Defined.—Generally an independent contractor is one who exercises independent employment and contracts to do a piece of work according to his own judgment and method, without being subject to his employer except as to the results of his work. Smith v. Southern Waste Paper Co., 226 N. C. 47, 36 S. E. (2d) 730 (1946); McCraw v. Calvine Mills, Inc., 233 N. C. 524, 64 S. E. (2d) 658 (1951).

When one undertakes to do a specific job under contract and the manner of doing it, including employment, payment and control of persons working with or under him, is left entirely to him, he will be regarded as an independent contractor unless the person for whom the work is being done has retained the right to exercise control in respect to the manner in which the work is to be executed. McCraw v. Calvine Mills, Inc., 233 N. C. 524, 64 S. E. (2d) 658 (1951).

Elements of Relationship of Employer and Independent Contractor. — The elements which earmark the relationship of employer and independent contractor, are generally as follows: The person employed (a) is engaged in an independent business, calling, or occupation; (b) is to have the independent use of his skill, knowledge, or training in the execution of the work; (c) is doing a specific piece of work at a fixed price, or for a lump sum or upon a quantitative basis; (d) is not subject to discharge because he adopts one method of doing the work rather than another; (e) is not in the regular employ of the other contracting party; (f) is free to use such assistants as he thinks proper; (g) has full control over such assistants; and (h) selects his own time. The presence of no one of these indicia is controlling, nor is the presence of all required. Hayes v. Elon College, 224 N. C. 11, 29 S. E. (2d) 137 (1944).

Test of Employee Is Right of Control. — The test is whether the party for whom the work is being done has the right to control the worker with respect to the manner or method of doing the work, as distinguished from the right merely to require certain definite results conforming to the contract. If the employer has right of control, it is immaterial whether he actually exercises it. McCraw v. Calvine Mills, Inc., 233 N. C. 524, 64 S. E. (2d) 658 (1951). See Hinkle v. Lexington, 239 N. C. 105, 79 S. E. (2d) 220 (1953).

The right of an employer to supervise and control the activities of one working under him determines to a great extent whether that one is an employee. Hunter v. Hunter Auto Co., 204 N. C. 723, 169 S. E. 648 (1933) (where claimant, a secretary in defendant company, was under the supervision of the manager).

In Bryson v. Gloucester Lbr. Co., 204 N. C. 664, 169 S. E. 276 (1933), the test was expressed as follows: "Generally speaking, an independent contractor is one who undertakes to produce a given result, but so that in the actual execution of the work he is not under the order, or control of the person for whom he does it, and may use his own discretion in matters and things not specified." "One who represents another only as to the results of a piece of work, and not as to the means of accomplishing it, is an independent contractor and not a servant or employee."

Source of Payment Not Conclusive. — Plaintiff was a private in the National Guard. He was paid fifty cents per drill by the State and one dollar per week by the federal government. Although his services were voluntary, he was required to sign an enlistment contract which subjected him to the direction and control of the State. It was held that claimant was an employee. Baker v. State, 200 N. C. 232, 156 S. E. 917 (1931).

The second sentence of subdivision (2) was added in 1943.—Ed. note.

Employee of Independent Contractor Cannot Recover against Principal. — Compensation is recoverable only against the employer of the injured workman, and therefore if the workman is an employee of an independent contractor, the employer of the independent contractor cannot be held liable for compensation. Scott v. Waccamaw Lbr. Co., 222 N. C. 162, 59 S. E. (2d) 425 (1950).

Question of Law. — On undisputed facts the question whether one is independent contractor or employee is one of law reviewable by the court. Beach v. McLean, 219 N. C. 521, 14 S. E. (2d) 515 (1941).

Whether the facts found by the Commission are supported by competent evidence and whether the facts found by the Commission support the legal conclusion that the injured party was an employee are reviewable by the court as questions of law. Pearson v. Peerless Flooring Co., 247 N. C. 434, 101 S. E. (2d) 301 (1958).

Claimant Held Employee of Independent Contractor. — In McCraw v. Calvine Mills, 233 N. C. 524, 64 S. E. (2d) 658 (1951), the control exercised and exercisable over employees of G, who was a painting contractor engaged to paint defendant's mill, determined that defendant was not the employer of claimant, but that claimant was an employee of G, who was an independent contractor.

McLean was hired by Long Shoals Cotton Mills to move machinery from one mill to another under a contract whereby he furnished his own trucks and labor. He engaged plaintiff for temporary service and plaintiff was injured in the work of dismantling a machine for movement. A representative of the cotton mills was present part of the time but it was not given right to, nor did it, direct the manner of doing the work. McLean was not regularly employed by the mills but was engaged in machine moving and salvaging as a business and he was here paid on a piece basis. It was held that McLean was an independent contractor and plaintiff was his employee, not an employee of the cotton mills. McLean's insolvency is irrelevant.

Electrician Rebuilding Line in "Off" Hours Held Independent Contractor. — Where defendant contracted with plaintiff and two other electricians to rebuild in their "off" hours a part of its electric line for a lump sum of $30.00, the defendants having the holes dug and furnishing the poles, a truck, other tools, and two helpers, requiring that certain trees be trimmed but disclaiming any knowledge of the work and leaving it up to the electricians, and plaintiff was killed by a live wire while so engaged, and thereafter the remaining electricians secured other help and completed the job, the relationship thus created is that of independent contractor. Hayes v. Elon College, 224 N. C. 11, 29 S. E. (2d) 137 (1944).

Machinist Constructing Conveyor under Contract as Employee. — Where evidence tended to show that deceased, a machinist, contracted to construct a conveyor from materials furnished by defendant and in accordance with his rough sketch, hourly wage being basis of pay, and parties appeared to have treated contract as one of employment, such evidence was sufficient to sustain finding of Commission that deceased was employee and not independent contractor. Smith v. Southern Waste Paper Co., 226 N. C. 47, 36 S. E. (2d) 730 (1946).

Mechanic Supervising Installation under Contract as Employee. — Where findings included fact that the seller of materials for construction of dry kilns recommended upon purchaser's request an expert mechanic to supervise their installation under contractual agreement that such mechanic should be considered an employee of the purchaser and mechanic was merely supervising installation of the kilns because purchaser had no foreman with sufficient experience and skill to supervise the installation in accordance with the plans and specifications furnished by the seller, such findings supported legal conclusion that the mechanic was an employee of the purchaser rather than an independent contractor. Pearson v. Peerless Flooring Co., 247 N. C. 434, 101 S. E. (2d) 301 (1958).

Plaintiff in painting defendant's mill was not an independent contractor where it appeared that defendant directed plaintiff's work, hired his helpers and purchased his supplies. Johnson v. Asheville Hosiery Co., 199 N. C. 38, 153 S. E. 591 (1930).

Hauler Held Independent Contractor.—The evidence tended to show that deceased was a licensed contract hailer, and was engaged to haul sand, gravel and concrete from defendant's bins to defendant's concrete mixer along a route selected by defendant, but that defendant had no control over the number of hours deceased worked or whether deceased drove his own truck or employed a driver, and that deceased paid for his own gas and oil and made his own repairs to his truck. Deceased was paid a stipulated sum per load and was also paid the hourly wage of truck driver employed by defendant for time lost waiting in line when the concrete mixer broke down. Deceased was killed when struck by a train at a grade crossing while hauling for defendant on the route selected. It was held that, upon the evidence, deceased was an independent contractor and not an employee within the meaning of this section, and the judgment of the superior court affirming the award of compensation by the Industrial Commission, was reversed. Perley v. Ballenger Paving Co., 228 N. C. 479, 46 S. E. (2d) 298 (1948).

Hauling Lumber at Specified Rate per Thousand.—In Bryson v. Gloucester Lbr. Co., 204 N. C. 664, 169 S. E. 276 (1933), the court held deceased to be an independent contractor where it appeared that he hauled logs for defendant at a specified rate per thousand, employed his own helpers, and worked in his own way without any direction from defendant.

Salesman as Employee.—Deceased, at the time of his fatal injury, was engaged in selling the products of defendant. Letters to him from defendant's home office were introduced in evidence which contained instructions for the collection of an account introduced in evidence which contained instructions for the collection of an account which, as an exception, had been charged directly to the purchaser by defendant, and also a letter stating that defendant would fill his orders C. O. D. without deducting commissions, and that at the end of the week would then figure his commissions and send him a check therefor plus any difference “to make up the $25.00 salary,” and also stating that a certain sum was due for social security and asking for his social security number. It was held that the evidence, with other evidence in the case, was sufficient to support the finding of the Industrial Commission that the deceased was an employee of the defendant, and not a jobber or independent contractor. Cloninger v. Ambrosia Cake Bakery Co., 218 N. C. 29, 9 S. E. (2d) 615 (1940).

Operator of Service Station Held Employee of Oil Company.—Deceased operated a service station for defendant on a commission basis, being required to keep the place open at certain hours, being told to whom to give credit, and being under the control of the president of the defendant company. The Commission's conclusion that deceased was an employee was sustained. Russell v. Western Oil Co., 206 N. C. 341, 174 S. E. 101 (1943).

A newsboy engaged in selling papers is held not to be an employee of the newspaper within the meaning of that term as used in this section, the newsboy not being on the newspaper's payroll and being without authority to solicit subscriptions and being free to select his own methods of effecting sales, although some degree of supervision was exercised by the newspaper. Creswell v. Charlotte News Pub. Co., 204 N. C. 380, 168 S. E. 408 (1933).

Deliveryman for Ice Company Held Employee.—Deceased employee was a deliveryman for defendant ice company. Defendant furnished a horse and wagon and all necessary equipment. Each morning in season, deceased obtained a load of ice for which he was charged. It was sold at defendant's regular retail price, and deceased was credited with the amount unsold at the end of the day. These facts were held sufficient to establish an employer-employee relation upon which the award of compensation was based. Cooper v. Colonial Ice Co., 23 N. C. 43, 51 S. E. (2d) 889 (1949), distinguishing Creswell v. Charlotte News Pub. Co., 204 N. C. 380, 168 S. E. 408 (1933).

Findings of Commission Held Insufficient.—Where men working on lumbering jobs were injured it was contended that they were not in the employ of defendant but of independent subcontractors with whom the defendant had written agreements. The Commission found that the purported subcontractors were on the defendant's payroll (one as a superintendent) and that the injured men ate at a camp bearing defendant's name and received their pay by check direct from defendant;
accordingly that the men were employees of, and entitled to compensation from, defendants. The Supreme Court remanded the cause for more specific findings of fact as to the making and performance of the alleged contract with "subcontractors" and as to the relationship of the parties, and for a separate finding of law as to who was the employer of claimants. Farmer v. Bemis Lbr. Co., 217 N. C. 158, 7 S. E. (2d) 376 (1940); Cook v. Bemis Lbr. Co., 217 N. C. 161, 7 S. E. (2d) 378 (1940).

4. State and Municipal Employees.

Cross Reference.—As to prisoners, see § 97-13 (c).

An employee of the State engaged in the cultivation of food crops on lands of the State used by the State Hospital is an employee of the State within the coverage of this and § 97-13, and his death from an accident arising out of and in the course of his employment is compensable. Barbour v. State Hospital, 213 N. C. 515, 196 S. E. 818 (1938).

A municipal corporation is subject to the Workmen's Compensation Act, even though it employs less than five employees, under this section, the legislative intent to classify municipal corporations with the State and its political subdivisions being consonant with reason and being indicated by § 97-13, which does not include municipal corporations employing less than five employees in listing employers exempt from the act, and § 97-7, which provides that neither the State nor any municipal corporation nor any subdivision of the State, nor employees of the same, shall have the right to reject the provisions of the act, and it being required that these sections be construed in pari materia to determine the legislative intent. Rape v. Huntersville, 214 N. C. 505, 199 S. E. 736 (1938).

For a related topic, see § 97-13 (b).

A worker employed by a city under contract stipulating the wages to be received by the worker is an employee of the city within the meaning of this section, and the fact that the city obtains the money to pay the wages from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation is immaterial on the question of the relationship between the worker and the city. Mayze v. Forest City, 207 N. C. 168, 176 S. E. 270 (1934).

Injury to Deputized Policeman Aiding in Arrest.—Evidence that claimant was injured while attempting to aid a policeman in serving a warrant for a breach of the peace, and that claimant had been duly deputized by the policeman to aid in making the arrest, was sufficient to support the finding of the Industrial Commission that at the time of injury claimant was an employee of defendant town under a valid appointment. Tomlinson v. Norwood, 208 N. C. 716, 182 S. E. 659 (1935).

Injury to Policeman Pursuing Offender beyond Jurisdiction.—Note the effect of the 1949 amendment to subdivision (2) of this section. For cases decided under this section as it stood prior to the amendment, see Wilson v. Mooresville, 222 N. C. 283, 22 S. E. (2d) 907 (1942); Taylor v. Wake Forest, 228 N. C. 346, 45 S. E. (2d) 38 (1947).

See § 160-238, which protects the rights under the Workmen's Compensation Act of firemen acting outside city limits.

Deputy Sheriff as Employee.—The 1939 amendment including deputy sheriffs within the meaning of the term "employee" as used in this section, is not violative of Art. I, § 7 or Art. II, § 29 of the Constitution. Towe v. Yancey County, 224 N. C. 579, 31 S. E. (2d) 574 (1944).

For cases dealing with deputies and decided under this section as it stood prior to the amendment, see Saunders v. Allen, 208 N. C. 189, 179 S. E. 754 (1935); Borders v. Cline, 212 N. C. 472, 103 S. E. 826 (1937); Gowens v. Alamance County, 216 N. C. 107, 3 S. E. (2d) 339 (1939); Clark v. Sheffield, 216 N. C. 375, 5 S. E. (2d) 133 (1939).

For a discussion of the situation as to deputy sheriffs before the amendment, see 16 N. C. Law Rev. 419.

Same — 1939 Amendment Not Retroactive.—The provision of c. 277, Laws of 1939, that deputy sheriffs shall be deemed employees of the county for the purpose of determining the rights of the parties under the Workmen's Compensation Act, does not apply to accidents occurring prior to the enactment of the amendment. Clark v. Sheffield, 216 N. C. 375, 5 S. E. (2d) 133 (1939).

A county board of education is the sole employer of one under contract to teach vocational agriculture in a county school, where such teacher's salary is paid in part from funds furnished as a gift to such board by the State and federal governments, and, as such sole employer, is liable, with its insurance carrier, under this chapter for the death of such teacher from an injury by accident arising out of and in the course of his employment. Callihan v. Board of Education, 222 N. C. 381, 23 S. E. (2d) 297 (1942).

A person employed by a graded school district as teacher and director of athletics is an employee of a political subdivision of the State, and is entitled to the benefits of the Compensation Act under this section. Perdue v. State Board of Equalization, 205 N. C. 730, 172 S. E. 396 (1934).

5. Workers on Relief.
Person Recovering Federal Relief Not an Employee.—A person furnished work for the relief of himself and family paid with funds provided by the Federal Relief Administration is not an “employee” of the relief administrative agencies within the meaning of this section. Jackson v. North Carolina Emergency Relief Administration, 206 N. C. 274, 173 S. E. 580 (1934). See Barnhardt v. Concord, 213 N. C. 364, 196 S. E. 310 (1938).

A different result was reached when the injured party was employed by the superintendent of the water and light department of defendant town and paid from funds loaned defendant by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. Mayze v. Town of Forest City, 207 N. C. 168, 176 S. E. 270 (1934).

C. Employer.
Deputy Sheriff Employed and Paid by Civic Association.—Deceased deputy sheriff was employed and paid as a local police officer by a civic association whose corporate charter expressly included the power to hire deputies for that service. Compensation insurance was carried by the association and in terms covered both it and the sheriff, who would not be liable under the act. It was proper for the Commission to find that the association was the employer. Clark v. Sheffield, 216 N. C. 375, 5 S. E. (2d) 133 (1939). This case arose before the 1939 amendment made counties employers of deputy sheriffs.

Deceased Held Employee of Partnership and Not of Partner.—Evidence was sufficient to support a finding of the Commission that deceased, the driver of a tractor-tank, was an employee of defendant oil company, a partnership, and not of a separate transportation business operated by one of the partners. Moses v. Bartholomew, 238 N. C. 714, 78 S. E. (2d) 923 (1953).

Lessee of Truck Held Liable for Compensation for Death of Driver.—Deceased was employed by X to drive a truck owned by X, but leased to other haulers and under their control. While in the course of hauling goods for one of the lessees, deceased met his death. The lease contract had provided that X provide compensation insurance. The court, in holding the lessee liable, found that such a contract could not be binding upon the employee as he was not a party to it. Whether the lessee could recover from X the amount the lessee was required to pay was not answered by the court. Roth v. McCord, 232 N. C. 678, 62 S. E. (2d) 64 (1950).

Assistant Driver Employed by Owner-Lessor of Truck under Trip-Lease Agreement.—Where the owner of a truck drives same on a trip in interstate commerce for an interstate carrier under a trip-lease agreement providing that the carrier’s I. C. C. license plates should be used and the carrier retain control and direction over the truck, an assistant driver employed by the owner-lessee is an employee of the carrier within the coverage of the North Carolina Workmen’s Compensation Act. Further, if the owner-lessee be considered an independent contractor, but had less than five employees and no compensation insurance coverage, the carrier would still be liable under § 97-19. McGill v. Bison Fast Freight, Inc., 245 N. C. 469, 96 S. E. (2d) 488 (1957).

III. AVERAGE WEEKLY WAGES.
Earnings Control “Average Weekly Wages.”—Under subdivision (5), “average weekly wages” of the employee “in the employment in which he was working at the time of the injury” are based on his earnings rather than his earning capacity. Liles v. Faulkner Neon & Elec. Co., 244 N. C. 653, 94 S. E. (2d) 790 (1956).

When Special Method of Computation Employed.—When, in determining the amount to be awarded the dependents of a deceased employee, the methods of computing the “average weekly wage” enumerated in the first paragraph of subdivision (5) of this section would be unfair because of exceptional circumstances, the Industrial Commission is authorized by the second paragraph of said subdivision to use such other method of computation as would most nearly approximate the amount which the employee would be earning if living, and the provisions of the second paragraph of the subdivision apply to all three of the methods of computation enumerated in the first paragraph. and such other method of computation may be invoked for exceptional reasons even though the employee had been constantly employed by the employer for fifty-two weeks prior to the time of the injury causing death. Early v. Basnight & Co., 214 N. C. 103, 198 S. E. 577 (1938). See Liles v. Faulkner Neon & Elec. Co., 244 N. C. 653, 94 S. E. (2d) 790 (1956).

Award Based on Total Compensation
Customarily Earned.—Claimant was employed as janitor, his compensation for such work being paid in part by the State School Commission, and was also employed in school maintenance work, his compensation for the maintenance work being paid exclusively by the municipal board of education. He was injured while engaged in duties pertaining exclusively to school maintenance work. It was held that an award computed on the basis of the total compensation customarily earned by claimant, rather than the compensation earned solely in school maintenance work, upon the Commission's finding of exceptional conditions, was proper. Casey v. Board of Education, 219 N. C. 799, 14 S. E. (2d) 853 (1941).

Effect of Pay Increases within Fifty-two Weeks.—Plaintiff was employed practically continuously for thirty-three weeks prior to the injury resulting in death, but during that period his wages were twice increased. In the absence of a finding supported by evidence that the average weekly wage for the entire period of employment would be unfair, compensation should have been based thereon, and the computation of the average weekly wage on the basis of the wage during the period after the last increase in pay was not supported by the evidence. Mion v. Atlantic Marble, etc., Co., 217 N. C. 743, 9 S. E. (2d) 501 (1940).

Reduction in Wages after Sale of Plant.—The plant in which claimant worked was sold. Before sale, claimant was a foreman. After sale, he continued to work in a lower classification and at a lower pay rate. The Supreme Court affirmed the action of the Commission in considering the wage earned as foreman in determining average weekly wage when disablement occurred before claimant had worked 52 weeks at the lower rate. Honeycutt v. Carolina Asbestos Co., 235 N. C. 471, 70 S. E. (2d) 426 (1952).

"Exceptional Reasons" Justifying Special Method of Computation.—The Industrial Commission found upon supporting evidence that the deceased employee had been employed by defendant employer for a number of years, that he had been promoted successively from truck driver to stock clerk to salesman with increased wages from time to time, and that he had been given a raise in the last position less than three months prior to the time of injury resulting in death, part of the supporting evidence being testimony by the employee's superior that "with the business he was getting" he would have had further increases. It was held that the findings were sufficient in law to constitute "exceptional reasons" within the meaning of subdivision (5) of this section, and the employee's "average weekly wage" was properly fixed at the amount he was earning weekly at the time of the injury, it being patent that the wages he was then receiving were not temporary and uncertain, but constituted a fair basis upon which to compute the award to his dependents. Early v. Basnight & Co., 214 N. C. 103, 198 S. E. 577 (1938).

Where Employment Extended over Period of Less than Fifty-two Weeks.—The average weekly wages of a college student working part time for a period of eleven weeks in which he worked from 17½ hours to 51 hours a week should be computed by the method provided in the second sentence of subdivision (5) of this section, where the evidence did not warrant a finding of fact or conclusion of law that such method would not obtain results fair and just to both parties. Liles v. Faulkner Neon & Elec. Co., 244 N. C. 653, 94 S. E. (2d) 790 (1956).

Where the employer does not contend that plaintiff's employment was casual and offers no evidence as to the amount of wages earned by others engaged in similar employment in that community during the 52 weeks previous to plaintiff's injury, the employer may not object that the Commission, in view of the fact that the employee had worked for the employer less than 40 hours at the time of his injury, fixed the employee's average weekly wage in accordance with the compensation under the contract of employment at the time of the injury, there being evidence that the employee had theretofore earned wages in excess of this sum for appreciable periods in other employments of like nature. Harris v. Asheville Contr. Co., 240 N. C. 715, 83 S. E. (2d) 802 (1954).

Same—"Results Fair and Just" to Both Parties.—Results fair and just, within the meaning of the proviso to the second sentence of subdivision (5), consist of such "average weekly wages" as will most nearly approximate the amount which the injured employee would be earning were it not for the injury, in the employment in which he was working at the time of his injury. Liles v. Faulkner Neon & Elec. Co., 244 N. C. 653, 94 S. E. (2d) 790 (1956).

It is true that all provisions of subdivision (5) must be considered in order to ascertain the legislative intent; and the dominant intent is that results fair and just to both parties be obtained. Ordinarily, whether such results will be obtained by the second method is a question of fact, and in such case a finding of fact by the Commission controls decision. However, this does not apply if the finding of fact is not supported by competent evidence or is predicated on an erroneous construction of the statute. Liles v. Faulkner Neon & Elec. Co., 244 N. C. 653, 94 S. E. (2d) 790 (1956).

Same — Part-Time Employee. — It was improper for the Commission, in undertaking to apply the method of computing average weekly wages provided in the third sentence of subdivision (5) to determine the average weekly wages of a part-time employee to be the amount he would have earned had he been a full-time employee. Liles v. Faulkner Neon & Elec. Co., 244 N. C. 653, 94 S. E. (2d) 790 (1956).

Same — Consideration of Amounts Earned by Other Persons in Same Employment. — In a proceeding for compensation for the death of a college student employed part-time during vacation and after school for a period of eleven weeks in which he worked from 17½ to 51 hours a week, there was no factual basis for the application of the method of determining average weekly wages provided in the third sentence of subdivision (5), where there was no evidence as to average weekly amount being earned during the fifty-two weeks previous to decedent's injury by a person of the same grade and character employed in the same class of employment, and no evidence as to the average weekly amount a part-time worker in the same employment had earned during the fifty-two weeks previous to decedent's injury, while working for the particular employer or any other employer in the same locality or community. Liles v. Faulkner Neon & Elec. Co., 244 N. C. 653, 94 S. E. (2d) 790 (1956).

Same — Compensation Provided in Contract of Employment. — Where the employer does not contend that plaintiff's employment was casual and offers no evidence as to the amount of wages earned by others engaged in similar employment in that community during the 52 weeks previous to plaintiff's injury, the employer may not object that the Commission, in view of the fact that the employee had worked for the employer less than 40 hours at the time of his injury, fixed the employee's average weekly wage in accordance with the compensation under the contract of employment at the time of the injury, there being evidence that the employee had theretofore earned wages in excess of this sum for appreciable periods in other employments of like nature. Harris v. Asheville Contracting Co., 240 N. C. 715, 83 S. E. (2d) 802 (1954).

Employer's Report of Accident as Evidence of Average Wage. — While the employer's report of an accident to the Industrial Commission does not constitute a claim for compensation, a statement therein as to the employee's average weekly wage is competent upon the hearing after the filing of claim. Harris v. Asheville Contracting Co., 240 N. C. 715, 83 S. E. (2d) 802 (1954).

When Commission's Method of Computing Average Wage Conclusive. — In Munford v. West Constr. Co., 203 N. C. 247, 165 S. E. 696 (1932), the court held that the Commission's method of computing the average wage was conclusive if there were any facts to support the Commission's findings. Here it appeared that in the beginning deceased's employment with defendant was irregular, that soon he was put to driving a truck, that other truck drivers received eighteen dollars per week, but that deceased's average weekly wage was less than that because of his irregular employment. The Commission awarded compensation on the basis of what drivers doing work similar to deceased's received.

IV. INJURY BY ACCIDENT ARISING OUT OF AND IN THE COURSE OF THE EMPLOYMENT.

A. In General.

Editor's Note. — For a collection of cases arising under subdivision (6) of this section, see 10 N. C. Law Rev. 373.

The threefold conditions antecedent to the right to compensation under the North Carolina Workmen's Compensation Act are, namely: (1) That claimant suffered a personal injury by accident; (2) that such injury arose in the course of the employment; and (3) that such injury arose out of the employment. Withers v. Black, 230 N. C. 428, 53 S. E. (2d) 668 (1949); Anderson v. Northwestern Motor Co., 233 N. C. 372, 64 S. E. (2d) 265 (1951).

The condition antecedent to compensation is the occurrence of an injury (1) by accident (2) arising out of, and (3) in the course of employment. Wilson v. Mooresville, 222 N. C. 283, 22 S. E. (2d) 907 (1942).

An injury compensable under the Workmen's Compensation Act must be the result of an accident which arises out of and in the course of the employment. Taylor v. Wake Forest, 228 N. C. 346, 45 S. E. (2d) 387 (1947).
To make out a valid claim for compensation under the Workmen's Compensation Act the claimant is required to show (1) injury by accident, (2) suffered in the course of decedent's employment, and (3) arising out of his employment by the defendant corporation. Matthews v. Carolina Standard Corp., 232 N. C. 29, 60 S. E. (2d) 93 (1950).

To establish his claim for the death of decedent, plaintiff must show (1) death resulting from an injury by accident, (2) arising out of and in the course of decedent's employment by the defendant, and (3) not including a disease in any form, except where it results naturally and unavoidably from the accident. Lewter v. Abercrombie Enterprises, Inc., 240 N. C. 399, 82 S. E. (2d) 410 (1954).

A compensable death is one which results from an injury by accident arising out of and in the course of the employment. There must be an accident followed by an injury by such accident which results in harm to the employee before it is compensable under our statute. Slade v. Willis Hosey Mills, 209 N. C. 823, 184 S. E. 844 (1936). See also, Ashley v. F-W Chevrolet Co., 222 N. C. 25, 21 S. E. (2d) 834 (1942); Gilmore v. Hoke County Board of Education, 222 N. C. 358, 23 S. E. (2d) 292 (1942).

In order for the death of an employee to be compensable it must result from an injury by an accident arising out of and in the course of the employment. McGill v. Lumberton, 215 N. C. 752, 3 S. E. (2d) 324 (1939); Poteete v. North State Pyrophylite Co., 240 N. C. 561, 82 S. E. (2d) 693 (1954); Cole v. Guilford County, 259 N. C. 724, 131 S. E. (2d) 308 (1963).

Exception Is Made in Case of Death of One Receiving Compensation for Silicosis.—The clear intent of § 97-61.6 to provide compensation for death occurring within 350 weeks from the date of last exposure to silicosis if the employee was at the time of death receiving compensation for disablement due to silicosis, even though the death does not result from silicosis, must be given effect notwithstanding subdivisions (6) and (10) of this section and § 97-52, since the specific provisions relating to silicosis, which were enacted because of the peculiar course of the disease, must be construed as an exception to the general tenor of the compensation act to provide compensation for death only if it results from an accident arising out of and in the course of the employment. Davis v. N. C. Granite Corp., 259 N. C. 673, 131 S. E. (2d) 335 (1963).

Death by suicide is compensable if a work-connected injury causes insanity which in turn induces the suicide. Painter v. Mead Corp., 258 N. C. 741, 129 S. E. (2d) 482 (1963).

When Industrial Commission's Findings Conclusive.—Where there is any competent evidence in support of the finding of the Industrial Commission that the accident in question arose out of and in the course of employment, the finding is conclusive on the courts upon appeal. Latham v. Southern Fish, etc., Co., 208 N. C. 505, 181 S. E. 640 (1935).

Where the evidence is such that several inferences appear equally plausible, the finding of the Industrial Commission is conclusive on appeal, and courts are not at liberty to reweigh the evidence and set aside the finding simply because other conclusions might have been reached. Rewis v. New York Life Ins. Co., 226 N. C. 325, 38 S. E. (2d) 97 (1946).

The finding of fact of the Industrial Commission that the disease causing an employee's death resulted naturally and unavoidably from an accident is conclusive on appeal when supported by competent evidence. Doggett v. South Atlantic Warehouse Co., 212 N. C. 599, 194 S. E. 111 (1937).

Whether an accident arises out of the employment is a mixed question of fact and law, and the finding of the Industrial Commission is conclusive if supported by any competent evidence; otherwise, not. Cole v. Guilford County, 259 N. C. 724, 131 S. E. (2d) 308 (1963).

When Findings Reviewable on Appeal.—If there was no conflicting evidence and the Industrial Commission decided as a matter of law that there was no sufficient competent evidence that the injury to plaintiff was “by accident arising out of and in the course of employment,” the question is one of law and is reviewable by the court upon appeal. Massey v. Board of Education, 204 N. C. 193, 167 S. E. 695 (1933).

Where Record Silent as to Material Fact at Issue.—Where in proceedings under this act there is no finding or adjudication in reference to the contention of the employer that the claimant's injury was occasioned by his willful intention to injure his assailant, a fellow servant, the cause will be remanded for a definite determination of the question. Conrad v. Cook-Lewis Foundry Co., 198 N. C. 723, 153 S. E. 266 (1930).

B. Accident.

An injury, in order to be compensable, must result from an accident, and injuries which are not the result of any fortuitous occurrence but are the natural and proba-
Accident and injury are considered separate. Ordinarily, the accident must precede the injury. Harding v. Thomas & Howard Co., 256 N. C. 427, 124 S. E. (2d) 109 (1962).

But there is authority indicating that injury by accident and accidental injury are synonymous terms. If so, the injury may be accidental without any requirement that an accident must precede and cause it. Keller v. Electric Wiring Co., Inc, 259 N. C. 225, 130 S. E. (2d) 342 (1963).

"Accident" Defined. — An "accident" within the meaning of this act is an unrelated and untoward event which is not expected or designed by the injured employee. Conrad v. Cook-Lewis Foundry Co., 256 N. C. 427, 124 S. E. (2d) 109 (1962).

Ordinarily a death from heart disease is not an injury by accident arising out of and in the course of the employment, nor an occupational disease, so as to be compensable. Bellamy v. Morace Stevedoring Co., 258 N. C. 327, 128 S. E. (2d) 395 (1963).

An "accident" within the contemplation of this chapter is an unusual and unexpected or fortuitous occurrence, there being no indication that the legislature intended to put upon the usual definition of this term any further refinements. Smith v. Cabarrus Creamery Co., 217 N. C. 468, 8 S. E. (2d) 231 (1940).

Accident involves the interruption of the work routine and the introduction thereby of unusual conditions likely to result in unexpected consequences. Harding v. Thomas & Howard Co., 256 N. C. 427, 124 S. E. (2d) 109 (1962).

Injury by Accident Distinguished from Occupational Disease.—An injury by accident, as that term is ordinarily understood, is distinguished from an occupational disease in that the former rises from a definite event, the time and place of which can be fixed, while the latter develops gradually over a long period of time. Henry v. Lawrence Leather Co., 231 N. C. 126, 66 S. E. (2d) 693 (1951).

An assault is an "accident" within the meaning of the Workmen’s Compensation Act, when from the point of view of the workman who suffers from it it is unexpected and without design on his part, although intentionally caused by another. Withers v. Black, 230 N. C. 428, 53 S. E. (2d) 668 (1949).

The mere fact that the injury is the result of a willful and criminal assault of a fellow servant does not of itself prevent the injury from being accidental. Conrad v. Cook-Lewis Foundry Co., 198 N. C. 723, 153 S. E. 266 (1930).

See Session Laws 1949, c. 1078, which amended § 97-53 so as to make certain heart diseases compensable as occupational diseases when contracted by firemen. This act was subsequently held unconstitutional in Duncan v. Charlotte, 234 N. C. 86, 66 S. E. (2d) 22 (1951) and Davis v. Winston-Salem, 234 N. C. 95, 66 S. E. (2d) 28 (1951). See 30 N. C. Law Rev. 98.

Death from Coronary Occlusion after Making Arrest.—A game warden arrested several men, one of whom offered slight resistance. Later that day, the warden died of a coronary occlusion. It was held that mere resistance of arrest by one who is being taken into custody by an officer does not constitute an accident; it may be considered as one of his duties. Also, heart disease is not an occupational disease. West v. North Carolina Dept. of Conservation & Department, 229 N. C. 233, 49 S. E. (2d) 398 (1948), distinguishing Gabriel v. Newton, 227 N. C. 314, 42 S. E. (2d) 96 (1947). See Lewter v. Abercrombie Enterprises, Inc., 240 N. C. 399, 82 S. E. (2d) 410 (1954).

Rupture of Intervertebral Disc.—To sus-tain an award of compensation in ruptured or slipped disc cases the injury to be classed as arising by accident must involve more than merely carrying on the usual and customary duties in the usual way. Harding v. Thomas & Howard Co., 256 N. C. 427, 124 S. E. (2d) 109 (1962).

Evidence that while digging a ditch 12 inches wide by 14 inches deep, claimant came upon a rock some 24 inches long and 12 inches wide, weighing 50 to 100 pounds, that claimant dug around the rock, bent down to pick it up, and, as he twisted to heave it out of the ditch felt a catch in his back together with expert testimony that the rupture of claimant's spinal disc was caused by the lifting episode and that lifting from such a twisted and cramped position multiplied the intensity of the stress upon the vertebrae, was sufficient to sustain the Commission's findings that the injury resulted from an accident arising out of and in the course of the employment. Keller v. Electric Wiring Co., Inc., 259 N. C. 222, 130 S. E. (2d) 342 (1963).

The evidence tended to show that employee lifted a plate weighing 40 or 50 pounds in the regular and usual course of his employment, and while handing it to the pressman with his body in a twisted position, felt a sharp pain. Expert testimony was introduced to the effect that the employee had ruptured an intervertebral disc and that the lifting of the weight in the manner described was sufficient to have produced the injury. Plaintiff employee admitted that on two different occasions, several years previously, when he arose from a sitting position he had a catch in his back. It was held that the evidence is sufficient to support the finding of the Industrial Commission that the injury resulted from an accident. Edwards v. Piedmont Pub. Co., 227 N. C. 184, 41 S. E. (2d) 592 (1947).

Injury Produced by Inhaling Asbestos Dust.—The word "accident" within the meaning of this act should be construed in its wide and practical sense to give effect to the intent of the act, and an injury produced by inhaling asbestos dust for a period of five months is an accidental injury within the terms of this section, the test being not the amount of time taken to produce the injury but whether it was produced by unexpected and unforeseen, and therefore, accidental means. McNeely v. Carolina Asbestos Co., 206 N. C. 568, 174 S. E. 509 (1934). As to compensation for occupational diseases, see §§ 97-52 to 97-76.

Inhaling Carbon Monoxide Gas.—Deceased died as a result of carbon monoxide gas inhaled by him during the course of one night. It was held that it was error for the Industrial Commission to refuse compensation on the grounds that death resulted from an occupational disease rather than an accident. Cabe v. Parker-Graham-Sexton, 202 N. C. 176, 162 S. E. 223 (1932).

Infection after Getting Lime Dust in Eye.—Plaintiff, an employee at defendant's water company, got lime dust in his eye as he was dumping lime into a feeder. This had happened many times before, but this time his eye became infected. Recovery was allowed. Love v. Lumberton, 215 N. C. 28, 1 S. E. (2d) 141 (1939).

As to infections generally, see 26 N. C. Law Rev. 520.

Injury Not Resulting from Accident.—The Industrial Commission found, upon supporting evidence, that claimant became temporarily sick and blind while performing usual manual labor in the usual manner, that his condition improved and he went back to work and that shortly thereafter he again suffered a similar disability. The findings support the conclusion that the injury did not result from an accident arising out of and in the course of claimant's employment within the purview of this chapter. Buchanan v. State Highway, etc., Comm., 217 N. C. 173, 7 S. E. (2d) 382 (1940).

C. Arising Out of and in the Course of Employment.
1. In General.

Editor's Note.—For note on accidents arising out of and in the course of employment of traveling employees, see 23 N. C. Law Rev. 159.

For note on acts done in furtherance of employer's good will as arising out of and in the course of employment, see 33 N. C. Law Rev. 637.

This chapter does not contemplate compensation for every injury an employee may receive during the course of his employment but only those from accidents arising out of, as well as in the course of, employment. Where an injury cannot fairly be traced to the employment as a contributing proximate cause, or comes from a hazard to which the workman would have been equally exposed apart from the employment or from a hazard common to others, it does not arise out of the employment. The causative danger must be peculiar to the work and not common to the neighborhood. It must be incidental to the character of the business.

Injuries by accident arising out of and in the course of the employment are compensable (Love v. Lumberton, 215 N. C. 28, 1 S. E. (2d) 121 (1939)) regardless of whether the accident was the result of the employer's negligence, but injuries not resulting from an accident arising out of and in the course of the employment, and diseases which do not result naturally and unavoidably from an accident are not compensable. Lee v. American Enka Corp., 212 N. C. 455, 193 S. E. 809 (1937).

In order for an injury to an employee to be compensable under the Workmen's Compensation Act it must result from an accident arising out of and in the course of employment. Berry v. Colonial Furniture Co., 232 N. C. 303, 60 S. E. (2d) 97 (1950).

In order to entitle the claimant to compensation the evidence must show that the injury by accident arose out of and in the course of his employment by the defendant. Both are necessary to justify an award of compensation under the Workmen's Compensation Act. Bell v. Dewey Bros., 236 N. C. 280, 72 S. E. (2d) 680 (1952).

Where an employee, while about his work, suffers an injury in the ordinary course of his employment, the cause of which is unexplained but which is a natural and probable result of a risk thereof, and the Commission finds from all the attendant facts and circumstances that the injury arose out of the employment, an award will be sustained. If, however, the cause is known and is independent of, unrelated to, unconnected with the employment, compensation will not be allowed. Vause v. Vause Farm Equipment Co., 233 N. C. 88, 63 S. E. (2d) 173 (1951).

This definition presents a double aspect. "In the course of" refers to the time, place and circumstances under which the accident occurred. This is, in most cases, a fairly simple question. The real difficulty arises in determining whether the accident is one "arising out of the employment." That this is considered as a mixed question of law and fact makes the problem all the more difficult. In the final analysis it means that there must be apparent "to the rational mind, upon consideration of all the circumstances, a causal connection between the conditions under which the work is required to be performed and the resulting injury." For instance, an injury occasioned by an assault of a co-employee and growing out of differences in regard to the employment was held to be within the definition. But where the assault grew out of personal malice unconnected with the employment, no compensation was awarded. In the further case of an unprovoked assault by a third person upon an employee, the risk having arisen out of the employment, a recovery was allowed. Moreover, if the injury occurs from a prank played by a fellow workman, compensation is given. But if the injured employee engaged in the play, no recovery is permitted. 8 N. C. Law Rev. 418.

Determination Depends on Facts of Each Case.—The question of whether compensation is recoverable under this act depends upon whether the accident complained of arises out of and in the course of the employment of the one injured, and its determination depends largely upon the facts of each particular case as matters of fact and conclusions of law, and general definitions are unsatisfactory. Harden v. Thomasville Furniture Co., 199 N. C. 733, 155 S. E. 728 (1930).

Common-Law Rules Inapplicable.—The words "out of and in the course of the employment," used in connection with injuries compensable thereunder, are not to be construed by the rules controlling in negligent default cases a common law, but an accidental injury is compensable thereunder if there is a causal relation between the employment and injury, if the injury is one which, after the event, may be seen to have had its origin in the employment, and it need not be shown that it is one which ought to have been foreseen or expected. Conrad v. Cook-Lewis Foundry Co., 198 N. C. 723, 153 S. E. 266 (1930); Ashley v. F-W Chevrolet Co., 222 N. C. 25, 21 S. E. (2d) 834 (1942).

"Out of" and "in the Course of" Distinguished.—The words "out of" refer to the origin or cause of the accident. The words "in the course of" refer to the time, place, and circumstances under which an accident occurs. Plemons v. White's Service, 213 N. C. 148, 195 S. E. 370 (1938); Wilson v. Mooresville, 222 N. C. 283, 22 S. E. (2d) 907 (1942); Brown v. Carolina Aluminum Co., 224 N. C. 766, 32 S. E. (2d) 320 (1944); Taylor v. Wake Forest, 228 N. C. 346, 45 S. E. (2d) 387 (1947); Withers v. Black, 230 N. C. 428, 53 S. E. (2d) 668 (1949); Bell v. Dewey Bros., 236 N. C. 280, 72 S. E. (2d) 680 (1952); Sweatt v. Rutherford County Board of Education, 237 N. C. 653, 75 S. E. (2d) 738 (1953); Lewter v. Abercrombie Enterprises, Inc., 240 N. C. 399, 82 S. E. (2d) 410 (1954); Zimmerman v. Eliza-
In interpreting and applying the meaning of the expression, "arising out of and in the course of the employment," as it appears in the Workmen’s Compensation Act, it has been uniformly held that the phrases "arising out of" and "in the course of" are not synonymous but involve two ideas and impose a double condition, both of which must be satisfied in order to bring a case within the act. Swaett v. Rutherford County Board of Education, 237 N. C. 653, 75 S. E. (2d) 738 (1953).

The phrase "in course of" refers to the time, place and circumstances under which the injury by accident occurred, while the words "out of the employment" refer to the origin or cause of the accident, as springing from the work the employee is to do or out of the service he is to perform. Matthews v. Carolina Standard Corp., 232 N. C. 229, 60 S. E. (2d) 93 (1950); Berry v. Colonial Furniture Co., 232 N. C. 303, 60 S. E. (2d) 97 (1950).

To be compensable under the act an injury must arise out of and be received in the course of employment. Two ideas are involved here. The words "in the course of" refer to the time, place, and circumstances surrounding the accident, while the words "arising out of" have reference to the causal connection between the injury and the employment. Davis v. North State Veneer Corp., 200 N. C. 263, 136 S. E. 859 (1913), 82 A. L. R. 1260 note; Parrish v. Armour & Co., 200 N. C. 654, 158 S. E. 188 (1931); Walker v. Wilkinson, Inc., 212 N. C. 627, 194 S. E. 89 (1937); McGill v. Lumberton, 215 N. C. 732, 3 S. E. (2d) 324 (1939); Matthews v. Carolina Standard Corp., 232 N. C. 229, 60 S. E. (2d) 93 (1950).

These terms have been so often defined by the Supreme Court that they now have an established and well recognized meaning. Bryan v. Loving Co., 222 N. C. 724, 24 S. E. (2d) 751 (1943).

An injury compensable under subdivision (6) of this section is one by accident arising out of and in the course of the employment, the words "out of" referring to the origin or cause of the accident, and the words "in the course of" to the time, place and circumstances under which the accident occurred. Ridout v. Rose’s 5-10-25¢ Stores, 205 N. C. 423, 171 S. E. 642 (1933).

The term "arising out of the employment" within the meaning of the Workmen's Compensation Act refers to the origin or cause of the accident, and while it must be interpreted in the light of the facts and circumstances of each case and may not be precisely defined, there must be some causal connection between the injury and the employment. Taylor v. Wake Forest, 228 N. C. 346, 45 S. E. (2d) 387 (1947).

"Arising out of" means arising out of the work the employee is to do, or out of the service he is to perform. The risk must be incidental to the employment. Bell v. Dewey Bros., 236 N. C. 280, 72 S. E. (2d) 680 (1952); Hinkle v. Lexington, 239 N. C. 105, 79 S. E. (2d) 220 (1953); Potete v. North State Pyrophylite Co., 240 N. C. 561, 82 S. E. (2d) 693 (1954).

In order for an accident to arise out of the employment it is not required that a hazard of the employment be the sole cause of the accident, but it is sufficient if the physical aspects of the employment contribute in some reasonable degree toward bringing about or intensifying the condition which renders the employee susceptible to the accident and consequent injury. Vause v. Vause Farm Equipment Co., 233 N. C. 88, 63 S. E. (2d) 173 (1951).

The words "out of" as used in the Workmen's Compensation Act refer to the origin or cause of the accident and import that there must be some causal relation between the employment and the injury, but not that the injury ought to have been foreseen or expected. Guest v. Brenner Iron & Metal Co., 241 N. C. 448, 85 S. E. (2d) 566 (1953).

For an accident to arise out of the employment there must be some causal connection between the injury and the employment. When an injury cannot fairly be traced to the employment as a contributing proximate cause, or if it comes from a hazard to which the employee would have been equally exposed apart from the employment, or from the hazard common to others, it does not arise out of the employment. In such a situation the fact that the injury occurred on the employer's premises is immaterial. Cole v. Guilford County, 259 N. C. 724, 131 S. E. (2d) 308 (1963).

The test for determining whether an accidental injury arises out of an employment is this: "There must be some causal relation between the employment and the injury; but if the injury is one which, after the event, may be seen to have had its origin in the employment, it need not be shown that it is one which ought to have been foreseen or expected." Withers v. Black, 230 N. C. 498, 53 S. E. (2d) 668 (1949); Hinkle v. Lexington, 239 N. C. 105, 79 S. E. (2d) 220 (1953).

While there must be some causal connection between the employment and the injury, nevertheless it is sufficient if the injury is one which, after the event, may be seen to have had its origin in the employment, and it need not be shown that it is one which should have been foreseen or expected. Vause v. Vause Farm Equipment Co., 233 N. C. 88, 63 S. E. (2d) 173 (1951).

\textbf{Rule of Causal Relation.}—An injury to be compensable must be shown to have resulted from an accident arising out of and in the course of the employment. This principle has come to be known and referred to as the rule of causal relation, i. e., that injury to be compensable must spring from the employment. This rule of causal relation is the very sheet anchor of the Workmen's Compensation Act. It has kept the act within the limits of its intended scope—that of providing compensation benefits for industrial injuries, rather than branching out into the field of general health insurance benefits. Duncan v. Charlotte, 234 N. C. 86, 66 S. E. (2d) 22 (1951).

\textbf{Mixed Question of Law and Fact.}—Whether an injury by accident arises out of and in the course of the employment is a mixed question of law and of fact. Hardy v. Small, 246 N. C. 581, 99 S. E. (2d) 862 (1957).

Whether an accident arises "out of the employment" is a mixed question of law and fact to be determined in the light of the facts and circumstances of each case, but the term requires that there be some causal connection between the injury and the employment or that the risk be incidental to the employment. Ridout v. Rose's 5-10-25¢ Stores, 205 N. C. 423, 171 S. E. 642 (1933).

Whether an accident arose out of the employment is not exclusively a question of fact. It is a mixed question of law and Injury Must Be Fairly Traceable to Employment as Contributing Proximate Cause.—It is settled law that where an injury cannot fairly be traced to the employment as a contributing proximate cause, it does not arise out of the employment. Poteete v. North State Pyrophylite Co., 240 N. C. 561, 82 S. E. (2d) 693 (1954); Hardy v. Small, 246 N. C. 581, 99 S. E. (2d) 862 (1957); Bass v. Mecklenburg County, 258 N. C. 226, 128 S. E. (2d) 570 (1962).

Where the death cannot fairly be traced to the employment as a contributing proximate cause, it does not arise out of the employment. Lewter v. Abercrombie Enterprises, Inc., 240 N. C. 399, 82 S. E. (2d) 410 (1954).

Fact That Injury Could Not Have Been Anticipated Is Immaterial.—If it can be seen that the injury had its origin in the employment, it arises out of such employment, and the fact that it could not have been anticipated is immaterial. Conrad v. Cook-Lewis Foundry Co., 198 N. C. 723, 163 S. E. 266 (1930).

Ordinarily, when an employee is off duty the relationship of master and servant is suspended; therefore, there is no causal relation between the employment and an accident which happens during such time. Sandy v. Stackhouse, Inc., 258 N. C. 399, 128 S. E. (2d) 218 (1962).

2. Origin and Cause of Accident.

a. Risks Incident to the Employment Generally.

No Recovery for Injury Not Arising Out of Risk Incidental to Employment.—Even though one be engaged in duties involving peculiar risks, one may not recover for any injury not arising out of those risks. Harden v. Thomasville Furniture Co., 199 N. C. 733, 155 S. E. 728 (1930) (where a night watchman was shot by a fellow employee because of a domestic affair).

Where an employee, while about his work, suffers an injury in the ordinary course of the employment, the cause of which is unexplained but which is a natural and probable result of a risk thereof, and the Industrial Commission finds from all the attendant facts and circumstances that the injury arose out of the employment, an award will be sustained. If, however, the cause is known and is independent of, unrelated to, and apart from the employment—the result of a hazard to which others are equally exposed—compensation will not be allowed. Cole v. Guilford County, 259 N. C. 724, 131 S. E. (2d) 308 (1963).

The causative danger must be peculiar to the work and not common to the neighborhood, and it must be incidental to the character of the business and not independent of the relation of master and servant. Sandy v. Stackhouse, Inc., 258 N. C. 194, 128 S. E. (2d) 218 (1962).

When Risk Is Incidental to Employment.—An injury caused by a risk incidental to the employment is compensable, and "it may be said to be incidental to the employment when it is either an ordinary risk directly connected with the employment, or an extraordinary risk which is only indirectly connected with the service owing to the special nature of the employment." Goodwin v. Bright, 202 N. C. 481, 163 S. E. 576 (1932).

Accident Caused Partially or Solely by Idiopathic Condition.—Where the accident and resultant injury arise out of both the idiopathic condition of the workman and hazards incident to the employment, the employer is liable. But not so where the idiopathic condition is the sole cause of the injury. Cole v. Guilford County, 259 N. C. 724, 131 S. E. (2d) 308 (1963).

Risk of Injury from Lightning.—The generally recognized rule is that where the injured employee is by reason of his employment peculiarly or specially exposed to a risk of injury from lightning—that is, one greater than other persons in the community—death or injury resulting from this source usually is compensable as an injury by acc'dent arising out and in the course of the employment. Pope v. Goodson, 249 N. C. 690, 107 S. E. (2d) 524 (1959).

Where a carpenter, caught in a storm while working, went to a nearby house under construction by his employer to get out of the rain and, while standing near a window talking with his employer and wearing wet clothes, and a carpenter's nail apron with nails therein, was killed by lightning, all damage to the clothes and marks on the body being from the waist down, with the nail apron knocked off, a hole burned in it, and a majority of the nails in it fused, the evidence was sufficient to support the conclusion that the circumstances of the carpenter's employment peculiarly exposed him to the risk. of injury from lightning greater than that of others in the community, and to sustain an award of compensation. Pope v. Goodson, 249 N. C. 690, 107 S. E. (2d) 824 (1959).

Claimant was in the plant of his employer when it was struck by a tornado and was injured as a result of the partial collapse of the building. It was held that the accident resulting in the injury did not arise out of the employment, there being no causal relation between the employment and the accident. Walker v. Wilkins, 212 N. C. 627, 194 S. E. 89 (1937); Marsh v. Bennett College for Women, 212 N. C. 662, 194 S. E. 303 (1937).

Death from Bite of Mad Dog.—Where intestate died of hydrophobia resulting from a dog bite received by him while engaged in his duties as attendant in a filling station, it was held that claimant was not entitled to compensation for the employee's death, since there was no causal connection between the employment and the bite of a dog running at large, and the accident was not from a risk incidental to the employment. Plemmons v. White's Service, 213 N. C. 148, 195 S. E. 370 (1938).

Employee Drowned in Attempt to Extricate Car from Employer's Millrace.—Where deceased, whose duty it was to keep his employer's millrace clean, was drowned in an attempt to extricate a car and its occupants that had plunged into the water, there was sufficient evidence to support a finding that the accident arose out of and in the course of the employment. Southern v. Morehead Cotton Mills Co., 209 N. C. 165, 156 S. E. 861 (1931).

Employee Shot by Hunter.—Plaintiff was shot in the eye by a hunter while he was working on his employer's truck. The injury did not result from a cause peculiar to the employment in which plaintiff was engaged. Whitley v. North Carolina State Highway Comm., 201 N. C. 539, 160 S. E. 527 (1931) and Bain v. Travora Mfg. Co., 203 N. C. 466, 166 S. E. 301 (1932), apparently on the ground that in those cases the plaintiff was struck by the bullet, whereas here, the glass and not the ball directly injured plaintiff.

Risks Not Incidental to Employment of Night Watchman.—Deceased was a night watchman. While in a small store on defendant's premises which was operated by a third person, he was shot by one who attempted to rob the store. It was held that the injury bore no relation to deceased's employment. Smith v. Newman Mach. Co., 206 N. C. 97, 172 S. E. 880 (1932).

For note on death of night watchman as arising out of and in the course of employment, see 34 N. C. Law Rev. 607.

b. Falls.

When Fall Constitutes Compensable Accident.—It has been held that a fall is an accident, and where it is not shown to have resulted from the employee's physical infirmity or from external force unconnected with the employment, it may be found by the Commission to arise out of the employment. No affirmative evidence as to what caused the fall is necessary to support the finding. Here the employee, reaching up to a rack in the course of her work, lost her balance and fell. Robbins v. Bossong Hosiery Mills, 220 N. C. 246, 17 S. E. (2d) 20 (1941), distinguishing cases of heart failure, dizzy spells, etc.

A fall itself is usually regarded as a compensable accident. Cole v. Guilford County, 259 N. C. 724, 131 S. E. (2d) 308 (1963).

Circumstances Permitting Inference That Fall Arose Out of and in Course of Employment. — Employee was suffering from a disease which subjected him to fainting spells. While in the men's washroom he called to a person in an adjacent booth, "Please help me to the window, I am about to faint." The floor was of tile and very slick when wet. It was washed each morning. The employee was afterwards found on the roof of the adjacent building, directly beneath the open windows. The circumstances permit the inference that employee slipped and fell to his death. Rewis v. New York Life Ins. Co., 226 N. C. 325, 38 S. E. (2d) 97 (1946). Compensation allowed in a similar case. See DeVine v. Dave Steel Co., 227 N. C. 684. 44 S. E. (2d) 77 (1947), where the employee was subject to fainting spells but it was not shown that the fatal fall resulted from such a spell.
Injuries sustained in a fall in which the employee's leg unexplainedly gave way were held to be attributable solely to the employee's idiopathic condition, and thus recovery was denied. Cole v. Guilford County, 259 N. C. 724, 131 S. E. (2d) 308 (1963).

Injury Caused by Epileptic Seizure.—The evidence tended to show that plaintiff employee was subject to epileptic fits, that while driving the employer's truck in the course of his employment he felt a seizure approaching, stopped the truck on the side of the road, opened the door and lay down on the seat of the truck with his head on the seat opposite the steering wheel and his feet hanging out of the truck, that he immediately suffered an epileptic seizure causing him to lose consciousness, and that when he “came to” his body was on the outside of the truck and his hands on the steering wheel. The expert medical testimony was to the effect that the employee had suffered broken bones caused by the fall from the seat of the truck and that the fall resulted from the epileptic seizure. It was held that the evidence disclosed that the sole cause of the employee's moving from a position of safety to his injury was the epileptic seizure, and therefore the fall was independent of, unrelated to, and apart from the employment, and the evidence could not support a finding of the Industrial Commission that the injury resulted from an accident arising out of the employment. Vause v. Vause Farm Equipment Co., 233 N. C. 88, 63 S. E. (2d) 173 (1951).

c. Heat Exhaustion, Sunstroke, Freezing, etc.

Where the employment subjects a workman to a special or particular hazard from the elements, such as excessive heat or cold, likely to produce sunstroke or freezing, death or disability resulting from such cause usually comes within the purview of the compensation acts. On the other hand, where the employee is not by reason of his work peculiarly exposed to injury by sunstroke or freezing, such injuries are not ordinarily compensable. The test is whether the employment subjects the workman to a greater hazard or risk than that to which he otherwise would be exposed. Fields v. Tompkins-Johnston Plumbing Co., 224 N. C. 841, 32 S. E. (2d) 623 (1945).

Death from Heat Exhaustion or Sunstroke. — Determination of the Industrial Commission that employee's death resulting from heat exhaustion or sunstroke was an injury which arose out of and in course of employment was held supported by the evidence, where evidence showed that the general outside temperature was 104° Fahrenheit, and employee's work required that he be in close proximity to melted lead which increased the temperature in the partly finished building where employee was working on day of his death. Fields v. Tompkins-Johnston Plumbing Co., 224 N. C. 841, 32 S. E. (2d) 623 (1945).

Where a bus driver was compelled to change a tire on defendant's bus during very cold weather and he contracted pneumonia, the Commission's ruling denying recovery was affirmed. Carter v. Carolina Coach Co., 208 N. C. 849, 182 S. E. 493 (1935).

As to pneumonia, see also post, this note, analysis line IV, D, “Injury from Disease.”

d. Street and Highway Accidents.

Editor's Note.—For note on street accidents arising out of and in the course of employment, see 32 N. C. Law Rev. 373.

In General. — Plaintiff got into his car to leave defendant's plant. A night watchman beckoned to him, and in getting out of the car to learn what the watchman wanted, plaintiff slipped on a fruit peeling. Recovery was denied, the court saying, “When an injury cannot fairly be traced to the employment as a contributing proximate cause, or comes from a hazard to which the workman would have been equally exposed apart from the employment, or from a hazard common to others, it does not arise out of the employment.” Lockey v. Cohen, Goldman & Co., 213 N. C. 356, 196 S. E. 342 (1938).

An injury caused by a highway accident is compensable if the employee at the time of the accident is acting in the course of his employment and in the performance of some duty incident thereto. Hardy v. Small, 246 N. C. 581, 99 S. E. (2d) 862 (1957) (farm employee killed while crossing highway on return from barn).

Cemetery Keeper Crossing Street on Way to Funeral Home.—When as an incident of his employment as cemetery keeper and in the performance of a duty connected therewith, as shown by the established custom, the decedent crossed the street en route to a funeral home, the hazard of the journey may properly be regarded as within the scope of the Workmen's Compensation Act. Hinkle v. Lexington, 239 N. C. 105, 79 S. E. (2d) 220 (1953).

e. Assaults and Fights.

Cross Reference. —See note to § 97-12.

Editor's Note.—See note on injury from personal assault, 19 N. C. Law Rev. 108.
In General.—In speaking of cases allowing compensation for injuries received as a result of fights on the job, the court has said: “These cases are bottomed on the sound judicial recognition of this industrial truth: ‘Where men are working together at the same work, disagreements may be expected to arise about the work, the manner of doing it, as to the use of tools, interference with one another, and many other details which may be trifling or important. Infirmity of temper, or worse, may be expected, and occasionally blows and fighting. When the disagreement arises out of the work in which two men are engaged, and as a result of it one injures the other, it may be inferred that the injury arose out of employment.’” Withers v. Black, 230 N. C. 428, 53 S. E. (2d) 668 (1949).

Assault “Arising Out of and in the Course of” Employment.—Where in a proceeding under this act the evidence tends to show that the employee was a moulder in the employer’s foundry, and that he struck his negro assistant with a shovel after the assistant had spoken words to him he deemed insulting, whereupon the assistant left the employment and returned and shot the claimant while he was doing his work, causing permanent injury, the evidence is sufficient to bring the case within the intent and meaning of the terms “injury by accident arising out of and in the course of the employment.” Conrad v. Cook-Lewis Foundry Co., 198 N. C. 723, 153 S. E. 266 (1930).

Assault Arising from Dispute over Work.—Where the evidence discloses that two employees had no personal contacts outside of the employment, and there was evidence that the dispute between them arose over the work they were performing for their common employer, the evidence was sufficient to sustain the finding by the Industrial Commission that an assault made by the one upon the other arose out of the employment. Withers v. Black, 230 N. C. 428, 53 S. E. (2d) 668 (1949).

Where a workman is injured by a fellow employee because of a dispute about the manner of doing the work he is employed to do, the accident to the injured workman grows out of the employment and is compensable. Withers v. Black, 230 N. C. 428, 53 S. E. (2d) 668 (1949).

Where there was friction and enmity between two employees, growing out of criticism of the work of one of them by the other and complaint thereof to the employer, and the employee whose work was criticised assaulted his fellow worker from anger and revenge over such criticism, which resulted in the death of the one assaulted, such death occurred from an accident in the course of the employment. Hegler v. Cannon Mills Co., 224 N. C. 669, 31 S. E. (2d) 918 (1944).

Shooting of three employees by mentally disturbed co-employee while they were at work in locker plant arose out of and in the course of employment though shooting was “triggered” by a draft board incident, where shooter stated that reason for shooting was resentment of “domination” by co-employees. Zimmerman v. Elizabeth City Freezer Locker, 244 N. C. 628, 94 S. E. (2d) 813 (1956).

Assault upon Employee Collecting Accounts.—Where there is evidence that it was the employee’s duty to collect accounts of his employer for goods sold upon the installment plan and that the employee endeavored to collect an account from a debtor and was struck by another also owning an account to the employer, the injury resulting in death, the evidence is sufficient to sustain a finding by the Industrial Commission that the injury was the result of an accident arising out of and in the course of the employment, and such a finding of fact is conclusive and binding.

Bill Collector Killed by Debtor.—Where deceased, a collector, was killed by defendant’s debtor while he was trying to collect a bill, an award granting compensation was affirmed. Winberry v. Farley Stores, 204 N. C. 79, 167 S. E. 475 (1933).

Assault by Robber.—Deceased was required to report at defendant’s mill before the other employees. It was known that many hoboes slept near the boiler room where he worked. He was murdered by a robber while he was engaged in his duties and before any other employees reported for work. It was held that the injury arose out of the employment. Goodwin v. Bright, 203 N. C. 481, 153 S. E. 576 (1932). In accord see West v. East Coast Fertilizer Co., 201 N. C. 536, 150 S. E. 765 (1931) (where deceased, night watchman, was killed by a robber).

Fall Suffered While Running from Assailant.—A fellow employee, who was drunk at the time, ran plaintiff away from his work. He returned, only to run again when he saw his assailant approaching. Plaintiff’s foreman was present. In leaving the second time, employee fell and broke his leg. The Commission’s award of compensation was affirmed. The injury had its origin in plaintiff’s employment. It is immaterial that it was unexpected. Wilson v. Boyd & Goforth, 207 N. C. 344, 177 S. E. 178 (1934).

Dispute over Matters Foreign to Employment.—Evidence tending to show that a night watchman employed to watch over one section of a highway under construction came over to a night watchman employed to watch over another section thereof, and engaged in an altercation relating to matters foreign to the employment, and that one of them killed the other as a result thereof, is sufficient to support the finding of the Industrial Commission that the deceased's death was not the result of an accident arising out of and in the course of the employment, and therefore such finding is conclusive on the courts. McNeill v. Ragland Const. Co., 216 N. C. 744, 6 S. E. (2d) 491 (1940).

If one employee assaults another solely from anger, hatred, revenge, or vindictiveness, not growing out of or as an incident to the employment, the injury is to be attributed to the voluntary act of the assailant, and not as an incident of the employment. But if the assault is incidental to some duty of the employment, the injuries suffered thereby may properly be said to arise out of the employment. Ashley v. F-W Chevrolet Co., 222 N. C. 25, 21 S. E. (2d) 834 (1942), wherein finding held to sustain award.

Killing as Result of Personal Enmity Alone.—In order for compensation to be recovered for the death of an employee under this act it is required that the injury causing death result from an accident arising out of and in the course of the employment, as a proximate cause, and where compensation is sought for the killing of one employee by another for purely personal and unrelated grounds, or when one was employed at night and the other by day, and the killing at night was a result of personal enmity alone, and these facts are found by the Commission and approved by the trial judge, the judgment denying the right of compensation will be affirmed on appeal. Harden v. Thomasville Furniture Co., 199 N. C. 733, 155 S. E. 728 (1930).

Game Warden Killed by Person against Whom he Testified in Criminal Action.—Where decedent, a game warden, was killed by a person against whom he had testified in a criminal action for violation of the game law, the court held that the injury did not arise out of and in the course of employment. Hollowell v. North Carolina Dept. of Conservation & Development, 206 N. C. 206, 173 S. E. 603 (1934).

f. Horseplay.

Where Injured Employee Did Not Participate in Horseplay Injury Is Compensable. Where the injured employee does not participate in the sportive acts of his fellow employee, the injury is compensable. Chambers v. Union Oil Co., Inc., 199 N. C. 28, 153 S. E. 594 (1930), commented upon in 9 N. C. Law Rev. 105 (where claimant was accidentally shot by the discharge of a gun which a fellow truck driver carried in his truck; the claimant was putting oil in his own truck at the time).

If an employee is injured as a result of the horseplay of a fellow workman the injured employee is not precluded from recovering his damages under this act if he did not participate therein. Chambers v. Union Oil Co., 199 N. C. 28, 153 S. E. 594 (1930).

In construing subdivision (6) of this section the words "arising out of the employment" in regard to injuries compensable are broad and comprehensive, and must be determined in the light and circumstances of each case, and the act, applying only to industries employing more than five workmen, contemplates the gathering together of workmen of varying characteristics, and the risks and hazards of such close contact, joking and pranks by the workmen, are incidents to the business and grow out of it, and are ordinary risks assumed by the employer under the act. Chambers v. Union Oil Co., 199 N. C. 28, 153 S. E. 594 (1930). See also, Wilson v. Mooresville City Orange Crush Bottling Co., 222 N. C. 283, 22 S. E. (2d) 907 (1948).

Injuries occurring after the employee has ceased his horseplay and returned to work are compensable. Michaux v. Gate City Orange Crush Bottling Co., 205 N. C. 786, 172 S. E. 406 (1934) (the court affirmed the Commission's award of compensation to deceased, who was killed in trying to catch his employer's truck, which had left him while he was wrestling with a stranger).

3. Time, Place and Circumstances of Accident.

a. Injuries While Acting for Benefit of Self or Third Person.

Acts which are necessary to the health and comfort of an employee while at work, though personal to himself and not technically acts of service, such as visits to the washroom, are incidental to the employment. Rewis v. New York Life Ins. Co., 225 N. C. 225, 38 S. E. (2d) 97 (1946).
Evidence tending to show that the employee was suffering from a disease which weakened him and subjected him to frequent fainting spells, that during the course of his employment he went to the men's washroom, and while there felt faint, and in seeking fresh air, went to the open window, slipped on the tile floor, and fell through the window to his death, held sufficient to support the finding of the Industrial Commission that his death was the result of an accident arising out of and in the course of his employment. Rewis v. New York Life Ins. Co., 226 N. C. 323, 38 S. E. (2d) 97 (1946).

Injury during Vacation Pleasure Trip Furnished by Employer.—An accidental injury received by an employee while riding in a truck on a vacation pleasure trip does not arise out of the employment notwithstanding that the employer furnished the vacation trip as a matter of good will and personal relations among the employees and paid the entire expenses of the trip in accordance with its agreement entered into at the time of the employment as a part of the remuneration and inducement to its employees. Berry v. Colonial Furniture Co., 232 N. C. 303, 60 S. E. (2d) 97 (1950).

Attending a good-will picnic at the invitation of the employer was held not to invoke the relation of the master and servant where the employee did no work and was not paid for attendance, nor penalized for nonattendance, nor ordered to go. Barber v. Minges, 223 N. C. 213, 25 S. E. (2d) 837 (1943).

Employee Injured While Washing His Personal Car.—Claimant, employed as a night watchman, was injured on the employer's premises during his hours of duty when his trouser leg was caught on the bumper of his car, causing him to fall, as he was washing his personal car for his own purposes with the implied consent of the employer. There was no causal relationship between his employment and the injury, and therefore the injury did not arise out of the employment and was not compensable. Bell v. Dewey Bros., 236 N. C. 280, 72 S. E. (2d) 680 (1952).

Employee off Duty and on Personal Errand. — The Commission found facts which clearly showed that the deceased employee, although temporarily assigned to work in a distant town in another state, which clearly showed that the deceased employee, although temporarily assigned to work in the vicinity of one of the saws, and that while waiting at the place designated he started to assist another employee, in the absence of the regular sawyer, in cutting off a board, and suffered an injury when his hand come in contact with the saw. Two men were usually required to operate the saw. The court held that the evidence was sufficient to sustain the finding of the Industrial Commission that the injury arose out of and in the course of his employment. Riddick v. Richmond Cedar Works, 227 N. C. 647, 43 S. E. (2d) 850 (1947).

Employee Assisting Another Contractor on Same Job.—Evidence to the effect that a deceased employee was working under the direct supervision and instruction of his superior in attempting to make repairs on a drum that actually belonged to another contractor working on the same job and that the two contractors on prior occasions had assisted each other without charge sustained the finding that the injury arose out of and in the course or employment. Butler v. Jones Plumbing & Heating Co., 244 N. C. 525, 94 S. E. (2d) 556 (1956).

Injury While Acting for Benefit of Third Persons.—Whether an injury to an employee received while performing acts for the benefit of third persons arises out of the employment depends upon whether the acts of the employee are for the benefit of the employer to any appreciable extent, or whether the acts are solely for the benefit or purpose of the employee or a third person. Guest v. Brenner Iron & Metal Co., 241 N. C. 448, 85 S. E. (2d) 596 (1955).

At the suggestion of her foreman, plaintiff joined with other employees to have a group picture taken for the sole benefit of the photographer. This was done during shifts. Plaintiff was injured by the collapse of the seat prepared by the photographer. It was held that it was error for the Commission to find that the injury arose out of the employment. Beavers v. Lily Mill & Power Co., 205 N. C. 94, 169 S. E. 825 (1933).

Assistance to Third Person in Reciprocity for Aid Requested for Employer's Benefit.—An employee sent to fix flat tires went to a filling station and requested free use of its air pump, but before inflation of the tires was completed, the filling station operator asked him to help push a stalled car, and while he was doing so he was struck by another car, resulting in permanent injury. It was held that the courtesies and assistance extended by the employee were in reciprocity for the courtesy of free air requested by the employee for the employer's benefit, so that the employee had reasonable ground to apprehend that refusal to render the assistance requested of him might well have resulted in like refusal of the courtesy requested by him, and therefore the findings supported the conclusion that the accident arose out of and in the course of employment. Guest v. Brenner Iron & Metal Co., 241 N. C. 448, 85 S. E. (2d) 596 (1955).

b. Injuries While Going to and from Work.

(1) General Rule.

Editor's Note.—For note on injuries sustained by employee while going to and from work, see 36 N. C. Law Rev. 367.

Injury Suffered Going to or Returning from Work.—As a general rule an injury suffered by an employee while going to or returning from his work does not arise out of and in the course of his employment. Bray v. Weatherly & Co., 208 N. C. 160, 165 S. E. 332 (1932), 94 A. L. R. 589 note (where plaintiff driver was injured in going after defendant's truck to start the day's work); Hardy v. Small, 246 N. C. 581, 99 S. E. (2d) 862 (1957); Humphrey v. Quality Cleaners & Laundry, 251 N. C. 47, 110 S. E. (2d) 467 (1959).

An injury sustained by an employee while going to or from work does not arise out of and in the course of his employment. Bray v. Weatherly & Co., 208 N. C. 160, 165 S. E. 332 (1932), 94 A. L. R. 589 note (where plaintiff driver was injured in going after defendant's truck to start the day's work); Hardy v. Small, 246 N. C. 581, 99 S. E. (2d) 862 (1957); Humphrey v. Quality Cleaners & Laundry, 251 N. C. 47, 110 S. E. (2d) 467 (1959).

An injury sustained by an employee while going to or from work does not arise out of and in the course of his employment. Bray v. Weatherly & Co., 208 N. C. 160, 165 S. E. 332 (1932), 94 A. L. R. 589 note (where plaintiff driver was injured in going after defendant's truck to start the day's work); Hardy v. Small, 246 N. C. 581, 99 S. E. (2d) 862 (1957); Humphrey v. Quality Cleaners & Laundry, 251 N. C. 47, 110 S. E. (2d) 467 (1959).

An injury sustained by an employee while going to or from work does not arise out of and in the course of his employment. Bray v. Weatherly & Co., 208 N. C. 160, 165 S. E. 332 (1932), 94 A. L. R. 589 note (where plaintiff driver was injured in going after defendant's truck to start the day's work); Hardy v. Small, 246 N. C. 581, 99 S. E. (2d) 862 (1957); Humphrey v. Quality Cleaners & Laundry, 251 N. C. 47, 110 S. E. (2d) 467 (1959).

Such an injury occurs during the period of employment but not in the course of it. Hunt v. State, 201 N. C. 707, 161 S. E. 203 (1931), 85 A. L. R. 980, 87 A. L. R. 253. notes (deceased was killed while driving his own car to defendant's camp. Compensation began from time he left home, but the expense of the trip was borne by himself); Lassiter v. Carolina Tel. & Tel. Co., 215 N. C. 227, 1 S. E. (2d) 542 (1939) (where deceased was killed while being transported to work in a vehicle gratuitously furnished).

Off Employer's Premises.—Where the evidence tended to show that plaintiff's intestate, a civilian guard of a construction company, stationed at a main gate of a marine base to direct traffic and parking about such gate and on the highway immediately adjoining, was at the time of the accident on his way to his place of employment to report for work and was killed, after alighting from a bus, on the public highway immediately in front of such main gate, as he attempted to cross the highway ahead of an oncoming car, an award was error, as deceased was not on the premises of his employer and his injury and death did not arise out of and in the course of his employment. Bryan v. T. A. Loving Co., 222 N. C. 724, 24 S. E. (2d) 751 (1943).

When travel is contemplated as part of the work the rule is that the employment included not only the actual doing of the work but also a reasonable margin of time and space necessary to be used in passing to and from the place where the work is to be done, when the latter is expressly or impliedly included in the terms of the employment. Alford v. Quality Chevrolet Co., 246 N. C. 214, 97 S. E. (2d) 869 (1957).

Employees whose work entails travel away from the employer's premises are held in the majority of jurisdictions to be within the course of their employment continuously during the trip, except when a distinct departure on a personal errand is shown. Brewer v. Powers Trucking Co., 256 N. C. 175, 123 S. E. (2d) 608 (1963).

Continuity between Employment and Travel. — If it be conceded the course of employment included the travel home, then certainly there must be reasonable continuity between the employment and the travel. Alford v. Quality Chevrolet Co., 246 N. C. 214, 97 S. E. (2d) 869 (1957).

Findings to the effect that the deceased employee was furnished a car for transportation to and from his work, that he quit work about 7:00 p. m., met a friend for dinner, took repeated drinks throughout the evening, made several trips, on one of which he drove approximately 100 miles per hour, in search of a girl to join the party, and some five hours thereafter started for home in the employer's car, and was killed in a wreck occurring on the direct route from the employer's place of business to the employee's home, held to show an abandonment of employment rather than a deviation from it, and there-

An employee is not engaged in the prosecution of his employer's business while operating his personal car to the place where he is to perform the duties of his employment, nor while leaving his place of employment to go to his home. Ellis v. American Service Co., 240 N. C. 453, 82 S. E. (2d) 419 (1954).

Policeman Killed While Returning to Work from Leave of Absence.—Where the evidence showed that a policeman was killed in an accident, while returning to work from a leave of absence, the conclusion that he did not sustain injury by accident arising out of and in the course of his employment was sustained. McKenzie v. Gastonia, 222 N. C. 388, 82 S. E. (2d) 419 (1942).

Farm Employee Killed While Crossing Highway on Return from Barn to Home.—Where farm employee, who lived on farm, was killed while crossing highway when returning from barn, to area of house in which he lived, the injury arose out of and in the course of his employment. Hardy v. Small, 246 N. C. 581, 99 S. E. (2d) 862 (1957).

(2) Special Errand.

When Employee Is Employed in Special Errand Employment Begins When He Leaves Home.—While on his way to work, plaintiff was injured in crossing the street to purchase supplies for defendant school. This was done at the request of the principal. It was held that plaintiff was employed in a special errand for his master. In such case employment begins from the time the employee leaves his home. Massey v. Board of Education of Mecklenburg County, 204 N. C. 193 167 S. E. 695 (1933).

Driving Employer's Truck from Employee's Home to Place of Employment.—In Phifer v. Foremost Dairy, 200 N. C. 65, 156 S. E. 147 (1930), deceased was killed in a collision as he was driving a truck, owned and maintained by his employer, from his home to his place of employment. It was found that transportation to and from work was an incident of the employment. It was held that the accident arose out of and in the course of deceased's employment.

(3) On Employer's Premises.

Injury on Employer's Premises May Be Compensable.—In Hunt v. State, 201 N. C. 707, 161 S. E. 203 (1931), a distinction is made between the time an employee gets back to work and the beginning of employment. “True, the moment when he begins his work is not necessarily the moment when he gets into the employment, because a reasonable margin must be allowed him to get to the place of work if he is on the premises of the employer or on some access to the premises which the employer has provided.” Cf. Bryan v. T. A. Loving Co., 222 N. C. 724, 24 S. E. (2d) 751 (1943), ante, this note, analysis line IV, C, 3, b, (1), “General Rule.”

As an exception to the general rule, known as the “going and coming rule,” that injuries sustained by an employee while going to or from work are not ordinarily compensable, the great weight of authority holds that injuries sustained by an employee while going to or from his place of work upon premises owned or controlled by his employer are generally deemed to have arisen out of and in the course of the employment within the Workmen’s Compensation Act and are compensable, provided the employee's act involves no unreasonable delay. Bass v. Mecklenburg County, 258 N. C. 226, 128 S. E. (2d) 570 (1962).

Injury on Parking Lot Provided by Employer.—Where the employer provides a parking lot on its premises next to its factory and permits its employees to park their cars in the lot, an injury received by an employee in a fall while she was walking from her parked car on her way to the other part of the employer's premises where she actually worked, is an injury arising out of and in the course of her employment within the purview of this section. Davis v. Devil Dog Mfg. Co., 249 N. C. 543, 107 S. E. (2d) 102 (1959).

(4) Where Employer Furnishes Transportation.

Where Employer Furnishes Transportation as Incident to Contract of Employment.—While ordinarily an employer is not liable under this chapter for an injury suffered by an employee while going to or returning from work, the employer may be held liable when he furnishes the means of transportation as an incident to the contract of employment. Smith v. Gastonia, 216 N. C. 517, 5 S. E. (2d) 540 (1939).

Where Employer Makes Allowances to Cover Cost of Transportation.—Injuries sustained in an automobile accident by employees while on their way to or from their work in an automobile owned by one of them arise out of and in the course of their employment when, under the terms of the employment and as an incident to the contract of employment, allowances are made by the employer to cover the cost of such transportation. Puett v. Bahnson Co., 231 N. C. 711, 58 S. E. (2d) 633 (1950). See Phifer v. Foremost Dairy, 200 N. C. 65, 156 S. E. 147 (1930), (where defendant provided deceased with a truck for use in defendant’s business and in taking deceased to and from work); Edwards v. T. A. Loving Co., 203 N. C. 189, 165 S. E. 856 (1932) (where deceased’s contract of service provided for transportation by the employer).

Transportation Furnished in Accordance with Custom. — Where employer hired two employees to ride on truck to help the driver unload and, on the last trip, the driver consented to let the employees off at the place on his route nearest their homes, in accordance with established custom, and one of the employees attempted to alight before the truck had completely stopped, contrary to express orders, and fell to his mortal injury, the evidence was sufficient to sustain the finding that the accident arose out of and in the course of the employment. Latham v. Southern Fish, etc., Co., 208 N. C. 505, 181 S. E. 640 (1935).

“The test in such cases is whether the vehicle furnished by employer is one which the employees are required, or as a matter of right are permitted, to use by virtue of their contract, or whether it is furnished gratuitously for the mere accommodation of the workmen.” Lassiter v. Carolina Tel. & Tel. Co., 215 N. C. 227, 1 S. E. (2d) 542 (1939), affirming award denying compensation where transportation was furnished gratuitously. See Porter v. Noland Co., 215 N. C. 724, 2 S. E. (2d) 853 (1939).

Abandoning Vehicle Furnished by Employer. — Where an employer was under obligation to transport its employees from the woods where they worked to a camp, and provided for that purpose a safety car attached to its railroad train, having forbidden its employees to use the more hazardous log train, and deceased was killed in attempting to get on the log train and thus return to camp, the employee was killed as result of injury by accident arising out of and in the course of his employment. Archie v. Greene Bros. Lbr. Co., 222 N. C. 477, 23 S. E. (2d) 834 (1943).

Where making a trip to a farm to load poultry and a return trip to the place of business of the employer after the poultry was loaded constituted a substantial part of the services for which claimant was employed, the transfer of claimant from the truck of the employer to his own automobile in order that he might have it so that he could return home after he made his required report at the office of his employer, did not constitute a distinct departure on a personal errand, disassociated from his master’s business, where claimant’s home was located on the most direct route between the farm and the plant, and when the collision occurred claimant was proceeding on this direct route to the place of business of his employer. Brewer v. Powers Truck Co., 256 N. C. 175, 123 S. E. (2d) 608 (1962).

Riding in Another Vehicle at Direction of Employer’s Foreman.—The evidence tended to show that defendant’s employees were required to check in at the office in the morning, were then transported to the job, and after completion of the day’s work were transported back to the office where they received instructions as to the next day’s work before checking out, their working time being computed from the time of checking in until the time of checking out, that on the date in question they were carried to the job in a truck, but that the president’s car was sent to bring them back because of rain, that when deceased started to get in the car there were already six persons, including the driver, in the car, that the foreman said he could crowd in the car or ride in with another employee who was driving his own car, and deceased rode in with the other employee, and was fatally injured in an accident occurring after they had reached the city in which defendant’s place of business was maintained and while they were on their way to defendant’s office to check out. The evidence was sufficient to support the finding of the Industrial Commission that death resulted from an accident arising out of and in the course of the employment, the general rule of nonliability for an accident occurring while an employee is being transported to or from work in a conveyance of a third person over which the employer has no control not being applicable upon the evidence. Mion v. Atlantic Marble, etc., Co., 217 N. C. 743, 9 S. E. (2d) 501 (1940).

(5) Employee on Call at All Times. Injury to Police Officer on Call at All Times. — In Davis v. Mecklenburg County, 214 N. C. 459, 199 S. E. 604 (1938), the court affirmed a decision denying recovery where a rural policeman on call at all times was killed in an automobile accident while driving his own car from his home to police headquarters to report for his regular working day. The Commission had stated that the facts that he was on 24-hour duty and had the power to make arrests were not in themselves grounds for making an exception to the rule against recovery for to-and-from accidents.

A different result was reached in Smith v. Gastonia, 216 N. C. 517, 5 S. E. (2d) 540 (1937). There the deceased was a motorcycle policeman with fixed hours of active patrol duty as well as a general obligation to make arrests at other hours when law violations came to his notice and to be "on call" at all times. His cycle was furnished by the city and he had the entire care of it. He was privileged to keep it at home and did so, and was riding home after regular hours when he was killed in a collision. The Commission properly found that the death was compensable.

c. Injuries before and after Work, on Employer's Premises.

Employee Injured While at Plant after Hours on Private Business. — Where claimant, a foreman, returned to the employer's plant after his regular working hours, to attend to certain private business, but before entering upon such business he assisted with certain work of the employer, and then sat down on a wall to rest, whereupon he fell and was injured, it was held that the evidence was insufficient to sustain a finding that plaintiff's injury arose out of and in the course of his employment. Poteete v. North State Pyrophyllite Co., 240 N. C. 561, 82 S. E. (2d) 693 (1954).

Editor's Note.—On mealt ime injuries, see 17 N. C. Law Rev. 458.

Illustrative Cases—Compensation Denied.—Findings to the effect that during lunch hour the employees were free to go as they pleased, that deceased employee had stopped his work for the lunch period and, in attempting to board a truck moving within the premises of the employer, fell and was fatally injured, with further evidence that the employee had been given no order and had no duty connected either with the truck or its contents, and was acting according to his own will, was held insufficient to show affirmatively that the injury resulted from a hazard incident to the employment, and supported the ruling of the Industrial Commission that it did not arise out of the employment. Matthews v. Carolina Standard Corp., 232 N. C. 239, 60 S. E. (2d) 93 (1950).

An employee who was hit by a car while crossing highway to eat lunch on employer's parking lot did not sustain an injury arising out of and in the course of employment. Horn v. Sandhill Furniture Co., 245 N. C. 173, 95 S. E. (2d) 521 (1956).

e. Injuries While Traveling.

Editor's Note.—On injuries to traveling employees, see 33 N. C. Law Rev. 159.

Trip Made Primarily for Personal or Social Reasons.—Injuries received while on a trip being made primarily for personal or social reasons and not in performance of duty are not compensable, although the employer is incidentally benefited by the trip. Ridout v. Rose's 5-10-25¢ Stores, 205 N. C. 423, 171 S. E. 648 (1933) (deceased went with another to visit the other's girl and while on the visit stopped to get certain goods for his employer).

Injury to Salesman on Weekend Trip. —Evidence that plaintiff, a traveling salesman, used his employer's car for a weekend trip and was injured in a wreck in returning was held to support the finding of the Industrial Commission that the accident did not arise out of and in the course of the employment, notwithstanding that the injured employee, at the destination of the trip, met and conversed with a representative of the employer without appointment or direction of the employer, primarily in regard to a personal matter. Porter v. Noland Co., 215 N. C. 724, 2 S. E. (2d) 853 (1939).

f. Deviation, Departure and Abandonment.

Employee Need Not Be in Exact Spot Designated by Employer.—The Workmen's Compensation Act must be liberally construed, and the term "out of the employment" will not preclude recovery for an accident occurring while an employee is not in the exact spot designated by the employer if the employee is at the place he is required to be in the performance of his duties. Howell v. Standard Ice, etc., Co., 226 N. C. 739, 40 S. E. (2d) 197 (1946).

Need Not Be Actually Engaged in Performance of His Duties.—The fact that deceased was not actually engaged in the performance of his duties as watchman, at the time he was pushed over and injured unintentionally by a fellow employee in a hurry, does not preclude his claim for compensation under this act where both employees had checked in for work, were on the premises and where they had a right to be. Brown v. Carolina Aluminum Co., 224 N. C. 766, 32 S. E. (2d) 320 (1944).

Evidence that claimant was not sure that the mill in which he was employed would be operated on the day in question and that he rode to work with another employee, requesting his son to follow in his car to ride him home in case the mill was not operated, and that upon getting to work and ascertaining that the mill would be operated, he put his lunch in the room where he worked and went to a platform at the front of the mill to tell his son not to wait for him, and that he there slipped on ice and fell to his injury is sufficient to support the finding that the injury resulted from an accident arising out of and in the course of his employment. Gordon v. Thomasville Chair Co., 205 N. C. 739, 172 S. E. 485 (1934).

Violation of Orders. — Deceased was killed in rising from basement to ground floor on a mechanical crate conveyor. Steps were provided by employer, and none of the employees rode the conveyor when the foreman was around. It was held that the denial of compensation was proper in that deceased stepped aside from the sphere of his employment in getting on the conveyor. Teague v. Atlantic Co., 213 N. C. 546, 196 S. E. 875 (1938). Cf. Archie v. Greene Bros. Lbr. Co., 222 N. C. 477, 23 S. E. (2d) 834 (1943), ante, this note, analysis line IV, C, 3, b, (4), "Where Employer Furnishes Transportation."

Recovery was denied on the same grounds where a painter dropped his brush in a river and in violation of the foreman’s orders went in after it and was drowned. Morrow v. State Highway & Pub. Works Comm., 214 N. C. 835, 199 S. E. 265 (1938).

Where an employee is employed solely for a particular job, such as operating a chain saw, and is positively forbidden to perform another job connected with the work, such as operating a tractor, an injury received while performing the forbidden task does not arise out of a hazard of the employment, and is not compensable. Taylor v. Dixon, 251 N. C. 304, 111 S. E. (2d) 181 (1959). Deviation from Employment in Emergency. — Deceased slept on employer’s premises. On the night of the accident, some machinery had broken and deceased voluntarily went after a foreman who could fix it. No one had requested deceased to do this, although evidence showed he expected to receive pay for his time. He was killed by a passing car while on his way to get the foreman. It was held that the breakdown of machinery could not be classified as sufficient emergency to justify recovery. Davis v. North State Veneer Corp., 200 N. C. 263, 156 S. E. 859 (1913).

Acting at Request of Superior. — In Hilderbrand v. McDowell Furn. Co., 212 N. C. 100, 193 S. E. 294 (1937), recovery was denied where deceased was killed while attending a furniture market at the request of his superior. It was shown that the deceased was invited to attend, not for the purpose of learning anything helpful to his work, but to enable him to have a pleasure trip.

Return to Employment after Deviation. — After working steadily for 15 hours, claimant stopped to eat and get a haircut. He then returned to his employer’s truck. He was injured in taking the truck to defendant’s place of business. It was held that the temporary deviation from the course of duty was not an abandonment. Besides, the accident occurred after the employee had resumed his work. Jackson v. Dairymen’s Creamery, 202 N. C. 196, 162 S. E. 359 (1932).

Salesman Going Out of His Way to Buy Cigars. — In Parrish v. Armour & Co., 200 N. C. 654, 158 S. E. 188 (1931), the injured employee was a salesman and collector, who was furnished with a car, and who had no fixed hours of employment. One evening, while on his way to make a business visit, he deviated less than a mile to buy some cigars, which he regarded as expedient to the purpose of his visit. While going from the drugstore, he was injured. Compensation award was affirmed; the accident arose out of and in the course of the employment.

Selection of More Hazardous Route. — The evidence tended to show that claimant, in the performance of his duty to go to a guard tower outside of a high wire fence, elected to climb over the fence rather than go around by the gate, which would require approximately 200 yards of travel, and was injured when he jumped from the top of the fence to avoid falling therefrom. Held: The evidence sustained the award of compensation, and the contention that claimant climbed the fence for his own convenience rather than as a part of his duties was untenable, since the mere fact that an employee selected the more hazardous route in the performance of his duties does not defeat recovery. Hartley v.

Illustrative Cases — Compensation Allowed.—Claimant was an employee in D’s mill. Her work ceased at 11:30. During this interval she was injured as she returned from downstairs to see about getting a friend a job. It was held that plaintiff’s mission was “not such a departure from the employe’s business ... that it was not in the course of the employment.” Bellamy v. Great Falls Mfg. Co., 200 N. C. 676, 158 S. E. 246 (1931).

When plaintiff injured his arm in raising a window to obtain a bottle of milk which had purchased from defendant’s confectionery wagon and set aside to cool, recovery was allowed, the court saying that plaintiff’s conduct did not constitute such a deviation as to deprive him of the benefits of the Act. Pickard v. E. M. Holt Plaid Mills, 213 N. C. 28, 195 S. E. 28 (1938).

Same — Compensation Denied. — The findings of fact of the Industrial Commission, supported by the evidence, were to the effect that deceased employee was a night watchman, that his duties were to make periodic inspection and to attend the furnaces and to get up steam, that on the night in question he procured his son to help him, that he instructed his son to do certain of his duties in the boiler room, that he placed a small box and plank on a walkway eight or nine feet high, with one end of the plank resting on the box, and lay down on the plank, that his son told him in time to make a periodic inspection some thirty minutes later, and that in getting up from his recumbent position, while his son was engaged in the performance of the employee’s active duties in the boiler room, the employee fell from the walkway and was fatally injured. The facts did not compel the conclusion, as a matter of law, that at the time of injury the employee had not deviated from or abandoned his employment, and therefore the award of the Industrial Commission denying compensation was upheld. Stallcup v. Carolina Wood Turning Co., 217 N. C. 303, 7 S. E. (2d) 350 (1940).

Deceased, a delivery boy, went to employer’s storeroom after groceries. He stopped by a private bedroom and was killed by the accidental discharge of a gun which he had found in the room. The evidence was held sufficient to support the Commission’s finding that the accident did not arise out of and in the course of the employment. Smith v. Hauser & Co., 206 N. C. 562, 174 S. E. 455 (1934).

4. Evidence and Burden of Proof.

Burden of Proof Is on Claimant.—The person claiming the benefit of compensation has the burden of showing that the injury complained of resulted from an accident arising out of and in the course of the employment. Henry v. A. C. Lawrence Leather Co., 231 N. C. 477, 57 S. E. (2d) 750 (1950).

Competency of Evidence.—“It must not only appear by competent evidence that the injury was received in the course of the employment, but also that it arose out of the employment as well. Hearsay evidence is not competent to establish either fact.” Plyler v. Charlotte Country Club, 214 N. C. 453, 199 S. E. 622 (1938). In this case recovery was denied where a caddy cut his toe and died of infection. The only evidence to show that he was working at the time of the accident was some of his own statements, to all of which objection was properly entered.

Where no objection is made before the hearing commissioner to the introduction of hearsay evidence, the objection must be treated as waived and the evidence may be considered. The principle on which hearsay evidence is excluded by rules of evidence relates to its competency, not to its relevancy. Maley v. Thomasville Furniture Co., 214 N. C. 589, 200 S. E. 438 (1938) (where objection was entered for the first time before the full Commission. The court also held in this case that where deceased, a Sawyer, was seen standing beside his running machine with a small cut on his arm freshly bleeding and where he subsequently died of blood poisoning from this injury, there was sufficient substantial evidence to support the Commission’s award allowing compensation).

Proof That Employee Was at Place of Employment Doing Usual Work Is Insufficient.—It must be kept in mind that while an accident arising out of an employment usually occurs in the course of it, it does not necessarily or invariably do so. Nor does an accident which occurs in the course of an employment necessarily or inevitably arise out of it. Therefore proof that an employee was at his place of employment and was doing his usual work at the time of the injury, without more, is insufficient to support an award of compensation. Sweatt v. Rutherford County Board of Education, 237 N. C. 653, 75 S. E. (2d) 738 (1953).

Where Cause of Injury Not Explained. —Where an employee, while about his work, suffers an injury in the ordinary course of employment, the cause of which is not explained, but which is a natural and probable result of a risk thereof, and the Commission finds from the evidence that the injury arose out of the employment, an award will be sustained. Bolling v. Belkwhite Co.; 228 N. C. 749, 46 S. E. (2d) 693 (1954).

Employee Found Dead or Injured at His Place of Employment.—Deceased was required to report to work before daylight. On the particular morning in question, he was told to return later in the day. At daylight he was found in a dying condition at the base of an unlighted platform on defendant’s premises. Deceased had to cross the platform to leave the premises. It was held that there was sufficient evidence to sustain the finding that the accident arose out of deceased’s employment. Morgan v. Cleveland Cloth Mills, 207 N. C. 317, 177 S. E. 165.

Death by violent means is prima facie evidence of death by accident. The burden of proving suicide is upon the party seeking to establish it. McGill v. Lumberton, 215 N. C. 752, 3 S. E. (2d) 324 (1939).

Death from Pistol Shot.—Where claimant’s evidence tended to show that deceased was employed as chief of police of defendant municipality and that deceased died as a result of a shot from a pistol while he was in office, proof of death by violence raises a presumption of accidental death, casting the burden of going forward with the evidence upon the employer and insurance carrier to show that deceased killed himself, when relied on by them, and claimant’s evidence is sufficient to support the finding of the Industrial Commission that death resulted from an accident arising out of and in the course of the employment. McGill v. Lumberton, 218 N. C. 586, 11 S. E. (2d) 873 (1940).

Evidence tending to show that deceased came to his death as a result of a pistol wound while at a place where he had a right to be in the course of his employment, without evidence that he was authorized to keep a pistol or use it in the business of the employer, is insufficient to support an award of compensation: on the ground that in the absence of a showing of suicide it will be presumed that the death resulted from an accident, since, even so, there is neither presumption nor evidence to support the necessary basis for compensation that the accident arose out of the employment. Bolling v. Belkwhite Co., 228 N. C. 749, 46 S. E. (2d) 838 (1948).

Evidence Held Sufficient.—Where the claimant, while working in an upholstering plant, discovered that an upholstering tack had gone through his shoe and cut his toe, and subsequently infection set in, the Commission’s finding that the injury arose out of and in the course of the employment was conclusive. Kearns v. Biltwell Chair & Furniture Co., 222 N. C. 438, 23 S. E. (2d) 310 (1942).

Evidence that claimant received an injury while attempting, alone, to elevate and hold a 175 pound cabinet in place while another workman secured it to the wall, and that three men were usually assigned to the installation of such cabinets on the construction job, was sufficient to sustain a finding that claimant suffered a compensable injury by accident arising out of and in the course of his employment. Davis v. Summitt, 259 N. C. 57, 129 S. E. (2d) 588 (1963).

Findings of fact by the Industrial Commission were supported by competent evidence and supported its conclusion of law that the deceased’s injuries resulting in death did not arise out of and in the course of his employment. Thornton v. J. A. Richardson Co., Inc., 258 N. C. 207, 128 S. E. (2d) 256 (1962).

Evidence Held Insufficient.—In Plyler v. Charlotte Country Club, 214 N. C. 453, 199 S. E. 692 (1938), the evidence was insufficient to support finding that injury arose out of employment.

5. Miscellaneous Illustrative Cases.

Injury Sustained While Taking Medical Test.—An injury sustained by an employee while taking a medical test or examination, which test or examination is required by law in order for the employee to continue to hold her job, does not constitute an accident arising out of and in the course of her employment within the meaning of this section. King v. Arthur, 245 N. C. 599, 96 S. E. (2d) 846 (1957).

For comment, see 36 N. C. Law Rev. 110.

Electric Shock.—The record disclosed competent evidence sufficient to support the Industrial Commission in finding death was caused by electric shock by accident arising out of and in the course of employment. Blalock v. Durham, 244 N. C. 208, 92 S. E. (2d) 758 (1956).

Arrest Held outside Scope of Employment of Jailer.—Deceased who was employed by the sheriff as his deputy and by the county commissioners as jailer, met his death in attempting to arrest one who had just shot his own wife at a house two doors from the rear of the jail. The Commission were of opinion that death resulted from accident arising out of and in the course of his employment either as deputy sheriff or as jailer or as "deputy-sheriff jailer." The statute did not then treat deputies as employees of the county (see subdivision (2) of this section) and the Supreme Court remanded the case for a finding specifically on whether the accident was in the course of his employment as jailer. Gowens v. Alamance County, 214 N. C. 18, 197 S. E. 538 (1938). The Commission then found that question in the affirmative but was later overruled on the ground that the attempted arrest was clearly "outside the scope of his employment as jailer."

Highway Patrolman Using Airplane to Search for Escaped Convict.—Two highway patrolmen were killed while in an airplane searching for an escaped convict. The award of the commissioner granting compensation was reversed by the full Commission, and reinstated on appeal to the superior court. The Supreme Court affirmed the award. The case turned on the question of the authority of the patrolmen to attempt to apprehend the fugitive. The Court found such authority, and held that the use of an airplane was not a novel or unusual method of carrying out such a purpose. Galloway v. Dept. of Motor Vehicles, 231 N. C. 447, 57 S. E. (2d) 799 (1950).

Employee Mowing Lawn at Employer’s Residence.—Where the claimant was employed to drive a delivery truck and to do janitorial work both in the employer's place of business and at the employer's home, and was injured while mowing the lawn at the employer's residence, the injury was not compensable, and was not covered by a compensation insurance policy which provided coverage solely in connection with the employer's business having a definite location. Burnett v. Palmer-Lipe Paint Co., 216 N. C. 204, 4 S. E. (2d) 507 (1939).

D. Injury from Disease.

Cross Reference.—As to heart attack or stroke as result of accident, see ante, this note, analysis line IV, B, "Accident."

Injury from Occupational Disease. Where claimant worked in an asbestos plant for six or seven years, and a dust removing system was not installed until about a year before claimant's discharge when a medical examination disclosed that he was suffering from asbestosis, the evidence showed the injury was the result of an occupational disease not compensable under the Workmen’s Compensation Act prior to its amendment by Laws 1935, c. 123. Swink v. Carolina Asbestos Co., 210 N. C. 303, 186 S. E. 258 (1936). See §§ 97-52 to 97-76.

When this problem first came to the Supreme Court, a line of reasoning was pursued which made the act applicable to some cases of occupational disease. In McNeely v. Carolina Asbestos Co., 206 N. C. 568, 174 S. E. 509 (1934), 35 N. C. C. A. 429 with note, an action was brought at common law on the ground that, due to defendant's negligence over a period of months, plaintiff had contracted pulmonary asbestosis. The court held that since defendant was negligent, plaintiff's injury was not incidental to his employment and, furthermore, was not deprived of its accidental character by the mere fact of its requiring several months to develop. Accordingly, recovery was denied plaintiff in his suit at common law because the injury was declared to be covered by the act. This decision was followed in Johnson v. Hughes and Southern Dairies, Inc., 207 N. C. 544, 177 S. E. 632 (1935). Cf. Re Sullivan v. Mass. Bonding & Ins. Co., 265 Mass. 497, 164 N. E. 437, 62 A. L. R. 1458 with note, 1460 (1929).

Occupational Disease Act Constitutes Implied Amendment to This Section.—The Occupational Disease Act, § 97-52 et seq., constitutes an implied amendment to this section. Under that act, specified occupational diseases are compensable. In adopting this amendment, the legislature "was not making provision for compensation for 'injuries by accident' as that term is ordinarily understood. Provision for that type of injury had already been made in the original act. It was considering those diseases the causative origin of which is occupational and designating those which are to be deemed within the new and extended definition of 'injury by accident' it was then providing.” Henry v. Lawrence Leather Co., 234 N. C. 128, 66 S. E. (2d) 693 (1951).

Compensation for Disease Resulting from Accident Not Precluded. — Section 97-52, providing that only the occupational diseases therein specified should be compensable, relates only to occupational diseases, which are those resulting from long and continued exposure to risks and conditions inherent and usual in the nature of the employment, and this section does not preclude compensation for a disease not inherent in or incident to the nature of the employment when it results from an accident arising out of and in the course of the employment. MacRae v. Unemployment Comm., 217 N. C. 769, 9 S. E. (2d) 595 (1940).

The employer is responsible for any disease resulting naturally and unavoidably from an accident. Williams v. Thompson, 200 N. C. 463, 157 S. E. 430 (1931) (where plaintiff injured his eye and later unavoidably contracted gonorrhea ophthalmia in the injured organ). Clark v. Carolina Cotton & Woolen Mills, 204 N. C. 529, 168 S. E. 816 (1933) (evidence was sufficient to support the finding that plaintiff's fall resulted in myelitis). See 10 N. C. Law Rev. 407; MacRae v. Unemployment Compensation Comm., 217 N. C. 769, 9 S. E. (2d) 595 (1940).

Hemorrhagic Pachymeningitis Resulting from Blow on Head.—Plaintiff while about his employer's business, was struck on the back of the head by hides he was jerking from hooks about ten feet from the floor, and had to stop work for a very short time. As a result of the blow plaintiff contracted hemorrhagic pachymeningitis which caused his total disability. It was held to be an injury by accident, arising out of and in the course of his employment within this section. Eller v. Lawrence Leather Co., 222 N. C. 23, 21 S. E. (2d) 809 (1942).

Accident and Exposure as Contributing to Death from Acute Nephritis.—The evidence before the Industrial Commission tended to show that the deceased employee, for whose death compensation was sought, had been in exceptionally good health up to the time of the accident, that he fell from a platform, breaking his leg, and lay where he fell for about a half hour, exposed to the cool weather, that he was then discovered and carried into the office, where he had to wait some two hours for medical attention. There was expert testimony to the effect that the exposure was a contributing factor causing acute nephritis resulting in death, and that the accident and exposure accelerated the employee's death. It was held that the evidence was sufficient to support the finding of the Industrial Commission that the disease resulted naturally and unavoidably from the accident. Doggett v. South Atlantic Warehouse Co., 212 N. C. 599, 194 S. E. 111 (1937).

Gonorrhea Ophthalmia Resulting from Accident.—The definition of injury given in § 97-2 (6) also provides that it "shall not include a disease in any form, except where it results naturally and unavoidably from the accident." In applying this in Williams v. Thompson, 200 N. C. 463, 157 S. E. 430 (1931), the Commission evinced a willingness to construe definitions liberally. Plaintiff, a truck driver, sustained an injury to his eye while cleaning a carburetor. The injury irritated his eye and resulted in ulcer. Seven days after the accident the plaintiff was treated by a doctor, who gave the plaintiff some lotion to use. He visited the doctor three times. Then gonorrhea ophthalmia showed up, which was on the thirteenth day after the accident. As a result of the infection the plaintiff lost one eye and suffered a partial loss of use in the other eye. Compensation was allowed. The Commission said that the disease was "natural" because one infection opened the way for other infections. There was more trouble with the word "unavoidably." The Commission quotes from the opinions rendered in other jurisdictions to illustrate that "unavoidably" does not mean "absolutely inescapable," but that "a thing is generally considered unavoidable when common prudence and foresight cannot prevent it." And since no evidence was presented that the plaintiff had been careless, and since the plaintiff had no reason to suspect a possible infection of this nature, the disease was found to have resulted unavoidably from the accident. This liberal construction tends to effectuate the general purpose of the Workmen's Compensation Act. 8 N. C. Law Rev. 421.

As to falls due to dizziness, vertigo, epilepsy and like causes as compensable accidents, see 26 N. C. Law Rev. 329. See also ante, this note, analysis line IV, C, 2, b, "Falls."

In heart cases the decisions require a showing that the exertion was in some way unusual or extraordinary. Lewter v. Abercrombie Enterprises, Inc., 240 N. C. 399, 82 S. E. (2d) 410 (1954).

Dilatation of the Heart Due to Unusual Exertion.—A policeman fifty-six years of age, who was in good health and without any physical defect or disease, arrested a young man, who, because of intoxication violently and viciously resisted, and after the officer subdued him and transported him to the jail, the officer and another had to carry the prisoner up three flights of stairs because the elevator was out of order. The officer collapsed with acute dilatation of the heart due to the unusual exertion. This injury to the heart muscle was chronic and progressive and the policeman suffered a fatal heart attack some ten months thereafter. It was held that the evidence warranted the conclusion that the injury to the heart resulted not from inherent weakness or disease but from an accident within the meaning of this section. Gabriel v. Newton, 227 N. C. 314, 42 S. E. (2d) 96 (1947). See Lewter v. Abercrombie Enterprises, Inc., 240 N. C. 399, 82 S. E. (2d) 410 (1954).

Evidence Insufficient to Show Coronary Occlusion Arose Out of and in Course of Employment. — Evidence that plaintiff suffered a coronary occlusion while rolling a heavy rope net in the course of his employment, with medical expert testimony that the exercise could not be the cause of the condition, although the attack might have been accelerated or precipitated by the exertion, was insufficient to sustain a finding that the coronary occlusion and resulting myocardial infarction arose out of and in the course of the employment. Bellamy v. Morance Stevedoring Co., 258 N. C. 327, 128 S. E. (2d) 395 (1962).

Contracting Contagious Disease. — Tuberculosis contracted from exposure to the cough of one actively infected who was seated in close proximity at work is not an occupational disease but may be found to have resulted naturally and unavoidably from an accident. MacRae v. Unemployment Compensation Comm., 217 N. C. 769, 9 S. E. (2d) 595 (1940). See 10 N. C. Law Rev. 407.

Employee Contracting Pneumonia. — Where an employee got wet in washing certain machines, although furnished with special clothes, and while removing ashes, was in the sunshine and open air, and the sudden change in temperature caused him to contract pneumonia, from which he died, it was held that the death was not the result of an accidental injury. Slade v. Willits Hosiery Mills, 209 N. C. 823, 184 S. E. 844 (1936).

E. Aggravation of Existing Infirmit y: Contributing to Injury.

Injury Aggravating Pre-existing Infirmit y or Disease Is Compensable. — When an employee afflicted with a pre-existing dis-ease or infirmity suffers a personal injury by accident arising out of and in the course of his employment, and such injury materially accelerates or aggravates the pre-existing disease or infirmity and thus proximately contributes to the death or disability of the employee, the injury is compensable even though it would not have caused death or disability to a normal person. Anderson v. Northwestern Motor Co., 233 N. C. 372, 64 S. E. (2d) 265 (1951).

Blow or Strain Aggravating Existing Heart Disease. — Findings to the effect that the employee suffered an injury arising out of and in the course of the employment, which injury aggravated a pre-existing heart condition and caused death, will support an award for compensation and burial expenses. Wyatt v. Sharp, 239 N. C. 655, 80 S. E. (2d) 762 (1954).

Evidence Insufficient to Show Death as Natural Result of Accident. — Deceased broke his leg from a fall on the job. He was then sixty-five and had arteriosclerosis, arthritis, and heart trouble. While laid up he suffered with a bladder ailment which two attending physicians thought was caused or aggravated by his inactivity in bed. Over seven months later he died from the heart ailment and arthritis which a different attending physician thought possibly or even probably would have been aggravated by a bladder condition such as reported by the physicians who first looked after him but of which the witness had no knowledge. He thought the accident to have been only a remote cause of his death, however. It was held that the evidence was insufficient to support the Commission's finding that deceased died while totally disabled from the accident and as a natural result of it. Gilmore v. Hoke County Board of Education, 222 N. C. 358, 23 S. E. (2d) 292 (1942).

V. DISABILITY.

Cross Reference. — As to distinction between "disability" as regards ordinary accidents and the same term as regards occupational diseases, see note to § 97-54.

How Disability Measured. — Disability, under the Workmen's Compensation Act, is measured by the capacity or incapacity of the employee to earn the wages he was receiving at the time of the injury, by the same or any other employment. And the fact that the same wages are paid by the employer because of long service, does not alter the rule. Branham v. Denny Roll, etc., Co., 223 N. C. 233, 25 S. E. (2d) 865 (1943); Dail v. Kellex Corp., 233 N. C. 446, 64 S. E. (2d) 438 (1951); Hill v. Du-
The disability of an employee is to be measured by his capacity or incapacity to earn the wages he was receiving at the time of the injury. Loss of earning capacity is the criterion. If there is no loss of earning capacity, there is no disability within the meaning of the act. Dail v. Kellex Corp., 233 N. C. 446, 64 S. E. (2d) 438 (1951).

Loss of earning capacity is the criterion. Compensation must be based upon loss of wage-earning power rather than the amount actually received. It was intended by this section to provide compensation only for loss of earning capacity. Hence the finding that claimant had earned $7 per week for the period from November 25, 1949, to July 18, 1950, was not the proper basis for determining the award. Hill v. DuBose, 234 N. C. 446, 67 S. E. (2d) 371 (1951).

An award of compensation based upon a finding as to the amount the claimant had earned since the date on which total permanent disability had ceased, rather than upon his capacity or ability to earn, is erroneous. Hill v. DuBose, 237 N. C. 501, 75 S. E. (2d) 401 (1953).

“Disability” Signifies Impairment of Wage-Earning Capacity. — To obtain an award of compensation for an injury under the Workmen's Compensation Act, an employee must establish that his injury caused him disability, unless it is included in the schedule of injuries made compensable by § 97-31 without regard to loss of wage-earning power. As used here, the term “disability” signifies an impairment of wage-earning capacity rather than a physical impairment. Anderson v. Northwestern Motor Co., 233 N. C. 372, 64 S. E. (2d) 265 (1951).

There is no “disability” if the employee is receiving the same wages in the same or any other employment. That “in the same” employment he is not required to perform all the physical work theretofore required of him can make no difference. Even so, if this be not “the same employment” then it clearly comes within the term “other employment.” To remove the employment from one classification necessarily shifts it to the other. Furthermore, there is no language used in this section or in any other part of the statute which even suggests that “other employment” must be with a different employer. Branham v. Denny Roll & Panel Co., 223 N. C. 233, 25 S. E. (2d) 865 (1943).

Definition Not Applicable to Cases of Asbestosis or Silicosis.—The definition of “disability” contained in this section is not applicable to cases of disablement from asbestosis or silicosis. “Disability” resulting from asbestosis or silicosis means the event of becoming actually incapacitated from performing normal labor in the last occupation in which remuneratively employed. Thus, one actually incapacitated by asbestosis or silicosis is entitled to compensation under § 97-29 even though he may be earning the same or greater wages in a different employment. Honeycutt v. Carolina Asbestos Co., 235 N. C. 471, 70 S. E. (2d) 426 (1952). See §§ 97-54, 97-55.

VI. Compensation.

Cross Reference.—For other cases involving “compensation,” see note to § 97-25. “Compensation,” means money relief afforded according to a scale established and for the persons designated in this chapter. Ivey v. North Carolina Prison Department, 252 N. C. 615, 114 S. E. (2d) 812 (1960).

Involves More Than Burial Expenses.—The definition of compensation in this section includes burial expenses, but it takes the whole to constitute compensation and not one of its parts. Compensation for wrongful death involves more than the burial of the body. Ivey v. North Carolina Prison Department, 252 N. C. 615, 114 S. E. (2d) 812 (1960).

Types of Compensation. — The Workmen's Compensation Act provides primarily for four several types of compensation to be paid to employees covered by the act. They are:

1. Compensation for disability, dependent as to amount upon whether the injury produces a permanent total, a permanent partial, a total temporary or a partial temporary incapacity. §§ 97-29, 97-30.

2. Compensation in stipulated amounts for loss of some part of the body such as a finger or toe, a leg or arm. § 97-31.

Ch. 97. Workmen's Compensation Act

VII. CHILD, GRANDCHILD, ETC.

Posthumous Illegitimate Child. — Deceased supported a housekeeper who bore him a posthumous illegitimate child. The Supreme Court reversed the Commission's opinion that the child was not a dependent. It stated that the "dependency which the statute recognizes as a basis of the right of the child to compensation grows out of the relationship, which in itself imposes upon the father the duty to support the child, and confers upon the child the right to support by its father. The status of the child, social or legal, is immaterial." Lippard v. Southeastern Ex. Co., 207 N. C. 507, 177 S. E. 801 (1935).

VIII. WIDOW; WIDOWER.

A second or subsequent marriage is presumed legal until the contrary is proven and the burden of the issue is upon a plaintiff who attempts to establish a property right which is dependent upon the invalidity of such a marriage. The plaintiff cannot recover because of the failure of defendant to carry the burden. Kearney v. Thomas, 225 N. C. 156, 33 S. E. (2d) 871 (1945).

Divorce and Remarriage in Another State.—On the conflict of laws question where there has been a divorce and remarriage in another state, and a subsequent controversy develops as to which is the "widow," see Rice v. Rice, 336 U. S. 674, 69 S. Ct. 751, 93 L. Ed. 957 (1949); 28 N. C. Law Rev. 265.

Widower Conclusively Presumed to Be Wholly Dependent.—At the time of her death, deceased lived with her husband but did not contribute to his support. Section 97-39 places a widower among those conclusively presumed to be wholly dependent. This is repugnant to subdivision (15) of this section. It was held that § 97-39 operates to repeal so much of subdivision (15) of this section as is inconsistent with it. Martin v. Glenwood Park Sanatorium, 200 N. C. 221, 156 S. E. 849 (1930).

IX. HERNIA.

Hernia Not Discovered Until Some Days after Commencement of Pain.—It is sufficient for the Commission to find the facts required under this section and award compensation if the pain immediately followed the accident although the hernia was not discovered until diagnosis by a physician some days thereafter. Ussery v. Erlanger Cotton Mills, 201 N. C. 688, 161 S. E. 307 (1931).

Sudden Appearance of Lesion and Enlargement of Inguinal Ring. — Plaintiff was a plumbing foreman. He had been instructed to lay off his workmen and to finish a job with one other employee. In helping the other employee lift a heavy pipe, he felt a pain in his abdomen. He consulted a physician who found an enlargement of the left inguinal ring and a bulge but no protrusion. The doctor strapped plaintiff and gave him a truss. Eighteen days later an actual hernia was found. An award granting compensation for hernia was affirmed, the court saying that the accident consisted of the plaintiff's having to do unusual work and that the lesion and enlargement of the inguinal ring, from which the fully developed hernia naturally comes, did result immediately. Moore v. Engineering & Sales Co., 214 N. C. 424, 199 S. E. 605 (1938).

Hernia Must Follow Accident.—In every case it must definitely appear that the hernia resulted immediately from an accident. Ussery v. Erlanger Cotton Mills, 201 N. C. 688, 161 S. E. 307 (1931).

Unusual Circumstances or Exertion Required.—As illustrative of the position requiring unusual circumstances or exertion, see Moore v. Engineering & Sales Co., 214 N. C. 424, 199 S. E. 605 (1938).

Where the evidence showed that a hernia occurred while the employee was performing his work in the customary and usual manner, and there was no evidence of any unusual condition or any slipping or falling by the employee, there was no evidence to justify a finding that the hernia resulted from an accident, and an award of compensation must be reversed. Hensley v. Farmers Federation Cooperative, 246 N. C. 274, 98 S. E. (2d) 289 (1957); Holt v. Cannon Mills Co., 249 N. C. 215, 105 S. E. (2d) 614 (1958).

If an employee, while performing his regular duties in the "usual and customary manner," receives an injury resulting in a hernia, such injury is not compensable. Faires v. McDevitt & Street Co., 251 N. C. 194, 110 S. E. (2d) 808 (1959).

Evidence Justifying Finding of Compensable Hernia.—In Moore v. Engineering & Sales Co., 214 N. C. 424, 199 S. E. 605 (1938), it was held that claimant's injury resulted from an accident within the contemplation of the Workmen's Compensation Act and that the evidence justified the Industrial Commission in finding that hernia appeared "suddenly" within the meaning of this section.

Evidence held sufficient to sustain the finding of the Industrial Commission that the hernia was compensable under subdivision (18) of this section. Rice v. Thomas-
Claimant in delivering milk to a cafe had to lift a box of chipped ice from the storage box. On this occasion he felt a sharp abdominal pain as he lifted and "he got sick" but, after a short rest, worked till noon when he reported that he had strained his side and went home. Hernia appeared a few days later. The employer contended that the injury was not caused by accident but only by the doing of regular work in the regular way and that accident involves external force. It was held that the sudden and unexpected rupture was not a natural and probable consequence of the work but an accidental injury and compensable. Smith v. Cabarrus Creamery Co., 217 N. C. 168, 8 S. E. (2d) 231 (1940).

Evidence tending to show that the employee was a carpenter and customarily did the work of a carpenter, that in removing concrete forms carpenters usually "striped" the forms and laborers lifted and removed them, that on the occasion in question other carpenters and helpers had been withdrawn from the job, that the lifting of the forms was usually and customarily done by two men, and that while the employee was attempting to lift one of the forms by himself, requiring extreme exertion and strain in confined and difficult place of work, he felt a sharp pain which continued until he had received medical treatment for the hernia, is held sufficient to support a finding of the Industrial Commission that the employee suffered an injury by accident arising out of and in the course of his employment, resulting in the hernia. Faires v. McDevitt & Street Co., 251 N. C. 194, 110 S. E. (2d) 898 (1959).

§ 97-3. Presumption that all employers and employees have come under provisions of chapter.—From and after July 1, 1929, every employer and employee, except as herein stated, shall be presumed to have accepted the provisions of this article respectively to pay and accept compensation for personal injury or death by accident arising out of and in the course of the employment, and shall be bound thereby, unless he shall have given, prior to any accident resulting in injury or death, notice to the contrary in the manner herein provided.

Cross Reference.—See § 97-13 and note.

Presumption of Acceptance of Act.—In Pilley v. Greenville Cotton Mills, 201 N. C. 426, 160 S. E. 479 (1931), it is said: "Under the Workmen's Compensation Act every employer and employee, except as therein stated, is presumed to have accepted the provisions of the act and to pay and accept compensation for personal injury or death as therein set forth. The plaintiff, not being in the excepted class, is bound by the presumption." Miller v. Roberts, 212 N. C. 126, 131, 193 S. E. 286 (1937). See Lee v. American Enka Corp., 219 N. C. 455, 193 S. E. 809 (1937).

An allegation that the employee had not accepted the provisions of the act is material for the reason that this section provides in substance that every employer and employee coming within the purview of the act is presumed to have accepted the provisions thereof. Hanks v. Southern Public Utilities Co., 204 N. C. 155, 167 S. E. 560 (1933).

But Allegation That Employers Were Not Operating under Act Is Not Demurrable.—The plaintiff instituted a common-law action, alleging that the defendants "were not operating under the Workmen's Compensation Act." It was held that the demurrer to plaintiff's complaint should have been overruled because the above allegation lays the foundation for proof to rebut the presumption of acceptance of the act. Calahan v. Roberts, 208 N. C. 768, 182 S. E. 657 (1935).

And is not necessary to allege facts showing defendant's nonacceptance of the act. Cooke v. Gillis, 218 N. C. 726, 12 S. E. (2d) 250 (1940).

When Presumption Not Operative.—Where the evidence does not show that the employer has regularly in service the requisite number of employees in the same business within this State, the presumption under this section is not operative. Thompson's Dependents v. Johnson Funeral Home, 205 N. C. 801, 172 S. E. 500 (1934).

Rebuttal of Presumption.—Notwithstanding the presumption contained in this section, there are provisions in the act whereby employers, as well as employees, may except themselves from the operation thereof, and the presumption of acceptance may be rebutted by proof of nonacceptance. Calahan v. Roberts, 208 N. C. 768, 182 S. E. 657 (1935).

Action against Third Party.—In the absence of evidence that the employee or the employer had given notice of nonacceptance of the Workmen's Compensation Act, it must be presumed that both employee and employer are bound by the provisions of the act. However, where employee was

Notice of nonacceptance and waiver of exemption. — Either an employer or an employee, who has exempted himself by proper notice from the operation of this article, may at any time waive such exemption, and thereby accept the provisions of this article by giving notice as herein provided.

The notice of nonacceptance of the provisions of this article shall be given thirty days prior to any accident resulting in injury or death: Provided, that if any such accident occurred less than thirty days after the date of employment, notice of such exemption or acceptance given at the time of employment shall be sufficient notice thereof. An employee may waive notice of nonacceptance by giving five days’ notice in the manner provided for nonacceptance. The notice shall be in writing or print, in substantially the form prescribed by the Industrial Commission, and shall be given by the employer by posting the same in a conspicuous place in the shop, plant, office, room, or place where the employee is employed, or by serving it personally upon him; and shall be given by the employee by sending the same in registered letter, addressed to the employer at his last known residence or place of business, or by giving it personally to the employer or any of his agents upon whom a summons in civil action may be served under the laws of the State. A copy of the notice in prescribed form shall also be filed with the Industrial Commission.

In any suit by an employer or an employee who has exempted himself by proper notice from the application of this article, a copy of such notice duly certified by the Industrial Commission shall be admissible in evidence as proof of nonacceptance of the provisions of the act; and it was error for the court to sustain defendants’ demurrer on the ground that the Industrial Commission had exclusive jurisdiction, it being a question of law for the court, when the plaintiff introduced his evidence, to determine the further allegation that defendants were not operating under the act involved both law and fact and was sufficient to admit proof of nonacceptance of the provisions of the act; and it was error for the court to sustain defendants’ demurrer on the ground that the Industrial Commission had exclusive jurisdiction, it being a question of law for the court, when the plaintiff introduced his evidence, to determine the further allegation that defendants were not operating under the act involved both law and fact and was sufficient to admit proof of nonacceptance of the provisions of the act; and it was error for the court to sustain defendants’ demurrer on the ground that the Industrial Commission had exclusive jurisdiction, it being a question of law for the court, when the plaintiff introduced his evidence, to determine the further allegation that defendants were not operating under the act involved both law and fact and was sufficient to admit proof of nonacceptance of the provisions of the act; and it was error for the court to sustain defendants’ demurrer on the ground that the Industrial Commission had exclusive jurisdiction, it being a question of law for the court, when the plaintiff introduced his evidence, to determine

Editor’s Note. — The 1945 amendment struck out “and notice of waiver of exemption heretofore referred to” formerly appearing after “article” near the beginning of the second paragraph. It also inserted the second sentence of that paragraph relating to waiver of notice of nonacceptance.

Where the parties are presumed to have accepted the provisions of the Workmen’s Compensation Act, under the facts alleged, recognition of the relationship of employer and employee, based on knowledge of the work performed, and acceptance of benefits of that status, may work an estoppel after loss. Pearson v. Pearson, 222 N. C. 69, 21 S. E. (2d) 879 (1942).

§ 97-5. Presumption as to contract of service. — Every contract of service between any employer and employee covered by this article, written or implied, now in operation or made or implied prior to July 1, 1929, shall, after that date, be presumed to continue, subject to the provisions of this article; and every such contract made subsequent to that date shall be presumed to have been made subject to the provisions of this article, unless either party shall give notice, as provided in § 97-4, to the other party to such contract that the provisions of this article other than §§ 97-14, 97-15, 97-16, and 97-92 are not intended to apply.

A like presumption shall exist equally in the case of all minors, unless notice of the same character be given by or to the parent or guardian of the minor. (1929, c. 120, s. 6.) Applied in Miller v. Roberts, 212 N. C. 126, 193 S. E. 286 (1937).

§ 97-6. No special contract can relieve an employer of obligations. — No contract or agreement, written or implied, no rule, regulation, or other device shall in any manner operate to relieve an employer in whole or in part, of any obligation created by this article, except as herein otherwise expressly provided. (1929 c. 120, s. 7.)

Contract between Two Employers That One Shall Carry Compensation Insurance. — Where two employers make a contract that one of them should carry compensation insurance on employees, the other is not relieved of liability under the act. Roth v. McCord, 232 N. C. 678, 62 S. E. (2d) 64 (1950).

Liability to Employee Suffering from Pre-existing Infirmit. — An employee who becomes disabled as the result of an accident while at work is not to be deprived of benefits because of any pre-existing infirmity. And this liability of the employer cannot be waived or released or diminished by any agreement of the employee. National Labor Relations Board v. Cranston Print Works Co., 258 F. (2d) 206 (1958).

Leases. — An employer may not, by leasing the truck of one not authorized to transport goods in interstate commerce and causing its operation under its own franchise and license plates for interstate transportation, avoid legal responsibility therefor. Watkins v. Murrow, 253 N. C. 652, 118 S. E. (2d) 5 (1961).

Employer May Make Provisions for Injured Employee beyond Workmen’s Compensation Benefits. — There is nothing in the Workmen’s Compensation Act that prohibits an employer from making special provisions for an injured employee beyond those benefits which the employee is entitled to receive under the provisions of the act. Ashe v. Barnes, 255 N. C. 310, 121 S. E. (2d) 549 (1961).

But He May Not Substitute Accident Insurance Policy for Such Benefits. — There is no provision in the law which § 97-7. State or subdivision and employees thereof. — Neither the State nor any municipal corporation within the State, nor any political subdivision thereof, nor any employee of the State or of any such corporation or subdivision, shall have the right to reject the provisions of this article relative to payment and acceptance of compensation, and the provisions of §§ 97-4, 97-5, 97-14, 97-15, 97-16, and 97-100 (j) shall not apply to them: Provided, that all such corporations or subdivisions are hereby authorized to self-insure or purchase insurance to secure its liability under this article and to include thereunder the liability of such subordinate governmental agencies as the county board of health, the school board, and other political and quasi-political subdivisions supported in whole or in part by the municipal corporation or political subdivision of the State, and to appropriate an amount sufficient for this purpose and levy a special tax if a special tax is necessary to pay the costs of same. (1929, c. 120, s. 8; 1931, c. 274, s. 1; 1945, c. 766; 1957, c. 1396, s. 1; 1961, c. 1200.)

Local Modification.—City of Raleigh: 1955, c. 1184.

Editor's Note.—The 1931 amendment added three provisos to this section, which were rewritten by the 1945 amendment to appear as the present proviso.

The 1957 amendment substituted in the proviso "such corporations or subdivisions" for "counties." It also substituted therein "municipal corporation or political subdivision of the State" for "county."

The 1961 amendment, effective July 1, 1961, inserted the reference to § 97-100 (j).

The death of highway patrolmen in a plane crash while attempting to locate and arrest a person accused of a crime of violence was held compensable under the Workmen's Compensation Act, since the patrolmen had authority to make the arrest and did not exceed their authority in using an airplane in their attempted discharge of their duties. Galloway v. Department of Motor Vehicles, 231 N. C. 447, 57 S. E. (2d) 799 (1950).

§ 97-9. Employer to secure payment of compensation. — Every employer who accepts the compensation provisions of this article shall secure the payment of compensation to his employees in the manner hereinafter provided; and while such security remains in force, he or those conducting his business shall only be liable to any employee who elects to come under this article for personal...

injury or death by accident to the extent and in the manner herein specified. (1929, c. 120, s. 10.)

Act Provides Sole Remedy against Employer and Those Conducting His Business.—Under the Workmen's Compensation Act, where an employee's injury or death is compensable, the sole remedy against the employer and "those conducting his business" is that provided by its terms. Weaver v. Bennett, 259 N. C. 16, 129 S. E. (2d) 610 (1963).

Section in Pari Materia with Former § 97-10; Liberal Construction.—This section has been held to be in pari materia with the provisions of § 97-10 (see now §§ 97-10.1 through 97-10.3), and the immunity given in this section to "those conducting the business" of the employer should be given a liberal construction and its definitions and intendments carried through the provisions of § 97-10. Essick v. Lexington, 232 N. C. 200, 60 S. E. (2d) 106 (1950).

This section manifests the legislative intent that the liability of the employer is to be limited to the compensation payable by him on account of the injury or death of his employee. Hunsucker v. High Point Bending & Chair Co., 237 N. C. 559, 75 S. E. (2d) 768 (1953). See note to § 97-10.

Superiors of an injured employee are within the immunity of this section when their orders, upon which alleged liability is predicated, are given in the conduct of the employer's business, and such supervisory employees are improperly made additional parties defendant upon the motion of the original defendant in an action by the personal representative of a deceased employee against the third-person tort-feasor, Essick v. Lexington, 232 N. C. 200, 60 S. E. (2d) 106 (1950).

As Is Fellow Employee Driving Automobile in Employer's Business.—Two employees, traveling in an automobile in the discharge of the employer's business, had a collision with another vehicle. In an action by the employee passenger against the owner and driver of such other vehicle, the employee driver is improperly joined as an additional defendant upon motion of the original defendant for the purpose of contribution as a joint tort-feasor, since the employee driver is immune from liability under the provisions of this section. Bass v. Ingold, 232 N. C. 295, 60 S. E. (2d) 114 (1950).

Employee Cannot Maintain Common-Law Action against Co-employee. — An employee, subject to the provisions of the Workmen's Compensation Act, whose injury arose out of and in the course of his employment, cannot maintain an action at common law against his co-employee whose negligence caused the injury. Warner v. Leder, 234 N. C. 727, 69 S. E. (2d) 6 (1951), commented on in 30 N. C. Law Rev. 474.

Two early cases, without mentioning this section, allowed recovery by an employee against a fellow employee. Tscheiller v. National Weaving Co., 214 N. C. 449, 199 S. E. 623 (1938) (negligence action against fellow employee who was not a superior); McCune v. Rhodes-Rhyne Mfg. Co., 217 N. C. 351, 8 S. E. (2d) 219 (1940) (action for "willful and wanton assault" by a foreman, who was a superior employee of plaintiff). These cases have been modified by subsequent cases on this point. The Tscheiller case is no longer a precedent on this point, and the McCune case has been limited to suits for willful injury. Essick v. Lexington, 232 N. C. 200, 60 S. E. (2d) 106 (1950); Warner v. Leder, 234 N. C. 727, 69 S. E. (2d) 6 (1951).

This exemption from suit applies if the suit is against the fellow employee by the injured co-employee or if the negligent third party seeks to join the negligent fellow employee as a joint tort-feasor, liable for contribution. See 30 N. C. Law Rev. 474.

An officer or agent of a corporation who is acting within the scope of his authority for and on behalf of the corporation, and whose acts are such as to render the corporation liable therefor, is among those conducting the business of the corporation, within the purview of this section, and entitled to the immunity it gives. Warner v. Leder, 234 N. C. 727, 69 S. E. (2d) 6 (1951), commented on in 30 N. C. Law Rev. 474.

§ 97-10.1. Other rights and remedies against employer excluded.

If the employee and the employer are subject to and have accepted and complied with the provisions of this article, then the rights and remedies herein granted to the employee, his dependents, next of kin, or personal representative shall exclude all other rights and remedies of the employee, his dependents, next of kin, or representative as against the employer at common law or otherwise on account of such injury or death. (1929, c. 120, s. 11; 1933, c. 449, s. 1; 1943, c. 622; 1959, c. 1324.)

Editor's Note.—The cases cited in this note were decided under § 97-10, which was repealed by the act that added §§ 97-10.1 through 97-10.3.

Remedy against Employer Is Exclusive.

Where the allegations and evidence in an action for damages at common law show that the injury in suit was caused by an accident arising out of and in the course of plaintiff's employment, defendant's motion of nonsuit will be granted, as plaintiff's remedy under this act is exclusive of all other remedies. McNeely v. Carolina Asbestos Co., 206 N. C. 568, 174 S. E. 509 (1934). See Miller v. Roberts, 212 N. C. 126, 193 S. E. 286 (1937); Lee v. American Enka Corp., 212 N. C. 455, 193 S. E. 809 (1937); Tscheiller v. National Weaving Co., 214 N. C. 449, 199 S. E. 623 (1938); Champion v. Vance County Board of Health, 221 N. C. 96, 19 S. E. (2d) 239 (1942).

Where both the plaintiff and the defendant are presumed to have accepted the provisions of the Workmen's Compensation Act they are bound thereby, and the rights and remedies therein granted are exclusive, and the contention that since the act does not provide for the award of punitive damages, plaintiff has not waived his right to trial by jury for the ascertainment thereof, is untenable. McCune v. Rhodes-Rhyne Mfg. Co., 217 N. C. 351, 8 S. E. (2d) 219 (1940).

Where, in a suit by a student nurse to recover damages for injuries sustained while being transported by the hospital which employed her, the plaintiff judicially admitted that her employment was within the coverage of the Workmen's Compensation Act except as to number of employees regularly employed and the uncomplicated evidence showed that more than five employees were regularly employed, a nonsuit was properly granted. Powers v. Robeson County Memorial Hospital, Inc., 242 N. C. 290, 87 S. E. (2d) 510 (1955).

Where Employee's Claim for Compensation Is Denied.—Plaintiff and his employer were bound by the provisions of the Workmen's Compensation Act. Plaintiff's injury occurred while he was allowed by his employer to use certain machinery for his own personal ends. Compensation was denied since the accident did not arise out of and in the course of the employment. Thereafter plaintiff sued, alleging negligence on the part of the employer. But it was held that, conceding that the evidence established negligence of defendant employer, the act barred all other rights and remedies of employee except those provided in the act. Francis v. Carolina Wood Turning Co., 208 N. C. 517, 181 S. E. 628 (1935). See analysis and criticism of this case in 14 N. C. Law Rev. 199. In accord see Tscheiller v. National Weaving Co., 214 N. C. 449, 199 S. E. 623 (1938).

In an action brought at common law, the complaint alleged that the Commission had held that the plaintiff's injury did not arise out of and in the course of his employment. The defendant demurred. It was held that the rights conferred under the act excluded the employee from bringing an action against his employer at common law. Pilley v. Greenville Cotton Mills, 201 N. C. 426, 160 S. E. 479 (1931).

In Conrad v. Cook-Lewis Foundry Co., 198 N. C. 723, 153 S. E. 266 (1930), the plaintiff had been denied an award by the Industrial Commission on the ground that he was not injured "by accident arising out of and in the course of his employment." He did not appeal but brought a new action against his employer in the superior court alleging that his injuries were due to the employer's negligence. No recovery. Rights of an employee against his employer under this section are exclusive and no distinction is recognized by the act between injuries arising from accident and those due to the employer's negligence.

Surrender of Right of Action Is Not Absolute.—Expressions in this section and in § 97-10.2 regarding the surrender of the right to maintain common-law or statutory actions against the employer are not absolute—not words of universal import, making no contact with time, place or circumstance. They must be construed within the framework of the act, and as qualified by its subject and purposes. Barber v. Minges, 223 N. C. 213, 25 S. E. (2d) 837 (1943).

ment.—An employee was killed by an explosion on a motor boat on a Sunday fishing trip organized and conducted by the employer's agent. The employee was not required to go nor paid for the time spent but his expenses were paid. His widow and administratrix brought an action for wrongful death against the employer alleging negligence of the agent. Defendant moved to dismiss on the ground that the Industrial Commission had sole jurisdiction of an employee's claims against his employer under the exclusive remedy provision of this section. It was held, two justices dissenting, that the jurisdiction of the Commission does not extend to claims arising against an employer when "disconnected with the employment." Barber v. Minges, 223 N. C. 213, 25 S. E. (2d) 837 (1943).

Section Not Applicable to Action Brought by Independent Contractor.—When it appears in a common-law action to recover for injuries that the Commission has held that the plaintiff was an independent contractor and not an employee, an action will lie against the defendant for negligence, as this section has no application to actions instituted by independent contractors. Odum v. National Oil Co., 213 N. C. 478, 196 S. E. 823 (1938). See also Barnhardt v. Concord, 213 N. C. 364, 196 S. E. 310 (1938).

Where Employee Contracted Contagious Disease as Result of Improper Working Conditions.—Plaintiff contracted tuberculosis in working with chemicals in defendant's plant. In a common-law action it was alleged that the disease was caused by inherently dangerous working conditions. Both plaintiff and defendant had accepted the act. Judgment dismissing the action was held proper. Lee v. American Enka Corp., 212 N. C. 455, 193 S. E. 809 (1937). In accord, see Jenkins v. American Enka Corp., 95 F. (2d) 755 (4 Cir. 1938), where plaintiff instituted an action at common law alleging that he had contracted a disease as a result of improper working conditions negligently permitted by defendant. See also Murphy v. American Enka Corp., 213 N. C. 218, 195 S. E. 536 (1938), treated in note to § 97-52.

Action for Wrongful Death against Employer.—In Bright v. N. B., etc., Motor Lines, 212 N. C. 384, 193 S. E. 391 (1937), it was held that an award by the Industrial Commission to the widow of an employee excludes all other rights and remedies, and the administrator of the employee may not maintain an action against the employer for wrongful death, and the fact that the injury resulted from negligence in the violation by the employer of a criminal statute does not alter this result.

Right under Death by Wrongful Act Statute of Another State Not Affected.—The acceptance of compensation under this act cannot affect the right to pursue a remedy against a third person under the wrongful death statute of another state, unless there is something in the law of the latter state which so provides. Betts v. Southern Ry. Co., 71 F. (2d) 787 (1934).

Assignment of Such Claim Is Governed by Law of This State.—The assignment of the right of recovery against a third person under the wrongful death statute of one state as the result of acceptance by the beneficiary of compensation from the employer under the Workmen's Compensation Act of this State, in the absence of any provision to the contrary in the law of the state of the injury, is governed by the law of this State. Betts v. Southern Ry. Co., 71 F. (2d) 787 (1934).

§ 97-10.2. Rights under article not affected by liability of third party; rights and remedies against third parties.—(a) The right to compensation and other benefits under this article for disability, disfigurement, or death shall not be affected by the fact that the injury or death was caused under circumstances creating a liability in some person other than the employer to pay damages therefor, such person hereinafter being referred to as the "third party." The respective rights and interests of the employee-beneficiary under this article, the employer, and the employer's insurance carrier, if any, in respect of the common-law cause of action against such third party and the damages recovered shall be as set forth in this section.

(b) The employee, or his personal representative if he be dead, shall have the exclusive right to proceed to enforce the liability of the third party by appropriate proceedings if such proceedings are instituted not later than twelve months after the date of injury or death, whichever is later. During said twelve-month period, and at any time thereafter if summons is issued against the third party during said twelve-month period, the employee or his personal representative shall have the right to settle with the third party and to give a valid and § 97-10.2 Complete release of all claims to the third party by reason of such injury or death, subject to the provisions of (h) below.

(c) If settlement is not made and summons is not issued within said twelve-month period, and if the employer shall have filed with the Industrial Commission a written admission of liability for the benefits provided by this chapter, then all rights of the employee, or his personal representative if he be dead, against the third party shall pass by operation of law to the employer upon the expiration of said twelve-month period. All such rights shall then remain in the employer until sixty (60) days before the expiration of the period fixed by the statute of limitations applicable to such rights and if the employer shall not have settled with or instituted proceedings against the third party within such time, then all such rights shall revert to the employee or his personal representative sixty (60) days before the expiration of the applicable statute of limitations.

(d) The person in whom the right to bring such proceeding or make settlement is vested shall, during the continuation thereof, also have the exclusive right to make settlement with the third party and the release of the person having the right shall fully acquit and discharge the third party except as provided by (h) below. A proceeding so instituted by the person having the right shall be brought in the name of the employee or his personal representative and the employer or the insurance carrier shall not be a necessary or proper party thereto. If the employee or his personal representative should refuse to co-operate with the employer by being the party plaintiff, then the action shall be brought in the name of the employer and the employee or his personal representative shall be made a party plaintiff or party defendant by order of court.

(e) The amount of compensation and other benefits paid or payable on account of such injury or death shall not be admissible in evidence in any proceeding against the third party. If the third party defending such proceeding, by answer duly served on the employer, sufficiently alleges that actionable negligence of the employer joined and concurred with the negligence of the third party in producing the injury or death, then an issue shall be submitted to the jury in such case as to whether actionable negligence of the employer joined and concurred with the negligence of the third party in producing the injury or death. The employer shall have the right to appear, to be represented, to introduce evidence, to cross-examine adverse witnesses, and to argue to the jury as to this issue as fully as though he were a party although not named or joined as a party to the proceeding. Such issue shall be the last of the issues submitted to the jury. If the verdict shall be that actionable negligence of the employer did join and concur with that of the third party in producing the injury or death, then the court shall reduce the damages awarded by the jury against the third party by the amount which the employer would otherwise be entitled to receive therefrom by way of subrogation hereunder and the entire amount recovered, after such reduction, shall belong to the employee or his personal representative free of any claim by the employer and the third party shall have no further right by way of contribution or otherwise against the employer, except any right which may exist by reason of an express contract of indemnity between the employer and the third party, which was entered into prior to the injury to the employee.

(f) If the employer has filed a written admission of liability for benefits under this chapter with, or if an award final in nature in favor of the employee has been entered by, the Industrial Commission, then any amount obtained by any person by settlement with, judgment against, or otherwise from the third party by reason of such injury or death shall be disbursed by order of the Industrial Commission for the following purposes and in the following order of priority:

a. First to the payment of actual court costs taxed by judgment.

b. Second to the payment of the fee of the attorney representing the person making settlement or obtaining judgment, and such fee shall not be subject to the provisions of § 90 of this chapter [§ 97-90] but shall not exceed one third of the amount obtained or recovered of the third party.

c. Third to the reimbursement of the employer for all benefits by way of compensation or medical treatment expense paid or to be paid by the employer under award of the Industrial Commission.

d. Fourth to the payment of any amount remaining to the employee or his personal representative.

(2) The attorney fee paid under (f) (1) shall be paid by the employee and the employer in direct proportion to the amount each shall receive under (f) (1) c and (f) (1) d hereof and shall be deducted from such payments when distribution is made.

(g) The insurance carrier affording coverage to the employer under this chapter shall be subrogated to all rights and liabilities of the employer hereunder but this shall not be construed as conferring any other or further rights upon such insurance carrier than those herein conferred upon the employer, anything in the policy of insurance to the contrary notwithstanding.

(h) In any proceeding against or settlement with the third party, every party to the claim for compensation shall have a lien to the extent of his interest under (f) hereof upon any payment made by the third party by reason of such injury or death, whether paid in settlement, in satisfaction of judgment, as consideration for covenant not to sue, or otherwise and such lien may be enforced against any person receiving such funds. Neither the employee or his personal representative nor the employer shall make any settlement with or accept any payment from the third party without the written consent of the other and no release to or agreement with the third party shall be valid or enforceable for any purpose unless both employer and employee or his personal representative join therein; provided, that this sentence shall not apply if the employer is made whole for all benefits paid or to be paid by him under this chapter less attorney's fees as provided by (f) (1) and (2) hereof and the release to or agreement with the third party is executed by the employee.

(i) Institution of proceedings against or settlement with the third party, or acceptance of benefits under this chapter, shall not in any way or manner affect any other remedy which any party to the claim for compensation may have except as otherwise specifically provided in this chapter, and the exercise of one remedy shall not in any way or manner be held to constitute an election of remedies so as to bar the other. (1929, c. 120, s. 11; 1933, c. 449, s. 1; 1943, c. 622; 1959, c. 1324; 1963, c. 450, s. 1.)

Most of the cases cited in this note were decided under § 97-10, which was repealed by the act that added §§ 97-10.1 through 97-10.3.

Purpose of Section.—Manifestly the statute was designed primarily to secure prompt and reasonable compensation for an employee, and at the same time to permit an employer or his insurance carrier, who has made a settlement with the employee, to recover the amount so paid from a third party causing the injury to such employee. The statute was not designed as a city of refuge for a negligent third party. Brown v. Southern R. Co., 204 N. C. 668, 169 S. E. 419 (1933).

Action against Those Conducting Business of Employer Not Authorized.—The provision of former § 97-10 giving the injured employee or his personal representative “a right to recover damages for such injury, loss of service, or death from any person other than the employer,” meant any other person or party who was a stranger to the employment but whose negligence contributed to the injury. Such provision did not authorize the injured employee to maintain an action at common law against those conducting the business of the employer whose negligence caused the injury. Jackson v. Bobbitt, 253 N. C. 670, 117 S. E. (2d) 806 (1961); Warner v.
Employee of Subcontractor May Maintain Action against Main Contractor.—An employee of a subcontractor is not precluded by the Workmen's Compensation Act from maintaining an action at common law against the main contractor for injuries resulting from alleged negligence on the part of the main contractor, since the action is not against plaintiff's employer but against a third person. Cathey v. Southeastern Const. Co., 218 N. C. 525, 11 S. E. (2d) 571 (1940); Tipton v. Barge, 243 F. (2d) 531 (1957).

Sayles v. Loftis, 217 N. C. 674, 9 S. E. (2d) 388 (1940), likewise had held a principal contractor liable at common law as a third person for negligent injuries to employees of a subcontractor. See § 97-19, which enlarges the compensation responsibility of a principal contractor to the employees of subcontractors. See also Foster v. Denny Motor Transfer Co., 100 F. (2d) 658 (7 Cir. 1938), raising conflict of law problem.

Action against Third Party Does Not Abate upon Making of Award.—Where an award is made under the act after an action at law has been begun by the employee's representative against the third party, such an action does not abate. Phifer v. Berry, 202 N. C. 388, 163 S. E. 119 (1932).

The employer is not a joint tort-feasor, and an acceptance of an award against said employer for compensation would not discharge a third person whose negligence had contributed to the injury or death of the employee. Betts v. Southern Ry. Co., 71 N. C. 209, 6 S. E. (2d) 106 (1950); Brown v. Southern Ry., 202 N. C. 256, 162 S. E. 613 (1938).

Third Person Cannot Hold Employer for Contribution or Indemnity. — Third party, who is sued for damages for negligently inflicting a compensable injury upon the employee, cannot hold the employer liable for contribution under the statute embodied in § 1-240 or for indemnity under the doctrine of primary and secondary liability even when the injury is the result of the joint or concurrent negligence of the employer and the third person. Lovette v. Lloyd, 236 N. C. 663, 73 S. E. (2d) 886 (1958); Johnson v. United States, 133 F. Supp. 613 (1955).

Since it relieves the employer of liability to his injured employee as a tort-feasor, the Workmen's Compensation Act abrogates both the statutory right of a negligent third party to claim contribution from a negligent employer in equal fault, and the common-law right of a passively negligent third party to demand indemnity from an actively negligent employer. And this construction of the Workmen's Compensation Act is not invalidated by the mere circumstances that such construction may occasion hardship or injustice to a passively negligent third party. Hunsucker v. High Point Bending & Chair Co., 237 N. C. 559, 75 S. E. (2d) 768 (1953).

Unless There Is Express Contract of Indemnity between Third Person and Employer.—If there is an express contract of indemnity between third party and employer providing against loss to third party arising from the negligence of the employer, the third party if sued for damages by the employee may bring in the employer for contribution or indemnity. Johnson v. United States, 133 F. Supp. 613 (1955).

Reduction of Tort Liability of Passively Negligent Third Person.—There is no substance in the proposition that the North Carolina Workmen's Compensation Act confers no right whatever upon the passively negligent third party. It reduces his liability in tort for the injury to the employee by the amount of the workmen's compensation received by the employee from the actively negligent employer or his insurance carrier. Hunsucker v. High Point Bending & Chair Co., 237 N. C. 559, 75 S. E. (2d) 768 (1933).

Effect of Compromise and Settlement by Widow in Her Capacity as Administratrix.—The widow of a deceased employee, in her capacity as administratrix, executed a compromise and settlement with the employer on a common-law claim for wrongful death under the mistaken belief that the Workmen's Compensation Act was not applicable. It was held that the compromise and settlement barred the widow in her capacity as a dependent from recovery under the Workmen's Compensation Act. McGill v. Bison Fast Freight, Inc., 245 N. C. 469, 96 S. E. (2d) 438 (1957).

But the compromise and settlement did not bar claim under the Workmen's Compensation Act of the deceased's child under 18 years of age without guardian, since the administratrix had no authority to act for the dependent child except in respect of claims or causes of action vested in the administratrix as such. However, the child's recovery under the act should be diminished to the extent of the benefits ultimately received by the child from the compromise and settlement. McGill v. Bison Fast Freight, Inc., 245 N. C. 469, 96 S. E. (2d) 438 (1957).

Rights and Liabilities of Third Person Not Affected.—The insurance carrier who has paid compensation to an injured employee for which the employer was liable under this chapter may maintain an action against a third person upon allegations that the negligence of such third person caused the injury, but the rights and liabilities of such third person are in nowise affected by the chapter. Hinson v. Davis, 220 N. C. 380, 17 S. E. (2d) 348 (1941).

Action Prosecuted in Behalf of Any Person Entitled to Share in Recovery.—A necessary implication of the statutory requirement respecting the disbursement of the recovery is that the action against the third party is prosecuted in behalf of any person entitled to claim a share in the recovery, regardless of whether he is a party to the action. Lovette v. Lloyd, 236 N. C. 663, 73 S. E. (2d) 886 (1953).

Necessity for New Action against Third Person.—Whether the employer or insurance carrier who has paid compensation may proceed in the action which has been instituted against a third person by an injured employee or his personal representative, or must institute a new and independent action, is a question of procedure, and under the law of this State it is proper to proceed in the action which has been instituted. Betts v. Southern Ry. Co., 71 F. (2d) 787 (1934).

Action by Insurance Carrier Instituted after Action by Employee.—Where it appears that an injured employee's action against the third-person tort-feasor was instituted prior to the institution of an action by the compensation insurance carrier against the tort-feasor, defendant's plea in abatement in the employee's action on the ground of the pendency of a prior action cannot be sustained. Thompson v. Virginia, etc., R. Co., 216 N. C. 554, 6 S. E. (2d) 38 (1939). For comment on this case, see 18 N. C. Law Rev. 375.

Recovery by Employee's Administrator Bars Action by Employer or Carrier.—Where the employee's administrator has recovered and collected a judgment at law against third persons for the employee's death, the employer and carrier cannot, in their own name, sue the defendants under the subrogation provisions of this section. Suits for wrongful death must be brought in the name of the personal representative, and the employee's administrator having collected, there remains no cause to which the employer or carrier can be subrogated. Whitehead & Anderson, Inc. v. Branch, 220 N. C. 507, 17 S. E. (2d) 637 (1941).

Action Not Governed by Code of Civil Procedure.—An action in behalf of an injured employee against a third-person tort-feasor is governed by this section and not by the Code of Civil Procedure.Lovette v. Lloyd, 236 N. C. 663, 73 S. E. (2d) 886 (1953).

Industrial Commission Has Exclusive Jurisdiction to Determine Right to Subrogation. — The Declaratory Judgment Act may not be used to determine whether or not the employer's insurance carrier is entitled to the right of subrogation against the funds received from the third party tort-feasor, under the provisions of this section, since the Industrial Commission has the exclusive original jurisdiction to determine the question. Cox v. Pitt County Transp. Co., Inc., 259 N. C. 38, 129 S. E. (2d) 559 (1963).

Employer Cannot Be Made Party Defendant.—The remedy under the Workmen's Compensation Act is exclusive and an employer is relieved of all further liability for injury to or death of an employee, and where the administrator of a deceased employee brings action against third persons for the employee's wrongful death, the motion of the defendants that the deceased's employer be made a party as a joint tort-feasor with them should be denied. Brown v. Southern R. Co., 202 N. C. 256, 162 S. E. 613 (1932).

Court May Not Join Unnecessary Additional Parties.—Where the plaintiff is the party authorized by this section to maintain the action against the tort-feasor, he is entitled to prosecute same to final judgment, and the court may not interfere with this privilege by the joinder of wholly unnecessary additional parties. Lovette v. Lloyd, 236 N. C. 663, 73 S. E. (2d) 886 (1953).

Defendant Not Entitled to Joinder of Employer and Insurance Carrier.—In an action instituted by the employee against the third-person tort-feasor, defendant was not entitled to the joinder of the employer and the insurance carrier. Lovette v. Lloyd, 236 N. C. 663, 73 S. E. (2d) 886 (1953).

Contributory Negligence of Injured Employee.—The contributory negligence of the injured employee cannot be made the basis of an independent plea in bar of the right of the employer to recover over against the original and primary wrong-doer. Poindexter v. Johnson Motor Lines, 235 N. C. 286, 69 S. E. (2d) 495 (1952).

Any alleged negligence of such employee who has received, or whose estate has received, compensation from the employer under the Workmen’s Compensation Act, must be pleaded, if at all, as a bar to the whole action without reference to any rights of the employer to share in the recovery. Poindexter v. Johnson Motor Lines, 235 N. C. 286, 69 S. E. (2d) 495 (1952).

Contributory negligence of the injured employee constitutes a complete defense to an action against a third-person tort-feasor, and may be pleaded and proved by such third person irrespective of whether the action is instituted by the employer, the insurance carrier, or the employee. Lovette v. Lloyd, 236 N. C. 663, 73 S. E. (2d) 886 (1953).

Proceeds of Settlement or Judgment to Be Disbursed According to Provisions of Act.—It is mandatory under the provisions of the Workmen’s Compensation Act that any recovery against a third party by reason of an injury to or death of an employee subject to the act, the proceeds received from a settlement with a judgment against the third party, shall be disbursed according to the provisions of the Workmen’s Compensation Act. Cox v. Pitt County Transp. Co., Inc., 259 N. C. 38, 129 S. E. (2d) 589 (1963).

Illegal Agreement between Employee’s Dependents and Employer for Distribution of Recovery.—In an action by the administrator of a deceased employee against the third-party tort-feasor, allegations in defendant’s answer of an illegal agreement between the dependents and the employer for the distribution of the fund, are properly stricken on motion, since the administrator is an official of the court under duty to make disbursement of any recovery in conformity with statute, and could not be bound by the terms of the agreement alleged. Penny v. Stone, 228 N. C. 295, 45 S. E. (2d) 362 (1947).

Allegations Failing to Show Contract by Employer and Carrier Not to Sue.—An action was instituted by the administrator of a deceased employee against a third-party tort-feasor. Compensation had been paid for the employee’s death under the Workmen’s Compensation Act. Defendant alleged in its answer that in the collision causing the death of plaintiff’s intestate, other persons were killed or injured, that the other actions growing out of the collision were compromised, and that in the settlement defendant made a substantial contribution upon the assurance of the attorneys for the employer and insurance carrier that they would recommend that this action not be instituted. It was held that the allegations failed to show a contract by the employer or the insurance carrier not to sue, or that the attorneys did not make the promised recommendation in good faith; and the allegations were properly stricken upon motion in the administrator’s action. Penny v. Stone, 228 N. C. 295, 45 S. E. (2d) 362 (1947).

Amount and Distribution of Recovery in Action by Insurance Carrier.—When an action is maintained by the insurance carrier against the third-person tort-feasor causing the injury, the tort-feasor is liable for the amount ascertained by the jury as sufficient to compensate the employee for the injuries sustained, which the statute prescribes shall be first applied to the actual court costs, then to the payment of attorneys’ fees, then to the reimbursement of the insurance carrier for money paid by it under the award, and any amount remaining to the injured employee, and an instruction on the issue of damages that defendant would be liable for such sum as would reimburse the insurance carrier and would fairly compensate the injured employee is error. Rogers v. Southeastern Construction Co., 214 N. C. 269, 199 S. E. 41 (1938).

Verdict to Be for Full Amount of Damages.—This section clearly contemplates that the action against the third party is to be tried on its merits as an action in tort, and that any verdict of the jury adverse to the third party is to declare the full amount of damages suffered by the employee on account of his injury, notwithstanding any award of payment of compensation to him under the provisions of the Workmen’s Compensation Act. Lovette v. Lloyd, 236 N. C. 663, 73 S. E. (2d) 886 (1953).

Evidence of Compensation Payments

Inadmissible in Action by Employee against Third Party. — Evidence of payments by an employer, as self-insurer under the Workmen’s Compensation Act, to an injured employee was inadmissible in an action by the employee against a third party. Redding v. Braddy, 258 N. C. 154, 128 S. E. (2d) 147 (1962).

In an action by the administrator of an employee against the third-party tort-feasor, evidence concerning amount of compensation paid or payable by the employer is prohibited. Penny v. Stone, 228 N. C. 205, 45 S. E. (2d) 362 (1947). See Lovette v. Lloyd, 236 N. C. 663, 73 S. E. (2d) 886 (1953).

Trial Court to Enter Judgment Safeguarding Rights of Persons Entitled to Share in Recovery.—In the event of a verdict for the plaintiff in the action against the third party, the trial court, sitting without a jury, is to determine the amount of compensation paid or payable to the injured employee under the Workmen’s Compensation Act on the basis either of a stipulation of the interested persons or of evidence submitted to it, and after so doing enter a judgment safeguarding the rights of any person entitled to share in the recovery, regardless of whether or not such person is a party to the action. Lovette v. Lloyd, 23 N. C. 663, 73 S. E. (2d) 886 (1953).

Reimbursement of Employer and Insurer from Recovery in Action by Employee’s Personal Representative.—Where the suit was instituted by the personal representative of the deceased, and the employer and its insurance carrier have taken no action except to file an affidavit of interest, this in itself would not have prevented them from being reimbursed from the recovery. Essick v. Lexington, 233 N. C. 600, 65 S. E. (2d) 220 (1951).

§ 97-10.3. Minors illegally employed.—In any case where an employer and employee are subject to the provisions of this chapter, any injury to a minor while employed contrary to the laws of this State shall be compensable under this chapter as if said minor were an adult, subject to the other provisions of this chapter. (1929, c. 120, s. 11; 1933, c. 449, s. 1; 1943, c. 622; 1959, c. 1324.)

Injury to Minor Employed Contrary to Law.—Where the evidence discloses that the infant plaintiff was one of five or more employees in a business owned by two of the defendants and conducted by the third defendant as general manager, and that he was injured in the performance of the duties of his employment, nonsuit is proper, since the evidence discloses that the cause is within the exclusive jurisdiction of the Industrial Commission, notwithstanding the infant plaintiff may have been hired contrary to law. McNair v. Ward, 240 N. C. 330, 82 S. E. (2d) 85 (1954), decided under former § 97-10.

§ 97-11. Employer not relieved of statutory duty.—Nothing in this article shall be construed to relieve any employer or employee from penalty for failure or neglect to perform any statutory duty. (1929, c. 120, s. 12.)

§ 97-12. Intoxication or willful neglect of employee; willful disobedience of statutory duty, safety regulation or rule.—No compensation shall be payable if the injury or death was occasioned by the intoxication of the employee or by the willful intention of the employee to injure or kill himself or another. When the injury or death is caused by the willful failure of the employer to comply with any statutory requirement or any lawful order of the Commission, compensation shall be increased ten per cent. When the injury or death is caused by the willful failure of the employee to use a safety appliance or perform a statutory duty or by the willful breach of any rule or regulation adopted by the employer and approved by the Commission and brought to the knowledge of the employee prior to the injury compensation shall be reduced ten per cent. The burden of proof shall be upon him who claims an exemption or forfeiture under this section. (1929, c. 120, s. 13.)

Cross Reference.—On willful injuries, see also note to § 97-2.

Act Eliminates Fault of Workmen as Basis for Denying Recovery.—Compensation acts were intended to eliminate the fault of the workman as a basis for denying recovery. Hartley v. North Carolina Prison Dept., 258 N. C. 287, 128 S. E. (2d) 598 (1962).

The negligence of the employee does not disbar him from compensation, except only in cases where the injury is occasioned by his intoxication or willful intention to injure himself or another. Archie v. Greene Bros. Lbr. Co., 222 N. C. 477, 23 S. E. (2d) 834 (1943).

Effect of Breach by Statute upon Willful Misconduct.—See 8 N. C. Law Rev. 326.

Failure to Use Safety Appliances or Observe Rules.—This section does not deny compensation when it appears that an injury was caused by the willful failure of an employee to use a safety appliance, or by the willful breach of a rule or regulation adopted by the employer and approved by the Industrial Commission, but only subjects the injured employee to the penalty of a reduction in the compensation to be awarded. Archie v. Greene Bros. Lbr. Co., 222 N. C. 477, 23 S. E. (2d) 834 (1943).

An intentional violation of an approved safety rule of which he had prior notice will not defeat, but will only reduce the amount of an award. Hartley v. North Carolina Prison Dept., 258 N. C. 287, 128 S. E. (2d) 598 (1962).

Death Occasioned by Violation of Safety Statute and Intoxication.—Findings, supported by evidence, that in overtaking a truck preceding him on the highway, employee's car left skid marks for 75 feet straight in a line forward and then skid marks sideways across the center of the highway to his left, and that his car was struck by a car approaching from the opposite direction, together with evidence that his blood contained .20 per cent of alcohol, were held sufficient to show that the accident resulted from the employee's violation of a safety statute and to support the finding of the Industrial Commission that the employee's death was occasioned by his intoxication, and judgment denying compensation was affirmed. Osborne v. Colonial Ice Co., 249 N. C. 387, 106 S. E. (2d) 573 (1959).

Injury Held Not Result of Intoxication.—In Brooks v. Carolina Lim, etc., Co., 213 N. C. 518, 196 S. E. 835 (1938), it was held that the evidence was sufficient to support finding of Industrial Commission that the accident causing injury was not the result of the employee's intoxication, although defendants introduced evidence in conflict therewith. See Gant v. Crouch, 213 N. C. 604, 91 S. E. (2d) 705 (1956).

Suicide Induced by Insanity.—Evidence was sufficient to support finding that by reason of insanity a suicide was the result of an uncontrollable impulse, or in a delirium of frenzy without conscious volition to cause death. Painter v. Mead Corp., 258 N. C. 741, 129 S. E. (2d) 482 (1963).

Where it is shown that the employee's death resulted from a bullet wound, such showing raises a prima facie case only of death by accident, placing upon the employer the burden of going forward with evidence to show that the employee killed himself within the exemption or forfeiture under this section. McGill v. Lumberton, 215 N. C. 732, 3 S. E. (2d) 324 (1939) (police chief found dead in town building, his gun by his side; compensation was denied by the Commission, reversed and remanded by the Supreme Court, three justices dissenting). Subsequent award of compensation was affirmed in McGill v. Lumberton, 218 N. C. 586, 11 S. E. (2d) 873 (1940) (two justices concurring only because of the former decision; one dissent).

In Bolling v. Belkwhite Co., 228 N. C. 749, 46 S. E. (2d) 838 (1948) a department store manager was found dead in his store early in the morning, a pistol by his side, with no other evidence of how he met his death. The court held that "while there may be a presumption of injury by accident" the award of compensation is defeated because there is no presumption or evidence to support a conclusion that the injury arose out of the employment. "The causal connection between the injury and the employment is not apparent as was the case in McGill v. Lumberton."

Illustrative Cases. — See Winberry v. Farley Stores, 2 I. C. 64 (1934), aff'd, 204 N. C. 79, 167 S. E. 475 (1933) (where defendant contended that deceased met his death in willfully attempting to injure a negro); Brooks v. Carolina Rim & Wheel Co., 6949 (June, 1937), aff'd, 213 N. C. 518, 196 S. E. 835 (1938) (where claimant had one drink four or five hours before the injury).

§ 97-13. Exceptions from provisions of article.—(a) Employees of Certain Railroads.—This article shall not apply to railroads or railroad employees nor in any way repeal, amend, alter or affect article eight (8) of chapter sixty (60) or any section thereof relating to the liability of railroads for injuries to employees, nor upon the trial of any action in tort for injuries not coming under the provisions of this article, shall any provision herein be placed in evidence or be permitted to be argued to the jury. Provided, however, that the foregoing exception to railroads and railroad employees shall not apply to electric street railroads or employees thereof; and this article shall apply to electric street railroads and employees thereof and to this extent the provisions of article eight (8) of chapter sixty (60) are hereby amended.

(b) Casual Employment, Domestic Servants, Farm Laborers, Federal Government Employer of Less than Five Employees.—This article shall not apply to casual employees, farm laborers, federal government employees in North Carolina, and domestic servants, nor to employees of such persons, nor to any person, firm or private corporation that has regularly in service less than five employees in the same business within this State, except that any employer without regard to number of employees, including an employer of domestic servants, farm laborers, or one who previously had exempted himself, who has purchased workmen's compensation insurance to cover his compensation liability shall be conclusively presumed during life of the policy to have accepted the provisions of this article from the effective date of said policy and his employees shall be so bound unless waived as provided in this article.

(c) Prisoners.—This article shall not apply to prisoners being worked by the State or any subdivision thereof, except to the following extent: Whenever any prisoner assigned to the State Prison Department shall suffer accidental injury arising out of and in the course of the employment to which he had been assigned, if the results of such injury continue until after the date of the lawful discharge of such prisoner to such an extent as to amount to a disability as defined in this article, then such discharged prisoner may have the benefit of this article by applying to the Industrial Commission as any other employee; provided, such application is made within twelve months from the date of discharge; and provided, further, that the maximum compensation to any prisoner shall not exceed ten dollars per week and the period of compensation shall relate to the date of his discharge rather than to the date of the accident, and prisoners who have been discharged prior to March 15, 1941, who are covered by the terms of the subsection may have twelve months from March 15, 1941, in which to apply for its benefits, but as to such prisoners their compensation shall be computed only from the date of their application and shall not be cumulative for any prior period; and no award shall be made for facial disfigurement, and no award other than burial expenses shall be made for any prisoner whose accident results in death; and no award shall be made for any injury where there is no apparent or outward physical evidence of such injury, unless it is clearly established by medical opinion and supporting testimony that the matter complained of results solely from the accident arising out of and in the course of employment. If any person who has been awarded compensation under the provisions of this section shall be recommitted to prison upon conviction for an offense committed subsequent to the award, such compensation shall immediately cease and determine. Any awards made under the terms of this subsection shall be paid by the State Prison Department from the funds available for the operation of the Prison Department. The provisions of G. S. 97-10 shall apply to prisoners and discharged prisoners entitled to compensation under this subsection and to the State in the same manner as said section applies to employees and employers.

(d) Sellers of Agricultural Products.—This article shall not apply to persons, firms or corporations engaged in selling agricultural products for the producers.

thereof on commission or for other compensation, paid by the producers, provided the product is prepared for sale by the producer. (1929, c. 120, s. 14; 1933, c. 401; 1935, c. 150; 1941, c. 295; 1943, c. 543; 1945, c. 766; 1957, c. 349, s. 10; c. 809.)

I. IN GENERAL.

Local Modification.—Mecklenburg: 1933, c. 401.

Cross Reference.—As to cases arising in admiralty and as to logging railroads, see note to § 97-2.

Editor's Note. — The 1933 amendment added the proviso to subsection (a).

The 1935 amendment changed subsection (b).

The 1941 amendment rewrote subsection (c). For comment on this amendment, see 19 N. C. Law Rev. 545.

The 1943 amendment substituted “article eight (8)” for “article seven (7)” at two places in subsection (a).

The 1945 amendment rewrote subsection (b).

The first 1957 amendment substituted “State Prison Department” for “State Highway and Public Works Commission” in subsection (c). The second 1957 amendment substituted “ten dollars per week” for “fifteen dollars per month” in the first sentence of subsection (c) and added the last sentence of the subsection.

Section 97-10, referred to in the last sentence of subsection (c) of this section, has been repealed and §§ 97-10.1 through 97-10.3 substituted in lieu thereof.

Prima Facie Evidence of Coverage by Act. —This section merely facilitates proof that the employer and its employees are subject to the terms of the Workmen’s Compensation Act. Proof that the employer obtained insurance and a claim was filed is, under this section, prima facie evidence that the employer and the employee have elected to be bound by the act. Gassaway v. Gassaway, 220 N. C. 694, 18 S. E. (2d) 120 (1942), decided prior to the 1945 amendment.

The former provisions of this section that proof that the employer obtained insurance and filed claim should be prima facie evidence that the employer and employee have elected to be bound by the act did not have the effect of raising a presumption that an executive officer injured in the course of his duties was at the time engaged in the duties of an employee rather than those of an executive. Gassaway v. Gassaway, 220 N. C. 694, 18 S. E. (2d) 120 (1942).

II. CASUAL EMPLOYEES.

Casual Employment Defined.—Employment is casual when not permanent nor periodically regular, but occasional, or by chance, and not in the usual course of the employer’s trade or business. Hoffer Bros. v. Smith, 148 Va. 220, 138 S. E. 474 (1927).

Employment in Employer’s Regular Course of Business Not Casual. — Two employees were hired by a fertilizer dealer “whenever a car load of fertilizer arrived, to unload and deliver the fertilizer.” This was held not to be “casual” employment, but “work pertaining to the regular course of defendant’s business.” Hunter v. Perison, 229 N. C. 356, 49 S. E. (2d) 653 (1948).

Where plaintiff was hired to paint the interior of defendant’s mill, the employment was not casual since it was part of defendant’s duties as a mill operator to keep its buildings in repair. Johnson v. Asheville Hosiery Co., 1 I. C. 41 (1929), aff’d, 199 N. C. 38, 153 S. E. 591 (1930).

Employment continuously for five or six weeks in construction of facilities for handling material in defendant’s plant may not be held to be either casual or not in the course of defendant’s business. Smith v. Southern Wastepaper Co., 226 N. C. 47, 36 S. E. (2d) 730 (1946).

Civilian Summoned by Forest Warden to Help Extinguish Fire.—A civilian who had been summoned by a forest warden to assist in extinguishing a fire was held to be not a casual employee. Moore v. State, 200 N. C. 300, 156 S. E. 806 (1930).

III. FARM LABORERS.

Employee of State Engaged in Farm Labor Is Covered by Act.—In Barbour v. State Hospital, 215 N. C. 515, 196 S. E. 818 (1938), the holding that an employee of the State engaged in farm labor was covered by the act was affirmed, the court stating that the exemption was intended for the protection of farmers as an occupational class and that § 97-2 (2) includes all State “officers and employees” except those elected or appointed by the Governor or General Assembly.
Ch. 97. Workmen’s Compensation Act § 97-13

For other cases involving public employees, see note to § 97-2, analysis line II, B, 4, “State and Municipal Employees.”

IV. DOMESTIC SERVANTS.

Dual Employment — Domestic and Trade.—Plaintiff was employed for a single wage to do janitorial, window cleaning, and delivery work at defendant’s paint store and also to do janitor and garden work at defendant’s home. He was paid at the store. His injuries arose from an accident connected with lawn mowing at the employer’s home. An award by the Commission was affirmed in the superior court but reversed on the insurance carrier’s appeal. The personal work done for the employer was not within the coverage of the act. Burnett v. Palmer-Lipe Paint Co., 216 N. C. 204, 4 S. E. (2d) 507 (1939).

V. NUMBER OF EMPLOYEES.

Whether or not there are five persons regularly employed in one business is a jurisdictional matter that cannot be waived. Thompson v. Johnson Funeral Home, 205 N. C. 801, 172 S. E. 500 (1934) (where the jurisdiction of the Industrial Commission was first challenged in an appeal from the Commission to the superior court). See same case on rehearing, 208 N. C. 178, 179 S. E. 801 (1935), noted critically, 14 N. C. Law Rev. 76.

Employment of Five or More Must Affirmatively Appear.—It must appear affirmatively by evidence or by admission of record that a defendant sought to be held liable under this chapter had in his employ five or more employees in order to sustain the jurisdiction of the Commission. Chadwick v. North Carolina Department of Conservation, etc., 219 N. C. 766, 14 S. E. (2d) 842 (1941).

Where the findings of facts of the Industrial Commission that the deceased was an employee of the defendant and that the defendant employed more than five workers, are not supported by any evidence in the hearing before it, the findings are jurisdictional, and upon appeal to the superior court the award should be set aside and vacated. Poole v. Sigmon, 202 N. C. 172, 162 S. E. 198 (1932).

Same—Remand to Determine Number of Employees.—It is not error for the superior court to remand a proceeding in order that the facts with respect to the number of employees in the employment of the defendant at the time the employee was injured might be ascertained by the Industrial Commission. Letterlough v. Atkins, 258 N. C. 166, 128 S. E. (2d) 215 (1962).

Where Number of Employees Varies.—Defendant employed three employees regularly. Two additional employees had been hired for at least a part of each week for two preceding months. It was held that the jurisdictional requirement of five regular employees was met. Hunter v. Pierson, 229 N. C. 356, 49 S. E. (2d) 653 (1948).

Where Employer Conducts Several Distinct Businesses.—Where the employer conducts several distinct businesses and in each employs less than the requisite number required to bring himself within the act, he is not subject to the act. This is true though the businesses are under the same roof. Aycock v. Cooper, 202 N. C. 500, 163 S. E. 569 (1932).

Evidence Tending to Show Less than Five Regular Employees.—Where, in a hearing before the Industrial Commission the employer testifies that he employed three men other than himself, and another witness testifies that at the time of the injury in suit there were two men working besides the employer and that the other employees were on vacation, the evidence by its award, had as many as five men in his or its employment. Letterlough v. Atkins, 258 N. C. 166, 128 S. E. (2d) 215 (1962).

Same—Reversal of Commission’s Award. —When it is not made to affirmatively appear that the defendant sought to be held liable under this chapter had in his employ five or more employees, the Commission’s award of compensation against him must be reversed. Chadwick v. North Carolina Department of Conservation, etc., 219 N. C. 766, 14 S. E. (2d) 842 (1941).

Where the findings of facts of the Industrial Commission that the deceased was an employee of the defendant and that the defendant employed more than five workers, are not supported by any evidence in the hearing before it, the findings are jurisdictional, and upon appeal to the superior court the award should be set aside and vacated. Poole v. Sigmon, 202 N. C. 172, 162 S. E. 198 (1932).
§ 97-14. Employers not bound by article may not use certain defenses in damage suit.—An employer who elects not to operate under this article shall not, in any suit at law instituted by an employee subject to this article to recover damages for personal injury or death by accident, be permitted to defend any such suit at law upon any or all of the following grounds:

(1) That the employee was negligent.
(2) That the injury was caused by the negligence of a fellow employee.
(3) That the employee has assumed the risk of the injury. (1929, c. 120, S. 3a)

Cross Reference.—See § 97-94 (b), applying these rules to employers failing to insure.

Employer Is Not an Insurer.—This section, although abolishing an employer's most cherished defenses, does not make him an insurer, nor does it relieve the employee of establishing a breach of duty. It is elementary, however, that this section leaves the employer in a completely exposed position. Great Atlantic, etc., Tea Co. v. Robards, 161 F. (2d) 929 (1947).

The defendants were not insurers of the safety of their employee, but were required only to exercise the degree of care which a man of ordinary prudence would have used under the circumstances and charged with like duty. Muldrow v. Weinstein, 234 N. C. 587, 68 S. E. (2d) 249 (1951).

The fact that plaintiff suffered an injury while at work for the defendants would not of itself impose liability therefor. In order to sustain recovery plaintiff must allege and offer evidence tending to show negligence on the part of his employers, and that such negligence was the proximate cause of his injury. Muldrow v. Weinstein, 234 N. C. 587, 68 S. E. (2d) 249 (1951).

This section cannot be held to have abolished the simple tool doctrine as a ground of defense. Newbern v. Great Atlantic, etc., Tea Co., 68 F. (2d) 523, 91 A. L. R. 781 (1934).

In an action brought at common law on the grounds that defendant had rejected the act, plaintiff alleged that defendant negligently permitted the wheel of a moving floor scale to become defective and that in attempting to move the scale plaintiff suffered injury. It was held that in the use of simple tools, the employer can anticipate no danger which the employee could not guard against; thus, there was no negligence on defendant's part. Newbern v. Great Atlantic, etc., Tea Co., 68 F. (2d) 523, 91 A. L. R. 781 (1934).

The same result obtained in Muldrow v. Weinstein, 234 N. C. 587, 68 S. E. (2d) 249 (1951), where the court, three justices dissenting, denied a common-law recovery to a 67-year-old employee who fell into a scrap metal compressing pit which had no guard rail.

Defenses Not Available.—Where an employer who regularly employs more than five employees in his business elects not to operate under the Workmen's Compensasation Act, an injured employee may maintain an action against him at common law, in which action contributory negligence, negligence of a fellow employee, and assumption of risks are not available as defenses. Bame v. Palmer Stone Works, 232 N. C. 267, 59 S. E. (2d) 812 (1950).

Contributory Negligence.—Where it is admitted that defendant employer had a sufficient number of employees to bring him under this chapter, but that he had elected not to do so, the defense of contributory negligence is properly excluded. Lee v. Roberson, 220 N. C. 61, 16 S. E. (2d) 459 (1941).

If an employee contracts an occupational disease while working for an employer who has rejected the act, recovery may be had in an action at common law upon a showing of negligence. Bame v. Palmer Stone Works, 232 N. C. 267, 59 S. E. (2d) 812 (1950).

§ 97-15. Electing employer may use such defenses against nonelecting employee.—Any employee who elects not to operate under this article shall, in any action to recover damages for personal injury or death brought against an employer accepting the compensation provisions of this article, proceed at common law, and the employer may avail himself of the defenses of contributory negligence, negligence of a fellow servant, and assumption of risk, as such defenses exist at common law. (1929, c. 120, s. 16.)

§ 97-16. Defenses denied to nonelecting employer as against nonelecting employee.—When both the employer and employee elect not to operate under this article, the liability of the employer shall be the same as though he alone rejected the terms of this article, and in any suit brought against him by such employee the employer shall not be permitted to avail himself of any of the common-law defenses cited in § 97-14. Provided, however, that in Ashe, Avery, Bladen, Carteret, Caswell, Cherokee, Gates, Hyde, Macon, Pender, Perquimans, Union, Watauga and Wilkes counties any sheriff may exempt himself and any and all deputies appointed by him from the provisions of this article by notice in writing to the Industrial Commission, such notice to be made on forms prescribed by the Industrial Commission. (1929, c. 120, s. 17; 1931, c. 274, s. 2; 1939, c. 277, s. 2; 1943, c. 543.)

Editor's Note. — The 1931 amendment added a proviso permitting sheriffs to exempt themselves and their deputies from the act. The 1939 amendment deleted that proviso, and the 1943 amendment added the present proviso.

The former provision permitting a sheriff to exempt himself from the operation of the act by giving the notice prescribed, did not have the effect of bringing deputy sheriffs within the intent and meaning of the act, nor did the fact that a sheriff purchased insurance to cover his compensation liability have the effect of enlarging or extending the language of the act. Borders v. Cline, 212 N. C. 472, 193 S. E. 826 (1937). See also 16 N. C. Law Rev. 419.

§ 97-17. Settlements allowed in accordance with article.—Nothing herein contained shall be construed so as to prevent settlements made by and between the employee and employer so long as the amount of compensation and the time and manner of payment are in accordance with the provisions of this article. A copy of such settlement agreement shall be filed by employer with and approved by the Industrial Commission: Provided, however, that no party to any agreement for compensation approved by the Industrial Commission shall thereafter be heard to deny the truth of the matters therein set forth, unless it shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of the Commission that there has been error due to fraud, misrepresentation, undue influence or mutual mistake, in which event the Industrial Commission may set aside such agreement. (1929, c. 120, s. 18; 1963, c. 436.)

Editor's Note. — The 1963 amendment added the proviso at the end of this section.

The law, by this section, undertakes to protect the rights of the employee in contracting with respect to his injuries. Cau-
§ 97-18. Prompt payment of compensation required; installments; notice to Commission; penalties.—(a) Compensation under this article shall be paid periodically, promptly and directly to the person entitled thereto unless otherwise specifically provided.

(b) The first installment of compensation payable under the terms of an agreement shall become due on the fourteenth day after the employer has knowledge of the injury or death, on which date all compensation then due shall be paid. Thereafter compensation shall be paid in installments weekly except where the Commission determines that payment in installments should be made monthly or at some other period.

(c) The first installment of compensation payable under the terms of an award by the Commission, or under the terms of a judgment of the court upon an appeal from such an award, shall become due seven days from the date of such an award or from the date of such a judgment of the court, on which date all compensation then due shall be paid. Thereafter compensation shall be paid in installments weekly, except where the Commission determines that payment in installments shall be made monthly or in some other manner.

(d) Upon making the first payment, and upon suspension of payment for any cause, the employer shall immediately notify the Commission, in accordance with the form prescribed by the Commission, that payment of compensation has begun or has been suspended, as the case may be.

(e) If any installment of compensation payable in accordance with the terms of an agreement approved by the Commission without an award is not paid within fourteen days after it becomes due, as provided in subsection (b) of this sec-
§ 97-19. Liability of principal contractors; certificate that subcontractor has complied with law; right to recover compensation of those who would have been liable; order of liability.—Any principal contractor, intermediate contractor, or subcontractor who shall sublet any contract for the performance of any work without requiring from such subcontractor or obtaining from the Industrial Commission a certificate, issued by the Industrial Commission, stating that such subcontractor has complied with § 97-93 hereof, shall be liable, irrespective of whether such subcontractor has regularly in service less than five employees in the same business within this State, to the same extent as such subcontractor would be if he had accepted the provisions of this article for the payment of compensation and other benefits under this article on account of the injury or death of any employee of such subcontractor due to an accident arising out of and in the course of the performance of the work covered by such subcontract. If the principal contractor, intermediate contractor or subcontractor shall obtain such certificate at the time of subletting such contract to subcontractor, he shall not thereafter be held liable to any employee of such subcontractor for compensation or other benefits under this article. The Industrial Commission, upon demand shall furnish such certificate, and may charge therefor the cost thereof, not to exceed twenty-five (25) cents.

Any principal contractor, intermediate contractor, or subcontractor paying compensation or other benefits under this article, under the foregoing provisions of this section, may recover the amount so paid from any person, persons, or corporation who independently of such provision, would have been liable for the payment thereof.

Every claim filed with the Industrial Commission under this section shall be instituted against all parties liable for payment, and said Commission, in its award, shall fix the order in which said parties shall be exhausted, beginning with the immediate employer.

The principal or owner may insure any or all of his contractors and their employees in a blanket policy, and when so insured such contractor’s employees will be entitled to compensation benefits regardless of whether the relationship of employer and employee exists between the principal and the contractor. (1929, c. 120, s. 19; 1941, c. 358, s. 1; 1945, c. 766.)

Editor’s Note. — The 1941 amendment inserted “irrespective of whether such subcontractor has regularly in service less than five employees in the same business within this State” in the first sentence.

The 1945 amendment added the last paragraph of this section.

For note as to rights of employees of subcontractors against owners and principal contractors, see 35 N. C. Law Rev. 569.

The 1941 amendment was not in reality an amendment in the sense that it changed an existing law, but really amounted to

tion, or if any installment of compensation payable in accordance with the terms of an award by the Commission is not paid within fourteen days after it becomes due, as provided in subsection (c) of this section, there shall be added to such unpaid installment an amount equal to 10 per centum thereof, which shall be paid at the same time as, but in addition to, such installment, unless such nonpayment is excused by the Commission after a showing by the employer that owing to conditions over which he had no control such installment could not be paid within the period prescribed for the payment.

(i) Within sixteen days after final payment of compensation has been made, the employer shall send to the Commission a notice, in accordance with a form prescribed by the Commission, stating that such final payment has been made, the total amount of compensation paid, the name of the employee and of any other person to whom compensation has been paid, the date of the injury or death, and the date to which compensation has been paid. If the employer fails to so notify the Commission within such time, the Commission shall assess against such employer a civil penalty in the amount of $25.00. (1929, c. 120, s. 18½.)

§ 97-19-19. Liability of principal contractors; certificate that subcontractor has complied with law; right to recover compensation of those who would have been liable; order of liability.—Any principal contractor, intermediate contractor, or subcontractor who shall sublet any contract for the performance of any work without requiring from such subcontractor or obtaining from the Industrial Commission a certificate, issued by the Industrial Commission, stating that such subcontractor has complied with § 97-93 hereof, shall be liable, irrespective of whether such subcontractor has regularly in service less than five employees in the same business within this State, to the same extent as such subcontractor would be if he had accepted the provisions of this article for the payment of compensation and other benefits under this article on account of the injury or death of any employee of such subcontractor due to an accident arising out of and in the course of the performance of the work covered by such subcontract. If the principal contractor, intermediate contractor or subcontractor shall obtain such certificate at the time of subletting such contract to subcontractor, he shall not thereafter be held liable to any employee of such subcontractor for compensation or other benefits under this article. The Industrial Commission, upon demand shall furnish such certificate, and may charge therefor the cost thereof, not to exceed twenty-five (25) cents.

Any principal contractor, intermediate contractor, or subcontractor paying compensation or other benefits under this article, under the foregoing provisions of this section, may recover the amount so paid from any person, persons, or corporation who independently of such provision, would have been liable for the payment thereof.

Every claim filed with the Industrial Commission under this section shall be instituted against all parties liable for payment, and said Commission, in its award, shall fix the order in which said parties shall be exhausted, beginning with the immediate employer.

The principal or owner may insure any or all of his contractors and their employees in a blanket policy, and when so insured such contractor’s employees will be entitled to compensation benefits regardless of whether the relationship of employer and employee exists between the principal and the contractor. (1929, c. 120, s. 19; 1941, c. 358, s. 1; 1945, c. 766.)

Editor’s Note. — The 1941 amendment inserted “irrespective of whether such subcontractor has regularly in service less than five employees in the same business within this State” in the first sentence.

The 1945 amendment added the last paragraph of this section.

For note as to rights of employees of subcontractors against owners and principal contractors, see 35 N. C. Law Rev. 569.

The 1941 amendment was not in reality an amendment in the sense that it changed an existing law, but really amounted to an amendment for the purpose of expressing the full legislative intent under the existing law. Graham v. Wall, 220 N. C. 84, 16 S. E. (2d) 691 (1941).

Purpose of Section.—The manifest purpose of this section, enacted as an amendment to the original Workmen’s Compensation Act, is to protect employees of irresponsible and uninsured subcontractors by imposing ultimate liability on principal contractors, intermediate contractors, or subcontractors, who, presumably being financially responsible, have it within their power, in choosing subcontractors, to pass upon their financial responsibility and insist upon appropriate compensation protection for their workers. It is also the obvious aim of the statute to forestall evasion of the Workmen’s Compensation Act by those who might be tempted to subdivide their regular operations with the workers, thus relating them for compensation protection to small subcontractors, who fail to carry, or if small enough may not even be required to carry, compensation insurance. Greene v. Spivey, 236 N. C. 435, 73 S. E. (2d) 488 (1952).

Section Not Applicable to Employers and Independent Contractors.—This section relates to contractors and subcontractors and not to employers and independent contractors. Beach v. McLean, 219 N. C. 521, 14 S. E. (2d) 515 (1941).

This section is not applicable to an independent contractor as distinguished from a subcontractor of the class designated by the statute. And all the more is it so that the statute does not apply to an independent employer who produces or gets out raw materials of his own, like logs, and sells them in the open market to a processor-purchaser who has no control whatsoever over the operations of the independent employer. Greene v. Spivey, 236 N. C. 435, 73 S. E. (2d) 488 (1952).

Principal Not LIABLE for Failure of Independent Contractor to Insure.—In McCraw v. Calvine Mills, 233 N. C. 524, 64 S. E. (2d) 658 (1951), a mill company contracted with one G to paint the mill. The company was to furnish all materials; G was to furnish brushes and skilled labor. G testified that he, and not the mill company, had complete control of the painters employed on the job. It was held that G was not an employee, but an independent contractor within the meaning of the act, and the mill company was not liable for G’s failure to insure.

Main Contractor Held Agent of Insurer in Effecting Compensation Insurance for Independent Contractor.—See Greene v. Spivey, 236 N. C. 435, 73 S. E. (2d) 488 (1952).

This Section Modifies § 97-2 (1).—As a general proposition, the only private employments covered by the Workmen’s Compensation Act are those “in which five or more employees are regularly employed in the same business or establishment.” See § 97-2 (1). But this general rule is subject to the exception created by this section, which was manifestly enacted to protect the employees of financially irresponsible subcontractors who do not carry workmen’s compensation insurance, and to prevent principal contractors, intermediate contractors, and subcontractors from relieving themselves of liability under the act by doing through subcontractors what they would otherwise do through the agency of direct employees. Withers v. Black, 230 N. C. 428, 53 S. E. (2d) 668 (1949).

Number of Persons Regularly Employed by Contractor Is Immaterial.—Where a contractor sublets a part of the contract to a subcontractor without requiring from the subcontractor a certificate that he had procured compensation insurance or had satisfied the Industrial Commission of his financial responsibility as a self-insurer under § 97-93, such contractor is properly held secondarily liable for compensation to an employee of the subcontractor, even though the contractor regularly employs less than five employees. Withers v. Black, 230 N. C. 428, 53 S. E. (2d) 668 (1949). See § 97-2.

Lumber Company Buying Timber Held Not Contractor. — A lumber company which purchases timber on the basis of a stipulated price per thousand feet when processed into lumber by it, and which is given the privilege of going upon the land and cutting and logging the timber to its site, cannot be held a contractor of the owners of the timber in the performance of the logging operations, and therefore a person employed by it to conduct logging operations cannot be a subcontractor within the meaning of this section, and the section has no application in determining the liability for injury to one of the workmen employed in the logging operations. Evans v. Tabor City Lbr. Co., 232 N. C. 111, 59 S. E. (2d) 612 (1950).

On an almost identical set of facts, claimant brought an action against the lumber company, on the ground that his superior was not an independent contractor or a subcontractor, but was actually an employee of the lumber company. On the evidence there presented, the court held

Assistant Driver Employed by Owner-Lessor of Truck under Trip-Lease Agreement.—Where the owner of a truck drives same on a trip in interstate commerce for an interstate carrier under a trip-lease agreement providing that the carrier's I. C. C. license plates should be used and the carrier retain control and direction over the truck, an assistant driver employed by the owner-lessee is an employee of the carrier within the coverage of the North Carolina Workmen's Compensation Act. Further, if the owner-lessee be considered an independent contractor, but had less than five employees and no compensation insurance coverage, the carrier would still be liable under this section. McGill v. Bison Fast Freight, Inc., 245 N. C. 469, 96 S. E. (2d) 438 (1957).

Order of Liability.—See Roberts v. City Ice & Coal Co., 210 N. C. 17, at 21, 185 S. E. 438 (1936), where it is stated: "The liability of the employer under the award is primary. He, by contract, may secure liability insurance for his protection, but his obligation to the insured employee is unimpaired."

Cited in Sayles v. Loftis, 217 N. C. 674, 9 S. E. (2d) 393 (1940).

§ 97-20. Priority of compensation claims against assets of employer.—All rights of compensation granted by this article shall have the same preference or priority for the whole thereof against the assets of the employer as is allowed by law for any unpaid wages for labor. (1929, c. 120, s. 20.)

§ 97-21. Claims unassignable and exempt from taxes and debts; agreement of employee to contribute to premium or waive right to compensation void; unlawful deduction by employer.—No claim for compensation under this article shall be assignable, and all compensation and claims therefor shall be exempt from all claims of creditors and from taxes.

No agreement by an employee to pay any portion of premium paid by his employer to a carrier or to contribute to a benefit fund or department maintained by such employer for the purpose of providing compensation or medical services and supplies as required by this article shall be valid, and any employer who makes a deduction for such purpose from the pay of any employee entitled to the benefits of this article shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $500.00. No agreement by an employee to waive his right to compensation under this chapter shall all be valid. (1929, c. 120, s. 21.)

Editor's Note.—For a discussion of this section, see 8 N. C. Law Rev. 477. And see 15 N. C. Law Rev. 286.

Exemption Lost on Transfer to Another Fund.—See Merchants Bank v. Weaver, 213 N. C. 767, 197 S. E. 551 (1938).

§ 97-22. Notice of accident to employer.—Every injured employee or his representative shall immediately on the occurrence of an accident, or as soon thereafter as practicable, give or cause to be given to the employer a written notice of the accident, and the employee shall not be entitled to physician's fees nor to any compensation which may have accrued under the terms of this article prior to the giving of such notice, unless it can be shown that the employer, his agent or representative, had knowledge of the accident, or that the party required to give such notice had been prevented from doing so by reason of physical or mental incapacity, or the fraud or deceit of some third person; but no compensation shall be payable unless such written notice is given within thirty days after the occurrence of the accident or death unless reasonable excuse is made to the satisfaction of the Industrial Commission for not giving such notice and the Commission is satisfied that the employer has not been prejudiced thereby. (1929, c. 120, s. 22.)

Cross Reference.—As to minor dependent without guardian, etc., see note to § 97-50.

Necessity for Giving Notice.—In Singleton v. Durham Laundry Co., 213 N. C. 70. or has shown reasonable excuse to the satisfaction of the Industrial Commission for not giving such notice and the Commission is satisfied that the employer has not been prejudiced thereby.

Notice Held Insufficient.—In Jacobs v. Safie Mfg. Co., 229 N. C. 660, 50 S. E. (2d) 738 (1948), claimant, after his injury, sent two or three messages to the superintendent, requesting him to come to see him, and the superintendent promised to do so but never did. Also, claimant's sister testified that she told the superintendent, (nearly four months after the injury) that claimant had been hurt in the mill. It was held that this did not constitute sufficient notice of injury, nor did it constitute a basis for estoppel against the defendant to plead the provisions of this section.

Finding That Employer Not Prejudiced by Lack of Notice. — A finding by the Commission that the employer has not been prejudiced by the failure of the plaintiff to give notice of the injury within 30 days after the accident, suffices to sustain the award from and after such notice; but not for benefits which may have accrued prior thereto. Eller v. Lawrence Leather Co., 222 N. C. 604, 24 S. E. (2d) 244 (1943).

Fact That Employer Continued to Pay Employee's Salary after Injury. — Where plaintiff suffered a disabling injury which he failed to report, the fact that defendant continued to pay his salary for a while does not constitute an estoppel in the absence of proof that defendant knew of the injury at the time the payments were made. Lilly v. Belk Bros., 210 N. C. 735, 188 S. E. 319 (1936).

A finding by the Commission that plaintiff was not capable of coherent, normal thought at the time of his examination by physicians falls short of a finding that he was prevented from giving written notice of his injury by reason of physical or mental incapacity so as to entitle him to the benefits which may have accrued prior to the giving of such notice. Eller v. Lawrence Leather Co., 222 N. C. 604, 24 S. E. (2d) 244 (1943).

§ 97-23. What notice is to contain; defects no bar; notice personally or by registered letter or certified mail.—The notice provided in the foregoing section shall state in ordinary language the name and address of the employee, the time, place, nature, and cause of the accident, and of the resulting injury or death; and shall be signed by the employee or by a person on his behalf, or, in the event of his death, by any one or more of his dependents, or by a person in their behalf.

No defect or inaccuracy in the notice shall be a bar to compensation unless the employer shall prove that his interest was prejudiced thereby, and then only to such extent as the prejudice.

Said notice shall be given personally to the employer or any of his agents upon whom a summons in civil action may be served under the laws of the State, or may be sent by registered letter or certified mail addressed to the employer at his last known residence or place of business. (1929, c. 120, s. 23; 1959, c. 863, s. 1.)

Editor's Note. — The 1959 amendment inserted "or certified mail" in the last paragraph.

§ 97-24. Right to compensation barred after two years; destruction of records.—(a) The right to compensation under this article shall be forever barred unless a claim be filed with the Industrial Commission within two years after the accident, and if death results from the accident, unless a claim be filed with the Commission within one year thereafter.

(b) If any claim for compensation is hereafter made upon the theory that such claim or the injury upon which said claim is based is within the jurisdiction of the Industrial Commission under the provisions of this article, and if the Commission, or the Supreme Court on appeal, shall adjudge that such claim is not within the article, the claimant, or if he dies, his personal representative, shall have one year after the rendition of a final judgment in the case within which to commence an action at law.

(c) When all claims and reports required by this article have been filed, and the cases and records of which they are a part have been closed by proper reports, receipts, awards or orders, these records, may after five years, in the discretion of the Commission, with by the authorization and approval of the North Carolina Department of Archives and History, be destroyed by burning or otherwise. (1929, c. 120, s. 24; 1933, c. 449, s. 2; 1945 c. 766; 1955. c. 1026, s. 12.)

Cross References.—As to corresponding limitations in cases of occupational diseases, see § 97-58. As to tolling of limitation period by the signing of a closing receipt, see § 97-47.

Editor's Note. — The 1933 amendment added subsection (b), and the 1945 amendment added subsection (c).

The 1955 amendment substituted “two years” for “one year” preceding “after the accident” in subsection (a).

Session Laws 1957, c. 1396, s. 5, made a futile attempt to amend this section by providing for “striking out the words ‘eighteen months’ in lines two and three of subsection (2) of said G. S. 97-24 and inserting in lieu thereof the words ‘one year’”. There is no subsection (2) in the section nor any language therein to which such purported amendment could apply.

The cases in the following note (with one exception) were decided under this section as it stood before the 1955 amendment, when the limitation upon the filing of claims was one year.

The requirement that claim be filed within a certain time is a condition precedent to the right to compensation, and not a statute of limitation. For this reason, where a claim for compensation under the provisions of the Workmen’s Compensation Act has not been filed with the Industrial Commission within the statutory period after the date of the accident, which resulted in the injury for which compensation is claimed, or where the Industrial Commission has not acquired jurisdiction of such claim within the statutory period, the right to compensation is barred. Winslow v. Carolina Conference Ass’n, 211 N. C. 571, 191 S. E. 403 (1937). See Whitted v. Palmer-Bee Co., 228 N. C. 447, 46 S. E. (2d) 109 (1948), noted in 58 Yale L. J. 495.

The requirement that an injured employee file notice of his claim within a certain period from the date of injury, is not a statute of limitations, but a condition precedent to the right to compensation. Lineberry v. Mebane, 218 N. C. 737, 12 S. E. (2d) 252 (1940).
The Form No. 19 prescribed by the Industrial Commission has been amended and now contains on its face the statement that it is filled only in compliance with § 97-92 and is not employee’s claim for compensation. See concurring opinion by Barnhill, J., in Whitted v. Palmer-Bee Co., 228 N. C. 447, 46 S. E. (2d) 109 (1948).

Claim Need Not Be Filed before Bringing Action.—Subsection (b) of this section does not require plaintiff to file a claim with the Industrial Commission, as a court of first instance, before bringing an action in the superior court. The subsection was intended to defer the time in which action in the proper court might be brought when mistaken resort to the Commission has been made. Barber v. Minges, 223 N. C. 213, 25 S. E. (2d) 837 (1943).

Payment of Medical Expenses by Employer Does Not Constitute Waiver of Limitation.—See note to § 97-25.

Report Filed by Employer and Award for Medical Expenses.—In Thompson v. Virginia & C. S. R. Co., 216 N. C. 554, 6 S. E. (2d) 38 (1939), the employer gave notice to the Commission of an accident to its employee. Subsequently an award for medical expenses was made by the Commission on application of the doctor but no hearing before the Commission was ever asked by employer or employee. In a suit by the employee against the alleged negligent third party, the period of limitation prescribed in this section having passed, the court observed that the period for filing plaintiff’s claim had elapsed and “no other right of action could now accrue for the benefit of the employer, or its insurance carrier.”

Claims Not Filed within Time Prescribed.—Where an employee did not file a claim until more than the prescribed time after injury, and the employer did not file a report of the accident because it did not have knowledge thereof, although it delivered claimant’s wages to him after the disability resulting from the injury, but thought the disability was due to a prior injury, had no knowledge of the subsequent injury, and made no representations that the wages delivered to the claimant were in lieu of compensation, the evidence supported a finding that the claim was not filed within the time prescribed by this section. Lilly v. Belk Bros., 210 N. C. 735, 188 S. E. 319 (1936).

Claimant was injured by accident arising out of and in the course of his employment. He reported the accident to the employer, who, on the day of the accident, reported it to the Industrial Commission as required by § 97-92. Subsequently bills for medical services rendered claimant as a result of the injury were approved for payment by the Commission. No claim for compensation was filed by the employee, the employer or the insurance carrier. After the expiration of the period of limitation, the employee first discovered the serious effects of the accident and requested a hearing before the Industrial Commission. It was held that no claim for compensation having been filed within the statutory period from the date of the accident and no request for hearing having been made within that time, and no payment of bills for medical treatment having been made within the statutory period prior to the request for a hearing, the claim was barred by this section. Whitted v. Palmer-Bee Co., 228 N. C. 447, 46 S. E. (2d) 109 (1948), distinguishing Hardison v. Hampton, 203 N. C. 187, 155 S. E. 535 (1932), and Hanks v. Southern Public Utilities Co., 210 N. C. 312, 186 S. E. 252 (1936).

Commission’s finding that the employee did not file his claim within the period of limitation, and that claim was therefore barred, was affirmed on appeal. Coats v. B. R. Wilson, Inc., 244 N. C. 76, 92 S. E. (2d) 446 (1956).

Limitation Tolled as to Employee under Eighteen and without Guardian. — The limitation of time provided by this section as against an employee under 18 years of age, who is without guardian or other legal representative, is tolled until he arrives at the age of 18. Lineberry v. Mebane, 219 N. C. 257, 13 S. E. (2d) 429 (1941).

Prosecuting Common-Law Action and Failing to File Application for Hearing Is Not Abandonment of Filed Claim. — The prosecution of a suit at common law and the failure to file application for a hearing when requested did not amount to an abandonment of claim for compensation, and no final award having been made at the time of the filing of formal petition for an award, the matter was pending at that time before the Commission, and it was error to deny compensation on the ground that claimant was barred by failure to file claim within the time prescribed after the death of the deceased employee. Hanks v. Southern Public Utilities Co., 210 N. C. 312, 186 S. E. 252 (1936), noted in 15 N. C. Law Rev. 85.

Implied Agreement Not to Plead Statute.—Where the injured party was led to believe that his wages were accruing to his benefit, and he delayed filing his claim for § 97-25. Medical treatment and supplies.—Medical, surgical, hospital, nursing services, medicines, sick travel, and other treatment including medical and surgical supplies as may reasonably be required, for a period not exceeding ten weeks from date of injury to effect a cure or give relief and for such additional time as in the judgment of the Commission will tend to lessen the period of disability, and in addition thereto such original artificial members as may reasonably be required at the end of the healing period shall be provided by the employer. In case of a controversy arising between the employer and employee relative to the continuance of medical, surgical, hospital or other treatment, the Industrial Commission may order such further treatments as may in the discretion of the Commission be necessary.

The Commission may at any time upon the request of an employee order a change of treatment and designate other treatment suggested by the injured employee subject to the approval of the Commission, and in such a case the expense thereof shall be borne by the employer upon the same terms and conditions as hereinbefore provided in this section for medical and surgical treatment and attendance.

The refusal of the employee to accept any medical, hospital, surgical or other treatment when ordered by the Industrial Commission shall bar said employee from further compensation until such refusal ceases, and no compensation shall at any time be paid for the period of suspension unless in the opinion of the Industrial Commission the circumstances justified the refusal in which case, the Industrial Commission may order a change in the medical or hospital service.

In an emergency on account of the employer's failure to provide the medical or other care as herein specified a physician other than provided by the employer is called to treat the injured employee, the reasonable cost of such service shall be paid by the employer if so ordered by the Industrial Commission: Provided, however, if he so desires, an injured employee may select a physician of his own choosing to attend, prescribe and assume the care and charge of his case, subject to the approval of the Industrial Commission. (1929, c. 120, s. 25; 1931, c. 274, s. 4; 1933, c. 506; 1955, c. 1026, s. 2.)

Editor's Note. — The 1931 amendment struck out provisions on voluntary treatment furnished by the employer and inserted a sentence empowering the Commission on request of the employee to order a change of treatment at the employer's expense. 9 N. C. Law Rev. 405. The 1933 amendment added the proviso at the end of this section relating to the selection of a physician.

The 1955 amendment inserted near the beginning of the first paragraph "nursing services, medicines, sick travel."

As to independent suit by physician against employee to recover for medical services, see notes to §§ 97-90, 97-91.

Insurer's Obligation to Furnish Medical Attention. — An employee brought action against the insurance carrier and its agent, alleging that after his injury the agent, on behalf of insurer, induced him to dispense with the services of his physician and consult physicians selected by insurer, and that insurer promised to provide hospitalization and surgical service recommended by insurer's physicians, but failed to do so to plaintiff's permanent injury. It was held that insurer's obligation to furnish medical attention necessary to plaintiff's complete recovery was founded on this section, and the Industrial Commission has exclusive jurisdiction of plaintiff's claim. Hedgepeth v. Lumbermen's Mut. Cas. Co., 209 N. C. 45, 182 S. E. 704 (1935).

Medical, etc., Expenses Not Included in Maximum Amount Recoverable for One Injury.—See Morris v. Laughlin Chevrolet Co., 217 N. C. 428, 8 S. E. (2d) 484, 128 A. L. R. 132 (1940).

Payment of Medical Expenses Does Not Constitute Admission or Waiver by Employer. — The Workmen's Compensation Act, by this section, requires or permits an employer to pay bills for medical and other treatment of an employee, and the payment of such bills, approved by the Commission, even without formal denial of liability, cannot have the effect of an admission of liability by the employer or constitute a waiver of the requirement of filing timely claim by the employee as provided in §§ 97-94. Such facts are insufficient to invoke the doctrine of estoppel. Biddix v. Rex Mills, Inc., 237 N. C. 660, 75 S. E. (2d) 777 (1953).

Plaintiff Permanently and Totally Disabled.—Plaintiff suffered a head injury and developed dementia praecox, which physicians pronounced incurable. She required constant medical attention. The order requiring defendant to continue treatment was reversed. While the plaintiff might be made more comfortable by further treatment, the evidence showed that the period of disability would not be lessened. Millwood v. Firestone Cotton Mills, 215 N. C. 519, 2 S. E. (2d) 660 (1939).

Additional Medical Treatment to Lessen Period of Disability. — The provision of this section that the employer should be liable for additional medical treatment to effect a cure or give relief is limited by the provision of this section to cases in which such additional medical treatment would tend to lessen the period of the employee's disability, and the discretionary power to award such additional medical treatment is also subject to this limitation; nor may liability for medical attention be extended upon the ground that public policy demands that the care of a permanently disabled employee should not be cast upon the State, the extent of liability under the act being definitely prescribed by its provisions. Millwood v. Firestone Cotton Mills, 215 N. C. 519, 2 S. E. (2d) 660 (1939).

Relaxation of Rule as to Fees for Practical Nursing.—Industrial Commission was not entitled to relax its rule that fees for practical nursing would not be allowed unless written authority was obtained from Commission in advance, so as to award mother of injured employee an amount for practical nursing services rendered to injured employee, where record showed that Commission never gave its written or oral permission for rendition of services. Hatchett v. Hitchcock Corp., 240 N. C. 591, 83 S. E. (2d) 539 (1954).

Appeal from Approval of Medical Bills. —When the Commission approves claimant's medical, etc., bills, defendant then has a right on appeal to challenge the action of the Commission in respect to the bills approved by it, in whole or in part, if it deems it advisable to do so. Bass v. Mecklenburg County, 258 N. C. 226, 128 S. E. (2d) 570 (1962).

§ 97-26. Liability for medical treatment measured by average cost in community; malpractice of physician.—The pecuniary liability of the employer for medical, surgical, hospital service, nursing services, medicines, sick travel or other treatment required when ordered by the Commission, shall be limited to such charges as prevail in the same community for similar treatment of injured persons of a like standard of living when such treatment is paid for by the injured person, and the employer shall not be liable in damages for malpractice by a physician or surgeon furnished by him pursuant to the provisions of this section, but the consequences of any such malpractice shall be deemed part of the injury resulting from the accident, and shall be compensated for as such. (1929, c. 120, s. 26; 1955, c. 1026, s. 3.)

Editor's Note.—The 1955 amendment inserted near the beginning of the section “nursing services, medicines, sick travel.”

Approval of Bills Where Liability for Medical Care Voluntarily Incurred by Employer.—When liability for the medical care of an employee who has suffered an accident is voluntarily incurred by the employer, the bills therefor must be approved by the Commission before the employer can demand reimbursement from its insurance carrier. In this manner such expenditures are kept within the schedule of fees and charges adopted by the Commission. Biddix v. Rex Mills, Inc., 237 N. C. 660, 75 S. E. (2d) 777 (1953).

Injury or suffering sustained by employee in consequence of malpractice of a physician or surgeon furnished by the employer or carrier is not ground for an independent action; under this section it is a constituent element of the employee's injury for which he is entitled to compensation. In such event the employer and the carrier are primarily liable and the question of secondary liability is eliminated. Hoover v. Globe Indemnity Co., 202 N. C. 655, 163 S. E. 758 (1932).

As to independent suit by physician against employee to recover for medical services, see notes to §§ 97-90, 97-91.

§ 97-27. Medical examination; facts not privileged; refusal to be examined suspends compensation; autopsy.—(a) After an injury, and so long as he claims compensation, the employee, if so requested by his employer or ordered by the Industrial Commission, shall, subject to the provisions of subsection (b), submit himself to examination, at reasonable times and places, by a duly qualified physician or surgeon designated and paid by the employer or the Industrial Commission. The employee shall have the right to have present at such examination any duly qualified physician or surgeon provided and paid by him. No fact communicated to or otherwise learned by any physician or surgeon who may have attended or examined the employee, or who may have been present at any examination, shall be privileged, either in hearings provided for by this article or any action at law brought to recover damages against any employer who may have accepted the compensation provisions of this article. If the employee refuses to submit himself to or in any way obstructs such examination requested by and provided for by the employer, his right to compensation and his right to take or prosecute any proceedings under this article shall be suspended until such refusal or objection ceases, and no compensation shall at any time be payable for the period of obstruction, unless in the opinion of the Industrial Commission the circumstances justify the refusal or obstruction. The employer, or the Industrial Commission, shall have the right in any case of death to require an autopsy at the expense of the party requesting the same.

(b) In those cases arising under this article in which there is a question as to the percentage of permanent disability suffered by an employee, if any employee, required to submit to a physical examination under the provisions of subsection (a) is dissatisfied with such examination or the report thereof, he shall be entitled to have another examination by a duly qualified physician or surgeon licensed and practicing in North Carolina designated by him and paid by the employer or the Industrial Commission in the same manner as physicians designated by the employer or the Industrial Commission are paid. Provided, however, that all travel expenses incurred in obtaining said examination shall be paid by said employee. The employer shall have the right to have present at such examination a duly qualified physician or surgeon provided and paid by him. No fact communicated to or otherwise learned by any physician or surgeon who may have attended or examined the employee, or who may have been present at any examination, shall be privileged, either in hearings provided for by this article or any action at law. (1929, c. 120, s. 27; 1959, c. 732.)

Editor's Note.—The 1959 amendment designated the former section as (a), inserted near the beginning thereof “subject to the provisions of subsection (b),” and added subsection (b).

Analysis of Blood Taken from Body after Death.—The percentage of alcohol in the blood stream of a deceased employee, determined by chemical analysis of a sample of blood taken from his body shortly after death, was competent evidence on the question of intoxication. Osborne v. Colonial Ice Co., 249 N. C. 387, 108 S. E. (2d) 573 (1959).

§ 97-28. Seven-day waiting period; exceptions. — No compensation shall be allowed for the first seven calendar days of disability resulting from an injury, except the benefits provided in § 97-25. Provided however, that in the case the injury results in disability of more than twenty-eight (28) days, the compensation shall be allowed from the date of the disability. (1929, c. 120, s. 28.)

§ 97-29. Compensation rates for total incapacity.—Except as hereinafter otherwise provided, where the incapacity for work resulting from the injury is total, the employer shall pay or cause to be paid, as hereinafter provided, to the injured employee during such total disability a weekly compensation equal to sixty per cent of his average weekly wages, but not more than thirty-seven dollars and fifty cents ($37.50), nor less than ten dollars per week during not more than four hundred weeks from the date of the injury, provided that the total amount of compensation paid shall not exceed twelve thousand dollars.

In cases in which total and permanent disability results from paralysis resulting from an injury to the brain or spinal cord or from loss of mental capacity resulting from an injury to the brain, compensation, including reasonable and necessary nursing services, medicines, sick travel, medical, hospital, and other treatment or care shall be paid during the life of the injured employee, without regard to the four hundred weeks limited herein or to the twelve thousand dollars maximum compensation under this article. In all such cases, however, if death results from the injury and within three hundred and fifty weeks from the date of accident and before the compensation paid totals twelve thousand dollars, then compensation shall be paid for the remainder of the three hundred and fifty week period or until the full twelve thousand dollars, including the four hundred dollar funeral benefit, shall have been paid, whichever is sooner, as in any other death case.

The weekly compensation payment for members of the North Carolina National Guard and the North Carolina State Guard shall be the maximum amount of thirty-seven dollars and fifty cents ($37.50) per week as fixed herein. The weekly

Compensation payment for deputy sheriffs, or those acting in the capacity of deputy sheriffs, who serve upon a fee basis, shall be ten dollars a week as fixed herein, provided that the last sentence herein shall not apply to Ashe, Avery, Bladen, Carteret, Caswell, Cherokee, Gates, Hyde, Macon, Pender, Perquimans, Union, Watauga, and Wilkes counties.

An officer or member of the State Highway Patrol shall not be awarded any weekly compensation under the provisions of this section for the first two years of any incapacity resulting from an injury by accident arising out of and in the course of the performance by him of his official duties if, during such incapacity, he continues to be an officer or member of the State Highway Patrol, but he shall be awarded any other benefits to which he may be entitled under the provisions of this article. (1929, c. 120, s. 29; 1939, s. 277, s. 1; 1943, c. 502, s. 3; c. 543; c. 672, s. 2; 1945, c. 766; 1947, c. 823; 1949, c. 1017; 1951, c. 70, s. 1; 1953, c. 1135, s. 1; c. 1195, s. 2; 1955, c. 1026, s. 5; 1957, c. 1217; 1963, c. 604, s. 1.)

Editor’s Note.—The 1947 amendment made changes in the first paragraph and inserted the second paragraph, which was rewritten by the 1949 amendment.

The 1951 amendment increased the amounts in the first and third paragraphs.

The first 1953 amendment rewrote the first three paragraphs and made this section applicable to brain injury cases. The second 1953 amendment added the last paragraph.

The 1955 amendment increased the compensation rates in the first three paragraphs and inserted in the second paragraph “nursing services, medicines, sick travel.”

The 1957 amendment substituted “thirty-five dollars ($35.00)” for “thirty-two dollars and fifty cents” in the first and third paragraphs.

The 1963 amendment, effective July 1, 1963, substituted “thirty-seven dollars and fifty cents ($37.50)” for “thirty-five dollars ($35.00)” in the first and third paragraphs. It also substituted “twelve thousand dollars” for “ten thousand dollars” in the first and second paragraphs.

For a discussion of this section, see 8 N. C. Law Rev. 427. For comment on the 1943 amendments, see 21 N. C. Law Rev. 384. As to the 1949 amendment, see 27 N. C. Law Rev. 495. For a discussion of the increase in allowable recovery by the 1951 amendment, see 29 N. C. Law Rev. 428.

Limitation on Total Compensation Applies to Compensation for Disfigurement.—Compensation which was awarded claimant for temporary total disability, loss of one eye and partial loss of another, and for serious facial disfigurement amounted to $5,441.71. He was also entitled to compensation for injury to his hand, but the Commission limited this to an amount small enough not to make the total amount payable exceed $6,000. Plaintiff appealed on the grounds that § 97-31 excluded compensation for facial disfigurement from the limitation referred to in this section. It was held that § 97-31 excluded the compensation for disfigurement from the weekly compensation payments but is subject to the limitation upon the total amount of compensation payable under the act. Arp v. Wood & Co., 207 N. C. 41, 175 S. E. 719 (1934), decided before the passage of the amendments to this section which increased the maximum total compensation from $6,000 to $12,000 and the 1943 amendment to § 97-31, which rewrote that section.

There is no maximum award where there is permanent disability due to injury to spinal cord. Baldwin v. Amazon Cotton Mills, 253 N. C. 740, 117 S. E. (2d) 718 (1961).

Presumption of Duration of Disability.—The Supreme Court has held that “if an award is made, payable during disability, and there is a presumption that disability lasts until the employee returns to work, there is likewise a presumption that disability ended when the employee returned to work.” Tucker v. Lowdermilk, 233 N. C. 185, 63 S. E. (2d) 109 (1950).

§ 97-30. Partial incapacity.—Except as otherwise provided in § 97-31, where the incapacity for work resulting from the injury is partial, the employer shall pay, or cause to be paid, as hereinafter provided, to the injured employee during such disability, a weekly compensation equal to 60 per centum of the difference between his average weekly wages before the injury and the average weekly wages which he is able to earn thereafter, but not more than thirty-seven dollars and fifty cents ($37.50) a week, and in no case shall the period covered by such compensation be greater than three hundred weeks from the date of injury. In case the partial disability begins after a period of total disability, the latter period shall be deducted from the maximum period herein allowed for partial disability. An officer or member of the State Highway Patrol shall not be awarded any weekly compensation under the provisions of this section for the first two years of any incapacity resulting from an injury by accident arising out of and in the course of the performance by him of his official duties if, during such incapacity, he continues to be an officer or member of the State Highway Patrol. but he shall be awarded any other benefits to which he may be entitled under the provisions of this article. (1929, c. 120, s. 30; 1943, c. 502, s. 4; 1947, c. 823; 1951, c. 70, s. 2; 1953, c. 1195, s. 3; 1955, c. 1026, s. 6; 1957, c. 1217; 1963, c. 604, s. 2.)

Cross Reference.—As to credits, see § 97-42.

Editor’s Note.—The 1943 amendment increased the maximum weekly compensation from eighteen to twenty-one dollars, the 1947 amendment increased it to twenty-four dollars and the 1951 amendment increased it to thirty dollars.

The 1953 amendment added the last sentence.

The 1955 amendment increased the maximum weekly compensation to thirty-two dollars and fifty cents, the 1957 amendment increased it to thirty-five dollars and the 1963 amendment, effective July 1, 1963, increased it to thirty-seven dollars and fifty cents.

For comment on the 1943 amendment, see 21 N. C. Law Rev. 384.

The Workmen’s Compensation Act is only intended to furnish compensation for loss of earning capacity. Without such loss there is no provision for compensation in this section, although even permanent physical injury may have been suffered. Branham v. Denny Roll, etc., Co., 223 N. C. 233, 25 S. E. (2d) 865 (1943).

Test of Earning Capacity.—Under the act wages earned, or the capacity to earn wages, is the test of earning capacity, or, to state it differently, the diminution of the power or capacity to earn is the measure of compensability. Branham v. Denny Roll, etc., Co., 223 N. C. 233, 25 S. E. (2d) 865 (1943), where claimant, who was found to have suffered one-third “general partial disability” due to back injury, returned to lighter work but was paid the same wage as before the injury, and the Supreme Court rejected his contention that he was unable to work as he had before the injury and was thus entitled to compensation although still receiving the same wage. (The 1955 amendment to § 97-31 made back injuries compensable as specific disabilities under that section. See § 97-31 (23).—Ed. note.)

In Dail v. Kellex Corp., 233 N. C. 446, 64 S. E. (2d) 438 (1951), the court said, “The disability of an employee ... is to be measured by his capacity or incapacity to earn the wages he was receiving at the time of the injury .... Loss of earning capacity is the criterion.”

And in Hill v. DuRose, 234 N. C. 446, 67 S. E. (2d) 371 (1951), the court said, “Compensation must be based upon loss of wage-earning power rather than the amount actually received.” See Evans v. Asheville Citizens Times Co., 246 N. C. 669, 100 S. E. (2d) 75 (1957).

Where Employee Returns to Work at Higher Wages.—Employee was receiving compensation under this section for permanent partial disability resulting from injury to his back. He obtained a new job in which he earned more than he was earning at the time of injury. His physical condition remained unchanged. The Supreme Court held that he had undergone a change of condition within the meaning of § 97-47 justifying a modification of the award and reduction of the compensation payable. Smith v. Swift & Co., 212 N. C. 608, 194 S. E. 106 (1937). (The 1955 amendment to § 97-31 made back injuries compensable as specific disabilities under that section. See § 97-31 (23).—Ed. note.)

Rule XVI now expresses the policy of the Commission adopted and followed since the decision in the above case. In Tucker v. Lowdermilk, 233 N. C. 185, 63 S. E. (2d) 109 (1951), the Supreme Court said, “... if ... there is a presumption that disability lasts until the employee returns to work, there is likewise a presumption that disability ended when the employee returned to work.” The court did not deny the validity of the Commission’s Rule XVI and the policy embodied therein, but it did not specifically rule upon this point.

Injuries Also Entitling to Compensation under § 97-31.—An employee sustained injuries resulting in disability of a general nature such as would entitle him to compensation under this section. In addition to such injuries, he had also sustained injuries of a specific nature such as to entitle him to compensation under § 97-31. He is entitled to compensation for the specific injuries under § 97-31, and then, if still disabled as a result of the other injuries, compensation will be paid under this section. Morgan v. Norwood, 211 N. C. 600, 191 S. E. 345 (1937).

Award for Partial Disability Not Increased to Compensation of Total Disability.—When an award has been entered for total disability for a certain length of time, and for partial disability thereafter for a total of three hundred weeks under this section, the Industrial Commission may not increase the award of compensation to that allowed for total disability, upon its finding that at the time of the review of the award claimant’s condition was unchanged and that he was at the time only 50 per cent disabled. Murray v. Nebel Knitting Co., 214 N. C. 437, 199 S. E. 609 (1938), distinguishing Smith v. Swift & Co., 212 N. C. 608, 194 S. E. 106 (1937). See § 97-47 and note.

Retention of Jurisdiction by Commission.—Where an employee suffered a general partial disability, but continued to receive the same wages, which amounted to more than the assessable compensation for his injury, he could not receive additional compensation. But to protect the employee against the possibility that the employer might, after the expiration of 12 months (§ 97-24), discontinue the employment and thus defeat the rights of the employee, the Commission, after finding the existence of the disability, directed that an award issue subject to specified limitations. It directed compensation at the statutory rate “at any time it is shown that the claimant is earning less,” etc., during the statutory period of 300 weeks. By this order the Commission, in effect, retained jurisdiction for future adjustments. In so doing it did not exceed its authority. Branham v. Denny Roll, etc., Co., 223 N. C. 233, 25 S. E. (2d) 865 (1943).

An award also containing a provision by which the Commission sought to retain jurisdiction during 300 weeks so that claimant might be paid more compensation if he had a wage loss as a result of his injury within that time was held to be error by the Supreme Court, which said, “There is nothing in the statute, G. S. Chap. 97, that contemplates or authorizes an anticipatory finding by the Commission that a physical impairment may develop into a compensable disability. Neither does the statute vest in the Commission the power to retain jurisdiction of a claim, after compensation has been awarded, merely because some physical impairment suffered by the claimant may, at some time in the future, cause a loss of wages. The Commission is concerned with conditions existing prior to and at the time of the hearing. If such conditions change in the future, to the detriment of the claimant, the statute affords the claimant a remedy and fixes the time within which he must seek it. G. S. 97-47."

In Harris v. Asheville Contracting Co., 240 N. C. 715, 83 S. E. (2d) 802 (1954), the court again stated that the Commission was without jurisdiction to retain jurisdiction for 300 weeks. Branham v. Denny Roll, etc., Co., 223 N. C. 233, 25 S. E. (2d) 865 (1943), was distinguished.

§ 97-31. Schedule of injuries; rate and period of compensation.—In cases included by the following schedule the compensation in each case shall be paid for disability during the healing period and in addition the disability shall be deemed to continue for the periods specified, and shall be in lieu of all other compensation, including disfigurement, to wit:

(1) For the loss of a thumb, sixty per centum of the average weekly wages during sixty-five weeks.

(2) For the loss of a first finger, commonly called the index finger, sixty per centum of the average weekly wages during forty weeks.

(3) For the loss of a second finger, sixty per centum of the average weekly wages during thirty-five weeks.

(4) For the loss of a third finger, sixty per centum of the average weekly wages during twenty-two weeks.

(5) For the loss of a fourth finger, commonly called the little finger, sixty per centum of the average weekly wages during sixteen weeks.

(6) The loss of the first phalange of the thumb or any finger shall be considered to be equal to the loss of one half of such thumb or finger, and the compensation shall be for one half of the periods of time above specified.

(7) The loss of more than one phalange shall be considered the loss of the entire finger or thumb: Provided, however, that in no case shall the amount received for more than one finger exceed the amount provided in this schedule for the loss of a hand.

(8) For the loss of a great toe, sixty per centum of the average weekly wages during thirty-five weeks.

(9) For the loss of one of the toes other than a great toe, sixty per centum of the average weekly wages during ten weeks.

(10) The loss of the first phalange of any toe shall be considered to be equal to the loss of one half of such toe, and the compensation shall be for one half of the periods of time above specified.

(11) The loss of more than one phalange shall be considered as the loss of the entire toe.

(12) For the loss of a hand, sixty per centum of the average weekly wages during one hundred and seventy weeks.

(13) For the loss of an arm, sixty per centum of the average weekly wages during two hundred and twenty weeks.

(14) For the loss of a foot, sixty per centum of the average weekly wages during one hundred and forty-four weeks.

(15) For the loss of a leg, sixty per centum of the average weekly wages during two hundred weeks.

(17) The loss of both hands, or both arms, or both feet, or both legs, or both eyes, or any two thereof, shall constitute total and permanent disability, to be compensated according to the provisions of § 97-29.
(18) For the complete loss of hearing in one ear, sixty per centum of the average weekly wages during seventy weeks; for the complete loss of hearing in both ears, sixty per centum of the average weekly wages during one hundred and fifty weeks.

(19) Total loss of use of a member or loss of vision of an eye shall be considered as equivalent to the loss of such member or eye. The compensation for partial loss of or for partial loss of use of a member or for partial loss of vision of an eye or for partial loss of hearing shall be such proportion of the periods of payment above provided for total loss as such partial loss bears to total loss, except that in cases where there is eighty-five per centum, or more, loss of vision in any eye, this shall be deemed "industrial blindness" and compensated as for total loss of vision of such eye.

(20) The weekly compensation payments referred to in this section shall all be subject to the same limitations as to maximum and minimum as set out in § 97-29.

(21) In case of serious facial or head disfigurement, the Industrial Commission shall award proper and equitable compensation not to exceed three thousand five hundred dollars. In case of enucleation where an artificial eye cannot be fitted and used, the Industrial Commission may award compensation as for serious facial disfigurement.

(22) In case of serious bodily disfigurement for which no compensation is payable under any other subdivision of this section, but excluding the disfigurement resulting from permanent loss or permanent partial loss of use of any member of the body for which compensation is fixed in the schedule contained in this section, the Industrial Commission may award proper and equitable compensation not to exceed three thousand and five hundred dollars ($3,500.00).

(23) For the total loss of use of the back, sixty per centum (60%) of the average weekly wages during 300 weeks. The compensation for partial loss of use of the back shall be such proportion of the periods of payment herein provided for total loss as such partial loss bears to total loss, except that in cases where there is seventy-five per centum (75%) or more loss of use of the back, in which event the injured employee shall be deemed to have suffered "total industrial disability" and compensated as for total loss of use of the back.

(24) In case of the loss of or permanent injury to any important external or internal organ or part of the body for which no compensation is payable under any other subdivision of this section, the Industrial Commission may award proper and equitable compensation not to exceed three thousand five hundred dollars ($3,500.00). (1929, c. 120, s. 31; 1931, c. 164; 1943, c. 502, s. 2; 1955, c. 1026, s. 7; 1957, c. 1221; c. 1396, ss. 2, 3; 1963, c. 424, ss. 1, 2.)

Cross Reference.—As to necessity of showing disability when injury is not within schedule of this section, see note to § 97-2.

Editor's Note. — The 1931 amendment added a proviso making the loss or serious or permanent injury to any member or organ of the body, not provided for, disfigurement, in an apparent effort to meet the decisions in the case of Henninger v. Industrial Commission, 1 N. C. I. C. 3; Porter v. Jennings Cotton Mills, 1 N. C. I. C. 218. See 8 N. C. Law Rev. 423; 9 N. C. Law Rev. 405.
The second 1957 amendment substituted in subdivisions (19) and (23) "periods of payment" for "payments."

The 1963 amendment, effective July 1, 1963, made changes in subdivision (22) and added subdivision (24).

Many of the cases in this note construe the section as it read prior to the 1943 amendment.

Former Enumeration of Total Permanent Disabilities Was Not Exclusive.—The fact that subdivision (19) of this section formerly stated that certain injuries should be deemed permanent and total disabilities did not mean that permanent and total disabilities could be found only in those cases enumerated, but that such injuries were conclusively presumed to be permanent total disabilities, and the Commission should so find. Stanley v. Hyman-Michaels Co., 222 N. C. 257, 22 S. E. (2d) 570 (1942).

Provisions Are Mandatory. — The language of this section is clear, and its provisions are mandatory, and the Commission is without authority to deny the compensation for which it provides on the ground the employee is earning as much as he was earning before the injury. Watts v. Brewer, 243 N. C. 422, 90 S. E. (2d) 764 (1956).

Meaning of "Shall Be Deemed."—The words "shall be deemed," as used in the opening paragraph of this section, mean "shall be held," "shall be adjudged," "shall be determined," "shall be treated as if," "shall be construed." Watts v. Brewer, 243 N. C. 422, 90 S. E. (2d) 764 (1956).

Specific Disability Following Temporary Total Disability. — Where claimant suffers an injury that results in temporary total disability followed by a specific disability compensable under this section, compensation for specific disability is payable in addition to that awarded for temporary total disability. Rice v. Denny Roll & Panel Co., 199 N. C. 154, 154 S. E. 69 (1930).

Amount Awarded for Loss of Vision.—Under this section a workman who suffers a total loss of an eye is entitled to 60% of his average weekly wages during 120 weeks in addition to the compensation paid during the healing period. If, however, the injury produces only a partial loss of vision, he is entitled to receive that portion of the compensation provided in subdivision (16) that the percentage of loss of vision bears to a total loss. Watts v. Brewer, 243 N. C. 422, 90 S. E. (2d) 764 (1956).

In case of the loss of an eye the Commission must conclusively presume and acjudge that the disability resulting therefrom continued or will continue for 120 weeks beyond the healing period. Watts v. Brewer, 243 N. C. 422, 90 S. E. (2d) 764 (1956).

For note as to eye injuries and loss of vision, see 32 N. C. Law Rev. 443.

"Total Loss" of Vision.—Prior to 1943, "total loss" of vision was taken in its ordinary meaning, that being "total destruction" of vision. Logan v. Johnson, 218 N. C. 200, 10 S. E. (2d) 653 (1940). By the 1943 amendment to this section "total loss" was enlarged to include "industrial blindness", which is 85% or more loss of vision in one eye. See Withers v. Black, 230 N. C. 428, 53 S. E. (2d) 668 (1949).

Loss of 85% of Vision of Each Eye.—Upon evidence showing that claimant had suffered permanent loss of 85% of the vision of each eye, it was held that, under the 1943 amendment to this section, an award for permanent and total loss of vision of each eye was proper. Withers v. Black, 230 N. C. 428, 53 S. E. (2d) 668 (1949).

Prior to the 1943 amendment it was held that the phrase "total ... loss of vision of an eye" in prescribing the amount of compensation to be allowed therefor, meant the total destruction of the vision of the eye as distinguished from the partial loss of such vision. Logan v. Johnson, 218 N. C. 200, 10 S. E. (2d) 653 (1940).

Prior Astigmatism Not Barring Recovery.—In Schrum v Catawba Upholstering Co., 214 N. C. 353, 199 S. E. 385 (1939), claimant was held entitled to full compensation for total loss of vision of an eye by this section. It was held error to first deduct forty per cent loss due to astigmatism and award claimant only sixty per cent of the amount recoverable for total loss of vision, and this result was not altered by § 97-33.

Effect of 1957 Amendment to Subsection (19).—Before the 1957 amendment to subsection (19) of this section an award for partial disability was to be based on a percentage of the weekly wage for the entire period rather than a percentage of the number of weekly payments. Kellams v. Carolina Metal Products, Inc., 248 N. C. 199, 102 S. E. (2d) 841 (1958).

Award for Partial Disability under Subsection (19) Is Subject to Minimum Provided in § 97-29. —Under the provisions of subsection (20) of this section, awards for partial loss or partial loss of use of a member under subsection (19) were subject to the minimum fixed in § 97-29 in like manner as awards for total disability, and therefore the weekly payments of an award for partial disability should not have been less than the minimum fixed by § 97-29. Kellams v. Carolina Metal Products, Inc., 248 N. C. 199, 102 S. E. (2d) 841 (1958).

Award for 75% Impairment of Use of Left Hand Upheld.—See Friddlemore v. McCrary, 248 N. C. 544, 96 S. E. (2d) 843 (1957).

Provision as to Bodily Disfigurement Is Constitutional.—This section, authorizing the Industrial Commission to award compensation for bodily disfigurement, is sufficiently certain and prescribes the standard for the computation of an award thereunder with sufficient definiteness, and the provision is valid and constitutional and not void as a delegation of legislative power in contravention of Art. I, § 8 of the State Constitution. Baxter v. Arthur Co., 216 N. C. 276, 4 S. E. (2d) 621 (1938).

The statute makes it mandatory on the Commission to award proper and equitable compensation in case of serious facial or head disfigurement. This is not the case in regard to disfigurement of other parts of the body. Stanley v. Hyman-Michaels Co., 222 N. C. 257, 22 S. E. (2d) 570 (1942); Davis v. Sanford Constr. Co., 247 N. C. 332, 101 S. E. (2d) 40 (1957).

Provisions as to Disfigurement Are Not Invalid for Failure to Provide Guide or Standard.—The fact that there exists a board area in which the judgment of the Commission with reference to the particular factual situation is determinative does not invalidate the statutory provision on the ground of failure to provide an intelligible guide or standard for the award of compensation for serious disfigurement causing impairment of future earning power. Davis v. Sanford Constr. Co., 247 N. C. 332, 101 S. E. (2d) 40 (1957).

There is a serious disfigurement in law only when there is a serious disfigurement in fact. A serious disfigurement in fact is a disfigurement that mars and hence adversely affects the appearance of the injured employee to such extent that it may be reasonably presumed to lessen his opportunities for remunerative employ-mission had authority to award compensation for facial and bodily disfigurement, in this case resulting from scar tissue from burns, and to award compensation for partial loss of the use of the arm resulting from such scar tissue, when such awards were supported by competent evidence, provided the award for the disfigurement did not exceed the $3,500 maximum provided by the act, and provided that the aggregate of all awards did not exceed the maximum total compensation prescribed by § 97-29. Baxter v. Arthur Co., 216 N. C. 275, 4 S. E. (2d) 621 (1939), See Stanley v. Hyman-Michaels Co., 222 N. C. 257, 22 S. E. (2d) 570 (1942), and note the effect of the 1943 amendment.

Loss of or Permanent Injury to Important Organ of Body.—Under subdivision (22) of this section as it stood before the 1957 amendment, “the loss or permanent injury to any important organ of the body for which no compensation is payable under the preceding subsections” would be the basis for a separate award only if it resulted in “serious bodily disfigurement.” Such loss or permanent injury to an important organ of the body was not something different from or in addition to “serious bodily disfigurement” but rather, as indicated by the word “including,” an instance of what might constitute “serious bodily disfigurement.” Davis v. Sanford Constr. Co., 247 N. C. 332, 101 S. E. (2d) 40 (1957).

Loss of or Permanent Injury to Important Organ of Face or Head.—While subdivision (21) does not refer in express terms to the loss of or permanent injury to any important organ of the face or head, such loss, if in fact a “serious facial or head disfigurement,” is compensable thereunder. Davis v. Sanford Constr. Co., 247 N. C. 332, 101 S. E. (2d) 40 (1957).

Loss of Front Teeth.—If the loss of two upper front teeth constitutes serious disfigurement within the meaning of this section, it would be a “serious facial or head disfigurement” compensable under subdivision (21) rather than a “serious bodily disfigurement” compensable under subdivision (22). In such case, plaintiff would be entitled under (21) to an award as a matter of right. Davis v. Sanford Constr. Co., 247 N. C. 532, 101 S. E. (2d) 40 (1957), construing the former statute.

Whether an injured employee has suffered a “serious facial or head disfigurement” in the loss of two upper front teeth is a question of fact to be determined by the Commission, after taking into consideration the factors involved, in relation to whether it may be fairly presumed to cause a diminution of his future earning power. Davis v. Sanford Constr. Co., 247 N. C. 332, 101 S. E. (2d) 40 (1957).

§ 97-32. Refusal of injured employee to accept suitable employment as suspending compensation.—If an injured employee refuses employment procured for him suitable to his capacity he shall not be entitled to any compensation at any time during the continuance of such refusal, unless in the opinion of the Industrial Commission such refusal was justified. (1929, c. 120, s. 32.)

The purpose of this section is to guard against the possibility that an injured employee may refuse to work, when, in fact, he is able to work and earn wages, and thus increase or attempt to increase the amount of his compensation. Branham v. Denny Roll, etc., Co., 223 N. C. 238, 25 S. E. (2d) 865 (1943).

§ 97-33. Prorating permanent disability received in other employment.—If any employee has a permanent disability or has sustained a permanent

§ 97-34. Employee receiving an injury when being compensated for former injury.—If an employee receives an injury for which compensation is payable, while he is still receiving or entitled to compensation for a previous injury in the same employment, he shall not at the same time be entitled to compensation for both injuries, unless the later injury be a permanent injury such as specified in § 97-31; but he shall be entitled to compensation for that injury and from the time of that injury which will cover the longest period and the largest amount payable under this article. (1929, c. 120, s. 34.)

§ 97-35. How compensation paid for two injuries; employer liable only for subsequent injury.—If any employee receives a permanent injury as specified in § 97-31 after having sustained another permanent injury in the same employment, he shall be entitled to compensation for both injuries, but the total compensation shall be paid by extending the period and not by increasing the amount of weekly compensation, and in no case exceeding five hundred weeks.

If an employee has previously incurred permanent partial disability through the loss of a hand, arm, foot, leg, or eye, and by subsequent accident incurs total permanent disability through the loss of another member, the employer’s liability is for the subsequent injury only. (1929, c. 120, s. 35.)

Cross Reference.—As to additional payments to be made out of the second injury fund in certain hardship cases, see § 97-40.1.

§ 97-36. Accidents taking place outside State; employee receiving compensation from another state.—Where an accident happens while the employee is employed elsewhere than in this State which would entitle him or his dependents to compensation if it had happened in this State, the employee or his dependents shall be entitled to compensation, if the contract of employment was made in this State, if the employer’s place of business is in this State; provided his contract of employment was not expressly for service exclusively outside of the State; provided, however, if an employee shall receive compensation or damages under the laws of any other state nothing herein contained shall be construed so as to permit a total compensation for the same injury greater than is provided for in this article. (1929, c. 120, s. 36; 1963, c. 450, s. 2.)

Editor’s Note.—The 1963 amendment deleted the words “and if ‘the residence of the employee is in this State” formerly appearing immediately before the first proviso in this section.

For a discussion of this section, see 8 N. C. Law Rev. 427.

For note on the application of full faith and credit to workmen’s compensation statutes and awards, see 34 N. C. Law Rev. 501.

Exclusion of Nonresident Employees Involves No Unconstitutional Discrimination.—The provision of the Workmen’s Compensation Act excluding from its coverage nonresident employers involves no unconstitutional discrimination, the inadvisability of attempting to give the act extraterritorial effect being a sufficient basis for the provision. Reaves v. Earle-Chesterfield Mill Co., 216 N. C. 462, 5 S. E. (2d) 305 (1939).

When the contract of employment is for services to be rendered exclusively outside the State and such services in fact are performed in their entirety elsewhere than in this State this chapter has no application. Mallard v. Bohannon, 221 N. C. 227, 19 S. E. (2d) 880 (1942).

Deceased employee, a resident of North
North Carolina, was hired as a salesman for Georgia and Florida territory under an oral contract with defendant's assistant sales manager but the latter had given the employee to understand that he would be transferred to North Carolina in accordance with his wish when a vacancy occurred there. The employee was killed in the scope of his employment in Georgia. On the first hearing the Supreme Court held, three justices dissenting, that the Commission was justified in finding that the contract contemplated service within the State under some circumstances, i. e., that the company could have transferred him to North Carolina under the contract and not in modification of it, therefore the North Carolina act was applicable. Mallard v. Bohannon, 220 N. C. 536, 18 S. E. (2d) 189 (1942). On rehearing after a change in the membership of the court, it was held, in accord with the previous dissent, that the evidence showed employment limited to Georgia and Florida, where and only where he could represent his employer, and that mere expectancy of a change in the contract by subsequent transfer to North Carolina did not bring the employment under the act. Mallard v. Bohannon, 221 N. C. 227, 19 S. E. (2d) 880 (1942).

Concurrence of Three Factors Formerly Requisite for Jurisdiction.—Prior to the 1963 amendment, in order to give the Industrial Commission jurisdiction of the rights of the parties arising out of an injury received by the employee while out of the State, it must appear that the contract of employment was made in this State, that the employee's place of business was in this State, and that the residence of the employee was in this State, and the concurrence of all three facts was requisite to its jurisdiction of such injury. Reaves v. Earle-Chesterfield Mill Co., 216 N. C. 462, 5 S. E. (2d) 305 (1939); Mallard v. Bohannon, 220 N. C. 536, 18 S. E. (2d) 189 (1942), 221 N. C. 227, 19 S. E. (2d) 880 (1942); Aylor v. Barnes, 242 N. C. 223, 87 S. E. (2d) 269 (1955); Suggs v. Williamson Truck Lines, 253 N. C. 148, 116 S. E. (2d) 359 (1960).

Where the accident, resulting in an employee's death, occurs in another state, but the contract of employment was made in this State between the resident employee and the resident employer, and the contract of employment is not expressly for services exclusively outside of the State, the North Carolina Industrial Commission has jurisdiction. McGill v. Bison Fast Freight, Inc., 245 N. C. 469, 96 S. E. (2d) 438 (1957).

Jurisdiction Cannot Be Conferred by Consent or Waiver.—In view of the three concurrent requirements of this section prior to the 1963 amendment, an injury outside the State to an employee resident without the State was not then compensable under the act and the North Carolina Industrial Commission had no jurisdiction to make an award or approve or enforce a settlement in such case. Jurisdiction cannot be conferred by consent or waiver, as by making payments under the supposed award. (It is intimated that the terms of the award pursuant to agreement might be the basis of a suit in contract, and one judge thought the rights thus created should be enforceable in this action.) Reaves v. Earle-Chesterfield Mill Co., 216 N. C. 462, 5 S. E. (2d) 305 (1939).

Whether a contract is expressly for service exclusively outside the State is a question of fact for the determination of the Industrial Commission. Mallard v. Bohannon, 220 N. C. 536, 18 S. E. (2d) 189 (1942), 221 N. C. 227, 19 S. E. (2d) 880 (1942).

Burden of Proof. — Where claimant establishes the jurisdictional facts, the burden is upon the employer and the insurance carrier to show that the contract of employment was expressly for service exclusively outside the State and thus bring themselves within the first proviso of this section. Mallard v. Bohannon, 220 N. C. 536, 18 S. E. (2d) 189 (1942), 221 N. C. 227, 19 S. E. (2d) 880 (1942).

Compensation Award as Barring Recovery in Another State.—Where a Louisiana employee was injured in the course of his employment in Texas, he was free to pursue his remedy in either state, but, having chosen to seek it in Texas, where compensation award was res judicata, the "full faith and credit" clause precluded him from again seeking a remedy in Louisiana upon the same grounds. The fact that a suitor has been denied a remedy by one state because it does not afford a remedy for the particular wrong alleged may not bar recovery in another state which does provide a remedy, but a recovery cannot be had in every state which affords a remedy. Magnolia Petroleum Co. v. Hunt, 320 U. S. 430, 64 S. Ct. 208, 88 L. Ed. 149, 150 A. L. R. 413 (1943). In 28 N. C. Law Rev. 68, it is suggested that Williams v. North Carolina, 325 U. S. 226, 65 S. Ct. 1092, 89 L. Ed. 1577 (1945), might have the effect of modifying this decision.

§ 97-37. Where injured employee dies before total compensation is paid.—When an employee receives or is entitled to compensation under this article for an injury covered by § 97-31 and dies from any other cause than the injury for which he was entitled to compensation, payment of the unpaid balance of compensation shall be made: First, to the surviving whole dependents; second, to partial dependents, and, if no dependents, to the next of kin as defined in the article; if there are no whole or partial dependents or next of kin as defined in the article, then to the personal representative and Second Injury Fund as provided in the article, in lieu of the compensation the employee would have been entitled to had he lived.

Provided, however, that if the death is due to a cause that is compensable under this article, and the dependents of such employee are awarded compensation therefor, all right to unpaid compensation provided by this section shall cease and determine. (1929, c. 120, s. 37; 1947, c. 823.)

Cross Reference.—See note to § 97-29.

Editor’s Note. — Prior to the 1947 amendment the unpaid balance was paid to the employee’s next of kin dependent upon him for support.

An award inadvertently entered by the Industrial Commission after the death of the claimant on appeal from the award is irregular, but not void, and the proceedings do not abate. Butts v. Montague, 204 N. C. 389, 168 S. E. 215 (1933).

§ 97-38. Where death results proximately from the accident; dependents; burial expenses; compensation to aliens; election by partial dependents.—If death results approximately from the accident and within two years thereafter, or while total disability still continues and within six years after the accident, the employer shall pay or cause to be paid, subject to the provisions of the other sections of this article, weekly payments of compensation equal to sixty per cent (60%) of the average weekly wages of the deceased employee at the time of the accident, but not more than thirty-seven dollars and fifty cents ($37.50), nor less than ten dollars, per week for a period of three hundred and fifty weeks from the date of the accident, and burial expenses not exceeding four hundred dollars, to the person or persons entitled thereto as follows:

(2) If there is no person wholly dependent, then any person partially dependent for support upon the earnings of the deceased employee at the time of the accident shall be entitled to receive a weekly payment of compensation computed as hereinabove provided, but such weekly payment shall be the same proportion of the weekly compensation provided for a whole dependent as the amount annually contributed by the deceased employee to the support of such partial dependent bears to the annual earnings of the deceased at the time of the accident.

(3) If there is no person wholly dependent, and the person or all persons partially dependent is or are within the classes of persons defined as “next of kin” in G. S. 97-40, whether or not such persons or such classes of persons are of kin to the deceased employee in equal degree, and all so elect, he or they may take, share and share alike, the commuted value of the amount provided for whole dependents in (1) above instead of the proportional payment provided for partial dependents in (2) above; provided, that the election herein provided may be exercised on behalf of any infant partial dependent by a duly qualified guardian; provided, further, that the Industrial Commission may, in its discretion, permit a parent or person standing in loco parentis to such infant to exercise such option in its behalf, the award to be payable only to a duly qualified guardian except as in this article otherwise provided; and provided, further, that if such election is exercised by or on behalf of more than one person, then they shall take the commuted amount in equal shares.

When weekly payments have been made to an injured employee before his death, the compensation to dependents shall begin from the date of the last of such payments, but shall not continue more than 350 weeks from the date of the injury.

Compensation payable under this article to aliens not residents (or about to become nonresidents) of the United States or Canada, shall be the same in amount as provided for residents, except that dependents in any foreign country except Canada shall be limited to surviving wife and child or children, or if there be no surviving wife or child or children, to the surviving father or mother whom the employee has supported, either in whole or in part for a period of one year prior to the date of the injury; provided, that the Commission may, in its discretion, or, upon application of the employer or insurance carrier shall commute all future installments of compensation to be paid to such aliens to their present value and payment of one half (½) of such commuted amount to such aliens shall fully acquit the employer and the insurance carrier. Editor's Note.—The 1953 amendment rewrote the section as changed by the 1943, 1947 and 1951 amendments.

The 1955 amendment increased the maximum and minimum weekly payments and changed the amount allowed for burial expenses from two hundred to four hundred dollars.

The 1957 amendment substituted “thirty-five dollars ($35.00)” for “thirty-two dollars and fifty cents” in the introductory paragraph.

The 1963 amendment, effective July 1, 1963, substituted in the introductory paragraph “thirty-seven dollars and fifty cents ($37.50)” for “thirty-five dollars ($35.00).” For discussion of section, see 8 N. C. Law Rev. 427. And for comment on the 1943 amendment, see 21 N. C. Law Rev. 384. For brief comment on the 1953 amendment, see 31 N. C. Law Rev. 451.

Constitutionality. — In McPherson v. Henry Motor Sales Corp., 201 N. C. 303, 160 S. E. 283 (1931), appeal dismissed 286 U. S. 537, 53 S. Ct. 499, 76 L. Ed. 1269, the constitutionality of this section was raised. The court refused to consider the point, however, because it was not presented at the hearing before the full Commission.

Proximate Cause. — The employer is required to pay compensation for death of employee only when the death results proximately from injury by accident arising out of and in the course of employment. Gilmore v. Hoke County Board of Education, 222 N. C. 358, 23 S. E. (2d) 292 (1942).

Death from Pre-existing Heart Condition Aggravated by Injury. — Findings to the effect that the employee suffered an injury arising out of and in the course of the employment, which injury aggravated a pre-existing heart condition and caused death, will support an award for compensation and burial expenses. Wyatt v. Sharp, 239 N. C. 655, 80 S. E. (2d) 762 (1954).

Instance of Total Dependency.—Where the evidence tended to show that the mother of the deceased employee lived with him, that he had paid the rent, bought groceries and supported her for a period of years, but that for two months prior to his death she did washing and nominal services for, and stayed with, an aged bedridden person and earned $5.75 per week thereby, which she deposited in a bank or used to buy small luxuries, the fact that the mother earned small amounts of money in temporary and casual employment did not indicate any dependable source of income other than that she received from her son and the conclusion of the Industrial Commission that she was totally dependent upon her son within the meaning of the Workmen's Compensation Act was sustained. Thomas v. Raleigh Gas Co., 218 N. C. 429, 11 S. E. (2d) 297 (1940).

Finding as to Dependency Binding on Appeal.—While it may be admitted that in some instances the question of dependency may be a mixed question of fact and law, where the facts admitted or found by the Commission upon competent evidence support the conclusion of the Commission in regard thereto, its award is binding on the court. Thomas v. Raleigh Gas Co., 218 N. C. 429, 11 S. E. (2d) 297 (1940).

Election by Partial Dependents to Receive Benefits under § 97-40 — Former Law. — Before the passage of the 1953 amendments to this section and § 97-40, it was held that the right given to partial dependents who were also next of kin to elect to take as next of kin under § 97-40 applied only if the partial dependents were of equal degree. Thus it was held that the partially dependent widowed mother of a deceased employee and his partially dependent brother could not elect to take as next of kin, under § 97-40, rather than as partial dependents under this section. Parsons v. Swift & Co., 234 N. C. 580, 68 S. E. (2d) 296 (1951).

Death or Remarriage of Widow Before All Installments Paid.—This section places no limitation by way of forfeiture on compensation receivable where a widow, who has been awarded workmen's compensation for her husband's death, dies or remarries before all installments have been paid. Hill v. Cahoon, 232 N. C. 295, 113 S. E. (2d) 569 (1960).

Where a widow properly awarded compensation as the sole dependent of her deceased husband dies before all the installments of compensation have been paid, the commuted value of such future installments is properly paid to her personal representative, and the next of kin of the deceased employee, who are not dependents, are not entitled thereto. Hill v. Cahoon, 229 N. C. 295, 113 S. E. (2d) 569 (1960).

Where an employee has lost his life in the course of his employment and thereafter an award has been made by the Industrial Commission to his widow, as his sole dependent, and within a few months after the award is made his widow dies intestate, her administrator is entitled to the benefits of the award so made to her. Queen v. Champion Fibre Co., 293 N. C. 94, 164 S. E. (2d) 752 (1959).

§ 97-39. Widow, widower, or child to be conclusively presumed to be dependent; other cases determined upon facts; division of death benefits among those wholly dependent; when division among partially dependent.—A widow, a widower and/or a child shall be conclusively presumed to be wholly dependent for support upon the deceased employee. In all other cases questions of dependency, in whole or in part shall be determined in accordance with the facts as the facts may be at the time of the accident, but no allowance shall be made for any payment made in lieu of board and lodging or services, and no compensation shall be allowed unless the dependency existed for a period of three months or more prior to the accident. If there is more than one person wholly dependent, the death benefit shall be divided among them, the persons partly dependent, if any shall receive no part thereof. If there is no one wholly dependent, and more than one person partially dependent, the death benefit shall be divided among them according to the relative extent of their dependency.

The widow, widower and all children of deceased employees shall be conclusively presumed to be dependents of deceased and shall be entitled to receive the benefits of this article for the full periods specified herein (1929, c. 120, s. 39).

Editor's Note.—As to determination of the extent of the dependency of partial dependents, see 8 N. C. Law Rev. 426.

Widow or Widower Conclusively Presumed to Be Wholly Dependent.—Where deceased employee left a widower who had been living with her but was not dependent upon her for support, he is conclusively presumed to be wholly dependent. Section 97-2 (15), which provides that a widower is dependent only if he lived with his wife and was dependent upon her for support at her death, is void in so far as it conflicts with this section. Martin v. Glenwood Park Sanatorium, 200 N. C. 221, 156 S. E. 849 (1930).

The common-law wife of a deceased employee is not entitled to compensation under the provisions of this act. Reeves v. Parker-Graham-Sexton, Inc., 199 N. C. 236, 154 S. E. 66 (1930).

A woman who was living with an employee as his common-law wife at the time of his death and who was actually wholly dependent upon him for support for some years prior to his death by accident arising out of and in the course of his employment is not a dependent of the deceased employee within the purview of this section, and is not entitled to any part of the compensation payable under the provisions of the Workmen's Compensation Act. Fields v. Hollowell, 238 N. C. 614, 78 S. E. (2d) 740 (1953).

The term "in all other cases" in the connection in which it appears in this section means, in all cases other than those of widows, widowers, and children, claiming to be dependents of the deceased employee,—dependency shall be determined in accordance with the facts as the facts may be at the time of the accident. Manifestly, a woman living in cohabitation with a man, to whom she is not married, is not within the purview of the term "in all other cases." Fields v. Hollowell, 238 N. C. 614, 78 S. E. (2d) 740 (1953).

Divorce and Remarriage in Another State.—On the conflict of laws question raised where there has been a divorce and remarriage in another state, and a subsequent controversy develops as to which is the "widow," see Rice v. Rice, 336 U. S. 674, 69 S. Ct. 751, 23 L. Ed. 957 (1949); 28 N. C. Law Rev. 265, 286.

A second or subsequent marriage is presumed legal until the contrary is proved, and the burden of the issue is upon a plaintiff who attempts to establish a property right which is dependent upon the invalidity of such a marriage. The plaintiff cannot recover because of the failure of defendant to carry the burden. Kearney v. Thomas, 225 N. C. 156, 33 S. E. (2d) 871 (1945).

Illegitimate Child Acknowledged by Father.—An illegitimate child, born after the death of its father, who before his death had acknowledged his paternity of the child, is a dependent of its deceased father within the meaning of this section, and such child is entitled to share with children of its deceased father who were born of his marriage to their mother, from whom their father had been divorced prior to his death, in compensation awarded under this act to his dependents. Lippard v. Southeastern Exp. Co., 207 N. C. 507, 177 S. E. 801 (1935).

Children of employee's common-law wife who were not the children of the employee were not entitled to share compensation with employee's legal widow and their children, even though supported by the employee, since act of maintenance was voluntary and was not a legal obligation. Wilson v. Utah Constr. Co., 243 N. C. 96, 89 S. E. (2d) 864 (1955).

A child born to employee's common-law wife shortly after death of employee was not entitled to compensation where there was no evidence that employee had acknowledged the child. Wilson v. Utah Constr. Co., 243 N. C. 96, 89 S. E. (2d) 864 (1955).

Father Held Not a Dependent. — Deceased had lived at his father's home, buying food and other supplies for the house from time to time. When he was away from home, he made no contribution. The Commission's finding that the father of deceased was not a dependent was affirmed. Scott v. Auman, 209 N. C. 853, 184 S. E. 830 (1936).

§ 97-40. No compensation for death in absence of dependents; "next of kin" defined; commutation and distribution of compensation to partially dependent next of kin.—If the deceased employee leaves neither whole nor partial dependents, no compensation shall be due or payable on account of the death of the deceased employee. For purposes of G. S. 97-38, “next of kin” shall include only child, father, mother, brother or sister of the deceased employee. For all such next of kin who were partially dependent on the deceased employee but who exercised the election provided for partial dependents in G. S. 97-38, the general law applicable to the distribution of the personal estate of persons dying intestate shall not apply and such person or persons, upon the exercise of such election, shall be entitled, share and share alike, to the compensation provided in G. S. 97-38 for whole dependents commuted to its present value and paid in a lump sum. (1929, c. 120, s. 40; 1931, c. 274, s. 5; c. 319; 1945, c. 766; 1953, c. 53, s. 2; 1953, c. 1135, s. 2; 1963, c. 604, s. 4.)

Editor's Note.—The 1963 amendment, effective July 1, 1963, rewrote this section and no explanation of changes made by previous amendments is now practical.

For a discussion of the original section, see 8 N. C. Law Rev. 427.

As to the 1931 amendments, see 9 N. C. Law Rev. 406.

§ 97-40.1. Second Injury Fund.—(a) There is hereby created a fund to be known as the “Second Injury Fund,” to be held and disbursed by the Industrial Commission as hereinafter provided.

For the purpose of providing money for said fund, the Industrial Commission may assess against the employer or its insurance carrier the payment of not to exceed twenty-five dollars for the loss, or loss of use, of each minor member in every case of a permanent partial disability where there is such loss, and shall assess not to exceed one hundred dollars for fifty per cent or more loss or loss of use of each major member, defined as back, foot, leg, hand, arm, eye, or hearing.

In addition to the assessments hereinabove provided for, the Commission shall also deposit in said fund all moneys received by it for the Second Injury Fund under the provisions of G. S. 97-40.

(b) The Industrial Commission shall disburse moneys from the Second Injury Fund in unusual cases of second injuries as follows:

(1) To pay additional compensation in cases of second injuries referred to in G. S. 97-33; provided, however, that the original injury and the subsequent injury were each at least twenty per cent of the entire member; and, provided further, that such additional compensation, when added to the compensation awarded under said section, shall not exceed the amount which would have been payable for both injuries had both been sustained in the subsequent accident.

(2) To pay additional compensation to an injured employee who has sustained permanent total disability in the manner referred to in the second paragraph of G. S. 97-35, which shall be in addition to the compensation awarded under said section; provided, however, that such additional compensation, when added to the compensation awarded under said section, shall not exceed the compensation for permanent total disability as provided for in G. S. 97-29.

(3) To pay compensation and medical expense in cases of permanent and total disability resulting from an injury to the brain or spinal cord in the manner and to the extent hereinafter provided.

The additional compensation and treatment expenses herein provided for shall be paid out of the Second Injury Fund exclusively and only to the extent to which the assets of such fund shall permit.

(c) In addition to payments for the purposes hereinafter set forth, the Indus-
§ 97-41. Total compensation not to exceed $12,000.—In cases where permanent total disability results from paralysis or loss of mental capacity caused by an injury to the brain or spinal cord, compensation shall be payable for the life of the injured employee as provided by G. S. 97-29. In all other cases, the total compensation paid, including the funeral benefit, shall not exceed twelve thousand dollars. (1929, c. 120, s. 41; 1947, c. 823; 1951, c. 70, s. 4; 1953, c. 1135, s. 3; 1955, c. 1026, s. 9; 1963, c. 604, s. 5.)

Editor's Note.—The 1947 amendment excepted from the limitation on total compensation cases of permanent total disability due to paralysis resulting from injuries to the spinal cord.

The 1951 amendment increased the maximum compensation from $6,000 to $8,000.

The 1953 amendment rewrote this section.

The 1955 amendment increased the maximum compensation from $8,000 to $10,000.

The 1963 amendment, effective July 1, 1963, increased the maximum compensation from $10,000 to $12,000.

The amount allowed for serious facial or head disfigurement is to be included with other amounts allowed an injured employee in determining the total compensation allowed such employee, which in no case may exceed the maximum amount stated in this section. Arp v. Wood & Co., 207 N. C. 41, 175 S. E. 719 (1934).

There is no maximum award where there is permanent disability due to injury to spinal cord. Baldwin v. Amazon Cotton Mills, 253 N. C. 740, 117 S. E. 2d) 718 (1961).
§ 97-42. Deduction of payments.—Any payments made by the employer to the injured employee during the period of his disability, or to his dependents, which by the terms of this article were not due and payable when made, may, subject to the approval of the Industrial Commission be deducted from the amount to be paid as compensation. Provided, that in the case of disability such deductions shall be made by shortening the period during which compensation must be paid, and not by reducing the amount of the weekly payment. (1929, c. 120, s. 42.)

Cross Reference.—As to effect of accident insurance policy procured by employer, see note to § 97-6.

§ 97-43. Commission may prescribe monthly or quarterly payments. —The Industrial Commission, upon application of either party, may, in its discretion, having regard to the welfare of the employee and the convenience of the employer, authorize compensation to be paid monthly or quarterly instead of weekly. (1929, c. 120, s. 43.)

§ 97-44. Lump sums.—Whenever any weekly payment has been continued for not less than six weeks, the liability therefor may, in unusual cases, where the parties agree and the Industrial Commission deems it to be to the best interest of the employee or his dependents, or where it will prevent undue hardships on the employer or his insurance carrier, without prejudicing the interests of the employee or his dependents, be redeemed, in whole or in part by the payment by the employer of a lump sum which shall be fixed by the Commission, but in no case to exceed the uncommuted value of the future installments which may be due under this article. The Commission, however, in its discretion, may at any time in the case of a minor who has received permanently disabling injuries either partial or total provide that he be compensated, in whole or in part, by the payment of a lump sum, the amount of which shall be fixed by the Commission, but in no case to exceed the uncommuted value of the future installments which may be due under this article. (1929, c. 120, s. 44; 1963, c. 450, s. 4.)

§ 97-45. Reducing to judgment outstanding liability of insurance carriers withdrawing from State. —Upon the withdrawal of any insurance carrier from doing business in the State that has any outstanding liability under the Workmen’s Compensation Act, the Insurance Commissioner shall immediately notify the North Carolina Industrial Commission, and thereupon the said North Carolina Industrial Commission shall issue an award against said insurance carrier and commute the installments due the injured employee or employees, and immediately have said award docketed in the superior court of the county in which the claimant resides, and the said North Carolina Industrial Commission shall then cause suit to be brought on said judgment in the state of the residence of any such insurance carrier, and the proceeds from said judgment after deducting the cost, if any, of the proceeding, shall be turned over to the injured employee, or employees taking from such employee, or employees, the proper receipt in satisfaction of his claim. (1933, c 474.)

§ 97-46 Lump sum payments to trustee; receipt to discharge employer. —Whenever the Industrial Commission deems it expedient any lump sum, subject to the provisions of § 97-45, shall be paid by the employer to some suitable person or corporation appointed by the superior court in the county
§ 97-47 Change of condition; modification of award.—Upon its own motion or upon the application of any party in interest on the grounds of a change in condition, the Industrial Commission may review any award, and on such review may make an award ending, diminishing, or increasing the compensation previously awarded, subject to the maximum or minimum provided in this article, and shall immediately send to the parties a copy of the award. No such review shall affect such award as regards any moneys paid but no such review shall be made after twelve months from the date of the last payment of compensation pursuant to an award under this article, except that in cases in which only medical or other treatment bills are paid, no such review shall be made after twelve months from the date of the last payment of bills for medical or other treatment, paid pursuant to this article. (1929, c. 120, s. 46; 1931, c. 274, s. 6; 1947 c. 823.)

Editor's Note. — The 1931 amendment struck out "last award" formerly appearing in the second sentence and inserted in lieu thereof "last payment of compensation pursuant to an award under this article."

The 1947 amendment added the exception clause at the end of the section.

Commission May Alter Compensation Only upon a "Change in Condition."—The Industrial Commission is given authority to review an award and end, diminish or increase the compensation previously awarded only when there has been a "change in condition" of the claimant, as provided in this section. And when an award has been entered for total disability for a certain length of time, and for partial disability thereafter for a total of three hundred weeks under § 97-30, the Industrial Commission may not, upon a review of the award on claimant's application prior to the payment of the last installment of the award, increase the award of compensation to that allowed for total disability under § 97-29, upon its finding that claimant was unable to earn any appreciable sum by his labor, when the Commission also finds that at the time of the review of the award claimant's condition was unchanged and that he was at that time only 50 per cent disabled. Murray v. Nebel Knitting Co., 214 N. C. 437, 199 S. E. 609 (1938).

Where there is ample evidence to support a finding of a change in claimant's condition as contemplated by this section, and evidence which would support a contrary finding, the finding of the Industrial Commission from the conflicting evidence is conclusive. Knight v. Ford Body Co., 214 N. C. 7, 197 S. E. 563 (1938).

By this section the Industrial Commission is given authority to review an award and increase the compensation theretofore awarded when there has been a change of condition of the claimant, and when the evidence supports a finding of change of claimant's condition, the finding of the Commission is conclusive. Baldwin v. Amazon Cotton Mills, 253 N. C. 740, 117 S. E. (2d) 718 (1961).

Award Retaining Jurisdiction in Commission for Future Adjustments.—Claimant, following a back injury, returned to the same employer and was paid same wages as before injury although doing lighter work. The award of the Commission found as a fact that claimant was being paid wages "in lieu of compensation" and retained jurisdiction for 300 weeks from the date of injury so that future adjustments might be made in compensation payable should employee suffer any wage loss due to his injury within that period. The Supreme Court affirmed this action, saying that the Commission did not exceed its authority in thus retaining jurisdiction to protect the employee against imposition by the employer. Branham v. Denny Roll, etc., Co., 223 N. C. 233, 25 S. E. (2d) 865 (1943).

There is nothing in the Workmen's Compensation Act that contemplates or authorizes an anticipatory finding by the Commission that a physical impairment may develop into a compensable disability. Neither does the act vest in the Commission the power to retain jurisdiction of a claim, after compensation has been awarded, merely because some physical impairment suffered by the claimant may, at some time in the future, cause a loss of wages. The Commission is concerned with conditions existing prior to and at the time of the hearing. If such conditions change in the future, to the detriment of the claimant, this section affords the claimant a remedy and fixes the time within which he must seek it. Dail v. Kellex Corp., 233 N. C. 446, 64 S. E. (2d) 438 (1951).

Claimant suffered multiple injuries in a wreck. After hearing the Commission found as a fact that he had suffered twenty per cent permanent partial disability. However, it also found that he was suffering no wage loss as a result of injury at the time of hearing. It did not appear that he was being paid wages in lieu of compensation. On the further finding that the physical impairment might cause loss of wages in the future, the Commission attempted to retain jurisdiction during 300 weeks from the date of injury. This was held to be error by the Supreme Court. Dail v. Kellex Corp., 233 N. C. 446, 64 S. E. (2d) 438 (1951).

As to the power of the Commission to retain jurisdiction during 300 weeks from the date of injury, see also note to § 97-30.

Changes of condition occurring during the healing period, and prior to the time of maximum recovery and the permanent disability, if any, found to exist at the end of the period of healing, are not changes of condition within the meaning of this section. Pratt v. Central Upholstery Co., 232 N. C. 716, 115 S. E. (2d) 27 (1960).

Increase in Earning Power as Change of Condition.—Claimant had been awarded compensation for general partial disability and thereafter had obtained a job paying practically as much as he made at the time of the accident. It was held that the claimant had undergone a change of condition, as the basis of disability under the act is loss of earning power. Smith v. Swift & Co., 212 N. C. 608, 194 S. E. 106 (1937).

Where Claimant Has Same Disability He Had at Time of First Rating.—Where plaintiff had been receiving compensation for over 275 weeks for permanent partial disability and then offered, as a basis for claiming total disability, proof that he had not been able to do any work, it was held that there had been no change of condition since the claimant had the same disability he had at the time of his first rating. Murray v. Nebel Knitting Co. 214 N. C. 437, 199 S. E. 609 (1938).

Facts Showing Change of Condition.—After payments for a time under an approved agreement, claimant applied on January 6, 1938, for compensation payable in a lump sum. Granted, and paid February 24, 1936. On January 5, 1937, he applied for a reopening of the case on the ground that blood poisoning had spread and created a change of condition and that he was then suffering from Buergers disease due to the injury. The commissioner’s finding that there had been a change of condition and that the application was in time was affirmed. Knight v. Ford Body Co., 214 N. C. 7, 197 S. E. 563 (1938).

The review of an award for change of condition must be made within twelve months from the date of the last payment of compensation pursuant to an award, and, while the right to review is enlarged by the 1947 amendment to include instances in which only medical or other treatment bills are paid, the amendment provides for review in such cases only within twelve months of the date of last payment of such bills. Whitted v. Palmer-Bee Co., 228 N. C. 447, 46 S. E. (2d) 109 (1948), commented on in 58 Yale L. J. 495.

Where the findings of the Industrial Commission, supported by evidence, are to the effect that a review of the award of compensation is sought by an employee more than twelve months from the date of the last payment, the order of the Commission denying further compensation will be upheld by the courts in view of this section. Lee v. Rose’s 5-10-25¢ Stores, 205 N. C. 310, 171 S. E. 87 (1939); Paris v. Carolina Builders Corp., 244 N. C. 35, 92 S. E. (2d) 405 (1956).

The agreement for compensation for disability approved by the Commission and the payment made by the carrier followed by the execution of the closing receipt by plaintiff employee more than one year prior to the filing of application with the Commission for an additional award put the case beyond the time given by this section in which to claim additional compensation. Smith v. Mecklenburg County Chapter American Red Cross, 245 N. C. 116, 95 S. E. (2d) 559 (1956).

The parties entered into an agreement for payment of compensation, approved by the Industrial Commission, which provided for payment of compensation “for necessary weeks” and stipulated that the employee had theretofore returned to work. The employer notified the Commission of final payment under such agreement. It was held that a request for review of the award for changed condition made some sixteen months thereafter is barred since the disability for which compensation was agreed to be paid presumably terminated when the employee returned to work prior to the execution of the agreement, and therefore the phrase of the agreement "for necessary weeks" cannot be enlarged to include the subsequent disability. Tucker v. Lowdermilk, 233 N. C. 185, 53 S. E. (2d) 109 (1951).

Date of Last Payment.—The last payment of compensation within the meaning of this section is the date the last check was delivered to and accepted by the employee, and not the date the check was paid by the drawee bank. Paris v. Carolina Builders Corp., 244 N. C. 45, 92 S. E. (2d) 405 (1956); Baldwin v. Amazon Cotton Mills, 253 N. C. 740, 117 S. E. (2d) 718 (1961).

An employee cannot be allowed twelve months in which to request a review from the last date on which the compensation would have been due had he not elected to accept payment of the award in a lump sum. Paris v. Carolina Builders Corp., 244 N. C. 35, 92 S. E. (2d) 405 (1956).

This section merely fixes a date after which the claim is barred. Ammons v. Z. A. Sneeden's Sons, Inc., 257 N. C. 785, 127 S. E. (2d) 575 (1962).

Failure to assert a change in condition within twelve months is not jurisdictional. Ammons v. Z. A. Sneeden's Sons, Inc., 257 N. C. 785, 127 S. E. (2d) 575 (1962).

And Party May Be Estopped to Rely on It.—Delay for more than one year may be asserted as a plea in bar, but the party interposing and relying on it may be estopped to assert it by inequitable conduct. Ammons v. Z. A. Sneeden's Sons, Inc., 257 N. C. 785, 127 S. E. (2d) 575 (1962).

Limitation As to Minor Employees.—See Lineberry v. Mebane, 210 N. C. 257, 13 S. E. (2d) 429 (1940).

This section cannot apply unless there has been a previous award of the Commission. If that award directed the payment of both compensation and medical expense, then the injured employee would have one year from the last payment of compensation pursuant to the award in which to file claim for further compensation upon an alleged change of condition. If the award directed the payment of medical bills only, then the injured employee would have one year from the date on which the last payment for medical treatment is made in which to file a claim for further compensation upon an alleged change of condition. Biddix v. Rex Mills, Inc., 237 N. C. 660, 75 S. E. (2d) 777 (1953). See also Whitted v. Palmer-Bee Co., 228 N. C. 447, 46 S. E. (2d) 109 (1947).

This section has no application except where it is made to appear that previous award has been made by the Industrial Commission. Where the record on appeal to the superior court from an award of the Industrial Commission does not disclose a previous award made to claimant, defendant's contention that the award appealed from cannot be sustained in the absence of a finding of change of condition is untenable. Penland v. Bird Coal Co., 246 N. C. 28, 97 S. E. (2d) 432 (1957).

This section is not applicable unless a final award has been made. Pratt v. Central Upholstery Co., 252 N. C. 716, 115 S. E. (2d) 27 (1960).

And it does not apply if the Commission has no jurisdiction of the claim. Hart v. Thomasville Motors, Inc., 244 N. C. 84, 92 S. E. (2d) 673 (1956).

The exception clause added at the end of this section by the 1947 amendment has no relation to the filing of original claims for compensation or the time within which such claims are to be filed. It relates exclusively to the time within which an employee may file a petition for a review of an award theretofore made, and the time limit within which the review may be had is tolled by the payment of medical bills, if at all, only when such payments are made under the mandate of an award duly entered by the Commission. Biddix v. Rex Mills, Inc., 237 N. C. 660, 75 S. E. (2d) 777 (1953).

Notice to Employer of Recurrence of Disability within Year.—Where plaintiff contended that she notified defendant of a recurrence of disability within a year after receipt of the last payment of compensation, but she filed no claim with the commission until after a year had elapsed, her rights were barred. Lee v. Rose's 5-10-25¢ Stores, 205 N. C. 310, 171 S. E. 87 (1933).

A change of theory in the application for review in the superior court from that pursued before the hearing commissioner and the full Commission is not permissible. McGinnis v. Old Fort Finishing Plant, 253 N. C. 493, 117 S. E. (2d) 490 (1960).

§ 97-48. Receipts relieving employer; payment to minors; when payment of claims to dependents subsequent in right discharges employer.—(a) Whenever payment of compensation is made to a widow or widower for her or his use, or for her or his use and the use of the child or children, the written receipt thereof of such widow or widower shall acquit the employer: Provided, however, that in order to protect the interests of minors or incompetents the Industrial Commission may at its discretion change the terms of any award with respect to whom compensation for the benefit of such minors or incompetents shall be paid.

(b) Whenever payment is made to any person eighteen years of age or over, the written receipt of such person shall acquit the employer.

(c) Payment of death benefits by an employer in good faith to a dependent subsequent in right to another or other dependents shall protect and discharge the employer, unless and until such dependent or dependents prior in right shall have given notice of his or their claims. In case the employer is in doubt as to the respective rights of rival claimants, he may apply to the Industrial Commission to decide between them.

(d) A minor employee under the age of eighteen (18) years may sign agreements and receipts for payments of compensation for temporary total disability, and such agreements and receipts executed by such minor shall acquit the employer. Where the injury results in a permanent disability and the sum to be paid does not exceed five hundred dollars the minor employee may execute agreements and sign receipts and such agreements and receipts shall acquit the employer; provided, that when deemed necessary the Commission may require the signature of a parent or person standing in place of a parent. (1929, c. 120, s. 47; 1931, c. 274, s. 7; 1945, c. 766.)

As originally enacted, this section contained no proviso to subsection (a). It contained a provision for payments to the parents of a minor in case less than $300 was owed the minor, and provided that in case more than $300 was due a minor, payment should be made to a guardian appointed by the superior court.

Payment in Good Faith Discharges Employer.—Payment of award of compensation to mother was in good faith and discharged the employer, where investigation by employer's carrier prior to hearing revealed that mother and brother were next of kin, and mother and brother testified to the same effect at the hearing, and the Commission judicially determined that mother was entitled to all benefits, notwithstanding the fact that thereafter it was discovered that deceased left surviving a wife in another county. Green v. Briley, 242 N. C. 196, 87 S. E. (2d) 213 (1955).

§ 97-49. Benefits of mentally incompetent or minor employees under 18 may be paid to a trustee, etc.—If an injured employee is mentally incompetent or is under eighteen years of age at the time when any right or privilege accrues to him under this article, his guardian, trustee or committee may in his behalf claim and exercise such right or privilege. (1929, c. 120, s. 48.)

Declaration of Common-Law Rule.—This section is a mere declaration of the common-law rule. Lineberry v. Mebane, 219 N. C. 257, 13 S. E. (2d) 429 (1941).

§ 97-50. Limitation as against minors or mentally incompetent.—No limitation of time provided in this article for the giving of notice or making claim under this article shall run against any person who is mentally incompetent, or a minor dependent, as long as he has no guardian, trustee, or committee. (1929, c. 120, s. 49.)

Application of Section.—This section is applicable only to the mentally incompetent and the minor dependent. Lineberry v. Mebane, 219 N. C. 257, 13 S. E. (2d) 429 (1941).

Minor Not Barred by Failure to Give Notice of Claim.—A minor dependent under eighteen years of age and who is without guardian, trustee or committee, is not barred during such disability by failure to give notice of claim for compensation as required by § 97-22 et seq. McGill v. Bison Fast Freight, Inc., 245 N. C. 469, 96 S. E. (2d) 438 (1957).

§ 97-51. Joint employment; liabilities.—Whenever an employee, for whose injury or death compensation is payable under this article, shall at the time of the injury be in joint service of two or more employers subject to this article, such employers shall contribute to the payment of such compensation in proportion to their wages liability to such employee; provided, however, that nothing in this section shall prevent any reasonable arrangement between such employers for a different distribution as between themselves of the ultimate burden of compensation. (1929, c. 120, s. 50.)

Employment Held Not Joint.—Deceased was employed as teacher and coach by the defendant school district. The State Board of Equalization paid part of his salary as teacher, while the school district paid the remainder of his salary both for teaching and for coaching. Deceased was killed while in performance of his duties as coach. It was held that deceased was an employee of the defendant school district but not of the State Board of Equalization since that body had no voice in his election or power over his actions. Purdue v. State Board of Equalization, 205 N. C. 730, 172 S. E. 396 (1934).

Contract between Owner and Lessee of Truck Not Binding on Employee-Driver.—Deceased employee was a truck-driver for X, who leased the truck to other haulers. While hauling goods for a lessee of the truck, and under his full control, deceased met his death. The lease contract between and his lessee provided that X should carry compensation insurance upon the truck driver. It was held that this contract could not be binding upon the employee-driver, as he was not a party to it. Recovery of compensation was allowed against lessee for the death of the employee. The court left open the question of liability of X to the lessee. Roth v. McCord, 232 N. C. 678, 62 S. E. (2d) 64 (1950).

§ 97-52. Occupational disease made compensable; “accident” defined.—Disablement or death of an employee resulting from an occupational disease described in § 97-53 shall be treated as the happening of an injury by accident within the meaning of the North Carolina Workmen’s Compensation Act and the procedure and practice and compensation and other benefits provided by said act shall apply in all such cases except as hereinafter otherwise provided. The word “accident,” as used in the Workmen’s Compensation Act, shall not be construed to mean a series of events in employment, of a similar or like nature, occurring regularly, continuously or at frequent intervals in the course of such employment, over extended periods of time, whether such events may or may not be attributable to fault of the employer and disease attributable to such causes shall be compensable only if culminating in an occupational disease mentioned in and compensable under this article. Provided, however, no compensation shall be payable for asbestosis and/or silicosis as hereinafter defined if the employee, at the time of entering into the employment of the employer by whom compensation would otherwise be payable, falsely represented himself in writing as not having previously been disabled or laid off because of asbestosis or silicosis. (1935, c. 123.)

Purpose of This Section and § 97-53.—Any scheme or plan for the payment of compensation to disabled employees should include those diseases or abnormal conditions of human beings the causative origin of which is occupational in nature. To meet this need the legislature adopted this section and § 97-53. Henry v. A. C. Lawrence Leather Co., 234 N. C. 126, 66 S. E. (2d) 693 (1951).

The rights and remedies of an employee under the Workmen’s Compensation Act exclude all other rights and remedies, and an employee bound by the act may not maintain an action at common law against the employer and his foreman to recover for injuries caused by an occupational disease not enumerated in this and the following section, even though the disease is the result of negligence. Murphy v. American Enka Corp., 213 N. C. 218, 195 S. E. 536 (1938).

Injury by Accident and Occupational Disease Distinguished.—An injury by accident, as that term is ordinarily understood, is distinguished from an occupational disease in that the former arises from a definite event, the time and place of which can be fixed, while the latter develops gradually over a long period of time. Henry v. A. C. Lawrence Leather Co., 234 N. C. 126, 66 S. E. (2d) 693 (1951).

Disease Must Be Incident to or Result of Employment.—An award for an occupational disease cannot be sanctioned unless it be shown that the disease was incident to or the result of the particular employment in which the workman was engaged. Duncan v. Charlotte, 234 N. C. 86, 66 S. E. (2d) 22 (1951).

If a disease is not a natural result of a particular employment, but is produced by some extrinsic or independent agency, it is in no real sense an occupational disease, and ordinarily may not be imputed to the occupation or employment. Duncan v. Charlotte, 234 N. C. 86, 66 S. E. (2d) 22 (1951).

And Only Diseases Mentioned in § 97-53 Are Compensable.—Disagreement or death, resulting from any "series of events" in employment shall be treated as the happening of an injury by accident compensable under the act when and only when such series of events culminates in one of the occupational diseases mentioned in § 97-53. Henry v. A. C. Lawrence Leather Co., 234 N. C. 126, 66 S. E. (2d) 693 (1951).

But Employee May Bring Common-Law Action Where Employer Has Rejected Act.—If an employee contracts an occupational disease while working for an employer who has rejected the act, recovery may be had in an action at common law upon a showing of negligence. Bame v. Palmer Stone Works, 232 N. C. 267, 59 S. E. (2d) 612 (1950).

Disease Resulting from Accident.—This section, providing that only the occupational diseases specified in this article shall be compensable, relates only to occupational diseases, which are those resulting from long and continued exposure to risks and conditions inherent and usual in the nature of the employment, and does not preclude compensation for a disease not inherent in or incident to the nature of the employment when it results from an accident arising out of and in the course of the employment. MacRae v. Unemployment Compensation Comm., 217 N. C. 769, 9 S. E. (2d) 595 (1940). See Blassingame v. Southern Asbestos Co., 217 N. C. 223, 7 S. E. (2d) 478 (1940).

Special Provisions Relating to Asbestosis and Silicosis. — When the special provisions of the occupational disease amendment relating to asbestosis and silicosis are read in their entirety, it is apparent that they are designed to effect these objects: (1) To prevent the employment of unaffected persons peculiarly susceptible to asbestosis or silicosis in industries with dust hazards; (2) to secure compensation to those workers affected with asbestosis or silicosis, whose principal need is compensation; and (3) to provide compulsory changes of occupations for those workmen affected by asbestosis or silicosis, whose primary need is removal to employments without dust hazards. Young v. Whitehall Co., 229 N. C. 360, 49 S. E. (2d) 797 (1948).

A proper consideration of the special provisions relating to asbestosis and silicosis must rest upon a conviction that in passing these laws the legislature gave due heed to the nature of these diseases. Young v. Whitehall Co., 229 N. C. 360, 49 S. E. (2d) 797 (1948).

The clear intent of § 97-61.6 to provide compensation for death occurring within 350 weeks from the date of last exposure to silicosis if the employee was at the time of death receiving compensation for disablement due to silicosis, even though the death does not result from silicosis, must be given effect notwithstanding § 97-2, subdivisions (6) and (10), and this section, since the specific provisions relating to silicosis, which were enacted because of the peculiar course of the disease, must be construed as an exception to the general tenor of the Workmen's Compensation Act to provide compensation for death only if it results from an accident arising out of and in the course of the employment. Davis v. N. C. Granite Corp., 259 N. C. 672, 131 S. E. (2d) 335 (1963).

§ 97-53. Occupational diseases enumerated; when due to exposure to chemicals.—The following diseases and conditions only shall be deemed to be occupational diseases within the meaning of this article:

1. Anthrax.
2. Arsenic poisoning.
4. Zinc poisoning.
5. Manganese poisoning.
6. Lead poisoning. Provided the employee shall have been exposed to the hazard of lead poisoning for at least thirty days in the preceding twelve months' period, and, provided further, only the employer in whose employment such employee was last injuriously exposed shall be liable.
7. Mercury poisoning.
8. Phosphorous poisoning.
9. Poisoning by carbon bisulphide, methanol, naphtha or volatile halogenated hydrocarbons.
10. Chrome ulceration.
11. Compressed-air illness.
12. Poisoning by benzol, or by nitro and amido derivatives of benzol (dinitrobenzol, anilin, and others).
13. Infection or inflammation of the skin, eyes, or other external contact surfaces or oral or nasal cavities or any other internal or external organ or organs of the body due to irritating oils, cutting compounds, chemical dust, liquids, fumes, gases or vapors, and any other materials or substances.

The provisions of this subdivision shall not apply to cases of occupational diseases not included in said subdivision prior to July 1, 1963, unless the last exposure in an occupation subject to the hazards of such disease occurred on or after July 1, 1963.

14. Epitheliomatous cancer or ulceration of the skin or of the corneal surface of the eye due to tar, pitch, bitumen, mineral oil, or parafin, or any compound, product, or residue of any of these substances.
15. Radium poisoning or disability or death due to radioactive properties of substances or to roentgen rays, X-rays or exposure to any other source of ionizing radiation; provided, however, that the disease under this subdivision shall be deemed to have occurred on the date that disability or death shall occur by reason of such disease.
16. Blisters due to use of tools or appliances in the employment.
17. Bursitis due to intermittent pressure in the employment.
18. Miner's nystagmus.
19. Bone felon due to constant or intermittent pressure in employment.
20. Synovitis, caused by trauma in employment.
21. Tenosynovitis, caused by trauma in employment.
22. Carbon monoxide poisoning.
23. Poisoning by sulphuric, hydrochloric or hydrofluoric acid.
25. Silicosis.
27. Undulant fever.

Occupational diseases caused by chemicals shall be deemed to be due to exposure of an employee to the chemicals herein mentioned only when as a part of the employment such employee is exposed to such chemicals in such form and quantity, and used with such frequency as to cause the occupational disease mentioned.
in connection with such chemicals. (1935, c. 123; 1949, c. 1078; 1953, c. 1112; 1955, c. 1026, s. 10; 1957, c. 1396, s. 6; 1963, c. 553, s. 1; c. 965.)

Cross References.—See note to § 97-52. See notes to §§ 97-54, 97-56 through 97-61.7, for cases dealing with asbestosis and silicosis.

Editor's Note.—The 1949 amendment added provisions relating to heart disease of members of fire departments, which were held unconstitutional in Duncan v. Charlotte, 234 N. C. 86, 66 S. E. (2d) 22 (1951), and were deleted in 1957. The 1953 amendment added subdivision (27).

The 1955 amendment deleted from subdivision (17) "of the knee or elbow" formerly appearing after "Bursitis."
The 1957 amendment added "and any other materials or substances" at the end of the first paragraph of subdivision (13). It deleted former subdivision (26) relating to coronary thrombosis, etc., of members of fire departments as occupational diseases, and inserted "(26). Psittacosis" in lieu thereof.
The first 1963 amendment rewrote subdivision (15). The second 1963 amendment, effective July 1, 1963, inserted "or any other internal or external organ or organs of the body" in the first paragraph of subdivision (13) and added the second paragraph of that subdivision.

For brief comment on the 1949 amendment, see 27 N. C. Law Rev. 495.

"Occupational Disease" Defined.—The legislature, in listing those diseases which are to be deemed occupational in character, was fully aware of the meaning of the term "occupational disease." Indeed, it in effect defined the term in § 97-52 as a diseased condition caused by a series of events, of a similar or like nature, occurring regularly or at frequent intervals over an extended period of time, in employment. The term has likewise been defined as a diseased condition arising gradually from the character of the employee's work. These are the accepted definitions of the term. Henry v. A. C. Lawrence Leather Co., 234 N. C. 126, 66 S. E. (2d) 693 (1951).

Technical Words to Be Accorded Their Technical Connotation.—In designating those diseases and conditions which are to be deemed occupational in origin and compensable under the act, the legislature, for the most part, used technical terms. Anthrax, bursitis, asbestosis, silicosis, nystagmus, synovitis, tenosynovitis are technical words. In construing the act the court must accord them their technical connotation. Henry v. A. C. Lawrence Leather Co., 234 N. C. 126, 66 S. E. (2d) 693 (1951).

Common-Law Actions Excluded as to Certain Occupational Diseases.—In dealing with certain unscheduled occupational diseases, the Supreme Court has held common-law actions to be excluded by the Workmen's Compensation Act; but in these cases the condition admittedly and allegedly arose out of the employment. Barber v. Minges, 232 N. C. 213, 25 S. E. (2d) 837 (1943).

But Employee May Bring Common-Law Action against Employer Who Has Rejected Act.—Where silicosis is contracted by an employee whose employer has rejected the act, the employee may recover in an action at common law upon a showing of negligence, but the doctrine of res ipsa loquitur is not applicable. Bame v. Palmer Stone Works, 232 N. C. 267, 59 S. E. (2d) 824 (1950).

Conflicting expert testimony on the question of whether the deceased employee died as a result of an occupational disease, caused by exposure to benzol poisoning, arising out of and in the course of his employment, was sufficient to sustain the Commission's award of compensation to the employee's dependent. Tindall v. American Furniture Co., 216 N. C. 306, 4 S. E. (2d) 894 (1939).

Dermatitis resulting from contact with gloves made of commercial rubber is not an occupational disease compensable under the Workmen's Compensation Act. Henry v. A. C. Lawrence Leather Co., 231 N. C. 477, 57 S. E. (2d) 760 (1950).

Tenosynovitis Caused by Trauma in Employment.—Synovitis is the inflammation of a synovial membrane and tenosynovitis is the inflammation of a synovial membrane which forms the protective sheath that encloses the tendon. It is sometimes used to denote the inflammation of both the sheath and the tendon. Henry v. A. C. Lawrence Leather Co., 234 N. C. 126, 66 S. E. (2d) 693 (1951).

The causative origin of tenosynovitis is either infection or trauma. The clause “caused by trauma in employment” was used by the legislature to modify the word “tenosynovitis” so as to include the occupational and exclude the infectious type—to include the traumatic and exclude the idiopathic. Henry v. A. C. Lawrence Leather Co., 234 N. C. 126, 66 S. E. (2d) 693 (1951).

In using the modifying phrase, “caused by trauma in employment” the legislature necessarily meant a series of events in employment occurring regularly, or at frequent intervals, over an extended period of time, and culminating in the condition technically known as tenosynovitis. Henry v. A. C. Lawrence Leather Co., 234 N. C. 126, 66 S. E. (2d) 693 (1951).

A single blow on the arm might bruise the extensor tendons to such an extent as to cause temporary tenosynovitis. The resulting condition would be properly termed an injury by accident caused by trauma. But it would not constitute an occupational disease, for an occupational disease is a diseased or morbid condition which develops gradually, and is produced by a series of events in employment occurring over a period of time. Henry v. A. C. Lawrence Leather Co., 234 N. C. 126, 66 S. E. (2d) 693 (1951).

Tenosynovitis attributable to repeated strain or stress on the extensor tendons of claimant’s arms incident to the performance of the duties of his employment is “caused by trauma in employment” and is an occupational disease compensable under the provisions of this section, since “trauma” in its technical sense is not limited to injuries resulting from external force or violence. Henry v. A. C. Lawrence Leather Co., 234 N. C. 126, 66 S. E. (2d) 693 (1951).

§ 97-54. “Disablement” defined. — The term “disablement” as used in this article as applied to cases of asbestosis and silicosis means the event of becoming actually incapacitated because of asbestosis or silicosis to earn, in the same or any other employment, the wages which the employee was receiving at the time of his last injurious exposure to asbestosis or silicosis; but in all other cases of occupational disease “disablement” shall be equivalent to “disability” as defined in G. S. 97-2 (9). (1935, c. 123; 1955, c. 525, s. 1.)

Editor’s Note. — The 1955 amendment rewrote this section. Prior to the amendment the section defined “disablement,” in cases of asbestosis and silicosis, as incapacity, because of such occupational disease, to perform “normal labor in the last occupation in which remuneratively employed.” The cases in the following note, with one or two exceptions, were decided under this section as it stood before the amendment.

Silicosis is an inflammatory disease of the lungs due to the inhalation of particles of silicon dioxide. It is incurable and is one of the most disabling occupational diseases because it makes the lungs susceptible to other infection, particularly tuberculosis. According to the textbook writers, it has been definitely determined that the removal of a man, who has silicosis, from silica exposure, does not stop the progress of the disease at once, but that fibrotic changes continue to develop for another one or two years. Singleton v. D. T. Vance Mica Co., 235 N. C. 315, 69 S. E. (2d) 707 (1952).

1949 Amendment Unconstitutional. — Former subdivision (26), which was added to this section by Session Laws 1949, c. 1078, and which purported to make certain forms of heart disease compensable occupational diseases when suffered by firemen, was unconstitutional, since it sought to confer upon firemen a special privilege not accorded to other municipal employees, nor to employees in private industry, and created for firemen substantial financial benefits, to be paid from the public treasury under the guise of workmen’s compensation benefits, without establishing an occupational disease as the usual incident or result of the particular employment. Duncan v. Charlotte, 234 N. C. 86, 66 S. E. (2d) 22 (1951), commented on in 30 N. C. Law Rev. 98. See Davis v. Winston-Salem, 234 N. C. 95, 66 S. E. (2d) 28 (1951).

When Disablement Deemed to Have Occurred. — The time when disablement is deemed to have occurred depends upon the factual situation under consideration. Fetner v. Rocky Mount Marble & Granite Works, 231 N. C. 296, 111 S. E. (2d) 324 (1959).

An employee does not contract or develop asbestosis or silicosis in a few weeks or months. These diseases develop as the result of exposure for many years to asbestos dust or dust of silica. Both diseases, according to the textbook writers, are incurable and usually result in total permanent disability. Therefore, it would seem that the victims of these incurable occupational diseases constitute a legitimate burden on the industries in which they were exposed to the hazards that produced their disablement. Such was the intent of the legislature. Honeycutt v. Carolina Asbestos Co., 235 N. C. 471, 70 S. E. (2d) 426 (1952).

The fact that a worker performed his duties with regularity until the date he was dismissed because he was affected with silicosis does not require a finding that he was not disabled at that time as defined by this section. Young v. Whitehall Co., 229 N. C. 360, 49 S. E. (2d) 797 (1948).

Medical Testimony Necessary to Establish “Disablement.” — Evidence tending to establish “disablement,” as that term is used in the statute in reference to silicosis, must be supported by medical testimony, and the finding of the competent medical authority must be to the effect that disablement occurred within two years from the last exposure. Huskins v. United Feldspar Corp., 241 N. C. 296, 84 S. E. (2d) 645 (1954).

Evidence of Disability from Silicosis. — Due to the nature of silicosis, it is essential to establish the presence of the disease by competent medical authority. But, where it has been established that a person who has been exposed to free silica dust has developed silicosis to the extent that it may be disabling, testimony other than that of a medical expert may be admitted and considered in determining when such person actually became disabled to work or disabled “from performing normal labor in his last occupation in which remuneratively employed.” Certainly, a victim of silicosis is competent to testify to his lessened capacity to work, his shortness of breath, the effect that physical exertion has upon him—all of which are normal symptoms of silicosis. Singleton v. D. T. Vance Mica Co., 235 N. C. 315, 69 S. E. (2d) 707 (1952).

Evidence that plaintiff could do “light work” if no silica dust were involved is insufficient to support a finding that he was not disabled from doing “ordinary work,” since the two terms are not synonymous in the realm of manual labor. Young v. Whitehall Co., 229 N. C. 360, 49 S. E. (2d) 797 (1948).

§ 97-56. Limitation on compensable diseases. — The provisions of this article shall apply only to cases of occupational disease in which the last exposure in an occupation subject to the hazards of such diseases occurred on or after March 26, 1935. (1935, c. 123.)

§ 97-57. Employer liable. — In any case where compensation is payable for an occupational disease, the employer in whose employment the employee was last injuriously exposed to the hazards of such disease, and the insurance carrier, if any, which was on the risk when the employee was so last exposed under such employer, shall be liable.

For the purpose of this section when an employee has been exposed to the hazards of asbestosis or silicosis for as much as thirty working days, or parts thereof, within seven consecutive calendar months, such exposure shall be deemed injurious but any less exposure shall not be deemed injurious; provided, however, that in the event an insurance carrier has been on the risk for a period of time during which an employee has been injuriously exposed to the hazards of asbestosis or silicosis, and if after insurance carrier goes off the risk said employee is further exposed to the hazards of asbestosis or silicosis, although not so exposed for a period of thirty (30) days or parts thereof so as to constitute a further injurious exposure, such carrier shall, nevertheless, be liable. (1935, c. 123; 1945, c. 762; 1957, c. 1396, s. 7.)

Editor’s Note. — The 1945 amendment added the second paragraph; and the 1957 amendment added the proviso thereto.

Findings Required to Support Award for Silicosis.—To support an award to one suffering from silicosis, the Industrial Commission must find, inter alia, that the employee had been exposed to the hazards of silicosis for the period provided by this section and that the employee’s work in the State must have exposed him to the inhalation of silicia dust for the further period prescribed by § 97-63. Pitman v. Carpenter, 247 N. C. 63, 100 S. E. (2d) 231 (1957).

Liability of Insurance Carrier. — The carrier of the insurance during the employee’s last thirty-day period of exposure to the hazards of an occupational disease is solely liable for compensation allowed for total disability from the occupational disease. This result is not affected by the fact that prior to the time such insurance company became the carrier, medical examinations had disclosed that the employee was suffering with the disease, that the Industrial Commission had advised him as to the compensation and rehabilitation provisions of the act, but had, in the exercise of its discretion, failed to order him to quit the occupation pursuant to former § 97-61. Bye v. Interstate Granite Co., 230 N. C. 334, 53 S. E. (2d) 274 (1949).

Where compensation insurer carried risk for employer from 1947 through Jan. 31, 1953, and employer did not carry insurance from Feb. 1, 1953 through Feb. 19, 1953, insurer was liable for all compensation allowed for the injury and disability of the employee from Feb. 19, 1953, to the last date the employee was remuneratively employed by the employer. Mayberry v. Oakboro Granite & Marble Co., 243 N. C. 281, 90 S. E. (2d) 511 (1953), decided under this section as it stood before the 1957 amendment.

Before the 1957 amendment to this section, where an employee became disabled from asbestosis while working for a single employer, but different insurers were on the risk during the employee’s last 30 days exposure to the hazards of the disease, the carrier last on the risk, even though it was on the risk for only the last five days the employee worked, was solely liable for the award under a provision of the policy contracts that each policy should apply only to injury by disease of which the last day of the last exposure occurred during the policy period. Hartsell v. Thermoid Co., 249 N. C. 527, 107 S. E. (2d) 115 (1959).

This section creates an irrebuttable presumption, a presumption of law. The last day of work was the date of disablement and the last 30 days of work was the period of last injurious exposure. The commission may not arbitrarily select any 30 days of employment, other than the last 30 days, within the seven months’ period for convenience or protection of any of the parties, even if there is some evidence which may be construed to support such selection. Fetner v. Rocky Mount Marble & Granite Works, 251 N. C. 296, 111 S. E. (2d) 324 (1959).

This section does not provide for partnership in responsibility, and has nothing to say as to the length of the last employment or the degree of injury which the deleterious exposure must inflict to merit compensation. It takes the breakdown practically where it occurs—with the last injurious exposure. Haynes v. Feldspar Producing Co., 222 N. C. 163, 22 S. E. (2d) 275 (1942).

Section Negates Comparative Responsibility of Successive Employers and Insurance Carriers. — Any suggestion of comparative responsibility as between successive employers and their respective carriers, or as between successive carriers for the same employer, is dispelled by the plain language of this section. The liability is upon the employer and carrier on § 97-58. Claims for certain diseases restricted; time limit for filing claims.—(a) Except as otherwise provided in G. S. 97-61.6, an employer shall not be liable for any compensation for asbestosis or silicosis or lead poisoning unless disablement or death results within two years after the last exposure to such disease, or, in case of death, unless death follows continuous disablement from such disease, commencing within the period of two years limited herein, and for which compensation has been paid or awarded or timely claim made as hereinafter provided and results within seven years after such last exposure in the case of lead poisoning, or 350 weeks in the case of asbestosis or silicosis.

(b) The report and notice to the employer as required by § 97-22 shall apply in all cases of occupational disease except in case of asbestosis, silicosis, or lead poisoning. The time of notice of an occupational disease shall run from the date that the employee has been advised by competent medical authority that he has same.

(c) The right to compensation for occupational disease shall be barred unless a claim be filed with the Industrial Commission within one year after death, disablement, or disablement as the case may be. Provided, however, that the right to compensation for radiation injury, disability or death shall be barred unless a claim is filed within one (1) year after the date upon which the employee first suffered incapacity from the exposure to radiation and either knew or in the exercise of reasonable diligence should have known that the occupational disease was caused by his present or prior employment. (1935, c. 123; 1945, c. 762; 1955, c. 925) 6.5 1963, c. 555.5) 106

Editor's Note. — The 1945 amendment inserted “(a)” at the beginning of the section, substituted “two years” for “three years” in subsection (a) and struck therefrom a sentence reading: “Claims for all other occupational diseases shall be barred unless claims shall be filed with the Industrial Commission within one year from the disablement or death caused by such occupational disease.” The amendment also added subsections (b) and (c).

The 1963 amendment added the proviso to subsection (c).

Subsections (a), (b) and (c) are in pari materia and must be construed together to ascertain the true legislative intent. Duncan v. Carpenter, 233 N. C. 422, 64 S. E. (2d) 410 (1951).

In this section the legislature recognizes that silicosis is a progressive disease, and provides that an employer may be held liable for compensation for silicosis if disablement results at any time within two years after the last exposure to the disease. Young v. Whitehall Co., 229 N. C. 360, 49 S. E. (2d) 797 (1948).

Report and Notice to Employer under § 97-22.—The employee is not required to give any notice pursuant to the provisions of § 97-22 to the employer in case of asbestosis, silicosis and lead poisoning. In all other cases of occupational disease the time for giving the notice pursuant to § 97-22 is extended to thirty days after the employee has been advised by competent medical authority that he is suffering from an occupational disease, and the one-year period within which he may file his claim dates from receipt of such advice. Duncan v. Carpenter, 233 N. C. 422, 64 S. E. (2d) 410 (1951).

Employee Not Required to Diagnose His Own Condition. — It was not the legislative intent to require an employee, in many instances, suffering from any one of these occupational diseases to make a correct medical diagnosis of his own condition or to file his notice and claim for compensation before he knew he had such disease, or run the risk of having his claim barred by the one-year statute. Duncan v. Carpenter, 233 N. C. 422, 64 S. E. (2d) 410 (1951).

Disablement Dates from Time Claimant Was Advised He Had Disease. — By enacting this section, the legislature intended to authorize the filing of a claim for asbestosis, silicosis or lead poisoning where disablement occurs within two years after the last exposure to such disease; and, although disablement may have existed from the time the employee quit work, such disablement, for the purpose of notice and claim for compensation, should date from the time the employee was notified by competent medical authority that he had such disease. Autrey v. Victor Mica Co., 234 N. C. 400, 67 S. E. (2d) 383 (1951); Duncan v. Carpenter, 233 N. C. 422, 64 S. E. (2d) 410 (1951).

Due to the peculiar nature of the disease, the slow process of its development, the similarity of its symptoms to those of other diseases which affect the lungs and for other reasons, a workman, whatever his actual physical condition may be, is not charged with notice that he has silicosis until and unless he is so advised by competent medical authority, and the time within which he must file his claim for compensation begins to run from the date he is so advised. Huskins v. United Feldspar Corp., 241 N. C. 128, 84 S. E. (2d) 645 (1954).

Advising an employee, who has been exposed to free silica dust, that his examination reveals "evidence of dust disease," is not sufficient to put him on notice that he has silicosis. Singleton v. D. T. Vance Mica Co., 235 N. C. 315, 69 S. E. (2d) 707 (1952).

The finding of the competent medical authority must be that disablement occurred within two years from the last exposure in cases of asbestosis, silicosis and lead poisoning, and in claims involving other occupational diseases that disability occurred within one year thereof. Duncan v. Carpenter, 233 N. C. 422, 64 S. E. (2d) 410 (1951); Singleton v. D. T. Vance Mica Co., 235 N. C. 315, 69 S. E. (2d) 707 (1952).

But Finding Need Not Be Made within Two Years from Last Exposure. — Where disablement from silicosis occurs, as defined in § 97-54, and notice of claim is filed in accord with the provisions contained in this section, the claimant need not be advised by competent medical authority that he has silicosis within two years from the date of his last exposure. Singleton v. D. T. Vance Mica Co., 235 N. C. 315, 69 S. E. (2d) 707 (1952).

The reason for allowing two years from the date of the last exposure to silica dust in which to determine actual disability from silicosis is that silicosis is a progressive disease, the lung changes continuing to develop for one or two years after removal of the worker from the silica hazard. Brinkley v. United Feldspar & Minerals Corp., 246 N. C. 17, 97 S. E. (2d) 419 (1957).

Incubation Not Resulting within Two Years of Last Exposure. — Claimant was removed from the hazard of silica dust before becoming incapacitated within the meaning of § 97-54. He was thereafter employed by the same employer for five years at the same wage at employment free from the hazard of silica dust. It was held that his retirement from such other occupation at the end of five years could not have been caused by incapacity from silicosis resulting within two years of the last exposure to silica dust, and compensation therefor could not be sustained. Brinkley v. United Feldspar & Minerals Corp., 246 N. C. 17, 97 S. E. (2d) 419 (1957).

Evidence Other than Expert Medical Testimony is Competent. — While it is essential to establish the presence of silicosis or asbestosis by competent medical authority, evidence other than expert medical testimony is competent on the question of whether claimant is disabled and whether such disablement occurred within two years from date of last exposure. Singleton v. D. T. Vance Mica Co., 235 N. C. 315, 69 S. E. (2d) 707 (1952).

The employee is entitled to file his notice and claim for compensation at any time within one year from the time he was notified that he had silicosis. Duncan v. Carpenter, 233 N. C. 422, 64 S. E. (2d) 410 (1951). See Autrey v. Victor Mica Co., 234 N. C. 400, 67 S. E. (2d) 383 (1951).

§ 97-59. Employer to provide treatment.—In the event of disability from an occupational disease, the employer shall provide reasonable medical and/or other treatment for such time as in the judgment of the Industrial Commission will tend to lessen the period of disability or provide needed relief; provided, however, medical and/or other treatment for asbestosis and/or silicosis shall not exceed a period of three years nor cost in excess of one thousand ($1,000.00) dollars in any one year; and, provided further, all such treatment shall be first authorized by the Industrial Commission after consulting with the advisory medical committee. (1935, c. 123; 1945, c. 762.)

§ 97-60. Examination of employees by advisory medical committee; designation of industries with dust hazards.—The compulsory examination of employees and prospective employees as herein provided applies only to persons engaged or about to engage in an occupation which has been found by the Industrial Commission to expose them to the hazards of asbestosis and/or silicosis. The Industrial Commission shall designate by order each industry found subject to any such hazard and shall notify the employers therein before such examinations are required. On and after March 26, 1935, it shall be the duty of every employer, in the conduct of whose business his employees or any of them are subjected to the hazards of asbestosis and/or silicosis, to provide prior to employment necessary examinations of all new employees for the purpose of ascertaining if any of them are in any degree affected by asbestosis and/or silicosis or peculiarly susceptible thereto; and every such employer shall from time to time, as ordered by the Industrial Commission, provide similar examinations for all of his employees whose employment exposes them to the hazards of asbestosis and/or silicosis. At least one member of the advisory medical committee or other physician designated by the Industrial Commission shall make such examinations or be present when any such examination is made. The refusal of an employee to submit to any such examination shall bar such employee from compensation or other benefits provided by this article in the event of disablement and/or death resulting from exposure to the hazards of asbestosis and/or silicosis subsequent to such refusal. It shall be the duty of the Industrial Commission to make and/or order inspections of employments and to keep a record of all employments subjecting employees to the hazards of asbestosis and/or silicosis, and to notify the employer in any case where such hazard shall have been found to exist. The unreasonable failure of an employer to provide for any examination or his unreasonable refusal to permit any inspection herein authorized shall constitute a misdemeanor and shall be punishable as such. (1935, c. 123.)

The provision herein for pre-employment examinations was cited by the court in Haynes v. Feldspar Producing Co., 222 N. C. 163, 22 S. E. (2d) 275 (1942), as a justification for the harsh rule of the statute in throwing full liability on the last employer regardless of how brief the employment and how slight the injury ascribable to it.

§ 97-61. First examination of and report on employee having asbestosis or silicosis.—When an employee and the Industrial Commission are advised by the State Board of Health that an employee has asbestosis or silicosis, the employer shall be notified by the Industrial Commission, and the employee, when ordered by the Industrial Commission, shall go to a place designated by the Industrial Commission and submit to X-rays and a physical examination by the advisory medical committee, at least one of whom shall conduct the examination, and the member or members of the advisory medical committee conducting the examination shall forward the X-rays and findings to the member or members of the committee not present for the physical examination. The employer shall pay the expenses connected with the examination in such amounts as shall be directed by the Industrial Commission. Within thirty days after the completion of the examination, the advisory medical committee shall make a written report signed by all of its members setting forth:

(1) The X-rays and clinical procedures used by the committee in arriving at its findings.
(2) Whether or not the claimant has contracted asbestosis or silicosis.
(3) The committee's opinion expressed in percentages of the impairment of the employee's ability to perform normal labor in the same or any other employment.
(4) Any other matter deemed pertinent by the committee.

When a competent physician certifies to the Industrial Commission that the employee's physical condition is such that his movement to the place of examination ordered by the Industrial Commission as herein provided in §§ 97-61.1, 97-61.3 and 97-61.4 would be harmful or injurious to the health of the employee, the Industrial Commission shall cause the examination of the employee to be made by the advisory medical committee as herein provided at some place in the vicinity of the residence of the employee suitable for the purposes of making such examination.

§ 97-61.2. Filing of first report; right of hearing; effect of report as testimony.—The advisory medical committee shall file its report in triplicate with the Industrial Commission, which shall send one copy thereof to the claimant and one copy thereof to the employer by registered mail or certified mail. Unless within thirty days from receipt of the copy of said report the claimant and employer, or either of them, shall request the Industrial Commission in writing to set the case for hearing for the purpose of examining and cross-examining the members of the advisory medical committee respecting the report of said committee, and for the purpose of introducing additional testimony, said report shall become a part of the record of the case and shall be accepted by the Industrial Commission as expert medical testimony to be considered as such and in connection with all the evidence in the case in arriving at its decision.

Cross Reference.—See note § 97-61. inserted "or certified mail" at the end of the first sentence.

§ 97-61.3. Second examination and report. — As soon as practicable after the expiration of one year following the initial examination by the advisory medical committee and when ordered by the Industrial Commission, the employee shall again appear before the advisory medical committee, at least one of whom shall conduct the examination, and the member or members of the advisory medical committee conducting the examination shall forward the X-rays and findings to the member or members of the committee not present for the physical examination. Within thirty days after the completion of the examination, the advisory medical committee shall make a written report to the Industrial Commission signed by all of its members, setting forth any change since the first report in the employee’s condition which is due to asbestosis or silicosis, said report to be filed in triplicate with the Industrial Commission, which shall send one copy thereof to the claimant, and one copy to the employer by registered mail or certified mail. The claimant and employer, or either of them, shall have the right only at the final hearing provided for in G. S. 97-61.4 to examine or cross-examine the members of the advisory medical committee respecting the second report of the committee. (1935, c. 123; 1945, c. 762; 1955, c. 525, s. 2; 1959, c. 863, s. 2.)

Editor’s Note.—The 1959 amendment inserted “or certified mail” at the end of the second sentence.

§ 97-61.4. Third examination and report. — As soon as practicable after the expiration of two years from the first examination and when ordered by the Industrial Commission, the employee shall appear before the advisory medical committee, or at least two of them, for final X-rays and physical examination. Upon completion of this examination and within thirty days, the advisory medical committee shall make a written report setting forth:

1. The X-rays and clinical procedures used by the committee.
2. To what extent, if any, has the damage to the employee’s lungs due to asbestosis or silicosis changed since the first examination.
3. The opinion of the committee, expressed in percentages, with respect to the extent of impairment of the employee’s ability to earn in the same or any other employment the wages which the employee was receiving at the time of his last injurious exposure to asbestosis or silicosis.
4. Any other matter deemed pertinent by the committee.

Said report shall be filed in triplicate with the Industrial Commission which shall send one copy thereof to the claimant and one copy to the employer by registered mail or certified mail. (1935, c. 123; 1945, c. 762; 1955, c. 525, s. 2; 1959, c. 863, s. 3.)

§ 97-61.5. Hearing after first examination and report; removal of employee from hazardous occupation; compensation upon removal from hazardous occupation.—(a) After the employer and employee have received notice of the first committee report, the Industrial Commission, unless it has already approved an agreement between the employer and employee, shall set the matter for hearing at a time and place to be decided by it, to hear any controverted questions, determine if and to whom liability attaches, and where appropriate, file a written opinion with its findings of fact and conclusions of law and cause its award to be issued thereon, all of which shall be subject to modification as provided in G. S. 97-61.6.

(b) If the Industrial Commission finds at the first hearing that the employee has either asbestosis or silicosis or if the parties enter into an agreement to the effect that the employee has silicosis or asbestosis, it shall by order remove the employee from any occupation which exposes him to the hazards of asbestosis or silicosis, and if the employee thereafter engages in any occupation which exposes him to the hazards of asbestosis or silicosis without having obtained the written approval of the Industrial Commission as provided in G. S. 97-61.7, neither he, his dependents, personal representative nor any other person shall be entitled to any compensation for disablement or death resulting from asbestosis or silicosis; provided, that if the employee is removed from the industry the employer shall pay or cause to be paid as in this subsection provided to the employee affected by such asbestosis or silicosis a weekly compensation equal to 60% of his average weekly wages before removal from the industry, but not more than thirty-seven dollars and fifty cents ($37.50) or less than ten dollars ($10.00) a week, which compensation shall continue for a period of 104 weeks. Payments made under this subsection shall be credited on the amounts payable under any final award in the cause entered under G. S. 97-61.6. (1935, c. 123; 1945, c. 762; 1955, c. 525, s. 2; c. 1354; 1957, c. 1217; c. 1396, s. 8; 1963, c. 604, s. 6.)

Editor's Note. — The second 1955 act, substituted $32.00 for $30.00 and $10.00 for $8.00 near the end of subsection (b).

The first 1957 amendment substituted $35.00 for $32.50 in subsection (b). The second 1957 amendment inserted after "silicosis" near the beginning of the subsection "or if the parties enter into an agreement to the effect that the employee has silicosis or asbestosis."

The 1963 amendment, effective July 1, 1963, substituted near the end of subsection (b) "thirty-seven dollars and fifty cents ($37.50)" for "thirty-five dollars ($35.00)."

Act Contemplates That Employee Will Seek Other Remunerative Employment.—The Workmen's Compensation Act contemplates that an employee will not be allowed to remain exposed to silica dust or asbestos dust until he becomes actually incapacitated within the meaning of § 97-54, and that if removed from the hazard before such incapacity, he will seek and obtain other remunerative employment. Brinkley v. United Feldspar & Minerals Corp., 246 N. C. 17, 97 S. E. (2d) 419 (1957).

Compensation Where Employee's Condition Is Complicated by Tuberculosis.—Where an employee is ordered to abstain from employment in an industry having the hazards of silica dust and directed to report for second and third medical examinations under §§ 97-61.3 and 97-61.4, it is proper that he be awarded the compensation provided by subsection (b) of this section without consideration of the fact that his condition was complicated by pulmonary tuberculosis, since the total amount of compensation is to be determined on the hearing after the third medical report as provided in § 97-61.6, at which time consideration should be given to the tuberculous condition in accordance with § 97-65. Pitman v. Carpenter, 247 N. C. 63, 100 S. E. (2d) 231 (1957).

§ 97-61.6. Hearing after third examination and report; compensation for disability and death from asbestosis or silicosis.—After receipt by the employer and employee of the advisory medical committee's third report, the Industrial Commission, unless it has approved an agreement between the employee and employer, shall set a final hearing in the cause, at which it shall receive all competent evidence bearing on the cause, and shall make a final disposition of the case, determining what compensation, if any, the employee is entitled to receive in addition to the 104 weeks already received.

Where the incapacity for work resulting from asbestosis or silicosis is found to be total, the employer shall pay, or cause to be paid, to the injured employee during such total disability a weekly compensation equal to sixty per centum (60%) of his average weekly wages, but not more than thirty-seven dollars and fifty cents ($37.50), nor less than ten dollars ($10.00), a week; and in no case shall the period covered by such compensation be greater than 400 weeks, nor shall the total amount of all compensation exceed twelve thousand dollars ($12,000.00).

When the incapacity for work resulting from asbestosis or silicosis is partial, the employer shall pay, or cause to be paid, to the affected employee, a weekly compensation equal to sixty per centum (60%) of the difference between his average weekly wages at the time of his last injurious exposure, and the average weekly wages which he is able to earn thereafter, but not more than thirty-seven dollars and fifty cents ($37.50) a week, and provided that the total compensation so paid shall not exceed a period of 196 weeks, in addition to the 104 weeks for which the employee has already been compensated.

Provided, however, should death result from asbestosis or silicosis within two years from the date of last exposure, or should death result within 350 weeks from the date of last exposure and while the employee is entitled to compensation for disablement due to asbestosis or silicosis, either partial or total, then in either of these events, the employer shall pay, or cause to be paid, by one of the methods set forth in G. S. 97-38 a total compensation which, when added to the payments already made for partial or total disability to time of death, shall not exceed twelve thousand dollars ($12,000.00) including burial expenses. (1935, c. 123; 1945, c. 762; 1955, c. 525, s. 2; c. 1354; 1957, c. 1217; 1963, c. 604, s. 7.)

Cross Reference.—See note to § 97-61.

Editor's Note. — The second 1955 act substituted $32.50 for $30.00 and $10.00 for $8.00. It also substituted $10,000 for $8,000 near the end of the second and fourth paragraphs.

The 1957 amendment substituted $35.00 for $32.50 in the second and third paragraphs.

The 1963 amendment, effective July 1, 1963, substituted in the second and third paragraphs “thirty-seven dollars and fifty cents ($37.50)” for “thirty-five dollars ($35.00).” It also substituted “twelve thousand dollars ($12,000.00)” for “ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00)” near the end of the second and fourth paragraphs.

Purpose of Section. — Because of the difficulty of effecting a cure and the length of time necessary to ascertain the extent of the disability, this section fixes a time in the future when the total amount of compensation will be determined. Pitman v. Carpenter, 247 N. C. 63, 100 S. E. (2d) 231 (1957).

The language of the last paragraph of this section is clear, positive and understandable. When the language of a statute is plain and free from ambiguity, expressing a single, definite and sensible meaning, that meaning is conclusively presumed to be the meaning which the legislature intended, and the statute must be interpreted accordingly. Davis v. N. C. Granite Corp., 259 N. C. 672, 131 S. E. (2d) 335 (1963).

The last paragraph of this section provides two conditions under which dependents of a deceased employee, who had silicosis, are entitled to compensation on account of his death: (1) If death results from silicosis within two years from the date of last exposure, or (2) if death results within 350 weeks from the date of last exposure and while the employee is entitled to compensation for disablement due to silicosis, either partial or total, notwithstanding that the death does not result from silicosis, must be given effect notwithstanding § 97-2, subdivisions (6) and (10), and § 97-52, since the specific provisions relating to silicosis, which were enacted because of the peculiar course of the disease, must be construed as an exception to the general tenor of the Workmen’s Compensation Act to provide compensation for death only if it results from an accident arising out of and in the course of the employment. Davis v. N. C. Granite Corp., 259 N. C. 672, 131 S. E. (2d) 335 (1963).

§ 97-61.7. Waiver of right to compensation as alternative to forced change of occupation.—An employee who has been compensated under the terms of G. S. 97-61.5(b) as an alternative to forced change of occupation, may, subject to the approval of the Industrial Commission, waive in writing his right to further compensation for any aggravation of his condition that may result from his continuing in an occupation exposing him to the hazards of asbestosis or silicosis, in which case payment of all compensation awarded previous to the date of the waiver as approved by the Industrial Commission shall bar any further claims by the employee, or anyone claiming through him, provided, that in the event of total disablement or death as a result of asbestosis or silicosis with which the employee was so affected, compensation shall nevertheless be payable, but in no case, whether for disability or death or both, for a longer period than 100 weeks in addition to the 104 weeks already paid. Such written waiver must be filed with the Industrial Commission, and the Commission shall keep a record of each waiver, which record shall be open to the inspection of any interested person. (1935, c. 123; 1945, c. 762; 1955, c. 525, s. 2.)

Cross Reference.—See note to § 97-61.

Waiver Inapplicable as to Subsequent Employment.—A waiver of an employee's right to compensation for silicosis signed by the employee upon his employment by one employer does not apply to or waive the employee's right to compensation for silicosis upon his subsequent employment by an entirely separate employer. Fetner v. Rocky Mount Marble & Granite Works, 251 N. C. 296, 111 S. E. (2d) 324 (1959).

§ 97-63. Period necessary for employee to be exposed.—Compensation shall not be payable for disability or death due to silicosis and/or asbestosis unless the employee shall have been exposed to the inhalation of dust of silica or silicates or asbestos dust in employment for a period of not less than two years in this State, provided no part of such period of two years shall have been more than ten years prior to the last exposure. (1935, c. 123.)

Section Held Applicable to Rehabilitation Benefits under Former § 97-61.—Employee had worked in granite industry from time to time during eighteen years. However, from 1940 to 1946 he worked in a non-dusty trade outside North Carolina and from 1946 to March, 1949, in a non-dusty trade inside this State. From March, 1949, until June, 1950, he worked in defendant's granite shed. He then left the dusty trade and filed claim for rehabilitation benefits, having developed silicosis. An award of rehabilitation benefits under former § 97-61 by the Commission was reversed by the Supreme Court, which held that no benefits can be obtained under the act until the employee has worked at least two years in a dusty trade in this State within the preceding ten years. Midkiff v. North Carolina Granite Corp., 235 N. C. 149, 69 S. E., (2d) 166 (1952).

Requirements of This Section and § 97-57 Essential to Award for Silicosis.—See note to § 97-57.

§ 97-64. General provisions of act to control as regards benefits.—Except as herein otherwise provided, in case of disablement or death from sili-
§ 97-65. Reduction of rate where tuberculosis develops.—In case of disablement or death due primarily from silicosis and/or asbestosis and complicated with tuberculosis of the lungs compensation shall be payable as hereinbefore provided, except that the rate of payments may be reduced one-sixth. (1935, c. 123.)

Time for Making Reduction in Award.—It is at the time of determining the total amount of compensation as provided in § 97-61.6 that the Commission should take into consideration the fact that the employee's condition is complicated by pulmonary tuberculosis and determine in its wisdom the extent to which the provisions of this section should affect the compensation payable to the employee. Pitman v. Carpenter, 247 N. C. 63, 100 S. E. (2d) 231 (1957).

Reduction of Award Rests in Discretion of Commission.—Where the Industrial Commission finds that a disabled employee was suffering from tuberculosis as well as from silicosis, whether the award for disability from silicosis should be reduced one-sixth rests in the discretion of the Industrial Commission. Stewart v. Duncan, 239 N. C. 640, 80 S. E. (2d) 764 (1954); Fetner v. Rocky Mount Marble & Granite Works, 251 N. C. 296, 111 S. E. (2d) 324 (1959).

§ 97-66. Claim where benefits are discontinued.—Where compensation payments have been made and discontinued, and further compensation is claimed, whether for disablement, disability or death from lead poisoning, the claim for further compensation shall be made within two years after the last payment, but in all other cases of occupational disease claims for further compensation shall be made within one year after the last payment, provided, that claims for further compensation for asbestosis or silicosis shall be governed by the final award as set forth in G. S. 97-61.6. (1935, c. 123; 1945, c. 762; 1955, c. 525, s. 3.)

Editor's Note. — Prior to the 1945 amendment this section also related to requirements as to notice of occupational disease to employer or Industrial Commission, and to waiver of notice and claim where payments are made. For present provisions as to report and notice to employer and time for filing claim, see § 97-58.

The 1955 amendment rewrote this section.

For decision under former provisions of this section, see Blassingame v. Southern Asbestos Co., 217 N. C. 223, 7 S. E. (2d) 478 (1940).

Stated in Duncan v. Carpenter, 233 N. C. 422, 64 S. E. (2d) 410 (1951).

§ 97-67. Post-mortem examinations; notice to next of kin and insurance carrier.—Upon the filing of a claim for death from an occupational disease where in the opinion of the Industrial Commission a post-mortem examination is necessary to accurately ascertain the cause of death, such examination shall be ordered by the Industrial Commission. A full report of such examination shall be certified to the Industrial Commission. The surviving spouse or next kin and the employer or his insurance carrier, if their identity and whereabouts can be reasonably ascertained, shall be given reasonable notice of the time and place of such post-mortem examination, and, if present at such examination, shall be given an opportunity to witness the same. Any such person may be present at and witness such examination either in person or through a duly authorized representative. If such examination is not consented to by the surviving husband or wife or next of kin, all right to compensation shall cease. (1935, c. 123.)

§ 97-68. Controverted medical questions. — The Industrial Commission may at its discretion refer to the advisory medical committee controverted medical questions arising out of occupational disease claims other than asbestosis or silicosis. (1935, c. 123; 1955, c. 525, s. 4.)

Editor's Note. — The 1955 amendment rewrote this section.

§ 97-69. Examination by advisory medical committee; inspection of medical reports. — The advisory medical committee, upon reference to it of a case of occupational disease shall notify the employee, or, in case he is dead, his dependents or personal representative, and his employer to appear before the advisory medical committee at a time and place stated in the notice. If the employee be living, he shall appear before the advisory medical committee at the time and place specified then or thereafter and he shall submit to such examinations including clinical and X-ray examinations as the advisory medical committee may require. The employee, or, if he be dead, the claimant and the employer shall be entitled to have present at all such examinations, a physician admitted to practice medicine in the State who shall be given every reasonable facility for observing every such examination whose services shall be paid for by the claimant or by the employer who engaged his services. If a physician admitted to practice medicine in the State shall certify that the employee is physically unable to appear at the time and place designated by the advisory medical committee, such committee may, upon the advice of the Industrial Commission, and on notice to the employer, change the place and/or time of the examination so as to reasonably facilitate the examination of the employee, and in any such case the employer shall furnish transportation and provide for other reasonably necessary expenses incidental to necessary travel. The claimant and the employer shall produce to the advisory medical committee all reports of medical and X-ray examinations which may be in their respective possession or control showing the past or present condition of the employee to assist the advisory medical committee in reaching its conclusions. Provided that this section shall not apply to a living employee who has contracted asbestosis or silicosis. (1935, c. 123; 1955, c. 525, s. 5.)

§ 97-70. Report of committee to Industrial Commission. — The advisory medical committee, shall, as soon as practicable after it has completed its consideration of a case, report to the Industrial Commission its opinion regarding all medical questions involved in the case. The advisory medical committee shall include in its report a statement of what, if any, physician or physicians were present at the examination on behalf of the claimant or employer and what, if any, medical reports and X-rays were produced by or on behalf of the claimant or employer. (1935, c. 123.)

§ 97-71. Filing report; right of hearing on report. — The advisory medical committee shall file its report in triplicate with the Industrial Commission, which shall send one copy thereof to the claimant and one copy to the employer by registered mail. Unless within thirty days from receipt of the copy of said report the claimant and/or employer shall request the Industrial Commission in writing to set the case for further hearing for the purpose of examining and/or cross-ex-
§ 97-72. Appointment of advisory medical committee; terms of office; duties and functions; salaries and expenses.—There shall be an advisory medical committee consisting of three members, who shall be licensed physicians in good professional standing and peculiarly qualified in the diagnosis and/or treatment of occupational diseases. They shall be appointed by the Industrial Commission with the approval of the Governor, and one of them shall be designated as chairman of the committee by the Industrial Commission. The members of committee shall be appointed to serve terms as follows: One for a term of two years, one for a term of four years, and one for a term of six years. Upon the expiration of each term as above mentioned the Industrial Commission shall appoint a successor for a term of six years; except that the terms of the members first appointed shall expire June thirtieth, one thousand nine hundred thirty-six. The function of the committee shall be to conduct examinations and make reports as required by §§ 97-61 and 97-68 to 97-71, and to assist in any post-mortem examinations provided for in § 97-67 when so directed by the Industrial Commission. Members of the committee shall devote to the duties of the office so much of their time as may be required in the conducting of examinations with reasonable promptness, and they shall attend hearings as scheduled by the Industrial Commission when their attendance is desired for the purpose of examining and cross-examining them respecting any report or reports made by them.

The members of the advisory medical committee shall be paid such salaries and/or fees and expenses, and in monthly installments or in such other manner as may be determined by the Governor and approved by the Advisory Budget Commission. (1935, c. 123; 1955, c. 525, s. 7.)

Editor’s Note. — The 1955 amendment added § 97-61 to the sections referred to in the fifth sentence. By the same act, § 97-61 was rewritten as §§ 97-61.1 through 97-61.7.

§ 97-73. Expenses of making examinations.—The Industrial Commission shall establish a schedule of reasonable charges to defray expenses incurred in making examinations pursuant to §§ 97-60, 97-61 and 97-67, such charges to be collected in accordance with rules and regulations which shall be adopted by the Industrial Commission. Said charges shall be collected from employers who by order of the Industrial Commission are determined to be subject to the hazards of asbestosis and/or silicosis. (1935, c. 123; 1955, c. 525, s. 8.)

Editor’s Note. — The 1955 amendment added § 97-61 to the sections referred to in the first sentence. By the same act, § 97-61 was rewritten as §§ 97-61.1 through 97-61.7.

§ 97-75. Making up deficiency by assessment upon employers in hazardous industries; provision for annual fund.—In the event the amount appropriated by the General Assembly and the charges, fees and allowances so assessed and collected and paid into the State treasury shall not be sufficient to pay the full cost incurred by the advisory medical committee in making examinations of employees, and conducting post-mortem examinations, and in making investigations of claims arising under this article, and in testifying before the Industrial Commission, the Industrial Commission shall assess against the employers found by the Industrial Commission to be subject to the hazards of asbestosis and/or silicosis an amount sufficient to pay such cost, said amount to be assessed against such employers pro rata on the basis of annual pay roll. The Industrial Commission is authorized to assess and collect in advance in the beginning of any year from the employers subject to such hazard an amount estimated as necessary to pay such cost. Said amount when so assessed shall be paid by such employers within ten days after the notice of assessment, and when collected by the Industrial Commission shall be paid into the State treasury as a part of the fund out of which to pay the expenses of the advisory medical committee. In the event such amount so assessed shall be found to be in excess of the cost incurred by such advisory medical committee in the performance of its duties under this article, such excess shall be credited against the estimate of the cost to be incurred by said committee for the succeeding year. In case the amount so assessed shall be insufficient to pay such cost the Industrial Commission is authorized to make an additional assessment to be made at the end of the regular assessment period and to be collected from the employers subject to the hazards of asbestosis and/or silicosis. (1935, c. 123.)

§ 97-76. Inspection of hazardous employments; refusal to allow inspection made misdemeanor.—The Industrial Commission shall make inspections of employments for the purpose of ascertaining whether such employments, or any of them, are subject to the hazards of asbestosis and/or silicosis, and for the purpose of making studies and recommendations with a view to reducing and/or eliminating such hazards. The Industrial Commission, and/or any person selected by it, is authorized to enter upon the premises of employers where employments covered by this article are being carried on to make examinations and studies as aforesaid. Any employer, or any officer or agent of an employer, who unreasonably prevents or obstructs any such examinations or study shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. (1935, c. 123.)

Editor's Note.—The 1931 amendment struck out the following words formerly appearing at the end of this section: "And such member so selected as chairman shall not be one who, on account of his previous vocation, employment or affiliations, can be classed either as representative of employers or as representative of employees."

For act authorizing the Industrial Commission to hear and determine certain listed tort claims against certain State departments and agencies, see Session Laws 1949, c. 1138.

The Commission is not a court of general jurisdiction. It can have no implied jurisdiction beyond the presumption that it is clothed with power to perform the duties required of it by the law entrusted to it for administration. Barber v. Minges, 223 N. C. 213, 25 S. E. (2d) 837 (1943).

The Industrial Commission is not a court of general jurisdiction. It is an administrative board with quasi-judicial functions and has a special or limited jurisdiction created by statute and confined to its terms. Letterlough v. Atkins, 258 N. C. 166, 128 S. E. (2d) 215 (1962).

The legislature intended that the Industrial Commission should administer the Workmen's Compensation Act under summary and simple procedure, distinctly its own, so as to furnish speedy, substantial, and complete relief to parties bound by the act. Greene v. Spivey, 236 N. C. 435, 73 S. E. (2d) 488 (1952).

Majority of Commission.—The Commission is a continuing body. As a Commission it acts by a majority of its qualified members at the time decision is made. A vote of two of the then members, therefore, constituted a majority of the Commission empowered to act for the Commission. Gant v. Crouch, 243 N. C. 604, 91 S. E. (2d) 705 (1956).

§ 97-78. Salaries and expenses; secretary and other clerical assistance; annual report.—(a) The salaries of the chairman and each of the other commissioners shall be fixed by the Governor, subject to the approval of the Advisory Budget Commission, such salaries to be payable in monthly installments.

(b) The Commission may appoint a secretary whose duties shall be prescribed by the Commission, and whose salary shall be fixed by the Governor subject to the approval of the Advisory Budget Commission and who, upon entering upon his duties, shall give bond in such sum as may be fixed by the Commission, and who may be removed at the will of the Commission. The Commission may also employ such clerical or other assistance as it may deem necessary, and fix the compensation of all persons so employed, such compensation to be in keeping with the compensation paid to the persons employed to do similar work in other State departments.
§ 97-79. Offices and supplies; deputies with power to subpoena witnesses and to take testimony; meetings; hearings.—(a) The Commission shall be provided with adequate offices in which the records shall be kept and its official business transacted during regular business hours; it shall also be provided with necessary office furniture, stationery, and other supplies.

(b) The Commission may appoint deputies who shall have the same power to issue subpoenas, administer oaths, conduct hearings, take evidence, and enter orders, opinions, and awards based thereon as is possessed by the members of the Commission, and the compensation of such deputy or deputies shall be fixed by the Commission.

(c) The Commission or any member thereof may hold sessions at any place within the State as may be deemed necessary by the Commission.

(d) Hearings before the Commission shall be open to the public and shall be stenographically reported, and the Commission is authorized to contract for the reporting of such hearings. The Commission shall by regulation provide for the preparation of a record of the hearings and other proceedings.

(e) The North Carolina Industrial Commission, or any member thereof, or any deputy is authorized by appropriate order, to make additional parties plain-tiff or defendant in any proceeding pending before the North Carolina Industrial Commission when it is made to appear that such new party is either a necessary party or a proper party to a final determination of the proceeding. (1929, c. 120, s. 53; 1931, c. 274, s. 10; 1951, c. 1059, s. 7; 1955, c. 1026, s. 11.)

Editor's Note.—The 1931 amendment struck out, after "offices" in subsection (a), "in the capitol, or some other suitable building in the city of Raleigh."

The 1951 amendment rewrote subsection (b), and the 1955 amendment added subsection (e).

For comment on the 1951 amendment, see 29 N. C. Law Rev. 416.

View of Premises and Method of Doing Work.—In Johnson v. Erwin Cotton Mills Co., 232 N. C. 321, 59 S. E. (2d) 828 (1950), the hearing commissioner, claimant and defendant viewed the premises and the method of doing the work in which plaintiff had been employed. Although apparently approved by the court, the point was not discussed. See also Rewis v. New York Life Ins. Co., 226 N. C. 325, 38 S. E. (2d) 97 (1946).

§ 97-80. Rules and regulations; subpoena of witnesses; examination of books and records; depositions; costs.—(a) The Commission may make rules, not inconsistent with this article, for carrying out the provisions of this article. Processes and procedure under this article shall be as summary and simple as reasonably may be. The Commission or any member thereof, or any person deputized by it, shall have the power, for the purpose of this article, to subpoena witnesses, administer or cause to have administered oaths, and to examine or cause to be examined such parts of the books and records of the parties to a proceeding as relate to questions in dispute. Any party to a proceeding under this article may, upon application to the Commission, which application shall set forth the materiality of the evidence to be given, cause the depositions of witnesses residing within or without the State to be taken, the costs to be taxed as other costs by Commission. Such depositions shall be taken after giving the notice and in the manner prescribed by law for depositions in action at law, except that they shall be directed to the Commission, the commissioner, or the deputy commissioner before whom the proceedings may be pending.

(b) The county sheriffs and their respective deputies shall serve all subpoenas of the Commission or its deputies, and shall receive the same fees as are now provided by law for like services; each witness who appears in obedience to such subpoena of the Commission shall receive for attendance the fees and mileage for witnesses in civil cases in courts of the county where the hearing is held.

(c) The superior court shall, on application of the Commission or any member or deputy thereof, enforce by proper proceedings the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production and examination of books, papers and records.

Rule-Making Power Relates Only to Administrative Matters.—The rule-making power here granted relates only to administrative matters. There can be no delegation of the power to make law. Motsinger v. Perryman, 218 N. C. 15, 9 S. E. (2d) 511 (1940).

Construction and Application of Rules.—Under this section the North Carolina Industrial Commission has the power not only to make rules governing its administration of the act, but also to construe and apply such rules. Its construction and application of its rules, duly made and promulgated, in proceedings pending before the Commission, ordinarily are final and conclusive and not subject to review by the courts of this State, on an appeal from an award made by said Industrial Commission. Winslow v. Carolina Conference Ass'n, 211 N. C. 571, 191 S. E. 403 (1937).

Rules promulgated by the Commission are for the benefit of the Commission and must be complied with by the parties to a proceeding brought pursuant to the provisions of the Workmen’s Compensation Act. Brewer v. Powers Trucking Co., 256 N. C. 175, 123 S. E. (2d) 608 (1962).

Rules Inconsistent with Article.—The power to make rules may not be exercised when the rule is inconsistent with this article. Evans v. Asheville Citizens Times Co., 246 N. C. 669, 100 S. E. (2d) 75 (1957), holding that Rule XVI of the Commission was inconsistent with § 97-30.

The Industrial Commission was not entitled to relax its rule that fees for practical nursing would not be allowed unless written authority was obtained from the Commission in advance, so as to award mother of injured employee an amount for practical nursing services rendered to injured employee where the record showed Commission never gave its written or oral permission for rendition of services. Hatchett v. Hitchcock Corp., 240 N. C. 591, 83 S. E. (2d) 539 (1954).

Rule requiring notice of cancellation of policy to be given to Commission does not become a part of the policy contract. Motsinger v. Perryman, 218 N. C. 15, 9 S. E. (2d) 511 (1940).

Rule Relative to New Evidence on Review.—The rules of the Industrial Commission, adopted pursuant to this section, relative to the introduction of new evidence on a review by the full Commission, are in accord with the decisions of the Supreme Court as to granting new trials for newly discovered evidence. Tindall v. American Furniture Co., 216 N. C. 306, 4 S. E. (2d) 894 (1939).

Procedure before the Industrial Commission need not necessarily conform strictly to judicial procedure in courts of law unless the statute so requires or the court of last resort shall consider such procedure indispensable to the preservation of the essentials of justice and the principles of due process of law, and pro-procedure adopted by the Commission with respect to the reception and consideration of evidence will be given liberal treatment by the courts, since this section empowers the Commission to make rules for carrying out the provisions of the act, and requires processes and procedure to be summary and simple. Maley v. Thomasville Furniture Co., 214 N. C. 589, 200 S. E. 438 (1939).

Determination of Jurisdiction Is First Order of Business.—In every proceeding before the Commission determination of jurisdiction is the first order of business. Letterlough v. Atkins, 258 N. C. 166, 128 S. E. (2d) 215 (1962).

Basis of Facts Found. — Determinative facts upon which rights of parties are made to rest must be found from judicial admissions made by the parties, facts agreed, stipulations entered into and noted at the hearing, and evidence offered in open court, after all parties have been given full opportunity to be heard. recourse may not be had to records, files, evidence, or data not thus presented to the court. Letterlough v. Atkins, 258 N. C. 166, 128 S. E. (2d) 215 (1962).

Hearsay evidence is not competent to establish either that the accident arose out of or in the course of the employment. Plyler v. Charlotte Country Club, 214 N. C. 453, 199 S. E. 622 (1938).

It is clear, however, that the award of the Commission will not be disturbed because of the presence of hearsay testimony when there is other competent evidence upon which to base the findings. Hearsay evidence offered without objection may serve to corroborate and explain the other evidence in the case. Maley v. Thomasville Furniture Co., 214 N. C. 589, 200 S. E. 438 (1938). For other cases involving hearsay, see note 97-2.

The report of an accident filed by the employer with the Commission, being in the nature of an admission, is competent evidence in a hearing involving the accident. Russell v. Western Oil Co., 206 N. C. 341, 174 S. E. 101 (1934).

Even if a report filed by defendant's manager contained some statement of fact not of his personal knowledge, it was competent as a declaration against interest. Carlton v. Bernhardt-Seagle Co., 210 N. C. 655, 188 S. E. 77 (1936) (where the only evidence to show the cause of injury was that contained in the employer's report).

Unsigned Letter from Doctor Reporting on Employee's Condition.—Pending hearing in the superior court, a copy of an unsigned letter from a doctor reporting the condition of employee's eye was added to the record by the Commission's supplemental certificate. On later appeal and reversal for other reasons, the Supreme Court declared that this letter was "incompetent" and "has no place in the record and evidence." Logan v. Johnson, 218 N. C. 200, 10 S. E. (2d) 653 (1940). See note, "Evidence before North Carolina Tribunals," 19 N. C. Law Rev. 568, esp. 577-583.

Evidence as to the course of dealing between employer and employee is of value to show the interpretation which they put upon the character of the employment and their intention regarding it. Smith v. Gastonia, 216 N. C. 517, 5 S. E. (2d) 540 (1939).

The Commission is the sole judge of the credibility of witnesses, and there is no obligation to accord unquestioned credence to any testimony, even if uncontradicted. Anderson v. Northwestern Motor Co., 233 N. C. 372, 61 S. E. (2d) 205 (1951).

Power to Force Witness to Testify.—This section does not deprive the Commission of the power to force a witness who is before it to testify and to punish for contempt a witness who refuses to testify. In re Hayes, 200 N. C. 133, 156 S. E. 791, 73 A. L. R. 1179 (1931).

Rehearing.—While there is no direct statutory provision giving the Industrial Commission power to order a rehearing of an award made by it for newly discovered evidence, the Commission has such power in proper instances in accordance with its rules and regulations, as provided by this section, it being the intent of the legislature, as gathered from the whole act, to give the Industrial Commission continuing jurisdiction of all proceedings begun before it with appellate jurisdiction in the superior court on matters of law only. Butts v. Montague Bros., 208 N. C. 186, 179 S. E. 799 (1935).

Costs.—For other provisions as to costs, see § 97-89 (medical fees); § 97-74 (medical committee fees); § 97-88 (costs on review); § 97-100 (f) (attorney's fees in tax collection proceedings).

§ 97-81. Blank forms and literature; statistics; safety provisions; accident reports; studies and investigations and recommendations to General Assembly; to co-operate with other agencies for prevention of injury.—(a) The Commission shall prepare and cause to be printed, and upon request furnish, free of charge to any employee or employer, such blank forms and literature as it shall deem requisite to facilitate or prompt the efficient administration of this article.

(b) The Commission shall tabulate the accident reports received from employers in accordance with § 97-92 and shall publish the same in the annual report of the Commission and as often as it may deem advisable, in such detailed or aggregate form as it may deem best. The name of the employer or employee shall not appear in such publications, and the employers' reports shall be private records of the Commission, and shall not be open for public inspection except for the inspection of the parties directly involved, and only to the extent of such interest. These reports shall not be used as evidence against any employer in any suit at law brought by any employee for the recovery of damages.

(c) The Commission shall make studies and investigations with respect to safety provisions and the causes of injuries in employments covered by this article, and shall from time to time make to the General Assembly and to employers and carriers such recommendations as it may deem proper as to the best means of preventing such injuries.

(d) In making such studies and investigations the Commission is authorized

(1) To co-operate with any agency of the United States charged with the duty of enforcing any law securing safety against injury in any employment covered by this article, or with any State agency engaged in enforcing any laws to assure safety for employees, and

(2) To permit any such agency to have access to the records of the Commission.

In carrying out the provisions of this section the Commission or any officer or employee of the Commission is authorized to enter at any reasonable time upon any premises, tracks, wharf, dock, or other landing place, or to enter any building, where an employment covered by this article is being carried on, and to examine any tool, appliance, or machinery used in such employment. (1929, c. 120, s. 55.)

§ 97-82. Memorandum of agreement between employer and employee to be submitted to Commission on prescribed forms for approval. —If after seven days after the date of the injury, or at any time in case of death, the employer and the injured employee or his dependents reach an agreement in regard to compensation under this article, a memorandum of the agreement in the form prescribed by the Industrial Commission, accompanied by a full and complete medical report, shall be filed with and approved by the Commission; otherwise such agreement shall be voidable by the employee or his dependents.

If approved by the Commission, thereupon the memorandum shall for all purposes be enforceable by the court's decree as hereinafter specified. (1929, c. 120, s 56.)

Purpose and Effect of Section. — The section was inserted in the Workmen's Compensation Act to protect the employees of the State against the disadvantages arising out of their economic status and give assurance that the settlement is in accord with the intent and purpose of the act. Therefore, in approving the settlement in which compensation is awarded, the Commission acts in a judicial capacity. The voluntary settlement as approved becomes an award enforceable by a court decree. Biddix v. Rex Mills, Inc., 237 N. C. 660, 75 S. E. (2d) 777 (1953).

When Jurisdiction of Commission Invoked.—The jurisdiction of the Commission is invoked either when a claim for compensation is filed or a voluntary settlement is submitted for approval. Letterlough v. Atkins, 258 N. C. 166, 128 S. E. (2d) 215 (1962).

Section Contemplates Only Settlement in Respect of Amount of Compensation.—The only "settlement" contemplated by this section is a settlement in respect of the amount of compensation to which claimants are entitled under the act. McGill v. Bison Fast Freight, Inc., 245 N. C. 469, 96 S. E. (2d) 438 (1957).

And Does Not Apply to Compromise and Settlement of Common-Law Claim.—Compromise and settlement of the common-law claim of the administratrix of a deceased employee for the wrongful death of the employee, executed under the mistaken belief that the Workmen's Compensation Act was not applicable, will not be disturbed on the ground that the Industrial Commission did not approve such settlement as provided in this section. McGill v. Bison Fast Freight, Inc., 245 N. C. 469, 96 S. E. (2d) 438 (1957).

Interlocutory Award.—The approval by the Industrial Commission of an agreement of the parties for compensation was not, under the circumstances, a final award, but an interlocutory award, and the Industrial Commission retained jurisdiction to enter a final award upon the filing of a full and complete medical report. Pratt v. Central Upholstery Co., 252 N. C. 716, 115 S. E. (2d) 27 (1960).

Change of Condition. — After plaintiff had been awarded compensation for partial disability, a hearing was had to determine whether there had been a change of condition. Plaintiff alleged partial deafness. The matter was heard several times, and finally a compromise was approved whereby plaintiff was paid a lump sum "as a full and complete settlement." Later plaintiff asked for another hearing because of another change of condition. It was held that in the absence of fraud or mutual mistake, or in the absence of consent on defendant's part, the agreement was binding. Recovery was denied. Morgan v. Norwood, 211 N. C. 600, 191 S. E. 345 (1937).

§ 97-83. In event of disagreement, Commission is to make award after hearing. — If the employer and the injured employee or his dependents fail to reach an agreement, in regard to compensation under this article within fourteen days after the employee has knowledge of the injury or death, or if they have reached such an agreement which has been signed and filed with the Commission, and compensation has been paid or is due in accordance therewith, and the parties thereto then disagree as to the continuance of any weekly payment under such agreement, either party may make application to the Industrial Commission for a hearing in regard to the matters at issue, and for a ruling thereon.

Immediately after such application has been received the Commission shall set the date of a hearing, which shall be held as soon as practicable, and shall notify the parties at issue of the time and place of such hearing. The hearing or hearings shall be held in the city or county where the injury occurred, unless otherwise authorized by the Industrial Commission. (1929, c. 120, s. 57; 1955, c. 1026, s. 12Y4.)

Editor's Note.—The 1955 amendment inserted "or hearings" in the last sentence and deleted therefrom "agreed to by the parties and" formerly appearing after "otherwise."

Provisions for Settlement of Any Matter in Dispute.—In this section and §§ 97-84 through 97-86 the General Assembly has prescribed an adequate remedy by which any matter in dispute and incident to any claim under the provisions of the Workmen's Compensation Act may be determined and settled. Worley v. Pipes, 229 N. C. 465, 50 S. E. (2d) 504 (1948).

Remedy Is Exclusive.—The remedy provided by this and the three following sections is exclusive. Worley v. Pipes, 229 N. C. 465, 50 S. E. (2d) 504 (1948).

Same—Physician's Claim for Services.—The sole remedy of a physician to recover for services to an injured employee, where the employee and employer are subject to the Workmen's Compensation Act, is by application to the Industrial Commission in accordance with this section and §§ 97-84 through 97-86 to consider plaintiff's bill for such services, notwithstanding that the employer denies liability for the injury on the ground that it did not arise out of and in the course of the employment. The physician may not challenge the constitutionality of the relevant provisions of this chapter by an independent suit against the employee to recover for the medical services. Matros v. Owen, 229 N. C. 472, 50 S. E. (2d) 509 (1948).

Where a physician renders services to an injured employee under private contract without knowledge that the injury was covered by the Workmen's Compensation Act, and thereafter upon discovery that the injury is compensable files claim for such services with the Industrial Commission in order that the employee may get the benefit thereof, his remedy upon approval by the Industrial Commission in a sum less than the full amount of his claim, is to request a hearing before the Commission with right of appeal to the courts for review (this section and §§ 97-84 through 97-86), and this remedy is exclusive and precludes the physician from maintaining an action against the employee to recover the full contractual amount for the services and attacking the constitutionality of the relevant provisions of the act. Worley v. Pipes, 229 N. C. 465, 50 S. E. (2d) 504 (1948).

A proceeding before the Industrial Commission for compensation is not a lawsuit in the strict sense, and many of the prerequisites of an action at law are not required. Thus, an infant employee 18 years of age or over may prosecute his claim directly without the appointment of a next friend or guardian. Lineberry v. Mebane, 218 N. C. 737, 12 S. E. (2d) 252 (1940).

How Minor Under Eighteen May Prosecute Claim.—While, for the purposes of the act, a minor becomes sui juris upon attaining the age of 18 years, until then he may prosecute his proceeding for compensation only when represented by general guardian or other legal representative. McGill v. Bison Fast Freight, Inc., 245 N. C. 469, 96 S. E. (2d) 438 (1957).

§ 97-84. Determination of disputes by Commission or deputy.—The Commission or any of its members shall hear the parties at issue and their representatives and witnesses, and shall determine the dispute in a summary manner. The award, together with a statement of the findings of fact, rulings of law, and other matters pertinent to the questions at issue shall be filed with the record of the proceedings, and a copy of the award shall immediately be sent to the parties in dispute. The parties may be heard by a deputy, in which event the hearing shall be conducted in the same way and manner prescribed for hearings which are conducted by a member of the Industrial Commission, and said deputy shall proceed to a complete determination of the matters in dispute, file his written opinion, and cause to be issued an award pursuant to such determination. (1929, c. 120, s. 53; 1951, c. 1059).

Cross Reference.—As to exclusiveness of remedy provided by §§ 97-83 to 97-86, see note to § 97-83.

Editor's Note.—The 1951 amendment rewrote the last sentence of this section so as to allow a deputy to make a complete determination of the dispute, rather than merely to hear the parties and transmit the testimony to the Commission for its final determination and award.

The Industrial Commission is the sole judge of the truthfulness and weight of the testimony of the witnesses in the discharge of its function as the fact-finding authority under the Workmen's Compensation Act. Henry v. A. C. Lawrence Leather Co., 231 N. C. 477, 57 S. E. (2d) 760 (1950).

In passing upon issues of fact, the Commission, like any other trier of facts, is the sole judge of the credibility of the witnesses, and of the weight to be given to their testimony. It may accept or reject the testimony of a witness, either in whole or in part, depending solely upon whether it believes or disbelieves the same. Anderson v. Northwestern Motor Co., 233 N. C. 372, 64 S. E. (2d) 265 (1951); Moses v. Bartholomew, 238 N. C. 714, 78 S. E. (2d) 923 (1951).

It would be contrary to the essence of the fact-finding authority conferred by this section to make it obligatory upon the Commission to accord unquestioned credence even to uncontradicted testimony. Anderson v. Northwestern Motor Co., 233 N. C. 372, 64 S. E. (2d) 265 (1951).

But the Commission is not required to make a finding as to each detail of the evidence or at every inference or shade of meaning to be drawn therefrom. Guest v. Brenner Iron & Metal Co., 241 N. C. 448, 85 S. E. (2d) 506 (1955).

Findings May Not Rest upon Evidence Not Presented to Commission.—In judicial proceedings before the Commission the facts found must rest upon admissions made by the parties, facts agreed, stipulations entered into and noted at the hearing, and evidence offered in open court, after all parties have been given full opportunity to be heard. Recourse may not be had to records, files, evidence, or data not thus presented to the Commission for consideration. Biddix v. Rex Mills, Inc., 237 N. C. 660, 75 S. E. (2d) 777 (1953).

Admission of Incompetent Evidence.—As to the effect of the provision for hearing and determining the dispute "in a summary manner" on the question of admitting incompetent evidence, see corresponding language of § 97-80 and notes to §§ 97-80, 97-86.

Agreement Approved by Commission Is as Binding as Award.—An agreement for the payment of compensation when approved by the Commission is as binding on the parties as an order, decision or award of the Commission unappealed from, or an award of the Commission affirmed on appeal. Neal v. Clary, 259 N. C. 163, 130 S. E. (2d) 39 (1963).

Commission May Vacate Award Entered Contrary to Law.—The Commission is privileged to vacate an award which the Commission itself admits was entered contrary to law. Ruth v. Carolina Cleaners, 206 N. C. 540, 174 S. E. 445 (1934).

§ 97-85. Review of award. — If application is made to the Commission within seven days from the date when notice of the award shall have been given, the full Commission shall review the award, and, if good ground be shown therefor, reconsider the evidence, receive further evidence, rehear the parties or their representatives, and, if proper, amend the award: Provided, however, when application is made for review of an award, and such an award has been heard and determined by a commissioner of the North Carolina Industrial Commission, the commissioner who heard and determined the dispute in the first instance, as specified by G. S. 97-84, shall be disqualified from sitting with the full Commission on the review of such award, and the chairman of the Industrial Commission shall designate a deputy commissioner to take such commissioner's place in the review of the particular award. The deputy commissioner so designated, along with the two other commissioners, shall compose the full Commission upon review. (1929, c. 120, s. 59; 1963, c. 402.)
Cross Reference.—As to exclusiveness of remedy provided by §§ 97-83 to 97-86, see note to § 97-83.

Editor's Note. — The 1963 amendment added the proviso to this section.

Continuing Jurisdiction of Commission. —The Industrial Commission has, within the limits prescribed by statute, continuing jurisdiction, and hence as an administrative agency empowered to hear evidence and render awards thereon affecting the rights of workers, has and ought to have authority to make its own records speak the truth in order to protect its own decrees from mistake of material facts and the blight of fraud; therefore when the full Commission finds and asserts that the award was not made in compliance with the provisions of the statute, then manifestly the Commission is entitled to vacate an award which the Commission itself admits was contrary to law. McDowell v. Kure Beach, 251 N. C. 818, 112 S. E. (2d) 390 (1960).

The Commission is the fact-finding body under the Workmen’s Compensation Act. The finding of facts is one of the primary duties of the Commission. Brewer v. Powers Trucking Co., 256 N. C. 175, 123 S. E. (2d) 608 (1962).

Rules promulgated by the Commission do not limit the power of the Commission to review, modify, adopt, or reject the findings of fact found by a deputy commissioner or by an individual member of the Commission when acting as a hearing commissioner. Brewer v. Powers Trucking Co., 256 N. C. 175, 123 S. E. (2d) 608 (1962).

Power to Modify or Strike Out Findings of Fact.—The power to review the evidence, reconsider it, receive evidence, rehear the parties or their representatives, and, if proper, to amend the award, carries with it the power to modify or strike out findings of fact made by the deputy commissioner or hearing commissioner if in the judgment of the Commission such finding is not proper. Brewer v. Powers Trucking Co., 256 N. C. 175, 123 S. E. (2d) 608 (1962).

Hearing New or Additional Testimony. —An appellant to the full Commission has no substantive right to require it to hear new additional testimony, but the Commission's duty to do so applies only if good ground therefor be shown, and its rules in regard thereto, adopted pursuant to § 97-80, are in accord with the decision of the Supreme Court relating to the granting of new trials for newly discovered evidence. Tindall v. American Furniture Co., 216 N. C. 306, 4 S. E. (2d) 894 (1939).

Objection to the admission of incompetent evidence should be made before the hearing commissioner, and objection taken for the first time at the hearing before the full Commission on appeal is too late. Maley v. Thomasville Furniture Co., 214 N. C. 589, 200 S. E. 438 (1939).

Failure of Employer to File Notice of Appeal.—Defendant carrier filed apt notice of appeal to the full Commission and later to the superior court. The employer failed to file such notice. It was held that the employer's liability, he not being a party to the appeal, would not have been affected even if the case were reversed. McPherson v. Henry Motor Sales Corp., 201 N. C. 303, 160 S. E. 283, appeal dismissed, 286 U. S. 527, 52 S. Ct. 499, 76 L. Ed. 1269 (1931).

Judicial Review of Findings of Fact of Hearing Commissioner.—A finding of fact by a hearing commissioner or by a deputy commissioner never reaches the superior court or the Supreme Court unless it has been affirmed by the Commission. Brewer v. Powers Trucking Co., 256 N. C. 175, 123 S. E. (2d) 608 (1962).

Cited in Champion v. Vance County Board of Health, 221 N. C. 96, 19 S. E. (2d) 239 (1942); Worley v. Pipes, 229 N. C. 465, 50 S. E. (2d) 504 (1948).

§ 97-86. Award conclusive as to facts; appeal; certified questions of law.—The award of the Commission, as provided in § 97-84, if not reviewed in due time, or an award of the Commission upon such review, as provided in § 97-85, shall be conclusive and binding as to all questions of fact; but either party to the dispute may, within thirty days from the date of such award, or within thirty days after receipt of notice to be sent by registered mail or certified mail of such award, but not thereafter, appeal from the decision of said Commission to the superior court of the county in which the alleged accident happened, or in which the employer resides or has his principal office, for errors of law, under the same terms and conditions as govern appeals in ordinary civil actions: Provided the Commission shall have sixty days after receipt of notice of appeal, properly served on the opposing party and the Industrial Commission, within which to prepare and furnish to the appellant or his attorney a certified transcript of the record in the case for filing in superior court. The Commission, of its own motion, may certify questions of law to the Supreme Court, for decision and determination by the said Court. In case of an appeal from the decision of the Commission, or of a certification by said Commission of questions of law, to the Supreme Court, said appeal or certification shall operate as a supersedeas, and no employer shall be required to make payment of the award involved in said appeal or certification until the questions at issue therein shall have been fully determined in accordance with the provisions of this article: Provided, however, that if the employer is a noninsurer, then appeal by such employer shall not act as a supersedeas and the plaintiff in such case shall have the same right to issue execution or to satisfy the award from the property of the employer pending the appeal as obtains to the successful party in an action in the superior court. (1929, c. 120, s. 60; 1947, c. 823; 1957, c. 1396, s. 9; 1959, c. 863, s. 4.)

Cross Reference.—As to exclusiveness of remedy provided by §§ 97-83 through 97-86, see note to § 97-83.

Editor's Note. — The 1947 amendment inserted the proviso at the end of the first sentence.

The 1957 amendment added the proviso at the end of the section.

The 1959 amendment inserted “or certified mail” following “registered mail” in the first sentence.

For a note on “jurisdictional fact” review by superior courts, see 37 N. C. Law Rev. 219.

The superior court has appellate jurisdiction to review an award of the Industrial Commission for errors of law when a party to the proceeding in which the award is made appeals to it. Thomason v. Red Bird Cab Co., 235 N. C. 602, 70 S. E. (2d) 706 (1952).

Appeal May Be Taken Only from Award of Full Commission.—In Hollowell v. North Carolina Dept. of Conservation & Development, 291 N. C. 616, 161 S. E. 89 (1931), the Supreme Court held that an appeal to the superior court could only be taken from an award of the full Commission.

Scope of Review. — While findings of fact of the Industrial Commission are conclusive on appeal when supported by evidence the courts must review the reasonableness of the inferences of fact deduced from the basic facts found, and the conclusions of law predicated upon them. Evans v. Tabor City Lbr. Co., 232 N. C. 111, 59 S. E. (2d) 612 (1950).

The findings of fact of the Industrial Commission are conclusive on appeal only when supported by evidence, and the court, on appeal, may review the evidence to determine as a matter of law whether there is any evidence tending to support the findings. Vause v. Vause Farm Equipment Co., 233 N. C. 88, 63 S. E. (2d) 173 (1951).

On appeal from an award of the Industrial Commission the jurisdiction of the courts is limited to the questions of law as to whether there was competent evidence before the Commission to support its findings of fact and whether such findings justify the legal conclusions and decision of the Commission. Henry v. A. C. Lawrence Leather Co., 231 N. C. 477, 57 S. E. (2d) 760 (1950); Thomason v. Red Bird Cab Co., 235 N. C. 602, 70 S. E. (2d) 706 (1952).

When the assignments of error bring up for review the findings of fact of the Commission, the court will review the evidence to determine as a matter of law whether there is any competent evidence tending to support the findings; if so, the findings of fact are conclusive on the court. If a finding of fact is a mixed question of fact and law, it is conclusive also, if there is sufficient evidence to sustain the facts involved. If a question of law alone, it is reviewable. Lewter v. Abercrombie Enterprises, Inc., 240 N. C. 399, 82 S. E. (2d) 410 (1954).

When the party aggrieved appeals to court from a decision of the full Commission on the theory that the underlying findings of fact of the full Commission are not supported by competent evidence, the court does not retry the facts. The court merely determines from the proceedings had before the Commission whether there was sufficient competent evidence before the Commission to support the findings of fact of the full Commission. Moses v. Bartholomew, 238 N. C. 714, 78 S. E. (2d) 923 (1953).

It is the duty of the court to determine whether, in any reasonable view of the evidence, it is sufficient to support the critical findings necessary to permit an award of compensation. Keller v. Electric Wiring Co., Inc., 259 N. C. 222, 130 S. E. (2d) 342 (1963).

In passing upon an appeal from an award of the Industrial Commission in a proceeding coming within the purview of the Workmen's Compensation Act, the superior court is limited in its inquiry to these two questions of law: (1) Whether or not there was any competent evidence before the Commission to support its findings of fact; and (2) whether or not findings of fact of the Commission justify its legal conclusions and decision. The superior court cannot consider the evidence in the proceeding in any event for the purpose of finding the facts for itself. If the findings of fact of the Industrial Commission are supported by competent evidence and are determinative of all the questions at issue in the proceeding, the court must accept such findings as final truth and merely determine whether or not they justify the legal conclusions and decision of the Commission. But if the findings of fact of the Industrial Commission are insufficient to enable the court to determine the rights of the parties upon the matters in controversy, the proceeding must be remanded to the Commission for proper findings. Brice v. Robertson House Moving, Wrecking & Salvage Co., 219 N. C. 74, 105 S. E. (2d) 439 (1958).

Findings as to Whether Accident Arose Out of and in Course of Employment.—The findings of fact by the Industrial Commission as to whether injury to an employee was by accident arising out of and in the course of his employment are conclusive on the court even though the findings are supported by competent evidence of sufficient probative force. Perdue v. State Board of Equalization, 205 N. C. 730, 173 S. E. 396 (1934).

When the record contains evidence to support either a finding that the accident did or did not arise out of and in the course of employment, the findings of the Industrial Commission are conclusive on appeal. Ashley v. F-W Chevrolet Co., 222 N. C. 23, 21 S. E. (2d) 834 (1942); Hegler v. Cannon Mills Co., 224 N. C. 669, 31 S. E. (2d) 918 (1944); Fox v. Cramerton Mills, 225 N. C. 580, 35 S. E. (2d) 869 (1945); DeVine v. Dave Steel Co., 227 N. C. 684, 44 S. E. (2d) 77 (1947). See also Chambers v. Union Oil Co., 199 N. C. 28, 153 S. E. 594 (1930).

A finding that an injury arose out of and in the course of the employment is a mixed question of law and fact and, when supported by competent evidence, is conclusive. Marsh v. Bennett College, 212 N. C. 662, 194 S. E. 303 (1937); Lockey v. Cohen, Goldman & Co., 213 N. C. 356, 196 S. E. 342 (1938).

Whether an accident grew out of the employment within the purview of the Workmen's Compensation Act is a mixed question of law and fact, which the court has the right to review on appeal, and when the detailed findings of fact force a conclusion opposite that reached by the Commission, it is the duty of the court to reverse the Commission. Alford v. Quality Chevrolet Co., 216 N. C. 214, 97 S. E. (2d) 869 (1957).

Where an employee, while about his work, suffers an injury in the ordinary course of his employment, the cause of which is unexplained but which is a natural and probable result of a risk thereof, and the Commission finds from all the attendant facts and circumstances that the injury arose out of the employment, an award will be sustained. If, however, the cause is known and is independent of, unrelated to, and apart from the employment, compensation will not be allowed. Vause v. Vause Farm Equipment Co., 233 N. C. 88, 63 S. E. (2d) 173 (1951).

Where there is evidence that the driver of the employer's oil truck habitually carried a pistol in order to protect his employer's property, and that the employer acquiesced therein, and that the plaintiff was injured while filling a fuel tank in the course of his employment by the accidental explosion of the pistol carried by the driver when the driver threw it back into his truck after he and the plaintiff had joked about whether the pistol would shoot, the evidence discloses that the injury arose out of the employment and is sufficient to support the finding of fact by the Industrial Commission to that effect, which is conclusive and binding on appeal. Chambers v. Union Oil Co., 199 N. C. 28, 153 S. E. 594 (1930).

A watchman on one section of a road construction job came over to the section of another and after "an acrimonious colloquy" over matters unrelated to their work, the visitor killed the one on the job. The finding of the Commission that this death was not caused by accident arising out of the employment was proper and conclusive on the court even though the facts might have sustained a contrary conclusion, and the superior court erred in reversing the Commission. McNeill v. C. A. Ragland Constr. Co., 216 N. C. 744, 6 S. E. (2d) 491 (1940).

Exceptions and Objections.—Where appellant on appeal to the superior court does not except to any finding of the Industrial Commission or to the award, but merely gives notice of appeal for a review as to errors of law, the single question presented to the superior court is whether the facts found were sufficient to support the award. Likewise, a sole exception to the judgement of the superior court presents only the question of whether the facts found support the judgment. Wyatt v. Sharp, 239 N. C. 565, 80 S. E. (2d) 762 (1954).

Questions of law which appellant desires the Supreme Court to review, including questions of whether specific findings of fact are supported by the evidence, must be presented by exceptions duly taken and assignments of error duly made which point out specifically and distinctly the alleged error, and the Supreme Court, upon a broadside exception, will not make a voyage of discovery through the record to ascertain if error was committed at some time in some way during the progress of the trial or case. Worsley v. S. & W. Rendering Co., 239 N. C. 547, 80 S. E. (2d) 467 (1954).

Matters to Be Considered on Appeal.—While findings of fact by the Industrial Commission, when supported by competent evidence, are conclusive, the rulings of the Commission are subject to review, including questions of whether specific findings of fact are supported by the evidence, must be presented by exceptions duly taken and assignments of error duly made which point out specifically and distinctly the alleged error, and the Supreme Court, upon a broadside exception, will not make a voyage of discovery through the record to ascertain if error was committed at some time in some way during the progress of the trial or case. Worsley v. S. & W. Rendering Co., 239 N. C. 547, 80 S. E. (2d) 467 (1954).

An appeal from the Industrial Commission is permitted only on matters of law. Fox v. Cramerton Mills, 225 N. C. 580, 35 S. E. (2d) 869 (1943).

The jurisdiction of the superior court is limited to questions of law only. Byrd v. Gloucester Lbr. Co., 207 N. C. 253, 176 S. E. 572 (1934).

On appeal from the Industrial Commission, the superior court has no power to review the findings of fact by the Commission. It can consider only errors of law appearing in the record, as certified by the Commission. Winslow v. Carolina Conference Ass'n, 211 N. C. 571, 191 S. E. 403 (1937).

The award of the Industrial Commission is conclusive and binding as to all questions of fact, and the appeal to the superior court is for error of law only. Ballenger Paving Co. v. North Carolina State Highway Comm., 258 N. C. 691, 129 S. E. (2d) 245 (1963).

On appeal from the Industrial Commission to the superior court, review is limited to questions of law. Whether the record contains any competent evidence to support the facts as found and whether the facts found are sufficient to support the conclusions of the Commission are questions of law. Moore v. Adams Electric Co., Inc., 259 N. C. 735, 131 S. E. (2d) 356 (1963).

Review Limited to Record as Certified by Industrial Commission.—When an appeal is taken from the Industrial Commission, it is heard by the presiding judge of the superior court who sits as an appellate court. His function is to review alleged errors of law made by the Industrial Commission, as disclosed by the record and as presented to him by exceptions duly entered. Necessarily, the scope of review is limited to the record as certified by the Commission and to the questions of law therein presented. Penland v. Bird Coal Co., 246 N. C. 26, 97 S. E. (2d) 432 (1957).

On appeal from a judgment of superior court affirming or reversing an award of the Industrial Commission, the Supreme Court acts upon the record that was before the superior court, and upon that alone, and if the record was defective, it should have been amended in the superior court. Penland v. Bird Coal Co., 246 N. C. 26, 97 S. E. (2d) 432 (1957).

Matters which were not in the record before the superior court, but which are sent up with the transcript to the Supreme Court, are no more a part of the record in the Supreme Court than they were in the superior court, and may not be made so by certificate of the court below. Penland v. Bird Coal Co., 246 N. C. 26, 97 S. E. (2d) 432 (1957).

Raising Question of Commission’s Jurisdiction.—The Commission’s jurisdiction may be questioned at any stage and even where an appeal, by stipulation, raises only the question of who was claimant’s employer. If the record fails to show by testimony or admission that appellant had the requisite number of employees, the Commission is not shown to have acquired jurisdiction. The stipulation here made that there is only one question at issue will not serve as an admission of the jurisdictional fact. Chadwick v. North Carolina Dept. of Conservation & Development, 219 N. C. 766, 14 S. E. (2d) 842 (1941).

Evidence Not Considered.—Under this section an award of the Industrial Commission is conclusive and binding as to all questions of fact when supported by sufficient, competent evidence, and neither the Supreme Court nor the superior court can consider the evidence for the purpose of determining the facts on appeal. Reed v. Lavender Bros., 206 N. C. 898, 172 S. E.

mismission is conclusive on appeal if sup-trial Commission are conclusive on appeal to the superior court and in the Supreme Court. Brown v. Carolina Aluminum Co.,

Under this section findings of fact by Compensation Act, are conclusive on appeal, both in the superior court and in the Supreme Court, when supported by competent evidence. Fox v. Mills, Inc., 225 N.

490 (1960); Osborne v. Colonial Ice Co., 249 N. C. 387, 106 S. E. (2d) 573 (1939).
The Industrial Commission has the excclusive duty and authority to find the facts relative to controverted claims, and its findings of fact, with the exception of jurisdictional findings, are conclusive on the courts when supported by any competent evidence. Buchanan v. State Highway, etc., Comm., 217 N. C. 173, 7 S. E.
(2d) 382 (1940); Mallard v. Bohannon,
Findings of fact made by the Commission are, when supported by any evidence, conclusive on appeal. Claimant is entitled to urge, in support of the findings, every reasonable inference which can be drawn from the testimony; but when all the evidence and the inferences to be drawn therefrom result in only one conclusion, liability is a question of law subject to review. Hensley v. Farmers Federation Cooperative, 246 N. C. 274, 98 S. E. (2d) 289 (1957).

For other examples of the application of the rule that when supported by competent legal evidence, the findings of fact of the Commission are conclusive even though they may be contrary to the opinion of the appellate court, see Williams v. Thompson, 200 N. C. 463, 157 S. E. 430 (1931); Wimbish v. Home Detective Co., 202 N. C. 800, 164 S. E. 344 (1932); Moore v. Summers Drug Co., 206 N. C. 711, 175 S. E. 96 (1934); Johnson v. Foreman-Blades Lbr. Co., 216 N. C. 123, 4 S. E. (2d) 334 (1939); Blythe v. Welborn, 223 N. C. 857, 25 S. E. (2d) 555 (1940).

Jurisdictional Facts Not Conclusive on Appeal.—Both a proper construction of the language of this section, and well-settled principles of law, lead to the conclusion that where the jurisdiction of the Industrial Commission to hear and consider a claim for compensation under the provisions of the Workmen’s Compensation Act is challenged by an employer, on the ground that he is not subject to the provisions of the act, the findings of fact made by the Commission, on which its jurisdiction is dependent, are not conclusive on the superior court, and that said court has both the power and the duty, on the appeal of either party to the proceeding, to consider all evidence in the record, and find therefrom the jurisdictional facts, without regard to the finding of such facts by the Commission. Aycock v. Cooper, 202 N. C. 500, 163 S. E. 559 (1932); Aylor v. Barnes, 242 N. C. 223, 87 S. E. (2d) 269 (1953).

Findings Not Supported by Competent Evidence.—The findings of fact of the Industrial Commission, when supported by competent evidence, are binding upon the courts upon appeal, but findings not supported by competent evidence are not conclusive and must be set aside. Logan v. Johnson, 218 N. C. 200, 10 S. E. (2d) 653 (1940); Penland v. Bird Coal Co., 246 N. C. 26, 97 S. E. (2d) 432 (1957).

The rule declared by the statute and uniformly upheld by the Supreme Court that the findings of fact made by the Industrial Commission when supported by any competent evidence, are conclusive on appeal, does not mean that the conclusions of the Commission from the evidence are in all respects unexceptionable. If those findings, involving mixed questions of law and fact, are not supported by evidence, the award cannot be upheld. Perley v. Ballenger Paving Co., 228 N. C. 479, 46 S. E. (2d) 298 (1948).

The findings of the Commission are conclusive only if there is evidence to show that the facts are as found. Hildebrand v. McDowell Furniture Co., 212 N. C. 100, 193 S. E. 294 (1937).

This evidence must be legally competent. A finding based on incompetent testimony is not conclusive. Plyler v. Charlotte Country Club, 214 N. C. 453, 199 S. E. 622 (1938).

The findings of fact made by the Industrial Commission, in a proceeding pending before it, are conclusive on an appeal to the superior court only when there was evidence before the Commission tending to show that the facts are as found by the Commission. Otherwise the findings are not conclusive, and the superior court, on an appeal from the award of the Commission, has jurisdiction to review all the evidence for the purpose of determining whether as a matter of law there was evidence tending to support the finding by the Commission. And if the fact as found by the Industrial Commission is jurisdictional, and there was no evidence tending to support the finding, the award should be set aside and vacated. Poole v. Sigmon, 202 N. C. 172, 162 S. E. 198 (1932).

Effect of Admission of Incompetent Evidence.—Where each of the essential facts found by the Industrial Commission is supported by competent evidence, the findings are conclusive on appeal, even though some incompetent evidence was also admitted upon the hearing. Carlton v. Bernhardt-Seagle Co., 210 N. C. 655, 188 S. E. 77 (1936). See Tomlinson v. Norwood, 208 N. C. 716, 182 S. E. 659 (1935); Swink v. Carolina Asbestos Co., 210 N. C. 303, 186 S. E. 283 (1936); Porter v. Noland Co., 215 N. C. 724, 2 S. E. (2d) 883 (1939); Baxter v. Arthur Co., 216 N. C. 276, 4 S. E. (2d) 621 (1939); Tindall v. American Furniture Co., 216 N. C. 306, 4 S. E. (2d) 894 (1939); Stallcup v. Carolina Wood Turning Co., 217 N. C. 302, 7 S. E. (2d) 550 (1940); MacRae v. Unemployment Compensation Comm., 217 N. C. 769, 9 S. E. (2d) 595 (1940); Blevins v. Tect, 220 N. C. 135, 16 S. E. (2d) 659 (1941); Miller v. Caudle, 220 N. C. 306, 17 S. E. (2d) 487 (1941); Haynes v. Feldspar Producing Co., 222 N. C. 163, 22 S. E. 131
The findings of fact of the Industrial Commission should tell the full story of the event giving rise to the claim for compensation. They must be sufficiently positive and specific to enable the court on appeal to determine whether they are supported by the evidence and whether the law has been properly applied to them. Thomason v. Red Bird Cab Co., 235 N. C. 602, 70 S. E. (2d) 706 (1953).

It is required that the Industrial Commission find all the crucial and specific facts upon which the right to compensation depends in order that it may be determined on appeal whether adequate basis exists for the ultimate findings as to whether plaintiff was injured by accident arising out of and in the course of his employment, but it is not required that the Commission make a finding as to each detail of the evidence or as to every shade of meaning to be drawn therefrom. Guest v. Brenner Iron & Metal Co., 241 N. C. 448, 85 S. E. (2d) 596 (1955).

Specific Findings and Inferences Therefrom Considered in Determining Factual Basis for Ultimate Finding.—When the specific, crucial findings of fact are made, and the Industrial Commission thereupon finds that plaintiff was injured by accident arising out of and in the course of his employment, the Supreme Court considers such specific findings of fact, together with every reasonable inference that may be drawn therefrom, in plaintiff's favor in determining whether there is a factual basis for such ultimate finding. Guest v. Brenner Iron & Metal Co., 241 N. C. 448, 85 S. E. (2d) 596 (1955).

Finding Too Indefinite to Serve as Basis for Valid Award.—Where it was found by the Commission that the deceased was killed while acting either as deputy sheriff or jailer, the court held that the finding was too indefinite to serve as a basis for a valid award. Gowens v. Alamance County, 214 N. C. 18, 197 S. E. 538 (1938), decided prior to the 1939 amendment to § 97-2.

The findings of the Industrial Commission that deceased was an employee of defendant at the time of his fatal injury is conclusive on the courts if supported by competent evidence, notwithstanding that the court might have reached a different conclusion if it had been the fact-finding body. Cloninger v. Ambrosia Cake Bakery Co., 218 N. C. 26, 9 S. E. (2d) 615 (1940).

But see Francis v. Carolina Wood Turning Co., 204 N. C. 701, 169 S. E. 654 (1933), wherein it was held that the finding by the Commission on the question of whether the claimant was an employee was one of The relationship of employer and employee created by the facts found by the Commission is a question of law and the conclusion of the Commission based on those facts is reviewable. Hawes v. Mutual Benefit Health & Acci. Ass'n, 243 N. C. 62, 89 S. E. (2d) 739 (1955).

Whether an accident was proximately caused by the violation of a safety statute is a question for the fact-finding body. Osborne v. Colonial Ice Co., 249 N. C. 387, 106 S. E. (2d) 573 (1959).

Finding of fact that the superior of an injured workman was a supervisory employee and not an independent contractor is conclusive on appeal when supported by competent evidence. Scott v. Waccamaw Lbr. Co., 232 N. C. 163, 59 S. E. (2d) 425 (1950).

Question Whether Claimant Was Employed by Defendant.—In Farmer v. Bemis Lbr. Co., 217 N. C. 158, 7 S. E. (2d) 376 (1940), the Supreme Court recognized that the question of whether claimant was employed by defendant or by an independent subcontractor, as contended, was one of law, and reviewable, once the facts as to the arrangements between the parties and their actions with reference to it had been determined by the Commission.

Finding as to Cause of Death. — Determination of the Industrial Commission that additional hazard created by artificial heat was the direct and superinducing cause of plaintiff's intestate's death was conclusive on appeal. Fields v. Tompkins-Johnston Plumbing Co., 224 N. C. 841, 32 S. E. (2d) 623 (1945).

Procedure Provided by Section Must Be Followed. — When the applicable statute provides an appeal from an administrative agency, the procedure provided in the act must be followed. McDowell v. Kure Beach, 251 N. C. 818, 112 S. E. (2d) 390 (1960).

Hence, a writ of certiorari cannot be used as a substitute for an appeal either before or after the time for appeal has expired. McDowell v. Kure Beach, 251 N. C. 818, 112 S. E. (2d) 390 (1960).

The statutes regulating appeals from a justice of the peace are applicable and control in appeals from the Industria Commission to the superior court, this section failing to provide the procedure for such appeals. Higdon v. Nantahala Power, etc., Co., 207 N. C. 39, 175 S. E. 710 (1934).

Since the Workmen's Compensation Act does not provide any specific machinery governing appeals to the superior court, resort may be had to statutes regulating appeals in analogous cases, ordinarily those regulating appeals from a justice of the peace, so far as same are reasonably applicable and consonant with the language of the statute and the legislative intent. Summerell v. Chilean Nitrate Sales Corp., 218 N. C. 451, 11 S. E. (2d) 304 (1940).

But This Rule Refers Only to Mechanics of Appeal. — While the Workmen's Compensation Act does not set out with particularity the procedure on appeal, it has been held by the Supreme Court that by analogy that prescribed for appeals from judgments of justices of the peace, when practical, should apply; but this rule refers only to the mechanics of appeal, as to notice and docketing, for the appeal from the Industrial Commission is only on matters of law and not de novo. Fox v. Cramerton Mills, 235 N. C. 580, 55 S. E. (2d) 869 (1945).

In Winslow v. Carolina Conference Ass'n, 211 N. C. 571, 191 S. E. 403 (1937), it is said that statutory provisions with respect to appeals from judgments of justices of the peace to the superior court, where the trial must be de novo, are not controlling with respect to appeals from awards of the Industrial Commission to superior court, where only errors of law appearing in the record may be considered.

Time for Docketing Appeal.—An appellant from an award of the Industrial Commission is required to docket his appeal at the next term of the superior court, civil or criminal, beginning after the expiration of the 30 days from the award, or receipt of notice of the award by registered mail, allowed by this section for appeal, this being consonant with the legislative intent and the language of the section, and with the analogous statute requiring appeals from a justice of the peace to be taken to the next term of the superior court beginning after the expiration of the 10 days allowed for service of notice of appeal, § 7-179, and the fact that notice of appeal from the award of the Industrial Commission is given prior to a term of the superior court beginning prior to the expiration of 30 days after appellant's receipt of notice of the award by registered mail, does not vary this result, and the appeal is improperly dismissed for failure to docket same before or during such intervening term of court. Summerell v. Chilean Nitrate Sales Corp., 218 N. C. 451, 11 S. E. (2d) 304 (1940).

Notice of Appeal.—The rules governing appeals from a justice of the peace being applicable to appeals from the full Commission, it is essential that an actual notice of the appeal be sent by appellant to appellee. Higdon v. Nantahala Power & Light Co., 207 N. C. 39, 175 S. E. 710 (1934) (where receipt by defendant of a carbon copy of a letter sent by the Commission to the plaintiff for the purpose of docketing the record in the superior court was held to be insufficient notice).

Notice of an appeal from an award of the Commission "to the superior court" without indicating the county is insufficient but acceptance of service, of such a notice by claimant's counsel waives the defect. A motion to dismiss should be heard and ruled upon before judgment is given on the merits but claimant suffers no prejudice where judgment on the merits is in his favor. Johnson v. Foreman-Blades Lbr. Co., 216 N. C. 123, 4 S. E. (2d) 334 (1939).

Time within Which Assignment of Error Must Be Filed. — Assignments of error are not required to be served at the time the notice of appeal is served. Filing of assignments of error within a reasonable time after receipt of same from Commission is sufficient, and five days is a reasonable time. Wilson v. Utah Constr. Co., 243 N. C. 98, 89 S. E. (2d) 864 (1955).

Record on Appeal. — When an appeal is taken from the Industrial Commission to the superior court, this section requires that a certified transcript of the record before the Commission be filed in the superior court. This necessarily carries to the superior court a transcript of the evidence in question and answer form as transcribed from the reporter's notes. However, on appeal from the superior court, the procedure must be in accordance with the Rules of Practice in the Supreme Court, including Rule 19 (4), which requires that the evidence be in narrative form, and not by question and answer, except that a question and answer, or series of them, may be set out when the subject of a particular exception. Anderson v. Wray Plumbing & Heating Co., 238 N. C. 138, 76 S. E. (2d) 458 (1953).

Time within Which Transcript of Record Must Be Filed. — In the absence of any requirement of the statute as to the time within which a transcript of the record in a proceeding before the Industrial Commission must be docketed in the superior court, when there has been an appeal from the award of the Commission, such docketing at any time before the convening of the next ensuing regular term of the superior court, or before said time has expired, is sufficient to perfect the appeal. Winslow v. Carolina Conference Ass'n, 211 N. C. 571, 191 S. E. 403 (1937). Note the 1947 amendment to this section.

Right to Reverse and Remand Cause. — Where all the facts are admitted and the Industrial Commission denies compensation on the facts as a matter of law, the superior court, on appeal, has jurisdiction, in view of this section, to reverse the Industrial Commission and remand the cause. Perkins v. Sprott, 207 N. C. 462, 177 S. E. 404 (1934).

Remand on Ground of Newly Discovered Evidence. — When a proceeding for compensation under the provisions of this act has been duly docketed in the superior court, upon an appeal from an award of the Industrial Commission, the superior court has the power in a proper case to order a rehearing of the proceeding by the Industrial Commission on the ground of newly discovered evidence, and to that end to remand the proceeding to the Commission. Byrd v. Gloucester Lbr. Co., 207 N. C. 253, 176 S. E. 572 (1934).

Remand Where Commission Fails to Find Facts. — Where the Commission fails to find facts necessary for a determination of the rights of the parties, the judgment of the superior court was reversed in order that it could remand to the Industrial Commission with directions to make necessary findings of fact on which the rights of the parties could be determined. Moore v. Adams Electric Co., Inc., 259 N. C. 735, 131 S. E. (2d) 356 (1963).

Remand Where Facts Found under Misapprehension of Law. — Where it appears that the Industrial Commission has found the facts under a misapprehension of the law, the cause will be remanded. Stanley v. Hyman-Michaels Co., 222 N. C. 257, 22 S. E. (2d) 570 (1942).

Remand Where Commission Denies Compensation. — Where all the facts are admitted and the Industrial Commission denies compensation on the facts as a matter of law, the superior court, upon an appeal from an award of the Industrial Commission, the superior court has the power in a proper case to order a rehearing of the proceeding by the Industrial Commission and remand the cause. Perkins v. Sprott, 207 N. C. 462, 177 S. E. 404 (1934).

Remand on Ground of Newly Discovered Evidence. — When a proceeding for compensation under the provisions of this act has been duly docketed in the superior court, upon an appeal from an award of the Industrial Commission, the superior court has the power in a proper case to order a rehearing of the proceeding by the Industrial Commission on the ground of newly discovered evidence, and to that end to remand the proceeding to the Commission. Byrd v. Gloucester Lbr. Co., 207 N. C. 253, 176 S. E. 572 (1934).

Remand Where Commission Fails to Find Facts. — Where the Commission fails to find facts necessary for a determination of the rights of the parties, the judgment of the superior court was reversed in order that it could remand to the Industrial Commission with directions to make necessary findings of fact on which the rights of the parties could be determined. Moore v. Adams Electric Co., Inc., 259 N. C. 735, 131 S. E. (2d) 356 (1963).

Remand Where Facts Found under Misapprehension of Law. — Where it appears that the Industrial Commission has found the facts under a misapprehension of the law, the cause will be remanded. Stanley v. Hyman-Michaels Co., 222 N. C. 257, 22 S. E. (2d) 570 (1942).

Remand Where Commission Denies Compensation. — Where all the facts are admitted and the Industrial Commission denies compensation on the facts as a matter of law, the superior court, upon an appeal from an award of the Industrial Commission, the superior court has the power in a proper case to order a rehearing of the proceeding by the Industrial Commission and remand the cause. Perkins v. Sprott, 207 N. C. 462, 177 S. E. 404 (1934).

Remand on Ground of Newly Discovered Evidence. — When a proceeding for compensation under the provisions of this act has been duly docketed in the superior court, upon an appeal from an award of the Industrial Commission, the superior court has the power in a proper case to order a rehearing of the proceeding by the Industrial Commission on the ground of newly discovered evidence, and to that end to remand the proceeding to the Commission. Byrd v. Gloucester Lbr. Co., 207 N. C. 253, 176 S. E. 572 (1934).

Remand Where Commission Fails to Find Facts. — Where the Commission fails to find facts necessary for a determination of the rights of the parties, the judgment of the superior court was reversed in order that it could remand to the Industrial Commission with directions to make necessary findings of fact on which the rights of the parties could be determined. Moore v. Adams Electric Co., Inc., 259 N. C. 735, 131 S. E. (2d) 356 (1963).

Remand Where Commission Denies Compensation. — Where all the facts are admitted and the Industrial Commission denies compensation on the facts as a matter of law, the superior court, upon an appeal from an award of the Industrial Commission, the superior court has the power in a proper case to order a rehearing of the proceeding by the Industrial Commission and remand the cause. Perkins v. Sprott, 207 N. C. 462, 177 S. E. 404 (1934).
to remand for more complete findings. Blevins v. Teer, 220 N. C. 135, 16 S. E. (2d) 659 (1941).

It is error for the superior court to direct an award for compensation. The correct procedure is to remand the case to the Industrial Commission. Francis v. Wood Turning Co., 204 N. C. 701, 169 S. E. 654 (1933).

Surrender of Jurisdiction by Superior Court.—When a proceeding is remanded to the Commission for a specific purpose, the superior court surrenders jurisdiction and the Commission acquires it for all purposes. Butts v. Montague Bros., 208 N. C. 186, 179 S. E. 799 (1935).

Judgment Should Refer to Specific Assignments of Error.—Where upon an appeal from the Industrial Commission the exceptions point out specific assignments of error, the judgment in the superior court thereon properly should overrule or sustain respectively each of the exceptions on matters of law thus designated. And where the judgment in the superior court merely decreed that the award be in all respects affirmed, the Supreme Court will presume that the judge below considered each of the assignments of error and overruled them. Fox v. Cramerton Mills, 225 N. C. 580, 55 S. E. (2d) 869 (1945).

§ 97-87. Agreements approved by Commission or awards may be filed as judgments; discharge or restoration of lien.—Any party in interest may file in the superior court of the county in which the injury occurred a certified copy of a memorandum of agreement approved by the Commission, or of an order or decision of the Commission, or of an award of the Commission unappealed from or of an award of the Commission affirmed upon appeal, whereupon said court shall render judgment in accordance therewith, and notify the parties. Such judgment shall have the same effect, and all proceedings in relation thereto shall thereafter be the same, as though said judgment had been rendered in a suit duly heard and determined by said court: Provided, if the judgment debtor shall file a certificate duly issued by the Industrial Commission showing compliance with § 97-93 with the clerk of the superior court in the county or counties where such judgment is docketed, then such clerk shall make upon the judgment roll an entry showing the filing of such certificate which shall operate as a discharge of the lien of the said judgment, and no execution shall be issued thereon; provided, further, that if at any time there is default in the payment of any installment due under the award set forth in said judgment the court may, upon application for cause and after ten days' notice to judgment debtor, order the lien of such judgment restored and execution may be immediately issued thereon for past due installments and for future installments as they may become due. (1929, c. 120, s. 61.)

Where No Appeal Taken.—The procedure for the enforcement of an award of the Industrial Commission when no appeal is taken therefrom is by filing a certified copy of the award in the superior court, whereupon said court shall render judgment in accordance therewith and notify the parties. Champion v. Vance County Board of Health, 221 N. C. 96, 19 S. E. (2d) 259 (1942).

Mandamus to Compel County Board of Health to Pay Award.—Mandamus to compel a municipal corporation, governmental agency or public officer to pay a claim is equivalent to execution, and therefore a suit to compel a county board of health to pay an award rendered against it by the Industrial Commission from which no appeal was taken will not lie until judgment on the award has been rendered by the superior court in accordance with the procedure outlined by this section. Champion v. Vance County Board of Health, 221 N. C. 96, 19 S. E. (2d) 239 (1942).

An agreement for the payment of compensation when approved by the Commission is as binding on the parties as an order, decision or award of the Commission unappealed from, or an award of the Commission affirmed upon appeal. Tucker v. Lowdermilk, 233 N. C. 185, 63 S. E. (2d) 109 (1951).

Applied in Pratt v. Central Upholstery Co.
§ 97-88. Expenses of appeals brought by insurers.—If the Industrial Commission at a hearing on review or any court before which any proceedings are brought on appeal under this article, shall find that such hearing or proceedings were brought by the insurer and the Commission or court by its decision orders the insurer to make, or to continue payments of compensation to the injured employee, the Commission or court may further order that the cost to the injured employee of such hearing or proceedings including therein reasonable attorney's fee to be determined by the Commission shall be paid by the insurer as a part of the bill of costs. (1929 c. 120, s. 62; 1931, c. 274, s. 11.)

Editor's Note.—This section was radically changed by the 1931 amendment. It formerly allowed costs in any proceeding found to have been prosecuted or defended without reasonable grounds to be thrown on the party so acting unreasonably, 9 N. C. Law Rev. 407.

This section includes carriers, self insurers, and noninsurers. Morris v. Laughlin Chevrolet Co., 217 N. C. 428, 8 S. E. (2d) 484 (1940).

The costs may be assessed either by the Commission or by the court. Morris v. Laughlin Chevrolet Co., 217 N. C. 428, 8 S. E. (2d) 484 (1940).

Discretion of Court.—The power given the court under this section to order that the cost to the injured employee of such proceedings, including a reasonable attorney's fee to be determined by the Commission, shall be paid by the insurer as part of the bill of costs is within the discretion of the court, and an order appearing in the judgment will not be reviewed by the Supreme Court. Perdue v. State Board of Equalization, 205 N. C. 730, 172 S. E. 396 (1934).

When Section Inapplicable.—The portion of this section requiring defendant carrier to pay plaintiffs' costs, including attorney's fee, incident to the appeal by defendants from the Commission to the superior court does not apply when the Supreme Court finds error in the Commission's decision in respect to the sole controversy presented by the appeal. Files v. Faulkner Neon & Elec. Co., 244 N. C. 653, 94 S. E. (2d) 790 (1956).

The allowance of attorneys' fees to claimant's attorneys in a proceeding under the Workmen's Compensation Act was held authorized by this section. Brooks v. Carolina Rim & Wheel Co., 213 N. C. 518, 196 S. E. 835 (1938); Gant v. Crouch, 243 N. C. 604, 91 S. E. (2d) 705 (1956).

Affirmance by the full Commission of the hearing commissioner's findings of fact, conclusions, and award, and approval of a fee of $150.00 for claimant's counsel, in addition to the fee for claimant's counsel approved by the hearing commissioner, and an order that such fee be assessed against defendant as a part of the costs of the appeal in accordance with the provisions of this section was not error. Bass v. Mecklenburg County, 258 N. C. 226, 128 S. E. (2d) 570 (1962).

§ 97-89. Commission may appoint qualified physician to make necessary examinations; expenses; fees. — The Commission or any member thereof may, upon the application of either party, or upon its own motion, appoint a disinterested and duly qualified physician or surgeon to make any necessary medical examination of the employee, and to testify in respect thereto. Said physician or surgeon shall be allowed traveling expenses and a reasonable fee to be fixed by the Commission, not exceeding ten dollars for each examination and report, but the Commission may allow additional reasonable amounts in extraordinary cases. The fees and expenses of such physician or surgeon shall be paid by the employer. (1929, c. 120, s. 63; 1931, c. 274, s. 12.)

§ 97-90. Legal and medical fees to be approved by Commission; misdemeanor to receive fees unapproved by Commission, or to solicit employment in adjusting claims; agreement for fee or compensation.

(a) Fees for attorneys and physicians and charges of hospitals for services and charges for nursing services, medicines and sick travel under this article shall be subject to the approval of the Commission; but no physician shall be entitled to collect fees from an employer or insurance carrier until he has made the reports required by the Industrial Commission in connection with the case.

(b) Any person (i) who receives any fee, other consideration, or any gratuity on account of services so rendered, unless such consideration or gratuity is approved by the Commission or such court, or (ii) who makes it a business to solicit employment for a lawyer or for himself in respect of any claim or award for compensation, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall, for each offense, be punished by a fine of not more than $500 or by imprisonment not to exceed one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

(c) If an attorney has an agreement for fee or compensation under this article, he shall file a copy or memorandum thereof with the hearing officer or Commission prior to the conclusion of the hearing. If the agreement is not considered unreasonable, the hearing officer or Commission shall approve it at the time of rendering decision. If the agreement is found to be unreasonable by the hearing officer or Commission, the reasons therefor shall be given and what is considered to be a reasonable fee allowed. If within five (5) days after receipt of notice of such fee allowance, the attorney shall file notice of appeal to the full Commission, the full Commission shall hear the matter and determine whether or not the attorney's agreement as to a fee or the fee allowed is unreasonable. If the full Commission is of the opinion that such agreement or fee allowance is unreasonable and so finds, then the attorney may, by filing written notice of appeal within ten (10) days after receipt of such action by the full Commission, appeal to the resident judge of the superior court or the judge holding the courts of the district of or in the county in which the cause of action arose or in which the claimant resides; and upon such appeal said judge shall consider the matter and determine in his discretion the reasonableness of said agreement or fix the fee and direct an order to the Commission following his determination therein. The Commission shall, within twenty (20) days after receipt of notice of appeal from its action concerning said agreement or allowance, transmit its findings and reasons as to its action concerning such agreement or allowance to the judge of the superior court designated in the notice of appeal. In all other cases where there is no agreement for fee or compensation, the attorney or claimant may, by filing written notice of appeal within five (5) days after receipt of notice of action of the full Commission with respect to attorneys' fees, appeal to the resident judge of the superior court or the judge holding the courts of the district of the county in which the cause of action arose or in which the claimant resides; and upon such appeal said judge shall consider the matter of such fee and determine in his discretion the attorneys' fees to be allowed in the cause. The Commission shall, within twenty (20) days after notice of appeal has been filed, transmit its findings and reasons as to its action concerning such fee or compensation to the judge of the superior court designated in the notice of appeal; provided that the Commission shall in no event have any jurisdiction over any attorneys' fees in any third-party action.

(d) Provided, that nothing contained in this section shall prevent the collection of such reasonable fees of physicians and charges for hospitalization as may be recovered in an action, or embraced in settlement of a claim, against a third-party tort-feasor as described in G. S. 97-10. (1929, c. 120, s. 64; 1955, c. 1026, s. 4; 1959, cc. 1268, 1307.)

Cross References.—For related subject in reference to fees of physicians and hospital charges, see § 97-26. As to attorney's fees as costs in certain appeals, see § 97-88.

Editor's Note. — The 1955 amendment inserted in subsection (a) "and charges for nursing services, medicines and sick travel."

The first 1959 amendment added subsection (c), and the second 1959 amendment added subsection (d).

G. S. 97-10, cited at the end of subsection (d), has been repealed and §§ 97-10.1 through 97-10.3 inserted in lieu thereof.

Agreement by Employee to Pay Physician Held Void.—An agreement by an injured employee to pay the physician engaged by him any balance due on his account after application of the amount approved by the Industrial Commission for the services is unenforceable and void, since this section makes the receipt of any fee for such services not approved by the Commission a misdemeanor. Worley v. Pipes, 229 N. C. 465, 50 S. E. (2d) 504 (1948).

Remedy Where Physician’s Bill Approved for Less than Full Amount.—Where a physician has submitted his bill to the Industrial Commission for its approval, and received approval for less than the full amount, his remedy is to request a hearing before the Commission with the right of appeal to the courts under §§ 97-83 through 97-86, and this remedy is exclusive. Worley v. Pipes, 229 N. C. 465, 50 S. E. (2d) 504 (1948). See Matros v. Owen, 229 N. C. 472, 50 S. E. (2d) 509 (1949).

Review of Commission’s Decision as to Attorney’s Fee. — Before the first 1959 amendment, which added subsection (c) to this section, it was held that the provisions of this section that the Industrial Commission approves fees for attorneys implied the exercise of discretion and judgment by the Commission, and that the superior court on appeal was without power to hear evidence upon the question and strike out the fee allowed by the Commission and approve a fee in a different amount. Brice v. Robertson House Moving, Wrecking & Salvage Co., 249 N. C. 74, 105 S. E. (2d) 439 (1958). See as applied in Hatchett v. Hitchcock Corp., 240 N. C. 591, 83 S. E. (2d) 539 (1954).

§ 97-91. Commission to determine all questions.—All questions arising under this article if not settled by agreements of the parties interested therein, with the approval of the Commission, shall be determined by the Commission, except as otherwise herein provided. (1929, c. 120, s. 65.)

Jurisdiction of Commission Exclusive.—In an action instituted in the superior court under the Declaratory Judgment Act or otherwise, when the pleadings disclose an employee-employer relationship exists so as to make the parties subject to the provisions of the Workmen’s Compensation Act, dismissal is proper, for the Industrial Commission has exclusive jurisdiction in such cases. Cox v. Pitt County Transp. Co., Inc., 259 N. C. 38, 129 S. E. (2d) 589 (1963).

The Declaratory Judgment Act may not be used to determine whether or not the employer’s insurance carrier is entitled to the right of subrogation against the funds received from the third party tort-feasor, under the provisions of § 97-10.2, since the Industrial Commission has the exclusive original jurisdiction to determine the question. Cox v. Pitt County Transp. Co., Inc., 259 N. C. 38, 129 S. E. (2d) 589 (1963).

Questions Respecting Existence of Insurance and Liability of Insurance Carrier. —The Commission is specifically vested by statute with jurisdiction to hear “all questions arising under” the Workmen’s Compensation Act. This jurisdiction under the statute ordinarily includes the right and duty to hear and determine questions of fact and law respecting the existence of insurance coverage and liability of the insurance carrier. Greene v. Spivey, 236 N. C. 435, 73 S. E. (2d) 488 (1952).

Applied as to physician’s claim for medical services, in Worley v. Pipes, 229 N. C. 465, 50 S. E. (2d) 504 (1948).

§ 97-93. Employers required to carry insurance or prove financial ability to pay for benefits. — Every employer who accepts the provisions of this article relative to the payment of compensation shall insure and keep insured his liability thereunder in any authorized corporation, association, organization, or in any mutual insurance association formed by a group of employers so authorized, or shall furnish to the Industrial Commission satisfactory proof of his financial ability to pay direct the compensation in the amount and manner and when due, as provided for in this article. In the latter case the Commission may require the deposit of an acceptable security, indemnity or bond to secure the payment of the compensation liabilities as they are incurred. (1929, c. 120, s. 67; 1943, c. 543.)
Editor's Note. — The 1943 amendment changed "ability" to "liability."

For comment on the provisions of this and other sections in relation to the law of contracts, see 13 N. C. Law Rev. 102.

Employer Primarily Liable.—An award was entered in favor of the dependents of a deceased employee for payment of compensation in weekly installments for the death of the employee. After the insurance carrier had paid several installments, it defaulted in the payment of the balance because of insolvency. Under the provisions of the Workmen's Compensation Act the employer is primarily liable to the employee, which obligation is unimpaired by its contract with an insurer for insurance protection, or by the insurer's subrogation to the rights of the employer upon paying or assuming the payment of an award, and the employer is not relieved of its liability to the dependents of the deceased employee for the balance of the weekly payments because of the insolvency of the insurer. Roberts v. City Ice, etc., Co., 210 N. C. 17, 185 S. E. 438 (1936).

Cancellation of Policy.—Employer's insurance policy was cancellable on ten days' written notice. Notice was held effective from the time of receipt by insured, even though he mislaid it and never read it or knew its purport. Nor was the policy kept in force as to a later injured employee by failure of the carrier to give notice to the Industrial Commission or to the North Carolina Rating Bureau in accordance with their rules, even though the policy is made expressly subject to the law concerning cancellation notices. The rules of these bodies do not have the force of law as to such matters. Motsinger v. Perryman, 218 N. C. 15, 9 S. E. (2d) 511 (1940).

§ 97-94. Employers required to give proof within 30 days that they have complied with preceding section; fine for not keeping liability insured; review; liability for compensation; failure to secure payment of compensation a misdemeanor.—(a) Every employer accepting the compensation provisions of this article shall, within thirty days, after this article takes effect, file with the Commission, in form prescribed by it, and thereafter, annually or as often as may be necessary, evidence of his compliance with the provisions of § 97-93 and all others relating thereto.

(b) Any employer required to secure the payment of compensation under this article who refuses or neglects to secure such compensation shall be punished by a fine of ten cents for each employee, but not less than one dollar nor more than fifty dollars for each day of such refusal or neglect, and until the same ceases; and he shall be liable during continuance of such refusal or neglect to an employee either for compensation under this article or at law in the same manner as provided in § 97-14.

The fine herein provided may be assessed by the Commission in an open hearing, with the right of review and appeal as in other cases.

(c) Any employer required to secure the payment of compensation under this article who willfully refuses or neglects to secure such compensation shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined or imprisoned, or both, in the discretion of the court. (1929, c. 120, s. 68; 1945, c. 766; 1963, c. 499.)

Editor's Note. — The 1945 amendment struck out "at the time of the insurance becoming due" formerly appearing after "employee" near the beginning of subsection (b).
§ 97-95. Actions against employers failing to effect insurance or qualify as self-insurer.—As to every employer subject to the provisions of this article who shall fail or neglect to keep in effect a policy of insurance against compensation liability arising hereunder with some insurance carrier as provided in § 97-93, or who shall fail to qualify as a self-insurer as provided in the article, in addition to other penalties provided by this article, such employer shall be liable in a civil action which may be instituted by the claimant for all such compensation as may be awarded by the Industrial Commission in a proceeding properly instituted before said Commission, and such action may be brought by the claimant in the county of his residence or in any county in which the defendant has any property in this State; and in said civil action, ancillary remedies provided by law in civil actions of attachment, receivership, and other appropriate ancillary remedies shall be available to the plaintiff therein. Said action may be instituted before the award shall be made by the Industrial Commission in such case for the purpose of preventing the defendant from disposing of or removing from the State of North Carolina for the purpose of defeating the payment of compensation any property which the defendant may own in this State. In said action, after being instituted, the court may, after proper amendment to the pleadings therein, permit the recovery of a judgment against the defendant for the amount of compensation duly awarded by the North Carolina Industrial Commission and subject any property seized in said action for payment of the judgment so awarded. The institution of said action shall in no wise interfere with the jurisdiction of said Industrial Commission in hearing and determining the claim for compensation in full accord with the provisions of this article. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit or abridge the rights of an employee as provided in subsection (b) of § 97-94. (1941, c. 352.)

Section Held Valid.—This section was held valid as applied to a claim arising and an award made before its passage. Byrd v. Johnson, 220 N. C. 184, 16 S. E. (2d) 843 (1941).

This section affects procedure only and does not disturb any vested rights. It must be construed prospectively and not retrospectively. Byrd v. Johnson, 220 N. C. 184, 16 S. E. (2d) 843 (1941).

Attachment. — The provisions of this section, in force from its ratification on March 15, 1941, were available to claimants who instituted a civil action alleging that the Industrial Commission had awarded them compensation in a stipulated sum on March 24, 1941, that defendant employer had failed and neglected to keep in effect a policy of compensation insurance and had failed to qualify as a self-insurer, that defendant was disposing of and removing all his property from the State, and praying that a warrant of attachment issue against defendant's property. The warrant of attachment was issued, and defendant's exception to the refusal of the court to vacate it was held without merit. Byrd v. Johnson, 220 N. C. 184, 16 S. E. (2d) 843 (1941).

§ 97-96. Certificate of compliance with law; revocation and new certificate.—Whenever an employer has complied with the provisions of § 97-93, relating to self-insurance, the Industrial Commission shall issue to such employer a certificate, which shall remain in force for a period fixed by the Commission, but the Commission may upon at least sixty days notice and a hearing to the employer, revoke the certificate upon satisfactory evidence for such revocation having been presented. At any time after such revocation the Commission may grant a new certificate to the employer upon his petition. (1929, c. 120, s. 69.)

§ 97-97 Insurance policies must contain clause that notice to employer is notice to insurer, etc.—All policies insuring the payment of compensation under this article must contain a clause to the effect that as between the employer and the insurer the notice to or acknowledgment of the occurrence of the injury on the part of the insured employer shall be deemed notice or knowledge as the case may be on the part of the insurer; that jurisdiction of the insured for the purposes of this article shall be jurisdiction of the insurer; that the insurer shall in all things be bound by and subject to the awards, judgments, or decrees.
rendered against such insured employer, and that insolvency or bankruptcy of the employer and/or discharge therein shall not relieve the insurer from the payment of compensation for disability or death sustained by an employee during the life of such policy or contract. (1929, c. 120, s. 70.)

§ 97-98. Policy must contain agreement promptly to pay benefits; continuance of obligation of insurer in event of default.—No policy of insurance against liability arising under this article shall be issued unless it contains the agreement of the insurer that it will promptly pay to the person entitled to same all benefits conferred by this article, and all installments of the compensation that may be awarded or agreed upon, and that the obligation shall not be affected by any default of the insured after the injury or by any default in giving notice required by such policy or otherwise. Such agreement shall be construed to be a direct promise by the insurer to the person entitled to compensation enforceable in his name. (1929, c. 120, s. 71.)

Under this section, an employee has the right to enforce the insurance contract made for his benefit. Hartsell v. Thermoid Co., 249 N. C. 527, 107 S. E. (2d) 115 (1959).

Carrier Estopped to Deny Existence of Master-Servant Relationship.—Where defendant carrier, at the request of employer, attached a rider to its policy covering “S, logging contractor,” it is estopped to deny that plaintiff, who was working for S, was an employee of defendant. Greenway v. Riverside Mfg. Co., 206 N. C. 599, 175 S. E. 112 (1934).

Provision Reducing Carrier’s Liability Where Employee Paid in Part by State.—Claimant was paid for janitorial work partly by the local board of education and partly by the State School Commission. He was injured while doing extra, after-hours work solely for and at the expense of the board. A stipulation in the insurance contract with the board reduced the carrier’s liability where part of the employee’s wage was paid by the State. This clause was held inapplicable to the instant case, since pay for the job in which he was injured was not shared by the State, even though the award was figured on the basis of his regular weekly wage which the State did share. Casey v. Board of Education of Durham, 219 N. C. 739, 14 S. E. (2d) 853 (1941).

A somewhat similar liability-limiting endorsement on an insurance policy (set out in the case) was held not applicable to relieve the carrier where a teacher of vocational education was paid in part with funds supplied by the State. Callihan v. Board of Education of Robeson County, 222 N. C. 381, 23 S. E. (2d) 297 (1942).

Policy Covering “Operations Conducted from” Main Place of Business.—Where a policy covered a Charlotte employer inter alia on “operations ... conducted ... from the main place of business, it was proper for the Commission to find that an employee going daily to lay tile nearby in South Carolina and expected to report back at headquarters each evening, who was killed in North Carolina on such return journey, was within the policy, even though the tile company had a policy in another company covering its operations in South Carolina and the North Carolina carrier did not receive any premium for the South Carolina job. Mion v. Atlantic Marble & Tile Co., 217 N. C. 743, 9 S. E. (2d) 501 (1940).

Injury at Quarry Forty Miles from Employer’s Main Plant.—A policy designated the operations of the insured as “concrete products mfg.—shop or yard work only,” and gave as the location the address of the main plant of the insured. The policy covered injuries sustained by reason of the business operations, which were stated to include “... all operations necessary, incidental or appurtenant thereto ... whether such operations are conducted at the work places defined ... or elsewhere ...” The policy further provided that no other business operations were covered. An injury received at defendant’s quarry, forty miles from the main plant, was held to be covered by this policy; it was “one of the work places of the company.” Williams v. Ornamental Stone Co., 232 N. C. 88, 59 S. E. (2d) 193 (1950).

§ 97-99. Law written into each insurance policy; form of policy to be approved by Insurance Commissioner; cancellation; single catastrophe hazards.—(a) Every policy for the insurance of the compensation herein provided, or against liability therefor, shall be deemed to be made subject to the provisions of this article. No corporation, association or organization shall enter into any such policy of insurance unless its form shall have been approved by the Insurance Commissioner. No policy form shall be approved unless the same shall provide a thirty-day prior notice of an intention to cancel same by the carrier to the insured by registered mail or certified mail. This shall not apply to the expiration date shown in the policy. The carrier may cancel the policy for non-payment of premium on ten days' written notice to the insured, and the insured may cancel the policy on ten days' written notice by registered mail or certified mail to the carrier.

(b) This article shall not apply to policies of insurance against loss from explosion of boilers or flywheels or other similar single catastrophe hazards: Provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to relieve the employer from liability for injury or death of an employee as a result of such explosion or catastrophe. (1929, c. 120, s. 72; 1945, c. 381, s. 1; 1959, c. 863, s. 5.)

Editor's Note. — The 1945 amendment added the last three sentences of subsection (a).

The 1959 amendment inserted "or certified mail" in subsection (a).

§ 97-100 Rates for insurance; carrier to make reports for determination of solvency; tax upon premium; returned or canceled premiums; reports of premiums collected; wrongful or fraudulent representation of carrier punishable as misdemeanor; notices to carrier; employer who carries own risk shall make report on pay roll.—(a) The rates charged by all carriers of insurance, including the parties to any mutual insurance association writing insurance against the liability for compensation under this article, shall be fair, reasonable, and adequate, with due allowance for merit rating, and all risks of the same kind and degree of hazard shall be written at the Truck Driver Engaged in Unloading Logs.—It was found that defendant motor company did log hauling as an incident to its regular business. A policy in terms covering injuries to drivers was held to cover plaintiff, a regularly employed truck driver, who was engaged in unloading logs for the motor company. The carrier had contended that injuries in this type of work were outside the policy. Kenan v. Duplin Motor Co., 203 N. C. 108, 164 S. E. 729 (1932).

Notice of Cancellation of Policy.—Where policy provided for ten day's notice of cancellation and plaintiff was injured within ten days from the day the employer received notice of cancellation but more than ten days after such notice was mailed, the carrier is liable as the ten days date from the time of receipt of the notice. Pettit v. Wood-Owen Trailer Co., 214 N. C. 335, 199 S. E. 279 (1938).
same rate by the same carrier. No policy of insurance against liability for compensation under this article shall be valid until the rate thereof has been approved by the Commissioner of Insurance; nor shall any such carrier of insurance write any such policy or contract until its basic and merit rating schedules have been filed with, approved, and not subsequently disapproved by the Commissioner of Insurance.

(b) Each such insurance carrier shall report to the Commissioner of Insurance, in accordance with such reasonable rules as the Commissioner of Insurance may at any time prescribe, for the purpose of determining the solvency of the carrier and the adequacy of its rates; for such purpose the Commissioner of Insurance may inspect the books and records of such insurance carrier, and examine its agents, officers, and directors under oath.

(c) Every person, partnership, association, corporation whether organized under the laws of this or any other state or country, every mutual company or association and every other insurance carrier insuring employers in this State against liability for personal injuries to their employees, or death caused thereby, under the provisions of this article, shall, as hereinafter provided, pay a tax upon the premium received whether in cash or notes, in this State, or on account of business done in this State, for such insurance in this State, at the rate provided in the Revenue Act then in force, which tax shall be in lieu of all other taxes on such premiums, which tax shall be assessed and collected as hereinafter provided; provided, however, that such insurance carriers shall be credited with all canceled or returned premiums actually refunded during the year on such insurance.

(d) Every such insurance carrier shall for the six months ending December thirty-first, nineteen hundred and twenty-nine and annually thereafter, make a return, verified by the affidavit of its president and secretary or other chief officers or agents to the Commissioner of Insurance, stating the amount of all such premiums and credits during the period covered by such return. Every insurance carrier required to make such return shall file the same with the Commissioner of Insurance on or before the first day of April after the close of the period covered thereby and shall at the same time pay to the State Insurance Commissioner the tax provided in the Revenue Act then in force on such premium ascertained, as provided in subsection (c) hereof, less returned premium on canceled policies.

(e) If any such insurance carrier shall fail or refuse to make the return required by this article, the said Commissioner of Insurance shall assess the tax against such insurance carrier at the rate herein provided for, on such amount of premium as he may deem just, and the proceedings thereon shall be the same as if the return had been made.

(f) If any such insurance carrier shall withdraw from business in this State before the tax shall fall due as herein provided, or shall fail or neglect to pay such tax, the Commissioner of Insurance shall at once proceed to collect the same; and he is hereby empowered and authorized to employ such legal process as may be necessary for that purpose, and when so collected he shall pay the same into the State treasury. The suit may be brought by the Commissioner of Insurance, in his official capacity, in any court of this State having jurisdiction. Reasonable attorney's fees may be taxed as costs therein, and process may issue to any county of the State, and may be served as in civil actions, or in case of unincorporated associations, partnerships, interdemnity contracts, upon any agent of the parties thereto upon whom process may be served under the laws of this State.

(g) Any person or persons who shall in this State act or assume to act as agent for any such insurance carrier whose authority to do business in this State has been suspended, while such suspension remains in force, or shall neglect or refuse to comply with any of the provisions of this section obligatory upon such person or party or who shall willfully make a false or fraudulent statement of the business or condition of any such insurance carrier or false or fraudulent return as herein provided, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment for not less than ten nor more than ninety days, or both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.

(h) Whenever by this article, or the terms of any policy contract, any officer is required to give any notice to an insurance carrier, the same may be given by delivery, or by mailing by registered letter properly addressed and stamped, to the principal office or general agent of such insurance carrier within this State, or to its home office, or to the secretary, general agent or chief officer thereof in the United States, or the State Insurance Commissioner

(i) Any insurance carrier liable to pay a tax upon premiums under this article shall not be liable to pay any other or further tax upon such premiums, under any other law of this State.

(j) Every employer carrying his own risk under the provisions of § 97-93 shall, under oath, report to the Commission his pay roll, subject to the provisions of this article. Such report shall be made in form prescribed by the Commission, and at the times herein provided for premium reports by insurer. The Commission shall assess against such pay roll a maintenance fund tax computed by taking such per cent of the basic premiums charged against the same or most similar industry or business taken from the manual insurance rate then in force in this State as is assessed in the Revenue Act against the insurance carriers for premiums collected on compensation insurance policies. Receipts collected under this subsection shall be deposited to the credit of the State Treasurer as general fund revenue. (1929, c. 120, s. 73; 1931, c. 274, s. 13; 1947, c. 574; 1961, c. 833, s. 132)

Editor's Note. — The 1947 amendment substituted “annually” for “semiannually” in the first sentence of subsection (d). It also struck out “within thirty days” formerly appearing in the second sentence of that subsection and inserted in lieu thereof “on or before the first day of April.”

The 1961 amendment, effective July 1, 1961, added the last sentence to subsection (j).

§ 97-101. Collection of fines and penalties.—The Industrial Commission shall have the power by civil action brought in its own name to enforce the collection of any fines or penalties provided by this article, and fines or penalties collected by the Commission shall become a part of the maintenance fund referred to in subsection (j) of § 97-100. (1931, c. 274, s. 13.)

Compensation Rating and Inspection Bureau.

§ 97-102. Compensation Rating and Inspection Bureau created; objects, functions, etc., hearings where rates changed. — There is hereby created a bureau to be known as the Compensation Rating and Inspection Bureau of North Carolina, with the following objects, functions and sources of income:

(1) To maintain rules and regulations and fix premium rates for workmen's compensation insurance and equitably adjust the same as far as practicable, in accordance with the hazards of individual risks by inspection by the Bureau.

(2) To furnish upon request of any employer in the State of North Carolina or to any member of the Compensation Rating and Inspection Bureau of North Carolina, upon whose risk a compensation rate has been promulgated, information as to the rating including the method of its compilation, and to encourage employers to reduce the number and severity of accidents by adjusting premiums and rates, through the use of credits and debits or other proper factors, under such uniform system of experience or other form of merit rating as may be approved by the Commissioner of Insurance.

(3) The Bureau shall make a rating survey of each risk inspected which survey shall clearly show the location of all ratable items: Provided, however, that the Bureau shall not describe the items or make any recommendations for accident prevention, such service being reserved as a proper and essential field for the competitive enterprise of its individual members.

(4) The Bureau shall provide reasonable means to be approved by the Commissioner whereby any person affected by a rate made by it may be heard in person or by his authorized representative before the governing or rating committee or other proper executive of the Bureau. (1931,
c. 279, s. 1; 1945, c. 381, s. 1; 1953, c. 674, s. 2.)

added subdivision (4).
The 1953 amendment rewrote subdivision (2).

§ 97-103. Membership in Bureau of carriers of insurance; acceptance of rejected risks; rules and regulations for maintenance; Insurance Commissioner or deputy ex officio chairman.—(a) Before the Insurance Commissioner shall grant permission to any mutual association, reciprocal or stock company, or any other insurance organization to write compensation or employers' liability insurance in this State, it shall be a requisite that they shall subscribe to and become members of the Compensation Rating and Inspection Bureau of North Carolina.

(b) It shall be the duty of all companies underwriting workmen's compensation insurance in this State and being members of the Compensation Rating and Inspection Bureau of North Carolina, as defined in this section, to insure and accept any workmen's compensation insurance risk which shall have been tendered to and rejected by any three members of said Bureau in the manner hereinafter provided. When any such rejected risk is called to the attention of the Compensation Rating and Inspection Bureau of North Carolina and it appearing that said risk is in good faith entitled to such coverage, the Bureau shall fix the initial premium therefor, (subject to the approval of the Insurance Commissioner), and upon its payment said Bureau shall designate a member whose duty it shall be to issue a standard workmen's compensation policy of insurance containing the usual and customary provisions found in such policies therefor. Upon receipt of the required premium at the office of the Bureau during regular working hours the Bureau shall instruct the designated carrier to issue its policy of insurance to become effective as of twelve one a. m. the following day, and the carrier shall be so bound; provided, that the carrier may request of the Bureau a certificate of the Department of Labor that the insured is complying with the laws, rules and regulations of that Department. Said certificate shall be furnished within thirty days by the Department of Labor, unless extension of time is granted by agreement between the Bureau and the Department of Labor. The Bureau shall within thirty days after March 8, 1935, make and adopt such rules as may be necessary to carry this article into effect, subject to final approval of the Insurance Commissioner. As a prerequisite to the transaction of workmen's compensation insurance in this State every member of said Bureau shall file with the Insurance Commissioner written authority permitting said Bureau to act in its behalf as provided in this section, and an agreement to accept such risks as are assigned to said insurance by said Bureau, as provided in this section.

(c) Each member of the Compensation Rating and Inspection Bureau writing compensation insurance in the State of North Carolina shall, as a requisite thereto, be represented in the aforesaid Bureau and shall be entitled to one representative and one vote in the administration of the affairs of the Bureau. They shall, upon organization, elect a governing committee, which governing committee shall be composed of equal representation by participating and nonparticipating members.

No such rules or regulations shall discriminate against any type of insurer because of its plan of operation, nor shall any insurer be prevented from returning any unused or unabsorbed premium, deposit, savings or earnings to its policyholders or subscribers. The expense of such Bureau shall be borne by its members by quarterly contributions to be made in advance, such necessary expense to be advanced by prorating such expense among the members in accordance with the amount of gross workmen's compensation premiums written in North Carolina during the preceding year ending December the thirty-first, one thousand nine hundred and thirty, and members entering since that date to advance an amount to be fixed by the governing committee. After the first fiscal year of operation of the Bureau the necessary expenses of the Bureau shall be advanced by the members in accordance with rules and regulations to be established and adopted by the governing committee.

(e) The Insurance Commissioner of the State of North Carolina, or such deputy as he may appoint, shall be ex officio chairman of the Compensation Rating and Inspection Bureau of North Carolina, and the Insurance Commissioner or such deputy designated by him shall preside over all meetings of the governing committee or other meetings of the Bureau and it shall be his duty to determine any controversy that may arise by reason of a tie vote between the members of the governing committee. (1931, c. 279, s. 2; 1935, c. 76; 1945, c. 381, s. 1.)

Editor's Note. — The 1945 amendment inserted the third and fourth sentences in subsection (b) in lieu of a sentence which read "Before any such risk shall be assigned under the provisions of this section such risk shall, if demanded, furnish the Bureau a certificate of the division of standards and inspection of the Department of Labor that he is complying with the rules and regulations of that Department." The amendment also inserted the second sentence of subsection (d).

§ 97-104. Governing committee; production of books and records for compilation of appropriate statistics; rates subject to approval of Insurance Commissioner. — In order to carry into effect the objects of this article the Bureau members shall immediately elect its governing committee who shall employ and fix the salaries of such personnel and assistance as is necessary, subject to the approval of the Insurance Commissioner, and the Insurance Commissioner is hereby authorized to compel the production of books, data, papers, and records relating to or bearing upon such data as is necessary to compile statistics for the purpose of determining the pure cost and expense loading of workmen's compensation insurance in North Carolina and this information shall be available and for the use of the Compensation Rating and Inspection Bureau, for the compilation and promulgation of rates on workmen's compensation insurance. All such rates compiled and promulgated by such Bureau shall be submitted to the Insurance Commissioner for approval as provided in § 97-100. (1931, c. 279, s. 3.)

§ 97-104.1. Commissioner can order adjustment of rates and modification of procedure. — Whenever the Commissioner, upon his own motion or upon petition of any aggrieved party, shall determine, after notice and a hear-

§ 97-104.2. General provisions.—No insurer subject to this article shall enter into any agreement for the purpose of making or establishing rates except in accordance with the provisions hereof. No member of the Bureau shall charge or receive any rate which deviates from the rates, rating plans, classifications, schedules, rules and standards made and filed by the Bureau. No insurer and no agent or other representative of any insurer and no insurance broker shall knowingly charge, demand or receive a rate or premiums which deviate from the rates, rating plans, classifications, schedules, rules and standards, made and last filed by or on behalf of the insurer, or issue or make any policy or contract involving a violation of such rate filings. (1945, c. 381, s. 1.)

This section is intended to prevent rebating and an unlawful discrimination and favoritism by insurance companies. Where there is nothing in the record suggestive of an intent by either party, to violate the cited statutes, an otherwise valid compromise will not be avoided solely on the ground that it is contrary to public policy. There must be some fact on which the asserted invalidity can rest. Fidelity & Casualty Co. of New York v. Nello L. Teer Co., 179 F. Supp. 548 (1960), quoting Fidelity & Casualty Co. of New York v. Nello L. Teer Co., 250 N. C. 547, 109 S. E. (2d) 171 (1959).

§ 97-104.3. Commissioner can revoke license for violations.—If the Commissioner shall find, after due notice and hearing that any insurer, officer, agent or representative thereof has violated any of the provisions of this article, he may issue an order revoking or suspending the license of any such insurer, agent, broker or representative thereof. (1945, c. 381, s. 1.)

§ 97-104.4. Violation a misdemeanor.—Any insurer, officer, agent or representative thereof failing to comply with, or otherwise violating any of the provisions of this article, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred ($100.00) dollars nor more than five hundred ($500.00) dollars. (1945, c. 381, s. 1.)

§ 97-104.5. Appeal from decision of Commissioner.—A review of any order made by the Commissioner in accordance with the provisions of this article, shall be by appeal to the superior court of Wake County in accordance with the provisions of § 58-9.3. (1945, c. 381, s. 1.)

§ 97-104.6. Appeals from Bureau to Commissioner.—Any member of the Bureau may appeal to the Commissioner from any decision of such Bureau and the Commissioner shall, after a hearing held on not less than ten days’ written notice to the appellant and the Bureau, issue an order approving the decision of the Bureau or directing it to give further consideration to such proposal. In the event the Bureau fails to take satisfactory action, the Commissioner shall make such order as he may see fit. (1945, c. 381, s. 1.)

Security Funds.

§ 97-105. Title of article. — This article shall be known as the Workmen's Compensation Security Fund Act. (1935, c. 228, s. 1.)

§ 97-106. Definitions. — As hereafter used in this article, unless the context or subject matter otherwise requires:

“Stock fund” means the Stock Workmen's Compensation Security Fund created by this article.

“Mutual fund” means the Mutual Workmen's Compensation Security Fund created by this article.

“Funds” means the stock fund and the mutual fund.

“Fund” means either the stock fund or the mutual fund as the context may require.

“Fund year” means the calendar year.

“Stock carrier” means any stock corporation authorized to transact the business of workmen’s compensation insurance in this State, except an insolvent stock carrier.

“Mutual carrier” means any mutual corporation or association and any reciprocal or interinsurance exchange authorized to transact the business of workmen’s compensation insurance in this State, except an insolvent mutual carrier.

“Carrier” means either a stock carrier or a mutual carrier, as the context may require.

“Insolvent stock carrier” or “insolvent mutual carrier” means a stock carrier or a mutual carrier, as the case may be, which has been determined to be insolvent, or for which or for the assets of which a receiver has been appointed by a court or public officer of competent jurisdiction and authority.

“Commissioner” means the Insurance Commissioner of this State.

Editor's Note. — The 1941 amendment inserted “and any reciprocal or interinsurance exchange” in the paragraph defining “mutual carrier.”

§ 97-107. Stock Workmen's Compensation Security Fund created. — There is hereby created a fund to be known as “The Stock Workmen's Compensation Security Fund,” for the purpose of assuring to persons entitled thereunto the compensation provided by the Workmen’s Compensation Act for employments insured in insolvent stock carriers. Such fund shall be applicable to the payment of valid claims for compensation or death benefits heretofore or hereafter made pursuant to the Workmen’s Compensation Act, and remaining unpaid, in whole or in part, by reason of the default, after the effective date of this article, of an insolvent stock carrier. Expenses of administration also shall be paid from the fund as herein provided. Such fund shall consist of all contributions received and paid into the fund by stock carriers, as herein defined, all property and securities acquired by and through the use of moneys belonging to the fund, and of interest earned upon moneys deposited or invested as herein provided. The fund shall be administered by the Commissioner of this State in accordance with the provisions of this article. (1935, c. 228, s. 3.)

§ 97-108. Verified report of premiums to be filed by stock carrier. — Every stock carrier shall, on or before the first day of September, nineteen hundred and thirty-five, file with the Treasurer of the State and with the Commissioner identical returns, under oath, on a form to be prescribed and furnished by the Commissioner, stating the amount of net written premiums for the six months’ period ending June thirtieth, nineteen hundred thirty-five on policies issued, renewed or extended by such carrier, to insure payment of compensation pursuant to the Workmen's Compensation Act. For the purposes of this article “net written premiums” shall mean gross written premiums less return premiums on policies returned not taken, and on policies canceled. Thereafter, on or before the first day of March and September of each year, each such carrier shall file similar identical returns, stating the amount of such net written premiums for the six months’ period ending, respectively, on the preceding December thirty-first and June thirtieth, on policies issued, renewed or extended by such carrier. (1935, c. 228, s. 4.)

§ 97-109. Contributions by stock carriers of 1% of net written premiums.—For the privilege of carrying on the business of workmen’s compensation insurance in this State, every stock carrier shall pay into the stock fund on the first day of September, nineteen hundred thirty-five, a sum equal to one per centum (1%) of its net written premiums as shown by the return hereinafter prescribed for the period ending June thirtieth, nineteen hundred thirty-five, and thereafter each such stock carrier, upon filing each semiannual return, shall pay a sum equal to one per centum (1%) of its net written premiums for the period covered by such return. (1935, c. 228, s. 5.)

§ 97-110. Contributions to stop when stock fund equals 5% of loss reserves; resumption of contributions. — When the aggregate amount of all such payments into the stock fund, together with accumulated interest thereon, less all its expenditures and known liabilities, becomes equal to five per centum (5%) of the loss reserves of all stock carriers for the payment of benefits under the Workmen’s Compensation Act as of December thirty-first, next preceding, no further contributions to said fund shall be required to be made; provided, however, that whenever, thereafter the amount of said fund shall be reduced below five per centum (5%) of such loss reserves as of said date by reason of payments from and known liabilities of said stock fund, then such contribution to said fund shall be resumed forthwith, and shall continue until said fund, over and above its known liabilities, shall be equal to five per centum (5%) of such reserves. (1935, c. 228, s. 6.)

§ 97-111. Rules and regulations for administration of stock fund; examination of books and records; penalty for failure to file report or pay assessment; revocation of license. — The Commissioner may adopt, amend and enforce rules and regulations necessary for the proper administration of said stock fund. In the event any stock carrier shall fail to file any report or make any payment required by this article, or in case the Commissioner shall have cause to believe that any return or other statement filed is false or inaccurate in any particular, or that any payment made is incorrect, he shall have full authority to examine all the books and records of the carrier for the purpose of ascertaining the facts and shall determine the correct amount to be paid and may proceed in any court of competent jurisdiction to recover for the benefit of the fund any sums shown to be due upon such examination and determination. Any stock carrier which fails to make any statement as required by this article, or to pay any contribution to the stock fund when due, shall thereby forfeit to said fund a penalty of five per centum (5%) of the amount of unpaid contribution determined to be due as provided by this article plus one per centum (1%) of such amount for each month of delay, or fraction thereof, after the expiration of the first month of such delay, but the Commissioner may upon good cause shown extend the time for filing of such return or payment. The Commissioner shall revoke the certificate of authority to do business in this State of any carrier which shall fail to comply with the provisions of this article or to pay any penalty imposed in accordance with this article. (1935, c. 228, s. 7.)
§ 97-112. Separation of stock fund; disbursements; investment; sale of securities.—The stock fund created by this article shall be separate and apart from any other funds so created and from all other State moneys. The State Treasurer shall be the custodian of said fund; and all disbursements from said fund shall be made by the State Treasurer upon vouchers signed by the Commissioner as hereinafter provided. The moneys of said fund may be invested by the State Treasurer only in the bonds or securities which are the direct obligations of or which are guaranteed as to principal and interest by the United States or this State. The State Treasurer may sell any of the securities in which said fund is invested, if advisable for its proper administration or in the best interests of such fund, and all earnings from the investments of such fund shall be credited to such fund. (1935, c. 228, s. 8.)

§ 97-113. Payment of claim from stock fund when carrier insolvent; subrogation of employer paying claim; recovery against employer or receiver of insolvent carrier. — (a) A valid claim for compensation or death benefits, or installments thereof, heretofore or hereafter made pursuant to the Workmen's Compensation Act, which has remained or shall remain due and unpaid for sixty days, by reason of default by an insolvent stock carrier, shall be paid from the stock fund in the manner provided in this section. Any person in interest may file with the Commissioner an application for payment of compensation or death benefits from the stock fund on a form prescribed and furnished by the Commissioner. If there has been an award, final or otherwise, a certified copy thereof shall accompany the application. The Commissioner shall thereupon certify to the State Treasurer such award for payment according to the terms of the same, whereupon payment shall be made by the State Treasurer.

(b) Payment of compensation from the stock fund shall give the fund no right of recovery against the employer.

(c) An employer may pay such award or part thereof in advance of payment from the stock fund and shall thereupon be subrogated to the rights of the employee or other party in interest against such fund to the extent of the amount so paid.

(d) The State Treasurer as custodian of the stock fund shall be entitled to recover the sum of all liabilities of such insolvent carrier assumed by such fund from such carrier, its receiver, liquidator, rehabilitator or trustee in bankruptcy and may prosecute an action or other proceedings therefor. All moneys recovered in any such action or proceedings shall forthwith be placed to the credit of the stock fund by the State Treasurer to reimburse the stock fund to the extent of the moneys so recovered and paid. (1935, c. 228, s. 9.)

§ 97-114. Mutual Workmen's Compensation Security Fund created. — There is hereby created a fund to be known as "The Mutual Workmen's Compensation Security Fund," for the purpose of assuring to persons entitled thereto the compensation provided by the Workmen's Compensation Act for employments insured in insolvent mutual carriers. Such fund shall be applicable to the payment of valid claims for compensation or death benefits heretofore or hereafter made pursuant to the Workmen's Compensation Act, and remaining unpaid, in whole or in part, by reason of the default, after the effective date of this article, of an insolvent mutual carrier. Expenses of administration also shall be paid from the fund as herein provided. Such fund shall consist of all contributions received and paid into the fund by mutual carriers, as herein defined, of property and securities acquired by and through the use of moneys belonging to the fund and of interest earned upon moneys deposited or invested as herein provided. The fund shall be administered by the Commissioner in accordance with the provisions of this article. (1935, c. 228, s. 10.)
§ 97-115. Verified report of premiums to be filed by mutual carrier; equalization of payments by reciprocal or interinsurance exchanges.—Every mutual carrier shall, on or before the first day of September, nineteen hundred thirty-five, file with the Treasurer of the State and with the Commissioner identical returns, under oath, on a form to be prescribed and furnished by the Commissioner of Insurance, stating the amount of net written premiums for the six months' period ending June thirtieth, nineteen hundred thirty-five, on policies issued, renewed or extended by such carrier, to insure payment of compensation pursuant to the Workmen's Compensation Act during said period. For the purpose of this article "net written premiums" shall mean gross written premiums less return premiums on policies returned not taken and on policies canceled. Thereafter, on or before the first day of March and September, of each year, each such carrier shall file similar identical returns, stating the amount of such net written premiums for the six months' periods ending, respectively, on the preceding December thirty-first and June thirtieth, on such policies issued, renewed or extended by such carrier.

Any reciprocal or interinsurance exchange writing workmen's compensation insurance in North Carolina on September first, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five and continuing to underwrite this class of insurance shall, upon the fund reaching its maximum contribution and the discontinuance of any collection thereof, continue to pay into said mutual fund as provided in this section for a period of six years after the other members of the mutual fund have discontinued said payments in order to equalize the contribution of all members of the mutual fund, and thereafter such reciprocal or interinsurance exchanges shall be subject to the provisions of this section. (1935, c. 228, s. 11; 1941, c. 298, s. 2.)

§ 97-116. Contributions by mutual carriers of 1% of net written premiums.—For the privilege of carrying on the business of workmen's compensation insurance in this State, every mutual carrier shall pay into the mutual fund on the first day of September, nineteen hundred thirty-five, a sum equal to one per centum (1%) of its net written premiums, as shown by the return herebefore prescribed for the period ending June thirtieth, nineteen hundred thirty-five, and thereafter each such mutual carrier, upon filing each semiannual return, shall pay a sum equal to one per centum (1%) of its net written premiums, as shown for the period covered by such return. (1935, c. 228, s. 12.)

§ 97-117. Distribution of excess when mutual fund exceeds 5% of loss reserves; distribution of fund when liabilities liquidated. — Whenever the mutual fund, less all its known liabilities, shall exceed five per centum (5%) of the loss reserves of all mutual carriers for the payments of losses under the Workmen's Compensation Act, as of December thirty-first next preceding, distribution of such excess shall be made as repayments for successive fund years, commencing with the first fund year, to the mutual carriers in the proportion in which they respectively made contributions for such fund year: Provided, however, no such distribution shall reduce the fund, less all its known liabilities, below an amount equal to five per centum (5%) of such loss reserves as of said date. Such repayments shall be made from time to time until the mutual carriers for the first fund year shall have received their proportionate shares of the contributions for the first fund year including interest, if any. Such repayments for succeeding fund years in their order shall be made on the same basis. The insolvency of any mutual carrier shall automatically terminate its right to such repayments and the withdrawal of any mutual carrier from the transaction of workmen's compensation insurance business in this State shall automatically suspend its right to such repayments until all its liabilities for workmen's compensation losses in this State shall have been fully liquidated. If and when all lia-
§ 97-118. Administration, custody, etc., of mutual fund. — The provisions of §§ 97-111, 97-112, and 97-113 shall apply to the administration, custody and investment of and payments from the mutual fund and to this end those sections shall be read with the necessary changes in detail to adopt their provisions to mutual funds. (1935, c. 228, s. 14.)

§ 97-119. Notice of insolvency; report of claims and unpaid awards. —Forthwith upon any carrier becoming an insolvent stock carrier, or an insolvent mutual carrier, as the case may be, the Commissioner shall so notify the North Carolina Industrial Commission, and the North Carolina Industrial Commission shall immediately advise the Commissioner

(1) Of all claims for compensation pending or thereafter made against an employer insured by such insolvent carrier, or against such insolvent carrier;

(2) Of all unpaid or continuing agreements, awards or decisions made upon claims prior to or after the date of such notice from the Commissioner; and

(3) Of all appeals from or applications for modifications or rescission or review of such agreements, awards or decisions. (1935, c. 228, s. 15.)

§ 97-120. Right of Commissioner to defend claims against insolvent carriers; arrangement with other carriers to pay claims. — The Commissioner or his duly authorized representative may investigate and may defend before the North Carolina Industrial Commission or any court any or all claims for compensation against an employer insured by an insolvent carrier or against such insolvent carrier and may prosecute any pending appeal or may appeal from or make application for modification for rescission or review of an agreement, award or decision against such employer or insolvent carrier. Until all such claims for compensation are closed and all such awards thereon are paid, the Commissioner, the administrator of the funds, shall be a party in interest in respect to all such claims, agreements and awards. For the purposes of this article the Commissioner shall have exclusive power to select and employ such counsel, clerks and assistants as may be deemed necessary and to fix and determine their powers and duties, and he may also, in his discretion, arrange with any carrier or carriers to investigate and defend any or all such claims and to liquidate and pay such as are valid and the Commissioner may from time to time reimburse, from the appropriate fund, such carrier or carriers for compensation payments so made, together with reasonable allowance for the services so rendered. (1935, c. 228, s. 16.)

§ 97-121. Expenses of administering funds. — The expense of administering the stock fund shall be paid out of the stock fund and the expense of administering the mutual fund shall be paid out of the mutual fund. The Commissioner shall serve as administrator of each fund without additional compensation, but may be allowed and paid from either fund expenses incurred in the performance of his duties in connection with that fund. The compensation of those persons employed by the Commissioner shall be deemed administration expenses payable from the fund in the manner provided in § 97-112. The Commissioner shall include in his regular report to the legislature a statement of the expense of administering each of such funds for the preceding year. (1935, c. 228, s. 17.)
§ 97-122. Contributions relieving carrier of posting bond or making special deposit.—Contributions made by any stock or mutual carrier to the funds created by this article shall relieve such carriers from filing any surety bond or making any deposit of securities required under the provisions of any law of this State for the purpose of securing the payment of workmen’s compensation benefits only. (1935, c. 228, s. 18.)

Chapter 98.
Burnt and Lost Records.

Sec.
98-1. Copy of destroyed record as evidence; may be recorded.

98-2. Originals may be again recorded.

98-3. Establishing boundaries and interest, where conveyance and copy lost.

98-4. Copy of lost will may be probated.

98-5. Copy of lost will as evidence; letters to issue.

98-6. Establishing contents of will, where original and copy destroyed.

98-7. Perpetuating destroyed judgments and proceedings.

98-10. Destroyed witness tickets; duplicates may be filed.

When the office of any registry is destroyed by fire or other accident, and the records and other papers thereof are burnt or destroyed, the copies of all such proceedings, instruments and papers as are of record or registry, certified by the proper officer, though without the seal of office, shall be received in evidence whenever the original or duly certified exemplifications would be. Such copies, when the court is satisfied of their genuineness, may be ordered to be recorded or registered. (1865-6, c. 41, ss. 1, 2; Code, s. 55; Rev., s. 327; C. S., s. 365.)

When a deed is lost or destroyed a copy must be produced if there be one, but if there is none, parol evidence may be ad-

§ 98-2. Originals may be again recorded.—All original papers, once admitted to record or registry, whereof the record or registry is destroyed, may, on motion, be again recorded or registered, on such proof as the court shall require. (1865-6, c. 41, s. 3; Code, s. 56; Rev., s. 328; C. S., s. 366.)

Action to Establish Lost Deed Lie. as Section Is Not Exclusive.—In an action to establish a lost deed, the record of which was also destroyed, a motion to dismiss upon the ground that the action should have been brought under § 56 of the Code (now this section) was properly refused, as the section is an enabling act giving an additional, but not an exclusive, remedy. Jones v. Ballou, 139 N. C. 526, 52 S. E. 254 (1905).

Jurisdiction in the superior court was sustained in McCormick v. Jernigan, 110 N. C. 406, 14 S. E. 971 (1892), and was tacitly recognized in Tuttle v. Rainey, 98 N. C. 513, 4 S. E. 475 (1887). In Cowles v. Hardin, 91 N. C. 231 (1884); Mobley v. Watts, 98 N. C. 284, 3 S. E. 677 (1887), and Hopper v. Justice, 111 N. C. 420, 16 S. E. 626 (1892), it was held that a party whose deed with its registration had been destroyed instead of having it set up and recorded could depend upon the rules of the common law to establish its contents whenever an occasion might arise, as in the course of a trial. Cowles v. Hardin, 79 N. C. 577 (1878), simply holds that when the proceeding is brought by virtue of § 56 of the Code (now this section), its requirements must be complied with. Jones v. Ballou, 139 N. C. 526, 52 S. E. 254 (1905).

Original Recorded by Clerk upon Sufficient Evidence. — Where the registry of partition is destroyed and a paper purporting to be the original is presented to the clerk, it is his duty, after satisfying himself upon evidence that the paper is the original one, to record it. Hill v. Lane, 149 N. C. 267, 62 S. E. 1067 (1908).

Effect of Failure to Again Register.— "This statutory provision, at least, admonished all persons having such original papers to prove and register them anew in the way prescribed, and good faith required that they should do so. It, moreover, gave the public reason to expect that it would be faithfully observed by persons interested." Waters v. Crabtree, 105 N. C. 394, 11 S. E. 240 (1890), holding that where the plaintiff has been negligent in again registering or recording an original deed, such reregistration will not defeat the rights of bona fide purchasers.

§ 98-3. Establishing boundaries and interest, where conveyance and copy lost.—When any conveyance of real estate, or of any right or interest therein, is lost, the registry thereof being also destroyed, any person claiming under the same may cause the boundaries thereof to be established in the manner provided in the chapter entitled Boundaries, or he may proceed in the following manner to establish both the boundaries and the nature of his estate:

He shall file his petition before the clerk of the superior court, setting forth the whole substance of the conveyance as truly and specifically as he can, the location and boundaries of his land, whose land it adjoins, the estate claimed therein, and a prayer to have his own boundaries established and the nature of his estate declared.

All persons claiming any estate in the premises, and those whose lands adjoin, shall be notified of the proceedings. Unless they or some of them, by answer on oath, deny the truth of all or some of the matters alleged, the clerk shall order a surveyor to run and designate the boundaries of the petitioner’s land, and return his survey, with a plot thereof, to the court. This, when confirmed, shall, with the declaration of the court as to the nature of the estate of the petitioner, be registered and have, as to the persons notified, the effect of a deed for the same, executed by the person possessed of the same next before the petitioner. But in all cases, however, wherein the process of surveying is disputed, and the surveyor is forbidden to proceed by any person interested, the same proceedings shall be had as under the chapter entitled Boundaries.

If any of the persons notified deny by answer the truth of the conveyance, the clerk shall transfer the issues of fact to the superior court at term, to be tried as other issues of fact are required by law to be tried; and on the verdict and the pleadings the judge shall adjudge the rights of the parties, and declare the contents of the deed, if any deed is found by the jury, and allow the registration of such judgment and declaration, which shall have the force and effect of a deed.

Cross Reference.—As to boundaries, see chapter 38.

Remedy Additional and Not Exclusive. —This section is an enabling statute providing, not an exclusive remedy, but merely an additional one. Mobley v. Watts, 98 N. C. 294, 3 S. E. 677 (1887); Jones v. Ballou, 139 N. C. 526, 52 S. E. 254 (1905).

It does not repeat but aids the common-law rules for establishing deeds, and a party may choose either mode. Cowles v. Hardin, 91 N. C. 281 (1884).

Evidence Must Show Existence, Nature and Loss.—Before the deed can be made, the plaintiff must clearly prove that a deed did exist, its legal operation, and the loss thereof. Plummer v. Baskerville, 36 N. C. 252 (1840); Loftin v. Loftin, 96 N. C. 94, 1 S. E. 837 (1887).

Judgment Has Only Force of Original. —A judgment under this section has only

§ 98-4. Copy of lost will may be probated. — In counties where the original wills on file in the office of the clerk of superior court, and will-books containing copies, are lost or destroyed, if the executor or any other person has preserved a copy of a will (the original being so lost or destroyed) with a certificate appended, signed by a clerk of the court in whose office the will was, or is required to be filed, stating that said copy is a correct one, this copy may be admitted to probate, under the same rules and in the same manner as now prescribed by law for proving wills. The proceedings in such cases shall be the same as though such copy was the original offered for the first time for probate, except that the clerk who signed such certificate shall, on oath, acknowledge his signature, or in case it appears that he has died or left the State, then his signature shall be proved by a competent witness; and the witness or witnesses to the original, who may be examined, shall be required to swear that he or they signed in the presence of the testator and by his direction a paper-writing purporting to be his last will and testament. (1868-69, c. 160, s. 1; Code, s. 57; Rev., s. 329; C. S., s. 368.)

Cross Reference. — As to probate of wills generally, see § 31-12 et seq.

Probate before Clerk. — The probate of a lost will must be made before the clerk of the superior court, he alone having jurisdiction. McCormick v. Jernigan, 110 N. C. 406, 14 S. E. 971 (1892).

§ 98-5. Copy of lost will as evidence; letters to issue. — In any action or proceeding at law, where it becomes necessary to introduce such will to establish title, or for any other purpose, a copy of the will and of the record of the probate, with a certificate signed by the clerk of the superior court for the county where the will may be recorded, stating that said record and copy are full and correct, shall be admitted as competent evidence; and when a copy of a will is admitted to probate, the clerk shall thereupon issue letters testamentary. (1868-69, c. 160, s. 2; Code, s. 58; Rev., s. 330; C. S., s. 369.)

§ 98-6. Establishing contents of will, where original and copy destroyed. — Any person desirous of establishing the contents of a will destroyed as aforesaid, there being no copy thereof, may file his petition in the office of the clerk of the superior court, setting forth the entire contents thereof, according to the best of his knowledge, information and belief. All persons having an interest under the same shall be made parties, and if the truth of such petition is denied, the issues of fact shall be transferred to the superior court at term for trial by a jury, whether the will was recorded, and if so recorded, the contents thereof, and the declarations of the judge shall be recorded as the will of the testator. Any devisee or legatee is a competent witness as to the contents of every part of said will, except such as may concern his own interest in the same. (1865-6, c. 41, s. 4; Code, s. 59; Rev., s. 331; C. S., s. 370.)

Parol Evidence. — Parol evidence may be introduced to show the contents of a will which has been lost or destroyed. Cox v. Lumber Co., 124 N. C. 78, 32 S. E. 381 (1899). See Varner v. Johnston, 112 N. C. 570, 17 S. E. 483 (1893).

And such evidence is also admissible to show existence of such a will, its probate and registration. Cox v. Lumber Co., 124 N. C. 78, 32 S. E. 381 (1899).
§ 98-7. Perpetuating destroyed judgments and proceedings.—Every person desirous of perpetuating the contents of destroyed judgments, orders or proceedings of court, or any paper admitted to record or registration, or directed to be filed for safekeeping, other than wills or conveyances of real estate, or some right or interest therein, or any deed or other instrument of writing, required to be recorded or registered, but not having been recorded or registered, it being competent to register or record said deed or other instrument at the time of its loss or destruction, may file his petition in the court having jurisdiction of like matters with the original proceeding, setting forth the substance of the whole record, deed, proceeding, or paper, which he desires to perpetuate. If, on the hearing, the court shall declare the existence of such record, deed, or proceeding, or paper at the time of the burning of the office wherein the same was lodged or kept, or other destruction thereof, and that the same was there destroyed, and shall declare the contents thereof, such declaration shall be recorded or registered, or filed, according to the nature of the paper destroyed. (1865-6, c. 41, s. 5; Code, s. 60; Rev., s. 332; C. S., s. 371.)

Restored Record Free from Collateral Attack.—Where the destroyed record has been restored, the record so restored cannot be collaterally attacked. Branch v. Griffin, 99 N. C. 173, 5 S. E. 393 (1888).

§ 98-8. Color of title under destroyed instrument.—Every person who has been in the continual, peaceable and quiet possession of land, tenements, or hereditaments, situated in the county, claiming, using and occupying them as his own, for the space of seven years, under known boundaries, the title thereto being out of the State, is deemed to have been lawfully possessed, under color of title, of such estate therein as has been claimed by him during his possession, although he may exhibit no conveyance therefor: Provided, that such possession commenced before the destruction of the registry office, or other destruction as aforesaid, and also that any such person, or any person claiming by, through or under him, makes affidavit and produces such proof as is satisfactory to the court that the possession was rightfully taken; and if taken under a written conveyance, that the registry thereof was destroyed by fire or other means, or was destroyed before registry as aforesaid, and that neither the original nor any copy thereof is in existence: Provided further, that such presumption shall not arise against infants, persons of nonsane memory, and persons residing out of the State, who were such at the time of possession taken, and were not therefore barred, nor were so barred at the time of the burning of the office or other destruction. (1865-6, c. 41, s. 6; Code, s. 61; Rev., s. 333; C. S., s. 372.)

Cross Reference.—As to title by adverse possession generally, see § 3-35 et seq.

Adverse Possession — Presumption of Grant.—In an action to recover land under this section, the plaintiff showed title out of the State by a thirty years' possession. It was held that this statute did not make it necessary to show seven years' adverse possession in addition to the thirty years. The lapse of seven years' adverse possession concurrently with the thirty years is sufficient. Hill v. Overton, 81 N. C. 393 (1879).

§ 98-9. Action on destroyed bond.—Actions on official or other bonds lodged in any office which are destroyed with the registry thereof may be prosecuted by petition against the principal and sureties thereto, and the proceedings shall be as in the former courts of equity. (1865-6, c. 41, s. 7; Code, s. 62; Rev., s. 334; C. S., s. 373.)

§ 98-10. Destroyed witness tickets; duplicates may be filed.—The court having jurisdiction of the action may allow other witness tickets to be filed in place of such as may be destroyed, upon the oath of the witness or other satisfactory proof. (1865-6, c. 41, s. 8; Code, s. 63; Rev., s. 335; C. S., s. 374.)
§ 98-11. Replacing lost official conveyances.—Where any conveyance executed by any person, sheriff, clerk and master, or commissioner of court has been lost, and registry thereof destroyed as aforesaid, and there is no copy thereof, such persons, whether in or out of office, may execute another of like tenor and date, reciting therein that the same is a duplicate, and such deed shall be evidence of the facts therein recited, in all cases wherein the parties thereto are dead, or are incompetent witnesses to prove the same, to the extent as if it was the original conveyance. (1865-6, c. 41, s. 9; Code, s. 64; Rev., s. 336; C. S., s. 375.)

§ 98-12. Court records as proof of destroyed instruments set out therein.—The records of any court in or out of the State, and all transcripts of such records, and the exhibits filed therewith in any case, are admissible to prove the existence and contents of all deeds, wills, conveyances, depositions and other papers, copies whereof are therein set forth or exhibited, in all cases where the records and registry of such as were or ought to have been recorded and registered, or the originals of such as were not proper to be recorded or registered, have been destroyed as aforesaid, although such transcripts or exhibits have been informally certified; and when offered in evidence have the like effect as though the transcript or record was the record of the court whose records are destroyed, and the deeds, wills and conveyances, depositions and other papers therein copied or therewith exhibited were original. (1865-6, c. 41, s. 10; Code, s. 65; Rev., s. 337; C. S., s. 376.)

Evidence of Court Records as Proof.—When papers have been lost and, under competent evidence and instructions, the jury has found their contents to be as contended by the plaintiff, the plaintiff prevails. Fain v. Gaddis, 144 N. C. 765, 57 S. E. 1111 (1907).

§ 98-13. Copies contained in court records may be recorded.—The copies aforesaid of all such deeds, wills, conveyances and other instruments proper to be recorded or registered, as are mentioned in § 98-12, may be recorded or registered on application to the clerk of the superior court and due proof that the original thereof was genuine. (1865-6, c. 41, s. 11; Code, s. 66; Rev., s. 338; C. S., s. 377.)

§ 98-14. Rules for petitions and motions.—The following rules shall be observed in petitions and motions under this chapter:

1. The facts stated in every petition or motion shall be verified by affidavit of the petitioner that they are true according to the best of his knowledge, information, and belief.

2. The instrument or paper sought to be established by any petition shall be fully set forth in its substance, and its precise language shall be stated when the same is remembered.

3. All persons interested in the prayers of the petition or decree shall be made parties.

4. Petitions to establish a record of any court shall be filed at term in the superior court of the county where the record is sought to be established. Other petitions may be filed in the office of the clerk.

5. The costs shall be paid as the court may decree.

6. Appeals shall be allowed as in all other cases, and where the error alleged shall be a finding by the superior court at term, of a matter of fact, the same may be removed on appeal to the Supreme Court, and the proper judgments directed to be entered below.

7. It shall be presumed that any order or record of the court of pleas and quarter sessions, which was made and has been lost or destroyed, was made by a legally constituted court, and the requisite number of justices, without naming said justices. (1865-6, c. 41, s. 12; 1874-
§ 98-15. Records allowed under this chapter to have effect of original records.—The records and registries allowed by the court in pursuance of this chapter shall have the same force and effect as original records and registries. (1865-6, c. 41, s. 14; Code, s. 68; Rev., s. 340; C. S., s. 379.)

Copies Have Only Effect of Originals.—The copies have only the same force and effect as the lost or destroyed deeds would have had, if produced. McNeely v. Laxton, 149 N. C. 327, 63 S. E. 278 (1908).

Negligently Delayed Registration Not Affecting Rights of Bona Fide Purchasers.—When a deed, absolute on its face, but intended as a mortgage, was executed in 1859, and a defeasance was executed in pursuance of the intention of the parties in 1861, and recorded in 1862, and in 1864 the records were destroyed, subsequent purchasers for value, without actual notice, whose deeds were duly recorded, were not affected with notice of such registration. Nor can reregistration of the defeasance in 1886, after the registration of the mesne conveyances to the innocent purchasers, avail to defeat their rights. Waters v. Crabtree, 105 N. C. 394, 11 S. E. 240 (1890).

§ 98-16. Destroyed court records proved prima facie by recitals in conveyances executed before their destruction.—The recitals, reference to, or mention of any decree, order, judgment or other record of any court of record of any county in which the courthouse, or records of said courts, or both, have been destroyed by fire or otherwise, contained, recited or set forth in any deed of conveyance, paper-writing, or other bona fide written evidence of title, executed prior to the destruction of the courthouse and records of said county, by any executor or administrator with a will annexed, or by any clerk and master, superior court clerk, clerk of the court of pleas and quarter sessions, sheriff, or other officer, or commissioners appointed by either of said courts, and authorized by law to execute said deed or other paper-writing, are deemed, taken and recognized as true in fact, and are prima facie evidence of the existence, validity and binding force of said decree, order, judgment or other record so referred to or recited in said deed or paper-writing, and are to all intents and purposes binding and valid against all persons mentioned or described in said instrument of writing, deed, etc., as purporting to be parties thereto, and against all persons who were parties to said decree, judgment, order or other record so referred to or recited, and against all persons claiming by, through or under them or either of them. (1870-1, c. 86, s. 1; 1871-2, c. 64, s. 1; Code, s. 69; Rev., s. 341; C. S., s. 380.)

Constitutionality.—This section, making recitals in deeds, etc., of judgments, records, etc., evidence, etc., upon condition that the courthouse, records, etc., have been destroyed by fire, etc., is constitutional. Barefoot v. Musselwhite, 153 N. C. 208, 69 S. E. 71 (1910).

Evidence Must Show Destruction of Records.—The fact of the destruction by fire or otherwise of the records must be shown before the recitals, reference to, or mention of any decree, judgment, or other record recited in a deed of conveyance, etc., shall have the effect of evidence un-
§ 98-17. Conveyances reciting court records prima facie evidence thereof.—Such deed of conveyance, or other paper-writing, executed as aforesaid, and registered according to law, may be read in any suit now pending or which may hereafter be instituted in any court of this State, as prima facie evidence of the existence and validity of the decree, judgment, order, or other record upon which the same purports to be founded, without any other or further restoration or reinstatement of said decree, order, judgment, or record than is contained in this chapter. (1870-1, c. 86, s. 2; Code, s. 70; Rev., s. 342; C. S., s. 381.)

§ 98-18. Court records and conveyances to which chapter extends.—This chapter shall extend to records of any court which have been or may be destroyed by fire or otherwise, and to any deed of conveyance, paper-writing, or other bona fide evidence of title executed before the destruction of said records. (1871-2, c. 64, s. 2; 1874-5, c. 254, s. 2; Code, s. 71; Rev., s. 343; C. S., s. 382.)

§ 98-19. Replacement of stolen, lost or destroyed State or municipal bonds; indemnity bond.—The State Treasurer of the State of North Carolina, by and with the consent and approval of the Governor and Council of State, and the governing boards of the several counties, cities and political subdivisions of the State, is hereby authorized and empowered to make settlement for or issue new bonds for bonds of the State or any of the political subdivisions thereof, which have been stolen, lost or destroyed: Provided, that there is furnished an indemnity bond in double the amount of the said bonds, said indemnity bond to be approved by the State Treasurer or the governing boards of any political subdivision of the State issuing said replacement bonds: Provided further, that said indemnity bond shall clearly designate the bonds which have been stolen, lost or destroyed. (1935, c. 292, s. 1.)

§ 98-20. Expenses borne by applicant. — All expenses in connection with printing and issuing any replacement bonds provided for in this article shall be borne by the person making application therefor. (1935, c. 292, s. 2.)
Chapter 99.
Libel and Slander.

Sec. 99-1. Libel against newspaper; defamation by or through radio or television station; notice before action. — (a) Before any action, either civil or criminal, is brought for the publication, in a newspaper or periodical, of a libel, the plaintiff or prosecutor shall at least five days before instituting such action serve notice in writing on the defendant, specifying the article and the statements therein which he alleges to be false and defamatory.

(b) Before any action, either civil or criminal, is brought for the publishing, speaking, uttering, or conveying by words, acts or in any other manner of a libel or slander by or through any radio or television station, the plaintiff or prosecutor shall at least five days before instituting such action serve notice in writing on the defendant, specifying the time of and the words or acts which he or they allege to be false and defamatory. (1901, c. 557; Rev., s. 2012; C. S., s. 2429; 1943, c. 238, s. 1.)

Cross References.—As to criminal statutes on libel and slander, see §§ 14-47 and 14-48. As to the making of derogatory reports concerning banks, see § 53-158; concerning building and loan associations, see § 54-44. As to pleadings in libel and slander, see § 1-158. As to statute of limitations for libel, see § 1-54; for slander, see § 1-55. As to allowance of costs in an action for libel and slander, see § 6-18.

Editor's Note. — The 1943 amendment added subsection (b).

Constitutionality.—Laws 1901, c. 557, known as the “London Libel Law” and subsequently appearing as §§ 2429, 2430 and 2431 of the Consolidated Statutes (now §§ 99-1, subsection (a), 99-2, subsection (a), and 99-3, respectively), was held constitutional in Osborn v. Leach, 135 N. C. 628, 47 S. E. 811 (1904), cited in Pentuff v. Park, 194 N. C. 146, 138 S. E. 616, 55 A. L. R. 626 (1927). See note to § 99-2.

Service of Notice under § 1-585 Distinguished.—This and § 1-585 have no relation one to the other. The provision for service of notice in this section refers to an act to be performed as a condition precedent to the institution of the action, whereas the provision as to service of notices in § 1-585 refers to acts to be performed after an action is instituted. Roth v. Greensboro News Co., 214 N. C. 23, 197 S. E. 569 (1938).

Complaint Must Allege Notice.—Under this section a complaint in an action for libel must allege the giving of five days’ notice to the defendant in writing, specifying the article and the statements herein alleged to be false. Williams v. Smith, 134 N. C. 249, 46 S. E. 502 (1904).

And Demurrer Lies for Failure to Allege Notice.—In an action against a newspaper for libel, the failure of the complaint to allege the five days’ notice renders it demurrable. Osborn v. Leach, 135 N. C. 628, 47 S. E. 811 (1904).

Amendment Showing Notice.——Where a demurrer was sustained to a complaint for libel against a newspaper because it failed to appear that notice of the action had been given, the trial court may permit an amendment showing that fact. Osborn v. Leach, 135 N. C. 628, 47 S. E. 811 (1904).

Letter as Sufficient Notice. — A letter written by plaintiff and received by defendant in which demand is made for a retraction and apology for a clearly specified article, in which the alleged false and defamatory statements are plainly indicated, is a sufficient notice in writing as required by this section, the provisions of § 1-585 relating to notice in judicial proceedings after suit has been instituted, not being applicable. Roth v. Greensboro News Co., 214 N. C. 23, 197 S. E. 569 (1938).

When Notice Unnecessary.—In an action for libel, where the newspaper publishes a retraction, no notice need be given.
Osborn v. Leach, 135 N. C. 628, 47 S. E. 811 (1904).

As to whether the provisions of this chapter as to notice to the defendant in an action for libel, looking to retraction and apology, apply to individuals having no connection with a newspaper publishing the libel, was questioned in Paul v. National Auction Co., 181 N. C. 1, 105 S. E. 881 (1921).

Failure of Notice.—In an action for libel against a newspaper the failure to give notice of the action as required only relieves the paper of punitive damages. Osborn v. Leach, 135 N. C. 628, 47 S. E. 811 (1904).

Compensatory Damages.—This and the following section, relating to notice looking to a retraction and apology, having significance only on the question of punitive damages, do not include compensatory damages for “pecuniary loss, physical pain, mental suffering, and injury to reputation.” In Osborn v. Leach, 135 N. C. 628, 47 S. E. 811 (1904), it was held that an action for libel may proceed for the recovery of compensatory damages, whether the notice has been given or otherwise. Paul v. National Auction Co., 181 N. C. 1, 105 S. E. 881 (1921). See Kindley v. Privette, 241 N. C. 140, 84 S. E. (2d) 660 (1954).

§ 99-2. Effect of publication or broadcast in good faith and retraction.—(a) If it appears upon the trial that said article was published in good faith, that its falsity was due to an honest mistake of the facts, and that there were reasonable grounds for believing that the statements in said article were true, and that within ten days after the service of said notice a full and fair correction, apology and retraction was published in the same editions or corresponding issues of the newspaper or periodical in which said article appeared, and in as conspicuous place and type as was said original article, then the plaintiff in such case, if a civil action, shall recover only actual damages, and if, in a criminal proceeding, a verdict of “guilty” is rendered on such state of facts, the defendant shall be fined a penny and the costs, and no more.

(b) If it appears upon the trial that such words or acts were conveyed and broadcast in good faith, that their falsity was due to an honest mistake of the facts, or without prior knowledge or approval of such station, and if with prior knowledge or approval that there were reasonable grounds for believing that the words or acts were true, and that within ten days after the service of said notice a full and fair correction, apology and retraction was conveyed or broadcast by or over such radio or television station at approximately the same time of day and by the same sending power so as to be as visible and audible as the original acts or words complained of, then the plaintiff in such case, if a civil action, shall recover only actual damages, and if, in a criminal proceeding, a verdict of “guilty” is rendered on such state of facts, the defendant shall be fined a penny and the costs, and no more.

Constitutionality.—Subsection (a) of this section, providing that a newspaper publishing a libel may avoid, under certain conditions, the payment of punitive damages is not discriminatory, but a constitutional enactment. Pentuff v. Park, 194 N. C. 146, 138 S. E. 616, 53 A. L. R. 626 (1927). See Osborn v. Leach, 135 N. C. 628, 47 S. E. 811 (1904).

Same—Applies Equally to All Newspapers.—Where a statute for libel applies equally to all newspapers and periodicals, it does not amount to unconstitutional discrimination. Osborn v. Leach, 135 N. C. 628, 47 S. E. 811 (1904).

Form of Retraction.—While this section does not prescribe any particular form of retraction, it does require a categorical retraction and apology, and the mere statement that defendant had come into possession of information contrary to that theretofore published is insufficient to meet the requirements of this section, nor was it incumbent on plaintiff to approve or disapprove thereof, and his failure to do so does not exculpate defendant or preclude the submission of an issue of punitive damages. Roth v. Greensboro News Co., 217 N. C. 13, 6 S. E. (2d) 882 (1940).

Damages When Defendants Do Not Comply.—Where the defendants did not avail themselves of the privilege given them under this section, the damages that may be awarded would include punitive as well as actual damages. Pentuff v. Park, 194 N. C. 146, 198 S. E. 616, 53 A. L. R. 626 (1927).

Damages as “Property”.—The right to have punitive damages assessed is not property, but the right to recover actual or compensatory damages is property. Osborn v. Leach, 135 N. C. 628, 47 S. E. 811 (1904).

Only Actual Damages Where Publication in Good Faith Is Followed by Correction.—Where plaintiff’s evidence establishes a false publication, and defendant’s evidence shows that the publication was made in good faith through error, and that a correction and retraction was published upon defendant ascertaining the facts, plaintiff is entitled to recover the actual damage sustained by him. Lay v. Gazette Pub. Co., 209 N. C. 134, 183 S. E. 416 (1936).

When Malice May Not Be Inferred by Jury.—Malice may not be inferred by the jury from a false publication when defendant’s uncontradicted evidence rebuts the presumption by showing that the publication was made in good faith through error, and that a correction and retraction was published upon defendant ascertaining the facts. Lay v. Gazette Pub. Co., 209 N. C. 134, 183 S. E. 416 (1936).

Defendant’s Pleading.—In an action for libel against a newspaper, the paper having pleaded a retraction of the publication, it is necessary for the defendant to show that the publication was made in good faith, and with reasonable ground to believe it to be true, in order to relieve the paper from punitive damages. Osborn v. Leach, 135 N. C. 628, 47 S. E. 811 (1904).

§ 99-3. Anonymous communications.—The two preceding sections shall not apply to anonymous communications and publications. (1901, c. 557, s. 3; Rev., s. 2014; C. S., s. 2431.)

An article signed “Smith” is not an anonymous publication under this section.

§ 99-4. Charging innocent woman with incontinency. — Whereas doubts have arisen whether actions or slander can be maintained against persons who may attempt, in a wanton and malicious manner, to destroy the reputation of innocent and unprotected women, whose very existence in society depends upon the unsullied purity of their character, therefore any words written or spoken of a woman, which may amount to a charge of incontinency, shall be actionable. (1808, c. 478; R. C., c. 106; Code, s. 3763; Rev., s. 2015; C. S., s. 2432.)

Cross Reference.—As to criminal liability for slandering innocent women, see § 14-48.

This section is explicit and positive in its operative part. Bowden v. Bailes, 101 N. C. 612, 8 S. E. 342 (1888).

Meaning of “Innocent Woman.”—The words “an innocent woman” in § 14-48, and “innocent and unprotected woman” in this section, should be construed to mean innocent of illicit sexual intercourse, as affecting a woman’s reputation when the slanderous words are spoken. The purpose of these sections is to protect women who, however imprudent they may have been in other respects, have not so far “stooped to folly” as to surrender their chastity and become incontinent, or who have regained their characters if a “slip has been made,” from “the wanton and malicious slander” of persons who may attempt to destroy their reputations and blast and ruin their characters. State v. Ferguson, 107 N. C. 841, 12 S. E. 574 (1890); State v. Johnson, 182 N. C. 833, 109 S. E. 166 (1921).

Words Must Charge Adultery or Fornication.—Words which impute to a female a wanton and lascivious disposition only are not actionable. Lucas v. Nichols, 52 N. C. 32 (1859).

The words, which amount to a charge of incontinency, must import not merely a lascivious disposition, but the criminal act of adultery or fornication. McBrayer v. Hill, 26 N. C. 136 (1843).

Where a telegraph company transmits a message containing a charge of incontinency against a woman, demurrer to the evidence, as in case of nonsuit, is properly denied. Parker v. Edwards, 222 N. C. 75, 21 S. E. (2d) 876 (1942).

Complaint.—It is not necessary that the complaint, in an action under this section, should allege that the words were “wantonly and maliciously” uttered. Bowden v. Bailes, 101 N. C. 612, 8 S. E. 342 (1888).

Action by Husband.—An action by a husband for slander of his wife, the wife not being a party and the complaint alleging no special damage to the husband, will be dismissed on motion of the defendant, or ex mero motu, for failure of the complaint to state a cause of action. Harper v. Pinkston, 112 N. C. 293, 17 S. E. 161 (1893).

Evidence.—Testimony by witnesses of statements made by defendant charging in effect that plaintiff had been guilty of illicit sexual intercourse, is competent although not in the exact words alleged in the bill of particulars, it being sufficient if the testimony is confined in substance to the bill of particulars. Bryant v. Reedy, 214 N. C. 748, 200 S. E. 896 (1939).

Damages. — In an action by a woman for slander, for words alleged to have been spoken amounting to a charge of incontinency, the plaintiff may, in the absence of proof of actual special damages recover compensatory damages; and upon proof that the words were spoken with malice, or that the conduct of the defendant was marked by gross and willful wrong, or was oppressive, vindictive damages may be awarded. Bowden v. Bailes, 101 N. C. 612, 8 S. E. 342 (1888).

Same — Words Charging Incontinency Actionable Per Se.—Words charging an innocent woman with conduct amounting to incontinency are actionable per se, under this section, and the law will presume damages in such cases which naturally, proximately and necessarily result therefrom, including mental suffering, humiliation and embarrassment, and testimony of such mental suffering, humiliation and embarrassment is competent without specific allegation thereof. Bryant v. Reedy, 214 N. C. 748, 200 S. E. 896 (1939).

As under this section the charge of incontinency made against an innocent woman, in whatever words written or spoken, conveyed to the hearer, is per se actionable, their utterance must be followed by the same consequence as to damages as the publishing of other defamatory imputations. Bowden v. Bailes, 101 N. C. 612, 8 S. E. 342 (1888).

Instances of Charging Incontinency.—The words: “If the plaintiff (an unmarried woman) did not give birth to a child, she missed a good chance of having it,” themselves imply an illicit sexual intercourse. Sowers v. Sowers, 87 N. C. 303 (1882).

To say of a woman, that “she was kept by a man” is actionable as a slander under our act of assembly. McBrayer v. Hill, 26 N. C. 136 (1843).

Charging Incontinency under Criminal Statute.—Section 14-48 makes it a misdemeanor to charge an innocent woman with incontinency. The wording is similar to this section and the following expressions which were held to amount to charges of incontinency, though decided in criminal cases, would seem to apply here.

Charging a woman with having had sexual intercourse with a male dog amounts to a charge of incontinency. State v. Hewlin, 128 N. C. 571, 37 S. E. 932 (1901).

Calling an innocent woman “a d—d whore,” in a loud and angry manner in the hearing alone of the wife of the speaker, is a charge of incontinency within the meaning of the statute. State v. Shoemaker, 101 N. C. 690, 8 S. E. 332 (1888).

Same — Words Not Sufficient. — The words that a woman “looked like a woman who had miscarried,” do not, per se imply a charge of incontinency. State v. Benton, 17 N. C. 788, 23 S. E. 432 (1895).

Same—Question for Jury.—When the words are ambiguous and admit of a slanderous interpretation, it becomes a question for the jury to determine whether they amounted to the slanderous charge in the reasonable apprehension of the hearers. State v. Howard, 169 N. C. 312 84 S. E. 307 (1915).

operator, shall not be liable for any damage for any defamatory statement published or uttered in or as a part of a visual or sound radio broadcast, by one other than such owner, licensee or operator, or agent or employee thereof, unless such owner, licensee or operator shall be guilty of negligence in permitting any such defamatory statement. (1949, c. 262.)

Memorials Commission.

Sec. 100-1. Memorials Commission created; members; officers; quorum, etc.—A Memorials Commission in and for the State of North Carolina is hereby created, to consist of the following officials, ex officio: The Governor of North Carolina, the Secretary of the North Carolina Historical Commission, the head of the art department of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, the head of the history department of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, and the head of the department of architecture of the North Carolina State College of Agriculture and Engineering. The Memorials Commission shall have the power to adopt its own rules and to elect such officers from its own members as may be deemed proper. Three commissioners shall constitute a quorum. The members shall serve without compensation. (1941, c. 341, s. 1.)

Sec. 100-2. Approval of memorials before acceptance by State; regulation of existing memorials, etc.; "work of art" defined; highway markers.—No memorial or work of art shall hereafter become the property of the State by purchase, gift or otherwise, unless such memorial or work of art or a design of the same, together with the proposed location of the same, shall first have been submitted to and approved by said Memorials Commission; nor shall any memorial or work of art, until so submitted and approved, be § 100-3. Approval of design, etc., of certain bridges and other structures.—No bridge, arch, gate, fence or other structure intended primarily for ornamental or memorial purposes and which is paid for either wholly or in part by appropriation from the State treasury, or which is to be placed on or allowed to extend over any property belonging to the State, shall be begun unless the design and proposed location thereof shall have been submitted to said Memorials Commission and approved by it. Furthermore, no existing structures of the kind named and described in the preceding part of this section owned by the State, shall be removed or remodeled without submission of the plans therefor to the Commission and approval of said plans by the Commission. This section shall not be construed as amending or repealing chapter one hundred and ninety-seven of the Public Laws of one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five. (1941, c. 341, s. 3.)

§ 100-4. Governor to accept works of art approved by Commission.—The Governor of North Carolina is hereby authorized to accept, in the name of the State of North Carolina, gifts to the State of works of art as defined in § 100-2. But no work of art shall be so accepted unless and until the same shall have been first submitted to said Memorials Commission and by it judged worthy of acceptance. (1941, c. 341, s. 4.)

§ 100-5. Duties as to buildings erected or remodeled by State.—Upon request of the Governor and the Board of Public Buildings and Grounds, said Memorials Commission shall act in an advisory capacity relative to the artistic character of any building constructed, erected, or remodeled by the State. The term “building” as used in this section shall include structures intended for human occupation, and also bridges, arches, gates, walls, or other permanent structures of any character not intended primarily for purposes of decoration or commemoration. (1941, c. 341, s. 5.)

§ 100-6. Disqualification to vote on work of art, etc.; vacancy.—Any member of said Memorials Commission who shall be employed by the State to execute a work of art or structure of any kind requiring submission to the Commission, or who shall take part in a competition for such work of art or structure, shall be disqualified from voting thereon, and the temporary vacancy thereby created may be filled by appointment by the Governor. (1941, c. 341, s. 6.)

§ 100-7. Construction.—The provisions of this article shall not be construed to include exhibits of an educational nature arranged by museums or art galleries administered by the State or any of its agencies or institutions, or to prevent the placing of portraits of officials, officers, or employees of the State in the offices or buildings of the departments, agencies, or institutions with which such officials, officers, or employees are or have been connected. But upon request of such museums or agencies, said Memorials Commission shall act in an
§ 100-8. Memorials to persons within twenty-five years of death; acceptance of commemorative funds for useful work. — No monument, statue, tablet, painting, or other article or structure of a permanent nature intended primarily to commemorate any person or persons shall be purchased from State funds or shall be placed in or upon or allowed to extend over State property within twenty-five years after the death of the person or persons so commemorated: Provided, nevertheless, that nothing in this article shall be interpreted as prohibiting the acceptance of funds by State agencies or institutions from individuals or societies who wish to commemorate some person or persons by providing funds for educational, health, charitable, or other useful work. The agency or institution to which such funds are offered for memorial enterprises shall exercise its discretion as to the acceptance and expenditure of such funds. Nothing in this article shall be interpreted as prohibiting the erection on the lands of the Cliffs of the Neuse State Park an appropriate tablet or plaque honoring the life and memory of the late Lionel Weil of Wayne County. Nothing in this article shall be interpreted as prohibiting the erection on the lands of the Morrow Mountain State Park an appropriate tablet or plaque honoring the life and memory of the late James McKnight Morrow of Stanly County. Nothing in this article shall be interpreted as prohibiting the erection on the lands of the Cliffs of the Neuse State Park an appropriate tablet or plaque of such size and containing such language, as may be agreed upon by the donors and Director of State Parks, honoring the Whitfield heirs for their contributions to the establishment of the said park. (1941, c. 341, s. 8; 1957, c. 181; 1961, c. 976; 1963, c. 1128.)

Editor's Note. — The 1957 amendment added the last sentence to this section. The 1963 amendment added the last sentence.

The 1961 amendment added the next-to-last sentence.

ARTICLE 2.

Memorials Financed by Counties and Cities.

§ 100-9. County commissioners may protect monuments. — When any monument has been or shall hereafter be erected to the memory of our Confederate dead or to perpetuate the memory and virtues of our distinguished dead, if such monument is erected by the voluntary subscription of the people and is placed on the courthouse square, the board of county commissioners of such county are permitted to expend from the public funds of the county an amount sufficient to erect a substantial iron fence around such monument in order that the same may be protected. (1905, c. 457; Rev., s. 3928; C. S., s. 6934.)

Cross Reference. — As to criminal liability for defacing or removing monuments, see § 14-148.

§ 100-10. Counties, cities, and towns may contribute toward erection of memorials. — Any county, city or town by resolution first adopted by its governing body may become a member of any memorial association or organization for perpetuating the memory of the soldiers and sailors of North Carolina who served the United States in the great World War, or in the global war known as World War II, or who fought in the War Between the States, and may subscribe and pay toward the cost of the erection any memorial to the memory of such soldiers and sailors such sums of money as its governing body may determine, and may be represented in such association or organization by such persons as its governing body may select. Any contribution so made shall be paid out of the general fund of such county, city, or town making same, on such terms as may be agreed upon by its governing body, and the officers having the control and management of the association or organization to which subscription and contribution are made. (1919, c. 21, ss. 1, 2, 3; C. S., s. 6938; 1923, c. 200; 1945, c. 117.)

Editor's Note.—The 1923 amendment inserted the provision for perpetuating the memory of the soldiers and sailors of the War Between the States. The 1945 amendment inserted the words "or in the global war known as World War II."

ARTICLE 3.

§ 100-11. Duties. — The Board of Conservation and Development shall have complete control, care, protection and charge of that part of Mitchell's Park acquired by the State. (1919, c. 316, s. 1; 1921, c. 222, s. 1; 1925, c. 122, s. 23.)

Editor's Note. — The 1921 amendment made the North Carolina Geological and Economic Survey and the Geological Board the successor of the "Mount Mitchell Park Commission and the Mitchell Peak Park Commission. The Survey and Board were in turn replaced by the Board of Conservation and Development by authority of the 1925 amendment.

§ 100-12. Roads, trails, and fences authorized; protection of property.—The Board of Conservation and Development is authorized and empowered to enter upon the land hereinbefore referred to, and to build a fence or fences around the same, also roads, paths, and trails and protect the property against trespass and fire and injury of any and all kinds whatsoever; cut wood and timber upon the same, but only for the purpose of protecting the other timber thereon and improving the property generally. (1919, c. 316, s. 5; C. S., s. 6942; 1921, c. 222, s. 1; 1925, c. 122, s. 23.)

§ 100-13. Fees for use of improvements; fees for other privileges; leases; rules and regulations.—The Board of Conservation and Development is further authorized and empowered to charge and collect fees for the use of such improvements as have already been constructed, or may hereafter be constructed, on the Park, and for other privileges connected with the full use of the Park by the public; to lease sites for camps, houses, hotels, and places of amusement and business; and to make and enforce such necessary rules and regulations as may best tend to protect, reserve and increase the value and attractiveness of the Park. (1921, c. 222, s. 2; C. S., s. 6942(a); 1925, c. 122, s. 23.)

§ 100-14. Use of fees and other collections.—All fees and other money collected and received by the Board of Conservation and Development in connection with its proper administration of Mount Mitchell State Park shall be used by said Board for the administration, protection, improvement, and maintenance of said Park. (1921, c. 222, s. 3; C. S., s. 6942(b); 1925, c. 122, s. 23.)

§ 100-15. Annual reports.—The Board of Conservation and Development shall make an annual report to the Governor of all money received and expended by it in the administration of Mount Mitchell State Park, and of such other items as may be called for by him or by the General Assembly. (1921, c. 222, s. 4; C. S., s. 6942(c); 1925, c. 122, s. 23.)

ARTICLE 4.

Toll Roads or Bridges in Public Parks.

§ 100-16. Private operation of toll roads or bridges in public parks prohibited.—No person, firm or corporation shall have the right or privilege to privately operate any toll road or toll bridge in this State upon lands belonging to the State, set apart or designated as a public park.

In the event any such toll road or bridge is on March 17, 1939 being privately operated under any real or assumed right, privilege, or lease, the State institution or department having such State-owned property in charge or under its supervision shall immediately give notice to such person, firm or corporation so operating such toll road or toll bridge to discontinue the operation of the same.

Any person, firm or corporation who sustains any legal damage by reason of the exercise of the authority hereinbefore granted shall be entitled to just compensation therefor, and, in the event satisfactory settlement cannot be made with the department or State agency exercising the authority herein contained, the amount of just compensation may be determined by a special proceeding instituted by the claimant against the department or agency having such property in custody under the provisions of the chapter on Eminent Domain, in so far as the same may be applicable hereto: Provided, such proceeding shall be instituted within six months from the time such notice is given. Any compensation awarded shall be a valid claim against the State of North Carolina, payable out of the funds of the department or State agency having such property in charge. (1939, c. 127.)

ARTICLE 5.

Flagpoles and Display of Flags in State Parks.

§ 100-17. Flagpole to be erected in each State park.—At each of the State parks of North Carolina an adequate flagpole shall be erected, in keeping with the construction of other structures thereupon, upon which flags of the United States of America and the State of North Carolina may be flown. (1963, c. 317, s. 1.)

Editor’s Note.—The act inserting this article became effective May 1, 1963.

§ 100-18. Display of flags. — Where personnel are available upon the State parks, the flags of the United States and of the State of North Carolina shall be flown on every Saturday and Sunday and on every State holiday from May 1 to October 1 of each year, in conformity with appropriate national and State policy and procedures concerning the display of the State and federal flag. (1963, c. 317, s. 2.)

§ 100-19. Donation of flagpoles.—Flagpoles at State parks may be donated by donors of the lands upon which State parks are situated, and if such donors express a desire to donate flagpoles, such donations shall be accepted in preference to that of any other individual or group. In the event that the donors of the lands upon which the State parks are situated shall not indicate a desire to donate flagpoles therefor within six (6) months of the date of the passage of this article, donations for flagpoles shall be accepted from individuals or groups who may desire to make such donations and erect the said flag poles in keeping with State park regulations. (1963, c. 317, s. 3.)
Chapter 101.

Names of Persons.

§ 101-1. Legislature may regulate change by general but not private law.—The General Assembly shall not have power to pass any private law to alter the name of any person, but shall have power to pass general laws regulating the same. (Const., Art. II, s. 11; Rev., s. 2146; C. S., s. 2970.)

Cross References. — As to changing name of minor child upon adoption, see § 48-14. As to resumption of maiden name by a woman after divorce, see § 50-12.

§ 101-2. Procedure for changing name; petition; notice.—A person who wishes, for good cause shown, to change his name must file his application before the clerk of the superior court of the county in which he lives, having first given ten days' notice of the application by publication at the courthouse door.

Applications to change the name of minor children may be filed by their parent or parents or guardian or next friend of such minor children, and such applications may be joined in the application for a change of name filed by their parent or parents: Provided nothing herein shall be construed to permit one parent to make such application on behalf of a minor child without the consent of the other parent of such minor child if both parents be living, except that a minor who has reached the age of 16 years, upon proper application to the clerk may change his or her name, with the consent of the parent who has custody of the minor and has supported the minor, without the necessity of obtaining the consent of the other parent, when the clerk of court is satisfied that the other parent has abandoned the minor. Provided, further, that a change of parentage or the addition of information relating to parentage on the birth certificate of any person shall be made pursuant to G. S. 130-64.1.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, the consent of a parent who has abandoned a minor child shall not be required if there is filed with the clerk a copy of an order of a court of competent jurisdiction adjudicating that such parent has abandoned such minor child. In the event that a court of competent jurisdiction has not therefore declared the minor child to be an abandoned child, then on written notice of not less than ten days to the parent alleged to have abandoned the child, by registered or certified mail directed to such parent's last known address, the clerk of superior court is hereby authorized to determine whether an abandonment has taken place. If said parent denies that an abandonment has taken place, this issue of fact shall be determined as provided in G. S. 1-273, and if abandonment is determined, then the consent of said parent shall not be required. Upon final determination of this issue of fact the proceeding shall be transferred back to the special proceedings docket for further action by the clerk. (1891, c. 145; Rev., s. 2147; C. S., s. 2971; 1947, c. 115; 1953, c. 678; 1955, c. 951, s. 3; 1957, c. 1442; 1959, c. 1161, s. 7.)

The 1953 amendment added the exception clause at the end of the first proviso to the second paragraph, and the 1955 amendment added the second proviso.
§ 101-3. Contents of petition.—The applicant shall state in the application his true name, county of birth, date of birth, the full name of parents as shown on birth certificate, the name he desires to adopt, his reasons for desiring such change, and whether his name has ever before been changed by law, and, if so, the facts with respect thereto. (1891, c. 145; Rev., s. 2147; C. S., s. 2972; 1945, c. 37, s. 1; 1957, c. 1233, s. 1.)

Editor’s Note. — Prior to the 1945 amendment the part of the section after the first “and” read “that his name has never been changed before by law.”

§ 101-4. Proof of good character to accompany petition.—The applicant shall also file with said petition proof of his good character, which proof must be made by at least two citizens of the county who know his standing: Provided, however, proof of good character shall not be required when the application is for the change of name of a child under sixteen (16) years of age. (1891, c. 145; Rev., s. 2148; C. S., s. 2973; 1963, c. 206.)

Editor’s Note. — The 1963 amendment added the proviso.

§ 101-5. Clerk to order change; certificate and record.—If the clerk thinks that good and sufficient reason exists for the change of name, it shall be his duty to issue an order changing the name of the applicant from his true name to the name sought to be adopted. Such order shall contain the true name, the county of birth, the date of birth, the full name of parents as shown on birth certificate, and the name sought to be adopted. He shall issue to the applicant a certificate under his hand and seal of office, stating the change made in the applicant’s name, and shall also record said application and order on the docket of special proceedings in his court. He shall forward a copy of the change of name order to the State Registrar of Vital Statistics if the applicant was born in North Carolina. Upon receipt of the order, the State Registrar shall note the change of name of the individual or individuals specified in the order on the birth certificate of that individual or those individuals and shall notify the register of deeds in the county of birth. (1891, c. 145; Rev., ss. 2149, 2150; C. S., s. 2974; c. 145; Rev., ss. 2147, 2149; C. S., s. 2975; 1945, c. 37, s. 2.)

Editor’s Note. — The 1955 amendment added the fourth and fifth sentences. The 1957 amendment inserted the second sentence and added to the fourth sentence “if the applicant was born in North Carolina.”

§ 101-6. Effect of change; only one change.—When the order is made and the applicant’s name changed, he is entitled to all the privileges and protection under his new name as he would have been under the old name. No person shall be allowed to change his name under this chapter but once, except that he shall be permitted to resume his former name upon compliance with the requirements and procedure set forth in this chapter for change of name. (1891, c. 145; Rev., ss. 2147, 2149; C. S., s. 2975; 1945, c. 37, s. 2.)

Editor’s Note. — The 1945 amendment added the exception clause at the end of the section.
Chapter 102.

Official Survey Base.

Sec.
102-1. Name and description.
102-2. Physical control.
102-3. Use of name.
102-4. Damaging, defacing, or destroying monuments.
102-5. [Repealed.]
102-7. Use not compulsory.
102-9. Duties and powers of the agency.
102-10. Prior work.
102-12. Control system map.

§ 102-1. Name and description.—The official survey base for the State of North Carolina shall be a system of plane co-ordinates to be known as the “North Carolina Co-ordinate System,” said system being defined as a Lambert conformal projection of Clarke’s spheroid of one thousand eight hundred sixty-six, having a central meridian of 79°—00’ west from Greenwich and standard parallels of latitude of 34°—20’ and 36°—10’ north of the equator, along which parallels the scale shall be exact. All co-ordinates of the system are expressed in feet, the x co-ordinate being measured easterly along the grid and the y co-ordinate being measured northerly along the grid. The origin of the co-ordinates is hereby established on the meridian 79°—00’ west from Greenwich at the intersection of the parallels 33°—45’ north latitude, such origin being given the co-ordinates \( x = 2,000,000 \) feet, \( y = 0 \) feet. The precise position of said system shall be as marked on the ground by triangulation or traverse stations or monuments established in conformity with the standards adopted by the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey for first- and second-order work, whose geodetic positions have been rigidly on the North American datum of one thousand nine hundred twenty-seven, and whose plane co-ordinates have been computed on the system defined. (1939, c. 163, s. 1.)

§ 102-2. Physical control. — Any triangulation or traverse station or monument established as described in § 102-1 may be used in establishing a connection between any survey and the above mentioned system of rectangular co-ordinates. (1939, c. 163, s. 2.)

§ 102-3. Use of name.—The use of the term “North Carolina Co-ordinate System” on any map, report, or survey, or other document, shall be limited to co-ordinates based on the North Carolina Co-ordinate System as defined in this chapter. (1939, c. 163, s. 3.)

§ 102-4. Damaging, defacing, or destroying monuments. — If any person shall willfully damage, deface, destroy, or otherwise injure a station, monument or permanent mark of the North Carolina Co-ordinate System, or shall oppose any obstacles to the proper, reasonable, and legal use of any such station or monument, such person shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be liable to fine or imprisonment at the discretion of the court. (1939, c. 163, s. 4.)

§ 102-6. Legality of use in descriptions.—For the purpose of describing the location of any survey station or land boundary corner in the State of North Carolina, it shall be considered a complete, legal, and satisfactory description to define the location of such point or points by means of co-ordinates of the North Carolina Co-ordinate System as described herein. (1963, c. 163, s. 6; c. 783.)

Editor's Note. — The 1963 amendment deleted at the end of this section “and within the limitations of § 102-5.”
§ 102-7. Use not compulsory. — Nothing contained in this chapter shall be interpreted as requiring any purchaser or mortgagee to rely wholly on a description based upon the North Carolina Co-ordinate System. (1939, c. 163, s. 7.)

§ 102-8. Administrative agency. — The administrative agency of the North Carolina Co-ordinate System shall be the North Carolina Department of Conservation and Development, through its appropriate division hereinafter called the “agency.” (1939, c. 163, s. 8.)

§ 102-9. Duties and powers of the agency. — It shall be the duty of the agency to make or cause to be made from time to time such surveys and computations as are necessary to further or complete the North Carolina Co-ordinate System. The agency shall endeavor to carry to completion as soon as practicable the field monumentation and office computations of the Co-ordinate System. For the purpose of this work the agency shall have the power to accept grants for the specific purpose of carrying on the work; to co-ordinate, organize, and direct any federal or other assistance which may be offered to further the work; to co-operate with any individual, firm, company, public or private agency, State or federal agencies, in the prosecution of the work; to enter into contracts or co-operative agreements with other state or federal agencies in promoting the work of the co-ordinating system. The agency shall further have the power to adopt necessary rules, regulations, and specifications relating to the establishment and use of the co-ordinate system as defined in this chapter, consistent with the standards and practice of the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey. (1939, c. 163, s. 9.)

§ 102-10. Prior work. — The system of stations, monuments, traverses, computations, and other work which has been done or is under way in North Carolina by the so-called North Carolina Geodetic Survey, under the supervision of the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey, is, where consistent with the provisions of this chapter, hereby made a part of the North Carolina Co-ordinate System. The surveys, notes, computations, monuments, stations, and all other work relating to the co-ordinate system, which has been done by said North Carolina Geodetic Survey, under the supervision of and in co-operation with the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey and federal relief agencies, hereby are placed under the direction of, and shall become the property of, the administrative agency. All persons or agencies having in their possession any surveys, notes, computations, or other data pertaining to the aforementioned co-ordinate system, shall turn over to the Department of Conservation and Development such data upon request. (1939, c. 163, s. 10; 1959, c. 1315, s. 1.)

§ 102-11. Vertical control. — Whereas the foregoing provisions of this chapter heretofore are related to horizontal control only, the administrative agency may adopt standards for vertical control or levying surveys consistent with those recommended by and used by the United States Coast and Geodetic Survey, and make or cause to be made such surveys as are necessary to complete the vertical control of North Carolina, in accordance with the provisions for horizontal control surveys as defined in this chapter. (1939, c. 163, s. 11.)

§ 102-12. Control system map. — The agency shall prepare for publication and cause to be published before July 1, 1962, a map or maps setting forth the location of monuments for both horizontal and vertical control, together with such other pertinent data as the agency may direct for implementation of the North Carolina Co-ordinate System. The agency shall furnish such map or maps to any person or may make such charge as will defray the expense of printing and distribution. It shall be the responsibility of the agency to maintain this map, make revisions as often as necessary to provide up-to-date information and furnish up-to-date copies to the register of deeds of each county in the State. (1959, c. 1315, s. 2.)

§ 102-13. Recording tax. — There shall be applied to each transaction in the transfer of ownership of land, except cemetery lots, and on the execution of rights of way, easements, or leases of land recorded in any county of North Carolina, a recording tax of fifty cents (50¢), such tax to be collected at the time of registration of the instrument by the registrar of deeds from the selling party to the instrument. The county shall retain ten cents (10¢) from each transaction to offset collection cost and shall pay forty cents (40¢) from each transaction into the General Fund of the State. Counties shall maintain daily record of such taxable transactions and shall make payment to the Commissioner of Revenue not later than the 15th of the month following that for which payment is made. (1959, c. 1315, s. 3.)

§ 102-14. Initial operating funds. — There is hereby appropriated the sum of eighty-five thousand two hundred and fifty dollars ($85,250.00) for the fiscal year 1959-60 and seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000.00) for the fiscal year 1960-61 to the Department of Conservation and Development for organization and operation of the Official Survey Base Division for the biennium 1959-61. Thereafter, operating funds shall be provided from the General Fund in accordance with applicable budgetary procedures. (1959, c. 1315, s. 3.)

§ 103-2. Hunting on Sunday.—If any person shall, except in defense of his own property, hunt on Sunday, having with him a shotgun, rifle, or pistol, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and pay a fine not exceeding fifty dollars ($50.00) or imprisoned not exceeding thirty days. (1868-9, c. 18, ss. 1, 2; Code, s. 3783; Rev., s. 3842; C. S., s. 3956; 1945, c. 1047.)

Editor's Note.—The 1945 amendment rewrote this section. Formerly the section created two offenses: (1) Hunting on Sunday with a dog, and (2) being found off one's premises having a shotgun, rifle or pistol. State v. Howard, 67 N. C. 24 (1872).

Sufficiency of Indictment.—Under the former reading of the section, a conviction was sustainable under an indictment charging the defendant with being "found off his premises on the Sabbath day, having with him a shotgun, contrary to the form of the statute," etc. State v. Howard, 67 N. C. 24 (1872).

Same—"Sabbath." — It is immaterial that the indictment used the expression "the Sabbath" instead of "Sunday." State v. Drake, 64 N. C. 589 (1870).

Same—Must State Act Committed on Sunday.—An indictment for an act which is criminal when committed on Sunday, must state that the act in question was committed on Sunday; but if it does so, no exception can be taken to it for reference to the same day by a wrong day of the month. State v. Drake, 64 N. C. 589 (1870).

§ 103-3. Execution of process on Sunday.—It shall be lawful for any sheriff, constable or other lawful officer to execute any summons, capias, or other process on Sunday. (1957, c. 1052.)

Editor's Note.—G. S. 103-3, which was repealed by chapter 912 of the Session Laws of 1953, was re-enacted by the 1957 act to read as above.

Sunday is not a judicial day, hence an adjournment of the court from Saturday night to Monday morning during the progress of a trial for murder is not violative of the act requiring the adjournment to be "from day to day." State v. Howard, 82 N. C. 623 (1880).

When Court May Sit on Sunday.—There have been some instances in the judicial proceedings in this State where the courts have held their sessions on Sunday, but the cases are rare, and whenever it has been done, exception has generally been taken to the course of the court, upon the ground that it could not legally sit on that day. But the Supreme Court has held that in special cases ex necessitate the court might sit on Sunday. State v. Ricketts, 74 N. C. 187 (1876); State v. McGimsey, 80 N. C. 377 (1879); State v. Howard, 82 N. C. 623 (1880).

Term of Court Embraces Sunday.—When a term of court is set by statute to begin on a certain Monday, and to last for "one week" (or two or three weeks, as the case may be), it embraces the Sunday of each week (unless sooner adjourned), and the term expires by limitation at midnight of that day. Taylor v. Ervin, 119 N. C. 274, 25 S. E. 875 (1898).

Verdict of Jury and Judgment. — The rendition by the jury of a verdict on Sunday is not invalid for that cause. Tuttle v. Tuttle, 146 N. C. 484, 59 S. E. 1008 (1907).

A verdict entered on Sunday of a week set for the duration of a court, in the absence of an earlier adjournment, is legally entered. Taylor v. Ervin, 119 N. C. 274, 25 S. E. 875 (1898).

There being no inhibition of a verdict rendered on Sunday, either at common law or by statute, a judgment entered on that day (by virtue of the statute, that it shall be entered up at once on the verdict) is valid. Taylor v. Ervin, 119 N. C. 274, 25 S. E. 875 (1898).
§ 103-4. Dates of public holidays. — The first day of January, the nineteenth day of January, the twenty-second day of February, Easter Monday, the twelfth day of April, the tenth day of May, the twentieth day of May, the thirtieth day of May, the fourth day of July, the first Monday in September, the eleventh day of November, to be known as Veterans Day, Tuesday after the first Monday in November when a general election is held, the day appointed by the Governor as a Thanksgiving Day, and the twenty-fifth day of December of each and every year, are declared to be public holidays; and whenever any such holiday shall fall upon Sunday, the Monday following shall be a public holiday: Provided, that Easter Monday and the thirtieth day of May shall be holidays for all State and national banks only. (1881, c. 294; Code, s. 3784; 1891, c. 58; 1899, c. 410; 1901, c. 25; Rev., s. 2838; 1909, c. 888; 1919, c. 287; C. S., s. 3959; 1935, c. 212; 1959, c. 1011.)

Editor's Note.—The 1935 amendment inserted “Easter Monday” and the “thirtieth day of May” in this section.
The 1959 amendment inserted “to be known as Veterans Day.”

This section relates to State-wide public holidays. Hardbarger v. Deal, 258 N. C.

Closing of County Clerk's Office on Easter Monday.—When §§ 1-593, 2-24 and 103-5 and this section are construed together, the closing of a county clerk's office on Easter Monday, pursuant to resolution by the board of county commissioners in which Easter Monday was designated a holiday, a plaintiff, if otherwise entitled to commence an action on Easter Monday is titled to commence the action on the next day the courthouse is open for business. Hardbarger v. Deal, 258 N. C. 31, 127
S. E. (2d) 771 (1962).

Effect of Legal Holiday Generally.—
The statute declaring certain days public holidays does not prohibit the pursuit of the usual avocations of citizens, nor public officers or the courts from exercising their respective functions on those days.
While it might be that attendence of jurors, witnesses and suitors will not be enforced, and the courts will not sue out or enforce process on such days, yet the courts may lawfully proceed with the business before them. State v. Moore, 104
N. C. 743, 10 S. E. 183 (1889).

Deposition Opened on Holiday.—A legal holiday has not the same status in respect to legal proceedings as Sunday; and while depositions opened on the latter day are void, they are not so when they are opened on a legal holiday. Latta v. Catawba Elec.

§ 103-5. Acts to be done on Sunday or holidays.—Where the day or the last day for doing an act required or permitted by law to be done falls on Sunday or a holiday the act may be done on the next succeeding secular or business day and where the courthouse in any county is closed on Saturday or any other day by order of the board of county commissioners of said county and the day or the last day required for filing an advance bid or the filing of any pleading or written instrument of any kind with any officer having an office in the courthouse, or the performance of any act required or permitted to be done in said courthouse falls on Saturday or other day during which said courthouse is closed as aforesaid, then said Saturday or other day during which said courthouse is closed as aforesaid shall be deemed a holiday; and said advance bid, pleading or other written instrument may be filed, and any act required or permitted to be done in the courthouse may be done on the next day during which the courthouse is open for business. (Code, ss. 3784, 3785, 3786; 1899, c. 733, s. 194; Rev., s. 2839; C. S., s. 3960; 1951, c. 1176, s. 1.)

Cross References. — As to computing time when last day falls on Sunday, see § 1-593. As to time negotiable instrument becoming due on Sunday is payable, see § 25-91. As to closing county clerk's office on Easter Monday, see note to § 103-4.

Editor's Note. — The 1951 amendment added all of the section following the word "day" in the fourth line.

The institution of a suit is an act "required or permitted to be done in the courthouse" within the meaning of this section. Hardbarger v. Deal, 258 N. C. 31, 127 S. E. (2d) 771 (1962).

Article 1.

Authority for Acquisition.

§ 104-1. Acquisition of lands for specified purposes authorized; concurrent jurisdiction reserved.—The United States is authorized, by purchase or otherwise, to acquire title to any tract or parcel of land in the State of North Carolina, not exceeding twenty-five acres, for the purpose of erecting thereon any custom house, courthouse, post office, or other building, including lighthouses, lightkeepers' dwellings, lifesaving stations, buoys and local depots and buildings connected therewith, or for the establishment of a fish-cultural station and the erection thereon of such buildings and improvements as may be necessary for the successful operations of such fish-cultural station. The consent to acquisition by the United States is upon the express condition that the State of North Carolina shall so far retain a concurrent jurisdiction with the United States over such lands as that all civil and criminal process issued from the courts of the State of North Carolina may be executed thereon in like manner as if this authority had not been given, and that the State of North Carolina also retains authority to punish all violations of its criminal laws committed on any such tract of land. (1870-1, c. 44, s. 5; Code, ss. 3080, 3083; 1887, c. 136; 1899, c. 10; Rev., s. 5426; C. S., s. 8053.)

Editor's Note.—As to note on jurisdiction relative to lands acquired by federal government, see 23 N. C. Law Rev. 258.

Exclusive Jurisdiction. — Jurisdiction of the United States is exclusive over property in this State acquired in 1899 with the State's legislative consent, and such exclusive jurisdiction is not affected by the restrictive provisions of this section and § 104-7 subsequently enacted, which are prospective only. State v. DeBerry, 224 N. C. 834, 32 S. E. (2d) 617 (1945).

§ 104-2. Unused lands to revert to State. — The consent given in § 104-1 is upon consideration of the United States building lighthouses, lighthouse-keepers' dwellings, lifesaving stations, buoys, coal depots, fish stations, post offices, custom houses, and other buildings connected therewith, on the tracts or parcels of land so purchased, or that may be purchased; and that the title to land so conveyed to the United States shall revert to the State unless the construction of the afore-mentioned buildings be completed thereon within ten years from the date of the conveyance from the grantor. (1870-1, c. 44, s. 5; Code, ss. 3080, 3083; 1887, c. 136; 1899, c. 10; Rev., s. 5426; C. S., s. 8054.)

When Exemption Begins.—A contract to convey lands to the United States government reservation, under the federal statute, does not vest the title in the government and title approved by the Attorney General, and until then the land is subject to State taxes under the State statutes. Caldwell Land, etc., Co. v. Commissioners, 174 N. C. 634, 94 S. E. 406 (1917).

§ 104-4. Conveyances of such lands to be recorded.—All deeds, conveyances, or other title papers for the same shall be recorded, as in other cases, in the office of the register of deeds of the county in which the lands so conveyed may lie, in the same manner and under the same regulations as other deeds and conveyances are now recorded, and in like manner may be recorded a sufficient description by metes and bounds, courses and distances, of any tract or legal division of any public land belonging to the United States, which may be set apart by the general government for the purpose before mentioned, by an order, patent, or other official document or paper so describing such land. (1870-1, c. 44, s. 2; 1872-3, c. 201; Code, s. 3081; Rev., s. 5429; C. S., s. 8056.)

§ 104-5. Forest reserve in North Carolina authorized; powers conferred.—The United States is authorized to acquire by purchase, or by condemnation with adequate compensation, except as hereinafter provided, such lands in North Carolina as in the opinion of the federal government may be needed for the establishment of a national forest reserve in that region. This consent is given upon condition that the State of North Carolina shall retain a concurrent jurisdiction with the United States in and over such lands so far that civil process in all cases, and such criminal process as may issue under the authority of the State of North Carolina against any person charged with the commission of any crime without or within said jurisdiction, may be executed thereon in like manner as if this consent had not been given. Power is hereby conferred upon the Congress of the United States to pass such laws as it may deem necessary to the acquisition as hereinbefore provided, for incorporation in such national forest reserve such forest-covered lands lying in North Carolina as in the opinion of the federal government may be needed for this purpose, but as much as two hundred acres of any tract of land occupied as a home by bona fide residents in this State on the eighteenth day of January, one thousand nine hundred and one, shall be exempt from the provisions of this section. Power is hereby conferred upon Congress to pass such laws and to make or provide for the making of such rules and regulations, of both civil and criminal nature, and to provide punishment therefor, as in its judgment may be necessary for the management, control, and protection of such lands as may be from time to time acquired by the United States under the provisions of this section. (1901, c. 17; Rev., s. 5430; C. S., s. 8057; 1929, c. 67, s. 1.)

§ 104-6. Acquisition of lands for river and harbor improvement; reservation of right to serve process.—The consent of the legislature of the State is hereby given to the acquisition by the United States of any tracts, pieces, or parcels of land within the limits of the State, by purchase or condemnation, for use as sites for locks and dams, or for any other purpose in connection with the improvement of rivers and harbors within and on the borders of the State. The consent hereby given is in accordance with the seventeenth clause of the eighth section of the first article of the Constitution of the United States, and with the acts of Congress in such cases made and provided; and this State retains concurrent jurisdiction with the United States over any lands acquired and held in pursuance of the provisions of this section, so far as that all civil and criminal process issued under authority of any law of this State may be executed in any part of the premises so acquired, or the buildings or structures thereon erected. (1907, c. 681; C. S., s. 8058.)

§ 104-7. Acquisition of lands for public buildings; cession of jurisdiction; exemption from taxation. — The consent of the State is hereby given, in accordance with the seventeenth clause, eighth section, of the first article of the Constitution of the United States, to the acquisition by the United States, by purchase, condemnation, or otherwise, of any land in the State required for the sites for custom houses, courthouses, post offices, arsenals, or other public buildings whatever, or for any other purposes of the government. Exclusive jurisdiction in and over any land so acquired by the United States shall be and the same is hereby ceded to the United States for all purposes except the service upon such sites of all civil and criminal process of the courts of this State; but the jurisdiction so ceded shall continue no longer than the said United States shall own such lands. The jurisdiction ceded shall not vest until the United States shall have acquired title to said lands by purchase, condemnation, or otherwise.

So long as the said lands shall remain the property of the United States when acquired as aforesaid, and no longer, the same shall be and continue exempt and exonerated from all State, county, and municipal taxation, assessment, or other charges which may be levied or imposed under the authority of this State. (1907, c. 25; C. S., s. 8059.)

Editor's Note.—As to note on jurisdiction relative to lands acquired by federal government, see 29 N. C. Law Rev. 258. For case law survey on jurisdiction over federal enclave, see 41 N. C. Law Rev. 451.

Necessity for Acceptance of Jurisdiction by United States.—This section cedes exclusive jurisdiction to the United States over the land acquired, but this section and the State of North Carolina cannot compel the United States to accept such jurisdiction over an area. State v. Burell, 226 N. C. 288, 123 S. E. (2d) 795 (1962); cert. denied 370 U. S. 961, 83 S. Ct. 1621, 8 L. Ed. (2d) 827 (1963).

When the United States government has not accepted the exclusive jurisdiction over the area ceded by the section, this section is not applicable and the State retains its territorial jurisdiction over the area in question so far as its exercise involves no interference with the carrying out of the federal project, and the trial, conviction and judgment imposed upon a defendant by the State court for the felony of assault with intent to commit rape committed in the ceded area is no such interference. State v. Burell, 226 N. C. 288, 123 S. E. (2d) 795 (1962), cert. denied 370 U. S. 961, 83 S. Ct. 1621, 8 L. Ed. (2d) 827 (1963).

Fixtures and improvements placed upon
§ 104-8. Further authorization of acquisition of land. — The United States is hereby authorized to acquire lands by condemnation or otherwise in this State for the purpose of preserving the navigability of navigable streams and for holding and administering such lands for national park purposes: Provided, that this section and § 104-9 shall in no wise affect the authority conferred upon the United States and reserved to the State in §§ 104-5 and 104-6. (1925, c. 152, s. 1.)

§ 104-9. Condition of consent granted in preceding section.—This consent is given upon condition that the State of North Carolina shall retain a concurrent jurisdiction with the United States in and over such lands so far that civil process in all cases, and such criminal process as may issue under the authority of the State of North Carolina against any person charged with the commission of any crime, without or within said jurisdiction, may be executed thereon in like manner as if this consent had not been given. (1925, c. 152, s. 2.)

§ 104-10. Migratory bird sanctuaries or other wild life refuges.— The United States is authorized to acquire by purchase, or by condemnation with adequate compensation, such lands in North Carolina as in the opinion of the federal government may be needed for the establishment of one or more migratory bird sanctuaries or other wild life refuges. This consent is given upon condition that the State of North Carolina shall retain a concurrent jurisdiction with the United States in and over such lands so far that civil process in all cases, and such criminal process as may issue under the authority of the State of North Carolina against any person charged with the commission of any crime without or within said jurisdiction, may be executed therein in like manner as if this consent had not been given. Power is hereby conferred upon the Congress of the United States to pass such laws as it may deem necessary to the acquisition as hereinbefore provided, for incorporation in such sanctuaries or refuges such lands lying in North Carolina as in the opinion of the federal government may be suitable and needed for this purpose. Power is hereby conferred upon Congress to pass such laws and to make or provide for the making of such rules and regulations, of both civil and criminal nature, and to provide punishment therefor, as in its judgment may be necessary for the management, control and protection of such lands as may be from time to time acquired by the United States under the provisions of this section. (1929, c. 163, s. 1.)

§ 104-11. Utilities Commission to secure rights-of-way, etc., for waterway improvements by use of federal funds. — Hereafter whenever any waterway improvement in North Carolina by the use of federal funds is provided for upon condition that the State or locality shall furnish rights-of-way, permits for the dumping of dredged material, or furnish or do any other thing in connection with the proposed waterway improvement, the Utilities Commission is authorized and empowered to represent the State or locality in such matter of securing the rights-of-way, permits for the dumping of dredged material, or other things so required in connection with such waterway improvement; and in prosecuting such undertaking, the Utilities Commission may follow the same procedure provided in article two for the acquisition of rights-of-way for the intercoastal waterway from the Cape Fear River to the South Carolina line: Provided, however, that said Utilities Commission is not hereby authorized to enter into obligation or contract for the payment of any money or § 104-11.1. Governor may accept a retrocession of jurisdiction over federal areas. — Whenever a duly authorized official or agent of the United States, acting pursuant to authority conferred by the Congress, notifies the Governor or any other State official, department or agency, that the United States desires or is willing to relinquish to the State the jurisdiction, or a portion thereof, held by the United States over the lands designated in such notice, the Governor may, in his discretion, accept such relinquishment. Such acceptance may be made by sending a notice of acceptance to the official or agent designated by the United States to receive such notice of acceptance. The Governor shall send a signed copy of the notice of acceptance, together with the notice of relinquishment received from the United States, to the Secretary of State, who shall maintain a permanent file of said notices.

Upon the sending of said notice of acceptance to the designated official or agent of the United States, the State shall immediately have such jurisdiction over the lands designated in the notice of relinquishment as said notice shall specify.

The provisions of this section shall apply to the relinquishment of jurisdiction acquired by the United States under the provisions of this chapter or any other provision of law. (1957, c. 1202.)

ARTICLE 2.

Inland Waterways.

§ 104-12. Acquisition of land for inland waterway from Cape Fear River; grant of State lands.—For the purpose of aiding in the construction of the proposed inland waterway by the United States from the Cape Fear River at Southport to the North Carolina-South Carolina State line, the Secretary of State is hereby authorized to issue to the United States of America a grant to the land located within said inland waterway, right-of-way, which is to be one thousand feet to seventeen hundred fifty feet wide in so far as such land is subject to grant by the State of North Carolina, the said grant to issue upon a certificate furnished to the Secretary of State by the Secretary of War, or by any authorized officer of the corps of engineers of the United States Army, or by any other authorized official, exercising control over the construction of the said waterway. Whenever in the construction of such inland waterway within this State, lands theretofore submerged shall be raised above the water by the deposit of excavated material, the land so formed shall become the property of the United States if within the limits of said inland waterway, right-of-way, herein set out one thousand feet to seventeen hundred fifty feet and the Secretary of State is hereby authorized to issue to the United States a grant to the land so formed within the limits above specified, the grant to issue upon a certificate furnished to the Secretary of State by some authorized official of the United States, as above provided. If said lands so required for the inland waterway right-of-way shall be marshlands, or sound lands, the title to which has heretofore been vested in the State Board of Education, the Governor of the State, as President thereof, and the Superintendent of Public Instruction as Secretary, are hereby authorized and required to execute proper conveyance to the United States of America for said marshlands or sound lands, free of cost, both to the State and to the United States government, upon a certificate furnished to said Board of Education by the Secretary of War, or by any authorized officer of the corps of engineers of the United States Army, or by any other authorized official exercising control over the construction of the said inland waterway. (1931, c. 2, s. 1.)
§ 104-13. Utilities Commission to secure right-of-way over private lands; condemnation by United States.—If the title to any part of the lands acquired by the United States government for the construction of such inland waterway from the Cape Fear River at Southport to the North Carolina-South Carolina State line shall be in any private person, company or corporation, railroad company, street railway company, telephone or telegraph company, or other public service corporation or shall have been donated or condemned for any public use by any political subdivision of the State, or if it may be necessary, for the purpose of obtaining the proper title to any lands, the title to which has heretofore been vested in the State Board of Education, then the Utilities Commission, in the name of the State of North Carolina, is hereby authorized and empowered, acting for and in behalf of the State of North Carolina, to secure a right-of-way one thousand to seventeen hundred fifty feet wide for said inland waterway across and through such lands or any part thereof, by purchase, donation or otherwise, through agreement with the owner or owners where possible, and when any such property is thus acquired, the Governor and Secretary of State shall execute a deed for the same to the United States; and if for any reason the said Commission shall be unable to secure such right-of-way across any such property by voluntary donation by and/or with the owner or owners, the said Commission acting for and in behalf of the State of North Carolina is hereby vested with the power to condemn the same, and in so doing, the ways, means, methods and procedure of the chapter of the General Statutes of North Carolina, entitled “Eminent Domain,” shall be used by it as near as the same is suitable for the purposes of this article, and in all instances, the general and special benefits to the owner thereof shall be assessed as offsets against the damages to such property or lands.

As such condemnation proceedings might result in delay in the acquiring of title to all parts of the right-of-way and in the construction of the said inland waterway by the United States, said Utilities Commission is authorized to enter any of said lands and property and take possession of the same at the time hereinafter provided as needed for this use in behalf of the State or the United States government for the purposes herein set out, prior to the bringing of the proceeding for condemnation and prior to the payment of the money for such land or property under any judgment in condemnation. In the event the owner or owners shall appeal from the report of the commissioners appointed in any condemnation proceeding hereunder, it shall not be necessary for said Commission, acting in behalf of the State of North Carolina, or the United States government, to deposit the money assessed by said commissioners with the clerk.

Whenever proceedings in condemnation are instituted in pursuance of the provisions of this section, the said Commission upon the filing of the petition or petitions in such proceedings, shall have the right to take immediate possession, on behalf of the State, of such lands or property to the extent of the interest to be acquired and the order of the clerk of the superior court of the county where the action is instituted, shall be sufficient to vest the title and possession in the State through the Utilities Commission. The Governor and Secretary of State shall, upon vesting of the title and possession, execute a deed to the United States and said lands or property may then be appropriated and used by the United States for the purposes aforesaid: Provided, that in every case the proceedings in condemnation shall be diligently prosecuted to final judgment in order that the just compensation, if any, to which the owners of the property are entitled may be ascertained and when so ascertained and determined, such compensation, if any, shall be promptly paid as hereinafter in this article provided.

If the United States government shall so determine, it is hereby authorized to condemn and use all lands and property which may be needed for the purposes herein set out and which is specifically described and set out in the paragraph next preceding, under the authority of said United States government, and ac-

§ 104-15. Method of payment of expenses and awards.—Whenever said Commission has agreed with the owner of any such land or property as to the purchase price thereof, or the damage for the construction of the inland waterway has finally been determined in any condemnation proceeding necessary to secure such land or property, the said Commission is hereby authorized and directed to pay all of said sums and other expenses incident thereto by proper warrant upon the sum which may be appropriated for said purpose, and all such sums shall constitute and remain a fixed and valid claim against the State of North Carolina until paid and satisfied in full. (1931, c. 2, s. 4.)

§ 104-16. State and United States may enter upon lands for survey, etc. — For the purpose of determining the lands necessary for the uses herein set out, the Utilities Commission or the United States government, or the agents of either, shall have the right to enter upon any lands along the general line of the right-of-way in this article specified, and make such surveys, and do such other acts as in their judgment may be necessary for the purpose of definitely locating the specific lines of said right-of-way and the lands required for said purposes, and there shall be no claim against the State of North Carolina or the United States for such acts as may be done in making said surveys. (1931, c. 2, s. 5; 1937, c. 434.)

§ 104-17. Construction, maintenance, etc., of bridges over waterway.—The State Highway Commission or the road governing body of any political subdivision of the State of North Carolina is hereby authorized and directed to construct, maintain and operate in perpetuity, all bridges over the waterway without cost to the United States. (1931, c. 2, s. 7; 1933, c. 172, s. 17.)

Editor's Note.—By virtue of G. S. 136-1.1, the words “State Highway Commission” have been substituted for “State Highway and Public Works Commission.”

§ 104-18. Concurrent jurisdiction over waterway.—The State of North Carolina retains concurrent jurisdiction with the United States over any lands ac-
§ 104-19. Acquisition of land for inland waterway from Beaufort Inlet; grant of State lands.—For the purpose of aiding in the construction of the proposed inland waterway by the United States from Beaufort Inlet in the State of North Carolina to the Cape Fear River, the Secretary of State is hereby authorized to issue to the United States of America a grant to the land located within said inland waterway, right-of-way, which is to be one thousand feet wide. In so far as such land is subject to grant by the State of North Carolina, the said grant to issue upon a certificate furnished to the Secretary of State by the Secretary of War, or by any authorized officer of the corps of engineers of the United States Army, or by any other authorized official, exercising control over the construction of the said waterway. Whenever in the construction of such inland waterway within this State, lands theretofore submerged shall be raised above the water by the deposit of excavated material, the land so formed shall become the property of the United States if within the limits of said inland waterway, right-of-way, herein set out one thousand feet, and the Secretary of State is hereby authorized to issue to the United States a grant to the land so formed within the limits above specified, the grant to issue upon a certificate furnished to the Secretary of State by some authorized official of the United States, as above provided. If said lands so required for the inland waterway right-of-way shall be marshlands, the title to which has heretofore been vested in the State Board of Education, the Governor of the State, as President thereof, and the Superintendent of Public Instruction as Secretary, are hereby authorized and required to execute a proper conveyance to the United States of America for said marshlands, free of cost, both to the State and to the United States government, upon a certificate furnished, to said Board of Education by the Secretary of War, or by any authorized officer of the corps of engineers of the United States Army, or by any other authorized official exercising control over the construction of the said inland waterway. (1927, c. 44, s. 1.)

§ 104-20. Utilities Commission to secure right-of-way; condemnation by United States.—If the title to any part of the lands required by the United States government for the construction of such inland waterway from Beaufort Inlet to the Cape Fear River shall be in any private person, company or corporation, railroad company, street railway company, telephone or telegraph company, or other public service corporation, or shall have been donated or condemned for any public use by any political subdivision of the State or if it may be necessary, for the purpose of obtaining the proper title to any lands, the title to which has heretofore been vested in the State Board of Education, the Governor and Secretary of State shall execute a deed for the same to the United States; and if for any reason the said Commission shall be unable to secure such right-of-way across any such property by voluntary agreement with the owner or owners as aforesaid, the said Commission acting for and in behalf of the State of North Carolina, is hereby vested with the power to condemn the same, and in so doing, the ways, means, methods and procedure of chapter forty of the General Statutes of North Carolina, entitled “Eminent Domain,” shall be used by it as near as the same is suitable for the purposes of this-law, and in all instances, the general and the special benefits to the owner thereof shall be assessed as offsets against the damages to such property or lands.

As such condemnation proceedings might result in delay in the acquiring of title to all parts of the right-of-way and in the construction of the said inland waterway by the United States, said Utilities Commission is authorized to enter any of said lands and property and take possession of the same at the time hereinafter provided as needed for this use in behalf of the State or the United States government for the purposes herein set out prior to the bringing of the proceeding for condemnation and prior to the payment of the money for such land or property under any judgment in condemnation. In the event the owner or owners shall appeal from the report of the commissioners appointed in the condemnation proceeding it shall not be necessary for said Commission acting in behalf of the State of North Carolina, the State of North Carolina, or the United States government, to deposit the money assessed by said commissioners with the clerk.

Whenever proceedings in condemnation are instituted in pursuance of the provisions of this section, the said Commission upon the filing of the petition or petitions in such proceedings, shall have the right to take immediate possession on behalf of the State of such lands or property to the extent of the interest to be acquired and the Governor and Secretary of State shall thereupon execute a deed to the United States and said lands or property may then be appropriated and used by the United States for the purposes aforesaid. Provided, that in every case the proceedings in condemnation shall be diligently prosecuted to final judgment in order that the just compensation to which the owners of the property are entitled may be ascertained and when so ascertained and determined such compensation shall be promptly paid as hereinafter in this law provided.

It the United States government shall so determine, it is hereby authorized to condemn and use all lands and property which may be needed for the purposes herein set out and which is specifically described and set out in the preceding paragraphs, under the authority of said United States government, and according to the provisions existing in the federal statutes for condemning lands and property for the use of the United States government. In case the United States government shall so condemn said land and property, the said Utilities Commission is hereby authorized to pay all expenses of the condemnation proceedings and any award that may be made thereunder, out of the money which may be appropriated for said purposes. (1927, c. 44, s. 2; 1929, c. 4; c. 7, s. 1; 1937, c. 454.)

§ 104-22. Method of payment of expenses and awards. — Whenever said Commission has agreed with the owner of any such land or property as to the purchase price thereof, or the damage for the construction of the inland waterway has finally been determined in any condemnation proceeding necessary to secure such land or property, the said Commission is hereby authorized and directed to pay all of said sum and other expenses incident thereto by proper warrant upon the sum which may be appropriated for said purpose, and all such sums shall constitute and remain a fixed and valid claim against the State of North Carolina until paid and satisfied in full. (1927, c. 44, s. 4.)
The State Highway Commission or the road governing body of any political subdivision of the State of North Carolina is hereby authorized and directed to take over and maintain and operate in perpetuity, by contract with the United States government, if necessary, or otherwise, any bridge or bridges which may be subject to their respective control and which the United States government may construct across said inland waterway. (1927, c. 44, s. 6; 1929, c. 4; c. 7, s. 2.)

Editor's Note.—By virtue of G. S. 136-
1.1, the words “State Highway Commission” have been substituted for “State Highway and Public Works Commission.”

§ 104-24. Concurrent jurisdiction over waterway.—The State of North Carolina retains concurrent jurisdiction with the United States over any lands acquired and held in pursuance of the provisions of this chapter, so far as that all civil and criminal process issued under authority of any law of this State may be executed in any part of the premises so acquired for such inland waterway, or for the buildings or constructions thereon erected for the purposes of such inland waterway. (1927, c. 44, s. 7.)

§ 104-25. Lands conveyed to United States for inland waterway.—
For the purpose of aiding in the construction of a proposed inland waterway by the United States from the city of Norfolk, in the State of Virginia, to Beaufort Inlet, in the State of North Carolina, the Secretary of State is hereby authorized to issue to the United States of America a grant to the land located within a distance of one thousand feet on either side of the center of the said inland waterway, in so far as such land is subject to grant by the State of North Carolina, the said grant to issue upon a certificate furnished to the Secretary of State by the Secretary of War, or by any authorized officer of the corps of engineers of the United States Army, or by any other authorized official, exercising control of the construction of the said waterway.

Wherever, in the construction of the said inland waterway, lands theretofore submerged shall be raised above the water by deposit of excavated material, the lands so formed shall become the property of the United States for a distance of one thousand feet on either side of the center of such canal or channel, and the Secretary of State is hereby authorized to issue to the United States a grant to the land so formed within the distance above mentioned, the grant to issue upon a certificate furnished to the Secretary of State by some authorized official of the United States as above provided. (1913, c. 197; C. S., s. 7583; 1937, c. 445.)

Degrees of Kinship.

Sec.
104A-1. Degrees of kinship; how computed.

(1) The degree of lineal kinship of two persons is computed by counting one degree for each person in the line of ascent or descent, exclusive of the person from whom the computing begins; and

(2) The degree of collateral kinship of two persons is computed by commencing with one of the persons and ascending from him to a common ancestor, descending from that ancestor to the other person, and counting one degree for each person in the line of ascent and in the line of descent, exclusive of the person from whom the computation begins, the total to represent the degree of such kinship. (1951, c. 315; 1953, c. 1077, s. 2.)

Editor's Note. — The 1953 amendment struck out “and the method is not otherwise provided by statute” formerly appearing after “computed” the first time the word appears in the first sentence.

Chapter 104B.
Hurricanes or Other Acts of Nature.

Article 1.
In General.

§ 104B-1. Removal of property deposited by hurricane or other act of nature.—Whenever the house, garage, building, or any part thereof, or other property of a person, firm or corporation shall be deposited on the land of another by any hurricane, tornado, tidal wave, flood or other act of nature and is not removed from said land within 30 days after the deposit, the owner of such land may notify in writing the owner of the house, garage, building, or other property of such deposit and may require the owner to remove the property so deposited within 60 days after receipt of the notice. If the owner of the deposited property fails to remove it within 60 days after receipt of the notice, the owner of the land may remove the deposited property and destroy it or may use it as he sees fit without incurring liability to the owner of the deposited property, or may sell it and retain the proceeds for his own use; provided, the amount by which the proceeds of any such sale exceed the cost of removal and sale shall be paid to the owner of the deposited property or held for his account.

If the owner of the land is unable to notify the owner of the deposited property and, after diligent search, the owner of the deposited property cannot be located and notified, the owner of the land may, at any time after the expiration of one hundred and twenty (120) days from the date of the deposit of the property on his land, remove, use, or sell the deposited property in the same manner and under the same restrictions as provided above for removal, use, or sale after notice.

Sales made under this section may be either public or private sales. (1955, c. 643.)

Zoning of Potential Flood Areas.

§ 104B-2. Governing body of county or municipality may establish zones.—The governing body of any county or municipality within North Carolina shall have the power and authority to establish districts or zones in those areas deemed subject to seasonal or periodic flooding, or other natural disasters and such regulations may be applied therein as will minimize danger to life and property and as will secure to the citizens of the area affected eligibility for flood insurance under Public Law 1016, 84th Congress, known as the “Federal Flood Insurance Act of 1956” or subsequently related laws or regulations promulgated thereunder. The governing body of each county or municipality shall have an...
§ 104B-3. Damaging or removing without permit.—It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to damage, destroy, or remove any sand dune, or part thereof, lying along the outer banks of this State or to destroy or remove any trees, shrubbery, grass or other vegetation growing on said dunes unless such person, firm or corporation shall have first obtained a permit authorizing such proposed destruction or removal. (1957, c. 995, s. 1.)

§ 104B-4. Permits granted by municipal or county governing body.—Permits may be granted, in accordance with § 104B-5, by the municipal governing body if the permit requested relates to a dune or dunes located within the corporate limits of a city or town, or by the county governing body if the permit requested relates to a dune or dunes located within the county and lying outside the corporate limits of any city or town. (1957, c. 995, s. 2.)

§ 104B-6. “Outer banks of this State” defined.—As used in this article, the term “outer banks of this State” shall be construed to mean all of that part of North Carolina which is separated from the mainland by a body of water, such as an inlet or sound, and which is in part bounded by the Atlantic Ocean, and in New Hanover, Onslow and Brunswick counties this shall include the land areas lying between the Inter-Coastal Waterway and the Atlantic Ocean. (1957, c. 995, s. 4.)

§ 104B-7. Penalty.—Any person, firm or corporation violating the provisions of this article shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction, shall be fined not more than fifty dollars ($50.00) or imprisoned not more than thirty (30) days. (1957, c. 995, s. 5.)
Chapter 104C.

Atomic Energy, Radioactivity and Ionizing Radiation.

1. To adapt its laws and regulations to meet the new and changing conditions in ways that will encourage and support a prudent program of information and research relative to atomic development for non-military purposes in the fields of education, science, agriculture, industry, public utilities, transportation, medicine, public health, and all other fields of endeavor which may aid in or be benefited by atomic development and atomic science and engineering, while at the same time protecting the public interests;

2. To assure continuing studies of the need for changes in the relevant laws and regulations with respect thereto;

3. To assure co-ordination of studies undertaken particularly with other atomic development activities within the State and with the development and proper regulatory activities of other states and of the government of the United States;

4. To provide for safety in the use of any and all machines, devices or materials that emit radiation, including those used for medical and industrial purposes, and to provide necessary regulation of the use of such machines, devices and materials; and

5. To do all things necessary and desirable in order to promote sound and healthy programs of progressive use of atomic energy in North Carolina. (1959, c. 481, s. 1.)

§ 104C-3. Atomic Energy Advisory Committee; membership; chairman; subcommittees; meetings; powers and duties generally; reports from State departments; additional personnel.—The Governor is authorized and empowered to appoint a committee to be known as the Atomic Energy Advisory Committee, hereinafter referred to as “the Committee.” The Committee shall consist of thirty-five (35) members. The Commissioner of Agriculture, the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, and the State Health Director shall ex officio be members of said Committee. Thirty-two (32) members shall be appointed by the Governor whose terms shall commence on or as of July 1, 1959. Ten (10) members shall be appointed for terms of two (2) years, eleven (11) for terms of four (4) years, and eleven (11) for terms of six (6) years. Thereafter, appointments to the Committee shall be for terms of six (6) years except that any vacancy arising from any cause other than expiration of a term shall be filled by the Governor by appointment for the remainder of the unexpired term. The chairman shall be designated by the Governor.

The chairman is authorized to appoint from the membership of the Committee six (6) or more subcommittees which shall include subcommittees on

1. Agriculture,
2. Education and research,
3. Industry and labor,
4. Medicine and public health,
5. Power, and

In making appointments to the Committee the Governor shall give consideration to the qualifications desirable in connection with the functioning of the subcommittees; he shall appoint persons having specialized knowledge in the different fields of activity; he shall include in his appointments at least one radiologist, one nuclear physicist, one radiation physicist, one public health physician, one dentist and one sanitary engineer who shall serve as members of the subcommittee on radiation standards; successor appointments shall be so made that there shall at all times be at least one radiologist, one nuclear physicist, one radiation physicist, one public health physician, one dentist and one sanitary engineer serving as members of the Committee.

The Committee shall meet at the call of the Governor or the chairman and at such other times as the Committee may determine. The members of the Committee shall receive the same per diem and travel and subsistence allowance as is generally allowed for members of State commissions when engaged in attendance at meetings of the Committee or any subcommittee thereof; provided, that no per diem shall be paid any salaried State official or employee.

The Committee shall evaluate studies, recommendations, and proposals of the several departments and agencies and shall act as an advisory and co-ordinating group in the development and regulatory activities of the State relating to atomic energy, including cooperation with other states and with the government of the United States. The Committee shall advise with the Governor for the purpose of keeping him informed as to private and public activities affecting atomic developments.

So far as may be practicable, the Committee shall co-ordinate studies, recommendations and proposals with like activities in other states and in the South as a region, and with the policies and regulations of the United States Atomic Energy Commission.

The Governor is authorized and empowered to require reports from any and all State departments, agencies and institutions with respect to any aspect of the subject matter of this chapter and, in the exercise of his powers and duties under this chapter he may employ such additional personnel, if any, as he deems necessary. (1959, c. 481, s. 3.)

§ 104C-4. Authority and duty of State Board of Health; rules and regulations; licenses; impounding source of radiation; registration, educational and protection programs; right of entry; inspection and advisory service.—The State Board of Health is specifically authorized to adopt reasonable rules and regulations relating to the use, storage, transportation and disposal of radiation, radiation machines, and radioactive materials so as to provide protection against hazard from radioactivity and ionizing radiation, and so as to insure safety to all persons at, or in the vicinity of, the place of use, storage, transportation or disposal thereof. To this end, the State Board of Health is authorized to require registration of all persons, firms, corporations, associations or institutions who possess or use such machines or materials, such registration program to be of such scope and in such form as the Board deems necessary to provide an adequate protection and supervision program.
As used in this chapter, the word "person" means any individual, corporation, partnership, firm, association, trust, estate, public or private institution, group, agency, political subdivision or agency thereof, and any legal successor, representative, agent, or agency of the foregoing, other than the United States Atomic Energy Commission, or any successor thereto, and other than federal government agencies licensed by the United States Atomic Energy Commission, or any successor thereto.

The State Board of Health shall provide by rule or regulation for general or specific licensing of by-product, source, special nuclear materials, or devices or equipment utilizing such materials. Such rule or regulation shall provide for amendment, suspension or revocation of licenses.

Said State Board is authorized to adopt reasonable rules and regulations necessary to carry out an effective licensing program designed to protect the public health or safety in this field. Provision shall be made for applications for licenses, conditions for issuance of licenses, and suspension and revocation of licenses. Said State Board is authorized to exempt certain source of ionizing radiation or kinds of uses or users from the licensing or registration requirements set forth in this section when the said State Board makes a finding that the exemption of such sources of ionizing radiation or kinds of uses or users will not constitute a significant risk to the health and safety of the public. Rules and regulations promulgated pursuant to this chapter may provide for recognition of other state or federal licenses as the said State Board may deem desirable, subject to such registration requirements as the said State Board may prescribe.

The State Board shall have authority to impose a right to inspect premises as a condition of issuance of a license. Neither local boards of health nor counties nor cities shall adopt regulations inconsistent with those adopted by the State Board of Health pursuant to this chapter.

Authorized representatives of the State Board of Health shall have the authority in the event of an emergency to impound or order the impounding of sources of ionizing radiation, in the possession of any person who is not equipped to observe or fails to observe the provisions of this chapter or any rules or regulations issued thereunder.

Insofar as practicable, all the provisions of chapter 150 of the General Statutes shall be applicable with respect to licenses and the licensing procedure herein provided for.

Authorized representatives of the State Board of Health shall have authority to enter any premises, other than a private dwelling, where any activities or conditions therein or thereon are the subject of regulations adopted pursuant to this section, for the purpose of determining whether applicable laws and regulations are being properly observed.

The Board is authorized but not required to provide an inspection service and an advisory service, to make surveys, to sponsor educational programs on approved radiation protection practices, and to do any and all other acts deemed desirable in providing an effective protection program. In the performance of these duties, to the end that an environment favorable to the development of the peaceful uses of nuclear energy will be maintained, consistent with public health and safety, the State Board of Health shall not impose standards any more restrictive than the radiation standards established by the Atomic Energy Act of 1954 and amendments, or successor acts, and regulations issued thereunder; in those situations where no such standards are imposed under said Atomic Energy Act, said Board shall be authorized to impose reasonable standards.

No rules or regulations shall be adopted by the State Board of Health pursuant to this section except with the approval of the Governor.

Recognizing the rapid pace of discovery in the atomic field, the State Board of Health shall keep itself informed regarding the regulatory activities of other states and of the government of the United States and shall endeavor to maintain maximum co-ordination pending the establishment from time to time of clear lines of regulatory authority between the State and the federal governments. All regulations adopted shall be subject to the provisions of G. S. 130-9 (a) and the provisions of article 18 of chapter 143 of the General Statutes. Any violation of any rule or regulation adopted pursuant to this section is hereby declared to be a misdemeanor.

Whenever the State Board of Health has reasonable cause to believe that any person, firm, corporation, association or institution is violating or threatening to violate any regulation adopted pursuant to this section, the Board may enter an order requiring such violator to desist or refrain from such violation; and an action may be brought in the name of the Board on the relation of the State of North Carolina to enjoin such violator from engaging in or continuing such violation or from doing any act or acts in furtherance thereof. In any such action an order or judgment may be entered awarding such preliminary or final injunction as may be deemed proper. (1959, c. 481, s. 4; 1963, c. 1211, s. 1.)

Cross Reference.—As to exemption of X-ray facilities in licensed hospitals from the provisions of this chapter, see § 131-126.3.

(b) Any person who, on the effective date of an agreement under subsection (a) above, possesses a license issued by the federal government shall be deemed to possess the same pursuant to a license issued under this chapter, which shall expire ninety (90) days after receipt from the State Board of Health, of a notice of expiration of such license, or on the date of expiration specified in the federal license, whichever is earlier. (1963, c. 1211, s. 2.)

Sec. 105-1. Title and purpose of subchapter.—The title of this subchapter shall be "The Revenue Act." The purpose of this subchapter shall be to raise and provide revenue for the necessary uses and purposes of the government and State of North Carolina during the next biennium and each biennium thereafter, and the provisions of this subchapter shall be and remain in full force and effect until changed by law. (1939, c. 158, ss. A, B; 1941, c. 50, s. 1.)

Editor's Note.—The 1941 amendment added the clause relating to remaining in force until changed by law.

For article discussing this subchapter see 15 N. C. Law Rev. 387.

Taxing Power of General Assembly.—The General Assembly has an unlimited right to tax all persons domiciled within the State, and all property within the State, except so far as this right has been limited by the provisions of the Constitution, either expressly or by necessary implication. Pullen v. Commissioners, 66 N. C. 361 (1872).

Same; Delegation of Power.—The legislature may authorize a municipal corporation to lay taxes on the town property, the persons, and the subject of taxation incident to the persons, of those who have a business residence in town, though they have a residence also out of town. Worth v. Commissioners, 60 N. C. 617 (1864).

Constitutional Provisions; Uniformity Required.—Under North Carolina Const., Art. V, § 3, the same rule of uniformity applies to the taxing of "trades, professions, franchises and incomes" as to the other species of property therein named; and there must also be uniformity in the mode of assessment. Worth v. Petersburg R. Co., 89 N. C. 301 (1883). Uniformity, in its legal and proper sense, is inseparably incident to the power of taxation, whether applied to taxes on property or to those imposed on trades, professions, etc. State v. Moore, 113 N. C. 697, 18 S. E. 342 (1893).

Same; Statement of Object.—The North Carolina Const. Art. V, § 7, requires that every act levying taxes shall state the objects to which they shall be appropriated. This provision, however, has no application to taxes levied by county authorities for county purposes. Parker v. Commissioners, 104 N. C. 166, 10 S. E. 137 (1889).

Schedule A. Inheritance Tax.

§ 105-2. General provisions.—A tax shall be and is hereby imposed upon the transfer of any property, real or personal, or of any interest therein or income therefrom, in trust or otherwise, to persons or corporations, in the following cases:

(1) When the transfer is by will or by the intestate laws of this State from any person dying, seized or possessed of the property while a resident of the State.
(2) When the transfer is by will or intestate laws of this or any other state of real property or goods, wares, and merchandise within this State, or of any property, real, personal, or mixed, tangible or intangible, over which the State of North Carolina has a taxing jurisdiction, including State and municipal bonds, and the decedent was a resident of the State at the time of death; when the transfer is of real property or tangible personal property within the State, or intangible personal property that has acquired a situs in this State, and the decedent was a nonresident of the State at the time of death,

(3) When the transfer of property made by a resident, or nonresident, is of real property within this State, or of goods, wares and merchandise within this State, or of any other property, real, personal, or mixed, tangible or intangible, over which the State of North Carolina has taxing jurisdiction, including State and municipal bonds, by deed, grant, bargain, sale, or gift made in contemplation of the death of the grantor, vendor, or donor, or intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment at or after such death, including a transfer under which the transferor has retained for his life or any period not ending before his death (i) the possession or enjoyment of, or the income from, the property or (ii) the right to designate the persons who shall possess or enjoy the property or the income therefrom. Every transfer by deed, grant, bargain, sale, or gift, made within three years prior to the death of the grantor, vendor, or donor, exceeding three per cent (3%) of his or her estate, or in the nature of a final disposition or distribution thereof, and without an adequate valuable consideration, shall, in the absence of proof to the contrary, be deemed to have been made in contemplation of death within the meaning of this section.

(4) When any person or corporation comes into possession or enjoyment, by a transfer from a resident, or from a nonresident decedent when such nonresident decedent's property consists of real property within this State or tangible personal property within the State, or intangible personal property that has acquired a situs in this State, of an estate in expectancy of any kind or character which is contingent or defeasible, transferred by any instrument taking effect after March 24, 1939.

(5) For purposes of this article, the term “general power of appointment” means a power which is exercisable in favor of the decedent, his estate, his creditors or the creditors of his estate; except that a power to consume, invade or appropriate property for the benefit of the decedent which is limited by an ascertainable standard relating to the health, education, support, or maintenance of the decedent shall not be deemed a general power of appointment. Whenever any person shall have a general power of appointment with respect to any interest in property, such person shall for the purposes of this article be deemed the owner of such interest, and accordingly:

a. If in connection with any transfer of property taxable under this article the transferor shall give to any person a general power of appointment with respect to any interest in such property, the transferor shall be deemed to have given such interest in such property to such person.

b. If any person holding a general power of appointment with respect to any interest in property shall exercise such power in favor of any other person or persons, either by will or by an appointment made in contemplation of the death of such person, or by an appointment intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment at or after such death, he shall be deemed to have made a transfer of such interest to such person or persons.

C. If any person holding a general power of appointment with respect to any interest in property shall relinquish such power by any action taken in contemplation of death or intended to take effect at or after his death, or shall die without fully exercising such power, he shall be deemed, to the extent of such relinquishment or nonexercise, to have made a transfer of such interest to the person or persons who shall benefit thereby.

(6) Neither the exercise nor the relinquishment of a special power of appointment (which shall mean any power other than a general power) with respect to an interest in property shall be deemed to constitute a transfer of such interest within the meaning of this article. If in connection with any transfer taxable under this article the transferor shall give to any person a special power of appointment with respect to any interest in property, he shall be deemed, for the purpose of computing the tax applicable thereto, to have given such interest in equal shares to those persons, not more than two (2), among the possible appointees and takers in default of appointment whom the transferor's executor or administrator may designate as transferees in the inheritance tax return, except that:

a. If a gift tax return is filed with respect to such transfer, the persons designated therein shall also be designated in the inheritance tax return, and

b. The tax shall be computed according to the relationship of the donee of the power to the persons designated if the possible appointees and takers in default of appointment include any persons more closely related to the donee of the power than to the donor, and if such computation would produce a higher tax.

(7) Where real property is held by husband and wife as tenants by the entirety, the surviving tenant shall be taxable on one-half of the value of such property.

(8) Where the proceeds of life insurance policies are payable as provided in § 105-13.

(9) Whenever any person or corporation comes into possession or enjoyment of any personal property, including bonds of the United States and bonds of a state or subdivision or agency thereof, at or after the death of an individual and by reason of said individual's having entered into a contract or other arrangement with the United States, a state or any person or corporation to pay, transfer or deliver said personal property, including bonds of the United States and bonds of a state, to the person or corporation receiving the same, whether said person or corporation is named in the contract or other arrangement or not: Provided, that no tax shall be due or collected on that portion of the personal property received under the conditions outlined herein which the person or corporation receiving the same purchased or otherwise acquired by funds or property of the person or corporation receiving the same, or had acquired by a completed inter vivos gift.

Nothing in subdivision (9) shall apply to the proceeds of life insurance policies.

However, nothing in this article shall be construed as imposing a tax upon any transfer of intangibles not having a commercial or business situs in this State, by a person, or by reason of the death of a person, who was not a resident of this State at the time of his death, and, if held or transferred in trust, such intangibles shall not be deemed to have a commercial or business situs in this State merely because the trustee is a resident or, if a corporation, is doing business in this State, unless the same be employed in or held or used in connection with some business carried on in whole or in part in this State. (1939, c. 158, s. 1; 1941, c. 50, s. 2; 1943, c. 400, s. 1; 1951, c. 643, s. 1; 1963, c. 941, ss. 1-3.)

Editors' Note. — The 1941 amendment made changes in subdivisions (1) and (2) and added the last paragraph to the section. The 1943 amendment inserted subdivision (8).

The 1951 amendment substituted “tangible” for “intangible” following “real property or” in the last clause of subdivision (2) and inserted subdivision (9).

The 1963 amendment, effective July 1, 1963, deleted “or of any property transferred pursuant to a power of appointment contained in any instrument” formerly appearing at the end of subdivision (4) It also rewrote subdivisions (5) and (6).

Many of the cases in the notes to this and the following sections are constructions of the corresponding provisions (§ 7772 et seq.) of the Consolidated Statutes and of subsequent revenue laws.

For note on effect of North Carolina inheritance tax on will compromise agreement, see 36 N. C. Law Rev. 236.

Liberal Construction. — A liberal construction will be given to inheritance tax statutes to the end that all property fairly and reasonably coming within their provisions may be taxed. State v. Scales, 172 N. C. 915, 90 S. E. 439 (1916). See also, Norris v. Durfey, 168 N. C. 321, 84 S. E. 687 (1915); Reynolds v. Reynolds, 208 N. C. 578, 182 S. E. 341 (1935); Watkins v. Shaw, 234 N. C. 96, 65 S. E. (2d) 881 (1951).

Under this liberal construction in favor of the government, every transfer of property that could be reasonably brought within the purview of the law has been subjected to taxation. Norris v. Durfey, 168 N. C. 321, 84 S. E. 687 (1915).

Whole Revenue Act Construed in Pari Materia. — The whole Revenue Act of 1939 and all of its parts are to be considered in pari materia, and construed accordingly. Valentine v. Gill, 223 N. C. 396, 27 S. E. (2d) 2 (1943).

Basis of Inheritance Tax. — The theory on which taxation on the devolution of estates is based and its legality upheld is clearly established and is founded upon two principles: (1) A succession tax is a tax on the right of succession to property, and not on the property itself. (2) The right to take property by devise or descent is not one of the natural rights of man, but is the creature of the law. In re Morris Estate, 138 N. C. 259, 50 S. E. 682 (1905). See Waddell v. Doughton, 194 N. C. 537, 140 S. E. 160 (1927).

The Revenue Act reflects the same philosophy which underlies the statutes of descent and distribution. It recognizes in the decedent the privilege of disposition of his property; and, if not the moral and social obligations which rest upon him with respect to its exercise, yet, indeed, the fitness of his provision for those more closely related to him by consanguinity or marital ties. This privilege may be exercised either by testamentary disposition or by leaving his property to be distributed under the law. Valentine v. Gill, 223 N. C. 396, 27 S. E. (2d) 2 (1943).

Situs for Taxation. — The personal property of a decedent, whatever its character and wherever located, is subject to an inheritance tax in the state in which its owner was a resident at the time of his death. This position is upheld upon the principle that the situs of personal property, for the purpose of taxation, is said to be in the state where the owner resides and has his domicile. Rhode Island Hospital Trust Co. v. Doughton, 187 N. C. 263, 121 S. E. 741 (1924), reversed on other grounds in 270 U. S. 69, 46 S. Ct. 256, 70 L. Ed. 475, 43 A. L. R. 1374 (1926).

Thus, if the testator or intestate had his domicile abroad and his personal estate also, no tax would be demanded of the legatee or next of kin, though they might be resident in the State. State v. Brim, 57 N. C. 300 (1858). After the legacy or distributive share has been received, it then becomes a part of the property of one of the citizens of the State, and then it may be taxed in common with any other property of the like kind. Rhode Island Hospital Trust Co. v. Doughton, 187 N. C. 263, 121 S. E. 741 (1924), reversed on other grounds in 270 U. S. 69, 46 S. Ct. 256, 70 L. Ed. 475, 43 A. L. R. 1374 (1926).

Same; Former Law Invalid in Part. — Under the provisions of the prior law an inheritance or transfer tax was imposed upon the right of nonresident legatees or § 105-3. Property exempt.—The following property shall be exempt from taxation under this article:

(1) Property passing to or for the use of the State of North Carolina, or to or for the use of municipal corporations within the State or other political subdivisions thereof, for exclusively public purposes.

(2) Property passing to religious, charitable, or educational corporations, or to churches, hospitals, orphan asylums, public libraries, religious, benevolent, or charitable organizations, or passing to any trustee or trustees for religious, benevolent, or charitable purposes, where such religious, charitable, or educational institutions, corporations, churches, trusts, etc., are located within the State and not conducted for profit.

(3) Property passing to religious, educational, or charitable corporations, foundations or trusts, not conducted for profit, incorporated or created or administered under the laws of any other state: If such other state levies no inheritance or estate taxes on property similarly passing from residents of such state to religious, educational or charitable corporations, foundations or trusts incorporated or created or administered or by intestate laws within the meaning of this statute. State v. Dunn, 174 N. C. 679, 94 S. E. 481 (1917).

Interest Subject to Appointment of Third Person.—The corresponding section of the prior law included and laid a tax upon an interest made subject by will to the appointment of a third person. In re Inheritance Tax, 172 N. C. 170, 90 S. E. 203 (1916).

Death of Beneficiary of Testamentary Trust.—Under the provisions of a will, the entire beneficial interest in the estate vested in testator’s three sons upon testator’s death with the right of full enjoyment postponed until the termination of the trust. One of the sons died during minority, prior to the termination of the trust, leaving his two brothers as his sole heirs at law. It was held that the surviving brothers took the deceased brother’s interest under the laws of descent and distribution, and the estate so inherited was subject to the appropriate State and federal inheritance taxes and was encumbered by the lien for such taxes. Coddington v. Stone, 217 N. C. 714, 9 S. E. (2d) 420 (1940).

Settlement of Taxes by Compromise.—The settlement of taxes by compromise, in a court of competent jurisdiction, in view of the bona fide controversies between the parties, and the facts and circumstances of the case, was affirmed on appeal, the matter being a legitimate subject of compromise and all parties affected being duly represented. Reynolds v. Reynolds, 208 N. C. 578, 188 S. E. 341 (1935).

under the laws of this State; or if such corporation, foundation or trust is one receiving and disbursing funds donated in this State for religious, educational or charitable purposes.

(4) The amount of twenty thousand dollars ($20,000.00), only, of the total proceeds of life insurance policies, when such policy or policies are payable to a beneficiary or beneficiaries named in such policy or policies, and such beneficiary or beneficiaries are any such person or persons as are designated in § 105-4, subsection (a); and the amount of two thousand dollars ($2,000.00) only, of the total proceeds of life insurance policies, when such policy or policies are payable to a beneficiary or beneficiaries named in such policy or policies, and such beneficiary or beneficiaries are any person or persons as are designated in §§ 105-5 and 105-6. Provided, that no more than the amounts so specified of any such policy or policies shall be exempt from taxation, whether in favor of one beneficiary or more, and the exemption thus provided shall be prorated between the beneficiaries in proportion to the amounts received under the policies, unless otherwise provided by the decedent; provided further, that the exemption herein provided in the sum of two thousand dollars ($2,000.00) as to insurance policies payable to beneficiaries designated in §§ 105-5 and 105-6 shall be allowed only to the extent that such amount is not allowed as to insurance policies payable to beneficiaries designated in § 105-4, subsection (a), it being the intention to grant an exemption as to policies payable to Class B and Class C beneficiaries only in those cases where the exemption allowed as to Class A beneficiaries is less than two thousand dollars ($2,000.00). And also proceeds of all life insurance policies payable to beneficiaries named in subdivisions (1), (2) and (3) of this section. And also proceeds of all policies of insurance and the proceeds of all adjusted service certificates that have been or may be paid by the United States government, or that have been or may be paid on account of policies required to be carried by the United States government or any agency thereof, to the estate, beneficiary, or beneficiaries of any person who has served in the armed forces of the United States or in the merchant marine during the first or second World War or any subsequent military engagement; and proceeds, not exceeding the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00), of all policies of insurance paid to the estate, beneficiary or beneficiaries of any person whose death was caused by enemy action during the second World War or any subsequent military engagement involving the United States. This provision will be operative only when satisfactory proof that the death was caused by enemy action is filed by the executor, administrator or beneficiary with the Commissioner of Revenue.

(5) The value of an annuity or other payment receivable by any beneficiary (other than the executor) under (a) an employees' trust (or under a contract or insurance policy purchased by an employees' trust) forming part of a pension, stock bonus, or profit-sharing plan, which at the time of the decedent's separation from employment (whether by death or otherwise), or at the time of termination of the plan if earlier, met the requirements of § 401 (a) of the United States Internal Revenue Code; or (b) a retirement annuity contract purchased by an employer (and not by an employees' trust) pursuant to a plan, which at the time of decedent's separation from employment (by death or otherwise), or at the time of termination of the plan if earlier, met the requirements of paragraph 3 of § 401 (a) of such Code. If such amounts payable after the death of the decedent under a plan described in clause (a) or (b) are attributable to any extent to payments or contributions made by the decedent, no exemption shall be allowed for that part of the value of such amounts in the proportion that the total payments or contributions made by the decedent bears to the total payments or contributions made. For purposes of the preceding sentence contributions or payments made by the decedent's employer or former employer under a trust or plan described in clause (a) or (b) shall not be considered to be contributed by the decedent. Provided, that the value of such annuities or other payments receivable described in this subdivision shall not be exempt unless the payments received therefrom are or will be subject to income taxation under article 4 of this subchapter, and if such payments are not or will not be subject to income taxation under article 4 of this subchapter the value of such annuities or other payments receivable shall be included in the gross value of the estate of the decedent and taxable under the provisions of this article.

Editor's Note. — The 1943 amendment added the last sentence, and rewrote the next to the last sentence, of subdivision (4). And the 1947 amendment rewrote the other parts of the subdivision.

The 1951 amendment rewrote the next to last sentence of subdivision (4).

The 1959 amendment added subdivision (5), and provided that it should be in full force and effect with respect to the estates of decedents dying on and after July 1, 1959.

For comment on exemption of property passing to foreign eleemosynary organizations, see 17 N. C. Law Rev. 381.

Exemptions Are Strictly Construed. — Exemptions of property from taxation are to be strictly construed. Benson v. Johnston County, 209 N. C. 751, 185 S. E. 6 (1936).

Municipal property is liable for county taxes where it is not used by the municipality for a governmental purpose, and therefore does not come within the constitutional provision for the exemption of property from taxation (N. C. Const. Art. V, § 5), or within the scope of this section enacted pursuant thereto. Benson v. Johnston County, 209 N. C. 751, 185 S. E. 6 (1936).

Municipal Property Held for Business Purposes. — Property was held subject to taxation by the county in which the property is situate, although owned by a municipal corporation, where the property was held by the municipal corporation purely for business purposes and not for any governmental or necessary public purpose. Board of Financial Control v. Henderson County, 208 N. C. 569, 181 S. E. 636, 101 A. L. R. 783 (1935).

§ 105-4. Rate of tax—Class A. — (a) Where the person or persons entitled to any beneficial interest in such property shall be the lineal issue, or lineal ancestor, or husband or wife of the person who died possessed of such property aforesaid, or stepchild of the person who died possessed of such property aforesaid, or child adopted by the decedent in conformity with the laws of this State or of any of the United States, or of any foreign kingdom or nation, at the following rates of tax (for each one hundred dollars ($100.00) or fraction thereof) of the value of such interest:

| Over $ 10,000 and to $ 25,000 | 2 per cent |
| Over $ 25,000 and to $ 50,000 | 3 per cent |
| Over $ 50,000 and to $ 100,000 | 4 per cent |
| Over $ 100,000 and to $ 200,000 | 5 per cent |
| Over $ 200,000 and to $ 500,000 | 6 per cent |
| Over $ 500,000 and to $1,000,000 | 7 per cent |
| Over $1,000,000 and to $1,500,000 | 8 per cent |
| Over $1,500,000 and to $2,000,000 | 9 per cent |
| Over $2,000,000 and to $2,500,000 | 10 per cent |
| Over $2,500,000 and to $3,000,000 | 11 per cent |
| Over $3,000,000 | 12 per cent |

(b) The persons mentioned in this class shall be entitled to the following exemptions: Widows, ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00); each child under twenty-one years of age, five thousand dollars ($5,000.00); all other beneficiaries mentioned in this section, two thousand dollars ($2,000.00) each; Provided, a grandchild or grandchildren shall be allowed the single exemption or pro rata part of the exemption of the parent, when the parent of any one grandchild or group of grandchildren is deceased or when the parent is living and does not share in the estate: Provided, that any part of the exemption not applied to the share of the parent may be applied to the share of a grandchild or group of grandchildren of such parent. The same rule shall apply to the taking under a will, and also in case of a specific legacy or devise: Provided, that when any person shall die leaving a widow and child or children under twenty-one years of age, and leaving all or substantially all of his property by will to his wife, the wife shall be allowed at her option an additional exemption of five thousand dollars ($5,000.00) for each child under twenty-one years of age; provided further, that whenever the wife elects to claim such additional exemption, the child or children shall not be allowed the exemption of five thousand dollars ($5,000.00) for each child under twenty-one years of age hereinabove provided for. (1939, c. 158, s. 3; 1957, c. 1340, s. 1.)

Cross Reference.—As to kinds of property contemplated by this section, see § 105-2.

Editor's Note. — The 1957 amendment deleted the former proviso at the end of subsection (b) and inserted the present two provisos in lieu thereof.

Real property, as well as personal, is included in this section. Norris v. Durfey, 168 N. C. 321, 84 S. E. 687 (1915).

Interest under Discretionary Control of Another Taxable.—The interest acquired by the child of testator is taxable and does not escape by reason of the fact that the testator placed it under the discretionary control and disposition of its mother. In re Inheritance Tax, 172 N. C. 170, 90 S. E. 203 (1916).

Categories of Relationship Named Are Inclusive and Exclusive.—The categories of relationship named in this and the following section are stated with that precision which is necessary to a taxing measure, and are both inclusive and exclusive, and are controlling in applying the exemption in § 105-14. Valentine v. Gill, 223 N. C. 396, 27 S. E. (2d) 2 (1943).

Exemption in § 105-14.—The inheritance tax of the 1939 Revenue Act is not a tax on the property, but on the transfer of the property; and, while there must be an identity of the property, which is the subject of the transfer and claimed to be currently taxed, to qualify for the exemption provided in § 105-14, the exemption is allowed only to the transferees as set out in this and the following section. Valentine v. Gill, 223 N. C. 396, 27 S. E. (2d) 2 (1943).

§ 105-5. Rate of tax—Class B.—Where the person or persons entitled to any beneficial interest in such property shall be the brother or sister or descendant of the brother or sister, or shall be the uncle or aunt by blood of the person who died possessed as aforesaid, at the following rates of tax (for each one hundred dollars ($100.00) or fraction thereof) of the value of such interest:

§ 105-6. Rate of tax—Class C.—Where the person or persons entitled to any beneficial interest in such property shall be in any other degree of relationship or collateral consanguinity than is hereinbefore stated, or shall be a stranger in blood to the person who died possessed as aforesaid, or shall be a body politic or corporate, at the following rates of tax (for each one hundred dollars ($100.00) or fraction thereof) of the value of such interest:

§ 105-7. Estate tax. — (a) A tax in addition to the inheritance tax imposed by this schedule is hereby imposed upon the transfer of the net estate of every decedent dying after March 24, 1939, whether a resident or nonresident of the State, where the inheritance tax imposed by this schedule is in the aggregate of a lesser amount than the maximum credit of eighty per cent (80%) of the federal estate tax allowed by the Federal Estate Tax Act as contained in the Internal Revenue Code of one thousand nine hundred and fifty-four, or subsequent acts and amendments, because of said tax herein imposed, then the inheritance tax provided for by this schedule shall be increased by an estate tax on the net estate so that the aggregate amount of tax due this State shall be the maximum amount of credit allowed under said Federal Estate Tax Act; said additional tax shall be paid out of the same funds as any other tax against the estate.

(b) Where no tax is imposed by this schedule because of the exemptions herein or otherwise, and a tax due the United States under the Federal Estate Tax Act, then a tax shall be due this State equal to the maximum amount of the credit allowed under said Federal Estate Tax Act.

(c) The administrative provisions of this schedule, wherever applicable, shall apply to the collection of the tax imposed by this section. The amount of the tax as imposed by subsection (a) of this section shall be computed in full accordance with the Federal Estate Tax Act as contained in the Internal Revenue Code of one thousand nine hundred and fifty-four, or subsequent acts and amendments.

Editor's Note. — The 1957 amendment deleted “Federal Revenue Act of one thousand nine hundred and twenty-six” in subsections (a) and (c) and inserted in lieu thereof “Internal Revenue Code of one thousand nine hundred and fifty-four.”

§ 105-8. Credit allowed for gift tax paid. — In case a tax has been imposed under Schedule G of the Revenue Act of one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven, or under subsequent acts, upon any gift, and thereafter upon the death of the donor, the amount thereof is required by any provision of this article to be included in the gross estate of the decedent, then there shall be credited against and applied in reduction of the tax, which would otherwise be chargeable against the beneficiaries of the estate under the provisions of this article, an amount equal to the tax paid with respect to such gift. Any additional tax found to be due be cause of the inclusion of gifts in the gross estate of the decedent, as provided herein, shall be a tax against the estate and shall be paid out of the same funds as any other tax against the estate. (1939, c. 158, s. 6½.)

Editor's Note. — For comment on this section, see 17 N. C. Law Rev. 381.

§ 105-9. Deductions.—In determining the clear market value of property taxed under this article, or schedule, the following deductions, and no others, shall be allowed:

(1) Taxes accrued and unpaid at the death of the decedent and unpaid ad valorem taxes accruing during the calendar year of death.

(2) Drainage and street assessments (fiscal year in which death occurred).

(3) Reasonable funeral and burial expenses, which shall include bequests and devises in trust, the entire net income from which is to be applied perpetually to the care and preservation of the burial lot or burial grounds within which the decedent is buried, the enclosure thereof and the structures thereon to the extent to which the value of such bequests and devises does not exceed the smaller of the following amounts: Five hundred dollars ($500.00), or two per centum (2%) of the amount of the decedent’s gross estate.

(4) Debts of decedent.

(5) Estate and inheritance taxes paid to other states, and death duties paid to foreign countries.

(6) The amount actually expended for monuments not exceeding the sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000.00).

(7) Commissions of executors and administrators actually allowed and paid.

(8) Costs of administration, including reasonable attorneys’ fees. (1939, c.
158, s. 7; 1941, c. 50, s. 2; 1951, c. 643, s. 1; 1953, c. 1250; 1957, c.

Editor's Note.—Prior to the 1941 amendment, subdivision (1) read: “Taxes that have become due and payable and the pro-rata part of taxes accrued for the fiscal year that have not become due and payable.”

The 1951 amendment rewrote subdivision (6). The 1953 amendment added all of subdivision (3) following “Reasonable funeral and burial expenses.” The 1957 amendment rewrote subdivision (5).

For brief comment on the 1953 amendment, see 31 N. C. Law Rev. 434.

No Corresponding Deduction Where Amount of Federal Tax Increased.—It is proper for a state statute levying inheritance and transfer taxes to refer to a federal statute in allowing deductions for amounts paid the federal government in estate taxes and in excepting from deductible amounts additional taxes levied by the federal government under a federal act effective on a certain date, and a taxpayer relying on the State statute for the right to make deductions may not complain that additional federal taxes not deductible, were computed according to an amendment of the federal act changing the schedule of rates but depending upon the original act for the tax-levying provisions, although the amendment was enacted subsequent to the enactment of the State Revenue Act, since in such case the additional federal estate taxes are levied by the original federal act, although the amount thereof is computed under the amendment changing the schedule of rates. Harwood v. Maxwell, 213 N.
C. 55, 195 S. E. 54 (1938).

§ 105-9.1. As of what date property valued.—For the purposes of this article, all property shall be valued at its fair market value as of the date of death of the decedent, except that the personal representative of the estate may elect to value the property as of the first anniversary of the date of death of the decedent, substituting in the case of property distributed, sold, exchanged or otherwise disposed of during the one-year period, the fair market value of such property as of the date of such distribution, sale, exchange, or other disposition. In all cases in which such election is made, the provisions of the federal estate tax law and regu-§ 105-10. Where no personal representative appointed, clerk of superior court to certify same to Commissioner of Revenue. — Whenever an estate subject to the tax under this article shall be settled or divided among the heirs-at-law, legatees or devisees, without the qualification and appointment of a personal representative, the clerk of the superior court of the county wherein the estate is situated shall certify the same to the Commissioner of Revenue, whereupon the Commissioner of Revenue shall proceed to appraise said estate and collect the inheritance tax thereon as prescribed by this article. (1939, c. 158, s. 8.)

§ 105-11. Tax to be paid on shares of stock before transferred, and penalty for violation.—(a) Property taxable within the meaning of this article shall include bonds or shares of stock in any incorporated company incorporated in this State, regardless of whether or not such incorporated company shall have any or all of its capital stock invested in property outside of this State and doing business outside of this State, and the tax on the transfer of any bonds and/or shares of stock in any such incorporated company owning property and doing business outside of the State shall be paid before waivers are issued for the transfer of such shares of stock. No corporation of this State shall transfer any bonds or stock of said corporation standing in the name of or belonging to a decedent or in the joint names of a decedent and one or more persons, or in trust for a decedent, unless notice of the time of such transfer is served upon the Commissioner of Revenue at least ten days prior to such transfer, nor until said Commissioner of Revenue shall consent thereto in writing. Any corporation making such a transfer without first obtaining consent of the Commissioner of Revenue as aforesaid shall be liable for the amount of any tax which may thereafter be assessed on account of the transfer of such bonds and/or stock, together with the interest thereon, and in addition thereto a penalty of one thousand dollars ($1,000.00), which liability for such tax, interest, and penalty, may be enforced by an action brought by the State in the name of the Commissioner of Revenue. The word “transfer” as used in this article shall be taken to include the passing of property or any interest therein, in possession or enjoyment, present or future, by distribution, or by statute, descent, devise, bequest, grant, deed, bargain, sale, gift, or otherwise. A waiver signed by the Commissioner of Revenue of North Carolina shall be full protection for any such company in the transfer of any such stock.

(b) Any incorporated company not incorporated in this State and owning property in this State which shall transfer on its books the shares of stock of any resident decedent holder of bonds and/or shares of stock in such company exceeding in value two hundred dollars ($200.00) before the inheritance tax, if any, has been paid, shall become liable for the payment of said tax; and any property held by such company in this State shall be subject to execution to satisfy same. A receipt or waiver signed by the Commissioner of Revenue of North Carolina shall be full protection for any such company in the transfer of any such stock. (1939, c. 158, s. 9.)

§ 105-12. Commissioner of Revenue to furnish blanks and require reports of value of shares of stock. — (a) The Commissioner of Revenue shall prepare and furnish, upon application, blank forms covering such information as may be necessary to determine the amount of inheritance tax due the State of North Carolina on the transfer of any such bonds and/or stock; he shall determine the value of such bonds and/or stock, and shall have full authority to do all things necessary to make full and final settlement of all such inheritance taxes due or to become due.
The Commissioner of Revenue shall have authority, under penalties provided in this article, to require that any reports necessary to a proper enforcement of this article be made by any such incorporated company owning property in this State. (1939, c. 158, s. 10.)

§ 105-13. Life insurance proceeds. — The proceeds of life insurance policies, payable at or after the death of the decedent, shall, in the following instances, be taxable at the rates provided in this article, subject to the exemptions in § 105-3:

(1) When such insurance proceeds are receivable by the executor as insurance under policies upon the life of the decedent, regardless of whether the premiums thereon were paid by the decedent.

(2) When such insurance proceeds are receivable by all other beneficiaries as insurance under policies upon the life of the decedent—

a. Where such insurance was purchased with premiums, or other consideration, paid directly or indirectly by the decedent, in the proportion that the amount so paid by the decedent bears to the total premiums paid for the insurance. In all such cases, it is declared that life insurance and the transfer of the proceeds thereof is testamentary in nature, and therefore, the payment of the premiums or other consideration by the decedent shall be deemed to effect a transfer from him at his death of benefits equal to such insurance proceeds, or such ratable proportion thereof regardless of

1. Whether the decedent had taken or retained any incidents of ownership in said policies or
2. Whether the decedent applied for said insurance or
3. Whether the decedent was under a legal duty to pay said premiums or
4. Whether said policies had been assigned irrevocably or otherwise, except as hereinafter stated.

For the purpose of determining the amount of premiums or other consideration paid by decedent, if the decedent transferred, by assignment or otherwise, a policy of insurance, the amount paid directly or indirectly by the decedent shall be reduced by an amount which bears the same ratio to the amount paid directly or indirectly by the decedent as the consideration in money or money's worth received by the decedent for the transfer bears to the value of the policy at the time of the transfer;

b. Or where, with respect to such insurance, the decedent possessed at his death any of the incidents of ownership, exercisable either alone or in conjunction with any other person. The term "incident of ownership," as used herein, does not include a reversionary interest.

The decedent shall not be deemed to have paid premiums or other consideration, within the meaning of this section, where the decedent has made a gift, either before or after the issuance of the policy, of money or property and the gift tax, if any, has been paid with respect to such gift, and the said money or property has been used by the donee to pay any premium or premiums.

This section shall not apply to the proceeds of insurance policies transferred, by assignment or otherwise, during the life of the decedent if the transfer did not constitute a gift, in whole or in part, under article 6, Schedule G, of this chapter, or in case the transfer was made at a time when said article was not in effect, if the transfer would not have constituted a gift, in whole or in part, under said article had it been in effect at such time.

If a gift tax has been paid with respect to any gift of an insurance policy by the decedent, the amount of tax so paid shall be credited against the amount of inheritance tax due on the proceeds of such policy under this article, and if there was more than one beneficiary to such insurance, such credit shall be apportioned against the inheritance tax payable by each beneficiary in the ratio that the interest receivable by each beneficiary bears to the total amount of the insurance proceeds. (1939, c. 158, s. 11; 1943, c. 400, s. 1; 1945, c. 708, s. 1; 1947, c. 501, s. 1.)

Editor's Note.—The 1943 amendment rewrote this section. The 1945 amendment struck out “or” formerly appearing between “effect,” and “if” in the next to last paragraph in the section. The 1947 amendment struck out the former proviso to the first paragraph of subdivision (2) b.

For comment on 1943 amendment, see §1 N. C. Law Rev. 366.

Proceeds of Policy Procedure by Beneficiary under Former Statute.—Section 11, c. 127, Public Laws 1937, could not be construed to impose a separate and independent excise tax upon the receipt of the proceeds of life insurance policies when such policies were issued to the beneficiary, who retained all rights and liabilities thereunder, in addition to imposing an inheritance tax on the proceeds of policies when they were issued to the insured or insured retained the right to change the beneficiary or some other incidents of ownership, since that section had to be construed as a part of the whole act, and when so construed, no such intent appeared from its language. Wachovia Bank, etc., Co. v. Maxwell, 221 N. C. 528, 20 S. E. (2d) 840 (1942).

Where the wife procured a policy of insurance upon the life of her husband, the policy being issued on her application and all rights and liabilities thereunder being retained by her, upon the husband's death the proceeds of the policy were not subject to a tax under the provisions of § 11, c. 127, Public Laws 1937, as a gift inter vivos to take effect at or after death, even though the husband during his life voluntarily paid all premiums, since he did not procure the issuance of the policy and each payment of premium constituted a completed gift. Wachovia Bank, etc., Co. v. Maxwell, 221 N. C. 528, 20 S. E. (2d) 840 (1942).

§ 105-14. Recurring taxes.—Where property transferred has been taxed under the provisions of this article, each transferee (of the classes hereinafter provided) receiving such property on account of any other transfer by reason of a death occurring within two years of the date of the death of the former decedent, shall be allowed a tax credit in an amount equal to the tax paid on such prior transfer of said property. Said tax paid shall be that proportion of the total tax paid on the prior transfer on account of all property received by the prior transferee on the prior transfer as is equal to the proportion of the taxable value, on the prior transfer, of such property to the total taxable value of all property received by the prior transferee on the prior transfer. Provided, that where a transferee receives property which has been taxed under this article upon transfers by reason of the deaths of two or more former decedents, with such deaths having occurred not more than two years prior to the date of death of the decedent, said transferee shall be allowed tax credits as provided in this section for taxes actually paid upon any or all of such prior transfers. Provided, further, that this section shall apply only to the transferees designated in G. S. 105-4 and 105-5. (1939, c. 158, s. 12; 1957, c. 1340, s. 1.)

§ 105-16. Interest and penalty.—All taxes imposed by this article shall be due and payable at the death of the testator, intestate, grantor, donor or vendor; if not paid within fifteen months from date of death of the testator, intestate, grantor, donor, or vendor, such tax shall bear interest at the rate of six per centum (6%) per annum, to be computed from the expiration of fifteen months from the date of the death of such testator, intestate, grantor, donor, or vendor until paid: Provided, that if the taxes herein levied shall not be paid in full within two years from date of death of testator, intestate, grantor, donor, or vendor, then and in such case a penalty of five per centum (5%) upon the amount of taxes remaining due and unpaid shall be added: Provided further, that the penalty of five per centum (5%) herein imposed may be remitted by the Commissioner of Revenue in case of unavoidable delay in settlement of estate or of pending litigation, and the Commissioner of Revenue is further authorized, in case of protracted litigation or other delay in settlement not attributable to laches of the party liable for the tax, to remit all or any portion of the interest charges accruing under this schedule, with respect to so much of the estate as was involved in such litigation or other unavoidable cause of delay. Provided, that time for payment and collection of such tax may be extended by the Commissioner of Revenue for good reasons shown. (1939, c. 158, s. 14; 1947, c. 501, s. 1; 1953, c. 1302, s. 1.)

Editor's Note. — The 1947 amendment struck out the former provision relating to discount for payment within six months from date of death of testator, etc.

dition of two and one-half per cent (2½%) as sheriff's fees for collecting same, which fees shall be in addition to any salary or other compensation allowed by law to the sheriffs for their services; and the sheriff is hereby given the same rights of levy and sale upon any property upon which the said tax is payable as said officer is given for the collection of any and all other taxes. The sheriff shall make return to the Commissioner of Revenue of all such taxes within thirty days after collection. (1939, c. 158, s. 15.)

§ 105-18. Executor, etc., shall deduct tax.—The executor or administrator or other trustee paying any legacy or share in the distribution of any estate subject to said tax shall deduct therefrom at the rate prescribed, or if the legacy or share in the estate be not money, he shall demand payment of a sum to be computed at the same rates upon the appraised value thereof for the use of the State; and no executor or administrator shall pay or deliver any specific legacy or article to be distributed, subject to tax, except on the payment into his hands of a sum computed on its value as aforesaid; and in case of neglect or refusal on the part of said legatee to pay the same, such specific legacy or article, or so much thereof as shall be necessary, shall be sold by such executor or administrator at public sale, after notice to such legatee, and the balance that may be left in the hands of the executor or administrator shall be distributed as is or may be directed by law; and every sum of money retained by any executor or administrator or paid into his hands on account of any legacy or distributive share for the use of the State shall be paid by him to the proper officer without delay. § 105-19. Legacy for life, etc., tax to be retained, etc., upon the whole amount.—If the legacy or devise subject to said tax be given to a beneficiary for life or for a term of years, or upon condition or contingency, with remainder to take effect upon the termination of the life estate or the happening of the condition or contingency, the tax on the whole amount shall be due and payable as in other cases, and said tax shall be apportioned between such life tenant and the remaindersmen, such apportionment to be made by computation based upon the mortuary and annuity tables set out as §§ 8-46 and 8-47, and upon the basis of six per centum (6%) of the gross value of the estate for the period of expectancy of the life tenant in determining the value of the respective interests. When property is transferred or limited in trust or otherwise, and the rights, interest, or estate of the transferees or beneficiaries are dependent upon contingencies or conditions whereby they may be wholly or in part created, defeated, extended, or abridged, a tax shall be imposed upon said transfer at the highest rate, within the discretion of the Revenue Commissioner, which on the happening of any of the said contingencies or conditions would be possible under the provisions of this article, and such tax so imposed shall be due and payable forthwith out of the property transferred, and the Commissioner of Revenue shall assess the tax on such property. § 105-20. Legacy charged upon real estate, heir or devisee to deduct and pay to executor, etc.—Whenever such legacy shall be charged upon or payable out of real estate, the heir or devisee of such real estate, before paying the same to such legatee, shall deduct the tax therefrom at the rates aforesaid, and pay the amount so deducted to the executor or administrator or the Commissioner of Revenue, and the same shall remain a charge upon such real estate until paid, and in default thereof the same shall be enforced by the decrees of the court in the same manner as the payment of such legacy may be enforced: Provided, that all taxes imposed by this article shall be a lien upon the real and § 105-21. Computation of tax on resident and nonresident decedents.—A tax shall be assessed on the transfer of property, including property specifically devised or bequeathed, made subject to tax as aforesaid in this State of a resident or nonresident decedent, if all or any part of the estate of such decedent, wherever situated, shall pass to persons or corporations taxable under this article, which tax shall bear the same ratio to the entire tax which the said estate would have been subject to under this article if such decedent had been a resident of this State, and all his property, real and personal, had been located within this State, as such taxable property within this State bears to the entire estate, wherever situated. It shall be the duty of the personal representative to furnish to the Commissioner of Revenue such information as may be necessary or required to enable the Commissioner to ascertain a proper computation of his tax. Where the personal representative fails or refuses to furnish information from which this assessment can be made, the property in this State liable to tax under this article shall be taxed at the highest rate applicable to those who are strangers in blood. (1939, c. 158, s. 19.)

§ 105-22. Duties of the clerks of the superior court.—(a) It shall be the duty of the clerk of the superior court to obtain from any executor or administrator, at the time of the qualification of such executor or administrator, the address of the personal representative qualifying, the names and addresses of the heirs-at-law, legatees, distributees, devisees, etc., as far as practical; the approximate value and character of the property or estate, both real and personal; the relationship of the heirs-at-law, legatees, devisees, etc., to the decedents, and forward the same to the Commissioner of Revenue on or before the tenth day of each month; and the Commissioner of Revenue shall furnish the several clerks blanks upon which to make said report, but the failure to so furnish blanks shall not relieve the clerk from the duty herein imposed. The clerk shall make no report of a death where the estate of a decedent is less than two thousand dollars ($2,000.00) in value, when the beneficiary is husband or wife or child or grandchild of the decedent. Any clerk of the superior court who shall fail, neglect, or refuse to file such monthly reports as required by this section shall be liable to a penalty in the sum of one hundred dollars ($100.00) to be recovered by the Commissioner of Revenue in an action to be brought by the Commissioner of Revenue.

(b) It shall also be the duty of the clerk of the superior court of each of the several counties of the State to enter in a book, prepared and furnished by the Commissioner of Revenue, to be kept for that purpose, and which shall be a public record, a condensed copy of the settlement of inheritance taxes of each estate, together with a copy of the receipt showing payment, or a certificate showing no tax due, as shall be certified to him by the Commissioner of Revenue.

(c) For these services, where performed by the clerk, the clerk shall be paid by the Commissioner of Revenue, upon submission of proper certification that the service has been performed, as follows: For recording the certificate of the Commissioner of Revenue showing no tax due, the sum of fifty cents (50¢). For recording the certificate of the Commissioner of Revenue, showing that the tax received by the State is one hundred dollars ($100.00) or less, he shall be paid the sum of two dollars ($2.00). For recording the certificate of the Commissioner of Revenue showing that the tax received by the State is more than one hundred dollars ($100.00) and not over five hundred dollars ($500.00) he shall be paid the sum of three dollars ($3.00). For recording the certificate of the Commissioner of Revenue showing that the tax received by the State is more than five hundred dollars ($500.00) and not over one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) he shall be paid the sum of five dollars ($5.00). For recording of certificates of the Commissioner of Revenue showing that the tax received by the State is more than one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) he shall be paid the sum of ten dollars ($10.00), which sum shall be the maximum amount paid for recording the certificate of the Commissioner of Revenue for any one estate: Provided, that where the decedent owned real estate in one or more counties, other than the county in which the administration of the estate is had, then the fee of the clerks of the courts of such other counties for recording the certificates of the Commissioner of Revenue shall be fifty cents (50¢) each, and the fee paid to the clerks of courts for recording the certificate of the Commissioner in the case of the settlements of the estates of nonresidents shall be one dollar ($1.00). The clerk of the superior court shall receive the sum of two dollars ($2.00) for making up and transmitting to the Commissioner of Revenue the report required in this section, containing a list of persons who died leaving property in his county during the preceding month, etc.: Provided, further, that where the clerk of the superior court has failed or neglected to make the report required of him in this section, in that case he shall only receive for recording the certificate of the Commissioner of Revenue the sum of fifty cents (50¢).

The clerks of the superior courts of the several counties shall be allowed the fees provided for in this section in addition to other fees or salaries received by them. (1939, c. 158, s. 20; 1943, c. 400, s. 1; 1953, c. 1302, s. 1.)

Editor's Note.—The 1943 amendment increased the fee, in the last sentence of the first paragraph of subsection (c), from fifty cents to one dollar. The 1953 amendment increased such fee to two dollars and made other changes.

§ 105-23. Information by administrator and executor. — Every administrator shall prepare a statement in duplicate, showing as far as can be ascertained the names of all the heirs-at-law and their relationship to decedent, and every executor shall prepare a like statement, accompanied by a copy of the will, showing the relationship to the decedent of all legatees, distributees, and devisees named in the will, and the age at the time of the death of the decedent of all legatees, distributees, devisees to whom property is bequeathed or devised for life or for a term of years, and the names of those, if any, who have died before the decedent, together with the postoffice address of executor, administrator, or trustee. If any of the heirs-at-law, distributees, and devisees are minor children of the decedent, such statement shall also show the age of each of such minor children. The statement shall also contain a complete inventory of all the real property of the decedent located in and outside the State, and of all personal property, wherever situate, of the estate, of all insurance policies upon the life of the decedent, together with an appraisal under oath of the value of each class of property embraced in the inventory, and the value of the whole, together with any deductions permitted by this statute, so far as they may be ascertained at the time of filing such statement; and also the full statement of all gifts or advancements made by deed, grant, or sale to any person or corporation, in trust or otherwise, within three years prior to the death of the decedent. The statement herein provided for shall be filed with the Commissioner of Revenue at Raleigh, North Carolina, within fifteen months after the qualification of the executor or administrator, upon blank forms to be prepared by the Commissioner of Revenue. If any administrator or executor fails or refuses to comply with any of the requirements of this section, he shall be liable to a penalty in the sum of five hundred dollars ($500.00), to be recovered by the Commissioner of Revenue in an action to be brought by the Commissioner of Revenue to collect such sum in the superior court of Wake County against such administrator or executor. The Commissioner of Revenue, for good cause shown, may remit all or any portion of the penalty imposed under the provisions of this section. Every executor or administrator may make a tentative settlement of the inheritance tax with the Commissioner of Revenue, based on the sworn inventory provided in this section: Provided, that this does not apply to estates of less than two thousand dollars ($2,000.00) in value when the beneficiaries are husband or wife or children or grandchildren, or parent or parents of the decedent. If any executor, administrator, collector, committee, trustee or any other fiduciary within or without this State holding or having control of any funds, property, trust or estate, the transfer of which becomes taxable under the provisions of this section, shall fail to file the statement herein required, within the times herein required, the Commissioner of Revenue is authorized and shall be required to secure the information herein required from the best sources available, and therefrom assess the taxes levied hereunder, together with the penalties herein and otherwise provided. (1939, c. 158, s. 21; 1947, c. 501, s. 1; 1951, c. 643, s. 1.)

Editor's Note. — The 1947 amendment from six to twelve months, and the 1951 increased the time in the fourth sentence from six to twelve months, and the 1951 amendment raised it to fifteen months.

—No safe deposit company, trust company, corporation, bank, or other institution, person or persons having in possession or control or custody, in whole or in part, securities, deposits, assets, or property belonging to or standing in the name of a decedent, or belonging to or standing in the joint names of a decedent and one or more persons, shall deliver or transfer the same to any person whatsoever, whether in a representative capacity or not, or to the survivor or to the survivors when held in the joint names of a decedent and one or more persons, without retaining a sufficient portion or amount thereof to pay taxes or interest which would thereafter be assessed thereon under this article; but the Commissioner of Revenue may consent in writing to such delivery or transfer, and such consent shall relieve said safe deposit company, trust company, corporation, bank or other institution, person or persons from the obligation therein imposed. Provided: The clerk of superior court of the resident county of a decedent may authorize in writing any bank, safe deposit company, trust company, or any other institution to transfer to the properly qualified representative of the estate any funds on deposit in the name of the decedent or the decedent and one or more persons when the total amount of such deposit or deposits is three hundred dollars ($300.00) or less, and when such deposit or deposits compose the total cash assets of the estate. Such authorization shall have the same force and effect as when issued in writing by the Commissioner of Revenue. Every safe deposit company, corporation, bank or other institution, person, or persons engaged in the business of renting lock boxes for the safekeeping of valuable papers and personal effects, or having in their possession or supervision in such lock boxes such valuable papers or personal effects shall, upon the death of any person using or having access to such lock box, as a condition precedent to the opening of such lock box by the executor, administrator, personal representative, lessee or cotenant of such deceased person, require the presence of the clerk of the superior court of the county in which such lock box is located. It shall be the duty of the clerk of the superior court, or his representative, in the presence of an officer or representative of the safe deposit company, trust company, corporation, bank, or other institution, person or persons, to make an inventory of the contents of any such lock box and to furnish a copy of such inventory to the Commissioner of Revenue to the executor, administrator, personal representative, or cotenant of the decedent, and a copy to the safe deposit company, trust company, corporation, bank, or other institution, person, or persons having possession of such lock box; provided, that for lock boxes to which decedent merely had access the inventory shall include only assets in which the decedent has or had an interest. The clerk of the superior court shall be paid for his services rendered as hereinbefore described by the representative of said estate at the time of his qualification the sum of two ($2.00) dollars for the first hour or portion thereof actually required for said services, and the sum of one ($1.00) dollar for each additional hour or portion thereof actually required for said services, subject to a maximum fee of five ($5.00) dollars, and in addition thereto he shall receive the same mileage as is now allowed by law to witnesses for going from his office to any place located in his county to perform such services. The clerks of the superior court of the several counties shall be allowed the fees provided for in this section in addition to other fees or salaries received by them, and any and all provisions in local acts in conflict with this article are hereby repealed. Notwithstanding any of the provisions of this section any life insurance company may pay the proceeds of any policy upon the life of a decedent to the person entitled thereto as soon as it shall have mailed to the Commissioner of Revenue a notice, in such form as the Commissioner of Revenue may prescribe, setting forth the fact of such payment; but if such notice be not mailed, all of the provisions of this section shall apply. Notwithstanding any of the provisions of this section, in any case where a bank deposit has been heretofore made or is hereafter made, or where building and loan stock has heretofore been issued or is hereafter issued, in the names of a husband and wife and payable to either or the survivor of them, such bank or building and loan association may, upon the death of either of such persons, upon mailing notice to the Commissioner of Revenue in such form as may be prescribed by the Commissioner stating the facts with respect to such deposits or stock, allow the survivor to withdraw as much as eighty per cent of such deposit or stock, and the balance thereof shall be retained by the bank or building and loan association to cover any taxes that may thereafter be assessed against such deposit or stock under this article. When such taxes as may be due on such deposit or stock are paid, or when it is ascertained that there is no liability of such deposit or stock for taxes under this article, the Commissioner of Revenue shall furnish the bank or building and loan association his written consent for the payment of the retained percentage to the survivor; and the Commissioner of Revenue may furnish such written consent to the bank or building and loan association upon the qualification of a personal representative of the deceased. No bank or building and loan association shall be liable for any failure to withhold the specified percentage of such deposit or stock if the same was paid out prior to actual notice of the death of the deceased. Failure to comply with the provisions of this section shall render such safe deposit company, trust company, corporation, bank or other institution, person or persons liable for the amount of the taxes and interest due under this article on the succession to such securities, deposits, assets, or property, but in any action brought under this provision it shall be a sufficient defense that the delivery or transfer of securities, deposits, assets, or property was made in good faith without knowledge of the death of the decedent and without knowledge of circumstances sufficient to place the defendant on inquiry. (1939, c. 158, s. 2114; 1943, c. 400, s. 1; 1959, c. 1192.)

Editor's Note. — The 1943 amendment changed the sentence of the first paragraph relating to clerk's fee, and inserted the second paragraph.

The 1959 amendment changed the first paragraph by inserting "or having access to" near the middle of the fourth sentence and inserting "lessee" near the end of such sentence. It also inserted the proviso at the end of the fifth sentence in the first paragraph.

§ 105-25. Supervision by Commissioner of Revenue. — The Commissioner of Revenue shall have complete supervision of the enforcement of all provisions of the Inheritance Tax Act and the collections of all inheritance taxes found to be due thereunder, and shall make all necessary rules and regulations for the just and equitable administration thereof. He shall regularly employ such deputies, attorneys, examiners, or special agents as may be necessary for the reasonable carrying out of its full intent and purpose. Such deputies, attorneys, examiners, or special agents shall, as often as required to do so, visit the several counties of the State to inquire and ascertain if all inheritance taxes due from estates of decedents, or heirs-at-law, legatees, devisees, or distributees thereof have been paid; to see that all statements required by this article are filed by administrators and executors, or by the beneficiaries under wills where no executor is appointed; to examine into all statements filed by such administrators and executors; to require such administrators and executors to furnish any additional information that may be deemed necessary to determine the amount of tax that should be paid by such estate. If not satisfied, after investigation, with valuation returned by the administrator or executor, the deputy, attorney, examiner, or appraiser shall make an additional appraisal after proper examination and inquiry, or may, in special cases, recommend the appointment by the Commissioner of Revenue of a special appraiser who, in such case, shall be paid five dollars ($5.00) per day and expenses for his services. If not satisfied with such additional appraisal, the administrator or executor may, within thirty days, request a conference with the Commissioner of Revenue, and the matter shall be determined as other cases by the Commissioner. (1939, c. 158, s. 22; 1955, c. 1350, s. 16.)

Editor's Note. — The 1955 amendment deleted the former last two sentences and the present proviso relating to appeals to the Commissioner of Revenue and from his decision to the superior court, and added the present last sentence in lieu thereof.

§ 105-26. Proportion of tax to be repaid upon certain conditions.—Whenever debts shall be proven against the estate of a decedent after the distribution of legacies from which the inheritance tax has been deducted in compliance with this article, and the legatee is required to refund any portion of the legacy, a proportion of the said tax shall be repaid to him by the executor or administrator if the said tax has not been paid into the State treasury, or shall be refunded by the State Treasurer, if it has been so paid in, upon certificate of the Commissioner of Revenue. (1939, c. 158, s. 23.)

§ 105-27. Commissioner of Revenue may order executor, etc., to file account, etc.—If the Commissioner of Revenue shall discover that reports and accounts have not been filed, and the tax, if any, has not been paid as provided in this article, he shall issue a citation to the executor, administrator, or trustee of the decedent whose estate is subject to tax, to appear at a time and place therein mentioned, not to exceed twenty days from the date thereof, and show cause why said report and account should not be filed and said tax paid; and when personal service cannot be had, notice shall be given as provided for service of summons by publication in the county in which said estate is located; and if said tax shall be found to be due, the said delinquent shall be adjudged to pay said tax, interest and cost; if said tax shall remain due and unpaid for a period of thirty days after notice thereof, the Commissioner of Revenue shall certify the same to the sheriff, who shall make collection of said tax, cost and commissions for collection, as provided in § 105-16. (1939, c. 158, s. 24.)

§ 105-28. Failure of administrator, executor, or trustee to pay tax.—Any administrator, executor, or trustee who shall fail to pay the lawful inheritance taxes due upon any estate in his hands or under his control within two years from the time of his qualification shall be liable for the amount of the said taxes, and the same may be recovered in an action against such administrator, executor, or trustee, and the sureties on his official bond. Any clerk of the court who shall allow any administrator, executor, or trustee to make a final settlement of his estate without having paid the inheritance tax due by law, and exhibiting his § 105-29. Uniform valuation.—(a) If the value of any estate taxed under this schedule shall have been assessed and fixed by the federal government for the purpose of determining the federal taxes due thereon prior to the time the report from the executor or administrator is made to the Commissioner of Revenue under the provisions of this article, the amount or value of such estate so fixed, assessed, and determined by the federal government shall be stated in such report. If the assessment of the estate by the federal government shall be made after the filing of the report by the executor or administrator with the Commissioner of Revenue, as provided in this article, the said executor or administrator shall, within thirty days after receipt of notice of the final determination by the federal government of the value or amount of said estate as assessed and determined for the purpose of fixing federal taxes thereon, make report of the amount so fixed and assessed by the federal government, under oath or affirmation, to the Commissioner of Revenue. If the amount of said estate as assessed and fixed by the federal government shall be in excess of that theretofore fixed or assessed under this schedule for the purpose of determining the amount of taxes due the State from said estate, then the Commissioner of Revenue shall reassess said estate and fix the value thereof at the amount fixed, assessed, and determined by the federal government, unless the said executor or administrator shall, within thirty days after notice to him from the Commissioner of Revenue, show cause why the valuation and assessment of said estate as theretofore made should not be changed or increased. If the valuation placed upon said estate by the federal government shall be less than that theretofore fixed or assessed under this article, the executor or administrator may, within thirty days after filing his return of the amount so fixed or assessed by the federal government, file with the Commissioner of Revenue a petition to have the value of said estate reassessed and the same reduced to the amount as fixed or assessed by the federal government. In either event the Commissioner of Revenue shall proceed to determine, from such evidence as may be brought to his attention or which he shall otherwise acquire, the correct value of the said estate, and if the valuation is changed, he shall reassess the taxes due by said estate under this article and notify the executor or administrator of such fact. In the event the valuation of said estate shall be decreased and if there shall have been an overpayment of the tax in the amount of three dollars ($3.00) or more, the Commissioner of Revenue shall, within sixty (60) days after the final determination of the value of said estate and the assessment of the correct amount of tax against the same, refund the amount of such excess tax theretofore paid. In the event that the amount of such overpayment is less than three dollars ($3.00) the overpayment shall be refunded upon receipt by the Commissioner of Revenue of a written demand for such refund from the taxpayer. No overpayment shall be refunded, irrespective of whether upon discovery or receipt of written demand if such discovery is not made or such demand is not received within three (3) years from the date set by the statute for the filing of the return or within six (6) months from the date of the payment of the tax alleged to be an overpayment, whichever is the later.

(b) If the executor or administrator shall fail to file with the Commissioner of Revenue the return under oath or affirmation, stating the amount or value at which the estate was assessed by the federal government as provided for in this section, the Commissioner of Revenue shall assess and collect from the executor or administrator a penalty equal to twenty-five per cent (25%) of the amount of any additional tax which may be found to be due by such estate upon reassessment and reappraisal thereof, which penalty shall under no condition be less than twenty-five dollars ($25.00) or more than five hundred dollars ($500.00); and which cannot be remitted by the Commissioner of Revenue except for good cause.
shown. The Commissioner of Revenue is authorized and directed to confer quarterly with the Department of Internal Revenue of the United States government to ascertain the value of estates in North Carolina which have been assessed for taxation by the federal government, and he shall co-operate with the said Department of Internal Revenue, furnishing to said Department such information concerning estates in North Carolina as said Department may request. § 105-30. Executor defined. — Wherever the word "executor" appears in this article it shall include executors, administrators, collectors, committees, trustees, and all fiduciaries. (1939, c. 158, s. 27.)

§ 105-31. Additional remedies for enforcement of tax. — In addition to all other remedies which may now exist under the law, or may hereafter be established, for the collection of the taxes imposed by the preceding sections of this article, the tax so imposed shall be a lien upon all of the property and upon all of the estate, with respect to which the taxes are levied, as well as collectible out of any other property, resort to which may be had for their payment; and the said taxes shall constitute a debt, which may be recovered in an action brought by the Commissioner of Revenue in any court of competent jurisdiction in this State, and/or in any court having jurisdiction of actions of debt in any state of the United States, and/or in any court of the United States against an administrator, executor, trustee, or personal representative, and/or any person, corporation, or concern having in hand any property, funds, or assets of any nature, with respect to which such tax has been imposed. No title or interest to such estate, funds, assets, or property shall pass, and no disposition thereof shall be made by any person claiming an interest therein until the said taxes have been fully paid. ARTICLE 2.

Schedule B. License Taxes.

§ 105-33. Taxes under this article.—(a) Taxes in this article or schedule shall be imposed as State license taxes for the privilege of carrying on the business, exercising the privilege, or doing the act named, and nothing in this article shall be construed to relieve any person, firm, or corporation from the payment of the tax prescribed in this article or schedule: Provided, the obtaining of a license required by this article shall not of itself authorize the practice of a profession, business, or trade for which a State qualification license is required.

(c) Every State license issued under this article or schedule shall be for twelve (12) months, shall expire on the thirtieth day of June of each year, and shall be for the full amount of tax prescribed; provided, that where the tax is levied on an annual basis and the licensee begins such business or exercises such privilege after the first day of January and prior to the thirtieth day of June of each year, then such licensee shall be required to pay one-half (½) of the tax prescribed other than the tax prescribed to be computed and levied upon a gross receipts and/or percentage basis for the conducting of such business or the exercising of such privilege to and including the thirtieth day of June, next following. Every county, city and town license issued under this article or schedule shall be for twelve months, and shall expire on the thirty-first day of May or thirtieth day of June of each year as the governing body of such county, city or town may determine: Provided, that where the licensee begins such business or exercises such privilege after the expiration of seven months of the current license year of such municipality, then such licensee shall be required to pay one-half of the tax prescribed other than the tax prescribed to be computed upon a gross receipts and/or percentage basis.

(d) The State license issued under §§ 105-41, 105-41.1, 105-42, 105-43, 105-45, 105-48, 105-53, 105-54, 105-55, 105-56, 105-57, 105-58, 105-59 and 105-91 shall be and constitute a personal privilege to conduct the profession or business named in the State license, shall not be transferable to any other person, firm or corporation and shall be construed to limit the person, firm or corporation named in the license to conducting the profession or business and exercising the privilege named in the State license to the county and/or city and location specified in the State license, unless otherwise provided in this article or schedule. Other license issued for a tax year for the conduct of a business at a specified location shall upon a sale or transfer of the business be deemed a sufficient license for the succeeding purchaser for the conduct of the business specified at such location for the balance of the tax year: Provided, that if the holder of a license under this schedule moves the business for which a license has been paid to another location, a new license may be issued to the licensee at a new location for the balance of the license year, upon surrender of the original license for cancellation and the payment of a fee of five dollars ($5.00) for each license certificate reissued.

(e) Whenever, in any section of this article or schedule, the tax is graduated with reference to the population of the city or town in which the business is to be conducted or the privilege exercised, the minimum tax provided in such section shall be applied to the same business or privilege when conducted or exercised outside of the municipality, unless such business is conducted or privilege exercised within one mile of the corporate limits of such municipality, in which event the same tax shall be imposed and collected as if the business conducted or the privilege exercised were inside of the corporate limits of such municipality: Provided, that with respect to taxes in this article, assessed on a population basis, the same rates shall apply to incorporated towns and unincorporated places or towns alike, with the best estimate of population available being used as a basis for determining the tax in incorporated places or towns. The term "places or towns" means any unincorporated community, point or collection of people having a geographical name by which it may be generally known, and is so generally designated.

(f) All State taxes imposed by this article shall be paid to the Commissioner of Revenue, or to one of his deputies; shall be due and payable on or before the first day of July of each year, and after such date shall be deemed delinquent, and subject to all the remedies available and the penalties imposed for the payment of delinquent State license and privilege taxes; provided, that if a person, firm, or corporation begins any business or the exercise of any privilege requiring a license under this article or schedule after the thirtieth day of June and prior to the thirtieth day of the following June of any year, then such person, firm, or corporation shall apply for and obtain a State license for conducting such business or exercising any such privilege in advance, and before the beginning of such business or the exercise of such privilege; and a failure to so apply and to obtain such State license shall be and constitute a delinquent payment of the State license tax due, and such person, firm, or corporation shall be subject to the remedies available and penalties imposed for the payment of such delinquent taxes.

(g) The taxes imposed and the rates specified in this article or schedule shall apply to the subjects taxed on and after the first day of June, one thousand nine penny or nickel machine for exhibiting pictures, theatrical performance, or similar entertainment, shall apply for and obtain from the Commissioner of Revenue a State license for the privilege of conducting such amusement park, and shall pay for such license the following tax:

State license for two months ........................................ $200.00
State license for four months ....................................... 400.00
State license for eight months ...................................... 600.00
State license for twelve months .................................... 800.00

(b) This section shall not apply to bathing beaches which are not operated for more than four months each year.

(c) The licensee shall have the privilege of doing any or all of the things set out in this section; but the operation of a carnival, circus, or a show of any kind that moves from place to place shall not be allowed under the State license provided for in this section.

(d) Counties shall not levy a license tax on the business taxed under this section. (1939, c. 158, s. 102.)

§ 105-35. Amusements — traveling theatrical companies, etc. —

Every person, firm, or corporation engaged in the business of a traveling theatrical, traveling moving picture, and/or traveling vaudeville company, giving exhibitions or performances in any hall, tent, or other place not licensed under §§ 105-34 or 105-37, whether on account of municipal ownership or otherwise, shall apply for and obtain from the Commissioner of Revenue a State license for the privilege of engaging in such business, and pay for such license a tax of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) for each day or part of a day’s exhibits or performances:

Provided, that

(1) Artists exhibiting paintings or statuary work of their own hands shall only pay two dollars ($2.00) for such State license.

(2) Such places of amusement as do not charge more than a total of fifty cents (50c) for admission at the door, including a reserved seat, and shall perform or exhibit continuously in any given place as much as one week, shall be required to pay for such State license a tax of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) per week.

(3) The owner of the hall, tent, or other place where such amusements are exhibited or performances held shall be liable for the tax.

(4) In lieu of the State license tax, hereinbefore provided for in this section, such amusement companies, consisting of not more than ten performers, may apply for an annual State-wide license, and the same may be issued by the Commissioner of Revenue for the sum of three hundred dollars ($300.00), paid in advance, prior to the first exhibition in the State, shall be valid in any county of this State, and shall be in full payment of all State license taxes imposed in this section.

(5) Any traveling organization which exhibits animals or conducts side shows in connection with its exhibitions or performances shall not be taxed under this section, but shall be taxed as herein otherwise provided.

(6) The owner, manager, or proprietor of any such amusements described in this section shall apply in advance to the Commissioner of Revenue for a State license for each county in which a performance is to be given.

Upon all performances taxable under this section there is levied, in addition to the license tax levied in this section, a tax upon the gross receipts of such business at the rate of tax levied in schedule E, §§ 105-164 to 105-187, upon retail sales of merchandise. The license tax herein levied shall be treated as an advance payment of the tax upon gross receipts herein levied, and the license tax shall be applied as a credit upon or advance payment of the gross receipts tax.
The Commissioner of Revenue may adopt such regulations as may be necessary to effectuate the provisions of this section and shall prescribe the form and character of reports to be made, and shall have such authority or supervision as may be necessary to effectuate the purposes of this subchapter.

(7) Counties, cities, and towns may levy a license tax not in excess of the license tax levied by the State.

(8) Where the taxpayer elects to pay an annual State-wide license in the sum of three hundred dollars ($300.00) in advance, as provided for in subdivision (4) of this section, counties, cities and towns may each levy a license tax not in excess of ten dollars ($10.00) per week, provided such places of amusement do not charge more than a total of fifty cents (50c) for admission at the door, as provided for in subdivision (2) of this section. (1939, c. 158, s. 103.)

§ 105-36. Amusements—manufacturing, selling, leasing, or distributing moving picture films or checking attendance at moving picture shows.—Every person, firm, or corporation engaged in the business of manufacturing, selling, leasing, furnishing and/or distributing films to be used in this State in moving picture theatres or other places at which an admission fee is charged shall apply for and obtain from the Commissioner of Revenue a Statewide license for the privilege of engaging in such business in this State, and shall pay for such license a tax of six hundred and twenty-five dollars ($625.00). Provided, that persons, firms, or corporations engaged exclusively in the business of selling, leasing, furnishing and/or distributing films for use in places where no admission fee is charged or in schools, public or private, and other institutions of learning in this State, shall pay a tax of twenty-five dollars ($25.00).

Any person, firm, or corporation engaged under contract or for compensation in the business of checking the attendance of any moving picture or show for the purpose of ascertaining attendance or amount of admission receipts at any theatre or theatres shall apply for and obtain from the Commissioner of Revenue a State wide license for the privilege of engaging in such business in this State, and shall pay for such license an annual tax of two hundred and fifty dollars ($250.00).

Counties, cities, and towns shall not levy a license tax on the business taxed under this section. (1939, c. 158, s. 104; 1947, c. 981.)

Editor's Note.—The 1947 amendment rerewrote the first paragraph.

§ 105-36.1. Amusements—outdoor theatres.—(a) Every person, firm or corporation engaged in the business of operating an outdoor or drive-in moving picture show or places where vaudeville exhibitions or performances are given for compensation shall apply for and obtain in advance from the Commissioner of Revenue a State license for the privilege of engaging in such business and shall pay a tax in accordance with the following schedule:

In addition to the foregoing tax based upon population and car capacity, every operator of a business taxed under this section shall pay a tax of one dollar ($1.00) for each seat or seating space provided for patrons outside of motor vehicles driven into the enclosure by patrons. For the purpose of this section, car capacity shall be determined by the number of outlets provided for individual speakers. In the case of drive-in or outdoor theatres not equipped with individual speakers or outlets therefor, but which are equipped with one or more central speakers, the car capacity shall be regarded and rated as two hundred (200).

In the case of drive-in or outdoor theatres located within ten miles of the corporate limits of more than one municipality, the tax herein levied shall be paid in accordance with the rate applicable to the largest of such municipalities.

For the purpose of this section, unincorporated communities shall be regarded as incorporated municipalities, with the corporate limits deemed to extend one mile in every direction from the intersection of the two principal streets in such unincorporated community; and if there is no such intersection, then from the recognized business center of such unincorporated community.

In the case of drive-in or outdoor theatres located more than ten miles from the corporate limits of any municipality, the tax shall be paid at the rate herein provided for such theatres located within ten miles of the corporate limits of a municipality having a population of 3,000 to 5,000.

In the case of drive-in or outdoor theatres operating less than six months each year, the tax shall be one half the tax herein levied.

(b) Cities and towns may levy upon the businesses taxed in this section not in excess of the following amounts:

- In cities or towns of less than 1,500 population: $12.50
- In cities or towns of 1,500 and less than 3,000 population: $31.25
- In cities or towns of 3,000 and less than 5,000 population: $62.50

(b) For any moving picture show operated more than two miles from the business center of any city having a population of twenty-five thousand, or over (for the purpose of this provision, the term "business center" to be defined as the intersection of the two principal business streets of the city), the tax levied shall be one-third of the above, based upon the population of the city in which such theatre is located or adjacent to.

(c) For any moving picture show operated within the city limits or within one mile of the corporate limits of any city having a population of twenty-five thousand (25,000), or over, and known as neighborhood or suburban theatres, or for any theatre operated exclusively for colored people in a city having a population of two thousand five hundred (2,500), or over, the tax levied shall be one-third of the above tax, based upon the population of such city.

(d) For any moving picture show operated at bathing beaches or resort towns for less than six months each year, the tax levied shall be one-half the annual tax provided above, based upon the population of the city or town in which such seasonal moving picture show shall be operated.

(e) For any motion picture show operating three days or less each week, the tax levied shall be one-half the annual tax provided above, based upon the population of the city or town in which such theatre is located.

(f) Counties shall not levy any license tax on the business taxed under the foregoing portions of this section. On the business described in the first paragraph of this section, cities and towns may levy a license tax not in excess of the following:

| In cities or towns of less than 1,500 population | $ 12.50 |
| In cities or towns of 1,500 and less than 3,000 population | 31.25 |
| In cities or towns of 3,000 and less than 5,000 population | 62.50 |
| In cities or towns of 5,000 and less than 10,000 population | 87.50 |
| In cities or towns of 10,000 and less than 15,000 population | 137.50 |
| In cities or towns of 15,000 and less than 25,000 population | 187.50 |
| In cities or towns of 25,000 population or over | 212.50 |

On the business described in subsection (b) of this section, cities and towns may levy a license tax not in excess of one hundred dollars ($100.00); and on a business described in subsections (c), (d) or (e) of this section, cities and towns may levy a license tax not in excess of one-half of the tax authorized by the schedule set forth in this subsection. - In cities or towns of 25,000 population or over .................... 50.00

In addition to the license tax levied in the above schedule, such person, firm, or corporation shall pay an additional tax upon the gross receipts of such business at the rate of tax levied in article V, schedule E, §§ 105-164 to 105-187, upon retail sales of merchandise. Reports shall be made to the Commissioner of Revenue, in such form as he may prescribe, within the first ten days of each month covering all such gross receipts for the previous month, and the additional tax herein levied shall be paid monthly at the time such reports are made. The annual license tax herein levied shall be treated as an advance payment of the tax upon gross receipts herein levied, and the annual license tax shall be applied as a credit upon or advance payment of the gross receipts tax.

Every person, firm, or corporation giving, offering, or managing any dance or athletic contest of any kind, except high school and elementary school athletic contests, for which an admission fee in excess of fifty cents (50c) is charged, shall pay an annual license tax of five dollars ($5.00) for each location where such charges are made, and, in addition, a tax upon the gross receipts derived from admission charges in excess of fifty cents (50c) at the rate of tax levied in article V, schedule E, §§ 105-164 to 105-187, upon retail sales of merchandise. The additional tax upon gross receipts shall be levied and collected in accordance with such regulations as may be made by the Commissioner of Revenue. No tax shall be levied on admission fees for high school and elementary school contests. The tax levied in this last portion of this section shall apply to all privately owned toll bridges, including all charges made for all vehicles, freight and passenger, and the minimum charge of fifty cents (50c) for admission shall not apply to bridge tolls.

Educational Entertainment Hall Exempt.—A musical conservatory, owning a hall in which it gives musical entertainments for the special benefit of its pupils and teachers, charging for admission there-to, is not liable for the opera house tax herein provided. Markham v. Southern Conservatory of Music, 130 N. C. 276, 41 S. E. 531 (1902).

The federal census in use at the time is the basis of determining population for the purposes of this section. State v. Prevo, 178 N. C. 740, 10155 S. E. 370 (1919).

Dances and other amusements actually promoted and managed by civic and private and public secondary schools, shall not be subject to the license tax imposed by this section and the first one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) of gross receipts derived from such events shall be exempt from the gross receipts tax herein levied when the entire net proceeds of such dances or other amusements are used exclusively for the school or civic and charitable purposes of such organizations and not to defray the expenses of the organization conducting such dance or amusement. The mere sponsorship of dance or other amusement by such a school, civic, or fraternal organization shall not be deemed to exempt such dance or other amusement as provided in this paragraph, but the exemption shall apply only when the dance or amusement is actually managed and conducted by the school, civic, or fraternal organization and the proceeds are used as hereinbefore required.

(b) Counties shall not levy any license tax on the business taxed under this section, but cities and towns may levy a license tax not in excess of one-half the base tax levied herein. (1939, c. 158, s. 105; 1943, c. 400, s. 2; 1945, c. 708, s. 2; 1947, c. 501, s. 2; 1963, c. 1231.)

Local Modification.—Cabarrus: 1961, c. 1032. The 1963 amendment added the last paragraph to subsection (a).

Editor's Note.—Prior to the 1947 amendment the provisions of this section were covered by § 105-37.

§ 105-38. Amusements — circuses, menageries, wild west, dog and/or pony shows, etc.—Every person, firm, or corporation engaged in the business of exhibiting performances, such as a circus, menagerie, wild west show, dog and/or pony show, or any other show, exhibition or performance similar thereto, not taxed in other sections of this article, shall apply for and obtain a State license from the Commissioner of Revenue for the privilege of engaging in such business, and pay for such license the following tax for each day or part of a day:

(1) Such shows and/or exhibitions traveling on railroads and requiring transportation of:

It is the intent of this subdivision that every vehicle used in transporting circus property or personnel, whether owned by the circus or by others, shall be counted in computing the tax.

(3) Every person, firm, or corporation by whom any show or exhibition taxed under this section is owned or controlled shall file with the Commissioner of Revenue, not less than five days before entering this State for the purpose of such exhibitions or performances therein, a statement, under oath, setting out in detail such information as may be required by the Commissioner of Revenue covering the places in the State where exhibitions or performances are to be given, the character of the exhibitions, the mode of travel, the number of cars or other conveyances used in transferring such shows, and such other and further information as may be required. Upon receipt of such statement, the Commissioner of Revenue shall fix and determine the amount of State license tax with which such person, firm, or corporation is chargeable, shall endorse his findings upon such statement, and shall transmit a copy of such statement and findings to each such person, firm, or corporation to be charged, to the sheriff or tax collector of each county in which exhibitions or performances are to be given, and to the division deputy of the Commissioner of Revenue, with full and particular instructions as to the State license tax to be paid. Before giving any of the exhibitions or performances provided for in such statement, the person, firm, or corporation making such statement shall pay the Commissioner of Revenue the tax so fixed and determined. If one or more of such exhibitions or performances included in such statement and for which the tax has been paid shall be canceled, the Commissioner of Revenue may, upon proper application made to him, refund the tax for such canceled exhibitions or performances. Every such person, firm, or corporation shall give to the Commissioner of Revenue a notice of not less than five days before giving any of such exhibitions or performances in each county.

(4) The sheriff of each county in which such exhibitions or performances are advertised to be exhibited shall promptly communicate such information to the Commissioner of Revenue; and if the statement required in this section has not been filed as provided herein, or not filed in time for certified copies thereof, with proper instructions, to be transmitted to the sheriffs of the several counties and the division deputy commissioner, the Commissioner of Revenue shall cause his division deputy to attend at one or more points in the State where such exhibitions or performances are advertised or expected to exhibit, for the purpose of securing such statement prescribed in this section, of fixing and determining the amount of State license tax with which such person, firm, or corporation is taxable, and to collect such tax or give instructions for the collection of such tax.

(5) Every such person, firm, or corporation by whom or which any such exhibition or performance described in this section is given in any county, city or town, or within five miles thereof, wherein is held an annual agricultural fair, during the week of such annual agricultural fair, shall pay a State license of one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) for each exhibition or performance in addition to the license tax first levied in this section, to be assessed and collected by the Commissioner of Revenue or his duly authorized deputy.

(6) The provisions of this section, or any other section of this article, shall not be construed to allow without the payment of the tax imposed in this section, any exhibition or performance described in this section for charitable, benevolent, educational, or any other purpose whatsoever, by any person, firm, or corporation who is engaged in giving such exhibitions or performances, no matter what terms of contract may be entered into or under what auspices such exhibitions or performances are given. It being the intent and purpose of this section that every person, firm, or corporation who or which is engaged in § 105-39. Amusements—carnival companies, etc.—(a) Every person, firm, or corporation engaged in the business of a carnival company or a show of like kind, moving picture and vaudeville shows, museums and menageries, merry-go-rounds, ferris wheels, riding devices, and other like amusements, and enterprises, conducted for profit, under the same general management, or an aggregate of shows; amusements, eating places, riding devices, or any of them operating together on the same lot or contiguous lots or streets, traveling from place to place, whether owned and actually operated by separate persons, firms, or corporations or not, filling week-stand engagements, or giving week-stand exhibitions, under canvas or not, shall apply for and obtain from the Commissioner of Revenue a State license for the privilege of engaging in such business or amusement, and shall pay for such license for each week, or part of a week, a tax based according to the population of the city or town in which such carnival is showing as follows:

<th>Population</th>
<th>Tax</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Less than 2,500</td>
<td>$100.00</td>

Provided that any carnival operating within a radius of five miles of any city shall pay the same tax as if they were actually showing within the city limits of said town. Provided further that if such a carnival operates over five miles from any city or town such a carnival shall be liable for a tax of one hundred dollars ($100.00) per week or part of a week.

Provided, that when a person, firm, or corporation exhibits only riding devices which are not a part of, nor used in connection with any carnival company, the tax shall be ten dollars ($10.00) per week for each such riding device, provided that counties, cities and towns may levy and collect a license tax upon such riding devices not in excess of five dollars ($5.00) for each such device.

Provided, further, that it shall be unlawful under this section for the owners and/or operators of riding devices to operate, or cause to be operated, any show, game, stand or other attraction whatsoever.

(b) This section shall not repeal any local act prohibiting any of the shows, exhibitions, or performances mentioned in this section, or limit the authority of the board of county commissioners of any county, or the board of aldermen or other governing body of any city or town, in prohibiting such shows, exhibitions, or performances. If the Commissioner of Revenue shall issue a State license for any such show, exhibition, or performance in any county or municipality having a local statute prohibiting the same, then the said State license shall not authorize such show, exhibition, or performance to be held in such county or municipality, but the Commissioner of Revenue shall refund, upon proper application, the tax paid for such State license.

(c) No person, firm, or corporation, nor any aggregation of same, giving such shows, exhibitions, or performances, shall be relieved from the payment of the tax levied in this section, regardless of whether or not the State derives a benefit from same. Nor shall any carnival operating or giving performances or exhibitions, in connection with any fair in North Carolina, be relieved from the payment of tax levied in this section. It is the intent and purpose of this section that every person, firm, or corporation, or aggregation of same which is engaged in the giving of such shows, exhibitions, performances, or amusements, whether the whole or a part of the proceeds are for charitable, benevolent, educational, or other purposes whatsoever, shall pay the State license taxes provided for in this section.

It is not the purpose of this article to discourage agricultural fairs in the State, and to further this cause, no carnival company will be allowed to play a “still date” in any county where there is a regularly advertised agricultural fair, thirty days prior to the dates of said fair. An agricultural fair shall be construed as meaning one that has operated at least one year prior to March 24, 1939.

Upon all performances taxable under this section there is levied, in addition to the license tax levied in this section, a tax upon the gross receipts of such business at the rate of tax levied in Schedule E, §§ 105-164 to 105-187, upon retail sales of merchandise. The license tax herein levied shall be treated as an advance payment of the tax upon the gross receipts herein levied, and the license tax shall be applied as a credit upon or advance payment of the gross receipts tax. The Commissioner of Revenue may adopt such regulations as may be necessary to effectuate the provisions of this section and shall prescribe the form and character of reports to be made, and shall have such authority or supervision as may be necessary to effectuate the purposes of this subchapter.

Nothing herein contained shall prevent veterans’ organizations and posts chartered by Congress or organized and operated on a state-wide or nation-wide basis from holding fairs or tobacco festivals on any dates which they may select, provided said fairs or festivals have heretofore been held as annual events.

§ 105-40. Amusements—certain exhibitions, performances, and entertainments exempt from license tax.—All exhibitions, performances, and entertainments, except as in this article expressly mentioned as not exempt, produced by local talent exclusively, and for the benefit of religious, charitable, benevolent or educational purposes, and where no compensation is paid to such local talent shall be exempt from the State license tax. (1939, c. 158, s. 108.)

Educational Entertainment Hall Exempt.—A musical conservatory, owning a hall in which it gives entertainments for the special benefit of its pupils and teachers, charging admission thereto, is not liable for the opera house tax provided in § 105-37. Markham v. Southern Conservatory of Music, 130 N. C. 276, 41 S. E. 531 (1902).

§ 105-41. Attorneys at law and other professionals.—(a) Every practicing attorney at law, practicing physician, veterinary surgeon, osteopath, chiropractor, chiropodist, dentist, oculist, optician, optometrist, any person practicing any professional art of healing for a fee or reward, every practicing professional engineer as defined in chapter 89 of the General Statutes, every practicing land surveyor as defined in chapter 89 of the General Statutes, every architect and landscape architect, photographer, canvasser for any photographer, agent of a photographer in transmitting pictures or photographs to be copied, enlarged or colored (including all persons enumerated in this section employed by the State, county, municipality, a corporation, firm or individual), and every person, whether acting as an individual, as a member of a partnership, or as an officer and/or agent of a corporation, who is engaged in the business of selling or offering for sale, buying or offering to buy, negotiating the purchase, sale, or exchange of real estate, or who is engaged in the business of leasing or offering to lease, renting or offering to rent, or of collecting any rents as agent for another for compensation, or who is engaged in the business of soliciting and/or negotiating loans on real estate as agent for another for a commission, brokerage and/or other compensation, shall apply for and obtain from the Commissioner of Revenue a State-wide license for the privilege of engaging in such business or profession, or the doing of the act named, and shall pay for such license twenty-five dollars ($25.00): Provided, that no professional man or woman shall be required to pay a privilege tax after he or she has arrived at the age of seventy-five years. Further provided, that it shall be unlawful for a nonresident of this State to engage in the real estate business in this State, as defined in this section, unless the State of residence of such person will permit a resident of this State to engage in such business. Any person who shall engage in the real estate business in this State in violation of the terms of this provision shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished in the discretion of the court; and further provided, that the obtaining of a real estate dealer’s license by such person shall not authorize such nonresident to engage in the real estate business in this State, and provided further that in all prosecutions under this section, a certificate under the hand and seal of the Commissioner of Revenue that the accused filed no income tax returns with his department for the preceding taxable year shall be prima facie evidence that the accused is a nonresident and that his license is void.

(b) Persons practicing the professional art of healing for a fee or reward shall be exempt from the payment of the license tax levied in the preceding paragraph of this section, if such persons are adherents of established churches or religious organizations and confine their healing practice to prayer or spiritual means.

(c) Every person engaged in the public practice of accounting as a principal, or as a manager of the business of public accountant, shall pay for such license twenty-five dollars ($25.00), and in addition shall pay a license of twelve and fifty-one-hundredths dollars ($12.50) for each person employed who is engaged in the capacity of supervising or handling the work of auditing, devising or installing systems of accounts.

(d) Every licensed mortician or embalmer shall in like manner apply for and obtain from the Commissioner of Revenue a State-wide license for practicing his profession, whether for himself or in the employ of another of ten dollars ($10.00).

(e) Licenses issued under this section are issued as personal privilege licenses and shall not be issued in the name of a firm or corporation: Provided, that a licensed photographer having a located place of business in this State, shall be liable for a license tax on each agent or solicitor, employed by him for soliciting business. If any person engages in more than one of the activities for which a privilege tax is levied by this section, such person shall be liable for a privilege tax with respect to each activity engaged in.

(g) License revocable for failure to pay tax. Whenever it shall be made to appear to any judge of the superior court that any person practicing any profession for which the payment of a license tax is required by this section has failed, or fails, to pay the professional tax levied in this section, and execution has been issued for the same by the Commissioner of Revenue and returned by the proper officer "no property to be found," or returned for other cause without payment of the tax, it shall be the duty of the judge presiding in the superior court of the county in which such person resides, upon presentation therefor, to cause the clerk of said court to issue a rule requiring such person to show cause by the next term of court why such person should not be deprived of license to practice such profession for failure to pay such professional tax. Such rule shall be served by the sheriff upon said person twenty days before the next term of the court, and if at the return term of court such person fails to show sufficient cause, the said judge may enter a judgment suspending the professional license of such person until all such tax as may be due shall have been paid, and such order of suspension shall be binding upon all courts, boards and commissions having authority of law in this State with respect to the granting or continuing of license to practice any such profession.

(h) Counties, cities, or towns shall not levy any license tax on the business or professions taxed under this section; and the State-wide license herein provided for shall privilege the licensee to engage in such business or profession in every county, city, or town in this State. (1939, c. 158, s. 109; 1941, c. 50, s. 3; 1943, c. 400, s. 2; 1949, c. 683; 1953, c. 1306; 1957, c. 1064.)

Editor's Note. — The 1941 amendment struck out a provision of subsection (h) excepting photographers, etc. Prior to the amendment each county and city had the privilege of levying a similar tax upon photographers. Lucas v. Charlotte, 14 F. Supp. 163 (1936).

The 1949 amendment added a part of subsection (a).

The 1953 amendment struck out near the beginning of the first sentence of subsection (a) the words "civil engineer, electrical engineer, mining engineer, mechanical engineer" and inserted in lieu thereof the words "every practicing professional engineer as defined in chapter 89 of the General Statutes every practicing land surveyor as defined in chapter 89 of the General Statutes, every". The 1957 amendment inserted subsection (b).

For comment on the 1943 amendment, see 21 N. C. Law Rev. 367.

Persons Making "Negatives" Are Photographers Subject to License Tax.—To solicit persons to have their photographs taken, arrange for the sitting, and actually have the camera present and take what is popularly called a picture, but in fact is a "negative," which is the outline of the subject on glass, is engaging within the State in the profession or business of photography within the meaning of this section. Lucas v. Charlotte, 14 F. Supp. 163 (1936). Although the "negatives" are sent to an § 105-41.1. Bondsmen. — Every person, firm, or corporation, excepting agents of insurance or bonding companies which are licensed by the Commissioner of Insurance to issue bonds, engaged in the business of writing or executing, for a consideration, appearance, compliance, or bail bonds, or any type of bond or undertaking required in connection with criminal proceedings in any of the courts of this State, shall apply for and obtain from the Commissioner of Revenue a State-wide license for the privilege of engaging in such business and shall pay for such license the following tax:

- In cities or towns of less than 2,000 population .................. $10.00
- In cities or towns of 2,000 and less than 5,000 population .... 15.00
- In cities or towns of 5,000 and less than 10,000 population .... 20.00
- In cities or towns of 10,000 population or over ................ 40.00

If any person, firm, or corporation, required to be licensed under the provisions of this section, engages in said business in two or more cities or towns, such person, firm, or corporation shall procure a license based on the population of the largest city or town in which the business taxed under this section is carried on.

Counties, cities and towns may levy a license tax on the business taxed under this section in an amount not in excess of the tax levied by the State.

Persons, firms or corporations licensed hereunder who or which do not engage in any of the kinds of insurance business described in § 58-72 shall be exempt from being licensed or regulated by the Commissioner of Insurance. (1943, c. 400, s. 2; 1945, c. 708, s. 2; 1947, c. 501, s. 2.)

Editor's Note.—The 1945 amendment inserted the paragraph following the table of tax amounts. The 1947 amendment added the last paragraph.

§ 105-42. Detectives. — Every person, whether acting as an individual, as a member of a partnership, or as an officer and/or agent of a corporation, who is engaged in business as a detective or what is ordinarily known as “secret service work,” or who is engaged in the business of soliciting such business, shall apply for and obtain from the Commissioner of Revenue a State-wide license for the privilege of engaging in such business, and shall pay for such license a tax of twenty-five dollars ($25.00): Provided, any such person regularly employed by the United States government, any state or political subdivision of any state shall not be required to pay the license herein provided for. (1939, c. 158, s. 110.)

§ 105-43. Real estate auction sales.—(a) Every person, firm, or corporation engaged in the business of conducting auction sales of real estate for profit or compensation shall apply for and obtain from the Commissioner of Revenue a State-wide license for the privilege of engaging in such business in this State, and shall pay for such license a tax of two hundred and fifty dollars ($250.00).

Provided, that any person, firm, or corporation engaged in the business of conducting auction sales in one county only in this State, shall be liable for a license tax in the amount of seventy-five dollars ($75.00).

(b) This section shall not apply to sales for foreclosure of liens or sales made by order of court.

(c) Counties, cities, and towns may levy a tax on the business taxed under this § 105-44. Coal and coke dealers.—(a) Every person, firm, or corporation, either as agent or principal, engaged in and conducting the business of selling and/or delivering coal or coke in carload lots, or in greater quantities, shall be deemed a wholesale dealer, and shall apply for and procure from the Revenue Commissioner a State license and pay for such license the sum of seventy-five dollars ($75.00): Provided, that if such wholesale dealer shall also sell and/or deliver coal or coke in less than carload lots, he shall not be subject to the retailer's license tax provided in this section.

(b) Every person, firm, or corporation engaged in and conducting the business of selling and/or delivering coal or coke at retail shall apply for and procure from the Commissioner of Revenue a State license, and shall pay for such license for each city or town in which such coal or coke is sold or delivered, as follows:

Dealers or peddlers in coal who sell in quantities of not more than one hundred (100) pounds shall pay a State license tax of five dollars ($5.00); provided that this section shall not apply to persons, firms or corporations who deliver coal or coke to State institutions or public schools only.

(c) No county shall levy any license tax on the business taxed under this section, but cities and towns may levy a license tax not in excess of that levied by the State.

(d) From the taxes levied under authority of this section, any person, firm or corporation owning or operating a coal mine in this State shall be allowed to deduct the amount of ad valorem taxes for the current year levied by any county in this State on the mine, mineral rights or land itself, from which said coal is mined: Provided, further, that any person, firm or corporation soliciting orders for pool cars of coal to be distributed without profit shall be subject to the license tax.

(e) The operator of any truck, automobile, or other motor vehicle coming into this State from another state and selling and/or delivering coal or coke, other than to a person, firm, or corporation taxed under this section, shall pay an annual license tax for the privilege of doing business in this State in cities or towns of less than 2,500 population, ten dollars ($10.00); in cities or towns of 2,500 and less than 5,000 population, fifteen dollars ($15.00); in cities or towns of 5,000 and less than 10,000 population, twenty-five dollars ($25.00); in cities or towns of 10,000 and less than 25,000 population, fifty dollars ($50.00); in cities and towns of 25,000 and over, seventy-five dollars ($75.00). The license secured from the State under this section shall be conspicuously posted within the truck, automobile, or other motor vehicle. This license tax shall be in addition to all other taxes and fees imposed upon such persons by law. (1939, c. 158, s. 112; 1941, c. 50, s. 3; 1959, c. 1259, s. 9B.)

Editor's Note. — The 1941 amendment added the proviso at the end of subsection (b) and changed subsection (d).

Census Applicable for 1940.—In ascertaining the State license tax on businesses in accordance with the graduated scale based upon the population of the municipalities in which the business is operated, for the tax year beginning July 1, 1940, the Commissioner of Revenue properly used the 1930 United States census figures, since the 1940 figures were not available at the § 105-45. Collecting agencies.—(a) Every person, firm, or corporation engaged in the business of collecting, for a profit, claims, accounts, bills, notes, or other money obligations for others, and of rendering an account for same, shall be deemed a collection agency, and shall apply for and receive from the Commissioner of Revenue a State license for the privilege of engaging in such business, and pay for such license a tax of fifty dollars ($50.00).

(b) This section shall not apply to a regularly licensed practicing attorney at law.

§ 105-46. Undertakers and retail dealers in coffins.—Every person, firm, or corporation engaged in the business of burying the dead, or in the retail sale of coffins, shall apply for and procure from the Revenue Commissioner a State license for transacting such business within this State, and shall pay for such license the following tax:

This section shall not apply to a cabinetmaker (who is not an undertaker) who makes coffins to order.

No county shall levy any license tax on the business taxed under this section, but cities and towns may levy a license tax not in excess of that levied by the State. (1939, c. 158, s. 114.)

§ 105-47. Dealers in horses and/or mules. — (a) Every person, firm, or corporation engaged in the business of purchasing for the purpose of resale, either at wholesale or retail, horses and/or mules shall apply for and procure from the Commissioner of Revenue a State license for the privilege of engaging in such business in this State and shall pay for such license an annual tax for each location where such business is carried on as follows:

Where not more than one carload of horses and/or mules is purchased for the purpose of resale ........................................ $ 25.00

Where more than one carload and not more than two carloads of horses and/or mules are purchased for the purpose of resale ........................................ 50.00

Where more than two carloads of horses and/or mules are purchased for the purpose of resale ........................................ 100.00

For the purpose of calculating the amount of tax due under the above schedule, a carload of horses and/or mules shall be twenty-five (25) and purchases for the preceding license tax year shall be used as a medium for arriving at the amount of tax due for the ensuing year: Provided, however, that if during the current license year horses and/or mules are purchased for the purpose of resale in such quantities that would establish liability for a greater tax than that previously paid, it shall be immediately remitted to the Commissioner of Revenue with the license which has already been issued in order that it may be cancelled and a corrected license issued.

(b) In addition to the above license, every person, firm, or corporation engaged in the business of purchasing for the purpose of resale and/or selling horses and/or mules at public auction, either on his or its own behalf or for any other § 105-48. Phrenologists.—Any person engaged in the practice of phrenology for compensation shall procure from the Commissioner of Revenue a State license for engaging in such practice, and shall pay for same a tax of two hundred dollars ($200.00) for each county in which such person does business.

Counties, cities, and towns may levy any license tax on the business taxed under this section in excess of twelve dollars and fifty cents ($12.50).

§ 105-48.1. Itinerant photographers, their agents and employees.

(a) It is hereby declared that it is in the public interest to require the licensing of persons practicing the profession or occupation of an itinerant photographer and to license an itinerant photographer's employees, agents or servants. An itinerant photographer is defined to be a person, partnership or corporation having no regularly established place of business in this State who personally or through officers, employees, agents or servants goes from town to town or from place to place within a town other than within the county of his residence, soliciting the making of photographic pictures or reproductions with a view to selling

Interstate Commerce.—The license tax imposed on dealers purchasing horses or mules for resale by this section, is applicable regardless of whether such animals were raised in this State or are shipped into the State from other states, and therefore the statute makes no discrimination between local and interstate commerce. Nesbitt v. Gill, 227 N. C. 174, 41 S. E. (2d) 646 (1947).

Head Tax on Animals Bought for Resale.—For case construing former provisions of this section, see Nesbitt v. Gill, 227 N. C. 174, 41 S. E. (2d) 646 (1947).
§ 105-49. Bicycle dealers.—Any person, firm, or corporation engaged in the business of buying and/or selling bicycles, supplies and accessories shall apply for and procure a State license from the Commissioner of Revenue for the privilege of transacting such business, and shall pay tax for such license as follows:

§ 105-50. Pawnbrokers. — (a) Every person, firm, or corporation engaged in and conducting the business of lending or advancing money or other things of value for a profit, and taking as a pledge for such loan specific articles of personal property, to be forfeited if payment is not made within a definite time, shall be deemed a pawnbroker, and shall pay for the privilege of transacting such business an annual license as follows:

(b) Before such pawnbroker shall receive any article or thing of value from any person or persons, on which a loan or advance is made, he shall issue a duplicate ticket, one to be delivered to the owner of said personal property and the other to be attached to the article, and said ticket shall have an identifying number on the one side, together with the date at the expiration of which the pledger forfeits his right to redeem, and on the other a full and complete copy of this subsection; but such pawnbroker may, after the pledger has forfeited his right to redeem the specific property pledged, sell the same at public auction, deducting from the proceeds of sale the money or fair value of the thing advanced, the interest accrued, and the cost of making sale, and shall pay the surplus remaining to the pledger.

(c) Any person, firm, or corporation transacting the business of pawnbroker without a license as provided in this section, or violating any of the provisions...
§ 105-51. Cash registers, adding machines, typewriters, refrigerating machines, washing machines, etc.—Every person, firm, or corporation engaged in the business of selling and/or delivering and/or renting cash registers, typewriters, adding or bookkeeping machines, billing machines, check protectors or protectographs, kelvinators, frigidaires, or other refrigerating machines, lighting systems, washing machines, mechanically or electrically operated burglar alarms, addressograph machines, multigraph and other duplicating machines, vacuum cleaners, mechanically or electrically operated oil burners and coal stokers, card punching, assorting and tabulating machinery, shall apply for and procure from the Commissioner of Revenue a State license for each place where such business is transacted in this State, and shall pay for such license a tax of ten dollars ($10.00).

Counties, cities, and towns shall not levy a license tax on the business taxed under this section. (1939, c. 158, s. 119.)

§ 105-52. Sewing machines.—(a) Every person, firm, or corporation engaged in the business of selling sewing machines within this State shall apply for and obtain from the Commissioner of Revenue a State-wide license for the privilege of engaging in such business and shall pay for such license a tax of one hundred dollars ($100.00) per annum for each such make of machines sold or offered for sale.

(c) Any person, firm, or corporation obtaining a license under the foregoing sections may employ agents and secure a duplicate copy of such license for each such agent by paying a tax of ten dollars ($10.00) to the Commissioner of Revenue. Each such duplicate license so issued shall contain the name of the agent to whom it is issued, shall not be transferable, and shall license the licensee to sell or offer for sale only the sewing machines sold by the holder of the original license.

(d) Any merchant or dealer who shall purchase sewing machines from a manufacturer or a dealer who has paid the license tax provided for in this section may sell such sewing machines without paying the annual State-wide license tax provided for in subsection (a), but shall procure the duplicate license provided as security. Brokers and pawnbrokers constitute distinct classes, and entirely different license taxes may be assessed upon them. Schaul & Co. v. Charlotte, 118 N. C. 733, 24 S. E. 526 (1940).

for in subsection (c) of this section: Provided, that the tax imposed by this subsection shall be the only tax required to be paid by dealers in secondhand sewing machines exclusively.

(e) Any person, firm, or corporation who or which violates any of the provisions of this section shall, in addition to all other penalties imposed in this article, pay an additional tax of double the State-wide annual license, and the duplicate tax imposed in this section.

(f) No county shall levy a license tax on the business taxed under this section, except that the county may levy a license tax not in excess of five dollars ($5.00) on each agent in a county who holds a duplicate license provided for in this section.

Cities and towns shall not levy a license tax on the business taxed under this section. (1939, c. 158, s. 120.)

§ 105-53. Peddlers.—(a) Any person, firm, or corporation who or which shall carry from place to place any goods, wares, or merchandise, and offer to sell or barter the same, or actually sells or barters the same, shall be deemed a peddler, except such person, firm, or corporation who or which is a wholesale dealer, with an established warehouse in this State and selling only to merchants for resale, and shall apply for and procure from the Commissioner of Revenue a State license for the privilege of transacting such business, and shall pay for such license the following tax:

Peddler, on foot, for each county .......................... $ 10.00
Peddler, with horse or other animal, and with or without vehicle, each county, for each vehicle .......................... 15.00
Peddler, resident of this State, with vehicle propelled by motor or other mechanical power, for each county, for each vehicle ...... 25.00
Peddler, not a resident of this State, with vehicle propelled by motor or other mechanical power, for four or less counties, for each vehicle .......................... 100.00
Peddler, not a resident of this State, with vehicle propelled by motor or other mechanical power, for each county in excess of four, for each vehicle .......................... 25.00

(b) Any person, firm, or corporation employing the services of another as a peddler, either on a salary or commission basis, and/or furnishing spices, flavoring extracts, toilet articles, soaps, insecticide, proprietary medicine and household remedies in original packages of the manufacturer and other packaged articles of the kind commonly used on the farm and in the home, to be sold by a peddler, under any kind of contractual agreement, shall be liable for the payment of taxes levied in this section, instead of the peddler.

Provided, however, any person peddling fruits, vegetables, or products of the farm shall pay a license tax of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) per year, which license shall be State-wide. Counties, cities and towns may levy a tax under this subsection not in excess of one-half of the State tax. Provided, however, no county, city or town shall issue any license, or permit any person, firm, or corporation to do any business under the provisions of this subsection, until and unless such person shall produce and exhibit to the tax collector of such county, city or town, his or its State license for the privilege of engaging in such business.

(c) Any person, firm or corporation who or which sells or offers to sell from a cart, truck, automobile, or other vehicle operated over and upon the streets and/or highways within this State any fresh fruits and/or vegetables shall be deemed a peddler within the meaning of this section and shall pay the annual license tax levied in subsection (a) of this section with reference to the character of the vehicle employed. Any person, firm, or corporation who or which sells or offers for sale from any railway car fresh fruits and/or vegetables shall be deemed a peddler within the meaning of this section, and shall pay an annual tax... of twenty-five dollars ($25.00). Nothing in this section shall apply to the sale of farm products raised on the premises owned or occupied by the person, firm, or corporation, his or its bona fide agent or employee selling same.

(d) Every itinerant salesman or merchant who shall expose for sale, either on the street or in a building occupied, in whole or in part, for that purpose, any goods, wares or merchandise, not being a regular merchant in such county, shall apply for in advance and procure a State license from the Commissioner of Revenue for the privilege of transacting such business, and shall pay for such license a tax of one hundred dollars ($100.00) in each county in which he shall conduct or carry on such business.

Any salesman or merchant, offering for sale goods, wares or merchandise, other than fruits and farm products, shall be deemed an itinerant, within the meaning of this subsection, who conducts said business within the county for less than six consecutive months, except in case of discontinuance for one of the reasons hereinafter mentioned. When any salesman or merchant, beginning said business, does not pay the tax herein levied in advance, on the ground of stated intention to become a regular merchant, the Commissioner of Revenue may, in his discretion, require said salesman or merchant to post satisfactory bond, or make a cash deposit, in the sum of one hundred dollars ($100.00), which bond or deposit shall be forfeited in payment of the tax herein levied in case such salesman or merchant discontinues said business in the county within less than six months for any reason other than death or disablement of said salesman or merchant, or insolvency of said business, or destruction of the stock by fire or other catastrophe. In like manner the tax collector of any county or city levying a tax, as permitted by subsection (g), on the business taxed in this subsection, may, in his discretion, require posting of satisfactory bond or cash deposit in an amount equivalent to the tax so levied by said county or city; and said bond or deposit shall in like manner be subject to forfeiture in payment of said tax. Any salesman or merchant failing to post such bond or make such deposit within three days after being notified to do so by the Commissioner or collector, shall immediately become liable for the taxes levied or authorized to be levied on the business taxed in this subsection. When any salesman or merchant, having been required to post such bond or deposit, has conducted said business for six consecutive months, or has discontinued said business within six months for one of the reasons specifically mentioned herein, he shall be entitled to have said bond cancelled or said deposit returned.

(e) The provisions of this section shall not apply to any person, firm, or corporation who sells or offers for sale books, periodicals, printed music, ice, wood for fuel, fish, beef, mutton, pork, bread, cakes, pies, products of the dairy, poultry, eggs, livestock, or articles produced by the individual vendor offering them for sale, but shall apply to medicines, drugs, or articles assembled.

(f) The board of county commissioners of any county in this State, upon proper application, may exempt from the annual license tax levied in this section Confederate soldiers, disabled veterans of the Spanish-American War, disabled soldiers of the first and second World Wars, who have been bona fide residents of this State for twelve or more months, continuously, and the blind who have been bona fide residents of this State for twelve or more months continuously, widows with dependent children; and when so exempted, the board of county commissioners shall furnish such person or persons with a certificate of exemption, and such certificate shall entitle the holder thereof to peddle within the limits of such county without payment of any license tax to the State.

(g) Counties, cities, or towns may levy a license tax on the business taxed under this section not in excess of the annual license levied by the State. But the board of county commissioners of any county may levy a license tax on the business taxed in this section not in excess of that levied by the State for each unincorporated town or village in the county with a population of one thousand or more within a radius of one mile in which such business is engaged in; and any county or city may levy on peddlers of goods, wares, or merchandise with vehicle propelled by motor or other mechanical power, taxed by the State under subsection (a) of this section, a tax not exceeding two hundred dollars ($200.00) for each vehicle, which said tax may, in the discretion of the governing body, be graduated in accordance with the size or weight of said vehicles, the amount of merchandising space in and on said vehicles, the average value of goods carried, the types of products offered for sale, or any other reasonable principle, except that the tax levied hereunder on account of a vehicle of one-half ton capacity or less shall not exceed twenty-five dollars ($25.00).

No county, city, or town shall levy any license tax under this section upon the persons so exempted in this section, nor upon any person, firm or corporation who or which is a wholesale dealer, with an established warehouse in this State and selling only to merchants for resale, nor upon drummers selling by wholesale.

(h) Any person, firm, or corporation who or which maintains a fixed permanent location at or in which at least ninety per cent (90%) of his or its total sales volume is made and who or which pays all applicable State and local taxes for such fixed permanent location shall not be deemed a peddler with respect to other sales which may be made from vehicles within the county wherein the fixed permanent location is maintained. (1939, c. 158, s. 121; 1941, c. 50, s. 3; 1943, c. 400, s. 2; 1945, c. 708, s. 2; 1951, c. 643, s. 2; 1955, c. 1315.)

Local Modification.—Gates, as to subsection (g): 1955, c. 923; Hyde, as to subsection (g): 1955, c. 632.

Cross Reference.—As to exemption of gasoline sold to dealers for resale, see § 105-58, subsection (a), subdivision (5).

Editor's Note.—The 1941 amendment struck out the former provision relating to display of samples, etc., in hotel rooms, etc.

The 1943 amendment inserted in the first paragraph of subsection (b) a provision as to furnishing merchandise to be sold under agreement.

The 1945 amendment rewrote the first paragraph of subsection (b), substituted “wood for fuel” for “wood or fuel” in subsection (e) and substituted “first and second World Wars” for “World War” in subsection (f).

The 1951 amendment inserted “resident of this state” in the third item of the license tax schedule in subsection (a) and added at the end of such schedule the two classifications of nonresident peddlers. The amendment also added subsection (h) at the end of the section.

The 1955 amendment inserted in the second paragraph of subsection (g) the provisions as to “wholesale dealer.”

For comment on the 1943 amendment, see 21 N. C. Law Rev. 367.

Nature of Peddling.—To peddle is not a matter of right under our laws, which any person can demand upon the payment of the tax. It is a privilege. It is discretionary with the county commissioners whether or not they will grant a license to a peddler.

The privilege is personal to the applicant, and is not assignable. State v. Rhyne, 119 N. C. 905, 26 S. E. 126 (1896).

Power of Legislature.—Under the North Carolina Constitution, Art. V, § 3, the General Assembly may tax trades, etc. The term “trade” includes the business of peddling. Smith v. Wilkins, 104 N. C. 155, 80 S. E. 168 (1913).

Nature of Tax.—Peddlers and transient dealers are commonly taxed a specific sum because they are likely to escape any other tax. A peddler’s tax is on the occupation, not on the goods, and one who engages in the business, whether as agent or owner, must pay it. State v. Rhyne, 119 N. C. 905, 26 S. E. 126 (1896).

Peddler defined.—A peddler is one who sells and delivers the identical goods he carries about with him. State v. Lee, 113 N. C. 681, 18 S. E. 713 (1893).

A peddler is primarily one who travels around on foot, selling or bartering the identical goods he carries. State v. Frank, 130 N. C. 724, 41 S. E. 785 (1902).

Such as Peddling Ice Cream.—Under a license issued in accordance with general state law, the sale and offering for sale of ice cream products on public streets in the area covered by such license is a law-

A city cannot, by ordinance, prohibit conduct that is legalized and sanctioned by the General Assembly. Eastern Carolina Tastee-Freez, Inc. v. Raleigh, 256 N. C. 208, 123 S. E. (2d) 632 (1962), holding invalid a municipal ordinance prohibiting the peddling of ice cream along the streets and sidewalks of a city.

Whether City May Prohibit or Regulate Selling on Streets Depends on Delegated Powers.—Whether a municipal corporation has the power to regulate or prohibit the sale of articles of merchandise on its streets and sidewalks depends upon the legislative power delegated to it by the state legislature. State v. Byrd, 259 N. C. 141, 130 S. E. (2d) 55 (1963).

There Is No Express Grant of Powers as to Peddling.—Section 160-200, which sets forth express powers conferred on municipal corporations, contains no provision relating to the prohibition or regulation of the business or occupation of peddling. State v. Byrd, 259 N. C. 141, 130 S. E. (2d) 55 (1963).

Other Than to Impose License Taxes.—No express power has been conferred by the General Assembly on municipal corporations to prohibit or to regulate the business or occupation of peddling otherwise than by imposing license taxes thereon. State v. Byrd, 259 N. C. 141, 130 S. E. (2d) 55 (1963).

But City Has Implied Power to Regulate Selling on Streets from Mobile Units.—In the exercise of express powers conferred upon municipal corporations by the General Assembly a municipal corporation has the implied power to adopt an ordinance providing for the reasonable regulation, but not for the prohibition, of the sale and offering for sale of merchandise upon its streets from mobile units. State v. Byrd, 259 N. C. 141, 130 S. E. (2d) 55 (1963).

Sales by Samples.—It was held that a former statute, similar to this section, did not apply to a person selling watermelons in wholesale lots in the city of Salisbury, to be shipped from a nearby town, and only delivered to those from whom he had taken orders. State v. Ninestein, 132 N. C. 1039, 43 S. E. 936 (1903).

The words “any articles of the farm,” in an earlier statute, were used to embrace all the products of the farm, and a farmer who butchered cattle raised on his farm and sold the beef was not a peddler. State v. Smith, 173 N. C. 772, 92 S. E. 325 (1917).

Statute Not Applicable to Citizens of Other States.—The provision of a statute similar to this was held unconstitutional on the grounds that it was made to apply to citizens of other states, thus regulating interstate commerce. In re Spain, 47 F. 208 (1891). See also, In re Flinn, 57 F. 496 (1893).

Former Subsection Requiring License for Display of Goods by One Not Regular Retailer Was Unconstitutional. — Former subsection (e), requiring one not a regular retail merchant in North Carolina to obtain a $250 license to entitle him to display goods for purpose of securing orders for retail sale, violated “commerce” clause of federal Constitution as applied to a New York merchandise establishment which rented display room in a North Carolina hotel for several days and took orders for goods corresponding to samples, which orders were filed by shipping direct to customers from New York City, where regular retail merchants in North Carolina were subject to only an annual $1 license tax for privilege of doing business. Best & Co. v. Maxwell, 311 U. S. 454, 61 S. Ct. 334, 85 L. Ed. 275 (1940). For note on this case, see 18 N. C. Law Rev. 48.

Subsections (e) and (g) relate exclusively to privilege taxes upon peddlers. State v. Bridges, 211 N. C. 235, 189 S. E. 869 (1937).
Subsection (g) Does Not Prohibit City Tax on Trades and Businesses. — A tax levied under the general authority given a city in its charter, authorizing the levying of a tax upon trades and businesses carried on within its corporate limits is not such a tax as is prohibited by subsection (g) of this section. The prohibition relates to license taxes levied “under this section.” The tax complained of was not levied “under this section.” State v. Bridgers, 211 N. C. 235, 189 S. E. 869 (1937).

Discretion of County Commissioners to Grant Exemptions.—The discretion vested in the county commissioners to exempt from the peddler’s tax the “poor and infirm” is necessary to the administration of statutes like this, and will not be interfered with unless arbitrarily exercised. Smith v. Wilkins, 164 N. C. 135, 80 S. E. 168 (1919).

Presumption as to Having License. — The case of State v. Crump, 104 N. C. 763, 10 S. E. 468 (1889), contains a dictum to the effect that if a peddler is required by proper authorities to exhibit his license and he fails to do so the presumption is that he has none.

§ 105-54. Contractors and construction companies.—(a) Every person, firm, or corporation who, for a fixed price, commission, fee, or wage, offers or bids to construct within the State of North Carolina any building, highway, street, sidewalk, bridge, culvert, sewer or water system, drainage or dredging system, electric or steam railway, reservoir or dam, hydraulic or power plant, transmission line, tower, dock, wharf, excavation, grading or other improvement or structure, or any part thereof, the cost of which exceeds the sum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00), shall apply for and obtain from the Commissioner of Revenue an annual State-wide license, and shall pay for such license a tax of one hundred dollars ($100.00) at the time of or prior to offering or submitting any bid on any of the above enumerated projects.

(b) In addition to the tax levied in subsection (a) of this section, every person, firm, or corporation who, for a fixed price, commission, fee, or wage, undertakes or executes a contract for the construction, or who superintends the construction of any of the above enumerated projects, shall, before or at the time of entering into such projects and/or such contract, apply for and procure from the Commissioner of Revenue a State-wide license, and shall pay for such license the following tax:

When the total contract price or estimated cost of such project is over:

(c) The application for license under subsection (b) of this section shall be made to the Commissioner of Revenue and shall be accompanied by the affidavit of the applicant, stating the contract price, if known, and if the contract price is not known, his estimate of the entire cost of the said improvement or structure, and if the applicant proposes to construct only a part of said improvement or structures, the contract price, if known, or his estimated cost of the part of the project he proposes to superintend or construct.

In the event the construction of any of the above-mentioned improvements or structures shall be divided and let under two or more contracts to the same person, firm, or corporation, the several contracts shall be considered as one contract for the purpose of this article, and the Commissioner of Revenue shall collect from such person, firm, or corporation the license tax herein imposed as if only one contract had been entered into for the entire improvement or structure.

(d) In the event any person, firm, or corporation has procured a license in one of the lower classes provided for in subsection (b) of this section, and constructs or undertakes to construct or to superintend any of the above-mentioned improvements or structures or parts thereof, the completed cost of which is greater than that covered by the license already secured, application shall be made to the Commissioner of Revenue, accompanied by the license certificate held by the applicant, which shall be surrendered to the Commissioner of Revenue, and upon paying the difference between the cost of the license surrendered and the price of the license applied for, the Commissioner of Revenue shall issue to the applicant the annual State-wide license applied for, showing thereon that it was issued on the surrender of the former license and payment of the additional tax.

(e) No employee or subcontractor of any person, firm, or corporation who or which has paid the tax herein provided for, shall be required to pay the license tax provided for in this section while so employed by such person, firm, or corporation.

(f) In the event joint bidders shall submit one joint bid for the construction of any of the projects enumerated under subsection (a), each of the joint bidders shall procure in his own name a bidder's license under subsection (a); provided, that if a joint bidder has already procured a bidder's license for the current year, he will not be required to procure an additional bidder's license by reason of joining in a joint bid, and the license so procured shall entitle the licensee to submit other bids, either severally or in conjunction with others, during the remainder of the current license tax year. In the event a contract shall be awarded to joint bidders, a new project license shall be procured under subsection (b) in the full amount of the contract price or estimated cost of the project, in the same name or names under which the contract is awarded, which new license will be valid for the remainder of the license tax year for the same combination of joint bidders in other joint projects, but will not be valid for a part of the joint bidders, nor for all of them plus others, nor for a part of them plus others.

For the purpose of this subsection, "joint bidders" shall mean two or more separate entities consisting of either individuals, partnerships or corporations who or which combine for the purpose of submitting one joint bid for the construction of a particular project, or who or which jointly enter into a contract for the construction of a particular project.

(g) Counties shall not levy any license tax on the business taxed under this section, but cities and towns may levy an annual contractor's license tax not in excess of ten dollars ($10.00) when the license provided for under this section has been paid: Provided, that this subsection shall not be construed to prevent the collection of building, electrical, and plumbing inspection charges by municipalities to cover the actual cost of said inspection.

(h) The tax under this section shall not apply to the business taxed in § 105-91. (1939, c. 158, s. 122.)

Editor's Note. — The 1951 amendment (g) as (g) and (h), respectively, and redesignated former subsections (f) and inserted present subsection (f).

§ 105-55. Installing elevators and automatic sprinkler systems.—

(a) Every person, firm, or corporation engaged in the business of selling or installing elevators or automatic sprinkler systems shall apply for and procure from the Commissioner of Revenue an annual State-wide license for the transaction of such business in this State, and shall pay for such license a tax of one hundred dollars ($100.00).

(b) Counties, cities, and towns in which there is located a principal office or a branch office may levy a tax on the business taxed under this section not in excess of that levied by the State. Provided, however, no county, city, or town may collect tax under this section from any person, firm, or corporation who or which does not maintain an established place of business in said county, city or town.

§ 105-56. Repairing and servicing elevators and automatic sprinkler systems.—(a) Every person, firm, or corporation engaged in the business of repairing or servicing elevators or automatic sprinkler systems, shall apply for and procure from the Commissioner of Revenue, an annual State-wide license for the transaction of such business in this State and shall pay for such license the following tax based on population:

- Municipalities of less than two thousand population .............. $ 5.00
- Municipalities of more than two thousand and less than five thousand population ................................. 7.50
- Municipalities of more than five thousand and less than ten thousand population ................................. 10.00
- Municipalities of more than ten thousand and less than twenty thousand population .............................. 12.50
- Municipalities of more than twenty thousand and less than thirty thousand population .............................. 15.00
- Municipalities of more than thirty thousand and less than forty thousand population .............................. 17.50
- Municipalities of more than forty thousand and less than fifty thousand population .............................. 20.00
- Municipalities of more than fifty thousand population .............. 25.00

(b) Counties, cities and towns in which there is located a principal office or a branch office may levy a tax on the business taxed under this section not in excess of that levied by the State.

Provided, however, no county, city or town may collect tax under this section from any person, firm, or corporation who, or which, does not maintain an established place of business in said county, city or town.

(c) If any person, firm, or corporation, required to be licensed under the provisions of this section, engages in said business in two or more cities or towns, such person, firm or corporation shall procure a license based on the population of the largest city or town in which the business taxed under this section is carried on.

(d) The tax under this section shall not apply to the business taxed in §§ 105-55 and 105-91. (1939, c. 158, s. 12234; 1947, c. 501, s. 2.)

§ 105-57. Mercantile agencies.—(a) Every person, firm or corporation engaged in the business of reporting the financial standing of persons, firms or corporations for compensation shall be deemed a mercantile agency, and shall apply for and procure from the Commissioner of Revenue a State-wide license for the privilege of transacting such business within this State, and shall pay for such license a tax of five hundred dollars ($500.00), the said tax to be paid by the principal office in the State, and if no such principal office in this State, then by the agent of such mercantile agency operating in this State: Provided, however, that mercantile agencies not publishing a State-wide credit or financial rating book shall pay only an annual tax of one hundred dollars ($100.00).

(b) Any person representing any mercantile agency which has failed to pay the license tax provided for in this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and fined and/or imprisoned in the discretion of the court.

(c) Counties, cities, or towns shall not levy any license tax on mercantile agencies, as herein defined. (1939, c. 158, s. 1234; 1941, c. 50, s. 3.)

Editor's Note. — The 1941 amendment rewrote this section.

§ 105-58. Gypsies and fortunetellers.—(a) Every company of gypsies or strolling bands of persons, living in wagons, tents, or otherwise, who or any of whom trade horses, mules, or other things of value, or receive reward for telling or pretending to tell fortunes, shall apply for in advance and procure from the Commissioner of Revenue a State license for the privilege of transacting such things, and shall pay for such license a tax of five hundred dollars ($500.00) in each county in which they offer to trade horses, mules, or other things of value, or to practice the telling of fortunes or any of their crafts. The amount of such license tax shall be recoverable out of any property belonging to any member of such company.

(b) Any person or persons, other than those mentioned in subsection (a) of this section, receiving rewards for pretending to tell and/or telling fortunes, practicing the art of palmistry, clairvoyance and other crafts of a similar kind, shall apply for in advance and procure from the Commissioner of Revenue a State license for the privilege of practicing such arts or crafts, and shall pay for such license a tax of two hundred dollars ($200.00) for each county in which they offer to practice their profession or crafts: Provided, that the tax levied under this section shall not apply to fortunetellers or other artists practicing the art of palmistry, clairvoyance, and other crafts of a similar kind, when appearing under contract in regularly licensed theatres taxed under § 105-37.

(c) Counties, cities, and towns may levy any license tax on the business taxed in this section. (1939, c. 158, s. 124; 1945, c. 708, s. 2.)

Editor's Note.—The 1945 amendment rewrote subsection (c).

§ 105-59. Lightning rod agents. — (a) No manufacturer or dealer, whether person, firm, or corporation, shall sell, or offer for sale, in this State any brand of lightning rod, and no agent of such manufacturer or dealer shall sell, or offer for sale, or erect any brand of lightning rod until such brand has been submitted to and approved by the Insurance Commissioner and a license granted for its sale in this State. The fee for such license, including seal, shall be fifty dollars ($50.00).

(b) Upon written notice from any manufacturer or dealer licensed under the preceding subsection of the appointment of a suitable person to act as his agent in this State, and upon filing an application for license upon the prescribed form, the Insurance Commissioner may, if he is satisfied as to the reputation and moral character of such applicant, issue him a license as general agent of such manufacturer or dealer. Said license shall set forth the brand of lightning rod licensed to be sold, and the fee for such license, including seal, shall be fifty dollars ($50.00).

(c) Such general agent may appoint local agents to represent him in any county in the State by paying to the Insurance Commissioner a fee of ten dollars ($10.00) for each such county. Upon filing application for license of such local agent on a prescribed form and paying him a fee of three dollars ($3.00) for each county in which said applicant is to operate, the Insurance Commissioner may, if he is satisfied that such applicant is of good repute and moral character, and is a suitable person to act in such capacity, issue him a license to sell and erect any brand of lightning rod approved for sale by the general agent in such county applied for.

(d) Each general agent shall submit to the Insurance Commissioner semiannually, on January thirty-first and July thirty-first, on prescribed forms, a sworn statement of gross receipts from the sale of lightning rods in this State during the preceding six months, and pay a tax thereon of eighty cents (80c) on each one hundred dollars ($100.00), such returns to be accompanied by an itemized list showing each sale, the county in which sold, and the agent making the sale.

(e) No county, city, or town shall levy a license or privilege tax exceeding twenty dollars ($20.00) on any dealer having a general office or selling from a receiving point.

(f) Licenses issued under this section are not transferable, are valid for only § 105-60. Hotels.—Every person, firm, or corporation engaged in the operation of any hotel in this State shall apply for and procure from the Commissioner of Revenue a State license for the privilege of transacting such business, and shall pay for such license the following tax:

(1) For hotels operating on the American plan for rooms in which rates per person per day are:

(3) The office, dining room, one parlor, kitchen, and two other rooms shall not be counted when calculating the number of rooms in the hotel.

(4) Only one-half of the annual license tax levied in this section shall be levied or collected from resort hotels and boardinghouses which are open for only six months or less in the year: Provided, that the minimum tax under any schedule in this section shall be five dollars ($5.00).

Editor's Note. — The 1943 amendment directed that "over fifteen dollars" in the last line of subdivision (1) be struck out and "fifteen dollars and over" be inserted in lieu thereof. It also directed that "ten dollars and over" be substituted for "over ten dollars" in the last line of subdivision (2). These changes had already been made upon the codification of this section.

§ 105-61. Tourist homes and tourist camps.—(a) Every person, firm, or corporation engaged in the business of operating a tourist home, tourist camp, § 105-62. Restaurants.—(a) Every person, firm, or corporation engaged in the business of operating a restaurant, cafe, cafeteria, hotel, with dining service on the European plan, drugstore, or other place where prepared food is sold, shall apply for and procure from the Commissioner of Revenue a State license for the privilege of transacting such business. The tax for such license shall be based on the number of persons provided with chairs, stools, or benches, and shall be one dollar ($1.00) per person, with a minimum tax of five dollars ($5.00): Provided, that the tax levied in this paragraph shall not apply to industrial plants maintaining a nonprofit restaurant, cafe or cafeteria solely for the convenience of its employees.

(b) All other stands or places where prepared food is sold as a business, and drugstores, service stations, and all other stands or places where prepared sandwiches only are served, shall pay a tax of five dollars ($5.00).

§ 105-63. Cotton compresses.—Every person, firm, or corporation engaged in the business of compressing cotton shall pay an annual license tax of three hundred dollars ($300.00) on each and every compress.

§ 105-64. Billiard and pool tables.—(a) Every person, firm or corporation who shall rent, maintain, own a building wherein there is a table or tables at which billiards or pool is played, whether operated by slot or otherwise, shall apply for and procure from the Commissioner of Revenue a State license for the privilege of operating such billiard or pool tables, and shall pay for such license a tax for each table as follows:

<tr>
<th>Tables measuring not more than 2 feet wide and 4 feet long</th>
<th>$ 5.00</th>

Provided, each such billiard or pool table so licensed shall receive a number and receipt from the Commissioner of Revenue when the license is issued, and it shall be the duty of each operator to attach said numbered license to said table or machine and display the same at all times. Failure to have such license and receipt on display attached to said machine or table shall be prima facie evidence that the tax has not been paid hereunder.

(b) This section shall not apply to fraternal organizations having a national charter, American Legion Posts, or posts or other local organizations of other veterans' organizations chartered by Congress or organized and operating on a State-wide or nation-wide basis, Young Men's Christian Associations, and Young Women's Christian Associations, or nonstock, nonprofit charitable recreational corporations, foundations or centers to which a municipality or county contributes any portion of the operating expense.

(c) If the Commissioner of Revenue shall have issued any such State license to any person, firm, or corporation to operate any billiard or pool tables in any city or town, the board of aldermen or other governing body of such city or town shall have the right at any time, and notwithstanding the issuance of such State license, to prohibit any billiard or pool tables within its limits, unless otherwise provided in its charter; and in the event any city or town shall exercise the right to prohibit the keeping and operation of such billiard or pool tables, the Commissioner of Revenue shall refund the proportion of the tax thereof during the time which the right is not allowed to be exercised bears to the time for which the tax is paid. And, where the Commissioner of Revenue has issued any such license and the said billiard or pool tables is or are to be, or are operated outside of the corporate limits of any incorporated city or town, the board of county commissioners may by resolution request that such license be revoked, and upon receipt of such resolution the Commissioner of Revenue shall forthwith revoke said license and refund the proportion of the tax thereof during the time which the right is not allowed to be exercised bears to the time for which the tax is paid.

(d) Counties may levy a license tax on the business taxed under this section upon such billiard or pool tables as are located outside of incorporated cities or towns, and cities and towns may levy a license tax upon such as are within the city limits, but in neither case shall the license tax so levied be in excess of the tax levied by the State. (1939, c. 158, s. 129; 1943, c. 400, s. 2; 1945, c. 995, s. 1; 1953, c. 1302, s. 2; 1961, c. 965, s. 1.)

Editor's Note.—Prior to the 1943 amendment this section also applied to bowling alleys, which are now covered by § 105-641.

The 1945 amendment inserted in subsection (b) the reference to "other veterans' organizations."

The 1953 amendment made changes in the schedule of taxes in subsection (a).

The 1961 amendment added the part of subsection (b) beginning with "or non-stock."

Constitutionality.—A license tax imposed upon a business is not void as contravening the State Constitution upon the theory that the statute gives an invalid arbitrary power to the county commissioners with reference to the issuance of the license among applicants therefor, as to locality or otherwise; and the tax so imposed will nevertheless remain, these different portions of the law not being so interdependent that one must fall with the other. Brunswick-Balke-Collender Co. v. Mecklenburg, 181 N. C. 386, 107 S. E. 317 (1921).

Same; License without City Limits. — Billiard and pool tables kept open for indiscriminate use by the public are liable to become a source of disorder and demoralization, coming within the police powers, and requiring, in the nature of the business, that power be lodged in some governmental board to withhold or revoke a license imposed by statute for the conduct of the business, and such power lodged in the board of county commissioners, differentiating as to licenses to be issued within and without the city limits, the latter not subject to the same degree of police protection, and requiring a greater license fee, and certain publicity before the license may be issued, etc., is not an unconstitutional discrimination, or the exercise of an invalid arbitrary power, the decision of the commissioners being reviewable in the courts upon the question of whether this power has been arbitrarily and unjustly exercised. Brunswick-Balke-Collender Co. v. Mecklenburg, 181 N. C. 386, 107 S. E. 317 (1921).
§ 105-64.1 Bowling alleys.—(a) Every person, firm, or corporation who shall rent, maintain, or own a building wherein, or any premises on which, there is a bowling alley or alleys of like kind shall apply for and procure from the Commissioner of Revenue a State license for the privilege of operating such bowling alley or alleys, and shall pay for such license a tax of ten dollars ($10.00) for each alley kept or operated.

(c) If the Commissioner of Revenue shall have issued any such State license to any person, firm, or corporation to operate any bowling alley or alleys, in any city or town, the board of aldermen or other governing body of such city or town shall have the right at any time, and notwithstanding the issuance of such State license, to prohibit any bowling alley or alleys of like kind within its limits, unless otherwise provided in its charter; and in the event any city or town shall exercise the right to prohibit the keeping and operation of such bowling alley or alleys of like kind, the Commissioner of Revenue shall refund the proportion of the tax thereof during the time which the right is not allowed to be exercised bears to the time for which the tax is paid. And, where the Commissioner of Revenue has issued any such license and the said bowling alley or alleys is or are to be, or are operated outside of the corporate limits of any incorporated city or town, the board of county commissioners may by resolution request that such license be revoked, and upon receipt of such resolution the Commissioner of Revenue shall forthwith revoke said license and refund the proportion of the tax thereof during the time which the right is not allowed to be exercised bears to the time for which the tax is paid.

(d) Counties may levy a license tax on such bowling alley or alleys of like kind as are located outside of incorporated cities or towns, and cities and towns may levy a license tax upon such as are within the city limits, but in neither case shall the license tax so levied be in excess of the tax levied by the State. (1943, c. 400, s. 2; 1947, c. 501, s. 2; 1961, c. 965, s. 2.)

Editor's Note. — The 1947 amendment inserted "or any premises on which" in subsection (b) beginning with "or non-stock."

§ 105-65. Music machines.—(a) Every person, firm, or corporation engaged in the business of operating, maintaining, or placing on location anywhere within the State of North Carolina, any machine or machines which plays records, or produces music, shall apply for and procure from the Commissioner of Revenue a State-wide license to be known as an annual operator's license, and shall pay for such license the sum of one hundred ($100.00) dollars.

(b) In addition to the above annual operator's license, every person, firm, or corporation operating any of the above machines, shall apply for and obtain from the Commissioner of Revenue, what shall be termed an annual State-wide license for each machine operated and shall pay therefor the sum of ten ($10.00) dollars.

(c) The applicant for license under this section shall, in making application for license, specify the serial number of the machine or machines proposed to be operated, together with a description of the service offered for sale thereby, and the amount of deposit required by or in connection with the operation of such machine or machines. The license shall carry the serial number to correspond with that on the application, and no such license shall under any condition be transferable to any other machines. It shall be the duty of the person in whose place of business the machine is operated or located to see that the proper State
§ 105-65.1 Merchandising dispensers and weighing machines. —

(a) Every person, firm or corporation engaged in the business of operating, maintaining or placing on location anywhere within the State of North Carolina merchandising dispensers in which are kept any article or merchandise to be purchased, or weighing machines, shall be deemed a distributor or operator and shall apply for and procure from the Commissioner of Revenue a State-wide license to be known as an annual distributor's or operator's license, and shall pay for such license the following tax:

- Distributors or operators of 5 or more cigarette dispensers or dispensers of other tobacco products ........................................................................ $250.00
- Distributors or operators of 5 or more drink dispensers ................................................. 100.00
- Distributors or operators of 5 or more food or other merchandising dispensers selling products for 5¢ or more per unit ........................................... 150.00
- Distributors or operators of 5 or more food or other merchandising dispensers selling products for less than 5¢ per unit ........................................ 25.00
- Distributors or operators of 5 or more weighing machines ............................................ 50.00

A person, firm or corporation operating and maintaining soft drink dispensers or any other dispensers as set forth above in places of business operated by him or it, and not elsewhere, shall not be considered a distributor or operator of such dispensers for the purpose of this subsection.

Any person, firm or corporation operating, maintaining or placing on location fewer than five (5) such machines or dispensers shall not be considered a distributor or operator for the purpose of this subsection. Any person, firm or corporation operating, maintaining or placing on location five (5) or more soft drink dispensers shall not be considered a distributor or operator for the purpose of this subsection when all of said dispensers operated, maintained or placed on location by such person, firm or corporation are operated, maintained or placed in a single building, all parts of which are accessible through the same outside entrance, and which building is occupied by a single commercial, manufacturing or industrial business. Every machine or dispenser placed on location by a licensed operator or Any licensed distributor or operator of dispensers dispensing cigarettes or other tobacco product who shall operate, maintain or place on location any such dispenser at any location for which the license fee prescribed by G. S. 105-84 has not been paid shall become liable for the payment of such license fee.

(b) In addition to the above annual distributor's or operator's license, every distributor or operator distributing or operating a dispenser or machine designed or used for the dispensing or selling of soft drinks shall apply for and obtain from the Commissioner of Revenue a State-wide license for each such dispenser or machine so operated and shall pay therefor an annual tax of $15.00 per machine or dispenser: Provided, however, that said annual tax shall be five dollars ($5.00) in lieu of fifteen dollars ($15.00), per soft drink machine or dispenser on each soft drink machine or dispenser having a total capacity not in excess of 48 bottles or other dispensing units, including those bottles or other dispensing units stored in such machine or dispenser as well as those in the dispensing rack.

(2) Every person, firm or corporation, operating, maintaining or placing on location any dispenser or machine described in subsection (a) and not required to procure a distributor's or operator's license under the terms of subsection (a) shall apply for and obtain from the Commissioner of Revenue a State-wide license for each such dispenser or machine, and shall pay therefor an annual tax as follows:

Provided that the tax on food or merchandising dispensers imposed by this subdivision (2) shall not apply to dispensers dispensing peanuts only or to dispensers dispensing no commodity other than candy containing fifty per cent (50%) or more peanuts, or to penny self-service dispensers or machines twenty per cent (20%) of the gross revenue from which inures to the benefit of the visually handicapped.

(3) The applicant for license under this section shall, in making application for license, specify the serial number of the dispenser, or dispensers and of the weighing machine, or machines, proposed to be distributed or operated, together with a description of the merchandise or service offered for sale thereby, and the amount of deposit required by or in connection with the operation of such dispenser, or dispensers, and such machine, or machines. The license shall carry the serial number to correspond with that on the application; provided, that such licenses shall not be transferable to any other dispensers except under the following conditions: If at any time during the license tax year an applicant or license holder shall elect to replace a licensed machine...
by a new or unlicensed machine, he may notify the Commissioner by letter, enclosing the vending license of such machine to be replaced, and giving the serial number of the replacement machine and the serial number of the machine being replaced and certifying that the machine being replaced has been withdrawn from his operation by sale or otherwise, and advising the Commissioner of the disposition of the machine being replaced. A new license will thereupon be issued for the replacement machine without the payment of further license tax for the balance of the license tax year in which the replacement occurs. It shall be the duty of the person in whose place of business the dispenser or machine is operated or located to see that the proper State license is attached in a conspicuous place on the dispenser or machine before its operation shall commence.

(4) When application is made under this subsection (b) for license to operate a machine dispensing soft drinks or cigarettes or other tobacco products the applicant for such license shall pay or cause to be paid the license fee provided for under G. S. 105-79 and 105-84, as the case may be.

(c) If any person, firm, or corporation shall fail, neglect or refuse to comply with the terms and provisions of this section or shall fail to attach the proper State license to any dispenser or machine as herein provided, the Commissioner of Revenue, or his agent or deputies, shall forthwith seize and remove such dispenser or machine, and shall hold the same until the provisions of this section have been complied with. In addition to the above provision the applicant shall be further liable for the additional tax imposed under § 105-112.

(d) Sales of merchandise herein referred to shall be subject to the provisions of Article V, Schedule "E", §§ 105-164 to 105-187, and the tax therein levied shall be paid by the distributor or operator of such dispensers or machines.

(e) Counties, cities, and towns shall not levy or collect any annual distributor's or operator's occupational license levied for the distribution or operation of any of the dispensers or machines described in subsection (a), nor any per dispenser or per machine license tax for any machine or dispenser described in subsections (a) or (b) of this section, except that counties, cities, and towns may levy and collect an annual occupational license from operators of cigarette dispensing machines not in excess of $10.00 per annum.

(f) Counties, cities and towns levying a tax under the provisions of this section shall have power through their tax collecting officers, upon nonpayment of the tax levied by them, or of any interest or penalty thereon, or upon failure to attach the evidence of license issued by them to any such dispensers or machines, to seize, remove and hold such dispensers or machines until all such defaults have been remedied.

(g) The word "dispenser" or "dispensers" as used in this section shall include any machine or mechanical device through the medium of which any of the merchandise referred to in this section is purchased, distributed or sold.

(h) Neither the tax levied under subsection (b) upon dispensers, nor the tax levied under subsection (a) upon distributors or operators, shall apply to dispensers or vending machines which dispense only milk, milk drinks, products of the dairy, or pure uncarbonated fruit or vegetable juices. (1939, c. 158, s. 130; 1941, c. 50, s. 3; 1943, c. 105; c. 400, s. 2; 1945, c. 708, s. 2; 1949, c. 1220, s. 1; 1953, c. 1142; 1955, cc. 1271, 1344; 1957, c. 1340, s. 2; 1963, c. 1169, s. 10.)

Editor's Note.—Prior to the 1945 amendment, merchandising dispensers and weighing machines were covered by § 105-65, as changed by the 1941 and 1943 amendments. The 1949 amendment added subsection (b). The 1953 amendment rewrote subsections (a), (b) and (e). The first 1955 amendment inserted the sentence relating to five or more soft drink dispensers in the third paragraph of subsection (a). The second 1955 amendment substituted in the third item of the license tax schedule in the first paragraph of subsection (a) "5c or more" for "less than § 105-66. Bagatelle tables, merry-go-rounds, etc. — (a) Every person, firm, or corporation that is engaged in the operation of a bagatelle table, merry-go-round or other riding device, hobby horse, switchback railway, shooting gallery, swimming pool, skating rink, other amusements of a like kind, or a place for other games or play with or without name (unless used solely and exclusively for private amusement or exercise), at a permanent location, shall apply for and procure from the Commissioner of Revenue a State license for the privilege of operating such objects of amusement, and shall pay for each subject enumerated the following tax:

(b) The tax under this section shall not apply to machines and other devices licensed under §§ 105-64 and 105-65.

(c) Counties, cities or towns may levy a license tax on the business taxed under this section not in excess of that levied by the State. (1939, c. 158, s. 131.)

Tax on Vendors of Soft Drinks Is Based on Reasonable Classification.—The provision of this section imposing a license tax on the privilege of operating a vending machine selling soft drinks at the retail price of five cents while imposing a smaller tax on vending machines selling other kinds of merchandise at the same price, prescribes classifications based upon real and reasonable distinctions, since it is a matter of common knowledge that the sale of soft drinks has obtained a unique commercial place, affording unusual opportunities for gainful returns, thus justifying the imposition of a higher license tax upon the privilege of selling this kind of merchandise by vending machine. Snyder v. Maxwell, 217 N. C. 617, 9 S. E. (2d) 19 (1940), construing this section when it appeared as a part of § 105-65 prior to the 1941 amendment.

Criminal Provisions Not Repealed.—The provisions of the Flanagan Act, Public Laws 1937, c. 196 (§ 14-304 et seq.), prescribing the possession and distribution of a coin slot machine in the operation of which the user could secure additional chances or rights to use the machine, were not repealed by this section as it read when a part of § 105-65 prior to the 1941 amendment. State v. Abbott, 218 N. C. 470, 11 S. E. (2d) 539 (1940), followed in 218 N. C. 480, 11 S. E. (2d) 545 (1940).

Enjoining Criminal Law.—As to enjoining statute proscribing slot machines, see McCormick v. Proctor, 217 N. C. 23, 6 S. E. (2d) 870 (1940).
who or which is engaged in the business of dealing in securities as defined in §§ 78-1 to 78-24, or who or which maintains a place for or engages in the business of buying and/or selling shares or stock in any corporation, bonds, or any other securities on commission or brokerage, shall apply for and procure from the Commissioner of Revenue a State license for the privilege of transacting such business, and shall pay for such license the following tax:

- In cities or towns of less than 5,000 population .......... $ 25.00
- In cities or towns of 5,000 and less than 10,000 population .... 50.00
- In cities or towns of 10,000 and less than 15,000 population ... 100.00
- In cities or towns of 15,000 and less than 25,000 population ... 200.00
- In cities or towns of 25,000 population and above ........... 300.00

(b) Every dealer, as defined herein, who shall maintain in the State of North Carolina more than one office for dealing in securities, as hereinbefore defined, shall apply for and procure from the Commissioner of Revenue a license for the privilege of transacting such business at each such office, and shall pay for such license the same tax as hereinbefore fixed.

(c) Every foreign dealer, as dealer is hereinbefore defined, who shall maintain an office in this State, or have a salesman in this State, shall apply for and procure from the Commissioner of Revenue a State license for the privilege of transacting such business, and shall pay for such license the tax hereinbefore imposed.

(d) If such person, firm, or corporation described in subsection (a) of this section maintains and/or operates a leased or private wire and/or ticker service in connection with such business the annual license tax shall be as follows:

- In cities and towns of 20,000 to 25,000 population ............ 450.00
- In cities and towns of 25,000 or more .......................... 600.00

Provided, that the tax levied in subsection (d) shall not apply to private wire service not connected with or handling quotations of a stock exchange, grain or cotton exchange.

(e) Counties shall not levy any license tax on the business taxed under this section, but cities and towns may levy a license tax not in excess of fifty dollars ($50.00). (1939, c. 158, s. 132.)

§ 105-68. Cotton buyers and sellers on commission.—(a) Every person, firm, or corporation who or which engages in the business of buying and/or selling on commission any cotton, grain, provisions, or other commodities, either for actual, spot, or instant delivery, shall apply for and procure from the Commissioner of Revenue a State license for the privilege of transacting such business in this State, and shall pay for such license a tax of fifty dollars ($50.00).

(b) Every person, firm, or corporation who or which engages in the business of buying or selling any cotton, grain, provisions, or other commodities, either for actual, spot, instant or future delivery, and also maintains and/or operates a private or leased wire and/or ticker service in connection with such business shall apply for and procure from the Commissioner of Revenue a State license for the privilege of transacting such business in this State and shall pay for such license the following tax:

- In cities and towns of less than 10,000 population ............ $100.00
- In cities and towns of 10,000 and less than 15,000 population .... 200.00
- In cities and towns of 15,000 and less than 25,000 population ... 400.00
- In cities and towns of 25,000 population or more .............. 600.00

Persons, firms, and corporations who pay the tax imposed in subsection (d) of § 105-67 shall not be required to pay the tax imposed in this subsection.

(c) Every person, firm, or corporation, domestic or foreign, who or which is engaged in the business of selling any cotton either for actual, spot, instant, or future delivery, in excess of five thousand bales per annum, shall be deemed to be a cotton merchant, shall apply for and obtain from the Commissioner of Revenue a State-wide license for each office or agency maintained in this State for the sale of cotton and shall pay for each such license the following tax:

In cities and towns of less than 10,000 population $ 50.00
In cities and towns of 10,000 and less than 15,000 population 100.00
In cities and towns of 15,000 and less than 25,000 population 200.00
In cities and towns of 25,000 population and over 300.00

(d) Counties shall not levy any license tax on the business taxed under this section, but cities and towns may levy a license tax not in excess of fifty dollars ($50.00). (1939, c. 158, s. 133.)

§ 105-69. Manufacturers, producers, bottlers and distributors of soft drinks.—(a) Every person, firm, or corporation or association manufacturing, producing, bottling and/or distributing in bottles, or other closed containers, soda water, cocoa-cola, pepsi-cola, chero-cola, ginger ale, grape and other fruit juices or imitations thereof, carbonated or malted beverages and like preparations, or preparations of any nature whatever commonly known as soft drinks, shall apply for and obtain from the Commissioner of Revenue a State license for the privilege of doing business in this State, and shall pay for such license the following base tax for each place of business:

Low-Pressure Equipment

Where the machine or the equipment unit used in the manufacture of the above beverage is a:

The tax levied in this subsection shall not include the right to sell products authorized to be sold under Schedule F, §§ 18-63 to 18-92.

(c) Every distributing warehouse selling or supplying to retail stores cereal or carbonated beverages manufactured or bottled within the State, but outside of the county in which such cereal or carbonated beverages are manufactured or bottled, shall pay one-half of the annual license tax for the privilege of doing business in this State provided for in subsection (b) of this section.

(d) Every distributing warehouse selling or supplying to retail stores cereal or carbonated beverages on which the tax has not been paid under the provisions of subsection (a) of this section shall pay the annual license tax for the privilege of doing business in the State provided in subsection (b) of this section.

(e) Each truck, automobile, or other vehicle coming into this State from another state, and selling and/or delivering carbonated beverages on which the tax has not been paid under the provisions of subsection (a) of this section shall pay an annual license tax for the privilege of doing business in this State, in the sum of two hundred dollars ($200.00) per truck, automobile, or vehicle. The license secured from the State under this section shall be posted in the cab of the truck, automobile, or vehicle.

(f) No county shall levy a tax on any business taxed under the provisions of this section, nor shall any city or town in which any person, firm, corporation, or association taxed hereunder has its principal place of business levy and collect more than one-eighth of the State tax levied under this section; nor shall any tax
§ 105-70. Packing houses.—Every person, firm, or corporation engaged in or operating a meat packing house in this State, and every wholesale dealer in meat packing-house products who owns, leases, or rents and operates a cold-storage room or warehouse in connection with such wholesale business, shall apply for and procure from the Commissioner of Revenue a State license for the privilege of conducting such business in this State, and shall pay for such license the sum of one hundred dollars ($100.00) for each county in which is located such a packing house or a cold-storage room or warehouse. Every person, firm, or corporation maintaining a cold-storage room or warehouse and distributing such products to other stores owned in whole or in part by the distributor for sale at retail shall be deemed a wholesale dealer or distributor in the meaning of this section. Counties shall not levy any tax on business taxed under this section. (1939, c. 158, s. 135.)

§ 105-71. Newspaper contests.—Every person, firm, or corporation that conducts contests and offers a prize, prizes, or other compensation to obtain subscriptions to newspapers, magazines, or other periodicals in this State shall apply for and procure from the Commissioner of Revenue a State license for the privilege of conducting such contests, and shall pay for such license the following tax for each such contest:

- Monthly, weekly, semiweekly newspaper, magazine or other periodical .................................................. $ 50.00
- Daily newspaper or other daily periodical .................................................. 200.00

Counties, cities and towns may levy a tax not to exceed one-half of that levied by the State under the provisions of this section. (1939, c. 158, s. 136.)

§ 105-72. Persons, firms, or corporations selling certain oils.—(a) Every person, firm, or corporation engaged in the business of selling illuminating oil or greases, or benzine, naphtha, gasoline, or other products of like kind shall apply for and procure from the Commissioner of Revenue a State license for the privilege of conducting such business, and shall pay for the same a tax of two dollars and fifty cents ($2.50).

(b) In addition to the tax herein levied under subsection (a) of this section, such person, firm, or corporation shall pay to the Commissioner of Revenue, on or before the first day of July of each year, an annual additional license tax equal to five per cent (5%) of the total gross sales for the preceding year or part of the year that the business is so conducted or the privilege so exercised, when the total

Provided that pressing clubs, cleaning plants, and/or hat blocking establishments, as same are defined in this section in cities or towns of 5,000 population or over, employing four or less operators or employees, including the owner if he works in said plant, shall be liable for only one half the amount of license tax specified above.

Every person, firm, or corporation, soliciting cleaning work and/or pressing in any city or town where the actual cleaning and/or pressing is done in a cleaning plant or press shop located outside the city or town wherein said cleaning work and/or pressing is solicited shall procure from the Commissioner of Revenue a State license for the privilege of soliciting in said city or town, and pay for the same an amount equal to the tax which would be paid by said cleaning plant or press shop as if the said cleaning plant or press shop was actually located and being operated in the city or town in which the soliciting is done. This shall not apply to soliciting in cities or towns where there is no cleaning plant, press shop or established agency with fixed place of business, provided that the solicitor shall have paid a State and municipal license tax in this State.

Every person, firm or corporation engaged in the business of soliciting dry cleaning and/or pressing work to be done by a dry cleaning plant which has not paid the State license tax levied herein shall pay a tax of two hundred dollars ($200.00) for each vehicle used in carrying the dry cleaning and/or pressing work, and the license issued by the Commissioner of Revenue shall be carried in the cab of any vehicle so employed. Counties, cities and towns may levy a tax upon such persons, firms or corporations not in excess of that levied by the State.

Cities and towns of under 10,000 population may levy a license tax not in excess of $25.00; cities and towns of 10,000 population and over may levy a license tax not in excess of $50.00. Counties shall not levy a license tax on the business taxed under this section.

 Counties, cities and towns may not collect a privilege license tax under this section unless the State license tax, if due, has been first paid.

Definitions: For the purpose of this section, the following definitions shall apply:

"Dry cleaning, and/or hat blocking, and/or pressing establishments" shall mean any place of business, establishment or vehicle wherein the services of dry cleaning, wet cleaning as a process incidental to dry cleaning, spotting and/or pressing, finishing and/or reblocking hats, garments, or wearing apparel of any kind is performed.

"Retail outlet" shall mean any place of business or vehicle where garments are accepted to be dry cleaned and/or pressed, but where the actual dry cleaning and/or pressing is not performed on the premises or vehicles, and where the dry cleaning and/or pressing is performed by a dry cleaning plant or press shop operating under a trade name other than that of the retail outlet.

"Branch office" shall mean an additional establishment where garments are accepted to be dry cleaned and/or pressed, when same is owned and operated by a dry cleaning plant, press shop, or retail outlet and under the same trade name, but where the actual dry cleaning and/or pressing is not performed on the premises.

"Soliciting" as used herein shall mean the acceptance of any article or garment to be dry cleaned and/or pressed.

"Person" as used herein shall mean any person, firm, corporation, partnership, or association.

The term "employee" as used herein shall mean any person working either partially or full time for a cleaning plant, press shop, hat blocking establishment, retail outlet or branch office and shall include all drivers, solicitors and route salesmen irrespective of the method of payment they receive for their services, and shall also include independent contractors soliciting under the same style and firm name as the processing plant. It shall also include any member of the firm, association, corporation or partnership who actually performs any work of any nature in the business.

This section shall not apply to any bona fide student of any college or university in this State operating such pressing or dry cleaning business at such college or university during the school term of such college or university. (1939, c. 158, s. 139; 1943, c. 400, s. 2; 1957, c. 1340, s. 2; 1959, c. 445, ss. 1, 2; 1961, c. 1080, ss. 1, 3.)

Editor's Note.—The 1943 amendment changed the schedule of license taxes, inserted the provision immediately following the schedule and made other changes. The 1957 amendment inserted three paragraphs which were deleted by the 1961 amendment.

The 1959 amendment inserted the present fourth and sixth paragraphs. The 1961 amendment rewrote the tax schedule appearing in the first paragraph as of June 1, 1961. It also as of July 1, 1961, struck out all of a former paragraph levying a tax on gross receipts at the rate of one per cent (1%), and two former paragraphs dealing with filing reports, which paragraphs had been added by the 1957 amendment.

§ 105-75. Barbershops. — Every person, firm, or corporation engaged in the business of conducting a barbershop, beauty shop or parlor, or other shop of like kind shall apply for and procure from the Commissioner of Revenue a State license for the privilege of conducting such business, and shall pay for such license the following tax:

For each barber chair maintained in a barbershop $2.50
For each barber, manicurist, cosmetologist, beautician, or operator in beauty parlor, or other shop of like kind in any office, hotel, or other place $2.50

Counties shall not levy a license tax under this section, but cities and towns may levy a license tax not in excess of that levied by the State. (1939, c. 158, s. 140; 1943, c. 400, s. 2.)

Editor's Note. — The 1943 amendment lowered the tax for each barber, manicurist, etc., from $5.00 to $2.50.

§ 105-76. Shoeshine parlors.—Every person, firm, or corporation who or which maintains or operates a place of business wherein is operated a shoeshine parlor, stand, or chair or other device shall apply for and procure from the Commissioner of Revenue a State license for the privilege of conducting such business and shall pay for such license a tax of one dollar ($1.00) per chair or stool.

Counties shall not levy any license tax on the business taxed under this section, but cities and towns may levy a license tax not in excess of one-half of that levied by the State. (1939, c. 158, s. 141.)

§ 105-77. Tobacco warehouses. — (a) Every person, firm, or corporation engaged in the business of operating a warehouse for the sale of leaf tobacco upon commission shall, on or before the first day of July of each year, apply for and obtain from the Commissioner of Revenue a State license for the privilege of conducting such warehouse and shall pay for such license the following tax:

For a warehouse in which was sold during the preceding year ending the first day of July:

Less than 1,000,000 pounds $50.00
1,000,000 pounds and less than 2,000,000 75.00
2,000,000 pounds and less than 3,000,000 175.00
3,000,000 pounds and less than 4,000,000 250.00
4,000,000 pounds and less than 5,000,000 400.00
5,000,000 pounds and less than 6,000,000 500.00

For all in excess of 6,000,000 pounds, $500.00 and six cents per thousand pounds.

(b) If a new warehouse not in operation the previous year, the person, firm, or corporation operating such warehouse may procure a license by payment of the minimum tax provided in the foregoing schedule, and at the close of the season for sales of tobacco in such warehouse shall furnish the Commissioner of Revenue a statement of the number of pounds of tobacco sold in such warehouse for the current year, and shall pay an additional license tax for the current year based on such total volume of sales in accordance with the schedule in this section.

If an old warehouse with new or changed ownership or management, the tax shall be paid according to the schedule in this section, based on the sale during the preceding year, just as if the old ownership or management had continued its operation.

(c) The Commissioner of Agriculture shall certify to the Commissioner of Revenue, on or before the first day of July of each year, the name of each person, firm, or corporation operating a tobacco warehouse in each county in the State, together with the number of pounds of leaf tobacco sold by such person, firm, or corpotion in each warehouse for the preceding year, ending on the first day of July of the current year.

(d) The Commissioner of Agriculture shall report to the solicitor of any judicial district in which a tobacco warehouse is located which the owner or operator thereof shall have failed to make a report of the leaf tobacco sold in such warehouse during the preceding year, ending the first day of July of the current year, and such solicitor shall prosecute any such person, firm or corporation under the provisions of this section.

(e) The tax levied in this section shall be based on official reports of each tobacco warehouse to the State Department of Agriculture showing amount of sales for each warehouse for the previous year.

(f) The Commissioner of Revenue or his deputies shall have the right, and are hereby authorized, to examine the books and records of any person, firm, or corporation operating such warehouse, for the purpose of verifying the reports made and of ascertaining the number of pounds of leaf tobacco sold during the preceding year, or other years, in such warehouse.

(g) Any person, firm, or corporation who or which violates any of the provisions of this section shall, in addition to all other penalties provided for in this article, be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined not less than five hundred dollars ($500.00) and/or imprisoned, in the discretion of the court.

(h) No county shall levy any license tax on the business taxed under this section. Cities and towns may levy a tax not in excess of fifty dollars ($50.00) for each warehouse. (1939, c. 158, s. 142; 1963, c. 294, s. 4.)

Editor’s Note.—The 1963 amendment, effective July 1, 1963, substituted “July” for “June” in subsections (a), (c) and (d). Section 2 of the amendatory act, effective June 1, 1963, amended subsection (a) so as to extend the duration of current licenses from one year to thirteen months. Pursuant to s. 10 of the amendatory act, the change effected by s. 2 has not been codified.

§ 105-78. News dealers on trains.—Every person, firm, or corporation engaged in the business of selling books, magazines, papers, fruits, confections, or other articles of merchandise on railroad trains or other common carriers in this State shall apply for and obtain a State license from the Commissioner of Revenue for the privilege of conducting such business, and shall pay for such license the following tax:

Where such person, firm, or corporation operates on railroads or other common carriers on:

| Less than 300 miles | $ 250.00 |
| Three hundred and less than 500 miles | 500.00 |
| Five hundred miles or more | 1,000.00 |

This section shall not apply to any railroad company engaged in selling such articles to passengers on its train and paying the tax upon the retail sales of merchandise levied in Schedule E, §§ 105-164 to 105-187.

Counties, cities, and towns shall not levy any license tax on the business taxed under this section. (1939, c. 158, s. 143.)

§ 105-79. Soda fountains, soft drink stands.—Every person, firm, or corporation engaged in the business of operating a soda fountain or soft drink stand shall apply for and obtain from the Commissioner of Revenue a State license for the privilege of conducting such business, and shall pay for such license the following tax:

| Less than 300 miles | $ 250.00 |
| Three hundred and less than 500 miles | 500.00 |
| Five hundred miles or more | 1,000.00 |

This section shall not apply to any railroad company engaged in selling such articles to passengers on its train and paying the tax upon the retail sales of merchandise levied in Schedule E, §§ 105-164 to 105-187.

Counties, cities, and towns shall not levy any license tax on the business taxed
under this section. (1939, c. 158, s. 143.)
On soda fountains. On each carbonated draft arm of each soda fountain, a tax of ten dollars ($10.00).
On each stand at which soft drinks are sold, the same not being strictly a soda fountain, and on each place of business where bottled carbonated drinks are sold at retail, the license tax shall be five dollars ($5.00); provided, that the tax herein levied shall not apply to stands which sell no drinks except milk, milk drinks, products of the dairy, or pure uncarbonated fruit or vegetable juices.

In addition to the license tax levied in this section, the tax shall be paid upon the gross sales at the rate of tax levied in Schedule E, §§ 105-164 to 105-187, upon the retail sales of merchandise, such tax to be paid at the time and in the manner required for the sale of other merchandise.

Counties shall not levy a license tax on the business taxed under this section, but cities and towns may levy a license tax not in excess of one-half of the base tax levied by the State. (1939, c. 158, s. 144; 1949, c. 1220, s. 2.)

Editor's Note. — The 1949 amendment added the proviso relating to soft drink stands.

§ 105-80. Dealers in pistols, etc.—(a) Every person, firm, or corporation who is engaged in the business of keeping in stock, selling, and/or offering for sale any of the articles or commodities enumerated in this section, shall apply for and obtain a State license from the Commissioner of Revenue for the privilege of conducting such business, and shall pay for such license the following tax:

For pistols .......................................................... $ 50.00
For bowie knives, dirks, daggers, slingshots, leaded canes, iron or metallic knuckles, or articles of like kind ........................................ 200.00
For blank cartridge pistols ....................................... 50.00

(b) If such person, firm, or corporation deals only in metallic cartridges, the tax shall be five dollars ($5.00).

Editor's Note. — The 1941 amendment The 1959 amendment reduced the tax for reduced the tax in subsection (b) from ten blank cartridge pistols from $200.00 to $5.00 in subsection (a).

§ 105-82. Pianos, organs, victrolas, records, radios, accessories. —
(a) Every person, firm or corporation engaged in the business of selling, offering or ordering for sale, repairing or servicing any of the articles hereinafter enumerated in this section shall apply for and obtain from the Commissioner of Revenue a State license for the privilege of conducting such business and shall pay for each license the following tax:

For pianos and/or organs, graphophones, victrolas, or other instruments using discs or cylinder records, and/or the sale of records for either or all of these instruments, television sets, television accessories and repair parts, radios or radio accessories and repair parts, including radios designed for exclusive use in automobiles, an annual license tax of ten dollars ($10.00); provided, that persons licensed under this section shall not be required to procure a license under G. S. 105-89 by reason of being engaged in the business of selling, installing, or servicing automobile radios.

(b) Any person, firm, or corporation applying for and obtaining a license under this section may employ traveling representatives or agents, but such traveling agents or representatives shall obtain from the Commissioner of Revenue a duplicate license of such person, firm, or corporation who or which he represents, and pay for the same a tax of ten dollars ($10.00).
Each duplicate copy so issued is to contain the name of the agent to whom it is issued, the instrument to be sold, and the same shall not be transferable.

Representatives or agents holding such duplicate copy of such license thereby to sell or offer for sale only the instrument and/or articles authorized to be sold by the person, firm, or corporation holding the original license, and such license shall be good and valid in any county in the State.

(c) Every person, firm, or corporation violating any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall pay a penalty of two hundred and fifty dollars ($250.00), and in addition thereto double the State license tax levied in this section for the then current year.

(d) Counties shall not levy any license tax on the business taxed under this section, except that the county in which the agent or representative holding a duplicate copy of the license aforesaid does business may impose a license tax not in excess of five dollars ($5.00). Cities or towns may levy a license tax on the business taxed under this section not in excess of one-half of that levied by the State.

Editor's Note. — The 1943 amendment inserted "does business" near the end of the first sentence of subsection (d).

The 1957 amendment rewrote subsection (a).

License for Each Agent. — If the licensee employs more than one salesman he must make out and furnish each salesman with an additional license. This is because the license authorizes only the person having it in possession to sell under it. State v. Morrison, 126 N. C. 1123, 36 S. E. 329 (1900).

§ 105-83. Installment paper dealers. — (a) Every person, firm, or corporation, foreign or domestic, engaged in the business of dealing in, buying, and/or discounting installment paper, notes, bonds, contracts, evidences of debt and/or other securities, where a lien is reserved or taken upon personal property located in this State to secure the payment of such obligations, shall apply for and obtain from the Commissioner of Revenue a State license for the privilege of engaging in such business or for the purchasing of such obligations in this State, and shall pay for such license an annual tax of one hundred dollars ($100.00).

(b) In addition to the tax levied in subsection (a) of this section, such person, firm, or corporation shall submit to the Revenue Commissioner quarterly on the first day of January, April, July, and October of each year, upon forms prescribed by the said Commissioner, a full, accurate, and complete statement, verified by the officer, agent, or person making such statement, of the total face value of the installment paper, notes, bonds, contracts, evidences of debt, and/or other securities described in this section dealt in, bought and/or discounted within the preceding three months and, at the same time, shall pay a tax of two hundred and seventy-five thousandths of one per cent of the face value of such obligations dealt in, bought and/or discounted for such period.

(c) If any person, firm, or corporation, foreign or domestic, shall deal in, buy and/or discount any such paper, notes, bonds, contracts, evidences of debt and/or other securities described in this section without applying for and obtaining a license for the privilege of engaging in such business of dealing in such obligations, or shall fail, refuse, or neglect to pay the taxes levied in this section, such obligation shall not be recoverable or the collection thereof enforceable at law or by suit in equity in any of the courts of this State until and when the license taxes prescribed in this section have been paid, together with any and all penalties prescribed in this article for the nonpayment of taxes.
§ 105-84. Tobacco and cigarette retailers and jobbers.—Every person, firm, or corporation engaged in the business of retailing and/or jobbing cigarettes, cigars, chewing tobacco, snuff, or any other tobacco products shall apply for and obtain from the Commissioner of Revenue a State license for the privilege of engaging in such business, and shall pay for such license the following tax:

Outside of incorporated cities or towns and cities or towns of less than 1,000 population $ 5.00
Cities or towns of 1,000 population and over 10.00

Counties shall not levy any license tax on the business taxed under this section, but cities and towns may levy a license tax not in excess of that levied by the State. (1939, c. 158, s. 149.)

§ 105-85. Laundries.—Every person, firm, or corporation engaged in the business of operating a laundry, including wet or damp wash laundries and businesses known as “lauderettes,” “launderalls” and similar type businesses, where steam, electricity, or other power is used, or who engages in the business of supplying or renting clean linen or towels or wearing apparel, shall apply for and obtain from the Commissioner of Revenue a State license for the privilege of engaging in such business, and shall pay for such license the following tax:

In cities or towns of less than 5,000 population $ 6.25
In cities or towns of 5,000 and less than 10,000 population 12.50
In cities or towns of 10,000 and less than 15,000 population 18.75
In cities or towns of 15,000 and less than 20,000 population 25.00
In cities or towns of 20,000 and less than 25,000 population 30.00
In cities or towns of 25,000 and less than 30,000 population 36.25
In cities or towns of 30,000 and less than 35,000 population 42.50
In cities or towns of 35,000 and less than 40,000 population 50.00
In cities or towns of 40,000 and less than 45,000 population 56.25
In cities or towns of 45,000 population and above 62.50

Provided, however, that any laundry or other concern herein referred to where the work is performed exclusively by hand or home-size machines only, and where not more than twelve persons are employed, including the owners, the license tax shall be one third of the amount stipulated in the foregoing schedule.

Every person, firm, or corporation soliciting laundry work or supplying or renting clean linen or towels or wearing apparel in any city or town, outside of the city or town wherein said laundry or linen supply or towel supply or wearing apparel supply business is established, shall procure from the Commissioner of Revenue a State license as provided in the above schedule, and shall pay for such license a tax based according to the population of the city or town, for the privilege of soliciting therein. The additional tax levied in this paragraph shall apply to the soliciting of laundry work or linen supply or towel supply work or wearing apparel supply work in any city or town in which there is a laundry, linen supply or towel supply or wearing apparel supply establishment located in the said city or town. The soliciting of business for or by any person, firm, or corporation engaged in the business of laundry work and/or supplying or renting clean linen or towels or wearing apparel shall and the same is hereby construed to be engaging in the said business. Any person, firm, or corporation soliciting in said city or town shall procure from the Commissioner of Revenue a State license for the privilege of soliciting in said city or town, said tax to be in the sum equal to the amount which would be paid if the solicitor had an establishment and actually engaged in such business in the said city or town; provided the solicitor has paid a State, county and municipal license in this State.

Every person, firm or corporation engaged in the business of soliciting laundry work to be done by a laundry or plant which has not paid the State license tax levied herein shall pay a tax of two hundred dollars ($200.00) for each vehicle used in carrying the laundry work, and the license issued by the Commissioner of Revenue shall be carried in the cab of any vehicle so employed. Counties, cities and towns may levy a tax upon such persons, firms or corporations not in excess of that levied by the State.

Counties, cities and towns, respectively, may levy a license tax not in excess of twelve dollars and fifty cents ($12.50) on any person, firm, or corporation engaged in the business of laundry work and/or supplying or renting clean linen or towels or wearing apparel in instances when said work is performed outside the said county or town, or when the linen or towels or wearing apparel are supplied by business outside said county or town. Cities and towns may levy a license tax not in excess of fifty dollars ($50.00) on any other person, firm or corporation engaged in the business of laundry work and/or supplying or renting clean linen or towels or wearing apparel.

Counties, cities and towns may not collect a privilege license tax under this section unless the State license tax, if due, has been first paid. (1939, c. 158, s. 150; 1943, c. 400, s. 2; 1945, c. 708, s. 2; 1949, c. 392, s. 1; 1959, c. 445, ss. 3-5; 1961, c. 1080, ss. 2, 4; c. 1203.)

Editor's Note.—The 1943 amendment added a paragraph at the end of the section and rewrote the two paragraphs immediately preceding it, all of which paragraphs were deleted in 1961.

The 1945 amendment substituted "twelve" for "four" in the first proviso of this section.

The 1949 amendment made this section applicable to launderettes, laundries and similar type businesses. It also added a sentence to a paragraph relating to additional tax of one per cent on gross receipts, which paragraph was deleted in 1961.

The 1959 amendment inserted references to "wearing apparel" throughout the section and inserted the present fourth and six paragraphs.

The first 1961 amendment rewrote the tax schedule appearing in the first paragraph as of June 1, 1961. It also as of July 1, 1961, struck out the former last three paragraphs levying a tax on gross receipts at the rate of one per cent (1%) and dealing with reports on same.

The second 1961 amendment, effective June 1, 1962, added the second sentence to the present fifth paragraph.

§ 105-86. Outdoor advertising.—(a) Every person, firm, or corporation who or which is engaged in the business of outdoor advertising by placing, erecting or maintaining one or more outdoor advertising signs or structures of any nature by means of signboards, poster boards, or printed bulletins, or other painted matter, or any other outdoor advertising devices, erected upon the grounds, walls or roofs of buildings, shall apply for and obtain from the Commissioner of Revenue a State license for the privilege of engaging in such business in this State and shall pay annually for said license as follows:
For posting or erecting 20 or more signs or panels ........................ $25.00
For posting or erecting less than 20 signs or panels, for each sign or panel ........................................ 1.00

And in addition thereto the following license tax for each city, town or other place in which such signboards, poster boards, painted bulletins and other painted or printed matter or other outdoor advertising devices are maintained, in cities or towns of:

- Less than 1,000 population ................................................................. $ 5.00
- 1,000 to 1,999 population ................................................................. 10.00
- 2,000 to 2,999 population ................................................................. 15.00
- 3,000 to 3,999 population ................................................................. 20.00
- 4,000 to 4,999 population ................................................................. 25.00
- 5,000 to 7,499 population ................................................................. 30.00
- 7,500 to 14,999 population ................................................................. 50.00
- 15,000 to 24,999 population ............................................................... 100.00
- 25,000 to 49,999 population ............................................................... 150.00
- 50,000 population and over .............................................................. 200.00
- In each county outside of cities and towns ........................................... 25.00

Provided, that the tax levied in this section shall not apply to regularly licensed motion picture theatres taxed under § 105-37 upon any advertising signs, structures, boards, bulletins, or other devices erected by or placed by the theatre upon property which the theatre has secured by permission of the owner.

Every person, firm, or corporation who or which places, erects or maintains one or more outdoor advertising signs, structures, boards, bulletins or devices as specified in this section shall be deemed to be engaged in the business of outdoor advertising, but when the applicant intends to advertise his own business exclusively by the erection or placement of such outdoor advertising signs, structures, boards, bulletins or devices as specified in this section, he may be licensed to do so upon the payment annually of one dollar ($1.00) for each sign up to one thousand (1,000) in number, and for one thousand (1,000) or more, the sum of one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) for the privilege in lieu of all other taxation as provided in this section, except such further taxation as may be imposed upon him by cities or towns, acting under the power to levy not in excess of one-half of that specified in paragraph two of subsection (a) of this section.

(b) Every person, firm, or corporation shall show in its application for the State license herein provided for the name of each incorporated city or town within which, and the county within which, it is maintaining or proposes to maintain said signboards, poster boards, painted bulletins or other painted or printed signs or other outdoor advertising devices within the State of North Carolina. No person, firm, or corporation, licensed under the provisions of this section, shall erect or maintain any outdoor advertising structure, device or display until a permit for the erection of such structure, device or display shall have been obtained from the Commissioner of Revenue. Application for such permit shall be in writing, signed by the applicant or his duly authorized agent, upon blanks furnished by the Commissioner of Revenue, in such form and requiring such information as said Commissioner of Revenue may prescribe. Each application shall have attached thereto the written consent of the owners or duly authorized agent of the property on which structures, devices or display is to be erected or maintained, and shall state thereon the beginning and ending dates of such written permission: Provided, the subsection shall not apply to persons, firms, or corporations who or which advertise their or its own business exclusively, and who or which have been licensed therefor pursuant to subsection (a) of this section.

(c) It shall be unlawful for any person engaged in the business of outdoor advertising to in any manner paint, print, place, post, tack or affix, or cause to be painted, printed, placed, posted, tacked or affixed any sign or other printed or

§ 105.86. Painted advertisement on or to any stone, tree, fence, stump, pole, building or other object which is upon the property of another without first obtaining the written consent of such owner thereof, and any person, firm, or corporation who in any manner paints, prints, places, posts, tacks or affixes, or causes to be painted, printed, posted, tacked or affixed any such advertisement on the property of another except as herein provided shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine not exceeding fifty dollars ($50.00), or imprisonment of thirty days: Provided, that the provisions of this section shall not apply to legal notices.

(d) It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation to paint, print, place, post, tack or affix any advertising matter within the limits of the right of way of public highways of the State without the permission of the State Highway Commission, or upon the streets of the incorporated towns of the State without permission of the governing authorities, and if and when signs of any nature are placed without permission within the highways of the State, or within the streets of incorporated towns, it shall be the duty of the Highway Commission or any other administrative body or other governing authorities of the cities and towns of said State to remove said advertising matters therefrom.

(e) Every person, firm, or corporation owning or maintaining signboards, poster boards, printed bulletins, or other outdoor advertisements of any nature within this State shall have imprinted on the same the name of such person, firm, or corporation in sufficient size to be plainly visible and permanently affixed thereto.

(f) A license shall not be granted any person, firm, or corporation having his or its principal place of business outside the State for the display of any advertising of any nature whatsoever, designed or intended for the display of advertising matter, until such person, firm, or corporation shall have furnished and filed with the Commissioner of Revenue a surety bond to the State, approved by him, in such sum as he may fix, not exceeding five thousand dollars ($5,000.00), conditioned that such licensee shall fulfill all requirements of law, and lawful regulations and orders of said Commissioner of Revenue, relative to the display of advertisements. Such surety bond shall remain in full force and effect as long as any obligations of such licensee to the State shall remain unsatisfied.

(g) No advertising, or other signs specified in this section, shall be erected in the highway right of way so as to obstruct the vision or otherwise to increase the hazards, and all signs upon the highways shall be placed in a manner to be approved by the said Highway Commission.

(h) Any person, firm, or corporation who or which shall refuse to or neglect to comply with the terms and provisions of this section, and who shall fail to pay the tax herein provided for within thirty days after the same shall become due, or who shall paint, print, place, post, tack, affix or display any advertising sign or other matter contrary to the provisions of this section, the Highway Commission of the State of North Carolina or other governing body having jurisdiction over the roads and highways of the State, and the governing authorities of cities and towns and its agents and employees, and the board of county commissioners of the various counties of said State and its employees are directed to forthwith seize and remove or cause to be removed all advertisements, signs or other matter displayed contrary to the provisions of this section.

For the purpose of more effectually carrying into effect the provisions of this section, the Commissioner of Revenue is authorized and directed to prepare and furnish to the Highway Commission or other governing body having jurisdiction over the roads and highways of the State a sufficient number of permits to be executed by the owner, lessee or tenant occupying the lands adjacent to the highways of the State, upon which advertisements, signs or other matter displayed contrary to the provisions of this section, in words as follows:

"I, (we), (owner), (lessee), (tenant), authorize and direct the Highway Commission of the State of North Carolina to remove from my lands the following § 105-87. Motor advertisers. — (a) Every person, firm, or corporation operating over the streets or highways of this State any motor vehicle or other mechanical conveyance equipped with radio, phonograph, or other similar mechanical device to produce music, or having any loudspeaker attachment or other sound magnifying device to produce sound effects, or any sound-producing device to produce sound effects for advertising purposes, whether advertising his or its own products or those of others, shall be deemed a motor advertiser, shall procure from the Commissioner of Revenue a State-wide license for the privilege of engaging in such business in this State, and shall pay for such license a tax of one hundred dollars ($100.00) for each vehicle or conveyance so used: Provided, that any such advertiser owning a located place of business in this State shall pay a tax of one-thousand dollars ($1,000.00) per year.

(b) No tax shall be levied under this section against any person, firm, or corporation erecting, painting, posting or otherwise displaying signs or panels advertising his or its own business containing less than twelve (12) square feet of advertising surface: Provided, that this exemption shall not apply if the signs or panels are displayed in more than five counties.

§ 105-88. Loan agencies or brokers.—(a) Every person, firm, or corporation engaged in the regular business of making loans or lending money, accepting liens on, or contracts of assignments of, salaries or wages, or any part thereof, or other security or evidence of debt for repayment of such loans in installments, or in any other manner, shall pay a tax of one-hundred dollars ($100.00) for each loan or other security or evidence of debt made or accepted, and shall pay a tax of one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) for each location or branch office maintained in connection with the conduct, negotiation, or transacting of such business.

(b) Counties may levy a license tax on the business taxed under this section not in excess of one-half of the tax levied by the State, and cities and towns may levy a tax in excess of one-fourth of that levied by the State, and the tax provided in this section shall not apply if the signs or panels are displayed in more than five counties.

(c) Every person, firm, or corporation engaging in the regular business of making loans or lending money, accepting liens on, or contracts of assignments of, salaries or wages, or any part thereof, or other security or evidence of debt for repayment of such loans in installments, or in any other manner, shall pay a tax of one-hundred dollars ($100.00) for each loan or other security or evidence of debt made or accepted, and shall pay a tax of one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) for each location or branch office maintained in connection with the conduct, negotiation, or transacting of such business.

(d) The following signs and announcements are exempted from the provisions of this section: Signs upon property advertising the business conducted thereon; notice or advertisements erected by public authority or required by law in connection with the business conducted thereon; any signs containing sixty (60) square feet or less bearing an announcement of any town or city advertising itself: Provided, the same is maintained at public expense.

(e) No tax shall be levied under this section against any person, firm, or corporation erecting, painting, posting or otherwise displaying signs or panels advertising his or its own business containing twelve (12) square feet or less of advertising surface: Provided, that this exemption shall not apply if the signs or panels are displayed in more than five counties.

(f) The following signs and announcements are exempted from the provisions of this section: Signs upon property advertising the business conducted thereon; notice or advertisements erected by public authority or required by law in connection with the business conducted thereon; any signs containing sixty (60) square feet or less bearing an announcement of any town or city advertising itself: Provided, the same is maintained at public expense.

(g) No tax shall be levied under this section against any person, firm, or corporation erecting, painting, posting or otherwise displaying signs or panels advertising his or its own business containing twelve (12) square feet or less of advertising surface: Provided, that this exemption shall not apply if the signs or panels are displayed in more than five counties.
action of such business and/or advertising or soliciting such business in any manner whatsoever, shall be deemed a loan agency, and shall apply for and procure from the Commissioner of Revenue a State license for the privilege of transacting or negotiating such business at each office or place so maintained, and shall pay for such license a tax of seven hundred fifty dollars ($750.00).

(b) Nothing in this section shall be construed to apply to banks, industrial banks, trust companies, building and loan associations, co-operative credit unions, nor installment paper dealers defined and taxed under other sections of this article, nor shall it apply to the business of negotiating loans on real estate as described in § 105-41, nor to pawnbrokers lending or advancing money on specific articles of personal property. It shall apply to those persons or concerns operating what are commonly known as loan companies or finance companies and whose business is as hereinbefore described, and those persons, firms, or corporations pursuing the business of lending money and taking as security for the payment of such loan and interest an assignment of wages or an assignment of wages with power of attorney to collect same, or other order or chattel mortgage or bill of sale upon household or kitchen furniture.

(c) At the time of making any such loan, the person, or officer of the firm or corporation making the same, shall give to the borrower in writing in convenient form a statement showing the amount received by the borrower, the amount to be paid back by the borrower, and the time in which said amount is to be paid, and the rate of interest and discount agreed upon.

(d) Any such person, firm, or corporation failing, refusing, or neglecting to pay the tax herein levied shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and in addition to double the tax due shall be fined not less than two hundred and fifty dollars ($250.00) and/or imprisoned, in the discretion of the court. No such loan shall be collectible at law in the courts of this State in any case where the person making such loan has failed to pay the tax levied herein, and/or otherwise complied with the provisions of this section.

(e) Counties, cities, and towns may levy a license tax on the business taxed under this section not in excess of one hundred dollars ($100.00). (1939, c. 158,
s. 152.)

Provided, any person, firm, or corporation engaged in the business enumerated in this section and having no located place of business, but selling to retail dealers by use of some form of vehicle, shall obtain from the Commissioner of Revenue a State-wide license for the privilege of engaging in such business in this State, and shall pay for such license an annual tax for each vehicle used in carrying on such business fifty dollars ($50.00).

(2) For the purpose of this section, the word “wholesale” shall apply to manufacturers, jobbers, and such others who sell to retail dealers, except manufacturers of batteries.

(3) No additional license tax under this subsection shall be levied upon or collected from any employee, agent, or salesman whose employer or principal has paid the tax for each location levied in this subsection.

(4) Counties, cities, and towns may levy a license tax on each place of business located therein, taxed under this subsection, not in excess of one-half of that levied by the State, with the exception that the minimum tax may be as much as ten dollars ($10.00).

(5) No person, firm, or corporation paying the wholesalers’ tax as levied in subsection (b) hereof shall be required to pay any additional tax under subsection (a) of this section for engaging in any of the types of business levied upon in said subsection (a).

(c) Motor Vehicle Dealers.—

(1) Every person, firm, or corporation engaged in the business of buying, selling, distributing, servicing, storing and/or exchanging motor ve-vehicles, trailers, semitrailers, tires, tools, batteries, electrical equipment, lubricants, and/or automotive equipment, including radios designed for exclusive use in automobiles, and supplies in this State shall apply for and obtain from the Commissioner of Revenue a State license for the privilege of engaging in such business in this State, and shall pay for such license an annual tax for each location where such business is carried on, as follows:

Provided, that persons, firms, or corporations dealing in secondhand or used motor vehicles exclusively shall be liable for the tax as set out in the foregoing schedule unless such business is of a seasonal, temporary, transient, or itinerant nature, in which event the tax shall be three hundred dollars ($300.00) for each location where such business is carried on.

(2) Any person, firm, or corporation who or which deals exclusively in motor fuels and lubricants, and has paid the license tax levied under subsection (a) of this section, shall not be subject to any license tax under subsections (b) and (c) of this section.

(3) No additional license tax under this subsection shall be levied upon or collected from any employee or salesman whose employer has paid the tax levied in this subsection; nor shall the tax apply to dealers in semitrailers weighing not more than five hundred pounds and carrying not more than one-thousand-pound load, and to be towed by passenger cars, nor to dealers in four-wheel, farm type wagons equipped with rubber tires and designed to be pulled or towed by passenger cars or farm tractors.

(4) Premises on which cars are stored or sold when owned or operated by a licensed car dealer under the same name shall not be deemed as a separate place of business when conducted within the corporate limits of any city or town in which such car business is conducted.

(5) Counties, cities, and towns may levy a license tax on each place of business located therein, taxed under this subsection, not in excess of one fourth of that levied by the State, with the exception that the minimum tax may be as much as twenty dollars ($20.00): Provided, if such business is of a seasonal, temporary, transient, or itinerant nature, counties, cities, and towns may levy a tax of three hundred dollars ($300.00) for each location where such business is carried on. Editor's Note. — The 1945 amendment inserted the former words "rural sections and/or" in the first item in the table of license rates in subdivision (1) of subsection (a) and added the proviso to subdivision (2) thereof.

The 1947 amendment rewrote a former subsection as new section 105-89.1 and made other changes.

The 1949 amendment added to subdivision (3) of subsection (c) the provision relating to dealers in farm type wagons.

The 1953 amendment substituted "unincorporated communities and in" for "rural sections and/or" in the first item in the table of license rates in subdivision (1) of subsection (a).

(b) A motorcycle dealer paying the license tax under this section may buy, sell, and/or deal in bicycles and bicycle supplies without the payment of an additional license tax.

(c) No additional license tax shall be levied upon or collected from any employee or salesman whose employer has paid the tax levied in this section.

(d) No motorcycle dealer shall be issued dealer's tags until the license tax levied under this section has been paid.

(e) Counties, cities, and towns may levy a license tax on each place of business located therein, taxed under this section, not in excess of one-fourth of that levied by the State, with the exception that the minimum tax may be as much as ten dollars ($10.00). (1939, c. 158, s. 153; 1947, c. 501, s. 2.)

Editor's Note.—Prior to the 1947 amendment the subject matter of this section appeared as a subsection of § 105-89.
§ 105-90. Emigrant and employment agents.—(a) Every person, firm, or corporation, either as agent or principal, engaged in the business of soliciting, hiring, and/or contracting with laborers, male or female, in this State, for employment out of the State shall apply for and obtain from the Commissioner of Revenue a State license for each county for the privilege of engaging in such business, and shall pay for such license a tax of five hundred dollars ($500.00) for each county in which such business is carried on.

Provided, that this section shall not apply to any employment agency operated by the federal government, the State, any county or municipality, or whose sole business is procuring employees for work in the production and harvesting of farm crops within the State, nor shall it apply to any registry for registered nurses or licensed practical nurses when not operated for profit. And provided further, that under this section the tax on any employment agency whose sole business is the placement of teachers and/or other school employees and which has been approved by the State Superintendent of Public Instruction shall be twenty-five dollars ($25.00): Provided further, that the tax on employment agencies where the sole business is the placement of domestic servants or unregistered nurses for employment within the State shall be twenty-five dollars ($25.00).

(c) Any person, firm, or corporation violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and fined, in addition to other penalties, not less than one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) and/or imprisoned, in the discretion of the court.

(d) Counties, cities and towns may levy a license tax on the business taxed under this section not in excess of that levied by the State. (1939, c. 158, s. 154; 1945, c. 635; 1963, c. 787, s. 1.)

Cross Reference.—As to statute applicable to emigrant agents who hire labor or solicit emigrants for employment in a state having a law similar to such statute, see § 105-90.1.

Editor's Note.—The 1945 amendment inserted "the business of" near the beginning of subsection (a).

The 1963 amendment inserted near the middle of the last paragraph of subsection (b) "nor shall it apply to any registry for registered nurses or licensed practical nurses when not operated for profit."

§ 105-90.1. Same; hiring or soliciting labor for employment in state having similar law.—(a) No person other than the North Carolina Employment Security Commission shall engage in the business of emigrant agent in this State without first having obtained a license therefor from the Commissioner of Revenue and the county treasurer of each county in which he solicits emigrants. The term “emigrant agent” as used in this section, shall be construed to mean any person engaged in the business of hiring laborers or soliciting emigrants in this State to be employed beyond the limits of the State or any person engaged in hiring laborers or soliciting laborers in this State to be employed beyond the limits of the State in farm labor, whether in the employ of the emigrant agent or otherwise. Any person shall be entitled to State and county license, which shall be good for one year, upon payment to the Commissioner of Revenue for the use of the State of five hundred dollars ($500.00) for each county in which he operates or solicits emigrants, and upon payment into the county treasury of each county in which he operates or solicits emigrants, for the use of each such county, of one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) for each year so engaged. Any person other than the North Carolina Employment Security Commission acting as an emigrant agent without having first obtained such license shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, shall be punished by a fine or imprisonment in the discretion of the court, and in addition to such fine or imprisonment the court may, in its discretion, require the defendant to purchase the State and county licenses herein provided.

(b) (1) Every person, firm, or corporation who or which engages in the business of securing employment for a person or persons and charging therefor a fee, commission, or other compensation shall apply for and obtain from the Commissioner of Revenue a State license for the privilege of engaging in such business in this State, and shall pay for such license the following annual tax for each location in which such business is carried on:

when not operated for profit. And provided further, that under this section the tax on any employment agency whose sole business is the placement of teachers and/or other school employees and which has been approved by the State Superintendent of Public Instruction shall be twenty-five dollars ($25.00): Provided further, that the tax on employment agencies where the sole business is the placement of domestic servants or unregistered nurses for employment within the State shall be twenty-five dollars ($25.00).

(2) Any person, firm, or corporation violating the provisions of this subsection shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and fined, in addition to other penalties, not less than one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) and/or imprisoned, in the discretion of the court.

(3) Counties, cities and towns may levy a license tax on the business taxed under this subsection not in excess of that levied by the State.

(c) The provisions of this section shall apply only to emigrant agents who hire labor or solicit emigrants for employment in a state having a law substantially similar to the provisions of this section. (1939, c. 158, s. 154; 1945, c. 635; 1953, c. 1237, ss. 1-4; 1963, c. 787, s. 2.)

Cross Reference.—For section applying to emigrant and employment agents generally, see § 105-90.

Editor’s Note.—The 1953 amendment re-wrote subsection (a), made changes in subsection (b) and added subsection (c).

§ 105-91. Plumbers, heating contractors, and electricians. — Every person, firm, or corporation engaged in the business of a plumber, installing plumbing fixtures, piping or equipment, steam or gas fitter, or installing hot-air heating systems, or installing electrical equipment, or offering to perform such services, shall apply for and obtain from the Commissioner of Revenue a State-wide license for the privilege of engaging in such business, and shall pay for such license the following tax based on population:

Municipalities of less than 2,000 population ...................................... $ 7.50
Municipalities of 2,000 and less than 5,000 population ....................... 12.50
Municipalities of 5,000 and less than 10,000 population ...................... 15.00
Municipalities of 10,000 and less than 20,000 population ................. 17.50
Municipalities of 20,000 and less than 30,000 population ................. 22.50
Municipalities of 30,000 and less than 50,000 population ................. 30.00
Municipalities of 50,000 or more .................................................. 40.00

If any person, firm, or corporation, required to be licensed under the provisions of this section, engages in said business in two or more cities or towns, such person, firm, or corporation shall procure a license based on the population of the largest city or town in which the business taxed under this section is carried on; however, after a basic tax has been paid, in accordance with the above schedule, same shall apply as a credit when a higher tax is required.

Provided, that when an individual required to be licensed under this section employs only one additional person the tax shall be one-half: Provided further, that any person, firm, or corporation engaged exclusively in the businesses enumerated in and licensed under this section shall not be liable for the tax provided in G. S. 105-54 to 105-56. All plumbing inspectors in cities or towns shall make a monthly report to the Commissioner of Revenue of all installation or repair permits issued for plumbing or heating.

With respect to electricians and electrical contractors, a license procured under this section shall cover the installation of electrical equipment, fixtures and wiring in or upon the consumer’s premises, or on the “customer’s side” of the point of delivery of electric service, but shall not cover the installation of or service
§ 105-92. Trading stamps.—(a) Every person, firm, or corporation engaged in the business of issuing, selling, and/or delivering trading stamps, checks, receipts, certificates, tokens, or other similar devices to persons, firms, or corporations engaged in trade or business, with the understanding or agreement, expressed or implied, that the same shall be presented or given by the latter to their patrons as a discount, bonus, premium, or as an inducement to secure trade or patronage, and that the person, firm, or corporation selling and/or delivering the same will give to the person presenting or promising the same, money or other thing of value, or any commission or preference in any way on account of the possession or presentation thereof, shall apply for and obtain from the Commissioner of Revenue a State license for the privilege of engaging in such business, and shall pay for such a license a tax of two hundred dollars ($200.00).

(b) This section shall not be construed to apply to a manufacturer or to a merchant who sells the goods, wares, or merchandise of such manufacturer, offering to present to the purchaser or customer a gift of certain value as an inducement to purchase such goods, wares or merchandise.

(c) Counties, cities, or towns may levy a license tax on the business taxed under this section and not in excess of that levied by the State. (1939, c. 158, s. 156.)

Gift Enterprises. — Dealers in trading stamps do not come within the provision of an ordinance taxing “gift enterprises.”

§ 105-93. Process tax.—(a) In every indictment or criminal proceeding finally disposed of in the superior court, the party convicted or adjudged to pay the cost shall pay a tax of two dollars ($2.00): Provided, that this tax shall not be levied in cases where the county is required to pay the cost.

(b) At the time of suing out the summons in a civil action in the superior court or other court of record, or the docketing of an appeal from the lower court in the superior court, the plaintiff or the appellant shall pay a tax of two dollars ($2.00): Provided, that this tax shall not be demanded of any plaintiff or appellant who has been duly authorized to sue or appeal in forma pauperis; but when in cases brought or in appeals in forma pauperis the costs are taxed against the defendants the tax shall be included in the bill of costs: Provided, that this tax shall not be levied in cases where the county is required to pay the cost and in tax foreclosure suits.

(c) No county, city, or town, or other municipal corporation shall be required to pay said tax upon the institution of any action brought by it, but whenever such plaintiff shall recover in such action, the said tax shall be included in the bill of costs and collected from the defendant.
(d) In any case where the party has paid the aforesaid cost in a civil action and shall recover in the final decision of the case, then such cost so paid by him shall be retaxed against the losing party adjudged to pay the cost, plus five per cent (5%) which the clerk of the superior court may retain for his services, and this shall be received by him, whether he is serving on a salary or fee basis, and if on a salary basis, shall be in addition to such salary.

(e) This section shall not apply to cases in the jurisdiction of magistrates' courts, whether civil or criminal, except upon appeals to the superior court from the judgment of such magistrate, and shall not apply for the docketing in the superior court of a transcript of a judgment rendered in any other court, whether of record or not.

(f) The tax provided for in this section shall be levied and assessed by the clerk of the superior court or other court in all cases described herein; and on the first Monday in January, April, July, and October of each and every year he shall make to the Commissioner of Revenue a sworn statement and report in detail, showing the number of the case on the docket, the name of the plaintiff or appellant in civil action, or the defendant in criminal action, and accompany such report and statement with the amount of such taxes collected, or which should have been collected, by him in the preceding three months. Any clerk of the superior court failing to make the report and pay the amount of tax due under this section within the first fifteen days of the month in which such report is required to be made, shall be liable for a penalty of ten per cent (10%) on the amount of tax that may be due at the time such report should be made. (1939, c. 158, s. 157.)

Where Appeal Is from Clerk to Judge.—Where an appeal is taken from an order of the clerk of the superior court to the judge thereof, the judge has jurisdiction by mandate of § 1-276, and no “docketing” is involved within the meaning of this section, nor is the clerk a “lower court,” so the two dollar tax as here provided is inapplicable to the superior court with respect to appeals, and the judge acquires jurisdiction without the payment of the tax. Windsor v. McVay, 206 N. C. 730, 175 S. E. 83 (1934).

§ 105-96. Marble yards.—Every person, firm, or corporation engaged in the business of manufacturing, erecting, jobbing, selling, or offering for sale monuments, marble tablets, gravestones or articles of like kind, or, if a nonresident, selling and erecting monuments, marble tablets, or gravestones at retail shall apply for and obtain from the Commissioner of Revenue a State license for the privilege of engaging in such business in this State, and shall pay for such license the following tax:

In unincorporated communities and cities or towns of less than 2,000 population ........................................ $15.00
In cities or towns of 2,000 and less than 5,000 population ............. 25.00
In cities or towns of 5,000 and less than 10,000 population .......... 30.00
In cities or towns of 10,000 and less than 15,000 population ......... 40.00
In cities or towns of 15,000 and less than 20,000 population ......... 50.00
In cities or towns of 20,000 and less than 25,000 population .......... 60.00
In cities or towns of 25,000 population or over .......................... 70.00

In addition to the license tax levied in this section, an additional tax shall be paid by the person, firm, or corporation engaged in the business taxed under this section of ten dollars ($10.00) for each person soliciting or selling.

Counties shall not levy any license tax on the business taxed under this section, and only the city or town in which the principal office, branch office or plant of any such business is located may levy a license tax on the business taxed under this section. No license tax levied by a city or town on the business taxed under § 105-97 Manufacturers of ice cream. — (a) Every person, firm, or corporation engaged in the business of manufacturing or distributing ice cream at wholesale shall apply for and obtain from the Commissioner of Revenue a State license for the privilege of doing business in this State and shall pay for each factory or place where manufactured and/or stored for distribution the following base tax: Where the machine or the equipment unit used is of the continuous freezer type the rate of tax shall be one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50) per gallon capacity based on the rated capacity in gallons per hour according to manufacturer's rating of such freezer or freezers, but in no case shall the tax be less than ten dollars ($10.00) per annum for any freezer or freezers used; and where the machine or equipment unit used is not of the continuous freezer type the rate of tax shall be five ($5.00) dollars per gallon capacity for the freezer or freezers used; but in no case shall the tax be less than ten dollars ($10.00) per annum for any freezer or freezers used; provided that the Commissioner shall have the right to check the correctness or accuracy of any such manufacturer's rating herein referred to and to levy the tax herein authorized on the basis of such determined capacity; and provided, further that where no standard freezer equipment with manufacturer's capacity rating is used, a tax of fifty dollars ($50.00) shall apply; and provided, further that the license tax herein shall not apply to any farmer who manufactures and sells only the products of his own cows.

Each truck, automobile or other vehicle coming into this State from another state and selling and/or delivering ice cream on which the tax has not been paid under the provisions of this section shall pay an annual license tax for the privilege of doing business in this State in the sum of one hundred dollars ($100.00) per truck, automobile or vehicle. The license secured from the State under this section shall be posted in the cab of the truck, automobile or other vehicle.

(b) For the purpose of this section the words “ice cream” shall apply to ice cream, frozen custards, sherbets, water ices, and/or similar frozen products.

(c) Every retail dealer selling at retail ice cream purchased from a manufacturer other than a manufacturer who has paid the tax imposed in subsection (a) of this section or a manufacturer using counter freezer equipment and selling ice cream at retail only shall pay an annual license tax for the privilege of doing business in this State of ten dollars ($10.00).

(d) Counties shall not levy a license tax on the business taxed under this section, but cities and towns may levy a license tax not in excess of one-fourth of the above. (1939, c. 158, s. 161; 1945, c. 708, s. 2.)

Editor's Note.—The 1945 amendment rewrote subsection (a) and made subsection (c) applicable to a manufacturer using counter freezer equipment and selling ice cream at retail only.

§ 105-98. Branch or chain stores.—Every person, firm, or corporation engaged in the business of operating or maintaining in this State, under the same general management, supervision, or ownership, two or more stores, or mercantile establishments where goods, wares, and/or merchandise are sold or offered for sale, or from which such goods, wares, and/or merchandise are sold and/or distributed at wholesale or retail, or who or which controls by lease, either as lessor or lessee, or by contract, the manner in which any such store or stores are operated, or the kinds, character, or brands of merchandise which are sold therein, shall be deemed a branch or chain store operator, and shall apply for and obtain from the Commissioner of Revenue a State license for the privilege of en-§ 105-99. Wholesale distributors of motor fuels.—Every person, firm, or corporation engaged in the business of distributing or selling at wholesale any motor fuels in this State shall apply to the Commissioner for an additional annual gaging in such business of a branch or chain store operator, and shall pay for such license a tax according to the following schedule:

On each and every such store operated in this State in excess of one, sixty-five dollars ($65.00).

The term “chain store” as used in this section shall include stores operated under separate charters of incorporation, if there is common ownership of a majority of stock in such separately incorporated companies, and/or if there is similarity of name of such separately incorporated companies, and/or if such separately incorporated companies have the benefit in whole or in part of group purchase of merchandise, or of common management. And in like manner the term “chain store” shall apply to any group of stores where a majority interest is owned by an individual or partnership.

Counties shall not levy a license tax on the business taxed under this section, but cities and towns may levy a license tax not in excess of fifty dollars ($50.00) for each chain store located in such city or town. For the purpose of ascertaining the particular unit in each chain of stores not subject to taxation by the State under this section, and therefore not liable for city license tax, the particular store in which the principal office of the chain in this State is located shall be designated as the unit in the chain not subject to this tax.

In enforcing the provisions of this section, the Commissioner of Revenue may prorate the total amount of tax for a chain to the several units and the amount so prorated may be recovered from each unit in the chain in the same way as other taxes levied in this article.

This section shall not apply to retail or wholesale dealers in motor vehicles and automotive equipment and supply dealers at wholesale who are not liable for tax hereunder on account of the sale of other merchandise. (1939, c. 158, s. 162; 1945, c. 708, s. 2; 1949, c. 392, s. 1.)

Editor’s Note.—The 1945 amendment substituted “privilege” for “purpose” near the end of the first paragraph. The 1949 amendment rewrote the second paragraph setting out the tax schedule.

For brief comment on the 1949 amendment, see 27 N. C. Law Rev. 481.

Constitutionality and Nature of Tax.—Public Laws 1929, c. 345, s. 162, imposing a license tax of fifty dollars for each store operated under the same ownership or management where there was more than one store so operated, was held constitutional and valid. Great A. & P. Tea Co. v. Maxwell, 199 N. C. 433, 154 S. E. 838 (1930).

The statute imposed a license tax for the purpose of raising revenue, and not an ad valorem tax. Nor did the statute seek to regulate chain stores under the police power, and the tax was in accord with the fiscal policy of the State of raising revenue for State purposes by the imposition of taxes on trades, professions, franchises and incomes, and leaving to the counties and municipalities for their support ad valorem taxes on real and personal prop-

Prior Law Invalid.—The prior law which imposed a license tax of fifty dollars each on stores operated in this State where there were six or more such stores under the same management, but which imposed no such tax on other mercantile establishments doing the same business when there were less than six stores under one management, was held an arbitrary classification, and unconstitutional. Great A. & P Tea Co. v. Doughton, 196 N. C. 145, 144 S. E. 701 (1928).

Corporation Operating Coal and Ice Yards Liable for Tax.—A corporation operating coal and ice yards at established places of business in several cities of the State, one or more yards being operated in each of the cities, and maintaining scales, bins, etc., and a staff composed of a yard foreman and other employees at each establishment, was held liable for the tax imposed by a similar statute, such coal and ice yards being "mercantile establishments" within the meaning of the statute. Atlantic Ice, etc., Co. v. Maxwell, 210 N. C. 723, 188 S. E. 381 (1936).
license to engage in such business, and shall pay for such privilege an additional annual license tax determined and measured by the number of pumps owned or leased by the distributor or wholesaler through which such motor fuels are sold, at retail, according to the following schedule:

For the first 50 pumps ........................................... $ 2.00 per pump
For 51 additional pumps and not more than 100 pumps .. 4.00 per pump
For 101 additional pumps and not more than 200 pumps 5.00 per pump
For 201 additional pumps and not more than 300 pumps 6.00 per pump
For 301 additional pumps and not more than 400 pumps 7.00 per pump
For 401 additional pumps and not more than 500 pumps 8.00 per pump
For 501 additional pumps and not more than 600 pumps 9.00 per pump
For all over 600 pumps ........................................... 10.00 per pump

Any contract or agreement, oral or written, express or implied by the terms or the effects of which the tax herein imposed shall be passed on directly or indirectly to any person, firm, or corporation not engaged in the business hereby taxed is hereby declared to be against the public policy of this State and null and void, and any person, firm, or corporation negotiating such an agreement, or receiving the benefits thereof, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and fined or imprisoned in the discretion of the court.

The tax herein imposed shall be in addition to all other taxes imposed by this chapter or under any other laws.

Counties, cities and towns shall not levy any tax by reason of the additional tax imposed by this section, but this section shall in no way affect the right given to counties, cities, and towns to levy taxes under § 105-89.

The business taxed under this section shall not be taxed under § 105-98. (1939,
c. 158, s. 1629½; 1963, c. 1169, s. 12.)

Editor's Note.—Prior to the 1963 amendment, effective July 1 1963 the license tax was $4.00 per pump for the first 100 pumps.

§ 105-100. Patent rights and formulas.—Every person, firm, or corporation engaged in the business of selling or offering for sale any patent right or formula shall apply in advance and obtain from the Commissioner of Revenue a separate State license for each and every county in this State where such patent right or formula is to be sold or offered for sale, and shall pay for each such separate license a tax of ten dollars ($10.00).

Counties, cities, or towns may levy a license on the business taxed under this section not in excess of the taxes levied by the State. (1939, c. 158, s. 163.)

§ 105-101. Tax on seals affixed by officers.—(a) Whenever the seal of the State, of the State Treasurer, the Secretary of State, or of any other public officer required by law to keep a seal (not including clerks of courts, notaries public, and other county officers) shall be affixed to any paper, the tax to be paid by the party applying for same shall be as follows:

For the Great Seal of the State on warrants of extradition for fugitives from justice from other states, the same fee and seal tax shall be collected from the state making the requisition which is charged in this State for like service.
For the seal of the State Department, to be collected by the Secretary of State ......................................................... $1.00
For the seal of the State Treasurer, to be collected by him .......... 1.00
For a scroll, when used in the absence of a seal, the tax shall be on the scroll, and the same as for the seal.

(b) All officers shall keep a true, full, and accurate account of the number of times any of such seals or scrolls are used, and shall deliver to the Governor of the State a sworn statement thereof.

(c) All seals affixed for the use of any county of the State, used on the commissions of officers of the national guard, and any other public officer not having a salary, under the pension law, or under any process of court, or to any commission issued by the Governor to any person in the employ of the State, or to be employed by the State shall be exempt from taxation. (1939, c. 158, s. 166; 1961, c. 1218.)

Editor's Note. — The 1961 amendment struck out the requirement of a tax of $2.50 for affixing the Great Seal of the State on any commission.

§ 105-102. Junk dealers.—Every person, firm, or corporation engaged in the business of buying and/or selling or dealing in what is commonly known as junk, including scrap metals, glass, waste paper, waste burlap, waste cloth, and cordage of every nature, kind and description, shall apply for and obtain from the Commissioner of Revenue a State license for the privilege of engaging in such business in this State and shall pay for such license an annual tax for each location where such business is carried on, according to the following schedule:

In unincorporated communities and in cities or towns of less than 2,500 population .......................... $ 25.00
In cities or towns of 2,500 and less than 5,000 population ........ 30.00
In cities or towns of 5,000 and less than 10,000 population ...... 50.00
In cities or towns of 10,000 and less than 20,000 population .... 75.00
In cities or towns of 20,000 and less than 30,000 population ... 100.00
In cities or towns of 30,000 population or more .................. 125.00

Provided, that if any person, firm, or corporation shall engage in the business enumerated in this section within a radius of two miles of the corporate limits of any city or town in this State, he or it shall pay a tax based on the population of such city or town according to the schedule above set out: Provided further, that any person, firm or corporation engaged in the business enumerated in this section who does not maintain an established place of business in this State and who buys and/or sells or disposes of junk and other waste materials purchased or collected in this State shall be liable for the license tax herein imposed upon the same basis as if such person, firm or corporation maintained a place of business in each county and municipality where such activity is carried on.

Counties, cities and towns may levy a license tax not in excess of one-half of that levied by the State; provided, however, that any person, firm or corporation dealing solely in waste paper shall not be liable for said tax; and provided further, the license levied herein shall apply to persons engaged in the collection of scrap, who maintain no regular place of business, and further that salvage committees operating, under State or federal sponsorship, community scrap yards where personal profit does not accrue, shall not be required to pay license under this section. (1939, c. 158, s. 168; 1943, c. 400, s. 2; 1949, c. 580, ss. 1, 2; 1957, c. 949.)

Editor's Note. — The 1943 amendment added the last proviso.

The 1949 amendment inserted the second proviso following the schedule, and changed the second proviso in the last paragraph.

The 1957 amendment deleted “otherwise than to licensed junk dealers or manufacturers in this State” formerly appearing immediately after “collected in this State” in the second proviso of the second paragraph. The amendment also changed the last paragraph by deleting “not” formerly appearing between “shall” and “apply” in the second proviso and by striking out the words “but sell only to licensed dealers or manufacturers in this State” formerly appearing after “business” at the end of such proviso.

Municipal Tax. — The findings of fact made by the trial court under the agreement of the parties were held to support the court's conclusion of law that plaintiff, although his place of business was located one-half mile outside the limits of defendant municipality, was engaged in the business of buying and selling junk within the municipality, and the judgment holding plaintiff liable for license tax levied by the municipality under authority of this section was affirmed. § 105-102.1 Certain cooperative associations. — (a) Every cooperative marketing association operating solely for the purpose of marketing the products of its members or other farmers, which operations may include activities which are directly related to such marketing activities, and turning back to them the proceeds of sales, less the necessary operating expenses of the association, including interest and dividends on capital stock, on the basis of the quantity of product furnished by them, and every mutual ditch or irrigation association, mutual or cooperative telephone association or company, mutual canning association, cooperative breeding association, or like organizations or associations of a purely local character deriving receipts solely from assessments, dues or fees collected from members for the sole purpose of meeting expenses, or production credit associations organized under the act of Congress known as the Farm Credit Act of 1933, shall apply for and obtain from the Commissioner of Revenue a State license for the privilege of engaging in such business in this State, and shall pay for such license an annual tax of ten dollars ($10.00), but shall not be required to pay any other tax levied by the provisions of this article.

(b) Counties, cities and towns may not levy any license tax upon such cooperative marketing associations or production credit associations organized under the act of Congress known as the Farm Credit Act of 1933. (1955, c. 1313, s. 1; 1957, c. 1340, s. 2; 1963, c. 601, ss. 1, 2.)

Editor's Note. — The 1957 amendment inserted, after "farmers" near the beginning of subsection (a) "which operations may include activities which are directly related to such marketing activities."

The 1963 amendment, effective Jan. 1, 1963, inserted the reference to production credit associations in the latter part of subsection (a) and also in subsection (b).

Administrative Provisions of Schedule B.

§ 105-103. Unlawful to operate without license.—When a license tax is required by law, and whenever the General Assembly shall levy a license tax on any business, trade, employment, or profession, or for doing any act, it shall be unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation without a license to engage in such business, trade, employment, profession, or do the act; and when such tax is imposed it shall be lawful to grant a license for the business, trade, employment, or for doing the act; and no person, firm, or corporation shall be allowed the privilege of exercising any business, trade, employment, profession, or the doing of any act taxed in this schedule throughout the State under one license, except under a State-wide license. (1939, c. 158, s. 181.)

§ 105-104. Manner of obtaining license from the Commissioner of Revenue.—(a) Every person, firm, or corporation desiring to obtain a State license for the privilege of engaging in any business, trade, employment, profession, or of the doing of any act for which a State license is required, shall, unless otherwise provided by law, make application therefor in writing to the Commissioner of Revenue, in which shall be stated the county, city, or town and the definite place therein where the business, trade, employment, or profession is to be exercised; the name and resident address of the applicant, whether the applicant is an individual, firm, or corporation; the nature of the business, trade, employment, or profession; number of years applicant has prosecuted such business, trade, employment, or profession in this State, and such other information as may be required by the Commissioner of Revenue. The application shall be accompanied by the license tax prescribed in this article.

(b) Upon receipt of the application for a State license with the tax prescribed by this article, the Commissioner of Revenue, if satisfied of its correctness, shall issue a State license to the applicant to engage in the business, trade, employment, or profession in the name of and at the place set out in the application. No license issued by the Commissioner of Revenue shall be valid or have any legal effect unless and until the tax prescribed by law has been paid, and the fact of such shall appear on the face of the license. (1939, c. 158, s. 182.)

§ 105-105. Persons, firms, and corporations engaged in more than one business to pay tax on each.—Where any person, firm, or corporation is engaged in more than one business, trade, employment, or profession which is made under the provisions of this article subject to State license taxes, such persons, firms, or corporations shall pay the license tax prescribed in this article for each separate business, trade, employment, or profession. (1939, c. 158, s. 183.)

§ 105-106. Effect of change in name of firm.—No change in the name of a firm, partnership, or corporation, nor the taking in of a new partner, nor the withdrawal of one or more of the firm, shall be considered as commencing business; but if any one or more of the partners remain in the firm, or if there is change in ownership of less than a majority of the stock, if a corporation, the business shall be regarded as continuing. (1939, c. 158, s. 184.)

§ 105-107. License may be changed when place of business is changed.—When a person, firm, or corporation has obtained a State license to engage in any business, trade, employment, or profession at any definite location in a county, and desires to remove to another location in the same county, the Commissioner of Revenue may, upon proper application, grant such person, firm, or corporation permission to make such move, and may endorse upon the State license his approval of change in location. (1939, c. 158, s. 185.)

§ 105-108. Property used in a licensed business not exempt from taxation.—A State license, issued under any of the provisions of this article shall not be construed to exempt from other forms of taxation the property employed in such licensed business, trade, employment, or profession. (1939, c. 158, s. 186.)

§ 105-109. Engaging in business without a license.—(a) All State license taxes under this article or schedule, unless otherwise provided for, shall be due and payable annually on or before the first day of July of each year, or at the date of engaging in such business, trade, employment and/or profession, or doing the act.

(b) If any person, firm, or corporation shall continue the business, trade, employment, or profession, or to do the act, after the expiration of a license previously issued, without obtaining a new license, he or it shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined and/or imprisoned in the discretion of the court, but the fine shall not be less than twenty per cent (20%) of the tax in addition to the tax and the costs; and if such failure to apply for and obtain a new license be continued, such person, firm, or corporation shall pay additional tax of five per centum (5%) of the amount of the State license tax which was due and payable on the first day of July of the current year, in addition to the State license tax imposed by this article, for each and every thirty days, or fraction thereof, that such State license tax remains unpaid from the date that same was due and payable, and such additional tax shall be assessed by the Commissioner of Revenue and paid with the State license tax, and shall become a part of the State license tax. The penalties for delayed payment hereinbefore provided shall not impair the obligation to procure a license in advance or modify any of the pains and penalties for failure to do so. The provisions of this section shall apply to taxes levied by the counties of the State under authority of this article in the same manner and to the same extent as they apply to taxes levied by the State.

(c) If any person, firm, or corporation shall commence to exercise any privi-
§ 105-110. Each day's continuance in business without a State license a separate offense.—Each and every day that any person, firm, or corporation shall continue to exercise or engage in any business, trade, employment, or profession, or do any act in violation of the provisions of this article, shall be and constitute a distinct and a separate offense. (1939, c. 158, s. 188.)

§ 105-111. Duties of Commissioner of Revenue. — (a) Except where otherwise provided, the Commissioner of Revenue shall be the duly authorized agent of this State for the issuing of all State licenses and the collection of all license taxes under this article, and it shall be his duty and the duty of his deputies to make diligent inquiry to ascertain whether all persons, firms, or corporations in the various counties of the State who are taxable under the provisions of this article have applied for the State license and paid the tax thereon levied.

(b) The Commissioner of Revenue shall continually keep in his possession a sufficient supply of blank State license certificates, with corresponding sheets and duplicates consecutively numbered; shall stamp across each State license certificate that is to be good and valid in each and every county of the State the words "State-wide license," and shall stamp or imprint on each and every license certificate the words "issued by the Commissioner of Revenue."

(c) Neither the Commissioner of Revenue nor any of his deputies shall issue any duplicate license unless expressly authorized to do so by a provision of this article or schedule, and unless the original license is lost or has become so mutilated as to be illegible, and in such cases the Commissioner of Revenue is authorized to issue a duplicate certificate for which the tax is paid, and shall stamp upon its face “duplicate.” (1939, c. 158, s. 189.)

§ 105-112. License to be procured before beginning business.—(a) Every person, firm, or corporation engaging in any business, trade, and/or profession, or doing any act for which a State license is required and a tax is to be paid under the provisions of this article or schedule, shall, annually in advance, on or before the first day of July of each year, or before engaging in such business, trade, and/or profession, or doing the act, apply for and obtain from the Commissioner of Revenue a State license for the privilege of engaging in such business, trade, and/or profession, or doing such act, and shall pay the tax levied therefor.

(b) Licenses shall be kept posted where business is carried on. No person, firm, or corporation shall engage in any business, trade, and/or profession, or do the act for which a State license is required in this article or schedule, without having such State license posted conspicuously at the place where such business, trade, and/or profession is carried on; and if the business, trade, and/or profession is such that license cannot be so posted, then the itinerant licensee shall have such license required by this article or schedule in his actual possession at the time of carrying on such business, trade, and/or profession, or doing the act named in this article or schedule, or a duplicate thereof.

(c) Any person, firm, or corporation failing, neglecting, or refusing to have the State license required under this article or schedule posted conspicuously at the place of business for which the license was obtained, or to have the same or a duplicate thereof in actual possession if an itinerant, shall pay an additional tax of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) for each and every separate offense, and each day’s failure, neglect, or refusal shall constitute a separate offense. (1939, c. 158, s. 190)

§ 105-113. Sheriff and city clerk to report.—The sheriff of each county and the clerk of the board of aldermen of each city or town in the State shall, on or before the fifteenth day of July of each year, make a report to the Commissioner of Revenue, containing the names and the business, trade, and/or the profession of every person, firm, or corporation in his county or city who or which is required to apply for and obtain a State license under the provisions of this article or schedule, and upon such forms as shall be provided and in such detail as may be required by the Commissioner of Revenue. (1939, c. 158, s. 191; 1963, c. 294, s. 7.)

Editor’s Note.—This section, which related to privilege taxes payable in advance and provided for the reduction of taxes levied under certain sections, was derived from Session Laws 1943, c. 400, s. 2, and was amended by Session Laws 1945, c. 708, s. 2. As the section expired by limitation on June 1, 1947, it has been deleted.
§ 105-114. Nature of taxes; definitions.—The taxes levied in this article upon persons and partnerships are for the privilege of engaging in business or doing the act named. The taxes levied in this article upon corporations are privilege or excise taxes levied upon:

(1) Corporations organized under the laws of this State for the existence of the corporate rights and privileges granted by their charters, and the enjoyment, under the protection of the laws of this State, of the powers, rights, privileges and immunities derived from the State by the form of such existence; and

(2) Corporations not organized under the laws of this State for doing business in this State and for the benefit and protection which such corporation receive from the government and laws of this State in doing business in this State.

The term “corporation” as used in this article shall, unless the context clearly requires another interpretation, mean and include not only corporations but also associations or joint-stock companies and every other form of organization for pecuniary gain, having capital stock represented by shares, whether with or without par value, and having privileges not possessed by individuals or partnerships; and whether organized under, or without, statutory authority.

When the term “doing business” is used in this article, it shall mean and include each and every act, power or privilege exercised or enjoyed in this State, as an incident to, or by virtue of the powers and privileges acquired by the nature of such organizations whether the form of existence be corporate, associate, joint-stock company or common-law trust.

If the corporation is organized under the laws of this State, the payment of the taxes levied by this article shall be a condition precedent to the right to continue in such form of organization; and if the corporation is not organized under the laws of this State, payment of said taxes shall be a condition precedent to the right to continue to engage in doing business in this State. The taxes levied in this article or schedule shall be for the fiscal year of the State in which said taxes become due. (1939, c. 158, s. 201; 1943, c. 400, s. 3; 1945, c. 708, s. 3.)

Editor's Note. — The 1943 amendment struck out former provisions relating to taxes transacted by the corporation, and the tax liens. The 1945 amendment rewrote this section.

Franchise Tax Not Ordinarily Included in Term “Privilege Tax.”—While the term “privilege tax” includes franchise taxes as well as license taxes, a franchise is a special kind of privilege constituting a property right, which is ordinarily transferable and exclusive, and involves the use of public facilities. The word “privilege” is too broad, per se, as a classification for taxation, but is usually particularized into licenses and franchises in classifying businesses for taxation, and as used in our taxation statutes, the term “privilege tax” does not ordinarily include franchise taxes. Duke Power Co. v. Bowles, 229 N. C. 143, 48 S. E. (2d) 287 (1948).

Tax Measured by Amount of Business Transacted.—Whenever a tax is imposed upon a corporation directly by the legislature and is not assessed by assessors, and the amount depends on the amount of business transacted by the corporation, and the extent to which it has exercised the privileges granted in its charter, without reference to the value of its property or the nature of the investments made of it, it is a franchise tax. Worth v. Petersburg R. Co., 89 N. C. 301 (1883).

Uniformity Required.—The rule of uniformity laid down in N. C. Const., Art. V, § 3, was intended to apply to taxes on franchises. Worth v. Petersburg R. Co., 89 N. C. 301 (1883).

Legislature May Make Tax by State Exclusive. — The General Assembly may require a corporation to pay a license tax for the privilege of carrying on its business, and forbid counties or other municipalities to exact any other license tax or fee. Loan Ass'n v. Commissioner, 115 N. C. 410, 20 S. E. 526 (1894).

§ 105-115. Franchise or privilege tax on railroads. — Every person, firm, or corporation, domestic or foreign, owning and/or operating a railroad in this State shall, in addition to all other taxes levied and assessed in the State, pay annually to the Commissioner of Revenue a franchise, license, or privilege tax for the privilege of engaging in such railroad business within the State of North Carolina, as follows:

(1) Such person, firm or corporation shall during the month of June each year furnish to the Commissioner of Revenue a copy of the report and statement required to be made to the State Board of Assessment by the Machinery Act in effect at the time such report is due, and such other and further information as the Commissioner of Revenue may require.

(2) The value upon which the tax herein levied shall be assessed by the Commissioner of Revenue and the measure of the extent to which every such railroad company is carrying on intrastate commerce within the State of North Carolina shall be the value of the total property, tangible and intangible, in this State, for each such railroad company, as assessed for ad valorem taxation during the calendar year in which such report is due.

(3) The franchise or privilege tax which every such railroad company shall pay for the privilege of carrying on or engaging in intrastate commerce within this State shall be seventy-five one-hundredths of one per cent (75/100%) of the value ascertained as above by the Commissioner of Revenue, and tax shall be due and payable within thirty days after date of notice of such tax.

(4) If any such person, firm, or corporation shall fail, neglect, or refuse to make and deliver the report or statements provided for in this section, the Commissioner of Revenue shall estimate, from the reports and record on file with the State Board of Assessment, the value upon which the amount of tax due by such company under this section shall be computed, and shall assess the franchise or privilege tax upon such estimate, and shall collect the same, together with such penalties herein imposed for failure to make the report and statement.

(5) It is the intention of this section to levy upon railroad companies a license, franchise, or privilege tax for the privilege of engaging in intrastate commerce carried on wholly within this State, and not a part of interstate commerce; that the tax provided for in this section is not intended to be a tax for the privilege of engaging in interstate commerce, nor is it intended to be a tax on the business of interstate commerce, nor is it intended to be a tax having any relation to the interstate or foreign business or commerce in which any such railroad company may be engaged in addition to its business in this State.

(6) No county, city or town shall levy a license, franchise, or privilege tax on the business taxed under this section.

(7) In determining the franchise tax of any railroad company now leasing its properties, there shall be excluded from the value of its properties all railroad properties being operated by any lessee company upon which valuation the franchise tax is required to be paid by the operating company. (1939, c. 158, s. 202; 1945, c. 708, s. 3.)

Cross Reference. — As to allowance of tax paid on bank deposits under § 105-199 as credit on tax payable under this section and § 105-122, see § 105-122, subsection (d).

Editor's Note. — The 1945 amendment added subdivision (7).

ice companies not otherwise taxed.—(a) Every person, firm, or corporation, domestic or foreign, other than municipal corporations, engaged in the business of furnishing electricity, electric lights, current, power or piped gas, or owning and/or operating a water system subject to regulation by the North Carolina Utilities Commission, or owning and/or operating a public sewerage system, or owning and/or operating a street railway, street bus or similar street transportation system for the transportation of freight or passengers for hire, shall, within thirty days after the first day of January, April, July and October of each year, make and deliver to the Commissioner of Revenue, upon such forms and blanks as required by him, a report verified by the affirmation of the officer or authorized agent making such report and statement, containing the following information:

(1) The total gross receipts for the three months ending the last day of the month immediately preceding such return from such business within and without this State.

(2) The total gross receipts for the same period from such business within this State.

(3) The total gross receipts from the commodities or services described in this section sold to any other person, firm, or corporation engaged in selling such commodities or services to the public, and actually sold by such vendee to the public for consumption and tax paid to this State by the vendee, together with the name of such vendee, with the amount sold and the price received therefor.

(4) The total amount and price paid for such commodities or services purchased from others engaged in the above-named business in this State, and the name or names of the vendor.

(b) From the total gross receipts within this State there shall be deducted the gross receipts reported in subsection (a) (3) of this section: Provided, that this deduction shall not be allowed where the sale of such commodities was made to any person, firm, or corporation or municipality which is exempted by law from the payment of the tax herein imposed upon such commodities when sold or used by it.

(c) On every such person, firm or corporation there is levied an annual franchise or privilege tax of six per cent (6%), payable quarterly, of the total gross receipts derived from such business within this State, after the deductions allowed as herein provided for, which said tax shall be for the privilege of carrying on or engaging in the business named in this State, and shall be paid to the Commissioner of Revenue at the time of filing the report herein provided for: Provided, the tax upon privately owned water companies shall be four per cent (4%) of the total gross receipts derived from such business within this State: Provided further, the tax on gas companies shall be at the rate of four per cent (4%) upon the first twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000.00) of the total gross receipts from piped gas, and the tax on all gross receipts in excess of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000.00) from piped gas shall be at the rate of six per cent (6%): Provided further, the tax on street bus or similar street transportation system for the transportation of passengers for hire shall be at the rate of one and one-half per cent (1½%).

(d) Any person, firm, or corporation failing to file report and pay tax found to be due in accordance with the provisions of this section at the time herein provided for shall, in addition to all other penalties prescribed by this article, pay an additional tax of ten per cent (10%) and interest at the rate of six per cent (6%) per annum on the total amount of tax due and additional tax incurred, which said additional tax shall in no case be less than two dollars ($2.00), and shall be added to the tax, together with interest accrued, and shall become an integral part of the tax.
(e) The report herein required of gross receipts within and without the State, shall include the total gross receipts for the period stated of all properties owned and operated by the reporting person, firm, or corporation on the first day of each calendar quarter year, whether operated by it for the previous annual period, or whether intermediately acquired by purchase or lease, it being the intent and purpose of this section to measure the amount of privilege or franchise tax in each calendar quarter year with reference to the gross receipts of the property operated for the previous calendar quarter year and to fix liability for the payment of the tax on the owner, operator, or lessor on the first day of January, April, July and October of each year.

(f) Companies taxed under this section shall not be required to pay the franchise tax imposed by § 105-122 or § 105-123 unless the tax levied by § 105-122 or § 105-123 exceeds the tax levied in this section, and no county shall impose a franchise, license or privilege tax upon the business taxed under this section.

(g) The Commissioner of Revenue shall ascertain the total gross receipts derived from the sale within any municipality of the commodities or services described in this section, except water and sewerage services, and out of the tax of six per cent (6%) of gross receipts levied by this section, an amount equal to a tax of $\frac{3}{4}$ of 1% of the gross receipts from sales within any municipality shall be distributed to such municipality: Provided, that out of the tax of four per cent (4%) of the first $25,000.00 of gross receipts of gas companies an amount equal to a tax of $\frac{3}{4}$ of 1% of the gross receipts from sales within any municipality, and out of the tax of six per cent (6%) of gross receipts of gas companies in excess of $25,000.00 an amount equal to a tax of $\frac{3}{4}$ of 1% of the gross receipts from sales within any municipality, shall be distributed to such municipality. If the gross receipts of any gas company from sales within and without any municipality exceed $25,000.00, receipts from sales without the municipality shall be allocated to the first $25,000.00 of total gross receipts.

Not later than fifteen days after the date on which each quarterly payment of taxes is due under this section, the Commissioner of Revenue shall report to the State Board of Assessment the amount collected under this section on account of receipts from the sale within each municipality of the commodities or services, other than water and sewerage services, described in this section. The State Board of Assessment shall examine such reports and, if found to be correct, shall certify a copy of the same to the State Auditor and State Treasurer. Upon certification by the State Board of Assessment, as herein provided, it shall be the duty of the State Auditor to issue warrant on the State Treasurer to the treasurer, or other officer authorized to receive public funds, of each municipality in the amount to be distributed to each such municipality as herein provided.

So long as there is a distribution to municipalities of the amount herein provided from the tax imposed by this section, no municipality shall impose or collect any greater franchise, privilege or license taxes, in the aggregate, on the businesses taxed under this section, than was imposed and collected on or before January 1, 1947. If any municipality shall have collected any privilege, license or franchise tax between January 1, 1947, and April 1, 1949, in excess of the tax collected by it prior to January 1, 1947, then upon distribution of the taxes imposed by this section to municipalities, the amount distributable to any municipality shall be credited with such excess payment. (1939, c. 158, s. 203; 1949, c. 392, s. 2; 1951, c. 643, s. 3; 1955, c. 1313, s. 2; 1957, c. 1340, s. 3; 1959, c. 1259, s. 3; 1963, c. 1169, s. 1.)

Editor's Note. — The 1949 amendment rewrote subsection (f) and added subsection (g).

The 1951 amendment inserted "piped" preceding "gas" near the beginning of the opening paragraph of subsection (a), and inserted the words "from piped gas" in the next to last proviso in subsection (c).

The 1955 amendment added the proviso at the end of subsection (c).

The 1957 amendment substituted "one and one-half per cent (1½%)" for "three per cent (8%)" at the end of subsection (c).
§ 105-117. Franchise or privilege tax on Pullman, sleeping, chair, and dining cars.—(a) Every person, firm, or corporation, domestic or foreign, engaged in the business of operating in this State any Pullman, sleeping, chair, dining or other similar cars, where an extra charge is made for the use or occupancy of same, shall annually, on or before the first day of August, make and deliver to the Commissioner of Revenue, upon such forms, blanks, and in such manner as may be required by him, a full, accurate, and true report and statement, verified by affirmation of the officer or authorized agent making such report, of the total gross receipts of such person, firm, or corporation from such business wholly within this State during the year ending the thirtieth day of June of the current year.

(b) Such person, firm, or corporation shall pay an annual privilege, license, or franchise tax of ten per cent (10%) of the total gross receipts derived from such business wholly within this State; which said tax shall be paid for the privilege of carrying on or engaging in the business named in this State, and shall be paid to the Commissioner of Revenue at the time of filing the report and statements herein provided for.

(c) No county, city or town shall impose any franchise or privilege tax on the business taxed under this section. (1939, c. 158, s. 204; 1959, c. 1259, s. 3.)

§ 105-118. Franchise or privilege tax on express companies. — (a) Every person, firm, or corporation, domestic or foreign, engaged in this State in the business of any express company as defined in this chapter, shall, in addition to a copy of the report required by the Machinery Act then in effect, annually, on or before the first day of August, make and deliver to the Commissioner of Revenue a report and statement, verified by the affirmation of the officer or authorized agent making such report or statement, containing the following information as of the thirtieth day of June of the current year:

(1) The average amount of invested capital employed within and without the State in such business during the year ending the thirtieth day of June of the current year.

(2) The total net income earned on such invested capital from such business during the year ending the thirtieth day of June of the current year.

(3) The total number of miles of railroad lines or other common carriers over which such express companies operate in this State during the year ending the thirtieth day of June of the current year.

2D N.C.—20 305
Every such person, firm, or corporation, domestic or foreign, engaged in such express business within this State shall pay to the Commissioner of Revenue, at the time of filing the report required in this section, the following annual franchise or privilege tax for the privilege of engaging in such express business within this State:

1. Where the net income of the average capital invested during the year ending the thirtieth day of June of the current year is six per cent (6%) or less, fifteen dollars ($15.00) per mile of railroad lines over which operated.

2. More than six per cent (6%) and less than eight per cent (8%), twenty-one dollars ($21.00) per mile of railroad lines over which operated.

3. Eight per cent (8%) and over, twenty-five dollars ($25.00) per mile of railroad lines over which operated.

Every such person, firm, or corporation, domestic or foreign, who or which engages in such business without having had previous receipts upon which to levy the franchise or privilege tax, shall report to the Commissioner at the time of beginning in this State and pay for such privilege of engaging in business in this State a tax of seven dollars and fifty cents ($7.50) per mile of the railroad lines over which operated or proposed to operate.

Counties shall not levy a franchise, privilege or license tax on the business taxed under this section; and municipalities may levy an annual franchise, privilege, or license tax on such express companies for the privilege of doing business within the municipal limits as follows:

| Municipalities of less than 500 population | $ 5.00 |
| Municipalities of 500 and less than 1,000 population | 10.00 |
| Municipalities of 1,000 and less than 5,000 population | 20.00 |
| Municipalities of 5,000 and less than 10,000 population | 30.00 |
| Municipalities of 10,000 and less than 20,000 population | 50.00 |
| Municipalities of 20,000 and over | 75.00 |

Editor's Note. — The 1959 amendment substituted "affirmation" for "oath" in subsection (a).

Constitutionality.—A tax upon express companies of $15.00 per mile of track over which they operate in this State, when the net income is six per cent or less, levied under the provisions of the former statute, was held valid under the provisions of our State Constitution, Art. V, § 3. Railway Express Agency v. Maxwell, 199 N. C. 637, 155 S. E. 553 (1930).

Where a tax levied on an express company under the provisions of the statute is $15.00 per mile of track over which it operates in this State, amounting to slightly in excess of 12 per cent of its gross revenue exclusively derived from intrastate business, not taking into account large gross receipts from interstate business, it will not be held as a matter of law that the tax is unconstitutional as being confiscatory. Railway Express Agency v. Maxwell, 199 N. C. 637, 155 S. E. 553 (1930).

Question of Earnings within and without State Immaterial. — Where a statute imposes a tax upon express companies based upon the mileage of track in this State over which they operate, levying a tax of $15.00 per mile when the net income of the company is six per cent or less, $18.00 when the net income does not exceed eight per cent, and $21.00 per mile when the net income exceeds eight per cent, and the State levies the minimum tax on an express company, which sues to recover the amount so paid, the question of the ratio of the company's net earnings in this and other states, and the amount of the net income are immaterial to the conclusion as to whether the tax is valid, the tax levied being constant regardless of income or the ratio between interstate and intrastate business, and the validity of the higher rate of taxes levied by the statute is not directly presented for decision. Railway Express Agency v. Maxwell, 199 N. C. 637, 155 S. E. 553 (1930).

§ 105-120. Franchise or privilege tax on telephone companies. —

(a) Every person, firm, or corporation, domestic or foreign, owning and/or operating a telephone business for the transmission of messages and/or conversations to, from, through, in or across this State, shall, within thirty days after the first day of January, April, July and October of each year, make and deliver to the Commissioner of Revenue a quarterly return, verified by the affirmation of the officer or authorized agent making such return, showing the total amount of gross receipts of such telephone company for the three months ending the last day

§ 105-120. Franchise or privilege tax on telephone companies. —

(a) Every person, firm, or corporation, domestic or foreign, owning and/or operating a telephone business for the transmission of messages and/or conversations to, from, through, in or across this State, shall, within thirty days after the first day of January, April, July and October of each year, make and deliver to the Commissioner of Revenue a quarterly report, verified by the affirmation of the officer or authorized agent making such report and statement, containing the following information:

1. The total gross receipts from business within and without this State for the entire calendar year next preceding due date on such return.

2. The total gross receipts for the same period from business within this State.

(b) On every such person, firm or corporation there is hereby levied an annual franchise or privilege tax of six per cent (6%) of the total gross receipts derived from business within this State. Such gross receipts shall include all charges for services, all rentals, fees, and all other similar charges from business which both originates and terminates in the State of North Carolina, whether such business in the course of transmission goes outside this State or not. The tax herein levied shall be for the privilege of carrying on or engaging in the business named in this State, and shall be paid to the Commissioner of Revenue at the time of filing the report herein provided for.

(c) The report herein required shall include the total gross receipts for the period stated of all properties, owned, leased, controlled and/or over which operated by such person, firm or corporation in this State.

(d) Any person, firm or corporation failing to file report and pay tax found to be due in accordance with the provisions of this section at the time herein provided for shall, in addition to all other penalties prescribed in this article, pay an additional tax of ten per cent (10%) and interest at the rate of six per cent (6%) per annum on the total amount of tax due and additional tax incurred, which said additional tax shall in no case be less than two dollars ($2.00), and shall be added to the tax, together with interest accrued, and shall become an integral part of the tax.

(e) Counties shall not levy a franchise, privilege, or license tax on the business taxable under this section, and municipalities may levy the following license tax:

Editor's Note. — The 1951 amendment struck from subsection (b) the former proviso which read as follows: "Provided, that the tax on the first one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) of gross receipts of any such telegraph company shall be at the rate of four per cent (4%), and all gross receipts in excess of said first one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) shall be taxed at the rate of six per cent (6%)."

The 1957 amendment deleted from subsection (e) the provision that "Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize the imposition of any tax upon interstate commerce."

The 1959 amendment substituted "affirmation" for "oath" in subsection (a).

of the month immediately preceding such return, and pay, at the time of making such return, the franchise, license or privilege tax herein imposed.

(b) An annual franchise or privilege tax of six per cent (6%), payable quarterly, on the gross receipts of such telephone company, is herein imposed for the privilege of engaging in such business within this State. Such gross receipts shall include all rentals, other similar charges, and all tolls received from business which both originates and terminates in the State of North Carolina, whether such business in the course of transmission goes outside of this State or not. Provided, where any city or town in the State has heretofore sold at public auction to the highest bidder the right, license and/or privilege of engaging in such business in such city or town, based upon a percentage of gross revenue of such telephone company, and is now collecting and receiving therefor a revenue tax not exceeding one per cent of such revenues, the amount so paid by such operating company, upon being certified by the treasurer of such municipality to the Commissioner of Revenue, shall be from time to time credited by the Commissioner of Revenue to such telephone company upon the tax imposed by the State under this section of this chapter.

(c) Any such person, firm or corporation, domestic or foreign, who or which fails, neglects, or refuses to make the return, and/or pay the tax at the time provided for in this section, shall pay an additional tax of ten per cent (10%) and interest at the rate of six per cent (6%) per annum on the total amount of tax due and additional tax incurred, which said additional tax shall not be less than two dollars ($2.00) in any case, and shall be added to the tax, together with the interest accrued, and shall become an integral part of the tax.

(d) The Commissioner of Revenue shall ascertain the total gross receipts derived from local business conducted within each municipality in this State by persons, firms or corporations taxed under this section, and out of the tax levied by this section, an amount equal to a tax of 3/4 of 1% of the gross receipts from local business conducted within any municipality shall be distributed to such municipality. When a person, firm or corporation taxed under this section properly receives a credit on said taxes under the proviso in subsection (b) because of payments made to a municipality, such municipality's distributive share of the taxes levied by this section shall be reduced by the amount of the credit properly received by said person, firm or corporation. If the credit received under the proviso is greater than the municipality's distributive share of the taxes levied under this section, no distribution to such municipality shall be made.

Not later than fifteen days after the date on which each quarterly payment of taxes is due under this section, the Commissioner of Revenue shall report to the State Board of Assessment the amount collected under this section on account of receipts from local business conducted within each municipality. The State Board of Assessment shall examine such reports and, if found to be correct, shall certify a copy of the same to the State Auditor and State Treasurer. Upon certification by the State Board of Assessment, as herein provided, it shall be the duty of the State Auditor to issue warrant on the State Treasurer to the treasurer, or other officer authorized to receive public funds, of each municipality in the amount to be distributed to each such municipality as herein provided.

In determining what constitutes local business conducted within a municipality for the purposes of this subsection, all business originating within a municipality, except long-distance calls, shall be construed as local business.

The Department of Revenue is hereby authorized and empowered to require any and all persons, firms or corporations taxed under this section to file additional reports disclosing the gross receipts derived from local business as herein defined and the gross receipts from long-distance business.

If the records of the corporation taxed under this section do not readily disclose allocation to municipalities of revenues from local business as above defined, the Commissioner of Revenue shall prescribe some practicable method of allocating such local revenues.

(e) Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize the imposition of any tax upon interstate commerce.

(f) Counties, cities and towns shall not levy any franchise, license, or privilege tax on the business taxed under this section. (1939, c. 158, s. 207; 1949, c. 392, s. 2; 1959, c. 1259, s. 3.)

Editor's Note.—The 1949 amendment inserted subsection (d).

The 1959 amendment substituted "affirmation" for "oath" near the middle of subsection (a).

This Section Construed in Pari Materia with § 160-2 (6).—Construing § 160-2 (6), which authorizes municipalities to grant franchises upon reasonable terms, in pari materia with subsection (f) of this section, it becomes clear that no authorization of additional tax was intended by § 160-2 (6). (1943, c. 60, s. 2.)

§ 105-122. Franchise or privilege tax on domestic and foreign corporations.—(a) Every corporation, domestic and foreign, incorporated, or, by any act, domesticated under the laws of this State, except as otherwise provided in this article or schedule, shall, on or before the thirty-first day of July of each year, make and deliver to the Commissioner of Revenue in such form as he may prescribe a full, accurate and complete report and statement signed by either its president, vice president, treasurer, assistant treasurer, secretary or assistant secretary, containing such facts and information as may be required by the Commissioner of Revenue as shown by the books and records of the corporation at the close of its last calendar or fiscal year next preceding July thirty-first of the year in which report is due.

There shall be annexed to the return required by this subsection the affirmation of the officer signing the return in the following form: "I hereby affirm that this return, including the accompanying schedules and statements (if any) have been examined by me, and, to the best of my knowledge and belief, is true and complete and is made in good faith covering the taxable period stated, pursuant to the Revenue Act of 1939, as amended, and the regulations issued under authority thereof, and that this affirmation is made under the penalties prescribed by law." Any individual who willfully makes and subscribes a return which he does not believe to be true and correct as to every material matter, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) or by imprisonment not to exceed six months, or both, in the discretion of the court.

(b) Every such corporation taxed under this section shall determine the total amount of its issued and outstanding capital stock, surplus and undivided profits; no reservation or allocation from surplus or undivided profits shall be allowed other than for definite and accrued legal liabilities, except as herein provided; taxes accrued, dividends declared and reserves for depreciation of tangible assets as permitted for income tax purposes shall be treated as deductible liabilities. There shall also be treated as a deductible liability reserves for the entire cost of any sewage or waste treatment plant, including waste lagoons, and pollution abatement equipment purchased or constructed and installed which reduces the amount of water pollution resulting from the discharge of sewage and industrial wastes or other polluting materials or substances into streams, lakes, or rivers, upon condition that the corporation claiming such deductible liability shall furnish to the Commissioner a certificate from the State Stream Sanitation Committee certifying that said Committee has found as a fact that the waste treatment plant or pollution abatement equipment purchased or constructed and installed as above described has actually been constructed and installed and that such plant or equipment complies with the requirements of said Committee with respect to such plants or equipment, that such plant or equipment is being effectively operated in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in the permit, certificate of approval, or other document of approval issued by the State Stream Sanitation Committee, and that the primary purpose thereof is to reduce water pollution resulting from the discharge of sewage and waste and not merely incidental to other purposes and functions; such deductible liability shall be allowed only with respect to such pollution abatement plants or equipment constructed or installed on or after January 1, 1955. Treasury stock shall not be considered in computing the capital stock, surplus and undivided profits as the basis for franchise tax, but shall be excluded proportionately from said capital stock, surplus and undivided profits as the case may be upon the basis and to the extent of the cost thereof.

Every corporation doing business in this State which is a parent, subsidiary, or affiliate of another corporation shall add to its capital stock, surplus and undivided profits all indebtedness owed to or endorsed or guaranteed by a parent, subsidiary or affiliated corporation as a part of its capital used in its business and as a part of the base for franchise tax under this section. The term “indebtedness” as used in this paragraph shall include all loans, credits, goods, supplies or other capital of whatsoever nature furnished by a parent, subsidiary, or affiliated corporation. The terms “parent,” “subsidiary,” and “affiliate” as used in this paragraph shall have the meaning specified in § 105-143. If any part of the capital of the creditor corporation is capital borrowed from a source other than a parent, subsidiary or affiliate, the debtor corporation, which is required under this paragraph to include in its tax base the amount of debt by reason of being a parent, subsidiary, or affiliate of the said creditor corporation, may deduct from the debt thus included a proportionate part determined on the basis of the ratio of such borrowed capital as above specified of the creditor corporation to the total assets of the said creditor corporation. Further, in case the creditor corporation as above specified is also taxable under the provisions of this section, such creditor corporation shall be allowed to deduct from the total of its capital, surplus and undivided profits the amount of any debt owed to it by a parent, subsidiary or affiliated corporation to the extent that such debt has been included in the tax base of said parent, subsidiary or affiliated debtor corporation reporting for taxation under the provisions of this section.

In determining the total amount of the capital stock, surplus and undivided profits, as herein defined, effect shall be given to the final judgment of any court approving a corporate reorganization entered prior to July first of any calendar year and since the close of the corporation's last calendar or fiscal year next preceding.

(c) After ascertaining and determining the amount of its capital stock, surplus and undivided profits, as herein provided, every such corporation permitted to do business in this State shall allocate to such business in this State a proportion of the total amount of its capital stock, surplus and undivided profits as herein defined, according to the following rules:

(1) Where the principal business of the corporation part of which is conducted in this State is the manufacture, production or sale of tangible personal property or dealing in tangible personal property the total amount of capital stock, surplus and undivided profits of such corporation shall be apportioned to North Carolina on the basis of the ratio obtained by taking the arithmetical average of the following three ratios, except, that where the items of property and payroll described in paragraphs a and b of this subdivision are both 100 per cent attributable to North Carolina (resulting in 100 per cent ratios) the total amount of capital stock, surplus and undivided profits of such corporation shall be attributable to North Carolina unless such corporation is taxed upon its net income under the laws of some other state or states or would be taxed upon its net income by some other state or states if such other state or states had the income tax laws of North Carolina:

a. Property—The ratio of the value of real estate and tangible personal property used by such corporation in this State at the close of the income year of such corporation to the value of the entire real estate and tangible personal property used by it everywhere at the close of the income year of such corporation, as defined in G. S. 105-132, except that inventories of goods, wares and merchandise shall be valued on the basis of a monthly or other periodic average during the income year of such corporation. If the taxpayer does not take or keep records of monthly or other periodic inventories, or, if in the opinion of the Commissioner of Revenue the method and time of taking such inventories does not accurately reflect the true average inventory, the Commissioner shall determine the proper amount from such information as may be available. As used in this paragraph:

1. The words “tangible personal property” shall mean corporeal property such as machinery, tools, implements, goods, wares and merchandise, and shall not mean cash on hand or in bank, shares of stock, bonds, notes, accounts receivable, credits, special privileges, franchises, good will, evidence of an interest in property or evidences of debt.

2. The word “value” as applied to property owned other than inventories shall mean original cost plus additions and improvements less reserve for depreciation, unless in the opinion of the Commissioner of Revenue the peculiar circumstances in any case justify a different basis, in which event the Commissioner may construe “value” to mean fair market value. Inventories shall be valued in accordance with the accounting practice of the corporation, unless in the opinion of the Commissioner of Revenue a different method is required in order to better reflect the business conducted by the corporation in this State. In determining the value of property no deductions shall be made for encumbrances thereon.

3. The words “property used” shall include all real estate and all tangible personal property owned, leased or rented by the corporation at the close of the income year, as defined in G. §. 105-132, except that any property not connected with the business of the corporation part of which is conducted within North Carolina shall be excluded from both the numerator and denominator of the ratio.

4. The word “value” as applied to real estate rented or leased shall mean the net annual rental rate multiplied by 8, and as applied to tangible personal property rented or leased the word “value” shall mean the net annual rental rate multiplied by such figure for each type of property as the Commissioner shall direct. The net annual rental rate shall mean the gross annual rental rate paid by the taxpayer less the gross annual rental rate received by the taxpayer for subrentals of real estate.

b. Payrolls.—The ratio of all salaries, wages, commissions and other personal service compensation paid or incurred by the taxpayer in connection with the trade or business of the taxpayer in this State during the income year as defined in G. S. 105-132 to the total salaries, wages, commissions and other personal service compensation paid or incurred by the taxpayer in connection with the entire trade or business of the taxpayer wherever conducted during the income year. For the purposes of this section, all such compensation to employees chiefly working at, sent out from or chiefly connected with an office, agency or place of business of the taxpayer in this State shall be deemed to be in connection with the trade or business of the taxpayer in this State; all such compensation to general executive officers having company-wide authority shall be excluded from the numerator and the denominator of the ratio, and all such compensation in connection with income separately allocated under the provisions of this section shall be excluded from the numerator and the denominator of the ratio.

c. Sales.—The ratio of sales made by such corporation during the income year as defined in G. S. 105-132 which are attributable to North Carolina to the total sales made by such corporation everywhere during the income year.

For purposes of this subsection sales attributable to North Carolina shall be all sales where the goods, merchandise or property is received in this State by the purchaser. In the case of delivery of goods by common carrier or by other means of transportation, including transportation by the purchaser, the place at which the goods are ultimately received after all transportation has been completed shall be considered as the place at which the goods are received by the purchaser. Provided that direct delivery into this State by the taxpayer to a person or firm designated by a purchaser from within or without the State shall constitute delivery to the purchaser in this State. The word "sales" as used in this subsection shall be construed to include rentals of tangible personal property the rentals from which are not separately allocated under subdivision (4) of G. S. 105-134, such rentals to be attributed to North Carolina if the property is located in North Carolina.

(2) Where the principal business of the corporation, part of which is conducted in this State, is other than those in subdivision (1) of this subsection the corporation shall apportion the total amount of its capital stock, surplus and undivided profits to North Carolina by the use of the ratio of the gross receipts in this State during the income year as defined in G. S. 105-132 to gross receipts of the company everywhere. For purposes of this paragraph "gross receipts" shall mean all receipts from whatever source received except that gross receipts from sources the net income from which is separately allocated under subdivisions (1) through (5) of G. S. 105-134 and gross receipts received from the casual sale of property used in production of income in the trade or business shall be excluded from both the numerator and the denominator of the ratio.

(3) If any corporation believes that the method of allocation or apportionment hereinbefore described as administered by the Commissioner of Revenue has operated or will so operate as to subject it to taxation on a greater portion of its capital stock, surplus and undivided profits than is reasonably attributable to business within the State, it shall be entitled to file with the Tax Review Board a petition setting forth the facts upon which its belief is based and its argument with respect to the application of the allocation formula. This petition shall be filed in such form and within such time as the Tax Review Board may prescribe. The Board shall grant a hearing thereon. At least three members of the Tax Review Board shall attend any hearing pursuant to such petition. In such cases the Tax Review Board's membership shall be augmented by the addition of the Commissioner of Revenue, who shall sit as a member of said Board with full power to participate in its deliberations and decisions with respect to petitions filed under the provisions of this section. An informal record containing in substance the evidence, contentions and arguments presented at the hearing shall be made. All members of the augmented Tax Review Board shall consider such evidence, contentions and arguments, and the decision thereon shall be made by a majority vote of the augmented Board. If the Board shall find that the application of the allocation formula subjects the corporation to taxation on a greater portion of its capital stock, surplus and undivided profits than is reasonably attributable to its business within this State:

a. If the corporation shall employ in its books of account a detailed allocation of receipts and expenditures which reflects more clearly than the applicable allocation formula or alternative formulas prescribed by this section the portion of the capital stock, surplus and undivided profits attributable to the business within this State, application for permission to base the return upon the taxpayer's books of account shall be considered by the Tax Review Board. The Board shall be authorized to permit such separate accounting method in lieu of applying the applicable allocation formula if the Board deems such method proper.

as best reflecting the portion of the capital stock, surplus and undivided profits attributable to this State.

b. If the corporation shall show that any other method of allocation than the applicable allocation formula or alternative formulas prescribed by this section reflects more clearly the portion of the capital stock, surplus and undivided profits attributable to the business within this State, application for permission to base the return upon such other method shall be considered by the Tax Review Board. The application shall be accompanied by a statement setting forth in detail, with full explanations, the method the taxpayer believes will more nearly reflect the portion of its capital stock, surplus and undivided profits attributable to the business within this State. If the Board shall conclude that the allocation formula and the alternative formulas prescribed by this section allocate to this State a greater portion of the capital stock, surplus and undivided profits of the corporation than is reasonably attributable to business within this State, it shall determine the allocable portion by such other method as it shall find best calculated to assign to this State for taxation the portion reasonably attributable to its business within this State.

There shall be a presumption that the appropriate allocation formula reasonably attributes to this State the portion of the corporation's capital stock, surplus and undivided profits reasonably attributable to its business in this State and the burden shall rest upon the corporation to show the contrary. The relief herein authorized shall be granted by the Board only in cases of clear, cogent and convincing proof that the petitioning taxpayer is entitled thereto. No corporation shall use any alternative formula or method other than the applicable allocation formula provided by statute in making a franchise tax report or return to this State except upon order in writing of the Board and any return in which any alternative formula or other method other than the applicable allocation formula prescribed by statute is used without the permission of the Board, shall not be a lawful return.

When the Board determines, pursuant to the provisions of this article, that an alternative formula or other method more accurately reflects the portion of the capital stock, surplus and undivided profits allocable to North Carolina and renders its decision with regard thereto, the corporation shall allocate its capital stock, surplus and undivided profits for future years in accordance with such determination and decision of the Board so long as the conditions constituting the basis upon which the decision was made remain unchanged or until such time as the business method of operation of the corporation changes. Provided, however, that the Commissioner of Revenue may, in his discretion, with respect to any subsequent year, require the corporation to furnish information relating to its property, operations and activities.

A corporation which proposes to do business in this State may file a petition with the Board setting forth the facts upon which it contends that the applicable allocation formula will allocate a greater portion of the corporation's capital stock, surplus and undivided profits to North Carolina than will be reasonably attributable to its proposed business within the State. Upon a proper showing in accordance with the procedure described above for determination by the Board, the Board may authorize such corporation to allocate its capital stock, surplus and undivided profits to North Carolina on the basis prescribed by the Board under the provisions of this section for such future years.

as the conditions constituting the basis upon which the Board’s decision is made remain unchanged and the business operations of the corporation continue to conform to the statement of proposed methods of business operations presented by the corporation to the Board.

When the Commissioner of Revenue asserts liability under the formula adjustment decision of the Tax Review Board, an aggrieved taxpayer may pay the tax under protest and bring a civil action for recovery under the provisions of G. S. 105-241.4.

(4) The proportion of the total capital stock, surplus and undivided profits of each such corporation so allocated shall be deemed to be the proportion of the total capital stock, surplus and undivided profits of each such corporation used in connection with its business in this State and liable for annual franchise tax under the provisions of this section.

(d) After determining the proportion of its total capital stock, surplus and undivided profits as set out in subsection (c) of this section, which amount so determined shall in no case be less than the total assessed value (including total gross valuation returned for taxation of intangible personal property) of all the real and personal property in this State of each such corporation for the year in which report is due nor less than its total actual investment in tangible property in this State, every corporation taxed under this section shall annually pay to the Commissioner of Revenue, at the time the report and statement are due, a franchise or privilege tax, which is hereby levied, at the rate of one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50) per one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) of the total amount of capital stock, surplus and undivided profits as herein provided. The tax imposed in this section shall in no case be less than ten dollars ($10.00) and shall be for the privilege of carrying on, doing business, and/or the continuance of articles of incorporation or domestication of each such corporation in this State: Provided, that the basis for the franchise tax on all corporations, eighty per cent (80%) of whose outstanding capital stock is owned by persons or corporations to whom or to which such stock was issued prior to January 1, 1935, in part payment or settlement of their respective deposits in any closed bank of the State of North Carolina, shall be the total assessed value of the real and tangible personal property of such corporation in this State for the year in which report and statement is due under the provisions of this section. The term “total actual investment in tangible property” as used in this section shall be construed to mean the total original purchase price or consideration to the reporting taxpayer of its tangible properties, including real estate, in this State plus additions and improvements thereto less reserve for depreciation as permitted for income tax purposes, and also less any indebtedness incurred and existing by virtue of the purchase of any real estate and any permanent improvements made thereon. In computing “total actual investment in tangible personal property” there shall also be deducted reserves for the entire cost of any sewage or waste treatment plant, including waste lagoons, and pollution abatement equipment purchased or constructed and installed which reduces the amount of water pollution resulting from the discharge of sewage and industrial wastes or other polluting materials or substances into streams, lakes, or rivers, upon condition that the corporation claiming such deduction shall furnish to the Commissioner a certificate from the State Stream Sanitation Committee certifying that said Committee has found as a fact that the waste treatment plant or pollution abatement equipment purchased or constructed and installed as above described has actually been constructed and installed and that such plant or equipment complies with the requirements of said Committee with respect to such plants or equipment, that such plant or equipment is being effectively operated in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in the permit, certificate of approval, or other document of approval issued by the State Stream Sanitation Committee, and that the primary purpose thereof is to reduce water pollution resulting from the discharge of sewage and waste and not merely incidental to other purposes and functions; such deduction shall be allowed only with respect to such pollution abatement plants or equipment constructed or installed on or after January 1, 1955.

In determining the total tax payable by any corporation under this section and under § 105-115 there shall be allowed as credit on such tax the amount of intangible tax paid during the preceding franchise tax year on bank deposits under the provisions of § 105-199, except that the minimum tax herein provided shall not be less than ten dollars ($10.00) elsewhere specified.

(e) The report, statement and tax required by this section shall be in addition to all other reports required or taxes levied and assessed in this State.

(f) Counties, cities and towns shall not levy a franchise tax on corporations taxed under this section. (1939, c. 158, s. 210; 1941, c. 50, s. 4; 1943, c. 400, s. 3; 1945, c. 708, s. 3; 1947, c. 501, s. 3; 1951, c. 643, s. 3; 1953, c. 1302, s. 3; 1955, c. 1100, s. 2½; c. 1350, s. 17; 1957, c. 1340, s. 3; 1959, c. 1259, s. 3; 1963, c. 1169, s. 1.)

Editor's Note.—The 1951 amendment rewrote this section as changed by the 1941, 1943, 1945 and 1947 amendments.

The 1953 amendment inserted in the first sentence of subsection (a) the provision as to signing the report and statement in lieu of the former provision as to the verification thereof, and added all of the subsection beginning with the second paragraph. The amendment also made changes in subsection (c).

The first 1955 amendment inserted the second sentence of the first paragraph of subsection (b), and added the last sentence of the first paragraph of subsection (d). The second 1955 amendment made changes in subsection (c).

The 1957 amendment rewrote subsection (a) and made changes in subsection (c).

The 1959 amendment inserted “or dealing in tangible personal property” near the beginning of subsection (c) (1).

The 1963 amendment, effective July 1, 1963, inserted “and gross receipts received from the casual sale of property used in production of income in the trade or business” in the last sentence of subsection (c) (2). For brief comment on the 1953 amendment, see 31 N. C. Law Rev. 435, 441.

Power of Legislature.—It is within the legislative power of taxation, in respect to corporations, to levy any two or more of the following taxes simultaneously (1) on the franchise (including corporate dividends); (2) on the capital stock; (3) on the tangible property of the corporation, and (4) on the shares of the capital stock in the hands of the stockholders. The tax on the two subjects last named is imperative. Board v. Blackwell Durham Tobacco Co., 116 N. C. 441, 21 S. E. 423 (1895).

Foreign corporations do business here by comity of the State, and the latter may impose a license tax as a condition upon which such corporations may do business here under the protection of our laws, where such is not an interference with interstate commerce, or the tax is not otherwise invalid. Pittsburgh Life, etc., Co. v. Young, 172 N. C. 470, 90 S. E. 568 (1916).

Tax Is on Privilege of Existence.—By the express terms of Laws 1931, c. 427, s. 210, which was superseded by this section, the corporation was liable for the annual franchise tax for each year during which it enjoyed the privilege of the continuance of its charter. It was immaterial whether or not the corporation exercised its privilege of doing or carrying on the business authorized by its charter or certificate of incorporation; it was liable so long as it enjoyed the privilege granted by the State of “being” a corporation. Stagg v. Nessen Co., 208 N. C. 285, 180 S. E. 658 (1935).

Corporation Not Relieved of License Tax on Carrying on Particular Business.—The franchise tax imposed upon every corporation doing business in the State is a tax upon the privilege of being a corporation, and its payment does not relieve it, or its lessee, from the payment of a tax imposed upon the privilege of carrying on the particular kind of business for which the corporation was chartered. Cobb v. Commissioners, 122 N. C. 307, 30 S. E. 338 (1888).

Effect of Business Corporation Act on Section.—It is illogical to assume that the legislature intended by the Business Corporation Act to void regulations permitting computation of taxes on the cash receipt basis and thereby outlaw that method of accounting, or to invalidate an accepted method of determining capital and surplus for franchise tax returns required by this section. Watson v. Watson Seed Farms, Inc., 253 N. C. 298, 116 S. E. (2d) 716 (1961).
§ 105-123. New corporations.—(a) No corporation, domestic or foreign, shall be permitted to do business in this State without paying the franchise tax levied in this article or schedule. When such domestic corporation is incorporated under laws of this State or such foreign corporation is domesticated in this State, and has not heretofore done business in the State, upon which a report might be filed under § 105-122, notice in writing thereof shall be given to the Commissioner of Revenue by such corporation, and it shall be competent for the Commissioner of Revenue and he is hereby authorized to obtain such information concerning the basis for the levy of the tax from such other information he can obtain and to that end may require of such corporation to furnish him such a report as may clearly reflect and disclose the amount of its issued and outstanding capital stock, surplus and undivided profits as set out in § 105-122, and information as to such other factors as may be necessary to determine the basis of the tax. When this has been determined, in accordance with the provisions of § 105-122 as far as the same may be applicable, and upon the information which he has secured, the Commissioner of Revenue shall thereupon determine the amount of franchise tax to be paid by such new corporation, and said tax shall be due and payable within thirty days from date of notice thereof from the Commissioner of Revenue, which tax, in no event, shall be less than a ratable proportion of the tax for the franchise privilege extended for one year on the determined basis, nor less than the minimum tax of ten dollars ($10.00); the tax levied in this section shall be for the period from date of incorporation or domestication to June thirtieth next following.

In the case of a corporation organized or domesticated within the State within the taxable year, which shall acquire the entire assets within the State of a corporation previously operating therein which shall have paid prior to the disposal of said assets the franchise tax for the taxable year, the newly organized or domesticated corporation shall be allowed to deduct that portion of the capital stock, surplus, and undivided profits, or other alternative tax base as provided in § 105-122 (d), of the prior corporation previously reported and taxed in the taxable year in determining the tax for the balance of the year upon such newly organized or domesticated corporation.

(b) Any corporation failing to notify the Commissioner of Revenue as provided for in subsection (a) of this section within sixty days after date of the incorporation or domestication of such corporation in this State shall be subject to all penalties and remedies imposed for failure to file any report required under this article or schedule.

(c) The provisions of this section shall apply only to corporations newly incorporated or newly domesticated in this State. (1939, c. 158, s. 211; 1945, c. 708, s. 3.)

Editor’s Note. — The 1945 amendment added the second paragraph to subsection (a).

§ 105-125. Corporations not mentioned. — None of the taxes levied in §§ 105-122 and 105-123 shall apply to religious, fraternal, benevolent, scientific or educational corporations, not operating for a profit; nor to banking and insurance companies; nor to mutual ditch or irrigation associations, mutual or co-operative telephone associations or companies, mutual canning associations, co-operative breeding associations, or like organizations or associations of a purely local character deriving receipts solely from assessments, dues, or fees collected from...
members for the sole purpose of meeting expenses; nor to co-operative marketing associations operating solely for the purpose of marketing the products of members or other farmers, which operations may include activities which are directly related to such marketing activities, and turning back to them the proceeds of sales, less the necessary operating expenses of the association, including interest and dividends on capital stock on the basis of the quantity of product furnished by them; nor to production credit associations organized under the act of Congress known as the Farm Credit Act of 1933; nor to business leagues, boards of trade, clubs organized and operated exclusively for pleasure, recreation and other nonprofitable purposes, civic leagues operated exclusively for the promotion of social welfare, or chambers of commerce and merchants associations not organized for profit, and no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private stockholder, individual, or other corporations:

Provided, that each such corporation must, upon request by the Commissioner of Revenue, establish in writing its claim for exemption from said provisions. The provisions of §§ 105-122 and 105-123 shall apply to electric light, power, street railway, gas, water, Pullman, sleeping and dining car, express, telegraph, telephone, motor bus, and truck corporations to the extent and only to the extent that the franchise taxes levied in §§ 105-122 and 105-123 exceed the franchise taxes levied in other sections of this article or schedule. The exemptions in this section shall apply only to those corporations specially mentioned, and no other.

Provided, that any North Carolina corporation which in the opinion of the Commissioner of Revenue of North Carolina qualifies as a "regulated investment company" under the provisions of United States Code Annotated Title 26, section 851, and which files with the North Carolina Department of Revenue its election to be treated as a "regulated investment company", shall in determining its basis for franchise tax be allowed to deduct the aggregate market value of its investments in the stocks, bonds, debentures, or other securities or evidences of debt of other corporations, municipalities, governmental agencies or governments. (1939, c. 158, s. 213; 1951, c. 937, s. 3; 1955, c. 1313, s. 1; 1957, c. 1340, s. 3; 1963, c. 601, s. 3; c. 1169, s. 1.)

Editor's Note. — The 1951 amendment added the last paragraph.

The 1955 amendment inserted in the first paragraph references to various mutual and cooperative associations.

The 1957 amendment made this section also applicable to scientific nonprofit corporations and inserted in the clause relative to co-operative marketing associations near the middle of the first paragraph "which operations may include activities which are directly related to such marketing activities."

The first 1963 amendment, effective Jan. 1, 1963, inserted the reference to production credit associations in the latter part of the first paragraph.

§ 105-127. When franchise or privilege taxes payable.—(a) Every corporation, domestic or foreign, from which a report is required by law to be made to the Commissioner of Revenue, shall, unless otherwise provided, pay to said Commissioner annually the franchise tax as required by §§ 105-122 and 105-123.

§ 105-128. Power of attorney. — The Commissioner of Revenue shall have the authority to require a proper power of attorney of each and every agent for any taxpayer under this article. (1939, c. 158, s. 217.)

§ 105-129. Extension of time for filing returns. — (a) The return required by this article or schedule shall be due on or before the dates specified unless written application for extension of time in which to file, containing reasons therefor, is made to the Commissioner of Revenue on or before due date of such return. The Commissioner of Revenue for good cause may extend the time for filing any return under this article or schedule, provided interest at the rate of six per cent (6%) per annum from date return is due is paid upon the total amount of tax due.

Article 4.

Schedule D. Income Tax.

§ 105-130. Short title. — This article shall be known and may be cited as the income tax article of the Revenue Act. (1939, c. 158, s. 300.)

Editor's Note. — For discussion of changes made in this article by the Session Laws of 1949, see 27 N. C. Laws of 1947, see 25 N. C. Law Rev. 467.

§ 105-131. Purpose. — The general purpose of this article is to impose a tax for the use of the State government upon the net income in excess of the exemption herein allowed, for the calendar year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-nine and each year thereafter collectible in the year one thousand nine hundred and forty and annually thereafter:

(1) Of every resident of the State.

(2) Of every domestic corporation.

(3) Of every foreign corporation and of every nonresident individual having a business or agency in this State or income from property owned, and from every business, trade, profession or occupation carried on in this State.

The tax imposed upon the net income of corporations in this article is in addition to all other taxes imposed under this subchapter. (1939, c. 158, s. 301.)

§ 105-132. Definitions.—For the purpose of this article, and unless otherwise required by the context:

(1) The word "taxpayer" includes any individual, corporation, or fiduciary subject to the tax imposed by this article.

(2) The word "individual" means a natural person.

(3) A "head of a household" is an individual who actually maintains and supports in one household, irrespective of whether or not in this State, one or more individuals who are closely related by blood relationship, relationship by marriage, or by adoption, and whose right to exercise family control and provide for these dependent individuals is based on some moral or legal obligation.

(4) The word "fiduciary" means a guardian, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, conservator, or any person, whether individual or corporation, acting in any fiduciary capacity for any person, estate or trust.

(5) The word "person" includes individuals, fiduciaries, partnerships.

(6) The word "corporation" includes joint-stock companies or associations and insurance companies.

(7) The words "domestic corporation" mean any corporation organized under the laws of this State.

(8) The words "foreign corporation" mean any corporation other than a domestic corporation.

(9) The words "tax year" mean the calendar year in which the tax is payable.

(10) The words "income year" mean the calendar year or the fiscal year upon the basis of which the net income is computed under this article; if no fiscal year has been established, they mean the calendar year.

(11) The words "fiscal year" mean an income year, ending on the last day of any month other than December. A taxpayer who pursuant to the provisions of § 441(f) of the Federal Internal Revenue Code of 1954 has elected to compute his income tax liability to the United States on the basis of an annual period varying from 52 to 53 weeks, for any income year ending after August 16, 1954, shall compute his taxable income for the purposes of this article on the basis of the same period used by such taxpayer in accordance with the Federal Internal Revenue Code of 1954 in computing his tax liability to the United States for such income year.

(12) The word "paid," for the purposes of the deductions under this article, means "paid or accrued" and the words "paid or accrued" shall be construed according to the method of accounting upon the basis of which the net income is computed under this article. The word "received," for the purpose of the computation of the net income under this article, means "received or accrued," and the words "received or accrued" shall be construed according to the method of accounting upon the basis of which the net income is computed under this article.

(13) The word "resident" applies only to individuals and includes, for the purpose of determining liability for the tax imposed with reference to the income of any income year, all individuals who, at any time during such income year, are domiciled in this State, or who, whether regarding their domicile as in this State or not, reside within this State for other than a temporary or transitory purpose. In the absence of convincing proof to the contrary, any individual who is present within the State for more than six months during such income year shall be deemed to be a resident of the State; but absence from the State for more than six months shall raise no presumption that the individual is not a resident of the State.
In cases in which it is demonstrated to the satisfaction of the Commissioner of Revenue that an individual was a resident of this State for only part of the income year, having moved into or removed from the State during such year, such individual shall, as to income received by him during the period of his residence, report for taxation all income required to be so reported by residents and shall, as to income received by him during the remainder of such year, report for taxation all income required to be so reported by nonresidents: Provided, that in the case of an individual removing from the State during such year, he shall not be regarded as having become a nonresident until he shall have both established a definite residence elsewhere and abandoned any domicile he may have acquired in this State.

The fact that an individual is a nonresident of the State at the time the tax becomes due and payable shall not affect his liability for the tax.

(14) The words "foreign country" mean any jurisdiction other than the one embraced within the United States. The words "United States," when used in a geographical sense, include the states, the District of Columbia, and the possessions of the United States. (1939, c. 158, s. 302; 1941, c. 50, s. 5; 1955, c. 1331, s. 2; 1957, c. 1340, s. 4; 1963, c. 1169, s. 2.)

Editor's Note. — The 1941 amendment made changes in subdivision (15). The 1955 amendment added the second sentence of subdivision (11). The 1957 amendment inserted near the beginning of subdivision (3) the words "irrespective of whether or not."

The 1963 amendment, effective as to income years beginning on and after Jan. 1, 1963, deleted a reference to "territories of Alaska and Hawaii" in subdivision (14).

For comment on amendment, see 19 N. C. Law Rev. 550.

For comment on definition of "head of household," see 17 N. C. Law Rev. 382.

Imposition of Income Tax.

§ 105-133. Individuals.—A tax is hereby imposed upon every resident of the State, and upon every fiduciary as defined in G. S. 105-139, which tax shall be levied, collected and paid annually, with respect to the net income of the taxpayer as herein defined, and upon income earned within the State of every nonresident having a business or agency in this State or income from property owned and from every business, trade, profession or occupation carried on in this State, computed at the following rates, after deducting the exemptions provided in this article.

- On the excess over the amount legally exempted, up to two thousand dollars, three per cent (3%).
- On the excess above two thousand dollars, and up to four thousand dollars, four per cent (4%).
- On the excess above four thousand dollars, and up to six thousand dollars, five per cent (5%).
- On the excess over six thousand dollars, and up to ten thousand dollars, six per cent (6%).
- On the excess over ten thousand dollars, seven per cent (7%). (1939, c. 158, s. 310; 1957, c. 1340, s. 4.)

Editor's Note. — The 1957 amendment inserted "and upon every fiduciary as defined in G. S. 105-139" near the beginning of the section.

§ 105-134. Corporations.—Every corporation engaged in doing business in this State shall pay annually an income tax equivalent to six per cent of its net taxable income. The net taxable income of such corporation shall be determined as provided in this article.
If the entire business of the corporation is transacted or conducted within the State, the tax shall be measured by the entire net income of the corporation for the income year. The entire business of a corporation shall be deemed to have been transacted and conducted within this State if such corporation is not subject to a net income tax or a franchise tax measured by net income in any other state, the District of Columbia, a territory or possession of the United States, or any foreign country, or would not be subject to a net income tax in any other such taxing jurisdiction if such other taxing jurisdiction adopted the net income tax laws of this State. If the corporation is transacting or conducting its business partly within and partly without North Carolina, the tax shall be imposed upon a base which reasonably represents the proportion of the trade or business carried on within the State. A corporation subject to taxation under this article shall be deemed to have been transacting or conducting its business partly within and partly without this State if such corporation is subject to a net income tax or a franchise tax measured by net income in any other state, the District of Columbia, a territory or possession of the United States, or any foreign country, or would be subject to a net income tax in any other such taxing jurisdiction if such other taxing jurisdiction adopted the net income tax laws of this State. That a corporation is chartered in a particular state shall not of itself show that the corporation is transacting or conducting a portion of its business in said state. Provided, that nothing in this paragraph shall be construed as denying the rights of allocation and apportionment as provided in this section to corporations suffering a net loss, but that for the purpose of determining the taxable portion of stock under the intangible property tax, of determining the deductible portion of dividends under the income tax, and of the apportionment of net economic losses carried forward the provisions apply as if the corporation had a net income. The allocation or apportionment of the entire net income of the corporation shall be made in accordance with the following provisions:

(1) Interest received from intangible property not connected with the business of the corporation part of which is conducted within North Carolina less all related expenses shall be allocated to the State in which the principal place of business of the corporation is located.

(2) a. Dividends received from, and gains or losses from the sale or other disposition of corporate stocks owned other than stocks of a subsidiary corporation having business transactions with or being engaged in the same or similar type of business as the taxpayer less all related expenses and less that portion of such dividends deductible under the provisions of subdivision (7) of G. S. 105-147 shall be allocated to the state in which the principal place of business of the corporation is located. For purposes of this paragraph a corporation shall be considered to be a subsidiary if the parent corporation owns fifty per cent (50%) or more of the voting stock of such subsidiary.

b. Provided, however, that notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, any corporation receiving dividends from a subsidiary corporation (as defined in subdivision (2) a above) not having business transactions with or not engaged in the same or similar business as the taxpayer shall allocate such dividends less related expenses and less that portion of such dividends deductible under the provisions of subdivision (7) of G. S. 105-147 directly to the state, states, or other taxing jurisdictions to which the subsidiary is subject to a tax based on net income. If such subsidiary corporation is subject to a tax based on net income in North Carolina, the net amount of such dividends received by the taxpayer corporation from such subsidiary shall be allocated directly to North Carolina by use of the same percentage used in determining the portion of such dividends deductible under the provisions of subdivision (7) of G. S. 105-147. For purposes of this section, the net amount of dividends shall mean gross dividend income received less related expenses and less that portion of such dividends deductible under the provisions of subdivision (7) of G. S. 105-147.

(3) Royalties or similar income received from the use of patents, trademarks, copyrights, secret processes and other similar intangible rights less all related expenses shall be allocated to the state in which the principal place of business of the corporation is located, unless such income is received from sources constituting a part of the corporation's principal, regular or unitary business in which event such income shall be allocated in accordance with the applicable allocation formula hereinafter set out.

(4) Rents received from the lease or rental of real estate or tangible personal property, royalties received from tangible property, and gains or losses from the sale or other disposition of real estate or tangible personal property where the property leased, rented or sold is (or was) not used in or is (or was) not connected with the trade or business of the taxpayer less all related expenses allowable as deductions under this article shall be allocated to the state in which the property was located at the time the income was derived.

(5) The income less all related expenses from any other investments, the net income from which is not properly includable in the net apportionable income of corporations engaged in interstate commerce under the Constitution of the United States because it is unrelated to the business activity of the corporation conducted partly within and partly without North Carolina, shall be allocated to the state in which the business situs of the investment is located; provided, that if the business situs of such investment is partly within and partly without North Carolina it shall be apportioned by use of the same formula as provided for apportioning the net income of the corporation.

(6) The net income of the above classes having been separately allocated, the remainder of the net income of the corporation shall be apportioned as follows:

a. Where the income is derived principally from the manufacture, production or sale of tangible personal property or from dealing in tangible personal property the corporation shall apportion its net apportionable income to North Carolina on the basis of the ratio obtained by taking the arithmetic average of the following three ratios:

1. Property.—The ratio of the value of real estate and tangible personal property used by such corporation in this State at the close of the income year of such corporation to the value of the entire real estate and tangible personal property used by it everywhere at the close of the income year of such corporation, except that inventories of goods, wares and merchandise shall be valued on the basis of a monthly or other periodic average during the income year of such corporation. If the taxpayer does not take or keep records of monthly or other periodic inventories, or, if in the opinion of the Commissioner of Revenue the method and time of taking such inventories does not accurately reflect the true average inventory, the Commissioner shall determine the proper amount from such information as may be available. Provided, that a corporation which ceases its operations in this State before the end of its income year due to dissolution or to withdrawal of its articles of domestication shall value the real estate and tangible personal property used as of the last day of its operations in this State except that inventories of goods, wares and merchandise shall be valued on the basis of a monthly or other periodic average during the period of operation in this State. As used in this paragraph:

I. The words "tangible personal property" shall mean corporeal property such as machinery, tools, implements, goods, wares and merchandise, and shall not mean cash on hand or in bank, shares of stock, bonds, notes, accounts receivable, credits, special privileges, franchises, good will, evidence of an interest in property or evidences of debt.

II. The word "value" as applied to property owned other than inventories shall mean original cost plus additions and improvements less reserve for depreciation, unless in the opinion of the Commissioner of Revenue the peculiar circumstances in any case justify a different basis, in which event the Commissioner may construe "value" to mean fair market value. Inventories shall be valued in accordance with the accounting practice of the corporation, unless in the opinion of the Commissioner of Revenue a different method is required in order to better reflect the net income of the corporation. In determining the value of property no deductions shall be made for encumbrances thereon.

III. The words "property used" shall include all real estate and all tangible personal property owned, leased or rented by the corporation at the close of the income year, except that any such property newly acquired which, in the course of acquisition or construction, had not been actually used or operated in the taxpayer's business during the income year and any property the income from which is excluded from the net apportionable income of the taxpayer under the provisions of subdivisions (1) through (5) of this section shall be excluded in the computation of the property ratio.

IV. The word "value" as applied to real estate rented or leased shall mean the net annual rental rate multiplied by 8, and as applied to tangible personal property rented or leased the word "value" shall mean the net annual rental rate multiplied by such figure for each type of property as the Commissioner shall direct. The net annual rental rate shall mean the gross annual rental rate paid by the taxpayer less the gross annual rental rate received by the taxpayer for subrentals.
2. Payrolls. — The ratio of all salaries, wages, commissions and other personal service compensation paid or incurred by the taxpayer in connection with the trade or business of the taxpayer in this State during the income year to the total salaries, wages, commissions and other personal service compensation paid or incurred by the taxpayer in connection with the entire trade or business of the taxpayer wherever conducted during the income year. For the purposes of this section, all such compensation to employees chiefly working at, sent out from or chiefly connected with an office, agency or place of business of the taxpayer in this State shall be deemed to be in connection with the trade or business of the taxpayer in this State; all such compensation to general executive officers having company-wide authority shall be excluded from the numerator and the denominator of the ratio, and all such compensation in connection with income separately allocated under the provisions of this section shall be excluded from the numerator and denominator of the ratio.

3. Sales.—The ratio of sales made by such corporation during the income year which are attributable to North Carolina to the total sales made by such corporation everywhere during the income year.

For purposes of this subdivision sales “attributable to North Carolina” shall be all sales where the goods, merchandise or property is received in this State by the purchaser. In the case of delivery of goods by common carrier or by other means of transportation, including transportation by the purchaser, the place at which the goods are ultimately received after all transportation has been completed shall be considered as the place at which the goods are received by the purchaser: Provided, that direct delivery into this State by the taxpayer to a person or firm designated by a purchaser from within or without the State shall constitute delivery to the purchaser in this State. The word “sales” as used in this subdivision shall be construed to include rentals of tangible personal property the rentals from which are not separately allocated under subdivision (4) of this section, such rentals to be attributed to North Carolina if the property is located in North Carolina: Provided further that where a corporation is subject to an income tax in another state or states, or would be subject to an income tax in another state or states if such state or states had adopted the net income tax laws of this State, only because of income subject to direct allocation under the provisions of this section, then all sales shall be deemed attributable to this State.

b. Where the income is derived principally from the operation of a railroad the corporation shall apportion its net apportionable income to North Carolina on the basis of the ratio of “railway operating revenue” from business done within this State to “total railway operating revenue” from all business done by the company as shown by its records kept in accordance with the standard classification of accounts prescribed by the Interstate Commerce Commission.
For purposes of this subdivision "railway operating revenue" from business done within this State shall mean "railway operating revenue" from business wholly within this State, plus the equal mileage proportion within this State of each item of "railway operating revenue" received from the interstate business of the company. "Equal mileage proportion" shall mean the proportion which the distance of movement of property and passengers over lines in this State bears to the total distance of movement of property and passengers over lines of the company receiving such revenue. "Interstate business" shall mean "railway operating revenue" from the interstate transportation of persons or property into, out of, or through this State. If the Commissioner of Revenue shall find, with respect to any particular company, that its accounting records are not kept so as to reflect with exact accuracy such division of revenue by State lines as to each transaction involving interstate revenue, the Commissioner of Revenue may adopt such regulations, based upon averages, as will approximate with reasonable accuracy the proportion of interstate revenue actually earned upon lines in this State. Provided, that where a railroad is being operated by a partnership which is treated as a corporation for income tax purposes and pays a net income tax to this State, or if located in another state would be so treated and so pay as if located in this State, each partner's share of the net profits shall be considered as dividends paid by a corporation for purposes of this article and shall be so treated for inclusion in gross income, deductibility, and separate allocation of dividend income, and if the proportion of ownership of such partnership shall be in excess of fifty per cent (50%) the partnership shall be considered to be a subsidiary corporation for purposes of determining separate allocation of such net profits.

c. Where the income is derived principally from the operation of a telephone company the corporation shall apportion its net apportionable income to North Carolina on the basis of the ratio of gross operating revenue from local service in this State plus gross operating revenue from toll services performed wholly within this State plus the proportion of revenue from interstate toll services attributable to this State as shown by the records of such company plus the gross operating revenue in North Carolina from other service less the uncollectible revenue in this State to the total gross operating revenue from all business done by the company everywhere less total uncollectible revenue. Provided, that where a telephone company is required to keep its records in accordance with the standard classification of accounts prescribed by the Federal Communications Commission the amounts in such accounts shall be used in computing the apportionment ratio as provided in this paragraph.

d. Motor carriers of property shall apportion their net apportionable income to North Carolina by the use of the ratio of vehicle miles in this State to total vehicle miles of the company everywhere. For purposes of this paragraph the words "vehicle miles" shall mean miles traveled by vehicles (whether owned or operated by the company) hauling property for a charge or traveling on a scheduled route.

e. Motor carriers of passengers shall apportion their net apportionable income to North Carolina by the use of the ratio of ve-Vehicle miles in this State to total vehicle miles of the company everywhere. For purposes of this paragraph "vehicle miles" shall mean miles traveled by vehicles (whether owned or operated by the company) carrying passengers for a fare or traveling on a scheduled route.

f. Where the income is derived principally from the operation of businesses other than that described in paragraphs a through e of this subdivision the corporation shall apportion its net apportionable income to North Carolina by the use of the ratio of the gross receipts in this State to gross receipts of the company everywhere. For purposes of this paragraph "gross receipts" shall mean all receipts from whatever source received except that gross receipts from business operations or from property the net income from which is excluded from net apportionable income under the provisions of subdivisions (1) through (5) of this section and gross receipts received from the casual sale of property used in the production of income in the trade or business shall be excluded from both the numerator and the denominator of the ratio. Provided, where the income is derived principally from the operation of a telegraph company, the corporation shall apportion its net apportionable income to North Carolina on the basis of the ratio obtained by taking the arithmetic average of the following three ratios:

1. Property as defined in subdivision (6) a 1 of this § 105-134;
2. Payrolls as defined in subdivision (6) a 2 of this § 105-134; and
3. Gross receipts as defined in this subdivision (6) f.

g. If any corporation believes that the method of allocation or apportionment hereinbefore described as administered by the Commissioner of Revenue has operated or will so operate as to subject it to taxation on a greater portion of its income than is reasonably attributable to business or earnings within the State, it shall be entitled to file with the Tax Review Board a petition setting forth the facts upon which its belief is based and its argument with respect to the application of the allocation formula. This petition shall be filed in such form and within such time as the Tax Review Board may prescribe. The Board shall grant a hearing thereon. At least three members of the Tax Review Board shall attend any hearing pursuant to such petition. In such cases the Tax Review Board's membership shall be augmented by the addition of the Commissioner of Revenue, who shall sit as a member of said Board with full power to participate in its deliberations and decisions with respect to petitions filed under the provisions of this section. An informal record containing in substance the evidence, contentions and arguments presented at the hearing shall be made. All members of the augmented Tax Review Board shall consider such evidence, contentions and arguments and the decisions thereon shall be made by a majority vote of the augmented Board. If the Board shall find that the application of the allocation formula subjects the corporation to taxation on a greater portion of its income or earnings than is reasonably attributable to its business or earnings within this State:

1. If the corporation shall employ in its books of account a detailed allocation of receipts and expenditures which reentence more clearly than the applicable allocation formula or alternative formulas prescribed by this section the income attributable to the business within this State, application for permission to base the return upon the taxpayer's books of account shall be considered by the Tax Review Board. The Board shall be authorized to permit such separate accounting method in lieu of applying the applicable allocation formula if the Board deems such method proper as best reflecting the income and earnings attributable to this State.

2. If the corporation shall show that any other method of allocation than the applicable allocation formula prescribed by this section reflects more clearly the income attributable to the business within this State, application for permission to base the return upon such other method shall be considered by the Tax Review Board. The application shall be accompanied by a statement setting forth in detail, with full explanations, the method the taxpayer believes will more nearly reflect its income from business within this State. If the Board shall conclude that the allocation formula and the alternative formulas prescribed by this section allocate to this State a greater portion of the net income of the corporation than is reasonably attributable to business or earnings within this State, it shall determine the allocable net income by such other method as it shall find best calculated to assign to this State for taxation the portion of the net income of the corporation reasonably attributable to its business or earnings within this State.

There shall be a presumption that the appropriate allocation formula reasonably attributes to this State the portion of the corporation's income earned in this State and the burden shall rest upon the corporation to show the contrary. The relief herein authorized shall be granted by the Board only in cases of clear, cogent and convincing proof that the petitioning taxpayer is entitled thereto. No corporation shall use any alternative formula or method other than the applicable allocation formula provided by statute in making a report or return of its income to this State except upon order in writing of the Board and any return in which any alternative formula or other method other than the applicable allocation formula prescribed by statutes is used without permission of the Board, shall not be a lawful return.

When the Board determines, pursuant to the provisions of this article, that an alternative formula or other method more accurately reflects the income allocable to North Carolina and renders its decision with regard thereto, the corporation shall allocate its net income for future years in accordance with such determination and decision of the Board so long as the conditions constituting the basis upon which the decision was made remain unchanged or until such time as the business method of operation of the corporation changes. Provided, however, that the Commissioner of Revenue may, in his discretion, with respect to any subsequent year, require the corporation to furnish information relating to its property, operations and activities.

A corporation which proposes to do business in this State may file a petition with the Board setting forth the facts upon which it contends that the applicable allocation formula will allocate a greater portion of the corporation's future income to North Carolina than will be reasonably attributable to its proposed business or contemplated earnings within the State. Upon a proper showing in accordance with the procedure described above for determinations by the Board, the Board may authorize such corporation to allocate income from its future business to North Carolina on the basis prescribed by the Board under the provisions of this section for such future years as the conditions constituting the basis upon which the Board's decision is made remain unchanged and the business operations of the corporation continue to conform to the statement of proposed methods of business operation presented by the corporation to the Board.

When the Commissioner of Revenue asserts liability under the formula adjustment decision of the Tax Review Board, an aggrieved taxpayer may pay the tax and bring a civil action for recovery under the provisions of G.S. 105-241.4. (1939, c. 158, s. 311; 1941, c. 50, s. 5; 1943, c. 400, s. 4; 1945, c. 752, s. 3; 1953, c. 1302, s. 4; 1955, c. 1350, s. 18; 1957, c. 1340, s. 4; 1959, c. 1259, s. 4; 1963, c. 1169, s. 2; c. 1186.)

Editor's Note.—The 1953, 1955 and 1957 amendments rewrote this section as changed by prior amendments.

The 1959 amendment added the part of subdivision (3) beginning with "unless such income." It also changed subdivision (6) by adding the proviso at the end of subparagraph 3 of paragraph a and inserting "and gross receipts received from the casual sale of property used in the production of income in the trade or business" near the end of the second sentence of paragraph lettered f.

The first 1963 amendment, effective as to income years beginning on and after Jan. 1, 1963, deleted during the income year" following "taxpayer" near the middle of subdivision (4); inserted near the middle of sub-subparagraph III of subparagraph 1 of paragraph a of subdivision (6) "any such property newly acquired which, in the course of acquisition or construction, had not been actually used or operated in the taxpayer's business during the income year and"; deleted the former sixth sentence of paragraph b of subdivision (6); and deleted "further" near the beginning of the former seventh, now sixth, sentence of such paragraph.

The second 1963 amendment, effective as to tax years beginning on and after Jan. 1, 1963, added paragraph b of subdivision (2).

Burden of Showing Statutory Assessment Unconstitutional.—Where the Commissioner of Revenue assessed an income tax against a foreign corporation operating a manufacturing plant in this State in accordance with the provisions of § 311 of the Revenue Act of 1929, without regard to its intangible property, the Commissioner's assessment was upheld upon appeal where the corporation failed to show that such method of allocation was unconstitutional in its application to the corporation. State v. Kent-Coffey Mfg. Co., 204 N. C. 363, 168 S. E. 397 (1933).

Income Tax and Franchise Tax Distinguished.—A comparison of article 3 of this chapter, relating to franchise taxes, and article 4, relating to income taxes, indicates a clear legislative intent to differentiate between these two types of taxes, for a clear distinction has been made by the General Assembly between an excise tax imposed on domestic and foreign corporations for the privilege of transacting business within the State, and an income tax on net corporate income, which is based on a past fact of earned net profits. The statutes under which these taxes were assessed in the instant case in precise words preclude a contention that it was the legislative intent that the taxes assessed and paid here were excise or privilege taxes. ET & WNC Transportation Co. v. Currie, 248 N. C. 560, 104 S. E. (2d) 403 (1958), construing the section prior to the 1957 amendment.

The incidence of the tax on a foreign corporation is that part of its net income earned within North Carolina by reason of its interstate business, and reasonably attributable to its interstate business done or performed within the borders of North Carolina, and not upon its franchise to engage in interstate business in North Carolina. ET & WNC Transportation Co. v. Currie, 248 N. C. 560, 104 S. E. (2d) 403 (1958), construing the section prior to the 1957 amendment.

The State has the right to collect nondiscriminatory income taxes imposed on a foreign corporation if the taxes are imposed solely on that part of the corporation’s income earned within the State in its interstate business, and reasonably attributable to its interstate business done or performed within the borders of this state. American Bakeries Co. v. Johnson, 259 N. C. 419, 131 S. E. (2d) 1 (1963).

Method of Apportionment Not Intrinsically Arbitrary Will Be Sustained.—In determining the amount of income of a foreign corporation subject to taxation by a state the difficulty of making an exact apportionment is apparent and hence, when the state has adopted a method not intrinsically arbitrary, it will be sustained until proof is offered of an unreasonable and arbitrary application in particular cases. American Bakeries Co. v. Johnson, 259 N. C. 419, 131 S. E. (2d) 1 (1963).

But Evidence May Be Received to Show Arbitrary Application in Particular Case.—When there are different taxing jurisdictions, each competent to lay a tax with respect to what lies within, and is done within, its own borders, and the question is necessarily one of apportionment, evidence may always be received which tends to show that a state has applied a method, which, albeit fair on its face, operates so as to reach profits which are in no just sense attributable to transactions within its jurisdiction. American Bakeries Co. v. Johnson, 259 N. C. 419, 131 S. E. (2d) 1 (1963).

Tax on Foreign Corporation Doing Exclusively Interstate Business.—An income tax imposed under this section on a foreign corporation doing an exclusively interstate business as a motor carrier of freight did not impose a burden on interstate commerce in contravention of the United States Constitution, since no tax would be imposed if such corporation should have no net income earned in North Carolina by reason of its interstate business, and the tax was imposed only upon that portion of its net income which was reasonably attributable to its interstate business done within the borders of the State, without any discrimination against the taxpayer either in the admeasurement of the tax or the means for enforcing it, and the tax not being upon the franchise to engage in business. ET & WNC Transportation Co. v. Currie, 248 N. C. 560, 104 S. E. (2d) 403 (1958), construing this section as it stood before the 1957 amendment.

In the collection of income taxes under this section from a foreign corporation doing an exclusively interstate business in North Carolina there was no violation of the “due process of law” provision of the Fourteenth Amendment to the federal Constitution or of the “law of the land” provision of N. C. Const., art. 1, § 17. ET & WNC Transportation Co. v. Currie, 248 N. C. 560, 104 S. E. (2d) 403 (1958), construing this section as it stood before the 1957 amendment.

Apportionment of Income of Unitary Business.—The fact that the corporate enterprise is a unitary one, in the sense that the ultimate gain is derived from the entire business, does not mean that for the purpose of taxation the activities which are conducted in different jurisdictions are to be regarded as component parts of a single unit so that the entire net income may be taxed in one state regardless of the extent to which it may be derived from the conduct of the enterprise in another state. American Bakeries Co. v. Johnson, 259 N. C. 419, 131 S. E. (2d) 1 (1963).

Although a unitary business (a concern that is carrying on one kind of business, the component parts of which are too closely connected and necessary to each other to justify division or separate consideration, as independent units), may produce an income which must be allocated to two or more states which its activities are carried on, such business may not be split up arbitrarily and conventionally in applying the tax laws; there must be some logical reference to the production of income. American Bakeries Co. v. Johnson, 259 N. C. 419, 131 S. E. (2d) 1 (1963).

In apportioning the income of a unitary business to determine how much of it is subject to state taxation the formula used must give adequate weight to the essential elements responsible for the earning of the income. American Bakeries Co. v. Johnson, 259 N. C. 419, 131 S. E. (2d) 1 (1963).

Mutual Dependency of Interrelated Activities Sustains Apportionment Formula.—In allocating for taxation by this State a part of the net income of a unitary business operating in this State and several other states, it is not required that its equipment appropriately employed in this State be equally productive with that employed in the other states, but the mutual dependency of the interrelated activities in furtherance of the entire business sustains an apportionment formula which results in a reasonable approximation of its income earned here, it being required only that the formula not be intrinsically arbitrary or produce an unreasonable result. Virginia Electric & Power Co. v. Currie, 254 N. C. 118, 118 S. E. (2d) 155 (1961).

Taxation of Dividends Received by Foreign Corporation from Foreign Subsidiary.—For purposes of taxation in a parent

§ 105-135. Income from stock in foreign corporations.—Income from stock in foreign corporations, in cash dividends, received by individuals, fiduciaries, partnerships (to be reported by partners on their individual returns) or corporations, resident in this State, or by nonresident fiduciary if held for a resident of this State, shall be reported and taxed as other income taxable under this article. Every individual, fiduciary, partnership, or corporation owning such shares of stock, and receiving dividends from same, shall report such income to the Commissioner of Revenue, at the time required by this article for reporting other income, and shall pay the tax herein imposed at the same time and in the same way as tax upon other income is payable. With respect to corporations paying a tax in this State on a proportionate part of their total income, the holder of shares of stock in such corporation shall pay on the total dividends received an amount equaling the percentage of the corporation's income on which it has not paid an income tax to the State of North Carolina for the year in which said dividends are received by the taxpayer. (1939, c. 158, s. 31114.)

Stock Received as Dividend Taxable.—Where plaintiff, owning stock in a foreign investment corporation, received as a dividend on such stock, stock of another foreign corporation, the stock received as a dividend was taken from the surplus of the investment corporation and was equivalent to a cash dividend, and was taxable as income from stock in a foreign corporation. Maxwell v. Tull, 216 N. C. 500, 5 S. E. (2d) 546 (1939).

§ 105-137. Taxable year.—The tax imposed by this article for the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-nine shall be assessed, collected, and paid in the year one thousand nine hundred and forty and for the year one thousand nine hundred and forty and years thereafter shall be assessed, collected, and paid in the year following the year for which the assessment is made, except as may be hereinafter provided to the contrary by article 4A and article 4B. (1939, c. 158, s. 313; 1959, c. 1259, s. 2.)

Editor's Note.—The 1959 amendment, effective as of Jan. 1, 1960, added the exception clause at the end of the section.

§ 105-138. Conditional and other exemptions.—(a) The following organizations shall be exempt from taxation under this article except as provided in subsection (b) of this section:

(1) Fraternal beneficiary societies, orders or associations.
   a. Operating under the lodge system or for the exclusive benefit of the members of a fraternity itself operating under the lodge system, and
   b. Providing for the payment of life, sick, accident, or other benefits to the members of such society, order or association, or their dependents.

(2) Every bank or banking association, State or national, trust company or any combination of such facilities or services required to report and subject to taxation for excise tax purposes under article 8C of this chapter; and building and loan associations or savings and loan associations required to report and subject to taxation for capital stock tax and/or excise tax purposes under article 8D of this chapter and any cooperative banks without capital stock organized and operated for mutual purposes and without profit, and electric and telephone membership corporations organized under chapter 117 of the General Statutes.

(3) Cemetery corporations and corporations organized or trusts created for religious, charitable, scientific, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private stockholder or individual.

(4) Business leagues, chambers of commerce, merchants’ associations, or boards of trade not organized for profit, and no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private stockholder or individual.

(5) Civic leagues or organizations not organized for profit, but operated exclusively for the promotion of social welfare.

(6) Clubs organized and operated exclusively for pleasure, recreation, and other nonprofitable purposes, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private stockholder or member.

(7) Farmers’ or other mutual hail, cyclone, or fire insurance companies, mutual ditch or irrigation companies, mutual or co-operative telephone companies, or like organizations of a purely local character the income of which consists solely of assessments, dues and fees collected from members for the sole purpose of meeting expenses.

(8) Farmers’, fruit growers’, or like organizations organized and operated as sales agents for the purpose of marketing the products of members and turning back to them the proceeds of sales, less the necessary selling expenses, on the basis of the quantity of product furnished by them.

(9) Mutual associations formed under §§ 54-111 to 54-128, formed to conduct agricultural business on the mutual plan; or to marketing associations organized under §§ 54-129 to 54-158.
Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to exempt any cooperative, mutual association or other organization from an income tax on net income which has not been refunded to patrons on a patronage basis and distributed either in cash, stock, certificates, or in some other manner that discloses to each patron the amount of his patronage refund; provided, that such patronage refunds made after the close of the taxable year and on or before the fifteenth day of the ninth month following the close of such year shall be considered as made on the last day of such taxable year to the extent the allocations are attributable to income derived before the close of such year; provided further, that no stabilization or marketing organization, which handles agricultural products for sale for producers on a pool basis, shall be deemed to have realized any net income or profit in the disposition of a pool or any part of a pool until all of the products in that pool shall have been sold and the pool shall have been closed; provided, further, that a pool shall not be deemed closed until the expiration of at least 90 days after the sale of the last remaining product in that pool. Such cooperatives and other organizations shall file an annual informational return with the State Department of Revenue on forms to be furnished by the Commissioner and shall include therein the names and addresses of all persons, patrons and/or shareholders, whose patronage refunds amount to $10.00 or more.

(10) Pension, profit sharing, stock bonus and annuity trusts, or combinations thereof, established by employers for the purpose of distributing both the principal and income thereof exclusively to eligible employees, or the beneficiaries of such employees, and so constituted that no part of the corpus or income may be used for, or diverted to, any purpose other than for the exclusive benefit of the employees or their beneficiaries; provided, there is no discrimination, as to eligibility requirements, contributions or benefits, in favor of officers, shareholders, supervisors, or highly paid employees; provided further, that the interest of individual employees participating therein shall be irrevocable and nonforfeitable to the extent of any contributions made thereto by such employees; and provided further, the Commissioner of Revenue shall be empowered to promulgate rules and regulations regarding the qualification of such trusts for exemption under this subdivision. The exemption of any trust under the provisions of the federal income tax law shall be a prima facie basis for exemption of said trust under this paragraph. This subdivision shall be effective from and after January first, one thousand nine hundred and forty-four.

(11) Insurance companies paying the tax on gross premiums as specified in § 105-228.5.

(b) Organizations described in subdivisions (1), (3), (4), (5), (6), (7), (8), (9) or (10) of subsection (a) of this section shall be subject to the tax provided for in G. S. 105-134 to the following extent:

Gross income derived by any organization from any trade or business the conduct of which is not substantially related (aside from the need of the organization for income) to the exercise or performance of those functions constituting the basis for its exemption in subsection (a) of this section, less all deductions allowed by this article directly connected with carrying on such trade or business and less one thousand dollars ($1,000.00); provided, this paragraph shall not apply to interest, royalties, dividends or rents; provided further, this paragraph shall not apply to any trade or business (i) in which substantially all the work in carrying on such trade or business is performed for the organization without compensation; or (ii) which is the selling of merchandise, substantially all of which is given to it; or (iii) which is carried on by an organization described in G. S.
§ 105-138.1. Regulated investment companies and real estate investment trusts. — Any North Carolina organization or trust which, in the opinion of the Commissioner of Revenue of North Carolina, qualifies as either a "regulated investment company" under the provisions of United States Code Annotated Title 26, § 851, or as a "real estate investment trust" under the provisions of United States Code Annotated Title 26, § 856, and which files with the North Carolina Department of Revenue its election to be treated as a "regulated investment company" or as a "real estate investment trust" shall be taxed under this article upon only that part of its net income which is not distributed or declared for distribution to shareholders during the income year or (i), with respect to a regulated investment company, within thirty (30) days after the end of the income year and (ii), with respect to a real estate investment, trust by the time regulated by law for the filing of the return for the income year. (1963, c. 1169, s. 2.)

Editor's Note.—The 1963 act inserting this section is effective as to income years beginning on and after Jan. 1, 1963.

§ 105-139. Fiduciaries. — (a) The tax imposed by this article shall be imposed upon the following:

(1) The net income of an estate or trust administered by a resident fiduciary for the benefit of a resident of this State;
§ 105-140. Net income defined. — The words "net income" mean the gross income of a taxpayer, less the deductions allowed by this article. (1939, c. 158, s. 316.)

§ 105-141. Gross income defined. — (a) The words "gross income" mean the income of a taxpayer derived from salaries, wages, or compensation for personal service, of whatever kind and in whatever form paid, or from professions, vocations, trades, business, commerce or sales, or dealings in property, whether real or personal, located in this or any other state or any other place, growing out of the ownership or use of or interest in such property, also from interest, rent, dividends, securities, or the transactions of any business carried on for gain or profit, or gains or profits, and income derived from any source whatever and in whatever form paid. The amount of all such items shall be included in the gross income of the income year in which received by the taxpayer, unless, under the methods of accounting permitted under this article, any such amounts are to be properly accounted for as of a different period. The term "gross income" as used in this article shall include the salaries of all constitutional State officials taking office after the date of the enactment of this article by election, re-election or appointment, and all acts fixing the compensation of such constitutional State officials are hereby amended accordingly. The term "gross income" and the words "business, trade, profession, or occupation," and the words "salaries, wages, or compensation for personal services," as used in this article, shall include compensation received for personal service as an officer or employee of the United States, any territory or possession or political subdivision thereof, the District of Columbia, or any agency or instrumentality of any one or more of the foregoing, including compensation as an officer or employee of the executive, legislative, or judicial branches of the government of the United States and of the military, naval, coast guard or other services thereof.

The term "gross income" as used in this article shall include income from annuities as provided in G.S. 105-141.1.

The Commissioner of Revenue is hereby authorized, in his discretion, to adopt rules and regulations providing that recoveries of bad debts or similar items which have been charged off by banks or other business under the regulations and supervision of a State agency, where such charge-offs were required to be made by said supervising State agency, shall be includible in gross income to the same extent as such recoveries are includible in gross income under the federal income tax laws in effect at the time of the issuance of said rules and regulations, or to adopt such other rules and regulations regarding such recoveries as may be deemed just, reasonable and proper. The rules and regulations may be made applicable to charge-offs made prior to January first, one thousand nine hundred and forty-five, but not recovered until after January first, one thousand nine hundred and forty-five.

The words "gross income" include payments received by a divorced or estranged spouse from his or her spouse who is living separate and apart from the spouse making such payments for the separate support and maintenance of such spouse subject to the provisions of G.S. 105-141.2.

The words "gross income" include any payments received by the estate, widow or heirs of an employee if such amounts are paid by or on behalf of an employer and are paid by reason of the death of the employee. Provided, that such payments may be excluded from gross income to the extent of five thousand dollars ($5,000.00) with respect to the death of any one employee regardless of the number of employers making such payments, except that such exclusion shall not apply to amounts with respect to which the employee possessed, immediately before his death, a nonforfeitable right to receive the amounts while living, except that even though an employee possessed a nonforfeitable right immediately before his death to receive the amounts while living, the exclusion provided in this paragraph will still apply in those cases in which the total distributions are payable within one taxable year of the distributee to such distributee by a pension, profit-sharing, stock bonus or annuity trust qualifying under the provisions of subdivision (10) of G.S. 105-138.

(b) The words "gross income" do not include the following items, which shall be exempt from taxation under this article, but shall be reported in such form and manner as may be prescribed by the Commissioner of Revenue:

(1) The proceeds of life insurance policies and contracts paid upon the death of the insured to beneficiaries or to the estate of the insured.

(2) The amount received by the insured as a return of premium or premiums paid by him under life insurance endowment contracts, either during the term or at the maturity of the term mentioned in the contracts or upon surrender of the contract.

(3) The value of property acquired by gift, bequest, devise or descent (but the income from such property shall be included in gross income).

(4) Interest upon the obligations of the United States or its possessions, or of the State of North Carolina, or of a political subdivision thereof: Provided, interest upon the obligations of the United States shall not be excluded from gross income unless interest upon obligations of the State of North Carolina or any of its political subdivisions is excluded from income taxes imposed by the United States.

(5) Any amounts received (i) through accident or health insurance, (ii) through health or accident plans financed by profit-sharing trusts or pension trusts, (iii) under workmen's compensation acts or similar acts (which have been judicially declared to provide benefits in the nature of workmen’s compensation benefits, by whatever name called) as compensation for personal injuries or sickness, and (iv) for damages, whether by suit or agreement on account of injuries or sickness; provided, that any amounts received from the sources mentioned in this subsection as reimbursement for medical expenses incurred and claimed in a prior year or in prior years shall be excluded only to the extent that such amounts exceed the deduction claimed under subdivision (11) of G. S. 105-147 (relating to medical, etc., expenses), except that nothing in this subsection shall be construed as preventing a taxpayer from filing an amended return for a taxable year in which a medical deduction was claimed and allowed for the purpose of reducing the amount of the medical expense deduction claimed in such year by any reimbursement for such medical expenses received in a later year when a change in the prior year is not barred by the provisions of this article.

(6) The rental value of a home and the appurtenances thereof furnished to a minister of the gospel as a part of his compensation, or the rental allowance paid to him as a part of his compensation to the extent used by him to rent or provide a home including the appurtenances thereof; also the rental value of any homes and quarters and the appurtenances thereof furnished the officers and employees of orphanages, whose duties require them to live on the premises and in buildings owned by such institutions, as a part of their compensation.

(7) The amounts received in lump sum or monthly payments of benefits under the Social Security Act.

(8) The amounts received in lump sum or monthly payment benefits from retirement or pension systems of other states by former teachers or State employees of such states: Provided, this exclusion shall apply only to individuals receiving benefits from states which grant similar exclusions or exemptions for individual income tax purposes to retired members of the North Carolina Retirement System for Teachers and State Employees or which levy no income tax on individuals.

(9) The gross income of an employee shall not include:
   a. The value of any meals or lodging furnished by his employer for the convenience of the employer provided, in the case of meals, the meals are furnished on the business premises of the employer, and, in the case of lodging, the employee is required to accept such lodging on the business premises of his employer as a condition of his employment; and
   b. Amounts expended by his employer for premiums on group life, accident, health, or hospitalization insurance plans for the benefit of the employee.

(10) The amounts received as a scholarship at an educational institution or as a fellowship grant, including the value of contributed services and accommodations; and the amounts received to cover expenses for travel, research, clerical help, or equipment, which are incident to such scholarship or fellowship grant, but only to the extent that the amounts are so expended by the recipient and subject to the following limitations:
   a. In the case of an individual who is a candidate for a degree at an educational institution the exemption from income shall not apply to that portion of any amount received which represents payment for teaching, research, or other services in the nature of part-time employment required as a condition to receiving the scholarship or fellowship grant. If teaching, research, or other services are required of all candidates (whether or not recipients of scholarship or fellowship grants) for a particular degree as a condition to receiving such degree, such teaching, research, or other services shall not be regarded as part-time employment within the meaning of this paragraph. For the purpose of this subdivision the term “educational institution” means only an educational institution which normally maintains a regular faculty and curriculum and normally has a regularly organized body of students in attendance at the place where its educational activities are carried on.

b. In the case of an individual who is not a candidate for a degree at an educational institution, the exemption from income tax shall apply only if all of the following conditions are met:

1. The amount received does not represent payment for teaching, research, or other employment;
2. The grantor of the scholarship is an organization described in subdivision (15) of G. S. 105-147, the United States, the State of North Carolina, a political subdivision of this State, or any of their agencies or instrumentalities;
3. The amount received does not exceed an amount equal to three hundred dollars ($300.00) times the number of months for which the recipient received amounts under the scholarship or fellowship grant during the taxable year; and
4. The recipient has not been entitled to exclude amounts received as a scholarship or fellowship grant while not a candidate for a degree at an educational institution for thirty-six (36) months, whether or not consecutive.

(11) Any amounts received as reimbursement through insurance or from any other source for losses of such nature as those allowable under subdivisions (9) a and (9) b of G. S. 105-147 only to the extent that such losses when claimed as a deduction on a return required to be filed by the provisions of this article did not serve to reduce the amount of tax owed by the taxpayer. (1939, c. 158, s. 317; 1941, c. 50, s. 5; c. 283; 1943, c. 400, s. 4; 1945, c. 708, s. 4; c. 752, s. 3; 1951, c. 643, s. 4; 1957, c. 1224; c. 1340, s. 4; 1961, c. 893; 1963, c. 1169, s. 2.)

Editor's Note. — The 1941 amendments changed the last sentence of the first paragraph of subsection (a).

The 1943 amendment made changes not apparent in the section as it now reads.

The 1945 amendments inserted the third paragraph of subsection (a), and added subdivision (6) of subsection (b).

The 1951 amendment inserted the fourth paragraph of subsection (a).

The first 1957 amendment added subdivision (8) of subsection (b). The second 1957 amendment changed subsection (a) by rewriting the second and fourth paragraphs and adding the last paragraph. It changed subsection (b) by rewriting subdivision (5), adding subdivisions (7) and (9), and made changes in subdivision (6).

The 1961 amendment changed subdivision (5) of subsection (b) by striking out “the Workmen's Compensation Act” and inserting in lieu thereof “workmen's compensation acts or similar acts (which have been judicially declared to provide benefits in the nature of workmen's compensation benefits, by whatever name called).”

The 1963 amendment, effective as to income years beginning on and after Jan. 1, 1963, changed the provisions of the proviso in the last paragraph of subsection (a) relative to distributions payable by pension, profit-sharing, stock bonus or annuity trust. It also deleted the last sentence of subdivision (4) of subsection (b), rewrote subdivision (5) of subsection (b) and the portion of subdivision (6) of subsection (b) dealing with a horse furnished to a minister, and added subdivisions (10) and (11) of subsection (b).
§ 105-141.1 Gross income—annuities.— (a) With respect to amounts received as annuities, “gross income” as used in this article shall include any amount received as an annuity (whether for a period certain or during one or more lives) under an annuity, endowment or life insurance contract, exclusive of that part of any amount received as an annuity under an annuity, endowment or life insurance contract which bears the same ratio to such amount as the investment in the contract (as of the annuity starting date) bears to the expected return under the contract (as of such date).

(b) Definitions:

(1) Investment in the Contract.—For the purposes of subsection (a), the investment in the contract as of the annuity starting date is
   a. The aggregate amount of premiums or other consideration paid for the contract, minus
   b. The aggregate amount received under the contract before such date, to the extent that such amount was excludable from gross income under this section or prior income tax laws.

(2) Adjustment in Investment Where There Is Refund Feature.—If, a. The expected return under the contract depends in whole or part on the life expectancy of one or more individuals;
b. The contract provides for payments to be made to a beneficiary (or to the estate of an annuitant) on or after the death of the annuitant or annuitants; and
c. Such payments are in the nature of a refund of the consideration paid, then the value (computed without discount for interest) of such payments on the annuity starting date shall be subtracted from the amount determined under paragraph (1). Such value shall be computed in accordance with actuarial tables prescribed by the Commissioner. For the purposes of this paragraph and subsection (d) (2) a, the term “refund of the consideration paid” includes amounts payable after the death of an annuitant by reasons of a provision in the contract for a life annuity with a minimum period of payment certain, but (if part of the consideration was contributed by an employer) does not include that part of any payment to a beneficiary (or to the estate of the annuitant) which is not attributable to the consideration paid by the employee for the contract as determined under paragraph (1) a.

(3) Expected Return.—For the purposes of subsection (a), the expected return under the contract shall be determined as follows:

a. Life Expectancy.—If the expected return under the contract, for the period on and after the annuity starting date, depends in whole or in part on the life expectancy of one or more individuals, the expected return shall be computed in accordance with annuity tables in force and used by the Federal Internal Revenue Service in computing annuities at the time as of which such computation is made.

b. Installment Payments.—If subparagraph a does not apply, the expected return is the aggregate of the amounts receivable under the contract as an annuity.

(4) Annuity Starting Date.—For purposes of this section, the annuity starting date in the case of any contract is the first day of the first period for which an amount is received as an annuity under the contract; except that if such date was before January 1, 1957, then the annuity starting date is January 1, 1957.

c. Employees Annuities:

(1) Employees Contributions Recoverable in Three Years.—Where, a. Part of the consideration for annuities, endowment or life insurance contract is contributed by the employer, and
b. During the three-year period beginning on the date (whether on or before January 1, 1957) on which an amount is first received under the contract as an annuity, the aggregate amount receivable by the employee under the terms of the contract is equal to or greater than the consideration for the contract contributed by the employee, then all amounts received as an annuity under the contract shall be excluded from gross income until there has been so excluded (under this paragraph and prior income tax laws) an amount equal to the consideration for the contract contributed by the employee. Thereafter all amounts so received under the contract shall be included in gross income.

(2) Special Rules for Application of Paragraph (1).—For the purpose of paragraph (1), if the employee died before any amount was received as an annuity under the contract, the words "receivable by the employee" shall be read as "receivable by a beneficiary of the employee".

d. Amounts Not Received as Annuities:

(1) General Rule.—If any amount is received under an annuity, endowment or life insurance contract, if such amount is not received as an annuity, and if no other provision of the section applies, then such amount:

a. If received on or after the annuity starting date, shall be included in gross income; or

b. If subparagraph a does not apply, shall be included in gross income, but only to the extent that it (when added to amounts previously received under the contract which were excludable from gross income under this article or prior income tax laws) exceeds the aggregate premiums or other consideration paid.

For purposes of this section any amount received that is in the nature of a dividend or similar distribution shall be treated as an amount not received as an annuity.

(2) Special Rules for Application of Paragraph (1).—For purposes of paragraph (1), the following shall be treated as amounts not received as annuities:

a. Any amount received, whether in a single sum or otherwise, under a contract in full discharge of the obligation under the contract which is in the nature of a refund of the consideration paid for the contract; and
b. Any amount received under a contract on its surrender, redemption or maturity.

In the case of any amount to which the preceding sentence applies, the rule of paragraph (1) b shall apply (and the rule of paragraph (1) a shall not apply).

(3) Limit on Tax Attributable to Receipt of Lump Sum.—If a lump sum is received under an annuity, endowment or life insurance contract, and the part which is includable in gross income is determined under paragraph (1), then the tax attributable to the inclusion of such part in gross income for the taxable year shall not be greater than the aggregate of the tax attributable to such part had it been included in the gross income of the taxpayer ratably over the tax year in which received and the preceding two taxable years.

(e) Special Rules for Computing Employees Contributions.—In computing for purposes of subsection (b) (1) a, the aggregate amount of premiums or other consideration paid for the contract, for the purposes of subsection (c) (1), the consideration for the contract contributed by the employee, and for the purposes of subsection (d) (1) b, the aggregate premiums or other consideration paid, amounts contributed by the employer shall be included, but only to the extent that:

(1) Such amounts were includable in the gross income of the employee under this article or prior income tax laws; or

(2) If such amounts had been paid directly to the employee at the time they were contributed, they would not have been includable in the gross income of the employee under the law applicable at the time of such contribution.

(f) Rules for Transfer Where a Transfer Was for Value.—Where any contract (or any interest therein) is transferred (by assignment or otherwise) for a valuable consideration, to the extent that the contract (or interest therein) does not, in the hands of the transferee, have a basis which is determined by reference to the basis in the hand of the transferor, then:

(1) For purposes of this section, only the actual value of such consideration, plus the amount of the premiums and other consideration paid by the transferee after the transfer, shall be taken into account in computing the aggregate amount of the premiums or other consideration paid for the contract;

(2) For purposes of subsection (b) (1) b there shall be taken into account only the aggregate amount received under the contract by the transferee before the annuity starting date, to the extent that such amount was excludable from gross income under this article or prior income tax laws; and

(3) The annuity starting date is January 1, 1957, or the first day of the first period for which the transferee received an amount under the contract as an annuity, whichever is the later.

For purposes of this subsection, the term “transferee” includes a beneficiary of, or the estate of, the transferee.

(g) Option to Receive Annuity in Lieu of Lump Sum.—If,

(1) A contract provides for payment of a lump sum in full discharge of an obligation under the contract, subject to an option to receive an annuity in lieu of such lump sum;

(2) The option is exercised within sixty (60) days after the date on which such lump sum first became payable; and

(3) Part or all of such lump sum shall (but for this subsection) be includable in gross income by reason of subsection (d) (1), then, for purposes of this section, no part of such lump sum shall be considered as includable in gross income at the time such lump sum first became payable.

§ 105-141.2 Taxation

(h) Interest. — Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, if any amount is held under an agreement to pay interest thereon, the interest payments shall be included in gross income. (1957, c. 1340, s. 4.)

§ 105-141.2. Gross income—alimony payments.

(a) General Rule:

(1) Decree of Divorce or Separate Maintenance.—If a wife is divorced or legally separated from her husband under a decree of divorce or of separate maintenance, the wife's gross income includes periodic payments (whether or not made at regular intervals) received after such decree in discharge of (or attributable to property transferred, in trust or otherwise, in discharge of) a legal obligation which, because of the marital or family relationship, is imposed on or incurred by the husband under the decree or under a written instrument incident to such divorce or separation.

(2) Written Separation Agreement.—If a wife is separated from her husband and there is a written separation agreement executed after the date of the enactment of this article, the wife's gross income includes periodic payments (whether or not made at regular intervals) received after such agreement is executed which are made under such agreement and because of the marital or family relationship (or which are attributable to property transferred, in trust or otherwise, under such agreement and because of such relationship).

(3) Decree for Support.—If a wife is separated from her husband, the wife's gross income includes periodic payments (whether or not made at regular intervals) received by her after January 1, 1957, from her husband under a decree requiring the husband to make the payments for her support and maintenance.

(b) Payments to Support Minor Children.—Subsection (a) shall not apply to that part of any payment which the terms of the decree, instrument, or agreement fix, in terms of an amount of money or a part of the payment, as a sum which is payable for the support of minor children of the husband. For purposes of the preceding sentence, if any payment is less than the amount specified in the decree, instrument or agreement, then so much of such payment as does not exceed the sum payable for support shall be considered a payment for such support.

(c) Principal Sum Paid in Installments.

(1) General Rule.—For purposes of subsection (a), installment payments discharging a part of an obligation the principal sum of which is, either in terms of money or property, specified in the decree, instrument, or agreement shall not be treated as periodic payments.

(2) Where Period for Payment Is More Than 10 Years.—If, by the terms of the decree, instrument, or agreement, the principal sum referred to in subdivision (1) is to be paid or may be paid over a period ending more than 10 years from the date of such decree, instrument, or agreement, then (notwithstanding subdivision (1)) the installment payments shall be treated as periodic payments for purposes of subsection (a), but (in the case of any one taxable year of the wife) only to the extent of ten per cent (10%) of the principal sum. For purposes of the preceding sentence, the part of any principal sum which is allocable to a period after the taxable year of the wife in which it is received shall be treated as an installment payment for the taxable year in which it is received.

(d) Treatment of Income from a Trust.

(1) Inclusion in Gross Income of Wife.—There shall be included in the gross income of a wife who is divorced or legally separated under a decree of divorce or of separate maintenance (or who is separated from her husband under a written separation agreement) the amount of the income of any trust which such wife is entitled to receive and which, except for this section, would be includable in the gross income of her husband, and such amount shall not, despite any other provision of this article, be includable in the gross income of such husband. This subsection shall not apply to that part of any such income of the trust which the terms of the decree, written separation agreement or trust instrument fix, in terms of an amount of money or a portion of such income, as a sum which is payable for the support of minor children of such husband. In case such income is less than the amount specified in the decree, agreement or instrument for the purpose of applying the preceding sentence, such income, to the extent of such sum payable for such support, shall be considered a payment for such support.

(2) Wife Considered a Beneficiary.—For purposes of computing the taxable income of the estate or trust and the taxable income of a wife to whom subdivision (1) applies, such wife shall be considered as the beneficiary specified in this part. A periodical payment to any portion of which this part applies shall be included in the gross income of the beneficiary in the taxable year in which under this part such portion is required to be included.

(e) Husband and Wife.—As used in this section and § 105-147 (21), if the husband and wife therein referred to are divorced, wherever appropriate to the meaning of such sections, the term “wife” shall be read “former wife” and the term “husband” shall be read “former husband”; and, if the payments described in such sections are made by or on behalf of the wife or former wife to the husband or former husband instead of vice versa, wherever appropriate to the meaning of such sections, the term “husband” shall be read “wife” and the term “wife” shall be read “husband”. (1957, c. 1340, s. 4.)

§ 105-141.3. Adjusted gross income defined. — The words “adjusted gross income” for the purposes of this article shall mean gross income taxable under this article less all expenses allowed as deductions by this article which were incurred in deriving such income. (1963, c. 1169, s. 2.)

Editor’s Note.—The 1963 act adding this section is effective as to income years beginning on and after Jan. 1, 1963.

§ 105-142. Basis of return of net income. — (a) The net income of a taxpayer shall be computed in accordance with the method of accounting regularly employed in keeping the books of such taxpayer, but such method of accounting must be consistent with respect to both income and deductions, but if in any case such method does not clearly reflect the income, the computation shall be made in accordance with such method as in the opinion of the Commissioner does clearly reflect the income, but shall follow as nearly as practicable the federal practice, unless contrary to the context and intent of this article.

(b) Change of Income Year.

(1) A taxpayer may change the income year upon which he reports for income tax purposes without prior approval by the Commissioner of Revenue if such change in income year has been approved by or is acceptable to the Federal Commissioner of Internal Revenue and is used for filing income tax returns under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

If a taxpayer desires to make a change in his income year other than as provided above he may make such change in his income year with the approval of the Commissioner of Revenue, provided such approval

A taxpayer who has changed his income year without requesting the approval of the Commissioner of Revenue as provided in the first paragraph of this subdivision shall submit to the Commissioner of Revenue notification of any change in the income year after the change has been approved by the Federal Commissioner of Internal Revenue or his agent where application for permission to change is required by the Federal Commissioner of Internal Revenue with such notification stating that such approval has been received. Where application for change of the income year is not required by the Federal Commissioner of Internal Revenue, notification of the intention to change the income year shall be submitted to the Commissioner of Revenue prior to the time for filing the short period return.

(2) A return for a period of less than twelve months (referred to in this subsection as “short period”) shall be made when the taxpayer changes his income year. In such a case, the return shall be made for the short period beginning on the day after the close of the former taxable year and ending at the close of the day before the day designated as the first day of the new taxable year, except that taxpayers changing to, or from, a taxable year varying from fifty-two (52) to fifty-three (53) weeks as provided in subdivision (11) of G.S. 105-132 shall not be required to file a short period return if such change results in a short period of three hundred and fifty-nine (359) days or more or of less than seven (7) days. Short period income tax returns shall be filed within the same period following the end of such short period as is required for full year returns under the provisions of G.S. 105-155.

(3) In the case of a taxpayer who is an individual, if a return is made for a short period under the provisions of subdivision (2) of this subsection the exemptions allowed as a deduction under G.S. 105-149 shall be reduced to amounts which bear the same ratio to the full exemptions as the number of months in the short period bears to twelve and the net taxable income for the short period shall be placed on an annual basis by multiplying such income by twelve and by dividing the result by the number of months in the short period. The tax shall be the same part of the tax computed on the annual basis as the number of months in the short period is of twelve months.

(c) An individual carrying on business in partnership shall be liable for income tax only in his individual capacity, and shall include in his gross income, whether distributed or not, his distributive share of the net income of the partnership and dividends from foreign corporations for each income year. If an established business in this State is owned by a nonresident individual or by a partnership having one or more nonresident members, the manager of the business in this State shall report the earnings of such business in this State, and the distributive share of the income of each nonresident owner or partner and pay the tax as levied on individuals in this article for each such nonresident owner or partner. The individual or partnership business carried on in this State may deduct the payment required to be made for such nonresident individual or partner or partners from their distributive share of the profits of such business in this State: Provided, that if an established unincorporated business owned by a nonresident individual or a partnership having one or more nonresident members is operating in one or more other states the net income of the business attributable to North Carolina shall be determined by multiplying the total net income of the business by the ratio ascertained under the provisions of G.S. 105-134, and shall be entitled to the rights and privileges accorded corporations therein. Total net income shall be the entire gross income of the business less all expenses, taxes, in-interest and other deductions allowable under this article which were incurred in the operation of the business.

(d) There shall be included in the gross income of a beneficiary of an estate or trust the share of the net income of the estate or trust which during the income year is distributed or is distributable to such beneficiary and which has not been included as net income of the estate or trust subject to tax during any prior year.

Unless otherwise provided by law or by the will, deed or other instrument creating the estate, trust or fiduciary relation, the net income of the estate or trust shall be deemed to be distributed or distributable to the beneficiaries (including the fiduciary as a beneficiary, in the case of income accumulated for future distribution) ratably in proportion to their respective interests.

(e) The amount actually distributed or made available to any employee or the beneficiary of an employee by an employees' trust, which qualifies under subdivision (10) of G. S. 105-138 as an exempt organization, shall be taxable to the employee or his beneficiary in the year in which distributed or made available; provided, that if such employee has made contributions to such trust, and the benefits are received as periodic payments, the amounts annually received shall be taxed as an annuity as provided in G. S. 105-141.1. The amount actually received or made available to the employee or his beneficiary which consists of corporate shares or other securities shall be taken into account in determining the amount distributed or made available at their fair market value, except that the net unrealized appreciation in the corporate shares or other securities of the employer corporation shall not be included in determining such amount distributed or made available for purposes of this subsection.

(f) An individual, who patronizes or owns stock or has membership in a farmers' marketing or purchasing co-operative or mutual, organized under subchapter 4 or subchapter 5 of chapter 54 of the General Statutes of North Carolina, shall include in his gross income for the year in which the allocation is made his distributive share of any savings, whether distributed in cash or credit, allocated by the co-operative or mutual association for each income year.

(g) (1) A taxpayer who regularly sells or otherwise disposes of personal property on the installment plan may return as income therefrom in any taxable year that proportion of the installment payments actually received in that year which the gross profit, realized or to be realized when payment is completed, bears to the total contract price.

(2) Income from a sale or other disposition of real property, or a casual sale or other casual disposition of personal property (other than property of a kind which would properly be included in the inventory of the taxpayer if on hand at the close of the taxable year) for a price exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000.00), may be returned on the basis and in the manner prescribed in subdivision (1), provided, however, that such income may be so returned only if in the taxable year of the sale or other disposition there are no payments or the payments (exclusive of evidence of indebtedness of the purchaser) do not exceed thirty per cent (30%) of the selling price; provided further, that this method of reporting income from installment sales shall not be used by individuals who are not residents of this State or by foreign corporations not domesticated in this State unless such nonresident individual or corporation files a bond with the Commissioner of Revenue in such amount and with such sureties as the Commissioner shall deem necessary to secure the payment of any taxes which were deferred with respect to any gain from such sale or other disposition; and, provided further, that if a timely election is made to report a gain from an installment sale on the basis prescribed in this subsection such election shall be binding on the taxpayer and he may not after the date prescribed by law for filing his return change to another method of reporting such gains, and in like manner if a timely election is made to report a gain on other than the installment basis such election shall likewise be binding on the taxpayer.

(3) Sale or Other Disposition.

a. If an installment obligation is satisfied at other than its face value or is distributed, transmitted, sold or otherwise disposed of, gain or loss shall result to the extent of the difference between the basis of the obligation and

1. The amount realized, in the case of satisfaction at other than face value or a sale or exchange, or
2. The fair market value of the obligation at the time of the distribution, transmission or disposition in the case of the distribution, transmission, or disposition otherwise than by sale or exchange.

Any gain or loss so resulting shall be considered as resulting from the sale or exchange of the property in respect of which the installment obligation was received.

b. The basis of an installment obligation shall be the excess of the face value of the obligation over an amount equal to the income which would be returnable were the obligation satisfied in full.

c. Except as provided elsewhere in this article this subdivision (3) shall not apply to the transmission of installment obligations at death; provided, that any corporation availing itself of the provisions of this subsection and which is planning to either withdraw its articles of domestication or remove its business from this State, merge, or consolidate its business with another corporation or other interests or dissolve its charter, be required to make a report for income tax purposes, to the Department of Revenue, of any unrealized or unreported income from installment sales made while doing business in this State and to pay any tax which may be due on such income. The manner and form for making such report and paying the tax shall be as prescribed by the Commissioner.

d. If an individual, who has elected to report in the manner prescribed in subdivision (1) a gain from a sale such as described in either subdivision (1) or (2), removes himself from this State, any unrealized or unreported income from such installment sales made while a resident of this State must be reported for income tax purposes on the return filed with this State by such individual for the year in which the individual removes himself from this State unless such individual files a bond with the Commissioner of Revenue in such amount and with such sureties as the Commissioner shall deem necessary to secure the payment of any taxes which were deferred. (1939, c. 158, s. 318; 1943, c. 400, s. 4; 1945, c. 708, s. 4; 1949, c. 392, s. 3; 1955, c. 1313, s. 1; 1957, c. 1340, s. 4; 1963, c. 1169, s. 2.)

Editor's Note. — The 1943 amendment made changes in subsection (c). The 1945 amendment added subsection (e). And the 1949 amendment added subsection (f).

The 1955 amendment deleted "or interest on stock" formerly appearing after "savings" in subsection (f).

The 1957 amendment rewrote subsections (b) and (d), deleted the former third sentence of subsection (c) and added the proviso and sentence at the end thereof, deleted all of subsection (e) after "annuity" and inserted in lieu thereof "as provided in G. S. 105-141.1", and added subsection (g).

The 1963 amendment, effective as to income years beginning on and after Jan. 1, 1963, rewrote the first sentence of subsec-§ 105-142.1. Income in respect of decedents. — (a) The amount of all items of gross income in respect of a decedent which are not properly includable in the gross income of the decedent for the taxable period in which falls the date of his death or for a prior taxable period (including all items of gross income in respect of a prior decedent if the right to receive such items was acquired by reason of the death of the prior decedent or by bequest, devise or inheritance from the prior decedent) shall be included in the gross income, for the taxable year when received, of:

(1) The estate of the decedent, if the right to receive the amount is acquired by the decedent’s estate from the decedent;

(2) The person who, by reason of the death of the decedent, acquires the right to receive the amount if the right to receive the amount is not acquired by the decedent’s estate from the decedent; or

(3) The person who acquires from the decedent the right to receive the amount by bequest, devise or inheritance if the amount is received after a distribution by the decedent’s estate of such right or is received without an administration of the decedent’s estate.

(b) If a right to receive an amount of income in respect of a decedent is transferred by the estate of the decedent or by a person who received such right by reason of the death of the decedent or by bequest, devise or inheritance from the decedent, there shall be included in the gross income of the estate of such person, as the case may be, for the taxable period in which the transfer occurs, the fair market value of such right at the time of transfer plus the amount by which any consideration for the transfer exceeds such fair market value. For purposes of this paragraph, the term “transfer” includes a sale, exchange, or other disposition or the satisfaction of an installment obligation at other than face value, but does not include transmission at death to the estate of the decedent or a transfer to a person pursuant to the right of such person to receive such amount by reason of the death of the decedent or by bequest, devise or inheritance from the decedent.

(c) For the purposes of this section an amount equal to the excess of the face amount of an installment obligation (the income from which was properly reportable by the decedent on the installment basis under G.S. 105-142) over the basis of such obligation in the hands of the decedent shall be considered as an item of gross income in respect of a decedent, and such obligation shall be considered a right to receive an item of gross income in respect of a decedent.

(d) The amount of any deduction allowable under this article in respect of a decedent which is not properly allowable to the decedent for the taxable period.
in which falls the date of his death or for a prior taxable period shall be allowed to the estate of the decedent except that, if the estate of the decedent is not liable to discharge the obligation to which the deduction relates, such deduction shall be allowed to the person, who by reason of the death of the decedent or by bequest, devise or inheritance acquires, subject to the obligation, from the decedent an interest in property of the decedent. (1957, c. 1340, s. 4.)

§ 105-143. Subsidiary and affiliated corporations. — The net income of a corporation doing business in this State which is a subsidiary or affiliate of another corporation shall be determined by eliminating all payments to or charges by the parent corporation or other subsidiaries or affiliates of the parent corporation in excess of fair compensation for all services performed for or commodities or property sold, transferred, leased, or licensed to the parent or to its other subsidiary or affiliated corporations by the corporation doing business in this State. If the Commissioner of Revenue shall find as a fact that a report by such subsidiary or affiliated corporation does not disclose the true earnings of such corporation on its business carried on in this State, the Commissioner may require that such subsidiary or affiliated corporation file a consolidated return of the entire operations of such parent corporation and of its subsidiaries and affiliates, including its own operations and income, and may determine the true amount of net income earned by such subsidiary or affiliated corporation in this State by taking the factor of investment in real estate and tangible personal property in this State and volume of business in this State and by relating these factors to the total investment of the parent corporation and its subsidiaries and affiliated corporations in real estate and tangible personal property in and out of this State and their total volume of business in and out of this State. The authority hereby given to require consolidated returns as aforesaid and to ascertain the true amount of income earned in this State on the basis herein prescribed may also be used by the Commissioner as the basis of ascertaining the true net income earned in this State during the calendar year one thousand nine hundred and forty and for the three calendar years prior thereto. For the purposes of this section, a corporation shall be deemed a subsidiary of another corporation hereby designated the parent corporation, when, directly or indirectly, it is subject to control by such other corporation by stock ownership, interlocking directors, or by any other means whatsoever exercised by the same or associated financial interests, whether such control is direct or through one or more subsidiary, affiliated, or controlled corporations, and a corporation shall be deemed an affiliate of another corporation when both are directly or indirectly controlled by the same parent corporation or by the same or associated financial interests by stock ownership, interlocking directors, or by any other means whatsoever, whether such control be direct or through one or more subsidiary, affiliated or controlled corporations. Upon such finding by the Commissioner, the consolidated returns authorized by this section may be required whether the parent or controlling corporation or interest or its subsidiaries or affiliates are or are not doing business in this State. The provisions of this paragraph do not apply to corporations subject to regulations by a regulatory body of this State which are required to maintain accounts in such manner as to reflect separately the business done in this State and file a report thereof with such regulatory body. This paragraph shall not apply unless the Commissioner further finds that the business in this State is handled or effected in such manner as to distort or not reflect the true income earned in this State and finds in addition either or both of the following facts:

1. That the several corporations are owned or controlled by the same financial interests or
2. That they are members of a group of corporations associated together in carrying on a unitary business or are branches or parts of a unitary business or are engaged in different phases of the same general business or industry.
If such consolidated return is required and is not filed within sixty days after demand, said subsidiary or affiliated corporation shall be subject to the penalty provided in this act for failure to file returns and in addition shall be subject to the penalty provided in § 105-230, and in such event the provisions of G. S. 105-236 shall apply.

Every subsidiary of a parent corporation doing business in this State shall not be allowed to deduct interest on indebtedness owed to or endorsed or guaranteed by the parent corporation and used by the subsidiary in carrying on its business in this State. The term "indebtedness" used in this paragraph shall include all loans, credits, goods, supplies or other capital of whatsoever nature furnished by the parent corporation, or by any subsidiary of the parent corporation. The term "parent corporation" shall include any subsidiary of the parent corporation. If any part of the capital used by the parent corporation is borrowed capital, the subsidiary may deduct from its gross income interest paid to the parent corporation or paid upon indebtedness endorsed or guaranteed by the parent corporation in such proportion as the borrowed capital of the parent corporation is to the total assets of such parent corporation. The term "borrowed capital" shall mean the outstanding indebtedness (other than interest due) of the taxpayer, incurred in good faith for the purpose of the business, which is evidenced by a bond, note, bill of exchange, debenture, certificate of indebtedness, mortgage, deed of trust, bank loan agreement, or conditional sales contract.

Such subsidiary or affiliated corporation shall incorporate in its returns required under this section and article such information as the Commissioner may reasonably require for the determination of the net income taxable under this article, and shall furnish such additional information as the Commissioner may reasonably require. If the return does not contain the information therein required or such additional information is not furnished within thirty days after demand, the corporation shall be subject to a penalty of one hundred dollars a day for each day's omission, in addition to the penalty provided in § 105-230.

If the Commissioner finds that the determination of the income of a subsidiary or affiliated corporation under a consolidated return as herein provided will produce a greater or lesser figure than the amount of income earned in this State, he may readjust the determination by reasonable methods of computation to make it conform to the amount of income earned in this State; and if the corporation contends the figure produced is greater than the earnings in this State, it shall, within thirty days after notice of such determination, file with the Commissioner a statement of its objections and of an alternative method of determination with such detail and proof as the Commissioner may require, and the Commissioner shall consider the same in determining the income earned in this State. In making such determination the findings and conclusions of the Commissioner shall be presumed to be correct and shall not be set aside unless shown to be plainly wrong. (1939, c. 158, s. 318½; 1941, c. 50, s. 5; 1943, c. 400, s. 4; 1945, c. 708, s. 4; 1959, c. 1259, ss. 4, 8.)

Editor's Note.—The 1941 amendment rewrote this section, and the 1943 amendment rewrote the third paragraph.

The 1945 amendment inserted in the fourth sentence of the first paragraph "hereby designated the parent corporation," and substituted in the sixth and seventh sentences "paragraph" for "section." The amendment also struck out the former third sentence of the third paragraph relating to "subsidiary corporation."

The word "act" in the second paragraph probably should read "subchapter."

The 1959 amendment changed the second paragraph by substituting "G. S. 105-236" for "subsection (e) of § 105-161." It changed the third paragraph by inserting "or paid upon indebtedness endorsed or guaranteed by the parent corporation," and rewriting the last sentence.

§ 105-144. Determination of gain or loss.—(a) Except as provided in subsection (c1) of this section, in ascertaining the gain or loss from the sale or other disposition of property:

1. For property acquired after January 1, 1921 and before July 1, 1963, the basis shall be the cost thereof; provided, however, that in the case of property which was included in the last preceding annual inventory used in determining net income in a return under this article, such inventory value shall be the basis in lieu of cost.

2. For property acquired before January 1, 1921, the basis for the purpose of ascertaining gain, shall be the fair market value of the property at January 1, 1921, or the cost of the property, whichever is greater; and the basis for determining loss, shall be the cost of the property in all cases, if such cost is known or determinable.

3. For property acquired on or after July 1, 1963, the basis shall be as follows:
   a. For property acquired by purchase, the cost thereof, provided that in the case of property which was included in the last preceding annual inventory used in determining net income in a return under this article, such inventory value shall be used in lieu of cost.
   b. For property acquired by gift, the same basis as it would be in the hands of the donor or the last preceding owner by whom it was not acquired by gift, except that if the basis (as adjusted) is greater than the fair market value of the property at the time of the gift, then for the purpose of determining loss the basis shall be such fair market value; provided that if a gift tax is paid to this State with respect to such property the basis shall be increased by the amount of the gift tax paid with respect to such gift, but such increase shall not exceed an amount equal to the amount by which the fair market value at the time of the gift exceeded the basis of the property in the hands of the donor at the time of the gift.
   c. For property acquired by bequest, devise, or descent, either the fair market value at the date of death of the former owner, or in the case of an election under G. S. 105-9.1 the fair market value at the alternate valuation date at which time a value is established for inheritance tax purposes.

   The basis of property so determined under this subsection (a) shall be adjusted for capital additions or losses applicable to the property and for depreciation, amortization, and depletion, allowed or allowable.

(b) Except as hereinafter provided in subsection (c) or in subsection (c1) of this section, the final distribution to the taxpayer of the assets of a corporation shall be treated as a sale of the stock or securities of the corporation owned by him, and the gain or loss shall be computed accordingly.

(c) No gain or loss shall be recognized upon the receipt by a corporation of property distributed in complete liquidation of another corporation, if the corporation receiving such property was on the date of the adoption of the plan of liquidation and has continued to be at all times until the receipt of the property the owner of stock (in such other corporation), possessing at least eighty per centum (80%) of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock entitled to vote, and the owner of at least eighty per centum (80%) of the total number of shares of all other classes of stock (except nonvoting stock which is limited and preferred as to dividends).

1. General Rule. — In the case of property distributed in complete liquidation of a corporation, if § 105-144

a. The liquidation is made in pursuance of a plan of liquidation adopted on or after June 21, 1961; and

b. The distribution is in complete cancellation or redemption of all the stock, and the transfer of all the property under the liquidation occurs within some one calendar month, then in the case of each qualified electing shareholder (as defined in subdivision (3)) gain on the shares owned by him at the time of the adoption of the plan of liquidation shall be recognized only to the extent provided in subdivisions (5) and (6).

(2) Excluded Corporations. — For purposes of this section, the term “excluded corporation” means a corporation which at any time between June 21, 1961, and the date of the adoption of the plan of liquidation, both dates inclusive, was the owner of stock possessing fifty per cent (50%) or more of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock entitled to vote on the adoption of such plan.

(3) Qualified Electing Shareholders.—For purposes of this section, the term “qualified electing shareholder” means a shareholder (other than an excluded corporation) of any class of stock (whether or not entitled to vote on the adoption of the plan of liquidation) who is a shareholder at the time of the adoption of such plan, and whose written election to have the benefits of subdivision (1) has been made and filed in accordance with subdivision (4), but

a. In the case of a shareholder other than a corporation, only if written elections have been so filed by shareholders (other than corporations) who at the time of the adoption of the plan of liquidation are owners of stock possessing at least eighty per cent (80%) of the total combined voting power (exclusive of voting power possessed by stock owned by corporations) of all classes of stock entitled to vote on the adoption of such plan of liquidation; or

b. In the case of a shareholder which is a corporation, only if written elections have been so filed by corporate shareholders (other than an excluded corporation) which at the time of adoption of such plan of liquidation are owners of stock possessing at least eighty per cent (80%) of the total combined voting power (exclusive of voting power possessed by stock owned by an excluded corporation and by shareholders who are not corporations) of all classes of stock entitled to vote on the adoption of such plan of liquidation.

(4) Making and Filing of Elections.—The written elections referred to in subdivision (3) shall be deemed to have been made and filed if, and only if, such written elections were duly made and filed for federal income tax purposes in conformity with the provisions of § 333 of the 1954 Internal Revenue Code and the regulations thereunder.

(5) Noncorporate Shareholders.—In the case of a qualified electing shareholder other than a corporation.

a. There shall be recognized, and treated as ordinary income, so much of the gain as is not in excess of his ratable share of the earnings and profits of the corporation accumulated after January 1, 1921, such earnings and profits to be determined as of the close of the month in which the transfer in liquidation occurred under subdivision (1), paragraph b, but without diminution by reason of distributions made during such month; but by including in the computation thereof all amounts accrued up to the date on which the transfer of all the property under the liquidation is completed; and

b. There shall be recognized and treated as gain so much of the remainder of the gain as is not in excess of the amount by which the value of that portion of the assets received by him which consists of money, or of stock or securities acquired by the corporation after June 21, 1961, exceeds his ratable share of such earnings and profits.

(6) Corporate Shareholders.—In the case of a qualified electing shareholder which is a corporation, the gain shall be recognized only to the extent of the greater of the two following:

a. The portion of the assets received by it which consist of money, or of stock or securities acquired by the liquidating corporation after June 21, 1961;

b. Its ratable share of the earnings and profits of the liquidating corporation accumulated after January 1, 1921, such earnings and profits to be determined as of the close of the month in which the transfer in liquidation occurred under subdivision (1), paragraph b, but without diminution by reason of distributions made during such month; but by including in the computation thereof all amounts accrued up to the date on which the transfer of all the property under the liquidation is completed.

(d) If property is received by a corporation in a distribution in complete liquidation of another corporation within the meaning of subsection (c), then, except as hereinafter provided in subsection (e), the basis of the property in the hands of the distributee shall be the same as it would be in the hands of the transferor.

(e) If property is received by a corporation in a distribution in complete liquidation of another corporation within the meaning of subsection (c), and if

(1) The distribution is pursuant to a plan of liquidation adopted on or after January first, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-seven, and not more than two years after the date of the transaction hereinafter described in subdivision (2) (or in the case of a series of transactions the date of the last such transaction); and

(2) Stock of the distributing corporation possessing at least eighty per centum (80%) of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock entitled to vote, and at least eighty per centum (80%) of the total number of shares of all other classes of stock (except nonvoting stock which is limited and preferred as to dividends), was acquired by the distributee in a taxable exchange during a period of not more than twelve months, then the basis of the property in the hands of the distributee shall be the adjusted basis of the stock with respect to which the distribution was made.

(f) No gain or loss shall be recognized to a corporation on the receipt of money or other property in exchange for stock (including treasury stock) of such corporation. (1939, c. 158, s. 319; 1941, c. 50, s. 5; 1957, c. 1340, s. 4; 1961, c. 1093; 1963, c. 1169, s. 2.)

Editor’s Note.—The 1957 amendment rewrote this section as changed by the 1941 amendment.

The 1961 amendment rewrote subsection (a), inserted the reference to subsection (c(1) in subsection (b) and added subsections (a(1) and (c(1).

The 1963 amendment, effective as to income years beginning on and after Jan. 1, 1963, rewrote subsection (a). theft, seizure, or requisition or condemnation or threat or imminence thereof) is compulsory or involuntarily converted—

(1) Into property similar or related in service or use to the property so converted, no gain shall be recognized.

(2) Into money or into property not similar or related in service or use to the converted property, and the disposition of the converted property occurred after December 31, 1958, the gain (if any) shall be recognized except to the extent hereinafter provided in this paragraph:

   a. If the taxpayer during the period specified in subparagraph b for the purpose of replacing the property so converted, purchases other property similar or related in service or use to the property so converted, or purchases stock in the acquisition of control of a corporation owning such other property, at the election of the taxpayer the gain shall be recognized only to the extent that the amount realized upon such conversion (regardless of whether such amount is received in one or more taxable years) exceeds the cost of such other property or such stock.

For purposes of this paragraph—

1. No property or stock acquired before the disposition of the converted property shall be considered to have been acquired for the purpose of replacing such converted property unless held by the taxpayer on the date of such disposition; and

2. The taxpayer shall be considered to have purchased property or stock only if, but for the provisions of subsection (b) of this section, the unadjusted basis of such property or stock would be its cost within the meaning of this article.

b. The period referred to in subparagraph a shall be the period beginning with the date of the disposition of the converted property, or the earliest date of the threat or imminence or requisition or condemnation of the converted property, whichever is the earlier, and end—

1. One year after the close of the first taxable year in which any part of the gain upon the conversion is realized, or

2. Subject to such terms and conditions as may be specified by the Commissioner of Revenue, at the close of such later date as the Commissioner of Revenue may designate on application by the taxpayer. Such application shall be made at such time and in such manner as the Commissioner of Revenue may prescribe.

c. If a taxpayer has made the election provided in subparagraph a then—

1. The statutory period for the assessment of any deficiency, for any taxable year in which any part of the gain on such conversion is realized, attributable to such gain shall not expire prior to the expiration of three years from the date the Commissioner of Revenue is notified by the taxpayer of the replacement of the converted property or of an intention not to replace, and

2. Such deficiency may be assessed before the expiration of such three-year period notwithstanding the provisions of law which would otherwise prevent such assessment.

d. If the election provided in subparagraph a is made by the taxpayer and such other property or such stock was purchased before the beginning of the last taxable year in which any part of the gain upon such conversion is realized, any deficiency, to the extent resulting from such election, for any taxable year ending before such last taxable year may be assessed (notwithstanding the provisions of law which would otherwise prevent such assessment) at any time before the expiration of the period within which a deficiency for such last taxable year may be assessed.

(b) If the property was acquired, after January 1, 1921, as the result of a compulsory or involuntary conversion described in subsection (a) (1), the basis shall be the same as in the case of the property so converted, decreased in the amount of any money received by the taxpayer which was not expended in accordance with the provisions of law (applicable to the year in which such conversion was made) determining the taxable status of the gain or loss upon such conversion, and increased in the amount of gain or decreased in the amount of loss to the taxpayer recognized upon such conversion under the law applicable to the year in which such conversion was made. In the case of property purchased by the taxpayer in a transaction described in subsection (a) (2) which resulted in the non-recognition of any part of the gain realized as the result of a compulsory or involuntary conversion, the basis shall be the cost of such property decreased in the amount of the gain not so recognized; and if the property purchased consists of more than one piece of property, the basis determined under this sentence shall be allocated to the purchased properties in proportion to their respective costs.

(c) For purposes of this section, if livestock are destroyed by or on account of disease, or are sold or exchanged because of disease, such destruction or such sale or exchange shall be treated as an involuntary conversion to which this section applies.

(d) For purposes of this section, the sale or exchange of livestock (other than poultry) held by a taxpayer for draft, breeding, or dairy purposes in excess of the number the taxpayer would sell if he followed his usual business practices shall be treated as an involuntary conversion to which this section applies if such livestock are sold or exchanged by the taxpayer solely on account of drought.

(e) As used in this section, the term “control” means the ownership of stock possessing at least eighty per centum (80%) of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock entitled to vote, and at least eighty per centum (80%) of the total number of shares of all other classes of stock of the corporation.

(f) (1) For purposes of subsection (a), if real property (not including stock in trade or other property held primarily for sale) held for productive use in trade or business or for investment is (as the result of its seizure, requisition, or condemnation, or threat or imminence thereof) compulsory or involuntarily converted, property of a like kind to be held either for productive use in trade or business or for investment shall be treated as property similar or related in service or use to the property so converted.

(2) Paragraph (1) shall not apply to the purchase of stock in the acquisition of control of a corporation described in subsection (a) (2) a.

(g) In the administration of this section, the Commissioner may, in his discretion, apply the federal rules and regulations, rulings, and federal court decisions pertinent to the administration and construction of § 1033 of the Federal Internal Revenue Code of 1954, but the Commissioner shall not be bound by such rules and regulations, rulings and decisions. (1949, c. 1171; 1959, c. 1259, s. 4.)
§ 105-144.2

Pending Litigation. — The mere statement in the act from which this section was codified that it is to affect pending litigation, will not be construed as sufficient authority to authorize the Commissioner of Revenue to refund to a taxpayer a tax legally assessed and collected prior to the enactment of the act. State v. Speizman, 230 N. C. 459, 53 S. E. (2d) 533 (1949).

§ 105-144.2. Sale of principal residence of taxpayer — nonrecognition of gain.—(a) If property (in this section called "old residence") used by the taxpayer as his principal residence is sold by him after December 31, 1956, and, within a period beginning one year before the date of such sale and ending one year after such date, property (in this section called "new residence") is purchased and used by the taxpayer as his principal residence, gain (if any) from such sale shall be recognized only to the extent that the taxpayer's adjusted sales price (as defined in subsection (b)) of the old residence exceeds the taxpayer's cost of purchasing the new residence.

(b) Adjusted Sales Price Defined.

(1) In General. — For purposes of this section, the term "adjusted sales price" means the amount realized, reduced by the aggregate of the expenses for work performed on the old residence in order to assist in its sale.

(2) Limitations.—The reduction provided in paragraph (1) applies only to expenses—
   a. For work performed during the 90-day period ending on the day on which the contract to sell the old residence is entered into;
   b. Which are paid on or before the 30th day after the date of the sale of the old residence; and
   c. Which are
      1. Not otherwise allowable as deductions in computing taxable income under this chapter, and
      2. Not taken into account in computing the amount realized from the sale of the old residence.

(3) Effective Date. — The reduction provided in paragraph (1) applies to expenses for work performed in any taxable year (whether beginning before, on or after January 1, 1957), but only in the case of a sale or exchange of an old residence which occurs after December 31, 1956.

(c) Rules for Application of Section.—For the purposes of this section:

(1) An exchange by the taxpayer of his residence for other property shall be treated as a sale of such residence, and the acquisition of a residence on the exchange of property shall be treated as a purchase of such residence.

(2) A residence any part of which was constructed or reconstructed by the taxpayer shall be treated as purchased by the taxpayer. In determining the taxpayer's cost of purchasing a residence, there shall be included only so much of his cost as is attributable to the acquisition, construction, reconstruction, and improvements made which are properly chargeable to capital account, during the period specified in subsection (a).

(3) If a residence is purchased by the taxpayer before the date of his sale of the old residence, the purchased residence shall not be treated as his new residence if sold or otherwise disposed of by him before the date of the sale of the old residence.
(4) If the taxpayer, during the period described in subsection (a), purchases more than one residence which is used by him as his principal residence at some time within one year after the date of the sale of the old residence, only the last of such residences so used by him after the date of such sale shall constitute the new residence.

(5) In the case of a new residence the construction of which was commenced by the taxpayer before the expiration of one year after the date of the sale of the old residence, the period specified in subsection (a), and the one year referred to in paragraph (4) of this subsection, shall be treated as including a period of 18 months beginning with the date of the sale of the old residence.

(d) Limitation.—Subsection (a) shall not apply with respect to the sale of the taxpayer’s residence if within one year before the date of such sale the taxpayer sold at a gain other property used by him as his principal residence, and any part of such gain was not recognized by reason of subsection (a).

(e) Basis of New Residence.—Where the purchase of a new residence results, under subsection (a) in the nonrecognition of gain on the sale of an old residence, in determining the adjusted basis of the new residence as of any time following the sale of the old residence, the adjustments to basis shall include a reduction by an amount equal to the amount of the gain not so recognized on the sale of the old residence. For this purpose, the amount of the gain not so recognized on the sale of the old residence includes only so much of such gain as is not recognized by reason of the cost, up to such time, of purchasing the new residence.

(f) Tenant-Stockholder in a Cooperative Housing Corporation.—For purposes of this section references to property used by the taxpayer as his principal residence, and references to the residence of a taxpayer, shall include stock held by a tenant-stockholder in a cooperative housing corporation if—

(1) In the case of stock sold, the house or apartment which the taxpayer was entitled to occupy as such stockholder was used by him as his principal residence, and

(2) In the case of stock purchased, the taxpayer used as his principal residence the house or apartment which he was entitled to occupy as such stockholder.

(g) Husband and Wife.

(1) If the taxpayer and his (or her) spouse own the old residence by the entirety and purchase the new residence by the entirety, then any gain shall be recognized only to the extent provided in subsection (a) of this section and shall be divided equally between the spouses, and the basis of the new residence shall be divided equally between said spouses.

(2) If the taxpayer and his (or her) spouse own (or owned) either the old or the new residence by the entirety and the other residence is (or was) owned solely by one of the spouses then the nonrecognition of gain as provided in subsection (a) of this section shall not apply unless both such spouses consent to compute any gain or loss upon the sale of the old residence as if the new residence were purchased under the same ownership as the old residence and to determine the basis of the new residence as if the old residence were owned under the same ownership as that under which the new residence is purchased. (1957, c. 1340, s. 4.)

§ 105-144.3. Bond premium amortization by bondholder.—(a) Amortization of bond premiums on tax-exempt bonds shall be mandatory for all taxpayers. Amortization for the taxable year shall be accomplished by lowering the basis or adjusted basis of the bond, with no deduction against gross income for the year.

(b) Amortization of bond premiums on taxable bonds shall be elective for all taxpayers. The amortizable premium for the taxable year may be deducted only if an adjustment is made to the basis of the bond.

(c) For purposes of this section, the term “bond” means any bond, debenture, note, or certificate or other evidence of indebtedness issued by any corporation and bearing interest and includes any like obligation issued by any government or political subdivision thereof. (1957, c. 1340, s. 4; 1963, c. 1169, s. 2.)

Editor's Note.—The 1963 amendment, effective as to income years beginning on and after Jan. 1, 1963, rewrote this section.

§ 105-144.4. Stock distribution pursuant to antitrust laws. — (a)

Effect on Distributes.

(1) General Rule.—If a corporation (referred to in this section as the “distributing corporation”) distributes to a shareholder, with respect to its stock held by such shareholder, stock which, when distributed to the distributee, is divested stock (as defined in subsection (d)) then no gain or loss shall be recognized to (and no amount shall be includible in the income of) such shareholder on the receipt of such divested stock.

(2) Non-Prorata Distribution, etc.—Paragraph (1) shall be applied without regard to the following:
   a. Whether or not the distribution is pro rata with respect to all of the shareholders of the distributing corporation, and
   b. Whether or not the shareholder surrenders stock in the distributing corporation.

(3) Distributions to Avoid Federal Income Tax.—Paragraph (1) shall not apply to any transaction one of the principal purposes of which is the distribution of the earnings and profits of the distributing corporation or of the corporation whose stock is distributed, or both (but the mere fact that either corporation has accumulated earnings and profits shall not be construed to mean that one of the principal purposes of the transaction is the distribution of the earnings and profits of either corporation, or both).

(4) Distribution Involving Gift or Compensation.—In the case of a distribution to which paragraph (1) applies, but which
   a. Results in a gift, see § 105-188 et seq. of the General Statutes, or
   b. Has the effect of the payment of compensation, see § 105-141 of the General Statutes.

(b) Basis of Property Acquired in Distributions.—If, by reason of subsection (a), gain or loss is not recognized with respect to the receipt of divested stock, then, under regulations prescribed pursuant to G. S. 105-262:

(1) If the divested stock is received by a shareholder without the surrender by such shareholder of stock in the distributing corporation, the basis of such divested stock and of the stock with respect to which it is distributed shall, in the distributee's hands, be determined by allocating the adjusted basis of the stock with respect to which the distribution was received between such stock and the divested stock received; or

(2) If the divested stock is received by a shareholder in exchange for stock in the distributing corporation, the basis of the divested stock shall, in the distributee's hands, be the same as the adjusted basis of the stock exchanged therefor.

(c) Allocation of Earnings and Profits.

(1) Allocation in Certain Corporate Separations.—In the case of a distribution or exchange under subsection (a) of stock in a controlled corporation, proper allocation with respect to the earnings and profits of the distributing corporation and the controlled corporation shall be made under regulations prescribed pursuant to G. S. 105-262.

(2) Definition of Controlled Corporation.—For the purposes of paragraph (1), the term "controlled corporation" means a corporation with respect to which at least eighty per cent (80%) of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock entitled to vote and at least eighty per cent (80%) of the total number of shares of all other classes of stock is owned by the distributing corporation.

(d) Definition of Divested Stock.—For the purposes of this section, the term "divested stock" means stock which is

(1) The subject of a judgment, decree, or other order of a court or of a commission or board authorized to enforce compliance in a suit or other proceeding brought by the United States or such a commission or board under the Sherman Act (26 Stat. 209, 15 U. S. C. sec. 1-7, as amended) and the Clayton Act (38 Stat. 730, 15 U. S. C. sec. 12-27, as amended), and

(2) Distributed by the distributing corporation pursuant to a judgment, decree, or order entered after June 1, 1958, in such suit or proceeding, if such judgment, decree, or order
   a. Directs the distributing corporation to divest itself of such stock,
   b. Specifies and itemizes the stock to be divested,
   c. Recites that such divestment is necessary or appropriate to effectuate the policies of the Sherman Act or the Clayton Act, or both, and
   d. Recites that nonrecognition of gain pursuant to § 1111 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 is required to reach an equitable judgment, decree, or order in such suit or proceeding. (1959, c. 1131.)

Editor's Note.—The act inserting this section provides that it shall apply to any stock distribution pursuant to antitrust laws, as referred to herein, which occurs on or after January 1, 1959.

§ 105-145. Exchanges of property.—(a) When property is exchanged for other property of like kind, the property received in exchange shall be considered as a conversion of assets from one form to another, from which no gain or loss shall be deemed to arise.

(b) (1) In the case of the organization of a corporation, the stock or securities received shall be considered to take the place of property transferred therefor, and no gain or loss shall be deemed to arise therefrom.

(2) No gain or loss shall be recognized when property is transferred to a corporation, the organization of which has been completed before such transfer, solely in exchange for stock or securities in such corporation if, immediately after such exchange, the person or persons making such transfer are in control of the corporation.

(c) (1) No gain or loss to a stockholder shall be recognized when a corporation, which is a party to a reorganization, in pursuance of the plan of reorganization, and in exchange solely for its own stock or securities, or without the transfer to it by or on account of its stockholders of any property, distributes to its stockholders stock or securities in one or more other corporations, each of which is also a party to the reorganization. No gain or loss to the holder of any security issued by a corporation shall be recognized when such corporation is a party to a reorganization and, in pursuance of the plan of reorganization and in exchange solely for securities issued by it, distributes to the holders of such securities stock or securities in one or more other corporations each of which is also a party to the reorganization.
(2) No gain or loss shall be recognized if a corporation a party to a reorganization exchanges property, in pursuance of the plan of reorganization, solely for stock or securities in another corporation a party to the reorganization.

(3) As used in this section, the term “reorganization” shall mean:
   a. A statutory merger or consolidation.
   b. The acquisition by one corporation, in exchange solely for all or a part of its voting stock, of stock of another corporation which the acquiring corporation controls immediately after such acquisition (whether or not it had control immediately before the acquisition).
   c. The acquisition by one corporation, in exchange solely for all or a part of its voting stock (or in exchange solely for all or a part of the voting stock of a corporation which controls the acquiring corporation), of substantially all the properties of another corporation, but in determining whether the exchange is solely for voting stock the assumption by the acquiring corporation of a liability of the other, or the fact that property acquired is subject to a liability, is disregarded.
   d. A transfer by a corporation of all or a part of its assets to another corporation if immediately after the transfer the transferor or one or more of its shareholders (including those who were shareholders immediately before the acquisition) or any combination thereof is in control of the corporation to which the assets are transferred; but only if, in pursuance of the plan, stock or securities of the corporation to which the assets are transferred are distributed to the shareholders tax-free or partially tax-free.
   e. A recapitalization.
   f. A mere change in identity, form, or place of organization, however effected.

(4) As used in this section, the term “a party to a reorganization” includes the corporation resulting from a reorganization and includes both corporations in the case of a reorganization resulting from the acquisition by one corporation of stock or properties of another, and the term “control” means the ownership of stock possessing at least eighty per cent (80%) of the total combined voting power of all classes of stock entitled to vote and at least eighty per cent (80%) of the total number of shares of all other classes of stock of the corporation.

(d) If a corporation distributes to a shareholder, with respect to its stock, or distributes to a security holder, in exchange for its securities, solely stock or securities of a corporation which it controls immediately before the distribution and if the distribution was not used principally as a device for the distribution of the earnings and profits of the distributing corporation or the controlled corporation or both, and as part of the distribution the distributing corporation distributes all of the stock and securities in the controlled corporation held by it immediately before the distribution or an amount of stock in the controlled corporation constituting control and if the distribution of the stock in the controlled corporation was not in pursuance of a plan having as one of its principal purposes the avoidance of income tax, then no gain or loss shall be recognized to, and no amount shall be includable in the income of, such shareholder or security holder on the receipt of such stock or securities.

(e) In administering this section and in interpreting the clause “property of like kind,” the Commissioner shall whenever applicable use as a guide the federal rules and regulations in the administration of § 1031 of the Federal Internal Revenue Code of 1954 to the extent that same are not in conflict with the provisions
§ 105-146. Inventory. — Whenever, in the opinion of the Commissioner of Revenue, it is necessary, in order clearly to determine the income of any taxpayer, inventories shall be taken by such taxpayer upon such basis as the Commissioner of Revenue may prescribe, conforming as nearly as may be to the best accounting practice in the trade or business and most clearly reflecting the income. (1939, c. 158, s. 321.)

§ 105-147. Deductions.—In computing net income there shall be allowed as deductions the following items:

(1) All the ordinary and necessary expenses paid during the income year in carrying on any trade or business, including:
   a. As to individuals, reasonable wages of employees for services rendered in producing such income.
   b. As to partnership, reasonable wages of employees and a reasonable allowance for copartners or members of a firm, for services actually rendered in producing such income, the amount of such salary allowance to be included in the personal return of the copartner receiving same.
   c. As to corporations, wages of employees and salaries of officers, if reasonable in amount, for services actually rendered in producing such income.
   d. As to taxpayers engaged in the business of farming, reasonable expenditures paid and reasonable indebtedness incurred during the income year for the purpose of soil or water conservation in respect of land used in farming, or for the prevention of erosion of land used in farming. The amount of such expenditures and indebtedness claimed as a deduction under this paragraph shall not exceed the amount of the deduction therefor claimed by the taxpayer upon his income tax return filed with the United States for such income year or the amount allowable therefor in accordance with the provisions of § 175 of the Federal Internal Revenue Code of 1954. No deduction shall be allowed in any income year on account of the depreciation, obsolescence, or amortization of any structure, improvement, or property any part of the cost of which has been claimed as an expense deductible under this subdivision.

(2) In the case of an individual, all the ordinary and necessary expenses paid or incurred during the income year for the production or collection of income, or for the management, conservation, or maintenance of property held for the production of income.

(3) All the ordinary and necessary expenses paid during the income year by any teacher, principal or superintendent of the public schools of the State for the purpose of attending summer school in any accredited college or university. Ordinary and necessary expenses shall be construed to include tuition, matriculation fees, registration fees, amounts... paid for books and necessary classroom supplies, subsistence and individual athletic supplies. The deduction authorized under this subdivision shall not exceed the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars ($250.00) for any one year.

(4) Rentals or other payments required to be made as a condition of the continued use or possession for the purpose of the trade of property to which the taxpayer has not taken or is not taking title, or in which he has no equity.

(5) All interest paid during the income year except interest paid or accrued in connection with the ownership of real or personal property from which income is derived but is not taxable under this article, and except interest paid by a subsidiary to a parent corporation as defined in G. S. 105-143.

(6) a. Taxes paid or accrued during income year except those taxes with respect to which a deduction is denied under paragraph b of this subdivision.

b. No deduction shall be allowed for the following taxes:
   1. Taxes on net income by whatever name called and excess profits taxes.
   2. Gift, inheritance, and estate taxes.
   3. Federal tax on undistributed earnings.
   4. Sales taxes, gasoline taxes, automobile license, and registration fees, unless incurred in the operation of a trade or business.
   5. Social security and unemployment taxes paid by an employee or self-employed person.
   6. That part of social security and unemployment taxes required to be deducted by the employer from the earnings of an employee.
   7. Taxes or assessments assessed for local benefit of a kind tending to increase the value of property assessed.
   8. Taxes paid or accrued in connection with the ownership of real or tangible personal property from which income is derived but is not taxable under this article.

(7) Dividends from stock issued by any corporation to the extent herein provided. As soon as may be practicable after the close of each calendar year, the Commissioner of Revenue shall determine from each corporate income tax return filed with him during such year, and due from the filing corporation during such year, the proportion of the entire net income or loss of the corporation allocable to this State under the provisions of G. S. 105-134, except as provided herein; if a corporation has a net taxable income in North Carolina and a net loss from all sources wherever located, or, if a corporation has a net loss in North Carolina and a net income from all sources wherever located, the Commissioner shall require the use of the allocation ratio determined under the provisions of subdivision or item (6) of G. S. 105-134. A taxpayer who is a stockholder in any such corporation shall be allowed to deduct from his gross income the same proportion of the dividends received by him from such corporation during his income year ending at or after the end of such calendar year. No deduction shall be allowed for any part of any dividend received by such taxpayer from any corporation which filed no income tax return with the Commissioner of Revenue during such calendar year. Dividends received by a taxpayer from stock in any insurance company of this State taxed under the provisions of § 105-228.5 shall be deductible from the gross income of such taxpayer, and a proportionate part of any dividends received from stock in any foreign insurance corporation shall be deductible, such part to be determined on the basis of the ratio of premiums reported for taxation in this State to total premiums collected both in and out of the State. Dividends received by a taxpayer from stock in any bank or trust company in this State taxed under the provisions of article 8C of subchapter I of this chapter shall be deductible. A taxpayer shall be allowed to deduct such proportionate part of dividends received by him from a North Carolina regulated investment company, as defined in § 105-138 as represents and corresponds to income received by such regulated investment company which would not be taxed by this State if received directly by the North Carolina corporation or resident.

Where a taxpayer is the beneficiary of a distributable trust and where dividend income is received by the trust and paid by the trustee to the beneficiary, the dividends or the portion of such dividends which would otherwise be deductible under the provisions of this section shall be deductible to the beneficiary if such dividends are distributed or distributable to the beneficiary during the taxable year and are included in the gross income of the beneficiary except that the deduction of the same dividends may not be claimed by both the fiduciary and the beneficiary. The amount of the deduction by the beneficiary shall be that portion of his income received from the trust as the deductible portion of dividends received as income by the trust bears to the net income of the trust from all sources taxable under this article. Provided, in no case may the deduction claimed by the beneficiary exceed the income distributed or distributable to such beneficiary.

No deduction of dividends the income from which is separately allocated under the provisions of § 105-134 shall be made by a corporation in computing its net apportionable income. The deductible portion of such dividends shall be subtracted from the dividend income prior to the allocation of the latter either within or without this State as provided in subdivision (2) of § 105-134.

(8) Interest received by a parent corporation on indebtedness owed to it by a subsidiary corporation doing business in North Carolina, which, in the determination of the taxable net income of such subsidiary corporation was not allowed as a deduction from gross income under the provisions of § 105-143.

(9) Losses of such nature as designated below:

a. Losses of capital or property used in trade or business actually sustained during the income year except that: No deduction shall be allowed for losses arising from personal loans, endorsements or other transactions of a personal nature not entered into for profit; and losses of such character as specified in paragraph c below shall be deductible only to the extent therein provided.

b. Losses of property not connected with a trade or business sustained in the income year if arising from fire, storm, shipwreck or other casualties or theft to the extent such losses are not compensated for by insurance or otherwise.

c. Losses incurred in the income year from the sale of corporate shares or bonds of corporations or governments, or from transactions in commodity futures contracts. Provided, that in the case of any loss claimed to have been sustained from any sale or other disposition of shares of stock or securities, other than transactions in commodity futures contracts, where it appears that, within a period beginning thirty days before the date of such sale or disposition and ending thirty days after such date, the taxpayer has acquired (by purchase or by an exchange on which the entire amount of gain or loss was recognized by law) or has entered into a contract or option so to acquire substantially identical stock or securities then no deduction for the loss shall be allowed unless the taxpayer is a dealer in stocks or securities and the loss is sustained in a transaction made in the ordinary course of its business; if the property consists of stock or securities the acquisition of which (on the contract or option to acquire which) resulted in the nondeductibility under this section of the loss from the sale or other disposition of substantially identical stock or securities, then the basis shall be the basis of the stock or securities sold or disposed of, increased or decreased, as the case may be, by the difference, if any, between the price at which the stock was acquired and the price at which such substantially identical stock or securities were sold or otherwise disposed of; if the amount of stock or securities acquired (or covered by the contract or option to acquire) is greater than the amount of stock or securities sold or otherwise disposed of, then the provisions herein with respect to the adjustment of the basis of the stock or securities acquired (or covered by the contract or option to acquire) shall not apply to that portion of the amount of stock or securities acquired (or covered by the contract or option to acquire) which shall be in excess of the amount of the stock or securities sold; if the amount of the stock or securities acquired (or covered by the contract or option to acquire) is less than the amount of stock or securities sold or otherwise disposed of, then the provisions hereof with respect to disallowance of loss claimed to have been sustained from the sale or other disposition of stock or securities shall not apply to the portion of the amount thereof in excess of the amount of the stock or securities acquired (or covered by the contract or option to acquire).

d. Losses in the nature of net economic losses sustained in any or all of the five preceding income years arising from business transactions or to capital or property as specified in a and b above subject to the following limitations:

1. The purpose in allowing the deduction of net economic loss of a prior year or years is that of granting some measure of relief to taxpayers who have incurred economic misfortune or who are otherwise materially affected by strict adherence to the annual accounting rule in the determination of taxable income, and the deduction herein specified does not authorize the carrying forward of any particular items or category of loss except to the extent that such loss or losses shall result in the impairment of the net economic situation of the taxpayer such as to result in a net economic loss as hereinafter defined.

2. The net economic loss for any year shall mean the amount by which allowable deductions for the year other than personal exemptions, nonbusiness deductions and prior year losses shall exceed income from all sources in the year including any income not taxable under this article.

3. Any net economic loss of a prior year or years brought forward and claimed as a deduction in any income year may be deducted from taxable income of the year only to the extent that such carry-over loss from the prior year or years shall exceed any income not taxable under this article received in the same year in which the deduction is claimed, except that in the case of taxpayers required to apportion to North Carolina their net apportionable income, as defined in this article, only such proportionate part of the net economic loss of a prior year shall be deductible from the income taxable in this State as would be determined by the use of the apportionment ratio computed under the provisions of G. S. 105-134 or of subsection (c) of G. S. 105-142, as the case may be, for the year of such loss.

4. A net economic loss carried forward from any year shall first be applied to, or offset by, any income taxable or nontaxable of the next succeeding year before any portion of such loss may be carried forward to a succeeding year. If there is any income taxable or nontaxable in a succeeding year not otherwise offset only the balance of any carry-over loss may be carried forward to a subsequent year.

5. No loss shall either directly or indirectly be carried forward more than five years.

(10) Debts ascertained to be worthless and actually charged off within the income year, if connected with business and, if the amount has previously been included in gross income in a return under this article; or, in the discretion of the Commissioner, a reasonable addition to a reserve for bad debts.

(11) a. Amounts expended by an individual during the year for medical care for himself, herself, his or her qualifying spouse and his or her dependents, to the extent that the total of such expenses actually paid in the income year and not compensated for by insurance or otherwise shall exceed five per cent (5%) of his or her adjusted gross income; provided, that the total allowable deduction in any taxable year shall not exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000.00).

b. For the purpose of this subdivision:
1. The term “medical care” means amounts paid for the diagnosis, care, mitigation, treatment, or prevention of disease, or for the purpose of affecting any structure or function of the body; for transportation primarily for and essential to medical care; and for insurance against illness or accident other than insurance against loss of earnings.
2. The term “qualifying spouse” means a spouse who has not claimed a two thousand dollar ($2,000.00) personal exemption.
3. The term “dependents” means those individuals qualifying as dependents under the provisions of subdivision (5) of subsection (a) of G. S. 105-149.

(12) A reasonable allowance for depreciation and obsolescence of property used in the trade or business, which allowance shall be measured by the estimated life of such property; and in the case of mines, oil and gas wells, other natural deposits and timber, a reasonable allowance for depletion.
The cost of property acquired on or since January 1, 1921, plus the cost of additions and improvements, shall be the basis for determining the amount of the allowance for depreciation and obsolescence. If the property was acquired prior to January 1, 1921, the book value of the property as of that date shall be the basis for determining the amount of the allowance for depreciation and obsolescence. Notwithstanding the provisions of the two preceding sentences, the basis for determining the amount of the allowance for depreciation and obsolescence shall be the book value of the property in all cases in which the federal government uses the book value to determine the deduction allowed by it for depreciation or obsolescence under the provisions of § 167 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

For any income years ending after December 31, 1953, the amount of the deduction for depreciation and obsolescence shall be computed by the same method used by the taxpayer in computing the income tax due from the taxpayer to the United States for such income year if such method is pursuant to the provisions of § 167 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. If such taxpayer files no income tax return for such income year with the United States under the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 or files such a return but no deduction is claimed therein for depreciation or obsolescence or the deduction claimed therein for depreciation or obsolescence is not computed pursuant to § 167 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, a reasonable allowance for depreciation and obsolescence shall be determined in accordance with regulations to be established by the Commissioner of Revenue or, in the absence of such regulation, pursuant to the straight line method.

In determining a reasonable allowance for depletion of mines, oil and gas wells, and other natural deposits the cost of development not otherwise deducted will be allowed as depletion, and in the case of leases, the deduction allowed may be equitably apportioned between the lessor and the lessee.

The basis for determining the allowance for depletion shall be the book value of the property in all cases in which the federal government uses the book value to determine the deduction allowed by it for depletion under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, the allowances for depletion under this section in the case of certain mines and other natural deposits listed below shall be a certain per centum of the gross income from the property during the taxable year, as specified in the schedule below for the mines and natural deposits therein listed, excluding from such gross income an amount equal to any rents or royalties paid or incurred by the taxpayer in respect to the property. Such allowance shall not exceed 50 per centum of the net income of the taxpayer (computed without allowance for depletion) from the property, except that in no case shall the depletion allowance be less than it would be if computed without reference to this paragraph. The schedule is as follows:

a. In the case of coal, asbestos, brucite, dolomite, magnesite, perlite wollastonite, calcium carbonates, and magnesium carbonates, 10 per centum;

b. In the case of metal mines, aplite, bauxite, fluor spar, flake graphite, vermiculite, beryl, garnet, feldspar, mica, talc (including pyrophyllite), lepidolite, spodumene, barite, ball clay, sagger clay, china clay, phosphate rock, rock asphalt, trona, bentonite, gilsonite, thenardite, borax, fuller’s earth, tripili, refractory and fire clay, quartzite, diatomaceous earth, metallurgical grade limestone, chemical grade limestone, potash, monazite, and other radioactive minerals, 15 per centum; and

c. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, in the case of oil and gas wells the allowance for depletion under this section shall be 27½ per centum of the gross income from the property during the taxable year, excluding from such gross income an amount equal to any rents or royalties paid or incurred by the taxpayer in respect of the property.

Such allowance shall not exceed 50 per centum of the net income of the taxpayer (computed without allowance for depletion) from the property, except that in no case shall the depletion allowance under this section be less than it would be if computed without reference to this paragraph. Federal rules and regulations shall be applicable in interpreting and applying per centum depletion allowances in accordance with the schedule set out above. Percentage depletion shall not be allowed for any minerals which are used, or sold for use as riprap, ballast, road material, rubble concrete, aggregates, building or construction material, or for similar purposes.

(13) In lieu of any depreciation allowance pursuant to this section, at the option of the taxpayer, an allowance with respect to the amortization of the cost of any sewage or waste treatment plant, including waste lagoons, and pollution abatement equipment purchased or constructed and installed which reduces the amount of water pollution resulting from the discharge of sewage and industrial wastes or other polluting materials or substances into streams, lakes, or rivers, based on a period of 60 months. The deduction provided for in this subdivision shall be allowed by the Commissioner only upon condition that the person, firm, or corporation, claiming such allowance shall furnish to the Commissioner a certificate from the State Stream Sanitation Committee certifying that said Committee has found as a fact that the waste treatment plant or pollution abatement equipment purchased or constructed and installed as above described has actually been constructed and installed and that such plant or equipment complies with the requirements of said Committee with respect to such plants or equipment, that such plant or equipment is being effectively operated in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in the permit, certificate of approval, or other document of approval issued by the State Stream Sanitation Committee, and that the primary purpose thereof is to reduce water pollution resulting from the discharge of sewage and waste and not merely incidental to other purposes and functions. The deduction herein provided for shall also be allowed as to plants or equipment constructed or installed before January 1, 1955, but only with respect to the undepreciated value of such plants or equipment.

(14) An allowance with respect to the amortization of the cost of any emergency facility, as such facility is defined in § 168 of the Federal Internal Revenue Code of 1954, based on a period of 60 months, and an allowance with respect to the amortization of the cost of a grain storage facility, as such facility is defined in § 169 of the Federal Internal Revenue Code of 1954, based on a period of 60 months. The amount of such allowance for the amortization of the cost of any such facility shall not exceed the amount of the allowance claimed therefor by the taxpayer in the taxpayer’s income tax return filed with the United States for such income year or the amount allowable therefor pursuant to the provisions of § 168 or § 169 of the Federal Internal Revenue Code of 1954. This paragraph shall not relate to the determination of the liability of any taxpayer for income tax due to the State of North Carolina for any income year ending on or prior to December 31, 1954, nor shall it affect in any way the validity of any assessment for income taxes due for any such year to the State of North Carolina heretofore made by the Commissioner of Revenue or his authorized representative, or the liability of any taxpayer for the payment of any tax, interest, or penalty so assessed, and shall apply only to construction completed and/or assets acquired on or subsequent to January 1, 1955. Any deduction for the amortization of any such facility claimed and allowed pursuant to this subdivision shall be in lieu of any deduction for the depreciation or obsolescence of such facility which would otherwise be allowed pursuant to the provisions of subdivision (12) of this section. Provided, that the provisions of this subdivision shall apply to any corporation engaged in the business of operating a railroad, express service, telephone or telegraph business, or other form of public service, when such company is required by the Interstate Commerce Commissioner, the Federal Communications Commission or any successor federal regulatory agency to keep records according to its standard classification of accounting or other prescribed accounting system only with respect to property acquired on or subsequent to, January 1, 1957.

(15) Contributions or gifts made by individuals, firms, partnerships and corporations within the income year to corporations, trusts, community chests, funds, foundations or associations organized, and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, literary, scientific, or educational purposes or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private stockholder or individual, or contributions or gifts made by individuals, firms, partnerships and corporations within the income tax year to posts or organizations of war veterans, or auxiliary units or societies of any such posts or organizations, if such posts, organizations, units, or societies are organized in the United States or any of its possessions, and if no part of their net earnings inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual, or the organization known as Alcoholics Anonymous or any local chapter thereof: Provided, that in the case of such contributions or gifts by corporations, the amount allowed as a deduction hereunder shall be limited to an amount not in excess of five per centum (5%) of the corporation's net income as computed without the benefit of this subdivision or subdivision (16) of this section; and, provided further, that contributions made to North Carolina donees by corporations allocating a part of their total net income outside this State shall not be allowed under this subdivision, but shall be allowed under subdivision (18) c of this section; and, provided, that in the case of such contributions or gifts by partnerships such amounts shall be allocated to each partner on the basis of the ratio used for determining each partner's share of the distributive gain or loss of the partnership, and shall be claimed to the extent allowable on each partner's individual return; and, provided further, that in the case of such contributions or gifts by individuals, the amount allowed as a deduction shall be limited to an amount not in excess of fifteen per centum (15%) of the individual's adjusted gross income.

(16) Contributions by persons and corporations to the State of North Carolina, any of its institutions, instrumentalities, or agencies, any county of this State, its institutions, instrumentalities, or agencies, any municipality of this State, its institutions, instrumentalities, or agencies, and contributions or gifts by persons or corporations to educational institutions located within North Carolina, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private stockholder or individual.

(17) Amounts actually expended by an individual, taxable under this article, in maintaining one or more relatives of the taxpayer, dependent upon the taxpayer for their chief support, in an institution for the care of mental or physical defectives irrespective of whether such dependent relatives be above or below the age of eighteen: Provided, that the deduction authorized in this subdivision shall apply only to actual expenditures in excess of the amounts allowed as personal exemption for such dependents under the provisions of subdivision (5) of subsection (a) of § 105-149, and the maximum amount that may be deducted by an individual under the authorization herein stated shall not exceed eight hundred dollars ($800.00). Provided further, that any excess of such actual expenditures over the personal exemption for such dependents plus eight hundred dollars ($800.00) may be construed as medical expenses and may be deducted subject to the provisions of subdivision (11) of this section.

a. In the case of a nonresident individual, firm or partnership, the deductions allowed in this section (with the exception of deductions allowed by subdivisions (15) and (16) of this section) shall be allowed only if and to the extent that they are connected with income arising from sources within the State; and the proper apportionment and allocation of the deductions with respect to sources of income within and without the State shall be determined under rules and regulations prescribed by the Commissioner of Revenue.

b. In the case of a nonresident individual, firm or partnership, deductions as provided for and as limited by subdivisions (15) and (16) of this section shall be allowed only if the donees shall have an office in this State and be actively engaged in this State in performing the functions for which the said donees were organized.

c. Corporations allocating a part of their total net income outside North Carolina under the provisions of G. S. 105-134 shall deduct from total income allocable to North Carolina contributions made to North Carolina donees qualified under subdivisions (15) and (16) of this section or made through North Carolina offices or branches of other donees qualified under the above-mentioned subdivisions of this section; provided, such deductions for contributions made to North Carolina donees qualified under subdivision (15) of this section shall be limited in amount to five per cent (5%) of the total income allocated to North Carolina as computed without the benefit of this deduction for contributions.

(19) In computing net income no deduction shall be allowed under this section for "ordinary and necessary expenses"; rental expense, interest expenses, taxes or contributions being otherwise deductible under this section, if (i) the same are not actually paid within the taxable year or within the time fixed by statute for filing the taxpayer's return; and (ii) if, by reason of the method of accounting of the person or corporation to whom the payment is to be made, the amount thereof is not, unless actually paid, includable in the gross income of such person or corporation for the taxable year in which or with which the taxable year of the taxpayer ends. In the case of taxpayers who keep their accounts and report for income tax purposes on a cash basis, items of expenditure of such nature as specified above in this subdivision shall not be allowed as a deduction unless such were actually paid within the income year for which a report is made.

(20) Reasonable amounts paid by employers within the income year to trusts which qualify for exemption under subdivision (10) of § 105-138; provided, that amounts which are deductible for federal income tax purposes shall be prima facie allowable as deductions hereunder; provided further, that, in the case of taxpayers on the accrual basis, they shall be deemed to have made payments on the last day of the year of accrual if actual payments are made within the time fixed by statute for filing the taxpayer's return. This subdivision shall be effective from and after January first, one thousand nine hundred and forty-two.

(21) Payments made by a divorced or estranged spouse to his or her spouse who is living separate and apart from the spouse making such payment for the separate support and maintenance of such spouse, except that only such amounts may be deducted under this subdivision as are includable in the gross income of the spouse receiving such payments under the provisions of G. S. 105-141.2. Provided, that any individual who reports his income to the State of North Carolina on the accrual basis may claim the deduction authorized by this subdivision if the payments claimed as a deduction are actually made within the time fixed by statute for filing the taxpayer's return.

(22) Individual income taxpayers whose income is reportable to the State for income tax purposes, may, at their option, under such rules and regulations as the Commissioner of Revenue may prescribe, elect to claim a standard deduction equal to ten per cent (10%) of their adjusted gross income or five hundred dollars ($500.00), whichever is the lesser, in lieu of all deductions other than those incurred in the de-riving of the income and other than personal exemptions and dependency deductions provided that where both spouses have income taxable in this State and one spouse elects to take credit for the standard deduc-tion provided herein, the other spouse must also take such standard deduction. For the purpose of this subdivision, the phrase "adjusted gross income" shall mean adjusted gross income as defined in G. S.
105-141.3 of this article.

Provided, further, that the provisions of this subdivision shall not apply to taxpayers who are not residents of this State.

(23) As to employers, the amount of the salary or other compensation of an employee which is paid for a period of not more than twenty-four months after the employee's death to his estate, widow, or heirs provided such payment is made in recognition of services rendered by the employee prior to his death and is reasonable in amount.

Editor's Note.—The first 1943 amendment added the second exception in subdivision (5), and made changes in subdivision (8). It also inserted subdivision (8), made changes in subdivision (9), and rewrote subdivision (15). The second 1943 amendment rewrote subdivision (15).

The first 1945 amendment rewrote subdivision (9), added subdivisions (11) and (20) and added the second sentence of subdivision (19). The second 1945 amendment added a sentence of subdivision (7).

The first 1947 amendment added subdivisions (2) and (3), changed subdivisions (10) and (11) and substituted "forty-two" for "forty-four" at the end of subdivision (20). The second 1947 amendment inserted in subdivision (15) the proviso as to contributions to organizations of war veterans, etc.

The 1949 amendment added subdivision (21) and made other changes.

The first 1951 amendment rewrote the last sentence of subdivision (3) and made changes in subdivision (21). The second 1951 amendment inserted a former sentence in subdivision (7).

The first 1953 amendment added the last paragraph to subdivision (12). The second 1953 amendment substituted "fifteen (15%)" in lieu of "ten (10%)" near the end of subdivision (15) and added subdivision (29).

The first 1955 amendment inserted subdivision (13). The second 1955 amendment changed subdivision (12). The third 1955 amendment added paragraph d of subdivision (1) and inserted subdivision (14). The fourth 1955 amendment changed a former subsection, and the fifth 1955 amendment rewrote subdivision (7).

The 1957 amendment added the second and third paragraphs of subdivision (7), and inserted in the first paragraph the next to last sentence. The amendment rewrote paragraph c of subdivision (9) and made changes in paragraph d. It increased the amount at the end of present paragraph a of subdivision (11) from $2,500 to $5,000, and deleted from subdivision (12) the former proviso that it should "not apply to any corporation the net income of which is required to be computed under the provisions of § 105-136." It also deleted the same proviso from the end of subdivision (14) and added the proviso thereto. The amendment changed subdivision (17), rewrote the first part of subdivision (19), substituted "the time fixed by statute for filing the taxpayer's return" for "sixty days after the close of such year" in subdivision (20), rewrote subdivisions (21) and (22) and added subdivision (23).

The 1959 amendment rewrote the first paragraph of subdivision (7) and substituted "net" for "gross" in the second sentence of the second paragraph. It also added the last sentence to the last paragraph of subdivision (12).

The first 1961 amendment struck out the colon after "individual" and before the first proviso in subdivision (15), inserted a comma in lieu thereof, and added the following: "or the organization known as Alcoholics Anonymous or any local chapter thereof." Section 2 of the amendatory act made it applicable to all gifts or contributions made to Alcoholics Anonymous or any local chapter thereof on or after January 1, 1961.

The second 1961 amendment, effective as of Jan. 1, 1961, rewrote subdivision (18).

The 1963 amendment, effective as to income years beginning on and after Jan. 1, 1963, rewrote the first sentence of subdivision (5) and deleted the second sentence thereof; rewrote subdivision (6); added the third sentence to the second paragraph of subdivision (7); substituted "personal exemptions, nonbusiness deductions and prior year losses" for "contributions, personal exemptions, prior year losses, taxes on property held for personal use, and interest on debts incurred for personal rather than business purposes" in subparagraph 2, deleted former subparagraph 5, and redesignated subparagraph 6 as subparagraph 5 in paragraph d of subdivision (9); rewrote subdivision (11); substituted the present four provisos at the end of subdivision (15) for the former two provisos; added the provisions as to contributions to educational institutions at the end of subdivision (16); rewrote paragraph c of subdivision (18), making the deduction mandatory and deductible from total, instead of net, income allocable to North Carolina; deleted the former second sentence of subdivision (21) and also "further" near the beginning of the present second sentence of that subdivision; and deleted the former second proviso at the end of the first sentence of subdivision (22), defining "adjusted gross income" and added the second sentence thereto.

Constitutionality of subdivision (18).—Subdivision (18) of this section limiting the right of a nonresident taxpayer, in com-putting his net income taxable by this State, to claim only those deductions which are related to his business in this State, is valid and does not constitute an unlawful discrimination in that residents of this State are permitted personal deductions not allowed to the nonresident, since only the income of the nonresident earned within this State is subject to income taxes here. Stiles v. Currie, 254 N. C. 197, 118 S. E. (2d) 428 (1961).

Income from Business Situated in Another State.—In order for a resident taxpayer to be entitled to deduct income derived from a business situated in another state from his income taxable by this State, the taxpayer must show that he has a business or investment in such other state, that the income therefrom is taxable in that state, and that the questioned income is derived from such business or investment. Sabine v. Gill, 229 N. C. 599, 51 S. E. (2d) 1 (1948).

What are “ordinary and necessary” expenses necessarily vary in individual cases, and depend upon the nature of a particular business, its size, its location, its mode of operations, and to some extent the business customs and practices prevailing at the time and in the locality or area where the taxpayer operates. Therefore, in order to take care of the varying situations as they arise, this section should be left flexible in form for application in individual cases according to the practical meaning of the statutory language. Wiscassett Mills Co. v. Shaw, 235 N. C. 14, 68 S. E. (2d) 816 (1952).

In order for an item of expense to be deductible it must be both an “ordinary” expense and a “necessary” expense, since these words are used conjunctively. Also of controlling significance is this phrase appearing in the section: “in carrying on any trade or business.” Here, the connotation is that the expense in order to be deductible must relate to the cost of “carrying on” the business, and carrying on a business in plain language means operating the business. Therefore, it would seem that an expense in order to be deductible within the purview of this section not only must be an “ordinary and necessary” business expense, but as a general rule it must relate in a substantial way to the costs of current operations,—to the cost of producing the gross income from which the deduction is sought. Wiscassett Mills Co. v. Shaw, 235 N. C. 14, 68 S. E. (2d) 816 (1952).

Capital Expenditures Not Deductible.—This section does not sanction the deduction of an expenditure the underlying purpose and predominant effect of which are to provide permanent improvements or betterments reasonably calculated to enhance the value of the taxpayer’s business or property for a period substantially beyond the year in which the outlay is made. Such an outlay is a capital expenditure, as distinguished from an item of normal operating business expense, and it is not deductible for income tax purposes. Wiscassett Mills Co. v. Shaw, 235 N. C. 14, 68 S. E. (2d) 861 (1952).

Ordinarily, the expense of installing sewers is treated as a capital expenditure and is not deductible under this section. And the fact that the taxpayer does not own the property on which the mains were laid and did not by contractual arrangement with the city acquire some vested property rights therein in return for the sums paid to the city does not have the effect of transforming these capital expenditures into ordinary and necessary business expenses to be written off entirely within the year. Wiscassett Mills Co. v. Shaw, 235 N. C. 14, 68 S. E. (2d) 816 (1952).

Subdivision (4) was intended to provide for the deduction only of “rentals or other payments” as and when the items accrue from year to year, and in no event may it be interpreted as authorizing the deduction in one year of a prepayment of rentals or other like charges for a period of years in advance. Wiscassett Mills Co. v. Shaw, 235 N. C. 14, 68 S. E. (2d) 816 (1952).

Advance Rentals, Bonuses, etc., to Be Spread Over Life of Lease.—Rentals required to be paid for the use or possession of business property, not owned by the taxpayer and in which he has no equity, may usually be deducted in computing income tax. However, where an expenditure made by a lessee is in the nature of an investment in property used in his trade or business, or is the cost, or part of the cost, of the lease itself, it cannot be deducted in toto from the lessee’s taxable income as an expense for the year in which it occurred, but must be recovered in annual allowances. Thus, advances, rentals and bonuses, the price paid for an assignment of a lease, and other similar expenditures by a lessee are not deductible as ordinary and necessary business expenses in the year of payment, but are required to be spread over the entire life of the lease. Wiscassett Mills Co. v. Shaw, 235 N. C. 14, 68 S. E. (2d) 816 (1952).

“Amount” of Gift.—Subdivision (15) contains no technical language. Thus, it must be interpreted in accordance with the ordinary use and common understanding of the words used. According to ordinary use, the "amount" of a gift and the value of a gift have the same meaning and effect. It follows, then, that when a contribution is made in property rather than in cash, the amount of the gift, and the amount of the deduction, is the fair market value of the property at the time of the gift. Wescassett Mills Co. v. Shaw, 235 N. C. 14, 68 S. E. (2d) 816 (1952).

Determination of Deduction of Loss for Prior Years.—Subdivision (9) d requires the inclusion of nontaxable income in arriving at an allowable deduction for carry-over purposes to be deducted from taxable income in a succeeding year. Dayton Rubber Co. v. Shaw, 244 N. C. 170, 92 S. E. (2d) 799 (1956), decided prior to the 1963 amendment.

The 1957 amendment to subdivision (9) d enlarges the time for a loss carry-over and permits a taxpayer, in computing its income tax for the year 1957, to bring forward losses for the prior five years as a credit against income. Royle & Pilkington Co. v. Currie, 250 N. C. 726, 110 S. E. (2d) 339 (1959), decided prior to the 1963 amendment.

Deduction by Successor Corporation of Loss Sustained by Submerged Corporation.—Whether a successor corporation is entitled to deduct from its gross income an economic loss sustained by another corporation depends upon whether the successor corporation is for practical purposes the same and is engaged in continuing the business of the kind and character conducted by the corporation whose loss is claimed as a deduction. Good Will Distributors (Northern), Inc. v. Shaw, 247 N. C. 157, 100 S. E. (2d) 334 (1957); Good Will Distributors, Inc. v. Currie, 251 N. C. 120, 110 S. E. (2d) 880 (1959).

Where a corporation surviving a merger seeks to establish its right to deduct from its gross income an economic loss of one of its submerged corporations for a prior year as a carry-over under this section, and it appears from the facts alleged that the submerged corporation had a profit in the months of the fiscal year prior to the merger and that it had deducted its prior economic loss from such net income, leaving a balance on the loss side, and further, that as far as the facts alleged disclosed, to allow the surviving corporation to make such deduction would result in reducing the surviving corporation's income tax liability which had accrued on the date of the merger, such deduction by the surviving corporation was disallowed. Good Will Distributors (Northern), Inc. v. Shaw, 247 N. C. 157, 100 S. E. (2d) 334 (1957).

The enactment of loss carry-over legislation by the General Assembly was purely a matter of grace. The provision should not be construed to give a "windfall" to a taxpayer who happens to have merged with other corporations. Its purpose is not to give a merged taxpayer a tax advantage over others who have not merged. Good Will Distributors, Inc. v. Currie, 251 N. C. 120, 110 S. E. (2d) 880 (1959).

Deduction for Depletion Not Required to Be on Basis of Cost.—Deduction on basis of percentage of cost is applicable to depreciation and not to depletion. A reasonable allowance is provided for depletion. There is no requirement it should be on the basis of cost. In re Virginia-Carolina Chemical Corp., 248 N. C. 531, 103 S. E. (2d) 823 (1958).

Prior to the 1953 amendment to this section, the section permitted a reasonable allowance for depletion without requiring that it should be calculated on percentage of cost; the 1953 amendment made mandatory that which was permissible before. In re Virginia-Carolina Chemical Corp., 248 N. C. 531, 103 S. E. (2d) 823 (1958).

Regulation in Respect to Carry-Over Losses Held to Comply with Subdivision (9) d. —The Supreme Court found no conflict between the Income Tax Regulation No. 2, promulgated on 10 February, 1944, by the Commissioner of Revenue and followed by the Department of Revenue in its administrative practice with respect to carry-over losses, and the statutory provisions with respect thereto. Dayton Rubber Co. v. Shaw, 244 N. C. 170, 92 S. E. (2d) 799 (1956).

Taxes Accruing Prior to Effective Date of Section Not Deductible.—See Wescassett Mills Co. v. Shaw, 235 N. C. 14, 68 S. E. (2d) 816 (1952).

Payments Made to Deceased Employee's Estate, Widow or Heirs.—Prior to the 1957 amendment of subsection (23) of this section, payments by an employer in discharge of its legal obligations to compensate its employee were deductible. Boylan-Pearce, Inc. v. Johnson, 257 N. C. 582, 126 S. E. (2d) 492 (1962).

There appears to be a statutory correlation between § 105-147 (23) and the last paragraph of § 105-141 (a). Boylan-Pearce, Inc. v. Johnson, 257 N. C. 582, 126 S. E. (2d) 492 (1962).

The contention that payments by an employer to the widow of an employee are allowable as deductions only when a legal obligation to make such payments exists would seem to render meaningless the 1957 amendment of subsection (23) of this section. Boylan-Pearce, Inc. v. Johnson, 257 N. C. 582, 126 S. E. (2d) 492 (1962).

The 1957 amendment of subsection (23) of this section makes no reference to a previous or pre-existing "contract, resolution of the board of directors, or custom," of the corporation with respect to payments by an employer to a deceased employee's estate, widow or heirs. Boylan-Pearce, Inc. v. Johnson, 257 N. C. 582, 126 S. E. (2d) 492 (1962).

Payments by an employer to the widow of a deceased executive were authorized and allowable as deductions under subdivision (23) of this section in computing employer's net income, and were not taxable as gifts under § 105-188, and no legal significance was attached to the fact that there was no pre-existing plan or policy, or to the fact that the resolution authorizing the payments was not adopted until some thirteen months after the death of the executive, or to the fact that the employer was a so-called family corporation. Boylan-Pearce, Inc. v. Johnson, 257 N. C. 582, 126 S. E. (2d) 492 (1962).

§ 105-148. Items not deductible.—In computing net income no deduction shall in any case be allowed in respect of:

1. Personal, living, or family expenses.
2. Any amount paid out for new buildings or for permanent improvements or betterments, made to increase the value of any property or estate.
3. Premiums paid on any life insurance policy except to the extent that such payments made by the employer are on group life insurance plans for the benefit of the employees, which plans have been approved by the Commissioner of Insurance and which premiums constitute ordinary and necessary business expense.
4. Sick pay.
5. Child care payments.
6. Contributions to individuals.
7. Commuting expenses.
8. Contributions to any governmental unit, instrumentality, agency or institution other than those contributions allowable as deductions in subdivisions (15) and (16) of G. S. 105-147. (1939, c. 158, s. 323; 1941, c. 50, s. 5; 1943, c. 400, s. 4; 1959, c. 1259, s. 4; 1963, c. 1169, s. 2.)

Editor's Note. — The 1941 amendment added a provision relating to contributions by partnerships. This provision and one relating to contributions or gifts by corporations were omitted by the 1943 amendment.

The 1959 amendment added the exception clause to subdivision (3).

§ 105-149. Exemptions.—(a) There shall be deducted from the net income the following exemptions:

1. In the case of a single individual, a personal exemption of one thousand dollars ($1,000.00).
2. In the case of a married man with a wife living with him, two thousand dollars ($2,000.00). In the case of an individual who qualifies as "head of household" as defined in subdivision (3) of G. S. 105-132, two thousand dollars ($2,000.00); provided that the "head of household" exemption shall not be allowable to a married woman living with her husband except as provided in subsection (c) (2) of G. S. 105-149. Provided, that when a husband living with his wife has a gross income of less than two thousand dollars ($2,000.00), whether taxable under this article or not, and when the wife actually furnishes more than one-half the support for herself and her husband, the hus-
(3) A married woman having a separate and independent income, one thousand dollars ($1,000.00).

(4) In the case of a widow or widower having minor child or children, natural or adopted, two thousand dollars ($2,000.00).

(5) Three hundred dollars ($300.00) for each dependent (as defined below) whose gross income for the calendar year in which the taxable year of the taxpayer begins is less than one thousand dollars ($1,000.00), or who is a child of the taxpayer either under 19 years of age or a student regularly enrolled for full-time study in a school, college, or other institution of learning. For the purpose of the preceding sentence, the term "child" means an individual who is a son or daughter (natural or adopted), or a stepson or stepdaughter of the taxpayer.

For the purposes of this subsection, the term "dependent" means any of the following individuals over half of whose support, for the calendar year in which the taxable year of the taxpayer begins, was received from the taxpayer:

a. A son or daughter (or a descendant of either), a stepson, or stepdaughter, a brother or sister (including a brother or sister of the half blood), a stepbrother, stepsister, father or mother (or an ancestor of either), a stepfather, a stepmother, a son or daughter of a brother or sister, a brother or sister of the father or mother, a son-in-law, a daughter-in-law, a father-in-law, a mother-in-law, a brother-in-law, or a sister-in-law of the taxpayer;

b. An individual who was a member of the same household as the taxpayer;

c. A former member of the same household as the taxpayer or an individual who otherwise qualifies as a dependent of the taxpayer, who for the taxable year of such taxpayer receives institutional care required by reason of a physical or mental disability.

The exemption provided in this subdivision for children of taxpayers shall be allowed only to the person entitled to the two thousand dollar ($2,000.00) exemption provided in subdivision (2) of this subsection except, however, that where husband and wife are divorced and have children of their marriage for which they would otherwise be entitled to an exemption hereunder, the parent furnishing the chief support of his (or her) child during the income year shall be entitled to said exemption, irrespective of whether said parent has custody of said child or children or is head of the household during said year.

Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to allow one spouse to claim a three hundred dollar ($300.00) exemption for the other spouse.

(6) In the case of a fiduciary filing a return for that part of the net income of estates or trusts which has not become distributable during the income year, one thousand dollars ($1,000.00). Provided, that in cases where two or more trusts have been established for the benefit of the same individual or beneficiaries the exemption allowed each of such trusts shall be such amount as would be determined by dividing one section (a) and added a former second sentence of subdivision (5), relating to exceptions for children of taxpayers, which was rewritten by the 1963 amendment.

The 1943 amendment made changes in the second paragraph of subdivision (6) of subsection (a).

The 1945 amendment made changes in subsection (5) of subdivision (a).

It also added the proviso to the first paragraph of subdivision (6) and added subdivision (7).

The 1947 amendment rewrote subsection
(b).

The first 1949 amendment increased the amount at the beginning of subdivision
(5) of subsection (a) from two hundred to three hundred dollars, and the second 1949 amendment added subdivision (8).

The 1951 amendment added the provisos to subdivision (2) of subsection (a) and rewrote the proviso in subdivision (8) thereof.

The 1957 amendment changed subsection (a) by substituting “one thousand dollars ($1,000.00)” for “five hundred dollars ($500.00)” near the beginning of the present third sentence of subdivision (8) and adding the exception clause in the next to the last paragraph of subdivision (5). The amendment also rewrote subsection (c).

The 1959 amendment substituted “two thousand dollars ($2,000.00)” for “one thousand dollars ($1,000.00)” near the beginning of the present third sentence of subdivision (2) of subsection (a).

The 1963 amendment, effective as to income years beginning on and after Jan. 1, 1963, deleted all of the first sentence of subdivision (2) of subsection (a) providing an exemption for the head of a household and inserted the present second sentence therein. It also rewrote subdivision (5) of subsection (a).

§ 105-150. Exemption as to insurance or other compensation received by veterans.—Any American residing in the State of North Carolina who joined any of the allied armies during the World War and who, on account of injuries received while in service, receives insurance or compensation from any of the allied countries is hereby exempt from liability for income tax on such insurance or compensation in the State of North Carolina. The benefits of this section are hereby extended to and include those coming within the provisions of said section serving at any time between December seventh, one thousand nine hundred and forty-one and the termination of World War II. (1929, c. 184; 1945, c. 968, s. 1.)

Editor’s Note. — The 1945 amendment added the second sentence of this section.

§ 105-151. Tax credits for income taxes paid to other states by individuals. — (a) Individuals who are residents of this State shall be allowed a credit against the taxes imposed by this article for income taxes imposed by and paid to another state or country on income taxed under this article, subject to the following conditions:

(1) The credit shall be allowed only for taxes paid to such other state or country on income derived from sources within such state or country which is taxed under the laws thereof irrespective of the residence or domicile of the recipient; provided, that whenever a taxpayer who is deemed to be a resident of this State under the provisions of this article and who is deemed also to be a resident of another state or country under the laws of such other state or country the Commissioner of Revenue may, in his discretion, allow a credit against the taxes imposed by this article for such taxes imposed by and paid to such other state or country on income taxed under this article.

(2) The fraction of the gross income for North Carolina income tax purposes which is subject to income tax in another state or country shall be ascertained and the North Carolina net income tax before credit under this section shall be multiplied by such fraction. The credit allowed shall be either the product thus calculated or the income tax actually paid the other state or country whichever is smaller.

(3) Receipts showing the payment of income taxes to another state or country and a true copy of a return or returns upon the basis of which such taxes are assessed must be filed with the Commissioner of Revenue at, or prior to, the time credit is claimed. If credit is claimed on account of a deficiency assessment, a true copy of the notice assessing or proposing to assess the deficiency, as well as a receipt showing the payment of the deficiency, must be filed.

(b) If a fiduciary is required to pay a tax to this State for an estate or trust for which he acts which estate or trust is resident in this State and is also resi-
§ 105-152. Returns.—(a) The following persons shall file with the Commissioner of Revenue an income tax return under affirmation, showing therein specifically the items of gross income and the deductions allowed by this article, and such other facts as the Commissioner may require for the purpose of making any computation required by this article:

(1) Every resident or nonresident who has a gross income during the income year which is in excess of the personal exemption to which he or she is entitled under the provisions of G. S. 105-149 (a), without the inclusion of the exemptions for dependents provided under subdivision (5) of said subsection, any part of which is subject to taxation in this State.
§ 105-152
§ 105-152

(2) Every resident or nonresident required under the provisions of G. S. 105-149 (b) to prorate his exemption and who has a gross income during the income year from sources both within and without this State in excess of the prorated exemption, any part of which is subject to taxation in this State.

(3) Every partnership having a place of business in the State as provided in G. S. 105-154.

(4) Every corporation doing business in this State.

(5) Any person or corporation whom the Commissioner believes to be liable for a tax under this article, when so notified by the Commissioner of Revenue and requested to file a return.

(b) If the taxpayer is unable to make his own return, the return shall be made by a duly authorized agent or by a guardian or other person charged with the care of the person or property of such taxpayer.

(c) The return of a corporation shall be signed by either its president, vice president, treasurer, assistant treasurer, secretary or assistant secretary. There shall be annexed to the return the affirmation of the officer signing the same, which shall be in the form prescribed in G. S. 105-155 of this article, and the same penalties prescribed in G. S. 105-155 shall apply to any person making willful misstatements in said returns.

(d) The return of an individual, who, while living, received income in excess of the exemption during the income year, and who has died before making the return, shall be made in his name and behalf by the administrator, or executor of the estate, and the tax shall be levied upon and collected from his estate.

(e) When the Commissioner of Revenue has reason to believe that any taxpayer so conducts the trade or business as either directly or indirectly to distort his true net income and the net income properly attributable to the State, whether by the arbitrary shifting of income, through price fixing, charges for service, or otherwise, whereby the net income is arbitrarily assigned to one or another unit in a group of taxpayers carrying on business under a substantially common control, he may require such facts as he deems necessary for the proper computation of the entire net income and the net income properly attributable to the State, and in determining same the Commissioner of Revenue shall have regard to the fair profit which would normally arise from the conduct of the trade or business.

(f) When any corporation liable to taxation under this article conducts its business in such a manner as either directly or indirectly to benefit the members or stockholders thereof or any person interested in such business by selling its products or goods or commodities in which it deals at less than the fair price which might be obtained therefor, or where a corporation, a substantial portion of whose capital stock is owned either directly or indirectly by another corporation, acquires and disposes of the products of the corporation so owning a substantial portion of its stock in such a manner as to create a loss or improper net income for either of said corporations, or where a corporation, owning directly or indirectly a substantial portion of the stock of another corporation, acquires and disposes of the products of the corporation of which it so owns a substantial portion of the stock in such manner as to create a loss or improper net income for either of said corporations, the Commissioner of Revenue may determine the amount of taxable income of either or any such corporations for the calendar or fiscal year, having due regard to the reasonable profits which, but for such arrangement or understanding, might or could have been obtained by the corporation or corporations liable to taxation under this article from dealing in such products, goods or commodities. (1939, c. 158, s. 326; 1941, c. 50, s. 5; 1943, c. 400, s. 4; 1945, c. 708, s. 4; 1951, c. 643, s. 4; 1957, c. 1340, s. 4.)

Editor's Note. — The 1941 amendment struck out a former provision relating to required return and settlement of tax by corporation before dissolution. The 1943
§ 105-153. Fiduciary returns.—(a) Every fiduciary subject to taxation under the provisions of this article, as provided in § 105-139, shall make a return under oath for the individual, estate or trust for whom or for which he acts, if the net income thereof exceeds the personal exemptions.

(b) The return made by a fiduciary shall state specifically the items of gross income and the deductions and exemptions allowed by this article, and such other facts as the Commissioner of Revenue may prescribe.

(c) Fiduciaries required to make returns under this article shall be subject to all the provisions of this article which apply to individuals. (1939, c. 158, s. 327.)

§ 105-154. Information at the source.—(a) Every individual, partnership, corporation, joint-stock company or association, or insurance company, being a resident or having a place of business or having one or more employees, agents or other representatives in this State, in whatever capacity acting, including lessors or mortgagors of real or personal property, fiduciaries, employers, and all officers and employees of the State or of any political subdivision of the State and all officers and employees of the United States of America or of any political subdivision or agency thereof having the control, receipt, custody, disposal, or payment of interest (other than interest coupons payable to bearer), rent, salaries, wages, premiums, annuities, compensations, remunerations, emoluments or other fixed or determinable annual or periodical gains, profits, and incomes above exemptions allowed in this article, paid or payable during any year to any taxpayer, shall make complete return thereof to the Commissioner of Revenue under such regulations and in such form and manner and to such extent as may be prescribed by him. The filing of any report in compliance with the provisions of this section by a foreign corporation shall not constitute an act in evidence of and shall not be deemed to be evidence that such corporation is doing business in this State.

(b) Every partnership having a place of business in the State shall make a return, stating specifically the items of its gross income and the deductions allowed by this article, and shall include in the return the names and addresses of the individuals who would be entitled to share in the net income if distributable, and the amount of the distributive share of each individual, together with the distributive shares of corporation dividends. The return shall be signed by one of the partners under affirmation in the form prescribed in § 105-155 of this article, and the same penalties prescribed in § 105-155 shall apply in the event of a willful misstatement.

(c) Every corporation doing business or having a place of business in this State shall file with the Commissioner of Revenue, on such form and in such manner as he may prescribe, the names and addresses of all taxpayers, residents of North Carolina, to whom dividends have been paid and the amount of such dividends during the income year. (1939, c. 158, s. 328; 1945, c. 708, s. 4; 1957, c. 1340, s. 4.)

Editor's Note.—The 1945 amendment rewrote the second sentence of subsection (b).

The 1957 amendment inserted immediately following "business" near the beginning of subsection (a) the words "or having one or more employees, agents or other representatives." It also inserted near the middle of the first sentence "and all officers and employees of the United States of America or of any political subdivision or agency thereof." It further added the second sentence.
§ 105-155. Time and place of filing returns.—Returns shall be in such form as the Commissioner of Revenue may from time to time prescribe, and shall be filed with the Commissioner at his main office, or at any branch office which he may establish. The return of every person reporting on a calendar year basis shall be filed on or before the fifteenth day of April in each year, and the return of every person reporting on a fiscal year basis shall be filed on or before the fifteenth day of the fourth month following the close of the fiscal year. The return of a corporation reporting on a calendar year basis shall be filed on or before the fifteenth day of March in each year, and the return of a corporation reporting on a fiscal year basis shall be filed on or before the fifteenth day of the third month following the close of the fiscal year. In case of sickness, absence, or other disability or whenever in his judgment good cause exists, the Commissioner may allow further time for filing returns. Any corporation which shall dissolve or withdraw from business in this State shall file its return for the then current income year within seventy-five days after the date of such dissolution or withdrawal.

There shall be annexed to the return the affirmation of the taxpayer making the return in the following form: "I hereby affirm that this return, including the accompanying schedules and statements (if any) has been examined by me, and, to the best of my knowledge and belief, is true and complete and is made in good faith covering the taxable period stated, pursuant to the Revenue Act of one thousand nine hundred and thirty-nine, as amended and the regulations issued under authority thereof, and that this affirmation is made under the penalties prescribed by law." The Commissioner shall cause to be prepared blank forms for the said returns, and shall cause them to be distributed throughout the State, and to be furnished upon application; but failure to receive or secure the form shall not relieve any taxpayer from the obligation of making any return herein required. (1939, c. 158, s. 329; 1943, c. 400, s. 4; 1951, c. 643, s. 4; 1953, c. 1302, s. 1955: c. 7578.71 1957 c. 340i6.24 190s sexed GOracreZa)

Editor's Note.—The 1943 amendment rewrote the second paragraph. The 1951 amendment inserted a former sentence of the first paragraph relating to fiduciary returns. And the 1953 amendment rewrote the second paragraph.

The 1955 amendment omitted the former reference to fiduciary returns in the first paragraph, and made the State law conform to the federal law as to the time for filing returns.

The 1957 amendment added the last sentence of the first paragraph, and deleted the former sentence of the second paragraph which read: "The return shall also be signed by a competent witness of the signature."

The 1963 amendment, effective as to income years beginning on and after Jan. 1, 1963, deleted the former second sentence of the second paragraph.

For brief comment on the 1953 amendment, see 31 N. C. Law Rev. 441.

§ 105-156. Failure to file returns; supplementary returns. — If the Commissioner of Revenue shall be of the opinion that any taxpayer has failed to file a return or to include in a return filed, either intentionally or through error, items of taxable income, he may require from such taxpayer a return or supplementary return, under oath, in such form as he shall prescribe, of all the items of income which the taxpayer received during the year for which the return is made, whether or not taxable under the provisions of this article. If from a supplementary return or otherwise the Commissioner finds any items of income, taxable under this article, have been omitted from the original return, or any items returned as taxable that are not taxable, or any item of taxable income overstated, he may require the items so omitted to be disclosed to him under oath of the taxpayer, and to be added to or deducted from the original return. Such supplementary return and the correction of the original return shall not relieve the taxpayer from any of the penalties to which he may be liable under any provision of this article. The Commissioner may proceed under the provisions of § 105-241.1, whether or not he requires a return or a supplementary return under this section.

Editor's Note. — The 1959 amendment substituted in the last sentence "105-241.1" for "105-159."

§ 105-156.1. Effective dates of 1957 amendments to article 4; determination of corporate income for income years beginning or ending in 1957. — Except as otherwise expressly provided herein, the amendments to this article by Session Laws 1957, c. 1340, s. 4, shall take effect for income years beginning on or after January first, one thousand nine hundred fifty-seven. Provided, however, that with reference to corporations having income years beginning subsequent to December 31, 1956, and before July 1, 1957, the amendments to G. S. 105-134 and the repeal of G. S. 105-136, and the deletion of former subsection 10 of G. S. 105-147 to the extent that it applies to corporations, shall not apply prior to July 1, 1957. Corporations having income years beginning subsequent to December 31, 1956, and prior to July 1, 1957, shall determine their net taxable income for such years both under the provisions, as applicable, of G. S. 105-134, former subsection 10 (a) of G. S. 105-147, and G. S. 105-136, as in effect prior to the effective date of Session Laws 1957, c. 1340, s. 4, and under the provisions of G. S. 105-134 as amended by Session Laws 1957, c. 1340, s. 4. The amount of net taxable income ascertained under the provisions, as applicable, of G. S. 105-134, former subsection 10 (a) of G. S. 105-147, and G. S. 105-136, as in effect prior to the effective date of Session Laws 1957, c. 1340, s. 4, shall be prorated according to the number of days in the income year occurring prior to July 1, 1957, and the amount of net taxable income ascertained under G. S. 105-134 as amended by Session Laws 1957, c. 1340, s. 4, shall be prorated according to the number of days in the income year subsequent to June 30, 1957, and the amounts so prorated shall be added together and shall be the net taxable income of such corporation for the income year.

Provided further, that corporations having income years ending subsequent to June 30, 1957, and prior to December 31, 1957, shall determine their net taxable income for such years both under the provisions, as applicable, of G. S. 105-134, former subsection 10 (a) of G. S. 105-147, and G. S. 105-136, as in effect prior to the effective date of Session Laws 1957, c. 1340, s. 4, and under the provisions of G. S. 105-134 as amended by Session Laws 1957, c. 1340, s. 4. The amount of net taxable income ascertained under the provisions, as applicable, of G. S. 105-134, former subsection 10 (a) of G. S. 105-147, and G. S. 105-136, as in effect prior to the effective date of Session Laws 1957, c. 1340, s. 4, shall be prorated according to the number of days in the income year occurring prior to July 1, 1957, and the amount of net taxable income ascertained under G. S. 105-134 as amended by Session Laws 1957, c. 1340, s. 4, shall be prorated according to the number of days in the income year subsequent to June 30, 1957, and the amounts so prorated shall be added together and shall be the net taxable income of such corporation for the income year.

Any corporation feeling that the above-prescribed method for determining taxes due for income years beginning subsequent to December 31, 1956, and prior to July 1, 1957, results in an improper determination of its taxes for said year may obtain a redetermination of its taxes for said year by showing by clear evidence to the satisfaction of the Tax Review Board its correct tax for said year. In order to obtain such a redetermination, the taxpayer must file, prior to March 1, 1958, with the Board a petition praying for said redetermination and setting forth the grounds therefor. After proper hearing, the Board shall enter an order denying the prayer or redetermining the tax due in accordance with its findings. To the extent practicable and consistent with the provisions of this section, the procedural provisions of G. S. 105-134 (g) shall apply to the petition and hearing under this section. (1957, c. 1340, s. 4.) § 105-157. Time and place of payment of tax.—(a) Except as otherwise provided in this section and in article 4A and article 4B of this chapter, the full amount of the tax payable as shown on the face of the return shall be paid to the Commissioner of Revenue at the office where the return is filed at the time fixed by law for filing the return.

If the taxpayer is a corporation and the amount of the tax exceeds fifty dollars ($50.00), payment may be made in two equal installments: One half on the date the return is filed, and one half on or before the fifteenth day of the sixth month following the month in which the return was originally due to be filed, with interest on the deferred payment at the rate of six per cent (6%) per annum from the date the return was originally due to be filed. If the taxpayer is a corporation and the amount of the tax exceeds four hundred dollars ($400.00), payment may be made in four equal installments: One fourth at the time of filing the return, one fourth on or before the fifteenth day of the third month following the month in which the return was originally due to be filed, one fourth on or before the fifteenth day of the sixth month following the month in which the return was originally due to be filed, and one fourth on or before the fifteenth day of the ninth month following the month in which the return was originally due to be filed, with interest on deferred payments at the rate of six per cent (6%) per annum from the date the return was originally due to be filed.

In the event any deferred payment is not made when due, then the entire balance of the tax will immediately become due and collectible, and interest upon such outstanding balance shall be added at the rate of six per cent (6%) per annum from the date the return was originally due to be filed until paid.

(b) The tax may be paid with uncertified check during such time and under such regulations as the Commissioner of Revenue shall prescribe; but if a check so received is not paid by the bank on which it is drawn, the taxpayer by whom such check is tendered shall remain liable for the payment of the tax and for all legal penalties the same as if such check had not been tendered. (1939, c. 158, s. 332; 1943, c. 400, s. 4; 1947, c. 501, s. 4; 1951, c. 643, s. 4; 1955, c. 17, ss. 2; 1959, c. 1259, s. 2; 1963, c. 1169, s. 2.)

Editor's Note.—The 1947 amendment rewrote subsection (a) as changed by the 1943 amendment, which also changed the interest rate in former subsection (b) from six to four per cent.

The 1951 and 1955 amendments rewrote subsection (a).

The 1959 amendment, effective as of Jan. 1, 1960, rewrote the first paragraph of subsection (a).

The 1963 amendment, effective as to income years beginning on and after Jan. 1, 1963, deleted the former proviso at the end of the first paragraph of subsection (a), relating to the unavailability of the deferred payment option for income years beginning on and after Jan. 1, 1960; deleted the former second paragraph of subsection (a); rewrote the third, now second, paragraph of subsection (a); deleted former subsection (b); and redesignated former subsection (c) as present subsection (b).

See note to § 105-155.

§ 105-159. Corrections and changes.—If the amount of the net income for any year of any taxpayer under this article, as reported or as reportable to the United States Treasury Department, is changed, corrected, or otherwise determined by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue or other officer of the United States of competent authority, such taxpayer, within two (2) years after receipt of internal revenue agent's report or supplemental report reflecting the corrected or determined net income shall make return under oath or affirmation to the Commissioner of Revenue of such corrected, changed or determined net income.
In making any assessment or refund under this section, the Commissioner shall consider all facts or evidence brought to his attention, whether or not the same were considered or taken into account in the federal assessment or correction. If the taxpayer fails to notify the Commissioner of Revenue of assessment of additional tax by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, the statute of limitations shall not apply. The Commissioner of Revenue shall thereupon proceed to determine, from such evidence as he may have brought to his attention or shall otherwise acquire, the correct net income of such taxpayer for the fiscal or calendar year, and if there shall be any additional tax due from such taxpayer the same shall be assessed and collected; and if there shall have been an overpayment of the tax the said Commissioner shall, within thirty days after the final determination of the net income of such taxpayer, refund the amount of such excess: Provided, that any taxpayer who fails to comply with this section as to making report of such change as made by the federal government within the time specified shall be subject to all penalties as provided in § 105-236, in case of additional tax due, and shall forfeit his rights to any refund due by reason of such change.

If a refund of taxes paid is made under this section, interest thereon at four per cent (4%) per annum computed from ninety (90) days after the overpayment was made shall be added to such refund. If an assessment is made under this section, interest thereon at six per cent (6%) per annum computed from the date set by the statute for the filing of the return shall be added.

When the taxpayer makes the return reflecting the corrected net income as required by this section, the Commissioner of Revenue shall make assessments or refunds based thereon within three (3) years from the date the return required by this section is filed and not thereafter. When the taxpayer does not make the return reflecting the corrected net income as required by this section but the Department of Revenue receives from the United States government or one of its agents a report reflecting such corrected net income, the Commissioner of Revenue shall make assessments for taxes due based on such corrected net income within five (5) years from the date the report from the United States government or its agent is actually received and not thereafter. (1939, c. 158, s. 334; 1947, c. 501, s. 4; 1949, c. 392, s. 3; 1957, c. 1340, s. 14; 1963, c. 1169, s. 2.)

Editor's Note. — The 1947 amendment substituted “two years” for “thirty days” in the first sentence of the first paragraph, and struck out the then second sentence which was restored by the 1949 amendment and appears now as the third sentence. The 1949 amendment also added the second and third paragraphs.

The 1937 amendment changed the interest rate in the first sentence of the second paragraph from 6% to 4%. It substituted in the second sentence “date set by the statute for the filing of the return” for “due date of the original return.”

The 1963 amendment, effective as to income years beginning on and after Jan. 1, 1963, rewrote the first sentence of this section, inserted the present second sentence and substituted “§ 105-236” for “§ 105-161” near the end of the first paragraph.

This section imposes on the taxpayer a positive duty with respect to his income tax liability beyond that required by § 105-152, respecting his original return; it is his duty not only to report the change made by the federal department but to file another return under oath reflecting it. And the fact that three years had already elapsed after the filing of the original return before the taxpayer received notice of the change made by the federal department did not bring into operation the statute of limitations in § 105-160 so as to relieve the taxpayer of this duty. Garrou Knitting Mills v. Gill, 228 N. C. 764, 47 S. E. (2d) 240 (1948).

Procedure under Former Statute Exclusive. — The procedure prescribed by the former statute requiring that a new return be made within thirty days of the receipt of the redetermination of the taxpayer's income tax by the federal government was held exclusive and had to be followed to entitle the taxpayer to the relief therein provided. State v. Hinsdale, 207 N. C. 37, 175 S. E. 847 (1934).

§ 105-161: Repealed by Session Laws 1959, c. 1259, s. 9.

Editor's Note.—Notwithstanding the repeal of this section, Session Laws 1959, c. 1259, s. 2 (c), purported to amend subsection (d) by inserting the words "article 4A or article 4B" before the word "shall" in line two, the amendment to be effective Jan. 1, 1960.

Revision and Appeal.

§ 105-162: Repealed by Session Laws 1957, c. 1340, s. 10.

§ 105-163: Repealed by Session Laws 1955, c. 1350, s. 14.

ARTICLE 4A.

WITHOLDING OF INCOME TAXES FROM WAGES AND FILING OF DECLARATIONS OF ESTIMATED INCOME AND PAYMENT OF INCOME TAX BY INDIVIDUALS.

§ 105-163.1. Definitions.—As used in this article,

(1) "Commissioner" means the Commissioner of Revenue.

(2) "Corporation" includes an association or a joint stock company.

(3) "Dependent" means a dependent with respect to whom a three-hundred-dollar ($300.00) income tax exemption is allowed under the provisions of article 4 of this chapter.

(4) The word "employee" means an individual, whether resident or nonresident in this State, who performs or performed any service in this State for wages or an individual domiciled in this State who performs or performed any service outside this State for wages. The word "employee", as used in this subdivision, is intended to include officers of corporations and elected public officials.

(5) The word "employer" means this State, or any political subdivision thereof, the United States, or any agency or instrumentality of any one or more of the foregoing, or a person, for whom an individual performs or performed any service as an employee; except that:

a. If the person, governmental unit, or agency thereof, for whom the individual performs or performed the service does not have control of the payment of the wages for such services, the term "employer" (except for the purposes of subdivision (6) of this section) means the person having control of the payment of such wages, and

b. In the case of a person paying wages on behalf of a nonresident person not engaged in trade or business within this State or on behalf of any governmental unit or agency thereof not located within this State, the term "employer" (except for purposes of subdivision (6) of this section) means such person.

(6) The term "wages" means all remuneration (other than fees paid to a public official) for service performed by an employee for his employer, including the cash value of all remuneration paid in any medium other than cash; except that such term shall not include remuneration paid:

a. For agricultural labor where such remuneration is paid to workers employed on the farm for services rendered on the farm in the production, harvesting, and transportation of agricultural products to market for the farmer-employer; or

b. For domestic service in a private home, local college club, or local chapter of a college fraternity or sorority; or

c. For service not in the course of the employer's trade or business performed in any calendar quarter by an employee, unless the cash remuneration paid for such service is fifty dollars ($50.-

00) or more and such service is performed by an individual who is regularly employed by such employer to perform such service. For purposes of this paragraph, an individual shall be deemed to be regularly employed by an employer during a calendar quarter only if:

1. On each of some twenty-four days during such quarter such individual performs for such employer for some portion of the day service not in the course of the employer’s trade or business; or
2. Such individual was regularly employed (as determined under subparagraph 1 above) by such employer in the performance of such service during the preceding calendar quarter; or

For services not in the course of the employer’s trade or business, to the extent paid in any medium other than cash; or

e. To, or on behalf of, an employee or his beneficiary—
1. From or to a trust described in § 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code which is exempt from tax under § 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code at the time of such payment unless such payment is made to an employee of the trust as remuneration for services rendered as such employee and not as a beneficiary of the trust; or
2. Under or to an annuity plan which, at the time of such payment, meets the requirements of § 401(a) (3), (4), (5), and (6) of the Internal Revenue Code.

(7) The term “transient employer” means an “employer” who is not a resident of this State and who temporarily engages in any activity within the State for the production of income. Without intending to exclude others who may come within the foregoing definition, any non-resident “employer” engaging in any such activity within the State which, as of any date, cannot be reasonably expected to continue for a period of eighteen consecutive months shall be deemed to be temporarily engaged in such activity.

(8) “Fiduciary” means a guardian, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, conservator, or any person acting in any fiduciary capacity for any person, estate or trust.

(9) “Fiscal year” means an accounting period of twelve months ending on the last day of any month other than December.

(10) “Individual” means a natural person.

(12) “Payroll period” means a period for which a payment of wages is ordinarily made to the employee by his employer, and the term “miscellaneous payroll period” means a payroll period other than a daily, weekly, biweekly, semimonthly, monthly, quarterly, semiannual, or annual payroll period.

(13) “Person” means and includes an individual, a fiduciary, a partnership and a corporation.

(14) “Taxable year” means the calendar year or fiscal year ending during such calendar year, upon the basis of which net income is computed, and in the case of a return made for a fractional part of a year under the provisions of this chapter or under regulations prescribed by the Commissioner, “taxable year” means the period for which such return is made.

(15) The term “net taxable income” means that part of the income of an individual which, during the taxable year of the individual, is sub-§ 105-163.2. Withholding.—(a) Every employer making payment of wages on or after January 1, 1960, shall deduct and withhold with respect to the wages of each employee for each payroll period an amount determined as follows:

Such amount which, if an equal amount was collected for each similar payroll period with respect to a similar amount of wages for each payroll period during an entire calendar year, would aggregate or approximate the income tax liability of such employee under article 4 of this chapter after making allowance for the personal exemptions to which such employee would be entitled on the basis of his status during such payroll period and after making allowance for withholding purposes for a deduction from wages of ten per cent (10%) thereof, but not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500.00) per calendar year, and without making allowance for any other deductions.

(b) The Commissioner of Revenue shall cause to be prepared and shall promulgate tables for computing amounts to be withheld with respect to different rates of wages for different payroll periods applicable to the various combinations of exemptions to which an employee may be entitled and taking into account the limited ten per cent (10%) deduction above referred to. Such tables may provide for the same amount to be withheld within reasonable salary brackets or ranges so designed as to result in the withholding during a year of approximately the amount of an employee's indicated income tax liability with respect to said year. The withholding of wages pursuant to and in accordance with such tables shall be deemed as a matter of law to constitute compliance with the provisions of subsection (a) of this section, notwithstanding any other provisions of this article.

(c) If wages are paid with respect to a period which is not a payroll period, the amount to be deducted and withheld shall be that applicable in the case of a miscellaneous payroll period containing a number of days, excluding Sundays and holidays, equal to the number of days in the period with respect to which such wages are paid.

(d) In any case in which wages are paid by an employer without regard to any payroll period or other period, the amount to be deducted and withheld shall be that applicable in the case of a miscellaneous payroll period containing a number of days equal to the number of days, excluding Sundays and holidays, which have elapsed since the date of the last payment of such wages by such employer during the calendar year, or the date of commencement of employment with such employer during such year, or January 1 of such year, whichever is the later.

(e) The Commissioner may, by regulations, authorize employers:

1. To estimate the wages which will be paid to any employee in any quarter of the calendar year;
2. To determine the amount to be deducted and withheld upon each payment of wages to such employee during such quarter as if the appropriate average of the wages so estimated constituted the actual wages paid; and
3. To deduct and withhold upon any payment of wages to such employee during such quarter such amount as may be necessary to adjust the amount actually deducted and withheld upon the wages of such employee during such quarter to the amount that would be required to be deducted and withheld during such quarter if the payroll period of the employee was quarterly.

(f) The Commissioner is authorized in unusual circumstances wherein he finds that the use of the prescribed tables is impracticable or constitutes an unreasonable requirement of the employer to authorize such employer to use some other method of determining the amounts to be withheld under this article, provided the amounts withheld under such other method will reasonably approximate the indicated income tax liability of his employees. Further, the Commissioner may authorize an employer to use another method for determining the amounts to be withheld under the provisions of this article from the wages or salaries of groups of employees or individual employees if the circumstances are such that the use of the tables would produce substantially incorrect results. Any authorization of the use of a different method shall be subject to review and cancellation or alteration by the Commissioner every twelfth month, and the Commissioner may cancel such authorization or order an alteration of such method at any time upon a finding by him that such authorization is being abused or that such method is not resulting in the withholding of a sum reasonably approximating the indicated income tax liability of the employees, which finding may be made by the Commissioner with or without notice or a hearing and shall be conclusive except as hereinafter provided. The Commissioner shall notify the employer in writing of his finding and order thereon, and such notice shall be deemed to have been received by the employer on the third day after having been deposited in the mail and the employer shall thereafter abide by such order. Any employer feeling aggrieved by such order may thereafter apply for a hearing thereon before the Commissioner, unless a hearing has been previously held, and upon such hearing the findings of the Commissioner shall be deemed conclusive.

(g) The Commissioner is authorized to provide by regulation, under such conditions and to such extent as he deems proper, for withholding in addition to that otherwise required under this section in cases in which the employer and the employee agree to such additional withholding. Such additional withholding shall for all purposes be treated as other withholding amounts required to be deducted and withheld under this article.

(h) The act of compliance with any of the provisions of this article by a non-resident employer shall not constitute an act in evidence of and shall not be deemed to be evidence that such nonresident is doing business in this State.

§ 105-163.3. Withholding in accordance with regulations. — The manner of withholding and the amount to be deducted and withheld under G. S.
105-163.2 shall be determined in accordance with tables, rules and regulations promulgated by the Commissioner. The withholding exemption allowed by such tables, rules and regulations shall, as nearly as possible, approximate the exemptions to which an employee would be entitled under G. S. 105-149. (1959, c.
1259, s. 1.)

§ 105-163.4. Basis of determination of remuneration being wages.
—If any of the remuneration paid by an employer to an employee during any payroll period or during any miscellaneous period without reference to a payroll period constitutes actual reimbursement of the employee for ordinary and necessary expenses incurred by the employee on behalf of the employer and in the furtherance of the business of the employer, then such amounts as are paid to reimburse the employee for such expenses are not to be considered as wages and no amounts shall be deducted and withheld therefrom. (1959, c. 1259, s. 1.)

§ 105 163.5. Exemptions allowable; certificates.—(a) An employee receiving wages shall be entitled to the exemptions for which such employee qualifies under the provisions of article 4 of this chapter.

(b) Every employee shall, on or before January 1, 1960, or at the time of commencing employment, whichever is later, furnish his employer with a signed withholding exemption certificate informing the employer of the exemptions which the employee claims, which in no event shall exceed the amount of exemptions to which the employee is entitled under G. S. 105-149; but, in the event § 105-163.6. Payment of amounts withheld; personal liability for failure to withhold; limitation of recovery.—(a) Every employer required to deduct and withhold from an employee's wages under G. S. 105-163.2 shall, for the quarterly period beginning January 1, 1960, and for each quarterly period thereafter, on or before the last day of the month following the close of each quarterly period, make return and pay over to the Commissioner the amounts required to be withheld under G. S. 105-163.2. Such returns shall be in such form and contain such information as the Commissioner may prescribe.

(b) Notwithstanding any of the other provisions of this section, all transient employers shall make return and pay over to the Commissioner on a monthly basis the amounts required to be withheld under G. S. 105-163.2. Such returns and payments to the Commissioner by transient employers shall be made on or before the last day of the month following the month for which such amounts were deducted and withheld from the wages of his employees.

(c) Notwithstanding any of the other provisions of this section, all employers engaged in any business which is seasonal shall make return and pay over to the Commissioner on a monthly basis the amounts required to be withheld under G. S. 105-163.2. Such returns and payments to the Commissioner by employers engaged in such seasonal business shall be made on or before the last day of the month following the month for which such amounts were deducted and withheld from the wages of his employees.

(d) If the Commissioner, in any case, has reason to believe that the collection of moneys, required by this article to be withheld by the employer, is in jeopardy, he may require the employer to make such return and pay to the Commissioner such amounts required to be withheld at any time said Commissioner may designate therefor subsequent to the time when such amounts should have been deducted from wages and withheld.

(e) Every employer who fails to withhold or pay to the Commissioner any sums required by this article to be withheld and paid shall be personally and in-§ 105-163.7. Statement to employees; information to Commissioner.—(a) Every employer required to deduct and withhold from an employee's wages under G. S. 105-163.2 shall furnish to each such employee in respect to the remuneration paid by such employer to such employee during the calendar year, on or before January 31 of the succeeding year, or, if his employment is terminated before the close of such calendar year, within thirty days from the date on which the last payment of remuneration is made, duplicate copies of a written statement showing the following:

1. The name of such person;
2. The name of the employee and his social security account number;
3. The total amount of wages;
4. The total amount deducted and withheld under G. S. 105-163.2.

(b) The written statement above referred to shall be furnished at such other times, shall contain such other information, and shall be in such form as the Commissioner may by regulations prescribe. Every employer shall file annual returns or reports setting forth such information as the Commissioner may require, and the Commissioner may require the filing of such additional copies of all written statements described above as he may deem necessary. On and after January 1, 1961, the annual returns or reports required to be made to the Commissioner under the provisions of this section shall be in lieu of such returns required under G. S. 105-154 as would furnish identical information. (1959, c. 1259, s. 1.)

§ 105-163.8. Liability of employer.—An employer shall be liable for the payment to the Commissioner of the amounts required to be deducted and withheld under G. S. 105-163.2, and an employer who has withheld and paid such amounts to the Commissioner shall not otherwise be liable to any person for the amounts of any such payments. Upon failure of an employer to pay over any amounts withheld or required to be withheld by said employer under this article, the Commissioner may make assessments, issue warrants for the collection of such amounts, issue certificates of tax liability, collect by attachment or garnishment proceedings, or bring actions for the collection of such amounts and for penalties due under the provisions of G. S. 105-241.1, G. S. 105-242 and G. S. 105-243. (1959, c. 1259, s. 1.)

§ 105-163.9. Refund to employer; application. — (a) Where there has been an overpayment to the Commissioner by the employer or withholding agent under the provisions of this article, refund shall be made to the employer or withholding agent, as the case may be, to the extent that the amount of such overpayment was not deducted and withheld by the employer or withholding agent from the employee's wages, and such refund shall be paid together with interest thereon at the rate of four per cent (4%) per annum; provided, that interest on any such refund shall be computed from a date ninety (90) days after the date the overpayment was originally made by the employer or withholding agent.

(b) Unless written application for refund is received by the Commissioner from the employer within two years from the date the overpayment was made, no refund shall be allowed. (1959, c. 1259, s. 1.)

§ 105-163.10. Withheld amounts credited to individual for calendar year. — The amount deducted and withheld under G. S. 105-163.2 during any calendar year from the wages of any individual shall be allowed as a credit to such individual against the tax imposed by G. S. 105-133, for taxable years beginning in such calendar year. If more than one taxable year begins in such calendar year such amount shall be allowed as a credit against the tax for the last taxable year so beginning. As a prerequisite to obtaining the credit allowed herein, the individual taxpayer must file with the Commissioner one copy, and such other copies and information as may be required by regulation, of the withholding statement provided for by G. S. 105-163.7, and such withholding statement must accompany the annual income tax return required by G. S. 105-152. (1959, c. 1259, s. 1.)

§ 105-163.11. Estimated declaration of income and income tax; contents; when and where filed; amendments to declaration; option of amendment.—(a) Every individual shall, for all taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1960, and at the times prescribed in subsection (c) of this section, make a declaration of his estimated income and his estimated income tax for the taxable year:

(1) If no part of his income consists of wages, and his net taxable income can reasonably be expected to equal or exceed two hundred dollars ($200.00) for the taxable year, or

(2) If his income consists of wages and other income, and his net taxable income can reasonably be expected to equal or exceed two hundred dollars ($200.00) for the taxable year; provided, that no individual shall be required to file a declaration pursuant to this paragraph unless all of his income from whatever source, other than wages from which tax has been withheld under the provisions of this article, which may be subject to an income tax under article 4 of this chapter can be reasonably expected to exceed, by two hundred dollars ($200.00) or more, the sum of:

a. All business-connected deductions allowable under the provisions of article 4 to which the taxpayer can be reasonably expected to be entitled during the taxable year in the production of all income, other than wages earned by the taxpayer, and

b. The amount of all deductible dividends from stocks which can be reasonably expected to be earned by the taxpayer during the taxable year.

(b) In the declaration required under subsection (a) above, the individual shall state:

(1) The amount which he estimates as his total income from all sources for the taxable year;

(2) The amount which he estimates as the amount of tax for which he will be liable under G. S. 105-133 for the taxable year, less any credits to which he can reasonably be expected to be entitled under G. S. 105-151;

(3) The amount which he estimates will be withheld, if any, from wages of the taxpayer for the taxable year under the provisions of G. S. 105-163.2;

(4) The excess of the amount estimated under subdivision (2) of this subsection over the amount estimated under subdivision (3) of this subsection, which excess for the purposes of this article shall be considered the estimated tax for the taxable year to be paid to the Commissioner directly by the individual; and

(5) Such other information as may be required by the Commissioner.

(c) The declaration required under subsection (a) of this section shall be filed with the Commissioner on or before April 15 of the taxable year, except that if the requirements of subsection (a) of this section are first met:

(1) After April 1 and before June 2 of the taxable year, the declaration shall be filed on or before June 15 of the taxable year; or
(2) After June 1 and before September 2 of the taxable year, the declaration shall be filed on or before September 15 of the taxable year; or

(3) After September 1 of the taxable year, the declaration shall be filed on or before January 15 of the succeeding taxable year.

(d) An individual may make amendments of a declaration filed during the taxable year under regulations prescribed by the Commissioner.

(e) If on or before January 31 (or February 15, in the case of an individual referred to in subsection (f) below, relating to income from farming and commercial fishing) of the succeeding taxable year the taxpayer files a return, for the taxable year for which the declaration is required, and pays in full the amount computed on the return as payable, then—

(1) If the declaration is not required to be filed during the taxable year, but is required to be filed on or before January 15, such return shall be considered as such declaration; and

(2) If the tax shown on the return (reduced by the sum of all credits against tax to which the taxpayer may be entitled under the provisions of article 4 and article 4A of this chapter) is greater than the estimated tax shown in a declaration previously made, or in the last amendment thereof, such return shall be considered as the amendment of the declaration permitted by subsection (d) to be filed on or before January 15.

In the application of this subsection in the case of a taxable year beginning on any date other than January 1, there shall be substituted, for the 15th or last day of the months specified in this subsection, the 15th or last day of the months which correspond thereto.

(f) Declaration of estimated tax required to be filed by this section from individuals whose estimated gross income from farming and commercial fishing (including oyster farming) for the taxable year is at least two thirds of the total estimated gross income from all sources for the taxable year may, in lieu of the time prescribed in subsection (c), be filed at any time on or before January 15 of the succeeding taxable year.

(g) The application of this section to taxable years of less than twelve months shall be in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Commissioner.

(h) In the application of this section to the case of a taxable year beginning on any date other than January 1, there shall be substituted, for the months specified in this section, the months which correspond thereto. (1959, c. 1259, s. 1; 1963, c. 785, ss. 1, 2.)

Editor's Note. — The 1963 amendment inserted "and commercial fishing" in the parenthetical clause in the introductory paragraph of subsection (e) and preceding the parenthetical clause in subsection (f).

§ 105-163.12. Filing of declarations and amended declarations hereunder.—If the taxpayer is unable to make his own declarations, amended declarations, payments or any information returns required under the provisions of this article, then the same shall be made by a duly authorized agent or by a guardian or other person charged with the care of the person or property of such taxpayer. (1959, c. 1259, s. 1.)

§ 105-163.13. Affirmation; penalty for false declaration. — Whenever any declaration, amended declaration, or information returns required under the provisions of this article shall be furnished to the Commissioner, there shall be annexed thereto the affirmation of the taxpayer, or of any other person furnishing same, in the following form: "I hereby affirm that this declaration, amended declaration, or return, including any schedules and attachments thereto, has been examined by me, and, to the best of my knowledge and belief, is true and complete and is made in good faith covering the taxable period stated, pursuant to the Revenue Act of 1939, as amended, and the regulations issued under au-
§ 105-163.14. Payment of tax. — (a) The estimated income tax, as defined in G. S. 105-163.11 and with respect to which a declaration is required to be filed thereunder, shall be paid as follows:

(1) If the declaration is filed on or before April 15 of the taxable year, the estimated tax shall be paid in four equal installments. The first installment shall be paid at the time of the filing of the declaration, the second and third on June 15 and September 15, respectively, of the taxable year, and the fourth on January 15 of the succeeding taxable year.

(2) If the declaration is filed after April 15 and not after June 15 of the taxable year and is not required by subsection (c) of G. S. 105-163.11 to be filed on or before April 15 of the taxable year, the estimated tax shall be paid in three equal installments. The first installment shall be paid at the time of the filing of the declaration, the second on September 15 of the taxable year, and the third on January 15 of the succeeding taxable year.

(3) If the declaration is filed after June 15 and not after September 15 of the taxable year and is not required by subsection (c) of G. S. 105-163.11 to be filed on or before June 15 of the taxable year, the estimated tax shall be paid in two equal installments. The first installment shall be paid at the time of the filing of the declaration, and the second on January 15 of the succeeding taxable year.

(4) If the declaration is filed after September 15 of the taxable year, and is not required by subsection (c) of G. S. 105-163.11 to be filed on or before September 15 of the taxable year, the estimated tax shall be paid in full at the time of the filing of the declaration.

(5) If the declaration is filed after the time prescribed in G. S. 105-163.11, there shall be paid at the time of such filing all installments of estimated tax which would have been payable on or before such time if the declaration had been filed within the time prescribed in subsection (c) of G. S. 105-163.11, and the remaining installments shall be paid at the times at which, and in the amounts in which, they would have been payable if the declaration had been filed on time.

(b) If any amendment of a declaration is filed, the remaining installments, if any, shall be ratably increased or decreased as the case may be, to reflect the respective increase or decrease in the estimated tax by reason of such amendment, and if any amendment is made after September 15 of the taxable year any increase in the estimated tax by reason thereof shall be paid at the time of making such amendment.

(c) At the election of the individual, any installment of the estimated tax may be paid prior to the date prescribed for its payment.

(d) Payment of estimated income tax, or any installment thereof, shall be considered payment on account of the income taxes imposed by article 4 of this chapter for the taxable year.
(e) The application of this section to taxable years of less than twelve months shall be in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Commissioner.

(f) In the application of this section to the case of a taxable year beginning on any date other than January 1, there shall be substituted, for the months specified in this section, the months which correspond thereto. (1959, c. 1259, s. 1.)

§ 105-163.15. Failure by individual to pay estimated income tax; penalty.—(a) In the case of any underpayment of the estimated tax by an individual, except as provided in subsection (d), there shall be added to the tax imposed under article 4 for the taxable year an amount determined at the rate of six per cent (6%) per annum upon the amount of the underpayment as determined under subsection (b), for the period of the underpayment, as determined under subsection (c) of this section.

(b) For the purposes of subsection (a), the amount of the underpayment shall be the excess of:

1. The amount of the installment which would be required to be paid if the estimated tax were equal to seventy per cent (70%) (sixty-six and two-thirds per cent (66⅔%) in the case of individuals referred to in G. S. 105-163.11 (f), relating to income from farming and commercial fishing) of the tax shown on the return for the taxable year or, if no return was filed, seventy per cent (70%) (sixty-six and two-thirds per cent (66⅔%) in the case of individuals referred to in G. S. 105-163.11 (f), relating to income from farming) of the tax for such year, over

2. The amount, if any, of the installment paid on or before the last date prescribed for such payment.

(c) The period of the underpayment shall run from the date the installment was required to be paid to whichever of the following dates is the earlier:

1. The 15th day of the fourth month following the close of the taxable year.

2. With respect to any portion of the underpayment, the date on which such portion is paid. For purposes of this paragraph, a payment of estimated tax on any installment date shall be considered a payment of any previous underpayment only to the extent such payment exceeds the amount of the installment determined under subsection (b) (1) for such installment date.

(d) Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding subsections, the addition to the tax with respect to any underpayment of any installment shall not be imposed if the total amount of all payments of estimated tax made on or before the last date prescribed for the payment of such installment equals or exceeds whichever of the following is the lesser:

1. The amount which would have been required to be paid on or before such date if the estimated tax were whichever of the following is the least:
   a. The tax shown on the return of the individual for the preceding taxable year, if a return showing a liability for tax was filed by the individual for the preceding taxable year and such preceding year was a taxable year of 12 months, or
   b. An amount equal to the tax computed, at the rates applicable to the taxable year, on the basis of the taxpayer's status with respect to personal exemptions under article 4 of the taxable year, but otherwise on the basis of the facts shown on his return for, and the law applicable to, the preceding taxable year, or
   c. An amount equal to seventy per cent (70%) (sixty-six and two-thirds per cent (66⅔%) in the case of individuals referred to in G. S. 105-163.11 (f), relating to income from farming and commercial fishing) of the tax for the taxable year.
computed by placing on an annualized basis the taxable income for the months in the taxable year ending before the month in which the installment is required to be paid. For purposes of this subparagraph, the taxable income shall be placed on an annualized basis by:

1. Multiplying by 12 (or, in case of a taxable year of less than 12 months, the number of months in the taxable year) the taxable income (computed without deduction of personal exemptions) for the months in the taxable year ending before the month in which the installment is required to be paid.

2. Dividing the resulting amount by the number of months in the taxable year ending before the month in which such installment date falls, and

3. Deducting from such amount the deductions for personal exemptions allowable for the taxable year (such personal exemptions being determined as of the last date prescribed for payment of the installment); or

(2) An amount equal to ninety per cent (90%) of the tax computed, at the rates applicable to the taxable year, on the basis of the actual taxable income for the months in the taxable year ending before the month in which the installment is required to be paid.

(e) For purposes of applying this section—

(1) The estimated tax shall be computed without any reduction for the amount which the individual estimates as his credit under G. S. 105-163.10 (relating to tax withheld at source on wages), and

(2) The amount of the credit allowed under G. S. 105-163.10 for the taxable year shall be deemed a payment of estimated tax, and an equal part of such amount shall be deemed paid on each installment date (as determined under G. S. 105-163.14) for such taxable year, unless the taxpayer establishes the dates on which all amounts were actually withheld, in which case the amounts so withheld shall be deemed payments of estimated tax on the dates on which such amounts were actually withheld.

(f) The application of this section to taxable years of less than twelve months shall be in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Commissioner.

(g) Except as otherwise provided in this article, all provisions of articles 4 and 9 of this chapter relating to penalties for failure to file returns or pay taxes when due under said articles shall apply with respect to returns, declarations, and payments of tax by any individual, or failure to file returns or other records or make payment of withholding taxes or sums withheld from wages by any employer, pursuant to the provisions of this article. The penalties provided by articles 4 and 9 shall apply with respect to delinquencies for periods of time not specifically provided for in this article. (1959, c. 1259, s. 1; 1963, c. 785, ss. 3, 4.)

Editor's Note. — The 1963 amendment inserted “and commercial fishing” in the first parenthetical clause of subdivision (1) of subsection (b) and in the first sentence of paragraph c of subsection (d), subdivision (1).

§ 105-163.16. Overpayment refunded.—(a) Where the amount of wages withheld at the source under G. S. 105-163.2 exceeds the taxes imposed by article 4 of this chapter against which the tax so withheld may be credited under G. S. 105-163.10, the amount of such excess shall be considered an overpayment by the employee, and, notwithstanding the provisions of G. S. 105-266 and G. S. 105-266.1, overpayment by the employee shall be refunded by the Commissioner under the provisions of this section.

(b) Where the amount of estimated tax paid under the provisions of G. S. 105-163.14 exceeds the taxes imposed by article 4 of this chapter against which § 105-163.17. Enforcement. — Except as otherwise provided in this article, all provisions of articles 4 and 9 of this chapter relating to assessments, interest on delinquent payments, liens and collections with respect to taxes shall apply to all taxes and to the withholding of proper amounts from employees' wages for which an employer is responsible pursuant to this article, and the procedure with respect thereto shall be the same as provided in said articles 4 and 9 with respect to assessment and collection of taxes.

Any employer required under the provisions of this article to deduct and withhold from wages and make returns and payment of amounts withheld to the Commissioner, who fails to withhold such amounts, or to make such returns, or who fails to remit amounts collected to the Commissioner, or otherwise fails to remit to the Commissioner as required by this article, shall be subject to a penalty equal to twenty-five per cent (25%) of the amount that should have been properly withheld and paid over to the Commissioner for each such failure. Such penalty shall be assessed and collected by the Commissioner in the same manner as is provided with respect to penalties on delinquent income tax payments under the provisions of articles 4 and 9 of this chapter.

The withholding of the proper amounts of an employee's wages pursuant to this article and the payment of proper amounts to the Commissioner as herein required, whether withheld in fact or not, shall be subject to all the provisions of articles 4 and 9 of this chapter relating to payment of income taxes, not inconsistent with this article. (1959, c. 1259, s. 1.)

§ 105-163.18. Rules and regulations.—The Commissioner is hereby authorized to prescribe forms and make all rules and regulations which he deems necessary in order to achieve effective and efficient enforcement of this article. (1959, c. 1259, s. 1.)
§ 105-163.19. Wilful failure to collect or pay over tax.—Any person required under this article to deduct and withhold, account for, make returns and pay over any tax imposed by article 4 and required to be withheld from wages and paid over under the provisions of this article who wilfully fails to withhold, collect and truthfully account for, make returns and pay over such tax shall, in addition to other penalties provided by law, be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be subject to a fine not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500.00) or imprisonment not to exceed six months, or both, in the discretion of the court. (1959, c. 1259, s. 1.)

§ 105-163.20. Wilful failure to file declaration, amended declaration or pay estimated tax.—Any person required under this article to file any declaration, amended declaration, or to pay estimated tax, or required by the provisions of this article or regulations made under the authority thereof to make any return or furnish any information, who wilfully fails to file such declarations, amended declarations and such other returns as may be required, or who wilfully fails to pay any estimated tax, at the time or times required by law or regulations, shall, in addition to other penalties provided by law, be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be subject to a fine not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500.00) or imprisonment not to exceed six months, or both, in the discretion of the court. (1959, c. 1259, s. 1.)

§ 105-163.21. Penalty for making false statement.—Any person who knowingly falsifies any statement, certificate or return required under this article or under any rule or regulation promulgated by the Commissioner of Revenue under authority of this article shall, in addition to other penalties provided by law, be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be subject to a fine not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500.00) or imprisonment not to exceed six months, or both, in the discretion of the court. (1959, c. 1259, s. 1.)

§ 105-163.22. Reciprocity. — The Commissioner of Revenue may, with the approval of the Attorney General, enter into agreements with the taxing authorities of states having income tax withholding statutes with such agreements to govern the amounts to be withheld from the wages and salaries of residents of such other state or states under the provisions of this article when such other state or states grant similar treatment to the residents of this State. Such agreements may provide for recognition of the anticipated tax credits allowed under the provisions of G. S. 105-151 in determining the amounts to be withheld. (1959, c. 1259, s. 1.)

§ 105-163.23. Withholding from federal employees.—The Commissioner of Revenue is hereby designated as the proper official to make request for and enter into agreements with the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States to provide for the compliance with this article by the head of each department or agency of the United States in withholding of State income taxes from wages of federal employees and paying the same to this State. The Commissioner is hereby authorized, empowered and directed to make request for and enter into such agreements. (1959, c. 1259, s. 1.)

§ 105-163.24. Construction of article. — This article shall be liberally construed in pari materia with article 4 of this chapter to the end that taxes levied by article 4 shall be collected with respect to wages by withholding from wages by employers of the appropriate amounts herein provided for and by payments in installments by individuals of income tax with respect to income other than wages. (1959, c. 1259, s. 1.)
ARTICLE 4B.

§ 105-163.25. Definitions.—As used in this article,
(1) "Commissioner" means the Commissioner of Revenue.
(2) "Corporation" includes joint-stock companies or associations.
(3) "Fiscal year" means an accounting period of twelve months ending on the last day of any month other than December.
(4) The words "taxable year" mean the calendar year or fiscal year upon the basis of which the net income is computed under article 4; if no fiscal year has been established, they mean the calendar year. In the case of a return made for a fractional part of the year under the provisions of article 4, or under regulations prescribed by the Commissioner, the words "taxable year" mean the period for which such return is made.
(5) The term "estimated tax" means the excess of the amount which the corporation estimates as the amount of the income tax imposed by article 4 over the sum of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000).

Editor's Note.—This article is effective as of July 1, 1959.

§ 105-163.26. Declarations of estimated income tax by corporations.—(a) Every corporation subject to taxation under article 4 shall, for all taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1960, and at the times prescribed in G. S. 105-163.27, make a declaration of estimated tax under article 4 for the taxable year if its income tax imposed by article 4 for such taxable year reduced by the credits against the tax provided by article 4 can reasonably be expected to exceed one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000).
(b) The declaration shall contain a statement of the amount which the corporation estimates as its total net income from all sources for the taxable year, the proportion of its total net income allocable to North Carolina, the amount which it estimates as the amount of tax for which it will be liable for the taxable year, and such other information as may be required by the Commissioner.
(c) A corporation may make amendments of a declaration filed during the taxable year under regulations prescribed by the Commissioner.
(d) The application of this section to taxable years of less than twelve months shall be in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Commissioner. (1959, c. 1259, s. 1A.)

§ 105-163.27. Time for filing declarations of estimated income tax by corporations.—(a) The declaration of estimated tax required of corporations by G. S. 105-163.26 shall be filed on or before the 15th day of the 9th month of the taxable year, except that if the requirements of G. S. 105-163.26 are first met after the last day of the 8th month and before the 1st day of the 12th month of the taxable year, the declaration shall be filed on or before the 15th day of the 12th month of the taxable year.
(b) If a declaration is filed before the 15th day of the 12th month of the taxable year, an amendment of such declaration may be filed on or before such day.
(c) The application of this section to taxable years of less than 12 months shall be in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Commissioner. (1959, c. 1259, s. 1A.)

§ 105-163.28. Installment payments of estimated income tax by corporations.—(a) Notwithstanding the provisions of article 4, fifty per cent (50%) of the estimated tax, with respect to which a declaration is required un-
§ 105-163.29. Payments of estimated income tax. — Payment of the estimated income tax, or any installment thereof, shall be considered payment on account of the income taxes imposed by article 4 for the taxable year. (1959, c. 1259, s. 1A.)

§ 105-163.30. Failure by corporation to pay estimated income tax. — (a) In the case of any underpayment of estimated tax by a corporation, except as provided in subsection (d), there shall be added to the tax under article 4 for the taxable year an amount determined at the rate of six per cent (6%) per annum upon the amount of the underpayment (determined under subsection (b)) for the period of the underpayment (determined under subsection (c)).

(b) For the purposes of subsection (a), the amount of the underpayment shall be the excess of

(1) The amount of the installment which would be required to be paid if the estimated tax were equal to seventy per cent (70%) of the tax shown on the return for the taxable year or, if no return was filed, seventy per cent (70%) of the tax for such year, over

(2) The amount, if any, of the installment paid on or before the last day prescribed for payment.

(c) The period of the underpayment shall run from the date the installment was required to be paid to whichever of the following dates is the earlier—

(1) The 15th day of the 3rd month following the close of the taxable year.

(2) With respect to any portion of the underpayment, the date on which such portion is paid. For purposes of this paragraph, a payment of estimated tax on the 15th day of the 12th month shall be considered a payment of any previous underpayment only to the extent such payment exceeds the amount of the installment determined under subsection (b)(1) for the 15th day of the 12th month.

(d) Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding subsections, the addition to the tax with respect to any underpayment of any installment shall not be imposed if the total amount of all payments of estimated tax made on or before the last date prescribed for the payment of such installment equals or exceeds the amount which would have been required to be paid on or before such date if the estimated tax were whichever of the following is lesser—

(1) The tax shown on the return of the corporation for the preceding taxable year reduced by one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), if a return showing a liability for tax was filed by the corporation for the preceeding taxable year and such preceding year was a taxable year of 12 months.

(2) An amount equal to the tax computed at the rate applicable to the taxable year but otherwise on the basis of the facts shown on the return of the corporation for, and the law applicable to, the preceeding taxable year.

a. An amount equal to seventy per cent (70%) of the tax for the taxable year computed by placing on an annualized basis the taxable income:
1. For the first 6 months or for the first 8 months of the taxable year, in the case of the installment required to be paid in the ninth month, and
2. For the first 9 months or for the first 11 months of the taxable year, in the case of the installment required to be paid in the twelfth month.

b. For purposes of this paragraph, the taxable income shall be placed on an annualized basis by—
1. Multiplying by 12 the taxable income referred to in subparagraph a, and
2. Dividing the resulting amount by the number of months in the taxable year (6 or 8, or 9 or 11, as the case may be) referred to in subparagraph a.

(e) For purposes of subsections (b), (d) (2), and (d) (3), the term "tax" means the excess of the tax imposed by article 4, over the sum of one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000).

(f) The application of this section to taxable years of less than twelve months shall be in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Commissioner. (1959, c. 1259, s. 1A.)

§ 105-163.31. Filing of declarations and other returns hereunder.
— The declarations, amended declarations or any information returns required under the provisions of this article from any corporation shall be signed by either its president, vice-president, treasurer, assistant treasurer, secretary or assistant secretary. In a case where a receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, or assignee, by order of a court of competent jurisdiction, by operation of law or otherwise, has possession of or holds title to all or substantially all of the property or business of a corporation, whether or not such property or business is being operated, such receiver, trustee, or assignee shall make and sign the declarations, amended declarations or any information returns for such corporation in the same manner and form as corporations are required to make same. (1959, c. 1259, s. 1A.)

§ 105-163.32. Affirmation; penalties for false declaration.—Whenever any declaration, amended declaration or information returns required under the provisions of this article shall be furnished to the Commissioner, there shall be annexed thereto the affirmation of the person furnishing same, in the following form: "I hereby affirm that this declaration, amended declaration, or return, including any schedules and attachments thereto, has been examined by me, and, to the best of my knowledge and belief, is true and complete and is made in good faith covering the taxable period stated, pursuant to the Revenue Act of 1939, as amended, and the regulations issued under authority thereof, and that this affirmation is made under the penalties prescribed by law." Any individual who wilfully makes and subscribes a declaration, amended declaration, or return required by this article, which he does not believe to be true and correct as to every material matter, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be subject to a fine not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) or imprisonment not to exceed six months, or both, in the discretion of the court. The Com-
§ 105-163.33. Overpayment refunded.—Where there has been an overpayment of estimated tax, such overpayment shall be credited to the taxpayer and applied to the tax imposed upon such taxpayer by article 4. No refunds for overpayment of estimated tax shall be made by the Commissioner prior to the filing of the annual return required from the taxpayer under article 4, but, after the annual return is filed, any overpayments shall be refunded in accordance with the provisions of article 4. (1959, c. 1259, s. 1A.)

§ 105-163.34. Enforcement.—Except as otherwise provided in this article, all provisions of articles 4 and 9 of chapter 105 of the General Statutes relating to assessments, liens and collections with respect to taxes shall apply to all payments for which a corporation is responsible under the provisions of this article, and the procedure with respect thereto shall be the same as provided in articles 4 and 9. (1959, c. 1259, s. 1A.)

§ 105-163.35. Wilful failure to pay estimated tax.—Any person required under this article to pay any estimated tax, who wilfully fails to pay such estimated tax, at the time or times required by law or regulations, shall, in addition to other penalties provided by law, be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not more than five hundred dollars ($500.00) or imprisoned not exceeding six months, or punished by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court, within the limitations aforesaid. (1959, c. 1259, s. 1A.)

§ 105-163.37. Rules and regulations. — The Commissioner is hereby authorized to prescribe forms and to make all rules and regulations which he deems necessary to achieve effective and efficient enforcement of this article. (1959, c. 1259, s. 1A.)

Article 5.

Schedule E. Sales and Use Tax.

§ 105-164: Repealed by Session Laws 1957, c. 1340, s. 5.

Division I. Title, Purpose and Definitions.

§ 105-164.1. Short title.—This article shall be known as the “North Carolina Sales and Use Tax Act.” (1957, c. 1340, s. 5.)

Editor's Note. — Section 5 of the act inserting this article became effective July 1, 1957. It repealed article 8 of chapter 105 of the General Statutes and all other laws and clauses of laws in conflict with the act, but provided that all the provisions of articles 5 and 9 of chapter 105 of the General Statutes in force immediately prior to July 1, 1957 shall continue in force with respect to any liability for any sales or use taxes incurred with respect to any period of time prior to July 1, 1957. For case law survey on sales tax, see 41 N. C. Law Rev. 508.

Power of Legislature. — The power of the legislature to levy taxes of the character provided in this article has long been settled. Duke v. State, 247 N. C. 236, 100 S. E. (2d) 506 (1957).

Sales Tax Is a Privilege or License
§ 105-164.2  Purpose.—The taxes herein imposed shall be in addition to all other license, privilege or excise taxes and the taxes levied by this article are to provide revenue for the support of the public school system of this State and for other necessary uses and purposes of the government and State of North Carolina. (1957, c. 1340, s. 5.)

§ 105-164.3  Definitions.—The words, terms and phrases when used in this article shall have the meanings ascribed to them in this section except when the context clearly indicates a different meaning:

(1) "Business" shall include any activity engaged in by any person or caused to be engaged in by him with the object of gain, profit, benefit or advantage, either direct or indirect. The term "business" shall not be construed in this article to include occasional and isolated sales or transactions by a person who does not hold himself out as engaged in business.

(2) "Commissioner" shall mean the Commissioner of Revenue of the State of North Carolina.

(3) "Consumer" shall mean and include every person storing, using or otherwise consuming in this State tangible personal property purchased or received from a retailer either within or without this State.

(4) "Cost price" means the actual cost of articles of tangible personal property without any deductions therefrom on account of the cost of materials used, labor or service costs, transportation charges or any expenses whatsoever.

(5) "Engaged in business" shall mean maintaining, occupying or using permanently or temporarily, directly or indirectly, or through a subsidiary or agent, by whatever name called, any office, place of distribution, sales or sample room or place, warehouse or storage place, or other place of business, for the selling or delivering of tangible personal property for storage, use or consumption in this State, or permanently or temporarily, directly or through a subsidiary, having any representative, agent, salesman, canvasser or solicitor operating in this State in such selling or delivering, and the fact that any corporate retailer, agent or subsidiary engaged in business in this State may not... be legally domesticated or qualified to do business in this State shall be immaterial.

(6) "Gross sales" means the sum total of all retail sales of tangible personal property as defined herein, whether for cash or credit without allowance for cash discount and without any deduction on account of the cost of the property sold, the cost of materials used, labor or service costs, interest paid or any other expenses whatsoever and without any deductions of any kind or character except as provided in this article.

(7) “In this (the) State” means within the exterior limits of the State of North Carolina and includes all territory within such limits owned by or ceded to the United States of America.

(8) “Lease or rental” means the leasing or renting of tangible personal property and the possession or use thereof by the lessee or rentee for a consideration without transfer of the title of such property.

(9) “Net taxable sales” shall mean and include the gross retail sales of the business of the retailer taxed under this article after deducting therefrom exempt sales and nontaxable sales.

(10) “Nonresident retail or wholesale merchant” shall mean every person whose business establishment is located outside North Carolina and who engages in the business of buying or acquiring by consignment or otherwise any tangible personal property and selling the same at retail or wholesale and who has applied for and obtained from the Commissioner a certificate of registration in accordance with such rules and regulations as may be prescribed for the issuance thereof.

(11) “Person” includes any individual, firm, co-partnership, joint venture, association, corporation, estate, trust, business trust, receiver, syndicate or other group, or combination acting as a unit, body politic, or political subdivision, whether public or private or quasipublic and the plural as well as the singular number.

(12) “Purchase” means acquired for a consideration whether
   a. Such acquisition was effected by a transfer of title or possession, or both, or a license to use or consume;
   b. Such transfer shall have been absolute or conditional and by whatever means it shall have been effected; and
   c. Such consideration be a price or rental in money or by way of exchange or barter.
It shall also include the procuring of a retailer to erect, install or apply tangible personal property for use in this State.

(13) “Retail” shall mean the sale of any tangible personal property in any quantity or quantities for any use or purpose on the part of the purchaser other than for resale.

(14) “Retailer” means and includes every person engaged in the business of making sales of tangible personal property at retail, either within or without this State, or peddling the same or soliciting or taking orders for sales, whether for immediate or future delivery, for storage, use or consumption in this State and every manufacturer, producer or contractor engaged in business in this State and selling, delivering, erecting, installing or applying tangible personal property for use in this State notwithstanding that said property may be permanently affixed to a building or realty or other tangible personal property. Provided, however, that when in the opinion of the Commissioner it is necessary for the efficient administration of this article to regard any salesmen, solicitors, representatives, consignees, peddlers, truckers or canvassers as agents of the dealers, distributors, consignors, supervisors, employers or persons under whom they operate or from whom they obtain the tangible personal property sold by them regardless of whether they are making sales on their own behalf or on behalf of such dealers, distributors, consignors, supervisors, employers or persons, the Commissioner may so regard them and may regard the dealers, distributors, consignors, supervisors, employers or persons as "retailers" for the purpose of this article.

(15) "Sale" or "selling" shall mean any transfer of title or possession, or both, exchange, barter, lease, or rental of tangible personal property, conditional or otherwise, in any manner or by any means whatsoever, however effected and by whatever name called, for a consideration paid or to be paid, and includes the fabrication of tangible personal property for consumers by persons engaged in business who furnish either directly or indirectly the materials used in the fabrication work, and the furnishing, preparing, or serving for a consideration of any tangible personal property consumed on the premises of the person furnishing, preparing, or serving such tangible personal property or consumed at the place at which such property is prepared, served or sold. A transaction whereby the possession of the property is transferred but the seller retains title or security for the payment of the price shall be deemed a sale.

(16) "Sales price" means the total amount for which tangible personal property is sold including charges for any services that go into the fabrication, manufacture or delivery of such tangible personal property and that are a part of the sale valued in money whether paid in money or otherwise and includes any amount for which credit is given to the purchaser by the seller without any deduction therefrom on account of the cost of the property sold, the cost of materials used, labor or service costs, interest charged, losses or any other expenses whatsoever. Provided, however, that where a manufacturer, producer or contractor, erects, installs or applies tangible personal property for the account of or under contract with the owner of realty or other property, the sales price shall be the fair market value of such property at the time and place of such erection, installation or application. Provided, further:

a. The cost for labor or services rendered in erecting, installing or applying property sold when separately charged shall not be included as a part of the "sales price";

b. Finance charges, service charges or interest from credit extended under conditional sales contracts or other conditional contracts providing for deferred payments of the purchase price shall not be considered a part of the "sales price" when separately charged;

c. "Sales price" shall not include the amount of any tax imposed by the United States upon or with respect to retail sales whether imposed upon the retailer or consumer except that any manufacturers' or importers' excise tax shall be included in the term.

(17) "Storage" means and includes any keeping or retention in this State for any purpose except sale in the regular course of business of tangible personal property purchased from a retailer.

(18) "Use" means and includes the exercise of any right or power or dominion whatsoever over tangible personal property by a purchaser thereof and includes, but is not limited to, any withdrawal from storage, installation, affixation to real or personal property, exhaustion or consumption of tangible personal property by the owner or purchaser thereof, but shall not include the sale of tangible personal property in the regular course of business.

(19) "Storage" and "Use"; Exclusion.—"Storage" and "use" do not include the keeping, retaining or exercising any right or power over tangible personal property for the original purpose of subsequently transporting it outside the State for use thereafter solely outside the State and which purpose is consummated, or for the purpose of being processed, fabricated, or manufactured into, attached to or incorporated into, other tangible personal property to be transported outside the State and thereafter used solely outside the State.

(20) "Tangible personal property" means and includes personal property which may be seen, weighed, measured, felt or touched or in any other manner perceptible to the senses. The term "tangible personal property" shall not include stocks, bonds, notes, insurance or other obligations or securities, nor shall it include electricity, gas or water delivered by or through main lines or pipes either for commercial or domestic use or consumption.

(21) "Taxpayer" means any person liable for taxes under this article.

(22) "Use tax" means and includes the tax imposed by Part 3 in Division II of this article.

(23) "Wholesale merchant" shall mean every person who engages in the business of buying or manufacturing any tangible personal property and selling same to registered retailers, wholesalers and nonresident retail or wholesale merchants for resale. It shall also include persons making sales of tangible personal property which are defined herein as wholesale sales. For the purposes of this article any person, firm, corporation, estate or trust engaged in the business of manufacturing, producing, processing or blending any articles of commerce and maintaining a store or stores, warehouse or warehouses, or any other place or places, separate and apart from the place of manufacture or production, for the sale or distribution of its products (other than bakery products) to other manufacturers or producers, wholesale or retail merchants, for the purpose of resale shall be deemed a "wholesale merchant".

(24) "Wholesale sale" shall mean a sale of tangible personal property by a wholesale merchant to a manufacturer, or registered jobber or dealer, or registered wholesale or retail merchant, for the purpose of resale but does not include a sale to users or consumers not for resale. (1957, c. 1340, s. 5; 1959, c. 1259, s. 5; 1961, c. 1213, s. 1.)

Editor's Note. — The 1959 amendment made changes in subdivisions (10), (15), (17), (19), (23) and (24).

The 1961 amendment, effective July 1, 1961, changed the second sentence of subdivision (23) and deleted the former second sentence of subdivision (24).

Meaning of "Sale" under Former Statute.—Watson Industries v. Shaw, 235 N. C. 203, 69 S. E. (2d) 505 (1952); holding that the word "sale" did not embrace a transaction whereby a radio broadcasting station was given temporary custody of transcription tape or records in order to rebroadcast the programs contained thereon.

Division II. Taxes Levied.

Part 1. Retail Sales Tax.

§ 105-164.4. Imposition of tax; retailer.—There is hereby levied and imposed, in addition to all other taxes of every kind now imposed by law, a privilege or license tax upon every person who engages in the business of selling tangible personal property at retail, renting or furnishing tangible personal property or the renting and furnishing of rooms, lodgings and accommodations to transients, in this State, the same to be collected and the amount to be determined by the application of the following rates against gross sales and rentals, to wit:

(1) At the rate of three per cent (3%) of the sales price of each item or article of tangible personal property when sold at retail in this State.
the tax to be computed on total net taxable sales as defined herein but for the purpose of computing the amount due the State each and every taxable retail sale, or retail sales upon which the tax has been collected, or the amount of tax actually collected, whichever be greater and whether or not erroneously collected, shall be included in the computation tax due the State. Provided, however, that in the case of the sale of any airplane, railway locomotive, railway car or the sale of any motor vehicle, the tax shall be only at the rate of one per cent (1%) of the sales price, and on all such sales on and after July 1, 1962, the tax shall be at the rate of one and one-half per cent (11/2%) of the sales price, but at no time shall the maximum tax with respect to any one such airplane, railway locomotive, railway car or motor vehicle, including all accessories attached thereto at the time of delivery thereof to the purchaser, be in excess of one hundred twenty dollars ($120.00).

For the purposes of this section, the words “motor vehicle” mean any vehicle which is self-propelled and designed primarily for use upon the highways, any vehicle which is propelled by electric power obtained from trolley wires but not operated upon rails, and any vehicle designed to run upon the highways which is pulled by a self-propelled vehicle, but shall not include any implement of husbandry, farm tractor, road construction or maintenance machinery, or equipment, special mobile equipment as defined in G. S. 20-38, nor any vehicle designed primarily for use in work off the highway. For the purposes of this subdivision, the sale separately of a new motor vehicle chassis and a new motor vehicle body to be installed thereon, whether by the same retailer or different retailers, shall be subject only to the tax herein prescribed with respect to a single motor vehicle.

Provided further, in addition to all other taxes, there is hereby levied and imposed upon every person for the privilege of using the streets and highways of this State, a tax at the rate of one per cent (1%) of the sales or purchase price of any motor vehicle, new chassis and/ or new body as defined, described and limited in this section, including all accessories attached thereto at the time of delivery thereof to the purchaser, purchased or acquired for use on the streets and highways of this State, and on and after July 1, 1962, at the rate of one and one-half per cent (11/2%) of the sales or purchase price, but at no time shall said tax exceed one hundred twenty dollars ($120.00) with respect to any one motor vehicle, and the same shall be paid to the Commissioner of Revenue at the time of applying for certificates of title or registration of such motor vehicle. No certificate of title or registration plate shall be issued for same unless and until said tax has been paid: Provided, however, if such person so applying for certificate of title or registration and license plate for such motor vehicle shall furnish to the Commissioner of Revenue a certificate from a motor vehicle dealer licensed to do business in this State, upon a form furnished by the Commissioner, certifying that such person has paid the tax thereon levied in this article, the tax herein levied shall be remitted to such person to avoid in effect double taxation on said motor vehicle under this article. It is not the intention of this section to impose any tax upon a body mounted upon the chassis of a motor vehicle which temporarily enters the State for the purpose of having such body mounted thereon by the manufacturer thereof.

The tax levied under this subdivision shall not apply to the owner of a motor vehicle who purchases or acquires said motor vehicle from some person, firm or corporation who or which is not a dealer in new and/or used motor vehicles if the tax levied under this article has been paid with respect to said motor vehicle.

Provided further, the tax shall be only at the rate of one per cent (1%) of the sales price on the following items:

a. Horses or mules by whomsoever sold.
b. Semen to be used in the artificial insemination of animals.
c. Sales of fuels to farmers to be used by them for any farm purposes other than preparing food, heating dwellings and other household purposes. The quantity of fuel purchased or used at any one time shall not in any manner be a determinative factor as to whether any sale or use of fuel is or is not subject to the one per cent (1%) rate of tax imposed herein.
d. Sales of fuel to manufacturing industries and manufacturing plants for use in connection with the operation of such industries and plants other than sales of fuels to be used for residential heating purposes. The quantity of fuel purchased or used at any one time shall not in any manner be a determinative factor as to whether any sale or use of fuel is or is not subject to the one per cent (1%) rate of tax imposed herein.
e. Sales of fuel to commercial laundries or to pressing and dry cleaning establishments for use in machinery used in the direct performance of the laundering or the pressing and cleaning service.
f. Sales to freezer locker plants of wrapping paper, cartons and supplies consumed directly in the operation of such plant.

Provided further, the tax shall be only at the rate of one per cent (1%) of the sales price, subject to a maximum tax of eighty dollars ($80.00) per article, on the following items:

g. Sales of machines and machinery, whether animal or motor drawn or operated, and parts and accessories for such machines and machinery to farmers for use by them in the planting, cultivating, harvesting or curing of farm crops, and sales of machines and machinery and parts and accessories for such machines and machinery to dairy operators, poultry farmers, egg producers, and livestock farmers for use by them in the production of dairy products, poultry, eggs or livestock.

The term "machines and machinery" as used in this subdivision is defined as follows:

The term shall include all vehicular implements, designed and sold for any use defined in this subdivision, which are operated, drawn or propelled by motor or animal power, but shall not include vehicular implements which are operated wholly by hand, and shall not include any motor vehicles required to be registered under chapter 20 of the General Statutes.

The term shall include all nonvehicular implements and mechanical devices designed and sold for any use defined in this subdivision, which have moving parts, or which require the use of any motor or animal power, fuel, or electricity in their operation but shall not include nonvehicular implements which have no moving parts and are operated wholly by hand.

The term shall also include metal flues sold for use in curing tobacco, whether such flues are attached to hand-fired furnaces or used in connection with mechanical burners.

h. Sales of mill machinery or mill machinery parts and accessories to manufacturing industries and plants.
i. Sales of central office equipment and switchboard and private branch exchange equipment to telephone and telegraph companies regularly engaged in providing telephone and telegraph service to subscribers on a commercial basis.

j. Sales to commercial laundries or to pressing and dry cleaning establishments of machinery used in the direct performance of the laundering or the pressing and cleaning service and of parts and accessories thereto.

k. Sales to freezer locker plants of machinery used in the direct operation of said freezer locker plant and of parts and accessories thereto.

l. Sales of broadcasting equipment and parts and accessories thereto and towers to commercial radio and television companies which are under the regulation and supervision of the Federal Communications Commission.

(2) At the rate of three per cent (3%) of the gross proceeds derived from the lease or rental of tangible personal property as defined herein, where the lease or rental of such property is an established business, or the same is incidental or germane to said business; except that whenever a rate of less than three per cent (3%) is applicable to a sale of property which is leased or rented, the lower rate of tax shall be due on such lease or rental proceeds.

(3) Operators of hotels, motels, tourist homes and tourist camps shall be considered "retailers" for the purposes of this article. There is hereby levied upon every person, firm or corporation engaged in the business of operating hotels, and every person, firm or corporation engaged in the business of operating tourist homes, tourist camps and similar places of business, a tax of three per cent (3%) of the gross receipts derived from the rental of any room or rooms, lodgings, or accommodations furnished to transients at any hotel, motel, inn, tourist camp, tourist cabin or any other place in which rooms, lodgings or accommodations are regularly furnished to transients for a consideration. The tax shall not apply, however, to any room, lodging or accommodation supplied to the same person for a period of 90 continuous days or more. Every person subject to the provisions of this section shall register and secure a license in the manner provided in subdivision (7) of this section, and, insofar as practicable, all other provisions of this article shall also be applicable with respect to the tax herein provided for.

(4) Every person, firm or corporation engaged in the business of operating a pressing club, cleaning plant, hat blocking establishment, dry cleaning plant, laundry (including wet or damp wash laundries and businesses known as launderettes and launderalls), or any similar type business, or engaged in the business of renting clean linen or towels or wearing apparel, or any similar type business, or engaged in the business of soliciting cleaning, pressing, hat blocking, laundering or rental business for any of the aforementioned businesses, shall be considered "retailers" for the purposes of this article. There is hereby levied upon every such person, firm or corporation a tax of three per cent (3%) of the gross receipts derived from services rendered in engaging in any of the occupations or businesses named in this subdivision, and every person, firm or corporation subject to the provisions of this subdivision shall register and secure a license in the manner herein-after provided in this section, and, insofar as practicable, all other provisions of this article shall be applicable with respect to the tax herein provided for. The taxes levied in this subdivision are additional privilege or license taxes for the privilege of engaging in the occupations or businesses named herein. Any person, firm or corporation engaged in cleaning, pressing, hat blocking, laundering for, or supplying clean linen or towels or wearing apparel to, another person, firm or corporation engaged in soliciting shall not be required to pay the three per cent (3%) tax on its gross receipts derived through such solicitor, if the soliciting person, firm or corporation has registered with the Department, secured the license hereinafter required and has paid the tax at the rate of three per cent (3%) of the total gross receipts derived from business solicited. Persons, firms and corporations required to be licensed under this article and to pay the taxes imposed by this subdivision shall not hereafter be subject to the one per cent (1%) of gross receipts taxes levied under G. S. 105-74 and 105-85, with respect to gross receipts collected on and after July 1, 1961.

5. The said tax shall be collected from the retailer as defined herein and paid by him at the time and in the manner as hereinafter provided. Provided, however, that any person engaging or continuing in business as a retailer shall pay the tax required on the net taxable sales of such business at the rates specified when proper books are kept showing separately the gross proceeds of taxable and nontaxable sales of tangible personal property in such form as may be accurately and conveniently checked by the Commissioner or his duly authorized agent. If such records are not kept separately the tax shall be paid as a retailer on the gross sales of business and the exemptions and exclusions provided by this article shall not be allowed.

6. The tax so levied is and shall be in addition to all other taxes whether levied in the form of excise, license or privilege or other taxes.

7. Any person who shall engage or continue in any business for which a privilege tax is imposed by this article shall immediately after July 1, 1957, apply for and obtain from the Commissioner upon payment of the sum of one dollar ($1.00) a license to engage in and conduct such business upon the condition that such person shall pay the tax accruing to the State of North Carolina under the provisions of this article and he shall thereby be duly licensed and registered to engage in and conduct such business. The license tax levied in this section shall be a continuing license until revoked for failure to comply with the provisions of this article. Provided, however, that any person who has heretofore applied for and obtained such license and the same is in force and effect as of July 1, 1957, shall not be required to apply for and obtain a new license. (1957, c. 1340, s. 5; 1959, c. 1259, s. 5; 1961, c. 826, s. 2; 1963, c. 1169, ss. 3, 11.)

Editor's Note.—The cases cited to the last three paragraphs of this annotation were decided under the former law.

The 1959 amendment rewrote the first paragraph of subdivision (1).

The 1961 amendment, effective July 1, 1961, rewrote the proviso at the end of the first paragraph of subdivision (1), deleted a clause at the end of the second paragraph formerly appearing after "single motor vehicle," rewrote the proviso constituting the first sentence of the third paragraph and added all of the subdivision beginning with the fifth paragraph. It renumbered former subdivisions (4), (5) and (6) as (5), (6) and (7), respectively, and inserted new subdivision (4).

The 1963 amendment, effective July 1, 1963, inserted "railway locomotive, railway car" twice in the second sentence of subdivision (1), substituted "regularly engaged in providing telephone and telegraph service to subscribers on a commercial basis" for "which are under the regulation and supervision of the North Carolina Utilities Commission" at the end of paragraph (i) of subdivision (1), and added the exception at the end of subdivision (2).

Same — Explanation. — The 1961 engrossed bill actually passed and not the bill as enrolled has been followed in two instances

The enrolled bill failed to state that the comma after "single motor vehicle" in the second paragraph of subdivision (1) should be changed to a period, and the remainder of the paragraph deleted. This codification treats this paragraph exactly as directed by § 105-164.5

The language of the engrossed bill actually passed but not properly enrolled.

The engrossed bill rewrote the proviso constituting the first sentence of the third paragraph of subdivision (1), but the enrolled bill omitted the language expressly so stating. This codification substitutes the new proviso for the old.

Effect of 1961 Amendatory Act.—Section 3 of Session Laws 1961, c. 826, provided that notwithstanding any express repeal contained in the act or any repeal implied from its terms and provisions, the existing revenue laws of the State should continue in full force and effect with respect to all acts and transactions occurring prior to July 1, 1961, affected or which ought to be affected by their terms and provisions, and with respect to all liabilities, criminal as well as civil, incurred or which ought to have been incurred with respect to said acts and transactions occurring prior to July 1, 1961.

Section 3 of the act also provided that it should not be applicable with respect to any building materials purchased for the purpose of fulfilling any lump sum or unit price contract entered into or awarded before July 1, 1961, or entered into or awarded pursuant to any bid made before July 1, 1961, and that with respect to any such building materials purchased, the provisions affected by the act should remain in full force and effect.

Part 2. Wholesale Tax.

§ 105-164.5. Imposition of tax; wholesale merchant.—There is hereby levied and imposed, in addition to all other taxes of every kind now imposed by law, a privilege or license tax upon every person who engages in the business of selling tangible personal property at wholesale in this State as defined herein, the same to be collected and the amount to be determined in the following manner, to wit:

1. Every wholesale merchant as defined in this article shall apply for and obtain an annual license and pay tax therefor of ten dollars ($10.00). Such annual license shall be paid for in advance within the first fifteen days of July in each year or, in the case of a new business, within fifteen days after business is commenced. Manufacturers making wholesale sales, as defined in this article, of their own manufactured products, directly and exclusively from the place where such articles of tangible personal property are manufactured, shall not be required to obtain an annual wholesale license.

2. The sale of any tangible personal property by any wholesale merchant to anyone other than to a registered retailer, wholesale merchant or nonresident retail or wholesale merchant as defined for resale shall be taxable at the rate of tax provided in this article upon the retail sale of tangible personal property.

3. The sale of any tangible personal property by any wholesale merchant to a nonresident retail or wholesale merchant must be in strict compliance with such regulations as may be promulgated by the Commis-
§ 105-164.5a

Commissioner and which are applicable to such sales. Any sale which does not conform to such regulations shall be taxable at the rate of tax provided in this article upon the retail sale of tangible personal property.

(4) Every wholesale merchant who sells tangible personal property to retailers or nonresident retail or wholesale merchants for resale shall deliver to such customer a bill of sale for each sale of such tangible personal property whether sold for cash or on credit and shall make and retain a duplicate or carbon copy of each such bill of sale and shall keep on file all such duplicate bills of sale for at least three years from the date of sale. Failure to comply with the provisions of this subsection shall subject the wholesale merchant to liability for tax upon such sales at the rate of tax levied in this article upon retail sales.

(5) The tax levied is and shall be in addition to all other taxes whether levied in the form of excise, license or privilege or other taxes. (1957, c. 1340, s. 5; 1959, c. 1259, s. 5; 1961, c. 826, s. 2; c. 1213, s. 2.)

Editor’s Note. — The 1959 amendment inserted the third sentence of subdivision (1), changed the fifth sentence thereof, (deleted in 1961), and inserted “or wholesale” after “nonresident retail” in subdivisions (2), (3) and (4).

The first 1961 amendment, effective July 1, 1961, deleted portions of subdivision (1). However, this amendment was superseded by the second 1961 amendment, effective July 1, 1961, which deleted all of subdivision (1) after “license” in the third sentence.

Former statute held applicable to sales by a wholesale secondhand car dealer in this State to retail merchants of another state for the purpose of resale out of this State. Phillips v. Shaw, 238 N. C. 514, 78 S. E. (2d) 314 (1953).

§ 105-164.5a: Repealed by Session Laws 1961, c. 1213, s. 3, effective July 1, 1961.

Editor’s Note.—The repealed section had been amended by Session Laws 1959, c. 1259, s. 5, and Session Laws 1961, c. 826, s. 2.

Part 3. Use Tax.

§ 105-164.6. Imposition of tax.—An excise tax is hereby levied and imposed on the storage, use or consumption in this State of tangible personal property purchased within and without this State for storage, use or consumption in this State, the same to be collected and the amount to be determined by the application of the following rates against the sales price, to wit:

(1) At the rate of three per cent (3%) of the cost price of each item or article of tangible personal property when the same is not sold but used, consumed, distributed or stored for use or consumption in this State; except that, whenever a rate of less than three per cent (3%) is applicable under the sales tax schedule set out in G. S. 105-164.4 to the sale at retail of an item or article of tangible personal property, the same rate shall be used in computing any use tax due under this subdivision.

(2) At the rate of three per cent (3%) of the monthly lease or rental price paid by the lessee or rentee, or contracted or agreed to be paid by the lessee or rentee, to the owner of the tangible personal property; except that, whenever a rate of less than three per cent (3%) is applicable under the sales tax schedule set out in G. S. 105-164.4 to the sale at retail of an item or article of tangible personal property, then the same rate shall be used in computing any use tax due under this subdivision.

(3) There is hereby levied and there shall be collected from every person, firm, or corporation, an excise tax of three per cent (3%) of the purchase price of all tangible personal property purchased or used which shall enter into or become a part of any building or other kind of structure in this State, including all materials, supplies, fixtures and equipment of every kind and description which shall be annexed thereto or in any manner become a part thereof. Provided, however, the taxes levied in this section shall be levied against the purchaser of the articles named. If purchases of building materials that are not exempt from tax are made by a contractor there shall be joint liability for the tax against both contractor and owner, but the liability of the owner shall be satisfied if affidavit is required of the contractor, and furnished by him, before final settlement is made, showing that the tax herein levied has been paid in full.

(4) Where a retail sales tax has already been paid with respect to said tangible personal property in this State by the purchaser thereof, said tax shall be credited upon the tax imposed by this article.

(5) Every person storing, using or otherwise consuming in this State tangible personal property purchased or received at retail either within or without this State shall be liable for the tax imposed by this article and the liability shall not be extinguished until the tax has been paid to this State. Provided, however, that a receipt from a registered retailer engaged in business in this State given to the purchaser in accordance with the provisions of this article shall be prima facie sufficient to relieve the purchaser from liability for the tax to which such receipt may refer and the liability of the purchaser shall be extinguished upon payment of the tax by any retailer from whom he has purchased said property.

(6) Except as provided herein the tax so levied is and shall be in addition to all other taxes whether levied in the form of excise, license, privilege or other taxes.

(7) Every retailer engaged in business in this State selling or delivering tangible personal property for storage, use or consumption in this State shall immediately after July 1, 1957, apply for and obtain from the Commissioner upon the payment of the sum of one dollar ($1.00) a license to engage in and conduct such business upon the condition that such person shall pay the tax accruing to the State of North Carolina under the provisions of this article, and he shall thereby be duly licensed and registered to engage in and conduct such business. Provided, however, that any person who has heretofore applied for and obtained such license and the same is in force and effect as of July 1, 1957, shall not be required to apply for and obtain a new license.

(8) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this article, a use tax, at the applicable use tax rate, as hereinbefore provided, is hereby levied upon the storage or use in this State of any motor vehicles, machinery, tools or other equipment brought, imported or caused to be brought into this State for use in constructing, building or repairing any building, highway, street, sidewalk, bridge, culvert, sewer or water system, drainage or dredging system, electric or steam railway system, reservoir or dam, hydraulic or power plant, transmission line, tower, dock, wharf, excavation, grading or other improvement or structure, or any part thereof. The owner or, if the property is leased the lessee of any such motor vehicle, machine, machinery, tools or other equipment shall be liable for the tax provided for in this paragraph, to be computed as set out below. The useful life of such motor vehicles, machines, tools or other equipment shall be determined by the Commissioner in accordance with the experience and practices of the building and construction trades. Said use tax shall be computed on the basis of such proportion of the original purchase price of such property as the duration of time of use in this State bears to the total useful life thereof. Such tax shall become due immediately upon such property being brought into this State, and in the absence of satisfactory evidence as to the period of use intended in this State, it shall be presumed that such property will remain in this State for the remainder of its useful life. All provisions of this article not directly in conflict with the provisions of this paragraph shall be applicable with respect to the matters herein set forth. The provisions of this paragraph shall not be applicable with respect to sales of such property within this State or to the use, storage or consumption of such property when purchased for use in this State, and in such cases the full sales or use tax shall be paid as in all other cases, irrespective of the period of intended use in this State. (1957, c. 1340, s. 5; 1959, c. 1259, s. 5; 1961, c. 826, s. 2.)

Cross Reference.—See note to § 105-164.4.

Editor's Note.—The cases in this annotation were decided under former statutes relating to the levy of compensating use taxes.

The 1959 amendment deleted the former last sentence of subdivision (5).

The 1961 amendment, effective July 1, 1961, added the exception clauses to subdivisions (1) and (2).

The purpose of the use tax is to remove, insofar as possible, the discrimination against local merchants resulting from the imposition of a sales tax, and to equalize the burden of the tax on property sold locally and that purchased without the State. Watson Industries v. Shaw, 235 N. C. 203, 69 S. E. (2d) 505 (1952).

The use tax is not a sales tax. Its chief function is to prevent the evasion of the sales tax by persons purchasing tangible personal property outside of North Carolina for storage, use, or consumption within the State. Thus it prevents unfair competition on the part of out-of-state merchants. Johnston v. Gill, 224 N. C. 638, 32 S. E. (2d) 30 (1944).

Sales Tax and Use Tax Are Complementary.—The use tax and our sales tax law, taken and applied together, provide a uniform tax upon either the sale or use of all tangible personal property irrespective of where it may be purchased. That is, the sales tax and the use tax are complementary and functional parts of one system of taxation. Johnston v. Gill, 224 N. C. 638, 32 S. E. (2d) 30 (1944).

The provisions of this statute cannot be extended beyond the clear import of the language used, or their operation enlarged so as to embrace matters not specifically pointed out. Watson Industries v. Shaw, 235 N. C. 203, 69 S. E. (2d) 505 (1952).

Soliciting Orders. — Where one is engaged within this State in a regular business of soliciting orders for tailor-made clothing on commission, part of which he collects at the time the order is taken, and the clothes are shipped by the maker, who collects the balance of the price, directly from the purchaser, such transaction is subject to the use tax and the solicitor is a retailer and an agent for collecting the use tax, for which he is liable on his failure to do so. Johnston v. Gill, 224 N. C. 638, 32 S. E. (2d) 30 (1944).

Dominion over, Possession of, or Title to Property Must Be Acquired by Purchaser.—Watson Industries v. Shaw, 235 N. C. 203, 69 S. E. (2d) 505 (1952).

Lease of Transcription Tape to Broadcasting Station. — The former statute could not be construed to impose a tax on a broadcasting station where it purchased the right to rebroadcast programs recorded on a transcription tape and was given temporary custody of the tape in order to make use of the purchase. Watson Industries v. Shaw, 235 N. C. 203, 69 S. E. (2d) 505 (1952).

Statute of Limitations.—The collection of a use or excise tax being subject to the same statute of limitations, which applies to the collection of the sales tax, a use or excise tax which accrued in the year 1937 was held barred by the three-year statute of limitations when assessed in 1942. Standard Fertilizer Co. v. Gill, 225 N. C. 426, 35 S. E. (2d) 275 (1945).

§ 105-164.7. Sales tax part of purchase price. — Every retailer engaged in the business of selling or delivering or taking orders for the sale or delivery of tangible personal property for storage, use or consumption in this State shall at the time of selling or delivering or taking an order for the sale or delivery of said tangible personal property or collecting the sales price thereof or any part thereof, add to the sales price of such tangible personal property the amount of the tax on the sale thereof and when so added said tax shall constitute a part of such purchase price, shall be a debt from the purchaser to the retailer until paid and shall be recoverable at law in the same manner as other debts. Said tax shall be stated and charged separately from the sales price and shown separately on the retailer’s sales records and shall be paid by the purchaser to the retailer as trustee for and on account of the State and the retailer shall be liable for the collection thereof and for its payment to the Commissioner and the retailer’s failure to charge to or collect said tax from the purchaser shall not affect such liability. It is the purpose and intent of this article that the tax herein levied and imposed shall be added to the sales price of tangible personal property when sold at retail and thereby be borne and passed on to the customer, instead of being borne by the retailer. (1957, c. 1340, s. 5.)

This section does not relieve the retailer of any tax liability; it provides him a ready legal means for recoupment. Piedmont Canteen Service, Inc. v. Johnson, 256 N. C. 155, 123 S. E. (2d) 582 (1962).

Failure to Charge or Collect Tax Does Not Affect Retailer’s Liability.—The tax must be added to the purchase price and constitutes a debt from purchaser to retailer until paid, but failure to charge or collect the tax from purchaser shall not affect retailer’s liability. Piedmont Canteen Service, Inc. v. Johnson, 256 N. C. 155, 123 S. E. (2d) 582 (1962).

§ 105-164.8. Retailer to collect tax regardless of place sale consummated.—Every retailer engaged in business in this State as defined in this article shall collect said tax notwithstanding

(1) That the purchaser’s order or the contract of sale is delivered, mailed or otherwise transmitted by the purchaser to the retailer at a point outside this State as a result of solicitation by the retailer through the medium of a catalogue or other written advertisement; or

(2) That the purchaser’s order or the contract of sale is made or closed by acceptance or approval outside this State, or before said tangible personal property enters this State; or

(3) That the purchaser’s order or the contract of sale provides that said property shall be or is in fact procured or manufactured at a point outside this State and shipped directly to the purchaser from the point of origin; or

(4) That said property is mailed to the purchaser in this State or a point outside this State or delivered to a carrier outside this State f. o. b. or otherwise and directed to the purchaser in this State regardless of whether the cost of transportation is paid by the retailer or by the purchaser; or

(5) That said property is delivered directly to the purchaser at a point outside this State; or

(6) Any combination in whole or in part of any two or more of the foregoing statements of fact, if it is intended that the tangible personal

The retailer is not to be excused from liability merely because it is to his advantage to make use of a method of selling which will not permit him to keep a proper record of sales or to make the collections required by law. Piedmont Canteen Service, Inc. v. Johnson, 256 N. C. 155, 123 S. E. (2d) 582 (1962).

§ 105-164.9. Advertisement to absorb tax unlawful. — Any retailer who shall by any character or public advertisement offer to absorb the tax levied in this article or in any manner directly or indirectly advertise that the tax herein imposed is not considered an element in the price to the purchaser shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. Any violations of the provisions of this section reported to the Commissioner shall be reported by him to the Attorney General of the State to the end that such violations may be brought to the attention of the solicitor of the court of the county or district whose duty it is to prosecute misdemeanors in the jurisdiction. It shall be the duty of such solicitor to investigate such alleged violations and if he finds that this section has been violated prosecute such violators in accordance with the law. (1957, c. 1340, s. 5.)

§ 105-164.10. Retail bracket system. — For the convenience of the retailer in collecting the tax due at the rate of three per cent (3%) and to facilitate the administration of this article, every retailer engaged in or continuing within this State in a business for which a license, privilege or excise tax is required by this article shall add to the sale price and collect from the purchaser on all taxable retail sales an amount equal to the following:

1. No amount on sales of less than 10¢.
2. 1¢ on sales of 10¢ and over but not in excess of 35¢.
3. 2¢ on sales of 36¢ and over but not in excess of 70¢.
4. 3¢ on sales of 71¢ and over but not in excess of $1.16.
5. Sales over $1.16 — straight 3% with major fractions governing.

Use of the above bracket does not relieve the retailer from the duty and liability to remit to the Commissioner an amount equal to three per cent (3%) of the gross receipts derived from all taxable retail sales subject to the three per cent (3%) rate during the taxable period.

Whenever a sales or use tax is due at a rate of less than three per cent (3%), the tax shall be computed by multiplying the sales or purchase price by the applicable rate and by rounding the result off to the nearest whole cent. The use of this method in computing the sales or use tax shall not relieve a taxpayer from the duty and liability of remitting to the Commissioner an amount equal to the applicable rates times gross receipts subject to taxation at the lesser rates. (1957, c. 1340, s. 5; 1961, c. 826, s. 2.)

Cross Reference. — See notes to § 103-164.4.

Editor's Note. — The 1961 amendment effective July 1, 1961, inserted near the beginning of the first sentence "due at the rate of three per cent (3%)." It also inserted "subject to the three per cent (3%) rate" in the next to last paragraph, and added the last paragraph.

Constitutionality. — This section does not render the sales tax unconstitutional as violating the due process clause of the State constitution or the Fourteenth Amendment of the federal constitution. Piedmont Canteen Service, Inc. v. Johnson, 256 N. C. 155, 123 S. E. (2d) 582 (1962).

The seller of goods through vending machines was in no position to attack the sales tax statute as discriminatory in that no tax is collected on sales of less than 10¢, where approximately 76% of the seller's receipts came from items priced at 10¢ or above, and thus assuming the average sale to be 20¢, the seller must have collected 5% on more than three fourths of its total receipts. Piedmont Canteen Service, Inc. v. Johnson, 256 N. C. 155, 123 S. E. (2d) 582 (1962).

The bracket system is for the convenience of the retailer. Piedmont Canteen Service, Inc. v. Johnson, 256 N. C. 155, 123 S. E. (2d) 582 (1962).

The 1957 act made no material change in the effect of the bracket system, which had previously been in force pursuant to a regulation of the Commissioner of Revenue, and made no change in the nature of Retailer Not Relieved of Liability. — The legislature was careful to state, in all instances where administrative provisions might be construed to shift the burden of the tax from retailer to purchaser, that such provisions do not relieve the retailer from his privilege tax liability. Piedmont Canteen Service, Inc. v. Johnson, 256 N. C. 155, 123 S. E. (2d) 582 (1962).

Goods Not Exempt Because of Smallness of Unit Price.—This article in no particular exempts goods from the tax on retailers because of smallness of unit price. Piedmont Canteen Service, Inc. v. Johnson, 256 N. C. 155, 123 S. E. (2d) 582 (1962).

If a customer buys two or more items priced at less than ten cents each so that the sale amounts to ten cents or more, the retailer's failure to collect said tax from the purchaser shall not affect the retailer's liability to the State. Piedmont Canteen Service, Inc. v. Johnson, 256 N. C. 155, 123 S. E. (2d) 582 (1962).

§ 105-164.11. Excessive and erroneous collections. — When the tax collected for any period is in excess of the total amount which should have been collected, the total amount collected must be paid over to the Commissioner less the compensation to be allowed the retailer as hereinafter set forth. When tax is collected for any period on exempt or nontaxable sales the tax erroneously collected shall be remitted to the Commissioner and no refund thereof shall be made to a taxpayer unless the purchaser has received credit for or has been refunded the amount of tax erroneously charged. This provision shall be construed with other provisions of this article and given effect so as to result in the payment to the Commissioner of the total amount collected as tax if it is in excess of the amount which should have been collected. (1957, c. 1340, s. 5; 1959, c. 1259, s. 5; 1961, c. 826, s. 2.)

Cross Reference.—See notes to § 105-164.4.

Editor's Note. — The 1959 amendment rewrote this section.

§ 105-164.12. Freight or delivery transportation charges.—Freight delivery, or other like transportation charges connected with the sale of tangible personal property are subject to the sales and use tax if title to the tangible personal property being transported passes to the purchaser at the destination point. Where title to the tangible personal property being transported passes to the purchaser at the point of origin, the freight or other transportation charges are not subject to the sales tax. For the purposes of this section it is immaterial whether the retailer or purchaser actually pays for any charges made for transportation, whether the charges were actually paid by one for the other, or whether a credit or allowance is made or given for such charges. Nothing in this section shall operate to exclude from the use tax any freight delivery or other like transportation charges. Such charges shall be included as a portion of the cost price and subject to the use tax. (1957, c. 1340, s. 5; 1959, c. 1259, s. 5.)

Editor's Note. — The 1959 amendment deleted “and use” between the words sentence.

Division III. Exemptions and Exclusions.

§ 105-164.13. Retail sales and use tax. — The sale at retail, the use, storage or consumption in this State of the following tangible personal property is specifically exempted from the tax imposed by this article:
§ 105-164.13  CH. 105. TAXATION  § 105-164.13

Agricultural Group.

(1) Commercial fertilizer on which the inspection tax is paid and lime and land plaster used for agricultural purposes whether the inspection tax is paid or not.

(2) Seeds, feeds for livestock and poultry, rodenticides, insecticides, herbicides, fungicides, pesticides for livestock, poultry and agriculture.

(3) Products of farms, forests, and mines when such sales are made by the producers in their original or unmanufactured state.

(4) Cotton, tobacco, peanuts or other farm products sold to manufacturers for further manufacturing or processing.

(4.1) Baby chicks and poults sold for commercial poultry or egg production.

Industrial Group.

(5) Manufactured products produced and sold by manufacturers or producers to other manufacturers, producers, or registered wholesale or retail merchants, for the purpose of resale except as modified by Division I, § 105-164.3, subdivision (23). Provided, however, this exemption shall not extend to or include retail sales to users or consumers not for resale.

(6) Ice, whether sold by the manufacturer, producer, wholesale or retail merchant.

(7) Sales of products of waters in their original or unmanufactured state when such sales are made by the producers. Fish and seafoods shall be likewise exempt when sold by the fishermen.

(8) Sales of tangible personal property to a manufacturer which enters into or becomes an ingredient or component part of tangible personal property which is manufactured.

(9) Sales of boats, fuel oil, lubricating oils, machinery, equipment, nets, rigging, paints, parts, accessories and supplies to commercial fishermen for use by them in the taking or catching commercially of shrimp, crab, oysters, clams, scallops, and fish, both edible and nonedible.

(10) Sales to commercial laundries or to pressing and dry cleaning establishments of articles or materials used for the identification of garments being laundered or dry cleaned, wrapping paper, bags, hangers, starch, soaps, detergents, cleaning fluids and other compounds or chemicals applied directly to the garments in the direct performance of the laundering or the pressing and cleaning service.

Motor Fuels Group.

(11) Gasoline or other motor fuel on which the tax levied in § 105-434 and/or § 105-435 of the General Statutes is due and has been paid, and the fact that a refund of the tax levied by either of said sections is made pursuant to the provisions of subchapter V of chapter 105 shall not make the sale or the seller of such fuels subject to the tax levied by this article.

Medical Group.

(12) Crutches, artificial limbs, artificial eyes, hearing aids, false teeth, eyeglasses ground on prescription of physicians or optometrists and other orthopedic appliances when the same are designed to be worn on the person of the owner or user.

(13) Medicines sold on prescription of physicians and dentists.

Printed Materials Group.

(14) Holy Bibles; public school books on the adopted list, the selling price of which is fixed by State contract.
Transactions Group.

(15) Accounts of purchases, representing taxable sales, on which the tax imposed by this article has been paid, that are found to be worthless and actually charged off for income tax purposes may, at corresponding periods, be deducted from gross sales, provided, however, they must be added to gross sales if afterwards collected.

(16) Sales of used articles taken in trade, or a series of trades, as a credit or part payment on the sale of a new article, provided the tax levied in this article is paid on the gross sales price of the new article. In the interpretation of this subsection, new article shall be taken to mean the original stock in trade of the merchant, and shall not be limited to newly manufactured articles. The resale of articles repossessed by the vendor shall likewise be exempt from gross sales taxable under this article.

Exempt Status Group.

(17) Sales which a state would be without power to tax under the limitations of the Constitution or laws of the United States or under the Constitution of this State.

Unclassified Group.

(18) Funeral expenses, including coffins and caskets, not to exceed one hundred and fifty dollars ($150.00). All other funeral expenses, including gross receipts for services rendered, shall be taxable at the rate of three per cent (3%). Where coffins, caskets or vaults are purchased direct and a separate charge is paid for services the provisions of this subsection shall apply to the total for both.

(19) Sales by concession stands operated by the State prison system within the confines of the prisons where such sales are made to prison inmates and guards therein while on duty.

(20) Sales by blind merchants operating under supervision of the Commission for the Blind.

(21) The lease or rental of motion picture films used for exhibition purposes where the lease or rental of such property is an established business or part of an established business or the same is incidental or germane to said business of the lessee.

(22) The lease or rental of films, motion picture films, transcriptions and recordings to radio stations and television stations operating under a certificate from the Federal Communications Commission.

(23) Sales of wrapping paper, labels, wrapping twine, paper, cloth, plastic bags, cartons, packages and containers, cores, cones or spools, wooden boxes, baskets, coops and barrels, including paper cups, napkins and drinking straws and like articles sold to manufacturers, producers and retailers, when such materials are used for packaging, shipment or delivery of tangible personal property which is sold either at wholesale or retail or when such articles constitute a part of the sale of such tangible personal property and are delivered with it to the customer.

(24) Sales of fuel and other items of tangible personal property for use or consumption by or on ocean-going vessels which ply the high seas in interstate or foreign commerce in the transport of freight and/or passengers for hire exclusively, when delivered to an officer or agent of such vessel for the use of such vessel; provided, however, that sales of fuel and other items of tangible personal property made to officers, agents, members of the crew or passengers of such vessels for their personal use shall not be exempted from payment of the sales tax.
(25) Sales by merchants on the Cherokee Indian Reservation when such merchants are authorized to do business on the Reservation and are paying the tribal gross receipts levy to the Tribal Council.

(26) Lunches to school children when such sales are made within school buildings and are not for profit.

(27) Meals and food products served to students in dining rooms regularly operated by State or private educational institutions or student organizations thereof.

(28) Sales of newspapers by newspaper street vendors and by newsboys making house to house deliveries. (1957, c. 1340, s. 5; 1959, c. 670; c. 1259, s. 5; 1961, c. 826, s. 2; c. 1103, s. 1163; 1963, c. 1169, ss. 7-9.)

Cross Reference. — See note to § 105-164.4.

Editor's Note. — Several of the cases cited to the paragraphs of this annotation were decided under the former law.

The first 1959 amendment added former subdivision (40), now subdivision (25). The second 1959 amendment inserted "or registered" in the first sentence of former subdivision (9), now subdivision (6), made changes in former subdivision (17), now subdivision (10) and added former subdivision (39), now subdivision (24). It also amended former subdivisions (8), (24) and (30), which were subsequently deleted in 1961.

The first 1961 amendment, effective July 1, 1961, rewrote former subdivisions (17), (21) and (25), now subdivisions (10), (13) and (14), respectively. It deleted former subdivisions (5), (6), (7), (8), (11), (12), (15), (18), (22), (23), (24), (26), (30), (31) and (38) and renumbered all of the remaining subdivisions as (1) through (25), consecutively. It then added new subdivisions (26) and (27).

The second 1961 amendment, effective July 1, 1961, rewrote present subdivision (24), and the third 1961 amendment, effective July 1, 1961, added subdivision (28).

The 1963 amendment, effective July 1, 1963, made subdivision (2) applicable to rodenticides, herbicides, fungicides and pesticides; added subdivision (4.1); and rewrote subdivision (28).

The power to exempt from taxation, as well as the power to tax, is an essential attribute of sovereignty. Sale v. Johnson, 258 N. C. 749, 129 S. E. (2d) 465 (1963).

within the purview and intent of subdivision (23) of this section, since there was no allegation in the complaint to the effect that when plaintiffs' vendees sold poultry the coops constituted a part of the sale of such poultry and were delivered with the poultry to the customer. Sale v. Johnson, 258 N. C. 749, 129 S. E. (2d) 465 (1963).

Burden of Proof.—Where the tax coverage is challenged by virtue of an exemption or exception, the burden is upon the challenger to bring himself within the exemption or exception. Henderson v. Gill, 229 N. C. 313, 49 S. E. (2d) 754 (1948).

Flowers grown upon the vendors' own land are farm products within the meaning of the exemption of such products from the sales tax. Henderson v. Gill, 229 N. C. 313, 49 S. E. (2d) 754 (1948).

§ 105-164.14. Certain refunds authorized.—(a) Any person engaged in transporting persons or property in interstate commerce for compensation who is subject to regulation by, and to the jurisdiction of, the Interstate Commerce Commission or the Civil Aeronautics Board and who is required by either such Commission or Board to keep records according to its standard classification of accounting may secure a refund from the Commissioner of Revenue with respect to sales or use tax paid by such person on purchases or acquisitions of lubricants, repair parts and accessories in this State for motor vehicles, railroad cars, locomotives, and airplanes operated by such person, upon the conditions described below. The Commissioner of Revenue shall prescribe the periods of time, whether monthly, quarterly, semiannually or otherwise, with respect to which refunds may be claimed, and shall prescribe the time within which, following such periods, an application for refund may be made. An applicant for refund shall furnish such information as the Commissioner may require, including detailed information as to lubricants, repair parts and accessories wherever purchased, whether within or without the State, acquired during the period with respect to which a refund is sought, and the purchase price thereof, detailed information as to sales and use tax paid in this State thereon, and detailed information as to the number of miles such motor vehicles, railroad cars, locomotives, and airplanes were operated both within this State, and without this State, during such period, together with satisfactory proof thereof. The Commissioner shall thereupon compute the tax which would be due with respect to all lubricants, repair parts and accessories acquired during the refund period as though all such purchases were made in this State, but only on such proportion of the total purchase prices thereof as the total number of miles of operation of such applicants' motor vehicles, railroad cars, locomotives, and airplanes within this State bears to the total number of miles of operation of such applicants' motor vehicles, railroad cars, locomotives and airplanes within and without this State, and such amount of sales and use tax as the applicant has paid in this State during said refund period in excess of the amount so computed shall be refunded to the applicant.

(b) The Commissioner of Revenue shall make refunds annually to hospitals not operated for profit (including hospitals and medical accommodations operated by an authority created under the Hospital Authorities Law, article 12 of G. S. 131), educational institutions not operated for profit, churches, orphanages and other charitable or religious institutions and organizations not operated for profit of sales and use taxes paid under this article by such institutions and organizations on direct purchases of tangible personal property for use in carrying on the work of such institutions or organizations. Sales and use tax liability indirectly incurred by such institutions and organizations on building materials, supplies, fixtures and equipment which shall become a part of or annexed to any building or structure being erected, altered or repaired for such institutions and organizations for carrying on their nonprofit activities shall be construed as sales or use tax liability incurred on direct purchases by such institutions and organizations, and such institutions and organizations may obtain refunds of such taxes indirectly paid. The refund provisions contained in this subsection shall not apply to organizations, corporations and institutions which are governmental agencies, owned and controlled by the federal, State or local governments; provided that hospitals and medical accommodations operated by an authority created under the Hospital Authorities Law, article 12 of G. S. 131, shall not be excluded from the refund provisions contained in this subsection but shall be entitled to the refunds herein provided with respect to all sales and use taxes paid on and after July 1, 1961. In order to receive the refund herein provided for, such institutions and organizations shall file a written request for said refund on or before the fifteenth day of April following the close of each calendar year, except in the case of hospitals and medical accommodations operated under the Hospital Authorities Law, article 12 of G. S. 131, such request or requests for refund with respect to such taxes paid, directly or indirectly, prior to January 1, 1963, unless heretofore filed, shall be filed before April 15, 1964, and such request or requests for refund shall be substantiated by such proof as the Commissioner of Revenue may require, and no refund shall be made on applications not filed within the time allowed by this section and in such manner as the Commissioner may otherwise require.

(c) The Commissioner of Revenue shall make refunds annually to all counties and incorporated cities and towns in this State of sales and use taxes paid under this article by said counties and incorporated cities and towns on direct purchases of tangible personal property. Sales and use tax liability indirectly incurred by such counties, incorporated cities and towns in this State on building materials, supplies, fixtures and equipment which shall become a part of or annexed to any building or structure being erected, altered or repaired for such counties and incorporated cities and towns in this State shall be construed as sales or use tax liability incurred on direct purchases by such counties and incorporated cities and towns, and such counties and incorporated cities and towns may obtain refunds of such taxes indirectly paid. The refund provisions contained in this subsection shall not apply to any bodies, agencies or political subdivisions of the State not specifically named herein. In order to receive the refund herein provided for, counties and incorporated cities and towns in this State shall file a written request for said refund within six months of the close of the fiscal year of the counties and incorporated cities and towns seeking said refund, and such request for refund shall be substantiated by such records, receipts and information as the Commissioner may require. No refunds shall be made on applications not filed within the time allowed by this section and in such manner as the Commissioner may otherwise require. (1957, c. 1340, s. 5; 1961, c. 826, s. 2; 1963, cc. 169, 1134.)

Editor's Note. — The 1961 amendment, effective July 1, 1961, deleted from the caption the reference to interstate commerce, designated the former language of the section as subsection (a) and added subsections (b) and (c).

The first 1963 amendment substituted in the last sentence of subsection (b) “on or before the fifteenth day of April following” for “within sixty days of.” The second 1963 amendment changed subsection (b) by inserting the matter in parentheses in the first sentence, adding the proviso to the third sentence thereof, and rewriting the last sentence.

DIVISION IV. REPORTING AND PAYMENT.
§ 105-164.15. Commissioner shall provide forms. — The Commissioner shall design, prepare, print and furnish to all retailers and wholesale merchirms all necessary forms for filing returns and instructions to insure a full collection from retailers and wholesale merchants and an accounting for taxes due. But the failure of any retailer or wholesale merchant to obtain or receive forms shall not relieve such taxpayer from the payment of said tax at the time and in the manner herein provided. (1957, c. 1340, s. 5.)

§ 105-164.16. Taxes due monthly; reports and payment of tax. — The taxes levied under the provisions of this article shall be due and payable in monthly installments on or before the 15th day of the month next succeeding the month in which the tax accrues. Every taxpayer liable for the tax imposed by this article shall on or before the 15th day of the month next succeeding the month in which the tax accrues make out, prepare and render a return on the form prescribed by the Commissioner, containing a true and correct statement showing the total gross sales, accompanied by an itemized statement showing the amount of sales in each group of exemptions and exclusions covered by G.S. 105-164.13 which are not subject to the tax or are not used as a measurement of the taxes due by such taxpayer together with such other information as the Commissioner may require and at the time of making such monthly return such taxpayer shall compute the taxes due and shall pay to the Commissioner the amount of taxes shown to be due. Returns shall be signed by the retailer or his duly authorized agent.

Any return which does not conform strictly to the requirements in respect to its content shall not be a lawful return and the Commissioner shall require the immediate filing of a proper return in default of which he shall assess a deficiency as hereinafter provided. (1957, c. 1340, s. 5.)

§ 105-164.17. Reports and payment of use tax.—Every person storing, using or consuming tangible personal property in this State shall file with the Commissioner a return for the preceding month in such form as may be prescribed by him showing the total cost price of the tangible personal property purchased or received by such person during such preceding month, the storage, use or consumption of which is subject to the tax imposed by this article and such other information as the Commissioner may deem necessary for the proper administration of this article. The returns shall be accompanied by a remittance of the amount of tax herein imposed during the month covered by the return. Returns shall be signed by the person liable for the tax or his duly authorized agent. (1957, c. 1340, s. 5.)

§ 105-164.18. Remittances; how made. — All remittances of taxes imposed by this article shall be made to the Commissioner by bank draft, check, cashiers check, money order or money, who shall issue his receipts therefor to the taxpayers when requested and shall deposit daily all monies received to the credit of the State Treasurer as required by law for other taxes. Provided, no payment other than cash shall be final discharge of liability for the tax herein assessed and levied unless and until it has been paid in cash to the Commissioner; provided, further, that cash remittances must not be made by mail. The Commissioner shall keep full and accurate records of all monies received by him and how disbursed and shall preserve all returns filed with him under this article for a period of three years. (1957, c. 1340, s. 5.)

§ 105-164.19. Extension of time for making returns and payment. — The Commissioner for good cause may extend the time for making any return under the provisions of this article and may grant such additional time within which to make such return as he may deem proper but the time for filing any such return shall not be extended beyond the fifteenth day of the month next succeeding the regular due date of such return. If the time for filing a return be extended, interest at the rate of one-half of one per cent (1/2 of 1%) per month
§ 105-164.20. Cash or accrual basis of reporting. — Any retailer taxable under this article having both cash and credit sales may report such sales on either the cash or accrual basis of accounting upon making application to the Commissioner for permission to use such basis of reporting under such rules and regulations as shall be promulgated from time to time by the Commissioner. Such permission shall continue in force and effect unless revoked by the Commissioner but he may grant written permission to any such taxpayer upon application therefor to change from one basis to another under such rules and regulations. (1957, c. 1340, s. 5.)

§ 105-164.21. Discount for payment of taxes when due. — Every retailer who pays the retail sales or use tax imposed by this article shall be entitled to deduct from the amount of the tax for which he is liable and which he actually pays a discount of three per cent (3%). Provided, however, the Commissioner may deny a taxpayer the benefits of this section for failure to pay the full tax when due as well as in cases of fraud, evasion, failure to keep accurate and clear records as hereinafter required. Provided, further, that in order to receive the discount the taxpayer must deduct the three per cent (3%) at the time of making his monthly remittance of tax to the Department of Revenue. (1957, c. 1340, s. 5.)

Division V. Records Required to Be Kept.

§ 105-164.22. Retailer must keep records. — Every retailer shall keep and preserve suitable records of the gross income, gross receipts and/or gross receipts of sales of such business and such other books or accounts as may be necessary to determine the amount of tax for which he is liable under the provisions of this article. And it shall be the duty of every retailer to keep and preserve for a period of three years all invoices of goods, wares and merchandise purchased for resale and all such books, invoices and other records shall be open for examination at all reasonable hours during the day by the Commissioner or his duly authorized agent. (1957, c. 1340, s. 5.)

§ 105-164.23. Consumer must keep records. — Every consumer shall keep such records, receipts, invoices and other pertinent papers in such form as may be required by the Commissioner and all such books, invoices and other records shall be open for examination by the Commissioner or any of his duly authorized agents. In the event the retailer, user or consumer has imported the tangible personal property and fails to produce an invoice showing the cost price of the tangible personal property as defined in this article which is subject to tax or the invoices do not reflect the true or actual cost as defined herein, then the Commissioner shall ascertain in any manner feasible the true cost price and assess and collect the tax with interest, plus penalties, if such have accrued, on the true cost price as determined by him. (1957, c. 1340, s. 5.)

§ 105-164.24. Separate accounting required. — Every retailer shall keep separate records disclosing sales of tangible personal property taxable under this article and sales transactions not taxable because exempt under G. S. 105-164.13 or elsewhere excluded from taxation. Such records shall be kept in such form as may be accurately and conveniently checked by the Commissioner or his authorized agents and unless such records shall be kept the exemptions and exclusions provided in this article shall not be allowed and it shall be the duty of the Commissioner of his agents to assess a tax upon the total gross sales at the rate levied upon retail sales and if records are not kept disclosing gross sales, it shall be the duty of the Commissioner to assess a tax upon an estima-
§ 105-164.25. Wholesale merchant must keep records. — Every wholesale merchant selling tangible personal property to other merchants for resale or tangible personal property the sale of which is otherwise defined as a wholesale sale under the terms of this article shall deliver to the customer a bill of sale for each sale of such tangible personal property whether sold for cash or on terms of credit, and shall make and retain a duplicate or carbon copy of each bill of sale and shall keep a file of all such duplicate bills of sale for at least three years from the date of sale. Such bills of sale shall contain and include the name and address of the purchaser, the date of the purchase, the article purchased and the price at which the article is sold to the customer. These records shall be kept for a period of three years and shall be open for inspection by the Commissioner or his duly authorized agents at all reasonable hours. Failure to comply with the provisions of this section shall subject the wholesale merchant to liability for tax upon such sales at the rate of tax levied in this article upon retail sales.

§ 105-164.26. Presumption that sales are taxable. — For the purpose of the proper administration of this division of this article and to prevent evasion of the retail sales tax, it shall be presumed that all gross receipts of wholesale merchants and retailers are subject to the retail sales tax until the contrary is established by proper records as required herein. It shall be prima facie presumed that tangible personal property sold by any person for delivery in this State, however made, and by carrier or otherwise, is sold for storage, use or other consumption in this State, and a like presumption shall apply to tangible personal property delivered without this State and brought to this State by the purchaser thereof.

Editor's Note.—The act repealing this section is effective as of July 1, 1961.

§ 105-164.28. Resale certificate. — The burden of proof that a sale of tangible personal property is not a sale at retail is upon the wholesale merchant or retailer who makes the sale unless he takes from the purchaser a certificate to the effect that the property is for resale. With respect to sales for resale the certificate relieves the wholesale merchant from the burden of proof only if taken in good faith from a person who is engaged in the business of selling tangible personal property and who holds the license provided for in this article. The certificate shall be signed by and bear the name and address of the purchaser, shall indicate the registration number issued to the purchaser and shall indicate the general character of the tangible personal property generally sold by the purchaser in the regular course of business. The certificate of resale shall be in such form as the Commissioner shall prescribe. It shall be the duty of every wholesale merchant selling tangible personal property to a retailer for resale to make reasonable and prudent inquiry concerning the type and character of the tangible personal property as it relates to the principal business of the retailer.

§ 105-164.29. Application for licenses by wholesale merchants and retailers. — Every application for a license by a wholesale merchant or retailer...
§ 105-164.30 shall be made upon a form prescribed by the Commissioner and shall set forth the name under which the applicant transacts or intends to transact business, the location of his place or places of business, and such other information as the Commissioner may require. The application shall be signed by the owner if a natural person; in the case of an association or partnership, by a member or partner; in the case of a corporation, by an executive officer or some other person specifically authorized by the corporation to sign the application, to which shall be attached the written evidence of his authority. Provided, however, that persons, firms, or corporations, whose business extends into more than one county shall be required to secure only one license under the provisions of this article which license shall cover all operations of such company throughout the State of North Carolina.

When the required application has been made the Commissioner shall grant and issue to each applicant such license. A license is not assignable and is valid only for the person in whose name it is issued and for the transaction of business at the place designated therein. It shall be at all times conspicuously displayed at the place for which issued.

A retailer whose license has been previously suspended or revoked shall pay the Commissioner the sum of one dollar ($1.00) for the reissuance or renewal of such license. A wholesale merchant whose license has been previously suspended or revoked shall pay the Commissioner the sum of ten dollars ($10.00) for the reissuance or renewal of such license for the year or fraction thereof for which said license is reissued or renewed.

Whenever any wholesale merchant or retailer fails to comply with any provision of this article or any rule or regulation of the Commissioner relating thereto, the Commissioner, upon hearing, after giving the wholesale merchant or retailer ten days' notice in writing, specifying the time and place of hearing and requiring him to show cause why his license should not be revoked, may revoke or suspend the license held by such wholesale merchant or retailer. The notice may be served personally or by registered mail directed to the last known address of the person. All provisions with respect to review and appeals of the Commissioner's decisions as provided by §§ 105-241.2, 105-241.3, and 105-241.4 of the General Statutes shall be applicable to this section.

Any wholesale merchant or retailer who engages in business as a seller in this State without a license or after his license has been suspended or revoked, and each officer of any corporation which so engages in business shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and subject to a fine of not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500.00) for each such offense. (1957, c. 1340, s. 5.)

Division VI. Examination of Records.

§ 105-164.30. Commissioner or agent may examine books, etc. — For the purpose of enforcing the collection of the tax levied by this article, the Commissioner or his duly authorized agent is hereby specifically authorized and empowered to examine at all reasonable hours during the day the books, papers, records, documents or other data of all retailers or wholesale merchants bearing upon the correctness of any return or for the purpose of making a return where none has been made as required by this article, and may require the attendance of any person and take his testimony with respect to any such matter, with power to administer oaths to such person or persons. If any person summoned as a witness shall fail to obey any summons to appear before the Commissioner or his authorized agent, or shall refuse to testify or answer any material question or to produce any book, record, paper, or other data when required to do so, such failure or refusal shall be reported to the Attorney General or the district solicitor, who shall thereupon institute proceedings in the superior court of the county where such witness resides to compel obedience to any summons of the Commissioner or his authorized agent. Officers who serve summonses or subpoenas, and witnesses attending, shall receive like compensation as officers and witnesses in the superior courts, to be paid from the proper appropriation for the administration of this article.

In the event any retailer or wholesale merchant shall fail or refuse to permit examination of his books, papers, accounts, records, documents or other data by the Commissioner or his authorized agents as aforesaid, the Commissioner shall have the power to proceed by citing said retailer or wholesale merchant to show cause before the superior court of the county in which said taxpayer resides or has its principal place of business as to why such books, records, papers, or documents should not be examined and said superior court shall have jurisdiction to enter an order requiring the production of all necessary books, records, papers, or documents and to punish for contempt of such order any person violating the same. (1957, c. 1340, s. 5.)

§ 105-164.31. Complete records must be kept for three years. — Every retailer, wholesale merchant or consumer as defined by this article shall secure, maintain and keep for a period of three years a complete record of tangible personal property received, used, sold at retail or wholesale, distributed or stored, leased or rented within this State by said retailer, wholesale merchant or consumer together with invoices, bills of lading and other pertinent papers and records as may be required by the Commissioner for the reasonable administration of this article and all such records shall be open for inspection by the Commissoner or his duly authorized agent at all reasonable hours during the day.
(1957, c. 1340, s. 5.)

§ 105-164.32. Incorrect returns; estimate. — In the event any retailer, wholesale merchant or consumer fails to make a return and to pay the tax as provided by this article or in case any retailer, wholesale merchant or consumer makes a grossly incorrect return or a report that is false or fraudulent, it shall be the duty of the Commissioner or his authorized agent to make an estimate for the taxable period of wholesale and/or retail sales of such retailer or wholesale merchant or of the gross proceeds of rentals or leases of tangible personal property by the retailer and to estimate the cost price of all articles of tangible personal property imported by the consumer for use, storage, or consumption in this State and to assess and collect the tax and interest, plus penalties, if such have accrued, upon the basis of such estimate. (1957, c. 1340, s. 5.)

DIVISION VII. Failure to Make Returns; Overpayments.

§§ 105-164.33, 105-164.34: Repealed by Session Laws 1963, c. 1169, s.
3, effective July 1, 1963.

§ 105-164.34. Delayed returns. — If the taxpayer shall file a delinquent return or a return without remittance covering the amount of tax shown thereon to be due, such taxpayer shall be assessed with a penalty of five per cent (5%) plus interest at the rate of one-half of one per cent (½ of 1%) per month from the date the tax was due. The penalty provided herein shall in no case be less than one dollar ($1.00). (1957, c. 1340, s. 5.)

§ 105-164.35. Excessive payments; recomputing tax. — As soon as practicable after a return is filed, the Commissioner shall examine it. If it then appears that the correct amount of tax is greater or less than the amount shown in the return, the tax shall be recomputed.

(1) Excessive Payments.—If the amount already paid exceeds that which should have been paid on the basis of the tax so recomputed, the excess shall be credited or refunded to the taxpayer in accordance with the provisions of this article.
§ 105-164.36. Repealed by Session Laws 1959, c. 1259, s. 9.

Editor’s Note. — Notwithstanding the repeal of this section, Session Laws 1959, c. 1259, s. 9 (x), purported to amend subsection.

§ 105-164.37. Bankruptcy, receivership, etc. — If any taxpayer subject to the provisions of this article goes into bankruptcy, receivership or turns over his stock of merchandise by voluntary transfer to creditors, the tax liability under this article shall constitute a prior lien upon such stock of merchandise and shall become subject to levy under execution and it shall be the duty of the transferee in any such case to retain the amount of the tax due from the first sales of such stock of merchandise and pay the same to the Commissioner. (1957, c. 1340, s. 5.)

§ 105-164.38. Tax shall be a lien. — The tax imposed by this article shall be a lien upon the stock of goods and/or any other property of any person subject to the provisions of this article who shall sell out or in any manner transfer his business or stock of goods or shall quit business, and such person shall be required to make out the return provided for under Division IV of this article within thirty (30) days after the date he sold out his business or stock of goods or quit business and his successor in business or the purchaser of the entire stock of goods shall be required to withhold sufficient of the purchase money or money’s worth in the event there is an exchange of properties to cover the amount of said taxes due and unpaid until such time as the former owner shall produce a receipt from the Commissioner showing that the taxes have been paid or a certificate that no taxes are due. If the purchaser of a business or stock of goods shall fail to withhold purchase money as above provided, and the taxes shall be due and unpaid after the thirty-day period allowed, he shall be personally liable for the payment of the taxes accrued and unpaid on account of the operation of the business by the former owner. The transferee shall be liable for payment of any sales and/or use taxes due by the transferor to the extent of the purchase price paid by the transferee or fair market value of the property transferred whichever is greater. The transferee or successor in business and the liability of the transferee or successor in business shall be subject to the provisions of G. S. 105-241.1, 105-241.2, 105-241.3, 105-241.4 and to other remedies for the collection of taxes to the same extent as if the transferee or successor in business had incurred the original tax liability. (1957, c. 1340, s. 5; 1963, c. 1169, s. 3.)

Editor’s Note. — The 1963 amendment, effective July 1, 1963, rewrote the first sentence and added the third and fourth sentences.

§ 105-164.39. Attachment. — In the event any retailer or wholesale merchant is delinquent in the payment of the tax herein provided for, the Commissioner may give notice of the amount of such delinquency by registered mail to all persons having in their possession or under their control any credits or other personal property belonging to such retailer or wholesale merchant or owing any debts to such taxpayer at the time of the receipt by them of such notice and thereafter any person so notified shall neither transfer nor make any other disposition of such credits, other personal property or debts until the Commissioner shall have consented to a transfer or disposition or until thirty days shall have elapsed from and after the receipt of such notice. All persons so notified must within five days after receipt of such notice advise the Commissioner of any and all such credits, other personal property or debts in their possession, under their control or owing by them as the case may be. The remedy provided by this section shall be cumulative and optional and in addition to all other remedies now provided by law for the collection of taxes due the State. (1957, c. 1340, s. 5.)
§ 105-164.40. Jeopardy assessment. — If the Commissioner is of the opinion that the collection of any tax or any amount of tax required to be collected and paid to the State under this article will be jeopardized by delay, he shall make an assessment of the tax or amount of tax required to be collected and shall mail or issue a notice of such assessment to the taxpayer together with a demand for immediate payment of the tax or of the deficiency in tax declared to be in jeopardy including interest and penalties. In the case of a tax for a current period, the Commissioner may declare the taxable period of the taxpayer immediately terminated and shall cause notice of such finding and declaration to be mailed or issued to the taxpayer together with a demand for immediate payment of the tax based on the period declared terminated and such tax shall be immediately due and payable, whether or not the time otherwise allowed by law for filing a return and paying the tax has expired. Assessments provided for in this section shall be immediately due and payable and proceedings for the collection shall commence at once and if any such tax, penalty or interest is not paid upon demand of the Commissioner, he shall forthwith cause a levy to be made on the property of the taxpayer or, in his discretion the Commissioner may require the taxpayer to file such indemnity bond as in his judgment may be sufficient to protect the interest of the State. (1957, c. 1340, s. 5.)

§ 105-164.41. Excess payments; refunds. — If upon examination of any monthly return made under this article, it appears that an amount of tax has been paid in excess of that properly due, then the amount in excess shall be credited against any tax or installment thereof then due from the taxpayer, under any other subsequent monthly return, or shall be refunded to the taxpayer by certificate of overpayment issued by the Commissioner to the State Auditor, and the Auditor shall issue his warrant on the Treasurer, which warrant shall be payable out of any funds appropriated for that purpose. (1957, c. 1340, s. 5; 1963, c. 1169, s. 3.)

Editor's Note. — The 1963 amendment, effective July 1, 1963, deleted "which shall be investigated and approved by the Attorney General" following "State Auditor."

§ 105-164.42: Repealed by Session Laws 1959, c. 1259, s. 9.

Division VIII. Administration and Enforcement.

§ 105-164.43. Commissioner to make regulations. — Subject to the provisions of G. S. 105-262 the Commissioner shall from time to time promulgate such rules and regulations not inconsistent with this article for making returns and for the ascertainment, assessment, and collection of the tax imposed hereunder as he may deem necessary to enforce its provisions, and upon request shall furnish any taxpayer with a copy of such rules and regulations. All provisions with respect to reviews and appeals from the Commissioner's decisions as provided by G. S. 105-241.2, 105-241.3 and 105-241.4 shall be applicable to this section. (1957, c. 1340, s. 5.)

§ 105-164.44. Penalty and remedies of Article 9 applicable. — All provisions not inconsistent with this article in Article 9, entitled "General Administration—Penalties and Remedies" of Subchapter I of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes, including but not limited to, administration, auditing, making returns, promulgation of rules and regulations by the Commissioner, additional taxes, assessment procedure, imposition and collection of taxes and the lien therefor, assessments, refunds and penalties are hereby made a part of this article and shall be applicable thereto. (1957, c. 1340, s. 5.)

§§ 105-165 to 105-176: Repealed by Session Laws 1957, c. 1340, s. 5.

§§ 105-177, 105-178: Repealed by Session Laws 1951, c. 643, s. 5.

ARTICLE 6.

Schedule G. Gift Taxes.

§ 105-188. Gift taxes; classification of beneficiaries; exemptions; rates of tax.—(a) State gift taxes, as hereinafter prescribed, are hereby levied upon the shares of the respective beneficiaries in all property within the jurisdiction of this State, real, personal and mixed, and any interest therein which shall in any one calendar year pass by gift made after March 24, 1939.

(b) The taxes shall apply whether the gift is in trust or otherwise and whether the gift is direct or indirect. In the case of a gift made by a nonresident, the taxes shall apply only if the property is within the jurisdiction of this State. The taxes shall not apply to gifts made prior to March 24, 1939.

(c) The tax shall not apply to the passage of property in trust where the power to revest in the donor title to such property is vested in the donor, either alone or in conjunction with any person not having substantial adverse interest in the disposition of such property or the income therefrom, but the relinquishment or termination of such power (other than by the donor’s death) shall be considered to be a passage from the donor by gift of the property subject to such power, and any payment of the income therefrom to a beneficiary other than the donor shall be considered to be a passage by donor of such income by gift.

(d) Gifts to any one donee not exceeding a total value of three thousand dollars ($3,000.00) in any one calendar year shall not be considered gifts taxable under this article, and where gifts are made to any one donee in any one calendar year in excess of three thousand dollars ($3,000.00), only that portion of said gifts exceeding three thousand dollars ($3,000.00) in value shall be subject to the tax levied by this article. The three thousand dollars ($3,000.00) exclusion herein provided shall not apply to gifts of future interests in property. For the purposes of determining the exclusion herein provided, no part of a gift to an individual, or in trust for an individual, who has not attained the age of 21 years on the date of such transfer shall be considered a gift of a future interest in property if the property and the income therefrom may be expended by, or for the benefit of, the donee before his attaining the age of 21 years, and will to the extent not so expended pass to the donee on his attaining the age of 21 years, and in the event the donee dies before attaining the age of 21 years, be payable to the estate of the donee or as he may appoint under a general power of appointment.

(e) The tax shall be based on the aggregate sum of the net gifts made by the donor to the same donee, and shall be computed as follows:

(1) Determine the aggregate sum of the net gifts to the donee for the calendar year and the net gifts to the same donee for each of the preceding calendar years since January 1st, 1948.

(2) Compute the tax upon said aggregate sum by applying the rates hereinafter set out.

(3) From the tax thus computed, deduct the total gift tax, if any, paid with respect to gifts to the same donee in any prior year or years since January 1st, 1948. The sum thus ascertained shall be the gift tax due. The term “net gifts” shall mean the sum of the gifts made by a donor to the same donee during any stated period of time in excess of the annual exclusion and the applicable specific exemption.

(f) The rates of tax, which are based on the relationship between the donor and the donee, shall be as follows:

(1) Where the donee is lineal issue, or lineal ancestor, or husband, or wife of the donor, or child adopted by the donor in conformity with the laws of this State, or of any of the United States, or of any foreign kingdom or nation, or stepchild of the donor (for each one hundred dollars ($100.00) or fraction thereof):

(g) A donor shall be entitled to a total exemption of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000.00) to be deducted from gifts made to donees named in subsection (1) of subsection (f), less the sum of amounts claimed and allowed as an exemption in prior calendar years. The exemption, at the option of the donor, may be taken in its entirety in a single year, or may spread over a period of years. When this exemption has been exhausted, no further exemption is allowable. When the exemption or any portion thereof is applied to gifts to more than one donee in any one calendar year, said exemption shall be apportioned against said gifts in the same ratio as the gross value of the gifts to each donee is to the total value of said gifts in the calendar year in which said gifts are made. No exemption shall be allowed to a donor for gifts made to donees named in subdivisions (2) and (3) of subsection (f).

(h) It is expressly provided, however, that the tax levied in this article shall not apply to so much of said property as shall so pass exclusively:

(1) For state, county or municipal purposes within this State;

(2) To or for the exclusive benefit of charitable, educational, or religious organizations located within this State, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual;

(3) To or for the exclusive benefit of charitable, religious and educational corporations, foundations and trusts, not conducted for profit, incorporated or created or administered under the laws of any other state, when such other state levies no gift taxes upon property similarly passing from residents of such state to charitable, educational or religious corporations, foundations and trusts incorporated or created or administered under the laws of this State, or when such corporation, foundation or trust receives and disburses funds donated in this State for religious, charitable and educational purposes. (1939, c. 158, s. 600; 1943, c. 400, s. 7; 1945, c. 708, s. 7; 1947, c. 501, s. 6; 1957, c. 1340, s. 6.)

Editor's Note. — The 1943 amendment made changes in subsection (d). It also made changes in subsection (g) by rewriting the second sentence and inserting the third and fourth sentences.

The 1945 amendment made changes in subsection (h).

The 1947 amendment rewrote subsection (e).

The 1957 amendment substituted “three thousand dollars” for “one thousand dollars” in subsection (d) and added the last two sentences thereto. The amending act became effective with gifts reportable for the 1957 calendar year.

§ 105-188.1. Powers of appointment. — (a) The term “general power of appointment” as used in this article means any power of appointment exercisable in favor of the person possessing the power, his estate, his creditors, or the creditors of his estate, except that a power to consume, invade or appropriate property for the benefit of the possessor which is limited by an ascertainable standard relating to the health, education, support, or maintenance of the possessor shall not be deemed a general power of appointment. The term “special power of appointment” shall mean any other power of appointment.

(b) Any person having a general power of appointment with respect to any interest in property shall for gift tax purposes be deemed to be the owner of such interest, and accordingly:

(1) If in connection with any gift of property the donor shall give to any person a general power of appointment with respect to any interest in such property, the donor shall be deemed to have given such person such interest in such property.

(2) If any person holding a general power of appointment with respect to any interest in property shall exercise such power in favor of any other
§ 105-189. Transfer for less than adequate and full consideration. — Where property is transferred for less than an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth, then the amount by which the value of the property exceeded the value of the consideration shall, for the purpose of the tax imposed by this article, be deemed a gift and shall be included in computing the amount of gifts made during the calendar year. (1939, c. 158, s. 601.)

§ 105-190. Gifts made in property.—If the gift is made in property, the fair market value thereof at the date of the gift shall be considered the amount of the gift. (1939, c. 158, s. 602.)

§ 105-191. Manner of determining tax; time of payment; application to Department of Revenue for correction of assessment.—The tax imposed by this article shall be paid by the donor on or before the fifteenth day of April following the close of the calendar year.

Reports of the gifts shall be made by the donor to the State Department of Revenue on blank forms prepared by the State Department of Revenue and furnished on application to any taxpayer, and the amount of tax due shall be paid at the time such report is made. The Department of Revenue shall audit the returns made under this article, and if it is found that the amount of tax paid is less than the amount lawfully due under the provisions of this article shall forward a statement of the taxes determined to the person or persons primarily chargeable with the payment thereof, such additional taxes to be collected under the same rules and regulations contained in this subchapter for the collection of other taxes. If an overpayment should be found to have been made, refund of such overpayment shall be made to the taxpayer within sixty (60) days of the discovery thereof if the amount of the overpayment is three dollars ($3.00) or more. If such overpayment is less than three dollars ($3.00), the overpayment shall be refunded only upon receipt by the Commissioner of a written demand for such refund from the taxpayer. No overpayment shall be refunded, irrespective of whether based upon discovery or receipt of written demand, if such discovery was not made or such demand was not received within three (3) years from the date set by the statute for the filing of the return or within six (6)

§ 105-193. Lien for tax; collection of tax.—The tax imposed by this article shall be a lien upon all gifts that constitute the basis for the tax for a period of ten years from the time they are made. If the tax is not paid by the donor when due, each donee shall be personally liable, to the extent of their respective gifts, for so much of the tax as may have been assessed, or may be assessable thereon. Any part of the property comprised in the gift that may have been sold by the donee to a bona fide purchaser for an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth shall be divested of the lien hereby imposed and the lien, to the extent of the value of such gift, shall attach to all the property of the donee (including after-acquired property) except any part sold to a bona fide purchaser for an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth.

If the tax is not paid within thirty days after it has become due, the Department of Revenue may use any of the methods authorized in this subchapter for the collection of other taxes to enforce the payment of taxes assessed under this article.

In any proceeding by warrant or otherwise to enforce the collection of said tax, the donor shall be liable for the full amount of the tax due by reason of all the gifts constituting the basis for such tax, and each donee shall be liable only for so much of said tax as may be due on account of his respective gift. (1939, c. 158, s. 605.)

§ 105-194. Death of donor within three (3) years; time of assessment. — Where a donor dies within three (3) years after filing a return, gift taxes may be assessed at any time within said three (3) years, or on or before the date of final settlement of donor's State inheritance taxes, whichever is later. (1939, c. 158, s. 606; 1947, c. 501, s. 6; 1959, c. 1259, s. 10.)

§ 105-195. Tax to be assessed upon actual value of property; manner of determining value of annuities, life estates and interests less than absolute interest.—Said taxes shall be assessed upon the actual value of the property at the time of the transfer by gift. If the gift subject to said tax is given to a donee for life or for a term of years, or upon condition or contingency, with remainder to take effect upon the termination of the life estate or term of years or the happening of the condition or contingency, the tax on the whole amount shall be due and payable as in other cases, and said tax shall be apportioned between such life tenant or tenant for years and the remainderman, such apportionment to be made by computation based upon the mortuary and annuity tables set out in §§ 8-46 and 8-47 of the General Statutes, and upon the basis of six per centum (6%) of the gross value of the property for the period...
§ 105-196. Application for relief from taxes assessed; appeal.—A taxpayer may apply to the Commissioner of Revenue for revision of the tax assessed against him at any time within three years from the time of the filing of the return or from the date of the notice of assessment of any additional tax. The Commissioner shall grant a hearing thereon, and if upon such hearing he shall determine that the tax is excessive or incorrect, he shall resettle the same according to law and the facts, and adjust the computation of tax accordingly. The Commissioner shall notify the taxpayer of his determination, and shall refund to the taxpayer the amount, if any, paid in excess of the tax found by him to be due. The provisions of G. S. 105-241.2, 105-241.3 and 105-241.4 with respect to review and appeal shall be available to any taxpayer aggrieved by the Commissioner's decision. (1939, c. 158, s. 698; 1955, c. 1350, s. 20.)

Editor's Note.—The 1955 amendment rewrote the last sentence.

§ 105-197. Returns; time of filing; extension of time for filing.—Any person who within the calendar year nineteen hundred thirty-nine, after March 24, 1939, or any calendar year thereafter, makes any gift or gifts taxed by this article shall report in duplicate, under oath, to the Department of Revenue, on forms provided for that purpose, showing therein an itemized schedule of all such gifts, the name and residence of each donee and the actual value of the gift to each, the relationship of each of such persons to the donor, and any other information which the Department of Revenue may require. Such returns shall be filed on or before the fifteenth day of April following the close of the calendar year. The Department of Revenue may grant a reasonable extension of time for filing a report whenever in its judgment good cause exists. (1939, c. 158, s. 609; 1955, c. 22, s. 1.)

Editor's Note.—The 1955 amendment substituted "April" for "March" in the second sentence.

Article 7.

Schedule H. Intangible Personal Property.

§ 105-198. Intangible personal property.—The intangible personal properties enumerated and defined in this article or schedule are hereby classified under authority of section three, Article V of the Constitution, and the taxes levied thereon are for the benefit of the State and the political subdivisions of the State as hereinafter provided and said taxes so levied for the benefit of the political subdivisions of the State are levied for and on behalf of said political subdivisions of the State to the same extent and manner as if said levies were made by the governing authorities of the said subdivisions for distribution therein as hereinafter provided. (1939, c. 158, s. 700.)

County Board of Education Denied Recovery of Funds Allocated to Municipality from Tax.—In Board of Education v. Wilson, 215 N. C. 216, 1 S. E. (2d) 544 (1939), it was held that the county board of education was not entitled to recover from municipality funds allocated to it by State from intangible tax provided by this section, even though municipality is in nowise liable for maintenance of constitutional school term, since it could not expend the funds as agent of the municipality in discharging the debts of the municipality for school purposes since the municipality had no such debt, nor could it expend such funds for school purposes in any of its districts since there was no district coterminous with the municipal limits and such expenditure would take taxes collected from citizens of the municipality and expend same in part for the benefit of those living outside its limits, and since the act does not provide for distribution of the funds to the county board of education in such cases and such provisions may not be interpolated therein, and since by a proper construction of the act the provision for expenditure for school purposes may relate to counties rather than to cities and towns. Cited in Jamison v. Charlotte, 239 N. C. 682, 80 S. E. (2d) 904 (1954).

§ 105-199. Money on deposit. — All money on deposit (including certificates of deposit and postal savings) with any bank or other corporation, firm or person doing a banking business, whether such money be actually in or out of this State, having a business, commercial or taxable situs in this State, shall be subject to an annual tax, which is hereby levied, of ten cents ($0.10) on every one hundred dollars ($100.00) of the total amount of such deposit without deduction for any indebtedness or liabilities of the taxpayer.

For the purpose of determining the amount of deposits subject to this tax every such bank or other corporation, firm or person doing a banking business shall set up the credit balance of each depositor on the fifteenth day of each February, May, August, and November in the calendar year next preceding the due date of tax return, and the average of such quarterly credit balances shall constitute the amount of deposit of each depositor subject to the tax herein levied; for the purposes of this section accounts having an average of quarterly balances for the year of less than three hundred dollars ($300.00) may be disregarded.

The tax levied in this section upon money on deposit shall be paid by the cashier, treasurer or other officer or officers of every such bank or other corporation, firm or person doing a banking business in this State by report and payment to the Commissioner of Revenue on or before April fifteenth of each year; any taxes so paid as agent for the depositor shall be recovered from the owners thereof by the bank or other corporation, firm or person doing a banking business in this State by deduction from the account of the depositor on November sixteenth of each year or on such date thereafter as in the ordinary course of business it becomes convenient to make such charge. The bank may immediately report and pay the tax due on any account closed out during any quarter in which the bank has withheld the amount of the tax. The tax on deposits represented by time certificates shall be chargeable to the original depositor unless such depositor has given notice to the depository bank of transfer of such certificate of deposit. Accounts that have been closed during the year, leaving no credit balance against which the tax can be charged, may be reported separately to the Commissioner of Revenue and the tax due on such accounts shall become a charge directly against the depositor, and such tax may be collected by the Commissioner of Revenue from the depositor in the same manner as other taxes levied in this act; the bank or other corporation, firm or person doing a banking business in this State shall not be held liable for the payment of the tax due on accounts so reported. None of the provisions of this section shall be construed to relieve any taxpayer of liability for a full and complete return of postal savings and of all money on § 105-200. Money on hand. — All money on hand (including money in safe deposit boxes, safes, cash registers, etc.) on December thirty-first of each year, having a business, commercial or taxable situs in this State, shall be subject to an annual tax, which is hereby levied, of twenty-five cents (25¢) on every one hundred dollars ($100.00) of the total amount of such money on hand without deduction for any indebtedness or liabilities of the taxpayer; except that taxpayers reporting on a fiscal year basis for income tax purposes under the provisions of article 4 shall report all money on hand on the last day of such fiscal year ending during the year prior to that December 31 as of which such property would otherwise be reported. (1939, c. 158, s. 702; 1957, c. 1340, s. 7.)

Editor's Note. — The 1957 amendment added the exception clause.

§ 105-201. Accounts receivable. — All accounts receivable on December thirty-first of each year, having a business, commercial or taxable situs in this State, shall be subject to an annual tax, which is hereby levied, of twenty-five cents (25¢) on every one hundred dollars ($100.00) of the face value of such accounts receivable, except that taxpayers reporting on a fiscal year basis for income tax purposes under the provisions of article 4 shall report accounts receivable on the last day of such fiscal year ending during the year prior to that December 31 as of which such property would otherwise be reported: Provided, that from the face value of such accounts receivable there may be deducted the accounts payable of the taxpayer as of the valuation date of the accounts receivable; Provided further, that no deduction in any case shall be allowed under this section of any indebtedness of the taxpayer on account of capital outlay, permanent additions to capital or purchase of capital assets.

The term "accounts payable" as used in this section shall not include:

(1) Reserves, secondary liabilities or contingent liabilities except upon satisfactory showing that the taxpayer will actually be compelled to pay the debt or liability;
(2) Taxes of any kind owing by the taxpayer;
(3) Debts owed to a corporation of which the taxpayer is parent or subsid-
§ 105-202. Bonds, notes, and other evidences of debt. — All bonds, notes, demands, claims, deposits or investments in out-of-State building and loan and savings and loan associations and other evidences of debt however evidenced, whether secured by mortgage, deed of trust, judgment or otherwise, or not so secured, having a business, commercial or taxable situs in this State on December thirty-first of each year shall be subject to annual tax, which is hereby levied, of twenty-five cents (25¢) on every one hundred dollars ($100.00) of the actual value thereof, except that taxpayers reporting on a fiscal year basis for income tax purposes under the provisions of article 4 shall report evidences of debt on the last day of such fiscal year ending during the year prior to the December 31 as of which such property would otherwise be reported: Provided, that from the actual value of such bonds, notes, demands, claims and other evidences of debt there may be deducted like evidences of debt owed by the taxpayer as of the valuation date of the receivable evidences of debt. The term “like evidences of debt” deductible under this section shall not include:

(1) Accounts payable;
(2) Taxes of any kind owing by the taxpayer;
(3) Reserves, secondary liabilities or contingent liabilities except upon satisfactory showing that the taxpayer will actually be compelled to pay the debt or liability;
(4) Evidences of debt owed to a corporation of which the taxpayer is parent or subsidiary or with which the taxpayer is closely affiliated by stock ownership or with which the taxpayer is subsidiary of same parent corporation, unless the credits created by such evidences of debt are listed, if so required by law for ad valorem or property taxation, for taxation at the situs of such credits; or
(5) Debts incurred to purchase assets which are not subject to taxation at the situs of such assets.
§ 105-202

From the total actual value of bonds, notes, demands, claims and other evidences of debt returned to this State for taxation by or in behalf of any taxpayer who or which also owns other such evidences of debt as have situs outside of this State, like evidences of debt owed by the taxpayer may be deducted only in the proportion which the total actual value of evidences of debt taxable under this section bears to the total actual value of all like evidences of debt owed by the taxpayer.

The tax levied in this section shall not apply to bonds, notes and other evidences of debt of the United States, State of North Carolina, political subdivisions of this State or agencies of such governmental units, but the tax shall apply to all bonds and other evidences of debt of political subdivisions and governmental units other than those specifically excluded herein.

In every action or suit in any court for the collection on any bonds, notes, demands, claims or other evidences of debt, the plaintiff shall be required to allege in his pleadings or to prove at any time before final judgment is entered

1. That such bonds, notes or other evidences of debt have been assessed for taxation for each and every tax year, under the provisions of this article, during which the plaintiff was owner of same, not exceeding five years prior to that in which the suit or action is brought; or

2. That such bonds, notes or other evidences of debt sued upon are not taxable hereunder in the hands of the plaintiff; or

3. That the suitor has not paid, or is unable to pay such taxes, penalties and interest as might be due, but is willing for the same to be paid out of the first recovery on the evidence of debt sued upon.

When in any action at law or suit in equity it is ascertained that there are unpaid taxes, penalties and interest due on the evidence of debt sought to be enforced, and the suitor makes it appear to the court that he has not paid or is unable to pay said taxes, penalties and interest, but is willing for the same to be paid out of the first recovery on the evidence of debt, the court shall have authority to enter as a part of any judgment or decretal order in said proceedings that the amount of taxes, penalties and interest due and owing shall be paid to the proper officer out of the first collection on said judgment or decree. The title to real estate heretofore or hereafter sold under a deed of trust shall not be drawn in question upon the ground that the holder of the notes secured by such deed of trust did not list and return the same for taxation as required by this article.

Editor's Note. — The 1947 amendment decreased the tax mentioned in the first sentence from 50 to 25 cents.

The 1957 amendment inserted the exception clause in the first sentence of the first paragraph.

The 1959 amendment struck out, near the end of the first paragraph, "on December thirty-first of the same year" and inserted in lieu thereof "as of the valuation date of the receivable evidences of debt."

The 1963 amendment, effective July 1, 1963, inserted "deposits or investments in out-of-State building and loan and savings and loan associations" near the beginning of this section.

Judgment Provision as to Payment of Taxes. — Nonpayment of taxes on a note in suit is nullified by a provision in the judgment on the note that taxes, penalties and interest due shall be paid to the proper officers out of the first collections on the judgment. This is in accord with this section. Roberts v. Grogan, 222 N. C. 30, 21 S. E. (2d) 829 (1942).

Former Law; Failure to List Solvent Credits. — The failure to list solvent credits as required by an earlier statute did not destroy the cause of action, but postponed recovery thereon until they were listed and the tax thereon was paid; this was because the statute did not make the failure to list such credits an absolute bar to their recovery. Martin v. Knight, 147 N C. 564, 61 S. E. 447 (1908). The court said: "It was not the purpose of the legislature to release the debtor for failure to list by the creditor, but to postpone the recovery of the debt, if subject to taxation, until the tax is paid."

Same; Failure to List Debt Did Not Work Forfeiture. — Laws 1927, c. 71, § 64.
was not construed to work a forfeiture, and did not prevent the recovery of judgment thereon until listed and the taxes paid, and where in an action on a note this defense was pleaded, the trial court had the power to allow the plaintiff to list it and pay taxes thereon during the trial and give judgment. Wooten v. Bell.

196 N. C. 654, 146 S. E. 705 (1929).

Same; How Pleadèd.—Under an earlier statute it was held that unless the failure to list a note and due bill for taxation, "with a view to evade the payment of taxes thereon," was pleaded, it could not be made the subject of an issue. Martin v. Knight, 147 N. C. 564, 61 S. E. 447 (1908). Whether or not this was an affirmative defense which must be set up in the answer or whether it might be taken advantage of upon the general denial was left undecided.

Same; Payment of Taxes into Court.—The amount of taxes due upon solvent credits could be paid into court, Corey v. Hooker, 171 N. C. 229, 88 S. E. 236 (1916). and when this was done it permitted the party to proceed to judgment. Hyatt v. Holloman, 168 N. C. 386, 84 S. E. 407 (1915).

A possessory action to recover a horse secured by chattel mortgage, brought by the assignee of the mortgage not against one to whom the mortgagee had sold the horse, was not an action upon the note upon which the former statute required that the taxes be given in and paid before the owner was permitted to sue thereon. Hyatt v. Holloman, 168 N. C. 386, 84 S. E. 407 (1915).

An amount set apart by a mutual insurance company as a reserve for the rebate of unearned premiums to its policyholders upon cancellation of policies in accordance with its bylaws was properly deducted by the insurance company in listing its solvent credits for taxation. Hardware Mut. Fire Ins. Co. v. Stinson, 210 N. C. 69, 185 S. E. 449 (1936), construing former statute.

§ 105-203. Shares of stock.—All shares of stock owned by residents of this State or having a business, commercial or taxable situs in this State on December thirty-first of each year, with the exception herein provided, shall be subject to an annual tax, which is hereby levied, of twenty-five cents (25¢) on every one hundred dollars ($100.00) of the total fair market value of such stock on December thirty-first of each year less such proportion of such value as is equal to the proportion of the dividends upon such stock deductible by such taxpayer in computing his income tax liability under the provisions of subdivision (7) of § 105-147.

The tax herein levied shall not apply to shares of stock in building and loan associations which pay a tax as levied under article 8D of chapter 105 of the General Statutes.

Indebtedness incurred directly for the purchase of shares of stock may be deducted from the total value of such shares: Provided, the specific shares of stock so purchased are pledged as collateral to secure said indebtedness; provided, further, that only so much of said indebtedness may be deducted as is in the same proportion as the taxable value of said shares of stock is to the total value of said shares of stock. (1939, c. 158, s. 70591941, s. 8250, s. 8; 1945, c. 708, s. 8; 1947, c. 501, s. 7: 1951, c. 937, s. 5; 1955, c. 1343, s. 2; 1957, c. 1340, s. 9.)

Editor's Note.—The 1941 amendment added the last paragraph.

The 1945 amendments made changes in the second paragraph.

The 1947 amendment decreased the tax mentioned in the first paragraph from 30 to 25 cents.

The 1951 amendment changed the second paragraph.

The 1955 amendment rewrote the first and second paragraphs.

The 1957 amendment substituted in the second paragraph "article 8D of chapter 105 of the General Statutes" for "§ 105-73."

For brief comment on the 1951 amendment, see 29 N. C. Law Rev. 415.
§ 105-204. Beneficial interest in foreign trusts. — The beneficial or equitable interest on December thirty-first of each year of any resident of this State, or of a nonresident having a business, commercial or taxable situs in this State, in any trust, trust fund or trust account (including custodian accounts) held by a foreign fiduciary, shall be subject to an annual tax, which is hereby levied, of twenty-five cents ($0.25) on every one hundred dollars ($100.00) of the total actual value thereof. (1939, c. 158, s. 706; 1941, c. 50, s. 8; 1947, c. 501, s. 7.)

Editor's Note. — The 1941 amendment decreased the tax rate from 30 to 25 cents.

§ 105-205. Funds on deposit with insurance companies. — All funds on deposit with insurance companies on December thirty-first of each year, belonging to or held in trust for a resident of this State or having acquired a taxable situs in this State, shall be subject to an annual tax, which is hereby levied, of ten cents ($0.10) on every one hundred dollars ($100.00) thereof. The term “funds” on deposit as used in this section shall mean all funds accrued or accruing by virtue of the death of the insured or the original maturity of a policy contract where the party or parties entitled to receive such funds might withdraw same at their option upon stipulated notice; provided, that in the determination of the tax liability under this section the first twenty thousand dollars ($20,000.00) of such funds on deposit or paid over to and held by a bank as trustee shall be disregarded where such funds on deposit are payable wholly and exclusively to a widow and/or children of the person deceased whose death created such funds on deposit.

The tax levied in this section shall be paid by the treasurer, cashier or other officer or officers of every insurance company doing business in this State by report and payment to the Commissioner of Revenue on or before April fifteenth of each year; any taxes so paid as agent for the party or parties entitled to receive such funds shall be recovered from the owners thereof by deduction from the account of the owner on December thirty-first of each year or at such other time as in the ordinary course of business it becomes convenient to make such charge. (1939, c. 158, s. 707; 1941, c. 50, s. 8; 1947, c. 501, s. 7; 1955, c. 19, s. 1.)

Editor's Note. — The 1941 amendment inserted the proviso at the end of the first paragraph. The 1955 amendment substituted “April” for “March” in the second paragraph.

§ 105-206. When taxes due and payable; date lien attaches; nonresidents; forms for returns; extensions.—All taxes levied in this article or schedule shall become due and payable on the fifteenth day of April of each year, and the lien of such taxes shall attach annually to all real estate of the taxpayer within this State as of December thirty-first of each year or at such other time as in the ordinary course of business it becomes convenient to make such charge. (1939, c. 158, s. 707; 1941, c. 50, s. 8; 1947, c. 501, s. 7; 1955, c. 19, s. 1.)

Every person, firm, association, corporation, clerk of court, guardian, trustee, executor, administrator, receiver, assignee for creditors, trustee in bankruptcy or other fiduciary owning or holding any intangible personal properties defined and classified and/or liable for or required to pay any tax levied, in this article or schedule, either as principal or agent, shall make and deliver to the Commissioner of Revenue in such form as he may prescribe a full, accurate and complete return of such tax liability; such return, together with the local amount of tax due, shall be filed on or before the fifteenth day of April in each year.

For the purpose of protecting the revenue of this State and to avoid discrimination and prevent evasion of the tax imposed by this article, every resident or nonresident person, firm, association, trustee or corporation, foreign or domestic, engaged in this State, either as principal or as agent or representative of or on behalf of another, in buying, selling, collecting, discounting, negotiating or otherwise dealing in or handling any of the intangible property defined in this article, shall be deemed to be doing business in this State for the purposes of this article, and the principal, superior or person on whose behalf such business is carried on in this State shall likewise be deemed to be doing business in this State, for the purpose of this article, and where such business is carried on in this State by a corporation, foreign or domestic, it and its parent corporation or the corporation which substantially owns or controls it, by stock ownership or otherwise, shall be deemed to be doing business in this State, for the purpose of this article, and in all such cases the said intangible property acquired in the conduct of such business in this State, and outstanding on December 31 of each year, shall be deemed to have a situs in this State and subject to the tax imposed by this article, notwithstanding any transfer between any of such parties and notwithstanding that the same may be kept or may then be outside of this State, and any of the intangible property defined in this article and acquired in the conduct of any business carried on in this State, and/or having a business, commercial or taxable situs in this State, shall be subject to said tax and returned for taxation by the owner thereof or by the agent, person, or corporation in this State employed by such owner to handle or collect the same.

The Commissioner of Revenue shall cause to be prepared blank forms for said returns and shall cause them to be distributed throughout the State, and to be furnished upon application; but failure to receive or secure forms shall not relieve any taxpayer from the obligation of making full and complete return of intangible personal properties as provided in this article or schedule.

The return required by this article or schedule shall be due on or before the date specified unless written application for extension of time in which to file, containing reasons therefor, is made to the Commissioner of Revenue on or before due date of return. The Commissioner of Revenue for good cause may extend the time for filing any such return, provided interest at the rate of six per cent (6%) per annum from due date of return is paid upon the total amount of tax due.

Editor’s Note. — The 1941 amendment rewrote the third paragraph of this section.

The 1955 amendment substituted “April” for “March” near the beginning of the first paragraph and near the end of the second paragraph. It also deleted the paragraph which had been inserted by the 1953 amendment.

Funds in Custodia Legis; Listing by Clerk under Former Law.—The clerk of the court was both a “receiver” and an “accounting officer” of funds paid into his hands in the course of litigation, within the meaning of a former statute, and thereunder should properly list such funds for taxation, when no adjudication as to the rightful owners had been made. Edgecombe County v. Walston, 174 N. C. 55, 93 S. E. 460 (1917).

fers of record made from residents of this State between the first and thirty-first days of December next preceding the date of the report herein required, and such other and further information as the Commissioner of Revenue may require. (1939, c. 158, s. 711; 1955, c. 19, s. 1; c. 1350, s. 21.)

Editor’s Note.—The first 1955 amendment substituted “April” for “March.” The second 1955 amendment deleted the former second paragraph relating to power of Commissioner of Revenue to make rules and regulations.

§ 105-210. Moneyed capital coming into competition with the business of banks. — On all moneyed capital coming into competition with the business of banks, whether State or national, there is hereby annually levied a tax at the same rate as is assessed upon the shares of stock of such banks located in this State at the place of residence of such banks, less deduction of real estate otherwise taxed in this State, to the same extent and under the same corresponding conditions as this deduction is allowed in the assessment of such shares of stock of banks located in this State: Provided, that bonds, notes or other evidences of indebtedness in the hands of individual citizens not employed or engaged in the banking or investment business and representing merely personal investments not made in competition with such business shall not be deemed moneyed capital with-in the meaning of this section.

In cases where the Commissioner of Revenue shall find moneyed capital, as specified in the preceding paragraph, to be in competition with banks, such moneyed capital shall be assessed by the same methods as applicable to the shares of banks, and shall be taxed at the same rates as are applicable to the shares of banks in the same locality where such moneyed capital is found to be in competition with banks. The rates of tax thus applied shall be in lieu of the rates of tax specified in this article. (1939, c. 158, s. 712; 1945, c. 708, s. 8.)

Editor’s Note. — The 1945 amendment made this section applicable to State as well as national banks and added the second paragraph.

§ 105-211. Conversion of intangible personal property to evade taxation not to defeat assessment and collection of proper taxes; taxpayer’s protection. — Any taxpayer who shall, for the purpose of evading taxation under the provisions of this article or schedule, within thirty days prior to December thirty-first of any year or other taxable dates, namely February fifteenth, May fifteenth, August fifteenth, and November fifteenth, either directly or indirectly, convert any intangible personal property taxable under the provisions of this article or schedule, or with like intent shall, either directly or indirectly, convert such intangible personal property into a class of property which is taxable in this State at a lower rate than the intangible personal property so converted, shall be taxable on such intangible personal property as if such conversion had not taken place; the fact that such taxpayer within thirty days after December thirty-first of any year, either directly or indirectly, converts such property non-taxable in this State or taxable at the lower rate in this State into intangible personal property taxable at the higher rate shall be prima facie evidence of intent to evade taxation by this State, and the burden of proof shall be upon such taxpayer to show that the first conversion was for a bona fide purpose of investment and not for the purpose of evading taxation by this State.

Taxpayers making a complete return on or before April fifteenth of each year of all their holdings of intangible personal property as provided by this article or schedule (or by similar provisions of prior Revenue Act) shall not thereafter be held liable for failure to list such intangible personal property with the local taxing units of this State in previous years; the taxes levied in this article or schedule shall be in lieu of all other property taxes in this State on such intangible personal property. (1939, c. 158, s. 713; 1945, c. 708, s. 8; 1955, c. 19, s. 1.)

Editor’s Note. — The 1945 amendment inserted in the first paragraph “or other taxable dates, namely February fifteenth.” The 1955 amendment substituted “April” May fifteenth, August fifteenth, and November fifteenth.”
§ 105-212. Institutions exempted; conditional and other exemptions.—None of the taxes levied in this article or schedule shall apply to religious, educational, charitable or benevolent organizations not conducted for profit, nor to trusts established for religious, educational, charitable or benevolent purposes where none of the property or the income from the property owned by such trust may inure to the benefit of any individual or any organization conducted for profit, nor to any funds held irrevocably in trust exclusively for the maintenance and care of places of burial; nor, on or after January first, one thousand nine hundred and forty-two, to any funds, evidences of debt, or securities held irrevocably in pension, profit sharing, stock bonus, or annuity trusts, or combinations thereof, established by employers for the purpose of distributing both the principal and income thereof exclusively to eligible employees, or the beneficiaries of such employees, if such trusts qualify for exemption from income tax under the provisions of § 105-138, subdivision (10); insurance companies reporting premiums to the Insurance Commissioner of this State and paying a tax thereon under the provisions of article 8B, Schedule I-B shall not be subject to the provisions of §§ 105-201, 105-202 and 105-203; building and loan associations paying a tax under the provisions of article 8D of chapter 105 of the General Statutes shall not be subject to the provisions of §§ 105-201, 105-202 and 105-203; State credit unions organized pursuant to the provisions of subchapter III, chapter fifty-four, paying the supervisory fees required by law, shall not be subject to any of the taxes levied in this article or schedule; banks, banking associations and trust companies shall not be subject to the tax levied in this article or schedule on evidences of debt held by them when said evidences of debt represent investment of funds on deposit with such banks, banking associations and trust companies: Provided, that each such institution must, upon request by the Commissioner of Revenue, establish in writing its claim for exemption as herein provided. The exemptions in this section shall apply only to those institutions, and only to the extent, specifically mentioned, and no other.

Any North Carolina corporation which in the opinion of the Commissioner of Revenue of North Carolina qualifies as a “regulated investment company” under the provisions of United States Code Annotated Title 26, section 361, and which files with the North Carolina Department of Revenue its election to be treated as a “regulated investment company”, shall not be subject to any of the taxes levied in this article or schedule.

If any intangible personal property held or controlled by a fiduciary domiciled in this State is so held or controlled for the benefit of a nonresident or nonresidents, or for the benefit of any organization exempt under this section from the tax imposed by this article, such intangible personal property shall be partially or wholly exempt from taxation under the provisions of this article in the ratio which the net income distributed or distributable to such nonresident, nonresidents or organization, derived from such intangible personal property during the calendar year for which the taxes levied by this article are imposed, bears to the entire net income derived from such intangible personal property during such calendar year. “Net income” shall be deemed to have the same meaning that it has in the income tax article. Where the intangible personal property for which this exemption is claimed is held or controlled with other property as a unit, allocation of appropriate deductions from gross income shall be made to that part of the entire gross income which is derived from the intangible personal property by direct method to the extent practicable; and otherwise by such other method as the Commissioner of Revenue shall find to be reasonable: Provided, that each fiduciary claiming the exemption provided in this paragraph shall, upon the request of the Commissioner of Revenue, establish in writing its claim to such exemption. No provision of law shall be construed as exempting trust funds or trust property from the taxes levied by this article except in the specific cases covered by this section.

A clerk of any court of this State may, upon written application therefor, obtain from the Commissioner of Revenue a certificate relieving the depository bank of such clerk from the duty of collecting the tax levied in this article or schedule from deposits of said clerk: Provided, that such clerk of court shall be liable under his official bond for the full and proper remittance to the Commissioner of Revenue under the provisions of this article or schedule of taxes due on any deposits so handled. (1939, c. 158, s. 714; 1943, c. 400, s. 8; 1945, c. 708, s. 8; 1947, c. 501, s. 7; 1951, c. 937, ss. 2; 1957, c. 1340, ss. 7, 9.)

Editor's Note.—The 1943 amendment inserted the provision relating to State credit unions.

The 1945 amendment inserted the words appearing between the first and second semicolons in the first paragraph.

The 1947 amendment substituted “one thousand nine hundred and forty-two” for “one thousand nine hundred and forty-four” near the beginning of the first paragraph, and substituted “article 8B, Schedule I-B” for “§ 105-121” near the middle of the paragraph. It also inserted the third paragraph.

The 1951 amendment inserted the second paragraph of this section.

The 1957 amendment inserted near the beginning of the first paragraph the clause relating to trusts established for religious, etc., purposes. The amendment also substituted in the paragraph “article 8D of chapter 105 of the General Statutes” for “§ 105-73.”

§ 105-213. Separate records by counties; disposition and distribution of taxes collected; purpose of tax.—The Commissioner of Revenue shall keep a separate record by counties of tax collected under the provisions of this article or schedule, and shall not later than the twentieth day of July of each year submit to the State Board of Assessment an accurate account of such taxes collected during the fiscal year ending June thirtieth next preceding, showing separately by sections the total collections less refunds in each county of the State. The State Board of Assessment shall examine such reports and, if found to be correct, shall certify a copy of same to the State Auditor and State Treasurer. From the total collections less refunds so certified shall be deducted an amount determined by the State Board of Assessment to be sufficient to defray the cost to the State of collecting such revenues for the fiscal year and the tax credit specified in the second paragraph of G. S. 105-122 (d), which funds shall be retained by the State, and the net collections after such deduction shall be distributed to the counties and municipalities of the State on the following basis:

The amount distributable to each county and to the municipalities therein from the revenue collected under §§ 105-200, 105-201, 105-202 to 105-204 shall be § 105-214. Minimum tax for requirement of filing returns.—When the combined tax of any taxpayer required to be paid under §§ 105-200, 105-201, 105-202, 105-203, 105-204 and 105-205 does not exceed a tax of five dollars ($5.00), no return shall be required to be filed. This section shall not be construed to affect the provisions of § 105-199, and the minimum tax herein provided shall not apply to said section. (1963, c. 1010.)

Editor's Note. — The act inserting this section is effective as of Dec. 31, 1963.

§ 105-215. Unconstitutionality or invalidity; interpretation; repeal. — If any clause, sentence, paragraph, or part of this article or schedule shall for any reason be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such judgment shall not affect, impair, or invalidate the remainder of this article or schedule, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph, or part thereof directly involved in the controversy in which such judgment shall have been rendered. No caption of any section or set of sections shall in any way affect the interpretation of this article or any part thereof. All acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this article or schedule are specifically hereby repealed. (1939, c. 158, s. 717.)

§ 105-216. Reversion to local units in case of invalidity. — If any clause, sentence, paragraph, or part of this article or schedule shall for any reason be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, and if by virtue of said judgment any one or all of the several taxes classified and levied in this article or schedule is/are held invalid, then the particular class or classes of intangible personal property affected by said judgment shall become subject to listing, assessment and taxation by the county, municipality, and other taxing jurisdictions in which said intangible personal property has situs in the same manner...
§ 105-217. Power of attorney. — The Commissioner of Revenue shall have authority to require a proper power of attorney of each and every agent for any taxpayer under this article or schedule. (1939, c. 158, s. 719.)

Article 8A.

§ 105-228.1. Defining taxes levied and assessed in this article. — The purpose of this article is to levy a fair and equal tax under authority of Article V, section three of the Constitution of North Carolina and to provide a practical means for ascertaining and collecting it. The taxes levied and assessed in this schedule shall be upon the gross earnings as defined in the article, and shall be in lieu of ad valorem taxes upon the properties of individuals, firms, or corporations so taxed herein. (1954, c. 400, s. 8.)

Editor’s Note.—For comment on article, see 21 N. C. Law Rev. 364.

§ 105-228.2. Tax upon freight car line companies. — (a) For purposes of taxation under this section the property of freight line companies as defined is declared to constitute a special class of property. In lieu of all ad valorem taxes by either or both the State government and the respective local taxing jurisdictions, a tax upon gross earnings in the State as elsewhere defined shall be imposed.

(b) Any person or persons, joint-stock association or corporation, wherever organized or incorporated, engaged in the business of operating cars or engaged in the business of furnishing or leasing cars not otherwise listed for taxation in this State, for the transportation of freight (whether such cars be owned by such company or any other person or company), over any railway or lines, in whole or in part, within this State, such line or lines not being owned, leased or operated by such company, whether such cars be termed box, flat, coal, ore, tank, stock, gondola, furniture, or refrigerator car or by some other name, shall be deemed a freight line company.

(c) For the purposes of taxation under this section all cars used exclusively within the State, or used partially within and without the State, and a proportionate part of the intangible values of the business as a going concern, are hereby declared to have situs in this State.

(d) Every freight line company, as hereinbefore defined, shall pay annually a sum in the nature of a tax at three per centum upon the total gross earnings received from all sources by such freight line companies within the State, which shall be in lieu of all ad valorem taxes in this State of any freight company so paying the same.

(e) The term “gross earnings received from all sources by such freight line companies within the State" as used in this article is hereby declared and shall be construed to mean all earnings from the operation of freight cars within the State for all car movements or business beginning and ending within the State and a proportion, based upon the proportion of car mileage within the State to the total car mileage, or earnings on all interstate car movements or business passing through, or into or out of the State.

(i) Every railroad company using or leasing the cars of any freight line company shall, upon making payment to such freight line company for the use or lease, after June thirtieth, one thousand nine hundred and forty-three, of such cars withhold so much thereof as is designated in this section. On or before March first of each year such railroad company shall make and file with the Commissioner of Revenue a statement showing the amount of such payment for the next preceding twelve-month period ending December thirty-first, and of the amounts so withheld by it, and shall remit to the Commissioner of Revenue the amounts so withheld. If any railroad company shall fail to make such report or fail to remit the amount of tax herein levied, or shall fail to withhold the part of such payment hereby required to be withheld, such railroad company shall become liable for the amount of the tax herein levied and shall not be entitled to deduct from its gross earnings for purposes of taxation the amounts so paid by it to freight line companies.

It is not the purpose of this subdivision to impose an unreasonable burden of accounting on railroad companies operating in this State, and the Commissioner of Revenue is hereby authorized, upon the application of any railroad company, to approve any method of accounting which he finds to be reasonably adequate for determining the amount of mileage earnings by any car line company whose equipment is operated within the State by or on the lines of such railroad company. Further, if in the opinion of the Revenue Commissioner the tax imposed by this section can be satisfactorily collected direct from the freight line companies, he is hereby authorized to fix rules and regulations for such direct collection, with the authority to return at any time to the method of collection at source above provided in this subdivision.

(g) Every car line company shall file such additional reports annually, and in such form and as of such date as the Commissioner of Revenue may deem necessary to determine the equitable amount of tax levied under this section.

(h) Upon the filing of such reports it shall be the duty of the Commissioner of Revenue to inspect and verify the same and assess the amount of taxes due from freight line companies therein named. Any freight line company against which a tax is assessed under the provisions of this article may at any time within fifteen days after the last day for the filing of reports by railroad companies, appear before the Commissioner of Revenue at a hearing to be granted by the Commissioner and offer evidence and argument on any matter bearing upon the validity or correctness of the tax assessed against it, and the Commissioner shall review his assessment of such tax and shall make his order confirming or modifying the same as he shall deem just and equitable, and if any overpayment is found to have been made it shall be refunded by the Commissioner. Provided, however that such payment if in the amount of three dollars ($3.00) or more shall be refunded to the taxpayer within sixty (60) days of the discovery thereof; if the amount of overpayment is less than three dollars ($3.00) then such overpayment shall be refunded only upon receipt by the Commissioner of Revenue of a written demand for such refund from the taxpayer. Provided further, that no overpayment shall be refunded irrespective of whether upon discovery or receipt of written demand if such discovery is not made or such demand is not received within three (3) years from the filing date of the return or within six (6) months of the payment of the tax alleged to be an overpayment, whichever date is the later.

(i) If any such freight line company or railroad company shall fail to pay the tax levied herein when due a penalty of ten (10%) per cent thereof shall imme-

§ 105-228.3. To whom this article shall apply.—The provisions of this article shall apply to every person, firm, corporation, association, society, or order operating in this State, hereinafter to be referred to as insurance company, which contracts or offers on his, their, or its account to issue any policy or contract for annuities or insurance as defined in § 58-3, or to exchange or issue reciprocal or interinsurance contracts, or to function as a rate making bureau or association, or to serve as an underwriters agency. Said provisions shall likewise apply to any person, firm or corporation who or which shall be a broker, organizer, manager, or agent, whether local, special or general, of any insurance company, and to self-insurers under the provisions of the Workmen's Compensation Act. (1945, c. 752, s. 2.)

§ 105-228.4. Annual registration fees for insurance companies. —

(a) Each and every insurance company shall, as a condition precedent for doing business in this State, on or before the first day of March of each year apply for and obtain from the Commissioner of Insurance a certificate of registration, or license, effective the first day of July, and shall pay for such certificate the following annual fees except as hereinafter provided in subsections (b) and (c):

For each domestic farmer's mutual assessment fire insurance company or association, and each branch thereof ......................... $ 10.00
For each fraternal order .................................................. 25.00
For each of all other insurance companies, except mutual burial associations taxed under § 105-121.1 ........................................ 300.00

The fees levied above shall be in addition to those specified in § 58-63.

(b) When the paid in capital stock and/or surplus of an insurance company other than a farmer's mutual assessment company or a fraternal order does not exceed one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000.00), the fee levied in this section shall be one-half the amount above specified.

(c) Upon payment of the fee specified above and the fees and taxes elsewhere specified each insurance company, exchange, bureau, or agency, shall be entitled to do the types of business specified in chapter fifty-eight, of the General Statutes of North Carolina as amended, to the extent authorized therein, except that: Insurance companies authorized to do either the types of business specified for (i) life insurance companies, or (ii) for fire and marine companies, or (iii) for casualty and fidelity and surety companies, in § 58-77, which shall also do the types of business authorized in one or both of the other of the above classifications shall in addition to the fees above specified pay one hundred dollars ($100.00) for each such additional classification of business done.

(d) Any rating bureau established by action of the General Assembly of North § 105-228.5. Taxes measured by gross premiums. — Each and every insurance company shall annually pay to the Commissioner of Insurance at the time and at the rates hereinafter specified, a tax measured by gross premiums as hereinafter defined from business done in this State during the preceding calendar year.

Gross premiums from business done in this State in the case of life insurance and annuity contracts, including any supplemental contracts thereto providing for disability benefits, accidental death benefits, or other special benefits, shall for the purposes of the taxes levied in this section mean any and all premiums collected in the calendar year (other than for contracts for reinsurance) for policies the premiums on which are paid by or credited to persons, firms or corporations resident in this State, or in the case of group policies for any contracts of insurance covering persons resident within this State, with no deduction for considerations paid for annuity contracts which are subsequently returned except as below specified, and with no other deduction whatsoever except for premiums returned under one or more of the following conditions; premiums refunded on policies rescinded for fraud or other breach of contract; premiums which were paid in advance on life insurance contracts and subsequently refunded to the insured, premium payer, beneficiary or estate; and in the case of group annuity contracts the premiums returned by reason of a change in the composition of the group covered. Said gross premiums shall be deemed to have been collected for the amounts as provided in the policy contracts for the time in force during the year, whether satisfied by cash payment, notes, loans, automatic premium loans, applied dividend or in any other manner whatsoever, except in the case of premiums waived by any of said companies pursuant to a contract for waiver of premium in case of disability.

Gross premiums from business done in this State in the case of contracts for fire insurance, casualty insurance, and any other type of insurance except life and annuity contracts as above specified, including contracts of insurance required to be carried by the Workmen's Compensation Act, shall for the purposes of the taxes levied in this section mean any and all premiums written during the calendar year, or the equivalent thereof in the case of self-insurers under the Workmen's Compensation Act, for contracts covering property or risks in this State, other than for contracts of reinsurance, whether such premiums are designated as premiums, deposits, premium deposits, policy fees, membership fees, or assessments. Gross premiums shall be deemed to have been written for the amounts as provided in the policy contracts, new and renewal, becoming effective during the year irrespective of the time or method of making payment or settlement for such premiums, and with no deduction for dividends whether returned in cash or allowed in payment or reduction of premiums or for additional insurance, and without any other deduction except for return of premiums, deposits, fees or assessments for adjustment of policy rates or for cancellation or surrender of policies.

In determining the amount of gross premiums from business in this State all gross premiums received in this State, or credited to policies written or procured in this State, or derived from business written in this State shall be deemed to be for contracts covering persons, property or risks resident or located in this State except for such premiums as are properly reported and properly allocated as being received from business done in some other nation, territory, state or states, and except for premiums from policies written in federal areas for persons in military service who pay premiums by assignment of service pay.

On the basis of the gross amount of premiums, as above defined, each company or self-insurer shall pay as to:

The amounts collected on contracts applicable to liabilities under the Workmen’s Compensation Act, a tax at the rate of one and six-tenths per cent (1.6%) in the case of domestic insurance companies and domestic self-insurers or self-insurers domesticated and doing business in North Carolina; and on the amounts collected on contracts applicable to liabilities under the Workmen’s Compensation Act in the case of foreign and alien insurance companies, or the equivalent thereof in the case of foreign and alien self-insurers, except those which have been domesticated and are doing business in North Carolina, a tax at the rate of four per cent (4%).

The amounts collected on annuities and all other contracts of insurance issued by domestic life insurance companies a tax at the rate of one and one-half per cent (1.5%).

The amounts collected on contracts of insurance issued by domestic insurance companies other than life insurance companies and other than corporations organized under chapter 57 of the General Statutes, a tax of one per cent (1%) or, in lieu thereof, any such company shall pay an income tax computed as in the case of other corporations, whichever is the greater.

The amounts collected on annuities and all other contracts of insurance a tax at the rate of two and one-half per cent (2.5%) in the case of foreign and alien companies.

The amounts collected on contracts of insurance applicable to fire and lightning coverage (marine and automobile policies not being included), a tax at the rate of one per cent (1%). This tax shall be in addition to all other taxes imposed by G. S. 105-228.5.

The premium tax rates herein provided shall be applicable with respect to all premiums collected during the calendar year, 1955, and each subsequent year.

The taxes levied herein measured by premiums shall be in lieu of all other taxes upon insurance companies except: Fees and licenses under this article, or as specified in chapter 58 of the General Statutes of North Carolina as amended; taxes imposed by chapter 118 of the General Statutes of North Carolina; taxes imposed by article 5 of chapter 105 of the General Statutes of North Carolina as amended; and ad valorem taxes upon real property and personal property owned in this State.

For the tax above levied as measured by gross premiums the president, secretary, or other executive officer of each insurance company doing business in this State shall within the first fifteen days of March in 1946 and in each year thereafter file with the Commissioner of Insurance a full and accurate report of the total gross premiums as above defined collected in this State during the preceding calendar year. The report shall be in such form and contain such information as the Commissioner of Insurance may specify, and the report shall be verified by the oath of the company official transmitting the same or by some principal officer at the home or head office of the company or association in this country. At the time of making such report the taxes above levied with respect to the gross premiums shall be paid to the Commissioner of Insurance. The provisions above shall likewise apply as to reports and taxes for any firm, corporation, or association exchanging reciprocal or interinsurance contracts, and said reports and taxes shall be transmitted by their attorneys in fact.

The provisions as to reports and taxes as measured by gross premiums shall not apply to farmer’s mutual assessment fire insurance companies above specified or to fraternal orders or societies that do not operate for a profit and do not issue policies on any person except members.

With respect to the taxes levied in this section on the equivalent of premiums of self-insurers under the provisions of the Workmen's Compensation Act, the reports required herein shall be transmitted to and the taxes collected by the North Carolina Industrial Commission as provided in subsection (j) of § 97-100 of the General Statutes of North Carolina. (1945, c. 752, s. 2; 1947, c. 501, s. 8; 1951, c. 643, s. 8; 1955, c. 1313, s. 5; 1957, c. 1340, s. 12; 1959, c. 1211; 1961, c. 783; 1963, c. 1096.)

Editor's Note.—The 1947 amendment struck out the former first paragraph and inserted in lieu thereof the first four paragraphs, and added the last paragraph. It also made changes in the former seventh paragraph, which paragraph was rewritten in 1955.

The 1951 amendment rewrote the sixth paragraph.

The 1955 amendment rewrote the former seventh paragraph to appear as the present seventh through ninth and eleventh paragraphs.

The 1957 amendment rewrote the present twelfth paragraph.

The 1959 amendment inserted the tenth paragraph.

The 1961 amendment deleted the provision to the tenth paragraph which formerly read “provided, that this tax shall not be levied on contracts of insurance written on property in unprotected areas.”

The 1963 amendment changed the provisions of the sixth paragraph relating to self-insurers.

For discussion of the 1947 amendment, see 25 N. C. Law Rev. 471.

Former Law; Validity.—The license tax imposed by a former statute upon the gross receipts of insurance companies on business written within the borders of our State was held not in contravention of the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, as to due process and equal protection of the law, nor a burden upon interstate commerce, being restricted to intrastate commerce, and not extending beyond the boundaries of the State. Pittsburg Life, etc., Co. v. Young, 172 N. C. 470, 90 S. E. 568 (1916).

A tax on the gross receipts of an insurance company is a privilege tax. Insurance Co. v. Stedman, 130 N. C. 221, 41 S. E. 279 (1902).

Same; Gross Receipts from Business Done in State.—The former tax on gross receipts applied to all receipts from business done in the State, whether the money was paid here or forwarded to the main office. Pittsburg Life, etc., Co. v. Young, 172 N. C. 470, 90 S. E. 568 (1916).

Constitutionality of 1959 Amendment.—Session Laws 1959, c. 1211, amending this section so as to impose a tax on fire insurance contracts for the purpose of providing funds for the payment of pensions to retired firemen, c. 1212, rewriting article 3 of chapter 118 to create a firemen's pension fund to be derived from the proceeds of the tax, and c. 1273, appropriating monies from the general fund to the pension fund, limited to revenues to be produced by the tax, although separately enacted must be treated as a single statute. As so considered, they are unconstitutional under Art. I, § 17, of the State Constitution since they impose a tax on one group, a limited group of insurance companies, for the sole purpose of paying the salaries of a particular class or group of public employees. Great American Ins. Co. v. Johnson, 257 N. C. 367, 126 S. E. (2d) 92 (1962), decided under this section and § 118-18 et seq. as they stood prior to their amendment in 1961.

Validity of Section Tested by § 105-267. —The validity of provisions of this section can be tested only by the exclusive procedure set out in § 105-267. Great American Ins. Co. v. Gold, 254 N. C. 168, 118 S. E. (2d) 792 (1961).

§ 105-228.6. Taxes in case of withdrawal from State. — Any insurance company which for any cause withdraws from this State or ceases to register and transact new business in this State shall be liable for the taxes specified in § 105-228.5 with respect to gross premiums collected in the calendar year in which such withdrawal may occur. In case any company which was formerly licensed or registered in this State and which subsequently ceased to do business therein, may apply to re-enter this State, application for re-entry or renewal of registration shall be denied unless and until said company shall have paid all taxes, § 105-228.7. Registration fees for agents, brokers and others. — Each and every manager, organizer, adjuster, broker or agent of whatever kind representing in this State any company referred to in this article, shall on or before the first day of April of each year apply for and obtain from the Commissioner of Insurance an annual certificate of registration, or license, and shall pay for said certificate an annual fee at the following rates, with no additional fee for affixing of seal to the certificate:

- Insurance agent (local for each company represented) .......... $5.00
- General agent or manager, for each company represented .......... 6.00
- Special agent or organizer, for each company represented .......... 5.00
- Insurance broker .................................................................... 2.50
- Nonresident broker .................................................................. 25.00
- Insurance adjuster (other than adjuster for hail damage to crops) ................................................. 25.00
- Insurance adjuster for hail damage to crops ................................ 5.00

The above fees shall be in lieu of any and all other license fees.

In cases where temporary license may be issued pursuant to law the fee for a temporary certificate shall be at the same rates as above specified, and any amounts so paid for temporary license may be credited against the fees required for issuance of the annual license or certificate.

Any person not registered who is required by law to pass examination as a condition for securing of license shall upon application for registration pay to the Commissioner of Insurance an examination fee of ten dollars ($10.00), and in case more than two examinations in any one kind of insurance are requested, an additional fee of ten dollars ($10.00) shall be paid for each added examination above two for the same kind of insurance. The requirement for examination and examination fee shall not apply to agents for domestic farmer’s mutual assessment fire insurance companies or associations specified in § 105-228.4.

In the event a certificate issued under this section is lost or destroyed the Commissioner of Insurance for a fee of fifty cents ($0.50) may certify to its issuance, giving number, date, and form, which may be used by the original party named thereon in lieu of the annual certificate. There shall be no charge for the seal attached to such certification. (1945, c. 752, s. 2; 1947, c. 1023, s. 2; 1949, c. 958, s. 2; 1951, c. 105, s. 2; 1955, c. 1313, s. 5.)

Editor’s Note.—The 1947 amendment rewrote all of this section except the last paragraph. The 1949 amendment inserted “independent adjuster” formerly appearing after “organizer” near the beginning of the section, strung out “for each company represented in the State” formerly appearing after the words “annual fee” near the end of the first paragraph, made changes in the list of fees and added the provision that such fees “shall be in lieu of any and all other license fees.”

The 1951 amendment struck out “independent adjuster” formerly appearing after “organizer” near the beginning of the section and revised the schedule of fees.

The 1955 amendment substituted “$5.00” for “$2.50” in the first item of the schedule of fees.

§ 105-228.8. Uniformity of taxes.—No fees or taxes imposed in this article shall be increased on account of any retaliatory law now in effect in this or any other state, but such fees and taxes shall apply to all insurance companies alike, as specified in this article, without regard to state, territory or country or domicile or location of home office, and without regard to any fees or taxes which may be levied by any jurisdiction in which any company may be domiciled or have its home office. (1945, c. 752, s. 2.)

§ 105-228.9. Powers of the Commissioner of Insurance. — All provisions of this chapter, not inconsistent with this article, relating to administration, auditing and making returns, the imposition and collection of tax and the lien thereof, assessments, refunds and penalties, shall be applicable to the fees and taxes imposed by this article; and with respect thereto, the Commissioner of Insurance is hereby given the same power and authority as is given to the Commissioner of Revenue under the provisions of this chapter. The Commissioner of Insurance may, from time to time, make, prescribe, and publish such rules and regulations, not inconsistent with law, as may be needful to enforce the provisions of this article. (1945, c. 752, s. 2; 1955, c. 1350, s. 22.)

Editor’s Note. — The 1955 amendment added the last sentence, and deleted from the first sentence “promulgation of rules and regulations” formerly appearing after “returns” in the first sentence.

§ 105-228.10. No additional local taxes. — No county, city, or town shall be allowed to impose any additional tax, license, or fee, other than ad valorem taxes, upon any insurance company or association paying the fees and taxes levied in this article. (1945, c. 752, s. 2.)

ARTICLE 8C.

Schedule I-C. Excise Tax on Banks.

§ 105-228.11. To whom this article shall apply. — The provisions of this article shall apply to every bank or banking association, including each national banking association, that is organized and operating in this State as a commercial bank, an industrial bank, a savings bank, a trust company, or any combination of such facilities or services, and whether such bank or banking association, hereinafter to be referred to as a bank or banks, be organized, under the laws of the United States or the laws of North Carolina, in the corporate form or in some other form of business organization. (1957, c. 1340, s. 8.)

§ 105-228.12. Imposition of an excise tax. — An annual excise tax is hereby levied on every bank located and doing business within this State, including each national banking association, for the privilege of transacting business in this State during the calendar year, according to or measured by its entire net income as defined herein received or accrued from all sources during the preceding calendar year hereinafter referred to as taxable year, at the rate of four and one-half per cent (4½%) of such entire net income. The minimum tax assessable to any one bank shall be ten dollars ($10.00). The liability for the tax imposed by this section shall arise upon the last day of each preceding taxable year, and shall be based upon and measured by the entire net income of each bank or trust company for such preceding taxable year, including all income received from government securities (whether or not taxable under article 4 of this chapter) in such year except for any interest that may be allowed as deductible from gross income under G. S. 105-228.16; provided, that the tax herein levied shall not be collectible for any year from any bank or trust company which fails to engage in business for any part of the year for which levied. This section shall be effective on and after December 31, 1959, so that the excise tax for 1960 shall be measured by net incomes for the taxable year 1959 and the liability therefor shall arise on December 31, 1959. In the case of a merger of two or more banks during the preceding calendar year the tax of the resultant bank shall be measured by the entire net income of all constituent banks during such preceding calendar year. As used in this article the words “taxable year”
§ 105-228.13. Method of taxation adopted.—The State of North Carolina hereby adopts the method of taxation of banks authorized by an Act of Congress relating to taxation of national banks, being method number (4) as provided in § 548, as amended, of Title 12 of the Code of Laws of the United States, formerly known as § 5219, of the Revised Statutes of the United States.

The excise tax levied under G. S. 105-228.12 shall be in lieu of the intangible personal property tax levied under article 7 of this chapter, the franchise tax imposed by article 3 of this chapter, the income tax levied by article 4 of this chapter, taxes levied upon the shares of stock of banks assessed under G. S. 105-346, and taxes levied upon tangible personal property by local taxing jurisdictions. All real property of each bank located or doing business within this State, including national banking associations, shall be assessed and taxed (in the same manner as other real estate is taxed in this State) by the counties, municipalities, and other local taxing jurisdictions in which such real estate is located.

It is the purpose and intent of the General Assembly to levy taxes on banks so that all banks, both State and national, doing business in this State will be taxed uniformly in a just and equitable manner in accordance with the provisions of § 548 of Title 12 of the Code of the United States cited above and article V, § 3 of the Constitution of North Carolina. The intent in this article is to exercise the powers of classification and of taxation on property, franchises, and trades conferred by the above constitutional provision cited in this section. (1957, c. 1340, s. 8.)

§ 105-228.14. Entire net income defined.—The words “entire net income” shall mean the gross income of a taxpayer less the deductions allowed by this article. (1957, c. 1340, s. 8.)

§ 105-228.15. Gross income defined.—For purposes of this article the words “gross income” shall mean the income of a bank received or accrued from whatever source during the taxable year as follows: Interest and discount on loans; interest from bonds, notes, mortgages and other investments, including interest from all government bonds issued direct by any level of government or through any government agency, any exclusion provided in article 4 of chapter 105 notwithstanding; dividends from securities owned; service charges; collection fees; exchange charges; trust department earnings; rents; commissions; gains or profits from the sale or other disposition of property, either real or personal, tangible or intangible; recoveries from losses previously written off or deducted from income in prior taxable years; and all other recoveries, gains, profits, income, or receipts regardless of nature and from whatever source derived, except that gifts received shall be excluded from gross income. (1957, c. 1340, s. 8.)

§ 105-228.16. Deductions from gross income.—In computing entire net income there shall be allowed as deductions the following items:

1. All ordinary and necessary expenses as defined in subdivision (1) of G. S. 105-147 paid or accrued during the taxable year.
2. Rental expense as defined in subdivision (4) of G. S. 105-147.
3. Unearned discount and interest paid as provided in subdivision (5) of G. S. 105-147 for income tax purposes.
4. Taxes paid or accrued except income taxes, taxes levied under this article, taxes assessed for local benefit of a kind tending to increase the value of the property assessed and any other taxes not deductible.
§ 105-228.17. Returns and payment of the excise tax. — On or before June 1 of each year, the executive officer or officers of each bank, or trust company, located and doing business in this State, shall file with the Commissioner of Revenue a full and accurate report of all income as defined in G. S. 105-228.15 received or accrued during the taxable year, and also an accurate record of the legal deductions in the same calendar year as allowed by G. S. 105-228.16 to the end that the correct entire net income of the bank may be determined. This report shall be in such form and contain such information as the Commissioner of Revenue may specify, and shall contain such information with respect to branch offices as the Commissioner of Revenue may designate. At the time of making such report by each bank, the taxes levied by this article with respect to an excise tax on banks shall be paid to the Commissioner of Revenue. (1957, c. 1340, s. 8.)
§ 105-228.18. Effective date.—The initial report and payment for each bank shall be made on June 1, 1958, and shall be based on the calendar year of 1957. In the interim each bank shall make a return to the State Board of Assessment for 1957 with respect to the value of shares as of December 31, 1956, as provided in G. S. 105-346, and said Board shall determine the value of shares and certify such values to the respective local taxing jurisdictions. Each bank shall in turn pay the tax on its shares, in case of liability, for levies made by the respective North Carolina local tax jurisdiction during or prior to August, 1957. After the 1957 levies on the shares of banks, such shares shall not be taxable so long as the excise tax levied by this article remains in effect and no longer. (1957, c. 1340, s. 8.)

§ 105-228.19. Powers of the Commissioner of Revenue. — All provisions of subchapter I of this chapter, not inconsistent with this article, relating to administration, auditing and making returns, the imposition and collection of tax and the lien thereof, assessments, refunds, penalties, and appeal and review, shall be applicable to the tax imposed by this article. The Commissioner of Revenue may, from time to time, make, prescribe and publish such rules and regulations, not inconsistent with law, as may be needful to enforce the provisions of this article. (1957, c. 1340, s. 8.)

§ 105-228.20. Competing moneyed capital. — It is not the intent of this article to tax banks at a greater effective rate than competing moneyed capital. In case the Commissioner of Revenue or a court of competent jurisdiction, should find as a fact that any individual, firm or corporation, who or which is competing in major respects with the banks and trust companies taxed herein, is taxed at a lower rate than banks, including national banks, the Commissioner of Revenue shall assess and levy a tax under this article upon any such individual, firm, or corporation. (1957, c. 1340, s. 8.)

§ 105-228.21: Omitted.

ARTICLE 8D.

Schedule I-D. Taxation of Building and Loan Associations and Savings and Loan Associations.

§ 105-228.22. To whom this article shall apply.—The provisions of this article shall apply to every building and loan association or savings and loan association organized under the laws of this State or organized under the laws of another state and which maintains one or more places of business in this State and to every savings and loan association organized and existing under the “Home Owners Loan Act of 1933” and which maintains one or more places of business in this State, all such associations hereinafter to be referred to as building and loan associations. (1957, c. 1340, s. 9.)

Editor’s Note. — The act inserting this article provides that so much of the article as applies to the excise tax shall be effective with income years beginning on and after January 1, 1957, and so much as applies to the capital stock tax shall be effective on and after June 1, 1957. Cited in Lenoir Finance Co. v. Currie, 254 N. C. 129, 118 S. E. (2d) 543 (1961).

§ 105-228.23. Capital stock tax.—There is hereby imposed upon every building and loan association for the privilege of conducting business in this State a tax of six cents (6¢) on each one hundred dollars ($100.00) of the liability of such association on its shares of stock outstanding on December 31 of the preceding year. For purposes of this article “liability of such association on its shares of stock outstanding” shall mean the aggregate dollar amount which such association is obligated to pay to its shareholders in cancellation of outstanding shares of capital stock of the association at any designated date. The words “capital stock of the association” shall mean all classes and kinds of stock which the association is authorized by its charter to issue from time to time, including, but not limited to, full paid shares, optional shares, and serial shares. (1957, c. 1340, s. 9.)

§ 105-228.24. Excise tax.—In addition to the taxes levied under G. S. 105-228.23 every building and loan association shall pay annually an excise tax equivalent to six per cent (6%) of the net taxable income, as herein defined, of such corporation during the income year. For purposes of this article "net taxable income" shall mean net income as the same is defined for purposes of the income tax levied against corporations as provided in article 4 of subchapter I of chapter 105 of the General Statutes less all dividends paid or accrued by an association during the income year on all of its outstanding shares of capital stock. "Dividends" shall mean the amounts paid to, or credited to the accounts of shareholders, if such amounts paid or credited are withdrawals on demand subject only to customary notice of intention to withdraw. The words "income year" shall mean the calendar year or fiscal year upon the basis of which the net taxable income is computed under this article. (1957, c. 1340, s. 9.)

§ 105-228.25. Limitations.—The taxes levied under this article shall be in lieu of all other taxes and fees except those imposed by subchapter I of chapter 54 of the General Statutes and amendments thereto, and except ad valorem taxes imposed upon real property and tangible personal property, and except sales and/or use taxes levied by this State, and except taxes levied on intangible property under G. S. 105-199, 105-200, 105-204 and 105-205.

Counties, cities and towns shall not, after the effective date of this article, levy any license tax on the business of any building and loan association subject to taxation under this article. (1957, c. 1340, s. 9.)

Cross Reference.—As to effective date, see note to G. S. 105-228.22.

§ 105-228.26. Filing of returns. — Every association taxed under this article shall file annually with the Commissioner of Insurance a capital stock tax return and an excise tax return upon such forms as the Commissioner of Insurance shall from time to time prescribe. The capital stock tax return shall be filed and the tax levied under G. S. 105-228.23 shall be paid to the Commissioner of Insurance on or before the 15th day of March of each year. The excise tax returns shall be filed and the tax levied under G. §. 105-228.24 shall be paid on or before the fifteenth day of the third month following the close of the income year. The returns shall contain such information as the Commissioner of Insurance shall deem to be necessary for the computation and verification of the amount of the tax. (1957, c. 1340, s. 9.)

§ 105-228.27. Powers of the Commissioner of Insurance.—All provisions of subchapter I of this chapter not inconsistent with this article, relating to administration, auditing and making returns, the imposition and collection of tax and the lien thereof, assessments, refunds, penalties, and appeal and review, shall be applicable to the fees and taxes imposed by this article; and with respect thereto, the Commissioner of Insurance is hereby given the same power and authority as is given to the Commissioner of Revenue under the provisions of this chapter. The Commissioner of Insurance may, from time to time, make, prescribe, and publish such rules and regulations, not inconsistent with law, as may be needful to enforce the provisions of this article. The Commissioner of Revenue shall render such assistance in the audit of returns and the collection of the taxes levied hereunder as the Commissioner of Insurance shall request. (1957, c. 1340, s. 9.)
§ 105-229. Failure of person, firm, corporation, public utility and/or public service corporation to file report.—If any person, firm, or corporation required to file a report under any of the provisions of Schedules B and C of this subchapter fails, refuses, or neglects to make such report as required herein within the time limited in said schedule for making such report he or it shall pay a penalty of ten dollars ($10.00) for each day's omission. (1939, c. 158, s. 900.)

§ 105-230. Charter canceled for failure to report.—If a corporation required by the provisions of this subchapter to file any report or return or to pay any tax or fee, either as a public utility (not as an agency of interstate commerce) or as a corporation incorporated under the laws of this State, or as a foreign corporation domesticated in or doing business in this State, or owning and using a part or all of its capital or plant in this State, fails or neglects to make any such report or return or to pay any such tax or fee for ninety days after the time prescribed in this subchapter for making such report or return, or for paying such tax or fee, the Commissioner of Revenue shall certify such fact to the Secretary of State. The Secretary of State shall thereupon suspend the articles of incorporation of any such corporation which is incorporated under the laws of this State by proper entry upon the records of his office, or suspend the certificate of authority of any such foreign corporation to do business in this State by proper entry. Thereupon all the powers, privileges, and franchises conferred upon such corporation by such articles of incorporation or by such certificate of authority shall cease and determine. The Secretary of State shall immediately notify by certified mail every such domestic or foreign corporation of the action taken by him, and also shall immediately certify such suspension to the clerk of superior court of the county in which the principal office or place of business of such corporation is located in this State with instructions to said clerk, and it shall be the clerk's duty, to make appropriate entry upon the records of his office indicating suspension of the corporate powers of the corporation in question. (1939, c. 158, s. 901; 1957, c. 498.)

Editor's Note.—The 1957 amendment substituted "certified" for "registered" near the beginning of the last sentence.

This section was not intended to deprive a corporation of its properties nor to penalize innocent parties. Page v. Miller, 252 N. C. 23, 113 S. E. (2d) 52 (1960).

Effect of Suspension of Charter on Corporation's Capacity to Sue.—Allegations in the complaint to the effect that plaintiff corporation's charter was temporarily suspended under this section less than a year prior to the institution of the action do not disclose that the corporation did not have legal capacity to institute the action. Mica Industries, Inc. v. Penland, 249 N. C. 602, 107 S. E. (2d) 120 (1959).

§ 105-231. Penalty for exercising corporate functions after cancellation or suspension of charter.—Any person, persons or corporations who shall exercise or by any act attempt to exercise any powers, privileges, or franchises under articles of incorporation or certificate of authority after the same are suspended, as provided in any section of this subchapter, shall pay a penalty of not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000.00), to be recovered in an action to be brought by the Commissioner of Revenue in the superior court of Wake County. Any corporate act performed or attempted to be performed during the period of such suspension shall be invalid and of no effect. (1939, c. 158, s. 902.)

This section was not intended to deprive a corporation of its properties nor to penalize innocent parties. Page v. Miller, 252 N. C. 23, 113 S. E. (2d) 52 (1960).
§ 105-232. Corporate rights restored; receivership and liquidation.
—Any corporation whose articles of incorporation or certificate of authority to do business in this State has been suspended by the Secretary of State, as provided in § 105-230, or similar provisions of prior Revenue Acts, upon the filing, within five years after such suspension or cancellation under previous acts, with the Secretary of State, of a certificate from the Commissioner of Revenue that it has complied with all the requirements of this subchapter and paid all State taxes, fees, or penalties due from it (which total amount due may be computed, for years prior and subsequent to said suspension or cancellation, in the same manner as if such suspension or cancellation had not taken place), shall be entitled to exercise again its rights, privileges, and franchises in this State; and the Secretary of State shall cancel the entry made by him under the provisions of § 105-230 or similar provisions of prior Revenue Acts, and shall issue his certificate entitling such corporation to exercise again its rights, privileges, and franchises, and certify such reinstatement to the clerk of superior court in the county in which the principal office or place of business of such corporation is located with instructions to said clerk, and it shall be his duty to cancel from his records the entry showing suspension of corporate privileges.

When the certificate of articles of incorporation in this State have been suspended by the Secretary of State, as provided in G. S. 105-230, or similar provisions of prior or subsequent Revenue Acts, and there remains property held in the name of the corporation, or undisposed of at the time of such suspension, or there remain possibilities of reverters, reversionary interests, rights of re-entry or other future interests that may accrue to the corporation or its successors or stockholders, and the time within which the corporate rights might be restored as provided by this section has expired, any stockholder or any bona fide creditor or other interested party may apply to the superior court for the appointment of a receiver. Application for such receiver may be made in a civil action to which all stockholders or their representatives or next of kin shall be made parties. Stockholders whose whereabouts are unknown and unknown stockholders and unknown heirs and next of kin of deceased stockholders may be served by publication, as well as creditors, dealers and other interested persons, and a guardian ad litem may be appointed for any stockholders or their representatives who may be an infant or incompetent. The receiver shall enter into bond with such securities as may be set by the court and shall give such notice to creditors by publication or otherwise as the court may prescribe. Any creditor who shall fail to file his claim with the receiver within the time set shall be barred of the right to participate in the distribution of the assets. Such receiver shall have authority to sell such property or possibilities of reverters, reversionary interests, rights of re-entry, or other future interests, upon such terms and in such manner as shall be ordered by the court, apply the proceeds to the payment of any debts of such corporation, and distribute the remainder among the stockholders or their representatives in proportion to their interests therein. Shares due to any stockholder who is unknown or whose whereabouts are unknown shall be paid into the office of the clerk of the superior court, by him to be disbursed according to law. In the event the stockholders of the corporation shall be lost or shall not reflect the latest stock transfers, the court shall determine the respective interests of the stockholders from the best evidence available, and the receiver shall be protected in acting in accordance with such finding. Such proceeding is authorized for the sole purpose of providing a procedure for disposing of the corporate assets by the payment of corporate debts, including franchise taxes which had accrued prior to the suspension of the corporate charter and any other taxes the assessment or collection of which is not barred by a statute of limitations, and by the transfer to the stockholders or their representatives their proportionate shares of the assets owned by the corporation. (1939, c. 158, s. 903; c. 370, s. 1; 1943, c. 400, s. 9; 1947, c. 501, s. 9; 1951, c. 29.)
§ 105-233. Officers, agents, and employees; misdemeanor failing to comply with tax law.—If any officer, agent, and/or employee of any person, firm, or corporation subject to the provisions of this subchapter shall willfully fail, refuse, or neglect to make out, file, and/or deliver any reports or blanks, as required by such law, or to answer any question therein propounded, or to knowingly and willfully give a false answer to any such question wherein the fact inquired of is within his knowledge, or upon proper demand to exhibit to such Commissioner of Revenue or any of his duly authorized representatives any book, paper, account, record, memorandum of such person, firm, or corporation in his possession and/or under his control, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and fined not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) for each offense. (1939, c. 158, s. 904.)

§ 105-234. Aiding and/or abetting officers, agents, or employees in violation of this subchapter a misdemeanor.—If any person, firm, or corporation shall aid, abet, direct, or cause or procure any of his or its officers, agents, or employees to violate any of the provisions of this subchapter, he or it shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and fined not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) for each offense. (1939, c. 158, s. 905.)

§ 105-235. Every day’s failure a separate offense.—The willful failure, refusal, or neglect to observe and comply with any order, direction, or mandate of the Commissioner of Revenue, or to perform any duty enjoined by this subchapter, by any person, firm, or corporation subject to the provisions of this subchapter, or any officer, agent, or employee thereof, shall, for each day such failure, refusal, or neglect continues, constitute a separate and distinct offense. (1939, c. 158, s. 906.)

§ 105-236. Penalties.—Except as otherwise provided in this subchapter, and subject to the provisions of G. S. 105-237, the following penalties shall be applicable:

(1) Penalty for Bad Checks.—When the bank upon which any uncertified check tendered to the Department of Revenue in payment of any obligation due to the Department, shall refuse payment upon such check on account of insufficient funds of the drawer in such bank, and such check shall be returned to the Department of Revenue, an additional tax shall be imposed, which additional tax shall be equal to ten per cent (10%) of the obligation for the payment of which such check was tendered: Provided, however, that in no case shall the additional tax so imposed be less than one dollar ($1.00) nor more than two hundred dollars ($200.00). Provided, further, no additional tax shall be imposed if the Commissioner of Revenue shall find that the drawer of such check, at the time it was presented to the drawee, had funds deposited to his credit in any bank of this State sufficient to pay such check, and by inadvertence, failed to draw the check upon the bank in which he had such funds on deposit. The additional tax hereby imposed shall not be waived or diminished by the Commissioner of Rev-
§ 105-236 CH. 105. TAXATION § 105-236

Revenue. This section shall apply to all taxes levied or assessed by the State.

(2) Failure to Obtain a License.—For failure to obtain a license before engaging in a business, trade or profession for which a license is required, there shall be assessed an additional tax equal to five per cent (5%) of the amount prescribed for such license per month or fraction thereof until paid, which additional tax shall not exceed twenty-five per cent (25%) of the amount so prescribed, but in any event shall not be less than five dollars ($5.00).

(3) Failure to File Return.—In case of failure to file any return required under this subchapter on the date prescribed therefor (determined with regard to any extension of time for filing), unless it is shown that such failure is due to reasonable cause, there shall be added to the amount required to be shown as tax on such return, as a penalty, five per cent (5%) of the amount of such tax if the failure is for not more than one month, with an additional five per cent (5%) for each additional month, or fraction thereof, during which such failure continues, not exceeding twenty-five per cent (25%) in the aggregate, or five dollars ($5.00), whichever is the greater.

(4) Failure to Pay Tax When Due.—In the case of failure to pay any tax when due, without intent to evade the tax, there shall be an additional tax, as a penalty, of ten per cent (10%) of the tax; provided, that such penalty shall in no event be less than five dollars ($5.00).

(5) Negligence.—For negligent failure to comply with any of the provisions of this subchapter, or rules and regulations issued pursuant thereto, without intent to defraud, there shall be assessed, as a penalty, an additional tax of ten per cent (10%) of the deficiency due to such negligence; provided, that in the case of income tax, if gross income is understated by as much as twenty-five per cent (25%), or deductions, exclusive of personal exemptions, are overstated by as much as twenty-five per cent (25%) of gross income, or if there is a combination of understatement of gross income and overstatement of deductions, exclusive of personal exemptions, equaling twenty-five per cent (25%) of gross income, there shall be assessed, as a penalty, an additional tax equal to twenty-five per cent (25%) of the total deficiency. If a penalty is assessed under subdivision (6) of this section, no additional penalty for negligence shall be assessed with respect to the same deficiency.

(6) Fraud.—If there is a deficiency or delinquency in payment of any tax levied by this subchapter, due to fraud with intent to evade the tax, there shall be assessed, as a penalty, an additional tax equal to fifty per cent (50%) of the total deficiency.

(7) Attempt to Evade or Defeat Tax.—Any person who wilfully attempts, or any person who aids or abets any person to attempt in any manner to evade or defeat any tax imposed by this subchapter, or the payment thereof, shall, in addition to other penalties provided by law, be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000.00), or by imprisonment not to exceed six (6) months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

(8) Wilful Failure to Collect or Pay Over Tax.—Any person required under this subchapter to collect, account for, and pay over any tax imposed by this subchapter who wilfully fails to collect or truthfully account for and pay over such tax shall, in addition to other penalties provided by law, be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500.00), or by imprisonment not to exceed six (6) months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

(9) Wilful Failure to File Return, Supply Information, or Pay Tax.—Any person required under this subchapter to pay any tax, to make a return, to keep any records or to supply any information, who wilfully fails to pay such tax, make such return, keep such records, or supply such information, at the time or times required by law, or regulations issued pursuant thereto, shall, in addition to other penalties provided by law, be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by a fine not to exceed two hundred dollars ($200.00), or by imprisonment not to exceed thirty (30) days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

(10) Failure to File Informational Returns.—

a. For failure to file a partnership or a fiduciary informational return when such returns are due to be filed, there shall be assessed as a tax against the delinquent five dollars ($5.00) per month or fraction thereof of such delinquency, such tax, however, in the aggregate not to exceed the sum of twenty-five dollars ($25.00). When assessed against a fiduciary, the tax herein provided shall be paid by the fiduciary and shall not be passed on to the trust estate.

b. For failure to file timely statements of payments to another person or persons with respect to wages, dividends, rents or interest paid to such other person or persons, there shall be assessed as a tax a penalty of one dollar ($1.00) for each statement not filed on time, the aggregate of such penalties for each tax year not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100.00), and in addition thereto, if the Commissioner shall request the payor to file such statements and shall set a date on or before which such statements shall be filed, and the payor shall fail to file such statements within such time, the amounts claimed on payor's income tax return as deductions for salaries and wages, or rents or interest shall be disallowed to the extent that the payor failed to comply with the Commissioner's request with respect to such statements.

(11) The failure to do any act required by or under the provisions of this subchapter, or by subchapter V of chapter 105 or chapter 18 of the General Statutes shall be deemed an act committed in part at the office of the Commissioner of Revenue in Raleigh. The certificate of the Commissioner of Revenue to the effect that a tax has not been paid, that a return has not been filed, or that information has not been supplied, as required by or under the provisions of this subchapter, or by subchapter V of chapter 105 or chapter 18 of the General Statutes, shall be prima facie evidence that such tax has not been paid, that such return has not been filed or that such information has not been supplied. (1939, c. 158, s. 907; 1953, c. 1302, s. 7; 1959, c. 1259, s. 8; 1963, c. 1169, s. 6.)

Editor's Note. — The 1953 and 1959 amendments rewrote this section.

The 1963 amendment, effective July 1, 1963, rewrote subdivision (4) to make the penalty mandatory and change it from 5% per month during which failure continued to 10%: deleted "but in no event less than twenty-five dollars ($25.00)" twice in the first sentence of subdivision (5); and substituted "subdivision (6)" for "subdivisions (3) or (6)" in the second sentence of subdivision (5).

For brief comment on the 1953 amendment, see 31 N. C. Law Rev. 440.

§ 105-237. Discretion of Commissioner over penalties. — The Commissioner of Revenue shall have power, upon making a record of his reasons therefor, to reduce or waive any penalties provided for in this subchapter, except the penalty provided in § 105-236 relating to unpaid checks. (1939, c. 158, s. 908; c. 370, s. 1.)
§ 105-237.1 Compromise of liability.—(a) The Commissioner of Revenue, with the approval of the Attorney General, is authorized to compromise the amount of liability of any taxpayer for taxes due under subchapters I or V of this chapter or under chapter 18 of the General Statutes and to accept in full settlement of such liability a lesser amount than that asserted to be due when in the opinion of the Commissioner and the Attorney General such compromise settlement is in the best interest of the State. When made other than in the course of litigation in the courts of the State on an appeal from an administrative determination or in a civil action brought to recover from the Commissioner, the basis for such compromise must also conform to the conditions set out in this section. Such compromise settlement may be made only after a final administrative or judicial determination of the liability of the taxpayer.

Such a compromise settlement may be made only upon a finding that:

1. There is a reasonable doubt as to the amount of the liability of the taxpayer under the law and the facts; or
2. The taxpayer is insolvent and the Commissioner probably could not otherwise collect an amount equal to or in excess of the amount offered in compromise; or
3. Collection of a greater amount than that offered in compromise settlement is improbable, and the funds offered in the settlement, or a substantial portion thereof, come from sources from which the Commissioner could not otherwise collect; or
4. A federal tax assessment arising out of the same facts has been compromised with the federal government on the same or a similar basis as that proposed to the State and the Commissioner could probably not collect an amount equal to or in excess of that offered in compromise.

For the purposes of this section a taxpayer may be considered insolvent only if there is an established status of insolvency by either a judicial declaration of a status necessarily or ordinarily involving insolvency or by a legal proceeding in which the insolvency of the taxpayer would ordinarily be determined or thereby be made evident or if it is plain and indisputable that the taxpayer is clearly insolvent and will remain so in the reasonable future. Whenever a compromise is made by the Commissioner pursuant to this section, there shall be placed on file in the office of the Commissioner a written opinion, signed by the Commissioner and the Attorney General, setting forth the amount of tax or additional tax assessed, the amount actually paid in accordance with the terms of the compromise, and a summary of the facts and reasons upon which acceptance of the compromise is based, provided, however, that such opinion shall not be required with respect to the compromise of any taxpayer’s liability where the unpaid amount of tax assessed (including interest, penalty and additional tax) is less than one hundred dollars ($100.00).

(b) Whenever an assessment of taxes or additional taxes is based upon an action of the federal government in making an assessment of taxes and the federal assessment is subsequently settled, compromised or adjusted, the Commissioner may, in his discretion, settle, compromise or adjust the State’s tax assessment upon the same basis as the federal settlement, compromise or adjustment. (1957, c. 1340, s. 10; 1959, c. 1259, s. 8.)

Editor’s Note.—The 1959 amendment designated all of the former section as subsection (a) and added subsection (b).

§ 105-238. Tax a debt.—Every tax imposed by this subchapter, and all increases, interest, and penalties thereon, shall become, from the time it is due and payable, a debt from the person, firm, or corporation liable to pay the same to the State of North Carolina. (1939, c. 158, s. 909.)
§ 105-239. Action for recovery of taxes.—Action may be brought at any time and in any court of competent jurisdiction in this State or other state, in the name of the State and at the instance of the Commissioner of Revenue, to recover the amount of any taxes, penalties, and interest due under this subchapter. This remedy is in addition to all other remedies for the collection of said taxes and shall not in any respect abridge the same. Any judgment shall be declared to have such preference and priority against the property of the defendant as is provided by law for taxes levied by this subchapter, and free from any claims for homestead or personal property exemption of the defendant therein. (1939, c. 158, s. 910.)

§ 105-239.1. Transferee liability.—(a) Property transferred for an inadequate consideration to a donee, heir, legatee, devisee, distributee, stockholder of a liquidated corporation, or any other person at a time when the transferor is insolvent or is rendered insolvent by reason of the transfer shall be subject to a lien for any taxes owing by the transferor to the State of North Carolina at the time of such transfer whether or not the amount of such taxes shall have been ascertained or assessed at the time of such transfer. Such lien shall be subject to the provisions of the first proviso contained in G. S. 105-241. In the event the transferee shall have disposed of such property so that it cannot be subjected to the State’s tax lien, the transferee shall be personally liable for the difference between the fair market value of such property at the time of the transfer and the actual consideration, if any, paid to the transferor by the transferee.

Upon a foreclosure of the State’s tax lien upon property in the hands of a transferee, the value of any consideration which the transferee shall have established as having been given to the transferor shall be paid to the transferee out of the proceeds of the foreclosure sale before applying such proceeds toward the satisfaction of the State’s tax lien.

In order to proceed against the transferee or property in his hands, the Commissioner shall cause to be docketed in the office of the clerk of the superior court of the county wherein the transferee resides or the property is located, as the case may be, a certificate of tax liability as provided in G. S. 105-242 or a lien certificate which shall set forth the amount of the lien as determined by the Commissioner or as finally determined upon appeal and a description of the property subject to the lien. Thereafter, execution may be issued against the transferee as in the case of other money judgments except that no homestead or personal exemption shall be allowable or, upon a lien certificate, an execution may be issued directing the sheriff to seize the property subject to the lien and sell same in the same manner as property is sold under execution. Such procedure and collection shall be subject to the provisions of subsection (c) of this section.

(b) The period of limitations for assessment of any liability against a transferee or enforcing the lien against the transferred property shall expire one year after the expiration of the period of limitations for assessment against the transferor.

(c) The provisions of G. S. 105-241.1, 105-241.2, 105-241.3, 105-241.4, 105-266.1 and 105-267 with respect to assessment procedure, demand for refund, review, and appeal shall apply to the liability of any transferee assessed under this section or of any property subject to the liability imposed by this section and to the assertion of a lien upon property in the hands of the transferee.

(d) In any proceeding before the Tax Review Board or in any court of the State the burden of proof shall be upon the Commissioner of Revenue to show that a person is liable as a transferee of property of a taxpayer under this section. (1957, c. 1340, s. 10.)
§ 105-240. Tax upon settlement of fiduciary's account. — No final account of a fiduciary shall be allowed by the probate court unless such account shows, and the judge of said court finds, that all taxes imposed by the provisions of this subchapter upon said fiduciary, which have become payable, have been paid, and that all taxes which may become due are secured by bond, deposit, or otherwise. The certificate of the Commissioner of Revenue and the receipt for the amount of tax herein certified shall be conclusive as to the payment of the tax to the extent of said certificate.

For the purpose of facilitating the settlement and distribution of estates held by fiduciaries, the Commissioner of Revenue, with the approval of the Attorney General, may, on behalf of the State, agree upon the amount of taxes at any time due or to become due from such fiduciaries under the provisions of this subchapter, and the payment in accordance with such agreement shall be full satisfaction of the taxes to which the agreement relates. (1939, c. 158, s. 911.)

§ 105-240.1. Agreements with respect to domicile. — Whenever reasonably necessary in order to facilitate the collection of any tax, the Commissioner of Revenue with the consent and approval of the Attorney General, is authorized to make agreements with the taxing officials of other states of the United States or with taxpayers in cases of disputes as to the domicile of a decedent. (1957, c. 1340, s. 10.)

§ 105-241. Taxes payable in national currency; for what period, and when a lien; priorities. — The taxes herein designated and levied shall be payable in the existing national currency. State, county, and municipal taxes levied for any and all purposes pursuant to this subchapter shall be for the fiscal year of the State in which they become due, except as otherwise provided, and the lien of such taxes shall attach annually to all real estate of the taxpayer within the State on the date that such taxes are due and payable, and said lien shall continue until such taxes, with any interest, penalty, and costs which shall accrue thereon, shall have been paid; in the settlement of the estate of any decedent where, by any order of court or other proceeding, the real estate of the decedent has been sold to make assets to pay debts, such sale shall not have the effect of extinguishing the lien upon the land so sold for State taxes, nor shall the same be postponed in any manner to the payment of any other claim or debt against the estate, save funeral expenses and cost of administration.

Provided, however, that the lien of State taxes shall not be enforceable as against bona fide purchasers for value, and as against duly recorded mortgages, deeds of trust and other recorded specific liens, as to real estate, except upon docketing of a certificate of tax liability or a judgment in the office of the clerk of the superior court of the county wherein the real estate is situated, and as to personalty, except upon a levy upon such property under an execution or a tax warrant, and the priority of the State's tax lien against property in the hands of bona fide purchasers for value, and as against duly recorded mortgages, deeds of trust and other recorded specific liens, shall be determined by reference to the date and time of docketing of judgment or certificate of tax liability or the levy under execution or tax warrant. Provided further, that in the event any taxpayer shall execute an assignment for the benefit of creditors, or if receivership, a creditor's bill or other insolvency proceedings are instituted against any taxpayer indebted in the State on account of any taxes levied by the State, the lien of State taxes shall attach to any and all property of such taxpayer or of such insolvent's estate as of the date and time of the execution of the assignment for the benefit of creditors or of the institution of proceedings herein mentioned and shall be subject only to prior recorded specific liens and reasonable costs of administration. Notwithstanding the provisions of this paragraph, the provisions contained in § 105-164.38 shall remain in full force and effect with respect to the lien of sales taxes.
The provisions of this section shall not have the effect of releasing any lien for State taxes imposed by other law, nor shall they have the effect of postponing the payment of the said State taxes or depriving the said State taxes of any priority in order of payment provided in any other statute under which payment of the said taxes may be required. (1939, c. 158, s. 912; 1949, c. 392, s. 6; 1957, c. 1340, s. 5.)

Editor's Note. — The 1949 amendment rewrote the second paragraph.

The 1957 amendment substituted "§ 105-164.38" for "§ 105-174 and § 105-176" in the last sentence of the second paragraph.

For brief comment on the 1949 amendment, see 27 N. C. Law Rev. 485.

§ 105-241.1. Additional taxes; assessment procedure. — (a) If the Commissioner of Revenue discovers from the examination of any return or otherwise that any tax or additional tax is due from any taxpayer, he shall give notice to the taxpayer in writing of the kind and amount of tax which is due and of his intent to assess the same, which notice shall contain advice to the effect that unless application for a hearing is made within the time specified in subsection (c), the proposed assessment will become conclusive and final.

If the Commissioner is unable to obtain from the taxpayer adequate and reliable information upon which to base such assessment, the assessment may be made upon the basis of the best information available and, subject to the provisions hereinafter made, such assessment shall be deemed correct.

(b) The notice required to be given in subsection (a) may be delivered to the taxpayer by an agent of the Commissioner or may be sent by mail to the last known address of the taxpayer and such notice will be deemed to have been received in due course of the mail unless the taxpayer shall make an affidavit to the contrary within ninety days after such notice is mailed, in which event the taxpayer shall be heard by the Commissioner in all respects as if he had made timely application.

(c) Any taxpayer who objects to a proposed assessment of tax or additional tax shall be entitled to a hearing before the Commissioner of Revenue provided application therefor is made in writing within thirty (30) days after the mailing or delivery of the notice required by subsection (a). If application for a hearing is made in due time, the Commissioner of Revenue shall set a time and place for the hearing and after considering the taxpayer's objections shall give written notice of his decision to the taxpayer. The amount of tax or additional tax due from the taxpayer as finally determined by the Commissioner shall thereupon be assessed and upon assessment shall become immediately due and collectible.

Provided, the taxpayer may request the Commissioner at any time within thirty days of notice of such proposed assessment for a written statement, or transcript, of the information and the evidence upon which the proposed assessment is based, and the Commissioner of Revenue shall furnish such statement, or transcript, to the taxpayer. Provided, further, after request by the taxpayer for such written statement, or transcript, the taxpayer shall have thirty days after the receipt of the same from the Commissioner of Revenue to apply in writing for such hearing, explaining in detail his objections to such proposed assessment. If no request for such hearing is so made, such proposed assessment shall be final and conclusive.

Provided, the taxpayer may make a written waiver of any of the limitations of time set out in this section, for either a definite or indefinite time, and if such waiver is accepted by the Commissioner he may institute assessment procedures at any time within the time extended by such waiver. This proviso shall apply to assessments made or undertaken under any provision of all schedules of the Rev-
§ 105-241.1

Revenue Act, and to assessments under subchapter V of chapter 105 and chapter 18 of the General Statutes.

(d) If no timely application for a hearing is made within 30 days after notice of a proposed assessment of tax or additional tax is given pursuant to subsection (a), such proposed tax or additional tax assessment shall become final without further notice and shall be immediately due and collectible.

(e) Where a proper application for a license or a return has been filed and in the absence of fraud, the Commissioner of Revenue shall assess any tax or additional tax due from a taxpayer within three (3) years after the date upon which such application or return is filed or within three (3) years after the date upon which such application or return was required by law to be filed, whichever is the later. If no proper application for a license or no return has been filed, and in the absence of fraud, any tax or additional tax due from a taxpayer may be assessed at any time within five (5) years after the date upon which such application or return was required by law to be filed. In the event a false and fraudulent application or return has been filed or there has been an attempt in any manner to fraudulently defeat or evade tax, any tax or additional tax due from the taxpayer may be assessed at any time.

(f) Except as hereinafter provided in subsection (g), the Commissioner of Revenue shall have no authority to assess any tax or additional tax under this section until the notice required by subsection (a) shall have been given and the period within which an application for a hearing may be filed has expired, or if a timely application for a hearing is filed, until written notice of the Commissioner’s decision has been given to the taxpayer, provided, however, that if the notice required by subsection (a) shall be mailed or delivered within the limitation prescribed in subsection (e), such limitation shall be deemed to have been complied with and the proceeding may be carried forward to its conclusion.

(g) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, the Commissioner of Revenue shall have authority at any time within the applicable period of limitations to proceed at once to assess any tax or additional tax which he finds is due from a taxpayer if, in his opinion, the collection of such tax is in jeopardy and immediate assessment is necessary in order to protect the interest of the State, provided, however, that if an assessment is made pursuant to the authority set forth in this subsection before the notice required by subsection (a) is given, such assessment shall not be valid unless the notice required by subsection (a) shall be given within thirty (30) days after the date of such assessment.

(h) The provisions of G. S. 105-241.2, 105-241.3, and 105-241.4 with respect to review and appeal shall apply to any tax or additional tax assessed pursuant to this section.

(i) All assessments of taxes or additional taxes (exclusive of penalties assessed thereon) shall bear interest at the rate of one-half per cent (½%) per month or fraction thereof from the time said taxes or additional taxes were due to have been paid until paid.

(j) This section is in addition to and not in substitution of any other provision of the General Statutes relative to the assessment and collection of taxes and shall not be construed as repealing any other provision of the General Statutes. (1949, c. 392, s. 6; 1951, c. 643, s. 9; 1955, c. 1350, s. 23; 1957, c. 1340, s. 10; 1959, c. 1259, s. 8.)

Cross Reference. — See note to § 105-266.1.

Editor’s Note. — The 1951 and 1955 amendments rewrote the provision of the former section similar to present subsection (h). The 1957 amendment rewrote and enlarged the section.

The 1959 amendment added the last paragraph to subsection (c), changed the designation of former subsection (i) to subsection (j) and inserted present subsection (i).

§ 105-241.2. Administrative review.—(a) Without having to pay the tax or additional tax assessed by the Commissioner under this chapter, any taxpayer may secure from the Tax Review Board an administrative review with respect to his liability for the tax or additional tax assessed by the Commissioner. Such a review may be obtained only if the taxpayer has obtained a hearing before the Commissioner and the Commissioner has rendered a final decision with respect to the taxpayer's liability. To obtain such review the taxpayer shall:

(1) File with the Tax Review Board, with a copy to the Commissioner, notice of intent to file a petition for review, such notice to be filed within thirty (30) days after notice of the Commissioner's final decision is issued; and

(2) File with the Tax Review Board, with a copy to the Commissioner, a petition requesting administrative review and stating in concise terms the grounds upon which review is sought, such petition to be filed within sixty (60) days after the expiration of the period provided in subdivision (1) for filing of notice of intent to petition for review.

(b) Upon receipt by the Commissioner of the taxpayer's petition, the Commissioner shall transmit to the Tax Review Board all of the records, data, evidence and other materials which he has pertaining to the matters which the Tax Review Board is being requested by the taxpayer to review. He shall also transmit to the Board a copy of his decision respecting such matters. The Tax Review Board shall fix a time for reviewing the Commissioner's decision and shall hear the same in the city of Raleigh. The Board shall give notice of the time and place of such hearing to the petitioner and to the Commissioner at least ten (10) days prior thereto. Officers and employees of the Revenue Department, when so requested by the Board, shall attend hearings on such reviews and shall furnish the Board with all information they have respecting the asserted liability. The Tax Review Board may establish by regulation the procedure to be followed in hearings before it and is authorized to establish by regulations a schedule of costs of the proceedings. At least two members of the Board shall sit at the hearing and all members shall consider and decide the matters on review. The Board shall confirm, modify, reverse, reduce, or increase the assessment or decision of the Commissioner; and it shall furnish a written copy of its order to the Commissioner and shall serve a written copy of its order upon the taxpayer by personal service or by registered mail (return receipt requested). In the event the decision of the Tax Review Board should not result in a reduction of the tax liability asserted by the Commissioner to be due, or if the Tax Review Board should dismiss the petition under the provisions of subsection (c) of this section, the costs of the proceeding shall be added to and shall become a part of the tax liability to be collected by the Commissioner. In the event the decision of the Tax Review Board should result in a reduction of the tax liability asserted by the Commissioner to be due, no costs shall be taxed against the taxpayer.

(c) Upon receipt of a petition requesting administrative review as provided in the preceding subsection, the Tax Review Board shall examine the petition and the records and other data transmitted by the Commissioner pertaining to the matter for which review is sought, and if it should appear from such records and data that the petition is frivolous or filed for purpose of delay, the Tax Review Board shall dismiss the petition under the provisions of subsection (c) of this section, the costs of the proceeding shall be added to and shall become a part of the tax liability to be collected by the Commissioner. In the event the decision of the Tax Review Board should result in a reduction of the tax liability asserted by the Commissioner to be due, no costs shall be taxed against the taxpayer.

(d) Any taxpayer may also apply to the Tax Review Board under the provisions of this section for administrative review of the decision of the Commissioner of Revenue with respect to an alleged overpayment of tax imposed by this chapter provided such taxpayer has filed a demand in writing for refund of such overpayment within the time allowed by law for the filing of such demand and the Commissioner has issued a decision denying the claimed refund. To obtain such review the taxpayer shall file notice of intent to petition for review with the Tax Review Board, with copy to the Commissioner, within thirty (30) days after issuance of the Commissioner’s decision. The taxpayer shall also perfect the application for review by filing with the Tax Review Board, with a copy to the Commissioner, a petition requesting administrative review and stating in concise terms the grounds upon which review is sought. Such petition shall be filed within sixty (60) days after expiration of the period provided for filing notice of intent to petition for review. The Tax Review Board shall consider and dispose of the petition for review in the manner provided in subsection (b) for the consideration and disposition of petitions for review of any tax or additional tax assessed by the Commissioner. No costs shall, however, be taxed against the taxpayer if the decision of the Tax Review Board results in a refund to the taxpayer. Any overpayment of tax determined by the decision of the Tax Review Board, together with interest thereon at the rate and for the period provided under G. S. 105-266, shall be refunded by the State.

(e) At any time the Commissioner of Revenue shall have authority, if in his opinion, such action is necessary for the protection of the interest of the State, to proceed at once to levy the assessment for the amount of the tax against the property of the taxpayer seeking the administrative review. In levying said assessment the Commissioner shall make a certificate setting forth the essential parts relating to the tax, including the amount thereof asserted to be due, the date when same is asserted to have become due and payable, the person, firm, or corporation chargeable therewith, and the nature of the tax. Under his hand and seal the Commissioner shall transmit said certificate to the clerk of the superior court of any county in which the taxpayer resides or has property; whereupon, it shall be the duty of the clerk of the superior court of the county to docket the said certificate and to index the same on the cross index of judgments. When so docketed and indexed, said certificate of tax liability shall constitute a lien upon the property of the taxpayer to the same extent as that provided for by G. S. 105-241. No execution shall issue on said certificate before final determination of the administrative review by the Tax Review Board; provided, however, if the Commissioner determines that the collection of the tax would be jeopardized by delay, he may cause execution to be issued, as provided in this chapter, immediately against the personal property of the taxpayer unless the taxpayer files with the Commissioner a bond in the amount of the asserted liability for tax, penalty and interest. If upon such final administrative determination the tax asserted or any part thereof is sustained, execution may issue on said certificate at the request of the Commissioner of Revenue, and the sheriff shall proceed to advertise and sell the property of the taxpayer.

(f) Taxpayers seeking administrative review of liability decisions of the Commissioner of Insurance under article 8B of this subchapter shall follow the procedure prescribed in subsection (a) of this section for taxpayers seeking administrative review of decisions of the Commissioner of Revenue. In such cases all provisions of this section referring to the Commissioner of Revenue shall be considered as applying to the Commissioner of Insurance. (1955, c. 1350, s. 5; 1957, c. 1340, s. 10.)

This Section and § 105-241.3 Give Taxpayer Benefit of § 143-306 et seq. — The legislature of 1955 took recognition of the fact that the remedy afforded by § 105-267 may at times place an undue burden on the taxpayer, and broadened the provisions by which a taxpayer may have his liability determined. Sections 143-306 to 143-316 permit judicial review of any decision rendered by an administrative agency in a proceeding in which the legal rights of specific parties are determined after an agency hearing. In this section and § 105-241.3 the legislature gave a person charged § 105-241.3. Appeal without payment of tax from Tax Review Board decision.—(a) Any taxpayer aggrieved by the decision of the Tax Review Board may, upon payment of the tax, penalties and interest asserted to be due or upon filing with the Commissioner a bond in such form as the Commissioner may prescribe in the amount of said taxes, penalties and interest conditioned on payment of any liability found to be due on an appeal, appeal said decision to the superior court under the provisions of article 33 of chapter 143 of the General Statutes; provided, neither this section nor the provisions of article 33 of chapter 143 shall be construed to prohibit a jeopardy assessment and execution made in accordance with the provisions of G. S. 105-241.2.

(b) When an appeal is taken under this section from the Tax Review Board’s dismissal of a petition for administrative review under the provisions of G. S. 105-241.2 (c), the question of appeal shall be limited to a determination of whether the Tax Review Board erred in its dismissal, and in the event that the court finds error, the case shall be remanded to the Tax Review Board to be heard. (1955, c. 1350, s. 6; 1957, c. 1340, s. 10.)

Editor’s Note. — The 1957 amendment changed "(2)" near the middle of subsection (b) to read "(c)". It also changed subsection (a) which formerly provided for an appeal without prior payment of the tax.

Board May Not Pass on Constitutionality of Statute.—See same catchline under § 105-241.2.

This section and § 143-307 are in pari materia and it is the court’s duty to give effect to both if possible. In re Halifax Paper Co., 259 N. C. 589, 131 S. E. (2d) 441 (1963).

Decisions of Tax Review Board Are Subject to Review Only Pursuant to Chapter 143 Article 33.—The Tax Review Board is an “administrative agency” within the purview of § 143-306. It is an agency of the executive branch of the State government, has no authority or duties with respect to the granting or revocation of licenses, and its decisions are not subject to review under any statute or statutes other than chapter 143, article 33. In re Halifax Paper Co., Inc., 259 N. C. 589, 131 S. E. (2d) 441 (1963).
§ 105-241.4. Action to recover tax paid. — Within thirty days after notification of the Commissioner’s decision with respect to liability under this subchapter or under article 36 of subchapter V, any taxpayer aggrieved thereby, in lieu of petitioning for administrative review thereof by the Tax Review Board under G. S. 105-241.2, may pay the tax and bring a civil action for its recovery as provided in G. S. 105-267.

Any taxpayer who has obtained an administrative review by the Tax Review Board as provided by G. S. 105-241.2 and who is aggrieved by the decision of the said Board may, in lieu of appealing pursuant to the provisions of G. S. 105-241.3, within thirty days after notification of the Board’s decision with respect to liability pay the tax under protest and bring a civil action for its recovery as provided in G. S. 105-267.

Either party may appeal to the Supreme Court from the judgment of the superior court under the rules and regulations prescribed by law for appeals, except that the Commissioner, if he should appeal, shall not be required to give any undertaking or make any deposit to secure the cost of such appeal.

Any taxes, interest or penalties paid and found by the court to be in excess of those which can be properly assessed shall be ordered refunded to the taxpayer with interest from time of payment. (1955, c. 1350, s. 7; 1957, c. 1340, s. 10.)

Editor’s Note. — The 1957 amendment deleted “under protest” formerly appearing after “pay the tax” near the end of the first paragraph.

Taxpayer May Abandon Administrative Review and Seek Relief under Section. — Having taken advantage of the opportunity for a review by the Tax Review Board under § 105-241.2, the person assessed may, if he so elects, abandon the process of administrative review and seek relief from the superior court under its original jurisdiction. Of course, if he asks the superior court to exercise its original jurisdiction he must, as a condition precedent thereto, pay his tax under protest and sue to recover as provided by § 105-267. Duke v. State, 247 N. C. 236, 100 S. E. (2d) 506 (1957).

Appeal to Supreme Court. — It is immaterial whether the superior court determines the taxpayer’s liability in an action originally instituted in that court or as an appellate court. The taxpayer is permitted in either event to review the judgment by appeal to the Supreme Court under this section. Duke v. State, 247 N. C. 236, 100 S. E. (2d) 506 (1957).

§ 105-242. Warrant for the collection of taxes; certificate or judgment for taxes.—(a) If any tax imposed by this subchapter, or any other tax levied by the State and payable to the Commissioner of Revenue, or any portion of such tax be not paid within thirty days after the same becomes due and payable, and after the same has been assessed, the Commissioner of Revenue shall issue an order under his hand and official seal, directed to the sheriff of any county of the State, commanding him to levy upon and sell the real and personal property of the taxpayer found within his county for the payment of the amount thereof, with the added penalties, additional taxes, interest, and cost of executing the same, and to return to the Commissioner of Revenue the money collected by virtue thereof within a time to be therein specified, not less than sixty days from the date of the order. The said sheriff shall, thereupon, proceed upon the same in all respects with like effect and in the same manner prescribed by law in respect to executions issued against property upon judgments of a court of record, and shall be entitled to the same fees for his services in executing the order, to be collected in the same manner.

(b) Bank deposits, rents, salaries, wages, and all other choses in action or property incapable of manual levy or delivery, hereinafter called the intangible, belonging, owing, or to become due to any taxpayer subject to any of the provisions of this subchapter, or which has been transferred by such taxpayer under circumstances which would permit it to be levied upon if it were tangible, shall be subject to attachment or garnishment as herein provided, and the person owing said intangible, matured or unmatured, or having same in his possession or control, hereinafter called the garnishee, shall become liable for all sums due by the taxpayer under this subchapter to the extent of the amount of the intangible belonging, owing, or to become due to the taxpayer subject to the set-off of any matured or unmatured indebtedness of the taxpayer to the garnishee. To effect such attachment or garnishment the Commissioner of Revenue shall serve or cause to be served upon the taxpayer and the garnishee a notice as hereinafter provided, which notice may be served by any deputy or employee of the Commissioner of Revenue or by any officer having authority to serve summonses. Provided, if the taxpayer no longer resides within North Carolina or cannot be located therein the notice may be served upon the taxpayer by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, and such service shall be conclusively presumed to have been made upon the exhibition of the return receipt. Said notice shall show:

1. The name of the taxpayer and his address, if known;
2. The nature and amount of the tax, and the interest and penalties thereon, and the year or years for which the same were levied or assessed, and
3. Shall be accompanied by a copy of this subsection, and thereupon the procedure shall be as follows:

If the garnishee has no defense to offer or no set-off against the taxpayer, he shall within ten days after service of said notice, answer the same by sending to the Commissioner of Revenue by registered mail a statement to that effect, and if the amount due or belonging to the taxpayer is then due or subject to his demand, it shall be remitted to the Commissioner with said statement, but if said amount is to mature in the future, the statement shall set forth that fact and the same shall be paid to the Commissioner upon maturity, and any payment by the garnishee hereunder shall be a complete extinguishment of any liability therefor on his part to the taxpayer. If the garnishee has any defense or set-off, he shall state the same in writing under oath, and, within ten days after service of said notice, shall send two copies of said statement to the Commissioner by registered mail; if the Commissioner admits such defense or set-off, he shall so advise the garnishee in writing within ten days after receipt of such statement and the attachment or garnishment shall thereupon be discharged to the amount required by such defense or set-off, and any amount attached or garnished hereunder which is not affected by such defense or set-off shall be remitted to the Commissioner as above provided in cases where the garnishee has no defense or set-off, and with like effect. If the Commissioner shall not admit the defense or set-off, he shall set forth in writing his objections thereto and shall send a copy thereof to the garnishee within ten days after receipt of the garnishee's statement, or within such further time as may be agreed on by the garnishee, and at the same time he shall file a copy of said notice, a copy of the garnishee's statement, and a copy of his objections thereto in the superior court of the county where the garnishee resides or does business where the issues made shall be tried as in civil actions.

If judgment is entered in favor of the Commissioner of Revenue by default or after hearing, the garnishee shall become liable for the taxes, interest and penalties due by the taxpayer to the extent of the amount over and above any defense or set-off of the garnishee belonging, owing, or to become due to the taxpayer, but payments shall not be required from amounts which are to become due to the taxpayer until the maturity thereof, nor shall more than ten per cent of any taxpayer's salary or wages be required to be paid hereunder in any one month. The garnishee may satisfy said judgment upon paying said amount, and if he fails to do so, execution may issue as provided by law. From any judgment or order entered upon such hearing either the Commissioner of Revenue or the garnishee may appeal as provided by law. If, before or after judgment, adequate security is filed for the payment of said taxes, interest, penalties, and costs, the attachment or garnishment may be released or execution stayed pending appeal, but the final judgment shall be paid or enforced as above provided. The taxpayer’s sole remedies to question his liability for said taxes, interest, and penalties shall be those provided in this subchapter, as now or hereafter amended or supplemented. If any third person claims any intangible attached or garnished hereunder and his lawful right thereto, or to any part thereof, is shown to the Commissioner, he shall discharge the attachment or garnishment to the extent necessary to protect such right, and if such right is asserted after the filing of said copies as aforesaid, it may be established by interpleader as now or hereafter provided by law in cases of attachment and garnishment. In case such third party has no notice of proceedings hereunder, he shall have the right to file his petition under oath with the Commissioner at any time within twelve months after said intangible is paid to him and if the Commissioner finds that such party is lawfully entitled thereto or to any part thereof, he shall pay the same to such party as provided for refunds by § 105-407, and if such payment is denied, said party may appeal from the determination of the Commissioner under the provisions of G. S. 105-241.4; provided, that in taking an appeal to the superior court, said party may appeal either to the Superior Court of Wake County or to the superior court of the county wherein he resides or does business. The intangibles of a taxpayer shall be paid or collected hereunder only to the extent necessary to satisfy said taxes, interest, penalties, and costs. Except as hereinafter set forth, the remedy provided in this section shall not be resorted to unless a warrant for collection or execution against the taxpayer has been returned unsatisfied: Provided, however, if the Commissioner is of opinion that the only effective remedy is that herein provided, it shall not be necessary that a warrant for collection or execution shall be first returned unsatisfied, and in no case shall it be a defense to the remedy herein provided that a warrant for collection or execution has not been first returned unsatisfied.

This subsection shall be applicable with respect to the wages, salary or other compensation of officials and employees of this State and its agencies and instrumentalities, officials and employees of political subdivisions of this State and their agencies and instrumentalities, and also officials and employees of the United States and its agencies and instrumentalities insofar as the same is permitted by the Constitution and laws of the United States. In the case of State or federal employees, the notice shall be served upon such employee and upon the head or chief officer of the department, agency, instrumentality or institution by which the taxpayer is employed. In case the taxpayer is an employee of a political subdivision of the State, the notice shall be served upon such employee and upon the chief fiscal officer, or any officer or person charged with making up the payrolls, or disbursing funds, of the political subdivision by which the taxpayer is employed. Such head or chief officer or fiscal officer or other person as specified above shall thereafter, subject to the limitations herein provided, make deductions from the salary or wages due or to become due the taxpayer and remit same to the Commissioner until the tax, penalty, interest and costs allowed by law are fully paid. Such deductions and remittances shall, pro tanto, constitute a satisfaction of the salary or wages due the taxpayer.

(c) In addition to the remedy herein provided, the Commissioner of Revenue is authorized and empowered to make a certificate setting forth the essential particulars relating to the said tax, including the amount thereof, the date when the same was due and payable, the person, firm, or corporation chargeable therewith, and the nature of the tax, and under his hand and seal transmit the same to the clerk of the superior court of any county in which the delinquent taxpayer resides or has property; whereupon, it shall be the duty of the clerk of the superior court of the county to docket the said certificate and index the same on the cross index of judgments, and execution may issue thereon with the same force and effect as an execution upon any other judgment of the superior court (said tax shall become a lien on realty only from the date of the docketing of such certificate in the office of the clerk of the superior court and on personality only from the date of the levy on such personality and upon the execution thereon no homestead or personal property exemption shall be allowed).

Except as provided in subsection (e) of G. S. 105-241.2, no sale of real or personal property shall be made under any execution issued on a certificate docked pursuant to the provisions of this subsection before the administrative action of the Commissioner of Revenue or the Tax Review Board is completed when a hearing has been requested of the Commissioner or a petition for review has been filed with the Tax Review Board, nor shall such sale be made before the assessment on which the certificate is based becomes final when there is no request for a hearing before the Commissioner or petition for review by the Tax Review Board. Neither the title to real estate nor to personal property sold under execution issued upon a certificate docked under this subsection shall be drawn in question upon the ground that the administrative action contemplated by this paragraph was not completed prior to the sale of such property under execution. Nothing in this paragraph shall prevent the sheriff to whom an execution is issued from levying upon either real or personal property pending an administrative determination of tax liability and, in the case of personal property, the sheriff may hold such property in his custody or may restore the execution defendant to the possession thereof upon the giving of a sufficient forthcoming bond. Upon a final administrative determination of the tax liability being had, if the assessment or any part thereof is sustained, the sheriff shall, upon request of the Commissioner of Revenue, proceed to advertise and sell the property under the original execution notwithstanding the original return date of the execution may have expired.

A certificate or judgment in favor of the State or the Commissioner of Revenue for taxes payable to the Department of Revenue, whether docked before or after the effective date of this paragraph, shall be valid and enforceable for a period of ten years from the date of docketing. When any such certificate or judgment, whether docked before or after the effective date of this paragraph, remains unsatisfied for ten years from the date of its docketing, the same shall be unenforceable and the tax represented thereby shall abate. Upon the expiration of said ten-year period, the Commissioner of Revenue or his duly authorized deputy shall cancel of record said certificate or judgment. Any such certificate or judgment now on record which has been docked for more than ten years shall, upon the request of any interested party, be canceled of record by the Commissioner of Revenue or his duly authorized deputy; provided, in the event of the death of the judgment debtor or his absence from the State before the expiration of the ten-year period herein provided, the running of said ten-year period shall be stopped for the period of his absence from the State or during the pendency of the settlement of the estate and for one year thereafter, and the time elapsed during the pendency of any action or actions to set aside the judgment debtor’s conveyance or conveyances as fraudulent, or the time during the pendency of any insolvency proceeding, or the time during the existence of any statutory or judicial bar to the enforcement of the judgment shall not be counted in computing the running of said ten-year period. And, provided further, that any execution sale which has been instituted upon any such judgment before the expiration of the ten-year period may be completed after the expiration of the ten-year period, notwithstanding the fact that resales may be required because of the posting of increased bids. Provided further, that, notwithstanding the expiration of the ten-year period provided and notwithstanding the fact that no proceedings to collect the judgment by execution or otherwise has been commenced within the ten-year period, the Commissioner of Revenue may accept any payments tendered upon said judgments after the expiration of said ten-year period.

If the Commissioner of Revenue shall find that it will for the best interest of the State in that it will probably facilitate, expedite or enhance the State’s chances for ultimately collecting a tax due the State, he may authorize a deputy or agent to release the lien of a State tax judgment or certificate of tax liability upon a specified parcel or parcels of real estate by noting such release upon the judgment docket where such certificate of tax liability is recorded. Such release shall be signed by the deputy or agent and witnessed by the clerk of court or his deputy or assistant and shall be in substantially the following form: “The lien of this judgment upon (insert here a short description of the property to be released sufficient to identify it, such as a reference to a particular tract described in a recorded instrument) is hereby released, but this judgment shall continue in full force and effect as to other real property to which it has heretofore attached or may hereafter attach. This .... day of ............... , 19....

WITNESS:

............................................. C. S. C.”

The release shall be noted on the judgment docket only upon conditions prescribed by the Commissioner and shall have effect only as to the real estate described therein and shall not affect any other rights of the State under said judgment.

(d) The remedies herein given are cumulative and in addition to all other remedies provided by law for the collection of said taxes. (1939, c. 158, s. 913; 1941,
c. 50, s. 10; 1949, c. 392, s. 6; 1951, c. 643, s. 9; 1955, c. 1285; c. 1350, s. 23;

in cases of attachment and garnishment, see § 1-471.

Editor's Note. — The 1941 amendment inserted subsection (b), and the 1949 amendment added the third paragraph to subsection (c).

The 1951 amendment inserted the second paragraph of subsection (c) as it ap-ppeared prior to the 1955 amendment.

The first 1955 amendment added the last paragraph of subsection (b) and deleted from the end of the next to last paragraph the provision that no salary or wage at the rate of less than $200 per month shall be attached or garnished under the provisions of this section.

The second 1955 amendment changed the provisions as to appeal in the next to last paragraph of subsection (b), and re-wrote the first sentence of the second paragraph of subsection (c).

The 1957 amendment substituted “subsection (e)” for “subsection (3)” near the beginning of the second paragraph of subsection (c).

The 1959 amendment added the part of subsection (c) beginning with paragraph four.

The 1963 amendment, effective July 1, 1963, inserted the present third sentence in subsection (b), added the proviso at the end of the fourth sentence of the third paragraph of subsection (c) and also added the fifth and sixth sentences at the end of such paragraph.

amendment, see 27 N. C. Law Rev. 485.

Federal Tax Lien Entitled to Priority
Where Taxpayer Insolvent. — A tax lien filed by the State of North Carolina under subsection (c) of this section is no more than a general lien, and thus, under 31
U. S. C. A. § 191, where taxpayer was insolvent within the meaning of that statute, the federal government’s lien for unpaid income tax was entitled to priority though State lien for unpaid taxes was filed prior to date of federal tax lien.
United States v. Williams, 139 F. Supp.
94 (1956).

Remedies of Taxpayer. — Where the Commissioner of Revenue assesses additional income tax against a taxpayer in accordance with provisions of § 105-160, and has the certificate filed in the county in which the taxpayer has property for the purpose of creating a lien under subsection
(c) of this section, the taxpayer may not move in such county to vacate and set aside the certificate on the ground of irregularity or invalidity, no execution having been issued thereon nor any effort made to enforce the lien, but the taxpayer is remitted to the statutory remedies given him to contest the assessment or attack its validity. Gill v. Smith, 233 N. C. 50, 62 S. E. (2d) 544 (1950).

Execution on Judgment under Subsection (c) Must Be Issued by Clerk.—
Where the Commissioner of Revenue has the clerk of a superior court to docket his certificate setting forth the tax due by a resident of the county pursuant to subsection (c) of this section, execution on such judgment directed to the sheriff of the county must be issued by the clerk of the

§ 105-243. Taxes recoverable by action. — Upon the failure of any corporation to pay the taxes, fees, and penalties prescribed by this subchapter, the Commissioner of Revenue may certify same to the sheriff of the county in which such company may own property, for collection as provided in this subchapter; and if collection is not made, such taxes or fees and penalties thereon may be recovered in an action in the name of the State, which may be brought in the superior court of Wake County, or in any county in which such corporation is doing business, or any county in which such corporation owns property. The Attorney General, on request of the Commissioner of Revenue, shall institute such action in the superior court of Wake County, or of any such county as the Commissioner of Revenue may direct. In any such action it shall be sufficient to allege that the tax, fee, or penalty sought to be recovered is delinquent, and that the same has been unpaid for the period of thirty days after due date. (1939, c. 158, s. 914.)

§ 105-244. Additional remedies. — In addition to all other remedies for the collection of any taxes or fees due under the provisions of this subchapter, the Attorney General shall, upon the request of the Commissioner of Revenue, whenever any taxes, fees, or penalties due under this subchapter from any public utility (not an agency of interstate commerce) or corporation shall have remained unpaid for a period of ninety days, or whenever any corporation or public utility (not an agency of interstate commerce) has failed or neglected for ninety days to make or file any report or return required by this subchapter, or to pay any penalty for failure to make or file such report or return, apply to the superior court of Wake County, or of any county in the State in which such public utility (not an agency of interstate commerce) or corporation is located or has an office or place of business, for an injunction to restrain such public utility (not an agency of interstate commerce) or corporation from the transaction of any business within the State until the payment of such taxes or fees and penalties thereon, or the making and filing of such report or return and payment of penalties for failure to make or file such report or return, and the cost of such application, which shall be fixed by the court. Such petition shall be in the name of the State; and if it is made to appear to the court, upon hearing, that such public utility (not an agency of interstate commerce) or corporation has failed or neglected, for ninety days, to pay such taxes, fees, or penalties thereon, or to make and file such reports, or to pay such penalties, for failure to make or file such reports or returns, such court shall grant and issue such injunction. (1939, c. 158, s. 915.)

§ 105-244.1. Cancellation of certain assessments. — The Commissioner of Revenue is hereby authorized, empowered and directed to cancel and abate all assessments made after October 16, 1940, for or on account of any tax owing to the State of North Carolina and which is payable to the Department of Revenue against any person who was killed while a member of the armed forces or who has a service connected disability as a result of which the United States is paying him disability compensation. This provision shall apply only to assessments made after October 16, 1940, for taxes which were due prior to the time the taxpayer was inducted into the armed forces. If any such assessment is or has been paid, the Commissioner of Revenue may refund the amount paid but shall not add thereto any interest. (1949, c. 392, s. 6.)

§ 105-244.1. Cancellation of certain assessments. — The Commissioner of Revenue is hereby authorized, empowered and directed to cancel and abate all assessments made after October 16, 1940, for or on account of any tax owing to the State of North Carolina and which is payable to the Department of Revenue against any person who was killed while a member of the armed forces or who has a service connected disability as a result of which the United States is paying him disability compensation. This provision shall apply only to assessments made after October 16, 1940, for taxes which were due prior to the time the taxpayer was inducted into the armed forces. If any such assessment is or has been paid, the Commissioner of Revenue may refund the amount paid but shall not add thereto any interest. (1949, c. 392, s. 6.)

Garnishee Held Liable for Costs. — Where the Commissioner of Revenue has garnisheed a bank deposit for taxes due by the depositor, and the garnishee bank, in refusing to comply with the order, asserts no defense or set-off against the taxpayer, the bank, in the Commissioner's action to compel compliance, will be held liable also for the costs. Gill v. Bank of French Board, 230 N. C. 118, 52 S. E. (2d) 4 (1949).
§ 105-245. Failure of sheriff to execute order.—If any sheriff of this State shall willfully fail, refuse, or neglect to execute any order directed to him by the Commissioner of Revenue and within the time provided in this subchapter, the official bond of such sheriff shall be liable for the tax, penalty, interest, and cost due by the taxpayer. (1939, c. 158, s. 916.)

§ 105-246. Actions, when tried. — All actions or processes brought in any of the superior courts of this State, under provisions of this subchapter, shall have precedence over any other civil causes pending in such courts, and the courts shall always be deemed open for trial of any such action or proceeding brought therein. (1939, c. 158, s. 917.)

§ 105-247. Municipalities not to levy income and inheritance tax. — No city, town, township, or county shall levy any tax on income or inheritance. (1939, c. 158, s. 918.)

§ 105-248. State taxes; purposes.—The taxes levied in this subchapter are for the expenses of the State government, the appropriations to its educational, charitable, and penal institutions, pensions for Confederate soldiers and widows, the interest on the debt of the State, for public schools, and other specific appropriations made by law, and shall be collected and paid into the general fund of the State Treasurer.

The taxes levied under authority of section four hundred ninety-two of chapter four hundred twenty-seven of the Public Laws of one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, and remaining unpaid, shall be collected in the same manner as other county taxes and accounted for in the same manner as other taxes under the Daily Deposit Act. The county treasurer or other officer receiving such taxes in each county shall remit to the Treasurer of the State the first and fifteenth days of each month all taxes collected up to the time of such remittance under the levy therein provided for, and such remittance to the State Treasurer shall also include the proportion of all poll taxes collected required by the Constitution of the State to be used for educational purposes.

The tax levy therein provided for shall be subject to the same discounts and penalties as provided by law for other county taxes, and there shall be allowed the same percentage for collecting such taxes as for other county taxes. The obligation to the State under the levy therein provided for shall run against all taxes that become delinquent; and with respect to any property that may be sold for taxes, any public officer receiving such delinquent taxes, when and if such property may be redeemed or such tax obligations in any manner satisfied, shall remit such proportionate part of such tax levy to the State Treasurer within fifteen days after receipt of same. At the end of each fiscal year the county accountant shall furnish the State Treasurer a statement of the total amount of taxes levied in accordance with the provisions of this section, that are uncollected at the end of the fiscal year.

Whenever in any law or act of incorporation, granted either under the general law or by special act, there is any limitation or exemption of taxation, the same is hereby repealed, and all the property and effects of all such corporations, other than the bonds of this State and of the United States government, shall be liable to taxation, except property belonging to the United States and to municipal corporations, and property of churches, religious societies, charitable, educational, literary, or benevolent institutions or orders, and also cemeteries: Provided, that no property whatever, held or used for investment, speculation, or rent, shall be exempt, other than bonds of this State and of the United States government, unless said rent or the interest on or income from such investment shall be used exclusively for religious, charitable, educational, or benevolent purposes, or the interest upon the bonded indebtedness of said religious, charitable, or benevolent institutions. (1939, c. 158, s. 919.)

§ 105-249. Free privilege licenses for blind people. — (a) Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, any blind person, of the age of twenty-one years or more, desiring to operate as sole proprietor a legitimate business, trade, employment or profession of any kind to provide a livelihood for himself and dependents, if any, shall be exempt from procuring any license, and from liability for paying any license tax or fee, required or levied by the State, or any department, licensing board, or commission thereof, or by any county or municipality in the State, for or in connection with the privilege of engaging in or carrying on such business, trade, employment or profession.

(b) The term "blind persons", as used herein, is defined to mean any person who is totally blind or whose central visual acuity does not exceed 20/200 in the better eye with correcting lenses, or where the widest diameter of visual field subtends an angle no greater than 20 degrees.

(c) The provisions of this section shall not extend to any such sole proprietor who shall permit more than one person other than himself to work regularly in connection with such business, trade, employment or profession for remuneration or recompense of any kind whatsoever, unless such other person in excess of one so remunerated shall be a blind person as defined in subsection (b), above.

(d) Every blind person operating said business, trade, employment or profession under the provisions of this section shall be required to keep at his place of business the statement of a qualified physician or optometrist that he is totally blind or that his central visual acuity does not exceed 20/200 in the better eye with correcting lenses, or that the widest diameter of the visual field does not subtend an angle greater than 20 degrees.

(e) This section shall not apply to N. C. sales tax or to licenses, taxes, and fees required or levied in connection with the manufacture, processing, handling or selling of intoxicating beverages, and shall not apply to any license issued only upon satisfactory completion of a qualification examination conducted by the State or any board or commission thereof.

(f) Any person violating the provisions of subsection (d) of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and fined not to exceed twenty-five dollars ($25.00) for each offense. (1933, c. 53; 1935, c. 162; 1939, c. 306; 1943, c. 122; 1953, c. 1039, s. 1.)

Editor's Note.—The 1953 amendment rewrote this section as changed by prior amendments.

§ 105-249.1. Members of armed forces and merchant marine exempt from license taxes and fees. — (a) License Taxes.—Any person serving in any branch of the armed forces of the United States or in the merchant marine during the period of such service shall be exempt from liability for any and all license taxes levied by the State or by any county or city in the State for the privilege of engaging in or carrying on any trade or profession in the State, which trade or profession such a person immediately prior to being called into such service was engaged in: Provided, that nothing herein contained shall relieve such person of any license tax for carrying on any trade or profession conducted through agents or employees or which is conducted in the name of and under the license of such person so entering into the service of the United States.

(b) License Fees.—Any person entering into the armed forces of the United States or in the merchant marine shall be during the period of such service exempt from paying any license fees to any licensing board or commission or to the State of North Carolina in which the payment of such license fees is by law required as a condition to the continuance of the privilege to engage in any trade or profession. Such a person upon being discharged from such service shall have all the rights and privileges to engage in such profession upon payment of such fees as may thereafter become due, to the same extent as though such activity had not been suspended during the period of such service. (1943, c. 438, ss. 1, 2.)
§ 105-250. Law applicable to foreign corporations.—All foreign corporations, and the officers and agents thereof, doing business in this State, shall be subject to all the liabilities and restrictions that are or may be imposed upon corporations of like character, organized under the laws of this State, and shall have no other or greater powers. (1939, c. 158, s. 920.)

§ 105-250.1. Distributions of coin-operated machines required to make semi-annual reports.—Every person, firm or corporation who or which owns and places on location other than on his or its own premises, under any lease or rental agreement, loan or otherwise, or which sells coin-operated machines or vending machines of any type whatsoever upon which a tax is levied under §§ 105-65 and 105-65.1 of the General Statutes (or upon which a tax shall hereafter be levied), hereinafter referred to as a distributor, shall file a semi-annual informational report with the Commissioner of Revenue, in duplicate, as of the first day of January and July of each year, setting out the following information:

1. The name and address of the distributor making the report.
2. A description of the principal business of such distributor.
3. A list giving the location of each machine placed or remaining on location under any lease or rental agreement, loan or other arrangement whatsoever, other than by sale, together with the type of each such machine and its serial or other identifying number.
4. A list giving the location of each machine theretofore sold by the distributor, whether such sale was for cash, on open account, or under a conditional sale or other title retention contract, together with the type of each such machine and its serial or other identifying number.
5. A list giving the location of each machine, other than those described in Items (3) and (4) above, for the sale or use by, for or in which the distributor sells, leases, services or in any manner furnishes any goods, wares, merchandise, records, equipment, accessories, supplies, parts or any services whatsoever, together with the type of each such machine and its serial or other identifying number.

Provided, that the report required to be made as of June 1, 1949, (or the first report made by any distributor) shall contain a complete and true list of all of the machines described in Items (3), (4) and (5) above, together with the information required by said items, but the semi-annual reports required to be made as of the first day of January and July thereafter need show only those machines placed on location or sold by the distributor or for which the distributor has begun furnishing supplies, equipment and other services since the date as of which the next preceding semi-annual report was made.

As used herein, "location" shall include the name and address of the owner or operator of the place of business where the machine is located, or the address of the premises on which the machine is located and the name of the person principally responsible for the operation of the machine.

Each semi-annual report required by this section shall be made to the license tax division of the Department of Revenue not later than twenty days after the date as of which each report is required to be made.

The Commissioner of Revenue is hereby authorized and empowered to prescribe forms to be used in making the reports required by this section.

Any distributor who shall fail to comply with the provisions of this section and who shall fail, without showing good cause therefor, to make timely, full and accurate reports shall be liable to a penalty equal to the amount of the tax on all the machines described in Items (3) and (4), whether or not the distributor would otherwise be liable for the tax on such machines: Provided, that this shall not be construed as relieving the owner and/or operator of such machines of lia-
§ 105-251. Information must be furnished.—Each company, firm, corporation, person, association, copartnership, or public utility shall furnish the Commissioner of Revenue in the form of returns prescribed by him, all information required by law and all other facts and information in addition to the facts and information in this act specifically required to be given, which the Commissioner of Revenue may require to enable him to carry into effect the provisions of the laws which the said Commissioner is required to administer, and shall make specific answers to all questions submitted by the Commissioner of Revenue. (1939, c. 158, s. 921.)

§ 105-252. Returns required.—Any company, firm, corporation, person, association, copartnership, or public utility receiving from the Commissioner of Revenue any blanks, requiring information, shall cause them to be properly filled out so as to answer fully and correctly each question therein propounded, and in case it is unable to answer any question, it shall, in writing, give a good and sufficient reason for such failure.

The answers to such questions shall be verified under oath by such persons, or by the president, secretary, superintendent, general manager, principal accounting officer, partner, or agent, and returned to the Commissioner of Revenue at his office within the period fixed by the Commissioner of Revenue. (1939, c. 158, s. 922.)

§ 105-253. Personal liability of officers, trustees, or receivers. — Any officer, trustee, or receiver of any corporation required to file report with the Commissioner of Revenue, having in his custody funds of the corporation, who allows said funds to be paid out or distributed to the stockholders of said corporation without having satisfied the Commissioner of Revenue for any State taxes which are due and have accrued, shall be personally responsible for the payment of said tax, and in addition thereto shall be subject to a penalty of not more than the amount of the tax, nor less than twenty-five per cent (25%) of such tax found to be due or accrued.

The Secretary of State shall withhold the issuance of any certificate of dissolution to, or withdrawal of, any corporation, domestic or foreign, until the receipt by him of a notice from the Commissioner of Revenue to the effect that any such corporation has met the requirements with respect to reports and taxes required by this subchapter. (1939, c. 158, s. 923; 1941, c. 50, s. 10; 1955, c. 1350, s. 23.)

Editor's Note. — The 1941 amendment added the second paragraph.

The 1955 amendment deleted from the middle of the first paragraph "State Board of Assessment or" formerly appearing between "satisfied the" and "Commissioner of Revenue."
§ 105-254. Blanks furnished by Commissioner of Revenue. — The Commissioner of Revenue shall cause to be prepared suitable blanks for carrying out the purposes of the laws which he is required to administer, and, on application, furnish such blanks to each company, firm, corporation, person, association, copartnership, or public utility subject thereto. (1939, c. 158, s. 924.)

§ 105-255. Commissioner of Revenue to keep records. — The Commissioner of Revenue shall keep books of account and records of collections of taxes as may be prescribed by the Director of the Budget; shall keep an assessment roll for the taxes levied, assessed, and collected under this subchapter, showing in same the name of each taxpayer, the amount of tax assessed against each, when assessed, the increase or decrease in such assessment; the penalties imposed and collected, and the total tax paid; and shall make monthly reports to the Director of the Budget and to the Auditor and/or State Treasurer of all collections of taxes on such forms as prescribed by the Director of the Budget. (1939, c. 158, s. 925.)

Cross Reference. — As to photographic reproductions of records of department of revenue, see § 8-45.3.

§ 105-256. Preparation and publication of statistics.—The Commissioner of Revenue shall biennially, or more frequently if he so desires, prepare and publish reasonably available statistics dealing with the operation of this subchapter and subchapter V, including amounts collected, classifications of taxpayers, income and exemptions, and such other facts as are deemed pertinent and valuable. (1939, c. 158, s. 926; 1955, c. 1350, s. 8.)

Editor's Note. — The 1955 amendment rewrote this section.

§ 105-257. Report to General Assembly on tax system. — The Commissioner of Revenue shall biennially make report to the General Assembly, making such recommendations as he may consider useful in improving the tax laws and systems of this State. (1933, c. 88, s. 2; 1955, c. 1350, s. 9.)

Editor's Note. — See 11 N. C. Law Rev. The 1955 amendment rewrote this section.

§ 105-258. Powers of Commissioner of Revenue; who may sign and verify pleadings, legal documents, etc.—The Commissioner of Revenue, for the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of any return, making a return where none has been made, or determining the liability of any person for any tax imposed by this subchapter, or collecting any such tax, shall have the power to examine, personally, or by an agent designated by him, any books, papers, records, or other data which may be relevant or material to such inquiry, and the Commissioner may summon the person liable for the tax or required to perform the act, or any officer or employee of such person, or any person having possession, custody, care or control of books of account containing entries relevant or material to the income and expenditures of the person liable for the tax or required to perform the act, or any other person having knowledge in the premises, to appear before the Commissioner, or his agent, at a time and place named in the summons, and to produce such books, papers, records or other data, and to give such testimony under oath as may be relevant or material to such inquiry, and the Commissioner or his agent may administer oaths to such person or persons. If any person so summoned refuses to obey such summons or to give testimony when summoned, the Commissioner may apply to the Superior Court of Wake County for an order requiring such person or persons to comply with the summons of the Commissioner, and the failure to comply with such court order shall be punished as for contempt.

In any action, proceeding, or matter of any kind, to which the Commissioner
§ 105-259. Secrecy required of officials; penalty for violation. —

Except in accordance with proper judicial order, or as otherwise provided by law, it shall be unlawful for the Commissioner of Revenue, any deputy, agent, clerk, other officer, employee, or former officer or employee, to divulge and make known in any manner the amount of income, income tax or other taxes, set forth or disclosed in any report or return required under this subchapter.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the publication of statistics, so classified as to prevent the identification of particular reports or returns, and the items thereof; the inspection of such reports or returns by the Governor, Attorney General, or their duly authorized representative; or the inspection by a legal representative of the State of the report or return of any taxpayer who shall bring an action to set aside or review the tax based thereon, or against whom an action or proceeding has been instituted to recover any tax or penalty imposed by this subchapter; nor shall the provisions of this section prohibit the Department of Revenue furnishing information to other governmental agencies, of persons and firms properly licensed under Schedule B, §§ 105-33 to 105-113. The Department of Revenue may exchange information with the officers of organized associations of taxpayers under Schedule B, §§ 105-33 to 105-113, with respect to parties liable for such taxes and as to parties who have paid such license taxes.

Reports and returns shall be preserved for three years, and thereafter until the Commissioner of Revenue shall order the same to be destroyed.

Any person, officer, agent, clerk, employee, or former officer or employee violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and fined not less than two hundred dollars ($200.00) nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) and/or imprisoned, in the discretion of the court; and if such offending person be an officer or employee of the State, he shall be dismissed from such office or employment, and shall not hold any public office or employment in this State for a period of five years thereafter.

Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, the Commissioner of Revenue may permit the Commissioner of Internal Revenue of the United States, or the revenue officer of any other state imposing any of the taxes imposed in this subchapter, or the duly authorized representative of either, to inspect the report or return of any taxpayer; or may furnish such officer or his authorized agent an abstract of the report or return of any taxpayer; or supply such officer with information concerning any item contained in any report or return, or disclosed by the report of any investigation of such report or return of any taxpayer. Such permission, however, shall be granted or such information furnished to such officer, or his duly authorized representatives, only if the statutes of the United States or of such other state grants substantially similar privilege to the Commissioner of Revenue of this State or his duly authorized representative. Nothing in this section or any other law shall prevent the exchange of information between the Department of Revenue and the Department of Motor Vehicles when such information is needed by either or both of said departments for the purpose of properly enforcing the laws with the administration of which either or both of said departments is charged. (1939, c. 158, s. 928; 1951, c. 190, s. 2.)

Editor's Note. — The 1951 amendment added the last sentence to this section.

§ 105-260. Deputies and clerks. — The Commissioner of Revenue may appoint such deputies, clerks and assistants under his direction as may be necessary to administer the laws relating to the assessment and collection of all taxes provided for in this subchapter; may remove and discharge same at his discretion, and shall fix their compensation within the rules and regulations prescribed by law. (1939, c. 158, s. 929.)

§ 105-261. Commissioner and deputies to administer oaths. — The Commissioner of Revenue and such deputies as he may designate shall have the power to administer an oath to any person or to take the acknowledgment of any person in respect to any return or report required by this subchapter or under the rules and regulations of the Commissioner of Revenue, and shall have access to all the books and records of any person, firm, corporation, county, or municipality in this State. (1939, c. 158, s. 930.)

§ 105-262. Rules and regulations. — The Commissioner of Revenue shall, from time to time, initiate and prepare such regulations, not inconsistent with law, as may be useful and necessary to implement the provisions of all the articles of subchapter I (except article 8B) and article 36 of subchapter V, such regulations to become effective when approved by the Tax Review Board. All regulations and amendments thereto shall be published and made available by the Commissioner of Revenue.

The Commissioner of Revenue may, from time to time, make and prescribe such administrative rules, not inconsistent with law and the regulations approved by the Tax Review Board, as may be useful for the administration of his department and the discharge of his responsibilities.

References to rules and regulations of the Commissioner of Revenue in this chapter and in any subsequent amendments or additions thereto (unless expressly provided to the contrary therein) shall be construed to mean those rules and regulations promulgated under the provisions of this section. (1939, c. 158, s. 931; 1955, c. 1350, s. 2.)

Editor's Note. — The 1955 amendment rewrote this section.

Remedies of Taxpayer.—Any interested citizen may procure a copy of the regulations promulgated pursuant to this section and apply the administrator's interpretation of the law to the citizen's tax situation. If, under the regulations, tax liability seems likely, he may present the matter to the Commissioner of Revenue for examination and determination. If the Commissioner assesses a tax, the party who deems himself aggrieved may, as provided by statute, protect himself against an illegal assessment. Duke v. State, 247 N. C. 236, 100 S. E. (2d) 506 (1957).

Petition will not lie directly to the superior court to have an administrative interpretation promulgated by the Commissioner under this section declared to be erroneous, unlawful or improper. Duke v. State, 247 N. C. 236, 100 S. E. (2d) 506 (1957).

Interpretation of Commissioner Prima Facie Correct.—While a decision or regulation of the Commissioner of Revenue interpreting a taxing statute is not controlling, the Commissioner of Revenue is authorized by this section to implement taxing statutes, with certain specific exceptions, and such interpretation is made prima facie correct, and such interpretive regulation will ordinarily be upheld when it is not in conflict with the statute and is within the authority of the Commissioner to promulgate. Campbell v. Currie, 251 N. C. 329, 111 S. E. (2d) 319 (1959).

§ 105-263. Time for filing reports extended. — The Commissioner of Revenue, when he deems the same necessary or advisable, may extend to any person, firm, or corporation or public utility a further specified time within which to file any report required by law to be filed with the Commissioner of Revenue, in which event the attaching or taking effect of any penalty for failure to file such report or to pay any tax or fee shall be extended or postponed accordingly. Interest at the rate of six per cent (6%) per annum from the time the report or return was originally required to be filed to the time of payment shall be added to and paid with any tax that might be due on returns so extended. (1939, c. 158, s. 932.)

§ 105-264. Construction of the subchapter; population. — It shall be the duty of the Commissioner of Revenue to construe all sections of this subchapter (except article 8B) and all sections of article 36 of subchapter V; provided, such construction shall not be inconsistent with applicable regulations duly promulgated under the provisions of G. S. 105-262; provided further, nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the Commissioner of Revenue from initiating and proposing regulations, as provided in G. S. 105-262, modifying, changing, altering or repealing existing regulations. Such decisions by the Commissioner of Revenue shall be prima facie correct, and a protection to the officers and taxpayers affected thereby. Where the license tax is graduated in this subchapter according to the population, the population shall be the number of inhabitants as determined by the last census of the United States government: Provided, that if any city or town in this State has extended its limits since the last census period, and hereafter has taken a census of its population in these increased limits by an official enumeration, either through the aid of the United States government or otherwise, the population thus ascertained shall be that upon which the license tax is to be graduated.

Whenever the Commissioner of Revenue shall construe any provisions of the revenue laws administered by him and shall issue or publish to taxpayers in writing any regulation or ruling so construing the effect or operation of any such laws, such ruling or regulation shall be a protection to the officers and taxpayers affected thereby and taxpayers shall be entitled to rely upon such regulation or ruling. In the event the Commissioner of Revenue shall change, modify, repeal, abrogate, or alter any such regulation or ruling any taxpayer who has relied upon the construction or interpretation contained in the Commissioner's previous ruling or regulation shall not be liable for any additional assessment on account of any tax not paid by reason of reliance upon such ruling or regulation and which might have accrued prior to the date of the change, modification, repeal, abrogation, or alteration by the Commissioner, and during the effective period of such prior ruling or regulation. Provided, that nothing herein contained shall prevent any such change in construction or interpretation of the provisions of this chapter by the Commissioner of Revenue from being effective from and after the date of its issuance or promulgation, or the assessment of any tax thereunder. (1939, c. 158, s. 933; 1955, c. 1350, s. 4; 1957, c. 1340, s. 14.)

Editor's Note. — The 1955 amendment rewrote the first sentence.

The 1957 amendment added the second paragraph.

Authority of Commissioner to Construe. —This section gives the Commissioner of Revenue the power to construe the Revenue Act of 1939, codified as this subchapter, and such construction will be given due consideration by the courts, although it is not controlling. Valentine v. Gill, 223 N. C. 396, 27 S. E. (2d) 2 (1943). See Powell v. Maxwell, 210 N. C. 211, 186 S. E. 326 (1936); Dayton Rubber Co. v. Shaw, 244 N. C. 170, 92 S. E. (2d) 799 (1956).

The construction given a taxing statute by the Commissioner of Revenue will be given consideration by the courts though not controlling. Charlotte Coca-Cola Bottling Co. v. Shaw, 238 N. C. 307, 59 S. E. (2d) 819 (1950); Campbell v. Currie, 251 N. C. 329, 111 S. E. (2d) 319 (1959).

The responsibility for interpreting a tax statute is placed on the Commissioner of Revenue by this section, and the Attorney General's opinion in regard thereto is advisory only, by virtue of N. C. Const., art. 3, § 14 and § 114-2. In re Virginia-Carolina Chemical Corp., 248 N. C. 531, 103 S. E. (2d) 823 (1958).

Court Interpretation Prevails. — If there should be a conflict between the interpreta-
§ 105-265. Authority for imposition of tax. — This subchapter shall constitute authority for the imposition of taxes upon the subject herein revised, and all laws in conflict with it are hereby repealed, but such repeal shall not affect taxes listed or which ought or should have been listed, or which may have been due, or penalties or fines incurred from failure to make the proper reports, or to pay the taxes at the proper time under any of the schedules of existing law, but such taxes and penalties may be collected, and criminal offenses prosecuted under such law existing on March 24, 1939, notwithstanding this repeal. (1939, c. 158, s. 935.)

§ 105-266. Overpayment of taxes to be refunded with interest.—If the Commissioner of Revenue discovers from the examination of any return, or otherwise, that any taxpayer has overpaid the correct amount of tax (including penalties, interest and costs if any), such overpayment if the amount of three dollars ($3.00) or more, shall be refunded to the taxpayer within sixty (60) days after it is ascertained together with interest thereon at the rate of four per cent (4%) per annum; provided, that interest on any such refund shall be computed from a date ninety (90) days after the date the tax was originally paid by the taxpayer. If said overpayment is less than three dollars ($3.00) said overpayment shall be refunded as aforesaid but only upon receipt by the Commissioner of Revenue of a written demand for such refund from the taxpayer. Provided, however, that no overpayment shall be refunded irrespective of whether upon discovery or receipt of written demand if such discovery is not made or such demand is not received within three (3) years from the date set by the statute for the filing of the return or within six (6) months of the payment of the tax alleged to be an overpayment, whichever date is the later. The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to interest required under G. S. 105-267. (1939, c. 158, s. 937; 1941, c. 50, s. 10; 1947, c. 501, s. 9; 1949, c. 392, s. 6; 1951, c. 643, s. 9; 1957, c. 1340, s. 14.)

Editor's Note.—The 1957 amendment rewrote this section as changed by the prior amendments.

§ 105-266.1. Refunds of overpayment of taxes. — (a) Any taxpayer may apply to the Commissioner of Revenue for refund of tax or additional tax paid by him at any time within three years after the date set by the statute for the filing of the return or application for a license or within six months from the date of payment of such tax or additional tax, whichever is later. The Commissioner shall grant a hearing thereon, and if upon such hearing he shall determine that the tax is excessive or incorrect, he shall resettle the same according to the law and the facts, and adjust the computation of tax accordingly. The Commissioner shall notify the taxpayer of his determination, and shall refund to the taxpayer the amount, if any, paid in excess of the tax found by him to be due.

(b) The provisions of G. S. 105-241.1, 105-241.2, 105-241.3 and 105-241.4 with respect to review and appeal and shall apply to the tax for which refund is demanded under this section.

(c) Within ninety days after notification of the Commissioner's decision with respect to a demand for refund of any tax or additional tax under this section any taxpayer aggrieved thereby, in lieu of petitioning for administrative review by the Tax Review Board under G. S. 105-241.1, may bring a civil action against § 105-267. Taxes to be paid; suits for recovery of taxes.—No court of this State shall entertain a suit of any kind brought for the purpose of preventing the collection of any tax imposed in this subchapter. Whenever a person shall have a valid defense to the enforcement of the collection of a tax assessed or charged against him or his property, such person shall pay such tax to the proper officer, and such payment shall be without prejudice to any defense of rights he may have in the premises. At any time within thirty days after payment, the taxpayer may demand a refund of the tax paid in writing from the Commissioner of Revenue, if a State tax, or if a county, city or town tax, from the treasurer thereof for the benefit or under the authority or by request of which the same was levied; and if the same shall not be refunded within ninety days thereafter, may sue the Commissioner of Revenue or the county, city or town, as the case may be, in the courts of the State for the amount so demanded. Such suit, if against the State Commissioner of Revenue, must be brought in the Superior Court of Wake County, or in the county in which the taxpay is resides, if the sum demanded is upwards of two hundred dollars ($200.00), and if for two hundred dollars ($200.00) or less, before any State court of competent jurisdiction in Wake County. If for a county, city or town tax, suit must be brought in a State court of competent jurisdiction in the county where the tax is collectible, and the defendant official has his official residence. If upon the trial it shall be determined that such tax or any part thereof was levied or assessed for an illegal or unauthorized purpose, or was for any reason invalid or excessive, judgment shall be rendered therefor, with interest, and the same shall be collected as in other cases. The amount of State taxes for which judgment shall be rendered in such action shall be refunded by the State: Provided, nothing in this section shall be construed to conflict with or supersede the provisions of G. S. 105-241.2. (1939, c. 158, s. 936: 1955, c. 1350, s. 15; 1957, c. 1340, s. 10.)

Cross References.—See notes to §§ 105-241.4, 105-262.

Editor's Note.—See 12 N. C. Law Rev. 23.

The 1955 amendment added the proviso at the end of this section.

The 1957 amendment rewrote the second and third sentences.

Section Is Constitutional.—This section, permitting payment to be made under protest with a right to bring an action to recover the monies so paid, is constitutional and accords the taxpayer due process. Kirkpatrick v. Currie, 250 N. C. 213, 108 S. E. (2d) 209 (1959).

Adequate Remedy at Law. — A suit to enjoin the collection of the photographer’s tax imposed by § 105-42 was held not maintainable as there is an adequate remedy at law under the provision of this section. Lucas v. Charlotte, 14 F. Supp. 163 (1936).

Same; No Injunction Lies in Federal Courts.—A suit in equity to enjoin the collection of State tax, alleged to be violative of the Fourteenth Amendment on the ground of an arbitrary and excessive assessment, will not lie in the federal court, since the plaintiff has a plain, adequate, and complete remedy at law by first paying the tax and then suing to recover it. Catholic Society, etc. v. Madison County, 74 F. (2d) 848 (1935).

Same; Class Suit. — The remedy provided by this section cannot, in case of a class suit instituted in behalf of a large number of taxpayers, be deemed an adequate remedy as compared with the suit in equity which eliminates so much useless and cumbersome litigation. Gramling v. Maxwell, 52 F. (2d) 256 (1931).

Compliance with Section Necessary. — Strict compliance with the provisions of this section is necessary, and where payments were not made under protest, nor the mandatory provisions of this section otherwise complied with, the taxpayer is not entitled to recover for the excess fees paid. Victory Cab Co. v. Charlotte, 234 N. C. 572, 68 S. E. (2d) 433 (1951).

In order for a taxpayer to avoid the payment of a tax claimed by him to have been illegally assessed by the State, he must comply with procedure provided in the statute and where the statute specifies that he must pay the tax to the proper officer and notify him in writing that he pays under protest, and at any time within thirty days demand its refund from the State Commissioner in writing, and if not refunded in ninety days, bring action to recover the amount, the remedy given must be followed in order for the taxpayer to recover the amount, and the failure of the taxpayer to make the demand required until nearly two years after the payment of the tax is fatal; § 105-407, requiring the State Auditor to issue his warrant in certain instances, has no application. Bunn v. Maxwell, 199 N. C. 557, 155 S. E. 250 (1930).

Burden Is on Taxpayer to Show Exemption.—A taxpayer who challenges a sales tax coverage by virtue of an exemption or exclusion has the burden of showing that he comes within the exemption upon which he relies. Olin Mathieson Chemical Corp. v. Johnson, 257 N. C. 666, 127 S. E. (2d) 262 (1962).

The proper procedure for a taxpayer to determine his liability for a tax is to pay the tax under protest and sue to recover such payment. ET & WNC Transportation Co. v. Currie, 248 N. C. 560, 104 S. E. (2d) 403 (1958).

A taxpayer may not maintain an action under the Declaratory Judgment Act to determine his liability therefor, since the State has not waived its immunity against suit by one of its citizens under the Declaratory Judgment Act to adjudicate his tax liability under the sales tax statute. Buchan v. Shaw, 238 N. C. 522, 78 S. E. (2d) 317 (1953).

Alternate Remedy under §§ 105-241.2 and 105-241.3. — The remedy afforded by this section may at times place an undue burden on the taxpayer. The legislature of 1955 took recognition of that fact and broadened the provisions by which the taxpayer might have his liability determined, in the enactment of §§ 105-241.2 and 105-241.3. Duke v. State, 247 N. C. 236, 100 S. E. (2d) 506 (1957).

Where the plaintiffs complied with the provisions of this section in respect to the fees paid for a particular year, they are entitled to recover back the excess portion of the fees paid for that year. Victory Cab Co. v. Charlotte, 234 N. C. 572, 68 S. E. (2d) 433 (1951).

Recovery of Entire Amount Paid under Protest.—Since a debtor may direct application of payment, and if neither debtor nor creditor makes application before institution of suit, the law will apply a payment to the unsecured or most precariously secured debt, when a taxpayer makes anticipatory payment not under protest, and thereafter pays under protest the balance of the taxes levied against his property, in his action under this section, to recover the taxes the entire amount paid under protest may be recovered when unlawful levies equal such amount, and the recovery will not be limited to the proportionate part which the unlawful levies bear to the entire tax levy, since it will not be presumed that the county intended to make an unlawful levy or that the taxpayer intended to pay tax illegally levied. Nantahala Power, etc., Co. v. Clay County, 213 N. C. 698, 197 S. E. 603 (1938).

Demand Where Tax Collector Is Also Treasurer.—Where the tax collector is also treasurer of the county, a written demand
§ 105-268. Reciprocal comity.—The courts of this State shall recognize and enforce liabilities for taxes lawfully imposed by other states which extend a like comity to this State. (1939, c. 158, s. 938.)

Editor’s Note.—See 13 N. C. Law Rev. 405.

§ 105-269. Extraterritorial authority to enforce payment. — The Commissioner of Revenue, with the assistance of the Attorney General, is hereby empowered to bring suits in the courts of other states to collect taxes legally due this State. The officials of other states which extend a like comity to this State are empowered to sue for the collection of such taxes in the courts of this State. A certificate by the Secretary of State, under the Great Seal of the State, that such officers have authority to collect the tax shall be conclusive evidence of such authority. Whenever it shall be deemed expedient by the Commissioner of Revenue to employ local counsel to assist in bringing suit in an out-of-State court, the Commissioner, with the concurrence of the Attorney General, may employ such local counsel on the basis of a negotiated retainer or in accordance with prevailing commercial law league rates. (1939, c. 158, s. 939; 1963, c. 1169, s. 6.)

Editor’s Note. — The 1962 amendment, effective July 1, 1963, added the fourth sentence.

§ 105-269.1. Local authorities authorized to furnish office space. —Boards of county commissioners and governing boards of cities and towns are hereby fully authorized and empowered to furnish adequate and suitable office space for field representatives of the Department of Revenue upon request of the Commissioner of Revenue, and are hereby authorized and empowered to make necessary expenditures therefor. (1951, c. 643, s. 9.)

§ 105-269.2. Tax Review Board. — The Director of the Department of Tax Research, ex officio, the State Treasurer, ex officio, and the chairman of the Utilities Commission, ex officio, are hereby constituted the Tax Review Board. Provided, that for the purposes stated in G. S. 105-122 and 105-134, and for those purposes only, the Commissioner of Revenue, ex officio, shall also be a member of said Board. The State Treasurer, ex officio, shall be chairman of the Board.
The chairman or any two members, upon five days’ notice, may call a meeting of the Board; provided, any member of the Board may waive notice of a meeting and the presence of a member of the Board at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of the notice of said meeting. A majority of the members of the Board shall constitute a quorum, and any act or decision of a majority of the members shall constitute an act or decision of the Board, except for the purposes and under the conditions of the provisions of G.S. 105-122 and 105-134.

The Tax Review Board may employ a secretary and such clerical assistance as it deems necessary for the proper performance of its duties. All expenses of the Board shall be paid from sums appropriated from the contingency and emergency fund to the use of said Board. If the full time of such secretary and clerical staff should not be needed in connection with the duties of such Board, such secretary and staff can be assigned by the Board to other duties related to the tax program of the State.

The regular sessions of the Tax Review Board shall be held in the city of Raleigh at the offices provided for the Board by the Superintendent of Public Buildings and Grounds. The Board may in its discretion, hold other meetings at any place in the State. (1953, c. 1302, s. 7; 1955, c. 1350, s. 1.)

Editor’s Note.—The 1955 amendment rewrote this section.

§ 105-269.3. Article applicable to gasoline and fuel taxes and gasoline and oil inspection fees.—The provisions of this article shall be applicable to taxes levied under subchapter V of chapter 105 of the General Statutes and to inspection fees levied under chapter 119 of the General Statutes. (1963, c. 1169, s. 6.)

Editor’s Note.—The 1963 act adding this section became effective July 1, 1963.

LIABILITY FOR FAILURE TO LEVY TAXES.

§ 105-270. Repeal of laws imposing liability upon governing bodies of local units. — All laws and clauses of laws, statutes and parts of statutes, imposing civil or criminal liability upon the governing bodies of local units, or the members of such governing bodies, for failure to levy or to vote for the levy of any particular tax or rate of tax for any particular purpose, are hereby repealed, and said governing bodies and any and all members thereof are hereby freed and released from any civil or criminal liability heretofore imposed by any law or statute for failure to levy or to vote for the levy of any particular tax or tax rate for any particular purpose. (1933, c. 418.)

SUBCHAPTER II. ASSESSMENT, LISTING AND COLLECTION OF TAXES.

ARTICLE 11.

SHORT TITLE AND DEFINITIONS.

§ 105-271. Official title.—This subchapter may be cited as the Machinery Act. (1939, c. 310, s. 1.)

Editor’s Note.—Some of the notes under this subchapter relate to similar provisions of former statutes.

The subject of taxation is regulated entirely by statutes, and the revenues of this State are collected under the operation of what is known as the Machinery Act. Wade v. Commissioners, 74 N. C. 81 (1876).

§ 105-272. Definitions.—When used in this subchapter (unless otherwise specifically indicated by the context):
§ 105-272  Taxation § 105-272

(20) The term “gas company” means a public utility company engaged in the business of supplying gas for light, heat, and/or power purposes to consumers within this State.

(21) The term “waterworks company” means a public utility company engaged in the business of supplying water through pipes or tubing and/or similar manner to consumers within this State.

(22) The term “union depot company” means a public utility company engaged in the business of operating a union depot or station for railroads or other common carrier purposes.

(23) The term “water transportation company” means a public utility company engaged in the transportation of passengers and/or property by boat or other watercraft, over any waterways, whether natural or artificial, from one point within this State to another point within this State, or between points within this State and points without this State.

(24) The term “street railway company” means a public utility company engaged in the business of operating a street, suburban or interurban railway, either wholly or partially within this State, whether cars are propelled by steam, cable, electricity, or other motive power.

(25) The term “railroad company” means a public utility company engaged in the business of operating a railroad, either wholly or partially within this State, or rights of way acquired or leased and held exclusively by such company or otherwise.

(26) The terms “gross receipts” or “gross earnings” mean and include the entire receipts for business done by any person, firm, or corporation, domestic or foreign, from the operation of business or incidental thereto, or in connection therewith. The gross receipts or gross earnings for business done by a corporation engaged in the operation of a public utility shall mean and include the entire receipts for business done by such corporation, whether from the operation of the public utility itself from any other source whatsoever.

(27) The terms “bank,” “banker,” “broker,” “stock jobber” mean and include any person, firm, or corporation who or which has money employed in the business of dealing in coin, notes, bills of exchange, or in any business of dealing, or in buying or selling any kind of bills of exchange, checks, drafts, bank notes, acceptances, promissory notes,
§ 105-273. Creation; officers.—The Director of the Department of Tax Research, the Commissioner of Revenue, the chairman of the Public Utilities Commission and the Director of Local Government are hereby created the State Board of Assessment with all the powers and duties prescribed in this subchapter. The Commissioner of Revenue shall be the chairman of the said Board, and shall, in addition to presiding at the meetings of the Board, exercise the functions, duties, and powers of the Board when not in session. The Board may employ an executive secretary, whose entire time may be given to the work of the said Board, and is authorized to employ such clerical assistance as may be needed for the performance of its duties; all expenses of said Board shall be paid out of funds appropriated out of the general fund to the credit of the Department of Revenue of the State. (1939, c. 310, s. 2.)

Cross Reference.—As to Department of Tax Research, see §§ 105-450 to 105-457.

Editor's Note.—The 1941 amendment rewrote this section.

The 1947 amendment substituted "Commissioner of Revenue" for "Director of the Department of Tax Research" in the second sentence.

The 1961 amendment deleted the words "the Attorney General" formerly appearing after "Commission" in the first sentence.

Suits against Former State Tax Commission.—The former State Tax Commission (under the prior law corresponding to the State Board of Assessment) acted as a body and in a corporate capacity, and an action or proceeding to compel that body to perform its ministerial duties must be brought against it in that capacity and not against its members, for its functions were not individual or personal, but corporate. Hence, mandamus to compel the refund of taxes alleged to have been paid under an excessive valuation of property would not lie against two of the commissioners as individuals. Jenkins Bros. Shoe Co. v. Travis, 168 N. C. 599, 84 S. E. 1038 (1915). Cited in Catholic Society, etc. v. Madison County, 74 F. (2d) 848 (1935).
§ 105-274. Oath of office. — The members of the Board shall take and subscribe to the constitutional oath of office and file the same with the Secretary of State. (1939, c. 310, s. 201.)

Cross Reference.—As to form of oath, see § 11-7.

§ 105-275. Duties of the Board. — The State Board of Assessment shall exercise general and specific supervision of the systems of valuation and taxation throughout the State, including counties and municipalities, and in addition it shall be and constitute a State Board of Equalization and Review of valuation and taxation in this State. It shall be the duty of said Board:

(1) To confer with and advise boards of county commissioners, tax supervisors, assessing officers, list takers, and all others engaged in the valuation and assessment of property, in the preparation and keeping of suitable records, and in the levying and collection of taxes and revenues, as to their duties under this subchapter or any other act passed with respect to valuation of property, assessing, levying or collection of revenue for counties, municipalities and other subdivisions of the State, to insure that proper proceedings shall be brought to enforce the statutes pertaining to taxation and for the collection of penalties and liabilities imposed by law upon public officers, officers of corporations, and individuals failing, refusing or neglecting to comply with this subchapter; and to call upon the Attorney General or any prosecuting attorney in the State to assist in the execution of the powers herein conferred.

(2) To prepare a pamphlet or booklet for the instruction of the boards of county commissioners, tax supervisors, assessing officers, list takers, and all others engaged in the valuation of property, preparing and keeping records, and in the levying and collecting of taxes and revenue, and have the same ready for distribution at least thirty (30) days prior to the date fixed for listing taxes. The said pamphlet or booklet shall, in as plain terms as possible, explain the proper meaning of this subchapter and the revenue laws of this State; shall call particular attention to any points in the law or in the administration of the laws which may be or which may have been overlooked or neglected; shall advise as to the practical working of the revenue laws and the Machinery Act, and shall explain and interpret any points that seem to be intricate and upon which county or State officers may differ.

(3) To hear and to adjudicate appeals from boards of county commissioners and county boards of equalization and review as to property liable for taxation that has not been assessed or of property that has been fraudulently or improperly assessed through error or otherwise, to investigate the same, and if error, inequality, or fraud is found to exist, to take such proceedings and to make such orders as to correct the same. In case it shall be made to appear to the State Board of Assessment that any tax list or assessment roll in any county in this State is grossly irregular, or any property is unlawfully or unequally assessed as between individuals, between sections of a county, or between counties, the said Board shall correct such irregularities, inequalities and lack of uniformity, and shall equalize and make uniform the valuation thereof upon complaint by the board of county commissioners under rules and regulations prescribed by it, not inconsistent with this subchapter: Provided, that no appeals shall be considered or fixed values changed unless notice of same is filed within sixty (60) days after the final values are fixed and determined by the board of county commissioners or the board of equalization and review, as hereinafter provided: Provided, further, that each taxpayers or ownership interest shall file separate and distinct appeals; no joint appeals shall be considered except by and with consent of the State Board of Assessment.

(4) To report to the General Assembly at each regular session, or at such other times as it may direct, the proceedings of the Board under subchapters II and III and such other information and recommendations concerning the public revenues as required by the General Assembly or that may be of public interest. Such reports, in the interest of up-to-date information, need not be printed, but shall be made available in a reasonably durable form.

(5) To discharge such other duties as may be prescribed by law, and take such action, do such things, and prescribe such rules and regulations as may be needful and proper to enforce the provisions of this subchapter and the Revenue Act.

(6) To prepare for the legislative committee of succeeding general assemblies such suggestions of revision of the revenue laws, including the Machinery Act, as it may find by experience, investigation, and study to be expedient and wise.

(7) To report to the Governor, on or before the first day of January of each year, the proceedings of said Board during the preceding year, with such recommendations as it desires to submit with respect to any matters touching taxation and revenue.

(8) To keep full, correct and accurate records of its official proceedings.

(9) To properly administer the duties prescribed by Schedule H, §§ 105-198 to 105-217, with respect to division and certification of taxes collected thereunder; the State Board of Assessment shall hear and pass upon any matters relative thereto.

(10) To perform the duties imposed upon it with respect to the classification and assessment of property. (1939, c. 310, s. 202; 1955, c. 1350, s. 10.)

Editor's Note.—The 1955 amendment deleted former subdivisions (4), (5) and (6) and renumbered the remaining subdivisions in proper numerical order. It also rewrote former subdivision (7), now subdivision (4).

Review of Assessment.—Under the prior law original proceedings before the State Board of Assessment to have the value of property reduced for taxation would be disregarded and considered as a nullity when the question involved was solely whether such value theretofore fixed and agreed upon be reduced. Caldwell County v. Doughton, 195 N. C. 62, 141 S. E. 289 (1928).

Statutory Method of Assessment and Appeal Must Be Followed.—A particular board, such as the State Board of Assessment, given authority to assess or fix the value of property for taxation, is exercising a quasi judicial function, and when a method is provided by the State for appeals from the exercise of this function, and the taxpayer fails to avail himself of it, he cannot bring an action to recover back that portion of the taxes so assessed which he claims to be illegal. The method provided by statute for assessment and appeal from the assessment must be followed. The fact of the instant case did not permit a variation of this rule. Manufacturing Co. v. Commissioners of Pender, 196 N. C. 744, 147 S. E. 284 (1929).

§ 105-276. Powers of the Board.—To the end that the Board may properly discharge the duties placed upon it by law, it is hereby accorded the following powers:

(1) It may, in its discretion, prescribe the forms, books, and records that shall be used in the valuation of property and in the levying and collection of taxes, and how the same shall be kept; to require the county tax supervisors, clerks or boards of county commissioners, or auditor of each county to file with it, when called for, complete abstracts of all real and personal property in the county, itemized by townships and as equalized by the county board of equalization and review; and to make such other rules and regulations, not included in this subchapter or the Revenue Act, as said Board may deem needful effectually to promote the purposes for which the Board is constituted and the systems of taxation provided for in this and the Revenue Act.

(2) The Board, its members or any duly authorized deputy shall have access to all books, papers, documents, statements, records and accounts on file or of record in any department of State, county or municipality, and is authorized and empowered to subpoena witnesses upon a subpoena signed by the chairman of the Board, directed to such witnesses, and to be served by any officer authorized to serve subpoenas; to compel the attendance of witnesses by attachment to be issued by any superior court upon proper showing that such witness or witnesses have been duly subpoenaed and have refused to obey such subpoena or subpoenas; and to examine witnesses under oath to be administered by any member or authorized agent of the Board.

(3) The Board, its members or any duly authorized deputy are authorized and empowered to examine all books, papers, records or accounts of persons, firms and corporations, domestic and foreign, owning property liable to assessment for taxes, general or specific, levied by this State or its subdivisions. Said Board, its members or any duly authorized deputy are also given power and authority to examine the books, papers, records or accounts of any person, firm or corporation where there is ground for believing that information contained in such books, papers, records and accounts is pertinent to the decision of any matter pending before said Board, regardless of whether such person, firm or corporation is a party to the proceeding before the Board. Books, papers, records or accounts examined under authority of this subdivision of this section shall be examined only after service of a proper subpoena, signed by the chairman of the Board and served by an officer authorized to serve subpoenas upon the person having the custody of such books, papers, records or accounts.

Any person, persons, member of a firm, or any officer, director or stockholder of a corporation, bank or trust company who shall refuse permission to inspect any books, papers, documents, statements, accounts or records demanded by the State Board of Assessment, the members thereof, or any duly authorized deputy provided for in this subchapter or the Revenue Act, or who shall willfully fail, refuse, or neglect to appear before said Board in response to its subpoena or to testify as provided for in this subchapter and the Revenue Act, shall, in addition to all other penalties imposed in this subchapter or the Revenue Act, be guilty of a misdemeanor and fined and/or imprisoned in the discretion of the court.

(4) The Board is authorized and empowered to direct any member or members of the Board to hear complaints, to make examinations and investigations, and to report his or their findings of fact and conclusions of law to the Board. Upon demand of any party to an appeal pending before the Board, the Board shall send one of its members or a special representative designated by it to make an actual examination of the property and other similar property in the same county and report to the Board. The cost of making said examination shall be advanced by the county: Provided, that in cases in which the examination is demanded by a taxpayer, if the Board's decision does not substantially affirm the contentions of the taxpayer, the Board in its decision shall direct that the county advancing the cost may add such cost to the taxes levied against the property.

(5) The Board shall have power to certify copies of its records and proceedings, attested with its official seal, and copies of records or proceedings so certified shall be received in evidence in all courts in this State with like effect as certified copies of other public records.

(6) The Board shall make available personally to the tax supervisors or county board of commissioners any information contained in any report to said State Board, or in any report to the Department of Revenue or other State department to which said State Board may have access, or any other information which said State Board may have in its possession which may assist said supervisors or commissioners in securing an adequate listing of property for taxation or in assessing taxable property. Provided, that the State Board of Assessment may, upon written application of any county tax supervisor or person performing the function of county tax supervisor and approval by the chairman of the board of county commissioners, mail to such county tax supervisor an abstract of information contained in any of such reports relevant to the discovery or assessment of any taxable property of any taxpayers of the county listed in such application.

Except as herein specified, and except to the Governor or his authorized agent or solicitor or authorized agent of the solicitor of a district in which such information would affect the listing or valuation of property for taxes, the State Board shall not divulge or make public the reports made to it or to other State departments. Provided, this shall not interfere with the publication of assessments and decisions made by said Board or with publication of statistics by said Board; nor shall it prevent presentation of such information in any administrative or judicial proceedings involving assessments or decisions of said Board.

Information transmitted or made available to local tax authorities under this section shall not be divulged or published by such authorities, and shall be used only for the purposes of securing adequate tax lists, assessing taxable property and presentation in administrative or judicial proceedings involving such lists or assessments.

(7) The Board is authorized to exercise all powers reasonably necessary to perform the duties imposed upon it by this subchapter or other acts of this State. (1939, c. 310, s. 203; 1945, c. 955; 1951, c. 798.)

Editor's Note.—The 1945 amendment re-wrote the first paragraph of subdivision (6). The 1951 amendment added the proviso to the first paragraph of subdivision (6).

§ 105-277. Sessions of Board, where to be held. — The regular sessions of the State Board of Assessment shall be held in the city of Raleigh at the office of the chairman, and other sessions may be called at any place in the State to be decided by the Board. (1939, c. 310, s. 204.)

ARTICLE 13.

Revaluation and Annual Assessment.

§ 105-278. Revaluation of real property. — In the following years and in every eighth year thereafter, as of January first of said years, as set out herein by divisions of counties, all real property shall be listed and assessed for ad valorem tax purposes:

Division Three—1963: Beaufort, Burke, Chatham, Davie, Graham, Hertford, Johnston, McDowell, Mecklenburg, Moore, Pender, Rockingham, Sampson, Scotland, and Watauga.

Division Five — 1965: Caldwell, Carteret, Columbus, Currituck, Davidson, Gaston, Greene, Hyde, Lee, Lenoir, Orange, Pamlico, Pitt, Richmond, Transylvania, and Washington.

Division Seven — 1967: Alleghany, Bladen, Brunswick, Cabarrus, Catawba, Dare, Halifax, Macon, New Hanover, Polk, Stokes, Surry, Tyrrell, and Yadkin.

Any county desiring to conduct a real property revaluation earlier than called for under the schedule provided in this section may do so upon adoption by the board of county commissioners of a resolution so providing, a copy of such resolution to be sent forthwith to the State Board of Assessment. Once the initial revaluation date has been established for a given county, either under the schedule provided in this section, or by action of the board of county commissioners as herein provided, that county shall continue to hold revaluations each eighth year thereafter unless, in accordance with the procedure herein provided, an earlier date for revaluation shall be set, in which event a new schedule of octennial revaluations shall thereby be established for such county. Revaluations held or to be held in any counties as of January 1, 1960 or 1961 are validated.

Real property shall be appraised in such revaluation years by actual appraisal as provided in G. S. 105-295 and assessed in accordance with the provisions of G. S. 105-294. (1939, c. 310, s. 300; 1941, c. 282, ss. 1, 1 ½; 1943, c. 634, s. 1; 1945, c. 5; 1947, c. 50; 1949, c. 109; 1951, c. 847; 1953, c. 395; 1955, c. 1273; 1957, c. 1453, s. 1; 1959, c. 704, s. 1.)

Editor's Note.—The 1959 amendment, effective as of Jan. 1, 1960, rewrote this section.

Session Laws 1959, c. 704, s. 7, provides: "Notwithstanding any express repeal contained in this act or any repeal implied from its terms and provisions, the existing laws of the State relating to ad valorem taxation shall be and continue in full force and effect with respect to all acts and transactions done or occurring prior to January 1, 1960, affected or which ought to be affected by their terms and provisions, and with respect to all liabilities, criminal as well as civil, incurred or which ought to have been incurred with respect to such acts and transactions done or occurring prior to January 1, 1960."

§ 105-279. Listing and assessing in years other than revaluation years.—In the year 1960, and in other than revaluation years, all property, real and personal, subject to taxation, shall be listed for ad valorem tax purposes. Real property not subject to reassessment in such years shall be listed at the value at which it was assessed at the last revaluation. In all such years the following property shall be assessed or reassessed:

(1) All personal property (which for purposes of taxation shall include all personal property whatsoever, tangible or intangible, except personal property expressly exempted by law).

(2) All machinery, service station equipment, merchandise and trade fixtures, barbershop equipment, meat market equipment, restaurant and cafe fixtures, drugstore equipment and similar property not permanently affixed to the real estate.
(3) All real property (which for purposes of taxation shall include all lands within the State and all buildings and fixtures thereon and appurtenances thereto) which:

a. Was not assessed at the last revaluation conducted in accordance with the provisions of G. S. 105-278.

b. Has increased in value to the extent of more than one hundred dollars ($100.00) by virtue of improvements or appurtenances (other than those listed in G. S. 105-294) added since the last assessment of such property.

c. Has decreased in value to the extent of more than one hundred dollars ($100.00) by virtue of improvements or appurtenances (other than those listed in G. S. 105-294) damaged, destroyed, or removed since the last assessment of such property.

d. Has increased or decreased in value to the extent of more than one hundred dollars ($100.00) by virtue of circumstances other than general economic increases or decreases since the last assessment of such property. In each such case the facts in connection with the increase or decrease in value of the specific tract, parcel, or lot shall be found by the Board of Equalization and entered upon the proceedings of said Board.

e. Has increased or decreased in value because of a change in the acreage allotment for any farm commodity, when any such commodity acreage allotment was assigned a fixed value per acre in the last revaluation of real property. In such event the county board of equalization and review is hereby authorized to adjust uniformly the assessed valuations of farm properties affected by such change in the acreage allotment.

f. Has been subdivided into lots located on streets already laid out and open for travel, and sold or offered for sale as lots, since the date of the last assessment of such property. Provided, that where lands have been subdivided into lots, and more than five acres of any such subdivision remain unsold by the owner thereof, the unsold portion may be listed as land acreage in the discretion of the tax supervisor. The provisions of this subsection shall apply to all cases of subdivision into lots, regardless of whether the land is situated within or without an incorporated municipality.

g. Was last assessed at an improper figure as the result of a clerical error.

h. Was last assessed at an improper figure as the result of an error in the listing of the number of acres in the tract or parcel or in the listing of the dimensions of the lot. In each such case the facts in connection with the error shall be found by the Board of Equalization and entered upon the proceedings of said Board.

i. Was last assessed at a figure which (when compared with the assessment placed upon similar property in the county) was manifestly unjust at the time so assessed: Provided, that the power to reassess under this subdivision shall be exercised only by the Board of Equalization and Review, subject to appeal to the State Board of Assessment; provided, further, that no reassessment under the powers granted by this section shall be retroactive beyond the current year. (1939, c. 310, s. 301. 1955, c. 901; 1959, c. 704, s. 2; 1963, c. 414.)

Local Modification.—Guilford, as to subdivision (2): 1953, c. 345.

Cross Reference. — See Editor's Note under § 105-278.
Editor's Note.—The 1955 amendment rewrote subdivision (3).

The 1959 amendment, effective as of Jan. 1, 1960, rewrote the first two sentences of the introductory paragraph, and paragraph "a" of subdivision (3).

The 1963 amendment redesignated paragraphs e through h as f through i and inserted new paragraph e in subdivision (3).

Correction of Unjust and Inequitable Assessment.—When this section is read and considered, as it must be, with § 105-295, it is apparent that the legislature intended to authorize county board of equalization and review, when requested so to do, to correct any unjust and inequitable assessment. In re Property of Pine Raleigh Corp., 258 N. C. 398, 128 S. E. (2d) 855 (1963).

§ 105-280. Date as of which assessment is to be made.—All property, real and personal, shall be listed or listed and assessed, as the case may be, in accordance with ownership and value as of the first day of April, one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine, and thereafter all property shall be listed or listed and assessed in accordance with ownership and value as of the first day of January each year.

Whenever any real property is acquired after January first, and prior to July first, which property was not required to be listed for taxation on the first day of January on account of the nontaxable character of the ownership of the same, such property shall be listed for taxation by the purchaser as of the time of purchase and shall be taxed for the fiscal year of the taxing unit beginning on July first of the year in which such real property is acquired.

Such property shall be assessed for taxation by the county tax supervisor after ten days’ notice sent by registered mail to the person in whose name such property is listed. The person in whose name such property is listed for taxation shall have the right to appeal to the board of county commissioners as to the valuation of said property in the event he is dissatisfied with the valuation placed thereon by the county tax supervisor within ten days after notice by mail of same, and the county board of commissioners shall have the authority given to it as a county board of equalization and, in determining and fixing the valuation of said property, the right of appeal therefrom by the taxpayer of the county shall be the same as provided for listings made on the regular date.

In the event such property is acquired from any governmental unit which by contract is paying to the taxing unit payments in lieu of taxes for the fiscal period ending on the thirtieth day of June of the year in which such property is acquired, the tax on such property so acquired shall be one-half of the amount of the tax on such property as it would have been if regularly listed for taxation as of ownership on the first day of January. (1939, c. 310, s. 302; 1945, c. 973.)

Editor's Note.—The 1945 amendment added the last three paragraphs.

When Lien Attaches.—Under the former law the lien for taxes attached to realty on the first day of April of each year, the date on which land was required to be listed in the name of the owner. Bemis Hardwood Lbr. Co. v. Graham County, 214 N. C. 167. 198 S. E. 843 (1938).

§ 105-281. Property subject to taxation.—All property, real and personal, within the jurisdiction of the State, not especially exempted, shall be subject to taxation.
Cotton, tobacco, other farm products, goods, wares, and merchandise which are held or stored for shipment to any foreign country, or held or stored at a seaport terminal awaiting further shipment after being imported from a foreign country through any seaport terminal in North Carolina, except any such products, goods, wares, and merchandise which have been so stored for more than twelve months on the date as of which property is assessed for taxation, are hereby designated a special class of personal property and shall not be assessed for taxation. It is hereby declared to be the policy of this State to use its system of property taxation in such manner, through the classification of the aforementioned property, as to encourage the development of the ports of North Carolina. For purposes of this section and of this subchapter, the term "property, real and personal," as used in the first paragraph of this section, shall not include the property hereinafter in this paragraph so specially classified. (1939, c. 310, s. 303; 1961, c. 1169, s. 8.)

Editor's Note.—Session Laws 1961, c. 1169, s. 8, which added the second paragraph of this section also proposed amendments to §§ 3 and 5 of article 5 of the Constitution. The act provided that the amendment to this section shall become effective upon the adoption of the proposed amendments at the next general election. The amendments were adopted by vote of the people at the general election held November 6, 1962.

For cases construing a former statute, which defined what should be included as personal property, see Mecklenburg County v. Sterchi Bros. Stores, 210 N. C. 79, 185 S. E. 454 (1936); Lawrence v. Shaw, 210 N. C. 352, 186 S. E. 504 (1936).

All property privately owned within this State is subject to taxation unless exempt by strict construction of pertinent statute. Bragg Investment Co. v. Cumberland County, 245 N. C. 492, 96 S. E. (2d) 341 (1957).

Taxation of Personal Property of Non-residents Is Constitutional.—The taxation of personal property of nonresidents by this State when such personal property has acquired a taxable situs here does not violate the provisions of the 14th Amendment of the federal Constitution, the rule that personal property follows the domicile of the owner being subject to an exception when such personalty is held in such a manner as to create a "business situs" for the purpose of taxation. Mecklenburg County v. Sterchi Bros. Stores, 210 N. C. 79, 185 S. E. 454 (1936), construing former statute.

§ 105-282. Article subordinate to §§ 105-198 to 105-217.—None of the provisions contained in any of the sections of this article shall be construed to conflict with Schedule H, §§ 105-198 to 105-217, but rather shall they be subordinate thereto. (1939, c. 310, s. 304.)

Article 14.

Personnel for County Tax Listing and Assessing.

§ 105-283. Appointment and qualifications of tax supervisors.—At or before the regular meeting on the first Monday in December, 1953, the board of county commissioners of each county shall appoint a county tax supervisor to serve for one year. At or before the regular meeting on the first Monday in December, 1954, the board of county commissioners of each county shall appoint a county tax supervisor to serve until the first Monday in July, 1955. At the regular meeting of each board of county commissioners on the first Monday in July, 1955, and biennially thereafter, each board of commissioners shall appoint a county tax supervisor to serve for two years. All such appointments shall be subject to the provisions of G. S. 105-284 concerning holding over until a successor has been appointed and has qualified and concerning removal for cause.
In appointing a county tax supervisor, each board of county commissioners shall select some person who shall, for one year immediately preceding the appointment, have been a resident of the county, and whose experience in the appraisal and validation of real and personal property is satisfactory to the said board.

In lieu of appointing a county tax supervisor, the board of commissioners may impose the duties and responsibilities of that position as outlined in this chapter upon the county accountant, auditor, all time chairman of the board of county commissioners, or other similar county official. (1939, c. 310, s. 400; 1953, c. 970, s. 1.)

Editor's Note.—The 1953 amendment rewrote this section.

§ 105-284. Term of office and compensation of tax supervisors.—Subject to the provisions of G. S. 105-283 concerning the appointments of tax supervisors to be made on the first Monday in December, 1953, and on the first Monday in December, 1954, the tax supervisor shall serve for two years, and until his successor is appointed and has qualified. The board of county commissioners may remove the tax supervisor at any time for cause. Any vacancy shall be filled by the board of county commissioners by appointment of a tax supervisor to serve for the period of the unexpired term of the vacating supervisor.

The compensation of the county tax supervisor shall be fixed by the board of county commissioners, and he shall be allowed such expenses as the commissioners may approve. (1939, c. 310, s. 401; 1953, c. 970, s. 2.)

Editor's Note.—The 1953 amendment rewrote this section.

§ 105-285. Oath of office of supervisor.—Immediately after his appointment, and before entering upon the duties of his office, the supervisor shall file with the clerk of the board of commissioners the following oath, subscribed and sworn to before the chairman of the board of commissioners or some other officer qualified to administer oaths:

“I, ................, County Tax Supervisor for ............... County, North Carolina, for the year ........, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will discharge the duties of my office as supervisor according to the laws in force governing such office; so help me, God.

§ 105-286. Powers and duties of tax supervisor. — (a) The supervisor shall have general charge of the listing and assessing of all property in the county in accordance with the provisions of law.

(b) He shall appoint the list takers and assessors, subject to the approval of the commissioners, as hereinafter provided.

(c) He shall, at any time following the appointment of list takers and assessors as prescribed by G. S. 105-287, but not later than the week preceding the date as of which property is to be assessed, convene the list takers and assessors for general instruction in methods of securing a complete list of all property in the county, and of assessing, in accordance with law, all property which is to be assessed during the approaching listing period.

(d) He shall visit each list taker at least once during the period of listing, and shall confer with each list taker during said period as often as he or the list taker deems necessary, to the end that all property shall be listed and assessed according to law, and that assessments shall be equalized as between the various townships.

(e) He shall have power to subpoena any person for examination under oath.
and to subpoena any books, papers, records or accounts whenever he has reasonable grounds for the belief that such person has knowledge of such books, papers, records and accounts containing information which is pertinent to the discovery or the valuation of any property subject to taxation in the county, or which is necessary for compliance with the requirements as to what the tax list shall contain, hereinafter set forth. The subpoena shall be signed by the chairman of the county board of equalization and served by an officer qualified to serve subpoenas.

(f) He may require that any or all persons, firms and corporations, domestic and foreign, engaged in operating any business enterprise in the county shall submit, in connection with his or its regular tax list, a detailed inventory, statement of assets and liabilities, or other similar information pertinent to the discovery of valuation of property taxable in the county. Inventories, statements of assets and liabilities or other information not expressly required by this subchapter to be shown on the tax list itself, secured by the supervisor under the terms of this subsection, shall not be open to public inspection.

Any supervisor or other official disclosing information so obtained, except as such disclosure may be necessary in listing or assessing property or in administrative or judicial proceedings relating to such listing or assessing, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and punishable by fine not exceeding fifty dollars ($50.00), except that representatives of the North Carolina Department of Revenue shall upon request of the Commissioner of Revenue, be allowed to examine such detailed inventories, statements of assets and liabilities, or similar information furnished by the taxpayers; provided, it shall be unlawful for the representatives or any agent or employee of the North Carolina Department of Revenue to divulge such information in any way as to identify any particular taxpayer, and the provisions of G. S. 105-259 shall apply.

(g) He shall have power, for good cause, and prior to the first meeting of the board of equalization and review, to change the valuation placed upon any property by the list taker, provided such property is subject to assessment for the current year, and provided that notice of such change is given to the taxpayer prior to the meeting of said board.

(h) He shall perform such other duties as may be imposed upon him by law, and shall have and exercise all powers reasonably necessary in the performance of his duties, not inconsistent with the Constitution or the laws of this State. (1939, c. 310, s. 403; 1957, c. 202; 1963, c. 302.)

Editor's Note.—The 1957 amendment 1964, added all that part of the second paragraph of subsection (f) following “fifty dollars ($50.00).”

§ 105-287. Appointment, qualifications, and number of list takers and assessors.—Subject to the approval of the county commissioners, the supervisor, on or before the second Monday preceding the date as of which property is to be assessed, shall appoint some competent person to act as list taker and assessor in each township. With the approval of the commissioners the supervisor may appoint more than one such person for any township. If more than one list taker is appointed for a township, the supervisor, with the approval of the county commissioners, shall have power to allocate responsibility for tax listing and assessment between or among the list takers for that township as he deems most effective. In revaluation years three such persons shall be appointed in each township, and more than three may be appointed in townships in which is located an incorporated town or part of an incorporated town; and in such years, at the time of their appointment, such appointees shall have been residents of the county for at least twelve months: Provided, that in any county making horizontal adjustments in real property appraisals as provided in G. S. 105-294, the commissioners may appoint fewer than three list takers and assessors per § 105-288. Term of office and compensation of list takers and assessors.—The list takers and assessors shall serve for such period as may be fixed by the commissioners. They shall receive for their services such compensation as the commissioners may fix. No list taker shall receive compensation until the supervisor has checked over the lists accepted by him, as hereinafter required, and certified that his work has been satisfactory. Each list taker shall make out his account in detail, specifying each day's services, which account shall be audited by the county accountant and approved by the commissioners. (1939, c. 310, s. 405.)

§ 105-289. Oath of list takers and assessors.—Before entering upon his duties each list taker and assessor shall take the following oath, which shall be filed with the clerk to the board of commissioners after having been subscribed and sworn to before some officer qualified to administer oaths:

"I, ................., List Taker and Assessor for ............... Township, ............... County, North Carolina, do hereby solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will discharge the duties of my office according to the laws in force that govern said office; so help me, God.

§ 105-290. Powers and duties of list takers and assessors.—(a) At least ten days before the date as of which property is to be assessed, each list taker shall post, in five or more public places in his township, a notice containing at least the following:

1. The date as of which property is to be assessed;
2. The date on which listing will begin;
3. The date on which the listing will end;
4. The times and places between the last two dates mentioned at which lists will be accepted;
5. A notice that all persons who, on the date as of which property is to be assessed, own property subject to taxation must list such property within the period set forth in the notice, and that failure to do so will subject such persons to the penalties prescribed by law.

In townships in which more than one list taker has been appointed the posting of these notices shall be the duty of one of them, to be designated by the supervisor.
In case the period of listing in any township shall be extended by the commissioners, as hereinafter permitted, it shall be the duty of the list taker who first posted the notices to post new notices in the same places, giving notice of the extension and notice of the times and places at which lists will be accepted during the extended period.

(b) Each list taker shall attend the meeting referred to in subsection (c) of § 105-286.

(c) The list takers and assessors, under the supervision of the supervisor, shall secure lists of all real and personal property and polls subject to taxation in their townships, and shall assess all such property as is subject to assessment under the provisions of this subchapter. To this end they shall secure from each taxpayer or person whose duty it is to list property or poll in their respective townships a list containing the information hereinafter specified, and shall have the authority to visit any such person or his property, to investigate the value of any such property, and to examine under oath any such person present before them for the purpose of listing property. The supervisor may, in his discretion, require any list taker and assessor to visit each person in his township whose property or poll is subject to taxation.

(d) Each list taker and assessor shall have power to subpoena any person for examination under oath whenever he has reasonable grounds for belief that such person has knowledge which is pertinent to the discovery or valuation of property subject to taxation in his township or which is necessary for compliance with the requirements, hereinafter set forth, as to what the tax list shall contain. The subpoena shall be signed by the chairman of the county board of equalization and served by an officer qualified to serve subpoenas.

(e) The list takers and assessors shall perform such duties in connection with the making up of the tax records and in connection with the discovery of unlisted property as hereinafter specified.

(f) The list takers and assessors shall perform such other duties as may be by law imposed upon them; and they shall have and exercise all powers necessary to the proper discharge of their duties not inconsistent with the Constitution or the statutes of this State. (1939, c. 310, s. 407; 1953, c. 970, s. 4.)

Editor's Note.—The 1953 amendment added the second sentence of subsection (d).

§ 105-291. Employment of experts. — The board of county commissioners in each county, at the request of the county supervisor of taxation, may in their discretion employ one or more persons having expert knowledge of the value of specific kinds or classes of property within the county, such as mines, factories, mills and other similar property, to aid and assist the county supervisor of taxation and the list takers and assessors in the respective townships, or to advise with, aid and assist the board of equalization and review in arriving at the true value in money of the property in the county. Such expert, or experts, so employed by the board of county commissioners shall receive for their services such compensation as the board of county commissioners shall designate. (1939, c. 310, s. 408.)

§ 105-292. Assistant tax supervisors and clerical assistants.—The board of county commissioners may, in their discretion, upon the recommendation of the tax supervisor, appoint one or more assistant tax supervisors and employ such clerical assistants to the tax supervisor as they deem proper. The board of county commissioners may delegate to assistant tax supervisors appointed under this section responsibility for real property appraisal, the listing and appraisal of § 105-293. Tax commission.—In all counties having a tax commission, said commission shall do and perform all the duties required by this subchapter to be performed by county commissioners except levying taxes, and all expenses incurred by said tax commission or its appointees in accordance with this subchapter shall be paid by the county commissioners out of the general county funds. (1939, c. 310, s. 410.)

§ 105-294. Taxes to be on uniform assessment basis as to class.—All property, real and personal, shall as far as practicable be appraised or valued at its true value in money. The intent and purpose of this section is to have all property and subjects of taxation appraised at their true and actual value in money, in such manner as such property and subjects of taxation are usually sold, but not by forced sale thereof; and the words “market value”, “true value”, or “cash value”, whenever used in this chapter, shall be held to mean for the amount of cash or receivables the property and subjects can be transmuted into when sold in such manner as such property and subjects are usually sold.

In the year in which a revaluation of real property, conducted in a county under the provisions of G. S. 105-278, is to take effect, and annually thereafter, the board of county commissioners shall select and adopt some uniform percentage of the amount at which property has been appraised as the value to be used in taxing property. The percentage selected shall be adopted by resolution of the board of county commissioners prior to the first meeting of the board of equalization and review, and such percentage shall be known as the assessment ratio.

Before the adoption of the resolution, representatives of municipalities and other taxing authorities required by this section to use the assessments determined by the board of county commissioners shall be given an opportunity to make recommendations as to that assessment ratio which would provide a reasonable and adequate tax base in each such municipality or other taxing unit. The board shall give due consideration to any recommendation so made, but final action selecting and adopting the assessment ratio shall be taken by the board. Within ten days after adopting its assessment ratio, the board of county commissioners shall forward a certified copy of the adoption resolution to the State Board of Assessment.

The percentage or assessment ratio selected shall be applied to the appraised value of all real and personal property subject to assessment in the county. The tax records of the county shall show for all property both the appraisal value and the assessed value for tax purposes. Taxes levied by all counties, municipalities, and other local taxing authorities shall be levied uniformly on assessments so determined.

In the fourth year following revaluation of real property by actual appraisal as required by G. S. 105-278, each county shall review its appraisal values and make whatever revisions are needed to bring them into line with current market or cash value, such revisions to be made horizontally only, by uniform percentages of increase or reduction rather than by actual appraisal and reassessment of individual properties. To the appraisal values thus revised, each county shall, for tax assessment purposes, apply the assessment ratio selected and adopted as hereinabove provided.

It is hereby declared to be the policy of this State so to use its system of real estate taxation as to encourage the conservation of natural resources and the beautification of homes and roadsides, and all tax assessors are hereby instructed that in assessing real estate under the provisions of G.S. 105-279 they shall make no increase in the tax valuation of real estate as a result of the owner’s enterprise in adopting any one or more of the following progressive policies:

1. Planting and care of lawns, shade trees, shrubs and flowers for noncommercial purposes.
2. Repainting buildings.
3. Terracing or other methods of soil conservation, to the extent that they preserve values already existing.
4. Protection of forests against fire.
5. Planting of forest trees on vacant land for reforestation purposes (for ten years after such planting).

It is hereby declared to be the policy of this State to use its system of real estate taxation in such manner as to encourage the conservation of natural resources and the abatement and prevention of water pollution, and all tax assessors are hereby instructed that in assessing real estate under the provisions of G.S. 105-279 they shall make no increase in the tax valuation of real estate as the result of the owner’s enterprise in installing or constructing waste disposal or water pollution abatement plants, including waste lagoons, or equipment, upon the condition that a certificate is furnished to the tax supervisor of the county, wherein such property is located, by the State Stream Sanitation Committee, certifying that said Committee has found as a fact that the waste treatment plant or pollution abatement equipment purchased or constructed and installed as above described has actually been constructed and installed and that such plant or equipment complies with the requirements of said Committee with respect to such plants or equipment, that such plant or equipment is being effectively operated in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in the permit, certificate of approval, or other document of approval issued by the State Stream Sanitation Committee, and that the primary purpose thereof is to reduce water pollution resulting from the discharge of sewage and waste and not merely incidental to other purposes and functions. (1939, c. 310, s. 500; 1953, c. 970, s. 5; 1955, c. 1100, s. 2; 1959, c. 682.)

Local Modification.—Polk: 1963, c. 751. The 1959 amendment, effective as of Jan. 1, 1960, rewrote the first paragraph and inserted the second, third and fourth paragraphs.

§ 105-294.1. Agricultural products in storage. — Any agricultural product held in North Carolina by any manufacturer or processor for manufacturing or processing, which agricultural product is of such nature as customarily to require storage and processing for periods of more than one year in order to age or condition such product for manufacture, is hereby classified as a special class of property under authority of § 3, article V of the Constitution. Such agricultural products so classified shall be taxed uniformly as a class in each local taxing unit at sixty per cent (60%) of the rate levied for all purposes upon real
§ 105-294.2. Peanuts; year following year in which grown.—Peanuts held in North Carolina in the year following the year in which such peanuts are grown are hereby classified as a special class of property under authority of § 3, article V of the Constitution. Such peanuts so classified shall be taxed uniformly as a class in each local taxing unit at twenty per cent (20%) of the rate levied for all purposes upon real estate and other tangible personal property by said taxing unit in which such peanuts are listed for taxation. (1955, c. 697, s. 1; 1961, c. 1169, s. 7.)

Editor's Note.—The 1961 act rewriting this section also proposed amendments to §§ 3 and 5 of article 5 of the Constitution. The act provides that the amendment of this section shall become effective only upon the adoption of the proposed amendments. The amendments were adopted by vote of the people at the general election held November 6, 1962.

§ 105-294.3. Baled cotton for manufacture or processing in State.—Cotton in bales held for manufacture or processing in North Carolina is hereby classified as a special class of property under authority of § 3, article V of the Constitution. Such cotton so classified shall be taxed uniformly as a class in each local taxing unit at fifty per cent (50%) of the rate levied for all purposes upon real estate and other tangible personal property by said taxing unit in which such cotton is listed for taxation. This classification shall not be held to repeal any other classification or exemption granted to cotton under any existing law of State-wide application. (1961, c. 1169, s. 7%)

Editor's Note.—The 1961 act which added this section also proposed amendments to §§ 3 and 5 of article 5 of the Constitution. The act provides that the amendment of this section shall become effective only upon the adoption of the proposed amendments. The amendments were adopted by vote of the people at the general election held November 6, 1962.

§ 105-294.4. Individual family fallout shelters.—Individual family fallout shelters meeting the criteria and standards of the Office of Civil Defense, United States Department of Defense, when constructed to protect an individual family from radioactive fallout, are hereby classified as a special class of property under authority of § 3, article V of the Constitution. Such fallout shelters shall be subject to taxation in each local taxing unit only to the extent that the appraised value of such shelter, separate and apart from any structure to which the shelter is attached or within which the shelter is constructed, exceeds two thousand dollars ($2,000.00). Where two or more families join in the construction of such a shelter for their common use, an exclusion of two thousand dollars ($2,000.00) shall be allowed from the total appraised value for each such family. (1963, c. 940.)

Editor's Note.—The act inserting this section is made effective as of January 1, 1964, for taxes listed as of January 1, 1964, and the years thereafter.

§ 105-295. Appraisal of real property; land and buildings.—In appraising real property for tax purposes as required by G. S. 105-278, G. S. 105-279, and G. S. 105-294, it shall be the duty of the county tax supervisor to see that every lot, parcel, tract, building, structure, and other improvement being appraised actually be visited and observed by a competent appraiser, either one appointed under the provisions of G. S. 105-287 or one employed under the provisions of G. S. 105-291. It shall also be the duty of the county tax supervisor to provide for the development and compilation of standard uniform schedules of values to be used in appraising real property in the county. Such schedules shall be prepared prior to each revaluation as required by G. S. 105-278, shall be in written or printed form, and shall be prepared in sufficient detail to enable appraisers to adhere to them in appraising the kinds of real property commonly found in the county. The schedules of values so developed shall be made available for public inspection upon request.

In determining the value of land the assessors shall consider as to each tract, parcel or lot separately listed at least its advantages as to location, quality of soil, quantity and quality of timber, water power, water privileges, mineral or quarry or other valuable deposits, fertility, adaptability for agricultural, commercial or industrial uses, the past income therefrom, its probable future income, the present assessed valuation, and any other factors which may affect its value.

In determining the value of a building the assessors shall consider at least its location, type of construction, age, replacement, cost, adaptability for residence, commercial or industrial uses, the past income therefrom, the probable future income, the present assessed value, and any other factors which may affect its value. Buildings partially completed shall be assessed in accordance with the degree of completion on the day as of which property is assessed.

For each tract, parcel, lot or group of contiguous lots a separate property record shall be prepared. Said record shall be designed to show the information required for compliance with the provisions of G. S. 105-306 dealing with real property as well as that required for compliance with the provisions of this section. The intent and purpose of this section is to require that individual property records be maintained in sufficient detail to enable property owners to ascertain the method and standards of value by which properties are valued. (1939, c. 310, s. 501; 1959, c. 704, s. 4.)

Cross References. — See Editor's Note under § 105-278. As to correction of unjust and inequitable assessments, see note to § 105-179.

Editor's Note. — The 1959 amendment, effective as of January 1, 1960, added “Appraisal of real property” to the caption, and added the first and fourth paragraphs.

Net income produced is an element which may properly be considered in determining value, but it is only one element. In re Property of Pine Raleigh Corp., 258 N. C. 398, 128 S. E. (2d) 855 (1963).

But Fact-Finding Board May Also Consider Earning Capacity.—If it appears that the income actually received is less than the fair earning capacity of the property the earning capacity should be substituted as a factor rather than the actual earnings. The fact-finding board can properly consider both. In re Property of Pine Raleigh Corp., 258 N. C. 398, 128 S. E. (2d) 855 (1963).

In this section, “the past income therefrom, its probable future income,” is not necessarily actual income. The language is sufficient to include the income which could be obtained by the proper and efficient use of the property. In re Property of Pine Raleigh Corp., 258 N. C. 398, 128 S. E. (2d) 855 (1963).

ARTICLE 16.

Exemptions and Deductions.

§ 105-296. Real property exempt. — The following real property, and no other, shall be exempted from taxation:

(1) Real property owned by the United States or this State, and real property owned by the State for the benefit of any general or special fund of the State, and real property lawfully owned and held by counties, cities, townships, rural fire protection districts, or school districts, used wholly and exclusively for public or school purposes. The repeal of the exemption of real property indirectly owned by federal, State, or local governments shall be effective for the tax year 1943, and such property indirectly owned shall be placed upon the tax books for 1943 and subject to the tax rates levied on real estate in the year 1943.

(2) Real property, tombs, vaults and mausoleums set apart for burial purposes, except such as are owned and held for purposes of sale or rental.

(3) Buildings, with the land upon which they are situated, lawfully owned and held by churches or religious bodies, wholly and exclusively used for religious worship or for the residence of the minister of any such church or religious body or occupied gratuitously by one other than the owner which if it were the owner, would qualify for the exemption under this section, together with the additional adjacent land reasonably necessary for the convenient use of any such building.

(4) Buildings, with the land occupied, wholly devoted to educational purposes, belonging to and exclusively occupied and used by public libraries, museums, colleges, academies, industrial schools, seminaries, and any other institutions of learning, together with such additional land owned by such libraries and educational institutions as may be reasonably necessary for the convenient use of such buildings, and also such other buildings and facilities located on the premises of such institutions as may be reasonably necessary and useful in the functional operation of such institutions: Provided, however, that the exemption of this subdivision shall not apply to any institution organized or operated for profit, or if any officer, shareholder, member, or employee thereof or other individual shall be entitled to receive any pecuniary profit from the operations thereof, except reasonable compensation for services.

(5) Real property belonging to, actually and exclusively occupied by Young Men's Christian Associations and other similar religious associations, orphanages, or other similar homes, hospitals and nunneries not conducted for profit, but entirely and completely as charitable.

(6) Buildings, with the land actually occupied, belonging to the American Legion or Post of the American Legion, or any other veterans' organization chartered by Congress or organized and operated on a State-wide or nation-wide basis, or any post or other local organization thereof, or any benevolent, patriotic, historical, or charitable association used exclusively for lodge purposes by said societies or associations, together with such additional adjacent land as may be necessary for the convenient use of the buildings thereon.

(7) The exemptions granted in subdivisions (3), (4), (5), (6) and (10) of this section shall apply to real property of foreign religious, charitable, educational, literary, benevolent, patriotic or historical corporations, institutions or orders when such property is exclusively used for religious, charitable, educational or benevolent purposes within this State.

(8) The real property of Indians who are not citizens, except lands held by them by purchase.

(9) Real property falling within the provisions of § 55-11, appropriated exclusively for public parks and drives.

(10) Real property actually used for hospital purposes, including homes for nurses employed by or in training in such hospitals, held for or owned by hospitals organized and operated as nonstock, nonprofit, charitable institutions, without profit to the members or their successors, notwithstanding that patients able to pay are charged for services rendered: Provided, all revenues or receipts of such hospitals shall be used, invested, or held for the purposes for which they are organized; and provided, further, that where hospital property is used partly for such hospital purposes and partly rented out for commercial and business purposes, then only such proportion of the value of such building and the land on which it is located shall be exempt from taxation as is actually used for such hospital purposes. The provisions of this section shall be effective as to taxes for the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six and subsequent years.

(11) Real property, or so much thereof, which is used exclusively for waste disposal or water pollution abatement plants, including waste lagoons, designed to abate, reduce, or prevent pollution of water. This exemption is allowed only upon the condition that a certificate is furnished to the tax supervisor of the county, wherein such property is located, by the State Stream Sanitation Committee, certifying that said Committee has found as a fact that the waste treatment plant, including waste lagoons, or pollution abatement equipment above described has been constructed or installed thereon and that such plant or equipment complies with the requirements of said Committee with respect to such plants or equipment, that such plant or equipment is being effectively operated in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in the permit, certificate of approval, or other document of approval issued by the State Stream Sanitation Committee, and that the primary purpose thereof is to reduce water pollution resulting from the discharge of sewage and waste and not merely incidental to other purposes and functions. The exemption herein provided for shall be applicable only with respect to taxes levied in 1955 and subsequent years.

(12) Buildings with the land upon which they are situated, together with the additional adjacent land reasonably necessary for the convenient use of such buildings, lawfully owned and held by churches or other religious bodies or organizations, and used for the general or promotional offices or headquarters of such churches or religious bodies or organizations.

(13) Notwithstanding any of the other provisions of this section, when any building and additional adjacent land necessary for the convenient use of said building belongs to an organization enumerated in subdivisions (3) through (7) or (10) or (12) of this section and a part thereof is devoted to the purposes for which an exemption from ad valorem taxes would be allowed by said subdivisions if the entire building and grounds were exclusively used for such purposes, then such property shall be exempt from ad valorem taxes to the extent of that pro rata part so used. (1939, c. 310, s. 600; 1941, c. 125, ss. 1, 2; 1943, c. 634, s. 2; 1945, c. 995, s. 2; 1955, c. 230, s. 1; c. 1100, s. 2; 1959, cc. 511, 521; 1961, c. 953.)

Local Modification.—Pitt: 1955, c. 113.

Cross Reference.—As to liability of municipal property for county taxes, see note under § 105-3.

Editor's Note.—The 1941 amendment inserted subdivision (10) and inserted the reference thereto in subdivision (7).

The 1943 amendment rewrote subdivision (1) and struck out former subdivision (7). It also struck out "or the income therefrom is exclusively used for" formerly appearing after "for" in present subdivision (7).

The 1945 amendment inserted in subdivision (6) the reference to other veterans' organizations.

The first 1955 amendment inserted "rural fire protection districts" in the first sentence of subdivision (1). The second 1955 amendment added subdivision (11).
The first 1959 amendment added subdivisions (12) and (13), and provided that it shall be in full force and effect beginning with the taxes which fall due on the first Monday in October, 1959, and thereafter. The second 1959 amendment rewrote subdivision (4).

The 1961 amendment inserted near the middle of subdivision (3) "or occupied gratuitously by one other than the owner which if it were the owner, would qualify for the exemption under this section."

For comment on the 1941 amendment, see 19 N. C. Law Rev. 520; on the 1943 amendment, see 21 N. C. Law Rev. 371. For article on exemption of property owned by the State and municipal corporations, see 16 N. C. Law Rev. 309.

As to extent of power of the legislature to exempt, see United Brethren v. Forsyth County Com'r's, 115 N. C. 489, 20 S. E. 626 (1894). As to the use to which property devoted being controlling, see State v. Oxford Seminary Constr. Co., 160 N. C. 582, 76 S. E. 640 (1912). And see note under Const., Art. V, § 5.

Construction of Section. — Statutes exempting specific property from taxation because of the purposes for which such property is held and used, are and should be construed strictly, when there is room for construction, against exemption and in favor of taxation. However, it is not meant that the statute shall be stingingly or even narrowly construed, but it does mean that every thing shall be excluded from its operation which does not clearly come within the scope of the language used. Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary, Inc. v. Wake County, 251 N. C. 775, 112 S. E. (2d) 528 (1960).

The property of a cemetery association is exempt from ad valorem taxes by virtue of subdivision (2). Raleigh Cemetery Ass'n v. Raleigh, 235 N. C. 509, 70 S. E. (2d) 506 (1958).

But this section does not authorize the exemption of such property from a local improvement assessment made pursuant to and in conformity with the law authorizing such assessment. No land in a municipality is exempt from assessment for local improvements. Raleigh Cemetery Ass'n v. Raleigh, 235 N. C. 509, 70 S. E. (2d) 506 (1958). See § 160-85 (4). See also annotations under Art. V, § 5, N. C. Const.

Property Used for Religious, Charitable, etc., Purposes. — It is fundamental that the property of religious or charitable institutions, to be exempt, must be used exclusively for the purposes enumerated, and the rents arising from such property must be so applied. Southern Assembly v. Palmer, 166 N. C. 75, 82 S. E. 18 (1914). See also, United Brethren v. Commissioners, 115 N. C. 489, 20 S. E. 626 (1894). Plaintiff association was empowered by its charter inter alia to hold real estate provided the profits therefrom, if any, were used for the benefit of widows and orphans of deceased members or for such charitable and benevolent purposes as it deemed necessary or expedient to the successful prosecution of its charter provisions. During the years 1954 through 1959 it owned a building in which it maintained its lodge rooms and rented the remainder of the building for use as offices and stores on the basis of a commercial enterprise and used the entire rents therefrom for repairs and the payment of the mortgage indebtedness on the building. It was held that since the building was held for business or commercial purposes it was subject to the assessment of ad valorem taxes of the city and county in which it was situated for the years in question. Sir Walter Lodge, etc. v. Swain, 217 N. C. 633, 9 S. E. (2d) 265 (1940).

Same; Former Exemption Held Unconstitutional. — Though the former exemptions contained in subdivision (7) were broad enough in their terms to exempt business property owned by an educational institution and rented for offices and business purposes to private enterprises, the net profit derived therefrom being devoted exclusively to educational purposes, they were, when applied to the facts, beyond the scope of the constitutional grant of permissive power of exemption contained in Art. V, § 5 of the Constitution, and therefore the property was subject to ad valorem assessment and taxation. Rockingham County v. Board of Trustees, 219 N. C. 342, 13 S. E. (2d) 618 (1941).

Land Adjacent to Church. — A lot purchased by trustees of a church for the purpose of erecting a new church, and, pending the accumulation of sufficient funds to erect the new church, used exclusively for religious purposes, is property adjacent to the church property and reasonably necessary for the convenient use of the church property within the meaning of subdivision (3) exempting such property from taxation, even though the lot purchased, because of unavailability of adjoining land, is four or five blocks distant from the church, the word "adjacent" meaning lying close together but not necessarily in contact. Harrison v. Guilford County, 218 N. C. 718, 12 S. E. (2d) 269 (1940).

The words of subdivision (4) of this section, given their ordinary meaning, are clear and require no construction. South-§ 105-296.1 Timberland owned by State.—Any State department or agency owning timberland or leasing, controlling or administering timberland owned by the State, shall pay to each county in which said timberland is situated an amount equal to fifteen per cent (15%) of proceeds of the gross sales of trees, timber, pulpwod, and any forest products from said timberland, and said funds shall, when received, be placed in the account of the county general fund. Where the said timberland consists of a tract situated in more than one county and the timber, pulpwood, or forest products are sold, or cut, removed and sold from the entire tract, then the percentage of gross sales as herein prescribed shall be divided and paid to said county boards on the basis of the acreage located in the respective counties: Provided, this section shall not apply to the proceeds of sale of trees, timber, pulpwood, or forest products paid to or received by the State Board of Education, or any other State educational institution, or the North Carolina Department of Agriculture from its research stations and experimental farm lands; provided, further, that where State forests are held, leased, or administered by the Prison Department, or as held, leased or administered by the Department of Conservation and Development as provided by G. S. 113-34, or by the Wildlife Resources Commission, said departments, instead of payment as above prescribed, may elect permanently to subject such State forests to county taxes assessed on the same basis as are private lands, and pay said taxes from the proceeds of revenue received and collected by said departments to the board of county commissioners of the county in which said forest is situated, but all fire towers, buildings and all other permanent improvements shall be exempt from assessment. Provided that the provisions of this section shall not apply to lands under the control of the Hospitals Board of Control. (1957, c. 988, s. 1; 1963, c. 1120.)

Editor's Note.—The act inserting this near the beginning of this section and inserted “or by the Wildlife Resources Commission” in the second proviso.

The 1963 amendment substituted “fifteen per cent (15%)” for “ten per cent (10%)” near the beginning of this section and inserted “or by the Wildlife Resources Commission” in the second proviso.

§ 105-297. Personal property exempt. — The following personal property, and no other, shall be exempt from taxation:

1. Personal property, directly or indirectly owned by this State and by the United States, and that lawfully owned and held by the counties, cities, towns, rural fire protection districts, and school districts of the State, used wholly and exclusively for county, city, town, fire protection district, or public school purposes.

2. The furniture and furnishings of buildings lawfully owned and held by churches or religious bodies, used wholly and exclusively for religious worship or for the residence of the minister of any church or religious body, and private libraries of such ministers and the teachers of the public schools of the State.

3. The furniture, furnishings, books, and instruments contained in buildings wholly devoted to educational purposes, belonging to and exclusively used by churches, public libraries, colleges, academies, industrial schools, seminaries, or other institutions.

4. The endowment and invested funds of churches and other religious associations, charitable, educational, literary, benevolent, patriotic or historical institutions, associations or orders, when the interest or income from said funds shall be used wholly and exclusively for religious, charitable, educational or benevolent purposes, or to pay the principal or interest of the indebtedness of said associations.

5. Personal property belonging to Young Men’s Christian Associations and other similar religious associations, orphan and other similar homes, reformatories, hospitals, and nunneries which are not conducted for profit and entirely and completely used for charitable and benevolent purposes.

6. The furniture, furnishings, and other personal property belonging to the American Legion, or any post thereof, or any other veterans’ organization chartered by Congress or organized and operating on a nation-wide or State-wide basis, or any post or other local organization thereof, or any patriotic, historical, or any benevolent or charitable association, when used wholly for lodge or post purposes and meeting rooms by said association or when such personal property is used for charitable or benevolent purposes.

7. The exemptions granted in subdivisions (2), (3), (4), (5), (6) and (11) of this section shall apply to personal property of foreign religious, charitable, educational, literary, benevolent, patriotic or historical corporations, institutions or orders when such property is exclusively used or the income therefrom is exclusively used for religious, charitable, educational or benevolent purposes within this State.

8. Wearing apparel, household and kitchen furniture, the mechanical and agricultural instruments of farmers and mechanics, libraries and scientific instruments, provisions and livestock, not exceeding the total value of three hundred dollars ($300.00), and all growing crops: Provided, that said three hundred dollars ($300.00) exemption shall be limited to:

a. Each household, consisting of the head of the household and all the dependents, one three hundred dollars ($300.00) exemption to be distributed among the members of the household as they see fit; and

b. Each single person, not residing with persons on whom he is dependent, as to eligible property actually owned by him.

(9) The intangible personal property referred to in Schedule H, §§ 105-198 to 105-217, which said intangible personal property shall be taxed or exempt in accordance with the provisions of said Schedule H, §§ 105-198 to 105-217: Provided, that the provisions of this subsection shall not be construed to modify the provisions of article 25 or article 26 of this subchapter.

(10): Repealed by Session Laws 1961, c. 1169, s. 8.

(11) The furniture, furnishings, books, instruments, and all other tangible or intangible personal property held for or owned by hospitals organized and operated as nonstock, nonprofit, charitable institutions, notwithstanding that patients of such hospitals able to pay are charged for services rendered: Provided, all revenues or receipts of such hospitals shall be used, invested, or held for the purposes for which they are organized. The provisions of this section shall be effective as to any assessment for taxes for the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-six and subsequent years.

(12) All cotton, tobacco or other farm products owned by the original producer, or held by the original producer in any public warehouse and represented by warehouse receipts, or held by the original producer for any co-operative marketing or grower’s association, shall be exempt from taxation for the year following the year in which grown, but not for any year thereafter.

(13) Any vehicle given by the federal government to any veteran on account of any disability suffered during World War II, so long as such vehicle is owned by the original donee or other veteran entitled to receive such gift under Title 38, section 252, United States Code Annotated.

(14): Repealed by Session Laws 1961, c. 1169, s. 8.

(15) All cotton while subject to transit privileges under Interstate Commerce Commission tariffs.

(16) Sewage and waste treatment facilities, and water pollution abatement equipment designed to abate, reduce, or eliminate water pollution. This exemption shall be allowed only upon the condition that a certificate is furnished to the tax supervisor of the county, wherein such property is located, by the State Stream Sanitation Committee, certifying that said Committee has found as a fact that the waste treatment plant or pollution abatement equipment purchased or constructed and installed as above described has actually been constructed and installed and that such plant or equipment complies with the requirements of said Committee with respect to such plants or equipment, that such plant or equipment is being effectively operated in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth in the permit, certificate of approval or other document of approval issued by the State Stream Sanitation Committee, and that the primary purpose thereof is to reduce water pollution resulting from the discharge of sewage. and waste and not merely incidental to other purposes and functions. The exemption herein provided for shall be applicable only with respect to taxes levied in 1955 and subsequent years.

(17) : Repealed by Session Laws 1961, c. 1169, s. 8.

(18) Wheat grown in North Carolina and stored in an unmanufactured state, owned or held by one other than a processor of wheat, upon which there is money borrowed and said money borrowed being secured by a mortgage on said wheat, shall be exempt for the year following the year in which grown. Postal Savings.—It may be questioned whether postal savings are not a federal governmental instrumentality immune from State taxation. However, the postal savings system seems more of a business function than a governmental function. See 11 N. C. Law Rev. 280.

Editor's Note.—The first 1941 amendment inserted subdivision (11) and inserted the reference thereto in subdivision (7). The second 1941 amendment inserted subdivision (12).

The 1945 amendment inserted the reference to other veterans' organizations in subdivision (6) and made other changes therein.

The 1949 amendments inserted subdivision (13) and former subdivision (14).

The first 1955 amendment rewrote subdivision (1) so as to exempt property of rural fire protection districts. The second 1955 amendment inserted subdivision (15).

The third 1955 amendment inserted subdivision (16), and the fourth 1955 amendment inserted former subdivision (17).

Session Laws 1961, c. 1169, ss. 8 and 8½ which repealed subdivisions (10), (14) and (17), and added subdivision (18), also proposed amendments to §§ 3 and 5 of article V of the Constitution. The act provided that the repeal of the subdivisions listed and the addition of subdivision (18) shall become effective only upon the adoption of the proposed amendments. The amendments were adopted by vote of the people at the general election held November 6, 1962.

For comment on the 1941 amendments, see 19 N. C. Law Rev. 523. For a discussion of the constitutionality of former subdivision (10) and subdivision (13) of this section, see 27 N. C. Law Rev. 486.

Postal Savings.—It may be questioned whether postal savings are not a federal governmental instrumentality immune from State taxation. However, the postal savings system seems more of a business function than a governmental function. See 11 N. C. Law Rev. 280.

School bonds of a city in this State in the hands of an investor residing in a county in this State were held not subject to be locally assessed for taxation. Mecklenburg County v. Piedmont Fire Ins. Co., 210 N. C. 171, 185 S. E. 654 (1936), construing former § 7071(19), which was similar to the instant section.

Solvent credits held by a religious society, the income from which is devoted and applied exclusively to educational, religious and charitable purposes, are exempt from taxation. United Brethren v. Commissioners, 115 N. C. 489, 20 S. E. 626 (1894).

Hospital Property.—Under this section and subsection (a) of § 105-298 as they stood before the 1941 amendments, it was held that where a hospital was organized solely for charity, but collected from patients able to pay, and a county levied personal property taxes on the hospital beds, equipment and furnishings, only the personal property used exclusively for charitable purposes was exempt from taxation. Piedmont Memorial Hospital v. Guilford County, 218 N. C. 673, 12 S. E. (2d) 265 (1940). See §§ 105-296, 105-298 and notes.

sworn to and are approved by the county physician or health officer as necessary or proper; and the same shall be allowed as payments on and credits against all taxes which may be or become due by such hospital on properties strictly used for hospital purposes, but to that extent only will the county be liable for such hospital bills: Provided, that the board of aldermen or other governing boards of cities and towns shall allow similar bills against the municipal taxes for attention and services voluntarily rendered by such hospitals to paupers or other indigent persons resident in any such city or town: Provided further, that the governing boards of cities and towns shall require a sworn statement to the effect that such bills have not and will not be presented to any board of county commissioners as a debt against that county, or as a credit on taxes due that county. The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to public hospitals or to hospitals organized and operated as nonstock, nonprofit, charitable institutions, which, for the purposes of this subchapter, shall be deemed public hospitals: Provided, however, that nothing in this subsection shall affect the liability of counties, cities, and towns to public hospitals, as herein defined, for services heretofore or hereafter rendered indigent patients or public charges and for which such counties, cities, or towns are or may be otherwise liable.

(b) All bona fide indebtedness incurred in the purchase of fertilizer and fertilizer materials owing by a taxpayer as principal debtor may be deducted from the total value of all fertilizer and fertilizer materials as are held by such taxpayer for his own use in agriculture during the current year: Provided, further, that from the total value of cotton stored in this State there may be deducted by the owner thereof all bona fide indebtedness incurred directly for the purchase of said cotton and for the payment of which the cotton so purchased is pledged as collateral.

(c) For the purpose of ascertaining and fixing the tax value of any cotton, tobacco, or other farm products, held by or for any co-operative stabilization or marketing association or corporation, to whom the products have been delivered or conveyed or assigned by the original producer for the purpose of sale, there shall be deducted (by any person or corporation liable for the tax thereon) from the determined value of the commodity the amount of any unpaid loan or loans and/or advance or advances of any nature whatsoever made or granted thereon by the United States government or by any agency of the United States government or by any co-operative stabilization or marketing association or corporation. Local Modification. — Buncombe, Rockingham: 1939, c. 310, s. 602.

Editor's Note.—The first 1941 amendment added the last sentence and proviso of subsection (a). The second 1941 amendment changed subsection (b).

The 1949 amendment added subsection (c) to this section. The amendatory act provides that subsection (c) shall amend all existing statutes, wherever found, which shall in any way be in conflict with or at variance with the provisions of this section, and shall apply to taxes to be listed as of January 1, 1949 and subsequent years.

1941 Amendment Prospective.—The 1941 amendment, which provides that this section shall not apply to nonprofit hospitals, is prospective in effect and not retroactive. Piedmont Memorial Hospital v. Guilford County, 221 N. C. 308, 20 S. E. (2d) 332 (1942). See §§ 105-296, 105-297 and notes.

Real Property of Private Hospitals Controlled by Section.—The real property of private hospitals is made a separate and distinct classification under subsection (a) of this section and it is the legislative intent that the provisions of this section should control rather than the provisions of § 105-296, subdivision (7), exempting from taxation property of churches, religious societies and charitable institutions and orders, the language of said subdivision (7), strictly construed, not being sufficiently broad to include property of private hospitals in view of the fact that subsection (a) of this section specifically deals with property of such institutions. Piedmont Memorial Hospital v. Guilford County, 218 N. C. 673, 12 S. E. (2d) 265 (1940). See the effect of the 1941 amendments to this section and § 105-296.

Distinction between Private and Public Hospitals.—Before the 1941 amendment to this section it was held that, in determining the question of exemption from taxation, a nonprofit hospital established solely for charitable purposes through individual donations, and which was governed by a self-perpetuating board of trustees named by the incorporators, was a private hospital as contradistinguished from a public hospital, which was one supported, maintained and controlled by public authority, and the distinction observed between charitable hospitals and those operated for gain or profit in determining liability for negligence, had no bearing in determining the question of tax exemption. Piedmont Memorial Hospital v. Guilford County, 218 N. C. 673, 12 S. E. (2d) 265 (1940).

Use of Building Owned by Hospital.—

§ 105-299. Article subordinate to §§ 105-198 to 105-217.—None of the provisions contained in any of the sections of this article shall be construed to conflict with Schedule H, §§ 105-198 to 105-217, but rather shall they be subordinate thereto. (1939, c. 310, s. 603.)

Article 17.

Real Property, Where and in Whose Name Listed.

§ 105-300. Place for listing real property.—All real property subject to taxation, and not hereinafter required to be assessed originally by the State Board of Assessment, shall be listed in the township or place where such property is situated. (1939, c. 310, s. 700.)

§ 105-301. In whose name real property to be listed; information regarding ownership; permanent listing.—(a) Except as hereinafter specified, real property shall be listed in the name of its owner; and it shall be the duty of the owner to list the same. To this end the board of county commissioners in any county may require the register of deeds, when any transfer of title is recorded, other than a mortgage or deed of trust, to certify the same to the supervisor (or if there be no supervisor acting at the time, to the person in charge of the tax records), and the record of the transfer shall be entered upon the tax records. The certification from the register to the supervisor or other person shall include the name of the person conveying the property, the name of the person to whom it is conveyed, the township in which the property is situated, a description of the property sufficient to identify it, and a statement as to whether the parcel is conveyed in whole or in part. For his services in this respect the register shall be allowed, if on fees, the sum of ten cents (10c) per transfer certified, to be paid by the county, and if on salary, such allowance as may be made by the board of commissioners.

It shall also be within the power of any board of commissioners, in its discretion, to require that each person recording such conveyance of real property shall, before presenting it to the register of deeds, present it to the person in charge of the tax records, in order that the conveyance may be noted upon the tax records and in order that adequate information concerning the location of the property may be obtained from the person recording the conveyance. If such presentation is required by the commissioners of any county, the register of deeds of that county shall not accept for recording any conveyance which has not first been submitted to the person in charge of the tax records and such person has obtained information for the tax records which he regards as satisfactory. The commissioners may allow the person in charge of the tax records such compensation for this service as they deem appropriate, but they shall not require the person presenting the deed to pay any fee therefor.

It shall also be within the power of the commissioners to authorize the installation of a system for the permanent listing of real estate, under which all real estate may be carried forward by the supervisor, the list takers or some person or persons designated by the supervisor, in the name of the proper person as defined by this subchapter, without requiring that such real estate be listed each year by such person. No such system shall be installed without the approval of the State Board of Assessment; and when such a system is installed, with the approval of the Board, the Board may authorize the commissioners to make such modifications of the listing requirements of this subchapter as the Board may deem necessary: Provided, that nothing herein shall require the Board’s approval for any such system installed prior to April 3, 1939.

Any county may, in the discretion of the commissioners, require that all real estate be listed only in the name of the owner of record at the close of the day as of which property is listed and assessed.

(b) For purposes of tax listing and assessing, the owner of the equity of redemption in any property which is subject to a mortgage or deed of trust shall be considered the owner of such real estate.

(c) Real property of which a decedent died possessed, not under the control of an executor or administrator, may be assessed to the heirs or devisees of the deceased without naming them until they have given notice of their respective names to the supervisor and of the division of the estate. It shall be the duty of any executor or administrator having control of real property to list it in his fiduciary capacity until he shall have been divested of control of such property. The right of an administrator, administering upon the estate of an intestate decedent, to petition for the sale of real estate to make assets shall not be considered as control of such real estate for purposes of this subsection.

(d) A trustee, guardian or other fiduciary having legal title to real property shall be regarded as the owner of such property for purposes of tax listing, except as elsewhere in this section provided, and he shall list such property in his fiduciary capacity.

(e) Where undivided interests in real property are owned by tenants in common, not being copartners, the supervisor, upon request and in his discretion, may allow the property to be listed by the respective owners in accordance with their respective undivided interests.

(f) Real property belonging to a partnership or unincorporated association shall be listed in the name of such partnership or association.

(g) Real property owned by a corporation shall be listed in the name of the corporation.

(h) When land is owned by one party and improvements thereon or mineral, timber, quarry, water power, or similar rights therein are owned by another party, the parties may list their interests separately or may, in accordance with contractual relations between them, have the entire property listed in the name of the owner of the land. Where in such a case the land and improvements or rights are listed by the separate owners, the taxes levied on the improvements, or rights, shall be a lien on the land, and the land shall be subject to foreclosure for non-payment of such taxes in the same manner as if such taxes were levied directly against said land: Provided, nothing herein contained shall prevent said taxes from being also a lien on said improvements, or rights.

(i) A life tenant or tenant for the life of another shall be considered the owner of real property for purposes of tax listing, but he shall indicate when listing such property that he is a life tenant. The taxes levied on property listed in the name of a life tenant shall be a lien on the entire fee: Provided, that this shall not prevent the life tenant from being liable for the taxes under § 105-410.

(j) If the owner or person in whose name the real property should properly be listed, as set forth in the foregoing subsections of this section, is unknown, the property may be listed in the name of the occupant, and either or both shall be liable for the taxes; and if there be no occupant, then it may be listed as property the owner of which is unknown: Provided, that wherever the property is so listed against the occupant or an unknown owner, or through error the property has been listed against some person other than the owner as defined in this section, and the name of the true owner is subsequently ascertained, the tax records may be changed so as to list said property against the owner, and the change shall have the same force and effect as if the property has been listed against the owner in the first instance. (1939, c. 310, s. 701.)

Editor's Note.—All of the cases in the following note were decided under earlier statutes similar in subject matter to this section.

In Whose Name Listed.—Land should be listed for taxation in the name of the individual owners and not in the name of the “estate” of one deceased. Morrison v. McLauchlin, 88 N. C. 251 (1883).

Improper Listing as Affecting Purchaser’s Title.—A tax title devised by a purchaser at a sheriff’s sale of land listed in the name of the “estate” of one deceased was held defective. Morrison v. McLauchlin, 88 N. C. 251 (1883). See § 105-387, subsection (i).

Unless the land is properly listed for taxation, it is not subject to sale by the sheriff for nonpayment of taxes. Stone v. Phillips, 176 N. C. 457, 97 S. E. 375 (1918).

Where land, listed in the name of one person, and belonging to another, had been sold for unpaid taxes and it was discovered, before the deed had been accepted, that the real owner had not listed it as required by the former statute, the deed was insufficient to pass title, for the methods provided by the statute must be followed. Wake County v. Faison, 204 N. C. 55, 167 S. E. 391 (1933). See § 105-387, subsection (i).

Where Entry Copied from Former Tax Book.—In Rexford v. Phillips, 159 N. C. 213, 74 S. E. 337 (1912), neither the owner nor his agent had given in the land, and list taker had copied the entry from the former tax book, and it was held that the land was not rightfully on the tax list, and a sale for taxes pursuant thereto was invalid. This case is discussed with approval in Stone v. Phillips, 176 N. C. 457, 97 S. E. 375 (1918).

Article 18.

Personal Property, Where and in Whose Name Listed.

§ 105-302. Place for listing tangible personal property. — (a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, all tangible personal property and polls shall be listed in the township in which the owner thereof has his residence. For purposes of this section the residence of a person who has two or more places in which he occasionally dwells shall be the place at which he resided for the longest period of time during the year preceding the date as of which property is assessed; provided, that household and kitchen furniture and other tangible personal property kept or used in connection with any temporary or seasonal residence, either owned or leased by the owner of such personal property, shall be listed in the township in which such temporary or seasonal residence is located, and all such property kept or used in connection with any rental real estate shall be listed in the township where such rental real estate is located. The residence of a corporation, partnership or unincorporated association, domestic or foreign, shall be the place of its principal office in this State, and if a corporation, partnership or unincorporated association has no principal office in this State, its tangible personal property may be listed at any place at which said property is situated provided said property has a taxable situs within the State.

(c) Tangible personal property taxable in this State, owned by an individual nonresident of this State, shall be listed where situated.

(d) Subject to the provisions of subsection (b) of this section, tangible personal property shall be listed in the township in which such property is situated, rather than in the township in which the owner resides, if the owner or person having control thereof hires or occupies a store, mill, dockyard, piling ground, place for the sale of property, shop, office, mine, farm, place for storage, manufactory or warehouse therein for use in connection with such property. Property stored in public warehouses and merchandise in the possession of a consignee or broker shall be regarded as falling within the provisions of this subsection. When tangible personal property, which may be used by the public generally or which is used to sell or vend merchandise to the public, is placed at or on a location outside of the township in which the owner or lessor has his residence, such tangible personal property shall be listed for taxation in the township where located.

(e) The tangible personal property of a decedent whose estate is in the process of administration or has not been distributed shall be listed at the place at which it would be listed if the decedent were still alive and still residing at the place at which he resided at the time of his death.

(f) Tangible personal property held by a trustee, guardian or other fiduciary having legal title thereto shall be listed at the place where such property would be listed if the beneficiary were the owner; and if there are several beneficiaries in a case in which such property would be listed at the residence of the owner, the value of the property shall be listed at the various residences of the beneficiaries in accordance with their respective interests. This subsection shall affect only cases in which the beneficiaries are residents of this State, but it shall apply whether the fiduciary is a resident or nonresident of this State. Property delivered by executors or administrators to themselves or others as testamentary trustees shall be controlled by this subsection rather than by subsection (e) of this section.

(g) In any case where the beneficiary is a nonresident of this State, tangible personal property having a taxable situs in this State, held by a trustee, guardian or other fiduciary having legal title, shall be listed at the place it would be listed if the trustee or other fiduciary were the beneficial owner of such property. (1939, c. 310, s. 800; 1947, c. 836; 1951, c. 1102, s. 1; 1955, c. 1012, ss. 2, 3.)

Local Modification.—Caswell: 1951, c. 728; Orange: 1951, c. 728; Person: 1951, c. 728.

Editor’s Note.—The 1947 amendment added the last sentence of subsection (d).
The 1951 amendment inserted the proviso at the end of the second sentence of subsection (a). The 1955 amendment made changes in subsections (a) and (d).
For note on ad valorem taxation of flight equipment of interstate airlines, see 33 N. C. Law Rev. 306.
All of the cases in the following note were decided under earlier statutes similar in subject matter to this section.

Uniform Rule Established.—The rules and regulations fixed by the “Revenue Act” and the “Machinery Act” for the guidance of the officers charged with the listing and assessment of property for purposes of State taxation govern and control the action of county and other municipal officers charged with the listing and assessment of property for municipal taxation. The conclusion, therefore, is that the legislature has adopted a “uniform rule” which must be observed. Wiley v. Commissioners, 111 N. C. 397, 16 S. E. 542 (1892).

It is for the legislature to determine the situs of personal property for purposes of taxation, and it may provide different rules for different kinds of property, and change them from time to time, and the courts may not, for consideration of expediency, disregard the legislative will. Planters Bank, etc., Co. v. Lumberton, 179 N. C. 409, 102 S. E. 629 (1920).

Application of Maxim Mobilia Personam Sequuntur.—In Alvany v. Powell, 55 N. C. 51 (1854), Chief Justice Pearson declares that the true principle, upon which to determine whether personal property is liable to be taxed, is the situs of the property, and that the distinction attempted to be made between personality and real § 105-302.1 Inventories or lists of merchandise to be furnished. — At the time of listing tangible personal property, every person, firm, or corporation engaged in business in more than one county in this State and maintaining in more than one county in this State goods, wares, merchandise and other taxable personal property shall, upon request of the tax supervisor of any county, furnish to the tax listing authorities of such county, in addition to any other inventory, list or report required by article 18 of chapter 105 of the General Statutes, a certificate, subscribed and sworn to by a duly authorized agent having knowledge of the facts, containing a list of the counties in which goods, wares, merchandise or other taxable personal property held in connection with such business are located and the true value of such taxable personal property in each such county and the total value of such taxable personal property owned in this State. Editor's Note.—The 1949 amendment rewrote this section.

For comment on this section, see 25 N. C. Law Rev. 463.

§ 105-303. Intangible personal property. — The listing, assessing, and taxation of intangible personal properties and the administration relative thereto shall be subject to the provisions of Schedule H, §§ 105-198 to 105-217. (1939, c. 310, s. 801.)

§ 105-304. In whose name personal property should be listed. —

(a) In general, personal property shall be listed in the name of the owner thereof on the day as of which property is assessed; and it shall be the duty of the owner to list the same. The owner of the equity of redemption in personal property subject to a chattel mortgage shall be considered the owner of the property; and the vendee of personal property under a conditional bill of sale, or under any other sale contract by virtue of which title to the property is retained in the vendor as security for the payment of the purchase price, shall be considered the owner of the property, provided he has possession of such property or the right to use the same.

(b) Personal property of a corporation, partnership, firm or unincorporated association shall be listed in the name of such corporation, partnership, firm, or unincorporated association.

(c) Personal property of which a decedent died possessed, not under the control of an executor or administrator, may be assessed to the next of kin or legatees of the decedent without naming them until they have given notice of their respective names to the supervisor and have likewise given notice of the distribution of the estate; and for this purpose such next of kin or legatees may be designated as "heirs." It shall be the duty of an executor or administrator having control of § 105-305. Article subordinate to §§ 105-198 to 105-217.—None of the provisions contained in any of the sections of this article shall be construed to conflict with Schedule H, §§ 105-198 to 105-217, but rather shall they be subordinate thereto. (1939, c. 310, s. 803.)

ARTICLE 19.
What the Tax List Shall Contain and Miscellaneous Matters Affecting Listing.

§ 105-306. What the tax list shall contain.—Each taxpayer or person whose duty it is to list property for taxation shall file with the proper list taker a tax list setting forth, as of the day on which property is assessed, the following information:

1. The name and residence address of the taxpayer.
2. The age of the taxpayer, if he is a male taxpayer, listing in the township of his residence.
3. Each parcel of real property owned or controlled in the township, not subdivided into lots, together with the number of acres cleared for cultivation, wasteland, woods and timber, mineral, quarry lands, and lands susceptible of development for water power, and the total acreage. Each separate parcel shall be described by name, if it has one, and by specifying at least two adjoining landowners, or by such other description as shall be sufficient to locate and identify said land by parol testimony. If all or part of such land shall lie within the boundaries of any incorporated town or any district in which a special tax is levied, such fact shall be specified.
4. Each parcel of manufacturing property owned or controlled in the township, not subdivided into lots, together with the number of acres in said parcel or the dimensions thereof, the name of such parcel, if any, and the names of at least two adjoining landowners, or such other description as shall be sufficient to locate and identify said property by parol testimony. If all or part of such land shall lie within the boundaries of any incorporated town or any district in which a special tax is levied, such fact shall be specified.
5. Each lot owned or controlled in the township together with the dimensions of said lot, the location of said lot, its street number, if any, its number or location on any map filed in the office of the register of deeds or such other description as shall be sufficient to locate and identify it by parol testimony. If any such lot shall lie within the boundaries of an incorporated town or any district in which a special tax is levied, such fact shall be specified.
6. In conjunction with the listing of any real property listed under subdivisions (3), (4), or (5) of this section, a short description of any improvements thereon, belonging to the taxpayer listing such real property, shall be given. And if some person other than the taxpayer listing such real property shall own mineral, quarry, timber, water power or other separate rights with respect thereto, or shall own any improvements thereon, such fact shall be specified, together with the name of the person owning such rights or improvements, and a short description of such rights or improvements; though the owner of the land may or may not list separate rights or improvements for taxes in accordance with the provisions of this subchapter.

(7) All mineral, quarry, timber, water power or other separate rights owned by the taxpayer with respect to the lands of another, and all improvements owned by such taxpayer located upon the lands of another. Such rights or improvements shall be listed separately with respect to each parcel or lot of land which is listed separately by the owner thereof, and such parcel or lot shall be identified in the same manner as it is identified on the tax list of the person listing the same: Provided, that such rights or improvements shall not be taxed against the owner thereof if, under the provisions of this subchapter, they are listed for taxes by the owner of the land.

(8) The amount and value of all machinery and fixtures.

(9) A special description of any improvements, having a value in excess of one hundred dollars ($100.00), which have been begun, erected, damaged or destroyed since the time of the last assessment of such property.

(10) A list of horses, mules, cattle, hogs, goats, and other livestock, poultry, fowls, and dogs, with the number and value of each class shown separately.

(11) The number of open female dogs and the number of other dogs.

(12) The amount and value of farm machinery, farm utensils, farm tractors, tractor-operated machinery, dairy equipment, sawmills, power mowers, garden tractors, portable irrigation equipment, wagons, and other vehicles.

(13) The amount and value of household and kitchen furniture, libraries, scientific instruments, tools of mechanics, wearing apparel, and provisions of all kinds.

(14) The amount and value of merchandise, manufactured goods, or goods in the process of manufacture. This subdivision is intended to include all tangible personal property whatever held for the purpose of sale or exchange or held for use in the business of the taxpayer.

(15) The amount and value of all office furniture, fixtures and equipment.

(16) The number and value of all motor vehicles, tractors, trailers, bicycles, flying machines, pleasure boats of any and all kinds, and their appliances.

(17) The number and value of all seines, nets, fishing tackle, boats, barges, schooners, vessels, and all other floating property.

(18) The number and value of billboards and signboards and the value of other property used in outdoor advertising.

(19) The number and value of radios, phonographs, television sets, musical instruments, and home electrical, gas, and mechanical appliances.

(20) The value of plated or silverware, clocks, watches, firearms and jewelry.

(21) The amount and value of all cotton, tobacco or other farm products owned by the original producer, or held by the original producer in any public warehouse and represented by warehouse receipts, or held by the original producer for any co-operative marketing or grower's association, together with a statement of the amount of any advance against said products: Provided, the same need not be listed if grown in the preceding year, and shall not be subject to taxation for the year following the year in which grown, but shall be listed and taxed for any year thereafter.
§ 105-307 Taxation

(22) The amount and value of all other cotton, tobacco or other farm products.

(23) The amount and value of all fertilizer and fertilizer materials.

(24) The value and a description of all other property whatever, not especially exempted by law.

(25) An itemized list of any type of personal property when such itemization is required by the list taker or supervisor.

(26) The oath of the taxpayer hereinafter set forth. (1939, c. 310, s. 900; 1941, c. 221, s. 1; 1953, c. 970, s. 6; 1955, c. 34.)

Local Modification. — Forsyth: 1951, c. 351.

Editor's Note. — The 1941 amendment added the proviso to subdivision (21).

The 1953 amendment repealed former subdivisions (8) and (27), and renumbered the remaining subdivisions. The 1955 amendment made changes in subdivisions (10), (12) and (19).

The cases in the following note were decided under earlier statutes similar in subject matter to this section.

Compliance with Statutory Procedure Essential. — The listing of property must be done in the manner prescribed by the statute. Rexford v. Phillips, 159 N. C. 213, 74 S. E. 337 (1912). This means that the listing must be done by the owner or by his duly accredited agent in cases where listing by an agent is permissible. Stone v. Phillips, 176 N. C. 457, 97 S. E. 375 (1918).

Time of Making List. — Under an earlier statute it was held that property can be listed for taxation only in the year, and for the year, in which taxes are due. North Carolina R. Co. v. Commissioners, 77 N. C. 4 (1877); Johnson v. Royster, 88 N. C. 194 (1883).

§ 105-307. Duty to list; penalty for failure. — It shall be the duty of every person, firm or corporation, in whose name any property or poll is to be listed under the terms of this subchapter, to list said property or poll with the proper list taker or the supervisor, within the time allowed by law, on a list setting forth the information required by this subchapter. In addition to all other penalties prescribed by law, any person, firm or corporation whose duty it shall be to list any poll or property, real or personal, who willfully fails or refuses to list the same within the time allowed by law, or who removes or conceals property for the purpose of evading taxation, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not to exceed fifty dollars ($50.00) or imprisonment not to exceed thirty days; and any person, firm or corporation aiding or abetting the removal or concealment of property for the purpose of evading taxation shall be guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not to exceed fifty dollars ($50.00) or imprisonment not to exceed thirty days. The failure to list shall be prima facie evidence that such failure was willful. (1939, c. 310, s. 901; 1957, c. 848.)

Cross References. — As to failure to file return and pay tax on intangible property, see § 105-207. As to effect of failure to list solvent credits under former law, see note to § 105-202.

Sufficiency of Description. — The listing of land as a certain number of acres lying in a named township was held too vague to support a valid assessment, the land being insufficiently described. Rexford v. Phillips, 159 N. C. 213, 74 S. E. 337 (1912).

Same; as between Taxpayer and Purchaser. — A description on a tax list made under the direction of the taxpayer in the words, “Tax list in No. 2 township, C. county, for the year 1892,” was held sufficient, as between the taxpayer and a purchaser of his land at a tax sale, where it was the only land owned by the former in the township. Fulcher v. Fulcher, 122 N. C. 101, 29 S. E. 91 (1898).

Under the act of 1784 if the owner failed to attend at the time and place appointed to receive the lists of taxable property, the justice could make out a list for himself to the best of his knowledge. Torey v. Justices, 6 N. C. 167 (1812).

Cited in Alexander v. Grove Stone & Sand Co., 237 N. C. 251, 74 S. E. (2d) 538 (1953); to subdivisions (6), (7), (8) and (24), in Bragg Investment Co. v. Cumberland County, 245 N. C. 492, 96 S. E. (2d) 341 (1957).
§ 105-308. Oath of the taxpayer.—Before accepting any completed tax list, it shall be the duty of the list taker to read and actually to administer the following oath (or so much thereof as may be pertinent) which shall be subscribed by the person filing the list:

"I, ................., do solemnly swear (or affirm) (that I am an officer or agent of the taxpayer named on the attached list, that as such I am duly authorized to submit said list, that I am familiar with the extent and value of all said taxpayer's property subject to taxation in this township) that the above and foregoing list is a full, true and complete list of all and each kind of property which it is the duty of the above named taxpayer to list as owner or fiduciary, as said list indicates, in .... Township, ......... County, North Carolina; and that I have not in any way connived at the violation or evasion of requirements of law in relation to the assessment of property; so help me, God.

So much of the foregoing oath as appears in the second parentheses shall be used only in cases in which the list is submitted by an officer or agent. Any list taker who accepts a list without administering said oath shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. (1939, c. 310, s. 902.)

Local Modification.—Forsyth: 1951, c. 351.

§ 105-309. Listing by agents.—Corporations, partnerships, firms and unincorporated associations, females, nonresidents of the township in which the property is to be listed, and persons physically unable to attend and file a list may have their lists submitted and sworn to by an officer or agent; but the list shall be filed in the name of the principal. (1939, c. 310, s. 903.)

Local Modification.—Forsyth: 1951, c. 351.

Editor's Note.—As to irregularity in listing taxes by agent as affecting tax sales under former law, see Rexford v. Phillips, 159 N. C. 213, 74 S. E. 337 (1912).

§ 105-310. Listing by mail.—All tax lists submitted by mail must be accompanied by the oath of the taxpayer, as prescribed in this subchapter, duly sworn to before a notary public or other officer authorized to administer oaths, and must be mailed to the supervisor. The supervisor may accept or reject any such list in his discretion. (1939, c. 310, s. 904.)

Local Modification.—Forsyth: 1951, c. 351.

§ 105-311. Length of the listing period; preliminary work.—Tax listing shall begin on the day as of which property is assessed (or on the first business day thereafter if said day is a Sunday or a holiday) and shall continue for thirty days. The board of county commissioners of any county may extend the time for listing for not more than an additional thirty days; Provided, that in years of quadrennial assessment the board of county commissioners may extend the time for listing for not more than an additional sixty days. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent any preparatory work, prior to the beginning of listing, which may be necessary or expedient in connection with an efficient listing or assessing of property; nor shall it prevent the assessment of real property by the list takers prior to the actual time at which it is listed by its owner or carried forward on the tax records: Provided, that no final assessment shall be made by a list taker prior to the day as of which property is required by law to be assessed. (1939, c. 310, s. 905.)

§ 105-312. Records of tax exempt property.—The person making up the tax records shall enter, in regular order, the name of the owner, a clear description of all real and personal property exempt from taxation, together with a statement of its value, for what purpose used, and the rent, if any, obtained therefrom. Each list taker shall secure the necessary information with respect to such property in his township. The county supervisor of taxation, when the list of exempt property is completed, shall make duplicate copies thereof and transmit a duplicate copy to the State Board of Assessment on or before November 1 of each year and shall file the original list in his office. (1939, c. 310, s. 906; 1963, c. 515.)

Editor's Note. — The 1963 amendment rewrote the last sentence of this section.

§ 105-313. Forms for listing and assessing property. — All forms and books used in the listing and assessing of property for taxation shall have the approval of the State Board of Assessment. The Board may, in its discretion, design and prescribe such forms and make arrangements for their purchase and distribution through the Division of Purchase and Contract, the cost of same being billed to the counties. (1939, c. 310, s. 907.)

§ 105-314. Article subordinate to §§ 105-198 to 105-217. — None of the provisions contained in any of the sections of this article shall be construed to conflict with Schedule H, §§ 105-198 to 105-217, but rather shall they be subordinate thereto. (1939, c. 310, s. 908.)

§ 105-314.1: Repealed by Session Laws 1953, c. 970, s. 7.

ARTICLE 20.

Special Provisions Affecting Motor Vehicle Owners, Warehousemen, etc.

§ 105-315. Information to be given by motor vehicle owners applying for license tags. — Every motor vehicle owner applying to the State Department of Motor Vehicles for motor vehicle license tags shall specify in the application the county in which each such motor vehicle is subject to ad valorem taxation. If any such vehicle is not subject to ad valorem taxation in any county of this State, such fact, with the reason therefor, shall be stated in the application. No State license tags shall be issued to any applicant until the requirements of this subdivision have been met. The Commissioner of Motor Vehicles shall, upon request from any county, send to the supervisor of such county a list of motor vehicles subject to ad valorem taxation in such county as shown by the Commissioner's records of applications filed during the year preceding the day as of which property is to be assessed, and shall charge the county the actual cost incurred by the Commissioner in the preparation of said list, said amount to be used by the Commissioner as compensation for the preparation of said list. (1939, c. 310, s. 1000; 1941, c. 36, s. 4; 1955, c. 98.)

Cross Reference. — For similar provision relating to duty to furnish lists of motor vehicles to county authorities, see § 105-426.

Editor's Note. — The 1955 amendment substituted in the last sentence "actual cost incurred by the Commissioner in the preparation of said list" for "sum of thirty cents per hundred names for the same."

§ 105-316. Warehouses and co-operative growers' or marketing associations to furnish lists. — (a) Every warehouse company or corporation and every growers' or marketing association receiving for storage cotton, tobacco or other products, commodities or property, and issuing warehouse receipts for same, shall, on the day as of which property is assessed, furnish to the supervisor of the county in which such property is stored a full and complete list of all persons, corporations, partnerships, firms or associations for whom such property is stored, except in cases in which farm produce is stored for its original producer who is a resident of another county in this State, together with the amount of such property stored for each owner and the amount advanced against such prop-
§ 105-317. Reports by consignees and brokers.—Every person, corporation, partnership, or unincorporated association in possession of property on consignment, and all brokers dealing in tangible personal property who have in their possession such property belonging to others, shall file with the supervisor of taxation of the county in which such property is located a full and complete list of the owners of such property, together with the amount of such property owned by each: Provided, that if such property is farm produce owned by the original producer, who is a resident of this State, the name of the owner and the amount of such property shall be reported to the supervisor of the county of which such owner is a resident. Consignees and brokers failing to make such reports shall be liable to payment of the tax, and a penalty of two hundred fifty dollars ($250.00), in the same manner and under the conditions set forth in subsection (b) of § 105-316. The provisions of this section do not apply to cotton which is exempt from taxation under G. S. 105-297 (15). (1939, c. 310, s. 1002; 1955, c. 1069, s. 3.)

Editor's Note. — The 1955 amendment added the last sentence of subsection (a).

§ 105-319. Transferred to § 14-401.7 by Session Laws 1953, c. 970, s. 9.

§ 105-320. Partnerships; liability of partners for tax. — For the purpose of listing and assessing property, a copartnership shall be treated as an individual, and its property, real and personal, shall be listed in the name of the firm. Each partner shall be liable for the whole tax. (1939, c. 310, s. 1005.)

§ 105-321. Article not to be construed in conflict with §§ 105-198 to 105-217.—None of the provisions contained in any of the sections of this article shall be construed to conflict with Schedule H, §§ 105-198 to 105-217, but rather shall they be subordinate thereto. (1939, c. 310, s. 1006.)
§ 105-322. Review of abstracts by supervisor and list takers. —
After the close of the list taking period, and not later than the first meeting of the board of equalization and review, the supervisor shall examine the abstracts turned in by each list taker, and, unless he is satisfied that said list taker has satisfactorily performed the duties of a list taker, shall not approve payment of any compensation to said list taker.

The supervisor shall meet with each of the list takers not later than the first meeting of the board of equalization, for the purpose of reviewing the abstracts generally to ascertain if the same scales of value have been used in all townships in the county, and if property has been listed at the valuation prescribed by law. (1939, c. 310, s. 1100.)

§ 105-323. Making up the tax records.—(a) The list takers for their respective townships, or such other persons as the commissioners may designate, shall make out, on forms approved by the State Board of Assessment, tax records which may consist of a scroll designed primarily to show tax valuations and a tax book designed primarily to show the amount of taxes or may consist of one record designated to show both valuations and taxes. Such records for each township shall be divided into four parts:

(1) White individual taxpayers (including lists filed by corporate fiduciaries for white individual beneficiaries);
(2) Colored individual taxpayers (including lists filed by corporate fiduciaries for colored individual beneficiaries);
(3) Indian individual taxpayers (including lists filed by corporate fiduciaries for Indian individual beneficiaries); and
(4) Corporations, partnerships, business firms and unincorporated associations.

(b) In lieu of dividing the tax records by township and by the four parts as set forth in subsection (a) above, the tax supervisor, with the approval of the board of county commissioners, may direct the list takers, or other persons designated to make out the tax records, to make out the tax scroll and tax book in such other order as may more conveniently contribute to the development of tax information.

(c) Such records shall show at least the following information:

(1) The name of each person whose property is listed and assessed for taxation, entered in alphabetical order.
(2) The amount of valuation of real property assessed for county-wide purposes (divided into as many classes as the State Board may prescribe).
(3) The amount of valuation of personal property assessed for county-wide purposes (divided into as many classes as the State Board may prescribe).
(4) The total amount of real and personal property valuation assessed for county-wide purposes.
(5) The amount of ad valorem tax due by each taxpayer for county-wide purposes.
(6) The amount of poll tax due by each taxpayer.
(7) The amount of dog tax due by each taxpayer.
(8) The amount of valuation of property assessed in any special district or subdivision of the county for taxation.
(9) The amount of tax due by each taxpayer to any special district or subdivision of the county.
(10) The total amount of tax due by the taxpayer to the county and to any special district, subdivision or subdivisions of the county.

(d) All changes in valuations affected between the close of the listing period
§ 105-324. Tax receipts and stubs.—Such persons as the county commissioner may designate shall fill out the receipts and stubs for all taxes charged upon the tax books. The form of such receipts and stubs shall be approved by the State Board of Assessment and shall show at least the following:

1. The name of the taxpayer charged with taxes.
2. The amount of valuation of real property assessed for county-wide purposes.
3. The amount of valuation of personal property assessed for county-wide purposes.
4. The total amount of valuations of real and personal property assessed for county-wide purposes.
5. The rate of tax levied for each county-wide purpose, the total rate for all county-wide purposes, and the rate levied for any special district or subdivision of the county, which tax is charged to the taxpayer: Provided, however, that in lieu of showing such information on the receipts and stubs, it may be furnished on a separate sheet of paper, properly identified, at the time the official receipt is delivered.
6. The amount of the valuation of property assessed in any special district or subdivision of the county.
7. The amount of ad valorem tax due by the taxpayer for county-wide purposes.
8. The amount of poll tax due by the taxpayer.
9. The amount of dog tax due by the taxpayer.
10. The amount of tax due by the taxpayer to any special districts or subdivisions of the county.
11. The total amount of tax due by the taxpayer to the county and to any special district, subdivision or subdivisions of the county.
12. Amount of discounts.
13. Amount of penalties. (1939, c. 310, s. 1102; 1961, c. 380.)

Local Modification.—Guilford: 1953, c. 690, s. 2; Mecklenburg, as to subdivision (5): 1955, c. 897; Pitt, as to subdivision (5): 1957, c. 482; city of Charlotte, as to subdivision (5): 1955, c. 897.

Editor’s Note. — The 1961 amendment added the proviso to subdivision (5).

§ 105-325. Disposition of tax records and receipts. — The tax records shall be filed in the office of the supervisor or official computing the taxes of the office of the accountant or clerk to the board of commissioners, as the commissioners may direct. The tax receipts and stubs shall be delivered to the sheriff or tax collector on or before the first Monday in October of the year one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine, and annually thereafter, provided he has made settlement as by law required, and the sheriff or tax collector shall receipt for the same. In the discretion of the commissioners, a duplicate copy of the tax books may be made and delivered to the sheriff or tax collector at the same time.

A list of all appeals pending before the State Board of Assessment shall be delivered with said receipts; and there shall be delivered with said receipts an order, a copy of which shall be spread upon the minutes of the commissioners, directing the sheriff or tax collector to collect said taxes, which order shall have the force...
§ 105-326. Compensation of officer computing taxes.—The board of county commissioners shall make an order for the payment to the register of deeds, auditor, tax clerk, supervisor, or other official such sum as may be in their discretion a proper compensation for the work of computing taxes, making out the tax book and copies thereof, and the making of such reports as may be required by the State Board of Assessment; but the compensation allowed for computing the taxes and making out the tax book is not to exceed ten cents (10c) for each name appearing on the tax book, which shall include the original and duplicate tax book and also the receipts and stubs provided for in this subchapter. (1939, c. 310, s. 1104.)

§ 105-327. County board of equalization and review. — (a) Personnel. — The county board of equalization and review of each county shall be composed of the board of county commissioners. Nothing in this subchapter shall be construed as repealing any law creating a special board of equalization and review, or creating any board charged with the duty of equalization and review in any county.

(b) Compensation. — The members of the board of equalization and review shall be allowed the same per diem compensation and traveling expense, while actually engaged in the performance of their duties, as is ordinarily paid to the members of the board of county commissioners, such compensation to be paid by the county.

(c) Oath.—Before entering upon their duties each member of the board of equalization and review shall take and subscribe to the following oath and file the same with the clerk of the board of county commissioners: “I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will faithfully discharge my duties as a member of the Board of Equalization and Review of .......... County, North Carolina; and that I will not allow my actions as a member of said board to be influenced by personal or political friendship or obligations.

(Signature.)

(d) Clerk.—The supervisor shall act as clerk to said board, shall be present at all meetings and give to the board such information as he may have or can obtain with respect to the valuation of taxable property in the county.

(e) Time of Meeting.—Said board shall hold its first meeting on the eleventh Monday following the day on which tax listing began, and may adjourn from time to time as its duties may require; but it shall complete its duties not later than the third Monday following its first meeting.

(f) Notice of Meeting.—Notice of the time, place and purpose of the first meeting of said board shall be given by publishing said notice at least three times in some newspaper published in the county, the first publication to be at least ten days prior to said meeting.

(g) Powers and Duties.—(1) It shall be the duty of the board of equalization and review to equalize the valuation of all property in the county, to the end that such property shall be listed on the tax records at the valuation required by law; and said board shall correct the tax records for each township so that they will conform to the provisions of this subchapter.

(2) The board shall, on request, hear any and all taxpayers who own or control taxable property assessed for taxation in the county in respect to the valuation of such property or the property of others.

(3) The board shall examine and review the tax lists of each township for the current year; shall, of its own motion or on sufficient cause shown by any person, list and assess any real or personal property or polls subject to taxation in the county omitted from said lists; shall correct all errors in the names of persons, in the description of property, and in the assessment and valuation of any taxable property appearing on said lists; shall increase or reduce the assessed value of any property which in their opinion shall have been returned below or above the valuation required by law; and shall cause to be done whatever else shall be necessary to make said lists comply with the provisions of this subchapter: Provided, that said board shall not change the valuation of any real property from the value at which it was assessed for the preceding year except in accordance with the terms of §§ 105-278 and 105-279.

(4) The board may appoint committees, composed of its own members or other persons, to assist it in making any investigations necessary in its work. It may also employ expert appraisers in its discretion. The expense of the employment of committees or appraisers shall be borne by the county: Provided, that the board may, in its discretion, require the taxpayer to pay the cost of any appraisal by experts demanded by him when said appraisal does not result in material reduction of the valuation of the property appraised and where such valuation is not subsequently reduced materially by the board or by the State Board of Assessment.

(5) The board may subpoena witnesses, or books, records, papers and documents reasonably considered to be pertinent to the decision of any matter pending before it; and any member of the board may administer oaths to witnesses in connection with the taking of testimony. The chairman of the board shall sign the subpoena, and such subpoena shall be served by any officer qualified to serve subpoenas.

Person
§ 105-328. Giving effect to the decisions of the board.—All changes in names, descriptions or valuations made by the board of equalization shall be reflected upon the tax records by correction, rebate or additional charge; and when all such changes have been given effect, and the scroll or tax book has been totaled, the members of the board of equalization, or a majority thereof, shall sign a statement at the end of the scroll or tax book to the effect that the scroll is the fixed and permanent tax list and assessment roll for the current year, subject to the provisions of this subchapter. The omission of such endorsement shall not affect the validity of said scroll or tax book, or of any taxes levied on the basis of the valuations appearing in it. (1939, c. 310, s. 1106.)

§ 105-329. Appeals from the board of equalization and review to the State Board of Assessment. — Any property owner, taxpayer, or member of the board of county commissioners may except to the order of the board of equalization and review and appeal therefrom to the State Board of Assessment by filing a written notice of such appeal with the clerk of the board of county commissioners within sixty days after the adjournment of the board of equalization and review. At the time of filing such notice of appeal the appellant shall file with the clerk to the board of county commissioners a statement in writing of the grounds of appeal, and shall, within ten days after filing such notice of appeal with the clerk to the board of county commissioners, file with the State Board of Assessment a notice of such appeal and attach thereto a copy of the statement of the grounds of appeal filed with the clerk to the board of county commissioners. Each taxpayer or ownership interest shall file separate and distinct appeals; no joint appeals shall be considered except by and with consent of the State Board of Assessment.

The State Board of Assessment shall fix a time for the hearing of such appeal, and shall hear the same in the city of Raleigh, or such other place within the State as the said Board may designate; shall give notice of time and place of such hearing to the appellant, appellee, and to the clerk to the board of county commissioners at least ten days prior to the said hearing; shall hear all the evidence or affidavits offered by the appellant, appellee, and the board of county commissioners, shall reduce, increase, or confirm the valuation fixed by the board of equalization and review and enter it accordingly, and shall deliver to the clerk of the board of county commissioners a certified copy of such order, which valuation shall be entered upon the fixed and permanent tax records and shall constitute the valuation for taxation. (1939, c. 310, s. 1107.)

Valuation Final and Conclusive.—This section contemplates that valuation fixed by the State Board shall be final and conclusive where no error of law or abuse of discretion is alleged. Belk's Department Store v. Guilford County, 222 N. C. 441, 23 S. E. (2d) 897 (1943), citing Wade v. Commissioners, 74 N. C. 81 (1876).

§ 105-330. Powers of the commissioners with respect to the records after adjournment of the board of equalization.—After the board of equalization has finished its work and the changes effected by it have been given effect on the tax records, the board of county commissioners may not authorize any changes to be made on said records except as follows:

(1) To give effect to the decision of the State Board of Assessment on appeal.

(2) To add to the records any valuation certified by the State Board of Assessment with respect to property assessed in the first instance by said State Board, or to give effect to any valid corrections made in such assessments by the State Board.

(3) To correct the name of any taxpayer appearing on said records erroneously, or to substitute the name of the person who should have listed property for the name appearing on the records as listing said property, or to correct descriptions on said records, and any such corrections or substitutions shall have the same force and effect as if the name of the taxpayer or the description had been correctly listed in the first instance.

(4) To correct valuations or taxes appearing erroneously on the records as the result of clerical errors.

(5) To add any discovered property under the provisions of this subchapter.

(6) To reassess property when the supervisor reports that, since the completion of the work of the board of equalization, facts have come to his attention which render it advisable to raise or lower the assessment of some particular property of a given taxpayer; Provided, that no such reassessment shall be made unless it could have been made by the board of equalization had the same facts been brought to the attention of said board of equalization; Provided further, that this shall not authorize reassessment because of events or circumstances not taking place or arising until after the tax listing day.

(7) The board of county commissioners may give the supervisor general authority to make any changes under this section except those under subdivision (6); but neither the board nor the supervisor shall make any changes under subdivision (3) or (6) which adversely affect the interests of any taxpayer without giving such taxpayer written notice and an opportunity to be heard prior to final determination. (1939, c. 310, s. 1108.)
§ 105-331. Discovery and assessment of property not listed during the regular listing period.—(a) Duty of Commissioners, Supervisors and List Takers: Carrying Forward Real Estate.—It shall be the duty of the members of the board of commissioners, the supervisor and the list takers to be constantly looking out for property and polls which have not been listed for taxation. After any tax list or abstract has been delivered to a list taker, the supervisor or the board of county commissioners, and such list taker, supervisor or board of county commissioners shall have reason to believe or sufficient evidence upon which to form a belief that the person, firm or corporation making such list or abstract, in person or by agent, has other personal property, tangible or intangible, money, solvent credits, or other thing liable for taxation, they or either of them shall take such action as may be needful to get such property on the tax list.

Either the list takers for the respective townships, the clerical assistants to the supervisor or the supervisor, as the supervisor may designate, shall examine the tax lists for the current year and the tax records for the preceding year, and carry forward all real property which was listed for the preceding year which has not been listed for the current year. In the discretion of the supervisor, such property may be listed on an abstract signed by the official or employee carrying it forward in the name of the taxpayer, or may be entered directly on the tax scroll or tax book by such official or employee. When such property is so listed in the name of the owner or in the name of the person last listing the same, the listing shall be as valid in every respect as if made by the owner; provided, that such listing shall not render any person individually liable to pay the taxes who is not under a duty to list such property.

(b) Procedure upon Discovery.—When property or polls are discovered they shall be listed in the name of the taxpayer by the supervisor or some person designated by him. The clerk to the board of commissioners or the supervisor shall mail a notice to the taxpayer at his last known address (or, if unknown, to the occupant or person in possession of such property) to the effect that the board of equalization at a designated meeting (or the county commissioners at their next regular meeting, in case the discovery is not made in time for consideration by the board of equalization) will assess the value of said property or approve the listing of said poll. At such meeting the board shall hear any objections presented by said taxpayer, render its decision and, if necessary under said decision, assess said property, subject to appeal to the State Board of Assessment, or approve the listing of said poll. Said property and polls may then be added to the regular tax records or placed in a separate record designated “Late Listings,” which shall have the same force and effect as the regular records: Provided, nothing herein shall prevent valuation of such property or listing of such polls by agreement between the supervisor and taxpayer without action by the board of equalization or board of commissioners: Provided, further, nothing herein shall prevent the carrying forward of real estate, listed for the prior year in accordance with the terms of this subchapter, without notice to the owner or last person listing said realty unless, in years other than revaluation years, the valuation of such property is raised.

All property and polls not listed during the regular listing period shall, when eventually listed under this section or by the person carrying forward real estate, immediately be subject to the taxes for the various years for which listed or assessed, together with the penalties hereinafter set forth.

(c) Assessment for Previous Years; Penalties. — The county commissioners may assess any such property or list such poll for the preceding years during which it escaped taxation, not exceeding five, in addition to the current year. When real property is discovered which should have been listed for the current year, it shall be presumed that it should have been listed by the same taxpayer for the preceding five years unless the taxpayer shall produce satisfactory evidence that such property was actually listed for taxes during those years or some of
When personal property is discovered which should have been listed for the current year, it shall be presumed that such property should have been listed by the same taxpayer for the preceding five years, unless the taxpayer shall produce satisfactory evidence that such property was not in existence, that it was actually listed for taxation or that it was not his duty to list the same during said years or some of them. Where it is shown that such property should have been listed by some other taxpayer during a part or all of such preceding years, it may be assessed against such other taxpayer for the proper years, with the penalties as hereinafter prescribed.

In a proper case, property may be listed for one or more prior years during which it escaped taxation, even though it has been regularly listed for the current years, is no longer in existence or is no longer subject to taxation in this State.

The penalty for failure to list property or a poll before the close of the regular listing period shall be ten per cent (10%) of the tax levied for the current year on such property or poll. Where such property or poll is taxed for years preceding the current year, the penalty, in addition to that for the current year, shall be ten per cent (10%) per annum. The minimum penalty shall be one dollar ($1.00). Taxes assessed for years preceding the current year shall be assessed at the rate of tax prevailing in the various preceding years.

The taxes and penalties for each year shall be shown separately on the records, but for the purpose of tax collection and foreclosure the total of all such taxes and penalties shall be regarded as taxes for the current year; and the schedule of discounts and penalties for payment or nonpayment of current taxes shall apply to such taxes and penalties for failure to list, despite the fact that such taxes and penalties for failure to list may not have been levied until the penalties for failure to pay have already accrued.

(d) Commissioners' Power to Compromise. — The board of county commissioners or the governing body of any municipal corporation is hereby authorized and empowered to settle or adjust all claims for taxation arising under this section or any other section authorizing them to place on the tax list any property omitted therefrom.

(e) Application to Cities and Towns.—The provisions of this section shall extend to all cities, towns and other municipal corporations having power to tax property or polls, and the power conferred and the duties imposed upon the board of county commissioners shall be exercised and performed by the governing body of the municipal corporation.

(f) Power to Employ Searchers.—The county commissioners, either separately or in conjunction with one or more municipal corporations in the county, may employ one or more competent men to make a diligent search and to discover and report to the board or the supervisor any unlisted property within the county, to the end that the same may be listed and assessed for taxation as provided in this section: Provided, nothing herein shall be construed as allowing a board of commissioners to appoint a tax collector unless it is otherwise authorized to do so by law.

(g) Tax Receipts.—Tax receipts for the taxes and penalties assessed against the property discovered shall be made up under the provisions of this subchapter, shall be delivered to the sheriff or tax collector, who shall be charged with the same, and shall have the same force and effect and shall be a lien on the property in the same manner as if they had been delivered to the sheriff or tax collector at the time of the delivery of the regular tax bills for the current year.

(h) Appeals.—Appeals may be had from the assessment fixed by the board of equalization or commissioners to the State Board of Assessment. Notice of said appeal must be served upon the clerk to the board of commissioners within sixty days after the assessment is fixed, and said appeal shall be in conformity with the provisions of this subchapter respecting appeals from boards of equalization. Each taxpayer or ownership interest shall file separate and distinct appeals; no joint appeals shall be considered except by and with consent of the State Board of Assessment.

(i) Classified Property.—Any property, discovered and listed under the provisions of this section, entitled to classification under the provisions of this subchapter, shall be classified and assessed in accordance with said provisions. (1939, c. 310, s. 1109.)

Local Modification.—Guilford: 1945, c. 914.

Editor's Note.—The cases cited in the following note construe the somewhat similar provisions of the former statute.

Construed as Whole. — In Madison County v. Coxe, 204 N. C. 58, 167 S. E. 486 (1933), it was held that Public Laws 1927, c. 71, § 73, relating to the same subject matter as this section, must be construed as a whole, not piecemeal.

Where the plaintiff guardian paid taxes on property of his ward, and thereafter, in accordance with a ruling that the property was nontaxable, obtained a refund of the tax and did not list the property again, and the property of the ward was not exempt from taxation, it was held that the prior ruling of the county commissioners to the effect that the property was nontaxable does not prevent them from listing the property for taxation for the prior five years, including the year for which the tax was refunded. Lawrence v. Shaw, 210 N. C. 352, 186 S. E. 504 (1936).

Compromise Settlement Is Binding Unless Made in Bad Faith.—In the absence of a finding that the board of commissioners acted in bad faith in making a compromise settlement of a tax, or abused its discretion in so doing, mandamus to compel the commissioners to list and assess will be denied. Stone v. Board of Com'rs, 210 N. C. 226, 186 S. E. 342 (1936).

Rebuttal of Presumption.—The presumption created by statute, that the person in possession of personal property was the owner and in possession of said property on the taxing dates of the five preceding years, was held rebutted by the facts of the case. Coltrane v. Donnell, 203 N. C. 515, 166 S. E. 397 (1932).

Article 22.

Assessment Procedure of Cities and Towns.

§ 105-332. Status of property and polls listed for taxation. — All property and polls validly listed for taxation in any county, municipal corporation or taxing district shall be thereby also validly listed for taxation by any county, municipal corporation or taxing district in which it has a taxable situs. Said situs shall be determined by the rules prescribed in this subchapter. (1939, c. 310, s. 1200.)

§ 105-333. Tax lists and assessment powers of cities and towns.—All cities and towns may obtain their tax lists from the county records without securing lists signed by the taxpayers, or may set up their own machinery for securing lists from the taxpayers, in the discretion of the governing body.

All cities and towns not situated in more than one county shall accept the valuations fixed by the county authorities, as modified by the State Board of Assessment, under the provisions of this subchapter; Provided, that nothing in this section shall be construed to modify the authority given to cities and towns under this subchapter with respect to discovered property.

With the exception of the provisions relating to dog taxes, the provisions of §§ 105-323 to 105-326 shall apply to cities and towns; and city and town governing bodies shall have the same powers conferred and the duties imposed by said sections upon the board of county commissioners, and wherever counties are referred § 105-334. Cities and towns situated in more than one county. —
For the purpose of municipal taxation, all real and personal property and polls subject to taxation by cities and towns situated in two or more counties shall be listed and assessed as hereinafter set forth:

(1) The governing body of each such city or town shall, in quadrennial years, on or before the date fixed for the appointment of the county supervisor, appoint a city supervisor of taxation, and two or more persons to act as list takers and assessors, each of whom, including the supervisor, shall have been resident freeholders in such city or town for a period of not less than twelve months. In years other than quadrennial years such governing body shall, on or before the date fixed for appointment of the county supervisor, appoint one resident freeholder as city supervisor of taxation and, in its discretion, one of more persons to act as list takers and assessors, each of whom shall have been a resident of such city or town for at least twelve months.

(2) With respect to property to be listed for taxation in the city or town the city supervisor shall have the same powers and duties given to the county supervisor under the terms of this subchapter; and the city list takers and assessors shall have the same powers and duties given to the county list takers and assessors under the terms of this subchapter; and the procedure of listing and assessing shall be as nearly as possible, the same as that specified for county listing and assessing under the terms of this subchapter.

(3) The governing body of each such city or town may designate some officer or employee of the city or appoint some other person to supervise the preparation of the tax records and receipts, and to make such reports as the State Board of Assessment may request or require, and may employ such clerical assistance in this connection as it may deem advisable.

Such governing body shall also be vested with the same powers and duties, with respect to the listing of property for city taxation, as are vested by this subchapter in the county commissioners with respect to the listing of property for county taxation, and shall, with the city supervisor as chairman, sit as a board of equalization and review; and appeals may be taken from said city board of equalization to the State Board of Assessment in the same manner as provided in this subchapter for appeals from the county boards of equalization.

(4) The intent and purpose of this section is to provide such cities and towns as lie in two or more counties only with the machinery necessary for listing and assessing taxes for municipal purposes. The powers to be exercised by and the duties imposed on such boards of aldermen, boards of commissioners or other governing bodies, boards of equalization and review, city supervisor of taxation, list takers and assessors, city clerk and taxpayers shall be the same, and they shall be subjected to the same penalties as provided in this subchapter for all boards of county commissioners, county auditors, registers of deeds, clerks of boards of county commissioners, county supervisors, list takers and assessors. The county commissioners in their discretion may adopt the tax lists, scroll, or assessment roll of such city or town as fixed and determined by the board of equalization and review of such cities or towns, and when so adopted, shall be considered to all
§ 105-335. Report of valuation and taxes.—The clerk of the board of county commissioners, auditor, tax supervisor, tax clerk, county accountant or other officer performing such duties shall, at such time as the board may prescribe, return to the State Board of Assessment on forms prescribed by said Board an abstract of the real and personal property of the county, showing the number of acres of land and their value, the number of town lots and their value, the value of the several classes of livestock, the number of white and negro polls, separately, and specify every other subject of taxation and the amount of county tax payable on each subject and the amount payable on the whole. At the same time said clerk, auditor, supervisor or other officer shall return to the State Board of Assessment an abstract or list of the poll, county and school taxes payable in the county, setting forth separately the tax levied on each poll and on each hundred dollars' value of real and personal property for each purpose, and also the gross amount of every kind levied for county purposes, and such other and further information as the State Board of Assessment may require. (1939, c. 310, s. 1300; 1963, c. 784, s. 2.)

Editor's Note. — The 1963 amendment immediately after ‘county’ near the deleted “by townships” formerly appearing immediately after “county” near the middle of the first sentence.

§ 105-336. Clerks of cities and towns to furnish information.—The clerk or auditor of each city and town in this State shall annually make and transmit to the State Board of Assessment, on blanks furnished by said Board, a full, correct, and accurate statement showing the assessed valuation of all property, tangible and intangible, within his city or town, and separately the amount of all taxes levied therein by said city or town, including school district, highway, street, sidewalk, and other similar improvement taxes for the current year, and the purposes for which the same were levied; and shall annually furnish to the local government commission a complete and detailed statement of the bonded and other indebtedness of the city or town, the accrued interest on the same, whether due or due and unpaid, and the purposes for which said indebtedness was incurred. (1939, c. 310, s. 1301.)

§ 105-337. County indebtedness to be reported. — The auditor or county accountant of each county in this State shall make and deliver annually to the local government commission a full, correct and accurate statement of the bonded and other indebtedness of his county, including township, school districts.
and special tax districts, the purposes for which the same was incurred, and all accrued interest, whether not due or due and unpaid. (1939, c. 310, s. 1302.)

§ 105-338. Penalty for failure to make report. — Every register of deeds, auditor, county accountant, supervisor of taxation, assessor, sheriff, clerk of superior court, clerk of board of county commissioners, county commissioners, board of aldermen or other governing body of a city or town, mayor, clerk of city or town, or any other public officer, who shall willfully fail, refuse, or neglect to perform any duty required, to furnish any report to the State Board of Assessment or local government commission as prescribed in this subchapter or the Revenue Act, or who shall willfully and unlawfully hinder, delay or obstruct said Board in the discharge of its duties, shall, for every such failure, neglect, refusal, hindrance or delay, in addition to the other penalties imposed in this subchapter and the Revenue Act, pay to the State Board of Assessment or local government commission for the general fund of the State the sum of one hundred dollars ($100.00), such sum to be collected by said Board or local government commission. A delay of thirty days to make and furnish any report required or to perform a duty imposed shall be prima facie evidence that such delay was willful. (1939, c. 310, s. 1303.)

Article 24.

Levy of Taxes and Penalties for Failure to Pay Taxes.

§ 105-339. Levy of taxes. — The tax levying authorities of the several counties, cities, towns and special districts shall, not later than Wednesday after the third Monday in August, levy such rate of tax for the general county purposes as may be necessary to meet the general expense of the county, not exceeding the legal limitation, and such rates for other purposes as may be authorized by law. (1935, c. 310, s. 1400.)

§ 105-340. Date as of which lien attaches. — (a) The lien of taxes levied on property and polls listed pursuant to this subchapter shall attach to all real property of the taxpayer in the taxing unit as of the day as of which property is listed, regardless of the time at which liability for the tax may arise or the exact amount thereof be determined. All penalties, interest and costs allowed by law shall automatically be added to the amount of such lien and shall be regarded as attaching at the same time as the lien for the principal amount of the taxes.

(b) Taxes, interest, penalties and costs shall be a lien on personal property from and after levy or attachment and garnishment of such property; provided, however, that the lien of taxes levied on the stock of goods and fixtures of a wholesale or retail merchant, as defined in Schedule E of the Revenue Act, shall attach to such stock of goods and fixtures in the taxing unit as of the day of any removal or transfer or quitting business as set out in subsection (a) (1) and (2) of G. S. 105-385, regardless of the time at which liability for the tax may arise or the exact amount thereof be determined. All penalties, interest, and costs, allowed by law, shall automatically be added to the amount of such lien and shall be regarded as attaching at the same time as the lien for the principal amount of the taxes. (1939, c. 310, s. 1401; 1957, c. 1414, s. 1.)

Cross Reference.—As to lien of assessment for local improvements after confirmation thereof, see § 160-88.

Editor's Note.—The 1957 amendment rewrote this section.

A modification of the law to meet an unacceptable interpretation of the former statute is found in this section which fixes a lien as of the date the property is listed. Under the old law no lien attached until July first and a transfer between April first and July first seemed to shed the burden of taxes entirely under the decision of the court in State v. Champion Fibre Co., 204 N. C. 29, 168 S. E. 207 (1933). No reason appears why a lien cannot be effective § 105-341. Levy of poll tax.—(a) There shall be levied by the board of county commissioners in each county a tax of two dollars ($2.00) on each taxable poll or male person between the ages of twenty-one and fifty years, and the taxes levied and collected under this section shall be for the benefit of the public school fund and the poor of the county.

(b) The board of county commissioners of every county shall have the power to exempt any person from the payment of poll taxes on account of indigency, and when any such person has been once exempted he shall not be required to renew his application unless the commissioners shall revoke the exemption. When such exemption shall have been made, the clerk of the board of county commissioners shall furnish the person with a certificate of such exemption, and the person to whom it is issued shall be required to list his poll, but upon exhibition of such certificate the list taker shall annually enter in the column intended for the poll the word “exempt,” and the poll shall not be charged in computing the list.

(c) Cities and towns may levy a poll tax not exceeding that authorized by the Constitution, and poll taxes so levied and collected may be used for any purpose permitted by law.

(d) For the purposes of this article members of the armed forces of the United States who are on active duty elsewhere than in the counties of their residence on January 1st of 1957 and on the 1st day of January in each year thereafter shall not be subject to the tax levied in subsection (a) of G. S. 105-341. (1939, c. 310, s. 1402; 1943, c. 3; 1957, c. 842.)

Editor's Note.—The 1943 amendment added subsection (d), which was rewritten by the 1957 amendment.

As to comment on section, see 12 N. C. Law Rev. 23.

§ 105-342. What veterans exempt from poll tax; World War veterans. — Any honorably discharged veteran of any of the wars of the United States, now a resident of, and subject to capitation or poll tax in this State, and who received injuries in the line of duty in the military service, whether compensable or not, and all such honorably discharged veterans that have been, or are now, receiving compensation from the federal government for disability of service connected origin, shall be conclusively considered and presumed as having physical infirmities sufficient to warrant exemption from the payment of the capitation or poll tax under article five, section one, of the Constitution of North Carolina: Provided, however, that with respect to veterans of the World War, this section and § 105-343 shall apply only to those who served not less than ninety days during the period between April sixth, one thousand nineteen, and November eleventh, one thousand two hundred eighteen, or to those of such veterans who served with the United States forces in Russia during the period between April sixth, one thousand nineteen, and April first, one thousand two hundred twenty: Provided further, that the provisions of this section shall also be applicable to veterans of World War II and to veterans of the Korean conflict similarly injured or similarly having physical infirmities, and the term “veterans of the Korean conflict,” as used in this section, means those persons serving in the armed forces of the United States at any time during § 105-343. Proof of service and injury must be furnished; exemption by county commissioners. — The veteran or soldier claiming exemption under § 105-342 shall furnish proof of such service and injury by producing to the board of commissioners of his county his or her discharge or release or certificate of such service or injury, signed by a recognized official of the United States War Department or the Adjutant General’s office of this State, and said discharge, release or certificate shall be recorded with the register of deeds of such county prior to tax listing date in the year in which exemption is claimed under §§ 105-342 and 105-343. It shall be the duty of the register of deeds at or before tax listing time in each county, to notify the board of county commissioners of the registration with him of such discharge, release or certificate and thereupon, upon application of the veteran, said board of county commissioners may take the action authorized by §§ 105-342 and 105-343. (1931, c. 193, s. 2.)

Editor’s Note—The 1955 amendment added the last proviso.

§ 105-344. Exemption of pensions or compensations from taxation. — Every person receiving a pension or compensation from the State, or United States, or any foreign country or government, for and on account of wounds or physical disabilities contracted or sustained during the late war between the United States and Germany, and any of the allied countries co-operating with the United States, shall not be required to pay any tax of any kind upon such pension or compensation, but the same shall be exempted from any and all taxes. This section shall apply to all such taxes for the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three, and thereafter. The benefits of this section are hereby extended to and include those coming within the provisions of said section serving at any time between December seventh, one thousand nine hundred and forty-one and the termination of World War II. (1923, c. 259; C. S., s. 5168(aa); 1945, c. 968, s. 2.)

Editor’s Note. — The 1945 amendment added the last sentence of this section.

§ 105-345. Penalties and discounts for nonpayment of taxes. — All taxes assessed or levied by any county, city, town, special district or other political subdivision of this State, in accordance with the provisions of this subchapter, shall be due and payable on the first Monday of October of the year in which they are so assessed or levied, and if actually paid in cash:

(1) On or before the first day of November next after due and payable, there shall be deducted a discount of one-half of one per cent (½ of 1%).

(2) After the first day of November and on or before the first day of February next after due and payable, the tax shall be paid at par or face value.

(3) After the first day of February and on or before the first day of March next after due and payable, there shall be added to the tax interest at the rate of one per cent (1%).

(4) After the first day of March and on or before the first day of April next after due and payable, there shall be added to the tax interest at the rate of two per cent (2%).

(5) On and after the second day of April the rate of interest shall be, in addition to said two per cent (2%), one-half of one per cent per month or fraction thereof until paid from said day on the principal amount of such taxes.

(6) Should any taxpayer desire to make a prepayment of his taxes between July first and October first of any year, he may do so by making payment to the county or city accountant, city clerk, auditor or treasurer, as the governing body may determine, and shall be entitled to the following discounts: If paid on or before July first, a deduction of two per cent (2%); if paid during the month of July, a deduction of one and one-half per cent (1½%); if paid during the month of August, a deduction of one per cent (1%); if paid during the month of September, a deduction of one per cent (1%).

(7) Any member of the armed forces of the United States may be relieved of the payment of any charges in the form of interest or penalty on delinquent ad valorem taxes assessed against the property of said member by any county or municipality for any taxable year during service in the said armed forces; provided, this subsection shall not extend beyond the duration of World War II; and provided further that said member of armed services presents to proper tax collecting authorities a certificate of discharge from United States armed services in proof of membership therein. (1939, c. 310, s. 1403; 1943, c. 667; 1945, c. 247, s. 3; c. 1041; 1947, c. 888, s. 1.)

Editor’s Note.—The 1943 amendment added at the end of subdivision (6) “if paid during the month of September, a deduction of one per cent (1%).”

§ 105-345.1. Penalty deemed to be interest. — Wherever the words “penalty” or “penalties” are used in any statute to designate any charge imposed by law with respect to the late payment of county or municipal ad valorem taxes, the same shall be deemed to mean and be interest, but this shall not be construed to authorize the computation and imposition of any charge different from that which would be computed and imposed if this section had not been enacted, or if § 105-345 had not been amended by substituting the designation “interest” for the designation “penalty” in several instances therein. (1947, c. 888, s. 2.)
ARTICLE 25.

Banks, Banking Associations, Trust Companies and Building and Loan Associations.

§ 105-346. Banks, banking associations and trust companies.—The value of shares of stock of banks, banking associations, and trust companies shall be determined as follows:

(1) Every bank, banking association, industrial bank, savings institution, trust company, or joint-stock land bank located in this State shall list its real estate and tangible personal property, except money on hand, in the county in which such real estate and tangible personal property is located for the purpose of county and municipal taxation, and shall, during the second calendar month following the month in which local tax listing begins each year, list with the State Board of Assessment, on forms provided by the said State Board, in the name of and for its shareholders, all the shares of its capital stock, whether held by residents or nonresidents, at its actual value on the day as of which property is assessed under this subchapter.

(2) The actual value of such shares for the purpose of this section shall be ascertained by adding together the capital stock, surplus, and undivided profits, and deducting therefrom the assessed value of such real and tangible personal property which such banking institutions shall have listed for taxation in the county or counties of this State wherein such real and tangible personal property is located, together with an amount according to its proportion of tax value of any buildings and lands wholly or partially occupied by such banking associations, institutions or trust companies, owned and listed for taxation by a North Carolina corporation in which such banking associations or institutions own ninety-nine per cent (99%) of the capital stock.

(3) In addition to the deductions allowed in item two of this section, there may be deducted from the items of surplus and undivided profits an amount not exceeding five per cent (5%) of the bills and notes receivable of such banking associations, institutions, or trust companies to cover bad or insolvent debts, investments in North Carolina State bonds, United States government bonds, joint-stock land bank bonds, and federal land bank bonds, at the actual cost of said bonds owned on and continuously for at least ninety days prior to the day as of which property is assessed in the current year. The value of such shares of capital stock of such banking associations, institutions, or trust companies shall be found by dividing the net amount ascertained above by the number of shares in the said banking associations, institutions or trust companies.

Any bank which had not actually begun business prior to the first day of January in any year may make the deductions provided for under this subdivision acquired up to the last date authorized for making the report provided for in subdivision (1) hereof. This provision shall be applicable to any bank which began business after the first day of January, 1945.

(4) If the State Board of Assessment shall have reason to believe that the actual value of such shares of stock of such banking associations, institutions, or trust companies, as listed with it, is not the true value in money, then the said Board shall ascertain such true value by such an examination and investigation as seems proper, and increase or reduce the value as so listed to such an amount as it ascertains to be the true value for the purposes of this section.
(5) The value of the capital stock of all such banking associations, institutions, and trust companies as found by the State Board of Assessment, in the manner herein described, shall be certified to the county and municipality in which such bank or institution is located; provided, that if any such banking association, institution, or trust company shall have one or more branches, the State Board of Assessment shall make an allocation of the value of the capital stock so found as between the parent and branch bank or banks or trust company in proportion to the deposits of the parent and branch bank, banks, or trust company, and certify the allocated values so found to the counties and municipalities in which the parent and the branch bank, banks, or trust company are located.

(6) The taxes assessed upon the shares of stock of any such banking associations, institutions, or trust companies shall be paid by the cashier, secretary, treasurer, or other officer or officers thereof, and in the same manner and at the same time as other taxes are required to be paid in such counties, and in default thereof such cashier, secretary, treasurer, or other accounting officer, as well as such banking association, institution, or trust company, shall be liable for such taxes, and in addition thereto for a sum equal to ten per cent (10%) thereof. Any taxes so paid upon any such shares may, with the interest thereon, be recovered from the owners thereof by the banking association, institution, or trust company or officers thereof paying them, or may be deducted from the dividends accruing on such shares. The taxation of such shares of capital stock shall not be at a greater rate than is assessed upon other moneyed capital in the hands of individual citizens of this State coming in competition with the business of such banking associations, institutions, or trust companies.

(7) In case of the failure or refusal of any bank, banking association or trust company to make and deliver to the State Board of Assessment any statement or statements required by this subchapter, such bank, banking association or trust company shall forfeit and pay to the State of North Carolina the sum of one hundred dollars ($100.00) for each additional day such report is delinquent beyond the last day of the month in which said report is required to be made, such penalty to be sued for and recovered in any proper form of action in the name of the State of North Carolina on the relation of the State Board of Assessment, and such penalty, when collected, shall be paid into the general fund of the State. (1939, c. 310, s. 1500; 1947, c. 72.)

Editor's Note.—The 1947 amendment added the second paragraph of subdivision (3).

The cases cited below were decided under former tax statutes.

Where Capital Invested in State Bonds. —Bank stock is taxable at its full value after deducting the assessed value of the bank's real and personal property, though the capital of the bank be invested in North Carolina State bonds. Pullen v. Corporation Comm., 152 N. C. 548, 68 S. E. 155 (1910).

Listing Bank Stock. — This section changes the policy of the State as declared in c. 234, § 49, Laws of 1917, as to the listing of shares of bank stock by the holders where they reside, and fixing the situs of the shares for the purpose of county schools and municipal taxation at the residence of the owner, by omitting entirely the requirements of the act of 1917 that the owner of the shares shall list them at the place of his residence, and by imposing this duty on the bank, requiring the cashier or other officer to pay the taxes, the intent of the statute being to require the bank to pay all taxes on the shares of its stock, and to relieve the owners from listing or paying them, except as he may be required to reimburse the bank. Planters Bank, etc., Co. v. Lumberton, 179 N. C. 409, 102 S. E. 629 (1920).

Deduction of Indebtedness.—In the taxation of shares of stock in a national bank, under the Revenue Act of 1885, the owner of such shares had the right to deduct from the assessed value thereof the amount of his bona fide indebtedness, as in case of other investments of moneyed capital. McAden v. Board, 97 N. C. 355, 2 S. E. 670 (1887).

Fixing Amount of Capital Stock.—Notes due a corporation are to be considered in estimating the value of the capital stock, and not as a separate item for taxation. Caldwell Lanô, etc., Co. v. Smith, 151 N. C. 70, 65 S. E. 641 (1909).

The imposition upon a corporation of a tax on its "capital stock" in addition to a requirement that it shall list for taxation and pay the taxes assessed on the shares of its stockholders, does not make "double taxation." Board v. Blackwell Durham Tobacco Co., 116 N. C. 441, 21 S. E. 423 (1895).

The tax on shares of stock of a bank is payable by the bank under the provisions of this section, it being required that the cashier or other proper officer of the bank pay the tax. Rockingham v. Hood, 204 N. C. 618, 169 S. E. 191 (1933).

Effect of Failure to Follow Prescribed Procedure.—Where the method prescribed by this section for determining the value of bank stock for taxation has not been followed, a bank may restrain the board of commissioners of a county from listing its shares of stock for taxation. Virginia-Carolina Joint Stock Land Bank v. Board of County Com'rs, 207 N. C. 50, 175 S. E. 705 (1934).

§ 105-347. Building and loan associations.—(a) The secretary of each building and loan association organized and/or doing business in this State shall list with the local assessors all the tangible real and personal property owned on the day as of which property is assessed each year, which shall be assessed and taxed as like property of individuals.

(b) All foreign building and loan associations doing business in this State shall list for taxation, during the second calendar month following the month in which local tax listing begins each year, with the State Board of Assessment, through their respective agents, its stock held by citizens of this State, with the name of the county, city, or town in which the owners of said stock reside. In listing said stock for taxation the withdrawal value as fixed by the bylaws of each such association shall be furnished to the said Board, and the stock shall be valued for taxation at such withdrawal value.

Any association or officer of such association doing business in the State who shall fail, refuse or neglect to so list shares owned by citizens of this State for taxation shall be barred from doing business in this State; any local officer or other person who shall collect dues, assessments, premiums, fines, or interest from any citizen of this State for any such association which has failed, neglected, or refused to so list for taxation the stock held by citizens of this State shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and fined and/or imprisoned in the discretion of the court.

The value of the shares of stock so held by citizens of this State, as found by the State Board of Assessment, shall be certified to the register of deeds of the county in which such shareholders reside, shall be placed on the assessment roll in the name of such holders thereof, and taxed as other property is taxed. (1939, c. 310, s. 1501.)

Capital Stock as Property.—The capital stock of a building and loan association is property and hence is taxable according to the uniform ad valorem system established by the Constitution. Loan Ass'n v. Commissioners, 115 N. C. 410, 20 S. E. 526 (1894).

The payment of a privilege tax under § 105-68 does not bar the ad valorem tax imposed on building and loan associations. Loan Ass'n v. Commissioners, 115 N. C. 410, 20 S. E. 526 (1894).

§ 105-348. Article not to conflict with §§ 105-198 to 105-217.—None of the provisions contained in any of the sections of this article shall be construed to conflict with Schedule H, §§ 105-198 to 105-217, but rather shall they be subordinate thereto. (1939, c. 310, s. 1502.)

§ 105-349. State Board to keep record of all corporations, etc.; secrecy enjoined.—The State Board of Assessment shall prepare and keep a record book in which it shall enter a correct list of all the corporations, limited partnerships, joint-stock associations, banks, banking associations, industrial banks, savings institutions, and trust companies which it has assessed for taxation, and said record shall show the assessed valuation placed upon them; and the State Board of Assessment shall not divulge or make public any report of such corporation, partnership, or association required to be made to it, except as provided in this subchapter or the Revenue Act. (1939, c. 310, s. 1503.)

§ 105-349.1. Obtaining record of corporation.—The Commissioner of Revenue shall have power to require the Secretary of State, and it shall be the duty of the Secretary of State, to furnish monthly to the Commissioner a list of all domestic corporations incorporated or whose charters have been amended or which have been dissolved during the preceding month, and a list of all foreign corporations which have been domesticated, or whose charters have been amended, or which have been dissolved, or whose domestication has been withdrawn during the preceding month, both such lists to be in such detail as may be prescribed by the Commissioner. (1955, c. 1350, s. 11.)

ARTICLE 26.

Public Service Companies.

§ 105-350. Telegraph companies.—Every joint-stock association, company, copartnership or corporation, whether incorporated under the laws of this State or any other state or any foreign nation, engaged in transmitting to, from, through, in, or across the State of North Carolina telegraph messages shall be deemed and held to be a telegraph company; and every such telegraph company shall, during the second calendar month following the month in which local tax listing begins each year, make out and deliver to the State Board of Assessment a statement, verified by oath of the officer or agent of such company making such statement, with reference to the day as of which property is assessed next preceding, showing:

1. The total capital stock of such association, company, copartnership, or corporation.
2. The number of shares of capital stock issued and outstanding, and the par value of each share.
3. Its principal place of business.
4. The market value of said shares of stock on the day as of which property is assessed next preceding; and if such shares have no market value, then the actual value thereof.
5. The real estate, structures, machinery, fixtures, and appliances owned by said association, company, copartnership or corporation, and subject to local taxation within the State, and the location and assessed value thereof in each county where the same is assessed for local taxation.
6. The specific real estate, together with the permanent improvements thereon, owned by such association, company, copartnership or corporation situated outside the State of North Carolina and not directly used in the conduct of the business, with a specific description of each such piece, where located, the purpose for which the same is used, and the sum at which the same is assessed for taxation in the locality where situated.
7. All mortgages upon the whole or any part of its property, together with the dates and amounts thereof.
8. Length of lines.
   a. The total length of lines of said association or company;
   b. The total length of so much of their lines as is outside of the State of North Carolina;
§ 105.351 Telephone companies. — Every telephone company doing business in this State, whether incorporated under the laws of this State or any other state, or of any foreign nation, shall, during the second calendar month following the month in which local tax listing begins each year, make out and deliver to the State Board of Assessment of this State a statement, verified by the oath of the officer or agent of such company making such statement, with reference to the day as of which property is assessed next preceding, showing:

(1) The total capital stock of such association, company, copartnership, or corporation invested in the operation of such telephone business.

(2) The number of shares of capital stock issued and outstanding, and the par or face value of each share.

(3) Its principal place of business.

(4) The market value of said shares of stock on the day as of which property is assessed next preceding; and if such shares have no market value, then the actual value thereof.

(5) The real estate, structures, machinery, fixtures, and appliances owned by said association, company, copartnership, or corporation and subject to local taxation within the State, and the location and assessed value thereof in each county where the same is assessed for local taxation.

(6) The specific real estate, together with the permanent improvements thereon, owned by such association, company, copartnership, or corporation, situated outside of the State of North Carolina, and not used directly in the conduct of the business, with a specific description of each such piece, where located, the purpose for which the same is used, and the sum at which the same is assessed for taxation in the locality where situated.

(7) All mortgages upon the whole or any of its property, together with the dates and amounts thereof.

(8) Length of lines.
   a. The total length of the lines of said association or company;
   b. The total length of so much of their lines as is outside of the State of North Carolina;
   c. The length of the lines and wire mileage within each of the counties, townships, and incorporated towns within the State of North Carolina.

(9) Such other and further information as the State Board of Assessment may require. (1939, c. 310, s. 1601.)

§ 105-352. Express companies.—Every joint-stock association, company, copartnership, or corporation, incorporated or acting under the laws of this State or any other state, or any foreign nation, engaged in carrying to, from, through, in or across this State, or any part thereof, money, packages, gold, silver, plate, merchandise, freight, or other articles, under any contract, expressed or implied, with any railroad company or the managers, lessees, agents or receivers thereof, provided such joint-stock association, company, copartnership or corporation is not a railroad company, shall be deemed and held to be an express company within the meaning of this subchapter; and every such express company shall, during the second calendar month following the month in which local tax listing begins each year, make out and deliver to the State Board of Assessment a statement, verified by the oath of the officer or agent of such association, company, copartnership or corporation making such statement, with reference to the day as of which property is assessed next preceding, showing:

(1) The total capital stock or capital of said association, copartnership or corporation.

(2) The number of shares of capital stock issued and outstanding, and the par or face value of each share; and in case no shares of capital stock are issued, in what manner the capital stock thereof is divided, and in what manner such holdings are evidenced.

(3) Its principal place of business.

(4) The market value of said shares of stock on the day as of which property is assessed next preceding; and if such shares have no market value, then the actual value thereof; and in case no shares of stock have been issued, state the market value, or the actual value in case there is no market value, of the capital thereof, and the manner in which the same is divided.

(5) The real estate, structures, machinery, fixtures and appliances owned by the said association, company, copartnership or corporation, and subject to local taxation within the State of North Carolina, and the location and assessed value thereof in each county where the same is assessed for local taxation.

(6) The specific real estate, together with the improvements thereon, owned by the association, company, copartnership or corporation situated outside the State of North Carolina, and not used directly in the conduct of the business, with a specific description of each such piece, where located, the purpose for which the same is used, and the sum at which the same is assessed for taxation in the locality where situated.

(7) All mortgages upon the whole or any part of its property, together with the dates and amounts thereof.

(8) Length of lines.
   a. The total length of the lines or routes over which such association, company, copartnership or corporation transports such merchandise, freight, or express matter;
   b. The total length of such lines or routes as are outside the State of North Carolina;
   c. The length of such lines or routes within each of the counties, municipalities and townships within the State of North Carolina.

(9) Such other and further information as the State Board of Assessment may require. (1939, c. 310, s. 1602.)

§ 105.353. Sleeping car companies. — Every joint-stock association, company, copartnership or corporation incorporated or acting under the laws of this or any other state, or of any foreign nation, and conveying to, from, through, in or across this State, or any part thereof, passengers or travelers in palace cars, drawingroom cars, sleeping cars, dining cars, or chair cars, under any contract, expressed or implied, with any railroad company or the managers, lessees, agents or receivers thereof, shall be deemed and held to be a sleeping car company for the purposes of this subchapter, and shall hereinafter be called "sleeping car company;" and every such sleeping car company doing business in this State shall, during the second calendar month following the month in which local tax listing begins each year, make out and deliver to the State Board of Assessment a statement, verified by the oath of the officer or agent of such company making such statement, with reference to the day as of which property is assessed next preceding, showing:

1. The total capital stock of such sleeping car company invested in its sleeping car business.

2. The number of shares of such capital stock devoted to the sleeping car business issued and outstanding and the par or face value of each share.

3. Under the laws of what state it is incorporated.

4. Its principal place of business.

5. The names and post-office addresses of its president and secretary.

6. The actual cash value of the shares of such capital stock devoted to its sleeping car business on the day as of which property is assessed next preceding such report.

7. The real estate, structures, machinery, fixtures, and appliances owned by said sleeping car company and subject to local taxation within this State, and the location and assessed value thereof in each county within this State where the same is assessed for local taxation.

8. All mortgages upon the whole or any part of its property, and the amounts thereof, devoted to its sleeping car business.

9. Length of lines.
   a. The total length of the main line of railroad over which cars are run;
   b. The total length of so much of the main lines of railroad over which the said cars are run outside of the State of North Carolina;
   c. The length of the lines of railroads over which said cars are run within each of the counties within the State of North Carolina:

Provided, that where the railroads over which said cars run have double tracks, or a greater number of tracks than a single track, the statement shall only give the mileage as though such tracks were but single tracks; and in case it shall be required, such statement shall show in detail the number of miles of each or any particular railroad or system within the State.

When the assessment shall have been made by the State Board of Assessment in accordance with § 105-358, the Board shall thereupon notify the officer attesting such report of the amount assessed against it, and such sleeping car company shall have twenty days within which to appear and make objection, if any it shall have, to said assessment. If no objection be made within twenty days, the State Board of Assessment shall certify to the county commissioners of the several counties through which such cars are used the value of the property of such sleeping car company within such county in the proportion that the number of miles of railroad over which such cars are used in said county bears to the number of miles of railroad over which such cars are used within the State, together with the name and post-office address of the officers attesting such report of such sleeping car company, with the information that tax bills, when assessed, are to be sent to him by mail; and such value, so certified, shall be assessed and taxed the same as other property within said county. And when the assessment shall have been made in such county, the sheriff or county tax collector shall send to the address given by the State Board of Assessment to the county commissioners a bill for the total amount of all taxes due to such county, and such sleeping car company shall have sixty days thereafter within which to pay said taxes; and upon failure of and refusal to do so such taxes shall be collected the same as other delinquent taxes are, together with a penalty of fifty per cent (50%) added thereto, and costs of collection. (1939, c. 310, s. 1603.)
§ 105-354. Refrigerator and freight car companies.—Every person, firm, or corporation owning refrigerator or freight cars operated over or leased to any railroad company in this State or operated in the State shall be taxed in the same manner as hereinbefore provided for the taxing of sleeping car companies, and the collection of the tax thereon shall be followed in assessing and collecting the tax on the refrigerator and freight cars taxed under this section: Provided, if it appears that the owner does not lease the cars to any railroad company, or make any contract to furnish it with cars, but they are furnished to be run indiscriminately over any lines on which shipper or railroad companies may desire to send them, and the owner receives compensation from each road over which the car runs, the State Board of Assessment shall ascertain and assess the value of the average number of cars which are in use within the State as a part of the necessary equipment of any railroad company for the year ending with the day as of which property is assessed, next preceding the report, and the tax shall be computed upon this assessment. In making distribution of any taxable valuation by virtue of the provisions of this section, the State Board of Assessment shall give primary consideration to the county or counties in which the taxpayer has the greater car mileage. The operation of this section shall be suspended during the continuance of § 105-228.2, prescribing a method of taxing freight car line companies on the basis of their gross receipts from operation of their properties in this State. If for any reason such method of taxing freight car line companies prescribed in § 105-228.2 should be held to be invalid, the provisions of this section shall again become operative, as if it had not been suspended, and it shall be the duty of the State Board of Assessment to assess for ad valorem taxation all properties of freight line companies subject to tax under this section and all properties of such freight line companies not heretofore assessed under this section. (1939, c. 310, s. 1604; 1943, c. 634, s. 3.)

Editor's Note.—The 1943 amendment added the last two sentences.

§ 105-355. Street railway, waterworks, electric light and power, gas, ferry, bridge, and other public utility companies.—Every street railway company, waterworks company, electric light and power company, gas company, ferry company, bridge company, canal company, and other corporations exercising the right of eminent domain, shall, during the second calendar month following the month in which local tax listing begins each year, make out and deliver to the State Board of Assessment a statement, verified by the oath of the officer or agent of such company, showing:

1. The total capital stock of such association, company, copartnership, or corporation.
2. The number of shares of capital stock issued and outstanding and the par or face value of each share.
3. Its principal place of business.
4. The market value of said shares of stock on the day as of which property is assessed next preceding; and if such shares have no market value, then the actual value thereof.
5. The real estate, structures, machinery, fixtures, and appliances owned by said association, company, copartnership or corporation, and subject to local taxation within the State, and the location and assessed value thereof in each county, municipality and township where the same is assessed for local taxation.
6. The specific real estate, together with the permanent improvements thereon, owned by such association, company, copartnership, or corporation situated outside of the State of North Carolina and not directly used in the conduct of the business, with a specific description of each § 105-356. State Board of Assessment may require additional information.—Upon the filing of the statements required in the preceding sections the State Board of Assessment shall examine the same and, if the Board shall deem the same insufficient, or in case it shall deem that other information is requisite, it shall require such officer to make such other and further statements as said Board may call for. In case of the failure or refusal of any bank, association, company, copartnership, or corporation to make out and deliver to the State Board of Assessment any statement or statements required by this subchapter, such bank, association, company, copartnership, or corporation shall forfeit and pay to the State of North Carolina one hundred dollars ($100.00) for each additional day such report is delayed beyond the last day of the month in which required to be made, to be sued for and recovered in any proper form of action in the name of the State of North Carolina on the relation of the State Board of Assessment, and such penalty, when collected, shall be paid into the general fund of the State. (1939, c. 310, s. 1606.)

§ 105-357. State Board of Assessment shall examine statements.—The State Board of Assessment shall thereupon value and assess the property of each association, company, copartnership, or corporation in the manner hereinafter set forth, after examining such statements and after ascertaining the value of such properties therefrom and upon such other information as the Board may have or obtain. For that purpose it may require the agents or officers of said association, company, copartnership, or corporation to appear before it with such books, papers, and statements as it may require, or may require additional statements to be made, and may compel the attendance of witnesses in case the Board shall deem it necessary to enable it to ascertain the true cash value of such property. (1939, c. 310, s. 1607.)

§ 105-358. Manner of assessment. — Said State Board of Assessment shall first ascertain the true cash value of the entire property owned by the said association, company, copartnership, or corporation from said statement or otherwise for the purpose, taking the aggregate value of all the shares of capital stock, in case shares have a market value, and in case they have none, taking the actual value thereof or of the capital of said association, company, copartnership, or corporation in whatever manner the same is divided, in case no shares of capital stock have been issued: Provided, however, that in case the whole or any portion of the property of such association, company, copartnership, or corporation shall be encumbered by a mortgage or mortgages, such Board shall ascertain the true cash value of such property by adding to the market value of the aggregate shares of stock, or to the value of the capital in case there should be no such shares, the aggregate amounts of such mortgage or mortgages, and the result shall be deemed and treated as the true cash value of the property of such association, company, copartnership, or corporation. Such State Board of Assessment shall, for such piece, where located, the purpose for which the same is used, and the sum at which the same is assessed for taxation in the locality where situate.

(7) All mortgages upon the whole or any part of its property, together with the dates and amounts thereof.

(8) Length of lines.
   a. The total length of the lines of said association or company;
   b. The total length of so much of their lines as is outside of the State of North Carolina;
   c. The length of lines within each of the counties, municipalities and townships within the State of North Carolina.

(9) Such other and further information as the State Board of Assessment may require. (1939, c. 310, s. 1605.)
§ 105-359. Value per mile.—Said State Board of Assessment shall thereupon ascertain the value per mile of the property within the State by dividing the total value as above ascertained, after deducting the specific properties locally assessed within the State, by the number of miles within the State, and the result shall be deemed and held as value per mile of the property of such association, company, copartnership, or corporation within the State of North Carolina: Provided, the value per mile of telephone and telegraph companies shall be determined on a wire mileage basis. (1939, c. 310, s. 1609.)

§ 105-360. Total value for each county and municipality. — Said Board of Assessment shall thereupon, for the purpose of determining what amount shall be assessed by it to said association, company, copartnership, or corporation in each county in the State through, across, and into or over which the lines of said association, company, copartnership or corporation extend, multiply the value per mile, as above ascertained, by the number of miles in each of such counties as § 105-361. Companies failing to pay tax; penalty.—In case any such association, company, copartnership, or corporation as named in this subchapter shall fail or refuse to pay any taxes assessed against it in any county, municipality or other taxing jurisdiction in this State, in addition to other remedies provided by law for the collection of taxes, an action may be prosecuted in the name of the State of North Carolina by the solicitors of the different judicial districts of the State on the relation of the board of commissioners of the different counties of this State and the judgment in said action shall include a penalty of 50% of the amount of taxes as assessed and unpaid, together with reasonable attorney’s fees for the prosecution of such action, which action may be prosecuted in any county into, through, over or across which the lines or routes of any association, company, copartnership, or corporation shall extend, or in any county where such association, company, copartnership, or corporation shall have an office or agent for the transaction of business. In case such association, company, copartnership, or corporation shall have refused to pay the whole of the taxes assessed against the same by the State Board of Assessment, or in case such association, company, copartnership, or corporation shall have refused to pay the taxes or any portion thereof assessed to it in any particular county or counties, such action may include the whole or any portion of the taxes so unpaid in any county or counties; but the Attorney General may, at his option, unite in one action the entire amount of the tax due, or may bring separate actions to each separate county or adjoining counties, as he may prefer. All collection of taxes for or on account of any particular county made in any such suit or suits shall be by said Board accounted for as a credit to the respective counties for or on account of which such collections were made by the said Board at the next ensuing settlement with such county, but the penalty so collected shall be credited to the general fund of the State, and upon such settlement being made the treasurers of the several counties shall, at their next settlement, enter credits upon the proper duplicates in their offices, and at the next settlement with such county, report the amount so received by him in his settlement with the State, and proper entries shall be made with reference thereto: Provided, that in any such action the amount of the assessments fixed by said State Board of Assessment and apportioned to such county shall not be controverted. (1939, c. 310, s. 1611.)

§ 105-363. Returns to State Board by railroad, etc., companies. — The president, secretary, superintendent or other principal accounting officer within this State of every railroad, telegraph, telephone, street railway company, whether incorporated by the laws of this State or not, shall, during the second calendar month following the month in which local tax listing begins each year, return to the State Board of Assessment, verified by the oath or affirmation of the officer making the return, all the following described property belonging to such corporation within the State, viz: The number of miles of such railroad lines in each county and municipality in this State, and the total number of miles in the State, including the roadbed, right-of-way and superstructures thereon, main and side tracks, depot buildings and depot grounds, section and tool houses and the land upon which they are situated and necessary to their use, water stations and land, coal chutes and land, and real estate and personal property of every character necessary for the construction and successful operation of such railroad, or used in the daily operation, whether situated on the charter right-of-way of the railroad or on additional land acquired for this purpose, except as provided below, including, also, if desired by the State Board of Assessment, Pullman or sleeping cars or refrigerator cars owned by them or operated over their lines: Provided, however, that all machines and repair shops, general office buildings, storehouses and contents thereof, located outside of the right-of-way shall be listed for purposes of taxation by the principal officers or agents of such companies with the list takers of the county where the real and personal property may be situated, in the manner provided by law for the listing and valuation of real and personal property. A list of such property shall be filed by such company with the State Board of Assessment. It shall be the duty of the tax supervisor, county accountant and register of deeds, if requested so to do by the State Board of Assessment, to certify and send to the said Board a statement giving a description of the property mentioned in the foregoing proviso, and showing the assessed valuation thereof, which value shall be deducted from the total value of the property of such railroad company as arrived at by the Board in accordance with § 105-365, before the appropriation is made to the counties and municipalities. The tax supervisor, county accountant and register of deeds shall also certify to the Board the local rate of taxation for county purposes as soon as the same shall be determined, and such other information obtained in the performance of the duties of their offices as the said Board shall require of them; and the mayor of each city or town shall cause to be sent to the said Board the local rate of taxation for municipal purposes. (1939, c. 310, s. 1613.)

Former Law.—As to construction of prior law providing for the assessment of railroad property by the former Corporation Commission, see Atlantic, etc., R. Co. v. New Bern, 147 N. C. 165, 60 S. E. 925 (1908).

The word “superstructures” covers all buildings situated on the right of way. Atlantic, etc., R. Co. v. New Bern, 147 N. C. 165, 60 S. E. 925 (1908).

Province of Local Officers.—In assessing railroad property, local officers only list and assess such property as is off the right of way. Caldwell Land Co. v. Smith, 151 N. C. 70, 65 S. E. 641 (1909).

A road definitely abandoned and retired from the operative system, after a proper order respecting the convenience and necessity of its further operation as a carrying road has been granted for such abandonment, is no longer within the purview of this statute. Warren v. Maxwell, 223 N. C. 604, 27 S. E. (2d) 721 (1943).

§ 105-364. Railroads; annual schedule of rolling stock, etc., to be furnished to State Board. — The movable property belonging to a railroad company shall be denominated, for the purposes of taxation, "rolling stock." Every person, company, or corporation owning, constructing, or operating a railroad in this State shall, during the second calendar month following the month in which local tax listing begins each year, return a list or schedule to the State Board of Assessment which shall contain a correct detailed inventory of all the rolling stock belonging to such company, and which shall distinctly set forth the number of locomotives of all classes, passenger cars of all classes, sleeping cars and dining cars, express cars, horse cars, cattle cars, coal cars, platform cars, wrecking cars, pay cars, handcars, and all other kinds of cars, and the value thereof, and a statement or schedule as follows:

(1) The amount of capital stock authorized and the number of shares into which such capital stock is divided;
(2) The amount of capital stock paid up;
(3) The market value, or, if no market value, then the actual value of shares of stock;
(4) The length of line operated in each county and total in the State;
(5) The total assessed value of all tangible property in the State.

Such schedule shall be made in conformity to such instructions and forms as may be prescribed by the Board, and with reference to amounts and value on the day as of which property is assessed for the year for which the return is made. (1939, c. 310, s. 1614.)

The rolling stock of each railroad company, used upon the branch roads, or roads otherwise acquired, ascertained by a proportionate standard based on the relative length thereof to the whole line is liable to taxation. Wilmington, etc., R. Co. v. Alsbrook, 110 N. C. 137, 14 S. E. 652 (1936), construing prior law.

§ 105-365. Railroads; tangible and intangible property assessed separately.—(a) At such dates as real estate is required to be assessed for taxation the said Board of Assessment shall first determine the value of the tangible property of each division or branch of such railroad or rolling stock and all the other physical or tangible property. This value shall be determined by a due consideration of the actual cost of replacing the property, with a just allowance for depreciation on rolling stock, and also of other conditions, to be considered as is in the case of private property.

(b) They shall then assess the value of the franchise, which shall be determined by due consideration of the gross earnings as compared with the operating expenses, and particularly by consideration of the value placed upon the whole property by the public (the value of the physical property being deducted) as evidenced by the market value of all capital stock, certificates of indebtedness, bonds, or any other securities, the value of which is based upon the earning capacity of the property.

(c) The aggregate value of the physical or tangible property, and the franchise, as thus determined, shall be the true value of the property for the purpose of ad valorem taxation, and shall be apportioned in the same proportion that the length of such road in such county bears to the entire length of each division or branch thereof, and the State Board of Assessment shall certify, on or before the first day of September, or as soon thereafter as practicable, to the chairman of the county commissioners and to the mayor of each city or incorporated town the amounts apportioned to his county, city or town. The board of county commissioners of each county through which said railroad passes shall assess against the same only the tax imposed for county, township, or other taxing district purposes, the same as is levied on other property in such county, township, or special taxing districts. (1939, c. 310, s. 1615.)

§ 105-366. Railroads; valuation where road both within and without State.—When any railroad has part of its road in this State and part thereof in any other state, the said Board shall ascertain the value of railroad track, § 105-367. Railroads; in cases of leased roads. — If the property of any railroad company be leased or operated by any other corporation, foreign or domestic, the property of the lessor or company whose property is operated shall be subject to taxation in the manner hereinbefore directed; and if the lessee or operating company, being a foreign corporation, be the owner or possessor of any property in this State other than that which it derives from the lessor or company whose property is operated, it shall be assessed in respect to such property in like manner as any domestic railroad company. (1939, c. 310, s. 1617.)

§ 105-368. Railroads; Board may subpoena witnesses and compel production of records; penalty for failure to furnish required information.—The State Board of Assessment shall have power to summon and examine witnesses and require that books and papers shall be presented to them for the purpose of obtaining such information as may be necessary to aid in determining the valuation of any railroad company. Any president, secretary, receiver, or accounting officer, servant or agent of any railroad or steamboat company having any proportion of its property or roadway in this State who shall refuse to attend before the said Board when required to do so, or refuse to submit to the inspection of said Board any books or papers of such railroad company in his possession, custody, or control, or shall refuse to answer such questions as may be put to him by said Board, or order touching the business or property, monies and credits, and the value thereof, of said railroad company, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof before any court of competent jurisdiction shall be confined in the jail of the county not exceeding thirty days, shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500.00) and costs; and any president, secretary, accounting officer, servant, or agent aforesaid so refusing as aforesaid shall be deemed guilty of contempt of such Board, and may be confined, by order of said Board, in the jail of the proper county until he shall comply with such order and pay the cost of his imprisonment. (1939, c. 310, s. 1618.)

§ 105-369. Taxes on railroads shall be a lien on property of the same.—The taxes upon any and all railroads in this State, including roadbed, right-of-way, depots, side tracks, ties, and rails, now constructed or hereafter to be constructed, are hereby made a perpetual lien thereupon, commencing from the day as of which property is assessed in each current year, against all claims or demands whatsoever of all persons or bodies corporate except the United States and this State, and the above described property or any part thereof may be taken and held for payment of all taxes assessed against said railroad company in the several counties of this State. (1939, c. 310, s. 1619.)

§ 105-370. Board of Assessment to certify apportionment of valuation to counties and municipalities; payment of local taxes. — The § 105-371. Canal and steamboat companies. — The property of all canal and steamboat companies in this State shall be assessed for taxation as above provided for railroads. In case any officer fails to return the property provided in this section, the Board shall ascertain the length of such property in this State, and shall assess the same in proportion to the length at the highest rate at which property of that kind is assessed by them. (1939, c. 310, s. 1621.)

§ 105-372. Definitions.—As used in this article, unless the context otherwise indicates:

(1) "Tax collector" or "collector" means sheriffs, tax collectors and all other officials charged with the duty of collecting taxes levied by or for counties, cities, school districts, road districts or other political subdivisions of this State.

(2) "Taxes" means property taxes (other than taxes levied under Schedule H, §§ 105-198 to 105-217), poll taxes and dog taxes levied by or for counties, cities, school districts, road districts or other political subdivisions of this State.

(3) "Taxing unit" means any county, city, school district, road district or other political subdivision of this State by or for which taxes are levied.

(4) "City" means any incorporated city or town.

(5) "District" means any taxing unit other than counties and cities.

(6) "Person" means any individual, firm, corporation, company, partnership, trust, estate, or fiduciary. (1939, c. 310, s. 1700.)

Local Modification.—Duplin: 1935, c. 189; 1939, c. 310, § 1725.

§ 105-373. Appointment, terms, qualifications and bond of city tax collectors.—The governing body of each city in this State shall appoint a tax collector, who shall be some person of character and integrity, with experience in business or in collection work, to collect taxes levied by the city governing body. The governing body may, in its discretion, designate some official or employee of the city who has other duties, to perform also the duties of tax collector. The governing body shall fix the compensation of said collector and, subject to the provisions of this article, shall prescribe the amount of his bond and approve the sureties thereon. Any premiums on said bond shall be paid in such manner as the governing body may direct. No tax collector shall be allowed to begin his duties until he shall have furnished bond satisfactory to the governing body; nor shall any collector be permitted to continue collecting taxes after his bond has expired without renewal; nor shall any collector be allowed to collect any taxes not covered by his bond.

The collector shall serve for a term of one year and until his successor has been appointed and has qualified. The governing body may, during his term, remove § 105-374. County sheriffs and tax collectors. — County and district taxes shall be collected by the sheriffs or tax collectors as provided by law: Provided, that district taxes levied by county commissioners and collected by county officials may, for collection and foreclosure purposes, be treated in the same manner as county taxes. (1939, c. 310, s. 1702.)

§ 105-375. General duties of tax collectors. — It shall be the duty of each tax collector to employ all lawful means for the collection of all taxes in his hands; to give such bond as may be required of him; to perform such duties in connection with the preparation of the tax records, receipts and stubs as the governing body may direct; to keep adequate records of all collections; and to account for all moneys coming into his hands. At each regular meeting of the governing body he shall submit a report of the amount collected on each year’s taxes in his hands, the amount remaining uncollected, and the steps he is taking to encourage or enforce payment. The governing body may, at any time, require him to make settlement in full for all taxes in his hands. The governing body may also, at any time, require the collector to send out tax bills or notices, make personal calls upon delinquent taxpayers, or proceed to enforce payment by any lawful means. In addition to the taxes hereinbefore in this article defined, all license, privilege and franchise taxes levied by the taxing unit by which he is employed shall be collected by the collector.

The successor in office of any tax collector may continue and complete any process of tax collection, or any proceeding authorized by this article, begun by his predecessor. (1939, c. 310, s. 1703.)

§ 105-376. The tax lien and discharge thereof. — (a) Priority of the Tax Lien on Real Property. —

(1) The lien of taxes shall attach to real property at the time hereinbefore in this subchapter prescribed.
§ 105-376

(2) The liens of taxes of all taxing units shall be of equal dignity and shall be superior to all other assessments, charges, rights, liens, and claims of any and every kind in and to said property, regardless of by whom claimed and regardless of whether acquired prior or subsequent to the attachment of said lien for taxes: Provided, that nothing herein shall be construed as affecting such relative priority as may be prescribed by the Revenue Act for the lien of State taxes.

(3) The priority of the lien shall not be affected by transfer of title to the real property after the lien has attached, nor shall it be affected by death, receivership or bankruptcy of the owner of said property.

(b) Discharge of the Lien on Realty; Release of Separate Parcels.—The tax lien shall continue until the taxes, plus interest, penalties, and costs as allowed by law, have been fully paid.

When the lien of taxes of any taxing unit for any year attaches to two or more parcels of real estate owned by the same taxpayer, said lien may be discharged as to any parcel, at any time prior to advertisement of tax foreclosure sale, in the following manner:

(1) Upon payment, by or on behalf of the listing taxpayer, of the taxes for said year on the parcel or parcels sought to be released, with penalties and interest thereon, plus all personal property, poll and dog taxes owed by said taxpayer for the same year, with interest and penalties thereon, and all costs allowed by law; or

(2) Upon payment, by or on behalf of any person (other than said listing taxpayer) having an interest in said property, of the taxes for said year on the parcel or parcels sought to be released, with interest and penalties thereon, plus a proportionate part of personal property, poll and dog taxes owed by said listing taxpayer for the same year, with interest and penalties thereon, and a proportionate part of costs allowed by law. The proportionate parts shall be determined by the percentage of the total assessed value of the taxpayer's real estate represented by the assessed value of the parcel or parcels sought to be released.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to affect the rights of any holder of a tax sale certificate, other than a taxing unit, with respect to any certificate held on April 3, 1939.

When real estate listed as one parcel is subdivided, a part thereof may be released in the same manner, after the value of such part for tax purposes has been determined by the county tax supervisor or, if there is no supervisor, by the county accountant, and certified by him to the collector.

It shall be the duty of every collector accepting a payment, made under this section for the purpose of releasing less than all of the taxpayer's real property, to give the person making the payment a receipt setting forth the description of such property appearing on the tax list and bearing a statement that such property is being released; and it shall also be his duty to indicate the property released on the official records of his office. In case of failure on the part of the collector to issue such receipt or make such record, the omission may be supplied at any time.

When any parcel of real estate has been released, under this section, from the lien of taxes of any taxing unit for any year, such property shall not thereafter be subject to the lien of any other regularly assessed taxes of the same taxing unit for the same year, whether such other taxes be levied against the listing owner of said property or against some other person acquiring title thereto. No tax foreclosure judgment for such other taxes shall become a lien on such released property; and, upon appropriate request and satisfactory proof of release by any interested person, the clerk of the superior court shall indicate on the judgment docket that such judgment is not a lien on such released property: Provided, that failure
§ 105-377. All interested persons charged with notice of taxes.—
All persons who have or may acquire any interest in any property which may be or may become subject to a lien for taxes are hereby charged with notice that such property is or should be listed for taxation, that taxes are or may become a lien thereon, and that if taxes are not paid such proceedings may be taken against said property as are allowed by law. Such notice shall be conclusively presumed, whether such persons have actual notice or not. (1939, c. 310, s. 1705.)

§ 105-378. Prepayments. — Payments on taxes, made before the tax books have been turned over to the collector, shall be made to such official as the governing body of the taxing unit may designate, and the official so designated shall give bond satisfactory to said governing body. If, at the time of such prepayment, the tax rate has not been finally fixed or the valuation of the taxpayer's property has not been finally determined, the prepayment may be made on the basis of the best information available to the collecting official. If it subsequently develops that there has been an overpayment, the excess shall be refunded by the taxing unit, without interest. If it develops that there has been an underpayment, the taxpayer shall be required to pay the balance due, and shall be allowed the same discount or charged the same penalty on such balance as in force with respect to other taxes for the same year at the time such balance is paid. Receipts issued for payments made on the basis of an estimate shall so state, and such receipts shall not release property from the tax lien; but official and final receipts, effecting such release, shall be made available to the taxpayer as soon as possible after determination that the tax has been fully paid. (1939, c. 310, s. 1706.)

Designation of County Official to Collect Prepayments.—By its failure to designate specifically any county official to collect prepayments under this section, and by its instructions to the sheriff as to the manner of collecting taxes and the payment of commissions, and by its acquiescence in the manner in which commissions § 105-379. Delivery of tax books to collector; prerequisites there- to; procedure upon default.—(a) Time of Delivery.—The tax books shall be delivered to the collector, upon order of the governing body, on or before the first Monday in October, as hereinbefore in § 105-325 provided.

(b) Settlement and Bond as Prerequisites; Prepayments.—The tax books for the current year shall not be delivered to the collector until he shall have:

1. Delivered to the chief accounting officer of the taxing unit the duplicates or stubs of such receipts as he may have issued for prepayments lawfully received by him;
2. Demonstrated to the satisfaction of said chief accounting officer that all moneys received by him as such prepayments have been deposited to the credit of the taxing unit;
3. Made his annual settlement, as hereinafter defined, for all taxes in his hands for collection; and
4. Provided bond or bonds for the current taxes and all prior taxes in his hands for collection satisfactory to the governing body: Provided, that this shall not authorize any governing body of any unit to accept a bond of lesser amount than that prescribed by any valid local statute applying to said unit.

Any other official who has accepted prepayments shall, prior to the delivery of the tax books to the collector, deliver the prepayment receipt duplicates or stubs to the chief accounting officer of the unit and shall demonstrate to the satisfaction of said chief accounting officer that all moneys received by him as such prepayments have been deposited to the credit of the taxing unit: Provided, that where said chief accounting officer has himself lawfully accepted prepayments, he shall, not later than the day on which the tax books are delivered to the collector, make settlement therefor with the governing body in such manner and form as said governing body may prescribe.

It shall be the duty of said chief accounting officer:

1. To reduce the original charge made against the tax collector by deducting from the total amount of taxes levied so much of the amount received as prepayments as need not be refunded under the provisions of this article;
2. To secure and retain in his office, available to the taxpayers upon request, the regular receipts for taxes paid in full by prepayments, and to credit such payments on the tax books or accounts delivered to the collector;
3. To prepare refunds for overpayments made by way of prepayment (such disbursements to be made in the same manner as other disbursements of funds of the taxing unit are made); and
4. To credit all partial prepayments as partial payments on the regular receipts or tax accounts.

(c) Procedure upon Default. — If, on or before the first Monday in October, the regular tax collector shall not meet the requirements prescribed in subsection (b), the governing body is hereby required immediately to appoint a special collector, not connected with the regular collector, and deliver to him the tax books for the current year. Said special collector shall give satisfactory bond in the same amount as would be required of the regular collector. He shall receive as compensation two per cent (2%) of his collections or such amount as may be fixed by the governing body; and the compensation received by him and the cost of his bond may, in the discretion of the governing body, be deducted from the compensation of the regular collector. If and when the regular collector shall meet the requirements specified in the preceding subsection, the special collector shall make full settlement, in the manner hereinafter provided for collectors retiring from office, and shall then turn over the tax books to the regular collector.

(d) Civil and Criminal Penalties.—

(1) Any member of the governing body of any taxing unit who shall vote to deliver the tax books or tax receipts to a tax collector, before said collector has met the requirements prescribed in this section, shall be individually liable for the amount of taxes due by said collector; and any such member so voting, or who willfully fails to perform any duty imposed by this section, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, in the discretion of the court.

(2) Any tax collector or other official who shall fail to account for prepayments received in the manner prescribed by this section, and any chief accounting officer failing to perform the duties imposed upon him by this section, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, subject to fine or imprisonment, or both, in the discretion of the court. (1939, c. 310, s. 1707.)

§ 105-380. Installment payments. — The governing body of any taxing unit may, in its discretion, allow payment of taxes in not more than four equal installments, the last of which shall be payable not later than the week preceding the day fixed for the beginning of advertisement of the tax sale. The governing body of any unit permitting such installment payments, shall:

(1) Provide that, upon default in any installment, penalties shall accrue immediately upon the entire balance remaining unpaid at the same rate which would have accrued had such installment plan not been adopted; or

(2) Provide that, upon default in any installment, penalties shall accrue upon the amount of such installment at the same rate which would have accrued had such installment plan not been adopted.

Payments made to taxing units adopting installment plans shall not be credited on any installment until all prior installments, together with any penalties thereon, have been paid.

It shall be the duty of each governing body and each collector of a taxing unit adopting an installment plan to indicate, on the tax receipts and on any bills or notices sent to taxpayers, the due dates of the installments and the method by which penalties will be ascertained upon default in payment of any installment: Provided, that failure to fulfill this requirement shall not affect the validity of the taxes. (1939, c. 310, s. 1708.)

§ 105-381. Partial payments. — Unless otherwise directed by the governing body, the tax collector shall, at any time, accept partial payments on taxes and issue a partial payment receipt therefor. In crediting a payment on the tax for any year or on any installment, the payment shall first be applied to accrued penalties, interest and costs and then to the principal amount of such tax or installment. (1939, c. 310, s. 1709.)

§ 105-382. Payment of taxes; notes and checks. — Taxes shall be payable in existing national currency.

No tax collector shall accept a note of the taxpayer in payment of taxes.

Any collector may, in his discretion and at his own risk, accept checks in payment of taxes, and either issue the tax receipt immediately or withhold said receipt until the check has been collected. In any case in which a collector accepts a check and issues a receipt, and said check is thereafter returned unpaid, without negligence on the part of said collector in presenting said check for payment, the taxes for which said check was given shall be deemed unpaid; and the collector shall immediately correct his records and shall proceed to collect said taxes.
either by civil suit on the check or by the use of any remedy allowed for the collection of taxes: Provided, that the lien for said taxes shall be inferior to the rights of purchasers for value and of persons acquiring liens of record for value, when such purchasers or lienholders acquire their rights, in good faith and without actual knowledge that such check has not been collected, after examination of the collector’s records during the time such records showed the taxes as paid or after examination of the official receipt issued to the taxpayer.

In addition to penalties for nonpayment of taxes provided by this subchapter, and in addition to any criminal penalties provided by law for the giving of worthless checks, the penalty for giving, in payment of taxes, a check which is returned because of insufficient funds or nonexistence of an account of the drawer, shall be ten per cent (10%) of the amount of such check, which shall be added to and collected in the same manner as such taxes. (1939, c. 310, s. 1710.)

Editor’s Note.—For acts authorizing counties and municipalities to accept deeds for real property in payment of taxes or special assessments and to sell such property, see Session Laws 1943, c. 465 (Catawba County and municipalities therein); c. 418 (Guilford County); c. 577 (Durham County and city of Durham); c. 533 (city of High Point).

Failure to Follow Statutory Procedure upon Return of Check.—The fact that a county tax collector accepted a check in payment of taxes, and the check was returned, and he paid the taxes in his settlement with the board of county commissioners, does not give him a lien which may be foreclosed under § 105-414. The collector having failed to correct the tax record so as to show that the check had been returned and that the taxes were not paid, the tax lien was not reinstated. He could have protected himself and preserved the tax lien if he had followed the procedure outlined in this section; this he failed to do and the returned check was but a simple promise to pay. Since the provisions of this section enacted for the protection of the collector were not complied with and he elected to hold the returned check as evidence of the nonpayment of the taxes, he is in no better position than if he had accepted a note in lieu of the check. Miller v. Neal, 222 N. C. 540, 23 S. E. (2d) 852 (1948).

§ 105-383. Statements of amount of taxes due. — Any tax collector shall, at the request of the owner or occupant of any land within the taxing unit, or of any person having a lien thereon or interest or estate therein, or of the duly authorized agent, or attorney of any such person, furnish a written certificate of the amount of the taxes and assessments levied upon such land for the current year, if such amount has been definitely determined, and for all prior years for which taxes and assessments may be due, together with penalties, interest and costs accrued thereon: Provided, that this shall not require any collector to furnish information regarding taxes not in his hands for collection: Provided, further, that the person making such request shall specify in whose name said land was listed for taxation for each year for which such information is sought. Any collector failing or refusing to furnish such certificate, upon request in good faith made as herein provided, shall be liable for a penalty of fifty dollars ($50.00). (1939, c. 310, s. 1711.)

§ 105-384. Place for collection of taxes. — Taxes shall be payable at the office of the collector: Provided, that the governing body of any taxing unit may for the convenience of the taxpayers, require the collector, in person or by deputy, to attend at other places, at times to be designated by said governing body, for the collection of taxes. Fifteen days’ notice of such times and places shall be given by the collector by advertisement published in some newspaper published in the county, and, if there be no such newspaper published in the county, then by posting such notice at three or more places in said unit. (1939, c. 310, s. 1712.)

§ 105-385. Remedies against personal property. — (a) Time for. — Every official charged with the duty of collecting current or delinquent taxes, including deputy tax collectors appointed according to law, shall have power and authority to proceed against personal property as described in this section at any time after taxes are due and before the filing of a tax foreclosure complaint or docketing of a judgment for said taxes as provided herein: Provided, however, that between the listing date in any year and the following first Monday in October the collector may, under the conditions described in subdivisions (1) and (2), below, proceed against personal property by levy in order to collect taxes to become due on said first Monday in October following the listing date.

(1) If between the listing date and the first Monday in October there is reasonable ground for believing that the taxpayer is about to remove his property from the taxing unit or transfer it to another person, the collector is authorized and empowered to levy on such property or any other personal property of said taxpayer, in the manner set out in subsection (c), prior to the first Monday in October for the taxes to become due on that date. When collected under this procedure, the amount of taxes not yet determined shall be computed under the provisions of G. S. 105-378 and, with respect to the principal amount of the taxes only, shall be allowed the discount applicable under the provisions of G. S. 105-345 or any valid local act applicable in lieu of said section.

(2) If the personal property subject to taxation is the stock of goods or fixtures of a wholesale or retail merchant, as defined in Schedule E of the Revenue Act, and if the owner thereof shall at any time after the listing date, sell out his business or stock of goods or fixtures, or if he shall quit business, said owner, within thirty days after said transfer or termination of business, shall be required to pay both the unpaid taxes on said property for prior years, if any, and the taxes to become due on said property for the current year on the first Monday in October. Should neither the selling owner nor the purchaser, under the provisions of subsection (g), pay the taxes due, the collector is authorized and empowered to levy on such property or any other personal property of the selling owner or of the purchaser, in the manner set out in subsection (c), prior to the first Monday in October for the taxes to become due on that date: Provided, the levy is made within sixty days after said transfer or termination of business. The collector may levy on such property or any other personal property of the selling owner or of the purchaser at any time for taxes on said stock of goods or fixtures already due at the time of the transfer or termination of business. When collected under this procedure, the amount of taxes not yet determined shall be computed under the provisions of G. S. 105-378 and, with respect to the principal amount of the taxes only, shall be allowed the discount applicable under the provisions of G. S. 105-345 or any valid local act applicable in lieu of said section.

(b) Relation between Remedies against Personal Property and Remedies against Real Property. — The collector may proceed against the personal property of the taxpayer, as herein provided, in his discretion; and he shall proceed against such property:

(1) If directed so to do by the governing body; or

(2) Upon demand by the taxpayer, mortgagee or other person holding a lien upon the real property of the taxpayer: Provided, that said taxpayer, mortgagee or other person making said demand shall furnish the collector with a written memorandum describing such personal property and stating where it can be found.

After the sale of a tax sale certificate, no person shall be allowed to attack the validity of the sale on the ground that the tax should have been procured from personal property; but this shall not be construed as prohibiting proceedings against personal property after said sale.

(c) Levy upon Personal Property.—Subject to the provisions of this article governing the priority of the lien acquired, the following property may be levied upon and sold for failure to pay taxes:

(1) Any personal property of the taxpayer, regardless of the time at which it was acquired and regardless of the existence or date of creation of mortgages or other liens thereon;

(2) Any personal property transferred by the taxpayer to relatives of the taxpayer;

(3) Personal property in the hands of a receiver for the taxpayer and in such cases it shall not be necessary for the collector to apply for an order of the court directing payment or authorizing the levy, but said collector may proceed as if the property were not in the hands of a receiver or in the custody of the law;

(4) Personal property of a deceased taxpayer: Provided, the levy is made prior to final settlement of the estate;

(5) Personal property transferred by the taxpayer, after the taxes levied for were due, by any type of transfer other than those hereinafter mentioned in this subsection and other than by bona fide sale for value: Provided, the levy is made within sixty days after such transfer;

(6) The stock of goods and fixtures of a wholesale or retail merchant, as defined in Schedule E of the Revenue Act, in the hands of a purchaser thereof when the taxes on said property remain unpaid thirty days after the date of the sale or transfer: Provided, the levy is made within sixty days after such sale or transfer.

The levy and sale (including both levy and sale fees) shall be governed by the laws regulating levy and sale under execution: Provided, that it shall not be necessary for said levy to be made or said sale to be conducted by the sheriff, and the collector or any duly appointed deputy collector, is hereby given the same authority as the sheriff to make said levy and conduct said sale. Provided, further, that upon authorization of the board of county commissioners or governing body of the municipality, the tax collector may direct an execution against personal property for taxes to the sheriff or any peace officer, including township constables and, in the case of municipal taxes, municipal policemen, and in such event the officer to whom such execution is directed may proceed to levy upon and sell the personal property of the taxpayer in the same manner and with the same powers and authority as normally exercised by sheriffs in levying upon and selling personal property under execution. Levy and sale fees, plus actual advertising costs, shall be added to and collected in the same manner as the taxes. The advertising costs, when collected, shall be used to reimburse the taxing unit, which shall advance the cost of said advertising; and the levy and sale fees, when collected, shall be treated in the same manner as other fees collected by said official.

(d) Attachment and Garnishment.—Subject to the provisions of this article governing the priority of rights acquired, the collector may attach wages or other compensation, rents, bank deposits, the proceeds of property subject to levy and sale, or other property incapable of manual delivery: Provided, the same belongs to the taxpayer or has been transferred to another under circumstances which would permit it to be levied upon if it were tangible, or is due to the taxpayer or may become due to him within the calendar year; and the person owing same or having same in his possession shall become liable for the taxes to the extent of the amount he owes or has in his possession: Provided, that not more than ten per cent of wages or other compensation for personal services shall be liable to attachment and garnishment for failure to pay taxes.

To proceed under this subsection, the collector shall serve or cause to be served upon the taxpayer and the person owing or having in his possession the wages, rents, debts or other things sought to be attached, a notice showing at least:
§ 105-385  Ch. 105. Taxation  § 105-385:

1. The name of the taxpayer;
2. The amount of the taxes, penalties and costs (including the fees allowed by this subsection) and year or years for which such taxes were levied;
3. The name of the taxing unit or units by which such taxes were levied;
4. A brief description of the thing sought to be attached; and
5. A statement that the person served has the right to appear, within ten days after service, before some designated justice of the peace or (if the amount is beyond the jurisdiction of a justice of the peace) the superior court in the county in which the taxing unit lies, and show cause why he should not be compelled to pay said taxes, penalties and costs.

Notices concerning two or more taxpayers may be combined if they are to be served upon the same person, but in such case the taxes, penalties and costs charged against each taxpayer must be set forth separately.

A copy of each notice shall be retained by the collector and a copy shall be filed, not later than the first business day following the day of service, with the justice or court before which the notice is returnable, together with a notation of service. Upon entry of judgment, by default or after appearance and hearing, in favor of the taxing unit, the person so served shall become liable for the taxes, penalties and costs: Provided, that payment shall not be required from amounts which are to become due to the taxpayer until they actually become due.

The fee for serving said notice shall be fixed by the governing body of the taxing unit. The justice's fee shall be fixed by the board of county commissioners, but no justice's fees shall be charged except in cases in which judgment is actually entered. Costs in the superior court shall be the same as in other proceedings therein. Fees and costs shall be added to and collected as part of the taxes: Provided, that if judgment is rendered against the taxing unit such costs and fees shall be paid by the taxing unit. All fees collected by officers shall be disposed of in the same manner as other fees collected by such officers.

(e) Employees of State and Its Subdivisions. — Tax collectors may proceed against the wages, salary or other compensation of officials and employees of this State and its agencies and instrumentalities and officials and employees of political subdivisions of this State and their agencies and instrumentalities in the manner provided by subsection (d) of this section. In case the taxpayer is an employee of the State, the notice shall be served upon such employee and upon the head or chief officer of the department, agency, instrumentality or institution by which the taxpayer is employed. In case the taxpayer is an employee of a political subdivision of the State, the notice shall be served upon the taxpayer and upon the officer charged with making up the payrolls of the political subdivision by which the taxpayer is employed. If judgment is rendered against the taxpayer, either upon default or after a hearing, a copy of such judgment shall be forwarded by the collector to the officer upon whom the notice of garnishment was served, and such officer shall thereafter, subject to the limitation in amount set out in subsection (d) of this section, make deductions from the salary or wages due or to become due the taxpayer and remit same to the tax collector of the taxing unit which caused the notice to be served, until the tax, penalty, interest and costs allowed by law are fully paid. Such deductions and remittances shall, pro tanto, constitute a satisfaction of the salary or wages due the taxpayer.

(f) Lists of Employees. — Any person, firm or corporation who shall, after written demand therefor, refuse to give the tax collector or tax supervisor a list of all employees of such person, firm or corporation who may be liable for taxes, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

(g) Personal Liability of Purchasers of Stock of Goods or Fixtures.—If any wholesale or retail merchant, as defined in Schedule E of the Revenue Act, shall § 105-386. Collection of taxes outside the taxing unit. — If a taxpayer has no property in the taxing unit to which the taxes are due, but does have property in some other unit, or if the taxpayer has removed from the taxing unit in which the taxes are due and has left no property there and is known to be in some other unit in this State, it shall be the duty of the collector to send a copy of the tax receipt, with a certificate stating that such taxes are unpaid, to the collector of the unit in which such property is located or in which such taxpayer is known to be. No tax collector shall certify an unpaid tax bill to another unit after ten (10) years from the due date. Such receipt and certificate shall have the force and effect of a tax list of his own unit in the hands of the collector receiving it, and it shall be the duty of such collector to proceed immediately to collect such taxes by any means by which he could lawfully collect taxes of his own unit. The collector receiving such receipt and certificate shall report, within thirty days after such receipt, to the collector who sent the same, either that he has collected the same or is unable to collect the same by any lawful means or that he has begun proceedings for the collection of same. In acting on such receipt and certificate the receiving collector shall, in addition to collecting the amount of taxes certified as due, also collect a fee equal to ten per centum (10%) of the amount of taxes actually collected. All collections made under this section shall be remitted to the unit levying the tax within five days after such collection, but the collector making collection shall retain the prescribed collection fee for his personal use. All reports under this section, reporting that the tax is uncollectible, shall be under oath and shall state that the collector has used due diligence and is unable to collect said taxes by levy, garnishment or otherwise. Upon failure to make such sworn report the collector receiving such receipt and certificate shall be liable on his bond for such taxes.

It shall be the duty of the governing body of each taxing unit to require reports from the tax collector, at such times as it may prescribe (but not less frequently than in connection with each annual settlement), concerning the efforts he has made to locate taxpayers who have removed from the unit, the efforts he has made to locate property in other units belonging to delinquent taxpayers, and the efforts he has made under this section to collect the taxes. (1939, c. 310, s. 1714; 1955, c. 909; 1963, c. 132.)

Editor's Note.—The 1955 amendment rewrote the first paragraph. The 1963 amendment inserted the second sentence.

§ 105-387. Sales of tax liens on real property for failure to pay taxes.—(a) Report of Delinquent Taxes Which Are Liens on Real Property.—The tax collector of each county and district shall, on the first Monday in April each year, and the tax collector of each city shall, on the second Monday in April each year, report a list of all taxpayers owing taxes for the current year which are liens on real property, and the governing body shall thereupon order sale of the tax lien on said real property of said taxpayers to be held at one of the times hereinafter prescribed. For purposes of all subsections of this section, district taxes collected by city tax collectors shall be regarded as city taxes.

(b) Date of Sale; Effect of Delay.—The county and district sale shall be held on the first Monday, and the city sale on the second Monday, in May or in any of the four succeeding months. Failure to hold said sale within the time prescribed shall not affect the validity of the taxes or the tax liens, nor shall it affect the validity of the sale when thereafter held. All sales held shall begin, in the case of county and district taxes, on the first Monday of the month and, in the case of city taxes, on the second Monday in the month: Provided, that where county and city taxes are collected by the same collector, the sale may be held on either of said Mondays; provided further, any sale herein provided for may be held on the Tuesday following the Monday herein provided for when said Monday is a legal holiday.

No sale shall be delayed or restrained by order of any court of this State.

(c) Advertisement of Sale.—Public notice of the time, place and purpose of such sale shall be given by advertisement at the door of the courthouse or city hall for four successive weeks preceding such sale, and by advertisement once each week for four successive weeks preceding such sale in some newspaper published in the county. If there be no newspaper published in the county, such advertisement shall be posted in at least one public place in each township, in the case of county taxes, and in at least three public places in the city in the case of city taxes.

Said advertisement shall set forth, in addition to the time, place and purpose of such sale:

1. The name of each taxpayer owing taxes which are a lien on real estate;
2. A brief description of the land listed in the name of each;
3. The principal amount of the taxes owed by each.

Failure to include penalties and costs in the amount advertised shall not be construed as a waiver of same, but such advertisement shall state generally that the amounts advertised are subject to be increased by such penalties and costs.

(d) Place and Hour of Sale.—All county and district sales shall be held at the courthouse door, and city sales shall be held at the courthouse door or at the city hall door as the collector may advertise. All sales shall begin at such hour as may be specified in the advertisement, and they may be continued from day to day, if continuance is necessary in order to complete the sales, without further advertisement.

(e) Manner of Sale.—The sale may be conducted by the collector or any deputy designated by him for the purpose. The tax liens on all parcels advertised against one taxpayer shall be sold as one lot at public outcry to the highest bidder: Provided, that in case of county sales, liens on parcels in different townships may be sold separately. The collector may, in his discretion, demand immediate payment from any successful bidder, and reject such bid upon failure to comply with said demand. No bid shall be received unless for an amount at least equal to the principal amount of the taxes plus all penalties and costs accrued thereon. In the absence of a bid at least equal to such sum the taxing unit shall become the purchaser, without submitting a formal bid, for an amount equal to such sum.

In all cases in which bids are accepted which exceed such sum the tax collector shall immediately report such excess to the governing body, and said governing body shall order such excess paid directly to the person entitled thereto or order it paid to the clerk of superior court for distribution as the court may direct.

(f) Costs of Sale.—Costs of sale, which shall be included in the minimum sale price, shall consist of actual advertising cost and a sale fee not exceeding fifty cents (50c) per parcel. Actual advertising cost per parcel shall be determined by the collector, and may be determined upon an advertising lineage basis or an average cost per insertion basis or by any other reasonable method. The taxing unit shall pay all advertising expense, and all advertising cost collected shall be paid to it for use as its governing body may direct. All sale fees collected shall be treated in the same manner as other fees collected by said collector.

(g) Payments during the Advertising Period.—At any time between the beginning of the advertisement and the time of actual sale, any parcel may be withdrawn from the sale list by payment of taxes and penalties as required by law and a proportionate part of the advertising cost as determined by the collector. Thereafter, such parcel shall be eliminated from the advertisement: Provided, that failure to eliminate such parcel shall not subject the collector to liability if the lien on said parcel is not thereafter actually sold.

(h) Failure of Collector to Attend Sale.—If any collector shall fail to attend any duly advertised sale, in person or by competent deputy, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and liable on his bond to a penalty of three hundred dollars.

(i) Land Listed in Wrong Name.—No sale shall be void because such real estate was charged in the name of any other person than the rightful owner, if such real estate be in other respects correctly described on the tax list: Provided, no sale of the lien on real estate listed in the name of the wrong person shall be valid when the rightful owner has listed the same and paid the taxes thereon.

(j) Irregularities Immaterial.—No irregularities in making assessments or in making the returns thereof in the equalization of property as provided by law, or in any other proceeding or requirement, shall invalidate the sale of tax liens on real estate or sale of real estate in tax foreclosure proceedings, nor in any manner invalidate the tax levied on any property or charged against any person. The following defects, omissions, and circumstances occurring in the assessment of any property for taxation, or in the levy of taxes, or elsewhere in the course of the proceedings, shall be deemed to be irregularities within the meaning of this subsection; the failure of the assessors to take or subscribe an oath or attach an oath to an assessment roll; the omission of a dollar mark or other designation descriptive of the value of figures used to denote an amount assessed, levied, or charged against any property or the valuation of any property upon any record; the failure to make or serve any notice mentioned in this chapter; the failure or neglect of the collector to offer any tax lien or real estate for sale at the time mentioned in the advertisement or notice of such sale; failure of the collector to adjourn the sale from day to day, or any irregularity or informality in such adjournment; any irregularity or informality in the order or manner in which tax liens or real estate may be offered for sale; the failure to assess any property for taxes or to levy any tax within the time prescribed by law; any irregularity, informality or omission in any such assessment or levy; any defect in the description, upon any assessment book, tax list, sales book, or other record, of real or personal property, assessed for taxation, or upon which any taxes are levied, or which may be sold for taxes, provided such description be sufficiently definite to enable the collector, or any person interested, to determine what property is meant or intended by the description, and in such cases a defective or indefinite description, on any book, list, or record, or in any notice or advertisement, may be made definite by the collector at any time by correcting such book, list or record, or may be made definite by using a correct description in any tax foreclosure proceeding authorized by this subchapter, and any such correction shall have the same force and effect as if said description had been correct on the tax list; any other irregularity, informality, or omission or neglect on the part of any person or in any proceedings, whether mentioned in this subsection or not; the neglect or omission to tax or assess for taxation any person or property; the overtaxation of persons or property liable to be taxed.

(k) Acts of De Facto Officers.—In all actions, proceedings, and controversies involving the title to real property held under and by virtue of a tax sale or any tax foreclosure proceedings authorized by this article, all acts of assessors, clerks, sheriffs, collectors, supervisors, commissioners and other officers de facto shall be deemed and construed to be of the same validity as acts of officers de jure.

(1) Proof of Sale.—The books and records of the office of the collector making the sale, or copies thereof properly certified, shall be deemed sufficient evidence to prove the sale of the tax lien on any real property under this section, the redemption thereof or the payment of taxes thereon.

(m) Wrongful Sale.—Any collector or deputy collector who shall sell, or assist in selling, the tax lien on any real property, knowing the same not to be subject to taxation, or that the taxes for which the lien is sold have been paid, or shall knowingly and willingly sell or assist in selling the tax lien on any real property for payment of taxes to defraud the owner of such real property, or shall knowingly and willingly cause foreclosure proceedings to be instituted against real property so sold, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and be liable to a fine of not less than one thousand nor more than three thousand dollars, or to imprisonment not exceeding one year, or to both fine and imprisonment, and to pay the injured party all damages sustained by such act; and all such sales shall be void.

When by mistake or wrongful act of the collector a tax lien on real property has been sold on which no tax was due, the taxing unit shall reimburse the purchaser by paying to him the amount expended by him in such purchase, with interest thereon at six per cent per annum; and the collector shall be liable to the taxing unit upon his bond for all amounts so expended by him in excess of the amount received by him from said sale. Any amount paid by a taxing unit under this section for State taxes shall, on proper certificate from the chairman of the governing body, be allowed by the Auditor and paid by the Treasurer of the State, and the State shall have the right of recovery against the collector on his bond to the amount so paid.

(n) Joint Sales by Several Taxing Units.—Wherever the taxes of two or more taxing units are collected by the same collector, one sale shall be held for the taxes of both at such time as is prescribed by law for sales by either; and in the absence of bids the larger unit may become the purchaser, or such units may become joint purchasers, for the benefit of all according to their respective intersects: Provided, that this shall not repeal any local law designating the purchaser in case of joint sales. (1939, c. 310, s. 1715; 1955, c. 993.)

Local Modification.—Cumberland: 1941, c. 44, s. 1(a); Mecklenburg: 1945, c. 1, s. 5; Wayne: 1941, c. 40; city of Greensboro: 1959, c. 1157, s. 17.

Editor’s Note.—The 1955 amendment added the last proviso to the first paragraph of subsection (b).

The power to sell real estate for taxes was repealed by c. 310, Laws 1939, and the sheriff or tax collector is limited to the sale of the tax lien. Crandall v. Clemmons, 222 N. C. 225, 22 S. E. (2d) 448 (1942).

The tax lien can be enforced only by an action in the superior court in the county in which the land is situated in the nature of an action to foreclose a mortgage. Crandall v. Clemmons, 222 N. C. 225, 22 S. E. (2d) 448 (1942). See § 105-391.

§ 105-388. Certificates of sale.—(a) Issued to Private Purchasers.—As soon as possible after sale, but not earlier than payment of the purchase price, the collector shall issue to each successful bidder, other than taxing units, a certificate of sale, for the tax lien on real property of each delinquent, purchased by him, dated as of the day of sale. Property held jointly by two or more owners shall be construed as the property of one delinquent for this purpose. Said certificate shall be in substantially the following form:

“In North Carolina, ..................... (taxing unit) ................

I, ..................... tax collector of ........ (taxing unit) .................. do hereby certify that the tax lien on the following described real property in said taxing unit, to wit: .................. (describing the same) .................., was, on the ......... day of ............, ........, duly sold by me in the manner provided by law, for the delinquent taxes of ............ for the year ............, amounting to $..........., including penalties thereon and costs allowed by law, when and where ......... (name of purchaser) ............ purchased said lien on said real property at the price of $..........., said amount being the highest and best bid for same. And I further certify that unless payment of said lien is made, within the time and in the manner provided by law, said ............ (name of purchaser) ............, his heirs or assigns, shall have the right to foreclose said real property by any proceeding allowed by law.

“In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand this .......... day of .......... Tax Collector.”

A copy of each such certificate shall be retained by the collector in a special book or file designated “Certificates of Sale for Taxes for the Year .........” All payments made on any such certificate shall be made to the collector for the use of the owner of such certificate, and all such payments shall be credited by the collector on the copy of the certificate in his possession, and shall be remitted to the owner of the certificate upon proper receipt therefor. For failure to account for and pay over any such payments the collector shall be liable on his bond to the person entitled thereto. The copies of such certificates in the collector’s office shall be the official records for the purpose of determining whether a lien exists in favor of any certificate owner other than a taxing unit. The owner of a certificate may assign it at any time, but said assignment shall not be effective until the collector shall have actually received written notice thereof from the assignor. Each such purchaser, his heirs or assigns, shall have a lien on the real property for the amount of the purchase price, plus interest thereon at the rate of six per centum per annum, of the same dignity as similar liens owned by taxing units, and shall have the right to foreclose said lien, by action in the nature of an action to foreclose a mortgage, in the manner hereinafter prescribed: Provided, that the six per cent per annum interest herein provided shall accrue only on so § 105-389. Assignment of liens by taxing unit after sale.—At any time after the sale hereinafter provided for, any taxing unit may assign any lien owned by it to any person who pays an amount which, if paid by the taxpayer, would be sufficient to discharge said lien. If a certificate has already been issued to the taxing unit, it shall be assigned to the person making the payment, and the copy of stub of such certificate or a copy of such stub, showing such assignment, shall be filed in the manner provided for certificates originally issued to private purchasers. If no certificate has been issued to the taxing unit, a certificate shall immediately be so issued, and said certificate shall be assigned to the person making such payment in the manner set forth in the preceding sentence. The collector to whom the payment is made shall have authority to make all such assignments and issue all such certificates.

The provisions of this section shall be construed as being in addition to the provisions of this article with respect to release of individual parcels of real property.
§ 105-390. Settlements. —

(a) Annual Settlement of Tax Collector. —

(1) Preliminary report. On the second Monday following the sale of certificates, the tax collector shall, under oath, report to the governing body:
   a. Action with respect to such sale; and
   b. A list of those not listing land for taxes whose taxes remain unpaid, making oath that he has made diligent effort to collect such taxes out of the personal property of such taxpayers or by other means open to him for collection of such taxes, and reporting such other information as to such taxpayers as may be of interest to or required by the governing body (including a report on his efforts to make collection outside the taxing unit under the provisions of this article).

(2) Insolvents. The governing body shall, upon receipt of said report, enter upon its minutes the list of such taxpayers listing no land as may be found by said governing body to be insolvents, and shall by resolution designate said list so entered in the minutes as the insolvent list to be credited to the collector in his settlement.

(3) Settlement for current taxes. On the first Monday of the month following sale of certificates, but not earlier than the first Monday of July, the collector shall make full settlement with the governing body of the taxing unit for all taxes, in his hands for collection, for the year involved in said sale. In such settlement the collector shall be charged with:
   a. The total amount of all taxes for said year, in his hands for collection, including amounts originally charged to him and all subsequent amounts charged on account of discovered property;
   b. All penalties, interest and costs collected by him in connection with taxes for said year; and
   c. All other sums to be collected by said collector.

He shall be credited with:
   a. All sums deposited by him to the credit of the taxing unit, or receipted for by the proper official of said unit, on account of taxes for said year;
   b. Releases allowed by the governing body as prescribed by statute;
   c. The principal amount of taxes included in certificates sold to the taxing unit, for which he shall produce certificates duly executed or receipts or accounts duly stamped in accordance with the provisions of this article;
   d. The principal amount of taxes for said year included in the insolvent list, determined as hereinbefore provided;
   e. Discounts allowed by law; and
   f. Commissions, if any, lawfully payable to him as compensation. For any deficiency the collector shall be liable on his bond, and, in addition, thereto, shall be liable to all criminal penalties provided by law.

Said settlement, together with the action of the governing body with respect thereto, shall be entered in full upon the minutes of said governing body.

(4) Disposition of tax books after settlement. Uncollected taxes allowed as credits in the settlement prescribed in the preceding subdivision (3), whether represented by sales to the taxing unit or included in the list of insolvents, shall be recharged to the collector or charged to some other person, in accordance with the provisions of any valid local statute governing tax collection in the particular taxing unit. In the absence of any local statute determining the matter:

a. Such taxes in cities, and in counties having tax collectors other than sheriffs, shall be recharged to the collector; and

b. Such taxes, in counties having sheriffs as tax collectors, shall be charged to such other county officer or employee as the governing body may designate to perform the duties of delinquent tax collector.

The person so charged or recharged shall give bond satisfactory to the governing body; shall receive the tax receipts, certificates and records representing such uncollected taxes; shall have and exercise all powers and duties conferred or imposed by law upon tax collectors; and shall receive such compensation as may be fixed by valid local statute or, in the absence of such statute, as the governing body may determine.

(b) Settlements for Delinquent Taxes.—Annually, at the time prescribed for the settlement hereinbefore in this section provided, all persons having in their hands for collection any taxes for years prior to the year involved in said settlement hereinbefore provided, shall settle with the governing body of the taxing unit for collections made on the taxes for each such prior year. Such settlement for the taxes of prior years shall be in such form as may be satisfactory to the chief accounting officer and the governing body of the taxing unit, and shall be entered in full upon the minutes of the governing body.

(c) Settlement at End of Term.—Whenever any tax collector or other person collecting taxes, current or delinquent, shall fail to succeed himself at the end of his term of office, he shall, on the last business day of his term, make full and complete settlement for all taxes in his hands and deliver the tax records, receipts and accounts to his successor in office. Such settlement shall be in such manner and form as may be satisfactory to the chief accounting officer and governing body of the taxing unit, and shall be entered in full upon the minutes of the governing body.

(d) Settlement upon Vacancy During Term.—In case of voluntary resignation of any person collecting taxes he shall, upon his last day in office, make full settlement for all taxes in his hands in the same manner as required herein for settlements made at the end of a term of office. In default of such settlement, or in case of a vacancy occurring during a term for any other reason, it shall be the duty of the chief accounting officer or, in the discretion of the governing body, of some duly qualified person appointed by it, immediately to prepare and submit to the governing body a report in the nature of a settlement made on behalf of the ex-collector; and such report, together with the action of the governing body, shall be entered in full upon the minutes of the governing body. In such cases the governing body may turn over the tax books to the successor collector immediately upon occurrence of the vacancy, or may make such temporary arrangements for collection of taxes as may be expedient: Provided, that no person shall be permitted to collect taxes until he shall have given bond satisfactory to the governing body.
(e) Effect of Approval.—Approval of any settlement by the governing body shall not relieve the collector or his bondsmen of liability for any shortage actually existing and thereafter discovered; nor shall it relieve the collector of any criminal liability.

(i) Penalties.—In addition to all other civil and criminal penalties, provided by law, any member of a governing body, collector, person collecting taxes, or chief accounting officer failing to perform any duty imposed upon him by this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, in the discretion of the court.

(g) The county commissioners of the several counties of the State of North Carolina are hereby authorized and empowered in their discretion to relieve the tax collector, sheriff, or other officer charged with the collection of taxes of and from the charges of all insolvent taxes, five years or more delinquent, when it appears to the satisfaction of the board of commissioners of any county that said taxes are uncollectible. (1939, c. 310, s. 1718; 1949, c. 730.)

Local Modification.—Cumberland: 1941, c. 44, s. 1(d), (e); Jackson: 1947, c. 17, s. 13; Mecklenburg: 1945, c. 16, s. 6.

Cross Reference.—For earlier statute relating to settlement, see § 105-424.

Editor’s Note.—The 1949 amendment added subsection (g).

Legislative Power to Penalize.—The legislature has the power to impose penalties on the sheriff for his delay or failure to make settlement with the proper county authorities within a stated time. State v. Gentry, 183 N. C. 825, 112 S. E. 427 (1922), wherein the court said: “The power to coerce prompt collection and settlement of taxes is no less necessary than the power to levy and assess them, and both are essential to the maintenance of the government.”

An extension of time, within which a sheriff may settle State taxes, does not exonerate the sureties upon his bond. Worth v. Cox, 89 N. C. 44 (1883).

Applied in Berry v. Davis, 158 N. C. 170, 73 S. E. 900 (1912).

§ 105-391. Foreclosure of tax liens by action in nature of action to foreclose a mortgage.—(a) Time for Beginning Such Action.—Actions for the foreclosure of tax liens brought under this section shall be brought not less than six months after the sale hereinbefore provided for.

(b) Private Purchasers.—Foreclosure under this section shall be the sole remedy of certificate owners other than taxing units.

(c) Taxing Units.—Taxing units may proceed under this section, either on the original tax lien or the lien acquired at the tax sale hereinbefore provided for, with or without a certificate of sale, and the amount of recovery in either case shall be the same. To this end it is hereby declared that the original attachment of the tax lien is sufficient to support a tax foreclosure action by a taxing unit, that the issuance of tax sale certificates to a taxing unit is a matter of convenience in record keeping, within the discretion of the governing body of such unit, and that issuance of such certificates is not a prerequisite to perfection of said tax lien.

(d) General Nature of the Action.—The foreclosure action shall be an action in superior court, in the county in which the land is situated, in the nature of an action to foreclose a mortgage.

(e) Parties; Summons.—The listing taxpayer and spouse, if any, the current owner, all other taxing units having tax liens, all other lien holders of record, and all persons who would be entitled to be made parties to a court action (in which no deficiency judgment is sought) to foreclose a mortgage on such property, shall be made parties and served with summons in the manner provided by § 1-89: Provided, that service by publication may be begun at any time within two years after the issuance of the original summons and that time within which to serve summons may be extended as provided by § 1-95.

The fact that the listing taxpayer or any other defendant is a minor, is incompetent or is under any other disability shall not prevent or delay the collector’s sale or the foreclosure of the tax lien: and all such defendants shall be made defendants and served with summons in the same manner as in other civil actions.

Persons who have disappeared or cannot be located and persons whose names and whereabouts are unknown, and all possible heirs or assignees of such persons may be served by publication; and such person, their heirs and assignees may be designated by general description or by fictitious names in such action. It is hereby declared that service of summons by publication against such persons, in the manner provided by law, shall be as valid in all respects as such service against known persons who are nonresidents of this State.

(f) Complaint as a Lis Pendens.—The complaint in an action brought under this section shall, from the time of the filing thereof in the office of the clerk of superior court, serve as notice of the pendency of such action, and every person whose interest in such property is subsequently acquired or whose interest therein is subsequently registered or recorded shall be found by all proceedings taken in such action after the filing of said complaint in the same manner as if said persons had been made parties to such action. It shall not be necessary to have said complaint cross indexed as a notice of action pending to have the effect prescribed by this subsection.

(g) Subsequent Taxes. — The complaint in a tax foreclosure action brought under this section by a taxing unit shall, in addition to alleging the tax lien on which the action is based, include a general allegation of subsequent taxes which are or may become a lien on the same property in favor of the plaintiff unit. Thereafter it shall not be necessary to amend said complaint to incorporate said taxes by specific allegation. In case of redemption before judgment of confirmation, the person redeeming shall be required to pay, before said action is discontinued, at least all taxes on said property which have at the time of discontinuance been due to plaintiff unit for more than one year, plus interest, penalties and costs thereon. Immediately prior to judgment of sale in such action, if there has been no redemption, the tax collector, or the attorney for plaintiff unit, shall file in said action a certificate setting forth all taxes which are a lien on said property in favor of the plaintiff unit, other than taxes the amount of which has not been definitely determined.

Any plaintiff in a tax foreclosure action, other than a taxing unit, may include in his complaint, originally or by amendment, all other taxes and assessments paid by him which were liens on the same property.

(h) Joinder of Parcels.—All real estate within one township, subject to liens for taxes levied against the same taxpayer by the same taxing unit for the first year involved in the action, shall be joined in one action: Provided, that where property is transferred by the listing taxpayer subsequent to such year, all subsequent taxes, penalties, interest and costs, for which said property is ordered sold under the terms of this subchapter, shall be prorated to such property in the same manner as if payments were being made to release such property under the provisions of this subchapter.

(i) Special Benefit Assessments.—A cause of action for the foreclosure of the lien of any special benefit assessment may be included in any complaint filed under this section.

(j) Joint Foreclosure by Two or More Taxing Units.—Liens of different taxing units on the same parcel, representing taxes in the hands of the same collector, shall be foreclosed in one action. Liens of different taxing units of the same parcel, representing taxes in the hands of different collectors, may be foreclosed in one action in the discretion of the governing bodies.

Liens of taxing units made parties defendant in any such action shall be alleged in an answer filed by such unit, and the collector of each such answering unit shall, prior to judgment, file a certificate of subsequent taxes similar to that filed by the collector of the plaintiff unit, and the taxes of each such answering unit shall be of equal dignity with the taxes of the plaintiff unit: and any such answering unit may, in case of payment of the plaintiff's taxes, continue such action until all taxes due to it for more than one year have been paid. It shall not be necessary for any such defendant unit to file a separate foreclosure action or proceed under § 105-392 with respect to any such taxes.

All taxes of any taxing unit which is properly served as a party defendant in such action, and which does not answer and file the certificate as aforesaid, shall be barred by the judgment of sale except to the extent that the purchase price at foreclosure sale, after payment of costs and of the liens of all taxing units whose liens are properly alleged by complaint or answer and certificates, may be sufficient to pay said taxes: Provided, that if a defendant unit is plaintiff in another action pending against the same property, or has begun a proceeding under § 105-392, its answers may allege said fact in lieu of alleging its liens, and the court, in its discretion, may order consolidation of such actions or such other disposition thereof, and such disposition of the costs therein, as it may deem advisable: And provided, further, that any such order may be made by the clerk of the superior court, subject to appeal in the same manner as appeals are taken from other orders of said clerk.

(k) Costs.—Subject to the provisions of this subsection, costs may be taxed in any action brought under this section in the same manner as in other civil actions. Upon collection of said costs, either upon redemption or upon payment of the purchase price at foreclosure sale, the fees allowed officers shall be paid to those entitled to receive the same: Provided, that no process tax for the use of the State shall be levied or collected in tax foreclosure actions, and, where the plaintiff is a taxing unit, no prosecution bond shall be required in such actions.

The word "costs" as used in this section shall be construed to include one reasonable attorney's fee for the plaintiff in such amount as the court shall, in its discretion, determine and allow: Provided, that the governing body of any taxing unit may, in its discretion, pay a smaller or greater sum to its attorney as a suit fee, and said governing body may, in its discretion, allow a reasonable commission to its attorney on delinquent taxes collected by him after said taxes have been placed in his hands; or said governing body may arrange with its attorney for the handling of tax suits on a salary basis or make such other reasonable agreement with its attorney or attorneys as said governing body may approve; and any arrangement made may provide that attorneys' fees collected as costs be collected for the use of the taxing unit; and provided further, that when any taxing unit is made a party defendant in a tax foreclosure action and files answer therein, there may be included in the costs an attorney's fee for said defendant in such amount as the court shall, in its discretion, determine and allow.

In any action in which real property is actually sold after judgment, costs shall include a commissioner's fee to be fixed by the court, not exceeding five per centum of the purchase price; and in case of redemption between the date of sale and judgment of confirmation, said fee shall be added to the amount otherwise necessary for redemption. In case more than one sale is made of the same property in any action, the commissioner's fee may be based on the highest amount bid, but said commissioner shall not be allowed a separate fee for each such sale. The governing body of any plaintiff unit may request the court to appoint as commissioner a salaried official, attorney or employee of the unit and, if such appointment is made, may require that such commissioner's fees, when collected, be paid to plaintiff unit for use as it may direct.

(1) Contested Actions.—Any action brought under this section, in which an answer raising an issue requiring trial is filed within the time allowed by law, shall be entitled to a preference as to time of trial over all other civil actions.

(m) Judgment of Sale.—Any judgment in favor of the plaintiff or any defendant taxing unit in an action brought under this section shall order the sale of the property, or so much thereof as may be necessary for the satisfaction of:

(1) Taxes adjudged to be liens in favor of the plaintiff, other than taxes
§ 105-391

§ 105-391 the amount of which has not been definitely determined, together with interest, penalties and costs thereon; and

(2) Taxes adjudged to be liens in favor of other taxing units, other than taxes the amount of which has not yet been definitely determined, if said taxes have been alleged in answers filed by said units, together with interest, penalties and costs thereon.

Said judgment shall appoint a commissioner to conduct said sale and shall order that the property be sold in fee simple, free and clear of all interests, rights, claims and liens whatever, except that said sale shall be subject to taxes the amount of which cannot be definitely determined at the time of said judgment, subject to taxes and assessments of taxing units which are not parties to said action, and, in the discretion of the court, subject to taxes alleged in other tax foreclosure actions or proceedings pending against the same property.

In all cases in which no answer is filed within the time allowed by law, and in cases in which answers filed do not seek to prevent sale of said property, the clerk of the superior court may render said judgment, subject to appeal in the same manner as appeals are taken from other judgments of said clerk.

(n) Advertisement of Sale—The sale shall be advertised, and all necessary resales shall be advertised, in the manner provided by article 29A of chapter 1 or by such statute as may be enacted in substitution therefor.

(o) Sale—The sale shall be by public auction to the highest bidder, and shall, in accordance with the judgment, be held at the courthouse door on any day of the week except a Sunday or legal holiday: Provided, that in actions brought by any city which is not a county seat the court may, in its discretion, direct said sale to be held at the city hall door. The commissioner conducting such sale may, in his discretion, require from any successful bidder a deposit equal to not more than twenty per centum of his bid, which said deposit, in the event that said bidder refuses to take title and a resale becomes necessary, shall be applied to pay the costs of sale and any loss resulting: Provided, that this shall not deprive the commissioner of the right to sue for specific performance of the contract.

(p) Report of Sale—Within three days following said sale the commissioner shall report said sale to the court, giving full particulars thereof.

(q) Exceptions and Increased Bids—At any time within ten days after the filing of said report of sale any person having an interest in the property may file exceptions to said report, and at any time within said period an increased bid may be filed in the amount specified by and subject to the provisions (other than provisions in conflict herewith) of article 29A of chapter 1, or to the provisions (other than provisions in conflict herewith) of any law enacted in substitution for said section.

(r) Judgment of Confirmation—At any time after the expiration of said ten days, if no exception or increased bid has been filed, the commissioner may apply for judgment of confirmation; and in like manner he may apply for such judgment after the court has passed upon any exceptions filed, or after any necessary resales have been held and reported and ten days have elapsed: Provided that the court may, in its discretion, order resale of the property, in the absence of exceptions or increased bids, whenever it deems such resale necessary for the best interests of the parties.

Said judgment of confirmation shall direct the commissioner to deliver the deed upon payment of the purchase price.

Said judgment may be rendered by the clerk of superior court, subject to appeal in the same manner as appeals are taken from other judgments of said clerk.

(s) Application of Proceeds of Sale: Final Commissioner's Report—After delivery of the deed and collection of the purchase price, the commissioner shall apply the proceeds as follows: first, to payment of all costs of the action, including commissioner's fee and attorney's fee, which said costs shall be paid to the officials.
or funds entitled thereto; then to the payment of taxes, penalties and interest for which said property was ordered to be sold, and in case the funds remaining are insufficient for this purpose they shall be distributed pro rata to the various taxing units for whose taxes the property was ordered sold; then pro rata to the payment of any special benefit assessments for which said property was ordered sold, together with interest and costs thereon; then pro rata to payment of taxes, penalties, interest and costs of taxing units which were parties to said action but which filed no answers therein; then pro rata to payment of special benefit assessments of taxing units which were parties to said action but which filed no answers therein, together with interest and costs on said assessments; and any balance then remaining shall be paid in accordance with any directions given by the court and, in the absence of such directions, shall be paid into court for the benefit of the persons entitled thereto. The commissioner in all such cases shall make a full report to the court, within five days after delivery of the deed, showing delivery of the deed, receipt of the purchase price, and the disbursement of the proceeds, accompanied by receipts evidencing all such disbursements.

In case the purchaser is a taxing unit such unit may proceed in accordance with the provisions hereinafter set forth in this section; and the commissioner shall make report accordingly.

(t) Bids by Taxing Units. — Any taxing unit, or two or more units jointly, may bid at foreclosure sale, and any taxing unit which becomes the successful bidder may assign its bid, or portion thereof, at any time, by private sale, for not less than the amount thereof.

(u) Payment of Purchase Price by Taxing Units; Status of Property Purchased by Taxing Units.—Any taxing unit which becomes the purchaser at final tax foreclosure sale may, in the discretion of its governing body, pay only such part of the purchase price as would not be distributed to itself and other taxing units on account of taxes, interest, penalties and such costs as accrued prior to the beginning of the foreclosure action. Thereafter, in such case, it shall hold said property for the benefit of all taxing units which have an interest in such property as hereinafter in this subsection defined. All net income from said property and the proceeds thereof, when resold, shall be first used to reimburse the purchasing unit for disbursements actually made by it in connection with the foreclosure action and the purchase of said property, and any balance remaining shall be distributed to the taxing units having an interest therein in proportion to their interests. The total interest of each taxing unit, including the purchasing unit, shall be determined by adding:

(1) Taxes of such unit, with interest, penalties and costs (other than costs already reimbursed to the purchasing unit), to satisfy which said property was ordered sold;

(2) Other taxes of such unit, with interest, penalties and costs, which would have been paid from the purchase price had said purchase price been paid in full;

(3) Taxes of such unit, with interest, penalties and costs, to which said sale was made subject; and

(4) The principal amount of all taxes which may become liens on said property after purchase at foreclosure sale or which would have become liens but for such purchase:

Provided, that no amount shall be included under subdivision (4) hereof for taxes for years in which, on the tax listing day, said property is being used by said purchasing unit for a public purpose.

If the amount of net income and proceeds of resale distributable exceeds the total interests of all units hereinbefore defined, the remainder shall be applied to any special benefit assessments to satisfy which said sale was ordered or to which said sale was made subject, and any balance then remaining shall accrue to the purchasing unit.

When any property, purchased as hereinbefore provided in this subsection, is permanently dedicated for use for a public purpose, the purchasing unit shall make settlement with other taxing units having an interest in such property, as hereinbefore defined, in such manner and in such amount as may be agreed upon by the governing bodies; and if no agreement can be reached the amount to be paid shall be determined by the resident judge of the superior court.

Nothing in this subsection shall be construed as requiring the purchasing unit to secure the approval of other interested taxing units before reselling said property or as requiring said purchasing unit to pay said other units in full if the net income and resale price are insufficient to make such payments.

Any taxing unit purchasing property at foreclosure sale may, in the discretion of its governing body, instead of following the foregoing provisions of this subsection, make full payment of the purchase price and thereafter it shall hold said property as sole owner in the same manner as it holds other real property, subject only to taxes and assessments, with interest, penalties and costs, to which said sale was made subject.

(v) Resale of Property Purchased by Taxing Units.—Property purchased at tax foreclosure sale by a taxing unit may be resold at any time for such price as the governing body may approve. Such resale shall be conducted in the manner provided by law for sales of other property of the various taxing units: Provided, that a city or county may, in the discretion of its governing body, resell such property to former owner or other person formerly having an interest in said property, at private sale, for an amount not less than its interest therein, if it holds said property as sole owner, or for an amount not less than the total interests of all taxing units (other than assessments due the city holding title), if it holds said property for the benefit of all such units. Editor's Note.—The 1945 amendment added "summons" to the caption of subsection (e) and rewrote the proviso appearing at the end of the first paragraph thereof.

The 1947 amendment substituted "ten days" for "twenty days" in subsections (q) and (r).

The first 1951 amendment inserted "or county" near the beginning of the proviso in subsection (v). The second 1951 amendment substituted "article 29A of chapter 1" for "§§ 1-327, 1-328" in subsection (n) and for "§ 45-28" in subsection (q).

The 1953 amendment inserted in the first paragraph of subsection (e) "time within which to serve summons may be extended" in lieu of "alias and pluries summonses may be issued."

The 1955 amendment rewrote the first two paragraphs of subsection (k).

For brief comment on the 1951 amendments, see 29 N. C. Law Rev. 376.

For article on summary procedure for foreclosure of taxes, see 22 N. C. Law Rev. 226.

A suit for the foreclosure of tax liens is a civil action, and not a special proceeding. This is made plain by the specific declaration of this section that "the foreclosure action shall be an action in superior court, in the county in which the land is situated, in the nature of an action to foreclose a mortgage." Chappell v. Stallings, 237 N. C. 213, 74 S. E. (2d) 624 (1953).

There are two distinct alternate methods provided by statute for the foreclosure of a tax sale certificate or the lien evidenced thereby: 1. After the land has been sold by the sheriff and a certificate of sale has been issued, the purchaser may institute an action to foreclose the lien evidenced by the certificate. This section provides the regulations and procedure respecting an action instituted pursuant to this method. 2. Under § 105-392 the taxing unit may file in the office of the clerk of the superior court a sheriff’s certificate of sale of land to satisfy taxes. Thereupon, the clerk must docket the certificate upon his judgment docket. It then has the full force and effect of a judgment, and execution may issue thereon against the property of Tax Sale of Land Owned by Minors.—A judgment decreeing foreclosure and ordering sale of land for taxes was not void on the ground that three of the defendants were minors where the court upon learning of such fact appointed a guardian ad litem for the minors who filed an answer prior to the date of the tax sale. Franklin County v. Jones, 245 N. C. 272, 95 S. E. (2d) 863 (1957).

Continuance of Sale.—A continuance of a sale for a six-day period instead of from day to day of six-day period did not render the tax sale void. Franklin County v. Jones, 245 N. C. 272, 95 S. E. (2d) 863 (1957).

Inadequacy of Purchase Price.—A tax sale confirmed by the court was not rendered void by a finding five years later that the purchase price was unjust and inadequate. Franklin County v. Jones, 245 N. C. 272, 95 S. E. (2d) 863 (1957).

Effect of Failure of Owners to List Property for Taxes.—The jurisdiction of the superior court to determine the liability of the land for taxes was not defeated by a finding that the owners—defendants in the action—had not listed the property for taxes. Franklin County v. Jones, 245 N. C. 272, 95 S. E. (2d) 863 (1957).

The owner’s right of redemption is recognized in express terms three times in this section. The owner has the right to redeem his land from the lien of unpaid taxes by paying the taxes with accrued interest, penalties and costs, and the court costs at any time before the entry of a valid judgment in a tax foreclosure action confirming the judicial sale of the land for the satisfaction of the lien. Chappell v. Stallings, 237 N. C. 213, 74 S. E. (2d) 624 (1953).

Effect of Failure to Allege Collection of Costs and Fees.—In an action by an examiner of the superior court against a county for the recovery of fees allegedly due such examiner in tax foreclosure suits by the county, the complaint, alleging that all of the tax suits in question were prosecuted to judgment against the various defendants, without any allegation or admission that in any of the suits the costs or fees were collected and turned over to the county, is demurrable as not stating a cause of action, the county being under no obligation to pay costs and officer’s fees in advance, or ever unless collected. Watson v. Lee County, 224 N. C. 508, 31 S. E. (2d) 585 (1944).

Service of process by publication is in derogation of the common law and every statutory prerequisite must be observed. Board of Com’rs v. Bumpass, 233 N. C. 190, 63 S. E. (2d) 144 (1951).

The provision of this section permitting persons who have disappeared, who cannot be located, or whose names and whereabouts are unknown, to be served by publication under a fictitious name or by designation as heirs and assigns, is protective in nature and may not be used as a subterfuge to excuse failure to serve process on those whose names can be discovered by the exercise of due diligence. Wilmington v. Merrick, 231 N. C. 297, 56 S. E. (2d) 643 (1949).

When Exceptions to Be Filed under Subsections (p), (q) and (r).—It is manifest that subsections (p), (q) and (r) require a person having an interest in the property involved in a tax foreclosure action file exceptions to the report of a particular sale and to appeal from an adverse ruling on such exceptions when, and only when, his exceptions challenge the validity of the steps taken by the commissioner in conducting the particular sale, or the fairness of the particular sale in respect to price or other factors to the parties concerned. Chappell v. Stallings, 237 N. C. 213, 74 S. E. (2d) 624 (1953).

Subsections (p), (q) and (r) do not apply to objections which are addressed to the validity of the judgment of sale itself. In consequence, a person having an interest in the property involved in a tax foreclosure action does not lose the benefit of an aptly taken objection to the validity of the judgment of sale by failing to file exceptions to the report of a particular sale made under it, or by failing to take a specific appeal from an order confirming such particular sale. A proper legal objection to the validity of a judgment of sale in and of itself puts in issue the validity of all proceedings under it. Chappell v. Stallings 237 N. C. 213, 74 S. E. (2d) 624 (1953).

The court has authority to reject the bid made at the foreclosure sale of a tax sale certificate and order a resale, even in the absence of exceptions or an increased bid, under the provisions of subsection (r). Bladen County v. Squires, 219 N. C. 649, 14 S. E. (2d) 665 (1941).

§ 105-391.1. Validation of sales and resales held pursuant to § 105-391. — All sales or resales heretofore held pursuant to G. S. 105-391 where the advertisement was in accordance with G. S. 1-327 and 1-328, as provided by such sections prior to their repeal, are validated to the same extent as if such advertisement were in accordance with article 29A of chapter 1 of the General Statutes, and all such sales, where the provisions of G. S. 45-28 as to resales, as provided by such section prior to its repeal, were followed, are validated to the same extent as if the resale procedure provided for in article 29A of chapter 1 of the General Statutes had been followed. (1951, c. 1036, s. 2.)

Editor's Note.—Section 2% of the act inserting the above section provides: "The provisions of this act validating and ratifying sales heretofore made shall not apply to any case now pending where an attack is being made on sales heretofore made because of the failure to properly advertise such sales."

§ 105-391.2. Validation of reconveyances of tax foreclosed property by county boards of commissioners. — The action of county boards of commissioners in heretofore reconveying tax foreclosed property by private sale to the former owners or other interested parties for amounts not less than such counties' interest therein is hereby ratified, confirmed and validated. (1951, c. 300, s. 2.)

§ 105-392. Alternative method of foreclosure. — (a) Docketing Taxes as a Judgment. — In lieu of following the procedure set forth in § 105-391, the governing body of any taxing unit may order the collecting official to file, not less than six months or more than two years (four years as to taxes of the principal amount of five dollars or less) following the collector's sale of certificates, with the clerk of superior court a certificate showing the name of the taxpayer listing the real estate on which such taxes are a lien, together with the amount of taxes, interest, penalties and costs which are a lien thereon, the year for which such taxes are due, and a description of such real property sufficient to permit its identification by parol testimony. The clerk of superior court shall enter said certificate in a special book entitled "Tax Judgment Docket for Taxes for the Year ..............." and shall index the same therein in the name of the listing taxpayer: Provided that the clerk of the superior court may enter said certificate in a special continuing book or books entitled "Tax Judgment Docket for Taxes for the Years Beginning ..............." and index the same in the general judgment index in the name of the listing taxpayer or taxpayers. Immediately upon said docketing and indexing, said taxes, interest, penalties and costs shall constitute a valid judgment against said property, with the priority hereinbefore provided for tax liens, which said judgment, except as herein expressly provided, shall have the same force and effect as a duly rendered judgment of the superior court directing sale of said property for the satisfaction of the tax lien, and which judgment shall bear interest at the rate of six per cent per annum. The clerk shall be allowed fifty cents per certificate for such docketing and indexing, payable when such taxes are collected or such property is sold, and shall account for said fees in the same manner as other fees of his office are accounted for: Provided, that the governing body of any county, if said clerk is on salary, or said clerk, if he is on fees or salary plus fees, may require such fees to be advanced by the taxing unit.

The collecting official filing said certificate shall, at least two weeks prior to the docketing of said judgment, send a registered or certified letter or by letter sent by certified mail to the listing taxpayer, at his last known address, stating that the judgment will be docketed and that execution will issue thereon in the manner provided by law. However, receipt of said letter by said listing taxpayer, or receipt of actual notice of the proceeding by said taxpayer or any other interested person, shall not be required for the validity or priority of said judgment or for the validity or priority, as hereinafter provided, of the title acquired by the purchaser at the execution sale. It is hereby expressly declared to be the in-
§ 105-392 Cu. 105. Taxation § 105-392

Attention of this section that proceedings brought under it shall be strictly in rem. It is further declared to be the intention of the section to provide a simple and inexpensive method of enforcing payment of taxes necessarily levied, to the knowledge of all, for the requirements of local governments in this State; and to recognize, in authorizing such proceeding, that all those owning interests in real property know, or should know, without special notice thereof, that such property may be seized and sold for failure to pay such lawful taxes.

Nothing in this section shall be construed as a limitation of time on the right to foreclose a tax lien under § 105-391.

(b) Motion to Set Aside.—At any time prior to issue of execution, any person having an interest in said property may appear and move to set aside said judgment on the ground that the tax has been paid or that the tax lien on which said judgment is based is invalid.

(c) Issue of Execution.—At any time after six months and before two years from the indexing of said judgment, execution shall be issued at the request of the governing body of the taxing unit, in the same manner as executions are issued upon other judgments of the superior court, and said property shall be sold by the sheriff in the same manner as other property is sold under execution: Provided, that no debtor's exemption shall be allowed; and provided, further, that in lieu of any personal service of notice on the owner of said property, registered or certified mail notice shall be mailed to the listing taxpayer, at his last known address, at least one week prior to the day fixed for said sale. The purchaser at said sale shall acquire title to said property in fee simple, free and clear of all claims, rights, interest and liens except the lien of other taxes and assessments not paid from the purchase price and not included in the judgment: Provided, that if a taxing unit has, by virtue of the taxes included in such a judgment, been made a defendant in a foreclosure action brought under § 105-391, it shall file answer therein and thereafter all proceedings shall be governed by order of court in accordance with the provisions of that section.

(d) Cancellation upon Payment. — Upon payment in full of any judgment docketed under this section, together with interest thereon and costs accrued to the date of payment, it shall be the duty of the collecting official receiving such payment immediately to certify the fact of such payment to the clerk of superior court, who shall thereupon cancel the judgment, the fee for such cancellation to be fifty cents (50c), which fee shall be included as part of accrued costs.

(e) Consolidation of Liens.—By agreement between the governing bodies, two or more taxing units may consolidate their liens for purpose of docketing judgment, or may have one execution issued for separate judgments, against the same property. In like manner one execution may issue for separate judgments in favor of one or more taxing units against the same property for different years' taxes.

In any advertisement or posted notice of sale under execution the sheriff may (and, at the request of the governing body of the taxing unit shall) combine the advertisements or notices for properties to be sold under executions, against the properties of different taxpayers, in favor of the same taxing unit or group of units: Provided, that the property included in each judgment shall be separately described and the name of the listing taxpayers specified in connection with each.

(f) Special Assessments.—Street, sidewalk and other special assessments may be included in any judgment for taxes taken under this section; or such assessments may be included in a separate judgment docketed under this section, which is hereby declared to be made available as a method of foreclosing the lien of such assessments.

(g) Purchase and Resale by Taxing Unit. — Any taxing unit may become a bidder at said sale under execution, and may assign its bid by private sale, for not less than the amount of such bid. Property purchased by any taxing unit may be resold at any time in the manner provided by law for sale of other property.
of such unit: Provided, a city may resell property to the former owner or other person formerly having an interest therein, at private sale, for not less than the amount of said unit’s interest in such property (other than special assessments).

(h) Procedure if Section Declared Unconstitutional.—If any provisions of this section are declared invalid or unconstitutional by a court of competent jurisdiction, all taxing units which have proceeded under this section shall have one year from the date of the filing of such opinion (or, in case of appeal, from the date of the filing of the opinion on appeal) in which to institute foreclosure actions under § 105-391 for all taxes included in judgments taken under this section and for subsequent taxes due or which, but for purchase of such property by the taxing unit, would have become due; and such opinion shall not have the effect of invalidating the tax lien or disturbing the priority thereof. (1939, c. 310, s. 1720; 1945, c. 646; 1957, cc. 91, 1262.)

Local Modification.—Chowan (any political subdivision or incorporated town therein): 1959, c. 16; Cumberland: 1941, c. 44, s. 1(g).

Cross Reference.—See note to § 105-391.

Editor’s Note.—The 1945 amendment inserted the proviso to the second sentence of subsection (a).

The first 1957 amendment inserted “or certified” following “registered” in the first sentence of the second paragraph of subsection (a) and in the proviso to the first sentence of subsection (c). The second 1957 amendment made the same change in subsection (c), but in amending subsection (a) it inserted “or by letter sent by certified mail” immediately following “certified letter” in the first sentence of the second paragraph. Apparently the first amendment was overlooked when the second amendment was made.

For article on summary procedure for foreclosure of taxes, see 22 N. C. Law Rev. 226.

Tenancy by Entireties.—Where tax foreclosure proceedings under this section are instituted in regard to land held by husband and wife by the entireties, but the proceedings are solely against the husband without notice to the wife, the tax sale on the certificate-judgment is wholly ineffectual, since the wife is not bound thereby and the husband has no divisible interest in the property which is subject to execution. Edwards v. Arnold, 250 N. C. 500, 109 S. E. (2d) 205 (1959).

§ 105-393. Time for contesting validity of tax foreclosure title.—No action or proceeding shall be brought to contest the validity of any title to real property acquired, by a taxing unit or by a private purchaser, in any tax foreclosure action or proceeding authorized by this subchapter or by other laws of this State in force at the time of acquisition of said title, nor shall any motion to reopen or set aside the judgment in any such tax foreclosure action or proceeding be entertained, after one year from the date on which the deed is recorded: Provided, that in cases of deeds recorded prior to April 3, 1939, such action or proceeding may be brought or motion entertained within one year after said date: Provided, further, that this shall not be construed as enlarging the time within which to bring such action or proceeding or entertain such motion. (1939, c. 310, s. 1721.)

Relations to Other Sections.—This section relates alike to §§ 105-391 and 105-392. Boone v. Sparrow, 235 N. C. 396, 70 S. E. (2d) 204 (1952).

A remainderman, who has been served only by publication based upon a fatally defective affidavit, may attack the tax foreclosure more than one year afterward since neither this section nor any statute of limitations can bar the right to attack a judgment for want of jurisdiction.

Board of Com’rs v. Bumpass, 233 N. C. 190, 63 S. E. (2d) 114 (1951).

§ 105-394. Facsimile signatures.—In the institution or prosecution of any suits or other proceedings under this subchapter, or in tax foreclosure proceedings under laws heretofore or hereafter in force, and in the giving of any § 105-395. Application of article.—All provisions of this article shall apply to all taxes originally due within fiscal years beginning on or after July first, one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine, with the exception of the provisions of §§ 105-378 to 105-380, the provisions of this article shall also apply to all taxes uncollected on April 3, 1939, originally due within the fiscal year beginning July first, one thousand nine hundred thirty-eight. Sections 105-373 to 105-377, 105-381 to 105-386, 105-393, 105-394, and subsections (k) to (v), inclusive, of § 105-391 shall also apply, to the extent that such application does not affect any action already taken or affect private rights already vested on April 3, 1939, to all taxes, due and owing to taxing units on April 3, 1939, originally due within fiscal years beginning on or before July first, one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven, whether such taxes have heretofore been included in tax sales certificates or not, and whether such taxes are included in pending foreclosure actions or not; and § 105-392, and subsections (a) to (j), inclusive, of § 105-391 shall also be in addition to, and not in substitution for, the provisions of laws in force immediately prior to April 3, 1939: Provided, that with respect to such taxes originally due within the fiscal years beginning on or before July first, one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven, the provisions of said § 105-392, and subsections (a) to (j), inclusive, of § 105-391 shall be in addition to, and not in substitution for, the provisions of laws in force immediately prior to April 3, 1939: Provided, further, that proceedings may be begun under the provisions of §§ 105-391 and 105-392, with respect to such taxes originally due within the fiscal years beginning on or before July first, one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven, at any time after six months and within one year following April 3, 1939 or within a longer period otherwise permitted by the terms of this article. Except as in this section provided, the collection and foreclosure of taxes originally due within fiscal years beginning on or before July first, one thousand nine hundred thirty-eight, shall be under the provisions of laws in force immediately prior to April 3, 1939, including § 105-414. In all actions which may be brought under the provisions of section eight thousand thirty-seven of the Consolidated Statutes of North Carolina, the general advertisement, or six months' notice, prescribed by said section need not be made; and the failure to make such advertisement in any action heretofore brought under said section is hereby ratified, confirmed and approved, and, despite such failure, such action, with respect to defendants served with process in such action, either by personal service or service by publication, is hereby validated to the same extent as if said advertisement had been made.
§ 105-396. Foreign corporations not exempt.—Nothing in this subchapter shall be construed to exempt from taxation at the value prescribed by law any property situated in this State belonging to any foreign corporation, unless the context clearly indicates the intent to grant such exemption. (1939, c. 310, s. 1800.)

As to right of State to tax foreign corporations, see Commissioners v. Old Dominion Steamship Co., 128 N. C. 558, 39 S. E. 18 (1901).

§ 105-397. General purpose of subchapter.—It is the purpose of this subchapter except as otherwise herein provided to provide the machinery for the listing and valuing of property, and the levy and collection of taxes, for the year one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine, and annually thereafter, and to that end this subchapter shall be liberally construed, subject to the provisions set out in Schedule H, §§ 105-198 to 105-217. (1939, c. 310, s. 1802.)

Article 29.

Validation of Listings.

§ 105-398. Real property listings validated.—Listings of any real estate not otherwise listed, which have been carried forward on the tax list of any person by the county supervisor of taxation, list taker or assessor, at the same assessed value of said property as it was valued at in the last quadrennial assessment of taxes, unless the value thereof has been changed by the board of county commissioners as provided by law, are hereby validated, and are hereby declared to be legal and valid listings of the same as if listed by the owner or owner's agent or by the chairman of the board of county commissioners or otherwise, as provided by law.

This section shall be retroactive so as to include the period of time from the first day of May, one thousand nine hundred twenty-seven, to and including the eleventh day of May, one thousand nine hundred thirty-five.

The counties of Alamance, Ashe, Beaufort, Bertie, Brunswick, Cabarrus, Cam-
§ 105-399. Subchapter to remain in force. — The provisions of this subchapter shall continue in force whether or not brought forward in subsequent acts to raise revenue or acts to provide for the assessment and collection of taxes, commonly called “revenue acts” and “machinery acts,” unless and until expressly repealed or amended by, or clearly inconsistent with, subsequent legislation; it being the intention of the General Assembly that this subchapter shall be a standing provision for the government of the matters embraced herein, and not to be repealed by implication because omitted in whole or in part from subsequent legislation on the subject of taxation. (Rev., s. 2849; C. S., s. 7972.)

§ 105-400. Application and construction. — The provisions of this subchapter shall apply to all taxes as defined in this chapter, whether State, county, town, city, or other municipal subdivision; and shall be liberally construed in favor of, and in furtherance of, the collection of such taxes. (Rev., s. 2850; C. S., s. 7973.)

§ 105-401. Terms defined. — Unless such construction or definition would be manifestly inconsistent with or repugnant to the context, the words and phrases following, whenever used in this subchapter, shall be construed to include in their meaning the definitions set opposite the same in this section:

1. "Tax," "taxes." Any taxes, special assessments or costs, interest or penalty imposed upon property or polls.
2. "He." Male, female, company, corporation, firm, society, singular or plural number.
3. "Real property." Real estate, land, tract, lot—not only the land itself, whether laid out in town or city lots or otherwise with all things therein, but also all buildings, structures, and improvements and other permanent fixtures of whatever kind thereon, and all rights and privileges belonging or in any wise appertaining thereto, and all estates therein.
4. "Sheriff." Every person who is by law authorized to collect taxes, either State or municipal. (Rev., s. 2851; C. S., s. 7974.)

§ 105-402. Sheriff includes tax collector. — Whenever in this chapter a duty is imposed upon the sheriff of a county of which a tax collector has been or may be appointed, it shall be incumbent upon the tax collector to perform such office instead of the sheriff, and such tax collector shall collect all the taxes, have all the emoluments and be subject to all the penalties as provided in case of sheriffs in this chapter, and it shall be the duty of all persons having tax moneys in hand to account for and settle with such tax collector. (Rev., s. 5263; 1917, c. 234, s. 111; 1919, c. 92, s. 111; C. S., s. 7975.)

§ 105-403. No taxes released. — No board of county commissioners, or council, or board of aldermen or commissioners of any city or town shall have power to release, discharge, remit, or commute any portion of the taxes assessed and levied against any person or property within their respective jurisdictions.
§ 105-404. Uncollected inheritance taxes remitted after twenty years.—All inheritance taxes levied by the State which remain uncollected twenty years or more after the death of the person upon whose estate said taxes were levied shall be, and they are hereby remitted. The provisions of this section shall be retroactive from the date of its enactment. (1935, c. 483; 1949, c. 605.)

Editor's Note.—The 1949 amendment added the second sentence.

§ 105-405: Repealed by Session Laws 1963, c. 548.

§ 105-405.1. Governing boards of counties, cities and towns authorized to refund taxes illegally collected.—The board of county commissioners of any county or the governing body of any city or town, upon the passage and recording in the minutes of a proper resolution finding as a fact that any funds received by such municipality were required to be paid through clerical error or by a tax illegally levied and assessed, is authorized and empowered to remit and refund the same upon the taxpayer making demand in writing to the proper board for such remission and refund within two years from the date the same was due to be paid. (1943, c. 709.)

Local Modification.—Cumberland and city of Fayetteville: 1959, c. 676.

§ 105-406. Remedy of taxpayer for unauthorized tax.—Unless a tax or assessment, or some part thereof, be illegal or invalid, or be levied or assessed for an illegal or unauthorized purpose, no injunction shall be granted by any court or judge to restrain the collection thereof in whole or in part, nor to restrain the sale of any property for the nonpayment thereof; nor shall any court issue any order in claim and delivery proceedings or otherwise for the taking of any personalty levied on by the sheriff to enforce payment of such tax or assessment against the owner thereof. Whenever any person shall claim to have a valid defense to the enforcement of a tax or assessment charged or assessed upon his property or poll, such person shall pay such tax or assessment to the sheriff; but if, at the time of such payment, he shall notify the sheriff in writing that he pays the same under protest, such payment shall be without prejudice to any defenses or rights he may have in the premises, and he may, at any time within thirty days after such payment, demand the same in writing from the treasurer of the State or of the county, city, or town, for the benefit or under the authority or by request of which the same was levied; and if the same shall not be refunded within ninety days thereafter, may sue such county, city, or town for the amount so demanded, including in his action against the county both State and county tax; and if upon the trial it shall be determined that such tax or any part thereof was levied or assessed for an illegal or unauthorized purpose, or was for any reason invalid or excessive, judgment shall be rendered therefor, with interest, and the same shall be collected as in other cases. The amount of State taxes for which judgment shall be rendered in such action shall be refunded by the State Treasurer. (1901, c. 558, s. 30; Rev., s. 2855; C. S., s. 7979.)

Cross Reference.—For later statute as to suits for recovery of taxes paid under protest, see § 105-267.

Ordinarily the sovereign may not be denied or delayed in the enforcement of its right to collect revenue upon which its very existence depends. This rule applies to municipalities and other subdivisions of the State government. If a tax is levied against a taxpayer which he deems unauthorized or unlawful, he must pay the same under protest and then sue for its recovery. And if the statute provides an administrative remedy, he must first exhaust that remedy before resorting to the courts for relief. Moreover, as broad and comprehensive as it is, even the Declaratory Judgment Act does not supersede the rule or provide an additional or concurrent remedy. Bragg Development Co. v. Braxton, 239 N. C. 427, 79 S. E. (2d) 918 (1954).

Adequate Remedy at Law.—Under this section the taxpayer has an adequate remedy at law by first paying the tax and then suing to recover it. Henrietta Mills v. Rutherford County, 281 U. S. 121, 50 S. C. 270, 74 L. Ed. 757 (1930); Fox v. Board of Com'rs, 244 N. C. 497, 94 S. E. (2d) 482 (1956).

Exclusiveness of Statutory Remedy. — The taxpayer is restricted to the remedy provided by the statute, and, in order to avail himself of it, he must comply with all the requirements thereof. Railroad Co. v. Reidsville, 109 N. C. 494, 13 S. E. 865 (1891); Wilson v. Green, 135 N. C. 343, 47 S. E. 469 (1904). Assumpsit for money had and received does not lie to recover improperly listed taxables. Huggins v. Hinson, 61 N. C. 126 (1867).

Quo warranto is the sole remedy to test the validity of an election to public office, but not to test the validity of a tax even though it is levied under the authority of a popular election. Barbee v. Board of Com'rs, 210 N. C. 717, 188 S. E. 314 (1936).

Where a corporation, under Laws 1925, c. 102, submitted its report to the State Board of Assessment, and the Board in accordance with the statute certified to the register of deeds of the county where the property was situated the corporate excess liable for local taxation, the exclusive remedy of the corporation if dissatisfied with the report of the Board was to file exceptions with the Board in accordance with the statute, with the right of appeal from the Board upon a hearing by it, and the corporation could not pay the tax under protest and seek to recover it under the provisions of this section. Manufacturing Co. v. Commissioners of Fender, 196 N. C. 744, 147 S. E. 284 (1929).

Where a town ordinance imposes a license tax upon those selling at wholesale or peddling therein, and provides that its violation be punishable as a misdemeanor, the remedy to test the validity of the ordinance is to pay the tax under protest and bring action to recover it back, in accordance with this section, and equity will not enjoin the town from executing its threat to arrest for violations of the ordinance, it not appearing that the plaintiff would be irreparably damaged by the payment of the tax, and the legal remedy to recover the tax affording adequate relief. Loose-Wiles Biscuit Co. v. Senford, 200 N. C. 467, 157 S. E. 432 (1931).

A compliance with this section is a prerequisite to a right of action for the recovery of taxes or any part thereof. Taxes paid voluntarily and without objection or compulsion cannot be recovered, even though the tax be levied unlawfully. Middleton v. Wilmington, etc., R. Co., 224 N. C. 309, 30 S. E. (2d) 42 (1944).

Payment under Protest. — Where the owner resists the payment of taxes as unlawful, he is required to pay them under his protest and sue to recover them. Carstarphen v. Plymouth, 168 N. C. 90, 118 S. E. 905 (1914); Galloway v. Board of Education, 164 N. C. 245, 114 S. E. 153 (1922). See also, State v. Snipes, 161 N. C. 242, 76 S. E. 243 (1912).

To test the legality of a tax imposed, the taxpayer should pay the same and sue to recover it in accordance with the provisions of this section. Southeastern Express Co. v. Charlotte, 186 N. C. 668, 129 S. E. 475 (1923).

Written Demand for Refund.—The General Assembly, as far back as 1887, enacted that demand for the return of taxes must be made within thirty days after payment, and it was held in Railroad Co. v. Reidsville, 109 N. C. 494, 13 S. E. 865 (1891), and Teeter v. Wallace, 138 N. C. 264, 50 S. E. 701 (1905), that the statute applied to all taxes, that the remedy provided was exclusive, and that a failure to make demand within the time prescribed was fatal to the right to maintain an action to recover the tax. Blackwell v. Gastonia, 181 N. C. 378, 107 S. E. 218 (1921).

The requirement of demand is not confined to claim for refunding any particular tax or taxes alleged to be invalid on any particular account. Railroad Co. v. Reidsville, 109 N. C. 494, 13 S. E. 865 (1891).

Same; Right to Sue.—Upon the failure of the county treasurer to refund within 90 days, the person so paying the tax may maintain an action against the county, including in his demand both the State and county taxes. Brunswick-Balke Co. v. Mecklenburg, 181 N. C. 386, 107 S. E. 317 (1921).

Same; Further Demand under § 153-64 Unnecessary.—When the party has complied with the condition of this section he has a present right of action for the recovery of the tax without the necessity of having made the presentation and demands to the proper municipal authorities referred to in § 153-64. Southern R. Co. v. Cherokee County, 177 N. C. 86, 97 S. E. 758 (1919); Atlantic Coast Line R. Co. v. Brunswick County, 178 N. C. 254, 100 S. E. 428 (1919).

Same; Alleging Demand.—A complaint which fails to allege that the demand was made within thirty days is insufficient on demurrer. Railroad Co. v. Reidsville, 109 N. C. 494, 13 S. E. 865 (1891). See Hunt v. Cooper, 194 N. C. 265, 139 S. E. 446 (1927).

When Injunction Will Lie.—Injunction is the appropriate relief to prevent the collection of an illegal and invalid tax. This constitutes the exception in the statute and gives the taxpayer an additional remedy (see Purnell v. Page, 133 N. C. 125, 45 S. E. 534 (1903)) to test the validity of a tax. Range Co. v. Carver, 116 N. C. 328, 24 S. E. 352 (1899), but only the collection of the tax will be enjoined, until the merits of the controversy can be determined. North Carolina Railroad Co. v. Com'r's, 82 N. C. 260 (1880).

An injunction will lie to restrain the collection of taxes and to restrain the sale of property under distraint, for three reasons, to wit: (1) If the taxes or any part thereof be assessed for an illegal or unauthorized purpose. (2) If the tax itself be illegal or invalid. (3) If the assessment of the tax be illegal or invalid. (Purnell v. Page, 133 N. C. 125, 45 S. E. 534 (1903); Sherrod v. Dawson, 154 N. C. 525, 70 S. E. 739 (1911).

The remedy of injunction is available to a taxpayer when a tax levy or assessment, or some part thereof, is challenged on the ground (1) the tax or assessment is itself illegal or invalid, or (2) for an illegal or unauthorized purpose. Wynn v. Trustees of Charlotte Community College System, 255 N. C. 594, 122 S. E. (2d) 404 (1961).

Same; Failure to Give Taxpayer Notice.—An injunction will be granted to the taxpayer when a tax levy or assessment, or some part thereof, is challenged on the ground (1) the tax or assessment is itself illegal or invalid, or (2) for an illegal or unauthorized purpose. Lumber Co. v. Smith, 146 N. C. 199, 59 S. E. 653 (1907).

Same; Special Assessment for Improvements.—Where an owner of a town lot resists payment of an assessment of his property for the cost of paving or laying down a sidewalk on the ground of excessive cost, discrimination, or for other causes, the remedy of injunction is an improper one, for the owner should pay, under protest, the assessment levied and bring his action to recover it or the excess over a proper charge. Marion v. Pilot Mountain, 170 N. C. 118, 87 S. E. 53 (1915).

Same; Levy for School Purposes.—Injunctive relief is not available to the taxpayers of a county, where a tax levy for school purposes has been made, when it appears that under the levy complained of the moneys have been raised and distributed to the branches of government entitled thereto, some of which are not parties to the suit. Semble, the only remedy for the injured taxpayers is to pay the illegal tax under protest and sue to recover the same, as provided by statute. Galloway v. Board, 184 N. C. 245, 114 S. E. 165 (1922).

Parties to Suit for Injunction.—The sheriff is the proper party defendant to a suit to enjoin the collection of taxes, but the commissioners may make themselves parties if they think the rights of the county require it. Lumber Co. v. Smith, 146 N. C. 199, 59 S. E. 653 (1907).

Necessary Allegations.—In order to en-
§ 105-407. Refund of taxes illegally collected and paid into State treasury.—Whenever taxes of any kind are or have been through clerical error, or misinterpretation of the law, or otherwise, collected and paid into the State treasury in excess of the amount legally due the State, the State Auditor shall issue his warrant for the amount so illegally collected, to the person entitled thereto, upon certificate of the head of the department through which said taxes were collected or his successor in the performance of the functions of that department, with the approval of the Attorney General, and the Treasurer shall pay the same out of any funds in the treasury not otherwise appropriated: Provided, demand is made for the correction of such error or errors within two years from the time of such payment. (Ex. Sess. 1921, c. 96; C. S., s. 7979(a).)

Cross References.—As to refund of overpayment with interest, see § 105-266. As to suits for recovery of taxes paid under protest, see § 105-207.

This section is specifically limited to State taxes. It has no application to local taxing units. Victory Cab Co. v. Charlotte, 234 N. C. 572, 68 S. E. (2d) 433 (1951).

The difference between this section and § 105-267 is this: When a refund is ordered under this section, simply upon demand and notice by the taxpayer, no interest is allowed, but when the demand for a refund is denied, and the taxpayer is required to bring suit, and recovers, it is provided that “judgment shall be rendered therefor, with interest.” This is a reasonable difference between the two statutes. Cannon v. Maxwell, 205 N. C. 420, 171 S. E. 624 (1933).

Where the Commissioner of Revenue, with the approval of the Attorney General, orders a refund of taxes paid under protest in accordance with this section, merely upon demand and notice of the taxpayer, no suit having been brought to recover the taxes, the taxpayer is not entitled to interest on the amount refunded. Cannon v. Maxwell, 205 N. C. 420, 171 S. E. 624 (1933). See § 105-266, providing for refund of overpayment with interest.

Article 31.

Rights of Parties Adjusted.

§ 105-408. Taxes paid in judicial sales and sales under powers.—In all civil actions and special proceedings wherein the sale of any real estate shall be ordered, the judgment shall provide for the payment of all taxes then assessed upon the property and remaining unpaid, and for the payment of such sums as may be required to redeem the property, if it has been sold for taxes and such redemption can be had; all of which payments shall be adjudged to be made out of the proceeds of sale. The judgment shall adjust the disbursements for such taxes and expenses of redemption from tax sales between the parties to the action or proceeding in accordance with their respective rights. And whenever any real estate shall be sold by any person under any power of sale conferred upon him by any deed, will, power of attorney, mortgage, deed of trust, or assignment for the benefit of creditors, the person making such sale must pay out of the proceeds of sale all taxes then due and unpaid upon such real estate and such sums as shall be necessary to redeem the land, if it has been sold for taxes and such redemption is practicable, unless the notice of sale provided that the property would be sold subject to taxes or special assessments thereon and the property was so sold. This section shall apply both to taxes and special assessments for paving, drainage, or other improvements; provided, that the person making such sale, whether under order of court or in the exercise of a power, shall be required, in cases where special assessments are payable in installments, to pay only such installments of special assessments as have become due at the date of such sale. The failure to comply with this section and pay such taxes or assessments shall not vacate or affect the lien of such taxes or assessments, but such lien shall be discharged only to the extent payment is actually made.

Cross Reference.—As to lien of mortgagee who pays taxes, see § 105-409 and note thereto.

Editor's Note.—The 1929 amendment added the last two sentences of this section.

The 1951 amendment substituted "due and unpaid" for "assessed" in the third sentence, and added at the end thereof "unless the notice of sale provided that the property would be sold subject to taxes or special assessments thereon and the property was so sold."

The object of this section is to assure the payment of all tax liens on the property in one action, so that the purchaser will obtain title free of any lien for taxes assessed at any time before final judgment. Boone v. Sparrow, 235 N. C. 396, 70 S. E. (2d) 204 (1952).

The object of the law embraced in this section and § 105-409 is not only to preserve the property for the benefit of all interested parties, but to pass a clear title to the purchaser when it is sold. This being the true purpose, an order directing a commissioner to pay "all such taxes and assessments as are and have been levied" thereon is valid. Smith v. Miller, 158 N. C. 98, 73 S. E. 118 (1911).

This section creates an alternative remedy in behalf of the tax agency, and it may look to the trustee or mortgagee for the payment required by this section or it may waive that remedy and resort to a foreclosure of the tax lien. New Hanover County v. Sidbury, 225 N. C. 679, 36 S. E. (2d) 242 (1945).

Tax Lien Transferred to Proceeds of Sale.—By this section, a judicial sale of land, as between the purchaser and the parties to the proceeding, transfers the lien of a designated class of tax accruals to the proceeds of sale in exoneration of the land. Holt v. May, 235 N. C. 46, 68 S. E. (2d) 775 (1952).

This section contemplates the payment, out of the proceeds of the sale, of only such taxes as are assessed when the sale is made. To assess a tax is to fix the proportion which each person among those who are liable to it has to pay; to fix or settle a sum to be paid by way of a tax; to charge with a tax. An assessment or levy of a tax is essential to its certainty. Holt v. May, 235 N. C. 46, 68 S. E. (2d) 775 (1952).

A judicial sale is not deemed made as contemplated by this section until it is confirmed. Holt v. May, 235 N. C. 46, 68 S. E. (2d) 775 (1952).

Where tax levies have been made by both the city and the county before the order of confirmation was entered, the taxes of both taxing units should have been paid out of the proceeds of sale. Holt v. May, 235 N. C. 46, 68 S. E. (2d) 775 (1952).

Duty of Commissioners to Pay Taxes.—Upon the sale of property by commissioners appointed by the court to sell land, the commissioners had the duty to pay the taxes assessed or assessable against the property sold. Rand v. Wilson County, 243 N. C. 43, 89 S. E. (2d) 779 (1955).

The rule that taxes assessed at the death of decedent come within the third class for payment (§ 28-105) is not affected by the provisions of this section, requiring that taxes assessed against the property should be paid from the proceeds of foreclosure sale. Farmville Oil, etc., Co. v. Bourne, 205 N. C. 337, 171 S. E. 368 (1933).

Foreclosure of Mortgage.—Land sold on the foreclosure of a mortgage is liable for § 105-409  Tax paid by holder of lien; remedy.—Any person having a lien or encumbrance of any kind upon real estate may pay the taxes due by the owner thereof in so far as the same are a lien upon such real estate, and the amount of taxes so paid shall, from the time of payment, operate as a lien upon such real estate in preference to all other liens, which lien may be enforced by action in the superior court in term. The money so paid may also be recovered by action for moneys paid to his use against the person legally liable for the payment of such taxes. (1879, c. 71, s. 55; Code, s. 3700; 1901, c. 558, s. 46; Rev., s. 2855; C. S., s. 7981.)

Purpose of Section.—This section was enacted for the benefit and protection of holders of notes and bonds secured by deeds of trust or mortgages, and it vests them with the right, at their election, to pay taxes due on the property to protect their security, but imposes no duty upon them to do so for the protection of the trustor. Redic v. Mechanics & Farmers Bank, 241 N. C. 152, 84 S. E. (2d) 542 (1954). See note to § 105-408.

Where the holder of a note secured by a deed of trust purchases the land at a tax foreclosure, but does not go into possession or collect the rents and profits from the land until after trustor has been divested of any interest in the land by such tax foreclosure, the transaction creates no equity in favor of trustor, and trustor is not entitled to impress a trust upon the creditor's title or enforce an accounting under the provisions of this section. Redic v. Mechanics & Farmers Bank, 241 N. C. 152, 84 S. E. (2d) 542 (1954).

Lien of Mortgagee.—Money paid by a mortgagee to acquire a tax title on the mortgaged lands becomes a lien on the land. But his purchase of the tax title does not deprive the mortgagor of his equity of redemption. Cauley v. Sutton, 150 N. C. 327, 64 S. E. 3 (1909). As to duty of mortgagee to pay taxes, see Wooten v. Sugg, 114 N. C. 295, 19 S. E. 148 (1894). And see note to § 105-408.

§ 105-410. Forfeiture by life tenant failing to pay.—Every person shall be liable for the taxes assessed or charged upon the property or estate, real or personal, of which he is tenant for life. If any tenant for life of real estate shall suffer the same to be sold for taxes by reason of his neglect or refusal to pay the taxes thereon, and shall fail to redeem the same within one year after such sale, he shall thereby forfeit his life estate to the remainderman or reversioner. The remainderman or reversioner may redeem such lands, in the same manner that is provided for the redemption of other lands. Moreover, such remainderman or reversioner may redeem such lands, in the same manner that is provided for the redemption of other lands. Moreover, such remainderman or reversioner shall have the right to recover of such tenant for life all damages sustained by reason of such neglect or refusal on the part of such tenant for life. If any tenant for life of personal property suffer the same to be sold for taxes by reason of any default of his, he shall be liable in damages to the remainderman or reversioner. (1879, c. 71, ss. 53, 54; Code, ss. 3698, 3699; 1901, c. 558, s. 45; Rev., s. 2859; C. S., s. 7982.)

Later Enactment Affecting Section.—In considering this section and the cases construing it, the changes made in the tax foreclosure laws by Public Laws 1939, c.

Ch. 105. Taxation

When Remainderman May Exercise Right.—In Smith v. Miller, 158 N. C. 98, 73 S. E. 118 (1911), the court raises the question whether or not the remainderman or reversioner, in operating under this section, must wait until there is a sale and the accumulation of costs and expenses, before he can exercise his right to redeem. The court says that the evident purpose of this section is that if the life tenant does not pay, and thereby exposes the land to sale, he may intervene and prevent a sale by paying the tax.

It is not required that a remainderman should settle for the taxes against the property before bringing action against the life tenant under this section, to have her estate forfeited for allowing the property to be sold for taxes and failing to redeem same within the time prescribed by law. Bryan v. Bryan, 206 N. C. 464, 174 S. E. 289 (1934).

Payment after Suit Instituted Does Not Affect Forfeiture.—Where a life tenant has permitted the lands to be sold for non-payment of taxes and has failed to redeem same within one year of sale, the remaindermen are entitled to have the life estate declared forfeited in their suit thereafter instituted and the fact that after the institution of the suit the life tenant pays the taxes, interests and penalties, does not affect the forfeiture. Cooper v. Cooper, 220 N. C. 490, 17 S. E. (2d) 655 (1941).

Nor Does Insufficient Description on Tax List.—A life tenant who has forfeited her estate by failing to redeem the land within one year after sale of the tax lien by the sheriff cannot be permitted to avoid the forfeiture on the ground of the insufficiency of the description of the property on the tax list, since she herself listed the property for taxation and could not have been misled by an alleged insufficiency in the description. Cooper v. Cooper, 221 N. C. 124, 19 S. E. (2d) 237 (1942).

Taxes Constitute Claim against Life Tenant’s Estate.—A life tenant is liable for taxes assessed against the property during his lifetime, and when he dies without paying the same they constitute a claim against his estate for taxes assessed previous to his death within the meaning of § 28-105, and are payable in the third class stipulated by that section. Rigsbee v. Brogden, 209 N. C. 510, 184 S. E. 24 (1936).

Set-Off.—Where a life tenant, whose estate has been forfeited for failure to pay taxes on the property, has a judgment for debt against the remaindermen, the remaindermen may be allowed to offset the un-
§ 105-411. Remedies of cotenants and joint owners. — Any one of several tenants in common, or joint tenants or copartners shall have the right to pay his share of the taxes assessed or due upon the real estate held jointly or in common, or, if such estate has been sold for taxes, he may redeem his share by paying his proportionate part of the amount required for redeeming the whole. Where he has paid his share of the taxes or amount required for the redemption and the land has been or shall be divided by actual partition the share set apart to him in severalty shall be free from the lien of, and shall not be liable to be subjected in any manner to, the payment of the residue of taxes assessed upon such property; but such residue of taxes and the costs and penalties incident thereto shall be a lien upon the residue of such real estate, which residue shall be subjected to the satisfaction thereof; and when he has paid his share of the taxes, or amount necessary to redeem, and the real estate is sold under judicial proceedings for partition, his share of the proceeds shall not be diminished by disbursements for the residue of such taxes or for redeeming the property, and the costs and penalties incident thereto. Any such part owner in real estate shall have the right to pay the whole of the taxes assessed thereon and all costs and penalties incident to such taxes, and to redeem such real estate as a whole when it has been sold for taxes, and all sums by him so paid in excess of his share of such taxes, costs, and penalties and amounts required for redemption, shall constitute a lien upon the shares of his cotenants or associates, payment whereof, with interest, he may enforce in proceedings for partition, actual or by sale, or in any other appropriate judicial proceeding. When one tenant in common, joint tenant, or copartner shall have paid his proportionate part of the taxes, as allowed by this section, before a sale for taxes, the sheriff shall except his undivided interest from the sale and in the certificate of sale and deed for the property. (1901, c. 558, ss. 13, 14, 47; Rev., s. 2860; C. S., s. 7983.)

Payment by One Tenant in Common.—One tenant in common may pay his or her part of the tax and let the other share go, and three years’ possession by the purchaser under the tax deed bars the former rightful owner, under G. S. § 1-52, subsection 10. Ruark v. Harper, 178 N. C. 249, 100 S. E. 584 (1919).

Petitioners in a proceeding for sale of land for partition may not object to the allowance of a sum advanced by one of the parties to pay taxes on the property, as provided by this section, when there is no exception or appeal entered of record by the testator’s administrator. Everton v. Rodgers, 206 N. C. 115, 173 S. E. 48 (1934).

Where One Tenant in Possession.—This section refers to cases where all the tenants are on the same footing, all or none being in possession. It does not authorize one tenant in common to take title for the whole tract, nor does it apply to a case where one tenant was in possession for all. Smith v. Smith, 150 N. C. 81, 63 S. E. 177 (1908).

Stated in Franklin County v. Jones, 245 N. C. 272, 95 S. E. (2d) 863 (1957).

cestui que trust for all actual damages incident to such neglect. This section shall not have the effect of relieving the estates held in trust or under the control of fiduciaries from the lien of such taxes. (1762, c. 69, s. 14; R. Order Directing Payment of Taxes.—An order directing the trustee to pay taxes on a house and lot and to keep same in repair, even though the comparatively small amount necessary therefor would be at the expense of the beneficiaries under the residuary trust, is proper, such construction of the will being necessary to effectuate the primary purpose of testator to provide a home for life for his aged and crippled employee. Latta v. McCorkle, 213 N. C. 508, 196 S. E. 847 (1938).

§ 105-413. Tax lien on railroad property. — The taxes upon any and all railroads in this State, including roadbed, right of way, depots, sidetracks, ties and rails, now constructed or hereafter to be constructed, are hereby made a perpetual lien thereupon, commencing from the first day of May in each current year, against all claims or demands whatsoever of all persons or bodies corporate, except the United States and this State; and the above described property or any part thereof may be taken and held for payment of all taxes assessed against such railroad company in the several counties in this State. (Rev., ss. 2865, 5296; 1917, c. 234, 098 pul 919)c..92; 51.98 3C. S.,ss.

§ 105-414. Tax lien enforced by action to foreclose. — A lien upon real estate for taxes or assessments due thereon may be enforced by an action in the nature of an action to foreclose a mortgage, in which action the court shall order a sale of such real estate, or so much thereof as shall be necessary for that purpose, for the satisfaction of the amount adjudged to be due on such lien, together with interest, penalties, and costs allowed by law, and the costs of such action. When such lien is in favor of the State or county, or both, such action shall be prosecuted by and in the name of the county; when the lien is in favor of any other municipal corporation the action shall be prosecuted by and in the name of such corporation. When such lien is in favor of any private individual or private corporation holding a certificate of tax sale or deed under a tax sale, whether as original purchaser at a tax sale or as assignee of the county or other municipal corporation or of any other holder thereof, such action shall be prosecuted in the name of the real party in interest. Persons who have disappeared or who cannot be located and persons whose name and whereabouts are unknown and all possible heirs or assignees of such persons may be served by publication; and such persons, their heirs and assignees may be designated by general description in such actions. It is hereby declared that service of summons by publication against such persons, in the manner provided by law, shall be as valid in all respects as such service against known persons who are nonresidents of this State. (1901, c. 558, ss. 42, 43; Rev., s. 2866; C. S., s. 7990; 1957, c. 1253.)

Local Modification.—Wayne: Pub. Loc. 1939, c. 190.

Cross Reference. - For subsequent statute governing foreclosure of tax lien, see § 105-391.
The very purpose of an action brought under this section is to foreclose the interest of the owners, sell all the right and title of the taxpayer, and enable the purchaser at the sale to ascertain what title it is that he buys. Wilmington v. Merrick, 231 N. C. 297, 56 S. E. (2d) 643 (1949).

An action under this section is founded on the original tax lien and not upon a tax certificate of sale as in §§ 105-391, 105-392. When the action is instituted under this section it must be conducted as in case of a foreclosure of a mortgage as modified by § 105-395. Boone v. Sparrow, 235 N. C. 396, 70 S. E. (2d) 294 (1952).

Prescribed Remedy Optional with State. — The fact that the Revenue Act prescribes a specific remedy for the collection of taxes does not restrict the State to pursue that method, nor preclude it from seeking the aid of the superior court through a creditor's suit. The specific remedy pointed out restricts only the officers who collect only the revenue and not the sovereign. State v. Georgia Co., 112 N. C. 34, 17 S. E. 10 (1893).

Summary Proceeding Unnecessary. — Where the legislature has authorized a municipality to collect back taxes, and in an action for that purpose it appears that the taxes of the defendant are due, and were properly assessed against lots of land within the limits of the municipality subject to the lien therefor it is not necessary that the plaintiff should first have resorted to the summary method of levy and sale, for recourse may be had directly by suit to foreclose the lien, under this section. Wilmington v. Moore, 170 N. C. 52, 86 S. E. 775 (1915); Commission v. Epley, 190 N. C. 672, 130 S. E. 497 (1925).

Tax Collector Has No Lien Where Check Returned Unpaid. — The fact that a county tax collector accepted a check in payment for taxes, and the check was returned unpaid, and the collector in his settlement with the county paid the taxes in question, does not give him a lien which may be enforced under this section. The collector having failed to correct the tax record so as to show the check returned and the taxes unpaid, the tax lien was not reinstated. Miller v. Neal, 222 N. C. 540, 23 S. E. (2d) 832 (1943).

Necessary Parties. — In an action to foreclose a tax lien under this section all persons having an interest in the equity of redemption must be made parties by name, G. S. 105-391 (e) not being applicable, and judgment rendered in such proceeding is void as to persons having such interest who are not made parties. Wilmington v. Merrick, 231 N. C. 297, 56 S. E. (2d) 643 (1949).

The owner of the remainder subject to a life estate is a necessary party in an action to foreclose a tax lien under this section. Board of Com'rs v. Bumpass, 233 N. C. 190, 63 S. E. (2d) 144 (1951).

In an action to enforce the lien for taxes under this section, each person having an estate in the land is a necessary party if his equity of redemption is to be barred, and where at the time of the institution of the proceeding the persons named in the summons and complaint as owners of the land are dead, and their heirs or devisees are not made parties, judgment of foreclosure and sale of the land thereunder cannot divest the title of the heirs or devisees. Page v. Miller, 252 N. C. 23, 113 S. E. (2d) 52 (1960).

The receiver of a drainage district may proceed in an action in the nature of an action to foreclose a mortgage under this section for the collection of such drainage assessments. Nesbit v. Kafer, 222 N. C. 48, 21 S. E. (2d) 903 (1942).

Statute of Limitations. — The cases under this catchline were decided prior to the 1947 amendment to § 105-422.

The action provided by this section is as one upon a judgment to foreclose a lien and is not barred within ten years. The statute providing that an action on a liability created by statute shall be brought within three years has no application. Drainage District v. Huffstetler, 173 N. C. 523, 92 S. E. 368 (1917). This is on the well settled principle that statutes of limitation, even if applicable to a given case, do not apply to the sovereign unless it is expressly named therein. New Hanover County v. Whiteman, 190 N. C. 332, 189 S. E. 808 (1935). See also Charlotte v. Kavanaugh, 221 N. C. 259, 20 S. E. (2d) 97 (1942).

Whether the lien be a plain lien arising from the bare purchase at the sale or payment of taxes or such as may be evidenced by a certificate of sale executed by the proper officers, the sovereign may proceed under this section to foreclose the lien, in which event no statute of limitations is applicable. Logan v. Griffith, 205 N. C. 580, 172 S. E. 348 (1934).

In view of the fact that this section contains no limitation of action, the maxim that time does not bar the sovereign still subsists as the law in this State, at least in respect to collection of taxes. Miller v. McConnell, 226 N. C. 25, 36 S. E. (2d) 722 (1946).
Same; Action to Foreclose Lien for Public Improvements.—In a suit under this section, to foreclose a statutory lien on abutting property given a city for street improvements, all installments of the amounts assessed therefor which are ten years overdue when action is brought are barred by the statute of limitations under § 160-93, and no part of the proceeds of sale can be applied to the payment of such installments. Raleigh v. Mechanics, etc., Bank, 223 N. C. 256, 26 S. E. (2d) 573 (1943). See §§ 105-432.

An action to enforce the lien for public improvements, even though instituted under this section, is barred after ten years from default in the payment of the assessments, or, if the assessments are payable in installments, each installment is barred after ten years from default in payment of same unless the time for payment has been extended as provided by law. Charlotte v. Kavanaugh, 221 N. C. 259, 20 S. E. (2d) 97 (1942); distinguishing Asheboro v. Morris, 212 N. C. 331, 193 S. E. 424 (1937).

Where a municipality elects to enforce a lien against land for paving assessments by action under this section, no statute of limitations is applicable, and the pleadings in this action are held sufficient to bring the action within the procedure under this statute. Asheboro v. Morris, 212 N. C. 331, 193 S. E. 424 (1937). But see Charlotte v. Kavanaugh, 221 N. C. 259, 20 S. E. (2d) 97 (1942); Raleigh v. Mechanics, etc., Bank, 223 N. C. 286, 26 S. E. (2d) 573 (1943).

Where tax liens for certain years have been barred by another statute, this section does not afford a remedy. Raleigh v. Jordan, 218 N. C. 55, 9 S. E. (2d) 507 (1940), decided under the former wording of § 105-422, which destroyed tax liens for 1926 and prior years.

The notice must correctly name or describe the parties defendant served by the publication in order for the court to acquire jurisdiction. Board of Com’rs v. Gaines, 221 N. C. 324, 20 S. E. (2d) 377 (1942).

Failure of the affidavit for service by publication to state the cause of action cannot be cured by the complaint filed in the action when the affidavit and complaint are not filed simultaneously and it appears affirmatively that the complaint was not considered as the basis of the clerk’s findings. Whether a complaint which does not mention the remainderman in its body and is ambiguous in setting out her interest, states a cause of action against her in a tax foreclosure, quaere? Board of Com’rs v. Bumpass, 233 N. C. 190, 63 S. E. (2d) 144 (1951).

Alias Summons.—In an action to enforce a lien for public improvements it was held that the allegations constituted the action one to foreclose the original lien under this section, notwithstanding that a purported alias summons was issued 91 days after the institution of the action, as permitted in an action instituted under repealed C. S. § 8037, since the nature of an action is determined by the allegations of the complaint and not by the time the purported alias summons was issued. Asheboro v. Miller, 220 N. C. 298, 17 S. E. (2d) 105 (1941).

Class Representation of Contingent Remaindermen.—In an action under this section to enforce the lien for taxes against lands affected by a contingent limitation over, in which each class of contingent remaindermen is represented by defendants actually served and answering, the judgment is binding upon all contingent remaindermen by class representation. Rodman v. Norman, 221 N. C. 320, 20 S. E. (2d) 294 (1942).

Consolidation of Actions.—Where actions are pending in the same court, at the same time, between the same parties and involving substantially the same facts, they may be consolidated. The principle applies to tax foreclosure suits. McIver Park, Inc. v. Brinn, 223 N. C. 502, 27 S. E. (2d) 548 (1943).

Taxes Not Subject to Set-Off or Counterclaim.—Taxes are not debts in the ordinary sense of the word and they do not rest upon contract or consent of the taxpayer. Pleas of set-off and counterclaim are not allowed because to do so would delay the collection and payment of taxes, and would deprive the government of means of performing its functions. Graded School v. McDowell 157 N. C. 316, 72 S. E. 1083 (1911); Commissioners v. Hall, 177 N. C. 490, 99 S. E. 372 (1919).

In a suit by a town against defendants to foreclose a tax lien under this section, where defendants set up defense by answer and also a counterclaim, motion to strike the counterclaim and order thereon was proper, but the other defenses were unaffected thereby. Apex v. Templeton, 223 N. C. 320, 20 S. E. (2d) 617 (1943).

Taxes Due after Commencement of Action.—Where a county brings suit to foreclose a tax lien on the lands of the taxpayer and draws its complaint according to the provisions of this section, other taxes due after the commencement of the action are properly included in the judgment therein rendered in its favor. New Han-
§ 105-415. Sureties of sheriff may collect, when. — If any sheriff shall die during the time appointed for collecting taxes, his sureties may collect them, and for that purpose shall have all power and means for collecting the same from the collectors and taxpayers as the sheriff would have had, and shall be subject to all the remedies for collecting and settling the taxes, on their bond or otherwise, as might have been had against the sheriff if he had lived. (Rev., ss. 2868, 5264; 1917, c. 234, s. 112; 1919, c. 92, s. 112; C. S., s 7993.)

§ 105-416. Sheriff collecting by deputy. — When the sheriff shall collect by his deputies they shall, before the clerk of the board of commissioners or before a justice of the peace of the county, take and subscribe an oath faithfully and honestly to account for the taxes with the sheriff or other person authorized to receive the same. Such oath shall be filed with the register of deeds and kept in the office of the board of commissioners, and for failure of any deputy sheriff to pay over such taxes as he may collect he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. (Rev., s. 5241; 1917, c. 234, s. 88; 1919, c. 92, s. 88; C. S., s. 7995.)

§ 105-417. Compromise of tax claims due by railroad companies in which State owns majority of stock, authorized.—The Commissioner of Revenue of the State of North Carolina and the governing bodies of any county, municipality, or other taxing subdivision in this State, are hereby authorized within their discretion to accept in full settlement for all taxes which have heretofore become due settlements thereof which may be less than the full amount of such taxes, penalties and costs as to any taxes which may be due by any railroad company in North Carolina in which the State of North Carolina is the owner of more than a majority of the outstanding capital stock; and said settlement may be accepted by said officials if in their judgment the acceptance of the same will be for the best interests and to the advantage of the respective taxing units holding such tax claims. (1939, c. 76.)

ARTICLE 33A.

Agreements with United States or Other States.

§ 105-417.1. Agreements to co-ordinate the administration and collection of taxes. — The Commissioner of Revenue is hereby authorized, with the approval of the Governor and Council of State, to enter into agreements with the United States government or any department or agency thereof, or with a state or any political subdivision thereof, for the purpose of co-ordinating the administration and collection of taxes imposed by this State and administered and collected by said Commissioner with taxes imposed by the United States or by any other state or political subdivision thereof. (1943, c. 747, s. 1.)

Editor’s Note.—For comment on this Cited in United States v. Williams, § 105-417.2. Expenditures and commitments authorized to effectuate agreements.—The Commissioner of Revenue with the approval of the Governor and Council of State is authorized and empowered to undertake such commitments and make such expenditures, within the appropriations provided by law, as may be necessary to effectuate such agreements. (1943, c. 747, s. 2.)

§ 105-417.3. Returns to be filed and taxes paid pursuant to agreements. — Notwithstanding any other provision of law, returns shall be filed and taxes paid in accordance with the provisions of any agreement entered into pursuant to this article. (1943, c. 747, s. 3.)

ARTICLE 34.

Tax Sales.

§ 105-418. Sales for 1930 on dates other than first Monday in June validated.—All sales of land for failure to pay taxes, held or conducted by any sheriff or any tax collector of any county, city, town or other municipality during the year one thousand nine hundred thirty, on any day subsequent to or other than the first Monday in June of said year, are hereby, approved, confirmed, validated and declared to be proper, valid and legal sales of such land and legally § 105-419. Tax sales for 1931-32 on day other than law provides and certificates validated.—All sales of land for failure to pay taxes, held or conducted by any sheriff or any tax collector of any county, city, town or other municipality during the year one thousand nine hundred thirty-one and one thousand nine hundred thirty-two, on any day subsequent to or other than the first Monday in June of said year, are hereby, approved, confirmed, validated and declared to be proper, valid and legal sales of such land and legally binding in all respects, and all certificates of sale made and issued upon and in accordance with such sales be, and they are hereby, approved and validated to all intents and purposes, and with such full force and legal effect as if said sales had been held and conducted on said first Monday of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one and one thousand nine hundred thirty-two. (1933, c. 177.)

Local Modification.—Durham, Mecklenburg: 1933, c. 177.

§ 105-420. Tax sales for 1933-34 and certificates validated. — All sales of land for failure to pay taxes held or conducted by any sheriff or any tax collector of any county, city, town or other municipality during the years one thousand nine hundred thirty-three and one thousand nine hundred thirty-four or on any date subsequent to or other than the date prescribed by law and all certificates of sale executed and issued pursuant to and in accordance with such sales be and the same are hereby approved, confirmed and validated and shall have the same force and legal effect as if said sales had been held and conducted on the date prescribed by law.

The board of county commissioners of any county or the governing board of any city, town or other municipality may by resolution order the sheriff or tax collecting officer of the said county, city, town or other municipality to advertise in the manner provided by law and sell all land for the taxes of any year levied by the said county, city, town or other municipality, which land has not heretofore been legally sold for the failure to pay said taxes. The sale or sales herein authorized shall be held not later than the first Monday in September, one thousand nine hundred thirty-five, and certificates of sale shall be issued in accordance with and pursuant to said sale or sales in the same manner as if said sale or sales had been held and conducted as provided by law. Any sale held and conducted under the provisions of this paragraph and all certificates issued pursuant to such sales shall be and the same are hereby approved, confirmed and validated and shall have the same force and legal effect as if said sale had been held and conducted on the date prescribed by law.

All actions instituted in any county, city, town or other municipality for the foreclosure of certificates of sale issued for the taxes of the years one thousand nine hundred twenty-seven, one thousand nine hundred twenty-eight, one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine, one thousand nine hundred thirty, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one and one thousand nine hundred thirty-two subsequent to October first, one thousand nine hundred thirty-four, and all such actions instituted before October first, one thousand nine hundred thirty-five, shall be and the same are hereby approved, validated and declared to be legally binding and of the same force and effect as if said actions were instituted prior to October first, one thousand nine hundred thirty-four: Provided, that this section shall not be construed to repeal any private or local act passed by the General Assembly of one thousand nine hundred thirty-five. (1935, c. 331.)
§ 105-421. Notices of sale for taxes by publication validated. —
All sales of real property under tax certificate foreclosures, made since January first, one thousand nine hundred twenty-seven, where the original notice of sale was published for four successive weeks, and any notice of resale was published for two successive weeks, preceding said sales, whether the notice of sale was required to be published in a newspaper or at courthouse door, or both, shall be, and the same are in all respects validated as to publication of said notice: Provided said publication was completed as above set out within ten days of the date of the sale.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to the counties of Alleghany, Beaufort, Cabarrus, Camden, Carteret, Caswell, Currituck, Halifax, Harnett, Henderson, Hertford, Hyde, Iredell, Johnston, Jones, Macon, Mitchell, Moore, Nash, New Hanover, Perquimans, Pitt, Polk, Rowan, Rutherford, Scotland,
Surry, Wake, Warren, Washington, and Wayne. (1937, c. 128.)

Part 2. Refund of Tax Sales Certificates.

§ 105-422. Tax liens barred. — No action shall be maintained by any county or municipality to enforce any remedy provided by law for the collection of taxes or the enforcement of any tax liens held by counties and municipalities, whether such taxes or tax liens are evidenced by the original tax books or tax sales certificates or otherwise, unless such action shall be instituted within ten years from the time such taxes became due: Provided, that as to tax foreclosure actions which under existing laws are not and will not be barred prior to December 31st, 1948, foreclosure actions may be instituted thereon at any time prior to December 31st, 1948: Provided, further, that this section shall not be construed as applying to the liens for street and/or sidewalk improvements; and provided further, that this section shall not be applicable to any pending tax foreclosure actions. Provided that the provisions of this section shall not apply to municipalities in Burke County, Ashe, Buncombe, Camden, Clay, Columbus, Cumberland, Currituck, Dare, Duplin, Edgecombe, Gates, Greene, Harnett, Lenoir, Macon, Madison, McDowell, Moore, Nash, New Hanover, Orange, Pender, Rockingham, Sampson, Scotland, Stokes, Vance, Wayne, Wilkes and Wilson counties or any of the political subdivisions thereof. (1933, c. 181, s. 7; c. 399; 1947, c. 1065, s.
1; 1949, cc. 60, 735; 1951, cc. 71, 306, 572; 1953, cc. 381, 427, 538, 645, 656, 752, 885.)

Local Modification.—Town of Beaufort: 1963, c. 892.

Cross References.—As to foreclosure of liens for unpaid assessments for local improvements, see § 160-93. See also note to § 105-414.

Editor's Note.—The 1947 amendment re-wrote this section, which formerly barred only tax liens for 1926 and prior years upon which no foreclosure proceedings had been instituted. Section 2 of the amendatory act, in addition to repealing § 105-423, provided: “All public and public-local laws and clauses of laws in conflict with this act or providing for different statute of limitations for tax foreclosure actions, are hereby repealed, the purpose hereof being to make this a State-wide act applicable to all the counties of the State; provided, that nothing herein shall bar or prevent the institution of suits to foreclose the lien of taxes for which certificates have been filed as judgments under the provisions of G. S. § 105-393, within the time and under the conditions set out in subsection (h) of said section.”

The first 1949 amendment struck out
“Yadkin” from the list of counties at the end of this section so as to make it applica-tible to Yadkin County, and the second 1949 amendment struck out “Rowan” from the list of counties.

The first 1951 amendment struck out
Northampton from the list of counties in this section, the second 1951 amendment struck out Warren, and the third 1951 amendment struck out Franklin.

Session Laws 1953 made six changes in the list of exempt counties, and provided for two future changes. Chapters 427, 465 and 752 inserted in the list Duplin, Lenoir and New Hanover, respectively. And § 105-423, which inserted McDowell, specifically provided that the section shall not apply thereto. Chapter 656 struck "Richmond" from the list; and chapter 775, which struck out "Hyde", specifically made the section applicable thereto.

Session Laws 1953, c. 538, as amended by Session Laws 1955, c. 217, and Session Laws 1957, c. 54, provides for striking "Pamlico" from the list of counties, effective March 1, 1959, so as to make the section applicable to Pamlico County beginning on that date. And Session Laws 1953, c. 1008 provided for striking "Perquimans" from the list of counties.

Session Laws 1955, c. 1087 deleted "Lee" from the list of counties.

Session Laws 1957, c. 53, effective December 31, 1958, deleted "Hoke" from the list of counties. And chapters 678 and 1123 inserted "Sampson" and "Wilkes" in the list.

The 1959 amendment inserted "Stokes" in the list of counties.

Session Laws 1959, c. 373, effective January 1, 1961, provides for striking out "Burke" from the list of counties and substituting in lieu thereof the words "municipalities in Burke County."

The first 1961 amendment, effective June 30, 1961, deleted "Davie" from the list of counties.

The second 1961 amendment, effective July 1, 1963, deleted "Carteret" from the list of counties so as to make the section applicable to the county and its political subdivisions.

The third 1961 amendment, effective July 1, 1962, deleted "Iredell" from the list of counties.

For comment on the 1947 amendment, see 25 N. C. Law Rev. 461.

An action under § 105-414 to foreclose the lien for municipal taxes for the years 1925 and 1926 was barred by this section as it read prior to the 1947 amendment, since the legislative intent to bar the enforcement of all liens for unpaid taxes for the year 1926 and the years prior thereto, under whatever guise attempted, was apparent from the language used. Raleigh v. Jordan, 218 N. C. 55, 9 S. E. (2d) 507 (1940).

§ 105-423.1. Tax liens, where foreclosure suit not instituted, barred in certain counties ten years after due date.—No action shall be maintained by any county or municipality to enforce any remedy provided by law for the collection of taxes or the enforcement of any tax liens held by counties and municipalities whether such taxes or tax liens are evidenced by original tax books or tax sales certificates unless such action shall be instituted, and a lis pendens shall have been filed in the office of the clerk of the superior court in the county where the tax was levied, within ten years from the time such taxes became due, or if payable in installments, ten years from the due date of each installment. This section shall apply only to the counties of Durham, Guilford, Jones, Mecklenburg and Onslow and municipalities therein; but this section shall apply to Harnett County from and after July 1, 1950. (1945, c. 832; 1949, c. 269.)

Editor's Note.—The act inserting this section, as amended by Session Laws 1947, c. 984, provides that it shall be in effect from October 1, 1945, except that as to Durham County it shall be in effect from October 1, 1949. Session Laws 1945, c. 102, reaffirmed the effective date as to Mecklenburg County and municipalities therein.

The 1949 amendment made this section applicable to Harnett County.

ARTICLE 35.

Sheriff's Settlement of Taxes.

§ 105-424. Time and manner of settlement.—The sheriff or other accounting officer shall, on or before the second Monday of January in each year, settle his estate tax account with the commissioners of his county and pay the amount for which said sheriff or collector is liable to the Treasurer of the State, in such manner or at such place as he shall direct, on or before the third Monday of said month: Provided, the State Treasurer may extend the time on a sufficient amount to cover the State tax on the land sales in each county to the first Monday in May. The commissioners shall forthwith report to the State Auditor the amount due from such accounting officer, setting forth therein the net amount due to each fund; and the Treasurer, upon a statement from the State Auditor, shall open an account against such officer and debit him accordingly. Upon the failure of the board of county commissioners to make this report to the State Auditor on or before the third Monday of January of each year, or if a report has been filed which is not correct and the commissioners fail to file an amended and corrected report within thirty days after being notified so to do by the State Auditor, the commissioners of such county shall each personally be liable to a penalty of one hundred dollars, and it shall be the duty of the State Auditor forthwith to institute an action in the county of Wake to enforce the same. The sheriff or tax collector, in making his settlements as aforesaid, shall file with the commissioners a duplicate of the list required in this chapter. In such settlement the sheriff or other officer shall be charged with the amount of public tax as the same appears by the abstract of the taxables transmitted to the State Auditor; also with all double taxes on unlisted property by him received, and with other tax which he may have collected or for which he is chargeable.

The State Auditor shall give to each sheriff or tax collector a certified statement embracing the subjects of taxation contained in both lists and the amount of tax on each subject which the sheriff or tax collector shall deposit with the clerk of the commissioners of his county for public inspection. The sheriffs and tax collectors shall receive five per cent on all taxes collected by them for State, county, township, school district, or other purposes whatsoever, up to the sum of fifty thousand dollars, and upon all such sums so collected by him in excess thereof he shall receive two and one-half per cent commission, and the sheriffs or tax collectors shall receive for their own use, in addition to other fees or salary received by them, a commission of five per cent on all privilege and license taxes collected under schedule B of the Revenue Act, and any provision in any local act in conflict with this provision is hereby repealed. (Rev., s. 5245; 1917, c. 234, s. 101; 1919, c. 92, s. 101; C. S., s. 8042.)

Local Modification.—Buncombe: C. S., s. 8042; Hyde: 1951, c. 655; 1953, c. 98; 1959, c. 979; Perquimans: 1943, c. 745.

Cross References.—For other provisions relating to settlement see § 105-390. As to sheriff’s duty to settle school tax, see § 115-106 and note.

Settlement Has Attributes of Contract.—An account stated and settlement between a county and its tax collector have the force of a contract, and operate as a bar to a subsequent accounting, except upon a specific allegation of fraud or mistake. Settle v. Doggett, 87 N. C. 203 (1882).

Fees of Sheriff Regulated by Legislature.—The regulation of the sheriff’s fees is within the control of the legislature and may be reduced during the term of the incumbent. Commissioners v. Stedman, 141 N. C. 448, 54 S. E. 269 (1906).

Basis of Compensation Changed; Right of Outgoing Sheriff.—A sheriff whose term of office expires is entitled to collect the taxes on the lists in his hands and to receive commissions therefor, notwithstanding the office has been placed upon a salary basis for his successor. Commissioners v. Bain, 173 N. C. 377, 92 S. E. 176 (1917).

Same; Where Sheriff Re-elected.—Upon the re-election of the sheriff he receives only the salary fixed by the act of legislature changing the basis of compensation. Miller v. Deaton, 170 N. C. 386, 87 S. E. 123 (1915).

Drainage Assessments.—This section, allowing sheriffs a commission of 5 per cent on taxes collected, refers only to taxes collected for general governmental purposes, and not to assessments in drainage districts imposed for the special benefits to the lands therein. Commissioners v. Davis, 182 N. C. 140, 108 S. E. 506 (1921).

Action on Bond of Sheriff.—As to action under former statute, on bond of sheriff for failure to pay over taxes collected, see Commissioners v. Clarke, 73 N. C. 255 (1875).

§ 105-425. Listing by owner required. — Every owner of a motor vehicle in the counties specified herein shall list such motor vehicle for taxes in such counties at the same time residents of such counties are or may be required by law to list real and/or personal property for taxation. (1931, c. 392, s. 1.)

§ 105-426. Commissioner of Motor Vehicles to furnish list of registered automobiles to counties. — The Commissioner of Motor Vehicles shall furnish to the tax listing authorities of the counties enumerated in § 105-429, or to the tax collectors thereof, a list showing the names and addresses of all owners of motor vehicles in such counties as of January first in each year. The list shall also show the make, type and character of such motor vehicle and the date of registration thereof. This list shall be furnished as soon after the first day of January in each year as it can be prepared and furnished. The cost of preparing such lists shall be paid by the authorities of the enumerated counties to which the lists are furnished. (1931, c. 392, s. 2.)

Cross Reference.—For another provision relating to duty of Commissioner of Motor Vehicles to furnish lists of motor vehicles to county authorities, see § 105-315.

§ 105-427. Listing by county authorities where owners fail to list. — The tax listing authorities of the counties specified herein shall compare said list of motor vehicle owners with the tax lists of such counties and if it appears that any owner of a motor vehicle has failed to list any motor vehicle registered in his name, it shall be the duty of such tax listing authorities or of the tax collectors of such counties to list such motor vehicle for purposes of taxation, together with any other property of such person, and the tax collectors of such counties shall collect the taxes thereon in the same manner as other taxes of such counties. (1931, c. 392, s. 3.)

§ 105-428. Basis of tax valuation. — All motor vehicles shall be valued or appraised for purposes of taxation upon the rule or standard of valuation established by “The Automobile Blue Book,” or any other standard of value which may be reasonable, equitable and just. (1931, c. 392, s. 4.)

§ 105-429. Counties to which article applicable. — This article shall apply to the following counties: Alamance, Beaufort, Buncombe, Cabarrus, Camden, Caswell, Chowan, Clay, Cleveland, Columbus, Currituck, Duplin, Durham, Gates, Guilford, Halifax, Harnett, Henderson, Hertford, Iredell, Johnston, Lee, McDowell, Moore, Nash, Orange, Pasquotank, Perquimans, Pitt, Polk, Rowan, Rutherford, Swain, Watauga and Wayne. (1931, c. 392, s. 5; 1949, c. 64; 1957, c. 160; 1959, c. 230.)

Editor's Note.—The 1949 amendment inserted “Clay” in the list of counties.

The 1957 amendment inserted “Duplin” in the list of counties.

SUBCHAPTER V. GASOLINE TAX.

ARTICLE 36.

Gasoline Tax.

§ 105-430. Definitions; “motor fuel,” “distributor.” — The following words, terms, and phrases hereinafter used for the purpose of this article are defined as follows:
§ 105-431. Purpose of article; double taxation not intended. — The purpose of this article is to provide for the payment and collection of a tax on the first sale of motor fuels when sold, or the use, when used, in this State; double taxation is not intended. Motor fuels manufactured, produced, or sold for exportation, and exported are not taxable and should not be included in the reports hereinafter required to be made by distributors. (1927, c. 93, s. 2; 1931, c. 145, s. 24.)

§ 105-432. Sales in tank car shipments. — In the administration of this article the first sale shall not be construed to embrace the sale in tank car shipments from port terminals to licensed distributors within the State, but the tax hereinafter levied on such motor fuel shall be levied against and paid by such licensed distributor. (1927, c. 93, s. 2 ½; 1931, c. 145, s. 24.)

§ 105-433. Application for license as distributor. — Any distributor engaged in business on April 1, 1931, shall, within thirty days thereafter, and any other distributor shall, prior to the commencement of doing business, file a duly acknowledged application for a license with the Commissioner of Revenue on a form prescribed and furnished by him setting forth the name under which such distributor transacts or intends to transact business within this State, the address of each place of business and a designation of the principal place of business. If such distributor is a firm or association, the application shall set forth the name § 105-434 and address of each person constituting the firm or association, and if a corporation, the names and addresses of the principal officers and such other information as the Commissioner of Revenue may require. Each distributor shall at the same time file a bond in such amount, not exceeding twenty thousand dollars ($20,- 000) in such form and with such surety or sureties as may be required by the Commissioner of Revenue, conditioned upon the rendition of the reports and the payment of the tax hereinafter provided for. Upon approval of the application and bond, the Commissioner of Revenue shall issue to the distributor a nonassignable license with a duplicate copy for each place of business of said distributor in this State, which shall be displayed in a conspicuous place at each such place of business and shall continue in force until surrendered or canceled. No distributor shall sell, offer for sale, or use any motor fuels within this State until such license has been issued. Any distributor failing to comply with or violating any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00), nor more than five thousand dollars ($5,000.00), or imprisonment for not more than twenty-four months, or both. (1927, c. 93, s. 3; 1931, c. 145, s. 24.)

§ 105-434. Gallon tax. — There is hereby levied and imposed a tax of seven cents per gallon on all motor fuels sold, distributed, or used within this State. The tax hereby imposed and levied shall be collected and paid by the distributor producing, refining, manufacturing, or compounding within this State, or holding in possession within this State motor fuels for the purpose of sale, distribution, or use within the State, and shall be paid by such distributor to the Commissioner of Revenue in the manner and at the times hereinafter specified.
No county, city, or town, or political subdivision shall levy or collect any tax upon the sale or distribution of motor fuels herein defined. For the purpose of determining the amount of the tax, it shall be the duty of every distributor to transmit to the Commissioner of Revenue not later than the twentieth day of each month, upon forms prescribed and furnished by such Commissioner, a report under oath or affirmation showing the quantity of motor fuel sold, distributed, or used by such distributor within this State during the preceding calendar month, and such other information as the said Commissioner may require: Provided, that any distributor may, if he elects to do so, use as the measure of the tax levied and assessed against him by this section the gross quantity of motor fuel purchased, produced, refined, manufactured, and/or compounded by such distributor, plus the amount of motor fuel on hand at the beginning of the period when such method of computation is used, less a tare of two per cent (2%) on gross monthly receipts of motor fuels not exceeding 150,000 gallons, and less a tare of one and one-half per cent (1½%) on gross monthly receipts of such fuel in excess of 150,000 gallons and not exceeding 250,000 gallons, and less a tare of one per cent (1%) on gross monthly receipts of such fuels in excess of 250,000 gallons. Provided, that if any licensed distributor who has elected to pay the tax levied herein on the amount of motor fuel purchased, produced, refined, manufactured, or compounded, in lieu of the amount sold, distributed, or used, shall lose any such fuel by reason of fire, lightning, flood, windstorm, wrecking of transportation conveyance, acts of war, or any accidental or providential cause, and such loss is clearly proved to the satisfaction of the Commissioner of Revenue, the amount of motor fuel lost shall be excluded from the measure of his tax. Provided, further, that the Commissioner of Revenue shall have power under such rules and regulations as he may adopt for the purpose to refund to any nonlicensed distributor the tax on any motor fuel purchased by and delivered to him tax paid that is lost by fire, lightning, flood, windstorm, acts of war, or any accidental or providential cause, after it is delivered to him and before it is sold, but such loss must be clearly proved to the satisfaction of the Commissioner. (1927, c. 93, s. 4; 1929, c. 40, s. 1; 1931, c. 145, s. 24; 1941, cc. 16, 146; 1943, c. 113; 1949, c. 1250, s. 13.)

Editor's Note. — The first 1941 amendment added the two provisos at the end of this section. Prior to the second 1941 amendment this section provided for a tare of one per cent.

Prior to the 1943 amendment the last two provisos related only to losses by lightning, flood or windstorm.

The 1949 amendment, which also made changes in §§ 105-435 and 105-449, increased the tax from six to seven cents per gallon, the additional tax becoming effective January 1, 1950. The amendatory act provides: “The additional one cent (1c) per gallon tax provided for in this section shall be applied exclusively to the payment of the principal of and the interest on the two hundred million dollars State of North Carolina Secondary Road Bonds and as herein further provided in sec. 16 of this act.”

Excise and Not Property Tax. — The State gasoline tax is an excise and not a property tax. Stedman v. Winston-Salem, 204 N. C. 203, 167 S. E. 813 (1933).

Tax May Be Levied on Political Subdivision. — Under the provisions of our Constitution, Art. V, § 5, the General Assembly is prohibited from levying a property tax on property owned by municipal corporations, but the prohibition does not extend to excise taxes, and under the provisions of this section, a municipality is liable for the gasoline tax on gasoline bought by it in bulk and distributed by it to its various departments for use in its governmental functions. Stedman v. Winston-Salem, 204 N. C. 203, 167 S. E. 813 (1933).

Prior to the 1931 amendment the statute did not expressly include a municipality or political subdivision of the State within the definition of distributor, as it does now. See § 105-430. Consequently, in O’Berry v. Mecklenburg County, 198 N. C. 357, 151 S. E. 880 (1930), it was held that a county was not a distributor and was not liable for the tax on motor fuel used by such county in the discharge of its governmental functions. Perhaps, as a result of that decision, the General Assembly in 1931 expressly included a municipality and county within the definition of a distributor. Stedman v. Winston-Salem, 204 N. C. 203, 167 S. E. 813 (1933).

§ 105-435. Tax on fuels not within definition; manner of collection; from whom collected. — (a) Every person who owns or operates over the highways of this State, any motor vehicle propelled by a motor which uses any product not included within the definition of “motor fuels” hereinbefore set out to generate power for the propulsion of said vehicle, shall pay to the Commissioner of Revenue, for the use of the highways of this State, a tax of seven cents (7c) per gallon on the fuel used in such vehicle upon the highways of this State.

(b) Notwithstanding any provisions of subsection (a) to the contrary, the tax levied with respect to the special fuels therein described shall be collected in the manner and from the persons as set out in article 36A of chapter 105 of the General Statutes. (1941, c. 376, s. 2; 1949, c. 1250, s. 13; 1951, c. 838; 1955, c. 5525)

Editor's Note. — The 1949 amendment increased the tax in subsection (a) from six to seven cents per gallon.

The 1951 amendment changed subsection (b), and added former subsections (f) through (j).

§ 105-436. Payment of tax. — Every distributor, at the time of making the report required by § 105-434, shall pay to the Commissioner of Revenue, the amount of tax due for the month covered by such report. The tax so paid shall be transferred promptly by the said Commissioner to the State Treasurer as other receipts of his office and the State Treasurer shall place the same to the credit of the “State Highway Fund.” (1927, c. 93, s. 5; 1931, c. 145, s. 24.)

§ 105-437: Repealed by Session Laws 1963, c. 1169, s. 6, effective July 1, 1963.

Cross Reference. — As to administrative, to taxes levied under this subchapter, see penalty and remedy provisions applicable

§ 105-438. Record of transactions. — Every distributor of motor fuels shall keep a record of all such fuels purchased, received, sold, delivered or used by him, which shall include the number of gallons so purchased, received, sold, delivered, or used, and the dates of such purchases and sales, which records shall be preserved for a period of two years and shall at all times during the business hours of the day be subject to inspection by the Commissioner of Revenue or his deputies, or such other officers as may be duly authorized by said Commissioner. (1927, c. 93, s. 8; 1931, c. 145, s. 24.)

§ 105-439. Rebates for fuels sold to U. S. government or for use in aircraft. — The Commissioner of Revenue is authorized under such rules and regulations as he may adopt for that purpose, to relieve any distributor from the payment of the tax herein levied for any motor fuels sold to the United States government, and/or gasoline of such quality that it is not adapted for use in ordinary automotive vehicles, but is designed for and sold and used exclusively in aircraft motors, when it appears to the satisfaction of the Commissioner of Revenue that the tax herein imposed has not been added to the sale price of such motor fuel, and the Commissioner of Revenue is likewise authorized to refund by warrant drawn upon the State Treasurer to the person paying the same, any tax paid under the provisions of this article which constitutes an unlawful burden upon interstate commerce, in conflict with the provisions of the Constitution of the United States: Provided, that any claims for such rebate, which are not filed with the Commissioner of Revenue in accordance with forms to be provided by the Commissioner of Revenue within sixty days after the payment of said tax, shall be deemed to have been waived. (1931, c. 145, s. 24.)

§ 105-440. Penalty for making false claim for rebate.—Any person who shall willfully make any false or fraudulent report as the basis for claim for rebate or deduction under the provisions of this article, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined and imprisoned in the discretion of the court. (1927, c. 93, s. 10; 1931, c. 145, s. 24.)

§ 105-441. Enumeration of acts constituting misdemeanor; cancellation of license and bond.—Any distributor who shall fail, neglect, or refuse to make the reports herein required or pay the taxes herein imposed, or who shall refuse to permit the Commissioner of Revenue or any agent appointed by him, to examine the books and records of such distributor pertaining to the motor fuels made taxable by this article or who shall make any false, or fraudulent report or statement hereunder, or who does, or attempts to do, anything whatsoever to avoid a full disclosure of the quantity of motor fuels sold, distributed or used within this State shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction, shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00) and not more than five thousand dollars ($5,000.00) or, in the case of an individual or the officer or employee charged with the duty of making such report for a corporation, to be imprisoned not exceeding twenty-four months, or both; and the Commissioner of Revenue may forthwith cancel the license of such distributor and notify him in writing of such cancellation by registered mail to be sent to his last known address. In the event that the license of any distributor is cancelled as above provided, and in the event such distributor shall have paid to the State of North Carolina all the taxes due and payable by him under this article, together with any and all penalties accruing under the provisions of this article, then the Commissioner of Revenue shall cancel and surrender the bond theretofore filed by said distributor. (1927, c. 93, s. 11; 1931, c. 145, s. 24; 1933, c. 544, s. 10.)

§ 105-442. Actions for tax; double liability. — If any person, firm or corporation shall fail to pay the amount of tax levied in § 105-434 within the time specified in § 105-436 it shall be the duty of the Commissioner of Revenue to proceed at once to enforce the payment of said tax, and to this end the Commissioner of Revenue shall have and may exercise all the remedies provided in the revenue laws of the State for enforcing payment of other taxes, including the right of ex-execution through the sheriffs of the several counties of the State upon any property of the delinquent taxpayer, and shall, with the assistance of the Attorney General whenever necessary, bring appropriate action in the courts of the State for the recovery of such tax. If it shall be found as a fact that such failure to pay was willful on the part of such person, firm or corporation, judgment shall be rendered against such person, firm or corporation for double the amount of tax found to be due, together with interest, and the amount of taxes and penalties shall be paid into the State treasury to the credit of the State Highway Fund. All remedies which now or may hereafter be given by the laws of the State of North Carolina for the collection of taxes are expressly given herein for the collection of taxes levied in this article or of judgment recovered under authority of this article. It shall also be the duty of the Commissioner of Revenue to revoke the license of any licensed distributor who shall refuse, fail or neglect to pay the taxes levied in § 105-434 within the time specified in § 105-436, and whose account shall remain delinquent for any part of said tax for ten days thereafter. (1927, c. 93, s. 12; 1931, c. 145, s. 24; 1933, c. 137, s. 1.)

Editor's Note.—The 1933 amendment rewrote this section.

§ 105-443: Repealed by Session Laws 1963, c. 1169, s. 5, effective July 1, 1963.

§ 105-444. License constitutes distributor trust officer of State for collection of tax.—The licensing of any person, firm or corporation as a wholesale distributor of gasoline shall constitute such distributor an agent or trust officer of the State for the purpose of collecting the tax on the sale of gasoline imposed in this article. If any person, firm or corporation who or which adds the amount of the tax levied in this article to the customary market price for gasoline and/or special fuels and collects the same, shall fail to remit the gasoline and/or special fuels tax to the Commissioner of Revenue as provided herein, such failure shall be a misdemeanor, and any individual, partner or officer or agent of any association, partnership or corporation who shall fail to remit the tax so collected as herein provided when it is his duty to do so shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined or imprisoned in the discretion of the court. (1931, c. 145, s. 1; 1933, c. 137, s. 1.)

Editor's Note.—The 1951 amendment rewrote the second sentence, making it applicable to dealers in special fuels and making failure to remit the amount of the tax a misdemeanor instead of a felony.

§ 105-445. Application of proceeds of gasoline tax.—The fund derived from the tax herein levied shall be for the exclusive uses of the purposes set out in this article, and disbursed on vouchers drawn by the State Highway Commission in accordance with the acts of the General Assembly dealing with the subject matter herein referred to. (1931, c. 145, s. 24; 1933, c. 172, s. 17.)

Editor's Note.—By virtue of § 136-1.1 have been substituted for “State Highway Commission” and Public Works Commission.”

§ 105-446. Tax rebate on fuels not used in motor vehicles on highways.—Any person, association, firm, or corporation, who shall buy any motor fuels, as defined in this article, for the purpose of use, and the same is actually used, for other than the operation of a motor vehicle designed and licensed for use upon the highways shall be reimbursed at the rate of six cents per gallon of the amount of such tax or taxes paid under this article upon the following conditions and in the following manner:

(1) On or before September 30, 1962, application for reimbursement, as provided in this section on taxes paid under this article for the period from January 1, 1962, through June 30, 1962, and thereafter on or before September 30 of any subsequent fiscal year ending the preceding June 30 application for reimbursement as provided in this section on taxes paid under this article for the preceding fiscal year shall be filed with the Commissioner of Revenue. Such application shall be made upon such forms as the Commissioner of Revenue shall prescribe and the Commissioner of Revenue is hereby authorized to prescribe different forms of application for the several classes of uses for which said fuels may have been purchased, provided that as to all such applications for reimbursement the applicant shall be required to state whether or not such applicant has filed a North Carolina income tax return with the Commissioner of Revenue, and all such applications shall be sworn before an officer authorized to administer oaths; provided, however, that said application shall show on its face that the purchase price of the motor fuel therein referred to has been paid by applicant or that the payment of said purchase price has been secured to the seller’s satisfaction.

(2) The Commissioner of Revenue shall have authority to issue rules and regulations as to how claims shall be filed and the information that shall be submitted with said claims and the records required to support said claims.

(3) If, upon the filing of such application, the Commissioner of Revenue shall be satisfied that the same is made in good faith and that the motor fuels upon which said tax refund is requested have been or are to be used exclusively for purposes as set forth in said application and for purposes other than the operation of a motor vehicle designed and licensed for use upon the highway, he shall issue to such applicant a warrant upon the State Treasurer for the tax refund.

(4) If the Commissioner of Revenue shall be satisfied that the applicant for any refund authorized by this section has collected or sought to collect any refund of tax or taxes on fuels used in a motor vehicle designed and licensed for use on the highways, he shall issue to such applicant notice to show cause why such application should not be disallowed, which notice shall state a time and place of hearing upon said notice. If upon such hearing the Commissioner shall find as a fact that such applicant has collected or sought to collect any refund on fuels which have been used in a motor vehicle designed and licensed for use on the highways, he shall disallow the application in its entirety and the applicant shall be required to repay all tax or taxes which have been refunded to him on said application.

(5) Any applicant for a refund may seek administrative review or appeal from the decision of the Commissioner of Revenue under the provisions of G. S. 105-241.2, 105-241.3 and 105-241.4.

(6) The Commissioner of Revenue is hereby authorized and directed, if at any time in his opinion there is reason to doubt the accuracy of the facts set forth in any application for tax refund to refer the matter to any agent of the Department of Revenue, and such person so designated shall make a careful investigation of all the facts and circumstances relating to said application in the use of the motor fuels therein referred to, and shall have a right to have access to the books and records of any retailer or distributor of motor fuel products for the purpose of obtaining the necessary information concerning such matters, and shall make due report thereof to the Commissioner of Revenue.

(7) If any court of last resort shall hold that the provisions for refund herein set out shall render the levying and collecting of the tax hereinbefore provided invalid, it is the intention of the General Assembly that such provisions for refund shall be annulled and the tax shall be § 105-446.1. Refunds of taxes paid by counties and municipalities.

—The State Highway Commission, counties and municipal corporations shall be entitled to be reimbursed at the rate of six cents (6¢) per gallon of the tax levied by § 105-434 of the General Statutes upon the filing of a statement with the Commissioner of Revenue, sworn to by the Director of Highways or the mayor, city manager or other municipal officer designated by the governing body of the municipality, or the chairman of the board of county commissioners, or other county officer designated by the board of county commissioners, showing the number of gallons of fuel purchased and used by the Highway Commission, the municipality or the county on which the tax levied by § 105-434 of the General Statutes has been paid. All claims for refunds for tax or taxes for motor fuels under the provisions of this section shall be filed with the Commissioner of Revenue on or before the last day of January, April, July, and October of each year, and at such periods only, and shall cover only the motor fuels so used during the quarterly period immediately preceding the month in which such application is filed. (1957, c. 1226.)

§ 105-447. Reports of carriers.

—Every person, firm or corporation engaged in the business of, or transporting motor fuel, whether common carrier or otherwise, and whether by rail, water, pipe line or over public highways, either in interstate or in intrastate commerce, to points within the State of North Carolina, and every person, firm or corporation transporting motor fuel by whatever manner to a point in the State of North Carolina from any point outside of said State shall be required to keep for a period of two years from the date of each delivery records on forms prescribed by, or satisfactory to, the Commissioner of Revenue of all receipts and deliveries of motor fuel so received or delivered to points within the State of North Carolina, including duplicate original copies of delivery tickets or invoices covering such receipts and deliveries, showing the date of the receipt or delivery, the name and address of the party to whom each delivery is made, and the amount of each delivery; and shall report, under oath, to the Commissioner of Revenue, on forms prescribed by said Commissioner of Revenue, all deliveries of motor fuel so made to points within the State of North Carolina. Such reports shall cover monthly periods, shall be submitted within the first ten days of each month covering all shipments transported and delivered for the previous month, shall show the name and address of the person to whom the deliveries of motor fuel have actually and in fact been made, the name and address of the originally named consignee if motor fuel has been delivered to any other than the originally named consignee, the point of origin, the point of delivery, the date of delivery, and the number and initials of each tank car, and the number of gal-
§ 105-448. Forwarding of information to other states. — The Commissioner of Revenue of the State of North Carolina shall, upon request duly received from the officials to whom are intrusted the enforcement of the motor fuel tax laws of any other state, forward to such officials any information which he may have in his possession relative to the manufacture, receipt, sale, use, transportation or shipment by any person of motor fuel. (1933, c. 137, s. 1.)

§ 105-449. Exemption of gasoline used in public school transportation; false returns, etc. — (a) Any person, firm or corporation holding a North Carolina State contract for the sale of gasoline to be used in public school transportation in North Carolina shall invoice gasoline so sold and delivered to the county or city boards of education at the prevailing contract price, less the State tax on gasoline. A copy of such invoice showing the board of education to whom the gasoline is delivered, the kind of gasoline sold, the gallons sold, and the contract price per gallon, shall be submitted to the North Carolina Department of Revenue each month, supported with an official purchase order from the board or boards of education, which invoice or invoices and supporting purchase order shall exempt the gasoline purchased by said board or boards of education for use in North Carolina public school transportation from the seven cents tax per gallon State gasoline tax.

(b) The Commissioner of Revenue of North Carolina is hereby authorized and directed to accept such invoices and supporting purchase orders, duly notarized, in lieu of the seven cents per gallon tax imposed by the laws of North Carolina upon said gasoline: Provided, when any authorized dealer has already paid the State gasoline gallon tax and furnishes the Commissioner of Revenue with proper invoices and supporting purchase orders as required in subsection (a) of this section, then such dealer shall be entitled to a refund by the Commissioner of Revenue of seven cents per gallon from the gasoline fund for each gallon so sold and delivered to the county and city boards of education for use in public school transportation in school busses, service trucks, and gasoline delivery wagons used only for school purposes.

(c) It is the intent and purpose of this section to relieve gasoline used in the public school system of North Carolina from the seven cents gasoline tax now imposed by the State and thereby to that extent reduce the cost of public school transportation.
§ 105-449.1. Short title.—This article shall be known and may be cited as the “Special Fuels Tax Act.” (1955, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 105-449.2. Definitions. — The following words, terms and phrases as used in this article, for the purposes thereof, hereby defined as follows:

1. “Commissioner” shall mean the Commissioner of Revenue.
2. “Motor vehicles” shall mean and include all vehicles, engines, machines or mechanical contrivances which are propelled by internal combustion engines or motors upon which or by which any person or property is or may be transported or drawn upon a public highway.
3. “Fuel” or “fuels” shall mean and include all combustible gases and liquids, used, purchased or sold for use in an internal combustion engine or motor for the generation of power to propel motor vehicles on the public highways, except such fuels as are subject to the tax imposed by G. S. 105-434.
4. “Highway” shall mean and include every way or place of whatever nature open to the use of the public for purposes of vehicular travel in this State, including the streets and alleys in towns and cities.
5. “Person” shall mean and include natural persons and partnerships, firms, associations and corporations.
6. “Use” shall mean and include, in addition to its original meaning, the receipt of fuel by any person into the fuel supply tank of a motor vehicle or into a receptacle for which fuel is supplied by any person to his own or other motor vehicles.
7. “User” shall mean and include any person who owns or operates any Diesel propelled motor vehicle or vehicles licensed under the motor vehicle laws of this State and who does not maintain storage facilities for fueling such vehicles. All such users shall be licensed hereunder.
8. “User-seller” means any person who maintains storage facilities in excess of 100 gallons and stores fuel therein, and who dispenses such fuel into the fuel tanks of, or attached to, motor vehicles and shall include any such person who so dispenses fuel for consumption in such motor vehicles owned, leased or operated by him.
§ 105-449.3. Requirements of licenses.—(a) It shall be unlawful for any person to sell or deliver fuel within this State to a user-seller as herein defined unless such person is the holder of an uncancelled license as a supplier issued by the Commissioner.

(b) It shall be unlawful for any person to maintain storage facilities for fuel and dispense fuel therefrom into any fuel tank attached to a motor vehicle unless such person is the holder of a license as a user-seller issued by the Commissioner.

(c) It shall be unlawful for any peddler to sell or offer for sale any fuel unless he is the holder of an uncancelled supplier’s license issued by the Commissioner. (1955, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 105-449.4. Application for license.—To procure such license every supplier shall file with the Commissioner an application upon oath in such form as the Commissioner may prescribe setting forth the name and address of the supplier and such other information as the Commissioner may require. (1955, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 105-449.5. Supplier to file bond.—A supplier’s license shall not be issued until the applicant has filed with the Commissioner a bond in the approximate sum of three times the average monthly tax due to be paid by such supplier, but the amount of the bond shall in no case be less than five hundred dollars ($500.00) nor more than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000.00). Such bond shall be in such form and with such surety or sureties as may be required by the Commissioner, conditioned upon making proper reports and paying the tax provided for in this article, and otherwise complying with the provisions of this article: Provided, however, that a licensed distributor who has already furnished a bond under the provisions of G. S. 105-433 shall not be required to furnish any additional bond by reason of this section, but the terms of such bond may be altered so as also to include compliance with the provisions of this article as a condition thereof. The bonds provided for pursuant to this section shall be made payable to the State. (1955, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 105-449.6. When application may be denied.—In the event that:

(1) Any application for a supplier’s license shall be filed by any person whose license shall at any time theretofore have been cancelled for cause by the Commissioner, or

(2) The Commissioner shall be of the opinion that such application is not filed in good faith, or

(3) Such application is filed by some person as a subterfuge for the real § 105-449.7. Issue of supplier's license. — The application in proper form having been accepted for filing, and the other conditions and requirements of this article having been complied with, the Commissioner shall issue to such supplier a license and such license shall remain in full force and effect, unless cancelled as provided in this article. (1955, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 105-449.8. License not assignable.—The license so issued by the Commissioner shall not be assignable and shall be valid only for the supplier in whose name issued. (1955, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 105-449.9. License required of user or user-seller; application; termination.—After June 30, 1955, no user or user-seller, as defined in this article, shall use, sell or deliver fuel unless he has secured a license from the Commissioner. Such license shall be issued upon the furnishing by the applicant of such reasonable information as shall be required by the Commissioner, and shall continue in full force and effect, unless cancelled as provided by this article. (1955, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 105-449.10. Records and reports required of user-seller or user. — Each user-seller or user licensed under this article shall keep such records and make such reports to the Commissioner as shall be prescribed under regulations promulgated by the Commissioner. Such records and reports shall be such as are adequate to show all purchases, sales, deliveries and use of fuel by such seller or user, provided that persons licensed as users shall file such reports quarterly on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month immediately following the end of the quarter. (1955, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 105-449.11. Display of license.—Suppliers' and user-sellers' licenses so issued shall be displayed conspicuously by the licensee at his principal place of business. Each peddler shall display his license or an official duplicate thereof on each motor vehicle used by him for the sale or delivery of fuel. (1955, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 105-449.12. Record of licenses. — The Commissioner shall keep and file all applications with an alphabetical index thereof, together with a record of all licensed suppliers and user-sellers. (1955, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 105-449.13. Commissioner to furnish licensed supplier with list of licensed user-sellers. — The Commissioner shall upon request furnish to each licensed supplier a list showing the name and business address of each licensed user-seller as of the beginning of each fiscal year, and shall thereafter, during such year, supplement such list monthly. (1955, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 105-449.14. Power of Commissioner to cancel licenses.—If a licensee shall at any time file a false report of any data or information required by this article, or shall fail, refuse or neglect to file any report as required by this article, or to pay the full amount of any tax required by this article, or if a supplier fails to keep accurate records of quantities of fuel received, produced, refined, manufactured, compounded, sold or used in this State, or if a user-seller fails to maintain accurately any required records, the Commissioner may forthwith cancel his license and notify him in writing of such cancellation by registered mail sent to his last address appearing on the files of the Commissioner.
§ 105-449.15. Discontinuance as a licensed supplier. — Whenever any person ceases to be a supplier within the State by reason of the discontinuance, sale or transfer of the business of such supplier, such supplier shall notify the Commissioner in writing at the time the discontinuance, sale or transfer takes effect. Such notice shall give the date of discontinuance and, in the event of a sale or transfer of the business, the date thereof and the name and address of the purchaser or transferee thereof. All taxes for which such supplier has become liable under this article, although not yet due and payable under other provisions of this article, shall, notwithstanding such provisions, become due and payable concurrently with such discontinuance, sale or transfer and any such supplier shall make a report and pay all such taxes, interest and penalties and surrender to the Commissioner the license certificate theretofore issued to such supplier by the Commissioner.

Unless the notice above provided for shall have been given to the Commissioner as above provided, such purchaser or transferee shall be liable to the State for the amount of all taxes, penalties and interest under this article accrued against any such supplier so selling or transferring his business on the date of such sale or transfer, but only to the extent of the value of the property thereby acquired from such supplier. (1955, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 105-449.16. Levy of tax; purposes.—A tax at the rate of seven cents (7c) per gallon is hereby imposed upon all fuel sold or delivered by any supplier to any licensed user-seller, or used by any such supplier in any motor vehicle owned, leased or operated by him, or delivered by such supplier directly into the fuel supply tank of a motor vehicle, or imported by a user-seller into, or acquired tax free by a user-seller or user in this State for resale or use for the propulsion of a motor vehicle. For the purpose of this section, “imported” shall not include fuels brought into this State in the usual tank or receptacle connected with the engine of a motor vehicle. The primary purposes of this levy and this article are to provide a more efficient and effective method of collecting the tax now imposed and collected pursuant to G. S. 105-435, by providing for the collection of said tax from the supplier instead of the user. The tax herein provided for is levied for the same purposes as the tax provided for in G. S. 105-435. It is not intended that the tax collected pursuant to this article shall be in addition to that provided in G. S. 105-435, but the payment of the tax as provided by this article shall be deemed conclusively to constitute a compliance with the provisions of G. S. 105-435. The seven cents (7c) per gallon tax, hereinabove provided for, shall be subject to the provisions of section 13 of chapter 1250 of the Session Laws of 1949, relating to G. S. 105-435, in that one cent (1c) out of every said seven cents (7c) tax per gallon shall be applied exclusively to the payment of the principal of and the interest on the two hundred million dollars ($200,000,000.00) State of North Carolina Secondary Road Bonds therein provided for and as further provided in said chapter 1250 of the Session Laws of 1949. (1955, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 105-449.17. Certain exempt sales. — Sales of fuels to a user-seller shall be exempt from the tax levied under the provisions of this article when such user-seller purchases said fuel for non-highway uses or for sale for non-highway use and maintains storage facilities for such fuel separate and apart from facilities servicing motor vehicles, providing such storage facilities are plainly marked in such manner as the Commissioner may prescribe to indicate that non-taxpaid fuel is contained therein. Suppliers shall make reports of such sales, in such form as the Commissioner may require, each month on monthly tax report forms. Each user-seller shall maintain such records as the Commissioner may prescribe.
§ 105-449.18. Liability of unlicensed person for tax on non-tax-paid fuels sold or delivered to others than licensees. — Any person who shall, while not licensed under this article, deliver to persons or firms other than licensees under this article, any special fuels upon which the tax due hereunder has not been paid and which such person knows, or reasonably should know, is to be used or sold for the purpose of propelling motor vehicles on the public highways shall be liable for the tax imposed by this article. (1955, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 105-449.19. Tax reports; computation and payment of tax.—On or before the twenty-fifth day of each calendar month, each supplier of liquid fuel shall render to the Commissioner a statement on forms prepared and furnished by the Commissioner, which shall show the quantity of fuel on hand on the first and last days of the preceding calendar month, the quantity received during the month and the quantity sold to user-sellers; and each supplier of fuels which are not liquid shall keep such records and make such reports of inventory as the Commissioner shall by regulation prescribe in order to show accurately the quantity of such fuel used by such supplier or sold to user-sellers and pay a tax thereon which as calculated by the Commissioner, would be equivalent to the seven cents (7¢) per gallon tax levied on liquid fuels. Each such supplier shall at the time of rendering such report pay to the Commissioner the tax or taxes herein levied during the preceding calendar month. (1955, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 105-449.20. When Commissioner may estimate fuel sold, delivered or used.—Whenever any person shall neglect or refuse to make and file any report for any calendar month as required by this article or shall file an incorrect or fraudulent report, the Commissioner shall determine, from any information obtainable, the number of gallons of fuel with respect to which the person has incurred liability under the special fuels tax laws of the State. (1955, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 105-449.21. Report of purchases by user-seller.—On or before the twenty-fifth day of each calendar month, each user-seller not otherwise licensed as a supplier shall render to the Commissioner a statement on forms furnished by the Commissioner, which shall be signed by the user-seller. The statement shall show the quantity of fuel on hand at the beginning of the month, the quantity on hand at the end of the month, the quantity sold or used and each and every purchase made by the user-seller during the preceding calendar month. Each purchase shall be specifically noted on the statement and the statement shall show the name and address of the supplier and the quantity and date of each purchase. (1955, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 105-449.22. Lease operations.—A lessee of a motor vehicle, and not the lessor thereof, shall make such reports and be liable for and pay such taxes as may become due under this article with respect to all operations by a lessee pursuant to any lease of a motor vehicle. (1955, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 105-449.23. Penalty for failure to file report on time.—When any user-seller or user shall fail to file a report within the time prescribed by this article, he shall be subject to a penalty of not more than fifty dollars ($50.00) for the first offense and not more than one hundred dollars ($100.00) for any subsequent offense, and any penalty pursuant to this section shall be assessed and collected by the Commissioner in the same manner as any tax provided for in this article and shall be subject to all other applicable provisions relating to

Cross Reference.—As to administrative, to taxes levied under this subchapter, see § penalty and remedy provisions applicable 105-269.3.

§ 105-449.25. Use of metered pumps by user-sellers. — Each user-seller shall dispense all liquid fuel sold by him to others from metered pumps which indicate the total amount of fuel measured through such pumps. Each such pump shall have marked thereon the words "Diesel Fuel;" or, if the fuel sold is not Diesel fuel, such other word or words descriptive of the type of fuel dispensed through such pump shall be prescribed by regulations promulgated by the Commissioner. (1955, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 105-449.26. Invoices or delivery tickets. — (a) Each sale of liquid fuel by a user-seller shall be evidenced by an invoice or delivery ticket with the name and address of the user-seller printed or stamped thereon and showing the name and address of the purchaser, date of purchase, number of gallons, price per gallon, tax per gallon, and total amount. One copy of such invoice shall be delivered to the purchaser at the time of sale, and a copy thereof shall be retained by the user-seller and preserved as other records are required to be preserved under this article.

(b) Not more than one original copy of any invoice for a single sale of fuel shall be prepared by any person. If an additional copy is required at any time, such copy shall be plainly marked "Duplicate," and the number of the original ticket or invoice shall be indicated thereon. (1955, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 105-449.27. Article 9 of Revenue Act made applicable.—All the provisions of article 9 of chapter 105 of the General Statutes, relating to general administration, penalties and remedies pursuant to the State Revenue Act, shall insofar as practicable, and except when in a direct conflict with the provisions of this article, be applicable with respect to this article. (1955, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 105-449.28. Retention of records by licensees.—Each licensee shall maintain and keep for a period of two years such record or records of fuel received, produced, manufactured, refined, compounded, sold or used by such licensee together with invoices, bills of lading, and also such other pertinent records and papers as may reasonably be required by the Commissioner for the administration of this article. (1955, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 105-449.29. Inspection of records, etc.—The Commissioner or any deputy, employee or agent authorized by him may examine, during the usual business hours of the day, records, books, papers, storage tanks and any other equipment of any licensee, purchaser, refiner, fuel dealer or distributor, or common carrier pertaining to the quantity of fuel received, produced, manufactured, refined, compounded, used, sold, shipped or delivered, as the case may be, to verify the truth and accuracy of any statement, report or return or to ascertain whether the tax imposed by this article has been paid. (1955, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 105-449.30. Refund for non-highway use. — Any person who shall purchase fuel and pay the tax thereon pursuant to this article and use the same for purposes other than to propel vehicles operated or intended to be operated on the highway irrespective of whether originally purchased for such non-highway use or not, shall, upon making application therefor as herein provided, be reimbursed at the rate of six cents (6¢) per gallon. Such refund shall be paid only to persons who secure refund permits and otherwise comply insofar as practicable with the provisions of G. S. 105-446, relating to refunds, as modified by regulations of the Commissioner. (1955, c. 822, s. 1; 1963, c. 1169, s. 5.)

Editor's Note. — The 1963 amendment, of refund from five cents to six cents per gallon.

§ 105-449.31. Refund where taxpaid fuels transported to another state for sale or use.—Any person, firm or corporation who purchases special fuels upon which the special fuels tax imposed by this article has been paid and who subsequently exports the same to another state, for sale or use without this State and delivers the same without this State shall be entitled to a refund of the tax paid upon presentation to the Commissioner of an application for a refund setting forth the fact that such special fuels were transferred out of this State for sale or use, together with such other information as the Commissioner may require. For the purposes of this section, “exports” means transporting fuel out of this State in a cargo tank, tank car, barge, or barrel and does not include transporting fuel in any tank connected with or attached to the engine of a motor vehicle. (1955, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 105-449.32. Rules and regulations; forms. — The Commissioner shall promulgate such reasonable rules and regulations and shall prescribe such forms as shall be necessary to effectuate and enforce the purposes of this article. (1955, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 105-449.33. Equipment of vehicle in which liquid fuel transported for sale or delivery.—No vehicle having attached thereto a tank in which liquid fuel is transported for sale or delivery shall be equipped with any connection between the tank in which such fuel is transported for sale or delivery and the motor or fuel tank of the vehicle through which fuel may be supplied for consumption in the motor thereof. (1955, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 105-449.34. Acts and omissions declared to be misdemeanors; penalties.—A person shall be guilty of a misdemeanor if he wilfully violates any of the provisions of this article, a penalty for which is not otherwise provided, or if he shall:

(1) Wilfully fail or refuse to pay the tax imposed by this article, or
(2) Engage in business in this State as a supplier or user-seller without being the holder of an uncancelled license to engage in such business, or
(3) Wilfully fail to make any of the reports required by this article, or
(4) Make any false statement in any application, report or statement required by this article, or
(5) Refuse to permit the Commissioner or any deputy to examine records as provided by this article, or
(6) Fail to keep proper records of quantities of fuel received, produced, refined, manufactured, compounded, sold, used or delivered in this State as required by this article, or
(7) Make any false statement on any delivery ticket or invoice as to the quantity of fuel delivered, sold or used; or make any false statement in connection with a report, or an application for the refund of any moneys or taxes provided in this article. (1955, c. 822, s. 1.)

§ 105-449.35. Exchange of information among the states. — The Commissioner, may, in his discretion, upon request duly received from the officials to whom are entrusted the enforcement of the use fuel tax laws of any other state, forward to such officials any information which the Commissioner may have in his possession relative to the production, manufacture, refining, compounding, receipt, sale, use, transportation or shipment by any person of such fuel. (1955, c. 822, s. 1.)
§ 105-449.36. July 1, 1955 inventory. — Every user-seller and every user who shall have on hand or in his possession any fuels shall take a true inventory of all such fuels on hand or in his possession as of 12:01 a.m., July 1, 1955, and shall on or before July 25, 1955, report to the Commissioner of Revenue the amount of such fuels on hand and shall pay to the Commissioner a tax of seven cents (7¢) per gallon together with an inspection tax of one-fourth cent (¼¢) per gallon. The reports required shall be in such form as may be prescribed by the Commissioner. (1955, c. 822, s. 1.)

Article 36B.

Tax on Carriers Using Fuel Purchased Outside State.

§ 105-449.37. Definitions. — Whenever used in this article, the word "Commissioner" means Commissioner of Revenue except when the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles is specifically designated. Whenever used in this article, the term "motor carrier" means every person, firm or corporation who operates or causes to be operated on any highway in this State any passenger vehicle, other than public school busses, that has seats for more than seven passengers in addition to the driver, or any road tractor, or any tractor truck, or any truck having more than two axles.

The word "operations," when applied to a motor carrier who transports passengers or property for compensation, means operation of all vehicles, whether loaded or empty, regardless of size or kind, for compensation.

The word "operations," when applied to a motor carrier who transports property not for compensation, means operations of all road tractors, tractor trucks, and trucks having more than two axles, whether loaded or empty, for the transportation of property into or out of or through this State.

Any motor carrier who operates or causes to be operated any such passenger vehicle, or any road tractor, or any tractor truck, or any truck having more than two axles on one or more days of any quarter of the year, as hereinafter described, is liable for the tax imposed by this article for that quarter and is entitled to the credits allowed for that quarter. (1955, c. 823, s. 1.)

§ 105-449.38. Tax levied. — A road tax for the privilege of using the streets and highways of this State is hereby imposed upon every motor carrier, which tax shall be equivalent to seven cents (7¢) per gallon calculated on the amount of gasoline or other motor fuel used by such motor carrier in its operations within this State. Except as credit for certain taxes as hereinafter provided for in this article, taxes imposed on motor carriers by this article are in addition to any taxes imposed on such carriers by any other provisions of law. The tax herein levied is for the same purposes as the tax imposed under the provisions of G. S. 105-434. (1955, c. 823, s. 2.)

§ 105-449.39. Credit for payment of motor fuel tax. — Every motor carrier subject to the tax hereby imposed shall be entitled to a credit on such tax equivalent to seven cents (7¢) per gallon on all gasoline or other motor fuel purchased by such carrier within this State for use in operations either within or without this State and upon which gasoline or other motor fuel the tax imposed by the laws of this State has been paid by such carrier. Evidence of the payment of such tax in such form as may be required by, or is satisfactory to, the Commissioner shall be furnished by each such carrier claiming the credit herein allowed. When the amount of the credit herein provided to which any motor carrier is entitled for any quarter exceeds the amount of the tax for which such carrier is liable for the same quarter, such excess may under regulations of the Commissioner be allowed as a credit on the tax for which such carrier would be otherwise liable for another quarter or quarters; or upon application within 180 days from the end of any quarter, duly verified and presented, in accordance with regulations promulgated by the Commissioner and supported by such evidence as may be satisfactory to the Commissioner, such excess may be refunded if it shall appear that the applicant has paid to another state under a lawful requirement of such state a tax on the use or consumption in said state of gasoline or other motor fuel purchased in this State, to the extent of such payment to said other state, but in no case to exceed the rate per gallon of the then current gasoline or other motor fuel tax of this State.

The Commissioner shall not allow such refund except after an audit of the applicant’s records and shall audit the records of an applicant at least once a year.

§ 105-449.40. Refunds to motor carriers who give bond.—A motor carrier may give a bond in the amount of ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00) payable to the State and conditioned that the motor carrier will pay all taxes due and to become due under this article. So long as the bond remains in force the Commissioner may order refunds to the motor carrier in the amounts appearing to be due on applications duly filed by the carrier under § 105-449.39 without first auditing the records of the carrier. Such bond shall be in such form and with such surety or sureties as may be required by the Commissioner.

(1955, c. 823, s. 4.)

§ 105-449.41. Penalty for false statements. — Any person who wilfully and knowingly makes a false statement orally, or in writing, or in the form of a receipt for the sale of motor fuel, for the purpose of obtaining or attempting to obtain or to assist any other person, partnership or corporation to obtain or attempt to obtain a creditor refund or reduction of liability for taxes under this article shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

(1955, c. 823, s. 5.)

§ 105-449.42. Payment of tax.—For the purposes of making payment of taxes pursuant to this article and making reports pursuant to this article, the year is divided into four quarters of three consecutive months each, and the first quarter shall consist of the months of January, February and March. The tax herein imposed shall be paid by each motor carrier to the Commissioner on or before the twentieth day of the month immediately following the quarter with respect to which tax liability hereunder accrues and shall be calculated upon the amount of gasoline or other motor fuel used in its operations within this State by each such carrier during the quarter ending with the last day of the preceding month. A lessee of a motor vehicle, and not the lessor thereof, shall make such reports and be liable for and pay such taxes as may become due under this article with respect to all operations by a lessee pursuant to any lease of a motor vehicle.

(1955, c. 823, s. 6.)

§ 105-449.43. Taxes to be paid into State Highway Fund. — All taxes collected pursuant to the provisions of this article shall be paid into the State Highway and Public Works Fund.

Editor’s Note.—The correct name of the Fund mentioned in this section is State Highway Fund. See §§ 105-436, 136-16.

§ 105-449.44. How amount of fuel used in State ascertained.—The amount of gasoline or other motor fuel used in the operations of any motor carrier within this State shall be such proportion of the total amount of such gasoline or other motor fuel used in its entire operations within and without this State as the total number of miles traveled within this State bears to the total number of miles traveled within and without this State.

§ 105-449.45. Reports of carriers. — Every motor carrier subject to the tax imposed by this article shall on or before the twentieth day of April,
July, October and January of every year make to the Commissioner such reports of its operations during the quarter of the year ending the last day of the preceding month as the Commissioner may require and such other reports from time to time as the Commissioner may deem necessary. When any person required to file a report as provided by this article fails to file such report within the time prescribed by this article, he shall be subject to a penalty of not more than fifty dollars ($50.00) for the first failure, and not more than one hundred dollars ($100.00) for any subsequent failure, and any penalty pursuant to this section shall be assessed and collected by the Commissioner in the same manner as is provided in this article with respect to any tax deficiency, and shall be subject to all other applicable provisions relating to the assessment and collection of taxes pursuant to this article. However, motor carriers are not required to make any reports with respect to vehicles used exclusively in intrastate operations in this State except as the Commissioner may specifically from time to time require, but this is not to be construed to eliminate the requirements as to registration and identification markers with respect to all such vehicles as provided in § 105-449.47. (1955, c. 823, s. 9.)

§ 105-449.46. Inspection of books and records.—The Commissioner and his authorized agents and representatives shall have the right at any reasonable time to inspect the books and records of any motor carrier subject to the tax imposed by this article. (1955, c. 823, s. 10.)

§ 105-449.47. Registration cards and vehicle identifications.—No motor carrier shall operate or cause to be operated in this State any vehicle listed or described in § 105-449.37 and not excluded therein from the scope of this article, unless and until he has secured from the Commissioner a registration card and an identification marker for such vehicle. The registration card shall be of such form and design as the Commissioner may prescribe. The registration card shall be carried in the vehicle for which it was issued at all times when the vehicle is in this State. The identification marker shall be in such form and of such size as the Commissioner may prescribe, and such marker may be either a plate, sticker, or such other form of identification marker as the Commissioner may prescribe. Such identification marker shall be attached or affixed to the vehicle in the place and manner prescribed by the Commissioner so that the same is clearly displayed at all times. Each identification marker for a particular vehicle shall bear a number which number shall be the same as that appearing on the registration card for the same vehicle. The registration cards and markers herein provided for shall be issued on an annual basis as of January 1st each year and shall be valid through the next succeeding December 31st. However, the Commissioner, in his discretion, may authorize renewal of registration cards and identification markers without the necessity of issuing new cards and markers. All identification markers issued by the Commissioner shall remain the property of the State. (1955, c. 823, s. 11.)

§ 105-449.48. Fees.—For issuing each registration card, a fee of one dollar ($1.00) shall be paid to the Commissioner and no registration card shall be issued unless the applicant pays such fee upon making application for the registration card. Such fees shall be paid into the State Highway and Public Works Fund. (1955, c. 823, s. 12.)

Editor's Note.—The correct name of the Fund mentioned in this section is State Highway Fund. See §§ 105-436, 136-16

§ 105-449.49. Temporary emergency operation.—In an emergency, the Commissioner, by letter or telegram, may authorize a vehicle to be operated without a registration card or identification marker for not more than ten days. (1955, c. 823, s. 13.)
§ 105-449.50. Application blanks. — The Commissioner shall prepare forms to be used in making applications in accordance with this article and the applicant shall furnish all information required by such forms. (1955, c. 823, s. 14.)

§ 105-449.51. Violations declared to be misdemeanors.—Any person who operates or causes to be operated on any highway in this State any motor vehicle that does not carry the registration card that this article requires it to carry, or any motor vehicle that does not display in such manner as is prescribed by the Commissioner the identification marker that this article requires to be displayed, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not less than ten dollars ($10.00) nor more than two hundred dollars ($200.00). Each day's operation in violation of any provision of this section shall constitute a separate offense. (1955, c. 823, s. 15.)

§ 105-449.52. Violators to pay penalty and furnish bond.—When any person is discovered in this State operating a vehicle in violation of the provisions of this article, it shall be unlawful for anyone thereafter to operate said vehicle on the streets or highways of this State, except to remove it from the street or highway for purposes of parking or storing said vehicle, until he shall pay to the Department of Revenue a penalty of twenty-five dollars ($25.00). Such penalty may be paid to an agent of the Department of Motor Vehicles. All penalties received by the Department of Revenue under this section shall be paid into the Highway Fund. Any person denying his liability for such penalty may pay the same under protest. He may apply to the Department of Revenue for a hearing, and said hearing shall be granted before a duly designated employee or agent of the Department within 30 days after receipt of the request for such hearing. If after said hearing the Department determines that the person was not liable for the penalty, the amount collected shall be refunded to him. If after said hearing the Department determines that the person was liable for said penalty, the person paying the penalty may bring an action in the Superior Court of Wake County against the Commissioner of Revenue for refund of the penalty. No restraining order or injunction shall issue from any court of the State to restrain or enjoin the collection of the penalty or to permit the operation of said vehicle without payment of the penalty prescribed herein.

In addition, the Commissioner may, if he deems it desirable or necessary to secure compliance with the provisions of this article, require the furnishing of a bond to the Commissioner in the amount of two hundred dollars ($200.00), in such form and with such surety or sureties as he may prescribe, conditioned on proper registration card and identification marker being applied for within 10 days and conditioned on the payment of any taxes found to be due pursuant to this article. In cases where the Commissioner shall require such bond, it shall be unlawful for anyone thereafter to operate said vehicle on the streets or highways of this State, except to remove it from the street or highway for purposes of parking or storing said vehicle, unless and until said bond is furnished. Whenever the Commissioner is required to exercise his discretion under the provisions of this section, such discretion may be exercised by him or by a duly designated agent or employee of the Department of Motor Vehicles or the Department of Revenue. (1955, c. 823, s. 16; 1957, c. 948.)

Editor's Note. — The 1957 amendment lated only to the furnishing of bonds by violators.

Cross Reference.—As to administrative, penalty and remedy provisions applicable to taxes levied under this subchapter, see § 105-269.3.
§ 105-449.54. Commissioner of Motor Vehicles made process agent of nonresident motor carriers. — The acceptance by a nonresident motor carrier of the rights and privileges conferred by the laws now or hereafter in force in this State permitting the operation of motor vehicles, as evidenced by the operation of a motor vehicle by such nonresident, either personally or through an agent or employee, on the public highways of this State, or the operation by such nonresident, either personally or through an agent or employee, of a motor vehicle on the public highways of this State other than as so permitted or regulated, shall be deemed equivalent to the appointment by such nonresident motor carrier of the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles, or his successor in office, to be his true and lawful attorney and the attorney of his executor or administrator, upon whom may be served all summonses or other lawful process or notice in any action, assessment proceeding or other proceeding against him or his executor or administrator, arising out of or by reason of any provisions of this article relating to such vehicle or relating to the liability for tax with respect to operation of such vehicle on the highways of this State. Said acceptance or operation shall be a signification by such nonresident motor carrier of his agreement that any such process against or notice to him or his executor or administrator shall be of the same legal force and validity as if served on him personally, or on his executor or administrator. All of the provisions of G. S. 1-105 following the first paragraph thereof shall be applicable with respect to the service of process or notice pursuant to this section. (1955, c. 823, s. 18.)

§ 105-449.55. Commissioner of Motor Vehicles to aid in enforcement of article.—The Commissioner of Motor Vehicles is hereby authorized and directed to utilize the State Highway Patrol, uniformed officers assigned to the various permanent weighing stations of the Department of Motor Vehicles, and such other personnel of the Department of Motor Vehicles as he may deem wise, to assist in enforcing the provisions of this article. (1955, c. 823, s. 19.)

§ 105-449.56. Enforcement powers of weigh station officers of Motor Vehicle Department.—The uniformed officers assigned to the various permanent weighing stations of the Department of Motor Vehicles shall, in addition to the powers set out in G. S. 20-183.10, have the powers of peace officers, including the power of making arrests, serving process, and appearing in court, in all matters and things relating to this article and the administration and enforcement thereof. (1955, c. 823, s. 20.)

SUBCHAPTER VI. TAX RESEARCH.

ARTICLE 37.

Department of Tax Research.

§ 105-450. Provision for Department of Tax Research. — The Department of Tax Research is hereby declared to be a separate and independent department of the State government. (1941, c. 327, s. 1; 1953, c. 1125, s. 1.)

Cross Reference.—As to Director of Department of Tax Research being member of State Board of Assessment, see § 105-273.

Editor's Note.—The 1953 amendment rewrote this section.

For comment on this article, see 19 N. C. Law Rev 443.

§ 105-451. Appointment of Director; salary.—When so designated the Department shall be directed by an officer to be designated as the Director of the Department of Tax Research, who shall be appointed by and responsible to the Governor, and shall serve at the will of the Governor. The Director shall be paid an annual salary to be fixed by the Governor with the approval of the Advisory Budget Commission, payable in monthly installments, and shall likewise be al-
§ 105-452. Clerical assistants and office equipment.—The Director is authorized to employ such additional clerical assistants and to obtain such additional office equipment as may be approved by the Governor and the Advisory Budget Commission. (1941, c. 327, s. 3.)

§ 105-453. Study of taxation; data for Governor and General Assembly; reports from officials, boards and agencies; examination of persons, papers, etc.—It shall be the duty of the Director to make a statistical analysis by groups and by counties of receipts under each article of the Revenue Act, and to make a thorough study of the subject of taxation as it relates to taxation within and by the State of North Carolina, including cities, counties, and subdivisions, their exercise and power of taxation; and to make a study of the taxation in other states, including the subjects of listing property for taxation, the classification of property for taxation, exemption, and tax collections and tax collecting, and he shall have the power and authority to make a comparative study of the subject of taxation in all its phases, including the relation between State taxation and federal taxation, and said Director shall assemble, classify and digest for practical use all available data on the subject of taxation, to the end that the same may be submitted to the Governor and General Assembly and may also be available for all citizens and officials of the State who are interested therein.

To the end that the Director of the Department of Tax Research may properly discharge the duties placed upon him by law, he is hereby accorded the following powers:

(1) He shall have authority to require from the Commissioner of Revenue, the Tax Review Board, other State officials, boards, and agencies, and from county tax supervisors, municipal clerks, and other county and municipal officers, on forms prepared and prescribed by the said Director, such annual and other reports as shall enable the Director to ascertain such information as he may require, to the end that he may have full, complete, and accurate statistical information as to the practical operation of the tax and revenue laws of the State.

(2) He shall have the same authority as is given the State Board of Assessment in G.S. 105-276 to examine persons, papers, and records. (1941, c. 327, s. 4; 1955, c. 1350, s. 12.)

Editor's Note.—The 1951 amendment rewrote the second paragraph.

§ 105-454. Purpose of creation of Department.—The creation of the Department of Tax Research is for the purpose of securing for the public and the General Assembly, as well as for the Executive Department of the State, at a minimum cost, all such information that the public and the General Assembly and the Executive Department should have relative to tax matters, including methods and systems of taxation in other states, to the end that the Executive Department and the General Assembly in dealing with matters of revenue and taxation may have such information and tax data available for consideration. (1941, c. 327, s. 5.)

§ 105-455. Submission of proposed amendments and information to Advisory Budget Commission; continuing study of economic conditions. The Director of the Department of Tax Research shall prepare and submit to the Advisory Budget Commission such amendments to the Revenue and Machinery Acts as the survey made by the Director indicates should be made, for their consideration in repairing amendatory Revenue and Machinery Acts for the General Assembly.
The Advisory Budget Commission is hereby authorized, empowered and directed to call upon the Director for such amendments and such recommendations as the Director shall make with respect to any needed changes in the Revenue and Machinery Acts. The Advisory Budget Commission is authorized, empowered and directed to consider such a report and shall make to the next session of the General Assembly a report on its findings with respect to such recommendations as it shall see fit to make and shall also report to the General Assembly the content of the report filed with it by the Department of Tax Research.

It shall be the duty of the Director of the Department of Tax Research to make a continuing study of economic conditions, and to evaluate the effect of these conditions on the tax bases and prospective collections therefrom. The Director shall submit estimates of revenue to the Advisory Budget Commission for its information. (1941, c. 327, s. 7; 1953, c. 1125, s. 2.)

Editor's Note.—The 1953 amendment added the last two paragraphs.

§ 105-456. Biennial report.—The Director of the Department of Tax Research shall make and publish two thousand (2,000) copies of a biennial report of such scope as may be approved by the Governor, which shall include recommendations and a digest of the most important factual statistics of State and local taxation. (1941, c. 327, s. 8; 1955, c. 980; c. 1350, s. 13.)

Editor's Note.—The first 1955 amendment (chapter 980, ratified May 13) omitted provisions as to publication and Governor's approval of scope. The second 1955 amendment (chapter 1350, ratified May 26) deleted “combined with the biennial report of the State Board of Assessment” formerly appearing after “biennial report.”

§ 105-457. Expenses of Department of Tax Research.—All expenses of the Department of Tax Research, except the appropriation for the statistical and research unit and such allotments as may be made by the Governor from the contingency and emergency fund, shall be borne by the State Department of Revenue and all accounts kept by, and vouchers issued by, the accounting division of the Department of Revenue. (1941, c. 327, s. 9.)

SUBCHAPTER VII. PAYMENTS RECEIVED FROM TENNESSEE VALLEY AUTHORITY IN LIEU OF TAXES.

ARTICLE 38. Equitable Distribution between Local Governments.

§ 105-458. Apportionment of payments in lieu of taxes between local units.—The payments received by the State and local governments from the Tennessee Valley Authority in lieu of taxes under section 13 of the Act of Congress creating it, and as amended, shall be apportioned between the local governments in which the property is owned or an operation is carried on, on the basis of the percentage of loss of taxes to each, determined as hereinafter provided: Provided, however, that the minimum annual payment to any local government from said fund, including the amounts paid direct to said local government by the Authority, shall not be less than the amount of annual actual tax loss to such local government based upon the two-year average on said property next prior to its being taken over by the Authority. (1941, c. 85, s. 1; 1959, c. 1060.)

Editor's Note. — Prior to the 1959 amendment this section related to the apportionment of payments between the State and local governments.

§ 105-459. Determination of amount of taxes lost by virtue of T. V. A. operation of property; proration of funds.—The State Board of Assessment shall determine each year, on the basis of current tax laws, the total taxes that would be due to both the State of North Carolina and the local governments in the same manner as if the property owned and/or operated by the Authority were owned and/or operated by a privately owned public utility: Provided, however, in making said calculations the State Board of Assessment shall use the tax rate fixed by the local government unit and taxing district involved for the tax year next preceding such calculations. The State Board of Assessment and the Treasurer of the State of North Carolina shall then prorate the funds received from the Authority by the State and local governments between the local governments upon the basis of the foregoing calculations. (1941, c. 85, s. 2; 1959, c. 1060.)

Editor's Note. — Prior to the 1959 amendment this section related to the proration of funds between the State and local governments.

§ 105-460. Distribution of funds by State Treasurer. — The treasurer of the State of North Carolina shall then ascertain the payments to be made to the local governments upon the basis of the provisions of § 105-459 and he is authorized and directed to distribute the same between the local governments in accordance with the foregoing provisions of § 105-459. The Treasurer of the State of North Carolina is further authorized and directed to pay said sums to the local governments each month or so often as he shall receive payments from the Authority, but not more often than once each month, after first deducting from any sum to be paid a local government such amount as has theretofore been paid direct to said local government by the Authority for the same period: Provided, however, that the minimum annual payment to any local government from said fund shall not be less than the average annual tax on the property taken by the Authority for the two years next preceding the taking. (1941, c. 85, s. 3; 1959, c. 1060.)

Editor's Note. — Prior to the 1959 amendment this section related to the payments to be made to the State and local governments.

§ 105-461. Duty of county accountant, etc. — The county accountant or other proper officer of each local government to which this subchapter is applicable shall:

1. Certify to the State Board of Assessment and the Treasurer of the State of North Carolina the tax rate fixed by the governing body of such local government immediately upon the fixing of the same;

2. Certify each month to the Treasurer of the State of North Carolina a statement of the amount received by the local government direct from the Authority.

No local government shall be entitled to receive its distributive share of said fund from the Treasurer of the State of North Carolina until the foregoing information has been properly furnished. If any such local government shall fail to furnish the information herein required within ten days from and after receipt by it from the State Board of Assessment of request for the same, forwarded by registered mail, then and in that event it shall be barred from participating in the benefits provided for the period for which the same is requested. (1941, c. 85, s. 4.)

Editor's Note. — Session Laws 1959, c. 1060, re-enacted this section without change.

§ 105-462. Local units entitled to benefits; prerequisite for payments. — Any local governments within the State in which the Authority now or may hereafter own property or carry on an operation shall be entitled to the benefits arising under this subchapter: Provided, however, that no payment shall be made to them by the Treasurer of the State of North Carolina until such time as such local governments shall have certified to the State Board of Assessment and the Treasurer of the State of North Carolina the average annual tax loss it has sustained by the taking of said property for the two years immediately preceding the taking thereof: Provided, further, that in the event of any disagreement between said local governments and the Treasurer of the State of North Carolina as to such annual tax loss, then the same shall be determined by the State Board of Assessment, and its decision thereon shall be final. (1941, c. 85, s. 5.)

Editor's Note.—Session Laws 1959, c. 1060, re-enacted this section without change.
