A vetoed bill, together with the Governor's objections and the veto message, was returned to the Clerk of the North Carolina Senate, as follows:

Senate Bill 3, "An Act to Clarify Political Party Disclosure on the Ballot for Judicial Races in 2018."

Changing the rules for candidates after the filing has closed is unlawful and wrong, especially when the motive is to rig a contest after it is already underway. All judge elections should be free of partisanship, and continued undermining of these elections creates confusion and shows contempt for the judiciary.

Therefore, I veto the bill.

Governor

Show us the directions that we should move and that this state should follow to follow your plan and your purpose. Dear God, we lift up today so many who are suffering in this state with diseases and others and treatments. God, we just ask you to continue to pour out upon all of us here and the individuals in this chamber—we ask that you would pour out your blessings. Be with us as we travel to come in once again to fulfill your purpose. These things we ask in the only authority given under heaven, the name of Jesus Christ. Amen.”

Prayer is offered by The Honorable Deanna Ballard, Senator from Watauga County, as follows:

“Dear Lord, we are just grateful for another day, and we know that there is nothing foolish nor shameful in just giving you everything that we can't keep, simply to take hold of you. I just ask that in that surrender that we will just—and in that letting go—that we will just fully believe in your sovereignty and in your power, then also sit in a posture of just receiving your absolutely perfect love. We love you, and we just ask for your help today. Put your hand of protection on us. In your name I pray. Amen.”

S/ James White
Principal Clerk

GOVERNOR'S OBJECTIONS AND VETO MESSAGE

House Bill 3, "An Act to Clarify the Designations to Appear on the Ballot for Constitutional Amendments and Other Referenda."

These proposed constitutional amendments would dramatically weaken our system of checks and balances. The proposed amendments also use misleading and deceptive terms to describe them on the ballot.

This bill compounds those problems by stopping additional information that may more accurately describe the proposed amendments on the ballot. Voters should not be further misled about the sweeping changes the General Assembly wants to put in the constitution.

Therefore, I veto the bill.

S/ Roy Cooper
Governor

The bill, having been vetoed, is returned to the Clerk of the North Carolina House of Representatives on this the 27th day of July 2018, at 2:58 p.m., for reconsideration by that body.

Received by: S/ James White

A SENATORIAL STATEMENT

HONORING ATTORNEY J. KENNETH LEE

Submitted by Senator Robinson on July 24, 2018

WHEREAS, J. Kenneth Lee, a Civil rights lawyer who fought to integrate Greensboro schools, passed away on Sunday, July 22, 2018; and

WHEREAS, Attorney Lee, after earning a degree in electrical engineering from North Carolina A&T State University, decided to go to law school to fight Jim Crow laws; and

WHEREAS, Attorney Lee represented five black children who sued Greensboro City Schools so they could attend an all-white elementary school — among the first students in the South to do so successfully; and

WHEREAS, over a lifetime, Attorney Lee fought for equality not only for schools open to all children but also in economic opportunity that he knew could be life changing; and

WHEREAS, Attorney Lee was a plaintiff in a case argued by Thurgood Marshall, then chief legal counselor with the NAACP's Legal Defense Fund, to desegregate the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill's law school, opening the university's doors for entry to other black students; and

WHEREAS, Attorney Lee represented the majority of the 1,700 civil disobedience cases in North Carolina that started with the Woolworth sit-ins of 1960; and

WHEREAS, Attorney Lee also founded American Federal, the first black federally-chartered savings and loan bank in the State;

NOW, THEREFORE, Attorney J. Kenneth Lee deserves applause for his lifetime commitment to civil rights. He brought education, equality, and economic empowerment to all children and citizens of Greensboro and the State of North Carolina.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned certifies that the foregoing statement was read in the Senate and placed upon the Journal on the twenty-fourth day of July, 2018.
