Each of us has learned by personal experience the wisdom of this teaching. We cannot learn from one another while shouting at the top of our voices. We shall fare much better when we speak quietly enough so that our words can be heard as well as our voices. SPECIAL MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The following special message is received from the House of Representatives:

H.J.R. 1720 (Committee Substitute), A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING THE MEMBERS OF THE NORTH CAROLINA NATIONAL GUARD AND THEIR FAMILIES FOR THEIR SERVICE TO THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA AND TO THE NATION SINCE SEPTEMBER 11, 2001.

Upon motion of Senator Rand, the rules are suspended and the joint resolution is placed on the Calendar for immediate consideration.

Upon motion of Senator Stevens, the remarks of the Members are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator Rand:

“Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, we are honored today to be able to consider this resolution honoring the members of our guard and their families for what they have done not only for North Carolina but the Nation and, really, the world. It is a phenomenal thing when you think about our National Guard and the men and women that do so much for all of us. I hope that many of you have had the opportunity in the last little bit to see the display of National Guard

June 26, 2007

Unit guideons that are out here in the rotunda that have been deployed since September 11. This really gives us a graphic illustration of the kind of service that has been rendered and the sacrifices that have been made for all of us. When you consider the fact that in our National Guard we have about 11,500 soldiers and airmen, 10,000 soldiers and 1500 airmen, in our National Guard units and of these 10,982 have been deployed since September 11, so you can readily see from that the type of sacrifice, the type of services that have been rendered. Our Guard operates with the joint forces headquarters here in Raleigh and six subordinate military commands across North Carolina and ninety-five armored facilities in seventy-five counties and three guard facilities in three Air Force Guard facilities in three different locations. There are six units, the 30th Brigade Combat Team Heavy which is in Clinton, 145th Airlift Wing in Charlotte, the 449th Theatre Aviation Brigade headquarters in Morrisville, the 113th Field Artillery Brigade in Greensboro, and the 130th Combat Support Brigade Maneuver Enhanced headquartered in Charlotte. During the time since September 11, the men and women of our guard have literally been serving around the world in defense of freedom and when you think about it, most of these ladies and gentlemen have civilian jobs and so they are away from their families, away from their every-day careers doing so much for so many of us to really keep our Country free. This has been something, in addition to the kind of things that we think of them doing and expect them to do on our behalf in the kind of emergencies we have here at home. We all know that when hurricanes strike North Carolina, when emergencies arise, when disasters hit, the first group on the scene is the guard making sure that we are safe, making sure that our State is protected, and making sure that the people and the property of North Carolina are secure and protected. We owe these men and women so much for what they do for us really as a part of just their everyday life. They mean so much to what we do. They mean so much to what our State is about and they represent us so well around the world and across this Country that we cannot really ever fully repay them for what they do for us. So I hope as you go about your duties today you'll take a little time and look at this display out here, you'll thank these men and women seated up in the gallery for what they have done for our State and our Nation, and just take a little time to thank them for their contributions for what this Country is all about. Thank you, Madame President."

Senator Swindell:

"Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, I don't know how many of you have had the opportunity to say goodbye and good luck to our guard folks as they have deployed to go overseas. Saturday before last, I joined the General down in Rocky Mount where we had one hundred and sixteen of our fine men and women in the 1132nd which are the Military Police who are leaving for Iraq. I have hardly ever seen such expression amongst these folks and the families and the pride that they showed that day knowing that they were going on a very difficult mission to a very difficult place in the world. And the interesting thing about all of our troops, I believe we have about eight hundred deployed at this time and they are all over that part of the world especially and the job for this particular group of men and women will be to train the police officers in Iraq. They left immediately after the ceremony for Mississippi where they will train and then September 1 they will go to Iraq. So I want to say to you, the National Guard, and I had a personal experience after our last series of hurricanes where I turned my house in Hyde County over to the National Guard and we had fifty guardsmen and women stay in my house for about seventeen days. Not only did they leave things better than they found them, they painted my kitchen for me because it needed a serious coat of paint! But you were great to the folks of Hyde County, taking care of the people as you know how to do and know how to do right. So I say to you that have been to Iraq and those of you who are here within the State, I know I join my colleagues in saying thank you for what you do for our Country, and the pride you give us as members of the North Carolina Senate. Thank you.”

Senator Brown

“I just want to briefly echo what Senator Rand and Senator Swindell have said. We have a unit in Jacksonville and several of the members of that unit have worked for me, some are good friends of mine, but one in particular, his name is on the resolution today and that is Specialist Daniel Desens. He was a real good friend of my son, went to school with my son, and he was one of the young men that was killed over in Iraq several years ago. We had a ceremony in Jacksonville honoring him and Captain Cash in Jacksonville and I went to that ceremony. It was well attended, it was a great ceremony, and I think that is echoed in what these guys and ladies give to us by serving the way they do and leaving their families, leaving their jobs to go and serve for us to be able to do what we do. So I just wanted to mention that. I know it really touched home with me because my son was pretty upset about it because he was one of his best friends so I just wanted to bring this up. Thanks so much.”

Senator Forrester:

“All of us have Guard Armories in our districts and most of us have participated in ceremonies where we’ve seen these guardsmen leave, being deployed and also when they return. As a retired Air National Guardsman of thirty-five years, I have worked with these men and women in both the Army Guard and Air Guard and I appreciate our citizen soldiers and what they do for our Country. Also, as mentioned by Senator Rand and Senator Swindell, during the times of hurricanes and disasters, they come when they are called and we appreciate it. If you notice on the resolution the ones that have been killed in action, wounded and died in the line of duty, we honor their families in this resolution which is important, too, because their families at home support them and I think it is appropriate we do that. We do honor the memory of the North Carolina National Guardsmen, those who serve with them, those who have given their lives in defense of safety and liberty of the people of North Carolina and of our Nation. I, too, encourage you to support this resolution and I wish to thank our guardsmen that are in our audience today. Thank you.”

June 26, 2007

Senator Atwater:

“Members of the Senate, you know it is altogether good and proper to have a break from our activities, our very important activities, and have this opportunity to enter into a solemn moment, a high moment, to honor our National Guard and their families. We are living in difficult and perilous times, not well defined and our guardspeople move when they are called to duty. They expect of us leadership at all levels that we will endeavor to make the best decisions that we can make regarding their operations and that we will stand with and by their families while they are gone. I am proud of the North Carolina Senate and the House, as well, that we have enacted legislation to more nearly stand with those families during crises. I am very proud of that but I am mostly proud of our guardsmen and their supportive families. I think that I would like to close my comments in a very special way and it is an opportunity for all of us to give memory to the names of those that have fallen, who have given their last full measure of devotion to this Nation and to this State and it is my hope that it will register in our hearts the profound gift that they have given on our behalf that we cannot quite get our minds around at any time. But we must always stop and try to appreciate what they have done for our society, for other families around the world and certainly for those in the United States to contain the threat of terror. From the North Carolina Army National Guard all of these individuals have been lost since September 11, 2001: Specialist Jocelyn L. Carrasquillo, Captain Christopher S. Cash, Specialist Daniel A. Desens, Staff Sergeant Bobby C. Franklin, Staff Sergeant Michael S. Voss. Additionally, Sergeant DeForest L. Talbert, a member of the West Virginia National Guard who was serving with the 30th Brigade Combat Team headquartered in North Carolina. From the North Carolina National Guard while mobilized, these died in the line of duty: Sergeant Leonard W. Adams, Staff Sergeant Michael McDonald, Specialist James Masters, Staff Sergeant Harold Best, Sergeant Kord Carreia, Specialist McKenzie Callahan, Sergeant First Class Earl Falcon, Specialist Terry Stafford, Sergeant Darry Benson, Sergeant Matthew Burton, and Master Sergeant Thomas Palmer. I think it is our hope and our prayer that God will bless the memory of each veteran that was a member of our North Carolina National Guard and that He might be very close to the families who surely continue to hurt and that we will remain close to them. I recommend the resolution to you.”

Senator Goss:

“Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, I don’t know how I can add to what Senator Atwater has just said but recently I was so privileged and honored to be a part of a ceremony in Boone, North Carolina, where the 1451st Transportation Company returned from Iraq. Many of these beautiful people, men and women, as others have already said, left their homes, their families, their jobs, and careers, some for a second time on deployment overseas. As we move toward this July 4, a special day in America, what better time than now not only to remember those who have given the ultimate sacrifice, but those that continue to sacrifice every day of their lives in ways that we can only imagine from afar. My son, Andrew, is a member of the United States Air Force and it was such a great moment for me to pick up the phone after I had been with this group in Boone on that Sunday afternoon a few weeks ago and call him and tell him the touching moments that we had sharing with these people that were basically in a world now without borders. We love you and appreciate you and may God Bless you is my prayer.”

Senator Basnight:

“To the members of the guard that are with us today and representing the fine soldiers of this State and also this Country, we thank you. It was after Isabel, which was a hurricane to come to ashore on Hatteras Island, that I met a young man from Mocksville, North Carolina. He was flying one of the Black Hawks and he took me from the Manteo Airport to Hatteras for my first view of what had happened to the people and the residents of the Village of Hatteras which had been severed by the storm. It had created an inlet and you could not get to the Island whatsoever and none of the people there were prepared for what occurred that night. The ocean did come over the full force of the storm, stripped the Island bare, and took out whatever was in its path in the lower elevations. They had no fresh water, they had no ice, they had no electricity, and did not have any of the things that are granted to us that you find in storms of that kind or maybe an ice storm at your home where you lose it for a short period of time. But you normally can get in a car and drive away. Well, in this case you couldn’t go anywhere and it was awfully hot. The young man took me on the Black Hawk and it was pretty interesting when we lifted up and we circled back real quickly and set back down. Well, we didn’t have enough fuel and I said that it was a pretty good idea to get this back down quickly and we filled her up and left again and then we had conversations later about what it was like to leave the family and come quickly to this isolated part of an island and give assistance and he said, ‘It’s my duty; it is my job; I am here to help, I am here to give and my family recognizes that I have to go at the call of whatever it may be, whatever the natural disaster or if there is a conflict, I do go and it’s something that I had to do in my life, so I gave just as you give.’ Now we have Colonel Jim Trogdon. I guess all of you who are in the gallery or certainly some of you may know him. He is in Iraq at this time. He worked for us in the Senate and we send our blessings to him and his company and his group of soldiers and to each and every one of you who are serving in harm’s way, or who are prepared to help us when some natural conflict comes our way and does damage to our community and to our family. You leave your family on behalf of us and you also give us the freedoms. Anyone who puts the uniform on in the morning to start the day has granted to us the right to stand and speak as we please even when strong disagreements occur. We have that right and it is granted because of the uniform of the American soldier so we thank you on this special day and for this resolution. I ask the unanimous support of our Senate.”

The joint resolution passes its second reading (49-0) and third reading with members standing and is ordered enrolled.

June 26, 2007

Upon motion of Senator Rand the Chair extends the courtesies of the gallery to Major General William E. Ingram, Jr., Adjutant General of the North Carolina National Guard; Mrs. Lil Ingram, First Lady of the North Carolina National Guard; Brigadier General Iwan Clontz, Assistant Adjutant General for Air; Lieutenant Colonel Steven Martin, Vice Chief of Joint Staff; Chief Warrant Officer 5; Richard Ernest, State Command Chief Warrant Officer; Command Chief Master Sergeant David Earnhardt, State Command Chief Master Sergeant; Ms. Diane Coffill, State Family Program Director; Mr. Tom Bowlin, Military Administrative Officer; Lieutenant Colonel William Ratliff; Lieutenant Colonel Barry Hull; Lieutenant Colonel Mark Christian; Lieutenant Colonel Gary McGinnis; Lieutenant Colonel Craig Robinson; Major William Moore; Major Vernon Simpson, Jr.; Major Matt Handley; Captain Mark Pickett; Captain Karen Tedesco; Captain Benjamin Wynn; First Lieutenant Jacqueline Watson; First Lieutenant James Klinger; Chief Warrant Officer 3 David Tyndall; Command Sergeant Major John Swart; Command Sergeant Major William Booth; Senior Master Sergeant Tommy Boggs; Master Sergeant Jeffrey Ferry; First Sergeant Matt Shorter; Sergeant First Class Terrance Albino and Specialist Stacey Strayhorn.

SPECIAL MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The following special message is received from the House of Representatives:

H.J.R. 1860, A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING THE LIFE AND MEMORY OF REVEREND WILLIAM WALLACE "W.W." FINLATOR, SR., DISTINGUISHED SOUTHERN BAPTIST MINISTER AND PASTOR EMERITUS OF PULLEN MEMORIAL BAPTIST CHURCH.

Upon motion of Senator Rand, the rules are suspended and the joint resolution is placed on the Calendar for immediate consideration.

Upon motion of Senator Kinnaird, the remarks of the members are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

June 26, 2007

Senator Cowell:

“It’s my honor to speak on this resolution. A lot of times the people who are honored in these resolutions, while very inspirational, can sometimes seem almost too perfect, a little bit too cardboard, and Reverend Finlator was anything but that. He was a very human, passionate figure and sometimes we have the football teams and the basketball teams and they’ve always won, which is great. But I think Reverend Finlator had his share of victories but also his share of losses and was gracious in defeat and talked about that there is a witness sometimes in losing and that if you hold the flag as you’re going down, that’s just as valuable sometimes as winning and I think as politicians and Senators we all understand that because, Lord knows, I’ve had my share of going down with the flags flying. Reverend Finlator passed away a year ago next week and actually the service was sort of linked in a way to the Senate session. We were debating the minimum wage bill that day and I left and went to the funeral at Pullen Memorial Baptist and we actually passed the minimum wage during the funeral and they announced that to the great pleasure of many of the people. As you can imagine, the folks who had come to that service were quite happy. Reverend Finlator was, first of all, a Baptist. I know he was a controversial Baptist but I think what he truly believed was actually on the cover of the memorial service about the Protestant Reformation and the freedom that we have as both Americans and the American religious system to find our own salvation, to find our peace with God, to do all of that on our own to the passions that we have and the conscience and that’s very much how he tried to live his life. I think, also, in this memorial resolution we should talk about the congregation at Pullen Memorial because they are really what enabled Reverend Finlator to have the mission that he did fighting for peace, fighting for labor rights, fighting for women’s rights, and racial equality. They really partnered with him and I think critics would say they deserved each other and the fans would say that it was a match made in Heaven that this congregation really supported Reverend Finlator to the extent that they did. Finally, I’ll say that the family who is here today were a tremendous support to him. I think so many folks who fight the hard fight and have their share of losses become bitter and angry. I’ve seen that. He was always eloquent, he always had good humor, and I think a sense of humility and stability at times that his family gave him. I know Mary Lib Finlator who was his wife of sixty-four years is here today, the love of his life, and was just such an incredible sense of stability. Wallace Finlator, his son, is here. Elizabeth Finlator McCutcheon, and The Reverend Joe McCutcheon, her husband, and Josh McCutcheon, his grandson, who also works for our State Treasurer. It’s just an incredible family and they have been like a second family to me so I’m very grateful to have this opportunity and I ask for your support of the resolution.”

Senator McKissick:

“Bill Finlator was one those very passionate, vocal advocates, particularly when it came to issues related to Civil Rights at a point in time in the South in the 60’s when it wasn’t particularly popular to do so for someone of his background, his color and his persuasion. He was someone who did not hesitate to stand up firmly, aggressively, to be in the forefront of those issues. He was someone who was not timid at a point in time when he put himself in danger and put his family in danger when there were threats being made not only to him but to those who surrounded him. It is people like that that we should all admire, people that we should look up to, people who are unsung heroes of our Nation and our society but, most importantly, the type of advocates who we can all embrace, someone whom I knew, whom my family knew, and I was a proud person to say that Bill Finlator was one of those people we all could depend upon under all circumstances, even when times were most difficult to be there. For that I say thank you all for sharing Bill with us and we as a State and as a Nation have benefited proudly from his contributions during his lifetime.”

June 26, 2007

Senator Albertson:

“I never had the opportunity to meet Mr. Finlator but had always wanted to. I always looked forward to reading his column in the News and Observer. I would find myself scanning the editorial page and the first thing I would always look for was to see if he had written another article. He didn’t write all that often, but he was someone I just looked forward to reading what he had written and I found him to be a very wonderful person. In fact, I wrote him a letter, it may have been after that last article he wrote, and told him how much I appreciated his article and how much I appreciated him. He answered me back and then we had a telephone conversation and I asked him one day if I could come down one day and take him out to lunch. He said, ‘No, I’ll tell you what I’d like to do. I’d like for you to come to my house and have lunch with us.’ Well, I’m sorry to say I never did take advantage of that. I told him that I would but I never did, but it was obvious to me that here was a person who truly loved people and he must have had a high calling if anyone ever did. It was obvious he cared about those who were disenfranchised, who other people did not think about that much, and he was a great inspiration to me and I will always cherish his articles and I hope someone, Senator Cowell, maybe saved those articles and, if so, I would like to have a copy sometime. He was a great gentleman and I had a great deal of respect and love for him.”

Senator Malone:

“If there were a Nobel Prize for justice and fairness, Bill Finlator would have qualified for that. He was an individual who believed that the Constitution embraced us all and not just a certain class and color. He lived by that, he espoused that in everything that he did. He stood tall. I participated in several activities with him and he always stood very tall when he pledged allegiance to the flag. He was particularly moved by the last phrase that says, ‘justice for all.’ He believed that, Senator Basnight. He believed that with every fiber of his being, and up until he was no longer able to communicate, that continued to be a part of what he was about. He never flinched; he never wavered. When he was called things that some of you know, which I would dare not repeat in this Chamber, when he dared to stand up for folk like me and say that Vernon

June 26, 2007

Malone you're o.k. He was called some ugly names for daring to talk about folk like me and say that you're all right. He never wavered. He wasn't afraid to be in the midst of all kinds of people. Bill Finlator made those with whom he came in contact proud to be Americans. We've done a lot of resolutions in this Chamber, but you have not honored a greater American than Bill Finlator."

Senator Rand:

"There is very little I can say that has not been said. If you read the News and Observer way back yonder, and when I learned to read, I started doing it, you had to know of Reverend Finlator and he was always involved in things trying to make society better, appealing to our better side and trying to remind us of our obligation to others and what we could do to make our Country better. If you talk about the triumph of the human spirit, if you talk about someone who passionately believed in the guarantees of this Country and in what makes this Country special, you couldn't find a better example than him. He was a wonderful man. I got to meet him later on and I was always impressed at such a kind and gentle man who evoked such strong emotions and it just amazed me. I always just loved to be in his presence and loved to be around him because he brought out the best in everybody he saw and all he wanted was for our society to be like the words say it is. That's an amazing thing but he was truly a good man."

Senator Berger of Franklin:

"I'm forty-seven years old. Twenty-six years ago when I was twenty-one years old at UNC-Chapel Hill, I was a campus organizer and very enthusiastic and interested in public policy questions and was involved in bringing different speakers to Chapel Hill to discuss different policy issues. I had the good fortune to bring Reverend Finlator to Chapel Hill to speak on the topic of the importance of the separation of church and state and it was from Reverend Finlator that I learned that one can be a Christian and a Constitutionalist because he fervently believed in Jesus Christ but he fervently believed in the separation of church and state and that it was through the separation of church and state that we can practice freedom of religion and fully and truly worship and honor our God. We get very few opportunities to meet legendary heroes in our lifetime but he certainly is a person that was a walking hero among us and I'm fully honored to have the opportunity to speak on his behalf and I commend this resolution to you."

The joint resolution passes its second reading (48-0) and third reading with members standing and is ordered enrolled.

Upon motion of Senator Cowell, the Chair extends the courtesies of the gallery to Mrs. Mary Lib Purvis Finlator, his wife; Wallace Finlator, his son; Elizabeth Finlator McCutchen and The Reverend Joe McCutchen, his daughter and son-in-law; Josh McCutchen, his grandson and Tom Currin, neighbor.

Senate Chamber
Wednesday, June 27, 2007

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Beverly E. Perdue, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Dear God, walking back to the church from the Senate yesterday in the ninety-degree heat, I remembered two church members in assisted living facilities who might benefit from a visit. But it's ninety degrees outside, I thought. My car's air-conditioning isn't working well. I could benefit from some meditation and study time in the cool of my office. Those two people will be just as glad to see me another day. Then I was enthusiastically greeted by two young men on Salisbury Street, white shirts, black pants and ties, riding their bicycles to their next appointment in ninety-degree heat. I thought to myself, 'why don't you guys give me a break.' The zeal of those two college-age Mormon missionaries ruined the rest of my afternoon. At this time in the Legislative Session we might all benefit from the same kind of joy that I heard and saw in their greeting. Amen."

Senator Basnight, President Pro Tempore, announces that the Journal of Tuesday, June 26, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Journal and it stands approved as written.

The Chair extends privileges of the floor to Dr. Marsha D. Fretwell from Wilmington, North Carolina, who is serving the Senate as Doctor of the Day.

June 27, 2007

EIGHTY-NINTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Thursday, June 28, 2007

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Beverly E. Perdue, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Dear Lord, Dr. Fred Craddock, well-known Methodist preacher and professor, tells a story that might make some sense to our Senate Conferees on the budget. I remember the first church I served as a student.' He said, 'They had a fund called the Emergency Fund and had about $100 in it. They told me I could use it at my discretion, provided I dispensed the money according to the conditions. So I said, 'What are the conditions?' The chairman of the committee said, 'You are not to give the money to anybody who is in need as a result of laziness, drunkenness, or poor management.' I said, 'Well, what else is there?' Far as I know, they still have that money. Most of us are better at judgment than grace. Amen."

The Chair grants leaves of absence for today to Senator Cowell, Senator Graham and Senator Smith.

Senator Basnight, President Pro Tempore, announces that the Journal of Wednesday, June 27, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Journal and it stands approved as written.

The Chair extends privileges of the floor to Dr. Henry E. Parfitt, Jr., from Fayetteville, North Carolina, who is serving the Senate as Doctor of the Day, and to Mary Brown from Garland, North Carolina, who is serving the Senate as Nurse of the Day.

CALENDAR

S.J.R. 1561 (Committee Substitute), A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING THE LIFE AND MEMORY OF WILLIAM DUDLEY ROBBINS, SR., FORMER LIEUTENANT COLONEL OF THE UNITED STATES ARMY.

Upon motion of Senator Rand, S.J.R. 1561 is taken up out of its regular order of business and placed before the Senate for immediate consideration.

Upon motion of Senator Soles, the Committee Substitute joint resolution is read in its entirety and, upon motion of Senator Dannelly, the remarks of the members, are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator Soles:

“It is really an honor to have an opportunity to speak in favor of this resolution honoring the memory and the good deeds of Colonel William Dudley Robbins, Sr. As you know from the resolution, he was born here in Raleigh, but immediately moved with his family to Pender County where I have the opportunity of serving as their Senator now. He was an outstanding community leader. He was a leader in education, the military, his community, church, and, of course, his family. It is interesting to note that Colonel Robbins finished North Carolina State University in 1942 where he had been the Student Body President, the Cadet Colonel of the ROTC and where he had lettered in football, baseball, and boxing. Only two years later he had fought in the Battle of the Bulge and was a prisoner of war from 1944 to 1945. During his military career, he exhibited extreme leadership, honor, and was awarded the Bronze Star,

June 28, 2007

Combat Infantryman's Badge, the Purple Heart, three Battle Stars, and ultimately reached the rank of Lieutenant Colonel. He was extremely active in the American Legion. He served as Post Commander, District Commander, State Vice Commander, State Commander, and was on the National Leadership Committee where he served on the National Executive Committee. Of course, I think the fact that three Governors chose him to chair the Veterans Affairs Commission in North Carolina speaks greatly for his ability, his honor, and his leadership. He not only was interested in the military and excelled there but, as you know, he was active in the community in many ways and served twenty-five years on the Board of Education for Pender County and twenty-three of those years he was the Chair of the Board. He was honored with the Order of the Long Leaf Pine and he was also a leader in his church, the Saint Mary's Episcopal Church. He was a teacher and a superintendent and a member of the Vestry. Of course, above all, he loved and honored his family and I am so pleased to have in the gallery today his wife and sons and several members of the community and friends who have come to join with us in this occasion. I commend this resolution to you. Thank you very much."

Senator Albertson:

"Senator Soles, thank you very much for bringing this resolution before us. He certainly was very deserving of this honor we bestow upon him. I knew Dudley many years ago when I worked with the U. S. Department of Agriculture and that was before I went into politics. Of course, I was able to get to know him and all of his family. We would go to the nursery for regulatory reasons and they were very good people, a very good family to work with. I thought about him yesterday, Madame President, when we had the student trooper program members here. Some of you might recall that he came up every year with that group and he was actively involved with these young people who were going into law enforcement. He took a lot of delight in doing that and rightly so. He was a true patriot I believe in every way. He was someone that was very involved in his community. He cared about his people. He truly loved this State and this Nation. I have nothing but good remembrance of him and I recommend the resolution to you."

Senator Dorsett:

"I happened to know Mr. Robbins because he was Chair of the Veterans Affairs Commission during my entire eight years as Secretary of Administration. He provided outstanding leadership and I don't know that he ever missed a meeting and I attended all of those Veterans Affairs Commission meetings as well as the annual meeting. One of the things that I observed about him was that he was truly dedicated to the veterans and he always provided encouragement and leadership and he was also one who worked very hard to assure that the veterans of our State and their families received the benefits that they were due. There are three things that I remember most about him. One was when we built the first veterans home in Fayetteville, North Carolina, he was there for the ground breaking and was certainly there for the opening of that facility. He was very proud of that. Also, his involvement with the very first cemetery that we built in Black Mountain, North Carolina, and then later one in Jacksonville and then one later in Fayetteville. He was always present offering his encouragement and leadership, not only to the veterans but to their families, as well. I had an opportunity to meet his wife. He had a very dedicated family. My thanks to you for lending him to us for all those years and for his leadership for North Carolina. I commend the resolution to you. Thank you.”

The joint resolution passes its second (47-0) and third readings and is ordered sent to the House of Representatives by special message.

Upon motion of Senator Soles, the Chair extends the courtesies of the gallery to Jackie Robbins, his wife; Jimbo Robbins and Red Robbins, his sons; Bill Robbins and Susan Robbins, his son and daughter-in-law; Ben Holterman, former Mayor of Wilmington and friend; Tom Bradshaw, friend; Jimmy Tate, Pender County Commissioner; Mr. Charles Smith, Assistant Secretary, North Carolina Division of Veterans Affairs; Mr. William C. Cox, Current Chair of the North Carolina Veterans Affairs Commission; Mr. James A. Woodard, Manager of the State Nursing Program; Mr. Elree Smith, Past Department Commander of the VFW; Mrs. Chris Capps, Administrator of State Veterans Nursing Home in Fayetteville; Richard Nevil, State Commander of the American Legion, and Eddie Padgett, friend from Asheville.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Upon motion of Senator Atwater, the remarks of the members about Independence Day are spread upon the journal as follows:

Senator Purcell:

“I would like to share with you just a very brief article that appeared in the Scosha Village News and I think it is very appropriate for this day and time. More than a year before the Congress meeting in Philadelphia that brought about the break with the Mother Country, much discontent was stirring in the Colony because of the repressive laws enacted by the British under the leadership of King George. On March 23, 1775, a young lawyer, Patrick Henry, and I know you all are familiar with this, stood before the Virginia Assembly in Richmond and gave an impassionate speech that is said to have galvanized Virginia and the colonies in general into the actions taken more than a year later that resulted in the drafting and adopting of the Declaration of Independence. His speech recited a litany of wrongs that he perceived England to have done to the free men of America. He closed it with the immortal words that everybody knows, but I’m going to repeat it in case you have forgotten, ‘... Peace, peace, but there is no peace. The war is actually begun. The next gale that sweeps from the north will bring to our ears the clash of resounding arms! Our brethren are already in the field! Why stand we here idle? What is it that gentlemen wish? What would they have? Is life so dear, or peace so sweet as to be purchased at the price of chains and slavery? Forbid it, Almighty God! I know not what course others may take, but as for me, give me liberty or give me death!’ As the events that followed showed and have been repeated a number of times and we’ve succeeded in two and two-thirds century, freedom is not free. It has been won time and time again and quite likely, if history is our teacher, will have to be won time and time again.”

Senator Kinnaird:

“On this Fourth of July, the greatness of our Country, I think, is so obvious if we reflect on The Bill of Rights. What makes our Country distinguished from every other country is The Bill of Rights. If you want to know what is happening in other countries and why it is happening, it is very often because they do not have that Bill of Rights that guarantees to the individual over the Government, the individual those rights that are enumerated. Certainly, the First Amendment is the one that is the shining star, but they are all important. But if we think about the First Amendment, ‘The Right of Association, The Right to practice Religion, The Right to prohibit the Government from interfering with the practice or establishing Religion, The Right of our Free Press,' we, very often do not like the press because they seem to be digging into things or embarrassing people but if we did not have the press that we have now, we would not have the Country that is as great as we have. Their investigations make us stronger. So it is with great pride that I think of us as being Americans and having our Bill of Rights that make us the greatest Country in the world. Thank you."

Senator Queen:

"Two-hundred and thirty-one years ago tomorrow in an Assembly not so different than this, our founding fathers signed their names and pledged their lives, their fortunes and their sacred honor in the Declaration of Independence. That document has several very important relations to North Carolina's role in the War for Independence. I've placed on your chairs a group of brochures for historic sites that pertain to North Carolina's role in that War for Independence. One of them that I want to lift up especially to you, because I don't think it is very well known across our State, is an event that happened in Western North Carolina on the frontiers of our State. One of the atrocities of King George identified in the Declaration of Independence and I quote, 'He has excited domestic insurrection amongst us and has endeavored to bring on the inhabitation of our frontiers the merciless Indian savages, whose known rule of warfare is an undistinguished destruction of all ages, sexes, and conditions.' This was penned on July 4. Within ten days, John Hancock wrote a letter to the Committee of Safety of South Carolina, and I'll quote this. This is from John Hancock. 'The Congress having received information from the State of North Carolina that the Cherokee have committed hostilities against the inhabitation thereof and that the President of that State has thought proper to carry the war immediately into the heart of the enemies' country, I am directed by the Congress to inform you of their request that you will afford all necessary assistance and cooperation with the State of North Carolina in carrying on with vigor the intended expedition that justice may be done for the injuries sustained and peace be established with the savages in that Country.' Again, two-hundred and thirty-one years ago on the frontiers of North Carolina, we had a serious conflict. The Cherokees had allied with the British to stop the Colonials, the Patriots, from fighting for their independence and on our frontiers two-hundred and seventy men who gathered together that summer came to Old Fort in what is called the Rutherford's Expedition. These were all volunteers with their own provisions, their own rifles, their own horses, committing their own time without pay, without really hope for anything very much as the men in that Congress on July 4 had committed their lives and fortunes and sacred honors to defend this Country. This is a very significant act of history that we need to be aware of along with all the others that are in that packet. So I brought those to you just so you will know what our founding fathers did in this State to secure our liberties and our independence. Thank you."

July 3, 2007

Senator Basnight:

“That was a fateful day for the white man but was not such a good day for the Indian. We did prevail and all of that started, I guess, on Roanoke Island many years prior to that and we were the conquerors of this new land and we did succeed. A few weeks before July 4, 1776, there was a committee formed and John Adams asked that Thomas Jefferson chair that committee and I believe Sherman and Livingston were also on the committee, as well as Franklin and that committee was to draft a document that would separate us from our Mother Country and from King George and Lord North and their oppressive ways of taxation and their ways of belittling and degrading many of our people much as they had done to Franklin at the House of Commons when he stood there sometime earlier. That document which was presented, I think, on July 2, was never debated by Jefferson and amended eighty plus times, the Preamble that we are all well aware of and Jefferson was not so much a believer in that Preamble, but it was the spoken words that we cherish so much today. On July 2, Adams debated it for a long length of time. It was then passed but he had to read it again, verbatim, in the State House in Pennsylvania. The second time because there was a delegate from Rhode Island who rushed in on his horse at the last minute and there was such a closeness of fear of defeat for our independence that he had to recite it again and he offered the same argument again and Jefferson was sitting quietly aside. Now much of those arguments, and we mentioned The Bill of Rights which had nothing to do with independence of that particular day, and the arguments that were set forth and what Jefferson presented in writing because of his abilities did announce that freedom would occur if the separation were to happen. It was because of the Minute Men in Concord and Lexington, the group of farmers of tradesmen that gathered to oppose the British that day, and Paul Revere’s famous ride with the doctor and then the ending such as it was at Bunker Hill, a massacre in Boston, the rallying of the British troops which were to come later and then the formation and the discussion and the discovery that America was in a fight for the lives of not just those people, but the future of what we see today as the freedom in the world and the creation of a Constitution at a later date and then The Bill of Rights that assured these freedoms and a Government that could not prevail from one body such as ours and the creation of three distinct legs of that stool that protects us today from becoming the dominate force. So it is a famous day and the creation of the opportunities and the freedoms that we have today in North Carolina are owned by all of us. They are giving us the title of representation through a Republic for a very brief period of time and we are given that partial ownership for a short period of time as we well know to do what is right by the people and for the people.”

Upon motion of Senator Basnight, seconded by Senator Dalton, the Senate adjourns subject to reading of messages from the House of Representatives, to meet Thursday, July 5, at 12:00 Noon.

NINETY-FOURTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Monday, July 9, 2007

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Beverly E. Perdue, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Whitson, First Baptist Church, Indian Trail, North Carolina as follows:

"Heavenly Father, tonight we seek to fulfill our wonderful privilege as your children to approach you and acknowledge your greatness among us. There is none like you. From the foundation of the world you determined that man could have a personal relationship with you. Your word declares that if any lack wisdom we should ask you and you would not withhold it from us but impart it to us lavishly. We confess tonight that we don't have the wisdom for the issues that confront us nationally, regionally, and personally. We need you and your involvement into our affairs. We welcome your voice to speak to the needs that confront us daily. As you speak, we will hear and obey. The men and women in this Assembly have been placed in authority over us to govern our State and to legislate action that is for the betterment of North Carolina. We thank you for setting these great people over us and that you have commissioned us to seek you on their behalf. May we never fail to enlist your power and wisdom to accommodate them and the task that has been assigned. Father, we thank you in advance for interceding on behalf of our great State. May we never steal away or take credit for the accomplishments that come from you. It is you who deserves the honor and glory and we joyfully acknowledge your greatness. In Jesus name, Amen."

Senate Chamber
Wednesday, July 11, 2007

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Beverly E. Perdue, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Dear God, few of us really know what it is like in there where the budget negotiations continue. We suspect that it is civil at times, but we also conjure up visions of it being downright contentious, maybe with justifications. We don't know for sure. One of the late Jerry Clower's stories about Eugene Ledbetter might give us some insight. Eugene and Jerry went coon hunting. They treed a coon, but could not budge him from the tree. So Eugene decided he would climb the tree and shake the raccoon loose. But to his surprise, it was not a coon up the tree at all. It was a wildcat. In a little while Jerry heard the awfulest commotion up in the tree you could imagine. Screaming and growling, hair and fur flying. Then came the voice of Eugene screaming, 'Jerry! Jerry! Shoot up here.' Jerry yelled back, 'I might hit you, Eugene.' 'Shoot up here amongst us, anyway Jerry. One of us has got to have some relief.' We pray that the conferees will get some relief and some resolution for the eyes of the Lord are on the Righteous and his ears are open to their prayer. Amen."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Upon motion by Senator Shaw, the remarks of the members who spoke on the Campaign for Tobacco Free Kids Award are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator Purcell:

“Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, I rise today to recognize some special young people who are part of the North Carolina Health and Wellness Trust Fund’s Teen Tobacco Prevention Movement. These young people are living testimonies that the efforts to prevent youth from smoking are paying off and they are seated in the gallery across from me. It is a special honor to recognize Anna Butler from Matthews, a junior at Charlotte Christian School, for being named the South Regional Youth Advocate of the Year by the Campaign for Tobacco Free Kids in a gala event in Washington on May 3. Anna was recognized for her fight against teen smoking. This national award recognizes Anna for her leadership in creating the Teens Against Tobacco Use student clubs to train faith-based youth groups and pregnant teens about the importance of tobacco prevention and cessation and urges them to call the Health and Wellness Trust Fund quick line for advice and help. We are grateful to Anna for her hard work and congratulate her for receiving this very prestigious national award. I also want to congratulate Question Why, Central East Region in Durham, an education advocacy and training movement funded by the North Carolina Health and Wellness Trust Fund for being named the Youth Advocates of the Year group winner. They are also in the gallery. This organization offers various courses to empower youth to become leaders to inform young people about the dangers of tobacco use. They also partner with alcohol law enforcement to create a merchant education program to reduce youth access to tobacco products. Congratulations to all of you for receiving this national recognition and what you have done for young people in North Carolina.”

Senator Pittenger:

“Special recognition I would say, also, to Anna Butler and these other young people. They demonstrate the kind of leadership that we all look forward to today. They have gone against the grain. What is popular for many kids, they said no to and have gone a different way and so now 27,000 kids have said no we are not going to smoke. We commend you, particular our good friend Anna Butler from Charlotte Christian. Our kids happened to go there at one time. We thank you for the great leadership that you have provided for the thousands of kids all over our State. God bless you.”

Senator Atwater:

“I am awfully pleased as well to commend you, Anna Butler from Mecklenburg County, and the youth advocacy group based in Durham. Our young people are just passionate about what they do and they have been tremendously successful in empowering other youth to take on and change the social norms surrounding the use of tobacco. They are just some of our finest citizens in North Carolina and we are expecting great things out of them in the future, but most of all we want to congratulate them today. Out of the seven national awards that could be achieved, they brought home two of them, one individual and one group. Thank you.”

Senator McKissick:

“I also want to add my congratulations to Anna Butler and to Question Why who are based in Durham and we are certainly pleased and honored to see them receive such a national recognition. In fact, Anna Butler and Question Why were the only honorees out of those nationwide that were from a tobacco-producing State and we are very proud. Of course, the leadership that these young people are showing is absolutely tremendous. We greatly appreciate that. Question Why has trained dozens of kids in North Carolina to be savvy when it comes to media literacy by teaching them how to spread the word about tobacco

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Dear God, for the child in each of us, the hardest part of any journey is not the start or the finish, but those long last few miles before we get to our destination. We pray that when the journey seems too long, when we feel tired, when our compassion turns to complaining, when our efforts toward justice and mercy seem to get us nowhere, it's time to remember the humility part. That it is you who has made us and not we ourselves. The saving of this world or even our

S.B. 119, A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO PROVIDE THAT EMPLOYEES OF THE DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE AND THEIR DEPENDENTS SHALL QUALIFY FOR THE IN-STATE TUITION RATE.

S.B. 1518, A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO APPROPRIATE FUNDS TO ESTABLISH THE JEANNE LUCAS SCHOLARSHIP FUND AT NORTH CAROLINA CENTRAL UNIVERSITY.

Upon motion of Senator Dannelly, seconded by Senator Weinstein, the Senate adjourns at 7:44 P.M. subject to reading of messages from the House of Representatives, to meet Tuesday, July 17, at 3:00 P.M.

NINETY-NINTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Tuesday, July 17, 2007

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Beverly E. Perdue, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Dear Lord, in Holy Scripture we are reminded that Jacob cheated Esau, Joseph's brothers sold him for twenty shekels, the prodigal's elder brother couldn't stand being in the same room with him when he returned. I'm afraid we are a lot like that, afraid someone is loved more and favored more, given and forgiven more. Somehow signals are crossed, opportunities are missed, messages are unheard or unheeded. Remind us that we all have pretty much the same fears and hopes. In this life we come from the same place and are headed in the same direction. Who among us can remain unmoved by the thought of how the world might be if we managed things under your guidance rather than our own. In your holy name we pray. Amen."

The Chair grants a leave of absence for today to Senator Brunstetter.

Senator Basnight, President Pro Tempore, announces that the Journal of Monday, July 16, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Journal and it stands approved as written.

July 17, 2007

The Chair extends privileges of the floor to Dr. Robert Crummie from Rutherfordton, North Carolina, who is serving the Senate as Doctor of the Day, and to Regina Wyatt, from Wilson, North Carolina and Charla Holbrook from Greenville, North Carolina, who are serving the Senate as Nurse of the Day.

CALENDAR

Bills on today's Calendar are taken up and disposed of, as follows:

S.J.R. 1566, A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING THE LIFE AND MEMORY OF SENATOR JEANNE HOPKINS LUCAS.

Upon motion of Senator Rand, the rules are suspended and the joint resolution is taken up out of its regular order of business and placed before the Senate for immediate consideration.

July 17, 2007

Upon motion of Senator Dorsett, the joint resolution is read in its entirety and, upon motion of Senator Forrester, the remarks of the members are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator Dorsett:

“Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate and to our distinguished guests and family and friends of Jeanne Hopkins Lucas, anyone who knows Jeanne Lucas would not be surprised to know that she was born on Christmas Day. I can think of no more appropriate date for her to be brought into this world. She was always so full of joy, so confident in the Lord and His ways and so willing to give to others. Jeanne grew up with a strong female influence in her life and surely we know how strong she was, as well, not just during her battle with cancer but throughout her entire life. Even when she walked through the valley of the shadow of death, she was strong and courageous. Jeanne was not afraid to die, but she really wanted to live. She never let you know her pain and she lived life to its fullest until the end. Her long and impressive career in education both at Hillside High School and in the Durham County public school system gave her the opportunity to teach and mentor countless young people in Durham. It gave her a chance to open their eyes to all of the world and what it had to offer them and it gave her the occasion to lead by example and not just by the textbook. Though she left the school system in 1993, Jeanne never stopped teaching. As the first African-American woman to serve in the State Senate and later to serve as the first African-American majority whip, she was a trailblazer in every sense of the word. But her life in public service was not about just being first. It was about being the best elected official that she could be. Her priorities in the Senate included improving education and health care, helping those who could not help themselves, and creating opportunities for those who could help themselves if they just had the chance. These are priorities that we all are so proud to share with Jeanne and as the General Assembly wrestled and wrangled with how to achieve those priorities, sometimes the debate, as you know, would get rather tense. And Jeanne, like nobody else I’ve ever seen, would speak strong and inspiring words in her calming lilting voice in order to diffuse the tension and to remind us all of the greater goal that we were working toward together. If that tactic didn’t work and on rare occasions it didn’t work, Jeanne would always resort to her jokes and that usually worked as you would remember. I know a lot of you here will want to talk about what Jeanne meant to you personally, so I’m going to conclude my remarks. I continue to miss her strength and wisdom as a policy maker, her humor and her kindness as a friend, and her grace and dignity as an inspiration to us all. I believe to the bottom of my heart that Jeanne Lucas was a true angel. You know she always referred to herself as ‘Queen Jeanne’ and I know that we will all be blessed and we have been blessed to have known her. Her seat is now filled by Senator Floyd McKissick who is also from Durham. I ask for your support of this resolution. Thank you.”

July 17, 2007

Senator McKissick:

“I’d first like to thank Senator Dorsett for presenting this resolution. I think it’s one that all of us joined in as members of this Body. Certainly, Senator Lucas was one of those role models when it comes to politics in North Carolina that is extremely distinguished by virtue of the fact that she was the first African-American female State Senator. I think most importantly, there’s not much one can add to the words Senator Dorsett has said or to the words in the resolution itself but when you think of Jeanne you think of someone who was articulate, who was eloquent, who was passionate and committed, courageous, was approachable and, most importantly, accessible. She was somebody who did not hesitate to come when called upon and someone who did not hesitate when those controversial times occurred. When people who might have been from low-wealth communities did not have a voice, she was someone who could speak to those issues of concern, someone who was passionate to issues related to education but, most importantly, somebody we could all look to, rely upon, who was an outstanding role model not only for African-American females in this State, but for all politicians in terms of aspiring to the standards she set. I know my first political work with her was when she served as Chairman of the Political Committee of the Durham Committee on the Affairs of Black People. At that particular point in time I served as her co-chair or vice chair and we worked diligently together during that time frame interviewing candidates, asking those tough, difficult questions to make certain that when that organization made endorsements that they were for the issues and people that we could all feel proud of. I know Jeanne was one of those persons who I often stood by, stood with and, yes, shared a joke. She was someone who had an outstanding sense of humor, someone who you knew you could trust and rely upon and someone whose integrity was beyond reproach. I can only say that this Body was privileged to have her serve and the State of North Carolina was privileged to have her serve. Most importantly, we thank her family for sharing her with us. We thank Bill Lucas, her husband. We thank Bernie and Bert and we thank all of those who gifted us with her talents and allowed us to share in her life. At an appropriate time I would like to recognize a few people in the gallery.”

Senator Garrou:

“You young women up there in the gallery, let me say to you that often women are accused of not being willing to reach out and embrace people who join them in a particular body but Senator Lucas reached out to all men and women but particularly, I felt, to women. She included me in conversations and discussions, gave me good advice, always with a good sense of humor. But I think it was an important lesson for me to see because she was an important role in leadership when I came down here as a freshman legislator and I particularly appreciated her advice and her encouraging words and all the kind things she ever said to me. Certainly, she was a delight to be with. You’ve heard about her humor and her wisdom. I miss her so much and I need to just share with you one story about Senator Lucas. I was sitting next to her one day in a committee meeting and she leaned over and she tapped me on the shoulder and she looked really serious and I thought, 'Oh, my goodness, what is she going to say.' And she said, 'Garrou, when you lean over, I can see your drawers!' So, that was good advice which I appreciated her sharing with me. We all need fashion police and we miss Senator Lucas. Thank you."

Senator Swindell:

"I cannot top that story nor shall I try! I probably knew Jeanne Lucas as long as or maybe longer than most people on this floor because we became friends in 1975. In 1976, she was President of the ACT in Durham when she was at Hillside and I was President of the NCEA at that time in Granville County. We became very dear friends, we were extremely close and then we had time to get together once again when I worked with Tim Valentine when he represented Durham County. But the thing that really I remember most about Jeanne, she never changed over all those years. She was the absolute same in 1975 as she was when she was here the last days with us. When the Pro Tem and the leadership gave me the opportunity to serve with her on Education as co-chair, that was quite a joy. Since 1975, she had always called me 'Sweeny' and so when I heard 'Sweeny, do this, Sweeny, do that,' it took me back through all the years. Bill, I say to you, and I saw Lavonia up there, too, with the people with the Durham Committee that were so active and that I had a lot of dealings with and were always so cordial, but when we sat there at the tables doing the Education budget in the final year, Jeanne would have a little heater down by her feet and Christine Leggett would give her her sweater and she would wrap up in the sweater but she would not miss a meeting doing the budget. When I would think that I had something, I would say, 'Well, why don't we do so and so?' She would look up very gingerly and say, 'Sweeny, we're not going to do that.' I would say, 'Yes, ma'am.' Every now and then when you would think you might have a 'one-up' you never did. Then she would calm down the staff and she would have them walk back through what we were doing. So I say to you thank you for allowing me to speak. Bill, to you and the family and to the sisters, she was a grand friend, she was a great lady, and she was an extreme joy for everyone who knew her. Thank you."

Senator Albertson:

"Members of the Senate, you could not help but love Jeanne Lucas. She was just a wonderful person. There are several things I will always remember about her. She would sit down here in the seat where Senator Jones is sitting and almost every day I would see her coming in or going out. She pronounced my name unlike anybody else I'd ever heard say it. She called me 'Abberson' and just had a special way of saying it. Jeanne always loved a good story. I can hear her laughing and she could tell you a good story so she was always delightful and it was always good to be in her presence. The other thing that I will always remember about her, I called her the 'lady with the golden voice.' I think that of all the people I've ever heard speak, she had the most beautiful, loving voice of any person I've ever met in my life and that's why I always referred to her as the

July 17, 2007

'lady with the golden voice.' She was a wonderful lady. Jeanne, I know you are looking down on us right now. We all love you and I commend the resolution to you."

Senator Dalton:

"Members of the Senate, Jeanne Lucas was indeed a great lady. I think we are all blessed to have known her and to have served with her. It was my honor and privilege to serve with her as co-chair of Education for four years and she was a great champion of education, a former teacher, a former administrator. Many of you may not have remembered that she taught Spanish and spoke Spanish fluently and whenever she wanted to seize the moment when other people were talking, she'd start talking Spanish. Nobody knew what she was saying and we all had to stop, and say 'Jeanne, what are you talking about?' Then she had the moment and she had the floor. It was my honor and privilege to sit next to Jeanne for two years and that was a marvelous experience because when any of you got on the floor oftentimes she had a running commentary under her breath about what was going on and a lot of that commentary, I must admit, was reserved for Senator Webster when he was here! It was indeed an experience to sit next to her. Jeanne was a hero to a lot of people and to many in this Chamber. She had an innate ability to know when she needed to come to the rescue. The Lieutenant Governor mentioned that at her service and I know there were times when she came to my rescue many times. She was a hero to so many people, to her constituents, to the people of North Carolina and to the people of Rutherford County. One day Rita Burch who is the Director of Hospice in Rutherford County called me. She was very upset because they had applied for some additional beds and they had been denied a certificate of need. She was so upset and so I said, 'Well, what's the procedure, Rita?' She said there's an appeal and there's a committee and I said, 'Well, who is on the committee?' She said would you know Senator Jeanne Lucas? I said, 'Absolutely, I know Jeanne.' I called Jeanne and said, 'Jeanne, something is coming up. I just ask for you to hear it but please let Rita Burch be heard.' Evidently it was very traditional that they rubber-stamp whatever the agency wanted. When they brought it up some person immediately moved to adopt the agency's report and Jeanne said, 'Wait a minute, we have got to hear Rita.' They heard Rita and that certificate of need was granted by the same person who was making the motion before and those beds are there in Rutherford County because of Jeanne Lucas doing a great job for the people of Rutherford County. Jeanne loved people, she loved this Senate and she loved Senator Basnight because of his vision and because of his respect for every person. She very much appreciated that. I knew when she was absent that something was wrong. Jeanne never missed a vote and I also knew when Jeanne was absent her heart was right here in the North Carolina Senate. So, as long as we go about our business protecting children, as long as we go about our business providing educational opportunities for our children, as long as we respect others, as long as we laugh at ourselves and as long as we live life to the fullest, we will honor the life of Jeanne Lucas because that is what she was about. I commend this resolution to you."

July 17, 2007

Senator Allran:

“Members of the Senate, like everybody else, I really do miss Senator Lucas. As I saw this resolution, I guess I thought I really liked the word ‘charmer’ that they called her. I am into the concept of her as a personality. It’s like you could go into a room and if she was there she could kind of like dominate the room in a way. She just had this big smile on her face and this personality. She was so extroverted and I appreciated her friendliness so much, her smile. Somebody has mentioned she had a 100% attendance record here at the State Senate. She never missed. She sat here at this desk during some of her tenure here which is an honor to me. I wanted to mention a few things that are special to me about her. One of them is the way that has been mentioned by a few people that she called people by nicknames which I thought was very appealing. I’ve had a lot of nicknames over the years but she is the only person who ever called me ‘All.’ She just always said ‘All’ which I thought was just great. Another thing I appreciate was that I haven’t done that many chapel services here. I’ve only done a few of them and I don’t know that she did many but I just said one day, ‘Jeanne, you and I ought to do a chapel service together. I think that would be great.’ She said, ‘I would be honored, All.’ So we had a chapel service which meant a lot to me and it was recorded and I have kept that recording of that service. Another thing that I liked a lot about Jeanne and will miss is she liked movies and she said to me one day, ‘This has been a long day. I’m going to go home, kick back, put my feet up and watch Ben Hur.’ She said, ‘I’ve got about a hundred movies that I own and so I have a stress-free life. Whenever I get worn out I just go watch a movie.’ From that time on, I started collecting movies and she inspired me to do that and now I share them with some of the people here at the legislature. Another thing about Jeanne is that she and her sister, Bernie, gave me a plant out of their office a few years ago and I took that plant and planted it and put it on my sun porch and now it has covered up a whole wall. So every Sunday I have to water that thing and every Sunday I think about how Jeanne and Bernie gave me that plant that has taken over my sun porch. So for that and other reasons I would just say that she was just one of those people you’ll never forget. Over an eight-year period my daughters were pages here. They would always ask about her. Thank you.”

Senator Foriest:

“Madame President, I have been part of this institution for only a few short months but I have really been awed by the pillars of leadership that have come before me and that certainly includes Jeanne Lucas. She is one of the many men and women who have not only guided and shaped this particular institution but she has guided North Carolina into being the best State in the Union. Unfortunately for me, I never really got to know Jeanne Lucas personally but I had met her on several occasions and she always impressed me with her wit, her candor, her sense of humor, and her love of this Chamber. Something would be said or done and she would pull me aside and she would say, ‘Let me tell you how it really is!’ She was the kind of person that was always there for anyone who needed help and I very much appreciate that. I think the writer, John Donne, summed it up best when he said, 'Any man's death diminishes me, because I am involved in Mankind; And therefore never send to know for whom the bell tolls; it tolls for thee.' Without Jeanne, I think we are a little less effective as a Body. I think that without Jeanne a small part of us has died and the thing that keeps coming to my mind is the fact that it is only the grace of God that keeps us all from joining her at any time. To my colleagues, I certainly recommend this resolution to you. To this family, my best to you all and may God Bless."

July 17, 2007

Senator Hagan:

"I certainly do miss Jeanne Lucas and I know we all do. When I first came to the Senate a number of years ago my youngest daughter was in the sixth grade and her class came for a trip to Raleigh and, of course, they got to come into the Chamber. I asked Senator Lucas to come and talk to them. I like every one of you here but I thought this class would really be inspired by Jeanne Lucas so she came. We had the Well of the Senate. She lectured and she talked to that group of sixth graders and then she started talking in Spanish and then in French and let me tell you, those young students were so impressed with Jeanne Lucas, to see the skills and her voice, we've all talked about her voice. She could command anything and so my daughter still talks about Senator Lucas. A lot of times when the Chaplain was not here we would ask Jeanne to pray for the Chamber and I pulled up one of her prayers and it was on March 27, 2003, and in one paragraph in that prayer, she said 'Thank you, Father, for blessing us with the many wonderful people in this Senate family, for all they do to advance positive legislation for the people of this State and beyond.' I just think about the fact that she loved us as much as we all loved her and I know her husband, Bill, is here and she spoke so highly of him. All the time that some of the women would be talking, oh my goodness, there was always incredible love and an incredible relationship that she had with her husband and her sisters, and her sorority sisters, her sorors! Jeanne Lucas was a much-loved individual and we definitely miss her here and I commend this resolution."

Senator Kinnaird:

"I remember Jeanne when I first came here. We were at a caucus over at the NCAE Building and I had walked over and it was a hot day and it was time to come back and Jeanne came up to me and said, 'Why don't you just ride back with me?' I said, 'Oh, no, I can just walk back.' She said, 'Please come.' She was so kind to me and she told me lots of things about getting started as a freshman and I was so grateful for her help and her warmth in welcoming me. One time I stepped out of bounds pretty badly and Senator Lucas let me know in no uncertain terms. She also couched it in a way that was a learning experience for me and so full of love that I felt I had been reprimanded, yes, but I had also learned a great deal from that loving kindness that she showed me. I had been a friend of a young woman who had been in Carrboro, Michelle Cotton Laws, a wonderful young woman who had made a difference in our community. She had gone to Durham and made a difference and then I found that Jeanne was sort of her surrogate mother in Durham and I was so delighted to find that she shared this wonderful young woman and that she had taken her under her wing and was mentoring her to become a leader which I know she will. Finally, I have to mention the flowers. We were so delighted when we came in and we all saw Jeanne's flowers and just this last week Bernie put a vase on each of our desks and it reminded us of the love of Jeanne Lucas for this Chamber and for her family and for all of us. I commend the resolution to you."

Senator Dannelly:

"Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, first let me thank Bill, Bernie, Bert, the Hopkins family members, the Lucas family members, and all the friends of Jeanne Lucas for sharing her with us. I was thinking when was the first time I met Jeanne and I believe it was at North Carolina Central on one Saturday evening when Julius Chambers was Chancellor and I guess he was being honored. Julius used to be one of my neighbors or I used to be one of his and I was just appointed by the Governor to come to this Body. I was sitting there at a table and I saw this face with the sun-shining smile on it showing all teeth, and she walked up to me and said, 'Hello, I'm Jeanne Lucas. They call me Queenie. You're the new Senator, aren't you?' I said, 'Yes, I am. I'm Charlie Dannelly.' She said, 'Charlie Dannelly, well welcome and anything I can do for you just let me know.' And she wasn't kidding. I think that's the last time she called me Charlie Dannelly. From then on I was 'Charlie D.' Jeanne never saw color. She indicated to me that the color of the human race is gray. She didn't hold grudges if she had a disagreement or didn't like what you did. I'm sure everyone in here that may have done something she didn't like heard about it from Jeanne. She found out that holding grudges works worse on you than it does on what caused you to feel the way you did. She was a great jokester. I'm sorry but the jokes I remember that she told me, I can't tell in here! Jeanne was very, very professional. I've seen many chairpersons of committees here, R. C. Soles, Tony Rand, but Jeanne was about the coolest chairperson of a committee I've ever seen. She didn't rush, she didn't let you take charge of her committee, and she treated everyone with respect. I wish we could all learn to be that way. Jeanne had this great, great sense of humor. I'm sure everyone has seen her in this Chamber when we start up or when we would have a break, wherever Jeanne was sitting eventually there was a crowd around her and all of a sudden, big laughter and Jeanne would sit down and we called it, 'holding court' in this corner. When she was sitting on that side of the Chamber she held court. She'd come in and sit down behind her flowers and I think she and the flowers were sort of competing against each other to see which one could smile the biggest, but she held court wherever she was in this Chamber. One other thing I really admired about Jeanne was that I watched her all over this place and every, every service worker that she came in contact with and met, the next time she saw them, she would call them by name, and ask them how they were doing and ask them about their family. She knew everyone she came in contact with by name. I'm still trying to learn the names of some of them. I could go on and talk more about Jeanne. She and Bill were very private people. It took me five years to get through to that home phone. It really did. Even then, they would be sitting up there looking at movies at night or on weekends and wouldn't answer the phone unless they felt like it! She got so when my number would pop up she would put it on speaker. 'Hey, Charlie D, what you want?' And we'd have our conversation. She would call me and if I wasn't in I'd get in and listen to the message, 'Hey, Charlie D, tell Rose hey, call me when you get in.' Sometimes I'd listen to that message two or three times because I, like many of you, loved to hear Jeanne Lucas talk. She had a melodious voice. I won't take up any more time but if you want to know some of those jokes she told me, see me later on! I urge you to support this resolution."

Senator Rand:

"Jeanne Lucas was a beautiful woman but I always thought that the beauty of her soul was really the crown jewel of her persona. She was a person of great dignity, of unquestioned integrity, of a very quick and insightful intelligence, and she would use her humor and her wonderful mind to give us examples of things, to teach us lessons about things or to diffuse situations sometimes when we might be arguing with one another. But wherever she was, it was a better place because she was there to bring joy and just spontaneity and real pleasure to the people that were assembled. She called me several things, depending on whether or not she approved of what I was doing. But I always thought that of all the people I knew, she was one of the most worthwhile people that we had in North Carolina. She was a great friend, she was a wonderful advocate for this Body, and North Carolina will certainly miss her great beauty and wonderful intelligence. Thank you."

Senator Apodaca:

"I think back to the fall of 2002. My mother called me from Durham and she was going over the ballot with me and asked me what I thought about this person, what I thought about that person. She went through the whole ballot and she left off the State Senate race which at that time I was particularly looking at and I said, 'Mother, how about the State Senate.' She said, 'Oh, Jeanne Lucas is my Senator.' And she said you need to meet her when you get over there. And, again, my mother was right. When I first met Senator Lucas, it was an experience I'll never forget. I was a teacher's pet and I hadn't been able to say that much in life. But Jeanne Lucas loved me and I knew it. But I loved her just as much as she loved me. I remember I was running the first bill I ever did in Education and it was going pretty well and I was getting a little long-winded and she stopped the meeting and she said, 'Senator Ap-o-da-ca,' – she could say my name like none other, 'come here.' I stepped back, and she said, 'Looks like you're doing pretty good here. If I were you I'd shut up and vote or you can keep talking and we'll adjourn the meeting.' I said, 'Yes, ma'am.' And it passed. But every day I walked in this Chamber there were two people I looked for and they were Ham Horton and Jeanne Lucas. I'll always remember Jeanne Lucas over here and that smile. Oh my, when we renovated this Chamber we should have put extra light in because she did light up this Chamber like no other. But she told me all she ever was was a teacher and that's all she ever wanted to be remembered by. She and my wife formed a bond that was unbelievable that day and they kept in touch. I think about the last correspondence was the article they wrote on Jeanne about beating breast cancer and she wrote a little note to Lisa and Lisa sent a little note back. Well, I'm here today to say Jeanne Lucas is still a survivor and she'll always be a survivor in this Chamber. Bill, I've got to tell you, I used to tell her that you were the luckiest man in the world but I think we were all lucky to have her in this Chamber and I miss her every day."

July 17, 2007

Senator Atwater:

"It's a high honor for me to speak to the resolution about my dear friend and our dear colleague, Senator Jeanne Hopkins Lucas. As a citizen of a democratic republic, she is really the only queen I ever really knew and I did love her. Mr. Bill Lucas, given the culture of our day, I will always remember, and it resounds in my ear today, the many gracious and loving references she made of you. Always she would say, 'At, that Bill Lucas is good to me.' Bill, I do hope that she called you Bill but she always said Bill Lucas to me, Bill Lucas. Senator Lucas' sisters, Bert and Bernie, both of you were such pillars of love and support to her especially during her illness, Bernie by day and Bert by night and they met the challenge. Bernie, all of us noted that you gave and met the assurances and wishes of your Senator and our Senator and that they were met in full during her last days and you were an inspiration to all of us in the Herculean efforts that you gave. Senator Lucas would invite me from time to time to go with her and I wasn't in the habit of saying no to the highly respected Senior Senator so I went. I think she wanted me to experience it all. Well, we got into some pretty tough meetings, pretty hot meetings, and the tighter and tougher they became I would look over at her and she would become calmer and more collected and ready to be whatever she instinctively knew she needed to be for her constituents. If she ever looked at me at all, I am sure that I looked quite white to her, that is, pale-faced, but they were tough meetings. What did I learn about Senator Lucas by going to these tough meetings? One, she deeply respected and loved all people and she was more than prepared to go where they were going to be and where they desired for her to come. She felt honored and privileged to be with hurting citizens and she knew how to administer to them. Upon leaving she would say, 'At, most times when people are hurt and they are disappointed in their government, they simply need to be respectfully listened to.' And surely she meant more than that. If we were to go home and find a way to affect their lives in a positive way, that was our responsibility to do. But first and foremost they needed to be respectfully listened to, every word that they had to utter, whether they were loud or whether it be a mild word, it was our duty and our privilege to listen to it. That was the lesson of the day and every day for an elected official and I was privileged to learn that from her. I'd like for you to accept by way of a prayerful recitation of a somewhat abridged form of the poem, If, by Rudyard Kipling because I think it speaks to Senator Lucas in a lot of ways, the depth and richness of her great character, keenness of her intellect, the generous and gracious nature that she had for all people and I think that when you consider the era in which she lived, from race relations to public education to the North Carolina Senate, I think it speaks to her and how she handled herself in so many ways. So if you will allow me to recite this poem:

‘If you can keep your head when all about you are losing theirs and blaming it on you, If you can trust yourself when all others doubt you but make allowance for their doubting, too, If you can wait and not be tired by waiting or being lied about, don’t deal in lies, or being hated, don’t give way to hating, yet you don’t look too good or talk too wise, If you can dream and not make dreams your master, If you can think and not make thoughts your aim, If you can meet with triumph in disaster and treat those two imposters just the same, If you can beg to hear the truth you’ve spoken twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools, or watch the things you gave your life to broken and stoop and build them up with worn out tools, If you can make one heap of all your winnings and risk it on one turn of pitch-and-toss and lose, and start again at your beginnings and never breathe a word about your loss, If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew to serve your turn long after they are gone and so hold on when there’s nothing in you except the will which says to them, hold on, If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue or walk with kings nor lose the common touch, If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt and all people count with you, If you can fill the unforgiving minute with sixty seconds’ worth of distance run, yours is the earth and everything that’s in it and, which is more, you will be an incredibly full and productive human being and citizen of the world.’ She was a premier North Carolina public educator and administrator, a worthy and humble member of Mt. Gilead Baptist Church, a wonderful wife, mother to hundreds, sister, sister-in-law, dear relative, loyal friend, bridgemaker and confidante, a distinguished sister of Delta Sigma Theta and the Durham Links, and a North Carolina Senator. I can hear Cricket, Jeanne’s loving and guiding mother, saying in the background, ‘Yes, you can and will be all of these manifestations of public service and loving and giving and guiding relationships to all people, my dear daughter.’ Amen.”

Senator Graham:

“I know we’ve been here for a while now and it would be remiss on my part for me not to stand here and say something about Senator Lucas. I remember the day after my primary victory four years ago. The telephone rang and it was Senator Lucas. My daughter answered the phone and they had a twenty-minute conversation and then she asked about my other daughter. This is our first time meeting her, by phone, and having talked to Courtney for about twenty minutes and Courtney told her about her little sister, Nicole, so Nicole got on the phone and talked to Senator Lucas for another twenty minutes. She talked to my wife, Kim, for another twenty minutes and I said ‘I’m the Senator, I want to talk to Senator Lucas.’ But she made sure that she called to welcome me to the North Carolina Senate. She welcomed my family and spoke with my daughters and my wife about the experience that I would have coming up here and then she spoke with me. I knew Senator Lucas by reputation but didn't know her personally at that time. We spoke for well over an hour. We talked about why I was coming and what I wanted to do and she told me that she was willing to help in any way possible. Back then, I was probably one of the youngest Senators, maybe there were two or three younger than I am, and she was a role model for me, she and Senator Dannelly. She would check with me periodically during that first term. I think she was able to read me pretty well. She called me 'Malki' and she knew when I was frustrated and she would tap me on the shoulder and call me down to her office and say, 'O.K., tell me what's wrong, what's not going right?' But she was encouraging, she was thoughtful, she was more than a colleague, she was not even a mother figure, she was just Jeanne and I could come to her and confide in her. Being a member of this Body is an interesting experience from time to time but she was always willing and ready to put it all in perspective for me and encourage me to do what I needed to do representing not only my district, but representing the African-American community and the challenge that was ahead that I had the opportunity to help solve the puzzle. I miss talking to Senator Lucas. Bernie was always there in her office. They were a tag-team duo, probably the best LA in the building and they worked well as a team and I learned a lot from her and I just want to stand before this Body and say that she is certainly missed by this Senator. My children still ask about her and I told them about her passing. They all were sad because in that brief phone call and coming here during the swearing-in and getting the opportunity to meet her personally, they all fell in love with Senator Lucas right away. They fell in love with Senator Lucas and always talked about Senator Weinstein. Those were the two Senators that the kids would always ask about. But always they'd ask about Senator Lucas, how is she doing? We miss her in our Senate family and certainly in my family and I just want to give my regards to the family, to Bill, to Bernie and I ask you to support the resolution. Thank you."

Senator Basnight:

"To the family that meant so very much to me, I loved her dearly as I do now and that will always continue. She was a very special person to all of us and she leaves behind for the children who are gathered here, the young adults, a very difficult path to follow because you will have to be able to make many sacrifices. You will have to be willing to give to others at a level that is rarely seen today. She was a person who wanted to see life enriched for everyone. She cared little for describing the personality of a person by their color but more by their actions and what deeds they would consider to be successful in life. She wanted to see that life was a place of sharing, a place where others would receive more than you would receive yourself. She believed in education so very much that I once offered her the chairmanship of Appropriations. Kay, Linda, Walter, one of you would not be here in that position today if she had not said 'no.' She wanted to chair Education. That was her love and her belief was that through education you could strengthen not just the mind, the soul, and the body, but you also could strengthen others as well. Jeanne enjoyed laughter as much as anyone in this Body. She would smile so quickly at any of us. She knew that we were part of God's kingdom and that is where she is today. She's looking down upon us. Jeanne, we love you as much today as we will tomorrow. God bless you."

Lieutenant Governor:

"The rules don't allow me to talk very much but I've got to do this. Jeanne and I were tight. We were great friends and as I think about her, Bill, and Bernie and the family and her sisters, I think about the joy she had in living and the joy she had every day and something good. My Mom used to say that when somebody was really special, somebody that you could count on in the good times and the bad, my Mom would say he or she's got quality. Jeanne Lucas had quality and she still has quality. When I think about her, she taught me about joy, she taught me about hope and she taught me about sadness. Jeanne Lucas taught me how to live and, as importantly, Jeanne Lucas taught me how to die. Members of the Senate, I would ask you to stand in honor of a fellow Senator, a great North Carolina woman, a great leader and, most importantly, our friend and sister."

The joint resolution passes its second reading (49-0) and third reading with members standing and is ordered sent to the House of Representatives by special message.

ONE HUNDRED ONE DAY

Senate Chamber
Thursday, July 19, 2007

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Beverly E. Perdue, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Our God, Thomas A Kempis wrote, 'Be not angry that you cannot make others as you want them to be, since you cannot make yourself as you want to be.' It would be unwise to pray for a daily outpouring of consensus in the Senate, for out of debate and differences of opinion come good decisions. It is not too bold, however, to request that even in their differences you give the Senators a strong sense of community. Then on days when they don't see eye to eye, your presence and that community will help hold everything together for the good. Amen."

The Chair grants a leave of absence for today to Senator Hoyle.

Senator Dannelly, Deputy President Pro Tempore, announces that the Journal of Wednesday, July 18, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Journal and it stands approved as written.

ONE HUNDRED SECOND DAY

Senate Chamber
Monday, July 23, 2007

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Marc Basnight, President Pro Tempore, who presides in the absence of the Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Steve Sumerel, Member, First Baptist Church, Raleigh, North Carolina as follows:

"Gracious God, you are the God who is and has been present throughout history. You are the God whose story is woven in the lives of people, great and small, who have turned to you in times of need and decision. You are the God who has granted provision in the desert, courage in the battle, and peace in the shadowy valley. So we pray now, for that same presence in the midst of this Chamber and within the hearts of these servants, that your provision, your courage, your peace will be real to them in this time of deliberation. When the common good is to be found most in that vast gray area between black and white, may wisdom abound and may discernment conquer complexity. This we humbly pray. Amen."

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

With unanimous consent, upon motion of Senator Allran, the remarks of Senator Weinstein who rises to a point of personal privilege, are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator Weinstein:

“Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate, we’re coming close to closing down the Senate, hopefully, and at this time I’d like to share some things with you that I think you will enjoy. As you know, I have collected stamps for over fifty-seven years and they tell the history of a Country through stamps and so I wanted to share with you and give to you some things that I’ve gotten from my collection. First of all, I’d like to start out with my Republican friends. In 1948-1950, there was a Republican, a true Republican. Senator Blake you would probably know this man. He had the moniker of ‘Mr. Republican’ and in 1960 the U. S. Post Office honored Robert A. Taft and he was known as ‘Mr. Republican.’ I have here that I’m going to give to the Minority Leader a plate block of Robert A. Taft, ‘Mr. Republican’, issued October 10, 1960. Mr. Minority Leader, I’d like to present this to you and you can give them to your members. Unfortunately, it will not mail one letter. To my Democratic friends, in 1945-1946, our leader, the Ex-President Franklin D. Roosevelt, was honored with a series of stamps and I would like to present each of the members a copy of these stamps. I’ll give these to our Majority Leader who can pass them out to you. It’s a one-cent, two-cent, three-cent and five-cent plate block originals honoring Franklin D. Roosevelt. With all these stamps today you can mail one envelope. To Senator Rand, I’ve got it here where you can give these to the members. To Ted Harrison, our Reading Clerk, I couldn’t find anything with TV but I found something with two presidents, bi-partisan, like you have to be, who were good speakers and added a lot to our Country which were issued in 1969, Dwight D. Eisenhower, an eight-cent stamp, and issued in 1973, Harry Truman, so I would like to present this to you if you would come down and get this. I’d also like to give these to our Sergeant-at-Arms, Cecil Goins. In 1968, there was a stamp issued honoring Chief Joseph and in honor of your Indian heritage, Chief Joseph reminds me a lot of you. He was quiet, he carried a big stick, but he was very, very well respected and this is a sheet of Chief Joseph that I want you to have. This is a stamp honoring the American woman. When I was growing up, a woman could be a secretary or a teacher or a housewife and that was about all that was open. There has been tremendous progress in women and their accomplishments and this stamp was issued in 1960. I'd like to give this to our Senate Clerk, Janet Pruitt, who exemplifies the modern American woman and her accomplishments. I have a stamp here that was issued in 1948 and the title of it is 'The Progress of American Women.' I know there is one lady here, I don't see her now, but I think if anything exemplifies a woman standing up for what she believes and the progress, it is Senator Ellie Kinnaird and I would like her to have this if she would take it. I have two other things. I've worked hard on this. This stamp was issued in 1936. It is seventy-one years old. It was issued in Manteo, North Carolina and it is the Virginia Dare stamp. I want to give this to Senator Basnight to replace the one that was in his restaurant. And, Marc, I also have issued in 1949 the Wright Brothers stamp that was in his restaurant and I'd like to give you this as a replacement to put in your new restaurant. Last but not least, in 1989 there was a stamp issued honoring the State of North Carolina and I'd like to give this to Lieutenant Governor Beverly Perdue, the President of the Senate, so Lieutenant Governor if you would come down I'd like to give you this stamp of North Carolina which I know you love so very much. He is not here, but I've not forgotten Reverend Morris so I'll give him his next week. Thank you for indulging in my little thing. I appreciate it."

SPECIAL MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The following special message is received from the House of Representatives:

H.J.R. 2065 (Committee Substitute), A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING THE LIFE AND MEMORY OF DR. JAMES PRESTON GREEN, SR., A PHYSICIAN AND FORMER MEMBER OF THE NORTH CAROLINA HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Upon motion of Senator Rand, the rules are suspended and the joint resolution is placed on the Calendar for immediate consideration.

Upon motion of Senator Atwater, the remarks of the members are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator Berger of Franklin:

“Last year our community suffered two major losses from the same family. We had Dr. James Preston Green, Sr., who served in the House during the 1990’s and his son, James Preston Green, Jr., who both passed away in the same year. This family was a wonderful family to our community and to our State. Some of you served in the House with Dr. Green. He was a strong advocate for the rights of the poor when it came to issues involving health care. In fact, in the House he was known as the ‘Doctor in the House.’ My first contact with him came about in the mid 1990’s when there was an effort by the Workers Compensation Insurance companies that wanted to be able to communicate to an injured worker’s doctor ex parte and he led the fight to maintain the privacy of injured workers. He was a champion on a whole range of health care issues both in the legislature and within our community. The first time I actually recollect meeting him face-to-face was years after he had left the House of Representatives and it was at an NAACP meeting when I was running my first time for public office. He was a gentleman who had gotten up years in age and yet he was still fighting the good fight, making sure that folks who were running for public office were committed to issues of concern for the weakest among us and it was very sad for our community to lose him. Then five or six months later we suffered a second loss, his son, who served in our community as an attorney and he was a chip off the old block and, like his father, was a strong advocate for the poor. In fact, I had the opportunity to work with him on a number of issues in the community and one of the last things he was working on when he unexpectedly passed away was the election of the first African-American sheriff in our community of Vance County. Their lives and hard work inspired folks and folks wanted to make a tribute to both of them by working very hard to win that election and we were successful in doing that. We have family members here and I request that they be recognized.”

Senator Rand:

“It was my privilege to know Dr. Green for a number of years. He was a very distinguished gentleman and a wonderful fellow who was always involved in medical affairs and affairs of the community and things involving our State. He had a very forceful personality and was a great spokesman for the issues that affected his area and the people of North Carolina. His service in the House, of course, was remembered fondly by everyone who had any contact with him. He was a great North Carolinian and really did a lot for North Carolina. I would ask your support for the resolution.”

July 24, 2007

Senator McKissick:

“I had known Dr. Green since I was probably about sixteen or seventeen years old and knew his family extraordinarily well. I see his wife, Carolyn, here today and she is certainly one of those persons I kind of thought of as being a second mother. His brother, Ike, and his sister, Caroline, are here also. Mrs. Green’s father was Dr. Shepherd who was a founder of North Carolina Central University. Dr. Green did not hesitate to be passionate about the needs of the less fortunate and to make certain that he was an advocate to see that their health care needs were provided for. Back in the early 1970’s over in Warren County, there was a project my father was working on known as Soul City. Dr. Green worked closely with my father on that project. There was a time when we went out and did surveys and I went out and took those surveys to establish that there was a deficiency in the needs of people in that area when it came to health care. There were people who did not see a doctor for prenatal care before delivery of their children and people who did not go to dentists to obtain services until there was a cavity in their mouths and their teeth were ready to be extracted. We did those surveys, we documented that need and Dr. Green worked passionately to help address that need. There were mobile homes that were first put there, doublewides, two of them, which Dr. Green helped personally to get financed. We doubled the number of doctors that were in that area to provide health care needs for the less fortunate, those who could not afford to go to a doctor, those who could not afford to pay the prevailing costs, who paid based upon their need. We doubled the number of dentists in that area and when it came time to build a permanent building to house those facilities and to expand those facilities and when Senator Helms attached an amendment to a bill to stop those appropriations, Dr. Green, my father, and I went to Washington and we met with those who were conferees in the Senate and House committees that were dealing with those appropriations. We worked diligently with Senator Morgan, Congressman Valentine, in that era, Claiborne Pell from Rhode Island, and Heinz from Pennsylvania, and we reversed it so that health clinic got built. When it came time when they didn’t want them to disperse controlled substances, prescriptions, and they were trying to stop it, we worked together collectively to make sure that those individuals that needed prescriptions to be dispersed were able to obtain them through a pharmacy that was being created and that people who could not afford to pay what Eckerds would charge could get those prescriptions based upon their needs. Dr. Green was an integral part of that. When it came time to build a regional water system, and to this day that remains the largest in the State of North Carolina and provides water from Kerr Lake to those who reside in Warren County, Vance County and Granville

July 24, 2007

County, Dr. Green was a part of that team of individuals with former City Manager Irwin Holmes in Henderson and Mayor Currin in Oxford who worked together to open up that area to growth and development, to help bring in jobs that ultimately came from plants like Revlon and many others that located there. Dr. Green, in so many ways, was out there in the forefront, out there in the trenches. When it came time to provide medical services, if you went to his office it was so overwhelming. In a typical day he would see anywhere between seventy-five and a hundred people and you did not get an appointment when you went there. You went there between 7:00 A.M. and 8:00 A.M. and you pulled a number and he worked all day long to help those that were less fortunate, those that needed health care, and those that had no other alternatives. To Dr. Green and to his family, I thank you all. When it came to giving, his son worked underneath me on several occasions as an assistant planner and at one time in a law office that I had in Oxford. During a time when I was Chairman of the Board of Land Loss Prevention Project, a purely voluntary role for me, his son Jimmy was working in a commensurate capacity to help those farmers that were unfortunately facing the potential of losing their land to foreclosure. They were having problems with the Farmers Home Administration with their loans and Jimmy was an outstanding attorney and a passionate advocate for the needs of those that were less fortunate and truly needy. They are a family that is committed to those goals and those aspirations that are ideals in our hearts and in society and they not only spoke those words but took the actions that were appropriate to make significant and meaningful change. To people like Dr. Green, to people like his son, Jimmy, I can only say thank you for what you have brought to us. Thank you for those lives you have touched, not only in the counties where you live but throughout the State of North Carolina. I really didn't realize we were going to have this day but I can say this, it's been a privilege and it's been an honor to be associated with such a distinguished family. Thank you."

The joint resolution passes its second reading (40-0) and third reading with members standing and is ordered enrolled.

Upon motion of Senator Berger of Franklin the Chair extends the courtesies of the gallery to Mrs. Carolyn Smith Green, wife of Dr. Green and mother of Attorney Green; Mr. Isaac Hughes Green, Sr., son of Dr. Green and brother of Attorney Green; Ms. Carolyn Green Boone, J.D., daughter of Dr. Green and sister of Attorney Green; Mr. Franklin Boone III, grandson of Dr. Green and nephew of Attorney Green; Miss Francesca Boone, granddaughter of Dr. Green and niece of Attorney Green; and Ms. Marjorie Donaldson, niece of Dr. Green and cousin of Attorney Green.

Wednesday, July 25, 2007

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Beverly E. Perdue, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Steve Sumerel, First Baptist Church, Raleigh, North Carolina as follows:

"Omnipotent God, you are the God who dwells in all the earth, in the sprawling cities and quaint towns, and in pristine forests and meadows and coastline of this great State. You dwell in the homes of the rich and poor, and in the shelters and missions of those who have no home. May it also be that you shall dwell within the hearts and minds of these assembled, seeking wisdom for the tasks before them. It is from within your vastness that competing interests and perspectives are connected; for you are far larger than a single State, or Nation, or ideology. We seek now, oh God, just a peek through your omnipotent vision, the clarity of a big picture, as this body seeks to bring that which is good to all the people, and to all the places wherein your spirit dwells. Bless them in that noble task, we humbly pray. Amen."

SPECIAL MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The following special message is received from the House of Representatives:

H.J.R. 2063 (Committee Substitute), A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING THE TUSKEGEE AIRMEN AND EXPRESSING APPRECIATION FOR THEIR SERVICE DURING WORLD WAR II.

Upon motion of Senator Rand, the rules are suspended and the joint resolution is placed on the Calendar for immediate consideration.

Upon motion of Senator Jones, the remarks of the members are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator Dorsett:

“It’s certainly my pleasure today to present this resolution to the members of the Senate. The Tuskegee Airmen was the popular name of a group of African-American pilots who flew with distinction during World War II as the 332nd Fighter Group of the United States Army Air Corps. In June 1941, the Tuskegee program officially began with the formation of the 99th Fighter Squadron at the Tuskegee Institute and that’s a highly regarded University that was founded by Booker T. Washington in Tuskegee, Alabama. The 99th was ready for combat duty during some of the allies’ earliest actions in the North African campaign and was transported to Casablanca, Morocco. The fliers in the ground crew were largely isolated by racial segregation practices and they were left with very little guidance and battle-experienced pilots. But far from failing as they were expected to do, a combination of pre-war experience and the personal perseverance and drive of those accepted for training resulted in some of the best pilots in the United States Army Air Corps. Nevertheless, the Tuskegee Airmen continued to have to fight racism. Their combat record did much to quiet those directly involved with the group, notably bomber crews who often requested them for escort but other units were less than interested and continued to harass the airmen. It was on March 29, 2007, after many years about 350 Tuskegee Airmen and their widows were collectively awarded the Congressional Gold Medal at the ceremony in the United States Capitol rotunda. Many other states have honored and recognized these men of bravery. As a matter of fact, one of the Tuskegee Airmen who now lives in North Carolina is in Illinois today being recognized by the Illinois General Assembly because he is a native person from Illinois. So today after many years, we in North Carolina celebrate all of the Tuskegee Airmen for their heroic contributions during World War II and the momentum that they encourage for Civil Rights. We especially recognize those who were born or reside in North Carolina as a symbol of their bravery for all North Carolinians who serve in our military. Many have passed on but quite a few are with us today, they or their families, and their memories and their contributions continue to live with us. We extend our appreciation to this group who are sitting in the gallery today, to them and their families for the sacrifices and contributions that they have made and certainly I commend the resolution to you. Thank you.”

Senator Kinnaird:

“I am proud to say that a friend of mine, Chuck Stone, who was Professor Emeritus of Journalism, a Robert Spearman Distinguished Professor, was a member of this outstanding group. I am just very pleased that we have had a number of articles this year that have finally brought out the real bravery and courage and real respect that we owe them. I’m very grateful that we have this resolution and I commend it to you. Thank you.”

Senator East:

“Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, I had become somewhat enamored with the stories and the movies and all of the Tuskegee Airmen and their heroics and the tough struggles that they came through back in the 1940’s. You know, it was a different world in the 1940’s than it is today. I had learned that a popular figure around the General Assembly, Mr. Harold Webb, who is currently a Wake County Commissioner, was a member of the Tuskegee Airmen, so I have aggravated him several times and got bits and pieces of information out of him. He is a very interesting fellow and he agreed to talk to a little group that I put together three or four weeks ago with about six to eight people. Mr. Webb came and told us some of his experiences and brought some of his memorabilia and it was just so very interesting. I read with interest when this group appeared at the White House back in March, I think it was, and got this recognition from the federal government. Thank you all for what you are doing and, Mr. Webb, I think you are up there someplace and thank you for being a fine North Carolinian and thank you for being my friend. I certainly recommend this resolution to everyone.”

Senator McKissick:

“I’d just like to pay tribute to those Tuskegee Airmen and in particular Mr. Ed Fulbright from Durham. I know he was one of those that served as excellent role models. They fought with equipment that wasn’t always first class. They did it heroically, they led, they gave their lives and, most importantly, they did it all in tribute to our Country and the rights and privileges that we all aspire to. I know I learned so much about them from my uncle, the late Irving McCain, who was also living down in Tuskegee. He was a dentist, actually, in that time frame and he was in the Air Force and he frequently told me so many stories and so many of them were told to me by many, many others who were actually part of that very distinguished group. So we honor them and we pay tribute to them appropriately.”

Senator Brock:

“A few weeks ago I mentioned my uncle who was a waste gunner on a B-17 over Europe and he was shot down a couple of times in the missions that they flew. In the bombing missions during the day time, they only expected 25% return of the flight crews that would fly over and today when I saw them come in, wearing those red jackets, I thought about what they were called, the Red Tail Angels, and I know those flight crews that flew those dangerous missions over Europe at that time felt the same way when they looked up and saw those red tails that had their protection. It’s a shame that we waited this long to thank them for all they went through. Not only that they went through some of the toughest air battles, but the toughest battles were back here at home and while they were in the theatre of war. This thank you is a little bit late because we are losing over 1000 of our World War II veterans each and every day. Hopefully, this will be passed to you and your families and thank you for what you did for my family.”

Senator Atwater:

“It really is an honor and a privilege for us to recognize these Tuskegee Airmen today. They were the very best of the best and they conducted themselves in such an exemplary fashion in the air and on the ground, not only during those years but in the intervening years. We admire them so greatly and I think that we are truly privileged to be in their presence today.”

The joint resolution passes its second reading (48-0) and third reading with members standing and is ordered enrolled.

Upon motion of Senator Dorsett the Chair extends the courtesies of the gallery to Mr. Walter Chavis; Mrs. Lavon-de-Driver, widow of Dr. John H. Driver; sons of Lieutenant Wilson V. Eagleson, II: Mr. Wilson V. Eagleson, Mr. Gerald Eagleson (Retired Staff Sergeant, U.S. Army), Mr. William McDonald, and Mr. Harold H. Webb; Mr. Roger Vann Smith, brother of Mr. Reginald V. Smith; Mr. Fredric White, grandson of Mr. Reginald V. Smith; Chester Beverly, Retired Colonel U.S. Air Force; Minnie Beverly, Retired Lieutenant Colonel U.S. Air Force; Leonard Hunter, Retired Technical Sergeant U.S. Air Force; Cleopas Mason, Retired Master Sergeant U.S. Air Force; Delores Henderson; Joyce E. ONE HUNDRED FIFTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Thursday, July 26, 2007

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Beverly E. Perdue, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Steve Sumerel, First Baptist Church, Raleigh, North Carolina as follows:

July 26, 2007

"Wondrous God, throughout the ages powerful stories of your miraculous acts have reminded us of your inexplicable creative nature. A universe appears, life begins, the seasons march on. Though the particulars of 'how' may be debated, these acts stand as humbling expressions of your wondrous and creative nature. So, in these times of serious deliberation, of meeting head on the barriers that might hinder the completion of the work, we pray for the will and the way to enter into the storehouse of your creative spirit. May the spark that was from the beginning be present now and within our grasp. This we humbly pray. Amen."

ONE HUNDRED SIXTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Friday, July 27, 2007

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Beverly E. Perdue, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Steve Sumerel, First Baptist Church, Raleigh, North Carolina as follows:

"Eternal God, we read in so many sacred texts the powerful stories of journeys, journeys through the desert, pilgrimages to holy ground, walks of faith and struggle. As fellow travelers, we will almost always disagree over which path will lead us best to our common goals. But when tragedy comes, as it did with the passing of our beloved Coach Prosser, we speak in one voice as we offer a prayer for peace and condolence to a hurting family and community. The faithful servants assembled in this Chamber have traveled a long journey that will soon, we pray, come to its destination. May you provide for them stamina and vision and, when they need it, a second wind that in these final days of deliberation, they may choose well among the many paths before them. This we humbly pray. Amen."

The Chair grants leaves of absence for today to Senator Dannelly, Senator Forrester, Senator Graham, Senator Jacumin, Senator Jenkins, Senator Smith and Senator Weinstein.

Senator Basnight, President Pro Tempore, announces that the Journal of Thursday, July 26, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Journal and it stands approved as written.

July 27, 2007

ONE HUNDRED SEVENTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Saturday, July 28, 2007

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Beverly E. Perdue, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Steve Sumerel, First Baptist Church, Raleigh, North Carolina as follows:

"Oh Lord, as a hiker of our beautiful mountains, I know that the trail always gets steeper and rockier, the closer you get to the top. The last mile is always the hardest. But, the trek goes on because of the promise of the view. One ponders how such vistas can be so breathtaking and yet so life giving. This has been and continues to be a grueling week in the General Assembly and with the budget looming and piles of bills awaiting action, the next days are no doubt going to be steep and rocky. The last mile is always the hardest. So, I pray, Oh Lord, go ahead and grant to them a view, a pause to reflect on the good already done, not tallies of wins and loses, but that they breathe deeply of their noble efforts and faithful service. Give to them grace and graciousness for the week ahead and the promise of an even greater view, we pray. Amen."

The Chair grants leaves of absence for today to Senator Allran, Senator Dannelly, Senator Forrester, Senator Jacumin, Senator Jenkins and Senator Pittenger.

Senator Basnight, President Pro Tempore, announces that the Journal of Friday, July 27, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Journal and it stands approved as written.

ONE HUNDRED EIGHTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Monday, July 30, 2007

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Marc Basnight, President Pro Tempore, who presides in the absence of the Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Dear Lord, while reading the daily newspaper accounts of the Legislative proceeding last week, I thought I might have to come back and pray, 'Dear God, thank you that we do not have to go through the House of Representatives to get through to you.' But realizing that the House may have their own version of such a prayer, I am grateful that prayers for reconciliation and reason prevailed and were answered. I pray that kind of spirit continues in the final days of this Legislative Session. In your holy name we pray. Amen."

Senator Dannelly, Deputy President Pro Tempore, announces that the Journal of Saturday, July 28, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Journal and it stands approved as written.

The Chair extends privileges of the floor to Dr. Walter L. Wright from Kinston, North Carolina, who is serving the Senate as Doctor of the Day, and to Claudia Vespraskas from Raleigh, North Carolina, who is serving the Senate as Nurse of the Day.

S.J.R. 1569, A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING THE ACCOMPLISHMENTS OF JOE THOMPSON AND THE LATE ODELL THOMPSON, LEGENDARY NORTH CAROLINA MUSICIANS.

Upon motion of Senator Rand, S.J.R. 1569 is taken up out of its regular order of business and placed before the Senate for immediate consideration.

Upon motion of Senator Foriest, the joint resolution is read in its entirety and, upon motion of Senator Dannelly, the remarks of the members, are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator Foriest:

“Many times, ladies and gentlemen, we have jewels in our midst and we sometimes fail to recognize them. As some people would put it, sometimes we don’t miss our water until the well runs dry. It seems to be that a lot of the little things really make the difference and sometimes we take those things for granted. On June 29, 2007, the National Endowment of the Arts announced the

2007 recipients of the NEA National Heritage Fellowships Award. This is the Country's highest honor in the folk and traditional arts. Twelve fellowships were presented to honorees from nine different states. The awardees were chosen from among two hundred and fifty-nine nominations on the basis of their artistic excellence, cultural authenticity, and contributions to their field. I can't tell you how proud we are in Alamance County and in the Mebane area to uplift the name of Joe Aquilla Thompson as a recipient of this award. Permit me if you will to acknowledge that I have not always been a fan of folk music, Senator Queen. Like many of my contemporaries, I grew up pretty much in the rock and roll era so finding out that there were African Americans who not only played the fiddle but were good enough at it to be invited to perform all over the world was extremely exciting. Joe has played from Port Townsend, Washington to Carnegie Hall in New York to Brisbane, Australia. Most of us understand the impact of the Nation's music heritage through spirituals, through gospel, jazz, disco, and even rap, Senator Weinstein. Yet, most of us do not know about contributions to string band music. The banjo and fiddle make up the band and the music is often called folk, country or even square dance. Whatever its roots, string band music thrived in rural black communities in the South from slavery until the late 1950's. Joe learned to play the fiddle from his father, John Arch Thompson, who in turn learned from his father, Robert Thompson, who started life as a slave field hand. Almost born with a fiddle in his hand, Joe sat at his father's feet internalizing the tunes his father, brothers and uncles played. He received his own fiddle at five years of age and helped to play at house parties and corn shuckings. Joe, Nate, and their cousin, Odell Thompson, all grew up on the Alamance-Orange County line near Mebane, North Carolina, in the High Rock Community of Northern Orange County. Born and raised in rural North Carolina, Odell in 1911, Joe in 1918, they grew to adulthood helping their families tend crops of tobacco, cotton, corn, and wheat. Music making was valued and the sounds of the banjo and fiddle could be heard whenever work was done. This experience lasted until Joe grew up and was drafted in World War II. After the war, tastes in this Country changed quite a bit. The music may have been lost if not for a professor from George Washington University who found Joe and his cousin, Odell, and convinced them to play again. The early 1970's brought a revival of interest in African-American folk music tradition. Joe on the fiddle, Odell on the guitar and banjo, what a combination! I can only imagine the good times and joy these men brought to their community. They complemented each other well until Odell's death in 1994. Joe has continued to play the fiddle, teaching and mentoring a new generation of string band musicians. Joe is considered by many to be the oldest and one of the last African-American fiddlers in North Carolina. Even now, Joe travels with a local group, the 'Chocolate Drops' as they continue to spread good will and good music throughout the State and this Nation. He has become a national and international celebrity because of his fiddle playing. He remains a vital, dynamic fiddler with a distinctive short bow action that brings rare life to both black and white traditions. Thank you, Joe, for the pride you have brought to us, the tradition you have kept alive and for your overall service to North Carolina as a model citizen and an ambassador of good will. You are indeed a jewel in this wonderful state of 8.5 million people who call North Carolina home. Joe is joined, Mr. President, in the gallery by many relatives, friends and members of the 'Chocolate Drops' and at the appropriate time, Mr. President, it would probably be appropriate to recognize them if you so see fit. Members of the Senate, I commend this resolution to you."

Senator Kinnaird:

"I am so proud to have this Orange County treasure with us. It's true that for a while Joe Thompson sort of fell out of the public eye, but we in Orange County always knew he was there and you couldn't open up the Orange County paper from time to time without a new article because he is a treasure in Orange County. One of the things we have in our University is a Journalism School so when they were looking for interesting stories they would always go to Joe Thompson and we were very proud because this tradition was kept alive when it was, unfortunately, not in favor. But I want to tell you it's always been in favor in our area because of Joe Thompson. He may be the last African-American fiddler but I don't think so because the 'Chocolate Drops', this wonderful group that's got more energy and vitality, heard about Joe Thompson. They are a group of young African-Americans who traditionally would have gone into some other form of music but they heard him and they went to him and said they wanted to learn. Now they are going all over the Country with this wonderful energy that they learned from Joe Thompson and other young people are now flocking to learn this. We feel that this is being carried on and his recognition is so appropriate for all of these institutions and all of these countries because this is a music that is so energizing and speaks to so many people. You just can't keep your feet still when you hear it. I am very pleased that this is our Orange County, wonderful Joe Thompson and I commend the resolution to you."

Senator Queen:

"I want to stand to speak on the value of these two brothers and their contribution to fiddling and string music in this State. North Carolina is known for its string music and fiddling but it's usually thought of as a mountain endeavor and, of course, it's very strong in the mountains. I want to tell you that this State has many treasures, many folk-life treasures that we need to pay attention to in this General Assembly. In the West we have a very strong initiative called the Blue Ridge National Heritage Area Initiative and we need to do those kinds of folk-life initiatives all across our State because the music in the Piedmont is some of the strongest and finest in the world and it is being passed without notice and it's great to have this resolution. It's great to have the memories of Odell and his brother here today with us to bring this to our attention because great music is all across this great State and it needs to be recognized. I also want to recognize the African-American component to the fiddling of North Carolina, the fine fiddling of North Carolina. In the mountains, the African-American fiddlers were very strong as were the Cherokee fiddlers. My grandfather learned to square dance from an African-American. He credits Mr. John Love, both of them were Loves, but he was Sam Love and John Love was a blacksmith who had been a slave who helped him learn to square dance as a young man. The African-American component to what we call mountain music and the string band tradition of North Carolina is long heralded in our area and I'm glad to bring it to the State's attention here today. Thank you."

July 30, 2007

Senator Albertson:

"Members of the Senate, I'll be very brief. Joe, it's good to have you here with us today. I never have had the opportunity to meet you but I can tell you I have heard a great deal about you and what I find most interesting about your life history is that when you went into service for all those years you were kind of out of the music business. Then you came back later in the latter part of your life and have done your very best. We admire you and appreciate you so very much for your contributions that you have made and continue to make. I want to tell you this. Senator Bingham plays a banjo a little bit and I play a guitar a little bit less than that, so maybe sometime the three of us can get together and you can teach us some tricks and we might make a little music. God bless you and I commend this resolution to you."

Senator Shaw:

"It's not very often that we get a resolution within a resolution and I want to thank Senator Foriest for bringing out these points here today because this is a national treasure. Pardon me for saying, but I think you struck a chord within this Assembly today and one thing that has been proven is that music is universal. Thank you. I ask you to support the resolution."

The joint resolution passes its second reading (49-0) and third reading with members standing and is ordered sent to the House of Representatives by special message.

Upon motion of Senator Foriest the Chair extends the courtesies of the gallery to Joe Thompson, the well-renown fiddler; Pauline Thompson, Joe Thompson's wife; Elvira Patricia Thompson, niece; George Wynder Thompson, first cousin; Susie Thompson, Odell Thompson's widow and the Chocolate Drops who are as follows: Justin Robinson, Dom Flemons, and Rhiannon Giddens.

They have served our citizens well with a fine liberal arts education. They are a growing campus and they have a wonderful Museum of Appalachia on their campus. They have a great community life and continuing education and collaborative educational opportunities with public schools and youth throughout the region. I am very excited about their 150th Anniversary and look forward to another 150 years for them. I commend the resolution to you.”

SPECIAL MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The following special message is received from the House of Representatives:

H.J.R. 2067 (Committee Substitute), A JOINT RESOLUTION ACKNOWLEDGING THE CONTRIBUTIONS OF THE SCOTS AND SCOTS-IRISH TO NORTH CAROLINA.

Upon motion of Senator Rand, the rules are suspended and the Committee Substitute bill is placed on the Calendar for immediate consideration.

Upon motion of Senator Shaw, the remarks of the Members are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator Queen:

“The Scotch-Irish have been an extremely important part of this State and their contribution to my region is particularly strong. The Blue Ridge National Heritage area identifies the Scotch-Irish migration as one of the most important aspects to Western North Carolina. I think I might have mentioned this to you before. It began literally in September of 1776 with the Rutherford Trace, where over 2,700 patriots from across the Western Frontier of which the vast majority were Scotch-Irish marched up Swannanoa Gap and burned all the Indian towns of Western North Carolina and that is generally considered the Scotch-Irish Trail. They continued to add leadership and innovation to America. Their contributions are renowned. The Declaration of Independence was modeled after much of their fights for liberty in their homeland. They came here really as refugees for liberty and they added a great deal to the spirit of 1776. I commend the resolution to you.”

Senator Forrester:

“Mr. Chairman, being a native of Scotland, Aberdeen, Scotland, and being a naturalized citizen, I certainly have to get up and support this resolution. My father and mother were both born in Scotland and my father was a professional golfer in the Scottish Open in 1934. I would be a good golfer, perhaps, if he was still living, but he died when I was eighteen months old. We came to this Country and were stuck here during World War II. My mother worked in the shipyard and after the war we were sent back to Scotland. Since we were not citizens, we were not allowed to stay in this Country so we went back and spent about a year and a half and came back to this Country and became naturalized citizens. So I am very supportive of this resolution. There is a lot of Scottish heritage in North Carolina. The Highland Games were here two weeks ago at Grandfather Mountain. It was a great event. Many of you need to go to that sometime. I strongly support the resolution and ask you to do so. Thank you, Mr. President.”

July 30, 2007

Senator Hagan:

“I am pleased to see this resolution. My maiden name is Ruthven and it is from Scotch-Irish descent and in Scotland there is a Castle called the Lord Ruthven Castle and my family went to visit it a number of years ago. It’s not in great repair but I still wish it was in the family! Lord Ruthven was a Lord in Scotland and he was beheaded by Mary, Queen of Scots. There’s a lot of history with the Ruthvens and I went to the Highland Games last year and there was this huge Ruthven clan with the tartans and all the memorabilia and it was a delight to see that in North Carolina. Thank you.”

Senator Rand:

“The Cape Fear region was settled by the Highland Scots and those families still live there today. When you go to Fayetteville, you see the Highland this and the Highland that. My secretary is from Scotland. She recently went back to Scotland to visit her mother. In her time in England and Scotland, she worked for the Marquis of Salisbury at Hatfield House. I told her she had significantly stepped down in class! She agreed with that! She is very proud of her Scottish heritage and the people of Scotland have done a great deal for the Cape Fear Region so I am delighted to see this resolution before us.”

Senator Forrester:

“One quick response to Senator Hagan. I do have my own Coat of Arms, the Forrester Coat of Arms. I petitioned the Queen of England and the Lord Lyon of Scotland who was nice enough to grant us that petition to do that. It was designed over a three to four year period and it has something on my father’s life with crossed golf clubs, my life with the caduceus, a medical star on there for my rank in the military and on the bottom it has the State Seal of North Carolina so it’s all involved in that Coat of Arms. It is in my office if you’d like to look at it sometime.”

Senator Tillman:

“Senator Forrester is also ‘Sir Senator Jim Medical Doctor Forrester.’ He has a lot of titles but he has been knighted by the Queen and he didn’t tell you that, Senator Hagan, but you need to know that about Senator Forrester. He is Sir Forrester. Thank you.”

July 30, 2007

Senator Forrester:

"I'd like to thank you. It wasn't the Queen of England, it was Don Duarte, the heir to the throne of Portugal, who knighted me a Portuguese Knight, not an English Knight! But thank you. I appreciate it very much!"

Senator Purcell:

"Being from Scotland County, I must speak on this resolution. My ancestors came from Castle Sween, which is in Scotland. Of course, they were not in the castle, they were working in the fields outside the castle. But anyway, with due respect to Senator Rand, the earliest Scottish settlers in North Carolina came up the Cape Fear River and they got to Fayetteville and there was a sign there that said, 'Better land south of here', and those who could read went on down to Scotland County! Scottish people have a great heritage in North Carolina. I'm pleased to support this resolution."

Senator Smith:

"I am also of Scotch-Irish descent and one of the best books that I have ever read was written by the newly-elected Democratic Senator from the State of Virginia, James Webb. He wrote a book called Born Fighting and it is about the Scotch-Irish and the contributions that they have made to the world and to the United States. North Carolina plays a big part in that and at the risk of being too long, I think there are two important things. When the Romans came and took over and conquered England, they got to Hadrian's Wall and they tried to go conquer Scotland. But they never could conquer Scotland because the Scots would fight the Romans and when the Romans would get into Scotland they would go get in the swamp and they would stay submerged in the water for days until the Romans would leave. Then they would come back out and fight again. So the Scots were never conquered by the Romans. Then he goes on and talks about Scottish history and how Scots went to Ireland and stayed in the Ulster, Northern Ireland area. Sometimes think and talk about the Protestant Reformation between Protestants and Catholics and how that history affects us today, but the truth of the matter was that there was a triangle going on and that religious triangle had a great effect upon our Country. You had a battle between the Catholics and between the Anglican Church of England and the Scottish Kirk, or Presbyterians, that had settled in Northern Ireland. The Scottish Presbyterians were attacked not only by the Catholics but also by the Anglicans from England and it is because of their persecution that they came to this Country and most of them came in through Philadelphia and then they migrated down to the western part of our State. At that time, our State was settled primarily by the English and the eastern part of our State, the plantations, that's where the government was and the only religion that was allowed in this State was the Anglican religion. The Scotch-Irish who came and settled our mountains wanted to worship as protestants and as Presbyterians and the Royal Provincial Government allowed that because they performed a useful function in our State in that they kept the Indians off of the settlers in the Eastern part of our State. They were permitted to settle our mountains and to settle the Western Piedmont to work the farms and to worship as they chose. That was an important thing that happened in our State and all across the United States because when the Revolutionary War started, over half of the soldiers who fought in that war were from Scotch-Irish descent. There were even reports that went back to the King of England that said this is a Scotch-Irish War, this is a Presbyterian war to fight for the problems that they had in Northern Ireland. But in any way, the Scotch-Irish played a key role in us winning our independence and probably we all know that one of the most important battles of the Revolutionary War was Kings Mountain because the British had started and they had captured South Carolina. They were moving and if they had been allowed to move through the South, the chance of us winning that war was not very good. But because of the Scotch-Irish who fought in Kings Mountain and repelled the Redcoats in a tremendous victory that turned the tide of the Revolutionary War, this Country has its independence. We, as a State and as a Nation, owe a lot to them. As Senator Joe Sam Queen talked about, our Declaration of Independence and many of the documents that we have in this Country were patterned after the Scotch-Irish. Some of the famous, including John Locke and other famous philosophers from Scotland, had great influence. Mr. Witherspoon, who was the President of Princeton came from Scotland and had a great influence on our Constitution. We owe a lot to the Scotch-Irish and I, too, want to commend this resolution to the Senate.”

July 30, 2007

Senator Kinnaird:

“Since my family had always traced their ancestry to England back to 1347, I was very surprised to find that my mother’s maiden name is right on here – Governor Thomas Pollock, so I think I’ll have to go back and look at my tree again. But the more significant fact is that my former husband, of course named Kinnaird, went back on a trip to Scotland and he found a Kinnaird Town, a Kinnaird Castle, and a Kinnaird Point, and when he came back, people would say what did you enjoy most about your trip to Scotland and he said that ‘everybody pronounced my name right!’”

Senator Preston:

“Having also come from the Scotch-Irish and being a Presbyterian and a conservative, it was sort of natural for me to attend Flora MacDonald College in Red Springs which is in Robeson County, a neighbor to Dr. Purcell and very close to our Senator Rand. I learned a lot about that part of the State when I attended Flora MacDonald College and, of course, you didn’t leave Flora MacDonald unless you learned to do the Highland Fling and I bet Senator Queen knows how to do the Scottish Fling. If you remember, Presbyterian College, Flora MacDonald and the Presbyterian Junior College for Men which was very close by merged together some years ago and became St. Andrews College which is in Laurinburg and I know you know that beautiful campus and the good it does in educating our students. I am very proud to have been a part of Flora MacDonald. Thank you.”

July 30, 2007

Senator Clodfelter:

“Mr. President, despite the speeches that have been made in support of this resolution, those of us of German ancestry are reluctantly going to vote in favor of it!”

Senator Atwater:

“Members of the Senate, I noted that Senator Forrester made mention of a star being incorporated into his Coat of Arms and that star represents his rank of Retired Brigadier General in the United States Air Force Medical Corps and we are proud of him for that achievement. I, too, am Scotch-Irish and also a veteran of the U. S. Air Force, but I was not a general!”

The joint resolution passes its second reading (50-0) and third reading with members standing and is ordered enrolled.

Pursuant to Senator Dannelly's motion to adjourn having prevailed, the Senate adjourns at 9:04 P.M.

ONE HUNDRED NINTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Tuesday, July 31, 2007

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Beverly E. Perdue, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"John's Gospel starts, 'In the beginning was the Word and the Word was God.' I'm afraid it's our inclination, O God, to make sure we are prayed up at all beginnings like the beginning of this Session back in January. We want your presence from the very start of any new experience, but sometimes our prayers lack enthusiasm as the journey nears the end. But you didn't say, 'I am the Alpha.' You said, 'I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end.' Remind us that we need your presence as much in the last days of this Session as we did at its beginning, maybe more. Thank you for being our God from beginning to end. Amen."

The Chair grants leaves of absence for today to Senator East, Senator Garrou and Senator Jones.

Senator Dannelly, Deputy President Pro Tempore, announces that the Journal of Monday, July 30, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Journal and it stands approved as written.

The Chair extends privileges of the floor to Dr. Phillip Moye from Wilmington, North Carolina, who is serving the Senate as Doctor of the Day, and to Mary McCoy from North Carolina, who is serving the Senate as Nurse of the Day.

S.J.R. 1571, A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING THE MEMORY OF ROBERT RUARK, NOTED NORTH CAROLINA HALL OF FAME AUTHOR AND JOURNALIST.

Upon motion of Senator Hunt, the remarks of the members are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator Rand:

“Robert Ruark was uniquely of North Carolina, I think. The book, The Old Man and the Boy, is just a wonderful story about him and about North Carolina. It’s just unique, I think, to what we are and what he was. He, of course, left North Carolina for other places. I remember him and kind of see him as sort of a dashing figure. He was in Africa. The book, Something of Value, was wonderful. I remember reading that and it was just wonderfully done. He would come back to Chapel Hill from time to time. I remember a great story about him where I thought he was truly a wonderful man. He bought his old fraternity an ice machine back in the old days. A man that would do that is o.k.! He was looking after the boys around the fraternity house. He was a North Carolinian that carried the flag of North Carolina to Africa and really all over the world where his reputation and his understanding of life and the politics of those areas added a great deal to the commentary of his time. So I think it is fitting that we honor him and recognize him for really what he meant to our State. Some of the members of the Robert Ruark Society are here today with us, Lou Johansen, Julian Mann, Al Adams, and Bill Johnston who is the grandson of Jim Cheatham who really did a lot of things with the Robert Ruark Society. I would ask your support for the resolution that recognizes a truly unique North Carolinian.”

July 31, 2007

Senator Kinnaird:

“It is entirely appropriate that we recognize this extraordinary author. He was truly a Renaissance man and, if you read in there, he entered the University of North Carolina at age fifteen and graduated at nineteen and how many of us can say that we brought such brilliance to our University. More importantly, he was a Renaissance man in so many areas. As you just heard, he was interested in sports and he was a storyteller about his early childhood. He went into international areas which were very unpopular at the time revealing terrible things about the British Colonialism in Africa and the need that we should all pay attention. I think that this is someone who has made a difference in many areas, not just in literature but in actually changing policy. He is now in the Literary Hall of Fame in Moore County and the North Carolina Writers Network in Carrboro and truly represents the best of our State. I recommend the resolution to you.”

Senator Boseman:

“Journalist, author, world traveler, sportsman and syndicated columnist, Robert Chester Ruark, spent his childhood years in the Tidewater Regions of North Carolina moving from Wilmington to Southport to live with his grandparents as a young boy. Ruark grew up between the end of the First World War and the beginning of the Great Depression. Judging from his own writings, the greatest influence on him during his childhood was his maternal grandfather, Captain Edward Hall Atkins, who Ruark would later immortalize in his Old Man and the Boy stories, the stories telling of his childhood spent hunting and fishing on the Carolina Coast and always learning about life from his wise mentor, the Old Man. Today, he is almost forgotten but for many of us Horn of the Hunter, The Old Man books, Something of Value, and the body of sporting literature he wrote are a legacy of true literary value. I commend this resolution to you.”

Senator Queen:

“I rise to support the resolution and the memory of Robert Ruark. My relation to Robert Ruark was he was the roommate of my father’s first cousin, my great uncle John Queen, the solicitor’s son, James. James and Robert were roommates at Chapel Hill and they both entered the Navy at the same time. James was killed in a Navy combat where his ship was shot out from under him and he died. They were great friends and all during my youth we spoke of Robert Ruark with great fondness in my household and read his books aloud. I recommend the resolution to you.”

Senator Preston:

“We have been referred to today by one of the most acclaimed works, The Old Man and the Boy, which recounts his experiences in Southport under the wise tutelage of his grandfather. The stories of hunting, fishing and training dogs are timeless tales that allow us all to relive our youth. I would like to read an excerpt in which Ruark describes the feelings present in the individuals who remained indoors unable to fully enjoy the summer months that remained. One of my constituents who lives in Beaufort and is also a member of the Robert Ruark Society Board of Directors suggested this excerpt to me. I thought about this excerpt that he asked me to share with you and that perhaps the General Assembly members might take heed of this before we get into trouble with our constituency thinking about the longer we stay here the more tempted we might be to get in trouble ourselves. I quote: 'It was impossible to concentrate in school, for the drowsy hum of June was just over the hill. Hence this was the time that boys were kept after school for throwing spitballs and making paper airplanes and dipping pigtails into inkpots. Summer vacation was yearned for by the teachers even more eagerly than it was craved by the students. School marks dropped terribly and discipline teetered on the ragged edge of anarchy. The Old Man said he reckoned that the whole world went a little crazy at this time of the year.' End of quote. Thank you."

The joint resolution passes its second reading (48-0) and third reading with members standing and is ordered sent to the House of Representatives by special message.

Whereas, North Carolina has experienced severe problems from widespread flooding during the past five years; and

Whereas, large areas of the State have also experienced severe drought conditions during the past five years; and

Whereas, groundwater is the source of drinking water for approximately half the population of the State; and

Whereas, groundwater pollution is increasing due to contamination from a variety of sources; and

Whereas, depletion of certain large groundwater aquifers in the State has been documented in recent years; and

Whereas, protection and enhancement of water quality in the State's rivers and coastal estuaries is the declared public policy of the State; and

Whereas, North Carolina is home to many rare and endangered species of plants and animals; and

Whereas, the State has established many parks, natural areas, and wildlife refuges to protect habitats for migrating birds and other species; and

Whereas, many fragile ecosystems exist in the State which are in need of further study and protection; and

Whereas, the State recognizes that ecosystems transcend state borders, and that changes affecting the State's water, air, natural habitats, and scenic resources also have impacts outside the State; and

Whereas, it is the policy of the State to ensure the continued public enjoyment of the natural attractions of the State; and

Whereas, improperly sited, designed, or operated landfills have the potential to cause serious environmental damage, including groundwater contamination; and

Whereas, it is essential that the State study the siting, design, and operational requirements for landfills for the disposal of solid waste in areas susceptible to flooding from natural disasters, areas with high water tables, and other environmentally sensitive areas in order to protect public health and the environment; and

Whereas, it is critical to the protection of public health and the environment to adequately staff the State solid waste program to review permit applications, ensure compliance with State solid waste management laws and rules, and provide technical assistance on solid waste management issues; and

Whereas, it is the policy of the State to promote methods of solid waste management that are alternatives to disposal in landfills; and

Whereas, S.L. 2006-244 directed the Environmental Review Commission, with the assistance of the Division of Waste Management of the Department of Environment, to study issues related to solid waste; and

Whereas, the Environmental Review Commission met at least six times after the 2006 legislative session to discuss items related to solid waste; and

Whereas, bills have been introduced in the House of Representatives and the Senate during the 2007 Regular Session to address issues related to landfills and management of solid waste that have been the subject of intense discussion by members of the General Assembly and a stakeholder working group;

Now, therefore,

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1.(a) G.S. 130A-294, as amended by S.L. 2007-107, reads as rewritten:

"§ 130A-294. Solid waste management program.

(a) The Department is authorized and directed to engage in research, conduct investigations and surveys, make inspections and establish a statewide solid waste management program. In establishing a program, the Department shall have authority to:

- (1) Develop a comprehensive program for implementation of safe and sanitary practices for management of solid waste;
- (2) Advise, consult, cooperate and contract with other State agencies, units of local government, the federal government, industries and individuals in the formulation and carrying out of a solid waste management program;
- (3) Develop and adopt rules to establish standards for qualification as a "recycling, reduction or resource recovering facility" or as "recycling, reduction or resource recovering equipment" for the purpose of special tax classifications or treatment, and to certify as qualifying those applicants which meet the established standards. The standards shall be developed to qualify only those facilities and equipment exclusively used in the actual waste recycling, reduction or resource recovering process and shall exclude any incidental or supportive facilities and equipment;

- (4) a. Develop a permit system governing the establishment and operation of solid waste management facilities. A landfill with a disposal area of 1/2 acre or less for the on-site disposal of land clearing and inert debris is exempt from the permit requirement of this section and shall be governed by G.S. 130A-301.1. The Department shall not approve an application for a new permit, the renewal of a permit, or a substantial amendment to a permit for a sanitary landfill, excluding demolition landfills as defined in the rules of the Commission, except as provided in subdivisions (3) and (4) of subsection (b1) of this section. No permit shall be granted for a solid waste management facility having discharges that are point sources until the Department has referred the complete plans and specifications to the Environmental Management Commission and has received advice in writing that the plans and specifications are approved in accordance with the provisions of G.S. 143-215.1. If the applicant is a unit of local government, and has not submitted a solid waste management plan that has been approved by the Department pursuant to G.S. 130A-309.09A(b), the Department may deny a permit for a sanitary landfill or a facility that disposes of solid waste by incineration, unless the Commission has not adopted rules pursuant to G.S. 130A-309.29 for local solid waste management plans. In any case where the Department denies a permit for a solid waste management facility, it shall state in writing the reason for denial and shall also state its estimate of the changes in the applicant's proposed activities or plans that will be required for the applicant to obtain a permit.
- b. ~~The issuance of permits for sanitary landfills operated by local governments is exempt from the environmental impact statements required by Article 1 of Chapter 113A of the General Statutes, entitled the North Carolina Environmental Policy Act of 1971. All sanitary landfill permits issued to local governments prior to July 1, 1984, are hereby validated~~

~~notwithstanding any failure to provide environmental impact statements pursuant to the North Carolina Environmental Policy Act of 1971;~~

- c. The Department shall deny an application for a permit for a solid waste management facility if the Department finds that:
1. Construction or operation of the proposed facility would be inconsistent with or violate rules adopted by the Commission.
 2. Construction or operation of the proposed facility would result in a violation of water quality standards adopted by the Environmental Management Commission pursuant to G.S. 143-214.1 for waters, as defined in G.S. 143-213.
 3. Construction or operation of the facility would result in significant damage to ecological systems, natural resources, cultural sites, recreation areas, or historic sites of more than local significance. These areas include, but are not limited to, national or State parks or forests; wilderness areas; historic sites; recreation areas; segments of the natural and scenic rivers system; wildlife refuges, preserves, and management areas; areas that provide habitat for threatened or endangered species; primary nursery areas and critical fisheries habitat designated by the Marine Fisheries Commission; and Outstanding Resource Waters designated by the Environmental Management Commission.
 4. Construction or operation of the proposed facility would substantially limit or threaten access to or use of public trust waters or public lands.
 5. The proposed facility would be located in a natural hazard area, including a floodplain, a landslide hazard area, or an area subject to storm surge or excessive seismic activity, such that the facility will present a risk to public health or safety.

6. There is a practical alternative that would accomplish the purposes of the proposed facility with less adverse impact on public resources, considering engineering requirements and economic costs.
7. The cumulative impacts of the proposed facility and other facilities in the area of the proposed facility would violate the criteria set forth in sub-sub-subdivisions 2. through 5. of this sub-subdivision.
8. Construction or operation of the proposed facility would be inconsistent with the State solid waste management policy and goals as set out in G.S. 130A-309.04 and with the State solid waste management plan developed as provided in G.S. 130A-309.07.
9. The cumulative impact of the proposed facility, when considered in relation to other similar impacts of facilities located or proposed in the community, would have a disproportionate adverse impact on a minority or low-income community protected by Title VI of the federal Civil Rights Act of 1964.

~~(4a) No permit shall be granted for any public or private sanitary landfill to receive solid non-radioactive waste generated outside the boundaries of North Carolina to be deposited, unless such waste has previously been inspected by the solid waste regulatory agency of that nation, state or territory, characterized in detail as to its contents and certified by that agency to be non-injurious to health and safety. The Commission shall adopt rules to implement this subsection.~~

(5) Repealed by Session Laws 1983, c. 795, s. 3.

(5a) Designate a geographic area within which the collection, transportation, storage and disposal of all solid waste generated within said area shall be accomplished in accordance with a solid waste management plan. Such designation may be made only after the Department has received a request from the unit or units of local government having jurisdiction within said geographic area that such designation be made and after receipt by the Department of a solid waste management plan which shall include:

- a. The existing and projected population for such area;
 - b. The quantities of solid waste generated and estimated to be generated in such area;
 - c. The availability of sanitary landfill sites and the environmental impact of continued landfill of solid waste on surface and subsurface waters;
 - d. The method of solid waste disposal to be utilized and the energy or material which shall be recovered from the waste; and
 - e. Such other data that the Department may reasonably require.
- (5b) Authorize units of local government to require by ordinance, that all solid waste generated within the designated geographic area that is placed in the waste stream for disposal be collected, transported, stored and disposed of at a permitted solid waste management facility or facilities serving such area. The provisions of such ordinance shall not be construed to prohibit the source separation of materials from solid waste prior to collection of such solid waste for disposal, or prohibit collectors of solid waste from recycling materials or limit access to such materials as an incident to collection of such solid waste; provided such prohibitions do not authorize the construction and operation of a resource recovery facility unless specifically permitted pursuant to an approved solid waste management plan. If a private solid waste landfill shall be substantially affected by such ordinance then the unit of local government adopting the ordinance shall be required to give the operator of the affected landfill at least two years written notice prior to the effective date of the proposed ordinance.
- (5c) Except for the authority to designate a geographic area to be serviced by a solid waste management facility, delegate authority and responsibility to units of local government to perform all or a portion of a solid waste management program within the jurisdictional area of the unit of local government; provided that no authority over or control of the operations or properties of one local government shall be delegated to any other local government.
- (5d) Require that an annual report of the implementation of the solid waste management plan within the designated geographic area be filed with the Department.

July 31, 2007

- (6) ~~The Department is authorized to charge~~ Charge and collect fees from operators of hazardous waste disposal facilities. The fees shall be used to establish a fund sufficient for each individual facility to defray the anticipated costs to the State for monitoring and care of the facility after the termination of the period during which the facility operator is required by applicable State and federal statutes, regulations or rules to remain responsible for post-closure monitoring and care. In establishing the fees, consideration shall be given to the size of the facility, the nature of the hazardous waste and the projected life of the facility.
- (7) Establish and collect annual fees from generators and transporters of hazardous waste, and from storage, treatment, and disposal facilities regulated under this Article as provided in G.S. 130A-294.1.

(a1) A permit for a solid waste management facility may be transferred only with the approval of the Department.

(b) The Commission shall adopt and the Department shall enforce rules to implement a comprehensive statewide solid waste management program. The rules shall be consistent with applicable State and federal law; and shall be designed to protect the public health, safety, and welfare; preserve the environment; and provide for the greatest possible conservation of cultural and natural resources. Rules for the establishment, location, operation, maintenance, use, discontinuance, recordation, post-closure care of solid waste management facilities also shall be based upon recognized public health practices and procedures, including applicable epidemiological research and studies; hydrogeological research and studies; sanitary engineering research and studies; and current technological development in equipment and methods. The rules shall not apply to the management of solid waste that is generated by an individual or individual family or household unit on the individual's property and is disposed of on the individual's property.

~~(b0) The Commission shall adopt rules for financial responsibility to ensure the availability of sufficient funds for closure and post closure maintenance and monitoring at solid waste management facilities, and for any corrective action the Department may require during the active life of a facility or during the closure and post closure periods. The rules may permit demonstration of financial responsibility through the use of a letter of credit, insurance, surety, trust agreement, financial test, or guarantee by corporate parents or third parties who can pass the financial test. The rules shall require that an owner or operator of a privately owned solid waste management facility demonstrate financial responsibility by a method or combinations of methods that will ensure that sufficient funds for closure, post closure maintenance and monitoring, and any corrective action that the Department may require will be available during the active life of the facility, at closure, and for a period of not less than 30 years after closure even if the owner or operator becomes insolvent~~

~~or ceases to reside, be incorporated, do business, or maintain assets in the State.~~

- (b1) (1) For purposes of this subsection and subdivision (4) of subsection (a) of this section, a "substantial amendment" means either:
- a. An increase of ten percent (10%) or more in:
 1. The population of the geographic area to be served by the sanitary landfill;
 2. The quantity of solid waste to be disposed of in the sanitary landfill; or
 3. The geographic area to be served by the sanitary landfill.
 - b. A change in the categories of solid waste to be disposed of in the sanitary landfill or any other change to the application for a permit or to the permit for a sanitary landfill that the Commission or the Department determines to be substantial.
- (2) A person who intends to apply for a new permit, the renewal of a permit, or a substantial amendment to a permit for a sanitary landfill shall obtain, prior to applying for a permit, a franchise for the operation of the sanitary landfill from each local government having jurisdiction over any part of the land on which the sanitary landfill and its appurtenances are located or to be located. A local government may adopt a franchise ordinance under G.S. 153A-136 or G.S. 160A-319. A franchise granted for a sanitary landfill shall include all of the following:
- a. A statement of the population to be served, including a description of the geographic area.
 - b. A description of the volume and characteristics of the waste stream.
 - c. A projection of the useful life of the sanitary landfill.
 - d. An explanation of how the franchise will be consistent with the jurisdiction's solid waste management plan required under G.S. 130A-309.09A, including provisions for waste reduction, reuse, and recycling.
 - e. The procedures to be followed for governmental oversight and regulation of the fees and rates to be charged by facilities subject to the franchise for waste generated in the jurisdiction of the franchising entity.
 - f. A facility plan for the sanitary landfill that shall include the ~~exact~~ boundaries of the proposed facility, proposed development of the facility site in five-year operational phases, the boundaries of all waste disposal units, final elevations and capacity of all waste disposal units, the amount of waste to be received per day in tons, the total waste disposal capacity of the sanitary landfill in tons, a description of environmental controls, and a description of any other waste management activities to be conducted at the facility. In addition, the facility plan shall show the proposed location of soil borrow areas, leachate facilities, and all other facilities and infrastructure, including ingress and egress to the facility.

- (2a) A local government may elect to award a preliminary franchise. If a local government elects to award a preliminary franchise, the preliminary franchise shall contain, at a minimum, all of the information described in sub-subdivisions a. through e. of subdivision (2) of this subsection plus a general description of the proposed sanitary landfill, including the approximate number of acres required for the proposed sanitary landfill and its appurtenances and a description of any other solid waste management activities that are to be conducted at the site.
- (3) Prior to the award of a franchise for the construction or operation of a sanitary landfill, the board of commissioners of the county or counties in which the sanitary landfill is proposed to be located or is located or, if the sanitary landfill is proposed to be located or is located in a city, the governing board of the city shall conduct a public hearing. The board of commissioners of the county or counties in which the sanitary landfill is proposed to be located or is located or, if the sanitary landfill is proposed to be located or is located in a city, the governing board of the city shall provide at least 30 days' notice to the public of the public hearing. The notice shall include a summary of all the information required to be included in the franchise, and shall specify the procedure to be followed at the public hearing. The applicant for the franchise shall provide a copy of the application for the franchise that includes all of the information required to be included in the franchise, to the public library closest to the proposed sanitary landfill site to be made available for inspection and copying by the public.
- (4) An applicant for a new permit, the renewal of a permit, or a substantial amendment to a permit for a sanitary landfill shall request each local government having jurisdiction over any part of the land on which the sanitary landfill and its appurtenances are located or to be located to issue a determination as to whether the local government has in effect a franchise, zoning, subdivision, or land-use planning ordinance applicable to the sanitary landfill and whether the proposed sanitary landfill, or the existing sanitary landfill as it would be operated under the renewed or substantially amended permit, would be consistent with the applicable ordinances. The request to the local government shall be accompanied by a copy of the permit application and shall be delivered to the clerk of the local government personally or by certified mail. In order to serve as a basis for a determination that an application for a new permit, the renewal of a permit, or a substantial amendment to a permit for a sanitary landfill is consistent with a zoning, subdivision, or land-use planning ordinance, an ordinance or zoning classification applicable to the real property designated in the permit application shall have been in effect not less than 90 days prior to the date the request for a determination of consistency is delivered to the clerk of the local government. The determination shall be verified or supported by affidavit signed by the chief administrative officer, the chief administrative officer's designee, clerk, or other official designated by the local government to make the determination and, if the local government states that the sanitary landfill as it would be operated under the new, renewed, or substantially amended permit is inconsistent with a franchise, zoning, subdivision, or land-use planning ordinance, shall include a copy of the ordinance and the specific reasons for the determination of inconsistency. A copy of the determination shall be provided to the applicant when the determination is submitted to the Department. The Department shall not act upon an application for a permit under this section until it has received a determination from each local government requested to make a determination by the applicant; provided that if a local government fails to submit a determination to the Department as provided by this subsection within 15 days after receipt of the request, the Department shall proceed to consider the permit application without regard to a franchise, local zoning, subdivision, and land-use planning ordinances. Unless the local government makes a subsequent determination of consistency with all ordinances cited in the determination or the sanitary landfill as it would be operated under the new, renewed, or substantially amended permit is determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be consistent with the cited ordinances, the Department shall attach as a condition of the permit a requirement that the applicant, prior to construction or operation of the sanitary landfill under the permit, comply with all lawfully adopted local ordinances cited in the determination that apply to the sanitary landfill. This subsection shall not be construed to affect the validity of any lawfully adopted franchise, local zoning, subdivision, or land-use planning ordinance or to affect the responsibility of any person to comply with any lawfully adopted franchise, local zoning, subdivision, or land-use planning ordinance. This subsection shall not be construed to limit any opportunity a local government may have to comment on a permit application under any other law or rule. This subsection shall not apply to any facility with respect to which local ordinances are subject to review under either G.S. 104E-6.2 or G.S. 130A-293.

- (5) As used in this subdivision, "coal-fired generating unit" and "investor-owned public utility" have the same meaning as in G.S. 143-215.107D(a). Notwithstanding subdivisions (a)(4), (b1)(3), or (b1)(4) of this section, no franchise shall be required for a sanitary landfill used only to dispose of waste generated by a coal-fired generating unit that is owned or operated by an investor-owned utility subject to the requirements of G.S. 143-215.107D.

(b2) The Department ~~may~~ shall require an applicant for a permit or a permit holder under this Article to satisfy the Department that the applicant or permit holder, and any parent, subsidiary, or other affiliate of the applicant, permit holder, or parent, including any joint venturer with a direct or indirect interest in the applicant, permit holder, or parent:

- (1) Is financially qualified to carry out the activity for which the permit is required. An applicant for a permit and permit holders for solid waste management facilities that are not hazardous waste facilities shall establish financial responsibility as required by ~~G.S. 130A-294(b)~~ G.S. 130A-295.2. An applicant for a permit and permit holders for hazardous waste facilities shall establish financial responsibility as required by G.S. 130A-295.04.
- (2) Has substantially complied with the requirements applicable to any ~~solid waste management~~ activity in which the ~~applicant~~ applicant or permit holder, or a parent, subsidiary, or other affiliate of the applicant, permit holder, or parent, or a joint venturer with a direct or indirect interest in the applicant has previously engaged and has been in substantial compliance with federal and state laws, regulations, and rules for the protection of the ~~environment~~ environment as provided in G.S. 130A-295.3.

(b3) An applicant for a permit or a permit holder under this Article shall satisfy the Department that the applicant has met the requirements of subsection (b2) of this section before the Department is required to otherwise review the application. ~~In order to continue to hold a permit under this Article, a permittee must remain financially qualified and must provide any information requested by the Department to demonstrate that the permittee continues to be financially qualified.~~

SECTION 1.(b) This section becomes effective 1 August 2007 and applies to any application for a permit for a solid waste management facility that is pending on that date.

SECTION 2.(a) G.S. 130A-18 reads as rewritten:

"§ 130A-18. Injunction.

(a) If a person shall violate any provision of this ~~Chapter or Chapter~~, the rules adopted by the Commission or rules adopted by a local board of health, or a condition or term of a permit or order issued under this Chapter, the Secretary or a local health director may institute an action for injunctive relief, irrespective of all other remedies at law, in the superior court of the county where the violation occurred or where a defendant resides.

(b) The Secretary of Environment and Natural Resources and a local health director shall have the same rights enumerated in subsection (a) of this section to enforce the provisions of Part 4 of Article 5 and Articles 8, 9, 10, 11, and 12 of this Chapter."

SECTION 2.(b) This section becomes effective 1 August 2007 and applies to violations that occur on or after that date.

SECTION 3.(a) G.S. 130A-22(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) The Secretary of Environment and Natural Resources may impose an administrative penalty on a person who violates Article 9 of this Chapter, rules adopted by the Commission pursuant to Article 9, or any term or condition of a permit or order issued under Article 9. Each day of a continuing violation shall constitute a separate violation. The penalty shall not exceed ~~five thousand dollars ($5,000)~~ fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) per day in the case of a violation involving nonhazardous waste. The penalty shall not exceed ~~twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000)~~ thirty-two thousand five hundred dollars ($32,500) per day in the case of a first violation involving hazardous waste as defined in G.S. 130A-290 or involving the disposal of medical waste as defined in G.S. 130A-290 in or upon water in a manner that results in medical waste entering waters or lands of the State; and shall not exceed fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) per day for a second or further violation involving the disposal of medical waste as defined in G.S. 130A-290 in or upon water in a manner that results in medical waste entering waters or lands of the State. The penalty shall not exceed ~~twenty five thousand dollars ($25,000)~~ thirty-two thousand five hundred dollars ($32,500) per day for a violation involving a voluntary remedial action implemented pursuant to G.S. 130A-310.9(c) or a violation of the rules adopted pursuant to G.S. 130A-310.12(b). If a person fails to pay a civil penalty within 60 days after the final agency decision or court order has been served on the violator, the Secretary of Environment and Natural Resources shall request the Attorney General to institute a civil action in the superior court of any county in which the violator resides or has his or its principal place of business to recover the amount of the assessment. Such civil actions must be filed within three years of the date the final agency decision or court order was served on the violator."

SECTION 3.(b) This section becomes effective 1 August 2007 and applies to violations that occur on or after that date.

SECTION 4.(a) G.S. 130A-22 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(j) The Secretary of Environment and Natural Resources may also assess the reasonable costs of any investigation, inspection, or monitoring associated with the assessment of the civil penalty against any person who is assessed a civil penalty under this section."

SECTION 4.(b) This section becomes effective 1 August 2007 and applies to violations that occur on or after that date.

SECTION 5.(a) Part 2 of Article 9 of Chapter 130A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

§ 130A-295.2. Financial responsibility requirements for applicants and permit holders for solid waste management facilities.

(a) As used in this section:

- (1) 'Financial assurance' refers to the ability of an applicant or permit holder to pay the costs of assessment and remediation in the event of a release of pollutants from a facility, closure of the facility in accordance with all applicable requirements, and post-closure monitoring and maintenance of the facility.
- (2) 'Financial qualification' refers to the ability of an applicant or permit holder to pay the costs of proper design, construction, operation, and maintenance of the facility.
- (3) 'Financial responsibility' encompasses both financial assurance and financial qualification.

(b) The Commission may adopt rules governing financial responsibility requirements for applicants for permits and for permit holders to ensure the availability of sufficient funds for the proper design, construction, operation, maintenance, closure, and post-closure monitoring and maintenance of solid waste management facilities and for any corrective action the Department may require during the active life of a facility or during the closure and post-closure periods.

(c) The Department may provide a copy of any filing that an applicant for a permit or a permit holder submits to the Department to meet the financial responsibility requirements under this section to the State Treasurer. The State Treasurer shall review the filing and provide the Department with a written opinion as to the adequacy of the filing to meet the purposes of this section, including any recommended changes.

(d) The Department may, in its sole discretion, require an applicant for a permit to construct a facility to demonstrate its financial qualification for the design, construction, operation, and maintenance of a facility. The Department may require an applicant for a permit for a solid waste management facility to provide cost estimates for site investigation; land acquisition, including financing terms and land ownership; design; construction of each five-year phase, if applicable; operation; maintenance; closure; and post-closure monitoring and maintenance of the facility to the Department. The Department may allow an applicant to demonstrate its financial qualifications for only the first five-year phase of the facility. If the Department allows an applicant for a permit to demonstrate its financial qualification for only the first five-year phase of the facility, the Department shall require the applicant or permit holder to demonstrate its financial qualification for each successive five-year phase of the facility when applying for a permit to construct each successive phase of the facility.

(e) If the Department requires an applicant for a permit or a permit holder for a solid waste management facility to demonstrate its financial qualification, the applicant or permit holder shall provide an audited, certified financial statement. An applicant who is required to demonstrate its financial qualification may do so through a combination of cash deposits, insurance, and binding loan commitments from a financial institution licensed to do business in the State and rated AAA by Standard & Poor's, Moody's Investor Service, or Fitch, Inc. If assets of a parent, subsidiary, or other affiliate of the applicant or a permit holder, or a joint venturer with a direct or indirect interest in the applicant or permit holder, are proposed to be used to demonstrate financial qualification, then the party whose assets are to be used must be designated as a joint permittee with the applicant on the permit for the facility.

(f) The applicant and permit holder for a solid waste management facility shall establish financial assurance by a method or combination of methods that will ensure that sufficient funds for closure, post-closure maintenance and monitoring, and any corrective action that the Department may require will be available during the active life of the facility, at closure, and for any post-closure period of time that the Department may require even if the applicant or permit holder becomes insolvent or ceases to reside, be incorporated, do business, or maintain assets in the State. Rules adopted by the Commission may allow a business entity that is an applicant for a permit or a permit holder to establish financial assurance through insurance, irrevocable letters of credit, trusts, surety bonds, or any other financial device, or any combination of the foregoing shown to provide protection equivalent to the financial protection that would be provided by insurance if insurance were the only mechanism used. Assets used to meet the financial assurance requirements of this section shall be in a form that will allow the Department to readily access funds for the purposes set out in this section. Assets used to meet financial assurance requirements of this section shall not be accessible to the permit holder except as approved by the Department.

(g) In order to continue to hold a permit under this Article, a permit holder must maintain financial responsibility and must provide any information requested by the Department to establish that the permit holder continues to maintain financial responsibility. A permit holder shall notify the Department of any significant change in the: (i) identity of any person or structure of the business entity that holds the permit for the facility; (ii) identity of any person or structure of the business entity that owns or operates the facility; or (iii) assets of the permit holder, owner, or operator of the facility. The permit holder shall notify the Department within 30 days of a significant change. A change shall be considered significant if it has the potential to affect the financial responsibility of the permit holder, owner, or operator, or if it would result in a change in the identity of the permit holder, owner, or operator for purposes of either financial responsibility or environmental compliance review. Based on its review of the changes, the Department may require the permit holder to reestablish financial responsibility and may modify or revoke a permit, or require issuance of a new permit.

(h) To meet the financial assurance requirements of this section, the owner or operator of a sanitary landfill shall establish financial assurance sufficient to cover a minimum of three million dollars ($3,000,000) in costs for potential assessment and corrective action at the facility. The Department may require financial assurance in a higher amount and may increase the amount of financial assurance required of a permit holder at any time based upon the types of waste disposed in the landfill, the projected amount of waste to be disposed in the landfill, the location of the landfill, potential receptors of releases from the landfill, and inflation. The financial assurance requirements of this subsection are in addition to the other financial responsibility requirements set out in this section.

(i) The Commission may adopt rules under which a unit of local government and a solid waste management authority created pursuant to Article 22 of Chapter 153A of the General Statutes may meet the financial responsibility requirements of this section by either a local government financial test or a capital reserve fund requirement."

SECTION 5.(b) G.S. 130A-309.27 reads as rewritten:

"§ 130A-309.27. ~~Landfill escrow account.~~ Joint and several liability.

(a) As used in this section:

(1) "Owner or operator" means, in addition to the usual meanings of the term, any owner of record of any interest in land on which a landfill is or has been sited, ~~and any person or corporation which~~ business entity that owns a majority interest in any other corporation-business entity which is the owner or operator of a landfill-landfill, and any person designated as a joint permittee pursuant to G.S. 130A-295.2(e).

- (2) "Proceeds" means all funds collected and received by the Department, including interest and penalties on delinquent fees.

(b) Every owner or operator of a landfill is jointly and severally liable for the improper operation and closure of the landfill, as provided by law.

~~(c) The owner or operator of a landfill shall establish a fee, or a surcharge on existing fees or other appropriate revenue producing mechanism, to ensure the availability of financial resources for the proper closure of the landfill. However, the disposal of solid waste by persons on their own property is exempt from the provisions of this section.~~

- ~~(1) The revenue producing mechanism must produce revenue at a rate sufficient to generate funds to meet State and federal landfill closure requirements.~~

- ~~(2) The revenue shall be deposited in an interest bearing escrow account to be held and administered by the owner or operator. The owner or operator shall file with the Department an annual audit of the account. The audit shall be conducted by a certified public accountant and shall be filed no later than 31 December of each year. Failure to collect or report this revenue, except as allowed in subsection (d), is a noncriminal violation, punishable by a fine of not more than five thousand dollars ($5,000) for each offense. The owner or operator may make expenditures from the account and its accumulated interest only for the purpose of landfill closure and, if such expenditures do not deplete the fund to the detriment of eventual closure, for planning and construction of resource recovery or landfill facilities. Any moneys remaining in the account after paying for proper and complete closure, as determined by the Department, shall, if the owner or operator does not operate a landfill, be deposited by the owner or operator into the general fund of the unit of local government.~~

- ~~(3) The revenue generated under this subsection and any accumulated interest thereon may be applied to the payment of, or pledged as security for, the payment of revenue bonds issued in whole or in part for the purpose of complying with State and federal landfill closure requirements. The application or pledge may be made directly in the proceedings authorizing the bonds or in an agreement with an insurer of bonds to assure the insurer of this additional security.~~

~~(d) An owner or operator may establish proof of financial responsibility with the Department in lieu of the requirements of subsection (c).~~

July 31, 2007

~~This proof may include surety bonds, certificates of deposit, securities, letter of credit, corporate guarantee, or other documents showing that the owner or operator has sufficient financial resources to cover, at a minimum, the costs of complying with landfill closure requirements. The owner or operator shall estimate the costs to the satisfaction of the Department.~~

~~(e) This section does not repeal, limit, or abrogate any other law authorizing units of local government to fix, levy, or charge rates, fees, or charges for the purpose of complying with State and federal landfill closure requirements.~~

~~(f) The Commission shall adopt rules to implement this section."~~

SECTION 5.(c) This section becomes effective 1 August 2007 and applies to any application for a permit for a solid waste management facility that is pending on that date. The provisions of G.S. 130A-295.2(h), as enacted by this section, apply to the owner or operator of a sanitary landfill when the permit is next subject to renewal after 1 August 2009.

SECTION 6.(a) Part 2 of Article 9 of Chapter 130A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

§ 130A-295.3. Environmental compliance review requirements for applicants and permit holders.

(a) For purposes of this section, "applicant" means an applicant for a permit and a permit holder and includes the owner or operator of the facility, and, if the owner or operator is a business entity, applicant also includes: (i) the parent, subsidiary, or other affiliate of the applicant; (ii) a partner, officer, director, member, or manager of the business entity, parent, subsidiary, or other affiliate of the applicant; and (iii) any person with a direct or indirect interest in the applicant, other than a minority shareholder of a publicly traded corporation who has no involvement in management or control of the corporation or any of its parents, subsidiaries, or affiliates.

(b) The Department shall conduct an environmental compliance review of each applicant for a new permit, permit renewal, and permit amendment under this Article. The environmental compliance review shall evaluate the environmental compliance history of the applicant for a period of five years prior to the date of the application and may cover a longer period at the discretion of the Department. The environmental compliance review of an applicant may include consideration of the environmental compliance history of the parents, subsidiaries, or other affiliates of an applicant or parent that is a business entity, including any business entity or joint venturer with a direct or indirect interest in the applicant, and other facilities owned or operated by any of them. The Department shall determine the scope of the review of the environmental compliance history of the applicant, parents, subsidiaries, or other affiliates of the applicant or parent, including any business entity or joint venturer with a direct or indirect interest in the applicant, and of other facilities owned or operated by any of them. An applicant for a permit shall provide environmental compliance history information for each facility, business entity, joint venture, or other undertaking in which any of the persons listed in this subsection is or has been an owner, operator, officer, director, manager, member, or partner, or in which any of the persons listed in this subsection has had a direct or indirect interest as requested by the Department.

(c) The Department shall determine the extent to which the applicant, or a parent, subsidiary, or other affiliate of the applicant or parent, or a joint venturer with a direct or indirect interest in the applicant, has substantially complied with the requirements applicable to any activity in which any of these entities previously engaged, and has substantially complied with federal and State laws, regulations, and rules for the protection of the environment. The Department may deny an application for a permit if the applicant has a history of significant or repeated violations of statutes, rules, orders, or permit terms or conditions for the protection of the environment or for the conservation of natural resources as evidenced by civil penalty assessments, administrative or judicial compliance orders, or criminal penalties.

(d) A permit holder shall notify the Department of any significant change in its environmental compliance history or other information required by G.S. 130-295.2(g). The Department may reevaluate the environmental compliance history of a permit holder and may modify or revoke a permit or require issuance of a new permit."

SECTION 6.(b) G.S. 130A-309.06(b) is repealed.

SECTION 6.(c) This section becomes effective 1 August 2007 and applies to any application for a permit for a solid waste management facility that is pending on that date.

SECTION 7.(a) G.S. 130A-290(a) is amended by adding three new subdivisions to read:

"(2a) "Coal-fired generating unit" means a coal-fired generating unit, as defined by 40 Code of Federal Regulations § 96.2 (1 July 2001 Edition), that is located in this State and has the capacity to generate 25 or more megawatts of electricity.

(2b) "Combustion products" means residuals, including fly ash, bottom ash, boiler slag, mill rejects, and flue gas desulfurization residue produced by a coal-fired generating unit.

(2c) "Combustion products landfill" means a facility or unit for the disposal of combustion products, where the landfill is located at the same facility with the coal-fired generating unit or units producing the combustion products, and where the landfill is located wholly or partly on top of a facility that is, or was, being used for the disposal or storage of such combustion products, including, but not limited to, landfills, wet and dry ash ponds, and structural fill facilities."

SECTION 7.(b) Part 2 of Article 9 of Chapter 130A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

§ 130A-295.4. Combustion products landfills.

(a) The definitions set out in G.S. 130A-290(a) apply to this section.

July 31, 2007

(b) The Department may permit a combustion products landfill to be constructed partially or entirely within areas that have been formerly used for the storage or disposal of combustion products at the same facility as the coal-fired generating unit that generates the combustion products, provided the landfill is constructed with a bottom liner system consisting of three components in accordance with this section. Of the required three components, the upper two components shall consist of two separate flexible membrane liners, with a leak detection system between the two liners. The third component shall consist of a minimum of two feet of soil underneath the bottom of those liners, with the soil having a maximum permeability of 1×10^{-7} centimeters per second. The flexible membrane liners shall have a minimum thickness of thirty one-thousandths of an inch (0.030"), except that liners consisting of high-density polyethylene shall be at least sixty one-thousandths of an inch (0.060") thick. The lower flexible membrane liner shall be installed in direct and uniform contact with the compacted soil layer. The Department may approve an alternative to the soil component of the composite liner system if the Department finds, based on modeling, that the alternative liner system will provide an equivalent or greater degree of impermeability.

(c) An applicant for a permit for a combustion products landfill shall develop and provide to the Department a response plan, which shall describe the circumstances under which corrective measures are to be taken at the landfill in the event of the detection of leaks in the leak detection system between the upper two liner components at amounts exceeding an amount specified in the response plan (as expressed in average gallons per day per acre of landfill, defined as an Action Leakage Rate). The response plan shall also describe the remedial actions that the landfill is required to undertake in response to detection of leakage in amounts in excess of the Action Leakage Rate. The Department shall review the response plan as a part of the permit application for the landfill. Compliance with performance of the landfill to prevent releases of waste to the environment may be determined based on leakage rate rather than monitoring well data."

SECTION 7.(c) This section becomes effective 1 August 2007. Any permit issued for a combustion products landfill as described in this section shall, for purposes of this bill, be considered to have been permitted on property described in a solid waste management facility permit that is in effect on 1 August 2007.

SECTION 8.(a) Part 2 of Article 9 of Chapter 130A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 130A-295.5. Traffic study required for certain solid waste management facilities.

(a) An applicant for a permit for a sanitary landfill or for a transfer station shall conduct a traffic study of the impacts of the proposed facility. The Department shall include as a condition of a permit for a sanitary landfill or for a transfer station a requirement that the permit holder mitigate adverse impacts identified by the traffic study. The study shall include all of the following at a minimum:

July 31, 2007

- (1) Identification of routes from the nearest limited access highway used to access the proposed facility.
- (2) Daily and hourly traffic volumes that will result along each approach route between the nearest limited access highway and the proposed facility.
- (3) A map identifying land uses located along the identified approach routes, including, but not limited to, residential, commercial, industrial development, and agricultural operations. The map shall identify residences, schools, hospitals, nursing homes, and other significant buildings that front the approach routes.
- (4) Identification of locations on approach routes where road conditions are inadequate to handle the increased traffic associated with the proposed facility and a description of the mitigation measures proposed by the applicant to address the conditions.
- (5) A description of the potential adverse impacts of increased traffic associated with the proposed facility and the mitigation measures proposed by the applicant to address these impacts.
- (6) An analysis of the impact of any increase in freight traffic on railroads and waterways.

(b) An applicant for a permit for a sanitary landfill or for a transfer station may satisfy the requirements of subsection (a) of this section by obtaining a certification from the Division Engineer of the Department of Transportation that the proposed facility will not have a substantial impact on highway traffic."

SECTION 8.(b) This section becomes effective 1 August 2007 and applies to any application for a permit for a solid waste management facility that is pending on that date. The section shall not apply to:

- (1) An amendment, modification, or other change to a permit for a landfill issued on or before 1 June 2006.
- (2) A permit for a horizontal or vertical expansion of the landfill permitted on or before 1 June 2006.
- (3) A permit to construct a new landfill within the facility boundary identified in the facility plan of a landfill permitted on or before 1 June 2006.
- (4) A permit to operate a new landfill if a permit to construct the new landfill was issued on or before 1 June 2006.
- (5) A permit for a sanitary landfill used only to dispose of waste generated by a coal-fired generating unit that is owned or operated by an investor-owned utility subject to the requirements of G.S. 143-215.107D.
- (6) A permit for a sanitary landfill determined to be necessary by the Secretary of Environment and Natural Resources in order to respond to an imminent hazard to public health or a natural disaster.

SECTION 9.(a) Part 2 of Article 9 of Chapter 130A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 130A-295.6. Additional requirements for sanitary landfills.

(a) The Department shall conduct a study of the environmental impacts of any proposed sanitary landfill. The study shall meet all of the requirements set forth in G.S. 113A-4 and rules adopted pursuant to G.S. 113A-4. If an environmental impact statement is required, the Department shall publish notice of the draft environmental impact statement and shall hold a public hearing in the county where the landfill will be located no sooner than 30 days following the public notice. The Department shall consider the study of environmental impacts and any mitigation measures proposed by the applicant in deciding whether to issue or deny a permit. An applicant for a permit for a sanitary landfill shall pay all costs incurred by the Department to comply with this subsection including the costs of any special studies that may be required.

(b) The Department shall require a buffer between any perennial stream or wetland and the nearest waste disposal unit of a sanitary landfill of at least 200 feet. The Department may approve a buffer of less than 200 feet, but in no case less than 100 feet, if it finds all of the following:

- (1) The proposed sanitary landfill or expansion of the sanitary landfill will serve a critical need in the community.
- (2) There is no feasible alternative location that would allow siting or expansion of the sanitary landfill with 200-foot buffers.

(c) A waste disposal unit of a sanitary landfill shall not be constructed within:

- (1) A 100-year floodplain or land removed from a 100-year floodplain designation pursuant to 44 Code of Federal Regulations Part 72 (1 October 2006 Edition) as a result of man-made alterations within the floodplain such as the placement of fill, except as authorized by variance granted under G.S. 143-215.54A(b). This subdivision does not apply to land removed from a 100-year floodplain designation (i) as a result of floodplain map corrections or updates not resulting from man-made alterations of the affected areas within the floodplain, or (ii) pursuant to 44 Code of Federal Regulations Part 70 (1 October 2006 Edition) by a letter of map amendment.
- (2) A wetland, unless the applicant or permit holder can show all of the following, as to the waste disposal unit:
 - a. Where applicable under section 404 of the federal Clean Water Act or applicable State wetlands laws, the presumption that a practicable alternative to the proposed waste disposal unit is available which does not involve wetlands is clearly rebutted;

- b. Construction of the waste disposal unit will not do any of the following:
 - 1. Cause or contribute to violations of any applicable State water quality standard.
 - 2. Violate any applicable toxic effluent standard or prohibition under section 307 of the federal Clean Water Act.
 - 3. Jeopardize the continued existence of endangered or threatened species or result in the destruction or adverse modification of a critical habitat, protected under the federal Endangered Species Act of 1973.
 - 4. Violate any requirement under the federal Marine Protection, Research, and Sanctuaries Act of 1972.
- c. Construction of the waste disposal unit will not cause or contribute to significant degradation of wetlands.
- d. To the extent required under section 404 of the federal Clean Water Act or applicable State wetlands laws, any unavoidable wetlands impacts will be mitigated.

(d) The Department shall not issue a permit to construct any disposal unit of a sanitary landfill if, at the time the application is determined to be complete under G.S. 130A-295.8(e), any portion of the proposed waste disposal unit would be located within:

- (1) Five miles of the outermost boundary of a National Wildlife Refuge.
- (2) One mile of the outermost boundary of a State gameland owned, leased, or managed by the Wildlife Resources Commission pursuant to G.S. 113-306.
- (3) Two miles of the outermost boundary of a component of the State Parks System.

(e) A sanitary landfill for the disposal of construction and demolition debris waste shall be constructed with a liner system that consists of a flexible membrane liner over two feet of soil with a maximum permeability of 1×10^{-5} centimeters per second. The flexible membrane liner shall have a minimum thickness of thirty one-thousandths of an inch (0.030"), except that a liner that consists of high-density polyethylene shall be at least sixty one-thousandths of an inch (0.060") thick. The flexible membrane liner shall be installed in direct and uniform contact with the soil layer. The Department may approve an alternative to the soil component of the liner system if the Department finds, based on modeling, that the alternative liner system will provide an equivalent or greater degree of impermeability.

(f) A sanitary landfill, other than a sanitary landfill for the disposal of construction and demolition debris waste, shall be constructed so that the post-settlement bottom elevation of the liner system, or the post-settlement bottom elevation of the waste if no liner system is required, is a minimum of four feet above both the seasonal high groundwater table and the bedrock datum plane contours. A sanitary landfill for the disposal of construction and demolition debris waste shall be constructed so that the post-settlement bottom elevation of the flexible membrane liner component of the liner system is a minimum of four feet above both the seasonal high groundwater table and the bedrock datum plane contours.

(g) A permit holder for a sanitary landfill shall develop and implement a waste screening plan. The plan shall identify measures adequate to ensure compliance with State laws and rules and any applicable local ordinances that prohibit the disposal of certain items in landfills. The plan shall address all sources of waste generation. The plan is subject to approval by the Department.

(h) The following requirements apply to any sanitary landfill for which a liner is required:

- (1) A geomembrane base liner system shall be tested for leaks and damage by methods approved by the Department that ensure that the entire liner is evaluated.
- (2) A leachate collection system shall be designed to return the head of the liner to 30 centimeters or less within 72 hours. The design shall be based on the precipitation that would fall on an empty cell of the sanitary landfill as a result of a 25-year-24-hour storm event. The leachate collection system shall maintain a head of less than 30 centimeters at all times during leachate recirculation. The Department may require the operator to monitor the head of the liner to demonstrate that the head is being maintained in accordance with this subdivision and any applicable rules.
- (3) All leachate collection lines shall be designed and constructed to permanently allow cleaning and remote camera inspection. All leachate collection lines shall be cleaned at least once a year, except that the Department may allow leachate collection lines to be cleaned once every two years if: (i) the facility has continuous flow monitoring; and (ii) the permit holder demonstrates to the Department that the leachate collection lines are clear and functional based on at least three consecutive annual cleanings. Remote camera inspections of the leachate collection lines shall occur upon completion of construction, at least once every five years thereafter, and following the clearing of blockages.
- (4) Any pipes used to transmit leachate shall provide dual containment outside of the disposal unit. The bottom liner of a sanitary landfill shall be constructed without pipe penetrations.

(i) The Department shall not issue a permit for a sanitary landfill that authorizes:

- (1) A capacity of more than 55 million cubic yards of waste.
- (2) A disposal area of more than 350 acres.
- (3) A maximum height, including the cap and cover vegetation, of more than 250 feet above the mean natural elevation of the disposal area."

SECTION 9.(b) This section becomes effective 1 August 2007 and applies to any application for a permit for a solid waste management facility that is pending on that date. To the extent that G.S. 130A-295.6, as enacted by this section, imposes requirements that are more stringent than those in effect prior to 1 August 2007, the more stringent requirements do not apply to:

- (1) An amendment, modification, or other change to a permit for a landfill issued on or before 1 June 2006.
- (2) A permit for a horizontal or vertical expansion of the landfill permitted on or before 1 June 2006.
- (3) A permit to construct a new landfill within the facility boundary identified in the facility plan of a landfill permitted on or before 1 June 2006.
- (4) A permit to operate a new landfill if a permit to construct the new landfill was issued on or before 1 June 2006.
- (5) A permit for a sanitary landfill used only to dispose of waste generated by a coal-fired generating unit that is owned or operated by an investor-owned utility subject to the requirements of G.S. 143-215.107D.
- (6) A permit for a sanitary landfill determined to be necessary by the Secretary of Environment and Natural Resources in order to respond to an imminent hazard to public health or a natural disaster.

SECTION 10.(a) G.S. 153A-292(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) The board of county commissioners may impose a fee for the collection of solid waste. The fee may not exceed the costs of collection.

The board of county commissioners may impose a fee for the use of a disposal facility provided by the county. The fee for use may not exceed the cost of operating the facility and may be imposed only on those who use the facility. The fee for use may vary based on the amount, characteristics, and form of recyclable materials present in solid waste brought to the facility for disposal. A county may not impose a fee for the use of a disposal facility on a city located in the county or a contractor or resident of the city unless the fee is based on a schedule that applies uniformly throughout the county.

The board of county commissioners may impose a fee for the availability of a disposal facility provided by the county. A fee for availability may not exceed the cost of providing the facility and may be imposed on all improved property in the county that benefits from the availability of the facility. A county may not impose an availability fee on property whose solid waste is collected by a county, a city, or a private contractor for a fee if the fee imposed by a county, a city, or a private contractor for the collection of solid waste includes a charge for the availability and use of a disposal facility provided by the county. Property served by a private contractor who disposes of solid waste collected from the property in a disposal facility provided by a private contractor that provides the same services as those provided by the county disposal facility is not considered to benefit from a disposal facility provided by the county and is not subject to a fee imposed by the county for the availability of a disposal facility provided by the county. To the extent that the services provided by the county disposal facility differ from the services provided by the disposal facility provided by a private contractor in the same county, the county may charge an availability fee to cover the costs of the additional services provided by the county disposal facility.

In determining the costs of providing and operating a disposal facility, a county may consider solid waste management costs incidental to a county's handling and disposal of solid waste at its disposal facility, including the costs of the methods of solid waste management specified in G.S. 130A-309.04(a) of the Solid Waste Management Act of 1989. A fee for the availability or use of a disposal facility may be based on the combined costs of the different disposal facilities provided by the county."

SECTION 10.(b) G.S. 160A-314.1(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) In addition to a fee that a city may impose for collecting solid waste or for using a disposal facility, a city may impose a fee for the availability of a disposal facility provided by the city. A fee for availability may not exceed the cost of providing the facility and may be imposed on all improved property in the city that benefits from the availability of the facility. A city may not impose an availability fee on property whose solid waste is collected by a county, a city, or a private contractor for a fee if the fee imposed by a county, a city, or a private contractor for the collection of solid waste includes a charge for the availability and use of a disposal facility provided by the city. Property served by a private contractor who disposes of solid waste collected from the property in a disposal facility provided by a private contractor that provides the same services as those provided by the city disposal facility is not considered to benefit from a disposal facility provided by the city and is not subject to a fee imposed by the city for the availability of a disposal facility provided by the city. To the extent that the services provided by the city disposal facility differ from the services provided by the disposal facility provided by a private contractor in the same city, the city may charge an availability fee to cover the costs of the additional services provided by the city disposal facility.

In determining the costs of providing and operating a disposal facility, a city may consider solid waste management costs incidental to a city's handling and disposal of solid waste at its disposal facility. A fee for the availability or use of a disposal facility may be based on the combined costs of the different disposal facilities provided by the city."

July 31, 2007

SECTION 10.(c) This section becomes effective 1 August 2007.

SECTION 11.(a) G.S. 153A-136 is amended by adding two new subsections to read:

"(e) A county that has planning jurisdiction over any portion of the site of a sanitary landfill may employ a local government landfill liaison. No person who is responsible for any aspect of the management or operation of the landfill may serve as a local government landfill liaison. A local government landfill liaison shall have a right to enter public or private lands on which the landfill facility is located at reasonable times to inspect the landfill operation in order to:

- (1) Ensure that the facility meets all local requirements.
- (2) Identify and notify the Department of suspected violations of applicable federal or State laws, regulations, or rules.
- (3) Identify and notify the Department of potentially hazardous conditions at the facility.

(f) Entry pursuant to subsection (e) of this section shall not constitute a trespass or taking of property."

SECTION 11.(b) Chapter 160A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 160A-325. Local government landfill liaison.

(a) A city that has planning jurisdiction over any portion of the site of a sanitary landfill may employ a local government landfill liaison. The Department shall issue a draft permit decision on an application for a permit within one year after the Department determines that the application is complete. The Department shall hold a public hearing and accept written comment on the draft permit decision for a period of not less than 30 or more than 60 days after the Department issues a draft permit decision. The Department shall issue a final permit decision on an application for a permit within 90 days after the comment period on the draft permit decision closes. The Department and the applicant may mutually agree to extend any time period under this subsection. If the Department fails to act within any time period set out in this subsection, the applicant may treat the failure to act as a denial of the permit and may challenge the denial as provided in Chapter 150B of the General Statutes."

SECTION 13.(b) This section becomes effective on 1 August 2007 and applies to any application for a permit for a solid waste management facility that is pending on that date, except that during the period 1 August 2007 through 1 August 2008 the Department shall determine whether an application or a permit for a solid waste management facility is complete within 270 days after the Department receives the application for the permit.

SECTION 14.(a) Subchapter I of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new Article to read:

"Article 5G.

"Solid Waste Disposal Tax.

"§ 105-187.60. Definitions.

The definitions set out in G.S. 105-164.3 and G.S. 130A-290 apply to this Article.

"§ 105-187.61. Tax imposed.

(a) Tax Rate. – An excise tax is imposed on the disposal of municipal solid waste and construction and demolition debris in any landfill permitted pursuant to Article 9 of Chapter 130A of the General Statutes at a rate of two dollars ($2.00) per ton of waste. An excise tax is imposed on the transfer of municipal solid waste and construction and demolition debris to a transfer station permitted pursuant to Article 9 of Chapter 130A of the General Statutes for disposal outside the State at a rate of two dollars ($2.00) per ton of waste.

(b) Tax Liability. – The excise tax imposed by this section is due on municipal solid waste and construction and demolition debris received from third parties and on municipal solid waste and construction and demolition debris disposed of by the owner or operator. The tax is payable by the owner or operator of each landfill and transfer station permitted under Article 9 of Chapter 130A of the General Statutes.

"§ 105-187.62. Administration.

The owner or operator of each landfill and transfer station permitted pursuant to Article 9 of Chapter 130A of the General Statutes shall maintain scales designed to determine waste tonnage that are approved by the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services. Each owner or operator shall record waste tonnage at the time the waste is received and maintain other records as required by the Secretary of Revenue. An owner or operator may add the amount of the solid waste disposal tax due to the charges made to a third party for disposal of municipal solid waste or construction and demolition debris. The tax imposed by this Article is payable and a return is due to be filed in the same manner as required under G.S. 105-164.16 for sales and use tax.

"§ 105-187.63. Use of tax proceeds.

From the taxes received pursuant to this Article, the Secretary may retain the costs of collection, not to exceed two hundred twenty-five thousand dollars ($225,000) a year, as reimbursement to the Department. The Secretary shall credit or distribute taxes received pursuant to this Article, less the cost of collection, as follows:

- (1) Fifty percent (50%) to the Inactive Hazardous Sites Cleanup Fund established by G.S. 130A-310.11.
- (2) Thirty-seven and one-half percent (37.5%) to units of local government that provide solid waste management services directly to residents within the political boundaries of the unit of local government as determined by the Department of Environment and Natural Resources, distributed on a per capita basis as described in G.S. 105-472(b)(1). Funds distributed under this subdivision shall be used by a unit of local government solely for solid waste management programs and services. As used in this subdivision, "unit of local government" includes a regional solid waste management authority established under Article 22 of Chapter 153A of the General Statutes.
- (3) Twelve and one-half percent (12.5%) to the Solid Waste Management Trust Fund established by G.S. 130A-309.12."

SECTION 14.(b) Part 2A of Article 9 of Chapter 130A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 130A-295.9. Solid waste disposal tax; use of proceeds.

It is the intent that the proceeds of the solid waste disposal tax imposed by Article 5G of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes shall be used only for the following purposes:

- (1) Funds credited pursuant to G.S. 105-187.63(1) to the Inactive Hazardous Sites Cleanup Fund shall be used by the Department of Environment and Natural Resources to fund the assessment and remediation of pre-1983 landfills. Up to seven percent (7%) of the funds credited under this subdivision may be used to fund staff to administer contracts for the assessment and remediation of pre-1983 landfills.
- (2) Funds credited pursuant to G.S. 105-187.63(3) to the Solid Waste Management Trust Fund shall be used by the Department of Environment and Natural Resources to fund grants to State agencies and units of local government to initiate or enhance local recycling programs and to provide for the management of difficult to manage solid waste, including abandoned mobile homes and household hazardous waste. Up to seven percent (7%) of the funds credited under this subdivision may be used by the Department to administer this Part."

SECTION 14.(c) G.S. 130A-310.6 is amended by adding four new subsections to read:

"(c) The Secretary shall use funds allocated to the Department under G.S. 130A-295.9(1) to assess pre-1983 landfills, to determine the priority for remediation of pre-1983 landfills, and to develop and implement a remedial action plan for each pre-1983 landfill that requires remediation. Environmental and human health risks posed by a pre-1983 landfill may be mitigated using a risk-based approach for assessment and remediation.

(d) The Secretary shall not seek cost recovery from a unit of local government for assessment and remedial action performed under subsection (c) of this section at a pre-1983 landfill. The Secretary shall not seek cost recovery for assessment and remedial action performed under subsection (c) of this section at a pre-1983 landfill from any other potentially responsible party if the Secretary develops and implements a remedial action plan for that pre-1983 landfill. If any potentially responsible party fails to cooperate with assessment of a site and implementation of control and mitigation measures at any site which the potentially responsible party owns or over which the potentially responsible party exercises control through a lease or other property interest, the Secretary may seek cost recovery for assessment and remedial action. Cooperation with assessment of a site and implementation of control and mitigation measures includes, but is not limited to, granting access to the site, allowing installation of monitoring wells, allowing installation and maintenance of improvements to the landfill cap, allowing installation of security measures, agreeing to record and implement land-use restrictions, and providing access to any records regarding the pre-1983 landfill. Nothing in this section shall alter any right, duty, obligation, or liability between a unit of local government and a third party. Nothing in this section shall alter any right, duty, obligation, or liability between any other potentially responsible party and a unit of local government, a third party, or, except as provided in this subsection, to the State.

(e) The Secretary shall develop and implement remedial action plans for pre-1983 landfills in the order of their priority determined as provided in subsection (c) of this section. The Secretary shall not develop or implement a remedial action plan for a pre-1983 landfill unless the Secretary determines that sufficient funds will be available from the Inactive Hazardous Sites Cleanup Fund to pay the costs of development and implementation of a remedial action plan for that pre-1983 landfill.

(f) A unit of local government that voluntarily undertakes assessment or remediation of a pre-1983 landfill may request that the Department reimburse the costs of assessment of the pre-1983 landfill and implementation of measures necessary to remediate the site to eliminate an imminent hazard. The Department shall provide reimbursement under this subsection if the Department finds all of the following:

(1) The unit of local government undertakes assessment and remediation under a plan approved by the Department.

July 31, 2007

- (2) The unit of local government provides a certified accounting of costs incurred for assessment and remediation.
- (3) Each contract for assessment and remediation complies with the requirements of Articles 3D and 8 of Chapter 143 of the General Statutes.
- (4) Remedial action is limited to measures necessary to abate the imminent hazard.

(g) The Department may undertake any additional action necessary to remediate a pre-1983 landfill based on the priority ranking of the site under subsection (c) of this section."

SECTION 14.(d) G.S. 130A-310.11 reads as rewritten:

"§ 130A-310.11. Inactive Hazardous Sites Cleanup Fund created.

(a) There is established under the control and direction of the Department the Inactive Hazardous Sites Cleanup Fund. This fund shall be a revolving fund consisting of any monies appropriated for such purpose by the General Assembly or available to it from grants, taxes, and other monies paid to it or recovered by or on behalf of the Department. The Inactive Hazardous Sites Cleanup Fund shall be treated as a nonreverting special trust fund and shall be credited with interest by the State Treasurer pursuant to G.S. 147-69.2 and G.S. 147-69.3.

(b) Funds credited to the Inactive Hazardous Sites Cleanup Fund pursuant to G.S. 130A-295.9 shall be used only as provided in G.S. 130A-309.295.9(c)."

SECTION 14.(e) This section becomes effective 1 July 2008.

SECTION 15.(a) The Commission for Health Services shall review rules governing the design, construction, operation, maintenance, closure, and post-closure monitoring and maintenance of solid waste management facilities to determine whether changes are required to protect public health, safety, welfare, and the environment; to improve the performance of solid waste management facilities; to take advantage of technological advances in landfill design, construction, operation, maintenance, and closure; and to provide additional protection to environmentally sensitive areas of the State. The Commission shall adopt rules necessary to minimize impacts from solid waste management facilities on public health, safety, welfare, and the environment. These rules shall:

- (1) Establish standards for the collection, control, and utilization or destruction of landfill gases at municipal solid waste landfills.
- (2) Establish standards for the design, construction, operation, maintenance, closure, and post-closure monitoring and maintenance of bioreactor landfills.
- (3) Establish criteria for development of bird and wildlife management plans.

"Part 2E. Discarded Computer Equipment Management.

"§ 130A-309.90. Findings.

The General Assembly makes the following findings:

- (1) The computer equipment waste stream is growing rapidly in volume and complexity and can introduce toxic materials into solid waste landfills.
- (2) It is in the best interests of the citizens of this State to have convenient, simple, and free access to recycling services for discarded computer equipment.
- (3) Collection programs operated by local government and nonprofit agencies are an efficient way to divert discarded computer equipment from disposal and to provide recycling services to all citizens of this State.
- (4) The development of local and nonprofit collection programs is hindered by the high costs of recycling and transporting discarded computer equipment.
- (5) No other system currently exists, either provided by electronics manufacturers, retailers, or others, to adequately serve all citizens of the State and to divert large quantities of discarded computer equipment from disposal.
- (6) Manufacturer responsibility is an effective way to ensure that manufacturers of computer equipment take part in a solution to the electronic waste problem.
- (7) The recycling of discarded computer equipment recovers valuable materials for reuse and will create jobs and expand the tax base of the State.

The Conference Report, which changes the title, is placed on the Calendar for Wednesday, August 1, for adoption upon second reading.

Pursuant to Senator Basnight's motion to adjourn having prevailed, the Senate adjourns at 11:49 P.M. with bills remaining on the Calendar as unfinished business.

ONE HUNDRED TENTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Wednesday, August 1, 2007

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Beverly E. Perdue, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Loving God, one of the most meaningful compensations of this life is that no person can sincerely try to help another without helping herself or himself. The members of the Senate thank you for the privilege of serving during this Session, the blessing of sharing, the joy of helping. Thank you for making us capable of caring, fortunate enough to have a surplus, eager enough to want to pass it on. Continue your call upon us to do good daily, to make giving as much a part of our lives as you do and able to hear the voice of hope that binds us all as one. Amen."

August 1, 2007

Senator Basnight, President Pro Tempore, announces that the Journal of Tuesday, July 31, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Journal and it stands approved as written.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

With unanimous consent, upon motion of Senator Apodaca, the remarks of Senator Weinstein who rises to a point of personal privilege, are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator Weinstein:

"Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate, as you know, I read a lot of history and wanted to share with you a very poignant story about World War II. I know, Senator Basnight, you read a lot of history and Senator Blake, but how many of you have ever heard of the USS Dorchester? It's a very, very poignant story and I'd like to share it with you. 'On February 3, 1943, the USS Dorchester would become another statistic in the ships lost at sea column but, unlike others before it, what would take place on the deck of the Dorchester would become a significant event for all time. Pushing through the treacherous waters with 905 American servicemen aboard bound for Greenland, the Dorchester left its convoy for a few hours short of its destination. A Nazi submarine stalking the ship undetected took this opportunity to fire a torpedo that hit the boiler room. Many on board died instantly in the explosion. Some were trapped below deck, others jolted from their bunks and went to the decks of the stricken vessel. The ship took on water rapidly listing to starboard. Overcrowded lifeboats capsized, rafts drifted away before anyone could reach them.' Here is the story that I want to give you. 'On deck amid confusion and terror Army Chaplains George Fox, Alexander Goode, Clark Poling, and John Washington, moved about calming frightened men, directing the wounded soldiers to lifeboats and distributing life jackets with calm precision. Soon the supply of jackets was exhausted, yet four young soldiers afraid and without life vests stood waiting. Quickly, the chaplains stripped off their own life jackets and forced them among the four soldiers. The four men of God, one Catholic, one Jewish, and two Protestants, had given away their only means of saving themselves in order to save others. Men rowing away from the sinking ship in lifeboats saw the chaplains clinging to each other on the slanting deck. Their arms were linked together, their heads were bowed as they prayed to the one God whom each of them loved and served. The Dorchester sank beneath the icy waters of the North Atlantic carrying with it the four chaplains and some 675 servicemen.' The message that this event brought was this. If they can die together, why can't we live together?' In 1948, the U. S. Post Office issued a stamp in honor and in memory of the four mortal chaplains. In the Senate, we have a chaplain that takes off his life jacket every day giving us words of wisdom, hope and courage to do the right things for the people of North Carolina, and it is my privilege today on behalf of all the Senators here to present to the Reverend Mike Morris a sheet of the four chaplains stamps to honor his service to us. Mike, if you will come up here I will give you these stamps."

August 1, 2007

S.J.R. 1572, A JOINT RESOLUTION ACKNOWLEDGING THE FINDINGS OF THE 1898 WILMINGTON RACE RIOT COMMISSION, is taken up out of its regular order of business and placed before the Senate for immediate consideration.

Upon motion of Senator Dorsett, the joint resolution is read in its entirety and, upon motion of Senator Goodall, the remarks of the members are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator Dorsett:

“I’ve often heard if you don’t know your history you’re bound to repeat it and I hope that we never repeat the Wilmington Race Riots but let me give you a little bit of the history. In 2000, the General Assembly under the leadership of Representative Wright and our colleague, the late Luther Jordan, helped to establish the 1898 Wilmington Race Riot Commission and another one of our colleagues, Senator Julia Boseman, later co-chaired the Commission and I certainly want to at this time thank her for her support and her willingness to work on that Commission. The General Assembly established this Commission so that we could know the truth about what happened 109 years ago and why it happened. The conclusion is in the title of the bill. The 1898 Wilmington Race Riot was a conspiracy that used intimidation and force to replace a duly elected local government. Political leaders were directly responsible for participants’ engineering and executing a statewide campaign so that they could win elections and it was vicious, it was defamatory toward African-Americans and it encouraged the violence. The General Assembly was a part of that conspiracy and even though none of us were alive then, we must now acknowledge the truth, just as the resolution apologizing for slavery acknowledged the General Assembly's role in that awful chapter. We have to sometimes take a hard look at the past so that we can move forward and have a brighter future. While this might not seem relevant to some of you in 2007, in this session we've all worked very hard to call on every one of us to work toward racial reconciliation in our everyday lives. With this resolution we acknowledge and renounce the actions of the past and this resolution is really about a better future for all Americans and I urge you to support this resolution. Thank you."

August 1, 2007

Senator Boseman:

"I stand today to offer my support of Senator Dorsett's resolution honoring the work and findings of the 1898 Race Commission. The Commission was charged with the difficult task of uncovering the 100-year old truth of the horrific series of events that took place across our great State but eventually erupted in violence and mayhem in Wilmington, North Carolina. The Race Riot Commission has made a series of findings that demand acknowledgement from the State of those events and offers some suggestions as to how to begin the healing. I commend this resolution to you and hope that this effort is a giant step down the path of racial harmony in North Carolina."

Senator Albertson:

"Senator Dorsett, thank you for bringing this resolution to us. I think it's important that we do stop and look back at our history and by doing that it gives us a good barometer or good vision maybe of how we should try to approach the future. I was thinking this morning as the resolution was being read that just the other day we had the Tuskegee Airmen here and I try to envision it and think back of how things were at that time and how we have changed and have taken some steps forward for the betterment of all of us. As I observe and look around in my life, I sincerely believe that one of the great challenges that we have today in our communities and in our world is to try to break down some of these walls that separate us from people who are different from us. I couldn't help but think about what Senator Weinstein said this morning in his remarks which I thought were so very appropriate for all of us when he spoke about those chaplains who went down on that ship because of their love and concern for their fellow man. He said, if I can remember his quote, 'Surely if they could die together that we could learn to live together.' It is one of the great challenges that we have even in this Body sometimes and across our State and Nation. I hope I can learn to be a better steward in that respect myself and I commend this resolution to you."

Senator Brock:

"I'd like to thank the leadership for bringing this Commission together. This, no doubt, was probably the ugliest chapter in North Carolina's history when a riot happened to throw out the duly elected government and there was no excuse for it. Worse than that, that there were no reports of it because the media during that time was controlled by the Red Shirts. This was a group of white supremacists that devised this plan, this scheme to do this and it's really tough to air your dirty laundry to air these Red Shirts as they were called. Those really were the lieutenants out there but the Red Strings were the higher-ups or the leadership of this movement. It's really tough to do this but I appreciate the leadership putting this together to offer an apology to those, all those that were affected, whether they were black, republican, or fusionists. Thank you and I urge you to vote for the resolution."

August 1, 2007

Senator Foriest:

"I'm very thankful as well for this resolution. I really believe it allows us to talk about some of the things that have been hidden and only whispered about. I consider myself somewhat of an educated person and I also study history a lot and my problem is that I only found out about the Wilmington Race Riots ten or fifteen years ago. Before that I had never even heard about them. I didn't hear about them at all in my classroom history courses or very little about some of the things that went on in some of my college courses. The riots paved the way for the Jim Crow Laws and provided justification for a segregated society. Even today, we are paying a price for some of the things that were done back then. The information that we are learning now and hearing about the race riots is information that is important because it's factual, it's true and it represents history as it is, not as we would like for it to be. I guess the question that comes to my mind is what are we going to do with this information now that we have it? Do we read it and ignore it or do we use the information to improve relationships in the lives of all of us? I really think our history should reflect not only the virtues and assets of our lives but our history should also tell us about our blemishes. We love our State and we love our communities and if we act as if they are both without fault we are not helping ourselves at all. We need to re-look at our history books and we need to re-look at how we view the past because that's the only way that we're going to keep from repeating some of the mistakes that we've made. We're taking huge steps forward, I believe, by acknowledging our shortcomings and moving forward and I certainly commend this resolution."

Senator Berger of Franklin:

"There's an old adage that those that don't know their history are doomed to repeat the same mistakes. I'm very appreciative that we are recognizing this past history that occurred in Wilmington that is a sad chapter in North Carolina history. But I'm here to tell you that white supremacist ideas are not dead. They're alive and well and in fact in my community right now as we speak, in the past few weeks a white supremacist organization out of Virginia has leafleted my entire community with flyers strung up, 'Racial Hatred.' By learning this past history, it gives me and I hope each of you inspiration to fight the right fight now that wasn't fought at that time and I may be calling upon each of you at some point to assist me in the efforts to encourage racial healing in my community but we are right now being plagued by organized white supremacist activity in Vance County."

August 1, 2007

Senator McKissick:

“I just want to say that so much has been said already and that this is truly an appropriate symbolic gesture that is significant in many ways because it validates a wrong that occurred. There was always hearsay and innuendo, folklore, so to speak, in the African-American community about what had occurred in Wilmington at this time and in this era. To see a Commission established that goes back, does its appropriate fact-finding, validates those things that were in some circles known to have occurred, it is important, it is significant, and it sets forth an appropriate tone for us to move forward. I think now as we’ve all talked about these sorts, this incident in particular will be reflected in the North Carolina history books. That’s important and that is significant. The thing that is such a tragedy in many respects is that what occurred in Wilmington was not particularly unique in terms of what was occurring in the United States of America in that time and in that era. Yes, we’ve come a long way. Yes, we have very, very far to go. I hear Senator Berger speak about Granville County today. I can remember a time back in the mid 70’s in Granville County where there was still a sign on the interstate highway posted there by the Ku Klux Klan welcoming them to Granville County. It was through the moral courage of Mayor Hugh Currin in that era that the sign came down. It set a new tone of growth and development in Granville County. In some respects when he went to those that posted it, he had to say the reason it needs to come down is because it was bad for business. It was not only bad for business, it’s morally repugnant and it’s reprehensible that we should have these artificial divisions between us based upon race and based upon immutable characteristics. Yes, today some of those vestiges still stay with us from an era that is far gone. This Body today has done something truly significant. We should not underrate its significance and I want to thank Senator Dorsett and Senator Boseman for their leadership in this and all those others that worked on this effort. We can be proud of what we have done and what we have said. By validating and recognizing the wrongs and injustices of the past, we stand on fertile ground for moving forward in the State with the feeling of racial harmony knowing that we are evermore committed in the future to respect the rights, the dignities, the privileges of all people regardless of race, color, religion, national origin. I tell you, while we speak those words they cannot be taken ever so lightly. They are significant and that is what the Constitution is based upon. Thank you.”

Senator Dannelly:

“Ladies and Gentlemen, just a short reminder of what happened in 1898 in Wilmington. A major part of that conspiracy throughout was plagued by the major news media of the time and when the Commission put out its report, the major newspapers acknowledged and apologized for their participation in that conspiracy and they reported the findings of the Commission in full so that everybody across the State could be a part of that awful history back then. So I caution us today, along with our major newspapers and media outlets, as they report even today they have to be careful in walking that fine line that could still sometimes create in some people's mind that feeling of racial hatred. We cannot tolerate that today and I just want to caution them as they walk that fine line of reporting the news. Thank you. I urge this resolution."

August 1, 2007

Senator Basnight:

"Members of the Senate, Senator Foriest moved me to stand when he said he knew nothing of this history until ten or fifteen years ago and then Senator Berger mentioned that white supremacy was alive in Vance County. The history of the past, I guess it does surprise me as much as it would you that this is occurring today and that we didn't realize what was happening in North Carolina, in this Country, and in the world to a larger extent during our earlier history. The development of our economy with tobacco and other agricultural products was on the backs of the African-Americans and that success was held in the South. We realize today, and for all the young people here, that during this process there were many times on many plantations and I would assume in many homes the rights of a human being were stolen and taken. The rape of the children and the separation of the family was all occurring in North Carolina. Any right that a person had was removed and taken forevermore because of his color in the views of people who enslaved others. So what happened in Wilmington at that time during the race riots was absolutely awful, terrible, and to be able to speak of that today and understand that it did occur is ever so important for our understanding of what we are as a people. It is also important to understand that it was equally as bad in the plantation life of so many plantations in the South. We would use the labor of these people against their will and against their wishes. You would hate yourself if it were to occur today to your child or your wife or your husband and all their rights were stolen and taken and the family was separated and sold in bondage if you disagree with the wants of that person who owns you and then you could be tracked down to points North and taken and shackled and brought back again to be penalized, punished, beaten, or life taken all for the pleasure of the economy and success. Then ultimately there was a war among people, among brothers in many instances. But that history is not spoken ever so loudly because we don't fully understand it. If you go to Somerset Place in Washington County near Crestville, you'll see the plantation house but you will not see any of the slave-holding houses that were there except one slave quarters which we have recreated through our imaginative creation. But there were literally hundreds of these quarters and we tore them all down and we did that across the South. You don't see many slave quarters that can show the history of how they lived or the places where they were flogged. It was a cruel part of history, obviously, and it's one that everyone here regrets ever so much but to hear someone stand today in North Carolina and say there is some semblance occurring in Vance County, not of slavery, but of separation of people because of color is quite a surprise but the surprise that you brought to us today does not equate that surprise. It is a great resolution to have and one that is important to talk about. Thank you."

August 1, 2007

Senator Malone:

“Thomas Jefferson, I understand, is credited with having made the statement that nations cannot be both ignorant and free. I hope he said that and I hope he meant it. I would say to you in response to Senator Foriest’s statement about where do we go from here, let’s commit ourselves as a Body to see that we have an educated society. Let’s commit ourselves to be absolutely sure that every boy and girl in this State gets to be the very best he or she can be. We’ve got tons of young men and women in the State of North Carolina who are ignorant. They’re ignorant and we have already voted on probably one of the better education budgets that we’ve had since I’ve been here but that just has to be a beginning. Thomas Jefferson didn’t have me in mind when he said that if indeed he did, but the words resonate with me because I know that if we don’t educate our young men and women and particularly our black males, particularly our black males, if we don’t educate them, they will be doomed to repeat what we don’t want to see happen anymore. It’s one thing to talk about it and to reflect on what happened, but it’s something else to look to where we go from here. I encourage you to vote for the resolution but also to vote for some of this good stuff that comes through here that will help young men and women in this State. Thank you.”

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO DIRECT THE ENVIRONMENTAL REVIEW COMMISSION TO STUDY ISSUES RELATED TO THE TRANSFER OF WATER FROM ONE RIVER BASIN TO ANOTHER RIVER BASIN AND THE ALLOCATION OF SURFACE WATER RESOURCES AND TO AMEND THE LAWS GOVERNING THE TRANSFER OF WATER FROM ONE RIVER BASIN TO ANOTHER RIVER BASIN.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1.(a) The Environmental Review Commission, with the assistance of the Department of Environment and Natural Resources, shall study the allocation of surface water resources and their availability and maintenance in the State, including issues related to the transfer of water from one river basin to another, the withdrawal of water for consumptive use, and the accuracy and tolerance of equipment used to measure the flow of water transferred from one river basin to another river basin. The Commission shall evaluate the benefits of establishing formal and informal procedures for negotiating transfers of water from one river basin to another. The Commission shall also study and recommend measures to: (i) ensure that the purposes of the Regional Water Supply Planning Act of 1971, as set out in G.S. 162A-21, are fulfilled; (ii) provide for a comprehensive system for regulating surface water withdrawals for consumptive and nonconsumptive uses; (iii) provide for the establishment of a statewide plan for water resources development projects; (iv) provide for adequate resources for the Department so that it may develop and implement a comprehensive approach to water resources management; (v) ensure that all State laws regulating water resources are consistent with and fully integrated into the comprehensive system for regulating surface water withdrawals and the statewide plan for water resources development projects; and (vi) ensure that potential interstate conflicts related to water resources are avoided or minimized. In the conduct of this study, the Environmental Review Commission may employ independent consultants as provided in G.S. 120-32.02 and G.S. 120-70.44. The Environmental Review Commission may submit an interim report to the 2008 Regular Session of the General Assembly and shall submit a final report of its findings and recommendations, including any legislative proposals, to the 2009 General Assembly.

SECTION 1.(b) The Division of Water Resources of the Department of Environment and Natural Resources, in consultation with the Environmental Review Commission, shall prepare a revised map entitled "Major River Basins and Sub-basins in North Carolina". The revised map shall be prepared as a recommended replacement for the map referenced in G.S. 143-215.22G. The revised map shall define the extent to which any river basin that encompasses any river that flows from another state into North Carolina or that flows from North Carolina into another state extends into an adjacent state. The Environmental Review Commission shall recommend a revised map and a conforming legislative proposal to amend the definition of "river basin" set out in G.S. 143-215.22G to the 2008 Regular Session of the General Assembly.

SECTION 2. G.S. 143-215.22I is repealed.

SECTION 3. Part 2A of Article 21 of Chapter 143 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

§ 143-215.22L. Regulation of surface water transfers.

(a) Certificate Required. – No person, without first obtaining a certificate from the Commission, may:

- (1) Initiate a transfer of 2,000,000 gallons of water or more per day from one river basin to another.
- (2) Increase the amount of an existing transfer of water from one river basin to another by twenty-five percent (25%) or more above the average daily amount transferred during the year ending 1 July 1993 if the total transfer including the increase is 2,000,000 gallons or more per day.
- (3) Increase an existing transfer of water from one river basin to another above the amount approved by the Commission in a certificate issued under G.S. 162A-7 prior to 1 July 1993.

(b) Exception. – Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (a) of this section, a certificate shall not be required to transfer water from one river basin to another up to the full capacity of a facility to transfer water from one basin to another if the facility was in existence or under construction on 1 July 1993.

(c) Notice of Intent to File a Petition. – An applicant shall prepare a notice of intent to file a petition that includes a nontechnical description of the applicant's request and an identification of the proposed water source. Within 90 days after the applicant files a notice of intent to file a petition, the applicant shall hold at least one public meeting in the source river basin upstream from the proposed point of withdrawal, at least one public meeting in the source river basin downstream from the proposed point of withdrawal, and at least one public meeting in the receiving river basin to provide information to interested parties and the public regarding the nature and extent of the proposed transfer and to receive comment on the scope of the environmental documents. Written notice of the public meetings shall be provided at least 30 days before the public meetings. At the time the applicant gives notice of the public meetings, the applicant shall request comment on the alternatives and issues that should be addressed in the environmental documents required by this section. The applicant shall accept written comment on the scope of the environmental documents for a minimum of 30 days following the last public meeting. Notice of the public meetings and opportunity to comment on the scope of the environmental documents shall be provided as follows:

- (1) By publishing notice in the North Carolina Register.
- (2) By publishing notice in a newspaper of general circulation in:
 - a. Each county in this State located in whole or in part of the area of the source river basin upstream from the proposed point of withdrawal.
 - b. Each county in an adjacent state located in whole or in part of the area of the source river basin upstream from the proposed point of withdrawal, up to the point of the last impoundment upstream from the point of withdrawal. This subdivision shall not apply if there are no impoundments located in the source river basin upstream from the proposed point of withdrawal.
 - c. Each county in this State or in an adjacent state located in whole or in part of the area of the source river basin downstream from the proposed point of withdrawal.
 - d. Any area in the State in a river basin for which the source river basin has been identified as a future source of water in a local water supply plan prepared pursuant to G.S. 143-355(l).
 - e. Each county in the State located in whole or in part of the receiving river basin.
- (3) By giving notice by first-class mail or electronic mail to each of the following:
 - a. The board of commissioners of each county in this State or the governing body of any county or city that is politically independent of a county in any adjacent state that is located entirely or partially within the source river basin of the proposed transfer.
 - b. The board of commissioners of each county in this State or the governing body of any county or city that is politically independent of a county in any adjacent state that is located entirely or partially within the receiving river basin of the proposed transfer.
 - c. The governing body of any public water supply

August 1, 2007

- system that withdraws water upstream or downstream from the withdrawal point of the proposed transfer.
- d. If any portion of the source or receiving river basins is located in an adjacent state, all state water management or use agencies, environmental protection agencies, and the office of the governor in each adjacent state upstream or downstream from the withdrawal point of the proposed transfer.
 - e. All persons who have registered a water withdrawal or transfer from the proposed source river basin under this Part or under similar law in an adjacent state.
 - f. All persons who hold a certificate for a transfer of water from the proposed source river basin under this Part or under similar law in an adjacent state.
 - g. All persons who hold a National Pollutant Discharge Elimination System (NPDES) wastewater discharge permit for a discharge of 100,000 gallons per day or more upstream or downstream from the proposed point of withdrawal.
 - h. To any other person who submits to the applicant a written request to receive all notices relating to the petition.

(d) Environmental Documents. – The definitions set out in G.S. 113A-9 apply to this section. The Department shall conduct a study of the environmental impacts of any proposed transfer of water for which a certificate is required under this section. The study shall meet all of the requirements set forth in G.S. 113A-4 and rules adopted pursuant to G.S. 113A-4. An environmental assessment shall be prepared for any petition for a certificate under this section. The determination of whether an environmental impact statement shall also be required shall be made in accordance with the provisions of Article 1 of Chapter 113A of the General Statutes; except that an environmental impact statement shall be prepared for every proposed transfer of water from one major river basin to another for which a certificate is required under this section. The applicant who petitions the Commission for a certificate under this section shall pay the cost of special studies necessary to comply with Article 1 of Chapter 113A of the General Statutes. An environmental impact statement prepared pursuant to this subsection shall include all of the following:

- (1) A comprehensive analysis of the impacts that would occur in the source river basin and the receiving river basin if the petition for a certificate is granted.
- (2) An evaluation of alternatives to the proposed interbasin transfer, including water supply sources that do not require an interbasin transfer and use of water conservation measures.

August 1, 2007

(3) A description of measures to mitigate any adverse impacts that may arise from the proposed interbasin transfer.(e) Public Hearing on the Draft Environmental Document. – The Commission shall hold a public hearing on the draft environmental document for a proposed interbasin transfer after giving at least 30 days' written notice of the hearing in the Environmental Bulletin and as provided in subdivisions (2) and (3) of subsection (c) of this section. The notice shall indicate where a copy of the environmental document can be reviewed and the procedure to be followed by anyone wishing to submit written comments and questions on the environmental document. The Commission shall prepare a record of all comments and written responses to questions posed in writing. The record shall include complete copies of scientific or technical comments related to the potential impact of the interbasin transfer. The Commission shall accept written comment on the draft environmental documents for a minimum of 30 days following the last public hearing.

(f) Determination of Adequacy of Environmental Document. – The Commission shall not act on any petition for an interbasin transfer until the Commission has determined that the environmental document is complete and adequate. A decision on the adequacy of the environmental document is subject to review in a contested case on the decision of the Commission to issue or deny a certificate under this section.

(g) Petition. – An applicant for a certificate shall petition the Commission for the certificate. The petition shall be in writing and shall include all of the following:

- (1) A description of the facilities to be used to transfer the water, including the location and capacity of water intakes, pumps, pipelines, and other facilities.
- (2) A description of all the proposed consumptive and nonconsumptive uses of the water to be transferred.
- (3) A description of the water quality of the source river and receiving river, including information on aquatic habitat for rare, threatened, and endangered species; in-stream flow data for segments of the source and receiving rivers that may be affected by the transfer; and any waters that are impaired pursuant to section 303(d) of the federal Clean Water Act (33 U.S.C. § 1313(d)).
- (4) A description of the water conservation measures used by the applicant at the time of the petition and any additional water conservation measures that the applicant will implement if the certificate is granted.
- (5) A description of all sources of water within the receiving river basin, including surface water impoundments, groundwater wells, reinjection storage, and purchase of water from another source within the river basin, that is a practicable alternative to the proposed transfer that would meet the applicant's water supply needs. The description of water sources shall include sources available at the time of the petition for a certificate and any planned or potential water sources.

- (6) A description of water transfers and withdrawals registered under G.S. 143-215.22H or included in a local water supply plan prepared pursuant to G.S. 143-355(l) from the source river basin, including transfers and withdrawals at the time of the petition for a certificate and any planned or reasonably foreseeable transfers or withdrawals by a public water system with service area located within the source river basin.
- (7) A demonstration that the proposed transfer, if added to all other transfers and withdrawals required to be registered under G.S. 143-215.22H or included in any local water supply plan prepared by a public water system with service area located within the source basin pursuant to G.S. 143-355(l) from the source river basin at the time of the petition for a certificate, would not reduce the amount of water available for use in the source river basin to a degree that would impair existing uses, pursuant to the antidegradation policy set out in 40 Code of Federal Regulation § 131.12 (Antidegradation Policy) (1 July 2006 Edition) and the statewide antidegradation policy adopted pursuant thereto, or existing and planned consumptive and nonconsumptive uses of the water in the source river basin. If the proposed transfer would impact a reservoir within the source river basin, the demonstration must include a finding that the transfer would not result in a water level in the reservoir that is inadequate to support existing uses of the reservoir, including recreational uses.
- (8) The applicant's future water supply needs and the present and reasonably foreseeable future water supply needs for public water systems with service area located within the source river basin. The analysis of future water supply needs shall include agricultural, recreational, and industrial uses, and electric power generation. Local water supply plans prepared pursuant to G.S. 143-355(l) for water systems with service area located within the source river basin shall be used to evaluate the projected future water needs in the source river basin that will be met by public water systems.
- (9) The applicant's water supply plan prepared pursuant to G.S. 143-355(l). If the applicant's water supply plan is more than two years old at the time of the petition, then the applicant shall include with the petition an updated water supply plan.

(10) Any other information deemed necessary by the Commission for review of the proposed water transfer.

(h) Settlement Discussions. – Upon the request of the applicant, any interested party, or the Department, or upon its own motion, the Commission may appoint a mediation officer. The mediation officer may be a member of the Commission, an employee of the Department, or a neutral third party but shall not be a hearing officer under subsections (e) or (j) of this section. The mediation officer shall make a reasonable effort to initiate settlement discussions between the applicant and all other interested parties. Evidence of statements made and conduct that occurs in a settlement discussion conducted under this subsection, whether attributable to a party, a mediation officer, or other person shall not be subject to discovery and shall be inadmissible in any subsequent proceeding on the petition for a certificate. The Commission may adopt rules to govern the conduct of the mediation process.

(i) Draft Determination. – Within 90 days after the Commission determines that the environmental document prepared in accordance with subsection (d) of this section is adequate or the applicant submits its petition for a certificate, whichever occurs later, the Commission shall issue a draft determination on whether to grant the certificate. The draft determination shall be based on the criteria set out in this section and shall include the conditions and limitations, findings of fact, and conclusions of law that would be required in a final determination. Notice of the draft determination shall be given as provided in subsection (c) of this section.

(j) Public Hearing on the Draft Determination. – Within 60 days of the issuance of the draft determination as provided in subsection (i) of this section, the Commission shall hold public hearings on the draft determination. At least one hearing shall be held in the affected area of the source river basin, and at least one hearing shall be held in the affected area of the receiving river basin. In determining whether more than one public hearing should be held within either the source or receiving river basins, the Commission shall consider the differing or conflicting interests that may exist within the river basins, including the interests of both upstream and downstream parties potentially affected by the proposed transfer. The public hearings shall be conducted by one or more hearing officers appointed by the Chair of the Commission. The hearing officers may be members of the Commission or employees of the Department. The Commission shall give at least 30 days' written notice of the public hearing as provided in subsection (c) of this section. The Commission shall accept written comment on the draft determination for a minimum of 30 days following the last public hearing. The Commission shall prepare a record of all comments and written responses to questions posed in writing. The record shall include complete copies of scientific or technical comments related to the potential impact of the interbasin transfer.

August 1, 2007

(k) Final Determination: Factors to be Considered. – In determining whether a certificate may be issued for the transfer, the Commission shall specifically consider each of the following items and state in writing its findings of fact and conclusions of law with regard to each item:

- (1) The necessity and reasonableness of the amount of surface water proposed to be transferred and its proposed uses.
- (2) The present and reasonably foreseeable future detrimental effects on the source river basin, including present and future effects on public, industrial, economic, recreational, and agricultural water supply needs, wastewater assimilation, water quality, fish and wildlife habitat, electric power generation, navigation, and recreation. Local water supply plans for public water systems with service area located within the source river basin prepared pursuant to G.S. 143-355(l) shall be used to evaluate the projected future water needs in the source river basin that will be met by public water systems. Information on projected future water needs for public water systems with service area located within the source river basin that is more recent than the local water supply plans may be used if the Commission finds the information to be reliable. The determination shall include a specific finding as to measures that are necessary or advisable to mitigate or avoid detrimental impacts on the source river basin.
- (3) The cumulative effect on the source major river basin of any water transfer or consumptive water use that, at the time the Commission considers the petition for a certificate is occurring, is authorized under this section, or is projected in any local water supply plan for public water systems with service area located within the source river basin that has been submitted to the Department in accordance with G.S. 143-355(l).
- (4) The present and reasonably foreseeable future beneficial and detrimental effects on the receiving river basin, including present and future effects on public, industrial, economic, recreational, and agricultural water supply needs, wastewater assimilation, water quality, fish and wildlife habitat, electric power generation, navigation, and recreation. Local water supply plans prepared pursuant to G.S. 143-355(l) that affect the receiving river basin shall be used to evaluate the projected future water needs in the receiving river basin that will be met by public water systems. Information on projected future water needs that is more recent than the local water supply plans may be used if the Commission finds the information to be reliable. The determination shall include a specific finding as to measures that are necessary or advisable to mitigate or avoid detrimental impacts on the receiving river basin.

- (5) The availability of reasonable alternatives to the proposed transfer, including the potential capacity of alternative sources of water, the potential of each alternative to reduce the amount of or avoid the proposed transfer, probable costs, and environmental impacts. In considering alternatives, the Commission is not limited to consideration of alternatives that have been proposed, studied, or considered by the applicant. The determination shall include a specific finding as to why the applicant's need for water cannot be satisfied by alternatives within the receiving basin, including unused capacity under a transfer for which a certificate is in effect or that is otherwise authorized by law at the time the applicant submits the petition. The determination shall consider the extent to which access to potential sources of surface water or groundwater within the receiving river basin is no longer available due to depletion, contamination, or the declaration of a capacity use area under Part 2 of Article 21 of Chapter 143 of the General Statutes. The determination shall consider the feasibility of the applicant's purchase of water from other water suppliers within the receiving basin and of the transfer of water from another sub-basin within the receiving major river basin. Except in circumstances of technical or economic infeasibility or adverse environmental impact, the Commission's determination as to reasonable alternatives shall give preference to alternatives that would involve a transfer from one sub-basin to another within the major receiving river basin over alternatives that would involve a transfer from one major river basin to another major river basin.
- (6) If applicable to the proposed project, the applicant's present and proposed use of impoundment storage capacity to store water during high-flow periods for use during low-flow periods and the applicant's right of withdrawal under G.S. 143-215.44 through G.S. 143-215.50.
- (7) If the water to be withdrawn or transferred is stored in a multipurpose reservoir constructed by the United States Army Corps of Engineers, the purposes and water storage allocations established for the reservoir at the time the reservoir was authorized by the Congress of the United States.

August 1, 2007

- (8) Whether the service area of the applicant is located in both the source river basin and the receiving river basin.
- (9) Any other facts and circumstances that are reasonably necessary to carry out the purposes of this Part.

(l) Final Determination: Information to be Considered. – In determining whether a certificate may be issued for the transfer, the Commission shall consider all of the following sources of information:

- (1) The petition.
- (2) The environmental document prepared pursuant to subsection (d) of this section.
- (3) All oral and written comment and all accompanying materials or evidence submitted pursuant to subsections (e) and (j) of this section.
- (4) Information developed by or available to the Department on the water quality of the source river basin and the receiving river basin, including waters that are identified as impaired pursuant to section 303(d) of the federal Clean Water Act (33 U.S.C. § 1313(d)), that are subject to a total maximum daily load (TMDL) limit under subsections (d) and (e) of section 303 of the federal Clean Water Act, or that would have their assimilative capacity impaired if the certificate is issued.
- (5) Any other information that the Commission determines to be relevant and useful.

(m) Final Determination: Burden and Standard of Proof; Specific Findings. – The Commission shall grant a certificate for a water transfer if the Commission finds that the applicant has established by a preponderance of the evidence all of the following:

- (1) The benefits of the proposed transfer outweigh the detriments of the proposed transfer. In making this determination, the Commission shall be guided by the approved environmental document and the policy set out in subsection (t) of this section.
- (2) The detriments have been or will be mitigated to the maximum degree practicable.
- (3) The amount of the transfer does not exceed the amount of the projected shortfall under the applicant's water supply plan after first taking into account all other sources of water that are available to the applicant.
- (4) There are no reasonable alternatives to the proposed transfer.

(n) Final Determination: Certificate Conditions and Limitations. – The Commission may grant the certificate in whole or in part, or deny the certificate. The Commission may impose any conditions or limitations on a certificate that the Commission finds necessary to achieve the purposes of this Part including a limit on the period for which the certificate is valid. The conditions and limitations shall include any mitigation measures proposed by the applicant to minimize any detrimental effects within the source and receiving river basins. In addition, the certificate shall require all of the following conditions and limitations:

- (1) A water conservation plan that specifies the water conservation measures that will be implemented by the applicant in the receiving river basin to ensure the efficient use of the transferred water. Except in circumstances of technical or economic infeasibility or adverse environmental impact, the water conservation plan shall provide for the mandatory implementation of water conservation measures by the applicant that equal or exceed the most stringent water conservation plan implemented by a community water system, as defined in G.S. 143-355(1), that withdraws water from the source river basin.
- (2) A drought management plan that specifies how the transfer shall be managed to protect the source river basin during drought conditions or other emergencies that occur within the source river basin. Except in circumstances of technical or economic infeasibility or adverse environmental impact, this drought management plan shall include mandatory reductions in the permitted amount of the transfer based on the severity and duration of a drought occurring within the source river basin and shall provide for the mandatory implementation of a drought management plan by the applicant that equals or exceeds the most stringent water conservation plan implemented by a community water system, as defined in G.S. 143-355(1), that withdraws water from the source river basin.
- (3) The maximum amount of water that may be transferred on a daily basis, and methods or devices required to be installed and operated that measure the amount of water that is transferred.
- (4) A provision that the Commission may amend a certificate to reduce the maximum amount of water authorized to be transferred whenever it appears that an alternative source of water is available to the certificate holder from within the receiving river basin, including, but not limited to, the purchase of water from another water supplier within the receiving basin or to the transfer of water from another sub-basin within the receiving major river basin.
- (5) A provision that the Commission shall amend the certificate to reduce the maximum amount of water authorized to be transferred if the Commission finds that the applicant's current projected water needs are significantly less than the applicant's projected water needs at the time the certificate was granted.

- (6) A requirement that the certificate holder report the quantity of water transferred during each calendar quarter. The report required by this subdivision shall be submitted to the Commission no later than 30 days after the end of the quarter.
- (7) Except as provided in this subdivision, a provision that the applicant will not resell the water that would be transferred pursuant to the certificate to another public water supply system. This limitation shall not apply in the case of a proposed resale or transfer among public water supply systems within the receiving river basin as part of an interlocal agreement or other regional water supply arrangement, provided that each participant in the interlocal agreement or regional water supply arrangement is a co-applicant for the certificate and will be subject to all the terms, conditions, and limitations made applicable to any lead or primary applicant.

(o) Administrative and Judicial Review. – Administrative and judicial review of a final decision by the Commission on a petition for a certificate under this section shall be governed by Chapter 150B of the General Statutes.

(p) Certain Preexisting Transfers. – In cases where an applicant requests approval to increase a transfer that existed on 1 July 1993, the Commission may approve or disapprove only the amount of the increase. If the Commission approves the increase, the certificate shall be issued for the amount of the preexisting transfer plus any increase approved by the Commission. A certificate for a transfer approved by the Commission under G.S. 162A-7 shall remain in effect as approved by the Commission and shall have the same effect as a certificate issued under this Part. A certificate for the increase of a preexisting transfer shall contain all of the conditions and limitations required by subsection (m) of this section.

Prior to approving a temporary transfer, the Secretary shall consult with those parties listed in subdivision (3) of subsection (c) of this section that are likely to be affected by the proposed transfer. However, the Secretary shall not be required to satisfy the public notice requirements of this section or make written findings of fact and conclusions of law in approving a temporary transfer under this subsection. When the transfer equals or exceeds ninety percent (90%) of the maximum amount authorized in the certificate, the applicant shall begin implementation of the plan submitted to the Department.

(t) Statement of Policy. – It is the public policy of the State to maintain, protect, and enhance water quality within North Carolina. It is the public policy of this State that the reasonably foreseeable future water needs of a public water system with its service area located primarily in the receiving river basin are subordinate to the reasonably foreseeable future water needs of a public water system with its service area located primarily in the source river basin. Further, it is the public policy of the State that the cumulative impact of transfers from a source river basin shall not result in a violation of the antidegradation policy set out in 40 Code of Federal Regulations § 131.12 (1 July 2006 Edition) and the statewide antidegradation policy adopted pursuant thereto.

(u) Renewal of Certificate. – A petition to extend or renew a certificate shall be treated as a new petition."

EXECUTIVE ORDERS

Executive Orders received are presented to the Senate, read, and ordered filed in the Office of the Principal Clerk, as follows:

Executive Order Number 121, The North Carolina Film Council is hereby established

Pursuant to Senator Basnight's motion to adjourn having prevailed, the Senate adjourns at 10:32 P.M.

August 1, 2007

ONE HUNDRED ELEVENTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Thursday, August 2, 2007

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Beverly E. Perdue, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Dear God, if in fact this turns out to be the final day of this Legislative Session, reflection by members of the Senate on what has been accomplished will occur miles away from Jones Street and on a day far removed from August 2. My reflection is that this session, unlike any other in my memory, has been characterized by the coexistence of joy and sorrow. Joy in accomplishment, in community, joy in call to service, sorrow in the deaths of Senator Lucas and Senator Holloman and of Sandy Basnight and Susan Malone and others related to the Senate family. We've laughed, we've cried, we've taken a deep breath and moved forward. We have learned that 'not only can joy and sorrow exist together, but each at times can enrich the other. When this happens, when we laugh and cry in the same moment, when we feel both up and down, filled but empty, tested but trusting, we are experiencing the grace of God.' And the Lord said, 'Well done good and faithful servant.' Amen."

The Chair grants leaves of absence for today to Senator Graham and Senator Smith.

Senator Dannelly, Deputy President Pro Tempore, announces that the Journal of Wednesday, August 1, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Journal and it stands approved as written.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO DIRECT THE ENVIRONMENTAL REVIEW COMMISSION TO STUDY ISSUES RELATED TO THE TRANSFER OF WATER FROM ONE RIVER BASIN TO ANOTHER RIVER BASIN AND THE ALLOCATION OF SURFACE WATER RESOURCES AND TO AMEND THE LAWS GOVERNING THE TRANSFER OF WATER FROM ONE RIVER BASIN TO ANOTHER RIVER BASIN.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1.(a) The Environmental Review Commission, with the assistance of the Department of Environment and Natural Resources, shall study the allocation of surface water resources and their availability and maintenance in the State, including issues related to the transfer of water from one river basin to another, the withdrawal of water for consumptive use, and the accuracy and tolerance of equipment used to measure the flow of water transferred from one river basin to another river basin. The Commission shall evaluate the benefits of establishing formal and informal procedures for negotiating transfers of water from one river basin to another. The Commission shall also study and recommend measures to: (i) ensure that the purposes of the Regional Water Supply Planning Act of 1971, as set out in G.S. 162A-21, are fulfilled; (ii) provide for a comprehensive system for regulating surface water withdrawals for consumptive and nonconsumptive uses; (iii) provide for the establishment of a statewide plan for water resources development projects; (iv) provide for adequate resources for the Department so that it may develop and implement a comprehensive approach to water resources management; (v) ensure that all State laws regulating water resources are consistent with and fully integrated into the comprehensive system for regulating surface water withdrawals and the statewide plan for water resources development projects; and (vi) ensure that potential interstate conflicts related to water resources are avoided or minimized. In the conduct of this study, the Environmental Review Commission may employ independent consultants as provided in G.S. 120-32.02 and G.S. 120-70.44. The Environmental Review Commission may submit an interim report to the 2008 Regular Session of the General Assembly and shall

August 2, 2007

SECTION 1.(b) The Division of Water Resources of the Department of Environment and Natural Resources, in consultation with the Environmental Review Commission, shall prepare a revised map entitled "Major River Basins and Sub-basins in North Carolina". The revised map shall be prepared as a recommended replacement for the map referenced in G.S. 143-215.22G. The revised map shall define the extent to which any river basin that encompasses any river that flows from another state into North Carolina or that flows from North Carolina into another state extends into an adjacent state. The Environmental Review Commission shall recommend a revised map and a conforming legislative proposal to amend the definition of "river basin" set out in G.S. 143-215.22G to the 2008 Regular Session of the General Assembly.

SECTION 2. G.S. 143-215.22I is repealed.

A decision on the adequacy of the environmental document is subject to review in a contested case on the decision of the Commission to issue or deny a certificate under this section.

(g) Petition. – An applicant for a certificate shall petition the Commission for the certificate. The petition shall be in writing and shall include all of the following:

- (1) A description of the facilities to be used to transfer the water, including the location and capacity of water intakes, pumps, pipelines, and other facilities.
- (2) A description of all the proposed consumptive and nonconsumptive uses of the water to be transferred.
- (3) A description of the water quality of the source river and receiving river, including information on aquatic habitat for rare, threatened, and endangered species; in-stream flow data for segments of the source and receiving rivers that may be affected by the transfer; and any waters that are impaired pursuant to section 303(d) of the federal Clean Water Act (33 U.S.C. § 1313(d)).
- (4) A description of the water conservation measures used by the applicant at the time of the petition and any additional water conservation measures that the applicant will implement if the certificate is granted.
- (5) A description of all sources of water within the receiving river basin, including surface water impoundments, groundwater wells, reinjection storage, and purchase of water from another source within the river basin, that is a practicable alternative to the proposed transfer that would meet the applicant's water supply needs. The description of water sources shall include sources available at the time of the petition for a certificate and any planned or potential water sources.

- (6) A description of water transfers and withdrawals registered under G.S. 143-215.22H or included in a local water supply plan prepared pursuant to G.S. 143-355(l) from the source river basin, including transfers and withdrawals at the time of the petition for a certificate and any planned or reasonably foreseeable transfers or withdrawals by a public water system with service area located within the source river basin.
- (7) A demonstration that the proposed transfer, if added to all other transfers and withdrawals required to be registered under G.S. 143-215.22H or included in any local water supply plan prepared by a public water system with service area located within the source basin pursuant to G.S. 143-355(l) from the source river basin at the time of the petition for a certificate, would not reduce the amount of water available for use in the source river basin to a degree that would impair existing uses, pursuant to the antidegradation policy set out in 40 Code of Federal Regulation § 131.12 (Antidegradation Policy) (1 July 2006 Edition) and the statewide antidegradation policy adopted pursuant thereto, or existing and planned consumptive and nonconsumptive uses of the water in the source river basin. If the proposed transfer would impact a reservoir within the source river basin, the demonstration must include a finding that the transfer would not result in a water level in the reservoir that is inadequate to support existing uses of the reservoir, including recreational uses.
- (8) The applicant's future water supply needs and the present and reasonably foreseeable future water supply needs for public water systems with service area located within the source river basin. The analysis of future water supply needs shall include agricultural, recreational, and industrial uses, and electric power generation. Local water supply plans prepared pursuant to G.S. 143-355(l) for water systems with service area located within the source river basin shall be used to evaluate the projected future water needs in the source river basin that will be met by public water systems.

August 2, 2007

- (9) The applicant's water supply plan prepared pursuant to G.S. 143-355(l). If the applicant's water supply plan is more than two years old at the time of the petition, then the applicant shall include with the petition an updated water supply plan.
- (10) Any other information deemed necessary by the Commission for review of the proposed water transfer.

(h) Settlement Discussions. – Upon the request of the applicant, any interested party, or the Department, or upon its own motion, the Commission may appoint a mediation officer. The mediation officer may be a member of the Commission, an employee of the Department, or a neutral third party but shall not be a hearing officer under subsections (e) or (j) of this section. The mediation officer shall make a reasonable effort to initiate settlement discussions between the applicant and all other interested parties. Evidence of statements made and conduct that occurs in a settlement discussion conducted under this subsection, whether attributable to a party, a mediation officer, or other person shall not be subject to discovery and shall be inadmissible in any subsequent proceeding on the petition for a certificate. The Commission may adopt rules to govern the conduct of the mediation process.

(i) Draft Determination. – Within 90 days after the Commission determines that the environmental document prepared in accordance with subsection (d) of this section is adequate or the applicant submits its petition for a certificate, whichever occurs later, the Commission shall issue a draft determination on whether to grant the certificate. The draft determination shall be based on the criteria set out in this section and shall include the conditions and limitations, findings of fact, and conclusions of law that would be required in a final determination. Notice of the draft determination shall be given as provided in subsection (c) of this section.

(j) Public Hearing on the Draft Determination. – Within 60 days of the issuance of the draft determination as provided in subsection (i) of this section, the Commission shall hold public hearings on the draft determination. At least one hearing shall be held in the affected area of the source river basin, and at least one hearing shall be held in the affected area of the receiving river basin. In determining whether more than one public hearing should be held within either the source or receiving river basins, the Commission shall consider the differing or conflicting interests that may exist within the river basins, including the interests of both upstream and downstream parties potentially affected by the proposed transfer. The public hearings shall be conducted by one or more hearing officers appointed by the Chair of the Commission. The hearing officers may be members of the Commission or employees of the Department. The Commission shall give at least 30 days' written notice of the public hearing as provided in subsection (c) of this section. The Commission shall accept written comment on the draft determination for a minimum of 30 days following the last public hearing. The Commission shall prepare a record of all comments and written responses to questions posed in writing. The record shall include complete copies of scientific or technical comments related to the potential impact of the interbasin transfer.

(k) Final Determination: Factors to be Considered. – In determining whether a certificate may be issued for the transfer, the Commission shall specifically consider each of the following items and state in writing its findings of fact and conclusions of law with regard to each item:

- (1) The necessity and reasonableness of the amount of surface water proposed to be transferred and its proposed uses.
- (2) The present and reasonably foreseeable future detrimental effects on the source river basin, including present and future effects on public, industrial, economic, recreational, and agricultural water supply needs, wastewater assimilation, water quality, fish and wildlife habitat, electric power generation, navigation, and recreation. Local water supply plans for public water systems with service area located within the source river basin prepared pursuant to G.S. 143-355(l) shall be used to evaluate the projected future water needs in the source river basin that will be met by public water systems. Information on projected future water needs for public water systems with service area located within the source river basin that is more recent than the local water supply plans may be used if the Commission finds the information to be reliable. The determination shall include a specific finding as to measures that are necessary or advisable to mitigate or avoid detrimental impacts on the source river basin.
- (3) The cumulative effect on the source major river basin of any water transfer or consumptive water use that, at the time the Commission considers the petition for a certificate is occurring, is authorized under this section, or is projected in any local water supply plan for public water systems with service area located within the source river basin that has been submitted to the Department in accordance with G.S. 143-355(l).
- (4) The present and reasonably foreseeable future beneficial and detrimental effects on the receiving river basin, including present and future effects on public, industrial, economic, recreational, and agricultural water supply needs, wastewater assimilation, water quality, fish and wildlife habitat, electric power generation, navigation, and recreation. Local water supply plans prepared pursuant to G.S. 143-355(l) that affect the receiving river basin shall be used to evaluate the projected future water needs in the receiving river basin that will be met by public water systems. Information on projected future water needs that is more recent than the local water supply plans may be used if the Commission finds the information to be reliable. The determination shall include a specific finding as to measures that are necessary or advisable to mitigate or avoid detrimental impacts on the receiving river basin.

- (5) The availability of reasonable alternatives to the proposed transfer, including the potential capacity of alternative sources of water, the potential of each alternative to reduce the amount of or avoid the proposed transfer, probable costs, and environmental impacts. In considering alternatives, the Commission is not limited to consideration of alternatives that have been proposed, studied, or considered by the applicant. The determination shall include a specific finding as to why the applicant's need for water cannot be satisfied by alternatives within the receiving basin, including unused capacity under a transfer for which a certificate is in effect or that is otherwise authorized by law at the time the applicant submits the petition. The determination shall consider the extent to which access to potential sources of surface water or groundwater within the receiving river basin is no longer available due to depletion, contamination, or the declaration of a capacity use area under Part 2 of Article 21 of Chapter 143 of the General Statutes. The determination shall consider the feasibility of the applicant's purchase of water from other water suppliers within the receiving basin and of the transfer of water from another sub-basin within the receiving major river basin. Except in circumstances of technical or economic infeasibility or adverse environmental impact, the Commission's determination as to reasonable alternatives shall give preference to alternatives that would involve a transfer from one sub-basin to another within the major receiving river basin over alternatives that would involve a transfer from one major river basin to another major river basin.
- (6) If applicable to the proposed project, the applicant's present and proposed use of impoundment storage capacity to store water during high-flow periods for use during low-flow periods and the applicant's right of withdrawal under G.S. 143-215.44 through G.S. 143-215.50.
- (7) If the water to be withdrawn or transferred is stored in a multipurpose reservoir constructed by the United States Army Corps of Engineers, the purposes and water storage allocations established for the reservoir at the time the reservoir was authorized by the Congress of the United States.

- (8) Whether the service area of the applicant is located in both the source river basin and the receiving river basin.
- (9) Any other facts and circumstances that are reasonably necessary to carry out the purposes of this Part.

(l) Final Determination: Information to be Considered. – In determining whether a certificate may be issued for the transfer, the Commission shall consider all of the following sources of information:

- (1) The petition.
- (2) The environmental document prepared pursuant to subsection (d) of this section.
- (3) All oral and written comment and all accompanying materials or evidence submitted pursuant to subsections (e) and (j) of this section.
- (4) Information developed by or available to the Department on the water quality of the source river basin and the receiving river basin, including waters that are identified as impaired pursuant to section 303(d) of the federal Clean Water Act (33 U.S.C. § 1313(d)), that are subject to a total maximum daily load (TMDL) limit under subsections (d) and (e) of section 303 of the federal Clean Water Act, or that would have their assimilative capacity impaired if the certificate is issued.
- (5) Any other information that the Commission determines to be relevant and useful.

(m) Final Determination: Burden and Standard of Proof; Specific Findings. – The Commission shall grant a certificate for a water transfer if the Commission finds that the applicant has established by a preponderance of the evidence all of the following:

- (1) The benefits of the proposed transfer outweigh the detriments of the proposed transfer. In making this determination, the Commission shall be guided by the approved environmental document and the policy set out in subsection (t) of this section.
- (2) The detriments have been or will be mitigated to the maximum degree practicable.
- (3) The amount of the transfer does not exceed the amount of the projected shortfall under the applicant's water supply plan after first taking into account all other sources of water that are available to the applicant.
- (4) There are no reasonable alternatives to the proposed transfer.

(n) Final Determination: Certificate Conditions and Limitations. – The Commission may grant the certificate in whole or in part, or deny the certificate. The Commission may impose any conditions or limitations on a certificate that the Commission finds necessary to achieve the purposes of this Part including a limit on the period for which the certificate is valid. The conditions and limitations shall include any mitigation measures proposed by the applicant to minimize any detrimental effects within the source and receiving river basins. In addition, the certificate shall require all of the following conditions and limitations:

- (1) A water conservation plan that specifies the water conservation measures that will be implemented by the applicant in the receiving river basin to ensure the efficient use of the transferred water. Except in circumstances of technical or economic infeasibility or adverse environmental impact, the water conservation plan shall provide for the mandatory implementation of water conservation measures by the applicant that equal or exceed the most stringent water conservation plan implemented by a community water system, as defined in G.S. 143-355(1), that withdraws water from the source river basin.
- (2) A drought management plan that specifies how the transfer shall be managed to protect the source river basin during drought conditions or other emergencies that occur within the source river basin. Except in circumstances of technical or economic infeasibility or adverse environmental impact, this drought management plan shall include mandatory reductions in the permitted amount of the transfer based on the severity and duration of a drought occurring within the source river basin and shall provide for the mandatory implementation of a drought management plan by the applicant that equals or exceeds the most stringent water conservation plan implemented by a community water system, as defined in G.S. 143-355(1), that withdraws water from the source river basin.
- (3) The maximum amount of water that may be transferred on a daily basis, and methods or devices required to be installed and operated that measure the amount of water that is transferred.
- (4) A provision that the Commission may amend a certificate to reduce the maximum amount of water authorized to be transferred whenever it appears that an alternative source of water is available to the certificate holder from within the receiving river basin, including, but not limited to, the purchase of water from another water supplier within the receiving basin or to the transfer of water from another sub-basin within the receiving major river basin.
- (5) A provision that the Commission shall amend the certificate to reduce the maximum amount of water authorized to be transferred if the Commission finds that the applicant's current projected water needs are significantly less than the applicant's projected water needs at the time the certificate was granted.

- (6) A requirement that the certificate holder report the quantity of water transferred during each calendar quarter. The report required by this subdivision shall be submitted to the Commission no later than 30 days after the end of the quarter.
- (7) Except as provided in this subdivision, a provision that the applicant will not resell the water that would be transferred pursuant to the certificate to another public water supply system. This limitation shall not apply in the case of a proposed resale or transfer among public water supply systems within the receiving river basin as part of an interlocal agreement or other regional water supply arrangement, provided that each participant in the interlocal agreement or regional water supply arrangement is a co-applicant for the certificate and will be subject to all the terms, conditions, and limitations made applicable to any lead or primary applicant.

(o) Administrative and Judicial Review. – Administrative and judicial review of a final decision by the Commission on a petition for a certificate under this section shall be governed by Chapter 150B of the General Statutes.

(p) Certain Preexisting Transfers. – In cases where an applicant requests approval to increase a transfer that existed on 1 July 1993, the Commission may approve or disapprove only the amount of the increase. If the Commission approves the increase, the certificate shall be issued for the amount of the preexisting transfer plus any increase approved by the Commission. A certificate for a transfer approved by the Commission under G.S. 162A-7 shall remain in effect as approved by the Commission and shall have the same effect as a certificate issued under this Part. A certificate for the increase of a preexisting transfer shall contain all of the conditions and limitations required by subsection (m) of this section.

(q) Emergency Transfers. – In the case of water supply problems caused by drought, a pollution incident, temporary failure of a water plant, or any other temporary condition in which the public health, safety, or welfare requires a transfer of water, the Secretary of Environment and Natural Resources may grant approval for a temporary transfer. Prior to approving a temporary transfer, the Secretary shall consult with those parties listed in subdivision (3) of subsection (c) of this section that are likely to be affected by the proposed transfer. However, the Secretary shall not be required to satisfy the public notice requirements of this section or make written findings of fact and conclusions of law in approving a temporary transfer under this subsection. If the Secretary approves a temporary transfer under this subsection, the Secretary shall specify conditions to protect other water users. A temporary transfer shall not exceed six months in duration, but the approval may be renewed for a period of six months by the Secretary based on demonstrated need as set forth in this subsection.

(r) Relationship to Federal Law. – The substantive restrictions, conditions, and limitations upon surface water transfers authorized in this section may be imposed pursuant to any federal law that permits the State to certify, restrict, or condition any new or continuing transfers or related activities licensed, relicensed, or otherwise authorized by the federal government. This section shall govern the transfer of water from one river basin to another unless preempted by federal law.

(s) Planning Requirements. – When any transfer for which a certificate was issued under this section equals or exceeds eighty percent (80%) of the maximum amount authorized in the certificate, the applicant shall submit to the Department a detailed plan that specifies how the applicant intends to address future foreseeable water needs. If the applicant is required to have a local water supply plan, then this plan shall be an amendment to the local water supply plan required by G.S.143-355(l). When the transfer equals or exceeds ninety percent (90%) of the maximum amount authorized in the certificate, the applicant shall begin implementation of the plan submitted to the Department.

(t) Statement of Policy. – It is the public policy of the State to maintain, protect, and enhance water quality within North Carolina. It is the public policy of this State that the reasonably foreseeable future water needs of a public water system with its service area located primarily in the receiving river basin are subordinate to the reasonably foreseeable future water needs of a public water system with its service area located primarily in the source river basin. Further, it is the public policy of the State that the cumulative impact of transfers from a source river basin shall not result in a violation of the antidegradation policy set out in 40 Code of Federal Regulations § 131.12 (1 July 2006 Edition) and the statewide antidegradation policy adopted pursuant thereto.

(u) Renewal of Certificate. – A petition to extend or renew a certificate shall be treated as a new petition."

SECTION 4. G.S. 113A-8.1 reads as rewritten:

"§ 113A-8.1. Surface water transfers.

An environmental assessment shall be prepared for any transfer for which a petition is filed in accordance with ~~G.S. 143-215.22I~~G.S. 143-215.22L. The determination of whether an environmental impact statement is needed with regard to the proposed transfer shall be made in accordance with the provisions of this Article."

SECTION 5. G.S. 143-215.6A(a)(9) reads as rewritten:

"(9) Is required, but fails, to apply for or to secure a certificate required by ~~G.S. 143-215.22I~~G.S. 143-215.22L, or who violates or fails to act in accordance with the terms, conditions, or requirements of the certificate."

SECTION 6. If any section or provision of this act is declared unconstitutional or invalid by the courts, the unconstitutional or invalid section or provision does not affect the validity of this act as a whole or any part of this act other than the part declared to be unconstitutional or invalid.

August 2, 2007

SECTION 7.(a) Except as provided in subsection (b) of this section, this act becomes effective when it becomes law and applies to any petition for a certificate for a transfer of surface water from one river basin to another river basin first made on or after that date.

SECTION 7.(b) For a petition for a certificate for transfer of surface water from one river basin to another river basin to supplement ground water supplies in the fifteen counties designated as the Central Coastal Plain Capacity Use Area under 15A NCAC 2E .0501, this act becomes effective 1 January 2011. Prior to 1 January 2011, a petition for a certificate for transfer of surface water from one river basin to another river basin to supplement ground water supplies in the fifteen counties designated as the Central Coastal Plain Capacity Use Area shall be considered and acted upon by the Environmental Management Commission pursuant to the procedures and standards set out in G.S. 143-215.22I on 1 July 2007.

Upon motion of Senator Soles, the remarks of Senator Albertson are spread upon the Journal as follows:

Senator Albertson:

“Madame President and members of the Senate, you will recall yesterday when we had all those wonderful teachers in the Chamber who had taught over fifty years, I couldn’t help but notice that at the end of the remarks one of our good members, Senator Soles, got up and congratulated the lady from his district in Tabor City. I believe I heard him say that at the end of this term, he will have served forty years as a member of this great Body. R. C. Soles is someone that I have watched in the years that I have been here and I truly consider him a great friend and a great member of this Body. I continue to learn good things from him every session and I wrote this little thing about him and I want you to listen to it. Marc, Tony, will you guys listen please. I wrote this little song here about our good friend, R. C. Soles, someone that I have come to love and admire and appreciate in so many ways and it goes like this: ‘He is the Dean of the North Carolina Senate, the best committee chairman of all. We call him the Godfather. He is loved and respected by all. Twenty times he has been elected. He is loyal, faithful and true. Forty years of service will be a record my friend. Senator Soles, we are all so proud of you.’ You are a wonderful man and congratulations to you.”

Senator Soles:

“Senator Albertson, I appreciate that more than you will ever know. I really don’t know how to respond except with tongue in cheek, I would like the words to be spread upon the minutes.”

The Chair grants a leave of absence for the remainder of today's session to Senator Dalton.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
AN ACT TO CREATE THE JOB MAINTENANCE AND CAPITAL DEVELOPMENT FUND.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Part 2 of Article 10 of Chapter 143B of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 143B-437.11. Job Maintenance and Capital Development Fund.

(a) Findings. – The General Assembly finds that:

(1) It is the policy of the State of North Carolina to stimulate economic activity, to maintain high-paying jobs for the citizens of the State, and to encourage capital investment by encouraging and promoting the maintenance of existing business and industry within the State.

August 2, 2007

- (2) The economic condition of the State is not static, and recent changes in the State's economic condition have created economic distress that requires the enactment of a new program as provided in this section that is designed to encourage the retention of significant numbers of high-paying jobs and the addition of further large-scale capital investment.
- (3) The enactment of this section is necessary to stimulate the economy and maintain high-quality jobs in North Carolina, and this section will promote the general welfare and confer, as its primary purpose and effect, benefits on citizens throughout the State through the maintenance of high-quality jobs, an enlargement of the overall tax base, continued diversity in the State's industrial base, and an increase in revenue to the State's political subdivisions.
- (4) The purpose of this section is to stimulate economic activity and to maintain high-paying jobs within the State while increasing the property tax base for local governments.

(b) Fund. – The Job Maintenance and Capital Development Fund is created as a restricted reserve in the Department of Commerce. Monies in the Fund do not revert but remain available to the Department for these purposes. The Department may use monies in the Fund only to encourage businesses to maintain high-paying jobs and make further capital investments in the State as provided in this section.

(c) Definitions. – The definitions in G.S. 143B-437.51 apply in this section. In addition, as used in this section, the term 'Department' means the Department of Commerce.

(d) Eligibility. – A business that satisfies all of the following conditions is eligible for consideration for a grant under this section:

- (1) The Department certifies that the business intends to invest at least two hundred million dollars ($200,000,000) of private funds in the project within the five-year period commencing January 1, 2007, in improvements to real property and additions to tangible personal property used in the business.
- (2) The project employs at least 2,000 full-time employees or equivalent full-time contract employees at the establishment that is the subject of the grant at the time the application is made, and the business agrees to maintain at least 2,000 full-time employees or equivalent full-time contract employees at the establishment for the full term of the grant agreement.
- (3) The project is located in a development tier one area at the time the business applies for a grant.

(e) Health Insurance. – A business is eligible for consideration for a grant under this section only if the business makes available health insurance for all of the full-time employees of the project with respect to which the application is made. For the purposes of this subsection, a business makes available health insurance if it pays at least fifty percent (50%) of the premiums for health care coverage that equals or exceeds the minimum provisions of the basic health care plan of coverage under G.S. 58-50-125.

Each year that a grant agreement under this section is in effect, the business shall provide the Department a certification that the business continues to make available health insurance for all full-time employees of the project governed by the agreement. Failure of the business to satisfy the requirements of this subsection shall result in recapture of a portion of the grant proceeds as provided in the grant agreement.

(f) Safety and Health Programs. – A business is eligible for consideration for a grant under this section only if the business has no citations under the Occupational Safety and Health Act that have become a final order within the last three years for willful serious violations or for failing to abate serious violations with respect to the location for which the grant is made. For the purposes of this subsection, 'serious violation' has the same meaning as in G.S. 95-127.

(g) Environmental Impact. – A business is eligible for consideration for a grant under this section only if the business has no pending administrative, civil, or criminal enforcement action based on alleged significant violations of any program implemented by an agency of the Department of Environment and Natural Resources, and has had no final determination of responsibility for any significant administrative, civil, or criminal violation of any program implemented by an agency of the Department of Environment and Natural Resources within the last three years with respect to the location for which the grant is made. For the purposes of this subsection, a significant violation is a violation or alleged violation that does not satisfy any of the conditions of G.S. 143-215.6B(d).

(h) Selection. – The Department shall administer the selection of projects to receive grants under this section. The selection process shall include the following components:

- (1) Criteria. – The Department shall develop criteria to be used to identify and evaluate eligible projects for possible grants under this section.
- (2) Initial evaluation. – The Department shall evaluate projects to determine if a grant under this section is merited and to determine whether the project is eligible and appropriate for consideration for a grant under this section.
- (3) Application. – The Department shall require a business to submit an application in order for a project to be considered for a grant under this section. The Department shall prescribe the form of the application, the application process, and the information to be provided, including all information necessary to evaluate the project in accordance with the applicable criteria.

- (4) Committee. – The Department shall submit to the Economic Investment Committee the applications for projects the Department considers eligible and appropriate for a grant under this section. The Committee shall evaluate applications to choose projects to receive a grant under this section. In evaluating each application, the Committee shall consider all criteria adopted by the Department under this section and, to the extent applicable, the factors set out in Section 2.1(b) of S.L. 2002-172.
- (5) Findings. – The Committee shall make all of the following findings before recommending a project receive a grant under this section:
- a. The conditions for eligibility have been met.
 - b. A grant under this section for the project is necessary to carry out the public purposes provided in subsection (a) of this section.
 - c. The project is consistent with the economic development goals of the State and of the area where it is located.
 - d. The affected local governments have participated in retention efforts and offered incentives in a manner appropriate to the project.
 - e. A grant under this section is necessary for the sustainability and maintenance of the project in this State.
- (6) Recommendations. – If the Committee recommends a project for a grant under this section, it shall recommend the amount of State funds to be committed, the preferred form and details of the State participation, and the performance criteria and safeguards to be required in order to protect the State's investment.
- (i) Agreement. – Unless the Secretary of Commerce determines that the project is no longer eligible or appropriate for a grant under this section, the Department shall enter into an agreement to provide a grant or grants for a project recommended by the Committee. Each grant agreement is binding and constitutes a continuing contractual obligation of the State and the business. The grant agreement shall include the performance criteria, remedies, and other safeguards recommended by the Committee or required by the Department. Each grant agreement shall contain a provision prohibiting a business from receiving a payment or other benefit under the agreement at any time when the business has received a notice of an overdue tax debt and the overdue tax debt has not been satisfied or otherwise resolved. A grant agreement may obligate the State to make a series of grant payments over a period of up to 10 years. Nothing in this section constitutes or authorizes a guarantee or assumption by the State of any debt of any business or authorizes the taxing power or the full faith and credit of the State to be pledged.

The Department shall cooperate with the Attorney General's Office in preparing the documentation for the grant agreement. The Attorney General shall review the terms of all proposed agreements to be entered into under this section. To be effective against the State, an agreement entered into under this section shall be signed personally by the Attorney General.

(j) Safeguards. – To ensure that public funds are used only to carry out the public purposes provided in this section, the Department shall require that each business that receives a grant under this section shall agree to meet performance criteria to protect the State's investment and ensure that the projected benefits of the project are secured. The performance criteria to be required shall include maintenance of an appropriate level of employment at specified levels of compensation, maintenance of health insurance for all full-time employees, investment of a specified amount over the term of the agreement, and any other criteria the Department considers appropriate. The agreement shall require the business to repay or reimburse an appropriate portion of the grant based on the extent of any failure by the business to meet the performance criteria.

(k) Monitoring and Reports. – The Department is responsible for monitoring compliance with the performance criteria under each grant agreement and for administering the repayment in case of default. A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
AN ACT TO PROMOTE THE CONSERVATION OF ENERGY AND WATER USE IN STATE, UNIVERSITY, AND COMMUNITY COLLEGE BUILDINGS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1.(a) Findings and Legislative Intent. – The General Assembly finds that public buildings can be built and renovated using sustainable, energy efficient methods that save money, reduce negative environmental impacts, improve employee and student performance, and make employees and students more productive. The main objectives of sustainable, energy efficient design are to avoid resource depletion of energy, water, and raw materials; prevent environmental degradation caused by facilities and infrastructure throughout their life cycle; and create buildings that are livable, comfortable, safe, and productive. It is the intent of the General Assembly that State-owned buildings, The University of North Carolina, and the North Carolina Community College System be improved by establishing specific performance criteria and goals for sustainable, energy efficient public buildings based upon recognized, consensus standards with scientifically proven basis and demonstrated performance. The General Assembly also intends that State agencies, The University of North Carolina, and the North Carolina Community College System shall perform after-construction measurement and verification of costs and savings to confirm that the performance goals of this section are met and ensure that economic and environmental goals are achieved. Also, it is the intent of the General Assembly to establish a priority to use North Carolina-

SECTION 1.(c) Standard for Major Facilities; Reports by Agencies and the Department. – The Sustainable Energy Efficient Buildings Program is established in the Department. Under this program:

- (1) All major facility projects of public agencies shall be designed, constructed, and certified to at least a thirty percent (30%) greater energy efficiency than the standard under ASHRAE 90.1-2004. For major renovations a twenty percent (20%) greater energy efficiency standard than ASHRAE 90.1-2004 shall be used. In addition, for new construction, the water systems shall be designed and constructed to use a minimum of twenty percent (20%) less potable water than the indoor water use baseline calculated for the building after meeting the fixture performance requirements required by the 2006 North Carolina Plumbing Code. Outdoor potable water or harvested groundwater consumption shall be reduced by a minimum of fifty percent (50%) over that consumed by conventional means through water use efficient landscape materials and irrigation strategies, including water reuse and recycling. This section applies to major facility projects that have not entered the schematic design phase prior to the effective date of this section.

- (2) For the purposes of this section, any exceptions or special standards for specific types of buildings or building facilities found in ASHRAE 90.1-2004 are included in the ASHRAE 90.1-2004 standard under subdivision (1) of this subsection.
- (3) Commissioning for Major Facilities. – Building and/or system commissioning practices, tailored to the size and complexity of the building and its system components, shall be employed in order to verify performance of building components and systems and help ensure that design requirements are met upon completion of construction.
- (4) Measurement and Verification for Major Facilities.
 - a. Building level owner's meters for electricity, natural gas, fuel oil, and water in accordance with United States Department of Energy (DOE) guidelines issued under Section 103 of the Energy Policy Act of 2005 shall be installed. The public agency and the designers shall compare metered data from the first 12 months of building operation with the energy design target(s) and report that performance to the State Construction Office.
 - b. If the average building energy or water consumption over the one-year period following the date of beneficial occupancy is eighty-five percent (85%) or less than the performance goals established by these standards, the designer, owner agency, contractor, Contract Manager at Risk, and commissioning agent shall investigate, determine the cause of the shortfall, and recommend corrections or modifications to meet performance goals.
- (5) The Department shall consolidate the reports required in this subsection and any report from the State Building Commission under G.S. 143-135.39 into one report and report to the Chairs of the General Government Appropriations Subcommittees of both the Senate and the House of Representatives, the Environmental Review Commission, and the Joint Legislative Commission on

Governmental Operations by November 1 of each year beginning in 2008. In its report, the Department shall also report on the implementation of this section including reasons why the standards required in subdivision (1) of this subsection were not used for the reason that it would not be practicable in accordance with G.S. 143-135.39. The Department shall make recommendations regarding the ongoing implementation of this section, including a discussion of incentives and disincentives related to implementing this section.

SECTION 1.(d) Guidelines for Administering the Sustainable Energy Efficient Buildings Program. –

- (1) The Department, in consultation with affected public agencies, shall develop and issue policies and technical guidelines to implement this section for public agencies. The purpose of these policies and guidelines is to define procedures and methods for complying with the criteria and performance goals for major facility projects defined by G.S. 143-135.37.
- (2) As provided in the request for proposals for construction services, the public agency may hold a preproposal conference for prospective bidders to discuss compliance with, and achievement of, standards identified in this section for prospective respondents.
- (3) The Department shall create a sustainable, energy efficient buildings advisory committee comprised of representatives from the design and construction industry involved in public works contracting, personnel from the affected public agencies responsible for overseeing public works projects, and others at the Department's discretion to provide advice on implementing this section. Among other duties, the advisory committee shall make recommendations regarding an education and training process for stakeholders and an ongoing evaluation or feedback process to help the Department implement this section. The advisory committee may also make recommendations to the Department regarding water efficiency requirements and energy efficiency requirements.
- (4) The Department shall review the advisory committee's recommendations under subdivision (3) of this subsection regarding education and training. The Department shall develop one level of education and training requirements for the chief financial officer of each public agency that is appropriate for the chief financial officer's level of involvement in projects under this section. The Department shall develop, for each public agency that is responsible for the payment of the agency's utilities, another higher level of education and training requirements for the facility manager of the agency that is appropriate for the facility manager's level of involvement in projects under this section. This level of education and training shall also be a requirement for the capital project coordinator of an agency involved in a project under this section. The Department shall develop a highest level of education and training requirements for the architects and mechanical design engineers that are involved in the design of projects under this section that is appropriate for their level of involvement in these projects.

- (5) The Department may adopt rules to implement this section. The Department may adopt architectural or engineering standards as needed to implement this section.

SECTION 1.(e) Use of Other Standard when ASHRAE Standard Not Practicable. – When the Department, public agency, and the design team determine the ASHRAE 90.1-2004 standard to be not practicable for a major facility project, then it must be determined by the State Building Commission if the standard is not practicable for that major facility project. If the State Building Commission determines the standard is not practicable for that major facility project, the State Building Commission shall determine which standard is practicable for the design and construction for that major facility project. If the ASHRAE 90.1-2004 standard is not followed for that project, the public agency shall report this information and the reasons to the Department in its report under G.S. 143-135.37, and the State Building Commission shall report this information and the reasons to the Department.

SECTION 1.(f) Monitor Development of Construction and Energy Efficiency Standards. – The Department shall monitor the development of construction or other energy efficiency standards to determine whether there is a standard that the Department determines would better fulfill the intent of the Sustainable Energy Efficient Buildings Program to achieve energy efficiency and increased energy savings in major facility projects in buildings of the State, The University of North Carolina, and the North Carolina Community College System than the ASHRAE 90.1-2004 standard and, if so, whether this section should be amended to provide for the use of this standard rather than the ASHRAE 90.1-2004 standard. Specifically, the Department shall monitor the development of improved energy efficiency standards developed by the American Society of Heating, Refrigerating and Air-Conditioning Engineers, the ASHRAE standards, and monitor whether the State Building Code Council adopts improved ASHRAE standards or any other energy efficiency standards for inclusion in the State Building Code that result in greater energy efficiency and increased energy savings in major facility projects in State, university system, and community college buildings. No later than January 1, 2009, and again January 1, 2010, the Department shall report to the Chairs of the General Government Appropriations Subcommittees of both the Senate and the House of Representatives, the Environmental Review Commission, and the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations on the results of its monitoring under this subsection, including any recommendations for administrative or legislative proposals.

- (2) Identification of operating savings attributable to the implementation of energy and water efficient building standards, including, but not limited to, savings in energy, water, utility, and maintenance costs.
- (3) Identification of any impacts on employee productivity from using energy and water efficient building standards.
- (4) Evaluation of the effectiveness of the energy and water efficient building standards established by this act.
- (5) Any recommendations for any changes in those standards that may be supported by the Department's findings.

SECTION 1.(h) Report on Performance Review. – No later than December 1, 2010, the Department shall make a preliminary report of its findings under its performance review under subsection (g) of this section and its recommendations and, on or before December 1, 2011, a final report to the Chairs of the General Government Appropriations Subcommittees of both the Senate and the House of Representatives, the Environmental Review Commission, and the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations.

SECTION 1.(i) Purchase of Buildings Constructed or Renovated to Certain Energy and Water Efficiency Standards. –

- (1) A State agency shall not acquire by purchase any building unless the building was designed and constructed to at least the same standard for energy and water efficiency that the design and construction of a comparable building was required to meet under applicable State law or local ordinance at the time the building under consideration for purchase was constructed.
- (2) A State agency shall not acquire by purchase any building that had a major renovation unless the renovation was performed to at least the same standard for energy and water efficiency that the design and construction of a major renovation of a comparable building was required to meet under applicable State law or local ordinance at the time the building under consideration for purchase was renovated.

- (3) This subsection does not apply to the purchase of a building having historic, architectural, or cultural significance under G.S. 143-23.1. This subsection does not apply to buildings that are acquired by devise or bequest.

ADDENDUM

SENATE JOURNAL

FIRST SESSION

2007

EDITOR'S NOTES

A number of bills and resolutions passed second reading and were read a third time on the same day.

Rule 50 states:

No bill on its third reading shall be acted upon out of the regular order in which it stands on the calendar, and no bill shall be acted upon on its third reading the same day on which it passed its second reading, unless so ordered by two-thirds of the membership of the Senate present and voting.

In order to comply with this Rule, no bill which has passed its second reading is read a third time except:

- (1) when a member moves that the Rule be suspended and this motion prevails by at least a two-thirds vote of the membership of the Senate present and voting, or
- (2) when the Chair determines that there is no objection from any member present, which constitutes unanimous consent that Rule 50 be suspended.

In these cases, the bill is read a third time and remains before the Senate for further consideration.

The phrase "without objection" may appear throughout the Senate Journal. Upon a motion offered, this reflects a determination by the Chair that there is no objection from a member present, which constitutes unanimous consent, for the order of the Chair.

When a bill passes its second reading and remains on the Calendar for further consideration, unless indicated otherwise the measure is placed on the Calendar for the next legislative day in its regular order of business.

Rule 20(2) of the House of Representatives requires that "all measures affecting a fee imposed by the State or any subdivision thereof" are classified roll-call measures for the purpose of spreading the ayes and noes on the Journal. Though the Senate Rules do not require the same, the Rule of the House of Representatives is honored and the measures are considered as roll-call measures, unless ruled otherwise by the Presiding Officer.

The Presiding Officer of the Senate rules in a number of instances that "the bill does not require a call of the roll" or "requires a call of the roll." The ruling is made pursuant to the following citation which reads:

North Carolina Constitution—Article II

Sec. 23.—Revenue bills. No laws shall be enacted to raise money on the credit of the State, or to pledge the faith of the State directly or indirectly for the payment of any debt, or to impose any tax upon the people of the State or to allow the counties, cities, or towns to do so, unless the bill for the purpose shall have been read three several times in each house of the General Assembly and passed three several readings, which readings shall have been on three different days, and shall have been agreed to by each house respectively, and unless the yeas and nays on the second and third readings of the bill shall have been entered on the journal.

The numerical figures which appear within parentheses throughout the Senate Journal represent the affirmative and negative votes cast and recorded electronically, pursuant to Rule 25. Copies of the vote print-out are on file in the Legislative Library and the original is deposited in the Division of Archives and History of the Department of Cultural Resources.

GOVERNOR'S OBJECTIONS AND VETO MESSAGE

House Bill 1761, "An Act to Create the Job Maintenance and Capital Development Fund."

House Bill 1761 would set a dangerous precedent for North Carolina's economic development policy and is not fair to her taxpayers. It calls for the state to give up $40 million in cash to an existing company in one county with little or no regard for how much the company actually pays in state and local taxes, what wages it pays now or in the future, or whether it lays off nearly 25% of its workforce. Never in the history of the state has anyone given a company up to $40 million and allowed them to lay off hundreds of workers.

We are proud of the employer and its hard working employees that House Bill 1761 was designed to help. But this bill does not protect those employees or the state of North Carolina.

Therefore, I veto the bill

S/Michael F. Easley

The bill, having been vetoed, is returned to the Clerk of the North Carolina House of Representatives on this 30th day of August 2007 at 1:13 P.M. for reconsideration by that body.

SENATE RESOLUTIONS2007 SESSION

Adopted March 15, 2007 (See page 309.)

S.R. 633, A SENATE RESOLUTION TO ESTABLISH THE PROCEDURE FOR NOMINATING AND ELECTING MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF GOVERNORS OF THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA.

Be it resolved by the Senate:

SECTION 1. The following procedures for nominating and electing members of the Board of Governors of The University of North Carolina are adopted:

I. COMMITTEE RESPONSIBILITIES.

1. It is the duty of the Senate Committee on Education/Higher Education (hereinafter referred to as the "Senate Committee") to choose nominees for each opening on the Board of Governors of The University of North Carolina to which the Senate is to elect members.

2. The Senate Committee shall receive suggestions of proposed candidates for nomination for election to the Board of Governors of The University of North Carolina from Monday, March 19, 2007, through Friday, March 23, 2007. In 2007, the total number of positions available for election by the Senate is eight, and each position is for a four-year term. A Senator may propose candidates for nomination only for the openings available for election by the Senate. In order for a person to have standing to be considered as a candidate for nomination by the Senate Committee, that person must be formally nominated as a candidate by a member of the Senate. Only a written nomination on a form provided by the Senior Chair of the Senate Committee for that purpose and received in the Office of the Senate Principal Clerk on or after Monday, March 19, 2007, and no later than 5:00 P.M. on Friday, March 23, 2007, shall constitute a formal nomination of a candidate. Delivery to the Office of the Senate Principal Clerk of a nomination form by facsimile transmission or e-mail transmission shall not constitute a formal nomination of a candidate. An individual is not eligible for nomination in the Senate if he or she was nominated and not elected to the Board of Governors by the House of Representatives during the 2007 Session.

3. Every person who has been formally nominated shall file a completed North Carolina State Ethics Commission Statement of Economic Interest with the North Carolina State Ethics Commission to be received by the North Carolina State Ethics Commission no later than 5:00 P.M. on Friday, March 30, 2007.

4. On or after March 24, 2007, the Senate Committee shall list all proposed candidates for nomination. The Senate Committee shall screen the proposed candidates for nomination as to their qualifications and background and may interview each one to make sure that suitable persons are nominated. The Senate Committee shall ascertain that each candidate for nomination is willing and able to serve and has no statutory disability. On completion of the screening process, the Senate Committee shall conduct a vote to ensure that the slate of legally qualified candidates lists no more than twice the number of candidates for the total seats open.

5. The Senior Chair of the Senate Committee shall ascertain whether the nominees for election by the Senate would serve if elected. Any nominee may withdraw without the approval of the sponsor.

6. Senate Committee nominees shall be placed before and recommended to the Senate for election.

II. ELECTIONS IN THE SENATE.

1. A ballot shall be prepared under the supervision of the Senior Chair of the Senate Committee for the use of the Senate.

2. The ballot shall list only the names of those nominees proposed by the Senate Committee who have consented to run and for whom the Senate is entitled to vote. Their names shall be arranged alphabetically by surname.

3. The Senate shall hold its election no later than the beginning of the daily session on April 5, 2007. Before the voting begins, the Senior Chair of the Senate Committee shall explain the voting rules, which are:

- (a) No nomination shall be received from the floor.
- (b) In order to be chosen, a nominee must receive the votes of a majority of all members present and voting.
- (c) Each member present and voting shall vote for as many nominees as there are positions to be filled, and any ballot not so marked shall be deemed void.
- (d) If fewer than eight nominees receive the votes of a majority of all members present and voting, a runoff to fill the open position or positions shall be conducted among the nominees who were not elected but who received the highest numbers of votes cast; and the number of nominees eligible to be voted on in the runoff shall be twice the number of positions to be filled.
- (e) If there is a tie for the last position between two nominees who are eligible for the next runoff, both nominees shall be included in the next runoff balloting, even though there would be more than two nominees per available position, unless the deciding vote is cast in accordance with the North Carolina Constitution, Article II, Section 13.
- (f) If more than eight nominees receive the votes of a majority of all members present and voting, then the eight nominees receiving the highest numbers of votes shall be deemed to have been chosen.

4. The Senators shall proceed to mark their ballots for eight persons, for four-year terms.

Every ballot shall be signed by the Senator casting it, and no unsigned ballots shall be counted.

5. The Senior Chair of the Senate Committee shall be responsible for canvassing the vote and declaring the results. All ballots shall be retained by the Principal Clerk as part of the permanent records of the Senate and shall be open for immediate public inspection.

6. When the Senior Chair of the Senate Committee has determined that the Senate has chosen eight persons to serve as members of the Board of Governors for terms of four years, the President of the Senate shall declare those eight persons to have been elected to the Board of Governors by the Senate. The election of each of those eight persons is provisional subject to the North Carolina State Ethics Commission's evaluations of the North Carolina State Ethics Commission Statements of Economic Interest of those persons in accordance with Article 3 of Chapter 138A of the General Statutes.

7. The results of the election in the Senate shall then be sent by Special Messenger to the House of Representatives.

III. NOTIFICATION OF ELECTION RESULTS.

When the election process is complete, the Senior Chair of the Senate Committee shall notify the Secretary of the Board of Governors of The University of North Carolina of the names of the persons elected by the Senate and of the term for which each person was elected.

SECTION 2. As used in this resolution, the term "Senior Chair" means the Senior Chair of the Senate Education/Higher Education Committee.

SECTION 3. This resolution is effective upon adoption.

Adopted March 26, 2007 (See page 407.)

ALPHABETICAL INDEX

The North Carolina General Statutes titles form the basis for the Alphabetical Index. Following each bill title, the last action or the present status for the bill is reflected. For example, a ratified bill is followed by its Chapter Number in the 2007 Session Laws. Identical bill numbers, when applicable, are reflected following the short title. Bills which are included in whole or in part in other measures are reflected as such, if known.

Bills dealing with funds are indexed under Appropriations, Local or Appropriations, Public. Local bills are indexed under the counties which are affected.

Bills and resolutions introduced by a specific Senator are found under the Senator's name and are noted as to whether or not the Senator is the primary sponsor or a co-sponsor.
