HOUSE COMMITTEE ON FINANCE

June 11, 2002

The House Committee on Finance met on Tuesday, June 11, 2002, at 8:30 A.M. in Room 544 of the Legislative Office Building.

Representative Paul Luebke, presiding Chair, called the meeting to order and the following members were present: Representatives Gordon Allen and Monroe Buchanan, Chairs; Representatives Dewey Hill and Mary Jarrell, Vice Chairs; and Representatives Martha Alexander, Philip Baddour, Russell Capps, Leslie Cox, Pete Cunningham, Michael Decker, Andrew Dedmon, Rick Eddins, Zeno Edwards, Pryor Gibson, Lyons Gray, Joe Hackney, Bill Hurley, Linda Johnson, Daniel McComas, Eugene McCombs, Mia Morris, Art Pope, John Rayfield, Jennifer Weiss, Shelly Willingham, Constance Wilson, and Larry Womble.

House Bill 1490, AN ACT TO PROVIDE THAT LOCAL REVENUES MAY NOT BE WITHHELD OR IMPOUNDED BY THE GOVERNOR was before the committee for consideration.

Trina Griffin, Committee Counsel, explained the bill.

Representatives Gibson, Gray, Goodwin, and Baddour, as primary sponsors, spoke on the bill.

North Carolina League of Municipalities counsel, Andrew L. Romanet, Jr. spoke in favor of the bill.

North Carolina Association of County Commissioners, James B. Blackburn, III, spoke in favor of the bill.

Franklin Freeman, Senior Assistant for Governmental Affairs of the Governor's Office, spoke on the bill stating that it was acceptable to the Governor and that he does not feel that a constitutional amendment would be appropriate.

Representative Baddour was recognized for an amendment. He explained the amendment and moved for its adoption. Motion carried and the amendment was adopted.

The Chairman recognized Representative Shelly Willingham as a new member of the Finance Committee, replacing former Representative Toby Fitch.

Representative Buchanan made the motion that the amendment be rolled into a committee substitute and be given a favorable report, unfavorable to the original bill. Motion carried.

There being no further business, the Chair adjourned the meeting at 9:30 A.M.

Respectfully submitted,

Representative Paul Luebke
Presiding Chair

Joyce T. Harris
Committee Assistant

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO PROVIDE THAT LOCAL REVENUES MAY NOT BE WITHHELD OR IMPOUNDED BY THE GOVERNOR.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 105-113.82(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) Time. – The revenue shall be distributed to cities and counties within 60 days after March 31 of each year. The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 2. G.S. 105-116.1(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Distribution. – The Secretary must distribute to the cities part of the taxes collected under this Article on electric power companies. Each city's share for a calendar quarter is the percentage distribution amount for that city for that quarter minus one-fourth of the city's hold-back amount and one-fourth of the city's proportionate share of the annual cost to the Department of administering the distribution. The Secretary must make the distribution within 75 days after the end of each calendar quarter. The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 3. G.S. 105-187.44(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Distribution. – Within 75 days after the end of each calendar quarter, the Secretary must distribute to the cities part of the tax proceeds collected under this Article during that quarter. The amount to be distributed to a city is one-half of the amount of tax attributable to that city for that quarter under subsection (a) of this section. The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 4. G.S. 105-164.44F is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(f) Nature. – The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 5. G.S. 136-41.1 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(d) Nature. – The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 6. G.S. 143-25 reads as rewritten:

"§ 143-25. Maintenance appropriations dependent upon adequacy of revenues to support them.

(a) All maintenance appropriations now or hereafter made are hereby declared to be maximum, conditional and proportionate appropriations, the purpose being to make the appropriations payable in full in the amounts named herein if necessary and then only in the event the aggregate revenues collected and available during each fiscal year of the biennium for which such appropriations are made, are sufficient to pay all of the appropriations in full; otherwise, the said appropriations shall be deemed to be payable in such proportion as the total sum of all appropriations bears to the total amount of revenue available in each of said fiscal years. ~~The~~ Except as provided in subsection (b) of this section, the Director of the Budget is ~~hereby~~ given full power and authority to examine and survey the progress of the collection of the revenue out of which such appropriations are to be made, and to declare and determine the amounts that can be, during each quarter of each of the fiscal years of the biennium properly allocated to each respective appropriation. In making such examination and survey, ~~he~~ the Director of the Budget shall receive estimates of the prospective collection of revenues from the Secretary of Revenue and every other revenue collecting agency of the State. The Director of the Budget may reduce all of said appropriations pro rata when necessary to prevent an overdraft or deficit to the fiscal period for which such appropriations are made. The Governor may also reduce all of said appropriations pursuant to Article III, Section 5(3) of the Constitution in accordance with subsection (b) of this section, after consulting with the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations under G.S. 120-76(8) if prior consultation is required by that section. The purpose and policy of this Article are to provide and insure that there shall be no overdraft or deficit in the general fund of the State at the end of the fiscal period, growing out of appropriations for maintenance and the Director of the Budget is directed and required to so administer this Article as to prevent any such overdraft or deficit. Prior to taking any action under this section to reduce appropriations pro rata, the Governor may consult with the Advisory Budget Commission.

(b) The General Assembly recognizes that it has required units of local government to adopt and maintain annual balanced budgets and take other steps to assure financially sound operations under the Local Government Budget and Fiscal Control Act and other provisions of Chapter 159 of the General Statutes. Accordingly, the General Assembly finds that in order to satisfy those statutory requirements and provide adequate services to their citizens, units of local government must be able to rely on the funds and local revenue sources the General Assembly has provided.

It is the intent of the General Assembly that funds that have been collected by the State on behalf of local governments and funds that the General Assembly has appropriated or otherwise committed to local governments shall not be reduced except as provided in this section. In exercising the powers contained in Section 5(3) of Article III of the Constitution, the Governor shall not withhold from distribution funds that have been collected by the State on behalf of local governments or funds that the General Assembly has appropriated or otherwise committed to local governments unless, after making adequate provision for the prompt payment of principal of and interest on bonds and notes of the State according to their terms, the Governor has exhausted all other sources of revenue of the State including surplus remaining in the treasury at the beginning of the fiscal period and has been authorized to withhold the funds by an act of the General Assembly.

This subsection does not authorize the Governor to withhold revenues from taxes levied by units of local governments and collected by the State. The General Assembly recognizes that under Section 19 of Article I of the North Carolina Constitution and under the Due Process Clause of the United States Constitution, the State is prohibited from taking local tax revenue."

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO PROVIDE THAT LOCAL REVENUES MAY NOT BE WITHHELD OR IMPOUNDED BY THE GOVERNOR.

SECTION 1. G.S. 105-113.82(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) Time. – The revenue shall be distributed to cities and counties within 60 days after March 31 of each year. The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 2. G.S. 105-116.1(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Distribution. – The Secretary must distribute to the cities part of the taxes collected under this Article on electric power companies. Each city's share for a calendar quarter is the percentage distribution amount for that city for that quarter minus one-fourth of the city's hold-back amount and one-fourth of the city's proportionate share of the annual cost to the Department of administering the distribution. The Secretary must make the distribution within 75 days after the end of each calendar quarter. The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 3. G.S. 105-187.44(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Distribution. – Within 75 days after the end of each calendar quarter, the Secretary must distribute to the cities part of the tax proceeds collected under this Article during that quarter. The amount to be distributed to a city is one-half of the amount of tax attributable to that city for that quarter under subsection (a) of this section. The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 4. G.S. 105-164.44F is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(f) Nature. – The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 5. G.S. 136-41.1 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(d) Nature. – The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 6. G.S. 143-25 reads as rewritten:

"§ 143-25. Maintenance appropriations dependent upon adequacy of revenues to support them.

(a) All maintenance appropriations now or hereafter made are hereby declared to be maximum, conditional and proportionate appropriations, the purpose being to make the appropriations payable in full in the amounts named herein if necessary and then only in the event the aggregate revenues collected and available during each fiscal year of the biennium for which such appropriations are made, are sufficient to pay all of the appropriations in full; otherwise, the said appropriations shall be deemed to be payable in such proportion as the total sum of all appropriations bears to the total amount of revenue available in each of said fiscal years. ~~The~~ Except as provided in subsection (b) of this section, the Director of the Budget is ~~hereby~~ given full power and authority to examine and survey the progress of the collection of the revenue out of which such appropriations are to be made, and to declare and determine the amounts that can be, during each quarter of each of the fiscal years of the biennium properly allocated to each respective appropriation. In making such examination and survey, ~~he~~ the Director of the Budget shall receive estimates of the prospective collection of revenues from the Secretary of Revenue and every other revenue collecting agency of the State. The Director of the Budget may reduce all of said appropriations pro rata when necessary to prevent an overdraft or deficit to the fiscal period for which such appropriations are made. The Governor may also reduce all of said appropriations pursuant to Article III, Section 5(3) of the Constitution in accordance with subsection (b) of this section, after consulting with the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations under G.S. 120-76(8) if prior consultation is required by that section. The purpose and policy of this Article are to provide and insure that there shall be no overdraft or deficit in the general fund of the State at the end of the fiscal period, growing out of appropriations for maintenance and the Director of the Budget is directed and required to so administer this Article as to prevent any such overdraft or deficit. Prior to taking any action under this section to reduce appropriations pro rata, the Governor may consult with the Advisory Budget Commission.

(b) The General Assembly recognizes that it has required units of local government to adopt and maintain annual balanced budgets and take other steps to assure financially sound operations under the Local Government Budget and Fiscal Control Act and other provisions of Chapter 159 of the General Statutes. Accordingly, the General Assembly finds that in order to satisfy those statutory requirements and provide adequate services to their citizens, units of local government must be able to rely on the funds and local revenue sources the General Assembly has provided.

It is the intent of the General Assembly that funds that have been collected by the State on behalf of local governments and funds that the General Assembly has appropriated or otherwise committed to local governments shall not be reduced except as provided in this section. In exercising the powers contained in Section 5(3) of Article III of the Constitution, the Governor shall not withhold from distribution funds that have been collected by the State on behalf of local governments or funds that the General Assembly has appropriated or otherwise committed to local governments unless, after making adequate provision for the prompt payment of principal of and interest on bonds and notes of the State according to their terms, the Governor has exhausted all other sources of revenue of the State including surplus remaining in the treasury at the beginning of the fiscal period and has been authorized to withhold the funds by an act of the General Assembly.

This subsection does not authorize the Governor to withhold revenues from taxes levied by units of local governments and collected by the State. The General Assembly recognizes that under Section 19 of Article I of the North Carolina Constitution and under the Due Process Clause of the United States Constitution, the State is prohibited from taking local tax revenue."

SECTION 7. This act is effective when it becomes law.

HOUSE BILL 1490:
Secure Local Revenues

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	House Finance	Introduced by:	Reps. Gibson, Goodwin, Baddour, and Gray
Date:	June 11, 2002
Version:	1st Edition	Summary by:	Trina Griffin Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 1490 secures local revenues from being withheld by the Governor in the following ways:

- It prohibits the Governor from withholding certain shared tax revenues by classifying them as "local revenues" rather than "State expenditures" thus removing those funds from the scope of the Governor's constitutional budgetary authority.
- It restricts the Governor's ability to withhold funds otherwise appropriated or committed to local governments, including reimbursement money, by requiring that the Governor first exhaust all other sources of revenue, including surplus in the treasury at the beginning of the fiscal period, and be authorized by an act of the General Assembly.

The act is effective when it becomes law.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Sections 1 through 5 of the bill amend the following tax-sharing statutes by characterizing the revenue distributed by those statutes as distributions of "local revenue" rather than "State expenditures" for purposes of interpreting Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution:

Section 1 - Beer and wine tax.

Section 2 - Franchise gross receipts tax.

Section 3 - Piped natural gas tax.

Section 4 - Sales tax on telecommunications.

Section 5 - Powell Bill funds.

Arguably, since the Constitution authorizes the Governor to reduce only "State expenditures," the classification of these state-shared tax revenues as "local revenues" prohibits the Governor from reducing or withholding the distributions. Moreover, the bill expressly states that the Governor may not reduce or withhold these distributions.

Section 6 of the bill amends the Executive Budget Act by limiting the Governor's authority to withhold from distribution funds that the General Assembly has appropriated or otherwise committed to local governments, including local reimbursement money. The Governor may withhold these funds only if, after making adequate provision for the prompt payment of principal of and interest on bonds and notes of the State:

(1) He has exhausted all other sources of revenue of the State including surplus remaining in the treasury at the beginning of the fiscal period; and

(2) He has been authorized to withhold the funds by an act of the General Assembly.

Based on the current information available, including a recent Attorney General's opinion (see IV. below), it is unclear whether amending the above-referenced statutes would be effective in preventing the Governor from withholding these funds from local governments. If the Governor withheld the funds despite the enactment of this legislation, enforcement of this limitation on the Governor's authority may have to be resolved by a court. The surest way to secure local revenues would be to pass a constitutional amendment prohibiting the Governor from withholding these funds.

CURRENT LAW & BACKGROUND:

I. Sources of Local Revenue – The State provides financial aid to local governments through reimbursement programs and shared tax revenues.

A. Local Government Reimbursements – State reimbursements are amounts distributed to local units to compensate them for revenue lost as the result of the removal by the General Assembly of property from the local sales and use tax base, the property tax base, or the intangibles tax base. The reimbursement programs include reimbursements for the repeal of the property tax on inventories and on poultry and livestock, the repeal of the intangibles tax, the homestead exemption from property tax, and the repeal of local sales and use taxes on food purchased with food stamps. Section 34.15 of the Appropriations Act of 2001 (S.L. 2001-424, Section 34.15) repeals all of the State reimbursement payments to local governments in exchange for granting local governments the authority to levy an additional ½-cent sales tax, effective beginning with the 2003-2004 fiscal year.

B. Shared Tax Revenues - The State also shares a portion of certain tax revenues with local governments. The distribution formulas and any applicable restrictions on the use of the funds for each of the shared tax revenues are set out in the statutes. The shared revenues include the levy of the following taxes:

- Beer and wine taxes[1]
- Franchise gross receipts tax[2]
- Piped natural gas tax[3]
- Sales tax on communications[4]
- Powell bill funds[5]

[1] Cities and counties in which beer and wine may be sold receive a portion of the State excise tax levied on beer and wine. They receive a percentage of the net amount of excise taxes collected, and the percentage depends on the type of beverage sold: 23 ¾% for beer, 62% for unfortified wine, and 22% for fortified wine. The local governments that share in the proceeds do so on a per capita basis, with counties receiving credit for their nonmunicipal population only.

[2] The State levies a gross receipts tax on electric power companies at a rate of 3.22%. From these proceeds, each city or town is entitled to an amount equal to the proceeds of a tax of 3.09% of gross receipts arising from sales within that city or town.

[3] The State levies an excise tax on piped natural gas, and the rate is based on the monthly volume of natural gas received by the final user. The rate decreases as the amount of therms of piped gas consumed in a month increases. Cities receive 50% of the proceeds of the tax attributable to that city.

[5] North Carolina's state gasoline tax is 17 ½ cents per gallon, plus the greater of 7% of the average wholesale price or 3.5 cents per gallon. Of this, an amount equal to the proceeds of 1.75 cents per gallon plus an additional 6.5 percent of the net proceeds of the North Carolina Highway Trust Fund is distributed among North Carolina's cities and towns. The legislation that first established this distribution system is known as the Powell Bill, after its principal sponsor, and the monies distributed to the cities and towns are generally known as Powell Bill funds. The use of these funds by municipalities is restricted to maintaining, repairing, constructing, reconstructing or widening streets, sidewalks, bridges, curbs and gutters, bikeways, and other necessary appurtenances within the corporate limits of the municipality.

II. Withholding of Certain Local Revenues by the Governor - For the last two years, the Governor has withheld reimbursement funds from local governments, and he has recommended suspending additional reimbursement funds for fiscal year 2002-2003 as well. Specifically, in fiscal year 2000-2001 the Governor placed in escrow $95 million of inventory tax reimbursement funds, representing one-half of the total annual payment, in anticipation of a budget shortfall. These funds were later released, however, to local governments. In fiscal year 2001-2002, the Governor again withheld $95 million in inventory tax reimbursement funds plus $114 million in state-shared taxes and the homestead reimbursement in order to balance the budget as of June 30, 2002. For fiscal year 2002-2003, the Governor has proposed suspending $333.4 million in local government reimbursements, including reimbursements for the intangibles tax, the inventory tax, the sales and use tax on food purchased with food stamps, and the homestead exemption.

III. Constitutional Authority to Withhold Funds - By withholding these funds despite the statutory directive to distribute the funds to local governments, the Governor has invoked his constitutional authority pursuant to Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution to balance the budget. Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution sets out the Governor's budgetary duties. Specifically, it directs the Governor to prepare and recommend to the General Assembly a comprehensive budget of the anticipated revenue and proposed expenditures of the State for the ensuing fiscal period. Furthermore, it provides that the State may not operate at a deficit during the fiscal period covered by a budget. To insure that the State does not incur a deficit, the Constitution requires the Governor to continually survey the collection of revenue. If, as a result of his surveys, he determines that actual receipts for the fiscal period, when added to the surplus remaining in the State Treasury will not be sufficient to pay budgeted expenditures, the Governor must effect the necessary economies in State expenditures to keep the deficit from occurring. Arguably, the distribution of monies to local governments is a "State expenditure," and the Governor's constitutional obligation to maintain a balanced budget overrides the statutory directive to distribute the funds.

IV. Attorney General Opinion – While the Attorney General has not issued an opinion specifically addressing the Governor's authority to withhold local government reimbursement money or shared tax revenue, the Attorney General has recently issued an advisory opinion regarding the transfer of money from the Wireless Emergency Telephone System Fund to the General Fund in a budget emergency.[6] The Wireless Fund is funded by the levy of a fee on the bills of wireless telephone consumers. The Wireless 911 Board administers the Fund, and is required to deposit all revenues derived from the service charge into a separate fund established with the State Treasurer. The Fund is used to provide enhanced 911 service to wireless customers. In the opinion, the Attorney General concluded that the Governor's authority to transfer funds from the Wireless Fund to an escrow account to avoid a budget deficit is "necessarily implied from his constitutional duty to balance the budget and from his statutory duty to supervise the funds of all State agencies." He further concluded that the "statutory limitation on the use of funds necessarily must yield to the Governor's constitutional obligation to balance the budget." The opinion did not address whether the monies in the Wireless Fund were a "State expenditure" for purposes of Section 5(3) of Article III of the Constitution, but it did clarify that the Governor's authority is not diminished by the fact that the funds are revenues from fees and not budget allocations made by the General Assembly.

PRINCIPAL DEPARTMENT(S) & PROGRAM(S) AFFECTED: Office of State Budget and Management, Office of the Governor, Local Governments.

EFFECTIVE DATE: When it becomes law.

BILL SUMMARY: The bill attempts to limit the Governor's ability to withhold the local portion of revenues shared with cities and counties by declaring these funds local revenue. Specifically Section 1 addresses beer and wine taxes, while Section 2 discusses the franchise tax on electricity. Section 3 considers the tax on piped natural gas. Section 4 addresses the tax on telecommunications. Section 5 considers the Highway Fund and Highway Trust Funds allocated as Powell Bill funds. Section 6 recognizes the need for local governments to be able to rely on the funds mentioned in Sections 1 – 5, and adds intent language to clarify that the funds committed or appropriated by the legislature for local governments shall not be reduced unless the governor has exhausted all other sources of revenue for the state. It also explicitly recognizes that the state is prohibited from taking local revenues.

BACKGROUND: In the spring of 2001, as a result of substantial budget shortfall, the governor escrowed $95.0 million of reimbursement payments to local governments. This payment is made as a reimbursement for revenues lost by the state's repeal of the property tax on various inventories. The funds were placed in an escrow account in case they were needed to balance the state budget on June 30, 2001. These funds were later released to the local units. In 2002, again facing a difficult fiscal situation, Governor Easley escrowed the spring inventory tax reimbursement to local governments. This $95.0 million was again placed in a special account to hold in case it was needed to balance the state budget in 2002. At the same time the governor announced he was holding an additional $114.0 million in reimbursements and shared revenues to secure his ability to balance the state budget. The $114 million included the following estimated amounts:

Fund Type	Amount Withheld
Franchise Utility Tax
March Distribution	35.6
June Distribution	25.0
Piped Natural Gas
March Distribution	6.9
June Distribution	11.8
Beer and Wine Tax	26.8
Homestead Exemption	7.9
TOTAL	114.0

These amounts remain in escrowed funds for potential use for balancing the 2001-02 state budget.

ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGY: This legislation has no direct impact on the budgets passed by the General Assembly, as these shared revenues have not been used in the legislative process for state expenditures. However, the legislation could limit the options available to the Governor. Because of the lack of clarity about what actions will be required of the Governor in future years, and the impact this particular legislation will have on the individual's decisions, no fiscal estimate is possible on the impact of the legislation.

MINUTES
HOUSE COMMITTEE ON FINANCE

JUNE 12, 2002

The House Committee on Finance met at 8:30 a. m. on Wednesday, June 12, 2002, in Room 544 of the Legislative Office Building. The following members were present: Chairmen Allen, Buchanan, Luebke, and Wainwright; Vice-Chairs Hill and Jarrell; and Representatives Alexander, Blust, Capps, Cox, Decker, Dedmon, Eddins, Edwards, Gibson, Hackney, Holliman, Hurley, Johnson, McCombs, McMahan, Morris, Pope, Rayfield, Starnes, Weiss, Willingham, Wilson, Womble, and Cunningham. The following Sergeant-at-Arms staff were present: Bob Fowler, Bill Freeman, Dusty Rhoades, and Walter Spell. Staff persons present included: Cindy Avrette, Trina Griffin, Martha Walston, Richard Bostic, Linda Millsaps, and Committee Assistants Nancy Brantley, Blinda Edwards, Joyce Harris, and Glenda Jones. The Visitor Registration Sheet and Agenda are attached and incorporated as a part of these minutes. Chairman Allen called the meeting to order and recognized Henry Neese, Andrew Batchelor, Dan Mercer, and Zach Fentress, who were serving as Pages.

Representative Jim Crawford was recognized to explain HB 1517, A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO REVISE AND CONSOLIDATE THE CHARTER OF THE TOWN OF LITTLETON. Representative Hurley offered an amendment to the bill that deleted the word "Town" and substituted the word "Board" on Page 3, Line 16. Upon motion by Representative Buchanan, the Proposed Committee Substitute (PCS) was adopted for discussion. Representative Womble moved to give the PCS a favorable report, and an unfavorable report to the original bill. The Committee voted in favor of his motion. Copies of the Committee Report, PCS, Amendment, Bill, and Bill Analysis are attached as part of these minutes.

The next order of business was HB 1530, A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AND ACT TO ALLOW THE TOWN OF TABOR CITY TO LEVY SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS FOR STREET OR SIDEWALK IMPROVEMENTS WITHOUT PETITION. Representative Hill was recognized to explain the bill. In response to questions during the discussion, Representative Hill stated that the bill had not been through the Local Government Committee, and at this time, the cost per foot was not known. Upon the motion of Representative Hurley, the Committee voted for a favorable report. Copies of the Committee Report, Bill and Bill Summary are attached as part of these minutes.

Representative Hill was recognized to explain HB 1523, A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO AMEND VARIOUS PROPERTY TAX LAWS. Representative Hill asked Martha Walston, Committee Counsel, to explain the bill. Ms. Walston directed the committee's attention to the Bill Analysis. Representative Luebke offered an amendment to the bill that amended the bill on page 3, lines 42 and 43. Upon the motion of Representative Luebke, the amended bill was adopted for discussion. Representative Hackney asked how automobile values were established. Linda Millsaps of Fiscal Research responded that the counties used the values provided by TEC Data Systems. In response to questions regarding the 30-day notice of appeal, Mr. Johnny Bailey, Director of the Property Tax Division of the Department of Revenue, stated that the 30 days began from the date of the notice and included 30 working days. Representatives Capps, Hackney, and Wainwright expressed concerns for Section 1 of the bill, which authorized the tax collector to impose $25.00 or 10% of the amount of the check, whichever was greater, subject to a maximum of $1000.00. Pete Rodda, Forsyth County Tax Assessor and Collector, stated that the purpose of the penalty was to discourage persons from writing bad checks when paying their taxes. Sabra Faires, Assistant Secretary of Tax Administration for the Department of Revenue, stated that the current law authorized the Department of Revenue to impose 10% of the amount of the check, subject to a minimum of $1.00 and a maximum of $1000.00. Other committee members expressed concern with Section 1 of the Bill, and Representative Luebke recommended that the committee continue the discussion of the bill at a later date, which would allow the bill sponsor and staff to prepare an amendment to address the concerns expressed by committee members. Representative Hill agreed, and the bill was withdrawn and would be scheduled for discussion later. The Luebke Amendment, Bill, Bill Analysis, and Fiscal Note, are attached as part of these minutes.

Representative Allen was one of the Primary Sponsors of HB 1521and HB 1520. He asked Representative Luebke to chair the meeting for the discussion of those bills.

Staff Attorney, Cindy Avrette, was recognized to explain HB 1521, AN ACT TO CONFORM SOURCING OF MOBILE TELECOMMUNICATIONS SERVICES TO THE FEDERAL MOBILE TELECOMMUMICATIONS SOURCING ACT AND TO CODIFY THE SOURCING PRINCIPLES FOR OTHER TELECOMMUNICATIONS SERVICES. Ms. Avrette explained that this bill conforms North Carolina's sourcing of mobile telecommunications services to the federal Mobile Telecommunications Sourcing Act. Representative Buchanan moved for a favorable report and the motion carried. Copies of the Bill and Bill Analysis are attached as part of these minutes.

Representative Allen was recognized to explain HB 1520, AN ACT TO EXTEND THE SUNSET ON TAX CREDITS FOR QUALIFIED BUSINESS INVESTMENTS. There was a Proposed Committee Substitute which amended the bill on Page 2 Line 10 by changing "this Article" to read as "this Part". Representative Buchanan moved for the adoption of the PCS. The PCS was adopted for discussion. Representative Luebke recognized those persons in the audience who had asked to speak on the bill. Monica Doss, President of the Council of Entrepreneurial Development, Peter Young, CEO of AlphaVax, Inc., and Joan Myers, President of NCEITA, expressed their support of the credit. Ms. Doss reiterated that the credit is the only tax incentive specifically targeted to small business startups. Ms. Myers stated that there were four keys to sustaining and growing knowledge-based jobs and companies: (1) strong universities for research and workforce, (2) a critical mass of established technology companies, (3) available capital, and (4) an entrepreneurial environment. She also stated that the QBV would encourage knowledge-based companies to grow in or to relocate to North Carolina. Representative Womble asked for a definition of a small entrepreneurial company. Ms. Doss responded that the credit is based on the type of activity. Mr. Sam Taylor, Executive Director of the NC Bio-Sciences Organization, stated that the qualifier is a Five Million Dollar revenue cap, and you can only take the credit if you had more revenue than that in your first year of existence. Don Hobart of the Department of Commerce stated that the Economic Development Board and the Department of Commerce supported the credit. Representative Hill made a motion for a favorable report. Representative Pope spoke in opposition to the bill. He did not feel it was right to expand a specialized tax credit for some new investments and venture capital startups when all other businesses were taxed. He did not support favoring new businesses over existing businesses. He further stated that with the accelerated taxation on new investments by the Senate Budget Bill, there would be less revenue in later years when the businesses eventually did take the depreciation. The impact of this tax credit for next year's budget would be Six Million Dollars. Representative Capps expressed concern with the provision of the credit regarding "qualified grantee businesses". He suggested that the committee make the change now to correct the constitutional concern. Mr. Sam Taylor, Executive Director of the NC Bio-Sciences Organization, stated there was a uniformity question regarding the Deadwood case, which was heard by the Court of Appeals. This case was currently before the Supreme Court. The advocates for the credit had concluded that they would advocate for a continuation of the credit as it is, and wait to see how the Deadwood case is decided. The uniformity question would be resolved at the time of the Supreme Court's decision. Representative Gibson stated that this bill was about incentive and not about tax credit. He thought that more needed to be done, and he supported the bill. Representative Willingham stated that he would support the bill, but he expressed the following concerns: (1) The limited kinds of companies that could use the credit; (2) The companies were in metropolitan areas and not in rural areas such as eastern North Carolina; and (3) We need to continue to support the credit, but we need to look at how to make it better.

Due to the hour, Chairman Luebke suggested that the discussion of HB 1520 continue at another meeting. House Bills 1509 and 1510 were not discussed in this meeting and would be heard at another time. Representative Luebke announced a meeting on Thursday, June 13, and adjourned the meeting at 9:50 a.m.

Respectfully submitted,

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO REVISE AND CONSOLIDATE THE CHARTER OF THE TOWN OF LITTLETON.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. The Charter of the Town of Littleton is revised and consolidated to read as follows:

"THE CHARTER OF THE TOWN OF LITTLETON.

"ARTICLE I. INCORPORATION, CORPORATE POWERS AND BOUNDARIES.

"Section 1.1. Incorporation. The Town of Littleton, North Carolina in Halifax County and the inhabitants thereof shall continue to be a municipal body politic and corporate, under the name of the 'Town of Littleton,' hereinafter at times referred to as the 'Town.'

"Section 1.2. Powers. The Town shall have and may exercise all of the powers, duties, rights, privileges and immunities conferred upon the Town of Littleton specifically by this Charter or upon municipal corporations by general law. The term 'general law' is employed herein as defined in G.S. 160A-1.

"Section 1.3. Corporate Limits. The corporate limits shall be those existing at the time of ratification of this Charter, as set forth on the official map of the Town, and as they may be altered from time to time in accordance with law. An official map of the Town, showing the current municipal boundaries, shall be maintained permanently in the office of the Town Clerk and shall be available for public inspection. Upon alteration of the corporate limits pursuant to law, the appropriate changes to the official map shall be made and copies shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of State, the Halifax County Register of Deeds, and the appropriate board of elections.

"ARTICLE II. GOVERNING BODY.

"Section 2.1. Town Governing Body. The Board of Commissioners, hereinafter referred to as the 'Board,' and the Mayor shall be the governing body of the Town.

"Section 2.2. Board of Commissioners; Composition; Terms of Office. The Board shall be composed of five members, to be elected by all the qualified voters of the Town, for staggered terms of four years or until their successors are elected and qualified.

"Section 2.3. Mayor; Term of Office; Duties. The Mayor shall be elected by all the qualified voters of the Town for a term of four years or until his or her successor is elected and qualified. The Mayor shall be the official head of the Town government and shall preside at meetings of the Board. He shall have the right to vote only when there is an equal division on any question or matter before the Board, and shall exercise the powers and duties conferred by law or as directed by the Board.

"Section 2.4. Mayor Pro Tempore. In accordance with general law, the Board shall elect one of its members to act as Mayor Pro Tempore to perform the duties of the Mayor during his or her absence or disability.

"Section 2.5. Meetings. In accordance with general law, the Board shall establish a suitable time and place for its regular meetings. Special and emergency meetings may be held as provided by general law.

"Section 2.6. Quorum; Voting. Official actions of the Board and all votes shall be taken in accordance with the applicable provisions of general law, particularly G.S. 160A-75. The quorum provisions of G.S. 160A-74 shall apply.

"Section 2.7. Compensation; Qualifications for Office; Vacancies. The compensation and qualifications of the Mayor and Commissioners shall be in accordance with general law. Vacancies that occur in any elective office of the Town shall be filled by majority vote of the remaining members of the Board and shall be filled for the remainder of the unexpired term, notwithstanding the contrary provisions of G.S. 160A-63.

"ARTICLE III. ELECTIONS.

"Section 3.1. Regular Municipal Elections. Regular municipal elections shall be held in each odd-numbered year in accordance with the uniform municipal election laws of North Carolina. Elections shall be conducted on a nonpartisan basis and the results determined by a plurality as provided in G.S. 163-292.

"Section 3.2. Election of Mayor. At the regular municipal election in 2001, and quadrennially thereafter, a Mayor shall be elected to serve a term of four years.

"Section 3.3. Election of Commissioners. At the municipal election to be held in 1999, the three candidates for Commissioner who receive the highest number of votes shall be elected for four-year terms and the two candidates who receive the next highest number of votes shall be elected for two-year terms. At the regular municipal election in 2001, and quadrennially thereafter, two Commissioners shall be elected to four-year terms. At the regular municipal election in 2003, and quadrennially thereafter, three Commissioners shall be elected to four-year terms.

"Section 3.4. Special Elections and Referenda. Special elections and referenda may be held only as provided by general law or applicable local acts of the General Assembly.

"ARTICLE IV. ORGANIZATION AND ADMINISTRATION.

"Section 4.1. Form of Government. The Town shall operate under the mayor-council form of government as provided in Part 3 of Article 7 of Chapter 160A of the General Statutes.

"Section 4.2. Town Attorney. The Board shall appoint a Town Attorney licensed to practice law in North Carolina. It shall be the duty of the Town Attorney to represent the Town, advise Town officials, and perform other duties required by law or as the Board may direct.

"Section 4.3. Town Clerk. The Board shall appoint a Town Clerk to keep a journal of the proceedings of the Board, to maintain official records and documents, to give notice of meetings, and to perform such other duties required by law or as the Board may direct.

"Section 4.4. Tax Collector. The Board shall appoint a Tax Collector to collect all taxes owed to the Town and perform those duties specified in G.S. 105-350 and such other duties as prescribed by law or assigned by the Board.

"Section 4.5. Other Administrative Officers and Employees. The Board may authorize other positions to be filled by appointment and may organize the Town government as deemed appropriate, subject to the requirements of general law."

SECTION 2. The purpose of this act is to revise the Charter of the Town of Littleton and to consolidate certain acts concerning the property, affairs, and government of the Town. It is intended to continue without interruption those provisions of prior acts that are expressly consolidated into this act so that all rights and liabilities that have accrued are preserved and may be enforced.

SECTION 3. This act does not repeal or affect any acts concerning the property, affairs, or government of public schools in the Town, or any acts validating, confirming, approving, or legalizing official actions, proceedings, contracts, or obligations of any kind.

SECTION 4. The following acts, having served the purposes for which they were enacted or having been consolidated into this act, are expressly repealed:

Chapter 175 of the Public Laws of 1876-77.
Chapter 126 of the Private Laws of 1883.
Chapter 171 of the Private Laws of 1893.
Chapter 465 of the Public Laws of 1905.
Chapter 30 of the Private Laws of 1905, except sections 1, 2, and 3.
Chapter 56 of the Public Laws of 1907.
Chapter 153 of the Private Laws of 1907.
Chapter 138 of the Public Laws of 1909.
Chapter 116 of the Private Laws of 1911.
Chapter 120 of the Private Laws of 1921, Extra Session.
Chapter 939 of the 1947 Session Laws.
Chapter 763 of the 1953 Session Laws.

Chapter 399 of the 1965 Session Laws.
Chapter 106 of the 1969 Session Laws.
Chapter 601 of the 1973 Session Laws.
Chapter 11 of the 1998 Session Laws.

SECTION 5. The Mayor and Commissioners serving on the date of ratification of this act shall serve until the expiration of their terms or until their successors are elected and qualified. Thereafter those offices shall be filled as provided in Articles II and III of the Charter contained in Section 1 of this act.

SECTION 6. This act does not affect any rights or interests that arose under any provisions repealed by this act.

SECTION 7. All existing ordinances, resolutions, and other provisions of the Town of Littleton not inconsistent with the provisions of this act shall continue in effect until repealed or amended.

SECTION 8. No action or proceeding pending on the effective date of this act by or against the Town or any of its departments or agencies shall be abated or otherwise affected by this act.

SECTION 9. If any provision of this act or application thereof is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of this act that can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are declared to be severable.

SECTION 10. Whenever a reference is made in this act to a particular provision of the General Statutes, and that provision is later amended, superseded, or recodified, the reference shall be deemed amended to refer to the amended General Statute, or to the General Statute that most clearly corresponds to the statutory provision that is superseded or recodified.

SECTION 11. This act is effective when it becomes law.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO REVISE AND CONSOLIDATE THE CHARTER OF THE TOWN OF LITTLETON.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. The Charter of the Town of Littleton is revised and consolidated to read as follows:

"THE CHARTER OF THE TOWN OF LITTLETON.

"ARTICLE I. INCORPORATION, CORPORATE POWERS AND BOUNDARIES.

"Section 1.1. Incorporation. The Town of Littleton, North Carolina in Halifax County and the inhabitants thereof shall continue to be a municipal body politic and corporate, under the name of the 'Town of Littleton,' hereinafter at times referred to as the 'Town.'

"Section 1.2. Powers. The Town shall have and may exercise all of the powers, duties, rights, privileges and immunities conferred upon the Town of Littleton specifically by this Charter or upon municipal corporations by general law. The term 'general law' is employed herein as defined in G.S. 160A-1.

"Section 1.3. Corporate Limits. The corporate limits shall be those existing at the time of ratification of this Charter, as set forth on the official map of the Town, and as they may be altered from time to time in accordance with law. An official map of the Town, showing the current municipal boundaries, shall be maintained permanently in the office of the Town Clerk and shall be available for public inspection. Upon alteration of the corporate limits pursuant to law, the appropriate changes to the official map shall be made and copies shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of State, the Halifax County Register of Deeds, and the appropriate board of elections.

"ARTICLE II. GOVERNING BODY.

"Section 2.1. Town Governing Body. The Board of Commissioners, hereinafter referred to as the 'Board,' and the Mayor shall be the governing body of the Town.

"Section 2.2. Board of Commissioners; Composition; Terms of Office. The Board shall be composed of five members, to be elected by all the qualified voters of the Town, for staggered terms of four years or until their successors are elected and qualified.

"Section 2.3. Mayor; Term of Office; Duties. The Mayor shall be elected by all the qualified voters of the Town for a term of four years or until his or her successor is elected and qualified. The Mayor shall be the official head of the Town government and shall preside at meetings of the Board. He shall have the right to vote only when there is an equal division on any question or matter before the Board, and shall exercise the powers and duties conferred by law or as directed by the Board.

"Section 2.4. Mayor Pro Tempore. In accordance with general law, the Board shall elect one of its members to act as Mayor Pro Tempore to perform the duties of the Mayor during his or her absence or disability.

"Section 2.5. Meetings. In accordance with general law, the Board shall establish a suitable time and place for its regular meetings. Special and emergency meetings may be held as provided by general law.

"Section 2.6. Quorum; Voting. Official actions of the Board and all votes shall be taken in accordance with the applicable provisions of general law, particularly G.S. 160A-75. The quorum provisions of G.S. 160A-74 shall apply.

"Section 2.7. Compensation; Qualifications for Office; Vacancies. The compensation and qualifications of the Mayor and Commissioners shall be in accordance with general law. Vacancies that occur in any elective office of the Town shall be filled by majority vote of the remaining members of the Board and shall be filled for the remainder of the unexpired term, notwithstanding the contrary provisions of G.S. 160A-63.

"ARTICLE III. ELECTIONS.

"Section 3.1. Regular Municipal Elections. Regular municipal elections shall be held in each odd-numbered year in accordance with the uniform municipal election laws of North Carolina. Elections shall be conducted on a nonpartisan basis and the results determined by a plurality as provided in G.S. 163-292.

"Section 3.2. Election of Mayor. At the regular municipal election in 2001, and quadrennially thereafter, a Mayor shall be elected to serve a term of four years.

"Section 3.3. Election of Commissioners. At the municipal election to be held in 1999, the three candidates for Commissioner who receive the highest number of votes shall be elected for four-year terms and the two candidates who receive the next highest number of votes shall be elected for two-year terms. At the regular municipal election in 2001, and quadrennially thereafter, two Commissioners shall be elected to four-year terms. At the regular municipal election in 2003, and quadrennially thereafter, three Commissioners shall be elected to four-year terms.

"Section 3.4. Special Elections and Referenda. Special elections and referenda may be held only as provided by general law or applicable local acts of the General Assembly.

"ARTICLE IV. ORGANIZATION AND ADMINISTRATION.

"Section 4.1. Form of Government. The Town shall operate under the mayor-council form of government as provided in Part 3 of Article 7 of Chapter 160A of the General Statutes.

"Section 4.2. Town Attorney. The Board shall appoint a Town Attorney licensed to practice law in North Carolina. It shall be the duty of the Town Attorney to represent the Town, advise Town officials, and perform other duties required by law or as the Board may direct.

"Section 4.3. Town Clerk. The Board shall appoint a Town Clerk to keep a journal of the proceedings of the Board, to maintain official records and documents, to give notice of meetings, and to perform such other duties required by law or as the Board may direct.

"Section 4.4. Tax Collector. The Town shall appoint a Tax Collector to collect all taxes owed to the Town and perform those duties specified in G.S. 105-350 and such other duties as prescribed by law or assigned by the Board.

"Section 4.5. Other Administrative Officers and Employees. The Board may authorize other positions to be filled by appointment and may organize the Town government as deemed appropriate, subject to the requirements of general law."

SECTION 2. The purpose of this act is to revise the Charter of the Town of Littleton and to consolidate certain acts concerning the property, affairs, and government of the Town. It is intended to continue without interruption those provisions of prior acts that are expressly consolidated into this act so that all rights and liabilities that have accrued are preserved and may be enforced.

SECTION 3. This act does not repeal or affect any acts concerning the property, affairs, or government of public schools in the Town, or any acts validating, confirming, approving, or legalizing official actions, proceedings, contracts, or obligations of any kind.

SECTION 4. The following acts, having served the purposes for which they were enacted or having been consolidated into this act, are expressly repealed:

Chapter 175 of the Public Laws of 1876-77.
Chapter 126 of the Private Laws of 1883.
Chapter 171 of the Private Laws of 1893.
Chapter 465 of the Public Laws of 1905.

Date: June 11, 2002
Version: 1st Edition

Sponsor: Rep. Crawford
Analysis by: Martha Walston
Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 1517 is a local bill that revises and consolidates the Charter of the Town of Littleton in Halifax County. The act is effective when it becomes law.

BILL ANALYSIS:

ARTICLE I of the act describes the incorporation, powers, and corporate limits of the Town

ARTICLE II describes the governing body of the Town. The Board of Commissioners and the Mayor are the governing body. The mayor will serve a term of four years.

ARTICLE III provides for the election of the mayor and Commissioners.

ARTICLE IV sets out the organization and administration of the Town government:

- Mayor-council form of government.
- Town Attorney appointed by the Board of Commissioners.
- Town Clerk appointed by the Board of Commissioners.
- Tax Collector appointed by the Town. (This should read appointed by the Board of Commissioners.)

SECTION 2 sets out the purposes of the act: to revise the Charter and consolidate certain acts.

SECTION 3 provides that the act does not affect acts concerning the property, affairs, or government of public schools in the Town.

SECTION 4 lists the existing laws that have been repealed because they have either been consolidated into this act or have served their purpose.

SECTION 5 authorizes the Mayor and Commissioners serving on the date of the act to serve their full terms.

SECTION 6 provides that the act does not affect any rights or interests that arose under provisions repealed by the act.

SECTION 7 provides that all existing provisions of the Town that are not inconsistent with this act will continue until they are repealed or amended.

SECTION 8 provides that that any action by the Town or against the Town that is pending on the effective date of the act, is NOT affected by the act

SECTION 9 sets out a severability clause.

SECTION 10 provides that a reference to a statute in the act is deemed amended if it is later amended.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO ALLOW THE TOWN OF TABOR CITY TO LEVY SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS FOR STREET OR SIDEWALK IMPROVEMENTS WITHOUT PETITION.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 160A-217(a) and (c) do not apply to the Town of Tabor City. The remaining provisions of Article 10 of Chapter 160A of the General Statutes apply to the Town when making special assessments for street or sidewalk improvements.

SECTION 2. This act is effective when it becomes law.

HOUSE BILL 1530:
Tabor City Assessments

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	House Finance	Sponsor:	Rep. Hill
Date:	June 9, 2002	Analysis by:	Martha Walston
Version:	1st Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 1530 is a local bill that authorizes the Town of Tabor City in Columbus County to levy special assessments for street or sidewalk improvements without first receiving a petition for the improvements signed by at least a majority in number of the owners of property to be assessed. SB 1167, introduced by Sen. Soles, is the companion bill.

CURRENT LAW: Under G.S. 160A-217(a), a city does not have power to levy special assessments for street or sidewalk improvements unless it receives a petition for the improvements signed by at least a majority in number of the owners of property to be assessed, who must represent at least a majority of all the lineal feet of frontage of the lands abutting on the street or portion to be improved. Unless the petition specifies another percentage, not more than 50% of the cost of the improvement may be assessed (not including the cost of improvements made at street intersections).

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 1530 authorizes the Town of Tabor City to levy special assessments for street or sidewalk improvements without meeting the above petition requirements. The remaining provisions in Article 10 (Special Assessments) of Chapter 160A (Cities and Towns) will continue to apply: the authorized uses for special assessments, the basis for making assessments, exemptions for corner lots and land owned by the U.S., assessments against State land if the State consents, assessments against railroad property, adoption of a preliminary resolution by the city council, notice of and hearing on the preliminary resolution, determination of costs, authorization of discounts, preliminary assessment roll, hearing on preliminary assessment roll, publication of notice of confirmation of assessment roll, appeal of assessment, payment and enforcement of assessments.

Exemptions from the petition requirements have been given to the following cities and towns:

- Town of Beech Mountain (S.L.1995-133).
- City of Laurinburg (S.L. 2000-13).
- City of Oxford (S.L.1993-240).
- Town of Carrboro (S.L. 1987-476), may levy assessments for certain unpaved streets without a petition.
- Town of Ahoskie (S.L. 1988-962).
- Town of Wake Forest (S.L. 1989-347), may levy special assessments for downtown parking improvements without regard for the petition requirements.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO AMEND VARIOUS PROPERTY TAX LAWS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 105-357(b)(2) reads as rewritten:

"(2) Penalty. – In addition to interest for nonpayment of taxes provided by G.S. 105-360 and in addition to any criminal penalties provided by law for the giving of worthless checks, the penalty for giving in payment of taxes a check that is returned because of insufficient funds or nonexistence of an account of the drawer is twenty-five dollars ($25.00) or ten percent (10%) of the amount of the check, whichever is greater, subject to a ~~minimum of one dollar ($1.00) and a~~ maximum of one thousand dollars ($1,000). This penalty does not apply if the tax collector finds that, when the check was presented for payment, the drawer of the check had sufficient funds in an account at a financial institution in this State to pay the check and, by inadvertence, the drawer of the check failed to draw the check on the account that had sufficient funds. This penalty shall be added to and collected in the same manner as the taxes for which the check was given."

SECTION 2. G.S. 105-317.1 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(c) A taxpayer who owns personal property taxable in the county may appeal the value, situs, or taxability of the property within 30 days after the date of the initial notice of value. If the assessor does not give separate written notice of the value to the taxpayer at the taxpayer's last known address, then the tax bill serves as notice of the value of the personal property. The notice must contain a statement that the taxpayer may appeal the value, situs, or taxability of the property within 30 days after the date of the notice. Upon receipt of a timely appeal, the assessor must arrange a conference with the taxpayer to afford the taxpayer the opportunity to present any evidence or argument regarding the value, situs, or taxability of the property. Within 30 days after the conference, the assessor must give written notice to the taxpayer of the assessor's final decision. Written notice of the decision is not required if the taxpayer signs an agreement accepting the value, situs, or taxability of the property. If an agreement is not reached, the taxpayer has 30 days from the date of the notice of the assessor's final decision to request review of that decision by the board of equalization and review or, if that board is not in session, by the board of county commissioners. Unless the request for review is given at the conference, it must be made in writing to the assessor. Upon receipt of a timely request for review, the provisions of G.S. 105-322 or G.S. 105-325, as appropriate, must be followed."

SECTION 3. G.S. 105-322(g)(5) reads as rewritten:

"(5) Duty to Change Abstracts and Records After Adjournment. – Following adjournment upon completion of its duties under subdivisions (g)(1) and (g)(2) of this subsection, the board may continue to meet to carry out the following duties:

a. To hear and decide all appeals relating to discovered property under G.S. 105-312(d) and (k).

b. To hear and decide all appeals relating to the appraisal, situs, and taxability of classified motor vehicles under G.S. 105-330.2(b).

c. To hear and decide all appeals relating to audits conducted under G.S. 105-296(j) and relating to audits conducted under G.S. 105-296(j) and (l) of property classified at present-use value and property exempted or excluded from taxation.

d. To hear and decide all appeals relating to personal property under G.S. 105-317.1(c)."

SECTION 4. Section 4 of S.L. 2001-506 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 4. Section 1 of this act is effective for taxes imposed for taxable years beginning on or after July 1, ~~2002.~~2004. Sections 2 and 3 of this act become effective January 1, 2002, and apply to manufactured home title cancellations and to declarations of intent, deeds, deeds of trust, and other instruments recorded after that date. The remainder of this act is effective when it becomes law."

SECTION 5.(a) G.S. 105A-2 reads as rewritten:

"§ 105A-2. Definitions.

The following definitions apply in this Chapter:

(1) Claimant agency. – Either of the following:

a. A State agency.

b. A local agency acting through a clearinghouse or an organization pursuant to G.S. 105A-3(b1).

(2) Debt. – Any of the following:

a. A sum owed to a claimant agency that has accrued through contract, subrogation, tort, operation of law, or any other legal theory regardless of whether there is an outstanding judgment for the sum.

b. A sum a claimant agency is authorized or required by law to collect, such as child support payments collectible under Title IV, Part D of the Social Security Act.

c. A sum owed as a result of an intentional program violation or a violation due to inadvertent household error under the Food Stamp Program enabled by Chapter 108A, Article 2, Part 5.

d. Reserved for future codification purposes.

e. A sum owed as a result of having obtained public assistance payments under any of the following programs through an intentional false statement, intentional misrepresentation, intentional failure to disclose a material fact, or inadvertent household error:

1. The Work First Program provided in Article 2 of Chapter 108A of the General Statutes.
2. The State-County Special Assistance for Adults Program enabled by Part 3 of Article 2 of Chapter 108A of the General Statutes.
3. A successor program of one of these programs.

(3) Debtor. – An individual who owes a debt.

(4) Department. – The Department of Revenue.

(5) Reserved.

(6) Local agency. – A county, to the extent it is not considered a State agency, or a municipality.

(7) Net proceeds collected. – Gross proceeds collected through setoff against a debtor's refund minus the collection assistance ~~fee retained by the Department.~~ fees provided in G.S. 105A-13.

(8) Refund. – An individual's North Carolina income tax refund.

(9) State agency. – Any of the following:

a. A unit of the executive, legislative, or judicial branch of State government.

b. A county, to the extent it administers a program supervised by the Department of Health and Human Services or it operates a Child Support Enforcement Program, enabled by Chapter 110, Article 9, and Title IV, Part D of the Social Security Act."

SECTION 5.(b) G.S. 105A-5 reads as rewritten:

"§ 105A-5. Local agency notice, hearing, and decision.

(a) Prerequisite. – A local agency may not submit a debt for collection under this Chapter until it has given the notice required by this section and the claim has been finally determined as provided in this section.

(b) Notice. – A local agency must send written notice to a debtor that the agency intends to submit the debt owed by the debtor for collection by setoff. The notice must explain the basis for the agency's claim to the debt and that the agency intends to apply the debtor's refund against the debt. The notice must also inform the debtor that the debtor has the right to contest the matter by filing a request for a hearing with the local agency, must state the time limits and procedure for requesting the hearing, and must state that failure to request a hearing within the required time will result in setoff of the debt.

(c) Administrative Review. – A debtor who decides to contest a proposed setoff must file a written request for a hearing with the local agency within 30 days after the date the local agency mails a notice of the proposed action to the debtor. A request for a hearing is considered to be filed when it is delivered for mailing with postage prepaid and properly addressed. The governing body of the local agency or a person designated by the governing body must hold the hearing.

If the debtor disagrees with the decision of the governing body or the person designated by the governing body, the debtor may file a petition for a contested case under Article 3 of Chapter 150B of the General Statutes. The petition must be filed within 30 days after the debtor receives a copy of the local decision. Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 150B-2, a local agency is considered an agency for purposes of contested cases and appeals under this Chapter.

In a hearing under this section, an issue that has previously been litigated in a court proceeding cannot be considered.

(d) Decision. – A decision made after a hearing under this section must determine whether a debt is owed to the local agency and the amount of the debt.

(e) Return of Amount Set Off. – If a local agency submits a debt for collection under this Chapter without sending the notice required by subsection (b) of this section, the agency must send the taxpayer the entire amount set off plus the collection assistance ~~fee~~ fees ~~retained by the Department.~~provided in G.S. 105A-13. Similarly, if a local agency submits a debt for collection under this Chapter after sending the required notice but before final determination of the debt and a decision finds that the local agency is not entitled to any part of the amount set off, the agency must send the taxpayer the entire amount set off plus the collection assistance ~~fee~~ fees ~~retained by the Department.~~provided in G.S. 105A-13. That portion of the amount returned that reflects the collection assistance ~~fee~~ fees must be paid from the local agency's funds.

If a local agency submits a debt for collection under this Chapter after sending the required notice and the net proceeds collected that are credited to the local agency for the debt exceed the amount of the debt, the local agency must send the balance to the debtor. No part of the collection assistance ~~fee~~ fees ~~retained by the Department~~provided in G.S. 105A-13 may be returned when a notice was sent and a debt is owed but the debt is less than the amount set off.

Interest accrues on the amount of a refund returned to a taxpayer under this subsection in accordance with G.S. 105-266. A local agency that returns a refund to a taxpayer under this subsection must pay from the local agency's funds any interest that has accrued since the fifth day after the Department mailed the notice of setoff to the taxpayer."

SECTION 5.(c) G.S. 105A-13 reads as rewritten:

"§ 105A-13. Collection assistance fees.

(a) State Setoff. – To recover the costs incurred by the Department in collecting debts under this Chapter, a collection assistance fee of no more than fifteen dollars

($15.00) is imposed on each debt collected through setoff. The Department must collect this fee as part of the debt and retain it. The Department must set the amount of the collection assistance fee based on its actual cost of collection under this Chapter for the immediately preceding year. ~~If the Department is able to collect only part of a debt through setoff, the collection assistance fee has priority over the remainder of the debt.~~ The collection assistance fee shall not be added to child support debts or collected as part of child support debts. Instead, the Department shall retain from collections under Division II of Article 4 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes the cost of collecting child support debts under this Chapter.

(b) Repealed.

(c) Local Debts. – To recover the costs incurred by local agencies in submitting debts for collection under this Chapter, a local collection assistance fee of fifteen dollars ($15.00) is imposed on each local agency debt submitted under G.S. 105A-3(b1) and collected through setoff. The Department must collect this fee as part of the debt and remit it to the clearinghouse that submitted the debt. The local collection assistance fee does not apply to child support debts.

(d) Priority. – If the Department is able to collect only part of a debt through setoff, the collection assistance fee provided in subsection (a) of this section has priority over the local collection assistance fee and over the remainder of the debt. The local collection assistance fee has priority over the remainder of the debt."

SECTION 6. Sections 1 and 4 of the act are effective when they become law. Sections 5(a), 5(b), and 5(c) become effective January 1, 2003. The remaining sections are effective for taxes imposed for taxable years beginning on or after July 1, 2002.

HOUSE BILL 1523:
Amend Property Tax Laws

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	House Finance	Sponsor:	Rep. Hill
Date:	June 10, 2002	Analysis by:	Martha Walston
Version:	1st Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 1523 is a recommendation of the Revenue Laws Study Committee and contains changes to the property tax laws that were proposed by the North Carolina Association of Assessing Officers and the Department of Revenue. These changes:

- Authorize tax collectors to impose a $25 returned check fee or 10% of the amount of the check, whichever is greater, subject to a maximum of $1,000.
- Set out the procedure and time limit for appeals of personal property value, situs, or taxability.
- Clarify that the board of equalization and review may continue to meet after it adjourns to hear and decide appeals relating to personal property.
- Change the effective date of the definition of "real property" as amended in S.L. 2001-506 (HB 253).
- Amend the Setoff Debt Collection Act in Chapter 105A of the General Statutes to allow local agencies to impose a $15 local collection assistance fee on each local agency debt collected through setoff.

ANALYSIS: Section 1 of the Bill amends G.S. 105-357(b) regarding the penalty imposed on a worthless check given to pay taxes. Current law authorizes the tax collector to impose 10% of the amount of the check, subject to a minimum of $1 and maximum of $1,000. The Bill authorizes the tax collector to impose $25 or 10% of the amount of the check, whichever is greater, subject to a maximum of $1,000.

Section 2 of the Bill sets out the procedure and time limit for appeals of the value, situs, or taxability of personal property. The current statutory framework is oriented toward appeals of real estate tax values and does not specifically address appeals of personal property. Consequently, counties use different procedures and time limits for appeals of personal property. The Bill amends G.S. 105-317.1 to include the following:

- The appeal must be within 30 days after the date of the initial notice of value of the personal property. The tax bill will serve as notice of value if a separate written notice of value is not sent. The notice must set out the 30-day limit.
- Upon receipt of a timely appeal, the assessor must arrange a conference with the taxpayer and allow the taxpayer to present evidence or argument.
- Within 30 days after the conference, the assessor must give written notice of the assessor's decision. Notice is not required if the taxpayer accepts the value, situs, or taxability of the property.

- Within 30 days of notice of the assessor's final decision, the taxpayer may request review by the board of equalization and review or the board of county commissioners.

Section 3 of the Bill authorizes a county board of equalization and review to meet after its adjournment to hear appeals relating to personal property. Last session, the Revenue Laws Study Committee recommended that a county board of equalization and review be given the authority to meet after its adjournment date to hear appeals relating to motor vehicle property taxes, discoveries, and property reviewed annually to determine its continued qualification for exemption or exclusion. Cabarrus, Lincoln, and Stokes Counties already had this authority under local acts. The recommendation was enacted in S.L. 2001-139.

Section 4 of the Bill changes an effective date in S.L. 2001-506. Last session, the General Assembly made several changes to the laws regarding the classification of a manufactured home as real property. One of these changes was to amend the definition of "real property" in G.S. 105-273(13) of the property tax laws, by removing the requirement that a manufactured home have multiple sections in order to be considered real property. The amendment also clarified that a manufactured home would be considered personal property if it did not meet the following statutory conditions: has the moving hitch, wheels, and axles removed, and is placed upon a permanent foundation on land owned by the owner of the manufactured home. This definition change became effective for taxable years beginning on or after July 1, 2002. The Bill moves the effective date to taxable years beginning on or after July 1, 2004. The tax assessors have not been able to determine whether the manufactured homes in their county meet this definition and have requested an extension of the effective date.

Section 5 of the Bill amends the Setoff Debt Collection Act in Chapter 105A of the General Statutes to authorize the charge of a $15 collection assistance fee on each local agency debt collected through setoff. The Act currently authorizes the Department of Revenue to impose a collection assistance fee of no more than $15 on overdue tax debts collected through setoff against the debtor's refund. The Act also provides for optional usage of the Act by a local agency (county) that is owed a debt. The local agency must submit the debt through one of the following:

1. A clearinghouse that is established pursuant to an interlocal agreement and that has agreed to submit debts on behalf of any requesting local agency.
2. The North Carolina League of Municipalities.
3. The North Carolina Association of County Commissioners.

The Bill amends the Setoff Debt Collection Act to require the Department of Revenue to collect a $15 collection assistance fee on each local agency debt collected through setoff. The fee must be remitted by the Department to the clearinghouse that submitted the debt. Last year the N.C. Association of County Commissioners and the League of Municipalities entered into an interlocal agreement to establish a clearinghouse for local debt collection. The clearinghouse is registered with the Department of Revenue as the North Carolina Local Government Debt Setoff Clearinghouse. The Association and League have also contracted with a third party to process and compile the local debts. The $15 collection assistance fee will be used to pay for the costs of collecting these debts.

PRINCIPAL DEPARTMENT(S) & PROGRAM(S) AFFECTED: Local Governments, North Carolina Department of Revenue, Property Tax Division.

EFFECTIVE DATE: Sections 1 (worthless checks) and 4 (manufactured homes) are effective when they become law. The remainder becomes effective for taxes imposed on taxable years beginning on or after July 1, 2002.

BILL SUMMARY: This proposal makes several changes to the property tax law and is recommended by the Revenue Laws Study Committee, the North Carolina Association of Assessing Officers and the North Carolina Department of Revenue.

Section 1 addresses the returned check fee charged by tax collectors. Under current statute the collector can impose a 10% fee for returned checks, with a minimum of $1.00 and a maximum of $1,000. The proposal increases the minimum fee to $25.00. The 10% rate and the $1,000 maximum provisions are retained. Section 2 defines the procedures and time limits surrounding a property tax appeal of personal property taxes. Section 3 authorizes local boards of equalization and review to meet after their adjournment date to hear personal property appeals. Section 4 changes the effective date of several property tax changes made last session in regards to manufactured homes. Section 5 authorizes the Department of Revenue to collect a $15 collection assistance fee on each local debt collected through the Setoff Debt Collection program. The funds are to be forwarded to the North Carolina Local Government Debt Setoff Clearinghouse.

ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGY:

Section 1: Because the proposal increases the minimum amount charged by tax collectors for returned checks, local fee revenues will increase. Fiscal Research is unable to offer an exact estimate of the increase, although it is expected to be relatively small.

Section 2: The statutory procedure for property tax appeals is oriented towards real estate and does not specifically address how to handle motor vehicle appeals. As a result, counties use a variety of procedures and timelines. Because the bill only clarifies procedure, it is not expected to have a fiscal impact.

Section 3: This section is not expected to have a fiscal impact as it merely extends the time limit for appeals.

Section 4: During the 2001 session several changes were made regarding the classification of manufactured homes for property tax purposes. In particular, the statute laid out specific qualifications for a manufactured home to be considered real property. This included having multiple sections, being placed on a permanent foundation, and having several items (hitch, wheels, axles) removed from the home. The effective date for the changes was July 1, 2002. Since the legislation passed, many assessors have been unable to determine if all the manufactured homes in the county meet the new criteria. As a result, they are asking that the current effective date be delayed until July 1, 2004. Because some properties would continue to be valued as personal property for two extra years, some impact is expected on property taxes. However, Fiscal Research is unable to make a reliable estimate of the impact during that period.

Section 5: Under current law, counties and cities can submit debts for collection to the Department of Revenue as long as the request is forwarded through the League of Municipalities, the County Commissioners Association, or a clearinghouse established through interlocal agreement. However, when the government submits the debt for collection, they must absorb the $15 fee themselves. The proposal authorizes the Department of Revenue to collect the $15 fee from the delinquent payer. This fee does not apply to child support. The proposal will reduce the cost of debt collection for local governments, and will likely increase program usage. However, no firm estimate is available on the total financial impact for local governments.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO CONFORM SOURCING OF MOBILE TELECOMMUNICATIONS SERVICES TO THE FEDERAL MOBILE TELECOMMUNICATIONS SOURCING ACT AND TO CODIFY THE SOURCING PRINCIPLES FOR OTHER TELECOMMUNICATIONS SERVICES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 105-164.3 is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"§ 105-164.3. Definitions.

The following definitions apply in this Article:

(26a) Place of primary use. – The street address representative of where the use of a customer's telecommunications service primarily occurs. The street address must be the customer's residential street address or primary business street address. For mobile telecommunications service, the street address must be within the licensed service area of the service provider. If the customer who contracted with the telecommunications provider for the telecommunications service is not the end user of the service, the end user is considered the customer for the purpose of determining the place of primary use."

SECTION 2. G.S. 105-164.3(27) reads as rewritten:

"(27) Prepaid telephone calling ~~arrangement.~~ Service. – A right that meets all of the following requirements:

a. Authorizes the exclusive purchase of telecommunications service.

b. Must be paid for in advance.

c. Enables the origination of calls by means of an access number, authorization code, or another similar means, regardless of whether the access number or authorization code is manually or electronically dialed.

d. Is sold in units or dollars whose number or dollar value declines with use and is known on a continuous basis."

SECTION 3. G.S. 105-164.3(39) is repealed.

SECTION 4. G.S. 105-164.4(a)(4d) reads as rewritten:

"(4d) The sale or recharge of prepaid telephone calling ~~arrangements~~ service is taxable at the general rate of tax. The tax applies regardless of whether tangible personal property, such as a card or a telephone, is transferred. Prepaid telephone calling ~~arrangements~~ service is taxable at the point of sale instead of at the point of use and is sourced in accordance with G.S. 105-164.4B. Prepaid telephone calling service taxed under this subdivision ~~are~~ is not subject to tax as a telecommunications service.

~~Prepaid telephone calling arrangements are taxable at the point of sale instead of at the point of use. If the sale or recharge of a prepaid telephone calling arrangement does not take place at a retailer's place of business, the sale or recharge is considered to have taken place at one of the following:~~

~~a. The customer's shipping address, if an item of tangible personal property is shipped to the customer as part of the transaction.~~

~~b. The customer's billing address or, for mobile telecommunications service, the customer's service address, if no tangible personal property is shipped to the customer as part of the transaction.~~"

SECTION 5. G.S. 105-164.4B(a)(3) reads as rewritten:

"(a) Principles. – The following principles apply in determining where to source the sale of a product. These principles apply regardless of the nature of the product.

(3) Delivery address unknown. – When a seller of a product does not know the address where a product is received, the sale is sourced to the first address or location listed in this ~~subsection~~ subdivision that is known to the seller:

a. The business or home address of the purchaser.

b. The billing address of the ~~purchaser.~~purchaser or, if the product is a prepaid telephone calling service that authorizes the purchase of mobile telecommunications service, the location associated with the mobile telephone number.

c. The address of the seller."

SECTION 6. G.S. 105-164.4C(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) General. – The gross receipts derived from providing telecommunications service in this State are taxed at the rate set in G.S. 105-164.4(a)(4c). ~~Mobile~~ ~~telecommunications service is provided in this State if the customer's service address is in this State and the call originates or terminates in this State.~~Telecommunications service is provided in this State if the service is sourced to this State under the sourcing principles set out in subsections (a1) and (a2) of this section. The definitions and provisions of the federal Mobile Telecommunications Sourcing Act apply to the sourcing and taxation of mobile telecommunications services."

SECTION 7. G.S. 105-164.4C(b)(1) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Included in Gross Receipts. – Gross receipts derived from telecommunications service include the following:

(1) Receipts from ~~local, intrastate, interstate, toll, private, and mobile telecommunications service.~~flat rate service, service provided on a call-by-call basis, mobile telecommunications service, and private telecommunications service.

SECTION 8. G.S. 105-164.4C(c)(2) reads as rewritten:

"(c) Excluded From Gross Receipts. – Gross receipts derived from telecommunications service do not include any of the following:

(2) Telecommunications services that are resold as part of a prepaid telephone calling ~~arrangement.~~service.

SECTION 9. G.S. 105-164.4C is amended by adding two new subsections to read:

"(a1) General Sourcing Principles. – The following general sourcing principles apply to telecommunications services. If a service falls within one of the exceptions set out in subsection (a2) of this section, the service is sourced in accordance with the exception instead of the general principle.

(1) Flat rate. – A telecommunications service that is not sold on a call-by-call basis is sourced to this State if the place of primary use is in this State.

(2) General call-by-call. – A telecommunications service that is sold on a call-by-call basis and is not a postpaid calling service is sourced to this State in the following circumstances:

a. The call both originates and terminates in this State.

b. The call either originates or terminates in this State and the telecommunications equipment from which the call originates or terminates and to which the call is charged is located in this State. This applies regardless of where the call is billed or paid.

(3) Postpaid. – A postpaid calling service is sourced in accordance with either of the following principles, at the election of the seller:

a. The principle set out in subdivision (a1)(2) of this section for call-by-call service.

b. The origination point of the telecommunications signal as first identified by either the seller's telecommunications system or, if the system used to transport the signal is not the seller's system, by information the seller receives from its service provider.

(a2) Sourcing Exceptions. – The following telecommunications services and products are sourced in accordance with the principles set out in this subsection:

(1) Mobile. – Mobile telecommunications service is sourced to the place of primary use, unless the service is authorized by a prepaid telephone calling service or is air-to-ground radiotelephone service. Air-to-ground radiotelephone service is a postpaid calling service that is offered by an aircraft common carrier to passengers on its aircraft and enables a telephone call to be made from the aircraft. The sourcing principle in this subdivision applies to a service provided as an adjunct to mobile telecommunications service if the charge for the service is included within the term 'charges for mobile telecommunications services' under the federal Mobile Telecommunications Sourcing Act.

(2) Prepaid. – Prepaid telephone calling service is sourced in accordance with G.S. 105-164.4B.

(3) Private. – Private telecommunications service is sourced in accordance with subsection (e) of this section."

SECTION 10. G.S. 105-164.4C(e) reads as rewritten:

"(e) ~~Interstate~~ Private Line. – The gross receipts derived from ~~interstate~~ private telecommunications service are ~~taxable~~ sourced as follows:

(1) ~~One hundred percent (100%) of the charge imposed at each channel termination point in this State.~~If all the customer's channel termination points are located in this State, the service is sourced to this State.

(2) ~~One hundred percent (100%) of the charge imposed for the total channel mileage between each channel termination point in this State.~~If all the customer's channel termination points are not located in this State and the service is billed on the basis of channel termination points, the charge for each channel termination point located in this State is sourced to this State.

(3) ~~Fifty percent (50%) of the charge imposed for the total channel mileage between the first channel termination point in this State and the nearest channel termination point outside this State.~~ If all the customer's channel termination points are not located in this State and the service is billed on the basis of channel mileage, the following applies:

a. A charge for a channel segment between two channel termination points located in this State is sourced to this State.

b. Fifty percent (50%) of a charge for a channel segment between a channel termination point located in this State and a channel termination point located in another state is sourced to this State.

(4) If all the customer's channel termination points are not located in this State and the service is not billed on the basis of channel termination points or channel mileage, a percentage of the charge for the service is sourced to this State. The percentage is determined by dividing the number of channel termination points in this State by the total number of channel termination points."

SECTION 11. G.S. 105-164.4C(h) reads as rewritten:

"(h) Definitions. – The following definitions apply in this section:

~~(1) Call center. – Defined in G.S. 105-164.27A.~~

~~(2) Interstate telecommunications service. – Telecommunications service that originates or terminates in this State, but does not both originate and terminate in this State, and is charged to a service address in this State.~~

~~(3) Intrastate telecommunications service. – Telecommunications service that both originates and terminates in this State.~~

~~(4) Local telecommunications service. – Telecommunications service that provides access to a local telephone network and enables a user to communicate with substantially everyone who has a telephone or radiotelephone station that is part of the local telephone network.~~

~~(5) Mobile telecommunications service. – Defined in G.S. 105-164.3.~~

~~(6) Private telecommunications service. – Telecommunications service that entitles a subscriber of the service to exclusive or priority use of a communications channel or group of channels.~~

~~(7) Service address. – Defined in G.S. 105-164.3.~~

~~(8) Telecommunications service. – Defined in G.S. 105-164.3.~~

~~(9) Toll telecommunications service. – Any of the following:~~

~~a. A service for which there is a toll charge that varies in amount with the distance or elapsed transmission time of each individual communication.~~

~~b. A service that entitles the subscriber, upon payment of a periodic charge, determined as a flat amount or on the basis of total elapsed transmission time, to an unlimited number of communications to or from all or a substantial portion of those who have a telephone or radiotelephone station in an area outside the local telephone network.~~

(1) Call-by-call basis. – A method of charging for a telecommunications service whereby the price of the service is measured by individual calls.

(2) Call center. – Defined in G.S. 105-164.27A.

(3) Mobile telecommunications service. – Defined in G.S. 105-164.3.

(4) Place of primary use. – Defined in G.S. 105-164.3.

(5) Postpaid calling service. – A telecommunications service that is charged on a call-by-call basis and is obtained by making payment at the time of the call either through the use of a credit or payment mechanism, such as a bank card, travel card, credit card, or debit card, or by charging the call to a telephone number that is not associated with the origination or termination of the telecommunications service. A postpaid calling service includes a service that meets all the requirements of a prepaid telephone calling service, except the exclusive use requirement.

(6) Prepaid telephone calling service. – Defined in G.S. 105-164.3.

(7) Private telecommunications service. – Telecommunications service that entitles a subscriber of the service to exclusive or priority use of a communications channel or group of channels.

(8) Telecommunications service. – Defined in G.S. 105-164.3."

SECTION 12. G.S. 105-467(b)(6) reads as rewritten:

"(6) The sales price of prepaid telephone calling ~~arrangements~~ service taxed as tangible personal property under G.S. 105-164.4(a)(4d)."

SECTION 13. Subdivision (6) of the first paragraph of Section 4 of Chapter 1096 of the 1967 Session Laws reads as rewritten:

The remainder of this act becomes effective August 1, 2002, and applies to taxable services reflected on bills dated after August 1, 2002.

Conform Mobile Telecommunications Sourcing

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	House Finance	Introduced by:	Rep. Allen
Date:	June 12, 2002	Summary by:	Cindy Avrette
Version:	1st edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: This bill was recommended by the Revenue Laws Study Committee and conforms North Carolina's sourcing of mobile telecommunications services to the federal Mobile Telecommunications Sourcing Act. It also codifies the sourcing rules for other telecommunications services. Two of the sourcing principles become effective January 1, 2004, and apply to taxable services reflected on bills dated on or after that date. The remainder of the bill would becomes effective August 1, 2002, and apply to taxable services reflected on bills dated after August 1, 2002.

CURRENT LAW: Last session, the General Assembly simplified the taxation of telecommunications services by providing one tax at one rate for all telecommunication services, including interstate telecommunications service. Under the law, mobile telecommunications is considered to be taxable in this State if the customer's service address is in this State and the call originates or terminates in this State. However, under the federal Mobile Telecommunications Act, mobile telecommunications service is taxable by the state of the customer's place of primary use, regardless of whether or not the call originates or terminates in the state. A mobile customer's service address and place of primary use are the same: the residential street address or the primary business street address of the customer that is within the licensed service area of the service provider. Therefore, it is the requirement that the call originate or terminate in the State that must be changed to conform to the federal mobile telecommunications sourcing rules.

BACKGROUND: "Sourcing" is the determination of the jurisdiction within which a transaction is considered to take place for tax purposes. Jurisdictions that tax interstate and international telecommunications generally follow the "Goldberg Rule", which is based on an Illinois tax that was upheld by the U.S. Supreme court in Goldberg v. Sweet, 488 US 252 (1989). Under the Goldberg Rule a telephone call is subject to a jurisdiction's tax if the call meets one of the following two criteria:

- It both originates and terminates in that jurisdiction.
- It originates or terminates in that jurisdiction and is charged to a service address in that jurisdiction.

Because of the complexity of identifying the source of mobile telecommunications, federal legislation was passed that takes effect of August 1, 2002, that sources mobile telecommunications transactions at the place of primary use, which is the same as the service address – the residential address or business premises of the purchaser.

Under the federal legislation, states could furnish service providers with a database[1] matching street addresses with taxing jurisdictions.[2] Service providers would be held harmless for any errors resulting from their use of the database. If a database is not provided for a state, then the service provider may determine the appropriate taxing jurisdiction by using an enhanced zip code[3] to assign each street address to a specific taxing jurisdiction in that state. Service providers would be held harmless from any tax liability that otherwise would be due solely as a result of an assignment of a street address to an incorrect taxing jurisdiction under this method. The accuracy of the method used is important to protect the tax base of local taxing jurisdictions. The hold harmless provision is important to service providers who provide service in a state with multiple taxing jurisdictions.

The Streamlined Sales Tax Project is working with the Telecommunications Industry on uniform provisions for sourcing as well as refund limitation provisions based upon the hold harmless provisions in the federal Mobile Telecommunications Sourcing Act. The Streamlined Sales Tax Project and the implementing states[4] have adopted principles for sourcing. The principles do not differ from North Carolina's current sourcing principles. This bill codifies those principles. The Streamlined Sales Tax Project has not yet completed its work on the refund limitation provisions. Since North Carolina does not have multiple taxing jurisdictions[5], the need for these provisions is not imminent. Therefore, this bill does not include any provisions on this issue.

BILL ANALYSIS: This bill conforms North Carolina's sourcing of mobile telecommunications to the federal Mobile Telecommunications Sourcing Act and codifies the sourcing principles adopted by the Streamlined Sales Tax Project and the 27 implementing states. Following is a section-by-section analysis of the bill:

Sections 1, 3, and 15:	Replace the term "service address" and "billing address" with the term "place of primary use" because that is the terminology used in the federal Mobile Telecommunications Sourcing Act.
Sections 2, 8, 12, and 13:	Change the term "prepaid telephone calling arrangement" to the term "prepaid telephone calling service" so that the terminology is consistent with the other forms of telecommunication services.
Sections 4 and 5:	Prepaid telephone calling services are taxed as tangible personal property, not as a telecommunications service. Section 4 removes the sourcing language from the statute that sets the sales tax rates and Section 5 modifies the sourcing principles that apply to tangible personal property to accommodate the taxation of prepaid telephone calling services.
Section 6:	Deletes the sentence that sources mobile telecommunications based on the call originating or terminating in this State because it conflicts with the sourcing principle in the federal Mobile Telecommunications Sourcing Act. It also specifies that mobile telecommunications

[2] Some states allow local governments to impose a tax on telecommunications services, resulting in multiple taxing jurisdictions within a state.

[3] The level of accuracy for the nine-digit zip code ranges from 85% to 99%. A more accurate system may be developed using a geographic mapping system. The federal law gives states the ability to develop a more accurate system if it so chooses.

[4] There are 27 states that have enacted legislation based on either the Uniform Sales and Use Tax Administration Act or the Simplified Sales and Use Tax Administration Act: AR, FL, IL, IN, KY, LA, ME, MD, MI, MN, NE, NV, NJ, NC, ND, OH, OK, RI, SD, TN, TX, UT, WA, WI, WV, WY, and the District of Columbia.

services be taxed in accordance with federal law. This reference alerts the reader that there is applicable federal law on this issue.

Sections 7 and 11: Under the federal Mobile Telecommunications Sourcing Act and the Streamlined Sales Tax Project, telecommunications service is sourced based on the type of service provided rather than the type of call. The bill defines the different types of services and repeals the terms associated with the types of calls.

Sections 9 and 10: Set forth the mobile telecommunications sourcing principle in the federal Mobile Telecommunications Sourcing Act and they codify the principles currently used by the State to source other telecommunications services. Section 10 rewrites the sourcing principles for private telecommunications service in a more understandable format and it adds a sourcing principle that is not currently applicable to private lines in the State, but may be applicable in the future. The principles codified in the bill are the same principles adopted by the Streamlined Sales Tax Project and the implementing states in March of 2002. Under the bill, at the request of the telecommunications industry, the new sourcing principle applicable to private telecommunications service does not become effective until January 1, 2004.

Sections 9 and 14: Under the Streamlined Sales Tax Project, postpaid calling service will be sourced based on the origination point of the telecommunications signal as first identified by the seller's telecommunications system. However, not every company in the telecommunications industry has the capability to determine the origination point of the signal. The bill gives the seller two options to source postpaid calling service until the year 2004; at which point the seller must source based on the origination point of the telecommunications signal.

Section 16: At the request of the telecommunications industry, two of the sourcing principles in the bill would become effective January 1, 2004, and apply to taxable services reflected on bills dated on or after that date. The remainder of the bill would become effective August 1, 2002, and apply to taxable services reflected on bills dated after that date; the August 1, 2002, effective date corresponds with the effective date of the federal Telecommunications Sourcing Act.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO EXTEND THE SUNSET ON TAX CREDITS FOR QUALIFIED BUSINESS INVESTMENTS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Section 7 of Chapter 443 of the 1993 Session Laws, as amended by Section 29A.15 of S.L. 1998-212, is repealed.

SECTION 2. Section 10 of Chapter 443 of the 1993 Session Laws, as amended by Section 29A.15 of S.L. 1998-212, reads as rewritten:

"Sec. 10. Section 6 of this act is effective upon ratification. ~~Section 7 of this act becomes effective for investments made on or after January 1, 2003.~~ The remainder of this act becomes effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1994.

A business registered as a qualified business venture or a qualified grantee business before January 1, 1994, retains its registration until the renewal date for the registration of that business under Part 5 of Article 4 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes as in effect before January 1, 1994. The Secretary of State shall not grant renewal of a registration as a qualified business venture or a qualified grantee business unless at the time of filing the renewal application, the business meets the requirements then in effect for a new registration.

Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 105-163.014(a), as amended by this act, a credit under Part 5 of Article 4 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes for an investment made before January 1, 1994, is not forfeited solely on the grounds that a sibling of the taxpayer provides services for compensation to the business in which the taxpayer invested.

Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 105-163.014(d), as amended by this act, a credit under Part 5 of Article 4 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes for an investment made before January 1, 1994, is not forfeited solely on the grounds that a redemption of the securities received in the investment is made within five years after the investment was made.

The Secretary of State may require a qualified business venture or a qualified grantee business that is unable to renew its registration after January 1, 1994, to file reports the Secretary of State considers appropriate to determine the location of the headquarters and principal business operations of the business until three years after the date of the last investment in the business that qualified for the tax credit allowed under Part 5 of Article 4 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes."

SECTION 3. Part 5 of Article 4 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 105-163.015. Sunset.

This Article is repealed effective for investments made on or after January 1, 2004."

SECTION 4. This act is effective when it becomes law.

HB 1520
Extend Qualified Business Venture Tax Credit

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	House Finance	Sponsor:	Rep. Allen
Date:	June 12, 2002	Analysis by:	Y. Canaan Huie
Version:	PCS for 1st edition		Staff Attorney

SUMMARY: This bill extends the sunset for the tax credit for qualified business investments for one year. Without this bill, that tax credit would expire for investments made on or after January 1, 2003. This bill is effective when it becomes law. The PCS makes a technical change.

ANALYSIS: The qualified business investment tax credit was enacted in August 1987 to promote economic development for North Carolina businesses. The initial credits applied to both corporations and individuals taxpayers, and there was a $12 million cap on the total amount of all tax credits. In response to a 1996 United States Supreme Court decision in Fulton Corp. v. Faulkner, the General Assembly reduced the $12 million cap to $6 million, limited the credit to individuals and small pass-through entities, and removed the requirement that the qualified businesses be headquartered or operating in North Carolina. The credit was to expire for investments made on or after January 1, 1999. In 1998, as part of the appropriations bill, the credit was extended for four additional years until January 1, 2003. This bill would extend that sunset for one additional year.

The credit is allowed for an individual taxpayer who purchases the equity securities or subordinated debt of a qualified business venture or a qualified grantee business directly from that business. The credit is equal to 25% of the amount invested and may not exceed $50,000 per individual in a single taxable year. An individual investor may also claim the allocable share of credits obtained by "pass-through entities" of which the investor is an owner. Pass-through entities include limited partnerships, general partnerships, S corporations, and limited liability companies. The credit may not be taken in the year the investment is made. Instead, the credit is taken in the year following the calendar year in which the investment was made, but only if the taxpayer filed an application with the Secretary of State. The unused credit may be carried forward for the next five years. The total amount of credits allowed to all taxpayers for investments made in a calendar year may not exceed $6 million. The Secretary of Revenue calculates the total amount of tax credits claimed from applications filed with the Secretary of State. If the amount exceeds the cap, then the Secretary allows a portion of the tax credits claimed by allocating the total of $6 million in tax credits in proportion to the size of the credit claimed by each taxpayer. In general, a taxpayer forfeits the credit if the taxpayer transfers the securities within one year or the qualified business redeems the securities purchased by the taxpayer within five years after the investment was made.[1]

Under the 1996 Fulton case, the original credit provisions clearly violated the interstate commerce clause of the federal constitution because they reduced a taxpayer's tax liability by an amount equal to 25% of the cost of purchasing stock in either a North Carolina business or an investment company whose purpose is to invest in North Carolina businesses, while no tax reduction was allowed for purchasing similar stock

[1] There are two exceptions to this forfeiture provision. First, if the transfer occurs as a result of the death of the taxpayer, the liquidation of the taxpayer, or certain reorganizations of the qualified business, within the one-year period, the transfer does not require forfeiture. Second, the 1998 legislation created an exception to this forfeiture provision for projects in the film industry. It is unusual for a project in that industry in which a person might invest to last for more than 5 years.

in out-of-state businesses or investment companies whose purpose is to invest in businesses that may not be North Carolina businesses. In response to the Fulton case, the Revenue Laws Study Committee discussed this credit along with several others, at great length. The original proposal of the Committee was to repeal all qualified business investment credits, effective January 1, 1997. In response to appeals to the Committee and to the General Assembly, the credit was expanded to include investments in businesses located both inside and outside North Carolina, but was no longer allowed for investments in investment companies and was limited to investments made by individuals and small pass-through entities under the theory that these investors are not likely to invest outside of a 50-mile radius of their home.

There may be a constitutional concern with the provision of the credit regarding "qualified grantee businesses". In order to be a business in which investments are eligible for a credit, the business must be either a "qualified business venture" or a "qualified grantee business". Both types of businesses must be registered with the Secretary of State. The definition of "qualified business venture" includes several general requirements related to the line of business, gross revenues of the business, and the organization date of the business. The definition of "qualified grantee business" includes a requirement that the business have received a grant in at least one of the three previous years from one of several named entities. One could argue that this provision violates the rule of uniformity since a credit is allowed only for investments in business that have received a grant from one of several specifically named organizations, and not for investments in similar businesses that have received grants from similar organizations. However, to date this issue has not been raised in litigation and is therefore not settled.

PRINCIPAL DEPARTMENT(S) & PROGRAM(S) AFFECTED: Department of Revenue, Department of the Secretary of State

EFFECTIVE DATE: The act is effective when it becomes law.

BILL SUMMARY: The bill extends the individual income tax credit for Qualified Business investments from January 1, 2003 to January 1, 2004.

ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGY: The amount of Qualified Business credits given each year is capped at $6 million. Requests for credits have exceeded the $6 million cap for four out of the last five years. In fact, the amount of credit requested ($19 million) in 2001 was approximately three times the amount of credit available. Given the recent investor interest in the credit program, it is likely that the $6 million annual cost of the program will continue until its sunset in 2004. The General Fund fiscal impact occurs in FY 2003-04 because the investments made in 2003 will be awarded credits on tax returns filed in the spring of 2004.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO CLARIFY THE SALES AND USE TAX EXEMPTION REGARDING CERTAIN AGRICULTURAL SUBSTANCES AND TO MAKE VARIOUS ADMINISTRATIVE CHANGES IN THE TAX LAWS.

SECTION 1. G.S. 105-164.13(2a) reads as rewritten:

"(2a) Any of the following substances when purchased for use on animals or plants, as appropriate, held or produced for commercial ~~purposes:~~purposes. This exemption does not apply to any equipment or devices used to administer, release, apply, or otherwise dispense these substances:

a. Remedies, vaccines, medications, litter materials, and feeds for animals.
b. Rodenticides, insecticides, herbicides, fungicides, and pesticides.
c. Defoliants for use on cotton or other crops.
d. Plant growth inhibitors, regulators, or stimulators, including systemic and contact or other sucker control agents for tobacco and other crops."

SECTION 2. G.S. 105-164.16(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Quarterly. – A taxpayer who is consistently liable for less than one hundred dollars ($100.00) a month in State and local sales and use taxes must file a return and pay the taxes due on a quarterly basis. A quarterly return covers a calendar quarter and is due by the ~~15th~~last day of the month following the end of the quarter."

SECTION 3. G.S. 105-164.16(b2) reads as rewritten:

"(b2) Semimonthly. – A taxpayer who is consistently liable for at least ten thousand dollars ($10,000) a month in State and local sales and use taxes must pay the tax twice a month and must file a return on a monthly basis. One semimonthly payment covers the period from the first day of the month through the 15th day of the month. The other semimonthly payment covers the period from the 16th day of the month through the last day of the month. The semimonthly payment for the period that ends on the 15th day of the month is due by the 25th day of that month. The semimonthly payment for the period that ends on the last day of the month is due by the 10th day of the following month.

A return covers both semimonthly payment periods. The return is due by the 20th day of the month following the month of the payment periods covered by the return. A taxpayer is not subject to interest on or penalties for an underpayment for a semimonthly payment period if the taxpayer timely pays at least ninety-five percent (95%) of the ~~amount due for each semimonthly payment period~~ lesser of the following and includes the underpayment with the monthly return for those semimonthly payment ~~periods.~~periods:

(1) The amount due for each semimonthly payment period.

(2) The average semimonthly payment for the prior calendar year."

SECTION 4. Part 5 of Article 5 of Chapter 105 is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 105-164.28A. Other exemption certificates.

(a) Authorization. – The Secretary may require a person who purchases tangible personal property that is exempt from tax or is subject to a preferential rate of tax depending on the status of the purchaser or the intended use of the property to obtain an exemption certificate from the Department to receive the exemption or preferential rate. An exemption certificate authorizes a retailer to sell tangible personal property to the holder of the certificate and either collect tax at a preferential rate or not collect tax on the sale, as appropriate. A person who purchases tangible personal property under an exemption certificate is liable for any tax due on the sale if the Department determines that the person is not eligible for the certificate or the property was not used as intended.

(b) Scope. – This section does not apply to a direct pay permit or a certificate of resale. G.S. 105-164.27A addresses a direct pay permit, and G.S. 105-164.28 addresses a certificate of resale."

SECTION 5. Section 2 of this act becomes effective October 1, 2002, and applies to taxes levied on or after that date. Section 3 of this act becomes effective July 1, 2002, and applies to payments due on or after that date. The remainder of this act is effective when it becomes law.

HOUSE BILL 1509:
Revenue Administrative Changes

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	House Finance	Introduced by:	Reps. Holliman, Luebke, and Wainwright
Date:	June 12, 2002	Summary by:	Trina Griffin Committee Counsel
Version:	1st Edition

SUMMARY: House Bill 1509 is a recommendation of the Revenue Laws Study Committee and makes the following changes and clarifications in the tax laws:

- It clarifies that the sales and use tax exemption for certain agricultural substances does not include any equipment or devices used to apply those substances.
- It changes the due date of quarterly sales tax returns from the 15th of a month to the last day of a month to enable the Department to spread the processing work more evenly throughout the month.
- It changes the underpayment penalty calculation for semimonthly sales tax payers to conform to the requirements of the Streamlined Sales Tax Project.
- It clarifies the use of sales and use tax exemption certificates.

CURRENT LAW & ANALYSIS:

I. Clarifying the Exemption for Certain Agricultural Substances

CURRENT LAW: Included among the agricultural group of sales and use tax exemptions is an exemption for plant growth inhibitors, regulators, or stimulators when purchased for use on plants held or produced for commercial purposes. This exemption was at issue in a recent North Carolina Court of Appeals case, American Ripener Company, Inc. v. Secretary of Revenue.[1] In this case, the plaintiff manufactured and sold ethylene concentrate, a plant growth regulator or stimulator that controls the speed of the ripening of fruits and vegetables. The plaintiff also manufactured, sold, and leased generators used to control the release of the ethylene gas. The plaintiff challenged the assessment of sales tax on its sales of ethylene and the assessment of use tax for its generators and replacement parts for its generators. The Department argued that the exemption was not intended to include any hardware or machinery, such as generators, used to apply the exempted substances. Nevertheless, the Court held that since the generators were used to control the release of ethylene gas and to regulate the speed of the ripening of fruits and vegetables, they were plant growth regulators and stimulators and, therefore, exempt from the sales and use tax. The Department's petition for review by the North Carolina Supreme Court was denied. The Department has recommended amending this exemption to clarify that it does not apply to any equipment or devices used to dispense the substances listed in the exemption.

[1] 147 N.C.App. 142 (2001), cert. denied, 355 N.C. 210 (2002).

BILL ANALYSIS: G.S. 105-164.13(2a) exempts the following from sales and use tax when purchased for use on animals or plants, as appropriate, held or produced for commercial purposes:

- Remedies, vaccines, medications, litter materials, and feeds for animals.
- Rodenticides, insecticides, herbicides, fungicides, and pesticides.
- Defoliants for use on cotton or other crops.
- Plant growth inhibitors, regulators, or stimulators, including systemic and contact or other sucker control agents for tobacco and other crops.

Section 1 of the bill clarifies that only these substances, and not any equipment or devices used to administer, release, apply, or otherwise dispense these substances, are exempt from the sales and use tax.

II. Due Date for Quarterly Sales Tax Returns

CURRENT LAW: Quarterly sales tax returns are due on the 15th of a month. In 2001, the General Assembly lowered the threshold for monthly payments of withheld taxes from $500 to $250. Monthly withholding returns are due on the 15th of the month, the same day as monthly and quarterly sales and use tax returns. As a result of the monthly threshold change, approximately 25,000 employers moved from a quarterly to a monthly filing status. The Department now receives 25,000 more returns in eight of the twelve months of the year than it was receiving prior to the change. Therefore, the Department has recommended changing the due date of quarterly sales tax returns from the 15th of a month to the end of the month to enable the Department to spread the work more evenly throughout the month. Currently, there are 91,000 quarterly sales tax filers.

BILL ANALYSIS: Section 2 of the bill changes the due date for quarterly sales tax returns from the 15th of a month to the end of a month. This change would make the due date for quarterly sales tax returns consistent with the due date for quarterly withholding tax returns. This change would not impact the timing of local sales and use tax distributions, nor would it shift any funds from one fiscal year to the next.

III. Underpayment Penalty Calculation for Semimonthly Sales Tax Payers

CURRENT LAW: A taxpayer who is consistently liable for at least $10,000.00 a month in State and local sales and use taxes must pay the tax twice a month and file a return on a monthly basis. A payment is required for each semimonthly period. The first semimonthly payment covers the period from the first day of the month through the 15th day of the month, and the second semimonthly payment covers the period from the 16th day of the month through the last day of the month. The monthly return covers both semimonthly payment periods with any additional amount due and is due to be filed by the 20th day of the following month. A taxpayer is not subject to interest or penalties for an underpayment for a semimonthly payment period if the taxpayer timely pays at least 95% of the amount due for that payment period and includes the underpayment with the monthly return for both payment periods.

In 2000, the General Assembly enacted legislation to enable North Carolina to participate in the Streamlined Sales Tax Project, which is designed to simplify and modernize sales and use tax administration. There are certain requirements that each state must adopt in order to participate in the project. One requirement with regard to the remittance of funds is that if the State requires more than one remittance per return, the amount of the additional remittance must be determined through a calculation method rather than actual collections. Since semimonthly sales tax payers are required to send two remittances per month with one monthly return, the Department has recommended amending the underpayment penalty calculation for semimonthly sales tax payers which would provide an additional method of calculating their estimated tax liability and thus conform to the requirements of the Streamlined Sales Tax Project.

BILL ANALYSIS: Section 3 of the bill amends the method for calculating the underpayment penalty for semimonthly sales tax payers. Neither interest nor penalties would apply to the underpayment of sales tax remitted on a semimonthly basis if the taxpayer timely pays at least 95% of the lesser of the following:

- The amount due for the semimonthly payment period; or
- The average semimonthly payment for the prior calendar year.

Just as under the current law, the taxpayer must also include the underpayment with the monthly return for those semimonthly payment periods.

IV. Use of Exemption Certificates

CURRENT LAW: The Department of Revenue administers many of the sales and use tax exemptions and preferential rates targeted at certain industries, such as farming and manufacturing, through the use of an exemption certificate. The statutes do not address exemption certificates, however, except in the penalty provisions in G.S. 105-236(5a), which authorizes the Secretary to assess a penalty for the misuse of an exemption certificate. The Department has recommended that the practice of using exemption certificates be incorporated into the statutes to avoid any questions about the ability of taxpayers to claim exemptions through this method.

BILL ANALYSIS: Section 4 of the bill would codify a longstanding practice of the Department which requires that a purchaser of tangible personal property that is exempt from tax or subject to a preferential rate of tax obtain an exemption certificate from the Department in order to receive the exemption or preferential rate.

EFFECTIVE DATES: The section changing the due date for quarterly sales tax returns (Section 2) would become effective on October 1, 2002, and would apply to taxes levied on or after that date. The section changing the underpayment penalty calculation for semimonthly sales tax payers (Section 3) would become effective July 1, 2002, and would apply to payments due on or after that date. The remainder of the act would become effective when it becomes law.

PRINCIPAL DEPARTMENT(S) & PROGRAM(S) AFFECTED: North Carolina Department of Revenue.

EFFECTIVE DATE: Section 2 and 3 (quarterly sales tax returns) become effective October 1, 2002 and applies to taxes levied on or after that date. The remainder of the act becomes effective when law.

BILL SUMMARY: This proposal includes several changes recommended by the North Carolina Department of Revenue. Section 1 clarifies that equipment used to dispense plant growth inhibitors is not exempt from sales tax. Section 2 changes the due date for quarterly sales tax returns from the 15th of the month to the last day of the month, following the end of the quarter. Section 3 changes the underpayment penalty calculation for semimonthly taxpayers to conform to the Streamlined Sales Tax Project. Section 4 clarifies the use of sales and use tax exemption certificates. It is recommended by the Revenue Laws Study Committee.

ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGY:

Section 1: This proposal is a result of a North Carolina Court of Appeals decision. In American Ripener Co. Inc. v. Muriel K. Offerman, Secretary of Revenue, the court considered the application of state sales taxes to a plant growth regulator or stimulator which controls the ripening of fruits and vegetables (ethylene), as well as the equipment used to deliver that chemical. Tax on replacement parts was also an issue. The court held that all of these items are exempt from sales and use tax under G.S. 105-164.13(2) and G.S. 105-164.13 (2a) which exempts "plant growth inhibitors, regulators, or stimulators for agriculture including systematic and contact or other sucker control agents for tobacco and other crops". The court also ruled that the generators and associate parts are also inhibitors and are therefore exempt from sales tax. The proposal effectively amends G.S. 105-164.13(2a) to make the equipment and parts associated with this gas treatment subject to sales and use taxes. (The Department had previously assumed all these items were taxable). In making its ruling, the court effectively reduced sales tax revenue. The bill would restore at least some of that revenue to the General Fund. As such, the bill in and of itself would create a small revenue gain. However, Fiscal Research is unable to create an exact estimate of the value of ethylene delivery parts and equipment. As a result, no estimate is possible on this portion of the proposal.

Section 2: Currently the Department of Revenue receives monthly withholding returns, monthly sales tax returns, and quarterly sales tax returns on the 15th of the month. On the 15th of March, April, September, and October income tax returns are due as well. Shifting the due date of quarterly sales and use tax returns from the 15th of the month to the end of the month will create a more even distribution of work in the Department. Because the payments are due in the month following the end of the quarter (October, February, April, and July) the shift will not move any revenue from one fiscal year to the next. Some loss of interest on the payments or "float" will occur. However, because of the relatively small sums of money involved, the Department expects the loss to be minimal.

Section 3: This section changes the calculation of penalty for underpayment by semimonthly sales tax payers. Under current law the taxpayer must remit at least 95% of the amount due for each semimonthly payment period. This proposal allows the taxpayer to remit the lesser of this amount or the average semimonthly payment for the prior calendar year. Clearly this proposal will result in some loss of penalty revenue. However, no data is available to determine the magnitude of the loss. The Department expects the loss to be slight.

Section 4: Historically the Department of Revenue has issued exemption certificates to taxpayers in certain exempted industries to facilitate tax administration. However, there is no reference to exemption certificates in the statutes, except as it relates to penalties for misuse of such a certificate. This proposal would codify the practice of issuing exemption certificates. Since the proposal is only codifying the existing practice of the Department, no fiscal impact is expected.

June 4, 2002

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO ALLOW THE ICARD FIRE DISTRICT TO LEVY AN AD VALOREM TAX AT THE GENERAL LAW RATE.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. The Board of Commissioners of Burke County may levy a tax under Article 3A of Chapter 69 of the General Statutes in the Icard Fire District at a rate not exceeding fifteen cents (15¢) on the one hundred dollar ($100.00) valuation of property, for the purpose of providing fire protection in that district.

SECTION 2. This act is effective when it becomes law.

HOUSE BILL 1510:
Icard Fire Tax Rate

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	House Finance	Introduced by:	Rep. Buchanan
Date:	June 12, 2002	Summary by:	Trina Griffin
Version:	1st Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 1510 authorizes the Icard fire district to levy an ad valorem tax at a rate not exceeding fifteen cents on the $100.00 valuation of property for the purpose of providing fire protection in that district. The act is effective when it becomes law.

CURRENT LAW: Fire protection in areas outside cities is provided through the establishment of fire protection districts. A fire protection district is a unit of local government and is governed by the board of county commissioners, or joint boards of county commissioners when the area lies in more than one county. Article V, Section 2(5) of the NC Constitution allows the General Assembly to authorize units of local government to levy taxes on property. Article 3A of Chapter 69 of the General Statutes authorizes a fire protection district to levy a special tax on all taxable property in the district at a rate not exceeding 15 cents on the $100 valuation of property, subject to a referendum. Upon the petition of 35% of the property owners within a fire district, the board shall call an election for the purpose of submitting to the qualified voters the question of levying and collecting a special tax on all taxable property within the district for fire protection.

The current Icard Fire District tax rate is 5 cents on $100.00 valuation of property.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 1510 authorizes the Board of Commissioners of Burke County to levy a tax in the Icard Fire District, without holding a referendum, at a rate not exceeding fifteen cents on the $100.00 valuation of property for the purpose of providing fire protection in that district. Current plans are to increase the rate from 5 cents to 10 cents on $100.00 valuation of property.

EFFECTIVE DATE: When it becomes law.

*Assumes a 10 cents on one hundred dollar valuation in property tax rate.

BILL SUMMARY: The bill allows the Board of Commissioners of Burke County to levy an ad valorem tax at the general law rate in the Icard Fire District at a rate not exceeding fifteen cents on the one hundred dollar valuation of property, for the purpose of providing fire protection in that district.

ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGY: The current Icard Fire District tax rate is 5 cents on one hundred dollar valuation in property. The fire district received $168,120 in fiscal year 1999-00 and $174,330 in fiscal year 2000-01. With one month's collections remaining, estimates for fiscal year 2001-02 are approximately $225,000. Most of this 29% increase is due to a property revaluation in the county in 2001.

The legislation states the maximum tax rate is 15 cents on the one hundred dollar valuation of property. Current plans are to increase to 10 cents on one hundred dollar valuation in property, representing a 100% increase in the Icard Fire District tax rate. The estimated total revenue generated in the first year, assuming a July 1, 2002 implementation date, would be $463,500. The difference in revenue generated between the current 5 cent rate and this increased 10 cent rate would be $231,750 in the first year. A 3% annual increase in revenue from the fire district is assumed.

MINUTES
HOUSE FINANCE COMMITTEE

June 13, 2002

The House Committee on Finance met on Thursday, June 13, 2002 in Room 544 of the Legislative Office Building at 8:30 a.m. The following members were present: Chairmen Allen, Buchanan and Luebke and Vice Chairs Hill and Jarrell; and Representatives Alexander, Blust, Capps, Decker, Dedmon, Eddins, Edwards, Gibson, Gray, Hackney, Holliman, McComas, McCombs, Morris, Pope, Rayfield, Starnes, Weiss, Willingham, Wilson, and Womble. The following Sergeant-at-Arms staff was present: Bob Fowler, Bill Freeman, and Dusty Rhodes. Staff including Richard Bostic, Trina Griffin, Canaan Huie, Linda Millsaps, and Martha Walston were in attendance. A Visitor Registration list is attached and made part of these minutes.

Chairman Buchanan called the meeting to order and introduced the following pages: Alicia Davis, Wake County, sponsored by Representative Blue, Justin Ritchie, Rowan County, sponsored by Representative McCombs and Nick Clarke, Mecklenburg County, sponsored by Speaker Black.

Representative Holliman, bill sponsor HB 1509, A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO CLARIFY THE SALES AND USE TAX EXEMPTION REGARDING CERTAIN AGRICULTURAL SUBSTANCES AND TO MAKE VARIOUS ADMINISTRATIVE CHANGES IN THE TAX LAWS, was recognized by Chairman Buchanan to explain the bill. Representative Holliman explained the bill was a recommendation of the Revenue Laws Study Committee and after giving a brief explanation of the changes and clarifications in the tax laws, Representative Hill, Vice Chair, motioned at the appropriate time to give HB 1509 a favorable report. Representative Decker asked questions regarding price and number of generators, type of equipment that were going to be sold and if any other type of equipment was going to be excluded. Trina Griffin explained that the types of equipment that were going to be exempt are vaccines, insecticides, etc. and there was no extra equipment to be excluded that weren't already excluded. Representative Decker asked the cost involved. Linda Millsaps explained the fiscal note. Upon the motion on the floor from Representative Hill, the bill was given a favorable report. A copy of HB 1509, summary and fiscal note is attached.

Chairman Buchanan turned the gavel over to Representative Luebke, Co-Chair. Chairman Luebke recognized Representative Buchanan, sponsor of HB 1510, A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO ALLOW THE ICARD FIRE DISTRICT TO LEVY AN AD VALOREM TAX AT THE GENERAL LAW RATE, to explain the bill. Representative Buchanan stated that the fire department, county commissioners, rescue squad and the fire chief all were in favor of this legislation and asked that he introduce a bill. He explained that the bill authorizes the Burke County Board of Commissioners to levy a tax in the Icard Fire District from 5 cents to 10 cents not to exceed 15 cents on $100.00 valuation of property as all other counties in the state already are authorized to have. Representative Buchanan said they were only requesting 6 cents. Representative Wilson informed Representative Buchanan that there should have been a referendum. Representative Buchanan explained that there wasn't time because of the budget deadline. Representative Starnes asked why the referendum wasn't done at the same time the bond election was held. Representative Buchanan stated that the fire district and commissioners, county attorney, etc. only realized since the election that the increase was needed. Representative Wilson asked if the entire delegation agreed. He assured her that he did speak with them. Representative Womble was recognized for a question regarding why the tax was for 10 cents if they were only asking for 6 cents. Representative Buchanan responded that all other counties in the state can go up to 10 cents but the county commissioners requested only 6 cents. Representative Womble ask if everyone was in agreement. Representative Buchanan stated that everyone he had spoken to agreed and Representative Womble then moved that HB 1510 be given a favorable report. Representative Capps agreed that our firefighters needed all the support for their contributions and seconded the motion. The motion passed. Representative Rayfield asked if Representative Gillespie agreed. Representative Buchanan said he did speak with him and at the time neither of them were sure of the cap that had been placed on it. A copy of HB 1510, summary and fiscal note is attached.

HB 1520 A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO EXTEND THE SUNSET ON TAX CREDITS FOR QUALIFIED BUSINESS INVESTMENTS, continued from June 12th Finance meeting was the last bill on the agenda. Chairman Buchanan recognized Representative Allen, bill sponsor, for further discussion of the bill. Representative Hill made a motion to give the bill a favorable report at the appropriate time. Representative Decker asked several questions of the staff. Mr. Sam Taylor, Executive Director, North Carolina Biosciences Organization answered questions from several members. After a lengthy discussion, Representative Decker asked for a list of the grantees for the past three years from the groups listed in GS 105-163.010. Richard Bostic, staff analyst Fiscal Research, said there was a small percentage of 31 out of 185 (16.7%), which refers to the number of Qualified Grantee Businesses out of the total number of firms listed by the Secretary of State as eligible to receive investments from persons who apply for tax credits for Qualified Business Investments. Representative Pope said he had a concern with businesses being deemed Qualified Grantee Businesses if they received assistance from the groups listed in GS 105-163.010 (NC Technological Development Authority, Microelectronics Center of NC, etc.) He requested time for the staff to prepare an amendment to change that statute. At the request of Representative Allen, Chairman Buchanan pulled HB 1520 from the calendar to be heard on Wednesday, June 19th in order for the staff to have time to prepare the amendment.

Chairman Buchanan adjourned the meeting at 9:05 a.m. to reconvene Wednesday, June 19, 2002.

Respectfully submitted,

Representative Charles Buchanan

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO CLARIFY THE SALES AND USE TAX EXEMPTION REGARDING CERTAIN AGRICULTURAL SUBSTANCES AND TO MAKE VARIOUS ADMINISTRATIVE CHANGES IN THE TAX LAWS.

SECTION 1. G.S. 105-164.13(2a) reads as rewritten:

"(2a) Any of the following substances when purchased for use on animals or plants, as appropriate, held or produced for commercial ~~purposes:~~purposes. This exemption does not apply to any equipment or devices used to administer, release, apply, or otherwise dispense these substances:

a. Remedies, vaccines, medications, litter materials, and feeds for animals.
b. Rodenticides, insecticides, herbicides, fungicides, and pesticides.
c. Defoliants for use on cotton or other crops.
d. Plant growth inhibitors, regulators, or stimulators, including systemic and contact or other sucker control agents for tobacco and other crops."

SECTION 2. G.S. 105-164.16(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Quarterly. – A taxpayer who is consistently liable for less than one hundred dollars ($100.00) a month in State and local sales and use taxes must file a return and pay the taxes due on a quarterly basis. A quarterly return covers a calendar quarter and is due by the ~~15th~~last day of the month following the end of the quarter."

SECTION 3. G.S. 105-164.16(b2) reads as rewritten:

"(b2) Semimonthly. – A taxpayer who is consistently liable for at least ten thousand dollars ($10,000) a month in State and local sales and use taxes must pay the tax twice a month and must file a return on a monthly basis. One semimonthly payment covers the period from the first day of the month through the 15th day of the month. The other semimonthly payment covers the period from the 16th day of the month through the last day of the month. The semimonthly payment for the period that ends on the 15th day of the month is due by the 25th day of that month. The semimonthly payment for the period that ends on the last day of the month is due by the 10th day of the following month.

A return covers both semimonthly payment periods. The return is due by the 20th day of the month following the month of the payment periods covered by the return. A taxpayer is not subject to interest on or penalties for an underpayment for a semimonthly payment period if the taxpayer timely pays at least ninety-five percent (95%) of the ~~amount due for each semimonthly payment period~~ lesser of the following and includes the underpayment with the monthly return for those semimonthly payment ~~periods.~~periods:

(1) The amount due for each semimonthly payment period.

(2) The average semimonthly payment for the prior calendar year."

SECTION 4. Part 5 of Article 5 of Chapter 105 is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 105-164.28A. Other exemption certificates.

(a) Authorization. – The Secretary may require a person who purchases tangible personal property that is exempt from tax or is subject to a preferential rate of tax depending on the status of the purchaser or the intended use of the property to obtain an exemption certificate from the Department to receive the exemption or preferential rate. An exemption certificate authorizes a retailer to sell tangible personal property to the holder of the certificate and either collect tax at a preferential rate or not collect tax on the sale, as appropriate. A person who purchases tangible personal property under an exemption certificate is liable for any tax due on the sale if the Department determines that the person is not eligible for the certificate or the property was not used as intended.

(b) Scope. – This section does not apply to a direct pay permit or a certificate of resale. G.S. 105-164.27A addresses a direct pay permit, and G.S. 105-164.28 addresses a certificate of resale."

SECTION 5. Section 2 of this act becomes effective October 1, 2002, and applies to taxes levied on or after that date. Section 3 of this act becomes effective July 1, 2002, and applies to payments due on or after that date. The remainder of this act is effective when it becomes law.

HOUSE BILL 1509:
Revenue Administrative Changes

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	House Finance	Introduced by:	Reps. Holliman, Luebke, and Wainwright
Date:	June 12, 2002	Summary by:	Trina Griffin Committee Counsel
Version:	1st Edition

SUMMARY: House Bill 1509 is a recommendation of the Revenue Laws Study Committee and makes the following changes and clarifications in the tax laws:

- It clarifies that the sales and use tax exemption for certain agricultural substances does not include any equipment or devices used to apply those substances.
- It changes the due date of quarterly sales tax returns from the 15th of a month to the last day of a month to enable the Department to spread the processing work more evenly throughout the month.
- It changes the underpayment penalty calculation for semimonthly sales tax payers to conform to the requirements of the Streamlined Sales Tax Project.
- It clarifies the use of sales and use tax exemption certificates.

CURRENT LAW & ANALYSIS:

I. Clarifying the Exemption for Certain Agricultural Substances

CURRENT LAW: Included among the agricultural group of sales and use tax exemptions is an exemption for plant growth inhibitors, regulators, or stimulators when purchased for use on plants held or produced for commercial purposes. This exemption was at issue in a recent North Carolina Court of Appeals case, American Ripener Company, Inc. v. Secretary of Revenue.[1] In this case, the plaintiff manufactured and sold ethylene concentrate, a plant growth regulator or stimulator that controls the speed of the ripening of fruits and vegetables. The plaintiff also manufactured, sold, and leased generators used to control the release of the ethylene gas. The plaintiff challenged the assessment of sales tax on its sales of ethylene and the assessment of use tax for its generators and replacement parts for its generators. The Department argued that the exemption was not intended to include any hardware or machinery, such as generators, used to apply the exempted substances. Nevertheless, the Court held that since the generators were used to control the release of ethylene gas and to regulate the speed of the ripening of fruits and vegetables, they were plant growth regulators and stimulators and, therefore, exempt from the sales and use tax. The Department's petition for review by the North Carolina Supreme Court was denied. The Department has recommended amending this exemption to clarify that it does not apply to any equipment or devices used to dispense the substances listed in the exemption.

[1] 147 N.C.App. 142 (2001), cert. denied, 355 N.C. 210 (2002).

BILL ANALYSIS: G.S. 105-164.13(2a) exempts the following from sales and use tax when purchased for use on animals or plants, as appropriate, held or produced for commercial purposes:

- Remedies, vaccines, medications, litter materials, and feeds for animals.
- Rodenticides, insecticides, herbicides, fungicides, and pesticides.
- Defoliants for use on cotton or other crops.
- Plant growth inhibitors, regulators, or stimulators, including systemic and contact or other sucker control agents for tobacco and other crops.

Section 1 of the bill clarifies that only these substances, and not any equipment or devices used to administer, release, apply, or otherwise dispense these substances, are exempt from the sales and use tax.

II. Due Date for Quarterly Sales Tax Returns

CURRENT LAW: Quarterly sales tax returns are due on the 15th of a month. In 2001, the General Assembly lowered the threshold for monthly payments of withheld taxes from $500 to $250. Monthly withholding returns are due on the 15th of the month, the same day as monthly and quarterly sales and use tax returns. As a result of the monthly threshold change, approximately 25,000 employers moved from a quarterly to a monthly filing status. The Department now receives 25,000 more returns in eight of the twelve months of the year than it was receiving prior to the change. Therefore, the Department has recommended changing the due date of quarterly sales tax returns from the 15th of a month to the end of the month to enable the Department to spread the work more evenly throughout the month. Currently, there are 91,000 quarterly sales tax filers.

BILL ANALYSIS: Section 2 of the bill changes the due date for quarterly sales tax returns from the 15th of a month to the end of a month. This change would make the due date for quarterly sales tax returns consistent with the due date for quarterly withholding tax returns. This change would not impact the timing of local sales and use tax distributions, nor would it shift any funds from one fiscal year to the next.

III. Underpayment Penalty Calculation for Semimonthly Sales Tax Payers

CURRENT LAW: A taxpayer who is consistently liable for at least $10,000.00 a month in State and local sales and use taxes must pay the tax twice a month and file a return on a monthly basis. A payment is required for each semimonthly period. The first semimonthly payment covers the period from the first day of the month through the 15th day of the month, and the second semimonthly payment covers the period from the 16th day of the month through the last day of the month. The monthly return covers both semimonthly payment periods with any additional amount due and is due to be filed by the 20th day of the following month. A taxpayer is not subject to interest or penalties for an underpayment for a semimonthly payment period if the taxpayer timely pays at least 95% of the amount due for that payment period and includes the underpayment with the monthly return for both payment periods.

In 2000, the General Assembly enacted legislation to enable North Carolina to participate in the Streamlined Sales Tax Project, which is designed to simplify and modernize sales and use tax administration. There are certain requirements that each state must adopt in order to participate in the project. One requirement with regard to the remittance of funds is that if the State requires more than one remittance per return, the amount of the additional remittance must be determined through a calculation method rather than actual collections. Since semimonthly sales tax payers are required to send two remittances per month with one monthly return, the Department has recommended amending the underpayment penalty calculation for semimonthly sales tax payers which would provide an additional method of calculating their estimated tax liability and thus conform to the requirements of the Streamlined Sales Tax Project.

BILL ANALYSIS: Section 3 of the bill amends the method for calculating the underpayment penalty for semimonthly sales tax payers. Neither interest nor penalties would apply to the underpayment of sales tax remitted on a semimonthly basis if the taxpayer timely pays at least 95% of the lesser of the following:

- The amount due for the semimonthly payment period; or
- The average semimonthly payment for the prior calendar year.

Just as under the current law, the taxpayer must also include the underpayment with the monthly return for those semimonthly payment periods.

IV. Use of Exemption Certificates

CURRENT LAW: The Department of Revenue administers many of the sales and use tax exemptions and preferential rates targeted at certain industries, such as farming and manufacturing, through the use of an exemption certificate. The statutes do not address exemption certificates, however, except in the penalty provisions in G.S. 105-236(5a), which authorizes the Secretary to assess a penalty for the misuse of an exemption certificate. The Department has recommended that the practice of using exemption certificates be incorporated into the statutes to avoid any questions about the ability of taxpayers to claim exemptions through this method.

BILL ANALYSIS: Section 4 of the bill would codify a longstanding practice of the Department which requires that a purchaser of tangible personal property that is exempt from tax or subject to a preferential rate of tax obtain an exemption certificate from the Department in order to receive the exemption or preferential rate.

EFFECTIVE DATES: The section changing the due date for quarterly sales tax returns (Section 2) would become effective on October 1, 2002, and would apply to taxes levied on or after that date. The section changing the underpayment penalty calculation for semimonthly sales tax payers (Section 3) would become effective July 1, 2002, and would apply to payments due on or after that date. The remainder of the act would become effective when it becomes law.

PRINCIPAL DEPARTMENT(S) & PROGRAM(S) AFFECTED: North Carolina Department of Revenue.

EFFECTIVE DATE: Section 2 and 3 (quarterly sales tax returns) become effective October 1, 2002 and applies to taxes levied on or after that date. The remainder of the act becomes effective when law.

BILL SUMMARY: This proposal includes several changes recommended by the North Carolina Department of Revenue. Section 1 clarifies that equipment used to dispense plant growth inhibitors is not exempt from sales tax. Section 2 changes the due date for quarterly sales tax returns from the 15th of the month to the last day of the month, following the end of the quarter. Section 3 changes the underpayment penalty calculation for semimonthly taxpayers to conform to the Streamlined Sales Tax Project. Section 4 clarifies the use of sales and use tax exemption certificates. It is recommended by the Revenue Laws Study Committee.

ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGY:

Section 1: This proposal is a result of a North Carolina Court of Appeals decision. In American Ripener Co. Inc. v. Muriel K. Offerman, Secretary of Revenue, the court considered the application of state sales taxes to a plant growth regulator or stimulator which controls the ripening of fruits and vegetables (ethylene), as well as the equipment used to deliver that chemical. Tax on replacement parts was also an issue. The court held that all of these items are exempt from sales and use tax under G.S. 105-164.13(2) and G.S. 105-164.13 (2a) which exempts "plant growth inhibitors, regulators, or stimulators for agriculture including systematic and contact or other sucker control agents for tobacco and other crops". The court also ruled that the generators and associate parts are also inhibitors and are therefore exempt from sales tax. The proposal effectively amends G.S. 105-164.13(2a) to make the equipment and parts associated with this gas treatment subject to sales and use taxes. (The Department had previously assumed all these items were taxable). In making its ruling, the court effectively reduced sales tax revenue. The bill would restore at least some of that revenue to the General Fund. As such, the bill in and of itself would create a small revenue gain. However, Fiscal Research is unable to create an exact estimate of the value of ethylene delivery parts and equipment. As a result, no estimate is possible on this portion of the proposal.

Section 2: Currently the Department of Revenue receives monthly withholding returns, monthly sales tax returns, and quarterly sales tax returns on the 15th of the month. On the 15th of March, April, September, and October income tax returns are due as well. Shifting the due date of quarterly sales and use tax returns from the 15th of the month to the end of the month will create a more even distribution of work in the Department. Because the payments are due in the month following the end of the quarter (October, February, April, and July) the shift will not move any revenue from one fiscal year to the next. Some loss of interest on the payments or "float" will occur. However, because of the relatively small sums of money involved, the Department expects the loss to be minimal.

Section 3: This section changes the calculation of penalty for underpayment by semimonthly sales tax payers. Under current law the taxpayer must remit at least 95% of the amount due for each semimonthly payment period. This proposal allows the taxpayer to remit the lesser of this amount or the average semimonthly payment for the prior calendar year. Clearly this proposal will result in some loss of penalty revenue. However, no data is available to determine the magnitude of the loss. The Department expects the loss to be slight.

Section 4: Historically the Department of Revenue has issued exemption certificates to taxpayers in certain exempted industries to facilitate tax administration. However, there is no reference to exemption certificates in the statutes, except as it relates to penalties for misuse of such a certificate. This proposal would codify the practice of issuing exemption certificates. Since the proposal is only codifying the existing practice of the Department, no fiscal impact is expected.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO ALLOW THE ICARD FIRE DISTRICT TO LEVY AN AD VALOREM TAX AT THE GENERAL LAW RATE.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. The Board of Commissioners of Burke County may levy a tax under Article 3A of Chapter 69 of the General Statutes in the Icard Fire District at a rate not exceeding fifteen cents (15¢) on the one hundred dollar ($100.00) valuation of property, for the purpose of providing fire protection in that district.

SECTION 2. This act is effective when it becomes law.

HOUSE BILL 1510:
Icard Fire Tax Rate

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	House Finance	Introduced by:	Rep. Buchanan
Date:	June 12, 2002	Summary by:	Trina Griffin
Version:	1st Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 1510 authorizes the Icard fire district to levy an ad valorem tax at a rate not exceeding fifteen cents on the $100.00 valuation of property for the purpose of providing fire protection in that district. The act is effective when it becomes law.

CURRENT LAW: Fire protection in areas outside cities is provided through the establishment of fire protection districts. A fire protection district is a unit of local government and is governed by the board of county commissioners, or joint boards of county commissioners when the area lies in more than one county. Article V, Section 2(5) of the NC Constitution allows the General Assembly to authorize units of local government to levy taxes on property. Article 3A of Chapter 69 of the General Statutes authorizes a fire protection district to levy a special tax on all taxable property in the district at a rate not exceeding 15 cents on the $100 valuation of property, subject to a referendum. Upon the petition of 35% of the property owners within a fire district, the board shall call an election for the purpose of submitting to the qualified voters the question of levying and collecting a special tax on all taxable property within the district for fire protection.

The current Icard Fire District tax rate is 5 cents on $100.00 valuation of property.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 1510 authorizes the Board of Commissioners of Burke County to levy a tax in the Icard Fire District, without holding a referendum, at a rate not exceeding fifteen cents on the $100.00 valuation of property for the purpose of providing fire protection in that district. Current plans are to increase the rate from 5 cents to 10 cents on $100.00 valuation of property.

EFFECTIVE DATE: When it becomes law.

*Assumes a 10 cents on one hundred dollar valuation in property tax rate.

BILL SUMMARY: The bill allows the Board of Commissioners of Burke County to levy an ad valorem tax at the general law rate in the Icard Fire District at a rate not exceeding fifteen cents on the one hundred dollar valuation of property, for the purpose of providing fire protection in that district.

ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGY: The current Icard Fire District tax rate is 5 cents on one hundred dollar valuation in property. The fire district received $168,120 in fiscal year 1999-00 and $174,330 in fiscal year 2000-01. With one month's collections remaining, estimates for fiscal year 2001-02 are approximately $225,000. Most of this 29% increase is due to a property revaluation in the county in 2001.

The legislation states the maximum tax rate is 15 cents on the one hundred dollar valuation of property. Current plans are to increase to 10 cents on one hundred dollar valuation in property, representing a 100% increase in the Icard Fire District tax rate. The estimated total revenue generated in the first year, assuming a July 1, 2002 implementation date, would be $463,500. The difference in revenue generated between the current 5 cent rate and this increased 10 cent rate would be $231,750 in the first year. A 3% annual increase in revenue from the fire district is assumed.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO EXTEND THE SUNSET ON TAX CREDITS FOR QUALIFIED BUSINESS INVESTMENTS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Section 7 of Chapter 443 of the 1993 Session Laws, as amended by Section 29A.15 of S.L. 1998-212, is repealed.

SECTION 2. Section 10 of Chapter 443 of the 1993 Session Laws, as amended by Section 29A.15 of S.L. 1998-212, reads as rewritten:

"Sec. 10. Section 6 of this act is effective upon ratification. ~~Section 7 of this act becomes effective for investments made on or after January 1, 2003.~~ The remainder of this act becomes effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1994.

A business registered as a qualified business venture or a qualified grantee business before January 1, 1994, retains its registration until the renewal date for the registration of that business under Part 5 of Article 4 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes as in effect before January 1, 1994. The Secretary of State shall not grant renewal of a registration as a qualified business venture or a qualified grantee business unless at the time of filing the renewal application, the business meets the requirements then in effect for a new registration.

Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 105-163.014(a), as amended by this act, a credit under Part 5 of Article 4 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes for an investment made before January 1, 1994, is not forfeited solely on the grounds that a sibling of the taxpayer provides services for compensation to the business in which the taxpayer invested.

Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 105-163.014(d), as amended by this act, a credit under Part 5 of Article 4 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes for an investment made before January 1, 1994, is not forfeited solely on the grounds that a redemption of the securities received in the investment is made within five years after the investment was made.

The Secretary of State may require a qualified business venture or a qualified grantee business that is unable to renew its registration after January 1, 1994, to file reports the Secretary of State considers appropriate to determine the location of the headquarters and principal business operations of the business until three years after the date of the last investment in the business that qualified for the tax credit allowed under Part 5 of Article 4 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes."

SECTION 3. Part 5 of Article 4 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 105-163.015. Sunset.

Extend Qualified Business Venture Tax Credit

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	House Finance	Sponsor:	Rep. Allen
Date:	June 12, 2002	Analysis by:	Y. Canaan Huie

SUMMARY: This bill extends the sunset for the tax credit for qualified business investments for one year. Without this bill, that tax credit would expire for investments made on or after January 1, 2003. This bill is effective when it becomes law. The PCS makes a technical change.

ANALYSIS: The qualified business investment tax credit was enacted in August 1987 to promote economic development for North Carolina businesses. The initial credits applied to both corporations and individuals taxpayers, and there was a $12 million cap on the total amount of all tax credits. In response to a 1996 United States Supreme Court decision in Fulton Corp. v. Faulkner, the General Assembly reduced the $12 million cap to $6 million, limited the credit to individuals and small pass-through entities, and removed the requirement that the qualified businesses be headquartered or operating in North Carolina. The credit was to expire for investments made on or after January 1, 1999. In 1998, as part of the appropriations bill, the credit was extended for four additional years until January 1, 2003. This bill would extend that sunset for one additional year.

The credit is allowed for an individual taxpayer who purchases the equity securities or subordinated debt of a qualified business venture or a qualified grantee business directly from that business. The credit is equal to 25% of the amount invested and may not exceed $50,000 per individual in a single taxable year. An individual investor may also claim the allocable share of credits obtained by "pass-through entities" of which the investor is an owner. Pass-through entities include limited partnerships, general partnerships, S corporations, and limited liability companies. The credit may not be taken in the year the investment is made. Instead, the credit is taken in the year following the calendar year in which the investment was made, but only if the taxpayer filed an application with the Secretary of State. The unused credit may be carried forward for the next five years. The total amount of credits allowed to all taxpayers for investments made in a calendar year may not exceed $6 million. The Secretary of Revenue calculates the total amount of tax credits claimed from applications filed with the Secretary of State. If the amount exceeds the cap, then the Secretary allows a portion of the tax credits claimed by allocating the total of $6 million in tax credits in proportion to the size of the credit claimed by each taxpayer. In general, a taxpayer forfeits the credit if the taxpayer transfers the securities within one year or the qualified business redeems the securities purchased by the taxpayer within five years after the investment was made.[1]

Under the 1996 Fulton case, the original credit provisions clearly violated the interstate commerce clause of the federal constitution because they reduced a taxpayer's tax liability by an amount equal to 25% of the cost of purchasing stock in either a North Carolina business or an investment company whose purpose is to invest in North Carolina businesses, while no tax reduction was allowed for purchasing similar stock

[1] There are two exceptions to this forfeiture provision. First, if the transfer occurs as a result of the death of the taxpayer, the liquidation of the taxpayer, or certain reorganizations of the qualified business, within the one-year period, the transfer does not require forfeiture. Second, the 1998 legislation created an exception to this forfeiture provision for projects in the film industry. It is unusual for a project in that industry in which a person might invest to last for more than 5 years.

in out-of-state businesses or investment companies whose purpose is to invest in businesses that may not be North Carolina businesses. In response to the Fulton case, the Revenue Laws Study Committee discussed this credit along with several others, at great length. The original proposal of the Committee was to repeal all qualified business investment credits, effective January 1, 1997. In response to appeals to the Committee and to the General Assembly, the credit was expanded to include investments in businesses located both inside and outside North Carolina, but was no longer allowed for investments in investment companies and was limited to investments made by individuals and small pass-through entities under the theory that these investors are not likely to invest outside of a 50-mile radius of their home.

There may be a constitutional concern with the provision of the credit regarding "qualified grantee businesses". In order to be a business in which investments are eligible for a credit, the business must be either a "qualified business venture" or a "qualified grantee business". Both types of businesses must be registered with the Secretary of State. The definition of "qualified business venture" includes several general requirements related to the line of business, gross revenues of the business, and the organization date of the business. The definition of "qualified grantee business" includes a requirement that the business have received a grant in at least one of the three previous years from one of several named entities. One could argue that this provision violates the rule of uniformity since a credit is allowed only for investments in business that have received a grant from one of several specifically named organizations, and not for investments in similar businesses that have received grants from similar organizations. However, to date this issue has not been raised in litigation and is therefore not settled.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The act is effective when it becomes law.

BILL SUMMARY: The bill extends the individual income tax credit for Qualified Business investments from January 1, 2003 to January 1, 2004.

ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGY: The amount of Qualified Business credits given each year is capped at $6 million. Requests for credits have exceeded the $6 million cap for four out of the last five years. In fact, the amount of credit requested ($19 million) in 2001 was approximately three times the amount of credit available. Given the recent investor interest in the credit program, it is likely that the $6 million annual cost of the program will continue until its sunset in 2004. The General Fund fiscal impact occurs in FY 2003-04 because the investments made in 2003 will be awarded credits on tax returns filed in the spring of 2004.

Minutes
House Committee on Finance

June 19, 2002

The House Committee on Finance met on Wednesday, June 19, 2002, at 8:30 A.M., in Room 544 of the Legislative Office Building.

Representative William Wainwright, presiding Chair, called the meeting to order. The following members were present: Chairmen Gordon Allen, Monroe Buchanan, and Paul Luebke, Vice-Chairs Dewey Hill and Mary Jarrell, and Representatives Martha Alexander, John Blust, Russell Capps, Leslie Cox, Andrew Dedmon, Rick Eddins, Zeno Edwards, Pryor Gibson, Joe Hackney, Hugh Holliman, Bill Hurley, Linda Johnson, Eugene McCombs, Ed McMahan, Art Pope, John Rayfield, Edgar Starnes, Jennifer Weiss, Shelly Willingham, Larry Womble, and Pete Cunningham. Staff in attendance included Cindy Avrette, Trina Griffin, Martha Walston. Richard Bostic, Linda Millsaps, and Stephanie Schmitt. A Visitor Registration list is attached and made part of these minutes.

Chairman Wainwright called the meeting to order and introduced the following pages: Michelle Bennett, Jessica Bridgers, Allison Kiser, and Kathleen Hall.

The following bills were considered:

HB 1613, A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO REVISE THE BOUNDARIES OF THE HARTSEASE AND HARRISON FIRE TAX DISTRICTS IN EDGECOMBE COUNTY. Representative Tolson, bill sponsor, explained the bill. In 1995, the General Assembly enacted legislation that altered the boundaries by expanding the Hartsease fire district and reducing the Harrison fire district. House Bill 1613 will restore the boundaries to the way they were prior to the 1995 legislation. Upon motion of Representative Allen, the Committee voted for a favorable report. Copies of the bill and summary are attached.

HB 1578, A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO REMOVE THE SUNSET ON THE SCRAP TIRE DISPOSAL TAX. Representative Gibson, bill sponsor, explained that this bill would repeal the June 30, 2002, sunset; thus making permanent the current 2% tax rate on tires with a bead diameter of less than 20 inches. Upon motion made by Representative Hackney, the Committee voted for a favorable report. Copies of the bill, summary, and fiscal note are attached.

HB 1482, A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO REMOVE A DESCRIBED AREA FROM THE CORPORATE LIMITS OF THE CITY OF SALUDA. The bill sponsor, Representative Larry Justus, explained that this is a local bill that removes a small area containing 40.34 acres from the corporate limits of Saluda in Polk County. He said the Board of Commissioners voted to support the owners' request that the tract be de-annexed from the City, as preliminary engineering revealed that the City of Saluda could not afford to fund the extension of city water and sewer service to the tract. By motion made by Representative Buchanan, the Committee voted for a favorable report. Copies of HB 1482 and summary are attached.

HB 1587, A BILL TOA BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO ANNEX DESCRIBED PROPERTY TO THE CORPORATE LIMITS OF THE TOWN OF FARMVILLE. Representative Edith Warren, sponsor of the bill, explained that House Bill 1587 would annex a one-half acre tract of land containing a Carolina Power and Light substation to the corporate limits of the Town of Farmville without the town having to meet the statutory requirements for annexation. She explained that Farmville has recently completed three voluntary annexations of land surrounding the CP&L substation, and once the annexation of this "hole" is complete, the property containing the CP&L substation will be completely surrounded by city property. Upon the motion of Representative Womble, the Committee voted for a favorable report. Copies of the bill and summary are attached.

HB 1626, A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO MODIFY THE BUSINESS OPERATIONS OF THE HOSIERY TECHNOLOGY CENTER AT CATAWBA VALLEY COMMUNITY COLLEGE. The bill's sponsor, Representative Buchanan, explained that the Hosiery Technology Center at Catawba Valley Community College provides technical services to the hosiery manufacturers in North Carolina. These services include product testing, research and development, and training. Since January 2002, the Center has collected fees for product testing. The fees cover the actual cost of testing, including staff hours, materials, and equipment. Currently, the receipts collected by the Center go into the Catawba Valley's Institutional Fund account. House Bill 1626 would allow the Hosiery Center to retain receipts collected for product testing services and use them for operating expenses. Paul Fogleman with Carolina Hosiery Association; Dan St. Louis, Director of the Hosiery Technology Center; and Kenan Briggs, Chief Finance Officer of the Community College System, spoke in favor of the bill and answered questions from several committee members. Upon motion of Representative Rayfield, the Committee voted for a favorable report. Copies of the bill and summary are attached.

There being no further business, Chairman Wainwright adjourned the meeting at 9:30 A.M.

Respectfully submitted,

William L. Wainwright

SECTION 3. This act becomes effective June 30, 2002.

HOUSE BILL 1613:
Harrison/Hartsease Fire District Boundaries

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	House Finance	Introduced by:	Rep. Tolson
Date:	June 19, 2002	Summary by:	Trina Griffin
Version:	1st Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 1613 revises the boundaries of the Harrison and Hartsease fire tax districts in Edgecombe County by returning the boundaries to their location prior to 1995. The act becomes effective June 30, 2002.

CURRENT LAW: Fire protection in areas outside cities is provided through the establishment of fire protection districts. The statutes provide for the creation of three types of rural fire districts: insurance districts, tax-supported fire districts, and county service districts for fire protection. The Hartsease and Harrison fire districts are both tax-supported fire districts and are governed by the provisions of Article 3A of Chapter 69 of the General Statutes.

G.S. 69-25.11 sets out the only means to alter established boundaries. They are:

1. The area in a district may be increased by adding adjoining territory upon the application of the owner, or a 2/3 majority of the owners of the territory to be included, the unanimous recommendation of the fire protection commissioners, the approval of a majority of the members of the board of directors of the corporation furnishing fire protection, and the approval of the county boards of commissioners in which the district is located.
2. The area of a district may be decreased upon the application of the owner of the territory to be removed, the unanimous recommendation in writing of the fire protection commissioners of the district, the approval of a majority of the members of the board of directors of the corporation furnishing fire protection to the district, and the approval of the boards of county commissioners in which the district is located.
3. In the case of adjoining fire districts having the same rate of tax for fire protection, the board of county commissioners, upon petition of the fire protection commissioners and the boards of directors of the corporations furnishing fire protection in the affected districts, shall have the authority to relocate the boundary lines between the fire districts.
4. In the case of adjoining fire districts having a different rate of tax for fire protection, the board of county commissioners, upon petition of 2/3 of the owners of the territory involved and after receiving a favorable recommendation of the fire protection commissioners and the boards of directors of the corporations furnishing fire protection in the affected districts, may transfer the territory from one district to another, and therefore relocate the boundary lines between the fire districts.

5. The area of a district may be increased by adding adjoining territory lying within the corporate limits of the city if the territory is not already included within a district. Both the city governing body and the county commissioners of the county in which the district is located must all agree by resolution to the inclusion.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 1613 changes the boundaries of the Harrison and Hartsease fire tax districts, without having to meet the requirements of G.S. 69-25.11(4) set out above. As a result of this boundary change, some people who are currently taxed and receive fire protection service in the Hartsease district would be taxed and receive fire protection service in the Harrison fire tax district. According to the Harrison Fire Chief, the tax rate in the Harrison fire district is lower than the tax rate in the Hartsease fire district, so the people affected by the boundary change will experience a tax decrease for their fire protection. According to the Hartsease Fire Chief, his district will lose approximately $1,200-$1,300 in revenue for FY 2002-2003 as a result of the boundary change.

BACKGROUND: The Harrison and Hartsease fire districts are adjoining fire districts. Prior to 1995, the Harrison and Hartsease fire districts each provided fire protection for an area covering approximately 5 to 6 miles. Then in 1995, the General Assembly enacted legislation that altered the boundaries by expanding the Hartsease fire district and reducing the Harrison fire district. House Bill 1613 will restore the boundaries to the way they were prior to the 1995 legislation.

Exemptions from or modifications to the statutory requirements for changing fire tax district boundaries have been given to the following counties:

- Orange County (S.L. 1957-302)
- Durham County (S.L. 1967-791)
- Bladen County (S.L. 1985-256)
- Wake County (S.L. 1985-256)
- Henderson County (S.L. 2000-4)
- Haywood County (S.L. 2001-56)

HOUSE BILL 1578

Short Title:	Remove Scrap Tire Tax Sunset.	(Public)
Sponsors:	Representative Gibson.

June 6, 2002

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO REMOVE THE SUNSET ON THE SCRAP TIRE DISPOSAL TAX.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Section 9 of Chapter 548 of the 1993 Session Laws, as amended by Chapter 209 of the 1997 Session Laws, reads as rewritten:

"Sec. 9. Section 4 of this act becomes effective January 1, 1994. Section 8 of this act becomes effective June 30, 1997. All other sections of this act become effective October 1,1993. ~~Section 1 of this act expires June 30, 2002.~~ Section 7 of this act expires June 30, 1995. ~~The expiration of the additional tax imposed by Section 1 of this act does not affect the rights or liabilities of the State, a taxpayer, or another person that arise during the time the additional tax is in effect.~~ The first quarterly report required by G.S. 130A-309.63(e), as enacted by this act, is due within 60 days after the quarter that ends on December 31, 1993."

SECTION 2. This act is effective when it becomes law.

HOUSE BILL 1578:
Remove Scrap Tire Disposal Tax Sunset

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	House Finance	Introduced by:	Rep. Gibson
Date:	June 18, 2002	Summary by:	Martha Walston*
Version:	1st Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 1578 would remove the sunset from the Scrap Tire Disposal tax so that the 2% gross receipts tax would continue indefinitely on tires with a bead diameter of less than 20 inches.

CURRENT LAW: The scrap tire disposal tax was enacted in 1989 and applies to tires sold at retail and tires sold for placement on vehicles to be sold or leased at retail. In 1993, the tax rate on tires with a bead diameter of less than 20 inches was increased from 1% to 2%. Bead width is the width of the inside opening of the tire. Tires for cars, vans, and pick-up trucks have a bead width of less than 20 inches. The increased tax rate will expire on June 30, 2002. If the tax increase sunsets, the tax on tires with a bead width of less than 20 inches will revert back to 1%.

The scrap tire tax proceeds are distributed as follows: 27% to the Scrap Tire Disposal Account[1], 5% to the Solid Waste Management Trust Fund, and 68% to the counties on a per capita basis. Counties may use the proceeds of the scrap tire disposal tax distributed to them only for the disposal of scrap tires or for the abatement of nuisance tire collection sites. DENR may use up to 50% of the revenue in the Scrap Tire Disposal Account for grants to local governments to assist in the disposal of scrap tires and may use up to 40% of the amount in the Account for grants to encourage the use of processed scrap tire materials. The remaining funds in the Account may be used to clean up nuisance scrap tire collection sites if no other funds are available for that purpose. DENR must report to the Environmental Review Commission each year on the balances in the Account and the use of the money in the Account.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 1578 would repeal the June 30, 2002, sunset; thus making permanent the current 2% tax rate on tires with a bead diameter of less than 20 inches.

The Environmental Review Commission recommended the repeal of the sunset to the 2001 Session, and again this year. Senate Bill 972, introduced last session by Senator Odom, would also repeal the June 30, 2002 sunset. SB 972 received a favorable report last year from the Committee on Agriculture, Environment, and Natural Resources and is currently in Senate Finance.

*Cindy Avrette, staff attorney, contributed substantially to this summary.

[1] Section 2.2(j) of the Current Operations and Capital Improvement Appropriations Act of 2001 provided that the net proceeds of the Scrap Tire Disposal tax collected in 2001-02 would be credited to the General Fund instead of the Scrap Tire Disposal Account.

POSITIONS: See Expenditures under Assumptions and Methodology

PRINCIPAL DEPARTMENT(S) & PROGRAM(S) AFFECTED: Department of Environment and Natural Resources, Department of Revenue, County Governments.

EFFECTIVE DATE: When it becomes law.

BILL SUMMARY: The bill amends the scrap tire management laws of the state. The bill removes the June 30, 2002, expiration date for the sales tax imposed on new tires sold in North Carolina.

ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGY: Under existing law, the scrap tire disposal tax is based on the bead diameter of the new tire sold or purchased. The tax is 2% of the sales price for a tire with a bead diameter of less than 20 inches and 1% for a tire with a bead diameter of at least 20 inches. Under current law, the tax reverts to 1% on all tires as of June 30, 2002. The bill removes the sunset on the current tax structure, thus keeping the 2% and 1% rates.

Since the 2% tax rate for smaller tires would have been reduced to 1% on June 30, 2002, passage of this bill will increase tax revenue beginning in FY 2002-03. In FY 1999-00, the 2% tax generated $9.1 million or 87% of the $10.5 million total revenue collected. Since 1996, tax revenue has grown approximately 5% a year. The chart below uses a 5% annual growth rate and divides the revenue between the 2% (87%) and 1% (13%) tax rates. The first column on the chart below shows the total amount of revenue generated. The amount in the far right column of the chart below shows the additional revenue generated by removing the sunset (i.e., keeping the 2% tax instead of reducing it to 1%).

	Projected Revenue	Less Than 20 inches 2%	At Least 20 inches 1%	Less Than 20 inches 1%
FY 02-03	$12,303,706	$10,704,224	$1,599,482	$5,352,112
FY 03-04	12,918,891	11,239,435	1,679,456	5,619,718
FY 04-05	13,564,836	11,801,407	1,763,429	5,900,704
FY 05-06	14,243,078	12,391,478	1,851,600	6,195,739
FY 06-07	14,955,232	13,011,052	1,944,180	6,505,526

The allocation of the Scrap Tire Disposal Tax is set out in GS 105-187.19. Before distributing any of the tax proceeds, the Department of Revenue is allowed to retain up to $225,000 a year for the administrative expenses related to cost of collection of the taxes. The Secretary of Revenue then distributes the net tax proceeds on a quarterly basis as follows:

1. Five percent to the Solid Waste Management Trust Fund administered by the Department of Environment and Natural Resources (DENR), for waste management grants and technical assistance programs.
2. Twenty-seven percent to the Scrap Tire Disposal Account, administered by DENR, for grants to local governments to assist in disposing of scrap tires, for grants to encourage the use of processed scrap tire materials and for the clean up of nuisance scrap tire collection sites.
3. The remaining 68 percent is distributed among the counties on a per capita basis to fund local tire disposal programs.

Since the 2% tax rate for smaller tires would have been reduced to 1% on June 30, 2002, passage of this bill will increase the revenue beginning in FY 2002-03. This increase in tax proceeds would be allocated and expended according to statute. The chart below shows how much each of the beneficiaries listed above would receive.

Fiscal Year	Solid Waste	Scrap Tire	Counties
2002-03	$267,606	$1,445,070	$3,639,436
2003-04	280,986	1,517,324	3,821,408
2004-05	295,035	1,593,190	4,012,479

HOUSE BILL 1482:
Saluda Deannexation

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	House Finance	Sponsor:	Rep. Justus
Date:	June 17, 2002	Analysis by:	Martha Walston Committee Counsel
Version:	1st Edition

SUMMARY: House Bill 1482 is a local bill that removes a described area, containing 40.34 acres from the corporate limits of Saluda in Polk County. The bill becomes effective June 30, 2002. Senate Bill 1119, introduced by Senator Carpenter, is the companion bill.

BILL ANALYSIS

The described property was annexed by ordinance on December 5, 1988. Preliminary engineering revealed that the City of Saluda could not afford to fund the extension of city water and sewer service to the tract. On May 7, 2001, the Board of Commissioners voted to support the owners' request that the tract be de-annexed from the City. All owners of the tract have certified in writing that they desire that the tract be de-annexed.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO ANNEX DESCRIBED PROPERTY TO THE CORPORATE LIMITS OF THE TOWN OF FARMVILLE.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. The corporate limits of the Town of Farmville are extended to include the following described area:

BEING a parcel of land in Farmville Township, Pitt County, North Carolina and being bounded on the north by JBL Investors, on the east by Pitt-Greene EMC, on the south and west by Charter Oaks Section 2 and being more particularly described as follows:

Commencing at a concrete monument, North Carolina Geodetic Survey Station "City Limit" (x=2,417,289.209 feet y = 680,459.294 feet, North Carolina Coordinate System, North American Datum of 1927) and running thence S 21-56-54 E 1199.58 feet to an existing concrete monument in the north line of Carolina Power and Light Company and in the existing Town of Farmville Corporate Limit line; the point of beginning; thence from said beginning point along the existing Town of Farmville Corporate Limit line S 17-26-45 E 13.07 feet to an existing iron pipe in the existing Town of Farmville Corporate Limit line; thence along the existing Town of Farmville Corporate Limit line S 12-36-32 W 249.79 feet to an existing iron pipe in the existing Town of Farmville Corporate Limit line; thence along the existing Town of Farmville Corporate Limit line S 77-23-01 E 28.23 feet to a point; thence along the existing Town Farmville Corporate limit line S 12-39-16 W 130.59 feet to an existing iron pipe, the northeastern corner of Charter Oaks Section 2 subdivision; thence along the Town of Farmville Corporate Limit line and along the northern line of Charter Oaks Section 2 subdivision N 77-28-44 W 330.47 feet to an iron pipe in the existing Town of Farmville Corporate Limit line and Charter Oaks Section 2 subdivision; thence continuing along the existing Town of Farmville Corporate Limit line and Charter Oaks Section 2 subdivision line N 12-38-42 E 266.44 feet to an existing iron pipe; thence leaving the existing Town of Farmville Corporate Limit line with the western line of Carolina

Power & Light Company and the JBL Investors tract N 12-38-42 E 125.26 feet to an existing concrete monument at the northwestern corner of Carolina Power & Light Company tract; thence along the northern line of Carolina Power & Light Company and JBL Investors S 77-29-21 E 295.55 feet to the point of beginning, containing 2.80 acres according to a map by McDavid Associates, Inc. entitled "Annexation Plat for Town of Farmville being the CP&L Substation Tract Deed Book K-26 page 57" dated January 19, 2002.

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective June 30, 2002.

HOUSE BILL 1587:
Farmville Annexation

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	House Finance	Introduced by:	Rep. Warren
Date:	June 19, 2002	Summary by:	Trina Griffin
Version:	1st Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 1587 is a local bill that annexes certain property containing a Carolina Power and Light substation to the corporate limits of the Town of Farmville without the town having to meet the statutory requirements for annexation. The act becomes effective June 30, 2002.

CURRENT LAW: Annexation is one method that a town may employ to extend its corporate limits, and the process must be done in accordance with Article 4A of Chapter 160A. Annexation may be either voluntary or involuntary. A voluntary annexation requires that the governing board of a municipality pass an ordinance upon presentation of a petition signed by the owners of all real property within the area to be annexed. An involuntary annexation requires, among other things, that the property meet certain characteristics:

- The area proposed to be annexed must be adjacent or contiguous to the municipality's boundaries;
- At least 1/8 of the aggregate external boundaries of the area must coincide with the municipal boundary; and
- No part of the area may be included within the boundary of another incorporated municipality.

In addition to the requirements concerning location of the area in relation to the municipality's existing boundaries, the area must also be "developed for urban purposes" by meeting one of several standards concerning population, density, and development.

If the property does not meet the statutory requirements for annexation, the municipality does not have the authority to annex the area. However, the General Assembly can extend the corporate limits of a municipality to encompass areas that the municipality would not statutorily have the authority to annex.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 1587 would annex a one-half acre tract of land containing a Carolina Power and Light substation to the corporate limits of the Town of Farmville without the town having to meet the statutory requirements for annexation. This tract of land does not qualify for involuntary annexation because the area to be annexed would not meet the statutory requirement that it be developed for urban development.

BACKGROUND: Farmville has recently completed three voluntary annexations of land surrounding the CP&L substation, and the city is in the process of completing a fourth annexation. Once the fourth annexation is complete, the property containing the CP&L substation will be completely surrounded by city property. Farmville is seeking to close this "hole" by annexing this tract of land as well.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO MODIFY THE BUSINESS OPERATIONS OF THE HOSIERY TECHNOLOGY CENTER AT CATAWBA VALLEY COMMUNITY COLLEGE.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Hosiery Technology Center of Catawba Valley Community College may invoice and collect fees for the testing of hosiery products. The proceeds of these fees shall be retained by the Center and used for the operations of the Center.

Purchases made by the Center using these funds are not subject to the provisions of Article 3 of Chapter 143 of the General Statutes.

SECTION 2. This act is effective when it becomes law.

HOUSE BILL 1626:
Catawba Comm. College/Hosiery Tech. Center

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	House Finance	Sponsor:	Rep. Buchanan
Date:	June 17, 2002	Analysis by:	Martha Walston, Committee Counsel, and Kristine Leggett, fiscal analyst
Version:	1st Edition

SUMMARY: House Bill 1626 authorizes the Hosiery Technology Center of Catawba Community College to invoice and collect fees for the testing of hosiery products. The proceeds must be retained by the Center and used for the Center's operations. Purchases made by the Center using these funds are not subject to the State purchasing requirements and procedures set out in Article 3 of Chapter 143 of the General Statutes.

BACKGROUND: The Hosiery Technology Center at Catawba Valley Community College provides technical services to the hosiery manufacturers in North Carolina. These services include product testing, research and development, and training. Since January, the Center has collected fees for product testing. The fees cover the actual cost of testing, including staff hours, materials, and equipment. Currently the receipts collected by the Center go into the Catawba Valley's Institutional Fund account. HB 1626 would allow the Hosiery Center to retain receipts collected for product testing services and use them for operating expenses.

As part of the Community College budget, the Hosiery Technology Center receives an annual appropriation of $125,000 from the General Fund. For fiscal year 2001-2002, an additional $250,000 was allotted to the Center from the Employment Security Commission Training and Employment Account. No funds from this Account will be available for next year.

HB 1626 has no effect on General Fund revenues, and may offset the de facto reduction to the Center's operating funds resulting from the loss of the ESC funds.

MINUTES
HOUSE COMMITTEE ON FINANCE

June 26, 2002

The House Committee on Finance met on Wednesday, June 26, 2002, at 8:30 A.M. in Room 544 of the Legislative Office Building.

Representative Paul Luebke, Presiding Chair, called the meeting to order and the following members were present: Representatives Gordon Allen, Monroe Buchanan, and William Wainwright, Chairs; Representatives Dewey Hill and Mary Jarrell, Vice Chairs; Representatives Martha Alexander, Philip Baddour, John Blust, Russell Capps, Leslie Cox, Pete Cunningham, Michael Decker, Andrew Dedmon, Zeno Edwards, Pryor Gibson, Joe Hackney, Hugh Holliman, Bill Hurley, Daniel McComas, Eugene McCombs, Edwin McMahan, Mia Morris, Art Pope, John Rayfield, Edgar Starnes, Jennifer Weiss, Shelly Willingham, Constance Wilson, and Larry Womble. Staff members present were Martha Walston, Richard Bostic, and Canaan Huie. A Visitor Registration Sheet is attached and made a part of these minutes.

House Bill 1662, ROANOKE RAPIDS ANNEXATION, was before the committee for consideration.

Representative Jim Crawford, sponsor, explained the bill.

Representative Monroe Buchanan moved for the adoption of a committee substitute.

Representative Bill Hurley moved for a favorable report. Committee substitute passed with a favorable report, unfavorable as to original bill.

House Bill 1747, CHIROPRACTIC TECHNICIANS FEE, was explained by sponsor, Representative Phil Baddour.

An amendment to change the effective date was sent forth by Representative Gordon Allen who moved for adoption of the amendment. A vote was taken and the amendment was passed.

Vance Kinlaw, Attorney for the State Board of Chiropractic Examiners, spoke on and answered questions posed by Representative Jarrell regarding the venue for coursework and from Representative Decker about certification.

Representative Mary Jarrell moved that the amendment be rolled into a committee substitute and be given a favorable report. Committee substitute passed with a favorable vote, unfavorable as to original bill.

Before proceeding, Chairman Luebke introduced the pages and Sergeants-at-Arms. Pages were Kristen Lovin, Cabarrus County; Blair Stowe, Beaufort County; David Clark, Rockingham County, and Derek Scott, Wake County. Sergeants-at-Arms were Dusty Rhodes, Bob Samuels, Walter Spell, and Bill Freeman.

House Bill 1520, EXTEND QUALIFIED BUSINESS VENTURE TAX CREDIT, after having been heard at meetings on June 12th and June 13th, was again before the committee for consideration.

Representative Monroe Buchanan moved for the adoption of a committee substitute.

Representative Gordon Allen, sponsor, in explaining the bill, also reported that the bill had been heard at earlier meetings, but had been postponed.

Canaan Huie, Staff Attorney, explained the committee substitute.

Kent Christison, partner with Kennedy, Covington and acting general counsel with MCNC, answered questions posed by Representative Art Pope.

Representative Allen advised that TDA (Technological Development Authority) has been removed from the bill.

Representative Starnes questioned staff on the subject of potential constitutional problems and Canaan Huie confirmed that it satisfies that issue.

Representative Decker asked Martha Walston for a report of the number of grants from the six organizations from the past three years. A handout was submitted providing names of entities that have been asked to provide the amount of grants they have given in the preceding three years and to whom. Richard Bostic, Fiscal Research, explained that, with respect to MCNC, there were no grantees eligible in the last three years.

Representative Buchanan moved to give the committee substitute a favorable report. The committee substitute was given a favorable vote, unfavorable as to the original bill.

House Bill 1609, DURHAM CITY INVESTMENTS, was before the committee for consideration.

Representative Martha Alexander sent forth a committee substitute and moved for adoption of the committee substitute.

Representative Paul Miller, bill sponsor, explained the bill.

Navdeep S. Gill, Finance Director for the City of Durham, spoke on the bill and supplied answers to questions from Representative Holliman about who would decide where the monies are invested; from Representative Weiss concerning commissions from churning of funds, and from Representative McComas regarding fund fees.

Representative William Wainwright moved that the committee substitute be given a favorable report. It was voted on and given a favorable vote, unfavorable as to original bill.

There being no further business, the Chair adjourned the meeting at 9:40 A.M. to reconvene Wednesday, July 3, 2002.

Respectfully submitted,

Representative Paul Luebke
Presiding Chair

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO EXTEND THE SUNSET ON TAX CREDITS FOR QUALIFIED BUSINESS INVESTMENTS AND TO AMEND THE DEFINITION OF QUALIFIED GRANTEE BUSINESS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Section 7 of Chapter 443 of the 1993 Session Laws, as amended by Section 29A.15 of S.L. 1998-212, is repealed.

SECTION 2. Section 10 of Chapter 443 of the 1993 Session Laws, as amended by Section 29A.15 of S.L. 1998-212, reads as rewritten:

"Sec. 10. Section 6 of this act is effective upon ratification. ~~Section 7 of this act becomes effective for investments made on or after January 1, 2003.~~ The remainder of this act becomes effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1994.

A business registered as a qualified business venture or a qualified grantee business before January 1, 1994, retains its registration until the renewal date for the registration of that business under Part 5 of Article 4 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes as in effect before January 1, 1994. The Secretary of State shall not grant renewal of a registration as a qualified business venture or a qualified grantee business unless at the time of filing the renewal application, the business meets the requirements then in effect for a new registration.

Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 105-163.014(a), as amended by this act, a credit under Part 5 of Article 4 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes for an investment made before January 1, 1994, is not forfeited solely on the grounds that a sibling of the taxpayer provides services for compensation to the business in which the taxpayer invested.

Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 105-163.014(d), as amended by this act, a credit under Part 5 of Article 4 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes for an investment made before January 1, 1994, is not forfeited solely on the grounds that a redemption of the securities received in the investment is made within five years after the investment was made.

The Secretary of State may require a qualified business venture or a qualified grantee business that is unable to renew its registration after January 1, 1994, to file reports the Secretary of State considers appropriate to determine the location of the headquarters and principal business operations of the business until three years after the date of the last investment in the business that qualified for the tax credit allowed under Part 5 of Article 4 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes."

SECTION 3. G.S. 105-163.010(9) reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-163.010. Definitions.

The following definitions apply in this Part:

(9) Qualified grantee business. – A business that (i) ~~has received during the preceding three years a grant or other funding from the North Carolina Technological Development Authority, the North Carolina Technological Development Authority, Inc., North Carolina First Flight, Inc., the North Carolina Biotechnology Center, the Microelectronics Center of North Carolina, the Kenan Institute for Engineering, Technology and Science, or the Federal Small Business Innovation Research Program, and (ii)~~ is registered with the Secretary of State under G.S. ~~105-163.013.~~105-163.013, and (ii) has received during the preceding three years a grant or other funding from a federal agency under the Small Business Innovation Research Program administered by the United States Small Business Administration or from an organization that meets any of the following qualifications:

a. It is a domestic or foreign corporation that (i) is tax-exempt pursuant to section 501(c)(3) of the Code, (ii) has as its principal purpose the stimulation of the development of the biotechnology industry, and (iii) in furtherance of that purpose has received, or is a successor in interest to an organization that has received, direct appropriations from the State in at least three fiscal years..

b. It is a domestic or foreign corporation that (i) is tax-exempt pursuant to section 501(c)(3) of the Code, (ii) has as its principal purpose the stimulation of the development of the microelectronics and communication industries, and (iii) in furtherance of that purpose has received, or is a successor in interest to an organization that has received, direct appropriations from the State in at least three fiscal years.

c. It is an institute that (i) is administratively located within a constituent institution of The University of North Carolina, (ii) is financed in part by a domestic or foreign corporation that is tax-exempt pursuant to section 501(c)(3) of the Code, (iii) has as a principal purpose the stimulation of economic development based on the advancement of science, engineering, and technology, and (iv) funds, either directly or in collaboration with other entities, small businesses engaging in developing technology."

SECTION 4. G.S. 105-163.013(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) Qualified Grantee Businesses. - In order to qualify as a qualified grantee business under this Part, a business must be registered with the Securities Division of the Department of the Secretary of State. To register, the business must file with the Secretary of State an application and any supporting documents the Secretary of State may require from time to time to determine that the business meets the requirements for registration as a qualified grantee business. ~~A business meets the requirements for registration as a qualified grantee business if it has received during the preceding three years a grant or other funding from the North Carolina Technological Development Authority, the North Carolina Technological Development Authority, Inc., North Carolina First Flight, Inc., the North Carolina Biotechnology Center, the Microelectronics Center of North Carolina, the Kenan Institute for Engineering, Technology and Science, or the Federal Small Business Innovation Research Program.~~The requirements for registration as a qualified grantee business are set out in G.S. 105-163.010(9).

The effective date of registration for a qualified grantee business whose application is accepted for registration is the filing date of its application. No credit is allowed under this Part for an investment made before the effective date of the registration or after the registration is revoked.

To remain qualified as a qualified grantee business, the business must renew its registration annually as prescribed by rule by filing an application for renewal in which the business certifies the facts listed in this subsection."

SECTION 5. Part 5 of Article 4 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 105-163.015. Sunset.

This Part is repealed effective for investments made on or after January 1, 2004."

SECTION 6. Sections 3 and 4 of this act become effective January 1, 2003. Notwithstanding the amendments to G.S. 105-163.010 and G.S. 105-163.013 in Sections 3 and 4 of this act, a business to which a grant or other funding was committed before January 1, 2003, by the North Carolina Technological Development Authority, the North Carolina Technological Development Authority, Inc., North Carolina First Flight, Inc., the North Carolina Biotechnology Center, the Microelectronics Center of North Carolina, the Kenan Institute for Engineering, Technology and Science, or the Federal Small Business Innovation Research Program may still qualify as a qualified grantee business under the provisions of G.S. 105-163.010 and G.S. 105-163.013 as they existed before the enactment of this act. The remainder of this act is effective when it becomes law.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO EXTEND THE SUNSET ON TAX CREDITS FOR QUALIFIED BUSINESS INVESTMENTS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Section 7 of Chapter 443 of the 1993 Session Laws, as amended by Section 29A.15 of S.L. 1998-212, is repealed.

SECTION 2. Section 10 of Chapter 443 of the 1993 Session Laws, as amended by Section 29A.15 of S.L. 1998-212, reads as rewritten:

"Sec. 10. Section 6 of this act is effective upon ratification. ~~Section 7 of this act becomes effective for investments made on or after January 1, 2003.~~ The remainder of this act becomes effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1994.

A business registered as a qualified business venture or a qualified grantee business before January 1, 1994, retains its registration until the renewal date for the registration of that business under Part 5 of Article 4 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes as in effect before January 1, 1994. The Secretary of State shall not grant renewal of a registration as a qualified business venture or a qualified grantee business unless at the time of filing the renewal application, the business meets the requirements then in effect for a new registration.

Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 105-163.014(a), as amended by this act, a credit under Part 5 of Article 4 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes for an investment made before January 1, 1994, is not forfeited solely on the grounds that a sibling of the taxpayer provides services for compensation to the business in which the taxpayer invested.

Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 105-163.014(d), as amended by this act, a credit under Part 5 of Article 4 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes for an investment made before January 1, 1994, is not forfeited solely on the grounds that a redemption of the securities received in the investment is made within five years after the investment was made.

The Secretary of State may require a qualified business venture or a qualified grantee business that is unable to renew its registration after January 1, 1994, to file reports the Secretary of State considers appropriate to determine the location of the headquarters and principal business operations of the business until three years after the date of the last investment in the business that qualified for the tax credit allowed under Part 5 of Article 4 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes."

SECTION 3. Part 5 of Article 4 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 105-163.015. Sunset.

This Article is repealed effective for investments made on or after January 1, 2004."

SECTION 4. This act is effective when it becomes law.

HB 1520
Extend Qualified Business Venture Tax Credit

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	House Finance	Sponsor:	Rep. Allen
Date:	June 26, 2002	Analysis by:	Y. Canaan Huie

SUMMARY: This bill extends the sunset for the tax credit for qualified business investments for one year. Without this bill, that tax credit would expire for investments made on or after January 1, 2003. This bill is effective when it becomes law. The PCS makes a technical change.

ANALYSIS: The qualified business investment tax credit was enacted in August 1987 to promote economic development for North Carolina businesses. The initial credits applied to both corporations and individuals taxpayers, and there was a $12 million cap on the total amount of all tax credits. In response to a 1996 United States Supreme Court decision in Fulton Corp. v. Faulkner, the General Assembly reduced the $12 million cap to $6 million, limited the credit to individuals and small pass-through entities, and removed the requirement that the qualified businesses be headquartered or operating in North Carolina. The credit was to expire for investments made on or after January 1, 1999. In 1998, as part of the appropriations bill, the credit was extended for four additional years until January 1, 2003. This bill would extend that sunset for one additional year.

The credit is allowed for an individual taxpayer who purchases the equity securities or subordinated debt of a qualified business venture or a qualified grantee business directly from that business. The credit is equal to 25% of the amount invested and may not exceed $50,000 per individual in a single taxable year. An individual investor may also claim the allocable share of credits obtained by "pass-through entities" of which the investor is an owner. Pass-through entities include limited partnerships, general partnerships, S corporations, and limited liability companies. The credit may not be taken in the year the investment is made. Instead, the credit is taken in the year following the calendar year in which the investment was made, but only if the taxpayer filed an application with the Secretary of State. The unused credit may be carried forward for the next five years. The total amount of credits allowed to all taxpayers for investments made in a calendar year may not exceed $6 million. The Secretary of Revenue calculates the total amount of tax credits claimed from applications filed with the Secretary of State. If the amount exceeds the cap, then the Secretary allows a portion of the tax credits claimed by allocating the total of $6 million in tax credits in proportion to the size of the credit claimed by each taxpayer. In general, a taxpayer forfeits the credit if the taxpayer transfers the securities within one year or the qualified business redeems the securities purchased by the taxpayer within five years after the investment was made.[1]

Under the 1996 Fulton case, the original credit provisions clearly violated the interstate commerce clause of the federal constitution because they reduced a taxpayer's tax liability by an amount equal to 25% of the cost of purchasing stock in either a North Carolina business or an investment company whose purpose is to invest in North Carolina businesses, while no tax reduction was allowed for purchasing similar stock

[1] There are two exceptions to this forfeiture provision. First, if the transfer occurs as a result of the death of the taxpayer, the liquidation of the taxpayer, or certain reorganizations of the qualified business, within the one-year period, the transfer does not require forfeiture. Second, the 1998 legislation created an exception to this forfeiture provision for projects in the film industry. It is unusual for a project in that industry in which a person might invest to last for more than 5 years.

in out-of-state businesses or investment companies whose purpose is to invest in businesses that may not be North Carolina businesses. In response to the Fulton case, the Revenue Laws Study Committee discussed this credit along with several others, at great length. The original proposal of the Committee was to repeal all qualified business investment credits, effective January 1, 1997. In response to appeals to the Committee and to the General Assembly, the credit was expanded to include investments in businesses located both inside and outside North Carolina, but was no longer allowed for investments in investment companies and was limited to investments made by individuals and small pass-through entities under the theory that these investors are not likely to invest outside of a 50-mile radius of their home.

There was a constitutional concern with the provision of the credit regarding "qualified grantee businesses". In order to be a business in which investments are eligible for a credit, the business must be either a "qualified business venture" or a "qualified grantee business". Both types of businesses must be registered with the Secretary of State. The definition of "qualified business venture" includes several general requirements related to the line of business, gross revenues of the business, and the organization date of the business. The definition of "qualified grantee business" currently includes a requirement that the business have received a grant or other funding in at least one of the three previous years from one of several named entities. One could argue that this provision violates the rule of uniformity since a credit is allowed only for investments in business that have received a grant from one of several specifically named organizations, and not for investments in similar businesses that have received grants from similar organizations. To address this issue, this PCS replaces the specific named entities with descriptions that would encompass the North Carolina Biotechnology Center, MCNC, and the Kenan Institute for Engineering, Technology, and Science. These descriptions would not encompass the Technological Development Authority. It is unknown if any other entity would qualify under these descriptions.

SHORT TITLE: Extend Qualified Business Venture Tax

EXPENDITURES POSITIONS:

PRINCIPAL DEPARTMENT(S) & PROGRAM(S) AFFECTED: Department of Revenue, Department of the Secretary of State

EFFECTIVE DATE: The act is effective when it becomes law.

BILL SUMMARY: The bill extends the individual income tax credit for Qualified Business investments from January 1, 2003, to January 1, 2004. The definition of Qualified Grantee Business is revised to replace specific named entities with general descriptions of entities that would encompass the North Carolina Biotechnology Center, MCNC, and the Kenan Institute for Engineering, Technology and Science. The new definition does not include the Technological Development Authority.

ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGY:
The amount of Qualified Business credits given each year is capped at $6 million. Requests for credits have exceeded the $6 million cap for four out of the last five years. In fact, the amount of credit requested ($19 million) in 2001 was approximately three times the amount of credit available. Given the recent investor interest in the credit program, it is likely that the $6 million annual cost of the program will continue until its sunset in 2004. The General Fund fiscal impact occurs in FY 2003-04 because the investments made in 2003 will be awarded credits on returns filed in the spring of 2004. Credit demand will not be affected by the exclusion of firms receiving grants from the Technological Development Authority. Most of these firms should qualify for the credit by applying for Qualified Business Venture status with the Secretary of State.

Referred to:

June 11, 2002

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT RELATING TO INVESTMENTS BY THE CITY OF DURHAM.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. The City of Durham, or any governing body, agency, person, corporation or other entity that contracts with the City for the investment, care or administration of monies held by the City in its fiduciary funds, may invest and reinvest monies in such funds in one or more of the types of securities or other investments as authorized by State law for the State Treasurer in G.S. 147-69.2.

SECTION 2. This act shall apply only to monies in the City's fiduciary funds. The City Council may adopt limitations on investment and reinvestments of monies in the City's fiduciary funds, provided that not more than fifty percent (50%) of the monies held in these funds may be invested in common or preferred stocks.

SECTION 3. This act, insofar as it authorizes certain investments, amends G.S. 159-30 with regard to the investment of the City of Durham fiduciary funds

SECTION 4. This act is effective when it becomes law.

HOUSE BILL 1609

Short Title:	Durham City Investments.	(Local)
Sponsors:	Representatives Miller; and Luebke.
Referred to:	Local Government I.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT RELATING TO INVESTMENTS BY THE CITY OF DURHAM.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. The City of Durham, or any governing body, agency, person, corporation or other entity that contracts with the City for the investment, care or administration of monies held by the City in the funds listed in Section 2 of this act, may invest and reinvest monies in such funds in one or more of the types of securities or other investments as authorized by State law for the State Treasurer in G.S. 147-69.2.

SECTION 2. This act shall apply only to the City's Enterprise, Capital Projects, Fiduciary and Internal Service funds. The City Council may adopt limitations on investment and reinvestments of monies in such funds, provided that not more than eighty percent (80%) of the monies held in any City Fiduciary funds, fifty percent (50%) of the monies held in any City Enterprise or Capital Project funds, and twenty-five percent (25%) of the monies held in any City Internal Service funds may be invested in common or preferred stocks.

SECTION 3. This act, insofar as it authorizes certain investments, amends G.S. 159-30 with regard to the investment of the funds listed in Section 2 of this act.

SECTION 4. This act is effective when it becomes law.

HOUSE BILL 1609:
Durham City Investments

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	House Finance	Sponsor:	Rep. Miller
Date:	June 25, 2002	Analysis by:	Martha Walston
Version:	H1609-CSLA-70		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: The proposed committee substitute for HB 1609 authorizes the City of Durham or any entity that contracts with the City for administration of the monies that are held in the City's fiduciary funds to invest these monies in the same manner that the State Treasurer may invest funds under G.S. 147-69.2. No more than 50% of monies in the fiduciary funds may be invested in common or preferred stocks. The bill is effective when it becomes law.

CURRENT LAW: Unless local legislation is enacted a unit of local government may invest funds only as set forth in the Local Government Budget and Fiscal Control Act. G.S. 159-30 authorizes local governments to invest the cash balance of any fund in the following: certificates of deposit and securities. Securities include obligations of the U.S., obligations of federal banks and other federal agencies, obligations of the State, bonds and notes of N.C. local government or public authority, savings certificates of a N.C. or federal savings and loan association, prime quality commercial paper, bills of exchange or time drafts drawn or accepted by a commercial bank, participating shares in a mutual fund for local government investment, certain commingled investment pools, and repurchase agreements with respect to U.S. obligations

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 1609 would expand the City of Durham's investment possibilities with respect to its fiduciary funds[1], provided that not more than 50% of the monies in these funds may be invested in common or preferred stocks. The City's fiduciary funds include a cemetery perpetual care fund and a transit trust fund. The City would be authorized to invest the idle monies in its fiduciary funds in the same manner as the law allows the State Treasurer to invest cash credited to special funds, the General Fund, and the Highway Fund. These investment options include those in G.S. 159-30 plus general obligations of other states; general obligations of cities, counties and special districts of North Carolina; asset-backed securities; preferred or common stock of duly incorporated companies, and obligations of any legal entity if the obligations bear high ratings.

The original version of HB 1609 would also have expanded the City's investment authority to the monies in its Enterprise Fund, Capital Projects Fund, and Internal Service Fund.

BACKGROUND: Similar legislation has been enacted previously for the following:

- Durham County (Community Health Trust Fund, S.L. 1999-101)
- Forsyth County (Community Health Special Reserve Fund, S.L. 98-44)

[1] Fiduciary funds are funds held by a local government in a fiduciary capacity, acting as trustees or agents for individuals, associations, or other governments.

- Pitt County (equity assets funds received from the transfer of Pitt County Memorial Hospital, S.L. 1999-48)
- City of Winston-Salem (Winston-Salem Police Officers Retirement Fund, employee benefits fund, risk reserve fund, Cemetery Perpetual Care Fund, Capital Reserves Fund, S.L. 98-36)

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. The following described property is added to the corporate limits of the City of Roanoke Rapids:

HOUSE BILL 1662:
Roanoke Rapids Annexation

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	House Finance	Sponsor:	Rep. J. Crawford and Allen
Version:	H1662-PCS7381-LA-69

SUMMARY: House bill 1662 is a local bill that annexes certain property to the corporate limits of the City of Roanoke Rapids in Halifax County. The proposed committee substitute contains a description of the property to be annexed. The act is effective when it becomes law.

CURRENT LAW: Annexation is one method that a city may employ to extend its corporate limits, and the process must be done in accordance with Article 4A of Chapter 160A of the General Statues. Annexation may be either voluntary or involuntary. A voluntary annexation requires that the governing board of a municipality pass an ordinance upon presentation of a petition signed by the owners of all real property within the area to be annexed. An involuntary annexation requires, among other things, that the property meet certain characteristics:

- The area proposed to be annexed must be adjacent or contiguous to the municipality's boundaries;
- At least 1/8 of the aggregate external boundaries of the area must coincide with the municipal boundary; and
- No part of the area may be included within the boundary of another incorporated municipality.

In addition to the requirements concerning location of the area in relation to the municipality's existing boundaries, the area must also be "developed for urban purposes" by meeting one of several standards concerning population, density, and development.

If the property does not meet the statutory requirements for annexation, the municipality does not have the authority to annex the area. However, the General Assembly can extend the corporate limits of a municipality to encompass areas that the municipality would not statutorily have the authority to annex.

BILL ANALYSIS: The Proposed Committee Substitute annexes the described property, containing 19.26 acres more or less, to the corporate limits of the City of Roanoke Rapids. This property contains all of Roanoke Square Subdivision Phase One and Roanoke Square Subdivision Phase Two.

HOUSE BILL 1747:
Chiropractic Technicians Fee

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	House Finance	Sponsor:	Rep. Baddour
Date:	June 25, 2002	Analysis by:	Martha Walston
Version:	1st Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 1747 authorizes the Board of Chiropractic Examiners to collect a fee of not more than $50 for the annual recertification of an employee of a chiropractor if that employee's duties include the production of diagnostic images (x-rays).

CURRENT LAW: The State Board of Chiropractic Examiners must certify the competence of any person employed by a licensed chiropractor practicing in the State if the employee's duties include the production of diagnostic images, by x-ray or other imaging technology. When applying for certification, the employee must demonstrate proficiency in the following subjects:

1. Physics and equipment of radiographic imaging;
2. Principles of radiographic exposure;
3. Radiographic protection;
4. Anatomy and physiology;
5. Radiographic positioning and procedure.

- completion of a Board-approved course in radiologic technology that is at least 50 hours in length and taught by an instructor who is a member of the radiology faculty at a college accredited by the Council on Chiropractic Education; and
- passage of a proficiency examination administered by or under the authority of the Board.

A person who is registered "active" with the American Chiropractic Registry of Radiologic Technologists is deemed to have satisfied the above educational requirements.

Each year the certificate of competency may be renewed upon a showing that the certificate holder completed six hours of Board-approved continuing education in radiologic technology during the year. Any person whose initial certificate expires less than 12 months after issuance is not required to obtain continuing education until entering the second year of certification.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 1747 authorizes the State Board of Chiropractic Examiners to impose a fee of not more than $50 for renewal of a certification of competence previously issued to an employee of a licensed NC chiropractor.

Current law requires a practicing chiropractor to pay an annual renewal license fee of not more than $150 and present evidence to the Board that the chiropractor has attended two days of approved continuing education during the preceding 12 months. The initial fee for licensure as chiropractor is $100.

PRINCIPAL DEPARTMENT(S) & PROGRAM(S) AFFECTED: North Carolina Board of Chiropractic Examiners

EFFECTIVE DATE: July 1, 2002

BILL SUMMARY: The North Carolina Board of Chiropractic Examiners (the Board) licenses individuals qualified to practice chiropractic, including physicians and technicians in the state. This bill relates only to chiropractic diagnostic imaging technicians (X-ray or other imaging technology technicians.) The Board ensures licensing requirements are met prior to certification, such as education and proficiency levels in basic X-ray, and monitors the annual requirement of six hours of continuing education. Currently, no tangible update occurs on the technicians' certificates. This legislation will help formalize the annual recertification process by requiring an annual recertification fee paid to the Secretary of the Board which shall not be more than fifty dollars ($50.) The fee is the only one that will be paid annually by technicians to maintain certification.

ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGY: All fees and revenues generated by the Board remain with the Board, thus the bill will have no fiscal impact on the General Fund. However, the legislation will have an impact on the revenues of the Board.

Because no formal update presently occurs each year, no exact number exists of practicing technicians in the state. The Board knows that there are 1,252 chiropractic doctors in North Carolina. However, not every doctor has a technician in his or her office. Based on the continuing education data it tracks, the Board estimates there are no more than 250-300 technicians in the state. Due to turnover and retraining, the total number is not expected to change over time.

The Board has not yet determined the annual recertification fee it will charge to technicians, but it did not believe it would charge greater than $20. The table below shows the estimated revenue at three different fee levels for 275 technician recertifications.

Fee	FY 2002-03 Revenue	FY 2003-04 Revenue	FY 2004-05 Revenue	FY 2005-06 Revenue	FY 2006-07 Revenue
$10	$2,750	$2,750	$2,750	$2,750	$2,750
$20	$5,500	$5,500	$5,500	$5,500	$5,500
$50	$13,750	$13,750	$13,750	$13,750	$13,750

SOURCES OF DATA: North Carolina Board of Chiropractic Examiners

TECHNICAL CONSIDERATIONS: The Board has not set an exact implementation date; however, they intend to use a calendar year timeframe with certificates being renewed in January.

July 3, 2002

The House Committee on Finance met on Wednesday, July 3, 2002, at 8:30 A.M., in Room 544 of the Legislative Office Building.

Rep. Gordon Allen, presiding Chair, called the meeting to order. The following members were present: Chairmen Monroe Buchanan, Paul Luebke, and William Wainwright; Vice-Chairs Dewey Hill and Mary Jarrell; and Representatives Martha Alexander, John Blust, Russell Capps, Leslie Cox, Paul Decker, Andy Dedmon, Zeno Edwards, Pryor Gibson, Lyons Gray, Jo Hackney, Hugh Holliman, Bill Hurley, Linda Johnson, Danny McComas, Eugene McCombs, Ed McMahan, Art Pope, John Rayfield, Edgar Starnes, Jennifer Weiss, Shelly Willingham, Connie Wilson, and Larry Womble. Staff in attendance included Trina Griffin, Mary Shuping, Martha Walston, Richard Bostic, and Linda Millsaps.

Chairman Allen thanked the Sergeant-at-Arms staff in attendance: Dusty Rhoades, Bob Fowler, Bill Freeman, and Walter Spell, and introduced the pages: Ricky Bennett from Wake County, David England from Cumberland County, Frances Tate from Haywood County, Kelly Hilton from Iredell County, and Ken Powell from Wake.

The following bills were considered:

HB 1525, A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO INCORPORATE THE TOWN OF RED CROSS. Rep. Goodwin, one of the sponsors along with Reps. Gibson and Barbee, explained the bill, which would incorporate the town of Red Cross and enact a charter to provide for its governance and to subject its residents to a municipal tax levied for the year beginning July 1, 2002. Upon motion of Rep. Buchanan, the Proposed Committee Substitute (PCS) was adopted for discussion. Rep. Gibson moved to give the PCS a favorable report, and an unfavorable report to the original bill. The motion carried. Copies of the PCS, Bill and Bill Summary are attached as part of these minutes.

HB 1684, A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO REMOVE CERTAIN DESCRIBED PROPERTY FROM THE CORPORATE LIMITS OF THE CITY OF THOMASVILLE. Reps. Holliman and Dockham, sponsors, explained that House Bill 1684 is a local bill that removes certain described property from the corporate limits of the City of Thomasville in Davidson County. Upon motion of Rep. Buchanan, the Proposed Committee Substitute (PCS) was adopted for discussion. Rep. Holliman explained that both the City and the residents of the area have agreed to the de-annexation and made a motion to give the PCS a favorable report, and an unfavorable report to the original bill. The motion carried. Copies of the PCS, Bill, and Bill Summary are attached as part of these minutes.,

HB 1629, A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT AUTHORIZING THE CITY OF THOMASVILLE TO CONVEY CERTAIN PROPERTY AT A PRIVATE SALE. Rep. Holliman explained that this is a local bill that authorizes the City of Thomasville in Davidson County to convey approximately 7.264 acres by private sale; with or without monetary consideration, to the Central United Methodist Church. Upon motion of Rep. Womble, the Committee voted for a favorable report. Copies of the Bill and Summary are attached.

HB 1690, A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO ANNEX CERTAIN DESCRIBED PROPERTY TO THE CORPORATE LIMITS OF THE TOWN OF CANDOR. Bill sponsor Rep. Gibson explained the bill annexes a 75-acre piece of undeveloped land currently owned by one property owner to the Town of Candor. Upon motion by Representative Buchanan, the Proposed Committee Substitute (PCS) was adopted for discussion. The proposed committee substitute would add a provision that would also annex a park owned by the Town of Norwood and a 100-acre residential tract surrounded by the city limits to the Town of Norwood. Representative Womble moved to give the PCS a favorable report, and an unfavorable report to the original bill. The motion carried. Copies of the PCS, Bill, and Bill Summary are attached as part of these minutes.

HB 1568, A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO AMEND THE SEDIMENTATION POLLUTION CONTROL ACT OF 1973, AS RECOMMENDED BY THE ENVIRONMENTAL REVIEW COMMISSION. Rep. Weiss was recognized to explain the bill. In response to questions, she reiterated that the bill was recommended by the Environmental Review Commission. Upon motion of Rep. Hill, the bill was given a favorable report. Copies of the Bill, Summary, and Fiscal Note are attached as part of these minutes.

SB 861, A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO INCREASE THE NUMBER OF QUALIFIED DENTAL PRACTITIONERS IN THE STATE BY AUTHORIZING THE BOARD OF DENTAL EXAMINERS TO LICENSE BY CREDENTIALS PERSONS WHO ARE LICENSED TO PRACTICE DENTISTRY OR DENTAL HYGIENE IN OTHER STATES AND WHO OTHERWISE MEET STATE REQUIREMENTS FOR LICENSE BY CREDENTIALS, TO ISSUE A LIMITED VOLUNTEER DENTAL LICENSE, TO ISSUE AN INSTRUCTOR'S LICENSE, AND TO IMPOSE APPLICATION AND RENEWAL FEES FOR LICENSURE AUTHORIZED UNDER THIS ACT. Senator Purcell explained the bill, and in reply to questions from Committee members, stated that the bill authorizes the N.C. Board of Dental Examiners to:

- Issue NC licenses to dentists and dental hygienists by credential review.
- Issue limited volunteer licenses to dentists to practice, without compensation, in non-profit health care facilities serving low-income populations.
- Issue instructor's licenses to dentists who practice in or on behalf of a dental school or academic medical center or teaching hospital.

- Impose fees in the amounts up to: 1) $2000 for a dental license issued by credentials; 2) $1000 for a dental hygiene license issued by credentials; and 3) $100.00 for a limited volunteer license.

Representative Jarrell offered two amendments that would make technical changes to the bill. Upon motion of Rep. Jarrell, the amendments were adopted.

In reply to questions from Committee members, Mr. William H. Potter, Jr., representing the NC Dental Society, and Mr. Eddie Caldwell, representing the NC Dental Hygienists, both stated that their groups supported the bill. Rep. Thomas Wright, Chair of the Health Committee, stated that the bill had approval of his committee.

Representative Womble moved to give the bill a favorable report with the amendments rolled in. Copies of the Amendments, Bill, Bill Summary, and Fiscal Note are attached as part of these minutes.

There being no further business, Chairman Allen adjourned the meeting at 9:15 A.M.

Respectfully submitted,

Representative Gordon P. Allen

"ARTICLE III. GOVERNING BODY.

"Section 3.1. Structure of Governing Body. The governing body of the Town of Red Cross shall be the Town Council, which shall have four members and the Mayor.

"Section 3.2. Temporary Officers. Until the initial elections of 2003 provided for by Section 4.1 of this Charter, C. J. Barbee, Heath Hahn, J. D. Hinson, Raeford Quick, and Larry Wayne Smith are hereby appointed to the Town Council of the Town of Red Cross. They shall possess and exercise the powers granted to the governing body until their successors are elected or appointed and qualified pursuant to this Charter. The temporary officers shall elect a person from among the members of the temporary governing body to serve as interim mayor. If any person named in this section is unable to serve, the remaining temporary officers shall, by majority vote, appoint a person to serve until the regular municipal elections are held in 2003.

"Section 3.3. Manner of Electing Town Council; Term of Office. The qualified voters of the entire Town shall elect the members of the Town Council and, except as provided in this section, they shall be elected to four-year terms. In 2003, the two candidates receiving the highest number of votes shall be elected to four-year terms and the two candidates receiving the next highest number of votes shall be elected to two-year terms. In 2005, and quadrennially thereafter, two members shall be elected to four-year terms.

"Section 3.4. Manner of Electing Mayor; Term of Office; Duties. The qualified voters of the entire Town shall elect the Mayor. In 2003, and quadrennially thereafter, the Mayor shall be elected for a term of four years.

"Section 3.5. Residence of Governing Body Members. All members of the governing body of the Town of Red Cross, whether elected or appointed, must be qualified voters who reside within the corporate limits of the Town of Red Cross in order to qualify to take, hold, and continue in any such office.

"ARTICLE IV. ELECTIONS.

"Section 4.1. Conduct of Town Elections. Elections shall be conducted on a nonpartisan basis and results determined by a plurality as provided in G.S. 163-292.

"ARTICLE V. ADMINISTRATION.

"Section 5.1. Town to Operate Under Mayor-Council Plan. The Town of Red Cross will operate under the Mayor-Council form of government as provided in Part 3 of Article 7 of Chapter 160A of the General Statutes."

SECTION 2. From and after the effective date of this act, the citizens and property in the Town of Red Cross shall be subject to municipal taxes levied for the year beginning July 1, 2002, and for that purpose, the Town shall obtain from Stanly County a record of property in the area incorporated in Section 1 of this act that was listed for taxes as of January 1, 2002. The Town may adopt a budget ordinance for fiscal year 2002-2003 without following the timetable in the Local Government Budget and Fiscal Control Act, but shall follow the sequence of actions in the spirit of the act insofar as is practical. For fiscal year 2002-2003, ad valorem taxes may be paid at par or face amount within 90 days of adoption of the budget ordinance and thereafter in accordance with the schedule in G.S. 105-360. If the effective date of incorporation is prior to July 1, 2002, the Town may adopt a budget ordinance for fiscal year 2001-2002 without following the timetable in the Local Government Budget and Fiscal Control Act, but shall follow the sequence of actions in the spirit of the act insofar as is practical.

SECTION 3. This act is effective when it becomes law.

"ARTICLE III. GOVERNING BODY.

"Section 3.1. Structure of Governing Body. The governing body of the Town of Red Cross shall be the Town Council, which shall have four members and the Mayor.

"Section 3.2. Temporary Officers. Until the initial elections of 2003 provided for by Section 4.1 of this Charter, C. J. Barbee, Heath Hahn, J. D. Hinson, Raeford Quick, and Larry Wayne Smith are hereby appointed to the Town Council of the Town of Red Cross. They shall possess and exercise the powers granted to the governing body until their successors are elected or appointed and qualified pursuant to this Charter. The temporary officers shall elect a person from among the members of the temporary governing body to serve as interim mayor. If any person named in this section is unable to serve, the remaining temporary officers shall, by majority vote, appoint a person to serve until the regular municipal elections are held in 2003.

"Section 3.3. Manner of Electing Town Council; Term of Office. The qualified voters of the entire Town shall elect the members of the Town Council and, except as provided in this section, they shall be elected to four-year terms. In 2003, the two candidates receiving the highest number of votes shall be elected to four-year terms and the two candidates receiving the next highest number of votes shall be elected to two-year terms. In 2005, and quadrennially thereafter, two members shall be elected to four-year terms.

"Section 3.4. Manner of Electing Mayor; Term of Office; Duties. The qualified voters of the entire Town shall elect the Mayor. In 2003, and quadrennially thereafter, the Mayor shall be elected for a term of four years.

"Section 3.5. Residence of Governing Body Members. All members of the governing body of the Town of Red Cross, whether elected or appointed, must be qualified voters who reside within the corporate limits of the Town of Red Cross in order to qualify to take, hold, and continue in any such office.

"ARTICLE IV. ELECTIONS.

"Section 4.1. Conduct of Town Elections. Elections shall be conducted on a nonpartisan basis and results determined by a plurality as provided in G.S. 163-292.

"ARTICLE V. ADMINISTRATION.

"Section 5.1. Village to Operate Under Mayor-Council Plan. The Town of Red Cross will operate under the Mayor-Council form of government as provided in Part 3 of Article 7 of Chapter 160A of the General Statutes."

SECTION 2. From and after the effective date of this act, the citizens and property in the Town of Red Cross shall be subject to municipal taxes levied for the year beginning July 1, 2002, and for that purpose, the Town shall obtain from Stanly County a record of property in the area incorporated in Section 1 of this act that was listed for taxes as of January 1, 2002. The Town may adopt a budget ordinance for fiscal year 2002-2003 without following the timetable in the Local Government Budget and Fiscal Control Act, but shall follow the sequence of actions in the spirit of the act insofar as is practical. For fiscal year 2002-2003, ad valorem taxes may be paid at par or face amount within 90 days of adoption of the budget ordinance and thereafter in accordance with the schedule in G.S. 105-360. If the effective date of incorporation is prior to July 1, 2002, the Town may adopt a budget ordinance for fiscal year 2001-2002 without following the timetable in the Local Government Budget and Fiscal Control Act, but shall follow the sequence of actions in the spirit of the act insofar as is practical.

SECTION 3. This act is effective when it becomes law.

HOUSE BILL 1525:
Red Cross Charter

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	House Finance	Introduced by:	Representatives Barbee, Gibson, and Goodwin
Date:	July 3, 2002
Version:	PCS for 2nd Edition	Summary by:	Trina Griffin* Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: This bill would incorporate the town of Red Cross and enact a charter to provide for its governance and to subject its residents to a municipal tax levied for the year beginning July 1, 2002. The Joint Legislative Commission on Municipal Incorporations recommended incorporation in June 2002. The House Local Government II committee has given House Bill 1525 a favorable report.

The proposed committee substitute makes two technical changes: it revises the legal description and it changes the word "village" to the word "town" in Section 5.1 of the charter.

This act would be effective when it becomes law.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 would establish the Charter for the Town of Red Cross in Stanly County. The charter provides:

- A legal description of the property to be incorporated.
- For government by a four-member town council and mayor.
  - Appointment of named individuals in the bill as interim council members. These members shall choose an interim mayor. The interim mayor and council members shall serve until the 2003 municipal elections.
  - For municipal elections beginning in 2003, creating a staggered town council with all members being elected for four–year terms after staggering has been accomplished by the 2003 elections. Election of mayor for four-year terms beginning in 2003.
  - Qualification for serving as council member or mayor – qualified voter who resides within the town limits.
- For elections conducted on a nonpartisan basis determined by a plurality as provided in G.S. 163-292.
- For governmental operation under the Mayor-Council form of government as provided in Part 3 of Article 7 of Chapter 160A of General Statutes.

Section 2 would subject persons and property within the town to municipal taxes levied for the year beginning July 1, 2002 and each year following. Authorizes the town to adopt a budget for fiscal year 2003-2003 without following the timetable of the Local Government Budget and Fiscal Control Act. Provides that the town may adopt a budget for the fiscal year 2001-2002 without following the timetable of the Local Government Budget and Fiscal Control Act if the effective date of incorporation is before July 1, 2002. In deviating from the timetable, the town must follow the sequence of actions in the spirit of the act insofar as practical.

Fiscal Research Division Report on the Impact of Municipal Incorporations: Red Cross

1. Sales Tax Revenue Change:

Stanly County distributes sales tax revenues on a per capita basis. This analysis uses 2000-01 actual sales tax distribution to show how that distribution would have changed had Red Cross Creek been incorporated at that time.

2. Powell Bill Allocation Change

Annually state street aid or Powell Bill allocations are made to incorporated municipalities which establish their eligibility and qualify as provided by G.S. 136-41.1-.3. The amount allocated to each municipality is based on both population and qualifying street miles within the municipality.

FY 2001-02 population based allocations assumed a total, statewide municipal population of 4,086,685 and available funds of $101,578,822.46. This created a per capita distribution rate of $ 24.86.

Adding the new population of Red Cross (536) to the statewide total creates a new population of 4,087,221 and a per capita allocation of $24.853. The impact of this change on Stanly municipalities is as follows:

Municipalities	Population	Current Allocation	Prospective Allocation	Change
Albemarle	311	7,730	7,729	(1)
Badin	1,157	28,758	28,755	(4)
Locust	2,435	60,524	60,517	(7)
New London	614	15,262	15,260	(2)
Norwood	2,222	55,230	55,223	(7)
Oakboro	1,201	29,852	29,848	(4)
Richfield	516	12,826	12,824	(2)
Stanfield	1,116	27,739	27,736	(3)
Red Cross	536	-	13,321	13,321
TOTAL		237,922	251,214

3. Utility Excise Tax:

Of the 3.22% state excise tax rate on the in-state gross receipts of gas, power and light and telephone companies, 3.09 percentage points (or 96% of collections) are distributed to the respective municipalities within which these services took place. In 1998-99 the statewide total was $161.1 million.

Because Red Cross only incorporates new areas (areas not currently a part of another municipalities) no revenue shift is expected. Any revenue received by Swift Creek from this tax would be new or drawn from the NC General Fund.

4. Reimbursements:

Since 1979 the General Assembly has made several changes to tax law that impact local governments. The state's cities and counties have received reimbursements from the state for some of these losses, particularly as they relate to the sales and property tax bases. The state reimburses local governments for property tax losses related to the repeal of taxes on inventories and intangibles, as well as some of the losses associated with the homestead exemption. Locals also receive a reimbursement for sales taxes that are no longer paid on items purchased with food stamps. These reimbursements total to $333.4 million annually. When a new town incorporates some existing municipalities may see a small decline in their distributions, with a tiny amount redistributed to the new town. Fiscal Research is not in a position to estimate the exact impact of this change, although it should be minimal. These reimbursements to all communities will end June 30, 2003.

Note: Population numbers used for sales tax and Powell bill allocation vary due to the year of the estate used by the controlling agency.

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	House Finance	Sponsor:	Rep. Holliman & Dockham
Date:	July 2, 2002	Analysis by:	Martha Walston Committee Counsel
Version:	Proposed Committee Substitute

SUMMARY: House Bill 1684 is a local bill that removes certain described property from the corporate limits of the City of Thomasville in Davidson County. The proposed committee substitute corrects an error in the description set out in the First Edition of the Bill.

BILL ANALYSIS: The proposed committee substitute for House Bill 1684 removes certain described property containing 4.42 acres more or less from the City of Thomasville. According to the City Attorney, there is a wide creek that separates the property to be de-annexed from the other recently annexed property in Thomasville. In order to service the area, an investment in infrastructure would be necessary, specifically the construction of a bridge across the creek. Both the City and the residents of the area to be de-annexed have agreed to the de-annexation.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT AUTHORIZING THE CITY OF THOMASVILLE TO CONVEY CERTAIN PROPERTY AT A PRIVATE SALE.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Notwithstanding Article 12 of Chapter 160A of the General Statutes, the City of Thomasville may convey by private negotiation and sale, with or without monetary consideration, any or all of its right, title, and interest in the following described property to the Central United Methodist Church of Thomasville under the terms and conditions that the City Council deem appropriate:

Lying and being in Thomasville Township, Davidson County, North Carolina, more particularly described as follows:

BEGINNING at a point in the south line of the property of the Central United Methodist Church as described in Deed Book 536 at Page 182, Davidson County Registry, the northwest corner of Tract 2 in the deed from Hi-Toms Broadcasting, Inc. to Radio Crusade Incorporated recorded in Deed Book 643 at Page 185, Davidson County Registry; said beginning point being located North 83° 17' 48" West 150.34 feet from an existing iron pipe at the southeast corner of the Central United Methodist Church property; thence from said beginning point along the south line of Central United Methodist Church North 83° 17' 48" West 150.40 feet to an existing iron pipe, corner with Thomasville Housing Authority; thence along the line of Thomasville Housing Authority North 83° 15' 39" West 344.39 feet to a new iron pipe; thence South 05° 36' 49" West 633.01 feet to a new iron pipe; thence South 86° 02' 37" East 525.14 feet to a point, the southwest corner of Tract 2 in the deed to Radio Crusade Incorporated recorded in Book 643, Page 185, Davidson County Register thence along the line of Radio Crusade incorporated North 02° 46' 08" East 608.9 feet to the point and place of Beginning, containing approximately 7.264 acres and being designated as Tract D on a survey by Davis-Martin-Powell & Associates, Inc. dated 6-4-85, Job No. S-21753.

SECTION 2. This act is effective when it becomes law.

HOUSE BILL 1629:
Thomasville Private Sale

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	House Finance	Sponsor:	Rep. Holliman & Dockham
Date:	July 1, 2002	Analysis by:	Martha Walston

SUMMARY: House Bill 1684 is a local bill that authorizes the City of Thomasville in Davidson County to convey certain described property by private sale to the Central United Methodist Church. The property to be conveyed contains approximately 7.264 acres.

CURRENT LAW: Article 12 of Chapter 160A of the General Statutes authorizes a city to dispose of real or personal property by private sale when certain requirements are met. A city may dispose of real property of any value and personal property valued at $30,000 or more for any one item or group of similar items by private negotiation and sale where (i) the real or personal property is significant for its architectural, archaeological, artistic, cultural or historical associations, or significant for its relationship to other property significant for architectural, archaeological, artistic, cultural or historical associations, or significant for its natural, scenic or open condition; and (ii) said real or personal property is to be sold to a nonprofit corporation or trust whose purposes include the preservation or conservation of real or personal properties of architectural, archaeological, artistic, cultural, historical, natural or scenic significance; and (iii) where a preservation agreement or conservation agreement is placed in the deed conveying the property from the city to the nonprofit corporation or trust.

Under G.S. 160A-267, when the city council proposes to dispose of property by private sale, it must adopt a resolution authorizing disposal of the property by private sale at a negotiated price. A notice summarizing the resolution must be published once after its adoption, and no sale may be held until 10 days after publication.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 1629 authorizes the City of Thomasville to convey 7.624 acres of specifically described property to the Central United Methodist Church of Thomasville by private negotiation and sale, with or without monetary consideration. The resolution reads:

> WHEREAS, the property was donated to the City of Thomasville and has not been utilized by the city; that access to the property by the City would be difficult; that the property serves no useful purpose to the City; that Central United Methodist Church is a vital part of the community; that the church is in need of additional land in order to expand their ministry to members and surrounding community; and that it would be in the best interests of both the city and the residents that a local bill be ratified allowing the City of Thomasville to enter into a private sale, in a manner substantially the same as that set forth in N.C.G.S. § 160A-267, of real estate to Central Untied Methodist Church of Thomasville.

HOUSE BILL 1690:
Candor/Norwood Annexation

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	House Finance	Introduced by:	Rep. Gibson
Date:	July 3, 2002	Summary by:	Trina Griffin
Version:	PCS for 1st Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 1690 annexes a 75-acre piece of undeveloped land currently owned by one property owner to the Town of Candor. The proposed committee substitute adds a provision that would also annex a park owned by the Town of Norwood and a 100-acre residential tract surrounded by the city limits to the Town of Norwood.

The act would be effective when it becomes law.

CURRENT LAW: Annexation is one method that a town may employ to extend its corporate limits, and the process must be done in accordance with Article 4A of Chapter 160A. Annexation may be either voluntary or involuntary. A voluntary annexation requires that the governing board of a municipality pass an ordinance upon presentation of a petition signed by the owners of all real property within the area to be annexed. An involuntary annexation requires, among other things, that the property meet certain characteristics:

- The area proposed to be annexed must be adjacent or contiguous to the municipality's boundaries;
- At least 1/8 of the aggregate external boundaries of the area must coincide with the municipal boundary; and
- No part of the area may be included within the boundary of another incorporated municipality.

In addition to the requirements concerning location of the area in relation to the municipality's existing boundaries, the area must also be "developed for urban purposes" by meeting one of several standards concerning population, density, and development.

If the property does not meet the statutory requirements for annexation, the municipality does not have the authority to annex the area. However, the General Assembly can extend the corporate limits of a municipality to encompass areas that the municipality would not statutorily have the authority to annex.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 of the bill would annex a 75-acre tract of undeveloped land, currently owned by one property owner, to the Town of Candor without the town having to meet the statutory requirements for annexation.

Section 2 of the bill would annex two separate areas to the Town of Norwood. The first area is the "Town Park Area" and consists of approximately 16 acres of land currently owned by the Town of Norwood. The second area is the "Anchor Road Area" and consists of approximately 100 acres of land with approximately 15 property owners. The Town is requesting annexation because the property does not meet the statutory requirements for annexation.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO AMEND THE SEDIMENTATION POLLUTION CONTROL ACT OF 1973, AS RECOMMENDED BY THE ENVIRONMENTAL REVIEW COMMISSION.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 113A-54.1 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(e) An approved erosion and sedimentation control plan shall contain a schedule for the inspection of the area covered by the plan after each phase of the plan has been completed and after establishment of temporary ground cover in accordance with G.S. 113A-57(2). The person submitting the erosion and sedimentation control plan or an agent of the person submitting the erosion and sedimentation control plan shall perform each inspection. The person who performs each inspection shall post a record of the inspection on the site of the land-disturbing activity. The record shall certify that the work has been completed in accordance with the approved erosion and sedimentation control plan and is being maintained in a manner that satisfies the requirements of this Article. The inspections required by this subsection shall be in addition to inspections required by G.S. 113A-61.1."

SECTION 2. G.S. 113A-54.2(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) The fee for the review of an erosion and sedimentation control plan and related compliance activities shall be one hundred fifty dollars ($150.00) per acre of disturbed land as shown on an erosion and sedimentation control plan or of land disturbed during the life of the project, whichever is greater. ~~The Commission may establish a fee schedule for the review and approval of erosion control plans under this Article. In establishing the fee schedule, the Commission shall consider the administrative and personnel costs incurred by the Department for reviewing the plans and for related compliance activities. An application fee may not exceed fifty dollars ($50.00) per acre of disturbed land shown on an erosion control plan or of land actually disturbed during the life of the project.~~"

SECTION 3. G.S. 113A-56 reads as rewritten:

"§ 113A-56. Jurisdiction of the Commission.

(a) The Commission shall have jurisdiction, to the exclusion of local governments, to adopt rules concerning land-disturbing activities that ~~are:~~ are any of the following:

(1) Conducted by the ~~State;~~ State.

(2) Conducted by the United ~~States;~~ States.

(3) Conducted by persons having the power of eminent ~~domain;~~ domain other than a local government.

~~(4) Conducted by local governments; or~~

(5) Funded in whole or in part by the State or the United States.

(b) The Commission may delegate the jurisdiction conferred by G.S. 113A-56(a), in whole or in part, to any other State agency that has submitted an erosion and sedimentation control program to be administered by it, if such program has been approved by the Commission as being in conformity with the general State program.

(c) The Commission shall have concurrent jurisdiction with local governments that have an approved erosion and sedimentation control program over all other land-disturbing activities. In addition to the authority granted to the Commission in G.S. 113A-60(c), the Commission has the following authority with respect to an approved erosion and sedimentation control program:

(1) To review an erosion and sedimentation control plan approved by an approved erosion and sedimentation control program and to require a revised plan if the Commission determines that the plan does not comply with the requirements of this Article or the rules adopted pursuant to this Article.

(2) To take inspection and enforcement action if the Commission determines that the local government has failed to take appropriate inspection or enforcement action."

SECTION 4. G.S. 113A-57 reads as rewritten:

"§ 113A-57. Mandatory standards for land-disturbing activity.

No land-disturbing activity subject to this Article shall be undertaken except in accordance with the following mandatory requirements:

(1) No land-disturbing activity during periods of construction or improvement to land shall be permitted in proximity to a lake or natural watercourse unless a buffer zone is provided along the margin of the watercourse of sufficient width to confine visible siltation within the twenty-five percent (25%) of the buffer zone nearest the land-disturbing activity. Waters that have been classified as trout waters by the Environmental Management Commission shall have an undisturbed buffer zone 25 feet wide or of sufficient width to confine visible siltation within the twenty-five percent (25%) of the buffer zone nearest the land-disturbing activity, whichever is greater. Provided, however, that the Sedimentation Control Commission may approve plans which include land-disturbing activity along trout waters when the duration of said disturbance would be temporary and the extent of said disturbance would be minimal. This subdivision shall not apply to a land-disturbing activity in connection with the construction of facilities to be located on, over, or under a lake or natural watercourse.

(2) The angle for graded slopes and fills shall be no greater than the angle ~~which~~ that can be retained by vegetative cover or other adequate erosion-control devices or structures. In any event, slopes left exposed will, within ~~15~~ 10 working days or ~~30~~ 21 calendar days of completion of any phase of grading, whichever period is shorter, be planted or otherwise provided with ground cover, devices, or structures sufficient to restrain erosion.

(3) Whenever land-disturbing activity is undertaken on a tract comprising more than one acre, if more than one acre is uncovered, the person conducting the land-disturbing activity shall install ~~such~~ erosion and sedimentation ~~and erosion~~ control devices and practices ~~as~~ that are sufficient to retain the sediment generated by the land-disturbing activity within the boundaries of the tract during construction upon and development of said tract, and shall plant or otherwise provide a permanent ground cover sufficient to restrain erosion after completion of construction or development within a time period to be specified by rule of the Commission.

(4) No person shall initiate any land-disturbing activity that will disturb more than one acre on a tract ~~if more than one acre is to be uncovered~~ unless, 30 or more days prior to initiating the activity, an erosion and sedimentation control plan for such activity is filed with the agency having jurisdiction. The agency having jurisdiction shall forward to the Director of the Division of Water Quality a copy of each erosion and sedimentation control plan for a land-disturbing activity that involves the utilization of ditches for the purpose of de-watering or lowering the water table of the tract."

SECTION 5. G.S. 113A-60 reads as rewritten:

"§ 113A-60. Local erosion and sedimentation control programs.

(a) ~~Any~~ A local government may submit to the Commission for its approval an erosion and ~~sediment~~ sedimentation control program for its jurisdiction, and to this end local governments are authorized to adopt ordinances and regulations necessary to establish and enforce erosion and ~~sediment~~ sedimentation control programs. An ordinance adopted by a local government may establish a fee for the review of an erosion and sedimentation control plan and related compliance activities. Local governments are authorized to create or designate agencies or subdivisions of local government to administer and enforce the programs. An ordinance adopted by a local government shall at least meet and may exceed the minimum requirements of this Article and the rules adopted pursuant to this Article. Two or more units of local government are authorized to establish a joint program and to enter into any agreements that are necessary for the proper administration and enforcement of the program. The resolutions establishing any joint program must be duly recorded in the minutes of the governing body of each unit of local government participating in the program, and a certified copy of each resolution must be filed with the Commission.

(b) The Commission shall review each program submitted and within 90 days of receipt thereof shall notify the local government submitting the program that it has been approved, approved with modifications, or disapproved. The Commission shall only approve a program upon determining that its standards equal or exceed those of this Article and rules adopted pursuant to this Article.

(c) If the Commission determines that any local government is failing to administer or enforce an approved erosion and ~~sediment~~ sedimentation control program, it shall notify the local government in writing and shall specify the deficiencies of administration and enforcement. If the local government has not taken corrective action within 30 days of receipt of notification from the Commission, the Commission shall assume administration and enforcement of the program until such time as the local government indicates its willingness and ability to resume administration and enforcement of the program.

(d) A local government may submit to the Commission for its approval a limited erosion and sedimentation control program for its jurisdiction that grants the local government the responsibility only for the inspection of land-disturbing activities within the jurisdiction of the local government. The Commission shall be responsible for administering all components of the erosion and sedimentation control program other than the inspection of land-disturbing activities. The local government may adopt ordinances and regulations necessary to establish a limited erosion and sedimentation control program. A local government that administers a limited erosion and sedimentation control program shall pay an amount equal to one hundred twenty dollars ($120.00) per acre of disturbed land subject to inspection under the limited erosion and sedimentation control program to the Department for review of each erosion and sedimentation control plan and related compliance activities. Fees paid to the Department by a local government shall be deposited in the Sedimentation Account established by G.S. 113A-54.2(b). The local government shall establish a fee to be paid by each person who submits an erosion and sedimentation control plan to the local government. The amount of the fee shall be the amount that the local government is required to pay to the Department under this subsection for review of the erosion and sedimentation control plan and related compliance activities. In addition, the fee may include the amount that is required to cover the cost of inspection activities conducted by the local government. A local government may create or designate agencies or subdivisions of the local government to administer the limited program. An ordinance adopted by a local government that establishes a limited program shall at least meet and may exceed the minimum requirements regarding the inspection of land-disturbing activities of this Article and the rules adopted pursuant to this Article regarding the inspection of land-disturbing activities. Two or more units of local government may establish a joint limited program and enter into any agreements necessary for the proper administration of the limited program. The resolutions establishing any joint limited program must be duly recorded in the minutes of the governing body of each unit of local government participating in the limited program, and a certified copy of each resolution must be filed with the Commission. Subsections (b) and (c) of this section apply to the approval and oversight of limited programs."

SECTION 6. G.S. 113A-64(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) Civil Penalties. –

(1) Any person who violates any of the provisions of this Article or any ordinance, rule, or order adopted or issued pursuant to this Article by the Commission or by a local government, or who initiates or continues a land-disturbing activity for which an erosion and sedimentation control plan is required except in accordance with the terms, conditions, and provisions of an approved plan, is subject to a civil penalty. The maximum civil penalty for a violation is five thousand dollars ~~($5,000).~~ ($5,000), except that, in order to deter violations, the Secretary may assess a civil penalty of up to ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for the first day of a violation. A civil penalty may be assessed from the date of the violation. Each day of a continuing violation shall constitute a separate violation.

(2) The Secretary or a local government that administers an erosion and ~~sediment~~ sedimentation control program approved under ~~G.S. 113A-60~~ G.S. 113A-60(a) shall determine the amount of the civil penalty and shall notify the person who is assessed the civil penalty of the amount of the penalty and the reason for assessing the penalty. The notice of assessment shall be served by any means authorized under G.S. 1A-1, Rule 4, and shall direct the violator to either pay the assessment or contest the assessment within 30 days by filing a petition for a contested case under Article 3 of Chapter 150B of the General Statutes. If a violator does not pay a civil penalty assessed by the Secretary within 30 days after it is due, the Department shall request the Attorney General to institute a civil action to recover the amount of the assessment. If a violator does not pay a civil penalty assessed by a local government within 30 days after it is due, the local government may institute a civil action to recover the amount of the assessment. The civil action may be brought in the superior court of any county where the violation occurred or the violator's residence or principal place of business is located. A civil action must be filed within three years of the date the assessment was due. An assessment that is not contested is due when the violator is served with a notice of assessment. An assessment that is contested is due at the conclusion of the administrative and judicial review of the assessment.

(3) In determining the amount of the penalty, the Secretary shall consider the degree and extent of harm caused by the violation, the cost of rectifying the damage, the amount of money the violator saved by noncompliance, whether the violation was committed willfully and the prior record of the violator in complying or failing to comply with this Article.

(4) Repealed by Session Laws 1993 (Reg. Sess., 1994), c. 776, s. 11.

(5) The clear proceeds of civil penalties collected by the Department or other State agency under this subsection shall be remitted to the Civil Penalty and Forfeiture Fund in accordance with G.S. 115C-457.2. Civil penalties collected by a local government under this subsection shall be credited to the general fund of the local government as nontax revenue."

SECTION 7. Article 4 of Chapter 113A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 113A-67. Annual report.

The Department of Environment and Natural Resources shall report to the Environmental Review Commission on the implementation of this Article on or before September 1 of each year. The Department shall include in the report an analysis of how well the implementation of the Sedimentation Pollution Control Act of 1973 is preventing the sedimentation of streams, rivers, lakes, and other waters of the State. The report shall also include an evaluation of whether the fees and civil penalties are adequate to properly administer and enforce this Article. In addition, the report shall include a review of the effectiveness of local erosion and sedimentation control programs."

SECTION 8. The Department of Environment and Natural Resources shall submit the first report required by G.S. 113A-67, as enacted by Section 7 of this act, to the Environmental Review Commission on or before 1 September 2003.

SECTION 9. This act becomes effective 1 August 2002.

HOUSE BILL 1568:
Sedimentation Act Amendments

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee: House Finance
Date: July 2, 2002
Version: 2nd Edition

Introduced by: Reps. Weiss and Hackney
Summary by: Rick Zechini
Staff Attorney

SUMMARY: House Bill 1568 requires the self-inspection of an area covered by an approved erosion and sedimentation control plan; raises the fee for the review of an erosion and sedimentation control plan to $150 per acre from a maximum of $50 per acre; allows a local government with an approved erosion and sedimentation control program to regulate land-disturbing activities conducted by that local government; requires exposed slopes to be planted or provided with ground cover within 10 working days or 21 calendar days, whichever is shorter, of completion of any phase of grading; authorizes a local government to establish an erosion and sedimentation control program that is limited to the inspection of land-disturbing activities within the jurisdiction; provides that a civil penalty of $10,000 may be assessed for the first day of a violation; and requires the Department of Environment and Natural Resources to report on the implementation of the Sedimentation Pollution Control Act of 1973. House Bill 1568 was recommended by the Environmental Review Commission.

CURRENT LAW: The General Assembly enacted the Sedimentation Pollution Control Act of 1973 (Act) to establish a program to allow development while minimizing the detrimental effects from pollution by sedimentation. The Act provides that certain land-disturbing activity is subject to mandatory requirements and the Act is enforceable by means of civil penalties, criminal penalties, stop-work orders, injunctive relief, and civil relief. The Act requires a person conducting a land-disturbing activity involving the uncovering of more than one acre to have an erosion and sedimentation control plan (plan) approved by the North Carolina Sedimentation Control Commission (Commission), which has delegated this authority to the Division of Land Resources in the Department of Environment and Natural Resources, prior to initiating the activity. In addition, the Act requires the utilization of sedimentation and erosion control devices and practices that are sufficient to retain the sediment generated by the construction within the boundaries of the tract during construction and provide for permanent ground cover after completion of construction. A local government may establish its own erosion and sedimentation control program to approve plans and enforce the Act upon a determination by the Commission that the local program has standards that equal or exceed those of the Act. A local government that establishes its own program also sets its own fees.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1. Self-Inspections

Section 1 of HB 1568 requires a plan to include a schedule for the self-inspection of the area covered by the plan after each phase of the plan has been completed and after establishment of temporary groundcover. The person who submits the plan, or their agent, shall perform each inspection and post a record of each inspection on site that certifies that the work at the site has been completed and maintained in accordance with the approved plan and the Act.

Section 2. Fee for Plan Review and Related Compliance Activities

Section 2 raises the fee for the review of a plan and related compliance activities to $150 per acre of disturbed land. Current law authorizes the Commission to establish a fee schedule with a fee not to exceed $50 per acre of disturbed land.

Section 3. Jurisdiction

Section 3 allows a local government with an approved plan to regulate land-disturbing activities conducted by that local government. This section also clarifies that the Commission, by delegation the Division of Land Resources in the Department of Environment and Natural Resources (DENR), has concurrent jurisdiction with local governments that have approved erosion and sedimentation programs.

Section 4. Ground Cover on Exposed Slopes

Section 4 provides that exposed slopes must be planted or provided with ground cover within 10 working days or 21 calendar days, whichever period is shorter, of completion of any phase of grading.

Section 5. Limited Local Sedimentation and Erosion Control Programs

Section 5 authorizes a local government to establish an erosion and sedimentation control program that is limited to the inspection of land-disturbing activities if the Commission determines that the program has standards that equal or exceed those of the Act. If the Commission approves a limited local program, the Commission will retain responsibility for approval of plans and enforcement. The local government will establish a fee for the review of a plan and related compliance activities and is required to submit an amount equal to $120 per acre of land disturbed to DENR to compensate DENR for the costs associated with the review of plans and related compliance activities.

This section also clarifies that as a part of a local government's sedimentation and erosion control program it may adopt an ordinance that establishes a fee for the review of plans and related compliance activities.

Section 6. Civil Penalty

Section 6 authorizes the Secretary of Environment and Natural Resources, in order to deter violations of the Act, to assess a civil penalty of up to $10,000 for the first day of a violation. Current law provides that a $5,000 penalty may be assessed for the first day of a violation and the violator is given a date by which compliance is required. If the violation is not corrected by the stated date, then there is a continuing violation subject to a $5,000 civil penalty per day. The changes contained in Section 6 would allow a one-time civil penalty of up to $10,000 for the initial violation and a civil penalty of $5,000 for each additional violation.

Sections 7 and 8. Annual Reporting Requirement

Section 7 requires DENR to report to the Environmental Review Commission by September 1 of each year on the implementation of the Act, the adequacy of the fees and civil penalties, and the effectiveness of local programs. Section 8 provides that the first report is due September 1, 2003.

Section 9. Effective Date

Section 9 provides that the act becomes effective August 1, 2002.

BILL SUMMARY: The Committee Substitute for HB 1568 amends the Sedimentation Pollution Control Act of 1973. The bill requires the self-inspection of an area covered by an approved erosion and sedimentation control plan; raises the fee for the review of an erosion and sedimentation control plan to $150 per acre from a maximum of $50 per acre; allows a local government with an approved erosion and sedimentation control program to regulate land-disturbing activities conducted by the local government; requires exposed slopes to be planted or provided with ground cover within 10 working days or 21 calendar days, whichever is shorter, of completion of any phase of grading; authorizes a local government to establish an erosion and sedimentation control program that is limited to the inspection of land-disturbing within the jurisdiction; requires local governments with an approved limited local program to submit an amount equal to $120 per acre of land disturbed to the Department of Environment and Natural Resources (DENR) for the costs associated with the review of the erosion and sedimentation control plans and related compliance activities; provides that a civil penalty of $10,000 may be assessed for the first day of a violation; and requires DENR to report on the implementation of the Sedimentation Pollution Control Act of 1973.[1]

[1] Summary by Rick Zechini, Counsel to the House Environment and Natural Resources Committee, June 25, 2001.

ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGY:

Revenues:

All revenues generated by the fee increase will be placed in the Division of Land Resources (DLR) Sedimentation Account, thus the bill will have no fiscal impact on the General Fund. As required by statute (G.S. 113 A-54.2(b)) all funds would be applied to the costs of administering the Sedimentation Act.

According to data from DLR, the number of acres associated with sedimentation and erosion control plans reviewed annually has decreased approximately 8% in recent years. This reduction is due in part to the turndown of the construction industry, the reduction of good acreage in the state to develop, and the reality of more local governments taking responsibility for their own plans and inspections. Data from the two most recent years indicate that the number of acres covered by the sedimentation plans have stabilized at approximately 29,000 acres per year.

Forty-five (45) local governments presently have an erosion and sedimentation control ordinance. Two or three local government programs have been approved per year on average for the past several years. Fiscal Research and DLR estimate that the legislation will generate a small increase in the number of local government erosion and sedimentation control program requests, for a total of 1-2 local government programs per year with limited authority and 3-4 per year with full authority. It is estimated that the total acreage inspected by DLR annually will be reduced by 2% as a result from more local governments taking ownership of their own programs.

Estimated number of plans reviewed:	2,988	2,928	2,870	2,812	2,756
Estimated number of acres:	28,456	27,887	27,329	26,783	26,247
Total revenue generated at $40/acre	$1,138,240	$1,115,475	$1,093,165	$1,071,302	$1,049,876
Total revenue generated at $150/acre	$4,007,552	$4,183,031	$4,099,370	$4,017,383	$3,937,035
Difference (or additional revenue generated by the bill)	$2,869,313	$3,067,556	$3,006,205	$2,946,081	$2,887,159

The fiscal impact is estimated based on the total number of acres inspected by DLR. The bill sets the per acre fee at $150, an increase of $110 over the current rate of $40 per acre. The additional revenue by this bill is the difference in revenue generated between the current $40 fee and the proposed $150 fee. Fiscal year 2002-03 is adjusted for the August 1 implementation date. One month's fees will be collected at the $40 rate, while the remainder of the year will use the new $150 rate.

Expenditures

As required by statute (G.S.113A-54.2(b)), sedimentation and erosion control fees collected by the Department are deposited in a special fund, the Sedimentation Account, and must be spent for the costs of administering the Sedimentation Act. Since the bill does not impose new requirements on the Department, the increased revenue will be used to expand program resources. According to the Department, most of the additional revenue would be used to create field office positions for technicians, environmental specialists and environmental engineers in the seven regional offices and an Assistant Sedimentation Specialist position in the central office. These new positions would be used for the following purposes:

- Promote additional local government erosion and sedimentation control programs,
- Provide performance audits of local erosion and sedimentation control programs to insure local programs meet State standards for implementation,
- Train both State and local program staff,
- Provide additional technical assistance and training for the regulated community, and
- Provide for consistent enforcement across the State by increasing the frequency of state compliance inspections from once every 4.5 months on average to once every 2.3 months on average.

In addition to the technical staff, the Department proposes to hire additional administrative staff in the regional offices and the central office. The Department also anticipates an increase in enforcement efforts resulting from the increase in the frequency of the inspections. As a result, they plan to use some of the revenue to support additional positions in the Attorney General's Office.

The actual number of new staff hired depends on the amount of new revenue generated. Using an average cost of $50,000 per position including salary, benefits and operating support, the Department could hire up to 57 new positions in FY 2002-03. Logistically, only a limited number of qualified staff could be recruited, hired and trained within a year. Consequently, this fiscal note assumes that approximately 20 new employees would be hired in each of the next three fiscal years. During this hiring process, revenues will continue to be deposited to the Sedimentation Account, where they remain in the cash balance. The size of the cash balance depends on how quickly the Department hires the additional employees.

Alternatively, the General Assembly could choose to cut $2.47 million from the Division of Land Resource's General Fund appropriation for the Sedimentation and Erosion Control Program and direct the Department to fund shift all the General Fund positions and operating support to the new revenues. This action would help reduce the size of the cash balance in the Sedimentation Account as well as limit the number of new employees the Division could hire.

Local Government Impact

This bill does not place any new requirements on local governments. It does allow a local government with an approved erosion and sedimentation control program to regulate land-disturbing activities conducted by that local government. It also authorizes local governments to establish a "limited" erosion and sedimentation control program that is limited to the inspection of the land-disturbing activities. The Division of Land Resources still retains the responsibility for approval of plans and enforcement. If local government chooses to establish a limited program, the bill requires the local government to establish a fee to be paid by each person who submits an erosion and sedimentation control plan to the local government. The local government in turn is required to pay an amount equal to $120 per acre of land disturbed to the Department for costs associated with the review of the plan and related compliance activities.

The Department estimates that 1 to 2 local governments will establish limited programs. Those programs will be required to establish a fee that must be at least $120 to cover the Department's costs; however, the bill does allow the local government to set the fee at a higher rate to cover the cost of their inspection activities as well. Due to the wide variance in the fees for existing local government programs and the variance in the number of acres subject to local government regulation, Fiscal Research was unable to determine a reasonable way to estimate the amount of revenue generated by limited local programs or what their expenses might be.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO INCREASE THE NUMBER OF QUALIFIED DENTAL PRACTITIONERS IN THE STATE BY AUTHORIZING THE BOARD OF DENTAL EXAMINERS TO LICENSE BY CREDENTIALS PERSONS WHO ARE LICENSED TO PRACTICE DENTISTRY OR DENTAL HYGIENE IN OTHER STATES AND WHO OTHERWISE MEET STATE REQUIREMENTS FOR LICENSE BY CREDENTIALS, TO ISSUE A LIMITED VOLUNTEER DENTAL LICENSE, TO ISSUE AN INSTRUCTOR'S LICENSE, AND TO IMPOSE APPLICATION AND RENEWAL FEES FOR LICENSURE AUTHORIZED UNDER THIS ACT.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Article 14 of Chapter 130A of the General Statutes is amended by adding the following new section to read:

"§ 130A-367. Dental providers for problem access areas.

The State's dental public health program shall encourage the expansion of current educational and training programs for dentists, dental hygienists, and dental assistants targeted to serve citizens' unmet needs, particularly in the rural and low-income areas that have traditionally had problems in accessing dental care. The program shall also promote and encourage the recruitment of in-State and out-of-state private sector dental personnel to work in these dental health professional shortage areas."

SECTION 2. G.S. 90-36 reads as rewritten:

"§ 90-36. Licensing practitioners of other states.

~~The North Carolina State Board of Dental Examiners may, in its discretion, issue a license to practice dentistry in this State without an examination other than clinical to a~~

~~legal and ethical practitioner of dentistry who moves into North Carolina from another state or territory of the United States, whose standard of requirements is equal to that of the State of North Carolina and in which such applicant has conducted a legal and ethical practice of dentistry for at least five years, next preceding his or her removal and who has not, during his period of practice, been found guilty by the state regulatory agency charged with the responsibility therefor of the violation of the ethics of his profession, nor found guilty by a court of competent jurisdiction of the violation of the laws of the state which issued license to him or of the criminal laws of the United States, nor whose license to practice dentistry has been revoked or suspended by a duly constituted authority.~~

~~Application for license to be issued under the provisions of this section shall be accompanied by a certificate from the dental board or like board of the state from which said applicant removed, certifying that the applicant is the legal holder of a license to practice dentistry in that state, and for a period of five years immediately preceding the application has engaged in the practice of dentistry; is of good moral character and that during the period of his practice no charges have been filed with said board against the applicant for the violation of the laws of the state or of the United States, or for the violation of the ethics of the profession of dentistry.~~

~~Application for a license under this section shall be made to the North Carolina State Board of Dental Examiners within the six months of the date of the issuance of the certificate hereinbefore required, and said certificate shall be accompanied by the diploma or other evidence of the graduation from a reputable, recognized and approved dental college, school or dental department of a college or university.~~

~~Any license issued upon the application of any dentist from any other state or territory shall be subject to all of the provisions of this Article with reference to the license issued by the North Carolina State Board of Dental Examiners upon examination of applicants and the rights and privileges to practice the profession of dentistry under any license so issued shall be subject to the same duties, obligations, restrictions and the conditions as imposed by this Article on dentists originally examined by the North Carolina State Board of Dental Examiners.~~

(a) The North Carolina State Board of Dental Examiners may issue a license by credentials to an applicant who has been licensed to practice dentistry in any state or territory of the United States if the applicant produces satisfactory evidence to the Board that the applicant has the required education, training, and qualifications, is in good standing with the licensing jurisdiction, has passed satisfactory examinations of proficiency in the knowledge and practice of dentistry as determined by the Board, and meets all other requirements of this section and rules adopted by the Board. The Board may conduct examinations and interviews to test the qualifications of the applicant and may require additional information that would affect the applicant's ability to render competent dental care. The Board may, in its discretion, refuse to issue a license by credentials to an applicant who the Board determines is unfit to practice dentistry.

(b) The applicant for licensure by credentials shall be of good moral character and shall have graduated from and have a DDS or DMD degree from a program of dentistry in a school or college accredited by the Commission on Dental Accreditation of the American Dental Association and approved by the Board.

(c) The applicant must meet all of the following conditions:

(1) Has been actively practicing dentistry, as defined in G.S. 90-29(b)(1) through (b)(9), for a minimum of five years immediately preceding the date of application.

(2) Has not been the subject of final or pending disciplinary action in the military, in any state or territory in which the applicant is or has ever been licensed to practice dentistry, or in any state or territory in which the applicant has held any other professional license.

(3) Presents evidence that the applicant has no felony convictions and that the applicant has no other criminal convictions that would affect the applicant's ability to render competent dental care.

(4) Has not failed an examination conducted by the North Carolina State Board of Dental Examiners.

(d) The applicant for licensure by credentials shall submit an application to the North Carolina State Board of Dental Examiners, the form of which shall be determined by the Board, pay the fee required by G.S. 90-39, successfully complete examinations in Jurisprudence and Sterilization and Infection Control, and meet the criteria or requirements established by the Board.

(e) The holder of a license issued under this section shall establish a practice location and actively practice dentistry, as defined in G.S. 90-29(b)(1) through (b)(9), in North Carolina within one year from the date the license is issued. The license issued under this section shall be void upon a finding by the Board that the licensee fails to limit the licensee's practice to North Carolina or that the licensee no longer actively practices dentistry in North Carolina."

SECTION 3. Article 16 of Chapter 90 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 90-224.1. Licensure by credentials.

(a) The Board may issue a license by credentials to an applicant who has been licensed to practice dental hygiene in any state or territory of the United States if the applicant produces satisfactory evidence to the Board that the applicant has the required education, training, and qualifications; is in good standing with the licensing jurisdiction; has passed the National Board Dental Hygiene Examination administered by the Joint Commission on National Dental Examinations; has passed satisfactory examinations of proficiency in the knowledge and practice of dental hygiene as determined by the Board; and meets all other requirements of this section and rules adopted by the Board. The Board may, in its discretion, refuse to issue a license by credentials to an applicant who the Board determines is unfit to practice dental hygiene.

(b) The applicant for licensure shall be of good moral character, have graduated from an accredited high school or hold a high school equivalency certificate duly issued by a governmental agency or authorized unit, and have graduated from a dental hygiene program or school accredited by the Commission on Dental Accreditation of the American Dental Association and approved by the Board.

(c) The applicant must meet all of the following conditions:

(1) Has been actively practicing dental hygiene, as defined in G.S. 90-221, under the supervision of a licensed dentist for a minimum of two years immediately preceding the date of application.

(2) Has no history of disciplinary action or pending disciplinary action in the military or in any state or territory in which the applicant is or has ever been licensed.

(3) Has no felony convictions and has no other criminal convictions that would affect the applicant's ability to render competent dental hygiene care.

(4) Has not failed a licensure examination administered by the North Carolina State Board of Dental Examiners.

(d) The applicant for licensure by credentials shall submit an application, the form of which shall be determined by the Board, pay the fee required by G.S. 90-232, successfully complete examinations in Jurisprudence and Sterilization and Infection Control, and meet other criteria or requirements established by the Board, which may include an examination or interview before the Board or its authorized agents.

(e) This section shall not be construed to include licensure by reciprocity, which is prohibited."

SECTION 4. Article 2 of Chapter 90 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 90-37.1. Limited volunteer dental license.

(a) The North Carolina State Board of Dental Examiners may issue to an applicant a 'Limited Volunteer Dental License' to practice dentistry only in nonprofit health care facilities serving low-income populations in the State. Holders of a limited volunteer dental license may volunteer their professional services, without compensation, only for the purpose of helping to meet the dental health needs of these persons served by these facilities. The Board may issue a limited license to an applicant under this section who:

(1) Has an out-of-state current or expired license, or an expired license in this State, or is authorized to treat veterans or personnel enlisted in the United States armed services; and

(2) Has actively practiced dentistry, as defined in G.S. 90-29(b)(1) through (b)(9), within the past five years.

(b) The limited license may be issued to an applicant who produces satisfactory evidence to the Board that the applicant has the required education, training, and qualifications; is in good standing with the licensing jurisdiction; has passed satisfactory examinations of proficiency in the knowledge and practice of dentistry as determined by the Board; and meets all other requirements of this section and rules adopted by the Board. The Board may conduct examinations and interviews to test the qualifications of the applicant and may require additional information that would affect the applicant's ability to render competent dental care. The Board may, in its discretion, refuse to issue a 'limited volunteer dental license' to an applicant who the Board determines is unfit to practice dentistry.

(c) The applicant shall be of good moral character and shall have graduated from and have a DDS or DMD degree from a program of dentistry in a school or college accredited by the Commission on Dental Accreditation of the American Dental Association and approved by the Board.

(d) The applicant shall meet all of the following conditions:

(1) Show that the applicant has actively practiced dentistry, as defined in G.S. 90-29(b)(1) through (b)(9), for a minimum of five years.

(2) Show that the applicant has not been the subject of final or pending disciplinary action in any state in which the applicant has ever been licensed to practice dentistry or in any state in which the applicant has held any other professional license.

(3) Present evidence that the applicant has no felony convictions and that the applicant has no other criminal convictions that would affect the applicant's ability to render competent care.

(4) Present evidence that the applicant has no pending Veterans Administration or military disciplinary actions or any history of such disciplinary action.

(5) Show that the applicant has not failed an examination conducted by the North Carolina State Board of Dental Examiners.

(e) The applicant shall submit an application, the form of which shall be determined by the Board, pay the fee required under G.S. 90-39, and successfully complete examinations in Jurisprudence and Sterilization and Infection Control. The Board may charge and collect fees for license application and annual renewal as required under G.S. 90-39, except that credentialing fees applicable under G.S. 90-39(13) are waived for holders of a limited volunteer dental license.

(f) Holders of a limited volunteer dental license shall comply with the continuing dental education requirements adopted by the Board including CPR training.

(g) The holder of a limited license under this section who practices dentistry other than as authorized in this section shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor with each day's violation constituting a separate offense. Upon proof of practice other than as authorized in this section, the Board may suspend or revoke the limited license after notice to the licensee. For violations of the dental practice act or rules adopted under the act that are applicable to a limited license practice, the Board has the same authority to investigate and impose sanctions on limited license holders as it has for those holding an unlimited license.

(h) The Board shall maintain a nonexclusive list of nonprofit health care facilities serving the dental health needs of low-income populations in the State. Upon request, the Board shall consider adding other facilities to the list.

(i) The Board may adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 150B of the General Statutes to implement this section."

SECTION 5. G.S. 90-39 reads as rewritten:

"§ 90-39. Fees.

In order to provide the means of carrying out and enforcing the provisions of this Article and the duties devolving upon the North Carolina State Board of Dental

Examiners, it is authorized to charge and collect fees established by its rules ~~and regulations~~ not exceeding the following:

(1) Each application for general dentistry examination $500.00
(2) Each general dentistry license renewal, which fee shall be annually fixed by the Board and not later than November 30 of each year it shall give written notice of the amount of the renewal fee to each dentist licensed to practice in this State by mailing such notice to the last address of record with the board of each such dentist 140.00
(2a) Penalty for late renewal of any license or permit 50.00
(3) Each provisional license 150.00
(4) Each intern permit or renewal thereof 150.00
(5) Each certificate of license to a resident dentist desiring to change to another state or territory 30.00
(6) Repealed by Session Laws 1995, (Reg. Sess., 1996), c. 584, s. 1.
(7) Each license to resume the practice issued to a dentist who has retired from and returned to this State 300.00
(8) Each instructor's license or renewal thereof 140.00
(9) With each renewal of a dentistry license, an annual fee to help fund special peer review organizations for impaired dentists 50.00
(10) Each duplicate of any license, permit, or certificate issued by the Board 25.00
(11) Each office inspection for general anesthesia and parenteral sedation permits 350.00
(12) Each general anesthesia and parenteral sedation permit application or renewal of permit ..... ~~50.00~~ 50.00
(13) Each application for license by credentials 2,000.00
(14) Each application for limited volunteer dental license 100.00
(15) Each limited volunteer dental license annual renewal ..... 25.00."

SECTION 6. G.S. 90-232 reads as rewritten:

"§ 90-232. Fees.

In order to provide the means of carrying out and enforcing the provisions of this Article and the duties devolving upon the North Carolina State Board of Dental Examiners, it is authorized to charge and collect fees established by its rules ~~and regulations~~ not exceeding the following:

(1) Each applicant for examination $125.00
(2) Each renewal certificate, which fee shall be annually fixed by the Board and not later than November 30 of each year it shall give written notice of the amount of the renewal fee to each dental hygienist licensed to practice in this State by mailing such notice to the last address of record with the Board of each such dental hygienist... 60.00
(3) Each restoration of license 60.00
(4) Each provisional license 60.00
(5) Each certificate of license to a resident dental hygienist desiring to change to another state or territory 25.00

(6) Annual fee to be paid upon license renewal to assist in funding programs for impaired dental hygienists ..... ~~40.00.~~ 40.00

(7) Each license by credentials ..... 1,000.00.

In no event may the annual fee imposed on dental hygienists to fund the impaired dental hygienists program exceed the annual fee imposed on dentists to fund the impaired dentist program. All fees shall be payable in advance to the Board and shall be disposed of by the Board in the discharge of its duties under this Article."

SECTION 7. G.S. 90-29.5 reads as rewritten:

"§ 90-29.5. Instructor's license.

~~The Board may issue an instructor's license to a person who is not otherwise licensed to practice dentistry in the State, but whom the Board finds to be qualified by professional training and experience and upon the same examination as that offered to licensed dentists in North Carolina plus an oral examination. An instructor's license will authorize him to teach and to practice dentistry in or on behalf of a dental school or college offering a doctoral degree in dentistry, operated and conducted in this State and approved by the North Carolina State Board of Dental Examiners, but only within the confines of the principal facility of the school or college and of any teaching hospital adjacent thereto. Application for an instructor's license shall be made in accordance with rules and regulations of the North Carolina State Board of Dental Examiners. A person holding an instructor's license shall have, within the scope of his authorized practice, all the duties and responsibilities of any dentist who has been licensed upon examination by the North Carolina State Board of Dental Examiners, and shall be subject to those various disciplinary measures and penalties set forth in G.S. 90-41 upon a determination by the Board that he has violated any of the terms or provisions of this Article. An instructor's license shall be subject to annual renewal by the North Carolina State Board of Dental Examiners, as provided in G.S. 90-31.~~

(a) The Board may issue an instructor's license to a person who is not otherwise licensed to practice dentistry in this State if the person meets both of the following conditions:

(1) Is licensed to practice dentistry anywhere in the United States or in any country, territory, or other recognized jurisdiction.

(2) Has met or been approved under the credentialing standards of a dental school or an academic medical center with which the person is to be affiliated; such dental school or academic medical center shall be accredited by the American Dental Association's Commission on Accreditation or the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Health Care Organizations.

(b) The holder of an instructor's license may teach and practice dentistry:

(1) In or on behalf of a dental school or college offering a doctoral degree in dentistry operated and conducted in this State and approved by the North Carolina State Board of Dental Examiners;

(2) In connection with an academic medical center; and

(3) At any teaching hospital adjacent to a dental school or an academic medical center.

(c) Application for an instructor's license shall be made in accordance with the rules of the North Carolina State Board of Dental Examiners. On or after January 1, 2003, all dentists previously practicing under G.S. 90-29(c)(3) shall be granted an instructor's license upon application to the Board and payment of the required fee. The holder of an instructor's license shall be subject to the provisions of this Article."

SECTION 8. G.S. 90-29(c)(3) reads as rewritten:

"(3) The teaching or practice of dentistry, in dental schools or colleges operated and conducted in this State and approved by the North Carolina State Board of Dental Examiners, by any person or persons licensed to practice dentistry anywhere in the United States or in any country, territory or other recognized ~~jurisdiction;~~jurisdiction until December 31, 2002. On or after January 1, 2003, all dentists previously practicing under G.S. 90-29(c)(3) shall be granted an instructor's license upon application to the Board and payment of the required fee."

SECTION 9. G.S. 90-41(f) reads as rewritten:

"(f) As used in this section the term "licensee" includes licensees, provisional licensees and holders of intern permits, and the term "license" includes license, provisional ~~license~~license, instructor's license, and intern permit."

SECTION 10. G.S. 90-29.4(1) reads as rewritten:

"(1) An intern permit shall be valid for no more than one year from the date of issue thereof; provided, however, that the Board may, in its discretion, renew such permit for not more than ~~three~~ five additional one-year periods; and, provided, further, that no person shall be granted an intern permit or intern permits embracing or covering an aggregate time span of more than ~~48~~ 72 calendar months;".

SECTION 11. If any section of this act is declared to be unconstitutional, preempted, or otherwise invalid by the courts, except where a contrary intent is clearly indicated by the text of the section, it shall not affect the validity of the act as a whole or any part other than the section declared to be invalid, and any previous statutory law replaced or modified by the section declared invalid shall be reinstated as if the previous law had not been changed. If any part of a numbered section of this act is declared invalid, the whole section shall fail.

SECTION 12. This act becomes effective January 1, 2003.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO INCREASE THE NUMBER OF QUALIFIED DENTAL PRACTITIONERS IN THE STATE BY AUTHORIZING THE BOARD OF DENTAL EXAMINERS TO LICENSE BY CREDENTIALS PERSONS WHO ARE LICENSED TO PRACTICE DENTISTRY OR DENTAL HYGIENE IN OTHER STATES AND WHO OTHERWISE MEET STATE REQUIREMENTS FOR LICENSE BY CREDENTIALS, TO ISSUE A LIMITED VOLUNTEER DENTAL LICENSE, TO ISSUE AN INSTRUCTOR'S LICENSE, AND TO IMPOSE APPLICATION AND RENEWAL FEES FOR LICENSURE AUTHORIZED UNDER THIS ACT.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Article 14 of Chapter 130A of the General Statutes is amended by adding the following new section to read:

"§ 130A-367. Dental providers for problem access areas.

The State's dental public health program shall encourage the expansion of current educational and training programs for dentists, dental hygienists, and dental assistants targeted to serve citizens' unmet needs, particularly in the rural and low-income areas that have traditionally had problems in accessing dental care. The program shall also promote and encourage the recruitment of in-State and out-of-state private sector dental personnel to work in these dental health professional shortage areas."

SECTION 2. G.S. 90-36 reads as rewritten:

"§ 90-36. Licensing practitioners of other states.

~~The North Carolina State Board of Dental Examiners may, in its discretion, issue a license to practice dentistry in this State without an examination other than clinical to a legal and ethical practitioner of dentistry who moves into North Carolina from another state or territory of the United States, whose standard of requirements is equal to that of~~

~~the State of North Carolina and in which such applicant has conducted a legal and ethical practice of dentistry for at least five years, next preceding his or her removal and who has not, during his period of practice, been found guilty by the state regulatory agency charged with the responsibility therefor of the violation of the ethics of his profession, nor found guilty by a court of competent jurisdiction of the violation of the laws of the state which issued license to him or of the criminal laws of the United States, nor whose license to practice dentistry has been revoked or suspended by a duly constituted authority.~~

~~Application for license to be issued under the provisions of this section shall be accompanied by a certificate from the dental board or like board of the state from which said applicant removed, certifying that the applicant is the legal holder of a license to practice dentistry in that state, and for a period of five years immediately preceding the application has engaged in the practice of dentistry; is of good moral character and that during the period of his practice no charges have been filed with said board against the applicant for the violation of the laws of the state or of the United States, or for the violation of the ethics of the profession of dentistry.~~

~~Application for a license under this section shall be made to the North Carolina State Board of Dental Examiners within the six months of the date of the issuance of the certificate hereinbefore required, and said certificate shall be accompanied by the diploma or other evidence of the graduation from a reputable, recognized and approved dental college, school or dental department of a college or university.~~

~~Any license issued upon the application of any dentist from any other state or territory shall be subject to all of the provisions of this Article with reference to the license issued by the North Carolina State Board of Dental Examiners upon examination of applicants and the rights and privileges to practice the profession of dentistry under any license so issued shall be subject to the same duties, obligations, restrictions and the conditions as imposed by this Article on dentists originally examined by the North Carolina State Board of Dental Examiners.~~

(a) The North Carolina State Board of Dental Examiners may issue a license by credentials to an applicant who has been licensed to practice dentistry in any state or territory of the United States if the applicant produces satisfactory evidence to the Board that the applicant has the required education, training, and qualifications, is in good standing with the licensing jurisdiction, has passed satisfactory examinations of proficiency in the knowledge and practice of dentistry as determined by the Board, and meets all other requirements of this section and rules adopted by the Board. The Board may conduct examinations and interviews to test the qualifications of the applicant and may require additional information that would affect the applicant's ability to render competent dental care. The Board may, in its discretion, refuse to issue a license by credentials to an applicant who the Board determines is unfit to practice dentistry.

(b) The applicant for licensure by credentials shall be of good moral character and shall have graduated from and have a DDS or DMD degree from a program of dentistry in a school or college accredited by the Commission on Dental Accreditation of the American Dental Association and approved by the Board.

(c) The applicant must meet all of the following conditions:

(1) Has been actively practicing dentistry, as defined in G.S. 90-29(b)(1) through (b)(9), for a minimum of five years immediately preceding the date of application.

(2) Has not been the subject of final or pending disciplinary action in the military, in any state or territory in which the applicant is or has ever been licensed to practice dentistry, or in any state or territory in which the applicant has held any other professional license.

(3) Presents evidence that the applicant has no felony convictions and that the applicant has no other criminal convictions that would affect the applicant's ability to render competent dental care.

(4) Has not failed an examination conducted by the North Carolina State Board of Dental Examiners.

(d) The applicant for licensure by credentials shall submit an application to the North Carolina State Board of Dental Examiners, the form of which shall be determined by the Board, pay the fee required by G.S. 90-39, successfully complete examinations in Jurisprudence and Sterilization and Infection Control, and meet the criteria or requirements established by the Board.

(e) The holder of a license issued under this section shall establish a practice location and actively practice dentistry, as defined in G.S. 90-29(b)(1) through (b)(9), in North Carolina within one year from the date the license is issued. The license issued under this section shall be void upon a finding by the Board that the licensee fails to limit the licensee's practice to North Carolina or that the licensee no longer actively practices dentistry in North Carolina.

(f) The Board may adopt temporary rules in accordance with G.S. 150B-21.1(a10) to implement this section."

SECTION 3. Article 16 of Chapter 90 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 90-224.1. Licensure by credentials.

(a) The Board may issue a license by credentials to an applicant who has been licensed to practice dental hygiene in any state or territory of the United States if the applicant produces satisfactory evidence to the Board that the applicant has the required education, training, and qualifications; is in good standing with the licensing jurisdiction; has passed the National Board Dental Hygiene Examination administered by the Joint Commission on National Dental Examinations; has passed satisfactory examinations of proficiency in the knowledge and practice of dental hygiene as determined by the Board; and meets all other requirements of this section and rules adopted by the Board. The Board may, in its discretion, refuse to issue a license by credentials to an applicant who the Board determines is unfit to practice dental hygiene.

(b) The applicant for licensure shall be of good moral character, have graduated from an accredited high school or hold a high school equivalency certificate duly issued by a governmental agency or authorized unit, and have graduated from a dental hygiene program or school accredited by the Commission on Dental Accreditation of the American Dental Association and approved by the Board.

(c) The applicant must meet all of the following conditions:

(1) Has been actively practicing dental hygiene, as defined in G.S. 90-221, under the supervision of a licensed dentist for a minimum of two years immediately preceding the date of application.

(2) Has no history of disciplinary action or pending disciplinary action in the military or in any state or territory in which the applicant is or has ever been licensed.

(3) Has no felony convictions and has no other criminal convictions that would affect the applicant's ability to render competent dental hygiene care.

(4) Has not failed a licensure examination administered by the North Carolina State Board of Dental Examiners.

(d) The applicant for licensure by credentials shall submit an application, the form of which shall be determined by the Board, pay the fee required by G.S. 90-232, successfully complete examinations in Jurisprudence and Sterilization and Infection Control, and meet other criteria or requirements established by the Board, which may include an examination or interview before the Board or its authorized agents.

(e) This section shall not be construed to include licensure by reciprocity, which is prohibited.

(f) The Board may adopt temporary rules in accordance with G.S. 150B-21.1(a10) to implement this section."

SECTION 4. Article 2 of Chapter 90 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 90-37.1. Limited volunteer dental license.

(a) The North Carolina State Board of Dental Examiners may issue to an applicant a 'Limited Volunteer Dental License' to practice dentistry only in nonprofit health care facilities serving low-income populations in the State. Holders of a limited volunteer dental license may volunteer their professional services, without compensation, only for the purpose of helping to meet the dental health needs of these persons served by these facilities. The Board may issue a limited license to an applicant under this section who:

(1) Has an out-of-state current or expired license, or an expired license in this State, or is authorized to treat veterans or personnel enlisted in the United States armed services; and

(2) Has actively practiced dentistry, as defined in G.S. 90-29(b)(1) through (b)(9), within the past five years.

(b) The limited license may be issued to an applicant who produces satisfactory evidence to the Board that the applicant has the required education, training, and qualifications; is in good standing with the licensing jurisdiction; has passed satisfactory examinations of proficiency in the knowledge and practice of dentistry as determined by the Board; and meets all other requirements of this section and rules adopted by the Board. The Board may conduct examinations and interviews to test the qualifications of the applicant and may require additional information that would affect the applicant's ability to render competent dental care. The Board may, in its discretion, refuse to issue a 'limited volunteer dental license' to an applicant who the Board determines is unfit to practice dentistry.

(c) The applicant shall be of good moral character and shall have graduated from and have a DDS or DMD degree from a program of dentistry in a school or college accredited by the Commission on Dental Accreditation of the American Dental Association and approved by the Board.

(d) The applicant shall meet all of the following conditions:

(1) Show that the applicant has actively practiced dentistry, as defined in G.S. 90-29(b)(1) through (b)(9), for a minimum of five years.

(2) Show that the applicant has not been the subject of final or pending disciplinary action in any state in which the applicant has ever been licensed to practice dentistry or in any state in which the applicant has held any other professional license.

(3) Present evidence that the applicant has no felony convictions and that the applicant has no other criminal convictions that would affect the applicant's ability to render competent care.

(4) Present evidence that the applicant has no pending Veterans Administration or military disciplinary actions or any history of such disciplinary action.

(5) Show that the applicant has not failed an examination conducted by the North Carolina State Board of Dental Examiners.

(e) The applicant shall submit an application, the form of which shall be determined by the Board, pay the fee required under G.S. 90-39, and successfully complete examinations in Jurisprudence and Sterilization and Infection Control. The Board may charge and collect fees for license application and annual renewal as required under G.S. 90-39, except that credentialing fees applicable under G.S. 90-39(13) are waived for holders of a limited volunteer dental license.

(f) Holders of a limited volunteer dental license shall comply with the continuing dental education requirements adopted by the Board including CPR training.

(g) The holder of a limited license under this section who practices dentistry other than as authorized in this section shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor with each day's violation constituting a separate offense. Upon proof of practice other than as authorized in this section, the Board may suspend or revoke the limited license after notice to the licensee. For violations of the dental practice act or rules adopted under the act that are applicable to a limited license practice, the Board has the same authority to investigate and impose sanctions on limited license holders as it has for those holding an unlimited license.

(h) The Board shall maintain a nonexclusive list of nonprofit health care facilities serving the dental health needs of low-income populations in the State. Upon request, the Board shall consider adding other facilities to the list.

(i) The Board may adopt rules in accordance with Chapter 150B of the General Statutes to implement this section."

SECTION 5. G.S. 90-39 reads as rewritten:

"§ 90-39. Fees.

In order to provide the means of carrying out and enforcing the provisions of this Article and the duties devolving upon the North Carolina State Board of Dental Examiners, it is authorized to charge and collect fees established by its rules ~~and regulations~~ not exceeding the following:

(1) Each application for general dentistry examination $500.00

(2) Each general dentistry license renewal, which fee shall be annually fixed by the Board and not later than November 30 of each year it shall give written notice of the amount of the renewal fee to each dentist licensed to practice in this State by mailing such notice to the last address of record with the board of each such dentist 140.00

(14) Each application for limited volunteer dental license 100.00

(15) Each limited volunteer dental license annual renewal ..... 25.00."

SECTION 6. G.S. 90-232 reads as rewritten:

"§ 90-232. Fees.

In order to provide the means of carrying out and enforcing the provisions of this Article and the duties devolving upon the North Carolina State Board of Dental Examiners, it is authorized to charge and collect fees established by its rules ~~and regulations~~ not exceeding the following:

(1) Each applicant for examination $125.00

(2) Each renewal certificate, which fee shall be annually fixed by the Board and not later than November 30 of each year it shall give written notice of the amount of the renewal fee to each dental hygienist licensed to practice in this State by mailing such notice to the last address of record with the Board of each such dental hygienist ... 60.00

(3) Each restoration of license 60.00

(4) Each provisional license 60.00

(5) Each certificate of license to a resident dental hygienist desiring to change to another state or territory 25.00

(6) Annual fee to be paid upon license renewal to assist in funding programs for impaired dental hygienists ..... ~~40.00.~~ 40.00

(7) Each license by credentials ..... 1,000.00.

In no event may the annual fee imposed on dental hygienists to fund the impaired dental hygienists program exceed the annual fee imposed on dentists to fund the impaired dentist program. All fees shall be payable in advance to the Board and shall be disposed of by the Board in the discharge of its duties under this Article."

SECTION 7. G.S. 90-29.5 reads as rewritten:

"§ 90-29.5. Instructor's license.

~~The Board may issue an instructor's license to a person who is not otherwise licensed to practice dentistry in the State, but whom the Board finds to be qualified by professional training and experience and upon the same examination as that offered to licensed dentists in North Carolina plus an oral examination. An instructor's license will authorize him to teach and to practice dentistry in or on behalf of a dental school or college offering a doctoral degree in dentistry, operated and conducted in this State and approved by the North Carolina State Board of Dental Examiners, but only within the confines of the principal facility of the school or college and of any teaching hospital adjacent thereto. Application for an instructor's license shall be made in accordance with rules and regulations of the North Carolina State Board of Dental Examiners. A person holding an instructor's license shall have, within the scope of his authorized practice, all the duties and responsibilities of any dentist who has been licensed upon examination by the North Carolina State Board of Dental Examiners, and shall be subject to those various disciplinary measures and penalties set forth in G.S. 90-41 upon a determination by the Board that he has violated any of the terms or provisions of this Article. An instructor's license shall be subject to annual renewal by the North Carolina State Board of Dental Examiners, as provided in G.S. 90-31.~~

(a) The Board may issue an instructor's license to a person who is not otherwise licensed to practice dentistry in this State if the person meets both of the following conditions:

(1) Is licensed to practice dentistry anywhere in the United States or in any country, territory, or other recognized jurisdiction.

(2) Has met or been approved under the credentialing standards of a dental school or an academic medical center with which the person is to be affiliated; such dental school or academic medical center shall be accredited by the American Dental Association's Commission on Accreditation or the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Health Care Organizations.

(b) The holder of an instructor's license may teach and practice dentistry:

(1) In or on behalf of a dental school or college offering a doctoral degree in dentistry operated and conducted in this State and approved by the North Carolina State Board of Dental Examiners;

(2) In connection with an academic medical center; and

(3) At any teaching hospital adjacent to a dental school or an academic medical center.

(c) Application for an instructor's license shall be made in accordance with the rules of the North Carolina State Board of Dental Examiners. On or after January 1, 2003, all dentists previously practicing under G.S. 90-29(c)(3) shall be granted an instructor's license upon application to the Board and payment of the required fee. The holder of an instructor's license shall be subject to the provisions of this Article."

SECTION 8. G.S. 90-29(c)(3) reads as rewritten:

"(3) The teaching or practice of dentistry, in dental schools or colleges operated and conducted in this State and approved by the North Carolina State Board of Dental Examiners, by any person or persons licensed to practice dentistry anywhere in the United States or in any country, territory or other recognized ~~jurisdiction;~~jurisdiction until December 31, 2002. On or after January 1, 2003, all dentists previously practicing under G.S. 90-29(c)(3) shall be granted an instructor's license upon application to the Board and payment of the required fee."

SECTION 9. G.S. 90-41(f) reads as rewritten:

"(f) As used in this section the term "licensee" includes licensees, provisional licensees and holders of intern permits, and the term "license" includes license, provisional ~~license~~license, instructor's license, and intern permit."

SECTION 10. G.S. 90-29.4(1) reads as rewritten:

"(1) An intern permit shall be valid for no more than one year from the date of issue thereof; provided, however, that the Board may, in its discretion, renew such permit for not more than ~~three~~ five additional one-year periods; and, provided, further, that no person shall be granted an intern permit or intern permits embracing or covering an aggregate time span of more than ~~48~~ 72 calendar months;".

SECTION 11. G.S. 150B-21.1 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(a10) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (a) of this section, the North Carolina State Board of Dental Examiners may adopt temporary rules to implement the provisions of G.S. 90-36 and G.S. 90-224.1. After having the proposed temporary rules published in the North Carolina Register and at least 30 days prior to adopting a temporary rule pursuant to this subsection, the Board shall:

(1) Notify persons on its mailing list maintained pursuant to G.S. 150B-21.2(d) and any other interested parties of its intent to adopt a temporary rule.

(2) Accept oral and written comments on the proposed temporary rule.

(3) Hold at least one public hearing on the proposed temporary rule.

When the Board adopts a temporary rule pursuant to this subsection, the Board must submit a reference to this subsection as the Board's statement of need to the Codifier of Rules.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Chapter, the Codifier of Rules shall publish in the North Carolina Register a proposed temporary rule received from the Board in accordance with this subsection."

SECTION 12. If any section of this act is declared to be unconstitutional, preempted, or otherwise invalid by the courts, except where a contrary intent is clearly indicated by the text of the section, it shall not affect the validity of the act as a whole or any part other than the section declared to be invalid, and any previous statutory law replaced or modified by the section declared invalid shall be reinstated as if the previous law had not been changed. If any part of a numbered section of this act is declared invalid, the whole section shall fail.

SECTION 13. This act becomes effective July 1, 2003.

SENATE BILL 861:
License by Credentials/Dentistry

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	House Finance	Introduced by:	Sen. Purcell
Date:	July 2, 2002	Summary by:	Linda Attarian
Version:	5th Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 861, 5th Edition, authorizes the NC Board of Dental Examiners (Board) to:

- Issue NC licenses to dentists and dental hygienists by credential review.
- Issue limited volunteer licenses to dentists to practice, without compensation, in non-profit health care facilities serving low-income populations.
- Issue instructor's licenses to dentists who practice in or on behalf of a dental school or academic medical center or teaching hospital.
- Impose fees in the amounts up to: 1) $2000 for a dental license issued by credentials; 2) $1000 for a dental hygiene license issued by credentials; and 3) $100.00 for a limited volunteer license.

The bill becomes effective July 1, 2003 (The effective date needs to be changed.)

House Bill, introduced by Rep. Allen, is a companion bill.

CURRENT LAW:

NC licensing requirements applicable to dentists who have practiced for at least five years in one or more other states and then wish to establish a practice in NC:

The Board currently allows dentists who have practiced at least five years in another state prior to applying for licensure in North Carolina to forego the written examination but not the clinical examination. The applicant must also meet additional requirements, including graduation from a reputable university or college. Each candidate must furnish his own patients and instruments for the clinical examination.

NC licensing requirements of dental hygienists who have practiced for at least two years in one or more other states and come to NC and apply for licensure:

The Board currently requires any applicant for licensure to satisfactorily pass a written examination. There are no requirements that an applicant for licensure has graduated from a school or program accredited by the Commission on Dental Accreditation of the American Dental Association. Under current law, an applicant must be a graduate of a program of dental hygiene in a school or college approved by the Board, and the Board has adopted a rule requiring the applicant to have passed a written examination conducted by the National Board of Dental Hygiene Examination.

SECTION-BY-SECTION BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 requires the State's public health system to encourage the recruitment and training of private-sector dental providers to serve in dental health shortage areas.

Section 2 establishes a licensure by credential review procedure to license dentists who have been in practice for at least 5 years immediately preceding the date of application and who meet other requirements of the Board. Once licensed in NC, a licensee must initiate his or her practice in North Carolina within one year from the date the license is issued, must limit practice to North Carolina and must "actively practice dentistry" to retain the license.

Sections 3 establishes a licensure-by-credentials review procedure to license out-of-state dental hygienists who have been practicing for at least 2 years immediately preceding the date of application and meet other requirements of the Board. The licensee must have completed dental hygiene education and training approved by the Board and passed the National Board of Dental Hygiene Examination administered by the Joint Commission on National Dental Examination and have graduated from a dental hygiene program or school accredited by the Commission on Dental Accreditation of the American Dental Association.

Section 4 establishes a volunteer licensure procedure for dentists with expired licenses from NC or current or expired licenses from other states who have practiced within the last 5 years and who wish to practice in non-profit health care facilities serving low-income populations of this State. Any holder of the limited volunteer dental license shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor if he or she is found to practice dentistry in any setting other than a nonprofit health care facility serving low-income populations, with each day being a new violation.

Sections 5 and 6 authorize the Board to impose new application and renewal fees not to exceed:

Application for license by credentials for dentists	$2,000
Application for license by credentials for dental hygienists	$1,000
Application for limited volunteer dental license	$ 100
Limited volunteer dental license annual renewal	$ 25

Section 7 amends G.S. 90-29.5 that authorizes the Board to issue instructor's license to persons who teach and practice dentistry in connection with an academic medical center or teaching hospital adjacent to a dental school or to an academic medical center.

Section 8 makes a conforming amendment to G.S. 90-29(c)(3) that currently provides that teaching dentistry in dental schools or colleges in North Carolina does not constitute the practice of dentistry and thus does not require licensure, to provide that as of January 1, 2002, these instructors will be required to obtain an instructor's license and pay the required fee.

Section 9 makes a conforming amendment to G.S. 90-41(f) to include someone holding an instructor's license as a licensee for the purposes of the statute.

Section 10 expands the time frames for which an intern permit is valid.

Section 11 authorizes the North Carolina State Board of Dental Examiners to adopt temporary rules on an ongoing basis to implement the licensure by credential provisions. Prior to adopting the temporary rules, the Board is required to publish the proposed temporary rules, notify persons on the Board's mailing list, accept comments, and hold at least one public hearing.

Section 12 is a severability clause

Section 13 makes the act effective July 1, 2003.

DEFINITION OF TERMS:

Licensure by Credentials: In granting licensure by credentials, a state board of dentistry determines that the candidate is currently licensed in another jurisdiction, has practiced for a minimum specified amount of time prior to application (usually five years) and that the state has licensure standards equivalent to the one where licensure by credentials is being sought. If the candidate meets all required criteria, licensure examinations are not necessary and a license is granted.

Reciprocity: Licensure by reciprocity refers to a situation in which a jurisdiction has authority to grant licensure only to licensees of states that do likewise to their licensees. Such decisions are based on formal agreements between state boards. Today, the majority of states grant licensure by credentials versus having reciprocal agreements with other states.

PRINCIPAL DEPARTMENT(S) & PROGRAM(S) AFFECTED: NC Board of Dental Examiners, State Dental Health Program.

EFFECTIVE DATE: January 1, 2003.

BILL SUMMARY: The bill gives the North Carolina Board of Dental Examiners several new powers. First, the legislation allows the board to issue North Carolina licenses to out of state dentists and dental hygienists if those professionals hold an out-of-state license, meet the Board's approval, and meet other professional standards. Second, it authorizes the Board to issue "limited volunteer licenses" to dentists, allowing those practitioners to practice, without compensation, in non-profit health care facilities serving low-income populations. Third, it allows the Board to issue instructor's licenses to dentists who are not licensed in the state but who meet the Board's approval to practice in or on behalf of a dental school, an academic medical center, or teaching hospital. Fourth, the bill imposes fees of up to $2,000 for a dental license issued by credentials, $1,000 for a similar dental hygienist licensing, and $100 for a limited volunteer license. The latter license can be renewed for $25. Finally, the bill encourages the state dental health program to expand its current education and training programs, and recruit in-state and out-of-state dental health professionals.

ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGY: The only revenue impact of the bill relates to the fees. Under the bill, a new fee of $2,000 per dentist and $1,000 per dental hygienist will be levied on out of state professionals who seek to be credentialed in North Carolina. Under current law, these individuals would be required to take the entire clinical exam even if they are licensed in another state. Representatives of the Dental Society indicate this clinical exam can take several days.

The American Dental Association reports that, on average, states that offer credentialing to dentists see 38 applications per year. Using this number as a proxy suggests that North Carolina's Board of Dental Examiners will see approximately $76,000 in revenue (38 x $2,000) as result of this provision. While no firm data is available on dental hygienist credentialing, representatives of the North Carolina Dental Society expect the number of hygienists applying for credentials will be similar to the number of dentists. Using 38 a year as a proxy suggests that the Board will gain $38,000 (38 x $1,000). No firm data is available on the number of volunteer dental licenses expected in North Carolina. However, it has been reported that the North Carolina Association of Free Clinics hopes to recruit 12-15 dentists to the state for this type of work. Using the upper end as the estimate suggests that this portion of the bill would raise $1,500 in year one and $375 in the out years. The total revenue generated from these fees is included in the chart above.

The bill also has expenditure implications. The bill directs the state's dental health program to expand its education and training efforts, as well as its in-state and out-of-state recruitment of dental health professionals. However, because of the vague nature of this mandate, no exact fiscal estimate is possible on this portion of the bill.

MINUTES
HOUSE FINANCE COMMITTEE

July 10, 2002

The House Committee on Finance met on Thursday, July 10, 2002 in Room 544 of the Legislative Office Building at 8:30 a.m. The following members were present: Chairmen Allen, Buchanan, Luebke and Wainwright, Vice Chairs Hill and Jarrell; and Representatives Alexander, Blust, Decker, Dedmon, Eddins, Edwards, Gibson, Hackney, McComas, McCombs, Rayfield, Weiss, Willingham, Wilson, and Womble. The following Sergeant-at-Arms staff was present: Bob Fowler, Bill Freeman, Dusty Rhodes and Walter Spell. Staff including Richard Bostic, Trina Griffin, Canaan Huie, Linda Millsaps, and Martha Walston were in attendance. A Visitor Registration list is attached and made part of these minutes.

Chairman Buchanan called the meeting to order and introduced the following pages: Cade Brummett and Jeff Carroll, Brunswick County, sponsored by Representative Redwine, Ian Curl, Catawba County, sponsored by Representative Hilton and Joy Killens, Wake County sponsored by Representative Blue.

Representative Gibson, bill sponsor HB 1576, A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO REMOVE FROM THE CHARTER OF THE TOWN OF BADIN A PROVISION ON THE AD VALOREM TAX RATE, was recognized by Chairman Buchanan to explain the bill. Representative Gibson gave a brief explanation of the bill. He said HB 1576 was a local bill that amends the Charter of the Town of Badin by repealing the sections that forbids the ad valorem tax rate to exceed the previous year's rate by more than 10%. Representative Gibson also stated there was no opposition to this legislation. Representative Womble made a motion that at the appropriate time to give HB 1509 a favorable report. Representative Jarrell asked if the town set their rate every ten years. Representative Gibson explained that the town had been in existence for many years but they just incorporated ten years ago. Representative Jarrell also inquired about the tax rate and Representative Gibson said it was between 21 and 25 percent. A vote was taken and Representative Womble's motion passed and was given a favorable report. A copy of HB 1576 and a summary is attached.

HB 1589 A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO REVISE AND CONSOLIDATE THE CHARTER OF THE TOWN OF PRINCETON was the next bill on the agenda for discussion. Representative Daughtry, bill sponsor, was recognized to explain the bill. After a brief explanation, Representative Rayfield made a motion to give the bill a favorable report. The motion passed and HB 1589 was given a favorable report.

The last bill to be discussed was HB 1646 A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO ANNEX CERTAIN DESCRIBED PROPERTY TO THE CORPORATE LIMITS OF THE TOWN OF ROWLAND. Chairman Buchanan recognized Representative Bonner, bill sponsor to explain the bill. He explained there was approximately two square miles near the South Carolina border that the town of Rowland wanted to annex portions of NC State Highway 130, Interstate 95, Interstate 95 ramps, and US Highways 301 and 501 because the town needed authority to pursue speed violators in this area. Representative Hill said this area was near his district and agreed with Representative Bonner and made a motion to give HB 1646 a favorable report. Representative Decker was recognized for a question concerning once you moved the city limits to the highways in question that the city would have no problem annexing the property along the highways and inquired if the city has any plans to build or use the property for anything. Representative Bonner said that this area had no businesses or homeowners and had no plans for development.

Chairman Buchanan announced at the request of bill sponsor, Representative Cox, HB 1661 was removed from the calendar to be discussed at a later date.

The Chair announced the following occupancy tax bills would be re-referred to Rep. Jarrell's subcommittee:

HB 1668 Modify Southport Occupancy Taxes-Representative Redwine
HB 1707 Beach Towns Room Tax-Representative McComas
HB 1720 Wilmington Occupancy Tax-Representative Wright
SB 1357 Amend Durham Occupancy Tax Provisions-Senator Gulley
SB 1195 Seven Devils Occupancy Tax-Senator Foxx

Representative Jarrell was recognized for an announcement for a subcommittee meeting around her desk immediately following the Finance meeting.

The meeting adjourned the meeting at 8:43 a.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Representative Charles Buchanan

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO REMOVE FROM THE CHARTER OF THE TOWN OF BADIN A PROVISION ON THE AD VALOREM TAX RATE.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Section 5.3 of the Charter of the Town of Badin, being Chapter 894, Session Laws of 1989, as rewritten by Section 1 of Chapter 827, Session Laws of 1991 and S.L. 2000-36, is repealed.

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	House Finance	Sponsor:	Rep. Gibson, Barbee, and Goodwin
Date:	July 8, 2002
Version:	1st Edition	Analysis by:	Martha Walston Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 1576 is a local bill that amends the Charter of the Town of Badin by repealing the section that forbids the ad valorem tax rate to exceed the previous year's rate by more than 10%.

CURRENT LAW: G.S. 160A-209 authorizes a city to levy property taxes without restriction as to rate or amount for the following purposes:

- Debt Service - To pay the principal of and interest on all general obligation bonds and notes of the city.
- Deficits - To supply an unforeseen deficiency in the revenue (other than revenues of any of the enterprises listed in G.S. 160A-311), when revenues actually collected or received fall below revenue estimates made in good faith in accordance with the Local Government Budget and Fiscal Control Act.
- Civil Disorders - To meet the cost of additional law-enforcement personnel and equipment that may be required to suppress riots or other civil disorders involving an extraordinary breach of law and order within the jurisdiction of the city.

For other statutory purposes, the combined property tax rate may not exceed $1.50 on the $100 appraised value of property subject to taxation. Pursuant to a referendum, a city may also levy property taxes for any purpose authorized by its charter or general law to appropriate money. Taxes approved by vote of the people are not counted for purposes of the above rate limitation.

BACKGROUND: The Town of Badin was incorporated in 1989, and the initial property tax rate could not exceed $.21 per $100 valuation. On July 1, 1992, the Charter was changed to authorize the Town Council to set an ad valorem tax rate in excess of $.25 per $100 valuation only if the rate met both of the following conditions:

1. The percentage increase in the rate from the previous year's rate does not exceed the percentage increase in the Implicit GNP Price Deflator over the preceding year.
2. The increase in the rate does not exceed 10% of the rate that applied in the next preceding year.

On June 30, 2000, the Charter was modified so that the ad valorem rate set by the Town Council could not exceed the previous year's rate by more than 10%. (S.L. 2000-36)

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 1576 repeals the limit on the ad valorem tax rate enacted in S.L. 2000-36.

HOUSE BILL 1589*

Short Title:	Princeton Charter Consolidation.	(Local)
Sponsors:	Representative Daughtry.
Referred to:	Finance.

June 10, 2002

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO REVISE AND CONSOLIDATE THE CHARTER OF THE TOWN OF PRINCETON.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. The Charter of the Town of Princeton is revised and consolidated to read as follows:

"THE CHARTER OF THE TOWN OF PRINCETON.

"ARTICLE I. INCORPORATION, CORPORATE POWERS, AND BOUNDARIES.

"Section 1.1. Incorporation. The Town of Princeton in the County of Johnston, and the inhabitants thereof, shall continue to be a municipal body politic and corporate, under the name and style of the 'Town of Princeton,' hereinafter at times referred to as the 'Town'.

"Section 1.2. Powers. The Town of Princeton shall have and may exercise all of the powers, duties, rights, privileges, and immunities, which are now, or hereafter may be conferred, either expressly or by implication, upon the Town of Princeton, specifically, or upon municipal corporations, generally, by this Charter, by the North Carolina Constitution, or by general or local law.

"Section 1.3. Corporate Limits. The corporate limits of the Town of Princeton shall be those existing at the time of ratification of this Charter, as the same are set forth on the official map of the Town, and as the same may be altered from time to time in accordance with law. An official map or description showing the current Town boundaries shall be maintained permanently in the office of the Town Clerk, and shall be available for public inspection. Immediately upon alteration of the corporate limits made pursuant to law, the appropriate changes to the official map or description of the Town shall be made.

"ARTICLE II. MAYOR AND BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS.

"Section 2.1. Governing Body. The Mayor and Board of Commissioners, elected and constituted as herein set forth, shall be the governing body of the Town. On behalf of the Town, and in conformity with applicable laws, the Mayor and Board may provide for the exercise of all municipal powers, and shall be charged with the general government of the Town.

"Section 2.2. Board of Commissioners; Composition; Terms of Office. The Board of Commissioners shall be composed of four members, each of whom shall be elected for terms of four years in the manner provided by Article III of this Charter, provided, they shall serve until their successors are elected and qualified.

"Section 2.3. Election of the Mayor; Term of Office; Duties. The Mayor shall be elected by voters of the Town in the manner provided by Article III of this Charter for a term of two years; provided, the Mayor shall serve until his successor is elected and qualified. The Mayor shall be the official head of the Town government and shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Commissioners. He shall have the right to vote only if there are equal numbers of votes in the affirmative and the negative on any matter before the Board. The Mayor shall exercise such powers and perform such duties as presently are or hereafter may be conferred upon him by the General Statutes, by this Charter, and by the ordinances of the Town.

"Section 2.4 Mayor Pro Tempore. In accordance with applicable State laws, the Board of Commissioners shall appoint one of its members to act as Mayor Pro Tempore to perform the duties of the Mayor in the Mayor's absence or disability. In the event of a vacancy in the office of Mayor, the Mayor Pro Tempore shall perform the duties of the Mayor until the vacancy is filled. The Mayor Pro Tempore as such shall have no fixed term of office, but shall serve in such capacity at the pleasure of the remaining members of the Board.

"ARTICLE III. ELECTIONS.

"Section 3. 1. Regular Municipal Elections; Conduct and Method of Election. Regular municipal elections shall be held in the Town every two years in odd-numbered years, and shall be conducted in accordance with the uniform municipal election laws of North Carolina. The Mayor and members of the Board of Commissioners shall be elected according to the nonpartisan plurality method of election, as provided by G.S. 164-292.

"Section 3.2. Election of the Board of Commissioners; Election of Mayor. At the regular municipal election in 2003 and every two years thereafter, there shall be elected two Commissioners and a Mayor to fill the seats of the Commissioners and Mayor whose terms are then expiring.

"ARTICLE IV. ORGANIZATION AND ADMINISTRATION.

"Section 4.1. Form of Government. The Town shall operate under the Mayor-Board of Commissioners form of government, in accordance with Part 3 of Article 7 of Chapter 160A of the General Statutes.

"Section 4.2. Town Attorney. The Board of Commissioners shall appoint a Town Attorney who shall be licensed to engage in the practice of law in the State of North Carolina. It shall be the duty of the Town Attorney to prosecute and defend suits against the Town and to advise the Mayor, Board of Commissioners and other Town officials with respect to the affairs of the Town.

"Section 4.3. Town Clerk. The Board of Commissioners shall appoint a Town Clerk to keep a journal of the proceedings of the Board, to maintain in a safe place all records and documents pertaining to the affairs of the Town, and to perform such other duties as may be required by law or as the Board of Commissioners may direct.

"Section 4.4. Town Tax Collector. The Board of Commissioners shall appoint a Town Tax Collector to collect all taxes, licenses, fees, and other moneys belonging to the Town, subject to the General Statutes, the provisions of this Charter and the ordinances of the Town. The Town Tax Collector shall diligently comply with and enforce all the laws of North Carolina relating to the collection of taxes by municipalities.

"Section 4.5. Town Finance Officer. The Board of Commissioners shall appoint a Town Treasurer or Finance Officer to perform the duties of the finance officer as required by the Local Government Budget and Fiscal Control Act, and to perform such other duties as may be required by the Board.

"Section 4.6. Consolidation of Functions. The Board of Commissioners may consolidate any two or more positions of Town Clerk, Town Tax Collector, and Town Finance Officer, or may assign the functions of any one or more of these positions to the holder or holders of any other of these positions, subject to the Local Government Budget and Fiscal Control Act.

"Section 4.7. Other Administrative Officers and Employees. Consistent with applicable State laws, the Board of Commissioners may establish other positions, provide for the appointment of other administrative officers and employees, and generally organize the Town government in order to promote the orderly and efficient administration of the affairs of the Town."

SECTION 2. The purpose of this act is to revise the Charter of the Town of Princeton and to consolidate herein certain acts concerning the property, affairs, and government of the Town.

SECTION 3. The following acts or portions of acts, having served the purposes for which they were enacted, or having been consolidated into this act, are hereby repealed:

Chapter 161, Private Laws of 1860-61
Chapter 19, Private Laws of 1872-73
Chapter 113, Private Laws of 1873-74
Chapter 234, Private Laws of 1923
Chapter 486, Session Laws of 1951
Chapter 150, Session Laws of 1955
Chapter 1289, Session Laws of 1957
Chapter 1025, Session Laws of 1961
Chapter 356, Session Laws of 1967.

SECTION 4. No provision of this act is intended, nor shall be construed, to affect in any way, any rights or interests (whether public or private):

(1) Now vested or accrued, in whole or in part, the validity of which might be sustained or preserved by reference to any provisions of law repealed by this act;

(2) Derived from, or which might be sustained or preserved in reliance upon, action heretofore taken pursuant to or within the scope of any provisions of law repealed by this act.

SECTION 5. No law heretofore repealed expressly or by implication, and no law granting authority which has been exhausted, shall be revived by:

(1) The repeal herein of any act repealing such law, or

(2) Any provision of this act that disclaims an intention to repeal or affect enumerated or designated laws.

SECTION 6. All existing ordinances and resolutions of the Town of Princeton and all existing rules or regulations of departments or agencies of the Town of Princeton, not inconsistent with the provisions of this act, shall continue in full force and effect until repealed, modified, or amended.

SECTION 7. No action or proceeding of any nature (whether civil or criminal, judicial or administrative, or otherwise) pending at the effective date of this act by or against the Town of Princeton or any of its departments or agencies, shall be abated or otherwise affected by the adoption of this act.

SECTION 8. If any of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of this act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are declared to be severable.

SECTION 9. Whenever a reference is made in this act to a particular provision of the General Statutes, and such provision is later amended, repealed or superseded, the reference shall be deemed amended to refer to the amended General Statute, or to the General Statute which most nearly corresponds to the statutory provision, which is repealed or superseded.

SECTION 10. This act is effective when it becomes law.

June 13, 2002

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO ANNEX CERTAIN DESCRIBED PROPERTY TO THE CORPORATE LIMITS OF THE TOWN OF ROWLAND.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. The corporate limits of the Town of Rowland are extended to include the following:

North Carolina State Highway 130: BEGINNING at the southeastern limits of the Town of Rowland and including all of the right-of-way of North Carolina State Highway 130 from the town limits in a southeasterly direction approximately 1.0 mile to the line perpendicular to the right-of-way of North Carolina State Highway 130 which includes the intersection of the northeastern right-of-way of North Carolina State Highway 130 and the southeastern right-of-way of Iona Church Road; thence from northeastern right-of-way of North Carolina State Highway 130 and including all of the right-of-way of Iona Church Road in a northeasterly direction 300 feet.

Interstate 95: Beginning at the northeastern right-of-way of North Carolina State Highway 130 and including all of the right-of-way of I-95 approximately 2.4 miles in a southwesterly direction to the South Carolina State Line.

Interstate 95 Ramps: All of the rights-of-way for exit and entrance ramps for Interstate 95 just north of the South Carolina State Line and at North Carolina State Highway 130.

United States Highways 301 and 501: Beginning at the South Carolina State Line and including all of the right-of-way of United States Highways 301 and 501 (a combined right-of-way) in a northerly direction approximately 2.1 miles to the southeastern limits of the Town of Rowland.

SECTION 2. This added territory is exempt from the requirements of Section 1.3 of the Charter of the Town of Rowland relating to mapping and recording of a map with various officials. However, a "Notice of Annexation" shall be recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of Robeson County, which notice shall include the language of Section 1 of this act and a reference to this act.

SECTION 3. This act is effective when it becomes law.

HOUSE BILL 1646:
Rowland Annexation

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	House Finance	Sponsor:	Rep. Bonner
Date:	July 8, 2002	Analysis by:	Martha Walston
Version:	1st Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: HB 1646 is a local bill that authorizes the annexation of certain described property (portions of State and U.S. highways) to the corporate limits of the Town of Rowland. This annexed area will be exempt from the provisions in the Town Charter requiring changes to the official map and recording of the map with various officials.

CURRENT LAW: Annexation is one method that a town may employ to extend its corporate limits, and the process must be done in accordance with Article 4A of Chapter 160A of the General Statutes. Annexation may be either voluntary or involuntary. A voluntary annexation requires that the governing board of a municipality pass an ordinance upon presentation of a petition signed by the owners of all real property within the area to be annexed. An involuntary annexation requires, among other things, that the property meet certain characteristics:

- The area proposed to be annexed must be adjacent or contiguous to the municipality's boundaries;
- At least 1/8 of the aggregate external boundaries of the area must coincide with the municipal boundary; and
- No part of the area may be included within the boundary of another incorporated municipality.

In addition to the requirements concerning location of the area in relation to the municipality's existing boundaries, the area must also be "developed for urban purposes" by meeting one of several standards concerning population, density, and development.

If the property does not meet the statutory requirements for annexation, the municipality does not have the authority to annex the area. However, the General Assembly can extend the corporate limits of a municipality to encompass areas that the municipality would not statutorily have the authority to annex.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 1646 authorizes the Town of Rowland to annex portions of NC State Highway 130, Interstate 95, Interstate 95 ramps, and US Highways 301 and 501. The Town wants authority to pursue violators on these roads. The annexed property will be exempt from the portion of the Town Charter that requires the official map to be altered to show the annexed area and copies to be filed with the Secretary of State, the Robeson County Register of Deeds, and the appropriate board of elections. However, the Town must record a "Notice of Annexation" with the Robeson County Register of Deeds. The Notice must include the description of the annexed property as set out in Section 1 of HB 1646.

MINUTES

HOUSE COMMITTEE ON FINANCE
July 16, 2002

The House Committee on Finance met at 8:30 a.m. on Tuesday, July 16, 2002 in Room 544 of the Legislative Office Building. The following members were present: Chairmen Allen, Buchanan, Luebke, and Wainwright; Vice-Chairs Hill and Jarrell; and Representatives Alexander, Blust, Capps, Cox, Decker, Dedmon, Eddins, Edwards, Gibson, Hackney, Holliman, Hurley, Johnson, McComas, McCombs, McMahan, Morris, Pope, Rayfield, Starnes, Weiss, Willingham, Wilson, Womble, Baddour, Earle, and Cunningham. The following Sergeant-at-Arms were present: Bob Fowler, Bill Freeman, Dusty Rhoades, and Shannon Batten. Staff persons present included: Cindy Avrette, Trina Griffin, Mary Shuping, Richard Bostic, David Crotts, Linda Millsaps, Canaan Huie, Martha Harris, and Committee Assistants Nancy Brantley, Blinda Edwards, Joyce Harris, and Glenda Jones. The Visitor Registration Sheet and Agenda are attached and incorporated into the minutes as Attachments 1 and 2.

Representative Wainwright called the meeting to order and recognized the Pages, Kevin Kelley, Daniel Hurley, Matt Goodwin, and Jonathan Hannah. The following bills were considered.

Chairman Wainwright recognized the sponsor, Representative Redwine, to explain HB 1668, A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO MODIFY THE SOUTHPORT OCCUPANCY TAX. Representative Jarrell moved for a favorable report for HB 1668. The bill was given a favorable report. The Committee Report, Bill, and Bill Analysis are attached and included in Attachment 3.

Representative Cox was recognized to explain HB 1661, A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO ALLOW THE COUNTY OF LEE TO CONVEY THE GOLDEN POULTRY/GOLD KIST WATER PLANT AT PRIVATE SALE. Representative Womble made a motion to bring the Proposed Committee Substitute (PCS) before the committee for discussion. Representative Womble also moved for a favorable report to the Proposed Committee Substitute. The motion passed and the Proposed Committee Substitute was given a favorable report, and an unfavorable report was given to the original bill. The Committee Report, PCS, Original Bill, and Bill Analysis are attached and included in Attachment 4.

Representative Allred was recognized to explain HB 1745, A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO REMOVE THE 300 PLATE REQUIREMENT FROM SPECIAL LICENSE PLATES FOR WORLD WAR II AND KOREAN CONFLICT VETERANS' PLATES. Representative Decker moved for a favorable report of the bill. The bill was given a favorable report. The Committee Report, Bill, and Bill Analysis are attached and included in Attachment 5

Staff Counsel, Cindy Avrette, was recognized to explain SB 1132, A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO REMOVE AN AREA FROM THE CORPORATE LIMITS OF THE TOWN OF ELLENBORO. Representative Womble moved for a favorable report of the bill. The bill was given a favorable report. The Committee Report, Bill, and Bill Analysis are attached and included in Attachment 6.

Representative Mark Hilton was recognized to present, for Senator Dalton, SB 1300, A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT CONCERNING A VOLUNTARY SATELLITE ANNEXATION OF CERTAIN DESCRIBED PROPERTY BY THE CITY OF NEWTON. Representative McMahan moved for a favorable report of the bill. The bill was given a favorable report. The Committee Report, Bill, and Bill Analysis are attached and included in Attachment 7.

Representative Luebke was recognized to present, for Senator Gulley, SB 1357, A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO MAKE CHANGES TO DURHAM COUNTY OCCUPANCY TAX PROVISIONS. Representative Luebke moved for a favorable report of the bill. The bill was given a favorable report. The Committee Report, Bill, and Bill Analysis are attached and included in Attachment 8.

Chairman Wainwright recognized and welcomed a delegation from the Kingdom of Morocco, which included local elected officials and one member of the National Parliament.

The final bill before the committee was HB 1633, A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO ACCELERATE THE ADDITIONAL ONE-HALF CENT LOCAL OPTION SALES AND USE TAX. An announcement for the inclusion of this bill on the agenda was made by Representative Luebke, at the end of session on the previous night. Chairman Wainwright indicated that the committee would take a vote on the bill at this meeting. The Sergeant-At-Arms passed out the PCS, Bill Analysis, Fiscal Analysis, Impact of Sales Tax Chart, and an Amendment. Chairman Wainwright recognized Representatives Luebke and Baddour to explain the bill.

Representative Luebke moved for the adoption of the PCS, and it was adopted. He stated that the bill would accelerate the 2001 legislation establishing a sales tax swap by:

- Accelerating the effective date of the local option sales tax from July 1, 2003 to September 1, 2002.

- Accelerating the repeal of the tax reimbursements, from July 1, 2003, to July 1, 2002.
- Providing a hold harmless for local governments for 10 years.

He further stated that local governments needed the assistance offered by this bill and recommended the bill. Representative Baddour further explained the bill and stated that he would offer an Amendment at the appropriate time.

Committee members were recognized to make comments on the bill. Representative Buchanan indicated that he could not go along with the increase in the sales tax from 6.5% to 7%. Representative Baddour responded that the 7% tax would be for one year, if the local governments decided to do it.

Representative Baddour was recognized to present his amendment. He moved to amend the bill on page 1, line 3, and page 5, lines 37-38. The amendment would provide that local revenues might not be held or impounded by the Governor. Representative Starnes asked if there was anything in the bill to prevent the Governor from taking the funds as a last resort. Martha Harris, Staff Attorney, responded that the Governor would need the approval of the General Assembly. The language prohibited the Governor from taking the funds. The amendment does not amend the constitution. Mr. Ellis Hankins, Executive Director of the League of Municipalities, spoke in support of the bill. He stated that the General Assembly should repair the level of trust between local government and the Governor. The General Assembly had the authority to place some restrictions and guidelines on the Governor. Representatives Rayfield and Starnes both stated that the language in the bill would not restrict the Governor's authority to withhold the funds. They felt a constitutional amendment was needed. Representative Baddour moved for adoption of the amendment. The amendment was adopted.

Representative Pope stated that the Chairs should not "steamroll" the bill through the committee. He suggested that the committee should come back at 1:00 p.m. to discuss the bill. He questioned what was in the second part of the package. Representative Luebke stated that no attempt was being made to entrap anyone. The second part of the bill would address corporate loopholes, the fee bill from the Senate, and IRC adjustments to federal taxes. Representative Baddour stated that the bill should be considered at this time. Chairman Wainwright stated his intent to have the committee to vote on the bill at this meeting. Representative McComas requested a fiscal note for New Hanover County before the bill was heard on the floor.

Representative Wilson offered an amendment to amend the bill on page 5, lines 33-37, by removing those lines. She stated that the tax should not be levied without a public notice and public hearing of the county's intent to a tax. She moved for its adoption and requested a roll call vote. Mr. Jim Blackburn of the North Carolina Association of County Commissioners spoke against the amendment. Mr. Ellis Hankins stated that the time of the levy was crucial. The amendment failed by a vote of 16 yes votes to 17 no votes. The Committee Assistant recorded the roll call votes for Representatives Dedmon and Edwards as "yes" votes, when their intent was to vote "no". The correction of their vote was noted on the Roll Call Vote form.

Representative Hackney moved that the Proposed Committee Substitute (PCS) for HB 1633 be rolled into a new Committee Substitute as amended, and that the amended Committee Substitute be given a favorable report; and that an unfavorable report be given to the original bill. A roll call vote was requested and the motion carried by a vote of 20 yes votes to 13 no votes. The PCS was given a favorable report. Please refer to Attachments 9 through 14 for copies of the Committee Report, Adopted PCS, Original PCS, Bill Analysis, Fiscal Note, Baddour Amendment, Wilson Amendment, Wilson Amendment Roll Call Vote, and the Roll Call Vote for the adopted PCS.

The meeting adjourned at 9:50 a.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Blinda Edwards, Committee Assistant

Representative William Wainwright
Presiding Chair

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO MODIFY THE SOUTHPORT OCCUPANCY TAX.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Section 1 of Chapter 639 of the 1989 Session Laws reads as rewritten:

"Section 1. Occupancy tax. (a) Authorization and scope. – The Southport Board of Aldermen may ~~by resolution, after not less than 10 days' public notice and after a public hearing held pursuant thereto,~~ levy a room occupancy tax of no more than three percent (3%) of the gross receipts derived from the rental of any room, lodging, or similar accommodation furnished by a hotel, motel, inn, or similar place within the City of Southport that is subject to sales tax imposed by the State under G.S. ~~105-164.4(3)~~ 105-164.4(a)(3) and on the rental of all private residences and cottages, regardless of whether the residence or cottage is rented for less than 15 days. This tax is in addition to any State or local sales tax. This tax does not apply to accommodations furnished by nonprofit charitable, educational, or religious organizations.

(a1) Authorization of additional tax. – In addition to the tax authorized by subsection (a) of this section, the Southport Board of Aldermen may levy an additional room occupancy tax of up to two percent (2%) of the gross receipts derived from the rental of accommodations taxable under subsection (a). The levy, collection, administration, and repeal of the tax authorized by this subsection shall be in accordance with the provisions of this section. The City of Southport may not levy a tax under this subsection unless it also levies the tax authorized under subsection (a) of this section.

(b) Administration. – A tax levied under this section shall be levied, administered, collected, and repealed as provided in G.S. 160A-215. The penalties provided in G.S. 160A-215 apply to a tax levied under this section.

~~Collection. Every operator of a business subject to the tax levied under this section shall, on and after the effective date of the levy of the tax, collect the tax. This tax shall be collected as part of the charge for furnishing a taxable accommodation. The tax shall be stated and charged separately from the sales records, and shall be paid by the~~

~~purchaser to the operator of the business as trustee for and on account of the city. The tax shall be added to the sales price and shall be passed on to the purchaser instead of being borne by the operator of the business. The city shall design, print, and furnish to all appropriate businesses and persons in the city the necessary forms for filing returns and instructions to ensure the full collection of the tax.~~

~~(c) Administration. The city shall administer a tax levied under this section. A tax levied under this section is due and payable to the Southport tax collector in monthly installments on or before the 15th day of the month following the month in which the tax accrues. Every person, firm, corporation, or association liable for the tax shall, on or before the 15th day of each month, prepare and render a return on a form prescribed by the city. The return shall state the total gross receipts derived in the preceding month from rentals upon which the tax is levied. A return filed with the tax collector under this section is not a public record as defined by G.S. 132-1 and may not be disclosed except as required by law.~~

The tax collector may collect any unpaid taxes levied under this act through the use of attachment and garnishment proceedings as provided in G.S. 105-368 for collection of property taxes. The tax collector has the same enforcement powers concerning the tax imposed by this act as does the Secretary of Revenue in enforcing the State sales tax under G.S. 105-164.30.

~~(d) Penalties. A person, firm, corporation, or association who fails or refuses to file the return required by this section shall pay a penalty of ten dollars ($10.00) for each day's omission. In case of failure or refusal to file the return or pay the tax for a period of 30 days after the time required for filing the return or for paying the tax, there shall be an additional tax, as a penalty, of five percent (5%) of the tax due in addition to any other penalty, with an additional tax of five percent (5%) for each additional month or fraction thereof until the tax is paid. The Southport Board of Aldermen may, for good cause shown, compromise or forgive the additional tax penalties imposed by this subsection.~~

~~Any person who willfully attempts in any manner to evade a tax imposed under this section or who willfully fails to pay the tax or make and file a return shall, in addition to all other penalties provided by law, be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punishable by a fine not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000), imprisonment not to exceed six months, or both.~~

(e) Distribution and use of tax revenue. – ~~The tax collector shall remit the proceeds of this tax to the city on a monthly basis. The funds received by the city pursuant to this act shall be used to promote tourism and economic development, for waterfront development, and for other public purposes.~~ The City of Southport shall, on a quarterly basis, remit the net proceeds of the occupancy tax to the Southport Tourism Development Authority. The Authority shall use at least two-thirds of the funds remitted to it under this subsection to promote travel and tourism in Southport and shall use the remainder for tourism-related expenditures.

The following definitions apply in this subsection:

(1) Net proceeds. – Gross proceeds less the cost to the city of administering and collecting the tax, as determined by the finance officer, not to exceed three percent (3%) of the first five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) of gross proceeds collected each year and one percent (1%) of the remaining gross receipts collected each year.

(2) Promote travel and tourism. – To advertise or market an area or activity, publish and distribute pamphlets and other materials, conduct market research, or engage in similar promotional activities that attract tourists or business travelers to the area. The term includes administrative expenses incurred in engaging in the listed activities.

(3) Tourism-related expenditures. – Expenditures that, in the judgment of the Tourism Development Authority, are designed to increase the use of lodging facilities, meeting facilities, or convention facilities in a city or to attract tourists or business travelers to the city. The term includes tourism-related capital expenditures.

~~(f) Effective date of levy. A tax levied under this section shall become effective on the date specified in the resolution levying the tax. That date must be the first day of a calendar month, however, and may not be earlier than two weeks after the date the resolution is adopted.~~

~~(g) Repeal. A tax levied under this section may be repealed by a resolution adopted by the Southport Board of Aldermen. Repeal of a tax levied under this section shall become effective on the first day of a month and may not become effective until the end of the fiscal year in which the repeal resolution was adopted. Repeal of a tax levied under this section does not affect a liability for a tax that was attached before the effective date of the repeal, nor does it affect a right to a refund of a tax that accrued before the effective date of the repeal.~~"

SECTION 2. Chapter 639 of the 1989 Session Laws is amended by adding a new section to read:

"Sec. 1.2. Southport Tourism Development Authority. – When the Southport Board of Aldermen adopts a resolution levying a room occupancy tax under this act, it shall also adopt a resolution creating a city Tourism Development Authority, which shall be a public authority under the Local Government Budget and Fiscal Control Act. The resolution shall provide for the membership of the Authority, including the members' terms of office, and for the filling of vacancies on the Authority. At least one-third of the members must be individuals who are affiliated with businesses that collect the tax in the city, and at least three-fourths of the members must be individuals who are currently active in the promotion of travel and tourism in the city. The Board of Aldermen shall designate one member of the Authority as chair and shall determine the compensation, if any, to be paid to members of the Authority.

The Authority shall meet at the call of the chair and shall adopt rules of procedure to govern its meetings. The Finance Officer for Southport shall be the ex officio finance officer of the Authority.

"Sec. 1.3. Duties. – The Authority shall expend the net proceeds of the tax levied under this act for the purposes provided in this act. The Authority shall promote travel, tourism, and conventions in the city, sponsor tourist-related events and activities in the city, and finance tourist-related capital projects in the city.

"Sec. 1.4. Reports. – The Authority shall report quarterly and at the close of the fiscal year to the Southport Board of Aldermen on its receipts and expenditures for the preceding quarter and for the year in such detail as the board may require."

SECTION 3. This act is effective when it becomes law.

HOUSE BILL 1668:
Modify Southport Occupancy Tax

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	House Finance	Introduced by:	Rep. Redwine
Date:	July 16, 2002	Summary by:	Trina Griffin
Version:	1st Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 1668 authorizes the city of Southport to increase its occupancy tax from 3% to 5%. The bill conforms to both the uniform provisions concerning the levy, administration, collection, and repeal of the tax found in G.S. 160A-215 and the uniform provisions concerning the use and distribution of the proceeds. The act would become effective when it becomes law.

CURRENT LAW: The General Assembly gave Southport the authority to levy a 3% occupancy tax in 1989. The proceeds are remitted to the city on a monthly basis and must be used to promote tourism and economic development, for waterfront development, and for other public purposes. Southport is located in Brunswick County. The county currently has the authority to levy a 1% occupancy tax. Under House Bill 1668, the total occupancy tax for accommodations in Southport would be 6%.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 1668 authorizes Southport to levy an additional occupancy tax of 2%. The tax may be levied only by a resolution of the Board of Aldermen after public notice and a public hearing. The bill modifies the city's existing authority to levy a 3% tax to conform with the uniform provisions concerning the levy, administration, collection, and repeal of the tax found in G.S. 160A-215 and the uniform provisions concerning the use and distribution of the proceeds that the House Finance Committee traditionally likes to see in the occupancy tax bills it passes. Consequently, two-thirds of the proceeds from the occupancy tax, including both the first 3% and the additional 2%, must be used to promote travel and tourism and the remainder must be used for tourism-related expenditures. The bill also establishes a Tourism Development Authority and requires the net proceeds from the occupancy tax to be remitted to it. The TDA must use at least two-thirds of the tax proceeds to promote travel and tourism and the remainder for tourism-related expenditures.

BACKGROUND: Since 1983, the General Assembly has authorized many units of local government to levy a room occupancy tax. In several instances, the General Assembly has authorized both a county and a city within that county to impose an occupancy tax. The rate of tax, the use of the tax proceeds, the administration of the tax, and the body with the authority to determine how the tax proceeds will be spent vary considerably. Over the past several years, there has been a greater effort to make the occupancy taxes uniform. In 1997, the General Assembly enacted uniform municipal and county administrative provisions for occupancy tax legislation – G.S. 153A-155 and G.S. 160A-215. These provisions provide uniformity in the areas of levy, administration, collection, repeal, and penalties.

The North Carolina Travel and Tourism Coalition has a policy statement for legislation authorizing local occupancy taxes. Many of the principles contained in its statement are similar to the ones established by the House Finance subcommittee in 1993. Based upon this work, the House Finance Subcommittee on Occupancy Taxes created earlier this year looked for the inclusion of the following uniform provisions in the occupancy tax bills referred to it by the House Finance Committee earlier this month:

- Rate – The county tax rate cannot exceed 6% and the city tax rate, when combined with the county rate, cannot exceed 6%.

- Use – Two-thirds of the proceeds must be used to promote travel and tourism and the remainder must be used for tourism related purposes.
- Definitions The term "net revenues", promote travel and tourism", and "tourism related expenditures" are defined terms.
- Administration – The net revenues must be administered by a local tourism promotion agency that has the authority to determine how the tax proceeds will be used, is created by a local ordinance, and at least ¾ of the members must be currently active in the promotion of travel and tourism in the taxing district and 1/3 of the members must be affiliated with organizations that collect the tax.
- Costs of Collection – The taxing authority may retain from the revenues its actual costs of collection, not to exceed 3% of the first $500,000 collected each year plus 1% of the remainder collected each year.

There is a 32-page chart detailing the occupancy taxes authorized in North Carolina. There is also a chart detailing the amount of occupancy tax revenue collected by the various localities. These charts can be accessed on the North Carolina General Assembly's Intranet web page under "Resource Center", "Tax Center".

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO ALLOW THE COUNTY OF LEE TO CONVEY THE GOLDEN POULTRY/GOLD KIST WATER PLANT AND RIVER INTAKE FACILITY AT PRIVATE SALE.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Notwithstanding Article 12 of Chapter 160A of the General Statutes, the County of Lee may convey at private sale any or all of its right, title, and interest to some or all of the following described property:

TRACT #1:

ALL THAT CERTAIN TRACT OF LAND, containing 10.066 acres, more or less, being a part of what was known as the "Zimmerman Farm" near the Village of Cumnock, West Sanford Township, Lee County, North Carolina, approximately eight miles northwesterly from the city limits of the City of Sanford and lying easterly from the terminus of Secondary Road No. 1401 and bounded now or formerly as follows: North, East and South by the lands of Golden Poultry Company, Inc., (formerly FCX, Inc.) and West by the lands of T.G. HOUSE BILL 1661:
Lee County Private Sale

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	House Finance	Sponsor:	Rep. Cox and Davis
Date:	July 15, 2002	Analysis by:	Martha Walston
Version:	Proposed Committee Sub		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 1661 is a local bill that authorizes Lee County to convey by private sale two described tracts of land: Tract #1 includes 10.066 acres, more or less, on which is situated a water plant that is currently servicing a poultry processing plant in the County. The water plant needs major repairs, and the bill would allow the County to convey the water plant to the poultry plant. Tract #2 is a 0.34 acre tract on which is situated a river intake facility. The 1st Edition of the Bill did not include Tract #2.

CURRENT LAW: Article 12 of Chapter 160A sets out the procedures by which cities may dispose of property. Pursuant to G.S. 153A-176, Article 12 also applies to counties. Subject to statutory limitations in Article 12, a county may dispose of property by private negotiation or sale; advertisement for sealed bids; negotiated offer, advertisement, and upset bid; public auction; or exchange. G.S. 160A-265 gives a city (or county) general statutory authority to sell or dispose of real and personal property, without regard to the method or purpose of its acquisition or its intended or actual governmental or other prior use. However, the North Carolina courts have held that general statutory authority to dispose of property is not sufficiently specific to authorize the conveyance of governmental property.

BILL ANALYSIS: House bill 1661 authorizes Lee County to convey a total of 10.1 acres at a private sale, notwithstanding Article 12 of Chapter 160A. Tract #1 of this property is a water plant constructed primarily to serve Golden Poultry, now Gold Kist, Inc., a chicken processing plant in western Lee County. In 1989, the County entered into an agreement with the chicken processing plant to furnish water to the plant for 15 years. This commitment ends April 19, 2004. During the contract period, the County created a Water and Sewer District that covers the County except for the City of Sanford, the Town of Broadway, and the West Sanford Township. The processing plant is located in the West Sanford Township. The water system for the plant is currently owned by the County and is need of major repair. In return for the sale of the property to them, the poultry processing plant has agreed to retire any obligation the County owes on the purchase of the water plant, to accept the water plant "as is", to make any necessary repairs, and to add a water tank. The individuals in the West Sanford Township will be serviced by the Water and Sewer District and will eventually be annexed to that system. Currently the County purchases water from the City of Sanford to furnish water to the individuals in the Township. The County will began to collect taxes once the property is conveyed to the processing plant.

Tract #2 of the property contains .034 acres of land that is located at the river site which houses the river intake facility.

Lee County has requested legislative authority for the sale, since the property is currently in governmental use and G.S. 160A-265 is unclear as to whether a sale of such property can be made without special legislation.

June 17, 2002

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO REMOVE THE 300 PLATE REQUIREMENT FROM SPECIAL LICENSE PLATES FOR WORLD WAR II AND KOREAN CONFLICT VETERANS' PLATES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 20-79.4(b)(27b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Types. – The Division shall issue the following types of special registration plates:

...

(27b) Military Wartime Veteran. – Issuable to either a member or veteran of the armed services of the United States who served during a period of war. If the person is a veteran of the armed services, then the veteran must be separated from the armed services under honorable conditions. The plate shall bear a word or phrase identifying the period of war and a replica of the campaign badge or medal awarded for that war. ~~The~~ Except for World War II and Korean Conflict plates, the Division may not issue a plate authorized by this subdivision unless it receives at least 300 applications for that plate. A "period of war" is any of the following:

a. World War I, meaning the period beginning April 16, 1917, and ending November 11, 1918.

b. World War II, meaning the period beginning December 7, 1941, and ending December 31, 1946.

c. The Korean Conflict, meaning the period beginning June 27, 1950, and ending January 31, 1955.

d. The Vietnam Era, meaning the period beginning August 5, 1964, and ending May 7, 1975.

e. Desert Storm, meaning the period beginning August 2, 1990, and ending April 11, 1991.

f. Any other campaign, expedition, or engagement for which the United States Department of Defense authorizes a campaign badge or medal."

SECTION 2. This act is effective when it becomes law.

HOUSE BILL 1745:
WWII/Korean Conflict Plate Limit Removed

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	House Finance	Sponsor:	Rep. Allred
Date:	July 15, 2002	Analysis by:	Martha Walston
Version:	1st Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 1745 would remove the requirement that the Division of Motor Vehicles receive 300 applications before a special license plate may be issued to a World War II veteran or to a Korean Conflict veteran. The Division of Motor Vehicles supports the removal of the 300-application requirement for World War II or Korean Conflict veterans.

CURRENT LAW: The General Assembly has authorized the Division of Motor Vehicles to issue many different special registration plates so long as it receives at least 300 applications for the plate. DMV has issued at least 87 special license plates. It has received requests for an additional 40 plates but has not issued those plates because it has not yet received 300 applications for them.

Last Session, the General Assembly amended G.S. 20-79.4(b)(27b) to authorize the issuance of a special license plate to a member or veteran of the armed services of the U.S. who served during one of the periods of war listed below. If the person is a veteran, he or she must have been separated from the armed services under honorable conditions. The special plate will bear a word or phrase identifying the period of war and a replica of the campaign badge or medal awarded for the following periods of war:

- World War I, meaning the period beginning April 16, 1917, and ending November 11, 1918.
- World War II, meaning the period beginning December 7, 1941, and ending December 31, 1946.
- The Korean Conflict, meaning the period beginning June 27, 1950, and ending January 31, 1955.
- The Vietnam Era, meaning the period beginning August 5, 1964, and ending May 7, 1975.
- Desert Storm, meaning the period beginning August 2, 1990, and ending April 11, 1991.
- Any other campaign, expedition, or engagement for which the United States Department of Defense authorizes a campaign badge or medal.

An applicant for a Military Wartime Veteran plate must pay the regular motor vehicle registration fee plus an additional $10 fee. The additional $10 fee is credited to the Special Registration Plate Account. After deducting the cost of the plates from this account, $525,000 is annually appropriated to provide operating assistance for seven Visitor Centers. The Centers are located in Brunswick, Camden, Carteret, Caswell, Macon, Tyrell, and Watauga Counties.

The remaining revenue in the account is transferred quarterly to the Department of Commerce for advertising (33%), the Department of Transportation for highway beautification (50%), and the Department of Health and Human Services to promote travel accessibility for disabled persons in the State (17%).

The additional fee for some of the special plates is greater than $10. In those instances, the first $10 goes to the special registration plate fund and the remainder is to be transferred quarterly to designated beneficiaries of the additional fee amount.

G.S. 20-79.4(b)(31) also authorizes the issuance of a "Pearl Harbor Survivor" special plate. However, there is no requirement of 300 applications for issuance of this plate. As of July 1, 2002 there were 154 active "Pear Harbor Survivor" plates.

BILL ANALYSIS: G.S. 20-79.4(b)(27b) requires that 300 applications be received before the DMV will issue a plate for a period of war listed in subdivision (27b). Because of the advanced ages of many of the WWII and Korean Conflict veterans, it has become impossible to meet this requirement. HB 1745 would remove the 300-application requirement for veterans of these two periods of war. The DMV supports this bill.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO REMOVE AN AREA FROM THE CORPORATE LIMITS OF THE TOWN OF ELLENBORO.

Whereas, an annexation to the Town of Ellenboro occurred by legislative act in 1917;

Whereas, there is no evidence that said annexation was ever honored by the Town and there is no evidence that the residents of the area annexed have ever been billed for town taxes, nor have they paid town taxes, nor have they received any town services regarding said annexation;

Whereas, although the 1917 local act was repealed as part of the Ellenboro Charter consolidation under Chapter 425, Session Laws of 1983, that 1983 act directed that it was not to change the boundaries of the town; and

Whereas, the Town Council desires to deannex this property effective as of the year 1917 with the final effect being that this area will be treated as never having been annexed into the Town; Now, therefore,

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Chapter 178 of the Private Laws of 1917 is repealed.

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective March 5, 1917.

SENATE BILL 1132:
Ellenboro Deannexation

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	House Finance	Introduced by:	Sen. Dalton
Date:	July 16, 2002	Summary by:	Trina Griffin
Version:	1st Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 1132 is a local bill that removes certain described property from the corporate limits of the Town of Ellenboro in Rutherford County by repealing the local act that annexed the area to the Town originally in 1917.

BACKGROUND/CURRENT LAW: In 1917, the General Assembly passed a local act to extend the corporate limits of the Town of Ellenboro. Since that time, however, there has been no evidence that the town ever honored the annexation. The residents in that area have never been billed for taxes nor have they received any town services. Although the 1917 local act was repealed as part of the Ellenboro Charter consolidation in 1983, the 1983 act specified that the boundaries of the town were to remain unchanged. Thus, this area is still annexed to the Town of Ellenboro.

BILL ANALYSIS: Senate Bill 1132 removes certain described property from the Town of Ellenboro, effective March 5, 1917. The final effect of the retroactive effective date is that this area will be treated as never having been annexed into the Town.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT CONCERNING A VOLUNTARY SATELLITE ANNEXATION OF CERTAIN DESCRIBED PROPERTY BY THE CITY OF NEWTON.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 160A-58.1(b)(2) does not apply to the annexation of the following described property by the City of Newton:

BEGINNING at an existing iron pin in the southeastern comer of property owned by L. & B. SENATE BILL 1300:
Newton Voluntary Satellite Annexation

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	House Finance	Introduced by:	Sen. Allran
Date:	July 16, 2002	Summary by:	Cindy Avrette
Version:	1st Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 1300 would allow the City of Newton to voluntarily annex a described tract of land even if it is closer to the primary corporate limits of another city than to the primary corporate limits of Newton.

CURRENT LAW AND BILL ANALYSIS:

G.S. 160A-58.1 governs the voluntary annexation by a municipality of noncontiguous property. All property owners in the satellite area may petition a city for voluntary annexation of the noncontiguous property if the property meets the following five standards:

1. The nearest point on the proposed satellite corporate limits must be not more than three miles from the primary corporate limits of the annexing city.
2. No point on the proposed satellite corporate limits may be closer to the primary corporate limits of another city than to the primary corporate limits of the annexing city.
3. The area must be so situated that the annexing city will be able to provide the same services within the proposed satellite corporate limits that it provides within its primary corporate limits.
4. If the area proposed for annexation, or any portion thereof, is a subdivision as defined in G.S. 160A-376, all of the subdivision must be included.
5. The area within the proposed satellite corporate limits, when added to the area within all other satellite corporate limits, may not exceed ten percent (10%) of the area within the primary corporate limits of the annexing city.

Senate Bill 1300 would provide that the 2nd requirement does not apply to the tract of land described in the bill. Thus, that tract of land could be voluntarily annexed by the City of Newton even if it is closer to the primary corporate limits of another city than it is to Newton.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO MAKE CHANGES TO DURHAM COUNTY OCCUPANCY TAX PROVISIONS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Section 7(a) of S.L. 2001-480 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 7.(a) If a plan for financing a Performing Arts Theater has not been approved by the Durham City Council and has been disapproved by the Durham County Commissioners within 42 months after the levy of the one percent (1%) tax authorized under Section 6(c) of this act, the county's authority to levy the one percent (1%) tax described under Section 6(c) of this act and the levy of the one percent (1%) tax described in this subsection are repealed on the first day of the second month following the 42-month period.

If construction on the Performing Arts Theater has not begun within 42 months after the levy of the one percent (1%) tax authorized under Section 6(c) of this act, the county's authority to levy the one percent (1%) tax described in Section 6(c) of this act and the levy of the one percent (1%) tax described in Section 6(c) of this act are repealed on the first day of the second month following the 42-month period.

It is the goal of the General Assembly that a plan for financing the Performing Arts Theater shall be adopted within 12 months after the levy of the one percent (1%) tax authorized under Section 6(c) of this act, and construction of the Performing Arts Theater shall begin within 24 months of the levy of the one percent (1%) tax described in Section 6(c) of this act.

Any funds collected but not spent before the repeal date shall be redistributed to the Durham ~~Tourism Development Authority~~Convention and Visitors Bureau to promote travel and tourism."

SECTION 2. Section 9(c) of S.L. 2001-480 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 9.(c) Use of Proceeds From Additional Two Percent (2%) Tax. – Durham County shall, on a monthly basis, remit the net proceeds of the tax levied under Section 6(b) of this act to the Durham ~~Tourism Development Authority created by~~Convention and Visitors Bureau as set out in Section 10 of this act.

The ~~Authority~~ Bureau may use the funds remitted to it under this subsection only to promote travel, tourism, and conventions in Durham County.

SECTION 3. Section 9(d) of S.L. 2001-480 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 9.(d) Use of Proceeds From Additional One Percent (1%) Tax During First 24 Months. – Durham County shall, on a monthly basis, remit the net proceeds of the occupancy tax levied under Section 6(c) of this act to the Durham ~~Tourism Development Authority created by~~Convention and Visitors Bureau as set out in Section 10 of this act. During the first 24 months that the tax is levied under Section 6(c) of this act, the ~~Authority~~ Bureau shall distribute and use these net proceeds in the following priority order:

(1) To Durham County, up to the first two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) collected to fund the development of a Cultural Arts Master Plan.

(2) The ~~Authority~~ Bureau shall use the next seven hundred thousand dollars ($700,000) collected to promote travel, tourism, and conventions in Durham County.

(3) To the City of Durham, the next two hundred forty-eight thousand dollars ($248,000) collected. The city shall use these funds for the design and engineering costs associated with the construction of a Performing Arts Theater.

(4) To Durham County, the next four hundred thousand dollars ($400,000) collected for improvements to the Museum of Life and Science. This may include the financing of debt service.

(5) To Durham County, the next five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) collected. These funds shall be credited into an Arts Reserve Fund and used to implement the Cultural Arts Master Plan developed under subdivision (1) of this subsection.

(6) The ~~Authority~~ Bureau shall use any net proceeds collected in excess of two million forty-eight thousand dollars ($2,048,000) to promote travel, tourism, and conventions in Durham County."

SECTION 4. Section 9(e) of S.L. 2001-480 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 9.(e) Use of Proceeds From Additional One Percent (1%) Tax After First 24 Months. – The net proceeds of the tax collected under Section 6(c) of this act after the first 24 months that the tax is levied shall be remitted monthly to the Durham ~~Tourism Development Authority created by~~Convention and Visitors Bureau as set out in Section 10 of this act. The ~~Authority~~ Bureau shall use and distribute these net proceeds in the following priority order:

(1) To the City of Durham, the first one million four hundred thousand dollars ($1,400,000) collected annually to finance the debt service associated with the construction of the Performing Arts Theater. Until those funds are distributed to the City of Durham for that purpose, they shall be held by the Durham ~~Tourism Development~~

~~Authority~~Convention and Visitors Bureau in a capital reserve fund as provided by Part 2 of Article 3 of Chapter 159 of the General Statutes except they may be expended as provided by the last sentence of Section 7(a) of this act if the tax is repealed as provided by Section 7(a) of this act. Any interest earned by that fund shall be credited to the fund.

(2) Thirty-two years after the levy of the tax authorized under Section 6(c) of this act, instead of the allocation under subdivision (1) of this subsection, the first one million four hundred thousand dollars ($1,400,000) collected annually shall be used by the ~~Authority~~ Bureau to promote travel and tourism or for tourism related expenditures.

(3) To Durham County, the next five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) collected annually to be used for improvements to the Museum of Life and Science. This may include the financing of debt service. Any of these funds that are not needed for this purpose shall be returned to the ~~Authority~~ Bureau and used to promote travel and tourism.

(4) The ~~Authority~~ Bureau shall use any net proceeds in excess of that provided by subdivisions (1), (2), and (3) of this subsection to promote travel, tourism, and conventions in Durham County.

As used in this subsection, "annually" means the 12-month period beginning after the first 24 months that the tax authorized under Section 6(c) of this act is levied."

SECTION 5. Section 9(f) of S.L. 2001-480 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 9.(f) Definitions. – For the purpose of this Part:

(1) "Promote travel and tourism" means to advertise or market an area or activity, to publish and distribute pamphlets and other materials, to conduct market research, and to engage in similar promotional activities that attract tourists or business travelers to the area, and also includes administrative expenses incurred in engaging in these activities.

(2) "Promote travel, tourism, and conventions" means to advertise or market an area or activity, to publish and distribute pamphlets and other materials, to conduct market research, and to engage in similar promotional activities that attract tourists, business travelers, or conventioneers to the area, and also includes administrative expenses incurred in engaging in these activities.

(3) "Tourism related expenditures" are those that, in the judgment of the Durham ~~Tourism Development Authority,~~Convention and Visitors Bureau, are designed to increase the use of lodging facilities, meeting facilities, and convention facilities in the county by attracting tourists or business travelers to the county, and includes capital expenditures related to that purpose."

SECTION 6. Section 10(a) of S.L. 2001-480 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 10.(a) Establishment ~~and Membership~~ of the Durham Convention and Visitors Bureau as a Tourism Development Authority. – ~~There is created the Durham~~ ~~Tourism Development Authority, which shall be a~~ The Durham Convention and Visitors Bureau, created on January 17, 1989, in an interlocal agreement between Durham County and the City of Durham to meet provisions of Chapter 969 of the 1985 Session Laws, shall act as a tourism development authority, which is a public authority under the Local Government Budget and Fiscal Control Act."

SECTION 7. Section 10(b) of S.L. 2001-480 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 10.(b) ~~From March 1, 2002, through June 30, 2004, the~~The members of the board of directors of the Durham Convention and Visitors Bureau and the members of the advisory board of the Durham Convention and Visitors Bureau shall together be ~~ex officio~~the board of directors of the ~~Authority.~~Durham Convention and Visitors Bureau. The transition to a board membership which meets the criteria established in Section 10.(c) of this act shall be completed prior to July 1, 2004."

SECTION 8. Section 10(c) of S.L. 2001-480 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 10.(c) ~~Beginning July 1, 2004, the~~The membership of the ~~Durham Tourism Development Authority~~board of directors of the Durham Convention and Visitors Bureau shall be as specified in an interlocal cooperation agreement between Durham County and the City of Durham. The agreement shall provide for the number of members, terms of office, who shall appoint the membership, and such other provisions as may reasonably be necessary. The interlocal agreement ~~must be entered into prior to May 1, 2002, but~~ may ~~thereafter~~ be amended as provided by its terms.

At least three-fourths of the membership of the ~~Durham Tourism Development Authority~~ Durham Convention and Visitors Bureau must be, at the time of appointment, active in the promotion of travel, tourism, or conventions in Durham County. One-third of the membership must be affiliated with organizations that collect the tax imposed by Section 6 of this act. If the interlocal cooperation agreement is terminated, the directors of the Durham Convention and Visitors Bureau shall continue to serve until the appointment of their successors pursuant to further action by the City of Durham and the County of Durham or by the General Assembly."

SECTION 9. Section 10(d) of S.L. 2001-480 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 10.(d) Duties. – The ~~Authority~~ Durham Convention and Visitors Bureau shall expend the net proceeds of the taxes levied under Section 6 of this act only for the purposes provided in this act. The ~~Authority~~ Bureau shall promote travel, tourism, and conventions in the county."

SECTION 10. Section 10(e) of S.L. 2001-480 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 10.(e) Reports. – The ~~Authority shall report quarterly and at the close of the fiscal year to the county board of commissioners on its receipts and expenditures for the preceding quarter and for the year in such detail as the board may require.~~Durham Convention and Visitors Bureau shall file a copy of its audit report with the Durham County Board of Commissioners and the Durham City Council following the close of each fiscal year."

SECTION 11. This act is effective when it becomes law.

SENATE BILL 1357
Amend Durham Occupancy Tax Provisions

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	House Finance	Sponsor:	Sen. Wib Gulley
Date:	July 16, 2002	Analysis by:	Martha Walston
Version:	1st Edition		Staff Attorney

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 1357 makes the following changes to the Durham occupancy tax portion of HB 917, enacted last session as S.L. 2001-480:

1. Retains the name "Durham Convention and Visitors Bureau" for the administrator of the occupancy tax net proceeds. – SB 1357 provides that the current Durham Convention and Visitors Bureau (DCVB) will act as a tourism development authority but will keep the name DCVB. This should allow the DCVB to retain and use the long-standing equity in the current name, carry forward assets and liabilities, minimize administrative changes such as taxpayer ID numbers, IRS designations, clauses in documents, and alleviate the expense of two audits. S.L. 2001-480 provides for the proceeds of the additional 2% occupancy tax and the additional 1% occupancy tax to be remitted to the Durham Tourism Development Authority (TDA). Prior to S.L. 2001-480, the additional 2% occupancy tax was remitted to the DCVB. Sections 1 through 5 of the Bill are merely conforming changes.
2. Clarifies that the transition of the make-up of the board of the DCVB may begin prior to July 1, 2004 - S.L. 2001-480 provides that from March 1, 2002 through June 30, 2004, members of the board of directors of the DCVB and the members of the advisory board of the DCVB are together ex-officio the board of directors of the TDA, and that beginning on July 1, 2004, the membership of the TDA will be as specified in an interlocal cooperation agreement between Durham County and the City of Durham. The Bill provides that the transition of the Board's membership must be completed prior to July 1, 2004. This clarification was made to smooth the transition.
3. Provides for continuation of the DCVB if the interlocal cooperation agreement is terminated - The Bill provides that the directors of the DCVB will continue to serve until appointment of their successors by authority of the General Assembly or of the City of Durham and the County of Durham. S.L. 2001-480 does not address this issue.
4. Amends the reporting requirements - S.L. 2001-480 requires the TDA to report quarterly and at the close of the fiscal year to the county board of commissioners. The Bill requires the DCVB to file its audit report with the county board of commissioners and the city council following the close of each fiscal year, as was the practice prior to S.L. 2001-480.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO ACCELERATE THE ADDITIONAL ONE-HALF CENT LOCAL OPTION SALES AND USE TAX AND TO MAKE CONFORMING AND TECHNICAL CHANGES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 105-517(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) Effective Date. – A tax levied under this Article may not become effective before ~~July 1, 2003.~~September 1, 2002."

SECTION 2. G.S. 105-518(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Ballot Question. – The question to be presented on a ballot for a special election concerning the levy of the taxes authorized by this Article must be in the following form:

'[ ] FOR [ ] AGAINST

one-half percent (½%) local sales and use taxes, ~~to replace the current one-half percent (½%) State sales and use taxes that end July 1, 2003.~~'in addition to all current State and local sales and use taxes.' "

SECTION 3.(a) G.S. 105-520 reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-520. Distribution of taxes.

(a) Point of Origin. – The Secretary must, on a ~~monthly~~ quarterly basis, allocate to each taxing county one-half of the net proceeds of the tax collected in that county under this Article. If the Secretary collects taxes under this Article in a ~~month~~ quarter and the taxes cannot be identified as being attributable to a particular taxing county, the Secretary must allocate one-half of the net proceeds of these taxes among the taxing counties in proportion to the amount of taxes collected in each county under this Article in that ~~month.~~quarter.

(b) Per Capita. – The Secretary must, on a ~~monthly~~ quarterly basis, allocate the remaining net proceeds of the tax collected under this Article among the taxing counties on a per capita basis according to the most recent annual population estimates certified to the Secretary by the State Budget Officer. The Secretary must then adjust the amount allocated to each county as provided in G.S. 105-486(b).

(c) Distribution Between Counties and Cities. – The Secretary must divide and distribute the funds allocated under this section each ~~month~~ quarter between each taxing county and the municipalities located in the county in accordance with the method by which the one percent (1%) sales and use taxes levied in that county pursuant to Article 39 of this Chapter or Chapter 1096 of the 1967 Session Laws are distributed. No municipality may receive any funds under this subsection for a ~~month~~ quarter if it is not entitled to a distribution under G.S. 105-501 for the same ~~month.~~quarter."

SECTION 3.(b) This section is repealed effective July 1, 2003.

SECTION 4.(a) G.S. 105-521 reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-521. Transitional local government hold harmless.

(a) Definitions. – The following definitions apply in this section:

(1) Local government. – A county or municipality that received a distribution of local sales taxes in the most recent fiscal year for which a local sales tax share has been calculated.

(2) Local sales tax share. – A local government's percentage share of the two-cent (2¢) sales taxes distributed during the most recent fiscal year for which data are available.

(3) Repealed reimbursement amount. – The total amount a local government would have been entitled to receive during the ~~2002-2003~~ 2001-2002 fiscal year under G.S. 105-164.44C, 105-275.1, 105-275.2, 105-277.001, and 105-277.1A, if the Governor had not withheld any distributions under those sections.

(4) Two-cent (2¢) sales taxes. – The first one-cent (1¢) sales and use tax authorized in Article 39 of this Chapter and in Chapter 1096 of the 1967 Session Laws, the first one-half cent (½¢) local sales and use tax authorized in Article 40 of this Chapter, and the second one-half cent (½¢) local sales and use tax authorized in Article 42 of this Chapter.

(b) ~~Distributions.~~ 2002-2003 Distribution. – On or before September 15, 2002, the Secretary must multiply each local government's local sales tax share by the sum of two hundred seventy-eight million seven hundred eighty-five thousand six hundred dollars ($278,785,600). If the resulting amount is less than one hundred percent (100%) of the local government's repealed reimbursement amount, the Secretary must pay the local government the difference, but not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00).

(c) Subsequent Distributions. – On or before September 15, 2003, and each September 15 thereafter, the Secretary must multiply each local government's local sales tax share by the estimated amount that all local governments would be expected to receive during the current fiscal year under G.S. 105-520 if every county levied the tax under this Article for the year. If the resulting amount is less than one hundred percent (100%) of the local government's repealed reimbursement amount, the Secretary must pay the local government the difference, but not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00).

(d) Estimated Amounts. – On or before May 1, 2003, and each May 1 thereafter, the Office of State Budget and Management and the Fiscal Research Division of the General Assembly must each submit to the Secretary and to the General Assembly a final projection of the estimated amount that all local governments would be expected to receive during the upcoming fiscal year under G.S. 105-520 if every county levied the tax under this Article for the fiscal year. If the Secretary does not use the lower of the two final projections to make the calculation required by this subsection, the Secretary must report the reasons for this decision to the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations within 60 days after receiving the projections.

~~(c)~~(e) Source of Funds. – The Secretary must draw the funds distributed under this section from sales and use tax collections under Article 5 of this Chapter.

~~(d)~~(f) Reports. – The Secretary must report to the Revenue Laws Study Committee by January 31, ~~2004,~~2003, and each January 31 thereafter, the amount distributed under this section for the current fiscal year."

SECTION 4.(b) G.S. 105-521 is repealed effective July 1, 2012.

SECTION 5. Effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002, G.S. 105-269.14(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Distribution. – The Secretary must distribute ~~one-third~~a portion of the net use tax proceeds collected under this section to counties and ~~cities in proportion to their total distributions under Articles 39, 40, and 42 of this Chapter and Chapter 1096 of the 1967 Session Laws for the most recent period for which data is available.~~cities. The portion to be distributed to all counties and cities shall be the total net use tax proceeds collected under this section multiplied by a fraction. The numerator of the fraction is the local use tax proceeds collected under this section. The denominator of the fraction is the total use tax proceeds collected under this section. The Secretary shall then distribute this portion to the counties and cities in proportion to their total distributions under Articles 39, 40, 42, 43, and 44 of this Chapter and Chapter 1096 of the 1967 Session Laws for the most recent period for which data are available. The provisions of G.S. 105-472, 105-486, and 105-501 do not apply to tax proceeds distributed under this section."

SECTION 6. G.S. 159-15 reads as rewritten:

"§ 159-15. Amendments to the budget ordinance.

Except as otherwise restricted by law, the governing board may amend the budget ordinance at any time after the ordinance's adoption in any manner, so long as the ordinance, as amended, continues to satisfy the requirements of G.S. 159-8 and 159-13. However, except as otherwise provided in this section, no amendment may increase or reduce a property tax levy or in any manner alter a property taxpayer's liability, unless the board is ordered to do so by a court of competent jurisdiction, or by a State agency having the power to compel the levy of taxes by the board.

If after July 1 the local government receives additional and unanticipated revenues, the governing body may, before January 1, amend the budget ordinance to reduce the property tax levy to account for the unanticipated revenues.

The governing board by appropriate resolution or ordinance may authorize the budget officer to transfer moneys from one appropriation to another within the same fund subject to such limitations and procedures as it may prescribe. Any such transfers shall be reported to the governing board at its next regular meeting and shall be entered in the minutes."

SECTION 7. Section 34.14(b) of S.L. 2001-424 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 34.14.(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 105-466(c), a tax levied during the ~~2003~~ 2002 calendar year under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes, as enacted by this act, may become effective on the first day of any calendar month during 2002 beginning on or after ~~July 1, 2003.~~September 1, 2002. Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 105-466(c), if a county levies a tax during the ~~2003~~ 2002 calendar year under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes, as enacted by this act, that is to become effective on or before January 1, 2003, the county is required to give the Secretary of Revenue ~~only~~ the following notice:

(1) If the tax is to become effective September 1, 2002, the county must notify the Secretary on or before August 15, 2002.

(2) If the tax is to become effective on the first day of any other calendar month beginning on or before January 1, 2003, the county must give the Secretary 30 days' advance notice of the tax levy.

For taxes ~~levied on or~~that are to become effective after January 1, ~~2004~~,2003, the provisions of G.S. 105-466(c) apply."

SECTION 8. Section 34.15(b) of S.L. 2001-424 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 34.15.(b) This section becomes effective July 1, ~~2003.~~2002."

SECTION 9. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, for the month of September 2002, the administration and distribution of taxes collected under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes shall be in accordance with this section. For that month, the Secretary of Revenue shall create a separate account for the collection of taxes under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes. In that month, retailers shall report taxes collected under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes on a form separate from that on which the retailer reports other sales and use taxes collected. In that month, the Secretary shall allocate to each county that has imposed a tax under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes a portion of the total amount of tax collected under that Article. A county's allocation shall be determined by multiplying the total amount of tax collected under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes for that month by a fraction. The numerator of the fraction is the amount allocated under G.S. 105-472, 105-486, and 105-501 for the first quarter of the 2002-2003 fiscal year to the county. The denominator of the fraction is the total amount allocated under G.S. 105-472, 105-486, and 105-501 for the first quarter of the 2002-2003 fiscal year to all counties that have imposed a tax under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes. The Secretary shall distribute these taxes at the end of the quarter in accordance with G.S. 105-520(c).

SECTION 10. To the extent the Department of Revenue's nonrecurring costs of implementing and administering Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes, as amended, exceed funds available in its budget for the 2002-2003 fiscal year, the Department may pay the excess cost by withholding up to two hundred seventy-five thousand dollars ($275,000) from collections under Subchapter VIII of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes.

SECTION 11. The Department of Revenue may contract for supplies, materials, equipment, and contractual services related to the provision of notice, the creation of tax forms and instructions, and the development of computer software necessitated by the amendments in this act without being subject to the requirements of Article 3 or Article 8 of Chapter 143 of the General Statutes.

SECTION 12.(a) The title of Article 39 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes reads as rewritten:

"Article 39.

First One-Cent (1¢) Local Government Sales and Use Tax."

SECTION 12.(b) G.S. 105-463 reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-463. Short title.

This Article shall be known as the '~~Local~~ First One-Cent (1¢) Local Government Sales and Use Tax ~~Act.~~'Act."

SECTION 13.(a) The title of Article 40 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes reads as rewritten:

"Article 40.

~~Supplemental~~ First One-Half Cent (1/2¢) Local Government Sales and Use ~~Taxes.~~Tax."

SECTION 13.(b) G.S. 105-480 reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-480. Short title.

This Article shall be known as the ~~Supplemental~~ First One-Half Cent (1/2¢) Local Government Sales and Use Tax Act."

SECTION 14.(a) The title of Article 42 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes reads as rewritten:

"Article 42.

SECTION 14.(b) G.S. 105-495 reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-495. Short title.

This Article shall be known as the ~~Additional Supplemental~~Second One-Half Cent (1/2¢) Local Government Sales and Use Tax Act."

SECTION 15. Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 105-517(b), a county may levy a tax by resolution that becomes effective on or before January 1, 2003, under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes without giving at least 10 days' public notice of its intent to adopt the resolution and without holding a public hearing on the issue of adopting the resolution.

SECTION 16. Except as otherwise provided, this act is effective when it becomes law.

HOUSE BILL 1633:
Accelerate Local Option Sales Tax

SUMMARY: Sections 1 through 15 of the bill accelerate the 2001 legislation establishing a sales tax swap, as follows:

- Accelerates the effective date of the local option sales tax from July 1, 2003, to September 1, 2002.
- Accelerates the repeal of the tax reimbursements, from July 1, 2003, to July 1, 2002.
- Provides a hold harmless for local governments for 10 years.

- Sections 15.1 through 15.7 of the bill seek to secure local revenues in two ways:
  - They prohibit the Governor from withholding certain shared tax revenues by classifying them as "local revenues" rather than "State expenditures" thus arguably removing those funds from the scope of the Governor's constitutional budgetary authority.
  - They restrict the Governor's ability to withhold funds otherwise appropriated or committed to local governments, including reimbursement money, by requiring that the Governor first exhaust all other sources of revenue, including surplus in the treasury at the beginning of the fiscal period, and be authorized by an act of the General Assembly.

Local Option Sales Tax. – The proposed committee substitute for House Bill 1633 accelerates many of the provisions enacted last session. Under the bill, counties are authorized to levy an additional half-cent local sales tax effective as early as September 1, 2002. If counties levy the tax, the combined State and local sales tax rate would be 7% from September 2002 until July 1, 2003; at that time the State's half-cent tax sunsets and the combined rate would drop to 6½%. To accomplish the sales tax acceleration, the bill provides for the following:

- It would allow the counties to enact the tax without a public hearing.
- It would allow the counties to enact the tax with only a 15-day notice to the Department of Revenue.
- It would allow counties and cities to amend their budget ordinances after July 1st to reduce their property tax levy to account for unanticipated revenues.
- It would modify the local tax distribution formula for the first month (September).

- It would authorize the Department of Revenue to withhold up to $275,000 for 2002-2003 to cover its excess nonrecurring costs for implementing the new sales tax on short notice.
- It would exempt the Department of Revenue from the public contract bidding requirements for the procurement of supplies, materials, equipment, and contractual services related to the provision of notice and the development of computer software necessitated by the expedited provisions of the bill.

Like the existing State sales tax, the new half-cent local sales tax would not apply to food.[1] Unlike the tax authorized last year, this local sales tax could be enacted without a public hearing if the resolution becomes effective on or before January 1, 2003. A county may still choose to submit the question to the voters in a special election held after 30 days' public notice. If a county chooses to submit the question to the voters and the voters reject the tax levy, the county may not enact the tax for at least two years.

Under general law, a county must give the Secretary of Revenue at least 90 days advance notice of a new tax levy or tax rate change; and a new tax levy or a tax rate change may become effective only on January 1 or July 1. This bill provides for an expedited levy. For the tax to become effective September 1, 2002, a county must notify the Secretary of Revenue of the tax's imposition by August 15, 2002. If the tax is to become effective on any other date on or before January 1, 2003, the county must give the Secretary 30 days advance notice of the tax levy. Thereafter, the current law requirements of 90 days notice and a January 1 or July 1 effective date are re-instated.

Beginning October 1, 2002, the net proceeds of the tax would be allocated among the counties as provided in the legislation enacted last year: one-half would be allocated on a point-of-origin basis and one-half would be allocated on a per capita basis.[2] However, for the month September 2002, the tax revenues would be placed in a separate account and allocated to the taxing counties in proportion to each county's respective share of the current two-cent distribution for the first quarter of the 2002-03 fiscal year. Each county's allocation would then be divided between the county and the municipalities in the county using the same formula by which the existing local sales taxes are divided in that county.[3] As with the existing local sales taxes, the State's costs of collecting and administering the new tax come from the local tax proceeds.

[1] The current two-cent local sales tax applies to food.

[2] Per capita distribution of a local tax probably violates the law of the land clause of the North Carolina Constitution, the uniformity requirements of the North Carolina Constitution, or both. The law of the land clause, which is equivalent to the due process clause of the federal constitution, prohibits the levying of a tax on one tax district for the benefit of another tax district. A local option sales tax with per capita distribution is such a tax: it is a county tax, levied by the board of county commissioners, on transactions within the county. The tax proceeds belong to the county; the constitution does not permit the county or the State to use these tax proceeds except for the benefit of the county. Distributing the county's tax proceeds throughout the State based on population violates the due process rights of the county's taxpayers. If the Statewide local option sales tax Article is viewed as a State tax for the benefit of all counties that choose to participate, it violates the uniformity requirement of Section 2 of Article V of the North Carolina Constitution, as interpreted by the North Carolina Supreme Court.

Local Government Reimbursements. - Last session, the General Assembly repealed all of the State's reimbursement payments to local governments, effective beginning with the 2003-2004 fiscal year. This bill would accelerate the repeal, effective July 1, 2002. State reimbursements are amounts distributed to local units to compensate them for revenue lost as a result of the removal by the General Assembly of property from the local sales and use tax base, the local property tax base, or the intangibles tax base. State reimbursements consist of reimbursements for the repeal of the property tax on inventories and on poultry and livestock, the repeal of the intangibles tax, the "homestead exclusion" from property tax, and the repeal of local sales and use taxes on food purchased with food stamps.

This bill does not repeal or reduce the distribution of local government tax-sharing revenues: excise tax on beer and wine, franchise tax on electricity, gross receipts tax on piped natural gas, sales tax on telecommunications service, and the Powell bill revenues.

Local Government Hold Harmless. - Last session, the General Assembly provided an annual hold-harmless distribution from the State's General Fund to counties and cities to ensure that none of them would lose money when the local government reimbursements repealed were netted against the estimated proceeds of the sales tax if it were levied in each county as of July 1, 2003. This year, the Governor's budget provides for the repeal of the reimbursements but it does not provide for any hold harmless distributions. This bill proposes an acceleration of the same hold harmless provision in last year's legislation with one major exception: the hold harmless payments would end on July 1, 2012.

Under the hold harmless distribution in this bill, a county or city would receive a distribution if the county's or city's estimated proceeds of a half-cent tax would be less than 100% of the amount it would have gotten under the repealed reimbursements. The distribution amount would be the difference between the two. If a county's or city's estimated gain from the half-cent tax equals or exceeds 100% of its repealed reimbursement amount, it does not receive a hold harmless payment from the State. The hold harmless payment is the same whether or not the new tax is levied in the county. The Department of Revenue will make the hold harmless distribution annually, drawing the funds from State sales tax collections. The hold harmless payments must be made by September 15 of each year, beginning in 2002, and ending after the 2011 payment.

Secure Local Revenues. - Sections 15.1 through 15.7 of the bill have already passed the House as House Bill 1490. Sections 15.1 through 15.6 of the bill amend the following tax-sharing statutes by characterizing the revenue distributed by those statutes as

[3] The sales tax revenues are distributed between a county and its municipalities on either a per capita basis or an ad valorem basis. The county decides which distribution method it will use. The method may be changed each year.

distributions of "local revenue" rather than "State expenditures" for purposes of interpreting Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution:

Section 15.1 - Beer and wine tax.

Section 15.2 - Franchise gross receipts tax.

Section 15.3 - Piped natural gas tax.

Section 15.4 - Sales tax on telecommunications.

Section 15.5 - Powell Bill funds.

Section 15.6 - Electric cities distribution

Arguably, since the Constitution authorizes the Governor to reduce only "State expenditures," the classification of these state-shared tax revenues as "local revenues" prohibits the Governor from reducing or withholding the distributions. Moreover, these sections would expressly state that the Governor may not reduce or withhold these distributions.

Section 15.7 amends the Executive Budget Act by limiting the Governor's authority to withhold from distribution funds that the General Assembly has appropriated or otherwise committed to local governments, including local reimbursement money. The Governor may withhold these funds only if, after making adequate provision for the prompt payment of principal of and interest on bonds and notes of the State, the Governor has exhausted all other sources of revenue of the State including surplus remaining in the treasury at the beginning of the fiscal period. In addition, the Governor must have been authorized to withhold the funds by an act of the General Assembly.

Based on the current information available, including a recent Attorney General's opinion, it is unclear whether amending the above-referenced statutes would be effective in preventing the Governor from withholding these funds from local governments. If the Governor withheld the funds despite the enactment of this legislation, enforcement of this limitation on the Governor's authority may have to be resolved by a court. The surest way to secure local revenues would be to pass a constitutional amendment prohibiting the Governor from withholding these funds.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO ACCELERATE THE ADDITIONAL ONE-HALF CENT LOCAL OPTION SALES AND USE TAX, TO PROVIDE THAT LOCAL REVENUES MAY NOT BE WITHHELD OR IMPOUNDED BY THE GOVERNOR, AND TO MAKE CONFORMING AND TECHNICAL CHANGES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 105-517(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) Effective Date. – A tax levied under this Article may not become effective before ~~July 1, 2003.~~September 1, 2002."

SECTION 2. G.S. 105-518(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Ballot Question. – The question to be presented on a ballot for a special election concerning the levy of the taxes authorized by this Article must be in the following form:

"[ ] FOR [ ] AGAINST

one-half percent (½%) local sales and use taxes, ~~to replace the current one-half percent (½%) State sales and use taxes that end July 1, 2003.~~"in addition to all current State and local sales and use taxes." "

SECTION 3.(a) G.S. 105-520 reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-520. Distribution of taxes.

(a) Point of Origin. – The Secretary must, on a ~~monthly~~ quarterly basis, allocate to each taxing county one-half of the net proceeds of the tax collected in that county under this Article. If the Secretary collects taxes under this Article in a ~~month~~ quarter and the taxes cannot be identified as being attributable to a particular taxing county, the Secretary must allocate one-half of the net proceeds of these taxes among the taxing counties in proportion to the amount of taxes collected in each county under this Article in that ~~month.~~quarter.

(b) Per Capita. – The Secretary must, on a ~~monthly~~ quarterly basis, allocate the remaining net proceeds of the tax collected under this Article among the taxing counties on a per capita basis according to the most recent annual population estimates certified to the Secretary by the State Budget Officer. The Secretary must then adjust the amount allocated to each county as provided in G.S. 105-486(b).

(c) Distribution Between Counties and Cities. – The Secretary must divide and distribute the funds allocated under this section each ~~month~~ quarter between each taxing county and the municipalities located in the county in accordance with the method by which the one percent (1%) sales and use taxes levied in that county pursuant to Article 39 of this Chapter or Chapter 1096 of the 1967 Session Laws are distributed. No municipality may receive any funds under this subsection for a ~~month~~ quarter if it is not entitled to a distribution under G.S. 105-501 for the same ~~month.~~quarter."

SECTION 3.(b) This section is repealed effective July 1, 2003.

SECTION 4.(a) G.S. 105-521 reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-521. Transitional local government hold harmless.

(a) Definitions. – The following definitions apply in this section:

(1) Local government. – A county or municipality that received a distribution of local sales taxes in the most recent fiscal year for which a local sales tax share has been calculated.

(2) Local sales tax share. – A local government"s percentage share of the two-cent (2¢) sales taxes distributed during the most recent fiscal year for which data are available.

(3) Repealed reimbursement amount. – The total amount a local government would have been entitled to receive during the ~~2002-2003~~ 2001-2002 fiscal year under G.S. 105-164.44C, 105-275.1, 105-275.2, 105-277.001, and 105-277.1A, if the Governor had not withheld any distributions under those sections.

(4) Two-cent (2¢) sales taxes. – The first one-cent (1¢) sales and use tax authorized in Article 39 of this Chapter and in Chapter 1096 of the 1967 Session Laws, the first one-half cent (½¢) local sales and use tax authorized in Article 40 of this Chapter, and the second one-half cent (½¢) local sales and use tax authorized in Article 42 of this Chapter.

(b) ~~Distributions.~~ 2002-2003 Distribution. – On or before September 15, 2002, the Secretary must multiply each local government"s local sales tax share by the sum of two hundred seventy-eight million seven hundred eighty-five thousand six hundred dollars ($278,785,600). If the resulting amount is less than one hundred percent (100%) of the local government"s repealed reimbursement amount, the Secretary must pay the local government the difference, but not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00).

(c) Subsequent Distributions. – On or before September 15, 2003, and each September 15 thereafter, the Secretary must multiply each local government"s local sales tax share by the estimated amount that all local governments would be expected to receive during the current fiscal year under G.S. 105-520 if every county levied the tax under this Article for the year. If the resulting amount is less than one hundred percent (100%) of the local government"s repealed reimbursement amount, the Secretary must pay the local government the difference, but not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00).

(d) Estimated Amounts. – On or before May 1, 2003, and each May 1 thereafter, the Office of State Budget and Management and the Fiscal Research Division of the General Assembly must each submit to the Secretary and to the General Assembly a final projection of the estimated amount that all local governments would be expected to receive during the upcoming fiscal year under G.S. 105-520 if every county levied the tax under this Article for the fiscal year. If the Secretary does not use the lower of the two final projections to make the calculation required by this subsection, the Secretary must report the reasons for this decision to the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations within 60 days after receiving the projections.

~~(c)~~(e) Source of Funds. – The Secretary must draw the funds distributed under this section from sales and use tax collections under Article 5 of this Chapter.

~~(d)~~(f) Reports. – The Secretary must report to the Revenue Laws Study Committee by January 31, ~~2004,~~2003, and each January 31 thereafter, the amount distributed under this section for the current fiscal year."

SECTION 4.(b) G.S. 105-521 is repealed effective July 1, 2012.

SECTION 5. Effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002, G.S. 105-269.14(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Distribution. – The Secretary must distribute ~~one-third~~a portion of the net use tax proceeds collected under this section to counties and ~~cities in proportion to their total distributions under Articles 39, 40, and 42 of this Chapter and Chapter 1096 of the 1967 Session Laws for the most recent period for which data is available.~~cities. The portion to be distributed to all counties and cities shall be the total net use tax proceeds collected under this section multiplied by a fraction. The numerator of the fraction is the local use tax proceeds collected under this section. The denominator of the fraction is the total use tax proceeds collected under this section. The Secretary shall then distribute this portion to the counties and cities in proportion to their total distributions under Articles 39, 40, 42, 43, and 44 of this Chapter and Chapter 1096 of the 1967 Session Laws for the most recent period for which data are available. The provisions of G.S. 105-472, 105-486, and 105-501 do not apply to tax proceeds distributed under this section."

SECTION 6. G.S. 159-15 reads as rewritten:

"§ 159-15. Amendments to the budget ordinance.

Except as otherwise restricted by law, the governing board may amend the budget ordinance at any time after the ordinance"s adoption in any manner, so long as the ordinance, as amended, continues to satisfy the requirements of G.S. 159-8 and 159-13. However, except as otherwise provided in this section, no amendment may increase or reduce a property tax levy or in any manner alter a property taxpayer"s liability, unless the board is ordered to do so by a court of competent jurisdiction, or by a State agency having the power to compel the levy of taxes by the board.

If after July 1 the local government receives additional and unanticipated revenues, the governing body may, before January 1, amend the budget ordinance to reduce the property tax levy to account for the unanticipated revenues.

The governing board by appropriate resolution or ordinance may authorize the budget officer to transfer moneys from one appropriation to another within the same fund subject to such limitations and procedures as it may prescribe. Any such transfers shall be reported to the governing board at its next regular meeting and shall be entered in the minutes."

SECTION 7. Section 34.14(b) of S.L. 2001-424 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 34.14.(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 105-466(c), a tax levied during the ~~2003~~ 2002 calendar year under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes, as enacted by this act, may become effective on the first day of any calendar month during 2002 beginning on or after ~~July 1, 2003.~~September 1, 2002. Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 105-466(c), if a county levies a tax during the ~~2003~~ 2002 calendar year under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes, as enacted by this act, that is to become effective on or before January 1, 2003, the county is required to give the Secretary of Revenue ~~only~~ the following notice:

(1) If the tax is to become effective September 1, 2002, the county must notify the Secretary on or before August 15, 2002.

(2) If the tax is to become effective on the first day of any other calendar month beginning on or before January 1, 2003, the county must give the Secretary 30 days" advance notice of the tax levy.

For taxes ~~levied on or~~that are to become effective after January 1, ~~2004~~,2003, the provisions of G.S. 105-466(c) apply."

SECTION 8. Section 34.15(b) of S.L. 2001-424 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 34.15.(b) This section becomes effective July 1, ~~2003.~~2002."

SECTION 9. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, for the month of September 2002, the administration and distribution of taxes collected under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes shall be in accordance with this section. For that month, the Secretary of Revenue shall create a separate account for the collection of taxes under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes. In that month, retailers shall report taxes collected under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes on a form separate from that on which the retailer reports other sales and use taxes collected. In that month, the Secretary shall allocate to each county that has imposed a tax under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes a portion of the total amount of tax collected under that Article. A county"s allocation shall be determined by multiplying the total amount of tax collected under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes for that month by a fraction. The numerator of the fraction is the amount allocated under G.S. 105-472, 105-486, and 105-501 for the first quarter of the 2002-2003 fiscal year to the county. The denominator of the fraction is the total amount allocated under G.S. 105-472, 105-486, and 105-501 for the first quarter of the 2002-2003 fiscal year to all counties that have imposed a tax under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes. The Secretary shall distribute these taxes at the end of the quarter in accordance with G.S. 105-520(c).

SECTION 10. To the extent the Department of Revenue"s nonrecurring costs of implementing and administering Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes, as amended, exceed funds available in its budget for the 2002-2003 fiscal year, the Department may pay the excess cost by withholding up to two hundred seventy-five thousand dollars ($275,000) from collections under Subchapter VIII of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes.

SECTION 11. The Department of Revenue may contract for supplies, materials, equipment, and contractual services related to the provision of notice, the creation of tax forms and instructions, and the development of computer software necessitated by the amendments in this act without being subject to the requirements of Article 3 or Article 8 of Chapter 143 of the General Statutes.

SECTION 12.(a) The title of Article 39 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes reads as rewritten:

"Article 39.

First One-Cent (1¢) Local Government Sales and Use Tax."

SECTION 12.(b) G.S. 105-463 reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-463. Short title.

This Article shall be known as the "~~Local~~ First One-Cent (1¢) Local Government Sales and Use Tax ~~Act.~~"Act."

SECTION 13.(a) The title of Article 40 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes reads as rewritten:

"Article 40.

~~Supplemental~~ First One-Half Cent (1/2¢) Local Government Sales and Use ~~Taxes.~~Tax."

SECTION 13.(b) G.S. 105-480 reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-480. Short title.

This Article shall be known as the ~~Supplemental~~ First One-Half Cent (1/2¢) Local Government Sales and Use Tax Act."

SECTION 14.(a) The title of Article 42 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes reads as rewritten:

"Article 42.

SECTION 14.(b) G.S. 105-495 reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-495. Short title.

This Article shall be known as the ~~Additional Supplemental~~Second One-Half Cent (1/2¢) Local Government Sales and Use Tax Act."

SECTION 15. Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 105-517(b), a county may levy a tax by resolution that becomes effective on or before January 1, 2003, under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes without giving at least 10 days" public notice of its intent to adopt the resolution and without holding a public hearing on the issue of adopting the resolution.

SECTION 15.1. G.S. 105-113.82(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) Time. – The revenue shall be distributed to cities and counties within 60 days after March 31 of each year. The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 15.2. G.S. 105-116.1(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Distribution. – The Secretary must distribute to the cities part of the taxes collected under this Article on electric power companies. Each city"s share for a calendar quarter is the percentage distribution amount for that city for that quarter minus one-fourth of the city"s hold-back amount and one-fourth of the city"s proportionate share of the annual cost to the Department of administering the distribution. The Secretary must make the distribution within 75 days after the end of each calendar quarter. The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 15.3. G.S. 105-187.44(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Distribution. – Within 75 days after the end of each calendar quarter, the Secretary must distribute to the cities part of the tax proceeds collected under this Article during that quarter. The amount to be distributed to a city is one-half of the amount of tax attributable to that city for that quarter under subsection (a) of this section. The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 15.4. G.S. 105-164.44F is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(f) Nature. – The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 15.5. G.S. 136-41.1 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(d) Nature. – The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 15.6. G.S. 159B-27(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) The State shall distribute to cities and towns which receive electric power and energy from their ownership share of a project or to which electric power and energy is sold by a joint agency an amount equal to a tax of three and nine hundredths percent (3.09%) of all moneys expended by a municipality on account of its ownership share of a project, including payment of principal and interest on bonds issued to finance such ownership share, or an amount equal to a tax of three and nine hundredths percent (3.09%) of the gross receipts from all sales of electric power and energy to such city or town by a joint agency, as the case may be. The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 15.7. G.S. 143-25 reads as rewritten:

"§ 143-25. Maintenance appropriations dependent upon adequacy of revenues to support them.

(a) All maintenance appropriations now or hereafter made are hereby declared to be maximum, conditional and proportionate appropriations, the purpose being to make the appropriations payable in full in the amounts named herein if necessary and then only in the event the aggregate revenues collected and available during each fiscal year of the biennium for which such appropriations are made, are sufficient to pay all of the appropriations in full; otherwise, the said appropriations shall be deemed to be payable in such proportion as the total sum of all appropriations bears to the total amount of revenue available in each of said fiscal years. ~~The~~ Except as provided in subsection (b) of this section, the Director of the Budget is ~~hereby~~ given full power and authority to examine and survey the progress of the collection of the revenue out of which such appropriations are to be made, and to declare and determine the amounts that can be, during each quarter of each of the fiscal years of the biennium properly allocated to each respective appropriation. In making such examination and survey, ~~he~~ the Director of the Budget shall receive estimates of the prospective collection of revenues from the Secretary of Revenue and every other revenue collecting agency of the State. The Director of the Budget may reduce all of said appropriations pro rata when necessary to prevent an overdraft or deficit to the fiscal period for which such appropriations are made. The Governor may also reduce all of said appropriations pursuant to Article III, Section 5(3) of the Constitution in accordance with subsection (b) of this section, after consulting with the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations under G.S. 120-76(8) if prior consultation is required by that section. The purpose and policy of this Article are to provide and insure that there shall be no overdraft or deficit in the general fund of the State at the end of the fiscal period, growing out of appropriations for maintenance and the Director of the Budget is directed and required to so administer this Article as to prevent any such overdraft or deficit. Prior to taking any action under this section to reduce appropriations pro rata, the Governor may consult with the Advisory Budget Commission.

(b) The General Assembly recognizes that it has required units of local government to adopt and maintain annual balanced budgets and take other steps to assure financially sound operations under the Local Government Budget and Fiscal Control Act and other provisions of Chapter 159 of the General Statutes. Accordingly, the General Assembly finds that in order to satisfy those statutory requirements and provide adequate services to their citizens, units of local government must be able to rely on the funds and local revenue sources the General Assembly has provided.

It is the intent of the General Assembly that funds that have been collected by the State on behalf of local governments and funds that the General Assembly has appropriated or otherwise committed to local governments shall not be reduced except as provided in this section. In exercising the powers contained in Section 5(3) of Article III of the Constitution, the Governor shall not withhold from distribution funds that have been collected by the State on behalf of local governments or funds that the General Assembly has appropriated or otherwise committed to local governments unless, after making adequate provision for the prompt payment of principal of and interest on bonds and notes of the State according to their terms, the Governor has exhausted all other sources of revenue of the State including surplus remaining in the treasury at the beginning of the fiscal period and has been authorized to withhold the funds by an act of the General Assembly.

This subsection does not authorize the Governor to withhold revenues from taxes levied by units of local governments and collected by the State. The General Assembly recognizes that under Section 19 of Article I of the North Carolina Constitution and under the Due Process Clause of the United States Constitution, the State is prohibited from taking local tax revenue."

SECTION 16. Except as otherwise provided, this act is effective when it becomes law.

HOUSE BILL 1633 (PCS): Accelerate Local Option Sales Tax

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	House Finance	Sponsor:
Date:	July 15, 2002	Analysis by:	Finance Team
Version:	CSLYx-39

SUMMARY: Accelerates the 2001 legislation establishing a sales tax swap, as follows:

- Accelerates the effective date of the local option sales tax from July 1, 2003, to September 1, 2002.
- Accelerates the repeal of the tax reimbursements, from July 1, 2003, to July 1, 2002.
- Provides a hold harmless for local governments for 10 years.

Local Option Sales Tax. - The proposed committee substitute for House Bill 1633 accelerates many of the provisions enacted last session. Under the bill, counties are authorized to levy an additional half-cent local sales tax effective as early as September 1, 2002. If counties levy the tax, the combined State and local sales tax rate would be 7% from September 2002 until July 1, 2003; at that time the State's half-cent tax sunsets and the combined rate would drop to 6½%. To accomplish the sales tax acceleration, the bill provides for the following:

- It would allow the counties to enact the tax without a public hearing.
- It would allow the counties to enact the tax with only a 15-day notice to the Department of Revenue.
- It would allow counties and cities to amend their budget ordinances after July 1st to reduce their property tax levy to account for unanticipated revenues.
- It would modify the local tax distribution formula for the first month (September).
- It would authorize the Department of Revenue to withhold up to $275,000 for 2002-2003 to cover its excess nonrecurring costs for implementing the new sales tax on short notice.
- It would exempt the Department of Revenue from the public contract bidding requirements for the procurement of supplies, materials, equipment, and contractual services related to the provision of notice and the development of computer software necessitated by the expedited provisions of the bill.[1]

[1] The proposed committee substitute differs from the original bill as follows: (1) It changes the local sales tax acceleration from August 1 to September 1, 2002. (2) Its adds the provision authorizing local governments to reduce property tax rates after July 1 of a fiscal year to account for unanticipated revenues. This provision was introduced by Rep. Baker as House Bill 1485 and was part of the Senate's tax package, Senate Bill 1292, 3rd Edition. (3) It adds

Like the existing State sales tax, the new half-cent local sales tax would not apply to food.[2] Unlike the tax authorized last year, this local sales tax could be enacted without a public hearing if the resolution becomes effective on or before January 1, 2003. A county may still choose to submit the question to the voters in a special election held after 30 days' public notice. If a county chooses to submit the question to the voters and the voters reject the tax levy, the county may not enact the tax for at least two years.

Under general law, a county must give the Secretary of Revenue at least 90 days advance notice of a new tax levy or tax rate change; and a new tax levy or a tax rate change may become effective only on January 1 or July 1. This bill provides for an expedited levy. For the tax to become effective September 1, 2002, a county must notify the Secretary of Revenue of the tax's imposition by August 15, 2002. If the tax is to become effective on any other date on or before January 1, 2003, the county must give the Secretary 30 days advance notice of the tax levy. Thereafter, the current law requirements of 90 days notice and a January 1 or July 1 effective date are re-instated.

Beginning October 1, 2002, the net proceeds of the tax would be allocated among the counties as provided in the legislation enacted last year: one-half would be allocated on a point-of-origin basis and one-half would be allocated on a per capita basis.[3] However, for the month September 2002, the tax revenues would be placed in a separate account and allocated to the taxing counties in proportion to each county's respective share of the current two-cent distribution for the first quarter of the 2002-03 fiscal year. Each county's allocation would then be divided between the county and the municipalities in the county using the same formula by which the existing local sales taxes are divided in that county.[4] As with the existing local sales taxes, the State's costs of collecting and administering the new tax come from the local tax proceeds.

Local Government Reimbursements. - Last session, the General Assembly repealed all of the State's reimbursement payments to local governments, effective beginning with the the provisions regarding the first month distribution, the Department of Revenue's excess costs, and the bidding exemption. (4) It makes technical and conforming changes.

[2] The current two-cent local sales tax applies to food.

[3] Per capita distribution of a local tax probably violates the law of the land clause of the North Carolina Constitution, the uniformity requirements of the North Carolina Constitution, or both. The law of the land clause, which is equivalent to the due process clause of the federal constitution, prohibits the levying of a tax on one tax district for the benefit of another tax district. A local option sales tax with per capita distribution is such a tax: it is a county tax, levied by the board of county commissioners, on transactions within the county. The tax proceeds belong to the county; the constitution does not permit the county or the State to use these tax proceeds except for the benefit of the county. Distributing the county's tax proceeds throughout the State based on population violates the due process rights of the county's taxpayers. If the Statewide local option sales tax Article is viewed as a State tax for the benefit of all counties that choose to participate, it violates the uniformity requirement of Section 2 of Article V of the North Carolina Constitution, as interpreted by the North Carolina Supreme Court.

[4] The sales tax revenues are distributed between a county and its municipalities on either a per capita basis or an ad valorem basis. The county decides which distribution method it will use. The method may be changed each year.

2003-2004 fiscal year. This bill would accelerate the repeal, effective July 1, 2002. State reimbursements are amounts distributed to local units to compensate them for revenue lost as a result of the removal by the General Assembly of property from the local sales and use tax base, the local property tax base, or the intangibles tax base. State reimbursements consist of reimbursements for the repeal of the property tax on inventories and on poultry and livestock, the repeal of the intangibles tax, the "homestead exclusion" from property tax, and the repeal of local sales and use taxes on food purchased with food stamps.

This bill does not repeal or reduce the distribution of local government tax-sharing revenues: excise tax on beer and wine, franchise tax on electricity, gross receipts tax on piped natural gas, sales tax on telecommunications service, and the Powell bill revenues.

Local Government Hold Harmless. - Last session, the General Assembly provided an annual hold-harmless distribution from the State's General Fund to counties and cities to ensure that none of them would lose money when the local government reimbursements repealed were netted against the estimated proceeds of the sales tax if it were levied in each county as of July 1, 2003. This year, the Governor's budget provides for the repeal of the reimbursements but it does not provide for any hold harmless distributions. This bill proposes an acceleration of the same hold harmless provision in last year's legislation with one major exception: the hold harmless payments would end on July 1, 2012.

Under the hold harmless distribution in this bill, a county or city would receive a distribution if the county's or city's estimated proceeds of a half-cent tax would be less than 100% of the amount it would have gotten under the repealed reimbursements. The distribution amount would be the difference between the two. If a county's or city's estimated gain from the half-cent tax equals or exceeds 100% of its repealed reimbursement amount, it does not receive a hold harmless payment from the State. The hold harmless payment is the same whether or not the new tax is levied in the county. The Department of Revenue will make the hold harmless distribution annually, drawing the funds from State sales tax collections. The hold harmless payments must be made by September 15 of each year, beginning in 2002, and ending after the 2011 payment.

PRINCIPAL DEPARTMENT(S) & PROGRAM(S) AFFECTED: NC Department of Revenue, Local Governments.

EFFECTIVE DATE: Section 1 (Local Sales Tax) September 1, 2002, Section 5 (Use Tax Distribution) taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002, Section 8 (Repeal Reimbursements) July 1, 2002. The remainder becomes effective when law.

BILL SUMMARY: Section 1 of the bill authorizes local county commissioners to levy an additional ½ cent local sales tax, effective August 1, 2002. This tax would not apply to food. Section 2 makes conforming changes to the language to be used on the ballot, should county commissioners choose to place the local sales tax change before the public for a vote. Section 3 also makes conforming changes to continue the local sales tax distribution on a quarterly basis until July 1, 2003. Sections 4 and 8, in combination, repeal the local government reimbursements and hold local governments "harmless" for at least a portion of the loss. This "hold harmless" payment is eliminated July 1, 2012. Section 5 modifies the distribution of the local portion of use taxes collected on the individual income tax form. Section 6 allows local governments to amend their budget ordinances to reduce the property tax levy if they receive additional and unanticipated revenues. Section 7 outlines the timeline that counties must follow when notifying the Department of Revenue of their intention to levy the additional ½ cent. Section 9 creates a special revenue distribution process for the additional ½ cent that applies only to September 2002 collections. Section 10 allows the Department of Revenue to use up to $275,000 of local sales tax revenue to fund implementation of the new tax. Section 11 exempts Department of Revenue from standard contract and bid requirements, but only as it relates to items needed to administer the additional local option sales tax. Sections 12 – 14 make conforming language changes in the existing local sales tax statutes. Section 15 waives the public notice and hearing requirements for the additional ½ cent tax, if the new tax would become effective before January 1, 2003.

BACKGROUND

In 2001 the General Assembly approved a sales tax "swap". Under this proposal the state levies an additional ½ cent sales tax, bringing the state rate to 4.5%, and the total rate to 6.5%. This additional ½ cent sunsets on June 30, 2003. Starting July 1, 2003, county commissioners are authorized to levy an additional ½ cent at the county level, moving the local rate to 2.5% but holding the combined rate at 6.5%. Also effective July 1, 2003, the state will stop paying local governments approximately $333.4 million in reimbursements for previous tax law changes in the areas of property taxes on inventory and intangibles, the homestead exemption, and sales taxes on food purchased with food stamps.

ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGY:

LOCAL OPTION SALES TAX

Sections 1-3, 7, and 9 – 15 collectively allow county governments to levy an additional ½ cent of local sales tax 10 months earlier than existing law. This means that in counties that choose to levy the tax, the combined state and local sales tax rate will be 7.0% (4.5% state, 2.5% local) until the state sunsets its recently enacted ½ cent in July 2003. The rate in Mecklenburg County will be 7.5% for the same time period, assuming Mecklenburg chooses to levy the tax.

Fiscal Research believes that in FY 2001-02, each penny of local sales tax generated $716.8 million in revenue. (This estimate does not include food). Using a growth rate of 1.2% suggests the following non-food, sales tax revenue stream for FY 2002-03:

2002-03	$725.40	$362.70

Once adjustments are made for the September effective date, the total estimated statewide potential revenue available to local governments from this additional ½ cent is approximately $278.8 million. However, since the language is permissive and counties can decide to enact the tax at any time, no exact fiscal estimate is possible on this portion of the bill.

The Department of Revenue has indicated that it will be unable to process the September taxes collected under this provision in the traditional manner due to computer programming limitations. As a result, the amount of revenue each county and associated municipality receives from this tax in those two months will be distributed on the basis of their proportion of the previous fiscal year's sales tax revenue (per capita and point of origin). In making this calculation, the Secretary of Revenue will only consider those communities that choose to levy the tax. Beginning October 1, 2002, distribution will be made as normal, with funds distributed ½ on a per capita basis and ½ on a point of origin basis.

Section 7 allows local governments to begin levying the tax on the first day of any calendar month on or after September 1, 2002, and limits the amount of notice local governments must give the Department of Revenue for local sales tax changes effective between September 1, 2002, and December 31, 2002. No revenue side impact is expected as a result of this expedited process.

Sections 12 - 14 re-title and re-codify the existing local sales tax statutes. No fiscal impact is expected from these sections of the bill.

Section 15 eliminated the public notice and hearing requirements for adopting the additional ½ cent tax when the tax is adopted without a vote of the people. No fiscal impact is expected as a result of this portion of the bill.

Repeal of Local Government Reimbursements and Modification of Hold Harmless Payments

Sections 4 and 8, in combination, repeal the local government reimbursements and hold local governments "harmless" for at least a portion of the loss.

Since 1979, the General Assembly has made several changes to tax law that impact local governments. The state's cities and counties have received reimbursements from the state for some of these losses, particularly as they relate to the sales and property tax bases. The state reimburses local governments for property tax losses related to the repeal of taxes on inventories and intangibles, as well as some of the losses associated with the homestead exemption. Locals also receive a reimbursement for sales taxes that are no longer paid on items purchased with food stamps.

According to the Department of Revenue's Tax Research Division, annual reimbursements are as follows:

Reimbursement	Amount (Millions)
Food Stamps	$6.4
Intangibles	$128.7
Homestead	$8.2
Retail & Wholesale Inventory	$82.0
Manufacturers Inventory	$108.1

Section 8 of the bill repeals all of these reimbursements. Because all reimbursement amounts are either fixed or frozen, no growth is included in the estimate.

Section 4 of the bill instructs the Secretary of Revenue to make a hold harmless payment in FY 2002-03 to those local governments whose gain from the sales tax is less than 100% of their loss from the repealed reimbursements. (Current law continues a 100% hold harmless payment in perpetuity, starting in 2003-04). The legislation offers a hold harmless payment to all communities, regardless if they levy the new tax, but only makes a payment for the gap between the estimated sales tax revenue (as if they levied the tax) and the reimbursement. (This mirrors the existing law that does not come into effect until FY 2003-04).

Because there is no hold harmless payment in FY 2002-03 under existing law, all of the FY 2002-03 hold harmless payment is a loss to the state General Fund and a gain to local governments.

This section of the bill also eliminates all hold harmless payments effective July 1, 2012.

MODIFY USE TAX PAYMENTS

Section 5 modifies the distribution of the local portion of use taxes collected on the individual income tax form. North Carolina consumers have been liable for use tax payments on all purchases on which sales tax are not collected since 1939. The use tax is imposed at the same rate as the sales tax and is designed to capture the revenue lost through sales by retailers that do not collect North Carolina sales tax. Unlike the retail sales tax that is collected by the merchant, the consumer pays the use tax directly to the state. From a practical standpoint, the use tax generally applied to traditional out of state purchases for consumption in North Carolina, or those sales made through a catalog or mail order company. The 1999 General Assembly approved HB 1433 to simplify use tax collection by providing that the use tax will be paid on the taxpayer's income tax return. That legislation also indicated that the state should forward one-third of the proceeds collected on this line to the state's counties and cities in proportion to their total local sales tax payments. At that time, the combined state rate was 6%, with 2% or one-third of that amount being local sales taxes. Since that time, the combined state rate has increased to 6.5% and could go to 7.0% under the provisions of this bill. As a result, one-third is no longer the appropriate proportion to forward to local governments.

The Department of Revenue reports collecting approximately $4.5 million in use taxes off of the individual income tax returns for calendar year 2001. The distribution formula in existing law, the standard sales tax growth rates, and an adjustment factor for a higher sales tax rate, are used to compute the following revenue stream:

State	$3,000,000	$3,187,800	$3,176,802	$3,510,684	$3,672,175	$3,841,096
Local	$1,500,000	$1,593,900	$1,588,401		$1,836,088	$1,920,548
TOTAL	$4,500,000	$4,781,700	$4,765,203	$5,266,026	$5,508,263	$5,761,643

The bill requires that the proportion of the tax paid to local units reflect what proportion of the general rate is actually local tax. Therefore, under the current rate structure, local units should receive 30.8% of the revenue (2.0% is 30.8% of a 6.5% tax). If the new rate in this bill is used, locals should receive 35.7% of the funds (2.5% is 35.7% of a 7.0% rate). When the state's extra ½ cent is repealed in July 2003 the locals should begin receiving 38.5% of the revenue (2.5% is 38.5% of a 6.5% rate). Using these ratios suggests the following new revenue streams:

State	$3,000,000	$3,191,785	$2,997,313	$3,238,606	$3,387,582	$3,543,411
Local	$1,500,000	$1,589,915	$1,767,890	$2,027,420	$2,120,681	$2,218,233
TOTAL	$4,500,000	$4,781,700	$4,765,203	$5,266,026	$5,508,263	$5,761,643

Note: Because individual income tax returns reflect purchases made during a calendar year, and all sales tax rate changes become effective in July, the average of the two fiscal year's proportions are used to determine the division of state and local revenue.

The projected potential revenue changes as a result of this bill are as follows:

	FY 2002-03	FY 2003-04	FY 2004-05	FY 2005-06	FY 2006-07
State	$3,985	($179,489)	($272,078)	($284,594)	($297,685)
Local	($3,985)	$179,489	$272,078	$284,594	$297,685

However, because the provision that allows this item to remain on the individual income tax return expires with tax year 2002, the only impact seen as the result of this bill is the first fiscal year.

CHANGE LOCAL BUDGET ORDINANCES

Section 6 allows local governments to amend their budget ordinances to reduce their property tax levy to reflect any additional and unanticipated revenues. Because this only applies to local units, no state General Fund impact is expected. Further, since the language is permissive and only gives local governments a new method to respond to the unclear status of revenues from the state or a local sales tax increase, no local estimate is possible on this portion of the bill.

moves to amend the bill on page 1, line 3, by deleting the word "TAX" and substituting the phrase "TAX, TO PROVIDE THAT LOCAL REVENUES MAY NOT BE WITHHELD OR IMPOUNDED BY THE GOVERNOR,"; and on page 5, lines 37-38, by adding the following between the lines:

"SECTION 15.1. G.S. 105-113.82(d) reads as rewritten:

`(d) Time. – The revenue shall be distributed to cities and counties within 60 days after March 31 of each year. The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution.'

SECTION 15.2. G.S. 105-116.1(b) reads as rewritten:

`(b) Distribution. – The Secretary must distribute to the cities part of the taxes collected under this Article on electric power companies. Each city's share for a calendar quarter is the percentage distribution amount for that city for that quarter minus one-fourth of the city's hold-back amount and one-fourth of the city's proportionate share of the annual cost to the Department of administering the distribution. The Secretary must make the distribution within 75 days after the end of each calendar quarter. The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution.'

SECTION 15.3. G.S. 105-187.44(b) reads as rewritten:

`(b) Distribution. – Within 75 days after the end of each calendar quarter, the Secretary must distribute to the cities part of the tax proceeds collected under this Article during that quarter. The amount to be distributed to a city is one-half of the amount of tax attributable to that city for that quarter under subsection (a) of this section. The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution.'

SECTION 15.4. G.S. 105-164.44F is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

`(f) Nature. – The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution.'

SECTION 15.5. G.S. 136-41.1 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

`(d) Nature. – The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution.'

SECTION 15.6. G.S. 159B-27(d) reads as rewritten:

`(d) The State shall distribute to cities and towns which receive electric power and energy from their ownership share of a project or to which electric power and energy is sold by a joint agency an amount equal to a tax of three and nine hundredths percent (3.09%) of all moneys expended by a municipality on account of its ownership share of a project, including payment of principal and interest on bonds issued to finance such ownership share, or an amount equal to a tax of three and nine hundredths percent (3.09%) of the gross receipts from all sales of electric power and energy to such city or town by a joint agency, as the case may be. The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution.'

SECTION 15.7. G.S. 143-25 reads as rewritten:

"§ 143-25. Maintenance appropriations dependent upon adequacy of revenues to support them.

(a) All maintenance appropriations now or hereafter made are hereby declared to be maximum, conditional and proportionate appropriations, the purpose being to make the appropriations payable in full in the amounts named herein if necessary and then only in the event the aggregate revenues collected and available during each fiscal year of the biennium for which such appropriations are made, are sufficient to pay all of the appropriations in full; otherwise, the said appropriations shall be deemed to be payable in such proportion as the total sum of all appropriations bears to the total amount of revenue available in each of said fiscal years. ~~The~~ Except as provided in subsection (b) of this section, the Director of the Budget is ~~hereby~~ given full power and authority to examine and survey the progress of the collection of the revenue out of which such appropriations are to be made, and to declare and determine the amounts that can be, during each quarter of each of the fiscal years of the biennium properly allocated to each respective appropriation. In making such examination and survey, ~~he~~ the Director of the Budget shall receive estimates of the prospective collection of revenues from the Secretary of Revenue and every other revenue collecting agency of the State. The Director of the Budget may reduce all of said appropriations pro rata when necessary to prevent an overdraft or deficit to the fiscal period for which such appropriations are made. The Governor may also reduce all of said appropriations pursuant to Article III, Section 5(3) of the Constitution in accordance with subsection (b) of this section, after consulting with the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations under G.S. 120-76(8) if prior consultation is required by that section. The purpose and policy of this Article are to provide and insure that there shall be no overdraft or deficit in the general fund of the State at the end of the fiscal period, growing out of appropriations for maintenance and the Director of the Budget is directed and required to so administer this Article as to prevent any such overdraft or deficit. Prior to taking any action under this section to reduce appropriations pro rata, the Governor may consult with the Advisory Budget Commission.

(b) The General Assembly recognizes that it has required units of local government to adopt and maintain annual balanced budgets and take other steps to assure financially sound operations under the Local Government Budget and Fiscal Control Act and other provisions of Chapter 159 of the General Statutes. Accordingly, the General Assembly finds that in order to satisfy those statutory requirements and provide adequate services to their citizens, units of local government must be able to rely on the funds and local revenue sources the General Assembly has provided.

It is the intent of the General Assembly that funds that have been collected by the State on behalf of local governments and funds that the General Assembly has appropriated or otherwise committed to local governments shall not be reduced except as provided in this section. In exercising the powers contained in Section 5(3) of Article III of the Constitution, the Governor shall not withhold from distribution funds that have been collected by the State on behalf of local governments or funds that the General Assembly has appropriated or otherwise committed to local governments unless, after making adequate provision for the prompt payment of principal of and interest on bonds and notes of the State according to their terms, the Governor has exhausted all other sources of revenue of the State including surplus remaining in the treasury at the beginning of the fiscal period and has been authorized to withhold the funds by an act of the General Assembly.

This subsection does not authorize the Governor to withhold revenues from taxes levied by units of local governments and collected by the State. The General Assembly recognizes that under Section 19 of Article I of the North Carolina Constitution and under the Due Process Clause of the United States Constitution, the State is prohibited

Minutes
House Committee on Finance

July 17, 2002

The House Committee on Finance met on Wednesday, July 17, 2002, at 8:30 A.M., in Room 544 of the Legislative Office Building.

Rep. Gordon Allen, presiding Chair, called the meeting to order. The following members were present: Chairmen Buchanan, Luebke, and Wainwright; Vice Chairs Hill and Jarrell; and Representatives Alexander, Blust, Capps, Cox, Decker, Dedmon, Eddins, Edwards, Gibson, Gray, Hackney, Holliman, Hurley, Johnson, McComas, McCombs, McMahan, Morris, Pope, Rayfield, Starnes, Weiss, Willingham, Wilson, Womble, Baddour, Cunningham, and Earle. Staff in attendance included Cindy Avrette, Trina Griffin, Mary Shuping, Martha Walston, Richard Bostic, David Crotts, Linda Millsaps, Canaan Huie, and Martha Harris.

Chairman Allen recognized and thanked pages Raymond Chin from Orange County, Matt Goodwin from Gaston County, Daniel Hurley (grandson of Representative Hurley from Fayetteville), and Kevin Kelly from Wake County.

Chairman Allen announced that the following bills were being referred to the Finance Subcommittee on Occupancy, chaired by Representative Jarrell:

HB 1620 Yadkin/Jonesville Occupancy Taxes
HB 1687 Archdale Occupancy Tax

A Proposed House Committee Substitute (PCS) for the following bill was placed before the committee for consideration:

SB 1292, AN ACT TO DELAY THE INCREASE IN THE CHILD TAX CREDIT BY ONE YEAR; TO DELAY THE INCREASE IN THE STANDARD DEDUCTION FOR MARRIED PERSONS BY ONE YEAR; TO UPDATE THE REFERENCE DATE TO THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE USED TO DEFINE AND DETERMINE CERTAIN STATE TAX PROVISIONS; TO DELAY THE EFFECT OF ACCELERATED DEPRECIATION UNDER SECTION 168 OF THE CODE AND SECTION 14001 OF THE CODE; TO DISREGARD THE PHAST-OUT OF THE STATE DEATH TAX CREDIT UNDER THE CODE; TO ALLOW THE SECRETARY OF REVENUE TO RECOUP A PORTION OF THE COSTS OF ADMINISTERING THE UNAUTHORIZED SUBSTANCES TAX FROM LOCAL SALES AND USE TAX DISTRIBUTIONS; TO SET THE INSURANCE REGULATORY FEE AND THE PUBLIC UTILITY REGULATORY FEES; TO PROVIDE THAT LOCAL REVENUES MAY NOT BE WITHHELD OR IMPOUNDED BY THE GOVERNOR; TO CONFORM THE DEFINITION OF BUSINESS INCOME TO FEDERAL STANDARDS; TO PROVIDE THAT IN

APPORTIONING CORPORATE INCOME TO THIS STATE FOR INCOME TAX PURPOSES, SALES IN ANOTHER STATE OR COUNTRY WHERE THEY ARE NOT TAXABLE ARE NOT CONSIDERED; TO CLOSE A LOOPHOLE IN THE 2001 LEGISLATION INTENDED TO CLOSE A LOOPHOLE THAT ALLOWS CORPORATIONS TO AVOID FRANCHISE TAX LIABILITY BY TRANSFERRING ASSETS TO A LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY; AND TO ENLARGE THE CLASS OF TAXPAYERS ELIGIBLE FOR AN ENHANCED CREDIT FOR INVESTING IN LOW-INCOME HOUSING IN A COUNTY THAT SUSTAINED SEVERE OR MODERATE DAMAGE FROM A HURRICANE IN 1999.

Chairman Allen recognized Representatives Luebke and Baddour, who went over each of the PCS's ten parts, pointing out the differences between that document and the Senate bill. They then called on staff to offer a more detailed, technical explanation of the bill and to answer questions of Committee members during discussion of the PCS.

Mr. Andrew L. Romanet, Jr., representing the N.C. League of Municipalities, spoke briefly about the League's position on a section of the PCS.

Chairman Allen adjourned the meeting at 9:50 A.M. and announced that the Committee would meet at 12:00 Noon in Room 643 of the Legislative Office Building to continue discussion of the PCS on SB 1292.

Respectfully submitted,

Gordon P. Allen
Presiding Chair

Nancy G. Brantley
Committee Assistant

SENATE BILL 1292
Finance Committee Substitute Adopted 6/11/02
Third Edition Engrossed 6/13/02

Short Title: Budget Revenue Act of 2002. (Public)

Sponsors:

Referred to:

June 10, 2002

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO RAISE REVENUES TO SUPPORT THE CURRENT OPERATIONS OF STATE AND LOCAL GOVERNMENT, TO UPDATE THE REFERENCE DATE TO THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE USED TO DEFINE AND DETERMINE CERTAIN STATE TAX PROVISIONS, AND TO PROVIDE THAT LOCAL REVENUES MAY NOT BE WITHHELD OR IMPOUNDED BY THE GOVERNOR.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

PART I. ACCELERATE LOCAL OPTION SALES TAX

SECTION 1.1. G.S. 105-517(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) Effective Date. – A tax levied under this Article may not become effective before ~~July 1, 2003.~~August 1, 2002."

SECTION 1.2. G.S. 105-518(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Ballot Question. – The question to be presented on a ballot for a special election concerning the levy of the taxes authorized by this Article must be in the following form:

'[ ] FOR [ ] AGAINST

one-half percent (½%) local sales and use taxes, ~~to replace the current one-half percent (½%) State sales and use taxes that end July 1, 2003.~~'in addition to all current State and local sales and use taxes.' "

SECTION 1.3.(a) Effective July 1, 2002, G.S. 105-520 reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-520. Distribution of taxes.

(a) Point of Origin. – The Secretary must, on a ~~monthly~~ quarterly basis, allocate to each taxing county one-half of the net proceeds of the tax collected in that county under this Article. If the Secretary collects taxes under this Article in a ~~month~~ quarter and the taxes cannot be identified as being attributable to a particular taxing county, the Secretary must allocate one-half of the net proceeds of these taxes among the taxing counties in proportion to the amount of taxes collected in each county under this Article in that ~~month.~~quarter.

(b) Per Capita. – The Secretary must, on a ~~monthly~~ quarterly basis, allocate the remaining net proceeds of the tax collected under this Article among the taxing counties on a per capita basis according to the most recent annual population estimates certified to the Secretary by the State Budget Officer. The Secretary must then adjust the amount allocated to each county as provided in G.S. 105-486(b).

(c) Distribution Between Counties and Cities. – The Secretary must divide and distribute the funds allocated under this section each ~~month~~ quarter between each taxing county and the municipalities located in the county in accordance with the method by which the one percent (1%) sales and use taxes levied in that county pursuant to Article 39 of this Chapter or Chapter 1096 of the 1967 Session Laws are distributed. No municipality may receive any funds under this subsection for a ~~month~~ quarter if it is not entitled to a distribution under G.S. 105-501 for the same ~~month.~~quarter."

SECTION 1.3.(b) This section is repealed effective July 1, 2003.

SECTION 1.4.(a) G.S. 105-521 reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-521. Transitional local government hold harmless.

(a) Definitions. – The following definitions apply in this section:

(1) Local government. – A county or municipality that received a distribution of local sales taxes in the most recent fiscal year for which a local sales tax share has been calculated.

(2) Local sales tax share. – A local government's percentage share of the two-cent (2¢) sales taxes distributed during the most recent fiscal year for which data are available.

(3) Repealed reimbursement amount. – The total amount a local government would have been entitled to receive during the ~~2002-2003~~ 2001-2002 fiscal year under G.S. 105-164.44C, 105-275.1, 105-275.2, 105-277.001, and 105-277.1A, if the Governor had not withheld any distributions under those sections.

(4) Two-cent (2¢) sales taxes. – The first one-cent (1¢) sales and use tax authorized in Article 39 of this Chapter and in Chapter 1096 of the 1967 Session Laws, the first one-half cent (½¢) local sales and use tax authorized in Article 40 of this Chapter, and the second one-half cent (½¢) local sales and use tax authorized in Article 42 of this Chapter.

(b) ~~Distributions.~~ 2002-2003 Distribution. – On or before September 15, 2002, the Secretary must multiply each local government's local sales tax share by the sum of three hundred nine million ten thousand six hundred sixty-seven dollars ($309,010,667). If the resulting amount is less than one hundred percent (100%) of the local government's repealed reimbursement amount, the Secretary must pay the local government the difference, but not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00).

(c) Subsequent Distributions. – On or before September 15, 2003, and each September 15 thereafter, the Secretary must multiply each local government's local sales tax share by the estimated amount that all local governments would be expected to receive during the current fiscal year under G.S. 105-520 if every county levied the tax under this Article for the year. If the resulting amount is less than one hundred percent (100%) of the local government's repealed reimbursement amount, the Secretary must pay the local government the difference, but not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00).

(d) Estimated Amounts. – On or before May 1, 2003, and each May 1 thereafter, the Office of State Budget and Management and the Fiscal Research Division of the General Assembly must each submit to the Secretary and to the General Assembly a final projection of the estimated amount that all local governments would be expected to receive during the upcoming fiscal year under G.S. 105-520 if every county levied the tax under this Article for the fiscal year. If the Secretary does not use the lower of the two final projections to make the calculation required by this subsection, the Secretary must report the reasons for this decision to the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations within 60 days after receiving the projections.

~~(c)~~(e) Source of Funds. – The Secretary must draw the funds distributed under this section from sales and use tax collections under Article 5 of this Chapter.

~~(d)~~(f) Reports. – The Secretary must report to the Revenue Laws Study Committee by January 31, ~~2004,~~2003, and each January 31 thereafter, the amount distributed under this section for the current fiscal year."

SECTION 1.4.(b) G.S. 105-521 is repealed effective July 1, 2012.

SECTION 1.5. Effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002, G.S. 105-269.14(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Distribution. – The Secretary must distribute ~~one-third~~a portion of the net use tax proceeds collected under this section to counties and ~~cities in proportion to their total distributions under Articles 39, 40, and 42 of this Chapter and Chapter 1096 of the 1967 Session Laws for the most recent period for which data is available.~~cities. The portion to be distributed to all counties and cities shall be the total net use tax proceeds collected under this section multiplied by a fraction. The numerator of the fraction is the local use tax proceeds collected under this section. The denominator of the fraction is the total use tax proceeds collected under this section. The Secretary shall then distribute this portion to the counties and cities in proportion to their total distributions under Articles 39, 40, 42, 43, and 44 of this Chapter and Chapter 1096 of the 1967 Session Laws for the most recent period for which data are available. The provisions of G.S. 105-472, 105-486, and 105-501 do not apply to tax proceeds distributed under this section."

SECTION 1.6. G.S. 159-15 reads as rewritten:

"§ 159-15. Amendments to the budget ordinance.

Except as otherwise restricted by law, the governing board may amend the budget ordinance at any time after the ordinance's adoption in any manner, so long as the ordinance, as amended, continues to satisfy the requirements of G.S. 159-8 and 159-13. However, except as otherwise provided in this section, no amendment may increase or reduce a property tax levy or in any manner alter a property taxpayer's liability, unless the board is ordered to do so by a court of competent jurisdiction, or by a State agency having the power to compel the levy of taxes by the board.

If after July 1 the local government receives additional and unanticipated revenues, the governing body may, before January 1, amend the budget ordinance to reduce the property tax levy to account for the unanticipated revenues.

The governing board by appropriate resolution or ordinance may authorize the budget officer to transfer moneys from one appropriation to another within the same fund subject to such limitations and procedures as it may prescribe. Any such transfers shall be reported to the governing board at its next regular meeting and shall be entered in the minutes."

SECTION 1.7. Section 34.14(b) of S.L. 2001-424 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 34.14.(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 105-466(c), a tax levied during the ~~2003~~ 2002 calendar year under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes, as enacted by this act, may become effective on the first day of any calendar month during 2002 beginning on or after ~~July 1, 2003.~~August 1, 2002. Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 105-466(c), if a county levies a tax during the ~~2003~~ 2002 calendar year under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes, as enacted by this act, that is to become effective on or before January 1, 2003, the county is required to give the Secretary of Revenue ~~only~~ the following notice:

(1) If the tax is to become effective August 1, 2002, the county must notify the Secretary on or before July 15, 2002.

(2) If the tax is to become effective on the first day of any other calendar month beginning on or before January 1, 2003, the county must give the Secretary 30 days' advance notice of the tax levy.

For taxes ~~levied on or~~that are to become effective after January 1, ~~2004~~,2003, the provisions of G.S. 105-466(c) apply."

SECTION 1.8. Section 34.15(b) of S.L. 2001-424 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 34.15.(b) This section becomes effective July 1, ~~2003~~.2002."

SECTION 1.9. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, for the months of August and September 2002, the administration and distribution of taxes collected under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes shall be in accordance with this section. For each of those months, the Secretary of Revenue shall create a separate account for the collection of taxes under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes. In each of those months, retailers shall report taxes collected under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes on a form separate from that on which the retailer reports other sales and use taxes collected. In each of those months, the Secretary shall allocate to each county that has imposed a tax under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes a portion of the total amount of tax collected under that Article. A county's allocation shall be determined by multiplying the total amount of tax collected under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes for that month by a fraction. The numerator of the fraction is the amount allocated under G.S. 105-472, 105-486, and 105-501 for the first quarter of the 2002-2003 fiscal year to the county. The denominator of the fraction is the total amount allocated under G.S. 105-472, 105-486, and 105-501 for the first quarter of the 2002-2003 fiscal year to all counties that have imposed a tax under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General

Statutes. The Secretary shall distribute these taxes at the end of the quarter in accordance with G.S. 105-520(c).

SECTION 1.10. To the extent the Department of Revenue's nonrecurring costs of implementing and administering Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes, as amended, exceed funds available in its budget for the 2002-2003 fiscal year, the Department may pay the excess cost by withholding up to three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) from collections under Subchapter VIII of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes.

SECTION 1.11. The Department of Revenue may contract for supplies, materials, equipment, and contractual services related to the provision of notice, the creation of tax forms and instructions, and the development of computer software necessitated by the amendments in this act without being subject to the requirements of Article 3 or Article 8 of Chapter 143 of the General Statutes.

SECTION 1.12.(a) The title of Article 39 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes reads as rewritten:

"Article 39.

First One-Cent (1¢) Local Government Sales and Use Tax."

SECTION 1.12.(b) G.S. 105-463 reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-463. Short title.

This Article shall be known as the '~~Local~~ First One-Cent (1¢) Local Government Sales and Use Tax ~~Act.~~'Act."

SECTION 1.13.(a) The title of Article 40 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes reads as rewritten:

"Article 40.

~~Supplemental~~ First One-Half Cent (1/2¢) Local Government Sales and Use ~~Taxes.~~Tax."

SECTION 1.13.(b) G.S. 105-480 reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-480. Short title.

This Article shall be known as the ~~Supplemental~~ First One-Half Cent (1/2¢) Local Government Sales and Use Tax Act."

SECTION 1.14.(a) The title of Article 42 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes reads as rewritten:

"Article 42.

SECTION 1.14.(b) G.S. 105-495 reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-495. Short title.

This Article shall be known as the ~~Additional Supplemental~~Second One-Half Cent (1/2¢) Local Government Sales and Use Tax Act."

SECTION 1.15. Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 105-517(b), a county may levy a tax by resolution that becomes effective on or before January 1, 2003, under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes without giving at least 10 days' public notice of its intent to adopt the resolution and without holding a public hearing on the issue of adopting the resolution.

PART II. DELAY 2001 TAX BREAKS

SECTION 2.1.(a) The lead-in language of Section 34.19(a) of S.L. 2001-424 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 34.19.(a) Effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, ~~2002~~,2003, G.S. 105-134.6(c)(3) and (4) reads as rewritten:".

SECTION 2.1.(b) The lead-in language of Section 34.19(b) of S.L. 2001-424 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 34.19.(b) Effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, ~~2003~~,2004, G.S. 105-134.6(c)(4), as amended by this section, reads as rewritten:".

SECTION 2.2.(a) The lead-in language of Section 34.20(a) of S.L. 2001-424 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 34.20.(a) Effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, ~~2002~~,2003, G.S. 105-151.24 reads as rewritten:".

SECTION 2.2.(b) The lead-in language of Section 34.20(b) of S.L. 2001-424 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 34.20.(b) Effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, ~~2003~~,2004, G.S. 105-151.24, as amended by this section, reads as rewritten:".

PART III. UPDATE IRC REFERENCE

SECTION 3.1. G.S. 105-228.90(b)(1b) reads as rewritten:

"(1b) Code. – The Internal Revenue Code as enacted as of ~~January 1, 2001~~,May 1, 2002, including any provisions enacted as of that date which become effective either before or after that date."

SECTION 3.2.(a) G.S. 105-130.5(a) is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(a) The following additions to federal taxable income shall be made in determining State net income:

...

(15) The amount allowed as a thirty percent (30%) accelerated depreciation deduction under section 168(k) or section 1400L of the Code. In addition, a taxpayer who was allowed a thirty percent (30%) accelerated depreciation deduction under section 168(k) or section 1400L of the Code in a taxable year beginning before January 1, 2002, and whose North Carolina taxable income in that earlier year reflected that accelerated depreciation deduction must add to federal taxable income in the taxpayer's first taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 2002, an amount equal to the amount of the deduction allowed in the earlier taxable year. This adjustment does not result in a difference in basis of the affected assets for State and federal income tax purposes."

SECTION 3.2.(b) G.S. 105-134.6(c) is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(c) Additions. – The following additions to taxable income shall be made in calculating North Carolina taxable income, to the extent each item is not included in taxable income:

...

(8) The amount allowed as a thirty percent (30%) accelerated depreciation deduction under section 168(k) or section 1400L of the Code. In addition, a taxpayer who was allowed a thirty percent (30%) accelerated depreciation deduction under section 168(k) or section 1400L of the Code in a taxable year beginning before January 1, 2002, and whose North Carolina taxable income in that earlier year reflected that accelerated depreciation deduction must add to federal taxable income in the taxpayer's first taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 2002, an amount equal to the amount of the deduction allowed in the earlier taxable year. This adjustment does not result in a difference in basis of the affected assets for State and federal income tax purposes."

SECTION 3.2.(c) This section is effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002.

SECTION 3.3.(a) G.S. 105-130.5(b) is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(b) The following deductions from federal taxable income shall be made in determining State net income:

...

SECTION 3.3.(b) G.S. 105-134.6(b) is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(b) Deductions. – The following deductions from taxable income shall be made in calculating North Carolina taxable income, to the extent each item is included in taxable income:

...

SECTION 3.3.(c) This section is effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002.

SECTION 3.4.(a) G.S. 105-32.2(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Amount. – The amount of the estate tax imposed by this section is the maximum credit for state death taxes allowed under section 2011 of the ~~Code.~~ Code without regard to the phase-out of that credit under subdivision (b)(2) of that section. If any property in the estate is located in a state other than North Carolina, the amount of tax payable is the North Carolina percentage of the credit.

If the decedent was a resident of this State at death, the North Carolina percentage is the net value of the estate that does not have a tax situs in another state, divided by the net value of all property in the estate. If the decedent was not a resident of this State at death, the North Carolina percentage is the net value of real property that is located in North Carolina plus the net value of any personal property that has a tax situs in North Carolina, divided by the net value of all property in the estate, unless the decedent's state of residence uses a different formula to determine that state's percentage. In that circumstance, the North Carolina percentage is the amount determined by the formula used by the decedent's state of residence.

The net value of property that is located in or has a tax situs in this State is its gross value reduced by any debt secured by that property. The net value of all the property in the estate is its gross value reduced by any debts and deductions of the estate."

SECTION 3.4.(b) This section is effective on and after January 1, 2002, and applies to the estates of decedents dying on or after that date. This section is repealed effective for the estates of decedents dying on or after January 1, 2004.

SECTION 3.5. Effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002, G.S. 105-134.6(b)(13) is repealed.

SECTION 3.6. Notwithstanding Section 3.1 of this act, any amendments to the Internal Revenue Code enacted in 2001 that increase North Carolina taxable income for the 2001 taxable year become effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002.

PART IV. UNAUTHORIZED SUBSTANCE TAX EXPENSES

SECTION 4.1. G.S. 105-501 is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"...

In determining the net proceeds of the tax to be distributed, the Secretary shall deduct from the collections to be allocated an amount equal to one-fourth of the costs during the preceding fiscal year of:

...

(1a) Seventy percent (70%) of the expenses of the Department of Revenue in performing the duties imposed by Article 2D of this Chapter.

...."

SECTION 4.2. This Part becomes effective July 1, 2002.

PART V. INSURANCE REGULATORY CHARGE

SECTION 5.(a) The percentage rate to be used in calculating the insurance regulatory charge under G.S. 58-6-25 is six and one-half percent (6.5%) for the 2002 calendar year.

SECTION 5.(b) This section is effective when it becomes law.

PART VI. REGULATORY FEE FOR UTILITIES COMMISSION

SECTION 6.(a) The percentage rate to be used in calculating the public utility regulatory fee under G.S. 62-302(b)(2) is one-tenth percent (0.1%) for each public utility's North Carolina jurisdictional revenues earned during each quarter that begins on or after July 1, 2002.

SECTION 6.(b) The electric membership corporation regulatory fee imposed under G.S. 62-302(b1) for the 2002-2003 fiscal year is two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000).

SECTION 6.(c) This section becomes effective July 1, 2002.

PART VII. VARIOUS FEES

SECTION 7.1.(a) G.S. 15A-1371(i) reads as rewritten:

"(i) A fee of ~~one hundred dollars ($100.00)~~ one hundred fifty dollars ($150.00) shall be paid by all persons who participate in the Community Service Parole Program. That fee must be paid to the clerk of court in the county in which the parolee is released. The fee must be paid in full within two weeks unless the Post-Release Supervision and Parole Commission, upon a showing of hardship by the person, allows ~~him~~ the person additional time to pay the fee. The parolee may not be required to pay the fee before ~~he~~ the person begins the community service unless the Post-Release Supervision and Parole Commission specifically orders that ~~he~~ the person do so. Fees collected under this subsection shall be deposited in the General Fund. The fee imposed under this ~~section~~ subsection may be paid as prescribed by the supervising parole officer."

SECTION 7.1.(b) G.S. 20-179.4(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) A fee of ~~one hundred dollars ($100.00)~~ one hundred fifty dollars ($150.00) shall be paid by all persons serving a community service sentence. That fee shall be paid to the clerk of court in the county in which the person is convicted. The fee shall be paid in full within two weeks unless the court, upon a showing of hardship by the person, allows additional time to pay the fee. The person may not be required to pay the fee before beginning the community service unless the court specifically orders the person to do so."

SECTION 7.1.(c) G.S. 143B-262.4(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Unless a fee is assessed pursuant to G.S. 20-179.4 or G.S. 15A-1371(i), a fee of ~~one hundred dollars ($100.00)~~ one hundred fifty dollars ($150.00) shall be paid by all persons who participate in the program or receive services from the program staff. Fees collected pursuant to this subsection shall be deposited in the General Fund. If the person is convicted in a court in this State, the fee shall be paid to the clerk of court in the county in which ~~he~~ the person is convicted. If the person is participating in the program as a result of a deferred prosecution or similar program, the fee shall be paid to the clerk of court in the county in which the agreement is filed. Persons participating in the program for any other reason shall pay the fee to the clerk of court in the county in which the services are provided by the program staff. The fee shall be paid in full within two weeks from the date the person is ordered to perform the community service, and before ~~he begins his~~ the person may participate in the community ~~service, service~~ program, except that:

(1) A person convicted in a court in this State may be given an extension of time or allowed to begin the community service before ~~he~~ the person pays the fee by the court in which ~~he~~ the person is convicted; or

(2) A person performing community service pursuant to a deferred prosecution or similar agreement may be given an extension of time or allowed to begin ~~his~~ community service before the fee is paid by the official or agency representing the State in the agreement.

~~Fees collected pursuant to this subsection shall be deposited in the General Fund.~~"

SECTION 7.1.(d) This section becomes effective October 1, 2002, and applies to fees assessed or collected on or after that date.

SECTION 7.2.(a) G.S. 15A-1343(c1) reads as rewritten:

"(c1) Supervision Fee. – Any person placed on supervised probation pursuant to subsection (a) shall pay a supervision fee of ~~twenty dollars ($20.00)~~ thirty dollars ($30.00) per month, unless exempted by the court. The court may exempt a person from paying the fee only for good cause and upon written motion of the person placed on supervised probation. No person shall be required to pay more than one supervision fee per month. The court may require that the fee be paid in advance or in a lump sum or sums, and a probation officer may require payment by such methods if he is authorized by subsection (g) to determine the payment schedule. Supervision fees must be paid to the clerk of court for the county in which the judgment was entered or the deferred prosecution agreement was filed. Fees collected under this subsection shall be transmitted to the State for deposit into the State's General Fund."

SECTION 7.2.(b) G.S. 15A-1368.4(f) reads as rewritten:

"(f) Required Supervision Fee. – The Commission shall require as a condition of post-release supervision that the supervisee pay a supervision fee of ~~twenty dollars ($20.00)~~ thirty dollars ($30.00) per month. The Commission may exempt a supervisee from this condition only if it finds that requiring payment of the fee is an undue economic burden. The fee shall be paid to the clerk of superior court of the county in which the supervisee was convicted. The clerk shall transmit any money collected pursuant to this subsection to the State to be deposited in the State's General Fund. In no event shall a supervisee be required to pay more than one supervision fee per month."

SECTION 7.2.(c) G.S. 15A-1374(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) Supervision Fee. – The Commission must require as a condition of parole that the parolee pay a supervision fee of ~~twenty dollars ($20.00)~~ thirty dollars ($30.00) per month. The Commission may exempt a parolee from this condition of parole only if it finds that requiring him to pay the fee will constitute an undue economic burden. The fee must be paid to the clerk of superior court of the county in which the parolee was convicted. The clerk must transmit any money collected pursuant to this subsection to the State to be deposited in the general fund of the State. In no event shall a person released on parole be required to pay more than one supervision fee per month."

SECTION 7.2.(d) This section becomes effective October 1, 2002, and applies to supervision fees assessed or collected on or after that date.

SECTION 7.3.(a) Article 5 of Chapter 7A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 7A-38.7. Dispute resolution fee for cases resolved in mediation.

(a) In each criminal case filed in the General Court of Justice that is resolved through referral to a community mediation center, a dispute resolution fee shall be assessed in the same amount as the General Court of Justice fee imposed under G.S. 7A-304(a)(4) for cases in the district court. Fees assessed under this section shall be paid to the clerk of superior court in the county where the case was filed and remitted by the clerk to the State Treasurer.

(b) Each criminal case filed in the General Court of Justice and resolved through referral to a community mediation center shall include, as a part of the resolution, an agreement on which of the parties shall be responsible for the payment of the dispute resolution fee assessed under this section. Before providing the parties with a signed copy of the mediation agreement, the community mediation center shall require proof that the dispute resolution fee has been paid as required by subsection (a) of this section."

SECTION 7.3.(b) Each community mediation center shall maintain records as to the number of cases in which dispute resolution fees are assessed and paid. The Mediation Network of North Carolina shall collect this information from each center annually.

Each community mediation center shall also maintain records as to the source of referral for all court-referred cases. Each center receiving State funds shall use a standardized form and methodology to determine the referral source and report that information annually to the Mediation Network of North Carolina.

The Mediation Network shall report by March 15, 2003, to the Chairs of the Senate and House Appropriations Committees and the Chairs of the Senate and House Appropriations Subcommittees on Justice and Public Safety on the fees collected year-to-date and the sources of referral of court-referred cases during the 2002-2003 fiscal year.

SECTION 7.3.(c) This section becomes effective October 1, 2002, and applies to cases resolved on or after that date.

SECTION 7.4.(a) G.S. 20-135.2A(e) reads as rewritten:

"(e) Any driver or passenger who fails to wear a seat belt as required by this section shall have committed an infraction and shall pay a penalty of twenty-five dollars ($25.00). Conviction of an infraction under this section has no consequence other than payment of a penalty. ~~A person found responsible for a violation of this section may not be assessed court costs.~~"

SECTION 7.4.(b) This section becomes effective October 1, 2002, and applies to costs assessed or collected on or after that date.

SECTION 7.5.(a) G.S. 7A-304(a)(4) reads as rewritten:

"(a) In every criminal case in the superior or district court, wherein the defendant is convicted, or enters a plea of guilty or nolo contendere, or when costs are assessed against the prosecuting witness, the following costs shall be assessed and collected, except that when the judgment imposes an active prison sentence, costs shall be assessed and collected only when the judgment specifically so provides, and that no costs may be assessed when a case is dismissed.

...

(4) For support of the General Court of Justice, the sum of ~~sixty-five dollars ($65.00)~~ seventy-five dollars ($75.00) in the district court, including cases before a magistrate, and the sum of ~~seventy-two dollars ($72.00)~~ eighty-two dollars ($82.00) in the superior court, to be remitted to the State Treasurer. The State Treasurer shall remit the sum of one dollar and five cents ($1.05) of each fee collected under this subdivision to the North Carolina State Bar for the provision of services described in G.S. 7A-474.4.

...."

SECTION 7.5.(b) This section becomes effective October 1, 2002, and applies to costs assessed or collected on or after that date.

SECTION 7.6.(a) G.S. 15A-145(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) The court shall also order that the said misdemeanor conviction be expunged from the records of the court, and direct all law-enforcement agencies bearing record of the same to expunge their records of the conviction. The clerk shall forward a certified copy of the order to the sheriff, chief of police, or other arresting agency. The sheriff, chief or head of such other arresting agency shall then transmit the copy of the order with a form supplied by the State Bureau of Investigation to the State Bureau of Investigation, and the State Bureau of Investigation shall forward the order to the Federal Bureau of Investigation. ~~The cost of expunging such records shall be taxed against the petitioner.~~"

SECTION 7.6.(b) G.S. 15A-145 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(e) A person who files a petition for expunction of a criminal record under this section must pay the clerk of superior court a fee of sixty-five dollars ($65.00) at the time the petition is filed. Fees collected under this subsection shall be deposited in the General Fund. This subsection does not apply to petitions filed by an indigent."

SECTION 7.6.(c) G.S. 15A-146(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) The court may also order that the said entries shall be expunged from the records of the court, and direct all law-enforcement agencies bearing record of the same to expunge their records of the entries. The clerk shall forward a certified copy of the order to the sheriff, chief of police, or other arresting agency. The sheriff, chief or head of such other arresting agency shall then transmit the copy of the order with the form supplied by the State Bureau of Investigation to the State Bureau of Investigation, and the State Bureau of Investigation shall forward the order to the Federal Bureau of Investigation. ~~The costs of expunging such records shall be taxed against the petitioner.~~"

SECTION 7.6.(d) G.S. 15A-146 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(d) A person who files a petition for expunction of a criminal record under this section must pay the clerk of superior court a fee of sixty-five dollars ($65.00) at the time the petition is filed. Fees collected under this subsection shall be deposited in the General Fund. This subsection does not apply to petitions filed by an indigent."

SECTION 7.6.(e) G.S. 90-96 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(f) A person who files a petition for expunction of a criminal record under this section must pay the clerk of superior court a fee of sixty-five dollars ($65.00) at the time the petition is filed. Fees collected under this subsection shall be deposited in the General Fund. This subsection does not apply to petitions filed by an indigent."

SECTION 7.6.(f) This section becomes effective October 1, 2002, and applies to petitions filed on or after that date.

SECTION 7.7.(a) G.S. 130A-5 is amended by adding the following new subdivision to read:

"(15) To establish a fee to cover the cost of analyzing clinical Pap smear specimens sent to the State Laboratory by local health departments and State-owned facilities and for reporting the results of the analysis. This fee shall be in addition to the charge for the Pap smear test kit."

SECTION 7.7.(b) This section is effective when it becomes law.

PART VIII. SECURE LOCAL REVENUES

SECTION 8.1. G.S. 105-113.82(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) Time. – The revenue shall be distributed to cities and counties within 60 days after March 31 of each year. The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 8.2. G.S. 105-116.1(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Distribution. – The Secretary must distribute to the cities part of the taxes collected under this Article on electric power companies. Each city's share for a calendar quarter is the percentage distribution amount for that city for that quarter minus one-fourth of the city's hold-back amount and one-fourth of the city's proportionate share of the annual cost to the Department of administering the distribution. The Secretary must make the distribution within 75 days after the end of each calendar quarter. The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 8.3. G.S. 105-187.44(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Distribution. – Within 75 days after the end of each calendar quarter, the Secretary must distribute to the cities part of the tax proceeds collected under this Article during that quarter. The amount to be distributed to a city is one-half of the amount of tax attributable to that city for that quarter under subsection (a) of this section. The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 8.4. G.S. 105-164.44F is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(f) Nature. – The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 8.5. G.S. 136-41.1 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(d) Nature. – The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 8.6. G.S. 143-25 reads as rewritten:

"§ 143-25. Maintenance appropriations dependent upon adequacy of revenues to support them.

(a) All maintenance appropriations now or hereafter made are hereby declared to be maximum, conditional and proportionate appropriations, the purpose being to make the appropriations payable in full in the amounts named herein if necessary and then only in the event the aggregate revenues collected and available during each fiscal year of the biennium for which such appropriations are made, are sufficient to pay all of the appropriations in full; otherwise, the said appropriations shall be deemed to be payable in such proportion as the total sum of all appropriations bears to the total amount of revenue available in each of said fiscal years. ~~The~~ Except as provided in subsection (b) of this section, the Director of the Budget is ~~hereby~~ given full power and authority to examine and survey the progress of the collection of the revenue out of which such appropriations are to be made, and to declare and determine the amounts that can be, during each quarter of each of the fiscal years of the biennium properly allocated to each respective appropriation. In making such examination and survey, ~~he~~ the Director of the Budget shall receive estimates of the prospective collection of revenues from the Secretary of Revenue and every other revenue collecting agency of the State. The Director of the Budget may reduce all of said appropriations pro rata when necessary to prevent an overdraft or deficit to the fiscal period for which such appropriations are made. The Governor may also reduce all of said appropriations pursuant to Article III, Section 5(3) of the Constitution in accordance with subsection (b) of this section, after consulting with the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations under G.S. 120-76(8) if prior consultation is required by that section. The purpose and policy of this Article are to provide and insure that there shall be no overdraft or deficit in the general fund of the State at the end of the fiscal period, growing out of appropriations for maintenance and the Director of the Budget is directed and required to so administer this Article as to prevent any such overdraft or deficit. Prior to taking any action under this section to reduce appropriations pro rata, the Governor may consult with the Advisory Budget Commission.

(b) The General Assembly recognizes that it has required units of local government to adopt and maintain annual balanced budgets and take other steps to assure financially sound operations under the Local Government Budget and Fiscal Control Act and other provisions of Chapter 159 of the General Statutes. Accordingly, the General Assembly finds that in order to satisfy those statutory requirements and provide adequate services to their citizens, units of local government must be able to rely on the funds and local revenue sources the General Assembly has provided.

It is the intent of the General Assembly that funds that have been collected by the State on behalf of local governments and funds that the General Assembly has appropriated or otherwise committed to local governments shall not be reduced except as provided in this section. In exercising the powers contained in Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution, the Governor shall not withhold from distribution funds that have been collected by the State on behalf of local governments or funds that the General Assembly has appropriated or otherwise committed to local governments unless, after making adequate provision for the prompt payment of principal of and interest on bonds and notes of the State according to their terms, the Governor has exhausted all other sources of revenue of the State including surplus remaining in the treasury at the beginning of the fiscal period.

This subsection does not authorize the Governor to withhold revenues from taxes levied by units of local governments and collected by the State. The General Assembly recognizes that under Section 19 of Article I of the North Carolina Constitution and under the Due Process Clause of the United States Constitution, the State is prohibited from taking local tax revenue."

SECTION 8.7. The provisions of this Part are severable. If any provision of this Part is held invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalidity does not affect other provisions of the Part that can be given effect without the invalid provision.

PART IX. EFFECTIVE DATE

SECTION 9. Except as otherwise provided, this act is effective when it becomes law. Notwithstanding G.S. 105-163.15 and G.S. 105-163.41, no addition to tax may be made under those statutes for a taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 2002, and before January 1, 2003, with respect to an underpayment of corporate or individual income tax to the extent the underpayment was created or increased by this act.

PART II. DELAY 2001 TAX BREAKS

SECTION 2.1.(a) The lead-in language of Section 34.19(a) of S.L. 2001-424 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 34.19.(a) Effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, ~~2002,~~2003, G.S. 105-134.6(c)(3) and (4) reads as rewritten:".

SECTION 2.1.(b) The lead-in language of Section 34.19(b) of S.L. 2001-424 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 34.19.(b) Effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, ~~2003,~~2004, G.S. 105-134.6(c)(4), as amended by this section, reads as rewritten:".

SECTION 2.2.(a) The lead-in language of Section 34.20(a) of S.L. 2001-424 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 34.20.(a) Effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, ~~2002,~~2003, G.S. 105-151.24 reads as rewritten:".

SECTION 2.2.(b) The lead-in language of Section 34.20(b) of S.L. 2001-424 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 34.20.(b) Effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, ~~2003,~~2004, G.S. 105-151.24, as amended by this section, reads as rewritten:".

PART III. UPDATE IRC REFERENCE

SECTION 3.1. G.S. 105-228.90(b)(1b) reads as rewritten:

"(1b) Code. – The Internal Revenue Code as enacted as of ~~January 1, 2001,~~May 1, 2002, including any provisions enacted as of that date which become effective either before or after that date."

SECTION 3.2.(a) G.S. 105-130.5(a) is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(a) The following additions to federal taxable income shall be made in determining State net income:

...

(15) A percentage of the amount allowed as a thirty percent (30%) accelerated depreciation deduction under section 168(k) or section 1400L of the Code. For amounts allowed for taxable years beginning before January 1, 2004, the percentage is one hundred percent (100%). For amounts allowed for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2004, the percentage is eighty percent (80%).

In addition, a taxpayer who was allowed a thirty percent (30%) accelerated depreciation deduction under section 168(k) or section 1400L of the Code in a taxable year beginning before January 1, 2002, and whose North Carolina taxable income in that earlier year reflected that accelerated depreciation deduction must add to federal taxable income in the taxpayer's first taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 2002, an amount equal to the amount of the deduction allowed in the earlier taxable year.

These adjustments do not result in a difference in basis of the affected assets for State and federal income tax purposes."

SECTION 3.2.(b) G.S. 105-134.6(c) is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(c) Additions. – The following additions to taxable income shall be made in calculating North Carolina taxable income, to the extent each item is not included in taxable income:

...

(8) A percentage of the amount allowed as a thirty percent (30%) accelerated depreciation deduction under section 168(k) or section 1400L of the Code. For amounts allowed for taxable years beginning before January 1, 2004, the percentage is one hundred percent (100%). For amounts allowed for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2004, the percentage is eighty percent (80%).

In addition, a taxpayer who was allowed a thirty percent (30%) accelerated depreciation deduction under section 168(k) or section 1400L of the Code in a taxable year beginning before January 1, 2002, and whose North Carolina taxable income in that earlier year reflected that accelerated depreciation deduction must add to federal taxable income in the taxpayer's first taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 2002, an amount equal to the amount of the deduction allowed in the earlier taxable year.

These adjustments do not result in a difference in basis of the affected assets for State and federal income tax purposes."

SECTION 3.2.(c) This section is effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002.

SECTION 3.3.(a) G.S. 105-130.5(b) is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(b) The following deductions from federal taxable income shall be made in determining State net income:

...

(21) In each of the taxpayer's first five taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2005, an amount equal to twenty percent (20%) of the amount added to taxable income in a previous year as accelerated depreciation under subdivision (a)(15) of this section."

SECTION 3.3.(b) G.S. 105-134.6(b) is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(b) Deductions. – The following deductions from taxable income shall be made in calculating North Carolina taxable income, to the extent each item is included in taxable income:

...

SECTION 3.3.(c) This section is effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002.

SECTION 3.4.(a) G.S. 105-32.2(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Amount. – The amount of the estate tax imposed by this section is the maximum credit for state death taxes allowed under section 2011 of the ~~Code.~~ Code without regard to the phase-out of that credit under subdivision (b)(2) of that section. If any property in the estate is located in a state other than North Carolina, the amount of tax payable is the North Carolina percentage of the credit.

If the decedent was a resident of this State at death, the North Carolina percentage is the net value of the estate that does not have a tax situs in another state, divided by the net value of all property in the estate. If the decedent was not a resident of this State at death, the North Carolina percentage is the net value of real property that is located in North Carolina plus the net value of any personal property that has a tax situs in North Carolina, divided by the net value of all property in the estate, unless the decedent's state of residence uses a different formula to determine that state's percentage. In that circumstance, the North Carolina percentage is the amount determined by the formula used by the decedent's state of residence.

The net value of property that is located in or has a tax situs in this State is its gross value reduced by any debt secured by that property. The net value of all the property in the estate is its gross value reduced by any debts and deductions of the estate."

SECTION 3.4.(b) This section is effective on and after January 1, 2002, and applies to the estates of decedents dying on or after that date. This section is repealed effective for the estates of decedents dying on or after January 1, 2004.

SECTION 3.5. Effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002, G.S. 105-134.6(b)(13) is repealed.

SECTION 3.6. Notwithstanding Section 3.1 of this act, any amendments to the Internal Revenue Code enacted in 2001 that increase North Carolina taxable income for the 2001 taxable year become effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002.

PART IV. UNAUTHORIZED SUBSTANCE TAX EXPENSES

SECTION 4.1. G.S. 105-501 is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"...

In determining the net proceeds of the tax to be distributed, the Secretary shall deduct from the collections to be allocated an amount equal to one-fourth of the costs during the preceding fiscal year of:

...

(1a) Seventy percent (70%) of the expenses of the Department of Revenue in performing the duties imposed by Article 2D of this Chapter.

...."

SECTION 4.2. This Part becomes effective June 30, 2002.

PART V. INSURANCE REGULATORY CHARGE

SECTION 5.(a) The percentage rate to be used in calculating the insurance regulatory charge under G.S. 58-6-25 is six and one-half percent (6.5%) for the 2002 calendar year.

SECTION 5.(b) This section is effective when it becomes law.

PART VI. REGULATORY FEE FOR UTILITIES COMMISSION

SECTION 6.(a) The percentage rate to be used in calculating the public utility regulatory fee under G.S. 62-302(b)(2) is one-tenth percent (0.1%) for each public utility's North Carolina jurisdictional revenues earned during each quarter that begins on or after July 1, 2002.

SECTION 6.(b) The electric membership corporation regulatory fee imposed under G.S. 62-302(b1) for the 2002-2003 fiscal year is two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000).

SECTION 6.(c) This section becomes effective July 1, 2002.

PART VII. RESERVED

PART VIII. SECURE LOCAL REVENUES

SECTION 8.1. G.S. 105-113.82(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) Time. – The revenue shall be distributed to cities and counties within 60 days after March 31 of each year. The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 8.2. G.S. 105-116.1(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Distribution. – The Secretary must distribute to the cities part of the taxes collected under this Article on electric power companies. Each city's share for a calendar quarter is the percentage distribution amount for that city for that quarter minus one-fourth of the city's hold-back amount and one-fourth of the city's proportionate share of the annual cost to the Department of administering the distribution. The Secretary must make the distribution within 75 days after the end of each calendar quarter. The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 8.3. G.S. 105-187.44(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Distribution. – Within 75 days after the end of each calendar quarter, the Secretary must distribute to the cities part of the tax proceeds collected under this Article during that quarter. The amount to be distributed to a city is one-half of the amount of tax attributable to that city for that quarter under subsection (a) of this section. The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 8.4. G.S. 105-164.44F is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(f) Nature. – The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 8.5. G.S. 136-41.1 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(d) Nature. – The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 8.6. G.S. 159B-27(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) The State shall distribute to cities and towns which receive electric power and energy from their ownership share of a project or to which electric power and energy is sold by a joint agency an amount equal to a tax of three and nine hundredths percent (3.09%) of all moneys expended by a municipality on account of its ownership share of a project, including payment of principal and interest on bonds issued to finance such ownership share, or an amount equal to a tax of three and nine hundredths percent (3.09%) of the gross receipts from all sales of electric power and energy to such city or town by a joint agency, as the case may be. The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 8.7. G.S. 143-25 reads as rewritten:

"§ 143-25. Maintenance appropriations dependent upon adequacy of revenues to support them.

(a) All maintenance appropriations now or hereafter made are hereby declared to be maximum, conditional and proportionate appropriations, the purpose being to make the appropriations payable in full in the amounts named herein if necessary and then only in the event the aggregate revenues collected and available during each fiscal year of the biennium for which such appropriations are made, are sufficient to pay all of the appropriations in full; otherwise, the said appropriations shall be deemed to be payable in such proportion as the total sum of all appropriations bears to the total amount of revenue available in each of said fiscal years. ~~The~~ Except as provided in subsection (b)

of this section, the Director of the Budget is ~~hereby~~ given full power and authority to examine and survey the progress of the collection of the revenue out of which such appropriations are to be made, and to declare and determine the amounts that can be, during each quarter of each of the fiscal years of the biennium properly allocated to each respective appropriation. In making such examination and survey, ~~he~~ the Director of the Budget shall receive estimates of the prospective collection of revenues from the Secretary of Revenue and every other revenue collecting agency of the State. The Director of the Budget may reduce all of said appropriations pro rata when necessary to prevent an overdraft or deficit to the fiscal period for which such appropriations are made. The Governor may also reduce all of said appropriations pursuant to Article III, Section 5(3) of the Constitution in accordance with subsection (b) of this section, after consulting with the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations under G.S. 120-76(8) if prior consultation is required by that section. The purpose and policy of this Article are to provide and insure that there shall be no overdraft or deficit in the general fund of the State at the end of the fiscal period, growing out of appropriations for maintenance and the Director of the Budget is directed and required to so administer this Article as to prevent any such overdraft or deficit. Prior to taking any action under this section to reduce appropriations pro rata, the Governor may consult with the Advisory Budget Commission.

(b) The General Assembly recognizes that it has required units of local government to adopt and maintain annual balanced budgets and take other steps to assure financially sound operations under the Local Government Budget and Fiscal Control Act and other provisions of Chapter 159 of the General Statutes. Accordingly, the General Assembly finds that in order to satisfy those statutory requirements and provide adequate services to their citizens, units of local government must be able to rely on the funds and local revenue sources the General Assembly has provided.

It is the intent of the General Assembly that funds that have been collected by the State on behalf of local governments and funds that the General Assembly has appropriated or otherwise committed to local governments shall not be reduced except as provided in this section. In exercising the powers contained in Section 5(3) of Article III of the Constitution, the Governor shall not withhold from distribution funds that have been collected by the State on behalf of local governments or funds that the General Assembly has appropriated or otherwise committed to local governments unless, after making adequate provision for the prompt payment of principal of and interest on bonds and notes of the State according to their terms, the Governor has exhausted all other sources of revenue of the State including surplus remaining in the treasury at the beginning of the fiscal period and has been authorized to withhold the funds by an act of the General Assembly.

This subsection does not authorize the Governor to withhold revenues from taxes levied by units of local governments and collected by the State. The General Assembly recognizes that under Section 19 of Article I of the North Carolina Constitution and under the Due Process Clause of the United States Constitution, the State is prohibited from taking local tax revenue."

PART IX. CLOSE CORPORATE TAX LOOPHOLES

SECTION 9.1.(a) G.S. 105-130.4(a)(1) reads as rewritten:

"(1) "Business income" means ~~income arising from transactions and activity in the regular course of the corporation's trade or business and includes income from tangible and intangible property if the acquisition, management, and/or disposition of the property constitute integral parts of the corporation's regular trade or business operations.~~ all income that is apportionable under the United States Constitution."

SECTION 9.1.(b) This section is effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002.

SECTION 9.2.(a) G.S. 105-130.4(l) reads as rewritten:

"(l) (1) The sales factor is a ~~fraction, the~~fraction. The numerator of ~~which~~ the fraction is the total sales of the corporation in this State during the income ~~year, and the~~year other than sales to the United States government. The denominator of ~~which is the total sales of the corporation everywhere during the income year.~~ the fraction is the total sales of the corporation everywhere during the income year except for (i) sales to the United States government, (ii) sales that are in a state in which the taxpayer is not taxable, and (iii) sales that are in a foreign country when that country does not subject the taxpayer to a tax on or measured by profits or income. Notwithstanding any other provision under this Part, the receipts from any casual sale of property shall be excluded from both the numerator and the denominator of the sales factor. Where a corporation is not taxable in another state on its business income but is taxable in another state only because of nonbusiness income, all sales shall be treated as having been made in this State.

(2) Sales of tangible personal property are in this State if the property is received in this State by the purchaser. In the case of delivery of goods by common carrier or by other means of transportation, including transportation by the purchaser, the place at which the goods are ultimately received after all transportation has been completed shall be considered as the place at which the goods are received by the purchaser. Direct delivery into this State by the taxpayer to a person or firm designated by a purchaser from within or without the State shall constitute delivery to the purchaser in this State.

(3) Other sales are in this State if:

a. The receipts are from real or tangible personal property located in this State; or

b. The receipts are from intangible property and are received from sources within this State; or

c. The receipts are from services and the income-producing activities are in this State."

SECTION 9.2.(b) This section is effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002.

SECTION 9.3.(a) Section 2(a) of S.L. 2001-327 reads as rewritten:

"EQUALIZE FRANCHISE TAX ON CORPORATE-AFFILIATED LLCs

SECTION 2.(a) The General Assembly finds that most corporations engaged in business in this State comply with the State franchise tax on corporate assets. Some taxpayers, however, take advantage of an unintended loophole in the law and avoid franchise tax by transferring their assets to a controlled limited liability company. This tax avoidance creates an unfair burden on corporate citizens that pay the franchise tax on their assets. It is the intent of this section to apply the franchise tax equally to assets held by corporations and assets held by corporate-affiliated limited liability companies. It is also the intent of this section to provide that a criminal penalty applies to taxpayers who fraudulently evade the tax.

The General Assembly further finds that, after this loophole was closed in 2001, some taxpayers continue to avoid franchise tax by manipulating ownership of assets. One method is to interpose a controlled partnership between the corporation and the controlled limited liability company. This tax avoidance creates an unfair burden on corporate citizens that pay the franchise tax on their assets. It is the intent of the General Assembly to apply the franchise tax equally to assets held by corporations and assets held by corporate-controlled entities."

SECTION 9.3.(b) G.S. 105-114(c) is recodified as G.S. 105-114.1 and reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-114.1. Limited liability companies.

(a) Definitions. – The definitions in G.S. 105-130.7A apply in this section. In addition, the following definitions apply in this section:

(1) Governing law. – A limited liability company's governing law is determined under G.S. 57C-6-05 or G.S. 57C-7-01, as applicable.

(2) Owned indirectly. – A person owns indirectly assets of a limited liability company if the limited liability company's governing law provides that seventy percent (70%) or more of its assets, after payments to creditors, must be distributed upon dissolution to the person as of the last day of the principal corporation's taxable year.

(3) Principal corporation. – A corporation that is a member of a limited liability company or has a related member that is a member of a limited liability company.

(b) Controlled Companies. – If a corporation or a related member of the corporation is a member of a limited liability company and the principal corporation and any related members of the principal corporation together own indirectly ~~the limited liability company's governing law provides that~~ seventy percent (70%) or more of ~~its~~ the limited liability company's assets, ~~after payments to creditors, must be distributed upon dissolution to the member corporation or to includible corporations of an affiliated group in which the member corporation is includible,~~ then the following provisions apply:

(1) ~~(i) a~~A percentage of the limited liability company's income, assets, liabilities, and equity is attributed to that ~~member~~ principal corporation and must be included in the ~~member~~ principal corporation's computation of tax under this ~~Article, and (ii) the~~Article.

(2) The principal ~~member~~ corporation's investment in the limited liability company is not included in the ~~member~~ principal corporation's computation of tax under this Article.

(3) The attributable percentage is equal to the percentage of the limited liability company's ~~assets, after payments to creditors, that would be distributable to the member corporation~~ assets owned indirectly by the principal corporation divided by the percentage of the limited liability company's assets owned indirectly by related members of the principal corporation that are corporations. ~~under the limited liability company's governing law if the limited liability company dissolved as of the last day of the member corporation's taxable year.~~

(c) Other Companies. – In all other cases, none of the limited liability company's income, assets, liabilities, or equity is attributed to a ~~member~~ principal corporation under this Article. ~~A limited liability company's governing law is determined under G.S. 57C-6-05 or G.S. 57C-7-01, as applicable. The definitions in section 1504 of the Code apply in this subsection.~~

(d) Penalty. – A taxpayer who, because of fraud with intent to evade tax, underpays the tax under this Article on assets attributable to it under this ~~subsection~~ section is guilty of a Class H felony in accordance with G.S. 105-236(7)."

SECTION 9.3.(c) This section becomes effective January 1, 2003, and applies to taxes due on or after that date.

PART X. HOUSING TAX CREDIT EFFECTIVE DATE CHANGE

SECTION 10. Section 10.(f) of S.L. 2000-56 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 10.(f) Low-Income Housing Credit Changes. – G.S. 105-129.16B(d), as amended by Section 7 of this act, is effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2000. The remainder of Section 7 is effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2001, applies to buildings to which federal credits are allocated on or after January 1, ~~2001,~~2000, and expires January 1, 2005."

PART XI. SEVERABILITY CLAUSE AND EFFECTIVE DATE

SECTION 11.1. The provisions of this act are severable. If any provision of this act is held invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalidity does not affect other provisions of the act that can be given effect without the invalid provision.

SECTION 11.2. Except as otherwise provided, this act is effective when it becomes law. Notwithstanding G.S. 105-163.15 and G.S. 105-163.41, no addition to tax may be made under those statutes for a taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 2002, and before January 1, 2003, with respect to an underpayment of corporate or individual income tax to the extent the underpayment was created or increased by this act.

Senate Bill 1292 (HPCS): Budget Revenue Act of 2002

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee: House Finance
Date: July 3, 2002
Version: House PCS

Introduced by: Senators Kerr and Hoyle
Summary by: Finance Team

SUMMARY: The proposed House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill 1292 contains the following tax changes:

- PART I – Reserved.
- PART II delays the income tax breaks enacted in 2001. This Part is identical to the Senate version.
  - The phase-in of the increase in the standard deduction for married filing jointly is delayed until January 1, 2003.
  - The phase-in of the additional child tax credit amount is delayed until January 1, 2003.
- PART III conforms North Carolina's tax laws to many of the federal tax law changes enacted in 2001 and 2002. Except for a reduction in the bonus depreciation add-back, this Part is identical to the Senate version.
  - Conform to the educational provisions in EGTRRA.
  - Conform to the pension tax provisions in EGTRRA.
  - Conform to the net operating loss provisions in EGTRRA.
  - Conform to the miscellaneous provisions in EGTRRA and in the Economic Stimulus Bill.
  - Conform to the increased estate tax limits in EGTRRA.
  - The bill does NOT conform to either the phase-out of the State estate death tax credit in EGTRRA or the accelerated depreciation provisions in the Economic Stimulus Bill.
- PART IV provides that local governments will bear a portion of the costs associated with the collection of the drug tax. These costs are currently borne entirely by the General Fund. Except for a correction to the effective date, this Part is identical to the Senate version.
- PART V sets the insurance regulatory fee at 6.5% for the 2002 calendar year. This rate is the same as the 2001 rate. This Part is identical to the Senate version.
- PART VI sets the public utility regulatory fee at 0.1% for the 2002-2003 fiscal year. It also sets the electric membership corporation regulatory fee at $200,000 for the 2002-03 fiscal year. These rates are the same as the rates established last year.
- PART VII is reserved.

- PART VIII seeks to secure local revenues in two ways, listed below. This Part is identical to House Bill 1490 as it passed the House. It is similar to the corresponding provision in the Senate version.[1]
  - It prohibits the Governor from withholding certain shared tax revenues by classifying them as "local revenues" rather than "State expenditures" thus arguably removing those funds from the scope of the Governor's constitutional budgetary authority.
  - It restricts the Governor's ability to withhold funds otherwise appropriated or committed to local governments, including reimbursement money, by requiring that the Governor first exhaust all other sources of revenue, including surplus in the treasury at the beginning of the fiscal period, and be authorized by an act of the General Assembly.
- PART IX closes three corporate tax loopholes, as described below. There is no corresponding provision in the Senate version.
  - Broadens the definition of "business income" to include all income that states can apportion for corporate income tax purposes under the U.S. Constitution, effective beginning with the 2002 tax year.
  - Provides that sales that no state has the right to tax are "thrown out" of the calculation of profits to apportioned among the states, thereby increasing the percentage apportioned to North Carolina for the purpose of corporate income taxation, effective beginning with the 2002 tax year.
  - Tightens the 2001 legislation that was intended to close a loophole that allows corporations to escape franchise tax by transferring assets to a controlled limited liability company, effective beginning with payments due in March 2003.
- PART X enlarges the class of taxpayers eligible for an enhanced credit for investing in low-income housing in a county that sustained severe or moderate damage from a hurricane in 1999. There is no corresponding provision in the Senate version.

PART I: [RESERVED]

PART II: DELAY 2001 TAX BREAKS

Last session, the General Assembly enacted two income tax breaks to become effective for 2002 tax year[2]: elimination of the marriage tax penalty[3] and an increased tax credit for children. Part II of this bill delays the enactment of these tax benefits.

---

[1] The Senate version lacks the conforming change to the electric cities statute, and lacks the extra requirement that the Governor needs General Assembly authorization before releasing any funds committed to local governments.
[2] S.L. 2001-424, as amended by S.L. 2001-476, 2001-497, and 2001-489.
[3] The so-called married tax penalty is the result of a tax system that recognizes that a married couple's living expenses are less than the expenses of two single people living separately but more than the expenses of one single person. In addition, if one spouse is not employed full-time, a married couple's income would be less than that of two comparable single people who work full-time, but more than that of one single person. The tax law addresses these situations through the tax brackets, the personal exemptions, and the standard deduction. The result of these tax provisions is that a married couple with only one spouse working experiences a tax reduction when they marry,

Last session, the General Assembly reduced North Carolina income taxes on married couples that claim the standard deduction[4] by increasing the amount of the standard deduction for married filers so that it would be twice that of a single taxpayer. Since 1989, the basic standard deduction for a single person in North Carolina has been $3,000 while that for a married couple filing jointly has been $5,000. The increase in the deduction enacted in 2001 is phased in over the 2002 and 2003 tax years. The standard deduction for married persons filing separately is one-half that for a married couple filing jointly, so the 2001 act also phased it up from $2,500 to $3,000 over the 2002 and 2003 tax years. Part II of this bill would delay by one year the phase-in of the increased deduction, so that it would occur over the 2003 and 2004 tax years.

In 2001, the General Assembly increased the $60 tax credit per child to $75 for the 2002 tax year and to $100 for the 2003 tax year. Part II of this bill would delay the phase-in of the credit increase until the 2003 and 2004 tax years. The 1995 General Assembly enacted the tax credit of $60 per child for taxpayers who have dependent children and have family adjusted gross income below $100,000 for a married couple and $80,000 for a head of household. Neither the 2001 act nor this bill changes the income thresholds. The credit is in addition to the federal and state tax credits or exclusions for child care expenses. The credit is allowed for each dependent child for whom the eligible taxpayer could take a federal personal exemption under section 151(c)(1)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code. That Code section allows an exemption for each dependent child who either is less than 19 years old at the end of the taxable year or is a student and is less than 24 years old at the end of the taxable year. A child is a son, stepson, daughter, or stepdaughter. A dependent child is a child over half of whose support was provided by the taxpayer.

PART III: UPDATE IRC REFERENCE

North Carolina's tax law tracks many provisions of the federal Internal Revenue Code, by reference to the Code.[5] The General Assembly determines each year whether to update its reference to the Internal Revenue Code.[6] Updating the Internal Revenue Code reference makes recent amendments to the Code applicable to the State to the extent that State law previously tracked federal law. The General Assembly's decision whether to conform to federal changes is based on the fiscal, practical, and policy implications of the federal changes and is normally enacted in the following year, rather than in the same year the federal changes are made.

a married couple where one spouse earns substantially more than the other experiences no tax reduction or increase when they marry, and a married couple with both spouses earning roughly the same amount experience a tax increase when they marry.

[4] Roughly 70% of North Carolina taxpayers claim the standard deduction.

[5] North Carolina first began referencing the Internal Revenue Code in 1967, the year it changed its taxation of corporate income to a percentage of federal taxable income.

[6] The North Carolina Constitution imposes an obstacle to a statute that automatically adopts any changes in federal tax law. Article V, Section 2(1) of the Constitution provides in pertinent part that the "power of taxation ... shall never be surrendered, suspended, or contracted away." Relying on this provision, the North Carolina court decisions on delegation of legislative power to administrative agencies, and an analysis of the few federal cases on this issue, the Attorney General's Office concluded in a memorandum issued in 1977 to the Director of the Tax Research Division of the Department of Revenue that a "statute which adopts by reference future amendments to the Internal Revenue Code would ... be invalidated as an unconstitutional delegation of legislative power."

Congress enacted two bills that have changed the Code significantly since January 1, 2001:

- The Economic Growth and Tax Relief Reconciliation Act of 2001 (EGTRRA), enacted on June 7, 2001, includes numerous changes to the taxation of pension benefits, accounts, distributions, and rollovers; of education initiatives; and of estates. All of the provisions of EGTRRA will expire on December 31, 2010, unless the provisions are renewed or modified by Congressional action.[7]
- The federal Job Creation and Worker Assistance Act of 2002, enacted March 9, 2002, includes an accelerated 30% bonus depreciation allowance for certain assets placed in service after September 10, 2001, and before September 11, 2004, and an extension of the carryback period for net operating losses occurring in tax years ending in 2001 and 2002 from two years to five years.

Both of these acts will substantially affect a taxpayer's federal taxable income. Since North Carolina begins its corporate and individual income tax calculations with federal taxable income, these acts also have a substantial impact on North Carolina's tax revenues to the extent the State chooses to conform to those changes.

Part III of this bill rewrites the definition of the Code to change the reference date from January 1, 2001, to May 1, 2002. It then provides that a taxpayer must add to federal taxable income the amount allowed as an accelerated depreciation deduction under section 168(k) or 1400L of the Code and that a taxpayer's estate tax liability is determined without regard to the phase-out of the state death tax credit. In effect, Part III would do the following:

- Conform to all of the pension tax changes in the Code.
- Conform to all of the education initiatives in the Code.
- Conform to the increased estate tax exemption limitations.
- Not conform to the phase-out of the state death tax credit.
- Conform to the extension of the carryback period for net operating losses occurring in tax years ending in 2001 and 2002.
- Delay the accelerated 30% bonus depreciation allowance.

Pension Tax Provisions: This Part conforms North Carolina's tax treatment of pension benefits and distributions to federal law. Some of the more notable changes EGTRRA made to the pension laws include:

- It allows taxpayers to contribute more to their tax-deferred retirement accounts. It gradually increases the amount that may be contributed to a 401(k), 403(b), and 457 accounts between 2002 and 2006. The contribution limit will increase to $15,000 in 2006. Starting in 2007, the limit will be indexed for inflation in $500 increments. It also allows persons who are 50 or older to make an additional catch-up contribution to their tax-deferred retirement accounts.
- It increases the amounts that may be contributed to both traditional IRAs and Roth IRAs from $2,000 in 2001 to $3,000 in 2002. This amount gradually increases to $5,000 for 2008. After 2008, this amount will be indexed annually for inflation. It also allows people over the age of 50 to make catch-up contributions to an IRA.

[7]The Congressional Budget Act of 1974 mandates this sunset provision.

- It modifies the distribution rules for governmental 457 plan participants so that their deferred compensation funds will be taxed when they receive the distribution, not when it is made available to them.
- It repeals the coordination of deferrals between 457 and other elective deferral plans. Under former law, the maximum deferral amount for a 457 plan was reduced dollar for dollar by any contribution made to other types of retirement plans. The tax law change means that a person may defer the maximum annual contribution limit to a 457 plan as well as the maximum amount in a 401(k) or 403(b) plan.
- It expands the types of eligible tax-free rollover distributions to include distributions from qualified plans, 403(b) annuities, and 457 plans to other such plans and distributions from IRAs to qualified plans, 403(b) annuities, and 457 plans.
- It allows a surviving spouse to roll over distributions from a deceased spouse's plan to his or her own plan. Prior to this change, the tax-free rollover had to be made to an IRA.

Education Tax Provisions: This Part conforms North Carolina tax law on education incentives to the federal changes enacted last year. The more notable tax changes affecting education incentives include:

- It increases the annual maximum contribution limit to an education IRA from $500 to $2,000 per beneficiary.
- It allows education IRAs dollars to be used to cover expenses of students in grade, middle, and high schools.
- It eases the restrictions and limitations when using an Education IRA with other education initiatives, such as the Hope or Lifetime Learning tax credit.
- It moves the annual contribution deadline for Education IRAs from December 31 to April 15 of the following year.
- It provides that distributions from Section 529 Plans will be income-tax free up to the amount that is used to pay qualified higher education expenses.[8] Under former law, participants enjoyed only the benefit of tax-deferred contributions and investment growth.
- It allows a person to transfer 529 plan credits from one program to another for the benefit of the same beneficiary without incurring a taxable event.
- It extends the deduction for employer-paid college expenses to include graduate courses.

Estate Tax Provisions: North Carolina repealed its inheritance tax in 1998, effective for deaths occurring on or after January 1, 1999. It replaced its inheritance tax with an estate tax that is equivalent to the federal state death tax credit allowed on a federal estate tax return. This type of state estate tax is known as a "pick-up" tax because it picks up for the state the amount of federal estate tax that would otherwise be paid to the federal government.[9] EGTRRA made two changes that affect the estate tax:

---

[8] North Carolina currently allows tax free distributions for North Carolina plans. Section 3.5 of the bill repeals the State deduction.

[9] As of July 1, 2001, 36 other states, plus the District of Columbia, impose only the "pick-up tax".

- It phases out the estate tax over the next eight years by increasing the exclusion amount from $675,000 in 2001 to $1 million in 2002-03, $1.5 million in 2004-05, $2 million in 2006-08, and $3.5 million in 2009. There is no need for an exemption amount after 2009 since the tax is repealed in 2010. However, the tax is scheduled to reapply in 2011 unless a future Congress makes the repeal permanent. If the tax were reinstated in 2011, the exclusion amount would be $1 million. This bill would conform North Carolina's exemption limits to the federal exemption limits to ensure that estates in North Carolina do not have to pay State tax if there is no federal tax due.
- It phases out the state death tax credit over the next four years by reducing it 25% in 2002, 50% in 2003, and 75% in 2004, and repealing it entirely in 2005. This bill does NOT conform to the phase out of the state death tax credit for two years.[10] Therefore, under this bill an estate of a decedent dying on or after January 1, 2002, and before January 1, 2004, would owe North Carolina estate tax to the same extent that it would be owed without regard to the phase-out of the credit. The January 1, 2004, sunset ensures that the State will have to revisit this issue next year.

Because North Carolina's estate tax is based upon the federal credit for state death taxes, the repeal of the state death tax credit in 2005 and the ultimate repeal of the federal estate tax in 2010 will mean that the State must decide whether to replace or repeal its estate tax in the future.

Accelerated Depreciation Provisions: Under the Job Creation and Worker Assistance Act of 2002, a taxpayer is allowed an accelerated 30% bonus depreciation allowance for certain assets placed in service after September 11, 2001, and before September 11, 2004. The taxpayer is still entitled to the normal first-year depreciation on the remaining basis of the asset after reducing the basis by the bonus depreciation. This provision affects both corporate and individual income taxpayers.

The change in federal law results in a taxpayer recovering the basis in the asset sooner than under former law; however, over the life of the asset the taxpayer still receives the same benefit. This bill does not conform State law to the accelerated depreciation schedule allowed under federal law.[11] However, under this bill a taxpayer will continue to be able to deduct the same amount of an asset's basis under both federal and State law; it is just that the timing of the

[10] As of July 3, 2002 the following states have acted to decouple from the phase-out of the state death tax credit for some period of time or have introduced legislation to that effect: Connecticut, Illinois, Maine, Maryland, Minnesota, Nebraska, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Vermont, and Wisconsin. The following states will remain decoupled unless they take legislative action: Arkansas, District of Columbia, Kansas, New York, Oklahoma, Oregon, Virginia and Washington. (Source: Center on Budget and Policy Priorities)

[11] As of July 3, 2002, the following states have decoupled from a portion of the accelerated depreciation allowance as the result of explicit legislative action following enactment of the federal law or have introduced legislation to that effect: Arizona, Connecticut, District of Columbia, Georgia, Hawaii, Illinois, Iowa, Maryland, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri (for one year), Nebraska, New Jersey, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, Tennessee, Vermont (for corporate income tax filers only), Virginia, and Wisconsin. In addition, New York City has decoupled from the bonus depreciation allowance. Six other states are decoupled automatically under pre-existing tax law: Arkansas, Idaho, Kentucky, New Hampshire, South Dakota, and Texas. (Source: Center on Budget and Policy Priorities)

deduction will differ. To accomplish this decoupling from the federal accelerated bonus depreciation, the bill does two things:

- It provides that a taxpayer must add back to federal taxable income a percentage of the additional 30% accelerated depreciation in the year the accelerated depreciation is claimed for federal purposes.[12] The percentage is 100% for taxable years before 2004 and 80% for the 2004 taxable year. This add-back means that for State tax purposes, a taxpayer would deduct less in tax years 2001-2005 than it would have deducted if the State conformed to the accelerated depreciation law. The amount of the deduction will be the normal first year depreciation on the remaining basis of the asset after reducing the basis by the bonus depreciation amount allowed under federal law (plus, in 2004, 20% of the bonus deprecation).
- In tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2005, it provides that the taxpayer may deduct from federal taxable income the amount of the add-back, divided into five equal installments. This means that for State tax purposes, a taxpayer would be allowed to deduct a greater depreciation amount in the outlying tax years - the normal depreciation amount plus 20% of the accelerated depreciation amount the taxpayer had to add back. The purpose of this recovery provision is to enable the taxpayer to have the same basis in assets for federal and State purposes. Without this deduction provision, a taxpayer would have a different basis in the depreciable asset for State and federal purposes and would have to keep separate books and records for State and federal purposes until the disposal of the asset. In effect, the add-back and subsequent deduction will affect the timing of the impact of bonus depreciation on the State but it will not increase or decrease the amount of revenue the State receives over the affected years.

PART IV. UNAUTHORIZED SUBSTANCE TAX EXPENSES

Part IV of this bill would allocate to local governments 70% of the State's expenses in collecting the unauthorized substance tax. The expenses would be drawn from local sales tax revenues. Under current law, the following expenses are deducted from local sales tax distributions: costs of the Property Tax Division, costs of the Property Tax Commission, the costs of the Institute of Government in operating a training program in property tax appraisal and assessment, and the costs of the Local Government Commission.

The General Assembly first imposed the unauthorized substances tax in 1989 to generate revenue for State and local law enforcement agencies and for the General Fund. Seventy-five percent of the tax collected is distributed to the State or local law enforcement agency that conducted the investigation that led to the tax assessment. The remaining 25% is credited to the General Fund. This bill does not change this revenue allocation.

PART V. INSURANCE REGULATORY CHARGE

[12] For tax years beginning before October 1, 2001, the add-back must be taken in the first taxable year beginning on or after October 1, 2001, so that the taxpayer will not recognize any retroactive tax increase.

Part V of this bill sets the insurance regulatory charge at the same rate as last year's rate: 6.5% for the 2002 calendar year. The insurance regulatory charge is a tax that was enacted in 1991 to defray the State's cost of regulating the insurance industry. The charge is a percentage of each insurance company's premiums tax liability. The insurance regulatory charge is imposed on insurance companies, health maintenance organizations, and medical service corporations. For health maintenance organizations and medical service corporations, the fee is levied on each company's hypothetical gross premiums tax liability determined at the 1.9% gross premiums tax rate applied to its premiums base. The hypothetical calculation is necessary because medical service corporations and health maintenance organizations do not pay premiums tax at that rate.

PART VI. REGULATORY FEE FOR UTILITIES COMMISSION

Part VI of the bill sets the tax rate for the public utility regulatory fee for the 2002-2003 tax year at the same rate as last year's rate: 0.1%. This rate must be set by the General Assembly each year. The utility regulatory fee is a tax that was first imposed in 1989. The proceeds of the fee are credited to the Utilities Commission and Public Staff Fund and used to defray the State's cost in regulating public utilities. The regulatory fee is imposed on all utilities that are subject to regulation by the North Carolina Utilities Commission. The fee is a percentage of the utility's North Carolina jurisdictional revenues. In general, jurisdictional revenue is revenue derived from providing utility service in North Carolina.

In addition to funding the State's cost in regulating public utilities, the money in the Utilities Commission and Public Staff Fund is currently used to finance the work of the Study Commission on the Future of Electric Service in North Carolina. The General Assembly established the Commission in 1997 to examine the cost, adequacy, availability, and pricing of electric rates and service in North Carolina to determine whether legislation is necessary to assure an adequate and reliable source of electricity and economical, fair, and equitable rates for all consumers of electricity in North Carolina. Section 14.10 of SL 2000-67, the Current Operations and Capital Improvements Appropriations Act of 2000, extended the life of the Study Commission and its funding from the Utilities Commission and Public Staff Fund through June 30, 2006.

Part VI also sets at $200,000 for the 2002-2003 fiscal year the annual public utility regulatory fee imposed on electric membership corporations whose principal purpose is to furnish or cause to be furnished bulk electric supplies at wholesale. This is the same rate that was in effect for the 2001-2002 fiscal year. The North Carolina Electric Membership Corporation is the only electric membership corporation that fits this description. The proceeds of the fee are credited to the Utilities Commission and Public Staff Fund and used to defray the State's cost in regulating electric membership corporations.

The 1999 General Assembly enacted S.L. 1999-180, which authorized electric membership corporations to form subsidiary corporations that may provide energy services and products, telecommunications services and products, and water and wastewater collection and treatment. The subsidiaries must fully compensate the electric membership corporation for its use of the corporation's personnel, services, equipment, and property. The Utilities Commission is charged with regulating this aspect of the subsidiary's business and, to pay for this regulation, S.L. 1999-180 levied a flat-rate regulatory fee to be paid annually by the North Carolina Electric Membership Corporation. The General Assembly must establish the fee amount each year. The North Carolina Electric Membership Corporation is the only electric membership corporation whose principal purpose is to furnish or cause to be furnished bulk electric supplies at wholesale, as provided in G.S. 117-16. It is a "generation and supply cooperative" owned by its members. Its members are all but one of the existing North Carolina electric membership corporations, which are "distribution cooperatives." Thus, the fee imposed on the North Carolina Electric Membership Corporation will be passed on to its member electric membership corporations.

PART VII: [RESERVED]

PART VIII: SECURE LOCAL REVENUES

Sections 8.1 through 8.6 of the bill amend the following tax-sharing statutes by characterizing the revenue distributed by those statutes as distributions of "local revenue" rather than "State expenditures" for purposes of interpreting Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution:

- Section 8.1 - Beer and wine tax.
- Section 8.2 - Franchise gross receipts tax.
- Section 8.3 - Piped natural gas tax.
- Section 8.4 - Sales tax on telecommunications.
- Section 8.5 - Powell Bill funds.
- Section 8.6 - Electric cities distribution

Arguably, since the Constitution authorizes the Governor to reduce only "State expenditures," the classification of these state-shared tax revenues as "local revenues" prohibits the Governor from reducing or withholding the distributions. Moreover, the bill expressly states that the Governor may not reduce or withhold these distributions.

Section 8.7 of the bill amends the Executive Budget Act by limiting the Governor's authority to withhold from distribution funds that the General Assembly has appropriated or otherwise committed to local governments, including local reimbursement money. The Governor may withhold these funds only if, after making adequate provision for the prompt payment of principal of and interest on bonds and notes of the State, the Governor has exhausted all other sources of revenue of the State including surplus remaining in the treasury at the beginning of the fiscal period. In addition, the Governor must have been authorized to withhold the funds by an act of the General Assembly.

Based on the current information available, including a recent Attorney General's opinion, it is unclear whether amending the above-referenced statutes would be effective in preventing the Governor from withholding these funds from local governments. If the Governor withheld the funds despite the enactment of this legislation, enforcement of this limitation on the Governor's authority may have to be resolved by a court. The surest way to secure local revenues would be to pass a constitutional amendment prohibiting the Governor from withholding these funds.

PART IX: CLOSE CORPORATE TAX LOOPHOLES

This Part closes three corporate tax loopholes that allow some corporate profits to escape taxation and give corporate tax planners an opportunity to avoid existing taxes on corporate income and assets. The first loophole is caused by the definition of business income used in the corporate income tax law; the second loophole is caused by the treatment of certain sales in the formula for apportioning business income to the State for corporate income tax purposes; and the third loophole is caused by the different franchise tax treatment of corporations and limited liability companies.

Definition of Business Income: Section 9.1 of this Part amends the definition of "business income" to include all income that is apportionable under the U.S. Constitution, effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002.

Corporations that do business in more than one state divide up their income among those states for income-tax purposes. Business income is apportioned based on a formula that takes into account how much sales, property, and payroll the corporation has in each state. Nonbusiness income is allocated to a state based on its connection with that state. In the most basic terms, nonbusiness income could be described as income that is earned in an unrelated sideline activity of the corporation.

As an analogy, each interstate corporation's income is in two "pies" - a business income pie that is divided up among the states in which it does business, and a nonbusiness income pie that is given entirely to the state it is connected to.

In an ideal system, all states would follow the same rules for dividing up interstate corporations' income for tax purposes, so that no more and no less than 100% of every corporation's net income would be subjected to state income tax. However, different states have different laws and even when the laws are the same, they may be interpreted differently. In theory, this can result in the taxation of more than 100%, as well as less than 100%, of a corporation's net income. In practice, corporate tax planners take the opportunity to create "nowhere" income - income that no state can tax. Instead of each state receiving its piece of the business income pie, some pieces are thrown away. Thus, although a corporation may do substantial business in North Carolina, much of its otherwise taxable business income may be characterized as nonbusiness, so that North Carolina gets no piece of it.

These tax avoidance schemes are possible not only because different states have different laws, but also because states such as North Carolina have laws that are vague or too narrow. In North Carolina, income is business income if it relates to the regular trade or business of the taxpayer. This definition is vague and narrower than what is allowed under the United States Constitution. If North Carolina is entitled to tax a significant percentage of a corporation's business income, the corporation may try to shift much of its income into the nonbusiness pie, which North Carolina does not share in. This may be true even though the corporation has deducted as a business expense the same items that it now claims are not business items when the time comes to pay tax on profits. Recent court decisions in North Carolina have upheld this tax avoidance technique. Examples of the types of business income that corporations most often recharacterize are rents, royalties, gain or loss from the sale of property, interest, and dividends.

This proposal would change the definition of business income to include any income that the United States Constitution allows a state to treat as business income. This eliminates the current statute's vagueness and narrowness, which allow it to be used by corporations to create "nowhere" income that should otherwise be taxable in North Carolina. One effect of this change will be to include income from extraordinary events, such as a liquidation of a division, in apportionable income, consistent with the Department of Revenue's historical position, as illustrated by its administrative rules, before the North Carolina Supreme Court's decision in Lenox v. Tolson. A corporation's income earned out of state from unrelated business activity that makes up a discrete business enterprise would continue to be nonbusiness income that cannot be apportioned – it would continue to be allocated to the state to which it is connected.[13]

26 states including North Carolina use the vague, unnecessarily narrow definition of business income.

18 states have a broader definition of business income:

- 5 states have the law proposed in Section 9.1 of the bill (define business income as all that the U.S. Constitution allows state to apportion):
  1. Florida
  2. Iowa
  3. Minnesota
  4. Pennsylvania
  5. Texas
- 13 states apportion all corporate income. These states' approach would gain less revenue than the proposal in Section 9.1 because it would relinquish the right to tax true nonbusiness income of North Carolina-headquartered businesses. The 13 states include:
  1. Georgia
  2. South Carolina
  3. Virginia

In 1996, an economist with the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston published a study of the effect of state tax policy on economic development. The study looked at various manufacturing industries in 22 states – including most major manufacturing states – and found no statistically significant correlation between business tax burdens and the location of new investment.

---

[13] Several examples of the effect of this proposal are at the end of this summary.

Throw-out Rule for Corporate Apportionment: Section 9.2 of Part IX would exclude certain out-of-state sales from the base of the sales factor used to apportion business income to North Carolina, effective beginning with the 2002 tax year.

Like the previous provision, this proposal would bring under North Carolina's corporate income tax a part of a corporation's "nowhere" income that is currently not being taxed by any state. Under current law, the formula for determining how much of the business income pie goes to North Carolina focuses on sales, payroll, and property in North Carolina. The sales factor is a ratio of sales in North Carolina to all sales everywhere. Sales are considered to be "in" the state where the purchaser receives the item. Under the sales factor formula, the more sales a corporation has that are not in North Carolina, the smaller the sales factor used to calculate North Carolina's piece of the business income pie - because the formula assumes those sales will go into another state's piece of the business income pie.

But some sales don't go into any state's piece of the pie. That may be because they are made in a state that cannot tax the corporation or because they are made to the federal government and so one cannot tell which state they are made in. Without the throw-out rule (or a similar rule called the throw-back rule), 50% to 100% of the profits of a state's corporations may be "no where" income, according to a 2002 article published by Michael Mazerov of the Center on Budget and Policy Priorities.

Under Section 9.2 of the bill, "nowhere" sales (sales where the purchaser is the federal government or is located in a state that cannot tax the corporation or a country that does not tax the income) are excluded from the sales factor formula so that they do not reduce the ratio that determines how much of a corporation's business income North Carolina can tax. Thus, if another state cannot consider the sales in calculating its piece of the pie, they will not escape tax entirely - instead, there will be an increase in North Carolina's piece of the pie. If every state adopted the throw-out rule, then 100% of a corporation's interstate income would be taxed - there would be no "nowhere" income.

Here is an example of the throw-out rule. Corporation X has 20% of its sales in North Carolina, 20% of its sales in Virginia, and 60% of its sales in Tennessee. The corporation has no nexus with Virginia so Virginia cannot tax its income. Tennessee, like North Carolina current law, has no throw-out or throwback rule. Under current law, the sales factor for North Carolina would be 20% divided by 100%, or 1/5. The sales factor for Tennessee would be 60% divided by 100%, or 3/5. There is no sales factor for Virginia. Thus, the sales factors for North Carolina and Tennessee add up to only 4/5 of the company's sales. As a result, less than 100% of the company's business income will be apportioned to those states for taxation. If North Carolina adopted the throw-out rule, the 20% of sales to Virginia are subtracted from the denominator of the sales factor. Thus, North Carolina's sales factor would be 20% divided by 80%, or 1/4. Because 1/4 is more than 1/5, a larger proportion of the corporation's income would be allocated to North Carolina. If Tennessee also adopted the throw-out rule, its sales factor would be 60% divided by 80%, or 3/4. Thus, the sales factors for the two states would add up to 100% and all of the corporation's sales would be considered in apportioning its business income between the two states.

The throw-out rule and its sibling, the throwback rule, are not new. They predate the 1959 federal law limiting a state's ability to impose corporate income tax on corporations whose only connection with the state is soliciting orders there. The following information on states that do and do not have the throw-out rule or the throwback rule comes from Michael Mazerov of the Center on Budget and Policy Priorities. After the name of each state is listed the percent increase or decrease of manufacturing jobs in that state during the period 1995-2000. For that period, NC's manufacturing jobs decreased 9.5%.

21 States, including North Carolina, do NOT have a throw-out or throwback rule. These states include:

State	Job Loss or Gain
• Florida	0.0%
• Georgia	+0.1%
• South Carolina	-8.0%
• Tennessee	-5.7%
• Virginia	-3.5%

The following 25 States HAVE the throw-out or throwback rule. [14] (The underlined states have the throw-out rule.)

State	Job Loss or Gain
• Alabama	-7.9%
• Alaska	-18.3%
• Arkansas	-3.1%
• California	+8.4%
• Colorado	+6.7%
• Hawaii	+1.2%
• Idaho	+8.2%
• Illinois	-1.8%
• Indiana	+0.6%
• Kansas	+9.8%
• Maine	-6.5%
• Mississippi	-9.3%
• Missouri	-4.1%
• Montana	+6.0%
• New Hampshire	+3.0%

[14] Washington, D.C. also has the throwback rule, bringing the total to 26. In addition, Massachusetts technically has the throwback rule but Mazerov points out that its rule is full of loopholes so that it is not effective.

- New Jersey[15] -7.4%
- New Mexico -5.1%
- North Dakota +17.4%
- Oklahoma +6.7%
- Oregon +6.0%
- Texas +5.2%
- Utah +5.6%
- Vermont +8.4%
- West Virginia -2.1%
- Wisconsin +2.5%

According to Mazerov, this information shows that states with the throw-out and throwback rules (and the royalty loophole closing North Carolina enacted last year) are disproportionately represented among states with net manufacturing gains.

LLC Franchise Tax: In 2001, the General Assembly enacted S.L. 2001-327 to close a loophole that allowed corporations to avoid franchise tax on their assets by transferring their assets to a controlled limited liability company (LLC). Corporations pay franchise tax on their assets but LLCs do not pay franchise tax on their assets. Tax planners helped many corporations avoid most of the franchise tax they would otherwise owe by setting up an LLC for the purpose of holding the assets on behalf of the corporation. Although the corporation's business continued in the same way, the corporation eliminated most of its franchise tax through this paper transaction.

The 2001 legislation tried to address this problem by requiring a corporation to pay tax on assets owned by the LLC if the corporation, including its affiliated corporations, indirectly owned[16] at least 70% of the LLC's assets. Unfortunately, tax planners found that the tax could still be avoided by using an additional paper transaction. If the corporation interposed a partnership between itself and the LLC holding its assets, then technically the 2001 legislation would not apply and the assets would continue to escape franchise tax.

Section 9.3 of this Part broadens the approach of the 2001 legislation to include "related members" (other entities and individuals) who may partner with one or more corporate entities to own the LLC to which the corporate assets are transferred. This section would become effective beginning with payments due in March 2003. "Related members" is a term defined in the "trademark royalties" provision of last year's loophole bill and includes shareholders, partnerships, etc.

If a corporation and its related members together indirectly own at least 70% of an LLC's assets, this Part provides that each corporation pays franchise tax on its relative share of the LLC's assets. The relative share is calculated after excluding those related members who are not corporations. Thus, the entire assets are subject to franchise tax, with the tax burden shared proportionally by the corporations that are involved in the ownership scheme. The language of the bill accomplishes this by stating that the following percentage of the LLC's assets are taxable to the corporation: "The attributable percentage is equal to the percentage of the limited liability company's assets owned indirectly by the principal corporation divided by the percentage of the limited liability company's assets owned indirectly by related members of the principal corporation that are corporations."

[15] New Jersey just enacted the throwback rule in 2002.

[16] Indirect ownership of an LLC's assets is determined based on who is entitled to receive those assets upon dissolution of the LLC.

Here is an example:

A parent corporation, its subsidiary, and a major shareholder of the parent form a partnership to own an LLC that will own assets on behalf of the parent and subsidiary. The LLC's documents provide that upon dissolution its assets are distributed as follows:

- Parent Corporation: 20%
- Subsidiary Corporation: 45%
- Shareholder: 35%

Under current law, the assets would remain free of franchise tax. If this Part were enacted, the parent corporation would pay franchise tax on 31% of the assets and the subsidiary corporation would pay franchise tax on 69% of the assets. Those are their relative shares of the total once you exclude the non-corporate owner.

The approach taken by this Part is much broader than the 2001 legislation and is intended to anticipate the creative paper relationships tax planners may devise to try and avoid the franchise tax. The breadth of the provision is such that it could apply to a "legitimate" situation, such as an individual who is the sole shareholder of a corporation and who later forms an LLC with an associate. Under this proposal, the corporation would pay tax on the LLC's assets. Unfortunately, there does not appear to be a way to distinguish this type of situation from one in which the corporation is manipulating relationships to avoid its franchise tax. With different tax treatment of similar entities, tax planners can try to manipulate relationships to fall into the untaxed category. Because corporations and LLCs are similar, there may not be a strong policy reason to treat them differently for franchise tax purposes.

PART X: HOUSING TAX CREDIT EFFECTIVE DATE CHANGE

Part X of this bill enlarges the class of taxpayers eligible for an enhanced credit for investing in low-income housing in a county that sustained severe or moderate damage from a hurricane in 1999. In 1999, the General Assembly enacted a new tax credit for rehabilitating or constructing low-income housing. The credit is equal to a percentage of the amount of the taxpayer's federal credit for low-income housing with respect to eligible North Carolina low-income housing. The credit is 75% for buildings located in tier one or two counties and 25% for buildings located in other tiers. In 2000, the General Assembly enacted legislation providing that the 75% credit is also allowed for buildings located in one of 26 counties that sustained severe or moderate damage from a hurricane in 1999. This increase in the amount of the credit was made effective for buildings that are allocated a federal credit on or after January 1, 2001. The federal tax credits are allocated in December of each year. Thus, those taxpayers who made investments in hurricane counties and were allocated federal credits in December 2000 are not eligible for the enhanced State credit. This act would backdate the effective date for eligibility for the enhanced State credit to from 2001 to 2000, thereby including those who were allocated federal credits for investments in hurricane counties during 2000.

EXAMPLES RELATING TO THE DEFINITION OF "BUSINESS INCOME" IN SECTION 9.1.

Investment in an unrelated corporation. Corporation A is a manufacturer domiciled in State 1 and has business operations in States 1 and 2 and in North Carolina. Corporation A buys stock in Corporation B. Corporation A and Corporation B are not involved in the same industry and the stock is held for investment purposes only. Corporation A does not actively participate in the management of Corporation B and does not integrate operations with Corporation B. Corporation A recognizes no economies of scale due to its ownership interest in Corporation B. Corporation A and B are not unitary. Corporation A sells the Corporation B stock and recognizes a capital gain. Under this bill, the capital gain is not apportionable to North Carolina. (See: Allied Signal, Inc. v. Director, Division of Taxation, 504 U.S. 768, 112 S.Ct. 2251, 119 L.Ed.2d 533 (1992).) This income would also be nonapportionable, non-business income under current North Carolina law.

Reversion of excess pension funds. Corporation A is a manufacturer domiciled in State 1 and has business operations in States 1 and 2 and in North Carolina. Corporation A has made contributions to a defined-benefit employee pension plan for a number of years and has deducted these contributions from business income. The plan is found to be over-funded and a reversion of excess pension funds is allowed. The reverted funds are ordinary income for federal tax purposes. Under current North Carolina law, because the reversion is not a transaction that takes place in the regular course of business and because the right to a reversion is not an integral part of the corporation's regular course of business, the reverted funds are treated as non-business income and would not be subject to apportionment. (See: Union Carbide v. Offerman, 351 N.C. 310, 526 S.E.2d 167 (2000).) Under this bill, the reversion would be income subject to apportionment because it is income derived from a unitary business.

Liquidation of wholly-owned subsidiaries. Corporation X is a manufacturer domiciled in State 1 and has business operations in States 1 and 2 and in North Carolina. Corporations A, B, and C are wholly owned subsidiaries of Corporation X. Corporations A, B, and C are domiciled in State 1 and have no business operations in North Carolina. Corporation X liquidates Corporations A, B, and C and immediately distributes the proceeds of the liquidations to Corporation X's shareholders. Corporation X recognizes a capital gain from the liquidations.

Liquidation of Corporation A - There is centralized management between Corporations X and A and their operations are functionally integrated. Corporations X and A therefore constitute a unitary business, part of which is conducted in North Carolina. Under this bill, the proceeds of the liquidation of Corporation A would be subject to apportionment.

Liquidation of Corporation B - Corporations X and B are engaged in the same general line of business. Corporation B supplies Corporation X with the majority of a product used in Corporation X's manufacturing operations. Corporation B therefore performs an operational function in Corporation X's business. Under this bill, the proceeds of the liquidation of Corporation B would be subject to apportionment.

Liquidation of Corporation C - There is no centralized management, functional integration, or economies of scale between Corporations X and C, and Corporation C performs no operational function in Corporation X's business. Corporation C is not part of Corporation X's unitary business. Under this bill, the proceeds of the liquidation would not be subject to apportionment.

(Note: This bill removes the confusion under current law created by the decision in Lenox v. Tolson regarding the apportionability of income from the liquidation of an operating division or subsidiary. In Lenox v. Tolson, the Court found that the liquidation of a separate line of business was not a transaction in Lenox's regular course of business and was not a disposition of property integral to Lenox's regular trade or business. The Court held that the proceeds were therefore nonbusiness income and not apportionable. The Court, however, failed to analyze whether the acquisition or management of the property constituted integral parts of the corporation's regular trade or business, an analysis required under the actual language of the statute, the Department's administrative rules, and the Court's prior decision in Polaroid v. Offerman. As the dissent in Lenox points out, the property of ArtCarved was an integral part of Lenox's regular trade or business and the proceeds from the liquidation of this property should therefore have been apportionable business income under previous opinions of the Court.)

Receipt of dividends from wholly-owned subsidiaries. Corporation A is a retailer domiciled in State 1 and has business operations in States 1 and 2 and in North Carolina. Corporations B, C, and D are wholly owned subsidiaries of Corporation A. Corporations B, C, and D are engaged in retailing in foreign countries. Corporation A has no functional integration and no centralized management with Corporations B, C, and D. Corporation A realizes no economies of scale due to its ownership of Corporations B, C, and D. Corporations B, C, and D are therefore not part of a unitary business with Corporation A. Corporations B, C, and D perform no operational function in Corporation A's business. Corporation A receives dividends from Corporations B, C, and D. Therefore, under this bill, as well as under current North Carolina law, this income would not be apportionable. (See: F.W. Woolworth Co. v. Taxation and Revenue Dept. of NM, 458 U.S. 354, 102 S.Ct. 3128, 73 L.Ed.2d 819 (1982).)

BILL SUMMARY:

Parts I and VII of the bill are reserved.

Part II of the bill delays two tax breaks authorized in 2001. Section 2.1(a) delays the increase from $5000 to $5500 in the standard deduction for married filing jointly from tax year 2002 to 2003. Section 2.1(b) delays the increase from $5500 to $6000 in the same deduction from tax year 2003 to 2004. Section 2.2(a) delays the increase in the child tax credit from $60 to $75 from tax year 2002 to 2003. Section 2.2(b) delays the increase in the child tax credit from $75 to $100 from tax year 2003 to 2004.

Part III of the bill updates state statutory references to the Internal Revenue Code from January 1, 2001, to May 1, 2002, with exceptions for accelerated depreciation and the estate tax credit. This action would conform state tax laws to federal tax changes made in the Economic Growth and Tax Relief Reconciliation Act of 2001 and the Job Creation and Worker Assistance Act of 2002.

Under current law, North Carolina conforms to the federal estate tax in effect as of January 1, 2001. Thus, our pickup tax does not automatically tie into the 2001 federal changes. The estate tax language in this bill, coupled with the Internal Revenue Code conformity update provisions, would link North Carolina to the effect of the higher federal credits on the pickup tax but not to the phase-out of the death tax credit. The practical effect of the language in the bill is to ensure that with respect to the phased up federal credit for state death taxes, estates in North Carolina do not have to pay state tax if there is no federal tax due.

In the bonus depreciation conformity section of the bill, an add-back equal to 100% of bonus depreciation for the 2001-2003 tax year and 80% for 2004 is included in taxable income. The add-back is then offset by a subtraction from income starting with the 2005 tax year. This subtraction takes place in installments over a 5-year period.

Part IV allows the Department of Revenue to deduct 70% of the cost of the Unauthorized Substance Tax Division from the sales and use tax proceeds distributed to local governments.

Part V of the bill addresses the annual establishment of the insurance regulatory fee. Section 5(a) sets the insurance regulatory charge at 6.5%. The rate remains the same as in the previous year.

Part VI, Section 6(a) sets the regulatory fee rate for the Public Utilities Commission at 0.1%. This rate must be set annually and is the same as the previous year. Section 6(b) sets the regulatory fee for the electric membership corporations at a flat $200,000. This fee has remained the same since it was first imposed in 1999.

PART VIII attempts to limit the Governor's ability to withhold the local portion of revenues shared with cities and counties by declaring these funds local revenue. Specifically

Section 8.1 addresses beer and wine taxes, while Section 8.2 discusses the franchise tax on electricity. Section 8.3 considers the tax on piped natural gas. Section 8.4 addresses the tax on telecommunications. Section 8.5 considers the Highway Fund and Highway Trust Funds allocated as Powell Bill funds. Section 8.6 addresses the distribution to electric cities. Section 8.7 adds intent language to clarify that the funds committed or appropriated by the legislature for local governments shall not be reduced unless the governor has exhausted all other sources of revenue for the state. It also states that the Governor must be authorized by the legislature to withhold these funds.

Part IX makes the following corporate tax changes:
BUSINESS INCOME. Sec. 9.1 of the bill expands the definition of "business income" to include all of the income that may be apportioned under the U.S. Constitution. The practical effect of the provision is to include in the North Carolina income tax base more income from irregular events, such as the sale of a subsidiary.

THROWOUT RULE. For most multistate corporations, nationwide taxable income is apportioned among the states based on a three-factor formula that compares payroll in a state, property in the state, and sales within the state to the national totals for each of the respective factors. Thus, the sales factor would divide sales within North Carolina (numerator) by total national sales (denominator). Section 9.2 of the bill modifies the sales factor by taking out sales to the U.S. government from both the numerator and denominator and adding to the denominator "sales that are in a state in which the taxpayer is not taxable" during the tax year. In addition, the denominator would not include sales that are in a foreign country when that country does not subject the taxpayer to a tax on, or measured by, profits or income.

LLC FRANCHISE TAX. Legislation adopted by the 2001 General Assembly attempted to close a loophole that allowed corporations to avoid the state franchise tax by transferring potentially taxable assets to a controlled limited liability company (LLC). This occurs because LLCs do not pay franchise tax on their assets. The 2001 legislation tried to address this problem by requiring a corporation to pay tax on assets owned by the LLC if the corporation, including its affiliated corporations, indirectly owned[1] at least 70% of the LLC's assets. However, if the corporation interposed a partnership between it and the LLC holding its assets, then the 2001 change would not apply and the assets would continue to escape taxation.

Sec. 9.3 of the bill broadens the 2001 legislation to include "related members" (other entities and individuals) who may form a partnership with one or more corporate entities to own the LLC to which the corporate assets are transferred. "Related members" includes shareholders, partnerships, etc. If a corporation and its related members together indirectly own at least 70% of an LLC's assets, the bill provides that each corporation pays franchise tax on its relative share of the LLC's assets. The relative share is calculated after excluding those related members who are not corporations.

Part X backdates the effective date from 2001 to 2000 for enhanced low income housing tax credits for projects located in counties damaged by Hurricane Floyd.

---

[1] Indirect ownership of an LLC's assets is determined based on who is entitled to receive those assets upon dissolution of the LLC.

ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGY:

PART II: DELAY 2001 TAX BREAKS

STANDARD DEDUCTION – MARRIAGE TAX PENALTY

The term "marriage penalty" refers to the income tax situation where married individuals filing jointly pay more in tax than if the two individuals were unmarried filing as single persons. For example, the North Carolina standard deduction for single filers is $3,000, but for married filing jointly the standard deduction is $5,000. The personal exemption also favors single filers. For single filers, the personal exemption is $2,500 until you get to a maximum Adjusted Gross Income (AGI) of $60,000 where it drops to $2,000. For married filing jointly, the personal exemption is $2,500 up to $100,000 AGI, then drops to $2,000. State tax brackets also favor single filers as shown below:

Single	0 to $12,750	$12,751 to $60,000	$60,000>
Married filing jointly	0 to $21,250	$21,251 to $100,000	$100,000>

The 2001 General Assembly reduced the marriage penalty by increasing the standard deduction for married filing jointly taxpayers from $5,000 to $6,000. The standard deduction was increased to $5,500 in tax year 2002 and then to $6,000 in tax year 2003. The FY 2001-02 reduction in General Fund revenue was projected to be $9.7 million due to estimated payments and withholding by 762,340 couples in the first half of tax year 2002. The estimated loss for the following fiscal years is shown below.

FY 2001-02	-$9.7 mil.
FY 2002-03	-$32.0 mil.
FY 2003-04	-$45.0 mil.
FY 2004-05	-$45.8 mil.
FY 2005-06	-$46.5 mil.

Section 2.1(a) delays the first $500 increase in the standard deduction to tax year 2003 and Section 2.1(b) delays the additional $500 standard deduction increase to 2004. Since the original fiscal estimate assumed income tax withholding in tax year 2002 (second half of FY 01-02 and first half of FY 02-03), a delay in the standard deduction increase will result in a General Fund revenue gain from increased tax liability on 2002 tax returns. However, not all of the $41.7 million shown in the first two years of the chart will be regained by the General Fund next fiscal year. The 2003 effective date for the standard deduction increase means married filing jointly taxpayers can change their income tax withholding in the first half of 2003 and reduce their tax payments by $9.8 million. The net gain from this delay from 2002 to 2003 is $31.9 million ($41.7 million minus $9.8 million). For the $6000 standard deduction delayed until 2004, the estimated revenue loss is $32.4 million in FY 2003-04. Since the original estimate for FY 2003-04 was $45 million, the General Fund will gain $12.6 million that year.

Note: All revenue estimates for the standard deductions were calculated using the North Carolina Individual Income Tax Model. This tax model was created by the Barents Group for the Department of Revenue and the General Assembly for use in estimating tax law changes. The model bases future year estimates on data from 1998 North Carolina individual income tax returns.

INCREASE TAX CREDIT FOR CHILDREN

The current $60 child tax credit was approved by the 1995 General Assembly. The 2001 General Assembly increased the child credit from $60 to $75 per child in tax year 2002 and from $75 to $100 in tax year 2003. The first increase will reduce General Fund revenue $19.8 million in FY 2002-03 for taxpayers filing returns in the spring of 2003. The second year increase will boost the revenue loss to $54.8 million in FY 2003-04. This tax change will benefit 18,354 single tax filers, 496,286 married couples, and 411,648 heads of households in tax year 2002. This revenue estimate was calculated using the North Carolina Individual Income Tax Model.

Section 2.2(a) delays the first $15 increase in the tax credit from 2002 to 2003 and Section 2.2(b) delays the second $25 increase from 2003 to 2004. The delay will eliminate the $19.8 million General Fund loss for FY 2002-03 and result in a General Fund revenue gain of an equal amount. There is a revenue gain of $34.9 million in FY 2003-04 because the $75 credit in 2003 has a $19.9 million revenue loss versus the $54.8 million loss for the now scheduled $100 credit.

PART III: UPDATE IRC REFERENCE

CONFORMITY

Section 3.1 changes the state tax law reference to the Internal Revenue Code from January 1, 2001, to May 1, 2002. Since North Carolina individual and corporate income tax law tracks the federal income tax law, it is necessary each year to update state statutory references to the Internal Revenue Code (IRC). Congress enacted two major bills in calendar years 2001 and 2002 that have a negative revenue impact on the state General Fund.

The Economic Growth and Tax Relief Reconciliation Act of 2001 (EGTRRA) included numerous provisions that impact North Carolina individual and corporate income tax. This bill conforms the state to the education provisions in the bill that affect education IRAs, Qualified Tuition Plans, deduction for higher education expenses, interest from student loans, and employer provided assistance. The bill conforms to the pension provisions in the act that affect IRA contribution limits, deferred comp plan deferral limits, and plan portability. The bill accepts changes in the phase out of itemized deductions and personal exemptions beginning in 2006. However, the bill does not conform to the estate tax changes in the act.

The state will conform to the Job Creation and Worker Assistance Act of 2002 except for the accelerated depreciation rules. Included in the bill were changes to net operating losses, the extension of expiring tax provisions, and a new above the line $250 deduction for teachers' classroom expenses.

The estimate of the state's revenue gain or loss from the federal changes is based on the fiscal analysis of the Congressional Joint Committee on Taxation. The federal analysis includes the effects of certain behavioral responses to tax proposals, including shifts between nontaxable and taxable sources of income, changes in amounts of charitable giving, and changes in the timing of realization of some sources of income. To derive an estimate for North Carolina for individual income tax changes, the federal income tax receipts for the U.S. were compared to the North Carolina General Fund income tax receipts for the July 2000 to July 1 2001 period (with adjustments for earmarks and refunds). The resulting percentage was .735%. For corporate income tax, a .59% rate was derived using the 1997 US Economic Census on Manufacturing.

The state revenue impact from conforming to the two federal bills is as follows:

Conformity	($million)

ACCELERATED DEPRECIATION

The first step in the analysis of Sections 3.2 and 3.3 was a simulation of the impact of the 30% bonus depreciation and the add-back on individual projects. A project size of $10 million was selected, although the analysis is the same regardless of the magnitude of the investment. Bonus depreciation is eligible for projects with a class life of up to 20 years. Thus, the following classes of asset lives would be impacted.

Class (Years)	Class Life Range (Years)
3	Less than 4
5	4-9
7	10-15
10	16-19
15	20-24
20	25 or more

The analysis assumed the use of the modified accelerated cost recovery system (MACRS). This system includes depreciation schedules based on double-declining balance depreciation rates for 3, 5, and 7-year property. For other classes, straight-line depreciation must be used. In addition, the analysis used the "mid-year convention" for the assumed investments.

The simulation looked at investments for all class lives eligible for bonus depreciation. Each calculation compared the current law depreciation with that under the 30% bonus. Under the 30% bonus schedule, the "regular depreciation" declines since it is calculated against the depreciation base after the application of bonus depreciation. Thus, the decline in normal depreciation offsets the first-year increase in total depreciation due to the bonus amount so that over the life of the asset there is no net change in the depreciation taken.

In addition, the impact of the 100% and 80% addbacks, and the "giveback" of the addback beginning in 2005, is calculated. The first-year net impact of bonus depreciation varies by asset class, with the largest short-term tax savings going to the assets with the longest lives. The net impact of both the bonus depreciation and add-back are essentially zeroed out over the long term.

To determine the impact on state revenues, a mathematical relationship was established between the net impact of "bonus depreciation with add-back" and "bonus depreciation only". This ratio was then compared to the "bonus depreciation only" fiscal impact of numerous states as reported in the National Conference of State Legislatures (NCSL) survey. These estimates were then adjusted to North Carolina based on corporate tax receipts in each state. In addition, the recent report of the Center for Budget and Policy Priorities (CBPP) contained estimates for particular states. The estimate used in this analysis relies heavily on the CBPP report.

In addition to the steps listed above, Fiscal Research also reviewed the fiscal impact statements in the three states that have adopted add-backs. The states are Nebraska (85% add back), Ohio (83.33%), and Minnesota (80%). This review, coupled with phone conversations with tax analysts in all three states, indicated that the add-backs used make the bonus depreciation approximately revenue-neutral for FY 2002-03. For future years, the net impact depends on the "add-back subtraction" schedule adopted.

The discussions with other states confirmed the difficulty of developing a precise fiscal estimate. The biggest problem is that after simulating the case-by-case impact of the proposal on investments with different class lives, there is no way to know how to weight the different simulations. The reason is that capital investment data compiled by the U.S. Department of Commerce does not provide a breakdown by asset life.

A particular problem encountered was the 2001 tax year. The federal change was effective for investments after September 10 of the year. Under current Department of Revenue instructions, calendar year taxpayers were able to use bonus depreciation for the 2001 tax year if they were able to modify their return in the few days between the federal enactment and the March 15 filing date. Other affected taxpayers will be eligible for a refund, but only after action by the General Assembly. These different possibilities make it difficult to determine how much of the 2001 tax year impact occurred in FY 2001-02 versus FY 2002-03.

The cash-flow estimates are conservative in terms of the weighting of asset classes in the calculations.

ESTATE PICK UP TAX

The regular inheritance tax was repealed in North Carolina by the 1998 General Assembly, effective for deaths occurring on or after January 1, 1999. Following the tradition of the other 36 states that have repealed their primary death tax, a "pickup" tax continues to be levied in North Carolina to use up the credit allowed on the federal estate tax return for state death taxes. In the absence of such a levy, the federal tax liability of the estate would be increased and potential state dollars would flow to the U.S. treasury.

In 2001 the congressional tax package made two changes that will have an effect on a small number of large estates as well as pickup tax collections in many states. First, the federal tax was phased out over a number of years until it is completely eliminated in 2010. This was accomplished primarily through higher federal credits. In the first few years, the higher credits reflect an acceleration of the credit phase-up under the 1997 federal tax relief bill. In addition, the 2001 bill phases out the state death tax credit over four years, beginning with deaths occurring on or after January 1, 2002.

The starting point for the analysis of Section 3.4 was the pickup tax revenue estimates included in the official revenue forecast used in amending the FY 2002-03 General Fund budget. The FY 2002-03 forecast of $117.3 million of pickup taxes was grown by 4% per year to determine receipts for future years (until the tax is effectively eliminated due to the repeal of the federal credit for state death taxes). Fiscal Research then reviewed the projected cost for each year of full conformity to the 2001 federal changes contained in the Center For Budget and Policy Priorities (CBPP) report. In addition, we looked at state by state estimates contained in the NSCL survey and adjusted these numbers to North Carolina by using state-specific federal estate tax return data for 1993-99 (reported gross estate numbers). The estimates finally adopted for purposes of this fiscal note were slightly higher than the CBPP numbers and near the top of the range of the estimates of other states.

This "full conformity" estimate was then modified to determine the "higher federal credits" conformity ("partial conformity") cost by comparing the CBPP estimates for full conformity and partial conformity for the 2002-03 fiscal year (18%). This led to an annualized FY 2002-03 projection of $7.3 million. For future years, the partial conformity estimate was based on the relationship of the CBPP projection of partial conformity for North Carolina to full conformity.

PART IV: UNAUTHORIZED SUBSTANCE TAX EXPENSES

Part IV will reduce the General Fund share of the administrative costs of the Unauthorized Substance Tax Division of the Department of Revenue, which administers the excise tax on unauthorized substances. Seventy-five percent (75%) of the tax proceeds are distributed to the law enforcement agencies that conducted the investigations that led to the assessments, and twenty-five percent (25%) of the tax proceeds are credited to the General Fund. In some years, the amount credited to the General Fund has not covered the costs of the Unauthorized Substance Tax Division.

Local law enforcement agencies receive most of the proceeds from the 75% that is distributed to law enforcement agencies. Therefore, the proposal is that local entities bear their proportionate share of the costs of the Unauthorized Substance Tax Division. To accomplish this, seventy percent (70%) of the costs would be taken from local sales and use tax revenue, as this percentage of the Division's cost is considered to be for the benefit of the local entities. This change in cost assignment requires an amendment to G.S. 105-501. This proposal does not change the amounts that are distributed to local law enforcement agencies. It simply recognizes that the Unauthorized Substance Tax Division primarily benefits local entities and that local entities should therefore bear their share of the expense.

The amount of the costs to be taken from the local sales and use tax is 70% of the costs of the Division rather than 75% because a small part of the amount that is distributed to law enforcement agencies is distributed to State law enforcement agencies. By the Department's records, the amount distributed to State law enforcement agencies is less than 5%. Using 70% instead of 75% therefore ensures that the costs borne by local entities are proportionate to the benefits they receive.

The General Fund will be reimbursed from local Sales and Use Tax funds transferred to a non-tax GF revenue account for 70% or $886,893 of the division's operating budget. Essentially, relieves the GF of a portion of the division's operating expense.

PART V: INSURANCE REGULATORY CHARGE

Part V of the bill sets the insurance regulatory charge at 6.5%. This is the same amount set in the previous year. This fee is assessed against the 1.9% premiums tax paid by insurers or against the presumed premiums tax that would be paid by HMOs and Article 65 companies (Blue Cross/Blue Shield) if taxed at 1.9%. The revenue is used to reimburse the General Fund for appropriations to the Department to pay expenses incurred in regulating the industry and other industries and to other departments as specified in G.S. 58-6-25(d).

The premiums tax collections for FY 2002-2003 are estimated to be $315.79 million. The HMOs and the Article 65 companies must pay a regulatory charge based on their presumed premiums tax at 1.9% (they pay .833% in 2002 and 1% in 2003). The presumed premium tax for the HMOs and Article 65 companies is estimated to be $68.83 million.

With the premiums tax collections of $315.79 million and the presumed premiums tax of $68.83 million from the HMOs and Article 65 companies, the total base against which the insurance regulatory charge will be assessed is estimated to be $384.62 million. Applying the 6.5% regulatory fee to the $384.62 million base would generate $25 million in regulatory fee revenue.

The certified budget for the Department, based on actions taken during the 2001 Session, is $23.5 million. In addition to reimbursing the General Fund for appropriations to the Department, the Insurance Regulatory Fund will also reimburse the General Fund for the $486,000 appropriated to support the Managed Care Patient Assistance Program (MCPAP), established by S.L. 2001-446. The total reimbursement to the General Fund is estimated to be $24 million. The Department estimates that the reserve will have a balance of $11.98 million at the beginning of FY 2002-2003. The total available from the reserve fund of $11.98 million and the estimated collections of $25 million will be $36.98 million. The total available less the estimated General Fund reimbursement of $24 million will leave a year-end reserve balance of $12.98 million. This reserve is above one-third of the estimated General Fund reimbursement.

The above calculation is based on the certified budget for FY 2002-2003 and does not include any adjustments to the FY 2002-2003 Budget that are or will be under consideration during the 2002 Session. Based on the above, the regulatory surcharge rate of 6.5% is sufficient to defray the estimated cost of the operations of the Department and provide for a reserve fund. The Department recommends that the rate remain the same and would not recommend a decrease in the rate because of the unknowns in the economy.

PART VI: REGULATORY FEE FOR UTILITIES COMMISSION

Part VI of the bill sets the fees for regulation by the North Carolina Utilities Commission ("Commission"). Section 6(a) of the bill sets the rate at 0.1%, the same as the current rate. Revenue from this fee, which is assessed against regulated public utilities, is used to support the operations of both the Commission and the Public Staff. Based on estimated FY 2002-03 jurisdictional revenues of $10,854,768,332, the regulatory fee will produce $11,700,238. For the same period, the Commission estimates that the combined operations of the Commission and Public Staff will require total expenditures of not less than $11,695,970. The net change in the Commission's Accumulated Fee Margin Reserve Account is therefore approximately $4,268. The estimated balance in this account as of June 30, 2003, is $4,941,393. This represents approximately five months of operating reserve.

Section 6(b) of the bill sets the public utility regulatory fee to be paid by the North Carolina Electric Membership Corporation for the 2002-03 fiscal year at $200,000. In 1999 the initial fee of $200,000 was developed as a result of discussions between the industry and the Utilities Commission, based on what the Utilities Commission believed to be the cost associated with regulating the electric membership cooperatives. In 2001 the Utilities Commission provided information to Fiscal Research illustrating that these fees will support approximately 4000 hours of accounting, engineering, and legal time. This fee amount must be set by the General Assembly each year.

PART VIII: SECURE LOCAL REVENUES

In the spring of 2001, as a result of substantial budget shortfall, the governor escrowed $95.0 million of reimbursement payments to local governments. This payment is made as a reimbursement for revenues lost by the state's repeal of the property tax on various inventories. The funds were placed in an escrow account in case they were needed to balance the state budget on June 30, 2001. These funds were later released to the local units. In 2002, again facing a difficult fiscal situation, Governor Easley escrowed the spring inventory tax reimbursement to local governments. This $95.0 million was again placed in a special account to hold in case it was needed to balance the state budget in 2002. At the same time the governor announced he was holding an additional $114.0 million in reimbursements and shared revenues to secure his ability to balance the state budget. The $114 million included the following estimated amounts:

Fund Type	Amount Withheld
Franchise Utility Tax
March Distribution	35.6
June Distribution	25.0
Piped Natural Gas

March Distribution	6.9
June Distribution	11.8
Beer and Wine Tax	26.8
Homestead Exemption	7.9
TOTAL	114.0

Sections 8.1 – 8.7 are an attempt to secure these revenues from future gubernatorial action. This legislation has no direct impact on the budgets passed by the General Assembly, as these shared revenues have not been used in the legislative process for state expenditures. However, the legislation could limit the options available to the Governor. Because of the lack of clarity about what actions will be required of the Governor in future years, and the impact this particular legislation will have on the individual's decisions, no fiscal estimate is possible on the impact of the legislation.

Part IX: CLOSE CORPORATE TAX LOOPHOLES

BUSINESS INCOME

The Tax Research Division of the Department of Revenue analyzed 1999 corporate income tax returns and found that the maximum amount of additional tax revenue from the proposal would be $293.4 million. For 2000, the maximum would be $442.5 million. The higher number for 2000 is due to an increase in the amount of nonbusiness income from all sources shown on 2000 returns and a higher weighted average apportionment factor.

The extent to which total reported nonbusiness income can be brought into the tax base depends on how much of this income is not reported to other states and whether there are certain types of nonbusiness income that could not be taxed under the federal standards in the bill. The Department of Revenue does not have a good feel for the magnitude of these factors. In addition, the impact of the 2001 recession has reduced the corporate tax base in North Carolina by 33% and economists are still cautious about the outlook for 2002 national corporate profits.

We have not found any situations in which states have recently adopted this legislation and thus had fiscal notes available. Many states have had such laws on the books for many years and a 1992 U.S. Supreme Court decision opened the door for states to pursue enforcement. New Jersey adopted the proposal this year but the quality of the fiscal information was lacking, partly due to the difficulty of making the estimate.

Based on discussions with the Department of Revenue and concern about the uncertainty surrounding the estimates, we have taken a very cautious approach to this estimate.

THROWOUT RULE

There is very little data from other states on this issue. The New Jersey corporation business tax reform package included the item but there was no statement of the methodology behind the fiscal estimate. We are concerned with the lack of quality data on the issue and feel that a conservative estimate equal to roughly 50% of the earlier proposed throwback rule would be workable. In our analysis, we consulted with the corporate staff of the Department of Revenue.

LLC FRANCHISE TAX

There is little available information on this matter. The fiscal estimate used for the 2001 proposal to address the issue was $10.8 million. Discussions with the Department of Revenue about the impact on some taxpayers indicated that the proposal would not only close some of the loophole not addressed last year but would also pick up some of the erosion in the corporate income tax due to the tax planning strategies that have taken place since the 2001 change or might occur in the future. Thus, the proposed change is broader than last year's action.

Part X: HOUSING TAX CREDIT EFFECTIVE DATE CHANGE

The North Carolina Housing Finance Agency identified 8 projects authorized for a 25% state tax credit in 2000 that would qualify for the 75% state tax credit for those in counties damaged by Hurricane Floyd. These projects have been completed or are nearing completion thus the investors in the projects can begin taking the tax credit in FY 2002-03. Assuming the project investors use 100% of the available tax credit, the additional tax credits granted by this part is $10,727,800. Since the state tax credit is taken over five years, the General Fund revenue loss is spread over five fiscal years. The annual General Fund loss due to Part X of the bill is $2.15 million for Fiscal Years 2002-03 to 2006-07.

Projects	County	Federal Tax Credit	State Tax Credit @ 25%	State Tax Credit @ 75%	Additional Credit	2000 Tiers

SOURCES OF DATA: Part II: Individual Income Tax Model. Part III: (1) The May, 2002 state-by-state survey of the National Conference of State Legislatures (Recent Federal Tax Legislation and the States); (2) A January, 2002 analysis of the Center On Budget and Policy Priorities on state options to conform to the 2001 federal estate tax changes; (3) Bonus depreciation fiscal estimate material from Ohio, Minnesota, and Nebraska; (4) Congressional Joint Committee on Taxation. Part VIII: Office of State Budget and Management. Part X: NC Housing Finance Agency

TECHNICAL CONSIDERATIONS: The January 1, 2002, effective date of the federal changes in Part III means that only three quarters of the 2002-03 fiscal year will be affected by the change since estates have up to nine months after death to file a return. In addition, the January 1, 2005, repeal of the state death tax credit on federal estate tax returns means that one quarter of FY 2005-06 revenues will be affected.

In Part IX of the bill, the 2002-03 estimate for the nonbusiness income change assumes that during the fiscal year the State would receive 100% of the 2002 tax year impact and about 40% of the 2003 tax year. For the other corporate changes, we did not assume that April and June, 2003 estimated tax payments would be adjusted up because the magnitude of the calendar year change is relatively small.

Minutes
House Committee on Finance

July 17, 2002

Continuing from its earlier meeting on this day, the House Committee on Finance met on Wednesday, July 17, 2002, at 12:00 P.M., in Room 643 of the Legislative Office Building.

Rep. Gordon Allen, presiding Chair, called the meeting to order. The following members were present: Chairmen Buchanan, Luebke, and Wainwright; Vice Chairs Hill and Jarrell; and Representatives Alexander, Blust, Capps, Cox, Decker, Dedmon, Eddins, Edwards, Gibson, Gray, Hackney, Holliman, Hurley, Johnson, McComas, McCombs, McMahan, Morris, Pope, Rayfield, Starnes, Weiss, Willingham, Wilson, Womble, Baddour, Cunningham, and Earle. Staff in attendance included Cindy Avrette, Trina Griffin, Mary Shuping, Martha Walston, Richard Bostic, David Crotts, Linda Millsaps, Canaan Huie, and Martha Harris.

Chairman Allen recognized and thanked pages Raymond Chin from Orange County, Matt Goodwin from Gaston County, Daniel Hurley (grandson of Representative Hurley from Fayetteville), and Kevin Kelly and Chris Carlton from Wake County.

Chairman Allen announced that HB 1720, Wilmington Occupancy Tax, was being referred to the Finance Subcommittee on Occupancy, chaired by Representative Jarrell.

Chairman Allen then opened the meeting to hear from the general public who were in attendance. He recognized several people who spoke on the importance of continuing in the budget the CAP and other programs for the disabled.

To continue the morning's discussion of the Proposed Committee Substitute for Senate Bill 1292, Chairman Allen recognized Representative Pope who offered an amendment that would delete "A percentage" and substitute "Eighty-five percent (85%) on pages 2, line 35 and 3, line 13, and to make other changes (Amendment No. 1). Rep. Pope noted that along with copies of his amendment, copies of a memo from Dave Crotts, Fiscal Research Division, and an email from Canaan Huie, Bill Drafting, were being distributed to the members. He moved for its adoption. Following discussion, the amendment was defeated by Roll Call Vote.

Rep. McMahan offered an amendment to the PCS on page 2, lines 35-40, and page 3, lines 13 to 18, by rewriting those paragraphs (excluding the number) to read: "The amount allowed in the taxpayer's 2002 taxable year as a thirty percent (30%) accelerated depreciation deduction under Section 168(k) or Section 1400L of the Code;" and on page 3, line 37, and page 4, line 3, by deleting the phrase "2005" on each line and substituting the phrase "2003" (Amendment No. 2). Following discussion, Rep. McMahan said the amendment as drawn up was not what he had intended. He then withdrew the amendment and requested that staff draw up another amendment that "would simply say that in lieu of delaying this 30% bonus to 2005, it would be moved back to 2003."

Rep. Pope then offered an amendment to make certain technical changes to the PCS, including adding to the title, on page 1, line 6, the following phrase after the semi-colon: "TO CONFORM TO THE FEDERAL ANNUAL EXCLUSION AMOUNT FOR GIFT TAXES" (Amendment No. 3). Rep. Pope said he was introducing this amendment at the request of the North Carolina Bar Association and moved for its adoption. The amendment was adopted.

Chairman Allen announced that the Committee would recess for a half hour to give the staff time to draw up the amendment requested by Rep. McMahan.

Following the recess, Rep. McMahan withdrew his request for the amendment.

Upon motion of Rep. Buchanan, the House Committee substitute for SB 1292 was given a favorable report, which changes the title, unfavorable as to Senate Committee Substitute Bill. The motion passed by Roll Call Vote. Copies of the Committee Report, PCS, amendments, Original Bill, Summary and Bill Analysis are attached as part of these minutes.

There being no further business, Chairman Allen adjourned the meeting at 1:50 P.M.

Respectfully submitted,

Representative Gordon P. Allen
Presiding Chair

Nancy G. Brantley

SECTION 2.2.(b) The lead-in language of Section 34.20(b) of S.L. 2001-424 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 34.20.(b) Effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, ~~2003,~~2004, G.S. 105-151.24, as amended by this section, reads as rewritten:".

PART III. UPDATE IRC REFERENCE

SECTION 3.1. G.S. 105-228.90(b)(1b) reads as rewritten:

"(1b) Code. – The Internal Revenue Code as enacted as of ~~January 1, 2001,~~May 1, 2002, including any provisions enacted as of that date which become effective either before or after that date."

SECTION 3.2.(a) G.S. 105-130.5(a) is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(a) The following additions to federal taxable income shall be made in determining State net income:

...

(15) A percentage of the amount allowed as a thirty percent (30%) accelerated depreciation deduction under section 168(k) or section 1400L of the Code. For amounts allowed for taxable years beginning before January 1, 2004, the percentage is one hundred percent (100%). For amounts allowed for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2004, the percentage is eighty percent (80%).

In addition, a taxpayer who was allowed a thirty percent (30%) accelerated depreciation deduction under section 168(k) or section

1400L of the Code in a taxable year beginning before January 1, 2002, and whose North Carolina taxable income in that earlier year reflected that accelerated depreciation deduction must add to federal taxable income in the taxpayer's first taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 2002, an amount equal to the amount of the deduction allowed in the earlier taxable year.

These adjustments do not result in a difference in basis of the affected assets for State and federal income tax purposes."

SECTION 3.2.(b) G.S. 105-134.6(c) is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(c) Additions. – The following additions to taxable income shall be made in calculating North Carolina taxable income, to the extent each item is not included in taxable income:

...

(8) A percentage of the amount allowed as a thirty percent (30%) accelerated depreciation deduction under section 168(k) or section 1400L of the Code. For amounts allowed for taxable years beginning before January 1, 2004, the percentage is one hundred percent (100%). For amounts allowed for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2004, the percentage is eighty percent (80%).

In addition, a taxpayer who was allowed a thirty percent (30%) accelerated depreciation deduction under section 168(k) or section 1400L of the Code in a taxable year beginning before January 1, 2002, and whose North Carolina taxable income in that earlier year reflected that accelerated depreciation deduction must add to federal taxable income in the taxpayer's first taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 2002, an amount equal to the amount of the deduction allowed in the earlier taxable year.

These adjustments do not result in a difference in basis of the affected assets for State and federal income tax purposes."

SECTION 3.2.(c) This section is effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002.

SECTION 3.3.(a) G.S. 105-130.5(b) is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(b) The following deductions from federal taxable income shall be made in determining State net income:

...

(21) In each of the taxpayer's first five taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2005, an amount equal to twenty percent (20%) of the amount added to taxable income in a previous year as accelerated depreciation under subdivision (a)(15) of this section."

SECTION 3.3.(b) G.S. 105-134.6(b) is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(b) Deductions. – The following deductions from taxable income shall be made in calculating North Carolina taxable income, to the extent each item is included in taxable income:

...

SECTION 3.3.(c) This section is effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002.

SECTION 3.4.(a) G.S. 105-32.2(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Amount. – The amount of the estate tax imposed by this section is the maximum credit for state death taxes allowed under section 2011 of the ~~Code.~~ Code without regard to the phase-out of that credit under subdivision (b)(2) of that section. If any property in the estate is located in a state other than North Carolina, the amount of tax payable is the North Carolina percentage of the credit.

If the decedent was a resident of this State at death, the North Carolina percentage is the net value of the estate that does not have a tax situs in another state, divided by the net value of all property in the estate. If the decedent was not a resident of this State at death, the North Carolina percentage is the net value of real property that is located in North Carolina plus the net value of any personal property that has a tax situs in North Carolina, divided by the net value of all property in the estate, unless the decedent's state of residence uses a different formula to determine that state's percentage. In that circumstance, the North Carolina percentage is the amount determined by the formula used by the decedent's state of residence.

The net value of property that is located in or has a tax situs in this State is its gross value reduced by any debt secured by that property. The net value of all the property in the estate is its gross value reduced by any debts and deductions of the estate."

SECTION 3.4.(b) This section is effective on and after January 1, 2002, and applies to the estates of decedents dying on or after that date. This section is repealed effective for the estates of decedents dying on or after January 1, 2004.

SECTION 3.5. Effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002, G.S. 105-134.6(b)(13) is repealed.

SECTION 3.6. Notwithstanding Section 3.1 of this act, any amendments to the Internal Revenue Code enacted in 2001 that increase North Carolina taxable income for the 2001 taxable year become effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002.

SECTION 3.7.(a) G.S. 105-188(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) Annual Exclusion. – The annual exclusion amount is equal to the federal inflation-adjusted exclusion amount provided in section 2503(b) of the Code. Gifts not exceeding a total value ~~of ten thousand dollars ($10,000)~~equal to the annual exclusion amount made to any one donee in a calendar year are not taxable under this Article. When gifts exceeding a total value ~~of ten thousand dollars ($10,000)~~ equal to the annual exclusion amount are made to any one donee in a calendar year, only the portion of the gifts exceeding ~~ten thousand dollars ($10,000)~~the annual exclusion amount in value is taxable under this Article. This exclusion does not apply to gifts of future interests in property. For the purposes of determining the ~~exclusion herein provided,~~annual exclusion, no part of a gift to an individual, or in trust for an individual, who has not attained the age of 21 years on the date of ~~such~~ the transfer ~~shall be~~is considered a gift of a future interest in property if the property and the income therefrom meet all of the following conditions: (i) they may be expended by, or for the benefit of, the donee before ~~his attaining~~the donee reaches the age of 21 ~~years, and~~years; (ii) they will to the extent not so expended pass to the donee ~~on his attaining~~when the donee reaches the age of 21 ~~years, and~~years; and (iii) they will, in the event the donee dies before ~~attaining the age of 21 years,~~reaching that age, be payable to the estate of the donee or as ~~he~~ the donee may appoint under a general power of appointment.

When a gift is made by one spouse to a person other than the donor's spouse, the donor may claim both the donor's annual exclusion and the spouse's annual exclusion ~~provided that~~ if both spouses consent and both spouses are residents of this State when the gift is made. Consent to share annual gift tax exclusions ~~shall~~ must be made in writing on a timely filed gift tax return. Once given, consent to share annual exclusions is irrevocable."

SECTION 3.7.(b) This section is effective January 1, 2002, and applies to gifts made on or after that date."

PART IV. UNAUTHORIZED SUBSTANCE TAX EXPENSES

SECTION 4.1. G.S. 105-501 is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"...

In determining the net proceeds of the tax to be distributed, the Secretary shall deduct from the collections to be allocated an amount equal to one-fourth of the costs during the preceding fiscal year of:

...

(1a) Seventy percent (70%) of the expenses of the Department of Revenue in performing the duties imposed by Article 2D of this Chapter.

...."

SECTION 4.2. This Part becomes effective June 30, 2002.

PART V. INSURANCE REGULATORY CHARGE

SECTION 5.(a) The percentage rate to be used in calculating the insurance regulatory charge under G.S. 58-6-25 is six and one-half percent (6.5%) for the 2002 calendar year.

SECTION 5.(b) This section is effective when it becomes law.

PART VI. REGULATORY FEE FOR UTILITIES COMMISSION

SECTION 6.(a) The percentage rate to be used in calculating the public utility regulatory fee under G.S. 62-302(b)(2) is one-tenth percent (0.1%) for each public utility's North Carolina jurisdictional revenues earned during each quarter that begins on or after July 1, 2002.

SECTION 6.(b) The electric membership corporation regulatory fee imposed under G.S. 62-302(b1) for the 2002-2003 fiscal year is two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000).

SECTION 6.(c) This section becomes effective July 1, 2002.

PART VII. RESERVED

PART VIII. SECURE LOCAL REVENUES

SECTION 8.1. G.S. 105-113.82(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) Time. – The revenue shall be distributed to cities and counties within 60 days after March 31 of each year. The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 8.2. G.S. 105-116.1(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Distribution. – The Secretary must distribute to the cities part of the taxes collected under this Article on electric power companies. Each city's share for a calendar quarter is the percentage distribution amount for that city for that quarter minus one-fourth of the city's hold-back amount and one-fourth of the city's proportionate share of the annual cost to the Department of administering the distribution. The Secretary must make the distribution within 75 days after the end of each calendar quarter. The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 8.3. G.S. 105-187.44(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Distribution. – Within 75 days after the end of each calendar quarter, the Secretary must distribute to the cities part of the tax proceeds collected under this Article during that quarter. The amount to be distributed to a city is one-half of the amount of tax attributable to that city for that quarter under subsection (a) of this section. The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 8.4. G.S. 105-164.44F is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(f) Nature. – The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 8.5. G.S. 136-41.1 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(d) Nature. – The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 8.6. G.S. 159B-27(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) The State shall distribute to cities and towns which receive electric power and energy from their ownership share of a project or to which electric power and energy is sold by a joint agency an amount equal to a tax of three and nine hundredths percent (3.09%) of all moneys expended by a municipality on account of its ownership share of a project, including payment of principal and interest on bonds issued to finance such ownership share, or an amount equal to a tax of three and nine hundredths percent (3.09%) of the gross receipts from all sales of electric power and energy to such city or town by a joint agency, as the case may be. The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 8.7. G.S. 143-25 reads as rewritten:

"§ 143-25. Maintenance appropriations dependent upon adequacy of revenues to support them.

(a) All maintenance appropriations now or hereafter made are hereby declared to be maximum, conditional and proportionate appropriations, the purpose being to make the appropriations payable in full in the amounts named herein if necessary and then only in the event the aggregate revenues collected and available during each fiscal year of the biennium for which such appropriations are made, are sufficient to pay all of the appropriations in full; otherwise, the said appropriations shall be deemed to be payable in such proportion as the total sum of all appropriations bears to the total amount of revenue available in each of said fiscal years. ~~The~~ Except as provided in subsection (b) of this section, the Director of the Budget is ~~hereby~~ given full power and authority to examine and survey the progress of the collection of the revenue out of which such appropriations are to be made, and to declare and determine the amounts that can be, during each quarter of each of the fiscal years of the biennium properly allocated to each respective appropriation. In making such examination and survey, ~~he~~ the Director of the Budget shall receive estimates of the prospective collection of revenues from the Secretary of Revenue and every other revenue collecting agency of the State. The Director of the Budget may reduce all of said appropriations pro rata when necessary to prevent an overdraft or deficit to the fiscal period for which such appropriations are made. The Governor may also reduce all of said appropriations pursuant to Article III, Section 5(3) of the Constitution in accordance with subsection (b) of this section, after consulting with the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations under G.S. 120-76(8) if prior consultation is required by that section. The purpose and policy of this Article are to provide and insure that there shall be no overdraft or deficit in the general fund of the State at the end of the fiscal period, growing out of appropriations for maintenance and the Director of the Budget is directed and required to so administer this Article as to prevent any such overdraft or deficit. Prior to taking any action under this section to reduce appropriations pro rata, the Governor may consult with the Advisory Budget Commission.

(b) The General Assembly recognizes that it has required units of local government to adopt and maintain annual balanced budgets and take other steps to assure financially sound operations under the Local Government Budget and Fiscal Control Act and other provisions of Chapter 159 of the General Statutes. Accordingly, the General Assembly finds that in order to satisfy those statutory requirements and provide adequate services to their citizens, units of local government must be able to rely on the funds and local revenue sources the General Assembly has provided.

It is the intent of the General Assembly that funds that have been collected by the State on behalf of local governments and funds that the General Assembly has appropriated or otherwise committed to local governments shall not be reduced except as provided in this section. In exercising the powers contained in Section 5(3) of Article III of the Constitution, the Governor shall not withhold from distribution funds that have been collected by the State on behalf of local governments or funds that the General Assembly has appropriated or otherwise committed to local governments unless, after making adequate provision for the prompt payment of principal of and interest on bonds and notes of the State according to their terms, the Governor has exhausted all other sources of revenue of the State including surplus remaining in the treasury at the beginning of the fiscal period and has been authorized to withhold the funds by an act of the General Assembly.

This subsection does not authorize the Governor to withhold revenues from taxes levied by units of local governments and collected by the State. The General Assembly recognizes that under Section 19 of Article I of the North Carolina Constitution and under the Due Process Clause of the United States Constitution, the State is prohibited from taking local tax revenue."

PART IX. CLOSE CORPORATE TAX LOOPHOLES

SECTION 9.1.(a) G.S. 105-130.4(a)(1) reads as rewritten:

"(1) "Business income" means ~~income arising from transactions and activity in the regular course of the corporation's trade or business and includes income from tangible and intangible property if the acquisition, management, and/or disposition of the property constitute integral parts of the corporation's regular trade or business operations.~~ all income that is apportionable under the United States Constitution."

SECTION 9.1.(b) This section is effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002.

SECTION 9.2.(a) G.S. 105-130.4(l) reads as rewritten:

"(l) (1) The sales factor is a ~~fraction, the~~fraction. The numerator of ~~which~~ the fraction is the total sales of the corporation in this State during the income ~~year, and the~~year other than sales to the United States government. The denominator of ~~which is the total sales of the corporation everywhere during the income year.~~ the fraction is the total sales of the corporation everywhere during the income year except for (i) sales to the United States government, (ii) sales that are in a state in which the taxpayer is not taxable, and (iii) sales that are in a foreign country when that country does not subject the taxpayer to a tax on or measured by profits or income. Notwithstanding any other provision under this Part, the receipts from any casual sale of property shall be excluded from both the numerator and the denominator of the sales factor. Where a corporation is not taxable in another state on its business income but is taxable in another state only because of nonbusiness income, all sales shall be treated as having been made in this State.

(2) Sales of tangible personal property are in this State if the property is received in this State by the purchaser. In the case of delivery of goods by common carrier or by other means of transportation, including transportation by the purchaser, the place at which the goods are ultimately received after all transportation has been completed shall be considered as the place at which the goods are received by the purchaser. Direct delivery into this State by the taxpayer to a person or firm designated by a purchaser from within or without the State shall constitute delivery to the purchaser in this State.

(3) Other sales are in this State if:

a. The receipts are from real or tangible personal property located in this State; or

b. The receipts are from intangible property and are received from sources within this State; or

c. The receipts are from services and the income-producing activities are in this State."

SECTION 9.2.(b) This section is effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002.

SECTION 9.3.(a) Section 2(a) of S.L. 2001-327 reads as rewritten:

"EQUALIZE FRANCHISE TAX ON CORPORATE-AFFILIATED LLCs

SECTION 2.(a) The General Assembly finds that most corporations engaged in business in this State comply with the State franchise tax on corporate assets. Some taxpayers, however, take advantage of an unintended loophole in the law and avoid franchise tax by transferring their assets to a controlled limited liability company. This tax avoidance creates an unfair burden on corporate citizens that pay the franchise tax on their assets. It is the intent of this section to apply the franchise tax equally to assets held by corporations and assets held by corporate-affiliated limited liability companies.

It is also the intent of this section to provide that a criminal penalty applies to taxpayers who fraudulently evade the tax.

The General Assembly further finds that, after this loophole was closed in 2001, some taxpayers continue to avoid franchise tax by manipulating ownership of assets. One method is to interpose a controlled partnership between the corporation and the controlled limited liability company. This tax avoidance creates an unfair burden on corporate citizens that pay the franchise tax on their assets. It is the intent of the General Assembly to apply the franchise tax equally to assets held by corporations and assets held by corporate-controlled entities."

SECTION 9.3.(b) G.S. 105-114(c) is recodified as G.S. 105-114.1 and reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-114.1. Limited liability companies.

(a) Definitions. – The definitions in G.S. 105-130.7A apply in this section. In addition, the following definitions apply in this section:

(1) Governing law. – A limited liability company's governing law is determined under G.S. 57C-6-05 or G.S. 57C-7-01, as applicable.

(2) Owned indirectly. – A person owns indirectly assets of a limited liability company if the limited liability company's governing law provides that seventy percent (70%) or more of its assets, after payments to creditors, must be distributed upon dissolution to the person as of the last day of the principal corporation's taxable year.

(3) Principal corporation. – A corporation that is a member of a limited liability company or has a related member that is a member of a limited liability company.

(b) Controlled Companies. – If a corporation or a related member of the corporation is a member of a limited liability company and the principal corporation and any related members of the principal corporation together own indirectly ~~the limited liability company's governing law provides that~~ seventy percent (70%) or more of ~~its~~ the limited liability company's assets, ~~after payments to creditors, must be distributed upon dissolution to the member corporation or to includible corporations of an affiliated group in which the member corporation is includible,~~ then the following provisions apply:

(1) ~~(i)~~ aA percentage of the limited liability company's income, assets, liabilities, and equity is attributed to that ~~member~~ principal corporation and must be included in the ~~member~~ principal corporation's computation of tax under this ~~Article, and (ii) the~~Article.

(2) The principal ~~member~~ corporation's investment in the limited liability company is not included in the ~~member~~ principal corporation's computation of tax under this Article.

(3) The attributable percentage is equal to the percentage of the limited liability company's ~~assets, after payments to creditors, that would be distributable to the member corporation~~ assets owned indirectly by the principal corporation divided by the percentage of the limited liability company's assets owned indirectly by related members of the principal corporation that are corporations. ~~under the limited liability company's governing law if the limited liability company dissolved as of the last day of the member corporation's taxable year.~~

(c) Other Companies. – In all other cases, none of the limited liability company's income, assets, liabilities, or equity is attributed to a ~~member~~ principal corporation under this Article. ~~A limited liability company's governing law is determined under G.S. 57C-6-05 or G.S. 57C-7-01, as applicable. The definitions in section 1504 of the Code apply in this subsection.~~

(d) Penalty. – A taxpayer who, because of fraud with intent to evade tax, underpays the tax under this Article on assets attributable to it under this ~~subsection~~ section is guilty of a Class H felony in accordance with G.S. 105-236(7)."

SECTION 9.3.(c) This section becomes effective January 1, 2003, and applies to taxes due on or after that date.

PART X. HOUSING TAX CREDIT EFFECTIVE DATE CHANGE

SECTION 10. Section 10.(f) of S.L. 2000-56 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 10.(f) Low-Income Housing Credit Changes. – G.S. 105-129.16B(d), as amended by Section 7 of this act, is effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2000. The remainder of Section 7 is effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2001, applies to buildings to which federal credits are allocated on or after January 1, ~~2001,~~2000, and expires January 1, 2005."

PART XI. SEVERABILITY CLAUSE AND EFFECTIVE DATE

SECTION 11.1. The provisions of this act are severable. If any provision of this act is held invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalidity does not affect other provisions of the act that can be given effect without the invalid provision.

SECTION 11.2. Except as otherwise provided, this act is effective when it becomes law. Notwithstanding G.S. 105-163.15 and G.S. 105-163.41, no addition to tax may be made under those statutes for a taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 2002, and before January 1, 2003, with respect to an underpayment of corporate or individual income tax to the extent the underpayment was created or increased by this act.

and on page 4, line 35,
by adding the following on the line:

"SECTION 3.7.(a) G.S. 105-188(d) reads as rewritten:

'(d) Annual Exclusion. – The annual exclusion amount is equal to the federal inflation-adjusted exclusion amount provided in section 2503(b) of the Code. Gifts not exceeding a total value ~~of ten thousand dollars ($10,000)~~equal to the annual exclusion amount made to any one donee in a calendar year are not taxable under this Article. When gifts exceeding a total value ~~of ten thousand dollars ($10,000)~~ equal to the annual exclusion amount are made to any one donee in a calendar year, only the portion of the gifts exceeding ~~ten thousand dollars ($10,000)~~the annual exclusion amount in value is taxable under this Article. Referred to:

June 10, 2002

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO RAISE REVENUES TO SUPPORT THE CURRENT OPERATIONS OF STATE AND LOCAL GOVERNMENT, TO UPDATE THE REFERENCE DATE TO THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE USED TO DEFINE AND DETERMINE CERTAIN STATE TAX PROVISIONS, AND TO PROVIDE THAT LOCAL REVENUES MAY NOT BE WITHHELD OR IMPOUNDED BY THE GOVERNOR.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

PART I. ACCELERATE LOCAL OPTION SALES TAX

SECTION 1.1. G.S. 105-517(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) Effective Date. – A tax levied under this Article may not become effective before ~~July 1, 2003.~~August 1, 2002."

SECTION 1.2. G.S. 105-518(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Ballot Question. – The question to be presented on a ballot for a special election concerning the levy of the taxes authorized by this Article must be in the following form:

'[ ] FOR [ ] AGAINST

one-half percent (½%) local sales and use taxes, ~~to replace the current one-half percent (½%) State sales and use taxes that end July 1, 2003.~~'in addition to all current State and local sales and use taxes.' "

SECTION 1.3.(a) Effective July 1, 2002, G.S. 105-520 reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-520. Distribution of taxes.

(a) Point of Origin. – The Secretary must, on a ~~monthly~~ quarterly basis, allocate to each taxing county one-half of the net proceeds of the tax collected in that county under this Article. If the Secretary collects taxes under this Article in a ~~month~~ quarter and the taxes cannot be identified as being attributable to a particular taxing county, the Secretary must allocate one-half of the net proceeds of these taxes among the taxing counties in proportion to the amount of taxes collected in each county under this Article in that ~~month.~~quarter.

(b) Per Capita. – The Secretary must, on a ~~monthly~~ quarterly basis, allocate the remaining net proceeds of the tax collected under this Article among the taxing counties on a per capita basis according to the most recent annual population estimates certified to the Secretary by the State Budget Officer. The Secretary must then adjust the amount allocated to each county as provided in G.S. 105-486(b).

(c) Distribution Between Counties and Cities. – The Secretary must divide and distribute the funds allocated under this section each ~~month~~ quarter between each taxing county and the municipalities located in the county in accordance with the method by which the one percent (1%) sales and use taxes levied in that county pursuant to Article 39 of this Chapter or Chapter 1096 of the 1967 Session Laws are distributed. No municipality may receive any funds under this subsection for a ~~month~~ quarter if it is not entitled to a distribution under G.S. 105-501 for the same ~~month.~~quarter."

SECTION 1.3.(b) This section is repealed effective July 1, 2003.

SECTION 1.4.(a) G.S. 105-521 reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-521. Transitional local government hold harmless.

(a) Definitions. – The following definitions apply in this section:

(1) Local government. – A county or municipality that received a distribution of local sales taxes in the most recent fiscal year for which a local sales tax share has been calculated.

(2) Local sales tax share. – A local government's percentage share of the two-cent (2¢) sales taxes distributed during the most recent fiscal year for which data are available.

(3) Repealed reimbursement amount. – The total amount a local government would have been entitled to receive during the ~~2002-2003~~ 2001-2002 fiscal year under G.S. 105-164.44C, 105-275.1, 105-275.2, 105-277.001, and 105-277.1A, if the Governor had not withheld any distributions under those sections.

(4) Two-cent (2¢) sales taxes. – The first one-cent (1¢) sales and use tax authorized in Article 39 of this Chapter and in Chapter 1096 of the 1967 Session Laws, the first one-half cent (½¢) local sales and use tax authorized in Article 40 of this Chapter, and the second one-half cent (½¢) local sales and use tax authorized in Article 42 of this Chapter.

(b) ~~Distributions.~~ 2002-2003 Distribution. – On or before September 15, 2002, the Secretary must multiply each local government's local sales tax share by the sum of three hundred nine million ten thousand six hundred sixty-seven dollars ($309,010,667). If the resulting amount is less than one hundred percent (100%) of the local government's repealed reimbursement amount, the Secretary must pay the local government the difference, but not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00).

(c) Subsequent Distributions. – On or before September 15, 2003, and each September 15 thereafter, the Secretary must multiply each local government's local sales tax share by the estimated amount that all local governments would be expected to receive during the current fiscal year under G.S. 105-520 if every county levied the tax under this Article for the year. If the resulting amount is less than one hundred percent (100%) of the local government's repealed reimbursement amount, the Secretary must pay the local government the difference, but not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00).

(d) Estimated Amounts. – On or before May 1, 2003, and each May 1 thereafter, the Office of State Budget and Management and the Fiscal Research Division of the General Assembly must each submit to the Secretary and to the General Assembly a final projection of the estimated amount that all local governments would be expected to receive during the upcoming fiscal year under G.S. 105-520 if every county levied the tax under this Article for the fiscal year. If the Secretary does not use the lower of the two final projections to make the calculation required by this subsection, the Secretary must report the reasons for this decision to the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations within 60 days after receiving the projections.

~~(c)~~(e) Source of Funds. – The Secretary must draw the funds distributed under this section from sales and use tax collections under Article 5 of this Chapter.

~~(d)~~(f) Reports. – The Secretary must report to the Revenue Laws Study Committee by January 31, ~~2004~~,2003, and each January 31 thereafter, the amount distributed under this section for the current fiscal year."

SECTION 1.4.(b) G.S. 105-521 is repealed effective July 1, 2012.

SECTION 1.5. Effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002, G.S. 105-269.14(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Distribution. – The Secretary must distribute ~~one-third~~a portion of the net use tax proceeds collected under this section to counties and ~~cities in proportion to their total distributions under Articles 39, 40, and 42 of this Chapter and Chapter 1096 of the 1967 Session Laws for the most recent period for which data is available.~~cities. The portion to be distributed to all counties and cities shall be the total net use tax proceeds collected under this section multiplied by a fraction. The numerator of the fraction is the local use tax proceeds collected under this section. The denominator of the fraction is the total use tax proceeds collected under this section. The Secretary shall then distribute this portion to the counties and cities in proportion to their total distributions under Articles 39, 40, 42, 43, and 44 of this Chapter and Chapter 1096 of the 1967 Session Laws for the most recent period for which data are available. The provisions of G.S. 105-472, 105-486, and 105-501 do not apply to tax proceeds distributed under this section."

SECTION 1.6. G.S. 159-15 reads as rewritten:

"§ 159-15. Amendments to the budget ordinance.

Except as otherwise restricted by law, the governing board may amend the budget ordinance at any time after the ordinance's adoption in any manner, so long as the ordinance, as amended, continues to satisfy the requirements of G.S. 159-8 and 159-13. However, except as otherwise provided in this section, no amendment may increase or reduce a property tax levy or in any manner alter a property taxpayer's liability, unless the board is ordered to do so by a court of competent jurisdiction, or by a State agency having the power to compel the levy of taxes by the board.

If after July 1 the local government receives additional and unanticipated revenues, the governing body may, before January 1, amend the budget ordinance to reduce the property tax levy to account for the unanticipated revenues.

The governing board by appropriate resolution or ordinance may authorize the budget officer to transfer moneys from one appropriation to another within the same fund subject to such limitations and procedures as it may prescribe. Any such transfers shall be reported to the governing board at its next regular meeting and shall be entered in the minutes."

SECTION 1.7. Section 34.14(b) of S.L. 2001-424 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 34.14.(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 105-466(c), a tax levied during the ~~2003~~ 2002 calendar year under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes, as enacted by this act, may become effective on the first day of any calendar month during 2002 beginning on or after ~~July 1, 2003.~~ August 1, 2002. Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 105-466(c), if a county levies a tax during the ~~2003~~ 2002 calendar year under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes, as enacted by this act, that is to become effective on or before January 1, 2003, the county is required to give the Secretary of Revenue ~~only~~ the following notice:

(1) If the tax is to become effective August 1, 2002, the county must notify the Secretary on or before July 15, 2002.

(2) If the tax is to become effective on the first day of any other calendar month beginning on or before January 1, 2003, the county must give the Secretary 30 days' advance notice of the tax levy.

For taxes ~~levied on or~~ that are to become effective after January 1, ~~2004,~~ 2003, the provisions of G.S. 105-466(c) apply."

SECTION 1.8. Section 34.15(b) of S.L. 2001-424 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 34.15.(b) This section becomes effective July 1, ~~2003.~~ 2002."

SECTION 1.9. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, for the months of August and September 2002, the administration and distribution of taxes collected under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes shall be in accordance with this section. For each of those months, the Secretary of Revenue shall create a separate account for the collection of taxes under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes. In each of those months, retailers shall report taxes collected under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes on a form separate from that on which the retailer reports other sales and use taxes collected. In each of those months, the Secretary shall allocate to each county that has imposed a tax under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes a portion of the total amount of tax collected under that Article. A county's allocation shall be determined by multiplying the total amount of tax collected under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes for that month by a fraction. The numerator of the fraction is the amount allocated under G.S. 105-472, 105-486, and 105-501 for the first quarter of the 2002-2003 fiscal year to the county. The denominator of the fraction is the total amount allocated under G.S. 105-472, 105-486, and 105-501 for the first quarter of the 2002-2003 fiscal year to all counties that have imposed a tax under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General

Statutes. The Secretary shall distribute these taxes at the end of the quarter in accordance with G.S. 105-520(c).

SECTION 1.10. To the extent the Department of Revenue's nonrecurring costs of implementing and administering Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes, as amended, exceed funds available in its budget for the 2002-2003 fiscal year, the Department may pay the excess cost by withholding up to three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) from collections under Subchapter VIII of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes.

SECTION 1.11. The Department of Revenue may contract for supplies, materials, equipment, and contractual services related to the provision of notice, the creation of tax forms and instructions, and the development of computer software necessitated by the amendments in this act without being subject to the requirements of Article 3 or Article 8 of Chapter 143 of the General Statutes.

SECTION 1.12.(a) The title of Article 39 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes reads as rewritten:

"Article 39.

"SECTION 34.20.(b) Effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, ~~2003~~,2004, G.S. 105-151.24, as amended by this section, reads as rewritten:".

PART III. UPDATE IRC REFERENCE

SECTION 3.1. G.S. 105-228.90(b)(1b) reads as rewritten:

"(1b) Code. – The Internal Revenue Code as enacted as of ~~January 1, 2001~~,May 1, 2002, including any provisions enacted as of that date which become effective either before or after that date."

SECTION 3.2.(a) G.S. 105-130.5(a) is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(a) The following additions to federal taxable income shall be made in determining State net income:

...

(15) The amount allowed as a thirty percent (30%) accelerated depreciation deduction under section 168(k) or section 1400L of the Code. In addition, a taxpayer who was allowed a thirty percent (30%) accelerated depreciation deduction under section 168(k) or section 1400L of the Code in a taxable year beginning before January 1, 2002, and whose North Carolina taxable income in that earlier year reflected that accelerated depreciation deduction must add to federal taxable income in the taxpayer's first taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 2002, an amount equal to the amount of the deduction allowed in the earlier taxable year. This adjustment does not result in a difference in basis of the affected assets for State and federal income tax purposes."

SECTION 3.2.(b) G.S. 105-134.6(c) is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(c) Additions. – The following additions to taxable income shall be made in calculating North Carolina taxable income, to the extent each item is not included in taxable income:

...

(8) The amount allowed as a thirty percent (30%) accelerated depreciation deduction under section 168(k) or section 1400L of the Code. In addition, a taxpayer who was allowed a thirty percent (30%) accelerated depreciation deduction under section 168(k) or section 1400L of the Code in a taxable year beginning before January 1, 2002, and whose North Carolina taxable income in that earlier year reflected that accelerated depreciation deduction must add to federal taxable income in the taxpayer's first taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 2002, an amount equal to the amount of the deduction allowed in the earlier taxable year. This adjustment does not result in a difference in basis of the affected assets for State and federal income tax purposes."

SECTION 3.2.(c) This section is effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002.

SECTION 3.3.(a) G.S. 105-130.5(b) is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(b) The following deductions from federal taxable income shall be made in determining State net income:

...

(21) In each of the taxpayer's first five taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2005, an amount equal to twenty percent (20%) of the amount added to taxable income in a previous year as accelerated depreciation under subdivision (a)(15) of this section."

SECTION 3.3.(b) G.S. 105-134.6(b) is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(b) Deductions. – The following deductions from taxable income shall be made in calculating North Carolina taxable income, to the extent each item is included in taxable income:

...

SECTION 3.3.(c) This section is effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002.

SECTION 3.4.(a) G.S. 105-32.2(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Amount. – The amount of the estate tax imposed by this section is the maximum credit for state death taxes allowed under section 2011 of the ~~Code.~~ Code without regard to the phase-out of that credit under subdivision (b)(2) of that section. If any property in the estate is located in a state other than North Carolina, the amount of tax payable is the North Carolina percentage of the credit.

If the decedent was a resident of this State at death, the North Carolina percentage is the net value of the estate that does not have a tax situs in another state, divided by the net value of all property in the estate. If the decedent was not a resident of this State at death, the North Carolina percentage is the net value of real property that is located in North Carolina plus the net value of any personal property that has a tax situs in North Carolina, divided by the net value of all property in the estate, unless the decedent's state of residence uses a different formula to determine that state's percentage. In that circumstance, the North Carolina percentage is the amount determined by the formula used by the decedent's state of residence.

The net value of property that is located in or has a tax situs in this State is its gross value reduced by any debt secured by that property. The net value of all the property in the estate is its gross value reduced by any debts and deductions of the estate."

SECTION 3.4.(b) This section is effective on and after January 1, 2002, and applies to the estates of decedents dying on or after that date. This section is repealed effective for the estates of decedents dying on or after January 1, 2004.

SECTION 3.5. Effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002, G.S. 105-134.6(b)(13) is repealed.

SECTION 3.6. Notwithstanding Section 3.1 of this act, any amendments to the Internal Revenue Code enacted in 2001 that increase North Carolina taxable income for the 2001 taxable year become effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002.

PART IV. UNAUTHORIZED SUBSTANCE TAX EXPENSES

SECTION 4.1. G.S. 105-501 is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"...

In determining the net proceeds of the tax to be distributed, the Secretary shall deduct from the collections to be allocated an amount equal to one-fourth of the costs during the preceding fiscal year of:

...

(1a) Seventy percent (70%) of the expenses of the Department of Revenue in performing the duties imposed by Article 2D of this Chapter.

...."

SECTION 4.2. This Part becomes effective July 1, 2002.

PART V. INSURANCE REGULATORY CHARGE

SECTION 5.(a) The percentage rate to be used in calculating the insurance regulatory charge under G.S. 58-6-25 is six and one-half percent (6.5%) for the 2002 calendar year.

SECTION 5.(b) This section is effective when it becomes law.

PART VI. REGULATORY FEE FOR UTILITIES COMMISSION

SECTION 6.(a) The percentage rate to be used in calculating the public utility regulatory fee under G.S. 62-302(b)(2) is one-tenth percent (0.1%) for each public utility's North Carolina jurisdictional revenues earned during each quarter that begins on or after July 1, 2002.

SECTION 6.(b) The electric membership corporation regulatory fee imposed under G.S. 62-302(b1) for the 2002-2003 fiscal year is two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000).

SECTION 6.(c) This section becomes effective July 1, 2002.

PART VII. VARIOUS FEES

SECTION 7.1.(a) G.S. 15A-1371(i) reads as rewritten:

"(i) A fee of ~~one hundred dollars ($100.00)~~ one hundred fifty dollars ($150.00) shall be paid by all persons who participate in the Community Service Parole Program. That fee must be paid to the clerk of court in the county in which the parolee is released. The fee must be paid in full within two weeks unless the Post-Release Supervision and Parole Commission, upon a showing of hardship by the person, allows ~~him~~ the person additional time to pay the fee. The parolee may not be required to pay the fee before ~~he~~ the person begins the community service unless the Post-Release Supervision and Parole Commission specifically orders that ~~he~~ the person do so. Fees collected under this subsection shall be deposited in the General Fund. The fee imposed under this ~~section~~ subsection may be paid as prescribed by the supervising parole officer."

SECTION 7.1.(b) G.S. 20-179.4(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) A fee of ~~one hundred dollars ($100.00)~~ one hundred fifty dollars ($150.00) shall be paid by all persons serving a community service sentence. That fee shall be paid to the clerk of court in the county in which the person is convicted. The fee shall be paid in full within two weeks unless the court, upon a showing of hardship by the person, allows additional time to pay the fee. The person may not be required to pay the fee before beginning the community service unless the court specifically orders the person to do so."

SECTION 7.1.(c) G.S. 143B-262.4(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Unless a fee is assessed pursuant to G.S. 20-179.4 or G.S. 15A-1371(i), a fee of ~~one hundred dollars ($100.00)~~ one hundred fifty dollars ($150.00) shall be paid by all persons who participate in the program or receive services from the program staff. Fees collected pursuant to this subsection shall be deposited in the General Fund. If the person is convicted in a court in this State, the fee shall be paid to the clerk of court in the county in which ~~he~~ the person is convicted. If the person is participating in the program as a result of a deferred prosecution or similar program, the fee shall be paid to the clerk of court in the county in which the agreement is filed. Persons participating in the program for any other reason shall pay the fee to the clerk of court in the county in which the services are provided by the program staff. The fee shall be paid in full within two weeks from the date the person is ordered to perform the community service, and before ~~he begins his~~ the person may participate in the community ~~service,~~ service program, except that:

(1) A person convicted in a court in this State may be given an extension of time or allowed to begin the community service before ~~he~~ the person pays the fee by the court in which ~~he~~ the person is convicted; or

(2) A person performing community service pursuant to a deferred prosecution or similar agreement may be given an extension of time or allowed to begin ~~his~~ community service before the fee is paid by the official or agency representing the State in the agreement.

~~Fees collected pursuant to this subsection shall be deposited in the General Fund.~~"

SECTION 7.1.(d) This section becomes effective October 1, 2002, and applies to fees assessed or collected on or after that date.

SECTION 7.2.(a) G.S. 15A-1343(c1) reads as rewritten:

"(c1) Supervision Fee. – Any person placed on supervised probation pursuant to subsection (a) shall pay a supervision fee of ~~twenty dollars ($20.00)~~ thirty dollars ($30.00) per month, unless exempted by the court. The court may exempt a person from paying the fee only for good cause and upon written motion of the person placed on supervised probation. No person shall be required to pay more than one supervision fee per month. The court may require that the fee be paid in advance or in a lump sum or sums, and a probation officer may require payment by such methods if he is authorized by subsection (g) to determine the payment schedule. Supervision fees must be paid to the clerk of court for the county in which the judgment was entered or the deferred prosecution agreement was filed. Fees collected under this subsection shall be transmitted to the State for deposit into the State's General Fund."

SECTION 7.2.(b) G.S. 15A-1368.4(f) reads as rewritten:

"(f) Required Supervision Fee. – The Commission shall require as a condition of post-release supervision that the supervisee pay a supervision fee of ~~twenty dollars ($20.00)~~ thirty dollars ($30.00) per month. The Commission may exempt a supervisee from this condition only if it finds that requiring payment of the fee is an undue economic burden. The fee shall be paid to the clerk of superior court of the county in which the supervisee was convicted. The clerk shall transmit any money collected pursuant to this subsection to the State to be deposited in the State's General Fund. In no event shall a supervisee be required to pay more than one supervision fee per month."

SECTION 7.2.(c) G.S. 15A-1374(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) Supervision Fee. – The Commission must require as a condition of parole that the parolee pay a supervision fee of ~~twenty dollars ($20.00)~~ thirty dollars ($30.00) per month. The Commission may exempt a parolee from this condition of parole only if it finds that requiring him to pay the fee will constitute an undue economic burden. The fee must be paid to the clerk of superior court of the county in which the parolee was convicted. The clerk must transmit any money collected pursuant to this subsection to the State to be deposited in the general fund of the State. In no event shall a person released on parole be required to pay more than one supervision fee per month."

SECTION 7.2.(d) This section becomes effective October 1, 2002, and applies to supervision fees assessed or collected on or after that date.

SECTION 7.3.(a) Article 5 of Chapter 7A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 7A-38.7. Dispute resolution fee for cases resolved in mediation.

(a) In each criminal case filed in the General Court of Justice that is resolved through referral to a community mediation center, a dispute resolution fee shall be assessed in the same amount as the General Court of Justice fee imposed under G.S. 7A-304(a)(4) for cases in the district court. Fees assessed under this section shall be paid to the clerk of superior court in the county where the case was filed and remitted by the clerk to the State Treasurer.

(b) Each criminal case filed in the General Court of Justice and resolved through referral to a community mediation center shall include, as a part of the resolution, an agreement on which of the parties shall be responsible for the payment of the dispute resolution fee assessed under this section. Before providing the parties with a signed copy of the mediation agreement, the community mediation center shall require proof that the dispute resolution fee has been paid as required by subsection (a) of this section."

SECTION 7.3.(b) Each community mediation center shall maintain records as to the number of cases in which dispute resolution fees are assessed and paid. The Mediation Network of North Carolina shall collect this information from each center annually.

Each community mediation center shall also maintain records as to the source of referral for all court-referred cases. Each center receiving State funds shall use a standardized form and methodology to determine the referral source and report that information annually to the Mediation Network of North Carolina.

The Mediation Network shall report by March 15, 2003, to the Chairs of the Senate and House Appropriations Committees and the Chairs of the Senate and House Appropriations Subcommittees on Justice and Public Safety on the fees collected year-to-date and the sources of referral of court-referred cases during the 2002-2003 fiscal year.

SECTION 7.3.(c) This section becomes effective October 1, 2002, and applies to cases resolved on or after that date.

SECTION 7.4.(a) G.S. 20-135.2A(e) reads as rewritten:

"(e) Any driver or passenger who fails to wear a seat belt as required by this section shall have committed an infraction and shall pay a penalty of twenty-five dollars ($25.00). Conviction of an infraction under this section has no consequence other than payment of a penalty. ~~A person found responsible for a violation of this section may not be assessed court costs.~~"

SECTION 7.4.(b) This section becomes effective October 1, 2002, and applies to costs assessed or collected on or after that date.

SECTION 7.5.(a) G.S. 7A-304(a)(4) reads as rewritten:

"(a) In every criminal case in the superior or district court, wherein the defendant is convicted, or enters a plea of guilty or nolo contendere, or when costs are assessed against the prosecuting witness, the following costs shall be assessed and collected, except that when the judgment imposes an active prison sentence, costs shall be assessed and collected only when the judgment specifically so provides, and that no costs may be assessed when a case is dismissed.

...

(4) For support of the General Court of Justice, the sum of ~~sixty-five dollars ($65.00)~~ seventy-five dollars ($75.00) in the district court, including cases before a magistrate, and the sum of ~~seventy-two dollars ($72.00)~~ eighty-two dollars ($82.00) in the superior court, to be remitted to the State Treasurer. The State Treasurer shall remit the sum of one dollar and five cents ($1.05) of each fee collected under this subdivision to the North Carolina State Bar for the provision of services described in G.S. 7A-474.4.

...."

SECTION 7.5.(b) This section becomes effective October 1, 2002, and applies to costs assessed or collected on or after that date.

SECTION 7.6.(a) G.S. 15A-145(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) The court shall also order that the said misdemeanor conviction be expunged from the records of the court, and direct all law-enforcement agencies bearing record of the same to expunge their records of the conviction. The clerk shall forward a certified copy of the order to the sheriff, chief of police, or other arresting agency. The sheriff, chief or head of such other arresting agency shall then transmit the copy of the order with a form supplied by the State Bureau of Investigation to the State Bureau of Investigation, and the State Bureau of Investigation shall forward the order to the Federal Bureau of Investigation. ~~The cost of expunging such records shall be taxed against the petitioner.~~"

SECTION 7.6.(b) G.S. 15A-145 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(e) A person who files a petition for expunction of a criminal record under this section must pay the clerk of superior court a fee of sixty-five dollars ($65.00) at the time the petition is filed. Fees collected under this subsection shall be deposited in the General Fund. This subsection does not apply to petitions filed by an indigent."

SECTION 7.6.(c) G.S. 15A-146(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) The court may also order that the said entries shall be expunged from the records of the court, and direct all law-enforcement agencies bearing record of the same to expunge their records of the entries. The clerk shall forward a certified copy of the order to the sheriff, chief of police, or other arresting agency. The sheriff, chief or head of such other arresting agency shall then transmit the copy of the order with the form supplied by the State Bureau of Investigation to the State Bureau of Investigation, and the State Bureau of Investigation shall forward the order to the Federal Bureau of Investigation. ~~The costs of expunging such records shall be taxed against the petitioner.~~"

SECTION 7.6.(d) G.S. 15A-146 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(d) A person who files a petition for expunction of a criminal record under this section must pay the clerk of superior court a fee of sixty-five dollars ($65.00) at the time the petition is filed. Fees collected under this subsection shall be deposited in the General Fund. This subsection does not apply to petitions filed by an indigent."

SECTION 7.6.(e) G.S. 90-96 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(f) A person who files a petition for expunction of a criminal record under this section must pay the clerk of superior court a fee of sixty-five dollars ($65.00) at the time the petition is filed. Fees collected under this subsection shall be deposited in the General Fund. This subsection does not apply to petitions filed by an indigent."

SECTION 7.6.(f) This section becomes effective October 1, 2002, and applies to petitions filed on or after that date.

SECTION 7.7.(a) G.S. 130A-5 is amended by adding the following new subdivision to read:

"(15) To establish a fee to cover the cost of analyzing clinical Pap smear specimens sent to the State Laboratory by local health departments and State-owned facilities and for reporting the results of the analysis. This fee shall be in addition to the charge for the Pap smear test kit."

SECTION 7.7.(b) This section is effective when it becomes law.

PART VIII. SECURE LOCAL REVENUES

SECTION 8.1. G.S. 105-113.82(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) Time. – The revenue shall be distributed to cities and counties within 60 days after March 31 of each year. The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 8.2. G.S. 105-116.1(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Distribution. – The Secretary must distribute to the cities part of the taxes collected under this Article on electric power companies. Each city's share for a calendar quarter is the percentage distribution amount for that city for that quarter minus one-fourth of the city's hold-back amount and one-fourth of the city's proportionate share of the annual cost to the Department of administering the distribution. The Secretary must make the distribution within 75 days after the end of each calendar quarter. The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 8.3. G.S. 105-187.44(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Distribution. – Within 75 days after the end of each calendar quarter, the Secretary must distribute to the cities part of the tax proceeds collected under this Article during that quarter. The amount to be distributed to a city is one-half of the amount of tax attributable to that city for that quarter under subsection (a) of this section. The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 8.4. G.S. 105-164.44F is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(f) Nature. – The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 8.5. G.S. 136-41.1 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(d) Nature. – The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 8.6. G.S. 143-25 reads as rewritten:

"§ 143-25. Maintenance appropriations dependent upon adequacy of revenues to support them.

(a) All maintenance appropriations now or hereafter made are hereby declared to be maximum, conditional and proportionate appropriations, the purpose being to make the appropriations payable in full in the amounts named herein if necessary and then only in the event the aggregate revenues collected and available during each fiscal year of the biennium for which such appropriations are made, are sufficient to pay all of the appropriations in full; otherwise, the said appropriations shall be deemed to be payable in such proportion as the total sum of all appropriations bears to the total amount of revenue available in each of said fiscal years. ~~The~~ Except as provided in subsection (b) of this section, the Director of the Budget is ~~hereby~~ given full power and authority to examine and survey the progress of the collection of the revenue out of which such appropriations are to be made, and to declare and determine the amounts that can be, during each quarter of each of the fiscal years of the biennium properly allocated to each respective appropriation. In making such examination and survey, ~~he~~ the Director of the Budget shall receive estimates of the prospective collection of revenues from the Secretary of Revenue and every other revenue collecting agency of the State. The Director of the Budget may reduce all of said appropriations pro rata when necessary to prevent an overdraft or deficit to the fiscal period for which such appropriations are made. The Governor may also reduce all of said appropriations pursuant to Article III, Section 5(3) of the Constitution in accordance with subsection (b) of this section, after consulting with the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations under G.S. 120-76(8) if prior consultation is required by that section. The purpose and policy of this Article are to provide and insure that there shall be no overdraft or deficit in the general fund of the State at the end of the fiscal period, growing out of appropriations for maintenance and the Director of the Budget is directed and required to so administer this Article as to prevent any such overdraft or deficit. Prior to taking any action under this section to reduce appropriations pro rata, the Governor may consult with the Advisory Budget Commission.

(b) The General Assembly recognizes that it has required units of local government to adopt and maintain annual balanced budgets and take other steps to assure financially sound operations under the Local Government Budget and Fiscal Control Act and other provisions of Chapter 159 of the General Statutes. Accordingly, the General Assembly finds that in order to satisfy those statutory requirements and provide adequate services to their citizens, units of local government must be able to rely on the funds and local revenue sources the General Assembly has provided.

It is the intent of the General Assembly that funds that have been collected by the State on behalf of local governments and funds that the General Assembly has appropriated or otherwise committed to local governments shall not be reduced except as provided in this section. In exercising the powers contained in Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution, the Governor shall not withhold from distribution funds that have been collected by the State on behalf of local governments or funds that the General Assembly has appropriated or otherwise committed to local governments unless, after making adequate provision for the prompt payment of principal of and interest on bonds and notes of the State according to their terms, the Governor has exhausted all other sources of revenue of the State including surplus remaining in the treasury at the beginning of the fiscal period.

This subsection does not authorize the Governor to withhold revenues from taxes levied by units of local governments and collected by the State. The General Assembly recognizes that under Section 19 of Article I of the North Carolina Constitution and under the Due Process Clause of the United States Constitution, the State is prohibited from taking local tax revenue."

SECTION 8.7. The provisions of this Part are severable. If any provision of this Part is held invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalidity does not affect other provisions of the Part that can be given effect without the invalid provision.

PART IX. EFFECTIVE DATE

SECTION 9. Except as otherwise provided, this act is effective when it becomes law. Notwithstanding G.S. 105-163.15 and G.S. 105-163.41, no addition to tax may be made under those statutes for a taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 2002, and before January 1, 2003, with respect to an underpayment of corporate or individual income tax to the extent the underpayment was created or increased by this act.

  - Conform to the increased estate tax limits in EGTRRA.
  - The bill does NOT conform to either the phase-out of the State estate death tax credit in EGTRRA or the accelerated depreciation provisions in the Economic Stimulus Bill.
- PART IV provides that local governments will bear a portion of the costs associated with the collection of the drug tax. These costs are currently borne entirely by the General Fund. Except for a correction to the effective date, this Part is identical to the Senate version.
- PART V sets the insurance regulatory fee at 6.5% for the 2002 calendar year. This rate is the same as the 2001 rate. This Part is identical to the Senate version.
- PART VI sets the public utility regulatory fee at 0.1% for the 2002-2003 fiscal year. It also sets the electric membership corporation regulatory fee at $200,000 for the 2002-03 fiscal year. These rates are the same as the rates established last year.
- PART VII is reserved.

- PART VIII seeks to secure local revenues in two ways, listed below. This Part is identical to House Bill 1490 as it passed the House. It is similar to the corresponding provision in the Senate version.[1]
  - It prohibits the Governor from withholding certain shared tax revenues by classifying them as "local revenues" rather than "State expenditures" thus arguably removing those funds from the scope of the Governor's constitutional budgetary authority.
  - It restricts the Governor's ability to withhold funds otherwise appropriated or committed to local governments, including reimbursement money, by requiring that the Governor first exhaust all other sources of revenue, including surplus in the treasury at the beginning of the fiscal period, and be authorized by an act of the General Assembly.
- PART IX closes three corporate tax loopholes, as described below. There is no corresponding provision in the Senate version.
  - Broadens the definition of "business income" to include all income that states can apportion for corporate income tax purposes under the U.S. Constitution, effective beginning with the 2002 tax year.
  - Provides that sales that no state has the right to tax are "thrown out" of the calculation of profits to apportioned among the states, thereby increasing the percentage apportioned to North Carolina for the purpose of corporate income taxation, effective beginning with the 2002 tax year.
  - Tightens the 2001 legislation that was intended to close a loophole that allows corporations to escape franchise tax by transferring assets to a controlled limited liability company, effective beginning with payments due in March 2003.
- PART X enlarges the class of taxpayers eligible for an enhanced credit for investing in low-income housing in a county that sustained severe or moderate damage from a hurricane in 1999. There is no corresponding provision in the Senate version.

PART I: [RESERVED]

PART II: DELAY 2001 TAX BREAKS

Last session, the General Assembly enacted two income tax breaks to become effective for 2002 tax year[2]: elimination of the marriage tax penalty[3] and an increased tax credit for children. Part II of this bill delays the enactment of these tax benefits.

---

[1] The Senate version lacks the conforming change to the electric cities statute, and lacks the extra requirement that the Governor needs General Assembly authorization before releasing any funds committed to local governments.
[2] S.L. 2001-424, as amended by S.L. 2001-476, 2001-497, and 2001-489.
[3] The so-called married tax penalty is the result of a tax system that recognizes that a married couple's living expenses are less than the expenses of two single people living separately but more than the expenses of one single person. In addition, if one spouse is not employed full-time, a married couple's income would be less than that of two comparable single people who work full-time, but more than that of one single person. The tax law addresses these situations through the tax brackets, the personal exemptions, and the standard deduction. The result of these tax provisions is that a married couple with only one spouse working experiences a tax reduction when they marry,

Last session, the General Assembly reduced North Carolina income taxes on married couples that claim the standard deduction[4] by increasing the amount of the standard deduction for married filers so that it would be twice that of a single taxpayer. Since 1989, the basic standard deduction for a single person in North Carolina has been $3,000 while that for a married couple filing jointly has been $5,000. The increase in the deduction enacted in 2001 is phased in over the 2002 and 2003 tax years. The standard deduction for married persons filing separately is one-half that for a married couple filing jointly, so the 2001 act also phased it up from $2,500 to $3,000 over the 2002 and 2003 tax years. Part II of this bill would delay by one year the phase-in of the increased deduction, so that it would occur over the 2003 and 2004 tax years.

In 2001, the General Assembly increased the $60 tax credit per child to $75 for the 2002 tax year and to $100 for the 2003 tax year. Part II of this bill would delay the phase-in of the credit increase until the 2003 and 2004 tax years. The 1995 General Assembly enacted the tax credit of $60 per child for taxpayers who have dependent children and have family adjusted gross income below $100,000 for a married couple and $80,000 for a head of household. Neither the 2001 act nor this bill changes the income thresholds. The credit is in addition to the federal and state tax credits or exclusions for child care expenses. The credit is allowed for each dependent child for whom the eligible taxpayer could take a federal personal exemption under section 151(c)(1)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code. That Code section allows an exemption for each dependent child who either is less than 19 years old at the end of the taxable year or is a student and is less than 24 years old at the end of the taxable year. A child is a son, stepson, daughter, or stepdaughter. A dependent child is a child over half of whose support was provided by the taxpayer.

PART III: UPDATE IRC REFERENCE

North Carolina's tax law tracks many provisions of the federal Internal Revenue Code, by reference to the Code.[5] The General Assembly determines each year whether to update its reference to the Internal Revenue Code.[6] Updating the Internal Revenue Code reference makes recent amendments to the Code applicable to the State to the extent that State law previously tracked federal law. The General Assembly's decision whether to conform to federal changes is based on the fiscal, practical, and policy implications of the federal changes and is normally enacted in the following year, rather than in the same year the federal changes are made.

a married couple where one spouse earns substantially more than the other experiences no tax reduction or increase when they marry, and a married couple with both spouses earning roughly the same amount experience a tax increase when they marry.

[4] Roughly 70% of North Carolina taxpayers claim the standard deduction.

[5] North Carolina first began referencing the Internal Revenue Code in 1967, the year it changed its taxation of corporate income to a percentage of federal taxable income.

[6] The North Carolina Constitution imposes an obstacle to a statute that automatically adopts any changes in federal tax law. Article V, Section 2(1) of the Constitution provides in pertinent part that the "power of taxation ... shall never be surrendered, suspended, or contracted away." Relying on this provision, the North Carolina court decisions on delegation of legislative power to administrative agencies, and an analysis of the few federal cases on this issue, the Attorney General's Office concluded in a memorandum issued in 1977 to the Director of the Tax Research Division of the Department of Revenue that a "statute which adopts by reference future amendments to the Internal Revenue Code would ... be invalidated as an unconstitutional delegation of legislative power."

Congress enacted two bills that have changed the Code significantly since January 1, 2001:

- The Economic Growth and Tax Relief Reconciliation Act of 2001 (EGTRRA), enacted on June 7, 2001, includes numerous changes to the taxation of pension benefits, accounts, distributions, and rollovers; of education initiatives; and of estates. All of the provisions of EGTRRA will expire on December 31, 2010, unless the provisions are renewed or modified by Congressional action.[7]
- The federal Job Creation and Worker Assistance Act of 2002, enacted March 9, 2002, includes an accelerated 30% bonus depreciation allowance for certain assets placed in service after September 10, 2001, and before September 11, 2004, and an extension of the carryback period for net operating losses occurring in tax years ending in 2001 and 2002 from two years to five years.

Both of these acts will substantially affect a taxpayer's federal taxable income. Since North Carolina begins its corporate and individual income tax calculations with federal taxable income, these acts also have a substantial impact on North Carolina's tax revenues to the extent the State chooses to conform to those changes.

Part III of this bill rewrites the definition of the Code to change the reference date from January 1, 2001, to May 1, 2002. It then provides that a taxpayer must add to federal taxable income the amount allowed as an accelerated depreciation deduction under section 168(k) or 1400L of the Code and that a taxpayer's estate tax liability is determined without regard to the phase-out of the state death tax credit. In effect, Part III would do the following:

- Conform to all of the pension tax changes in the Code.
- Conform to all of the education initiatives in the Code.
- Conform to the increased estate tax exemption limitations.
- Not conform to the phase-out of the state death tax credit.
- Conform to the extension of the carryback period for net operating losses occurring in tax years ending in 2001 and 2002.
- Delay the accelerated 30% bonus depreciation allowance.

Pension Tax Provisions: This Part conforms North Carolina's tax treatment of pension benefits and distributions to federal law. Some of the more notable changes EGTRRA made to the pension laws include:

- It allows taxpayers to contribute more to their tax-deferred retirement accounts. It gradually increases the amount that may be contributed to a 401(k), 403(b), and 457 accounts between 2002 and 2006. The contribution limit will increase to $15,000 in 2006. Starting in 2007, the limit will be indexed for inflation in $500 increments. It also allows persons who are 50 or older to make an additional catch-up contribution to their tax-deferred retirement accounts.
- It increases the amounts that may be contributed to both traditional IRAs and Roth IRAs from $2,000 in 2001 to $3,000 in 2002. This amount gradually increases to $5,000 for 2008. After 2008, this amount will be indexed annually for inflation. It also allows people over the age of 50 to make catch-up contributions to an IRA.

[7]The Congressional Budget Act of 1974 mandates this sunset provision.

- It modifies the distribution rules for governmental 457 plan participants so that their deferred compensation funds will be taxed when they receive the distribution, not when it is made available to them.
- It repeals the coordination of deferrals between 457 and other elective deferral plans. Under former law, the maximum deferral amount for a 457 plan was reduced dollar for dollar by any contribution made to other types of retirement plans. The tax law change means that a person may defer the maximum annual contribution limit to a 457 plan as well as the maximum amount in a 401(k) or 403(b) plan.
- It expands the types of eligible tax-free rollover distributions to include distributions from qualified plans, 403(b) annuities, and 457 plans to other such plans and distributions from IRAs to qualified plans, 403(b) annuities, and 457 plans.
- It allows a surviving spouse to roll over distributions from a deceased spouse's plan to his or her own plan. Prior to this change, the tax-free rollover had to be made to an IRA.

Education Tax Provisions: This Part conforms North Carolina tax law on education incentives to the federal changes enacted last year. The more notable tax changes affecting education incentives include:

- It increases the annual maximum contribution limit to an education IRA from $500 to $2,000 per beneficiary.
- It allows education IRAs dollars to be used to cover expenses of students in grade, middle, and high schools.
- It eases the restrictions and limitations when using an Education IRA with other education initiatives, such as the Hope or Lifetime Learning tax credit.
- It moves the annual contribution deadline for Education IRAs from December 31 to April 15 of the following year.
- It provides that distributions from Section 529 Plans will be income-tax free up to the amount that is used to pay qualified higher education expenses.[8] Under former law, participants enjoyed only the benefit of tax-deferred contributions and investment growth.
- It allows a person to transfer 529 plan credits from one program to another for the benefit of the same beneficiary without incurring a taxable event.
- It extends the deduction for employer-paid college expenses to include graduate courses.

Estate Tax Provisions: North Carolina repealed its inheritance tax in 1998, effective for deaths occurring on or after January 1, 1999. It replaced its inheritance tax with an estate tax that is equivalent to the federal state death tax credit allowed on a federal estate tax return. This type of state estate tax is known as a "pick-up" tax because it picks up for the state the amount of federal estate tax that would otherwise be paid to the federal government.[9] EGTRRA made two changes that affect the estate tax:

---

[8] North Carolina currently allows tax free distributions for North Carolina plans. Section 3.5 of the bill repeals the State deduction.

[9] As of July 1, 2001, 36 other states, plus the District of Columbia, impose only the "pick-up tax".

- It phases out the estate tax over the next eight years by increasing the exclusion amount from $675,000 in 2001 to $1 million in 2002-03, $1.5 million in 2004-05, $2 million in 2006-08, and $3.5 million in 2009. There is no need for an exemption amount after 2009 since the tax is repealed in 2010. However, the tax is scheduled to reapply in 2011 unless a future Congress makes the repeal permanent. If the tax were reinstated in 2011, the exclusion amount would be $1 million. This bill would conform North Carolina's exemption limits to the federal exemption limits to ensure that estates in North Carolina do not have to pay State tax if there is no federal tax due.
- It phases out the state death tax credit over the next four years by reducing it 25% in 2002, 50% in 2003, and 75% in 2004, and repealing it entirely in 2005. This bill does NOT conform to the phase out of the state death tax credit for two years.[10] Therefore, under this bill an estate of a decedent dying on or after January 1, 2002, and before January 1, 2004, would owe North Carolina estate tax to the same extent that it would be owed without regard to the phase-out of the credit. The January 1, 2004, sunset ensures that the State will have to revisit this issue next year.

Because North Carolina's estate tax is based upon the federal credit for state death taxes, the repeal of the state death tax credit in 2005 and the ultimate repeal of the federal estate tax in 2010 will mean that the State must decide whether to replace or repeal its estate tax in the future.

Accelerated Depreciation Provisions: Under the Job Creation and Worker Assistance Act of 2002, a taxpayer is allowed an accelerated 30% bonus depreciation allowance for certain assets placed in service after September 11, 2001, and before September 11, 2004. The taxpayer is still entitled to the normal first-year depreciation on the remaining basis of the asset after reducing the basis by the bonus depreciation. This provision affects both corporate and individual income taxpayers.

The change in federal law results in a taxpayer recovering the basis in the asset sooner than under former law; however, over the life of the asset the taxpayer still receives the same benefit. This bill does not conform State law to the accelerated depreciation schedule allowed under federal law.[11] However, under this bill a taxpayer will continue to be able to deduct the same amount of an asset's basis under both federal and State law; it is just that the timing of the [10] As of July 3, 2002 the following states have acted to decouple from the phase-out of the state death tax credit for some period of time or have introduced legislation to that effect: Connecticut, Illinois, Maine, Maryland, Minnesota, Nebraska, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Vermont, and Wisconsin. The following states will remain decoupled unless they take legislative action: Arkansas, District of Columbia, Kansas, New York, Oklahoma, Oregon, Virginia and Washington. (Source: Center on Budget and Policy Priorities)

[11] As of July 3, 2002, the following states have decoupled from a portion of the accelerated depreciation allowance as the result of explicit legislative action following enactment of the federal law or have introduced legislation to that effect: Arizona, Connecticut, District of Columbia, Georgia, Hawaii, Illinois, Iowa, Maryland, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri (for one year), Nebraska, New Jersey, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, Tennessee, Vermont (for corporate income tax filers only), Virginia, and Wisconsin. In addition, New York City has decoupled from the bonus depreciation allowance. Six other states are decoupled automatically under pre-existing tax law: Arkansas, Idaho, Kentucky, New Hampshire, South Dakota, and Texas. (Source: Center on Budget and Policy Priorities)

deduction will differ. To accomplish this decoupling from the federal accelerated bonus depreciation, the bill does two things:

- It provides that a taxpayer must add back to federal taxable income a percentage of the additional 30% accelerated depreciation in the year the accelerated depreciation is claimed for federal purposes.[12] The percentage is 100% for taxable years before 2004 and 80% for the 2004 taxable year. This add-back means that for State tax purposes, a taxpayer would deduct less in tax years 2001-2005 than it would have deducted if the State conformed to the accelerated depreciation law. The amount of the deduction will be the normal first year depreciation on the remaining basis of the asset after reducing the basis by the bonus depreciation amount allowed under federal law (plus, in 2004, 20% of the bonus deprecation).
- In tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2005, it provides that the taxpayer may deduct from federal taxable income the amount of the add-back, divided into five equal installments. This means that for State tax purposes, a taxpayer would be allowed to deduct a greater depreciation amount in the outlying tax years – the normal depreciation amount plus 20% of the accelerated depreciation amount the taxpayer had to add back. The purpose of this recovery provision is to enable the taxpayer to have the same basis in assets for federal and State purposes. Without this deduction provision, a taxpayer would have a different basis in the depreciable asset for State and federal purposes and would have to keep separate books and records for State and federal purposes until the disposal of the asset. In effect, the add-back and subsequent deduction will affect the timing of the impact of bonus depreciation on the State but it will not increase or decrease the amount of revenue the State receives over the affected years.

PART IV. UNAUTHORIZED SUBSTANCE TAX EXPENSES

Part IV of this bill would allocate to local governments 70% of the State's expenses in collecting the unauthorized substance tax. The expenses would be drawn from local sales tax revenues. Under current law, the following expenses are deducted from local sales tax distributions: costs of the Property Tax Division, costs of the Property Tax Commission, the costs of the Institute of Government in operating a training program in property tax appraisal and assessment, and the costs of the Local Government Commission.

The General Assembly first imposed the unauthorized substances tax in 1989 to generate revenue for State and local law enforcement agencies and for the General Fund. Seventy-five percent of the tax collected is distributed to the State or local law enforcement agency that conducted the investigation that led to the tax assessment. The remaining 25% is credited to the General Fund. This bill does not change this revenue allocation.

PART V. INSURANCE REGULATORY CHARGE

[12] For tax years beginning before October 1, 2001, the add-back must be taken in the first taxable year beginning on or after October 1, 2001, so that the taxpayer will not recognize any retroactive tax increase.

Part V of this bill sets the insurance regulatory charge at the same rate as last year's rate: 6.5% for the 2002 calendar year. The insurance regulatory charge is a tax that was enacted in 1991 to defray the State's cost of regulating the insurance industry. The charge is a percentage of each insurance company's premiums tax liability. The insurance regulatory charge is imposed on insurance companies, health maintenance organizations, and medical service corporations. For health maintenance organizations and medical service corporations, the fee is levied on each company's hypothetical gross premiums tax liability determined at the 1.9% gross premiums tax rate applied to its premiums base. The hypothetical calculation is necessary because medical service corporations and health maintenance organizations do not pay premiums tax at that rate.

PART VI. REGULATORY FEE FOR UTILITIES COMMISSION

Part VI of the bill sets the tax rate for the public utility regulatory fee for the 2002-2003 tax year at the same rate as last year's rate: 0.1%. This rate must be set by the General Assembly each year. The utility regulatory fee is a tax that was first imposed in 1989. The proceeds of the fee are credited to the Utilities Commission and Public Staff Fund and used to defray the State's cost in regulating public utilities. The regulatory fee is imposed on all utilities that are subject to regulation by the North Carolina Utilities Commission. The fee is a percentage of the utility's North Carolina jurisdictional revenues. In general, jurisdictional revenue is revenue derived from providing utility service in North Carolina.

In addition to funding the State's cost in regulating public utilities, the money in the Utilities Commission and Public Staff Fund is currently used to finance the work of the Study Commission on the Future of Electric Service in North Carolina. The General Assembly established the Commission in 1997 to examine the cost, adequacy, availability, and pricing of electric rates and service in North Carolina to determine whether legislation is necessary to assure an adequate and reliable source of electricity and economical, fair, and equitable rates for all consumers of electricity in North Carolina. Section 14.10 of SL 2000-67, the Current Operations and Capital Improvements Appropriations Act of 2000, extended the life of the Study Commission and its funding from the Utilities Commission and Public Staff Fund through June 30, 2006.

Part VI also sets at $200,000 for the 2002-2003 fiscal year the annual public utility regulatory fee imposed on electric membership corporations whose principal purpose is to furnish or cause to be furnished bulk electric supplies at wholesale. This is the same rate that was in effect for the 2001-2002 fiscal year. The North Carolina Electric Membership Corporation is the only electric membership corporation that fits this description. The proceeds of the fee are credited to the Utilities Commission and Public Staff Fund and used to defray the State's cost in regulating electric membership corporations.

The 1999 General Assembly enacted S.L. 1999-180, which authorized electric membership corporations to form subsidiary corporations that may provide energy services and products, telecommunications services and products, and water and wastewater collection and treatment. The subsidiaries must fully compensate the electric membership corporation for its use of the corporation's personnel, services, equipment, and property. The Utilities Commission is charged with regulating this aspect of the subsidiary's business and, to pay for this regulation, S.L. 1999-180 levied a flat-rate regulatory fee to be paid annually by the North Carolina Electric Membership Corporation. The General Assembly must establish the fee amount each year. The North Carolina Electric Membership Corporation is the only electric membership corporation whose principal purpose is to furnish or cause to be furnished bulk electric supplies at wholesale, as provided in G.S. 117-16. It is a "generation and supply cooperative" owned by its members. Its members are all but one of the existing North Carolina electric membership corporations, which are "distribution cooperatives." Thus, the fee imposed on the North Carolina Electric Membership Corporation will be passed on to its member electric membership corporations.

PART VII: [RESERVED]

PART VIII: SECURE LOCAL REVENUES

Sections 8.1 through 8.6 of the bill amend the following tax-sharing statutes by characterizing the revenue distributed by those statutes as distributions of "local revenue" rather than "State expenditures" for purposes of interpreting Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution:

- Section 8.1 - Beer and wine tax.
- Section 8.2 - Franchise gross receipts tax.
- Section 8.3 - Piped natural gas tax.
- Section 8.4 - Sales tax on telecommunications.
- Section 8.5 - Powell Bill funds.
- Section 8.6 - Electric cities distribution

Arguably, since the Constitution authorizes the Governor to reduce only "State expenditures," the classification of these state-shared tax revenues as "local revenues" prohibits the Governor from reducing or withholding the distributions. Moreover, the bill expressly states that the Governor may not reduce or withhold these distributions.

Section 8.7 of the bill amends the Executive Budget Act by limiting the Governor's authority to withhold from distribution funds that the General Assembly has appropriated or otherwise committed to local governments, including local reimbursement money. The Governor may withhold these funds only if, after making adequate provision for the prompt payment of principal of and interest on bonds and notes of the State, the Governor has exhausted all other sources of revenue of the State including surplus remaining in the treasury at the beginning of the fiscal period. In addition, the Governor must have been authorized to withhold the funds by an act of the General Assembly.

Based on the current information available, including a recent Attorney General's opinion, it is unclear whether amending the above-referenced statutes would be effective in preventing the Governor from withholding these funds from local governments. If the Governor withheld the funds despite the enactment of this legislation, enforcement of this limitation on the Governor's authority may have to be resolved by a court. The surest way to secure local revenues would be to pass a constitutional amendment prohibiting the Governor from withholding these funds.

PART IX: CLOSE CORPORATE TAX LOOPHOLES

This Part closes three corporate tax loopholes that allow some corporate profits to escape taxation and give corporate tax planners an opportunity to avoid existing taxes on corporate income and assets. The first loophole is caused by the definition of business income used in the corporate income tax law; the second loophole is caused by the treatment of certain sales in the formula for apportioning business income to the State for corporate income tax purposes; and the third loophole is caused by the different franchise tax treatment of corporations and limited liability companies.

Definition of Business Income: Section 9.1 of this Part amends the definition of "business income" to include all income that is apportionable under the U.S. Constitution, effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002.

Corporations that do business in more than one state divide up their income among those states for income-tax purposes. Business income is apportioned based on a formula that takes into account how much sales, property, and payroll the corporation has in each state. Nonbusiness income is allocated to a state based on its connection with that state. In the most basic terms, nonbusiness income could be described as income that is earned in an unrelated sideline activity of the corporation.

As an analogy, each interstate corporation's income is in two "pies" - a business income pie that is divided up among the states in which it does business, and a nonbusiness income pie that is given entirely to the state it is connected to.

In an ideal system, all states would follow the same rules for dividing up interstate corporations' income for tax purposes, so that no more and no less than 100% of every corporation's net income would be subjected to state income tax. However, different states have different laws and even when the laws are the same, they may be interpreted differently. In theory, this can result in the taxation of more than 100%, as well as less than 100%, of a corporation's net income. In practice, corporate tax planners take the opportunity to create "nowhere" income - income that no state can tax. Instead of each state receiving its piece of the business income pie, some pieces are thrown away. Thus, although a corporation may do substantial business in North Carolina, much of its otherwise taxable business income may be characterized as nonbusiness, so that North Carolina gets no piece of it.

These tax avoidance schemes are possible not only because different states have different laws, but also because states such as North Carolina have laws that are vague or too narrow. In North Carolina, income is business income if it relates to the regular trade or business of the taxpayer. This definition is vague and narrower than what is allowed under the United States Constitution. If North Carolina is entitled to tax a significant percentage of a corporation's business income, the corporation may try to shift much of its income into the nonbusiness pie, which North Carolina does not share in. This may be true even though the corporation has deducted as a business expense the same items that it now claims are not business items when the time comes to pay tax on profits. Recent court decisions in North Carolina have upheld this tax avoidance technique. Examples of the types of business income that corporations most often recharacterize are rents, royalties, gain or loss from the sale of property, interest, and dividends.

This proposal would change the definition of business income to include any income that the United States Constitution allows a state to treat as business income. This eliminates the current statute's vagueness and narrowness, which allow it to be used by corporations to create "nowhere" income that should otherwise be taxable in North Carolina. One effect of this change will be to include income from extraordinary events, such as a liquidation of a division, in apportionable income, consistent with the Department of Revenue's historical position, as illustrated by its administrative rules, before the North Carolina Supreme Court's decision in Lenox v. Tolson. A corporation's income earned out of state from unrelated business activity that makes up a discrete business enterprise would continue to be nonbusiness income that cannot be apportioned - it would continue to be allocated to the state to which it is connected.[13]

26 states including North Carolina use the vague, unnecessarily narrow definition of business income.

18 states have a broader definition of business income:

- 5 states have the law proposed in Section 9.1 of the bill (define business income as all that the U.S. Constitution allows state to apportion):
    1. Florida
    2. Iowa
    3. Minnesota
    4. Pennsylvania
    5. Texas
- 13 states apportion all corporate income. These states' approach would gain less revenue than the proposal in Section 9.1 because it would relinquish the right to tax true nonbusiness income of North Carolina-headquartered businesses. The 13 states include:
    1. Georgia
    2. South Carolina
    3. Virginia

In 1996, an economist with the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston published a study of the effect of state tax policy on economic development. The study looked at various manufacturing industries in 22 states - including most major manufacturing states - and found no statistically significant correlation between business tax burdens and the location of new investment.

[13] Several examples of the effect of this proposal are at the end of this summary.

Throw-out Rule for Corporate Apportionment: Section 9.2 of Part IX would exclude certain out-of-state sales from the base of the sales factor used to apportion business income to North Carolina, effective beginning with the 2002 tax year.

Like the previous provision, this proposal would bring under North Carolina's corporate income tax a part of a corporation's "nowhere" income that is currently not being taxed by any state. Under current law, the formula for determining how much of the business income pie goes to North Carolina focuses on sales, payroll, and property in North Carolina. The sales factor is a ratio of sales in North Carolina to all sales everywhere. Sales are considered to be "in" the state where the purchaser receives the item. Under the sales factor formula, the more sales a corporation has that are not in North Carolina, the smaller the sales factor used to calculate North Carolina's piece of the business income pie - because the formula assumes those sales will go into another state's piece of the business income pie.

But some sales don't go into any state's piece of the pie. That may be because they are made in a state that cannot tax the corporation or because they are made to the federal government and so one cannot tell which state they are made in. Without the throw-out rule (or a similar rule called the throw-back rule), 50% to 100% of the profits of a state's corporations may be "no where" income, according to a 2002 article published by Michael Mazerov of the Center on Budget and Policy Priorities.

Under Section 9.2 of the bill, "nowhere" sales (sales where the purchaser is the federal government or is located in a state that cannot tax the corporation or a country that does not tax the income) are excluded from the sales factor formula so that they do not reduce the ratio that determines how much of a corporation's business income North Carolina can tax. Thus, if another state cannot consider the sales in calculating its piece of the pie, they will not escape tax entirely - instead, there will be an increase in North Carolina's piece of the pie. If every state adopted the throw-out rule, then 100% of a corporation's interstate income would be taxed - there would be no "nowhere" income.

Here is an example of the throw-out rule. Corporation X has 20% of its sales in North Carolina, 20% of its sales in Virginia, and 60% of its sales in Tennessee. The corporation has no nexus with Virginia so Virginia cannot tax its income. Tennessee, like North Carolina current law, has no throw-out or throwback rule. Under current law, the sales factor for North Carolina would be 20% divided by 100%, or 1/5. The sales factor for Tennessee would be 60% divided by 100%, or 3/5. There is no sales factor for Virginia. Thus, the sales factors for North Carolina and Tennessee add up to only 4/5 of the company's sales. As a result, less than 100% of the company's business income will be apportioned to those states for taxation. If North Carolina adopted the throw-out rule, the 20% of sales to Virginia are subtracted from the denominator of the sales factor. Thus, North Carolina's sales factor would be 20% divided by 80%, or 1/4. Because 1/4 is more than 1/5, a larger proportion of the corporation's income would be allocated to North Carolina. If Tennessee also adopted the throw-out rule, its sales factor would be 60% divided by 80%, or 3/4. Thus, the sales factors for the two states would add up to 100% and all of the corporation's sales would be considered in apportioning its business income between the two states.

The throw-out rule and its sibling, the throwback rule, are not new. They predate the 1959 federal law limiting a state's ability to impose corporate income tax on corporations whose only connection with the state is soliciting orders there. The following information on states that do and do not have the throw-out rule or the throwback rule comes from Michael Mazerov of the Center on Budget and Policy Priorities. After the name of each state is listed the percent increase or decrease of manufacturing jobs in that state during the period 1995-2000. For that period, NC's manufacturing jobs decreased 9.5%.

21 States, including North Carolina, do NOT have a throw-out or throwback rule. These states include:

State	Job Loss or Gain
• Florida	0.0%
• Georgia	+0.1%
• South Carolina	-8.0%
• Tennessee	-5.7%
• Virginia	-3.5%

The following 25 States HAVE the throw-out or throwback rule. [14] (The underlined states have the throw-out rule.)

State	Job Loss or Gain
• Alabama	-7.9%
• Alaska	-18.3%
• Arkansas	-3.1%
• California	+8.4%
• Colorado	+6.7%
• Hawaii	+1.2%
• Idaho	+8.2%
• Illinois	-1.8%
• Indiana	+0.6%
• Kansas	+9.8%
• Maine	-6.5%
• Mississippi	-9.3%
• Missouri	-4.1%
• Montana	+6.0%
• New Hampshire	+3.0%

[14] Washington, D.C. also has the throwback rule, bringing the total to 26. In addition, Massachusetts technically has the throwback rule but Mazerov points out that its rule is full of loopholes so that it is not effective.

- New Jersey[15] -7.4%
- New Mexico -5.1%
- North Dakota +17.4%
- Oklahoma +6.7%
- Oregon +6.0%
- Texas +5.2%
- Utah +5.6%
- Vermont +8.4%
- West Virginia -2.1%
- Wisconsin +2.5%

According to Mazerov, this information shows that states with the throw-out and throwback rules (and the royalty loophole closing North Carolina enacted last year) are disproportionately represented among states with net manufacturing gains.

LLC Franchise Tax: In 2001, the General Assembly enacted S.L. 2001-327 to close a loophole that allowed corporations to avoid franchise tax on their assets by transferring their assets to a controlled limited liability company (LLC). Corporations pay franchise tax on their assets but LLCs do not pay franchise tax on their assets. Tax planners helped many corporations avoid most of the franchise tax they would otherwise owe by setting up an LLC for the purpose of holding the assets on behalf of the corporation. Although the corporation's business continued in the same way, the corporation eliminated most of its franchise tax through this paper transaction.

The 2001 legislation tried to address this problem by requiring a corporation to pay tax on assets owned by the LLC if the corporation, including its affiliated corporations, indirectly owned[16] at least 70% of the LLC's assets. Unfortunately, tax planners found that the tax could still be avoided by using an additional paper transaction. If the corporation interposed a partnership between itself and the LLC holding its assets, then technically the 2001 legislation would not apply and the assets would continue to escape franchise tax.

Section 9.3 of this Part broadens the approach of the 2001 legislation to include "related members" (other entities and individuals) who may partner with one or more corporate entities to own the LLC to which the corporate assets are transferred. This section would become effective beginning with payments due in March 2003. "Related members" is a term defined in the "trademark royalties" provision of last year's loophole bill and includes shareholders, partnerships, etc.

If a corporation and its related members together indirectly own at least 70% of an LLC's assets, this Part provides that each corporation pays franchise tax on its relative share of the LLC's assets. The relative share is calculated after excluding those related members who are not corporations. Thus, the entire assets are subject to franchise tax, with the tax burden shared proportionally by the corporations that are involved in the ownership scheme. The language of the bill accomplishes this by stating that the following percentage of the LLC's assets are taxable to the corporation: "The attributable percentage is equal to the percentage of the limited liability company's assets owned indirectly by the principal corporation divided by the percentage of the limited liability company's assets owned indirectly by related members of the principal corporation that are corporations."

[15] New Jersey just enacted the throwback rule in 2002.

[16] Indirect ownership of an LLC's assets is determined based on who is entitled to receive those assets upon dissolution of the LLC.

Here is an example:

A parent corporation, its subsidiary, and a major shareholder of the parent form a partnership to own an LLC that will own assets on behalf of the parent and subsidiary. The LLC's documents provide that upon dissolution its assets are distributed as follows:

- Parent Corporation: 20%
- Subsidiary Corporation: 45%
- Shareholder: 35%

Under current law, the assets would remain free of franchise tax. If this Part were enacted, the parent corporation would pay franchise tax on 31% of the assets and the subsidiary corporation would pay franchise tax on 69% of the assets. Those are their relative shares of the total once you exclude the non-corporate owner.

The approach taken by this Part is much broader than the 2001 legislation and is intended to anticipate the creative paper relationships tax planners may devise to try and avoid the franchise tax. The breadth of the provision is such that it could apply to a "legitimate" situation, such as an individual who is the sole shareholder of a corporation and who later forms an LLC with an associate. Under this proposal, the corporation would pay tax on the LLC's assets. Unfortunately, there does not appear to be a way to distinguish this type of situation from one in which the corporation is manipulating relationships to avoid its franchise tax. With different tax treatment of similar entities, tax planners can try to manipulate relationships to fall into the untaxed category. Because corporations and LLCs are similar, there may not be a strong policy reason to treat them differently for franchise tax purposes.

PART X: HOUSING TAX CREDIT EFFECTIVE DATE CHANGE

Part X of this bill enlarges the class of taxpayers eligible for an enhanced credit for investing in low-income housing in a county that sustained severe or moderate damage from a hurricane in 1999. In 1999, the General Assembly enacted a new tax credit for rehabilitating or constructing low-income housing. The credit is equal to a percentage of the amount of the taxpayer's federal credit for low-income housing with respect to eligible North Carolina low-income housing. The credit is 75% for buildings located in tier one or two counties and 25% for buildings located in other tiers. In 2000, the General Assembly enacted legislation providing that the 75% credit is also allowed for buildings located in one of 26 counties that sustained severe or moderate damage from a hurricane in 1999. This increase in the amount of the credit was made effective for buildings that are allocated a federal credit on or after January 1, 2001. The federal tax credits are allocated in December of each year. Thus, those taxpayers who made investments in hurricane counties and were allocated federal credits in December 2000 are not eligible for the enhanced State credit. This act would backdate the effective date for eligibility for the enhanced State credit to from 2001 to 2000, thereby including those who were allocated federal credits for investments in hurricane counties during 2000.

EXAMPLES RELATING TO THE DEFINITION OF "BUSINESS INCOME" IN SECTION 9.1.

Investment in an unrelated corporation. Corporation A is a manufacturer domiciled in State 1 and has business operations in States 1 and 2 and in North Carolina. Corporation A buys stock in Corporation B. Corporation A and Corporation B are not involved in the same industry and the stock is held for investment purposes only. Corporation A does not actively participate in the management of Corporation B and does not integrate operations with Corporation B. Corporation A recognizes no economies of scale due to its ownership interest in Corporation B. Corporation A and B are not unitary. Corporation A sells the Corporation B stock and recognizes a capital gain. Under this bill, the capital gain is not apportionable to North Carolina. (See: Allied Signal, Inc. v. Director, Division of Taxation, 504 U.S. 768, 112 S.Ct. 2251, 119 L.Ed.2d 533 (1992).) This income would also be nonapportionable, non-business income under current North Carolina law.

Reversion of excess pension funds. Corporation A is a manufacturer domiciled in State 1 and has business operations in States 1 and 2 and in North Carolina. Corporation A has made contributions to a defined-benefit employee pension plan for a number of years and has deducted these contributions from business income. The plan is found to be over-funded and a reversion of excess pension funds is allowed. The reverted funds are ordinary income for federal tax purposes. Under current North Carolina law, because the reversion is not a transaction that takes place in the regular course of business and because the right to a reversion is not an integral part of the corporation's regular course of business, the reverted funds are treated as non-business income and would not be subject to apportionment. (See: Union Carbide v. Offerman, 351 N.C. 310, 526 S.E.2d 167 (2000).) Under this bill, the reversion would be income subject to apportionment because it is income derived from a unitary business.

Liquidation of wholly-owned subsidiaries. Corporation X is a manufacturer domiciled in State 1 and has business operations in States 1 and 2 and in North Carolina. Corporations A, B, and C are wholly owned subsidiaries of Corporation X. Corporations A, B, and C are domiciled in State 1 and have no business operations in North Carolina. Corporation X liquidates Corporations A, B, and C and immediately distributes the proceeds of the liquidations to Corporation X's shareholders. Corporation X recognizes a capital gain from the liquidations.

Liquidation of Corporation A - There is centralized management between Corporations X and A and their operations are functionally integrated. Corporations X and A therefore constitute a unitary business, part of which is conducted in North Carolina. Under this bill, the proceeds of the liquidation of Corporation A would be subject to apportionment.

Liquidation of Corporation B - Corporations X and B are engaged in the same general line of business. Corporation B supplies Corporation X with the majority of a product used in Corporation X's manufacturing operations. Corporation B therefore performs an operational function in Corporation X's business. Under this bill, the proceeds of the liquidation of Corporation B would be subject to apportionment.

Liquidation of Corporation C - There is no centralized management, functional integration, or economies of scale between Corporations X and C, and Corporation C performs no operational function in Corporation X's business. Corporation C is not part of Corporation X's unitary business. Under this bill, the proceeds of the liquidation would not be subject to apportionment.

(Note: This bill removes the confusion under current law created by the decision in Lenox v. Tolson regarding the apportionability of income from the liquidation of an operating division or subsidiary. In Lenox v. Tolson, the Court found that the liquidation of a separate line of business was not a transaction in Lenox's regular course of business and was not a disposition of property integral to Lenox's regular trade or business. The Court held that the proceeds were therefore nonbusiness income and not apportionable. The Court, however, failed to analyze whether the acquisition or management of the property constituted integral parts of the corporation's regular trade or business, an analysis required under the actual language of the statute, the Department's administrative rules, and the Court's prior decision in Polaroid v. Offerman. As the dissent in Lenox points out, the property of ArtCarved was an integral part of Lenox's regular trade or business and the proceeds from the liquidation of this property should therefore have been apportionable business income under previous opinions of the Court.)

Receipt of dividends from wholly-owned subsidiaries. Corporation A is a retailer domiciled in State 1 and has business operations in States 1 and 2 and in North Carolina. Corporations B, C, and D are wholly owned subsidiaries of Corporation A. Corporations B, C, and D are engaged in retailing in foreign countries. Corporation A has no functional integration and no centralized management with Corporations B, C, and D. Corporation A realizes no economies of scale due to its ownership of Corporations B, C, and D. Corporations B, C, and D are therefore not part of a unitary business with Corporation A. Corporations B, C, and D perform no operational function in Corporation A's business. Corporation A receives dividends from Corporations B, C, and D. Therefore, under this bill, as well as under current North Carolina law, this income would not be apportionable. (See: F.W. Woolworth Co. v. Taxation and Revenue Dept. of NM, 458 U.S. 354, 102 S.Ct. 3128, 73 L.Ed.2d 819 (1982).)

All other sections are effective when they become law.

BILL SUMMARY:

Parts I and VII of the bill are reserved.

Part II of the bill delays two tax breaks authorized in 2001. Section 2.1(a) delays the increase from $5000 to $5500 in the standard deduction for married filing jointly from tax year 2002 to 2003. Section 2.1(b) delays the increase from $5500 to $6000 in the same deduction from tax year 2003 to 2004. Section 2.2(a) delays the increase in the child tax credit from $60 to $75 from tax year 2002 to 2003. Section 2.2(b) delays the increase in the child tax credit from $75 to $100 from tax year 2003 to 2004.

Part III of the bill updates state statutory references to the Internal Revenue Code from January 1, 2001, to May 1, 2002, with exceptions for accelerated depreciation and the estate tax credit. This action would conform state tax laws to federal tax changes made in the Economic Growth and Tax Relief Reconciliation Act of 2001 and the Job Creation and Worker Assistance Act of 2002.

Under current law, North Carolina conforms to the federal estate tax in effect as of January 1, 2001. Thus, our pickup tax does not automatically tie into the 2001 federal changes. The estate tax language in this bill, coupled with the Internal Revenue Code conformity update provisions, would link North Carolina to the effect of the higher federal credits on the pickup tax but not to the phase-out of the death tax credit. The practical effect of the language in the bill is to ensure that with respect to the phased up federal credit for state death taxes, estates in North Carolina do not have to pay state tax if there is no federal tax due.

In the bonus depreciation conformity section of the bill, an add-back equal to 100% of bonus depreciation for the 2001-2003 tax year and 80% for 2004 is included in taxable income. The add-back is then offset by a subtraction from income starting with the 2005 tax year. This subtraction takes place in installments over a 5-year period.

Part IV allows the Department of Revenue to deduct 70% of the cost of the Unauthorized Substance Tax Division from the sales and use tax proceeds distributed to local governments.

Part V of the bill addresses the annual establishment of the insurance regulatory fee. Section 5(a) sets the insurance regulatory charge at 6.5%. The rate remains the same as in the previous year.

Part VI, Section 6(a) sets the regulatory fee rate for the Public Utilities Commission at 0.1%. This rate must be set annually and is the same as the previous year. Section 6(b) sets the regulatory fee for the electric membership corporations at a flat $200,000. This fee has remained the same since it was first imposed in 1999.

PART VIII attempts to limit the Governor's ability to withhold the local portion of revenues shared with cities and counties by declaring these funds local revenue. Specifically

Section 8.1 addresses beer and wine taxes, while Section 8.2 discusses the franchise tax on electricity. Section 8.3 considers the tax on piped natural gas. Section 8.4 addresses the tax on telecommunications. Section 8.5 considers the Highway Fund and Highway Trust Funds allocated as Powell Bill funds. Section 8.6 addresses the distribution to electric cities. Section 8.7 adds intent language to clarify that the funds committed or appropriated by the legislature for local governments shall not be reduced unless the governor has exhausted all other sources of revenue for the state. It also states that the Governor must be authorized by the legislature to withhold these funds.

Part IX makes the following corporate tax changes:
BUSINESS INCOME. Sec. 9.1 of the bill expands the definition of "business income" to include all of the income that may be apportioned under the U.S. Constitution. The practical effect of the provision is to include in the North Carolina income tax base more income from irregular events, such as the sale of a subsidiary.

THROWOUT RULE. For most multistate corporations, nationwide taxable income is apportioned among the states based on a three-factor formula that compares payroll in a state, property in the state, and sales within the state to the national totals for each of the respective factors. Thus, the sales factor would divide sales within North Carolina (numerator) by total national sales (denominator). Section 9.2 of the bill modifies the sales factor by taking out sales to the U.S. government from both the numerator and denominator and adding to the denominator "sales that are in a state in which the taxpayer is not taxable" during the tax year. In addition, the denominator would not include sales that are in a foreign country when that country does not subject the taxpayer to a tax on, or measured by, profits or income.

LLC FRANCHISE TAX. Legislation adopted by the 2001 General Assembly attempted to close a loophole that allowed corporations to avoid the state franchise tax by transferring potentially taxable assets to a controlled limited liability company (LLC). This occurs because LLCs do not pay franchise tax on their assets. The 2001 legislation tried to address this problem by requiring a corporation to pay tax on assets owned by the LLC if the corporation, including its affiliated corporations, indirectly owned[1] at least 70% of the LLC's assets. However, if the corporation interposed a partnership between it and the LLC holding its assets, then the 2001 change would not apply and the assets would continue to escape taxation.

Sec. 9.3 of the bill broadens the 2001 legislation to include "related members" (other entities and individuals) who may form a partnership with one or more corporate entities to own the LLC to which the corporate assets are transferred. "Related members" includes shareholders, partnerships, etc. If a corporation and its related members together indirectly own at least 70% of an LLC's assets, the bill provides that each corporation pays franchise tax on its relative share of the LLC's assets. The relative share is calculated after excluding those related members who are not corporations.

Part X backdates the effective date from 2001 to 2000 for enhanced low income housing tax credits for projects located in counties damaged by Hurricane Floyd.

---

[1] Indirect ownership of an LLC's assets is determined based on who is entitled to receive those assets upon dissolution of the LLC.

ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGY:

PART II: DELAY 2001 TAX BREAKS

STANDARD DEDUCTION – MARRIAGE TAX PENALTY

The term "marriage penalty" refers to the income tax situation where married individuals filing jointly pay more in tax than if the two individuals were unmarried filing as single persons. For example, the North Carolina standard deduction for single filers is $3,000, but for married filing jointly the standard deduction is $5,000. The personal exemption also favors single filers. For single filers, the personal exemption is $2,500 until you get to a maximum Adjusted Gross Income (AGI) of $60,000 where it drops to $2,000. For married filing jointly, the personal exemption is $2,500 up to $100,000 AGI, then drops to $2,000. State tax brackets also favor single filers as shown below:

Single	0 to $12,750	$12,751 to $60,000	$60,000>
Married filing jointly	0 to $21,250	$21,251 to $100,000	$100,000>

The 2001 General Assembly reduced the marriage penalty by increasing the standard deduction for married filing jointly taxpayers from $5,000 to $6,000. The standard deduction was increased to $5,500 in tax year 2002 and then to $6,000 in tax year 2003. The FY 2001-02 reduction in General Fund revenue was projected to be $9.7 million due to estimated payments and withholding by 762,340 couples in the first half of tax year 2002. The estimated loss for the following fiscal years is shown below.

FY 2001-02	-$9.7 mil.
FY 2002-03	-$32.0 mil.
FY 2003-04	-$45.0 mil.
FY 2004-05	-$45.8 mil.
FY 2005-06	-$46.5 mil.

Section 2.1(a) delays the first $500 increase in the standard deduction to tax year 2003 and Section 2.1(b) delays the additional $500 standard deduction increase to 2004. Since the original fiscal estimate assumed income tax withholding in tax year 2002 (second half of FY 01-02 and first half of FY 02-03), a delay in the standard deduction increase will result in a General Fund revenue gain from increased tax liability on 2002 tax returns. However, not all of the $41.7 million shown in the first two years of the chart will be regained by the General Fund next fiscal year. The 2003 effective date for the standard deduction increase means married filing jointly taxpayers can change their income tax withholding in the first half of 2003 and reduce their tax payments by $9.8 million. The net gain from this delay from 2002 to 2003 is $31.9 million ($41.7 million minus $9.8 million). For the $6000 standard deduction delayed until 2004, the estimated revenue loss is $32.4 million in FY 2003-04. Since the original estimate for FY 2003-04 was $45 million, the General Fund will gain $12.6 million that year.

Note: All revenue estimates for the standard deductions were calculated using the North Carolina Individual Income Tax Model. This tax model was created by the Barents Group for the Department of Revenue and the General Assembly for use in estimating tax law changes. The model bases future year estimates on data from 1998 North Carolina individual income tax returns.

INCREASE TAX CREDIT FOR CHILDREN

The current $60 child tax credit was approved by the 1995 General Assembly. The 2001 General Assembly increased the child credit from $60 to $75 per child in tax year 2002 and from $75 to $100 in tax year 2003. The first increase will reduce General Fund revenue $19.8 million in FY 2002-03 for taxpayers filing returns in the spring of 2003. The second year increase will boost the revenue loss to $54.8 million in FY 2003-04. This tax change will benefit 18,354 single tax filers, 496,286 married couples, and 411,648 heads of households in tax year 2002. This revenue estimate was calculated using the North Carolina Individual Income Tax Model.

Section 2.2(a) delays the first $15 increase in the tax credit from 2002 to 2003 and Section 2.2(b) delays the second $25 increase from 2003 to 2004. The delay will eliminate the $19.8 million General Fund loss for FY 2002-03 and result in a General Fund revenue gain of an equal amount. There is a revenue gain of $34.9 million in FY 2003-04 because the $75 credit in 2003 has a $19.9 million revenue loss versus the $54.8 million loss for the now scheduled $100 credit.

PART III: UPDATE IRC REFERENCE

CONFORMITY

Section 3.1 changes the state tax law reference to the Internal Revenue Code from January 1, 2001, to May 1, 2002. Since North Carolina individual and corporate income tax law tracks the federal income tax law, it is necessary each year to update state statutory references to the Internal Revenue Code (IRC). Congress enacted two major bills in calendar years 2001 and 2002 that have a negative revenue impact on the state General Fund.

The Economic Growth and Tax Relief Reconciliation Act of 2001 (EGTRRA) included numerous provisions that impact North Carolina individual and corporate income tax. This bill conforms the state to the education provisions in the bill that affect education IRAs, Qualified Tuition Plans, deduction for higher education expenses, interest from student loans, and employer provided assistance. The bill conforms to the pension provisions in the act that affect IRA contribution limits, deferred comp plan deferral limits, and plan portability. The bill accepts changes in the phase out of itemized deductions and personal exemptions beginning in 2006. However, the bill does not conform to the estate tax changes in the act.

The state will conform to the Job Creation and Worker Assistance Act of 2002 except for the accelerated depreciation rules. Included in the bill were changes to net operating losses, the extension of expiring tax provisions, and a new above the line $250 deduction for teachers' classroom expenses.

The estimate of the state's revenue gain or loss from the federal changes is based on the fiscal analysis of the Congressional Joint Committee on Taxation. The federal analysis includes the effects of certain behavioral responses to tax proposals, including shifts between nontaxable and taxable sources of income, changes in amounts of charitable giving, and changes in the timing of realization of some sources of income. To derive an estimate for North Carolina for individual income tax changes, the federal income tax receipts for the U.S. were compared to the North Carolina General Fund income tax receipts for the July 2000 to July 1 2001 period (with adjustments for earmarks and refunds). The resulting percentage was .735%. For corporate income tax, a .59% rate was derived using the 1997 US Economic Census on Manufacturing.

The state revenue impact from conforming to the two federal bills is as follows:

ACCELERATED DEPRECIATION

The first step in the analysis of Sections 3.2 and 3.3 was a simulation of the impact of the 30% bonus depreciation and the add-back on individual projects. A project size of $10 million was selected, although the analysis is the same regardless of the magnitude of the investment. Bonus depreciation is eligible for projects with a class life of up to 20 years. Thus, the following classes of asset lives would be impacted.

Class (Years)	Class Life Range (Years)
3	Less than 4
5	4-9
7	10-15
10	16-19
15	20-24
20	25 or more

The analysis assumed the use of the modified accelerated cost recovery system (MACRS). This system includes depreciation schedules based on double-declining balance depreciation rates for 3, 5, and 7-year property. For other classes, straight-line depreciation must be used. In addition, the analysis used the "mid-year convention" for the assumed investments.

The simulation looked at investments for all class lives eligible for bonus depreciation. Each calculation compared the current law depreciation with that under the 30% bonus. Under the 30% bonus schedule, the "regular depreciation" declines since it is calculated against the depreciation base after the application of bonus depreciation. Thus, the decline in normal depreciation offsets the first-year increase in total depreciation due to the bonus amount so that over the life of the asset there is no net change in the depreciation taken.

In addition, the impact of the 100% and 80% addbacks, and the "giveback" of the addback beginning in 2005, is calculated. The first-year net impact of bonus depreciation varies by asset class, with the largest short-term tax savings going to the assets with the longest lives. The net impact of both the bonus depreciation and add-back are essentially zeroed out over the long term.

To determine the impact on state revenues, a mathematical relationship was established between the net impact of "bonus depreciation with add-back" and "bonus depreciation only". This ratio was then compared to the "bonus depreciation only" fiscal impact of numerous states as reported in the National Conference of State Legislatures (NCSL) survey. These estimates were then adjusted to North Carolina based on corporate tax receipts in each state. In addition, the recent report of the Center for Budget and Policy Priorities (CBPP) contained estimates for particular states. The estimate used in this analysis relies heavily on the CBPP report.

In addition to the steps listed above, Fiscal Research also reviewed the fiscal impact statements in the three states that have adopted add-backs. The states are Nebraska (85% add back), Ohio (83.33%), and Minnesota (80%). This review, coupled with phone conversations with tax analysts in all three states, indicated that the add-backs used make the bonus depreciation approximately revenue-neutral for FY 2002-03. For future years, the net impact depends on the "add-back subtraction" schedule adopted.

The discussions with other states confirmed the difficulty of developing a precise fiscal estimate. The biggest problem is that after simulating the case-by-case impact of the proposal on investments with different class lives, there is no way to know how to weight the different simulations. The reason is that capital investment data compiled by the U.S. Department of Commerce does not provide a breakdown by asset life.

A particular problem encountered was the 2001 tax year. The federal change was effective for investments after September 10 of the year. Under current Department of Revenue instructions, calendar year taxpayers were able to use bonus depreciation for the 2001 tax year if they were able to modify their return in the few days between the federal enactment and the March 15 filing date. Other affected taxpayers will be eligible for a refund, but only after action by the General Assembly. These different possibilities make it difficult to determine how much of the 2001 tax year impact occurred in FY 2001-02 versus FY 2002-03.

The cash-flow estimates are conservative in terms of the weighting of asset classes in the calculations.

ESTATE PICK UP TAX

The regular inheritance tax was repealed in North Carolina by the 1998 General Assembly, effective for deaths occurring on or after January 1, 1999. Following the tradition of the other 36 states that have repealed their primary death tax, a "pickup" tax continues to be levied in North Carolina to use up the credit allowed on the federal estate tax return for state death taxes. In the absence of such a levy, the federal tax liability of the estate would be increased and potential state dollars would flow to the U.S. treasury.

In 2001 the congressional tax package made two changes that will have an effect on a small number of large estates as well as pickup tax collections in many states. First, the federal tax was phased out over a number of years until it is completely eliminated in 2010. This was accomplished primarily through higher federal credits. In the first few years, the higher credits reflect an acceleration of the credit phase-up under the 1997 federal tax relief bill. In addition, the 2001 bill phases out the state death tax credit over four years, beginning with deaths occurring on or after January 1, 2002.

The starting point for the analysis of Section 3.4 was the pickup tax revenue estimates included in the official revenue forecast used in amending the FY 2002-03 General Fund budget. The FY 2002-03 forecast of $117.3 million of pickup taxes was grown by 4% per year to determine receipts for future years (until the tax is effectively eliminated due to the repeal of the federal credit for state death taxes). Fiscal Research then reviewed the projected cost for each year of full conformity to the 2001 federal changes contained in the Center For Budget and Policy Priorities (CBPP) report. In addition, we looked at state by state estimates contained in the NSCL survey and adjusted these numbers to North Carolina by using state-specific federal estate tax return data for 1993-99 (reported gross estate numbers). The estimates finally adopted for purposes of this fiscal note were slightly higher than the CBPP numbers and near the top of the range of the estimates of other states.

This "full conformity" estimate was then modified to determine the "higher federal credits" conformity ("partial conformity") cost by comparing the CBPP estimates for full conformity and partial conformity for the 2002-03 fiscal year (18%). This led to an annualized FY 2002-03 projection of $7.3 million. For future years, the partial conformity estimate was based on the relationship of the CBPP projection of partial conformity for North Carolina to full conformity.

PART IV: UNAUTHORIZED SUBSTANCE TAX EXPENSES

Part IV will reduce the General Fund share of the administrative costs of the Unauthorized Substance Tax Division of the Department of Revenue, which administers the excise tax on unauthorized substances. Seventy-five percent (75%) of the tax proceeds are distributed to the law enforcement agencies that conducted the investigations that led to the assessments, and twenty-five percent (25%) of the tax proceeds are credited to the General Fund. In some years, the amount credited to the General Fund has not covered the costs of the Unauthorized Substance Tax Division.

Local law enforcement agencies receive most of the proceeds from the 75% that is distributed to law enforcement agencies. Therefore, the proposal is that local entities bear their proportionate share of the costs of the Unauthorized Substance Tax Division. To accomplish this, seventy percent (70%) of the costs would be taken from local sales and use tax revenue, as this percentage of the Division's cost is considered to be for the benefit of the local entities. This change in cost assignment requires an amendment to G.S. 105-501. This proposal does not change the amounts that are distributed to local law enforcement agencies. It simply recognizes that the Unauthorized Substance Tax Division primarily benefits local entities and that local entities should therefore bear their share of the expense.

The amount of the costs to be taken from the local sales and use tax is 70% of the costs of the Division rather than 75% because a small part of the amount that is distributed to law enforcement agencies is distributed to State law enforcement agencies. By the Department's records, the amount distributed to State law enforcement agencies is less than 5%. Using 70% instead of 75% therefore ensures that the costs borne by local entities are proportionate to the benefits they receive.

The General Fund will be reimbursed from local Sales and Use Tax funds transferred to a non-tax GF revenue account for 70% or $886,893 of the division's operating budget. Essentially, relieves the GF of a portion of the division's operating expense.

PART V: INSURANCE REGULATORY CHARGE

Part V of the bill sets the insurance regulatory charge at 6.5%. This is the same amount set in the previous year. This fee is assessed against the 1.9% premiums tax paid by insurers or against the presumed premiums tax that would be paid by HMOs and Article 65 companies (Blue Cross/Blue Shield) if taxed at 1.9%. The revenue is used to reimburse the General Fund for appropriations to the Department to pay expenses incurred in regulating the industry and other industries and to other departments as specified in G.S. 58-6-25(d).

The premiums tax collections for FY 2002-2003 are estimated to be $315.79 million. The HMOs and the Article 65 companies must pay a regulatory charge based on their presumed premiums tax at 1.9% (they pay .833% in 2002 and 1% in 2003). The presumed premium tax for the HMOs and Article 65 companies is estimated to be $68.83 million.

With the premiums tax collections of $315.79 million and the presumed premiums tax of $68.83 million from the HMOs and Article 65 companies, the total base against which the insurance regulatory charge will be assessed is estimated to be $384.62 million. Applying the 6.5% regulatory fee to the $384.62 million base would generate $25 million in regulatory fee revenue.

The certified budget for the Department, based on actions taken during the 2001 Session, is $23.5 million. In addition to reimbursing the General Fund for appropriations to the Department, the Insurance Regulatory Fund will also reimburse the General Fund for the $486,000 appropriated to support the Managed Care Patient Assistance Program (MCPAP), established by S.L. 2001-446. The total reimbursement to the General Fund is estimated to be $24 million. The Department estimates that the reserve will have a balance of $11.98 million at the beginning of FY 2002-2003. The total available from the reserve fund of $11.98 million and the estimated collections of $25 million will be $36.98 million. The total available less the estimated General Fund reimbursement of $24 million will leave a year-end reserve balance of $12.98 million. This reserve is above one-third of the estimated General Fund reimbursement.

The above calculation is based on the certified budget for FY 2002-2003 and does not include any adjustments to the FY 2002-2003 Budget that are or will be under consideration during the 2002 Session. Based on the above, the regulatory surcharge rate of 6.5% is sufficient to defray the estimated cost of the operations of the Department and provide for a reserve fund. The Department recommends that the rate remain the same and would not recommend a decrease in the rate because of the unknowns in the economy.

PART VI: REGULATORY FEE FOR UTILITIES COMMISSION

Part VI of the bill sets the fees for regulation by the North Carolina Utilities Commission ("Commission"). Section 6(a) of the bill sets the rate at 0.1%, the same as the current rate. Revenue from this fee, which is assessed against regulated public utilities, is used to support the operations of both the Commission and the Public Staff. Based on estimated FY 2002-03 jurisdictional revenues of $10,854,768,332, the regulatory fee will produce $11,700,238. For the same period, the Commission estimates that the combined operations of the Commission and Public Staff will require total expenditures of not less than $11,695,970. The net change in the Commission's Accumulated Fee Margin Reserve Account is therefore approximately $4,268. The estimated balance in this account as of June 30, 2003, is $4,941,393. This represents approximately five months of operating reserve.

Section 6(b) of the bill sets the public utility regulatory fee to be paid by the North Carolina Electric Membership Corporation for the 2002-03 fiscal year at $200,000. In 1999 the initial fee of $200,000 was developed as a result of discussions between the industry and the Utilities Commission, based on what the Utilities Commission believed to be the cost associated with regulating the electric membership cooperatives. In 2001 the Utilities Commission provided information to Fiscal Research illustrating that these fees will support approximately 4000 hours of accounting, engineering, and legal time. This fee amount must be set by the General Assembly each year.

PART VIII: SECURE LOCAL REVENUES

In the spring of 2001, as a result of substantial budget shortfall, the governor escrowed $95.0 million of reimbursement payments to local governments. This payment is made as a reimbursement for revenues lost by the state's repeal of the property tax on various inventories. The funds were placed in an escrow account in case they were needed to balance the state budget on June 30, 2001. These funds were later released to the local units. In 2002, again facing a difficult fiscal situation, Governor Easley escrowed the spring inventory tax reimbursement to local governments. This $95.0 million was again placed in a special account to hold in case it was needed to balance the state budget in 2002. At the same time the governor announced he was holding an additional $114.0 million in reimbursements and shared revenues to secure his ability to balance the state budget. The $114 million included the following estimated amounts:

Fund Type	Amount Withheld
Franchise Utility Tax
March Distribution	35.6
June Distribution	25.0
Piped Natural Gas

March Distribution	6.9
June Distribution	11.8
Beer and Wine Tax	26.8
Homestead Exemption	7.9
TOTAL	114.0

Sections 8.1 – 8.7 are an attempt to secure these revenues from future gubernatorial action. This legislation has no direct impact on the budgets passed by the General Assembly, as these shared revenues have not been used in the legislative process for state expenditures. However, the legislation could limit the options available to the Governor. Because of the lack of clarity about what actions will be required of the Governor in future years, and the impact this particular legislation will have on the individual's decisions, no fiscal estimate is possible on the impact of the legislation.

Part IX: CLOSE CORPORATE TAX LOOPHOLES

BUSINESS INCOME

The Tax Research Division of the Department of Revenue analyzed 1999 corporate income tax returns and found that the maximum amount of additional tax revenue from the proposal would be $293.4 million. For 2000, the maximum would be $442.5 million. The higher number for 2000 is due to an increase in the amount of nonbusiness income from all sources shown on 2000 returns and a higher weighted average apportionment factor.

The extent to which total reported nonbusiness income can be brought into the tax base depends on how much of this income is not reported to other states and whether there are certain types of nonbusiness income that could not be taxed under the federal standards in the bill. The Department of Revenue does not have a good feel for the magnitude of these factors. In addition, the impact of the 2001 recession has reduced the corporate tax base in North Carolina by 33% and economists are still cautious about the outlook for 2002 national corporate profits.

We have not found any situations in which states have recently adopted this legislation and thus had fiscal notes available. Many states have had such laws on the books for many years and a 1992 U.S. Supreme Court decision opened the door for states to pursue enforcement. New Jersey adopted the proposal this year but the quality of the fiscal information was lacking, partly due to the difficulty of making the estimate.

Based on discussions with the Department of Revenue and concern about the uncertainty surrounding the estimates, we have taken a very cautious approach to this estimate.

THROWOUT RULE

There is very little data from other states on this issue. The New Jersey corporation business tax reform package included the item but there was no statement of the methodology behind the fiscal estimate. We are concerned with the lack of quality data on the issue and feel that a conservative estimate equal to roughly 50% of the earlier proposed throwback rule would be workable. In our analysis, we consulted with the corporate staff of the Department of Revenue.

LLC FRANCHISE TAX

There is little available information on this matter. The fiscal estimate used for the 2001 proposal to address the issue was $10.8 million. Discussions with the Department of Revenue about the impact on some taxpayers indicated that the proposal would not only close some of the loophole not addressed last year but would also pick up some of the erosion in the corporate income tax due to the tax planning strategies that have taken place since the 2001 change or might occur in the future. Thus, the proposed change is broader than last year's action.

Part X: HOUSING TAX CREDIT EFFECTIVE DATE CHANGE

The North Carolina Housing Finance Agency identified 8 projects authorized for a 25% state tax credit in 2000 that would qualify for the 75% state tax credit for those in counties damaged by Hurricane Floyd. These projects have been completed or are nearing completion thus the investors in the projects can begin taking the tax credit in FY 2002-03. Assuming the project investors use 100% of the available tax credit, the additional tax credits granted by this part is $10,727,800. Since the state tax credit is taken over five years, the General Fund revenue loss is spread over five fiscal years. The annual General Fund loss due to Part X of the bill is $2.15 million for Fiscal Years 2002-03 to 2006-07.

Projects	County	Federal Tax Credit	State Tax Credit @ 25%	State Tax Credit @ 75%	Additional Credit	2000 Tiers
#1	Craven	$2,648,010	$662,003	$1,986,008	$1,324,005	4

SOURCES OF DATA: Part II: Individual Income Tax Model. Part III: (1) The May, 2002 state-by-state survey of the National Conference of State Legislatures (Recent Federal Tax Legislation and the States); (2) A January, 2002 analysis of the Center On Budget and Policy Priorities on state options to conform to the 2001 federal estate tax changes; (3) Bonus depreciation fiscal estimate material from Ohio, Minnesota, and Nebraska; (4) Congressional Joint Committee on Taxation. Part VIII: Office of State Budget and Management. Part X: NC Housing Finance Agency

TECHNICAL CONSIDERATIONS: The January 1, 2002, effective date of the federal changes in Part III means that only three quarters of the 2002-03 fiscal year will be affected by the change since estates have up to nine months after death to file a return. In addition, the January 1, 2005, repeal of the state death tax credit on federal estate tax returns means that one quarter of FY 2005-06 revenues will be affected.

In Part IX of the bill, the 2002-03 estimate for the nonbusiness income change assumes that during the fiscal year the State would receive 100% of the 2002 tax year impact and about 40% of the 2003 tax year. For the other corporate changes, we did not assume that April and June, 2003 estimated tax payments would be adjusted up because the magnitude of the calendar year change is relatively small.

MEMORANDUM

TO: Rep. Art Pope

FROM: Dave Crotts
Fiscal Research Division

SUBJECT: Fiscal Estimates for SB 1292 (Senate Budget Revenue Package)

You had requested a comparison for the 2002-03 fiscal year of the "partial conformity" estate tax provision in SB 1292 with the "no action" option and full conformity. If no action is taken, the state pick-up tax levied to use up the federal credit for state death taxes would not conform to the 4-year phase-out of the credit under the 2001 federal legislation. This means that the state would continue to levy the tax on the basis of the federal credit in place prior to the 2001 federal change and, thus, there would be no direct impact on General Fund revenues.

The cost of fully conforming to the 2001 federal change would be $31.3 million. Since the federal credit phase-out begins with deaths occurring on or after January 1, 2002 and estates have nine months to settle their tax liability, the 2002-03 revenue loss is based on 3 quarters of impact.

The partial conformity option adjusts for the fact that under the new federal law, the unified gift and estate tax credits will rise from an effective exemption of $650,000 in 2001 to $1,000,000 in 2002. In subsequent years the federal credit will continue to phase up to $3,500,000 according to the schedule shown below:

Year	Federal Estate Tax Exemption
2001	675,000
2002	1,000,000
2003	1,000,000
2004	1,500,000
2005	1,500,000
2006	2,000,000
2007	2,000,000
2008	2,000,000
2009	3,500,000

AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY/AFFIRMATIVE ACTION EMPLOYER

As the federal exemption increases, some estates will no longer be required to file a federal return. If the state were not to update the pickup tax for the higher federal exemptions, some North Carolina estates would be required to pay a state tax even though there would be no federal liability. SB 1292 addresses this problem by conforming to the impact of the higher federal exemptions on the state pickup tax. The cost to the General Fund is estimated to be $5.5 million for 2002-03, or about 18% of the full conformity impact. The difference between the full estate tax conformity option and the partial conformity provisions of SB 1292 is equal to a $25.8 million savings in General Fund tax revenues.

You had also asked for a breakdown of the 2002-03 fiscal year impact on the General Fund of the accelerated depreciation item in the Senate tax package. Your request had to do with a comparison of the cost of the bonus depreciation versus the "net" depreciation after the inclusion of the add-back in the Senate bill. You also wanted a comparison to the "no action" option.

If no legislation were approved to update the conformity to the IRC depreciation rules, there would be no direct impact on General Fund revenues. An update to the 30% bonus depreciation feature in the 2002 federal legislation would reduce General Fund revenues by $213.2 million for 2002-03. If we include the impact of the add-back in SB 1292, there would be a net increase in General Fund revenue for 2002-03 of $38.2 million. This means that the effective amount of additional revenue from the add-back is $251.4 million.

The example below might highlight how the accelerated depreciation provisions in SB 1292 works:

$10,000 Investment
7-Year Depreciation Period
Mid-Year Convention

	2002 Tax Year
Current Law —
Regular depreciation	1,429
New Law with Bonus Depreciation Only
Bonus Depreciation (30%)	3,000
Regular Depreciation	1,000
Total Depreciation	4,000
Additional Depreciation	2,571
New Law With Bonus Depreciation and Add-Back
Bonus Appreciation (30%)	3,000
Regular Depreciation	1,000
Addback to Income (100%)	(3,000)
Total Effective Depreciation	1,000
Net Change in Depreciation from Current Law	(429)

David and Richard, please add to this if you can.

Nebraska has an 85% Add-Back.
Ohio's Add-back is 5/6 (83.3%)
At least two states have 100% -- not sure which ones.

Here is the general info --

Accelerated Deprecation:

- As of July 3, 2002, the following 22 states have decoupled from a portion of the accelerated depreciation allowance as the result of explicit legislative action following enactment of the federal law or have introduced legislation to that effect: Arizona, Connecticut, District of Columbia, Georgia, Hawaii, Illinois, Iowa, Maryland, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri (for one year), Nebraska, New Jersey, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, Tennessee, Vermont (for corporate income tax filers only), Virginia, and Wisconsin.
- New York City has decoupled from the bonus depreciation allowance.
- Six other states are decoupled automatically under pre-existing tax law: Arkansas, Idaho, Kentucky, New Hampshire, South Dakota, and Texas. (Source: Center on Budget and Policy Priorities; Tax Analysts)

Minutes
House Committee on Finance

July 17, 2002

The House Committee on Finance met on Wednesday, July 17, 2002, at 4:00 P.M., in Room 643 of the Legislative Office Building. The meeting was continued from two earlier Finance meetings on this day.

Rep. Gordon Allen, presiding Chair, called the meeting to order. The following members were present: Chairmen Buchanan, Luebke, and Wainwright; Vice Chairs Hill and Jarrell; and Representatives Alexander, Blust, Capps, Cox, Decker, Dedmon, Eddins, Edwards, Gibson, Gray, Hackney, Holliman, Hurley, Johnson, McComas, McCombs, McMahan, Morris, Pope, Rayfield, Starnes, Weiss, Willingham, Wilson, Womble, Baddour, Cunningham, and Earle. Staff in attendance included Cindy Avrette, Trina Griffin, Mary Shuping, Martha Walston, Richard Bostic, David Crotts, Linda Millsaps, Canaan Huie, and Martha Harris.

Chairman Allen recognized and thanked pages Raymond Chin from Orange County, Matt Goodwin from Gaston County, Daniel Hurley (grandson of Representative Hurley from Fayetteville), and Kevin Kelly and Chris Carlton from Wake County.

Chairman Allen announced that this meeting had been called to discuss HB 1633, A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO ACCELERATE THE ADDITIONAL ONE-HALF CENT LOCAL OPTION SALES AND USE TAX, TO PROVIDE THAT LOCAL REVENUES MAY NOT BE WITHHELD OR IMPOUNDED BY THE GOVERNOR, AND TO MAKE CONFORMING AND TECHNICAL CHANGES, which had been re-referred to the Finance Committee at today's House session.

Amendment No. 1. Rep. Buchanan was recognized to send forth an amendment. He explained that the amendment would accelerate the sunset of the State half-cent sales tax and also accelerate the one-half cents sales tax for the local governments and makes both of them effective at the same time, October 1, 2002. He moved for adoption of the amendment.

In the ensuing discussion, Rep. Luebke confirmed with staff that the amendment originally was discussed on the floor and the October date was put in the Bill on the advice of the Department of Revenue. They felt that retailers would have a problem implementing the September date.

Rep. Wainwright stated that the amendment would create an additional $200-million-plus hole in the budget, and based on all indications from Committee's deliberations, there had not been a consensus on how to raise revenue to fill the hole that already existed in the budget. He wondered where the Committee would get the revenue needed to fill the additional hole that this amendment would create.

Chairman Allen called on Rep. David Redwine, Co-Chair of the House Appropriations Committee, to comment on the budget. Rep. Redwine noted that the Senate's budget cuts were deeper than those anticipated for the House budget and commented that 55% of the budget is earmarked for education, 25% for human resources, and 10% for corrections, which totals 90% of the budget. He urged the Committee to pass the Bill.

Rep. Baddour said he truly believed the reimbursements to the local governments are not going to be there and urged the Committee to defeat this amendment and pass this Bill.

Rep. Gray suggested that Appropriations look at the various budget codes and their balances to see if there is any money there to fix some of the holes.

In reply to several questions from Committee members, Linda Millsaps of the Fiscal Staff said that the accelerated sales tax – the main bill – would net the State $252.2 million. By adding this amendment, it would take away from the State $248.6 million, leaving the State with a net of about $3.6 million.

By Roll Call Vote, Amendment No. 1 (Rep. Buchanan's) failed 20 to 12.

Amendment No. 2. Rep. Starnes was recognized to send forth his amendment. He explained that the amendment would rewrite line 3 on page 1 to read "OPTION SALES AND USE TAX, TO MAKE OTHER VARIOUS SALES AND USE TAX CHANGES, TO PROVIDE THAT LOCAL REVENUES." Following discussion, Amendment No. 2 failed by Roll Call Vote, 19 to 13.

Rep. Hackney then moved that HB 1633 be given a favorable report. The motion carried. Copies of the Bill, Amendments (including two Amendments to this Bill that were adopted by the House just prior to the Committee meeting) and Summary are attached as part of these minutes.

There being no further business, Chairman Allen adjourned the meeting at 6:00 P.M.

Respectfully submitted,

Representative Gordon Allen
Presiding Chairman

Nancy G. Brantley
Committee Assistant

HOUSE BILL 1633

Committee Substitute Favorable 7/16/02

Short Title: Accelerate Local Option Sales Tax. (Public)

Sponsors:

Referred to:

June 13, 2002

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO ACCELERATE THE ADDITIONAL ONE-HALF CENT LOCAL OPTION SALES AND USE TAX, TO PROVIDE THAT LOCAL REVENUES MAY NOT BE WITHHELD OR IMPOUNDED BY THE GOVERNOR, AND TO MAKE CONFORMING AND TECHNICAL CHANGES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 105-517(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) Effective Date. – A tax levied under this Article may not become effective before ~~July 1, 2003.~~September 1, 2002."

SECTION 2. G.S. 105-518(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Ballot Question. – The question to be presented on a ballot for a special election concerning the levy of the taxes authorized by this Article must be in the following form:

"[ ] FOR [ ] AGAINST

one-half percent (½%) local sales and use taxes, ~~to replace the current one-half percent (½%) State sales and use taxes that end July 1, 2003.~~"in addition to all current State and local sales and use taxes." "

SECTION 3.(a) G.S. 105-520 reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-520. Distribution of taxes.

(a) Point of Origin. – The Secretary must, on a ~~monthly~~ quarterly basis, allocate to each taxing county one-half of the net proceeds of the tax collected in that county under this Article. If the Secretary collects taxes under this Article in a ~~month~~ quarter and the taxes cannot be identified as being attributable to a particular taxing county, the Secretary must allocate one-half of the net proceeds of these taxes among the taxing counties in proportion to the amount of taxes collected in each county under this Article in that ~~month.~~quarter.

(b) Per Capita. – The Secretary must, on a ~~monthly~~ quarterly basis, allocate the remaining net proceeds of the tax collected under this Article among the taxing counties on a per capita basis according to the most recent annual population estimates certified to the Secretary by the State Budget Officer. The Secretary must then adjust the amount allocated to each county as provided in G.S. 105-486(b).

(c) Distribution Between Counties and Cities. – The Secretary must divide and distribute the funds allocated under this section each ~~month~~ quarter between each taxing county and the municipalities located in the county in accordance with the method by which the one percent (1%) sales and use taxes levied in that county pursuant to Article 39 of this Chapter or Chapter 1096 of the 1967 Session Laws are distributed. No municipality may receive any funds under this subsection for a ~~month~~ quarter if it is not entitled to a distribution under G.S. 105-501 for the same ~~month.~~quarter."

SECTION 3.(b) This section is repealed effective July 1, 2003.

SECTION 4.(a) G.S. 105-521 reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-521. Transitional local government hold harmless.

(a) Definitions. – The following definitions apply in this section:

(1) Local government. – A county or municipality that received a distribution of local sales taxes in the most recent fiscal year for which a local sales tax share has been calculated.

(2) Local sales tax share. – A local government's percentage share of the two-cent (2¢) sales taxes distributed during the most recent fiscal year for which data are available.

(3) Repealed reimbursement amount. – The total amount a local government would have been entitled to receive during the ~~2002-2003~~ 2001-2002 fiscal year under G.S. 105-164.44C, 105-275.1, 105-275.2, 105-277.001, and 105-277.1A, if the Governor had not withheld any distributions under those sections.

(4) Two-cent (2¢) sales taxes. – The first one-cent (1¢) sales and use tax authorized in Article 39 of this Chapter and in Chapter 1096 of the 1967 Session Laws, the first one-half cent (½¢) local sales and use tax authorized in Article 40 of this Chapter, and the second one-half cent (½¢) local sales and use tax authorized in Article 42 of this Chapter.

(b) ~~Distributions.~~ 2002-2003 Distribution. – On or before September 15, 2002, the Secretary must multiply each local government's local sales tax share by the sum of two hundred seventy-eight million seven hundred eighty-five thousand six hundred dollars ($278,785,600). If the resulting amount is less than one hundred percent (100%) of the local government's repealed reimbursement amount, the Secretary must pay the local government the difference, but not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00).

(c) Subsequent Distributions. – On or before September 15, 2003, and each September 15 thereafter, the Secretary must multiply each local government's local sales tax share by the estimated amount that all local governments would be expected to receive during the current fiscal year under G.S. 105-520 if every county levied the tax under this Article for the year. If the resulting amount is less than one hundred percent (100%) of the local government's repealed reimbursement amount, the Secretary must pay the local government the difference, but not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00).

(d) Estimated Amounts. – On or before May 1, 2003, and each May 1 thereafter, the Office of State Budget and Management and the Fiscal Research Division of the General Assembly must each submit to the Secretary and to the General Assembly a final projection of the estimated amount that all local governments would be expected to receive during the upcoming fiscal year under G.S. 105-520 if every county levied the tax under this Article for the fiscal year. If the Secretary does not use the lower of the two final projections to make the calculation required by this subsection, the Secretary must report the reasons for this decision to the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations within 60 days after receiving the projections.

~~(c)~~(e) Source of Funds. – The Secretary must draw the funds distributed under this section from sales and use tax collections under Article 5 of this Chapter.

~~(d)~~(f) Reports. – The Secretary must report to the Revenue Laws Study Committee by January 31, ~~2004,~~2003, and each January 31 thereafter, the amount distributed under this section for the current fiscal year."

SECTION 4.(b) G.S. 105-521 is repealed effective July 1, 2012.

SECTION 5. Effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002, G.S. 105-269.14(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Distribution. – The Secretary must distribute ~~one-third~~a portion of the net use tax proceeds collected under this section to counties and ~~cities in proportion to their total distributions under Articles 39, 40, and 42 of this Chapter and Chapter 1096 of the 1967 Session Laws for the most recent period for which data is available.~~cities. The portion to be distributed to all counties and cities shall be the total net use tax proceeds collected under this section multiplied by a fraction. The numerator of the fraction is the local use tax proceeds collected under this section. The denominator of the fraction is the total use tax proceeds collected under this section. The Secretary shall then distribute this portion to the counties and cities in proportion to their total distributions under Articles 39, 40, 42, 43, and 44 of this Chapter and Chapter 1096 of the 1967 Session Laws for the most recent period for which data are available. The provisions of G.S. 105-472, 105-486, and 105-501 do not apply to tax proceeds distributed under this section."

SECTION 6. G.S. 159-15 reads as rewritten:

"§ 159-15. Amendments to the budget ordinance.

Except as otherwise restricted by law, the governing board may amend the budget ordinance at any time after the ordinance's adoption in any manner, so long as the ordinance, as amended, continues to satisfy the requirements of G.S. 159-8 and 159-13. However, except as otherwise provided in this section, no amendment may increase or reduce a property tax levy or in any manner alter a property taxpayer's liability, unless the board is ordered to do so by a court of competent jurisdiction, or by a State agency having the power to compel the levy of taxes by the board.

If after July 1 the local government receives additional and unanticipated revenues, the governing body may, before January 1, amend the budget ordinance to reduce the property tax levy to account for the unanticipated revenues.

The governing board by appropriate resolution or ordinance may authorize the budget officer to transfer moneys from one appropriation to another within the same fund subject to such limitations and procedures as it may prescribe. Any such transfers shall be reported to the governing board at its next regular meeting and shall be entered in the minutes."

SECTION 7. Section 34.14(b) of S.L. 2001-424 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 34.14.(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 105-466(c), a tax levied during the ~~2003~~ 2002 calendar year under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes, as enacted by this act, may become effective on the first day of any calendar month during 2002 beginning on or after ~~July 1, 2003.~~September 1, 2002. Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 105-466(c), if a county levies a tax during the ~~2003~~ 2002 calendar year under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes, as enacted by this act, that is to become effective on or before January 1, 2003, the county is required to give the Secretary of Revenue ~~only~~ the following notice:

(1) If the tax is to become effective September 1, 2002, the county must notify the Secretary on or before August 15, 2002.

(2) If the tax is to become effective on the first day of any other calendar month beginning on or before January 1, 2003, the county must give the Secretary 30 days" advance notice of the tax levy.

For taxes ~~levied on or~~that are to become effective after January 1, ~~2004~~,2003, the provisions of G.S. 105-466(c) apply."

SECTION 8. Section 34.15(b) of S.L. 2001-424 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 34.15.(b) This section becomes effective July 1, ~~2003.~~2002."

SECTION 9. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, for the month of September 2002, the administration and distribution of taxes collected under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes shall be in accordance with this section. For that month, the Secretary of Revenue shall create a separate account for the collection of taxes under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes. In that month, retailers shall report taxes collected under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes on a form separate from that on which the retailer reports other sales and use taxes collected. In that month, the Secretary shall allocate to each county that has imposed a tax under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes a portion of the total amount of tax collected under that Article. A county's allocation shall be determined by multiplying the total amount of tax collected under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes for that month by a fraction. The numerator of the fraction is the amount allocated under G.S. 105-472, 105-486, and 105-501 for the first quarter of the 2002-2003 fiscal year to the county. The denominator of the fraction is the total amount allocated under G.S. 105-472, 105-486, and 105-501 for the first quarter of the 2002-2003 fiscal year to all counties that have imposed a tax under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes. The Secretary shall distribute these taxes at the end of the quarter in accordance with G.S. 105-520(c).

SECTION 10. To the extent the Department of Revenue's nonrecurring costs of implementing and administering Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes, as amended, exceed funds available in its budget for the 2002-2003 fiscal year, the Department may pay the excess cost by withholding up to two hundred seventy-five thousand dollars ($275,000) from collections under Subchapter VIII of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes.

SECTION 11. The Department of Revenue may contract for supplies, materials, equipment, and contractual services related to the provision of notice, the creation of tax forms and instructions, and the development of computer software necessitated by the amendments in this act without being subject to the requirements of Article 3 or Article 8 of Chapter 143 of the General Statutes.

SECTION 12.(a) The title of Article 39 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes reads as rewritten:

"Article 39.

First One-Cent (1¢) Local Government Sales and Use Tax."

SECTION 12.(b) G.S. 105-463 reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-463. Short title.

This Article shall be known as the "~~Local~~ First One-Cent (1¢) Local Government Sales and Use Tax ~~Act.~~"Act."

SECTION 13.(a) The title of Article 40 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes reads as rewritten:

"Article 40.

~~Supplemental~~ First One-Half Cent (1/2¢) Local Government Sales and Use ~~Taxes.~~Tax."

SECTION 13.(b) G.S. 105-480 reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-480. Short title.

This Article shall be known as the ~~Supplemental~~ First One-Half Cent (1/2¢) Local Government Sales and Use Tax Act."

SECTION 14.(a) The title of Article 42 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes reads as rewritten:

"Article 42.

~~Additional Supplemental~~ Second One-Half Cent (1/2¢) Local Government Sales and Use ~~Taxes.~~Tax."

SECTION 14.(b) G.S. 105-495 reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-495. Short title.

This Article shall be known as the ~~Additional Supplemental~~Second One-Half Cent (1/2¢) Local Government Sales and Use Tax Act."

SECTION 15. Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 105-517(b), a county may levy a tax by resolution that becomes effective on or before January 1, 2003, under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes without giving at least 10 days" public notice of its intent to adopt the resolution and without holding a public hearing on the issue of adopting the resolution.

SECTION 15.1. G.S. 105-113.82(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) Time. – The revenue shall be distributed to cities and counties within 60 days after March 31 of each year. The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 15.2. G.S. 105-116.1(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Distribution. – The Secretary must distribute to the cities part of the taxes collected under this Article on electric power companies. Each city's share for a calendar quarter is the percentage distribution amount for that city for that quarter minus one-fourth of the city's hold-back amount and one-fourth of the city's proportionate share of the annual cost to the Department of administering the distribution. The Secretary must make the distribution within 75 days after the end of each calendar quarter. The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 15.3. G.S. 105-187.44(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Distribution. – Within 75 days after the end of each calendar quarter, the Secretary must distribute to the cities part of the tax proceeds collected under this Article during that quarter. The amount to be distributed to a city is one-half of the amount of tax attributable to that city for that quarter under subsection (a) of this section. The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 15.4. G.S. 105-164.44F is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(f) Nature. – The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 15.5. G.S. 136-41.1 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(d) Nature. – The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 15.6. G.S. 159B-27(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) The State shall distribute to cities and towns which receive electric power and energy from their ownership share of a project or to which electric power and energy is sold by a joint agency an amount equal to a tax of three and nine hundredths percent (3.09%) of all moneys expended by a municipality on account of its ownership share of a project, including payment of principal and interest on bonds issued to finance such ownership share, or an amount equal to a tax of three and nine hundredths percent (3.09%) of the gross receipts from all sales of electric power and energy to such city or town by a joint agency, as the case may be. The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 15.7. G.S. 143-25 reads as rewritten:

"§ 143-25. Maintenance appropriations dependent upon adequacy of revenues to support them.

(a) All maintenance appropriations now or hereafter made are hereby declared to be maximum, conditional and proportionate appropriations, the purpose being to make the appropriations payable in full in the amounts named herein if necessary and then only in the event the aggregate revenues collected and available during each fiscal year of the biennium for which such appropriations are made, are sufficient to pay all of the appropriations in full; otherwise, the said appropriations shall be deemed to be payable in such proportion as the total sum of all appropriations bears to the total amount of revenue available in each of said fiscal years. ~~The~~ Except as provided in subsection (b) of this section, the Director of the Budget is ~~hereby~~ given full power and authority to examine and survey the progress of the collection of the revenue out of which such appropriations are to be made, and to declare and determine the amounts that can be, during each quarter of each of the fiscal years of the biennium properly allocated to each respective appropriation. In making such examination and survey, ~~he~~ the Director of the Budget shall receive estimates of the prospective collection of revenues from the Secretary of Revenue and every other revenue collecting agency of the State. The Director of the Budget may reduce all of said appropriations pro rata when necessary to prevent an overdraft or deficit to the fiscal period for which such appropriations are made. The Governor may also reduce all of said appropriations pursuant to Article III, Section 5(3) of the Constitution in accordance with subsection (b) of this section, after consulting with the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations under G.S. 120-76(8) if prior consultation is required by that section. The purpose and policy of this Article are to provide and insure that there shall be no overdraft or deficit in the general fund of the State at the end of the fiscal period, growing out of appropriations for maintenance and the Director of the Budget is directed and required to so administer this Article as to prevent any such overdraft or deficit. Prior to taking any action under this section to reduce appropriations pro rata, the Governor may consult with the Advisory Budget Commission.

(b) The General Assembly recognizes that it has required units of local government to adopt and maintain annual balanced budgets and take other steps to assure financially sound operations under the Local Government Budget and Fiscal Control Act and other provisions of Chapter 159 of the General Statutes. Accordingly, the General Assembly finds that in order to satisfy those statutory requirements and provide adequate services to their citizens, units of local government must be able to rely on the funds and local revenue sources the General Assembly has provided.

It is the intent of the General Assembly that funds that have been collected by the State on behalf of local governments and funds that the General Assembly has appropriated or otherwise committed to local governments shall not be reduced except as provided in this section. In exercising the powers contained in Section 5(3) of Article III of the Constitution, the Governor shall not withhold from distribution funds that have been collected by the State on behalf of local governments or funds that the General Assembly has appropriated or otherwise committed to local governments unless, after making adequate provision for the prompt payment of principal of and interest on bonds and notes of the State according to their terms, the Governor has exhausted all other sources of revenue of the State including surplus remaining in the treasury at the beginning of the fiscal period and has been authorized to withhold the funds by an act of the General Assembly.

This subsection does not authorize the Governor to withhold revenues from taxes levied by units of local governments and collected by the State. The General Assembly recognizes that under Section 19 of Article I of the North Carolina Constitution and under the Due Process Clause of the United States Constitution, the State is prohibited from taking local tax revenue."

SECTION 16. Except as otherwise provided, this act is effective when it becomes law.

HOUSE BILL 1633:
Accelerate Local Option Sales Tax

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee: House
Date: August 5, 2002
Version: 2nd

Sponsor:
Analysis by: Finance Team

SUMMARY: Sections 1 through 15 of the bill accelerate the 2001 legislation establishing a sales tax swap, as follows:

- Accelerates the effective date of the local option sales tax from July 1, 2003, to September 1, 2002.
- Accelerates the repeal of the tax reimbursements, from July 1, 2003, to July 1, 2002.
- Provides a hold harmless for local governments for 10 years.

- Sections 15.1 through 15.7 of the bill seek to secure local revenues in two ways:
  - They prohibit the Governor from withholding certain shared tax revenues by classifying them as "local revenues" rather than "State expenditures" thus arguably removing those funds from the scope of the Governor's constitutional budgetary authority.
  - They restrict the Governor's ability to withhold funds otherwise appropriated or committed to local governments, including reimbursement money, by requiring that the Governor first exhaust all other sources of revenue, including surplus in the treasury at the beginning of the fiscal period, and be authorized by an act of the General Assembly.

Local Option Sales Tax. – The proposed committee substitute for House Bill 1633 accelerates many of the provisions enacted last session. Under the bill, counties are authorized to levy an additional half-cent local sales tax effective as early as September 1, 2002. If counties levy the tax, the combined State and local sales tax rate would be 7% from September 2002 until July 1, 2003; at that time the State's half-cent tax sunsets and the combined rate would drop to 6½%. To accomplish the sales tax acceleration, the bill provides for the following:

- It would allow the counties to enact the tax without a public hearing.
- It would allow the counties to enact the tax with only a 15-day notice to the Department of Revenue.
- It would allow counties and cities to amend their budget ordinances after July 1st to reduce their property tax levy to account for unanticipated revenues.
- It would modify the local tax distribution formula for the first month (September).

- It would authorize the Department of Revenue to withhold up to $275,000 for 2002-2003 to cover its excess nonrecurring costs for implementing the new sales tax on short notice.
- It would exempt the Department of Revenue from the public contract bidding requirements for the procurement of supplies, materials, equipment, and contractual services related to the provision of notice and the development of computer software necessitated by the expedited provisions of the bill.

Like the existing State sales tax, the new half-cent local sales tax would not apply to food.[1] Unlike the tax authorized last year, this local sales tax could be enacted without a public hearing if the resolution becomes effective on or before January 1, 2003. A county may still choose to submit the question to the voters in a special election held after 30 days' public notice. If a county chooses to submit the question to the voters and the voters reject the tax levy, the county may not enact the tax for at least two years.

Under general law, a county must give the Secretary of Revenue at least 90 days advance notice of a new tax levy or tax rate change; and a new tax levy or a tax rate change may become effective only on January 1 or July 1. This bill provides for an expedited levy. For the tax to become effective September 1, 2002, a county must notify the Secretary of Revenue of the tax's imposition by August 15, 2002. If the tax is to become effective on any other date on or before January 1, 2003, the county must give the Secretary 30 days advance notice of the tax levy. Thereafter, the current law requirements of 90 days notice and a January 1 or July 1 effective date are re-instated.

Beginning October 1, 2002, the net proceeds of the tax would be allocated among the counties as provided in the legislation enacted last year: one-half would be allocated on a point-of-origin basis and one-half would be allocated on a per capita basis.[2] However, for the month September 2002, the tax revenues would be placed in a separate account and allocated to the taxing counties in proportion to each county's respective share of the current two-cent distribution for the first quarter of the 2002-03 fiscal year. Each county's allocation would then be divided between the county and the municipalities in the county using the same formula by which the existing local sales taxes are divided in that county.[3] As with the existing local sales taxes, the State's costs of collecting and administering the new tax come from the local tax proceeds.

[1] The current two-cent local sales tax applies to food.

[2] Per capita distribution of a local tax probably violates the law of the land clause of the North Carolina Constitution, the uniformity requirements of the North Carolina Constitution, or both. The law of the land clause, which is equivalent to the due process clause of the federal constitution, prohibits the levying of a tax on one tax district for the benefit of another tax district. A local option sales tax with per capita distribution is such a tax: it is a county tax, levied by the board of county commissioners, on transactions within the county. The tax proceeds belong to the county; the constitution does not permit the county or the State to use these tax proceeds except for the benefit of the county. Distributing the county's tax proceeds throughout the State based on population violates the due process rights of the county's taxpayers. If the Statewide local option sales tax Article is viewed as a State tax for the benefit of all counties that choose to participate, it violates the uniformity requirement of Section 2 of Article V of the North Carolina Constitution, as interpreted by the North Carolina Supreme Court.

Local Government Reimbursements. - Last session, the General Assembly repealed all of the State's reimbursement payments to local governments, effective beginning with the 2003-2004 fiscal year. This bill would accelerate the repeal, effective July 1, 2002. State reimbursements are amounts distributed to local units to compensate them for revenue lost as a result of the removal by the General Assembly of property from the local sales and use tax base, the local property tax base, or the intangibles tax base. State reimbursements consist of reimbursements for the repeal of the property tax on inventories and on poultry and livestock, the repeal of the intangibles tax, the "homestead exclusion" from property tax, and the repeal of local sales and use taxes on food purchased with food stamps.

This bill does not repeal or reduce the distribution of local government tax-sharing revenues: excise tax on beer and wine, franchise tax on electricity, gross receipts tax on piped natural gas, sales tax on telecommunications service, and the Powell bill revenues.

Local Government Hold Harmless. - Last session, the General Assembly provided an annual hold-harmless distribution from the State's General Fund to counties and cities to ensure that none of them would lose money when the local government reimbursements repealed were netted against the estimated proceeds of the sales tax if it were levied in each county as of July 1, 2003. This year, the Governor's budget provides for the repeal of the reimbursements but it does not provide for any hold harmless distributions. This bill proposes an acceleration of the same hold harmless provision in last year's legislation with one major exception: the hold harmless payments would end on July 1, 2012.

Under the hold harmless distribution in this bill, a county or city would receive a distribution if the county's or city's estimated proceeds of a half-cent tax would be less than 100% of the amount it would have gotten under the repealed reimbursements. The distribution amount would be the difference between the two. If a county's or city's estimated gain from the half-cent tax equals or exceeds 100% of its repealed reimbursement amount, it does not receive a hold harmless payment from the State. The hold harmless payment is the same whether or not the new tax is levied in the county. The Department of Revenue will make the hold harmless distribution annually, drawing the funds from State sales tax collections. The hold harmless payments must be made by September 15 of each year, beginning in 2002, and ending after the 2011 payment.

Secure Local Revenues. - Sections 15.1 through 15.7 of the bill have already passed the House as House Bill 1490. Sections 15.1 through 15.6 of the bill amend the following tax-sharing statutes by characterizing the revenue distributed by those statutes as

---

[3] The sales tax revenues are distributed between a county and its municipalities on either a per capita basis or an ad valorem basis. The county decides which distribution method it will use. The method may be changed each year.

distributions of "local revenue" rather than "State expenditures" for purposes of interpreting Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution:

Section 15.1 - Beer and wine tax.

Section 15.2 - Franchise gross receipts tax.

Section 15.3 - Piped natural gas tax.

Section 15.4 - Sales tax on telecommunications.

Section 15.5 - Powell Bill funds.

Section 15.6 - Electric cities distribution

Arguably, since the Constitution authorizes the Governor to reduce only "State expenditures," the classification of these state-shared tax revenues as "local revenues" prohibits the Governor from reducing or withholding the distributions. Moreover, these sections would expressly state that the Governor may not reduce or withhold these distributions.

Section 15.7 amends the Executive Budget Act by limiting the Governor's authority to withhold from distribution funds that the General Assembly has appropriated or otherwise committed to local governments, including local reimbursement money. The Governor may withhold these funds only if, after making adequate provision for the prompt payment of principal of and interest on bonds and notes of the State, the Governor has exhausted all other sources of revenue of the State including surplus remaining in the treasury at the beginning of the fiscal period. In addition, the Governor must have been authorized to withhold the funds by an act of the General Assembly.

Based on the current information available, including a recent Attorney General's opinion, it is unclear whether amending the above-referenced statutes would be effective in preventing the Governor from withholding these funds from local governments. If the Governor withheld the funds despite the enactment of this legislation, enforcement of this limitation on the Governor's authority may have to be resolved by a court. The surest way to secure local revenues would be to pass a constitutional amendment prohibiting the Governor from withholding these funds.

"SECTION 8.1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a retailer is not liable for the additional one-half percent (½%) tax levied by counties on September 1, 2002, that it fails to collect from purchasers due to an inadvertent error during the month of September 2002, if the retailer can demonstrate to the Secretary the reason for the inadvertent error. An example of an inadvertent error is a delay in reprogramming point-of-sale equipment."

MINUTES
HOUSE COMMITTEE ON FINANCE

July 18, 2002

The House Committee on Finance met on Thursday, July 18, 2002, at 12:00 P.M. in Room 544 of the Legislative Office Building.

Representative Paul Luebke, Presiding Chair, called the meeting to order and the following members were present: Representatives Gordon Allen, Monroe Buchanan, and William Wainwright, Chairs; Representatives Dewey Hill and Mary Jarrell, Vice Chairs; Representatives Martha Alexander, John Blust, Leslie Cox, Pete Cunningham, Michael Decker, Andrew Dedmon, Beverly Earle, Zeno Edwards, Pryor Gibson, Lyons Gray, Joe Hackney, Hugh Holliman, Bill Hurley, Linda Johnson, Daniel McComas, Eugene McCombs, Edwin McMahan, Mia Morris, Art Pope, John Rayfield, Edgar Starnes, Jennifer Weiss, Shelly Willingham, Constance Wilson, and Larry Womble. Staff members present were Cindy Avrette, Trina Griffin, Martha Walston, Richard Bostic, and Canaan Huie. A Visitor Registration Sheet is attached and made a part of these minutes.

House Bill 1670, AN ACT TO ESTABLISH, SET, OR MODIFY VARIOUS FEES, was before the committee for consideration.

Rep. Cunningham moved to adopt the proposed committee substitute for discussion. Vote was taken and motion passed with a voice vote.

Rep. Redwine, House Appropriations Chairman, appeared before the committee to speak to the bill. He explained that the 2002 Fee Bill is a bill that normally appears before the committee in one form or another as a normal course of business and provided a brief overview of the genesis of the bill. He indicated that the budget staff would brief committee members on the various fees that are being proposed and reasons for the increases.

Chairman Luebke recognized staff as follows to explain various parts of the bill:

PART I – JUSTICE AND PUBLIC SAFETY FEES – Elisa Wolper, Justice and Public Safety Team, Fiscal Research Division, explained the increase in fees and the expected revenue related to offenders under the supervision of the Department of Correction, fees paid by offenders sentenced to the Community Service Work Program, probation supervision fees, fees related to court costs, General Court of Justice fees, fees covering the costs of processing expunctions, increase in program fees for the worthless check program, SBI laboratory analysis fees, fees for terminals and circuits within the Police Information Network, appointment fees in the Office of Indigent Defense Services, Justice Academy lodging fees and miscellaneous fees charged by magistrates.

She further explained that Section 1.8 provides for an exemption to court costs for domestic violence cases.

PART II – DEPARTMENT OF ENVIRONMENT AND NATURAL RESOURCES FEES– Adam Levinson, Natural and Economic Resources Team, Fiscal Research Division, explained the increase in fees and expected revenue relating to hazardous waste facilities, fees to monitor food and lodging facilities, two new fees charged by DENR for plan review of franchise or chain facilities for food establishments and a fee that local health departments may charge for plan review of local "mom and pop" type food establishments, and the Division of Parks and Recreation's increase in the car entry fee at Falls and Jordan Lakes.

PART III – DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE AND CONSUMER SERVICES FEES – Kelly Huffstetler, Natural and Economic Resources Team, Fiscal Research Division, explained the increase in fees and expected revenues for the licensure of pet shops, public auctions, boarding kennels, recording of livestock brands, public livestock market permits, a new fee for livestock dealers, fee for poultry ratite dealer license, increase of animal disease diagnostic tests, weights and measures fees, increase of wholesale and retail dairy establishment inspection fees, increase of the annual registration fee for commercial canned pet food, increase of license fees for pesticide dealers, applicators and consultants, increase of pesticide aircraft inspection fee, increase of license and inspection fees paid by seed dealers and the increase of fees for soil testing.

PART IV – DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES FEES – Jim Klingler, Health and Human Services Team, Fiscal Research Division, explained the Health and Human Services fees and expected revenues. There are two fees associated with the Division of Public Health, one for vital records copies or search and another for newborn metabolic life-threatening screening tests.

PART V – SECRETARY OF STATE FEES – Marilyn Chism, General Government/Information Technology, Fiscal Research Division, explained the increase in fees and expected revenue for notarial commissions, the raising of fees for various securities registrations, various filing and copying fees, increase of lobbyists' registration fees, the increase of broker-dealer registration fees, securities salesmen's fees, investment advisor representative fees, increase in costs of registering trademarks or service marks, and the increase in costs for a notice filing of the offer of securities for an investment company.

Following the explanation by staff of the various fees as set forth in the bill, Rep. Redwine opened the floor for questions from committee members.

John Kennedy, Administrative Office of the Courts, addressed Rep. Pope's concerns on the issue of court costs, stating that all infractions carry court costs except for a few obscure infractions.

Rep. Pope also questioned if agencies were consulted and if any agency objected to the fees or think it will cause a hardship on the community or people they serve. Rep. Redwine assured him that a vast majority of these fees were proposed by departments in one form or the other with the subcommittees and the budget staff working with them and that overwhelmingly, they are not objectionable.

Rep. Edwards raised questions about a remittance to the N. C. State Bar and what services the Bar provided for that remittance, expunctions for felons, and the Police Academy fee.

Rep. Decker asked about fees in the general government areas (cultural/historical areas) not being touched.

Rep. Womble asked about the guidelines or rationale that was used in the setting of fees and how the October 1 effective date was set.

Rep. Weiss wished to know if increased fees for DNA testing would address the backlog of rape kit tests.

T. Jerry Williams, N. C. Restaurant Association, spoke to Rep. Earle's concerns about reciprocity between the State and local government for franchise or chain facilities' plan reviews.

Rep. McComas indicated that he has had problems with the Department of Environment regarding the processing of CAMA permits and asked Rep. Redwine if he would be amenable to an amendment that would allow the Department to get additional funding and instead of it going to the general fund, it could be designated receipt supported. Rep. Redwine declined to accept an amendment of this nature at this time.

Rep. Willingham had concerns that some fees do not cover costs and wanted to make sure that they do cover costs.

Rep. Weiss sent forth a technical amendment. Trina Griffin reported that the amendment concerns compliance with the Violence Against Women Act which requires that in order to continue receiving certain grant monies, that we not charge court costs or service fees associated with obtaining protective orders for victims of domestic violence. Rep. Weiss moved for adoption of the amendment.

Rep. Wainwright offered a perfecting amendment to Rep. Weiss's amendment which was voted on and passed.

The Weiss amendment was adopted as perfected.

Rep. Johnson explained that in the University system, that they re-bill for their charges and asked why the Hazardous Waste Facility Fees could not be billed in this budget year. Levinson said this was the course of action that was recommended and said he did not know of any reason why a second bill could not be sent. Rep. Redwine said that the bills had already been sent out and rather than to bill them in October when the rest of this bill is effective, they would not.

Rep. Buchanan moved that the amendment be rolled into a Committee Substitute and that the bill be given a favorable report as to committee substitute, unfavorable as to original bill. The bill passed by voice vote.

There being no further business, the Chair adjourned the meeting at 1:45 P.M.

Respectfully submitted,

Paul Luebke

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO ESTABLISH, SET, OR MODIFY VARIOUS FEES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

PART I. JUSTICE AND PUBLIC SAFETY FEES

SECTION 1.1.(a) G.S. 15A-1371(i) reads as rewritten:

"(i) A fee of ~~one hundred dollars ($100.00)~~ two hundred dollars ($200.00) shall be paid by all persons who participate in the Community Service Parole Program. That fee must be paid to the clerk of court in the county in which the parolee is released. The fee must be paid in full within two weeks unless the Post-Release Supervision and Parole Commission, upon a showing of hardship by the person, allows ~~him~~ the person additional time to pay the fee. The parolee may not be required to pay the fee before ~~he~~ the person begins the community service unless the Post-Release Supervision and Parole Commission specifically orders that ~~he~~ the person do so. Fees collected under this subsection shall be deposited in the General Fund. The fee imposed under this ~~section~~ subsection may be paid as prescribed by the supervising parole officer."

SECTION 1.1.(b) G.S. 20-179.4(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) A fee of ~~one hundred dollars ($100.00)~~ two hundred dollars ($200.00) shall be paid by all persons serving a community service sentence. That fee shall be paid to the clerk of court in the county in which the person is convicted. The fee shall be paid in full within two weeks unless the court, upon a showing of hardship by the person, allows additional time to pay the fee. The person may not be required to pay the fee before beginning the community service unless the court specifically orders the person to do so."

SECTION 1.1.(c) G.S. 143B-262.4(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Unless a fee is assessed pursuant to G.S. 20-179.4 or G.S. 15A-1371(i), a fee of ~~one hundred dollars ($100.00)~~ two hundred dollars ($200.00) shall be paid by all persons who participate in the program or receive services from the program staff. Fees collected pursuant to this subsection shall be deposited in the General Fund. If the person is convicted in a court in this State, the fee shall be paid to the clerk of court in the county in which ~~he~~ the person is convicted. If the person is participating in the program as a result of a deferred prosecution or similar program, the fee shall be paid to the clerk of court in the county in which the agreement is filed. Persons participating in the program for any other reason shall pay the fee to the clerk of court in the county in which the services are provided by the program staff. The fee shall be paid in full within two weeks from the date the person is ordered to perform the community service, and before ~~he begins his~~ the person may participate in the community ~~service,~~ service program, except that:

(1) A person convicted in a court in this State may be given an extension of time or allowed to begin the community service before ~~he~~ the person pays the fee by the court in which ~~he~~ the person is convicted; or

(2) A person performing community service pursuant to a deferred prosecution or similar agreement may be given an extension of time or allowed to begin ~~his~~ community service before the fee is paid by the official or agency representing the State in the agreement.

~~Fees collected pursuant to this subsection shall be deposited in the General Fund.~~"

SECTION 1.1.(d) This section becomes effective October 1, 2002, and applies to fees assessed or collected on or after that date.

SECTION 1.2.(a) G.S. 15A-1343(c1) reads as rewritten:

"(c1) Supervision Fee. – Any person placed on supervised probation pursuant to subsection (a) shall pay a supervision fee of ~~twenty dollars ($20.00)~~ thirty dollars ($30.00) per month, unless exempted by the court. The court may exempt a person from paying the fee only for good cause and upon written motion of the person placed on supervised probation. No person shall be required to pay more than one supervision fee per month. The court may require that the fee be paid in advance or in a lump sum or sums, and a probation officer may require payment by such methods if he is authorized by subsection (g) to determine the payment schedule. Supervision fees must be paid to the clerk of court for the county in which the judgment was entered or the deferred prosecution agreement was filed. Fees collected under this subsection shall be transmitted to the State for deposit into the State's General Fund."

SECTION 1.2.(b) G.S. 15A-1368.4(f) reads as rewritten:

"(f) Required Supervision Fee. – The Commission shall require as a condition of post-release supervision that the supervisee pay a supervision fee of ~~twenty dollars ($20.00)~~ thirty dollars ($30.00) per month. The Commission may exempt a supervisee from this condition only if it finds that requiring payment of the fee is an undue economic burden. The fee shall be paid to the clerk of superior court of the county in which the supervisee was convicted. The clerk shall transmit any money collected pursuant to this subsection to the State to be deposited in the State's General Fund. In no event shall a supervisee be required to pay more than one supervision fee per month."

SECTION 1.2.(c) G.S. 15A-1374(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) Supervision Fee. – The Commission must require as a condition of parole that the parolee pay a supervision fee of ~~twenty dollars ($20.00)~~ thirty dollars ($30.00) per month. The Commission may exempt a parolee from this condition of parole only if it finds that requiring him to pay the fee will constitute an undue economic burden. The fee must be paid to the clerk of superior court of the county in which the parolee was convicted. The clerk must transmit any money collected pursuant to this subsection to the State to be deposited in the general fund of the State. In no event shall a person released on parole be required to pay more than one supervision fee per month."

SECTION 1.2.(d) This section becomes effective October 1, 2002, and applies to supervision fees assessed or collected on or after that date.

SECTION 1.3. Reserved.

SECTION 1.4.(a) G.S. 20-135.2A(e) reads as rewritten:

"(e) Any driver or passenger who fails to wear a seat belt as required by this section shall have committed an infraction and shall pay a penalty of twenty-five dollars ($25.00). Conviction of an infraction under this section has no consequence other than payment of a penalty. ~~A~~ For a person found responsible for a violation of this ~~section may not be assessed court costs.~~section, the only court costs assessed shall be the General Court of Justice fee imposed under G.S. 7A-304(a)(4)."

SECTION 1.4.(b) This section becomes effective September 1, 2002, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date.

SECTION 1.5.(a) G.S. 7A-304(a)(4) reads as rewritten:

"(a) In every criminal case in the superior or district court, wherein the defendant is convicted, or enters a plea of guilty or nolo contendere, or when costs are assessed against the prosecuting witness, the following costs shall be assessed and collected, except that when the judgment imposes an active prison sentence, costs shall be assessed and collected only when the judgment specifically so provides, and that no costs may be assessed when a case is dismissed.

...

(4) For support of the General Court of Justice, the sum of ~~sixty-five dollars ($65.00)~~ seventy-five dollars ($75.00) in the district court, including cases before a magistrate, and the sum of ~~seventy-two dollars ($72.00)~~ eighty-two dollars ($82.00) in the superior court, to be remitted to the State Treasurer. For a person convicted of a felony in superior court who has made a first appearance in district court, both the district court and superior court fees shall be assessed. The State Treasurer shall remit the sum of one dollar and five cents ($1.05) of each fee collected under this subdivision to the North Carolina State Bar for the provision of services described in G.S. 7A-474.4.

...."

SECTION 1.5.(b) G.S. 7A-305(a)(2) reads as rewritten:

"(2) For support of the General Court of Justice, the sum of ~~fifty-nine dollars ($59.00)~~ sixty-nine dollars ($69.00) in the superior court, and the sum of ~~forty-four dollars ($44.00)~~ fifty-four dollars ($54.00) in the district court except that if the case is assigned to a magistrate the sum shall be ~~thirty-three dollars ($33.00).~~ forty-three dollars ($43.00). Sums collected under this subdivision shall be remitted to the State Treasurer. The State Treasurer shall remit the sum of one dollar and five cents ($1.05) of each fee collected under this subdivision to the North Carolina State Bar for the provision of services described in G.S. 7A-474.4."

SECTION 1.5.(c) This section becomes effective September 1, 2002, and applies to offenses committed and civil cases filed on or after that date.

SECTION 1.6.(a) G.S. 15A-145(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) The court shall also order that the said misdemeanor conviction be expunged from the records of the court, and direct all law-enforcement agencies bearing record of the same to expunge their records of the conviction. The clerk shall forward a certified copy of the order to the sheriff, chief of police, or other arresting agency. The sheriff, chief or head of such other arresting agency shall then transmit the copy of the order with a form supplied by the State Bureau of Investigation to the State Bureau of Investigation, and the State Bureau of Investigation shall forward the order to the Federal Bureau of Investigation. ~~The cost of expunging such records shall be taxed against the petitioner.~~"

SECTION 1.6.(b) G.S. 15A-145 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(e) A person who files a petition for expunction of a criminal record under this section must pay the clerk of superior court a fee of sixty-five dollars ($65.00) at the time the petition is filed. Fees collected under this subsection shall be deposited in the General Fund. This subsection does not apply to petitions filed by an indigent."

SECTION 1.6.(c) G.S. 15A-146(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) The court may also order that the said entries shall be expunged from the records of the court, and direct all law-enforcement agencies bearing record of the same to expunge their records of the entries. The clerk shall forward a certified copy of the order to the sheriff, chief of police, or other arresting agency. The sheriff, chief or head of such other arresting agency shall then transmit the copy of the order with the form supplied by the State Bureau of Investigation to the State Bureau of Investigation, and the State Bureau of Investigation shall forward the order to the Federal Bureau of Investigation. ~~The costs of expunging such records shall be taxed against the petitioner.~~"

SECTION 1.6.(d) G.S. 15A-146 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(d) A person who files a petition for expunction of a criminal record under this section must pay the clerk of superior court a fee of sixty-five dollars ($65.00) at the time the petition is filed. Fees collected under this subsection shall be deposited in the General Fund. This subsection does not apply to petitions filed by an indigent."

SECTION 1.6.(e) G.S. 90-96 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(f) A person who files a petition for expunction of a criminal record under this section must pay the clerk of superior court a fee of sixty-five dollars ($65.00) at the time the petition is filed. Fees collected under this subsection shall be deposited in the General Fund. This subsection does not apply to petitions filed by an indigent."

SECTION 1.6.(f) This section becomes effective October 1, 2002, and applies to petitions filed on or after that date.

SECTION 1.7. Reserved.

SECTION 1.8.(a) G.S. 50B-2 reads as rewritten:

"§ 50B-2. Institution of civil action; motion for emergency relief; temporary orders.

(a) Any person residing in this State may seek relief under this Chapter by filing a civil action or by filing a motion in any existing action filed under Chapter 50 of the General Statutes alleging acts of domestic violence against himself or herself or a minor child who resides with or is in the custody of such person. Any aggrieved party entitled to relief under this Chapter may file a civil action and proceed pro se, without the assistance of legal counsel. The district court division of the General Court of Justice shall have original jurisdiction over actions instituted under this Chapter. No court costs shall be assessed for the filing, issuance, registration, or service of a protective order or petition for a protective order or witness subpoena in compliance with the Violence Against Women Act, 42 U.S.C. § 3796gg-5.

(b) Emergency Relief. – A party may move the court for emergency relief if he or she believes there is a danger of serious and immediate injury to himself or herself or a minor child. A hearing on a motion for emergency relief, where no ex parte order is entered, shall be held after five days' notice of the hearing to the other party or after five days from the date of service of process on the other party, whichever occurs first, provided, however, that no hearing shall be required if the service of process is not completed on the other party. If the party is proceeding pro se and does not request an ex parte hearing, the clerk shall set a date for hearing and issue a notice of hearing within the time periods provided in this subsection, and shall effect service of the summons, complaint, notice, and other papers through the appropriate law enforcement agency where the defendant is to be ~~served, upon payment of the required service fees.~~served.

(c) Ex Parte Orders. – Prior to the hearing, if it clearly appears to the court from specific facts shown, that there is a danger of acts of domestic violence against the aggrieved party or a minor child, the court may enter such orders as it deems necessary to protect the aggrieved party or minor children from such acts provided, however, that a temporary order for custody ex parte and prior to service of process and notice shall not be entered unless the court finds that the child is exposed to a substantial risk of bodily injury or sexual abuse. Upon the issuance of an ex parte order under this subsection, a hearing shall be held within 10 days from the date of issuance of the order or within seven days from the date of service of process on the other party, whichever occurs later. If an aggrieved party acting pro se requests ex parte relief, the clerk of superior court shall schedule an ex parte hearing with the district court division of the General Court of Justice within 72 hours of the filing for said relief, or by the end of the next day on which the district court is in session in the county in which the action was filed, whichever shall first occur. If the district court is not in session in said county, the aggrieved party may contact the clerk of superior court in any other county within the same judicial district who shall schedule an ex parte hearing with the district court division of the General Court of Justice by the end of the next day on which said court division is in session in that county. Upon the issuance of an ex parte order under this subsection, if the party is proceeding pro se, the Clerk shall set a date for hearing and issue a notice of hearing within the time periods provided in this subsection, and shall effect service of the summons, complaint, notice, order and other papers through the appropriate law enforcement agency where the defendant is to be ~~served, upon payment of the required service fees.~~served.

(c1) Ex Parte Orders by Authorized Magistrate. – The chief district court judge may authorize a magistrate or magistrates to hear any motions for emergency relief ex parte. Prior to the hearing, if the magistrate determines that at the time the party is seeking emergency relief ex parte the district court is not in session and a district court judge is not and will not be available to hear the motion for a period of four or more hours, the motion may be heard by the magistrate. If it clearly appears to the magistrate from specific facts shown that there is a danger of acts of domestic violence against the aggrieved party or a minor child, the magistrate may enter such orders as it deems necessary to protect the aggrieved party or minor children from such acts, except that a temporary order for custody ex parte and prior to service of process and notice shall not be entered unless the magistrate finds that the child is exposed to a substantial risk of bodily injury or sexual abuse. An ex parte order entered under this subsection shall expire and the magistrate shall schedule an ex parte hearing before a district court judge by the end of the next day on which the district court is in session in the county in which the action was filed. Ex parte orders entered by the district court judge pursuant to this subsection shall be entered and scheduled in accordance with subsection (c) of this section.

(c2) The authority granted to authorized magistrates to award temporary child custody to pursuant subsection (c1) of this section and pursuant to G.S. 50B-3(a)(4) is granted subject to custody rules to be established by the supervising chief district judge of each judicial district.

(d) Pro Se Forms. – The clerk of superior court of each county shall provide to pro se complainants all forms which are necessary or appropriate to enable them to proceed pro se pursuant to this section. The Clerk shall provide a supply of pro se forms to authorized magistrates who shall make the forms available to complainants seeking relief under subsection (c1) of this section."

SECTION 1.8.(b) G.S. 50B-3(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) The court, including magistrates as authorized under G.S. 50B-2(c1), may grant any protective order or approve any consent agreement to bring about a cessation of acts of domestic violence. The orders or agreements may:

...

(10) Award ~~costs and~~ attorney's fees to either party;

..."

SECTION 1.8.(c) G.S. 50B-4 reads as rewritten:

"(a) A party may file a motion for contempt for violation of any order entered pursuant to this Chapter. This party may file and proceed with that motion pro se, using forms provided by the clerk of superior court or a magistrate authorized under G.S. 50B-2(c1). Upon the filing pro se of a motion for contempt under this subsection, the clerk, or the authorized magistrate, if the facts show clearly that there is danger of acts of domestic violence against the aggrieved party or a minor child and the motion is made at a time when the clerk is not available, shall schedule and issue notice of a show cause hearing with the district court division of the General Court of Justice at the earliest possible date pursuant to G.S. 5A-23. The Clerk, or the magistrate in the case of notice issued by the magistrate pursuant to this subsection, shall effect service of the motion, notice, and other papers through the appropriate law enforcement agency where the defendant is to be ~~served, upon payment of the required service fees.~~served."

SECTION 1.8.(d) G.S. 1-110(a)(6) is repealed.

SECTION 1.8.(e) G.S. 7A-305(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) In every civil action in the superior or district ~~court~~court, except for actions brought under Chapter 50B of the General Statutes, the following costs shall be assessed:

(1) For the use of the courtroom and related judicial facilities, the sum of twelve dollars ($12.00) in cases heard before a magistrate, and the sum of sixteen dollars ($16.00) in district and superior court, to be remitted to the county in which the judgment is rendered, except that in all cases in which the judgment is rendered in facilities provided by a municipality, the facilities fee shall be paid to the municipality. Funds derived from the facilities fees shall be used in the same manner, for the same purposes, and subject to the same restrictions, as facilities fees assessed in criminal actions.

(2) For support of the General Court of Justice, the sum of fifty-nine dollars ($59.00) in the superior court, and the sum of forty-four dollars ($44.00) in the district court except that if the case is assigned to a magistrate the sum shall be thirty-three dollars ($33.00). Sums collected under this subdivision shall be remitted to the State Treasurer. The State Treasurer shall remit the sum of one dollar and five cents ($1.05) of each fee collected under this subdivision to the North Carolina State Bar for the provision of services described in G.S. 7A-474.4."

SECTION 1.8.(f) G.S. 7A-311(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) In a civil action or special proceeding, except for actions brought under Chapter 50B of the General Statutes, the following fees and commissions shall be assessed, collected, and remitted to the county:

(1) a. For each item of civil process served, including summons, subpoenas, notices, motions, orders, writs and pleadings, the sum of five dollars ($5.00). When two or more items of civil process are served simultaneously on one party, only one five dollar ($5.00) fee shall be charged.

b. When an item of civil process is served on two or more persons or organizations, a separate service charge shall be made for each person or organization. If the process is served, or attempted to be served, by a city policeman, the fee shall be remitted to the city rather than the county. If the process is served, or attempted to be served by the sheriff, the fee shall be remitted to the county. This subsection shall not apply to service of summons to jurors."

SECTION 1.8.(g) G.S. 7A-311(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) All fees that are required to be assessed, collected, and remitted under subsection (a) of this section shall be collected in advance (except in suits in forma pauperis) except those contingent on expenses or sales prices. When the fee is not collected in advance or at the time of assessment, a lien shall exist in favor of the county on all property of the party owing the fee. If the fee remains unpaid it shall be entered as a judgment against the debtor and shall be docketed in the judgment docket in the office of the clerk of superior court."

SECTION 1.8.(h) This section becomes effective October 1, 2002.

SECTION 1.9.(a) G.S. 7A-308(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) A person who participates in a program for the collection of worthless checks under G.S. 14-107.2 must pay a fee of ~~fifty dollars ($50.00).~~ sixty dollars ($60.00). The fee collected under this subsection must be remitted to the State by the clerk of the court in the county in which the program is established and credited to the Collection of Worthless Checks Fund. The Collection of Worthless Checks Fund is created as a special revenue fund. Revenue in the Fund does not revert at the end of the fiscal year, and interest and other investment income earned by the Fund accrues to the Fund. The money in the Fund is subject to appropriation by the General Assembly and may be used solely for the expenses of the programs established under G.S. 14-107.2 for the collection of worthless ~~checks.~~ checks, including personnel, equipment, and other costs of district attorneys' offices that are attributable to the provision of these programs."

SECTION 1.9.(b) This section becomes effective October 1, 2002.

SECTION 1.10.(a) G.S. 7A-304(a) is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(a) In every criminal case in the superior or district court, wherein the defendant is convicted, or enters a plea of guilty or nolo contendere, or when costs are assessed against the prosecuting witness, the following costs shall be assessed and collected, except that when the judgment imposes an active prison sentence, costs shall be assessed and collected only when the judgment specifically so provides, and that no costs may be assessed when a case is dismissed.

...

(7) For the services of the State Bureau of Investigation laboratory facilities, the district or superior court judge shall, upon conviction, order payment of the sum of three hundred dollars ($300.00) to be remitted to the Department of Justice for support of the State Bureau of Investigation. This cost shall be assessed only in cases in which, as part of the investigation leading to the defendant's conviction, the laboratories have performed DNA analysis of the crime, tests of bodily fluids of the defendant for the presence of alcohol or controlled substances, or analysis of any controlled substance possessed by the defendant or the defendant's agent. The court may waive or reduce the amount of the payment required by this subdivision upon a finding of just cause to grant such a waiver or reduction."

SECTION 1.10.(b) G.S. 90-95.3(b) is repealed.

SECTION 1.10.(c) Subsection (a) of this section becomes effective October 1, 2002, and applies to court costs assessed or paid on or after that date. Subsection (b) of this section becomes effective October 1, 2002, but the provisions of G.S. 90-95.3(b) continue to apply to any defendant who was ordered to make restitution under the provisions of that subsection prior to October 1, 2002.

SECTION 1.11.(a) G.S. 114-10.1(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) The Attorney General, after consultation with participating agencies, shall adopt rules and regulations governing the organization and administration of the Police Information Network, including rules and regulations governing the types of information relating to the administration of criminal justice to be entered into the system, ~~and~~ who shall have access to ~~such information~~ that information, and fees for access to that information. The rules and regulations governing access to the Police Information Network shall not prohibit an attorney who has entered a criminal proceeding in accordance with G.S. 15A-141 from obtaining information relevant to that criminal proceeding. The rules and regulations governing access to the Police Information Network shall not prohibit an attorney who represents a person in adjudicatory or dispositional proceedings for an infraction from obtaining the person's driving record or criminal history."

SECTION 1.11.(b) The Division of Criminal Information shall charge the following monthly fees for the Police Information Network for the 2002-2003 fiscal year:

(1) Circuit fee: $67.00.

(2) Terminal fee: $29.50.

SECTION 1.11.(c) This section becomes effective January 1, 2003.

SECTION 1.12.(a) Article 36 of Chapter 7A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 7A-455.1. Appointment fee in criminal cases.

(a) Each person who requests the appointment of counsel in a criminal case shall pay to the clerk of court a nonrefundable appointment fee of fifty dollars ($50.00) at the time of appointment. Partial payments shall be credited against the amount of the fifty-dollar ($50.00) fee due. No fee shall be due if the court finds that the person is not entitled to the appointment of counsel.

(b) The appointment fee in this section is due regardless of the outcome of the proceedings. If paid before the final determination of the action at the trial level, the amount of the fee paid shall be credited against any amounts the court determines to be owed for the value of legal services rendered to the defendant. If not paid before the final determination of the action at the trial level, the unpaid amount of the fee shall be added to any amounts the court determines to be owed for the value of legal services rendered to the defendant and shall be collected in the same manner as attorney's fees are collected for such representation. If no attorney's fees are found due when the action is finally determined at the trial level, a judgment shall be entered, docketed, and indexed pursuant to G.S. 1-233 in the amount of the unpaid fee and shall constitute a lien as prescribed by the general law of the State applicable to judgments.

(c) The attorney representing the defendant when the action is finally determined at the trial level shall advise the court whether the appointment fee required by this section has been paid.

(d) Inability, failure, or refusal to pay the appointment fee shall not be grounds for denying appointment of counsel, for withdrawal of counsel, or for contempt.

(e) The appointment fee required by this section shall be assessed only once for each affidavit of indigency submitted by a defendant or other determination of indigency by the court, regardless of the number of cases for which an attorney is appointed. An additional appointment fee shall not be assessed for any additional cases thereafter assigned to an attorney if any cases for which a defendant was previously assessed an appointment fee are still pending. Nor shall an additional appointment fee be assessed if the charges for which an attorney was appointed are dismissed and subsequently refiled or if the defendant is appointed an attorney on appeal on a matter for which the defendant was assessed an appointment fee at the trial level.

(f) Of each appointment fee collected under this section, the sum of forty-five dollars ($45.00) shall be credited to the Indigent Persons' Attorney Fee Fund and the sum of five dollars ($5.00) shall be credited to the Court Information Technology Fund under G.S. 7A-343.2. These fees shall not revert.

(g) The Office of Indigent Defense Services shall adopt rules and develop forms to govern implementation of this section."

SECTION 1.12.(b) G.S. 7A-304(d)(1) reads as rewritten:

"(d) (1) In any criminal case in which the liability for costs, fines, restitution, or any other lawful charge has been finally determined, the clerk of superior court shall, unless otherwise ordered by the presiding judge, disburse such funds when paid in accordance with the following priorities:

a. Sums in restitution to the victim entitled thereto;
b. Costs due the county;
c. Costs due the city;
d. Fines to the county school fund;
e. Sums in restitution prorated among the persons other than the victim entitled thereto;
f. Costs due the State;
g. Attorney's ~~fees.~~ fees, including appointment fees assessed pursuant to G.S. 7A-455.1."

SECTION 1.12.(c) This section becomes effective October 1, 2002.

SECTION 1.13.(a) The Department of Justice shall charge a fee of ten dollars ($10 00) per night to those persons who lodge in the dormitories at the North Carolina Justice Academy. This fee shall apply to both the Salemburg and the Edneyville locations of the Academy.

SECTION 1.13.(b) This section becomes effective October 1, 2002.

SECTION 1.14.(a) G.S. 7A-309 reads as rewritten:

"§ 7A-309. Magistrate's special fees.

The following special fees shall be collected by the magistrate and remitted to the clerk of superior court for the use of the State in support of the General Court of Justice:

(1) Performing marriage ceremony ..... ~~$10.00~~$20.00

(2) Hearing petition for year's allowance to surviving spouse or child, issuing notices to commissioners, allotting the same, and making return ..... ~~4.00~~8.00

(3) Taking a deposition ..... ~~5.00~~10.00

(4) Proof of execution or acknowledgment of any instrument ..... ~~1.00~~2.00

(5) Performing any other statutory function not incident to a civil or criminal action ..... ~~1.00~~2.00"

SECTION 1.14.(b) This section becomes effective October 1, 2002.

PART II. DEPARTMENT OF ENVIRONMENT AND NATURAL RESOURCES FEES

SECTION 2.1. G.S. 130A-294.1(e) reads as rewritten:

"(e) A person who generates either one kilogram or more of any acute hazardous waste as listed in 40 C.F.R. § 261.30(d) or § 261.33(e) as revised 1 July 1987, or 1000 kilograms or more of hazardous waste, in any calendar month during the year beginning 1 July and ending 30 June shall pay an annual fee of ~~five hundred dollars ($500.00)~~seven hundred fifty dollars ($750.00)."

SECTION 2.2. G.S. 130A-294.1(f) reads as rewritten:

"(f) A person who generates 100 kilograms or more of hazardous waste in any calendar month during the year beginning 1 July and ending 30 June but less than 1000 kilograms of hazardous waste in each calendar month during that year shall pay an annual fee of ~~twenty-five dollars ($25.00)~~thirty-seven dollars and fifty cents ($37.50)."

SECTION 2.3.(a) G.S. 130A-248(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) The Department shall charge each establishment subject to this section, except nutrition programs for the elderly administered by the Division of Aging of the Department of Health and Human Services, establishments that prepare and sell meat food products or poultry products, and public school cafeterias, an annual fee of ~~twenty-five dollars ($25.00)~~fifty dollars ($50.00). The Department shall charge an additional twenty-five dollar ($25.00) late payment fee to any establishment that fails to pay the required fee within 45 days after billing by the Department. The Department may, in accordance with G.S. 130A-23, suspend the permit of an establishment that fails to pay the required fee within 60 days after billing by the Department. The Department shall charge a reinstatement fee of one hundred fifty dollars ($150.00) to any establishment that requests reinstatement of its permit after the permit has been suspended. The Commission shall adopt rules to implement this subsection. Fees collected under this subsection shall be used for State and local food, lodging, and institution sanitation programs and activities. No more than thirty-three and one-third percent (33-1/3%) of the fees collected under this subsection may be used to support State health programs and activities."

SECTION 2.3.(b) The Legislative Research Commission may study the current program within the Department of Environment and Natural Resources regarding the regulation of food and lodging facilities to determine whether the annual fee paid by establishments under G.S. 130A-248(d), as amended by subsection (a) of this section, is sufficient for the State and local food, lodging, and institution sanitation programs and activities. The Legislative Research Commission shall report no later than the convening of the 2004 Regular Session of the 2003 General Assembly. This report shall include a recommendation as to whether the annual fee paid by establishments should remain at fifty dollars ($50.00) or should be changed, and if so, to what amount it should be changed in order to improve the State and local food, lodging, and institution sanitation programs and activities. This report shall include any legislative proposals needed to accomplish the Commission's recommendations.

SECTION 2.4. G.S. 130A-248 is amended by adding two new subsections to read:

"(e) In addition to the fees under subsection (d) of this section, the Department may charge a fee of two hundred dollars ($200.00) for plan review by the Department of plans for franchised or chain facilities for food establishments subject to this section. All of the fees collected under this subsection may be used to support the State food, lodging, and institution sanitation programs and activities under this Part.

(f) Any local health department may charge a fee not to exceed two hundred dollars ($200.00) for plan review by that local health department of plans for food establishments subject to this section that are not plans for franchised or chain facilities. All of the fees collected under this subsection may be used for local food, lodging, and institution sanitation programs and activities."

SECTION 2.5. The Department of Environment and Natural Resources shall adopt temporary rules to increase the entry fee for use of State recreation areas at Jordan Lake and at Falls Lake from four dollars ($4.00) per vehicle to five dollars ($5.00) per vehicle. This section is not intended to preempt the Department's authority under G.S. 113-35 to charge and collect reasonable fees in the future for the use of State lakes. The fee increases under this section shall remain in effect until the Department subsequently adopts rules under G.S. 113-35 to change these fees other than the rules that are adopted to implement this section.

SECTION 2.6. Except as otherwise provided, this part becomes effective October 1, 2002.

PART III. DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE AND CONSUMER SERVICES FEES

SECTION 3.1. G.S. 19A-27 reads as rewritten:

"§ 19A-27. License required for operation of pet shop.

No person shall operate a pet shop unless a license to operate such establishment shall have been granted by the Director. Application for such license shall be made in the manner provided by the Director. The license shall be for the fiscal year and the license fee shall be ~~fifty dollars ($50.00)~~ one hundred dollars ($100.00) for each license period or part thereof beginning with the first day of the fiscal year."

SECTION 3.2. G.S. 19A-28 reads as rewritten:

"§ 19A-28. License required for public auction or boarding kennel.

No person shall operate a public auction or a boarding kennel unless a license to operate such establishment shall have been granted by the Director. Application for such license shall be made in the manner provided by the Director. The license period shall be the fiscal year and the license fee shall be ~~fifty dollars ($50.00)~~ one hundred dollars ($100.00) for each license period or part thereof beginning with the first day of the fiscal year."

SECTION 3.3. G.S. 19A-29 reads as rewritten:

"§ 19A-29. License required for dealer.

No person shall be a dealer unless a license to deal shall have been granted by the Director to such person. Application for such license shall be in the manner provided by the Director. The license period shall be the fiscal year and the license fee shall be ~~fifty dollars ($50.00)~~ one hundred dollars ($100.00) for each license period or part thereof, beginning with the first day of the fiscal year."

SECTION 3.4. G.S. 80-62 reads as rewritten:

"§ 80-62. Fees for recording.

The Commissioner is authorized to collect a fee of ~~twenty-five dollars ($25.00)~~ fifty dollars ($50.00) for the recording of each new brand, or for rerecording of each brand, and shall issue one certified copy of each brand recording to the holder of said brand. Duplicate certificates of registration may be issued by the Commissioner upon payment of a fee of two dollars ($2.00). Revenues collected pursuant to this Article shall be deposited with the State Treasurer to the account of the North Carolina Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services."

SECTION 3.5.(a) G.S. 81A-11 is repealed.

SECTION 3.5.(b) Chapter 81A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 81A-12. Fee schedule.

(a) The following fees apply to all weights that are tested and certified to meet tolerances less stringent than American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM) Standard E617 Class 4. This includes the National Institutes of Standards and Technology (NIST) Class F tolerance. If the weight error exceeds three--fourths of the applicable tolerance, adjustment may be required at an additional fee of one--half the normal fee. No extra fee will be charged for the normal adjustment of a weight cart. Even if weights are rejected or condemned, fees shall be assessed for the test performed.

Customary	Fee/Unit	Metric	Fee/Unit
0-10 lb	$ 5.00	0-5 kg	$ 5.00

11-100 lb	$ 7.50	6-50 kg	$ 7.50
101-1000 lb	$ 15.00	51-500 kg	$ 15.00
1001-2500 lb	$ 30.00	501-1000 kg	$ 30.00
2501-6000 lb	$ 50.00	1001-2500 kg	$ 50.00
Weight Carts
3000 to 6000 lb	$100.00

(b) The following fees apply to all weights that are tested and certified to meet ASTM Standard E617 Class 4 or International Organization of Legal Metrology (OIML) R111 Class F2 tolerances. If the weight error exceeds three-fourths of the applicable tolerance, adjustment may be required at an additional fee equal to the normal fee. Even if weights are rejected or condemned, fees shall be assessed for the test performed.

Customary	Fee/Unit	Metric	Fee/Unit
0-10 lb	$ 10.00	0-5 kg	$ 10.00
11-100 lb	$ 15.00	6-50 kg	$ 15.00
101-1000 lb	$ 30.00	51-500 kg	$ 30.00
1001-2500 lb	$ 60.00	501-1000 kg	$ 60.00
2501-6000 lb	$100.00	1001-2500 kg	$100.00

(c) The following fees apply to all weights that are calibrated. Calibration means determining actual mass and conventional mass values with an assigned uncertainty specific to the test. If necessary and considered feasible by the metrologist, adjustments to ASTM Class 1, 2, or 3 tolerances or OIML Class E2, F1, or F2 tolerances may be made for an additional fee of two times the normal fee. Tolerance testing fees shall be assessed on weights that can only be adjusted to a lower tolerance or are rejected for any reason.

Customary	Fee/Unit	Metric	Fee/Unit
0-20 lb	$ 20.00	0-10 kg	$ 20.00
21-50 lb	$ 40.00	11-30 kg	$ 40.00

SECTION 3.6. G.S. 106-254 reads as rewritten:

"§ 106-254. Inspection fees; wholesalers; retailers and cheese factories.

For the purpose of defraying the expenses incurred in the enforcement of this Article, the owner, proprietor or operator of each ice cream factory where ice cream, milk shakes, milk sherbet, sherbet, water ices, mixes for frozen or semifrozen desserts and other similar frozen or semifrozen food products are made or stored, or any cheese factory or butter-processing plant that disposes of its products at wholesale to retail dealers for resale in this State shall pay to the Commissioner of Agriculture each year an inspection fee of ~~forty dollars ($40.00).~~ sixty dollars ($60.00). Each maker of ice cream, milk shakes, milk sherbet, sherbet, water ices and/or other similar frozen or semifrozen food products who disposes of his product at retail only, and cheese factories, shall pay to the Commissioner of Agriculture an inspection fee of ~~ten dollars ($10.00)~~ fifteen dollars ($15.00) each year. The inspection fee ~~of ten dollars ($10.00)~~ shall not apply to conventional spindle-type milk-shake mixers, but shall apply to milk-shake dispensing and vending machines, which operate on a continuous or automatic basis."

SECTION 3.7. G.S. 106-277.28 reads as rewritten:

"§ 106-277.28. License and inspection fees.

For the purpose of providing a fund to defray the expense of inspection, examination, and analysis of seeds and the enforcement of this Article:

(1) Repealed by Session Laws 1991, c. 588, s. 1.

(2) Each seed dealer who offers for sale any agricultural, vegetable, or lawn or turf seeds for seeding purposes shall register with the Commissioner and shall obtain an annual license, for each location where activities are conducted, by January 1 of each year and shall pay the following license fee:

a. Wholesale or combined wholesale and retail seed dealer ..... ~~$100.00~~

..... $145.00

b. Retail seed dealer with sales of no more than $500.00 ..... ~~5.00~~

..... 25.00

d. Retail seed dealer with sales of more than $1,000 ..... ~~25.00.~~
..... 40.00.

(3) Each seed dealer or grower who has seed, whether originated or labeled by the dealer or grower, that is offered for sale in this State shall report the quantity of seed offered for sale and pay an inspection fee of two cents (2¢) for each container of seeds weighing 10 pounds or more. Seed shall be subject to the inspection fee and reporting requirements only once in any 12-month period. This fee does not apply to seed grown by a farmer and offered for sale by the farmer at the farm where the seed was grown.

Each seed dealer or grower shall keep accurate records of the quantity of seeds and container weights offered for sale from each distribution point in the State. These records shall be available to the Commissioner or an authorized representative of the Commissioner at any and all reasonable hours for the purpose of verifying the quantity of seed offered for sale and the fees paid. Each seed dealer or grower shall report quarterly on forms furnished by the Commissioner the quantity and container weight of seeds first offered for sale that quarter. The reports shall be made on the first day of January, April, July, and October, or within 10 days thereafter. Inspection fees shall be due and paid with the next quarterly report filed after the seed is first offered for sale. If the report is not filed and the inspection fees paid to the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services by the tenth day following the date due, or if the report of the quantity or container weights is false, the Commissioner may issue a stop-sale order for all seed offered for sale by the dealer or grower. If the inspection fees are unpaid more than 15 days after the due date, the amount due shall bear a penalty of ten percent (10%) which shall be added to the inspection fees due."

SECTION 3.8.(a) G.S. 106-284.34(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) No person shall distribute in this State a commercial feed, except a customer-formula feed, which has not been registered pursuant to the provisions of this section. The application for registration shall be submitted in the manner prescribed by the Commissioner. Upon approval by the Commissioner or his duly designated agent the registration shall be issued to the applicant. All registrations expire on the thirty-first day of December of each year. An annual registration fee of ~~three dollars ($3.00)~~ five dollars ($5.00) for each commercial feed other than canned pet food shall accompany each request for registration. "(b) An inspection fee at the rate of twelve cents (12¢) per ton shall be paid on commercial feeds distributed in the State by the person whose name appears on the label of the commercial feed as the manufacturer, distributor or guarantor of the commercial feed, subject to the following:

...

(4) In the case of a commercial feed other than canned pet food which is distributed in the State only in packages of five pounds or less, an annual registration fee of ~~thirty dollars ($30.00)~~ forty-five dollars ($45.00) shall be paid in lieu of the inspection fee specified above."

SECTION 3.9. G.S. 106-406 reads as rewritten:

"§ 106-406. Permits from Commissioner of Agriculture for operation of public livestock markets; application therefor; hearing on application.

Any person, firm or corporation desiring to operate a public livestock market within the State of North Carolina shall be required to file an application with the Commissioner of Agriculture for a permit authorizing the operation of such market; provided that, those markets operating under a valid permit and in accordance with G.S. 106-406 through 106-418 at the time this Article becomes effective shall be issued a license upon payment of the annual license fee and upon satisfying the requirement for bonding as specified in G.S. 106-407. An application for a permit shall include the following information:

(1) The name and address of the applicant, name of market and a listing of the names and addresses of all persons having any financial interest in the proposed livestock market and the amount and nature of such interest, and such other information as is required to complete an application form supplied by the Commissioner; and

(2) The plans and specifications for the facilities proposed to be built, or for existing structures.

The application for a permit shall be accompanied by a permit fee of ~~two hundred fifty dollars ($250.00),~~ three hundred fifty dollars ($350.00), two hundred dollars ($200.00) of which shall be returned to the applicant if the application is denied, plus one hundred dollars ($100.00) annual permit fee for the first year of operation of the market, all of which shall be returned to the applicant if the application is denied. There shall be an annual renewal fee of ~~one hundred dollars ($100.00)~~ one hundred fifty dollars ($150.00) for each year of operation thereafter.

Upon the filing of said application, the Commissioner shall determine whether all necessary information has been furnished. If all information required has not been furnished, the Commissioner shall notify the applicant by mail of the additional information needed; it shall be furnished the Commissioner by the applicant within 10 days of such notification. Upon receipt of all required information, the Commissioner shall issue a license or fix the date of a hearing on said application, to be held in Raleigh. Notice of the time and date of the hearing shall be published in a newspaper having general circulation in the county in which the livestock market is proposed to be located; said notice shall appear at least 10 days prior to such hearing. The applicant shall be notified by mail by the Commissioner at least 20 days prior to the hearing of the time and place of said hearing. The Commissioner shall also notify by mail the members of the Public Livestock Market Advisory Board of the time and place of said hearing, at least 10 days before the date on which the hearing will be held.

A public hearing shall be conducted by the Commissioner on said application. If, after the hearing, at which any person may appear in support or opposition thereto, the North Carolina Public Livestock Market Advisory Board finds that the public livestock market for which a permit or license is sought fulfills the requirements of all applicable laws, it shall recommend to the Commissioner that a permit be issued to the applicant. If the Commissioner denies the application, the applicant may commence a contested case under G.S. 150B-23 by filing a petition within 10 days after receiving notice of the denial. Unless revoked by the Board of Agriculture pursuant to any applicable law or regulation, permits will be renewed each July 1 on payment of the annual renewal fee."

SECTION 3.10. G.S. 106-418.11(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) Any person desiring to be licensed as a livestock dealer shall make application to the Commissioner. ~~Such~~ The application shall contain the address, both business and personal, of the ~~applicant.~~ applicant, and must be accompanied by a nonrefundable fee of fifty dollars ($50.00). No financial information shall be required from the applicant.

Whenever an applicant has complied with this Article, the Commissioner shall issue to such applicant a license which shall entitle the licensee to engage in the business of livestock dealer for a period of one year, unless such license is sooner suspended, or revoked in accordance with the provisions of this Article.

The license may be renewed annually by written request to the Commissioner on a form prepared by the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services, which form shall require only the name and current address of the licensee. ~~No~~ A renewal fee of fifty dollars ($50.00) shall be charged."

SECTION 3.11.(a) G.S. 106-542(b1) reads as rewritten:

"(b1) It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation to operate as a live poultry or ratite dealer without first ~~registering with~~ obtaining an annual license from the Department of Agriculture and Consumer ~~Services.~~Services, for a fee of twenty dollars ($20.00) a year."

SECTION 3.11.(b) This section becomes effective January 1, 2003.

SECTION 3.12. G.S. 143-442(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) The applicant shall pay an annual registration fee of ~~thirty dollars ($30.00)~~ forty-five dollars ($45.00) plus an additional annual assessment for each brand or grade of pesticide registered. The annual assessment shall be fifty dollars ($50.00) if the applicant's gross sales of the pesticide in this State for the preceding 12 months for the period ending September 30th were more than five thousand dollars ($5,000.00) and twenty-five dollars ($25.00) if gross sales were less than five thousand dollars ($5,000.00). An additional two hundred dollars ($200.00) delinquent registration penalty shall be assessed against the registrant for each brand or grade of pesticide which is marketed in North Carolina prior to registration as required by this Article. In the case of multi-year registration, the annual fee and additional assessment for each year shall be paid at the time of the initial registration. The Board shall give a pro rata refund of the registration fee and additional assessment to the registrant in the event that registration is canceled by the Board or by the United States Environmental Protection Agency."

SECTION 3.13. G.S. 143-448 reads as rewritten:

"§ 143-448. Licensing of pesticide dealers; fees.

(a) No person shall act in the capacity of a pesticide dealer, or shall engage or offer to engage in the business of, advertise as, or assume to act as a pesticide dealer unless he is licensed annually as provided in this Part. A separate license and fee shall be obtained for each location or outlet from which restricted use pesticides are distributed, sold, held for sale, or offered for sale.

(b) Applications for a pesticide dealer license shall be in the form and shall contain the information prescribed by the Board. Each application shall be accompanied by a non-refundable fee of ~~thirty dollars ($30.00).~~ forty-five dollars ($45.00). All licenses issued under this Part shall expire on December 31 of the year for which they are issued.

(c) The license for a pesticide dealer may be renewed annually upon application to the Board, accompanied by a fee of ~~thirty dollars ($30.00)~~ forty-five dollars ($45.00) for each license, on or before the first day of January of the calendar year for which the license is issued.

(d) Repealed by Session Laws 1981, c. 592, s. 6.

(e) Every licensed pesticide dealer who changes his address or place of business shall immediately notify the Board.

(f) The Board shall issue to each applicant that satisfies the requirements of this Part a license which entitles the applicant to conduct the business described in the application for the calendar year for which the license is issued, unless the license is sooner revoked or suspended."

SECTION 3.14. G.S. 143-452(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Applications for pesticide applicator license shall be in the form and shall contain the information prescribed by the Board. Each application shall be accompanied by a non-refundable fee of ~~thirty dollars ($30.00)~~ forty-five dollars ($45.00) for each pesticide applicator's license. In addition, an annual inspection fee of ~~ten dollars ($10.00)~~ fifteen dollars ($15.00) shall be submitted for each aircraft to be licensed. Should any aircraft fail to pass inspection, making it necessary for a second inspection to be made, the Board shall require an additional ~~ten dollar ($10.00)~~ fifteen dollar ($15.00) inspection fee. In addition to the required inspection, unannounced inspections may be made without charge to determine if equipment is properly calibrated and maintained in conformance with the laws and regulations. All aircraft licensed to apply pesticides shall be identified by a license plate or decal furnished by the Board at no cost to the licensee, which plate or decal shall be affixed on the aircraft in a location and manner prescribed by the Board. No applicator inspection or license fee, original or renewal, shall be charged to State agencies or local governments or their employees. Inspections of ground pesticide application equipment may be made. Any such equipment determined to be faulty or unsafe shall not be used for the purpose of applying a pesticide(s) until such time as proper repairs and/or alterations are made."

SECTION 3.15. G.S. 143-455(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) No person shall perform services as a pest control consultant without first procuring from the Board a license. Applications for a consultant license shall be in the form and shall contain the information prescribed by the Board. SECTION 5.16. G.S. 80-3(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) The application shall be signed and verified by the applicant, by a partner, by a member of the firm, or an officer of the corporation or association applying for registration. In states in which a notary is not required by law to obtain a notary's stamp or seal, an original certificate of authority of the notary issued by the appropriate State agency shall be submitted with the application. If the application is signed by a person acting pursuant to a power of attorney from the applicant, an original power of attorney or a certified copy of the power of attorney shall accompany the application.

The application shall be accompanied by three specimens of the mark as currently used and by a filing fee of ~~fifty dollars ($50.00),~~seventy-five dollars ($75.00), payable to the Secretary."

SECTION 5.17. G.S. 78A-31(a)(4) reads as rewritten:

"(a) The Administrator, by rule or order, may require the filing of any of the following documents with regard to a security covered under section 18(b)(2) of the Securities Act of 1933 (15 U.S.C. § 77r(b)(2)):

...

(4) A notice filing pursuant to this section shall expire on December 31 of each year or some other date not more than one year from its effective date as the Administrator may by rule or order provide. A notice filing of the offer of securities covered under federal law that are to be offered for a period in excess of one year shall be renewed annually by payment of a renewal fee of ~~one~~ two hundred dollars ~~($100.00)~~($200.00) and by filing any documents and reports that the Administrator may by rule or order require consistent with this section. The renewal shall be effective upon the expiration of the prior notice period."

SECTION 5.18. Except as otherwise provided, this part becomes effective October 1, 2002.

PART VI. EFFECTIVE DATE

SECTION 6. Except as otherwise provided, this act becomes effective October 1, 2002.

moves to amend the bill on page 7, line 14, by rewriting the line to read:

"SECTION 1.8(e). G.S. 7A-305(a) reads as rewritten:

'(a) In every civil action in the superior or district ~~court~~ court, except for actions brought under Chapter 50B of the General Statutes, the following costs shall be assessed:

(1) For the use of the courtroom and related judicial facilities, the sum of twelve dollars ($12.00) in cases heard before a magistrate, and the sum of sixteen dollars ($16.00) in district and superior court, to be remitted to the county in which the judgment is rendered, except that in all cases in which the judgment is rendered in facilities provided by a municipality, the facilities fee shall be paid to the municipality. Funds derived from the facilities fees shall be used in the same manner, for the same purposes, and subject to the same restrictions, as facilities fees assessed in criminal actions.

(2) For support of the General Court of Justice, the sum of fifty-nine dollars ($59.00) in the superior court, and the sum of forty-four dollars ($44.00) in the district court except that if the case is assigned to a magistrate the sum shall be thirty-three dollars ($33.00). Sums collected under this subdivision shall be remitted to the State Treasurer. The State Treasurer shall remit the sum of one dollar and five cents ($1.05) of each fee collected under this subdivision to the North Carolina State Bar for the provision of services described in G.S. 7A-474.4.

SECTION 1.8(f). G.S. 7A-311(a) reads as rewritten:

'(a) In a civil action or special ~~proceeding,~~ except for actions brought under Chapter 50B of the General Statutes, the following fees and commissions shall be assessed, collected, and remitted to the county:

(1) a. For each item of civil process served, including summons, subpoenas, notices, motions, orders, writs and pleadings, the sum of five dollars ($5.00). When two or more items of civil process are served simultaneously on one party, only one five dollar ($5.00) fee shall be charged.

b. When an item of civil process is served on two or more persons or organizations, a separate service charge shall be made for each person or organization. If the process is served, or attempted to be served, by a city policeman, the fee shall be remitted to the city rather than the county. If the process is served, or attempted to be served by the sheriff, the fee shall be remitted to the county. This subsection shall not apply to service of summons to jurors.

SECTION 1.8(g). G.S. 7A-311(b) reads as rewritten:

'(b) All fees that are required to be assessed, collected, and remitted under subsection (a) of this section shall be collected in advance (except in suits in forma pauperis) except those contingent on expenses or sales prices. When the fee is not collected in advance or at the time of assessment, a lien shall exist in favor of the county on all property of the party owing the fee. If the fee remains unpaid it shall be entered as a judgment against the debtor and shall be docketed in the judgment docket in the office of the clerk of superior court.

SECTION 1.8(h). This section becomes effective October 1, 2002.'".

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO ESTABLISH, SET, OR MODIFY VARIOUS FEES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

PART I. JUSTICE AND PUBLIC SAFETY FEES

SECTION 1.1.(a) G.S. 15A-1371(i) reads as rewritten:

"(i) A fee of ~~one hundred dollars ($100.00)~~ two hundred dollars ($200.00) shall be paid by all persons who participate in the Community Service Parole Program. That fee must be paid to the clerk of court in the county in which the parolee is released. The fee must be paid in full within two weeks unless the Post-Release Supervision and Parole Commission, upon a showing of hardship by the person, allows ~~him~~ the person additional time to pay the fee. The parolee may not be required to pay the fee before ~~he~~ the person begins the community service unless the Post-Release Supervision and Parole Commission specifically orders that ~~he~~ the person do so. Fees collected under this subsection shall be deposited in the General Fund. The fee imposed under this ~~section~~ subsection may be paid as prescribed by the supervising parole officer."

SECTION 1.1.(b) G.S. 20-179.4(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) A fee of ~~one hundred dollars ($100.00)~~ two hundred dollars ($200.00) shall be paid by all persons serving a community service sentence. That fee shall be paid to the clerk of court in the county in which the person is convicted. The fee shall be paid in full within two weeks unless the court, upon a showing of hardship by the person, allows additional time to pay the fee. The person may not be required to pay the fee before beginning the community service unless the court specifically orders the person to do so."

SECTION 1.1.(c) G.S. 143B-262.4(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Unless a fee is assessed pursuant to G.S. 20-179.4 or G.S. 15A-1371(i), a fee of ~~one hundred dollars ($100.00)~~ two hundred dollars ($200.00) shall be paid by all persons who participate in the program or receive services from the program staff. Fees collected pursuant to this subsection shall be deposited in the General Fund. If the person is convicted in a court in this State, the fee shall be paid to the clerk of court in the county in which ~~he~~ the person is convicted. If the person is participating in the program as a result of a deferred prosecution or similar program, the fee shall be paid to the clerk of court in the county in which the agreement is filed. Persons participating in the program for any other reason shall pay the fee to the clerk of court in the county in which the services are provided by the program staff. The fee shall be paid in full within two weeks from the date the person is ordered to perform the community service, and before ~~he begins his~~ the person may participate in the community ~~service,~~ service program, except that:

(1) A person convicted in a court in this State may be given an extension of time or allowed to begin the community service before ~~he~~ the person pays the fee by the court in which ~~he~~ the person is convicted; or

(2) A person performing community service pursuant to a deferred prosecution or similar agreement may be given an extension of time or allowed to begin ~~his~~ community service before the fee is paid by the official or agency representing the State in the agreement.

~~Fees collected pursuant to this subsection shall be deposited in the General Fund.~~"

SECTION 1.1.(d) This section becomes effective October 1, 2002, and applies to fees assessed or collected on or after that date.

SECTION 1.2.(a) G.S. 15A-1343(c1) reads as rewritten:

"(c1) Supervision Fee. – Any person placed on supervised probation pursuant to subsection (a) shall pay a supervision fee of ~~twenty dollars ($20.00)~~ thirty dollars ($30.00) per month, unless exempted by the court. The court may exempt a person from paying the fee only for good cause and upon written motion of the person placed on supervised probation. No person shall be required to pay more than one supervision fee per month. The court may require that the fee be paid in advance or in a lump sum or sums, and a probation officer may require payment by such methods if he is authorized by subsection (g) to determine the payment schedule. Supervision fees must be paid to the clerk of court for the county in which the judgment was entered or the deferred prosecution agreement was filed. Fees collected under this subsection shall be transmitted to the State for deposit into the State's General Fund."

SECTION 1.2.(b) G.S. 15A-1368.4(f) reads as rewritten:

"(f) Required Supervision Fee. – The Commission shall require as a condition of post-release supervision that the supervisee pay a supervision fee of ~~twenty dollars ($20.00)~~ thirty dollars ($30.00) per month. The Commission may exempt a supervisee from this condition only if it finds that requiring payment of the fee is an undue economic burden. The fee shall be paid to the clerk of superior court of the county in which the supervisee was convicted. The clerk shall transmit any money collected pursuant to this subsection to the State to be deposited in the State's General Fund. In no event shall a supervisee be required to pay more than one supervision fee per month."

SECTION 1.2.(c) G.S. 15A-1374(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) Supervision Fee. – The Commission must require as a condition of parole that the parolee pay a supervision fee of ~~twenty dollars ($20.00)~~ thirty dollars ($30.00) per month. The Commission may exempt a parolee from this condition of parole only if it finds that requiring him to pay the fee will constitute an undue economic burden. The fee must be paid to the clerk of superior court of the county in which the parolee was convicted. The clerk must transmit any money collected pursuant to this subsection to the State to be deposited in the general fund of the State. In no event shall a person released on parole be required to pay more than one supervision fee per month."

SECTION 1.2.(d) This section becomes effective October 1, 2002, and applies to supervision fees assessed or collected on or after that date.

SECTION 1.3. Reserved.

SECTION 1.4.(a) G.S. 20-135.2A(e) reads as rewritten:

"(e) Any driver or passenger who fails to wear a seat belt as required by this section shall have committed an infraction and shall pay a penalty of twenty-five dollars ($25.00). Conviction of an infraction under this section has no consequence other than payment of a penalty. ~~A~~ For a person found responsible for a violation of this ~~section may not be assessed court costs.~~section, the only court costs assessed shall be the General Court of Justice fee imposed under G.S. 7A-304(a)(4)."

SECTION 1.4.(b) This section becomes effective September 1, 2002, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date.

SECTION 1.5.(a) G.S. 7A-304(a)(4) reads as rewritten:

"(a) In every criminal case in the superior or district court, wherein the defendant is convicted, or enters a plea of guilty or nolo contendere, or when costs are assessed against the prosecuting witness, the following costs shall be assessed and collected, except that when the judgment imposes an active prison sentence, costs shall be assessed and collected only when the judgment specifically so provides, and that no costs may be assessed when a case is dismissed.

...

(4) For support of the General Court of Justice, the sum of ~~sixty-five dollars ($65.00)~~ seventy-five dollars ($75.00) in the district court, including cases before a magistrate, and the sum of ~~seventy-two dollars ($72.00)~~ eighty-two dollars ($82.00) in the superior court, to be remitted to the State Treasurer. For a person convicted of a felony in superior court who has made a first appearance in district court, both the district court and superior court fees shall be assessed. The State Treasurer shall remit the sum of one dollar and five cents ($1.05) of each fee collected under this subdivision to the North Carolina State Bar for the provision of services described in G.S. 7A-474.4.

...."

SECTION 1.5.(b) G.S. 7A-305(a)(2) reads as rewritten:

"(2) For support of the General Court of Justice, the sum of ~~fifty-nine dollars ($59.00)~~ sixty-nine dollars ($69.00) in the superior court, and the sum of ~~forty-four dollars ($44.00)~~ fifty-four dollars ($54.00) in the district court except that if the case is assigned to a magistrate the sum shall be ~~thirty-three dollars ($33.00).~~ forty-three dollars ($43.00). Sums collected under this subdivision shall be remitted to the State Treasurer. The State Treasurer shall remit the sum of one dollar and five cents ($1.05) of each fee collected under this subdivision to the North Carolina State Bar for the provision of services described in G.S. 7A-474.4."

SECTION 1.5.(c) This section becomes effective September 1, 2002, and applies to offenses committed and civil cases filed on or after that date.

SECTION 1.6.(a) G.S. 15A-145(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) The court shall also order that the said misdemeanor conviction be expunged from the records of the court, and direct all law-enforcement agencies bearing record of the same to expunge their records of the conviction. The clerk shall forward a certified copy of the order to the sheriff, chief of police, or other arresting agency. The sheriff, chief or head of such other arresting agency shall then transmit the copy of the order with a form supplied by the State Bureau of Investigation to the State Bureau of Investigation, and the State Bureau of Investigation shall forward the order to the Federal Bureau of Investigation. ~~The cost of expunging such records shall be taxed against the petitioner.~~"

SECTION 1.6.(b) G.S. 15A-145 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(e) A person who files a petition for expunction of a criminal record under this section must pay the clerk of superior court a fee of sixty-five dollars ($65.00) at the time the petition is filed. Fees collected under this subsection shall be deposited in the General Fund. This subsection does not apply to petitions filed by an indigent."

SECTION 1.6.(c) G.S. 15A-146(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) The court may also order that the said entries shall be expunged from the records of the court, and direct all law-enforcement agencies bearing record of the same to expunge their records of the entries. The clerk shall forward a certified copy of the order to the sheriff, chief of police, or other arresting agency. The sheriff, chief or head of such other arresting agency shall then transmit the copy of the order with the form supplied by the State Bureau of Investigation to the State Bureau of Investigation, and the State Bureau of Investigation shall forward the order to the Federal Bureau of Investigation. ~~The costs of expunging such records shall be taxed against the petitioner.~~"

SECTION 1.6.(d) G.S. 15A-146 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(d) A person who files a petition for expunction of a criminal record under this section must pay the clerk of superior court a fee of sixty-five dollars ($65.00) at the time the petition is filed. Fees collected under this subsection shall be deposited in the General Fund. This subsection does not apply to petitions filed by an indigent."

SECTION 1.6.(e) G.S. 90-96 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(f) A person who files a petition for expunction of a criminal record under this section must pay the clerk of superior court a fee of sixty-five dollars ($65.00) at the time the petition is filed. Fees collected under this subsection shall be deposited in the General Fund. This subsection does not apply to petitions filed by an indigent."

SECTION 1.6.(f) This section becomes effective October 1, 2002, and applies to petitions filed on or after that date.

SECTION 1.7. Reserved.

SECTION 1.8.(a) G.S. 50B-2 reads as rewritten:

"§ 50B-2. Institution of civil action; motion for emergency relief; temporary orders.

(a) Any person residing in this State may seek relief under this Chapter by filing a civil action or by filing a motion in any existing action filed under Chapter 50 of the General Statutes alleging acts of domestic violence against himself or herself or a minor child who resides with or is in the custody of such person. Any aggrieved party entitled to relief under this Chapter may file a civil action and proceed pro se, without the assistance of legal counsel. The district court division of the General Court of Justice shall have original jurisdiction over actions instituted under this Chapter. No court costs shall be assessed for the filing, issuance, registration, or service of a protective order or petition for a protective order or witness subpoena in compliance with the Violence Against Women Act, 42 U.S.C. § 3796gg-5.

(b) Emergency Relief. - A party may move the court for emergency relief if he or she believes there is a danger of serious and immediate injury to himself or herself or a minor child. A hearing on a motion for emergency relief, where no ex parte order is entered, shall be held after five days' notice of the hearing to the other party or after five days from the date of service of process on the other party, whichever occurs first, provided, however, that no hearing shall be required if the service of process is not completed on the other party. If the party is proceeding pro se and does not request an ex parte hearing, the clerk shall set a date for hearing and issue a notice of hearing within the time periods provided in this subsection, and shall effect service of the summons, complaint, notice, and other papers through the appropriate law enforcement agency where the defendant is to be ~~served, upon payment of the required service fees.~~served.

(c) Ex Parte Orders. - Prior to the hearing, if it clearly appears to the court from specific facts shown, that there is a danger of acts of domestic violence against the aggrieved party or a minor child, the court may enter such orders as it deems necessary to protect the aggrieved party or minor children from such acts provided, however, that a temporary order for custody ex parte and prior to service of process and notice shall not be entered unless the court finds that the child is exposed to a substantial risk of bodily injury or sexual abuse. Upon the issuance of an ex parte order under this subsection, a hearing shall be held within 10 days from the date of issuance of the order or within seven days from the date of service of process on the other party, whichever occurs later. If an aggrieved party acting pro se requests ex parte relief, the clerk of superior court shall schedule an ex parte hearing with the district court division of the General Court of Justice within 72 hours of the filing for said relief, or by the end of the next day on which the district court is in session in the county in which the action was filed, whichever shall first occur. If the district court is not in session in said county, the aggrieved party may contact the clerk of superior court in any other county within the same judicial district who shall schedule an ex parte hearing with the district court division of the General Court of Justice by the end of the next day on which said court division is in session in that county. Upon the issuance of an ex parte order under this subsection, if the party is proceeding pro se, the Clerk shall set a date for hearing and issue a notice of hearing within the time periods provided in this subsection, and shall effect service of the summons, complaint, notice, order and other papers through the appropriate law enforcement agency where the defendant is to be ~~served, upon payment of the required service fees.~~served.

(c1) Ex Parte Orders by Authorized Magistrate. - The chief district court judge may authorize a magistrate or magistrates to hear any motions for emergency relief ex parte. Prior to the hearing, if the magistrate determines that at the time the party is seeking emergency relief ex parte the district court is not in session and a district court judge is not and will not be available to hear the motion for a period of four or more hours, the motion may be heard by the magistrate. If it clearly appears to the magistrate from specific facts shown that there is a danger of acts of domestic violence against the aggrieved party or a minor child, the magistrate may enter such orders as it deems necessary to protect the aggrieved party or minor children from such acts, except that a temporary order for custody ex parte and prior to service of process and notice shall not be entered unless the magistrate finds that the child is exposed to a substantial risk of bodily injury or sexual abuse. An ex parte order entered under this subsection shall expire and the magistrate shall schedule an ex parte hearing before a district court judge by the end of the next day on which the district court is in session in the county in which the action was filed. Ex parte orders entered by the district court judge pursuant to this subsection shall be entered and scheduled in accordance with subsection (c) of this section.

(c2) The authority granted to authorized magistrates to award temporary child custody to pursuant subsection (c1) of this section and pursuant to G.S. 50B-3(a)(4) is granted subject to custody rules to be established by the supervising chief district judge of each judicial district.

(d) Pro Se Forms. -- The clerk of superior court of each county shall provide to pro se complainants all forms which are necessary or appropriate to enable them to proceed pro se pursuant to this section. The Clerk shall provide a supply of pro se forms to authorized magistrates who shall make the forms available to complainants seeking relief under subsection (c1) of this section."

SECTION 1.8.(b) G.S. 50B-3(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) The court, including magistrates as authorized under G.S. 50B-2(c1), may grant any protective order or approve any consent agreement to bring about a cessation of acts of domestic violence. The orders or agreements may:

...

(10) Award ~~costs and~~ attorney's fees to either party;

..."

SECTION 1.8.(c) G.S. 50B-4 reads as rewritten:

"(a) A party may file a motion for contempt for violation of any order entered pursuant to this Chapter. This party may file and proceed with that motion pro se, using forms provided by the clerk of superior court or a magistrate authorized under G.S. 50B-2(c1). Upon the filing pro se of a motion for contempt under this subsection, the clerk, or the authorized magistrate, if the facts show clearly that there is danger of acts of domestic violence against the aggrieved party or a minor child and the motion is made at a time when the clerk is not available, shall schedule and issue notice of a show cause hearing with the district court division of the General Court of Justice at the earliest possible date pursuant to G.S. 5A-23. The Clerk, or the magistrate in the case of notice issued by the magistrate pursuant to this subsection, shall effect service of the motion, notice, and other papers through the appropriate law enforcement agency where the defendant is to be ~~served, upon payment of the required service fees.~~served."

SECTION 1.8.(d) G.S. 1-110(a)(6) is repealed.

SECTION 1.8.(e) This section becomes effective October 1, 2002.

SECTION 1.9.(a) G.S. 7A-308(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) A person who participates in a program for the collection of worthless checks under G.S. 14-107.2 must pay a fee of ~~fifty dollars ($50.00).~~ sixty dollars ($60.00). The fee collected under this subsection must be remitted to the State by the clerk of the court in the county in which the program is established and credited to the Collection of Worthless Checks Fund. The Collection of Worthless Checks Fund is created as a special revenue fund. Revenue in the Fund does not revert at the end of the fiscal year, and interest and other investment income earned by the Fund accrues to the Fund. The money in the Fund is subject to appropriation by the General Assembly and may be used solely for the expenses of the programs established under G.S. 14-107.2 for the collection of worthless ~~checks.~~ checks, including personnel, equipment, and other costs of district attorneys' offices that are attributable to the provision of these programs."

SECTION 1.9.(b) This section becomes effective October 1, 2002.

SECTION 1.10.(a) G.S. 7A-304(a) is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(a) In every criminal case in the superior or district court, wherein the defendant is convicted, or enters a plea of guilty or nolo contendere, or when costs are assessed against the prosecuting witness, the following costs shall be assessed and collected, except that when the judgment imposes an active prison sentence, costs shall be assessed and collected only when the judgment specifically so provides, and that no costs may be assessed when a case is dismissed.

...

(7) For the services of the State Bureau of Investigation laboratory facilities, the district or superior court judge shall, upon conviction, order payment of the sum of three hundred dollars ($300.00) to be remitted to the Department of Justice for support of the State Bureau of Investigation. This cost shall be assessed only in cases in which, as part of the investigation leading to the defendant's conviction, the laboratories have performed DNA analysis of the crime, tests of bodily fluids of the defendant for the presence of alcohol or controlled substances, or analysis of any controlled substance possessed by the defendant or the defendant's agent. The court may waive or reduce the amount of the payment required by this subdivision upon a finding of just cause to grant such a waiver or reduction."

SECTION 1.10.(b) G.S. 90-95.3(b) is repealed.

SECTION 1.10.(c) Subsection (a) of this section becomes effective October 1, 2002, and applies to court costs assessed or paid on or after that date. Subsection (b) of this section becomes effective October 1, 2002, but the provisions of G.S. 90-95.3(b) continue to apply to any defendant who was ordered to make restitution under the provisions of that subsection prior to October 1, 2002.

SECTION 1.11.(a) G.S. 114-10.1(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) The Attorney General, after consultation with participating agencies, shall adopt rules and regulations governing the organization and administration of the Police Information Network, including rules and regulations governing the types of information relating to the administration of criminal justice to be entered into the system, ~~and~~ who shall have access to ~~such information~~ that information, and fees for access to that information. The rules and regulations governing access to the Police Information Network shall not prohibit an attorney who has entered a criminal proceeding in accordance with G.S. 15A-141 from obtaining information relevant to that criminal proceeding. The rules and regulations governing access to the Police Information Network shall not prohibit an attorney who represents a person in adjudicatory or dispositional proceedings for an infraction from obtaining the person's driving record or criminal history."

SECTION 1.11.(b) The Division of Criminal Information shall charge the following monthly fees for the Police Information Network for the 2002-2003 fiscal year:

(1) Circuit fee: $67.00.

(2) Terminal fee: $29.50.

SECTION 1.11.(c) This section becomes effective January 1, 2003.

SECTION 1.12.(a) Article 36 of Chapter 7A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 7A-455.1. Appointment fee in criminal cases.

(a) Each person who requests the appointment of counsel in a criminal case shall pay to the clerk of court a nonrefundable appointment fee of fifty dollars ($50.00) at the time of appointment. Partial payments shall be credited against the amount of the fifty-dollar ($50.00) fee due. No fee shall be due if the court finds that the person is not entitled to the appointment of counsel.

(b) The appointment fee in this section is due regardless of the outcome of the proceedings. If paid before the final determination of the action at the trial level, the amount of the fee paid shall be credited against any amounts the court determines to be owed for the value of legal services rendered to the defendant. If not paid before the final determination of the action at the trial level, the unpaid amount of the fee shall be added to any amounts the court determines to be owed for the value of legal services rendered to the defendant and shall be collected in the same manner as attorney's fees are collected for such representation. If no attorney's fees are found due when the action is finally determined at the trial level, a judgment shall be entered, docketed, and indexed pursuant to G.S. 1-233 in the amount of the unpaid fee and shall constitute a lien as prescribed by the general law of the State applicable to judgments.

(c) The attorney representing the defendant when the action is finally determined at the trial level shall advise the court whether the appointment fee required by this section has been paid.

(d) Inability, failure, or refusal to pay the appointment fee shall not be grounds for denying appointment of counsel, for withdrawal of counsel, or for contempt.

(e) The appointment fee required by this section shall be assessed only once for each affidavit of indigency submitted by a defendant or other determination of indigency by the court, regardless of the number of cases for which an attorney is appointed. An additional appointment fee shall not be assessed for any additional cases thereafter assigned to an attorney if any cases for which a defendant was previously assessed an appointment fee are still pending. Nor shall an additional appointment fee be assessed if the charges for which an attorney was appointed are dismissed and subsequently refiled or if the defendant is appointed an attorney on appeal on a matter for which the defendant was assessed an appointment fee at the trial level.

(f) Of each appointment fee collected under this section, the sum of forty-five dollars ($45.00) shall be credited to the Indigent Persons' Attorney Fee Fund and the sum of five dollars ($5.00) shall be credited to the Court Information Technology Fund under G.S. 7A-343.2. These fees shall not revert.

(g) The Office of Indigent Defense Services shall adopt rules and develop forms to govern implementation of this section."

SECTION 1.12.(b) G.S. 7A-304(d)(1) reads as rewritten:

"(d) (1) In any criminal case in which the liability for costs, fines, restitution, or any other lawful charge has been finally determined, the clerk of superior court shall, unless otherwise ordered by the presiding judge, disburse such funds when paid in accordance with the following priorities:

a. Sums in restitution to the victim entitled thereto;
b. Costs due the county;
c. Costs due the city;
d. Fines to the county school fund;
e. Sums in restitution prorated among the persons other than the victim entitled thereto;
f. Costs due the State;

(4) Proof of execution or acknowledgment of any instrument ..... ~~1.00~~2.00

(5) Performing any other statutory function not incident to a civil or criminal action ..... ~~1.00~~2.00"

SECTION 1.14.(b) This section becomes effective October 1, 2002.

PART II. DEPARTMENT OF ENVIRONMENT AND NATURAL RESOURCES FEES

SECTION 2.1. G.S. 130A-294.1(e) reads as rewritten:

"(e) A person who generates either one kilogram or more of any acute hazardous waste as listed in 40 C.F.R. § 261.30(d) or § 261.33(e) as revised 1 July 1987, or 1000 kilograms or more of hazardous waste, in any calendar month during the year beginning 1 July and ending 30 June shall pay an annual fee of ~~five hundred dollars ($500.00)~~seven hundred fifty dollars ($750.00)."

SECTION 2.2. G.S. 130A-294.1(f) reads as rewritten:

"(f) A person who generates 100 kilograms or more of hazardous waste in any calendar month during the year beginning 1 July and ending 30 June but less than 1000 kilograms of hazardous waste in each calendar month during that year shall pay an annual fee of ~~twenty-five dollars ($25.00)~~thirty-seven dollars and fifty cents ($37.50)."

SECTION 2.3.(a) G.S. 130A-248(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) The Department shall charge each establishment subject to this section, except nutrition programs for the elderly administered by the Division of Aging of the Department of Health and Human Services, establishments that prepare and sell meat food products or poultry products, and public school cafeterias, an annual fee of ~~twenty-five dollars ($25.00)~~fifty dollars ($50.00). The Department shall charge an additional twenty-five dollar ($25.00) late payment fee to any establishment that fails to pay the required fee within 45 days after billing by the Department. The Department may, in accordance with G.S. 130A-23, suspend the permit of an establishment that fails to pay the required fee within 60 days after billing by the Department. The Department shall charge a reinstatement fee of one hundred fifty dollars ($150.00) to any establishment that requests reinstatement of its permit after the permit has been suspended. The Commission shall adopt rules to implement this subsection. Fees collected under this subsection shall be used for State and local food, lodging, and institution sanitation programs and activities. No more than thirty-three and one-third percent (33-1/3%) of the fees collected under this subsection may be used to support State health programs and activities."

SECTION 2.3.(b) The Legislative Research Commission may study the current program within the Department of Environment and Natural Resources regarding the regulation of food and lodging facilities to determine whether the annual fee paid by establishments under G.S. 130A-248(d), as amended by subsection (a) of this section, is sufficient for the State and local food, lodging, and institution sanitation programs and activities. The Legislative Research Commission shall report no later than the convening of the 2004 Regular Session of the 2003 General Assembly. This report shall include a recommendation as to whether the annual fee paid by establishments should remain at fifty dollars ($50.00) or should be changed, and if so, to what amount it should be changed in order to improve the State and local food, lodging, and institution sanitation programs and activities. This report shall include any legislative proposals needed to accomplish the Commission's recommendations.

SECTION 2.4. G.S. 130A-248 is amended by adding two new subsections to read:

"(e) In addition to the fees under subsection (d) of this section, the Department may charge a fee of two hundred dollars ($200.00) for plan review by the Department of plans for franchised or chain facilities for food establishments subject to this section. All of the fees collected under this subsection may be used to support the State food, lodging, and institution sanitation programs and activities under this Part.

(f) Any local health department may charge a fee not to exceed two hundred dollars ($200.00) for plan review by that local health department of plans for food establishments subject to this section that are not plans for franchised or chain facilities. All of the fees collected under this subsection may be used for local food, lodging, and institution sanitation programs and activities."

SECTION 2.5. The Department of Environment and Natural Resources shall adopt temporary rules to increase the entry fee for use of State recreation areas at Jordan Lake and at Falls Lake from four dollars ($4.00) per vehicle to five dollars ($5.00) per vehicle. This section is not intended to preempt the Department's authority under G.S. 113-35 to charge and collect reasonable fees in the future for the use of State lakes. The fee increases under this section shall remain in effect until the Department subsequently adopts rules under G.S. 113-35 to change these fees other than the rules that are adopted to implement this section.

SECTION 2.6. Except as otherwise provided, this part becomes effective October 1, 2002.

PART III. DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE AND CONSUMER SERVICES FEES

SECTION 3.1. G.S. 19A-27 reads as rewritten:

"§ 19A-27. License required for operation of pet shop.

No person shall operate a pet shop unless a license to operate such establishment shall have been granted by the Director. Application for such license shall be made in the manner provided by the Director. The license shall be for the fiscal year and the license fee shall be ~~fifty dollars ($50.00)~~ one hundred dollars ($100.00) for each license period or part thereof beginning with the first day of the fiscal year."

SECTION 3.2. G.S. 19A-28 reads as rewritten:

"§ 19A-28. License required for public auction or boarding kennel.

No person shall operate a public auction or a boarding kennel unless a license to operate such establishment shall have been granted by the Director. Application for such license shall be made in the manner provided by the Director. The license period shall be the fiscal year and the license fee shall be ~~fifty dollars ($50.00)~~ one hundred dollars ($100.00) for each license period or part thereof beginning with the first day of the fiscal year."

SECTION 3.3. G.S. 19A-29 reads as rewritten:

"§ 19A-29. License required for dealer.

No person shall be a dealer unless a license to deal shall have been granted by the Director to such person. Application for such license shall be in the manner provided by the Director. The license period shall be the fiscal year and the license fee shall be ~~fifty dollars ($50.00)~~ one hundred dollars ($100.00) for each license period or part thereof, beginning with the first day of the fiscal year."

SECTION 3.4. G.S. 80-62 reads as rewritten:

"§ 80-62. Fees for recording.

The Commissioner is authorized to collect a fee of ~~twenty-five dollars ($25.00)~~ fifty dollars ($50.00) for the recording of each new brand, or for rerecording of each brand, and shall issue one certified copy of each brand recording to the holder of said brand. Duplicate certificates of registration may be issued by the Commissioner upon payment of a fee of two dollars ($2.00). Revenues collected pursuant to this Article shall be deposited with the State Treasurer to the account of the North Carolina Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services."

SECTION 3.5.(a) G.S. 81A-11 is repealed.

SECTION 3.5.(b) Chapter 81A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 81A-12. Fee schedule.

(a) The following fees apply to all weights that are tested and certified to meet tolerances less stringent than American Society for Testing and Materials (ASTM) Standard E617 Class 4. This includes the National Institutes of Standards and Technology (NIST) Class F tolerance. If the weight error exceeds three-fourths of the applicable tolerance, adjustment may be required at an additional fee of one-half the normal fee. No extra fee will be charged for the normal adjustment of a weight cart. Even if weights are rejected or condemned, fees shall be assessed for the test performed.

Customary	Fee/Unit	Metric	Fee/Unit
0-10 lb	$ 5.00	0-5 kg	$ 5.00
11-100 lb	$ 7.50	6-50 kg	$ 7.50
101-1000 lb	$ 15.00	51-500 kg	$ 15.00
1001-2500 lb	$ 30.00	501-1000 kg	$ 30.00
2501-6000 lb	$ 50.00	1001-2500 kg	$ 50.00

Weight Carts

3000 to 6000 lb	$100.00

(b) The following fees apply to all weights that are tested and certified to meet ASTM Standard E617 Class 4 or International Organization of Legal Metrology (OIML) R111 Class F2 tolerances. If the weight error exceeds three-fourths of the applicable tolerance, adjustment may be required at an additional fee equal to the normal fee. Even if weights are rejected or condemned, fees shall be assessed for the test performed.

Customary	Fee/Unit	Metric	Fee/Unit
0-10 lb	$ 10.00	0-5 kg	$ 10.00
11-100 lb	$ 15.00	6-50 kg	$ 15.00
101-1000 lb	$ 30.00	51-500 kg	$ 30.00
1001-2500 lb	$ 60.00	501-1000 kg	$ 60.00
2501-6000 lb	$100.00	1001-2500 kg	$100.00

(c) The following fees apply to all weights that are calibrated. Calibration means determining actual mass and conventional mass values with an assigned uncertainty specific to the test. If necessary and considered feasible by the metrologist, adjustments to ASTM Class 1, 2, or 3 tolerances or OIML Class E2, F1, or F2 tolerances may be made for an additional fee of two times the normal fee. Tolerance testing fees shall be assessed on weights that can only be adjusted to a lower tolerance or are rejected for any reason.

Customary	Fee/Unit	Metric	Fee/Unit
0-20 lb	$ 20.00	0-10 kg	$ 20.00
21-50 lb	$ 40.00	11-30 kg	$ 40.00
51-1000 lb	$ 70.00	31-450 kg	$ 70.00

2501-6000 lb	$200.00	1001-2500 kg	$200.00

(d) The following fees apply to all weights that are calibrated using NIST weighing designs. These weights are tested in groups and are subject to the minimum per series fee shown. The best uncertainty possible from the North Carolina Standards Laboratory will be assigned to the mass values of the weights. No adjustments will be made.

Weight Range	Fee/Unit or Series	Minimum Charge
0 – 1 kg	$30.00 each	$90.00 (3 weights) per series
2 – 30 kg	$50.00 each	$150.00 (3 weights) per series
0 – 2 lb	$30.00 each	$90.00 (3 weights) per series
3 – 50 lb	$50.00 each	$150.00 (3 weights) per series

(e) The following fees apply to volumetric flasks, graduates, or test measures.

Customary	Fee/Test Point	Metric	Fee/Test Point
0 – 5 gal	$ 30.00	0 – 20 liters	$ 30.00
Over 4 gal	Add $0.40 per each additional gallon	Over 20 liters	Add $0.10 per each additional liter

(f) The following fees apply to tape measures and rigid rules.

Set Up Fee	$ 40.00 per instrument

Calibration $ 10.00 calibration point

(g) The following fees apply to liquid-in-glass and electronic thermometers.

Set Up Fee $ 40.00 per instrument

Calibration $ 20.00 per calibration point

(h) Any special tests or weight cleaning shall be billed at the rate of $50.00 per hour prorated to the nearest tenth of an hour, with a minimum charge of $25.00.

(i) A minimum charge of $25.00 per invoice will apply.

(j) If travel is required in connection with the performance of any of these services, the Department shall be reimbursed at the rates provided in G.S. 138-6.

(k) The Department may refuse to accept for testing any weight or measure the Department deems unsuited for its intended use.

(l) The fee for tests performed on weights or measures that will be used primarily outside of the State of North Carolina shall be twice the amounts set forth in this section."

SECTION 3.6. G.S. 106-254 reads as rewritten:

"§ 106-254. Inspection fees; wholesalers; retailers and cheese factories.

For the purpose of defraying the expenses incurred in the enforcement of this Article, the owner, proprietor or operator of each ice cream factory where ice cream, milk shakes, milk sherbet, sherbet, water ices, mixes for frozen or semifrozen desserts and other similar frozen or semifrozen food products are made or stored, or any cheese factory or butter-processing plant that disposes of its products at wholesale to retail dealers for resale in this State shall pay to the Commissioner of Agriculture each year an inspection fee of ~~forty dollars ($40.00).~~ sixty dollars ($60.00). Each maker of ice cream, milk shakes, milk sherbet, sherbet, water ices and/or other similar frozen or semifrozen food products who disposes of his product at retail only, and cheese factories, shall pay to the Commissioner of Agriculture an inspection fee of ~~ten dollars ($10.00)~~ fifteen dollars ($15.00) each year. The inspection fee ~~of ten dollars ($10.00)~~ shall not apply to conventional spindle-type milk-shake mixers, but shall apply to milk-shake dispensing and vending machines, which operate on a continuous or automatic basis."

SECTION 3.7. G.S. 106-277.28 reads as rewritten:

"§ 106-277.28. License and inspection fees.

For the purpose of providing a fund to defray the expense of inspection, examination, and analysis of seeds and the enforcement of this Article:

(1) Repealed by Session Laws 1991, c. 588, s. 1.

(2) Each seed dealer who offers for sale any agricultural, vegetable, or lawn or turf seeds for seeding purposes shall register with the Commissioner and shall obtain an annual license, for each location where activities are conducted, by January 1 of each year and shall pay the following license fee:

a. Wholesale or combined wholesale and retail seed dealer ..... ~~$100.00~~ $145.00

b. Retail seed dealer with sales of no more than $500.00 ..... ~~5.00~~

.....10.00

c. Retail seed dealer with sales of more than $500.00 but no more than $1,000 .....~~15.00~~ 25.00

d. Retail seed dealer with sales of more than $1,000.....~~25.00.~~ .....40.00.

(3) Each seed dealer or grower who has seed, whether originated or labeled by the dealer or grower, that is offered for sale in this State shall report the quantity of seed offered for sale and pay an inspection fee of two cents (2¢) for each container of seeds weighing 10 pounds or more. Seed shall be subject to the inspection fee and reporting requirements only once in any 12-month period. This fee does not apply to seed grown by a farmer and offered for sale by the farmer at the farm where the seed was grown.

Each seed dealer or grower shall keep accurate records of the quantity of seeds and container weights offered for sale from each distribution point in the State. These records shall be available to the Commissioner or an authorized representative of the Commissioner at any and all reasonable hours for the purpose of verifying the quantity of seed offered for sale and the fees paid. Each seed dealer or grower shall report quarterly on forms furnished by the Commissioner the quantity and container weight of seeds first offered for sale that quarter. The reports shall be made on the first day of January, April, July, and October, or within 10 days thereafter. Inspection fees shall be due and paid with the next quarterly report filed after the seed is first offered for sale. If the report is not filed and the inspection fees paid to the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services by the tenth day following the date due, or if the report of the quantity or container weights is false, the Commissioner may issue a stop-sale order for all seed offered for sale by the dealer or grower. If the inspection fees are unpaid more than 15 days after the due date, the amount due shall bear a penalty of ten percent (10%) which shall be added to the inspection fees due."

SECTION 3.8.(a) G.S. 106-284.34(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) No person shall distribute in this State a commercial feed, except a customer-formula feed, which has not been registered pursuant to the provisions of this section. The application for registration shall be submitted in the manner prescribed by the Commissioner. Upon approval by the Commissioner or his duly designated agent the registration shall be issued to the applicant. All registrations expire on the thirty-first day of December of each year. An annual registration fee of ~~three dollars ($3.00)~~ five dollars ($5.00) for each commercial feed other than canned pet food shall accompany each request for registration. An annual registration fee of ten dollars ($10.00) for each canned pet food shall accompany each request for registration."

SECTION 3.8.(b) G.S. 106-284.40(b)(4) reads as rewritten:

"(b) An inspection fee at the rate of twelve cents (12¢) per ton shall be paid on commercial feeds distributed in the State by the person whose name appears on the label of the commercial feed as the manufacturer, distributor or guarantor of the commercial feed, subject to the following:

...

(4) In the case of a commercial feed other than canned pet food which is distributed in the State only in packages of five pounds or less, an annual registration fee of ~~thirty dollars ($30.00)~~ forty-five dollars ($45.00) shall be paid in lieu of the inspection fee specified above."

SECTION 3.9. G.S. 106-406 reads as rewritten:

"§ 106-406. Permits from Commissioner of Agriculture for operation of public livestock markets; application therefor; hearing on application.

Any person, firm or corporation desiring to operate a public livestock market within the State of North Carolina shall be required to file an application with the Commissioner of Agriculture for a permit authorizing the operation of such market; provided that, those markets operating under a valid permit and in accordance with G.S. 106-406 through 106-418 at the time this Article becomes effective shall be issued a license upon payment of the annual license fee and upon satisfying the requirement for bonding as specified in G.S. 106-407. An application for a permit shall include the following information:

(1) The name and address of the applicant, name of market and a listing of the names and addresses of all persons having any financial interest in the proposed livestock market and the amount and nature of such interest, and such other information as is required to complete an application form supplied by the Commissioner; and

(2) The plans and specifications for the facilities proposed to be built, or for existing structures.

The application for a permit shall be accompanied by a permit fee of ~~two hundred fifty dollars ($250.00),~~ three hundred fifty dollars ($350.00), two hundred dollars ($200.00) of which shall be returned to the applicant if the application is denied, plus one hundred dollars ($100.00) annual permit fee for the first year of operation of the market, all of which shall be returned to the applicant if the application is denied. There shall be an annual renewal fee of ~~one hundred dollars ($100.00)~~ one hundred fifty dollars ($150.00) for each year of operation thereafter.

Upon the filing of said application, the Commissioner shall determine whether all necessary information has been furnished. If all information required has not been furnished, the Commissioner shall notify the applicant by mail of the additional information needed; it shall be furnished the Commissioner by the applicant within 10 days of such notification. Upon receipt of all required information, the Commissioner shall issue a license or fix the date of a hearing on said application, to be held in Raleigh. Notice of the time and date of the hearing shall be published in a newspaper having general circulation in the county in which the livestock market is proposed to be located; said notice shall appear at least 10 days prior to such hearing. The applicant shall be notified by mail by the Commissioner at least 20 days prior to the hearing of the time and place of said hearing. The Commissioner shall also notify by mail the members of the Public Livestock Market Advisory Board of the time and place of said hearing, at least 10 days before the date on which the hearing will be held.

A public hearing shall be conducted by the Commissioner on said application. If, after the hearing, at which any person may appear in support or opposition thereto, the North Carolina Public Livestock Market Advisory Board finds that the public livestock market for which a permit or license is sought fulfills the requirements of all applicable laws, it shall recommend to the Commissioner that a permit be issued to the applicant. If the Commissioner denies the application, the applicant may commence a contested case under G.S. 150B-23 by filing a petition within 10 days after receiving notice of the denial. Unless revoked by the Board of Agriculture pursuant to any applicable law or regulation, permits will be renewed each July 1 on payment of the annual renewal fee."

SECTION 3.10. G.S. 106-418.11(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) Any person desiring to be licensed as a livestock dealer shall make application to the Commissioner. ~~Such~~ The application shall contain the address, both business and personal, of the ~~applicant.~~ applicant, and must be accompanied by a nonrefundable fee of fifty dollars ($50.00). No financial information shall be required from the applicant.

Whenever an applicant has complied with this Article, the Commissioner shall issue to such applicant a license which shall entitle the licensee to engage in the business of livestock dealer for a period of one year, unless such license is sooner suspended, or revoked in accordance with the provisions of this Article.

The license may be renewed annually by written request to the Commissioner on a form prepared by the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services, which form shall require only the name and current address of the licensee. ~~No~~ A renewal fee of fifty dollars ($50.00) shall be charged."

SECTION 3.11.(a) G.S. 106-542(b1) reads as rewritten:

"(b1) It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation to operate as a live poultry or ratite dealer without first ~~registering with~~ obtaining an annual license from the Department of Agriculture and Consumer ~~Services.~~Services, for a fee of twenty dollars ($20.00) a year."

SECTION 3.11.(b) This section becomes effective January 1, 2003.

SECTION 3.12. G.S. 143-442(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) The applicant shall pay an annual registration fee of ~~thirty dollars ($30.00)~~ forty-five dollars ($45.00) plus an additional annual assessment for each brand or grade of pesticide registered. The annual assessment shall be fifty dollars ($50.00) if the applicant's gross sales of the pesticide in this State for the preceding 12 months for the period ending September 30th were more than five thousand dollars ($5,000.00) and twenty-five dollars ($25.00) if gross sales were less than five thousand dollars ($5,000.00). An additional two hundred dollars ($200.00) delinquent registration penalty shall be assessed against the registrant for each brand or grade of pesticide which is marketed in North Carolina prior to registration as required by this Article. In the case of multi-year registration, the annual fee and additional assessment for each year shall be paid at the time of the initial registration. The Board shall give a pro rata refund of the registration fee and additional assessment to the registrant in the event that registration is canceled by the Board or by the United States Environmental Protection Agency."

SECTION 3.13. G.S. 143-448 reads as rewritten:

"§ 143-448. Licensing of pesticide dealers; fees.

(a) No person shall act in the capacity of a pesticide dealer, or shall engage or offer to engage in the business of, advertise as, or assume to act as a pesticide dealer unless he is licensed annually as provided in this Part. A separate license and fee shall be obtained for each location or outlet from which restricted use pesticides are distributed, sold, held for sale, or offered for sale.

(b) Applications for a pesticide dealer license shall be in the form and shall contain the information prescribed by the Board. Each application shall be accompanied by a non-refundable fee of ~~thirty dollars ($30.00).~~ forty-five dollars ($45.00). All licenses issued under this Part shall expire on December 31 of the year for which they are issued.

(c) The license for a pesticide dealer may be renewed annually upon application to the Board, accompanied by a fee of ~~thirty dollars ($30.00)~~ forty-five dollars ($45.00) for each license, on or before the first day of January of the calendar year for which the license is issued.

(d) Repealed by Session Laws 1981, c. 592, s. 6.

(e) Every licensed pesticide dealer who changes his address or place of business shall immediately notify the Board.

(f) The Board shall issue to each applicant that satisfies the requirements of this Part a license which entitles the applicant to conduct the business described in the application for the calendar year for which the license is issued, unless the license is sooner revoked or suspended."

SECTION 3.14. G.S. 143-452(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Applications for pesticide applicator license shall be in the form and shall contain the information prescribed by the Board. Each application shall be accompanied by a non-refundable fee of ~~thirty dollars ($30.00)~~ forty-five dollars ($45.00) for each pesticide applicator's license. In addition, an annual inspection fee of ~~ten dollars ($10.00)~~ fifteen dollars ($15.00) shall be submitted for each aircraft to be licensed. Should any aircraft fail to pass inspection, making it necessary for a second inspection to be made, the Board shall require an additional ~~ten dollar ($10.00)~~ fifteen dollar ($15.00) inspection fee. In addition to the required inspection, unannounced inspections may be made without charge to determine if equipment is properly calibrated and maintained in conformance with the laws and regulations. All aircraft licensed to apply pesticides shall be identified by a license plate or decal furnished by the Board at no cost to the licensee, which plate or decal shall be affixed on the aircraft in a location and manner prescribed by the Board. No applicator inspection or license fee, original or renewal, shall be charged to State agencies or local governments or their employees. Inspections of ground pesticide application equipment may be made. Any such equipment determined to be faulty or unsafe shall not be used for the purpose of applying a pesticide(s) until such time as proper repairs and/or alterations are made."

SECTION 3.15. G.S. 143-455(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) No person shall perform services as a pest control consultant without first procuring from the Board a license. Applications for a consultant license shall be in the form and shall contain the information prescribed by the Board. The application for a license shall be accompanied by a non-refundable annual fee of ~~thirty dollars ($30.00).~~forty-five dollars ($45.00)."

PART IV. DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES FEES

SECTION 4.1.(a) G.S. 130A-93.1 reads as rewritten:

§ 130A-93.1. Fees for vital records copies or search; automation fund.

(a) The State Registrar shall collect, process, and utilize fees for services as follows:

(1) A fee not to exceed ~~ten dollars ($10.00)~~ fifteen dollars ($15.00) shall be charged for issuing any copy of a vital record or for conducting a routine search of the files for the record when no copy is made. When certificates are issued or searches conducted by local agencies using databases maintained by the State Registrar, the local agency shall charge this fee and shall forward five dollars ($5.00) of this fee to the State Registrar for purposes established in subsection (b) of this section.

(2) A fee not to exceed ~~ten dollars ($10.00)~~fifteen dollars ($15.00) shall be charged in addition to the fee charged under subdivision (1) of this subsection and to all shipping and commercial charges when expedited service is specifically requested.

(2a) The fee for a copy of a computer or microform database shall not exceed the cost to the agency of making and providing the copy.

(3) Except as provided in subsection (b) of this section, fees collected under this subsection shall be used by the Department for public health purposes.

(b) The Vital Records Automation Account is established as a nonreverting account within the Department. Five dollars ($5.00) of each fee collected pursuant to subdivision (a)(1) shall be credited to this Account. The Department shall use the revenue in the Account to fully automate and maintain the vital records system. When funds sufficient to fully automate and maintain the system have accumulated in the Account, fees shall no longer be credited to the Account but shall be used as specified in subdivision (a)(3) of this section."

SECTION 4.1.(b) G.S. 130A-118(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) For the amendment of a certificate of birth or death after its acceptance for filing, or for the making of a new certificate of birth under this Article, the State Registrar shall be entitled to a fee not to exceed ~~seven dollars and fifty cents ($7.50)~~fifteen dollars ($15.00) to be paid by the applicant."

SECTION 4.2. The Department of Health and Human Services shall charge a fee in the amount of ten dollars ($10.00) for a laboratory test performed by the State Public Health Laboratory under the Newborn Screening Program pursuant to G.S. 130A-125. If the actual cost to perform the test exceeds the amount of the fee authorized under this section, then the Department may increase the fee in accordance with its authority under G.S. 130A-125(c) to cover the cost.

SECTION 4.3. Except as otherwise provided, this part becomes effective October 1, 2002.

PART V. SECRETARY OF STATE FEES

SECTION 5.1 G.S. 10A-4(b)(6) reads as rewritten:

(3) Ten dollars ($10.00) for an electronic certificate."

SECTION 5.11. G.S. 59-1106(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) The Secretary of State shall collect the following fees for copying, comparing, and certifying a copy of any filed document relating to a domestic or foreign limited partnership:

(1) One dollar ($1.00) a page for copying or comparing a copy to the original; and

(2) ~~Five dollars ($5.00) for the certificate.~~ Fifteen dollars ($15.00) for a paper certificate.

(3) Ten dollars ($10.00) for an electronic certificate.

SECTION 5.12. G.S. 147-37 reads as rewritten:

"§ 147-37. Secretary of State; fees to be collected.

When no other charge is provided by law, the Secretary of State shall collect such fees for copying any document or record on file in his office which in his discretion bears a reasonable relation to the quantity of copies supplied and the cost of purchasing or leasing and maintaining copying equipment. These fees may be changed from time to time, but a schedule of fees shall be available on request at all times. In addition to copying charges, the Secretary of State shall collect a fee of ten dollars ($10.00) for certifying any document or record on file in his office or for issuing any certificate as to the facts shown by the records on file in his ~~office.~~office, except that if two or more certificates for foreign adoption are requested concurrently, the fee for the second and subsequent certificates is five dollars ($5.00)."

SECTION 5.13. G.S. 120-47.3 reads as rewritten:

"§ 120-47.3. Registration fee.

Every lobbyist's principal shall pay to the Secretary of State a fee of ~~seventy-five dollars ($75.00) which fee shall be~~two hundred dollars ($200.00) that is due and payable by either the lobbyist or the lobbyist's principal at the time of registration.

A separate registration, together with a separate registration fee of ~~seventy-five dollars ($75.00), shall be~~two hundred dollars ($200.00) is required for each lobbyist's principal for which a person acts as a lobbyist. Fees so collected shall be deposited in the General Fund of the State."

SECTION 5.14. G.S. 78A-37(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Every applicant for initial or renewal registration shall pay a filing fee of ~~two hundred dollars ($200.00)~~three hundred dollars ($300.00) in the case of a dealer and ~~fifty-five dollars ($55.00)~~seventy-five dollars ($75.00) in the case of a salesman. The Administrator may by rule reduce the registration fee proportionately when the registration will be in effect for less than a full year."

SECTION 5.15. G.S. 78C-17(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Every applicant for initial or renewal registration shall pay a filing fee of two hundred dollars ($200.00) in the case of an investment adviser, and ~~forty-five dollars ($45.00)~~seventy-five dollars ($75.00) in the case of an investment adviser representative. When an application is denied or withdrawn, the Administrator shall retain the fee.

SECTION 5.16. G.S. 80-3(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) The application shall be signed and verified by the applicant, by a partner, by a member of the firm, or an officer of the corporation or association applying for registration. In states in which a notary is not required by law to obtain a notary's stamp or seal, an original certificate of authority of the notary issued by the appropriate State agency shall be submitted with the application. If the application is signed by a person acting pursuant to a power of attorney from the applicant, an original power of attorney or a certified copy of the power of attorney shall accompany the application.

The application shall be accompanied by three specimens of the mark as currently used and by a filing fee of ~~fifty dollars ($50.00),~~seventy-five dollars ($75.00), payable to the Secretary."

SECTION 5.17. G.S. 78A-31(a)(4) reads as rewritten:

"(a) The Administrator, by rule or order, may require the filing of any of the following documents with regard to a security covered under section 18(b)(2) of the Securities Act of 1933 (15 U.S.C. § 77r(b)(2)):

...

(4) A notice filing pursuant to this section shall expire on December 31 of each year or some other date not more than one year from its effective date as the Administrator may by rule or order provide. A notice filing of the offer of securities covered under federal law that are to be offered for a period in excess of one year shall be renewed annually by payment of a renewal fee of ~~one~~ two hundred dollars ~~($100.00)~~($200.00) and by filing any documents and reports that the Administrator may by rule or order require consistent with this section. The renewal shall be effective upon the expiration of the prior notice period."

SECTION 5.18. Except as otherwise provided, this part becomes effective October 1, 2002.

PART VI. EFFECTIVE DATE

SECTION 6. Except as otherwise provided, this act becomes effective October 1, 2002.

EFFECTIVE DATE: Section 1.4 (Seat Belt Court Costs) and section 1.5 (Court fees) are effective September 1, 2002 and apply to offenses committed on or after that date. Section 1.11 (DCI PIN fees) and section 3.11 (Poultry or Ratite Dealer fee) are effective January 1, 2003. All other sections are effective October 1, 2002.

BILL SUMMARY: The bill establishes, sets, and modifies various fees.

ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGY:

PART I: JUSTICE AND PUBLIC SAFETY FEES

COMMUNITY SERVICE WORK PROGRAM FEES

The community service work program fee is increased from $100 to $200 in Section 1.1. Offenders sentenced to community service, either as part of supervised probation, parole, unsupervised probation, a DWI offense, or first offender/deferred prosecution, pay a one-time $100 fee. The fee is paid within two weeks of judgment, generally prior to beginning community service. Fees are collected by Clerks of Court and remitted to the State Treasurer/General Fund. This fee was last increased in 1986. Current collections and admissions are detailed below.

Year	1999-2000	2000-01	2001-02 ytd	2001-02 proj
Fees collected	$5,103,549	$5,147,750	$3,964,885	$5,286,500
Admissions	69,300	73,010	56,050	74,733
Collection rate	73.6%	70.5%	70.7%	70.7%

Ytd is through March 31

These statistics show a growth rate of almost 4% per year in admissions and of 1.8%/year in fees. Future year projections assume continued growth in fees due of 1.8% but a decrease in collection rate from 71% to 69% due to the higher fee. The chart below shows new revenue realized at $200 fee, effective October 1, 2002.

Year	2002-03	2003-04	2004-05	2005-06	2006-07
Total	$10.76 M	$10.96 M	$11.15 M	$11.36 M	$11.6 M
Increase Revenue	$ 3.84 M	$5.21 M	$5.31 M	$5.4 M	$5.5 M

OFFENDER SUPERVISION FEES

The new offender supervision fee in Section 1.2 of this bill is $30. Offenders on probation, parole and post release supervision currently pay $20/month during their term of supervision. At least half the states collect similar fees, ranging from $15/month to $103/month. In a recent survey by the American Probation and Parole Association, of the 19 states that reported specific fee amounts, 11 were $30 or more.

The current population on probation/parole is 116,856 and is projected to remain stable. Currently, 58% of probationers are ordered to pay the fee and 62% of those pay it for an overall collection rate of 37%. About 75% of those who pay are on community punishment rather than intermediate punishment. Fees are paid to the Clerk of Court, then remitted to the General Fund.

The Department of Correction (DOC) is reviewing policies and is in discussion with the Judicial Branch to encourage higher collection rates. Collection rates were projected to increase to 45% in FY 2003-04 if the fee remained at $20. With the $30 fee, collection rates are assumed to plateau at 40% in FY 2002-03. That reduces the net gain from the fee increase in the years FY 2003-04 and later.

Current Collections

Year	1999-2000	2000-01	2001-02 ytd	2001-02 proj
Fees collected	$10,603,000	$10,499,000	$8,103,504	$10,804,672

Projected Collections, assume Oct 1 effective date and 40% collection rate

Year	2002-03	2003-04	2004-05	2005-06	2006-07
Total	$12 Mil.	$17.99 Mil.	$17.99 Mil.	$17.99 Mil.	$17.99 Mil.
New Revenue	$4.5 Mil.	$4.5 Mil.	$4.5 Mil.	$4.5 Mil.	$4.5 Mil.

COLLECTING COURT COSTS ON SEAT BELT/MOTORCYCLE HELMET INFRACTIONS

Section 1.4 will end the exemption from court costs for violators of the mandatory seat belt (driver and passenger) and motorcycle/moped helmet laws. Violators of these infractions do not currently pay court costs, but pay a $25 fine that is redistributed to the county school fund. In calendar year 2001, there were 184,525 convictions/admissions of responsibility with payment of fines for the seat belt violations. (The number of motorcycle violations is small and not included in revenue projections.)

Offenders will pay the $25 fine plus the $75 Court of Justice Fee (assuming $10 increase in this bill). They will not pay the facilities, LEOB and service fees that are part of other district court criminal actions. Of the $75 Court of Justice Fee, $1.05 goes to the State Bar for Access to Civil Justice (7A-474), as reflected in the chart below.

Collections for seat belt violations have increased an average of 6% over the past four years. These projections assume a more conservative growth rate of 3% for the first two years and no growth in future years. This no growth assumption is based on the expectation of some deterrent effect and because of the difficulties of projecting in the future.

Projected impacts are as follows, assuming effective September 1, 2002 for violations on or after that date.

Year	2002-03	2003-04	2004-05	2005-06	2006-07
General Fund	$10,699,363	$14,693,792	$15,349,499	$15,349,499	$15,349,499
State Bar/LSNC	$151,918	$208,634	$214,893	$214,893	$214,893

GENERAL COURT OF JUSTICE FEES

Section 1.5 increases the General Court of Justice Fees by $10 for District and Superior Court Criminal and Civil cases. General Court of Justice fees were last raised in 2000 by $4. General Court of Justice Fees are currently as follows:

District Court Criminal	$65
District Court Civil	$44
Superior Court Criminal	$72
Superior Court Civil	$59
Magistrate Civil	$33
Special Proceedings	$30
Estates	$30

Parties also pay facilities and service fees that are remitted to the county, varying from $17 to $35 depending on the specific level of court. An LEOB charge of $8 applies to criminal cases only.

Each $1 of General Court of Justice Fees raises approximately $1,440,469 (excluding special proceedings and estates which would not be affected here), based on FY 2000-01 collections. Court fees have grown modestly in recent years and these projections assume a 1% growth rate each year.

These changes in court fees will be effective September 1 for violations on or after that date. The projected impact is as follows:

2002-03	2003-04	2004-05	2005-06	2006-07
$10,803,517	$14,548,737	$14,694,224	$14,841,167	$14,989,578

Section 1.5 also establishes that for a person convicted of a felony in superior court that also had a first appearance in district court, both district ($75) and superior court ($82) fees apply. Because the collection rate on convicted felony offenders is low and because many fees that are currently paid are only paid in part, this change is anticipated to bring in about $750,000 per year. Applying to offenses on or after Sept. 1, $375,000 is projected the first year.

EXPUNGEMENT FEE

Section 1.6 authorizes the Department of Justice (DOJ) to charge $65 to process an expungement request beginning October 1, 2002. NCGS 15A-145 and 15A-146 state that "the cost of expunging such records shall be taxed against the petitioner," but to date, no petitioners have ever been charged for this service. This new fee will cover the Department's cost of researching, documenting, and eliminating criminal records targeted for expungement. According to DOJ data, in calendar year 2001 the State Bureau of Investigation received 5,897 applications for expungement. Of that total, 4,734 qualified for an expungement and were processed. About 15 percent of expungement applications are not generated by the petitioner or required by the court as a result of NCGS 15A-145 and 15A-146 and may result from judgment or court orders involving the indigent or the wrongfully accused. For these requests, no charges would be assessed for the cost of processing their expungement.

NO COURT COSTS FOR DOMESTIC VIOLENCE CASES

Section 1.8 requires that court costs be waived in cases of filings for protective orders or witness subpoenas related to cases of domestic violence (Chapter 50B). This is a requirement for the state to be in compliance with the federal Violence Against Women Act.

Under current law, the cost of filing for a protective order is $65 in District Civil Court with $44 of this going to the General Fund for General Court of Justice fees and the remaining $21 going to local governments as a facilities and service fees. However, because court fees are waived if the party is indigent, not all domestic violence victims currently pay these fees. AOC data indicate that there were 21,615 cases in 2001 where domestic violence and ex parte restraining orders were the only issues. (There were an estimated 4,880 cases where domestic violence was only one of the issues and that court fees would still apply.) The AOC estimates that, at most, 15% (or 3,242 cases) of these plaintiffs are currently paying court fees. The cost of prohibiting the levying of court fees in these cases on an annualized basis would be:

General Fund	$142,648
Local Government (facilities fees)	$ 51,872
Local Government (service fees)	$ 16,210

This represents a .14% reduction in General Fund receipts from court fees and a .3% reduction in facilities fees. With an effective date of October 1, the costs in foregone receipts would be reduced by 25%, so the impact in FY 2002-03 is $106,986 General Fund and $51,061 local government.

WORTHLESS CHECK PROGRAM FEE

The worthless check program, administered by District Attorney's Offices in eight judicial districts/13 counties, gives individuals who have written bad checks a last chance to avoid criminal prosecution by paying a fee and making restitution on the bad check. In CY 2001, the program collected restitution on 13,375 worthless checks. The current fee is $50, set when the program was established in 1997. In FY 2001-02, $670,300 was collected from this fee. An increase to $60 in Section 1.9 will increase receipts by $134,000 on an annualized basis. With an effective date of October 1, first year proceeds are $100,545.

The total direct cost of the program is budgeted at $619,574 with additional expenses covered in the $56 million budget for district attorneys. These receipts are budgeted against the cost of this program.

SBI LABORATORY ANALYSES FEE

The SBI Crime Laboratory performs 25,000 to 30,000 drug, 3,000 alcohol, and 1,700 molecular genetic (DNA and body fluids) analyses annually. Current statute gives judges the discretion to require that persons with drug convictions make a restitution payment of $100 to the state to cover the cost of analyses performed by the SBI Crime Laboratory. However, the statute does not permit judges to order restitution payments for the cost of alcohol analyses performed for DWI cases or for any DNA analyses. While current statute permits judges to order a $100 restitution payment, the costs of the analyses are $300. Judges currently order restitution payments for only about 10 percent of the analyses performed. In FY 2000-01, the SBI received restitution payments for 2,500 of the analyses performed. Effective October 1, 2002, Section 1.10 1 requires that: 1) convicted offenders pay restitution for the cost of laboratory analyses, unless the judges waives such a payment; 2) extends laboratory restitution payments to alcohol and DNA analyses; and 3) increases the laboratory restitution payment to $300. Unknown at this time is the actual number of cases for which judges will waive the restitution requirement. Therefore, the fiscal estimates assume restitution payments shall be ordered in 20 percent of cases, double the existing rate. In addition, it is assumed the collection rate will be equivalent to that for parole and probation fees in the Department of Correction, about 35 percent.

DCI PIN TERMINAL RENT INCREASE

Effective January 1, 2003, Section 1.11 increases the rental rates charged to local law enforcement agencies to access the Police Information Network maintained by the Department of Justice, Division of Criminal Information (DCI). The DCI PIN is the primary database used by local law enforcement to obtain criminal justice information on individuals. Law enforcement agencies pay a rental rate for both the terminal connections and the devices used to access the database. The Office of State Budget and Management recently studied the DCI fee structure and issued a report containing recommended fee adjustments. The adjustments will bring the rental rates in line with the Department's actual costs to maintain the DCI database. As a result of the recommended adjustments, the rental rates paid by some local agencies will increase while that for others will decrease depending upon the number of circuits and devices used. Effective January 1, 2003, the new monthly rates are $67 per circuit and $29.50 per terminal. In FY 2002-03, the rate increase will generate $500,000 in additional receipts. For Fiscal Years 2003 through 2007, receipts will increase by $1 million annually.

APPOINTMENT FEE FOR INDIGENT DEFENSE

Section 1.12 authorizes a new $50 fee for persons requesting appointment of counsel in criminal cases. This fee will be due at the time of appointment but inability to pay the fee shall not prevent the person from receiving counsel. The fee is due regardless of the outcome of the case and if it has not been paid by the conclusion of the case, the unpaid balance will be combined with any other judgments related to the case. Of the $50, $5 shall be credited to the Court Information Technology Fund (7A-343.2) and the remainder shall be budgeted as a receipt to the Office of Indigent Defense Services.

As of December 2001, 17 states and counties within five other states had instituted application/appointment fees for indigent counsel with the actual fee varying from $10 to $200. Collection rates vary from 6% to 20%. Based on 200,000 cases per year and a collection rate of 10%, this fee will raise $1,000,000 per year. With an effective date of October 1, 2002, the first year proceeds would be $750,000. Of this, $75,000 will go to the Court Information Technology Fund. These projections do not assume any growth in revenue over time until there is better data on collection and implementation.

JUSTICE ACADEMY LODGING FEE

The NC Justice Academy provides free training to state and local law enforcement personnel at its two campuses located in Salemburg and Edneyville. Both campuses offer dormitory lodging free of charge to students enrolled in the academy. Students who do not stay on campus must pay the full cost of commercial lodging at area hotels/motels. There are 295 dormitory rooms available at the Salemburg campus and 68 rooms at the Edneyville campus. In FY 2000-01, 10,684 students were housed in dormitories while enrolled in courses at the two campuses. Section 1.13 charges a $10 per diem fee to cover the cost of dormitory lodging offered at the Justice Academy campuses and would generate about $395,000 annually. According to data from the Department of Justice, housing related costs at the two campuses total about $450,000 annually.

	FY02-03	FY03-04	FY04-05	FY05-06	FY06-07
Dormitory Rooms	363	363	363	363	363
Average Occupancy Rate	57%	57%	57%	57%	57%
Estimated Total Receipts	$295,000	$395,000	$395,000	$395,000	$395,000

INCREASE MAGISTRATE SPECIAL FEES

Section 1.14 increases special fees charged by magistrates. GS 7A-309 itemizes five different special fees that may be charged by magistrates. The marriage fee was last raised in 1983 from $5 to $10. The chart below shows the current fees and the proposed increases.

Fee	Current	Proposed
Marriage Ceremony	$10	$20
Hearing petition for year's allowance	$ 4	$ 8
Taking Deposition	$ 5	$10
Proof of execution or acknowledgment of any instrument	$ 1	$ 2
Other statutory functions not incident to civil/criminal action	$ 1	$ 2

Together, these fees brought in $224,619 in FY 1999-2000 and $253,669 in FY 2000-01. Using the most recent figures, doubling each fee would double the receipts for a net gain of $253,669. With an October 1 effective date, the FY 2002-03 proceeds would be $190,251.

PART II: DEPARTMENT OF ENVIRONMENT AND NATURAL RESOURCES FEES

HAZARDOUS WASTE FACILITY FEES

Every facility that generates hazardous waste is required to pay a hazardous waste facility fee based on the amount of waste generated. The fee is set in statute [G.S. 130A-294.1(e) &(f)] and is currently $500 for large quantity generators (in excess of 1,000 kilograms of hazardous waste in any calendar month) and $25 for small quantity generators (between 100 to 1,000 kilograms). Sections 2.1 and 2.2 of the bill increase these fees to $750 and $37.50, respectively.

The Division of Waste Management has observed a modest reduction in number of both large and small quantity generators over the past few years due to hazardous waste production minimization efforts. The Division expects this trend to level off in the future, but believes that the number of large and small quantity generators will continue to decline by approximately 3% in each of the next five years. The charts below provide a five-year estimate of the number of facilities required to pay the fee and the incremental revenue generated by raising the fee. Note that since the effective date of this bill is October 1, there will be no additional revenue generated in FY 2002-03 because the Division of Waste Management bills facilities in July of each fiscal year.

FOOD AND LODGING FACILITY FEES

Currently, food and lodging facilities subject to regulation under G.S. 130A-248 pay an annual fee of $25 to the Department of Environment and Natural Resources (DENR). By statute, no more than one-third of the fees collected can be used to support the state food and lodging program. Two-thirds of the fees collected are distributed to the local food and lodging programs at the county level. Sections 2.3 and 2.4 increase the annual fee to $50. The method of collection and distribution of the fees remains the same.

Because the actual number of facilities billed annually varies from year to year, this fiscal note will use an average based on actual numbers from the two most recent years to estimate the number of facilities that will be subject to the fee increase in each of the next five years. Using an average of 26,600 food and lodging facilities, this note estimates that approximately $665,000 in additional fee revenue will be raised annually from the fee increase to $50. Of this total amount, $221,667 will remain at the state level and $443,333 will be distributed to local programs at the county level in each of next five years. In FY 2002-03, these totals will be reduced 25% due to the October 1 effective date.

In addition to raising the annual food and lodging fee, the bill also establishes two new fees: 1) a $200 fee that DENR may charge for plan review of franchised or chain facilities for food establishments subject to food and lodging regulation, and 2) a fee not to exceed $200 that local health departments may charge for plan review of local "mom and pop" type restaurants, whose food establishment plans not are not reviewed by the state staff.

The number of plans reviewed at the state level varies between 300 and 500 per year. The Division believes that most of this variance is due to the health of economy. When the economy is strong, franchises are expanding. When the economy is weak, franchises are less likely to expand. This fiscal note assumes that the Division will review an average of 400 plans annually in each of the next five years. At $200, the plan review fee will generate $80,000 at the state level. The additional revenue will be $60,000 in FY 2002-03 due to the October 1 effective date.

The Division estimates that approximately 1,000 plans are reviewed at the local level on an annual basis. Since the fee language is permissive and allows local health departments to charge up to $200, it is impossible to know without polling every health department which ones would take advantage of this fee setting authority and at what level they would choose to set the fee. If you assume that every health department sets the fee at $200, then the plan review fee will generate $200,000 in each of the next five fiscal years at the local level. The FY 2002-03 revenue will be $150,000 due to the October 1 effective date.

CARS ENTRY FEES AT FALLS AND JORDAN LAKES STATE RECREATION AREAS

Currently, the Division of Parks and Recreation charges a $4 entry fee to each car that enters Falls and Jordan Lakes State Recreation Areas. Section 2.5 of the bill directs the Division to adopt temporary rules to increase the car entry fee to $5. The amount of revenue generated by this fee increase is dependent on the number of cars entering each recreation area. Over the past three years, the number of cars entering Falls Lake has increased by 3% per year. At Jordan Lake, the number of cars entering decreased from FY1999 to FY 2000, but rebounded in 2001. The Division expects the number of cars entering each recreation area will continue to rise in the next few years due to a decline in travel outside the state and a greater use of state resources, like the parks. Based on past experience and assumption that North Carolina citizens will use the state recreation areas in increasingly greater numbers, this fiscal note assumes that each park will see an annual usage increase of approximately 3% in each of the next five years. The charts below provide a five-year estimate of the number of cars entering Falls and Jordan Lakes State Recreation Areas and the incremental revenue generated by raising the fee by $1.00.

Estimated Number of Cars Entering State Recreation Areas
	FY 2002-03	FY 2003-04	FY 2004-05	FY 2005-06	FY 2006-07

Note: The revenue projection for the 2002-03 FY has been reduced by 25% to reflect the October 1 effective date of the bill.

PART III: DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE AND CONSUMER SERVICES FEES

VETERINARY SERVICES

Sections 3.1-3.3 raise license fees for operations of pet shops, public auctions and boarding kennels, and cat and dog dealers from $50.00 to $100.00. These fees have not been changed since 1979. Since the Department has already sent the annual license renewal bills for FY 2002-03, the fee increase will not generate any additional General Fund availability until FY 2003-04. The table below reflects the total increase in revenues from all three fees.

Fiscal Year	2002-03	2003-04	2004-05	2005-06	2006-07
Increased Revenue	$0	$17,650	$17,650	$17,650	$17,650

Section 3.4 raises the fee for recording of livestock brands from $25 to $50. This fee has not been increased since 1975. Section 3.9 increases the fees for public livestock market permits from $250 to $350. This fee has not been increased since 1967. This section also increases the annual renewal for public livestock market permits from $100 to $150. This fee has not been increased since 1941. Section 3.10 initiates a new fee for livestock dealers. The Department estimates that 481 licenses are issued annually. At a fee rate of $50 this fee will generate $24,050 annually. Section 3.11(a) initiates a fee for poultry/ratite dealer licenses effective January 1, 2003. The Department issues approximately 419 dealer licenses annually. At a rate of $20, this fee will generate $8,380 annually. The table below reflects the total increase in revenues.

Fiscal Year	2002-03	2003-04	2004-05	2005-06	2006-07
Increased Revenue	$40,355	$40,355	$40,355	$40,355	$40,355

Section 3.17 increases several veterinary services fees for animal disease diagnostics. These fees have not been increased since 1990 or earlier. This section also initiates fees for cytology tests and necropsy disposal. With an effective date of October 1, 2002, revenues will be 25% less for FY 2002-03 than in subsequent years. The table below reflects the total increase in revenues.

Fiscal Year	2002-03	2003-04	2004-05	2005-06	2006-07
Increased Revenue	$349,668	$466,224	$466,224	$466,224	$466,224

WEIGHT AND MEASURES

Section 3.5 (a) repeals the fee schedule for the NC Standards Laboratory. Section 3.5 (b) establishes a revised fee schedule. Since the inception date of 1992, fees charged by the Standards Lab have not increased. The Department estimates the cost of service to be $261,400 annually, while receipts for FY 2000-01 were $85,734. Even with these increases, the Standards Lab will not fully recover costs. In addition to increasing fees, the schedule has been condensed to reduce the number of fees, thereby reducing administrative time. Given the effective date of October 1, 2002, revenues would be 25% less for FY 2002-03 than in subsequent years. The table below reflects the total increase in revenues.

Fiscal Year	2002-03	2003-04	2004-05	2005-06	2006-07
Increased Revenue	$23,408	$31,210	$31,210	$31,210	$31,210

FOOD AND DRUG PROTECTION

Section 3.6 increases the inspection fees charged to wholesale and retail dairy establishments. Wholesale inspections are increased from $40 to $60 and retail inspections from $10 to $15. Neither of these fees have been increased since 1989. The increase in revenues from these two fees will be $13,260 annually. Section 3.8 (a) increases the annual registration fee for commercial non-canned pet food from $3 to $5. The Department issues 14,364 licenses each December. This increase will generate an additional $428,728 annually. Section 3.8 (b) increases the registration fee for canned pet food distributed in the state only in packages of five pounds or less. The current fee is $30. This section increases it to $45. At 3,317 annual registrations, this increase will generate an additional $49,755 annually. Sections 3.12-3.15 increases fees for licensing of pesticide dealer, applicators and consultants. The fees, which have not been increased since 1989, are increasing from $30 to $45. Section 3.14 also increases the pesticide aircraft inspection fee from $10 to $15. With the exception of the commercial feed registrations, which are renewed each December, the October 1, 2002, effective date will decrease the additional revenues generated by 25% for FY 2002-03 than in subsequent years. The table below reflects the total increase in revenues.

Fiscal Year	2002-03	2003-04	2004-05	2005-06	2006-07
Increased Revenue	$337,449	$423,798	$423,798	$423,798	$423,798

PLANT INDUSTRY

Section 3.7 increases license and inspection fees paid by seed dealers. The first fee increases the rate charged to wholesale or combined wholesale and retail seed dealers from $100 to $145. The other three increases are to retail seed dealers. There is a graduated scale, which depends on the amount of sales generated by the retailer. These fees have not been increased since 1989. The licenses are renewed each January 1, therefore, a full year's increase would be realized with an effective date of October 1, 2002. The table below reflects the total increase in revenues.

Fiscal Year	2002-03	2003-04	2004-05	2005-06	2006-07
Increased Revenue	$38,110	$38,110	$38,110	$38,110	$38,110

AGRONOMIC SERVICES

Section 3.16 initiates six new fees for soil testing and increases six existing fees. The increases were recommended by the Department to reflect the actual cost of conducting the tests. Currently, North Carolina does not charge for several types of soil testing, including testing of samples from outside the state. This new fee schedule would bring North Carolina's fees for soil testing in line with surrounding states. Due to the October 1, 2002, effective date, additional revenues generated by these new fee rates will be 25% less in FY 2002-03 than in subsequent years. The table below reflects the total increase in revenues.

Fiscal Year	2002-03	2003-04	2004-05	2005-06	2006-07
Increased Revenue	$719,298	$959,054	$959,054	$959,054	$959,054

PART IV: DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES FEES

VITAL RECORDS

Section 4.1 amends GS 130A-93.1 to increase all vital records transactions to $15.00. According to available historical information, the sale of vital records information has demonstrated healthy annual increases. However, not knowing how the fee increase will impact sales and growth, the projections are based on a modest 5% annual increase in vital records sales. FY 2002-03 revenues are adjusted for the October 1, 2002 effective date.

	2002-03	2003-04	2004-05	2005-06	2006-07

NEWBORN SCREENING LABORATORY TEST FEE

The State Laboratory currently performs newborn screening tests for all children born in the State pursuant to G.S. 130A-125. Section 4.2 establishes a $10.00 fee for each test performed by the State Lab, to be charged to hospitals and birthing centers. The fee is expected to generate sufficient funds to make the Newborn Screening Program completely receipt supported. The proposed bill also allows the Department to increase the fee amount if the costs of performing each test exceed $10.00. The State Lab anticipates performing 115,000 tests in FY 2002-03. Due to the October 1, 2002 effective date, only 86,250 tests will be charged the $10 fee in FY 2002-03. The five-year projection is based on a modest annual increase in the state birth rate of 2%.

	2002-03	2003-04	2004-05	2005-06	2006-07
Total Transactions	86,250	117,300	119,646	122,039	124,480

PART V: SECRETARY OF STATE FEES

NOTARY PUBLIC COMMISSION FEE

Section 5.1 amends Chapter 10A of the General Statutes to increase the notary commission fee, effective October 1, 2002, from $30 to $50. This $20 increase will generate approximately $606,560 in additional revenue annually.

	FY 02-03	FY 03-04	FY 04-05	FY 05-06	FY 06-07
Notary Commission	$454,920	$606,560	$606,560	$606,560	$606,560

SECURITIES DIVISION FEES

Sections 5.2 through 5.4 adjust three Securities Division fees regarding types of securities registrations known nationally as Rule 504 and Rule 505 limited placement offerings and Rule 506 federally covered securities offered to accredited investors. The Rule 504-506 registration fees are currently set by administrative rule with statutory caps. General Statute sections 78A-17(9,17) and 78A-31(b) will be amended effective October 1, 2002, to set the respective fees at the current statutory caps of $150. The Rule 504 registration fee is currently $25; raising this fee should generate approximately $1,625 in additional revenue (13 annual registrants). The Rule 505 registration fee is currently $75; raising this fee should generate approximately $375 in additional revenue (5 annual registrants). The Rule 506 registration fee is currently $75; raising this fee should generate approximately $86,850 in additional revenue (1,158 annual registrants).

Section 5.14 amends G.S. 78A-37(b) to increase the registration fee for broker/dealers from $200 to $300. It also increases the registration fee for salesmen from $55 to $75. With 908 registered broker/dealers and 122,078 registered salesmen, the increases are expected to generate $2,664,260 annually.

Section 5.15 amends G.S. 78C-17(b) effective October 1, 2002 to increase the investment adviser representative registration fee from $45 to $75. With 13,448 representatives registered in North Carolina, this will generate approximately $403,440 in additional revenue annually.

Section 5.17 amends G.S. 78A-31(a)(4) to increase the investment company notice filing from $100 to $200 annually. This increase is expected to generate $188,400 in additional revenue annually.

	FY 02-03	FY 03-04	FY 04-05	FY 05-06	FY 06-07
504	$1,218	$1,625	$1,625	$1,625	$1,625

CORPORATIONS DIVISION CERTIFIED DOCUMENT FEES

The Corporations Division will currently provide any requestor with a certified copy of any document on file with the Division for $5 per certificate. This includes Certificates of Existence for domestic corporations and Certificates of Authorization for foreign corporations. These certificates are available both on paper and electronically. Sections 5.5 to 5.11 increase the $5 certificate fees in GS 55-1-22(a)(25), 55-1-22(c)(2), 55A-1-22(a)(26), 55A-1-22 (c)(2), 57C-1-22(a)(24), 57C-1-22(c)(2) and 59-1106(c)(2), effective October 1, 2002, to $15 for paper certificates and $10 for electronic certificates. Division management estimates this will generate $175,000 in additional revenue annually. ($131,250 in FY 2002-03 due to October 1 effective date.)

Section 5.5 also increases the application for reserved name fee in GS 55-1-22(a)(2) from $10 to $30, the application for certificate of withdrawal fee in GS 55-1-22(a)(21) from $10 to $25, and the application for an amended certificate of authority in GS 55-1-22(a)(20) from $50 to $75. The additional revenue from these increases is expected to be $69,175, annually.

AUTHENTICATION SECTION CERTIFIED DOCUMENT FEES (FEE REDUCTION)

The Authentication Section provides authentication services on North Carolina documents that will be used in foreign countries. The Section issues apostilles, authentications and certificates (herein generically "certificates") relating to a variety of documents, including birth certificates, marriage certificates, statements of martial status, articles of incorporation, corporate bylaws, certificates of merger, powers of attorney, patent applications, trademarks, diplomas, school transcripts, deeds and assignments of interest. Recently, several countries (notably Russia and Belarus) have begun requiring that duplicate sets of authenticated documents be filed relating to adoptions. The departmental resources required to generate extra certificates relating to a single document are negligible. The current fee for authenticating a document is $10 per certificate (increased from $6.25 effective January 1, 1999). Section 5.12 amends GS 147-37 effective October 1, 2002, to reduce the certificate fee for second (and further multiple) concurrently requested certificates for foreign adoptions only from $10 to $5. Section staff estimates that this change will reduce section revenue by approximately $30,000 per year.

MINUTES
HOUSE FINANCE COMMITTEE

July 23, 2002

The House Committee on Finance met on Thursday, July 23, 2002 in Room 544 of the Legislative Office Building at 8:30 a.m. The following members were present: Chairmen Allen, Buchanan, Luebke and Wainwright, Vice Chairs Hill and Jarrell; and Representatives Alexander, Blust, Capps, Cunningham, Decker, Dedmon, Edwards, Gibson, Hackney, Holliman, Hurley, Johnson, McComas, McCombs, McMahan, Morris, Rayfield, Weiss, Willingham, and Womble. The following Sergeant-at-Arms staff was present: Bill Freeman, Matt Myers, Dusty Rhodes and Walter Spell. Staff including Martha Harris, Linda Millsaps, and Martha Walston were in attendance. A Visitor Registration list is attached and made part of these minutes.

Chairman Buchanan called the meeting to order and introduced the following pages: Christy Stanford, Wayne County, sponsored by Representative Russell, Melanie Houston, Duplin County, sponsored by Representative Tucker, Robert Fenequito, Guilford County, sponsored by Representative Blust and Michael Phillips, Wake County, sponsored by Representative Miner.

Representative Holmes, bill sponsor HB 1620, A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE YADKIN COUNTY AND THE TOWN OF JONESVILLE TO LEVY A ROOM OCCUPANCY AND TOURISM DEVELOPMENT TAX, was recognized by Chairman Buchanan to explain the bill. A motion was made by Representative Jarrell to adopt the Proposed Committee Substitute for HB 1620 for discussion, motion passed. Representative Holmes gave a brief explanation of the bill. He said HB 1620 authorizes the town of Jonesville to levy a 3% room occupancy tax to go to tourism. Representative McMahan asked if there was any opposition and if not, he would move for a favorable report at the appropriate time. Representative Holmes said there was no opposition. Representative Edwards questioned if this involved the pledge from North Citizens for a Sound Economy. Representative Holmes said he knew of no opposition. Representative Jarrell was recognized to speak in favor of the bill. A vote was taken and Representative McMahan's motion passed and was given a favorable report to the Proposed Committee Substitute and unfavorable to the original bill. A copy of HB 1620, Proposed Committee Substitute, fiscal note and a summary is attached.

HB 1696 A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE STATE HIGHWAY PATROL TO ASSESS AND COLLECT FEES FOR PROVIDING ESCORTS FOR OVERSIZED AND HAZARDOUS SHIPMENTS, was the next bill on the agenda for discussion. Representative Cole, bill sponsor, was recognized to explain the bill. Chairman Buchanan recognized Chairman Allen, for adoption of a Proposed Committee Substitute for HB 1696 Motion carried and Representative Cole explained that the bill amends G.S. 20 to permit the State Highway Patrol to charge a fee to cover the cost of escorting transports of oversized loads and hazardous shipments through the state and would simply restore fees that were in place until last year. This would generate $201, 410. Representative McComas asked if this included others kinds of escorts such as rail control. Chairman Buchanan recognized Major C. E. Lockley, North Carolina Highway Patrol, to address the question. Major Lockley said as far as he knew it did not involve rail. Representative McComas asked staff to prepare an amendment to include rail. Representatives Capps asked who established the fees and why they were not included in the bill. Representative Cole said the Highway Patrol would establish the fees depending on the distant that it would cover and how many escorts were needed. Representative McComas also inquired about air. Chairman Buchanan recognized Gregg McCloud, legal counsel, of Crime Control and Public Safety to respond to the question. Mr. McCloud said the bill would allow the department to recruit costs for air and ground travel. Representative Womble asked what our sister states, Virginia, South Carolina and Georgia did. Representative Cole said he wasn't sure but we were doing this for the safety our citizens. After much discussion, Representative Jarrell made a motion to give the proposed committee substitute for HB 1696 a favorable report, unfavorable to the original bill. The motion passed and HB 1696 was given a favorable report.

The next bill to be discussed was SB 1195 A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO CREATE AN OCCUPANCY TAX DISTRICT IN THE TOWN OF SEVEN DEVILS, AND TO AUTHORIZE THE SEVEN DEVILS TAX DISTRICT TO LEVY AN OCCUPANCY TAX. Chairman Buchanan recognized Senator Foxx, bill sponsor to explain the bill. She explained that Seven Devils was in both Avery and Watauga County and this bill would allow the town to levy an additional three percent occupancy tax on the Watauga County side of the town. This bill was given a favorable report by the Occupancy Tax Subcommittee of the House Finance Committee. Representative Weiss made a motion to give SB 1195 a favorable report. Motion carried.

SB 1346 A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO ALLOW THE CITY OF EDEN TO NEGOTIATE ANNEXATION CONTRACTS, sponsored by Senator Berger was next up for discussion. Chairman Buchanan recognized Representative Hill to move for adoption of a proposed committee substitute for SB 1346 for discussion. Senator Berger to explain the bill. SB 1346 would authorize the City of Eden to enter into a contract with Duke Power and Miller Brewing Company to accept annual payments in lieu of taxes and, as part of the contract, to agree not to annex the property described in the contract prior to December 31, 2013. Representative Alexander was recognized by Chairman Buchanan to give proposed committee substitute for SB 1346 a favorable report, unfavorable to the original bill. Motion carried.

Chairman Buchanan recognized Senator Hartsell, sponsor of SB 1160 A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO MAKE TECHNICAL AND CLARIFYING CHANGES TO THE REVENUE LAWS AND RELATED STATUTES AND TO PROVIDE A ONE-TIME EXTENSION TO THE TIME PERIOD IN WHICH A TAXPAYER MAY SIGN A LETTER OF COMMITMENT WITH THE DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE TO QUALIFY FOR A LOWER TIER DESIGNATION, to explain his bill. Senator Hartsell explained section 1 allows a taxpayer that signed a letter of commitment with the Department of Commerce on or before February 28, 2002, to calculate its Bill Lee Act jobs and investment tax credits based on the location's enterprise tier and development zone designation for 2001 rather than 2002. This change would benefit taxpayers creating jobs or making eligible investments in areas whose tier designations increased for the calendar year 2002, thereby reducing magnitude of credits. Representative Capps stated according to the fiscal note the state would lose almost a million dollars. Representatives Hackney and Hurley had questions and after a brief discussion, Representative Gibson pointed out that even though the fiscal note had a deficit of $725,000, it actually would save the state money because of all the paper work involved and urged the committee to give SB 1160 a favorable report. Representative Hill was recognized to give SB 1160 a favorable report. The motion carried.

At the request of bill sponsors, Representative Thompson and Hill, HB 1736 and HB 1523 were removed from the calendar to be discussed at a later date.

Chairman Buchanan recognized Chairman Luebke for an announcement. HB 99 would be heard immediately following session today in the House Finance Committee.

The meeting adjourned the meeting at 9:20 a.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Charles Buchanan

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE TOWN OF JONESVILLE TO LEVY A ROOM OCCUPANCY AND TOURISM DEVELOPMENT TAX.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Jonesville occupancy tax. – (a) Authorization and Scope. – The Jonesville Town Council may levy a room occupancy tax of up to three percent (3%) of the gross receipts derived from the rental of any room, lodging, or accommodation furnished by a hotel, motel, inn, tourist camp, or similar place within the town that is subject to sales tax imposed by the State under G.S. 105-164.4(a)(3). This tax is in addition to any State or local sales tax. This tax does not apply to accommodations furnished by nonprofit charitable, educational, or religious organizations when furnished in furtherance of their nonprofit purpose.

SECTION 1.(b) Administration. – A tax levied under this section shall be levied, administered, collected, and repealed as provided in G.S. 160A-215. The penalties provided in G.S. 160A-215 apply to a tax levied under this section.

SECTION 1.(c) Distribution and Use of Tax Revenue. – The Town of Jonesville shall, on a quarterly basis, remit the net proceeds of the occupancy tax to the Jonesville Tourism Development Authority. The Authority shall use at least two-thirds of the funds remitted to it under this subsection to promote travel and tourism in the town and shall use the remainder for tourism-related expenditures.

The following definitions apply in this subsection:

(1) Net proceeds. – Gross proceeds less the cost to the town of administering and collecting the tax, as determined by the finance officer, not to exceed three percent (3%) of the first five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) of gross proceeds collected each year and one percent (1%) of the remaining gross receipts collected each year.

(2) Promote travel and tourism. – To advertise or market an area or activity, publish and distribute pamphlets and other materials, conduct market research, or engage in similar promotional activities that attract tourists or business travelers to the area; the term includes administrative expenses incurred in engaging in the listed activities.

(3) Tourism-related expenditures. – Expenditures that, in the judgment of the tourism development authority, are designed to increase the use of lodging facilities, meeting facilities, or convention facilities in a town or to attract tourists or business travelers to the town. The term includes tourism-related capital expenditures.

SECTION 2. Jonesville Tourism Development Authority. – (a) Appointment and Membership. – When the Jonesville Town Council adopts a resolution levying a room occupancy tax under this act, it shall also adopt a resolution creating a town Tourism Development Authority, which shall be a public authority under the Local Government Budget and Fiscal Control Act. The resolution shall provide for the membership of the Authority, including the members' terms of office, and for the filling of vacancies on the Authority. At least one-third of the members must be individuals who are affiliated with businesses that collect the tax in the town and at least three-fourths of the members must be individuals who are currently active in the promotion of travel and tourism in the town. The town council shall designate one member of the Authority as chair and shall determine the compensation, if any, to be paid to members of the Authority.

The Authority shall meet at the call of the chair and shall adopt rules of procedure to govern its meetings. The Finance Officer for Jonesville shall be the ex officio finance officer of the Authority.

SECTION 2.(b) Duties. – The Authority shall expend the net proceeds of the tax levied under this act for the purposes provided in Section 1 of this act. The Authority shall promote travel, tourism, and conventions in the town, sponsor tourist-related events and activities in the town, and finance tourist-related capital projects in the town.

SECTION 2.(c) Reports. – The Authority shall report quarterly and at the close of the fiscal year to the Jonesville Town Council on its receipts and expenditures for the preceding quarter and for the year in such detail as the town council may require.

SECTION 3. Town administrative provisions. – G.S. 160A-215 reads as rewritten:

"§ 160A-215. Uniform provisions for room occupancy taxes.

(a) Scope. – This section applies only to municipalities the General Assembly has authorized to levy room occupancy taxes. For the purpose of this section, the term "city" means a municipality.

(b) Levy. – A room occupancy tax may be levied only by resolution, after not less than 10 days' public notice and after a public hearing held pursuant thereto. A room occupancy tax shall become effective on the date specified in the resolution levying the tax. That date must be the first day of a calendar month, however, and may not be earlier than the first day of the second month after the date the resolution is adopted.

(c) Collection. – Every operator of a business subject to a room occupancy tax shall, on and after the effective date of the levy of the tax, collect the tax. The tax shall be collected as part of the charge for furnishing a taxable accommodation. The tax shall be stated and charged separately from the sales records and shall be paid by the purchaser to the operator of the business as trustee for and on account of the taxing city. The tax shall be added to the sales price and shall be passed on to the purchaser instead of being borne by the operator of the business. The taxing city shall design, print, and furnish to all appropriate businesses and persons in the city the necessary forms for filing returns and instructions to ensure the full collection of the tax. An operator of a business who collects a room occupancy tax may deduct from the amount remitted to the taxing city a discount equal to the discount the State allows the operator for State sales and use tax.

(d) Administration. – The taxing city shall administer a room occupancy tax it levies. A room occupancy tax is due and payable to the city finance officer in monthly installments on or before the fifteenth day of the month following the month in which the tax accrues. Every person, firm, corporation, or association liable for the tax shall, on or before the fifteenth day of each month, prepare and render a return on a form prescribed by the taxing city. The return shall state the total gross receipts derived in the preceding month from rentals upon which the tax is levied. A room occupancy tax return filed with the city finance officer is not a public record and may not be disclosed except in accordance with G.S. 153A-148.1 or G.S. 160A-208.1.

(e) Penalties. – A person, firm, corporation, or association who fails or refuses to file a room occupancy tax return or pay a room occupancy tax as required by law is subject to the civil and criminal penalties set by G.S. 105-236 for failure to pay or file a return for State sales and use taxes. The governing board of the taxing city has the same authority to waive the penalties for a room occupancy tax that the Secretary of Revenue has to waive the penalties for State sales and use taxes.

(f) Repeal or Reduction. – A room occupancy tax levied by a city may be repealed or reduced by a resolution adopted by the governing body of the city. Repeal or reduction of a room occupancy tax shall become effective on the first day of a month and may not become effective until the end of the fiscal year in which the resolution was adopted. Repeal or reduction of a room occupancy tax does not affect a liability for a tax that was attached before the effective date of the repeal or reduction, nor does it affect a right to a refund of a tax that accrued before the effective date of the repeal or reduction.

(g) This section applies only to Beech Mountain District W, to the Cities of Gastonia, Goldsboro, Greensboro, High Point, Kings Mountain, Lexington, Lincolnton, Lumberton, Monroe, Mount Airy, Shelby, Statesville, and Washington, to the Towns of Beech Mountain, Carrboro, Jonesville, Mooresville, North Topsail Beach, Selma, Smithfield, St. Pauls, and Wilkesboro, and to the municipalities in Avery and Brunswick Counties."

SECTION 4. This act is effective when it becomes law.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE YADKIN COUNTY AND THE TOWN OF JONESVILLE TO LEVY A ROOM OCCUPANCY AND TOURISM DEVELOPMENT TAX.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Yadkin occupancy tax. (a) Authorization and Scope. – The Yadkin County Board of Commissioners may levy a room occupancy tax of up to three percent (3%) of the gross receipts derived from the rental of any room, lodging, or accommodation furnished by a hotel, motel, inn, tourist camp, or similar place within the county that is subject to sales tax imposed by the State under G.S. 105-164.4(a)(3). This tax is in addition to any State or local sales tax. This tax does not apply to accommodations furnished by nonprofit charitable, educational, or religious organizations when furnished in furtherance of their nonprofit purpose.

SECTION 1.(b) Administration. – A tax levied under this section is levied, administered, collected, and repealed as provided in G.S. 153A-155. The penalties provided in G.S. 153A-155 apply to a tax levied under this section.

SECTION 1.(c) Distribution and Use of Tax Revenue. – Yadkin County must, on a quarterly basis, remit the net proceeds of the occupancy tax to the Yadkin Tourism Development Authority. The Authority must use at least two-thirds of the remitted funds to promote travel and tourism within the county and must use the remainder for tourism-related expenditures.

The following definitions apply in this subsection:

(1) Net proceeds. – Gross proceeds less the cost to the county of administering and collecting the tax, as determined by the finance officer, not to exceed three percent (3%) of the first five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) of gross proceeds collected each year and one percent (1%) of the remaining gross receipts collected each year.

(2) Promote travel and tourism. – To advertise or market an area or activity, publish and distribute pamphlets and other materials, conduct market research, or engage in similar promotional activities that attract tourists or business travelers to the area; the term includes administrative expenses incurred in engaging in these activities.

(3) Tourism-related expenditures. – Expenditures that, in the judgment of the tourism development authority, are designed to increase the use of lodging facilities, meeting facilities, and convention facilities in a county by attracting tourists or business travelers to the county. The term includes tourism-related capital expenditures.

SECTION 2. Yadkin Tourism Development Authority. – (a) Appointment and Membership. – When the board of commissioners adopts a resolution levying a room occupancy tax under this act, it shall also adopt a resolution creating a county Tourism Development Authority, which shall be a public authority under the Local Government Budget and Fiscal Control Act. The resolution shall provide for the membership of the Authority including the members' terms of office, and for the filling of vacancies on the Authority. At least one-third of the members must be individuals who are affiliated with businesses that collect the tax in the county and at least three-fourths of the members must be individuals who are currently active in the promotion of travel and tourism in the county. The board of commissioners shall designate one member of the Authority as chair and shall determine the compensation, if any, to be paid to members of the Authority.

The Authority shall meet at the call of the chair and shall adopt rules of procedure to govern its meetings. The Finance Officer for Yadkin County shall be the ex officio finance officer of the Authority.

SECTION 2.(b) Duties. – The Authority shall expend the net proceeds of the tax levied under this act for the purposes provided in Section 1 of this act. The Authority shall promote travel, tourism, and conventions in the county, sponsor tourist-related events and activities in the county, and finance tourist-related capital projects in the county.

SECTION 2.(c) Reports. – The Authority shall report quarterly and at the close of the fiscal year to the board of commissioners on its receipts and expenditures for the preceding quarter and for the year in such detail as the board may require.

SECTION 3. County Administrative Provisions. – G.S. 153A-155 reads as rewritten:

"§ 153A-155. Uniform provisions for room occupancy taxes.

(a) Scope. – This section applies only to counties the General Assembly has authorized to levy room occupancy taxes.

(b) Levy. – A room occupancy tax may be levied only by resolution, after not less than 10 days' public notice and after a public hearing held pursuant thereto. A room occupancy tax shall become effective on the date specified in the resolution levying the tax. That date must be the first day of a calendar month, however, and may not be earlier than the first day of the second month after the date the resolution is adopted.

(c) Collection. – Every operator of a business subject to a room occupancy tax shall, on and after the effective date of the levy of the tax, collect the tax. The tax shall be collected as part of the charge for furnishing a taxable accommodation. The tax shall be stated and charged separately from the sales records and shall be paid by the purchaser to the operator of the business as trustee for and on account of the taxing county. The tax shall be added to the sales price and shall be passed on to the purchaser instead of being borne by the operator of the business. (e) Penalties. – A person, firm, corporation, or association who fails or refuses to file a room occupancy tax return or pay a room occupancy tax as required by law is subject to the civil and criminal penalties set by G.S. 105-236 for failure to pay or file a return for State sales and use taxes. The governing board of the taxing county has the same authority to waive the penalties for a room occupancy tax that the Secretary of Revenue has to waive the penalties for State sales and use taxes.

(f) Repeal or Reduction. – A room occupancy tax levied by a county may be repealed or reduced by a resolution adopted by the governing body of the county. Repeal or reduction of a room occupancy tax shall become effective on the first day of a month and may not become effective until the end of the fiscal year in which the resolution was adopted. Repeal or reduction of a room occupancy tax does not affect a liability for a tax that was attached before the effective date of the repeal or reduction, nor does it affect a right to a refund of a tax that accrued before the effective date of the repeal or reduction.

(g) This section applies only to Anson, Brunswick, Buncombe, Cabarrus, Carteret, Craven, Cumberland, Currituck, Dare, Davie, Durham, Granville, Madison, Montgomery, Nash, Pender, Person, Randolph, Richmond, Rowan, Scotland, Stanly, Transylvania, Tyrrell, Vance, ~~and Washington~~ Washington, and Yadkin Counties, and to the Township of Averasboro in Harnett County. "

SECTION 4. Jonesville occupancy tax. – (a) Authorization and Scope. – The Jonesville Town Council may levy a room occupancy tax of up to three percent (3%) of the gross receipts derived from the rental of any room, lodging, or accommodation furnished by a hotel, motel, inn, tourist camp, or similar place within the town that is subject to sales tax imposed by the State under G.S. 105-164.4(a)(3). This tax is in addition to any State or local sales tax. This tax does not apply to accommodations furnished by nonprofit charitable, educational, or religious organizations when furnished in furtherance of their nonprofit purpose.

SECTION 4.(b) Administration. – A tax levied under this section shall be levied, administered, collected, and repealed as provided in G.S. 160A-215. The Town of Jonesville may contract with Yadkin County to collect and administer on behalf of the town a tax levied under this section. The penalties provided in G.S. 160A-215 apply to a tax levied under this section.

SECTION 4.(c) Distribution and Use of Tax Revenue. – The Town of Jonesville shall, on a quarterly basis, remit the net proceeds of the occupancy tax to the Jonesville Tourism Development Authority. The Authority shall use at least two-thirds of the funds remitted to it under this subsection to promote travel and tourism in the town and shall use the remainder for tourism-related expenditures.

The following definitions apply in this subsection:

(3) Tourism-related expenditures. – Expenditures that, in the judgment of the tourism development authority, are designed to increase the use of lodging facilities, meeting facilities, or convention facilities in a town or to attract tourists or business travelers to the town. The term includes tourism-related capital expenditures.

SECTION 5. Jonesville Tourism Development Authority. – (a) Appointment and Membership. – When the Jonesville Town Council adopts a resolution levying a room occupancy tax under this act, it shall also adopt a resolution creating a town Tourism Development Authority, which shall be a public authority under the Local Government Budget and Fiscal Control Act. The resolution shall provide for the membership of the Authority, including the members' terms of office, and for the filling of vacancies on the Authority. At least one-third of the members must be individuals who are affiliated with businesses that collect the tax in the town and at least three-fourths of the members must be individuals who are currently active in the promotion of travel and tourism in the town. The town council shall designate one member of the Authority as chair and shall determine the compensation, if any, to be paid to members of the Authority.

The Authority shall meet at the call of the chair and shall adopt rules of procedure to govern its meetings. The Finance Officer for Jonesville shall be the ex officio finance officer of the Authority.

SECTION 5.(b) Duties. – The Authority shall expend the net proceeds of the tax levied under this act for the purposes provided in Section 4 of this act. The Authority shall promote travel, tourism, and conventions in the town, sponsor tourist-related events and activities in the town, and finance tourist-related capital projects in the town.

SECTION 5.(c) Reports. – The Authority shall report quarterly and at the close of the fiscal year to the Jonesville Town Council on its receipts and expenditures for the preceding quarter and for the year in such detail as the town council may require.

SECTION 6. Town administrative provisions. – G.S. 160A-215 reads as rewritten:

"§ 160A-215. Uniform provisions for room occupancy taxes.

(a) Scope. – This section applies only to municipalities the General Assembly has authorized to levy room occupancy taxes. For the purpose of this section, the term "city" means a municipality.

(b) Levy. – A room occupancy tax may be levied only by resolution, after not less than 10 days' public notice and after a public hearing held pursuant thereto. A room occupancy tax shall become effective on the date specified in the resolution levying the tax. That date must be the first day of a calendar month, however, and may not be earlier than the first day of the second month after the date the resolution is adopted.

(c) Collection. – Every operator of a business subject to a room occupancy tax shall, on and after the effective date of the levy of the tax, collect the tax. The tax shall be collected as part of the charge for furnishing a taxable accommodation. The tax shall be stated and charged separately from the sales records and shall be paid by the purchaser to the operator of the business as trustee for and on account of the taxing city. The tax shall be added to the sales price and shall be passed on to the purchaser instead of being borne by the operator of the business. The taxing city shall design, print, and furnish to all appropriate businesses and persons in the city the necessary forms for filing returns and instructions to ensure the full collection of the tax. An operator of a business who collects a room occupancy tax may deduct from the amount remitted to the taxing city a discount equal to the discount the State allows the operator for State sales and use tax.

(d) Administration. – The taxing city shall administer a room occupancy tax it levies. A room occupancy tax is due and payable to the city finance officer in monthly installments on or before the fifteenth day of the month following the month in which the tax accrues. Every person, firm, corporation, or association liable for the tax shall, on or before the fifteenth day of each month, prepare and render a return on a form prescribed by the taxing city. The return shall state the total gross receipts derived in the preceding month from rentals upon which the tax is levied. A room occupancy tax return filed with the city finance officer is not a public record and may not be disclosed except in accordance with G.S. 153A-148.1 or G.S. 160A-208.1.

(e) Penalties. – A person, firm, corporation, or association who fails or refuses to file a room occupancy tax return or pay a room occupancy tax as required by law is subject to the civil and criminal penalties set by G.S. 105-236 for failure to pay or file a return for State sales and use taxes. The governing board of the taxing city has the same authority to waive the penalties for a room occupancy tax that the Secretary of Revenue has to waive the penalties for State sales and use taxes.

(f) Repeal or Reduction. – A room occupancy tax levied by a city may be repealed or reduced by a resolution adopted by the governing body of the city. Repeal or reduction of a room occupancy tax shall become effective on the first day of a month and may not become effective until the end of the fiscal year in which the resolution was adopted. Repeal or reduction of a room occupancy tax does not affect a liability for a tax that was attached before the effective date of the repeal or reduction, nor does it affect a right to a refund of a tax that accrued before the effective date of the repeal or reduction.

(g) This section applies only to Beech Mountain District W, to the Cities of Gastonia, Goldsboro, Greensboro, High Point, Kings Mountain, Lexington, Lincolnton, Lumberton, Monroe, Mount Airy, Shelby, Statesville, and Washington, to the Towns of Beech Mountain, Carrboro, Jonesville, Mooresville, North Topsail Beach, Selma, Smithfield, St. Pauls, and Wilkesboro, and to the municipalities in Avery and Brunswick Counties."

SECTION 7. This act is effective when it becomes law.

HOUSE BILL 1620:
Jonesville Occupancy Tax

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	House Finance	Introduced by:	Rep. Holmes
Date:	July 23, 2002	Summary by:	Trina Griffin
Version:	PCS for 1st Edition H1620-CSLC-97		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: The proposed committee substitute for House Bill 1620 authorizes the town of Jonesville to levy a 3% room occupancy tax. The tax conforms with the uniform occupancy tax provisions and was given a favorable report by the Occupancy Tax Subcommittee.

CURRENT LAW: Currently, the town of Jonesville does not have authority to levy a room occupancy tax. Jonesville is located in Yadkin County, which also does not have authority to levy an occupancy tax.

BACKGROUND: Since 1983, the General Assembly has authorized many units of local government to levy a room occupancy tax. In several instances, the General Assembly has authorized both a county and a city within that county to impose an occupancy tax. The rate of tax, the use of the tax proceeds, the administration of the tax, and the body with the authority to determine how the tax proceeds will be spent vary considerably. Over the past several years, there has been a greater effort to make the occupancy taxes uniform. In 1997, the General Assembly enacted uniform municipal and county administrative provisions for occupancy tax legislation – G.S. 153A-155 and G.S. 160A-215. These provisions provide uniformity in the areas of levy, administration, collection, repeal, and penalties.

The North Carolina Travel and Tourism Coalition has a policy statement for legislation authorizing local occupancy taxes. Many of the principles contained in its statement are similar to the ones established by the House Finance subcommittee in 1993.

BILL ANALYSIS: The proposed committee substitute for House Bill 1620 authorizes the town of Jonesville to levy a room occupancy tax of up to 3%. The proceeds must be remitted to a town Tourism Development Authority (TDA), which must use two-thirds of the proceeds to promote travel and tourism and one-third for tourism-related expenditures. These administrative and use provisions conform to the uniform guidelines.

UNIFORM OCCUPANCY TAX PROVISIONS	PCS FOR HB 1620
Rate – The county tax rate cannot exceed 6% and the city tax rate, when combined with the county rate, cannot exceed 6%.	Conforms
Use – Two-thirds of the proceeds must be used to promote travel and tourism and the remainder must be used for tourism related expenditures.	Conforms
Definitions The term "net proceeds", "promote travel and tourism", and "tourism related expenditures" are defined terms.	Conforms
Administration – The net revenues must be administered by a local tourism development authority that has the authority to determine how the tax proceeds will be used, is created by a local ordinance, and at least ¾ of the members must be currently active in the promotion of travel and tourism in the county and 1/3 of the members must be affiliated with organizations that collect the tax.	Conforms
Costs of Collection – The taxing authority may retain from the revenues its actual costs of collection, not to exceed 3% of the first $500,000 collected each year plus 1% of the remainder collected each year.	Conforms

EFFECTIVE DATE: When it becomes law.

BILL SUMMARY: The bill authorizes the Town of Jonesville to levy a 3% room occupancy tax, and applies all the standard provisions regarding the collection and use of the funds.

ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGY: The Jonesville town management indicates that they believe a 3% room tax would generate approximately $40,000 per year, for a full year. However, he also indicated that the town expects to initiate the tax at 1%. This analysis assumes that the town gleans 10 months of revenue during this fiscal year, at 1%, and then increases the tax to the maximum amount of 3%. Additionally, the 4% annual growth rate in hotel/motel sales from the US Census Bureau is used to inflate out year projections, although a 2% figure is used for the first year's growth, because of the recent economic slowdown. Actual growth will vary with construction plans and other local trends.

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	House Finance	Sponsor:	Rep. Cole
Date:	July 22, 2002	Analysis by:	Martha Walston
Version:	H1696-CSLAf-77		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 1696 amends Chapter 20 to require a person or entity to pay a fee to the Department of Crime Control and Public Safety to cover the cost of a State Highway Patrol escort for the transport of any oversized or hazardous load in the State if:

(1) an escort is required by the North Carolina Department of Transportation or by any federal agency or commission, or

(2) an escort is requested.

The Department of Crime Control and Public Safety must establish fees to carry out this act.

CURRENT LAW: The Department of Transportation is authorized by rule to require escort vehicles to accompany oversize and overweight loads. The weight, width of load, width of pavement, height, length of combination, length of overhang, maximum speed of vehicle, geographical route of travel, weather conditions and restricted time of travel must be considered to determine escort requirements. Currently the DOT may require highway patrol escort for certain loads that exceed 15 feet in width depending upon the commodity shipped and the route traveled, loads that exceed 16 feet 5 inches in height traveling on any road, and super loads. A super load is one that exceeds 132,000 pounds gross weight or exceeds 15 feet in width.

Under the current practice, when the DOT issues a permit for an oversized shipment and requires a highway patrol escort, DOT conditions issuance of the permit upon agreement that the permit recipient will reimburse the State Highway Patrol for the costs of the escort.

Last Session, the General Assembly enacted S.L. 2001-427, which prohibited an agency from establishing or increasing a fee or charge unless, the General Assembly has set the fee or charge amount and its purpose by statute, or has given the agency general authority to establish or increase a fee or charge by statute and the agency has consulted with the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations before establishing or increasing that fee or charge.

BILL ANALYSIS: The proposed committee substitute amends Article 4 (State Highway Patrol) of the Motor Vehicles Chapter to require a person or entity to pay a fee to the Department of Crime Control and Public Safety under the following circumstances:

1. When the person or entity is required by the North Carolina Department of Transportation or by any federal agency or commission to have the State Highway Patrol escort the transport of any oversized or hazardous load.

2. When the person or entity requests the State Highway Patrol to escort an oversized load or hazardous shipment.

The fee will cover the full cost to administer, plan, and carry out the escort within the State

Since September 11, the State Highway Patrol has received an increase in the number of requests from private corporations to provide escorts for hazardous materials shipments.

The proposed committee substitute also requires the Department of Crime Control and Public Safety to establish fees to carry out this section.

PRINCIPAL DEPARTMENT(S) & PROGRAM(S) AFFECTED: Crime Control and Public Safety: State Highway Patrol

EFFECTIVE DATE: Act becomes effective when it becomes law

BILL SUMMARY: Amends G.S. 20 to permit the State Highway Patrol to charge a fee to cover the cost of escorting transports of oversized loads and hazardous shipments through the state.

ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGY: The State Highway Patrol currently provides escorts for transports of oversized loads and hazardous material shipments through the state. While automobiles are used for most escorts, helicopters may be used for some hazardous material shipments transported by train. Note that the use of aircraft for the hazardous material escorts is a fairly recent requirement arising from the events of September 11. The federal government issued guidance advising states to strengthen security measures related to hazardous material transports, including the recommendation to provide aircraft escorts of cargo trains transporting nuclear or other hazardous materials. The first of these hazardous escorts using aircraft occurred in December 2001.

Data provided by the Highway Patrol for the period January 2001 through June 2002 was used to determine the averages for escorts provided each month as indicated in the following table:

Type of Escort	Number of Escorts per Month	Number of Staff Hours per Escort	Miles Driven Per Escort	Number Aircraft Hours per Escort	Meal Cost
Oversized Load	169	1.25	31	N/a	N/a
Hazardous Materials (without aircraft)	2	24	336	N/a	$ 43.40
Hazardous Materials (with aircraft)	2	13	434	4.7	$ 21.33

The costs incurred by the Highway Patrol include hourly salary and benefits cost, fuel costs for the vehicles, and, if applicable, meal reimbursements. In the case of helicopter escorts, the Highway Patrol also incurs aircraft cost, an hourly operating rate that includes both personnel and non-salary related operating costs. The aircraft rate is based upon the "public rate" calculated by the U.S. Department of Defense for an OA-58 helicopter. The rates are:

Personnel (salary and benefits)	$ 28.38/hour
Vehicle	$ .38/mile
Aircraft	$ 643.94/hour
Meals (state approved rate)	$ 6.50/breakfast $ 8.50/lunch $ 14.50/dinner

The data for the period January 2001 through June 2002 was used to project the number of escorts to be provided in Fiscal Year 2002-03 and beyond. Assuming no change in the number of escorts required, the Highway Patrol is projected to provide 2,028 oversized load escorts and 48 hazardous shipment escorts for a total of 2,076 annually. About one-half of the hazardous shipment escorts will require the use of aircraft. Using current rates for staff (vehicle, meal, and aircraft) it is estimated the annual cost to the Highway Patrol to provide escorts for 2,076 oversized and hazardous shipments will be $201,410.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO CREATE AN OCCUPANCY TAX DISTRICT IN THE TOWN OF SEVEN DEVILS, AND TO AUTHORIZE THE SEVEN DEVILS TAX DISTRICT TO LEVY AN OCCUPANCY TAX.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1.(a) District W Created. – Seven Devils District W is created as a taxing district. Its jurisdiction consists of that part of the Town of Seven Devils that is located in Watauga County. Seven Devils District W is a body politic and corporate and has the power to carry out the provisions of this section. The Seven Devils Board of Aldermen shall serve ex officio as the governing body of the district, and the officers of the board of aldermen shall serve as the officers of the governing body of the district. A simple majority of the governing body constitutes a quorum, and approval by a majority of those present is sufficient to determine any matter before the governing body, if a quorum is present.

SECTION 1.(b) Authorization and Scope. – The governing body of Seven Devils District W may levy a room occupancy tax of up to three percent (3%) of the gross receipts derived from the rental of any room, lodging, or accommodation furnished by a hotel, motel, inn, tourist camp, or similar place within the district that is subject to sales tax imposed by the State under G.S. 105-164.4(a)(3). This tax is in addition to any State or local sales or room occupancy tax. This tax does not apply to accommodations furnished by charitable, educational, or religious institutions or nonprofit organizations when furnished in furtherance of their nonprofit purpose.

SECTION 1.(c) Administration. – A tax levied under this section shall be levied, administered, collected, and repealed as provided in G.S. 160A-215 as if Seven Devils District W were a town. The penalties provided in G.S. 160A-215 apply to a tax levied under this section.

All persons, firms, corporations, and associations who rent either their own dwelling or dwellings or rooms for other persons are required to submit to the district a list of all rental properties. This list must include the owner's name, current address, and location of rental property. The list must be submitted semiannually on or before November 30 and May 30. Failure to file this list subjects the person, firm, corporation, or association to a civil penalty.

SECTION 1.(d) Distribution and Use of Tax Revenue. – Seven Devils District W shall, on a quarterly basis, remit the net proceeds of the occupancy tax to the Seven Devils Tourism Development Authority created in accordance with Part XVI of S.L. 2001-439. The Seven Devils Tourism Development Authority shall use the tax proceeds remitted to it under this act for the purposes provided in Part XVI of S.L. 2001-439. In accordance with the North Carolina Constitution and the United States Constitution, the tax proceeds may be used only for the direct benefit of the jurisdiction of Seven Devils District W.

For the purposes of this section, "net proceeds" means gross proceeds less the cost to the district of administering and collecting the tax, as determined by the finance officer, not to exceed three percent (3%) of the first five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) of gross proceeds collected each year and one percent (1%) of the remaining gross receipts collected each year.

SECTION 2. G.S. 160A-215 reads as rewritten:

"§ 160A-215. Uniform provisions for room occupancy taxes.

(a) Scope. – This section applies only to municipalities the General Assembly has authorized to levy room occupancy taxes. For the purpose of this section, the term "city" means a municipality.

(b) Levy. – A room occupancy tax may be levied only by resolution, after not less than 10 days' public notice and after a public hearing held pursuant thereto. A room occupancy tax shall become effective on the date specified in the resolution levying the tax. That date must be the first day of a calendar month, however, and may not be earlier than the first day of the second month after the date the resolution is adopted.

(c) Collection. – Every operator of a business subject to a room occupancy tax shall, on and after the effective date of the levy of the tax, collect the tax. The tax shall be collected as part of the charge for furnishing a taxable accommodation. The tax shall be stated and charged separately from the sales records and shall be paid by the purchaser to the operator of the business as trustee for and on account of the taxing city. The tax shall be added to the sales price and shall be passed on to the purchaser instead of being borne by the operator of the business. The taxing city shall design, print, and furnish to all appropriate businesses and persons in the city the necessary forms for filing returns and instructions to ensure the full collection of the tax. An operator of a business who collects a room occupancy tax may deduct from the amount remitted to the taxing city a discount equal to the discount the State allows the operator for State sales and use tax.

(d) Administration. – The taxing city shall administer a room occupancy tax it levies. A room occupancy tax is due and payable to the city finance officer in monthly installments on or before the fifteenth day of the month following the month in which the tax accrues. Every person, firm, corporation, or association liable for the tax shall, on or before the fifteenth day of each month, prepare and render a return on a form prescribed by the taxing city. The return shall state the total gross receipts derived in the preceding month from rentals upon which the tax is levied. A room occupancy tax return filed with the city finance officer is not a public record and may not be disclosed except in accordance with G.S. 153A-148.1 or G.S. 160A-208.1.

(e) Penalties. – A person, firm, corporation, or association who fails or refuses to file a room occupancy tax return or pay a room occupancy tax as required by law is subject to the civil and criminal penalties set by G.S. 105-236 for failure to pay or file a return for State sales and use taxes. The governing board of the taxing city has the same authority to waive the penalties for a room occupancy tax that the Secretary of Revenue has to waive the penalties for State sales and use taxes.

(f) Repeal or Reduction. – A room occupancy tax levied by a city may be repealed or reduced by a resolution adopted by the governing body of the city. Repeal or reduction of a room occupancy tax shall become effective on the first day of a month and may not become effective until the end of the fiscal year in which the resolution was adopted. Repeal or reduction of a room occupancy tax does not affect a liability for a tax that was attached before the effective date of the repeal or reduction, nor does it affect a right to a refund of a tax that accrued before the effective date of the repeal or reduction.

(g) This section applies only to Beech Mountain District ~~W,~~ W and Seven Devils District W, to the Cities of Gastonia, Goldsboro, Greensboro, High Point, Kings Mountain, Lexington, Lincolnton, Lumberton, Monroe, Mount Airy, Shelby, Statesville, and Washington, to the Towns of Beech Mountain, Carrboro, Mooresville, North Topsail Beach, Selma, Smithfield, St. Pauls, and Wilkesboro, and to the municipalities in Avery and Brunswick Counties."

SECTION 3. This act is effective when it becomes law.

SENATE BILL 1195:
Seven Devils Occupancy Tax

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	House Finance	Introduced by:	Senator Foxx
Date:	July 23, 2002	Summary by:	Trina Griffin*
Version:	1st Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 1195 creates the Seven Devils District W and allows the town to levy an additional three percent (3%) occupancy tax on the Watauga County side of the town. This bill was given a favorable report by the Occupancy Tax Subcommittee of the House Finance Committee.

CURRENT LAW: The Town of Seven Devils is located in both Avery County and Watauga County. Under current law, the Town of Seven Devils has the authority to levy up to a 3% occupancy tax (S.L. 2001-439, Part XVI).

BILL ANALYSIS:

Seven Devils District W. Senate Bill 1195 creates a new Seven Devils District W consisting of the part of the Town of Seven Devils that is located in Watauga County. The Seven Devils Board of Alderman serve ex officio as the governing body of the district and the officers of the board of aldermen serve as the officers of the governing body.

Occupancy Tax Levy & Use. The district is authorized to levy an occupancy tax of up to 3% subject to the uniform administrative provisions in G.S. 160A-215. The proceeds of the occupancy tax must be remitted quarterly to the Seven Devils TDA to be used as provided in Part XVI of S.L. 2001-439 with 2/3 to promote travel and tourism and 1/3 for tourism-related expenditures. However, the additional proceeds from the district may be used only for the direct benefit of the Seven Devils District W.

BACKGROUND: The Town of Beech Mountain is also located in both Avery County and Watauga County. In 2001, the General Assembly also created a new taxing district consisting of the part of the Town of Beech Mountain located in Watauga County [S.L. 2001-434, Part V]. The Beech Mountain District W also has the authority to levy an additional 3% occupancy tax in that portion of the town.

REVENUES
Seven Devils	$61,000	$73,000	$73,000	$73,000	$73,000

PRINCIPAL DEPARTMENT(S) & PROGRAM(S) AFFECTED: Seven Devils Tourism Development Authority

EFFECTIVE DATE: When it becomes law.

BILL SUMMARY: The legislation will create an occupancy tax district in the Town of Seven Devils with the authorization to levy an occupancy tax in Watauga County. The governing body of Seven Devils District W will be the members of the Seven Devils Board of Aldermen. The governing body may levy a room occupancy tax of up to three percent (3%) of the gross receipts derived from the rental of any room, lodging, or accommodation furnished by a hotel, motel, inn, tourist camp, or similar place within the district that is subject to sales tax. This is in addition to any existing state or local sales or room occupancy tax. The net proceeds shall be remitted to the Seven Devils Tourism Development Authority.

BACKGROUND: The Town of Seven Devils has requested a 6% occupancy tax rate. The General Assembly Bill Drafting Division found that the town already had the authority under current law to levy a 3% occupancy tax throughout the town; however, the town did not realize this and has not been collecting this revenue. The proposed legislation would add an additional 3% occupancy tax in the Watauga County portion of the town, raising its occupancy tax rate to the requested 6%. This gives the Seven Devils District W the same occupancy tax authority as its neighbor, Beech Mountain District W. The Avery County portion of Seven Devils will maintain its current 3% occupancy tax rate.

ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGY: All fees and revenues generated by the town remain with the town, thus the bill will have no fiscal impact on the state General Fund. However, the legislation will have an impact on the revenues of the town.

The Town of Seven Devils does not have any hotels or bed and breakfasts. Instead, tourism revenue is generated via the rental of condos, cabins and personal residences. It is estimated that approximately 125 rental units are present in the Watauga County portion of Seven Devils. The units are rented out at an average of $750 a week with an approximate 50% occupancy rate for the year (predominately summer and winter). This would generate approximately $2.4 million a year in rental income.

Recent years have seen fluctuations in rental occupancy rates, as they are very dependent on personal income changes and consumers' ability to take vacations. Assuming no tourism growth, the additional 3% occupancy tax on $2.4 million rental income would generate approximately $73,000 annually.

SOURCES OF DATA: Eric Davis, Seven Devils Town Manager; High Country Realty

TECHNICAL CONSIDERATIONS: The estimate for fiscal year 2002-03 assumes a two-month lag time before collections will begin. The legislation will not pass before July 1, 2002, and although the town plans to implement the occupancy tax as soon as it becomes law, there will be at least a month's set up time.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO ALLOW THE CITY OF EDEN TO NEGOTIATE ANNEXATION CONTRACTS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. The City of Eden may, by contract, provide that certain property described in the contract may not be annexed by the City under Parts 2 or 3 of Article 4A of Chapter 160A of the General Statutes prior to December 31, 2013. Nothing in this act impairs the right of the General Assembly to annex any such property by specific local act.

SECTION 2. The City of Eden may accept, as consideration for such contract, "Payments in lieu of taxes".

SECTION 3. Payments in lieu of taxes under this act shall be annually computed based upon the tax valuations of the properties subject to contracts under Section 1 of this act as determined by the Rockingham County Tax Department, with the formula for making the computation being stated in each contract.

SECTION 4. Contracts under Section 1 of this act apply only to the following described properties:

GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF NORTH CAROLINA

SESSION 2001

S 1

SENATE BILL 1346

Short Title:	Eden Annexation Contracts.	(Local)
Sponsors:	Senators Berger; and Foxx.
Referred to:	Finance.

June 12, 2002

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO ALLOW THE CITY OF EDEN TO NEGOTIATE ANNEXATION CONTRACTS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. The City of Eden may, by contract, provide that certain property described in the contract may not be annexed by the City under Parts 2 or 3 of Article 4A of Chapter 160A of the General Statutes prior to December 31, 2013. Nothing in this act impairs the right of the General Assembly to annex any such property by specific local act.

SECTION 2. The City of Eden may accept, as consideration for such contract, "Payments in lieu of taxes".

SECTION 3. Payments in lieu of taxes under this act shall be annually computed based upon the tax valuations of the properties subject to contracts under Section 1 of this act as determined by the Rockingham County Tax Department, with the formula for making the computation being stated in each contract.

SECTION 4. Contracts under Section 1 of this act apply only to the following described properties:

SENATE BILL 1346:
Eden Annexation Contracts

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	House Finance	Introduced by:	Sen. Berger
Date:	July 23, 2002	Summary by:	Cindy Avrette
Version:	1st Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 1346 authorizes the City of Eden to enter into a contract with Duke Power and Miller Brewing Company to accept annual payments in lieu of taxes and, as part of the contract, to agree not to annex the property described in the contract prior to December 31, 2013. The General Assembly gave the City of Eden similar authority in 1993. The authority given in that legislation extends until December 30, 2003.

CURRENT LAW: Chapter 418 of the 1993 Session Laws authorized the City of Eden to accept payments in lieu of taxes on certain property and to agree not to annex the property before December 30, 2003. This legislation was the first legislation enacted by the General Assembly authorizing a municipality to negotiate a contract to provide services to an area and to receive payments from the beneficiary of those services in lieu of not annexing the area for a certain amount of time. The 1993 legislation for the City of Eden included several tracts of land for Duke Power, Fieldcrest Cannon, Inc., Miller Brewing Company, and Unifi, Inc. Since 1993, the General Assembly has granted similar authority to City of Washington (1993), the Town of Stanley (1993), the City of Belmont (1997), the City of Hendersonville and the Town of Laurel Park (1997), the Town of Huntersville (1997), the City of Mount Holly (2000), and the Town of Weldon (2001).

BILL ANALYSIS: Senate Bill 1346 extends for an additional 10 years the authority originally given to the City of Eden in 1993 as it applies to property owned by Duke Power and Miller Brewing Company. The bill does not include the property described in the 1993 legislation owned by Fieldcrest Cannon, Inc. or Unifi, Inc. Like the 1993 legislation, this legislation provides that the payments in lieu of taxes must be annually computed based upon the tax valuations of the properties subject to the contracts as determined by the Rockingham County Tax Department. The formula for making the computation must be stated in the contract.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO MAKE TECHNICAL AND CLARIFYING CHANGES TO THE REVENUE LAWS AND RELATED STATUTES AND TO PROVIDE A ONE-TIME EXTENSION TO THE TIME PERIOD IN WHICH A TAXPAYER MAY SIGN A LETTER OF COMMITMENT WITH THE DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE TO QUALIFY FOR A LOWER TIER DESIGNATION.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

PART I: SUBSTANTIVE CHANGE

SECTION 1. Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 3A of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes to the contrary, if during January or February 2002 a taxpayer signed a letter of commitment with the Department of Commerce under G.S. 105-129.8 to create new jobs at a location or a letter of commitment with the Department of Commerce under G.S. 105-129.9 to place specific machinery and equipment in service at a location, then the taxpayer may calculate the credit for which the taxpayer qualifies based on the location's enterprise tier designation and development zone designation for 2001.

PART II: TECHNICAL CHANGES

SECTION 2. Subdivision (5) in the first paragraph of Section 4 of Chapter 1096 of the 1967 Session Laws, as amended, reads as rewritten:

"(5) The sales price of food and other items that are not otherwise exempt from tax pursuant to G.S. 105-164.13 but ~~is~~ are exempt from the State sales and use tax pursuant to G.S. 105-164.13B."

SECTION 3. Section 3 of S.L. 2001-264 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 3. Any provision of a local act that conflicts with G.S. 153A-154.1 or G.S. 160A-214.1 is repealed. Any local meals tax penalty in addition to or greater than the corresponding penalty provided in G.S. 153A-154.1 or G.S. 160A-214.1 is repealed."

SECTION 4. Section 49 of S.L. 2001-414 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 49. Section ~~47~~ 48 of this act does not derogate any existing powers."

SECTION 5. The introductory language of Section 13(a) of S.L. 2001-427 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 13.(a) G.S. ~~105-472(a)~~ 105-472 reads as rewritten:".

SECTION 6. G.S. 20-10.1 reads as rewritten:

"§ 20-10.1. Mopeds.

It shall be unlawful for any person who is under the age of 16 years to operate a moped as defined in G.S. ~~20-4.01(27)d1~~105-164.3 upon any highway or public vehicular area of this State."

SECTION 7. G.S. 20-17.4(a)(1) reads as rewritten:

"(1) A first conviction of G.S. 20-138.1, driving while impaired, that occurred while the person was driving a motor vehicle that is not a commercial motor vehicle."

SECTION 8. G.S. 20-87(6) reads as rewritten:

"(6) Private Motorcycles. – The base fee on private passenger motorcycles shall be nine dollars ($9.00); except that when a motorcycle is equipped with an additional form of device designed to transport persons or property, the base fee shall be sixteen dollars ($16.00). ~~A~~ An additional fee of three dollars ($3.00) is imposed on each private motorcycle registered under this subdivision in addition to the base fee. The revenue from the additional fee, in addition to any other funds appropriated for this purpose, shall be ~~deposited in~~ used to fund the Motorcycle Safety Instruction Program created in G.S. 115D-72."

SECTION 9.(a) G.S. 58-6-25(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) Returns; When Payable. – ~~The charge levied on each health maintenance organization is payable March 15 following the end of each calendar year.~~ The charge levied on each insurance company ~~other than a health maintenance organization~~ is payable at the time the insurance company remits its premium tax. If the insurance company is required to remit installment payments of premiums tax under G.S. 105-228.5 for a taxable year, it shall also remit installment payments of the charge levied in this section for that taxable year at the same time and on the same basis as the premium tax installment payments. Each installment payment shall be equal to at least thirty-three and one-third percent (33.3%) of the insurance company's regulatory charge liability incurred in the immediately preceding taxable year.

Every insurance company shall, on or before the date the charge levied in this section is due, file a return on a form prescribed by the Secretary of Revenue. The return shall state the company's total North Carolina premiums or presumed premiums for the taxable year and shall be accompanied by any supporting documentation that the Secretary of Revenue may by rule require."

SECTION 9.(b) This section becomes effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2003.

SECTION 10. G.S. 105-116(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) Tax. – An annual franchise or privilege tax is imposed on the following:

(1) An electric power company engaged in the business of furnishing electricity, electric lights, current, or power.

(2), (2a) Repealed by Session Laws 1998-22, s. 2, effective July 1, 1999.

(3) A water company engaged in owning or operating a water system subject to regulation by the North Carolina Utilities Commission.

(4) A public sewerage company engaged in owning or operating a public sewerage system.

The tax on an electric power company is three and twenty-two hundredths percent (3.22%) of the company's taxable gross receipts from the business of furnishing electricity, electric lights, current, or power. The tax on a water company is four percent (4%) of the company's taxable gross receipts from owning or operating a water system subject to regulation by the North Carolina Utilities Commission. The tax on a public sewerage company is six percent (6%) of the company's taxable gross receipts from owning or operating a public sewerage company. A company's taxable gross receipts are its gross receipts from business inside the State less the amount of gross receipts from sales reported under subdivision (b)(2). A company that engages in more than one business taxed under this section shall pay tax on each business. ~~A company is allowed a credit against the tax imposed by this section for the company's investments in certain entities in accordance with Part 5 of Article 4 of this Chapter.~~"

SECTION 11. G.S. 105-127(d) and (e) are repealed.

SECTION 12. G.S. 105-129.4(b3) reads as rewritten:

"(b3) Environmental Impact. – A taxpayer is eligible for a credit allowed under this Article only if the taxpayer certifies that, at the time the taxpayer first claims the credit, the taxpayer has no pending administrative, civil, or criminal enforcement action based on alleged significant violations of any program implemented by an agency of the Department of Environment and Natural Resources, and has had no final determination of responsibility for any significant administrative, civil, or criminal violation of any program implemented by an agency of the Department of Environment and Natural Resources within the last five years. A significant violation is a violation or alleged violation that does not satisfy any of the conditions of G.S. 143-215.6B(d). The Secretary of Environment and Natural Resources must notify the Department of Revenue annually of every person that currently has any of these pending actions and every person that has had any of these final determinations within ~~this~~ the last five years."

SECTION 13. G.S. 105-129.12A(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) Credit. – If a taxpayer that has purchased or leased real property in an enterprise tier one or two area begins to use the property in an eligible business during the taxable year, the taxpayer is allowed a credit equal to thirty percent (30%) of the eligible investment amount if all of the eligibility requirements of G.S. 105-129.4 are met. For the purposes of this section, property is located in an enterprise tier one or two area if the area the property is located in was an enterprise tier one or two area at the time the taxpayer applied for the ~~certification~~ determination required under G.S. 105-129.4(b5). The eligible investment amount is the lesser of (i) the cost of the property and (ii) the amount by which the cost of all of the real property the taxpayer is using in this State in an eligible business on the last day of the taxable year exceeds the cost of all of the real property the taxpayer was using in this State in an eligible business on the last day of the base year. The base year is that year, of the three immediately preceding taxable years, in which the taxpayer was using the most real property in this State in an eligible business. In the case of property that is leased, the cost of the property is not determined as provided in G.S. 105-129.2 but is considered to be the taxpayer's lease payments over a seven-year period, plus any expenditures made by the taxpayer to improve the property before it is used by the taxpayer if the expenditures are not reimbursed or credited by the lessor. The entire credit may not be taken for the taxable year in which the property is first used in an eligible business but shall be taken in equal installments over the seven years following the taxable year in which the property is first used in an eligible business. When part of the property is first used in an eligible business in one year and part is first used in an eligible business in a later year, separate credits may be claimed for the amount of property first used in an eligible business in each year. The basis in any real property for which a credit is allowed under this section shall be reduced by the amount of credit allowable."

SECTION 14. G.S. 105-130.5(b)(17) reads as rewritten:

"(b) The following deductions from federal taxable income shall be made in determining State net income:

...

(17) ~~The~~ To the extent included in federal taxable income, the following:

a. The amount of 911 charges collected under G.S. 62A-5 and remitted to a local government under G.S. ~~62A-6, and the~~ 62A-6.

b. The amount of wireless Enhanced 911 service charges collected under G.S. 62A-23 and remitted to the Wireless Fund under G.S. 62A-24."

SECTION 15.(a) G.S. 105-130.34(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) Any corporation that makes a qualified donation of an interest in real property located in North Carolina during the taxable year that is useful for public beach access or use, public access to public waters or trails, fish and wildlife conservation, or other similar land conservation purposes is allowed a credit against the tax imposed by this Part equal to twenty-five percent (25%) of the fair market value of the donated property interest. To be eligible for this credit, the interest in real property must be donated in perpetuity to and accepted by ~~either~~ the State, a local government, or a body that is both organized to receive and administer lands for conservation purposes and qualified to receive charitable contributions pursuant to G.S. 105-130.9. Lands required to be dedicated pursuant to local governmental regulation or ordinance and dedications made to increase building density levels permitted under a regulation or ordinance are not eligible for this credit. The credit allowed under this section may not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000). To support the credit allowed by this section, the taxpayer must file with its income tax return, for the taxable year in which the credit is claimed, a certification by the Department of Environment and Natural Resources that the property donated is suitable for one or more of the valid public benefits set forth in this subsection."

SECTION 15.(b) G.S. 105-151.12(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) A person who makes a qualified donation of an interest in real property located in North Carolina during the taxable year that is useful for (i) public beach access or use, (ii) public access to public waters or trails, (iii) fish and wildlife conservation, or (iv) other similar land conservation purposes is allowed a credit against the tax imposed by this Part equal to twenty-five percent (25%) of the fair market value of the donated property interest. To be eligible for this credit, the interest in property must be donated in perpetuity to and accepted by ~~either~~ the State, a local government, or a body that is both organized to receive and administer lands for conservation purposes and qualified to receive charitable contributions under the Code. Lands required to be dedicated pursuant to local governmental regulation or ordinance and dedications made to increase building density levels permitted under a regulation or ordinance are not eligible for this credit. The credit allowed under this section may not exceed two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000). To support the credit allowed by this section, the taxpayer must file with the income tax return for the taxable year in which the credit is claimed a certification by the Department of Environment and Natural Resources that the property donated is suitable for one or more of the valid public benefits set forth in this subsection."

SECTION 16. G.S. 105-163.7(c) is repealed.

SECTION 17. G.S. 105-164.23 reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-164.23. Consumer must keep records.

Every consumer shall keep such records, receipts, invoices and other pertinent papers in such form as may be required by the Secretary and all such books, invoices and other records shall be open for examination by the ~~Secretary or any of his duly authorized agents.~~Department of Revenue. In the event the retailer, user or consumer has imported the tangible personal property and fails to produce an invoice showing the purchase price of the tangible personal property as defined in this Article which is subject to tax or the invoices do not reflect the true or actual cost as defined ~~herein,~~in this Article, then the Secretary shall ascertain in any manner feasible the true purchase price and assess and collect the tax with interest, plus penalties, if such have accrued, on the true ~~cost price as determined by him.~~purchase price as determined by the Secretary."

SECTION 18. G.S. 105-164.27A(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Telecommunications Service. – A direct pay permit for telecommunications service authorizes its holder to purchase telecommunications service without paying tax to the seller and authorizes the seller to not collect any tax on a sale to the permit holder. A person who purchases telecommunications service under a direct pay permit must file a return and pay the tax due monthly to the Secretary. A direct pay permit issued under this subsection does not apply to any tax other than the tax on telecommunications service.

A call center that purchases interstate telecommunications service that originates outside this State and terminates in this State may apply to the Secretary for a direct pay permit for telecommunications service. A call center is a business that is primarily engaged in providing support services to customers by telephone to support products or services of the business. A business is primarily engaged in providing support services by telephone if at least sixty percent (60%) of its calls are incoming.

~~must be made on a form provided by the~~"

SECTION 19.(a) G.S. 105-187.1(4) reads as rewritten:

"(4) Recreational vehicle. – ~~A motorized or towable vehicle that combines transportation and temporary living quarters for travel, recreation, and camping. To qualify as a motorized recreational vehicle, the vehicle must be a camping and travel vehicle built on or as an integral part of a self-propelled motor vehicle chassis. If a towable vehicle is of such size or weight as to require a special highway movement permit, it is not a recreational vehicle. Towable recreational vehicles include travel trailers, fifth-wheel travel trailers, folding camping trailers, and truck campers.~~Defined in G.S. 20-4.01."

SECTION 19.(b) G.S. 20-4.01(32a) reads as rewritten:

"(32a) ~~Recreation~~ Recreational Vehicle. – A vehicular type unit primarily designed as temporary living quarters for recreational, camping, or travel use that either has its own motive power or is mounted on, or towed by, another vehicle. The basic entities are camping trailer, fifth-wheel travel trailer, motor home, travel trailer, and truck camper.

a. Motor home. – As defined in G.S. 20-4.01(27)d2.

b. Travel trailer. – A vehicular unit mounted on wheels, designed to provide temporary living quarters for recreational, camping, or travel use, and of a size or weight that does not require a special highway movement permit when towed by a motorized vehicle.

c. Fifth-wheel trailer. – A vehicular unit mounted on wheels designed to provide temporary living quarters for recreational, camping, or travel use, of a size and weight that does not require a special highway movement permit and designed to be towed by a motorized vehicle that contains a towing mechanism that is mounted above or forward of the tow vehicle's rear axle.

d. Camping trailer. – A vehicular portable unit mounted on wheels and constructed with collapsible partial side walls that fold for towing by another vehicle and unfold at the campsite to provide temporary living quarters for recreational, camping, or travel use.

e. Truck camper. – A portable unit that is constructed to provide temporary living quarters for recreational, camping, or travel use, consisting of a roof, floor, and sides and is designed to be loaded onto and unloaded from the bed of a pickup truck."

SECTION 19.(c) G.S. 20-116(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) Maximum Length. – The following maximum lengths apply to vehicles. ~~A single vehicle having two axles shall not exceed 40 feet in length of extreme overall dimensions inclusive of front and rear bumpers. A single vehicle having three axles shall not exceed 40 feet in length overall of dimensions inclusive of front and rear bumpers. Provided, however, trucks transporting unprocessed cotton from farm to gin~~

~~shall not exceed 48 feet in length overall of dimensions inclusive of front and rear bumpers.~~ A truck-tractor and semitrailer shall be regarded as two vehicles for the purpose of determining lawful length and license taxes.

(1) Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, a single vehicle having two or three axles shall not exceed 40 feet in length overall of dimensions inclusive of front and rear bumpers.

(2) Trucks transporting unprocessed cotton from farm to gin shall not exceed 48 feet in length overall of dimensions inclusive of front and rear bumpers.

(3) ~~Recreation~~ Recreational vehicles shall not exceed 45 feet in length overall, excluding bumpers and mirrors."

SECTION 19.(d) G.S. 20-305.2(a)(7) reads as rewritten:

"(7) The ownership, operation, or control of a dealership that sells primarily ~~recreation~~ recreational vehicles as defined in ~~G.S. 20-4.01(32a)~~20-4.01 by a manufacturer, factory branch, distributor, or distributor branch, or subsidiary thereof, if the manufacturer, factory branch, distributor, or distributor branch, or subsidiary thereof, owned, operated, or controlled the dealership as of October 1, 2001."

SECTION 19.(e) G.S. 20-305.2(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) This section ~~shall~~ does not apply to manufacturers or distributors of trailers or semitrailers that are not ~~recreation~~ recreational vehicles as defined in ~~G.S. 20-4.01(32a).~~G.S. 20-4.01."

SECTION 20. G.S. 105-269.14(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Distribution. – The Secretary must distribute ~~one-third~~a portion of the net use tax proceeds collected under this section to counties and ~~cities in proportion to their total distributions under Articles 39, 40, and 42 of this Chapter and Chapter 1096 of the 1967 Session Laws for the most recent period for which data is available.~~cities. The portion to be distributed to all counties and cities is the total net use tax proceeds collected under this section multiplied by a fraction. The numerator of the fraction is the local use tax proceeds collected under this section. The denominator of the fraction is the total use tax proceeds collected under this section. The Secretary must distribute this portion to the counties and cities in proportion to their total distributions under Articles 39, 40, 42, 43, and 44 of this Chapter and Chapter 1096 of the 1967 Session Laws for the most recent period for which data are available. The provisions of G.S. 105-472, 105-486, and 105-501 do not apply to tax proceeds distributed under this section."

SECTION 21. G.S. 159I-1 reads as rewritten:

"§ 159I-1. Short title.

This Chapter may be cited as the ~~North Carolina~~ Solid Waste Management Loan ~~Program.~~Program and Local Government Special Obligation Bond Act."

SECTION 22. Except as otherwise provided in this act, this act is effective when it becomes law.

SB 1160:
Revenue Laws Technical Changes

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate	Introduced by:	Senator Hartsell
Date:	June 24, 2002	Summary by:	Martha H. Harris and Cindy Avrette
Version:	2nd Edition

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 1160 makes numerous technical and clarifying changes to the revenue laws and related statutes. It also makes one substantive change. It is effective when it becomes law. The original bill was a recommendation of the Revenue Laws Study Committee.

PART I: SUBSTANTIVE CHANGE: Section 1 of the bill was introduced by Senator Soles as Senate Bill 1344. It allows a taxpayer that signed a letter of commitment with the Department of Commerce on or before February 28, 2002, to calculate its Bill Lee jobs creation tax credit and investment tax credit based on the location's enterprise tier and development zone designation for 2001 rather than 2002. This change would benefit taxpayers creating jobs or making eligible investments in areas whose tier designations increased for the calendar year 2002.

Under the Bill Lee Act, all counties are divided into five enterprise tiers, ranked by economic distress as measured by a formula that combines unemployment, per capita income, and population growth. The Department of Commerce must designate the counties' tier designations for the following year on or before December 31 of each year, based on the most recent data available. The Department of Commerce did not make the counties' tier designations for the 2002 calendar year until April 2002. It appears some taxpayers signed letters of commitment by February 28, 2002, under the belief they would be able to calculate the credit for which they qualified based on the location's enterprise tier designation for 2001. However, this is not possible under the current law for locations whose tier designation changed for 2002.

Section 1 of this bill would allow a taxpayer that signed a letter of commitment with the Department of Commerce during January or February 2002 for future planned expansion to calculate its Bill Lee jobs creation tax credit and investment tax credit based on the location's enterprise tier designation for 2001 rather than 2002. Because this section is permissive, its effect is to benefit taxpayers creating jobs or making eligible investments in areas whose designations increased for the calendar year 2002. The Department of Commerce reports that it has eight letters of commitment signed on or before February 28, 2002, in counties whose tier designations increased from 2001 to 2002.[1] The following chart shows the counties that would be affected by this section and the difference the section would make in the credit amounts the taxpayers qualify for:

[1] Although the bill also applies to areas designated as a development zone, it has no practical application for development zones because there were no letters of commitment signed with the Department of Commerce for a project in a development zone on or before February 28, 2002.

COUNTY[2]	# LETTERS OF COMMITMENT SIGNED BY 2/28/02	2001 TIER DESIGNATION The credit and threshold amounts the taxpayer would receive under this section.	2002 TIER DESIGNATION The credit and threshold amounts the taxpayer will receive if this section is not enacted.
Columbus	3	Tier 1: Jobs tax credit = $12,500 Threshold amount = $0	Tier 2: Jobs tax credit = $4,000 Threshold amount = $100,000
Richmond	1	Tier 1: Jobs tax credit = $12,500 Threshold amount = $0	Tier 2: Jobs tax credit = $4,000 Threshold amount = $100,000
Montgomery	1	Tier 2: Jobs tax credit = $4,000 Threshold amount = $100,000	Tier 3: Jobs tax credit = $3,000 Threshold amount = $200,000
Cumberland	1	Tier 3: Jobs tax credit = $3,000 Threshold amount = $200,000	Tier 4: Jobs tax credit = $1,000 Threshold amount = $500,000
Franklin	2	Tier 4: Jobs tax credit = $1,000 Threshold amount = $500,000	Tier 5: Jobs tax credit = $500 Threshold amount = $1,000,000

PART II: TECHNICAL CHANGES: The Revenue Laws Technical Changes bill was recommended by the Revenue Laws Study Committee. Each year the Revenue Laws Study Committee recommends numerous technical and clarifying changes. In 2002, because of the late adjournment of the 2001 Session, electronic copies of the updated statutes were not available in time to draft the complete bill for the study committee. Therefore, the study committee recommended a proposal that contained only two technical and clarifying changes to the Session Laws. The report stated the committee's intent that the technical changes to the statutes would be added in a committee substitute. The following table provides a section-by-section analysis of the proposed technical changes.

Shaded Items were in the original bill.

SECTION	G.S./S.L.	EXPLANATION
2	S.L. 1967-1096, as amended by S.L. 2001-414	Corrects a grammatical error.

[2] Onslow County moved from a Tier 2 county designation in 2001 to a Tier 3 county designation in 2002. However, it is not affected by this act because there were no letters of commitment signed with the Department of Commerce for a project located in that county on or before February 28, 2002.

SECTION	G.S./S.L.	EXPLANATION
3	S.L. 2001-264	Clarifies S.L. 2001-264, An Act To Provide Uniform Penalties For Local Meals Taxes. That act made all local meals tax penalties uniform by applying the existing State sales and use tax penalties to meals taxes. The act was intended to improve tax administration by making uniform the tax penalties for each local meals tax. After the act became law, staff noticed that its language might not be sufficiently clear to assure that the penalties will be uniform in each jurisdiction. This section adds language to clarify that additional or higher local penalties are repealed.
4	S.L. 2001-414	Corrects an incorrect cross-reference.
5	S.L. 2001-472	Corrects a typographical error. Although Section 3(a) of S.L. 2001-427 purports to amend just subsection (a) of G.S. 105-472, it actually amends the entire statute. This section conforms the law to accurately state that it amends the entire statute.
6	G.S. 20-10.1	Updates a cross-reference to a definition.
7	G.S. 20-17.4	Adds a missing phrase.
8	G.S. 20-87	Restores language intended to be enacted in 2001 but omitted due to a redlining error.
9	G.S. 58-6-25	Conforms the payment date of the insurance regulatory charge on HMOs to the date they file their premiums tax return. This has no substantive effect because the dates are the same in current law.
10	105-116	Deletes an obsolete cross-reference to a tax credit that is no longer allowed against franchise tax.
11	G.S. 105-127	Repeals two obsolete subsections. These subsections exempt certain stock from property tax. All stock is now exempt from property tax under G.S. 105-275(31).
12	G.S. 105-129.4	Corrects an incorrect word.
13	G.S. 105-129.12A	Conforms terminology to a change in procedure that was enacted in 2001.
14	G.S. 105-130.5	Clarifies that the corporate income tax deduction for 911 charges applies only if the taxpayer included the charges in federal taxable income. Without this correction, there could be an unintended double deduction for these charges.
15	G.S. 105-130.34 and G.S. 105-151.12	Clarifies that the credit for conservation donations applies only if the interest in real property is donated in perpetuity. This conforms the statute to interpretations by DOR and DENR[3]. Comparable federal law requires that a donation be (1) the entire interest of the donor, (2) a remainder interest, or (3) a restriction

[3] Under 15A NCAC 1F .0001 through .0006, DENR will certify donated property for the credit only if it provides a perpetual public benefit.

SECTION	G.S./S.L.	EXPLANATION
		in perpetuity. This provision was introduced as Sections 1 and 2 of Senate Bill 1252, recommended by the Environmental Review Commission.
16	G.S. 105-163.7	Repeals an obsolete subsection. The Industrial Commission receives the same information from another source now and no longer wants to get it from the Department of Revenue
17	G.S. 105-164.23	Conforms and updates language.
18	G.S. 105-164.27A	Deletes extra language intended to be deleted in 2001 but retained due to a redlining error.
19	G.S. 105-187.1, 20-4.01, 20-116, & 20-305.2	Conforms the definition of "recreational vehicle" in the highway use tax to the definition in the motor vehicles law, and eliminates inconsistent usage of the term. Also, clarifies and reorganizes the statute governing vehicle length.
20	G.S. 105-269.14	Conforms the use tax distribution percentage to reflect past and future rate changes.
21	G.S. 159I-1	Conforms the statutory short title in G.S. 159I-1 to match the title of G.S. Chapter 159I, which was amended in 2001.

RE: PCS for SB 1160 (Revenue Laws Technical Changes)

FISCAL IMPACT

Yes (X) No ( ) No Estimate Available ( )

	FY 2002-03	FY 2003-04	FY 2004-05	FY 2005-06	FY 2006-07
REVENUES
State General Fund	-	-725,000	-725,000	-725,000	-725,000

PRINCIPAL DEPARTMENTS AFFECTED: Department of Revenue and Department of Commerce. The enactment of the bill is not expected to affect the budget requirements of either department.

EFFECTIVE DATE: When the bill becomes law.

Note: The impact drops to $25,000 per year for three years beginning in 2007-08.

BILL SUMMARY: Section 1 allows a taxpayer that signed a letter of commitment with the Department of Commerce on or before February 28, 2002, to calculate its Bill Lee Act jobs and investment tax credits based on the location's enterprise tier and development zone designation for 2001 rather than 2002. This change would benefit taxpayers creating jobs or making eligible investments in areas whose tier designations increased for the calendar year 2002, thereby reducing magnitude of credits.

BACKGROUND INFORMATION: Under the Bill Lee Act, all counties are divided into five enterprise tiers, ranked by economic distress as measured by a formula that combines the unemployment rate, per capita income, and population growth. The Department of Commerce must designate the counties' tier designations for the following year on or before December 31 of each year. The Department of Commerce failed to designate the counties' tier designation for the 2002 calendar year until April 2002 because the Employment Security Commission was unable to provide the necessary data until the end of March. It appears some taxpayers signed letters of commitment by February 28, 2002, under the belief they would be able to calculate the credit for which they qualified based on the location's enterprise tier designation for 2001.

ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGY: Bill Lee Act Tiers. The analysis reviewed job creation and investment data from 10 projects that might be affected by the legislation. For each project, the jobs credit difference was calculated by comparing the per job credit amount under the 2001 tier with the tier ranking for 2002. This difference was then multiplied by the anticipated number of new jobs. The resulting number was then divided by 4 since the credit must be taken in four installments. Finally, under the Lee Act the credits are first taken in the tax year following the year the jobs were created.

For the investment tax credit, the impact of the bill is a lower minimum investment threshold for credit eligibility. The eligibility change has no fiscal impact since the thresholds in the affected counties are fairly small. The primary impact comes from the fact that the amount of the credit is the difference between the investment level and the threshold. Thus, the 2001 thresholds provided a larger credit than the 2002 level in the affected counties. In general, the fiscal impact is equal to the difference in the threshold amount. This difference is then divided by seven (7) since this credit must be taken in seven installments, beginning with the year following the year the actual investment took place.

Technical Changes Portion of the Bill. No impact.

SOURCES OF DATA: Discussions with the finance staff of the Department of Commerce and the Executive Director of the Columbus County Economic Development Commission.

TECHNICAL CONSIDERATIONS: The impact estimates may overstate the short-term effect of the bill due to the fact that: (1) some taxpayers will not be able to use the full amount of the credit; and (2) the calculations are based on "letter of commitment" data and some planned projects might not take place.

MINUTES
HOUSE FINANCE COMMITTEE

July 23, 2002

The House Committee on Finance met on Thursday, July 23, 2002 in Room 544 of the Legislative Office Building at 5:12 p.m. The following members were present: Chairmen Allen, Buchanan, Luebke and Wainwright, Vice Chairs Hill and Jarrell; and Representatives Alexander, Baddour, Blust, Capps, Cox, Cunningham, Decker, Dedmon, Gibson, Gray, Hackney, Holliman, Hurley, Johnson, McComas, McCombs, McMahan, Morris, Pope, Rayfield, Starnes, Weiss, Willingham, Wilson and Womble. The following Sergeant-at-Arms staff was present: Bill Freeman, Matt Myers, Dusty Rhodes and Walter Spell. Staff including David Crotts, Martha Harris, Canaan Huie, Linda Millsaps, and Martha Walston were in attendance. A Visitor Registration list is attached and made part of these minutes.

The meeting was called to order by Chairman Buchanan and Representative Michaux, bill sponsor of Proposed Committee Substitute HB 99, A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE COUNTIES TO LEVY A MENU OF LOCAL OPTION TAXES THAT WOULD BE SHARED WITH MUNICIPALITIES, TO REPEAL LOCAL GOVERNMENT REIMBURSEMENTS, TO REDUCE THE STATE SALES TAX RATE BY ONE-HALF CENT, TO REINSTATE THE CORPORATE INCOME TAX TO PREVIOUS LEVELS, TO INCREASE INCOME TAXES ON HIGHER-INCOME INDIVIDUALS, TO ELIMINATE SPECIAL TAX BREAKS FOR BANKS AND CIGARETTE MANUFACTURERS, AND TO MAKE TECHNICAL AND CONFORMING CHANGES, was recognized to explain the bill. Representative Michaux gave a brief explanation of the Local Sales Tax Swap, Local Option Revenue Sources and the Income Tax Changes. For further detailed explanation see attachment.

Chairman Buchanan asked if there was anyone from the public who would like to speak before the committee discussed the bill. Jim Hobbs, North Carolina Hotel Association and Gerry Hancock, Travel and Tourism Coalition, spoke against the bill. The Chair recognized Representative Blust ad he said even though there were some good things in the bill if taken separately, but it was a bad bill if left in its entirety. Representative Capps made a motion to give the bill an unfavorable report. The Chair denied this motion. Representative Luebke said the bill had good and bad points and would like to see debate on the bill to try to come to some agreement. He then made a motion in response to Representative Capps that he would like to give the bill a favorable report. Representative Womble said he would like to see reasonable parts of the bill salvaged and would like to know if there was someone that could speak on behalf of the North Carolina County Commissioners Association. At this time, Jim Blackburn, General Counsel for the County Commissioners Association, said they supported a number of the options. Representative Womble asked Representative Michaux if Part III, Income Tax Changes, on attachment, raise by 1% the income tax rate that applied to taxpayers with income above $100,000 (joint return)/$60,000 (single return) could be raise higher. Representative Michaux explained this was the two highest brackets and asked Martha Harris to elaborate on this question. Chairman Buchanan recognized Representative Hurley to speak on the bill. Representative Hurley said he felt there should be a study commission on local governments. Representative Wilson asked if she could send for an amendment offering a referendum to the people to vote on the one-half percent local sales tax. Chairman Buchanan said he would accept the amendment after further discussion on the bill. Chairman Buchanan recognized Representative Weiss to send forth an amendment and requested Canaan Huie, staff, to explain.

At this time, Representative Cunningham was recognized for a motion to send HB 99 to a study commission. Representative McComas requested the ayes and no's. The vote failed by 10 to 19. Representative Weiss made a motion to adopt her amendment for discussion. After much discussion, Representative Pope requested a roll call vote on the amendment. The amendment passed by a vote of 15 to 14. Representative Wilson was recognized to send forth an amendment and made a motion for adoption. After a brief explanation and debate on the amendment, Representative Wilson called for a roll call vote. The amendment failed by 20 to 9. Representative Luebke made a substitute motion to Representative Capps's motion for a favorable report to PCS and unfavorable to the original bill. No vote was taken due to additional amendments not completed by staff. Representative Womble was recognized to send forth an amendment. Representative Luebke made a motion to adjourn and postpone further discussion and consideration of HB 99 to a later date. HB 99 was withdrawn from the calendar.

The meeting adjourned at 6:10 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Charles Buchanan

GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF NORTH CAROLINA

SESSION 2001

H D

HOUSE BILL 99
Corrected Copy 3/15/01
PROPOSED COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE H99-CSLCx-102

Short Title: Local Tax Menu and Other Tax Changes. (Public)

Sponsors:

Referred to:

February 13, 2001

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE COUNTIES TO LEVY A MENU OF LOCAL OPTION TAXES THAT WOULD BE SHARED WITH MUNICIPALITIES, TO REPEAL LOCAL GOVERNMENT REIMBURSEMENTS, TO REDUCE THE STATE SALES TAX RATE BY ONE-HALF CENT, TO REINSTATE THE CORPORATE INCOME TAX TO PREVIOUS LEVELS, TO INCREASE INCOME TAXES ON HIGHER-INCOME INDIVIDUALS, TO ELIMINATE SPECIAL TAX BREAKS FOR BANKS AND CIGARETTE MANUFACTURERS, AND TO MAKE TECHNICAL AND CONFORMING CHANGES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

PART I. LOCAL SALES TAX SWAP

SECTION 1.1. G.S. 105-521 is repealed.

SECTION 1.2. Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes, as amended by this act, reads as rewritten:

"Article 44.

~~Third One-Half Cent (1/2¢)~~ Two-Cent (2¢) Local Government Sales and Use Tax.

"§ 105-515. Short title.

This Article is the ~~Third One-Half Cent (1/2¢)~~Two-Cent (2¢) Local Government Sales and Use Tax Act.

"§ 105-516. Limitations.

This Article applies only to counties that levy the first one-cent (1¢) sales and use tax under Article 39 of this Chapter or under Chapter 1096 of the 1967 Session Laws, the first one-half cent (1/2¢) local sales and use tax under Article 40 of this Chapter, and the second one-half cent (1/2¢) local sales and use tax under Article 42 of this Chapter.

"§ 105—517. Levy.

(a) After Vote. – If a majority of those voting in a special election held pursuant to this Article vote for the levy of the taxes in a county, the board of commissioners of a county may, by resolution, levy ~~one-half percent (1/2%)~~ local sales and use taxes up to the rate approved in the referendum, but no more than two percent (2%). The rate must be in increments no smaller than one-half percent (1/2%). These taxes are in addition to any other State and local sales and use taxes levied pursuant to law.

(b) Without Vote. – If the question of whether to levy taxes under this Article has not been defeated in a special election held in the county within two years, the board of commissioners of a county may, by resolution, levy ~~one-half percent (1/2%)~~up to two percent (2%) local sales and use ~~taxes~~ taxes. The rate must be in increments no smaller than one-half percent (1/2%). These taxes are in addition to any other State and local sales and use taxes levied pursuant to law. Before adopting a resolution under this subsection, the board of commissioners must give at least 10 days' public notice of its intent to adopt the resolution and must hold a public hearing on the issue of adopting the resolution.

(c) Effective Date. – A tax levied under this Article may not become effective before ~~July 1, 2003.~~ October 1, 2002.

"§ 105-518. County election on adoption of tax.

(a) Resolution. – The board of commissioners of a county may direct the county board of elections to conduct a special election on the question of whether to levy local ~~one-half percent (1/2%)~~ sales and use taxes in the county as provided in this Article. The election must be held on a date jointly agreed upon by the two boards and must be held in accordance with the procedures of G.S. 163-287.

(b) Ballot Question. – The question to be presented on a ballot for a special election concerning the levy of the taxes authorized by this Article must be in the following form:

[ ] FOR [ ] AGAINST

~~one-half percent (1/2%)~~[X] percent (X%) local sales and use taxes, to replace the ~~current~~ one-half percent (1/2%) State sales and use taxes that end ~~July 1, 2003.~~October 1, 2002.

"§ 105-519. Administration of taxes.

Except as provided in this Article, the adoption, levy, collection, administration, and repeal of these additional taxes must be in accordance with Article 39 of this Chapter. A tax levied under this Article does not apply to the sales price of food that is exempt from tax pursuant to G.S. 105-164.13B.

"§ 105-520. Distribution of taxes.

(a) Point of Origin. – The Secretary must, on a monthly basis, allocate to each taxing county one-half of the net proceeds of the tax collected in that county under this Article. If the Secretary collects taxes under this Article in a month and the taxes cannot be identified as being attributable to a particular taxing county, the Secretary must allocate one-half of the net proceeds of these taxes among the taxing counties in proportion to the amount of taxes collected in each county under this Article in that month.

(b) Per Capita. – The Secretary must, on a monthly basis, allocate the remaining net proceeds of the tax collected under this Article among the taxing counties on a per capita basis according to the most recent annual population estimates certified to the Secretary by the State Budget Officer. If the tax is levied at different rates in different counties, the per capita allocation must be calculated separately for each half-cent (1/2¢) increment levied. The Secretary must then adjust the amount allocated to each county as provided in G.S. 105-486(b).

(c) Distribution Between Counties and Cities. – The Secretary must divide and distribute the funds allocated under this section each month between each taxing county and the municipalities located in the county in accordance with the method by which the one percent (1%) sales and use taxes levied in that county pursuant to Article 39 of this Chapter or Chapter 1096 of the 1967 Session Laws are distributed. No municipality may receive any funds under this subsection for a month if it is not entitled to a distribution under G.S. 105-501 for the same month."

SECTION 1.3. Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 105-520, the distributions under that section during the 2002-2003 fiscal year must be made quarterly rather than monthly. For the purpose of the per capita distribution under that section during 2002-2003, if any taxes levied under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes by a county have not been collected in that county for a full quarter because of the levy or repeal of the taxes, the Secretary must distribute a pro rata share to that county for that quarter based on the number of months the taxes were collected in that county during the quarter.

SECTION 1.4. Section 34.13(c) of S.L. 2001-424 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 34.13.(c) This section becomes effective October 16, 2001, and applies to sales made on or after that date. This section is repealed effective for sales made on or after ~~July 1, 2003.~~ October 1, 2002. This section does not affect the rights or liabilities of the State, a taxpayer, or another person arising under a statute amended or repealed by this section before the effective date of its amendment or repeal; nor does it affect the right to any refund or credit of a tax that accrued under the amended or repealed statute before the effective date of its amendment or repeal."

SECTION 1.5. Effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002, G.S. 105-269.14(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Distribution. – The Secretary must distribute ~~one-third~~ a portion of the net use tax proceeds collected under this section to counties and ~~cities in proportion to their total distributions under Articles 39, 40, and 42 of this Chapter and Chapter 1096 of the 1967 Session Laws for the most recent period for which data is available.~~ cities. The portion to be distributed to all counties and cities is the total net use tax proceeds collected under this section multiplied by a fraction. The numerator of the fraction is the local use tax proceeds collected under this section. The denominator of the fraction is the total use tax proceeds collected under this section. The Secretary must distribute this portion to the counties and cities in proportion to their total distributions under Articles 39, 40, 42, 43, and 44 of this Chapter and Chapter 1096 of the 1967 Session Laws for the most recent period for which data are available. The provisions of G.S. 105-472, 105-486, ~~and 105-501~~ 105-501, and 105-520 do not apply to tax proceeds distributed under this section."

SECTION 1.6. G.S. 159-15 reads as rewritten:

"§ 159-15. Amendments to the budget ordinance.

Except as otherwise restricted by law, the governing board may amend the budget ordinance at any time after the ordinance's adoption in any manner, so long as the ordinance, as amended, continues to satisfy the requirements of G.S. 159-8 and 159-13. However, except as otherwise provided in this section, no amendment may increase or reduce a property tax levy or in any manner alter a property taxpayer's liability, unless the board is ordered to do so by a court of competent jurisdiction, or by a State agency having the power to compel the levy of taxes by the board.

If after July 1 the local government receives additional and unanticipated revenues, the governing body may, before January 1, amend the budget ordinance to reduce the property tax levy to account for the unanticipated revenues.

The governing board by appropriate resolution or ordinance may authorize the budget officer to transfer moneys from one appropriation to another within the same fund subject to such limitations and procedures as it may prescribe. Any such transfers shall be reported to the governing board at its next regular meeting and shall be entered in the minutes."

SECTION 1.7. Section 34.14(b) of S.L. 2001-424 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 34.14.(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 105-466(c), a tax levied during the ~~2003~~ 2002 calendar year under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes, as enacted by this act, may become effective on the first day of any calendar month during 2002 beginning on or after ~~July 1, 2003~~ October 1, 2002. Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 105-466(c), if a county levies a tax during the ~~2003~~ 2002 calendar year under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes, as enacted by this act, that is to become effective on or before January 1, 2003, the county is required to give the Secretary of Revenue ~~only~~ the following notice:

(1) If the tax is to become effective October 1, 2002, the county must notify the Secretary on or before September 15, 2002.

(2) If the tax is to become effective on the first day of any other calendar month beginning on or before January 1, 2003, the county must give the Secretary 30 days' advance notice of the tax levy.

For taxes ~~levied on or~~ that are to become effective after January 1, ~~2004~~ 2003, the provisions of G.S. 105-466(c) apply."

SECTION 1.8. Section 34.15(b) of S.L. 2001-424 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 34.15.(b) This section becomes effective July 1, ~~2003~~ 2002."

SECTION 1.9. Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 105-517(b), a county may levy a tax by resolution that becomes effective on or before January 1, 2003, under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes by giving at least 48 hours notice of its intent to adopt the resolution, as provided under G.S. 143-318.12(b)(2).

SECTION 1.10. To the extent the Department of Revenue's nonrecurring costs of implementing and administering Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes, as amended, exceed funds available in its budget for the 2002-2003 fiscal year, the Department may pay the excess cost by withholding up to two hundred seventy-five thousand dollars ($275,000) from collections under Subchapter VIII of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes.

SECTION 1.11. The Department of Revenue may contract for supplies, materials, equipment, and contractual services related to the provision of notice, the creation of tax forms and instructions, and the development of computer software necessitated by the amendments in this act without being subject to the requirements of Article 3 or Article 8 of Chapter 143 of the General Statutes.

SECTION 1.12(a) The title of Article 39 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes reads as rewritten:

"Article 39.

First One-Cent (1¢) Local Government Sales and Use Tax."

SECTION 1.12.(b) G.S. 105-463 reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-463. Short title.

This Article ~~shall be known as the "Local~~ is the First One-Cent (1¢) Local Government Sales and Use Tax ~~Act."~~Act."

SECTION 1.13.(a) The title of Article 40 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes reads as rewritten:

"Article 40.

~~Supplemental~~ First One-Half Cent (1/2¢) Local Government Sales and Use ~~Taxes.~~Tax."

SECTION 1.13.(b) G.S. 105-480 reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-480. Short title.

This Article ~~shall be known as the Supplemental~~ is the First One-Half Cent (1/2¢) Local Government Sales and Use Tax Act."

SECTION 1.14.(a) The title of Article 42 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes reads as rewritten:

"Article 42.

~~Additional Supplemental~~ Second One-Half Cent (1/2¢) Local Government Sales and Use ~~Taxes.~~Tax."

SECTION 1.14.(b) G.S. 105-495 reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-495. Short title.

This Article ~~shall be known as the Additional Supplemental~~ is the Second One-Half Cent (1/2¢) Local Government Sales and Use Tax Act."

PART II. LOCAL OPTION REVENUE SOURCES

SECTION 2. Subchapter VIII of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new Article to read:

" Article 46.

"Local Government Meals Tax.

"§ 105-535. Short title.

This Article is the Local Government Meals Tax Act.

"§ 105-536. Definitions.

The definitions in G.S. 105-164.3 apply to this Article. In addition, the following definitions apply in this Article:

(1) City. – Defined in G.S. 153A-1.

(2) Person. – Defined in G.S. 105-228.90.

"§ 105-537. Levy.

(a) After Vote. – If a majority of those voting in a special election held pursuant to this Article vote for the levy of the tax in a county, the board of commissioners of a county may, by resolution, levy a local meals tax up to the rate approved in the referendum.

(b) Without Vote. – If the question of whether to levy a tax under this Article has not been defeated in a special election held in the county within two years, the board of commissioners of a county may, by resolution, levy a local meals tax. Before adopting a resolution under this subsection, the board of commissioners must give at least 10 days' public notice of its intent to adopt the resolution and must hold a public hearing on the issue of adopting the resolution.

(c) Rate; Scope; Effective Date. – A tax levied under this section may not exceed two percent (2%). The rate must be in increments no smaller than one-half percent (1/2%). A tax levied under this section is in addition to any other State and local sales and use and meals taxes levied pursuant to law. The tax applies to the sales price of prepared food sold within the county at retail, for consumption on or off the premises, by a retailer within the county that is subject to sales tax under G.S. 105-164.4(a)(1). A meals tax must become effective on the date specified in the resolution levying the tax. That date must be the first day of a calendar month, however, and may not be earlier than the first day of the second month after the date the resolution is adopted.

(d) Ballot Question. – The question to be presented on a ballot for a special election concerning the levy of the tax authorized by this Article must be in the following form:

'[ ] FOR [ ] AGAINST

[X] percent (X%) local meals tax, in addition to the current local sales and use and meals taxes.'

"§ 105-538. Exemptions.

A meals tax levied under this Article does not apply to the following sales of prepared food:

(1) Prepared food served to residents in boarding houses and sold together on a periodic basis with rental of a sleeping room or lodging.

(2) Retail sales exempt from taxation under G.S. 105-164.13.

(3) Retail sales through or by means of vending machines.

(4) Prepared food served by a retailer subject to the local occupancy tax if the charge for the prepared food is included in a single, nonitemized sales price together with the charge for rental of a room, lodging, or accommodation furnished by the retailer.

(5) Prepared food furnished without charge by an employer to an employee.

(6) Retail sales by grocers or by grocery sections of supermarkets or other diversified retail establishments, other than sales of prepared food in the delicatessen or similar department of the grocer or grocery section.

"§ 105-539. Collection.

Every retailer subject to a tax levied under this Article must, on and after the effective date of the levy of the tax, collect the tax. This tax must be collected as part of the charge for furnishing prepared food. The tax must be stated and charged separately from the sales records, and must be paid by the purchaser to the retailer as trustee for and on account of the county. The tax must be added to the sales price and passed on to the purchaser instead of being borne by the retailer. The county must design, print, and furnish to all appropriate businesses and persons in the county the necessary forms for filing returns and instructions to ensure the full collection of the tax.

"§ 105-540. Administration.

The county must administer a tax levied under this Article. A tax levied under this Article is due and payable to the county finance officer in monthly installments on or before the 15th day of the month following the month in which the tax accrues. Every retailer liable for the tax must, on or before the 15th day of each month, prepare and file a return on a form prescribed by the county. The return must show the total gross receipts derived in the preceding month from sales to which the tax applies.

A return filed with the county finance officer under this Article is not a public record and may not be disclosed except as provided in G.S. 153A-148.1 or G.S. 160A-208.1.

"§ 105-541. Refunds.

The county must refund to a nonprofit or governmental entity the meals tax paid by the entity on eligible purchases of prepared food. A nonprofit or governmental entity's purchase of prepared food is eligible for a refund under this section if the entity is entitled to a refund under G.S. 105-164.14(b) or (c) of local sales and use tax paid on the purchase. The time limitations, application requirements, penalties, and restrictions provided in G.S. 105-164.14(b) and (d) apply to refunds to nonprofit entities; the time, limitations, application requirements, penalties, and restrictions provided in G.S. 105-164.14(c) and (d) apply to refunds to governmental entities. When an entity applies for a refund of the meals tax paid by it on purchases, it must attach to its application a copy of the application submitted to the Department of Revenue under G.S. 105-164.14 for a refund of the sales and use tax on the same purchases. An applicant for a refund under this subsection must provide any information required by the county to substantiate the claim.

"§ 105-542. Distribution.

Each month, the county must divide and distribute the net proceeds of a tax levied under this Article between the county and the municipalities located in the county in accordance with the method by which the one percent (1%) sales and use taxes levied in that county pursuant to Article 39 of this Chapter or Chapter 1096 of the 1967 Session Laws are distributed. No municipality may receive any funds under this section for a month if it is not entitled to a distribution under G.S. 105-501 for the same month.

"§ 105-543. Penalties.

The penalties provided in G.S. 153A-154.1 apply to a tax levied under this Article.

"§ 105-544. Repeal or reduction.

A meals tax levied under this Article may be repealed or reduced by a resolution adopted by the board of commissioners of the taxing county. Repeal or reduction of a meals tax must become effective on the first day of a month and may not become effective until the end of the fiscal year in which the resolution was adopted. Repeal or reduction of a meals tax does not affect a liability for a tax that was attached before the effective date of the repeal or reduction, nor does it affect a right to a refund of a tax that accrued before the effective date of the repeal or reduction."

SECTION 3.(a) Subchapter VIII of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new Article to read:

"Article 47.

"Local Government Occupancy Tax.

"§ 105-545. Short title.

This Article is the Local Government Occupancy Tax Act.

"§ 105-546. Levy.

(a) After Vote. – If a majority of those voting in a special election held pursuant to this Article vote for the levy of the tax in a county, the board of commissioners of a county may, by resolution, levy a local occupancy tax up to the rate approved in the referendum.

(b) Without Vote. – If the question of whether to levy a tax under this Article has not been defeated in a special election held in the county within two years, the board of commissioners of a county may, by resolution, levy a local occupancy tax. Before adopting a resolution under this subsection, the board of commissioners must give at least 10 days' public notice of its intent to adopt the resolution and must hold a public hearing on the issue of adopting the resolution.

(c) Rate; Scope. – A tax levied under this section may not exceed two percent (2%). The rate must be in increments no smaller than one-half percent (1/2%). A tax levied under this section is in addition to any other State and local sales and use and room taxes levied pursuant to law. The tax applies to the gross receipts derived from the rental of any room, lodging, or accommodation furnished by a hotel, motel, inn, tourist camp, or similar place within the county that is subject to sales tax imposed by the State under G.S. 105-164.4(a)(3).

(d) Ballot Question. – The question to be presented on a ballot for a special election concerning the levy of the tax authorized by this Article must be in the following form:

'[ ] FOR [ ] AGAINST

[X] percent (X%) local occupancy tax, in addition to the current local sales and use taxes and local occupancy taxes.'

"§ 105-547. Administration.

A tax levied under this Article shall be levied, administered, collected, and repealed as provided in G.S. 153A-155. The penalties provided in G.S. 153A-155 apply to a tax levied under this Article.

"§ 105-548. Distribution.

Each month, the county must divide and distribute the net proceeds of a tax levied under this Article between the county and the municipalities located in the county in accordance with the method by which the one percent (1%) sales and use taxes levied in that county pursuant to Article 39 of this Chapter or Chapter 1096 of the 1967 Session

Laws are distributed. No municipality may receive any funds under this section for a month if it is not entitled to a distribution under G.S. 105-501 for the same month."

SECTION 3.(b) G.S. 153A-155(g) reads as rewritten:

"(g) This section applies to an occupancy tax levied under Article 47 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes. In addition, with respect to an occupancy tax levied under a local act, this section applies only to Anson, Brunswick, Buncombe, Cabarrus, Carteret, Craven, Cumberland, Currituck, Dare, Davie, Durham, Granville, Madison, Montgomery, Nash, Pender, Person, Randolph, Richmond, Rowan, Scotland, Stanly, Transylvania, Tyrrell, Vance, and Washington Counties, and to the Township of Averasboro in Harnett County."

SECTION 4. Subchapter VIII of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new Article to read:

"Article 48.

"Local Government Income Tax.

"§ 105-550. Short title.

This Article is the Local Government Income Tax Act.

"§ 105-551. Definitions.

The definitions provided in G.S. 105-134.1 and the following definitions apply in this Article:

(1) City. – Defined in G.S. 153A-1.

(2) North Carolina income tax. – The amount of tax imposed on the taxpayer under Part 2 of Article 4 of this Chapter for the taxable year before the subtraction of any credits allowed by this Chapter.

"§ 105-552. Levy.

(a) After Vote. – If a majority of those voting in a special election held pursuant to this Article vote for the levy of the tax in a county, the board of commissioners of a county may, by resolution, levy a local income tax on residents of the county, up to the rate approved in the referendum.

(b) Without Vote. – If the question of whether to levy a tax under this Article has not been defeated in a special election held in the county within two years, the board of commissioners of a county may, by resolution, levy a local income tax on residents of the county. Before adopting a resolution under this subsection, the board of commissioners must give at least 10 days' public notice of its intent to adopt the resolution and must hold a public hearing on the issue of adopting the resolution.

(c) Rate; Scope; Effective Date. – A tax levied under this section is calculated as a percentage of the North Carolina income tax of every individual who is a resident of the county as of the end of the taxable year. The rate of tax may not exceed five percent (5%). The rate must be in increments no smaller than one percent (1%). A tax levied under this section is in addition to any other State and local income taxes levied pursuant to law. If the resolution levying the tax is adopted before September 1, the tax becomes effective for taxable years beginning on or after the following January 1. If the resolution is adopted on or after September 1, the tax becomes effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1 of the second calendar year following adoption of the resolution.

(d) Ballot Question. – The question to be presented on a ballot for a special election concerning the levy of the tax authorized by this Article must be in the following form:

'[ ] FOR [ ] AGAINST

Local income tax on residents of the county, up to [X] percent (X%) of each resident's North Carolina income tax.'

"§ 105-553. Administration.

(a) Resolution. – The board of commissioners of the county must, upon adoption of a resolution levying a tax under this Article, immediately deliver a certified copy of the resolution to the Secretary of Revenue, accompanied by a certified statement from the county board of elections setting forth the results of any special election approving the tax in the county. Upon receipt of these documents, the Secretary of Revenue must administer the tax in the county as provided in this Article.

(b) Credits. – No credits are allowed against a tax imposed by this Article.

(c) Distribution. – The Secretary of Revenue must quarterly allocate to each county the net proceeds of the tax it levies under this Article. As used in this section, net proceeds means gross proceeds less refunds, less the cost to the State of collecting and administering the tax, and less any other deductions that may be properly charged to the county.

The Secretary must then divide and distribute the net proceeds between the county and the cities in the county in the same manner as the tax proceeds distributed under G.S. 105-472. No municipality may receive any funds under this section for a month if it is not entitled to a distribution under G.S. 105-501 for the same month.

(d) Administration and Penalties. – The provisions of Article 9 of this Chapter apply to a tax levied under this Article.

(e) Repeal or Reduction. – A tax levied under this Article may be repealed or reduced by a resolution adopted by the board of county commissioners. If the resolution is adopted before September 1, the repeal becomes effective for taxable years beginning on or after the following January 1. If the resolution is adopted on or after September 1, the repeal becomes effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1 of the second calendar year following adoption of the resolution. Repeal or reduction of a local income tax does not affect a liability for a tax that was attached before the effective date of the repeal or reduction, nor does it affect a right to a refund of a tax that accrued before the effective date of the repeal or reduction."

PART III. INCOME TAX CHANGES

SECTION 5.(a) G.S. 105-130.3 reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-130.3. ~~Corporations.~~Corporate income tax imposed.

A tax is imposed on the State net income of every C Corporation doing business in this ~~State.~~State at the rate of seven and seventy-five one-hundredths percent (7.75%) of the taxpayer's State net income. SECTION 6.(c). Subsection (b) of this section is effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002, and expires for taxable years that begin on or after January 1, 2005. The remainder of this section is effective when it becomes law.

SECTION 7.(a) G.S. 105-130.5(a) is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(2a) That portion of a financial institution's interest expense that is allocable to interest income exempt from taxation under this Part. The allocable portion of the interest expense is the portion for which deduction would be disallowed pursuant to section 265(b) of the Code if the interest were earned on a tax-exempt obligation as defined in section 265(b) of the Code."

SECTION 7.(b) This section is effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002, and expires for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2005.

SECTION 8.(a) G.S. 105-130.45 is repealed.

SECTION 8.(b) This section is effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002.

SECTION 9. Notwithstanding G.S. 105-163.15 and G.S. 105-163.41, no addition to tax may be made under those statutes for a taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 2002, and before January 1, 2003, with respect to an underpayment of income tax to the extent the underpayment was created or increased by this Part.

PART IV. EFFECTIVE DATES

SECTION 10. Except as otherwise provided in this act, this act is effective when it becomes law.

HOUSE BILL 99 (PCS):
Local Tax Menu & Other Tax Changes

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	House Finance	Sponsor:	Rep. Michaux
Date:	July 23, 2002	Analysis by:	Finance Team
Version:	Draft

SUMMARY:This bill provides for an accelerated sales tax swap, a menu of local revenue options, income tax rate increases for corporations and upper-income individuals, and repeal of special tax breaks for banks and cigarette manufacturers.

Part I of the bill accelerates and modifies the 2001 legislation establishing a sales tax swap, as follows:

- Accelerates the effective date of the local option sales tax from July 1, 2003, to October 1, 2002.
- Increases the maximum rate of tax that may be levied under the new local option law from ½% to 2%
- Accelerates the repeal of the tax reimbursements, from July 1, 2003, to July 1, 2002.
- Repeals the hold harmless provision that would have gone into effect in 2003-2004.
- Accelerates the sunset of the State's extra ½% sales tax from July 1, 2003, to October 1, 2002.

Part II of the bill gives counties the following additional local option revenue sources; if the tax is levied, the proceeds must be shared with municipalities in the same manner as local sales taxes under current law:

- A local option meals tax of up to 2%
- A local option occupancy tax of up to 2%
- A local option income tax on residents of the county, up to a maximum surtax of 5% of each individual's State income tax liability.

Part III of the bill makes the following income tax changes, effective beginning with the 2002 tax year. The bill waives any penalty for estimated tax underpayments as a result of these changes.

- Temporarily increases the corporate income tax from 6.9% to the rate that was in effect from 1991 through 1996: 7.75%
- Temporarily increases by 1% the income tax rate on individuals in the top two tax brackets, and extends the sunset of the top bracket by one year.
- Temporarily eliminates the so-called "bank tax loophole", which allows a bank to deduct interest expenses on tax-exempt income.
- Accelerates the repeals of the income tax credit for manufacturing cigarettes for exportation, from 2005 to 2002.

Local and State Sales Tax Changes.

The proposed committee substitute for House Bill 99 accelerates many of the provisions enacted last session and modifies others. The 2001 legislation authorized counties to levy additional local sales taxes of ½%, effective July 1, 2003. Under this bill, the rate that counties may levy is up to 2% and the tax may become effective as early as October 1, 2002. The tax rate may be in increments no smaller than ½%. The 2001 legislation imposed an additional State ½% sales tax that was set to expire July 1, 2003. The bill would sunset this State tax October 1, 2002. To accomplish the sales tax acceleration, the bill provides for the following:

- It would allow the counties to enact the tax with only 48 hours' notice of the public meeting at which the county commissioners would adopt the resolution.
- It would allow the counties to enact the tax in 2002 with a shortened notice to the Department of Revenue.
- It would allow counties and cities to amend their budget ordinances after July 1st to reduce their property tax levy to account for unanticipated revenues.
- It would authorize the Department of Revenue to withhold up to $275,000 for 2002-2003 to cover its excess nonrecurring costs for implementing the new sales tax on short notice.
- It would exempt the Department of Revenue from the public contract bidding requirements for the procurement of supplies, materials, equipment, and contractual services related to the provision of notice and the development of computer software necessitated by the expedited provisions of the bill.

Like the existing State sales tax, the new local sales tax would not apply to food.[1] Unlike the tax authorized last year, this local sales tax could be enacted with only 48 hours (rather than 10 days) of public notice if the tax becomes effective on or before January 1, 2003. A county may choose to submit the question to the voters in a special election held after 30 days' public notice. If a county chooses to submit the question to the voters and the voters reject the tax levy, the county may not enact the tax for at least two years.

Under general law, a county must give the Secretary of Revenue at least 90 days advance notice of a new tax levy or tax rate change; and a new tax levy or a tax rate change may become effective only on January 1 or July 1. This bill provides for an expedited levy. If the county enacts the tax in 2002, the tax may become effective on the first day of October, November, or December 2002, as well as January 2003. For the tax to become effective October 1, 2002, a county must notify the Secretary of Revenue of the tax's imposition by August 15, 2002. If the tax is to become effective on November 1 or December 1, 2002 or January 1, 2003, the county must give the Secretary 30 days advance notice of the tax levy. Thereafter, the current law requirements of 90 days notice and a January 1 or July 1 effective date are reinstated.

[1] The current two-cent local sales tax applies to food.

The net proceeds of the tax would be allocated among the counties as provided in the legislation enacted last year: one-half would be allocated on a point-of-origin basis and one-half would be allocated on a per capita basis.[2] Each county's allocation would then be divided between the county and the municipalities in the county using the same formula by which the existing local sales taxes are divided in that county.[3] As with the existing local sales taxes, the State's costs of collecting and administering the new tax come from the local tax proceeds.

Local Government Reimbursements.

In 2001, the General Assembly repealed all of the State's reimbursement payments to local governments, effective beginning with the 2003-2004 fiscal year. This bill would accelerate the repeal, effective July 1, 2002. The 2001 legislation would have provided local governments "hold harmless" payments beginning in 2003-2004 if the amount they could potentially realize from the levy of the half-cent sales tax was less than the amount they would lose from the reimbursements. This bill repeals the hold harmless provision.

State reimbursements are amounts distributed to local units to compensate them for revenue lost as a result of the removal by the General Assembly of property from the local sales and use tax base, the local property tax base, or the intangibles tax base. State reimbursements consist of reimbursements for the repeal of the property tax on inventories and on poultry and livestock, the repeal of the intangibles tax, the "homestead exclusion" from property tax, and the repeal of local sales and use taxes on food purchased with food stamps.

This bill does not repeal or reduce the distribution of local government tax-sharing revenues: excise tax on beer and wine, franchise tax on electricity, gross receipts tax on piped natural gas, sales tax on telecommunications service, and the Powell bill revenues.

Local Option Revenue Sources.

Part II of House Bill 99 gives counties a menu of three additional local revenue sources, a meals tax, an occupancy tax, and an income tax. In each case, the tax levied by the county is allocated to that county and is then shared between the county and the city in the same way

---

[2] Per capita distribution of a local tax probably violates the law of the land clause of the North Carolina Constitution, the uniformity requirements of the North Carolina Constitution, or both. The law of the land clause, which is equivalent to the due process clause of the federal constitution, prohibits the levying of a tax on one tax district for the benefit of another tax district. A local option sales tax with per capita distribution is such a tax: it is a county tax, levied by the board of county commissioners, on transactions within the county. The tax proceeds belong to the county; the constitution does not permit the county or the State to use these tax proceeds except for the benefit of the county. Distributing the county's tax proceeds throughout the State based on population violates the due process rights of the county's taxpayers. If the Statewide local option sales tax Article is viewed as a State tax for the benefit of all counties that choose to participate, it violates the uniformity requirement of Section 2 of Article V of the North Carolina Constitution, as interpreted by the North Carolina Supreme Court.

[3] The sales tax revenues are distributed between a county and its municipalities on either a per capita basis or an ad valorem basis. The county decides which distribution method it will use. The method may be changed each year.

that local sales taxes are shared under current law. There are no restrictions on the purposes for which local governments could use the proceeds of any of these taxes.

Section 2 authorizes counties to levy a local meals tax of up to 2%, in addition to any existing meals tax.[4] The tax rate may be in increments no smaller than ½%. The county may levy the tax after 10 days' notice and a public hearing, or the county may choose to submit the question for voter approval in a referendum. The tax would be collected by the county. The tax applies to the same prepared food and beverages that are currently taxable under existing local meals taxes.

The tax would not apply to any of the following:

- Prepared food served to residents in boarding houses and sold together on a periodic basis with the rental of a sleeping room or lodging.
- Sales exempt from the State sales tax.
- Sales made through vending machines.
- Prepared food subject to the occupancy tax because it is included in a single, non-itemized sales price for the rental of a room.
- Prepared food furnished without charge by an employer to an employee.
- Sales by grocers, other than sales of prepared food.

A nonprofit or governmental entity entitled to a refund of State sales tax on prepared food would also be entitled to a refund of the local meals tax.

Section 3 authorizes counties to levy a local occupancy tax of up to 2%, in addition to any existing local occupancy tax. The tax rate may be in increments no smaller than ½%. The county may levy the tax after 10 days' notice and a public hearing, or the county may choose to submit the question for voter approval in a referendum. The tax would be collected by the county. The tax would be administered in the same manner as existing county occupancy taxes. The uniform provisions for administering county occupancy taxes are set out in G.S. 153A-155.

Section 4 authorizes counties to levy a local income tax on residents of the county. The tax would be a surtax measured as a percentage of the amount of State income tax the individual owes, before any credits are subtracted. The maximum rate is 5% of State liability. The county may levy the tax after 10 days' notice and a public hearing, or the county may choose to submit the question for voter approval in a referendum. The tax would be collected by the Department of Revenue. The county must levy the tax by September 1 in order for it to become effective for tax years that begin the following January.

---

[4] Four counties and one town are currently collecting a meals tax. They are Cumberland County (S.L. 93-413), Dare County (S.L. 91-177), Mecklenburg County (S.L. 89-821 and S.L. 89-922), Wake County (S.L. 91-954 and S.L. 95-458), and the Town of Hillsborough (S.L. 93-449 and S.L. 99-304).

Temporary Increase in Corporate Income Tax Rate.

Part III of House Bill 99 increases the corporate income tax rate from 6.9% to 7.75%, effective beginning with the 2002 tax year. This rate increase would sunset beginning with the 2005 tax year. 7.75% was the rate in effect during the 1991 through 1996 tax years.

Until 1987, North Carolina's corporate income tax rate was 6% of a corporation's State net income. In 1987, as part of a tax package that included repeal of the property tax on inventories, the corporate income tax was increased to 7%. One-half of the additional 1% was dedicated to public school capital needs. In 1991, as part of a legislative package that cut spending and raised revenues to make up a $1.2 billion shortfall, the corporate income tax rate was increased to 7.75% and a 4% surtax was enacted. The surtax was phased out over four years and expired January 1, 1995.

Effective beginning with the 1997 tax year, the General Assembly phased down the corporate income tax rate from 7.75% to 6.9% over a four-year period. The rate has been 6.9% since the 2000 tax year.

Temporary Increase in Individual Income Tax Rate for Upper-income Individuals.

Part III of House Bill 99 increases by 1% the individual income tax rate that applies to the top two income brackets, effective beginning with the 2002 tax year. It also extends from 2004 to 2005 the sunset of the top income bracket. These changes would sunset in 2005.

Until 1991, North Carolina's highest marginal income tax rate for individuals was 7%. This rate applied to North Carolina taxable income above $21,250. Effective beginning with the 1991 tax year, as part of a legislative package that cut spending and raised revenues to make up a $1.2 billion shortfall, the General Assembly added a third tax rate bracket of 7.75% for individuals with North Carolina taxable income above $100,000 (joint) or $60,000 (single). In 2001, the General Assembly added a fourth tax bracket with a marginal tax rate of 8.25% on North Carolina taxable income above $200,000 (joint) or $120,000 (single). It was estimated that roughly 2% of North Carolina taxpayers are in the fourth bracket. The fourth tax bracket was set to expire in 2004.

This bill would extend the sunset of the fourth tax bracket from 2004 until 2005. In addition, it would increase the marginal rate of the fourth tax bracket from 8.25% to 9.25% and the third tax bracket from 7.75% to 8.75%.

As of the end of the 1999 tax year, 43 states imposed a tax on individual income. Up to ten states had a marginal rate of tax that equals or exceeds 8.5%.[5] None of these states are located in the Southeast. The highest marginal tax rates on individual income in the four states that border North Carolina ranged from 5.75% to 7% in 1999.

[5] California (9.3%), the District of Columbia (9.5%), Hawaii (8.75%), Iowa (8.98%), Maine (8.5%), and Montana (11%) all had marginal rates that equaled or exceeded 8.5%. Massachusetts had three flat rates of taxation that are applied to different sources of income. One of these rates is 12%. North Dakota had a marginal rate of 12%, though most taxpayers use an alternate calculation based on federal tax liability (14% of federal tax liability). Finally, Rhode Island and Vermont had an income tax calculated as a percentage of federal tax liability (26.5% for RI and 25% for VT). In 1999, the highest federal marginal tax rate was 39.6%.

Temporary Repeal of "Bank Tax Loophole".

Part III of House Bill 99 would reverse a corporate income tax interpretation allowing corporations engaged in the banking business to deduct interest expenses incurred in producing tax-exempt interest income[6]. Generally, other corporations are not allowed to deduct expenses incurred in producing tax-exempt income.

The North Carolina Corporation Income Tax Act provides in G.S. 105-130.5(a)(2) that interest paid in connection with tax-exempt income is not deductible. The statute makes no specific reference to financial institutions; however, in 1987, the Attorney General's Office issued an opinion interpreting the statute as not applying to corporations engaged in the banking business. Under this interpretation, banks and similar financial institutions are not required to include in taxable income interest expenses paid in connection with State tax-exempt income. One example of these expenses would be interest paid on deposits used to acquire federal obligations, the interest on which is exempt from State income tax.

Federal law formerly allowed the same special treatment to corporations engaged in the banking business but, since 1986, the federal deduction has been disallowed, with an exception for interest expenses in connection with tax-exempt obligations of "small issuers."[7] This bill would adopt the federal approach to deduction of interest expenses by corporations engaged in the banking business. Banking corporations would be required to allocate interest expenses between taxable and tax-exempt income based on a formula. Except as provided in the case of small issuers, those interest expenses allocable to exempt income would be includable in State net income; those interest expenses allocable to taxable income would be deductible.

Accelerate Repeal of Income Tax Credit for Cigarette Manufacturers.

Part III of House Bill 99 accelerates from 2005 until 2002 the sunset of the corporate income tax credit for manufacturing cigarettes for exportation. Effective beginning with the 1999 tax year, the General Assembly enacted a corporate income tax credit for manufacturers who produce cigarettes for exportation to a foreign country. The amount of the credit varies depending upon the amount of cigarettes exported in the tax year compared to the amount [6] This issue has been raised numerous times over the past seven years. Representative John Gamble introduced a similar proposal in 1995 as House Bill 171. House Bill 171 was reported unfavorably on May 17, 1995, by the House Committee on Financial Institutions. Representative Gamble introduced the proposal in 1997 as House Bill 325, which was referred to the Commerce Committee and postponed indefinitely on October 29, 1998. Representative George Miller introduced the proposal in 1999 as House Bill 1477. This bill was referred to Finance but no action was taken on it.

exported in 1998. The credit is set to expire in 2005. This bill would repeal the credit effective with the 2002 tax year.

The credit is a dollar amount per cigarette exported for those manufacturers who export at least 50% as many cigarettes in the taxable year as they did in calendar year 1998. The dollar amount ranges from forty cents to twenty cents per 1,000 cigarettes exported. The credit is capped at the lesser of $6 million per year or 50% of the manufacturer's corporate tax liability for any given year.[8]

[8] Prior to enactment of the act by the General Assembly in the 1999 Session, the issue was raised as to whether or not this tax credit violates GATT, one of the international trade agreements. The General Assembly staff was of the opinion that the tax credit violates GATT, while counsel for one of the four tobacco manufacturers disagreed. It is clear, however, that any challenge to the credit must come from a foreign government. If a foreign government challenges the credit, then the U.S. Justice Department may sue North Carolina. If the Department wins, then federal statute provides that relief is prospective only and persons who have already used the credit cannot be required to repay it. Private citizens have no cause of action on the issue.

PRINCIPAL DEPARTMENT(S) & PROGRAM(S) AFFECTED: North Carolina Department of Revenue and Local Governments.

EFFECTIVE DATE: Section 1.1 – 1.4 and (sales tax swap) becomes effective October 1, 2002. Section 1.8 (reimbursements) becomes effective July 1, 2002. Sections 6(b) and 7(a) are effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2001, and expire for taxable years that begin on or after January 1, 2005. The remainder of the bill is effective when law.

BILL SUMMARY: Part 1 of the bill authorizes local county commissioners to levy up to an additional 2-cent local sales tax, effective October 1, 2002. This tax would not apply to food. The resulting revenues from the new taxes would be distributed in the same manner as the current sales tax revenues, with ½ distributed on a point of origin basis and ½ on a per capita basis. It also makes conforming changes to the language to be used on the ballot, should county commissioners choose to place the local sales tax change before the public for a vote. This provision also limits the public notice requirement for the tax change to 48 hours. This same part of the bill repeals the local government reimbursements. This part of the bill also authorizes local governments to amend their budget ordinances to reduce the property tax levy if they receive additional and unanticipated revenues. The legislation shortens the notice counties must give to the Department of Revenue concerning their tax change, and gives that department authority to use up to $275,000 of the proceeds of the tax to fund implementation of the new tax. The bill exempts Department of Revenue from standard contract and bid requirements, but only as it relates to items needed to administer the additional local option sales tax. Finally, the bill revises the formula used to divide use tax proceeds between local governments and the state.

Part 2 of the bill authorizes all counties to levy three new taxes. Section 2 authorizes all counties to levy up to an additional 2% local prepared meals tax. This tax will be collected by the county, with the proceeds shared with associated municipalities in the same manner as local sales taxes (ad valorum or per capita distribution). The county commissioners are authorized to offer a referendum, with specific ballot language included. There are no restrictions on the use of the funds. This tax is in addition to any other prepared meals taxes currently in place. Section 3 of the bill authorizes all 100 counties to levy a room occupancy tax of up to an additional 2%. This tax will also be collected by the county, with the proceeds shared with its associated municipalities in the same manner as local sales tax revenues. County officials may place this issue on the ballot, although it is not required. The use of the proceeds of the tax is not restricted. Section 4 of the bill creates a local government income tax that may not exceed 5% of the amount of state income tax imposed on a taxpayer before the subtraction of any credits. A county will impose the local income tax by referendum or by resolution. If approved by September 1, it would become effective for the taxable year beginning the next January 1. The Department of Revenue allocates the tax to the counties quarterly and then distributes the tax proceeds to counties and cities on the same basis as local sales tax.

Part 3 makes three changes to state income tax laws. Section 5 increases the corporate income tax from the current rate of 6.9% to 7.75%, effective for tax years 2002-2004. Section 6 temporarily increases the top two individual income tax brackets from 7.75% and 8.25% to 8.75% and 9.25%. Section 7 temporarily prohibits a bank from deducting interest expenses incurred in producing tax-exempt interest income. Section 8 moves the sunset on the cigarette manufacturing export tax credit from tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2005 to January 1, 2002.

ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGY:

Part 1: Local Sales Tax Swap

There are effectively three items in this part of the bill: repeal of the local government reimbursements; authorization for local units to levy additional sales taxes; and a repeal of the state's most recently enacted 1/2 cent.

Reimbursements: Since 1979, the General Assembly has made several changes to tax law that impact local governments. The state's cities and counties have received reimbursements from the state for some of these losses, particularly as they relate to the sales and property tax bases. The state reimburses local governments for property tax losses related to the repeal of taxes on inventories and intangibles, as well as some of the losses associated with the homestead exemption. Locals also receive a reimbursement for sales taxes that are no longer paid on items purchased with food stamps.

According to the Department of Revenue's Tax Research Division, annual reimbursements are as follows:

Reimbursement	Amount (Millions)
Food Stamps	$6.4
Intangibles	$128.7
Homestead	$8.2
Retail & Wholesale Inventory	$82.0
Manufacturers Inventory	$108.1
TOTAL	$333.4

The bill repeals all of these reimbursements. Because these reimbursements are repealed under current law in July 2003, only one year of reimbursements are shown in the fiscal impact box. This amount is shown as a loss for local governments and a gain for the state.

Additional Local Sales Taxes: Fiscal Research believes that in FY 2001-02, each penny of local sales tax generated $716.8 million in revenue. (This estimate does not include food.) Using a growth rate of 1.2% suggests the following non-food, sales tax revenue stream for FY 2002-03:

millions

Fiscal Year	Revenue from 1 Cent	Revenue from 1/2 Cent
2002-03	$725	$1,451

Once adjustments are made for the October effective date, the total estimated statewide potential revenue available to local governments from this additional two cents is approximately $994.4 million. However, since the language is permissive and counties can decide to enact the tax at any time, or at any 1/2-cent increment between 0 and 2%, no exact fiscal estimate is possible on this portion of the bill.

Fiscal Year	2 Cents Additional
2003-04	1,521,892,557
2004-05	1,599,509,077
2005-06	1,673,086,495
2006-07	1,750,048,474
2007-08	1,830,550,703

The out year estimates assume sales tax growth between 4.6% and 5.1%. These estimates are based on historic data and projections provided by Economy.com.

Repeal State ½ Cent Sales Tax: As was noted earlier, Fiscal Research believes that in FY 2001-02, each penny of local sales tax generated $716.8 million in revenue. (This estimate does not include food). Using a growth rate of 1.2% suggests the following non-food, sales tax revenue stream for FY 2002-03:

Millions

Fiscal Year	Revenue from 1/2 Cent	Revenue from 1 Cent
2002-03	$ 362.7	$725.4

Under current law, the state is scheduled to repeal the most recent ½ cent of state sales tax, effective July 1, 2003. This bill moves that repeal date forward to October 1, 2002, effectively removing nine (9) months of revenue from the state. Once adjustments are made for the October 1 date, the bill would cost the state approximately $248.6 million in sales tax revenue. Because that tax is scheduled for repeal in 2003-04, the fiscal impact is only shown in 2002-03.

Use Tax Revision: Section 1.5 modifies the distribution of the local portion of use taxes collected on the individual income tax form. North Carolina consumers have been liable for use tax payments on all purchases on which sales tax are not collected since 1939. The use tax is imposed at the same rate as the sales tax and is designed to capture the revenue lost through sales by retailers that do not collect North Carolina sales tax. Unlike the retail sales tax that is collected by the merchant, the consumer pays the use tax directly to the state. From a practical standpoint, the use tax generally applies to traditional out of state purchases for consumption in North Carolina, or those sales made through a catalog or mail order company. The 1999 General Assembly approved HB 1433 to simplify use tax collection by providing that the use tax will be paid on the taxpayer's income tax return. That legislation also indicated that the state should forward one-third of the proceeds collected on this line to the state's counties and cities in proportion to their total local sales tax payments. At that time, the combined state rate was 6%, with 2% or one-third of that amount being local sales taxes. Since that time, the combined state rate has increased to 6.5% and could go to 7.0% under the provisions of this bill. As a result, one-third is no longer the appropriate proportion to forward to local governments.

The Department of Revenue reports collecting approximately $4.5 million in use taxes off of the individual income tax returns for calendar year 2001. The distribution formula in existing law, the standard sales tax growth rates, and an adjustment factor for a higher sales tax rate, are used to compute the following revenue stream:

	FY 2001-02	FY 2002-03	FY 2003-04	FY 2004-05	FY 2005-06	FY 2006-07
State	$3,000,000	$3,187,800	$3,176,802	$3,510,684	$3,672,175	$3,841,096
Local	$1,500,000	$1,593,900	$1,588,401		$1,836,088	$1,920,548
TOTAL	$4,500,000	$4,781,700	$4,765,203	$5,266,026	$5,508,263	$5,761,643

The bill requires that the proportion of the tax paid to local units reflect what proportion of the general rate is actually local tax. Therefore, under the current rate structure, local units should receive 30.8% of the revenue (2.0% is 30.8% of a 6.5% tax). If the new rate in this bill is used, locals should receive 35.7% of the funds (2.5% is 35.7% of a 7.0% rate). When the state's extra ½ cent is repealed in July 2003 the locals should begin receiving 38.5% of the revenue (2.5% is 38.5% of a 6.5% rate). Using these ratios suggests the following new revenue streams:

	FY 2001-02	FY 2002-03	FY 2003-04	FY 2004-05	FY 2005-06	FY 2006-07
State	$3,000,000	$3,191,785	$2,997,313	$3,238,606	$3,387,582	$3,543,411
Local	$1,500,000	$1,589,915	$1,767,890	$2,027,420	$2,120,681	$2,218,233
TOTAL	$4,500,000	$4,781,700	$4,765,203	$5,266,026	$5,508,263	$5,761,643

Note: Because individual income tax returns reflect purchases made during a calendar year, and all sales tax rate changes become effective in July, the average of the two fiscal year's proportions are used to determine the division of state and local revenue.

The projected potential revenue changes as a result of this bill are as follows:

	FY 2002-03	FY 2003-04	FY 2004-05	FY 2005-06	FY 2006-07
State	$3,985	($179,489)	($272,078)	($284,594)	($297,685)
Local	($3,985)	$179,489	$272,078	$284,594	$297,685

However, because the provision that allows this item to remain on the individual income tax return expires with tax year 2002, the only impact seen as the result of this bill is the first fiscal year.

Part 2: Local Option Revenue Sources

This part of the bill allows county commissioners to levy three (3) additional local taxes – an additional 2% meals tax, an additional 2% room occupancy tax, and a local income tax of up to 5%.

Meals Tax: The latest statewide data for prepared food and beverage sales is found in the Department of Revenue's FY 2000-01 State Sales and Use Tax Statistics. The gross retail sales for category 306 (restaurants, cafeterias, grills, snack bars, etc.) and category 308 (taverns, nightclubs, etc.) totals $8,453,055,971. To estimate the food and beverage sales in current fiscal year 2002-03 and future years, the National Restaurant Association recommends an industry growth rate of 6.9% a year. The chart below shows the annual impact of a 2% meals tax if imposed by all counties in the state. For example, the meals tax in all counties in FY 2003-04 will generate approximately $205.4 million.

FY	Statewide Food & Beverage Sales	2% Meals Tax
00-01	$8,453,055,971	$169,061,119
01-02	$9,019,410,721	$180,388,214
02-03	$9,623,711,239	$192,474,225
03-04	$10,268,499,892	$205,369,998
04-05	$10,956,489,385	$219,129,788
05-06	$11,690,574,174	$233,811,483
06-07	$12,473,842,644	$249,476,853

However, because the legislation is permissive, and the tax increase can vary between 0% and 2%, no exact fiscal estimate is possible on this portion of the bill.

Occupancy Tax: In 1999-00 sixty-five (65) counties levied a room occupancy tax, with rates varying between 1% and 6%. Examining the revenues from these localities suggested that each 1% room tax raised $17,952,238. These numbers, adjusted by growth rates to be discussed below, were used as the basis for the estimates in 65 counties. For the remaining thirty-five counties, Fiscal Research examined county-by-county 1997 economic census data for sales in the category of "accommodation". A 1% tax rate was then applied to the gross sales numbers provided by the census, and growth rates were applied. This suggested potential revenue on a 1997 base of $1,414,060.

A 4% annual growth rate in hotel/motel sales from the U.S. Census Bureau is used to inflate the 1997 census data to the 1999-00 baseline. All figures were then grown forward one year by that same 4% rate. In 2000-01 through 2002-03, a lower growth rate of 2% is used because of the recent economic slowdown. Four percent (4%) growth is anticipated in the following years. Actual growth will vary by location, year, and construction plans.

Using this methodology, Fiscal Research estimates the following potential revenue stream:

Fiscal Year	1% Revenue	2% Revenue
2002-03	21,112,593	42,225,185
2003-04	21,957,096	43,914,193
2004-05	22,835,380	45,670,760
2005-06	23,748,795	47,497,591
2006-07	24,698,747	49,397,494

However, because the language is permissive, and the new tax rate can vary between 0 and 2%, no exact fiscal estimate is possible on this portion of the bill.

Income Tax: Tax year 2003 is the first year a local income tax can be imposed. The Fiscal Research Division General Fund Revenue Forecast estimates that individual income tax collections will be $7.38 billion in 2003. Since the local income tax is applied only to state residents and is imposed on the state tax due before credits are subtracted, this collection estimate must be adjusted for these two factors. The Individual Income Tax Model created by the Barents Group for the Fiscal Research Division and the Department of Revenue's Tax Research Division, projects that $226 million of the tax collection estimate for 2003 is from out of state filers. The model also estimates that state residents will take $311 million in state tax credits in 2003. After subtracting the out of state filers and adding back the credits, the base for local income tax in 2003 is $7.46 billion. If all 100 counties impose the maximum local income tax, the revenue generated in tax year 2003 and collected in FY 2003-04 will be $373 million. The chart below shows the maximum tax that will be generated over fiscal years 2003-04 through 2006-07.

			(Million) Individual
	Income Tax		Out of State	Local Income	If 5% tax
	Collection	Tax Credits	Filers	Tax Base	Imposed
TY 2003	$7,375.6	$311.0	$226.0	$7,460.6	$373.03
TY 2004	$8,091.0	$315.9	$246.6	$8,160.3	$408.02
TY 2005	$8,850.6	$320.4	$266.5	$8,904.5	$445.23
TY 2006	$9,365.5	$325.2	$287.8	$9,402.9	$470.14

However, because the legislation is permissive, and the tax rate can vary between 0% and 5%, no exact fiscal estimate is possible on this portion of the bill.

NOTE: Because the combined impact of these provisions could be substantial, some change in purchasing decisions may result.

Part 3: Income Tax Changes

Part 3 makes several changes to state income tax laws and rates.

Corporate Income Tax Imposed: This estimate is tied to the corporate income tax forecast built into the overall General Fund revenue estimate for 2002-03 and future years. The starting point for that estimate is the July, 2002 projection of U. S. pretax corporate profits made by Economy.Com, the forecasting unit contracted with by Fiscal Research (FRD). The calendar year growth rates in this forecast are applied to an FRD estimate of 2001 tax year North Carolina taxable income. The FRD estimate was based on a model that allocates monthly corporate income tax collection and refund data to the respective tax year, assuming that all taxpayers have the same fiscal year as the calendar year. (Note: The Department of Revenue does not have corporate income tax data broken down between fiscal year corporations and calendar year taxpayers.) Finally, the estimated was adjusted downward by 10% to account for the fact the collections based liability estimate includes some receipts that represent late payments from prior tax years.

The calendar year estimates are converted to the state fiscal year by assuming that 90% of the annual tax liability is extinguished through quarterly estimated tax payments made during the tax year and the remainder through final payments due with the annual return in March. For the 2002 tax year there is a forgiveness of estimated tax payments. This means that for the 2002-03 fiscal year the state will receive the full amount of the 2002 tax year (in March 2003) and 45% of the 2003 tax year (in April and June 2003).

Increase Tax Rate on Top Tax Brackets: Until tax year 2004, the individual income tax rates are 6%, 7%, 7.75% and 8.25% as shown below. The 8.25% tax bracket is repealed beginning in tax year 2004.

Filing status		Taxable income is more than	But not over
Single	6%	$0	$12,750
	7%	$12,750	$60,000
	7.75%	$60,000	$120,000
	8.25%	$120,000
Head of Household	6%	$0	$17,000
	7%	$17,000	$80,000
	7.75%	$80,000	$160,000
	8.25%	$160,000
Married Filing Jointly or Qualifying Widow(er)	6%	$0	$21,250
	7%	$21,250	$100,000
	7.75%	$100,000	$200,000
	8.25%	$200,000
Married Filing Separately	6%	$0	$10,625
	7%	$10,625	$50,000
	7.75%	$50,000	$100,000
	8.25%	$100,000

Section 6 of the bill increases the tax rate on the top two tax brackets for tax years 2002, 2003, and 2004. The current 7.75% bracket in each filing status category is increased to 8.75% and the current 8.25% bracket is increased to 9.25%.

In tax year 2002, this tax increase will impact 11,982 single filers, 50,574 married couples, and 1,496 heads of households. The revenue estimates for the new tax brackets were calculated using the North Carolina Individual Income Tax Model. The model was updated by the Barents Group in 2002 with economic forecasts from Economy.com. The projected revenue gain for the temporary tax increase is shown below.

FY 2002-03	$347.7 mil.
FY 2003-04	$318.8 mil.
FY 2004-05	$213.1 mil.

First year revenues equal all of Tax Year 2002 for returns filed in spring 2003 and 45% of Tax Year 2003 because of withholding and two quarterly estimated payments. High-income taxpayers avoid a penalty if estimated payments during the tax year equal at least 90% of actual liability. In FY 2003-04, taxpayers will pay the remaining 55% of the tax due in tax year 2003 and again pay 45% in estimated payments for tax year 2004. FY 2004-05 is equal to the remaining 55% of tax year 2004.

Repeal Bank Tax Deduction: Analysis of the bank tax deduction in 2001 indicated that the revenue gain to the state from closing the "loophole" would be between $85 – 114 million annually. This estimate is derived using data contained in the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) Consolidated Reports of Income for the eight largest North Carolina banks. The data in the Consolidated Reports of Income do not reflect the banks' deductions for North Carolina state income tax purposes, but rather the national deductions for North Carolina banks. Data for smaller banks were not collected, as the majority of these banks are considered small issuers with less than $10 million in federal obligations. The annual deductions attributable to the "loophole" were collected for the eight nationally franchised North Carolina banks for years 1997, 1998, 1999, and the first two quarters of 2000. A time series analysis was used to estimate the total national deduction for the year 2000.

To estimate the state tax deduction, the ratio of assets held in North Carolina to those held nationally was established. The ratio of state deposits to total national deposits reflected a similar ratio. This ratio was then used to adjust the total national deduction amount to estimate a state deduction amount. The state deduction was then multiplied by the North Carolina corporate income tax rate to estimate the $84 – 114 million total exemption for the state. The low estimate in this range reflects the deduction taken in 1997, while the $114 million estimate reflects the larger deduction amount estimated for 2000. For this fiscal memo, the lower $85 million estimate is assumed each year.

Repeal Cigarette Export Credit: Currently this credit is capped at $12.0 million annually. However, the Department of Revenue has indicated that actual usage of the credit for the 2000 tax year was $6.7 million. No newer numbers from actual returns are available. However, discussions with industry representatives and the Department of Commerce indicate that a 2002-03 estimate of $9.0 million and an out year estimate of $8.0 million is appropriate.

House Bill 99 (PCS) Local Tax Menu and Other Tax Changes

Part I - Local Sales Tax Swap

1. State sales tax reduced 1/2% effective October 1, 2002
2. Counties may levy up to 2% local sales tax

Representative C. Wilson

moves to amend the bill on page 1 line 3, by adding the phrase "SUBJECT TO APPROVAL BY THE VOTERS," after the phrase "TAXES"; and on page 1, line 26, through page 2, line 13, by rewriting the lines to read:

"(a) ~~After Vote.~~Authority. – If a majority of those voting in a special election held pursuant to this Article vote for the levy of the taxes in a county, the board of commissioners of a county may, by resolution, levy one—half percent (1/2%) local sales and use taxes in addition to any other State and local sales and use taxes levied pursuant to law.

~~(b) Without Vote. If the question of whether to levy taxes under this Article has not been defeated in a special election held in the county within two years, the board of commissioners of a county may, by resolution, levy one half percent (1/2%) local sales and use taxes in addition to any other State and local sales and use taxes levied pursuant to law. Before adopting a resolution under this subsection, the board of commissioners must give at least 10 days' public notice of its intent to adopt the resolution and must hold a public hearing on the issue of adopting the resolution.~~ " and on page 6, lines 1-10, by rewriting those lines to read:"(a) Authority. – If the majority of those voting in a referendum held pursuant to this Article vote for the levy of the tax, the board of county commissioners may, by resolution, levy a local meals tax up to the rate approved in the referendum, but not more than two percent (2%), in addition to any other State and local sales and use taxes and meals taxes levied pursuant to law. The tax applies to the sales price of prepared food and drink sold within the taxing unit at retail, for consumption on or off the premises, by a retailer within the taxing unit that is subject to sales tax under G.S. 105-164.4(a)(1). A meals tax must become effective on the date specified in the resolution levying the tax. That date must be the first day of a calendar month, however, and may not be earlier than the first day of the second month after the date the resolution is adopted.

(b) Vote. – The board of county commissioners may direct the county board of elections to conduct an advisory referendum on the question of whether to levy a local meals tax in the taxing unit as provided in this Article. The election shall be held on a date jointly agreed upon by the governing body and the board of elections and shall be held in accordance with the procedures of G.S. 163-287."; and on page 8, lines 12 – 21, by rewriting the lines to read:

"(a) Authority. – If the majority of those voting in a referendum held pursuant to this Article vote for the levy of the tax, the board of commissioners of a county may, by resolution, levy a local occupancy tax up to the rate approved in the referendum, but not more than two percent (2%). The tax applies to the gross receipts derived from the rental of any room, lodging, or accommodation furnished by a hotel, motel, inn, tourist camp, or similar place within the taxing unit that is subject to sales tax imposed by the State under G.S. 105-164.4(a)(3). The tax is in addition to any State or local sales tax.

(b) Vote. – The board of commissioners may direct the county board of elections to conduct an advisory referendum on the question of whether to levy a local occupancy tax in the taxing unit as provided in this Article. The election shall be held on a date jointly agreed upon by the governing body and the board of elections and shall be held in accordance with the procedures of G.S. 163-287.";

MINUTES
HOUSE COMMITTEE ON FINANCE

July 24, 2002

The House Committee on Finance met at 8:30 a.m. on Wednesday, July 24, 2002 in Room 544 of the Legislative Office Building. The following members were present: Chairmen Allen, Buchanan, Luebke, and Wainwright; Vice-Chairs Hill and Jarrell; and Representatives Alexander, Blust, Capps, Cox, Decker, Dedmon, Edwards, Gibson, Gray, Hackney, Holliman, Hurley, Johnson, McComas, McCombs, McMahan, Morris, Pope, Rayfield, Starnes, Weiss, Willingham, Wilson, Womble, Baddour, Earle, and Cunningham. Staff persons present included: Richard Bostic, David Crotts, Linda Millsaps, Canaan Huie, Martha Harris, Martha Walston, and Committee Assistants Nancy Brantley, Blinda Edwards, Joyce Harris, and Glenda Jones. The Agenda and Visitor Registration Sheet are incorporated into the minutes as Attachments 1 and 2.

Representative Wainwright called the meeting to order and introduced the Pages, Clark Leonard and Lauren Knish, and Sergeant at Arms, Dusty Rhodes, Walter Spell, Matt Myers, and Bill Freeman. The bill before the committee was S.B. 1292
A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO DELAY THE INCREASE IN THE CHILD TAX CREDIT BY ONE YEAR; TO DELAY THE INCREASE IN THE STANDARD DEDUCTION FOR MARRIED PERSONS BY ONE YEAR; TO UPDATE THE REFERENCE DATE TO THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE USED TO DEFINE AND DETERMINE CERTAIN STATE TAX PROVISIONS; TO CONFORM TO THE FEDERAL ANNUAL EXCLUSION AMOUNT FOR GIFT TAXES; TO DELAY THE EFFECT OF ACCELERATED DEPRECIATION UNDER SECTION 168 OF THE CODE AND SECTION 1400L OF THE CODE; TO DISREGARD THE PHASE-OUT OF THE STATE DEATH TAX CREDIT UNDER THE CODE; TO ALLOW THE SECRETARY OF REVENUE TO RECOUP A PORTION OF THE COSTS OF ADMINISTERING THE UNAUTHORIZED SUBSTANCES TAX FROM LOCAL SALES AND USE TAX DISTRIBUTIONS; TO SET THE INSURANCE REGULATORY FEE AND THE PUBLIC UTILITY REGULATORY FEES; TO PROVIDE THAT LOCAL REVENUES MAY NOT BE WITHHELD OR IMPOUNDED BY THE GOVERNOR; TO CONFORM THE DEFINITION OF BUSINESS INCOME TO FEDERAL STANDARDS; TO PROVIDE THAT IN APPORTIONING CORPORATE INCOME TO THIS STATE FOR INCOME TAX PURPOSES, SALES IN ANOTHER STATE OR COUNTRY WHERE THEY ARE NOT TAXABLE ARE NOT CONSIDERED; TO CLOSE A LOOPHOLE IN THE 2001 LEGISLATION INTENDED TO CLOSE A LOOPHOLE THAT ALLOWS CORPORATIONS TO AVOID FRANCHISE TAX LIABILITY BY TRANSFERRING ASSETS TO A LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY; AND TO ENLARGE THE CLASS OF TAXPAYERS ELIGIBLE FOR AN ENHANCED CREDIT FOR INVESTING IN LOW-INCOME HOUSING IN A COUNTY THAT SUSTAINED SEVERE OR MODERATE DAMAGE FROM A HURRICANE IN 1999. -Representative Buchanan moved for the adoption of the Proposed Committee Substitute (PCS) for discussion by the committee and the motion carried. Representative Wainwright recognized Representatives Luebke and Baddour to explain the bill. The PCS, Bill Analysis, Fiscal Note, and 2002-03 Sales Tax Swap chart are incorporated into the minutes as Attachments 3 through 6.

Representative Luebke stated that the PCS had the loophole bill and a sales tax swap was added to provide some relief for the counties. The changes to the loophole bill involved accelerated depreciation and a change in the language of the throw-out section of the bill. Representative McMahan had offered an amendment to the bill at a previous meeting, and the adopted amendment was included in the PCS that was currently before the committee. Representative Luebke asked Staff Attorney, Canaan Huie, to explain the McMahan amendment.

Mr. Huie explained that the amendment dealt with the add-back of bonus depreciation and could be found on Page 5, Section 3.2(a) and Section 3.2 (b) of the PCS. Under this amendment there is 100% add back in the 2001-2002 years, a 70% add back in 2003, and 0% in 2004. This provision expires September 11, 2004. Beginning in 2005 for five taxable years, the taxpayer would be allowed to take 20% of the amount that had been added back in a previous year.

Representative McMahan stated that the economy needed to be stimulated earlier than what the federal law would allow. The amendment would generate some new money and cost businesses the first year, but would become revenue neutral the second year using the 70% factor, and the third year would be as though the 30% bonus was applied completely. If necessary, the legislature would have an opportunity to revisit the matter the third year.

Representative Womble asked what were the changes to the named loopholes, and what new loopholes were proposed. Mr. Huie explained that on Page 11, Section 9.2 there was a correction to the throw out rules. It now only throws out sales to U.S. Government and sales that occur in a state or a foreign country where the taxpayer is not taxable. "Taxable" refers to whether the state or country of jurisdiction has the authority to levy a tax, whereas as "taxed" refers to whether that state or country of jurisdiction has decided to levy a tax. The only changes to the bill were the correction to the throw out rules, the bonus depreciation, and the addition of the sales tax swap.

Representative Pope stated that he supported the amendment. He commented that this bill raised taxes $38 million dollars for businesses this year. He also pointed out that of the surrounding states, Tennessee was the only state that was imposing this tax. Tennessee had no personal income tax, and they had chosen the 100% add back. He expressed concern that this bill raised taxes for this year on new investments in a time of recession, which hurt jobs. Representative Hackney stated that it was misleading to say it was a new tax when it was not a new tax. Congress gave a large accelerated depreciation benefit and North Carolina was not recognizing that depreciation at one time.

Representative Wilson asked if there were any changes to the fiscal effect of the throw out rule and the business income from the last bill and the PCS. David Crotts of Fiscal Research stated that there was no change. Representative Wilson offered an amendment. Representative Wainwright stated that they would come back to the amendment after the discussion of the sales tax swap. He recognized Representative Baddour to explain the sales tax swap portion of the bill.

Representative Baddour stated that the PCS was a compromise. Because of objections to the 7% sales tax for the counties, some changes were made to the PCS. The County Commissioners and the League of Municipalities approved of the changes in the PCS. The PCS accelerated the 2001 legislation establishing a sales tax swap, as follows:

- Accelerates the effective date of the local option sales tax from July 1, 2003, to January 1, 2003.
- Accelerates the sunset of the State's half-cent sales tax from July 1, 2003, to January 1, 2003.
- Accelerates the repeal of the tax reimbursements, from July 1, 2003, to July 1, 2002.
- Does not accelerate the hold harmless for local governments beginning in the 2003-2004 fiscal year and sunsets the hold harmless provision in 2012.

Representative Baddour stated that Ron Aycock, Executive Director of the North Carolina Association of County Commissioners and S. Ellis Hankins, Executive Director of the North Carolina League of Municipalities, had written letters stating their support of the legislation and asked that the Chair recognize them to speak on the bill. (Please refer to Attachments 7 and 8). Mr. Aycock expressed concern about the impact on the counties. Mr. Hankins stated that this PCS made it harder for the Governor to withhold funds that belonged to the municipalities. Representative McMahan stated that he would support the bill. Representative Capps felt that the state should give the counties all of their money. Representative Pope stated that this was a step in the right direction, and was better than nothing for the counties.

Representative Wainwright recognized Representative Wilson to explain her amendment. The amendment would amend Page 1, Line 4 of the PCS. (Please refer to Attachment 9). Representative Wilson moved for the adoption of the amendment and called for a roll call vote. Representatives Luebke, McMahan, Jarrell, Mr. Ron Aycock, and Mr. Hankins spoke in opposition to the amendment. Representative Blust and Decker stated they would support the amendment. The vote on the amendment was 12 in the affirmative to 21 in the negative. The amendment failed. (Please refer to Roll Call Vote Attachment 10).

Representative Gray sent forth an amendment to amend the bill on page 4, line 35, and moved for its adoption. (Please refer to Attachment 11). The amendment addressed the hold harmless agreement for the counties. The amendment would affect ten counties, Anson, Davie, Durham, Edgecombe, Forsyth, Granville, Hoke, Rockingham, Scotland, and Stokes. These counties would be held harmless from January 1 through June 30 at a cost to the state of $5.47 million. The reimbursement would be for the excess over the repealed reimbursement over three times the estimated tax amount. Some members expressed their concern that not all counties were included in the amendment. Mr. Hankins spoke in opposition to the amendment. The amendment was adopted. Representative Baddour move for a favorable report of the Proposed Committee Substitute as amended. A roll call vote was requested and the Amended Proposed Committee Substitute was approved by a vote of 23 to 10. (Please refer to Attachment 12).

The meeting adjourned at 9:50 a.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Blinda Edwards, Committee Assistant

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO ACCELERATE THE ADDITIONAL LOCAL OPTION SALES TAX, THE REPEAL OF REIMBURSEMENTS, AND THE DECREASE IN THE STATE SALES TAX RATE; TO DELAY THE INCREASE IN THE CHILD TAX CREDIT BY ONE YEAR; TO DELAY THE INCREASE IN THE STANDARD DEDUCTION FOR MARRIED PERSONS BY ONE YEAR; TO UPDATE THE REFERENCE DATE TO THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE USED TO DEFINE AND DETERMINE CERTAIN STATE TAX PROVISIONS; TO CONFORM TO THE FEDERAL ANNUAL EXCLUSION AMOUNT FOR GIFT TAXES; TO DELAY THE EFFECT OF ACCELERATED DEPRECIATION UNDER SECTION 168 OF THE CODE AND SECTION 1400L OF THE CODE; TO DISREGARD THE PHASE-OUT OF THE STATE DEATH TAX CREDIT UNDER THE CODE; TO ALLOW THE SECRETARY OF REVENUE TO RECOUP A PORTION OF THE COSTS OF ADMINISTERING THE UNAUTHORIZED SUBSTANCES TAX FROM LOCAL SALES AND USE TAX DISTRIBUTIONS; TO SET THE INSURANCE REGULATORY FEE AND THE PUBLIC UTILITY REGULATORY FEES; TO PROVIDE THAT LOCAL REVENUES MAY NOT BE WITHHELD OR IMPOUNDED BY THE GOVERNOR; TO CONFORM THE DEFINITION OF BUSINESS INCOME TO FEDERAL STANDARDS; TO PROVIDE THAT IN APPORTIONING CORPORATE INCOME TO THIS STATE FOR INCOME TAX PURPOSES, SALES OF TANGIBLE PERSONAL PROPERTY IN ANOTHER STATE OR COUNTRY WHERE THE SALES ARE NOT TAXABLE ARE NOT CONSIDERED; TO CLOSE A LOOPHOLE IN THE 2001 LEGISLATION INTENDED TO CLOSE A LOOPHOLE THAT ALLOWS CORPORATIONS TO AVOID FRANCHISE TAX LIABILITY BY TRANSFERRING ASSETS TO A LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY; AND TO ENLARGE THE CLASS OF TAXPAYERS ELIGIBLE FOR AN ENHANCED CREDIT FOR INVESTING IN LOW-INCOME HOUSING IN A COUNTY THAT SUSTAINED SEVERE OR MODERATE DAMAGE FROM A HURRICANE IN 1999.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

PART I. ACCELERATE SALES TAX SWAP

SECTION 1.1. G.S. 105-517(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) Effective Date. – A tax levied under this Article may not become effective before ~~July~~ January 1, 2003."

SECTION 1.2. G.S. 105-518(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Ballot Question. – The question to be presented on a ballot for a special election concerning the levy of the taxes authorized by this Article must be in the following form:

[ ] FOR [ ] AGAINST

one-half percent (1/2%) local sales and use taxes, to replace the current one-half percent (1/2%) State sales and use taxes that end ~~July~~ January 1, 2003."

SECTION 1.3. G.S. 105-521(a)(3) reads as rewritten:

"(a) Definitions. – The following definitions apply in this section:

...

(3) Repealed reimbursement amount. – The total amount a local government would have been entitled to receive during the ~~2002-2003~~ 2001-2002 fiscal year under G.S. 105-164.44C, 105-275.1, 105-275.2, 105-277.001, and 105-277.1A, if the Governor had not withheld any distributions under those sections."

SECTION 1.4. G.S. 105-521, as amended by this act, is repealed effective July 1, 2012.

SECTION 1.5. Section 13(g) of S.L. 2001-427 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 13.(g) This section becomes effective ~~July 1, 2003,~~October 1, 2002, and applies to amounts collected on or after that date."

SECTION 1.6. Section 34.13(c) of S.L. 2001-424 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 34.13.(c) This section becomes effective October 16, 2001, and applies to sales made on or after that date. This section is repealed effective for sales made on or after ~~July~~ January 1, 2003. This section does not affect the rights or liabilities of the State, a taxpayer, or another person arising under a statute amended or repealed by this section before the effective date of its amendment or repeal; nor does it affect the right to any refund or credit of a tax that accrued under the amended or repealed statute before the effective date of its amendment or repeal."

SECTION 1.7. Effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002, G.S. 105-269.14(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Distribution. – The Secretary must distribute ~~one-third~~ a portion of the net use tax proceeds collected under this section to counties and ~~cities in proportion to their~~

~~total distributions under Articles 39, 40, and 42 of this Chapter and Chapter 1096 of the 1967 Session Laws for the most recent period for which data is available.~~ cities. The portion to be distributed to all counties and cities is the total net use tax proceeds collected under this section multiplied by a fraction. The numerator of the fraction is the local use tax proceeds collected under this section. The denominator of the fraction is the total use tax proceeds collected under this section. The Secretary must distribute this portion to the counties and cities in proportion to their total distributions under Articles 39, 40, 42, 43, and 44 of this Chapter and Chapter 1096 of the 1967 Session Laws for the most recent period for which data are available. The provisions of G.S. 105-472, 105-486, ~~and 105-501~~ 105-501, and 105-520 do not apply to tax proceeds distributed under this section."

SECTION 1.8. G.S. 159-15 reads as rewritten:

"§ 159-15. Amendments to the budget ordinance.

Except as otherwise restricted by law, the governing board may amend the budget ordinance at any time after the ordinance's adoption in any manner, so long as the ordinance, as amended, continues to satisfy the requirements of G.S. 159-8 and 159-13. However, except as otherwise provided in this section, no amendment may increase or reduce a property tax levy or in any manner alter a property taxpayer's liability, unless the board is ordered to do so by a court of competent jurisdiction, or by a State agency having the power to compel the levy of taxes by the board.

If after July 1 the local government receives additional and unanticipated revenues, the governing body may, before January 1, amend the budget ordinance to reduce the property tax levy to account for the unanticipated revenues.

The governing board by appropriate resolution or ordinance may authorize the budget officer to transfer moneys from one appropriation to another within the same fund subject to such limitations and procedures as it may prescribe. Any such transfers shall be reported to the governing board at its next regular meeting and shall be entered in the minutes."

SECTION 1.9. Section 34.14(b) of S.L. 2001-424 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 34.14.(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 105-466(c), a tax levied ~~during the 2003 calendar year~~ under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes, as enacted by this act, may become effective on the first day of any calendar month beginning on or after ~~July 1, 2003.~~January 1, 2003, and on or before July 1, 2003. Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 105-466(c), if a county levies a tax ~~during the 2003 calendar year~~ under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes, as enacted by this act, that is to become effective on or before July 1, 2003, the county is required to give the Secretary of Revenue only 30 days' advance notice of the tax levy. For taxes levied ~~on or~~under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes that become effective after ~~January 1, 2004,~~July 1, 2003, the provisions of G.S. 105-466(c) apply."

SECTION 1.10. Section 34.15(b) of S.L. 2001-424 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 34.15.(b) This section becomes effective July 1, ~~2003.~~2002."

SECTION 1.11. To the extent the Department of Revenue's nonrecurring costs of implementing and administering Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General

Statutes, as amended, exceed funds available in its budget for the 2002-2003 fiscal year, the Department may pay the excess cost by withholding up to two hundred seventy-five thousand dollars ($275,000) from collections under Subchapter VIII of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes.

SECTION 1.12. The Department of Revenue may contract for supplies, materials, equipment, and contractual services related to the provision of notice, the creation of tax forms and instructions, and the development of computer software necessitated by the amendments in this act without being subject to the requirements of Article 3 or Article 8 of Chapter 143 of the General Statutes.

SECTION 1.13.(a) The title of Article 39 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes reads as rewritten:

"Article 39.

First One-Cent (1¢) Local Government Sales and Use Tax."

SECTION 1.13.(b) G.S. 105-463 reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-463. Short title.

This Article ~~shall be known as the "Local~~ is the First One-Cent (1¢) Local Government Sales and Use Tax ~~Act."~~Act."

SECTION 1.14.(a) The title of Article 40 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes reads as rewritten:

"Article 40.

~~Supplemental~~ First One-Half Cent (1/2¢) Local Government Sales and Use ~~Taxes.~~Tax."

SECTION 1.14.(b) G.S. 105-480 reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-480. Short title.

This Article ~~shall be known as the Supplemental~~ is the First One-Half Cent (1/2¢) Local Government Sales and Use Tax Act."

SECTION 1.15.(a) The title of Article 42 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes reads as rewritten:

"Article 42.

~~Additional Supplemental~~ Second One-Half Cent (1/2¢) Local Government Sales and Use ~~Taxes.~~Tax."

SECTION 1.15.(b) G.S. 105-495 reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-495. Short title.

This Article ~~shall be known as the Additional Supplemental~~ is the Second One-Half Cent (1/2¢) Local Government Sales and Use Tax Act."

PART II. DELAY 2001 TAX BREAKS

SECTION 2.1.(a) The lead-in language of Section 34.19(a) of S.L. 2001-424 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 34.19.(a) Effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, ~~2002,~~2003, G.S. 105-134.6(c)(3) and (4) reads as rewritten:".

SECTION 2.1.(b) The lead-in language of Section 34.19(b) of S.L. 2001-424 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 34.19.(b) Effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, ~~2003,~~2004, G.S. 105-134.6(c)(4), as amended by this section, reads as rewritten:".

SECTION 2.2.(a) The lead-in language of Section 34.20(a) of S.L. 2001-424 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 34.20.(a) Effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, ~~2002,~~2003, G.S. 105-151.24 reads as rewritten:".

SECTION 2.2.(b) The lead-in language of Section 34.20(b) of S.L. 2001-424 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 34.20.(b) Effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, ~~2003,~~2004, G.S. 105-151.24, as amended by this section, reads as rewritten:".

PART III. UPDATE IRC REFERENCE

SECTION 3.1. G.S. 105-228.90(b)(1b) reads as rewritten:

"(1b) Code. – The Internal Revenue Code as enacted as of ~~January 1, 2001,~~May 1, 2002, including any provisions enacted as of that date which become effective either before or after that date."

SECTION 3.2.(a) G.S. 105-130.5(a) is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(a) The following additions to federal taxable income shall be made in determining State net income:

...

(15) The applicable percentage of the amount allowed as a thirty percent (30%) accelerated depreciation deduction under section 168(k) or section 1400L of the Code, as set out in the table below. In addition, a taxpayer who was allowed a thirty percent (30%) accelerated depreciation deduction under section 168(k) or section 1400L of the Code in a taxable year beginning before January 1, 2002, and whose North Carolina taxable income in that earlier year reflected that accelerated depreciation deduction must add to federal taxable income in the taxpayer's first taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 2002, an amount equal to the amount of the deduction allowed in the earlier taxable year. These adjustments do not result in a difference in basis of the affected assets for State and federal income tax purposes. The applicable percentage is as follows:

Taxable Year	Percentage
2002	100%
2003	70%
2004 and thereafter	0%"

SECTION 3.2.(b) G.S. 105-134.6(c) is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(c) Additions. – The following additions to taxable income shall be made in calculating North Carolina taxable income, to the extent each item is not included in taxable income:

...

(8) The applicable percentage of the amount allowed as a thirty percent (30%) accelerated depreciation deduction under section 168(k) or section 1400L of the Code, as set out in the table below. In addition, a taxpayer who was allowed a thirty percent (30%) accelerated depreciation deduction under section 168(k) or section 1400L of the Code in a taxable year beginning before January 1, 2002, and whose North Carolina taxable income in that earlier year reflected that accelerated depreciation deduction must add to federal taxable income in the taxpayer's first taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 2002, an amount equal to the amount of the deduction allowed in the earlier taxable year. These adjustments do not result in a difference in basis of the affected assets for State and federal income tax purposes. The applicable percentage is as follows:

Taxable Year	Percentage
2002	100%
2003	70%
2004 and thereafter	0%"

SECTION 3.2.(c) This section is effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002.

SECTION 3.3.(a) G.S. 105-130.5(b) is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(b) The following deductions from federal taxable income shall be made in determining State net income:

...

(21) In each of the taxpayer's first five taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2005, an amount equal to twenty percent (20%) of the amount added to taxable income in a previous year as accelerated depreciation under subdivision (a)(15) of this section."

SECTION 3.3.(b) G.S. 105-134.6(b) is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(b) Deductions. – The following deductions from taxable income shall be made in calculating North Carolina taxable income, to the extent each item is included in taxable income:

...

(17) In each of the taxpayer's first five taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2005, an amount equal to twenty percent (20%) of the amount added to taxable income in a previous year as accelerated depreciation under subdivision (c)(8) of this section."

SECTION 3.3.(c) This section is effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002.

SECTION 3.4.(a) G.S. 105-32.2(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Amount. – The amount of the estate tax imposed by this section is the maximum credit for state death taxes allowed under section 2011 of the ~~Code.~~ Code without regard to the phase-out of that credit under subdivision (b)(2) of that section. If any property in the estate is located in a state other than North Carolina, the amount of tax payable is the North Carolina percentage of the credit.

If the decedent was a resident of this State at death, the North Carolina percentage is the net value of the estate that does not have a tax situs in another state, divided by the net value of all property in the estate. If the decedent was not a resident of this State at death, the North Carolina percentage is the net value of real property that is located in North Carolina plus the net value of any personal property that has a tax situs in North Carolina, divided by the net value of all property in the estate, unless the decedent's state of residence uses a different formula to determine that state's percentage. In that circumstance, the North Carolina percentage is the amount determined by the formula used by the decedent's state of residence.

The net value of property that is located in or has a tax situs in this State is its gross value reduced by any debt secured by that property. The net value of all the property in the estate is its gross value reduced by any debts and deductions of the estate."

SECTION 3.4.(b) This section is effective on and after January 1, 2002, and applies to the estates of decedents dying on or after that date. This section is repealed effective for the estates of decedents dying on or after January 1, 2004.

SECTION 3.5. Effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002, G.S. 105-134.6(b)(13) is repealed.

SECTION 3.6. Notwithstanding Section 3.1 of this act, any amendments to the Internal Revenue Code enacted in 2001 that increase North Carolina taxable income for the 2001 taxable year become effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002.

SECTION 3.7.(a) G.S. 105-188(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) Annual Exclusion. – The annual exclusion amount is equal to the federal inflation-adjusted exclusion amount provided in section 2503(b) of the Code. Gifts not exceeding a total value ~~of ten thousand dollars ($10,000)~~equal to the annual exclusion amount made to any one donee in a calendar year are not taxable under this Article. When gifts exceeding a total value ~~of ten thousand dollars ($10,000)~~ equal to the annual exclusion amount are made to any one donee in a calendar year, only the portion of the gifts exceeding ~~ten thousand dollars ($10,000)~~the annual exclusion amount in value is taxable under this Article. This exclusion does not apply to gifts of future interests in property. For the purposes of determining the ~~exclusion herein provided,~~annual exclusion, no part of a gift to an individual, or in trust for an individual, who has not attained the age of 21 years on the date of ~~such~~ the transfer ~~shall be~~is considered a gift of a future interest in property if the property and the income therefrom meet all of the following conditions: (i) they may be expended by, or for the benefit of, the donee before ~~his attaining~~the donee reaches the age of 21 ~~years, and~~years; (ii) they will to the extent not so expended pass to the donee ~~on his attaining~~when the donee reaches the age of 21 ~~years, and~~years; and (iii) they will, in the event the donee dies before ~~attaining the age of 21 years,~~reaching that age, be payable to the estate of the donee or as ~~he~~ the donee may appoint under a general power of appointment.

When a gift is made by one spouse to a person other than the donor's spouse, the donor may claim both the donor's annual exclusion and the spouse's annual exclusion ~~provided that~~ if both spouses consent and both spouses are residents of this State when the gift is made. Consent to share annual gift tax exclusions ~~shall~~ must be made in writing on a timely filed gift tax return. Once given, consent to share annual exclusions is irrevocable."

SECTION 3.7.(b) This section is effective January 1, 2002, and applies to gifts made on or after that date."

PART IV. UNAUTHORIZED SUBSTANCE TAX EXPENSES

SECTION 4.1. G.S. 105-501 is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"...

In determining the net proceeds of the tax to be distributed, the Secretary shall deduct from the collections to be allocated an amount equal to one-fourth of the costs during the preceding fiscal year of:

...

(1a) Seventy percent (70%) of the expenses of the Department of Revenue in performing the duties imposed by Article 2D of this Chapter.

...."

SECTION 4.2. This Part becomes effective June 30, 2002.

PART V. INSURANCE REGULATORY CHARGE

SECTION 5.(a) The percentage rate to be used in calculating the insurance regulatory charge under G.S. 58-6-25 is six and one-half percent (6.5%) for the 2002 calendar year.

SECTION 5.(b) This section is effective when it becomes law.

PART VI. REGULATORY FEE FOR UTILITIES COMMISSION

SECTION 6.(a) The percentage rate to be used in calculating the public utility regulatory fee under G.S. 62-302(b)(2) is one-tenth percent (0.1%) for each public utility's North Carolina jurisdictional revenues earned during each quarter that begins on or after July 1, 2002.

SECTION 6.(b) The electric membership corporation regulatory fee imposed under G.S. 62-302(b1) for the 2002-2003 fiscal year is two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000).

SECTION 6.(c) This section becomes effective July 1, 2002.

PART VII. RESERVED

PART VIII. SECURE LOCAL REVENUES

SECTION 8.1. G.S. 105-113.82(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) Time. – The revenue shall be distributed to cities and counties within 60 days after March 31 of each year. The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 8.2. G.S. 105-116.1(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Distribution. – The Secretary must distribute to the cities part of the taxes collected under this Article on electric power companies. Each city's share for a calendar quarter is the percentage distribution amount for that city for that quarter minus one-fourth of the city's hold-back amount and one-fourth of the city's proportionate share of the annual cost to the Department of administering the distribution. The Secretary must make the distribution within 75 days after the end of each calendar quarter. The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 8.3. G.S. 105-187.44(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Distribution. – Within 75 days after the end of each calendar quarter, the Secretary must distribute to the cities part of the tax proceeds collected under this Article during that quarter. The amount to be distributed to a city is one-half of the amount of tax attributable to that city for that quarter under subsection (a) of this section. The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 8.4. G.S. 105-164.44F is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(f) Nature. – The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 8.5. G.S. 136-41.1 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(d) Nature. – The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 8.6. G.S. 159B-27(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) The State shall distribute to cities and towns which receive electric power and energy from their ownership share of a project or to which electric power and energy is sold by a joint agency an amount equal to a tax of three and nine hundredths percent (3.09%) of all moneys expended by a municipality on account of its ownership share of a project, including payment of principal and interest on bonds issued to finance such ownership share, or an amount equal to a tax of three and nine hundredths percent (3.09%) of the gross receipts from all sales of electric power and energy to such city or town by a joint agency, as the case may be. The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 8.7. G.S. 143-25 reads as rewritten:

"§ 143-25. Maintenance appropriations dependent upon adequacy of revenues to support them.

(a) All maintenance appropriations now or hereafter made are hereby declared to be maximum, conditional and proportionate appropriations, the purpose being to make the appropriations payable in full in the amounts named herein if necessary and then only in the event the aggregate revenues collected and available during each fiscal year of the biennium for which such appropriations are made, are sufficient to pay all of the appropriations in full; otherwise, the said appropriations shall be deemed to be payable in such proportion as the total sum of all appropriations bears to the total amount of revenue available in each of said fiscal years. ~~The~~ Except as provided in subsection (b) of this section, the Director of the Budget is ~~hereby~~ given full power and authority to examine and survey the progress of the collection of the revenue out of which such appropriations are to be made, and to declare and determine the amounts that can be, during each quarter of each of the fiscal years of the biennium properly allocated to each respective appropriation. In making such examination and survey, ~~he~~ the Director of the Budget shall receive estimates of the prospective collection of revenues from the Secretary of Revenue and every other revenue collecting agency of the State. The Director of the Budget may reduce all of said appropriations pro rata when necessary to prevent an overdraft or deficit to the fiscal period for which such appropriations are made. The Governor may also reduce all of said appropriations pursuant to Article III, Section 5(3) of the Constitution in accordance with subsection (b) of this section, after consulting with the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations under G.S. 120-76(8) if prior consultation is required by that section. The purpose and policy of this Article are to provide and insure that there shall be no overdraft or deficit in the general fund of the State at the end of the fiscal period, growing out of appropriations for maintenance and the Director of the Budget is directed and required to so administer this Article as to prevent any such overdraft or deficit. Prior to taking any action under this section to reduce appropriations pro rata, the Governor may consult with the Advisory Budget Commission.

(b) The General Assembly recognizes that it has required units of local government to adopt and maintain annual balanced budgets and take other steps to assure financially sound operations under the Local Government Budget and Fiscal Control Act and other provisions of Chapter 159 of the General Statutes. Accordingly, the General Assembly finds that in order to satisfy those statutory requirements and provide adequate services to their citizens, units of local government must be able to rely on the funds and local revenue sources the General Assembly has provided.

It is the intent of the General Assembly that funds that have been collected by the State on behalf of local governments and funds that the General Assembly has appropriated or otherwise committed to local governments shall not be reduced except as provided in this section. In exercising the powers contained in Section 5(3) of Article III of the Constitution, the Governor shall not withhold from distribution funds that have been collected by the State on behalf of local governments or funds that the General Assembly has appropriated or otherwise committed to local governments unless, after making adequate provision for the prompt payment of principal of and interest on bonds and notes of the State according to their terms, the Governor has exhausted all other sources of revenue of the State including surplus remaining in the treasury at the beginning of the fiscal period and has been authorized to withhold the funds by an act of the General Assembly.

This subsection does not authorize the Governor to withhold revenues from taxes levied by units of local governments and collected by the State. The General Assembly recognizes that under Section 19 of Article I of the North Carolina Constitution and under the Due Process Clause of the United States Constitution, the State is prohibited from taking local tax revenue."

PART IX. CLOSE CORPORATE TAX LOOPHOLES

SECTION 9.1.(a) G.S. 105-130.4(a)(1) reads as rewritten:

"(1) "Business income" means ~~income arising from transactions and activity in the regular course of the corporation's trade or business and includes income from tangible and intangible property if the acquisition, management, and/or disposition of the property constitute integral parts of the corporation's regular trade or business operations.~~ all income that is apportionable under the United States Constitution."

SECTION 9.1.(b) This section is effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002.

SECTION 9.2.(a) G.S. 105-130.4(l) reads as rewritten:

"(l) (1) Sales factor. – The sales factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the total sales of the corporation in this State during the income year, and the denominator of which is the total sales of the corporation everywhere during the income year. Not withstanding any other provision under this Part, the receipts from any casual sale of property shall be excluded from both the numerator and the denominator of the sales factor. Where a corporation is not taxable in another state on its business income but is taxable in another state only because of nonbusiness income, all sales shall be treated as having been made in this State.

(2) Tangible personal property. – Sales of tangible personal property are excluded from the denominator if they are sales to the United States government or sales that are in a state in which the taxpayer is not taxable. Sales of tangible personal property are in this State if the property is received in this State by the ~~purchaser.~~purchaser and the purchaser is not the United States government. In the case of delivery of goods by common carrier or by other means of transportation, including transportation by the purchaser, the place at which the goods are ultimately received after all transportation has been completed shall be considered as the place at which the goods are received by the purchaser. Direct delivery into this State by the taxpayer to a person or firm designated by a purchaser from within or without the State shall constitute delivery to the purchaser in this State.

(3) Other sales. – Other sales are in this State if:

a. The receipts are from real or tangible personal property located in this State; or

b. The receipts are from intangible property and are received from sources within this State; or

c. The receipts are from services and the income-producing activities are in this State."

SECTION 9.2.(b) This section is effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002.

SECTION 9.3.(a) Section 2(a) of S.L. 2001-327 reads as rewritten:

"EQUALIZE FRANCHISE TAX ON CORPORATE-AFFILIATED LLCs

SECTION 2.(a) The General Assembly finds that most corporations engaged in business in this State comply with the State franchise tax on corporate assets. Some taxpayers, however, take advantage of an unintended loophole in the law and avoid franchise tax by transferring their assets to a controlled limited liability company. This tax avoidance creates an unfair burden on corporate citizens that pay the franchise tax on their assets. It is the intent of this section to apply the franchise tax equally to assets held by corporations and assets held by corporate-affiliated limited liability companies. It is also the intent of this section to provide that a criminal penalty applies to taxpayers who fraudulently evade the tax.

The General Assembly further finds that, after this loophole was closed in 2001, some taxpayers continue to avoid franchise tax by manipulating ownership of assets. One method is to interpose a controlled partnership between the corporation and the controlled limited liability company. This tax avoidance creates an unfair burden on corporate citizens that pay the franchise tax on their assets. It is the intent of the General Assembly to apply the franchise tax equally to assets held by corporations and assets held by corporate-controlled entities."

SECTION 9.3.(b) G.S. 105-114(c) is recodified as G.S. 105-114.1 and reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-114.1. Limited liability companies.

(a) Definitions. – The definitions in G.S. 105-130.7A apply in this section. In addition, the following definitions apply in this section:

(1) Governing law. – A limited liability company's governing law is determined under G.S. 57C-6-05 or G.S. 57C-7-01, as applicable.

(2) Owned indirectly. – A person owns indirectly assets of a limited liability company if the limited liability company's governing law provides that seventy percent (70%) or more of its assets, after payments to creditors, must be distributed upon dissolution to the person as of the last day of the principal corporation's taxable year.

(3) Principal corporation. – A corporation that is a member of a limited liability company or has a related member that is a member of a limited liability company.

(b) Controlled Companies. – If a corporation or a related member of the corporation is a member of a limited liability company and the principal corporation and any related members of the principal corporation together own indirectly ~~the limited liability company's governing law provides that~~ seventy percent (70%) or more of ~~its~~ the limited liability company's assets, ~~after payments to creditors, must be distributed upon dissolution to the member corporation or to includible corporations of an affiliated group in which the member corporation is includible,~~ then the following provisions apply:

(1) ~~(i) a~~A percentage of the limited liability company's income, assets, liabilities, and equity is attributed to that ~~member~~ principal corporation and must be included in the ~~member~~ principal corporation's computation of tax under this ~~Article, and (ii) the~~Article.

(2) The principal ~~member~~ corporation's investment in the limited liability company is not included in the ~~member~~ principal corporation's computation of tax under this Article.

(3) The attributable percentage is equal to the percentage of the limited liability company's ~~assets, after payments to creditors, that would be distributable to the member corporation~~ assets owned indirectly by the principal corporation divided by the percentage of the limited liability company's assets owned indirectly by related members of the principal corporation that are corporations. ~~under the limited liability company's governing law if the limited liability company dissolved as of the last day of the member corporation's taxable year.~~

(c) Other Companies. – In all other cases, none of the limited liability company's income, assets, liabilities, or equity is attributed to a ~~member~~ principal corporation under this Article. ~~A limited liability company's governing law is determined under G.S. 57C-6-05 or G.S. 57C-7-01, as applicable. The definitions in section 1504 of the Code apply in this subsection.~~

(d) Penalty. – A taxpayer who, because of fraud with intent to evade tax, underpays the tax under this Article on assets attributable to it under this ~~subsection~~ section is guilty of a Class H felony in accordance with G.S. 105-236(7)."

SECTION 9.3.(c) This section becomes effective January 1, 2003, and applies to taxes due on or after that date.

PART X. HOUSING TAX CREDIT EFFECTIVE DATE CHANGE

SECTION 10. Section 10.(f) of S.L. 2000-56 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 10.(f) Low-Income Housing Credit Changes. – G.S. 105-129.16B(d), as amended by Section 7 of this act, is effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2000. The remainder of Section 7 is effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2001, applies to buildings to which federal credits are allocated on or after January 1, ~~2001,~~2000, and expires January 1, 2005."

PART XI. SEVERABILITY CLAUSE AND EFFECTIVE DATE

SECTION 11.1. The provisions of this act are severable. If any provision of this act is held invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalidity does not affect other provisions of the act that can be given effect without the invalid provision.

SECTION 11.2. Except as otherwise provided, this act is effective when it becomes law. Notwithstanding G.S. 105-163.15 and G.S. 105-163.41, no addition to tax may be made under those statutes for a taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 2002, and before January 1, 2003, with respect to an underpayment of corporate or individual income tax to the extent the underpayment was created or increased by this act.

Senate Bill 1292 (PCS): Budget Revenue Act of 2002

Attachment 4

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee: House Finance
Date: July 23, 2002
Version: Draft

Introduced by: Senators Kerr and Hoyle
Summary by: Finance Team

SUMMARY: The proposed House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill 1292 contains the following tax changes:

- PART I accelerates the 2001 legislation establishing a sales tax swap, as follows:
  - Accelerates the effective date of the local option sales tax from July 1, 2003, to January 1, 2003.
  - Accelerates the sunset of the State's half-cent sales tax from July 1, 2003, to January 1, 2003.
  - Accelerates the repeal of the tax reimbursements, from July 1, 2003, to July 1, 2002.
  - Does not accelerate the hold harmless for local governments beginning in the 2003-2004 fiscal year and sunsets the hold harmless provision in 2012.
  - Accelerates the change from quarterly sales tax distributions to monthly sales tax distributions, from July 1, 2003, to October 1, 2002.
- PART II delays the income tax breaks enacted in 2001. This Part is identical to the Senate version.
  - The phase-in of the increase in the standard deduction for married taxpayers is delayed until January 1, 2003.
  - The phase-in of the additional child tax credit amount is delayed until January 1, 2003.
- PART III conforms North Carolina's tax laws to many of the federal tax law changes enacted in 2001 and 2002, and to the gift tax annual exclusion. Except for the gift tax change and a reduction in the bonus depreciation add-back, this Part is identical to the Senate version.
  - Conform to the educational provisions in EGTRRA.
  - Conform to the pension tax provisions in EGTRRA.
  - Conform to the net operating loss provisions in EGTRRA.
  - Conform to the miscellaneous provisions in EGTRRA and in the Job Creation and Worker Assistance Act of 2002.
  - Conform to the increased estate tax limits in EGTRRA.
  - The bill does NOT conform to either the phase-out of the State estate death tax credit in EGTRRA or the accelerated depreciation provisions in the Job Creation and Worker Assistance Act of 2002.
- PART IV provides that local governments will bear a portion of the costs associated with the collection of the drug tax. These costs are currently borne entirely by the General Fund. Except for a correction to the effective date, this Part is identical to the Senate version.

- PART V sets the insurance regulatory fee at 6.5% for the 2002 calendar year. This rate is the same as the 2001 rate. This Part is identical to the Senate version.
- PART VI sets the public utility regulatory fee at 0.1% for the 2002-2003 fiscal year. It also sets the electric membership corporation regulatory fee at $200,000 for the 2002-03 fiscal year. These rates are the same as the rates established last year. This Part is identical to the Senate version.
- PART VII is reserved.
- PART VIII seeks to secure local revenues in two ways, listed below. This Part is identical to House Bill 1490 as it passed the House. It is similar to the corresponding provision in the Senate version.[1]
  - It prohibits the Governor from withholding certain shared tax revenues by classifying them as "local revenues" rather than "State expenditures" thus arguably removing those funds from the scope of the Governor's constitutional budgetary authority.
  - It restricts the Governor's ability to withhold funds otherwise appropriated or committed to local governments, including reimbursement money, by requiring that the Governor first exhaust all other sources of revenue, including surplus in the treasury at the beginning of the fiscal period, and be authorized to withhold the funds by an act of the General Assembly.
- PART IX closes three corporate tax loopholes, as described below. There is no corresponding provision in the Senate version.
  - Broadens the definition of "business income" to include all income that states can apportion for corporate income tax purposes under the U.S. Constitution, effective beginning with the 2002 tax year.
  - Provides that sales that no state or country has the right to tax are "thrown out" of the calculation of profits to apportioned among the states, thereby increasing the percentage apportioned to North Carolina for the purpose of corporate income taxation, effective beginning with the 2002 tax year.
  - Tightens the 2001 legislation that was intended to close a loophole that allows corporations to escape franchise tax by transferring assets to a controlled limited liability company, effective beginning with payments due in March 2003.
- PART X enlarges the class of taxpayers eligible for an enhanced credit for investing in low-income housing in a county that sustained severe or moderate damage from a hurricane in 1999. There is no corresponding provision in the Senate version.

[1] The Senate version lacks the conforming change to the electric cities statute, and lacks the extra requirement that the Governor needs General Assembly authorization before releasing any funds committed to local governments.

PART I: ACCELERATE SALES TAX SWAP

State and Local Sales Tax Changes.

Part I of this bill accelerates many of the provisions enacted last session and modifies others. The 2001 legislation authorized counties to levy additional local sales taxes of ½%, effective July 1, 2003. Under this bill, the tax may become effective as early as January 1, 2003. The 2001 legislation imposed an additional State ½% sales tax that was set to expire July 1, 2003. The bill would sunset this State tax January 1, 2003. Thus, the combined State and local rate would never exceed 6 ½%. To accomplish the sales tax acceleration, the bill provides for the following:

- It would allow the counties to enact the tax in the first 6 months of 2003 with a shortened notice to the Department of Revenue.
- It would allow counties and cities to amend their budget ordinances after July 1st to reduce their property tax levy to account for unanticipated revenues.
- It would authorize the Department of Revenue to withhold up to $275,000 for 2002-2003 to cover its excess nonrecurring costs for implementing the new sales tax on short notice.
- It would exempt the Department of Revenue from the public contract bidding requirements for the procurement of supplies, materials, equipment, and contractual services related to the provision of notice and the development of computer software necessitated by the expedited provisions of the bill.

Under general law, a county must give the Secretary of Revenue at least 90 days advance notice of a new tax levy or tax rate change; and a new tax levy or a tax rate change may become effective only on January 1 or July 1. This bill provides for an expedited levy. If the county enacts the tax effective to become effective in the first half of the 2003 calendar year, the tax may become effective on the first day of any month from January through July and the county must give the Secretary only 30 days advance notice of the tax levy. Thereafter, the current law requirements of 90 days notice and a January 1 or July 1 effective date are reinstated.

Under current law, counties are authorized to levy up to 2% local sales and use taxes[2]. All counties levy the maximum rate. The State collects the tax and distributes it quarterly to the counties and municipalities. In 2001, the General Assembly provided that local sales taxes must be distributed monthly rather than quarterly, effective July 1, 2003. This bill accelerates the effective date of the monthly distribution schedule to October 1, 2002.

Local Government Reimbursements.

In 2001, the General Assembly repealed all of the State's reimbursement payments to local governments, effective beginning with the 2003-2004 fiscal year. This bill would accelerate the repeal, effective July 1, 2002.

The 2001 legislation would have provided local governments "hold harmless" payments beginning in 2003-2004 if the amount they could potentially realize from the levy of the half-cent sales tax was less than the amount they would lose from the reimbursements. This bill does not accelerate the hold harmless provision, so it will not be in effect for the 2002-2003 fiscal year. Annual hold harmless payments will begin September 15 2003. This bill sunsets the hold harmless payments after the September 15, 2011 payment. The Department of Revenue will make the hold harmless distribution annually, drawing the funds from State sales tax collections.

State reimbursements are amounts distributed to local units to compensate them for revenue lost as a result of the removal by the General Assembly of property from the local sales and use tax base, the local property tax base, or the intangibles tax base. State reimbursements consist of reimbursements for the repeal of the property tax on inventories and on poultry and livestock, the repeal of the intangibles tax, the "homestead exclusion" from property tax, and the repeal of local sales and use taxes on food purchased with food stamps.

This bill does not repeal or reduce the distribution of local government tax-sharing revenues: excise tax on beer and wine, franchise tax on electricity, gross receipts tax on piped natural gas, sales tax on telecommunications service, and the Powell bill revenues.

PART II: DELAY 2001 TAX BREAKS

Last session, the General Assembly enacted two income tax breaks to become effective for 2002 tax year[3]: elimination of the marriage tax penalty[4] and an increased tax credit for children. Part II of this bill delays the enactment of these tax benefits.

Last session, the General Assembly reduced North Carolina income taxes on married couples that claim the standard deduction[5] by increasing the amount of the standard deduction for married filers so that it would be twice that of a single taxpayer. Since 1989, the basic standard deduction for a single person in North Carolina has been $3,000 while that for a married couple filing jointly has been $5,000. The increase in the deduction enacted in 2001 is phased in over the 2002 and 2003 tax years. The standard deduction for married persons filing separately is one-half that for a married couple filing jointly, so the 2001 act also phased it up from $2,500 to $3,000 over the 2002 and 2003 tax years. Part II of this bill would delay by one year the phase-in of the increased deduction, so that it would occur over the 2003 and 2004 tax years.

In 2001, the General Assembly increased the $60 tax credit per child to $75 for the 2002 tax year and to $100 for the 2003 tax year. Part II of this bill would delay the phase-in of the credit

[4] The so-called married tax penalty is the result of a tax system that recognizes that a married couple's living expenses are less than the expenses of two single people living separately but more than the expenses of one single person. In addition, if one spouse is not employed full-time, a married couple's income would be less than that of two comparable single people who work full-time, but more than that of one single person. The tax law addresses these situations through the tax brackets, the personal exemptions, and the standard deduction. The result of these tax provisions is that a married couple with only one spouse working experiences a tax reduction when they marry, a married couple where one spouse earns substantially more than the other experiences no tax reduction or increase when they marry, and a married couple with both spouses earning roughly the same amount experience a tax increase when they marry.

[5] Roughly 70% of North Carolina taxpayers claim the standard deduction.

increase until the 2003 and 2004 tax years. The 1995 General Assembly enacted the tax credit of $60 per child for taxpayers who have dependent children and have family adjusted gross income below $100,000 for a married couple and $80,000 for a head of household. Neither the 2001 act nor this bill changes the income thresholds. The credit is in addition to the federal and state tax credits or exclusions for child care expenses. The credit is allowed for each dependent child for whom the eligible taxpayer could take a federal personal exemption under section 151(c)(1)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code. That Code section allows an exemption for each dependent child who either is less than 19 years old at the end of the taxable year or is a student and is less than 24 years old at the end of the taxable year. A child is a son, stepson, daughter, or stepdaughter. A dependent child is a child over half of whose support was provided by the taxpayer.

PART III: UPDATE IRC REFERENCE

North Carolina's tax law tracks many provisions of the federal Internal Revenue Code, by reference to the Code.[6] The General Assembly determines each year whether to update its reference to the Internal Revenue Code.[7] Updating the Internal Revenue Code reference makes recent amendments to the Code applicable to the State to the extent that State law previously tracked federal law. The General Assembly's decision whether to conform to federal changes is based on the fiscal, practical, and policy implications of the federal changes and is normally enacted in the following year, rather than in the same year the federal changes are made.

Congress enacted two bills that have changed the Code significantly since January 1, 2001:

- The Economic Growth and Tax Relief Reconciliation Act of 2001 (EGTRRA), enacted on June 7, 2001, includes numerous changes to the taxation of pension benefits, accounts, distributions, and rollovers; of education initiatives; and of estates. All of the provisions of EGTRRA will expire on December 31, 2010, unless the provisions are renewed or modified by Congressional action.[8]
- The federal Job Creation and Worker Assistance Act of 2002, enacted March 9, 2002, includes an accelerated 30% bonus depreciation allowance for certain assets placed in service after September 10, 2001, and before September 11, 2004, and an extension of the carryback period for net operating losses occurring in tax years ending in 2001 and 2002 from two years to five years.

Both of these acts will substantially affect a taxpayer's federal taxable income. Since North Carolina begins its corporate and individual income tax calculations with federal taxable

---

[6] North Carolina first began referencing the Internal Revenue Code in 1967, the year it changed its taxation of corporate income to a percentage of federal taxable income.

[7] The North Carolina Constitution imposes an obstacle to a statute that automatically adopts any changes in federal tax law. Article V, Section 2(1) of the Constitution provides in pertinent part that the "power of taxation ... shall never be surrendered, suspended, or contracted away." Relying on this provision, the North Carolina court decisions on delegation of legislative power to administrative agencies, and an analysis of the few federal cases on this issue, the Attorney General's Office concluded in a memorandum issued in 1977 to the Director of the Tax Research Division of the Department of Revenue that a "statute which adopts by reference future amendments to the Internal Revenue Code would ... be invalidated as an unconstitutional delegation of legislative power."

[8] The Congressional Budget Act of 1974 mandates this sunset provision.

income, these acts also have a substantial impact on North Carolina's tax revenues to the extent the State chooses to conform to those changes.

Part III of this bill rewrites the definition of the Code to change the reference date from January 1, 2001, to May 1, 2002. It then provides that a taxpayer must add to federal taxable income the amount allowed as an accelerated depreciation deduction under section 168(k) or 1400L of the Code and that a taxpayer's estate tax liability is determined without regard to the phase-out of the state death tax credit. In effect, Part III would do the following:

- Conform to all of the pension tax changes in the Code.
- Conform to all of the education initiatives in the Code.
- Conform to the increased estate tax exemption limitations.
- Not conform to the phase-out of the state death tax credit.
- Conform to the extension of the carryback period for net operating losses occurring in tax years ending in 2001 and 2002.
- Delay the accelerated 30% bonus depreciation allowance.

Pension Tax Provisions: This Part conforms North Carolina's tax treatment of pension benefits and distributions to federal law. Some of the more notable changes EGTRRA made to the pension laws include:

- It allows taxpayers to contribute more to their tax-deferred retirement accounts. It gradually increases the amount that may be contributed to a 401(k), 403(b), and 457 accounts between 2002 and 2006. The contribution limit will increase to $15,000 in 2006. Starting in 2007, the limit will be indexed for inflation in $500 increments. It also allows persons who are 50 or older to make an additional catch-up contribution to their tax-deferred retirement accounts.
- It increases the amounts that may be contributed to both traditional IRAs and Roth IRAs from $2,000 in 2001 to $3,000 in 2002. This amount gradually increases to $5,000 for 2008. After 2008, this amount will be indexed annually for inflation. It also allows people over the age of 50 to make catch-up contributions to an IRA.
- It modifies the distribution rules for governmental 457 plan participants so that their deferred compensation funds will be taxed when they receive the distribution, not when it is made available to them.
- It repeals the coordination of deferrals between 457 and other elective deferral plans. Under former law, the maximum deferral amount for a 457 plan was reduced dollar for dollar by any contribution made to other types of retirement plans. The tax law change means that a person may defer the maximum annual contribution limit to a 457 plan as well as the maximum amount in a 401(k) or 403(b) plan.
- It expands the types of eligible tax-free rollover distributions to include distributions from qualified plans, 403(b) annuities, and 457 plans to other such plans and distributions from IRAs to qualified plans, 403(b) annuities, and 457 plans.
- It allows a surviving spouse to roll over distributions from a deceased spouse's plan to his or her own plan. Prior to this change, the tax-free rollover had to be made to an IRA.

Education Tax Provisions: This Part conforms North Carolina tax law on education incentives to the federal changes enacted last year. The more notable tax changes affecting education incentives include:

- It increases the annual maximum contribution limit to an education IRA from $500 to $2,000 per beneficiary.
- It allows education IRAs dollars to be used to cover expenses of students in grade, middle, and high schools.
- It eases the restrictions and limitations when using an Education IRA with other education initiatives, such as the Hope or Lifetime Learning tax credit.
- It moves the annual contribution deadline for Education IRAs from December 31 to April 15 of the following year.
- It provides that distributions from Section 529 Plans will be income-tax free up to the amount that is used to pay qualified higher education expenses.[9] Under former law, participants enjoyed only the benefit of tax-deferred contributions and investment growth.
- It allows a person to transfer 529 plan credits from one program to another for the benefit of the same beneficiary without incurring a taxable event.
- It extends the deduction for employer-paid college expenses to include graduate courses.

Estate Tax Provisions: North Carolina repealed its inheritance tax in 1998, effective for deaths occurring on or after January 1, 1999. It replaced its inheritance tax with an estate tax that is equivalent to the federal state death tax credit allowed on a federal estate tax return. This type of state estate tax is known as a "pick-up" tax because it picks up for the state the amount of federal estate tax that would otherwise be paid to the federal government.[10] EGTRRA made two changes that affect the estate tax:

- It phases out the estate tax over the next eight years by increasing the exclusion amount from $675,000 in 2001 to $1 million in 2002-03, $1.5 million in 2004-05, $2 million in 2006-08, and $3.5 million in 2009. There is no need for an exemption amount after 2009 since the tax is repealed in 2010. However, the tax is scheduled to reapply in 2011 unless a future Congress makes the repeal permanent. If the tax were reinstated in 2011, the exclusion amount would be $1 million. This bill would conform North Carolina's exemption limits to the federal exemption limits to ensure that estates in North Carolina do not have to pay State tax if there is no federal tax due.
- It phases out the state death tax credit over the next four years by reducing it 25% in 2002, 50% in 2003, and 75% in 2004, and repealing it entirely in 2005. This bill does NOT conform to the phase out of the state death tax credit for two years.[11] Therefore, under

---

[9] North Carolina currently allows tax free distributions for North Carolina plans. Section 3.5 of the bill repeals the State deduction.

[10] As of July 1, 2001, 36 other states, plus the District of Columbia, impose only the "pick-up tax".

[11] As of July 3, 2002 the following states have acted to decouple from the phase-out of the state death tax credit for some period of time or have introduced legislation to that effect: Connecticut, Illinois, Maine, Maryland, Minnesota, Nebraska, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Vermont, and Wisconsin. The following states will remain decoupled unless they take legislative action: Arkansas, District of Columbia, Kansas, New York, Oklahoma, Oregon, Virginia and Washington. (Source: Center on Budget and Policy Priorities)

this bill an estate of a decedent dying on or after January 1, 2002, and before January 1, 2004, would owe North Carolina estate tax to the same extent that it would be owed without regard to the phase-out of the credit. The January 1, 2004, sunset ensures that the State will have to revisit this issue next year.

Because North Carolina's estate tax is based upon the federal credit for state death taxes, the repeal of the state death tax credit in 2005 and the ultimate repeal of the federal estate tax in 2010 will mean that the State must decide whether to replace or repeal its estate tax in the future.

Accelerated Depreciation Provisions: Under the Job Creation and Worker Assistance Act of 2002, a taxpayer is allowed an accelerated 30% bonus depreciation allowance for certain assets placed in service after September 11, 2001, and before September 11, 2004. The taxpayer is still entitled to the normal first-year depreciation on the remaining basis of the asset after reducing the basis by the bonus depreciation. This provision affects both corporate and individual income taxpayers.

The change in federal law results in a taxpayer recovering the basis in the asset sooner than under former law; however, over the life of the asset the taxpayer still receives the same benefit. This bill does not conform State law to the accelerated depreciation schedule allowed under federal law. [12] However, under this bill a taxpayer will continue to be able to deduct the same amount of an asset's basis under both federal and State law; it is just that the timing of the deduction will differ. To accomplish this decoupling from the federal accelerated bonus depreciation, the bill does two things:

- For the first three years of the federal accelerated depreciation, it provides that a taxpayer must add back to federal taxable income a percentage of the additional 30% accelerated depreciation in the year the accelerated depreciation is claimed for federal purposes.[13] The percentage is 100% for the 2001 and 2002 taxable years and 80% for the 2003 taxable year. There is no add-back for the 2004 taxable year. The add-back for the first three years of the accelerated depreciation means that for State tax purposes, a taxpayer would deduct less in tax years 2001-2003 than the taxpayer would have deducted if the State conformed to the accelerated depreciation law. The amount of the deduction will be the normal first year depreciation on the remaining basis of the asset after reducing the basis by the bonus depreciation amount allowed under federal law plus 30% of the bonus

[12] As of July 3, 2002, the following 22 states have decoupled from a portion of the accelerated depreciation allowance as the result of explicit legislative action following enactment of the federal law or have introduced legislation to that effect: Arizona, Connecticut, District of Columbia, Georgia, Hawaii, Illinois, Iowa, Maryland, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri (for one year), Nebraska, New Jersey, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, Tennessee, Vermont (for corporate income tax filers only), Virginia, and Wisconsin. In addition, New York City has decoupled from the bonus depreciation allowance. Six other states are decoupled automatically under pre-existing tax law: Arkansas, Idaho, Kentucky, New Hampshire, South Dakota, and Texas. (Source: Center on Budget and Policy Priorities; Tax Analysts)

[13] For tax years beginning before January 1, 2002, the add-back must be taken in the first taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 2002, so that the taxpayer will not recognize any retroactive tax increase.

deprecation in 2003. In 2004, the State will have in effect conformed to the federal law and the entire bonus depreciation may be deducted.

- In tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2005, it provides that the taxpayer may deduct from federal taxable income the total amount of the add-backs required in earlier years, divided into five equal installments. This means that for State tax purposes, a taxpayer would be allowed to deduct a greater depreciation amount in the outlying tax years - the normal depreciation amount plus 20% of the accelerated depreciation amount the taxpayer had to add back. The purpose of this recovery provision is to enable the taxpayer to have the same basis in assets for federal and State purposes. Without this deduction provision, a taxpayer would have a different basis in the depreciable asset for State and federal purposes and would have to keep separate books and records for State and federal purposes until the disposal of the asset. In effect, the add-back and subsequent deduction will affect the timing of the impact of bonus depreciation on the State but it will not increase or decrease the total amount of revenue the State receives over the affected years.

Gift Tax Change: North Carolina imposes a gift tax on property transferred during the life of a donor. Gifts to a spouse are exempt from tax. The gift tax law allows an annual exclusion of $10,000.

The federal gift tax annual exclusion is more complex. Since 1998, the $10,000 federal gift tax annual exclusion has been subject to an inflation adjustment. The adjustment happens only in increments of $1,000 however. From 1998 until 2001, inflation had not grown enough to reach the first $1,000 increment. In 2002, that threshold was reached and the federal annual exclusion increased to $11,000. This amount won't increase to $12,000 until the cumulative inflation adjustment is at least 20%.

Section 3.7 of the bill amends North Carolina's gift tax annual exclusion to piggyback the federal amount, effective January 1, 2002.

PART IV. UNAUTHORIZED SUBSTANCE TAX EXPENSES

Part IV of this bill would allocate to local governments 70% of the State's expenses in collecting the unauthorized substance tax. The expenses would be drawn from local sales tax revenues. Under current law, the following expenses are deducted from local sales tax distributions: costs of the Property Tax Division, costs of the Property Tax Commission, the costs of the Institute of Government in operating a training program in property tax appraisal and assessment, and the costs of the Local Government Commission.

The General Assembly first imposed the unauthorized substances tax in 1989 to generate revenue for State and local law enforcement agencies and for the General Fund. Seventy-five percent of the tax collected is distributed to the State or local law enforcement agency that conducted the investigation that led to the tax assessment. The remaining 25% is credited to the General Fund. This bill does not change this revenue allocation.

PART V. INSURANCE REGULATORY CHARGE

Part V of this bill sets the insurance regulatory charge at the same rate as last year's rate: 6.5% for the 2002 calendar year. The insurance regulatory charge is a tax that was enacted in 1991 to defray the State's cost of regulating the insurance industry. The charge is a percentage of each insurance company's premiums tax liability. The insurance regulatory charge is imposed on insurance companies, health maintenance organizations, and medical service corporations. For health maintenance organizations and medical service corporations, the fee is levied on each company's hypothetical gross premiums tax liability determined at the 1.9% gross premiums tax rate applied to its premiums base. The hypothetical calculation is necessary because medical service corporations and health maintenance organizations do not pay premiums tax at that rate.

PART VI. REGULATORY FEE FOR UTILITIES COMMISSION

Part VI of the bill sets the tax rate for the public utility regulatory fee for the 2002-2003 tax year at the same rate as last year's rate: 0.1%. This rate must be set by the General Assembly each year. The utility regulatory fee is a tax that was first imposed in 1989. The proceeds of the fee are credited to the Utilities Commission and Public Staff Fund and used to defray the State's cost in regulating public utilities. The regulatory fee is imposed on all utilities that are subject to regulation by the North Carolina Utilities Commission. The fee is a percentage of the utility's North Carolina jurisdictional revenues. In general, jurisdictional revenue is revenue derived from providing utility service in North Carolina.

In addition to funding the State's cost in regulating public utilities, the money in the Utilities Commission and Public Staff Fund is currently used to finance the work of the Study Commission on the Future of Electric Service in North Carolina. The General Assembly established the Commission in 1997 to examine the cost, adequacy, availability, and pricing of electric rates and service in North Carolina to determine whether legislation is necessary to assure an adequate and reliable source of electricity and economical, fair, and equitable rates for all consumers of electricity in North Carolina. Section 14.10 of SL 2000-67, the Current Operations and Capital Improvements Appropriations Act of 2000, extended the life of the Study Commission and its funding from the Utilities Commission and Public Staff Fund through June 30, 2006.

Part VI also sets at $200,000 for the 2002-2003 fiscal year the annual public utility regulatory fee imposed on electric membership corporations whose principal purpose is to furnish or cause to be furnished bulk electric supplies at wholesale. This is the same rate that was in effect for the 2001-2002 fiscal year. The North Carolina Electric Membership Corporation is the only electric membership corporation that fits this description. The proceeds of the fee are credited to the Utilities Commission and Public Staff Fund and used to defray the State's cost in regulating electric membership corporations.

The 1999 General Assembly enacted S.L. 1999-180, which authorized electric membership corporations to form subsidiary corporations that may provide energy services and products, telecommunications services and products, and water and wastewater collection and treatment. The subsidiaries must fully compensate the electric membership corporation for its use of the corporation's personnel, services, equipment, and property. The Utilities Commission is charged with regulating this aspect of the subsidiary's business and, to pay for this regulation, S.L. 1999-180 levied a flat-rate regulatory fee to be paid annually by the North Carolina Electric Membership Corporation. The General Assembly must establish the fee amount each year. The North Carolina Electric Membership Corporation is the only electric membership corporation whose principal purpose is to furnish or cause to be furnished bulk electric supplies at wholesale, as provided in G.S. 117-16. It is a "generation and supply cooperative" owned by its members. Its members are all but one of the existing North Carolina electric membership corporations, which are "distribution cooperatives." Thus, the fee imposed on the North Carolina Electric Membership Corporation will be passed on to its member electric membership corporations.

PART VII: [RESERVED]

PART VIII: SECURE LOCAL REVENUES

Sections 8.1 through 8.6 of the bill amend the following tax-sharing statutes by characterizing the revenue distributed by those statutes as distributions of "local revenue" rather than "State expenditures" for purposes of interpreting Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution:

- Section 8.1 - Beer and wine tax.
- Section 8.2 - Franchise gross receipts tax.
- Section 8.3 - Piped natural gas tax.
- Section 8.4 - Sales tax on telecommunications.
- Section 8.5 - Powell Bill funds.
- Section 8.6 - Electric cities distribution

Arguably, since the Constitution authorizes the Governor to reduce only "State expenditures," the classification of these state-shared tax revenues as "local revenues" prohibits the Governor from reducing or withholding the distributions. Moreover, the bill expressly states that the Governor may not reduce or withhold these distributions.

Section 8.7 of the bill amends the Executive Budget Act by limiting the Governor's authority to withhold from distribution funds that the General Assembly has appropriated or otherwise committed to local governments, including local reimbursement money. The Governor may withhold these funds only if, after making adequate provision for the prompt payment of principal of and interest on bonds and notes of the State, the Governor has exhausted all other sources of revenue of the State including surplus remaining in the treasury at the beginning of the fiscal period. In addition, the Governor must have been authorized to withhold the funds by an act of the General Assembly.

Based on the current information available, including a recent Attorney General's opinion, it is unclear whether amending the above-referenced statutes would be effective in preventing the Governor from withholding these funds from local governments. If the Governor withheld the funds despite the enactment of this legislation, enforcement of this limitation on the Governor's authority may have to be resolved by a court. The surest way to secure local revenues would be to pass a constitutional amendment prohibiting the Governor from withholding these funds.

PART IX: CLOSE CORPORATE TAX LOOPHOLES

This Part closes three corporate tax loopholes that allow some corporate profits to escape taxation and give corporate tax planners an opportunity to avoid existing taxes on corporate income and assets. The first loophole is caused by the definition of business income used in the corporate income tax law; the second loophole is caused by the treatment of certain sales in the formula for apportioning business income to the State for corporate income tax purposes; and the third loophole is caused by the different franchise tax treatment of corporations and limited liability companies.

Definition of Business Income: Section 9.1 of this Part amends the definition of "business income" to include all income that is apportionable under the U.S. Constitution, effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002.

Corporations that do business in more than one state divide up their income among those states for income-tax purposes. Business income is apportioned based on a formula that takes into account how much sales, property, and payroll the corporation has in each state. Nonbusiness income is allocated to a state based on its connection with that state. In the most basic terms, nonbusiness income could be described as income that is earned in an unrelated sideline activity of the corporation.

As an analogy, each interstate corporation's income is in two "pies" – a business income pie that is divided up among the states in which it does business, and a nonbusiness income pie that is given entirely to the state it is connected to.

In an ideal system, all states would follow the same rules for dividing up interstate corporations' income for tax purposes, so that no more and no less than 100% of every corporation's net income would be subjected to state income tax. However, different states have different laws and even when the laws are the same, they may be interpreted differently. In theory, this can result in the taxation of more than 100%, as well as less than 100%, of a corporation's net income. In practice, corporate tax planners take the opportunity to create "nowhere" income – income that no state can tax. Instead of each state receiving its piece of the business income pie, some pieces are thrown away. Thus, although a corporation may do substantial business in North Carolina, much of its otherwise taxable business income may be characterized as nonbusiness, so that North Carolina gets no piece of it.

These tax avoidance schemes are possible not only because different states have different laws, but also because states such as North Carolina have laws that are vague or too narrow. In North Carolina, income is business income if it relates to the regular trade or business of the taxpayer. This definition is vague and narrower than what is allowed under the United States Constitution. If North Carolina is entitled to tax a significant percentage of a corporation's business income, the corporation may try to shift much of its income into the nonbusiness pie, which North Carolina does not share in. This may be true even though the corporation has deducted as a business expense the same items that it now claims are not business items when the time comes to pay tax on profits. Recent court decisions in North Carolina have upheld this tax avoidance technique. Examples of the types of business income that corporations most often recharacterize are rents, royalties, gain or loss from the sale of property, interest, and dividends.

This proposal would change the definition of business income to include any income that the United States Constitution allows a state to treat as business income. This eliminates the current statute's vagueness and narrowness, which allow it to be used by corporations to create "nowhere" income that should otherwise be taxable in North Carolina. One effect of this change will be to include income from extraordinary events, such as a liquidation of a division, in apportionable income, consistent with the Department of Revenue's historical position, as illustrated by its administrative rules, before the North Carolina Supreme Court's decision in Lenox v. Tolson. A corporation's income earned out of state from unrelated business activity that makes up a discrete business enterprise would continue to be nonbusiness income that cannot be apportioned - it would continue to be allocated to the state to which it is connected.[14]

26 states including North Carolina use the vague, unnecessarily narrow definition of business income.

18 states have a broader definition of business income:

- 5 states have the law proposed in Section 9.1 of the bill (define business income as all that the U.S. Constitution allows state to apportion):
    1. Florida
    2. Iowa
    3. Minnesota
    4. Pennsylvania
    5. Texas
- 13 states apportion all corporate income. These states' approach would gain less revenue than the proposal in Section 9.1 because it would relinquish the right to tax true nonbusiness income of North Carolina-headquartered businesses. The 13 states include:
    1. Georgia
    2. South Carolina
    3. Virginia

In 1996, an economist with the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston published a study of the effect of state tax policy on economic development. The study looked at various manufacturing industries in 22 states - including most major manufacturing states - and found no statistically significant correlation between business tax burdens and the location of new investment.

[14] Several examples of the effect of this proposal are at the end of this summary.

Throw-out Rule for Corporate Apportionment: Section 9.2 of Part IX would exclude certain out-of-state sales of tangible personal property from the base of the sales factor used to apportion business income to North Carolina, effective beginning with the 2002 tax year.

Like the previous provision, this proposal would bring under North Carolina's corporate income tax a part of a corporation's "nowhere" income that is currently not being taxed by any state. Under current law, the formula for determining how much of the business income pie goes to North Carolina focuses on sales, payroll, and property in North Carolina. The sales factor is a ratio of sales in North Carolina to all sales everywhere. Sales of tangible personal property are considered to be "in" the state[15] where the purchaser receives the item. Under the sales factor formula, the more sales a corporation has that are not in North Carolina, the smaller the sales factor used to calculate North Carolina's piece of the business income pie - because the formula assumes those sales will go into another state's piece of the business income pie.

But some sales of tangible personal property don't go into any state's piece of the pie. That may be because they are made in a state that cannot tax the corporation or because they are made to the federal government and so one cannot tell which state they are made in. Without the throw-out rule (or a similar rule called the throw-back rule), 50% to 100% of the profits of a state's corporations may be "no where" income, according to a 2002 article published by Michael Mazerov of the Center on Budget and Policy Priorities.

Under Section 9.2 of the bill, "nowhere" sales (sales of tangible personal property where the purchaser is the federal government or is located in a state or country that cannot tax the corporation) are excluded from the sales factor formula so that they do not reduce the ratio that determines how much of a corporation's business income North Carolina can tax. Thus, if another state cannot consider the sales in calculating its piece of the pie, the sales will not escape tax entirely - instead, there will be an increase in North Carolina's piece of the pie. If every state adopted the throw-out rule, then 100% of a corporation's interstate income would be taxed - there would be no "nowhere" income.

Here is an example of the throw-out rule. Corporation X has 20% of its sales in North Carolina, 20% of its sales in Virginia, and 60% of its sales in Tennessee. The corporation has no nexus with Virginia so Virginia cannot tax its income. Tennessee, like North Carolina current law, has no throw-out or throwback rule. Under current law, the sales factor for North Carolina would be 20% divided by 100%, or 1/5. The sales factor for Tennessee would be 60% divided by 100%, or 3/5. There is no sales factor for Virginia. Thus, the sales factors for North Carolina and Tennessee add up to only 4/5 of the company's sales. As a result, less than 100% of the company's business income will be apportioned to those states for taxation. If North Carolina adopted the throw-out rule, the 20% of sales to Virginia are subtracted from the denominator of the sales factor. Thus, North Carolina's sales factor would be 20% divided by 80%, or 1/4. Because 1/4 is more than 1/5, a larger proportion of the corporation's income would be allocated to North Carolina. If Tennessee also adopted the throw-out rule, its sales factor would be 60% divided by 80%, or 3/4. Thus, the sales factors for the two states would add up to 100% and all of the corporation's sales would be considered in apportioning its business income between the two states.

The throw-out rule and its sibling, the throwback rule, are not new. They predate the 1959 federal law limiting a state's ability to impose corporate income tax on corporations whose only connection with the state is soliciting orders there. The following information on states that do and do not have the throw-out rule or the throwback rule comes from Michael Mazerov of the Center on Budget and Policy Priorities. After the name of each state is listed the percent increase or decrease of manufacturing jobs in that state during the period 1995-2000. For that period, NC's manufacturing jobs decreased 9.5%.

21 States, including North Carolina, do NOT have a throw-out or throwback rule. These states include:

State	Job Loss or Gain
• Florida	0.0%
• Georgia	+0.1%
• South Carolina	-8.0%
• Tennessee	-5.7%
• Virginia	-3.5%

The following 25 States HAVE the throw-out or throwback rule. [16] (The underlined states have the throw-out rule.)

State	Job Loss or Gain
• Alabama	-7.9%
• Alaska	-18.3%
• Arkansas	-3.1%
• California	+8.4%
• Colorado	+6.7%
• Hawaii	+1.2%
• Idaho	+8.2%
• Illinois	-1.8%
• Indiana	+0.6%
• Kansas	+9.8%
• Maine	-6.5%
• Mississippi	-9.3%
• Missouri	-4.1%
• Montana	+6.0%

[16] Washington, D.C. also has the throwback rule, bringing the total to 26. In addition, Massachusetts technically has the throwback rule but Mazerov points out that its rule is full of loopholes so that it is not effective.

- New Hampshire +3.0%
- New Jersey[17] -7.4%
- New Mexico -5.1%
- North Dakota +17.4%
- Oklahoma +6.7%
- Oregon +6.0%
- Texas +5.2%
- Utah +5.6%
- Vermont +8.4%
- West Virginia -2.1%
- Wisconsin +2.5%

According to Mazerov, this information shows that states with the throw-out and throwback rules (and the royalty loophole closing North Carolina enacted last year) are disproportionately represented among states with net manufacturing gains.

LLC Franchise Tax: In 2001, the General Assembly enacted S.L. 2001-327 to close a loophole that allowed corporations to avoid franchise tax on their assets by transferring their assets to a controlled limited liability company (LLC). Corporations pay franchise tax on their assets but LLCs do not pay franchise tax on their assets. Tax planners helped many corporations avoid most of the franchise tax they would otherwise owe by setting up an LLC for the purpose of holding the assets on behalf of the corporation. Although the corporation's business continued in the same way, the corporation eliminated most of its franchise tax through this paper transaction.

The 2001 legislation tried to address this problem by requiring a corporation to pay tax on assets owned by the LLC if the corporation, including its affiliated corporations, indirectly owned[18] at least 70% of the LLC's assets. Unfortunately, tax planners found that the tax could still be avoided by using an additional paper transaction. If the corporation interposed a partnership between itself and the LLC holding its assets, then technically the 2001 legislation would not apply and the assets would continue to escape franchise tax.

Section 9.3 of this Part broadens the approach of the 2001 legislation to include "related members" (other entities and individuals) who may partner with one or more corporate entities to own the LLC to which the corporate assets are transferred. This section would become effective beginning with payments due in March 2003. "Related members" is a term defined in the "trademark royalties" provision of last year's loophole bill and includes shareholders, partnerships, etc.

---

[17] New Jersey just enacted the throwback rule in 2002.

[18] Indirect ownership of an LLC's assets is determined based on who is entitled to receive those assets upon dissolution of the LLC.

If a corporation and its related members together indirectly own at least 70% of an LLC's assets, this Part provides that each corporation pays franchise tax on its relative share of the LLC's assets. The relative share is calculated after excluding those related members who are not corporations. Thus, the entire assets are subject to franchise tax, with the tax burden shared proportionally by the corporations that are involved in the ownership scheme. The language of the bill accomplishes this by stating that the following percentage of the LLC's assets are taxable to the corporation: "The attributable percentage is equal to the percentage of the limited liability company's assets owned indirectly by the principal corporation divided by the percentage of the limited liability company's assets owned indirectly by related members of the principal corporation that are corporations."

Here is an example:

A parent corporation, its subsidiary, and a major shareholder of the parent form a partnership to own an LLC that will own assets on behalf of the parent and subsidiary. The LLC's documents provide that upon dissolution its assets are distributed as follows:

- Parent Corporation: 20%
- Subsidiary Corporation: 45%
- Shareholder: 35%

Under current law, the assets would remain free of franchise tax. If this Part were enacted, the parent corporation would pay franchise tax on 31% of the assets and the subsidiary corporation would pay franchise tax on 69% of the assets. Those are their relative shares of the total once you exclude the non-corporate owner.

The approach taken by this Part is much broader than the 2001 legislation and is intended to anticipate the creative paper relationships tax planners may devise to try and avoid the franchise tax. The breadth of the provision is such that it could apply to a "legitimate" situation, such as an individual who is the sole shareholder of a corporation and who later forms an LLC with an associate. Under this proposal, the corporation would pay tax on the LLC's assets. Unfortunately, there does not appear to be a way to distinguish this type of situation from one in which the corporation is manipulating relationships to avoid its franchise tax. With different tax treatment of similar entities, tax planners can try to manipulate relationships to fall into the untaxed category. Because corporations and LLCs are similar, there may not be a strong policy reason to treat them differently for franchise tax purposes.

PART X: HOUSING TAX CREDIT EFFECTIVE DATE CHANGE

Part X of this bill enlarges the class of taxpayers eligible for an enhanced credit for investing in low-income housing in a county that sustained severe or moderate damage from a hurricane in 1999. In 1999, the General Assembly enacted a new tax credit for rehabilitating or constructing low-income housing. The credit is equal to a percentage of the amount of the taxpayer's federal credit for low-income housing with respect to eligible North Carolina low-income housing. The credit is 75% for buildings located in tier one or two counties and 25% for buildings located in other tiers. In 2000, the General Assembly enacted legislation providing that the 75% credit is also allowed for buildings located in one of 26 counties that sustained severe or moderate damage from a hurricane in 1999. This increase in the amount of the credit was made effective for buildings that are allocated a federal credit on or after January 1, 2001. The federal tax credits are allocated in December of each year. Thus, those taxpayers who made investments in hurricane counties and were allocated federal credits in December 2000 are not eligible for the enhanced State credit. This act would backdate the effective date for eligibility for the enhanced State credit to from 2001 to 2000, thereby including those who were allocated federal credits for investments in hurricane counties during 2000.

EXAMPLES RELATING TO THE DEFINITION OF "BUSINESS INCOME" IN SECTION 9.1.

Investment in an unrelated corporation. Corporation A is a manufacturer domiciled in State 1 and has business operations in States 1 and 2 and in North Carolina. Corporation A buys stock in Corporation B. Corporation A and Corporation B are not involved in the same industry and the stock is held for investment purposes only. Corporation A does not actively participate in the management of Corporation B and does not integrate operations with Corporation B. Corporation A recognizes no economies of scale due to its ownership interest in Corporation B. Corporation A and B are not unitary. Corporation A sells the Corporation B stock and recognizes a capital gain. Under this bill, the capital gain is not apportionable to North Carolina. (See: Allied Signal, Inc. v. Director, Division of Taxation, 504 U.S. 768, 112 S.Ct. 2251, 119 L.Ed.2d 533 (1992).) This income would also be nonapportionable, non-business income under current North Carolina law.

Reversion of excess pension funds. Corporation A is a manufacturer domiciled in State 1 and has business operations in States 1 and 2 and in North Carolina. Corporation A has made contributions to a defined-benefit employee pension plan for a number of years and has deducted these contributions from business income. The plan is found to be over-funded and a reversion of excess pension funds is allowed. The reverted funds are ordinary income for federal tax purposes. Under current North Carolina law, because the reversion is not a transaction that takes place in the regular course of business and because the right to a reversion is not an integral part of the corporation's regular course of business, the reverted funds are treated as non-business income and would not be subject to apportionment. (See: Union Carbide v. Offerman, 351 N.C. 310, 526 S.E.2d 167 (2000).) Under this bill, the reversion would be income subject to apportionment because it is income derived from a unitary business.

Liquidation of wholly-owned subsidiaries. Corporation X is a manufacturer domiciled in State 1 and has business operations in States 1 and 2 and in North Carolina. Corporations A, B, and C are wholly owned subsidiaries of Corporation X. Corporations A, B, and C are domiciled in State 1 and have no business operations in North Carolina. Corporation X liquidates Corporations A, B, and C and immediately distributes the proceeds of the liquidations to Corporation X's shareholders. Corporation X recognizes a capital gain from the liquidations.

Liquidation of Corporation A - There is centralized management between Corporations X and A and their operations are functionally integrated. Corporations X and A therefore constitute a unitary business, part of which is conducted in North Carolina. Under this bill, the proceeds of the liquidation of Corporation A would be subject to apportionment.

Liquidation of Corporation B - Corporations X and B are engaged in the same general line of business. Corporation B supplies Corporation X with the majority of a product used in Corporation X's manufacturing operations. Corporation B therefore performs an operational function in Corporation X's business. Under this bill, the proceeds of the liquidation of Corporation B would be subject to apportionment.

Liquidation of Corporation C - There is no centralized management, functional integration, or economies of scale between Corporations X and C, and Corporation C performs no operational function in Corporation X's business. Corporation C is not part of Corporation X's unitary business. Under this bill, the proceeds of the liquidation would not be subject to apportionment.

(Note: This bill removes the confusion under current law created by the decision in Lenox v. Tolson regarding the apportionability of income from the liquidation of an operating division or subsidiary. In Lenox v. Tolson, the Court found that the liquidation of a separate line of business was not a transaction in Lenox's regular course of business and was not a disposition of property integral to Lenox's regular trade or business. The Court held that the proceeds were therefore nonbusiness income and not apportionable. The Court, however, failed to analyze whether the acquisition or management of the property constituted integral parts of the corporation's regular trade or business, an analysis required under the actual language of the statute, the Department's administrative rules, and the Court's prior decision in Polaroid v. Offerman. As the dissent in Lenox points out, the property of ArtCarved was an integral part of Lenox's regular trade or business and the proceeds from the liquidation of this property should therefore have been apportionable business income under previous opinions of the Court.)

Receipt of dividends from wholly-owned subsidiaries. Corporation A is a retailer domiciled in State 1 and has business operations in States 1 and 2 and in North Carolina. Corporations B, C, and D are wholly owned subsidiaries of Corporation A. Corporations B, C, and D are engaged in retailing in foreign countries. Corporation A has no functional integration and no centralized management with Corporations B, C, and D. Corporation A realizes no economies of scale due to its ownership of Corporations B, C, and D. Corporations B, C, and D are therefore not part of a unitary business with Corporation A. Corporations B, C, and D perform no operational function in Corporation A's business. Corporation A receives dividends from Corporations B, C, and D. Therefore, under this bill, as well as under current North Carolina law, this income would not be apportionable. (See: F.W. Woolworth Co. v. Taxation and Revenue Dept. of NM, 458 U.S. 354, 102 S.Ct. 3128, 73 L.Ed.2d 819 (1982).)

All other sections are effective when they become law.

BILL SUMMARY:

Part I Section 1.1 of the bill authorizes local county commissioners to levy an additional ½ cent local sales tax, effective January 1, 2003. This tax would not apply to food. Section 1.2 makes conforming changes to the language to be used on the ballot, should county commissioners choose to place the local sales tax change before the public for a vote. Section 1.3 also makes conforming changes. Section 1.4 eliminates the hold harmless payments developed in the 2001 session in 2012. Section 1.5 changes the sales tax distribution to local governments from a quarterly payment to a monthly payment. Section 1.6 repeals the state's ½ cent sales tax, effective January 1, 2003. Section 1.7 makes changes to the distribution of use tax collections between the state and localities. Section 1.8 allows local governments to amend their budget ordinances to reduce the property tax levy if they receive additional and unanticipated revenues. Section 1.9 outlines the timeline that counties must follow when notifying the Department of Revenue of their intention to levy the additional ½ cent. Section 1.10 repeals the local government reimbursements. Section 1.11 allows the Department of Revenue to use up to $275,000 of local sales tax revenue to fund implementation of the new tax. Section 1.12 exempts Department of Revenue from standard contract and bid requirements, but only as it relates to items needed to administer the additional local option sales tax. Sections 13 – 15 make conforming language changes in the existing local sales tax statutes.

Part II of the bill delays two tax breaks authorized in 2001. Section 2.1(a) delays the increase from $5000 to $5500 in the standard deduction for married filing jointly from tax year 2002 to 2003. Section 2.1(b) delays the increase from $5500 to $6000 in the same deduction from tax year 2003 to 2004. Section 2.2(a) delays the increase in the child tax credit from $60 to $75 from tax year 2002 to 2003. Section 2.2(b) delays the increase in the child tax credit from $75 to $100 from tax year 2003 to 2004.

Part III of the bill updates state statutory references to the Internal Revenue Code from January 1, 2001, to May 1, 2002, with exceptions for accelerated depreciation and the estate tax credit. This action would conform state tax laws to federal tax changes made in the Economic Growth and Tax Relief Reconciliation Act of 2001 and the Job Creation and Worker Assistance Act of 2002.

Under current law, North Carolina conforms to the federal estate tax in effect as of January 1, 2001. Thus, our pickup tax does not automatically tie into the 2001 federal changes. The estate tax language in this bill, coupled with the Internal Revenue Code conformity update provisions, would link North Carolina to the effect of the higher federal credits on the pickup tax but not to the phase-out of the death tax credit. The practical effect of the language in the bill is to ensure that with respect to the phased up federal credit for state death taxes, estates in North Carolina do not have to pay state tax if there is no federal tax due.

In the bonus depreciation conformity section of the bill, an add-back equal to 100% of bonus depreciation for the 2001-2003 tax years and 70% for 2004 is included in taxable income. The add-back is then offset by a subtraction from income starting with the 2005 tax year. This subtraction takes place in installments over a 5-year period.

This part of the bill also conforms the state gift tax exclusion to the indexing method used by the federal government.

Part IV allows the Department of Revenue to deduct 70% of the cost of the Unauthorized Substance Tax Division from the sales and use tax proceeds distributed to local governments.

Part V of the bill addresses the annual establishment of the insurance regulatory fee. Section 5(a) sets the insurance regulatory charge at 6.5%. The rate remains the same as in the previous year.

Part VI, Section 6(a) sets the regulatory fee rate for the Public Utilities Commission at 0.1%. This rate must be set annually and is the same as the previous year. Section 6(b) sets the regulatory fee for the electric membership corporations at a flat $200,000. This fee has remained the same since it was first imposed in 1999.

Part VII of the bill is reserved.

PART VIII attempts to limit the Governor's ability to withhold the local portion of revenues shared with cities and counties by declaring these funds local revenue. Specifically Section 8.1 addresses beer and wine taxes, while Section 8.2 discusses the franchise tax on electricity. Section 8.3 considers the tax on piped natural gas. Section 8.4 addresses the tax on telecommunications. Section 8.5 considers the Highway Fund and Highway Trust Funds allocated as Powell Bill funds. Section 8.6 addresses the distribution to electric cities. Section 8.7 adds intent language to clarify that the funds committed or appropriated by the legislature for local governments shall not be reduced unless the governor has exhausted all other sources of revenue for the state. It also states that the Governor must be authorized by the legislature to withhold these funds.

Part IX makes the following corporate tax changes:
BUSINESS INCOME. Sec. 9.1 of the bill expands the definition of "business income" to include all of the income that may be apportioned under the U.S. Constitution. The practical effect of the provision is to include in the North Carolina income tax base more income from irregular events, such as the sale of a subsidiary.

THROWOUT RULE. For most multistate corporations, nationwide taxable income is apportioned among the states based on a three-factor formula that compares payroll in a state, property in the state, and sales within the state to the national totals for each of the respective factors. Thus, the sales factor would divide sales within North Carolina (numerator) by total national sales (denominator). Section 9.2 of the bill modifies the sales factor by taking out sales to the U.S. government from both the numerator and denominator and subtracting from the denominator "sales that are in a state in which the taxpayer is not taxable" during the tax year. In addition, the denominator would not include sales that are in a foreign country when that country does not subject the taxpayer to a tax on, or measured by, profits or income.

LLC FRANCHISE TAX. Legislation adopted by the 2001 General Assembly attempted to close a loophole that allowed corporations to avoid the state franchise tax by transferring potentially taxable assets to a controlled limited liability company (LLC). This occurs because LLCs do not pay franchise tax on their assets. The 2001 legislation tried to address this problem by requiring a corporation to pay tax on assets owned by the LLC if the corporation, including its affiliated corporations, indirectly owned[1] at least 70% of the LLC's assets. However, if the corporation interposed a partnership between it and the LLC holding its assets, then the 2001 change would not apply and the assets would continue to escape taxation.

Sec. 9.3 of the bill broadens the 2001 legislation to include "related members" (other entities and individuals) who may form a partnership with one or more corporate entities to own the LLC to which the corporate assets are transferred. "Related members" includes shareholders, partnerships, etc. If a corporation and its related members together indirectly own at least 70% of an LLC's assets, the bill provides that each corporation pays franchise tax on its relative share of the LLC's assets. The relative share is calculated after excluding those related members who are not corporations.

Part X backdates the effective date from 2001 to 2000 for enhanced low income housing tax credits for projects located in counties damaged by Hurricane Floyd.

ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGY:

PART I: ACCELERATE SALES TAX SWAP

LOCAL OPTION SALES TAX

In 2001 the General Assembly approved a sales tax "swap". Under this proposal the state levies an additional ½ cent sales tax, bringing the state rate to 4.5%, and the total rate to 6.5%. This additional ½ cent sunsets on June 30, 2003. Starting July 1, 2003, county commissioners are authorized to levy an additional ½ cent at the county level, moving the local rate to 2.5% but holding the combined rate at 6.5%. Also effective July 1, 2003, the state will stop paying local governments approximately $333.4 million in reimbursements for previous tax law changes in the areas of property taxes on inventory and intangibles, the homestead exemption, and sales taxes on food purchased with food stamps.

This part of the bill allows county governments to levy an additional ½ cent of local sales tax 6 months earlier than under existing law.

Fiscal Research believes that in FY 2001-02, each penny of local sales tax generated $716.8 million in revenue. (This estimate does not include food). Using a growth rate of 1.2% suggests the following non-food, sales tax revenue stream for FY 2002-03:

[1] Indirect ownership of an LLC's assets is determined based on who is entitled to receive those assets upon dissolution of the LLC.

Fiscal Year	Revenue from 1 Cent	Revenue from 1/2 Cent
2002-03	$725.40	$362.70

Once adjustments are made for the January effective date, the total estimated statewide potential revenue available to local governments from this additional ½ cent is approximately $157.9 million. However, since the language is permissive and counties can decide to enact the tax at any time, no exact fiscal estimate is possible on this portion of the bill.

Section 1.9 allows local governments to begin levying the tax on the first day of any calendar month on or after January 1, 2003, and limits the amount of notice local governments must give the Department of Revenue for local sales tax changes effective between January 1, 2003, and July 1, 2003. No revenue side impact is expected as a result of this expedited process.

Sections 1.13-1.15 re-title and re-codify the existing local sales tax statutes. No fiscal impact is expected from these sections of the bill.

ACCELERATE REPEAL OF STATE ½ CENT SALES TAX

Section 1.6 of the bill repeals the most recently adopted ½ cent sales tax, effective January 1, 2003. This tax was scheduled to be repealed, under current law, July 1, 2003. This change accelerates the change by six (6) months.

As was noted previously, Fiscal Research estimates the following non-food, sales tax revenue stream for FY 2002-03:

Fiscal Year	Revenue from 1 Cent	Revenue from 1/2 Cent
2002-03	$725.40	$362.70

By moving the effective date up by six months the state looses $157.9 million in 2002-03. (This number is smaller than ½ the year's total because of collection lags).

REPEAL OF LOCAL GOVERNMENT REIMBURSEMENTS

Section 1.10 repeals the local government reimbursements. Since 1979, the General Assembly has made several changes to tax law that impact local governments. The state's cities and counties have received reimbursements from the state for some of these losses, particularly as they relate to the sales and property tax bases. The state reimburses local governments for property tax losses related to the repeal of taxes on inventories and intangibles, as well as some of the losses associated with the homestead exemption. Locals also receive a reimbursement for sales taxes that are no longer paid on items purchased with food stamps.

According to the Department of Revenue's Tax Research Division, annual reimbursements are as follows:

Reimbursement	Amount (Millions)
Food Stamps	$6.4
Intangibles	$128.7
Homestead	$8.2
Retail & Wholesale Inventory	$82.0
Manufacturers Inventory	$108.1
TOTAL	$333.4

No hold harmless provision is offered in 2002-03. Under current law hold harmless payments will be made starting in FY 2003-04. However, the bill (Section 1.4) also sunsets this payment, effective July 1, 2012.

MODIFY USE TAX PAYMENTS

Section 1.7 modifies the distribution of the local portion of use taxes collected on the individual income tax form. North Carolina consumers have been liable for use tax payments on all purchases on which sales tax are not collected since 1939. The use tax is imposed at the same rate as the sales tax and is designed to capture the revenue lost through sales by retailers that do not collect North Carolina sales tax. Unlike the retail sales tax that is collected by the merchant, the consumer pays the use tax directly to the state. From a practical standpoint, the use tax generally applied to traditional out of state purchases for consumption in North Carolina, or those sales made through a catalog or mail order company. The 1999 General Assembly approved HB 1433 to simplify use tax collection by providing that the use tax will be paid on the taxpayer's income tax return. That legislation also indicated that the state should forward one-third of the proceeds collected on this line to the state's counties and cities in proportion to their total local sales tax payments. At that time, the combined state rate was 6%, with 2% or one-third of that amount being local sales taxes. Since that time, the combined state rate has increased to 6.5%. As a result, one-third is no longer the appropriate proportion to forward to local governments.

The bill requires that the proportion of the tax paid to local units reflect what proportion of the general rate is actually local tax. Therefore, under the current rate structure, local units should receive 30.8% of the revenue (2.0% is 30.8% of a 6.5% tax). When the state's extra ½ cent is repealed in January 2003 the locals should begin receiving 38.5% of the revenue (2.5% is 38.5% of a 6.5% rate).

The fiscal impact of this change is expected to be less than $20,000.

ACCELERATE LOCAL SALES TAX PAYMENTS

Section 1.5 shifts the payment of sales tax revenues to local units from a monthly to a quarterly basis, effective October 1, 2002. During the 2001 session H.B. 232 transferred the sales tax payment from quarterly to monthly, but used a July 1, 2003 effective date. The bill expedites this change by nine months. This change would substantially reduce the interest income ("float") the State receives on the use of the dollars between the time the tax is collected and the funds are distributed to local units.

The actual quarterly distribution now takes place about 45 days after the end of the calendar quarter. This analysis assumes that the monthly distribution would occur 45 days following the end of each month. The practical effect of the change on State General Fund nontax revenue (investment income) is that for taxes collected the first month of the quarter, two months of interest income would be eliminated. For the second month, the State would no longer receive one month of interest earnings. For the final month of each quarter, the timing change will have no effect since the distribution would take place 45 days after the end of that month under either system.

The interest rate assumption for this calculation is 5.5%, which is the most recent yield estimate offered by the Treasurer's Office. This estimate also assumes that all 100 counties increase the local tax in January 2003. As such, this estimate may overstate actual revenue losses. The estimated "float" amount discussed above is shown as a loss to the state and a gain for local governments.

PART II: DELAY 2001 TAX BREAKS

STANDARD DEDUCTION – MARRIAGE TAX PENALTY

The term "marriage penalty" refers to the income tax situation where married individuals filing jointly pay more in tax than if the two individuals were unmarried filing as single persons. For example, the North Carolina standard deduction for single filers is $3,000, but for married filing jointly the standard deduction is $5,000. The personal exemption also favors single filers. For single filers, the personal exemption is $2,500 until you get to a maximum Adjusted Gross Income (AGI) of $60,000 where it drops to $2,000. For married filing jointly, the personal exemption is $2,500 up to $100,000 AGI, then drops to $2,000. State tax brackets also favor single filers as shown below:

Single	0 to $12,750	$12,751 to $60,000	$60,000>
Married filing jointly	0 to $21,250	$21,251 to $100,000	$100,000>

The 2001 General Assembly reduced the marriage penalty by increasing the standard deduction for married filing jointly taxpayers from $5,000 to $6,000. The standard deduction was increased to $5,500 in tax year 2002 and then to $6,000 in tax year 2003. The FY 2001-02 reduction in General Fund revenue was projected to be $9.7 million due to estimated payments and withholding by 762,340 couples in the first half of tax year 2002. The estimated loss for the following fiscal years is shown below.

FY 2001-02	-$9.7 mil.
FY 2002-03	-$32.0 mil.
FY 2003-04	-$45.0 mil.
FY 2004-05	-$45.8 mil.
FY 2005-06	-$46.5 mil.

Section 2.1(a) delays the first $500 increase in the standard deduction to tax year 2003 and Section 2.1(b) delays the additional $500 standard deduction increase to 2004. Since the original fiscal estimate assumed income tax withholding in tax year 2002 (second half of FY 01-02 and first half of FY 02-03), a delay in the standard deduction increase will result in a General Fund revenue gain from increased tax liability on 2002 tax returns. However, not all of the $41.7 million shown in the first two years of the chart will be regained by the General Fund next fiscal year. The 2003 effective date for the standard deduction increase means married filing jointly taxpayers can change their income tax withholding in the first half of 2003 and reduce their tax payments by $9.8 million. The net gain from this delay from 2002 to 2003 is $31.9 million ($41.7 million minus $9.8 million). For the $6000 standard deduction delayed until 2004, the estimated revenue loss is $32.4 million in FY 2003-04. Since the original estimate for FY 2003-04 was $45 million, the General Fund will gain $12.6 million that year.

Note: All revenue estimates for the standard deductions were calculated using the North Carolina Individual Income Tax Model. This tax model was created by the Barents Group for the Department of Revenue and the General Assembly for use in estimating tax law changes. The model bases future year estimates on data from 1998 North Carolina individual income tax returns.

INCREASE TAX CREDIT FOR CHILDREN

The current $60 child tax credit was approved by the 1995 General Assembly. The 2001 General Assembly increased the child credit from $60 to $75 per child in tax year 2002 and from $75 to $100 in tax year 2003. The first increase will reduce General Fund revenue $19.8 million in FY 2002-03 for taxpayers filing returns in the spring of 2003. The second year increase will boost the revenue loss to $54.8 million in FY 2003-04. This tax change will benefit 18,354 single tax filers, 496,286 married couples, and 411,648 heads of households in tax year 2002. This revenue estimate was calculated using the North Carolina Individual Income Tax Model.

Section 2.2(a) delays the first $15 increase in the tax credit from 2002 to 2003 and Section 2.2(b) delays the second $25 increase from 2003 to 2004. The delay will eliminate the $19.8 million General Fund loss for FY 2002-03 and result in a General Fund revenue gain of an equal amount. There is a revenue gain of $34.9 million in FY 2003-04 because the $75 credit in 2003 has a $19.9 million revenue loss versus the $54.8 million loss for the now scheduled $100 credit.

PART III: UPDATE IRC REFERENCE

CONFORMITY

Section 3.1 changes the state tax law reference to the Internal Revenue Code from January 1, 2001, to May 1, 2002. Since North Carolina individual and corporate income tax law tracks the federal income tax law, it is necessary each year to update state statutory references to the Internal Revenue Code (IRC). Congress enacted two major bills in calendar years 2001 and 2002 that have a negative revenue impact on the state General Fund.

The Economic Growth and Tax Relief Reconciliation Act of 2001 (EGTRRA) included numerous provisions that impact North Carolina individual and corporate income tax. This bill conforms the state to the education provisions in the bill that affect education IRAs, Qualified Tuition Plans, deduction for higher education expenses, interest from student loans, and employer provided assistance. The bill conforms to the pension provisions in the act that affect IRA contribution limits, deferred comp plan deferral limits, and plan portability. The bill accepts changes in the phase out of itemized deductions and personal exemptions beginning in 2006. However, the bill does not conform to the estate tax changes in the act.

The state will conform to the Job Creation and Worker Assistance Act of 2002 except for the accelerated depreciation rules. Included in the bill were changes to net operating losses, the extension of expiring tax provisions, and a new above the line $250 deduction for teachers' classroom expenses.

The estimate of the state's revenue gain or loss from the federal changes is based on the fiscal analysis of the Congressional Joint Committee on Taxation. The federal analysis includes the effects of certain behavioral responses to tax proposals, including shifts between nontaxable and taxable sources of income, changes in amounts of charitable giving, and changes in the timing of realization of some sources of income. To derive an estimate for North Carolina for individual income tax changes, the federal income tax receipts for the U.S. were compared to the North Carolina General Fund income tax receipts for the July 2000 to July 1 2001 period (with adjustments for earmarks and refunds). The resulting percentage was .735%. For corporate income tax, a .59% rate was derived using the 1997 US Economic Census on Manufacturing.

The state revenue impact from conforming to the two federal bills is as follows:

Conformity		($million)
Category	02-03	03-04	04-05	05-06	06-07
Economic Growth and Tax Relief Reconciliation Act of 2001
Education	-14.6	-20.5	-25.3	-27.8	-15.8
Pensions, IRA's	-6.1	-14.3	-18.5	-24.7	-29.4
Other					-12.8
Job Creation and Worker Assistance Act of 2002
Net operating losses	-4.7	-3.9	2.5	1.7	1.1
Other	8.5	13.2	-8.4	-26.1	-20.3
	-16.9	-25.5	-49.7	-76.9	-77.3

The bill also conforms the North Carolina gift tax exclusion to the federal inflation-adjusted gift tax exclusion used by the federal government. This indexing process was introduced as a part of the 1997 federal tax revision. Under current North Carolina law the annual gift tax exclusion is $10,000. Tax rates of 1% to 17% are applied to the portion of a gift beyond that amount, depending upon the amount of the gift and the relationship between the donee and donor (Rates of 1% to 8% apply to the smaller gift amounts). These tax rates will not change as a result of the bill. However, the amount excluded from taxation will change as the amount of the federal exclusion changes. This year the federal inflation adjusted exclusion amount was increased to $11,000. The next exclusion amount change is not expected for at least three years, as that exclusion is only adjusted by increments of $1,000 whenever a threshold is crossed. As such, Fiscal Research assumes that the bill effectively increases the exclusion to $11,000 for three fiscal years, and then moves the exclusion to $12,000 in the following two fiscal years.

In FY 2001-02 the Department of Revenue, Personal Taxes Division received 6,500 gift tax returns. However, the report that the year was rather extraordinary, as they generally receive approximately 6,000 returns a year. Recently the Tax Research Division pulled a sample of 114 returns from the 2001-02 fiscal year. These returns indicate the following revenues from the $1,000 gap between $10,000 and $11,000 in gifts:

Relationship to Donor	Tax Rate	Revenue
Lineal Ancestor	1%	53,596
Other Family	4%	4,664
Other	8%	127,712
Total		185,972

Given the volatility in gift tax returns, Tax Research believes an estimate of approximately $180,000 to $200,000 for the $1,000 threshold change is reasonable. This suggests that conforming to the indexing of the gift tax will cost the state approximately $180,000 to $200,000 in the first three years and $360,000 to $400,000 in the next two fiscal years. The larger of these amounts are used as the estimate.

ACCELERATED DEPRECIATION

The first step in the analysis of Sections 3.2 and 3.3 was a simulation of the impact of the 30% bonus depreciation and the add-back on individual projects. A project size of $10 million was selected, although the analysis is the same regardless of the magnitude of the investment. Bonus depreciation is eligible for projects with a class life of up to 20 years. Thus, the following classes of asset lives would be impacted.

Class (Years)	Class Life Range (Years)
3	Less than 4
5	4-9
7	10-15
10	16-19
15	20-24
20	25 or more

The analysis assumed the use of the modified accelerated cost recovery system (MACRS). This system includes depreciation schedules based on double-declining balance depreciation rates for 3, 5, and 7-year property. For other classes, straight-line depreciation must be used. In addition, the analysis used the "mid-year convention" for the assumed investments.

The simulation looked at investments for all class lives eligible for bonus depreciation. Each calculation compared the current law depreciation with that under the 30% bonus. Under the 30% bonus schedule, the "regular depreciation" declines since it is calculated against the depreciation base after the application of bonus depreciation. Thus, the decline in normal depreciation offsets the first-year increase in total depreciation due to the bonus amount so that over the life of the asset there is no net change in the depreciation taken.

In addition, the impact of the 100% and 70% addbacks, and the "giveback" of the addback beginning in 2005, is calculated. The first-year net impact of bonus depreciation varies by asset class, with the largest short-term tax savings going to the assets with the longest lives. The net impact of both the bonus depreciation and add-back are essentially zeroed out over the long term.

To determine the impact on state revenues, a mathematical relationship was established between the net impact of "bonus depreciation with add-back" and "bonus depreciation only". This ratio was then compared to the "bonus depreciation only" fiscal impact of numerous states as reported in the National Conference of State Legislatures (NCSL) survey. These estimates were then adjusted to North Carolina based on corporate tax receipts in each state. In addition, the recent report of the Center for Budget and Policy Priorities (CBPP) contained estimates for particular states. The estimate used in this analysis relies heavily on the CBPP report.

In addition to the steps listed above, Fiscal Research also reviewed the fiscal impact statements in the three states that have adopted add-backs. The states are Nebraska (85% add back), Ohio (83.33%), and Minnesota (80%). This review, coupled with phone conversations with tax analysts in all three states, indicated that the add-backs used make the bonus depreciation approximately revenue-neutral for FY 2002-03. For future years, the net impact depends on the "add-back subtraction" schedule adopted.

The discussions with other states confirmed the difficulty of developing a precise fiscal estimate. The biggest problem is that after simulating the case-by-case impact of the proposal on investments with different class lives, there is no way to know how to weight the different simulations. The reason is that capital investment data compiled by the U.S. Department of Commerce does not provide a breakdown by asset life.

A particular problem encountered was the 2001 tax year. The federal change was effective for investments after September 10 of the year. Under current Department of Revenue instructions, calendar year taxpayers were able to use bonus depreciation for the 2001 tax year if they were able to modify their return in the few days between the federal enactment and the March 15 filing date. Other affected taxpayers will be eligible for a refund, but only after action by the General Assembly. These different possibilities make it difficult to determine how much of the 2001 tax year impact occurred in FY 2001-02 versus FY 2002-03.

The cash-flow estimates are conservative in terms of the weighting of asset classes in the calculations.

ESTATE PICK UP TAX

The regular inheritance tax was repealed in North Carolina by the 1998 General Assembly, effective for deaths occurring on or after January 1, 1999. Following the tradition of the other 36 states that have repealed their primary death tax, a "pickup" tax continues to be levied in North Carolina to use up the credit allowed on the federal estate tax return for state death taxes. In the absence of such a levy, the federal tax liability of the estate would be increased and potential state dollars would flow to the U.S. treasury.

In 2001 the congressional tax package made two changes that will have an effect on a small number of large estates as well as pickup tax collections in many states. First, the federal tax was phased out over a number of years until it is completely eliminated in 2010. This was accomplished primarily through higher federal credits. In the first few years, the higher credits reflect an acceleration of the credit phase-up under the 1997 federal tax relief bill. In addition, the 2001 bill phases out the state death tax credit over four years, beginning with deaths occurring on or after January 1, 2002.

The starting point for the analysis of Section 3.4 was the pickup tax revenue estimates included in the official revenue forecast used in amending the FY 2002-03 General Fund budget. The FY 2002-03 forecast of $117.3 million of pickup taxes was grown by 4% per year to determine receipts for future years (until the tax is effectively eliminated due to the repeal of the federal credit for state death taxes). Fiscal Research then reviewed the projected cost for each year of full conformity to the 2001 federal changes contained in the Center For Budget and Policy Priorities (CBPP) report. In addition, we looked at state by state estimates contained in the NSCL survey and adjusted these numbers to North Carolina by using state-specific federal estate tax return data for 1993-99 (reported gross estate numbers). The estimates finally adopted for purposes of this fiscal note were slightly higher than the CBPP numbers and near the top of the range of the estimates of other states.

This "full conformity" estimate was then modified to determine the "higher federal credits" conformity ("partial conformity") cost by comparing the CBPP estimates for full conformity and partial conformity for the 2002-03 fiscal year (18%). This led to an annualized FY 2002-03 projection of $7.3 million. For future years, the partial conformity estimate was based on the relationship of the CBPP projection of partial conformity for North Carolina to full conformity.

PART IV: UNAUTHORIZED SUBSTANCE TAX EXPENSES

Part IV will reduce the General Fund share of the administrative costs of the Unauthorized Substance Tax Division of the Department of Revenue, which administers the excise tax on unauthorized substances. Seventy-five percent (75%) of the tax proceeds are distributed to the law enforcement agencies that conducted the investigations that led to the assessments, and twenty-five percent (25%) of the tax proceeds are credited to the General Fund. In some years, the amount credited to the General Fund has not covered the costs of the Unauthorized Substance Tax Division.

Local law enforcement agencies receive most of the proceeds from the 75% that is distributed to law enforcement agencies. Therefore, the proposal is that local entities bear their proportionate share of the costs of the Unauthorized Substance Tax Division. To accomplish this, seventy percent (70%) of the costs would be taken from local sales and use tax revenue, as this percentage of the Division's cost is considered to be for the benefit of the local entities. This change in cost assignment requires an amendment to G.S. 105-501. This proposal does not change the amounts that are distributed to local law enforcement agencies. It simply recognizes that the Unauthorized Substance Tax Division primarily benefits local entities and that local entities should therefore bear their share of the expense.

The amount of the costs to be taken from the local sales and use tax is 70% of the costs of the Division rather than 75% because a small part of the amount that is distributed to law enforcement agencies is distributed to State law enforcement agencies. By the Department's records, the amount distributed to State law enforcement agencies is less than 5%. Using 70% instead of 75% therefore ensures that the costs borne by local entities are proportionate to the benefits they receive.

The General Fund will be reimbursed from local Sales and Use Tax funds transferred to a non-tax GF revenue account for 70% or $886,893 of the division's operating budget. Essentially, relieves the GF of a portion of the division's operating expense.

PART V: INSURANCE REGULATORY CHARGE

Part V of the bill sets the insurance regulatory charge at 6.5%. This is the same amount set in the previous year. This fee is assessed against the 1.9% premiums tax paid by insurers or against the presumed premiums tax that would be paid by HMOs and Article 65 companies (Blue Cross/Blue Shield) if taxed at 1.9%. The revenue is used to reimburse the General Fund for appropriations to the Department to pay expenses incurred in regulating the industry and other industries and to other departments as specified in G.S. 58-6-25(d).

The premiums tax collections for FY 2002-2003 are estimated to be $315.79 million. The HMOs and the Article 65 companies must pay a regulatory charge based on their presumed premiums tax at 1.9% (they pay .833% in 2002 and 1% in 2003). The presumed premium tax for the HMOs and Article 65 companies is estimated to be $68.83 million.

With the premiums tax collections of $315.79 million and the presumed premiums tax of $68.83 million from the HMOs and Article 65 companies, the total base against which the insurance regulatory charge will be assessed is estimated to be $384.62 million. Applying the 6.5% regulatory fee to the $384.62 million base would generate $25 million in regulatory fee revenue.

The certified budget for the Department, based on actions taken during the 2001 Session, is $23.5 million. In addition to reimbursing the General Fund for appropriations to the Department, the Insurance Regulatory Fund will also reimburse the General Fund for the $486,000 appropriated to support the Managed Care Patient Assistance Program (MCPAP), established by S.L. 2001-446. The total reimbursement to the General Fund is estimated to be $24 million. The Department estimates that the reserve will have a balance of $11.98 million at the beginning of FY 2002-2003. The total available from the reserve fund of $11.98 million and the estimated collections of $25 million will be $36.98 million. The total available less the estimated General Fund reimbursement of $24 million will leave a year-end reserve balance of $12.98 million. This reserve is above one-third of the estimated General Fund reimbursement.

The above calculation is based on the certified budget for FY 2002-2003 and does not include any adjustments to the FY 2002-2003 Budget that are or will be under consideration during the 2002 Session. Based on the above, the regulatory surcharge rate of 6.5% is sufficient to defray the estimated cost of the operations of the Department and provide for a reserve fund. The Department recommends that the rate remain the same and would not recommend a decrease in the rate because of the unknowns in the economy.

PART VI: REGULATORY FEE FOR UTILITIES COMMISSION

Part VI of the bill sets the fees for regulation by the North Carolina Utilities Commission ("Commission"). Section 6(a) of the bill sets the rate at 0.1%, the same as the current rate.

Revenue from this fee, which is assessed against regulated public utilities, is used to support the operations of both the Commission and the Public Staff. Based on estimated FY 2002-03 jurisdictional revenues of $10,854,768,332, the regulatory fee will produce $11,700,238. For the same period, the Commission estimates that the combined operations of the Commission and Public Staff will require total expenditures of not less than $11,695,970. The net change in the Commission's Accumulated Fee Margin Reserve Account is therefore approximately $4,268. The estimated balance in this account as of June 30, 2003, is $4,941,393. This represents approximately five months of operating reserve.

Section 6(b) of the bill sets the public utility regulatory fee to be paid by the North Carolina Electric Membership Corporation for the 2002-03 fiscal year at $200,000. In 1999 the initial fee of $200,000 was developed as a result of discussions between the industry and the Utilities Commission, based on what the Utilities Commission believed to be the cost associated with regulating the electric membership cooperatives. In 2001 the Utilities Commission provided information to Fiscal Research illustrating that these fees will support approximately 4000 hours of accounting, engineering, and legal time. This fee amount must be set by the General Assembly each year.

PART VIII: SECURE LOCAL REVENUES

In the spring of 2001, as a result of substantial budget shortfall, the governor escrowed $95.0 million of reimbursement payments to local governments. This payment is made as a reimbursement for revenues lost by the state's repeal of the property tax on various inventories. The funds were placed in an escrow account in case they were needed to balance the state budget on June 30, 2001. These funds were later released to the local units. In 2002, again facing a difficult fiscal situation, Governor Easley escrowed the spring inventory tax reimbursement to local governments. This $95.0 million was again placed in a special account to hold in case it was needed to balance the state budget in 2002. At the same time the governor announced he was holding an additional $114.0 million in reimbursements and shared revenues to secure his ability to balance the state budget. The $114 million included the following estimated amounts:

Fund Type	Amount Withheld
Franchise Utility Tax
March Distribution	35.6
June Distribution	25.0
Piped Natural Gas
March Distribution	6.9
June Distribution	11.8
Beer and Wine Tax	26.8
Homestead Exemption	7.9
TOTAL	114.0

Sections 8.1 – 8.7 are an attempt to secure these revenues from future gubernatorial action. This legislation has no direct impact on the budgets passed by the General Assembly, as these shared revenues have not been used in the legislative process for state expenditures. However, the legislation could limit the options available to the Governor. Because of the lack of clarity about what actions will be required of the Governor in future years, and the impact this particular legislation will have on the individual's decisions, no fiscal estimate is possible on the impact of the legislation.

Part IX: CLOSE CORPORATE TAX LOOPHOLES

BUSINESS INCOME

The Tax Research Division of the Department of Revenue analyzed 1999 corporate income tax returns and found that the maximum amount of additional tax revenue from the proposal would be $293.4 million. For 2000, the maximum would be $442.5 million. The higher number for 2000 is due to an increase in the amount of nonbusiness income from all sources shown on 2000 returns and a higher weighted average apportionment factor.

The extent to which total reported nonbusiness income can be brought into the tax base depends on how much of this income is not reported to other states and whether there are certain types of nonbusiness income that could not be taxed under the federal standards in the bill. The Department of Revenue does not have a good feel for the magnitude of these factors. In addition, the impact of the 2001 recession has reduced the corporate tax base in North Carolina by 33% and economists are still cautious about the outlook for 2002 national corporate profits.

We have not found any situations in which states have recently adopted this legislation and thus had fiscal notes available. Many states have had such laws on the books for many years and a 1992 U.S. Supreme Court decision opened the door for states to pursue enforcement. New Jersey adopted the proposal this year but the quality of the fiscal information was lacking, partly due to the difficulty of making the estimate.

Based on discussions with the Department of Revenue and concern about the uncertainty surrounding the estimates, we have taken a very cautious approach to this estimate.

THROWOUT RULE

There is very little data from other states on this issue. The New Jersey corporation business tax reform package included the item but there was no statement of the methodology behind the fiscal estimate. We are concerned with the lack of quality data on the issue and feel that a conservative estimate equal to roughly 50% of the earlier proposed throwback rule would be workable. In our analysis, we consulted with the corporate staff of the Department of Revenue.

LLC FRANCHISE TAX

There is little available information on this matter. The fiscal estimate used for the 2001 proposal to address the issue was $10.8 million. Discussions with the Department of Revenue about the impact on some taxpayers indicated that the proposal would not only close some of the loophole not addressed last year but would also pick up some of the erosion in the corporate income tax due to the tax planning strategies that have taken place since the 2001 change or might occur in the future. Thus, the proposed change is broader than last year's action.

Part X: HOUSING TAX CREDIT EFFECTIVE DATE CHANGE

The North Carolina Housing Finance Agency identified 8 projects authorized for a 25% state tax credit in 2000 that would qualify for the 75% state tax credit for those in counties damaged by Hurricane Floyd. These projects have been completed or are nearing completion thus the investors in the projects can begin taking the tax credit in FY 2002-03. Assuming the project investors use 100% of the available tax credit, the additional tax credits granted by this part is $10,727,800. Since the state tax credit is taken over five years, the General Fund revenue loss is spread over five fiscal years. The annual General Fund loss due to Part X of the bill is $2.15 million for Fiscal Years 2002-03 to 2006-07.

SOURCES OF DATA: Part II: Individual Income Tax Model. Part III: (1) The May, 2002 state-by-state survey of the National Conference of State Legislatures (Recent Federal Tax Legislation and the States); (2) A January, 2002 analysis of the Center On Budget and Policy Priorities on state options to conform to the 2001 federal estate tax changes; (3) Bonus depreciation fiscal estimate material from Ohio, Minnesota, and Nebraska; (4) Congressional Joint Committee on Taxation. Part VIII: Office of State Budget and Management. Part X: NC Housing Finance Agency

TECHNICAL CONSIDERATIONS: The January 1, 2002, effective date of the federal changes in Part III means that only three quarters of the 2002-03 fiscal year will be affected by the change since estates have up to nine months after death to file a return. In addition, the January 1, 2005, repeal of the state death tax credit on federal estate tax returns means that one quarter of FY 2005-06 revenues will be affected.

In Part IX of the bill, the 2002-03 estimate for the nonbusiness income change assumes that during the fiscal year the State would receive 100% of the 2002 tax year impact and about 40% of the 2003 tax year. For the other corporate changes, we did not assume that April and June, 2003 estimated tax payments would be adjusted up because the magnitude of the calendar year change is relatively small.

The Honorable William C. Owens, Jr.
House of Representatives
North Carolina General Assembly
Room 632, Legislative Office Building
Raleigh, North Carolina 27601-1096

Dear Bill:

I write in response to your request that the Association express our position on a proposed revenue package to assist both state and local governments and resolve the current impasse in the House of Representatives.

As we understand the proposal, it would advance the time at which the recently enacted (2001) one-half percent (1/2¢) state sales tax would be converted to a local option sales tax from July 1, 2003 to January 1, 2003. In addition, all local option sales taxes would be subject to monthly (rather than quarterly) distribution beginning October 2002.

The members of the Association recognize the dimensions of the budget crisis facing the State of North Carolina in the current budget year. We understand the drastic effects likely on the delivery of human services that will result if added revenues are not found, because we are the local mechanism through which these human services are delivered. We are also acutely aware of the reality that local governments will no longer receive "reimbursements" whether because of the General Assembly's action in the budget or because of action by the Governor. We remain concerned about counties and municipalities whose revenues are particularly affected by the loss of reimbursements because of their dependence on local taxes on property in the form of inventories or intangible property. We are pleased that the "hold harmless" provision that is part of the 2001 legislation will be effective with the 2003-04 fiscal year, and we retain the hope for some relief for those entities in the shorter term.

Given all these circumstances, and recognizing the impasse evident on the House floor last week, we believe that the proposal outlined above represents the best opportunity to resolve the issues to the mutual satisfaction of members of the House and members of our Association. We pledge our support for this proposal as it moves through the House and stand ready to articulate that support whenever you ask us to do so.

Sincerely,

C. Ronald Aycock
Executive Director

The Honorable James B. Black
Speaker of the House of Representatives
Legislative Building, Room 2304
Raleigh, NC 27601-1096

Dear Mr. Speaker:

This is to let you know the League's position on a proposed compromise revenue package to assist both state and local governments and resolve the difficult situation in the House.

The proposal, as we understand it, would authorize a one-half cent local option sales tax, effective January 1, 2003, as a partial replacement for this fiscal year's reimbursements for previously repealed local taxes. The reimbursements would be repealed immediately, and the current state one-half cent sales tax would be repealed effective December 31, 2002. In addition, all local option sales taxes would be subject to monthly distribution, beginning October 2002.

It is essential that the bill include the provisions of HB 1490 – Secure Local Revenues. As you know, Governor Easley served notice last week that he might withhold the municipal utility franchise tax payments and other local revenues in this fiscal year. Our membership will not accept the withholding of additional local funds by the Governor in the new fiscal year. This legislation will prevent it.

We regret that this proposal does not include the hold harmless funds for this fiscal year to help the municipalities and counties that are reimbursement intensive. That will hurt some units significantly. As we have discussed, it is essential that the full hold harmless provisions become effective on July 1, 2003, as provided in the House committee substitute for HB 1633 that was defeated last week.

This compromise proposal represents a partial solution to the problem and appears to be the best we can get for our municipalities, with the situation being as it is. For that reason, we pledge our support for this proposal in the House, although reluctantly, and request that members of the House support it.

Sincerely,

moves to amend the bill on page 4, line 35

by adding the following on the line:

"Section 1.16. The definitions in GS 105-521 apply in this section. As soon as practicable after September 15, 2002, the Secretary of Revenue must determine for each ~~local government~~ county the product of its local sales tax share multiplied by the estimated amount that all ~~local governments~~ counties/local governments would be expected to receive during 2002-2003 if every county levied the tax under GS 105-517 effective January 1, 2003. The Secretary shall then ~~compare~~ subtract from this estimated tax amount for each ~~local government~~ county to the ~~local government's~~ county's repealed reimbursement amount. If the ~~balance for any local government exceeds 200% of the~~ repealed reimbursement amount is more than three times the estimated tax amount for any ~~local government~~ county, the Secretary must pay that ~~local government~~ county the excess of its repealed reimbursement amount over three times its estimated tax amount. one-half percent (1/2%) local sales and use taxes, to replace the current one-half percent (1/2%) State sales and use taxes that end ~~July~~ January 1, 2003."

SECTION 1.3. G.S. 105-521(a)(3) reads as rewritten:

"(a) Definitions. – The following definitions apply in this section:

...

(3) Repealed reimbursement amount. – The total amount a local government would have been entitled to receive during the ~~2002-2003~~ 2001-2002 fiscal year under G.S. 105-164.44C, 105-275.1, 105-275.2, 105-277.001, and 105-277.1A, if the Governor had not withheld any distributions under those sections."

SECTION 1.4. G.S. 105-521, as amended by this act, is repealed effective July 1, 2012.

SECTION 1.5. Section 13(g) of S.L. 2001-427 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 13.(g) This section becomes effective ~~July 1, 2003,~~October 1, 2002, and applies to amounts collected on or after that date."

SECTION 1.6. Section 34.13(c) of S.L. 2001-424 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 34.13.(c) This section becomes effective October 16, 2001, and applies to sales made on or after that date. This section is repealed effective for sales made on or after ~~July~~ January 1, 2003. This section does not affect the rights or liabilities of the State, a taxpayer, or another person arising under a statute amended or repealed by this section before the effective date of its amendment or repeal; nor does it affect the right to any refund or credit of a tax that accrued under the amended or repealed statute before the effective date of its amendment or repeal."

SECTION 1.7. Effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002, G.S. 105-269.14(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Distribution. – The Secretary must distribute ~~one-third~~ a portion of the net use tax proceeds collected under this section to counties and ~~cities in proportion to their~~

~~total distributions under Articles 39, 40, and 42 of this Chapter and Chapter 1096 of the 1967 Session Laws for the most recent period for which data is available.~~ cities. The portion to be distributed to all counties and cities is the total net use tax proceeds collected under this section multiplied by a fraction. The numerator of the fraction is the local use tax proceeds collected under this section. The denominator of the fraction is the total use tax proceeds collected under this section. The Secretary must distribute this portion to the counties and cities in proportion to their total distributions under Articles 39, 40, 42, 43, and 44 of this Chapter and Chapter 1096 of the 1967 Session Laws for the most recent period for which data are available. The provisions of G.S. 105-472, 105-486, ~~and 105-501~~ 105-501, and 105-520 do not apply to tax proceeds distributed under this section."

SECTION 1.8. G.S. 159-15 reads as rewritten:

"§ 159-15. Amendments to the budget ordinance.

Except as otherwise restricted by law, the governing board may amend the budget ordinance at any time after the ordinance's adoption in any manner, so long as the ordinance, as amended, continues to satisfy the requirements of G.S. 159-8 and 159-13. However, except as otherwise provided in this section, no amendment may increase or reduce a property tax levy or in any manner alter a property taxpayer's liability, unless the board is ordered to do so by a court of competent jurisdiction, or by a State agency having the power to compel the levy of taxes by the board.

If after July 1 the local government receives additional and unanticipated revenues, the governing body may, before January 1, amend the budget ordinance to reduce the property tax levy to account for the unanticipated revenues.

The governing board by appropriate resolution or ordinance may authorize the budget officer to transfer moneys from one appropriation to another within the same fund subject to such limitations and procedures as it may prescribe. Any such transfers shall be reported to the governing board at its next regular meeting and shall be entered in the minutes."

SECTION 1.9. Section 34.14(b) of S.L. 2001-424 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 34.14.(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 105-466(c), a tax levied ~~during the 2003 calendar year~~ under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes, as enacted by this act, may become effective on the first day of any calendar month beginning on or after ~~July 1, 2003.~~January 1, 2003, and on or before July 1, 2003. Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 105-466(c), if a county levies a tax ~~during the 2003 calendar year~~ under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes, as enacted by this act, that is to become effective on or before July 1, 2003, the county is required to give the Secretary of Revenue only 30 days' advance notice of the tax levy. For taxes levied ~~on or~~under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes that become effective after ~~January 1, 2004,~~July 1, 2003, the provisions of G.S. 105-466(c) apply."

SECTION 1.10. Section 34.15(b) of S.L. 2001-424 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 34.15.(b) This section becomes effective July 1, ~~2003.~~2002."

SECTION 1.11. To the extent the Department of Revenue's nonrecurring costs of implementing and administering Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General

Statutes, as amended, exceed funds available in its budget for the 2002-2003 fiscal year, the Department may pay the excess cost by withholding up to two hundred seventy-five thousand dollars ($275,000) from collections under Subchapter VIII of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes.

SECTION 1.12. The Department of Revenue may contract for supplies, materials, equipment, and contractual services related to the provision of notice, the creation of tax forms and instructions, and the development of computer software necessitated by the amendments in this act without being subject to the requirements of Article 3 or Article 8 of Chapter 143 of the General Statutes.

SECTION 1.13.(a) The title of Article 39 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes reads as rewritten:

"Article 39.

First One-Cent (1¢) Local Government Sales and Use Tax."

SECTION 1.13.(b) G.S. 105-463 reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-463. Short title.

This Article ~~shall be known as the "Local~~ is the First One-Cent (1¢) Local Government Sales and Use Tax ~~Act."~~Act."

SECTION 1.14.(a) The title of Article 40 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes reads as rewritten:

"Article 40.

~~Supplemental~~ First One-Half Cent (1/2¢) Local Government Sales and Use ~~Taxes.~~Tax."

SECTION 1.14.(b) G.S. 105-480 reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-480. Short title.

This Article ~~shall be known as the Supplemental~~ is the First One-Half Cent (1/2¢) Local Government Sales and Use Tax Act."

SECTION 1.15.(a) The title of Article 42 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes reads as rewritten:

"Article 42.

~~Additional Supplemental~~ Second One-Half Cent (1/2¢) Local Government Sales and Use ~~Taxes.~~Tax."

SECTION 1.15.(b) G.S. 105-495 reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-495. Short title.

This Article ~~shall be known as the Additional Supplemental~~ is the Second One-Half Cent (1/2¢) Local Government Sales and Use Tax Act."

SECTION 1.16. The definitions in G.S. 105-521 apply in this section. As soon as practicable after September 15, 2002, the Secretary of Revenue must determine for each county the product of its local sales tax share multiplied by the estimated amount that all local governments would be expected to receive during the 2002-2003 fiscal year if every county levied the tax under G.S. 105-517 effective January 1, 2003. The Secretary must then compare this estimated tax amount for each county to the county's repealed reimbursement amount. If the repealed reimbursement amount is more than three times the estimated tax amount for any county, the Secretary must pay that county the excess of its repealed reimbursement amount over three times its estimated tax amount. The Secretary must draw these funds from the source provided in G.S. 105-521(c).

PART II. DELAY 2001 TAX BREAKS

SECTION 2.1.(a) The lead-in language of Section 34.19(a) of S.L. 2001-424 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 34.19.(a) Effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, ~~2002,~~2003, G.S. 105-134.6(c)(3) and (4) reads as rewritten:".

SECTION 2.1.(b) The lead-in language of Section 34.19(b) of S.L. 2001-424 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 34.19.(b) Effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, ~~2003,~~2004, G.S. 105-134.6(c)(4), as amended by this section, reads as rewritten:".

SECTION 2.2.(a) The lead-in language of Section 34.20(a) of S.L. 2001-424 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 34.20.(a) Effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, ~~2002,~~2003, G.S. 105-151.24 reads as rewritten:".

SECTION 2.2.(b) The lead-in language of Section 34.20(b) of S.L. 2001-424 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 34.20.(b) Effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, ~~2003,~~2004, G.S. 105-151.24, as amended by this section, reads as rewritten:".

PART III. UPDATE IRC REFERENCE

SECTION 3.1. G.S. 105-228.90(b)(1b) reads as rewritten:

"(1b) Code. – The Internal Revenue Code as enacted as of ~~January 1, 2001,~~May 1, 2002, including any provisions enacted as of that date which become effective either before or after that date."

SECTION 3.2.(a) G.S. 105-130.5(a) is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(a) The following additions to federal taxable income shall be made in determining State net income:

...

(15) The applicable percentage of the amount allowed as a thirty percent (30%) accelerated depreciation deduction under section 168(k) or section 1400L of the Code, as set out in the table below. In addition, a taxpayer who was allowed a thirty percent (30%) accelerated depreciation deduction under section 168(k) or section 1400L of the Code in a taxable year beginning before January 1, 2002, and whose North Carolina taxable income in that earlier year reflected that accelerated depreciation deduction must add to federal taxable income in the taxpayer's first taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 2002, an amount equal to the amount of the deduction allowed in the earlier taxable year. These adjustments do not result in a difference in basis of the affected assets for State and federal income tax purposes. The applicable percentage is as follows:

Taxable Year	Percentage
2002	100%
2003	70%
2004 and thereafter	0%"

SECTION 3.2.(b) G.S. 105-134.6(c) is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(c) Additions. – The following additions to taxable income shall be made in calculating North Carolina taxable income, to the extent each item is not included in taxable income:

...

(8) The applicable percentage of the amount allowed as a thirty percent (30%) accelerated depreciation deduction under section 168(k) or section 1400L of the Code, as set out in the table below. In addition, a taxpayer who was allowed a thirty percent (30%) accelerated depreciation deduction under section 168(k) or section 1400L of the Code in a taxable year beginning before January 1, 2002, and whose North Carolina taxable income in that earlier year reflected that accelerated depreciation deduction must add to federal taxable income in the taxpayer's first taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 2002, an amount equal to the amount of the deduction allowed in the earlier taxable year. These adjustments do not result in a difference in basis of the affected assets for State and federal income tax purposes. The applicable percentage is as follows:

Taxable Year	Percentage
2002	100%
2003	70%
2004 and thereafter	0%"

SECTION 3.2.(c) This section is effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002.

SECTION 3.3.(a) G.S. 105-130.5(b) is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(b) The following deductions from federal taxable income shall be made in determining State net income:

...

(21) In each of the taxpayer's first five taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2005, an amount equal to twenty percent (20%) of the amount added to taxable income in a previous year as accelerated depreciation under subdivision (a)(15) of this section."

SECTION 3.3.(b) G.S. 105-134.6(b) is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(b) Deductions. – The following deductions from taxable income shall be made in calculating North Carolina taxable income, to the extent each item is included in taxable income:

...

(17) In each of the taxpayer's first five taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2005, an amount equal to twenty percent (20%) of the amount added to taxable income in a previous year as accelerated depreciation under subdivision (c)(8) of this section."

SECTION 3.3.(c) This section is effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002.

SECTION 3.4.(a) G.S. 105-32.2(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Amount. – The amount of the estate tax imposed by this section is the maximum credit for state death taxes allowed under section 2011 of the ~~Code.~~ Code without regard to the phase-out of that credit under subdivision (b)(2) of that section. If any property in the estate is located in a state other than North Carolina, the amount of tax payable is the North Carolina percentage of the credit.

If the decedent was a resident of this State at death, the North Carolina percentage is the net value of the estate that does not have a tax situs in another state, divided by the net value of all property in the estate. If the decedent was not a resident of this State at death, the North Carolina percentage is the net value of real property that is located in North Carolina plus the net value of any personal property that has a tax situs in North Carolina, divided by the net value of all property in the estate, unless the decedent's state of residence uses a different formula to determine that state's percentage. In that circumstance, the North Carolina percentage is the amount determined by the formula used by the decedent's state of residence.

The net value of property that is located in or has a tax situs in this State is its gross value reduced by any debt secured by that property. The net value of all the property in the estate is its gross value reduced by any debts and deductions of the estate."

SECTION 3.4.(b) This section is effective on and after January 1, 2002, and applies to the estates of decedents dying on or after that date. This section is repealed effective for the estates of decedents dying on or after January 1, 2004.

SECTION 3.5. Effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002, G.S. 105-134.6(b)(13) is repealed.

SECTION 3.6. Notwithstanding Section 3.1 of this act, any amendments to the Internal Revenue Code enacted in 2001 that increase North Carolina taxable income for the 2001 taxable year become effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002.

SECTION 3.7.(a) G.S. 105-188(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) Annual Exclusion. – The annual exclusion amount is equal to the federal inflation-adjusted exclusion amount provided in section 2503(b) of the Code. Gifts not exceeding a total value ~~of ten thousand dollars ($10,000)~~equal to the annual exclusion amount made to any one donee in a calendar year are not taxable under this Article. When gifts exceeding a total value ~~of ten thousand dollars ($10,000)~~ equal to the annual exclusion amount are made to any one donee in a calendar year, only the portion of the gifts exceeding ~~ten thousand dollars ($10,000)~~the annual exclusion amount in value is taxable under this Article. This exclusion does not apply to gifts of future interests in property. For the purposes of determining the ~~exclusion herein provided,~~annual exclusion, no part of a gift to an individual, or in trust for an individual, who has not attained the age of 21 years on the date of ~~such~~ the transfer ~~shall be~~is considered a gift of a future interest in property if the property and the income therefrom meet all of the following conditions: (i) they may be expended by, or for the benefit of, the donee before ~~his attaining~~the donee reaches the age of 21 ~~years, and~~years; (ii) they will to the extent not so expended pass to the donee ~~on his attaining~~when the donee reaches the age of 21 ~~years, and~~years; and (iii) they will, in the event the donee dies before ~~attaining the age of 21 years,~~reaching that age, be payable to the estate of the donee or as ~~he~~ the donee may appoint under a general power of appointment.

When a gift is made by one spouse to a person other than the donor's spouse, the donor may claim both the donor's annual exclusion and the spouse's annual exclusion ~~provided that~~ if both spouses consent and both spouses are residents of this State when the gift is made. Consent to share annual gift tax exclusions ~~shall~~ must be made in writing on a timely filed gift tax return. Once given, consent to share annual exclusions is irrevocable."

SECTION 3.7.(b) This section is effective January 1, 2002, and applies to gifts made on or after that date."

PART IV. UNAUTHORIZED SUBSTANCE TAX EXPENSES

SECTION 4.1. G.S. 105-501 is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"...

In determining the net proceeds of the tax to be distributed, the Secretary shall deduct from the collections to be allocated an amount equal to one-fourth of the costs during the preceding fiscal year of:

...

(1a) Seventy percent (70%) of the expenses of the Department of Revenue in performing the duties imposed by Article 2D of this Chapter.

...."

SECTION 4.2. This Part becomes effective June 30, 2002.

PART V. INSURANCE REGULATORY CHARGE

SECTION 5.(a) The percentage rate to be used in calculating the insurance regulatory charge under G.S. 58-6-25 is six and one-half percent (6.5%) for the 2002 calendar year.

SECTION 5.(b) This section is effective when it becomes law.

PART VI. REGULATORY FEE FOR UTILITIES COMMISSION

SECTION 6.(a) The percentage rate to be used in calculating the public utility regulatory fee under G.S. 62-302(b)(2) is one-tenth percent (0.1%) for each public utility's North Carolina jurisdictional revenues earned during each quarter that begins on or after July 1, 2002.

SECTION 6.(b) The electric membership corporation regulatory fee imposed under G.S. 62-302(b1) for the 2002-2003 fiscal year is two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000).

SECTION 6.(c) This section becomes effective July 1, 2002.

PART VII. RESERVED

PART VIII. SECURE LOCAL REVENUES

SECTION 8.1. G.S. 105-113.82(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) Time. – The revenue shall be distributed to cities and counties within 60 days after March 31 of each year. The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 8.2. G.S. 105-116.1(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Distribution. – The Secretary must distribute to the cities part of the taxes collected under this Article on electric power companies. Each city's share for a calendar quarter is the percentage distribution amount for that city for that quarter minus one-fourth of the city's hold-back amount and one-fourth of the city's proportionate share of the annual cost to the Department of administering the distribution. The Secretary must make the distribution within 75 days after the end of each calendar quarter. The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 8.3. G.S. 105-187.44(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Distribution. – Within 75 days after the end of each calendar quarter, the Secretary must distribute to the cities part of the tax proceeds collected under this Article during that quarter. The amount to be distributed to a city is one-half of the amount of tax attributable to that city for that quarter under subsection (a) of this section. The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 8.4. G.S. 105-164.44F is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(f) Nature. – The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 8.5. G.S. 136-41.1 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(d) Nature. – The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 8.6. G.S. 159B-27(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) The State shall distribute to cities and towns which receive electric power and energy from their ownership share of a project or to which electric power and energy is sold by a joint agency an amount equal to a tax of three and nine hundredths percent (3.09%) of all moneys expended by a municipality on account of its ownership share of a project, including payment of principal and interest on bonds issued to finance such ownership share, or an amount equal to a tax of three and nine hundredths percent (3.09%) of the gross receipts from all sales of electric power and energy to such city or town by a joint agency, as the case may be. The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 8.7. G.S. 143-25 reads as rewritten:

"§ 143-25. Maintenance appropriations dependent upon adequacy of revenues to support them.

(a) All maintenance appropriations now or hereafter made are hereby declared to be maximum, conditional and proportionate appropriations, the purpose being to make the appropriations payable in full in the amounts named herein if necessary and then only in the event the aggregate revenues collected and available during each fiscal year of the biennium for which such appropriations are made, are sufficient to pay all of the appropriations in full; otherwise, the said appropriations shall be deemed to be payable in such proportion as the total sum of all appropriations bears to the total amount of revenue available in each of said fiscal years. ~~The~~ Except as provided in subsection (b) of this section, the Director of the Budget is ~~hereby~~ given full power and authority to examine and survey the progress of the collection of the revenue out of which such appropriations are to be made, and to declare and determine the amounts that can be, during each quarter of each of the fiscal years of the biennium properly allocated to each respective appropriation. In making such examination and survey, ~~he~~ the Director of the Budget shall receive estimates of the prospective collection of revenues from the Secretary of Revenue and every other revenue collecting agency of the State. The Director of the Budget may reduce all of said appropriations pro rata when necessary to prevent an overdraft or deficit to the fiscal period for which such appropriations are made. The Governor may also reduce all of said appropriations pursuant to Article III, Section 5(3) of the Constitution in accordance with subsection (b) of this section, after consulting with the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations under G.S. 120-76(8) if prior consultation is required by that section. The purpose and policy

of this Article are to provide and insure that there shall be no overdraft or deficit in the general fund of the State at the end of the fiscal period, growing out of appropriations for maintenance and the Director of the Budget is directed and required to so administer this Article as to prevent any such overdraft or deficit. Prior to taking any action under this section to reduce appropriations pro rata, the Governor may consult with the Advisory Budget Commission.

(b) The General Assembly recognizes that it has required units of local government to adopt and maintain annual balanced budgets and take other steps to assure financially sound operations under the Local Government Budget and Fiscal Control Act and other provisions of Chapter 159 of the General Statutes. Accordingly, the General Assembly finds that in order to satisfy those statutory requirements and provide adequate services to their citizens, units of local government must be able to rely on the funds and local revenue sources the General Assembly has provided.

It is the intent of the General Assembly that funds that have been collected by the State on behalf of local governments and funds that the General Assembly has appropriated or otherwise committed to local governments shall not be reduced except as provided in this section. In exercising the powers contained in Section 5(3) of Article III of the Constitution, the Governor shall not withhold from distribution funds that have been collected by the State on behalf of local governments or funds that the General Assembly has appropriated or otherwise committed to local governments unless, after making adequate provision for the prompt payment of principal of and interest on bonds and notes of the State according to their terms, the Governor has exhausted all other sources of revenue of the State including surplus remaining in the treasury at the beginning of the fiscal period and has been authorized to withhold the funds by an act of the General Assembly.

This subsection does not authorize the Governor to withhold revenues from taxes levied by units of local governments and collected by the State. The General Assembly recognizes that under Section 19 of Article I of the North Carolina Constitution and under the Due Process Clause of the United States Constitution, the State is prohibited from taking local tax revenue."

PART IX. CLOSE CORPORATE TAX LOOPHOLES

SECTION 9.1.(a) G.S. 105-130.4(a)(1) reads as rewritten:

"(1) "Business income" means ~~income arising from transactions and activity in the regular course of the corporation's trade or business and includes income from tangible and intangible property if the acquisition, management, and/or disposition of the property constitute integral parts of the corporation's regular trade or business operations.~~ all income that is apportionable under the United States Constitution."

SECTION 9.1.(b) This section is effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002.

SECTION 9.2.(a) G.S. 105-130.4(l) reads as rewritten:

"(l) (1) Sales factor. – The sales factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the total sales of the corporation in this State during the income year, and the denominator of which is the total sales of the corporation everywhere during the income year. Not withstanding any other provision under this Part, the receipts from any casual sale of property shall be excluded from both the numerator and the denominator of the sales factor. Where a corporation is not taxable in another state on its business income but is taxable in another state only because of nonbusiness income, all sales shall be treated as having been made in this State.

(2) Tangible personal property. – Sales of tangible personal property are excluded from the denominator if they are sales to the United States government or sales that are in a state in which the taxpayer is not taxable. Sales of tangible personal property are in this State if the property is received in this State by the ~~purchaser.~~purchaser and the purchaser is not the United States government. In the case of delivery of goods by common carrier or by other means of transportation, including transportation by the purchaser, the place at which the goods are ultimately received after all transportation has been completed shall be considered as the place at which the goods are received by the purchaser. Direct delivery into this State by the taxpayer to a person or firm designated by a purchaser from within or without the State shall constitute delivery to the purchaser in this State.

(3) Other sales. – Other sales are in this State if:

a. The receipts are from real or tangible personal property located in this State; or

b. The receipts are from intangible property and are received from sources within this State; or

c. The receipts are from services and the income-producing activities are in this State."

SECTION 9.2.(b) This section is effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002.

SECTION 9.3.(a) Section 2(a) of S.L. 2001-327 reads as rewritten:

"EQUALIZE FRANCHISE TAX ON CORPORATE-AFFILIATED LLCs

SECTION 2.(a) The General Assembly finds that most corporations engaged in business in this State comply with the State franchise tax on corporate assets. Some taxpayers, however, take advantage of an unintended loophole in the law and avoid franchise tax by transferring their assets to a controlled limited liability company. This tax avoidance creates an unfair burden on corporate citizens that pay the franchise tax on their assets. It is the intent of this section to apply the franchise tax equally to assets held by corporations and assets held by corporate-affiliated limited liability companies. It is also the intent of this section to provide that a criminal penalty applies to taxpayers who fraudulently evade the tax.

The General Assembly further finds that, after this loophole was closed in 2001, some taxpayers continue to avoid franchise tax by manipulating ownership of assets. One method is to interpose a controlled partnership between the corporation and the controlled limited liability company. This tax avoidance creates an unfair burden on corporate citizens that pay the franchise tax on their assets. It is the intent of the General Assembly to apply the franchise tax equally to assets held by corporations and assets held by corporate-controlled entities."

SECTION 9.3.(b) G.S. 105-114(c) is recodified as G.S. 105-114.1 and reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-114.1. Limited liability companies.

(a) Definitions. – The definitions in G.S. 105-130.7A apply in this section. In addition, the following definitions apply in this section:

(1) Governing law. – A limited liability company's governing law is determined under G.S. 57C-6-05 or G.S. 57C-7-01, as applicable.

(2) Owned indirectly. – A person owns indirectly assets of a limited liability company if the limited liability company's governing law provides that seventy percent (70%) or more of its assets, after payments to creditors, must be distributed upon dissolution to the person as of the last day of the principal corporation's taxable year.

(3) Principal corporation. – A corporation that is a member of a limited liability company or has a related member that is a member of a limited liability company.

(b) Controlled Companies. – If a corporation or a related member of the corporation is a member of a limited liability company and the principal corporation and any related members of the principal corporation together own indirectly ~~the limited liability company's governing law provides that~~ seventy percent (70%) or more of ~~its~~ the limited liability company's assets, ~~after payments to creditors, must be distributed upon dissolution to the member corporation or to includible corporations of an affiliated group in which the member corporation is includible,~~ then the following provisions apply:

(1) ~~(i) a~~A percentage of the limited liability company's income, assets, liabilities, and equity is attributed to that ~~member~~ principal corporation and must be included in the ~~member~~ principal corporation's computation of tax under this ~~Article, and (ii) the~~Article.

(2) The principal ~~member~~ corporation's investment in the limited liability company is not included in the ~~member~~ principal corporation's computation of tax under this Article.

(3) The attributable percentage is equal to the percentage of the limited liability company's ~~assets, after payments to creditors, that would be distributable to the member corporation~~ assets owned indirectly by the principal corporation divided by the percentage of the limited liability company's assets owned indirectly by related members of the principal corporation that are corporations. ~~under the limited liability company's~~

~~governing law if the limited liability company dissolved as of the last day of the member corporation's taxable year.~~

(c) Other Companies. – In all other cases, none of the limited liability company's income, assets, liabilities, or equity is attributed to a ~~member~~ principal corporation under this Article. ~~A limited liability company's governing law is determined under G.S. 57C-6-05 or G.S. 57C-7-01, as applicable. The definitions in section 1504 of the Code apply in this subsection.~~

(d) Penalty. – A taxpayer who, because of fraud with intent to evade tax, underpays the tax under this Article on assets attributable to it under this ~~subsection~~ section is guilty of a Class H felony in accordance with G.S. 105-236(7)."

SECTION 9.3.(c) This section becomes effective January 1, 2003, and applies to taxes due on or after that date.

PART X. HOUSING TAX CREDIT EFFECTIVE DATE CHANGE

SECTION 10. Section 10.(f) of S.L. 2000-56 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 10.(f) Low-Income Housing Credit Changes. – G.S. 105-129.16B(d), as amended by Section 7 of this act, is effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2000. The remainder of Section 7 is effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2001, applies to buildings to which federal credits are allocated on or after January 1, ~~2001,~~2000, and expires January 1, 2005."

PART XI. SEVERABILITY CLAUSE AND EFFECTIVE DATE

SECTION 11.1. The provisions of this act are severable. If any provision of this act is held invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalidity does not affect other provisions of the act that can be given effect without the invalid provision.

SECTION 11.2. Except as otherwise provided, this act is effective when it becomes law. Notwithstanding G.S. 105-163.15 and G.S. 105-163.41, no addition to tax may be made under those statutes for a taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 2002, and before January 1, 2003, with respect to an underpayment of corporate or individual income tax to the extent the underpayment was created or increased by this act.

MINUTES

HOUSE COMMITTEE ON FINANCE
July 24, 2002 P.M.

The House Committee on Finance met at 6:00 p. m. on Wednesday, July 24, 2002 in Room 544 of the Legislative Office Building. The following members were present: Chairmen Allen, Buchanan, Luebke, and Wainwright; Vice-Chairs Hill and Jarrell; and Representatives Alexander, Blust, Cox, Decker, Dedmon, Edwards, Gibson, Hackney, Holliman, Hurley, Johnson, McCombs, Morris, Pope, Rayfield, Weiss, Willingham, Wilson, Womble, Baddour, and Cunningham. Staff persons present included: Richard Bostic, David Crotts, Linda Millsaps, Canaan Huie, Martha Harris, and Committee Assistants Nancy Brantley, Blinda Edwards, Joyce Harris, and Glenda Jones. The Visitor Registration Sheet is attached and incorporated as a part of these minutes.

Representative Wainwright called the meeting to order. The purpose of the meeting was to reconsider the amendment that was adopted at the Finance meeting earlier that day for SB 1292, A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AND ACT TO DELAY THE INCREASE IN THE CHILD TAX CREDIT BY ONE YEAR; TO DELAY THE INCREASE IN THE STANDARD DEDUCTION FOR MARRIED PERSONS BY ONE YEAR; TO UPDATE THE REFERENCE DATE TO THE INTERNAL REVENUE CODE USED TO DEFINE AND DETERMINE CERTAIN STATE TAX PROVISIONS; TO CONFORM TO THE FEDERAL ANNUAL EXCLUSION AMOUNT FOR GIFT TAXES; TO DELAY THE EFFECT OF ACCELERATED DEPRECIATION UNDER SECTION 168 OF THE CODE AND SECTION 1400L OF THE CODE; TO DISREGARD THE PHASE-OUT OF THE STATE DEATH TAX CREDIT UNDER THE CODE; TO ALLOW THE SECRETARY OF REVENUE TO RECOUP A PORTION OF THE COSTS OF ADMINISTERING THE UNAUTHORIZED SUBSTANCES TAX FROM LOCAL SALES AND USE TAX DISTRIBUTIONS; TO SET THE INSURANCE REGULATORY FEE AND THE PUBLIC UTILITY REGULATORY FEES; TO PROVIDE THAT LOCAL REVENUES MAY NOT BE WITHHELD OR IMPOUNDED BY THE GOVERNOR; TO CONFORM THE DEFINITION OF BUSINESS INCOME TO FEDERAL STANDARDS; TO PROVIDE THAT IN APPORTIONING CORPORATE INCOME TO THIS STATE FOR INCOME TAX PURPOSES, SALES IN ANOTHER STATE OR COUNTRY WHERE THEY ARE NOT TAXABLE ARE NOT CONSIDERED; TO CLOSE A LOOPHOLE IN THE 2001 LEGISLATION INTENDED TO CLOSE A LOOPHOLE THAT ALLOWS CORPORATIONS TO AVOID FRANCHISE TAX LIABILITY BY TRANSFERRING ASSETS TO A LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY; AND TO ENLARGE THE CLASS OF TAXPAYERS ELIGIBLE FOR AN ENHANCED CREDIT FOR INVESTING IN LOW-INCOME HOUSING IN A COUNTY THAT SUSTAINED SEVERE OR MODERATE DAMAGE FROM A HURRICANE IN 1999. The amendment set up a different practice for "hold harmless" payments to the counties and the cities. The Proposed Committee Substitute before the committee, would provide a one-time payment in 2002 for those local governments that would lose the most revenue from the swap during 2002-2003. Representative Wainwright recognized Representative Buchanan for a motion to reconsider the Proposed Committee Substitute (PCS) for SB 1292. The motion carried and Representative Wainwright recognized Representatives Luebke and Baddour to explain the PCS.

Representative Baddour stated that the bill provided for a partial payment in 2002-2003 to those local governments with the greatest loss. The change could be found in Section 1.16 on page 4 of the PCS. Representative Luebke said that the change added 113 municipalities. The affected cities and counties could be found in the 2002-03 Sales Tax Swap Table.

Representative Wilson sent forth an amendment to amend the bill on page 2, line 17, page 2, line 24, and page 2, line 41, and moved for its adoption. The amendment changed the effective date the locals would get the sales tax money from January 1, 2003 to October 1, 2002. The impact on the state budget would be $90 million. Representative Luebke spoke in opposition to the amendment. Mr. Hankins of the League of Municipalities stated that the cities and counties supported the PCS. Representative Wilson called for a roll call vote. The amendment failed by a vote of 21 no votes to 7 yes votes.

Representative Hackney moved for a favorable report to the House Proposed Committee Substitute subject to technical changes for the underlining on the new PCS. The new PCS was given a favorable report.

The meeting adjourned at 6:30 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Blinda Edwards, Committee Assistant

Representative William Wainwright

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

PART I. ACCELERATE SALES TAX SWAP

SECTION 1.1. G.S. 105-517(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) Effective Date. – A tax levied under this Article may not become effective before ~~July~~ January 1, 2003."

SECTION 1.2. G.S. 105-518(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Ballot Question. – The question to be presented on a ballot for a special election concerning the levy of the taxes authorized by this Article must be in the following form:

[ ] FOR [ ] AGAINST

one-half percent (1/2%) local sales and use taxes, to replace the current one-half percent (1/2%) State sales and use taxes that end ~~July~~ January 1, 2003."

SECTION 1.3. G.S. 105-521(a)(3) reads as rewritten:

"(a) Definitions. – The following definitions apply in this section:

...

(3) Repealed reimbursement amount. – The total amount a local government would have been entitled to receive during the ~~2002-2003~~ 2001-2002 fiscal year under G.S. 105-164.44C, 105-275.1, 105-275.2, 105-277.001, and 105-277.1A, if the Governor had not withheld any distributions under those sections."

SECTION 1.4. G.S. 105-521, as amended by this act, is repealed effective July 1, 2012.

SECTION 1.5. Section 13(g) of S.L. 2001-427 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 13.(g) This section becomes effective ~~July 1, 2003,~~October 1, 2002, and applies to amounts collected on or after that date."

SECTION 1.6. Section 34.13(c) of S.L. 2001-424 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 34.13.(c) This section becomes effective October 16, 2001, and applies to sales made on or after that date. This section is repealed effective for sales made on or after ~~July~~ January 1, 2003. This section does not affect the rights or liabilities of the State, a taxpayer, or another person arising under a statute amended or repealed by this section before the effective date of its amendment or repeal; nor does it affect the right to any refund or credit of a tax that accrued under the amended or repealed statute before the effective date of its amendment or repeal."

SECTION 1.7. Effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002, G.S. 105-269.14(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Distribution. – The Secretary must distribute ~~one-third~~ a portion of the net use tax proceeds collected under this section to counties and ~~cities in proportion to their total distributions under Articles 39, 40, and 42 of this Chapter and Chapter 1096 of the 1967 Session Laws for the most recent period for which data is available.~~ cities. The portion to be distributed to all counties and cities is the total net use tax proceeds collected under this section multiplied by a fraction. The numerator of the fraction is the local use tax proceeds collected under this section. The denominator of the fraction is the total use tax proceeds collected under this section. The Secretary must distribute this portion to the counties and cities in proportion to their total distributions under Articles 39, 40, 42, 43, and 44 of this Chapter and Chapter 1096 of the 1967 Session Laws for the most recent period for which data are available. The provisions of G.S. 105-472, 105-486, ~~and 105-501~~ 105-501, and 105-520 do not apply to tax proceeds distributed under this section."

SECTION 1.8. G.S. 159-15 reads as rewritten:

"§ 159-15. Amendments to the budget ordinance.

Except as otherwise restricted by law, the governing board may amend the budget ordinance at any time after the ordinance's adoption in any manner, so long as the ordinance, as amended, continues to satisfy the requirements of G.S. 159-8 and 159-13. However, except as otherwise provided in this section, no amendment may increase or reduce a property tax levy or in any manner alter a property taxpayer's liability, unless the board is ordered to do so by a court of competent jurisdiction, or by a State agency having the power to compel the levy of taxes by the board.

If after July 1 the local government receives additional and unanticipated revenues, the governing body may, before January 1, amend the budget ordinance to reduce the property tax levy to account for the unanticipated revenues.

The governing board by appropriate resolution or ordinance may authorize the budget officer to transfer moneys from one appropriation to another within the same fund subject to such limitations and procedures as it may prescribe. Any such transfers shall be reported to the governing board at its next regular meeting and shall be entered in the minutes."

SECTION 1.9. Section 34.14(b) of S.L. 2001-424 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 34.14.(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 105-466(c), a tax levied ~~during the 2003 calendar year~~ under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes, as enacted by this act, may become effective on the first day of any calendar month beginning on or after ~~July 1, 2003.~~January 1, 2003, and on or before July 1, 2003. Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 105-466(c), if a county levies a tax ~~during the 2003 calendar year~~ under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes, as enacted by this act, that is to become effective on or before July 1, 2003, the county is required to give the Secretary of Revenue only 30 days' advance notice of the tax levy. For taxes levied ~~on or~~under Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes that become effective after ~~January 1, 2004,~~July 1, 2003, the provisions of G.S. 105-466(c) apply."

SECTION 1.10. Section 34.15(b) of S.L. 2001-424 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 34.15.(b) This section becomes effective July 1, ~~2003.~~2002."

SECTION 1.11. To the extent the Department of Revenue's nonrecurring costs of implementing and administering Article 44 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes, as amended, exceed funds available in its budget for the 2002-2003 fiscal year, the Department may pay the excess cost by withholding up to two hundred seventy-five thousand dollars ($275,000) from collections under Subchapter VIII of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes.

SECTION 1.12. The Department of Revenue may contract for supplies, materials, equipment, and contractual services related to the provision of notice, the creation of tax forms and instructions, and the development of computer software necessitated by the amendments in this act without being subject to the requirements of Article 3 or Article 8 of Chapter 143 of the General Statutes.

SECTION 1.13.(a) The title of Article 39 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes reads as rewritten:

"Article 39.

First One-Cent (1¢) Local Government Sales and Use Tax."

SECTION 1.13.(b) G.S. 105-463 reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-463. Short title.

This Article ~~shall be known as the "Local~~ is the First One-Cent (1¢) Local Government Sales and Use Tax ~~Act."~~Act."

SECTION 1.14.(a) The title of Article 40 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes reads as rewritten:

"Article 40.

~~Supplemental~~ First One-Half Cent (1/2¢) Local Government Sales and Use ~~Taxes.~~Tax."

SECTION 1.14.(b) G.S. 105-480 reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-480. Short title.

This Article ~~shall be known as the Supplemental~~ is the First One-Half Cent (1/2¢) Local Government Sales and Use Tax Act."

SECTION 1.15.(a) The title of Article 42 of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes reads as rewritten:

"Article 42.

~~Additional Supplemental~~ Second One-Half Cent (1/2¢) Local Government Sales and Use ~~Taxes.~~Tax."

SECTION 1.15.(b) G.S. 105-495 reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-495. Short title.

This Article ~~shall be known as the Additional Supplemental~~ is the Second One-Half Cent (1/2¢) Local Government Sales and Use Tax Act."

SECTION 1.16. The definitions in G.S. 105-521 apply in this section. As soon as practicable after September 15, 2002, the Secretary of Revenue must determine for each local government the product of its local sales tax share multiplied by the estimated amount that all local governments would be expected to receive during the 2002-2003 fiscal year if every county levied the tax under G.S. 105-517 effective January 1, 2003. The Secretary must then compare this estimated tax amount for each local government to the local government's repealed reimbursement amount. If the repealed reimbursement amount is more than three times the estimated tax amount for any local government, the Secretary must pay that local government the excess of its repealed reimbursement amount over three times its estimated tax amount. The Secretary must draw these funds from the source provided in G.S. 105-521(c).

PART II. DELAY 2001 TAX BREAKS

SECTION 2.1.(a) The lead-in language of Section 34.19(a) of S.L. 2001-424 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 34.19.(a) Effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, ~~2002~~,2003, G.S. 105-134.6(c)(3) and (4) reads as rewritten:".

SECTION 2.1.(b) The lead-in language of Section 34.19(b) of S.L. 2001-424 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 34.19.(b) Effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, ~~2003~~,2004, G.S. 105-134.6(c)(4), as amended by this section, reads as rewritten:".

SECTION 2.2.(a) The lead-in language of Section 34.20(a) of S.L. 2001-424 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 34.20.(a) Effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, ~~2002~~,2003, G.S. 105-151.24 reads as rewritten:".

SECTION 2.2.(b) The lead-in language of Section 34.20(b) of S.L. 2001-424 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 34.20.(b) Effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, ~~2003~~,2004, G.S. 105-151.24, as amended by this section, reads as rewritten:".

PART III. UPDATE IRC REFERENCE

SECTION 3.1. G.S. 105-228.90(b)(1b) reads as rewritten:

"(1b) Code. – The Internal Revenue Code as enacted as of ~~January 1, 2001~~,May 1, 2002, including any provisions enacted as of that date which become effective either before or after that date."

SECTION 3.2.(a) G.S. 105-130.5(a) is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(a) The following additions to federal taxable income shall be made in determining State net income:

...

(15) The applicable percentage of the amount allowed as a thirty percent (30%) accelerated depreciation deduction under section 168(k) or section 1400L of the Code, as set out in the table below. In addition, a taxpayer who was allowed a thirty percent (30%) accelerated depreciation deduction under section 168(k) or section 1400L of the Code in a taxable year beginning before January 1, 2002, and whose North Carolina taxable income in that earlier year reflected that accelerated depreciation deduction must add to federal taxable income in the taxpayer's first taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 2002, an amount equal to the amount of the deduction allowed in the earlier taxable year. These adjustments do not result in a difference in basis of the affected assets for State and federal income tax purposes. The applicable percentage is as follows:

Taxable Year	Percentage
2002	100%
2003	70%
2004 and thereafter	0%"

SECTION 3.2.(b) G.S. 105-134.6(c) is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(c) Additions. – The following additions to taxable income shall be made in calculating North Carolina taxable income, to the extent each item is not included in taxable income:

...

(8) The applicable percentage of the amount allowed as a thirty percent (30%) accelerated depreciation deduction under section 168(k) or section 1400L of the Code, as set out in the table below. In addition, a taxpayer who was allowed a thirty percent (30%) accelerated depreciation deduction under section 168(k) or section 1400L of the Code in a taxable year beginning before January 1, 2002, and whose North Carolina taxable income in that earlier year reflected that accelerated depreciation deduction must add to federal taxable income in the taxpayer's first taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 2002, an amount equal to the amount of the deduction allowed in the earlier taxable year. These adjustments do not result in a difference in basis of the affected assets for State and federal income tax purposes. The applicable percentage is as follows:

Taxable Year	Percentage
2002	100%
2003	70%
2004 and thereafter	0%"

SECTION 3.2.(c) This section is effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002.

SECTION 3.3.(a) G.S. 105-130.5(b) is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(b) The following deductions from federal taxable income shall be made in determining State net income:

...

(21) In each of the taxpayer's first five taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2005, an amount equal to twenty percent (20%) of the amount added to taxable income in a previous year as accelerated depreciation under subdivision (a)(15) of this section."

SECTION 3.3.(b) G.S. 105-134.6(b) is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(b) Deductions. – The following deductions from taxable income shall be made in calculating North Carolina taxable income, to the extent each item is included in taxable income:

...

(17) In each of the taxpayer's first five taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2005, an amount equal to twenty percent (20%) of the amount added to taxable income in a previous year as accelerated depreciation under subdivision (c)(8) of this section."

SECTION 3.3.(c) This section is effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002.

SECTION 3.4.(a) G.S. 105-32.2(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Amount. – The amount of the estate tax imposed by this section is the maximum credit for state death taxes allowed under section 2011 of the ~~Code.~~ Code without regard to the phase-out of that credit under subdivision (b)(2) of that section. If any property in the estate is located in a state other than North Carolina, the amount of tax payable is the North Carolina percentage of the credit.

If the decedent was a resident of this State at death, the North Carolina percentage is the net value of the estate that does not have a tax situs in another state, divided by the net value of all property in the estate. If the decedent was not a resident of this State at death, the North Carolina percentage is the net value of real property that is located in North Carolina plus the net value of any personal property that has a tax situs in North Carolina, divided by the net value of all property in the estate, unless the decedent's state of residence uses a different formula to determine that state's percentage. In that circumstance, the North Carolina percentage is the amount determined by the formula used by the decedent's state of residence.

The net value of property that is located in or has a tax situs in this State is its gross value reduced by any debt secured by that property. The net value of all the property in the estate is its gross value reduced by any debts and deductions of the estate."

SECTION 3.4.(b) This section is effective on and after January 1, 2002, and applies to the estates of decedents dying on or after that date. This section is repealed effective for the estates of decedents dying on or after January 1, 2004.

SECTION 3.5. Effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002, G.S. 105-134.6(b)(13) is repealed.

SECTION 3.6. Notwithstanding Section 3.1 of this act, any amendments to the Internal Revenue Code enacted in 2001 that increase North Carolina taxable income for the 2001 taxable year become effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002.

SECTION 3.7.(a) G.S. 105-188(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) Annual Exclusion. – The annual exclusion amount is equal to the federal inflation-adjusted exclusion amount provided in section 2503(b) of the Code. Gifts not exceeding a total value ~~of ten thousand dollars ($10,000)~~equal to the annual exclusion amount made to any one donee in a calendar year are not taxable under this Article.

When gifts exceeding a total value ~~of ten thousand dollars ($10,000)~~ equal to the annual exclusion amount are made to any one donee in a calendar year, only the portion of the gifts exceeding ~~ten thousand dollars ($10,000)~~the annual exclusion amount in value is taxable under this Article. This exclusion does not apply to gifts of future interests in property. For the purposes of determining the ~~exclusion herein provided,~~annual exclusion, no part of a gift to an individual, or in trust for an individual, who has not attained the age of 21 years on the date of ~~such~~ the transfer ~~shall be~~is considered a gift of a future interest in property if the property and the income therefrom meet all of the following conditions: (i) they may be expended by, or for the benefit of, the donee before ~~his attaining~~the donee reaches the age of 21 ~~years, and~~years; (ii) they will to the extent not so expended pass to the donee ~~on his attaining~~when the donee reaches the age of 21 ~~years, and~~years; and (iii) they will, in the event the donee dies before ~~attaining the age of 21 years,~~reaching that age, be payable to the estate of the donee or as ~~he~~ the donee may appoint under a general power of appointment.

When a gift is made by one spouse to a person other than the donor's spouse, the donor may claim both the donor's annual exclusion and the spouse's annual exclusion ~~provided that~~ if both spouses consent and both spouses are residents of this State when the gift is made. Consent to share annual gift tax exclusions ~~shall~~ must be made in writing on a timely filed gift tax return. Once given, consent to share annual exclusions is irrevocable."

SECTION 3.7.(b) This section is effective January 1, 2002, and applies to gifts made on or after that date."

PART IV. UNAUTHORIZED SUBSTANCE TAX EXPENSES

SECTION 4.1. G.S. 105-501 is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"...

In determining the net proceeds of the tax to be distributed, the Secretary shall deduct from the collections to be allocated an amount equal to one-fourth of the costs during the preceding fiscal year of:

...

(1a) Seventy percent (70%) of the expenses of the Department of Revenue in performing the duties imposed by Article 2D of this Chapter.

...."

SECTION 4.2. This Part becomes effective June 30, 2002.

PART V. INSURANCE REGULATORY CHARGE

SECTION 5.(a) The percentage rate to be used in calculating the insurance regulatory charge under G.S. 58-6-25 is six and one-half percent (6.5%) for the 2002 calendar year.

SECTION 5.(b) This section is effective when it becomes law.

PART VI. REGULATORY FEE FOR UTILITIES COMMISSION

SECTION 6.(a) The percentage rate to be used in calculating the public utility regulatory fee under G.S. 62-302(b)(2) is one-tenth percent (0.1%) for each public utility's North Carolina jurisdictional revenues earned during each quarter that begins on or after July 1, 2002.

SECTION 6.(b) The electric membership corporation regulatory fee imposed under G.S. 62-302(b1) for the 2002-2003 fiscal year is two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000).

SECTION 6.(c) This section becomes effective July 1, 2002.

PART VII. RESERVED

PART VIII. SECURE LOCAL REVENUES

SECTION 8.1. G.S. 105-113.82(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) Time. – The revenue shall be distributed to cities and counties within 60 days after March 31 of each year. The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 8.2. G.S. 105-116.1(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Distribution. – The Secretary must distribute to the cities part of the taxes collected under this Article on electric power companies. Each city's share for a calendar quarter is the percentage distribution amount for that city for that quarter minus one-fourth of the city's hold-back amount and one-fourth of the city's proportionate share of the annual cost to the Department of administering the distribution. The Secretary must make the distribution within 75 days after the end of each calendar quarter. The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 8.3. G.S. 105-187.44(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Distribution. – Within 75 days after the end of each calendar quarter, the Secretary must distribute to the cities part of the tax proceeds collected under this Article during that quarter. The amount to be distributed to a city is one-half of the amount of tax attributable to that city for that quarter under subsection (a) of this section. The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 8.4. G.S. 105-164.44F is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(f) Nature. – The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 8.5. G.S. 136-41.1 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(d) Nature. – The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 8.6. G.S. 159B-27(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) The State shall distribute to cities and towns which receive electric power and energy from their ownership share of a project or to which electric power and energy is sold by a joint agency an amount equal to a tax of three and nine hundredths percent (3.09%) of all moneys expended by a municipality on account of its ownership share of a project, including payment of principal and interest on bonds issued to finance such ownership share, or an amount equal to a tax of three and nine hundredths percent (3.09%) of the gross receipts from all sales of electric power and energy to such city or town by a joint agency, as the case may be. The General Assembly finds that the revenue distributed under this section is local revenue, not a State expenditure, for the purpose of Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution. Therefore, the Governor may not reduce or withhold the distribution."

SECTION 8.7. G.S. 143-25 reads as rewritten:

"§ 143-25. Maintenance appropriations dependent upon adequacy of revenues to support them.

(a) All maintenance appropriations now or hereafter made are hereby declared to be maximum, conditional and proportionate appropriations, the purpose being to make the appropriations payable in full in the amounts named herein if necessary and then only in the event the aggregate revenues collected and available during each fiscal year of the biennium for which such appropriations are made, are sufficient to pay all of the appropriations in full; otherwise, the said appropriations shall be deemed to be payable in such proportion as the total sum of all appropriations bears to the total amount of revenue available in each of said fiscal years. ~~The~~ Except as provided in subsection (b) of this section, the Director of the Budget is ~~hereby~~ given full power and authority to examine and survey the progress of the collection of the revenue out of which such appropriations are to be made, and to declare and determine the amounts that can be, during each quarter of each of the fiscal years of the biennium properly allocated to each respective appropriation. In making such examination and survey, ~~he~~ the Director of the Budget shall receive estimates of the prospective collection of revenues from the Secretary of Revenue and every other revenue collecting agency of the State. The Director of the Budget may reduce all of said appropriations pro rata when necessary to prevent an overdraft or deficit to the fiscal period for which such appropriations are made. The Governor may also reduce all of said appropriations pursuant to Article III, Section 5(3) of the Constitution in accordance with subsection (b) of this section, after consulting with the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations under G.S. 120-76(8) if prior consultation is required by that section. The purpose and policy of this Article are to provide and insure that there shall be no overdraft or deficit in the general fund of the State at the end of the fiscal period, growing out of appropriations for maintenance and the Director of the Budget is directed and required to so administer this Article as to prevent any such overdraft or deficit. Prior to taking any action under this section to reduce appropriations pro rata, the Governor may consult with the Advisory Budget Commission.

(b) The General Assembly recognizes that it has required units of local government to adopt and maintain annual balanced budgets and take other steps to assure financially sound operations under the Local Government Budget and Fiscal Control Act and other provisions of Chapter 159 of the General Statutes. Accordingly, the General Assembly finds that in order to satisfy those statutory requirements and provide adequate services to their citizens, units of local government must be able to rely on the funds and local revenue sources the General Assembly has provided.

It is the intent of the General Assembly that funds that have been collected by the State on behalf of local governments and funds that the General Assembly has appropriated or otherwise committed to local governments shall not be reduced except as provided in this section. In exercising the powers contained in Section 5(3) of Article III of the Constitution, the Governor shall not withhold from distribution funds that have been collected by the State on behalf of local governments or funds that the General Assembly has appropriated or otherwise committed to local governments unless, after making adequate provision for the prompt payment of principal of and interest on bonds and notes of the State according to their terms, the Governor has exhausted all other sources of revenue of the State including surplus remaining in the treasury at the beginning of the fiscal period and has been authorized to withhold the funds by an act of the General Assembly.

This subsection does not authorize the Governor to withhold revenues from taxes levied by units of local governments and collected by the State. The General Assembly recognizes that under Section 19 of Article I of the North Carolina Constitution and under the Due Process Clause of the United States Constitution, the State is prohibited from taking local tax revenue."

PART IX. CLOSE CORPORATE TAX LOOPHOLES

SECTION 9.1.(a) G.S. 105-130.4(a)(1) reads as rewritten:

"(1) "Business income" means ~~income arising from transactions and activity in the regular course of the corporation's trade or business and includes income from tangible and intangible property if the acquisition, management, and/or disposition of the property constitute integral parts of the corporation's regular trade or business operations.~~ all income that is apportionable under the United States Constitution."

SECTION 9.1.(b) This section is effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002.

SECTION 9.2.(a) G.S. 105-130.4(l) reads as rewritten:

"(l) (1) Sales factor. – The sales factor is a fraction, the numerator of which is the total sales of the corporation in this State during the income year, and the denominator of which is the total sales of the corporation everywhere during the income year. Not withstanding any other provision under this Part, the receipts from any casual sale of property shall be excluded from both the numerator and the denominator of the sales factor. Where a corporation is not taxable in another state on its business income but is taxable in another state only because of nonbusiness income, all sales shall be treated as having been made in this State.

(2) Tangible personal property. – Sales of tangible personal property are excluded from the denominator if they are sales to the United States government or sales that are in a state in which the taxpayer is not taxable. Sales of tangible personal property are in this State if the property is received in this State by the ~~purchaser.~~purchaser and the purchaser is not the United States government. In the case of delivery of goods by common carrier or by other means of transportation, including transportation by the purchaser, the place at which the goods are ultimately received after all transportation has been completed shall be considered as the place at which the goods are received by the purchaser. Direct delivery into this State by the taxpayer to a person or firm designated by a purchaser from within or without the State shall constitute delivery to the purchaser in this State.

(3) Other sales. – Other sales are in this State if:

a. The receipts are from real or tangible personal property located in this State; or

b. The receipts are from intangible property and are received from sources within this State; or

c. The receipts are from services and the income-producing activities are in this State."

SECTION 9.2.(b) This section is effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002.

SECTION 9.3.(a) Section 2(a) of S.L. 2001-327 reads as rewritten:

"EQUALIZE FRANCHISE TAX ON CORPORATE-AFFILIATED LLCs

SECTION 2.(a) The General Assembly finds that most corporations engaged in business in this State comply with the State franchise tax on corporate assets. Some taxpayers, however, take advantage of an unintended loophole in the law and avoid franchise tax by transferring their assets to a controlled limited liability company. This tax avoidance creates an unfair burden on corporate citizens that pay the franchise tax on their assets. It is the intent of this section to apply the franchise tax equally to assets held by corporations and assets held by corporate-affiliated limited liability companies. It is also the intent of this section to provide that a criminal penalty applies to taxpayers who fraudulently evade the tax.

The General Assembly further finds that, after this loophole was closed in 2001, some taxpayers continue to avoid franchise tax by manipulating ownership of assets. One method is to interpose a controlled partnership between the corporation and the controlled limited liability company. This tax avoidance creates an unfair burden on corporate citizens that pay the franchise tax on their assets. It is the intent of the General Assembly to apply the franchise tax equally to assets held by corporations and assets held by corporate-controlled entities."

SECTION 9.3.(b) G.S. 105-114(c) is recodified as G.S. 105-114.1 and reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-114.1. Limited liability companies.

(a) Definitions. – The definitions in G.S. 105-130.7A apply in this section. In addition, the following definitions apply in this section:

(1) Governing law. – A limited liability company's governing law is determined under G.S. 57C-6-05 or G.S. 57C-7-01, as applicable.

(2) Owned indirectly. – A person owns indirectly assets of a limited liability company if the limited liability company's governing law provides that seventy percent (70%) or more of its assets, after payments to creditors, must be distributed upon dissolution to the person as of the last day of the principal corporation's taxable year.

(3) Principal corporation. – A corporation that is a member of a limited liability company or has a related member that is a member of a limited liability company.

(b) Controlled Companies. – If a corporation or a related member of the corporation is a member of a limited liability company and the principal corporation and any related members of the principal corporation together own indirectly ~~the limited liability company's governing law provides that~~ seventy percent (70%) or more of ~~its~~ the limited liability company's assets, ~~after payments to creditors, must be distributed upon dissolution to the member corporation or to includible corporations of an affiliated group in which the member corporation is includible,~~ then the following provisions apply:

(1) ~~(i)~~ A percentage of the limited liability company's income, assets, liabilities, and equity is attributed to that ~~member~~ principal corporation and must be included in the ~~member~~ principal corporation's computation of tax under this ~~Article, and (ii) the~~Article.

(2) The principal ~~member~~ corporation's investment in the limited liability company is not included in the ~~member~~ principal corporation's computation of tax under this Article.

(3) The attributable percentage is equal to the percentage of the limited liability company's ~~assets, after payments to creditors, that would be distributable to the member corporation~~ assets owned indirectly by the principal corporation divided by the percentage of the limited liability company's assets owned indirectly by related members of the principal corporation that are corporations. ~~under the limited liability company's~~

~~governing law if the limited liability company dissolved as of the last day of the member corporation's taxable year.~~

(c) Other Companies. – In all other cases, none of the limited liability company's income, assets, liabilities, or equity is attributed to a ~~member~~ principal corporation under this Article. ~~A limited liability company's governing law is determined under G.S. 57C-6-05 or G.S. 57C-7-01, as applicable. The definitions in section 1504 of the Code apply in this subsection.~~

(d) Penalty. – A taxpayer who, because of fraud with intent to evade tax, underpays the tax under this Article on assets attributable to it under this ~~subsection~~ section is guilty of a Class H felony in accordance with G.S. 105-236(7)."

SECTION 9.3.(c) This section becomes effective January 1, 2003, and applies to taxes due on or after that date.

PART X. HOUSING TAX CREDIT EFFECTIVE DATE CHANGE

SECTION 10. Section 10.(f) of S.L. 2000-56 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 10.(f) Low-Income Housing Credit Changes. – G.S. 105-129.16B(d), as amended by Section 7 of this act, is effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2000. The remainder of Section 7 is effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2001, applies to buildings to which federal credits are allocated on or after January 1, ~~2001,~~2000, and expires January 1, 2005."

PART XI. SEVERABILITY CLAUSE AND EFFECTIVE DATE

SECTION 11.1. The provisions of this act are severable. If any provision of this act is held invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalidity does not affect other provisions of the act that can be given effect without the invalid provision.

SECTION 11.2. Except as otherwise provided, this act is effective when it becomes law. Notwithstanding G.S. 105-163.15 and G.S. 105-163.41, no addition to tax may be made under those statutes for a taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 2002, and before January 1, 2003, with respect to an underpayment of corporate or individual income tax to the extent the underpayment was created or increased by this act.

Senate Bill 1292:
Budget Revenue Act of 2002

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee: House Floor
Date: July 24, 2002
Version: 5th Edition

Introduced by: Senators Kerr and Hoyle
Summary by: Finance Team

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 1292 contains the following tax changes:

- PART I accelerates the 2001 legislation establishing a sales tax swap, as follows:
  - Accelerates the effective date of the local option sales tax from July 1, 2003, to January 1, 2003.
  - Accelerates the sunset of the State's half-cent sales tax from July 1, 2003, to January 1, 2003.
  - Accelerates the repeal of the tax reimbursements, from July 1, 2003, to July 1, 2002.
  - Does not accelerate the hold harmless for local governments beginning in the 2003-2004 fiscal year, but provides a partial payment in 2002-2003 to those local governments with the greatest loss. Also sunsets the hold harmless provision in 2012.
  - Accelerates the change from quarterly sales tax distributions to monthly sales tax distributions, from July 1, 2003, to October 1, 2002.
- PART II delays the income tax breaks enacted in 2001. This Part is identical to the Senate version.
  - The phase-in of the increase in the standard deduction for married taxpayers is delayed until January 1, 2003.
  - The phase-in of the additional child tax credit amount is delayed until January 1, 2003.
- PART III conforms North Carolina's tax laws to many of the federal tax law changes enacted in 2001 and 2002, and to the gift tax annual exclusion. Except for the gift tax change and a reduction in the bonus depreciation add-back, this Part is identical to the Senate version.
  - Conform to the educational provisions in EGTRRA.
  - Conform to the pension tax provisions in EGTRRA.
  - Conform to the net operating loss provisions in EGTRRA.
  - Conform to the miscellaneous provisions in EGTRRA and in the Job Creation and Worker Assistance Act of 2002.
  - Conform to the increased estate tax limits in EGTRRA.
  - The bill does NOT conform to either the phase-out of the State estate death tax credit in EGTRRA or the accelerated depreciation provisions in the Job Creation and Worker Assistance Act of 2002.
- PART IV provides that local governments will bear a portion of the costs associated with the collection of the drug tax. These costs are currently borne entirely by the General Fund. Except for a correction to the effective date, this Part is identical to the Senate version.

- PART V sets the insurance regulatory fee at 6.5% for the 2002 calendar year. This rate is the same as the 2001 rate. This Part is identical to the Senate version.
- PART VI sets the public utility regulatory fee at 0.1% for the 2002-2003 fiscal year. It also sets the electric membership corporation regulatory fee at $200,000 for the 2002-03 fiscal year. These rates are the same as the rates established last year. This Part is identical to the Senate version.
- PART VII is reserved.
- PART VIII seeks to secure local revenues in two ways, listed below. This Part is identical to House Bill 1490 as it passed the House. It is similar to the corresponding provision in the Senate version.[1]
  - It prohibits the Governor from withholding certain shared tax revenues by classifying them as "local revenues" rather than "State expenditures" thus arguably removing those funds from the scope of the Governor's constitutional budgetary authority.
  - It restricts the Governor's ability to withhold funds otherwise appropriated or committed to local governments, including reimbursement money, by requiring that the Governor first exhaust all other sources of revenue, including surplus in the treasury at the beginning of the fiscal period, and be authorized to withhold the funds by an act of the General Assembly.
- PART IX closes three corporate tax loopholes, as described below. There is no corresponding provision in the Senate version.
  - Broadens the definition of "business income" to include all income that states can apportion for corporate income tax purposes under the U.S. Constitution, effective beginning with the 2002 tax year.
  - Provides that sales that no state or country has the right to tax are "thrown out" of the calculation of profits to apportioned among the states, thereby increasing the percentage apportioned to North Carolina for the purpose of corporate income taxation, effective beginning with the 2002 tax year.
  - Tightens the 2001 legislation that was intended to close a loophole that allows corporations to escape franchise tax by transferring assets to a controlled limited liability company, effective beginning with payments due in March 2003.
- PART X enlarges the class of taxpayers eligible for an enhanced credit for investing in low-income housing in a county that sustained severe or moderate damage from a hurricane in 1999. There is no corresponding provision in the Senate version.

---

[1] The Senate version lacks the conforming change to the electric cities statute, and lacks the extra requirement that the Governor needs General Assembly authorization before releasing any funds committed to local governments.

PART I: ACCELERATE SALES TAX SWAP

State and Local Sales Tax Changes.

Part I of this bill accelerates many of the provisions enacted last session and modifies others. The 2001 legislation authorized counties to levy additional local sales taxes of ½%, effective July 1, 2003. Under this bill, the tax may become effective as early as January 1, 2003. The 2001 legislation imposed an additional State ½% sales tax that was set to expire July 1, 2003. The bill would sunset this State tax January 1, 2003. Thus, the combined State and local rate would never exceed 6 ½%. To accomplish the sales tax acceleration, the bill provides for the following:

- It would allow the counties to enact the tax in the first 6 months of 2003 with a shortened notice to the Department of Revenue.
- It would allow counties and cities to amend their budget ordinances after July 1st to reduce their property tax levy to account for unanticipated revenues.
- It would authorize the Department of Revenue to withhold up to $275,000 for 2002-2003 to cover its excess nonrecurring costs for implementing the new sales tax on short notice.
- It would exempt the Department of Revenue from the public contract bidding requirements for the procurement of supplies, materials, equipment, and contractual services related to the provision of notice and the development of computer software necessitated by the expedited provisions of the bill.

Under general law, a county must give the Secretary of Revenue at least 90 days advance notice of a new tax levy or tax rate change; and a new tax levy or a tax rate change may become effective only on January 1 or July 1. This bill provides for an expedited levy. If the county enacts the tax effective to become effective in the first half of the 2003 calendar year, the tax may become effective on the first day of any month from January through July and the county must give the Secretary only 30 days advance notice of the tax levy. Thereafter, the current law requirements of 90 days notice and a January 1 or July 1 effective date are reinstated.

Under current law, counties are authorized to levy up to 2% local sales and use taxes[2]. All counties levy the maximum rate. The State collects the tax and distributes it quarterly to the counties and municipalities. In 2001, the General Assembly provided that local sales taxes must be distributed monthly rather than quarterly, effective July 1, 2003. This bill accelerates the effective date of the monthly distribution schedule to October 1, 2002.

Local Government Reimbursements.

In 2001, the General Assembly repealed all of the State's reimbursement payments to local governments, effective beginning with the 2003-2004 fiscal year. This bill would accelerate the repeal, effective July 1, 2002.

The 2001 legislation provided local governments "hold harmless" payments beginning in 2003-2004 if the amount they could potentially realize from the levy of the half-cent sales tax was less than the amount they would lose from the reimbursements. This bill does not accelerate the hold harmless provision, so it will not be in effect for the 2002-2003 fiscal year. The bill does, however, provide a one-time payment in 2002 for those local governments that would lose the most revenue from the swap during 2002-2003. If a local government's loss from the repeal of the reimbursements exceeds three times its potential proceeds from the new tax, the Department of Revenue will pay the excess to the local government.

[2] Mecklenburg County is authorized to levy up to 2 ½% local sales and use taxes.

The full, annual hold harmless payments will begin September 15, 2003, under the provision enacted in the 2001 legislation. This bill sunsets these hold harmless payments after the September 15, 2011 payment. The Department of Revenue will make these hold harmless distribution annually, drawing the funds from State sales tax collections.

State reimbursements are amounts distributed to local units to compensate them for revenue lost as a result of the removal by the General Assembly of property from the local sales and use tax base, the local property tax base, or the intangibles tax base. State reimbursements consist of reimbursements for the repeal of the property tax on inventories and on poultry and livestock, the repeal of the intangibles tax, the "homestead exclusion" from property tax, and the repeal of local sales and use taxes on food purchased with food stamps.

This bill does not repeal or reduce the distribution of local government tax-sharing revenues: excise tax on beer and wine, franchise tax on electricity, gross receipts tax on piped natural gas, sales tax on telecommunications service, and the Powell bill revenues.

PART II: DELAY 2001 TAX BREAKS

Last session, the General Assembly enacted two income tax breaks to become effective for 2002 tax year[3]: elimination of the marriage tax penalty[4] and an increased tax credit for children. Part II of this bill delays the enactment of these tax benefits.

Last session, the General Assembly reduced North Carolina income taxes on married couples that claim the standard deduction[5] by increasing the amount of the standard deduction for married filers so that it would be twice that of a single taxpayer. Since 1989, the basic standard deduction for a single person in North Carolina has been $3,000 while that for a married couple filing jointly has been $5,000. The increase in the deduction enacted in 2001 is phased in over the 2002 and 2003 tax years. The standard deduction for married persons filing separately is one-half that for a married couple filing jointly, so the 2001 act also phased it up from $2,500 to

[3] S.L. 2001-424, as amended by S.L. 2001-476, 2001-497, and 2001-489.

[4] The so-called married tax penalty is the result of a tax system that recognizes that a married couple's living expenses are less than the expenses of two single people living separately but more than the expenses of one single person. In addition, if one spouse is not employed full-time, a married couple's income would be less than that of two comparable single people who work full-time, but more than that of one single person. The tax law addresses these situations through the tax brackets, the personal exemptions, and the standard deduction. The result of these tax provisions is that a married couple with only one spouse working experiences a tax reduction when they marry, a married couple where one spouse earns substantially more than the other experiences no tax reduction or increase when they marry, and a married couple with both spouses earning roughly the same amount experience a tax increase when they marry.

[5] Roughly 70% of North Carolina taxpayers claim the standard deduction.

$3,000 over the 2002 and 2003 tax years. Part II of this bill would delay by one year the phase-in of the increased deduction, so that it would occur over the 2003 and 2004 tax years.

In 2001, the General Assembly increased the $60 tax credit per child to $75 for the 2002 tax year and to $100 for the 2003 tax year. Part II of this bill would delay the phase-in of the credit increase until the 2003 and 2004 tax years. The 1995 General Assembly enacted the tax credit of $60 per child for taxpayers who have dependent children and have family adjusted gross income below $100,000 for a married couple and $80,000 for a head of household. Neither the 2001 act nor this bill changes the income thresholds. The credit is in addition to the federal and state tax credits or exclusions for child care expenses. The credit is allowed for each dependent child for whom the eligible taxpayer could take a federal personal exemption under section 151(c)(1)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code. That Code section allows an exemption for each dependent child who either is less than 19 years old at the end of the taxable year or is a student and is less than 24 years old at the end of the taxable year. A child is a son, stepson, daughter, or stepdaughter. A dependent child is a child over half of whose support was provided by the taxpayer.

PART III: UPDATE IRC REFERENCE

North Carolina's tax law tracks many provisions of the federal Internal Revenue Code, by reference to the Code.[6] The General Assembly determines each year whether to update its reference to the Internal Revenue Code.[7] Updating the Internal Revenue Code reference makes recent amendments to the Code applicable to the State to the extent that State law previously tracked federal law. The General Assembly's decision whether to conform to federal changes is based on the fiscal, practical, and policy implications of the federal changes and is normally enacted in the following year, rather than in the same year the federal changes are made.

Congress enacted two bills that have changed the Code significantly since January 1, 2001:

- The Economic Growth and Tax Relief Reconciliation Act of 2001 (EGTRRA), enacted on June 7, 2001, includes numerous changes to the taxation of pension benefits, accounts, distributions, and rollovers; of education initiatives; and of estates. All of the provisions of EGTRRA will expire on December 31, 2010, unless the provisions are renewed or modified by Congressional action.[8]
- The federal Job Creation and Worker Assistance Act of 2002, enacted March 9, 2002, includes an accelerated 30% bonus depreciation allowance for certain assets placed in service after September 10, 2001, and before September 11, 2004, and an extension of the [6] North Carolina first began referencing the Internal Revenue Code in 1967, the year it changed its taxation of corporate income to a percentage of federal taxable income.

[7] The North Carolina Constitution imposes an obstacle to a statute that automatically adopts any changes in federal tax law. Article V, Section 2(1) of the Constitution provides in pertinent part that the "power of taxation ... shall never be surrendered, suspended, or contracted away." Relying on this provision, the North Carolina court decisions on delegation of legislative power to administrative agencies, and an analysis of the few federal cases on this issue, the Attorney General's Office concluded in a memorandum issued in 1977 to the Director of the Tax Research Division of the Department of Revenue that a "statute which adopts by reference future amendments to the Internal Revenue Code would ... be invalidated as an unconstitutional delegation of legislative power."

[8] The Congressional Budget Act of 1974 mandates this sunset provision.

carryback period for net operating losses occurring in tax years ending in 2001 and 2002 from two years to five years.

Both of these acts will substantially affect a taxpayer's federal taxable income. Since North Carolina begins its corporate and individual income tax calculations with federal taxable income, these acts also have a substantial impact on North Carolina's tax revenues to the extent the State chooses to conform to those changes.

Part III of this bill rewrites the definition of the Code to change the reference date from January 1, 2001, to May 1, 2002. It then provides that a taxpayer must add to federal taxable income the amount allowed as an accelerated depreciation deduction under section 168(k) or 1400L of the Code and that a taxpayer's estate tax liability is determined without regard to the phase-out of the state death tax credit. In effect, Part III would do the following:

- Conform to all of the pension tax changes in the Code.
- Conform to all of the education initiatives in the Code.
- Conform to the increased estate tax exemption limitations.
- Not conform to the phase-out of the state death tax credit.
- Conform to the extension of the carryback period for net operating losses occurring in tax years ending in 2001 and 2002.
- Delay the accelerated 30% bonus depreciation allowance.

Pension Tax Provisions: This Part conforms North Carolina's tax treatment of pension benefits and distributions to federal law. Some of the more notable changes EGTRRA made to the pension laws include:

- It allows taxpayers to contribute more to their tax-deferred retirement accounts. It gradually increases the amount that may be contributed to a 401(k), 403(b), and 457 accounts between 2002 and 2006. The contribution limit will increase to $15,000 in 2006. Starting in 2007, the limit will be indexed for inflation in $500 increments. It also allows persons who are 50 or older to make an additional catch-up contribution to their tax-deferred retirement accounts.
- It increases the amounts that may be contributed to both traditional IRAs and Roth IRAs from $2,000 in 2001 to $3,000 in 2002. This amount gradually increases to $5,000 for 2008. After 2008, this amount will be indexed annually for inflation. It also allows people over the age of 50 to make catch-up contributions to an IRA.
- It modifies the distribution rules for governmental 457 plan participants so that their deferred compensation funds will be taxed when they receive the distribution, not when it is made available to them.
- It repeals the coordination of deferrals between 457 and other elective deferral plans. Under former law, the maximum deferral amount for a 457 plan was reduced dollar for dollar by any contribution made to other types of retirement plans. The tax law change means that a person may defer the maximum annual contribution limit to a 457 plan as well as the maximum amount in a 401(k) or 403(b) plan.
- It expands the types of eligible tax-free rollover distributions to include distributions from qualified plans, 403(b) annuities, and 457 plans to other such plans and distributions from IRAs to qualified plans, 403(b) annuities, and 457 plans.

- It allows a surviving spouse to roll over distributions from a deceased spouse's plan to his or her own plan. Prior to this change, the tax-free rollover had to be made to an IRA.

Education Tax Provisions: This Part conforms North Carolina tax law on education incentives to the federal changes enacted last year. The more notable tax changes affecting education incentives include:

- It increases the annual maximum contribution limit to an education IRA from $500 to $2,000 per beneficiary.
- It allows education IRAs dollars to be used to cover expenses of students in grade, middle, and high schools.
- It eases the restrictions and limitations when using an Education IRA with other education initiatives, such as the Hope or Lifetime Learning tax credit.
- It moves the annual contribution deadline for Education IRAs from December 31 to April 15 of the following year.
- It provides that distributions from Section 529 Plans will be income-tax free up to the amount that is used to pay qualified higher education expenses.[9] Under former law, participants enjoyed only the benefit of tax-deferred contributions and investment growth.
- It allows a person to transfer 529 plan credits from one program to another for the benefit of the same beneficiary without incurring a taxable event.
- It extends the deduction for employer-paid college expenses to include graduate courses.

Estate Tax Provisions: North Carolina repealed its inheritance tax in 1998, effective for deaths occurring on or after January 1, 1999. It replaced its inheritance tax with an estate tax that is equivalent to the federal state death tax credit allowed on a federal estate tax return. This type of state estate tax is known as a "pick-up" tax because it picks up for the state the amount of federal estate tax that would otherwise be paid to the federal government.[10] EGTRRA made two changes that affect the estate tax:

- It phases out the estate tax over the next eight years by increasing the exclusion amount from $675,000 in 2001 to $1 million in 2002-03, $1.5 million in 2004-05, $2 million in 2006-08, and $3.5 million in 2009. There is no need for an exemption amount after 2009 since the tax is repealed in 2010. However, the tax is scheduled to reapply in 2011 unless a future Congress makes the repeal permanent. If the tax were reinstated in 2011, the exclusion amount would be $1 million. This bill would conform North Carolina's exemption limits to the federal exemption limits to ensure that estates in North Carolina do not have to pay State tax if there is no federal tax due.
- It phases out the state death tax credit over the next four years by reducing it 25% in 2002, 50% in 2003, and 75% in 2004, and repealing it entirely in 2005. This bill does NOT conform to the phase out of the state death tax credit for two years.[11] Therefore, under

[9] North Carolina currently allows tax free distributions for North Carolina plans. Section 3.5 of the bill repeals the State deduction.

[10] As of July 1, 2001, 36 other states, plus the District of Columbia, impose only the "pick-up tax".

[11] As of July 3, 2002 the following states have acted to decouple from the phase-out of the state death tax credit for some period of time or have introduced legislation to that effect: Connecticut, Illinois, Maine, Maryland, this bill an estate of a decedent dying on or after January 1, 2002, and before January 1, 2004, would owe North Carolina estate tax to the same extent that it would be owed without regard to the phase-out of the credit. The January 1, 2004, sunset ensures that the State will have to revisit this issue next year.

Because North Carolina's estate tax is based upon the federal credit for state death taxes, the repeal of the state death tax credit in 2005 and the ultimate repeal of the federal estate tax in 2010 will mean that the State must decide whether to replace or repeal its estate tax in the future.

Accelerated Depreciation Provisions: Under the Job Creation and Worker Assistance Act of 2002, a taxpayer is allowed an accelerated 30% bonus depreciation allowance for certain assets placed in service after September 11, 2001, and before September 11, 2004. The taxpayer is still entitled to the normal first-year depreciation on the remaining basis of the asset after reducing the basis by the bonus depreciation. This provision affects both corporate and individual income taxpayers.

The change in federal law results in a taxpayer recovering the basis in the asset sooner than under former law; however, over the life of the asset the taxpayer still receives the same benefit. This bill does not conform State law to the accelerated depreciation schedule allowed under federal law.[12] However, under this bill a taxpayer will continue to be able to deduct the same amount of an asset's basis under both federal and State law; it is just that the timing of the deduction will differ. To accomplish this decoupling from the federal accelerated bonus depreciation, the bill does two things:

- For the first three years of the federal accelerated depreciation, it provides that a taxpayer must add back to federal taxable income a percentage of the additional 30% accelerated depreciation in the year the accelerated depreciation is claimed for federal purposes.[13] The percentage is 100% for the 2001 and 2002 taxable years and 80% for the 2003 taxable year. There is no add-back for the 2004 taxable year. The add-back for the first three years of the accelerated depreciation means that for State tax purposes, a taxpayer would deduct less in tax years 2001-2003 than the taxpayer would have deducted if the State conformed to the accelerated depreciation law. The amount of the deduction will be the Minnesota, Nebraska, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Vermont, and Wisconsin. The following states will remain decoupled unless they take legislative action: Arkansas, District of Columbia, Kansas, New York, Oklahoma, Oregon, Virginia and Washington. (Source: Center on Budget and Policy Priorities)

[12] As of July 3, 2002, the following 22 states have decoupled from a portion of the accelerated depreciation allowance as the result of explicit legislative action following enactment of the federal law or have introduced legislation to that effect: Arizona, Connecticut, District of Columbia, Georgia, Hawaii, Illinois, Iowa, Maryland, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri (for one year), Nebraska, New Jersey, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Carolina, Tennessee, Vermont (for corporate income tax filers only), Virginia, and Wisconsin. In addition, New York City has decoupled from the bonus depreciation allowance. Six other states are decoupled automatically under pre-existing tax law: Arkansas, Idaho, Kentucky, New Hampshire, South Dakota, and Texas. (Source: Center on Budget and Policy Priorities; Tax Analysts) normal first year depreciation on the remaining basis of the asset after reducing the basis by the bonus depreciation amount allowed under federal law plus 30% of the bonus deprecation in 2003. In 2004, the State will have in effect conformed to the federal law and the entire bonus depreciation may be deducted.

[13] For tax years beginning before January 1, 2002, the add-back must be taken in the first taxable year beginning on or after January 1, 2002, so that the taxpayer will not recognize any retroactive tax increase.

- In tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2005, it provides that the taxpayer may deduct from federal taxable income the total amount of the add-backs required in earlier years, divided into five equal installments. This means that for State tax purposes, a taxpayer would be allowed to deduct a greater depreciation amount in the outlying tax years - the normal depreciation amount plus 20% of the accelerated depreciation amount the taxpayer had to add back. The purpose of this recovery provision is to enable the taxpayer to have the same basis in assets for federal and State purposes. Without this deduction provision, a taxpayer would have a different basis in the depreciable asset for State and federal purposes and would have to keep separate books and records for State and federal purposes until the disposal of the asset. In effect, the add-back and subsequent deduction will affect the timing of the impact of bonus depreciation on the State but it will not increase or decrease the total amount of revenue the State receives over the affected years.

Gift Tax Change: North Carolina imposes a gift tax on property transferred during the life of a donor. Gifts to a spouse are exempt from tax. The gift tax law allows an annual exclusion of $10,000.

The federal gift tax annual exclusion is more complex. Since 1998, the $10,000 federal gift tax annual exclusion has been subject to an inflation adjustment. The adjustment happens only in increments of $1,000 however. From 1998 until 2001, inflation had not grown enough to reach the first $1,000 increment. In 2002, that threshold was reached and the federal annual exclusion increased to $11,000. This amount won't increase to $12,000 until the cumulative inflation adjustment is at least 20%.

Section 3.7 of the bill amends North Carolina's gift tax annual exclusion to piggyback the federal amount, effective January 1, 2002.

PART IV. UNAUTHORIZED SUBSTANCE TAX EXPENSES

Part IV of this bill would allocate to local governments 70% of the State's expenses in collecting the unauthorized substance tax. The expenses would be drawn from local sales tax revenues. Under current law, the following expenses are deducted from local sales tax distributions: costs of the Property Tax Division, costs of the Property Tax Commission, the costs of the Institute of Government in operating a training program in property tax appraisal and assessment, and the costs of the Local Government Commission.

The General Assembly first imposed the unauthorized substances tax in 1989 to generate revenue for State and local law enforcement agencies and for the General Fund. Seventy-five percent of the tax collected is distributed to the State or local law enforcement agency that conducted the investigation that led to the tax assessment. The remaining 25% is credited to the General Fund. This bill does not change this revenue allocation.

PART V. INSURANCE REGULATORY CHARGE

Part V of this bill sets the insurance regulatory charge at the same rate as last year's rate: 6.5% for the 2002 calendar year. The insurance regulatory charge is a tax that was enacted in 1991 to defray the State's cost of regulating the insurance industry. The charge is a percentage of each insurance company's premiums tax liability. The insurance regulatory charge is imposed on insurance companies, health maintenance organizations, and medical service corporations. For health maintenance organizations and medical service corporations, the fee is levied on each company's hypothetical gross premiums tax liability determined at the 1.9% gross premiums tax rate applied to its premiums base. The hypothetical calculation is necessary because medical service corporations and health maintenance organizations do not pay premiums tax at that rate.

PART VI. REGULATORY FEE FOR UTILITIES COMMISSION

Part VI of the bill sets the tax rate for the public utility regulatory fee for the 2002-2003 tax year at the same rate as last year's rate: 0.1%. This rate must be set by the General Assembly each year. The utility regulatory fee is a tax that was first imposed in 1989. The proceeds of the fee are credited to the Utilities Commission and Public Staff Fund and used to defray the State's cost in regulating public utilities. The regulatory fee is imposed on all utilities that are subject to regulation by the North Carolina Utilities Commission. The fee is a percentage of the utility's North Carolina jurisdictional revenues. In general, jurisdictional revenue is revenue derived from providing utility service in North Carolina.

In addition to funding the State's cost in regulating public utilities, the money in the Utilities Commission and Public Staff Fund is currently used to finance the work of the Study Commission on the Future of Electric Service in North Carolina. The General Assembly established the Commission in 1997 to examine the cost, adequacy, availability, and pricing of electric rates and service in North Carolina to determine whether legislation is necessary to assure an adequate and reliable source of electricity and economical, fair, and equitable rates for all consumers of electricity in North Carolina. Section 14.10 of SL 2000-67, the Current Operations and Capital Improvements Appropriations Act of 2000, extended the life of the Study Commission and its funding from the Utilities Commission and Public Staff Fund through June 30, 2006.

Part VI also sets at $200,000 for the 2002-2003 fiscal year the annual public utility regulatory fee imposed on electric membership corporations whose principal purpose is to furnish or cause to be furnished bulk electric supplies at wholesale. This is the same rate that was in effect for the 2001-2002 fiscal year. The North Carolina Electric Membership Corporation is the only electric membership corporation that fits this description. The proceeds of the fee are credited to the Utilities Commission and Public Staff Fund and used to defray the State's cost in regulating electric membership corporations.

The 1999 General Assembly enacted S.L. 1999-180, which authorized electric membership corporations to form subsidiary corporations that may provide energy services and products, telecommunications services and products, and water and wastewater collection and treatment. The subsidiaries must fully compensate the electric membership corporation for its use of the corporation's personnel, services, equipment, and property. The Utilities Commission is charged with regulating this aspect of the subsidiary's business and, to pay for this regulation, S.L. 1999-180 levied a flat-rate regulatory fee to be paid annually by the North Carolina Electric Membership Corporation. The General Assembly must establish the fee amount each year. The North Carolina Electric Membership Corporation is the only electric membership corporation whose principal purpose is to furnish or cause to be furnished bulk electric supplies at wholesale, as provided in G.S. 117-16. It is a "generation and supply cooperative" owned by its members. Its members are all but one of the existing North Carolina electric membership corporations, which are "distribution cooperatives." Thus, the fee imposed on the North Carolina Electric Membership Corporation will be passed on to its member electric membership corporations.

PART VII: [RESERVED]

PART VIII: SECURE LOCAL REVENUES

Sections 8.1 through 8.6 of the bill amend the following tax-sharing statutes by characterizing the revenue distributed by those statutes as distributions of "local revenue" rather than "State expenditures" for purposes of interpreting Section 5(3) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution:

- Section 8.1 - Beer and wine tax.
- Section 8.2 - Franchise gross receipts tax.
- Section 8.3 - Piped natural gas tax.
- Section 8.4 - Sales tax on telecommunications.
- Section 8.5 - Powell Bill funds.
- Section 8.6 - Electric cities distribution

Arguably, since the Constitution authorizes the Governor to reduce only "State expenditures," the classification of these state-shared tax revenues as "local revenues" prohibits the Governor from reducing or withholding the distributions. Moreover, the bill expressly states that the Governor may not reduce or withhold these distributions.

Section 8.7 of the bill amends the Executive Budget Act by limiting the Governor's authority to withhold from distribution funds that the General Assembly has appropriated or otherwise committed to local governments, including local reimbursement money. The Governor may withhold these funds only if, after making adequate provision for the prompt payment of principal of and interest on bonds and notes of the State, the Governor has exhausted all other sources of revenue of the State including surplus remaining in the treasury at the beginning of the fiscal period. In addition, the Governor must have been authorized to withhold the funds by an act of the General Assembly.

Based on the current information available, including a recent Attorney General's opinion, it is unclear whether amending the above-referenced statutes would be effective in preventing the Governor from withholding these funds from local governments. If the Governor withheld the funds despite the enactment of this legislation, enforcement of this limitation on the Governor's authority may have to be resolved by a court. The surest way to secure local revenues would be to pass a constitutional amendment prohibiting the Governor from withholding these funds.

PART IX: CLOSE CORPORATE TAX LOOPHOLES

This Part closes three corporate tax loopholes that allow some corporate profits to escape taxation and give corporate tax planners an opportunity to avoid existing taxes on corporate income and assets. The first loophole is caused by the definition of business income used in the corporate income tax law; the second loophole is caused by the treatment of certain sales in the formula for apportioning business income to the State for corporate income tax purposes; and the third loophole is caused by the different franchise tax treatment of corporations and limited liability companies.

Definition of Business Income: Section 9.1 of this Part amends the definition of "business income" to include all income that is apportionable under the U.S. Constitution, effective for taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2002.

Corporations that do business in more than one state divide up their income among those states for income-tax purposes. Business income is apportioned based on a formula that takes into account how much sales, property, and payroll the corporation has in each state. Nonbusiness income is allocated to a state based on its connection with that state. In the most basic terms, nonbusiness income could be described as income that is earned in an unrelated sideline activity of the corporation.

As an analogy, each interstate corporation's income is in two "pies" - a business income pie that is divided up among the states in which it does business, and a nonbusiness income pie that is given entirely to the state it is connected to.

In an ideal system, all states would follow the same rules for dividing up interstate corporations' income for tax purposes, so that no more and no less than 100% of every corporation's net income would be subjected to state income tax. However, different states have different laws and even when the laws are the same, they may be interpreted differently. In theory, this can result in the taxation of more than 100%, as well as less than 100%, of a corporation's net income. In practice, corporate tax planners take the opportunity to create "nowhere" income - income that no state can tax. Instead of each state receiving its piece of the business income pie, some pieces are thrown away. Thus, although a corporation may do substantial business in North Carolina, much of its otherwise taxable business income may be characterized as nonbusiness, so that North Carolina gets no piece of it.

These tax avoidance schemes are possible not only because different states have different laws, but also because states such as North Carolina have laws that are vague or too narrow. In North Carolina, income is business income if it relates to the regular trade or business of the taxpayer. This definition is vague and narrower than what is allowed under the United States Constitution. If North Carolina is entitled to tax a significant percentage of a corporation's business income, the corporation may try to shift much of its income into the nonbusiness pie, which North Carolina does not share in. This may be true even though the corporation has deducted as a business expense the same items that it now claims are not business items when the time comes to pay tax on profits. Recent court decisions in North Carolina have upheld this tax avoidance technique. Examples of the types of business income that corporations most often recharacterize are rents, royalties, gain or loss from the sale of property, interest, and dividends.

This proposal would change the definition of business income to include any income that the United States Constitution allows a state to treat as business income. This eliminates the current statute's vagueness and narrowness, which allow it to be used by corporations to create "nowhere" income that should otherwise be taxable in North Carolina. One effect of this change will be to include income from extraordinary events, such as a liquidation of a division, in apportionable income, consistent with the Department of Revenue's historical position, as illustrated by its administrative rules, before the North Carolina Supreme Court's decision in Lenox v. Tolson. A corporation's income earned out of state from unrelated business activity that makes up a discrete business enterprise would continue to be nonbusiness income that cannot be apportioned - it would continue to be allocated to the state to which it is connected.[14]

26 states including North Carolina use the vague, unnecessarily narrow definition of business income.

18 states have a broader definition of business income:

- 5 states have the law proposed in Section 9.1 of the bill (define business income as all that the U.S. Constitution allows state to apportion):
    1. Florida
    2. Iowa
    3. Minnesota
    4. Pennsylvania
    5. Texas
- 13 states apportion all corporate income. These states' approach would gain less revenue than the proposal in Section 9.1 because it would relinquish the right to tax true nonbusiness income of North Carolina-headquartered businesses. The 13 states include:
    1. Georgia
    2. South Carolina
    3. Virginia
