SENATE JOURNAL

2007 SESSION

FIRST DAY

Senate Chamber
Wednesday, January 24, 2007

In accordance with law, as set forth in the Constitution of the State of North Carolina and G.S. 120-11.1, the Senate of the General Assembly of North Carolina assembles this day at the hour of 12:00 Noon in the Senate Chamber of the Legislative Building in the City of Raleigh.

The Honorable Beverly E. Perdue, Lieutenant Governor, calls the Senate to order.

The President extends privileges of the floor to the spouses of the Senators-elect and to the individuals invited by a Senator-elect and requests that they be seated beside their spouse or host.

The President recognizes the Sergeant-at-Arms of the 2005 Session of the General Assembly who announces the presence of the members of the Judiciary and the Secretary of State at the doors of the Senate. The President directs the Sergeant-at-Arms to open the doors of the Senate and to escort the members of the Judiciary and the Secretary of State to their seats.

The Chair directs the Sergeant-at-Arms of the 2005 Session of the General Assembly to open the doors of the Senate and to escort Anna Eschbach of Appalachian State University, Boone, North Carolina to the Well of the Senate.

The President introduces Minister Velma M. Holloman, wife of the late Senator Robert L. Holloman, who offers prayer as follows:

"Eternal God our Father, we come in the precious name of your son, Jesus. Father, we come in the midst of heavy hearts, broken hearts, in this General Assembly. Father, we come to recognize the lives of two great men who you have called from labor to reward. We thank you that you allowed their lives to cross our paths. But, Father, we come into the Senate Chamber this morning in the absence of our dear loved one, Senator Robert L. Holloman. Father, we thank you, for he was a giant of a man. We thank you for his integrity. We thank you for his dignity. We thank you for his love. We thank you for his memories that we shall keep and cherish and for his legacy that shall go forth. Father, we thank you for the entire General Assembly. Father, we pray for our Lieutenant Governor. We pray for the Senate Pro Tempore and we pray for each of our Senators. Father, we are asking that every decision that is made, every law, every committee meeting, Father, that they will never forget you. They will never forget their purpose for being here and that they will not lose focus and that they will always seek you in every decision that they make and that they will remember the lives that they touch. For that we want to say thank you. Father, we thank you for the staff, we thank you for the administrators, we thank you for everyone who shall take part in the carrying out of the laws of this great State of North Carolina. Father, now cover them in your blood and let the blood of Jesus reign in Raleigh, North Carolina, our State Capital. Father, keep them in perfect peace with their mind continuing to stay on you as they carry about the business. Father, we pray for them, for their health, good health. We pray for their families. We pray, God, that you will just keep them and hold them together, that this will be an awesome year in Jesus' name. Father, we thank you for your love that continues to abide over us, that keeps us and sustains us. Father, now we ask that the Holy Spirit will continue to rule and to reign. Bless and we shall be blessed in the State of North Carolina. Keep us and we shall be kept. In Jesus name we do pray and we all say hallelujah. Amen.

January 24, 2007

With forty-eight Senators answering the call of the roll and with the Proclamation from the Governor appointing Edward Walter Jones as Senator from the Fourth Senatorial District having been read, the President declares a quorum present and duly qualified.

PRIVILEGES OF THE FLOOR

The President extends privileges of the floor to The Honorable Sarah E. Parker, Chief Justice, North Carolina Supreme Court; The Honorable J. Richard Parker, Senior Resident Superior Court Judge, Judicial District 1; The Honorable Yvonne Mims Evans, Resident Superior Court Judge, Judicial District 26; The Honorable Robert C. Hunter, Judge, North Carolina Court of Appeals; The Honorable James A. Wynn, Jr., Judge, North Carolina Court of Appeals; The Honorable Elaine Marshall, North Carolina Secretary of State; The Honorable Aaron W. Plyler, former Senator from Union County; The Honorable J. Richard Conder, former Senator from Richmond County; The Honorable Fern Shubert, former Senator from Union County; The Honorable Robert G. Shaw, former Senator from Guilford County; The Honorable William B. Miller, former Senator from Forsyth County; and The Honorable Willis P. Whichard, former Senator from Durham County and retired Associate Justice of the North Carolina Supreme Court.

ORGANIZATION OF THE SENATE

The President announces that the Senate stands ready to proceed with the election of officers, and declares the floor open for nominations for President Pro Tempore of the Senate, pursuant to Article II, Section 14(1) of the North Carolina Constitution.

The President recognizes Senator Dannelly who offers the following nomination and remarks:

“Ladies and gentlemen of this August Body, citizens of North Carolina, I’m honored to stand here and place in nomination the name of Marc Basnight as President Pro Tempore of the Senate. In my opinion, Marc does not need an introduction to us assembled here. However, as a reminder, I want to say that he is a man of high morals, the best that North Carolina can offer. He is honest, he is truthful, and he will give you his word. And as the old saying goes, ‘If he gives you his word, you can take it to the bank and cash it.’ However, if he finds that the word will not work, you will be the first one to know. He will not skip out on you. He is a man of the highest integrity who loves this State with a passion. He knows the history of this State and he knows its people. As an example, when he travels around this State from Manteo to Murphy, he will not do what most of us do. We go straight to point A and back to point B. Marc, many times, will stop at crossroads stores in the country and talk to citizens and pick their brains to find out what they like, what they need, what they think the

January 24, 2007

State should be doing. He is well-known along those routes. Marc is also passionate about the environment of our State and he goes across this State promoting a good environment and working to preserve the resources that this State has for future generations. He listens to the concerns of citizens and he particularly listens to the concerns of Members. He is not afraid to listen to what you say and help you accomplish your goals. He is a proven leader who knows how to get things done and I guess most of all about him, Marc is not afraid to lead by following. He is a devoted family man and I solicit your support in voting for Marc Basnight as President Pro Tempore for the North Carolina Senate.”

The President recognizes Senator Snow who seconds the nomination and offers the following remarks:

“Madame President, fellow Senators and friends it is a distinct honor for me to second the nomination of Senator Marc Basnight for the office of President Pro Tempore for the 2007 Session of the North Carolina State Senate. I could spend hours talking to you in detail about Marc’s accomplishments over the years, but just let me say this. Marc Basnight’s vision for North Carolina reaches from Murphy to Manteo and includes all the people of North Carolina. Marc is a leader who does not rule this Senate team but yet, as good leaders do, he tries to lead them to where they want to go. As Marc seeks his eighth term as President Pro Tempore, we acknowledge the hallmarks of his leadership, that of humility, honesty, and integrity. These traits lead Marc to respect our laws and see the realities of every situation. Despite the pressures with a high leadership position, Marc has stood firm in his high standards and convictions of honesty and integrity. In the scriptures, Galatians 5:13 speaks to one of our most important Christian principles. It says, ‘Serve one another in love.’, emphasizing the importance of Christians serving others. There is no finer example of this Christian principle than Marc Basnight. Marc loves the people and the land of North Carolina and cherishes the opportunity to serve. And so it is with great pride that I second the nomination of Marc Basnight for President Pro Tempore of the North Carolina Senate for the 2007 Session.”

The President recognizes Senator Smith who offers the following nomination and remarks:

“It is my privilege at this time to nominate the leader of our caucus, Senator Phil Berger from Rockingham County, to be President Pro Tempore. Thank you.”

The President recognizes Senator Hunt who seconds the nomination and offers the followings remarks:

“Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate it is my pleasure to second the nomination for Senator Phil Berger for President Pro Tempore of the Senate. Thank you.”

January 24, 2007

Hearing no further nominations, the Chair directs the members of the Senate to answer the call of the roll and cast their vote for the President Pro Tempore nominee of their choice.

Those voting for Senator Basnight are: Senators Albertson, Atwater, Berger of Franklin, Boseman, Clodfelter, Cowell, Dalton, Dannelly, Dorsett, Foriest, Forrester, Garrou, Goss, Graham, Hagan, Hartsell, Hoyle, Jenkins, Jones, Kerr, Kinnaird, Malone, Nesbitt, Purcell, Queen, Rand, Shaw, Snow, Soles, Swindell, and Weinstein ---31.

Those voting for Senator Berger of Rockingham are: Senators Allran, Apodaca, Berger of Rockingham, Bingham, Blake, Brock, Brown, Brunstetter, East, Goodall, Hunt, Jacumin, Pittenger, Preston, Smith, Stevens, and Tillman -- -17.

Senator Berger of Rockingham offers a motion that Senator Marc Basnight be elected by acclamation as President Pro Tempore of the 2007 Senate, which motion prevails.

The President declares Senator Basnight duly elected President Pro Tempore and appoints Senator Albertson, Senator Garrou, Senator Hagan, Senator Soles, Senator Nesbitt, and Senator Dannelly to escort the President Pro Tempore-Elect to the Well of the Senate. Senator Albertson presents Senator Basnight to the President. The Sergeant-at-Arms escorts Senator Basnight's daughter, Caroline, to the Well of the Senate to join him as he receives the Oath of Office. The Honorable J. Richard Parker, Senior Resident Superior Court Judge, Judicial District 1, administers the prescribed Oath of Office.

The President recognizes Senator Marc Basnight, President Pro Tempore, who addresses the Senate from the Well of the Senate and offers the following remarks:

"To my Lieutenant Governor, thank you for your friendship and support. To Dick Parker, a long-time friend from Manteo who swore me in today, thank you. To all members and families, friends, and guests in the gallery, I not only welcome you but I appreciate your belief in a better government for all people by your participation today.

"I have to mention, as all of you would like for me to do, Robert Holloman and his family and all that he did for his district and the people that he loved so very much. Our good God needed him for other reasons above and beyond all that we do. His effort and his belief will be forever with those of us who served with him. So I thank his wife and his children for being with us today.

"The tie that I wear today has America's flag on it, David. It has many of those flags. One thing I always admired about my brother, who is here today, is that he served in the Army and he served in Vietnam. I did not. For that I find some semblance of rightful regret. But he and every soldier in this Country gave us freedom that allows us to wear this flag today. Tony, your and Walter's great-great-grandfather fought at Brandywine and was wounded there with General Washington. The creation of a Country that gives us so many opportunities is because of the soldiers more so than anyone else. And so today, I wear this tie for every soldier who has served and is now serving this Country in harms way. God bless our military.

"Elaine and each and every judge, Sarah Parker, Bob, each and every one of you, you give to us that balance. Maybe when we find ourselves out of balance, and I can't remember when that was, but obviously you are the third prong of this wonderful government of ours.

"It is incumbent upon you in the Senate today that we learn to protect and preserve this institution of your responsibilities and that is what I will ask you to do.

"We know North Carolina is the greatest place to live, but others are finding out as well, Kay. Recently, there was a poll done about where is it in America that you would find the most desirable place to live and no surprise to me from the findings of this national poll, it was North Carolina. Good things are happening in North Carolina and they are a result of much of what you've done.

"Our economy is healthy and growing. It has given employers and workers a greater opportunity for success. Our business climate is the best in the Country according to Site Selection Magazine. We've been ranked number one five times out of the last six years and if that isn't good enough for your consumption, Forbes.com ranks North Carolina as the third best state in this Country to do business. Ernst and Young ranks our business taxes among the lowest in the whole Country.

"We are making great gains in our public schools, but we must build on that progress. North Carolina has one-fifth of the Nation's certified teachers, something to be very proud of. From 1994 to 1995 to 2004 to 2005, only four states raised the teachers' salaries higher than North Carolina. North Carolina pays roughly two-thirds of the K-12 education costs at the state level. Only three states pay a larger share than we do. So sometimes when the constituents ask you where you spend our money and do you do so wisely, this is one ingredient of the taxes that you collect in this State to see that the local governments do not have to absorb those costs as you see occurring in so many States in this Country and around us. North Carolina is also above the Southeast average in SAT scores.

"Our universities are among the Nation's best and most affordable. Again, in taxation if you were to compare us with South Carolina, those taxes in North Carolina would be utilized for a different purpose if we could charge what they charge. But is that valuable for this State? I would say not. We must continue to subsidize the students in our higher education system at the level that we presently do in this State, which ranks us as one of the greatest buys in all of public education or private education in all of America and I support that with the most recent Kiplinger's Report that six of the universities in North Carolina were in that top one-hundred ranking and one of them was UNC-Chapel Hill and no surprise to you it was number one in that value.

"Also, something not so much a surprise for members but for the audience and the people of this State, the UNC system is third in the Nation for total federal research and development funding to University Systems, something to be very proud of, as well. For every $1 million in research funding that is attracted to North Carolina, about thirty-nine jobs are created. That's pretty impressive - a one million dollar investment, thirty-three people employed with health care, retirement, a benefit package, and good salaries. The UNC Lineberger Cancer Center was named as one of seven centers nationwide to be part of the alliance for nanotechnology in cancer. UNC-Chapel Hill will receive more than $20 million to fight that dreaded disease. North Carolina State and UNC-Chapel Hill are in the top ten of all public and private universities for the power and productivity of the patents they have produced over the past year.

"In Community Colleges every year, one in every six adults in this great State of ours enrolls in the community college system. More than 99 percent of those who completed community college were employed within one year of completing their degree and 100 percent of the employers reported that they were satisfied with the training, Martin, of these new employees that come out of our community college system that you believe in so very much. Expansion Magazine ranks our community college job training programs the fourth best in the Country, another ingredient of why people want to live in the greatest state of all.

"Fiscal responsibility - even as our State has grown and even as we have made tremendous investments in education and in our economy, we have kept our tax burden below the U.S. average for the past thirty years. USA Today ranks North Carolina fourth in the Nation for fiscal integrity. North Carolina's pension fund is ranked the strongest pension fund in the whole Country, David. Not another place can claim what we are able to claim. And we are just one of seven states with a Triple A Bond rating, which was just recently upgraded again. These are some examples of our successes which, because of you, they are true today.

"But then again, despite our progress there is much work ahead of us. Public schools keep moving forward on teacher pay. Each and every one of you, Tony, are committed to that, speak of that, believe in that, and preach that and were it not for this Senate and House and this General Assembly and our Governor and people who believe that we can make a stronger and better economy by investing in education, it would not have occurred. So thank you for what you have done for the public school teachers of North Carolina.

"Consider higher pay for teachers in math and science, separating the two, not something anyone ever wants to do. You would like to be gracious enough and have enough resources to not have to segregate pay but if the market demands it, if the person is not there with the degree, you have to pay that differential and I would encourage that we move with great haste, to hurry and prepare the finest public school math and science teachers that we can find that are not available today in North Carolina. And the very best that you get out of education is what we all seek for our children and you cannot reward people just on test scores alone, but also on the effort that you put into the classroom and I believe when students succeed because of a combination of factors and that a teacher goes above and beyond whatever he or she is called upon to do, there should be some rewards to encourage and promote better teachers in North Carolina's System. Any testing system must be fair, accurate, and reliable and we have not been able to claim such in years past. We should provide the technology and the equipment needed to make sure all students are prepared for any and every job that will make us competitive in this very global economy that we are participating in today. But the ultimate responsibility is to that child – not to you and me, not to the teacher, not to the school board, not to the principal. You and I are obligated to make sure that every child in our schools has every possible opportunity to succeed with the talents that the good God gave each of them.

"In higher education, faculty salaries are always a concern and will continue to be, but they have to be addressed if we are going to be able to compete at the level that we all believe in. Capital facilities in this State are lacking and one of the major reasons that they are lacking is that we are an attractive State. Companies want to do business here, people want to move here. You see families telling family friends where they transferred from, when they leave whatever State it may be to come here, that this is the place that is prepared for them so that means the investment in capital facilities and financial aid to keep a higher education in the reach of all students is critically important.

"Mental health issues - obviously we understand they are under-funded. We did appropriate $100 million last year that was budgeted for those very special people and we have to be able to expend those monies wisely and see that we distribute to that need more graciously as resources are available.

"Medicaid costs - I believe very strongly that this year we have to resolve that issue, Tony, once and for all so that every county government fully realizes that there will be no payment responsible to those governments in the very foreseeable future over a protracted period of time and with a combination of effort we need to absorb that responsibility so that the very poorest among us, Doc, have that ability to expend those funds that are of such a high percentage of their monies today in the kind of ingredients that make life so much richer by building a stronger economy within their communities and then maybe we can speak of "One North Carolina."

"There is an issue that affects all too many families and that is health care that is affordable, and I believe that we can in some way do better than what we presently do today, and that has to be in cooperation with small business because it is in that community that we find the greatest number and percentage of people and families without healthcare. So we have to work to improve those conditions for these very people that work in our community.

"Environment and energy - so much can be said about that. I remember ten years ago when I first heard about, and John Garrou chairs our committee on behalf of the Senate, the Global Warming Committee, and I was a bit skeptical, not just ten years ago, but five years ago, and most of the science community was more skeptical than I that nothing was occurring that man was affecting. But boy, have you seen a shift in those ideas and thoughts.

"Now it took some time to better understand very difficult and frightening predictions that water would be on the State Capital because of global warming and because of man. So the frightening statements have leveled off and are not quite as aggressive in language as we have seen in years past, but now I have come to the conclusion, and unless someone can help me defeat that belief, that we are creating much of this problem. I come to that conclusion because so many people print their positions that we can read and understand and more and more people are doing so. And if we don't take some actions that can create less of the use of carbons that are creating the greenhouse gases in our environment, if we don't protect those particular concerns, if we error, what a God awful affect it will have on North Carolina.

"So there are many things that we can do. One of the simple things we did here, Fred, was that we removed every incandescent light in this building. These are all fluorescent lights in here and in your offices today. The savings are in excess of $30,000 per year on our utility bill just by changing the fluorescent lights and putting dimmer switches in your offices and may grow as energy costs grow. Simple things that you can do that you have exhibited have to be done. I cringe at the thought of the Outer Banks being underwater. I don't believe it will occur. I believe America will follow the lead of many and we heard the President of the United States say last night that Global Warming is real and it is here and we have to make energy changes. One of the recommendations that Duke Power, the CEO for Duke Power and many other companies in this Country, made was that we reduce carbons in America by the year 2050 by the present load by eighty-percent. If I remember those figures properly, Senator Hartsell, I believe that he was recommending that we move by twenty-percent in the next ten years of the existing reduction. We can do much of that through efficiencies, but there is much more work that can be done through our Universities that will give us the kinds of recommendations that will derive better energy concepts by the investment of research.

"Infrastructure needs - I understand, as you understand, that there is not a county in this State that does not need resources to build the buildings in which to teach our students. I realize as you realize, Senator Kerr, that the infrastructure needs for water and sewer in this State are horribly high, maybe exceeding $15 billion. I understand as you understand that we have many, many crowded highways in this State around our urban centers and I also understand that we have no traffic on roads in rural areas of North Carolina because of the lack of a road system and a water and a sewer system and an infrastructure that would allow for development. I, as you, know and fully understand that you invested some years ago in the Clean Water Management Trust Fund. You've believed in that, you've never dropped that crusade to make those investments and today we are at $100 million per year in an escalating fight to preserve some of the properties that are so important to the environment, the landscape, the look and the future of North Carolina. That lacks as well. We do need billions; we do need money properly spent. I encourage every agency in the State to be prudent with the taxpayer's money and that you spend it wisely, you invest it properly and we get a return on behalf of all the people in this State.

"My greatest wish today is that we all work together, not as a party of people, but as a group of Senators who believe and know we can make life better and richer outside of politics. I believe that you elected me to participate in a better government and I thank you for that. Today, I stand and wish for better opportunity, better health, and a better life for all people. I thank you, God bless and Godspeed to the Old North State.”

January 24, 2007

III. MOTIONS

RULE 18. Motions generally. – Any motion shall be reduced to writing, if requested by the Presiding Officer or a Senator, and read by the Presiding Officer or Reading Clerk before the same is debated. Any motion may be withdrawn by the introducer at any time before decision or amendment. No motion relating to a bill shall be in order which does not identify the bill by its number and short title. Except as otherwise specifically provided in these rules, no second is required.

RULE 19. Motion; order of precedence. – When a question is before the Senate, no motion shall be received except those herein specified, which motions shall have precedence as follows:

- (1) To adjourn.
- (2) To lay on the table.
- (3) For the previous question.
- (4) To postpone indefinitely.
- (5) To postpone to a certain day.
- (6) To re-refer to a standing committee.
- (7) To refer to a select committee.
- (8) To amend.

RULE 20. Motions requiring a second. – The motions to adjourn, to lay on the table, and to call for the previous question shall be seconded and decided without debate.

RULE 21. Motions to postpone to certain day and to commit. – The respective motions to postpone to a certain day or to commit to a standing or select committee shall preclude debate on the main question.

RULE 22. Motion to substitute. – Subject to Rule 19, a member may offer a motion to substitute to any motion, except the motions for the previous question, to table or to adjourn. No motion to substitute shall be offered to a motion to substitute.

January 24, 2007

RULE 23. Motion for previous question. – (a) The previous question may be moved upon a pending single motion, any pending amendment or amendments, and/or the pending bill to its passage on that reading or all readings or the pending resolution to its adoption. An authorized Senator moving the previous question shall specify to what the motion applies. Unless specifically limited, the motion shall be deemed to apply to the bill or resolution along with any pending amendments to its passage.

(b) The previous question shall be as follows: "Shall the main question be now put?" and until it is decided shall preclude all amendments and debate. If this question is decided in the affirmative, the "main question" shall be on the passage of the bill, resolution, or other matter under consideration; but when amendments are pending, the question shall be taken upon such amendments in their inverse order, without further debate or amendment.

(c) Only one of the following Senators may move the previous question:

- (1) The chair of the committee submitting the report on the bill or other matter under consideration;
- (2) The member introducing the bill or other matter under consideration;
- (3) The member in charge of the measure, who shall be designated by the chair of the committee reporting the same to the Senate at the time the bill or other matter under consideration is reported to the Senate or taken up for consideration;
- (4) The Chair of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate; or
- (5) The President Pro Tempore.

RULE 24. Motion to reconsider. – (a) When a question has been once put and decided, any Senator who voted in the majority may move to reconsider the vote thereof. No motion for reconsideration shall be in order unless made on the same day or in the next following legislative day on which the vote took place. When the next legislative day has by motion of the Senate been restricted as to matters which may be considered, a motion to reconsider shall be in order on the next succeeding day upon which regular business is conducted. No question shall be reconsidered more than once.

(b) Notwithstanding subsection (a) of this rule, a motion to reconsider is in order at any time if made by the Chair or, in the Chair's absence, the Vice-Chair of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate or the President Pro Tempore for the sole purpose of correcting grammatical errors in bills in the possession of the Senate.

(c) If a bill has gone out of the possession of the Senate and a motion to reconsider under these rules is passed, the bill shall not be enrolled unless it again passes third reading. The Principal Clerk shall notify the House of Representatives and the Enrolling Clerk of any action under this subsection.

IV. VOTING

RULE 25. Use of electronic voting system. – (a) Votes on the following questions shall be taken on the electronic voting system, and the ayes and noes shall be recorded on the Journal:

- (1) All questions on which the Constitution of North Carolina requires that the ayes and noes be taken and recorded on the Journal;
- (2) All questions on which a call for the ayes and noes under Rule 26(b) has been sustained;
- (3) Second and third readings of bills proposing amendment of the Constitution of North Carolina; and
- (4) The vote on approval of a bill that was vetoed by the Governor.

(b) Votes on the following questions shall be taken on the electronic voting system, and the resulting totals shall be recorded on the Journal:

- (1) Second reading of all public bills, all amendments to public bills offered after second reading, third reading if a public bill was amended after second reading, and all conference reports on public bills.
- (2) Any other question upon direction of the Presiding Officer or upon motion of any Senator supported by one-fifth of the Senators present.

(c) When the electronic voting system is used, the Presiding Officer shall fix and announce the time, not to exceed one minute, which shall be allowed for voting on the question before the Senate. The system shall be set to lock automatically and to record the vote when that time has expired. Once the system has locked and recorded a vote, the vote shall be printed by the system.

(d) The voting station at each Senator's desk in the Chamber shall be used only by the Senator to whom the station is assigned. Under no circumstances shall any other person vote at a Senator's station. It is a breach of the ethical obligation of a Senator either to request that another vote at the requesting Senator's station or to vote at another Senator's station. The Presiding Officer shall enforce this rule without exception.

(e) When the electronic voting system is used, the Presiding Officer shall state the question and shall then state substantially the following: "All in favor vote 'aye'; all opposed vote 'no'; _____ seconds will be allowed for voting on this question; the Clerk will record the vote." After the machine locks and records the vote, the Presiding Officer shall announce the vote and declare the result, and no member may vote thereafter.

(f) One copy of the machine printout of the vote record shall be filed in the office of the Principal Clerk, and one copy shall be filed in the Legislative Library where it shall be open to public inspection.

(g) When the Presiding Officer ascertains that the electronic voting system is inoperative before a vote is taken or while a vote is being taken on the electronic system, the Presiding Officer shall announce that fact to the Senate, and any partial electronic system voting record shall be voided. In such a case, if the Constitution of North Carolina or the Rules of the Senate require a call of the ayes and noes, the Clerk shall call the roll of the Senate, and the ayes and noes shall be taken manually and shall be recorded on the Journal. All other votes shall be taken as prescribed in Senate Rule 26. If, after a vote is taken on the electronic system, it is discovered that a malfunction caused an error in the electronic system printout, the Presiding Officer shall direct the Reading Clerk and the Principal Clerk to verify and correct the printout record and so advise the Senate.

January 24, 2007

(h) For the purpose of identifying motions on which the vote is taken on the electronic system (the identification codes having no relation to the order of precedence of motions), the motions are coded as follows:

- (1) To lay on the table.
- (2) For the previous question.
- (3) To postpone indefinitely.
- (4) To postpone to a day certain.
- (5) To refer to a committee.
- (6) To reconsider.
- (7) To adopt.
- (8) To concur.
- (9) To take from the table.
- (10) Miscellaneous.

RULE 26. Voice votes; call for division; call for ayes and noes.

(a) When the electronic voting system is not used, all votes on which a call of the roll of the Senate is not required shall be taken by voice vote. The question shall be put as follows: "Those in favor say 'aye'," and, after the affirmative vote is expressed, "Opposed 'no'"; after which the Presiding Officer shall announce the result. If a division on any vote is desired, it must be called for immediately before the result of the voting is announced on any question, and, upon such call, the Presiding Officer shall require the members to stand and be counted for and against the proposition under consideration.

(b) The ayes and the noes may be called for on any question before the vote is taken. If a Senator desires the ayes and noes recorded on the Journal on a question, that Senator shall address the Presiding Officer and obtain recognition and say, "Upon that question I call for the ayes and noes." Whereupon the Presiding Officer shall say, "Is the call sustained?" If one-fifth of the remaining Senators present then stand, the vote shall be taken on the electronic voting system if it is operative, and the ayes and noes shall be recorded on the Journal. If the electronic voting system is inoperative, the roll of the Senate shall be called and the ayes and noes taken manually and recorded on the Journal. If fewer than one-fifth of the Senators present stand to sustain the call, the Presiding Officer shall announce, "An insufficient number up", and a vote by electronic voting or by voice, whichever is appropriate under the Rules of the Senate, shall be taken.

RULE 27. Pair votes. – (a) If a Senator is paired with another Senator on a question, the Senator shall announce the pair as follows: "I desire to announce a pair. If Senator _____ were present, that Senator would vote

_____; I would vote _____ (the opposite)." The Senator shall send forward at that time a written statement of the pair on a form provided by the Principal Clerk, and neither member of the pair shall vote on the question. A pair shall be announced before the vote is taken viva voce or, if the electronic voting system is used, before the machine is unlocked. The Clerk shall record the pair on the Journal when the Constitution or Rules of the Senate require a call of the roll and shall record on the electronic system printout all pairs announced.

(b) No Senator who is absent shall pair unless the absent Senator has obtained a leave of absence.

(c) This rule does not apply to committee or subcommittee proceedings.

RULE 28. Dividing question. – (a) If a bill is subject to division into separate parts so that each part states a separate and distinct proposition capable of standing alone, a Senator may move that the question be divided. The motion shall:

- (1) Be in writing,
- (2) Be submitted to the Principal Clerk at the time the motion is made, and
- (3) Clearly state how the question is to be divided.

Upon a majority vote of the Senators present and voting, the motion shall be adopted.

(b) If the motion to divide the question is adopted, then there shall be no further amendment or debate on any of the distinct propositions.

(c) If the question is divided and any part thereof fails, then the bill or resolution and any pending amendments shall be removed from the calendar and re-referred to the committee from which the bill or resolution was reported.

(d) Only one motion to divide the question shall be in order during consideration of a bill or resolution.

RULE 29. Duty to vote; excuses. – (a) Every Senator who is within the Senate Chamber when the question is stated by the Presiding Officer shall vote thereon unless that Senator is excused by the Senate.

(b) A Senator who is a member of a committee shall, upon request, be excused from deliberations and voting on the bill while it is before the committee. The Senator must make the request to the chair of the committee when the bill is first taken up for consideration and before any motion or vote on the bill or any amendment to the bill. The Senator making the request for excuse in committee must renew that request for excuse on the floor of the Senate as set forth in this rule.

(c) Any Senator may move to be excused at any time from voting on any matter. The Senator may make a brief statement of the reasons for the motion which question shall be taken without debate on the motion.

(d) The Senator may send forward to the Principal Clerk, on a form provided by the Clerk, a concise statement of the reason for the motion, and the Clerk shall include this statement in the Journal.

(e) The Senator so excused shall not debate the bill or any amendment to the bill, vote on the bill, offer or vote on any amendment to the bill, or offer or vote on any motion concerning the bill at that reading, any subsequent reading, or any subsequent consideration of the bill.

January 24, 2007

(f) A Senator may move that the excuse of that Senator from deliberations on a particular bill be withdrawn, which question shall be determined without debate.

(g) A motion to be excused or for the withdrawal of an excuse shall be taken without debate.

(h) A motion by any Senator to change that Senator's vote must be made on the same legislative day as the vote is taken. This subsection may not be suspended.

RULE 30. Explanation of vote. – Any Senator may, as the last order of the Senate's business that day, explain that Senator's vote on any bill that day by obtaining permission of the Presiding Officer after the final vote is taken. No more than three minutes shall be consumed in such explanation.

V. COMMITTEES

RULE 31. Appointment of committees. – The President Pro Tempore of the Senate shall have the exclusive right and authority to appoint the membership of all committees, regular and select, and to appoint committee chairs and vice-chairs and to establish select committees, but this does not exclude the right of the Senate by resolution to establish select committees. Upon the recommendation of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate, the Senate may alter the name, number, and composition of the standing committees by a majority vote of the Senators present and voting.

A local bill is one affecting fewer than 15 counties. No public bill and, upon objection by a member, no local bill may be considered unless copies of the bill have been made available to the entire membership of the Senate.

No bill, resolution, or amendment for which a fiscal note has been requested may be considered for passage prior to the fiscal note's being attached to it.

(b) The fiscal note shall be filed and attached to the bill, resolution, or amendment within two legislative days of the request. If it is impossible to prepare a fiscal note within two legislative days, the Director of Fiscal Research shall, in writing, so advise the Presiding Officer, the Principal Clerk, and the member introducing or proposing the measure and shall indicate the time when the fiscal note will be ready.

(c) The fiscal note shall be prepared by the Fiscal Research Division on a form approved by the Chair of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate as to content and form and signed by the staff member or members preparing it. If no estimate in dollars is possible, the fiscal note shall indicate the reasons that no estimate is provided. The fiscal note shall not comment on the merit but may identify technical problems. The Fiscal Research Division shall make the fiscal note available to the membership of the Senate.

(d) A sponsor of a bill, resolution, or amendment may deliver a copy of that member's bill, resolution, or amendment to the Fiscal Research Division for the preparation of a fiscal note. The sponsor shall attach the fiscal note to the bill when the sponsor files the bill or resolution or to the amendment when the sponsor moves its adoption.

(e) The sponsor of a bill, resolution, or amendment to which a fiscal note is attached who objects to the estimates and information provided may reduce to writing the objections. These objections shall be appended to the fiscal note attached to the bill, resolution, or amendment and to the copies of the fiscal note available to the membership.

(f) Subsection (a) of this rule shall not apply to the Current Operations Appropriations Bill or the Capital Improvement Appropriations Bill. This rule shall not apply to a bill, resolution, or amendment requiring an actuarial note under these rules.

The actuarial note shall be attached to the jacket of each proposed bill or resolution that is reported favorably by any committee and shall be clearly designated as an actuarial note. Upon its introduction, a bill or resolution described in subdivision (a)(1) of this rule shall be referred to the Committee on Pensions and Retirement and Aging.

(b) The sponsor of the bill or resolution shall present a copy of the measure, with the sponsor's request for an actuarial note, to the Fiscal Research Division, which shall prepare the actuarial note as promptly as possible but not later than two weeks after the request is made. Actuarial notes shall be prepared in the order of receipt of request and shall be transmitted to the sponsor of the measure. The actuarial note of the Fiscal Research Division shall be prepared and signed by an actuary.

(c) The sponsor of the bill or resolution shall also present a copy of the measure to the chief administrative officer of the system affected by the measure. The chief administrative officer shall have an actuarial note prepared by the system's actuary on the measure and shall transmit the note to the sponsor of the measure not later than two weeks after the request is received. The actuarial note may be attached to the jacket of the measure.

(d) The note shall be factual and shall, if possible, provide a reliable estimate of both the immediate effect and, if determinable, the long-range fiscal and actuarial effect of the measure. If, after careful investigation, it is determined that no dollar estimate is possible, the note shall contain a statement to that effect, setting forth the reasons why no dollar estimate can be given. No comment or opinion shall be included in the actuarial note with regard to the merits of the measure for which the note is prepared. Technical and mechanical defects in the measure may be noted.

(e) When any committee reports a measure to which an actuarial note is attached at the time of committee consideration, with any amendment of such nature as would substantially affect the cost to or the revenues of any system, the chair of the committee reporting the measure shall obtain from the Fiscal Research Division and the administrator of the affected system an actuarial note of the fiscal and actuarial effect of the proposed amendment. The actuarial note shall be attached to the jacket of the measure. A Chair of the Appropriations/Base Budget Committee, or of the Finance Committee, or of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate, or of the Ways and Means Committee, upon the floor of the Senate, may request that an actuarial note be attached to a bill, resolution, or an amendment which affects the costs to or the revenues of a system described in this rule and which is in the possession of the Senate, when in the opinion of that Chair, the effect to the cost to or the revenues of a system described in this rule are not apparent from the language of the measure. No bill, resolution, or amendment for which an actuarial note has been requested may be considered for passage prior to the actuarial note from both the Fiscal Research Division and the administrator of the affected system being attached to it.

(f) The Fiscal Research Division shall make all relevant actuarial notes available to the membership of the Senate.

RULE 42.3. Assessment reports. – (a) Licensing or Registration Boards. Every legislative proposal introduced in the Senate proposing the establishment of an occupational or professional licensing or registration board or a study for the need to establish such a board shall have attached to the jacket of the original bill at the time of its consideration on second or third readings by the Senate or by any committee of the Senate prior to a favorable report, an assessment report from the Legislative Committee on New Licensing Boards, pursuant to Article 18A of Chapter 120 of the General Statutes. The assessment report shall not constitute any part of the expression of legislative intent proposed by the formation of a licensing board.

Upon receipt of the request, the Legislative Committee on New Licensing Boards shall prepare and return the assessment report as soon as possible but not later than 60 days from the date of receipt of the request, reserving the right to extend this time to 90 days. A supplementary report shall be prepared and submitted to the requesting Senator not later than 30 days after the receipt of the request.

(b) Municipal Incorporations. Every legislative proposal introduced in the Senate, or received in the Senate from the House, proposing the incorporation of a municipality shall have attached to the jacket of the original bill at the time of its consideration on second or third readings by the Senate or by any committee of the Senate prior to a favorable report, a recommendation from the Joint Legislative Commission on Municipal Incorporations, established by Article 20 of Chapter 120 of the General Statutes. The recommendation of the Joint Legislative Commission on Municipal Incorporations shall be made in accordance with the provisions and criteria set forth in Article 20 of Chapter 120 of the General Statutes and shall include the findings required to be made by G.S. 120-166 through G.S. 120-170.

cause a net increase in the length of time for which persons are incarcerated or the number of persons incarcerated, whether by increasing penalties for violating existing laws, by criminalizing behavior, or by any other means, shall have attached to it at the time of its consideration by the Senate a fiscal note prepared by the Fiscal Research Division. The fiscal note shall be prepared in consultation with the Sentencing Policy and Advisory Commission and shall identify and estimate, for the first five fiscal years the proposed change would be in effect, all costs of the proposed net increase in incarceration, including capital outlay costs if the legislation would require increased cell space. If, after careful investigation, the Fiscal Research Division determines that no dollar estimate is possible, the note shall contain a statement to that effect, setting forth the reasons why no dollar estimate can be given. No comment or opinion shall be included in the fiscal note with regard to the merits of the measure for which the note is prepared. However, technical and mechanical defects may be noted.

(b) The sponsor of each bill, amendment, or resolution to which this subsection applies shall present a copy of the bill, amendment, or resolution with the request for a fiscal note to the Fiscal Research Division. Upon receipt of the request and the copy of the bill, amendment, or resolution, the Fiscal Research Division shall prepare the fiscal note as promptly as possible. The Fiscal Research Division shall prepare the fiscal note and transmit it to the sponsor within two weeks after the request is made, unless the sponsor agrees to an extension of time.

(c) This fiscal note shall be attached to the original of each proposed bill, amendment, or resolution that is reported favorably by any committee, but shall be separate from the bill, amendment, or resolution and shall be clearly designated as a fiscal note. A fiscal note attached to a bill, amendment, or resolution pursuant to this subsection is not a part of the bill, amendment, or resolution and is not an expression of legislative intent proposed by the bill, amendment, or resolution.

(d) If a committee reports favorably a proposed bill or resolution with an amendment that proposes a change in the law that could cause a net increase in the length of time for which persons are incarcerated or the number of persons incarcerated, whether by increasing penalties for violating existing laws, by criminalizing behavior, or by any other means, the chair of the committee shall obtain from the Fiscal Research Division and attach to the amended bill or resolution a fiscal note as provided in this section.

provided, that for a provision to be in order under this subsection, it must be recommended to the General Assembly in a written report adopted by the Appropriations/Base Budget Committee before or at the same time the bill is reported, or, if such provision is contained in a floor amendment, the sponsor of the amendment must present to the Principal Clerk at or before the time the amendment is offered an explanation of the amendment for distribution to each member of the Senate.

RULE 42.5. Appropriations/Base Budget Committee meetings.

The Chair of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate or, in the Chair's absence, the Vice-Chair of the Committee, or the President Pro Tempore may refer to a Senate committee all bills introduced in the Senate or received from the House of Representatives. Upon the referral being made, the Chair of the Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate shall notify the Principal Clerk of the Senate of the referral, and the Reading Clerk shall announce the referral of the bill. The Principal Clerk shall inform the Presiding Officer of the referral. The title and referral shall be entered upon the Journal.

Bills may be referred to more than one committee serially: e.g., "S.B. _____ is referred to the Committee on Finance and upon a favorable report referred to the Appropriations/Base Budget Committee."

RULE 44. Bills to receive three readings. – Every bill shall receive three readings before being passed, and the Presiding Officer shall give notice at each reading whether it be the first, second, or third. The Reading Clerk shall announce the referral as set forth in Rule 43. No bill shall be amended upon the floor of the Senate, except under Rule 45.1, until it has been twice read. Senate simple resolutions shall not require three readings.

RULE 45. Reports of committees. – Every Senator presenting a report of a committee shall endorse the report with the name of the committee and, in case of a minority report, with the names of the members making the report. The report of the committee shall show that a quorum of the committee was present and a majority of those present voted in favor of the report. Every report of the committee upon a bill or resolution shall stand upon the general orders with the bill or resolution. No committee shall report a bill or resolution without prejudice.

RULE 45.1. Action on amendment or committee substitute. – If any committee recommends adoption of an amendment or committee substitute of a bill or resolution, the amendment or committee substitute shall be considered adopted upon the reading of the committee report and shall be engrossed. Unless a committee substitute of a bill or resolution being considered by a committee is distributed to members of that committee no later than the day prior to the committee meeting, the committee substitute shall be carried over to the next day unless a majority of the members of that committee present and voting vote to take up the measure at that time. The bill or resolution, as amended, or its adopted committee substitute shall be placed on the calendar for the next legislative day or re-referred if the bill or resolution was serially referred. The committee substitute's original bill or resolution shall lie on the table.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this rule, a committee substitute for a simple resolution shall be placed on the calendar for the next legislative day for a vote on its adoption.

RULE 46. Unfavorable report by committee. – (a) All bills reported unfavorably by the committee to which they were referred, and having no minority report, shall lie upon the table but may be taken from the table and placed upon the calendar by a two-thirds vote of the membership of the Senate present and voting.

(b) When a bill is reported by a committee with an unfavorable report, but accompanied by a minority report, signed by at least three members of the committee who were present and who voted on the bill when the bill was considered in committee, then the minority report shall be placed on the calendar and considered the following day, and the question before the Senate shall be: "The adoption of the minority report." If the minority report is adopted by a majority vote of the membership of the Senate, the bill shall be placed upon the calendar; if the minority report is not adopted, the bill shall lie upon the table.

No petition may be circulated for signatures until 10 legislative days after the bill has been referred to the committee. No petition may be circulated for signature until notice has been given on the floor of the Senate that the petition is to be circulated. If such a motion accompanied by a valid petition is filed, the Principal Clerk shall place that motion on the calendar for the next legislative day as a special order of business. If the motion is adopted by two-thirds of the members of the Senate, then the committee to which the bill or resolution has been referred is discharged from further consideration of the bill or resolution, and that bill or resolution is placed on the calendar for the next legislative day as a special order of business. If the committee had, prior to discharge, adopted any amendment or committee substitute for the bill, it shall be in order to offer that amendment or substitute on the floor as if it were a committee amendment or substitute. The Principal Clerk shall provide a form for discharge petitions.

(c) This rule shall not be temporarily suspended.

RULE 51. Special orders. – Any bill or other matter in consideration before the Senate may be made a special order for a subsequent day or hour by a vote of the majority of the Senators voting, and if action on the bill is not completed on that day, it shall be returned to its place on the calendar, unless it is made a special order for another day; and when a special order is under consideration it shall take precedence over any special order or subsequent order for the day, but such subsequent order may be taken up immediately after the previous special order has been disposed of.

RULE 52. Procedure when necessary number of Senators not present. – If, on taking the question on a bill, it appears that a constitutional quorum is not present, or if the bill requires a vote of a certain proportion of all the Senators to pass it, and it appears that such number is not present, the bill shall be again read and the question taken thereon; if the bill fails a second time for the want of the necessary number being present and voting, the bill shall not be finally lost but shall be returned to the calendar in its proper order.

RULE 53. Effect of defeated measure. – (a) After a bill has been tabled, or has failed to pass on any of its readings, the contents of such bill or the principal provisions of its subject matter shall not be embodied in any other measure. After an amendment has been tabled or defeated on the Senate floor, the contents of such amendment or the principal provisions of its subject matter shall not be embodied in any other measure. If a substitute amendment is adopted on the floor, the contents of the previously pending amendment which are not contained in the substitute shall be considered to have been defeated. Upon the point of order being raised and sustained by the Presiding Officer, such measure shall be laid upon the table and shall not be taken therefrom except by a vote of two-thirds of the membership of the Senate present and voting: Provided, no local bill shall be held by the Presiding Officer as embodying the provisions of, or being identical with, any statewide measure which has been laid upon the table or failed to pass any of its readings.

Amending titles of bills. – When a bill is materially modified or the scope of its application extended or decreased, or if the county or counties to which it applies is changed, the title of the bill shall be changed by the Senator introducing the bill or by the committee having it in charge, or by the Principal Clerk, so as to indicate the full purport of the bill as amended and the county or counties to which it applies.

RULE 56. Corrections of typographical errors in bills. – The Enrolling Clerk is authorized to make corrections of typographical errors in the text of bills at any time prior to ratification. - (1) Report the bill with the recommendation either that the Senate do concur or that the Senate do not concur; and
- (2) Advise the Presiding Officer as to whether or not the amendment or committee substitute is a material amendment under Article II, Section 23, of the State's Constitution.

(d) If the amendment or committee substitute for a bill is not a material amendment, the question before the Senate shall be concurrence. In the event there is more than one House amendment, the question shall be concurrence in all the House amendments, and the question may not be divided, notwithstanding Rule 28. The question which shall be put before the Senate by the Presiding Officer shall be: "Does the Senate concur in the House amendments (committee substitute) to S.B. ___?"

(e) If the amendment or committee substitute for a bill is a material amendment, the receiving of that bill on messages shall constitute first reading, and the question before the Senate shall be concurrence on second reading. If the motion is passed, the question then shall be concurrence on third reading on the next legislative day.

(f) No committee substitute adopted by the House to a bill originating in the Senate may be amended by the Senate.

Senate conferees shall include the primary sponsor of the bill. In considering the bill committed to the conferees, only such matters as are germane to the bill shall be considered by the conferees, and the conference report shall deal only with such matters. ELECTION OF OFFICER ESTABLISHED BY THE SENATE RULES

Pursuant to Senate Rule 65, the President declares the floor open to receive nominations for Deputy President Pro Tempore and recognizes Senator Malone who offers the following nomination and remarks:

“Thank you, Madame President and ladies and gentlemen of the Senate and those of you who are visiting with us today. I am extremely pleased and honored to place in nomination for Deputy President Pro Tempore of the Senate Senator Charlie Dannelly from Charlotte. Senator Dannelly has shown through his years of service here that he truly believes in what is best for all the citizens of the State of North Carolina and not those who come from his district only. Charlie Dannelly is serious about being a Senator and will be serious about being the Deputy President Pro Tempore. Senator Dannelly is in his place when this Senate is called to order. He is not one who wanders the halls and comes in late and wants to have some corrections made. He is very serious about that. He has demonstrated leadership not only back home, but he has demonstrated that leadership here in the Senate Chamber. Senator Dannelly is a man of honesty and integrity and dignity and statesmanship. He understands, as well or better than most of us, that the Deputy President Pro Tempore is to work closely to unite the Senate and not to divide it. I am honored and pleased to place Charlie Dannelly’s name in nomination and ask for your support. ”

The Chair recognizes Senator Garrou who seconds the nomination and offers the following remarks:

“Thank you, Madame President and ladies and gentlemen of the Senate and guests. You learn a lot about people when you work with them in committee assignments and stay late in the afternoon and into the early evening. Senator Charlie Dannelly has led a life of service from the days when he was jumping out of airplanes in Korea and serving as a principal in Charlotte and working on the City Council and then in the Senate. I have been so honored and appreciate the opportunity that I have had to serve with him and to learn about him and to learn about his love for his community, the love of his wife, the love of his family, and the belief that he has what we need to do all that we can to lift others up. In my family we had a saying and motto that ‘To those much has been given, much was expected.’ I certainly believe Senator Dannelly lives and exemplifies those words. Madame President, I would urge all of you in the Senate to support Senator Dannelly’s nomination and I move that the nominations be closed and that Senator Charlie Dannelly be elected by acclamation. Thank you.”

The motion offered by Senator Garrou that the nominations be closed and that Senator Dannelly be elected Deputy President Pro Tempore by acclamation prevails.

The President declares Senator Charlie Dannelly duly elected Deputy President Pro Tempore and appoints Senator Malone, Senator Garrou, Senator Clodfelter, Senator Dorsett, and Senator Graham to escort the Deputy President

January 24, 2007

Pro Tempore-Elect to the Well of the Senate. Senator Malone presents Senator Dannelly to the President. The President directs the Sergeant-at-Arms to escort Mrs. Rose Dannelly to the Well of the Senate where she joins Senator Dannelly as he receives the prescribed Oath of Office. The Honorable Yvonne Mims Evans, Resident Superior Court Judge, Judicial District 26, administers the prescribed Oath of Office.

The President recognizes Senator Dannelly, Deputy President Pro Tempore, who offers the following remarks:

“Thank you, Madame President and President Pro Tempore Basnight, members of the Senate, and citizens of this great State. I want to first give honor to God for my presence here this day. I want to thank my best friend and my most avid supporter for over fifty years for putting up with me, my wife, Rose. I want to thank her best friend who sorta helps me out, I guess, when I am in trouble who accompanied her here today, Mrs. Barbara Waymer, and, of course, my family members who are absent, but you can bet they support me in all my endeavors. I thank my constituents for sending me back again and to you, Senators, for your vote of confidence in this office. Again, I would like to thank Judge Yvonne Mims Evans, whom I’ve known for about thirty years, for taking time out of her busy schedule to come and administer this oath. And to my nominators and my escorts, I thank you. I promise you I will be short. I want to touch on just two issues. In the past I have asked this Chamber to be mindful of those citizens who need State participation in the affairs of their well-being - children, senior citizens, the mentally and physically disabled. Ladies and gentlemen, we must do better than we have done in the past. Our efforts have been far less, far less than the need. As a result of that, our mental health dilemmas have increased significantly. Now I don’t need to bore you with statistics because you read the newspaper. We have been taking a whipping for the last several years because of this. Not only that, if you want more information, the consultant’s report is available to all if you have not read it. I urge you to join the Legislative Oversight Committee on Mental Health, Developmental Disabilities and Substance Abuse Services in our effort to make significant improvements in service delivery to this population this year and I am certain that Senator Nesbitt will back me and you on that. My second issue. I am told that J. C. Watts said at one time, ‘Character is doing the right thing, when nobody is looking.’ I say, however, that character is doing the right thing when everybody is looking. That is also good, especially when the right thing is controversial. I don’t believe there is one member of this Chamber who wants to see a person die for a crime that he or she did not commit and you know what, it happens in this Country. It happens. As we deliberate this Session, please give serious consideration to doing the right thing until the justice system dealing with the death penalty is error-proof. I urge you to think strongly on that because if you take a life and it’s wrong, you cannot give it back. Finally, in closing, let me thank all of you members and your families for the sacrifice you are making and the dedication that you are showing in serving the citizens of this State. May God Bless all of you.”

ELECTION OF STATUTORY OFFICERS

Pursuant to G.S. 120.37, the President declares the floor open to receive nominations for the Office of Principal Clerk.

The President recognizes Senator Weinstein who offers the following nomination and remarks:

“Thank you, Madame President. Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, I rise to place in nomination Janet Pruitt for Senate Principal Clerk. Janet has served in this Chamber since 1997. During that time she has assembled a very competent staff, updated the technology in the Senate, she has flawlessly managed thousands of bills and amendments that we file each year. Her staff makes us look good. I have always appreciated her professionalism and discretion in doing her job. Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, it is my honor to nominate Janet Pruitt for the North Carolina State Senate Principal Clerk.”

The President recognizes Senator Garrou who seconds the nomination and offers the following remarks:

“Thank you. Senator Weinstein, I don’t know if anybody can make us look good sometimes but if that is possible, Janet Pruitt can do that. To all of you new members who are here today, Janet will become your best friend because there will be issues and concerns that you have that she can help clear out. What a wonderful staff she has, what a professional staff and a dedicated staff. The amazing thing is when we are in the middle of fretting and furling about bills and legislation, she always has a smile on her face, she is always competent, and she is always careful and friendly with her suggestions to us and, Madame President, I would urge that the nominations be closed and that Janet Pruitt be elected Principal Clerk by acclamation. Thank you.”

The motion by Senator Garrou that the nominations be closed and that Janet Pruitt be elected Principal Clerk of the 2007 Senate by acclamation prevails. The President declares Janet Pruitt duly elected and appoints Senator Dalton, Senator Bingham, and Senator Dorsett to escort the Principal Clerk-elect, Janet Pruitt, to the Well of the Senate. The Honorable Elaine Marshall, Secretary of State of North Carolina, administers the prescribed Oath of Office and the President directs the Principal Clerk to assume her seat.

The President declares the floor open to receive nominations for the Office of Reading Clerk. The President recognizes Senator Swindell who offers the following nomination and remarks:

“Madame President, I rise to submit a nomination for the name of Ted Harrison, our present Reading Clerk, as Reading Clerk for the State Senate. Ted is a native of Eden, North Carolina and a graduate of the University of North Carolina. He worked in television for more than thirty years where he began reporting the 1967 General Assembly for WFMY-TV in Greensboro. He then became a producer for the Legislative Report for UNC-TV. I am pleased to nominate my friend, Ted Harrison, for Reading Clerk.”

January 24, 2007

The President recognizes Senator Albertson who seconds the nomination and offers the following remarks:

“Madame President and members of the Senate, I am very pleased to second the nomination of Ted Harrison as Senate Reading Clerk. Ted has served for two terms in this position and I believe we just about have him broken in. A third term should get him just about right. I have known Ted since my early days in the General Assembly and, believe he is indeed a good choice for us. Even though, Madame President, he seems to have trimmed back his beard just a little bit, this man knows a lot of good country songs and I think that makes him just about right. Madame President, I move that we close the nominations and accept Ted Harrison by acclamation.”

The motion offered by Senator Albertson that the nominations be closed and that Ted Harrison be elected Reading Clerk of the 2007 Senate by acclamation prevails. The President declares Ted Harrison duly elected and appoints Senator Albertson, Senator Kerr, Senator Nesbitt and Senator Stevens to escort the Reading Clerk-elect to the Well of the Senate. Senator Albertson is recognized and presents the Reading Clerk-elect, Ted Harrison. The Honorable Robert C. Hunter, Judge, North Carolina Court of Appeals, administers the prescribed Oath of Office and the President directs the Reading Clerk to assume his seat.

The President declares the floor open to receive nominations for the Office of Sergeant-at-Arms. The President recognizes Senator Rand who offers the following nomination and remarks:

“Thank you Madame President and ladies and gentlemen of the Senate. It is my privilege today to nominate Cecil Goins for the position of Sergeant-At-Arms of the North Carolina Senate. Cecil is a native of the Sandhills of North Carolina and attended and graduated from North Carolina A&T State University. He served as a commissioned officer with the Big Red One in the United States Army. He had a distinguished career as Deputy United States Marshal. He has been elected to seven terms as the North Carolina Senate Sergeant-At-Arms. He has great respect for the members and positions of our body. He is a distinguished gentleman and a son of North Carolina. It is my pleasure to place in nomination the name of Cecil Goins.”

The President recognizes Senator Malone who seconds the nomination and offers the following remarks:

“Madame President, the Senate does its job well because we have a great staff and the greatest among those is the Sergeant-At-Arms. I am not sure we would do very much in here and do it well without that assistance and leadership and, of course, Cecil Goins has had that responsibility for a long period of time. We need the best and in Cecil Goins we will get the best. I would urge you to vote for Cecil and I move that the nominations be closed and that he be elected by acclamation.”

January 24, 2007

The motion offered by Senator Malone that the nominations be closed and that Cecil Goins be elected Sergeant-at-Arms of the 2007 Senate by acclamation prevails. The President declares Cecil Goins duly elected and appoints Senator Blake, Senator Hartsell, Senator Malone, and Senator Soles to escort the Sergeant-at-Arms-elect, Cecil Goins. The Honorable James A. Wynn, Jr., Judge, North Carolina Court of Appeals, administers the prescribed Oath of Office and the President directs the Sergeant-at-Arms to assume his seat.

REMARKS BY THE LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR

The President of the Senate, the Honorable Beverly E. Perdue, offers the following remarks:

“Members of the Senate, as we are about to get to the end of the program, I thank you for coming and I, as the presiding officer, would like to say an official welcome to this one-hundred and forty-seventh opening session of the North Carolina General Assembly. As we end up this wonderful day of a new beginning, I would like for all of us to pause as Senator Basnight did in his wonderful speech out of respect and thanks for the thousands of brave Americans who are fighting in Iraq and Afghanistan to say a special thank you and a word of prayer and there are thousands of those soldiers, more than any other State, that call North Carolina home. As we speak, we have eleven thousand National Guardsmen and women in Iraq and Afghanistan and we send to them and to their families our prayers and our hopes and our thanks. We know that this week another round of major deployments will leave for the surge and we ask you to include those folks in your prayers. Pause for just a second if you would. (Pause) Thank you. I really personally want to welcome the five new Senators who are taking part in your first opening day or are coming back to the Senate for a new session or joining the Senate from the House. We look forward to working with you. It's exciting, it's a good Body. I call it my second family and I believe that you will, too, after you serve here for a while. And to all of the family members who are here, former Senators and new Senators, we just thank you for giving your person, your Senator, to the people of North Carolina to work for us because you give up as much as they give up and we know it's a family business, serving in politics. It is a kind of bitter-sweet day for me. I joined the Body, as Marc said, in 1988. He was a little bit ahead of me. This is my last session so it has been kind of an interesting day and I would really like to take just a bit of a privilege and call my family's names because they have put up with this stuff for a long time. My wonderful husband, Bob Eaves, who is still fooled by how great I am. Bob, thank you so much. I don't ask too much, you don't have to clap for all of them separately. You can clap for all of them at one time. My oldest son, Garrett, who we think was ten, nearly eleven, when we started, and now he is thirty, Garrett and his new wife who is with child. I'm going to be a DNA grandmother, Bob. We already have four, but April is pregnant. And my wonderful young son, Emmett, on the back here who was seven when we started and he made the front page of the News and Observer in 1988 because he was so bored he was looking at his Mickey Mouse watch wanting to get out of Dodge. I thank the four of you for your love and support. I couldn't do this without you. I also have on the back row Anne Canady and Sharon Nelson who are just like sisters and they are as good as it gets. They are state employees and we are lucky to have them. Thank all of you. I want to offer my support to the folks you just elected. Senator Basnight is like a brother to me. I thank you for your friendship and your family's friendship. Deputy President Pro Tempore, Charlie Dannelly, is one good guy. We thank him and his family for serving the people of this State. Majority Leader and Rules Chair, Tony Rand, is as bright as it gets and has the best wit in North Carolina. Karen, thank you for letting us share him. Some days I want to send him back to you but we thank you for his service. Phil Berger, the Minority Leader and Majority Whip, Katie Dorsett, we thank you and all the other officers for what you are about to do. We have a lot of challenges still ahead of us and the people in this State have put their trust and their faith in each of us. We know we have so much to be proud of. In the early fifties, North Carolina was the second poorest state in America and you know the rest of the story. We are the second largest financial center in the Country, the third largest biotechnology community in the Country and you heard about Site Selection Magazine. Five out of the last six years they say we are absolutely tops. All of those rankings didn't just happen. A lot of you and your predecessors made them happen. We have done very well as a State and as a people as we have transitioned this last six years from a society of culture wrapped around manufacturing and textiles and tobacco to high tech, knowledge based economy jobs. The people of our great State, they elected you, they trust you, and they trust me. They believe that we are going to find solutions, long-term solutions,

January 24, 2007

not just for this session, but things that will define the place this State will play long after we are all gone. Strategic planning, this State has had a tremendously visionary Government that believed in one thing, one common thing. Education was always the great equalizer in North Carolina and again Senator Basnight spoke to this Body's tremendous commitment to public schools and to community colleges and to the university system. I know that each of you are committed to carrying that tradition forward because we know that without a doubt that the primary challenge for this great State in the twenty-first century is to remain globally competitive and the only way we can do that from Murphy to Manteo is to provide a quality education for all of our kids that is the strongest, singular competitive advantage that North Carolina has. My goal, and I hope yours, is to have the best educated workforce in the world living right here in the old Tarheel State. Long gone are the classrooms that you and I knew, the chalkboard and the blackboard. All of that is history. Today we have twenty-first century learning centers that need the latest technology to connect them and us to the world because really in this State, education is the cornerstone of a great democracy and I would suggest to you that if education is the cornerstone, then our working families across North Carolina are the foundation. They represent the true spirit of the people of this State. Get to know them if you don't. They believe in their bones in opportunity that all things are possible and it is up to you, to us, to make their belief a reality. They count on us to do that for them. The Members of this great Senate Body and the General Assembly have faced big challenges and they have conquered big challenges over the history of this State. Two-hundred and thirty years ago there were people sitting here just like you are here today, getting sworn in. Think about the footprints across the history of this State. North Carolina is a better State, I believe, because Senators just like you, for two-hundred and thirty years, have made hard, progressive choices in times of feast and in times of famine. So today, January 24, 2007, is a beginning. It is a real beginning for each of you, for me, for us, and for the people of North Carolina. I know that we will all put away the harsh campaign rhetoric that we hate. We will move to common ground and will work for what works for North Carolina. Across this State, think of it this morning, there are people who are so proud of you. They voted for you, they worked for you. They are so proud that you are sitting here representing them. In every town in all one-hundred counties and all of the regions, they believe and know that they can trust you for leadership and courage to do what is right, not what is popular. They are counting on you and me to make sure that North Carolina is a place to be where everybody has a chance to be somebody, poor and rich alike. Everybody has a chance to be somebody in this great State where we have a twenty-first century economy and infrastructure that can support the four million new people that we know are going to move to this State in the next twenty years. They count on us for good schools, good jobs, health care, clean water and air and they don't care much how we make the decisions or how we get it done. They just want us to do our jobs and make their lives possible. The stakes are high for us in these early days of the twenty-first century, but wow, the opportunities are limitless, defined only by the girth and strength of those of us who serve here today. So as the speeches end and the real work starts later this week, I want to say on behalf of the nearly nine million people who elected me to be their Lieutenant Governor and yours, I thank you as a taxpayer and as a citizen for what you have done, for what you are about to do, and on behalf of those people, we really are appreciative. Have a great session and God Bless.”

January 24, 2007

Upon motion of Senator Basnight, seconded by Senator Rand, the Senate adjourns at 2:03 P.M. to meet Thursday, January 25, at 11:00 A.M.

SECOND DAY

Senate Chamber
Thursday, January 25, 2007

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Beverly E. Perdue, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Dear God, Mrs. Holloman's opening prayer yesterday graciously and fittingly petitioned for you to be present in all the Senate's proceedings. We are grateful for her prayer and for your presence. But I guess it befalls the everyday Chaplain to remind the Senate family of our humanity that on some days a single voice will cry out from the wilderness, like John the Baptizer, a voice of earnest dissent or advocacy that goes against the majority. When that happens may the words not be spoken with an attitude seen depicted on a bumper sticker recently, which said, 'I love God, my family, and the rest of you can just go to Hades'. Instead let us speak and listen with respect and grace ever mindful that the truth is best achieved in the exercise of community within this family. For your sake and for goodness's sake, Amen."

The Chair grants a leave of absence for today to Senator Kerr.

Senator Basnight, President Pro Tempore, announces that the Journal of Wednesday, January 24, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Journal and it stands approved as written.

The Chair extends privileges of the floor to Ann Newman from Charlotte, North Carolina, who is serving the Senate as Nurse of the Day.

SPECIAL MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The following special message is received from the House of Representatives:

House of Representatives
January 24, 2007

Madame President:

H.J.R. 5, A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING THE LIFE AND MEMORY OF BERNARD ALLEN, SR., FORMER MEMBER OF THE NORTH CAROLINA GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Upon motion of Senator Rand, the Rules are suspended and the House Joint Resolution is placed before the Senate for immediate consideration.

Upon motion of Senator Malone, the joint resolution is read in its entirety. Upon motion of Senator Malone, the remarks of the members are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator Malone:

“Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, I don’t know that I can say anything that is not embodied in this resolution. This resolution speaks explicitly to the life of Bernard Allen. We were friends and traveled in the same kinds of circles, but I knew of nobody who was more committed to what he believed in than Bernard Allen. He absolutely would not give an inch, not an inch if he thought he was right. He was a very, very strong family man. Anytime you met him he wanted to tell you something about his wife, Vivian. He loved Vivian, he loved his children, he loved his grandchildren and he went places with them. He was a great, great family man and he was excited about his new third term in the North Carolina House of Representatives. My last conversation with him had to do with some legislation that he very much wanted to introduce this session and I think he told me that he was already drafting some things and wanted me to have a look at it because he wanted me to be his co-sponsor in this Chamber. He is going to be missed and he is going to be missed a great deal. I would encourage the Members of the Senate to support this resolution.”

February 5, 2007

Senator Stevens:

“Members of the Senate, Representative Allen was a very, very fine member of the Wake County delegation. I will never forget the day that I first met him. Senator Malone worked with him for many, many years in other capacities. I didn’t really know him, but the day I went down to file for office he was there. Filing had opened at noon and he had been there since 8:30 that morning. He wanted to be the first person to file. He was that anxious to serve this House and serve this General Assembly because he cared about the people of Wake County, the people that he represented and the issues for which he cared so much about. I heard in the resolution about his great concern for education. I don’t remember a conversation with Bernard Allen in which he wouldn’t talk about education, either public schools or universities. He cared deeply about those issues and he cared deeply about people that he served. He will be missed in the Wake County delegation and he will be missed in the General Assembly.”

Senator Rand:

“Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, I don’t remember exactly when I met Bernard Allen. I’ve known him for a long time and he was a passionate advocate for education. He was a passionate advocate for the Secretary of State’s Office. Whatever he involved himself in he did it with his heart and with his soul. He worked to make our State a better place. He worked to make the condition of man better and I think we will certainly all miss him and his place will always be known as one who was an advocate for the people and for the betterment of life. Thank you, Mr. President.”

Senator Cowell:

“I wanted to pay tribute to Representative Allen. One of the last times I was on the Shaw radio station, they had said that he had been sick for a while and had called into the radio station from the hospital to make sure that he donated his membership monies to the ongoing jazz station that they have there, WSHA, and that was just one example of the type of person that he was. He would show up at city council meetings when Senator Hunt and I were on the city council and he would get active in neighborhood issues in addition to his State service. So I just wanted to pay tribute to his family and Representative Allen.”

Senator Dalton:

“Thank you, Mr. President and Members of the Senate. I rise to speak for myself and also my good friend, Dean Westmoreland. Dean ran for this seat in 1994 and was a former president of NCAE and when I was elected and came down here in 1997 he told me to look up his good friend, Bernard Allen. I had been here for a little over a week and I did not have to look up Bernard Allen. Bernard came by to see me. He was lobbying for NCAE at that time. We became good friends and even better friends after he began to serve in the House. Whenever you met Bernard Allen he always had a smile on his face, he always had something uplifting to say and he would always talk about education. That was his passion. His passing was a true shock to all of us, but I will always remember him as a good personal friend and also a friend to education.”

February 5, 2007

Senator Basnight:

“He was a person who cared a great deal for others. He was passionate about his wish that all people would be educated and he was a person that I thought a great deal of. It is obvious from the views that I was not alone and that we all felt that way.”

Senator Dannelly:

“Thank you, Mr. President. I was sitting, trying to think of something that was not in the resolution but as Senator Malone said, it captured the life of Bernard pretty thoroughly. I met Bernard about thirty or thirty-five years ago. When I was an educator in Mecklenburg County, I ran across this young man who had a lot of pep to his step and looked you straight in the eye and told you what was on his mind and what was going through my mind is who is this little young upstart. But it didn’t take long to find out who he was. As everyone said, he was always the same. He was upbeat and he lifted your spirit when you met him because he spoke to you the way he meant it. He really greeted you with a warm heart. Bernard never, in my opinion, met a stranger. He was always ready to help those who needed help and he did it with a passion. Over all these years, I watched Bernard grow strong in the way he represented his job, educators, poor people, anybody who needed representing. In all of those years there is something that he didn’t tell me. I take a little issue with what Senator Malone said. During the first year of his first session, this General Assembly was invited to Wilmington for an outing to see how Wilmington was doing and took a little boat excursion. And that is when, out of all these years, I met Vivian. Now he didn’t tell everybody about Vivian because he certainly didn’t tell me and I had known him for about thirty years. But when I met her, I thought to myself, I can see why he kept her a secret from some of us. She is beautiful, she is charming, she is the wind beneath his wings and she allowed him to be who he was. She was the star in his crown. Vivian, we will all miss him. I urge you to support this resolution.”

Senator Preston:

“Thank you, Mr. President. I had good experiences with Representative Bernard Allen. We sat across the aisle from each other and I often had personal conversations about children. I served on the Education Committee with him and I can tell you I saw that passion, Senator Malone and Senator Dannelly.

February 5, 2007

Some of the special study committees we served on had to do with the dropout rate and he and I both shared real concerns about the state of the dropout rate in North Carolina. He also worked with me on some special education bills and he truly did care about those who needed help the most and I hope as we go into this Session this year that we will give serious consideration to trying to do something about the dropout rate and you will see some bills coming over from the committee in the House on special education needs and I hope you will remember Bernard Allen and his desire. Senator Malone, I guarantee you one of those bills had to do with the seriousness about dropout rate. Thank you for allowing me to speak and I hope you will join us all in voting for this resolution. Thank you.”

The joint resolution passes its second reading (41-0) and third reading with members standing and is ordered enrolled.

Upon motion of Senator Malone the Chair extends the courtesies of the gallery to Mrs. Vivian Allen, wife of Bernard Allen; Bernard Allen, Jr., son; Andre Allen, son; Chip Allen, grandson; Roderick Bellfield, nephew; and Mr. and Mrs. Al Perry.

Upon motion of Senator Dannelly, seconded by Senator Rand, the Senate adjourns at 8:17 P.M. to meet Tuesday, February 6, at 2:30 P.M.

EIGHTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Tuesday, February 6, 2007

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Marc Basnight, President Pro Tempore, who presides in the absence of the Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"The African-American women in that makeshift building that used to be their church in Pearlinton, Mississippi served lunch to us last week. We had come there to help rebuild their church, homes and lives in the aftermath of Hurricane Katrina. Though this Bayou village and its people were largely overlooked and forgotten for months by disaster relief help, these women have faithfully served hot, home-cooked meals everyday for the past fifteen months to anyone who might have found their way to offer assistance in Pearlinton. When the aging black woman stood with an eloquent voice and began to sing a spontaneous acapella version of 'Take my hand, lead me Lord,' those of us who went to offer a blessing, received the blessing. I began my personal celebration of Black History Month sometime during the first unforgettable stanza of her song. Continue to be the source of their exemplary strength of spirit and character. Amen."

The Chair grants leaves of absence for today to Senator Cowell, Senator Dannelly, Senator Lucas and Senator Malone.

TENTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Thursday, February 8, 2007

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Charlie Dannelly, Deputy President Pro Tempore, who presides in the absence of the Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Our Father, it seems the world would judge us strictly by what we accomplish. But your kingdom's business, O Lord, is measured by a different standard. It is not what we accomplish but what we overcome that really matters. We pray for those in the Senate and their families who are facing some pretty big obstacles, Senator Lucas, Senator Basnight's wife. We know that there are some unanswered prayers so far and there are others in the Senate family who may also have some very different obstacles right now. Help them and us even against great odds to be overcomers in spirit. Then we shall experience a peace that passes all understanding no matter our circumstances. Amen."

February 8, 2007

The Chair grants leaves of absence for today to Senator Apodaca, Senator Brunstetter, Senator Garrou, Senator Lucas, Senator Malone, Senator Smith, Senator Soles and Senator Weinstein.

ELEVENTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Monday, February 12, 2007

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Beverly E. Perdue, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"We pray your blessings and guidance on the Senate's proceedings this week, O God, a week beginning on a day when we honor the memory of President Abraham Lincoln on his birthday. Each of us here has a favorite Lincoln story or quote, but nothing Mr. Lincoln said gets at the heart of being an elected official and servant of the people more poignantly than these words he offered to the Missouri Committee of Seventy in 1864. He said, 'I desire so to conduct the affairs of this administration that if at the end when I come to lay down the reigns of power I have lost every other friend on earth, I shall have at least one friend left and that friend shall be down inside of me.' So grateful of his reflection, O Lord, Amen."

The Chair grants leaves of absence for tonight to Senator Apodaca, Senator Berger of Rockingham, Senator Jenkins, Senator Kinnaird and Senator Lucas.

Senator Basnight, President Pro Tempore, announces that the Journal of Thursday, February 8, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Journal and it stands approved as written.

The Chair extends privileges of the floor to Dr. Warner Hall from Raleigh, North Carolina, who is serving the Senate as Doctor of the Day, and to Justine Nixon from Durham, North Carolina, who is serving the Senate as Nurse of the Day.

SENATE PAGES

The Chair recognizes the following pages serving in the Senate this week:

Jonathan Beasley, Edenton; Justin Clinard, Charlotte; LaRoy Dubois II, Greensboro; Jennifer Hodshon, Cary; Brittney Jackson, King; Kenneth Lathan, Raeford; Ian O'Gorman, Clayton; Kari Strickland, Ellenboro; and Erica Vines, Durham.

TWELFTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Tuesday, February 13, 2007

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Beverly E. Perdue, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Dear God, remembering that Jacob wrestled all night with an angel and that Jesus in Gethsemane prayed, 'Let this cup pass from me...', we pray today for the women and men in Congress who begin debate today on the Iraq war. No matter what each of us believes is the right course of action, most Americans are conflicted by the complexity of this struggle. The Members here know how gut wrenching decision-making can be before the yes or no buttons are pressed to record their vote. Give Congress during their deliberation wisdom and be a source of strength to our men and women who serve so bravely in Iraq. May thy will be done. Amen."

The Chair grants leaves of absence for today to Senator Apodaca, Senator Kerr, Senator Lucas and Senator Purcell.

Senator Basnight, President Pro Tempore, announces that the Journal of Monday, February 12, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Journal and it stands approved as written.

The Chair extends privileges of the floor to Dr. Eric Mason from Raleigh, North Carolina, who is serving the Senate as Doctor of the Day, and to Gretchen Wallace from Chapel Hill, North Carolina, who is serving the Senate as Nurse of the Day.

Senate Chamber
Thursday, February 15, 2007

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Marc Basnight, President Pro Tempore, who presides in the absence of the Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Dear Lord, I've never known the right answer to the riddle, 'When a tree falls in an uninhabited forest, does it make a sound?' But a tree has fallen and I do know that whether friend or foe, every person in the Senate has some empathy whether spoken or in silence for Jim Black. We pray for him today because you have taught us to do so. Now grant the Senators rest and renewal over the coming weekend that they may return to serve with enthusiasm and without blemish. In your holy name we pray, Amen."

The Chair grants leaves of absence for today to Senator Graham, Senator Jones and Senator Lucas.

Senator Dannelly, Deputy President Pro Tempore, announces that the Journal of Wednesday, February 14, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Journal and it stands approved as written.

Easley, who delivers the State-of-the-State Address to the 2007 General Assembly.

STATE-OF-THE-STATE ADDRESS

“Mr. Speaker Hackney, Senator Basnight, Lieutenant Governor Perdue, Members of the General Assembly, Chief Justice Parker, Members of the Supreme Court, Members of the Court of Appeals, Council of State and Cabinet, honored guests and fellow citizens, before I get too far along, I want to recognize my family and thank Mary and Michael for their love and support. Thank you for being here again tonight. If you are wondering what goes through a Governor’s mind in the State of the State address, I always worry that I’m going to come in and recognize my family and Mary hasn’t shown up. But she stuck with me this long.

“Tonight, it is my honor to deliver my final State of the State Address. It is much easier than the first one in 2001, because our State is stronger.

We have taken the toughest blows that a national recession and federal trade policy could offer and we are not only surviving in this new world economy, we are thriving in it. Because of your hard work and discipline, we turned a $2.5 billion shortfall into years of budget surplus.

We have 300,000 more North Carolinians employed today than we did six years ago.

February 19, 2007

“Our schools have lower class size and higher test scores. Six years ago, we had no pre-K program in North Carolina. Today, we have almost 20,000 four-year-olds in More at Four and we are adding 10,000 more this year and with this budget, we will raise teacher pay by 18 percent since 2005 and we are not through yet. We fully funded low-wealth schools, sent turn around teams into failing schools, and we are auditing every school in this State to ensure full accountability for every education dollar you spend.

“Our progress is not always measured by how many new programs we start, or how much new money we spend. At this point, given how aggressive you have been, some of our success has to be measured by how well we reap what we have sown. We have planted seeds of success all across this great State and we must see them to fruition. Progress is not always about planting new crops, it is often about tending the current harvest and increasing the yield. Now having said that I did bring a little bit of seed corn with me tonight just in case you have some ambition.

“We have worked together closely as all good governments should. We may serve in different branches, but we all share the same roots. I know progress has not always been easy. If it was, it could have been done by lesser people. But it has always been a great reward.

“It is great to have the best business climate in America. It is great to have the best credit rating in America and it is great to have the most education progress in the Country. We have done well, but we cannot be satisfied with yesterday's progress. We have to represent the spirit of our people who have disdain for mediocrity and demand for excellence.

“As our soldiers sacrifice abroad, we must show that we are worthy of that sacrifice here at home. They should return to a better North Carolina than they left. Our Nation is still at war. North Carolina is experiencing the largest deployment of soldiers since World War II. We pray for their safe and speedy return. War has tragic consequences. The children of our military struggle too. That is why you funded military family support. The children sacrifice a lot and I am asking you to help them even more this year.

“Let me tell you a story. Breanna Bodden is a nine year-old honor student at South Harnett Elementary near Fort Bragg. Breanna's stepfather was deployed to Iraq. Then her mother, Rebecca, a Reservist, was called up and was deployed to Iraq. And most recently, her father was also deployed to Iraq. She is living with Deborah Clark, a family friend. Breanna's situation is not all that unique. It is one of the consequences of war. But, Breanna is with us tonight and her mom and her dad and her stepfather are all watching live from Iraq. Breanna, I want to say to you and to your family watching tonight that we are proud of everyone of you and that North Carolina will be here for you until your family is reunited. Breanna, before you sit down I want you to send them a kiss over to this camera right here.

“The true fight for the American way of life is not only in Iraq and Afghanistan. We have enemies to conquer here, as well. In this new world economy, we must fight the enemy of ignorance and illiteracy, the enemy of apathy and complacency, and the enemy of anguish and poverty.

February 19, 2007

“Protecting America means much more than just providing for the national defense. We must protect our economic security, as well. We must be committed to the patriotic duty of providing the knowledge, talent, and skill for our people to compete and win in the world marketplace. For in this global era, the unskilled nations will suffer and the skilled nations will prosper and North Carolina intends to prosper.

“North Carolina was the only state to keep the schoolhouse doors open during the Great Depression - and we must open them wider still today, for as America leads the world, North Carolina must lead the Nation. That is why working together we developed Learn and Earn early college schools. Learn and Earn allows high school students to take college courses at the high school. Students can earn a college associate's degree with just one extra year of school. Families save thousands of dollars in education costs and the graduation rate goes up. Now these schools have made national headlines, from Newsweek to CBS News and have won national awards for innovation.

“But students like Ashley Williams are what Learn and Earn is really all about. Ashley's mom asked her to go to the Learn and Earn in Durham because that was the only way she felt that she could afford for Ashley to go to college. For Ashley, college was a very distant dream. Now, she is two courses away from earning her associate's degree and she plans to try and get her bachelor's degree starting next year. Ashley is in the audience tonight. She is one of the first in her family to ever to go to college. Ashley, we are proud of you. Her future plans include a career in public service and she told CBS News that she wants to be Governor. She has two more years of college. I have two more years as Governor - it might work out! Ashley, stand up please.

“We must support Ashley's education not only because of her worth as a child of God, but we need Ashley and all the other Ashleys out there to develop and contribute their talent to build One North Carolina and a stronger America.

“There are other nations emerging, jealous of our success and position in the world. They are investing very heavily in education. They are poised to take advantage of any weakness that we allow or create. We will not let our lead in creativity and innovation erode. Let all know that this State and this Nation will make any sacrifice and invest any resource but we will never, ever surrender our position as world leader. This time in our history does not call for following the old familiar path. Now is the time to blaze a new trail so that all people of goodwill and ambition can travel that path to prosperity. I believe the path is clear.

“We obligated ourselves in our Constitution to provide for K through 12 education. But that same document requires us to offer college education as free as practical and, in this new world, it is impractical not to offer college education to every citizen. As more of our students receive an advanced degree, North Carolina becomes stronger. College graduates earn 60 percent more than high school graduates. They generate more wealth, they generate more revenue and they generate more innovation, and we secure our place as a leader in the world economy. I have worked with Learn and Earn schools like Ashley's. Right now we have 75 across the State. That is good, but it is not enough. My budget will include support to take Learn and Earn early college statewide. We are changing the delivery system for education in this State. Just as Breanna was able to send her love to her parents in a split second with technology, we are able to send the education out of the University of North Carolina to every student in every corner of every County in this State and it is only fair that every student have an opportunity to take college-level courses and earn that associate's degree at their high school and we can do it for free.

“The time for timidity has passed. The time for action has come. So let us be bold and aggressive and set the goal that all students can earn an associate's degree in college by the time they leave school. President Erskine Bowles of the University of North Carolina System and Martin Lancaster with the Community College System and State Board Chair Howard Lee have worked tirelessly and gotten this program up and running. They are our model for the kind of partnership it takes to build a seamless education. Gentlemen, the parents thank you, the students thank you and tonight, we thank you.

“But there is more. To middle and high schoolers and their families across the State, I say to you tonight - you can all get a four-year college degree in North Carolina. Our tuition is one of the lowest in the Nation and we are going to keep it low. We have increased financial aid for needy students every year. This legislature now provides almost $300 million in college aid every year. We have come this far so that we can finish the job this year. Just as other generations have sacrificed so that we might prosper, our generation will do no less. My budget will provide students in low- and moderate-income families with a grant for a college education. But students, I want you to hear me clearly. This plan is no free lunch. You have to have some skin in the game. You have to earn it. You have to achieve it. With every opportunity comes accountability. We will supply a grant, but you have to keep your grades up and be willing to work 10 hours a week. If you do, you can graduate from college in North Carolina debt free. The grant will pay for two additional years of college so students who complete the Learn and Earn associate's degree can finish college at one of our very finest state universities.

“Now, let us think about this for just a minute...let's talk about it for a minute. We are investing billions of dollars in early childhood, pre-K, lower class size, literacy coaches, teacher pay increases. We are doing all of this, not so we can maintain the status quo. We are putting more money up front so we can get better achievement out back. If we are not going to demand that, then why spend the money. We are demanding more achievement and education. We are raising the bar, we are giving more opportunity. When we give more opportunity we expect more accomplishment. The people of this State have been tested before and they have always answered the call. Today, it is the duty of every citizen to learn as much as they can so that they can compete, fiercely compete, in the world economy and it is our duty to offer that opportunity. It is the right thing to do not because our Constitution orders it, not because our economy requires it, but because our North Carolina values demand it. Education is critical to protecting America.

“But we have other obligations as well. We know that we will be judged by how we treat the least of our people. We should welcome that scrutiny. Even during the worst of times, you refused to follow the poor example of others. Many denied their most vulnerable citizens Medicaid and child health care. We did not follow Washington's example of cutting the safety net for our most needy. In fact, we replaced federal cuts for the disabled and we increased our child health care and we numbed the pain of Washington politics as much as we possibly could. We even had to replace federal cuts to foster-care families. When children enter foster care, we the State assume the role of guardian. We become their parents and we raise them. But when these children reach 18, they are set out on their own with no financial support, no health care, no higher education and no family. I believe we can do better than that. I propose that we do for them, the State's children, the same thing as we do for our own. Offer them health care until age 21 while they pursue their college education. After all, we did commit to raise these children so let us do it in a way so they can be strong and we can be proud.

“Meanwhile, we can hope that all children will have a loving family. We can help families afford the costs of adopting a child. By offering an adoption tax credit, we can provide the opportunity not only for a family to have a child, but for every child to have a family.

“We have to help families who cannot afford health care for their children. We have done it every year so far. We fully funded the Child Health Insurance Program. This stops a small problem from becoming a major illness and a major cost to us. We are never so big as when we help those who are small. We will fully fund CHIPS again this year.

“But you know now that middle class families are feeling the financial squeeze from the rising cost of health care. The N.C. Kids Care package that I will propose will cover 12,000 children in North Carolina families who earn an income of up to 300 percent of the poverty level.

This plan will require these families to pay an affordable amount and their children will have health care coverage for the first time in their lives.

“We have seen Washington shift the risk and burden in America to our low- and middle-income families. Some of them have just tried to make it through the day. It is time to reverse that trend. We must all value work and lessen the burden on hardworking people who struggle under the crushing weight of poverty. We can do it by making our tax code fairer. The principle behind it is simple. People in poverty should not pay income tax in this State. Tonight, I propose that we eliminate the income tax entirely for almost 600,000 North Carolina taxpayers and cut it in half for nearly 650,000 more. We will send a message in a loud and mighty voice that we place a premium on work and we mean for it to pay off for hard-working people. It is fair. It is just and it is affordable.

“We will never forget the greatest generation. Our seniors are having difficulty navigating Medicare D. Some of them still cannot pay the premiums. If they do not get their medication, they end up in the hospital. Now that is more suffering for them and more cost for us. So I am pleased to report to this General Assembly tonight that the plan you wanted, North Carolina Rx, is already improving the lives of 4,000 seniors and we are making room for 45,000 more this year. Our seniors built this country and they made it great. They were there for us when we needed them and we will be there for them whenever they need us.

“But you know, protecting the least of these is not just about helping those who are poor. All children should feel safe in school. My budget will add additional school safety officers to make sure that every child is protected in their school. Parents have the right to know that when they drop their children off at school in the morning, that they are leaving them in a safe environment. That is the least that we can do.

“It still takes too long for criminal cases to be prosecuted. We must build on the progress that you made last year for the courts and for law enforcement. We are adding additional prosecutors, judges, victims' assistance clerks, and we are expanding our prisons. If you commit a violent crime in this State, we are going to take you to court faster and keep you in jail longer. We are also funding more technology and communications for local law enforcement, as we have done every year since 9/11/2001.

“But you know, much has changed in those six years. Our economy is transitioning to newer and better jobs. Our economic and business climate is ranked among the best in the nation. You should be proud of what you have accomplished. You have done it with the strategy we set in 2001. We are keeping the tax burden low and the education level high. We are staying focused on creativity and innovation, America's competitive edge, and we are using smart and targeted investments. And all of our incentives must continue to be based on performance and accountability. I ask you to fund that package again this year. At the same time, we will continue to fund our research institutions, we will build regional centers for promising new opportunities across North Carolina and we will give tax relief to small businesses. There are only so many high-skill jobs out there and we have to be aggressive and stay aggressive every hour of every day until we transition our economy in every county so that every citizen who wants a better job can get a better job.

“If any of our counties are weak, then all of us are weaker for it. We must have strong state and local governments. We have to work together to help those low-wealth counties that are struggling with the high cost of Medicaid. I know that the Commission on State and Local Fiscal reform is working hard on a solution. They are due to make a recommendation to us next month. But if we do not get a timely and reasonable recommendation, we will offer our own plan. But, one way or another, we need to face and fix this problem this session.

“Our disciplined nature must extend to energy use, as well. We want this Country to be energy independent and small steps that we can take make a big difference. We have saved millions in state government buildings by making them more energy efficient. All of us have to conserve more. We cannot just keep building more and more power plants. This year, working with the power companies, we will give people incentives. If you increase your energy efficiency then we will decrease your power bill. We will offer the best tax credits in the nation for alternative power. You know we basically have two choices. We can start working toward energy independence or we can put our Country at risk. I think we all know we must choose independence.

“Together, we have enhanced our environment by cleaning our water and cleaning our air. We have added more than 400,000 acres in state lands, from the waterfalls of Dupont Forest to the cliffs of Chimney Rock. Great natural resources are not replaceable and we will never let them be destroyed.

“Lastly, you took needed steps toward ethics and campaign reform last session. But this year and every year to come, there will always be more work to be done and more improvements to be made. We must be mindful that democracy only works when people participate and people only participate when they have confidence in the integrity of the political process. I urge you to continue to improve and refine the good work that you have started until it fully reflects the character and the integrity of the people of North Carolina.

“So tonight, we have positioned our State well. We can never forget how we got here and what we have been through. Now is not the time to abandon fiscal discipline. We cannot over-spend, over-tax or over-borrow. Real progress must be sustainable and it must be paid for. Otherwise, the promises that we make today will have to be broken tomorrow. So fiscal discipline, education progress, care for the least of these are the hallmarks of a great State.

“I came here in 2001 when we were facing the largest budget shortfall in the history of this State, recovering from a flood of 40 of our 100 counties and losing hundreds of thousands of jobs to foreign trade. I said then and I say again tonight, ‘It is the darkest hours that bring out the brightest stars.’ And, oh, how you did shine. You made more progress during a recession than others did during a decade of prosperity. Success is contagious and progress is its own momentum and you have continued to shine and fight off that enemy of apathy and complacency.

“So now, greatness is within our reach. Let us never have regret for lost opportunity because we can build what others would not dream and dream what others would not dare. We can build a stronger, brighter and better North Carolina. And in our stronger and brighter future, they will say about you, you who serve here tonight, that you had courage. They will say about you, you who serve here tonight, that you had compassion. They will say about you, that your values were good and just and fair and I will say about you that I have been blessed to serve with you. Thank you and may God bless North Carolina. Now let’s get it done.”

EIGHTEENTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Thursday, February 22, 2007

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Beverly E. Perdue, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Dear Lord, part of what we do today is celebrate and honor the young women and coaches of The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill soccer team. They are National Champions. Using a sport's metaphor, the Apostle Paul wrote, 'I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith.' So did these young women. We are also grateful for Universities in our State with reputations for academic and athletic excellence that attract young people from all over the world, making them also the children of North Carolina and worthy ambassadors for our State. We ask you to continue to bless us with such a talented family. Amen."

The Chair grants leaves of absence for today to Senator Basnight, Senator Berger of Franklin, Senator Berger of Rockingham, Senator Cowell, Senator Dorsett, Senator Graham and Senator Lucas.

Senator Dannelly, Deputy President Pro Tempore, announces that the Journal of Wednesday, February 21, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Journal and it stands approved as written.

CALENDAR

A joint resolution on today's Calendar is taken up and disposed of, as follows:

S.J.R. 279, A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING THE WOMEN'S SOCCER TEAM AT THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA AT CHAPEL HILL ON BECOMING THE 2006 NCAA NATIONAL WOMEN'S SOCCER CHAMPIONS.

Upon motion of Senator Rand, the joint resolution is read in its entirety and, upon motion of Senator Dannelly, the remarks of the members and guests, are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator Kinnaird:

“Thank you, Madame President. I am very pleased to present our UNC Women’s 2006 NCAA Soccer Champions, along with Verla Insko who also represents Chapel Hill and the University and all of these wonderful women who have helped to make this day possible. This team not only was last year’s National Champions, but they are also the most successful women’s collegiate soccer team in history. I have watched these trailblazer-women and their outstanding coach, Anson Dorrance, and the whole team effort for years as they have inspired young women in the ... admiration of all of us women who lived the women’s movement. This leadership, this determination, this persistence in achieving a goal is a model for all young women. Early on, Mia Hamm and Brandy Chastain became the stars for girls throughout the United States to emulate. Our soccer women were recognized throughout the world for their skill and achievement equal to men on the field. This tradition has carried on, this winning tradition of proving that they have what it takes. We in North Carolina are especially proud to have these outstanding athletes and coaches with us today.”

Representative Insko:

“Thank you, Madame President. It is fitting and an honor to recognize the Carolina Women’s Soccer Team and their achievement as the 2006 National Champions. Speaking for my colleagues in the House and for my constituents back home, I want to express our congratulations for this fine achievement to each of you, to your coaches and head coach, Anson Dorrance. We are very proud of your accomplishments which add to a great tradition. Coach Dorrance, when they define athletic dynasties, I believe that your record of 629, 28, 18, and 18 national championships will be among the first on anyone’s mind. Victories on the field are not the only measure of a champion. I also want to congratulate these fine women athletes for their example on and off the field and in the class room. There are many thousands of young women across the country playing all kinds of sports who view your achievements as a tangible expression of their own hopes and dreams. Through you and your example the trajectories of their own lives are lifted. You bring honor to our State, your university, and yourselves. Thank you.”

Senator Rand:

“Thank you, Madame President. Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate and House, the first thing I would like to do is express apologies that Senator Basnight is not with us today. Family issues prevented him from being here, but if there is anybody who is a greater fan of the University and its athletic teams, I think it is him so I’m sorry that he is not able to participate in this. This is a wonderful day for all of us as we recognize great accomplishment and attention to detail and dedication to purpose. The things that these ladies have accomplished are truly monumental and we take great pride and express great appreciation for what you have done. I told these ladies that I had never seen a soccer game until I went to college. I also told them that there were a lot of things that I had never had seen until I went to college, but that is another deal! It has been truly phenomenal in what they have accomplished and it gave me great pleasure and great pride and also great trepidation as I watched them play and watched this unfold this year. It was a wonderful time and we all take great pride in it. We are particularly proud of Coach Dorrance. The amazing thing, they have won this thing about 18 or 19 times, but it has only been played about 23 times in the history of the NCAA, so their winning percentage is unrivaled by any other team in any other sport that I’m aware of, so it is truly amazing the consistency to rise to great heights at times is a wonderful thing. You accomplish great things, but to do it consistently year after year speaks volumes about what they are about and the kind of program that we have at Chapel Hill and the kind of ladies that play there. I read somewhere that the conditioning, I think it was Mia Hamm that wrote some of the younger members a letter one time, said, ‘Don’t worry, you will pass out before you die.’ That was an amazing thing to me and it just shows that their dedication to all of this and how proud

February 22, 2007

we are of them. So thank you for what you have done, for yourself, number one. This will be with you the rest of your life. For us it is a great time. We will remember this with great pride and great appreciation. So thank you, coach. This is a wonderful day for all us. Thank you, Madame President.”

Senator Garrou:

“To all you young women, we are so delighted to have you here and I appreciate all of the opportunities that you have ahead of you and it is going to be a great time for you in your life to celebrate today and to carry these memories and good feelings through the rest of your life. We are very proud of you and we just want to own a little piece and that is why we invited you here today. We are very proud, as one who used to play half-court basketball when I was in college and I was the tallest person on the team, believe it or not. It is great. Coach Dorrance, I need to tell you that I have a good friend who is a proud Carolina supporter and he told me that once he heard you speak about dealing with women and working with women coaches and working with women players. He said that if he had heard that before he got married he would have had a much better marriage, so I would like to suggest that maybe we make that a course at Chapel Hill and you could begin practicing by coming over and dealing here in the North Carolina General Assembly. Thank you for all that you do.”

Senator Hagan:

“As a parent of a young soccer player when she was young, I just want everyone here to know that these girls and their families have been working at this for years and years. My daughter was on the Greensboro Twisters team for a number of years and you just need to know these girls practice everyday, Saturdays, their Sundays. On weekends their families have traveled all over the eastern part of the Country and they are so dedicated and they have dedicated families, too. I think that when they are on the team there is this fierce competition. You should see it in their eyes, the way they run you know that. But when they are off the team, these kids have a ball playing soccer. As a mom of one, it was one of the highlights of my life to get to go with all these teams and be good friends with all the other parents. But you have really done so much and made North Carolina proud. No matter where we go, the envy of all these girls, they want to come and play here. So these kids, these students, are really the cream of the crop as you obviously can tell from their record, but they are honored all over the Nation and so thank you for what you have done and we are really proud of you and your parents.”

Senator Kinnaird:

“I want to say that this is the first step in your life and I want you to look around here and I want you to think that there are other avenues that you can go into. You have accomplished a great deal and you’ve accomplished a great deal academically. But I hope that you will think about civic engagement and put the energy and the enthusiasm and the skills that you have learned as athletes to enter this arena and we hope that some of you will be sitting right here and maybe honoring other women in the future. Thank you.”

February 22, 2007

The joint resolution passes its second reading (41-0) and third reading with members standing and is ordered sent to the House of Representatives by special message.

The President of the Senate relinquishes the gavel to Speaker Hackney, who presides and calls the House of Representatives to order. The House sitting in joint session passes Senate Joint Resolution 279 and the Speaker orders the resolution enrolled.

Coach Anson Dorrance is recognized and offers the following remarks:

"Madame President and ladies and gentlemen, it is an absolute honor for me to be here. I am the grandson of proud tobacco farmers in Louisburg, North Carolina and I spent my life raised overseas. Every three years we would spend six months on a tobacco farm in Louisburg out on RFD 1 and I have primed tobacco, I've topped it, I've hung it, I've loaded hogs, and I've picked cotton. I am a citizen of the State of North Carolina. We moved every three years and I finally had an opportunity to come to college. When I came to The University of North Carolina, I absolutely loved it. I loved being a student at The University for the years I was there and as I was graduating I didn't know what I wanted to do, but I knew where I wanted to live. I wanted to live in Chapel Hill, North Carolina. So upon graduation with an English and Philosophy Degree, I settled into the community and, of course, with that kind of background I was qualified to bus tables at the Carolina Coffee Shop. I hacked my way into Law School. While I was a law student, I was hired to coach the men at North Carolina and I just wanted to live in Chapel Hill and I am just so happy and proud to have figured out a way to stay in this wonderful State. There is no mystery to success in collegiate recruiting. It has to do with the University that you represent and obviously, this is a remarkable University that I represent and one of the reasons it's remarkable is because of all the people in this room. You guys support our great institution and it puts us in an incredibly competitive market when we are out there trying to sell Chapel Hill and its University to these great athletes across the Country. So everything that you all have done to make sure that we have an extraordinary University has made a huge difference in our recruiting. Even some of the resolutions that you guys have passed in the last year or so have had a huge impact on this recruiting class. For example, there are all kinds of issues in terms of scholarship monies in having people admitted into The University and yet what happened the last year put us in a position where in the second half against Notre Dame in the National Championship Final, we had seven freshmen starting for us and we are very exacted about and certainly proud of that. But I would be remiss not to let all of you know I am a wonderfully proud citizen of this State and I am a tremendously proud representative of the University that all of you guys support and on behalf of my team and my staff, I want all of you to know how much we appreciate that support. So thank you very much. It was a wonderful honor to be here with all of you today."

Prayer is offered by The Reverend William E. Maddox III, St. Titus Episcopal Church, Durham, North Carolina, and The Reverend Kimberly D. Lucas, St. Ambrose Episcopal Church, Raleigh, North Carolina, as follows:

The Reverend William E. Maddox III:

"O God, the fountain of all wisdom, whose statutes are good and gracious, and whose law is truth, we beseech you so to guide, direct, and bless this Legislature and all that come to and through, that they may be ordained by your governance only and do those good things which are pleasing to Thee. Especially, we seek thy blessing this day to bless and guide us as we give thanks and remember your servant, Pauli Murray, Priest of your Church, for it was in her life that she strived for justice, peace, and harmony among all persons. May we be so kindled to seek thy face to that which you would have us to do which is right and good in your service. May we in our private life, follow the outstanding examples of this your servant, Pauli, that in our teaching, mentoring, and giving, that our life and works with others may be strengthened and pleasing in the building of this State and of this Nation."

The Reverend Kimberly D. Lucas:

"Gracious God we give you thanks for the members of this Body and for their heart to serve this State. We ask that you would bless us all with the courage and wisdom to follow the example of Pauli Murray that we might continue her legacy of striving for justice and seeking racial harmony and gender equality that our State and our world might reflect your love and value."

The Reverend William E. Maddox III:

"This we ask in your name who is the author and architect of all, we do. Amen."

The Chair grants leaves of absence for tonight to Senator Dorsett and Senator Lucas.

S.J.R. 157, A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING THE LIFE AND MEMORY OF ANNA PAULINE "PAULI" MURRAY, A DISTINGUISHED CIVIL RIGHTS LEADER, WRITER, LAWYER, FEMINIST, AND FORMER NORTH CAROLINIAN.

Upon motion of Senator Rand S.J.R. 157 is taken up out of its regular order of business and placed before the Senate for immediate consideration.

Upon motion of Senator Kinnaird, the joint resolution is read in its entirety and, upon motion of Senator Dannelly, the remarks of Senator Kinnaird, are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator Kinnaird:

"I hope that each of you will look at this sheet which outlines this extraordinary life of this extraordinary woman. It is with great joy that I commend this resolution honoring Dr. Reverend Pauli Murray to you. It is a joy for me because this special woman, whom I did not have the privilege to meet, has ties to Orange County and to my church. I feel a truly spiritual connection. The Reverend Murray was an extraordinary person who was born in extraordinary circumstances. As you heard, she was the great-granddaughter of a slave owner and the granddaughter of a slave. The ancestral home is right outside my town on Smith-Level Road and the plantation owner was Mr. Smith. In addition, her grandfather was baptized in my church, The Chapel of the Cross, of which I have been a member for many years. The Reverend Murray was the first ordained woman in the Episcopal Church of America. She chose that Chapel, The Chapel of the Cross, to celebrate her first Eucharist, where her slave owner great-grandfather gave the lectern inscribed with his name from which she read at that service and her slave grandmother worshiped in the balcony. She used her grandmother's Bible in that service. The extraordinary part of this history, also, is that the Smith family's daughter had all the slaves baptized, an unusual event at that time. Our church has the book with the names of each owner and each slave inscribed. Her celebration of that service at that church was the culmination of American history transcended. It is hard to say enough about the inspiration of Reverend Murray's life. She was the first to test race by applying to law school at the University of North Carolina where she was denied because of her race. She was the first to test gender by applying for graduate school at Harvard and to be denied because of her gender and the first woman to become a priest in the Episcopal Church. I am happy to say that, unlike the universities, the church passed the test and embraced her. This month we had another extraordinary special occasion at the Chapel of the Cross on the thirtieth anniversary of The Reverend Murray's celebration of the Eucharist. We were honored with the first woman presiding bishop of the Episcopal Church in America, the Right Reverend Jeffords. She was joined by the first African-American Bishop in North Carolina, Bishop Michael Curry, and the Bishop of Maryland who was ordained at the National Cathedral with Reverend Murray, and another Bishop who worked with The Reverend Murray, and our own clergy and delighted parishioners, some of whom had attended her first service at the Chapel of the Cross, all joined us. Besides the many courageous actions listed in the resolution, Reverend Murray staged a sit-in to integrate a small college café years before even our Greensboro sit-ins. Interestingly, she was a founding member of the National Organization for Women and was named Woman of the Year by Mademoiselle Magazine in 1947, another extraordinary accomplishment. In short, Reverend Murray was an unstoppable engine for righteousness. She even complained about the civil rights leaders who would not let women participate fully in all of those wonderful organizations in the 1960s. She would not tolerate any wrong that stood in her way or anyone else's way. She would not let anyone impede the progress and the rights of anyone. She recognized no barrier as legitimate. We are joined tonight with our two priests whom I thank and whom are significant in our lives, also. The Reverend William Maddox III is rector of Saint Titus in Durham and The Reverend Kimberly Lucas is the rector of Saint Ambrose here. So we are very pleased to have them with us. I hope through this resolution to make the name of The Reverend Dr. Pauli Murray one that is known, appreciated and admired throughout our State. I commend this resolution to you. Thank you."

The joint resolution passes its second reading (47-0) and third reading with members standing and is ordered sent to the House of Representatives by special message.

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Beverly E. Perdue, Lieutenant Governor.

tambourines and go forth in the dance of merry makers.' Those worlds came to mind yesterday as Dr. Chuck Davis and the African-American Dance Ensemble educated and entertained us with their rich depiction of the African Culture. You truly are the God of all people and cultures. Seeing Members of the Senate join the Ensemble reminded me that in your presence there is a joy that transcends culture, affirming the oneness of our family ties. And to think we are reminded of such a truth on the dance floor. Amen."

The Chair grants leaves of absence for today to Senator Graham and Senator Lucas.

He travels the Country performing as Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Senator Shaw is recognized and introduces Mr. Ferguson. Upon motion of Senator Hunt, Mr. Ferguson's remarks are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator Shaw:

"Thank you, Madame Lieutenant Governor. Mr. President, ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, members of the gallery, I'm delighted to be here this morning to bring before you someone from our area, Cumberland County. Senator Rand and those of you out of that area have known this gentleman and seen him perform many times and on many occasions. He specializes in speeches of Dr. King. He keeps the dream alive, Dr. King's dream alive. You know, we have a lot of problems in my particular community, the community in which I live. We have all kinds of chronic illness, high crime, high unemployment, and all these things. There is a disconnect between my generation and the generation that has come after me because they don't understand what we had to go through to get to where we are today and enjoy the things that we enjoy today. They take it for granted and they take it as a given and it's not so. There are things you work and earn for the next ten years and you can lose them all if you don't remember how you got there. This young man does a wonderful job in keeping the dream alive so that we can do better things for all of us. Mr. Ferguson, Stephon Ferguson, was a reporter for WFNC, one of the top radio stations in Cumberland County. He travels through the Country performing as Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. He is highly active in our community. He has read to every kindergarten class in Cumberland County for the past three years. In August he was recognized by Governor Easley for his volunteer services and Mr. Ferguson has received official permission from the King estate to perform as Dr. King. He has been dedicated to keeping Dr. King's dream alive in educating our children about the future and about Dr. King and all he stood for. Members of the Senate, before I introduce Mr. Ferguson, he does have some guests with him. He has his fiancée, Ms. Rita McLean, in the audience and Mr. Herbert Miller. Also, today is Mr. Stephon Ferguson's birthday so we'd like to bring the birthday boy before us today. Ladies and gentlemen, I give you Mr. Ferguson."

Stephon Ferguson:

"Good morning. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. stood for love and in 1964 Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. delivered a speech when people were asking him about the word love. King said 'There's another aspect of it. People ask me about it all the time. What in the world do you mean when you say you love such people who are beating on us and bombing our houses and threatening our children? What in the world do you mean when you say love such people? And I always have to stop and try to define the meaning of love in this area. And interestingly enough, Greek philosophy comes to our aid at this point. There are three words in the Greek language for love. One of them is the word eros and eros is a sort of esthetic love. The philosopher, Plato, talks about it a great deal in his dialogue, a yearning of the soul for the realm of the divine. It has come to us to mean a sort of romantic love and so we all know about eros. We've experienced it, we've read about it in the beauties of literature and Edgar Allen Poe was talking about eros when he talked about his beautiful Annabelle Lee with the love surrounded by the halo of eternity. And Shakespeare was talking about eros when he said love is not love which alters when it alteration finds, or bends with the remover to remove. It is an ever fixed mark that looks on tempests and is never shaken. It is a star to every wandering bark. You know, I can remember that because I used to quote it to my wife when we were courting. That's eros. That's eros. Then the Greek language talks about filia which is another level of love. It is an intimate affection between personal friends. On this level, we love because we are loved. We love people that we like. This is friendship. Then the Greek language talks about agape. Agape is not something of affection. Agape is more than friendship. Agape is understanding, creative redemptive goodwill to all men. It is an overflowing love that seeks nothing in return. Theologians would say that it is a love of God operating in the human heart. When one rises to love on this level he loves man not because he likes him but he loves every man because God loves him. And so he goes on with that. So he rises to the level of hating the system rather than the individual who is caught up in that system. He loves the person and hates the evil deed. I think this is what Jesus meant when he said love your enemy and I'm so happy that he didn't say like your enemy because it's pretty difficult to like some people. It's difficult to like people bombing your homes and threatening your children and kicking you about, but Jesus says love them and love is greater than like. Love is understanding, creative redemptive goodwill to all men.' Thank you.

"On April 3, 1968, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. delivered his final speech, I've Been to the Mountaintop. He was in Memphis, Tennessee supporting the sanitation workers there and he was telling the congregation to continue with the demonstrations and continue to fight. I'm going to give you a portion, an excerpt of that speech. 'We're not going to let any mace stop us. We are masters in our non-violent movement of disarming police forces. They don't know what to do. I remember Birmingham, Alabama. We were in that majestic struggle there. We would move out of the Sixteenth Street Baptist Church day after day. By the hundreds we would move out where Bull Connor would tell them to send the dogs for us and they did come. We just went before the dogs singing Ain't Gonna Let Nobody Turn Me Around. Next, Bull Connor would say turn the fire hoses on. As I said to you the other night, Bull Connor didn't know history. He knew a kind of physics that somehow didn't relate to the transphysics that we knew about. There was the fact that there was a certain kind of fire that no water could put out so we went before the fire hoses. We had known water. If we were Baptist or some other denomination, we had been immersed. If we were Methodist or some others, we had been sprinkled but we knew water and that couldn't stop us. Let us rise up tonight with a greater readiness. Let us stand with a greater determination. Let us move on. In these powerful days, these days of challenge, make America what it ought to be. We have an opportunity to make America a better Nation and I want to thank God once more for allowing me to be here with you. Left Atlanta this morning and as we got started on the plane, there were six of us, the pilot said over the public address system, we are sorry for the delay but we had Martin Luther King, Jr. on the plane and to be sure that all the bags were checked and be sure that nothing would be wrong on the plane they had to check out everything carefully and we've had the plane protected and guarded all night. Then I got into Memphis and some began to say the threats or talk about the threats that were out there and about what would happen to me from some of our sick white brothers. Well, I don't know what will happen now. We've got some difficult days ahead but it really doesn't matter with me now because I've been to the mountaintop and I don't mind. Like anybody, I would like to live a long life. Longevity has its place and I'm not concerned about that now. I just want to do God's will and He's allowed me to go to the mountain and I've looked over and I've seen the promised land. I may not get there with you but I want you to know tonight that we as a people will get to the promised land so I'm happy tonight. I'm not worried about anything. I'm not fearing any man. Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord.' Thank you.

"As a final speech, on August 28, 1963, there was the great march on Washington for jobs and freedom. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. was the culminating speaker on the march on Washington. I wish to give you an excerpt from that speech. 'I say to you today, my friend, so even though we face the difficulties of today and tomorrow, I still have a dream. It is a dream deeply rooted in the American dream. I have a dream that one day this Nation will rise up, live out the true meaning of its creed, we hold these truths to be self-evident that all men are created equal. I have a dream that one day on the red hills of Georgia sons of former slaves and the sons of former slave owners will be able to sit down together at the table of brotherhood. I have a dream that one day even the State of Mississippi, a state sweltering with the heat of injustice, sweltering with the heat of oppression, be transformed into an oasis of freedom and justice. I have a dream that my four little children will one day live in a Nation where they will not be judged by the color of their skin but by the content of their character. I have a dream today. I have a dream that one day down in Alabama with its vicious racists, with its Governor having his lips dripping with the words of interposition and nullification, one day right there in Alabama little black boys and black girls will be able to join hands with little white boys and white girls as sisters and brothers. I have a dream today. I have a dream that one day every valley shall be exalted, every hill and mountain shall be made low, the rough places will be made plain, and the crooked places will be made straight, and the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together. This is our hope. This is the faith that I go back to the South with. With this faith we will be able to hew out of the mountain of despair a stone of hope. With this faith we will be able to transform the jangling discords of our Nation into a beautiful symphony of brotherhood. With this faith we will be able to work together, to pray together, to struggle together, to go to jail together, to stand up for freedom together knowing that we will be free one day. This will be the day. This will be the day when all of God's children will be able to sing with new meaning, My Country 'tis of thee, sweet land of liberty of thee I sing. Land where my fathers died, land of the pilgrim's pride, from every mountainside let freedom ring, and if America is to be a great Nation this must become true. So let freedom ring from the prodigious hilltops of New Hampshire. Let freedom ring from the mighty mountains of New York. Let freedom ring from the heightened Alleghenies of Pennsylvania. Let freedom ring from the snowcapped Rockies of Colorado and let freedom ring from the curvaceous slopes of California. Not only that, let freedom ring from Stone Mountain of Georgia. Let freedom ring from Lookout Mountain of Tennessee. Let freedom ring from every hill and molehill of Mississippi. From every mountainside, let freedom ring. And when this happens, when we let it ring from every village and every hamlet, from every state and every city, we will be able to speed up that day when all of God's children, black men and white men, Jews and Gentiles, Protestants and Catholics, will be able to join hands and sing the words of the old Negro spiritual, free at last, free at last, thank God Almighty, we're free at last.' "

Senator Shaw:

"Ladies and gentlemen, members of the Senate, I'd like to thank the Lieutenant Governor, President Marc Basnight, and my colleague, Senator Rand, for helping to arrange this and I'd also like to thank members of the legislative black caucus for their support. Most importantly, I'd like to thank all of you, members of the Senate, for allowing us to bring forth this presentation. On behalf of the Senate, Mr. Blackman, I'd like to present to you the highest award that we can award in the Senate and its from the State of North Carolina. TWENTY-FOURTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Tuesday, March 6, 2007

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Beverly E. Perdue, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Harold Salmon, St. John United Methodist Church, Gibson, North Carolina as follows:

"Almighty God, maker of heaven and earth and giver of every good and perfect gift, we bow before you in this place and open our hearts to you, giving thanks for the bounty of your blessings. We thank you for the work of these dedicated men and women that make up this Body of the North Carolina Senate. They have gathered from the beautiful mountains, from the rolling hills of the piedmont, from the coastal plains and from the very shores of the Atlantic to be about the business of our great State. We pray for wisdom and for the courage to do those things that are pleasing in your sight as they conduct the affairs of our most beautiful State. We pray for vision and understanding. Grant that those elected to serve may not handle carelessly the duties entrusted in their keeping. Temper them in ways to control their pride, to be calm in controversy and to be patient and tolerant when misunderstandings arise. Finally, we offer as a body prayers for our Great State of North Carolina and for those brave young men and women serving in harms way around the world. May we be restless until all our little children lay down at night with full stomachs. May we be restless until all have access to adequate healthcare and equal education. We ask these things in the matchless and precious name of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Amen."

The Chair grants a leave of absence for today to Senator Lucas.

TWENTY-FIFTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Wednesday, March 7, 2007

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Beverly E. Perdue, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Ralph Sproles, Poplar Springs Church of Christ, King, North Carolina as follows:

"Dear Lord, you have taught us in your Word, 'that it is in you that we live and move and have our being.' Life is precious. It is a gift from you. We cherish the life of the born and the unborn because it is created in your image. Father, it is from you that we have been taught all of our moral values because you taught us 'not to take the name of the Lord our God in vain.' Please forgive us for showing disrespect for you and your holy name by dragging it through the gutter of profanity. Because you taught us to honor our mother and father, please forgive us for the way we have confused the biblical model of the home and family. Because you taught us to treat others as we would like to be treated, please forgive us for our dishonesty and deceitfulness towards our fellow man. Help us to seek after integrity. Because you taught us that all men should be free, we pray for our troops around the world who are in harm's way because they believe in the freedom of the oppressed. Because you taught us to 'obey those who rule us,' we pray for our national leaders that they might make decisions best for our Country and not be self-serving. We also pray for those in this Chamber who have been entrusted with the leadership of this richly blessed State. Finally, we pray for ourselves that we will seek your face and your will in all things so that one day we will hear the sweetest words human ears will ever hear, 'Well done good and faithful servant.' We ask this prayer in the matchless name of Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen."

Senator Basnight, President Pro Tempore, announces that the Journal of Tuesday, March 6, 2007, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Journal and it stands approved as written.

CALENDAR

Bills and resolutions on today's Calendar are taken up and disposed of, as follows:

S.J.R. 499, A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING THE WAKE FOREST UNIVERSITY FOOTBALL TEAM ON WINNING THE 2006 ATLANTIC COAST CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIP.

Upon motion of Senator Rand, S.J.R. 499 is taken up out of its regular order of business and placed before the Senate for immediate consideration.

Upon motion of Senator Smith, the joint resolution is read in its entirety and, upon motion of Senator Rand, the remarks of the Members and Coach Grobe are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator Smith:

"I would like to debate the resolution, but first I want to ask my good friend from the University of North Carolina, Senator Rand, if it will be okay if we amend line 24 and make that read 6-0 rather than 6-9."

Senator Rand:

"I'll have to think about that for some significant period of time, Madame President! I'm not sure if I want to involve myself in that, but I reckon the truth will come out so it is all right. Go ahead!"

Senator Smith:

"Thank you for the opportunity to talk. The first thing that I want to do is thank my good friend, Senator Marc Basnight, for allowing this important day in the life of Wake Forest University for these young men who have worked so hard to have the opportunity to come to be in their Senate and I want to publicly thank you for that. You know to be a Wake Forest Football fan, the most important commodity that you have to have is hope. Each year over a period of time we deal with hope that as each season begins we hope that our team will be respectable and we hope that our team will, hopefully, have a winning record. But many times our hope has been dashed but this team is different. I can remember on September 2, sitting in Groves Stadium watching the Syracuse game. In the third quarter with the score tied 10-10, I watched that awful play where Ben Mauk through extreme hustle tried to recover a fumble and broke his collarbone or shoulder. I can remember the collective sigh in that stadium of what did all that mean because we didn't know who Riley Skinner was and I can remember Riley coming into the ballgame as an unknown commodity and that two plays later Sam Swank kicked a field goal and later on we scored a touchdown and won that ballgame. Then the next Saturday I was again in Groves Stadium and to my horror the Duke Blue Devils for the first three quarters were literally wearing the Demon Deacons out. I almost couldn't believe what I was seeing when a miracle happened and with a minute or so left, we scored a touchdown to go ahead 14-13, and then lo and behold as Duke had been doing all day, they rushed back down the field and were prepared to kick a field goal, a chip-shot field goal, a twenty-seven yard field goal and luckily Chip Vaughn broke through and blocked that field goal and that was the first of the miracle plays and as I talk you will see there was more than one miracle play because many times football games are decided in the last play or the last minute and for a long time as a Wake Forest fan we would see those games go against us. But in that instance, we won and then in succession we beat Connecticut, Mississippi, and Liberty and we were 5-0, one of the best starts in school history. Then the next Saturday, Clemson, one of the highest ranked teams in the Nation came to town. I wasn't able to go to that game but I was watching it on TV and for three quarters I couldn't believe my eyes. This team was playing flawlessly and they were taking it to Clemson. It was 17-3 going into the fourth quarter and I said, 'To be sure, this is going to be one of the greatest victories I've ever seen.' On the first play of the fourth quarter I saw what, for me, was the oddest play I have ever seen in football. We attempted a field goal and it was blocked and a tackle for Clemson caught the ball in mid air and proceeded to run roughly 70 yards for a touchdown. That turned the tide around and Clemson scored 24 points in the fourth quarter to convincingly win that ballgame. So was the dream over at that time? Many of us said, 'Was the dream over?' And we came as a team to Raleigh to play the NC State Wolfpack and I had the privilege of going to that game and watch that game and to be sure State with basically superior talent, was going to win that game and lo and behold Sam Swank kicked over three 50-yard field goals, an NCAA record there that afternoon and Josh Gattis intercepted a pass in the end zone in the last minute to preserve that victory. So we left feeling good. The next week we went to our friend at Chapel Hill and I knew that was going to be an emotional weekend because their coach was terminated and I told many of my friends, I told Senator Stevens, that we were going to lose that game because of the emotion that I felt like the Carolina team would bring to the field and sure enough they did and they played an excellent ballgame. They acquitted themselves extremely well and it wasn't until Jon Abbate intercepted a pass in the end zone, the last play of the game, intercepted in the end zone that we were able to win that game. And then, of course, we went to Boston College and the same thing happened again as Patrick Ghee intercepted a pass in the end zone on the last play of the game to win that game. So things were really good, 8 and 1, getting ready to play Florida State down in Tallahassee, the graveyard of many Wake Forest teams in the past, to go down to Tallahassee and to play Florida State and I could not believe it as I watched on TV as this team meticulously annihilated Florida State and for the first time in 31 years Coach Bobby Bowden's team did not score a touchdown. And so hopes were high and we were feeling good, but Virginia Tech came to town and proceeded to give a thrashing that I think everyone of these players will remember. It was a tough night and it was a convincing victory for Virginia Tech which set up what was an extremely important ballgame as this team went to Maryland to play for the ACC Championship and they played, in my opinion, the best game they played all year in College Park Maryland as they won the ACC Championship to the score of 38-24. What an exciting time and then many of us went to Jacksonville, Florida to watch the game against Georgia Tech for the ACC Championship in a drizzling rain. And again we prevailed 9-6. I can tell you, after that game as I went around and was at the team bus and saw adults, grown people crying, emotions that I had not seen in a long time, to be so happy to wait so long to achieve such great results for our University. And then, of course, along came Miami, the largest gathering in history of Wake Forest alumni, 17,000, as we went down to play Louisville. The commentators on ESPN would say that there would be no chance and that we would be humiliated. We went to that ballgame and going into the fourth quarter, we were leading 13-10 and, but for the turnovers which had become our best friend, the turnover ratio, we lost that and we had two fumbles and Louisville eventually won. But I will always remember that time down there because I think that it was more than football. It was a school who had not been on the big stage before, who had a chance to be on the big stage. It was a school who was proud of its coach, who is a man of character and who made sure that the program was sound even with all of the injuries that we had this year and got his players to believe in his system even when he had to have a wide receiver be a tailback and gain more yards than anyone else and even reverted to running the single wing. We are proud of you, but I guess for me the thing that I'm the most proud of was as the ballgame ended in Miami and there were 17,000 Wake Forest alumni and you, being disappointed at having lost and you could have gone off the field, but you didn't do that. You went over to those fans and you sang the fight song to them. And you have conducted yourselves in a way that you have made not only Wake Forest University proud, but you have made the State of North Carolina proud and we are proud of you for what you have done and we are proud of you for the way you have done it. And I would ask each one of my Senators to vote in favor of this resolution."

Senator Snow:

"You fellows don't know how happy you've made me. I want to thank Senator Smith for allowing me to be a part of this. He is an old Wake Forest football player and I am, too. I'm a really old football player and you know I haven't had a lot to be thankful about and a lot to be happy about, a lot to be smiling about over the years. These folks from Carolina and State, they give me a hard time, but I've been smiling a lot this year. You know I was watching you through the year. I didn't get to go to the games as many times as Senator Smith did, but I happened to break in on that Florida State game and you know we played at Florida State twice while I was in school and we got a bad whooping down there and I have bad memories of that. There is that mascot they have, Thunderthud, what is his name? You know that guy that throws the spear in the ground. Well, you know they were really pretty rough on us but when I turned on the TV it was after the half-time was over and you all were way ahead and I looked around in the stands and I didn't see any Florida State fans. I thought something bad had happened there. But you know the truth was they lost heart and I couldn't believe that you were beating them so bad, but it was so much fun because they had been pouring it on us for years and I was so happy to see that.

March 7, 2007

You know this guy, there is a Lee Corso. He is the featured speaker on ESPN on the Game Day Show and he's a commentator. After the Florida State game when we shut them out 30-0, he began to look back and see that we were moving into the BCS picture. Corso's comments were that Wake Forest, who was picked to finish last in their division of the ACC, had suddenly moved into the spotlight. Florida State was looking at the Emerald Bowl. Whoever heard of that Bowl? Did they make that up for them? We were looking at the Orange Bowl. Corso, in a kidding fashion, attributed the Wake Forest phenomena to Global Warming or the El Nino. But the inconvenient truth of this is to Corso and the rest of the college football world, Wake Forest is simply a great football team with a lot of talented and hard-working players and a lot of hard-working innovative coaching staff led by the consensus National College Coach of the Year, Jim Grobe. I also wanted to speak to something that Senator Smith has already spoken to. I want to offer praise to you and to the coaches because Wake Forest leads all the Atlantic Coast Conference and BCS conference football teams in the NCAA's graduation success rate earning a 96% rating. That is really great, that really speaks well for you. I want to recognize Coach Faircloth because he was there before I was and you can tell by his hair how long he has been there! But if you will, let me reminisce just a little bit only to try to show you how far you have come. When I was there my sophomore year which was 1964, we had the best year that year that we had in a long, long time. I don't know if you have ever heard of Brian Piccolo or John Mackovich and Coach Tate was our coach then and we had a team that was held together by our beloved Doc Martin with athletic tape that he slapped on the back all the time. But that year we went 5 and 5, but you have taken it to the next plateau and you have really made me proud of what you have been able to do. I'm also inspired by the symbol that you used at the fourth quarter. You usually see at the high school games everybody sticking up the four fingers, but the fifth finger for Jon Abbate's brother, Luke, was an inspiration to you, an inspiration and a commitment that you made at the fourth quarter to dedicate your work, a hundred percent effort for that fourth quarter to Luke and so I just want you to know how much of an inspiration that was to me and I'm sure that it played a big part in your success during that fourth quarter play. I can't thank you enough for what you have done as I have said to you for how you have made me feel as an old alumni there. Back when we played there we played over at Bowman Gray Stadium, but we couldn't play if they were having a race over there that weekend. I don't know how old Fred is but he may have played back on the old Wake Forest campus, I'm not sure. But I'm really proud of you and I thank you so much for coming down here today so we could honor you. You mean a lot to the people of North Carolina and a lot to football in North Carolina. Thank you very much."

Senator Soles:

"Madame President and Ladies and Gentlemen of the Senate, I arise to ask that you support this resolution and to say to these fine young men how proud we are of you. I was in the graduating class, the last class to finish on the old campus over at Wake Forest. Senator Forrester and I were there together. We were at every football game, but we weren't out there with the helmets on. We both were in the band. He was the drum major and I carried a trumpet. I didn't do much playing. We are both proud to have been at Wake Forest and at having been a member of the last graduating class over there. I say to you on behalf of myself and your great-grandparents, congratulations."

March 7, 2007

Senator Berger of Rockingham:

"First, does the rule apply to helmets? I, like the other speakers, am a graduate of Wake Forest, not the undergraduate school, but the Law School and Wake Forest is a special place for anybody who has been a student at Wake Forest, whether it was Law School, undergraduate school, or even those people who may have gone one year and ended up somewhere else. I wanted to read something about this year's football team that appeared recently in the Wake Forest magazine. It is just a short synopsis of a lot of what you have heard so far and this is by Dan Collins of the Winston-Salem Journal and what he wrote was, 'Coach Jim Grobe and his Wake Forest Deacons were a testament in 2006 to the old saying that if you live long enough, you are liable to see anything.' Only those who have suffered with the Deacons over their largely unrequited, 105-year affair with football, can really appreciate what Coach Grobe and his resourceful, resilient team did on their stunning run to an ACC Championship and a trip to Miami for the Orange Bowl. Yes, a lot of Wake Foresters made that trip to Miami for the Orange Bowl. Some say, and I think it has been referred to already, that it was the largest group of alumni ever in one place in Wake Forest history. And for those of us who were there, it was a great several days and a great football game. The result was not exactly what we wanted, but the way you conducted yourselves was exactly what we expected of you and we are very proud of you for that. The loyalty of Wake Foresters to this team and to the University is unique and that is, as I said, because Wake Forest has a unique and special place in the hearts of people who have ever been there. The special place that this team has, has a lot to do with a number of statistics or a number of things that have already been mentioned, the smallest school ever to play in a BCS Bowl, the graduation rate that is the highest graduation rate ever for a BCS participant, one of the highest graduation rates for any team in NCAA Division I football and for a lot of us here, probably as important as anything as far as the football team is concerned, this is the first championship for the ACC for a North Carolina school since 1989 and, no, the last one was not Carolina, but the last one was Duke. So we are proud of you, we being the Wake Foresters in the Senate have a good natured relationship with are friends who are loyal Tar Heel fans and we appreciate their support for the Demon Deacons on most weekends other than the weekend they are playing the Tar Heels, but for today we are very proud of you, very proud of what you have done. Coach Grobe, we are very proud of you and we thank you for what you have done. North Carolina is proud of you and I urge your support of the resolution."

Senator Garrou:

"I want to congratulate all of you young fellows and tell you that those of us who live in Winston-Salem just love picking up the newspaper and reading all the great things about your team and the accolades that you have won, but the honor and glory that you have brought not only to North Carolina and to Wake Forest, but to Winston-Salem. We are most appreciative and I heard folks from the Orange Bowl talk about what a fine young group of men that you were, that you came down there and presented yourselves well. You made your mommas and daddies proud of your behavior and we were so honored with that. I also wanted to tell Coach Grobe that we are so excited that he is going to stay with us at Wake Forest. We are thrilled that some of you are going to have the opportunity to play with him again and thanks to all of you and good luck to you in the future.”

March 7, 2007

Senator Hagan:

“I, too, went to Wake Forest. I did my undergraduate work at Florida State University but then I went to Law School at Wake and what I wanted to just share with you all that during the first couple of weeks there they had a concert and there is a beautiful chapel, I’m sure you all know, at Wake, the Wake Chapel. But it is a multi-purpose building on some of the days and the concert was actually in Wake Chapel. So with my Law School buddies, we went to the concert, but there were all the undergraduates with homework, with their books before the concert started, they were reading. During the intermission, they were reading and I’m thinking, we never did this at Florida State, ever. But I just wanted to congratulate you, too. It has really been a joy and it makes all of us who went to Wake proud, how famous you are. The key point, as you have heard over and over, is the academics. What you show as football players and the graduation rate is something that we are all extremely proud of and all of North Carolina is proud of. So keep up the good work and thanks for coming today.”

Senator Brunstetter:

“I would like to echo what Senator Garrou said. Winston-Salem and Forsyth County were truly abuzz this last fall with the accomplishments of this wonderful team. I ran into Ron Wellman a few weeks ago and I told him that I was very proud of what this team had accomplished and I was proud because they had accomplished it the right way. In a big money sport filled with all the temptations of big money this is a school and this is a team that produces men of character, not just characters. I saw this first-hand with the nephew of a good friend of mine that I’ll talk about for a minute, Ryan Plakamier, who isn’t even with this team. I saw Ryan when he arrived from California as a typical teenager, a typical California teenager, and I saw over the years, Coach Grobe, how you used a variety of techniques from encouraging him to plain old tough love sometimes and you created a wonderful person in Ryan. I was fortunate enough to be able to help Ryan be a counselor at a FCA camp during the summers and I saw how he grew into a wonderful person and now that he is off on another career playing football for the Seattle Seahawks, he spends a great deal of his time ministering to the youth in his community. I am just so proud of the fact that although football is a very important thing to Coach Grobe and to Wake Forest University, what they are really about is producing men of character. Thank you.”

March 7, 2007

The joint resolution passes its second reading (46-0) and third reading with members standing and is ordered sent to the House of Representatives by special message.

Coach Grobe:

“It is with great honor that we are here today and I have to tell you that I feel somewhat guilty with some of the things that have happened to me personally. I have gotten some awards because of a lot of great people at Wake Forest and I am a little humbled by all of it. I will tell you there are two main reasons why we had such a successful season. First and foremost, we had a truly remarkable group of football players and, more importantly, a remarkable group of guys. This is a very unselfish football team, a team of guys that really and truly checked their egos at the door before going on the game field, a group of guys that were truly friends. We didn’t have a lot of those little clique groups that you get sometimes on a team. We had a remarkable group of guys that really liked each other and played that way every time out on Saturday afternoon. I would like to thank, also, a wonderful group of football coaches, a group of coaches that really and truly had the team’s best interest at heart. We had an offensive and defensive group of coaches that didn’t care whether we won three to nothing or forty-nine to forty-eight. All they cared about was trying to give our players a chance every Saturday to go out with a game plan and have a chance to win. So I have to thank my coaches, the most fun football team I’ve ever had a chance to be a part of, and I especially want everybody in this room to understand how proud we were to represent Wake Forest and the entire State of North Carolina in the ACC Championship game and in the Orange Bowl. Thanks so much. Go Deacs!”

Senator Basnight:

“I have sitting with me, Coach, some old Wake Forest players from Bertie County, from a little community called Colerain and they played before the campus at Wake Forest. I recognize them and every player that ever played for Wake Forest University and anyone who ever coached for this wonderful collection of athletes and scholars, people who have represented us above and beyond what anyone could ever expect. When you are predicted not to do very well, normally that happens. You have accomplished what I never could accomplish. You not only were an athlete and you played on this great, wonderful football team and you represented the University, the State, and to some extent our Country, but you succeeded academically and that is something that many people in this State have never done for various reasons. You’ve done much more than I and you’ve done what I dreamed and wished I was able to do. You went to college and you will graduate and you played football. That is the dream of so many young people. It was my dream and I never accomplished that and you have done what I wanted to do and what so many of us wanted to do. You made this State awfully proud. You made all of its people something special. And Coach, the best coach in America standing here in our Chamber, in our house of Government, we thank you and now we present to you and to this University the flag, the great flag of the Great State of North Carolina. So on behalf of the North Carolina Senate and all eight and a half million people, here is your flag to your State and to your home. God bless you and this wonderful team.”

Pursuant to S.J.R. 389, a joint resolution providing that the 2007 General Assembly shall meet in East Carolina University in honor of the Centennial Anniversary of the University, the Senate convenes at Wright Auditorium at East Carolina University, Greenville, North Carolina.

The Senate is called to order by The Honorable Marc Basnight, President Pro Tempore, who presides in the absence of the Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Scott Wilkinson, United Methodist Campus Minister, East Carolina University, as follows:

"Dear God of all peoples you alone are holy, yet you call us to be a people after your own heart. Forgive us where we have failed you. Grant us humility and determination to follow you more completely. We pray your blessing and guidance on the North Carolina General Assembly and on this gathering of the Senate. Thank you for the awesome privilege of being in positions of service. May the deliberations and decisions of this day be worthy of such a high calling. God, we give you thanks for East Carolina University and its 100-Year Anniversary. We pray for its Chancellor and all administrators, for faculty and the support staff from secretaries, to cooks, to cleaning crew, but mostly we pray for the students. May they take full advantage of the incredible opportunities that are here, to learn what they need to succeed, not just financially, but morally, emotionally and spiritually. We pray for our national leaders and for peace on earth. May justice flow down like waters and the poor be respected as the rich. And if there is one person in our beloved State for whom no prayer is being offered today, may this prayer count for that one as well. Amen."

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Almighty God, forgive us for the times we flinch when the going gets tough. We choose to play it safe. We sacrifice what we really believe in for what we can live with. But, God, you believe in our potential for more than we do. When your call is clear a fire burns in our bones. Give us the courage and conviction not to play it safe, but to risk everything. That's what faith is all about. Amen."

CALENDAR

Bills and resolutions on today's Calendar are taken up and disposed of, as follows:

S.J.R. 253, A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING INDEPENDENCE HIGH SCHOOL ON HAVING AN OUTSTANDING FOOTBALL TEAM AND HONORING THE MEMORY OF DEVIN HOWARD.

Upon motion of Senator Rand S.J.R. 253 is taken up out of its regular order of business and placed before the Senate for immediate consideration.

Upon motion of Senator Goodall, the joint resolution is read in its entirety and, upon motion of Senator Rand, the remarks of the Members are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator Goodall:

“Gentlemen, when I say debate the resolution don’t worry. We are going to pass this resolution. That is just a term we use. Since my seatmate is not here today, I’m going to mention that we had Wake Forest in here last week and they had won eleven games and Senator Smith talked for, I think, about thirty-three minutes or about three minutes per game. This team has won one hundred and eight games. To you players, I can’t imagine how proud you must be to wear the colors of Independence. It is a tremendous tradition and those of you returning for another year, there is nothing I can do to motivate you. The bar is set so high already that you have your hands full. I am proud to say that I have two children who went to Independence. One is at Duke Graduate School and he has been there awhile, but he is working his way through. But Independence did a good job for us. Of course, Independence is part of the Charlotte-Mecklenburg School system, headed by our still new superintendent, Dr. Peter Gorman. Just a little bit about Independence High School and the academics which are extremely important. Independence has an Academy for International Studies Program, a Career in Technical Education Department, a Bio-Medical Academy, an Informational Technology Academy and English as a Second Language Program. The school offers Microsoft certification classes, Junior ROTC, and it is strong in its International Trade and Marketing Programs there.

March 14, 2007

The school has a global focus and exchanges to and from Italy, China, France, and Germany. I want to take a second, and they will be recognized in a minute, to say thank you for the family of Devon Howard, the parents. Devon was an all-state performer and left a great legacy at Independence High School. Lastly, let me just say that the life lessons that you learn from sports, you know sometimes there is a debate in the public about athletics in high school and the costs of athletics and whether or not we should continue sports, but I know that the lessons you learn on that football field are just as valuable as some of the lessons you learn in the classroom and they will go with you always. We always encourage young men and women that come before this Body to consider public service at sometime in your career down the road and maybe even some of you will be sitting in chairs facing the other direction someday, so we hope you come back. Thank you, Madame President.”

Senator Graham:

“I, too, would like to lend my voice in saluting the Independence Patriots High School football team. Seven straight State Championships, one hundred and eight straight victories. This is an impressive feat! I have two children in the Charlotte-Mecklenburg School System. They are not high school students yet, but they encouraged me to attend my first Independence game this past fall when they played Butler in the playoffs. Eighteen people were in attendance and it was a college atmosphere. The team was well-disciplined on the field, as well as off the field. They won with pride and dignity and they didn’t rub it into the opponent’s face. They are a class act. They represent the City of Charlotte, Mint Hill, and the State of North Carolina in an extraordinary fashion. I was most impressed when we had an opportunity to meet with the players this morning at the roll call of schools that they will be attending next fall, Elizabeth City State, Fayetteville State, UNC-Chapel Hill, Yale, etc. Not only are these guys good football players, but they are also good students. We also would like to uphold the memory of Devon Howard, who also played on the Independence Football Team. We encourage the guys to continue to be good on the football field, but more importantly, to stress academics in their day-to-day lives. Congratulations and go Patriots!”

Senator Pittenger:

“I just congratulate each of you today. What a tremendous honor this is that you have brought to Charlotte. We have just been euphoric over watching you over the last few years and this year you captured the imagination of each of us in terms of achievements that you have accomplished and, of course, the press loves you. We all would like to have the kind of press that you guys get, but you have been remarkable. Not only was it said that you are great athletes, but the school is remarkable in terms of its academics. The students have come very uniquely from thirty-seven countries and fifty-four languages are spoken so Coach Knotts, you have your work cut out for you. I do thank you for the tribute that you have brought to our State, our region, and I just appreciate the dedication that you have given and the discipline that you have performed will carry you the rest of your life. Maintain that same focus and you will find that what you put into life is what you will get out of it in every respect. Thank you and God bless you.”

March 14, 2007

Senator Brock:

“Well, each year we take about a thousand votes in here and this will be one of the toughest votes that I will have to make. See, I went to Davie County High School, which you all have knocked out of the playoffs the last two years. You know, those are some of the best teams we have ever had and you all took care of them in a pretty handily manner. I just want to say that you guys did such a great job, not only on the field in executing the plays, but your fans and your family in the stands were warm and gracious to us. Something we look forward to playing you, hopefully, again next year. It will be a good game once again for us at least for one half. But again, thank you all for what you bring to the State and if we were to lose to you guys again, hopefully not, but if we were to lose like the last two years, not only was it to the best team in the State, but it was the best team in the Nation. Despite what the other polls say, you all are the number one team in the Nation and until someone beats you, you are on top. Again, congratulations.”

Senator Dannelly:

“Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, maybe just a little history about Independence. The first year Independence was open it was opened with two other schools as an experimental ... system school, Devonshire Elementary, under the principalship of Dr. Joe Brooks and Albemarle Road Junior High School, where I was an assistant Principal at that time under the principalship of Dr. Jack Blackburn, an expert in Junior High School education, who Charlotte-Mecklenburg hired from the University of North Carolina Education Department, and Independence under the late Dr. Sam Haywood who was quite a principal and who set the standard, I believe, for Independence’s future. I am proud to support this resolution, but at this point I am really glad that Coach Knotts decided that Duke wasn’t his place and that Independence was the place to be. He came back and took up the mantle and continued the tradition of winning and you young men sitting here in this Chamber today, you are the future. I know your coach and he has instilled in you manhood, scholarship and service to your community. That is what helped you become champions and he has made champions out of you. We are proud of you, not only Davie County, but the entire State is proud of what you young men have done. You see, we all know that you would not be a member of the team unless you were really academically qualified. So I want to thank you and particularly the coaches and all the teachers at Independence who played a role in this magnificent accomplishment. I urge you to support this resolution. Thank you very much.”

The joint resolution passes its second reading (46-0) and third reading with members standing and is ordered sent to the House of Representatives by special message.

Upon motion of Senator Rand, the Rules are suspended and the joint resolution is placed on the Calendar for immediate consideration.

Upon motion of Senator Stevens, the remarks of Senator Bingham are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

March 14, 2007

Senator Bingham:

“I’d like to say just a few comments. We had a celebration on Saturday, a wonderful parade, many old restored cars which the many talented folks in my area restored and we also had a large group of T-Models come in from Greensboro that were involved in this parade. The things that I’m going to say about Denton and, of course, we have our Mayor and City Council members sitting in the gallery, I just saw them come in and if you gentlemen would stand up, I would certainly appreciate it. Our Mayor Morris is a distant relative of our Chaplain here. Gentlemen, thank you for coming. It is a delight to have served with you. I want to just say a few things about our small town of Denton. It is approximately 1,300 people, but running the newspaper there we have a very rich history of loyalty and Americanism and the veterans that we have done stories on. We had one gentleman that was in the Death March at Baton. He survived that March and was later put on a ship that the Americans sank and he didn’t return to Denton. We also had three veterans who served on D-Day in World War II. We had two veterans who were captured at the Battle of the Bulge in World War II and were in German prisoner-of-war camps. We had another one who was captured and placed in a German prisoner-of-war camp. This period of time in Denton and in the history of Denton was noted for cross-ties and, of course, crossties at that time were cut with a cross-cut saw and chopped out and hewn with an ax. So you can imagine the strength and vitality of the young men that left the area to serve in World War II. Also, because of the hardships during the depression, we had many individuals who grew up on farms and had to make a living in whatever way they could, so we had gun-makers, furniture builders, bootleggers, and we had whatever it took to make ends meet during this time period and I’m very proud of it and it is a beautiful area. My dear friend who is not here with us today, Hamilton Horton, would come and visit and we would go to a small restaurant in Denton called the Classic and they had fried fatback. He loved that. So if any of you like fried fatback, I don’t know where you can get it in the State of North Carolina, but you can find it in Denton. Also, my great-great-grandfather was a buggy maker in the Denton area which is in the midst of the Uwharrie National Forest in the lake regions. Some of you have played golf at Uwharrie Point, the old North State Golf Club that is in this area. It is a beautiful area and I am so proud to be from there and there is so much loyalty and friendship among the people and America and North Carolina mean so much and you can see that in the veterans. Each week we have a long list of veterans who are serving now in Iraq and other places throughout the world. It is a very special occasion to me to be able to stand up and speak on behalf of Denton. I certainly appreciate each and every one of you allowing me to do this and I would encourage you to vote for this resolution. Thank you, Madame President.”

The joint resolution passes its second reading (44-0) and third reading with members standing and is ordered enrolled.

March 14, 2007

The chair extends the courtesies of the gallery to The Honorable Scott Morris, Mayor of Denton; The Honorable Andy Morris, Mayor Pro Tem; and F.E. Isenhour Jr., Town Manager.

THIRTIETH DAY

Senate Chamber
Thursday, March 15, 2007

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Beverly E. Perdue, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Dear Lord, the coach of a major college basketball program had the following to say to one of his players who sadly had just received four F's and one D. 'Son, looks to me like you're spending too much time on one subject.' I thought about that story as it relates to all the bills that are being presented. One piece of proposed legislation may get all the press value, but there are many innovative and visionary laws being proposed. Allow all the legislation to be given a fair amount of study time. Amen."

The Chair grants leaves of absence for today to Senator Clodfelter, Senator Graham and Senator Kinnaird.

Senator Basnight, President Pro Tempore, announces that the Journal of Wednesday, March 14, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Journal and it stands approved as written.

Pursuant to Senator Basnight's motion to adjourn having prevailed, the Senate adjourns at 4:28 P.M.

THIRTY-FIRST DAY

Senate Chamber
Monday, March 19, 2007

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Beverly E. Perdue, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

March 19, 2007

"Dear Lord, the sanctuary was filled and overflowing. There was glorious, rhythmic African American gospel music. At least seventeen reflections and tributes were offered. Church fans were distributed and gladly used by the participants. There was laughter and there were tears and 2 1/2 hours after its beginning, the service of celebration for the life of our late colleague, Senator Jeanne Lucas, ended. Such a reflection may seem an unusual way to begin this week's proceedings in the Senate, but it must be said that in the thoughtful, well-spoken words offered by Lieutenant Governor Perdue, Senator Basnight, and Senator Dannelly, the people there learned not only of their feelings about Senator Lucas, but also about the best of what happens in this place and the best of what is in each Member here. When I walked out of that church, this chaplain was proud to call the Members of the Senate my congregation if only for a few minutes a week. Keep giving your best. Amen."

The Chair grants a leave of absence for tonight to Senator Berger of Rockingham.

Senator Basnight, President Pro Tempore, announces that the Journal of Thursday, March 15, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Journal and it stands approved as written.

The Chair extends privileges of the floor to Dr. Robert Majors from Raleigh, North Carolina, who is serving the Senate as Doctor of the Day, and to Anne Hardee from Fuquay-Varina, North Carolina, who is serving the Senate as Nurse of the Day.

If Raekon, Sergeant Stephens’ son, could join us up at the front we will present a flag to Sergeant Stephens on behalf of the members of the Senate. If I may, to all of North Carolina’s heavy brass, thank you for your participation and the Sergeant’s participation for freedom that allows me and the people of this great State to make choices every day. Freedom allows us to make decisions that are in the interests that we believe in without regard of personal opinion or the choices that others may choose in conflict of our opinion. My little reading of the history of America and the reason that we’re so very different was championed by General Washington and it’s always been interesting to me that he never wanted to be called President. He only wanted to be known as a General that created these freedoms and these opportunities. So from Washington to Sergeant Stephens and everybody in between, you’ve given us our opportunity of choice. We are so awfully proud of you and your accomplishments and of every soldier that serves on our behalf. God bless you and your son and each and every soldier serving in our forces today in the world.”

Senator Rand:

“Madame Lieutenant Governor, can he have his wife come up here, too? I mean those who stand and wait also serve. We ought to have her picture, too!”

Senator Brown:

“Thank you, Madame President. Sergeant Stephens mentioned that he has been in Jacksonville and I think the time he is referring to, several guys who were in that mission were very good friends of my son and a couple of them were killed in that event. I went to the memorial service in Jacksonville that honored those two guys who were killed during that time. It was a very moving ceremony and it really made me appreciate what the Guard does in my community in Jacksonville and what they do for this State and this Nation. I really want to thank you for being here tonight because it really hit home with my son and me personally because it was a very good friend of his that we lost. Thank you so much.”

March 19, 2007

Lieutenant Governor Perdue:

“Again, to Sergeant First Class Stephens and his wife, Mrs. Rosalie Stephens, and to his son, Raekon, we can only imagine the sacrifices you’ve made and thank you, Senator Rand, for pointing out once again that it’s Mrs. Stephens who holds it all together while he’s serving the world. We thank all of you for that.”

The Chair recognizes Mrs. Rosalie Stephens, his wife; Raekon, his son; and members of the National Guard, Brigadier General Iwan Clontz; Colonel Tom Harris; Command Chief Warrant Officer Richard Ernest; State Command Sergeant Major Tommy Gattis; and Lieutenant Colonel William Ratliff.

SPECIAL MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The following special message is received from the House of Representatives:

H.J.R. 321, A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING THE LIFE AND MEMORY OF ERIC SCHOPLER, A PIONEER IN THE TREATMENT OF AUTISM.

Upon motion of Senator Rand, the joint resolution is placed on the Calendar for immediate consideration.

Upon motion of Senator Cowell, the remarks of the Members are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator Kinnaird:

“Thank you, Madame President. Fellow members I hope that you will read the entire resolution which outlines the life and accomplishments of a great man. I first knew Eric Schopler when he was an icon in our town because of the work he had done on autism in the hospital at The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. When I say an icon, I mean an icon not only in our town, but he became an icon nationally and internationally for the work that he did on autism. If you look through that, you will see that he not only has every award that could possibly be given to a person who has accomplished what he had, but also that he was a published researcher who brought this message all across the world and changed the treatment of autism entirely. Before Dr. Schopler began his research on autism, they thought it was caused by the mother. The mother who was not a good parent, who had done something wrong and, therefore, caused this child to be severely disabled. What a heartache. What a cruel accusation. First, the mother has to deal with a child that is severely disabled and then she is told that it is her fault that the child is the way she is. So I cannot tell you how much we owe to Dr. Schopler who discovered that this is a brain disorder. He also discovered the variety. It can be very mild autism where very often people can function in the world and do function in the world, to very severe where they must be carefully monitored and carefully taken care of and carefully trained. So we owe a great deal to this pioneer, this giant. I just want to say a couple of personal things that are beyond what you read in there of the cold, hard facts. Eric Schopler was born in 1927 in Fürth, Germany, the second of three children of Erin Schopler, a prominent attorney, and his wife, Erna Oppenheimer. He often said that he had a deceptively pleasant childhood in that while he was aware of Germany's anti-semitic social policies, he did not experience anti-semitism personally. He noted, however, that he was aware that something was wrong here since some of his Jewish teachers, friends, and acquaintances disappeared suddenly and were imprisoned or killed. This awareness, coupled with his family's sudden move to the United States to avoid being caught up in the looming holocaust, was responsible for his life-long interest in the question of why certain individuals and groups become socially excluded, misinterpreted, and scapegoated by their fellow citizens. Finally, I want to just read briefly from his last very personal experience as he was dying. He was suffering from cancer and was very aware of what he was experiencing and what it meant. I quote from Dr. Schopler, 'We are mostly having a very good day just about everyday. Cancer or knowing of mortality gives a fair bit of credit. First, it makes you realize much more vividly how great it is to be alive each day. Second, it makes me realize how extraordinarily lucky I've been all my life, escaping the Nazis to the United States, getting a great education followed by a marvelous career, a fantastic wife, family and friends, and a splendid community. If I should drop dead before I see you next, which I seriously doubt, you can be sure I will die with a grateful smile on my face.' We are all grateful to Dr. Schopler for what he has brought to all of us. Thank you."

March 19, 2007

The joint resolution passes its second reading (44-0) and third reading with members standing and is ordered enrolled.

Upon motion of Senator Kinnaird the Chair extends the courtesies of the gallery to the family of Eric Schopler, his wife, Margaret Schopler; his daughter, Susan; and his sons, Robert and Thomas.

Pursuant to Senator Basnight's motion to adjourn having prevailed, the Senate adjourns at 8:27 P.M.

THIRTY-SECOND DAY

Senate Chamber
Tuesday, March 20, 2007

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Marc Basnight, President Pro Tempore, who presides in the absence of the Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"God of wisdom and truth, Will Rogers once said, 'We are all ignorant, only on different subjects.' Holy Scripture puts it more positively, 'We have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us.' Help us to claim and use our gifts where we are able, including the gift of silence in matters where we have nothing better to contribute. Amen."

The Chair grants a leave of absence for today to Senator Dorsett.

THIRTY-FOURTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Thursday, March 22, 2007

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Beverly E. Perdue, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Dear God, I watched with interest this week the sight of Senators with stacks of bills in hand going from desk to desk, from one colleague to another, getting signatures on bills that the others hope will become laws. Such a scene reminded me of your words to the prophet Habakkuk, 'Write the vision. You said make it plain on tablets so that a runner may read it. For there is still a vision for the appointed time. If it seems to tarry, wait for it. It will surely come.' We end this week with those good words of promise. In your Holy name we pray. Amen."

The Chair grants leaves of absence for today to Senator Cowell, Senator Dorsett, Senator Hagan, Senator Hoyle and Senator Snow.

Senator Basnight, President Pro Tempore, announces that the Journal of Wednesday, March 21, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Journal and it stands approved as written.

Pursuant to Senator Basnight's motion to adjourn having prevailed, the Senate adjourns at 12:44 P.M.

THIRTY-FIFTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Monday, March 26, 2007

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Marc Basnight, President Pro Tempore, who presides in the absence of the Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Dear God, we begin a new week in the Senate having turned over the pages of last week's activities renewed and ready to start over. We can't really start over with any authenticity unless we pray as did the Publican, 'Father, be merciful to me a sinner.' Having confessed our shortcomings and accepted the grace of your forgiveness, we begin our week at peace inside our own skins and glad in each other's presence. We also ask that you hear our prayers of comfort and strength for Senator Malone as he grieves the loss of his wife, Susan. In your holy name we pray, Amen."

Senator Dannelly, Deputy President Pro Tempore, announces that the Journal of Thursday, March 22, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Journal and it stands approved as written.

THIRTY-SIXTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Tuesday, March 27, 2007

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Beverly E. Perdue, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Dear Lord, last night Senator Swindell and Senator Kinnaird reminded us with both pride and exuberance about the success of their respective basketball teams, Barton College and the UNC-Chapel Hill Women's Basketball Team. But I wonder if our State's true 'March Madness' hero will ultimately be recognized in the person of Coach Kay Yow of N.C. State. The lessons we have learned

March 27, 2007

THIRTY-EIGHTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Thursday, March 29, 2007

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Beverly E. Perdue, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"A wise old Rabbi named Aliezer told a Biblical story as follows: 'God said to Moses, Moses, my children are in distress. The sea forms a sandbar in front of you and the Egyptians pursue. Yet you stand and say long prayers. Why do you cry unto me?' The Rabbi would then say 'There is a time to be brief in prayer and a time to be lengthy.' So Lord, teach us when to cease praying just with words and when to start doing something so that the very living of our lives will be a prayer offered to you. Amen."

The Chair grants leaves of absence for today to Senator Graham, Senator Hoyle, Senator Malone and Senator Pittenger.

Senator Basnight, President Pro Tempore, announces that the Journal of Wednesday, March 28, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Journal and it stands approved as written.

March 29, 2007

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Upon motion of Senator Snow, the remarks of Senator Blake about his upcoming trip to China are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator Blake:

“To make this brief would be pretty difficult because I have been living it for about twelve months. In 1944, a pilot from Moore County was flying a P-40 aircraft in China. His plane crashed and he was killed. The Chinese that saw that plane crash went to the site, got the body, buried the pilot and maintained his gravesite for sixty-one years. In February 2005, our MIA folks were made aware of this gravesite in China. They went to China, got the remains of the body, brought him back and he was identified as being Lieutenant Hoyle Upchurch from High Falls, North Carolina, Moore County. The body was brought back in April of last year and he was buried in High Falls with high honors. We had the Chinese Embassy represented and we had people from all over the world at that service and I concluded at that time that the story was over. In August of last year, I received a letter from the County of Gu Dong, which is in the Hunan Province of China. They said that they would like to build a memorial for that pilot. They have done that and on April 5 they want to dedicate this memorial to Lieutenant Hoyle Upchurch. It was my duty to put together a group of people from our County and my district to be a part of this delegation. My counterpart is Dr. Glenn Shoe, a North Carolina State University Professor who lives here in Raleigh. His job was to take care of the Chinese side of the equation. The delegation will be leaving on Saturday morning and will be gone for ten days. On April 5, the ceremony will take place in Gu Dong County. In China, April 5 is a lot like the Fourth of July here. It is a national holiday. This event will be carried on every network in China because this will be the news story of the day. I absolutely realize that I’ve been privileged to be a part of this great journey. Moore County will actually do a little ceremony as a sister relationship with the County and I’m hoping that our State will be part of that process. The Upchurch family will be part of the delegation. Not any of them live in North Carolina anymore. Some are coming from California, Florida and around the Country. I hope that on April 5 you will just think about what a pilot did sixty-two years ago. He was flying a P-40 airplane. In order to fly those planes you had to be the very best. It was a volunteer part of our military because his unit flew under the Chinese Government in the beginning and he wrote a letter home maybe a week or so before he was killed and he said, 'Don't worry about me if I don't get back. I'm not married and in a year or two you will have forgotten me.' Well folks, it's amazing what can happen to a life even in certain circumstances. On April 5, the world will know about Lieutenant Hoyle Upchurch from High Falls, North Carolina, Moore County and thanks for giving me the opportunity to make these comments. If you know anything about Moore County, it is noted for pottery. If you know anything about pottery in Moore County, you'll know the name Ben Owen. Well, when I was thinking about what we could give the County of Gu Dong as a gift, I called Ben and asked him if he could do something and he yes he could. Friends, I want you to know that Ben and I went to the gravesite where Lieutenant Upchurch is buried and he literally found the clay. It takes two types of clay to make this kind of pottery. He literally got the clay for this pot from probably seven-hundred feet from where Lieutenant Upchurch is buried. Ben Owen has inscribed on the bottom of this, 'From Moore County to the County of Gu Dong' and I think the inscription is about peace and good friendship. Ben Owen will be making this trip with us and I am privileged to say that Ben is in the gallery today and Ben I would like for you to stand up and be recognized. Last Friday I had the opportunity to go down to Pope Air Force Base and visit the Flying Tiger Organization that is located there. This unit that Hoyle Upchurch flew in has been re-activated and is located in Bragg. If any of you ever have a chance to visit that unit, I ask you to do it. It is the most refreshing experience you'll ever have, to meet those wonderful people that put their life on the line everyday for our security. They are great Americans and they know what they are doing and they know why they are doing it. It is just a blessing. Thank you for giving me an opportunity to make these comments. See you in about ten days. Thank you."

March 29, 2007

THIRTY-NINTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Monday, April 2, 2007

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Beverly E. Perdue, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"O Lord, salvation history, that is what this week is all about. We celebrate it in different ways, from synagogues and grand cathedrals to one room country churches, from Passover, which begins tonight at sundown, to a hill called Golgotha and Easter's empty tomb. It is a time when we remember how you saved us from evil, death and from our own humanity. That you saved us is a gift, not some sort of achievement on our part. We can make ourselves moral. We can even make ourselves religious. But we can't make ourselves love. We love, John says, because you first loved us. To your glory and our salvation we pray, Amen."

FORTY-FIRST DAY

Senate Chamber
Wednesday, April 4, 2007

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Beverly E. Perdue, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Dear God, certain Biblical stories stick with us from the first wide-eyed, heart pounding time we heard them even until the present. David, with his slingshot, slaying the armor-clad Philistine giant, Goliath, is one such story. Who among us when facing a formidable foe hasn't recalled this Biblical narrative as a source of inspiration and encouragement. I don't think I've heard the Bible quoted so often in public recently as when Barton College of Wilson took the floor against Winona State in the Division II Basketball Championship. It is David versus Goliath they all said. We're glad that our own David won that contest. Today, when the Senate honors the team, we are also grateful for Biblical stories brought to life by new heroes. Amen."

CALENDAR

S.J.R. 1556, A JOINT RESOLUTION RECOGNIZING THE MEN'S BASKETBALL TEAM AT BARTON COLLEGE ON BECOMING THE 2007 NCAA DIVISION II NATIONAL CHAMPIONS, is taken up out of its regular order of business and placed before the Senate for immediate consideration.

Upon motion of Senator Swindell, the joint resolution is read in its entirety and, upon motion of Senator Rand, the remarks of the members and guests, are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

April 4, 2007

Senator Swindell:

“Mr. and Mrs. President, thank you so much for coming today with this team. I want to say to all of you and to your families how proud you have made everybody on this floor today, but especially my wife, Diane, and me for we had to sit there in the stands watching you come down the stretch, Anthony, at games and wonder what was next. We literally stayed on the edge of our seats. L. J., all of you and the way you played this game was amazing. You not only represent Barton College, but you represent Wilson and Wilson County. You represent the State of North Carolina now as you’ve moved on to greater things. In the News and Observer this past weekend, there was a feature, Anthony, and you had your picture on there and I think David was on there, too, on the front page of the paper. You guys said that you were having a hard time getting the proper perspective of what all of this was about and Anthony said that every time he looks at forty-five seconds to go he thinks things are going to turn out some other way. I want to put that into perspective the way I see it. You have lived our dream. Every kid who has ever had a basketball in the backyard has played with five seconds to go. We have done that over and over. We have done it against all of our famous college teams. We’ve had the ball, we’ve dribbled, we’ve counted the seconds and, if we missed, we started over again. Well, when you had about two and a half minutes to go, I was watching the game with some friends from Wilson, Al and Margaret Nile, and as Anthony went to the foul line, Margaret said, ‘I’ve seen that look in his eyes before, they are going to win this game.’ As we sat there watching the game and Bobby with that steal making your way down the court and the whole team effort that you put in, you know we had a dream come true. We made that final shot with you all making it for us. And we finally, with you, won a National Championship because of you. So all of those backyard dreams have come true. Thank you for being here.”

Senator Graham:

“I, too, would like to lend my voice in congratulating the Barton College Men’s Basketball Team. At the beginning of the quarter finals, Senator Swindell knows that I’m a graduate of Johnson C. Smith, a Division II school so I have always followed Division II basketball and I think you guys play Queens on a regular basis in Charlotte. Senator Swindell came to me during the quarter finals and said, ‘We have a big game, Malcolm.’ And I said, ‘Well, I don’t know Senator, I think you guys are playing Virginia Union and Virginia Union is pretty tough.’ But I think you played someone else, but you won that game and you went to the finals and I was sitting there in my living room watching the game with my daughter who plays AAU Basketball, and I was giving her the old ‘quitters never win’ speech and she said, ‘This game is over, daddy.’ And I said, ‘No, they might pull it out. They still have a minute left to play.’ And she said, ‘Daddy, this game is over.’ And point by point and point by point and when the last steal was made and you laid it up she said, ‘He’s not going to make it.’ And he made that lay up with .1 second left in the game. So Coach and members of the team, you made my speech to my daughter a reality that in trying times quitters never win and winners never quit and certainly you represented all Division II schools, including my Alma Mater, extremely well. Congratulations.”

Senator Brown:

“Having a son that was recruited by Coach Hall to play soccer and who spent about four hours at my house, I guess about six or seven years ago, I got to know a little bit about Barton College. My son decided to go somewhere else, but he ended up at Mount Olive College and I think Mount Olive is probably, if not the biggest rival, one of the biggest rivals for these guys. I wanted to tell you that the kids at Mount Olive College were pulling for you guys real hard. My son and some of his friends came and were watching the game with us and they were pretty excited when you guys won. So I have a little touch of Mount Olive in me and Senator Swindell kind of kept us informed a lot and we talked about it. But Coach Hall really spent more time recruiting my son more than anyone else who tried to recruit him and I appreciated that. So I just know how good a college Barton is and I can really appreciate what you guys did and just congratulate you for a great accomplishment.”

Senator Rand:

“Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, I am delighted that we have some school children here today to witness this because I will tell you young folks if you have ever seen things that make an impression on you, that give you the strength to carry on, the will to persevere, the hope that what you are doing will be successful, these young men here exemplify this as much as anything I have ever seen. This was an incredible basketball game. I, for some reason, saw it. I don't know why. I was just kind of flipping and got on it and really then got into it. I went to Chapel Hill and when we beat Duke that time with just a few seconds left, I had the flu and I turned the television off because it was making me so mad and I didn't want to see it. That was one of the worst mistakes of my life! But I enjoyed this as much as anything that I have ever seen. You have made us all extremely proud by your never-say-die attitude. That you kept getting it and getting it and what you accomplished will be with you the rest of your life and nobody can ever take the things you did away from you because you performed at the highest level, competed and emerged victorious. Somebody told me one time that the next best thing to shooting and winning was shooting and losing and you guys got to shoot and win and that is absolutely marvelous. By what you have done, you have really reflected a great deal of positive things to North Carolina. I saw somewhere that your coach is thinking about becoming a preacher. If I had something like that happen to me, I think I would have converted on the spot. But what you have accomplished is a wonderful tribute to you, to the coaching staff, to the administration, and to your school. I'm delighted for your accomplishment and I appreciate very much the wonderful attention you have brought to North Carolina and we really look forward to your continuing to do the good things for our society that you have done for college basketball. Thank you.”

April 4, 2007

Senator Atwater:

“I want you to know that Senator Swindell told us about your championship games before they were starting. It was an invitation, but it was more like a ‘you had better watch this game,’ because he was so excited about it and so I started watching and I enjoyed the Championship Game immensely. I couldn’t believe what I was seeing. I would like to share with you some comments that I took off of the WRAL Commentary by Tom Suitor and I changed around just a word or two there and hope you enjoy these words, as well as my fellow Senators and the guests that are present. It’s Barton, it’s Barton, is the name of the introduction he gave. It is the stuff of legends. It is what they make movies about. It is one of the most amazing finishes that I have ever seen. Cinderella lives and breathes in Wilson, North Carolina at Barton College. The glass slipper fits and Barton College is the NCAA Division II Basketball Champion. If you didn’t see it, and I hope you did, you missed a miracle. They won the title 77-75 over undefeated defending champions, Winona State, a team which had won fifty-seven straight games. They won it because they believed they would win it. Barton trails the whole way in the game. I am watching the game and thinking it is over. Winona State is up 74-67 with just forty-five seconds left. I mean these guys haven’t lost all season. They think the game is theirs. Against anybody else, that might be. Winona State doesn’t believe what is happening. Seconds before all this, they are celebrating an undefeated National Championship and now they are feeling the apple in the throat. These closing seconds to them are in slow motion. Afterwards, Winona forward, Quincy Henderson, said, ‘I am still trying to figure out what happened.’ He is probably still thinking about it. Barton won the 2007 NCAA Division II Championship. Is that not unbelievable or what? Sometimes it is just meant to be and for this Barton basketball team, this is a moment that will stand in time, even as the years fly by. Some quotes from Coach Lievens, ‘We never stopped believing.’ ‘You can’t find a better ending.’ And this you would expect, some brilliant coaching advice from the NCAA Division II Coach of the Year, ‘All I said to Anthony at the end was that it was time for him take over.’ The Barton team that went 31-5 won an unreal, nine overtime games. This was a team that was used to playing in close games and was used to winning them. They believed even when they were seven down with forty-five seconds left against a team that hadn’t lost since January of 2006. David had a big rock on Saturday and the big giant of Division II was stunned senseless. Barton College is National Champion. We all here know the championship applause and the championship accolades and all the wonderful attention that you duly deserve, but in time those things fade away a bit. An interesting thing happens to young people like you that Senators like us and most all of society place upon your shoulders and that is the mantle of leadership and responsibility and it happens whether you really want it or not or whether you approve of it because you are a National Champion now. We look up to you. I hope that you will sublimate all of those applauses and all of those fancy remarks which you duly deserve at the time, no question about and for years to come. But think about the ways that you might use your leadership to help in your community, in your region, in the State and

April 4, 2007

Nation. I would hope that you would consider showing up at our public schools, maybe most especially in the early grades where kids need to see a real champion and they need to hear that story about the work ethic, the tough times you had maybe personally, the time you finally committed to wanting to play team ball and what that meant for you and what that can do for you in playing team ball, the ups and downs. What it meant to you and what you had to go through to become a champion because they desperately need to hear that and there will be some kids there that will never have a championship moment, but you could give it to them by explaining to them what it takes to be a champion. I want you to also look for that kid, and we all know that kid, that is having a tough time, a little lack of self-confidence, nobody has ever really cheered them on and encouraged them on and you be that one to encourage them on, to make them believe that they can succeed, that they can overcome some pretty tough obstacles that they may be dealing with. You have a tremendous opportunity as being a national champion and I hope that you will give some thought to that. You've reflected great credit upon yourselves and upon your families and upon Barton College and upon this Old North State where the weak grow strong and the strong grow great just like you. Thank you."

Senator Basnight:

"Members of the Senate, this wonderful collection of successful young men, Coach and President, Senator Rand wants the young Buffalo man who stole the ball, where is he? Well, Senator Rand is claiming you as his blood. He said that 235 years ago his grandmother was a Buffalo so he has claimed you and he feels like he gave you those skills that you have! I always wanted to play basketball but my coach was a family member. His name was Steve Basnight and I was a freshman at Manteo High and he said, 'Marc, you have to be able to run and bounce the ball at the same time.' I was cut from Manteo's junior varsity squad in the ninth grade. Senator Swindell kept me informed of each and every game and he would tell me when you would play, but he would never invite me. He never wanted to buy that ticket. I know what the reason was. Then I had a phone call from Dale Bone. He cares about this school and about your success and what you will become in life and he invited me to stop by and have lunch and it was after one of your quarter final victories and he goes to those games. He was telling me you were going to win this National Championship. I was sitting there looking at Dale, who is pretty blunt with his language and I told Dale that he had better stick to growing cucumbers and sweet potatoes! But he was right and many people were right and more than anyone else you were right because you believed and you knew that you could win these games and now you have succeeded and now you sit on the Senate floor where the Wake Forest Football Team, the ACC Champs, sat. The Appalachian State Football Team sat where you sit today, as well as The University of North Carolina Women's Soccer team. The point that I am making is that for those of us who are sitting here today and so for many people in North Carolina, you are the real champs. You are the ones who did it without people believing that a small college like yours could beat someone who had won fifty-seven straight games and you thrilled all of us and I watched that game as well. I had planned to watch it and I was amazed and like Senator Graham's daughter, I did not believe that you could win at the very last, but you did and when the young man, Anthony, when you scored that basket I don't think you knew where you were for a while as you rounded that court and all of us watched that and then we watched it so many times over. You brought that great joy to us and that privilege to be able to call you champions and you will be champions forever more. I recommend this resolution to the members of the Senate and we thank you for what you have achieved."

April 4, 2007

The joint resolution passes its second reading (47-0) and third reading with members standing and is ordered sent to the House of Representatives by special message.

Coach Ron Lievens:

"I just want to say personally, I am very humbled by this. This is truly an incredible experience for all of us. We thank you so much for your time. I know how busy you all are and you have so many pressing matters on your table on a daily basis and I just want to thank you from my heart and from my boss, Gary Hall, and our President, President Kneten. Thank you so much for all that you are doing for us today. This is something that these young men will remember for the rest of their lives. Certainly, I cherish each and every moment of this. Thank you. This year has been an incredible year and this team does not know the word 'quit' and they have a big heart. Everywhere we went, people did not believe in this team, they would say you are too small or you are not athletic enough, you do not have very many big guys. Everywhere we went, people did not believe in us, but these guys believed in themselves. They showed what can happen in athletics if you do not doubt yourself, if you constantly believe, are not tired of working, and you play together. This team played very well together and very unselfishly."

President Kneten:

"Madame Chair and honorable members of this Body, I am not sure what I am doing here. I did not sink a one of those baskets all the way down. I do remember in the quarter finals of the Eastern Region standing there toward the end of the game yelling my voice out and thinking that it does not look like we are going to make it and I had started thinking about what I was going to say to the coaches, what I might say to the players, that they have had a wonderful run, it's been a great time, and then they won. From that point forward, I never had that thought again, not once. Every time I was looking and thinking what are they going to do next and they took it all the way, all heart. They have lived a dream, as you said. They have lived a dream. They have broken out of the ordinary and that is what we want for our student athletes and that is what we do for our students. We are thrilled to be here and we appreciate the opportunity that you have given us."

Upon motion of Senator Rand, the joint resolution is read in its entirety.

Senator Dorsett offers Amendment No. 1 which is adopted (46-0).

Upon motion of Senator Forrester, the remarks of the members, are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator Rand:

“Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, when I read this year or last year or whenever it was about Virginia’s action in this regard, I took a little time to reflect on things. I’m sorry that North Carolina did not lead the way in this, but since we didn’t there is nothing I can do about that. The only thing we can do, I think, is to take a little time ourselves and to reflect on the lessons of history and North Carolina’s participation in a way of life and in a system that we all deeply regret now. The innate qualities of human beings and the worth of an individual, all of these things are an integral part of what we talk about here today. In college I majored in history and political science and I have become more a student of history as I grow older and I think that it is incumbent upon us to re-examine those things that have gone on in other times and in other places and the things that our State has done and the kind of things that we, as a people, have participated in. To find value in those things that did move humanity forward, but then to express our regret for those things that did not, that demeaned human beings, was a system that denied the basic humanity of a people. So, hopefully, through this we can gain a better understanding of ourselves, a better understanding of some of our ancestors, and a better understanding of what kind of State we can be if we continue to work to honor the value of every human being and to try to make sure that our society is the kind of society that does value people for what they do and how they approach life and not to discard someone simply because of the color of their skin or to enslave someone simply because they could. I think that this is a way to reflect upon this and to express our understanding and our regret for official actions of our State. We are the elected representatives of the people and I think it is incumbent upon us to do this kind of thing when we can and when we look at this, hopefully, in some way this may aid us as we go forward to try to be better children of God and better representatives of all of the people of our State as we try to build a better world. I would ask your support. Thank you.”

Senator Shaw:

“The other day when Senator Rand brought me the resolution and asked if I would sign on to it, I told him that I thought it was a good resolution and I shook his hand on it and looked him in the eye because I wanted to see if I could see the sincerity in his heart. I think it took a great step for him to do this and I want to commend him for doing this. This man is not often at a loss for words, but he struck me with this as the right thing to do. I call upon the Members of the Senate to remember some of the atrocities and some of the worst types of violence that have been visited upon humanity in the forms of previous ancestors. Slavery in itself is not such a bad idea if you give your slave what you have yourself and in many ways this is not slavery. There were indentured servants long before slavery in this Country and you could work your way out of a contract. But the type of slavery that we saw and that we witnessed was the worst form of slavery. It was chattel slavery which reduces a human being to property and therein lies the problem. When you take the soul from an individual, even women in this Country experienced this, women, black and white, did not have a soul and this was wrong. When you dehumanize a human being, that is one of the worst kinds of things we can do in the name of profit. Thank God that day is gone and thank God we have a new life that we walk by. It is the kind of life where you have an opportunity to live up to this creed, to this great Constitution that we all swear by, that we all took an oath to affirm. You have a chance to do some things and correct some redress. This is not a matter that you should take lightly. This is not a feel-good resolution. Many people have died, were lynched, and suffered because of injustices just because they were in the wrong place at the wrong time. So I applaud you for hearing this resolution today. It is not something easy. It is not something you really want to look at and talk about, but it allows you to gain a sense of fullness about humanity. There was a famous decision that was handed down by the U.S. Supreme Court, the Dred Scott Decision, where the slave had sued for his freedom and it went all the way to the Supreme Court and the courts, after deliberation, denied him the redress and said the reason that he didn't win was because he was three-fifths of a man. Well, how do you become three-fifths of a man? Well, when you can't read and when you can't write and when you don't have the intellect of the average citizen, you are the walking dead. You are non-productive. You are really not living a life that the good Lord intended for you to live. They had taken all of his senses from him. And today that is why after the Civil War, education was the number one priority in this Country for former slaves. That is why you see all of the historically black colleges and universities. Most of them were started right after the Civil War. It is no accident or coincidence that this occurred so that people can learn to read and write and that they can grow in their humanity. This is a noble gesture but I urge you, don't let it end here. There is plenty of work to be done. The NAACP and the Coalition Partners are striving to bring about change that is going to improve all of our lives. You know many across the State cannot organize. This is North Carolina and it should be pro-business. But our firefighters can't organize in some of the counties and in some of the cities. Our policeman cannot organize. Is this America or is this some third-world country we are living in? This is America. You know, we have almost squandered all of our goodwill around the world on foolishness. Everybody wanted to be American, everybody around the world and rightly so because we have set forth a standard of recognition, you know rags to riches, anybody. It is untold of. I mean that is why they came from Europe, wasn't it? You were born into a system and you couldn't rise out of that caste system. Over here is a new Jerusalem. Well, here in North Carolina we don't have the right to organize. People have to have the right for grievances. We have a sixty percent drop-out rate in black schools.

April 5, 2007

We have re-segregated our public schools again and if you don't watch out, the clock will turn back on you. It will because history will repeat itself and that is why we have to learn these serious lessons. Senator Rand, I want to thank you for bringing this forth and I hope that all of you will continue to lift this State up and do the things that make all of us first-class citizens. I ask that you support this resolution. Thank you."

Senator Graham:

"First I would like to take the opportunity to thank the sponsor of the resolution for the spirit in which he brought this resolution to the floor of the State Senate. I clearly understand the significance of what we are about to do here today and in some cases the historic precedence that we are setting here today. It takes a mighty big man and it takes a mighty great institution to have the fortitude to take a look at yourself in the mirror and to critique what it sees, the good, the bad, and the ugly. Sometimes going back in time and saying, 'Yes, we made a mistake and we are sorry for it,' is the appropriate thing to do. I, too, am a history major and a political science buff and sometimes I wonder, while flying from New York, what the Wright Brothers would think about air travel today, starting with trying to fly and now we are flying all over the Country or what the Ford Brothers would think about the BMWs and the Mercedes and the interstate travel on the highways. As we sit here to debate this resolution, I wonder what those individuals who lived in the 17th, 18th and 19th centuries, who suffered slavery and humiliation and degradation would feel listening to this debate today. Certainly, they would be in the upper chambers. They wouldn't be allowed to sit on the floor. Now perhaps there will be some folks who will be so bitter, so hurt and so ashamed that they can't accept this apology. There will probably be others who, with a strong belief in God and faith can see the progress that the State has made over 200 years, will find it in their hearts to accept it and to move on and to try to work together as one Nation, one State and one human being, to work toward better race relations across our State, across our Country. I say, and I'm not in a position to accept or reject an apology. I will vote for the resolution. I ask a question, 'Where do we go from here?' Certainly, the State of North Carolina has made tremendous progress in race relations. We have put our resources where our mouth is but in talking to friends about this about a month ago when I heard what Virginia did and we were at a dinner party, there were about four couples sitting around the table, and we were saying, 'Okay, what does it mean that Virginia did this or what does it mean that Georgia did this? What is the significance today?' And the consensus around the table was those five words that we always use when we sort of accept what is being said, but there is some doubt. Actions speak louder than words. So the people of North Carolina from Charlotte to Greensboro to Raleigh and all over the State will be watching the actions of this Senate and the actions of this General Assembly in terms of where do we go from here. How do we right the wrong in the manner that makes sure that as our State grows and as we prosper we cannot grow and prosper unless everyone goes along for the ride. We are only as strong as a State as our weakest link. So we continue to do what we always have done as a State. We have to invest in our historically black colleges and universities. These were the institutions that were there when Chapel Hill said no, not because we were not qualified, but because of the color of our skin. So we have to make sure that Winston-Salem State and North Carolina Central and Fayetteville State and Elizabeth City State get the resources that they need. We have to make sure that those who invest in our State ... by the taxes that we pay into it, get a return on their investment by having the opportunity to compete fairly and equally for procurement opportunities. We have to make sure that when we hire folks we look for the best and brightest no matter what race they are. As I look across the Senate and see the pictures on the wall and I see former Governor Dudley and Mr. Bagley who served in the Spanish-American War right there, we honor those from our past who, despite slavery, who despite Jim Crow Laws, helped build a better North Carolina. We honor their memory by honoring them with a portrait on the walls. Our actions will speak louder than our words. We have a tremendous opportunity. North Carolina is a progressive State, far better than others because we don't wait for a crisis to occur, we act before it happens and I am confident that through the leadership of this Body, the men and women who serve here today who are progressive in their thinking, that we can find the ways to work to right the wrong. We still have a long way to go. I am forty-four years old and forty-four years ago there were still Jim Crow Laws on the book that we sanctioned. Families are still split up trying to catch up. We have an obligation to, as I said with those five words, put actions into place, moving forward as a State. North Carolina sends a clear message today penning our names to the roll of those who say I am sorry for what we have done. We can send a clearer message by saying look at what we are doing now, how we will work to address the wrongs. We thought we have been doing it for years and years. Let's see if we can do it better. Thank you, Madame President."

April 5, 2007

Senator Dorsett:

"Thank you very much. I, too, want to thank Senator Rand for sponsoring this resolution and also to all of those who signed on as co-sponsors. I didn't grow up in North Carolina, but I did grow up in the South and so the experiences of black Americans were the same wherever you were in the South. I was listening to the history as the resolution was read and I think that for many of us in this Chamber, it was a reminder for some of us and sometimes for us it was the first time we had heard this and so it was a lesson in history. I think the apology is quite appropriate because I think that after an apology the healing process can begin and I hope that is where we are. There are things that still need to be done in North Carolina. All is not well, as many of you know. I could go to my own community and some of us in our communities would like to think that things are wonderful, but that is just the surface. When you look under there, we have serious problems throughout our communities with human relations and race relations and so I hope that this is a wakeup call to say that we acknowledge what has happened and we know right now that everything is not well but we are willing to begin to talk to each and have an open dialogue to make our State a better State for all of the citizens of North Carolina. I hope you will support this resolution. Thank you.”

April 5, 2007

Senator Purcell:

“Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, I am one of the older members of this group. I know Harris Blake is older than I am and Charlie Dannelly won’t reveal his age so I don’t know about him. But I grew up back during the 30s and 40s and I must confess to you that my grandfather was a slave owner. He died many years before I was born but he had a large plantation and a lot of slaves. I’ve always had trouble dealing with that. I appreciate this resolution because it does bring some reconciliation to me. I saw back during the 30s and 40s the injustice that was done to black people in my community. The tenant farmers who were given a little bit of money during the year and then at the end of the year was supposed to get their share and the farmer would say that there is nothing left over so you don’t get anything and they would start back over again and I have trouble dealing with that. I saw the company store in our community where the black people who worked on the farm were given script instead of money and they would bring the script into the store and I worked in that store and never did this, but what they would do if they didn’t have the right change they would just keep it and they would get no change when they paid for the groceries on the weekends. I had trouble dealing with that. I saw over and over and I have heard many stories since I have been in the Senate from people that I respect, where the schools for the blacks got the used or second-hand books from the white schools and they usually took the torn and battered books and that is what they got. Their facilities were never quite equal to what we had. I have great pride in the leadership of some black leaders who came into southern communities and formed schools for black children. If they had not done that, and I’m thinking about the Laurinburg Institute, there would never have been a place for black children to go to school. I think that this resolution does not solve our problems. I think that we need to continue to be aware of the racial inequalities and racial injustices in our community and we need to continue to work at that but I do commend this resolution to you.”

Senator Albertson:

“Members of the Senate I, too, want to express my appreciation to Senator Rand for bringing this to us. We know we can learn a lot from history by looking back and looking back, this was not a good time in the life of our Nation, was it? It was not a good time in the life of the church and I have often asked myself, ‘Where would I have been at this time?’ The truth is I probably would have gone along to get along. But we can learn from that in looking at ourselves today in our society. I love our Constitution as I get older as I look at those words that talk about life and liberty and justice and the pursuit of happiness and I am convinced today that we have too many divisions among our people. You know what those divisions are. Just look around you between

April 5, 2007

Republicans and Democrats, whites and blacks, Hispanics, gays and straight, and the list goes on and on. We passed legislation, I believe a couple of years ago Madame President, that requires our school children to recite the Pledge of Allegiance everyday. We need to remember what we have asked our young people to do in school and remember those great words in the pledge of life and liberty and what it means. We are a strong Nation when we are united as a people. The good Lord made everyone of us and all of us are different, but he loves each one of us and I believe he would have us love each other the very best way that we can. So let us learn from this time in history. Let us be better men and women as we who have been elected to serve these people work together to make this State a better place for all of our people.”

Senator Bingham:

“I offer a different perspective on this resolution. Senator Rand, I certainly appreciate your taking the initiative to bring this resolution before us. In looking at some of my family history as Senator Purcell did, my great-grandfather, L.G.B. Bingham, did not have or own any slaves. Not only did he not own any slaves, he refused to be a part of that and ended up serving four years in the salt mines in Wilmington. This was a very horrible time in history. Four of his children died because of the hardship that was placed on his wife to manage the farm. This was in rural Randolph County. I have seen some of the letters that were written, as I’m sure all of you have, from family members and the horrible times that occurred and later he served in the House in the Legislature in North Carolina, which I’m very pleased that he did. He served one term in the House and, of course, I can sympathize with the reasons and now being here I appreciate the fact that he did that. So, there are many others, not only my great-grandfather and his name was, Lorenzo Greenbury Barnam Bingham, L.G.B. He is buried in a small church in rural Randolph County, Canaan Church, and after the Civil War and serving in the Legislature, he came home and started a buggy factory, Bingham Buggies, and they were sold all over the piedmont of North Carolina. So I rise to say that there are many members, many folks throughout North Carolina that did not own slaves and accepted a lot of grief and I’m sure several of your relatives, as well, probably participated and felt the same way. I rise to speak in tribute to him because I know he suffered a lifetime of scorn and other things because of the nature of the times and I urge you to support this resolution. Thank you, Madame President.”

Senator Jacumin:

“I can relate to the resolution. You know in any conflict or wrong doing, you never have a closure until there is an apology or reconciliation occurs. In 1686, the Duke of Savoy ordered our religion, a religion that many of us practice today, abolished. Any practice of that religion must be punishable by death. Troops massacred, raped, and pillaged our villages, burned our villages, 8000 people were imprisoned. Within six months the treatment was so horrendous that 4000 people had died. The pressure in Europe surmounted to the extent that the King was forced to release our people but instead of releasing them, he sold part of that 4000 into slavery to man the oars of ships and he exiled the balance of them. For hundreds of years, there was no reconciliation. There was no closure to it. But some years back, the Catholic Church did apologize for that, did offer reconciliation and, as a result of that, today our two groups are together building children's homes, working in hospitals together and I just know that the end result of this resolution is going to bring about that same kind of thing. You see, when we have an argument with another individual and an apology occurs between those two, there is a closeness that increases even prior to that argument. I just believe that is what is going to happen with this resolution today and I commend it to you and I just look forward to what great things can happen from it. Thank you."

April 5, 2007

Senator Berger of Franklin:

"I appreciate that Senator Rand has given us this opportunity for this apology. The introduction of this bill has certainly brought out some ugliness. I'm sure many of you have received some emails as I have that have raised objections to this apology. I had an opportunity last night to go to the web and read comments with regard to the story that the media had put on the web concerning the introduction of this bill and had an opportunity to read those comments and they were very ugly comments coming from certain folks. The central question from many folks that were critical of this bill have raised and I want to have an opportunity to try to answer it here on the floor and the question is, 'Why are we doing this apology? Why are we doing this now? I didn't have anything to do with slavery. It is not my responsibility. It's not my problem.' I want to answer that question. We had the institution of slavery in this Country and it led to a Civil War. But the mistreatment of African-Americans did not end when the Civil War was over. We went through a period of reconstruction in which African-Americans were promised by this Nation that they would receive forty acres and a mule to give them a start and to give them the opportunity to be economically self-sufficient. After all, that was the opportunity given to our forefathers when they were given the opportunity to have land here in America that they could then eventually pass down by generation. But you had a whole class of citizens that upon being granted their freedom were not given the economic means to be self-sufficient. That problem was then compounded by the rise of Jim Crow Laws which led to official segregation of the races and when you bring it up to the modern times and the Civil Rights Movement in which we saw the passage of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Voting Rights Act of 1965, the Open Housing Bill of 1968, we still could see and we still experience the vestiges and impact of slavery. I, myself, as a young freshman at Chapel Hill, had an opportunity to go back home and work in my community. In 1979 and the very year that the Supreme Court said that the Nation was going too far and made it so we could not have set-asides in our public institutions to redress the affects of slavery, in my own home community I worked in a company in which we were told that if an African-American applied for a job, we were expected to write a 'B' on that application and if a Caucasian person applied for a job we were expected to write a 'W' and the purpose was so that the management would know who not to call back and this was 1979. When we look at where we are today and we see that African-Americans disproportionately suffer from infant mortality rates, disproportionately suffer from social ills such as HIV, disproportionately are unsuccessful in schools and end up in prison, these are all of the effects of slavery and, as Senator Graham says, the real challenge here is we need this apology, but what is it we are going to do next and I think that we have to fulfill the promises that we have been working on in this Legislature to rectify those ills and that is the challenge that remains to all of us and that is why we are here today apologizing for slavery because we are still feeling the affects of it and we still have the challenge to overcome those affects. Thank you.”

April 5, 2007

Senator Goodall:

“I support the resolution and want to follow Senator Berger’s comments about the emotional part of this issue because it has disturbed me, too. I support the resolution but I, too, have received those emails and I want to address that a little bit and try to explain it as best as I know how. Dr. Lyndon Abrams is a professor who teaches multiculturalism at UNCC where my wife is in graduate school and he talks about white people wearing an invisible veil. He talks about our whiteness being invisible to us, whereas with African-Americans, their blackness is more important and more of a part of their daily life. I think we all understand the logic behind that. That is why I think that I, as a white person, have what psychologists would say and what he says is cognitive dissidence. Rationally, I can’t think of a reason why I would personally apologize for something, Senator Berger, that happened that long ago, but I know it’s the right thing to do. But I think people are having that discord and I kind of understand that. I think that this is certainly fitting and the positive thing to do and this bill also talks about what you referred to, Senator Graham, and that is what we do today and tomorrow, treating all persons with abiding respect for their humanity and promoting racial reconciliation in Sections 2 and 3 of the resolution. That is the part that we should get behind and pay attention to and I certainly support this resolution and encourage everyone to vote for it.”

Senator Foriest:

“I was really hesitant to get up, Madame President, because when I think of this issue, it brings up so much emotion. Sometimes I feel that I’ll let other people talk for me, but hearing some of my colleagues get up it just makes me realize that I need to get up and say something not only for myself and for my family, but certainly for my community and I understand some of the issues that people are bringing up and I’ve heard them all of my life, like when people say things like, ‘I didn’t do this or my family didn’t do it so why should I be in a situation where I have to respond or apologize.’ But I think we all need to understand that what we are talking about is State-sponsored discrimination. We are not talking about just morality with individuals, we are talking about a situation where the State itself went out of its way to deny a people the right to life and liberty and the pursuit of happiness and as bad as it is for people to act a certain way individually but for the State to use all of its power to do that, somebody has to take responsibility for it and that responsibility belongs to each and everyone of us. I also want to thank Senator Rand for stepping forward and doing this. I approached him a few weeks ago and asked him about it. I had read something in the paper about Virginia and his comment to me was that we are going to take care of it. I didn't bring it up to him again and he approached me later on and wanted to show me some things and my point is I really appreciate people accepting that kind of challenge because it does take a lot to look into the mirror and to admit to yourself and to those who will listen that we have made a mistake. We need to do something to right those wrongs and I very much appreciate that and I can speak first-hand as to what racism can do to you. I remember growing up and my father would take us on vacation. We would have to plan the vacation around where we would be able to stop to stay the night and when you read the Constitution and you read all of the things that we stand for and what this Country means, you would think that something like that couldn't happen, but it has happened and it is happening and I agree with some of my colleagues who were saying that this is just the first step. We still have a lot of work to do. We have to move forward and it is more than just these words on a resolution. We have to put our actions where our words are. There is a lot that can be done. I read from time-to-time something from Martin Luther King, a letter from a Birmingham jail and in that letter he explains particularly to the clergy what we are doing with the Civil Rights Movement and why we are doing it and he talks about his disappointment in the people that supposedly believe in the same God that he believes in and they didn't say anything. They just kind of let things happen. They didn't take a stand. I think that we are beyond that point now. We all have an obligation to take a stand when we see some things that aren't right. We have an obligation to examine ourselves and we don't always do that. Martin Luther King said in that letter as he apologized in the end for taking so long that this is the longest letter I have ever written, but I guess when you are in a situation where you are in a jail cell and there is no one else to talk to and nothing else to do, you can find the time. And maybe we need to sit back and reflect on where we are and where we are going. We get so caught up in the things that we are doing on a day-to-day basis that we don't really reflect on the things that really matter. So maybe we ought to take some time and just understand what it is that we have an obligation to do and as men and as members of this General Assembly, we can do a lot to change things. This State is looking to us for that leadership and the question is are we going to step up to that challenge or we are going to go back to what we have done before. Madame President, I certainly recommend that we go forward with this resolution."

Senator Dannelly:

"I really don't know where to start. First of all, let me thank all of my colleagues who have spoken so eloquently on this resolution. I guess I'll start by saying my middle name is the last name of the owners of my ancestors. I have heard some stories, Senator Purcell talked a little about this, and I have seen some stories and I guess I'm closer to the days of slavery than anyone in this Chamber. Since I have been here, I have seen the General Assembly sort of balk at the suggestion made by the Legislative Black Caucus prior to the big bond issue that we ran several years ago of the fact that each member would have gone out across the State and urged people to vote against the bond if we didn't make a bonafide effort to help catch up historically black colleges and universities in this State because of a lack of funding that North Carolina Central was falling down. After that, the General Assembly started to realize that we had to do more to try to come closer to equalizing things. I want to caution you that within the last year and a half I've seen the ugly head of hatred rise up and when that happens we have a tendency to lump a group of people into the same statement. I've heard too many people lately lump our Latino citizens along with those that are supposedly here illegally. We have to be careful about that. But I got up to say to this Body that sure everything on this resolution happened and more, but Section 1, Section 2, and especially Section 3 are the meat of the entire resolution, particularly Section 3. If we do that, things will move forward. I urge you to support this resolution."

April 5, 2007

Senator Brock:

"You know to study history you must dig and dig deep and report what you find no matter how ugly it is. And it was tough for a lot of us and lot of people who wrote those letters that had it wrong on either side of the issue many years ago with slavery. My own great-great-great-grandfather died in a Union prison after he was captured one month to go before the end of the war. We lost our home and lost our farm. But you know the damage that was done to the black citizens of our State, no one can deny and reading through this you must uncover history and tell what happened. So many times in our history books, we don't learn all that there is to know about North Carolina's history because not all of it is glorious. It wasn't until college, and this is where it would go in the resolution on page 2 between line 19 and 20, that I learned about the Wilmington Race Riot where the Democrat Party, to get leadership and power again, lynched black citizens and ran out Republicans and Fusionists and when they had gotten that power, the Jim Crow Laws were passed and you know you can say that my family maybe held some resentment for the land and the life that was taken away from them. But you know, it was those practices themselves in us being devout Methodists and taking the lessons that we learned on Sunday and to practice them everyday of the week and my family joined the minority of the Republican Party because they believed that we should be equal to all, white or black, men or women and that we all have that right to vote. You know I wish, also, in the resolution and of course it would be so many volumes, probably as thick as the statutes that we have, but include some of the things that North Carolina did give to the movement to end slavery. Davie County's native, Hinton Rowan Helper, wrote the book Impending Crisis in the South. That book became the primer for the anti-slavery movement which born the Republican Party and led to the election of Abraham Lincoln. I've studied leadership and I found what it felt like to be on the other side and Lincoln would say as they asked him why he was against slavery and he said that he wouldn't want to be a slave and I think we all feel that. But for the State to apologize is a small step. In a study last year for the Wilmington Race Riots and you could put political riots in there as well because the Fusionist Party at the time was an interesting mix and for those of us that have worked across political bounds before, it is a great mix when you do get people of different parties together to work on issues. But then again, when I read this, I did have some intentions of voting against this resolution because history was not described with accurate and true meaning. Nothing was said of the power structure and of how it changed in that time but, again, I've said that if we did it would be many, many pages long. But Senator Dannelly put it best. Almost the first two pages of this don't go deep enough and far enough. But the true meaning of this resolution is in the sections at the end and those sections are something that we should all take to heart each and every day because we, in the State, make decisions up here and they are not always right. We won't see a resolution to apologize for the intangibles tax but that was something that was held that wasn't right. But, also, I look about the State apologizing for allowing actions that do not respect aspects of humanity and I saw that and it took me to heart. That is one reason why I believe that we should work hard on many more issues outside of race, especially to try to protect the rights of those children that are unborn and to protect all of humanity no matter their station in life, their color, their sex, or their age."

April 5, 2007

Senator Berger of Rockingham:

"Members of the Senate, I rise in support of the resolution and I, like many others, thank Senator Rand for bringing this forward. You know one of the first things I thought about when I looked at the resolution and I read through it and one of the questions I had and one of the regrets that I have about the resolution is that we don't have Senator Horton here to guide us. But I think what Senator Horton would tell us is that it is important, most important, for us to remember what happened. All too often nowadays what we see is an effort to airbrush the inconvenient facts out of our history. One of the stories that I heard and, I assume it is true, I have not been to the memorial, was that at the Franklin Roosevelt Memorial, there is a famous picture of him where he is sitting in his wheelchair and he has a cigarette in his hand and there was an effort to airbrush the cigarette out of his hand because it wasn't convenient to think about the fact that somebody smoked. I think that this resolution helps us to focus on an unpleasant part of our history. But it is a part of our history, nonetheless, and it is something that we need to think about and something that we need to understand probably better than most of us do at the present time. As I understand the resolution, what it does is it acknowledges mistakes on the part of the government of the State of North Carolina. I think that we would all agree that mistakes have been made. Mistakes continue to be made, but it is important for us to understand what they were. I think the resolution also helps us to focus on the fact that those mistakes are part of what we are today, like it or not. The experiences that we've had as a people lead us to where we are today, good, bad, and otherwise. But I think the other thing that the resolution calls upon us to do is to commit ourselves to return to those first principles of our government properly understood. Because you see, the idea that all men are created equal was in our Declaration of Independence but I don't think it was understood to apply to everybody until Abraham Lincoln in his Gettysburg Address brought that into focus. So I thank you again, Senator Rand, for the resolution. I certainly appreciate the comments that have been made by everyone up to this point and I commend this resolution to you."

April 5, 2007

Senator Basnight:

"Members of the Senate, I recall my first exposure to the extremes of peoples' opinions of other people because of their color. Coming back from a football game, I believe the game was in Greene County and I caught a ride back and I must have been out of high school or I would have been on the bus, so I must have been 18 or 19 years of age. I was in the car with my brother-in-law, Bobby Owens, and we stopped right outside of Jacksonville but this could have been any community in North Carolina at the time. There was a big rally in a big open field and we hadn't had anything to eat so we pulled in thinking that maybe we could find food and probably drink, as well. Bobby Owens was buying a pie and they were selling these baked goods and Bobby asked, and I was standing behind him and there were some other people with us, what was the purpose of the bake sale and the event that was occurring and the man said it was a fund raiser for the Ku Klux Klan. Bobby bought the pie and proceeded to throw the pie in the man's face and that caused quite a ruckus and we got the bad end of that pie-throwing event that Bobby participated in, but I couldn't have been prouder of Bobby and our little carload of people from Manteo because we hadn't seen that kind of public exposure. In reality, we all shared in it and we all knew it occurred in our community as well as your community and we knew it was there. But the public rejection that evening has stayed with me all through my life. To have seen people stolen from to the level that our government allowed to occur from our very beginnings, to take a people and place them in bondage, separate their families and to sell them to other plantations or to other people, to destroy the very opportunity that we all spoke of in the Preamble to the Declaration of Independence, to say that in print and then to disallow it, such as we do today to some extent, goes beyond any of the passages of our life that we read about in our Bible that guides us today, each and everyone of us in different ways or any Holy Book that we may read. To find that it could occur in our State and in our community has escaped my comprehension. My ability to understand is pretty limited at times but to look at a person and make a decision based on his color is something that we all should have rejected in our families that came before us. How it ever occurred is very confusing. Yet, we pick up a paper today and we read that it still occurs in the world. It still happens that you can go to Thailand and you can buy people that are held in bondage and they are slaves. And there are certain countries that still traffic in that trade but it does sadden me and I apologize to all people of color that if my family participated in it, I am sorry. And I am sorry that it ever occurred."

Prayer is offered by E. Wayne White, Staff Member in the Senate Principal Clerk's office, as follows:

"Almighty God, we beseech thee graciously to behold this thy family, for which our Lord Jesus Christ was contented to be betrayed, and given up into the hands of wicked men, and to suffer death upon the cross; who now liveth and reigneth with thee and the Holy Ghost ever, one God, world without end. Amen."

FORTY-FOURTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Tuesday, April 10, 2007

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Beverly E. Perdue, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Our Father, the passage of the Senate's bill apologizing for slavery in North Carolina and the radio talk show host's racially inflammatory remarks about the Rutgers' women's basketball team are certainly on opposite ends of the reconciliation spectrum. Yet, strangely both stir within us the same festering wounds, wounds of guilt, anger, denial, and resentment. If more of us would take to heart Paul's words in Galatians, 'There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, male or female,' and then live up to that scripture with contrition, compassion and forgiveness, we might actually capture the imagination of the rest of a divided world. So though vitally necessary to right injustices, we can't rely on laws to change our hearts and our minds and the very healing of our souls. Only you can do that and only then will we be at peace with one another. Amen."

April 10, 2007

The Chair grants leaves of absence for today to Senator Apodaca, Senator Bingham, Senator Blake, Senator Cowell and Senator Garrou.

Senator Basnight, President Pro Tempore, announces that the Journal of Friday, April 6, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Journal and it stands approved as written.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Upon motion of Senator Goodall, Senator Weinstein's remarks on Yom Hashoah, Holocaust Remembrance Day, are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator Weinstein:

“I hope all of you had a happy Easter Holiday and I had a very happy Passover. Last week I enjoyed very much the discussion that we had on the slavery situation that occurred in North Carolina. What I am rising to talk to you about is the Jewish Holiday, Yom Hashoah, which occurs this Sunday, April 15. It is probably a holiday that none of you have ever heard of. It is a holiday when we remember the Nazi Holocaust of the six million Jews and Catholics, gypsies, mentally ill or any person that opposed a dictatorial government. I would just like to take a few minutes to reflect on the meaning of this holiday and why it is so important over sixty years after Auschwitz was liberated and that we in the North Carolina Senate will take just a moment to remember those terrible events. About four years ago, my wife and I went to visit the Holocaust Museum in Washington, D.C. and I was moved incredibly by the experience. I expected to be taken back by the horror that I saw and I was. It is just incredible to really face what horrible things that human beings are capable of doing to one another. But what surprised me most was how I became obsessed by how the rest of the world could let this happen. Whenever I talk to someone of that generation, I ask them, ‘What were you thinking in the 1930s? How could you let something like this happen? How did the world let this build up and happen without stopping it before it reached such horror?’ And that is what I think is important for us today to remember that not only is it possible for humans to do these horrible things to each other that is going on in Darfur and all over the world today that people are doing to one another, but it is possible that we have a responsibility here to step forward and make sure that it doesn’t happen. In this Country, if we don’t step forward, it can happen. I’m very proud to live in the United States of America and I think we passed a bill that required our students to recite the Pledge of Allegiance and this is why I am so proud of being an America because at the end of the Pledge of Allegiance are these words, ‘With liberty and justice for all.’ Not just a particular group of people, but with liberty and justice for all. I brought today an illustration to show what happens when Democracy fails and a Totalitarian Government takes over. I have brought with me today the stamps that were issued by the German Government from 1940 to 1943 on the Occupation of Poland and you will see in these stamps how a culture is destroyed. Thank you for giving me this moment of privilege.”

SPECIAL MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The following special message is received from the House of Representatives:

H.J.R. 523, A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING THE LIFE AND MEMORY OF RUTH MOSS EASTERLING, FORMER MEMBER OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

Upon motion of Senator Rand, the joint resolution is placed on the Calendar for immediate consideration.

Upon motion of Senator Forrester, the remarks of the members are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator Dannelly:

“Thank you, Madame President and ladies and gentlemen of the Senate. First of all, let me thank you for your patience. I don’t know when I met Ruth Easterling. I used to see her name in the paper when she would do or say certain things on the Charlotte City Council. In my life she sort of disappeared and when she disappeared she ended up here in the General Assembly. But if you read the resolution and the little write-up on her that I passed out to you, she never disappeared. Even today the work that she has done has not and will not disappear. Ruth was small in stature but she was very active, always smiling, pleasant and a strong advocate for children and for the rights of women. I found out things about Ruth through Representative Beverly Earle. They were pretty close. Beverly found out that Ruth needed a little help later on in going to receptions in the evenings so she offered to drive her. Eventually that became the thing, not only here in Raleigh, but at times in Charlotte. They had a little thing going and I’m sure all of you have heard it. I would ask Beverly, ‘Beverly, where are you going?’ Beverly would say, ‘Oh, I have to drive Miss Daisy to a reception.’ They both had a good time about driving Miss Daisy. Ruth had a great sense of humor. I have never heard anybody talk trash about us men in such a pleasant and funny way. But she had that knack. She could talk trash about us and Ruth made fun of herself. We will miss Ruth. There are many things that I could say about Ruth and her work up here, but it is in the resolution. Not only that, but several of you in this Chamber served with her and I know you know her work well. The most recent ones were Senator Shaw, Senator Nesbitt, and Senator Preston, who served with her and I’m sure there are several others. So I say to you, without taking too much of your time, please support this resolution for a very hard-working servant of the people. Thank you.”

April 10, 2007

Senator Clodfelter:

“Thank you, Madame President. For each one of us in our own individual ways our lives are one of the stories of the times in which we live. For Ruth Easterling, her life was the story of the times in which she lived. I don’t know anyone that I’ve known in my adult life who saw more change during the course of their single lifetime than did Ruth Easterling and I think to the end her spirit of optimism, her belief in possibility and her boundless energy reflected that long transition she had seen from the world of her youth when she was a young woman growing up in the South. She went through all of the changes for the better, all of the changes and improvements in the lives of women and the lives of people, in the lives of her native State, her home. How could you live such a long and productive life without being an optimist? It is really presumptuous for me to stand up here and talk to you about Ruth Easterling. Many of you knew her far better than I did and it is very humbling to speak about someone whose life has already been made into a televised documentary. What can you say to add to that? So what I’m going to do here for just a moment is to read to you a tribute that was given at her funeral by someone who did know her well and, in fact, was a former member of this Body and my predecessor in representing the 37th Senatorial District. These were the words spoken as a tribute at her funeral by Leslie Winner. ‘The death of Ruth Easterling is a great loss to the people of Mecklenburg County, to the women and children of North Carolina and to me personally. She served the people of North Carolina as a Representative for virtually all of my adult life and was also a close personal friend. Like all of you, I mourn her loss, our loss. When I say Ruth served the people of North Carolina, I don’t use the term lightly. I first met Ruth in 1981 and it did not take me long to learn that she was willing to do everything that she could to improve the lives of regular people and by regular people, I mean children, daycare workers, families in crisis, school teachers, people without health insurance, your regular person who works hard for forty hours a week to support a family. It wasn’t lip service for Ruth. She was tireless, she was relentless, she was fearless, and she was affective. Although Ruth was raised in a time when the role of women was clearly diminutive, even as a young woman she had the idea that women should have minds of their own. After all, she had a mind of her own. In the early 1960s before it was fashionable, when she was President of the North Carolina Business and Professional Women she began to lobby Governor Terry Sanford to create the Commission on the Status of Women in North Carolina, which he did. She went on to be elected to the Charlotte City Council in 1972. She served as President of the newly formed North Carolina Women’s Political Caucus in 1974 and was elected to the North Carolina House in 1976 where she fought for women and children and families for twenty-six years. All the while, she nurtured and she mentored dozens of fortunate younger women such as myself. She never slowed down for over forty years and that’s what I mean by tireless. She has also been tireless in the more mundane sense of the word. I've seen her up at her microphone at 2:00 A.M. as her younger colleagues ... making sure an important bill was passed or a bad amendment was defeated. She just kept going like the energizer bunny. She was relentless. Ruth was relentless in her effort to assure that all children, no matter what race or economic status, grew up with the opportunity to live full and rich lives. For many years, she was Chair of the Child Fatality Task Force trying to make North Carolina a safer place for children to live. She was determined. I remember once saying to her, 'Ruth, we will never get that bill passed.' She responded to me, 'Well, we won't get it passed if we don't try.' Can't you just hear her standing there saying that? So she shamed me into trying. We worked together and we got the bill passed. She relentlessly fought for the State to establish Smart Start, a program to improve early childhood education and healthcare services. There were many opponents and it was not easy. But Ruth would not take no for an answer. She would not let it be watered down. She would not rest until funding was in the budget. Once Ruth Easterling found the right and fair path she did not care how unpopular it was or who opposed her view. She did not waiver. She was fearless. One of my fondest memories of Ruth Easterling is her arising on the House floor to her full height, which was by then somewhat less than five feet and telling the members of the House that they ought to be ashamed of themselves for what they were about to do. They may have done it anyway, but deep down they knew that they ought to be ashamed. Jack Betts noted in the Charlotte Observer, 'Her admirers have long known of her backbone in standing up to what is right and her commitment to equality and justice.' She was effective. People who fight for children and people without power are not always able to be effective in the North Carolina General Assembly. Because Ruth combined integrity and intelligence, conviction and common sense, she was able to live her convictions and also be effective. Her accomplishments are too numerous to list. Her early colleagues have noted that she got better with age. In 1999 at the age of 88, the Speaker named her Co-Chairman of the House Appropriations Committee. In 2000 at the age of 90, she was ranked by the North Carolina Center for Public Policy Research as one of the top ten most effective members of the House of Representatives. In losing Ruth Easterling, we are losing one of North Carolina's great leaders, one whom all of us, men and women alike, would do well to emulate. We are losing a role model and a second conscious and a dear friend. The people of North Carolina will miss you, Ruth, and I especially will miss you.'"

April 10, 2007

Senator Preston:

"It was indeed a pleasure for me to serve with Ruth Easterling for ten years. Some of the things that I remember about Ruth, she was very instrumental and always carried the bills for the North Carolina Children's Fatality Task Force. She was quite and humble but she, in her really kind and sweet way, could really chastise those of us who were even considering not voting for the bills that were important for children's safety. I can remember so well that she was one of the first you would see early in the morning, the last you would see late at night and when she came briskly walking down the halls with those heels clicking, you knew that she was still very interested in what was going on. She was truly a wonderful role model for me and for many women and you can see by reading this resolution the many awards that she won. Just two years ago when I spoke in Pamlico County at a domestic violence vigilance, she had just died and I used her to remind the people of all the hard work she had done for women and for children. Senator Rand, I think it was about two or three years ago that you and I were honored by the North Carolina Covenant for North Carolina's Children with a Legislative Award for our service to children and what an honor it was for me because that award is named in honor of Ruth Easterling. So I appreciate the opportunity to speak on this resolution and certainly would urge you to vote for it. Thank you very much."

April 10, 2007

Senator Nesbitt:

"Thank you, Madame President. For those of you who never served with Ruth, I was trying to think of the best way to describe her and we all talk about and know about the 'Greatest Generation.' Usually when we use that term we are thinking about the male side of it because of war and the fact that they were more prominent public servants during our lifetime, but I think if you could sum Ruth up in anyway it would be that she was very much a member of the 'Greatest Generation', the generation of people that did the right things for the right reasons and wanted this world to be a better place for the next generation than it was for the last. If you can imagine someone that could stand up on the floor of the House and chastise everybody in there for talking while she was trying to listen, you'll get some flavor for the presence that she had in that General Assembly. She would do that and when she did it really all of us would hush. She was very much an advocate for women and children and I think some of the times I enjoyed her the most were when we would get into debates on issues that affected women and children and all the men would hold forth on what their opinion was and she would let us know in pretty short order that she respected our opinion, but we were just barely entitled to it and she would proceed to explain to us what the issue was really all about. I think I considered her a very close friend and I think I got a little extra tolerance from her due to the fact that my mother preceded me in the General Assembly. Folks, you'll never see public servants like that again. She was magnificent. What they are telling you is true. When we would hold appropriations bills on the floor until three or four or five in the morning, she would not leave her seat and if you wanted to fight with her at five in the morning, just go ahead and pick it and she would get up and hold forth. She was affectionately known in the House Chamber as the energizer bunny. That came out in that editorial, but that is the name that we gave her because she just kept on ticking and she would never, ever quit. She didn't ask for a quarter, she didn't give any quarters and she stayed with you and fought the good fight all of her life and I was blessed to have known her and considered her as a friend."

April 10, 2007

Senator Albertson:

“Thank you, Madame President and members of the Senate. I don’t know what I can add to what has been said here. I was privileged and honored to have met this lady when I was elected to the House in 1989 and I believe you served with her at that time, Madame President, along with Senator Kerr and maybe some others. She was everything that she has been described to be today. I always thought of her like a mother figure, if you will. She was just someone that everybody looked up to. I know I did. She was so well respected. I asked her one day, ‘Miss Ruth, how in the world do you stay in such good shape? You look like you are in perfect health. Do you do a lot of walking and running?’ She said, ‘No, but every morning before I get out of the bed, I am moving all of my limbs back and forth. I do my exercises right in the bed every morning.’ She was such a gracious, wonderful person. Everybody loved her and looked up to her and respected her as has already been said by all. She probably was the perfect role-model for all of us who serve in this Body. I will always love her and cherish the good memories I have of her and I recommend the resolution to you.”

Senator Shaw:

“Thank you, Madame President. Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, I, too, rise to express my gratitude to Representative Ruth Easterling. I had the opportunity to serve with her when I first came to the General Assembly. You will never see the likes of someone like her. She, along with Senator Bill Martin, are the epitome of what service is all about. I recall how she was like a lioness protecting her cubs and the programs that she was involved with that pertained to domestic violence and children’s programs. If you took so much as a quarter from the programs, you were in for a fight. She advocated her position with all the dignity and intellect that one person could bring. She will long be remembered for the work that she accomplished. It is said that the greatest one among you, is the greatest servant among you. I think that the people who have talked about her today, have shown that she fits that description. I urge your support for the resolution.”

The joint resolution passes its second reading (42-0) and third reading with members standing and is ordered enrolled.

The Chair extends the courtesies of the gallery to the family of Ruth Easterling: Ruby Moss, sister; Jolene Settiff, niece; Pam & Ed Cazel, great niece; Mike Melton, great nephew; Tammy Hodges, great-great niece; Michael Melton, great-great nephew, and Mollie Torres, great-great niece.

FORTY-SEVENTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Monday, April 16, 2007

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Marc Basnight, President Pro Tempore, who presides in the absence of the Lieutenant Governor.

April 16, 2007

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Dear Lord, among the members gathered here, some are educators, most are parents. We turn our thoughts and prayers tonight to the campus of Virginia Tech University and the school's leaders, professors, students, and parents of students whose lives have been forever changed by the senseless and horrific murders that took place there today, over thirty dead and many seriously wounded, young people, not much older than those that fill the gallery here everyday or offer their service as pages. Why do these tragedies happen, O God? No explanation will seem plausible to the parents, students, or to us right now. For those of us who believe in you, the answer will remain a dark and awful mystery. We pray that you would allow us the emotions of grief, sorrow, anger and loss. Then let us summon all our energy to pray for the Virginia Tech family and resolve to do all we can to prevent such an occurrence from ever happening again, anywhere. Comfort your people, O God. Amen."

The Chair grants leaves of absence for tonight to Senator Apodaca, Senator Atwater, Senator Bingham, Senator Boseman, Senator Goodall, Senator Graham, Senator Jenkins, Senator Kerr, Senator Pittenger and Senator Soles.

Senator Dannelly, Deputy President Pro Tempore, announces that the Journal of Thursday, April 12, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Journal and it stands approved as written.

The Chair extends privileges of the floor to Dr. John Allbert from Charlotte, North Carolina, who is serving the Senate as Doctor of the Day.

CALENDAR

A bill on tonight's Calendar is taken up and disposed of, as follows:

April 16, 2007

S.J.R. 1489, A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING THE FOUNDERS OF THE TOWN OF MOREHEAD CITY BY COMMEMORATING THE ONE HUNDRED FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF THE SHEPARD'S POINT LAND PURCHASE.

Upon motion of Senator Preston, the joint resolution is read in its entirety and, upon motion of Senator Shaw, the remarks of the members, are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator Preston:

“I would like to not certainly repeat what you’ve just heard but to point out a few things that I think are extremely significant, at least as I’ve studied the history. I would like for you to look behind me to this portrait. This is John Motley Morehead for which the City of Morehead was named and just to give you a few facts about the Governor, Morehead City was the brainchild of Governor John Motley Morehead I. Governor Morehead and Silas Webb visited Carteret County to study Beaufort harbor and port in order to determine whether a larger port could be developed. Governor Morehead foresaw the commercial potential of Shepard’s Point, the peninsula at the intersection of the Newport River and Beaufort Inlet and envisioned a great commercial city there. Governor Morehead and his associates purchased six hundred acres of the property from the Arendell family and made plans to extend the North Carolina Railroad from Goldsboro to Shepard’s Point. Governor John Motley Morehead strongly encouraged the early incorporation of Morehead City. Many of you who know the history of this Governor knew that he was a graduate of The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill where he was trained as a lawyer. He devoted his adult life to insuring the freedom of the mind, the freedom of enterprise and the unfettered equal opportunity of the people of our State. He also served in the General Assembly for several sessions. When he was elected Governor from the Whig Party, twice that occurred, he served from 1831 to 1835 and was the first governor inaugurated in the new State Capitol back in those days. In 1945, John Motley Morehead III who was the grandson of the number 1 signed an indenture creating the John Motley Morehead Foundation. In 1951, the Morehead Scholarship program at the University of North Carolina was established by that foundation and of significance to me in 1957, the first class of the four-year undergraduate Morehead Scholars graduates graduated from UNC and in that first graduating class was my good friend from my old hometown and classmate, James G. Exum, Jr., whom many of you know was our Chief Justice of the State Supreme Court. In 1965, Jim Exum of that ’57 class became the first Morehead Scholar elected to the North Carolina House of Representatives. In 1986, that Morehead Alumnus, Jim Exum, Class of ’57, became the Chief Justice of the North Carolina Supreme Court and was there until 1995. Again, of special significance, when I was a freshman in the House, it was my good friend, the Chief Justice Jim Exum, who gave us that Oath of Office that night and it was a very special occasion for me. As you heard, Morehead City is a destination getting to the beach and it’s a very tourism-related area. Let me just mention, too, as you have heard we have some really interesting things in the County of Carteret but specifically Morehead City. We have one of the two state ports. We were the last stop of the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad which ended railroad passenger service in 1950 but still provides commercial service. It's the home of the second largest festival of North Carolina, the Seafood Festival. It is very rich in marine life and science research for our community colleges and I don't know how many of you know but we have a UNC-Chapel Hill Institute of Marine Science located in Morehead City as well as the North Carolina State Center for Marine and Research Technology. We have the Duke University Marine Research Laboratory and we have the National Oceanic Atmospheric Administration there. We have two of our state divisions under DENR and they are the State Division of the Marine Fisheries and the State Division of Coastal Management so we have quite a lot going on in Morehead City. Just across the bridge, we have the most heavily visited state park in this State which is Fort Macon. We also have the North Carolina Maritime Museum which is in Beaufort and down east just a bit we have the Down East Core Sound Water Fowl Museum and, of course, across the other bridge we have the great Crystal Coast. I hope you all will plan to try to visit us in May when we're celebrating this 150th Anniversary. I appreciate your indulgence, but I'm real proud of the place I represent and I have been there now for a number of years and we have some very notable people who have served as Mayor, certainly since the 40's when I first started visiting Morehead City. Doug Dixon was very reputable and just very popular for seven-years as Mayor. We had Mr. Dill who was in the 40's and his son is here tonight and we have the first African-American man, Bill Horton, who many of you knew because he was here on a number of occasions trying to get something for his beloved city of Morehead, and our current Mayor, Jerry Jones. So we've had some extremely good leadership for the City of Morehead and I certainly would appreciate your supporting this resolution. Thank you."

April 16, 2007

Senator Basnight:

"To the Town Council, to the Mayor, to the citizens of Morehead City, we welcome you to the Senate Chamber and we thank you for so much that you have given to this great State. What stands out for me is that you continuously work to preserve your heritage and your history of your community and one example of that is the North Carolina Seafood Festival. In Coastal Carolina it is difficult today to recognize much of our history from one time to another but you have worked awfully hard to preserve that character and that place in time of people that we have forgotten or who are no longer with us. For that reason I salute you and I wish you a grand successful 150 years of history."

The joint resolution passes its second (37-0) and third readings with members standing and is ordered sent to the House of Representatives by special message.

Upon motion of Senator Preston, the Chair extends the courtesies of the gallery to guests from Morehead City: Mayor Jerry Jones, Ruth Jones, Randy Martin, Sally Smith, DJ Femia, Rodney Kemp, George Dill and George Ballou.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

With unanimous consent, upon motion of Senator Purcell, the remarks of Senator Blake who rises to a point of personal privilege, are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator Blake:

“If you remember, on March 31 I gave you a brief idea of what I was going to be doing for the next two weeks. At that time, I could have had no idea of the impact that a visit to China would have on me and eighteen other people who went with me. We got on a plane in Raleigh, late I might add, that put us in Detroit, also late I might add, so that meant we missed our flight from Detroit to Tokyo. We ended up going to Frankfurt, Germany. The next day we went from

April 16, 2007

Frankfurt to Tokyo and then to Beijing. We got to Beijing, China on April 2. We spent two days getting over that trip and the third day we went down to Changsha, China that is the capital city of Hunan Province. We spent a night there getting some rest. On April 4, we got on a bus, traveled seven or eight hours and if you had been with us you would understand why it took so long on that bus. We went to the uppermost mountain section of the Hunan Province where the pilot was killed in 1944. We spent the night in a hotel in GuDon City. The hotel there was a five-star hotel in a city of about two million people. The next morning at 9 o'clock we got in five different automobiles to begin the journey up that mountain to where the memorial is built for the pilot. We spent about thirty minutes in the automobile going up a one-way curving road up that mountainside. We went as far as the car could go and then we got out. The first thing we saw were children lined up, hundreds of school kids welcoming us to that part of the world. We walked up that trail up to the top of the mountain and looked up and the first thing I saw was a huge shrine that was built five hundred years ago and at the base of that shrine was a huge covered cross-type building, not a building, but a statue, and the red banner that was covering it was eventually unfolded and when we saw it, it was a cross with the name of Lieutenant Hoyle Upchurch on it. This memorial, the height of it was about twelve feet, was built by those Chinese, some of them who actually saw the plane crash in 1944. They had a ceremony there that would equal what you would see in Arlington, Virginia. The Upchurch family, they were represented there, and a couple of them were able to make some comments. I was honored to be one of those people who was allowed to make some comments. The people in GuDon City were so cordial to the American people and it goes back to 1942-43, 1944 and 1945 based on the efforts that our people made with them to save the freedom that you and I enjoy today. The trip sort of began the ending of that part of our trip and then we had an opportunity to meet with Mr. Wang, the gentleman who actually went to the plane crash site and helped retrieve the body and he was the guy that went once a year to maintain that gravesite of that pilot before he was finally found in 2005. I can never convey to you what we saw, but the people on that trip will all give their own description. The story will be going out into this Country, I believe, from now and into the future. I think that eventually for people who go to China, that memorial site will be one of the destinations to visit. It is absolutely awesome. Remember, a cross represents what the Chinese thought about our Country in 1944. They assume that the cross was the significant symbol. Quickly after we left GuDon City, we went back to the capital of Hunan Province and there we were invited to a state dinner. We had dinner with the Governor and all of his cabinet members. His cabinet would be like ours. They have economic development, health and human service, tourism and other type interests. The eighteen of us had the opportunity to interface with those wonderful people. We did sign an agreement, the Governor and I did because I was allowed to represent our Governor, to start a friendship-type commitment based on economic, education, culture and it even has sports in that document. The next day we had a chance to visit one of their industrial parks. Friends, we in the

April 16, 2007

United States have great industrial, technical parks, but there are none that I know of that would supersede what we saw. We visited a company in one of these parks that hires 10,000 people. They make the largest equipment that's made in the world in that plant. The equipment itself will ... seven floors high, awesome machinery. We visited the pharmaceutical industry and we visited high-tech industry and all of those people were real cordial to us because they are cordial to our people, the USA. What they are and what they are doing is building a system that we started out with 140 years ago, a free enterprise system. In 1988, the government allowed them to establish industrial zones and when they did that they freed up individuals to go in there and start producing. As I see China today, I see it as a great people that respect America and they are simply our competitors, not our enemy. I didn't believe that before I left here three weeks ago because I was there in 1998 and I thought I had seen a third-world country, but today China has super highways. I think they patterned them after our system and they have the infrastructure that it takes to make a great society. If you go to Beijing or any of the big cities today, you are going to see new buildings to the extent that you can't comprehend it because the people in the countryside are moving to an industrial area. The only problem that I saw with China is that they have polluted air. It is a very serious problem and they know that and they will have to deal with that. Thanks for the opportunity to share this with you folks. Let's not look at China as a military enemy, but let's look at them as a competitor and let's get busy in exciting our children to be educated because that is the challenge. If you are in China, if you want to be educated, you are excited about it, just like getting on a basketball team. We visited two high schools and one college and it is amazing what you see there. That is our future challenge, not military, but education so we can be up to speed to compete with those great people. Thank you for giving me this time to make my brief remarks."

FORTY-EIGHTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Tuesday, April 17, 2007

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Beverly E. Perdue, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Gracious God, like it or not, today is the tax filing deadline for people in our State and Country. We are reminded of Mark Twain's sentiments about taxes when he said, 'The only difference between a tax man and a taxidermist is that the taxidermist leaves the skin.' Jesus put it this way, 'Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's and to God the things that are God's'. I guess we will always have a difficult time trying to figure out what to render and to whom. The truth is, we owe God and Government, but not the same things. Amen."

Senator Basnight, President Pro Tempore, announces that the Journal of Monday, April 16, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Journal and it stands approved as written.

The Chair extends privileges of the floor to Dr. Phillip A. Sellers from Hendersonville, North Carolina, who is serving the Senate as Doctor of the Day, and to Jaime Devers from Cary, North Carolina, who is serving the Senate as Nurse of the Day.

S.B. 543 (Committee Substitute), A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT MODIFYING THE PUBLIC RECORDS LAWS APPLICABLE TO THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA AND THE NORTH CAROLINA COMMUNITY COLLEGES, TO PROTECT THE PRIVACY OF APPLICANTS WHO ARE NOT ADMITTED OR WHO DO NOT ENROLL, AND TO PROVIDE THAT CERTAIN AUDIT RECORDS ARE PUBLIC DOCUMENTS.

The Committee Substitute bill passes its third reading (49-0) and is ordered sent to the House of Representatives.

S.J.R. 1183, A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING THE LIFE AND MEMORY OF BENJAMIN SYLVESTER "BEN" RUFFIN, JR., FORMER CHAIR OF THE BOARD OF GOVERNORS OF THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA, placed earlier on today's Calendar.

Upon motion of Senator Brock, the remarks of the members are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator Garrou:

“Thank you, Madame President. I want to read for you some words that Ben Ruffin said and they speak about public service and I think this should apply to all of our lives. ‘My life has really been a calling to come from where I started from to end up where I am today and means to me that it is a calling that I have to fulfill, a charge I have to keep. The State has been good. People, the citizens, have been good to me and you know the greatest calling you can have is a call for service and I am sure that all of us feel that way.’ Ben Ruffin was such an outstanding man. You could only walk with him on a campus to see kids relate to him and their eyes would light up. I remember being with him one day at the School of the Arts when we were in the costume department and we were talking to students who were making costumes for a production that they were getting ready to make and Ben would say, ‘Now are you going to use this stitch on that or this stitch on that one.’ I was just amazed because I didn’t know anything that they were talking about, but Ben had grown up and had learned to tailor clothes and that is how he put himself through school and any of you who knew him, knew how well he dressed. He was always a dandy dresser and always very well groomed and he saw that as a way of helping himself through life and he also believed that people responded to you often by how you presented yourself. He wanted to present himself in a good way. On the campus of Winston-Salem State, the students flocked to him. They were so excited because they knew what he had done. They understood the challenges that he had overcome and the great opportunities that he had availed himself of. At the funeral service, one of Ben's friends talked about the fact that Ben was so proud of having been Chairman of the Board of Governors and who wouldn't be. His password on his computer was chairman and I thought that was kind of cute that that word was his password. Let me just close in saying that I know that there are a lot of people here who want to speak about their personal relationship with Ben because he touched so many of our lives and he made such an impression on so many of us. Ben Ruffin said, 'It is not important what your name is today, but the name that you make for yourselves.' That is what he told an audience one time. I would say, Ben Ruffin, you made a great name for yourself and I am proud to have known you. I urge your support of this resolution."

April 17, 2007

Senator Brunstetter:

"Madame President, we were all shocked and saddened when we lost Ben Ruffin in an untimely manner in December. Ben Ruffin was a great business leader in our community. But more importantly, he was a great community servant, a great social leader and he helped us through some very, very difficult times in Winston-Salem. He did it because of his clear thinking and his ability to bridge the gaps between people. We were so proud when he became Chairman of the Board of Governors and we were proud that we were able to share the service that we had seen at the local level with the entire State. I commend this resolution to you."

Senator Dorsett:

"I guess I had known Ben from the beginning of his professional career and he was a fighter. Ben was always a fighter for fairness and justice and I can remember seeing him as he was fighting for housing and education and certainly he was fighting for the low-income neighborhoods in Durham where he was from. But I can also remember his proud moment when Governor Hunt named him as head of the Human Relations Council and I think that I could safely say that Ben probably did more with that Council than any other individual who has been named to a leadership role there. Ben was one of the ones whose leadership was felt by all of us and, of course, we recognized how he was fighting not only for judges, but also all other leadership roles for African-Americans and I think we could go beyond just his leadership for judges to see cabinet level appointments and other leadership roles for African-Americans throughout this State. Another very proud moment was when he became Vice-President of R. J. Reynolds and he used that position for upward mobility for African-Americans throughout the State. Ben was very proud to say that he was Chair of the Board of Governors and we, of course, were all very proud of that. One thing that is not in the resolution was that Ben was the very first Chair of the National Black Caucus of State Legislators Round Table and he did a lot for that organization which is made up of African-American Legislators throughout the Country. I also remember that Ben distinguished himself as being a dresser and I remember us going to South Africa together and I, of course, on my limited salary couldn't play in the same league, but Ben was always looking at the finest of clothes and when we would see each other I would say to him, 'Let me just touch the hem of your garment.' Of course, he took great pride in that statement from me, but he made a great contribution, not only to African-Americans, but to North Carolina and to the Nation. I was very shocked with his untimely death and certainly we can be very proud of the contributions that he made to our State and to our Nation. I would urge you to support the resolution."

April 17, 2007

Senator Dannelly:

"Thank you, Madame President. As the three Senators were speaking, I was trying to think of when I met Ben and I really don't know when I met him. It seems as if I've known him all my life and he is not nearly as old as I am. But I guess I started seeing Ben when Governor Hunt appointed him to the two positions that he did and then all of a sudden Ben was sort of all over the place. Anywhere you would go in North Carolina you would see him. I have wondered how Ben could do the things he did for African-Americans particularly in this State at the time that he did it. He did so much to foster equity and parity to a higher level for all African-Americans in state government because the situation was sort of dismal when he had that position. As indicated early, Ben was an eloquent speaker and a dapper dresser. He was very poetic and well-learned and he sort of made a change in life and they tell me when people make these changes in life, Senator Goss, it just happens and all of a sudden you see. Ben started, in his speeches, sounding like a minister who had gone to a seminary to learn how to deliver his speeches and he was very sincere about things he spoke of. The last time I saw Ben was on December 2, 2006, in Jackson, Mississippi at the NBCSL Conference and Ben was doing his usual working the room and it was at the banquet. Watching Ben work, I wondered in my mind whether or not Jim Hunt taught Ben to work a room or did Ben teach Jim Hunt to work a room because the two of them could work a room better than any politician I have ever seen. I had arrived home and on December 7 about 11:00 A.M., I got a call that Ben had prematurely, to us but not to the man upstairs, had left us. He made such tremendous contributions to this State and the University System because as Chair of the Board of Governors, Ben did something that had never been done. He had the Board to meet on every campus in the system so that they could see the needs that had not been met in the past. I say to you, there is nothing that we can say to make up for or let you know how far his contributions will reach in the future, but he has a place in the history of North Carolina and I urge you to approve this resolution."

April 17, 2007

Senator Atwater:

“I’ve known of Mr. Ruffin for many, many years but I first had the opportunity to meet him some nine or ten months ago at a Durham committee on affairs of black people in Durham where he was being honored and there were two observations that I made about him that I wanted to share with you rather briefly. One of which was that he seemed to have a lot of trouble staying at the head table. He, as Senator Dannelly indicated, moved about quite a bit, not in a quick careless way, but in a way that it gave the people that were present the opportunity to just make over him and they were so loving of him and it stood out to me. I’ve never seen anybody treated quite that way. But it also occurred to me that it was because of their love for him, their expectation for him and indeed their need for him that really empowered him to lead the life of achievement that we so well portrayed in this resolution. I also commend the resolution to you.”

Senator Shaw:

“Thank you, Madame President. Members of the Senate, all of you probably knew Ben Ruffin or heard of Ben Ruffin. I think the shadow that he cast across the State is quite significant and we probably won’t see the likes of someone of his caliber for a very long time. I knew Ben for well over a quarter of a century and I knew him very personally and very privately and he was a great family man. He loved his wife and he loved his two children, his two little girls. He would talk about his babies and he still called them babies even though they became grown. But Ben was the kind of guy that was very humble. I went to a speech with him one time and we were flying somewhere out in Elizabeth City and the guy was trying to get some notes because he didn’t have a resume and he said, ‘Ben, should I tell them that you were the first...’ and Ben said, ‘no, no, no, no...’ And the guy said, ‘Should I tell them that you had this award or that you had done...’ and Ben said, ‘no, no, no, no...’ All these things that you read in here in the resolution the guy was trying to make a reference to and Ben would not have any of it. He said, ‘Just tell them I am someone that you can call and someone that will try to help.’ And he did just that. All he did through his life was for the service of others. He tried to lift the entire race of people on his back and did a very good job of it. In the galaxy there are many stars out there and Ben Ruffin was the moon. This young man was pure because I haven’t seen anyone come along to make the kind of progress and the kinds of achievements that Ben Ruffin has done. If we honored this man every day for the next year or two, we still couldn’t do enough to lift his name up for what he has done for us. We are indeed a better State, a better place because of people like Ben Ruffin. I commend the resolution to you. Thank you.”

The joint resolution passes its second reading (49-0) and third reading with members standing and is ordered sent to the House of Representatives.

SPECIAL MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The following special message is received from the House of Representatives:

April 17, 2007

H.J.R. 1380, A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING THE ELIZABETH CITY STATE UNIVERSITY BASKETBALL TEAM ON WINNING THE 2007 CENTRAL INTERCOLLEGIATE ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION (CIAA) BASKETBALL CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIP.

Upon motion of Senator Rand, the Rules are suspended and the joint resolution is placed on the Calendar for immediate consideration.

APPOINTMENT OF ESCORT COMMITTEE

The President recognizes Senator Dannelly, Deputy President Pro Tempore, who announces the appointment of Senator Jones, Chair; Senator Jenkins; Senator Bingham; Senator Swindell; Senator Malone and Senator Berger of Franklin as the Committee to escort the Elizabeth City State Men's Basketball Team, 2007 CIAA Basketball Champions, to the Well of the Senate.

The remarks of the Members are spread upon the journal, as follows:

Senator Jones:

“Thank you, Madame President. I really don’t know what to say about these young men here but I can tell you about Elizabeth City State University. In Halifax County, we had two teams. One was Trojans and one was Vikings. It just happened that my daughter was a Trojan and hated the Vikings, but when she got that academic scholarship to Elizabeth City she learned to be a Viking. It helped dad’s pocket out quite a bit! She was there at Elizabeth City where she graduated in approximately four years. They never had a winning season at all but we kept the faith. We went to the games and we prayed and prayed and great things happened over there at Elizabeth City. When she graduated, they didn’t have a lot of money so they got the best speaker they could possibly find and that was Senator Basnight. While he was speaking, it was a windy day and his papers blew away so he didn’t have his speech any longer and he had to ad lib the rest of the speech. I’ll never forget that. He kept right on going with the program. Elizabeth City is one of the colleges that most of the people from my district attend. It’s a historically black university and it has approximately 2100 students in that neighborhood. They are doing well. They are in the eastern part of the State. One of the gracious things I think about when I think about all the things that God did for folks is that I had a superintendent by the name of Dr. Willie Gilchrist in Halifax County who did great things with the children in Halifax County. Then they chose him to be the Interim Chancellor at Elizabeth City State University. We hated losing him more than anything else we had ever dealt with. But then this team had a winning football season, they had a winning basketball season, and that is because sometimes people’s personalities turn folks around. He really loved Elizabeth City State University. He is a graduate of Elizabeth City State University and his wife and children all went there. We could not have asked for a better Chancellor to be at Elizabeth City State University. I guess when I went down to the game to watch them play in Charlotte I was probably the most excited person there. I wasn’t even a parent to anyone down there but I was talking a bunch of junk the whole time to the people next door to me over there to tell them how my team was going to beat up on them and it got me a little bit worried at the end that I was not going to be able to hold that junk talk down to a minimum. When you go to the schools where we have our children going, a lot of people don't want to go to Elizabeth City State University. But you know, those folks there have some of the best facilities in the State of North Carolina, some of the best. When I go through there now and I see our new buildings and so forth going up, I know that we are going to have some great kids come out of that Institution there. But I'm not going to stand here very long and talk to you but I want to tell you this. This team won everything they could win at the CIAA but these young men, the proudest thing I can say about these young men, is that they had the highest grade point average of any team in the CIAA and I think that is something. So I say to you, press on. There are higher places you can be out here. Senator Jones never thought he'd be sitting here behind you today thanking you for what you are doing at Elizabeth City State University. You are great role models. I challenge you to keep the role-model image and be a role model to others. I am proud to be a part of Northeastern North Carolina where we have great young men like you. Thank you."

Senator Graham:

"Senator Jones, it with great reluctance, kiddingly, that I support the resolution! I am a graduate of Johnson C. Smith University, a member of the CIAA, and we felt the wrath of the Vikings at least once or twice this year, but I want to congratulate the men of Elizabeth City State University. I'm a great fan of CIAA basketball and certainly the City of Charlotte and the State of North Carolina have benefited from having the CIAA Tournament in the State of North Carolina with the economic impact it has, not only for the City of Charlotte, but for the whole State of North Carolina and to have a North Carolina team win, although it wasn't my alma mater, it also wasn't Virginia Union, so anyone but Union, I was proud of! Certainly, Elizabeth City State University is a fine institution and I'm joking in some of my remarks, but certainly they represent the CIAA Conference, they represent Elizabeth City as a town, and the State of North Carolina in a tremendous fashion. CIAA basketball is probably some of the best basketball in Division II that is played throughout the Country. I am proud to have Elizabeth City State represent the CIAA in the NCAA Division II Tournament. I'm proud of that and proud of the way that the school has really come to Charlotte this year, being a seventh seed, I think, and winning four games in a row to capture the championship certainly shows determination and certainly shows grit and hard work so I'd like to congratulate the men of Elizabeth City State University, the Chancellor and all the students there on winning the 2007 CIAA basketball Championship. Congratulations."

Senator Dannelly:

"Thank you, Madame President. I, too, gentlemen and coach, would like to congratulate you on winning the CIAA Championship, your first in twenty-one or twenty-six years or something like that. I saw the game and what impressed me about it is good coaching. Good coaching teaches young people not to give up when things get tough. I saw you down in that game several times and you came back. You came back. I started to leave one time when you were down, but you came back and I heard people jumping up and yelling and I came back myself to see the rest of the game. Your determination to be good academically, to be the best academically among CIAA men's basketball is a testament to the good counseling that you get at Elizabeth City State University. I don't know who the young man is, but you have a young fellow who reminds me of me when I played basketball. He could sky. The ball would come loose around there and we called it picking up the lily, you know around the basket. He'd come in there and next thing you would notice is you would see the net just flutter. Who is the highest jumper? I would like to know that because that young man can slam a ball in the basket. Who was that? Does anybody know who that is? There he is! Well, I want to say to you the things you are learning at Elizabeth City State University, you keep learning it. It will take you a long way through life. Congratulations. I urge you to support this resolution."

April 17, 2007

Senator Basnight:

"Thank you, Madame President, Chancellor Gilchrist, and Coach Walker. I watched the game. Pigford and Hilliard, that night you were stars as well as all the guys who had to get the basketball to you. In watching the game, I was amazed at the grouping of the people. I don't know how you say this, but all of the team was in the right place at the right time to allow that scorer or that person to be able to put the ball in the basket with such ease and such disappointment for your opponent. You never quit. This morning I had a chance to meet some of your classmates and they came in unexpectedly and they were part of the science exhibit that was going on in the building today and two of them are pre-med students, one from Philadelphia, I believe, and I forgot where the other lady was from and there were also two young men who were in this Expo and they are studying global warming and I learned more today from one of those particular young men who has been studying Antarctica and has been there as well as Artica and the Greenland ice sheets and he tried to make me understand in a very simple way, and that's hard for me to do, what it means to us and he was speaking of the rising of the sea tide and how it is occurring and why it is occurring. Such geniuses, the people that were in my office today from Elizabeth City State that had come from across this Nation to study jointly with other institutions in America across our Country. One is connected to the University of Kansas and these people are connecting from Kansas and Elizabeth City to the University of Maine, to Seattle, and to around the Country so that we fully understand the consequences whatever they may be and whether we created those or not. The reality is that we have to have sciences and study and for it to come from Northeastern North Carolina is very rewarding to me inasmuch as I live in Manteo. To see this school today twice in such a short period of time, one as champions of a tournament in basketball, and one as champions in the world of science. So Elizabeth City State Vikings today stand out. You are sitting where many stars on the athletic fields of North Carolina have sat. I believe it was last week that Barton College was here where you are and had won a national championship and it was a soccer team from UNC-

April 17, 2007

Chapel Hill that also was in those chairs so we have had other champions and you are just as much a champion as anyone else in this State and in this Country. I salute you and I thank you for doing so well. Continue to do so educationally and next year let me come see you play basketball.”

The joint resolution passes its second reading (48-0) and third reading with members standing and is ordered enrolled.

Senator Jones introduces Coach Shawn Walker and Chancellor Willie Gilchrist. The following players, assistant coaches, and Athletic Director introduce themselves: Lansen Leach, Brian West, Trent Bivens, Demond Hickman, Anthony Hilliard, Devin Mooring, Anthony Butler, Olajuwan Johnson, Wallace Sam, Mike Land, Jabyron Wilson, Jamal Rouse, C J Pigford, Shakiem Mitchell, Joey Rieg, James Bell, James Jeffries, Alico Dunk, Cleveland Blount, and Thurlis Little.

Prayer is offered by Dr. Larry Hovis, Coordinator for Cooperative Baptist Fellowship of North Carolina, Winston-Salem, North Carolina as follows:

"Almighty God, we give you thanks this day for all of your blessings, but especially your gifts of life, liberty and love. With thanks for our own lives, we pray for the families of those who have recently lost their lives, especially the Virginia Tech community. With gratitude for the liberty we enjoy in our wonderful State and Nation, we pray for those who lack freedom in other lands, or even in this, 'the goodliest land,' whether their bondage be physical, emotional, economic or spiritual. With heartfelt appreciation for our families and friends and communities who constantly shower us with love and support, we pray for those who feel as if they are all alone and have no one to care for them. Lead these Senators, gathered guests, and the citizens of our State to use whatever abilities and opportunities you place in our path, to share your gifts of life, liberty and love, from the mountains to the sea to the rest of our Nation and world. Prayer is offered by The Reverend Roderick D. Stone, Pastor of Community Presbyterian Church, Pinehurst, North Carolina as follows:

"Loving God of us all, as we begin the Assembly this day we pause to remember that you are the potter, we are the clay. Mold us and make us after thy will. Have thy own way. Lord, we come to you today in humility asking for your guidance. At this time of year, the Senate is busy with so much to do. I'm sure the pressures that are placed upon this Body are immense. The realities of political life are complex. The demands are great. The temptations are many. You know the voices that try to influence this Body. They come from all directions, many trying to convince them that their opinions and concerns are the right ones or the most important ones. I pray your presence and your blessing upon all in this building as decisions are made which will impact the people of this State. Grant this Body discernment and wisdom in their decisions, particularly as they enact laws, vote on legislation and work together for the common good. Help your public servants look with clarity and integrity not only upon the present challenges, but also to the future so that they may benefit the generations to come. Give this Assembly understanding and grace under fire to do the people's business to the best of their ability. May each Senator speak from the heart guided by your everlasting truth. May their integrity never be for sale, and may they always guard your values of freedom, equality and justice for all. As they work through the business at hand, may they do it with an understanding and forgiving spirit, demonstrating compassion and respect for one another. Empower our Senators with the pursuit of the good, so that they in turn may empower the citizens of North Carolina in the pursuit of the good. May the spirit displayed here this day witness to the spirit we all want the people of this State to hold. Be present with each person here and all the support staff behind the scenes so your will may be done. In your Holy name we pray. Amen."

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Gracious God, during yesterday's staff meeting at church my mind wandered a little down a couple of blocks to this Senate Chamber. Rather than opening a session with prayer, I thought, why not print a hymn and have the Members and staff sing accapella to your glory. I pictured those who would sing bass, soprano, alto, and tenor, lifting voice in glad appreciation for your guidance and goodness. Can you imagine how that would look and sound and feel? Then I remembered this Senate of North Carolina. I could never find a hymn on which everyone would agree. So in this moment, we lift through silent voices, the chorus of our favorite hymns, O God, because we are grateful for all of your blessings on our behalf and because we know that you appreciate such praise. Hear us. Amen"

FIFTY-FIFTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Monday, April 30, 2007

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Beverly E. Perdue, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Dear God, we didn't exactly walk in the Senators' shoes but the reading clerk and I did make it through the two-hour mandatory ethics training course this morning. During the session I remembered that the Israelites took the Ten Commandments and made them into over 600 laws. It must have been confusing for them, too. Though I applaud the new legislation as an ethics code of conduct benchmark, I confess that I wish such a code could be reduced to the one simple statement made by the prophet Micah, 'God has told you what is good and what does the Lord require of you but to do justice, to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God.' Amen."

The Chair grants a leave of absence for tonight to Senator Pittenger.

S.J.R. 1390, A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING THE LIFE AND CAREER OF MILDRED THOMAS, FORMER REGISTER OF DEEDS OF ONSLOW COUNTY.

Upon motion of Senator Brown, the joint resolution is taken up out of its regular order of business and placed before the Senate for immediate consideration.

Upon motion of Senator Brown, the joint resolution is read in its entirety and, upon motion of Senator Tillman, the remarks of the members, are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator Brown:

“When you talk about Miss Mildred, and that is what we call her in Onslow County, you really don’t know where to start because she has been a part of everybody’s life in Onslow County for such a long time. You know as the resolution says, she began in the Register of Deeds Office in 1937. She was elected as the Register of Deeds in 1949. Senator Soles, that makes you look like a rookie. I just can’t imagine what it is like to go through that many elections and continue to win, but that is how much she is loved and appreciated in Onslow County. Fifty-eight continuous years of service to North Carolina, a long-serving elected official. I think that speaks for itself. She is really a special lady and a country girl made good. She went to White Oak High School and I think that turned in to be a Tabernacle and it was a school way out in the country and I think she appreciated those country roots. But when you think of role models, I just can’t think of a better one. So many people look up to this lady and if you ever walked into the Courthouse and the Register of Deeds Office you could just tell that she loved her job. She always had that friendly smile on her face and let me tell you this lady worked every single day until she retired. She was an amazing lady. When you walked into her office, there she was. She was always there. I can just say this. Onslow County and the State truly have a great person with Miss Mildred. When you think of the word institution, I think Miss Mildred puts a new meaning to that word because that is exactly what she is. You know I looked at some things that happened when she started in Onslow County in her position in the Register of Deeds Office in 1937 and that was the same year that Franklin Roosevelt was elected to his second term. Just to give you an idea of how long this is, the Golden Gate Bridge was opened in California that year. Amelia Earhart disappeared on her attempt to become the first woman to fly around the world that year, and Walt Disney’s Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs was the first feature-length, animated cartoon to open as a smash hit that year. Also, you could buy a car for $760. I wish that was still the case today because I could surely sell a whole lot more of them. The average cost of a house was $4,100, the average wage was $1,780 and a gallon of gas cost $.10. Quite amazing. But this is an amazing lady and she is with us today and I would like for Miss Mildred to stand because I think that we all need to give her a round of applause. I would like to also mention that with her today is her niece, Neita Rivenbark, and the new Register of Deeds, Kay Washington, who has really got a tough job. Kay, I don’t know how you are going to do it because that is a tough position to step into. Betty Jones, who also works in the Register of Deeds Office, Doris Pettway, who works with my wife in the Clerk's Office as an assistant, and Frank Clifton, our County Manager, and Beth Purcell, our County Clerk, are here, also. I really thank them for coming and again a special, special lady."

May 2, 2007

Senator Albertson:

"I appreciate Senator Brown bringing this resolution to us. This lady is everything he said she was and even more if that's possible. I had the privilege to represent a part of Onslow County for several years here in the Senate. She is truly a wonderful lady. Senator Brown, I think about her when I think of the late Jim Graham. I kind of put her in the same category when it comes to people who just truly, genuinely love other human beings. It was always obvious that she loved her work. I always thought that she believed that the most important part of work was serving the people. She was truly a public servant in every sense of the word. She is a great lady and not many like her come along. She will leave a great legacy of public service to this State and Miss Mildred, we all love you just like you loved us and I commend this resolution to you."

Senator Rand:

"Thank you, Madame President and ladies and gentlemen of the Senate. It has been my privilege to have kin folks from the town of 'Perfect Water.' Those of you who don't know what that is, it is Richlands. Miss Mildred has been down there looking after those people for longer than I have been alive, which has been a long time. But we are thankful that we have people like that in North Carolina to serve the public and to leave a wonderful legacy of public service and of looking after people as Senator Albertson said. But just the sheer force and magnetism of her personality and what she meant to the life and times of Onslow County can really not be estimated, I don't believe. She is a wonderful example for us all to follow and I am just delighted that I can say a few words for her today. Thank you."

The joint resolution passes its second reading (48-0) and third reading with members standing and is ordered sent to the House of Representatives.

Upon motion of Senator Brown the Chair extends the courtesies of the gallery to Neita Rivenbark, niece; Kay Washington, Register of Deeds; Betty Jones; Doris Pettway, Assistant Clerk; Frank Clifton, County Manager; and Beth Purcell, County Clerk.

S.J.R. 931, A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING THE LIFE AND MEMORY OF STATE SENATOR ROBERT L. HOLLOMAN.

Upon motion of Senator Rand, the joint resolution is taken up out of its regular order of business and placed before the Senate for immediate consideration.

May 2, 2007

Upon motion of Senator Jones, the joint resolution is read in its entirety and, upon motion of Senator Stevens, the remarks of the members, are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator Jones:

“Thank you, Madame President. I met Robert Holloman approximately ten years ago. First of all I met his brother, Jesse, and Jesse said I needed to go by the courthouse and see his brother and I said the first chance I get I’ll go by there. Since that time I went by and talked to Robert and we became friends. Robert was concerned about everyone who was around him. He loved everyone. When we would sit down and talk he would always kid me about coming and driving the bus for Nebo. We both were bus drivers and that is what we did in our spare time and we would talk about sometime going on a trip together and both of us would just follow each other in taking the church on a trip. When he came to the General Assembly, and I was a Mayor, it was not anything I asked of Robert that he didn’t try to do. He was a great Senator here in this great Chamber. When I came here Robert would call me to his office and he would sit down and he would explain things and he took time. He really took time because he knew one day whoever was going to follow him would need that time to understand what the northeastern part of North Carolina was all about. He had his heart there. He really believed that we or he could make a difference in northeastern North Carolina. Several times I went with Robert to the hospital to see colleagues of ours in the hospital. He would pray and on the way back he would talk about the individual and how great they were. I never heard him say anything negative about anyone. Robert was a great person. We are going to miss Robert Holloman. We are starting to miss him now. I guess now when I go to that same office that he occupied and I see how he would have secretaries come by and he would explain to them about northeastern North Carolina and why we need to have better than what we have there now. But for a long time when I got with Robert he would always talk about his daughter and for a long time I kind of wondered about Robert’s age and how he could have such a young son until I told him one day that he had a long way to go to get that man through college. Then he explained to me that it was his grandson. When you would see one you would see the other. They would dress alike. He would be in the office with his granddad. He was a family man. I tell you that I have some fond memories of Robert Holloman and to think that I’m standing here today and my friend is gone.”

Senator Dorsett:

“First of all, I would say that Senator Holloman was a very valued member of this Body. He was also one of the best dressed members of this body. We talked a lot about his dress and he took great pride in it. The other thing that he took great pride in was the counties that he represented and when you heard him talk he could rattle off all of the counties. I think there were six or seven. But he took great pride in representing eastern and rural North Carolina. He was a very devoted family man. He always talked about his wife and was very proud of her and his daughter and his grandson. I would see the grandson here, as Senator Jones has said, and they would walk the halls and he was extremely proud of the success of that young man and so we will be watching you as you grow. He was also devoted to his church. I can remember his telling us that we needed to go down to see this beautiful facility and I didn't get a chance to go until it was at his service. That was a great tribute to his efforts and he was very dedicated to that. He was also dedicated to serving the constituents of all of those counties. I can remember that he pressed the Senate very hard to make sure that he was able to take things back to his community and he did. I was at a breakfast meeting not too long ago when he received an award from the health directors. I was looking to see that in here and I didn't see it, but I thought that it was quite a tribute to his efforts and what those health directors said was that they looked around for the person who had made the greatest contribution to their communities and to health and they found Senator Holloman and they honored him with that award. We will miss him. What I also have to say is that I have never seen in this Chamber so many people who have such love for him and you are here in great numbers to show that. We also share your love for Senator Holloman and his contributions and so I would urge you to support the resolution."

May 2, 2007

Senator Albertson:

"Members of the Senate, Robert Holloman was someone I always looked forward to seeing because I knew sometime during that time we would be talking. One of us would do something to make the other one laugh and I miss that about him so much. That was a great ability that he had that many of us probably could use more of. I was always glad to see Robert and I wrote a little thing about him one time and I told it right in the middle of the Chamber, if I can remember it Madame President. I think it goes like this. 'The preacher told his congregation their money was getting low and he said I have good and bad news that I think you should know. The good news is the money we have is much more than enough. The bad news is that it is in your pocket and you won't give it up.' I would tell Robert little stuff like that and he would just laugh and we had such a good time doing that. Senator Dannelly, I remember how Robert was a very well-dressed person. I mean he was always dressed as good as anyone could be dressed and, Senator Dannelly, I remember telling him a time or two, I would look at him and look at you and I would say you know what Senator Holloman? He would say what is that Charlie and I would say you look better than Senator Dannelly does today and that would just tickle him. But we had such a good relationship together. I always looked forward to seeing him. I always knew and felt in my heart that Robert Holloman loved me and I think that he knew that I loved him as well. He was a great person and I sorely miss him. I commend the resolution to you."

Senator Kinnaird:

"I had the privilege of being the seatmate of Robert Holloman and he was a great Senator, as everyone has said, and he cared about his district more than anything else. He cared a lot about state employees because he had suffered when his job was cut because we had cut the budget and he knew what it meant to all of the state employees. He was a great champion of state employees. Beyond that, he was a champion of justice and social justice for everybody. He felt everything that we did up here was directly related to his constituents and to constituents everywhere. He was very concerned about economic development for his area and he worked very hard to get the automotive industry started down there because he knew that it would change the dynamics of the economy in his area. His devotion to his church was incredible. Every Wednesday night, and it was a long trip, he would leave here and he would go back to his church for his Wednesday night prayer service and I would say can't you just skip this Wednesday night and he would say no, I am back there. He was so devoted and, of course, we all remember that he was a person whose dress rivaled Charlie Dannelly and I would do the same thing, checking back and forth and see who was the most shining. He would never say that he was any better dressed than Charlie Dannelly, but he got a kick out of it when he did. I was so shocked when he passed and I do miss him. I recommend the resolution."

May 2, 2007

Senator Jenkins:

"There have been a lot of things said about our friend, Robert. I came into the Senate with Robert and before the redistricting, I represented one of the counties that Robert then represented. I think it has been said that he really did care for northeastern North Carolina and I can safely say that I don't know of any situation when the two of us represented the same part of the State where we ever disagreed on anything. Robert was a dear friend of mine and when we weren't in Session we probably talked to each other each week about different issues. He would look after areas that he was responsible for up here on different committees that looked after all of northeastern North Carolina and I would do the same. Senator Jones was right. He just truly, truly cared about eastern North Carolina and I was really shocked when right before Christmas we were trying to get together a little meeting to talk about rural internet access in northeastern North Carolina. When we called to try to get up with Robert and couldn't and found out he said he just couldn't come to a meeting. I found that surprising and it was quite a shock to find out in January that Robert had died. I do commend this resolution to this Body. Thank you."

Senator Berger of Franklin:

"I am the Senator for Vance, Franklin, Granville, and Warren Counties because of Senator Holloman. When I made the decision to run for this seat, I came up here to Raleigh, sat down and met with him and he made a commitment to help me and he helped me in significant ways by identifying constituents in Vance and Warren County that I needed to meet with and he told me that I had his support in running for this office. I wouldn't have been able to have been elected without his help because he represented both Vance and Warren prior to redistricting. It doesn't surprise me that we have all the people here today to honor Senator Holloman. Senator Shaw and I had the fortunate opportunity in the past year and a half to attend an event at the church in Nebo in which his congregation had a rather lengthy event in which they honored Senator Holloman at that time and we had an opportunity to see how much love the community had for Senator Holloman. He is going to be greatly missed. Senator Kinnaird is correct in that he felt very strongly about his district and he felt very strongly about working people and the poor and I can tell you that he took great pride in what this Legislature did in the past session in terms of what we did for state employees in terms of a pay raise because he had been there. He had done that and he knew what it was like to have your income not go up and your health insurance costs go up and so he was very proud of the effort we did on behalf of state employees in playing a roll in that. He was very proud of his efforts at getting the advance vehicle research center to his region as well as Dollywood. He was a fighter for his district. He was a fighter for the State of North Carolina. Above all, he loved God and how much he did love God was very clear in his everyday presence and I know that is where he sits today with God looking down upon all of us. I commend this resolution.”

May 2, 2007

Senator Dannelly:

“Thank you very much. Madame President and ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, I didn’t know Robert long. In fact, I met him when he came up here to represent this district. What I found out about Robert is what many of us know and that is he did his homework because he knew me. Not only did he know me, but he probably knew practically every Senator that was in this Chamber before he came. It didn’t take me long to find out that he was networker. He could move around and network to accomplish what he wanted to. He was very compassionate about his service to his people and his service to his ministry. He was extremely proud of his ministry. What I found out about him is he put only God above his family. Robert, it appeared to me, knew everybody. He never met a stranger. I’d never seen him act as though somebody was a stranger. I found him to be very, very cooperative. Sometime Senators don’t agree and Robert was sort of a calming factor and he was always ready, like many other Senators, to find a way to find a solution to whatever the disagreement may be. When Robert first came to the Senate, he gave me, I can’t speak for others, every phone number he had and sometimes I would get a call and I would say where are you, come by the office, I’m on my way to Raleigh. He would say I’m in my automobile now and I’m on my way from Raleigh. He believed in keeping in contact with people, his friends, and he certainly was in contact with his ministry. We all will miss Robert and many of his friends are in this Chamber this evening to help us honor him and that is a testament to the love and the service that he has given them and this State. I urge you to support this resolution.”

Senator Shaw:

“Ladies and gentlemen of the Senate, I, too, rise to express my profound gratitude for having the pleasure of knowing such an honored and distinguished gentleman. It is kind of late in the evening and I think much has been said, but it would greatly trouble me if I didn’t stand to offer a few words to the family. He was a young man whose life was cut far too short by our standards and I’m sure his work was done. He loved the staff. He loved his family, his community and his church. He loved the work that he did. He loved Irma and he loved Alexis and just about everybody he came in contact with. He was a very quite, personable, and private individual. He had a very small circle and though his circle was very small it extended into very diverse ways. I would sometime talk with him and seek his counsel and he would always have the right words to say. There was not a problem that I didn't think was too complex that would be beyond his comprehension. I think at the end of the day you will walk away feeling that you have been served by a great person. I want to publicly thank Amy for all of her help and service that she provided to his family and to his staff and to those of us who were concerned about his illness and didn't realize the depth and gravity of his illness at that point in time. We all struggled with it and finally his wife informed us that his days were numbered and that we should come and see him. We knew immediately that the time was at hand and we got together and went and talked and prayed and laughed and loved one another and made it a very beautiful evening. I talked to my friend, Fred Smith, Senator Smith, the whole time. Fred and Robert were very close, closer than most people would realize, and there was a depth of a relationship there that you hardly ever see. These were two men from diverse backgrounds and paths but shared so much commonality. I respected that love and we talked among the three of us and it was very special and for this I am very grateful and thankful to have known this young man. Even though the time was short, it was very pleasing and good for my soul. I urge your support for the Resolution. Thank you."

May 2, 2007

Senator Smith:

"About five years ago when I came up here in January of 2003, as I was walking around trying to meet everyone I walked into a door, two doors down from my office. That was Robert Holloman's door and I just thought I would go in and introduce myself to him. So I did and we started talking and I had no idea when I did that that we would become such fast friends. Robert and I had a lot of common ground. Our families became fast friends. I can remember so many times, the times that Robert and I would be riding through Hertford County or Johnston County and clearly we came from different backgrounds and viewed some things differently and Robert would say Fred, why does your side vote this way? And I would try to explain and then I would look at Robert and I would say Robert, why does your side vote this way? And we were able to discuss things in a way that we both knew it was confidential. We both knew we could count on each other but he gave me a lot of understanding and, hopefully, maybe I did him, also. But we were able to virtually talk about anything and Robert and Velma invited Jenny and me to come up to Nebo Baptist Church and spend the weekend with them early on. So we went up there and went out to eat, Robert, Velma, Jenny and I, and we had a great time and then the next morning I had a chance to speak in his church and Jenny had a chance to sing and it was such a great weekend and I met Jacqueline and Keenen. I have had the chance to go back at least three times to speak at Nebo Baptist Church and I can still remember the pride that Robert had when we toured the church that Saturday night. We would go to different rooms and Robert would say this is where we help people who have drug problems or this is where we help train people on computers to get jobs. He told me how they had built that church with virtually nothing and I was totally impressed and really enjoyed being up there and our relationship. But it didn't stop there. Robert, Velma, and Keenen would come to our house and I had a Dalmatian dog and Keenen just loved that dog and they would go out and play in the yard and we would have a great time, but I have to tell about one night they came to our house and they were going to spend the night with us and somehow, somehow Jenny had left the window open in the guest bedroom and somehow the floodlights had attracted a bunch of critters. I don't know what they were, but it got time to go to bed about midnight and Velma and Robert went into their bedroom and we went into our bedroom. About three or four minutes later there was a knock on the door. They said I don't know if we can sleep in here. There were so many bugs in the bedroom. We were totally embarrassed so I got dressed and I left to go to Wal-Mart to find some bug spray. But we had a great time that night and they were just great folks and it was some night, but they forgave us and came back and Keenen came back and played with Spotty and it was great. But I want to talk a little bit about Robert Holloman, the man. I was reading last night and I came upon this paragraph from T. E. Laurence from Laurence of Arabia and in his book, Seven Pillars of Wisdom, he said, 'All men dream, but not equally. Those who dream by night in the dusty recesses of their mind, wake in the day to find that it was vanity, but the dreamers of the day are dangerous men, for they may act their dream with open eyes to make it possible.' That is what Robert Holloman did. He tried to be a dreamer of the day. He worked hard for the people of his district. He tried in any way possible to help other people. I've talked about what he did at his church, just an outstanding church. But let me just tell you one thing that Robert asked me to do last fall and we did together. There was a church down in Hyde County that the hurricane had totally destroyed. Robert called me and said, 'Fred, we need to take them some money.' We agreed what we would do and so I drove and met Robert and we drove all the way to Hyde County one Sunday afternoon last fall. This was not even a church in his district, but it was a church that he had a relationship with and they had a dedication ceremony because they had finally gotten part of their church built back. But we were talking and Robert was so glad that we could go spend that time with those folks. That was just one example of how he tried to help people in all of Eastern North Carolina. So in closing as Robert is looking down on us and listening to what we are saying here today, the best thing I can say about Robert is that he fought the good fight, he finished the race, he kept the faith, and that there is in store for him a crown of righteousness which the Lord, the righteous judge, will award to him on that day. Thank you and I commend the resolution to you."

May 2, 2007

May 2, 2007

Senator Atwater:

“I remember two things in particular. I remember the kindness he exhibited to me when I first came into this Chamber. The other thing that I remember that I want to share with you is the time that our Lieutenant Governor invited him to have the prayer before one of our Sessions and as fine a Senator as Robert Holloman was, at his core, he was quintessentially a minister of the Gospel. It was such a moving prayer. Thank you.”

The joint resolution passes its second reading (48-0) and third reading with members standing and is ordered sent to the House of Representatives by special message.

The Chair extends the courtesies of the gallery to Velma Murphy Holloman, Senator Holloman's wife; daughter, Jacquelyn Denise; grandson, Keenen Jamal; sisters, Mary Beasley, Nellie Holland, Diann Craft; brothers, Edward and Jesse Holloman; The Reverend Robert Sessoms; Deacon Roger Eason; Nebo Missionary Baptist Church Members; Deaconess, Mary P. Tyner and Patricia Grant; The Reverend Roy Faison and Alton Basemore; Deacons, Donald Grant, Roger Eason, Jermaine Vaughan, Alfred Tyner, George Holley, and Carl Gaither and other family members and friends.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Tonight, O God, I offer my deep appreciation to you for this Senate family, not because they are diligent and passionate caretakers through their own personal, strong beliefs, caretakers of the State of North Carolina and her people, and not because their position is one of influence and leadership. No, tonight I am grateful that out of a position of such privilege and responsibility that they also know how to offer the ministry of caregiving as they did to me and my family upon the news of my father's death. Their kind remembrances written and spoken have given us strength and encouragement. It reminds me that through all of their differentness, at the end of the day they have learned how to be priests to each other. That is a gift that exceeds their elected positions. Thank you for each one of them. Amen."

SIXTY-FIFTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Wednesday, May 16, 2007

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Marc Basnight, President Pro Tempore, who presides in the absence of the Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Yesterday, O God, two tractor trailers and some people were out on Jones Street advocating a two-day work week. The way I remember it in Genesis is that your work ethic is clearly defined. Sixth-sevenths of some amount of time you devoted to creating the heavens and the earth and all the inhabitants here. And on the seventh day you rested. A two-day work week just doesn't stack up to the Biblical witness or the work ethic of the people in North Carolina and such a proposal makes me even more sensitive to the accusations of my friends and others that ministers only work one day. That's a myth I don't want to perpetuate. Thank you for the gift of our work and the testimony of your time clock. Amen."

Senator Dannelly, Deputy President Pro Tempore, announces that the Journal of Tuesday, May 15, has been examined and is found to be correct. Upon his motion, the Senate dispenses with the reading of the Journal and it stands approved as written.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Dear Lord, this is crossover week in the Legislature. The Members will probably arrive at the end of each day feeling as if all they've done is give explanation for their actions. Help them this week. May they be able to live proactively, lives of affirmation and exclamation rather than explanation. As we seek your guidance, we ask that you take charge of our attitude so that someone else won't choose it for us. Believing that you will complete the good works that you have begun in us, we pray this prayer. Amen."

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Al Gilbert, Calvary Baptist Church, Winston-Salem, North Carolina as follows:

"Eternal God and Father, as these lawmakers gather to do the business of this day, we ask you to give them your counsel and wisdom in all they do. We are thankful for the sacrifice these Senators make to serve the people of our State, so we ask for your blessings on their lives and their families. As we approach this Memorial Day weekend, we will not forget the cost of freedom. We acknowledge our indebtedness to our brothers and sisters who are now serving in the military around the world and we remember those who have made the ultimate sacrifice in serving our Nation. Because you have created us with rich diversity, we pray that the deliberations and decorum in this hall will continue to be an example of how to treat one another with dignity and mutual respect. Committing this day to you, we acknowledge that you are the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Ishmael. As for me, I acknowledge that you are the God of my Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and I ask these blessings in his name. Amen."

Today in the Senate, O Lord, as we begin the Memorial Day weekend we honor in memory those who have died serving our Country, six of whom lost their lives just yesterday in Iraq. They have taught us that true heroism is remarkably sober and most times very undramatic. It is not the urge to surpass all others at whatever cost, but the urge to serve others at whatever cost. They served us well. It is in their memory and to your glory we pray. Amen."

Teach us the honesty that acknowledges that life is sometimes more than patient endurance and keeping a stiff upper lip, and that whistling in the dark is not really bravery. Bless us with humility so that we may feel no shame in expressing our need of you, O God. Forgive us of any pride that might cause us to be pretentious when we know full well that sometime we ourselves are no more than beggars. Knowing who we are and whose we are will help us live faithfully with the assurance that all things work together for good to them that love you. Amen."

I pray that you will give them the spirit of wisdom, discretion, and understanding as they oversee and direct the affairs of our State. Enable them to settle all things on the best and surest foundations of truth, justice, religion, and piety. Bless their minds that they will be able to understand and choose what is right, just, fair, and to see every good path in accordance with your will. Keep their bodies healthy and their minds sharp. Protect them and their families from harm and evil. Shower down upon them blessings for their unselfish service and unwavering commitment to duty and responsibility. Bless and prosper our State. Send rain at the appropriate times and keep our land from drought, famine, and pestilence. Save us from all our enemies, for we declare that you are our refuge and fortress. Protect and safeguard the military men and women here in our State, Nation, and especially those fighting in the theaters of war. May your favor rest upon us. PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Upon motion of Senator Shaw, Senator Clodfelter's remarks on the Mecklenburg Resolves are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator Clodfelter:

"Members of the Senate, about six weeks ago Senator Jones spoke to us about the significance of the date April 12, 1776. That is one of the two dates that appears on our State flag. I want to say something about the second of the dates that appears on the State flag, May 20, 1775. Now you can ask why I am doing that today because I am eleven days late, but I will tell you that I am not late because what I want to tell you about that other date on the flag is I want to talk a little bit about May 31, 1775, and what happened on that date. There is a lot of debate and you can take whatever side you wish and I'm not going to get into it. Many have spoken about it on this Chamber floor and across the hall over the course of the years about May 20, but it is incontrovertible that on May 31 of 1775, the citizens of Mecklenburg County met at the courthouse in Charlotte and they declared on that day an independent government, independent of the authority of the crown and parliament and of the Provincial Congress of North Carolina. I used to think, until I did a little history reading, that the slur 'The Great State of Mecklenburg' was a modern invention as a way of making jest and fun of the pretenses of the County I represent. But then I learned it was actually derived from historical fact. For a period of about eleven months, the citizens of Mecklenburg County existed under a government established by themselves independently of any other authority. It is incontrovertible that on that date they passed a series of Resolves known as the Mecklenburg Resolves and they were published contemporaneously. So we don't have to look for the original copy. We know it exists. It was published in the North Carolina Gazette and in the Cape Fear Mercury and was circulated widely throughout the colonies. We know it existed because in response to the Resolves, North Carolina's three representatives to the Continental Congress wrote a letter of congratulations and commendation to the citizens of Mecklenburg County. I'm not going to read you all of the Resolves, but I do want to read you the first three because I want you to understand that I'm not really manufacturing this. This is actually what happened. The Resolves, after reciting the events that had happened in Lexington and Concord and the actions of the British Parliament, began as follows: Number 1: 'That all commissions, civil and military, heretofore granted by the Crown to be exercised in this colony are null and void and the Constitution of each particular colony is wholly suspended.' By that Resolution, they divested from office all persons holding office under the authority of the Parliament and the King. Number 2: 'That the Provincial Congress of each Province under the direction of the Great Continental Congress is invested with all legislative and executive powers within their respective Provinces and no other legislative or executive does or can exist at this time in any of these colonies.' By that act, they declared the supremacy of the Provincial Congress in Halifax and of the Continental Congress in Philadelphia. Number 3: 'As all former laws are now suspended in this Province and the Congress has not yet provided for other laws, we judge it necessary for the better preservation of good order to form certain rules and regulations for the internal government of this County until laws be provided for us by the Congress.' There followed a series of Resolves by which a system of courts was established, by which the jurisdiction of those courts was declared, by which officers of the peace were appointed and established, by which an army was organized and constituted, its officers were named, by which funds were levied and money was appropriated to raise an army and to fund the purchase of ammunition and supplies. In 1819 writing to Thomas Jefferson, John Adams said in a letter that no where else in the American Colonies was the spirit of that time, after Lexington and Concord, better expressed than in Mecklenburg County in May of 1775. I ask you to remember the Mecklenburg Resolves."

CALENDAR (continued)

S.J.R. 97 (Committee Substitute), A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING NORTH CAROLINA NATIVES DON GIBSON AND EARL SCRUGGS.

June 5, 2007

Upon motion of Senator Dalton, the Committee Substitute bill is read in its entirety and, upon motion of Senator Dannelly, the remarks of the Members are spread upon the Journal, as follows:

Senator Dalton

“Thank you, Madame President, and members of the Senate. Now Cleveland County has always been proud of the fact that it has been the home to two Governors, but the names Huey and Gardner do not resonate throughout the world like the names of these two gentlemen that we honor today who are also natives of Cleveland County, Don Gibson and Earl Scruggs. The editor of the Shelby Star told me she was traveling in Europe and was in Denmark and they were trying to communicate with the Danes. They asked where she was from and she was trying to tell them where Shelby was and when she said it’s the home place of Earl Scruggs, there was an immediate recognition, an immediate appreciation and that person was obviously a fan. She also said it’s the home of Don Gibson. There was a hesitancy and then she started to sing, ‘I Can’t Stop Loving You.’ There was immediate recognition and immediate appreciation and obviously that person was a fan. These are two great North Carolinians who have made a great mark in the music industry and have carried their heritage from North Carolina very well. Don Gibson certainly is one of the greatest singers and songwriters of all time. He wrote over eighty songs that made the charts. His first number one was, ‘Oh, Lonesome Me,’ and the other song that is most recognizable is ‘I Can’t Stop Loving You.’ You may not know, but I just found out today that he wrote both of those songs on the same day and for your information ‘I Can’t Stop Loving You’ was the B side of the record. He is a member of the Songwriters Hall of Fame and obviously Elvis, Ray Charles, Charlie Albertson, along with about 700 other people, have performed ‘I Can’t Stop Loving You.’ Don is a member of the Songwriters Hall of Fame, the Country Music Hall of Fame and his widow, Bobbie, is with us today and we thank you for being here. Earl Scruggs is known internationally. He is in the Country Music Hall of Fame and the International Blue Grass Hall of Fame. He has received the National Heritage Fellowship Award, the President’s National Medal of Arts and has a Star on the Hollywood Hall of Fame. He won four Grammys but has been nominated for many, many more than that. It’s quite an impressive resume for a young man from Cleveland County. I thought it was particularly poignant that he grew up in a family that appreciated music and played instruments. His father played the banjo and the fiddle but he never got the opportunity to hear his father play and the banjo became his companion and it became his therapy and if you read the biography, at the age of ten he came running out of a room, saying ‘I’ve got it, I’ve got it!’ and it was the three-fingered style of banjo picking that has become known as the Scruggs style of picking that revolutionized Blue Grass music. He grew up there, worked in the textile mill helping to support the family. In 1945 he joined Bill Monroe and the Blue Grass Boys and in 1948 joined with Lester Flatt and the Foggy Mountain Boys. In 1963 the ‘Battle of Jed Clampett’ made it to number one, the first Blue Grass team to have a number one song. In 1969, I think it had to be very rewarding, he created the Earl Scruggs review and began to tour with his two sons, Gary and Randy, and Gary is with us today. If any of you have recently been to the North Carolina Symphony, they're doing a program called 'Blue Skies Red Earth' and to hear the North Carolina Symphony play 'Foggy Mountain Breakdown' is something to behold but I think that is a great tribute to Earl, too, in the diversity that he creates with his music. The Destination Cleveland County is hoping to form a museum in Cleveland County called The Southern Music Heritage Museum to honor Don Gibson and Earl Scruggs for all they have done to preserve this great music. The Center for the Study of the American South at UNC-Chapel Hill has been talking to them today and is very interested in this heritage. We have people like Bob Dylan, Elton John, Sting, Vince Gill and others who have taken an interest in this project because these are the icons of the music industry. These are the people who laid the foundation for them so they are very appreciative of these two icons and I am very appreciative of them. I'm appreciative that Mrs. Gibson and Earl took the time to be here today and I ask that you support the resolution."

June 5, 2007

Senator Albertson:

"I have to say that of the nineteen years I've been here, this is one of the most exciting days that I've seen and that is to have Bobbie, the wife of Don Gibson, here and, of course, the great Earl Scruggs. What wonderful, truly great wonderful musicians they are and wonderful people, as well. I was trying to think of some things in the resolution that Walter didn't talk about. I talked to my good friend, Jimmy Capps, over in Nashville today. Jimmy lives down the road here and came from Benson and, of course, he's a regular player on the Grand Ole Opry and he knows all these people very well. He and I were just reminiscing about some of the things for which both these artists are well known. Jimmy reminded me he thought he was right when he said that Don got started on a little radio station over in Knoxville, KNOX, and they were doing a daily radio show called Midday Merry-go-Round and, of course, he went on from there to Nashville. He was one of the few people that I know that played the sessions, played rhythm guitar in his own recording sessions. That was quite unusual for somebody to do that. Not only was he a great singer and a songwriter but he was a great guitar player and he played one of those guitars that had the F-holds in it which was quite unusual. I think they called it a Gibson Super 400 which again was unusual for someone to play. I think I'm right when I say I think he was second to Hank Williams in the number of songs that he had written and had recorded. Now I sang all of his songs a lot of times, 'Oh, Lonesome Me', 'I Can't Stop Loving You', but I could not do it like he did. He was so great and I have nothing but wonderful memories of him. Earl Scruggs, my gracious, I remember when I was a young fellow and Earl you were playing on WPTF and we would get up early in the morning and try to catch that morning show on WPTF and then we would come out at noontime and we'd make sure we would go to the house in time to hear that broadcast again from WPTF. You know, back at that time, Madame President, folks didn't have a lot of anything. So while music is even important to all of us today, I think it was probably even more important back in those days because we worked hard and we looked forward to hearing that music early in the morning and at noontime. I was talking with Earl earlier and I remember when he came down to Beulaville to Beulaville High School and he would tell me it was kind of a seasonal thing. In the summertime people were out in the fields working and when it started cooling off in the fall we would all flock to the schoolhouses wherever they happened to be so we would make sure we could take in that good show they always had. A lot has been said about Earl and his ability to play his old particular unique style. I've heard a lot of people imitate his style, but I have never heard anyone, Earl, that could play it with the feel and just the way you played it. No one else has been able to do that. He had a real unique sound and, as Walter said, he completely revolutionized banjo playing as we knew it. I think I'm right when I say, Earl, you correct me if I'm wrong, you had the first syndicated TV show if I remember correctly and I will always remember that famous Martha White theme song. I learned that and sung that many times, as well. Everybody has heard the Martha White theme song. We are really honored to have all of you here today. I would say one other thing. I remember when I was a young fellow, we would try to pick up the Grand Ole Opry on a Saturday night and when we had difficulty getting a clear channel, sometimes we couldn't hear it real well but we would get us a bucket of water and play on that ground cable and that connected that thing to the ground to try to get better reception. Now when that thing came in everybody got quiet and what a wonderful time it was. Don Gibson, Bobbie, thank you for being here and thank you for his great music. Earl, we will always be grateful for your contribution and please know all of you have made us proud. We are delighted to have you here today and I commend this resolution to you."

June 5, 2007

Senator Bingham:

I'd just like to say, Mr. Scruggs, that I equate you for the reason I'm here! The reason I say that is that in 1970 the Earl Scruggs style and all the various music that you played inspired this Country, but not only this Country, but all over the world. I became very interested in the banjo and was working in Oregon fighting forest fires and bought a five-string banjo there and began to try to learn to play. Of course, this man is very giving in the fact that a lot of you don't know but he wrote a book that was very helpful to young aspiring musicians like I was that didn't have any talent but were willing to make a lot of sacrifices and spend a lot of time. I later left America and went to Australia. I had to ship my banjo back because it weighed about thirty pounds. It was a Gibson and you know how heavy they are. So I bought a folk banjo when I was in Australia and it was amazing when I would go anywhere, I had begun to play some and, of course, Pete Seeger was another person who played a lot of folk-type music, but when I told folks that I met and began to play it got to a point where they could barely stand to listen to me play without getting a headache! They would ask where I was from and I would say North Carolina and they didn't want to know who the governor was, they wanted to know if I knew Earl Scruggs. I traveled in many other countries and all over Australia and any time

June 5, 2007

I'd mention North Carolina, Mr. Scruggs, they would want to know if I knew you. It's a great pleasure for me to be in your presence today because I later played music all over the area that I'm from. We played at a lot of parties and had a good time and made a lot of friends and I think because of that they thought I was a half way good banjo player but I must say they weren't familiar with you. There was one song that we always enjoyed playing and that one was 'Hot Corn, Cold Corn' and that song, I don't know how many of you are familiar with it, but this is about corn liquor and a little bottle called a demijohn. That was Hot Corn, Cold Corn, bring along your demijohn! The part that was wonderful to me was the part that said, 'Here comes the preacher and the children are a-cryin' here comes the preacher and the children are a-cryin', the chickens are a hollering and the toenails are a-flyin.' Yes sir, that was wonderful. Everywhere we played they wanted to hear that song and many of your other songs that you wrote and played and I appreciate you so much, Mr. Scruggs. It is an honor to be able to speak to you personally here and I hope I can get a picture with you before you leave today. Thank you, Madame President."

Senator Rand:

"Madame President, let me say one thing if I may. I went to Carolina in the fall of 1957 and I figured I would learn a lot of things up there and I did. One of the most important things I learned was a great love for Blue Grass music. Some fellow from Atlanta had a recording of the 'Foggy Mountain Breakdown' and that became sort of an anthem for our fraternity. I never thought that I'd hear that Sting was singing with you but I reckon if you live long enough you'll hear most anything in this world. My mother was a piano teacher and I loved music. I couldn't play a lick but I loved music and it was a great thing for me to hear that music and it is uniquely North Carolina, I think, and we are delighted that you are here today and that we can honor you. We are delighted that you have meant so much to so many people all over the world. It's been a wonderful, wonderful thing for us and I hope it has been a wonderful thing for you because we owe you a great deal. Of course, I loved Don Gibson, too. Lord, we are fortunate in North Carolina to have such wonderful people so thank you for coming today."

Mr. Earl Scruggs:

"Thank you. I want you folks to know that I am really delighted and pleased to be here. I've been in a lot of other states at a lot of other times, but my heart is always in North Carolina so it's good to be back here with Mrs. Gibson and Gary, my son, and everybody. Thank you very much. I appreciate everything."

We are thankful for the variety of natural resources we enjoy, for the diversity of the people with whom we share life, for the opportunities which abound and yes, O God, even for the challenges which are before us as a legislative body. As we come together on this afternoon, we pray you will give us your wisdom, a certain sense of your presence and the desire to do that which is pleasing in your sight. Make us willing to reach beyond our own narrow ways of thinking and to embrace your call to do justice, to love kindness and to walk humbly with you. In our deliberations, make us especially mindful of the young and old, the powerless and the disenfranchised that we may speak for them and act boldly on their behalf. for his daughters, Caroline and Vicki, and for all the family during this difficult time. To be a member of the Senate one needs tough skin, but during this session the Senators have also needed broad shoulders on which others may lean and hearts that offer care. With your help, O God, each has exercised the use of both ably. So let us return to the work before us more eager to serve you and more inclined to love you as though in this mysterious presence of death we have learned to know the deeper meaning and responsibility of life. Amen."

"Almighty God, we give you thanks for this day and for the good and vital work you have placed before the North Carolina Senate. and carefully, decide wisely and well in order that everything may be done in accordance with your will. Help us in all that we do to put aside cunning and craftiness, to regard others better than ourselves, to speak the truth in love, and to contribute to the well being of the whole State of North Carolina. Deliver us this day from the service of self alone that we may do the work you have given us to do in truth and beauty and for the common good. Join and knit this gathered body together by your grace that their endeavor, being grounded in your love, may flourish through the gifted contribution of each member present. Now we pause to offer prayers for all those with whom we share the Journey. For our loved ones, those who have been given to us, and to whom we have been given, we give you thanks and for those whom we have loved who are now absent from us, and for those whom we know face particular trials this day. We entrust all who are dear to us, including our families, our friends, our neighbors, and all those whom we represent, to your never-failing love and care, trusting that you will do far more for them than we can desire or pray for. We thank you, God, for the gift of leadership you have gathered here. Give the members of this Body wisdom and courage to make decisions that are in harmony with the in-breaking of your reign in our midst. Grant them peace and grace as they go about their work this day. Amen."

EIGHTY-FIFTH DAY

Senate Chamber
Thursday, June 21, 2007

The Senate meets pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by The Honorable Beverly E. Perdue, Lieutenant Governor.

Prayer is offered by The Reverend Mike Morris, Senate Chaplain, as follows:

"Dear God, the Senate family comes before you today praying for the people of Charleston, South Carolina, especially for the families of the nine brave firefighters who lost their lives in the tragic fire in that city. From one who knew the rewards and risks of such a calling, we hear a fire captain's prayer as our prayer today: 'Dear God, please guide me in my plight. Help me think quickly, but safely. Guide my hand to help those who are seeking rescue. Give me the wisdom to help the injured and the weak. To help those who have no will for life. Grant me the strength to fight the fire with assertive skill. And God please grant me the ability to return home, to my family. But, if in your wisdom I may give my life, protect my family from harm, no matter what the foe. We call on you to answer this prayer, O God. Amen.'" spirit and humility of heart to remember that all things we have been entrusted with on this earth are the elements of your creation and we have been granted stewardship over these blessings by your grace. May they courageously and with conviction of spirit guided by the infallible words you have delivered to our fathers, govern with wisdom and justice in harmony with your law and covenant. We admit freely that all of us fallible are by the impediments of our nature, yet able through confession through Christ, to receive forgiveness and the guidance of the Spirit of God who will lead us into all truth. May you grant protection to these men and women and their families, physically, mentally, and spiritually as our enemy desires to destroy our foundation and defame our just cause. At this hour of dramatic importance in the history of our State, we declare as taught to pray by our Lord, that yours our God is the kingdom, and the glory, and the power forever and ever. Amen."
