BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	May 16, 2007
Introduced by:	Sen. Hartsell	Summary by:	Ben Popkin
Version:	First Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 789 would amend the offense of "Speeding to elude arrest" by raising the age of a child passenger that may be considered to constitute an aggravating factor for the determination of the appropriate offense level for the charge. SB 789 would raise the age of a child to "under 16 years of age" from the current "under 12 years of age".

CURRENT LAW: G.S. 20-141.5(a) makes it a Class 1 misdemeanor offense for an individual to operate a motor vehicle on a street, highway, or public vehicular area while fleeing or attempting to elude a law enforcement officer[1]. G.S. 20-141.5(b) makes violation of G.S. 20-141.5(a) a Class H felony if 2 or more of the following aggravating factors are present at the time the speeding to elude arrest occurs occurs[2]:

- Speeding in excess of 15 miles per hour over the legal limit.
- Driving while impaired due to consumption of an impairing substance or a blood alcohol concentration of more than .14.
- Reckless driving.

- Driving while license is revoked.
- Driving in excess of the posted speed limit during the hours the speed limit is in effect in a school or work zone.
- Passing a stopped school bus.
- Driving with a child under 12 years of age in the vehicle.

G.S. 20-141.5(b1) also makes violation of G.S. 20-141.5(a) a Class H felony if the violation is the proximate cause of the death of a person, and a Class E felony when a violation of G.S. 20-141.5(b) is the proximate cause of the death of a person.

BILL ANALYSIS: Senate Bill 789 would amend the last aggravating factor listed in G.S. 14-87(b) to raise the age of children passengers that would satisfy this factor from "under 12 years of age" to "under 16 years of age".

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act becomes effective October 1, 2007, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 1019:
Investigations of Corporations/Partnerships

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	May 17, 2007
Introduced by:	Sen. Hartsell	Summary by:	Kory Goldsmith Committee Counsel
Version:	First Edition

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 1019 would require that domestic business corporations, limited liability companies, and limited partnerships annually report the name of the person who is the custodian of that business entity's records. It would also allow the Secretary of State to serve interrogatories on a registered limited liability partnership, a foreign limited liability partnership, and a limited liability limited partnership.

CURRENT LAW: Corporations that are formed under the laws of North Carolina, limited liability companies (LLCs), limited liability partnerships (LLPs), and limited liability limited partnerships must file annual reports with the Secretary of State. In general, these reports must provide information regarding the business entity's name, the address of the registered office, the name and address of registered agent, the address and telephone number of the principal office, the names and addresses of the principal officers or partners, and a brief description of the nature of the business. These reports must be filed annually. However, if the information in the report has not changed from the previous year, the business entity may file a certificate to that effect and is not required to set out the individual information.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Sections 1-3 would change the laws regarding domestic business corporations, LLCs, LLPs, and foreign and domestic limited liability limited partnerships, and domestic and foreign limited liability partnerships, and domestic registered limited liability partnerships as follows:

- Each would have to disclose in its annual report to the Secretary of State the name of the individual who is the custodian of the information and records that are required by law to be kept.
- The address of the individual who is required to keep the specified records...
- Require that the complete annual report be filed each year. Previously, if there had been no change in the information contained in the previous year's annual report, the business entity was allowed to file a certificate to that effect.

Sections 4 and 5 give the Secretary of State the authority to serve interrogatories on any registered limited liability partnership, foreign limited liability partnership, limited liability limited partnership, or any partner of these partnerships. The purpose of the interrogatories would be to enable the Secretary to determine whether the partnership is subject to the Chapter 59 of the General Statutes, and if so, whether the partnership has complied with that Chapter. The Secretary of State would provide the Attorney General with any interrogatories and the answers to the interrogatories if they disclose a violation of the Chapter.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The act would become effective October 1, 2007.

SENATE BILL 1285:
Bioptic Lenses/Drivers License Tests

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	May 16, 2007
Introduced by:	Sen. Snow	Summary by:	Jennifer McGinnis
Version:	First Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 1285 would allow the use of bioptic lenses when testing for a drivers license and the issuance of a restricted license to an individual that passes certain requirements after passing the drivers license eye test.

BACKGROUND: A bioptic telescopic lens is a spectacle-mounted device that magnifies distant objects. The device allows users to alternate between the magnified narrow field of view and the unmagnified wide view by tilting their heads, like traditional bifocal lenses. Bioptic lenses are used by people with eye conditions or diseases that reduce resolution of sight, including cataracts, macular degeneration, and corneal diseases. According to a recent press report, at least 35 states now issue restricted driver's licenses to people who use bioptic lenses.

CURRENT LAW: G.S. 20-7, concerning issuance and renewal of drivers licenses, provides that in order to demonstrate physical and mental ability, a person must pass an examination that may include road tests, vision tests, oral tests, and, in the case of literate applicants, written tests, as the Division may require.

BILL ANALYSIS: The bill would provide that a person using bioptic telescopic lenses is eligible for a regular drivers license, limited learner's permit, or provisional drivers license if the applicant

- demonstrates a visual acuity of at least 20/200 in one or both eyes and a field of 70 degrees horizontal vision with or without corrective carrier lenses, or if the person has vision in one eye only, the person demonstrates a field of at least 40 degrees temporal and 30 degrees nasal horizontal vision.
- demonstrates a visual acuity of at least 20/70 in one or both eyes with the bioptic telescopic lenses and without the use of field expanders.
- provides a report of examination by an ophthalmologist or optometrist on a form prescribed by the Division for the Division to determine if all field of vision requirements are met or additional testing is needed.
- meets all other criteria for licensure.

Applicants issued a regular drivers license, limited learner's permit, or provisional drivers license, after using bioptic telescopic lenses for the eye test, would (i) not be eligible for any endorsements; and (ii) only be permitted to operate a motor vehicle during the period beginning one-half hour after sunrise and ending one-half hour before sunset (during the day).

Applicants issued a regular drivers license after using bioptic telescopic lenses for the eye test could only drive a motor vehicles between the period beginning one-half hour before sunset and ending one-half hour after sunrise (after dark) if the applicant: (i) demonstrates a visual acuity of at least 20/40 in one or both eyes with the bioptic telescopic lenses and without the use of field expanders; (ii) has been licensed under this section for at least one year; and (iii) passes a skills test taken at night.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The bill would be effective when it becomes law.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO CLARIFY THE AUTHORITY OF MARINE FISHERIES INSPECTORS AND WILDLIFE PROTECTORS TO ENTER PRIVATE LANDS TO ENFORCE LAWS UNDER THEIR JURISDICTIONS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 113-136 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(m) Within the limitations of this section, inspectors and protectors may enter private lands for the purpose of enforcing laws within their respective jurisdictions and shall not be subject to liability for civil or criminal trespass for such entry."

SECTION 2. This act is effective when it becomes law.

SENATE BILL 1286:
Entry of Inspectors Onto Private Lands

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	May 16, 2007
Introduced by:	Sen. Snow	Summary by:	Jennifer McGinnis
Version:	First Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 1286 would provide that, subject to limitations in the current statute, Marine Fisheries Inspectors (inspectors) and Wildlife Protectors (protectors) may enter private lands to enforce laws under their jurisdictions, and provide that they would not be subject to liability for civil or criminal trespass for such entry.

CURRENT LAW:

A protector is defined as "[a]n employee of the North Carolina Wildlife Resources Commission sworn in as an officer and assigned to duties which include exercise of law-enforcement powers."

An inspector is defined as "[a]n employee of the Department [of Environment and Natural Resources], other than a wildlife protector, sworn in as an officer and assigned duties which include exercise of law enforcement powers under this Subchapter [Article 12 of Chapter 113 of the General Statutes]...".

G.S. 113-136 currently grants inspectors and protectors the powers of peace officers anywhere in the State to enforce all matters within their respective subject-matter jurisdictions, subject to the provisions of the statute. With respect to searches, the statute provides "[n]othing in this section authorizes searches within the curtilage of a dwelling or of the living quarters of a vessel in contravention of constitutional prohibitions against unreasonable searches and seizures." Curtilage is generally the area immediately surrounding a home and intimately tied to the home itself; for example, the area that includes buildings like an unattached garage, a storage shed, and similar structures, if they are relatively close to the dwelling and serve the homeowner's daily needs. With respect to searches of private land, North Carolina courts have held that the constitutional guaranties of freedom from unreasonable search and seizure [provided under the Fourth Amendment], applicable to one's home, refer to the dwelling and other buildings within the curtilage but do not apply to open fields, orchards, or other lands not an immediate part of the dwelling site. (State v. Harrison, 80 S.E.2d 481 (1954).

BILL ANALYSIS: The bill would provide that, subject to limitations in the current statute, inspectors and protectors may enter private lands to enforce laws under their jurisdictions, and provide that they would not be subject to liability for civil or criminal trespass for such entry.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act is effective when it becomes law.

Introduced by:	Sen. Hartsell	Summary by:	Kory Goldsmith Committee Counsel
Version:	PCS to First Edition S1408-CSRC-38

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 1408 would prohibit the North Carolina Appraisal Board (Board) from investigating an anonymous complaint against a trainee, or licensed or certified real estate appraiser. It would also provide that a trainee or licensed or certified real estate appraiser would have 30 days to respond to a letter of inquiry from the Board.

CURRENT LAW: Chapter 93E establishes the North Carolina Appraisal Board. It is the entity that sets the training and licensing standards for real estate appraisers in North Carolina. G.S. 93E-1-12 gives the Board the authority to investigate complaints against a registered trainee or against a licensed or certified real estate appraiser. Pursuant to North Carolina Administrative Rules[1], in the course of its investigation, the Board may issue a letter of inquiry to the registered trainee or against a licensed or certified real estate appraiser for information related to the complaint. The registered trainee or against a licensed or certified real estate appraiser has 14 calendar days to respond to that inquiry

The Board may suspend or revoke the registration, license, or certificate if the Board finds that the holder of that credential has engaged in any of the following:

- Procured registration, licensure, or certification pursuant to this Chapter by making a false or fraudulent representation;
- Made any willful or negligent misrepresentation or any willful or negligent omission of material fact;
- Accepted an appraisal assignment when the employment is contingent upon the appraiser reporting a predetermined result, analysis, or opinion, or when the fee to be paid for the performance of the appraisal assignment is contingent upon the opinion, conclusion, or valuation reached or upon consequences resulting from the appraisal assignment;
- Acted or held himself or herself out as a registered trainee or a State-licensed or State-certified real estate appraiser when not so registered, licensed, or certified;
- Failed as a State-licensed or State-certified real estate appraiser to actively and personally supervise any person not licensed or certified under this Chapter who assists the State-licensed or State-certified real estate appraiser in performing real estate appraisals;
- Failed to make available to the Board for its inspection without prior notice, originals or true copies of all written contracts engaging the person's services to appraise real property, and all reports and supporting data assembled and formulated by the appraiser in preparing the reports;
- Paid a fee or valuable consideration to any person for acts or services performed in violation of this Chapter;

- Acted as a real estate appraiser in an unworthy or incompetent manner as to endanger the interest of the public;
- Violated any of the standards of practice for real estate appraisers or any other rule promulgated by the Board;
- Performed any other act which constitutes improper, fraudulent, or other dishonest conduct;
- Violated any of the provisions of this Chapter;
- Has been convicted of or has entered a plea of guilty or no contest upon which final judgment is entered by a court of competent jurisdiction in this State, or any other state, to an offense which involves moral turpitude, in which an essential element is dishonesty, fraud, or deceit, or which, in the discretion of the Board, would reasonably affect the performance of the registered trainee, licensee, or certificate holder in the real estate appraisal business;
- A final civil judgment has been entered against the registered trainee, licensee, or certificate holder on grounds of fraud, misrepresentation, or deceit in the making of any appraisal of real estate;
- The trainee, licensee, or certificate holder has violated any of the provisions of G.S. 93E-1-13(a) when appraising his own property;
- The trainee, licensee, or certificate holder has had a real estate trainee registration or its equivalent, real estate appraiser license, or real estate appraiser certification suspended, revoked, or denied by a real estate licensing board in another state
- The trainee, licensee, or certificate holder has had any disciplinary action taken against any other professional license in North Carolina or any other state
- The trainee, licensee, or certificate holder has been adjudged mentally incompetent by a court
- The trainee, licensee, or certificate holder performs any of the duties of a real estate appraiser, including, but not limited to, site inspection and public records checks, while impaired by alcohol or drugs.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The act would become effective October 1, 2007, and apply to complaints made and letters of inquiry sent on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 1430:
Amend Crim Offenses/Injury to Property

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	May 16, 2007
Introduced by:	Sen. Atwater	Summary by:	Ben Popkin
Version:	PCS to First Edition S1430-CSRD		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: The Proposed Committee Substitute to Senate Bill 1430 would amend two existing provisions of criminal law applying to damage to property. Amended G.S. 14-127 would replace the existing class 1 misdemeanor offense for damage to real property with three separate levels of offenses (from Class 1 misdemeanor to Class H felony) based on the amount of damage inflicted to the real property. Amended G.S. 14-160 would replace the existing Class 1 or 2 misdemeanor offenses for damaging personal property with four separate levels of offenses (from Class 2 misdemeanor to Class H felony) based on the amount of damage inflicted to the personal property.

CURRENT LAW: Injury to real property is currently punishable as a Class 1 misdemeanor offense, regardless of the amount of damage inflicted[1]. For the purposes of this statute, real property may be regarded as land and anything fixed to it or a part of it, such as buildings, fences, water, minerals, etc.

Injury to personal property is currently punishable as a Class 1 misdemeanor offense if the amount of damage is more than $200.00, and as a Class 2 misdemeanor if the amount of damage is $200.00 or less. The extent of the damage is determined by the differential in market value just before and just after the injury[2], or, in the absence of an established market value, by the cost of repair.[3] For the purposes of this statute, personal property is property other than real property.

BILL ANALYSIS: Senate Bill 1430 would amend G.S. 14-127 "Willful and wanton injury to real property" and G.S. 14-160 "Willful and wanton injury to personal property; punishments".

G.S. 14-127 would provide three separate levels of offenses, based on the following amounts of damage to real property:

- Class 1 misdemeanor – damage of $50,000 or less.
- Class I felony – damage greater than $50,000 and up to and including $100,000.
- Class H felony – damage exceeding $100,000.

G.S. 14-160 would provide four separate levels of offenses, based on the following amounts of damage to personal property:

- Class 2 misdemeanor – damage of $200 or less.
- Class 1 misdemeanor – greater than $200 and up to and including $50,000
- Class I felony – damage greater than $50,000 and up to and including $100,000.
- Class H felony – damage exceeding $100,000.

[1] G.S. 14-127. Willful and wanton injury to real property.
[2] 220 N.C. 721.
[3] 261 N.C. 710.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act becomes effective December 1, 2007, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO DIRECT THE DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES TO STUDY REQUIRING THE SIGNATURE OF THE PATIENT'S PARENT, GUARDIAN, OR REPRESENTATIVE ON "DO NOT RESUSCITATE" ORDER FORMS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. The Department of Health and Human Services shall study the effect of requiring a written and signed concurrence by the patient's guardian or representative on a physician's order form specifying withholding or discontinuing extraordinary means or artificial nutrition or hydration pursuant to G.S. 90-322(b). The study shall examine the anticipated effect that amending G.S. 90-322(b) to add this requirement to the current process would have on the provision, withholding, or discontinuation of care involving extraordinary means or artificial nutrition or hydration to patients. Issues that may be addressed by the Department in its study include current practices relating to issuance of "Do Not Resuscitate" (DNR) orders in other states, the addition of patient guardian or representative signatures to a physician's order form, and anticipated increases or reductions in the provision, discontinuation or withholding of each of the types of care affected by "DNR" orders.

In conducting the study, the Department shall review relevant incident data and shall seek input from the North Carolina Medical Society, the North Carolina Hospital Association, and patient advocacy groups. The Department shall report its findings and recommendations to the 2008 Regular Session of the 2007 General Assembly.

SECTION 2. This act is effective when it becomes law.

SENATE BILL 685:
Study DNR Form Signatures

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	May 21, 2007
Introduced by:	Sen. Kinnaird	Summary by:	Ben Popkin
Version:	PCS to First Edition S685-CSRD		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: The Proposed Committee Substitute for Senate Bill 685 would direct the Department of Health and Human Services to study the effect of requiring a written and signed concurrence by a patient's guardian or representative on a physician's order specifying withholding or discontinuing extraordinary means of support of an individual who is comatose and not expected to recover. The PCS would direct the Department to report its findings to the 2008 Regular Session of the 2007 General Assembly.

[As introduced, this bill was identical to H690, as introduced by Rep. Insko, which is currently in House Health .]

CURRENT LAW:

Article 23 of Chapter 90 authorizes "Living Wills" and was enacted in 1979. That Article provides that an individual may declare his or her wishes as to the use of 'extraordinary means' to prolong life. 'Extraordinary means' are defined as "any medical procedure or intervention which in the judgment of the attending physician would serve only to postpone artificially the moment of death by sustaining, restoring, or supplanting a vital function". G.S. 90-321(a)(2). If the declaration is signed, witnessed, dated and proved, or is a copy of that declaration obtained from the Advance Health Care Directive Registry maintained by the Secretary of State pursuant to Article 21 of Chapter 130A of the General Statutes, then the attending physician may rely upon the declaration. The declaration must be witnessed by two people, who are unrelated to the declarant or the declarant's spouse, are not entitled or expected to receive anything under the will of the declarant, are not the attending physician or an employee of the health care facility treating the declarant, and have no claim against the estate at the time of the declaration.

If an individual, not having made a declaration, is comatose and there is no reasonable possibility that he or she will return to a cognitive sapient state or is mentally incapacitated, may still have extraordinary means of support withheld or discontinued, provided all of the following apply to the individual's condition:

1. It is determined by the attending physician that the individual's present condition is either of the following:
    a. Terminal and incurable.
    b. Is diagnosed as a persistent vegetative state.
2. There is confirmation of the person's present condition in writing by a physician other than the attending physician.
3. Either of the following apply
    a. A vital function of the individual could be restored by extraordinary means or a vital function of the individual is being sustained by extraordinary means.
    b. The life of the individual could be or is being sustained by artificial nutrition or hydration.

In order to withhold or discontinue extraordinary means of support for an individual meeting the above criteria who has not made a declaration, the attending physician must direct and supervise such withholding or discontinuance, with the concurrence of the following, in order:

1. A health care agent appointed pursuant to a health care power of attorney meeting the requirements of Article 3 of Chapter 32A of the General Statutes
2. A guardian of the person.
3. The individual's spouse.
4. A majority of the relatives of the first degree

If none of those persons are available, then the withholding or discontinuance is at the discretion of the attending physician.

BILL ANALYSIS: The Proposed Committee Substitute would direct the Department of Health and Human Services to study the effect of requiring the concurrence of the persons listed above, in order, to be signed and in writing on the order specifying withholding or discontinuance of extraordinary means or artificial nutrition or hydration.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act is effective when it becomes law.

Erika Churchill, counsel to Senate Judiciary I, substantially contributed to this summary.

SENATE BILL 855:
Exempt Private Investigators/Window Tinting

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	May 21, 2007
Introduced by:	Sen. Snow	Summary by:	Jennifer McGinnis
Version:	First Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 855 would provide an exception from the vehicle window tinting restrictions imposed by the General Statutes for a vehicle that is being operated by a private investigator who is properly licensed by the Private Protective Services Board.

CURRENT LAW: Under the General Statutes vehicle windows may be tinted, but must have: (i) total light transmission of at least 35%, and (ii) light reflectance of 20% or less. With regard to windshields, tinting cannot extend more than five inches below the top of the windshield or below the AS1 line of the windshield, whichever is longer.

Current exceptions to vehicle window tinting restrictions: The restrictions concerning percentage of light transmission and light reflectance do not apply to the following vehicle windows (note that these vehicles are, however, subject to the windshield tinting length limitation):

- Excursion passenger vehicles.
- For-hire passenger vehicles.
- Common carrier of passengers.
- Motor homes.
- Ambulances.
- Property-hauling vehicle (exception for rear window only)
- Limousines.
- Law enforcement vehicles.
- Multipurpose vehicles that are behind the driver of the vehicle (passenger vehicles that are designed to carry 10 or fewer passengers and either is constructed on a truck chassis or has special features designed for occasional off-road operation, for example, minivans and pickup trucks).
- Vehicles for which DMV has issued a medical exception permit.

Penalty for violation of vehicle window tinting restrictions: A violation is a Class 2 misdemeanor, punishable by 1 to 30 days of community punishment, assuming no prior convictions. The statute does, however, provide a defense for individuals who provide evidence that they have removed the tinting in violation within 15 days of the charge.

BILL ANALYSIS: The bill would provide an exception from the vehicle window tinting restrictions imposed by the General Statutes for a vehicle that is being operated by a private investigator who is properly licensed by the Private Protective Services Board.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The bill would become effective December 1, 2007, and apply to offenses committed on or after that date.

BACKGROUND: The Georgia General Assembly passed a similar bill in April 2007.

SENATE BILL 1202:
Litter Violation Reported by Citizen

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	May 9, 2007
Introduced by:	Sen. Jacumin	Summary by:	Kory Goldsmith Committee Counsel
Version:	PCS to First Edition S1202-CSRC-33

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 1202 would create a civil process by which a citizen could file a sworn affidavit with a magistrate alleging a litter violation involving a motor vehicle or a vessel. The magistrate could issue a citation and a fine for that violation. The person accused of littering may file an affidavit challenging the violation. If the magistrate finds that a violation occurs, the magistrate shall issue a fine of $100 and an additional $25 for failure to pay the fine in a timely manner.

CURRENT LAW: G.S. 14-399 prohibits littering. The types of acts that are prohibited and the applicable punishments are outlined below:

Amount of Litter/type/ purpose of littering	Punishment for 1st offense	Other consequences related to littering from a vehicle or watercraft
Less than 15 lbs, not a commercial purpose	Class 3 misdemeanor, fine between $250-$1000, possible community service from 8-24 hours	1 drivers license point. Presumption operator committed offense.
15 to 500 lbs., not a commercial purpose	Class 3 misdemeanor, fine between $500-$2,000, required community service from 24-100 hours	1 drivers license point Presumption operator committed offense.
Over 500 lbs, any amount for a commercial purpose, or any hazardous waste	Class I felony	1 drivers license point. Presumption operator committed offense. Vehicle or vessel considered contraband, subject to seizure and forfeiture.

Littering without intentionality or recklessness - G.S. 14-399(a1)

Amount of Litter	Punishment for 1st offense	Other consequences related to littering from a vehicle or watercraft
Less than 15 lbs	Infraction, fine of not more than $100, possible community service from 4-12 hours	Presumption operator committed offense.
15 to 500 lbs.	Infraction, fine nor more than $200, possible community service from 8-24 hours	Presumption operator committed offense.
Over 500 lbs	Infraction, fine nor more than $300, possible community service from 16-50 hours	Presumption operator committed offense.

BILL ANALYSIS: Senate Bill 1202 would create a civil process by which a citizen could allege a litter violation and the violator would be assessed a civil fine of $100.

G.S. 14-299.3(a) would allow a citizen who witnesses a littering violation that involves a motor vehicle or vessel could file a sworn affidavit reporting to violation with a magistrate in the county where the violation occurred. The affidavit would include the license plate number of the motor vehicle or the identification number of the vessel. It would also include a description of the vehicle or vessel, the date, location, and approximate time of the violation. It would also include language describing the penalty for filing a false affidavit.

Upon receipt of the affidavit, the magistrate would issue a citation to the owner of the vehicle or vessel. The citation would state the violation, the penalty for the violation, and the manner by which the violation could be challenged. The citation could be sent by first class service to the owner.

The owner of the vehicle or vessel would be responsible for the violation unless he or she can furnish within 21 days after notification of the violation of any of the following:

- The name and address of the person who had care, custody and control of the vehicle or vessel at the time of the incident.
- An affidavit stating the vehicle was stolen or under the control of another person without the permission of the owner at the time of the violation.
- An affidavit that establishes by a preponderance of the evidence that there was no violation.

The magistrate will enter a default judgment against the person issued a citation if that person does not challenge the citation or does not pay the penalty assessed. The magistrate shall also enter a judgment against the person if the magistrate finds the person satisfied the grounds for challenging the citation. A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO MAKE USING A MOBILE PHONE UNLAWFUL WHILE OPERATING A MOTOR VEHICLE ON A PUBLIC STREET OR HIGHWAY.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Chapter 20 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 20-140.6. Unlawful use of a mobile phone.

(a) Definitions. – For purposes of this section, the following terms shall mean:

(1) Mobile telephone. – A device used by subscribers and other users of wireless telephone service to access such service.

(2) Wireless telephone service. – A service that is a two-way real-time voice telecommunications service that is interconnected to a public switched telephone network and is provided by a commercial mobile radio service, as such term is defined by 47 C.F.R. § 20.3.

(3) Using. – Holding a mobile telephone to, or in the immediate proximity of, the user's ear.

(4) Handheld mobile telephone. – A mobile telephone with which a user engages in a call using at least one hand.

(5) Hands-free mobile telephone. – A mobile telephone that has an internal feature or function, or that is equipped with an attachment or addition, whether or not permanently part of such mobile telephone, by which a user engages in a call without the use of either hand, whether or not the use of either hand is necessary to activate, deactivate, or initiate a function of such telephone.

(6) Engage in a call. – Talking into or listening on a handheld mobile telephone, but shall not include holding a mobile telephone to activate, deactivate, or initiate a function of such telephone.

(7) Immediate proximity. – That distance as permits the operator of a mobile telephone to hear telecommunications transmitted over such

(b) Offense. – Except as otherwise provided in this section, no person shall operate a motor vehicle upon a public street or highway while using a mobile telephone to engage in a call while such vehicle is in motion. An operator of a motor vehicle who holds a mobile telephone to, or in the immediate proximity of, his or her ear while such vehicle is in motion is presumed to be engaging in a call within the meaning of this section. The presumption established by this subsection is rebuttable by evidence tending to show that the operator was not engaged in a call.

(c) Seizure. – The provisions of this section shall not be construed as authorizing the seizure or forfeiture of a mobile telephone, unless otherwise provided by law.

(d) Exceptions. – The provisions of subsection (b) of this section shall not apply to the following:

(1) The use of a mobile telephone for the sole purpose of communicating with any of the following regarding an emergency situation: an emergency response operator; a hospital, physician's office, or health clinic; a public or privately owned ambulance company or service; a fire department; or a law enforcement agency.

(2) Any of the following persons while in the performance of their official duties: a law enforcement officer; a member of a fire department; or the operator of a public or private ambulance.

(f) Local Ordinances. – No local government may pass any ordinance regulating the use of mobile telephones.

(g) A violation of this section shall be an infraction and shall be punishable by a fine of one hundred dollars ($100.00) and the cost of court. There shall be no points assessed by the Division for a violation of this section."

SENATE BILL 1399:
Ban Mobile Phone Use While Driving

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	May 21, 2007
Introduced by:	Sen. Dannelly	Summary by:	Kory Goldsmith Committee Counsel
Version:	PCS to First Edition S1399-CSRC-41

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 1399 would prohibit a person from operating a motor vehicle while using a mobile telephone. A person who violates this provision would be responsible for committing an infraction and subject to a $100 fine. No drivers license points would be assessed.

The Proposed Committee Substitute revises the bill to use definitions and make it consistent with laws enacted 2006 prohibiting the use of a mobile phone by persons who are under 18 years of age.

CURRENT LAW: G.S. 20-1137.3 (see below) prohibits a person who is under the age of 18 to use a mobile telephone or additional technology while operating a motor vehicle on a public street or highway or public vehicular area while the vehicle is in motion. The prohibition does not apply to a stationary vehicle. It also does not apply if the use of the mobile telephone is being used for the sole purpose of communicating an emergency response operator; a hospital, physician's office, or health clinic; a public or privately owned ambulance company or service; a fire department; or a law enforcement agency, or the operator's parent, legal guardian or spouse.

Mobile telephone is defined a device used by subscribers and other users of wireless telephone service to access the service. The term includes: (i) a device with which a user engages in a call using at least one hand, and (ii) a device that has an internal feature or function, or that is equipped with an attachment or addition, whether or not permanently part of the mobile telephone, by which a user engages in a call without the use of either hand, whether or not the use of either hand is necessary to activate, deactivate, or initiate a function of such telephone. [1]

A wireless telephone service A service that is a two-way real-time voice telecommunications service that is interconnected to a public switched telephone network and is provided by a commercial mobile radio service, as such term is defined by 47 C.F.R. § 20.3.[2]

A person who violates G.S. 20-137.3 commits an infraction and shall pay a fine of $25. No drivers license point, insurance surcharge, or court costs shall be assessed as a result of a violation. The driver may also have the restrictions of his or her limited driving privilege extended for up to 6 months.

BILL ANALYSIS: Senate Bill 1399 would enact G.S. 20-140.6 to prohibit the use of a handheld mobile telephone by a person who is operating a motor vehicle on a public street or highway or public vehicular area while the vehicle is in motion. The prohibition would not apply to a hands-free mobile telephone which is defined as a device that has an internal feature or function, or that is equipped with an attachment or addition, whether or not permanently part of the mobile telephone, by which a user engages in a call without the use of either hand, whether or not the use of either hand is necessary to activate, deactivate, or initiate a function of such telephone.

The prohibition would not apply if the use of the mobile telephone is for the sole purpose of communicating with an emergency response operator; a hospital, physician's office, or health clinic; a public or privately owned ambulance company or service; a fire department; or a law enforcement agency. It would not apply to a law enforcement officer, a member of a fire department or the operator of a public or private ambulance while in the performance of their official duties. It also would not apply to violations by persons under 18 years of age pursuant to G.S. 20-137.3.

A violation of this section would be an infraction punishable by a fine of $100. No drivers license point would be assessed by the Division of Motor Vehicles.

HOUSE BILL 1243:
Courtroom Procedures/Juvenile Proceedings

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	June 6, 2007
Introduced by:	Reps. Bryant, Bordsen, Wainwright, Mobley	Summary by:	Jennifer McGinnis Committee Counsel
Version:	Third Edition

SUMMARY: House Bill 1243 would provide that with regard to hearings authorized or required for undisciplined and delinquent juveniles, a juvenile may only be placed in restraints in the courtroom if it is reasonably necessary to maintain order, prevent escape, or provide for the safety of the courtroom.

CURRENT LAW: The statutes currently do not address the circumstances under which a juvenile may be restrained in the courtroom during juvenile proceedings. For adult defendants, G.S. 15A-1031 provides that a trial judge may order a defendant subject to physical restraint in the courtroom if it is reasonably necessary to maintain order, prevent escape, or provide for the safety of persons. If the defendant is ordered to be restrained, the judge must do all of the following:

- Enter in the record, out of the presence of the jury, the reasons for the restraint.
- Give the defendant an opportunity to object.
- Instruct the jurors that the restraint is not to be considered in weighing evidence or determining guilt.

The judge must conduct a hearing and make findings of fact if the defendant objects to the judge's reasons for restraint.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 1243 would provide a procedure (similar to what is provided for adults under G.S. 15A-1031) to determine when a juvenile may be subject to restraint in the courtroom during hearings authorized or required for undisciplined and delinquent juveniles (hearings held pursuant to Subchapter II of Chapter 7B of the General Statutes). A judge would be authorized to subject the juvenile to restraint only when it is reasonably necessary to maintain order, prevent escape, or provide for the safety of the courtroom. The judge would be required, whenever practical, to provide the juvenile and the juvenile's attorney an opportunity to contest the use of restraints before they are ordered, and, if they are ordered, the judge would be required to make findings of fact to support that decision.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The bill would become effective October 1, 2007.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO ESTABLISH CUSTODY, VISITATION, EXPEDITED HEARING, AND ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATIONS PROCEDURES WHEN A PARENT RECEIVES MILITARY TEMPORARY DUTY, DEPLOYMENT, OR MOBILIZATION ORDERS.

Whereas, currently there are six major military bases in North Carolina; and

Whereas, the military population of this State is the fourth largest in the nation, with active-duty service members numbering over 100,000; and

Whereas, temporary duty, the deployment of an active-duty service member, or the mobilization of a member of the National Guard or Reserves, sometimes with little advance notice, can have a disruptive effect on custody or visitation arrangements involving minor children of service members; and

Whereas, service members should be protected, as should their minor children, from the loss of custodial arrangements and disruption of family contact due to the service member's absence pursuant to military orders for temporary duty, deployment, or mobilization; and

Whereas, other members of a service member's family, such as parents or current spouses, can provide love, comfort, care, and continuity to the service member's child through delegated visitation when a service member is absent due to military orders; and

Whereas, the regular scheduling of hearings may be harmful to the interest of service members who, due to military orders, may need to have an expedited hearing or may need to use electronic means to give testimony when they cannot appear in person in court; and

Whereas, the use of expedited hearings and testimony by electronic means, at the request of the service member who is absent or about to depart, would aid and promote fair, efficient, and prompt judicial processes for the resolution of family law matters; Now, therefore,

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 50-13.7(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) ~~An~~ Except as otherwise provided in G.S. 50-13.7A, an order of a court of this State for support of a minor child may be modified or vacated at any time, upon motion in the cause and a showing of changed circumstances by either party or anyone interested subject to the limitations of G.S. 50-13.10. Subject to the provisions of G.S. 50A-201, 50A-202, and 50A-204, an order of a court of this State for custody of a minor child may be modified or vacated at any time, upon motion in the cause and a showing of changed circumstances by either party or anyone interested."

SECTION 2. Article 1 of Chapter 50 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 50-13.7A. Custody and visitation upon military temporary duty, deployment, or mobilization.

(a) Purpose. – It is the purpose of this section to provide a means by which to facilitate a fair, efficient, and swift process to resolve matters regarding custody and visitation when a parent receives temporary duty, deployment, or mobilization orders from the military.

(b) Definitions. – As used in this section:

(1) The term 'deployment' means the temporary transfer of a service member serving in an active-duty status to another location in support of combat or some other military operation.

(2) The term 'mobilization' means the call-up of National Guard or Reserve service member to extended active duty status. For purposes of this definition, 'mobilization' does not include National Guard or Reserve annual training.

(3) The term 'temporary duty' means the transfer of a service member from one military base to a different location, usually another base, for a limited period of time to accomplish training or to assist in the performance of a noncombat mission.

(c) Custody. – When a parent who has custody, or has joint custody with primary physical custody, receives temporary duty, deployment, or mobilization orders from the military that involve moving a substantial distance from the parent's residence or otherwise have a material effect on the parent's ability to exercise custody responsibilities:

(1) Any temporary custody order for the child during the parent's absence shall end no later than 10 days after the parent returns; and

(2) The temporary duty, mobilization, or deployment and the temporary disruption to the child's schedule shall not be a factor in a determination of change of circumstances if a motion is filed to transfer custody from the service member.

(d) Visitation. – If the parent with visitation rights receives military temporary duty, deployment, or mobilization orders that involve moving a substantial distance from the parent's residence or otherwise have a material effect on the parent's ability to exercise visitation rights, the court may delegate the parent's visitation rights, or a portion thereof, to a family member with a close and substantial relationship to the minor child for the duration of the parent's absence, if delegating visitation rights is in the child's best interest.

(e) Expedited Hearings. – Upon motion of a parent who has received military temporary duty, deployment, or mobilization orders, the court shall, for good cause shown, hold an expedited hearing in custody and visitation matters instituted under this section when the military duties of the parent have a material effect on the parent's ability, or anticipated ability, to appear in person at a regularly scheduled hearing.

(f) Electronic Communications. – Upon motion of a parent who has received military temporary duty, deployment, or mobilization orders, the court shall, upon reasonable advance notice and for good cause shown, allow the parent to present testimony and evidence by electronic means in custody and visitation matters instituted under this section when the military duties of the parent have a material effect on the parent's ability to appear in person at a regularly scheduled hearing. The phrase 'electronic means' includes communication by telephone, video teleconference, or the Internet."

SECTION 3. This act becomes effective October 1, 2007, and applies to custody or visitation actions instituted on or after that date.

HOUSE BILL 1634:
Custody/Visitation/Military Orders

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	June 6, 2007
Introduced by:	Reps. Martin, Goodwin, Hall, Moore	Summary by:	Jennifer McGinnis
Version:	Second Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 1634 would amend the law relating to custody and visitation when a custodial parent is mobilized or otherwise receives military orders that require the parent to move temporarily away from the residence. The bill would become effective on October 1, 2007, and apply to custody or visitation actions instituted on or after that date.

CURRENT LAW: The statutes do not have specific guidelines for a court in addressing custody and visitation issues when a custodial parent receives temporary duty, deployment, or mobilization orders.

BILL ANALYSIS: The bill would create a new section in Chapter 50, to specifically address the situation when a custodial parent is put on temporary duty, mobilized, or deployed on military orders. The bill includes definitions and the following substantive provisions:

- Custody- The court must apply specific rules when there is a material effect on a parent's ability to exercise custodial responsibilities, including both of the following:
    - Any temporary custody order for the child during the parent's temporary duty, mobilization, or deployment must end no later than 10 days after the parent returns.
    - Deployment not a factor in change of circumstances determination - If a motion to transfer custody from a service member is filed, the temporary duty, mobilization, or deployment is excluded as a factor in making a change of circumstances determination. Under existing law, a showing of change circumstances is required in order for a court to modify or vacate a custody order.
    - Delegation of visitation rights - If a parent with visitation rights receives temporary duty, mobilization, or deployment orders, then a court may delegate the parent's visitation rights to a family member if it is in the child's best interest.
- Expedited hearings - Upon motion of a parent who has received temporary duty, mobilization, or deployment orders, and for good cause shown, a court must expedite a hearing for custody and visitation matters.
- Testimony and evidence by electronic means - Upon motion of a parent who has received temporary duty, mobilization, or deployment orders, for good cause shown, and upon reasonable notice a court must allow a parent in custody and visitation matters to present testimony and evidence by electronic means if the parent's military duties have a material effect on their ability to appear at a hearing.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The bill would become effective on October 1, 2007, and apply to custody or visitation actions instituted on or after that date.

BACKGROUND: State law requires that a court consider all facts in a case and decide custody issues in accordance with the best interests of the child. See G.S. 50-13.2 on reverse.

§ 50-13.2. Who entitled to custody; terms of custody; visitation rights of grandparents; taking child out of State.

(a) An order for custody of a minor child entered pursuant to this section shall award the custody of such child to such person, agency, organization or institution as will best promote the interest and welfare of the child. In making the determination, the court shall consider all relevant factors including acts of domestic violence between the parties, the safety of the child, and the safety of either party from domestic violence by the other party and shall make findings accordingly. An order for custody must include findings of fact which support the determination of what is in the best interest of the child. Between the mother and father, whether natural or adoptive, no presumption shall apply as to who will better promote the interest and welfare of the child. Joint custody to the parents shall be considered upon the request of either parent.

(b) An order for custody of a minor child may grant joint custody to the parents, exclusive custody to one person, agency, organization, or institution, or grant custody to two or more persons, agencies, organizations, or institutions. Any order for custody shall include such terms, including visitation, as will best promote the interest and welfare of the child. If the court finds that domestic violence has occurred, the court shall enter such orders that best protect the children and party who were the victims of domestic violence, in accordance with the provisions of G.S. 50B-3(a1)(1), (2), and (3). If a party is absent or relocates with or without the children because of an act of domestic violence, the absence or relocation shall not be a factor that weighs against the party in determining custody or visitation. Absent an order of the court to the contrary, each parent shall have equal access to the records of the minor child involving the health, education, and welfare of the child.

(b1) An order for custody of a minor child may provide visitation rights for any grandparent of the child as the court, in its discretion, deems appropriate. As used in this subsection, "grandparent" includes a biological grandparent of a child adopted by a stepparent or a relative of the child where a substantial relationship exists between the grandparent and the child. Under no circumstances shall a biological grandparent of a child adopted by adoptive parents, neither of whom is related to the child and where parental rights of both biological parents have been terminated, be entitled to visitation rights.

(c) An order for custody of a minor child may provide for such child to be taken outside of the State, but if the order contemplates the return of the child to this State, the judge may require the person, agency, organization or institution having custody out of this State to give bond or other security conditioned upon the return of the child to this State in accordance with the order of the court.

(d) If, within a reasonable time, one parent fails to consent to adoption pursuant to Chapter 48 of the General Statutes or parental rights have not been terminated, the consent of the other consenting parent shall not be effective in an action for custody of the child.

Parental Duty

Winston-Salem Journal
Monday, May 14, 2007

When duty calls and those in the military are deployed, they risk life, limb and the loss of considerable income. They shouldn't risk losing custody of their children, too.

There are 140,000 single parents in America's military today. Some of them have been returning from duty in Iraq, Afghanistan and other inhospitable places to find that they've lost custody of their children.

Maybe it was a mom who was abroad for year and left her children with their dad. By the time she returned home, the father had petitioned for primary custody of the children. Or maybe a dad went overseas and with him went all of the visitation rights that his parents had with their grandchildren. If the mother doesn't want to cooperate, she doesn't have to.

Federal law does a great deal to protect the rights of deployed service members. It does not, however, get into child custody, a matter in the purview of the states.

Across the country, as the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan grind on and require repeat deployments of some service members, some non-deployed parents have sought to improve their custody arrangements.

This is not the easy issue that it appears to be on the surface. Courts in child custody and visitation cases are obligated to give the best interests of the children their primary consideration. It is entirely feasible that a court will, upon reopening a custody case, decide that a child will be better served by living in a stable home, where one of the parents is always there, over another home where a parent is repeatedly shipped off to war for a year or more at a time.

A number of states are trying to address the problem. They have to strike a delicate balance between what is fair to the service member and what is best for the child.

Legislation scheduled for a vote before the North Carolina House tonight appears to strike that balance well. The bill, sponsored by an Afghanistan veteran, Rep. Grier Martin of Raleigh, says that there is a presumption, in court, that it is in the best interests of the child that the custody arrangements that existed before deployment will be re-employed when the parent returns from duty. It also gives a departing service member the right to assign visitation privileges to a family member while he or she is gone.

This bill maintains North Carolina's commitment to putting the best interests of the child first. But it also protects those who have been deployed and gives them a strong legal position should the other parent seek a change in the original order.

North Carolina likes to think of itself as a military friendly state. Passage of this bill would be one more piece of proof to that effect.

"I SHOULDN'T HAVE HAD TO LEAVE BEFORE THEY (HER UNIT) DID. I HAD TO. I MEAN, WE'RE TALKING ABOUT MY SON." MARY HOLLINGSWORTH

Mom's choice: Her country or her child

Law doesn't protect soldiers in custody cases.

MIKE DRUMMOND

Mary Hollingsworth donned her uniform, stowed her gear and prepared for the long plane ride to the front.

This time, the N.C. Army National Guard specialist wouldn't fight for country -- she'd fight for custody of her 5-year-old son in a Gaston County courtroom.

National Guard soldiers are waging custody battles while deployed -- prompting some states, including North Carolina, to draft bills to ease this burden.

Judges are compelling many of these soldiers to rush home, and commanders are complaining the court skirmishes could endanger battlefield readiness.

Hollingsworth, 27, thought she was covered. She left her son with her mother; the three live together in Dallas, N.C. But the family care plan she and all service members are required to complete did not rewrite existing visitation and custody orders.

Deployed soldiers typically lose when they can't or won't appear at custody or visitation hearings, an Observer review shows. Many, like Hollingsworth,

THE SERIES

The 505th Engineer Battalion traces its origins to the storied "Old Hickory" 30th Infantry Division. The unit is based in Gastonia with posts in Kings Mountain, Shelby, Mooresville, North Wilkesboro and Warrenton. In Iraq, the men and women of the 505th built barracks, repaired bomb-damaged roads, fought off dozens of insurgent attacks and rode in 2,000 convoys -- without a fatality.

have to make a choice -- their country or their kids.

While she was dispensing weapons at Camp Anaconda outside Balad, Iraq, the boy's father, Victor Diaz Jr., was in court. In legal papers, he portrayed Hollingsworth as more interested in playing soldier than being a mother. He wanted custody.

Diaz's legal action triggered urgent e-mails among lawyers, Army officials and Hollingsworth, who persuaded commanders to ship her home early.

Omission in law

The Servicemembers Civil Relief Act protects soldiers on active duty from civil proceedings, including bankruptcy, evictions and foreclosures. Custody cases are not mentioned.Deployed service members are entitled to a mandatory 90-day delay of proceedings, longer if a judge deems necessary. Judges routinely delay debt collections. Not so with child visitation and custody.

An Observer review of 31 court cases nationwide shows judges almost always side with the parent standing in front of them.

"Judges are ignoring the SCRA, saying, `I'll be darned if I'll let a federal statute I've never heard of tie my hands,' " says Mark Sullivan, a Raleigh lawyer and author of "The Judges' Guide to the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act."

Unlike the lease payments on a Ford Mustang, Sullivan says, a child "can't be put into a state of suspended animation" until Mom or Dad returns.

He notes that judges "find it nearly impossible to support" delaying a custody case under the SCRA, "regardless of how unfair it might seem to have the hearing without the presence of the service member."

How it began

Mary Hollingsworth met Victor Diaz while both were in the Army in Alaska.

They never married, and split by the time their son was born in fall 2001. Hollingsworth -- her Guard buddies call her "Holly" -- returned to North Carolina to live with her mother.

Diaz, after he pleaded no contest in 2001 to military charges of possession of marijuana and ecstasy, was honorably discharged and ended up in Florida. He saw his son a few weeks a year, although he is entitled to more time under a visitation order.

Diaz is reed-thin, speaks in a whisper, and -- since 2003 -- is born again. He spurned Hollingsworth's offer to live rent-free in a house nearby. "God hasn't called me to North Carolina," he said.

He came to North Carolina last July, while Hollingsworth was in Iraq. He petitioned a judge for eight weeks of visitation, allowed in a court order. Diaz, 26, also pressed for full custody.

In court papers, Diaz argued he didn't know when Hollingsworth would return from Iraq. And the boy was living with Hollingsworth's mother. To Diaz, all this added up to a "substantial change of circumstance" that allowed him to claim custody.

Rather than evoke the SCRA and delay proceedings for 90 days, Judge Dennis Redwing let Diaz take the boy for eight weeks and scheduled a custody hearing. Diaz had until mid-September to return the boy -- two weeks after school started, and a violation of the visitation order.

Diaz retrieved the boy from a day care center. He tried to borrow a car seat from Hollingsworth's mother, who sent Mary an e-mail alerting her.

Half a world away, Hollingsworth enlisted help from higher-ups in the 505th Engineer Battalion to get her home.

Capt. Cale Moody e-mailed Hollingsworth's lawyers in August.

"Obviously, everyone is ignoring the (SCRA)," Moody wrote. "Therefore, she needs to return home as soon as possible to take care of this situation. However, we are somewhat busy fighting a war and in order to send Hollingsworth home we need proof of a hard date of when the custody hearing will be."

Hollingsworth's lawyers got another Gaston County judge to order Diaz to bring the boy to North Carolina by the first day of school, Aug. 28.

Hollingsworth's commanders gave her permission to come home in early September, about a month before her unit.

"I shouldn't have had to leave before they did (her unit)," she said. "I had to. I mean, we're talking about my son."

Judge: `I had no choice'

Redwing disagrees."I don't think it was my purview to evoke the SCRA," he told the Observer. "I had no choice. The natural parent was claiming custody.

"No one's rights were trampled on," Redwing said, adding that Hollingsworth didn't have to return early. "That was her doing."

Hollingsworth appeared at the custody hearing in October. Redwing ordered mediation to resolve visitation arrangements.

"If she didn't come back, she would have lost custody," said Larry Langson, one of her lawyers. Diaz, he noted, "lost his case when she came back."

Fight may not be over

Diaz says the drug charges were a youthful indiscretion, a mistake he says he has put in the past. He recently re-enlisted in the Army. He's at Fort Jackson in Columbia and hopes to remain stationed in the Carolinas, he said, "to be closer to my son."

Hollingsworth now works full-time for the National Guard in Charlotte and is studying to be a paralegal. She and her son still live with her mother in Dallas. She has vowed to curtail Diaz's visitation, even if it means more court hearings.

"All the money I had saved serving in Iraq," she said, "went to pay the lawyer's bill."

What's Protected

The Servicemembers Civil Relief Act of 2003 postpones civil obligations so troops can devote their attention to duty and relieve stress on family. If military duty prevents them from appearing in court, judges must delay proceedings for 90 days. Judges can grant more time. The SCRA can't be used to avoid contract obligations.

The act postpones:

- Credit card debt.
- Mortgage payments.
- Pending trials.
- Taxes.
- Lease terminations.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO UPDATE THE LAW REGARDING TESTAMENTARY ADDITIONS TO TRUSTS, AND TO CODIFY THE DOCTRINES OF INCORPORATION BY REFERENCE AND ACTS OF INDEPENDENT SIGNIFICANCE, AS RECOMMENDED BY THE GENERAL STATUTES COMMISSION.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Article 8 of Chapter 31 of the General Statutes reads as rewritten:

"Article 8.

"~~Devise or Bequest to Trustee of an Existing Trust.~~ Testamentary Additions to Trusts.

"§ 31-47. ~~Devise or bequest to trustee of an existing trust.~~Testamentary additions to trusts.

~~A devise or bequest in a will duly executed pursuant to the provisions of this Chapter may be made in form or substance to the trustee of any trust, including an existing testamentary trust, if established in writing prior to the execution of such will. Such devise or bequest shall not be invalid because the trust is amendable or revocable or both by the settlor or any other person or persons; nor because the trust instrument or any amendment thereto was not executed in the manner required for wills, nor because the trust was amended after execution of the will. Unless the will provides otherwise, such devise or bequest shall operate to dispose of property under the terms of the trust as they appear in writing at the testator's death and the property shall not be deemed held under a testamentary trust. An entire revocation of the trust prior to the testator's death shall invalidate the devise or bequest.~~

(a) A will may validly devise property to:

(1) The trustee of a trust established before the testator's death by the testator, by the testator and some other person, or by some other person, including a trust authorized by G.S. 36C-4-401.1; or

(2) The trustee of a trust to be established at the testator's death, if the trust is identified in the testator's will and its terms are set forth in a written instrument executed before or concurrently with the execution of the testator's will, regardless of the existence, size, or character of the corpus of the trust during the testator's lifetime.

The devise is not invalid because the trust is amendable or revocable, or because the trust instrument or any amendment thereto was not executed in the manner required for wills, or because the trust was amended after the execution of the testator's will or after the testator's death. A revocable trust to which property is first transferred under subdivision (2) of this subsection is an inter vivos trust and not a testamentary trust and, as of the date of the execution of the trust instrument, is subject to Article 6 of Chapter 36C of the General Statutes.

(b) Unless the testator's will provides otherwise, property devised to the trustee of a trust described in subsection (a) of this section is not held under a testamentary trust of the testator, but it becomes a part of the trust to which it is devised, and shall be administered and disposed of in accordance with the provisions of the governing instrument setting forth the terms of the trust, including any amendments thereto made before or after the testator's death.

(c) Unless the testator's will provides otherwise, a revocation or termination of the trust before the testator's death causes the devise to lapse.

(d) A devise to a trust shall be construed as a devise to the trustee of that trust.

(e) For purposes of this section, "devise," when used as a noun, means a testamentary disposition of real or personal property and, when used as a verb, means to dispose of real or personal property by will.

(f) Nothing in this section alters, amends, or in any manner affects the application of the doctrine of acts of independent significance."

SECTION 2. Chapter 31 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new Article to read:

"Article 9.

"Incorporation by Reference; Acts of Independent Significance.

"§ 31-51. Incorporation by reference.

A writing in existence when a will is executed may be incorporated by reference if the language of the will manifests this intent and describes the writing sufficiently to permit its identification.

"§ 31-52. Acts and events of independent significance.

A will may dispose of property by reference to acts and events that have significance apart from their effect upon the disposition made by the will, whether they occur before or after the execution of the will or before or after the testator's death. These acts and events may include the execution or revocation of another individual's will and the safekeeping of items in a secured depository."

SECTION 3. The Revisor of Statutes shall cause to be printed along with this act all relevant portions of the official comments to Sections 2-510 (Incorporation by Reference), and 2-511 (Testamentary Additions to Trusts) of the Uniform Probate Code and all explanatory comments of the drafters of this act as the Revisor deems appropriate.

SECTION 4. This act is effective when it becomes law and applies to estates of decedents dying on or after that date regardless of when the will or instrument was executed.

RE: House Bill 765 (Test. Additions to Trusts/Will References)

Section 1 of this bill amends G.S. 31-47 to update the law on leaving property to an existing trust by will ("testamentary additions" to trusts). The amendments are based partly on Section 2-511 of the Uniform Probate Code. G.S. 31-47 currently permits a testator to devise property to the trustee of any trust established before the testator's will is executed. Section 1 permits a devise to a trust when the trust instrument is executed concurrently with the testator's will. Section 1 clarifies that the trust need not have been funded during the testator's lifetime; the devise under the testator's will suffices. This removes the need to fund these trusts with token amounts of money (e.g., five dollars). Section 1 further specifies that such a trust, if revocable, is an inter vivos trust, not a testamentary trust, and that it is subject to Article 6 of Chapter 36C of the General Statutes (Revocable Trusts) from the date the trust instrument is executed. The section also makes stylistic and other minor clarifying changes.

Section 2 adds a new Article 9 to Chapter 31 of the General Statutes (Wills). The Article is based on Section 2-510 (Incorporation by Reference) and Section 2-512 (Events of Independent Significance) of the Uniform Probate Code. Proposed § 31-51 codifies the common law doctrine of incorporation by reference. Under this doctrine, a will may incorporate by reference a separate writing, in existence at the date of the execution of the will, if both the intent to incorporate and a sufficient identification of the writing appear in the language of the will. Proposed § 31-52 codifies the common law doctrine of independent significance. Under this doctrine, a will may dispose of property by reference to acts and events that have significance apart from their effect upon the dispositions made by the will, whether they occur before or after the execution of the will or before or after the testator's death. One example is the execution or revocation of another individual's will.

Section 3 authorizes the printing of official and drafters' comments.

Section 4 provides that the act is effective when it becomes law and applies to estates of decedents dying on or after that date regardless of when the will or instrument was executed.

HOUSE BILL 775*

Short Title:	Revise Simultaneous Death Act.	(Public)
Sponsors:	Representatives Ross; Alexander and Hurley.
Referred to:	Judiciary I.

March 15, 2007

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO REVISE THE UNIFORM SIMULTANEOUS DEATH ACT, AS RECOMMENDED BY THE GENERAL STATUTES COMMISSION.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Article 24 of Chapter 28A of the General Statutes reads as rewritten:

"Article 24.

"~~Uniform~~ 120-Hour Survivorship Requirement; Revised Simultaneous Death Act.

"§ 28A-24-1. ~~Disposition of property where no sufficient evidence of survivorship.~~ Definitions.

~~Where the title to property or the devolution thereof depends upon priority of death and there is no sufficient evidence that the persons have died otherwise than simultaneously, the property of each person shall be disposed of as if he had survived, except as provided otherwise in this Article.~~

In this Article:

(1) "Co-owners with right of survivorship" includes joint tenants in a joint tenancy with right of survivorship, tenants by the entireties, and other co-owners of property or accounts held under circumstances that entitle one or more to the whole of the property or account on the death of the other or others.

(2) "Governing instrument" means a deed, will, trust, insurance or annuity policy, account with a POD designation, pension, profit sharing, retirement, or similar benefit plan, instrument creating or exercising a power of appointment or a power of attorney, or a dispositive, appointive, or nominative instrument of any similar type.

(3) "Payor" means a trustee, insurer, business entity, employer, government, governmental agency or subdivision, or any other person authorized or obligated by law or a governing instrument to make payments.

"§ 28A-24-2. ~~Beneficiaries of another person's disposition of property.~~ Requirement of survival by 120 hours.

(a) ~~Other than as provided in subsection (b) below, if property is so disposed of that the right of a beneficiary to succeed to any interest therein is conditional upon his surviving another person and both persons die, and there is no sufficient evidence that the two have died other than simultaneously, the beneficiary shall be deemed not to have survived.~~ Except as otherwise provided in this Article, where the title to property, the devolution of property, the right to elect an interest in property, or any other right or benefit depends upon an individual's survivorship of the death of another individual, an individual who is not established by clear and convincing evidence to have survived the other individual by at least 120 hours is deemed to have predeceased the other individual.

(b) ~~If property is so disposed of that it is to be distributed among such members of a class as survive another person and there is no sufficient evidence that one or more members of the class and such other person died other than simultaneously, each member of the class so dying will be deemed to have survived such other person.~~ If the language of the governing instrument disposes of property in such a way that two or more beneficiaries are designated to take alternatively by reason of surviving each other and it is not established by clear and convincing evidence that any such beneficiary has survived any other such beneficiary by at least 120 hours, the property shall be divided into as many equal shares as there are alternative beneficiaries, and these shares shall be distributed respectively to each such beneficiary's estate.

(c) ~~If property is so disposed of that its disposition depends upon the time of death of two or more beneficiaries designated to take alternatively by reason of survivorship and there is no sufficient evidence that such beneficiaries have died otherwise than simultaneously, the property thus disposed of shall be divided into as many equal portions as there are alternative beneficiaries who would have taken the whole property if they had survived and such portions shall be distributed respectively to each such beneficiary.~~ If the language of the governing instrument disposes of property in such a way that it is to be distributed to the member or members of a class who survived an individual, each member of the class will be deemed to have survived that individual by at least 120 hours unless it is established by clear and convincing evidence that the individual survived the class member or members by at least 120 hours.

"§ 28A-24-3. ~~Joint tenants or tenants by the entirety.~~Co-owners with right of survivorship; requirement of survival by 120 hours.

~~(a) Where there is no sufficient evidence that two joint tenants or tenants by the entirety have died otherwise than simultaneously, the property shall be distributed one half as if one had survived and one half as if the other had survived. If there are more than two joint tenants and all of them have so died, the property thus distributed shall be in the proportion that one bears to the whole number of joint tenants.~~

~~(b) For the purpose of this section, the term "joint tenants" includes owners of property held under circumstances which entitled one or more to the whole of the property on the death of the other or others.~~

Except as otherwise provided in this Article, (i) if it is not established by clear and convincing evidence that one of two co-owners with right of survivorship survived the other co-owner by at least 120 hours, one-half of the property passes as if one had survived by at least 120 hours and one-half as if the other had survived by at least 120 hours and (ii) if there are more than two co-owners with right of survivorship and it is not established by clear and convincing evidence that at least one of them survived the others by at least 120 hours, the property passes to the estates of each of the co-owners in the proportion that one bears to the whole number of co-owners.

"§ 28A-24-4. ~~Insurance policies.~~ Survival of an event; 120-hour period not applicable.

~~Where the insured and the beneficiary in a policy of life or accident insurance have died and there is no sufficient evidence that they have died otherwise than simultaneously, the proceeds of the policy shall be distributed as if the insured had survived the beneficiary.~~

For purposes of a governing instrument that requires survival of an event, other than the death of another individual, the 120-hour survivorship requirement of this Article does not apply.

"§ 28A-24-5. ~~Article does not apply if decedent provides otherwise.~~ Victim deemed to survive slayer.

~~This Article shall not apply in the case of wills, living trusts, deeds, contracts of insurance, or any other situation wherein provision has been made for distribution of property different from the provisions of this Article, or wherein provision has been made for a presumption as to survivorship which results in a distribution of property different from that herein provided.~~

Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Article, solely for the purpose of determining whether the victim is entitled to any right or benefit that depends on surviving the death of a slayer under G.S. 31A-3, the slayer is deemed to have predeceased the victim and the victim is deemed to have survived the slayer by at least 120 hours (or any greater survival period required of the victim under the slayer's will or other governing instrument) unless it is established by clear and convincing evidence that the slayer survived the victim by at least 120 hours.

"§ 28A-24-6. ~~Uniformity of interpretation.~~Exceptions to the 120-hour survival requirement.

~~This Article shall be so construed and interpreted as to effectuate its general purpose to make uniform the law in those states which enact it.~~

Survival by 120 hours is not required if any of the following apply:

(1) The governing instrument contains language dealing explicitly with simultaneous deaths or deaths in a common disaster and the language is operable under the facts of the case.

(2) The governing instrument expressly indicates that an individual is not required to survive the death of another individual by any specified period or expressly requires the individual to survive another individual for a specified period; but survival must be established by clear and convincing evidence.

(3) The imposition of a 120-hour requirement of survival would cause a nonvested property interest or a power of appointment to fail to qualify for validity under G.S. 41-15; but survival must be established by clear and convincing evidence.

(4) The application of a 120-hour requirement of survival to multiple governing instruments would result in an unintended failure or duplication of a disposition; but survival must be established by clear and convincing evidence.

(5) The application of a 120-hour requirement of survival would deprive an individual or the estate of an individual of an otherwise available tax exemption, deduction or credit, expressly including the marital deduction, resulting in the imposition of a tax upon a donor or testator or other person (or their estate) as the transferor of any property. "Tax" includes any federal or State gift, estate or inheritance tax.

(6) The application of a 120-hour requirement of survival would result in an escheat.

"§ 28A-24-7. ~~Short title.~~ Evidence of death or status.

~~This Article may be cited as the Uniform Simultaneous Death Act.~~

For purposes of this Article, the following rules of evidence apply relating to the determination of death and status of a beneficiary subject to a requirement of survivorship and of the person the beneficiary must survive:

(1) Death occurs when an individual is determined to be dead pursuant to G.S. 90-323 or Chapter 28C of the General Statutes.

(2) A certified or authenticated copy of a death certificate purporting to be issued by an official or agency in the place where the death purportedly occurred is prima facie evidence of the fact, place, date, and time of death and the identity of the decedent. In the absence of evidence disputing the death certificate, that certificate shall be conclusive evidence of the fact, place, date, and time of death and the identity of the decedent.

(3) A certified or authenticated copy of any record or report of a governmental agency, domestic or foreign, that an individual is missing, detained, dead, or alive is prima facie evidence of the status and of the dates, circumstances, and places disclosed by the record or report. The record or report is conclusive evidence of the status and of the dates, circumstances, and places disclosed by the record or report unless there is evidence to the contrary.

(4) In the absence of prima facie evidence of death under subdivision (2) or (3) of this section, the fact of death may be established by clear and convincing evidence, including circumstantial evidence.

"§ 28A-24-8. Protection of payors, bona fide purchasers, and other third parties; personal liability of recipient.

(a) A payor or other third party is not liable for having made a payment or transferred an item of property or any other benefit to a person designated in a governing instrument who, under this Article, is not entitled to the payment or item of property, or for having taken any other action in good faith reliance on the person's apparent entitlement under the terms of the governing instrument, before the payor or other third party received written notice of a claimed lack of entitlement under this Article. A payor or other third party is liable for a payment made or other action taken after the payor or other third party received written notice of a claimed lack of entitlement under this Article.

Written notice of a claimed lack of entitlement under this Article must be mailed to the payor's or other third party's main office or home by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, or served upon the payor or other third party in the same manner as a summons in a civil action. Upon receipt of written notice of a claimed lack of entitlement under this Article, a payor or other third party may pay any amount owed or transfer or deposit any item of property other than tangible personal property held by it to or with the clerk of the superior court having jurisdiction of the probate proceedings relating to the decedent's estate, or if no proceedings have been commenced, to or with the clerk of the superior court having jurisdiction of probate proceedings relating to decedents' estates located in the county of the decedent's residence. The clerk shall hold the funds or item of property and, upon the clerk's determination under this Article, shall order disbursement in accordance with the determination. Payments, transfers, or deposits made to or with the clerk discharge the payor or other third party from all claims for the value of amounts paid to or items of property transferred to or deposited with the clerk.

(b) A person who purchases property for value and without notice, or who received a payment or other item of property in partial or full satisfaction of a legally enforceable obligation, is neither obligated under this Article to return the payment, item of property, or benefit, nor liable under this Article for the amount of the payment or the value of the item of property or benefit. But a person who, not for value, receives a payment, item of property, or any other benefit to which the person is not entitled under this Article is obligated to return the payment, item of property, or benefit, or is personally liable for the amount of the payment or the value of the item of property or benefit, to the person who is entitled to it under this Article."

SECTION 2. G.S. 29-13 reads as rewritten:

"§ 29-13. Descent and distribution upon ~~intestacy.~~ intestacy; 120-hour survivorship requirement, revised simultaneous death act, Article 24, Chapter 28A.

(a) All the estate of a person dying intestate shall descend and be distributed, subject to the payment of costs of administration and other lawful claims against the estate, and subject to the payment of State inheritance or estate taxes, as provided in this Chapter.

(b) The determination of whether an heir has predeceased a person dying intestate shall be made as provided by Article 24 of Chapter 28A of the General Statutes."

SECTION 3.(a) The catch line of G.S. 31-42 reads as rewritten:

"§ 31-42. Failure of devises by lapse or otherwise; ~~renunciation.~~ renunciation; 120-hour survivorship requirement, revised simultaneous death act, Article 24, Chapter 28A."

SECTION 3.(b) G.S. 31-42 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(c1) The determination of whether a devisee has predeceased the testator shall be made as provided by Article 24 of Chapter 28A of the General Statutes."

SECTION 4. G.S. 31A-14 reads as rewritten:

"§ 31A-14. ~~Uniform~~ Revised Simultaneous Death Act not applicable.

The ~~Uniform~~ Revised Simultaneous Death Act, ~~G.S. 28A-24-1 through G.S. 28A-24-7,~~ Article 24 of Chapter 28A of the General Statutes, shall not apply to cases governed by this Chapter."

SECTION 5. This act becomes effective October 1, 2007, and applies to determinations of title to or devolution of property dependent upon the death of an individual occurring on or after that date.

MEMORANDUM
May 25, 2007

TO: Senate Judiciary II Committee
FROM: General Statutes Commission
RE: House Bill 775 (Revise Simultaneous Death Act)

General Comments

This bill is based on the revised Uniform Simultaneous Death Act as approved in 1991 and amended in 1993 by the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws. The bill revises Article 24 of Chapter 28A of the General Statutes ("Uniform Simultaneous Death Act"), which provides default rules governing the disposition of property when the disposition depends upon the priority of death of two or more persons who apparently died at the same time. The current Act generally provides that, where there is "no sufficient evidence" that two or more persons have died otherwise than "simultaneously" and the title to property or the devolution of property depends upon the order of their deaths, the property of each person is distributed as if that person had survived the other.

The bill extends the current Act to situations in which there is sufficient evidence that one individual survives the other, but the period of survival is insubstantial. The bill imposes a 120-hour survival requirement, so that a person who fails to survive another person by at least 120 hours is deemed to have predeceased the other person. This is a default requirement that may be changed in, for example, a person's will. The bill also replaces the "no sufficient evidence" standard of proof with a "clear and convincing evidence" standard of proof, thereby requiring that survival by at least 120 hours must be shown by clear and convincing evidence. To date, approximately 24 states and the District of Columbia have adopted the 120-hour survival requirement.

Although imposition of the 120-hour survival requirement would in some cases result in the eventual takers of property being different from those under current law, the requirement avoids delay due to, and the costs of, multiple estate administrations to pass the same property and prevents the property from passing to persons who never enjoyed the property or to persons not desired by the initial decedent.

Specific Comments

Section 1. This section of the bill revises Article 24 of Chapter 28A of the General Statutes to adopt the 120-hour survival requirement and other provisions of the revised Uniform Simultaneous Death Act.

§ 28A-24-1. This section, as rewritten, defines the following key terms: "co-owners with right of survivorship," "governing instrument," and "payor." The substance of the current § 28A-24-1 is now covered by § 28A-24-2.

§ 28A-24-2. This section, as rewritten, brings forward the substance of current § 28A-24-1 and § 28A-24-2 with clarifying changes and the incorporation of the 120-hour survival requirement and the clear and convincing evidence standard of proof.

§ 28A-24-3. This section, as rewritten, deals with property held by "co-owners with right of survivorship" as defined in § 28A-24-1. As rewritten, the section incorporates the 120-hour survival requirement and the clear and convincing evidence standard of proof and replaces the current provisions dealing with property held by joint tenants with right of survivorship or tenants by the entirety.

§ 28A-24-4. This section currently applies to insurance policies, which are covered by the general provisions of revised § 28A-24-2. As rewritten, the section restricts the application of the 120-hour survival requirement to surviving the death of another individual; it does not apply to a requirement that an individual survive a different type of event (e.g., marriage).

§ 28A-24-5. This section, which creates a special exception to the 120-hour survival requirement dealing primarily with murder-suicides, replaces the current section that specifies situations under which the current Act does not apply. The substance of the current section is now covered by § 28A-24-6.

North Carolina's slayer statute already prevents a slayer from inheriting from the victim. As rewritten, § 28A-24-5 allows a victim who either dies first or survives by less than 120 hours to inherit from the slayer unless the slayer survives the victim by at least 120 hours. The provision applies to any right or benefit to which the victim would have been entitled if the victim had survived the slayer.

For example, a husband shoots his wife and then himself. The husband dies instantly, intestate, and the wife dies the next day in the hospital. Under this section, the wife is deemed to have survived the husband by at least 120 hours and, as an heir of the husband, is entitled to share in his estate, consistent with current law. If the wife in the example dies instantly and the husband dies the next day, he is deemed to have predeceased her, she is deemed to have survived him by at least 120 hours, and she is entitled to a share in his estate, which is a different result from the current law.

§ 28A-24-6. This section, as rewritten, provides that the 120-hour survival requirement does not apply if there is a governing instrument (e.g., a will) that provides otherwise, or if the requirement would:

- Cause a nonvested property interest or a power of appointment to fail to qualify for validity under G.S. 41-15 ("Uniform Statutory Rule Against Perpetuities").
- Result in an unintended failure or duplication of a disposition.
- Deprive an individual or the estate of an individual of an otherwise available tax exemption, deduction or credit.

- Result in an escheat of the property.

§ 28A-24-7. This section, as rewritten, provides the following rules of evidence relating to the determination of death and status of a beneficiary subject to a requirement of survivorship and of the individual the beneficiary must survive:

- Death occurs when a determination of death is made by a physician under G.S. 90-323, the North Carolina brain death statute, or when a missing person is decreed to be dead in an action under Chapter 28C of the General Statutes.

- A certified or authenticated copy of a death certificate is prima facie evidence of the fact, place, date, and time of death and the identity of the decedent. In the absence of evidence disputing the death certificate, the certificate is conclusive evidence of the fact, place, date, and time of death and the identity of the decedent.

- A certified or authenticated copy of any record or report of a governmental agency, domestic or foreign, that an individual is missing, detained, dead, or alive is prima facie evidence of the status and of the dates, circumstances, and places disclosed by the record or report. The record or report is conclusive evidence of the status and of the dates, circumstances, and places disclosed by the record or report unless there is evidence to the contrary.

- In the absence of a death certificate or one of the other governmental records described in § 28A-24-7(3), the fact of death may be established by clear and convincing evidence, including circumstantial evidence.

§ 28A-24-8. This section, which is new, provides protection to payors and other third parties who, before receiving written notice of a claimed lack of entitlement (failure of survivorship) under the Act, pay off or in other ways rely on a survivor's apparent entitlement to succeed to property. A payor or other third party is liable for a payment made or other action taken after the payor or other third party received written notice of a claimed lack of entitlement under the Act. The section also provides protection to bona fide purchasers.

Sections 2 and 3. These sections of the bill insert cross references to the Revised Simultaneous Death Act in G.S. 29-13, relating to the descent and distribution of the estate of a person dying intestate, and G.S. 31-42, the anti-lapse statute.

Section 4. This section of the bill updates the references to the Uniform Simultaneous Death Act in G.S. 31A-14 to provide that the Revised Simultaneous Death Act does not apply to cases governed by Chapter 31A of the General Statutes ("Acts Barring Property Rights").

Section 5. This section of the bill provides that the act becomes effective October 1, 2007, and applies to determinations of title to or devolution of property dependent upon the death of an individual occurring on or after that date.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO INCREASE THE PENALTY FOR THE INTENTIONAL STARVATION OF AN ANIMAL.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 14-360 reads as rewritten:

"§ 14-360. Cruelty to animals; construction of section.

(a) If any person shall intentionally overdrive, overload, wound, injure, torment, or kill, or deprive of necessary sustenance, or cause or procure to be overdriven, overloaded, wounded, injured, tormented, killed, or deprived of necessary sustenance, any animal, every such offender shall for every such offense be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor.

(b) If any person shall maliciously torture, mutilate, maim, cruelly beat, disfigure, poison, or kill, or kill by intentional deprivation of necessary sustenance, or cause or procure to be tortured, mutilated, maimed, cruelly beaten, disfigured, poisoned, or killed, or killed by intentional deprivation of necessary sustenance, any animal, every such offender shall for every such offense be guilty of a Class I felony. However, nothing in this section shall be construed to increase the penalty for cockfighting provided for in G.S. 14-362.

(c) As used in this section, the words "torture", "torment", and "cruelly" include or refer to any act, omission, or neglect causing or permitting unjustifiable pain, suffering, or death. As used in this section, the term "animal" includes every living vertebrate in the classes Amphibia, Reptilia, Aves, and Mammalia except human beings. However, this section shall not apply to the following activities:

(2) Lawful activities conducted for purposes of biomedical research or training or for purposes of production of livestock, poultry, or aquatic species.

(2a) Lawful activities conducted for the primary purpose of providing food for human or animal consumption.

(3) Activities conducted for lawful veterinary purposes.

(4) The lawful destruction of any animal for the purposes of protecting the public, other animals, property, or the public health."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective December 1, 2007, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date. HOUSE BILL 995:
Increase Penalty/Starvation of Animals

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	June 13, 2007
Introduced by:	Rep. McElraft	Summary by:	Ben Popkin
Version:	First Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 995 would increase the penalty for killing an animal by intentionally depriving it of sustenance.

CURRENT LAW: G.S. 14-360(a) makes it a Class 1 misdemeanor to intentionally kill an animal or deprive an animal of necessary sustenance. G.S. 14-360(b) makes it a Class I felony to maliciously kill an animal, but there is no specific language in the felony offense that addresses depriving an animal of necessary sustenance. This section has been interpreted to mean that depriving an animal of necessary sustenance (even if it is malicious and leads to the animal's death) is only covered under subsection (a) as a misdemeanor.

The presumptive minimum sentence for a Class 1 misdemeanor is community punishment of 1 – 45 days and a fine at the discretion of the court. The presumptive minimum sentence for a Class I felony is community punishment of 4 – 6 months and a fine in the discretion of the court.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 995 would add "...kill by intentional deprivation of necessary sustenance..." to the offenses against animals that are currently prohibited by subsection (b) of G.S. 14-360 and are punishable as Class I felonies.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The bill would become effective December 1, 2007, and would apply to offenses committed on or after that date.

This fiscal analysis is independent of the impact of other criminal penalty bills being considered by the General Assembly, which could also increase the projected prison population and thus the availability of prison beds in future years. The Fiscal Research Division is tracking the cumulative effect of all criminal penalty bills on the prison system as well as the Judicial Department.*

BILL SUMMARY: Current G.S. 14-360(a) provides that it is a Class 1 misdemeanor offense to intentionally "...injure, torment, or kill, or deprive of necessary sustenance, or cause or procure to be overdriven, overloaded, wounded, injured, tormented, killed, or deprived of necessary sustenance, any animal..." Similarly, current G.S. 14-360(b) provides that it is a Class I felony offense to "...maliciously torture, mutilate, maim, cruelly beat, disfigure, or kill...any animal...," or to cause/procure such act.

H.B. 995 amends G.S. 14-360(b) to also provide that it is a Class I felony to kill, or cause/procure to be killed, any animal by intentional deprivation of necessary sustenance. It is assumed that inclusion in this subsection requires that the offense be done "maliciously."

ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGY:

General

To the extent the proscribed acts are now prosecuted as "maliciously" killing or causing/procuring the killing of any animal (Class I felony), the proposed change would have little impact. However, if such acts are now prosecuted at the Class 1 misdemeanor level as intentional starvation, the proposed change could enhance the penalty for offenses meeting the "malicious" criterion - to the Class I felony level.

Offense data for G.S. 14-360 does not distinguish how many violations have resulted in the killing of an animal due to intentional starvation, or at what level such violations were prosecuted. Therefore, Fiscal Research cannot estimate the number of future violations that might fulfill the elements of the proposed Class I felony offense. However, the relatively low number of felony charges and convictions under G.S. 14-360(b), coupled with the applicable penalty levels, does not suggest this proposal will have a significant fiscal impact.

Department of Correction – Division of Prisons

Based on the most recent prison population projections and estimated available bed capacity, there are no surplus prison beds available over the immediate five-year horizon or beyond.[1] Therefore, any new felony conviction that results in an active sentence will require an additional prison bed.

There were 9 Class I felony convictions under G.S. 14-360(b) during FY 2005-06, relative to 196 Class 1 misdemeanor convictions under G.S. 14-360(a). Based on this low number of felony convictions, the proposed change is not assumed to result in a significant number of additional felony convictions.

However, it is not known how prosecution, conviction rates, or sentencing practices will differ in response to this proposal. If certain offenses, which would otherwise be prosecuted at the Class 1 misdemeanor level, were elevated to the Class I felony level, the enhancement would: 1) potentially increase the rate of active sentencing (incarceration); 2) significantly lengthen the period of incarceration; and 3) necessitate imprisonment within a state facility, thereby increasing the demand for prison beds.[2] In FY 2005-06, 20% of Class 1 misdemeanor convictions received active sentences, with an average estimated time served of 31 days. In contrast, 15% of Class I felony convictions received active sentences, with an average estimated time served of approximately 7 months.[3]

[1] The Sentencing and Policy Advisory Commission prepares prison population projections for each bill containing a criminal penalty. The Commission assumes for such bills that expanding existing, or creating new criminal offenses produces no deterrent or incapacitative effect on crime. Accordingly, the Fiscal Research Division does not assume deterrent effects for any criminal penalty bill.

For illustration, if twelve Class I convictions were to occur annually, the combination of active sentences and probation revocations would require one additional prison bed in the first applicable year; four additional beds in the second year; and 2 new employees in the second year. Assuming these thresholds and inmate assignment to medium custody, the construction of four additional prison beds within a new, stand alone facility could cost the State $272,160 in FY 2007-08; conversely, bed construction within an add-on facility could cost approximately $168,480.[4] These costs are attributed to FY 2007-08 since the construction of additional prison beds, whether within an add-on or stand-alone facility, requires budgeting at least three years in advance. Potential operating costs could total $116,390 by FY 2009-10.[5]

Department of Correction – Division of Community Corrections

In FY 2005-06, 85% of Class I felony convictions resulted in either intermediate or community punishments, predominately special, intensive, or general supervision probation.[6] Thus, assuming that future felony convictions occur, the Division of Community Corrections could assume some additional costs for offenders placed under its jurisdiction. It is not known how many offenders might be sentenced to intermediate or community punishments, to which type, or for how long. However, Fiscal Research anticipates that the majority of potential DCC costs will be incurred due to increased intermediate sanctioning.

- Presently, general supervision of intermediate and community offenders by a probation officer costs DCC $1.96 per offender, per day; no cost is assumed for those receiving unsupervised probation, or who are ordered only to pay fines, fees, or restitution.
- The daily cost per offender on intermediate sanction is much higher, ranging from $7.71 to $14.97 depending on the type of sanction.
- Intensive supervision probation is the most frequently used intermediate sanction, and costs an estimated $14.97 per offender, per day; on average, intensive supervision lasts six-months, with general supervision assumed for a designated period thereafter.

[2] Active sentences between 1-90 days are served in local jails. The Department of Correction reimburses counties $18 for each day that offenders are housed longer than 30 days (between 30 and 90). Sentences longer than 90 days are to be served in state prison; however, when bed shortages demand it, the State may lease needed beds from counties.

[3] These FY 2005-06 statistics per offense class are total conviction averages across all prior record levels and sentencing ranges (mitigated, presumptive, and aggravated). The type of sentence imposed (active, intermediate, or community) and length of sentence imposed could vary for affected offenses.

[4] New, "stand alone" institution built for Expanded Operating Capacity (EOC); single cells are assumed for close custody, and dormitories are assumed for medium and minimum custody (occupancy no greater than 130% of SOC).

"Add-on" facilities (close and medium custody) are built within the perimeter of an existing 1,000-cell Close Security Institution; a minimum custody "add-on" is built adjacent to an existing perimeter. "Add-on" facilities employ the same EOC custody configurations as "stand alone" (i.e. single cells for close custody, and dorms for medium and minimum custody levels).

[5] Impact on incarcerated population is assumed for FY 2008-09, given the effective date of December 1, 2007 and typical lag time between charge and conviction (6 months).

[6] 80% of Class 1 misdemeanor convictions resulted in non-active sentences in FY 2005-06.

Judicial Branch

AOC data for CY 2006 show 136 defendants charged with a felony under G.S. 14-360(b), relative to 446 charged with a misdemeanor under G.S. 14-360(a). Again, it is not known how prosecution may differ in response to the proposed change (e.g. how many Class I felony charges might occur for the proscribed offense, in lieu of Class 1 misdemeanor charges). However, the Administrative Office of the Courts expects that any potential penalty enhancement would be accompanied by more vigorous defense and prosecution, and would thereby increase court-time requirements and the associated costs of case disposal. Specifically, the AOC estimates that affected cases would be elevated to superior court, increasing jury involvement and workloads for district attorneys, superior court judges, clerks, court reporters, and indigent defense counsel. Table I demonstrates the estimated differences in costs per single trial and plea for an affected case.

Table 1 - Administrative Office of the Courts Cost Estimates Per Trial and Plea: FY 2007-08

Offense Class	Trial	Plea	Change in Cost: Trial	Change in Cost: Plea
Class 1 Misdemeanor	$ 3,702	$ 243	N/A	N/A
Class I Felony	$ 6,980	$ 298	$ 3,278	$55

As shown, prosecution at the Class I felony level could cost an additional $3,278 per trial, and $55 per plea. These cost estimates account for indigent defense. Actual costs may vary with time requirements and disposition.

A copy of the order shall be furnished to the juvenile and to the juvenile's attorney. If the direct contempt by a juvenile is based on acts before a judge that so involve the judge that the judge's objectivity may reasonably be questioned, the order shall be returned before a different judge presiding in juvenile court.

(c) After a determination is made pursuant to subsection (a) or (b) of this section that a juvenile has committed direct contempt, the court may order any or all of the following:

(1) That the juvenile be detained in a juvenile detention facility for up to five days.

HOUSE BILL 1479:
Juvenile Contempt/Procedures and Sanctions

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	June 13, 2007
Introduced by:	Reps. Glazier, Lucas	Summary by:	Ben Popkin
Version:	Third Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 1479 would create Article 3 in Chapter 5A of the General Statutes to address contempt by juveniles.

CURRENT LAW: Articles 1 and 2 of Chapter 5A address criminal and civil contempt generally. G.S. 7B-2505 (the Juvenile Code) provides that upon the motion of a juvenile court counselor or on the court's own motion, the court can issue an order directing a juvenile who has been adjudicated as undisciplined to appear to show cause why the juvenile should not be held in contempt of court for willfully failing to comply with an order of the court. The first time the juvenile is held in contempt, the court may order the juvenile confined in an approved detention facility for not more than 24 hours. The second time a juvenile is held in contempt the court can order the juvenile to be held in an approved detention facility for not more than three days. For the third and all subsequent times a juvenile is held in contempt, the court may order to the juvenile to be confined in an approved detention facility for not more than five days. A juvenile cannot be confined for more than 14 days in one 12 month period.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 1479 would enact statutes to address contempt by juveniles.

Contempt by a Juvenile

If an unemancipated minor who: (i) is at least 6 years of age and not yet 16 years of age; (ii) has not been convicted of a crime in superior court; and (iii) commits any of the following acts, the individual is committing contempt:

- Willful behavior committed during court and directly tending to interrupt the proceedings.
- Willful behavior committed during court in the court's immediate view and presence and directly tending to impair the respect due to the court.
- Willful disobedience, resistance or interference with a court's lawful process, order, directive, instruction, or execution.
- Willful refusal to be sworn or affirmed as a witness or refusal to answer questions when the refusal is not legally justified.
- Willful or grossly negligent failure to comply with schedules and practices of the court resulting in substantial interference with the court's business.
- Willful refusal to testify or produce other information upon the order of a judge under the statutes that grant immunity to witnesses.
- Willful communication with a juror in an improper attempt to influence to influence deliberations.
- Any other act or omission in another section of the statutes as a ground for criminal contempt.

The bill specifies 2 types of Contempt:

- Direct Contempt by a juvenile is when each of the following conditions is met:
    - The act is committed within the sight or hearing of a presiding judicial official.

- The act is committed in or the immediate proximity to the room where the proceedings are being held before the court.
- The act is likely to interfere or interrupt with matters before the court.

- Indirect Contempt is any contempt that is not direct contempt.

Direct Contempt

Sanctions for Direct Contempt: Summarily Imposed Sanctions

A presiding judicial official can summarily impose measures in response to direct contempt by a juvenile when needed to restore order or maintain the authority of the court and when the measures are imposed at about the same time as the contempt. Before imposing sanctions summarily, the judicial official must:

- Give the juvenile notice of the contempt allegation and an opportunity to respond.
- Appoint an attorney to represent the juvenile and allow time for them to confer.
- Find facts supporting the summary imposition of the measures and establish the facts beyond a reasonable doubt.

Sanctions for Direct Contempt: Sanctions that are not Summarily Imposed

If a judicial official chooses not to proceed summarily, the official can enter an order appointing counsel for the juvenile and direct the juvenile to appear before a judge and show cause why the juvenile should not be held in contempt. If the direct contempt is based on acts before a judge that so involve the judge that objectivity can be questioned, the contempt order shall be before a different judge.

Determination of Direct Contempt and Appeal

If the juvenile has committed direct contempt, the court can order any or all of the following:

- Detention in a juvenile detention facility for up to 5 days
- 30 hours of supervised community service arranged by a juvenile court counselor
- Evaluations necessary for the court to determine the needs of the juvenile

A judicial official can terminate or reduce the sanction at any time. Appeal from an order finding a juvenile in direct contempt is to the NC Court of Appeals.

Indirect Contempt:

Sanctions for Indirect Contempt:

Indirect contempt would be adjudged and sanctioned under G.S. 7B-2505 of the Juvenile Code.

SECTION 2 would amend the definition of delinquent juvenile to include committing indirect contempt.

SECTION 3 provides that the court has exclusive jurisdiction of juvenile contempt proceedings.

SECTION 4 of the bill provides that the intake and evaluation procedures for delinquent and undisciplined juveniles do not apply when a juvenile must appear and show cause in a contempt hearing.

SECTION 5 clarifies that points are not to be assigned for adjudications of direct and indirect contempt of court.

SECTION 6 states that an adjudication of indirect contempt falls within the minor offense classification.

SECTION 7 would add to the duties and powers of juvenile court counselors the duty to assist in the implementation of any order resulting from the direct contempt by a juvenile.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The bill would become effective December 1, 2007 and applies to acts occurring on or after that date.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO REQUIRE INVESTIGATIONS OF THE USE OF DEADLY FORCE BY LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS UNDER CERTAIN CIRCUMSTANCES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Article 8 of Chapter 147 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 147-90. Investigations of uses of deadly force.

In every instance in which a private citizen is killed as a result of the use of a firearm by a law enforcement officer in the line of duty, the district attorney in the prosecutorial district in which the death occurred shall, upon the request of the surviving spouse or next of kin of the private citizen within 180 days of the death, request the State Bureau of Investigation to conduct an investigation into the incident. For purposes of this section, the term "next of kin" includes only the child, father, mother, sister, or brother of the private citizen.

Statements prepared by or on behalf of a district attorney pursuant to this section are not public records as defined by G.S. 132-1 and may be released by the district attorney only as provided by G.S. 132-1.4 or other applicable law."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective October 1, 2007, and applies to acts occurring on or after that date.

HOUSE BILL 1617:
Investigations of Deadly Force

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	June 14, 2007
Introduced by:	Reps. Barnhart, Kiser, Glazier, Faison	Summary by:	Jennifer McGinnis Committee Counsel
Version:	First Edition

SUMMARY: House Bill 1617 would require district attorneys to investigate the use of deadly force by law enforcement officers in certain situations.

CURRENT LAW: G.S. 7A-61 sets forth the duties of district attorneys to include: preparing the trial docket; prosecution of all criminal actions and infractions requiring prosecution in State superior and district court; advising justice officers; and performing such duties related to appeals to the appellate courts as the State Attorney General may require. G.S. 147-89 states that it is the duty of district attorneys, who have United States district and circuit courts in their jurisdiction and with the permission of those courts, to prosecute or assist in prosecution State criminal cases that have been removed to federal court. On the request of the Governor or Attorney General, the State Bureau of Investigation has the power to investigate various criminal matters as provided in G.S. 114-15, including offenses against public safety, and riots and civil disorders. The State Bureau of Investigation can investigate without request incidents of arson, damage, and misuse of State property and assaults or threats against certain legislative, executive or judicial officers.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 1617 would create a new section in the General Statutes that provides that the district attorney of the prosecutorial district where a private citizen is killed as a result of the use of a firearm by a law enforcement officer in the line of duty must, upon request of a surviving spouse or next of kin of the deceased within 180 days of the death, request the State Bureau of Investigation to investigate the incident. For the purposes of the section, "next of kin" is defined as the child, father, mother, sister or brother of the private citizen.

Statements prepared by a district attorney under the new section would not be public records as defined by G.S. 132-1 and can be released only as allowed by G.S. 132-1.4, which specifically provides what information in criminal investigations conducted by and records of criminal intelligence information compiled by public law enforcement agencies is public information.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The bill becomes effective October 1, 2007 and applies to acts occurring on or after that date.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 7B-1111(a) is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(a) The court may terminate the parental rights upon a finding of one or more of the following:

(10) Where the juvenile has been relinquished to a county department of social services or a licensed child-placing agency for the purpose of adoption or placed with a prospective adoptive parent for adoption; the consent or relinquishment to adoption by the parent has become irrevocable except upon a showing of fraud, duress, or other circumstance as set forth in G.S. 48-3-609 or G.S. 48-3-707; termination of parental rights is a condition precedent to adoption in the jurisdiction where the adoption preceding is to be filed; and the parent does not contest the termination of parental rights."

SECTION 2. G.S. 48-2-100 reads as rewritten:

"§ 48-2-100. Jurisdiction.

(a) Adoption shall be by a special proceeding before the clerk of superior court.

(b) Except as provided in subsection (c) of this section, jurisdiction over adoption proceedings commenced under this Chapter exists if, at the commencement of the proceeding:

(2) The prospective adoptive parent has lived in or been domiciled in this State for at least the six consecutive months immediately preceding the filing of the ~~petition.~~petition; or

(3) An agency licensed by this State or a county department of social services in this State has legal custody of the adoptee.

(c) The courts of this State shall not exercise jurisdiction under this Chapter if at the time the petition for adoption is filed, a court of any other state is exercising jurisdiction substantially in conformity with the Uniform Child-Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act, Article 2 of Chapter 50A of the General Statutes. However, this subsection shall not apply if within 60 days after the date the petition for adoption is filed, the court of the other state dismisses its proceeding or releases its exclusive, continuing jurisdiction."

SECTION 3. This act becomes effective October 1, 2007, and applies to motions in the cause or petitions filed on or after that date.

HOUSE BILL 865:
Remove Barriers To Interstate Adoption

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	June 18, 2007
Introduced by:	Reps. Goodwin, Glazier, Moore	Summary by:	Ben Popkin
Version:	Second Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 865 would amend statutes pertaining to termination of parental rights and adoption in order to make it easier for residents of other states to adopt children in North Carolina.

House Bill 865 would become effective October 1, 2007 and would apply to motions in the cause or petitions filed on or after that date.

CURRENT LAW:

Adoption conditioned upon termination of parental rights. In North Carolina, the biological parent's rights are not required to be terminated before an adoption can take place. It is enough if the biological parent consents to an adoption or relinquishes the child to an agency for adoption. The decree of adoption has the effect of terminating the biological parent's rights. However, some other states do require that the biological parent's rights be terminated before an adoption can take place.

Jurisdiction over adoption proceedings. Under the current law, a prospective adoptive parent must live in North Carolina for at least six months prior to filing an adoption petition, with the exception that a prospective adoptive parent who has moved to North Carolina may file a petition to adopt a child who has lived in North Carolina for six months or from birth.

In addition, a North Carolina court may not exercise jurisdiction over an adoption proceeding if another state is exercising jurisdiction in conformity with the Uniform Child-Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act at the time the petition is filed.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 865 would amend North Carolina law to make it easier for nonresidents to adopt children in North Carolina in the following ways:

Adoption conditioned upon termination of parental rights. Section 1 of the bill adds a new provision to North Carolina's statute dealing with termination of parental rights. It would authorize the court to terminate parental rights when all of the following conditions are met:

- The child has been relinquished for adoption or directly placed with a prospective adoptive parent;
- The relinquishment or consent to adoption has become irrevocable;
- Termination of parental rights is a condition precedent to adoption in the jurisdiction where the adoption will take place; and
- The parent does not contest the termination.

Jurisdiction over adoption proceedings. Section 2 of the bill would delete the requirement that a prospective adoptive parent reside in North Carolina before filing a petition to adopt. A North Carolina court would have jurisdiction under any of the following circumstances:

- The child has lived in North Carolina for six months or from birth;
- The prospective adoptive parent has lived in North Carolina for at least six months; or

- A North Carolina child-placing agency or department of social services has legal custody of the child.

The bill would also allow a North Carolina court to exercise jurisdiction when another state was already exercising jurisdiction at the time the adoption petition is filed if, within 60 days after the date the petition is filed, the other court dismisses its proceeding or releases jurisdiction.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The bill would become effective October 1, 2007 and would apply to termination of parental rights and adoption proceedings commenced on or after that date.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO EXPAND THE REACH OF NORTH CAROLINA COURTS IN PROCEEDINGS TO TERMINATE THE PARENTAL RIGHTS OF NONRESIDENT PARENTS OF RESIDENT CHILDREN.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 7B-1101 reads as rewritten:

"§ 7B-1101. Jurisdiction.

The court shall have exclusive original jurisdiction to hear and determine any petition or motion relating to termination of parental rights to any juvenile who resides in, is found in, or is in the legal or actual custody of a county department of social services or licensed child-placing agency in the district at the time of filing of the petition or motion. The court shall have jurisdiction to terminate the parental rights of any parent irrespective of the age of the parent. Provided, that before exercising jurisdiction under this Article, the court shall find that it has jurisdiction to make a child-custody determination under the provisions of G.S. 50A-201, 50A-203, or 50A-204. The court shall have jurisdiction to terminate the parental rights of any parent irrespective of the state of residence of the parent. Provided, that before exercising jurisdiction under this Article regarding the parental rights of a nonresident parent, the court shall find that it has jurisdiction to make a child-custody determination under the provisions of G.S. 50A-201 or G.S. 50A-203, without regard to G.S. 50A-204 and that process was served on the nonresident parent pursuant to G.S. 7B-1106. Provided, further, that the clerk of superior court shall have jurisdiction for adoptions under Chapter 48 of the General Statutes."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective October 1, 2007, and applies to motions in the cause or petitions filed on or after that date.

HOUSE BILL 866:
Expand Reach of Courts/Term. Parental Rights

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	June 18, 2007
Introduced by:	Reps. Goodwin, Moore	Summary by:	Ben Popkin
Version:	Third Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 866 would amend Article 11 (Termination of Parental Rights) of Chapter 7B (Juvenile Code) of the General Statutes to expand the jurisdiction of North Carolina district courts hearing petitions or motions to terminate parental rights to any juvenile in the custody of a county department of social services or licensed child-placing agency. The bill would allow courts that have jurisdiction to make a child-custody determination to have jurisdiction to terminate the parental rights of any parent irrespective of the parent's state of residence.

CURRENT LAW: G.S. 7B-1101 grants North Carolina district courts "...exclusive original jurisdiction to hear and determine any petition or motion relating to termination of parental rights to any juvenile who resides in, is found in, or is in the legal or actual custody of a county department of social services or licensed child-placing agency in the district..."[1] The law requires "...that before exercising jurisdiction under this Article, the court shall find that is has jurisdiction to make a child-custody determination under the provisions of G.S. 50A-201 (Initial child-custody jurisdiction), 50A-203 (Jurisdiction to modify determination), or 50A-204 (Temporary emergency jurisdiction)."[2]

G.S. 50A-204 grants North Carolina courts "...temporary emergency jurisdiction if the child is present in this State and the child has been abandoned or it is necessary in an emergency to protect the child because the child, or a sibling or parent of the child, is subjected to or threatened with mistreatment or abuse."[3] Custody determinations made by courts establishing jurisdiction under this section are primarily intended to be temporary orders. From the Official Comment following this section of the General Statutes, "The purpose of the order is to protect the child until the State that has jurisdiction under Sections 201-203 enters an order."

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 866 would amend Article 11 (Termination of Parental Rights) of Chapter 7B (Juvenile Code) of the General Statutes to expand the jurisdiction of North Carolina district courts hearing petitions or motions to terminate parental rights to any juvenile in the custody of a county department of social services or licensed child-placing agency. The bill would allow courts having jurisdiction to make a child-custody determination to have jurisdiction to terminate the parental rights of any parent irrespective of the parent's state of residence.

HB866 would require that, before a court may exercise jurisdiction regarding the parental rights of a nonresident parent, the court must find: 1) that is has jurisdiction to make a child-custody determination under the provisions of G.S. 50A-201 (Initial child-custody jurisdiction) or 50A-203 (Jurisdiction to modify determination), "...without regard to G.S. 50A-204 (Temporary emergency jurisdiction)", and 2) that process was served on the nonresident parent pursuant to G.S. 7B-1106.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The act would be effective October 1, 2007 and would apply to motions or actions for termination of parental rights filed on or after that date. H0866e3-SMRD

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO CLARIFY THAT ENCUMBERED PROPERTY IS SUBJECT TO EXECUTION UNDER ARTICLE 28 OF CHAPTER 1 OF THE GENERAL STATUTES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 1-313(1) reads as rewritten:

"§ 1-313. Form of execution.

The execution must be directed to the sheriff, or to the coroner when the sheriff is a party to or interested in the action. In those counties where the office of coroner is abolished, or is vacant, and in which process is required to be executed on the sheriff, the authority to execute such process shall be vested in the clerk of court; however, the clerk of court is hereby empowered to designate and direct by appropriate order some person to act in his stead to execute the same. The execution must also be subscribed by the clerk of the court, and must refer to the judgment, stating the county where the judgment roll or transcript is filed, the names of the parties, the amount of the judgment, if it is for money, the amount actually due thereon, and the time of docketing in the county to which the execution is issued, and shall require the officer substantially as follows:

(1) Against ~~Property—~~property.

a. No Lien on Personal Property until Levy. – If it is against the property of the judgment debtor, it shall require the officer to satisfy the judgment out of his personal property; and if sufficient personal property cannot be found, out of the real property belonging to him on the day when the judgment was docketed in the county, or at any time thereafter; but no execution against the property of a judgment debtor is a lien on his personal property, as against any bona fide purchaser from him for value, or as against any other execution, except from the levy thereof.

b. Real or personal property required to satisfy the judgment is subject to execution regardless of whether the property is encumbered. However, any personal or real property sold under execution remains subject to all prior encumbrances, including liens, mortgages, deeds of trust, perfected security interests, and prior judgments which became effective prior to the lien of the judgment pursuant to which the execution sale is held, in the same manner and to the same extent as if no such sale had been held."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective October 1, 2007.

HOUSE BILL 1549:
Clarify Laws Governing Execution on Judgments

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	June 19, 2007
Introduced by:	Reps. McGee, Stam	Summary by:	Kory Goldsmith
Version:	First Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 1549 clarifies the Civil Procedure law regarding execution on property required to satisfy a judgment. The bill states that real or personal property is subject to execution regardless of whether the property is encumbered. However, property sold under execution remains subject to all prior encumbrances.

CURRENT LAW:

Under current law, in most cases, the execution of a judgment in a civil action is directed to the sheriff to levy upon, or seize property of the debtor to satisfy the judgment. The execution against property of a judgment debtor must be first satisfied out of the personal property of the debtor, and if there is insufficient personal property to satisfy the judgment, then it can be satisfied out of real property belonging to the debtor on the day the judgment was docketed or at any time thereafter. The execution does not become a lien on personal property until it is actually levied on, or seized.

Case law has held that when a levy is made on an automobile subject to execution, the officer must report the levy to the Division of Motor Vehicles and the lien created by the levy becomes subordinate to all other liens noted on the certificate of title.

In addition, G.S. 1-339.68(b) provides:

(b) Any real property sold under execution remains subject to all liens which became effective prior to the lien of the judgment pursuant to which the sale is held, in the same manner and to the same extent as if no such sale had been held.

BILL ANALYSIS:

House Bill 1549 adds language to the law that defines execution against property to clarify that real or personal property required to satisfy a judgment is subject to execution, regardless of whether the property is encumbered. Any property sold under execution, remains subject to all prior encumbrances, including, liens, mortgages, deeds of trust, perfected security interests, and prior judgments.

EFFECTIVE DATE:

This act becomes effective October 1, 2007.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO ESTABLISH CUSTODY, VISITATION, EXPEDITED HEARING, AND ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATIONS PROCEDURES WHEN A PARENT RECEIVES MILITARY TEMPORARY DUTY, DEPLOYMENT, OR MOBILIZATION ORDERS.

Whereas, currently there are six major military bases in North Carolina; and

Whereas, the military population of this State is the fourth largest in the nation, with active-duty service members numbering over 100,000; and

Whereas, temporary duty, the deployment of an active-duty service member, or the mobilization of a member of the National Guard or Reserves, sometimes with little advance notice, can have a disruptive effect on custody or visitation arrangements involving minor children of service members; and

Whereas, service members should be protected, as should their minor children, from the loss of custodial arrangements and disruption of family contact due to the service member's absence pursuant to military orders for temporary duty, deployment, or mobilization; and

Whereas, other members of a service member's family, such as parents or current spouses, can provide love, comfort, care, and continuity to the service member's child through delegated visitation when a service member is absent due to military orders; and

Whereas, the regular scheduling of hearings may be harmful to the interest of service members who, due to military orders, may need to have an expedited hearing or may need to use electronic means to give testimony when they cannot appear in person in court; and

Whereas, the use of expedited hearings and testimony by electronic means, at the request of the service member who is absent or about to depart, would aid and promote fair, efficient, and prompt judicial processes for the resolution of family law matters; Now, therefore,

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 50-13.7(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) ~~An~~ Except as otherwise provided in G.S. 50-13.7A, an order of a court of this State for support of a minor child may be modified or vacated at any time, upon motion in the cause and a showing of changed circumstances by either party or anyone interested subject to the limitations of G.S. 50-13.10. Subject to the provisions of G.S. 50A-201, 50A-202, and 50A-204, an order of a court of this State for custody of a minor child may be modified or vacated at any time, upon motion in the cause and a showing of changed circumstances by either party or anyone interested."

SECTION 2. Article 1 of Chapter 50 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 50-13.7A. Custody and visitation upon military temporary duty, deployment, or mobilization.

(a) Purpose. – It is the purpose of this section to provide a means by which to facilitate a fair, efficient, and swift process to resolve matters regarding custody and visitation when a parent receives temporary duty, deployment, or mobilization orders from the military.

(b) Definitions. – As used in this section:

(1) The term 'deployment' means the temporary transfer of a service member serving in an active-duty status to another location in support of combat or some other military operation.

(2) The term 'mobilization' means the call-up of National Guard or Reserve service member to extended active duty status. For purposes of this definition, 'mobilization' does not include National Guard or Reserve annual training.

(3) The term 'temporary duty' means the transfer of a service member from one military base to a different location, usually another base, for a limited period of time to accomplish training or to assist in the performance of a noncombat mission.

(c) Custody. – When a parent who has custody, or has joint custody with primary physical custody, receives temporary duty, deployment, or mobilization orders from the military that involve moving a substantial distance from the parent's residence or otherwise have a material effect on the parent's ability to exercise custody responsibilities:

(1) Any temporary custody order for the child during the parent's absence shall end no later than 10 days after the parent returns; and

(2) The temporary duty, mobilization, or deployment and the temporary disruption to the child's schedule shall not be a factor in a determination of change of circumstances if a motion is filed to transfer custody from the service member.

(d) Visitation. – If the parent with visitation rights receives military temporary duty, deployment, or mobilization orders that involve moving a substantial distance from the parent's residence or otherwise have a material effect on the parent's ability to exercise visitation rights, the court may delegate the parent's visitation rights, or a portion thereof, to a family member with a close and substantial relationship to the minor child for the duration of the parent's absence, if delegating visitation rights is in the child's best interest.

(e) Expedited Hearings. – Upon motion of a parent who has received military temporary duty, deployment, or mobilization orders, the court shall, for good cause shown, hold an expedited hearing in custody and visitation matters instituted under this section when the military duties of the parent have a material effect on the parent's ability, or anticipated ability, to appear in person at a regularly scheduled hearing.

(f) Electronic Communications. – Upon motion of a parent who has received military temporary duty, deployment, or mobilization orders, the court shall, upon reasonable advance notice and for good cause shown, allow the parent to present testimony and evidence by electronic means in custody and visitation matters instituted under this section when the military duties of the parent have a material effect on the parent's ability to appear in person at a regularly scheduled hearing. The phrase 'electronic means' includes communication by telephone, video teleconference, or the Internet."

HOUSE BILL 1634:
Custody/Visitation/Military Orders

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	June 18, 2007
Introduced by:	Reps. Martin, Goodwin, Hall, Moore	Summary by:	Jennifer McGinnis
Version:	PCS to Second Edition H1634-CSRI-17		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 1634 would amend the law relating to custody and visitation when a custodial parent is mobilized or otherwise receives military orders that require the parent to move temporarily away from the residence. The bill would become effective on October 1, 2007, and apply to custody or visitation actions instituted on or after that date.

CURRENT LAW: The statutes do not have specific guidelines for a court in addressing custody and visitation issues when a custodial parent receives temporary duty, deployment, or mobilization orders.

CHANGES MADE BY PCS: Denoted below by underline.

BILL ANALYSIS: The bill would create a new section in Chapter 50, to specifically address the situation when a custodial parent is put on temporary duty, mobilized, or deployed on military orders. The bill includes definitions and the following substantive provisions:

- Custody- The court must apply specific rules when there is a material effect on a parent's ability to exercise custodial responsibilities, including both of the following:
    - Any temporary custody order for the child during the parent's temporary duty, mobilization, or deployment must end no later than 10 days after the parent returns, but shall not impair the discretion of the court to conduct a hearing for emergency custody upon return of the parent and within 10 days of the filing of a verified motion for emergency custody alleging an immediate danger of irreparable harm to the child.
    - Deployment not a factor in change of circumstances determination - If a motion to transfer custody from a service member is filed, the temporary duty, mobilization, or deployment is excluded as a factor in making a change of circumstances determination. Under existing law, a showing of change circumstances is required in order for a court to modify or vacate a custody order.
    - Delegation of visitation rights - If a parent with visitation rights receives temporary duty, mobilization, or deployment orders, then a court may delegate the parent's visitation rights to a family member if it is in the child's best interest.
- Expedited hearings - Upon motion of a parent who has received temporary duty, mobilization, or deployment orders, and for good cause shown, a court must expedite a hearing for custody and visitation matters.
- Testimony and evidence by electronic means - Upon motion of a parent who has received temporary duty, mobilization, or deployment orders, for good cause shown, and upon reasonable notice a court must allow a parent in custody and visitation matters to present testimony and evidence by electronic means if the parent's military duties have a material effect on their ability to appear at a hearing.

- The PCS provides that these provisions will not alter the duty of the court to consider the best interest of the child in deciding custody or visitation matters

EFFECTIVE DATE: The bill would become effective on October 1, 2007, and apply to custody or visitation actions instituted on or after that date.

BACKGROUND: State law requires that a court consider all facts in a case and decide custody issues in accordance with the best interests of the child. See G.S. 50-13.2 on reverse.

§ 50-13.2. Who entitled to custody; terms of custody; visitation rights of grandparents; taking child out of State.

(a) An order for custody of a minor child entered pursuant to this section shall award the custody of such child to such person, agency, organization or institution as will best promote the interest and welfare of the child. In making the determination, the court shall consider all relevant factors including acts of domestic violence between the parties, the safety of the child, and the safety of either party from domestic violence by the other party and shall make findings accordingly. An order for custody must include findings of fact which support the determination of what is in the best interest of the child. Between the mother and father, whether natural or adoptive, no presumption shall apply as to who will better promote the interest and welfare of the child. Joint custody to the parents shall be considered upon the request of either parent.

(b) An order for custody of a minor child may grant joint custody to the parents, exclusive custody to one person, agency, organization, or institution, or grant custody to two or more persons, agencies, organizations, or institutions. Any order for custody shall include such terms, including visitation, as will best promote the interest and welfare of the child. If the court finds that domestic violence has occurred, the court shall enter such orders that best protect the children and party who were the victims of domestic violence, in accordance with the provisions of G.S. 50B-3(a1)(1), (2), and (3). If a party is absent or relocates with or without the children because of an act of domestic violence, the absence or relocation shall not be a factor that weighs against the party in determining custody or visitation. Absent an order of the court to the contrary, each parent shall have equal access to the records of the minor child involving the health, education, and welfare of the child.

(b1) An order for custody of a minor child may provide visitation rights for any grandparent of the child as the court, in its discretion, deems appropriate. As used in this subsection, "grandparent" includes a biological grandparent of a child adopted by a stepparent or a relative of the child where a substantial relationship exists between the grandparent and the child. Under no circumstances shall a biological grandparent of a child adopted by adoptive parents, neither of whom is related to the child and where parental rights of both biological parents have been terminated, be entitled to visitation rights.

(c) An order for custody of a minor child may provide for such child to be taken outside of the State, but if the order contemplates the return of the child to this State, the judge may require the person, agency, organization or institution having custody out of this State to give bond or other security conditioned upon the return of the child to this State in accordance with the order of the court.

(d) If, within a reasonable time, one parent fails to consent to adoption pursuant to Chapter 48 of the General Statutes or parental rights have not been terminated, the consent of the other consenting parent shall not be effective in an action for custody of the child.

This fiscal analysis is independent of the impact of other criminal penalty bills being considered by the General Assembly, which could also increase the projected prison population and thus the availability of prison beds in future years. The Fiscal Research Division is tracking the cumulative effect of all criminal penalty bills on the prison system as well as the Judicial Department.*

BILL SUMMARY: Under current G.S. 14-32.2, it is a Class A1 misdemeanor to physically abuse a patient of a health care facility or resident of a residential care facility, when such conduct evinces a pattern of conduct that is "willful or culpably negligent and proximately causes bodily injury to a patient or resident." The second edition of H.B. 554 increases the penalty for such offense to a Class H felony. The act becomes effective December 1, 2007, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date.

ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGY:

General

If only one future charge were to become subject to the proposed penalty enhancement, there would be some fiscal impact. However, given the low number of prior year charges and convictions for this particular offense (G.S. 14-32.2(b)(4)), this proposal is not expected to generate a significant fiscal impact.

Department of Correction – Division of Prisons

Based on the most recent prison population projections and estimated available bed capacity, there are no surplus prison beds available over the immediate five-year horizon or beyond. Therefore, any new felony conviction that results in an active sentence will require an additional prison bed.

Class A1 misdemeanants sentenced to active punishment typically serves the designated term of incarceration within a local jail.[1] In contrast, most active sentences for felony convictions are served in state prison.[2] In FY 2005-06, the average estimated time served for a Class H felony offense was 11 months; the average estimated time served for a Class A1 misdemeanor offense was 50 days. Accordingly, the proposed penalty enhancement (Class H felony) will not only lengthen time served for the affected offense, but also necessitate imprisonment within a state facility.

In FY 2005-06, there was one Class A1 misdemeanor conviction for patient abuse and neglect, under G.S. 14-32.2(b)(4). Based on this low number of convictions, Fiscal Research does not anticipate that the proposed enhancement will have a significant impact on the prison population. However, the actual numbers of future offenses, convictions, and resultant active sentences could vary.

For illustration, if three Class H felony convictions were to occur under this proposal per year, the combination of active sentences and probation revocations would result in the need for one additional prison bed in the first applicable year; two additional prison beds in the second year; and one new employee in the second year. Assuming this threshold and inmate assignment to medium custody, the construction of two prison beds within a new, stand alone facility could cost the State $136,080 in FY 2007-08; conversely, bed construction within an add-on facility could cost approximately $84,240.[3] These costs are attributed to FY 2007-08 since the construction of

[1] In FY 2005-06, 26% of Class A1 misdemeanor convictions (for all crimes and prior record levels) received active sentences, with an average estimated time served of 50 days; 34% of Class H felony convictions received active sentences, with an average estimated time served of 11 months.

[2] Active sentences between 1-90 days are served in local jails. The Department of Correction reimburses counties $18 for each day that offenders are housed longer than 30 days (between 30 and 90). Sentences longer than 90 days are to be served in state prison; however, when bed shortages demand it, the State may lease needed beds from counties.

[3] New, "stand alone" institution built for Expanded Operating Capacity (EOC); single cells are assumed for close custody, and dormitories are assumed for medium and minimum custody (occupancy no greater than 130% of SOC).

additional prison beds, whether within an add-on or stand-alone facility, requires budgeting at least three years in advance. Potential operating costs could total $28,250 in FY 2008-09, and $58,195 in FY 2009-10.[4]

Department of Correction – Division of Community Corrections

In FY 2005-06, 66% of Class H felony convictions resulted in non-active, intermediate or community sentences. Thus, assuming that future convictions for the enhanced offense were to occur, the Division of Community Corrections (DCC) could assume some additional costs for offenders placed under its supervision. It is not known exactly how many offenders would be sentenced to intermediate or community punishments, to which type, or for how long.

Presently, general supervision of intermediate and community offenders by a probation officer costs DCC $1.96 per offender, per day; no cost is assumed for those receiving unsupervised probation, or who are ordered only to pay fines, fees, or restitution. DCC also incurs a daily cost of $0.69 per offender sentenced to the Community Service Work Program. However, the daily cost per offender on intermediate sanction is much higher, ranging from $7.71 to $14.97 depending on the type of sanction. Intensive supervision probation is the most frequently used intermediate sanction, and costs an estimated $14.97 per offender, per day. On average, intensive supervision lasts six-months, with general supervision assumed for a designated period thereafter.

Judicial Branch

Based on preliminary data for calendar year 2006, there were 5 defendants charged with a Class A1 misdemeanor under G.S. 14-32.2. Given this low number of charges, the proposed penalty enhancement is not expected to generate a significant impact on the court system.

Under the proposed enhancement, from a Class A1 misdemeanor to a Class H felony, alleged violators of G.S. 14-32.2(b)(4) would be tried in superior court, rather than district court. This elevation to superior court would increase jury involvement, and potentially workloads for district attorneys, superior court judges, clerks, court reporters, and indigent defense counsel. Moreover, because defendants would be subject to longer sentences, it is anticipated that more cases would result in trial, rather than guilty plea.

Assuming that five cases were to occur per year, and that a higher percentage would result in trial, the AOC estimates that this penalty enhancement could cost an additional $495 in the first full applicable year; $519 in the second year. These cost estimates are based on projected court-time requirements for judges, assistant district attorneys, deputy clerks, court reporters, and indigent defense counsel, and therefore represent only partial costs for court proceedings. Actual court-time costs may vary with time requirements and disposition (i.e. trial or plea).

"Add-on" facilities (close and medium custody) are built within the perimeter of an existing 1,000-cell Close Security Institution; a minimum custody "add-on" is built adjacent to an existing perimeter. "Add-on" facilities employ the same EOC custody configurations as "stand alone" (i.e. single cells for close custody, and dorms for medium and minimum custody levels).

[4] Impact on incarcerated population is assumed to begin in FY 2008-09, given the effective date of December 1, 2007 and typical lag time between charge and conviction (6 months).

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO INCREASE THE PENALTY FOR THE MALICIOUS, INTENTIONAL STARVATION OF AN ANIMAL.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 14-360 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(a1) If any person shall maliciously kill, or cause or procure to be killed, any animal by intentional deprivation of necessary sustenance, that person shall be guilty of a Class A1 misdemeanor."

HOUSE BILL 995:
Increase Penalty/Starvation of Animals

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	June 25, 2007
Introduced by:	Rep. McElraft	Summary by:	Ben Popkin
Version:	PCS to First Edition H995-CSRD		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 995 would increase the penalty for killing an animal by intentionally depriving it of sustenance. The Proposed Committee Substitute would enact a new subsection of G.S. 14-360 that would create a new Class A1 misdemeanor offense for maliciously killing an animal by intentional deprivation of necessary sustenance.

CURRENT LAW: G.S. 14-360(a) makes it a Class 1 misdemeanor to intentionally kill an animal or deprive an animal of necessary sustenance. G.S. 14-360(b) makes it a Class I felony to maliciously kill an animal, but there is no specific language in the felony offense that addresses depriving an animal of necessary sustenance. This section has been interpreted to mean that depriving an animal of necessary sustenance (even if it is malicious and leads to the animal's death) is only covered under subsection (a) as a misdemeanor.

The presumptive minimum sentence for a Class 1 misdemeanor is community punishment of 1 – 45 days and a fine at the discretion of the court. The presumptive minimum sentence for a Class I felony is community punishment of 4 – 6 months and a fine in the discretion of the court.

BILL ANALYSIS: The Proposed Committee Substitute for House Bill 995 would enact a new subsection (a1) of G.S. 14-360 that would create a new Class A1 misdemeanor offense for "... maliciously killing an animal by intentional deprivation of necessary sustenance...".

The presumptive minimum sentence for a Class A1 misdemeanor offense is active, intermediate or community punishment of 1 – 60 days and a fine at the discretion of the court.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The bill would become effective December 1, 2007, and would apply to offenses committed on or after that date.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO MAKE IT A CRIMINAL OFFENSE TO MAKE A FALSE REPORT CONCERNING A THREAT OF MASS VIOLENCE ON EDUCATIONAL PROPERTY.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Article 35 of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

(3) School. – As defined in G.S. 14-269.2.

(b) A person who, by any means of communication to any person or groups of persons, makes a report, knowing or having reason to know the report is false, that an act of mass violence is going to occur on educational property or at a curricular or extracurricular activity sponsored by a school, is guilty of a Class H felony.

(c) The court may order a person convicted under this section to pay restitution, including costs and consequential damages resulting from the disruption of the normal activity that would have otherwise occurred on the premises but for the false report, pursuant to Article 81C of Chapter 15A of the General Statutes."

HOUSE BILL 1347:
False Report/Mass Violence at School

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	June 25, 2007
Introduced by:	Reps. Holloway, Faison, Folwell	Summary by:	Jennifer McGinnis Committee Counsel
Version:	Second Edition

SUMMARY: House Bill 1347 makes it a Class H felony to make a false report concerning mass violence on educational property.

CURRENT LAW: Under G.S. 14-69.1, making a false bomb report concerning a public building (including educational property) is a Class H felony. Educational property is defined in G.S. 14-269.2 as "Any school building or bus, school campus, grounds, recreational area, athletic field, or other property owned, used, or operated by any board of education or school board of trustees, or directors for the administration of any school"; a school is "A public or private school, community college, college, or university." The court may order a person convicted of this offense to pay restitution, including costs and consequential damages resulting from the disruption of the normal activity that would have otherwise occurred on the premises but for the false report. A second conviction of the offense within a 5 year period is a Class G felony.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 1347 would make it a Class H felony to communicate (by mail, phone, text message, fax, electronic mail, or other electronic means) a false report that an act of mass violence is going to occur on educational property or at an activity sponsored by a school. Mass violence is defined as physical injury that could lead to permanent injury or death to two or more people. Assuming there are no prior convictions, the presumptive minimum sentence for a Class H felony is 5-6 months community, intermediate, or active punishment. The bill would authorize the court to order a person convicted of this offense to pay restitution, including costs and consequential damages resulting from the disruption of the normal activity that would have otherwise occurred on the premises but for the false report.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The bill would become effective December 1, 2007, and apply to offenses committed on or after that date.

BILL SUMMARY: Enacts new G.S. 14-277.5, which makes it a Class H felony offense for a person to knowingly, or having reason to know, communicate a false report that an act of mass violence is going to occur on educational property or at a curricular or extracurricular activity sponsored by a school (as defined by G.S. 14-269.2). Source: Adapted from Bill Digest H.B. 1347 (04/05/0200) – emphasis added by Fiscal Research.

ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGY:

General

Based on current Courts and Corrections resources, any new charge and/or conviction for the proposed offense will generate some additional fiscal impact. However, because the offense is new, there is no historical data from which to accurately project future charge and conviction rates, and therefore the impact of this proposal. Nonetheless, the nature of the offense does not suggest this proposal will have a significant fiscal impact (e.g. FRD does not anticipate a significant number of new charges and convictions resulting). For comparison, there were only five convictions in FY 2005-06 for the similar offense of making a false report of a destructive device, under G.S. 14-69.1(c) (also a Class H felony offense).

Department of Correction – Division of Prisons

The Sentencing and Policy Advisory Commission prepares prison population projections for each bill containing a criminal penalty. The Commission assumes for such bills that expanding existing, or creating new criminal offenses produces no deterrent or incapacitative effect on crime. Accordingly, the Fiscal Research Division does not assume deterrent effects for any criminal penalty bill.

Based on the most recent prison population projections and estimated available bed capacity, there are no surplus prison beds available over the immediate five-year horizon or beyond. Therefore, any new felony conviction that results in an active sentence will require an additional prison bed.

Because this is a new offense, there is no historical data from which to estimate its potential impact on the prison population. In FY 2005/06, 34% of Class H convictions resulted in active sentences, with an average estimated time served of 11 months. For illustration, if three Class H convictions occur for the proposed offense annually, the combination of active sentences and probation revocations would require one additional prison bed in the first applicable year; two additional beds in the second year; and one new employee in the second year.

Assuming these thresholds and inmate assignment to medium custody, the construction of two additional prison beds within a new, stand alone facility could cost the State $136,080 in FY 2007-08; conversely, bed construction within an add-on facility could cost approximately $84,240.[1] These costs are attributed to FY 2007-08 since the construction of additional prison beds, whether within an add-on or stand-alone facility, requires budgeting at least three years in advance. Potential operating costs could total $58,196 by FY 2009-10.[2]

[1] New, "stand alone" institution built for Expanded Operating Capacity (EOC); single cells are assumed for close custody, and dormitories are assumed for medium and minimum custody (occupancy no greater than 130% of SOC).

"Add-on" facilities (close and medium custody) are built within the perimeter of an existing 1,000-cell Close Security Institution; a minimum custody "add-on" is built adjacent to an existing perimeter. "Add-on" facilities employ the same EOC custody configurations as "stand alone" (i.e. single cells for close custody, and dorms for medium and minimum custody levels).

[2] Impact on incarcerated population is assumed for FY 2008-09, given the effective date of December 1, 2007 and typical lag time between charge and conviction (6 months).

In FY 2005-06, 66% of Class H felony convictions resulted in either intermediate or community punishments, predominately special, intensive, or general supervision probation. Thus, assuming that future convictions for the proposed offense occur, the Division of Community Corrections could assume some additional costs for offenders placed under its supervision. It is not known how many offenders would be sentenced to intermediate or community punishments, to which type, or for how long.

General supervision of intermediate and community offenders by a probation officer costs $1.96 per offender, per day; no cost is assumed for those receiving unsupervised probation, or who are ordered only to pay fines, fees, or restitution. The daily cost per offender on intermediate sanction is much higher, ranging from $7.71 to $14.97 depending on the type of sanction. Intensive supervision probation is the most frequently used intermediate sanction, and costs an estimated $14.97 per offender, per day; on average, intensive supervision lasts six-months, with general supervision assumed for a designated period thereafter.

Judicial Branch

For most criminal penalty bills, the Administrative Office of the Courts provides Fiscal Research with an analysis of the fiscal impact of the specific bill. For these bills, fiscal impact is typically based on the assumption that court time will increase due to an expected increase in trials and a corresponding increase in the hours of work for judges, clerks and prosecutors. This increased court time is also expected to result in greater expenditures for jury fees and indigent defense.

There is no historical data from which to estimate the number of charges that might occur for the proposed offense. However, the Administrative Office of the Courts expects that any additional caseload will increase court-time requirements and the associated costs of case disposal. Presently, the estimated costs per Class H felony trial and plea are $7,345 and $325, respectively.

HOUSE BILL 1482:
Amend Civil No-Contact Order Laws

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	June 25, 2007
Introduced by:	Rep. Glazier	Summary by:	Jennifer McGinnis
Version:	First Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 1482 would amend two definitions pertaining to civil no-contact orders.

BACKGROUND: In 2004, the General Assembly enacted statutes creating civil no-contact protective orders. Courts can issue these protective orders in situations where a person has been a victim of stalking or nonconsensual sexual conduct committed by a person with whom the victim is not in a domestic relationship.

CURRENT LAW: Under the Civil No-Contact Orders statutes, "unlawful conduct" is defined as the commission of one or more of acts of (i) nonconsensual sexual conduct, including single incidences of nonconsensual sexual conduct or (ii) stalking. The definition of unlawful conduct does not include acts of self-defense or defense of others.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 1482 would clarify the definition of "stalking" by reorganizing the sentence and amend the definition of "unlawful conduct" by stating that the acts have to be committed by a person of 16 years of age or older in order to meet the definition of "unlawful conduct".

EFFECTIVE DATE: The bill would become effective when it becomes law.

Any parent, spouse, guardian, ~~or~~ legal custodian, or person responsible for the supervision of the missing individual may submit a missing person report to the Center of any missing child or missing person, regardless of the circumstances, after having first submitted a missing person report on the individual to the law-enforcement agency having jurisdiction of the area in which the individual became or is believed to have become missing, regardless of the circumstances."

SECTION 2. G.S. 143B-499.1 reads as rewritten:

"§ 143B-499.1. Dissemination of missing persons data by law-enforcement agencies.

A law-enforcement agency, upon receipt of a missing person report by a parent, spouse, guardian, ~~or~~ legal custodian, or person responsible for the supervision of the missing individual shall immediately make arrangements for the entry of data about the missing person or missing child into the national missing persons file in accordance with criteria set forth by the FBI/NCIC, immediately inform all of its on-duty law-enforcement officers of the missing person report, initiate a statewide broadcast to all appropriate law-enforcement agencies to be on the lookout for the individual, and transmit a copy of the report to the Center. No law enforcement agency shall establish or maintain any policy which requires the observance of any waiting period before accepting a missing person report.

If the report involves a missing child and the report meets the criteria established in G.S. 143B-499.7(b), as soon as practicable after receipt of the report, the law enforcement agency shall notify the Center and the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children of the relevant data about the missing child."

(2) Mobile telephone. – A device used by subscribers and other users of wireless telephone service to access such service. The term includes: (i) a device with which a user engages in a call using at least one hand, and (ii) a device that has an internal feature or function, or that is equipped with an attachment or addition, whether or not permanently part of such mobile telephone, by which a user engages in a call without the use of either hand, whether or not the use of either hand is necessary to activate, deactivate, or initiate a function of such telephone.

(3) Wireless telephone service. – A service that is a two-way real-time voice telecommunications service that is interconnected to a public switched telephone network and is provided by a commercial mobile radio service, as such term is defined by 47 C.F.R. § 20.3.

It shall be a rebuttable presumption that the veterinarian acted in good faith. HOUSE BILL 1359:
Immunity/Vets Reporting Animal Cruelty

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	June 27, 2007
Introduced by:	Reps. Wiley, Hurley, McElraft, Cleveland	Summary by:	Ben Popkin
Version:	First Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 1359 would provide veterinarians with immunity from liability for reporting animal cruelty.

CURRENT LAW:

Animal Cruelty: The law regarding cruelty to animals is set out in Article 47, Chapter 14 of the General Statutes. Under G.S. 14-360 it is a Class 1 misdemeanor to "intentionally overdrive, overload, wound, injure, torment, kill, or deprive of necessary sustenance, or cause or procure to be overdriven, overloaded, wounded, injured, tormented, killed, or deprived of necessary sustenance, any animal."

It is a Class I felony to "maliciously torture, mutilate, maim, cruelly beat, disfigure, poison, or kill, or cause or procure to be tortured, mutilated, maimed, cruelly beaten, disfigured, poisoned, or killed, any animal."

Veterinarian/Client Privilege:

North Carolina does not have a statute that specifically provides for veterinarian-client confidentiality.

The confidential relationship that exists between physicians and their patients does not necessarily exist between veterinarians and their clients. Courts in some states have refused to recognize a veterinarian client privilege; however, other states do uphold veterinarian-client confidentiality.

However, with regard to physicians the general rule is that unless the patient/decedent waives the privilege, a physician is not allowed to disclose any information acquired in attending to the patient in a professional capacity. Courts generally allow a cause of action for a breach of confidentiality against a treating physician who divulges confidential medical information without proper authorization from the patient. However, there are exceptions relating to the abuse or neglect of a child, gunshot wounds and other injuries that appear to be related to criminal acts of violence.

BILL ANALYSIS:

House Bill 1359 would amend the law regarding cruelty to animals by adding a new section, G.S. 14-360.1, to Article 47 granting immunity for veterinarians reporting animal cruelty in violation of G.S. 14-360. The bill would provide that any veterinarian who makes a report of animal cruelty, or who participates in any investigation or testifies in a judicial proceeding that arises from a report of animal cruelty, would be immune from civil or criminal liability, and liability from professional disciplinary action or breach of any veterinarian-patient confidentiality, provided the veterinarian did not act in bad faith or with a malicious purpose. Failure to report animal cruelty would not be grounds for disciplinary action under the Veterinary Practice Act.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The bill would become effective October 1, 2007.

Brenda Carter, counsel to House Judiciary III, substantially contributed to this summary.

(c) The animal control or other persons designated under G.S. 19A-84 shall serve notice upon the possessor in person or by regular and certified mail, return receipt requested, notifying the possessor of the confiscation that the possessor is responsible for payment of reasonable costs for caring and providing for the animal during the confiscation.

(d) The animal control authority or other persons designated under G.S. 19A-84 shall serve notice upon the possessor in person or by regular and certified mail, return receipt requested, notifying the possessor of the confiscation, that the possessor is responsible for payment of reasonable costs for caring and providing for the animal during the confiscation, and that the possessor must meet the requirements of subsection (b) of this section in order for the animal to be returned to the possessor.

(e) If an inherently dangerous animal that is confiscated under this section is not returned to the possessor, the animal control or other persons designated under G.S. 19A-84 may release the animal to a facility such as a sanctuary or a facility exempted pursuant to G.S. 19A-81. If the animal control or law enforcement authority is unable to relocate the animal within a reasonable period of time, it may euthanize the animal.

(f) If an inherently dangerous animal escapes or is released and poses an immediate threat to public safety, the animal control authority or other persons designated under G.S. 19A-84 may exercise judgment in attempting to recapture the animal or in killing the animal.

(g) This section applies to animal confiscations on or after January 1, 2008.

"§ 19A-87. Penalties.

A person who violates any provision of this Article is liable for a civil penalty of not less than two hundred dollars ($200.00) and not more than two thousand dollars ($2,000) for each animal with respect to which there is a violation and for each day the violation continues.

"§ 19A-88. Local governing bodies.

Pursuant to its authority under G.S. 153A-131 and G.S. 160A-187, a city or county may adopt an ordinance governing inherently dangerous animals that is more restrictive than this Article. Such an ordinance may apply to animals not covered by this Article, provide caging standards, provide stricter care and treatment standards, or otherwise restrict or prohibit the possession of inherently dangerous animals.

"§ 19A-89. Severability.

If any part of this Article is determined to be unconstitutional or unenforceable, it shall not affect the constitutionality or enforceability of any other part."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective January 1, 2008, and applies to inherently dangerous animals existing in this State on or after that date. The local animal control authority shall implement and administer the provisions of Article 6 of Chapter 19A of the General Statutes.

"§ 19A-88. Severability.

If any part of this Article is determined to be unconstitutional or unenforceable, it shall not affect the constitutionality or enforceability of any other part."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective January 1, 2008, and applies to inherently dangerous wild animals existing in this State on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 1477:
Inherently Dangerous Animals

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	June 27, 2007
Introduced by:	Sen. Jones	Summary by:	Jennifer McGinnis
Version:	PCS to First Edition S1477-CSRI		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: The proposed committee substitute (PCS) for Senate Bill 1477 would make it unlawful for a person to import into, possess, purchase, breed, or sell within this State, an inherently dangerous wild animal, except in certain circumstances. A person violating the provisions of the PCS would be liable for a civil penalty of not less than $200.00 and not more than $2,000 for each animal with respect to which there is a violation and for each day the violation continues. The PCS also authorizes animal control authorities and other law enforcement personnel to confiscate an inherently dangerous wild animal kept in contravention of the provisions of the PCS.

The provisions of the PCS would become effective January 1, 2008, and would apply to inherently dangerous wild animals existing in this State on or after that date.

[As introduced, this bill was identical to H1614, as introduced by Rep. Jones, which is currently in House Environment and Natural Resources .]

BACKGROUND: Section 32 of S.L. 2006-248 directed the Department of Environment and Natural Resources, in consultation with the North Carolina Zoological Park and the Wildlife Resources Commission, to study "the need to protect the public against the health and safety risks posed by inherently dangerous animals and propose a means of best providing that protection to the public while also protecting the welfare of inherently dangerous animals." The study committee met four times in 2006 -2007 and submitted a report of their recommendations to the General Assembly in May 2007.[1]

BILL ANALYSIS: The PCS would create a new Article 7 in Chapter 19A of the General Statutes that would –

- Make it unlawful for a person to import into, possess, purchase, breed, or sell within this State, an inherently dangerous wild animal, except in certain circumstances. The PCS includes a list of animals to be classified as inherently dangerous wild animals.
    - Exemptions to the prohibition include: Institutions accredited by the American Zoo and Aquarium Association; certain nonprofit animal protection organizations housing an inherently dangerous wild animal at the written request of the animal control authority; federal or State wildlife enforcement officers; animal control or law enforcement agencies or officers; licensed veterinary hospitals or clinics. wildlife sanctuaries; universities, colleges, laboratories, or other research facilities licensed under federal law; circuses licensed under federal law that are temporarily in the State, a non-resident of the State in the State with an inherently dangerous wild animal for not more than 72 hours; indigenous species regulated by the Wildlife Resources Commission; production companies that use inherently dangerous wild animals in the production of original motion pictures or television images for theatrical, commercial, advertising, or educational purposes.

[1] To be distributed with bill summary.

- Grandfathered possession of inherently dangerous wild animals, under certain circumstances: A person in legal possession of an inherently dangerous wild animal prior to January 1, 2008 may keep possession of the animal for the remainder of the animal's life, subject to the following conditions: (1) maintenance of certain records to be presented to animal control or law enforcement authorities upon request; (2) timely registration of the animal with the animal control authority; (3) unique identification of the animal using species appropriate, safe methods, which must be reported to the animal control authority; (4) the animal may not be bred; (5) immediate notification of animal control or law enforcement authorities upon discovery that the animal has escaped; (6) development and maintenance of a written plan for the quick and safe recapture or destruction of the animal in the event the animal escapes; (7) the animal must not be traded or replaced; (8) procurement and maintenance of a liability insurance policy that covers claims for injury or damage to persons or property in an amount of not less than $1,000,000; (9) compliance with any applicable federal, State, or local laws, rules, regulations, ordinances, permits, or other permissions.

- Confiscation of inherently dangerous wild animal by authorities: An animal control or law enforcement authority may confiscate an animal if: (1) it has probable cause to believe that the animal was acquired after January 1, 2008; (2) the animal poses a public safety or health risk; (3) the animal is in poor health and condition as a result of the owner's actions or inaction; o (4) the animal is being held in contravention of the provisions of the PCS.

  This section includes procedures for notice of the confiscation; return of the animal based on certain findings, and if not returned then procedures for placement or euthanasia; and discretion of authorities to act in response to release or escape of an inherently dangerous wild animal.

- Penalties: A person violating the provisions of the PCS would be liable for a civil penalty of not less than $200.00 and not more than $2,000 for each animal with respect to which there is a violation and for each day the violation continues.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The provisions of the PCS would become effective January 1, 2008, and would apply to inherently dangerous wild animals existing in this State on or after that date.

Executive Summary

With an affluent economy, the United States can be distinguished as the largest consumer of wildlife and wildlife products in the world. The Internet, local clubs and national organizations link individuals interested in unusual or exotic animals, putting exotic animals within reach of the average citizen. Animals from monkeys to king cobras and cougars are easily purchased with little restriction, particularly in states like North Carolina that have no statewide restrictions on owning the animals.

This abundance of available animals coupled with the ease of moving animals through commerce has resulted in unusual situations that could not have occurred in a natural setting. A recent example is the 2003 multi-state outbreak of monkey-pox in prairie dogs exposed to Gambian pouched rats at an Illinois animal dealer's facility. Disease transmission between the two species resulted in the serious illness of several individuals who purchased the prairie dogs as pets. In response, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) and the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) issued a joint Emergency Rule prohibiting the trade in prairie dogs. The CDC rule remains in place at this time. In addition to spreading disease, exotic animals present the risk of attack. Examples of hazards inherent to interaction with exotic animals involve animal attacks on humans including a chimpanzee attack in California that left a man with potentially life threatening injuries and a tiger attack in Minnesota that left a young boy quadriplegic.

Laws regulating the private ownership of exotic animals were relatively few in number as recently as ten years ago. However, now the number and variety has increased, often complaint driven when an exotic pet is moved into a neighborhood creating public safety concerns among neighbors. Exotic animals as private pets often attract media attention and various news agencies have covered human interest stories about people with unusual pets or stories about illness and injuries resulting from contact with exotic animals. Now the majority of states regulate exotic animal ownership (Tables 3, 4, 5) and all the states that have acted in recent years have banned the practice altogether for certain animals.

Because most states now regulate private ownership of exotic animals, those states which do not regulate exotic animal ownership, including North Carolina, will see immigration of people hoping to avoid regulation.

Background

During December 2003, ten-year-old Clayton Eller, nicknamed C.J. was shoveling snow near the tiger cage in his aunt and uncle's backyard. C.J. had grown up around the tiger and had not learned to be especially cautious or fearful around the animal. That day, the tiger reached out and dragged him under a gap in the caging. Hearing his screams, the uncle got a rifle and killed the tiger. Tragically, C.J. died before reaching the hospital. Prior to this fatal attack, Sheriff's Deputies had responded to neighbors' complaints about the tiger. However, they were unable to take action in the absence of county or state laws specifically regulating dangerous exotic animals. Appendix 1.

Less than two months later a teenage girl entered a cage to photograph her father's pet tigers in Surry County. She was injured by one of the tigers. Her father shot two of the four tigers on the property later that day. Surry County officials learned there were no state laws prohibiting ownership of tigers as pets.

Both Wilkes and Surry counties now prohibit possession of dangerous animals as pets. (Table 2)

Currently, 27 states prohibit private possession of certain exotic animals. Nine states have passed these regulations since 2000. (Table 3) Thirteen states regulate possession of certain exotic animals through permit and/or licensing requirements. (Table 4) Of the 10 states that do not currently prohibit possession or regulate through permitting, six -- including North Carolina -- introduced a regulatory bill during the 2007 legislative session. The other states are Iowa, Missouri, West Virginia, Ohio and Washington. (Table 5) In addition, two states with permit requirements introduced bills to further prohibit the keeping of exotic animals as pets (Indiana, Oregon). The Iowa and Washington bills have been passed. The Governor of Washington has signed that state's bill bringing the number of states not regulating down to 10. The Iowa bill awaits signature of the Governor.

In North Carolina, at least 26 counties and 11 municipalities currently prohibit or regulate private possession of specific exotic animals. In several situations local ordinances were developed in response to citizen complaints about dangerous animals nearby or following serious injuries to a person including Montgomery, Carteret, Davidson, Wilkes, and Surry. The result is a mosaic of widely varied rules around the state. (Tables 1, 2)

In response to an increasing number of calls from local authorities seeking assistance with exotic animal concerns, officials from the North Carolina Zoological Park contacted Sen. John Garwood, Wilkes County, during fall 2005 and asked if he would consider introducing legislation to regulate exotic animals. Draft language similar to bills introduced in other states was shared with Sen. Garwood's office. Bill S 1032 was introduced, assigned to the Senate Judiciary II Committee and subsequently moved to the Senate for a vote with the support of Judiciary II. Appendix 2.

Many exotic animal owners, hobbyists, animal dealers, and breeders responded with strong opposition to the proposed legislation expressing concern that people could potentially lose their animal based businesses and that jobs associated with those businesses might be lost. Concerns about adverse impact on state tax revenues were also voiced. In response to citizen concerns, Senator Garwood reconsidered the bill text and requested revision as a Study Bill. The Study Bill passed the Senate with a 46-0-4 vote during the 2005 session and successfully passed the House in the 2006 omnibus bill. (Appendix 3) The Study Bill directed the Department of Environment and Natural Resources (DENR) represented by the North Carolina Zoological Park (NCZP) in partnership with the North Carolina Wildlife Resources Commission (WRC) to lead a study to determine need, if any, for exotic animal regulations in the state. This report reflects the deliberations and findings of that Committee.

Committee Structure and Meeting Process

When the original bill became a study bill, Senator Garwood's office sought input from DENR, private individuals and other agencies on composition of the Committee. The study bill text guided formation of the Committee that worked on the tasks identified in the bill.

*voting member of the Committee

During the process of identifying committee participants, we established a selection criterion that each committee member must represent an umbrella group. The purpose of this requirement was to provide representation for as many people as possible while avoiding individual requests for committee seats with the purpose of pursuing individual and personal concerns.

Re. 9. Wild Animal Breeder. Two animal breeders contacted Senator Garwood's office following introduction of the original bill, S1032, and expressed interest in the process. Both breeders were invited to serve on the Study Committee. Both declined citing time limitations. However, one worked closely with the umbrella organization for their group and provided the Committee with information as well as ensuring representatives were present at the public hearing. (The International Cat Association (TICA))

Re. 11. Commercial pet retailer. Commercial pet stores do not typically play a role in the trade of dangerous exotic animals. We were not familiar with pet stores within NC that sell primates or exotic cats, for example. Exotic animals are typically purchased from dealers, breeders, classified ads in monthly magazines for exotic pet owners, auctions, or over the Internet. We are not familiar with an umbrella organization for commercial exotic pet retailers.

Re. 12. Small zoo owner. To our knowledge, no small zoo representative seeking a role in the process contacted Senator Garwood's office. At the time the Committee was created, there was no umbrella organization to represent small private zoos in North Carolina.

During the review process for Committee representation, information gaps in constituency representation on the Committee were identified. Groups whose participation could advance the deliberations of the Committee were identified and invited to place representatives on the committee. Those groups are listed below.

1. The American Veterinary Medical Association (AVMA) has published a policy statement on exotic pets because this issue impacts veterinarians in private practice. It is likely that veterinarians in North Carolina are familiar with the types of species most commonly kept as pets in the state. Statewide exotic animal regulations potentially impact veterinary practices in NC. For these reasons, the North Carolina Veterinary Medical Association (NCVMA) was contacted and asked to identify an individual to represent their NC membership.

2. The Partners for Amphibian and Reptile Conservation (PARC) is a respected national organization with a NC chapter. A representative of NCPARC was effectively able to represent issues surrounding reptiles and amphibians.

3. The United States Fish and Wildlife Service (USFWS) is charged with enforcement of federal laws relating to wildlife, wildlife trade, including, the Captive Wildlife Safety Act (CWSA) and the Lacey Act. The CWSA is currently the only federal law regulating exotic animals as pets. Given the potential impact on, and interest of, FWS in state regulations, this agency was invited to participate in the process.

4. The United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) is the federal agency charged with enforcement of the Animal Welfare Act (AWA) and is therefore responsible for inspecting USDA licensees in NC. A USDA license is required for public display of wild animals, operation of an exotic animal breeding facility, facilities which are not open to the public but do take animals out for public display, and exotic animal dealers; USDA registration is required for research facilities. Some private holders of exotic animals in NC have urged the Study Committee to include an exemption for USDA licensees. Because exemption for USDA licensees from statewide exotic animal regulations has the potential to impact that agency an invitation to participate in the process was extended.

5. The Animal Protection Institute (API) has assisted counties in NC, providing pro bono advice on exotic animal regulation. They have also worked with 17 other states on exotic animal regulations and brought a great deal of expertise and information to the group. Several state agencies and/or legislators have contacted API directly seeking advice and assistance with exotic animal regulations. The wealth of knowledge and experience with exotic animal regulations at all levels of government was valuable to the Study Committee.

6. The North Carolina Task Force on Animal Fighting, (NCTFAF), Legislative Committee, requested a seat on the Committee. The TFAF legislative group is reviewing animal related issues within the state and maintains an interest in and familiarity with the exotic animal trade. The composition of this group includes animal control officers, veterinarians and advisors familiar with North Carolina animal law.

7. North Carolina Exotic Animal Keepers Association. (NCEAKA) The EAKA requested a seat on the Committee during the 12/18/06 public hearing. The Committee was not aware of the group's existence prior to the meeting and asked them to name a representative. The EAKA subsequently requested a second non-voting seat on the Committee, which was provided.

8. Accredited Sanctuary. Representation from the sanctuary community to provide input from the perspective of rescue, regulatory issues and other needs was important to the process. However, there are no accredited sanctuaries in NC and we were aware of only one that met the definition of sanctuary as described in the Captive Wildlife Safety Act. One of the Committee members (Smith, NCZP) sits on the board of a sanctuary located in North Carolina, currently seeking accreditation from TAOS (The Association of Sanctuaries). A second Committee member (Paquette, API) works for an organization that operates an accredited sanctuary in Texas. It was felt that Smith and Paquette could represent sanctuary needs.

Bias and opinion

Critics both within and outside the Committee have charged that Committee members individually held inappropriate bias favoring sides or perspectives of this issue. It is worth observing that each agency and organization representative at the table held a bias supporting his or her agency mission, constituency views and personal interests. It would be both inappropriate and inaccurate to single out a representative as having a bias and fail to recognize that each individual serving on the Committee was charged with representation of a group that either supported or disagreed with regulation of dangerous exotic animals. Overall, we believe the mix of backgrounds, experience, views, and organizations was as balanced as one can expect to see in dealing with such a controversial subject.

Methods and Process

The Study Bill, S. 1032, directed DENR, NCZP and NCWRC to form a Study Committee (hereafter, the Committee) and instructed that Committee to review the potential need for exotic animal regulations in North Carolina and report those findings to the General Assembly. Specifically, the Committee was to address five points listed in the Study Bill.

Meeting minutes can be found in the appendices as follows:
Appendix 4. November 7, 2006
Appendix 5. November 28, 2006
Appendix 6. December 18, 2006
Appendix 7. January 23, 2007.

The Committee systematically considered each taxonomic group in multiple reviews. For purpose of the first and broadest review, Committee members loosely defined inherently dangerous animals as species having the potential to inflict physical injury or transmit disease to humans. Committee members were asked at the outset of the first meeting if any member of the Committee felt that no animals were potentially dangerous to humans. All present reached a consensus agreement that there are animal species dangerous to humans. Thus, the Committee worked from the premise that some animal species are dangerous to humans. This opened the discussion about each taxonomic group. At each stage of review, questions about existing regulations were raised, information gaps identified, and the species lists were further refined. The determination of risk relied heavily on the experience and expertise of Committee members. Supporting documentation is provided for each taxonomic group in the appendices to this document.

SECTION I

List of Types of Animals That Possess Inherently Dangerous Characteristics

(1) A list of the types of animals that possess such inherently dangerous characteristics that they should not be owned or possessed by persons who do not have special expertise or training, and a determination as to whether these animals should be grouped into classes for differential treatment based upon the nature and extent of the threat they pose to the public. This list should also include information about the nature of the dangers posed by each type of animal.

The Committee discussed the different reasons animals can be deemed 'inherently dangerous.' For purposes of the first taxonomic review, inherently dangerous species had to present a physical or microbiological risk to human health or safety. Species not native to North Carolina were defined as 'exotic.' Domestic species, species regulated as livestock and wildlife species currently regulated by the WRC were determined to be outside the scope of responsibility assigned to the Committee.

The review was divided into three sections: mammals; birds; and reptiles and amphibians. Insects were discussed and eliminated from the review process because exotic insects are regulated by federal and state agencies. Committee members discussed the advantages and disadvantages for including animals on the list of inherently dangerous exotic species citing examples from personal experiences, scientific literature, published reports, and news media. At the final Committee meeting, a recorded vote was conducted for each taxonomic group; two impartial recorders maintained a running total for votes and announced results immediately after each vote. A summary of votes is provided in Appendix 16.

After a series of discussions during multiple meetings, the Committee members gave verbal approval to the following definition of Inherently Dangerous Exotic Animal.

> Definition of Inherently Dangerous Exotic Animal:
> An "Inherently Dangerous Exotic Animal" is any non-domesticated animal for which evidence can demonstrate that unprotected human contact with the species can result in a life threatening injury or disease to those who come in contact directly or indirectly.

A list of types of animals for which some or all species were determined to be inherently dangerous follows. The list provided below is organized taxonomically for ease of use.

Class Mammalia - Mammals

Order Chiroptera - all bats

Emerging evidence suggests all species of bats pose potential disease risks.

Should all species of bats be included on the list of inherently dangerous animals?

Consider all species of the Order Chiroptera (bats) to be inherently dangerous.

Order Primates - prosimians, monkeys and apes

Primates are capable of inflicting bite wounds that can result in serious injury and/or transmission of disease. Zoonotic disease risks are a serious concern for those having direct contact with the animals or indirect contact with an animal through body fluids, waste, or other materials on caging or enrichment objects.

6. Dr. McBride, NCDA diagnostic labs do not accept primate samples for testing and do not accept primate carcasses for necropsy due to disease risk concerns.
7. Ms. Smith; zoonotic disease concerns have been identified for all four of the primate groups.
8. Ms. Smith; injuries to humans have been reported for all four of the primate groups.

Section II

(2) Suggested Means to Regulate Ownership of Inherently Dangerous Animals

(2) A suggested means for regulating ownership of certain animals, including a means of enforcing any proposed restrictions on the ownership or possession of those animals. This portion of the report may include an evaluation of regulations in place in other jurisdictions that have proven to be effective in protecting the public from inherently dangerous animals.

Regulatory options:

A. Prohibit private possession of animals defined as Inherently Dangerous Animals
B. Regulate private possession of animals defined as Inherently Dangerous Animals
C. Do nothing

The Committee reviewed regulations from other jurisdictions, including local, state and federal laws. See attached tables for summary of laws from other jurisdictions.

Table 2. Exotic Animal Regulations - North Carolina Counties
Table 3. States that prohibit keeping of certain exotic animals
Table 4. States requiring a permit to keep exotic animals

Table 5. States with no restrictions for possession of exotic animals
Table 6. General Statutes - North Carolina
Table 7. Federal Laws governing possession of, trade in or 'take' of wildlife

Committee member comments:

1. A. Aloise, USFWS, recommends the Committee include discussion on intrastate transport of inherently dangerous exotic animals in NC. In his experience, there is a tendency to have more problems during transport.

Who should oversee the proposed manner decided?

State Agency

1. Department of Environment and Natural Resources
2. NC Wildlife Resources Commission
3. NC Department of Agriculture
4. NC Division of Public Health

Other Agencies

1. Local animal control
2. Local health department
3. Local law enforcement agency

Each of the government agencies represented on the Committee was asked to draft a 2-3 sentence statement about regulating inherently dangerous animals within their agency, whether they should be regulated at all, if so, should this be done at the local or state level.

Statement Submitted by the North Carolina Animal Rabies Control Association

The NCARCA supports the regulation of animals as identified in the Inherently Dangerous Committee. The consensus preference favors State enforcement of any State guidelines or regulations, however, in lieu of State enforcement; State guidelines pertaining to inherently dangerous animals are certainly preferable to the absence of legal guidelines, as local agencies typically are the first responders to calls involving these types of species. The reality of local enforcement remains however, the effectiveness of response will vary depending on resources available to any local agency charged with animal-related duties.

Statement Submitted by the North Carolina Department of Environment and Natural Resources

DENR, through the North Carolina Aquariums, the North Carolina Zoological Park and the North Carolina Museum of Natural Sciences, has responsibility for, and expertise in, the biology and husbandry of exotic animals in captive settings that are connected with the respective programs and facilities of those divisions. However, this is a management and not a regulatory capacity. The private ownership and sales of dangerous exotic animals can place, and in many instances, has placed North Carolina residents at risk of illness and injury from contact with species identified in this report. The welfare of these animals is often compromised, as well. Therefore, this agency supports statewide regulations for inherently dangerous animals.

Statement Submitted by the North Carolina Wildlife Resources Commission

As an agency with expertise in wildlife behavior and disease, this Commission is aware of the striking differences between domesticated and wild animals, and the unfortunate circumstances that result when well-intentioned individuals seek to adapt wild animals to domestic situations. Neither people nor animals typically benefit from such arrangements.

As an agency with regulatory authority over indigenous species, this Commission is also cognizant of the time and cost that must be expended to propose, implement and enforce rules for responsible management (including possession) of certain species. Regulation requires bureaucracy, which requires funding.

This agency does not seek to change its current statutory responsibility for management of indigenous species to incorporate responsibility for non-indigenous species. Furthermore, funds available to this agency are provided chiefly through hunting and fishing activities, and could not appropriately be applied to the creation of a new bureaucracy to regulate possession of "inherently dangerous" animals.

Therefore, the North Carolina Wildlife Resources Commission concurs with the report submitted by this committee and recommends, consistent with this report, passage of a law banning the private ownership of inherently dangerous animals.

Statement Submitted by the North Carolina Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services

See Appendix 11.

NC Department of Health and Human Services, Division of Public Health
A recommendation as to whether persons owning or possessing animals covered by any proposed restrictions should be grandfathered in under a regulatory scheme and while Division of Public Health supports protecting citizens of NC from trauma, poisoning or envenomation, and zoonotic infections that may result from private ownership of inherently dangerous animals, it is not structured to directly fulfill any mission that regulates those animals. The NC DPH does not possess field officers or have enforcement capabilities that are possessed by other state and local agencies. The prevention of harm to NC citizens from these animals lies in the outdoor environment and DPH believes its role should be as a consultant to any process created by the legislature for mitigating the risk posed by inherently dangerous animals. Assuming there is a genuine desire from all NC counties to regulate these animals in some fashion then a state law that creates consistency at a basic level for all counties would be preferable. To meet that goal regulation at a state level would be required.

Section III

(3) How to Address Inherently Dangerous Animals that are Indigenous Species
(Keep the 3)A plan for addressing inherently dangerous animals that are indigenous species within the jurisdiction of the Wildlife Resources Commission under Article 22 of Chapter 113 of the General Statutes and a consideration as to whether any potential legislation should broadly address the keeping of any wildlife as pets, whether indigenous or not and whether inherently dangerous or not. This portion of the report should result from extensive consultation with the Wildlife Resources Commission.

Recommendation:
The NCWRC currently regulates inherently dangerous indigenous species. Study Committee recommends no change.

Section IV

The appropriate means of grandfathering those persons in, including consideration of whether certain animals are so threatening to the public safety that the grandfathering of untrained owners or possessors should not be allowed under any circumstances.

Should Inherently Dangerous Animals be grandfathered in under a Regulatory Scheme and the appropriate means to do this?

Options:

A. If the recommendation is a ban, existing animals currently being kept are to be grandfathered in under any proposed bill
B. If the recommendation is a ban, existing animals currently being kept are not to be grandfathered in under any proposed bill
C. If the recommendation is a regulation, a grandfather clause is not a factor

(2) Recommendation:
The Committee recommends that possession of currently held animals be grandfathered. Concerns for public safety under a ban with a grandfathering provision can be managed through regulation or establishment of specific conditions that must be met.

Recommended conditions that must be met to hold individual animals grandfathered under a proposed rule.

1. Proof of ownership. Documentation that animal was owned prior to regulation/ban.
2. Breeding restrictions.
3. Identification of individual animals using species appropriate/safe methods. Ex. microchipping
8. Compliance with existing federal, state and local statutes.
10. Recovery plan in event of animal escape.
13 Registration with local authority
14 Reporting requirement for escapes
15 Confiscation powers for local authorities if animal escapes
16 Illegal to trade, swap animals (gives law enforcement officers a tool for investigation)

Conditions that were reviewed and not included in the recommendations:

4. Restriction from public contact.
5. Liability insurance. Circumstances and amounts.
   Per M. Stinner, this type of insurance is not available.
6. Caging, housing, perimeter security requirements.
7. Adherence to specified care standards.
9. Public safety precautions.
11. Training requirements
12. Site visit from local animal control

2131, as amended, that are temporarily in this state, and that offer performances by live animals, clowns, and acrobats for public entertainment. a. Exhibition.
b. Entertainment that includes wrestling, a photography opportunity with a patron, or an activity in which any listed animal and a patron are in close contact with each other.

(5) List of entities that should be exempted from any proposed restrictions

A recommended list, as comprehensive as possible, of persons and entities that should be exempted from the proposed restrictions on ownership or possession of the animals covered by any proposed restrictions, such as zoos, veterinary hospitals, wildlife sanctuaries, research institutions, and the like

A. Institutions accredited by the American Zoo and Aquarium Association (AZA). The accreditation and a sample set of animal care standards for AZA facilities can be found in Appendix 15.
B. Duly incorporated nonprofit animal protection organizations housing an inherently dangerous animal at the written request of the animal control authority.
C. Federal or state wildlife enforcement officers acting under the scope of their authority.
D. Animal control or law enforcement agencies or officers acting under the authority of this act.
E. Licensed veterinary hospitals or clinics.
F. Any sanctuary as defined in the Captive Wildlife Safety Act. Must have 501 (c) 3 or 501 a status; no breeding of animals; does not sell or offer for sale animals, animal parts or animal products; does not permit direct contact between the public and animals; maintains high standards of animal care.
G. A research facility holding a Class R registration under the Animal Welfare Act, 7 U.S.C.A. 2131, as amended. This includes but is not limited to universities, colleges, and laboratories holding a valid Class R license under the Animal Welfare Act.
H. Circuses, defined as incorporated, class C licensees under the Animal Welfare Act, 7 U.S.C.A.
I. A person who does not reside in this state and is traveling through this state with listed species if the transit time is not more than 96 hours and the animal is at all times maintained within a confinement sufficient to prevent the animal from escaping.

Additional Exemptions Proposed

1. All identified inherently dangerous reptiles will be regulated as per North Carolina Partners in Amphibian and Reptile Conservation (NC PARC) permitting and licensing proposals. This exemption is to be valid only for animals that fall under the Class Reptilia provision of this article. Appendix 8.

2. NC Exotic Animal Keepers Association proposed animal care standards to support exotic animal facility exemption. Appendix 9.

Discussion: Other possible exemptions and types of activities using exotic animals

Proposal: Exempt USDA licensees

Committee member comments;

1. Dr. Binkley, USDA does not want to see a free for all situation where everyone with a pet can apply for a license.
2. Ms. Smith, purpose of USDA license is to ensure compliance with the AWA. Does not satisfy concerns for public safety as directed in the Study Bill.
3. Dr. Binkley suggested conditions for USDA exemption as follows:
   a. Must possess a valid USDA license.

b. The inherently dangerous animal must not be kept as a pet.
c. The licensee must be a bonified business.
d. The licensee must be in good standing with federal as well as state and local authorities.

Public contact with inherently dangerous species is not permitted

4. Committee discussion. USDA requires applicants for a license to be experienced. Dr. Binkley explained as follows: The individual seeking licensing must submit a written description of their experience for USDA to review. USDA officials review the document and make their decision.

USDA currently allows public photo opportunities with small cubs and does not specify a size limit for direct human/cub contact. Their recommended cut off is usually when the cubs are larger than 30-40 lbs.

Dr. Binkley commented that there is a concern about these photo opportunities and the resulting problem of surplus cubs once they become too large to handle in photo opportunity situations. The concern is that some individuals continue breeding their cats to produce cubs resulting in a growing number of large unwanted large cats.

Discussion point: Animal Welfare Considerations.

>Dr. Jones asked the Committee Members if animal welfare was compromised in this type of situation

>Ms. Smith stated this is the case; scientific publications on the subject of well-being are available for many species. Separation of mothers/infants results in stress that is well documented in primate species.

>Ms. Stinner disagreed, stating that removal of lion cubs from their mother at her facility for photo and contact opportunities is not detrimental to their welfare.

Dr. Jones posed a question: How do we reconcile the desire to display and handle young animals for photo opportunities and in other venues with the need to provide high quality care?

Question: Can species identified as 'inherently dangerous' be taken from their home cage for the purpose of exhibition? For example, fairs, festivals, other venues.

Yes - 9 No - 5 Abstain - 2

Committee Comment:
There are people who take animals out for education reasons, but there are drawbacks to this practice.

Exemptions for Umbrella Organizations

1. NCPARC

The North Carolina Partners for Amphibian and Reptile Conservation were represented on the Committee by Mr. David Davenport. The NCPARC animal husbandry and management recommendations can be found in Appendix 8.

The NCPARC members wish to set up an inspection program in partnership with the North Carolina Wildlife Resources Commission or other state agency.

2. NC EAKA

The North Carolina Exotic Animal Keepers Association was represented on the Committee by Ms. Sherry Tregrembo. The NCEAKA animal husbandry and management recommendations can be found in Appendix 9. They wish to propose an accreditation system for non-AZA accredited facilities within North Carolina.

The EAKA members do not wish to serve as inspectors for the EAKA accreditation system. Per Ms. Tregembo, the EAKA leadership prefers independent reviewers. There are details that need to be worked out as the EAKA had only been working on their system for 3 weeks when first presented at the January 23, 2007 Committee meeting.

Summary of Recommendations

I. List species of inherently dangerous exotic animals.

The Committee reviewed species representing many taxonomic groups of animals during this process. The final, formal vote was taken during the final Committee meeting, January 23, 2007. Although discussion and votes were done during earlier meetings, the final meeting included the largest number of voting members from the Committee. The list below reflects that vote. A summary of how each agency voted can be found in Appendix 16.

Exotic Animal Species recommended for consideration as Inherently Dangerous:

- Bats, all species
- Primates (lemur, monkey, ape), all species
- Wolves, all species
- Hyaenas, all species
- Felids (cats), only species regulated by the Captive Wildlife Safety Act: lion, tiger, cheetah, jaguar, cougar, leopard, snow leopard, clouded leopard and hybrids thereof.
- Bears, all species
- Elephants, all species
- Rhinoceros, all species
- Hippopotamus, all species
- Exotic wild cattle, only gaur, banteng, kouprey, anoa, African or Cape buffalo
- Crocodilians (alligator, caiman, crocodile), all species
- Venomous lizards, only Gila monster and beaded lizard
- Constrictor snakes, only amethystine python, reticulated python, green anaconda and African rock python
- Venomous snakes, all species not indigenous to North Carolina.

Exotic Animal Species reviewed and not recommended for consideration as Inherently Dangerous

- Exotic wild swine, all species
- Giraffe, okapi
- Camel, guanaco, alpaca
- Exotic wild equines, including zebra
- Birds, all species

Exotic Animal Species requiring further discussion

- Wolf dog hybrids, several Committee members felt F1 generation individuals should be regulated. However, it is difficult to identify wolf dog hybrids on basis of visual inspection only.

II. Regulations from Other Jurisdictions

See tables 1 - 7.

III. Inherently Dangerous Species Indigenous to North Carolina

The NCWRC currently regulates inherently dangerous indigenous species. The Study Committee recommends no change.

IV. Considerations for Grandfathering Species

The Committee recommends that possession of currently held animals be grandfathered. Concerns for public safety under a ban with a grandfathering provision can be managed through regulation or establishment of specific conditions that must be met.

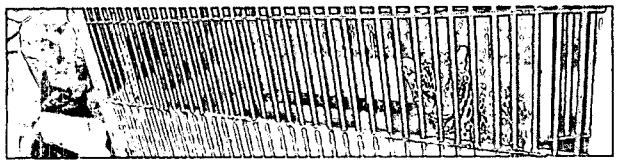
- Proof of ownership. Documentation that animal was owned prior to regulation/ban.
- Breeding restrictions.

- Identification of individual animals using species appropriate/safe methods. For example microchip
- Compliance with existing federal, state and local statutes.
- Recovery plan in event of animal escape.
- Registration with local authority
- Reporting requirement for escapes
- Confiscation powers for local authorities if animal escapes
- Illegal to trade, swap animals (this provides law enforcement officers a tool for investigation)

V. Entities to be Exempted from the Proposed Regulations

Two additional exemptions were proposed by related organizations. However, the Committee did not have sufficient information regarding those exemptions to make a recommendation in this report.

- Institutions accredited by the American Zoo and Aquarium Association (AZA).
- Duly incorporated nonprofit animal protection organizations housing an inherently dangerous animal at the written request of the animal control authority.
- Federal or state wildlife enforcement officers acting under the scope of their authority.
- Animal control or law enforcement agencies or officers acting under the authority of this act.
- Licensed veterinary hospitals or clinics.
- Any sanctuary as defined in the Captive Wildlife Safety Act. Must have 501 (c) 3 or 501 a status; no breeding of animals; does not sell or offer for sale animals, animal parts or animal products; does not permit direct contact between the public and animals; maintains high standards of animal care.
- A research facility holding a Class R license under the Animal Welfare Act, 7 U.S.C.A. 2131, as amended for the species of animals they are licensed for. This includes but is not limited to universities, colleges, and laboratories holding a valid Class R license under the Animal Welfare Act.
- A person who does not reside in this state and is traveling through this state with listed species if the transit time is not more than 96 hours and the animal is at all times maintained within a confinement sufficient to prevent the animal from escaping.
- Circuses, defined as incorporated, class C licensees under the Animal Welfare Act, 7 U.S.C.A. 2131, as amended, that are temporarily in this state, and that offer performances by live animals, clowns, and acrobats for public entertainment. Circuses do not include persons, whether or not class C licensees, who present any listed animal to the public as part of a carnival or for any of the following purposes:
    a. Exhibition.
    b. Entertainment that includes wrestling, a photography opportunity with a patron, or an activity in which any listed animal and a patron are in close contact with each other.



Exotic Animals in Private Hands in North Carolina

API's investigation into the private ownership of exotic animals and roadside zoos and menageries in North Carolina revealed the appalling conditions in which some of these animals were kept as well the dangers that such animals present to public safety. Key findings include:

- Poor Conditions: Animals kept in inadequate conditions; pens that were too small, which failed to allow animals to express normal species-specific behaviors.
- Lack of Enrichment: Pens that were barren or lacked appropriate structures and furnishings and did little, if anything, to stimulate the animals' natural behavior, resulting in stereotypical behavior.
- Lack of Companionship: Animals who were housed alone.
- Cruel and Inappropriate Treatment: Animals handled roughly and inappropriately; teeth and claws surgically removed; nonhuman primates often treated like human children, kept in diapers; animals left to roam inside houses.
- Overbreeding: The continual breeding of certain species to provide a constant supply of young animals for attractions and photo opportunities.
- Dangerous Public Contact: The offering of "close encounters" in which the public was allowed to have direct contact with dangerous animals; ineffective barriers to protect the public from having direct contact with the animals.
- Child Endangerment: Children placed at risk of attacks and injuries from dangerous exotic animals.
- Reckless Behavior: Owners placed the public and themselves at risk through irresponsible behavior.
- Animal Attacks: Reports of attacks and injuries inflicted by exotic animals on owners and others.

North Carolina currently has no state laws regulating the private ownership of exotic animals.

Examples of Poor Conditions / Animal Mistreatment

- Charlotte Metro Zoo: Animals housed here included a number of big cats such as tigers, lions, and leopards; bears; and various species of primates, including a chimpanzee, baboons, and macaques. Many of the animals were kept in inadequate conditions: pens were small, barren, and lacked meaningful enrichment. Some animals displayed stereotypical behavior, such as circling, pacing, and rocking. The facility had been cited by the USDA on a number of occasions for failing to provide minimal standards of care for its animals, including failure to provide environmental enrichment, failure to provide shelter, failure to erect a perimeter fence, inadequate feeding, and more.

FIG. 1: Animals were often kept in poor conditions that lacked appropriate structures and enrichment for the species. In a barren, muddy, and wet cage, there were no raised platforms to allow the cats off the ground. (Charlotte Metro Zoo, NC)

FIG. 2: Bears were kept in barren concrete pits with a visitors' "gallery" above so that people could look down and throw food at them. There was no shelter, forcing them to be on permanent "display." (Cherokee Bear Zoo, NC)

FIG. 3: These bears were kept in appalling conditions. The pens had concrete floors and were extremely small and barren. One pen had no shelter. (Santa's Land, NC)

FIG. 4: Animals are often confined to small and barren environments that fail to meet their physical and psychological needs. This tiger displayed marked stereotypical behavior, pacing inside his small, concrete prison. (Triangle Metro Zoo, NC)

The large cats lived in different size enclosures and pens with either earthen or concrete floors. For many animals, there was little in the way of structures and meaningful enrichment. Some cats displayed stereotypical behavior, pacing inside their pens. On the day of API's visit, it was raining. One pen containing three tigers was very wet and muddy. There were no raised platforms that would allow the cats to be off the ground. (See Fig. 1)

One leopard was found on his own in a small metal trailer covered by a blue tarpaulin sheet. (See Masthead photo) Another leopard was kept in a very small, barren pen under the porch of an on-site private residence.

Some of the primates were housed in pairs, but others were kept singly, with no opportunity to socialize. Enrichment methods were not substantive and pens were not suitable for the species they housed. Some pens had concrete floors and lacked height and space. A number of the monkeys displayed stereotypical behavior such as pacing, rocking, circling, and repetitive jumping.

Some animals were handled roughly and treated aggressively by the facility's owner and his partner. The owner told API investigators that the best way to stop a monkey from biting was to gag her by shoving fingers down the animal's throat. He also smacked one tiger on the face after the tiger bit him. His partner roughly handled infant monkeys.

- Cherokee Bear Zoo: This facility contained a number of bears, primates, and tigers. The animals were housed in poor conditions and music blared constantly throughout the zoo.

  The bears were kept in concrete pits with a visitors' "gallery" above them so that people could look down and throw food at them. There were a number of these pits, all in a row, containing either two or four bears. The pits were made entirely of concrete. There were no shelters visible. The bears had no privacy, and were forced to be on display the whole time and were literally "performing" for their food. (See Fig. 2)

  The conditions for the primates and a tiger failed to meet the animals' physical and psychological needs. Most of the primates were kept in circular cages with concrete floors and a roof. These cages were small and barren. The baboons in particular suffered in such a confined space. The tiger pen was small, with a concrete floor; a depression in the ground was used as a water area. Otherwise, the pen was barren. There was no shelter available for the animal.

- Santa's Land: This theme park and petting zoo housed a number of animals, including bears and cougars. Many of the animals were kept in poor conditions, in small and barren pens. (See Fig. 3)

  Four adult black bears were kept in pairs in two extremely small, dark pens, with low roofs and concrete floors. The only structures in one of the pens were a small raised wooden platform and a shallow concrete container that appeared to be the bears' only source of water and was almost empty. There was no shelter.

  Two cougars were housed in a small, dark, concrete pen with a covered roof. There was no shelter, just a raised wooden platform. The only other structure in the pen was a concrete water bowl.

- Triangle Metro Zoo: Animals kept here included bears, big cats, and primates. Many of the animal pens were inadequate: small and barren with a concrete or shiny artificial surface. The pens were clearly designed for appearance and ease of cleaning, not to meet the needs of the animals. They lacked enrichment, some only containing a water trough. (See Fig. 4)

Two bears were housed in a small closed-topped pen with an artificial floor. There was a depression in the surface for a water area. The only items in the pen were a small metal hut attached to one side, a log, and a metal bracket (possibly used to hold a bucket). A plastic tube allowed the public to feed the bears. Otherwise, the pen was empty.

Two lions were kept in a very small, barren pen with an artificial floor. There was a small brick building attached for a shelter. The only other item in the pen was a water trough. There were no structures or enrichment. A tiger, who displayed stereotypical behavior, was kept in a similarly small and barren pen nearby. (See Fig. 4)

Examples of Threats to Public Safety / Reckless Behavior / Child Endangerment

- Charlotte Metro Zoo: The owner of this facility behaved recklessly during API's investigators' visit and took risks with public safety. He performed tricks with tigers in front of visitors, sitting on one tiger's back and sticking his face into the mouth of another. On one occasion, an adult tiger on a leash was on display in a non-secured area. The owner put his arm, and then his head, into the tiger's mouth. He then walked the tiger, holding only the collar, back into his enclosure. (See Fig. 5)

Tigers, lions, and monkeys were bred on-site and used in photo shoots and taken to fairs. It appeared that some, if not all, of the tiger cubs and infant monkeys were removed prematurely from their mothers for commercial purposes. The animals were raised inside an on-site private residence. Despite acknowledging the potential dangers that tiger cubs and infant monkeys pose to the public, the owner appeared to regularly take these animals out to let visitors see them and for photo opportunities.

API investigators were invited into an on-site private residence to see the infant monkeys and tiger cubs who were kept in the house. All the animals had their teeth and claws. Incidents took place at the house while API investigators were present that posed a serious danger to a five-year-old girl living there. On one occasion, a tiger cub climbed onto the girl and grabbed her with his paws. Her mother had to push the cub away. The child climbed out of reach onto the back of the sofa. The child was nervous around the animals and at one point asked her mother not to let the tiger cub bite her if she got off the sofa. The tiger cub bit the mother's foot.

Underneath the porch of the house, an adult black leopard was kept in a small pen. From the porch, the child would be able to stick her hands through the wire directly into the pen and touch the leopard. (See Fig. 6)

The mother was irresponsible to allow this interaction. Not only was the child's safety at risk, but the animals themselves were at risk from the actions of the child. On one occasion, the child was pulling one of the monkeys around roughly on his leash and swinging him in the air, shouting and laughing while she did it. Her mother made no attempt to stop her.

- Cherokee Bear Zoo: A number of incidents took place during API's visit

FIG. 5: The owner performed tricks with tigers in front of visitors such as putting his arm and then his head into this tiger's mouth, as seen here. (Charlotte Metro Zoo, NC)

The Animal Welfare Act (AWA) requires that there be a sufficient distance and/or barriers between the animal and the general viewing public so as to assure the safety of animals and the public.

FIG. 6: This child was at risk from a leopard who was kept in a cage under the porch of this house. (On-site Private Residence at Charlotte Metro Zoo, NC)

FIG. 7: Children were allowed to stick their hands through bars to touch these large tiger cubs. These cubs were also taken out for "photo ops" that included direct contact with the public. (Cherokee Bear Zoo, NC)

FIG. 8: The public, including children, were openly encouraged to touch bears. One of the staff told visitors: "Our insurance company says no petting. However, if you decide you want to pet them, keep in mind we're not liable, okay. Now they will bite, but if you decide you want to pet them, I suggest you might want to pet them on the back, away from the head area." (Santa's Land, NC) that raised concerns about the risks this zoo took with visitors' safety.

The zoo placed the public at risk by allowing direct contact with dangerous animals during photo sessions. Two five-month-old tiger cubs were used in these sessions. People were allowed to bottle-feed the tiger cubs while having their photograph taken. The cubs had been de-clawed in their front feet but still had their teeth and were capable of inflicting serious bites. The cubs were not put on leashes for the photos but were roughly handled by the collar. There was no safety area attached to the pen, allowing the cubs direct access into public areas if they escaped. Following one photo session, a staff member left a tiger cub unsupervised and unleashed outside of her pen.

In addition, a group of children was actually allowed to stick their hands through the bars of the tiger pen to touch the tiger cubs. The cubs started to jump up at the children, who became nervous; their parents called them away. (See Fig. 7)

- Santa's Land: This facility took risks with public safety by allowing zoo visitors, including children, to have direct contact with dangerous animals.

Two seven-month-old bear cubs were put on public display during feeding time. Adults and children gathered for the event, where there was only an ineffective safety barrier (a low single rail circling a platform). The gate to the bears' pen was opened and the cubs were allowed to run out unrestrained onto the platform directly in front of the public. The animals climbed two poles and a staff member held out a bottle of fruit punch for them to drink. It was only then that the bears were leashed. A staff member openly encouraged the public to touch the bears, even though they were told the animals could bite. When the bears climbed down from the poles, children reached out and started to stroke the bears. After a while the gate was opened and the bears were led back inside their pen. The gate was left open while the leashes were removed. (See Fig. 8)

API's Recommendations

Faced with the evidence uncovered by this investigation, and the rising tide of attacks and injuries nationwide, API is calling for four key steps to be taken as a matter of priority:

- North Carolina must act now to pass laws that ensure that the private ownership of exotic animals is prohibited.
- The breeding, selling, and display of exotic animals at roadside zoos and menageries must end.
- The public must be educated about the safety threats and animal welfare concerns associated with roadside zoos and exotic "pets," and be shown that wild animals do not belong in private hands.
- Where exotic animals cannot be transferred to a genuine sanctuary, existing owners must, at a minimum, increase the standard of care being provided to ensure the safety and well-being of the animals and the public.

North Carolina Exotic Animal Incidents

The following is a partial list of attacks on humans and other incidents involving animals kept in private possession in the U.S. since 1995. Captive elephant and captive feline attacks on humans are responsible for hundreds of injuries, many resulting in death.

Date	Place	Incident
1/29/07	Nahunta, NC	A female Japanese snow monkey that had escaped her home in early December was finally caught on the Seymour Johnson Air Force Base grounds. It is still unclear what will happen to the monkey. (Goldsboro New-Argus)
11/16/06	Greensboro, NC	U.S. Marshalls and High Point police were called to a motel in Greensboro to serve a warrant on a suspect, Christopher Ezekiel, 30, of High Point. The possessor shall present proof of possession and maintenance of liability insurance upon request to the animal control or law enforcement authority within 24 hours of the request.

(9) In addition to complying with the requirements set forth in this section, the possessor shall comply with any and all applicable federal, State, or local law, rule, regulation, ordinance, permit, or other permission. Failure to comply with any such law, rule, regulation, ordinance, permit, or other permission constitutes a violation of this Article.

"§ 19A-84. Enforcement of Article.

The animal control authority and its staff and agents, local law enforcement agents, county sheriffs, and federal or State wildlife enforcement officers may enforce the provisions of this Article.

"§ 19A-85. Inspection.

The possessor of an inherently dangerous animal shall, at all reasonable times, allow the animal control authority or other persons designated under G.S. 19A-84 to enter the premises where the animal is kept to ensure compliance with this Article.

"§ 19A-86. Confiscation and disposition of inherently dangerous animals.

(a) The animal control authority or other persons designated under G.S. 19A-84 may confiscate an inherently dangerous animal under the following conditions:

(2) The animal poses a public safety or health risk;

(3) The animal is in poor health and condition as a result of the owner's actions or inaction; or

(4) The animal is being held in contravention of this Article.

(b) An inherently dangerous animal that is confiscated under this section may be returned to the possessor only if the animal control authority or other persons designated under G.S. 19A-84 establishes that the possessor had possession of the animal prior to January 1, 2008, the return does not pose a public safety or health risk, and the possessor is in compliance with this act.

(c) The animal control or other persons designated under G.S. 19A-84 shall serve notice upon the possessor in person or by regular and certified mail, return receipt requested, notifying the possessor of the confiscation that the possessor is responsible for payment of reasonable costs for caring and providing for the animal during the confiscation.

(d) The animal control authority or other persons designated under G.S. 19A-84 shall serve notice upon the possessor in person or by regular and certified mail, return receipt requested, notifying the possessor of the confiscation, that the possessor is responsible for payment of reasonable costs for caring and providing for the animal during the confiscation, and that the possessor must meet the requirements of subsection (b) of this section in order for the animal to be returned to the possessor.

(e) If an inherently dangerous animal that is confiscated under this section is not returned to the possessor, the animal control or other persons designated under G.S. 19A-84 may release the animal to a facility such as a sanctuary or a facility exempted pursuant to G.S. 19A-81. If the animal control or law enforcement authority is unable to relocate the animal within a reasonable period of time, it may euthanize the animal.

"§ 19A-88. Local governing bodies.

Pursuant to its authority under G.S. 153A-131 and G.S. 160A-187, a city or county may adopt an ordinance governing inherently dangerous animals that is more restrictive than this Article. Such an ordinance may apply to animals not covered by this Article, provide caging standards, provide stricter care and treatment standards, or otherwise restrict or prohibit the possession of inherently dangerous animals.

"§ 19A-89. Severability.

If any part of this Article is determined to be unconstitutional or unenforceable, it shall not affect the constitutionality or enforceability of any other part."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective January 1, 2008, and applies to inherently dangerous animals existing in this State on or after that date. The local animal control authority shall implement and administer the provisions of Article 6 of Chapter 19A of the General Statutes.

SENATE BILL 1477:
Inherently Dangerous Animals

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	June 27, 2007
Introduced by:	Sen. Jones	Summary by:	Jennifer McGinnis
Version:	PCS to First Edition S1477-CSRI		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: The proposed committee substitute (PCS) for Senate Bill 1477 would make it unlawful for a person to import into, possess, purchase, breed, or sell within this State, an inherently dangerous wild animal, except in certain circumstances. A person violating the provisions of the PCS would be liable for a civil penalty of not less than $200.00 and not more than $2,000 for each animal with respect to which there is a violation and for each day the violation continues. The PCS also authorizes animal control authorities and other law enforcement personnel to confiscate an inherently dangerous wild animal kept in contravention of the provisions of the PCS.

The provisions of the PCS would become effective January 1, 2008, and would apply to inherently dangerous wild animals existing in this State on or after that date.

[As introduced, this bill was identical to H1614, as introduced by Rep. Jones, which is currently in House Environment and Natural Resources .]

BACKGROUND: Section 32 of S.L. 2006-248 directed the Department of Environment and Natural Resources, in consultation with the North Carolina Zoological Park and the Wildlife Resources Commission, to study "the need to protect the public against the health and safety risks posed by inherently dangerous animals and propose a means of best providing that protection to the public while also protecting the welfare of inherently dangerous animals." The study committee met four times in 2006 -2007 and submitted a report of their recommendations to the General Assembly in May 2007.[1]

BILL ANALYSIS: The PCS would create a new Article 7 in Chapter 19A of the General Statutes that would –

- Make it unlawful for a person to import into, possess, purchase, breed, or sell within this State, an inherently dangerous wild animal, except in certain circumstances. The PCS includes a list of animals to be classified as inherently dangerous wild animals.
    - Exemptions to the prohibition include: Institutions accredited by the American Zoo and Aquarium Association; certain nonprofit animal protection organizations housing an inherently dangerous wild animal at the written request of the animal control authority; federal or State wildlife enforcement officers; animal control or law enforcement agencies or officers; licensed veterinary hospitals or clinics. wildlife sanctuaries; universities, colleges, laboratories, or other research facilities licensed under federal law; circuses licensed under federal law that are temporarily in the State, a non-resident of the State in the State with an inherently dangerous wild animal for not more than 72 hours; indigenous species regulated by the Wildlife Resources Commission; production companies that use inherently dangerous wild animals in the production of original motion pictures or television images for theatrical, commercial, advertising, or educational purposes.

[1] To be distributed with bill summary.

- Grandfathered possession of inherently dangerous wild animals, under certain circumstances: A person in legal possession of an inherently dangerous wild animal prior to January 1, 2008 may keep possession of the animal for the remainder of the animal's life, subject to the following conditions: (1) maintenance of certain records to be presented to animal control or law enforcement authorities upon request; (2) timely registration of the animal with the animal control authority; (3) unique identification of the animal using species appropriate, safe methods, which must be reported to the animal control authority; (4) the animal may not be bred; (5) immediate notification of animal control or law enforcement authorities upon discovery that the animal has escaped; (6) development and maintenance of a written plan for the quick and safe recapture or destruction of the animal in the event the animal escapes; (7) the animal must not be traded or replaced; (8) procurement and maintenance of a liability insurance policy that covers claims for injury or damage to persons or property in an amount of not less than $1,000,000; (9) compliance with any applicable federal, State, or local laws, rules, regulations, ordinances, permits, or other permissions.

- Confiscation of inherently dangerous wild animal by authorities: An animal control or law enforcement authority may confiscate an animal if: (1) it has probable cause to believe that the animal was acquired after January 1, 2008; (2) the animal poses a public safety or health risk; (3) the animal is in poor health and condition as a result of the owner's actions or inaction; o (4) the animal is being held in contravention of the provisions of the PCS.

  This section includes procedures for notice of the confiscation; return of the animal based on certain findings, and if not returned then procedures for placement or euthanasia; and discretion of authorities to act in response to release or escape of an inherently dangerous wild animal.

- Penalties: A person violating the provisions of the PCS would be liable for a civil penalty of not less than $200.00 and not more than $2,000 for each animal with respect to which there is a violation and for each day the violation continues.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The provisions of the PCS would become effective January 1, 2008, and would apply to inherently dangerous wild animals existing in this State on or after that date.

NCDA&CS Comments Regarding SB 1032: Study Inherently Dangerous Animals and Study Commission Activities

February 2, 2007

The study bill language is included for clarity and is marked in bold type. NCDA&CS' comments follow each section.

SB 1032: SECTION 1. The Department of Environment and Natural Resources, in consultation with the North Carolina Zoological Park and the Wildlife Resources Commission, shall study the need to protect the public against the health and safety risks posed by inherently dangerous animals and propose a means of best providing that protection to the public while protecting the welfare of inherently dangerous animals as well. In developing recommendations, the Department shall consult with the following entities or groups, or appropriate representatives of those entities or groups:

(1) The Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services.
(2) The Division of Public Health of the Department of Health and Human Services.
(3) The North Carolina State University College of Veterinary Medicine.
(4) The State Animal Response Team.
(5) Local law enforcement officials.
(6) Local animal control officials.
(7) Wild animal breeders.
(8) Exotic pet hobbyists.
(9) Commercial pet retailers.
(10) Small zoo owners.
(11) Humane organizations.
(12) Any other entities or groups whose interests may be affected by proposed regulations.

DENR included NCDA&CS in the Study Commission (SC) meetings. Dr. Mary Ann McBride and Dr. Tom Ray have represented NCDA&CS at the 4 SC meetings. It remains unclear to NCDA&CS if DENR has consulted adequately with exotic pet hobbyists, commercial pet retailers, and the other entities whose interests may be affected, as directed by Section 1 above.

Based on the discussion held in the SC meetings, NCDA&CS considers that DENR has yet to sufficiently study the need to protect the public in an effective manner, as directed in Section 1. The initial meeting began with implied intent by DENR that there are inherently dangerous animals requiring regulation/banning, and the group was tasked immediately with developing a list of such animals. It should also be noted that no working definition of "inherently dangerous" was determined until the second half of the fourth meeting, even though NCDA&CS members and others requested that such be considered at the initial and second meetings.

Since the State Veterinarian and/or State Public Health Director already has the authority to quarantine diseased animals or to require permits for the importation of animals that present a disease risk, any listing of inherently dangerous animals pursuant to this SC should be based on the physical injury risk posed by the species, rather than its disease risk.

No data summarizing documented animal attack incidents, potential risks for such incidents, and the prevalence of species of concern or similar materials were presented to the SC members by DENR. The only data shared specifically relating to the above was presented by a member of NCARK at the Public Comment session of the third meeting and by a member of the Animal Protection Institute, known to support banning of exotic animals through legislative action in other states (not unbiased).

For the SC to make an accurate, fair recommendation regarding the need to protect the public (the initial charge of the study bill), such data should have been provided to the SC and carefully considered to determine whether there is a true need for this type of protection via new legislation, based on prevalence and risk posed by such species.

A cursory review of current General Statutes 153A-131 and GS 160A-187 by NCDA&CS legal counsel indicates that both counties and cities already have the authority to regulate possession or harboring of dangerous animals, as outlined below:

> § 153A-131. Possession or harboring of dangerous animals.
> A county may by ordinance regulate, restrict, or prohibit the possession or harboring of animals which are dangerous to persons or property. No such ordinance shall have the effect of permitting any activity or condition with respect to a wild animal which is prohibited or more severely restricted by regulations of the Wildlife Resources Commission. (1973, c. 822, s. 1; 1977, c. 407, s. 1.)

> § 160A-187. Possession or harboring of dangerous animals.
> A city may by ordinance regulate, restrict, or prohibit the possession or harboring within the city of animals which are dangerous to persons or property. No such ordinance shall have the effect of permitting any activity or condition with respect to a wild animal which is prohibited or more severely restricted by regulations of the Wildlife Resources Commission. (1971, c. 698, s. 1; 1977, c. 407, s. 2.)

NCDA&CS considers that additional study of current state and local regulations needs to be performed to sufficiently satisfy the request made by Bill 1032-1 regarding consideration of the need for additional regulations. Perhaps no state-level regulations are appropriate at this time.

SECTION 2. The Department shall report its findings to the General Assembly no later than the convening of the 2006 Regular Session of the 2005 General Assembly. Any legislation recommended in the report may be considered during the 2006 Regular Session of the 2005 General Assembly.

No NCDA&CS comment.

SECTION 3. The report made by the Department of Environment and Natural Resources pursuant to this act shall include:

(1) A list of the types of animals that possess such inherently dangerous characteristics that they should not be owned or possessed by persons who do not have special expertise or training, and a determination as to whether these animals should be grouped into classes for differential treatment based upon the nature and extent of the threat they pose to the public. This list should also include information about the nature of the dangers posed by each type of animal.

NCDA&CS respectfully considers that this item's goals have not been met by the SC. Only a list of those animals considered "inherently dangerous" has been developed. No consideration regarding possession was made during list compilation, only whether that species was "inherently dangerous." No grouping of those animals listed for differential treatment was made, nor were the specific natures of the dangers posed defined in the SC list.

(2) A suggested means for regulating ownership of certain animals, including a means of enforcing any proposed restrictions on the ownership or possession of those animals. This portion of the report may include an evaluation of regulations in place in other jurisdictions that have proven to be effective in protecting the public from inherently dangerous animals.

NCDA&CS respectfully considers that this item's goals have not been met by the SC. No thorough discussion of regulations in place in other jurisdictions was held, other than limited information provided by the Animal Protection Institute, which was based on their activities in promoting banning legislation in other states. In addition, no effective consideration of regulations already in place in the General Statutes or at local government levels was made, other than the information provided by Dr. Carl Williams (DHHS) that was never discussed during the SC meetings.

A significant amount of discussion was held regarding "which state agency should regulate or oversee the proposed bans," even though no consensus regarding species or legislative actions under consideration had been made. NCDA&CS strongly objects to any indication that the oversight of exotic species of animals should come under the jurisdiction of this agency. Exotic species do not have a role in the mission of this department, which is focused on agriculture and the production of food for our state.

(3) A plan for addressing inherently dangerous animals that are indigenous species within the jurisdiction of the Wildlife Resources Commission under Article 22 of Chapter 113 of the General Statutes and a consideration as to whether any potential legislation should broadly address the keeping of any wildlife as pets, whether indigenous or not, and whether inherently dangerous or not. This portion of the report should result from extensive consultation with the Wildlife Resources Commission.

Based on competent information provided by the NCWRC representative, Ms. Joan Troy, NCWRC already has all necessary authority to address the possession of indigenous wildlife species. NCWRC has been very cooperative in exploring this item. It is not the intent of the NCWRC to have any oversight of any exotic animal species under consideration by this SC.

(4) A recommendation as to whether persons owning or possessing animals covered by any proposed restrictions should be grandfathered in under a regulatory scheme and the appropriate means of grandfathering those persons in, including consideration of whether certain animals are so threatening to the public safety that the grandfathering of untrained owners or possessors should not be allowed under any circumstances.

NCDA&CS notes that the strict limitations to be placed on those permitted to be grandfathered as proposed by DENR will eliminate the affected entities' ability to continue doing business. By prohibiting breeding or replacement of animals that die, undue burden will be placed on the private zoos, breeding facilities and similar entities. Careful consideration of the economic impact must be made before any form of legislation should be considered.

(5) A recommended list, as comprehensive as possible, of persons and entities that should be exempted from the proposed restrictions on ownership or possession of the animals covered by any proposed restrictions, such as zoos, veterinary hospitals, wildlife sanctuaries, research institutions, and the like.

NCDA&CS considers that additional discussion with those entities to be impacted by regulations, bans, or grandfathering limitations is imperative at this time. The limitations on those entities will have significant negative impacts on their ability to continue doing business.

In summary, NCDA&CS states that additional study and evaluation of the following items is essential prior to the General Assembly's consideration of any form of proposed regulatory or banning activities regarding "inherently dangerous animals":

- Study of current regulations in place at state and local levels
- Study of incidence, risk, perceived risk, and prevalence of those species involved in incidents
- Fiscal impact of regulatory or banning implementation on affected entities, such as hobbyists, private zoos, etc.

NCDA&CS wishes to emphasize that the regulation of inherently dangerous, non-domesticated animals is not compatible with its mission, and NCDA&CS would be opposed to any legislation giving NCDA&CS the responsibility for regulating such animals.

Ban Cell Phone Use by School Bus Drivers

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	June 28, 2007
Introduced by:	Reps. Rapp, Goforth, Saunders, Glazier	Summary by:	Kory Goldsmith Committee Counsel
Version:	PCS to Third Edition H183-CSRC-52

SUMMARY: House Bill 183 would make it a Class 2 misdemeanor for drivers to use mobile telephones while operating school buses or providing contracted transportation services for schools, subject to certain exceptions for emergency situations.

The Proposed Committee Substitute revises the "Definitions" portion of the bill to reflect existing terms. It clarifies that the prohibition does not apply to a stationary school bus. It specifies that a violation will not result in drivers license or insurance points, nor will a violation constitute negligence per se or contributory negligence.

CURRENT LAW: G.S. 20-137.3 currently prohibits the use of a mobile telephone by a person under the age of 18 while operating a motor vehicle, subject to certain exceptions for emergency situations and contacting parents.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 183 would prohibit a person from using a mobile telephone or additional technology associated with a mobile telephone while operating a moving school bus. The prohibition would not apply to the use of a mobile phone or additional technology associated with the mobile phone if the school bus is stationary, or the use of a mobile phone in an emergency situation. Violation of the section would be a Class 2 misdemeanor and would be punishable by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00)[1]. A violation would not result in the assessment of either drivers license or insurance points. A violation would not constitute negligence per se or contributory negligence.

The following definitions would apply:

A "school bus" includes:

- A vehicle whose primary purpose is to transport school students over an established route to and from school for the regularly scheduled school day, that is equipped with alternately flashing red lights on the front and rear and a mechanical stop signal, and that bears the words "School Bus" on the front and rear in letters at least 8 inches in height. The term includes a public, private, or parochial vehicle that meets this description.
- A school activity bus, which is defined as a vehicle, generally painted a different color from a school bus, whose primary purpose is to transport school students and others to or from a place for participation in an event other than regular classroom work. The term includes a public, private, or parochial vehicle that meets this description.
- Any vehicle transporting public, private, or parochial school students for compensation.

A "mobile telephone" is a device used by subscribers and other users of wireless telephone service to access the service. The term includes: (i) a device with which a user engages in a call using at least one hand, and (ii) a device that has an internal feature or function, or that is equipped with an attachment or addition, whether or not permanently part of the mobile telephone, by which a user engages in a call without the use of either hand, whether or not the use of either hand is necessary to activate, deactivate, or initiate a function of such telephone.

[1] Fines for Class 2 misdemeanors may not exceed $1,000. G.S. 15A-1340.23(b).

An "emergency situation" includes circumstances such as medical concerns, unsafe road conditions, matters of public safety, or mechanical problems that create a risk of harm for the operator or passengers of a school bus.

A violation of the law would not constitute grounds to confiscate the mobile telephone or the additional technology associated with the mobile telephone. Local ordinances regulating the use of a mobile telephone while operating a school bus would be prohibited.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This bill would become effective December 1, 2007 and apply to offenses committed on or after that date.

HOUSE BILL 535:
Criminal Background Reviews - EMS Personnel

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	July 2, 2007
Introduced by:	Rep. Wainwright	Summary by:	Ben Popkin
Version:	Third Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 535 would provide for criminal background reviews of individuals who apply for emergency medical service (EMS) credentials, seek to renew EMS credentials, or hold EMS credentials.

CURRENT LAW:

Under current law, the Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS) credentials EMS personnel. DHHS may deny, suspend, amend, or revoke the credentials of an EMS worker in any case in which DHHS finds that there has been a substantial failure to comply with the statutes or rules regulating emergency medical services. DHHS rules provide that DHHS may deny, suspend, or revoke the credentials of an EMS worker for any conviction of a felony or a crime involving moral turpitude or scope of practice.

Prior to taking a disciplinary action against an EMS worker, DHHS must consider the recommendations of the EMS Disciplinary Committee. The EMS Disciplinary Committee reviews and makes recommendations to DHHS regarding all disciplinary matters relating to credentialing EMS personnel.

BILL ANALYSIS:

House Bill 535 would provide for criminal background reviews by DHHS of individuals who apply for EMS credentials, seek to renew EMS credentials, or hold EMS credentials. At the request of DHHS, the EMS Disciplinary Committee will review criminal background information and make a recommendation regarding the eligibility of an individual to obtain, renew, or maintain EMS credentials. DHHS and the EMS Disciplinary Committee will keep all criminal background information confidential. The Medical Care Commission will adopt rules to implement the criminal background reviews, including rules to establish a reasonable fee to offset the actual costs of obtaining criminal history information from the Department of Justice (DOJ).

House Bill 535 would authorize DOJ to provide to DHHS the criminal histories from the State and National Repositories of Criminal Histories of individuals who apply for EMS credentials, seek to renew EMS credentials, or hold EMS credentials when the criminal history information is requested by DHHS. DHHS will provide to DOJ the fingerprints of the individual to be checked, additional information required by DOJ, and a form signed by the individual to be checked consenting to the criminal record check and the use of fingerprints and other identifying information. DHHS and the EMS Disciplinary Committee will keep all criminal background information confidential. DOJ shall charge a reasonable fee to offset the cost incurred to conduct the criminal history check.

House Bill 535 would authorize the EMS Disciplinary Committee to, at the request of DHHS, review criminal background information and make recommendations regarding the eligibility of individuals to obtain initial EMS credentials, renew EMS credentials, or maintain EMS credentials

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT PROVIDING LOCAL FIRE CHIEFS, COUNTY FIRE MARSHALS, AND LOCAL EMERGENCY SERVICES DIRECTORS WITH THE AUTHORITY TO REQUEST CRIMINAL HISTORIES FROM THE DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE FOR APPLICANTS TO FIRE DEPARTMENTS AND EMERGENCY MEDICAL SERVICES IN UNITS OF LOCAL GOVERNMENT.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 114-19.12 reads as rewritten:

"§ 114-19.12. Criminal history record checks of applicants to fire ~~departments.~~departments and emergency medical services.

(a) Definitions. – As used in this section, the term:

(1) "Applicant" means an applicant for a paid or volunteer position with a fire department in a unit of local government.

(2) "Criminal history" means a State or federal history of conviction of a crime, whether a misdemeanor or felony, that bears upon a covered person's fitness for holding a paid or volunteer position with a fire department. The crimes include, but are not limited to, criminal offenses as set forth in any of the following Articles of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes: Article 5, Counterfeiting and Issuing Monetary Substitutes; Article 5A, Endangering Executive and Legislative Officers; Article 6, Homicide; Article 7A, Rape and Other Sex Offenses; Article 8, Assaults; Article 10, Kidnapping and Abduction; Article 13, Malicious Injury or Damage by Use of Explosive or Incendiary Device or Material; Article 14, Burglary and Other Housebreakings; Article 15, Arson and Other Burnings; Article 16, Larceny; Article 17, Robbery; Article 18, Embezzlement; Article 19, False Pretenses and Cheats; Article 19A, Obtaining Property or Services by False or Fraudulent Use of Credit Device or Other Means; Article 19B, Financial Transaction Card Crime Act; Article 20, Frauds; Article 21, Forgery; Article 26, Offenses Against Public Morality and Decency; Article 26A, Adult Establishments; Article 27, Prostitution; Article 28, Perjury; Article 29, Bribery; Article 31, Misconduct in Public Office; Article 35, Offenses Against the Public Peace; Article 36A, Riots and Civil Disorders; Article 39, Protection of Minors; Article 40, Protection of the Family; Article 59, Public Intoxication; and Article 60, Computer-Related Crime. The crimes also include possession or sale of drugs in violation of the North Carolina Controlled Substances Act, Article 5 of Chapter 90 of the General Statutes, and alcohol-related offenses such as sale to underage persons in violation of G.S. 18B-302, or driving while impaired in violation of G.S. 20-138.1 through G.S. 20-138.5.

(b) When requested by a designated local Homeland Security director ~~or,~~a local fire chief, a county fire marshal, or an emergency services director or, when there is no designated local Homeland Security ~~director,~~director, local fire chief, county fire marshal, or emergency services director, by a local law enforcement agency, the North Carolina Department of Justice may provide to the requesting ~~director~~ director, chief, marshal, director, or agency an applicant's criminal history from the State and National Repositories of Criminal Histories. The local Homeland Security ~~director~~ director, local fire chief, marshal, director, or local law enforcement agency shall provide to the North Carolina Department of Justice the fingerprints of the applicant to be checked, any additional information required by the Department of Justice, and a form signed by the applicant to be checked consenting to the check of the criminal record and to the use of fingerprints and other identifying information required by the State or National Repositories. The fingerprints of the individual shall be forwarded to the State Bureau of Investigation for a search of the State criminal history record file, and the State Bureau of Investigation shall forward a set of fingerprints to the Federal Bureau of Investigation for a national criminal history record check. The local Homeland Security ~~director~~ director, local fire chief, county fire marshal, emergency services director, or local law enforcement agency shall keep all information pursuant to this section confidential. The Department of Justice shall charge a reasonable fee for conducting the checks of the criminal history records authorized by this section.

(c) All releases of criminal history information to the local Homeland Security ~~director~~ director, local fire chief, county fire marshal, emergency services director, or local law enforcement agency shall be subject to, and in compliance with, rules governing the dissemination of criminal history record checks as adopted by the North Carolina Division of Criminal Information. All of the information the local Homeland Security ~~director~~ director, local fire chief, county fire marshal, emergency services director, or local law enforcement agency receives through the checking of the criminal history is privileged information and for the exclusive use of that director or agency.

(d) If the applicant's verified criminal history record check reveals one or more convictions covered under subdivision (a)(2) of this section, then the conviction shall constitute just cause for not selecting the applicant for the position or for dismissing the person from a current position with the local fire ~~department.~~department or emergency medical services. The conviction shall not automatically prohibit volunteering or employment; however, the following factors shall be considered by the local Homeland Security ~~director~~ director, local fire chief, county fire marshal, emergency services director, or local law enforcement agency in determining whether the position shall be denied:

(1) The level and seriousness of the crime;
(2) The date of the crime;
(3) The age of the person at the time of the conviction;
(4) The circumstances surrounding the commission of the crime, if known;
(5) The nexus between the criminal conduct of the person and the duties of the person;
(6) The prison, jail, probation, parole, rehabilitation, and employment records of the person since the date the crime was committed; and
(7) The subsequent commission by the person of a crime listed in subsection (a) of this section.

(e) The local fire ~~department~~ department or emergency medical services may deny the applicant the position or dismiss an applicant who refuses to consent to a criminal history record check or use of fingerprints or other identifying information required by the State or National Repositories of Criminal Histories. This refusal constitutes just cause for the denial of the position or the dismissal from the position.

(f) The local fire ~~department~~ department or emergency medical services may extend a conditional offer of the position pending the results of a criminal history record check authorized by this section.

(g) For purposes of this section, 'local fire chief' shall include only fire chiefs who are paid employees of a city and 'county fire marshal' shall include only fire marshals who are paid employees of a county.

(h) For purposes of this section 'emergency services director' shall include only emergency services directors who are paid employees of a city or county."

SECTION 2. This act is effective when it becomes law.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE CHILD PLACEMENT AGENCIES TO ACT AS CONFIDENTIAL INTERMEDIARIES BETWEEN ADULT ADOPTEES, AN ADULT LINEAL DESCENDANT OF A DECEASED ADOPTEE, AND A BIOLOGICAL PARENT.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 48-9-101 reads as rewritten:

"§ 48-9-101. ~~Records~~ Certain terms defined.

(a) For purposes of this Article, "records" means any petition, affidavit, consent or relinquishment, transcript or notes of testimony, deposition, power of attorney, report, decree, order, judgment, correspondence, document, invoice, receipt, certificate, or other printed, written, microfilmed or microfiched, video-taped or tape-recorded material or electronic data processing records regardless of physical form or characteristics pertaining to a proceeding for adoption under this Chapter.

(b) Notwithstanding G.S. 48-1-101, for purposes of this Article, "adult" means an individual who has attained 21 years of age."

SECTION 2. G.S. 48-1-101 is amended by inserting in alphabetical order the following new subdivisions to read:

"In this Chapter, the following definitions apply:

...

(*) 'Confidential intermediary' means a licensed adoption agency staff person who may act as a third party to facilitate contact between an adult adoptee or the adult lineal descendant of a deceased adoptee and the biological parent.

(*) 'Lineal descendant of a deceased adoptee' means any person who descends from the direct line of the adoptee.

SECTION 3. G.S. 48-9-104 reads as rewritten:

"§ 48-9-104. Release of identifying information.

(a) Except as provided in ~~G.S. 48-9-109(2),~~G.S. 48-9-109(2) or (3), no person or entity shall release from any records retained and sealed under this Article the name, address, or other information that reasonably could be expected to lead directly to the identity of an adoptee, an adoptive parent of an adoptee, an adoptee's parent at birth, or an individual who, but for the adoption, would be the adoptee's sibling or grandparent, except upon order of the court for cause pursuant to G.S. 48-9-105.

(b) A child placing agency licensed by the Department or a county department of social services may agree to act as a confidential intermediary for a biological parent or adult adoptee or adult lineal descendant of a deceased adoptee, without appointment by the court pursuant to G.S. 48-9-105, in order to obtain and share nonidentifying birth family health information or facilitate contact or share identifying information with adult adoptees, adult lineal descendants of deceased adoptees, and biological parents with the written consent of all parties to the contact or the sharing of information. Further, a child placing agency licensed by the Department or a county department of social services may agree to act as a confidential intermediary for the adoptive parents of a minor adoptee, without appointment by the court pursuant to G.S. 48-9-105, to obtain and share nonidentifying birth family health information. An agency that agrees to provide confidential intermediary services may charge a reasonable fee for doing so, which fee must be pursuant to written agreement signed by the individual to be charged. The Division shall establish guidelines for confidential intermediary services."

SECTION 4. G.S. 48-9-109 reads as rewritten:

"§ 48-9-109. Certain disclosures authorized.

Nothing in this Article shall be interpreted or construed to prevent:

b. Disclosing the name of the court where a proceeding for adoption occurred, or the name of an agency that placed an adoptee, to an individual described in G.S. 48-9-104 who can verify his or her identity.

c. Disclosing or using information contained in permanent and sealed records, other than records maintained by the State Registrar, for statistical or other research purposes as long as the disclosure will not result in identification of a person who is the subject of the information and subject to any further conditions the Department may reasonably impose.

(2) In agency placements, a parent or guardian placing a child for adoption and the adopting parents from authorizing an agency to release information or from releasing information to each other that could reasonably be expected to lead directly to the identity of an adoptee, an adoptive parent of an adoptee, or an adoptee's placing parent or guardian. The consent to the release of identifying information shall be in writing and signed prior to the adoption by any placing parent or guardian and the adopting parents and acknowledged under oath in the presence of an individual authorized to administer oaths or take acknowledgments. Any consent to release identifying information shall be filed under G.S. 48-2-305.

(3) The Division from sharing information from its records regarding the identity of birth parents with an agency acting as a confidential intermediary pursuant to G.S. 48-9-104(b), if the information is needed by the agency to carry out its duties as a confidential intermediary. HOUSE BILL 445:
Access to Information for Adult Adoptees

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	July 10, 2007
Introduced by:	Reps. Dickson, Crawford, Wilkins, Farmer-Butterfield	Summary by:	Kory Goldsmith Committee Counsel
Version:	Second Edition

SUMMARY: House Bill H445 authorizes child placement agencies to act as confidential intermediaries between adult adoptees, an adult lineal descendant of a deceased adoptee, and a biological parent.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 raises the age of "adult" for the purposes of the records statutes from 18 to 21 years old.

Section 2 defines "confidential intermediary" as a licensed adoption agency staff person who is authorized to facilitate contact between an adult adoptee or the adult lineal descendant of a deceased adoptee and the adoptee's biological parent. Also defines "lineal descendant of a deceased adoptee" as any person who descends from the direct line of the adoptee.

Section 3 authorizes a child placing agency or a county department of social services to act as a confidential intermediary between an adult adoptee or an adult lineal descendant of a deceased adoptee and a biological parent of the adoptee. These agencies may share nonidentifying birth family health information. With written consent of both parties the agencies may facilitate contact or share identifying information between the parties.

Also, a child placing agency or a county department of social services may act as a confidential intermediary for the adoptive parents of a minor adoptee to obtain nonidentifying birth family health information.

This section authorizes a confidential intermediary to charge a reasonable fee for their services so long as the fee is pursuant to a written agreement signed by the individual to be charged. The Division of Social Services is required to establish guidelines for confidential intermediary services.

Section 4 makes a conforming change to authorize the Division to release information from its records to a confidential intermediary in order to carry out its duties.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act becomes effective January 1, 2008.

HOUSE BILL 563:
Traffic and Personal Safety Changes.-AB

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	July 9, 2007
Introduced by:	Reps. Sutton, Stiller	Summary by:	Kory Goldsmith Committee Counsel
Version:	PCS to Second Edition H563-CSRC-55

SUMMARY: House Bill 563 amends motor vehicle laws concerning motorcycle helmets; the "move over" law; traffic signals; and removal of abandoned vehicles from highways.

The Proposed Committee Substitute adds a new Section 7 authorizing cities and counties to adopt ordinances regulating the time, place and manner of protests that occur on State roads and State highways.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 563 makes the following changes to the motor vehicle law:

Motorcycle helmets

Section 1 amends the requirement that the operator and any passengers riding a motorcycle or moped must wear a helmet. The bill would require that the helmet meet federal standards, to be worn on the head, and to be worn with a retention strap properly secured. Violation of this requirement would be an infraction and the driver or passenger would be fined $25 and assessed $75 costs of court. No drivers license or insurance surcharge points would be assessed.

"Move –Over" law

Section 2 of the bill amends the "move over" law to clarify that the law applies to all public service vehicles, not just those called the scene by a motorist or a law enforcement officer.

Traffic signal changes

Section 3 of the bill amends the vehicle control signs and signals statute to address situations where traffic signals are inoperable. The proposed language authorizes drivers to proceed as if the intersection was controlled by a 4-way stop sign, unless directed otherwise by a law enforcement officer, another authorized person, or a another type of traffic control device.

Section 4 of the bill updates language in the vehicle control signs and signals statute to replace the word "stoplight" with "traffic signal" and "signaling device" with "traffic control device".

Removal of vehicles left on public highways

Section 5 of the bill shortens, from 48 hours to 24 hours, the amount of time a vehicle may be left on a public highway right-of-way prior to removal. It also clarifies that the term "right-of-way" includes rest areas.

Section 6 of the bill expands the current authorization for law enforcement to remove wrecked or abandoned vehicles from controlled access highways to authorize removal from all State highways.

Regulation of protests on State roads and highways

Section 7 authorizes cities and counties to adopt ordinances regulating the time, place and manner of pedestrian protests on State roads and highways. Cities currently have this authority for municipal streets, but neither cities nor counties have the authority to regulate State roads or highways.

EFFECTIVE DATE: Section 1 becomes effective January 1, 2008. The remainder of the act is effective when it becomes law.

Giles Perry, counsel to House Judiciary III Committee, substantially contributed to this summary.

ADVISORY: HEAT STRESS and MOTORCYCLE HELMETS

"...burden on society...hyperthermic brain injury is the third largest killer in the World..."

April 29, 2007, Janice, BIKERS USA

In many states, hot weather is here. It certainly is in North Carolina! It is a great time for motorcycle riding, but in the coming months , it will get so hot that you may become irritable. Irritability during hot weather is just one of many signs that you may be suffering a form of heat stress. If you wear a helmet, you should be particularly careful, because helmets are usually made of a non-permeable material which does not allow heat dissipation.

Heat stress is a buildup of body heat generated either internally by muscle use or externally by the environment. Heat exhaustion and heat stroke result when the body is overwhelmed by heat . As the heat increases, body temperature and the heart rate rise painlessly. An increase in body temperature of two degrees Fahrenheit can affect mental functioning. A five degree Fahrenheit increase can result in serious illness or death. During hot weather, heat illness may be an underlying cause of other types of injuries, such as heart attacks, falls and equipment accidents.

The most serious heat related illness is heat stroke. The symptoms are confusion, irrational behavior, convulsions, coma, and death. While over 20% of heat stroke victims die regardless of health or age, children seem to be more susceptible to heat strain than adults. In some cases, the side effects of heat stroke are heat sensitivity and varying degrees of brain and kidney damage.

BURDEN ON SOCIETY

"In terms of clinical burden on the society and number of deaths occurring due to heat illness, hyperthermic brain injury is the third largest killer in the World after the cardiovascular and traumatic insults to the central nervous system (CNS). In spite of the seriousness of this problem, studies regarding effects of heat on the CNS are largely ignored."

A few years ago, a national television news channel commented that motorcyclists are a "burden on society". This caused a huge uproar, and many motorcyclists, including the author, permanently boycotted their national news. It also fueled the helmet lobby to use the "burden on society" theme to call for a steadfastness refusal to allow bikers to make their own informed decision. Activists for choice now have a medically based "burden on society" response.

BIKERS USA has not yet been able to find a reputable, published medical report related to Heat Stress and Motorcycle Helmets but suggests that you think twice before putting that helmet on yourself and your children, in hot weather. You know to never lock your children or pets in locked cars with windows rolled up. Similarly, helmets prevent heat from dissipating, and feels the same, particularly if a helmet is black or another dark color. The reduced heat dissipation caused by helmets is especially felt while at a stop, and in slow moving traffic.

HB 563 Traffic and Personal Safety Changes reviewed in Senate Judiciary II on July 9, 2007

Prepared Statement by Janice MacKay, Wake County, Editor of Bikers USA, 919-342-0403
Time Required: 3 Minutes

Janice MacKay, Wake County, Editor of Bikers USA

I've been riding motorcycles for 40 years. I'm also an authorized reseller of more than 500 models of helmets*. Most of these are full face. Almost all of them are marketed as DOT approved.

According to California Superior Court Judge Barton, the government does not approve helmets, and the phrase "DOT Approved" has no meaning, in fact, or in law.

According to the NHTSA, they have statutory authority to issue standards (FMVSS) for motor vehicle and motor vehicle equipment manufacturers to comply with. NHTSA does not approve any manufacturers or products. DOT or NHTSA does not approve motorcycle helmets, thus, there is no list of "approved" helmets.

What is "DOT Approved" then?

With millions of motorcyclists, and hundreds of models of helmets costing as much as $600, it's definitely a great marketing strategy for big business, but it's NOT a law for consumers or motorcyclists to comply with.

FMVSS 218 is a self-certifying process for helmet manufacturers. Imagine if the FDA did this!

If an average person of reasonable intelligence can't reference the statute and take reasonable steps to ensure compliance, the Constitution says the law is vague and unenforceable.

I want to know how the state will tell the average motorcyclist what FMVSS 218 is.

I also want to know what the state plans to do about the many sub-standard full-face helmets being sold in North Carolina as "DOT approved". This should include the hundreds of full-face helmets which were never tested, or failed testing by the OVSC.

Don't go after me, telling me to figure out what FMVSS 218 is, and to buy helmets that comply with a self-certifying marketing strategy. Go after the helmet makers under Chapter 75!

I propose that HB 563 has many sections which are valid and will serve the citizens. However, paragraph 2 should fail the scrutiny of this Judiciary committee on constitutional grounds. No List No Law. This applies to both the current statute and the proposed statute. Please strike paragraph 2, then vote favorable for the remainder of the bill.

- Since the year 2000, only 158 helmets passed OVSC testing.

HOUSE BILL 563 - TRAFFIC AND PERSONAL SAFETY CHANGES

In regards to HB 563 appearing before the NC House Judiciary III Committee on April 26, 2007

In review of amendments proposed within House Bill 563 Traffic and Personal Safety Changes, Section 1a, paragraph 2, related to safety helmets, is vague.

(2) Unless the operator and all passengers thereon wear ~~safety helmets of a type approved by the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles~~on their head, with a retention strap properly secured, safety helmets of a type that complies with Federal Motor Vehicle Safety Standard (FMVSS) 218.

In order for a law to be constitutional, an average person of reasonable intelligence, in order to ensure compliance, must be able to answer the following question: What is Federal Motor Vehicle Safety Standard (FMVSS) 218, and how can I ensure that I comply with it?

Whereas, FMVSS 218 is a manufacturing standard understood by engineers, and since FMVSS 218 is not a consumer law, and since law enforcement officers are not capable of roadside testing of safety helmets to ensure compliance,

Then, the average person of reasonable intelligence cannot possibly ensure compliance. Therefore, prior to passage of HB 563 through Judiciary III, please remove the modification of Section 1a paragraph 2, as constitutionally vague.

A review of the current statutes also finds the existing Section 1a paragraph 2 vague.

§ 20-140.4. Special provisions for motorcycles and mopeds.

2) Unless the operator and all passengers thereon wear safety helmets of a type approved by the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles

There is no list of safety helmets approved by the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles. In the absence of such a list, the law is constitutionally vague, and the paragraph should be removed prior to passage of HB 563.

As such, I respectfully hereby propose modification of HB 563 Section 1, as follows:

SECTION 1. G.S. 20-140.4 reads as rewritten:

"§ 20-140.4. Special provisions for motorcycles and mopeds.

(a) No person shall operate a motorcycle or moped upon a highway or public vehicular area:

(1) When the number of persons upon such motorcycle or moped, including the operator, shall exceed the number of persons which it was designed to carry.

~~(2) Unless the operator and all passengers thereon wear safety helmets of a type approved by the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles.~~

(b) Violation of any provision of this section shall not be considered negligence per se or contributory negligence per se in any civil action.

(c) Any person convicted of violating this section shall have committed an infraction and shall be fined according to G.S. 20-135.2A(e) and (f)."

If such modification, as proposed herein, is made, striking that portion of the bill which is vague, Section 1a paragraph 2, the remainder of House Bill 563 is agreeable, and should pass Judiciary III committee with no further objection.

As a lawful citizen of North Carolina, and the United States of America, I respectfully request you, all being honorable elected representatives of the people, respond with legislation consistent with the US Constitution.

Sincerely,
a Citizen and Motorcycle Rider

HOUSE BILL 730:
Mediation of Property Insurance Claims.-AB

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	July 9, 2007
Introduced by:	Reps. Goforth, Holliman	Summary by:	Kory Goldsmith Committee Counsel
Version:	First Edition

SUMMARY: House Bill 730 is requested by the Department of Insurance to make clarifying and conforming changes to Part 2 of Article 44 of Chapter 58 which deals with the mediation of emergency or disaster-related property insurance claims.

CURRENT LAW: In 2006, and in response to some of the issues related to property insurance claims in the Gulf Coast area after Hurricane Katrina, the General Assembly passed legislation creating a mediation process for disputed property damage claims resulting from proclaimed disasters. The legislation required that insurers notify insureds of a right to mediate disputed claims.

A disputed claim is defined as any matter where there is a disagreement as to the cause of loss or amount of loss, for which the insurer has denied payment, in part or in whole with respect to claims arising from a disaster. The amount in dispute must be at least $1500, and does not include a denial of coverage for the loss because of exclusions in the policy, terms in the policy, conditions in the policy, or nonexistence of the policy at the time of the loss.

If an insured requests mediation, the Commissioner or the Commissioner's designee (Administrator) shall select a mediator who shall conduct the mediation. The mediation is nonbinding unless all parties specifically agree in writing that the results are binding. If the parties reach a settlement, it shall act as a release of all specific claims that were presented at the mediation conference.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 amends G.S. 58-44-70 to clarify that a state of disaster may be declared by the General Assembly. It also provides that the mediation procedures of this Part are not triggered unless authorized by the Commissioner of Insurance.

Section 2 amends G.S. 58-44-80(b) to cross reference the notice of right to mediation that is required to be sent by insurers under the preceding subsection. This is a clarification that only one notice to insureds is required.

Section 3 amends G.S. 58-44-95 to provide that only mediators certified by the Dispute Resolution Commission may conduct a mediation conference under this Part.

Section 4 amends G.S. 58-44-100 to remove a requirement that all parties must negotiate in good faith. It also removes the requirement that the party that is responsible for terminating the conference is responsible for paying the mediator's and administrative fees.

Section 5 amends G.S. 58-44-60(a) to clarify that insurers of both residential and commercial property must include in the policy a notice of certain exclusions under the policy.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The act would become effective October 1, 2007 and apply to policies issued or renewed on or after that date.

HOUSE BILL 767:
ATV Use for Emergencies.-AB

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	July 5, 2007
Introduced by:	Rep. Sutton	Summary by:	Jennifer McGinnis
Version:	PCS to Third Edition H767-CSRI-22		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: The Proposed Committee Substitute (PCS) for House Bill 767 would: (i) authorize all law enforcement officers, fire, rescue, and emergency medical personnel, as well as municipal and county employees of listed local governments to operate all-terrain vehicles (ATVs) on specified public highways while acting in the course and scope of their duties; and (ii) require that ATV safety courses be approved by the Commissioner of Insurance, and authorize the North Carolina Community College system to provide such courses.

[As introduced, this bill was identical to S785, as introduced by Sen. Kerr, which is currently in Senate Judiciary II (Criminal).]

CURRENT LAW: Several local laws, enacted beginning in 2004, authorize law enforcement officers, municipal employees, and county employees to use ATVs on public highways with speeds limits of 35 mph or less, in the course of their duties.

These local laws are exceptions to the general State law, which requires vehicles intended to be operated on the highways of the State to be registered (G.S. 20-50, -52), and provides that operation of a vehicle on the highways of the State without proper registration constitutes a Class 2 misdemeanor (G.S. 20-111).

G.S. 14-159.3(b) defines a motorized all terrain vehicle as "a two or more wheeled vehicle designed for recreational off-road use".

In addition, current State law requires every ATV operator born on or after January 1, 1990 to take a safety course and possess a safety certificate indicating completion of the course.

BILL ANALYSIS: The PCS for House Bill 767 would:

- Authorize all law enforcement officers to operate unregistered ATVs owned or leased by the agency or under the direct control of the incident commander, on public highways with speed limits of 35 mph or less, and on non-fully controlled access highways with higher speed limits for the purpose of traveling from a speed zone to an adjacent speed zone where the speed limit is 35 mph or less.
- Authorize all fire, rescue, and emergency medical personnel to operate unregistered ATVs owned or leased by the agency, or under the direct control of the incident commander, on public highways with speed limits of 35 mph or less, and on non-fully controlled access highways with higher speed limits for the purpose of traveling from a speed zone to an adjacent speed zone where the speed limit is 35 mph or less.

- Authorize municipal and county employees only in currently authorized areas to operate unregistered all-terrain vehicles owned or leased by the agency, on public highways with speed limits of 35 mph or less, and on non-fully controlled access highways with higher speed limits for the purpose of traveling from a speed zone to an adjacent speed zone where the speed limit is 35 mph or less. This section would apply to the Towns of Atlantic Beach, Burgaw, Carolina Beach, Cramerton, Dallas, Duck, Emerald Isle, Indian Beach, Kill Devil Hills, Kitty Hawk, Kure Beach, Nags Head, Oakboro, Ocean Isle Beach, North Topsail Beach, Pine Knoll Shores, Stanley, Surf City, Topsail Beach, and Stanley, Wrightsville Beach, the Cities of Albemarle, Belmont, Cherryville, Gastonia, Kings Mountain and Mount Holly, Mountain, Mount Holly, and Rockingham and the Counties of Cleveland, Currituck, Gaston, Surry, and Wilkes only.
- Specify that the requirements of Part 10C of Article 3 of Chapter 20, Operation of All-Terrain Vehicles, apply to use of ATVs under this bill (age, passenger, brakes, mufflers, spark arrester, eye protection, helmet, DWI, reckless operation, use of headlights).
- Require operable front and rear lights, horn, observation of posted speed limits, and that the operator carry ID. Would prohibit exceeding the manufacturer's recommended speed.
- Provide that a penalty for violation of these new provisions would constitute an infraction.
- Repeal G.S. 20-114.3 (Law enforcement and municipal employee motorized all-terrain vehicles permitted on highways with speed limits of 35 miles per hour or less.), and all local acts on this subject.
- Require the Commissioner of Insurance to approve required all-terrain vehicle safety courses and authorize the North Carolina Community College system to provide such courses.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This PCS would become effective October 1, 2007.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO REQUIRE THE STATE REGISTRAR TO ASSIST COUNTY JURY COMMISSIONS IN UPDATING THEIR LISTS OF PROSPECTIVE JURORS BY PROVIDING A LIST OF RESIDENTS OF EACH COUNTY WHO HAVE DIED RECENTLY; AND TO EXCLUDE FROM THE LISTS PROVIDED BY THE COMMISSIONER OF MOTOR VEHICLES TO COUNTY JURY COMMISSIONS THE NAMES OF PERSONS WHOSE DRIVERS LICENSES HAVE BEEN EXPIRED FOR AT LEAST EIGHT YEARS AND WHO HAVE BEEN INACTIVE VOTERS FOR AT LEAST FOUR YEARS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 9-2(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) In preparing the list, the jury commission shall use the list of registered voters and persons with drivers license records supplied to the county by the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles pursuant to G.S. 20-43.4. The commission shall remove from the list the names of those residents of the county who are recently deceased, which shall be supplied to the commission by the State Registrar under G.S. 130A-121. The commission may use fewer than all the names from the list if it uses a random method of selection. The commission may use other sources of names deemed by it to be reliable."

SECTION 2. Article 4 of Chapter 130A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 130A-121. List of deceased residents for county jury commission.

The State Registrar shall provide to each county's jury commission an alphabetical list of all residents of that county who have died in the two years prior to July 1 of each odd-numbered year, unless an annual jury list is being prepared under G.S. 9-2(a), in which case the list shall be of all residents of the county who have died in the year prior to July 1 of each year. The list shall include the name and address of each deceased resident and may be in either printed or computerized form, as requested by the jury commission."

SECTION 3. G.S. 20-43.4 reads as rewritten:

"§ 20-43.4. Current list of licensed drivers to be provided to jury commissions.

The Commissioner of Motor Vehicles shall provide to each county jury commission an alphabetical list of all persons that the Commissioner has determined are residents of the county, who will be 18 years of age or older as of the first day of January of the following year, and licensed to drive a motor vehicle as of July 1 of each odd-numbered year, provided that if an annual jury list is being prepared under G.S. 9-2(a), the list to be provided to the county jury commission shall be provided annually. The list shall include those persons whose license to drive has been suspended, and those former licensees whose license has been ~~canceled.~~canceled, except that the list shall not include the name of any formerly licensed driver whose license is expired and has not been renewed for eight years or more. The list shall contain the address and zip code of each driver, plus the driver's date of birth, sex, and drivers license number, and may be in either printed or computerized form, as requested by each county. Before providing the list to the county jury commission, the Commissioner shall have computer-matched the list with the voter registration list of the State Board of Elections to eliminate duplicates. The Commissioner shall include in the list provided to the county jury commission names of registered voters who do not have drivers licenses, and shall indicate the licensed or formerly licensed drivers who are also registered voters, the licensed or formerly licensed drivers who are not registered voters, and the registered voters who are not licensed or formerly licensed drivers. The list so provided shall be used solely for jury selection and election records purposes and no other. Information provided by the Commissioner to county jury commissions and the State Board of Elections under this section shall remain confidential, shall continue to be subject to the disclosure restriction provisions of G.S. 20-43.1, and shall not be a public record for purposes of Chapter 132 of the General Statutes."

SECTION 4. G.S. 163-82.11(e) reads as rewritten:

"(e) Cooperation on List for Jury Commission. – The State Board of Elections shall assist the Division of Motor Vehicles in providing to the county jury commission of each county, as required by G.S. 20-43.4, a list of all registered voters in the county and all persons in the county with drivers license records. The list of registered voters provided by the State Board of Elections shall not include any registered voter who has been inactive for four years or more."

SECTION 5. This act becomes effective July 1, 2007.

HOUSE BILL 943:
Updating of Jury List

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	July 6, 2007
Introduced by:	Rep. Lewis	Summary by:	Ben Popkin
Version:	Second Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 943 would require the State Registrar to provide county jury commissions with lists of recently deceased residents, and would require jury commissions to remove those deceased residents from their jury lists. The bill would also require the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles and the State Board of Elections to remove drivers whose licenses have been expired for an extended period of time and voters who have been inactive for an extended period of time from the lists provided to county jury commissions.

CURRENT LAW:

Preparation of jury lists. Each county jury commission is required to prepare a list of prospective jurors on July 1 of every odd-numbered year to serve in the biennium beginning on January 1 of the following year. The commission may instead prepare the jury list annually if requested in writing by the senior regular resident superior court judge. The individuals placed on the jury list come from a list supplied by the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles, which is prepared in cooperation with the State Board of Elections and includes licensed or formerly licensed drivers who are registered voters, licensed or formerly licensed drivers who are not registered voters, and registered voters who are not licensed or formerly licensed drivers.

Records of deaths. For every death that occurs in the State, a death certificate must be filed with the local registrar within five days after the death. The local registrar is required to send original death certificates to the State Registrar on the fifth day of each month, and the State Registrar has the duty of securing and maintaining all vital records in the State.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 943 would require the State Registrar to provide each county jury commission with an alphabetical list of county residents who have died in the two year period prior to July 1 of each odd-numbered year if the jury list in that county is being prepared for the next biennium. The list would have to include residents who have died in the one year period prior to July 1 of each year if the jury list is prepared annually. The bill would require the county jury commission to then remove recently deceased residents from its jury list.

The bill would also require the following people to be excluded from the lists provided to the county jury commissions for use in preparing prospective jury lists:

- Any formerly licensed driver whose license has been expired for eight years or more.
- Any registered voter who has been inactive for four years or more.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The bill would become effective July 1, 2007.

HOUSE BILL 1277:

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	July 6, 2007
Introduced by:	Reps. T. Harrell, Coleman, Avila, Tillis	Summary by:	Ben Popkin
Version:	Third Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 1277 would require that the Division of Motor Vehicles revoke a person's drivers license for one year when that person has been convicted of giving alcoholic beverages to, or aiding and abetting the purchase or possession of alcohol by, an underage person. The bill would also provide for a limited driving privilege for persons convicted of those offenses.

CURRENT LAW: G.S. 18B-302 sets out several offenses relating to selling or giving alcoholic beverages to, and the purchase or possession of alcoholic beverages by, and underage person. For some of the offenses, a conviction report is sent to the Division of Motor Vehicles, and upon receipt of the report, the Division is required to revoke the person's license for one year. No provision is made for a limited driving privilege when a license is revoked pursuant to this section.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 1277 would require revocation of a person's drivers license upon conviction of offenses under G.S. 18B-302 that involve giving alcohol to underage persons or aiding and abetting the purchase or possession of alcohol by an underage person. The following chart indicates the offenses under the current law for which a license revocation would be required and the offenses for which a license revocation would be required under this bill:

OFFENSE	CURRENT LAW	Under H1277
Sale of alcohol to underage person	No revocation	No revocation
Give alcohol to underage person	No revocation	Revocation
Purchase/attempt to purchase alcohol by underage person	Revocation	Revocation
Underage person aids and abets selling or giving alcohol to underage person or aids and abets purchase, possession or consumption of alcohol by underage person	Revocation	Revocation
Person of lawful age aids and abets selling or giving alcohol to underage person or aids and abets purchase, possession or consumption of alcohol by underage person	No revocation	Revocation
Fraudulent use of identification to enter a place where alcohol is sold or consumed or to obtain alcohol	Revocation	Revocation
Allowing use of identification by an underage person to purchase, possess, or consume alcohol	Revocation	Revocation

The bill also provides that a person whose license is revoked for being convicted of an offense under G.S. 18B-302 would be eligible for a limited driving privilege if the conviction was for one of the following offenses:

- Giving an alcoholic beverage to an underage person.
- Persons of lawful age aiding and abetting the selling or giving of alcoholic beverages to an underage person or aiding and abetting the purchase, possession, or consumption of alcoholic beverages by an underage person.
- Underage persons aiding and abetting the selling or giving of alcoholic beverages to an underage person or aiding and abetting the purchase, possession, or consumption of alcoholic beverages by an underage person.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The act would become effective December 1, 2007, and would apply to offenses committed on or after that date.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 15A-267(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) Upon a defendant's motion made before trial in accordance with G.S. 15A-952, the court may order the SBI to perform DNA testing and DNA Database comparisons of any biological material collected ~~but not DNA tested~~ in connection with the case in which the defendant is charged upon a showing of all of the following:

(1) That the biological material is relevant to the investigation.

(2) That the biological material was not previously DNA ~~tested.~~tested or that more accurate testing procedures are now available that were not available at the time of previous testing and there is a reasonable possibility that the result would have been different.

(3) That the testing is material to the defendant's defense."

SECTION 2. G.S. 15A-268 reads as rewritten:

"§ 15A-268. Preservation of ~~samples of~~ biological ~~materials.~~evidence.

(a) As used in this section, the term 'biological evidence' includes the contents of a sexual assault examination kit; or any item that contains blood, semen, hair, saliva, skin tissue, or other identifiable biological material, whether that material is catalogued separately on a slide or swab, in a test tube, or some other similar method, or is present on clothing, ligatures, bedding, other household materials, drinking cups, cigarettes, or other evidence.

~~(a)~~(a1)Notwithstanding any other provision of law and subject to subsection (b) of this section, a governmental entity ~~that collects evidence containing DNA in the course of a criminal investigation~~ in custody of evidence shall preserve ~~a sample of the evidence collected for the period of time a defendant convicted of a felony is incarcerated in connection with that case. The governmental entity may determine how the evidence is retained pursuant to this section, provided that the evidence is retained in a condition suitable for DNA testing.~~any physical evidence that is reasonably likely to contain any biological evidence collected in the course of a criminal investigation or prosecution. Evidence shall be preserved in a manner reasonably calculated to prevent contamination or degradation of any biological evidence that might be present, subject to a continuous chain of custody, and securely retained with sufficient official documentation to locate the evidence.

(a2) The evidence described by subsection (a1) of this section shall be preserved for the following period:

(1) For conviction resulting in a sentence of death, until execution.

(2) For conviction of a violent felony, as defined in G.S. 14-7.7(b), during the period of incarceration and any period of mandatory supervised release.

(3) For conviction of an offense requiring sex offender registration pursuant to Article 27A of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes, during the period of incarceration, any period of mandatory supervised release or probation, and the period of sex offender registration.

(4) For conviction of any felony for which the defendant's genetic profile may be taken by a law enforcement agency and included in the State DNA database, for a period of seven years.

(b) The governmental entity ~~may dispose of the sample of evidence containing DNA preserved~~ required to preserve evidence pursuant to subsection ~~(a)~~(a1) of this section ~~before the~~ may petition the court for an order allowing for disposition of the evidence prior to the expiration of the period of time described in subsection ~~(a)~~ (a2) of this section if all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The governmental entity sent notice of its intent to dispose of the ~~sample of~~ evidence to the district attorney in the county in which the conviction was obtained.

(2) The district attorney gave to each of the following persons written notification of the intent of the ~~entity~~ governmental entity to dispose of the ~~sample of~~ evidence: any defendant convicted of a felony who is currently incarcerated in connection with the case, the ~~current~~ defendant's current counsel of record, the Office of Indigent Defense Services, and the Attorney General. The notice shall be consistent with the provisions of this section, and the district attorney shall send a copy of the notice to the governmental entity. Delivery of written notification from the district attorney to the defendant was effectuated by the district attorney transmitting the written notification to the superintendent of the correctional facility where the defendant was assigned at the time and the superintendent's personal delivery of the written notification to the defendant. Certification of delivery by the superintendent to the defendant in accordance with this subdivision was in accordance with subsection (c) of this section.

(3) The written notification from the district attorney specified the following:

a. That the governmental entity would destroy the ~~sample of~~ evidence collected in connection with the case unless the governmental entity received a written request that the ~~sample of~~ evidence not be destroyed.

b. The address of the governmental entity where the written request was to be sent.

c. That the written request must be received by the governmental entity within 90 days of the date of receipt by the defendant of the district attorney's written notification.

d. That the written request must ask that the material not be destroyed or disposed of for one of the following reasons:

1. The case is currently on appeal.
2. The case is currently in postconviction proceedings.
3. The defendant will file within 180 days of the date of receipt by the defendant of the district attorney's written notification a motion for DNA testing pursuant to G.S. 15A-269, that is followed within 180 days of sending the request that the ~~sample of~~ evidence not be destroyed or disposed of, by a motion for DNA testing pursuant to G.S. 15A-269, unless a request for extension is requested by the defendant and agreed to by the governmental entity in possession of the evidence.

(4) The governmental entity did not receive a written request in compliance with the conditions set forth in sub-subdivision (3)d. of this subsection within 90 days of the date of receipt by the defendant of the district attorney's written notification.

(c) Upon receiving a written notification from a district attorney in accordance with subdivision (b)(3) of this section, the superintendent shall personally deliver the written notification to the defendant. Upon effectuating personal delivery on the defendant, the superintendent shall sign a sworn written certification that the written notification had been delivered to the defendant in compliance with this subsection indicating the date the delivery was made. The superintendent's certification shall be sent by the superintendent to the governmental entity that intends to dispose of the sample of evidence. The governmental entity may rely on the superintendent's certification as evidence of the date of receipt by the defendant of the district attorney's written notification.

(d) After a hearing, the court may enter an order authorizing the governmental entity to dispose of the evidence if the court determines by the preponderance of the evidence that the evidence:

(1) Has no significant value for biological analysis and should be returned to its rightful owner, destroyed, used for training purposes, or otherwise disposed of as provided by law;

(2) Has no significant value for biological analysis and is of a size, bulk, or physical characteristic not usually retained by the governmental entity and cannot practically be retained by the governmental entity; or

(3) May have value for biological analysis but is of a size, bulk, or physical characteristic not usually retained by the governmental entity and cannot practically be retained by the governmental entity.

(e) The court order allowing the disposition of the evidence pursuant to this section may require the governmental entity to take reasonable measures to remove or preserve portions of evidence suitable for future biological testing or may provide the defendant an opportunity to take reasonable measures to preserve the evidence.

(f) An order regarding the disposition of evidence pursuant to this section shall be a final and appealable order. The defendant shall have 30 days from the entry of the order to file notice of appeal. The governmental entity shall not dispose of the evidence while the appeal is pending."

SECTION 3. G.S. 15A-269(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) The court shall grant the motion for DNA testing of the evidence upon its determination that:

(1) The conditions set forth in subdivisions (1), (2), and (3) of subsection (a) of this section have been met;~~ and~~

(2) If the DNA testing being requested had been conducted on the evidence, there exists a reasonable probability that the verdict would have been more favorable to the ~~defendant.~~defendant; and

(3) The defendant has signed a sworn affidavit of innocence."

SECTION 4. Article 13 of Chapter 15A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 15A-270.1. Right to appeal denial of defendant's motion for DNA testing.

The defendant may appeal an order denying the defendant's motion for DNA testing under this Article, including by an interlocutory appeal."

SECTION 5. This act becomes effective December 1, 2007.

HOUSE BILL 1500:
DNA Evidence/Preserve & Access by Defendant

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	July 9, 2007
Introduced by:	Reps. Glazier, Ross	Summary by:	Jennifer McGinnis
Version:	PCS to Second Edition H1500-CSRI-21		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: The Proposed Committee Substitute (PCS) for House Bill 1500 would make several changes to the DNA testing laws.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 amends G.S. 15A-267(c) to allow pre-trial testing of DNA evidence that has previously been tested, but more accurate testing procedures are now available that were not available at the time of previous testing.

Section 2 amends G.S. 15A-268, governing the preservation of biological evidence. A new subsection (a) defines the term "biological evidence" to include not only individual samples of biological material, but also evidence that may contain blood, semen, hair, etc. The evidence shall be preserved in a manner reasonably calculated to prevent contamination or degradation of any biological evidence that might be present, and must be subject to a continuous chain of custody and securely retained with sufficient official documentation to locate the evidence. The PCS provides that to the extent a federal standard exists for preservation of biological evidence, the evidence must be preserved in compliance with the standard.

A new subsection (a2) requires the biological evidence to be retained for the following period:

- Death sentence – until execution.
- Violent felony – during incarceration.
- Sex Offense – during incarceration and any period of supervised release or probation.
- Felony convictions allowing DNA samples – 7 years.

G.S. 15A-268 is further amended to require the governmental entity holding the evidence to petition the court to dispose of the evidence earlier than the periods of time provided above. The court may authorize the disposal of the evidence if the court determines by the preponderance of the evidence that the evidence 1) has no significant value for biological analysis, 2) has no significant value for biological analysis and is in some way impractical to retain, or 3) may have value for biological analysis but is in some way impractical to retain. The court may order the governmental entity to take measures to remove or preserve portions of evidence suitable for future testing or may provide the defendant with the opportunity to take those measures. An order regarding disposal of the evidence may be appealed by the defendant within 30 days.

Section 3 amends G.S. 15A-269(b), governing postconviction DNA testing, to require the defendant to sign a sworn affidavit of innocence.

Section 4 creates a new G.S. 15A-270.1 which provides that the defendant may appeal any order denying the defendant's motion for DNA testing, including an interlocutory appeal.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act becomes effective March 1, 2008.

This Part applies only (i) if a state of disaster has been proclaimed for the State or for an area within the State by the Governor or by a resolution of the General Assembly under G.S. 166A-6; or (ii) if the President of the United States has issued a major disaster declaration for the State or for an area within the State under the Robert T. (c) The Commissioner may designate a person, either within the Department or outside of the Department, as the Administrator or other functionary to carry out any of the Commissioner's duties under this Part."

SECTION 2. G.S. 58-44-80(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) The insurer shall mail ~~a~~ the notice ~~of the right to mediate disputed claims~~ described in subsection (a) of this section to an insured within five days after the time the insured or the Administrator notifies the insurer of a dispute regarding the insured's claim. The following apply:

"§ 58-44-95. Scheduling of mediation; qualification of mediator.

(b) In order to be approved, a mediator must be certified by the Dispute Resolution Commission under ~~G.S. 7A-38.2; or, if not, shall be approved at the discretion of the Administrator only if the parties agree on the selected mediator and the proposed mediator is a licensed attorney in North Carolina in good standing with the North Carolina State Bar. A mediator shall not make an award or render a judgment as to the merits of the action.~~ G.S. 7A-38.2."

SECTION 4. G.S. 58-44-100 reads as rewritten:

"§ 58-44-100. Conduct of the mediation conference.

The rules adopted by the Commissioner shall include a requirement of the mediator to advise the parties of the mediation process and their rights and duties in the process.

~~(b) All parties shall negotiate in good faith. A decision by an insurer to stand by a coverage determination shall not be considered a failure to negotiate in good faith. A party shall be determined to have not negotiated in good faith if the party or a person participating on the party's behalf, becomes unduly argumentative or adversarial or continuously disrupts or otherwise inhibits the negotiations, as determined by the mediator.~~

(c) The mediator shall terminate the negotiations if the mediator determines that ~~either party is not negotiating in good faith,~~ either party is unable or unwilling to participate meaningfully in the ~~process,~~ process or upon mutual agreement of the parties.

SECTION 5. G.S. 58-44-60(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) Every insurer that sells residential or commercial property insurance policies that do not provide coverage for the perils of flood, earthquake, mudslide, mudflow, or landslide shall, upon the issuance and renewal of each policy, identify to the policyholder which of these perils are not covered under the policy. YOU SHOULD CONTACT YOUR INSURANCE COMPANY OR AGENT TO DISCUSS YOUR OPTIONS FOR OBTAINING COVERAGE FOR THESE LOSSES. THIS IS NOT A COMPLETE LISTING OF ALL OF THE CAUSES OF LOSSES NOT COVERED UNDER YOUR POLICY. YOU SHOULD READ YOUR ENTIRE POLICY TO UNDERSTAND WHAT IS COVERED AND WHAT IS NOT COVERED."

SECTION 6. This act becomes effective October 1, 2007, and applies to policies issued or renewed on or after that date.

HOUSE BILL 730:
Mediation of Property Insurance Claims.-AB

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	July 9, 2007
Introduced by:	Reps. Goforth, Holliman	Summary by:	Kory Goldsmith
Version:	First Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 730 is requested by the Department of Insurance to make clarifying and conforming changes to Part 2 of Article 44 of Chapter 58 which deals with the mediation of emergency or disaster-related property insurance claims.

CURRENT LAW: In 2006, and in response to some of the issues related to property insurance claims in the Gulf Coast area after Hurricane Katrina, the General Assembly passed legislation creating a mediation process for disputed property damage claims resulting from proclaimed disasters. The legislation required that insurers notify insureds of a right to mediate disputed claims.

A disputed claim is defined as any matter where there is a disagreement as to the cause of loss or amount of loss, for which the insurer has denied payment, in part or in whole with respect to claims arising from a disaster. The amount in dispute must be at least $1500, and does not include a denial of coverage for the loss because of exclusions in the policy, terms in the policy, conditions in the policy, or nonexistence of the policy at the time of the loss.

If an insured requests mediation, the Commissioner or the Commissioner's designee (Administrator) shall select a mediator who shall conduct the mediation. The mediation is nonbinding unless all parties specifically agree in writing that the results are binding. If the parties reach a settlement, it shall act as a release of all specific claims that were presented at the mediation conference.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 amends G.S. 58-44-70 to clarify that a state of disaster may be declared by the General Assembly. It also provides that the mediation procedures of this Part are not triggered unless authorized by the Commissioner of Insurance.

Section 2 amends G.S. 58-44-80(b) to cross reference the notice of right to mediation that is required to be sent by insurers under the preceding subsection. This is a clarification that only one notice to insureds is required.

Section 3 amends G.S. 58-44-95 to provide that only mediators certified by the Dispute Resolution Commission may conduct a mediation conference under this Part.

Section 4 amends G.S. 58-44-100 to remove a requirement that all parties must negotiate in good faith. It also removes the requirement that the party that is responsible for terminating the conference is responsible for paying the mediator's and administrative fees.

Section 5 amends G.S. 58-44-60(a) to clarify that insurers of both residential and commercial property must include in the policy a notice of certain exclusions under the policy.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The act would become effective October 1, 2007 and apply to policies issued or renewed on or after that date.

HOUSE BILL 767:
ATV Use for Emergencies.-AB

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	July 5, 2007
Introduced by:	Rep. Sutton	Summary by:	Jennifer McGinnis Committee Counsel
Version:	PCS to Third Edition H767-CSRI-22

SUMMARY: The Proposed Committee Substitute (PCS) for House Bill 767 would: (i) authorize all law enforcement officers, fire, rescue, and emergency medical personnel, as well as municipal and county employees of listed local governments to operate all-terrain vehicles (ATVs) on specified public highways while acting in the course and scope of their duties; and (ii) require that ATV safety courses be approved by the Commissioner of Insurance, and authorize the North Carolina Community College system to provide such courses.

[As introduced, this bill was identical to S785, as introduced by Sen. Kerr, which is currently in Senate Judiciary II (Criminal).]

CURRENT LAW: Several local laws, enacted beginning in 2004, authorize law enforcement officers, municipal employees, and county employees to use ATVs on public highways with speeds limits of 35 mph or less, in the course of their duties.

These local laws are exceptions to the general State law, which requires vehicles intended to be operated on the highways of the State to be registered (G.S. 20-50, -52), and provides that operation of a vehicle on the highways of the State without proper registration constitutes a Class 2 misdemeanor (G.S. 20-111).

G.S. 14-159.3(b) defines a motorized all terrain vehicle as "a two or more wheeled vehicle designed for recreational off-road use".

In addition, current State law requires every ATV operator born on or after January 1, 1990 to take a safety course and possess a safety certificate indicating completion of the course.

BILL ANALYSIS: The PCS for House Bill 767 would:

- Authorize all law enforcement officers to operate unregistered ATVs owned or leased by the agency or under the direct control of the incident commander, on public highways with speed limits of 35 mph or less, and on non-fully controlled access highways with higher speed limits for the purpose of traveling from a speed zone to an adjacent speed zone where the speed limit is 35 mph or less.
- Authorize all fire, rescue, and emergency medical personnel to operate unregistered ATVs owned or leased by the agency, or under the direct control of the incident commander, on public highways with speed limits of 35 mph or less, and on non-fully controlled access highways with higher speed limits for the purpose of traveling from a speed zone to an adjacent speed zone where the speed limit is 35 mph or less.

- Authorize municipal and county employees only in currently authorized areas to operate unregistered all-terrain vehicles owned or leased by the agency, on public highways with speed limits of 35 mph or less, and on non-fully controlled access highways with higher speed limits for the purpose of traveling from a speed zone to an adjacent speed zone where the speed limit is 35 mph or less. This section would apply to the Towns of Atlantic Beach, Burgaw, Carolina Beach, Cramerton, Dallas, Duck, Emerald Isle, Indian Beach, Kill Devil Hills, Kitty Hawk, Kure Beach, Nags Head, Oakboro, Ocean Isle Beach, North Topsail Beach, Pine Knoll Shores, Stanley, Surf City, Topsail Beach, and Stanley, Wrightsville Beach, the Cities of Albemarle, Belmont, Cherryville, Gastonia, Kings Mountain and Mount Holly, Mountain, Mount Holly, and Rockingham and the Counties of Cleveland, Currituck, Gaston, Surry, and Wilkes only.
- Specify that the requirements of Part 10C of Article 3 of Chapter 20, Operation of All-Terrain Vehicles, apply to use of ATVs under this bill (age, passenger, brakes, mufflers, spark arrester, eye protection, helmet, DWI, reckless operation, use of headlights).
- Require operable front and rear lights, horn, observation of posted speed limits, and that the operator carry ID. Would prohibit exceeding the manufacturer's recommended speed.
- Provide that a penalty for violation of these new provisions would constitute an infraction.
- Repeal G.S. 20-114.3 (Law enforcement and municipal employee motorized all-terrain vehicles permitted on highways with speed limits of 35 miles per hour or less.), and all local acts on this subject.
- Require the Commissioner of Insurance to approve required all-terrain vehicle safety courses and authorize the North Carolina Community College system to provide such courses.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This PCS would become effective October 1, 2007.

HOUSE BILL 1277:
Drivers License Revocation for ABC Violation

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	July 6, 2007
Introduced by:	Reps. T. Harrell, Coleman, Avila, Tillis	Summary by:	Ben Popkin
Version:	Third Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 1277 would require that the Division of Motor Vehicles revoke a person's drivers license for one year when that person has been convicted of giving alcoholic beverages to, or aiding and abetting the purchase or possession of alcohol by, an underage person. The bill would also provide for a limited driving privilege for persons convicted of those offenses.

CURRENT LAW: G.S. 18B-302 sets out several offenses relating to selling or giving alcoholic beverages to, and the purchase or possession of alcoholic beverages by, and underage person. For some of the offenses, a conviction report is sent to the Division of Motor Vehicles, and upon receipt of the report, the Division is required to revoke the person's license for one year. No provision is made for a limited driving privilege when a license is revoked pursuant to this section.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 1277 would require revocation of a person's drivers license upon conviction of offenses under G.S. 18B-302 that involve giving alcohol to underage persons or aiding and abetting the purchase or possession of alcohol by an underage person. The following chart indicates the offenses under the current law for which a license revocation would be required and the offenses for which a license revocation would be required under this bill:

OFFENSE	CURRENT LAW	Under H1277
Sale of alcohol to underage person	No revocation	No revocation
Give alcohol to underage person	No revocation	Revocation
Purchase/attempt to purchase alcohol by underage person	Revocation	Revocation
Underage person aids and abets selling or giving alcohol to underage person or aids and abets purchase, possession or consumption of alcohol by underage person	Revocation	Revocation
Person of lawful age aids and abets selling or giving alcohol to underage person or aids and abets purchase, possession or consumption of alcohol by underage person	No revocation	Revocation
Fraudulent use of identification to enter a place where alcohol is sold or consumed or to obtain alcohol	Revocation	Revocation
Allowing use of identification by an underage person to purchase, possess, or consume alcohol	Revocation	Revocation

The bill also provides that a person whose license is revoked for being convicted of an offense under G.S. 18B-302 would be eligible for a limited driving privilege if the conviction was for one of the following offenses:

- Giving an alcoholic beverage to an underage person.
- Persons of lawful age aiding and abetting the selling or giving of alcoholic beverages to an underage person or aiding and abetting the purchase, possession, or consumption of alcoholic beverages by an underage person.
- Underage persons aiding and abetting the selling or giving of alcoholic beverages to an underage person or aiding and abetting the purchase, possession, or consumption of alcoholic beverages by an underage person.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The act would become effective December 1, 2007, and would apply to offenses committed on or after that date.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 15A-267(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) Upon a defendant's motion made before trial in accordance with G.S. 15A-952, the court may order the SBI to perform DNA testing and DNA Database comparisons of any biological material collected ~~but not DNA tested~~ in connection with the case in which the defendant is charged upon a showing of all of the following:

SECTION 2. G.S. 15A-268 reads as rewritten:

"§ 15A-268. Preservation of ~~samples of~~ biological ~~materials.~~evidence.

(a) As used in this section, the term 'biological evidence' includes the contents of a sexual assault examination kit; or any item that contains blood, semen, hair, saliva, skin tissue, or other identifiable biological material, whether that material is catalogued separately on a slide or swab, in a test tube, or some other similar method, or is present on clothing, ligatures, bedding, other household materials, drinking cups, cigarettes, or other evidence.

(a2) The evidence described by subsection (a1) of this section shall be preserved for the following period:

(1) For conviction resulting in a sentence of death, until execution.

(2) For conviction of a violent felony, as defined in G.S. 14-7.7(b), during the period of incarceration and any period of mandatory supervised release.

The notice shall be consistent with the provisions of this section, and the district attorney shall send a copy of the notice to the governmental entity. Delivery of written notification from the district attorney to the defendant was effectuated by the district attorney transmitting the written notification to the superintendent of the correctional facility where the defendant was assigned at the time and the superintendent's personal delivery of the written notification to the defendant. Certification of delivery by the superintendent to the defendant in accordance with this subdivision was in accordance with subsection (c) of this section.

(3) The written notification from the district attorney specified the following:

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO PROVIDE THE DEFENDANT ACCESS TO DNA TESTING OF EVIDENCE WHEN CURRENT TESTING PROCEDURES ARE MORE ACCURATE THAN PAST TESTING PROCEDURES, TO AMEND THE LAW GOVERNING THE PRESERVATION AND DISPOSITION OF POSSIBLE DNA EVIDENCE AND POSTCONVICTION DNA TESTING, AND TO PROVIDE A RIGHT OF APPEAL TO A DEFENDANT FOR DENIAL OF A MOTION TO CONDUCT DNA TESTING.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 15A-267(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) Upon a defendant's motion made before trial in accordance with G.S. 15A-952, the court may order the SBI to perform DNA testing and DNA Database comparisons of any biological material collected ~~but not DNA tested~~ in connection with the case in which the defendant is charged upon a showing of all of the following:

(1) That the biological material is relevant to the investigation.

(2) That the biological material was not previously DNA ~~tested.~~tested or that more accurate testing procedures are now available that were not available at the time of previous testing and there is a reasonable possibility that the result would have been different.

(3) That the testing is material to the defendant's defense."

SECTION 2. G.S. 15A-268 reads as rewritten:

"§ 15A-268. Preservation of ~~samples of~~ biological ~~materials.~~evidence.

(a) As used in this section, the term 'biological evidence' includes the contents of a sexual assault examination kit; or any item that contains blood, semen, hair, saliva, skin tissue, or other identifiable biological material, whether that material is catalogued separately on a slide or swab, in a test tube, or some other similar method, or is present on clothing, ligatures, bedding, other household materials, drinking cups, cigarettes, or other evidence.

~~(a)~~(a1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law and subject to subsection (b) of this section, a governmental entity ~~that collects evidence containing DNA in the course of a criminal investigation~~ in custody of evidence shall preserve ~~a sample of the evidence collected for the period of time a defendant convicted of a felony is incarcerated in connection with that case. The governmental entity may determine how the evidence is retained pursuant to this section, provided that the evidence is retained in a condition suitable for DNA testing.~~ any physical evidence that is reasonably likely to contain any biological evidence collected in the course of a criminal investigation or prosecution. Evidence shall be preserved in a manner reasonably calculated to prevent contamination or degradation of any biological evidence that might be present, subject to a continuous chain of custody, and securely retained with sufficient official documentation to locate the evidence.

(a2) Except in cases where the convicted person entered and was convicted on a plea of guilty, the evidence described by subsection (a1) of this section shall be preserved for the following period:

(1) For conviction resulting in a sentence of death, until execution.

(2) For conviction of a violent felony, as defined in G.S. 14-7.7(b), during the period of incarceration.

(3) For conviction of an offense requiring sex offender registration pursuant to Article 27A of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes, during the period of incarceration and any period of mandatory supervised release or probation.

(4) For conviction of any felony, other than those felonies described in subdivision (2) of this subsection, for which the defendant's genetic profile may be taken by a law enforcement agency and included in the State DNA database, for a period of seven years from the date of conviction.

(a3) In cases where a person convicted of any felony entered and was convicted on a plea of guilty, the evidence described by subsection (a1) of this section shall be preserved for three years from the date of conviction.

(b) The governmental entity ~~may dispose of the sample of evidence containing DNA preserved~~ required to preserve evidence pursuant to subsection ~~(a)~~(a1) of this section ~~before the~~ may petition the court for an order allowing for disposition of the evidence prior to the expiration of the period of time described in ~~subsection (a)~~ subsections (a2) and (a3) of this section if all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The governmental entity sent notice of its intent to dispose of the ~~sample of~~ evidence to the district attorney in the county in which the conviction was obtained.

(2) The district attorney gave to each of the following persons written notification of the intent of the ~~entity~~ governmental entity to dispose of the ~~sample of~~ evidence: any defendant convicted of a felony who is currently incarcerated in connection with the case, the ~~current~~ defendant's current counsel of record, the Office of Indigent Defense Services, and the Attorney General. The notice shall be consistent with the provisions of this section, and the district attorney shall send a copy of the notice to the governmental entity. Delivery of written notification from the district attorney to the defendant was effectuated by the district attorney transmitting the written notification to the superintendent of the correctional facility where the defendant was assigned at the time and the superintendent's personal delivery of the written notification to the defendant. Certification of delivery by the superintendent to the defendant in accordance with this subdivision was in accordance with subsection (c) of this section.

(3) The written notification from the district attorney specified the following:

a. That the governmental entity would destroy the ~~sample of~~ evidence collected in connection with the case unless the governmental entity received a written request that the ~~sample of~~ evidence not be destroyed.

b. The address of the governmental entity where the written request was to be sent.

c. That the written request must be received by the governmental entity within 90 days of the date of receipt by the defendant of the district attorney's written notification.

d. That the written request must ask that the material not be destroyed or disposed of for one of the following reasons:

1. The case is currently on appeal.
2. The case is currently in postconviction proceedings.
3. The defendant will file within 180 days of the date of receipt by the defendant of the district attorney's written notification a motion for DNA testing pursuant to G.S. 15A-269, that is followed within 180 days of sending the request that the ~~sample of~~ evidence not be destroyed or disposed of, by a motion for DNA testing pursuant to G.S. 15A-269, unless a request for extension is requested by the defendant and agreed to by the governmental entity in possession of the evidence.

(4) The governmental entity did not receive a written request in compliance with the conditions set forth in sub-subdivision (3)d. of this subsection within 90 days of the date of receipt by the defendant of the district attorney's written notification.

(c) Upon receiving a written notification from a district attorney in accordance with subdivision (b)(3) of this section, the superintendent shall personally deliver the written notification to the defendant. Upon effectuating personal delivery on the defendant, the superintendent shall sign a sworn written certification that the written notification had been delivered to the defendant in compliance with this subsection indicating the date the delivery was made. The superintendent's certification shall be sent by the superintendent to the governmental entity that intends to dispose of the sample of evidence. The governmental entity may rely on the superintendent's certification as evidence of the date of receipt by the defendant of the district attorney's written notification.

(d) After a hearing, the court may enter an order authorizing the governmental entity to dispose of the evidence if the court determines by the preponderance of the evidence that the evidence:

(1) Has no significant value for biological analysis and should be returned to its rightful owner, destroyed, used for training purposes, or otherwise disposed of as provided by law;

(2) Has no significant value for biological analysis and is of a size, bulk, or physical characteristic not usually retained by the governmental entity and cannot practically be retained by the governmental entity; or

(3) May have value for biological analysis but is of a size, bulk, or physical characteristic not usually retained by the governmental entity and cannot practically be retained by the governmental entity.

(e) The court order allowing the disposition of the evidence pursuant to this section may require the governmental entity to take reasonable measures to remove or preserve portions of evidence suitable for future biological testing or may provide the defendant an opportunity to take reasonable measures to preserve the evidence.

(f) An order regarding the disposition of evidence pursuant to this section shall be a final and appealable order. The defendant shall have 30 days from the entry of the order to file notice of appeal. The governmental entity shall not dispose of the evidence while the appeal is pending."

SECTION 3. G.S. 15A-269(b) reads as rewritten:

HOUSE BILL 1500:
DNA Evidence/Preserve & Access by Defendant

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	July 11, 2007
Introduced by:	Reps. Glazier, Ross	Summary by:	Jennifer McGinnis
Version:	PCS to Second Edition H1500-CSRI-21 [v.8]		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: The Proposed Committee Substitute (PCS) for House Bill 1500 would make several changes to the DNA testing laws.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 amends G.S. 15A-267(c) to allow pre-trial testing of DNA evidence that has previously been tested, but more accurate testing procedures are now available that were not available at the time of previous testing.

Section 2 amends G.S. 15A-268, governing the preservation of biological evidence. A new subsection (a) defines the term "biological evidence" to include not only individual samples of biological material, but also evidence that may contain blood, semen, hair, etc. The evidence shall be preserved in a manner reasonably calculated to prevent contamination or degradation of any biological evidence that might be present, and must be subject to a continuous chain of custody and securely retained with sufficient official documentation to locate the evidence.

The PCS would require that biological evidence be retained as follows:

- Felony conviction based on a plea of guilty – 3 years from the date of conviction.
- Death sentence – until execution.*
- Violent felony – during incarceration.*
- Sex Offense – during incarceration and any period of supervised release or probation.*
- Felony convictions allowing DNA samples – 7 years from the date of conviction.*

G.S. 15A-268 is further amended to require the governmental entity holding the evidence to petition the court to dispose of the evidence earlier than the periods of time provided above. The court may authorize the disposal of the evidence if the court determines by the preponderance of the evidence that the evidence 1) has no significant value for biological analysis, 2) has no significant value for biological analysis and is in some way impractical to retain, or 3) may have value for biological analysis but is in some way impractical to retain. The court may order the governmental entity to take measures to remove or preserve portions of evidence suitable for future testing or may provide the defendant with the opportunity to take those measures. An order regarding disposal of the evidence may be appealed by the defendant within 30 days.

Section 3 amends G.S. 15A-269(b), governing postconviction DNA testing, to require the defendant to sign a sworn affidavit of innocence.

Section 4 creates a new G.S. 15A-270.1 which provides that the defendant may appeal any order denying the defendant's motion for DNA testing, including an interlocutory appeal.

*Retention period does not apply to cases where the convicted person entered and was convicted on a plea of guilty.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act becomes effective March 1, 2008.

Susan Sitze, counsel to House Judiciary I, substantially contributed to this summary.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO REQUIRE THE STATE REGISTRAR TO ASSIST COUNTY JURY COMMISSIONS IN UPDATING THEIR LISTS OF PROSPECTIVE JURORS BY PROVIDING A LIST OF RESIDENTS OF EACH COUNTY WHO HAVE DIED RECENTLY; AND TO EXCLUDE FROM THE LISTS PROVIDED BY THE COMMISSIONER OF MOTOR VEHICLES TO COUNTY JURY COMMISSIONS THE NAMES OF PERSONS WHOSE DRIVERS LICENSES HAVE BEEN EXPIRED FOR AT LEAST EIGHT YEARS AND WHO HAVE BEEN INACTIVE VOTERS FOR AT LEAST FOUR YEARS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 9-2(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) In preparing the list, the jury commission shall use the list of registered voters and persons with drivers license records supplied to the county by the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles pursuant to G.S. 20-43.4. The commission shall remove from the list the names of those residents of the county who are recently deceased, which shall be supplied to the commission by the State Registrar under G.S. 130A-121. The commission may use fewer than all the names from the list if it uses a random method of selection. The commission may use other sources of names deemed by it to be reliable."

SECTION 2. Article 4 of Chapter 130A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 130A-121. List of deceased residents for county jury commission.

The State Registrar shall provide to each county's jury commission an alphabetical list of all residents of that county who have died in the two years prior to July 1 of each odd-numbered year, unless an annual jury list is being prepared under G.S. 9-2(a), in which case the list shall be of all residents of the county who have died in the year prior to July 1 of each year. The list shall include the name and address of each deceased resident and may be in either printed or computerized form, as requested by the jury commission."

SECTION 3. G.S. 20-43.4 reads as rewritten:

"§ 20-43.4. Current list of licensed drivers to be provided to jury commissions.

The Commissioner of Motor Vehicles shall provide to each county jury commission an alphabetical list of all persons that the Commissioner has determined are residents of the county, who will be 18 years of age or older as of the first day of January of the following year, and licensed to drive a motor vehicle as of July 1 of each odd-numbered year, provided that if an annual jury list is being prepared under G.S. 9-2(a), the list to be provided to the county jury commission shall be provided annually. The list shall include those persons whose license to drive has been suspended, and those former licensees whose license has been ~~canceled.~~canceled, except that the list shall not include the name of any formerly licensed driver whose license is expired and has not been renewed for eight years or more. The list shall contain the address and zip code of each driver, plus the driver's date of birth, sex, and drivers license number, and may be in either printed or computerized form, as requested by each county. Before providing the list to the county jury commission, the Commissioner shall have computer-matched the list with the voter registration list of the State Board of Elections to eliminate duplicates. The Commissioner shall include in the list provided to the county jury commission names of registered voters who do not have drivers licenses, and shall indicate the licensed or formerly licensed drivers who are also registered voters, the licensed or formerly licensed drivers who are not registered voters, and the registered voters who are not licensed or formerly licensed drivers. The list so provided shall be used solely for jury selection and election records purposes and no other. Information provided by the Commissioner to county jury commissions and the State Board of Elections under this section shall remain confidential, shall continue to be subject to the disclosure restriction provisions of G.S. 20-43.1, and shall not be a public record for purposes of Chapter 132 of the General Statutes."

SECTION 4. G.S. 163-82.11(e) reads as rewritten:

"(e) Cooperation on List for Jury Commission. – The State Board of Elections shall assist the Division of Motor Vehicles in providing to the county jury commission of each county, as required by G.S. 20-43.4, a list of all registered voters in the county and all persons in the county with drivers license records. The list of registered voters provided by the State Board of Elections shall not include any registered voter who has been inactive for four years or more."

HOUSE BILL 1500:
DNA Evidence/Preserve & Access by Defendant

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	July 16, 2007
Introduced by:	Reps. Glazier, Ross	Summary by:	Jennifer McGinnis
Version:	PCS to Second Edition H1500-CSRI-21 [v.13]		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: The Proposed Committee Substitute (PCS) for House Bill 1500 would make several changes to the DNA testing laws.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 amends G.S. 15A-267(c) to allow pre-trial testing of DNA evidence that has previously been tested, but more accurate testing procedures are now available that were not available at the time of previous testing.

Section 2 amends G.S. 15A-268, governing the preservation of biological evidence. A new subsection (a) defines the term "biological evidence" to include not only individual samples of biological material, but also evidence that may contain blood, semen, hair, etc. The evidence shall be preserved in a manner reasonably calculated to prevent contamination or degradation of any biological evidence that might be present, and must be subject to a continuous chain of custody and securely retained with sufficient official documentation to locate the evidence.

The PCS would require that biological evidence be retained as follows:

- Death sentence – until execution.
- Violent felony – during incarceration, except in cases where conviction is based on a plea of guilty in which case the evidence must be retained for 3 years from the date of conviction.
- Sex Offense – during incarceration and any period of supervised release or probation.
- Felony convictions allowing DNA samples (excluding categories above) – 7 years from the date of conviction, except in cases where conviction is based on a plea of guilty in which case the evidence must be retained for 3 years from the date of conviction.

G.S. 15A-268 is further amended to require the governmental entity holding the evidence to petition the court to dispose of the evidence earlier than the periods of time provided above. The court may authorize the disposal of the evidence if the court determines by the preponderance of the evidence that the evidence 1) has no significant value for biological analysis, 2) has no significant value for biological analysis and is in some way impractical to retain, or 3) may have value for biological analysis but is in some way impractical to retain. The court may order the governmental entity to take measures to remove or preserve portions of evidence suitable for future testing or may provide the defendant with the opportunity to take those measures. An order regarding disposal of the evidence may be appealed by the defendant within 30 days.

Section 3 amends G.S. 15A-269(b), governing postconviction DNA testing, to require the defendant to sign a sworn affidavit of innocence.

Section 4 creates a new G.S. 15A-270.1 which provides that the defendant may appeal any order denying the defendant's motion for DNA testing, including an interlocutory appeal.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act becomes effective March 1, 2008.

HOUSE BILL 550:
Modify School Employee Confidentiality Law

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	June 20, 2007
Introduced by:	Rep. Love	Summary by:	Ben Popkin
Version:	PCS to Second Edition H550-CSRD		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 550 would amend the law relating to confidentiality of school personnel files to clarify that information contained in personnel files that is relevant to possible criminal misconduct may be made available to law enforcement and to district attorneys to assist in the investigation of certain criminal offenses. HB 550 would require that the employee be given notice of the disclosure and the right to seek review in district court.

The Proposed Committee Substitute would provide that statements or admissions made by an employee under subsection (a1) of the bill would be inadmissible in subsequent criminal proceedings.

CURRENT LAW:

Under current law, local boards of education are required to maintain records on each of its employees showing the employee's name, age, date of original employment or appointment, current position, title, current salary, date and amount of most recent increase or decrease in salary, date of most recent promotion, demotion, transfer, suspension, separation, or other change in position classification, and the office or station to which the employee is currently assigned. These records are subject to inspection and examination by any person during regular business hours.

All other information contained in a personnel file is not subject to inspection and examination except under limited circumstances set forth in the statute.

BILL ANALYSIS:

House Bill 550 creates another exception to the confidentiality requirement. It provides that information relevant to a possible criminal misconduct may be made available to law enforcement officials and the district attorney in connection with the investigation of:

- A report made by a principal involving assault, sexual assault, sexual offense, rape, kidnapping, indecent liberties with a minor, assault involving use of a weapon, or possession of a controlled substance; or
- A report from anyone regarding arson, attempted arson, destruction of, theft from, theft of, embezzlement from, embezzlement of, or misuse of , any personal or real property owned by the local board of education.

The bill also requires that the employee be given five days prior written notice of the disclosure and the opportunity to apply to district court for an in camera review of the records to determine if the information is relevant to possible criminal misconduct.

Finally, the PCS provides that statements or admissions made by the employee under subsection (a1) of the bill are not admissible in any subsequent criminal proceeding against the employee.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act becomes effective when it becomes law.

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	June 20, 2007
Introduced by:	Reps. Blue, Stam	Summary by:	Ben Popkin
Version:	Second Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 1487 amends the law governing membership and privileges in the North Carolina State Bar to allow inactive lawyers to represent indigent clients on a pro bono basis under the supervision of a nonprofit corporation. HB 1487 would require that inactive members of the Bar must have obtained a license to practice law in the State.

The bill also clarifies that active members must satisfy all other obligations of membership in addition to payment of membership dues.

CURRENT LAW:

Under current law, membership in the North Carolina State Bar is divided into two classes. Active members are those who have obtained a license to practice law in the State, including justices and judges of any state or federal court in the State. All active members must pay the annual membership fee, which may not exceed $300.00 and a mandatory $50.00 surcharge to support the appellate judicial campaign fund.

Inactive members are those who have been found by the State Bar Council to be not engaged in the practice of law or holding a position in which they would be called upon to give legal advice. Inactive members are not required to pay membership dues.

BILL ANALYSIS:

House Bill 1487 adds a provision that would authorize the Council to allow otherwise inactive members to represent indigent clients on a pro bono basis under the supervision of a nonprofit corporation and add the requirement that inactive members of the Bar must have obtained a license to practice law in the State.

The bill also clarifies that active members must satisfy all other obligations of membership in addition to payment of dues. This includes meeting the continuing legal education requirements.

HOUSE BILL 767:
ATV Use for Emergencies.-AB

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	July 19, 2007
Introduced by:	Rep. Sutton	Summary by:	Jennifer McGinnis Committee Counsel
Version:	PCS to Third Edition H767-CSRI-25

SUMMARY: The Proposed Committee Substitute (PCS) for House Bill 767 would: (i) authorize all law enforcement officers, fire, rescue, and emergency medical personnel, as well as municipal and county employees of listed local governments to operate all-terrain vehicles (ATVs) on specified public highways while acting in the course and scope of their duties; and (ii) require that ATV safety courses be approved by the Commissioner of Insurance, and authorize the North Carolina Community College system to provide such courses.

[As introduced, this bill was identical to S785, as introduced by Sen. Kerr, which is currently in Senate Judiciary II (Criminal).]

CHANGES MADE BY PCS: A PCS for this bill was heard in Senate Judiciary II on July 12, 2007, and given a favorable report. The only change from that version of the PCS to the PCS currently under consideration (H767-CSRI-25) is that several municipalities (Ansonville, Davidson, Franklin, Murphy, and Sylva) have been added. These municipalities were included in another House Bill, HB 1136. If both HB 767 and HB 1136 are enacted, HB 767 would ultimately result in a repeal of the provisions enacted by HB 1136, thus the PCS under consideration includes the municipalities sought to be added by HB 1136.

CURRENT LAW: Several local laws, enacted beginning in 2004, authorize law enforcement officers, municipal employees, and county employees to use ATVs on public highways with speeds limits of 35 mph or less, in the course of their duties.

These local laws are exceptions to the general State law, which requires vehicles intended to be operated on the highways of the State to be registered (G.S. 20-50, -52), and provides that operation of a vehicle on the highways of the State without proper registration constitutes a Class 2 misdemeanor (G.S. 20-111).

G.S. 14-159.3(b) defines a motorized all terrain vehicle as "a two or more wheeled vehicle designed for recreational off-road use".

In addition, current State law requires every ATV operator born on or after January 1, 1990 to take a safety course and possess a safety certificate indicating completion of the course.

BILL ANALYSIS: The PCS for House Bill 767 would:

- Authorize all law enforcement officers to operate unregistered ATVs owned or leased by the agency or under the direct control of the incident commander, on public highways with speed limits of 35 mph or less, and on non-fully controlled access highways with higher speed limits for the purpose of traveling from a speed zone to an adjacent speed zone where the speed limit is 35 mph or less.

- Authorize all fire, rescue, and emergency medical personnel to operate unregistered ATVs owned or leased by the agency, or under the direct control of the incident commander, on public highways with speed limits of 35 mph or less, and on non-fully controlled access highways with higher speed limits for the purpose of traveling from a speed zone to an adjacent speed zone where the speed limit is 35 mph or less.
- Authorize municipal and county employees only in currently authorized areas to operate unregistered all-terrain vehicles owned or leased by the agency, on public highways with speed limits of 35 mph or less, and on non-fully controlled access highways with higher speed limits for the purpose of traveling from a speed zone to an adjacent speed zone where the speed limit is 35 mph or less. This section would apply to the Towns of Atlantic Beach, Burgaw, Carolina Beach, Cramerton, Dallas, Duck, Emerald Isle, Indian Beach, Kill Devil Hills, Kitty Hawk, Kure Beach, Nags Head, Oakboro, Ocean Isle Beach, North Topsail Beach, Pine Knoll Shores, Stanley, Surf City, Topsail Beach, and Stanley, Wrightsville Beach, the Cities of Albemarle, Belmont, Cherryville, Gastonia, Kings Mountain and Mount Holly, Mountain, Mount Holly, and Rockingham and the Counties of Cleveland, Currituck, Gaston, Surry, and Wilkes only.
- Specify that the requirements of Part 10C of Article 3 of Chapter 20, Operation of All-Terrain Vehicles, apply to use of ATVs under this bill (age, passenger, brakes, mufflers, spark arrester, eye protection, helmet, DWI, reckless operation, use of headlights).
- Require operable front and rear lights, horn, observation of posted speed limits, and that the operator carry ID. Would prohibit exceeding the manufacturer's recommended speed.
- Provide that a penalty for violation of these new provisions would constitute an infraction.
- Repeal G.S. 20-114.3 (Law enforcement and municipal employee motorized all-terrain vehicles permitted on highways with speed limits of 35 miles per hour or less.), and all local acts on this subject.
- Require the Commissioner of Insurance to approve required all-terrain vehicle safety courses and authorize the North Carolina Community College system to provide such courses.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This PCS would become effective October 1, 2007.

Giles S. Perry, counsel to House Transportation, substantially contributed to this summary.

(e) In the absence of an express, contrary indication by the donor or other person authorized to make an anatomical gift under G.S. 130A-412.6, an anatomical gift of a body part is neither a refusal to give another body part nor a limitation on the making of an anatomical gift of another body part at a later time by the donor or another person.

(f) In the absence of an express, contrary indication by the donor or other person authorized to make an anatomical gift under G.S. 130A-412.6, an anatomical gift of a body part for one or more of the purposes set forth in G.S. 130A-412.6 is not a limitation on the making of an anatomical gift of the body part for any of the other purposes by the donor or any other person under G.S. 130A-412.7 or G.S. 130A-412.12.

(g) If a donor who is an unemancipated minor dies, a parent of the donor who is reasonably available may revoke or amend an anatomical gift of the donor's body or body part.

(b) If there is more than one member of a class listed in subsection (a)(1), (3), (4), (5), (6), (7), or (9) of this section entitled to make an anatomical gift, an anatomical gift may be made by a member of the class unless that member or a person to which the gift may pass under G.S. 130A-412.13 knows of an objection by another member of the class. If an objection is known, the gift may be made only by a majority of the members of the class who are reasonably available.

(c) A revocation under subsection (b) of this section is effective only if, before an incision has been made to remove a body part from the donor's body or before invasive procedures have begun to prepare the recipient, the procurement organization, transplant hospital, or physician or technician knows of the revocation.

"§ 130A-412.13. Persons that may receive anatomical gift; purpose of anatomical gift.

(c) If an anatomical gift of one or more specific body parts or of all body parts is made in a document of gift that does not name a person described in subsection (a) of this section but identifies the purpose for which an anatomical gift may be used, the following rules apply:

(e) If an anatomical gift of one or more specific body parts is made in a document of gift that does not name a person described in subsection (a) of this section and does not identify the purpose of the gift, the gift may be used only for transplantation or therapy, and the gift passes in accordance with subsection (g) of this section.

(f) If a document of gift specifies only a general intent to make an anatomical gift by words such as "donor," "organ donor," or "body donor," or by a symbol or statement of similar import, the gift may be used only for transplantation or therapy, and the gift passes in accordance with subsection (g) of this section.

(j) A person may not accept an anatomical gift if the person knows that the gift was not effectively made under G.S. 130A-412.7 or G.S. 130A-412.12 or if the person knows that the decedent made a refusal under G.S. 130A-412.9 that was not revoked. For purposes of the subsection, if a person knows that an anatomical gift was made on a document of gift, the person is deemed to know of any amendment or revocation of the gift or any refusal to make an anatomical gift on the same document of gift.

(c) When a hospital refers an individual at or near death to a procurement organization, the organization may conduct any reasonable examination necessary to ensure the medical suitability of a body part that is or could be the subject of an anatomical gift for transplantation, therapy, research, or education from a donor or a prospective donor. During the examination period, measures necessary to ensure the medical suitability of the body part may not be withdrawn unless the hospital or procurement organization knows that the individual expressed a contrary intent.

(d) Unless prohibited by law other than this Part, at any time after a donor's death, the person to which a body part passes under G.S. 130A-412.13 may conduct any reasonable examination necessary to ensure the medical suitability of the body or body part for its intended purpose.

(f) Upon the death of a minor who was a donor or had signed a refusal, unless a procurement organization knows the minor is emancipated, the procurement organization shall conduct a reasonable search for the parents of the minor and provide the parents with an opportunity to revoke or amend the anatomical gift or revoke the refusal.

(g) Upon referral by a hospital under subsection (a) of this section, a procurement organization shall make a reasonable search for any person listed in G.S. 130A-412.11 having priority to make an anatomical gift on behalf of a prospective donor. If a procurement organization receives information that an anatomical gift to any other person was made, amended, or revoked, it shall promptly advise the other person of all relevant information.

The person may accept or reject an anatomical gift in whole or in part. Subject to the terms of the document of gift and this Part, a person that accepts an anatomical gift of an entire body may allow embalming, burial, or cremation, and use of remains in a funeral service. If the gift is of a body part, the person to which the body part passes under G.S. 130A-412.13, upon the death of the donor and before embalming, burial, or cremation, shall cause the body part to be removed without unnecessary mutilation.

(b) A person may charge a reasonable amount for the removal, processing, preservation, quality control, storage, transportation, implantation, or disposal of a body part.

"§ 130A-412.19. Other prohibited acts.

A person that, in order to obtain a financial gain, intentionally falsifies, forges, conceals, defaces, or obliterates a document of gift, an amendment or revocation of a "§ 130A-412.20. Immunity.

(b) Neither the person making an anatomical gift nor the donor's estate is liable for any injury or damage that results from the making or use of the gift.

(c) In determining whether an anatomical gift has been made, amended, or revoked under this Part, a person may rely upon representations of an individual listed in subdivisions (2) through (8) of G.S. 130A-412.11(a) relating to the individual's relationship to the donor or prospective donor unless the person knows that the representation is untrue.

"§ 130A-412.21. Law governing validity; choice of law as to execution of document of gift; presumption of validity.

"§ 130A-412.22. Donor registry.

The online Organ Donor Registry Internet site established pursuant to G.S. 20-43.2 shall be the State donor registry for anatomical gifts made pursuant to this Part. Requirements for maintenance and use of the State donor registry shall be as provided under G.S. 20-43.2.

"§ 130A-412.23. Effect of anatomical gift on advanced directive.

"§ 130A-412.24. Cooperation between a medical examiner and the procurement organization.

(a) The medical examiner shall cooperate with procurement organizations to maximize the opportunity to recover anatomical gifts for the purpose of transplantation, therapy, research, or education.

(b) If a medical examiner receives notice from a procurement organization that an anatomical gift might be available or was made with respect to a decedent whose

(c) A body part may not be removed from the body of a decedent under the jurisdiction of a medical examiner for transplantation, therapy, research, or education unless the body part is the subject of an anatomical gift. The body of a decedent under the jurisdiction of the medical examiner may not be delivered to a person for research or education unless the body is the subject of an anatomical gift. This subsection does not preclude a medical examiner from performing the medicolegal investigation upon the body or body parts of a decedent under the jurisdiction of the medical examiner.

(d) As used in this section and G.S. 130A-412.25, "medical examiner" includes the Chief Medical Examiner, a county medical examiner, or a designee of either.

"§ 130A-412.25. Facilitation of anatomical gift from decedent whose body is under the jurisdiction of a medical examiner.

(a) Upon request of a procurement organization, a medical examiner shall release to the procurement organization the name, contact information, and available medical and social history of a decedent whose body is or will come under the jurisdiction of the medical examiner. If the decedent's body or body part is medically suitable for transplantation, therapy, research, or education, the medical examiner shall release postmortem examination results to the procurement organization. The procurement organization may make a subsequent disclosure of the postmortem examination results or other information received from the medical examiner only if relevant to transplantation or therapy.

(b) The medical examiner may conduct a medicolegal examination including physical examination of a donor or prospective donor and review of all medical records, laboratory test results, X-rays, other diagnostic results, and other information that any person possesses about a donor or prospective donor whose body is under the jurisdiction of the medical examiner or whose body would be under the medical examiner's jurisdiction upon death and that the medical examiner determines may be relevant to the investigation.

(c) A person that has any information requested by a medical examiner pursuant to subsection (b) of this section shall provide that information as expeditiously as possible to allow the medical examiner to conduct the medicolegal investigation within a period compatible with the preservation of body parts for the purpose of transplantation, therapy, research, or education.

(d) If an anatomical gift has been or might be made of a body part of a decedent whose body is under the jurisdiction of the medical examiner and a postmortem examination is not required, or the medical examiner determines that a postmortem examination is required but that the recovery of the body part that is the subject of an anatomical gift will not interfere with the examination, the medical examiner and procurement organization shall cooperate in the timely removal of the body part from the decedent for the purpose of transplantation, therapy, research, or education.

(e) If an anatomical gift of a body part from the decedent under the jurisdiction of the medical examiner has been or might be made, but the medical examiner initially believes that the recovery of the body part could interfere with the postmortem investigation into the decedent's cause or manner of death, the collection of evidence, or the description, documentation, or interpretation of injuries on the body, the medical examiner shall consult with the procurement organization or physician or technician designated by the procurement organization about the proposed recovery. After consultation, the medical examiner may deny or allow the recovery.

(f) If the medical examiner or designee allows recovery of a body part under subsection (d) or (e) of this section, the procurement organization shall provide the medical examiner or designee with a record describing the condition of the body part signed by the physician or technician who removes the body part and any other information and observations that would assist in the postmortem examination."

SECTION 2. G.S. 20-43.2 reads as rewritten:

SECTION 4. This act modifies, limits, and supersedes the Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act, 15 U.S.C. § 7001, et seq., but does not modify, limit, or supersede Section 101(a) of that act, 15 U.S.C. § 7001, or authorize electronic delivery of any of the notices described in Section 103(b) of that act, 15 U.S.C. § 7003(b).

HOUSE BILL 1372:
Organ & Tissue Donation/The Heart Prevails

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	July 19, 2007
Introduced by:	Reps. Folwell, Holliman, Clary, Wainwright	Summary by:	Kory Goldsmith
Version:	PCS to Third Edition H1372-CSRC-60		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 1372 would enact the Revised Uniform Anatomical Gift Act (UAGA) as drafted by the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws (NCCUSL) in 2006. The most significant changes are as follows:

- Individual choice to make an anatomical gift, as evidenced by a 'heart' symbol on the person's drivers' license, will be sufficient to establish intent to donate without verifying choice with another person.
- Unless specified otherwise, priority will be given to use anatomical gifts for transplantation or therapy, if suitable, then for use for research or education.
- Directs hospitals to enter into 'agreements or affiliations' with procurement organizations.
- Creates a Class H felony for sale or purchase of body parts, or for falsification of donor records.

The Proposed Committee Substitute differs from the 3rd Edition as follows:

- Makes authority to make an anatomical gift by an agent under a health care power of attorney consistent with existing law.
- Removes a section that attempted to deal with apparent conflicts between prospective donations and advance directives. The provision has been questioned by medical ethicists in other states.
- Makes confirming changes to related statutes.

CURRENT LAW: Part 3 of Article 16 of Chapter 130A of the General Statutes contains the Uniform Anatomical Gift Act (UAGA), based on the draft of the Act produced by the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws (NCCUSL) in 1968 and enacted by the North Carolina General Assembly in 1969. See the Bill Analysis below for specific differences between existing law and the proposed legislation.

BILL ANALYSIS: The following is a section by section analysis of the proposed legislation:

Section 1 – Creates a new Part 3A in Article 16 of Chapter 130A

§ 130A-412.3 – Short title would be the "Revised Uniform Anatomical Gift Act.

§ 130A-412.4 – Expands the number of defined terms. Some new terms include:

"Anatomical Gift" – A donation of all or part of a human body to take effect after the donor's death for the purpose of transplantation, therapy, research, or education.

"Body part" – An organ, an eye, or tissue of a human being, but not the whole body. Current law defines "part" as organs, tissues, eyes, bones, arteries, blood, other fluids and any other portions of a human body.

"Disinterested witness" – A person other than the spouse, child, parent, sibling, grandchild, grandparent or guardian of the person who makes, amends, revokes or refuses to make a donation. It also includes a person who has exhibited special care and concern for the individual.

"Guardian" is a person appointed by a court to make decisions regarding the support, care, education, health, or welfare of an individual, but not a guardian ad litem.

"Know" means actual knowledge.

"Record" means information stored in a tangible medium or stored in an electronic medium and capable of being retrieved.

"Tissue" means a part of a human body other than an organ or an eye, but not blood unless donated for research or education.

§ 130A-412.5 – Applicability – the Act would be applicable to a gift, amendment, revocation or refusal regardless of when it is made. This provision makes the changes in the Revised Act applicable to existing documents, including drivers licenses.

§ 130A-412.6 – Who may make an anatomical gift prior to donor's death – The donor may make an anatomical gift if: the donor is an adult, the donor is an emancipated minor, or the donor is a minor who is 16 or 17 years old[1]. An agent of the donor may make an anatomical gift, unless the health care power of attorney prohibits the agent from making anatomical gifts. The parent of an unemancipated minor may make an anatomical gift, as may the guardian of the donor. Existing law provides that, during the life of the donor, only a donor who is at least 18 years of age may make an anatomical donation[2].

§ 130A-412.7 – Manner of making anatomical gift before donor's death

1. Donor may make a gift of: (a) organs or eyes by including a symbol on a drivers license or identification care, (b) of any body part or the donor's body by will, or (c) during a terminal illness or injury by any form of communication to at least 2 adults, one of which must be a disinterested witness.

2. A donor or other authorized person may make a donation by: (a) a donor card, (b) a signed record, or (c) being included on a donor registry.

Current law provides a donation may be made by will. The donation may also be made by a document other than a will, provided the document is signed by the donor and two witnesses.

§ 130A-412.8 – Amending or revoking an anatomical gift.

An anatomical gift may be amended or revoked by the donor or any person authorized to make a donation. The revocation can be made by a record signed by the donor or a person authorized to make a donation, by a later-executed document of gift, by the destruction or cancellation of the document of gift, or a portion of a document of gift. A donor may amend or revoke a donation that is not made by will by any form of communication during a terminal illness or injury, if the communication is made to at least 2 adults, 1 of whom is a disinterested witness. Current law allows an amendment or revocation by: (a) delivery of a signed statement to the donee, (b) an oral statement made in the presence of 2

[1] However, a parent of an unemancipated minor could revoke or amend either an anatomical donation or a refusal made by the minor.
[2] G.S. 130A-404(a)

persons and communicated to the donee, (c) a statement during a terminal illness or injury made to an attending physician and communicated to the donee; or a signed document made known to the donee. If the donation has not been delivered to the donee, the donation may be amended or revoked by destruction, cancellation or mutilation of the document and all executed copies.

§ 130A-412.9 – Refusal to make anatomical gift; effect of refusal

A refusal is a record that expressly states an intent to bar other persons from making an anatomical gift. It can be made by a signed record by the donor or a person acting at the direction of the donor, by the donor's will, or any other form of communication to at least 2 adults, one of whom is a disinterested witness and made during a terminal illness or injury. A person may amend or revoke a refusal by any methods of making a refusal, by making an anatomical gift, or by destroying or cancelling the record evidencing the refusal. An unrevoked refusal bars other individuals from making an anatomical gift. Current law allows the revocation of an anatomical gift in a will by any method that is allowed to revoke or amend a will.

§ 130A-412.10 – Preclusive effect of an anatomical gift, amendment or revocation.

A person other than the donor who is authorized to make an anatomical donation may not make, amend or revoke a donation if the donor made or amended a donation during the donor's lifetime. A donor's revocation is not considered a refusal and does not preclude another person authorized to make a donation from doing so. If an authorized person (other than the donor) makes an anatomical gift, the gift may not be amended or revoked by another person authorized to make an anatomical gift. If one of those individuals revokes the gift, another person authorized to make the gift may do so. An anatomical gift of a particular body part does not preclude gifts of other body parts at a later time by the donor or authorized person. An anatomical donation for a particular purpose is not a limitation on the making of other donations for other purposes.

§ 130A-412.11 – Who may make an anatomical gift of the decedent's body or body parts. – Any of the following persons, in descending order, have the authority to make an anatomical gift of the decedent's body or body parts after the decedent has died: (1) an agent who could have made a donation during the decedent's life, (2) the decedent's spouse, (3) adult children of the decedent, (4) parents of the decedent, (5) adult siblings of the decedent, (6) adult grandchildren of the decedent, (7) grandparents of the decedent, (8) an adult who has exhibited special care and concern for the decedent. (9) persons acting as guardian at the time of death, and (10) other persons with authority to dispose of decedent's body. Current law gives this authority to (1) the health care agent with authority to make anatomical gifts, (2) the spouse, (3) an adult child, (4) either parent, (5) an adult sibling, (6) the donor's guardian, (7) any other person authorized to dispose of the body.

§ 130A-412.12 – Manner of making, amending, or revoking anatomical gift of decedent's body or body part. – An anatomical gift made after the donor's death may be made by a signed document or by an oral communication that is reduced to a record. This donation may be amended or revoked by a signed document. A revocation is effective only if the party that is going to harvest the body part has actual knowledge of the revocation or amendment prior to making an incision or invasive procedure.

§ 130A-412.13 – Persons who may receive anatomical gift; purpose of gift. – if the purpose of the gift is research or education, the recipient must be a hospital, medical school or dental school, college or university, or organ procurement organization. An individual may be designated to receive the gift if that individual will also be the recipient of the body part. An eye or tissue bank may also receive an anatomical gift. A gift made by a symbol on a drivers license may only be used for transplantation or therapy. If the body part is an eye, it must go to the appropriate eye bank. If the body part is an organ, it must go to the appropriate organ procurement organization. A person may not accept an anatomical gift if the person knows the gift was not made by the authorized methods. Current law allows the following persons to receive an anatomical gift: a hospital, surgeon or physician for education or research or transplantation or therapy; a medical or dental school to advance education, research, or therapy; a bank or storage facility for medical or dental research; a specified individual for therapy or transplantation; the Commission for anatomy for distribution for studying anatomy.

§ 130A-412.14 – Search and notification. A hospital or law enforcement office who reasonably believes an individual is dead or near death must make a reasonable search of that individual to locate either a document of gift or a refusal. There is no criminal liability for failing to make this search.

§ 130A-412.15 – Delivery of document of gift not required. An anatomical gift does not have to be delivered during the donor's lifetime in order to be effective.

§ 130A-412.16 – Rights and duties of procurement organizations. If a person at or near death is referred to a procurement organization, that organization must make a reasonable search of DMV records and other donor registries in the area to determine whether the donor has made an anatomical gift. The organization may make a reasonable examination to determine medical suitability of the body part for transplantation, therapy, research, or education. Measures necessary to ensure medical suitability may not be withdrawn during this period of examination unless the donor has expressed a contrary intent. The examination for medical suitability includes an examination of all medical and dental records of the donor. Neither the physician who attends the decedent at death who determines the time of death may participate in the harvesting procedures.

§ 130A-412.17 – Coordination of procurement and use – Each hospital in the State must enter into agreements or affiliations with procurement organizations for the coordination of procurement.

§ 130A-412.18. Sale or purchase of body parts prohibited – A person who knowingly sells or purchases a body part for transplantation or therapy is guilty of a Class H felony punishable by a fine of up to $50,000 if the removal of the body part is intended to occur after the individual's death.

§ 130A-412.19. – Other prohibited acts – It is a Class H felony punishable by a fine of up to $50,000 to intentionally falsify, conceal or destroy a document of gift, an amendment, revocation or refusal if the act is made to obtain financial gain.

§ 130A-412.20. – Immunity. – A person who acts with due care under this Part or attempts a good faith effort to do so is not liable in any civil or criminal action. A third party may rely upon representations made by individuals regarding their relationship to the donor unless the third party has actual knowledge the information is false.

§ 130A-412.21 – Choice of law; presumption of validity. – The document of gift is valid if executed in accordance with the laws of North Carolina, the laws of the state or jurisdiction where the document was executed, or the laws of any location the donor had some contact with at the time of document was executed. The laws of North Carolina shall apply to the interpretation of the document.

§ 130A-412.22. – Donor registry. – The Organ Donor Registry Internet site created under G.S. 20-43.2 shall be the State' donor registry for anatomical gifts made under this act.

§ 130A-412.23 – Cooperation between medical examiner and procurement organization. – Medical examiner shall cooperate with procurement organizations to maximize the opportunity to recover anatomical gifts.

§ 130A-412.24 – Facilitation of anatomical gift from decedent whose body is under jurisdiction of medical examiner. – Outlines the procedures for recover of a body part that is the subject of an anatomical gift when the body of the decedent is under the control of a medical examiner.

§ 130A-412.25 through § 130A-412.29 reserved for future codification.

Section 2 amends G.S. 20-43.2 to require that the Organ Donor Registry Internet site (Donor Registry) be accessible 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Personally identifiable information about a donor or prospective donor would not be used or disclosed without the express permission of the donor for any purpose other than to determine whether the donor made, amended or revoked the donation.

Section 3 recodifies portions of existing Part 3 of Article 16 of Chapter 130A and repeals those portions that are the existing Uniform Anatomical Gift Act.

Sections 4-10 make conforming changes to other statutes.

Section 11 directs DMV to work with the License to Give Trust Fund Commission to use grant-in-aid funds and other sources to enhance online access to the Donor Registry.

Section 12 provides that the act modifies, limits and supersedes the Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act, but not federal law regarding electronic delivery of notices.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act becomes effective October 1, 2007.

BACKGROUND: The 2006 revision of the UAGA has been enacted in 14 states, and drafts of the revised UAGA are under consideration in 16 states. NCCUSL promulgated the first version of the UAGA in 1968 and has offered two major revisions to the Act since then, first in 1987 and then 2006. Every state has adopted at least one of the versions of the UAGA, but variation among versions enacted has led to a lack of nationwide uniformity of state laws governing organ, tissue and eye donation.

The crimes also include possession or sale of drugs in violation of the North Carolina Controlled Substances Act, Article 5 of Chapter 90 of the General Statutes, and alcohol-related offenses such as sale to underage persons in violation of G.S. 18B-302, or driving while impaired violation of G.S. 20-138.1 through G.S. 20-138.5.

(b) When requested by the Department of Public Instruction, the North Carolina Department of Justice may provide to the requesting department a covered person's criminal history from the State Repository of Criminal Histories. Such request shall not be due to a person's age, sex, race, color, national origin, religion, creed, political affiliation, or handicapping condition as defined by G.S. 168A-3. For requests for a State criminal history record check only, the requesting department shall provide to the Department of Justice a form consenting to the check, signed by the covered person to be checked and any additional information required by the Department of Justice. constitute just cause for not selecting the person for employment, or for dismissing the person from current employment with the Department of Public Instruction. The conviction shall not automatically prohibit employment; however, the following factors shall be considered by the Department of Public Instruction in determining whether employment shall be denied:

(1) The level and seriousness of the crime;

(e) The Department of Public Instruction may deny employment to or dismiss a covered person who refuses to consent to a criminal history record check or use of fingerprints or other identifying information required by the State or National Repositories of Criminal Histories. Any such refusal shall constitute just cause for the employment denial or the dismissal from employment.

The crimes also include possession or sale of drugs in violation of the North Carolina Controlled Substances Act, Article 5 of Chapter 90 of the General Statutes, and alcohol-related offenses such as sale to underage persons in violation of G.S. 18B-302, or driving while impaired violation of G.S. 20-138.1 through G.S. 20-138.5.

(b) When requested by the Department of Public Instruction, the North Carolina Department of Justice may provide to the requesting department a covered person's criminal history from the State Repository of Criminal Histories. Such request shall not be due to a person's age, sex, race, color, national origin, religion, creed, political affiliation, or handicapping condition as defined by G.S. 168A-3. For requests for a State criminal history record check only, the requesting department shall provide to the Department of Justice a form consenting to the check, signed by the covered person to be checked and any additional information required by the Department of Justice. National criminal record checks are authorized for covered applicants who have not resided in the State of North Carolina during the past five years. For national checks the Department of Public Instruction shall provide to the North Carolina Department of Justice the fingerprints of the covered person to be checked, any additional information required by the Department of Justice, and a form signed by the covered person to be checked, consenting to the check of the criminal record and to the use of fingerprints and other identifying information required by the State or National Repositories. The fingerprints of the individual shall be forwarded to the State Bureau of Investigation for a search of the State criminal history record file and the Federal Bureau of Investigation for a national criminal history record check. The Department of Public Instruction shall keep all information pursuant to this section confidential. The Department of Justice shall charge a reasonable fee for conducting the checks of the criminal history records authorized by this section.

(c) All releases of criminal history information to the Department of Public Instruction shall be subject to, and in compliance with, rules governing the dissemination of criminal history record checks as adopted by the North Carolina Division of Criminal Information. All of the information the department receives through the checking of the criminal history is privileged information and for the exclusive use of the department.

(d) If the covered person's verified criminal history record check reveals one or more convictions covered under subsection (a) of this section, then the conviction shall constitute just cause for not selecting the person for employment, or for dismissing the person from current employment with the Department of Public Instruction. The conviction shall not automatically prohibit employment; however, the following factors shall be considered by the Department of Public Instruction in determining whether employment shall be denied:

(1) The level and seriousness of the crime;
(2) The date of the crime;
(3) The age of the person at the time of the conviction;
(4) The circumstances surrounding the commission of the crime, if known;
(5) The nexus between the criminal conduct of the person and job duties of the person;
(6) The prison, jail, probation, parole, rehabilitation, and employment records of the person since the date the crime was committed; and
(7) The subsequent commission by the person of a crime listed in subsection (a) of this section.

(e) The Department of Public Instruction may deny employment to or dismiss a covered person who refuses to consent to a criminal history record check or use of fingerprints or other identifying information required by the State or National Repositories of Criminal Histories. Any such refusal shall constitute just cause for the employment denial or the dismissal from employment.

(f) The Department of Public Instruction may extend a conditional offer of employment pending the results of a criminal history record check authorized by this section."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective October 1, 2007.

HOUSE BILL 1659:
Criminal History Checks/DPI Employees

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	July 18, 2007
Introduced by:	Rep. Fisher	Summary by:	Jennifer McGinnis
Version:	PCS to Second Edition H1659-CSRI-26		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: The Proposed Committee Substitute (PCS) for House Bill 1659 amends the law governing criminal history record checks conducted by the State Bureau of Investigation to authorize criminal history record checks for employees, applicants for employment, and contractors with the Department of Public Instruction (DPI).

CHANGES MADE BY PCS: The PCS makes technical changes to the 2nd edition of the bill.

BILL ANALYSIS:

This bill authorizes the Department of Justice to provide criminal history record checks of DPI employees, applicants for employment, and contractors upon a request by DPI. "Criminal history" is defined as a State or federal history of conviction of a crime, whether a misdemeanor or a felony, that bears upon a covered person's fitness for employment. The bill includes a list of crimes that bear upon a person's suitability for employment.

DPI may not request a criminal history check based on a person's age, sex, race, color, national origin, religion, creed, political affiliation, or handicapping condition. If DPI requests only a State criminal history check, it must provide a consent form signed by the person to be checked. National criminal history checks are authorized for applicants who have not lived in the State during the past five years. If DPI requests a national criminal history check, it must provide the fingerprints of the person to be checked and a signed consent form. DPI must keep all information obtained confidential. The Department of Justice is authorized to charge a reasonable fee for conducting the criminal history records check.

If the record check reveals one or more convictions of one of the crimes listed in subsection (a), the conviction constitutes just cause for not employing a person or for dismissing a person from current employment. However, a conviction does not automatically prohibit employment. The bill lists a number of factors that must be considered in determining whether to deny employment.

DPI may deny employment to an applicant or dismiss a current employee for refusing to consent to the criminal history records check. The bill provides that the refusal constitutes just cause for denial of employment or dismissal. DPI may also extend a conditional offer of employment pending results of the criminal history records check.

Under current law, G.S. 114-19.6 authorizes criminal history records checks for applicants and employees of the Department of Health and Human Services and the Department of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention. This bill is very similar to that law.

Because of the fee authorized in subsection (b) of the new section 114-19.20, proposed in Section 1 of the bill, this bill must be re-referred to the Committee on Finance.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act becomes effective October 1, 2007.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO ALLOW DETENTION OFFICERS EMPLOYED BY THE SHERIFF TO CARRY FIREARMS AT THE COUNTY COURTHOUSE.

SECTION 2. This act is effective when it becomes law.

HOUSE BILL 1707:
Detention Officers Courthouse Firearms

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	July 18, 2007
Introduced by:	Rep. McLawhorn	Summary by:	Ben Popkin
Version:	First Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 1707 would allow detention officers to carry firearms in a courthouse, if the detention officers are employed by the sheriff and are authorized by the sheriff to carry firearms.

CURRENT LAW: G.S. 14-296.4 provides that it is unlawful for any person to carry any deadly weapon not used solely for instructional or officially sanctioned ceremonial purposes, whether open or concealed, in or on the grounds of any of the following:

- State Capitol Building
- Executive Mansion
- Western Residence of the Governor
- Any building housing any court of the General Court of Justice

This law does not apply to:

- Persons that are exempted by the provisions of G.S. 14-269 (which includes: officers and enlisted personnel of the armed forces when discharged in their official duties; civil and law enforcement officers of the United States; officers and soldiers of the militia and national guard; officers of the State, county, city, town, or company police agency when acting in the discharge of official duties; and off-duty sworn law enforcement officers).
- Any person in a building housing a court of the General Court of Justice who is in possession of a weapon for evidentiary purposes, to deliver it to law enforcement, or to register it.
- State-owned rest areas, highway rest stops, and State-owned hunting and fishing reservations.

A violation of G.S. 14-269 is punishable as a Class 1 misdemeanor, for which the minimum presumptive sentence would be community punishment of 1 to 45 days and a fine at the discretion of the Court.

BILL ANALYSIS: The bill would add detention officers carrying firearms in a courthouse to the list of persons and locations exempted from the provisions of G.S. 14-269.4, when the detention officers are employed by the sheriff and are authorized by the sheriff to carry firearms, thereby allowing them to carry firearms in a courthouse.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The bill would become effective when it becomes law.

"§ 14-404.1. Report denial of license or permit to SBI by entry into State computerized database.

(a) If a sheriff declines to issue a permit as provided by G.S. 14-404(b), the sheriff shall notify the State Bureau of Investigation and provide all of the following information to the State Bureau of Investigation by entry into a State computerized database designated by the State Bureau of Investigation:

If the sheriff that declined to issue a permit and entered the information required under subsection (a) of this section into the database subsequently issues a permit to the same applicant, the sheriff shall notify the State Bureau of Investigation and request that the notation of the denial be removed from the database. The State Bureau of Investigation shall remove the notation within five business days of its receipt of the request from the sheriff.

HOUSE BILL 1287:
Report Denial of Some Pistol Permits

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	July 18, 2007
Introduced by:	Reps. Sutton, Jeffus, Harrison	Summary by:	Ben Popkin
Version:	Third Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 1287 would require sheriffs to enter information about denials of handgun purchase permits into a statewide computer database so that a notation of the denial would appear on subsequent handgun permit record checks. The bill would provide for removal of records from the database eight years after being entered and in certain other instances and would direct the State Bureau of Investigations to have identified an appropriate database by September 1, 2007.

CURRENT LAW: G.S. 14-402 makes it a Class 2 misdemeanor for any person, firm, or corporation in North Carolina to purchase a handgun if the purchaser has not first obtained a permit from the sheriff of the county in which the purchaser resides[1]. The sheriff must certify on the permit that the sheriff has conducted a criminal background check of the applicant and has received no information to indicate that it would be a violation of federal or State law for the applicant to purchase or possess a handgun, and that the sheriff is satisfied as to the applicant's good moral character. A permit may not be issued to the following persons:

- One who is under indictment or information for, or has been convicted of, a felony.
- A fugitive from justice.
- An unlawful user of marijuana or any depressant, stimulant, or narcotic drug.
- One who has been adjudicated mentally incompetent or committed to a mental institution.
- An illegal alien.
- One who has been dishonorably discharged from the armed forces.
- One who has renounced his or her U.S. citizenship.
- One who is subject to a domestic violence restraining order.

A permit is required for each handgun purchase, and the sheriff is required to keep records of all permits issued, including the name, date, place of residence, age, and former place of residence of each person, firm, or corporation to whom a permit is issued.

If the sheriff declines to issue a permit, the sheriff must provide the applicant with a written statement containing the reason(s) for the denial. However, the sheriff is not otherwise required to report or keep records of permits that are denied. An applicant does have the right to appeal a denial in district court.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 – would amend Article 52A of Chapter 14 by inserting a new section that would require that, if the sheriff declines to issue a permit, he or she must notify the State Bureau of Investigation (SBI) of the denial, including the date of the denial, the reason for the denial, the county in which the permit was denied, and information identifying the applicant, by entering the information into a statewide computerized database. The information would have to be entered in such a manner that a notation of the denial would come up on any subsequent record check conducted under Article 52A of Chapter 14. The bill would specify that information contained in the SBI database would only be accessible in the following two instances: record checks conducted in accordance with Article 52A of Chapter 14, and periodic analyses conducted by the Department of Justice regarding the issuing process of permits under G.S. 14-404(b).

If an applicant successfully appeals a denial, the person may submit a copy of the court's order to the sheriff and request in writing that the notation be removed from the database. The sheriff must notify the SBI within five business days of receiving the request. If a sheriff who declined to issue a permit and filed a report with the SBI later issues a permit to the same person, the sheriff must notify the SBI and request that the record of denial be removed from the SBI database. The SBI would be required to remove the notation within five business days of receiving either of the aforementioned sheriffs' requests.

House Bill 1287 would also require that information entered into the SBI database pursuant to the provisions of this bill would be automatically deleted from the database eight years from the date it was entered.

Section 2 – would require that, by September 1, 2007, the SBI shall have identified a computerized database that is easily accessible and available to sheriffs statewide.

Section 3 – would direct the SBI to begin to implement the provisions of this act, including identifying the database, developing necessary software, providing training, and taking any other actions necessary for implementation, with funds appropriated to the Department of Justice in the 2007-2008 fiscal year.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The provisions of the bill that require the SBI to identify an appropriate database and begin implementation would be effective when it becomes law, and the remainder of the bill would become effective September 1, 2008.

HB 1287:
"Report Denial of Some Pistol Permits"

Background: Under G.S. 14-402, enacted in 1919, handgun buyers must obtain pistol purchase permits from sheriffs. Contrary to the title of the bill, HB 1287 would actually require sheriffs to report all purchase permit denials to the State Bureau of Investigation for inclusion in an SBI database. Among the many problems inherent in the bill:

North Carolina's purchase permit law is archaic: Although in the early 20th Century sheriffs may have been the best source of information regarding the eligibility of gun buyers, the system has been rendered largely redundant by the federal National Instant Check System, under which those who buy from gun dealers undergo a computerized background check.

Sheriffs may deny permits for arbitrary reasons: Unlike concealed handgun permits, sheriffs have broad latitude in denying pistol purchase permits. Under G.S. 14-404 (a) (2), a sheriff may deny a permit if they have decide they have not "satisfied himself or herself by affidavits, oral evidence, or otherwise, as to the good moral character of the applicant." A law-abiding permit applicant whom the sheriff arbitrarily decides is not of "good moral character" would find themselves enshrined in the SBI database.

Sheriffs may limit numbers of permit applications: One purchase permit is required for each handgun bought. In Avery, Chatham and Durham counties, among others, sheriffs limit the number of purchase permit applications a buyer may make in a year. If a sheriff arbitrarily decides a law-abiding applicant has made too many applications, that applicant would be registered in the SBI database for at least eight years.

Sheriffs may require notarized "character affidavits": In Durham County, among possible others, purchase permit applicants must produce a notarized character affidavit for each application. An applicant who is unable to produce such an affidavit (e.g. recent residents without local contacts) would be registered in the database if their application is rejected for the lack thereof.

Lawful gun buyers would be registered and stigmatized: Because sheriffs may deny handgun purchase permit applications for arbitrary, capricious, or even malicious reasons, it is all but assured that lawful gun buyers will find themselves enshrined in the SBI database for at least eight years.

GRNC strongly urges you to oppose HB 1287: Because the bill adds little to crime prevention while registering and stigmatizing lawful gun buyers, GRNC opposes HB 1287, and will track committee actions and both substantive and procedural votes on the bill for candidate evaluation purposes.

Please oppose HB 1287!

HOUSE BILL 947:
NC Foreclosure/Landlord Tenant Laws

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	July 18, 2007
Introduced by:	Reps. Blue, Glazier	Summary by:	Kory Goldsmith
Version:	PCS to Second Edition H947-CSRC-59		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: The Proposed Committee Substitute to House Bill 947 amends the Foreclosure laws to require that the notice of sale for residential property with less than 15 rental units must inform a party in possession of the imminent sale. It would also allow the party in possession to terminate the rental agreement upon 10 days' written notice to the landlord. Finally, the purchaser must give the renter at least 30 days' notice of an application to obtain possession.

The act would become effective October 1, 2007. The new notice requirements would apply to notices of sale made on or after that date. The right of a tenant to terminate the lease with ten days' notice would apply to leases entered into or renewed on or after October 1, 2007.

CURRENT LAW:

Under current law, when a debtor has defaulted on a mortgage or deed of trust which contains a power of sale clause, the mortgagee or trustee may foreclose on the property by filing and serving a notice of hearing to be held before the clerk of court. If the clerk determines that the statutory requirements have been met, he or she orders a sale and issues a notice of sale.

The notice must be sent to the borrower and anyone else required by the instrument or law at least 20 days before the sale. It must also be posted in an area designated by the clerk of court for at least 20 days, and published in a newspaper of general circulation in the county once a week for at least two weeks, with the last publication being no more than ten days before the sale.

The notice must include the following: (1)a description of the instrument under which the sale is held, including the name of the borrowers, and the recording date, as well as the record owner if different from the borrower; (2)a designation of the time and place of the sale; (3)a description of the property to be sold; (4)the terms of the sale provided for in the instrument, including the amount of any cash deposit required; (5) any other provisions required in the instrument to be included; (6) that the property will be sold subject to taxes and assessments; (7) whether the property is being sold subject to or together with any subordinate and identified rights and interests.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 adds two new pieces of information that must be included in the notice of sale for property that includes less than 15 rental units. . It would require that the notice state that an order of possession may be issued to the purchaser and against the party in possession of the property by the clerk of court. It must also state that anyone who entered into or renewed a rental agreement on or after October 1, 2007 may terminate the rental agreement after receiving notice of sale, but must give the landlord ten days written notice. The tenant is liable for rent due under the agreement prorated to the effective date of the termination.

Section 2 adds a requirement that the if the property that is the subject of the foreclosure contains less than 15 rental units, the notice of sale must be mailed to anyone who occupies the property pursuant to a rental agreement at least 20 days before the sale.

Section 3 creates a new section, G.S. 42-45.2 which amends the law governing residential rental agreements to allow tenants who reside in residential real property containing less than 15 rental units that are being sold in foreclosure to terminate the rental agreement after receiving a notice of sale by giving the landlord at least ten days written notice of termination. Upon termination of the agreement, the tenant is liable the rent due on a prorated basis. The tenant is not liable for any other rent or damages resulting only from the early termination of the agreement.

Section 4 creates a requirement that an order for possession of real property may not be issued with regard to residential property containing more than 15 rental units unless at least thirty days' notice has been given to the party or parties who remain in possession at the time of the application.

Section 5 clarifies that the Automation Enhancement and Preservation Fund may be used to purchase technology associated with the preservation and storage of public records in the office of the register of deeds.

BILL ANALYSIS

Introduced by:	Rep. Daughtry	Summary by:	Jennifer McGinnis Committee Counsel
Version:	PCS to Second Edition H316-CSRI-29 [v.5]

SUMMARY: The proposed committee substitute (PCS) for House Bill 316 would amend Rule 45 of the Rules of Civil Procedure to require that when a subpoena is served directing a person to produce designated records, the party or attorney issuing the subpoena must, within five business days of receipt of the material, provide notice to all other parties of: (i) the subpoena, and (i) receipt of the material produced. The party or attorney issuing the subpoena must also, upon request, provide all other parties reasonable opportunity to inspect and copy the material produced at the expense of the inspecting party.

CURRENT LAW: Rule 45 of the Rules of Civil Procedure, as set out in Chapter 1A of the General Statutes, provides for the issuance of a subpoena directing a person to attend and give testimony in a matter or to produce and permit inspection of designated records that are in the person's custody or control. A subpoena may be served by the sheriff, a coroner, or any person at least 18 who is not a party to the action. A copy of the subpoena must be served upon each party to the action by delivering a copy to the party or by mailing it to the party at the party's last known address. Delivery of a copy includes handing it to the attorney or to the party, leaving it at the attorney's office with an employee, or sending a faxed copy with confirmation. A person commanded to appear at a deposition or to produce and permit the inspection and copying of records may, within 10 days after service of the subpoena or before the time specified for compliance if the time is less than 10 days after service, serve upon the party or the attorney designated in the subpoena written objection to the subpoena, setting forth the specific grounds for the objection. Each of the following grounds may be sufficient for objecting to a subpoena:

a. The subpoena fails to allow reasonable time for compliance.
b. The subpoena requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter and no exception or waiver applies to the privilege or protection.
c. The subpoena subjects a person to an undue burden.
d. The subpoena is otherwise unreasonable or oppressive.
e. The subpoena is procedurally defective.

BILL ANALYSIS: The PCS for House Bill 316 would require that when a subpoena is served directing a person to produce designated records, the party or attorney issuing the subpoena must, within five business days of receipt of the material, provide notice to all other parties of (i) the subpoena, and (i) receipt of the material produced. The party or attorney issuing the subpoena must also, upon request, provide all other parties reasonable opportunity to inspect and copy the material produced at the expense of the inspecting party.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The bill would become effective October 1, 2007 and apply to actions filed on or after that date.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO REQUIRE THE STATE REGISTRAR TO ASSIST COUNTY JURY COMMISSIONS IN UPDATING THEIR LISTS OF PROSPECTIVE JURORS BY PROVIDING A LIST OF RESIDENTS OF EACH COUNTY WHO HAVE DIED RECENTLY; AND TO EXCLUDE FROM THE LISTS PROVIDED BY THE COMMISSIONER OF MOTOR VEHICLES TO COUNTY JURY COMMISSIONS THE NAMES OF PERSONS WHOSE DRIVERS LICENSES HAVE BEEN EXPIRED FOR AT LEAST EIGHT YEARS AND WHO HAVE BEEN INACTIVE VOTERS FOR AT LEAST FOUR YEARS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 9-2(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) In preparing the list, the jury commission shall use the list of registered voters and persons with drivers license records supplied to the county by the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles pursuant to G.S. 20-43.4. The commission shall remove from the list the names of those residents of the county who are recently deceased, which shall be supplied to the commission by the State Registrar under G.S. 130A-121. The commission may use fewer than all the names from the list if it uses a random method of selection. The commission may use other sources of names deemed by it to be reliable."

SECTION 2. Article 4 of Chapter 130A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 130A-121. List of deceased residents for county jury commission.

The State Registrar shall provide to each county's jury commission an alphabetical list of all residents of that county who have died in the two years prior to July 1 of each odd-numbered year, unless an annual jury list is being prepared under G.S. 9-2(a), in which case the list shall be of all residents of the county who have died in the year prior to July 1 of each year. The list shall include the name and address of each deceased resident and may be in either printed or computerized form, as requested by the jury commission."

SECTION 3. G.S. 20-43.4 reads as rewritten:

HOUSE BILL 943:
Updating of Jury List

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	July 6, 2007
Introduced by:	Rep. Lewis	Summary by:	Ben Popkin
Version:	Second Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 943 would require the State Registrar to provide county jury commissions with lists of recently deceased residents, and would require jury commissions to remove those deceased residents from their jury lists. The bill would also require the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles and the State Board of Elections to remove drivers whose licenses have been expired for an extended period of time and voters who have been inactive for an extended period of time from the lists provided to county jury commissions.

CURRENT LAW:

Preparation of jury lists. Each county jury commission is required to prepare a list of prospective jurors on July 1 of every odd-numbered year to serve in the biennium beginning on January 1 of the following year. The commission may instead prepare the jury list annually if requested in writing by the senior regular resident superior court judge. The individuals placed on the jury list come from a list supplied by the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles, which is prepared in cooperation with the State Board of Elections and includes licensed or formerly licensed drivers who are registered voters, licensed or formerly licensed drivers who are not registered voters, and registered voters who are not licensed or formerly licensed drivers.

Records of deaths. For every death that occurs in the State, a death certificate must be filed with the local registrar within five days after the death. The local registrar is required to send original death certificates to the State Registrar on the fifth day of each month, and the State Registrar has the duty of securing and maintaining all vital records in the State.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 943 would require the State Registrar to provide each county jury commission with an alphabetical list of county residents who have died in the two year period prior to July 1 of each odd-numbered year if the jury list in that county is being prepared for the next biennium. The list would have to include residents who have died in the one year period prior to July 1 of each year if the jury list is prepared annually. The bill would require the county jury commission to then remove recently deceased residents from its jury list.

The bill would also require the following people to be excluded from the lists provided to the county jury commissions for use in preparing prospective jury lists:

- Any formerly licensed driver whose license has been expired for eight years or more.
- Any registered voter who has been inactive for four years or more.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The bill would become effective July 1, 2007.

Wendy Graf Ray, counsel to House Judiciary III, substantially contributed to this summary.

HOUSE BILL 38:
Silver Alert System/Missing Persons Alert.

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	July 25, 2007
Introduced by:	Reps. Parmon, Womble, Insko, Earle	Summary by:	Ben Popkin
Version:	PCS to Second Edition H38-CSRD		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 38 allows for a public alert to be issued by the North Carolina Center for Missing Persons when an individual believed to be suffering from dementia or other cognitive impairment, is reporting missing.

CURRENT LAW: Part 5A of G.S. § 143B establishes the North Carolina Center for Missing Persons ("the Center"). The purpose of this organization is to serve as a central repository for information regarding missing persons in North Carolina, with an emphasis on missing children.

§ 143B-499.1 directs local law-enforcement agencies to issue information regarding a person reported missing to relevant federal agencies and initiate a statewide broadcast of the relevant information to law-enforcement agencies. The local law enforcement agencies also transmit a copy of the missing person report to the Center.

§ 143B-499.7 establishes the North Carolina AMBER Alert System. Under the AMBER alert system, the Center distributes information regarding children under the age of 17 that are abducted or believed to be in danger of injury or death through radio and television broadcasters, the Department of Transportation, and the Division of Emergency Management.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 38 directs the Center to create a statewide alert system for missing individuals believed to be suffering from dementia or other cognitive impairment. This alert system will distribute these alerts through radio and television broadcasters and the Department of Transportation.

Sec. 1: Parents, spouses, guardians, or legal custodians may submit a missing person report to the Center after first having filed a missing person report with local law enforcement. "Person responsible for the supervision of the missing individual" is added to these categories of individuals who may submit a report to the Center, to ensure caregivers of children and the elderly can also submit a missing person report to the Center after having first filed a missing person report with local law enforcement.

Sec. 2: Upon receipt of a missing person report from a parent, spouse, guardian, or legal custodian local law enforcement must enter the data into nationwide databases, distribute the information to statewide law enforcement agencies, and transmit the information to the Center. "Person responsible for the supervision of the missing individual" is added to these categories of individuals, to ensure missing person reports submitted by caregivers of children and the elderly are given the same treatment as reports from parents, spouses, guardians, or legal custodians.

New language is added prohibiting local law enforcement agencies from establishing any policy which requires the observance of a waiting period before the acceptance of a missing person report.

Sec. 3: Any parent, spouse, guardian, or legal custodian who submits a missing person report to law enforcement agencies, including the Center, are required to notify the agencies immediately if the missing person is found. "Person responsible for the supervision of the missing individual" is added to the categories of individuals required to notify the law enforcement agencies if the missing person is found.

Sec. 4: Corrects a statutory reference in the statute. 143B-499.5 directs the Center to create a toll-free line for anyone to report the disappearance of an individual. The Center must inform the individual that a report must be filed with local law enforcement, before the Center can accept a missing person's report. This requirement is found in 143B-499, not 143B-499.3.

Sec. 5: Establishes the "Silver Alert System" within the Center to provide a statewide alert system for rapid dissemination of information regarding missing individuals believed to be suffering from dementia or other cognitive impairment, and includes the following provisions:

- Directs the Center, following receipt of a report of a missing person, to issue an alert providing for rapid statewide dissemination of information about the missing person.
- Directs the Center to develop guidelines and procedures for implementing the Silver Alert System.
- Directs the Center to consult with the Department of Transportation to develop procedures for providing information about the missing person to motorists.

The PCS to HB 38 makes the following changes to the second edition of the bill:

Amends the short title to include reference to the Silver Alert System. Amends the long title to reflect the addition of the EMS workers' exemption in Section 6.

Sec. 6: Adds emergency medical services personnel who have been requested by a facility or political subdivision to locate an individual who has disappeared to the existing list of activities that are not considered to be "private protective services". Persons who, on a contractual basis, make inquiries or investigations concerning the identity, habits, activity, movement, whereabouts, etc. of any person, fall within the definition of "private detective" or "private investigator" and are required to comply with licensure and other requirements of the Private Protective Services Act[1]. Addition of this exemption to the categories of exemptions already provided in G.S. 74C-3(b) clarifies that EMS personnel assisting in 'search and rescue' location of missing persons activities are not required to be licensed under the Act to do so.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This bill is effective when it becomes law.

BACKGROUND: The North Carolina center for Missing Persons was established in 1985 by the General Assembly. The AMBER Alert System was established in 2002 as the North Carolina Child Alert Network (NC CAN) in 2002, and renamed the AMBER Alert System in 2003.

HOUSE BILL 573: Authorize Concealed Weapon/Other Court Changes

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	July 23, 2007
Introduced by:	Reps. Williams, Blue, Howard, Brubaker	Summary by:	Kory Goldsmith Committee Counsel
Version:	PCS to First Edition H573-CSRC-61

SUMMARY: House Bill 573 would authorize a district or superior court judge to carry a concealed handgun in a courthouse if the judge is there to discharge his or her official duties and has a valid concealed handgun permit.

The Proposed Committee Substitute makes a number of other changes related to the State Budget Act as it applies to the judicial branch, adds a new duty to the Director of the Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC), repeals certain provisions related to Drug Treatment Courts and creates a pilot for a system of electronic filing of court documents.

CURRENT LAW – Concealed handguns: A person in North Carolina may apply for and get a concealed handgun permit if the applicant meets all of the following criteria:

- Is a citizen of the United States and has been a resident of North Carolina for 30 or more days.
- Is 21 years of age or older.
- Does not suffer from a physical or mental infirmity that prevents the safe handling of a handgun.
- Has successfully completed an approved firearms safety and training course.
- Is not disqualified from receiving a permit under the provisions of G.S. 14-415.12(b), which provides that a sheriff shall deny a permit if the applicant:
  - Is ineligible to own a firearm under State or federal law.
  - Is under indictment for a felony.
  - Has been found guilty of a felony.
  - Is a fugitive from justice.
  - Is an unlawful user of controlled substances.
  - Has been found to be mentally ill.
  - Has been discharged from the armed forces under conditions other than honorable.
  - Has been found guilty of a crime of violence constituting a misdemeanor.
  - Has had entry of a prayer for judgment continued for a crime that would disqualify the applicant.
  - Is free on bond or personal recognizance pending trial, appeal, or sentencing for a crime that would disqualify the applicant.
  - Has been convicted of impaired driving within 3 years prior to the date of application.

A person who has been issued a concealed handgun permit may carry a concealed handgun unless otherwise specifically prohibited by law. Carrying a concealed handgun without a permit is a Class 2 misdemeanor on the first offense, punishable by up to 60 days and maximum $1,000 fine, and a Class I felony on a second or subsequent offense, punishable by up to 15 months and a fine in the discretion of the court.

Weapons in courthouses. G.S. 14-269.4 makes it unlawful to carry a deadly weapon in any building housing any court of the General Court of Justice. Article 54B makes clear that a concealed handgun permit does not authorize a person to carry a concealed handgun in any area prohibited by this section.

A violation of G.S. 14-269.4 is a Class 1 misdemeanor, punishable by up to 120 days and a fine in the discretion of the court.

State Budget Act – During the 2006 Session, the General Assembly replaced the Executive Budget Act with the State Budget Act (Chapter 143C). The act applies to all state agencies, which include the executive, judicial, and legislative branches of government.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 would create an exemption to the statute that makes it unlawful to carry a deadly weapon in courthouse. The exemption would allow a district court judge or a superior court judge to carry or possess a concealed handgun in a building housing a court of the General Court of Justice if: the judge is in the building to discharge his or her official duties; and the judge has a valid concealed handgun permit.

Sections 2 – 4 would make it clear that certain portions of the State Budget Act would not apply to the judicial branch.

Section 5 exempts growth in the operation of the courts from the calculations on the limitations in the growth of the General Fund operating budget.

Section 6 provides that, in the event of a shortfall in revenue receipts, the judicial branch would submit its own plan for reductions in expenditures. This provision may violate Article III, Sec. 4 of the State Constitution which directs the Governor to "continually survey" revenue collections and expenditures and to "effect the necessary economies in State expenditures" to prevent expenditures from exceeding revenues.

Section 7 would allow the judicial branch to make transfers between enacted budget for programs, objects, or line items provided the Chief Justice reports these transfers quarterly to the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations.

Section 8 would allow the judicial branch to create new personnel positions without seeking the approval of the Director of the Budget.

Section 9 would allow the judicial branch to apply for federal grants before providing a copy of the application to the Director of the Budget.

Section 10 removes judicial branch employees from the Governor's authority to suspend for failure to perform the duties of the employees' office or the provisions of the State Budget Act.

Section 11 directs the Director of the Administration Office of the Courts to analyze the use of contractual positions and convert positions to permanent State positions if it is in the best interests of the Judicial Department to do so.

Sections 12 - 13 repeals provisions related to Drug Treatment Courts and modify certain reporting requirements related to the drug treatment courts.

Section 14 establishes a pilot program to evaluate a system for electronic filing, case processing and case management.

Section 15 allows AOC to expend funds to pay for the cost of hardware and software for electronic filing.

"Article 3.

"State Fair Employment Act.

"Part 1. Title and Legislative Findings.

"§ 169-3-1. Title of Article.

This Article shall be known and may be cited as the "State Fair Employment Act."

"§ 169-3-2. Legislative findings; effect of precedent.

(a) The General Assembly finds that the practice of denying employment opportunity and discriminating in the terms and conditions of employment because of a person's or group's actual or perceived race, color, national origin, religion, age, sex, or physical or mental disability foments domestic strife and unrest, substantially and adversely affects the interests of employees, employers, and the public in general, and deprives the State of the fullest utilization of its capacities for advancement and development. It is the public policy of this State to protect and safeguard the right and opportunity of all persons to seek, obtain, and hold employment without discrimination or abridgement in violation of law by covered employers and to support the enforcement of the civil rights laws of this State prohibiting employment discrimination.

(b) The General Assembly finds that the State's Fair Employment Practices Act is an adaptation of portions of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964; the Civil Rights Act of 1991, 42 U.S.C. § 1981a.; and 42 U.S.C. § 2000e, et seq., as amended, with the purpose and intention of creating one uniform, comprehensive standard applicable to all covered employers in North Carolina.

(c) The General Assembly finds that legal precedent from State and federal courts interpreting and applying the civil rights laws cited in subsection (b) of this section provide relevant guidance in the construction of this Article except where exclusions or omissions have been made or where the context establishes the application of precedent would be contrary to the public policy of this State as set forth in this Chapter.

"Part 2. Unlawful Employment Practices.

"§ 169-3-3. Unlawful employment practices; motivating factors.

(a) It shall be an unlawful employment practice for an employer covered by this Chapter to:

(1) Fail or refuse to hire or promote, or to discharge any individual or otherwise discriminate against any individual with respect to compensation, terms, conditions, benefits, or privileges of employment, because of such individual's race, color, sex, religion, national origin, age, or physical or mental disability.

(2) Limit, segregate, or classify employees or applicants for employment in any way that would deprive or tend to deprive any individual of employment opportunities or otherwise adversely affect an employee's status because of the individual's race, color, sex, religion, national origin, age, or physical or mental disability.

(3) Discriminate against any of his or her employees or applicants for employment, because the employee or applicant has opposed any practice made an unlawful employment practice by this Chapter, or because the employee or applicant has participated in any manner in an investigation, proceeding, or hearing under this Chapter.

(4) Control an apprenticeship or other training or retraining, including on-the-job training programs, in order to discriminate against any qualified individual because of the individual's race, color, religion, sex, age, national origin, or physical or mental disability in admission to or employment in any program established to provide apprenticeship or other training.

(5) Print, publish, or cause to be printed or published any notice or advertisement relating to employment by the employer or relating to any classification or referral for employment by an employment agency, indicating any preference, limitation, specification, or discrimination based on race, color, religion, sex, or national origin, except that such a notice or advertisement may indicate a preference, limitation, specification, or discrimination based on religion, sex, or national origin when religion, sex, or national origin is a bona fide occupational qualification for employment.

(b) It shall be an unlawful employment practice for an employer, including an employment agency, in connection with the selection or referral of applicants or candidates for employment or promotion, to adjust the scores of, use different cutoff scores for, or otherwise alter the results of employment-related tests on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, or physical or mental disability.

(c) It shall be an unlawful employment practice for an employment agency to fail or refuse to refer for employment or otherwise discriminate against any individual because of his race, color, sex, religion, national origin, age, or physical or mental disability.

(d) Except as otherwise provided in this Article, an unlawful employment practice is established when the complaining party demonstrates that race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, or disability was a motivating factor for any employment practice, even though other factors also motivated the practice.

"§ 169-3-4. Disparate impact.

(a) An unlawful employment practice claim based on disparate impact under this Article shall be subject to the following proof requirements:

(1) An unlawful employment practice based on disparate impact is established under this Article only if:

a. A complaining party demonstrates that a respondent uses a particular employment practice that causes a disparate impact on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, or national origin and the respondent fails to demonstrate that the challenged practice is job-related for the position in question and consistent with business necessity; or

b. The complaining party makes the demonstration described in subsection (c) of this section with respect to an alternative employment practice and the respondent refuses to adopt such alternative employment practice.

(b) With respect to demonstrating that a particular employment practice causes a disparate impact as described in subdivision (1) of subsection (a) of this section:

(1) The complaining party shall demonstrate that each particular challenged employment practice causes a disparate impact, except that if the complaining party can demonstrate that the elements of a respondent's decision-making process are not capable of separation for analysis, the decision-making process may be analyzed as one employment practice.

(2) If the respondent demonstrates that a specific employment practice does not cause the disparate impact, the respondent shall not be required to demonstrate that the practice is required by business necessity.

(c) A demonstration that an employment practice is required by business necessity may not be used as a defense against a claim of intentional discrimination under this Chapter.

"§ 169-3-5. Exemptions; limitations.

(a) Nothing in this Article shall apply to any business or enterprise on or near an Indian reservation with regard to any publicly announced employment practice of that business or enterprise under which a preferential treatment is given to any individual because he or she is an Indian living on or near a reservation.

(b) Nothing in this Article shall apply to a religious corporation, association, educational institution, or society with regard to the employment of individuals of a particular religion to perform work connected with the carrying on by such corporation, association, educational institution, or society of its activities.

(c) It shall not be an unlawful employment practice:

(1) For an employer to hire and employ employees, for an employment agency to classify, or refer for employment any individual, or for an employer or training or retraining programs to admit or employ any individual in any such program on the basis that the individual's religion, sex, age, or national origin is a bona fide occupational qualification reasonably necessary to the normal operation of that particular business or enterprise.

(2) For a school, college, university, or other educational institution or institution of learning to hire and employ employees of a particular religion if the school, college, university, or other educational institution or institution of learning is, in whole or in substantial part, owned, supported, controlled, or managed by a particular religion or by a particular religious corporation, association, or society, or if the curriculum of the school, college, university, or other educational institution or institution of learning is directed toward the propagation of that religion.

(d) It shall not be an unlawful employment practice for an employer or employment agency to fail or refuse to hire and employ any individual for any position or for an employer to discharge any individual from any position if (i) the occupancy of that position, or access to the premises in or upon which any part of the duties of that position is performed or is to be performed, is subject to any requirements imposed in the interest of the national security of the United States under any security program in effect pursuant to or administered under any statute of the United States or any

Executive Order of the President and (ii) the individual has not fulfilled or has ceased to fulfill that requirement.

(e) It shall not be an unlawful employment practice for an employer to:

(1) Apply different standards of compensation or different terms, conditions, or privileges of employment pursuant to a bona fide seniority or merit system, or a system which measures earnings by quantity or quality of production or to employees who work in different locations, if the differences are not the result of an intention to discriminate because of race, color, religion, sex, age, national origin, or disability.

(2) Give and to act upon the results of any professionally developed ability test provided that the test, its administration, or action upon the results is not designed, intended, or used to discriminate because of race, color, religion, sex, age, national origin, or disability.

(3) Differentiate upon the basis of sex in determining the amount of wages or compensation paid or to be paid to employees of such employer if such differentiation is authorized by the provisions of Section 6(d) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, as amended.

(f) Nothing in this Chapter shall be construed to require any employer or employment agency to grant preferential treatment to any individual or to any group because of the race, color, religion, sex, age, national origin, or disability of the individual or group on account of an imbalance which may exist with respect to the total number or percentage of persons of any race, color, religion, sex, age, national origin, or disabled condition employed by any employer, referred or classified for employment by any employment agency, or admitted to, or employed in, any apprenticeship or other training program, in comparison with the total number or percentage of persons of such race, color, religion, sex, age, national origin, or disabled conditions in this State, or any community thereof.

(g) This Article does not prohibit an employer or employment agency from developing and using programs aimed at targeted recruitment of qualified applicants to address disparities in total number or percentages of individuals within its workforce and applicant pools with respect to race, color, religion, sex, age, national origin, or disability.

(h) An employment practice that implements, and is within, the scope of a litigated or consent judgment or order that resolves a claim of employment discrimination under the Constitution of the United States, the North Carolina Constitution, or under a federal or State civil rights law may not be challenged:

(1) By a person who, prior to the entry of that judgment or order had:

a. Actual notice of the proposed judgment or order sufficient to apprise the person that the judgment or order might adversely affect the interests and legal rights of that person and that an opportunity was available to present objections to the judgment or order by a future date certain; and

b. A reasonable opportunity to present objections to the judgment or order; or

(2) By a person whose interests were adequately represented by another person who had previously challenged the judgment or order on the same legal grounds and with a similar factual situation, unless there has been an intervening change in law or fact.

(i) Nothing in this Article shall be construed to:

(1) Alter the standards for intervention under North Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure or apply to the rights of successful interveners.

(2) Apply to the rights of parties to the action in which a litigated or consent judgment or order was entered, or of members of a class represented or sought to be represented in such action, or of members of a group on whose behalf relief was sought in such action by the Fair Employment Practices Division or the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission.

(3) Prevent challenges to a litigated or consent judgment or order on the grounds that such judgment or order was obtained through collusion or fraud or is transparently invalid or was entered by a court lacking subject matter jurisdiction.

(4) Authorize or permit the denial to any person of the due process of law required by the Constitution.

(j) Any action not precluded under this section that challenges an employment consent judgment or order shall be brought in the court, and if possible before the judge, that entered that judgment or order. Nothing in this subsection shall preclude a transfer of an action pursuant to applicable change of venue rules where appropriate.

(k) Nothing in this Chapter shall be construed to repeal or modify any federal, State, or local law creating special rights or preferences for veterans.

(l) Nothing in this Article or Article 4 shall be construed to reduce or eliminate any rights or preferences conferred with respect to employment and employment discrimination by Chapter 168 of the General Statutes, Handicapped Persons, and Chapter 168A of the General Statutes, the Persons with Disabilities Act.

"§ 169-3-6. Filing period; dual filing.

(a) Applicants, employees, or former employees covered under this Article shall have 180 days from the date of the alleged violation to file a charge of unlawful employment discrimination as specified in G.S. 169-3-3. Thereafter, up to the 300th day from the date of the alleged violation, covered individuals may file directly with the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission.

(b) Filing with the Agency's Division of Fair Employment Practices under this Article shall immediately affect a dual filing with the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission.

(c) Covered State employees may file with the Division of Fair Employment Practices under this Article without first filing an internal grievance, but the time for such internal filing with an agency is not tolled by filing under the State Fair Employment Act.

"Part 3. Enforcement Provisions.

"§ 169-3-7. Enforcement provisions.

(a) Whenever a charge is filed by or on behalf of a person claiming to be aggrieved, alleging that an employer or employment agency has engaged in an unlawful employment practice, the Division of Fair Employment shall serve a notice of the charge (including the date, place, and circumstances of the alleged unlawful employment practice) on such employer or employment agency (hereinafter referred to as the "respondent") within 10 days and shall make an investigation thereof. Charges shall be in writing under oath or affirmation and shall contain such information and be in such form as the Division of Fair Employment requires. Charges shall not be made public by the Division. If the Division determines after the investigation that there is not reasonable cause to believe that the charge is true, it shall dismiss the charge and promptly notify the person claiming to be aggrieved and the respondent of its action. If the Division determines after such investigation that there is reasonable cause to believe that the charge is true, the Division shall endeavor to eliminate any such alleged unlawful employment practice by informal methods of conference, conciliation, and persuasion. Nothing said or done during and as a part of such informal endeavors may be made public by the Division, its officers or employees, or used as evidence in a subsequent proceeding without the written consent of the persons concerned. Any person who makes public information in violation of this subsection shall be subject to civil penalties of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) per violation. The Division shall make its determination on reasonable cause as promptly as possible and, so far as practicable, not later than 120 days from the filing of the charge.

(b) A charge under this section shall be filed within 180 days after the alleged unlawful employment practice occurred, and notice of the charge (including the date, place, and circumstances of the alleged unlawful employment practice) shall be served upon the person against whom such charge is made within 10 days thereafter. For purposes of this section, an unlawful employment practice occurs, with respect to a seniority system that has been adopted for an intentionally discriminatory purpose in violation of this title (whether or not that discriminatory purpose is apparent on the face of the seniority provision), when the seniority system is adopted, when an individual becomes subject to the seniority system, or when a person aggrieved is injured by the application of the seniority system or provision of the system.

(c) If within 30 days after a reasonable cause finding has been made following investigation of a charge filed with the Division of Fair Employment, the Division has been unable to secure from the respondent a conciliation agreement acceptable to the Division, the Division may bring a civil action against any respondent in any State superior court as provided in this Article. The person or persons aggrieved shall have the right to intervene in a civil action brought by the Division. If within 90 days from service upon the parties of notice of the reasonable cause finding, the Division has not filed a civil action under this section or has not entered into a conciliation agreement to which the person aggrieved is a party, the Division shall so notify the person aggrieved, and within 90 days after the giving of such notice, a civil action may be brought against the respondent named in the charge by the person claiming to be aggrieved. Upon request, the court may, in its discretion, stay further proceedings for not more than 60 days pending the termination of State or local proceedings or further efforts of the Division to obtain voluntary compliance. If the Division does not find reasonable cause following investigation of a filed charge, the person claiming to be aggrieved may file a civil action in State court against the respondent within 90 days after receipt of the notice of the decision of the Division of Fair Employment Practices.

(d) Whenever a charge is filed with the Division of Fair Employment and the Division concludes on the basis of a preliminary investigation that prompt judicial action is necessary to carry out the purposes of this Act, the Division may bring an action for appropriate temporary or preliminary relief pending final disposition of such charge. Any temporary restraining order or other order granting preliminary or temporary relief shall be issued in accordance with Rule 65 of the North Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure. It shall be the duty of the court having jurisdiction over proceedings under this subsection to assign cases for hearing at the earliest practicable date and to cause such cases to be in every way expedited.

"§ 169-3-8. State court jurisdiction.

(a) Each State superior court shall have jurisdiction over actions brought under this Article. The action may be brought in any judicial district in the State in which the unlawful employment practice is alleged to have been committed, in the judicial district in which the employment records relevant to the practice are maintained and administered, or in the judicial district in which the aggrieved person would have worked but for the alleged unlawful employment practice, but if the defendant is not found within that district, then the action may be brought within the judicial district in which the defendant has its principal office.

(b) It shall be the duty of the senior resident superior court judge in the judicial district in which the case is pending to designate immediately a judge in the district to hear and determine the case. In the event that no superior court judge in the district is available to hear and determine the case, the senior resident superior court judge shall certify this fact to the Office of Administration of the Courts for designation of a judge from another judicial district, a retired judge, or a special superior court judge approved by that Office, who shall hear and determine the case. It shall be the duty of the judge designated pursuant to this section to schedule the case for hearing at the earliest practicable date and to cause the case to be in every way expedited. If that judge has not scheduled the case for trial within 120 days after issue has been joined, that judge may appoint a referee pursuant to Rule 53 of the North Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure.

"§ 169-3-9. Remedies in court actions.

(a) If the court in which an action has been brought pursuant to this Act finds that the respondent has intentionally engaged in or is intentionally engaging in an unlawful employment practice charged in the complaint, the court may enjoin the respondent from engaging in such unlawful employment practice and order such affirmative action as may be appropriate, which may include, but is not limited to, reinstatement or hiring of employees, with or without back pay (payable by the employer or employment agency, as the case may be, responsible for the unlawful employment practice), or any other equitable relief as the court deems appropriate. Back pay liability shall not accrue from a date more than two years prior to the filing of a charge with the Division. Interim earnings or amounts earnable with reasonable diligence by the person or persons discriminated against shall operate to reduce the back pay otherwise allowable.

(b) No order of the court shall require the hiring, reinstatement, or promotion of an individual as an employee, or the payment to that individual of any back pay, if that individual was refused employment or advancement or was suspended or discharged for any reason other than discrimination on account of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, or disability, or in violation of G.S. 169-3-3(b) of this Act.

(c) On a claim in which an individual proves a violation under G.S. 169-3-3(f) of this Act and a respondent demonstrates that the respondent would have taken the same action in the absence of the impermissible motivating factor, the court:

(1) May grant declaratory relief, injunctive relief (except as provided in subdivision (2) of this subsection), and attorneys' fees and costs demonstrated to be directly attributable only to the pursuit of a claim under G.S. 169-3-3(f) of this Act; and

(2) Shall not award damages or issue an order requiring any admission, reinstatement, hiring, promotion, or payment described in subsection (b) of this section.

(d) In any case in which an employer or employment agency fails to comply with an order of a court issued in a civil action brought under this Act, the Division may commence proceedings to compel compliance with such order.

(e) Any civil action brought under this section and any proceedings brought under subsection (i) of this section shall be subject to appeal as provided in the North Carolina Rules of Appellate Procedure for actions decided in and orders entered by superior courts in this State.

(f) In any action or proceeding under this Article, the court, in its discretion, may allow the prevailing party, other than the Division and the Agency for Civil Rights, a reasonable attorneys' fee (including expert fees) as part of the costs, and the Commission and the United States shall be liable for other costs the same as a private person except that where an investigation or preliminary investigation by the Division prior to the filing of the action resulted in a finding of reasonable cause, the court shall be precluded from finding that the action filed was frivolous, unreasonable, or without foundation.

"§ 169-3-10. Pattern and practice referrals.

Whenever the Director of the Division of Fair Employment has reasonable cause to believe that any person or group of persons is engaged in a pattern or practice of resistance to the full enjoyment of any of the rights secured by this Article, and that the pattern or practice is of such a nature and is intended to deny the full exercise of the rights herein described, the Director shall refer the matter to the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission for investigation as a pattern and practice case.

"§ 169-3-11. Investigations, inspections, records.

(a) In connection with any investigation of a charge filed under this Article, the Division of Fair Employment Practices or its designated representative shall at all reasonable times have access to, for the purposes of examination, and the right to copy any evidence of any person being investigated or proceeded against that relates to unlawful employment practices covered by this Article and is relevant to the charge under investigation.

(b) Every employer and employment agency subject to this Article shall:

(1) Make and keep records relevant to the determinations of whether unlawful employment practices have been or are being committed;

(2) Preserve the records and reports for those periods; and

(3) Make such reports therefrom as the Division of Fair Employment Practices may prescribe by regulation or order, after public hearing, as reasonable, necessary, or appropriate for the enforcement of this Article or rules adopted pursuant to this Article.

The Division of Fair Employment Practices shall adopt rules to require each employer and employment agency subject to this Article that controls an apprenticeship or other training program to maintain such records as are reasonably necessary to carry out the purposes of this Article, including, a list of applicants who wish to participate in the program (including the chronological order in which applications were received) and to furnish to the Division of Fair Employment Practices, upon request, a detailed description of the manner in which individuals are selected to participate in the apprenticeship or other training program. Any employer or employment agency which believes that the application to it of any rule or order issued under this subsection would result in undue hardship may apply to the Division of Fair Employment Practices for an exemption from the application of the rule or order, and, if the application for an exemption is denied, bring a civil action in the State superior court for the district where the records are kept. If the Division or the court, as appropriate, finds that the application of the regulation or order to the employer or employment agency in question would impose an undue hardship, the Division or the court, as the case may be, may grant appropriate relief. If any person required to comply with the provisions of this subsection fails or refuses to do so, the State superior court for the district in which such person is found, resides, or transacts business, shall, upon application of the Director of the Division of Fair Employment, have jurisdiction to issue to such person an order requiring him to comply.

(c) In prescribing requirements pursuant to this section, the Director of the DFEP shall consult with other interested State and federal agencies and shall endeavor to coordinate DFEP's requirements with those adopted by those agencies.

(d) It shall be unlawful for any officer or employee of the Division of Fair Employment Practices and the Agency to make public in any manner whatever any information obtained by the Division pursuant to its authority under this section prior to the institution of any proceeding under this Article involving such information. Any officer or employee of the Agency who shall make public in any manner whatever any information in violation of this subsection shall be guilty of a misdemeanor or shall be subject to the assessment of civil penalties of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000).

"§ 169-3-12. Posting of notices; penalties.

(a) Every employer and employment agency shall post and keep posted in conspicuous places upon its premises where notices to employees and applicants for employment are customarily posted a notice to be prepared or approved by the Division of Fair Employment setting forth excerpts from, or summaries of, the pertinent provisions of this Article, the State Fair Employment Act, and information pertinent to the filing of a complaint.

(b) Any person who willfully violates this section shall be subject to civil penalties of not more than one hundred dollars ($100.00) for each separate violation.

(b) The Director of the DCRHC may refer any evidence as is available concerning violations of this Chapter or of any rule or order hereunder to the proper district attorney for consideration of the institution of appropriate criminal proceedings under Chapter 14 of the General Statutes.

"§ 169-7-3. Preliminary reports.

"§ 169-7-4. Confidentiality.

Except as required by law, no investigator, examiner, agent, or other representative of the Agency shall make public, in any manner, information gathered or received while conducting Preliminary Investigations under Articles 5 and 6 of this Chapter. The Director of the Division of Community Relations and Hate Crimes shall prescribe rules for the release of information and documents related to actions pursuant to this Article and shall have the discretion to seal or redact such portions of the reports as may reveal identities of minors, the salacious details of criminal acts, or as may otherwise be commonly held confidential by law enforcement agencies in this State pursuant to G.S. 132-1.4.

"§ 169-7-5. Service of preliminary reports.

The Commissioner shall serve a copy of the Agency's Preliminary Report upon the appropriate district attorney's office and upon the Office of the North Carolina Attorney General following each investigation authorized by this Article. SECTION 3.(c) No action or proceeding pending at the time the North Carolina Omnibus Civil Rights Act takes effect brought by or against any State office, commission, council, or other governmental subunit whose functions, powers, and duties are transferred by this act to the North Carolina Agency for Civil Rights shall be affected by any provision of this act, but the same may be prosecuted or defended in the name of the Commissioner of the North Carolina Agency for Civil Rights. In these actions and proceedings, the Commissioner shall be substituted as a party upon proper application to the courts or other administrative or quasi-judicial bodies.

Any business or other matter undertaken or commanded by any State program or office or contract transferred by this act to the North Carolina Agency for Civil Rights, or by the commissioners or directors thereof, pertaining to or connected with the functions, powers, obligations, and duties set forth herein, which is pending on January 1, 2008, may be conducted and completed by the North Carolina Agency for Civil Rights in the same manner and under the same terms and conditions and with the same effect as if conducted and completed by the original program, office, or commissioners, or directors thereof.

SECTION 4.(a) A six-month transition period from July 1, 2007, through December 31, 2007, shall include staffing activities and administrative and programmatic planning. Nomination and confirmation of the Commissioner of the North Carolina Agency for Civil Rights shall occur as soon as practicable after July 1, 2007. The Commissioner may undertake necessary actions to ensure an orderly and efficient transfer of functions and personnel on or before January 1, 2008, including assembling a transition team and entering into leases on behalf of the Agency. The transition staff may include Deputy Commissioners, a General Counsel, Division Directors, administrative personnel, and other staff as appropriate. Office space may be obtained for the transition team. The Commissioner is further authorized to immediately begin the search for a location for the consolidated Agency for Civil Rights.

SECTION 4.(b) Sections 1(a), 1(b), and 1(c) of this act become effective July 1, 2007. The substantive provisions of Article 3, Article 5, and Article 7 of Chapter 169 of the General Statutes as enacted in Section 2 hereof, and Section 1(d) this act, become effective January 1, 2008. The remainder of this act is effective when it becomes law.

HOUSE BILL 316:
Amend Civil Procedure Rule 45

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	July 26, 2007
Introduced by:	Rep. Daughtry	Summary by:	Jennifer McGinnis
Version:	PCS to Third Edition H316-CSRI-33 [v. 2]		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: The proposed committee substitute (PCS) for House Bill 316 would amend Rule 45 of the Rules of Civil Procedure to require that when a subpoena is served directing a person to produce designated records, the party or attorney issuing the subpoena must, within five business days of receipt of the material, provide notice to all other parties of receipt of the material produced. The party or attorney issuing the subpoena must also, upon request, provide all other parties reasonable opportunity to inspect and copy the material produced at the expense of the inspecting party.

CURRENT LAW: Rule 45 of the Rules of Civil Procedure, as set out in Chapter 1A of the General Statutes, provides for the issuance of a subpoena directing a person to attend and give testimony in a matter or to produce and permit inspection of designated records that are in the person's custody or control. A subpoena may be served by the sheriff, a coroner, or any person at least 18 who is not a party to the action. A copy of the subpoena must be served upon each party to the action by delivering a copy to the party or by mailing it to the party at the party's last known address. Delivery of a copy includes handing it to the attorney or to the party, leaving it at the attorney's office with an employee, or sending a faxed copy with confirmation. A person commanded to appear at a deposition or to produce and permit the inspection and copying of records may, within 10 days after service of the subpoena or before the time specified for compliance if the time is less than 10 days after service, serve upon the party or the attorney designated in the subpoena written objection to the subpoena, setting forth the specific grounds for the objection. Each of the following grounds may be sufficient for objecting to a subpoena:

a. The subpoena fails to allow reasonable time for compliance.
b. The subpoena requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter and no exception or waiver applies to the privilege or protection.
c. The subpoena subjects a person to an undue burden.
d. The subpoena is otherwise unreasonable or oppressive.
e. The subpoena is procedurally defective.

BILL ANALYSIS: The PCS for House Bill 316 would require that when a subpoena is served directing a person to produce designated records, the party or attorney issuing the subpoena must, within five business days of receipt of the material, provide notice to all other parties of receipt of the material produced. The party or attorney issuing the subpoena must also, upon request, provide all other parties reasonable opportunity to inspect and copy the material produced at the expense of the inspecting party.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The bill would become effective October 1, 2007 and apply to actions filed on or after that date.

A copy of the renunciation shall be delivered in person or mailed by registered or certified mail to any personal representative, or other fiduciary of the decedent or donee of the power. If the property interest renounced includes any proceeds of a life insurance policy being renounced pursuant to G.S. 31B-1(a)(5) the person renouncing shall mail, by registered or certified mail, a copy of the renunciation to the insurance company issuing the policy. (e) If an instrument transferring an interest in or right, privilege, power, or immunity over property subject to a renunciation is required or permitted by law to be filed or registered, the instrument of renunciation may be so filed or registered. Statement re. HB 573, Authorize Judge/Concealed Weapon in Court:
NC Is Not the Only State to Prohibit Judges from Carrying Guns in Their Courtrooms
General Brief Statement Against HB 573

Lisa Price, Executive Director, North Carolinians Against Gun Violence
July 26, 2007

In yesterday's meeting of the Senate J II Committee meeting, Henri McClees, lobbyist for the NC Firearms Dealers Group and NC Sporting Dog Association, made a shocking statement: North Carolina is the only state that does not allow judges to carry concealed handguns in their courtrooms. Where did she get this information? We had never heard this before, either from supporters or opponents of HB 573.

We learned from the Brady Center to Prevent Gun Violence and the Legal Community Against Violence that South Carolina, Tennessee, and Illinois forbid carrying guns in public buildings, including courthouses. While there are some exceptions, such as for law enforcement, judges are not excepted.

The statement by the lobbyist favoring HB 573 is not correct; NC is not the only state to prohibit judges from carrying concealed guns in their courtrooms.

Vote Against HB 573:
This unnecessary bill attempts to solve a problem that has not been proven to exist. There are not reports of judges being shot at in their courtrooms.

The bill is supposed to protect judges but actually puts the public, and judges especially, at risk. There could be shootouts in court and judges might be targeted because a criminal would assume that the judge is armed.

Court law enforcement officers, not judges, are trained how to handle volatile situations.

If there is a problem in protecting people in courthouses, law enforcement protection could be increased by adding more bailiffs, more metal detectors, better training, added security measures, etc.

If this bill passes, other courthouse personnel, such as district attorneys and magistrates, might seek the same authority.

Who will come next to carry guns: teachers, principals, & others in government buildings?

ADVANCE DIRECTIVE FOR A NATURAL DEATH ("LIVING WILL")

NOTE: YOU SHOULD USE THIS DOCUMENT TO GIVE YOUR HEALTH CARE PROVIDERS INSTRUCTIONS TO WITHHOLD OR WITHDRAW LIFE-PROLONGING MEASURES IN CERTAIN SITUATIONS. THERE IS NO LEGAL REQUIREMENT THAT ANYONE EXECUTE A LIVING WILL.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS: You can use this Advance Directive ("Living Will") form to give instructions for the future if you want your health care providers to withhold or withdraw life-prolonging measures in certain situations. You should talk to your doctor about what these terms mean. The Living Will states what choices you would have made for yourself if you were able to communicate. Talk to your family members, friends, and others you trust about your choices. Also, it is a good idea to talk with professionals such as your doctors, clergypersons, and lawyers before you complete and sign this Living Will.

You do not have to use this form to give those instructions, but if you create your own Advance Directive you need to be very careful to ensure that it is consistent with North Carolina law.

This Living Will form is intended to be valid in any jurisdiction in which it is presented, but places outside North Carolina may impose requirements that this form does not meet.

If you want to use this form, you must complete it, sign it, and have your signature witnessed by two qualified witnesses and proved by a notary public. Follow the instructions about which choices you can initial very carefully. Do not sign this form until two witnesses and a notary public are present to watch you sign it. You then should consider giving a copy to your primary physician and/or a trusted relative, and should consider filing it with the Advanced Health Care Directive Registry maintained by the North Carolina Secretary of State: http://www.nclifelinks.org/ahcdr/

SECTION 11.(e) G.S. 90-321 is amended by adding the following new subsections to read:

"(k) Notwithstanding subsection (c) of this section:

(1) An attending physician may decline to honor a declaration that expresses a desire of the declarant that life-prolonging measures not be used if doing so would violate that physician's conscience or the conscience-based policy of the facility at which the declarant is being treated; provided, an attending physician who declines to honor a declaration on these grounds must not interfere, and must cooperate reasonably, with efforts to substitute an attending physician whose conscience would not be violated by honoring the declaration, or transfer the declarant to a facility that does not have policies in force that prohibit honoring the declaration.

(2) An attending physician may decline to honor a declaration if after reasonable inquiry there are reasonable grounds to question the genuineness or validity of a declaration. The subsection imposes no duty on the attending physician to verify a declaration's genuineness or validity.

(l) Notwithstanding subsection (c) of this section, a declaration or similar document executed in a jurisdiction other than North Carolina shall be valid in this State if it appears to have been executed in accordance with the applicable requirements of that jurisdiction or this State."

(b) A consent which is evidenced in writing and which meets the foregoing standards, and which is signed by the patient or other authorized person, shall be presumed to be a valid consent. This presumption, however, may be subject to rebuttal only upon proof that such consent was obtained by fraud, deception or misrepresentation of a material fact. A consent that meets the foregoing standards, that is given by a patient, or other authorized person, who under all the surrounding circumstances has capacity to make and communicate health care decisions, is a valid consent.

(c) ~~A valid consent is one which is given by a person who under all the surrounding circumstances is mentally and physically competent to give consent.~~ The following persons, in the order indicated, are authorized to consent to medical treatment on behalf of a patient who is comatose or otherwise lacks capacity to make or communicate health care decisions:

(1) A guardian of the patient's person, or a general guardian with powers over the patient's person, appointed by a court of competent jurisdiction pursuant to Article 5 of Chapter 35A of the General Statutes; provided that, if the patient has a health care agent appointed pursuant to a valid health care power of attorney, the health care agent shall have the right to exercise the authority to the extent granted in the health care power of attorney and to the extent provided in G.S. 32A-19(b) unless the Clerk has suspended the authority of that health care agent in accordance with G.S. 35A-1208(a);

(2) A health care agent appointed pursuant to a valid health care power of attorney, to the extent of the authority granted;

(3) An attorney-in-fact, with powers to make health care decisions for the patient, appointed by the patient pursuant to Article 1 or Article 2 of Chapter 32A of the General Statutes, to the extent of the authority granted;

(4) The patient's spouse;

(5) A majority of the patient's reasonably available parents and children who are at least 18 years of age;

(6) A majority of the patient's reasonably available siblings who are at least 18 years of age; or

(7) An individual who has an established relationship with the patient, who is acting in good faith on behalf of the patient, and who can reliably convey the patient's wishes.

(c1) If none of the persons listed under subsection (c) of this section is reasonably available, then the patient's attending physician, in the attending physician's discretion, may provide health care treatment without the consent of the patient or other person authorized to consent for the patient if there is confirmation by a physician other than the patient's attending physician of the patient's condition and the necessity for treatment; provided, however, that confirmation of the patient's condition and the necessity for treatment are not required if the delay in obtaining the confirmation would endanger the life or seriously worsen the condition of the patient.

(d) No action may be maintained against any health care provider upon any guarantee, warranty or assurance as to the result of any medical, surgical or diagnostic procedure or treatment unless the guarantee, warranty or assurance, or some note or memorandum thereof, shall be in writing and signed by the provider or by some other person authorized to act for or on behalf of such provider.

(e) In the event of any conflict between the provisions of this section and those of ~~G.S. 35A-1245~~G.S. 35A-1245, 90-21.17, and 90-322, ~~and~~ Articles 1A and 19 of Chapter 90, and Article 3 of Chapter 122C of the General Statutes, the provisions of those sections and Articles shall control and continue in full force and effect."

SECTION 14. G.S. 90-21.17 reads as rewritten:

"§ 90-21.17. Portable do not resuscitate ~~order.~~order and Medical Order for Scope of Treatment.

(a) It is the intent of this section to recognize a patient's desire and right to withhold cardiopulmonary resuscitation and other life-prolonging measures to avoid loss of dignity and unnecessary pain and suffering through the use of a portable do not resuscitate ("DNR") ~~order.~~order or a Medical Order for Scope of Treatment (MOST).

This section establishes an optional and nonexclusive procedure by which a patient or the patient's representative may exercise this right.

(b) A physician may issue a portable DNR order or MOST for a patient:

(1) With the consent of the patient;

(2) If the patient is a minor, with the consent of the patient's parent or guardian; or

(3) If the patient is not a minor but is incapable of making an informed decision regarding consent for the order, with the consent of the patient's representative.

The physician shall document the basis for the DNR order or MOST in the patient's medical record. When the order is a MOST, the patient or the patient's representative must sign the form, provided, however, that if it is not practicable for the patient's representative to sign the original MOST form, the patient's representative shall sign a copy of the completed form and return it to the health care professional completing the form. The copy of the form with the signature of the patient's representative, whether in paper or electronic form, shall be placed in the patient's medical record. When the signature of the patient's representative is on a separate copy of the MOST form, the original MOST form must indicate in the appropriate signature field that the signature is "on file".

(c) The Department of Health and Human Services shall develop a portable DNR order ~~form.~~form and a MOST form. The official DNR form shall include fields for the name of the patient; the name, address, and telephone number of the physician; the signature of the physician; and other relevant information. At a minimum, the official MOST form shall include fields for: the name of the patient; an advisory that a patient is not required to have a MOST; the name, telephone number, and signature of the physician, physician assistant, or nurse practitioner authorizing the order; the name and contact information of the health care professional who prepared the form with the patient or the patient's representative; information on who agreed (i.e., the patient or the patient's representative) to the options selected on the MOST form; a range of options for cardiopulmonary resuscitation, medical interventions, antibiotics, medically administered fluids and nutrition; patient or patient representative's name, contact information, and signature; effective date of the form and review dates; a prominent advisory that directions in a MOST form may suspend, while those MOST directions are in effect, any conflicting directions in a patient's previously executed declaration of an advance directive for a natural death ("living will"), health care power of attorney, or other legally authorized instrument; and an advisory that the MOST may be revoked by the patient or the patient's representative. The official MOST form shall also include the following statement written in boldface type directly above the signature line: 'You are not required to sign this form to receive treatment.' The form may be approved by reference to a standard form that meets the requirements of this subsection. For purposes of this section, the "patient's representative" means an individual from the list of persons authorized to consent to the withholding of ~~extraordinary care~~ life-prolonging measures pursuant to ~~G.S. 90-322 or an individual who has an established relationship with the patient, who is acting in good faith on behalf of the patient, and who can reliably convey the patient's wishes.~~G.S. 90-322.

(d) No physician, emergency medical professional, hospice provider, or other health care provider shall be subject to criminal prosecution, civil liability, or disciplinary action by any professional licensing or certification agency for withholding cardiopulmonary resuscitation or other life-prolonging measures from a patient in good faith reliance on an original DNR order or MOST form adopted pursuant to subsection (c) of this section, provided that (i) there are no reasonable grounds for doubting the validity of the order or the identity of the patient, and (ii) the provider does not have actual knowledge of the revocation of the portable DNR ~~order.~~order or MOST. No physician, emergency medical professional, hospice provider, or other health care provider shall be subject to criminal prosecution, civil liability, or disciplinary action by any professional licensing or certification agency for failure to follow a DNR order or MOST form adopted pursuant to subsection (c) of this section if the provider had no actual knowledge of the existence of the DNR ~~order.~~order or MOST.

(e) A health care facility may develop policies and procedures that authorize the facility's provider to accept a portable DNR order or MOST as if it were an order of the medical staff of that facility. This section does not prohibit a physician in a health care facility from issuing a written order, other than a portable DNR ~~order,~~order or MOST not to resuscitate a patient in the event of cardiac or respiratory arrest, or to use, withhold, or withdraw additional medical interventions as provided in the MOST, in accordance with acceptable medical practice and the facility's policies.

(f) Nothing in this section shall affect the validity of portable DNR order or MOST forms in existence prior to the effective date of this section."

SECTION 15.(a) G.S. 122C-3(20) reads as rewritten:

"(20) "Legally responsible person" means: (i) when applied to an adult, who has been adjudicated incompetent, a guardian; (ii) when applied to a minor, a parent, guardian, a person standing in loco parentis, or a legal custodian other than a parent who has been granted specific authority by law or in a custody order to consent for medical care, including psychiatric treatment; or (iii) when applied to an adult who is incapable as defined in G.S. 122C-72(c) and who has not been adjudicated incompetent, a health care agent named pursuant to a valid health care power of ~~attorney as prescribed in Article 3 of Chapter 32 of the General Statutes.~~attorney."

SECTION 15.(b) G.S. 122C-57(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) Each voluntarily admitted ~~client, the client's legally responsible person, or a health care agent named pursuant to a valid health care power of attorney~~ client or the client's legally responsible person (including a health care agent named pursuant to a valid health care power of attorney) has the right to consent to or refuse any treatment offered by the facility. Consent may be withdrawn at any time by the person who gave the consent. If treatment is refused, the qualified professional shall determine whether treatment in some other modality is possible. If all appropriate treatment modalities are refused, the voluntarily admitted client may be discharged. In an emergency, a voluntarily admitted client may be administered treatment or medication, other than those specified in subsection (f) of this section, despite the refusal of the ~~client, the client's legally responsible person, a health care agent named pursuant to a valid health care power of attorney, or~~ client or the client's legally responsible person, even if the client's refusal is expressed in a valid advance instruction for mental health treatment. The Commission may adopt rules to provide a procedure to be followed when a voluntarily admitted client refuses treatment."

SECTION 16. G.S. 130A-468(c) and (d) read as rewritten:

"(c) When the Secretary of State receives a revocation of a document that is filed with the registry and that document's file number and password, or a request to remove that document from the registry without its revocation, the Secretary shall delete that document from the registry database.

(d) The Secretary of State's entry of a document ~~into~~ into, or removal of a document from, the registry database does not do any of the following:

(1) Affect the validity of the document in whole or in part.

(2) Relate to the accuracy of information contained in the document.

(3) Create a presumption regarding the validity of the document, regarding the accuracy of information contained in the document, or that the statutory requirements for the document have been met."

SECTION 17. G.S. 28A-13-1 reads as rewritten:

"§ 28A-13-1. Time of accrual of duties and powers.

The duties and powers of a personal representative commence upon his or her appointment. The powers of a personal representative relate back to give acts by the person appointed which are beneficial to the estate occurring prior to appointment the same effect as those occurring thereafter. ~~Prior to appointment,~~ However, a person named executor in a will ~~may~~ may, prior to appointment, carry out written instructions of the decedent relating to ~~his~~ the decedent's body, funeral and burial ~~arrangements.~~arrangements; provided that a health care agent authorized in a valid health care power of attorney to make body, funeral, and burial arrangements shall have precedence in making these arrangements, both before and after qualification of the decedent's personal representative, to the extent provided in G.S. 32A-19(b). A personal representative may ratify and accept acts on behalf of the estate done by others where the acts would have been proper for a personal representative."

SECTION 18. The Legislative Research Commission shall study the issue of whether North Carolina law should be amended to allow a person to require life-prolonging measures. The LRC shall involve all stakeholders in the study. The LRC shall report its recommendations to the 2008 Session of the 2007 General Assembly.

SECTION 19. The North Carolina Institute of Medicine (Institute) shall study issues related to the provision of end-of-life medical care in North Carolina. As part of the study, the Division of Health Service Regulation, Department of Health and Human Services, and the North Carolina Board of Medicine shall provide to the Institute nonidentifying information regarding claims and complaints related to end-of-life medical treatment by health care providers that was contrary to the express wishes of either the patient or a person authorized by law to make treatment decisions on behalf of the patient. The Institute may review any other data related to end-of-life medical care and treatment the Institute determines is relevant.

The purpose of this study is to determine whether statutory changes related to advance directives and health care powers of attorney impact the type and quantity of end-of-life medical care provided to patients, whether the patient's or patient representative's express wishes regarding the provision of treatment at the end of life are being honored, and whether there is any change in the number of persons who request continued treatment at the end of their lives, but do not receive that treatment.

The Institute shall report its findings to the following entities no later than January 30, 2013:

(1) The 2013 General Assembly.
(2) The North Carolina Bar Association.
(3) The North Carolina Medical Society.

SECTION 20. This act is effective October 1, 2007.

HOUSE BILL 634:
Advance Directives/Health Care Pwr. Atty

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	July 27, 2007
Introduced by:	Rep. Ross	Summary by:	Kory Goldsmith Committee Counsel
Version:	PCS to Second Edition H634-CSRC-69

SUMMARY: The Proposed Committee Substitute to House Bill 634 completely rewrites the original bill and inserts the contents of Senate Bill 1046 as it crossed from the Senate to the House. In its current form, H634 amends laws related to Health Care Powers of Attorney, Advance Directives/Living Wills, and Guardianship statutes to allow individuals to make clear choices about their medical treatment, especially end of life treatments.

CURRENT LAW: Article 23 of Chapter 90 authorizes "Living Wills" and was enacted in 1979. Article 3 of Chapter 32A authorizes health care powers of attorney and was enacted in 1991. Part 2 of Article 3 of Chapter 122C authorizes an instruction for mental health treatment and was enacted in 1997. There are also scattered statutes related to the authority of health care agents, especially in the event there is also a court appointed guardian. In general, when a person has executed both a Health Care Power of Attorney and a Living Will, the terms of the Living Will control over the health care agent designation.[1] A similar situation exists when there is a health care agent, and a court appoints a guardian.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 amends G.S. 32A-15(c) to provide that either a living will or a health care power of attorney (HCPOA) may provide that the health care power of attorney takes precedence over a living will, and that provision will not create a conflict between the two documents. Under current law, it is not clear whether this situation does create a conflict. However, because current law gives a living will precedence over a HCPOA in the event of a conflict, it could be argued that the living will always "trumps" the HCPOA.

This section also makes it clear that if a living will does not speak directly to a medical condition and the HCPOA does, the HCPOA controls. It notes that the law does not authorize any action or omission to end life other than to permit the natural process of dying.

Section 2 amends the definitions related to HCPOAs. It also specifies that the notary may be an employee of the attending physician or employed by the health care facility where the principal is being treated.

Also changes the terminology from "life-sustaining procedures" to "life-prolonging measures". These are medical procedures or interventions which, in the judgment of the attending physician, serve only to postpone artificially the moment of death by sustaining, restoring, or supplanting a vital function.

Section 3 replaces terminology, but also makes it clear that if a health care agent has the authority to make decisions regarding the disposition of the principal's remains, those decisions are limited to incurring reasonable costs and does not give the health care agent broader authority over the principal's estate or financial affairs.

[1] G.S. 32A-15(c).

Section 4 creates a procedure by which a guardian of the principal may petition a court to suspend the authority of a health care agent during the term of the guardianship. The court may suspend the agent's authority for good cause shown, but must specify whether the guardian must act consistently with the HCPOA. Also creates immunity for a health care provider who relies upon a HCPOA until the provider receives actual notice of the court's order suspending the HCPOA.

Section 5(a) changes the terminology to be consistent with new definitions. Section 5(b) adds a new subsection to G.S. 32A-24 to clarify that a health care provider may rely upon the authority of a health care agent contained in a HCPOA, whether the HCPOA is executed in another jurisdiction, executed under the previous statutory form, or does not use the statutory form but does comply with applicable laws. The health care provider may rely upon the HCPOA until receiving actual notice of its revocation.

Section 6(a) repeals the current statutory HCPOA. Section 6(b) creates a new HCPOA statutory form, G.S. 32A-25.1(a). The form attempts to clarify the consequences of certain choices by the principal and also points out that certain provisions purporting to create limitations will not be effective unless the principal specifies the limitations. Also provides that use of the statutory form is optional, and is a nonexclusive method for creating a HCPOA. Subsection (b) of new G.S. 32A-25.1 provides that the new statutory form does not affect the use of previously executed HCPOAs.

Section 7 creates G.S. 32A-27 which provides that a HCPOA executed in another jurisdiction shall be valid in North Carolina if it appears it was executed in compliance with the law of the other state or the laws of North Carolina.

Section 8 allows a guardian of the person or legal guardian to petition the Clerk of Court to suspend the authority of a health care agent. It also specifies that the guardian does not have the authority to revoke a Living Will.

Section 9 clarifies that a health care agent has the right to make health care decisions for a ward for whom a legal guardian or guardian of the person has been appointed unless the Clerk has suspended that authority.

Section 10 revises terminology. Also makes it clear that military advance directives are recognized under North Carolina law.

Section 11(a) amends G.S. 90-321 regarding Advance Directives or Living Wills. It defines a "Declaration" as any signed, witnessed, dated and notarized document that otherwise meets the requirements of the Article. The witnesses must not have any interest in the declarant's estate or be an employee of the health care provider. It repeals the definition of "extraordinary means" and substitutes "life-prolonging measures" as that term is defined in the HCPOA statutes. It also repeals the term "persistent vegetative state."

It amends G.S. 90-321(b) and (c) to allow an attending physician to withhold life-prolonging measures if the declarant has properly executed a living will, and the attending physician determines that the declarant:

- has an incurable or irreversible condition that will result in the declarant's death in a relatively short period of time;
- is unconscious and, to a high degree of medical certainty, will never regain consciousness; or
- suffers from advanced dementia or any other condition resulting in the substantial loss of cognitive ability and, to a high degree of medical certainty, is not reversible.

AND

- The declarant's condition is confirmed by another physician, if one is reasonably available.

AND

- The Living Will states that the declarant understands that the document authorizes the attending physician to withhold life-prolonging measures.

Current law allows an attending physician to withhold artificial nutrition or hydration pursuant to a Living Will if: the declarant is terminally ill or diagnosed as being in a persistent vegetative state and these medical conditions are confirmed by a second medical opinion. The Declaration must be in writing, signed by the declarant and two witnesses, and notarized.

Section 11(b) repeals the current statutory form for Living Wills

Section 11(c) creates a new statutory form for Living Wills that reflects the statutory changes.

Sections 11(d) and (e) clarify that a Declaration may be revoked orally or in writing without regard to a declarant's mental or physical condition. Current law makes a revocation effective only upon communication of the revocation to the attending physician by the declarant or an individual acting on behalf of the declarant. It provides immunity to a health care provider who acts in accordance with a revoked declaration unless the health care provider has actual knowledge of the revocation. Also extends the protections to a Declaration that is executed in another jurisdiction, and one that does not conform to the statutory form. It also prohibits a health care agent from revoking a declaration unless the HCPOA explicitly grants the agent this authority.

Section 11(e) creates a new subdivision (k) for G.S. 90-321 to allow a physician to decline to honor a Declaration if doing so would violate the physician's conscience or the conscience-based policy of the facility where the declarant is being treated. It also allows a physician to decline to honor a Declaration if after reasonable inquiry, there are reasonable grounds to question the genuineness or validity of the document.

Section 12 amends G.S. 90-322 regarding situations where life-prolonging measures may be withheld in the absence of a Declaration. If the attending physician determines that:

- To a high degree of medical certainty, the person lacks capacity to make or communicate health care decisions and the person will never regain that capacity AND
- a patient has an incurable or irreversible condition that will lead to that person's death in a relatively short period of time, OR
- the patient is unconscious and unlikely to regain consciousness.

AND

- That condition is confirmed by another physician.

AND

- A bodily function could be restored or is being sustained by life-prolonging measures,

THEN

The life-prolonging measures may be withheld or discontinued at the direction and under the supervision of the attending physician with the concurrence of the following individuals, in descending order:

- A health care agent appointed under a valid HCPOA, unless that authority has been suspended by a court in favor of a court appointed guardian of the person or general guardian, in which case the court appointed guardian takes priority.
- An attorney-in-fact with powers to make health care decisions for the principal.
- The patient's spouse.
- A majority of the patient's reasonably available parents and children who are at least 18 years of age.
- A majority of the patient's reasonably available siblings who are at least 18 years of age.
- An individual who has an established relationship with the patient, who is acting in good faith on behalf of the patient, and who can reliably convey the patient's wishes.
- If none of these are reasonably available, the attending physician may withhold or discontinue life-prolonging measures.

Current law gives priority decision-making to the following in descending order: a health care agent, then a guardian of the person, then the person's spouse, then a majority of the relatives of the first degree.

Section 13 amends G.S. 90-21.13 regarding informed consent to medical treatment under the medical malpractice provisions of the statutes. It sets out, in descending order, the persons who may give valid consent to medical treatment if the patient is comatose or otherwise lacks the capacity to make or communicate health care decisions. The same individuals are listed in the same order as those in Section 12 regarding the withholding or discontinuance of life-prolonging measures.

Current law provides that the patient's spouse, parent, guardian, or nearest relative may give the consent. It does not prioritize among those individuals.

Section 14 amends G.S. 90-21.17 regarding do not resuscitate orders (DNRs). It adds to the statutes Medical Order for Scope of Treatment (MOST). A MOST could be issued by a physician pursuant to the same consents necessary for a DNR. However, if the consent is given by the patient's representative, the representative must sign the MOST. The statute would also specify the information that must be contained on a MOST form.

Section 15(a), (b) and (c) amend provisions in Chapter 122C regarding advance instruction for mental health treatment to make those provisions conform to other changes already discussed.

Section 16 amends G.S. 130A-468 regarding the Advance Directive Registry maintained by the Secretary of State to provide that removal of a document from the registry database does not affect the validity of the document, relate to the accuracy of the information contained in the document, or create a presumption of validity regarding the document or the information contained in the document.

Section 17 amends G.S. 28A-13-1 to provide that if a HCPOA grants a health care agent the authority to make decisions related to the disposition of the principal's body, that authority takes priority over the authority of a personal representative regarding the same.

Section 18 directs the Legislative Research Commission (LRC) to study the issue of whether North Carolina should amend its laws to allow for a person to require that medical care be provided. The LRC would be required to report to the 2008 Session of the 2007 General Assembly.

Section 19 directs the North Carolina Institute of Medicine to study issues related to providing end-of-life medical care in North Carolina. The purpose is to determine whether the statutory changes to advance directives and health care powers of attorney impact the type and quality of care, whether the patient or the patient's or the patient representative's wishes are being honored, and whether there is any change to the number of persons who request continued treatment at the end of their lives. The Institute must report its findings no later than January 20, 2013 to the 2013 General Assembly, the North Carolina Bar Association, and the North Carolina Medical Society.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The act is effective October 1, 2007.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO ENACT THE SCHOOL VIOLENCE PREVENTION ACT.

Whereas, the General Assembly of North Carolina finds that a safe and civil environment in school is necessary in order for students to learn and achieve high academic standards; and

Whereas, bullying and harassment, like other disruptive or violent behaviors, is conduct that disrupts both a student's ability to learn and a school's ability to educate its students in a safe environment; and

Whereas, bullying and harassing behaviors create a climate that fosters violence in our schools; and

Whereas, it is essential to enact a law that seeks to protect the health and welfare of North Carolina students and improve the learning environment for North Carolina students; Now, therefore,

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Subchapter VI of Chapter 115C of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new Article to read:

"Article 29B.

"School Violence Prevention.

"§ 115C-407.5. Bullying and harassing behavior.

(a) As used in this Article, "bullying or harassing behavior" is any pattern of gestures or written, electronic, or verbal communications, or any physical act or any threatening communication, that takes place on school property, at any school-sponsored function, or on a school bus, and that:

(1) Places a student or school employee in actual and reasonable fear of harm to his or her person or damage to his or her property; or

(2) Creates or is certain to create a hostile environment by substantially interfering with or impairing a student's educational performance, opportunities, or benefits. For purposes of this section, "hostile environment" means that the victim subjectively views the conduct as bullying or harassing behavior and the conduct is objectively severe or pervasive enough that a reasonable person would agree that it is bullying or harassing behavior.

(b) No student or school employee shall be subjected to bullying or harassing behavior by school employees or students.

(c) No person shall engage in any act of reprisal or retaliation against a victim, witness, or a person with reliable information about an act of bullying or harassing behavior.

(d) A school employee, student, or volunteer who has witnessed or has reliable information that a student or school employee has been subject to any act of bullying or harassing behavior shall report the incident to the appropriate school official.

"§ 115C-407.6. Policy against bullying or harassing behavior.

(a) Before December 31, 2007, each local school administrative unit shall adopt a policy prohibiting bullying or harassing behavior.

(b) The policy shall contain, at a minimum, the following components:

(1) A statement prohibiting bullying or harassing behavior.

(2) A definition of bullying or harassing behavior no less inclusive than that set forth in this Article.

(3) A description of the type of behavior expected from each student and school employee.

(4) Consequences and appropriate remedial action for a person who commits an act of bullying or harassment.

(5) A procedure for reporting an act of bullying or harassment, including a provision that permits a person to report such an act anonymously. This shall not be construed to permit formal disciplinary action solely on the basis of an anonymous report.

(6) A procedure for prompt investigation of reports of serious violations and complaints of any act of bullying or harassment, identifying either the principal or the principal's designee as the person responsible for the investigation.

(7) A statement that prohibits reprisal or retaliation against any person who reports an act of bullying or harassment, and the consequence and appropriate remedial action for a person who engages in reprisal or retaliation.

(8) A statement of how the policy is to be disseminated and publicized, including notice that the policy applies to participation in school-sponsored functions.

(c) Notice of the local policy shall appear in any school unit publication that sets forth the comprehensive rules, procedures, and standards of conduct for schools within the school unit and in any student and school employee handbook.

(d) Information regarding the local policy against bullying or harassing behavior shall be incorporated into a school's employee training program.

(e) To the extent funds are appropriated for these purposes, a local school administrative unit shall:

(1) Provide training on the local policy to school employees and volunteers who have significant contact with students; and

(2) Develop a process for discussing the policy with students.

"§ 115C-407.7. Prevention of school violence.

Schools shall develop and implement methods and strategies for promoting school environments that are free of bullying or harassing behavior.

"§ 115C-407.8. Construction of this Article.

(a) This Article shall not be construed to permit school officials to punish student expression or speech based on an undifferentiated fear or apprehension of disturbance or out of a desire to avoid the discomfort and unpleasantness that always accompany an unpopular viewpoint.

(b) This Article shall not be interpreted to prevent a victim of bullying or harassing behavior from seeking redress under any other available law, either civil or criminal.

(c) Nothing in this Article shall be construed to require an exhaustion of the administrative complaint process before civil or criminal law remedies may be pursued regarding bullying or harassing behavior.

(d) The provisions of this Article are severable, and if any provision of this Article is held invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalidity shall not affect other provisions of this Article which can be given effect without the invalid provision.

(e) The provisions of this Article shall be liberally construed to give effect to its purposes.

Short Title: School Violence Prevention Act. (Public)

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO ENACT THE SCHOOL VIOLENCE PREVENTION ACT.

Whereas, the General Assembly of North Carolina finds that a safe and civil environment in school is necessary in order for students to learn and achieve high academic standards; and

Whereas, bullying and harassment, like other disruptive or violent behaviors, is conduct that disrupts both a student's ability to learn and a school's ability to educate its students in a safe environment; and

Whereas, bullying and harassing behaviors create a climate that fosters violence in our schools; and

Whereas, it is essential to enact a law that seeks to protect the health and welfare of North Carolina students and improve the learning environment for North Carolina students; Now, therefore,

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Subchapter VI of Chapter 115C of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new Article to read:

"Article 29B.

"School Violence Prevention.

"§ 115C-407.5. Bullying and harassing behavior.

(a) As used in this Article, "bullying or harassing behavior" is any pattern of gestures or written, electronic, or verbal communications, or any physical act or any threatening communication, that takes place on school property, at any school-sponsored function, or on a school bus, and that:

(1) Places a student or school employee in actual and reasonable fear of harm to his or her person or damage to his or her property; or

(2) Creates or is certain to create a hostile environment by substantially interfering with or impairing a student's educational performance, opportunities, or benefits. For purposes of this section, "hostile environment" means that the victim subjectively views the conduct as bullying or harassing behavior and the conduct is objectively severe or pervasive enough that a reasonable person would agree that it is bullying or harassing behavior.

(b) No student or school employee shall be subjected to bullying or harassing behavior by school employees or students.

(c) No person shall engage in any act of reprisal or retaliation against a victim, witness, or a person with reliable information about an act of bullying or harassing behavior.

(d) A school employee, student, or volunteer who has witnessed or has reliable information that a student or school employee has been subject to any act of bullying or harassing behavior shall report the incident to the appropriate school official.

"§ 115C-407.6. Policy against bullying or harassing behavior.

(a) Before December 31, 2007, each local school administrative unit shall adopt a policy prohibiting bullying or harassing behavior.

(b) The policy shall contain, at a minimum, the following components:

(1) A statement prohibiting bullying or harassing behavior.

(2) A definition of bullying or harassing behavior no less inclusive than that set forth in this Article.

(3) A description of the type of behavior expected from each student and school employee.

(4) Consequences and appropriate remedial action for a person who commits an act of bullying or harassment.

(5) A procedure for reporting an act of bullying or harassment, including a provision that permits a person to report such an act anonymously. This shall not be construed to permit formal disciplinary action solely on the basis of an anonymous report.

(6) A procedure for prompt investigation of reports of serious violations and complaints of any act of bullying or harassment, identifying either the principal or the principal's designee as the person responsible for the investigation.

(7) A statement that prohibits reprisal or retaliation against any person who reports an act of bullying or harassment, and the consequence and appropriate remedial action for a person who engages in reprisal or retaliation.

(8) A statement of how the policy is to be disseminated and publicized, including notice that the policy applies to participation in school-sponsored functions.

(c) Notice of the local policy shall appear in any school unit publication that sets forth the comprehensive rules, procedures, and standards of conduct for schools within the school unit and in any student and school employee handbook.

(d) Information regarding the local policy against bullying or harassing behavior shall be incorporated into a school's employee training program.

(e) To the extent funds are appropriated for these purposes, a local school administrative unit shall:

(1) Provide training on the local policy to school employees and volunteers who have significant contact with students; and

(2) Develop a process for discussing the policy with students.

"§ 115C-407.7. Prevention of school violence.

Schools shall develop and implement methods and strategies for promoting school environments that are free of bullying or harassing behavior.

"§ 115C-407.8. Construction of this Article.

(a) This Article shall not be construed to permit school officials to punish student expression or speech based on an undifferentiated fear or apprehension of disturbance or out of a desire to avoid the discomfort and unpleasantness that always accompany an unpopular viewpoint.

(b) This Article shall not be interpreted to prevent a victim of bullying or harassing behavior from seeking redress under any other available law, either civil or criminal.

(c) Nothing in this Article shall be construed to require an exhaustion of the administrative complaint process before civil or criminal law remedies may be pursued regarding bullying or harassing behavior.

(d) The provisions of this Article are severable, and if any provision of this Article is held invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalidity shall not affect other provisions of this Article which can be given effect without the invalid provision.

(e) The provisions of this Article shall be liberally construed to give effect to its purposes.

(f) Nothing in this act shall be construed to create any classification or preference beyond those existing in present statute or case law."

SECTION 2. This act is effective when it becomes law and applies beginning with the 2007-2008 school year.

HOUSE BILL 946:
Vandalism Damages More Than $5,000/Felony

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	May 28, 2008
Introduced by:	Reps. Grady, Goforth, Sutton, Yongue	Summary by:	Ben Popkin
Version:	PCS to Second Edition H946-CSRD		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 946 would provide for an increased penalty for vandalism of houses, buildings, and other structures that results in more than $5,000 in damages, making it a Class I felony rather than a Class 2 misdemeanor. The Proposed Committee Substitute to House Bill 946 updates the effective date from December 2007 to December 2008.

CURRENT LAW: Under G.S. 14-444, it is Class 2 misdemeanor to unlawfully and willfully destroy, deface, or otherwise damage houses or other buildings -- including churches, buildings owned or occupied by State or local government entities, public or private schools & colleges, and mobile and manufactured housing. The law also applies to fences, walls and other enclosures. Assuming the offender has no prior convictions, a Class 2 misdemeanor is punishable by 1-30 days community punishment. The disposition may include such things as probation, community service, restitution and/or fines. The maximum fine for a Class 2 misdemeanor is $1,000.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 946 would amend the law pertaining to the criminal offense of destroying, defacing, or otherwise damaging houses, buildings, and other structures. The bill would retain the Class 2 misdemeanor classification for offenses that involve damage of $5,000 or less. Offenses resulting in damage of more than $5,000 would be punishable as a Class I felony. Assuming no prior convictions, the presumptive minimum sentence for a Class I felony is 4-6 months community punishment. The disposition may include such things as probation, community service, restitution and/or fines. The amount of the fine would be in the discretion of the court.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The bill would become effective December 1, 2008 and apply to offenses committed on or after that date

Brenda Carter, counsel to House Judiciary III, substantially contributed to this summary.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO PROVIDE THAT THE COURT MAY CONSIDER A DEFENDANT'S PRIOR WILLFUL FAILURES TO COMPLY WITH CONDITIONS OF RELEASE WHEN PLACED ON SUPERVISED PROBATION, PAROLE, OR POST-RELEASE SUPERVISION AS AN AGGRAVATING FACTOR.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 15A-1340.16(d) is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(12a) The defendant willfully failed to comply with conditions of release when placed on supervised probation, parole, or post-release supervision during the 10-year period prior to the commission of the offense for which the defendant is being sentenced."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective December 1, 2008, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date.

HOUSE BILL 1003:
Aggravating Factor/No Probation Compliance

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	June 3, 2008
Introduced by:	Reps. Johnson, Barnhart, Steen	Summary by:	Jeff Hudson
Version:	Second Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 1003 would provide that a court may consider a defendant's willful prior failure to comply with conditions of release when placed on supervised probation, parole, or post-release supervision as an aggravating factor for purposes of sentencing.

[As introduced, this bill was identical to S1461, as introduced by Sen. Hartsell, which is currently in Senate Judiciary II (Criminal).]

CURRENT LAW: Structured sentencing applies to offenses committed on or after October 1, 1994. Under structured sentencing, a court must take the following steps to determine the appropriate sentence for felonies under structured sentencing:

- Determine the offense class.
- Determine the prior record level for the defendant.
- Consider aggravating and mitigating factors.
- Select a minimum sentence from the applicable minimum sentence range.
- Determine the maximum sentence.
- Determine the sentence disposition (active, intermediate, or community).

The sentencing grid contains three ranges of punishment for felonies: presumptive, aggravated, and mitigated. To determine the range in which to sentence a defendant, the court must consider any evidence of aggravating and mitigating factors. The statutory aggravating factors are set out in G.S 15A-1340.16(d) (attached below). If the court finds that aggravating factors are present and outweigh any mitigating factors, it may depart from the presumptive range of punishment and impose a term of punishment from the aggravated range. Evidence necessary to prove an element of the offense can not be used to prove any factor in aggravation, and the same item of evidence can not be used to prove more than one factor in aggravation.

BILL ANALYSIS:

House Bill 1003 would provide that a court may consider a defendant's willful prior failure to comply with conditions of release when placed on supervised probation, parole, or post-release supervision as an aggravating factor for purposes of sentencing. House Bill 1003 limits the consideration of willful failures to comply with conditions of release to those willful failures to comply occurring within the 10 years prior. It is unclear as to 10 years prior to what event; commission of the crime for which the defendant is being sentenced, the time of sentencing, etc.

EFFECTIVE DATE:

House Bill 1003 would become effective December 1, 2007, and apply to offenses committed on or after that date.

An appointment made irrevocable under this subsection shall be revocable when the interest with which it is coupled is extinguished. A transferee for value of an interest subject to an irrevocable appointment may revoke the appointment if he did not have actual knowledge of its irrevocability.

(d) The death or incapacity of the member appointing a proxy does not affect the right of the corporation to accept the proxy's authority unless notice of the death or incapacity is received by the secretary or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes before the proxy exercises authority under the appointment.

(e) A revocable appointment of a proxy is revoked by the person appointing the proxy:

SECTION 7. G.S. 55A-8-21 reads as rewritten:

"§ 55A-8-21. Action without meeting.

(a) Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, action required or permitted by this Chapter to be taken at a board of directors' meeting may be taken without a meeting if the action is taken by all members of the board. SENATE BILL 1793:
HFA / Expand Home Protection Program

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Ref to Judiciary II (Criminal). If fav, re-ref to Appropriations/Base Budget	Date:	June 3, 2008
Introduced by:	Sen. Dalton	Summary by:	Jennifer McGinnis Committee Counsel
Version:	PCS to First Edition S1793-CSRI-38

SUMMARY: Senate bill 1793 would expand the North Carolina Housing Finance Agency's Home Protection Program statewide and appropriate funds for the Program.

[As introduced, this bill was identical to H2230, as introduced by Reps. Goforth, and Underhill, which is currently in House Judiciary II, if favorable, Appropriations.]

BACKGROUND:

In 2004 the Generally Assembly created the North Carolina Home Protection Pilot Program and Loan Fund (Pilot) and directed the North Carolina Housing Finance Agency (Agency) to develop, implement, and administer the Pilot to "assist North Carolina workers who have lost jobs as a result of changing economic conditions in North Carolina when the workers are in need of assistance to avoid losing their homes to foreclosure" (S.L. 2004-124, Part XX-A). The General Assembly reauthorized and appropriated funds for the Pilot in 2005 and 2007.

According to the Agency's website, the Pilot is currently available in 61 counties (criteria under the previously enacted legislation directed that the Pilot include all counties that had greater than seven percent (7%) average unemployment in the 2004-2005 fiscal year). Displaced workers apply through participating local agencies that offer housing counseling and determine their eligibility. Qualified homeowners receive up to $20,000 in loans at 0% interest to help them make mortgage payments.

BILL ANALYSIS: Senate Bill 1793 would expand the Home Protection Program to every county in the State. The bill would also appropriate $3,000,000 for the Program.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The bill would become effective on July 1, 2008.

S1793e1-SMRI-CSRI

Home Protection Program and Loan Fund

Purpose: To help workers who lose their jobs as the result of plant closings and changing economic conditions avoid losing their homes to foreclosure.

Created: 2004

Accomplishments:

- 330 homeowners have been approved for bridge loans to help save their homes.
- 440 homeowners have benefited from a 120-day stay of foreclosure.
- 2,000 homeowners (est.) have benefited from financial counseling.
- 217 borrowers are in job training, returning to school for further education, or preparing to start new jobs.
- $40 million of property (est.) has been saved from foreclosure.

Appropriations and counties served:

2004–$1.725 million appropriation. 8 counties.
2005–$700,000 appropriation. 27 counties.
2006–$1.5 million appropriation. 27 counties.
2007–$1.5 million appropriation. 61 counties.

How it works:

- The N.C. Housing Finance Agency administers the Home Protection Program (HPP) in partnership with 16 counseling agencies.
- Displaced workers apply to a local agency for counseling and a loan application.
- Eligible workers live or work in one of the designated counties; have lost their job because of changing economic conditions; were current on their mortgage prior to losing their jobs; have a new job commitment; are enrolled in approved training or education; or are in a job search with evidence that potential jobs will allow them to resume mortgage payments.
- Assistance is in the form of an interest-free, deferred loan, due and payable in 15 years or when the home is sold, refinanced, or otherwise conveyed. The loan amount is usually the lesser of $20,000, 18 months of mortgage payments, or the minimum amount required to reinstate a borrower.
- All who inquire, including those who are ineligible, receive counseling on their options for avoiding foreclosure or minimizing their loss.
- A 120-day stay of foreclosure begins when an application is deemed viable and goes under review.
- Counseling agencies receive operating support to defray the cost of their work. The N.C. Housing Finance Agency pays its own costs, which have totaled $777,000 in salaries and direct costs over 42 months.

Examples:

A Caldwell County couple who are raising three grandchildren worked in the furniture industry for many years and made their house payments on time until a job loss. The family was facing foreclosure when they learned about the HPP in a GED class. The grandmother is training to become a licensed practical nurse. The HPP paid the past-due amount and will make the monthly payment until she re-enters the workforce.

A Wilson County family that had experienced problems after Hurricane Floyd faced foreclosure on the home they have owned 30 years, due to a job loss. A long-term HPP loan allowed the husband to attend school full-time and the wife to secure a job in the county school system.

The Bladen County mother of a disabled son was a certified nursing assistant until her employer closed. Five months behind on her mortgage, she obtained employment, but with lesser pay. The HPP brought her mortgage, property taxes, and property insurance current. With budgeting help, she is adjusting to her reduced income and has started a savings account.

In Forsyth County, a young single mother was laid off from her manufacturing job and was in danger of losing her new home. With HPP assistance, she enrolled in a nine-month program toward certification in radiology. She is a B+ student, on track for a better career than she ever thought possible.

To the extent the corporation has agreed pursuant to G.S. 55A-1-70, a member's consent to action taken without a meeting may be in electronic form and delivered by electronic means.

(b) If not otherwise determined under G.S. 55A-7-03 or G.S. 55A-7-07, the record date for determining members entitled to take action without a meeting is the date the first member signs the consent under subsection (a) of this section.

(c) A consent signed under this section has the effect of a meeting vote and may be described as such in any document."

SECTION 5. G.S. 55A-7-08 reads as rewritten:

"§ 55A-7-08. Action by written ballot.

(a) Unless prohibited or limited by the articles of incorporation or bylaws and without regard to the requirements of G.S. 55A-7-04, any action that may be taken at any annual, regular, or special meeting of members may be taken without a meeting if the corporation delivers a written ballot to every member entitled to vote on the matter. Any requirement that any vote of the members be made by written ballot may be satisfied by a ballot submitted by electronic transmission, including electronic mail, provided that such electronic transmission shall either set forth or be submitted with information from which it can be determined that the electronic transmission was authorized by the member or the member's proxy.

(b) A written ballot shall:

(1) Set forth each proposed action; and

(2) Provide an opportunity to vote for or against each proposed action.

(c) Approval by written ballot pursuant to this section shall be valid only when the number of votes cast by ballot equals or exceeds the quorum required to be present at a meeting authorizing the action, and the number of approvals equals or exceeds the number of votes that would be required to approve the matter at a meeting at which the same total number of votes were cast.

(d) All solicitations for votes by written ballot shall indicate the time by which a ballot shall be received by the corporation in order to be counted.

(e) Except as otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation or bylaws, a written ballot shall not be revoked."

SECTION 6. G.S. 55A-7-24 reads as rewritten:

"§ 55A-7-24. Proxies.

(a) Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws prohibit or limit proxy voting, a member may vote in person or by proxy. A member may appoint one or more proxies to vote or otherwise act for ~~him~~ the member by signing an appointment form, either personally or by ~~his~~ the member's attorney-in-fact. ~~A photocopy, telegram, cablegram, facsimile transmission, or equivalent reproduction of a writing appointing one or more proxies,~~ Without limiting G.S. 55A-1-70, an appointment in the form of an electronic record that bears the member's electronic signature and that may be directly reproduced in paper form by an automated process shall be deemed a valid appointment form within the meaning of this section. In addition, if and to the extent permitted by the nonprofit corporation, a member may appoint one or more proxies ~~(i) by an electronic mail message or other form of electronic, wire, or wireless communication that provides a written statement appearing to have been sent by the member, or (ii)~~ by any kind of ~~electronic or~~ telephonic transmission, even if not accompanied by written communication, under circumstances or together with information from which the nonprofit corporation can reasonably assume that the appointment was made or authorized by the member.

(b) An appointment of a proxy is effective when received by the secretary or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes. An appointment is valid for 11 months unless a different period is expressly provided in the appointment form.

(c) An appointment of a proxy is revocable by the member unless the appointment form conspicuously states that it is irrevocable and the appointment is coupled with an interest. An appointment made irrevocable under this subsection shall be revocable when the interest with which it is coupled is extinguished. A transferee for value of an interest subject to an irrevocable appointment may revoke the appointment if he did not have actual knowledge of its irrevocability.

(d) The death or incapacity of the member appointing a proxy does not affect the right of the corporation to accept the proxy's authority unless notice of the death or incapacity is received by the secretary or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes before the proxy exercises authority under the appointment.

(e) A revocable appointment of a proxy is revoked by the person appointing the proxy:

(1) Attending any meeting and voting in person; or

(2) Signing and delivering to the secretary or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate proxy votes either a writing stating that the appointment of the proxy is revoked or a subsequent appointment form.

(f) Subject to G.S. 55A-7-27 and to any express limitation on the proxy's authority appearing on the face of the appointment form, a corporation is entitled to accept the proxy's vote or other action as that of the member making the appointment."

SECTION 7. G.S. 55A-8-21 reads as rewritten:

"§ 55A-8-21. Action without meeting.

(a) Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, action required or permitted by this Chapter to be taken at a board of directors' meeting may be taken without a meeting if the action is taken by all members of the board. The action shall be evidenced by one or more written consents signed by each director before or after such action, describing the action taken, and included in the minutes or filed with the corporate records reflecting the action taken. To the extent the corporation has agreed pursuant to G.S. 55A-1-70, a director's consent to action taken without meeting may be in electronic form and delivered by electronic means.

(b) Action taken under this section is effective when the last director signs the consent, unless the consent specifies a different effective date.

(c) A consent signed under this section has the effect of a meeting vote and may be described as such in any document."

SECTION 8. This act becomes effective October 1, 2008.

MEMORANDUM
May 28, 2008

TO: Senate Judiciary II Committee
FROM: General Statutes Commission
RE: Senate Bill 1631 (Electronic Voting for Nonprofits)

General Comments

This bill amends Chapter 55A of the General Statutes (North Carolina Nonprofit Corporation Act) to expressly permit nonprofit corporations incorporated in this State to send notices to members and accept votes and proxies from members electronically and to accept members' and directors' consents to action taken without meeting in which the consent is given electronically. The bill also establishes the method by which nonprofit corporations may agree to conduct transactions under Chapter 55A by electronic means.

The amendments in this bill parallel amendments made to Chapter 55 of the General Statutes (North Carolina Business Corporation Act) in 2001, so that this bill conforms Chapter 55A to Chapter 55 in this regard. The legislative staff summary for the part of the 2001 bill that made the amendments to Chapter 55 described the changes as "conforming changes for corporations to operate under the Uniform Electronic Transactions Act." The changes would allow a nonprofit corporation to send notices and to conduct votes of its members in a more efficient and cost-effective manner.

Specific Comments

Section 1 amends G.S. 55A-1-40 (Chapter definitions) to add three new definitions, "electronic," "electronic record," and "electronic signature," which are defined to be the same as the definitions of these terms in Article 40 of Chapter 66 of the General Statutes (Uniform Electronic Transactions Act). The section also amends the definition of "vote" to expressly include electronic ballots and electronic consents.

Section 2 amends G.S. 55A-1-41 (Notice) in three places. In subsection (b), the list of various methods of electronic communication (some now old-fashioned) is replaced with the term, "electronic means" ("electronic" being a newly-defined term). In subsection (c), which currently adopts the "mailbox rule" for paper notices sent by U.S. mail (effective when mailed, whether or not actually received), the amendment specifies that the nonprofit corporation and its member may agree to adopt the electronic equivalent of the "mailbox rule" for electronically transmitted notices and that the member may later terminate the agreement on a prospective basis. In subsection (e), a sentence is added providing that the time of receipt of an electronic notice is determined under G.S. 66-325 (in summary, when a message enters the recipient's processing system in a form capable of being processed by that system).

Section 3 adds a new Part 7 (Miscellaneous) to Article 1 of Chapter 55A, containing one new General Statutes section, G.S. 55A-1-70 (Electronic transactions). This new section provides that for purposes of applying the Uniform Electronic Transactions Act (Article 40 of Chapter 66), a corporation may agree to conduct a transaction by electronic means in its articles of incorporation or bylaws or by action of its board of directors.

Section 4 amends G.S. 55A-7-04 (Action by written consent) in subsection (a) to allow a member to consent electronically to action taken without a meeting if the corporation has agreed as provided in (new) G.S. 55A-1-70.

Section 5 amends G.S. 55A-7-08 (Action by written ballot) in subsection (a) to expressly allow electronically transmitted ballots as long as the transmission includes information showing that the member authorized the electronic transmission.

Section 6 amends G.S. 55A-7-24 (Proxies) in subsection (a) to update the terminology and conform it more closely to the equivalent provisions of G.S. 55-7-22 (Proxies). G.S. 55A-7-24(a) currently allows a proxy to be a photocopy, telegram, cablegram, facsimile transmission, "equivalent reproduction of a writing," or an e-mail if permitted by the corporation. The statute also currently has a catch-all provision, subject to permission by the corporation, for any kind of electronic or telephonic transmission, even without a writing, if the corporation can tell that the member authorized the proxy. The amendment substitutes for the current lists language using the new defined term "electronic record." The amended language also requires that all proxies in the form of an electronic record have the member's electronic signature (also a new defined term) and be reproducible in paper form. The existing catch-all accordingly becomes limited to telephone transmissions only.

Section 7 amends G.S. 55A-8-21 (Action without meeting) in subsection (a) to allow a director to consent electronically to action taken without a meeting if the corporation has agreed as provided in (new) G.S. 55A-1-70. This amendment parallels the amendment in Section 4 to G.S. 55A-7-04 on members' consents to action taken without meeting.

Section 8 provides an effective date of October 1, 2008.

If the party's post-office address is known or can with reasonable diligence be ascertained, there shall be mailed to the party at or immediately prior to the first publication a copy of the notice of service of process by publication. The mailing may be omitted if the post-office address cannot be ascertained with reasonable diligence. Upon completion of such service there shall be filed with the court an affidavit showing the publication and mailing in accordance with the requirements of ~~G.S. 1-75.10(2),~~G.S. 1-75.10(a)(2), the circumstances warranting the use of service by publication, and information, if any, regarding the location of the party served.

If the party's post-office address is known or can with reasonable diligence be ascertained, there shall be mailed to the party at or immediately prior to the first publication a copy of the notice of service of process by publication. The mailing may be omitted if the post-office address cannot be ascertained with reasonable diligence. Upon completion of such service there shall be filed with the court an affidavit showing the publication and mailing in accordance with the requirements of ~~G.S. 1-75.10(2),~~G.S. 1-75.10(a)(2), the circumstances warranting the use of service by publication, and information, if any, regarding the location of the party served.

The notice of service of process by publication shall (i) designate the court in which the action has been commenced and the title of the action, which title may be indicated sufficiently by the name of the first plaintiff and the first defendant; (ii) be directed to the defendant sought to be served; (iii) state either that a pleading seeking relief against the person to be served has been filed or has been required to be filed therein not later than a date specified in the notice; (iv) state the nature of the relief being sought; (v) require the defendant being so served to make defense to such pleading within 40 days after a date stated in the notice, exclusive of such date, which date so stated shall be the date of the first publication of notice, or the date when the complaint is required to be filed, whichever is later, and notify the defendant that upon his failure to do so the party seeking service of process by publication will apply to the court for the relief sought;

MEMORANDUM
June 4, 2008

TO: Senate Judiciary II Committee
FROM: General Statutes Commission
RE: SB 1851 (Service of Process/Electronic or Fax Receipt) (PCS)

General Comments

This bill amends Rule 4(j) of the Rules of Civil Procedure to expressly recognize the use of electronic or facsimile proof of delivery receipts when service of process is provided by designated delivery services, i.e., FedEx, UPS, and DHL. The bill makes technical and minor stylistic changes to Rule 4(j) and eliminates an ambiguity in Rule 4(j2)(2). Finally, the bill makes stylistic and conforming changes to G.S. 1-75.10 relating to proof of service of process.

Designated delivery services use electronic receipts, similar to the proof of delivery used in the U.S. Postal Service's signature confirmation service, or provide the sender with a facsimile receipt. The statutes currently allow a copy of the U.S. Postal Service's signature confirmation to be used for proof of delivery. This bill resulted from a report by a litigator who used a designated delivery service for service of process, as allowed by Rule 4, but then had a clerk of court reject a copy of the electronic receipt as proof of delivery.

Specific Comments

Section 1 amends G.S. 1A-1, Rule 4(j) to define "delivery receipt" in the context of a designated delivery service to include an electronic or facsimile receipt. Section 1 also makes technical and minor stylistic changes in Rule 4(j)(1) and Rule 4(j)(9). Sections 1 and 3 together eliminate any implication that the amendments in this bill authorize service of process by e-mail by moving the current prohibition against the use of electronic mailing for service of process from sub-subdivision (j)(1)e., relating to service of process by signature confirmation, to a new subsection (j6).

Section 2 amends G.S. 1A-1, Rule 4(j2)(2) to eliminate an ambiguity in the second sentence of the subdivision by clarifying that the language "provided by the United States Postal Service" does not modify "delivery" receipt and to expressly provide that the term "delivery receipt" includes an electronic or facsimile receipt provided by a designated delivery service. Section 2 also updates cross references to G.S. 1-75.10 as amended by Section 4.

Section 4 amends G.S. 1-75.10 to authorize the use of a facsimile delivery receipt or a printout of an electronic delivery receipt in proving service of process by a designated delivery service and makes minor stylistic changes, and Section 5 amends G.S. 1A-1, Rule 4(j1) to make a conforming cross reference to G.S. 1-75.10 as amended by Section 4.

Section 6 makes the bill effective October 1, 2008, applicable to receipts given on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 1860:
Amend Child Abuse/Child Fatality Task Force

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	June 3, 2008
Introduced by:	Sen. Allran	Summary by:	Jeff Hudson
Version:	First Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 1860 would increase the penalty for misdemeanor child abuse and would establish two new felony child abuse offenses for certain acts or omissions that result in the injury of a child. Senate Bill 1860 is a recommendation of the Child Fatality Task Force.

[As introduced, this bill is identical to S1816, as introduced by Senator Boseman, which is currently in Senate Judiciary I, and H2339, as introduced by Representatives Weiss and Clary, which is currently in House Children, Youth, and Families.]

CURRENT LAW: The General Statutes provide for several levels of criminal offenses for child abuse. The chart below describes the existing non-sexual child abuse offenses and the corresponding penalties.

General Statute Citation	Age of Victim	Relationship of Defendant to Victim	Type of Harm to Victim	Level of Penalty*
G.S. 14-318.2(a)	Child less than 16 years old	Parent or other person providing care to or supervision of the child	By other than accidental means: • Inflicts physical injury • Allows physical injury to be inflicted • Creates or allows to be created a substantial risk of physical injury	Class 1 misdemeanor
G.S.14-318.4(a)	Child less than 16 years old	Parent or other person providing care to or supervision of the child	• Intentionally inflicts serious physical injury • Intentionally commits an assault that results in serious physical injury	Class E felony
G.S. 14-318.4(a3)	Child less than 16 years old	Parent or other person providing care to or supervision of the child	• Intentionally inflicts any serious bodily injury • Intentionally commits an assault that results in any serious bodily injury or results in permanent or protracted loss or impairment of any mental or emotional function	Class C felony

* See next page for presumptive ranges of punishment for each class of penalty

BILL ANALYSIS: Senate Bill 1860 would increase the penalty for misdemeanor child abuse from a Class 1 misdemeanor to a Class A1 misdemeanor.

Senate Bill 1860 would also create the following two new criminal offenses:

General Statute Citation	Age of Victim	Relationship of Defendant to Victim	Type of Harm to Victim	Level of Penalty
G.S. 14-318.4(a4)	Child (Does not specify age)	Parent or other person providing care to or supervision of the child	Willful act or omission in the care of the child is so gross, wanton, and culpable as to show reckless disregard for human life that results in serious bodily injury to the child	Class E felony
G.S. 14-318.4(a5)	Child (Does not specify age)	Parent or other person providing care to or supervision of the child	Willful act or omission in the care of the child is so gross, wanton, and culpable as to show reckless disregard for human life that results in serious physical injury to the child	Class G felony

Under current law and Senate Bill 1860, "serious bodily injury" is defined as bodily injury that creates a substantial risk of death or that causes serious permanent disfigurement, coma, a permanent or protracted condition that causes extreme pain, or permanent or protracted loss or impairment of the function of any bodily member or organ, or that results in prolonged hospitalization.

Senate Bill 1860 would define "serious physical injury" as physical injury that causes great pain and suffering and would include serious mental injury.

EFFECTIVE DATE: Senate Bill 1860 would become effective December 1, 2008, and apply to offenses committed on or after that date. The changes to the child abuse statutes would not affect prosecutions for offenses committed before December 1, 2008.

PRESUMPTIVE RANGES OF PUNISHMENT (assuming no prior convictions):

Level of Penalty	Presumptive Range of Punishment
Class C felony	58 to 97 months of active punishment
Class E felony	20 to 39 months of intermediate or active punishment
Class G felony	10 to 16 months of intermediate or active punishment
Class A1 misdemeanor	1 to 60 days of community, intermediate, or active punishment
Class 1 misdemeanor	1 to 45 days of community punishment

HOUSE BILL 2189:
DV Victim Assistance

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	June 10, 2008
Introduced by:	Representatives McLawhorn, Ross, Farmer-Butterfield, and Pierce	Summary by:	Jeff Hudson Committee Counsel
Version:	First Edition

SUMMARY: House Bill 2189 would provide that under certain circumstances, law enforcement agencies would provide domestic violence assistance information to victims of domestic violence. House Bill 2189 would also direct the North Carolina Domestic Violence Commission to study the adoption of a statewide automated victim notification system for persons who have received a domestic violence protective order.

[As introduced, this bill was identical to S1586, as introduced by Sen. Boseman. S1586 has been filed, but has not been referred to a Committee]

BACKGROUND: House Bill 2189 is a recommendation of the Joint Legislative Committee on Domestic Violence.

CURRENT LAW: G.S. 15A-831 requires a law enforcement agency to provide certain crime victims with the following information within 72 hours of identifying the victim:

- The availability of medical services.
- The availability of crime victims' compensation funds and the address and telephone number of the agency responsible for dispensing the funds.
- The address and telephone number of the district attorney's office that will be responsible for prosecuting the victim's case.
- The name and telephone number of an investigating law enforcement agency employee whom the victim may contact if the victim has not been notified of an arrest in the victim's case within six months after the crime was reported to the law enforcement agency.
- Information about an accused's opportunity for pretrial release.
- The name and telephone number of an investigating law enforcement agency employee whom the victim may contact to find out whether the accused has been released from custody.

G.S. 50B-3 (c1) requires the Clerk of Superior Court to provide an informational sheet that includes the following information to the applicant for a protective order upon issuance of the protective order:

- Domestic violence agencies and services.
- Sexual assault agencies and services.
- Victims' compensation services.
- Legal aid services.
- Address confidentiality services.
- An explanation of the plaintiff's right to apply for a concealed handgun permit.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 2189 would require a law enforcement agency to provide the domestic violence assistance information sheet described in G.S. 50B-3(c1) to a victim under G.S. 15A-831 if the agency determines that there was a personal relationship between the victim and the accused. "Personal relationship" is a relationship where the parties:

- Are current or former spouses.
- Are persons of opposite sex who live together or have lived together.
- Are related as parents and children, including others acting as a parent to a minor child, or as grandparents and grandchildren.
- Have a child in common.
- Are current or former household members.
- Are persons of the opposite sex who are in a dating relationship or have been in a dating relationship.

House Bill 2189 would also direct the North Carolina Domestic Violence Commission, in consultation with the North Carolina Coalition Against Domestic Violence, the North Carolina Attorney General's Office, and the Governor's Crime Commission, to study the adoption of a statewide automated victim notification system for persons who have received a domestic violence protective order. The North Carolina Domestic Violence Commission will report the results of its study and any recommendations to the Joint Legislative Committee on Domestic Violence and the General Assembly on or before January 1, 2009.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act becomes effective July 1, 2008.

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Ref to Judiciary II (Criminal). If fav, re-ref to Appropriations/Base Budget	Date:	June 9, 2008
Introduced by:	Sen. Berger of Franklin	Summary by:	Ben Popkin
Version:	PCS to First Edition S1988-CSRD		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 1988 would create a new Class H felony offense for burning a cross or hanging a noose for the purpose of intimidating another because of their race, color, nationality, or country of origin. The bill would also direct the Legislative Research Commission to study recent incidences of cross burning or noose hanging in the State to determine if modifications to existing statutes should be enacted to deter future such incidents. The Proposed Committee Substitute would modify the effective date section to allow the study to be funded and conducted before the criminal offense created in Section 1 of the bill becomes effective.

CURRENT LAW: There is no current law specifically prohibiting cross burning or noose hanging, though, depending on the specific facts of the incident, these actions may fall within the reach of the existing ethnic intimidation statute or other criminal offenses.

General Statute 14-401.14 "Ethnic Intimidation; teaching any technique to be used for ethnic intimidation" makes it a Class 1 misdemeanor offense for a person to assault another or to damage or deface their property (or threaten to do so) because of that person's race, color, religion, nationality or country of origin. The statute also makes it a Class 1 misdemeanor offense to "assemble" with another person to, "...teach any technique or means to be used to commit any act in violation..." of the provisions of the statute.

Assuming the offender has no prior convictions, a Class 1 misdemeanor is punishable by 1-45 days community punishment. The disposition may include probation, community service, restitution and/or fines. The amount of the fine for a Class 1 misdemeanor is set at the discretion of the court.

BILL ANALYSIS: Section 1 of Senate Bill 1988 would create a new Class H felony offense for burning a cross or hanging a noose for the purpose of intimidating another because of their race, color, nationality, or country of origin.

Assuming no prior convictions, the presumptive minimum sentence for a Class H felony is 5-6 months of either community, intermediate or active punishment. The disposition may range from probation, community service, restitution and/or fines to incarceration. The amount of the fine would be in the discretion of the court.

Section 2 of Senate Bill 1988 would direct the Legislative Research Commission to study the impact of recent cross burnings and noose hangings in the State, determine if modifications to existing laws are warranted to deter this type of conduct, and report its findings and recommendations to the 2009 session of the General Assembly. This section also directs that $20,000 of funds already appropriated to the General Assembly be allocated to fund this study.

EFFECTIVE DATE: Section 1 of the bill would become effective December 1, 2008 and apply to offenses committed on or after that date. Sections 2 and 3 would be effective when it becomes law.

HOUSE BILL 545:
Clarify and amend certain provisions.

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	June 12, 2008
Introduced by:	Rep. Ross	Summary by:	Jennifer McGinnis Committee Counsel
Version:	PCS to First Edition H545-CSRI-39 [v.8]

SUMMARY: The Proposed Committee Substitute (PCS) for House Bill 545 would: (1) give the Housing Finance Agency two additional powers concerning real property and services retained for issuance of bonds; and (2) authorize a one-time bulk update of registered agent information on file with the Department of the Secretary of State; (3) amend the list of entities included as "established legal services programs" to which the North Carolina State Bar may allocate funds under the Access to Civil Justice Act and the Domestic Violence Assistance Act; and (4) validate certain notarial acts.

[As introduced, this bill was identical to S613, as introduced by Sen. Hartsell, which is currently in House Judiciary I.]

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 of the PCS would repeal G.S. 122A-8.1 and give the Housing Finance Agency (HFA) two additional powers:

- Concerning real property: The power to deal with real property and utilities in the same manner as a private person or corporation, subject only to the approval of the Governor and Council of State. The PCS authorizes the FHA's Board of Directors to pledge or encumber income and assets of the FHA to secure financing for real property.

  Background: With regard to the power to deal with real property, similar power is given elsewhere in the General Statues to the following entities: the North Carolina State Bar; the Auctioneers Commission; the Licensing Board for General Contractors; the Board of Examiners for Engineers and Surveyors; and the Medical Board; Board of Nursing.

- Concerning services retained for bond issuance: The power to select, retain, subject to the approval of the Local Government Commission, consultants, underwriters, and attorneys for the issuance of bonds. The PCS also authorizes the payment of these individuals from the proceeds of the bond issuance for which their services were performed.

  Background: Similar power is given elsewhere in the General Statues to the following entities: the State and local governments; the Medical Care Commission; a joint agency created pursuant to Ch. 159B (Joint Municipal Electric Power); an authority created pursuant to Ch. 159C (Industrial and Pollution Control); the Capital Facilities Finance Agency; and a regional sports authority created pursuant to Ch. 160A (Cities and Towns).

The PCS would repeal G.S. 122A-8.1 which gave the State Treasurer: (i) the power to issue bonds and notes authorized under the Housing Finance Act; (ii) the sole discretion to determine the interest rate, maturities, and other terms and conditions; and (iii) the power to employ and designate consultants, underwriters, and attorneys for the issuance of bonds.

Section 2 of the PCS would authorize a one-time bulk update of registered office and registered agent information on file with the Department of the Secretary of State.

Background: This provision was requested by Campbell University in order to facilitate a real estate transaction involving an office building in which registered agents currently lease office space. The transaction necessitates update of information on file with the Department of the Secretary of State. Under the General Statutes such an update of information would incur fees of approximately $150,000. The provision in the PCS would permit the update of this information without assessment of the fees.

Section 3 of the PCS would amend the list of entities included as "established legal services programs" to which the North Carolina State Bar may allocate funds under the Access to Civil Justice Act and the Domestic Violence Assistance Act.

Background: According to information provided by staff with the State Bar, currently both Acts refer to the Legal Aid Society of Northwest North Carolina (LASNNC) as a named "established legal services program" that should receive funding for serving particular counties. LASNNC has transferred staff, assets and programming to Legal Aid of North Carolina ((LANC) a State-wide legal services program referenced in the statute), and the State Bar is presently allocating the funds previously sent to LASNNC to LANC as an "entity ...providing substantially the same services in substantially the same service area." However, the LASNNC board has decided not to dissolve the corporate entity and to explore other possibilities for work the entity could do. The State Bar has therefore requested that LASNNC be removed from the statutes to avoid any possible confusion over how the State funds for legal aid should be allocated. LASNNC leadership agrees with this request.

Section 4 of the PCS would provide that electronic documents filed in the Mecklenburg County Register of Deeds office that purport to be notarized in the Commonwealth of Virginia and that contain the typed name of a Virginia notary together with the notary's expiration date shall be given the same legal effect as if the person performed a lawful notarization in Virginia.

Background: According to information provided by staff of the Department of the Secretary of State, it was recently discovered that Virginia has yet to authorize electronic notarization and it is the opinion of Virginia's commissioning authority that any purported electronic notarization performed in Virginia would not be a notarization at all. Approximately 60,000 electronic documents that purport to have electronic notarizations performed in Virginia, however, have been filed in the Mecklenburg County Register of Deeds office. The provision in the PCS would validate these notarial acts.

Section 5 of the PCS would amend G.S. 10B-65 to validate certain, otherwise invalid, notarial acts performed on or before May 1, 2008. The statute currently applies to notarial acts performed on or before February 1, 2004.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The PCS would be effective when it becomes law.

MEMORANDUM
June 11, 2008

TO: Senate Judiciary II Committee
FROM: General Statutes Commission
RE: SB 1651 (Anatomical Gifts)

General Comments

This bill results from a study directive from the General Assembly to the General Statutes Commission (Section 13 of S.L. 2007-538). S.L. 2007-538 replaced this State's then-existing version of the Uniform Anatomical Gift Act (former Part 3 of Article 16 of Chapter 130A of the General Statutes) with the Revised Uniform Anatomical Gift Act (Part 3A of Article 16 of Chapter 130A of the General Statutes) (the Revised Act). Two already-existing sections of the General Statutes, G.S. 90-602 (Routine search for donor information) and G.S. 130A-391 (Corneal tissue removal), contain provisions that conflict with provisions in the Revised Act. This bill reconciles those conflicts. In addition, the bill makes conforming amendments to five other sections of the General Statutes.

Specific Comments

Section 1 amends G.S. 90-602 to resolve conflicts between this section and G.S. 130A-412.14 (which is in the Revised Act).

G.S. 90-602 currently authorizes law enforcement officers, firefighters, paramedics, and other official rescue workers finding an individual who appears to be near death to make a reasonable search of the individual for organ donor status information. The statute authorizes a similar search by hospitals on the admission of an individual at or near the time of death if information on organ donor status is not immediately available from another source. The statute restricts the timing and scope of physical searches under its provisions and the use that can be made of documents, objects, or other items discovered during the search; use of search results is limited to identification of the victim, notification of the victim's next of kin, and identification of the victim as an organ donor. G.S. 90-602 also permits an administrative search of an accident or trauma victim's Division of Motor Vehicles driver record for organ donor status information.

G.S. 130A-412.14 has a physical search provision that is similar to the physical search provision of G.S. 90-602, but G.S. 130A-412.14 mandates the search and requires "the person responsible for conducting the search" to send any organ donor card or similar record that was found to the hospital where the dead or dying individual is taken. G.S. 130A-412.14 also has an immunity provision from civil or criminal liability for a person that fails to discharge the duties it imposes. This immunity provision expressly does not cover administrative sanctions.

In addition to the immunity provision found in G.S. 130A-412.14, persons acting under that section may also be covered by another immunity provision in the Revised Act (in G.S. 130A-412.20). This provision includes immunity from liability in a civil or criminal action or administrative proceeding for a person that acts with due care in accordance with the Revised Act or attempts in good faith to do so. This provision could apply, for example, to a person who makes a search under G.S. 130A-412.14 but injures someone in the process.

Comments submitted by interested individuals and groups expressed concern about a mandatory search requirement for different groups that share overlapping responsibilities and noted that law enforcement officers in particular may have other crucial duties to perform at the scene of an accident, such as controlling traffic and rendering assistance to other injured persons. Because of these comments, the Commission concluded that as to law enforcement officers, firefighters, paramedics, and other emergency workers, there appear to be good reasons to retain G.S. 90-602's permissive search. The same considerations do not appear to apply to hospitals, however, and the Commission concluded that the mandatory search requirement of G.S. 130A-412.14 should be retained for them.

As a result, Section 1 amends G.S. 90-602 to incorporate some of the Revised Act's definitions ("anatomical gift," "document of gift," "donor," and "refusal") and update the terminology; authorizes, but does not mandate, a search of a dead or dying person for information on organ donor status by law enforcement officers, firefighters, and other official emergency workers who find the person; requires hospitals to make a reasonable search for organ donor information as soon as practical after individuals who are dead or near death arrive at the hospital if no other source of information is immediately available; continues authorization for an administrative search of an accident or trauma victim's Division of Motor Vehicles driver record for organ donor status information; continues to require that any organ donor status information found as a result of a search be sent to the hospital where the dead or dying person is taken; continues the location and use limits on searches and their results; incorporates G.S. 130A-412.14's immunity provision for persons that fail to discharge duties under G.S. 90-602 as amended; and, consistent with the Revised Act, provides an immunity provision for persons that act with due care in accordance with G.S. 90-602 or attempt in good faith to do so.

Section 2 replaces the current search and notification provisions of G.S. 130A-412.14 with a cross-reference to G.S. 90-602 as amended.

Section 3 repeals G.S. 130A-391, which authorizes medical examiners or regional pathologists, under certain conditions, to provide corneal tissue from a decedent to the North Carolina Eye and Human Tissue Bank or other donee specified in former G.S. 130A-405 without consent from the decedent or the decedent's next-of-kin. Authority for medical examiners to make an anatomical gift of body parts was included in prior versions of the Uniform Law Commission's Uniform Anatomical Gift Act but was deleted in the most recent revision in light of a series of § 1983 lawsuits in which the medical examiner's actions were held to violate the property rights of surviving family members. The relationship of medical examiners to the anatomical gift process is now addressed by G.S. 130A-412.23 (Cooperation between a medical examiner and the procurement organization) and G.S. 130A-412.24 (Facilitation of anatomical gift from decedent whose body is under the jurisdiction of a medical examiner).

Sections 4, 5, 6, 7, and 8 amend G.S. 32A-15(d), 90-210.124(d), 90-210.129(q), 130A-415(f), and 130A-420(d), respectively, to update cross-references.

Section 9 makes the bill effective when it becomes law.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO CLARIFY THAT ENCUMBERED PROPERTY IS SUBJECT TO EXECUTION UNDER ARTICLE 28 OF CHAPTER 1 OF THE GENERAL STATUTES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 1-313(1) reads as rewritten:

"§ 1-313. Form of execution.

The execution must be directed to the sheriff, or to the coroner when the sheriff is a party to or interested in the action. In those counties where the office of coroner is abolished, or is vacant, and in which process is required to be executed on the sheriff, the authority to execute such process shall be vested in the clerk of court; however, the clerk of court is hereby empowered to designate and direct by appropriate order some person to act in his stead to execute the same. The execution must also be subscribed by the clerk of the court, and must refer to the judgment, stating the county where the judgment roll or transcript is filed, the names of the parties, the amount of the judgment, if it is for money, the amount actually due thereon, and the time of docketing in the county to which the execution is issued, and shall require the officer substantially as follows:

(1) Against ~~Property—~~property.

a. No Lien on Personal Property until Levy. – If it is against the property of the judgment debtor, it shall require the officer to satisfy the judgment out of his personal property; and if sufficient personal property cannot be found, out of the real property belonging to him on the day when the judgment was docketed in the county, or at any time thereafter; but no execution against the property of a judgment debtor is a lien on his personal property, as against any bona fide purchaser from him for value, or as against any other execution, except from the levy thereof.

b. Real or personal property required to satisfy the judgment is subject to execution regardless of whether the property is encumbered. However, any personal or real property sold under execution remains subject to all prior encumbrances, including liens, mortgages, deeds of trust, perfected security interests, and prior judgments which became effective prior to the lien of the judgment pursuant to which the execution sale is held, in the same manner and to the same extent as if no such sale had been held."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective October 1, 2007.

(a) Notice under this Chapter shall be in writing unless oral notice is authorized in the corporation's articles of incorporation or bylaws and written notice is not specifically required by this Chapter.

(b) Notice may be communicated in person; by ~~telephone, telegraph, teletype, or other form of wire or wireless communication, or by facsimile transmission;~~ electronic means; or by mail or private carrier. If these forms of personal notice are impracticable as to one or more persons, notice may be communicated to such persons by publishing notice in a newspaper, or by radio, television, or other form of public broadcast communication, in the county where the corporation has its principal place of business in the State, or if it has no principal place of business in the State, the county where it has its registered office.

(c) Written notice by a domestic or foreign corporation to its member is effective when deposited in the United States mail with postage thereon prepaid and correctly addressed to the member's address shown in the corporation's current record of members. To the extent the corporation pursuant to G.S. 55A-1-70 and the member have agreed, notice by a domestic corporation to its member in the form of an electronic record sent by electronic means is effective when it is sent as provided in G.S. 66-325. (d) Written notice to a domestic or foreign corporation (authorized to conduct affairs in this State) may be addressed to its registered agent at its registered office or to the corporation or its secretary at its principal office shown in its articles of incorporation, the Designation of Principal Office Address form, or any Corporation's Statement of Change of Principal Office Address form filed with the Secretary of State.

SECTION 4. G.S. 55A-7-04 reads as rewritten:

"§ 55A-7-04. Action by written consent.

(a) Action required or permitted by this Chapter to be taken at a meeting of members may be taken without a meeting if the action is taken by all members entitled to vote on the action. The action shall be evidenced by one or more written consents describing the action taken, signed before or after such action by all members entitled to vote thereon, and delivered to the corporation for inclusion in the minutes or filing with the corporate records. To the extent the corporation has agreed pursuant to G.S. 55A-1-70, a member's consent to action taken without a meeting may be in electronic form and delivered by electronic means.

(b) If not otherwise determined under G.S. 55A-7-03 or G.S. 55A-7-07, the record date for determining members entitled to take action without a meeting is the date the first member signs the consent under subsection (a) of this section.

(c) A consent signed under this section has the effect of a meeting vote and may be described as such in any document."

SECTION 5. G.S. 55A-7-08 reads as rewritten:

"§ 55A-7-08. Action by written ballot.

(a) Unless prohibited or limited by the articles of incorporation or bylaws and without regard to the requirements of G.S. 55A-7-04, any action that may be taken at any annual, regular, or special meeting of members may be taken without a meeting if the corporation delivers a written ballot to every member entitled to vote on the matter. information from which it can be determined that the electronic transmission was authorized by the member or the member's proxy.

(b) A written ballot shall:

(1) Set forth each proposed action; and

(2) Provide an opportunity to vote for or against each proposed action.

(c) Approval by written ballot pursuant to this section shall be valid only when the number of votes cast by ballot equals or exceeds the quorum required to be present at a meeting authorizing the action, and the number of approvals equals or exceeds the number of votes that would be required to approve the matter at a meeting at which the same total number of votes were cast.

(d) All solicitations for votes by written ballot shall indicate the time by which a ballot shall be received by the corporation in order to be counted.

(e) Except as otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation or bylaws, a written ballot shall not be revoked."

SECTION 6. G.S. 55A-7-24 reads as rewritten:

"§ 55A-7-24. Proxies.

(a) Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws prohibit or limit proxy voting, a member may vote in person or by proxy. A member may appoint one or more proxies to vote or otherwise act for ~~him~~ the member by signing an appointment form, either personally or by ~~his~~ the member's attorney-in-fact. ~~A photocopy, telegram, cablegram, facsimile transmission, or equivalent reproduction of a writing appointing one or more proxies,~~ Without limiting G.S. 55A-1-70, an appointment in the form of an electronic record that bears the member's electronic signature and that may be directly reproduced in paper form by an automated process shall be deemed a valid appointment form within the meaning of this section. In addition, if and to the extent permitted by the nonprofit corporation, a member may appoint one or more proxies ~~(i) by an electronic mail message or other form of electronic, wire, or wireless communication that provides a written statement appearing to have been sent by the member, or (ii)~~ by any kind of ~~electronic or~~ telephonic transmission, even if not accompanied by written communication, under circumstances or together with information from which the nonprofit corporation can reasonably assume that the appointment was made or authorized by the member.

(b) An appointment of a proxy is effective when received by the secretary or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes. An appointment is valid for 11 months unless a different period is expressly provided in the appointment form.

(c) An appointment of a proxy is revocable by the member unless the appointment form conspicuously states that it is irrevocable and the appointment is coupled with an interest. An appointment made irrevocable under this subsection shall be revocable when the interest with which it is coupled is extinguished. A transferee for value of an interest subject to an irrevocable appointment may revoke the appointment if he did not have actual knowledge of its irrevocability.

(d) The death or incapacity of the member appointing a proxy does not affect the right of the corporation to accept the proxy's authority unless notice of the death or incapacity is received by the secretary or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes before the proxy exercises authority under the appointment.

(e) A revocable appointment of a proxy is revoked by the person appointing the proxy:

(1) Attending any meeting and voting in person; or

(2) Signing and delivering to the secretary or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate proxy votes either a writing stating that the appointment of the proxy is revoked or a subsequent appointment form.

(f) Subject to G.S. 55A-7-27 and to any express limitation on the proxy's authority appearing on the face of the appointment form, a corporation is entitled to accept the proxy's vote or other action as that of the member making the appointment."

SECTION 7. G.S. 55A-8-21 reads as rewritten:

"§ 55A-8-21. Action without meeting.

(a) Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, action required or permitted by this Chapter to be taken at a board of directors' meeting may be taken without a meeting if the action is taken by all members of the board. The action shall be evidenced by one or more written consents signed by each director before or after such action, describing the action taken, and included in the minutes or filed with the corporate records reflecting the action taken. To the extent the corporation has agreed pursuant to G.S. 55A-1-70, a director's consent to action taken without meeting may be in electronic form and delivered by electronic means.

(b) Action taken under this section is effective when the last director signs the consent, unless the consent specifies a different effective date.

(c) A consent signed under this section has the effect of a meeting vote and may be described as such in any document."

SECTION 8. This act becomes effective October 1, 2008.

(e) A revocable appointment of a proxy is revoked by the person appointing the proxy:

(a) Verification of Instruments. – The register of deeds shall not accept for registration any instrument that requires proof or acknowledgement unless the execution of the instrument by one or more signers appears to have been proved or acknowledged before an officer with the apparent authority to take proofs or acknowledgements, and the ~~said~~ proof or acknowledgement includes the officer's signature, commission expiration date, and official seal, if required. The register of deeds shall accept an instrument for registration that does not require proof or acknowledgement if the instrument otherwise satisfies the requirements of G.S. 161-14. The register of deeds may rely on the marking and the appearance of the original recording office's recording information to determine that an instrument is being presented as it was previously recorded. The register of deeds is not required to further verify the proof or acknowledgement of or determine whether any changes or alterations have been made after the original recording to an instrument presented for rerecording. The register of deeds ~~shall not be~~ is not required to verify or make inquiry concerning any of the following:

(1) ~~(i) the~~ The legal sufficiency of any proof or ~~acknowledgement,~~ acknowledgement.

(3) ~~(iii) the~~ The legal sufficiency of any document presented for registration.~~registration, or (iv) upon presentation of the original document for re-recording, whether the original document has been changed or altered.~~"

(a1) Verification of Electronic Documents. – The requirements of subsection (a) of this section for verification of the execution of an instrument are satisfied with respect to an electronic document if all of the conditions in this subsection are met. For purposes of this subsection, the term "electronic document" is as defined in G.S. 47-16.2(3). The conditions are:

(1) The register of deeds has authorized the submitter to electronically register the electronic document.

(2) The document is submitted by a United States federal or state governmental unit or instrumentality or a trusted submitter. For purposes of this subsection, "a trusted submitter" means a person or entity that has entered into a memorandum of understanding regarding electronic recording with the register of deeds in the county in which the electronic document is to be submitted.

(3) The execution of the instrument by one or more signers appears to have been proved or acknowledged before an officer with the apparent authority to take proofs or acknowledgements, and the proof or acknowledgment includes the officer's signature, commission expiration date, and official seal, if required, based on the appearance of these elements on the digitized image of the document as it will appear on the public record.

(4) Evidence of other required governmental certification or annotation appears on the digitized image of the document as it will appear on the public record.

(5) With respect to a document submitted by a trusted submitter, the digitized image of the document as it will appear on the public record contains the submitter's name in the following completed statement on the first page of the document image: "Submitted electronically by _____ (submitter's name) in compliance with North Carolina statutes governing recordable documents and the terms of the submitter agreement with the _____ (insert county name) County Register of Deeds."

(6) Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, the digitized image of the electronic document conforms to all other applicable laws and rules that prescribe recordation.

(a2) Verification of Officer's Signature. – Submission to a register of deeds of an electronic document requiring proof or acknowledgement is a representation by the submitter that, prior to submission, the submitter verified the officer's signature required under (a1)(3) of this section to be one of the types of signatures listed in this subsection. The register of deeds may rely on this representation for purposes of determining compliance with the signature requirements of this section. The electronic registration of a document with a register of deeds prior to the effective date of this statute is not invalid based on whether the register verified the officer's signature in accordance with this subsection. The types of signatures are:

(1) A signature in ink by hand.

(2) An electronic signature as defined in G.S. 10B-101(7).

(b) Order by Judge. – If a register of deeds denies registration pursuant to subsection (a), the person offering the instrument for registration may ~~present the instrument~~ apply to any judge of the district court in the district, including the county in which the instrument is to be registered, for an order for registration.~~a judge, as provided in subsection (c), and the~~ Upon finding all of the requirements in this subsection, the judge shall ~~determine that if~~ order the instrument to be registered, together with the certificates, and the register of deeds shall register them accordingly. (d) Scope. – Registration of an instrument pursuant to this section is not effective with regard to parties who have not executed the instrument or whose execution thereof has not been duly proved or acknowledged.

(e) Register of Deeds as Party. – Any instrument required or permitted by law to be registered in which the register of deeds of the county of registration is a party may be proved or acknowledged before any magistrate or any notary public. ~~Any such~~ The clerk of superior court of the county of registration shall examine any instrument presented for registration.~~registration shall be examined by the clerk of superior court of the county of registration and if~~ If it appears that the execution and acknowledgment are in due ~~form he~~ form, the clerk shall so certify and the instrument shall then be recorded in the office of the register of deeds.

(f) Presumption of Notarial Seal. – The acceptance of a record for registration by the register of deeds shall give rise to a presumption that, at the time the record was presented for registration, a clear and legible image of the notary's official seal was affixed or embossed on the record near the notary's official signature. This presumption ~~shall apply~~ applies regardless of whether the image is legible or photographically reproduced in the records maintained by the register of deeds. A register of deeds may not refuse to accept a record for registration because a notarial seal does not satisfy the requirements of G.S. 10B-37."

SECTION 7.(b) G.S. 47-31(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) A duly certified copy of any deed or writing required or allowed to be registered may be registered in any county.~~county without further certification pursuant to G.S. 47-14; and the~~ The register of deeds may rely on the record keeper's certification on a presented document that the document is a certified copy and is not required to further verify the proof or acknowledgment otherwise required by G.S. 47-14 or to determine whether the document has been changed or altered after it was certified. If an affidavit is conspicuously identified as a corrective or scrivener's affidavit in its title, the register of deeds shall index the name of the affiant, the names of the original parties in the instrument, the recording information of the instrument being corrected, and the original parties as they are named in the affidavit. A copy of the previously recorded instrument to which the affidavit applies may be attached to the affidavit and need not be a certified copy. Notice of the corrective information as provided by the affiant is deemed to have been given as of the time the corrective affidavit is registered. Nothing in this section invalidates or otherwise alters the legal effect of any instrument of correction authorized by statute in effect on the date the instrument was registered. ~~corrected by rerecording the original instrument with the correction clearly set out on the face of the instrument and with a statement of explanation attached. These printed or filmed copies, tapes or disks, shall be retained as security copies and may not be altered or destroyed until a subsequent security copy is made containing the index entries from all previous security copies.

(g) The register of deeds may adopt rules establishing indexing procedures and the format of the indexes. BILL ANALYSIS:

HOUSING FINANCE AGENCY CHANGES

Section 1 of the PCS would repeal G.S. 122A-8.1 and give the Housing Finance Agency (HFA) two additional powers:

- Concerning real property: The power to deal with real property and utilities in the same manner as a private person or corporation, subject only to the approval of the Governor and Council of State. The PCS authorizes the FHA's Board of Directors to pledge or encumber income and assets of the FHA to secure financing for real property.

  Background: With regard to the power to deal with real property, similar power is given elsewhere in the General Statues to the following entities: the North Carolina State Bar; the Auctioneers Commission; the Licensing Board for General Contractors; the Board of Examiners for Engineers and Surveyors; and the Medical Board; Board of Nursing.

- Concerning services retained for bond issuance: The power to select, retain, subject to the approval of the Local Government Commission, consultants, underwriters, and attorneys for the issuance of bonds. The PCS also authorizes the payment of these individuals from the proceeds of the bond issuance for which their services were performed.

Background: Similar power is given elsewhere in the General Statues to the following entities: the State and local governments; the Medical Care Commission; a joint agency created pursuant to Ch. 159B (Joint Municipal Electric Power); an authority created pursuant to Ch. 159C (Industrial and Pollution Control); the Capital Facilities Finance Agency; and a regional sports authority created pursuant to Ch. 160A (Cities and Towns).

The PCS would repeal G.S. 122A-8.1 which gave the State Treasurer: (i) the power to issue bonds and notes authorized under the Housing Finance Act; (ii) the sole discretion to determine the interest rate, maturities, and other terms and conditions; and (iii) the power to employ and designate consultants, underwriters, and attorneys for the issuance of bonds.

BULK UPDATE OF REGISTERED AGENT INFORMATION

Section 2 of the PCS would authorize a one-time bulk update of registered office and registered agent information on file with the Department of the Secretary of State.

Background: This provision was requested by Campbell University in order to facilitate a real estate transaction involving an office building in which registered agents currently lease office space. Specifically, there are three corporations that serve as a registered agent for thousands of entities. Due to their physical relocation, their address on file with the Secretary of State needs to be updated. Under the General Statutes, this update of information would result in fees of approximately $150,000. The provision in the PCS would permit the update of this information without assessment of the fees.

The prior PCS identified by name the three corporations that serve as the registered agent for these entities. Section 1 of Article VIII of the North Carolina Constitution prohibits private emoluments for corporations.[1] This section of the PCS has been modified to address this concern. Under the current version of the PCS, the provision now applies to "an individual, entity, or corporation that files a single notice for more than 20,000 entities on file with the Secretary of State."

UPDATE ENTITIES RECEIVING FUNDS FROM STATE BAR

Section 3 of the PCS would amend the list of entities included as "established legal services programs" to which the North Carolina State Bar may allocate funds under the Access to Civil Justice Act and the Domestic Violence Assistance Act.

Background: According to information provided by staff with the State Bar, currently both Acts refer to the Legal Aid Society of Northwest North Carolina (LASNNC) as a named "established legal services program" that should receive funding for serving particular counties. LASNNC has transferred staff, assets and programming to Legal Aid of North Carolina ((LANC) a State-wide legal services program referenced in the statute), and the State Bar is presently allocating the funds previously sent to LASNNC to LANC as an "entity ...providing substantially the same services in substantially the same service area." However, the LASNNC board has decided not to dissolve the corporate entity and to explore other possibilities for work the entity could do. The State Bar has therefore requested that LASNNC be removed from the statutes to avoid any possible confusion over how the State funds for legal aid should be allocated. LASNNC leadership agrees with this request.

[1]Section 1. Corporate charters. No corporation shall be created, nor shall its charter be extended, altered, or amended by special act, except corporations for charitable, educational, penal, or reformatory purposes that are to be and remain under the patronage and control of the State; but the General Assembly shall provide by general laws for the chartering, organization, and powers of all corporations, and for the amending, extending, and forfeiture of all charters, except those above permitted by special act. All such general acts may be altered from time to time or repealed. The General Assembly may at any time by special act repeal the charter of any corporation.

VALIDATION OF CERTAIN NOTARIAL ACTS

Section 4 of the PCS would provide that electronic documents filed in the Mecklenburg County Register of Deeds office that purport to be notarized in the Commonwealth of Virginia and that contain the typed name of a Virginia notary together with the notary's expiration date shall be given the same legal effect as if the person performed a lawful notarization in Virginia.

Background: According to information provided by staff of the Department of the Secretary of State, it was recently discovered that Virginia has yet to authorize electronic notarization and it is the opinion of Virginia's commissioning authority that any purported electronic notarization performed in Virginia would not be a notarization at all. Approximately 60,000 electronic documents that purport to have electronic notarizations performed in Virginia, however, have been filed in the Mecklenburg County Register of Deeds office. The provision in the PCS would validate these notarial acts.

Section 5 of the PCS would amend G.S. 10B-65 to validate certain, otherwise invalid, notarial acts performed on or before May 1, 2008. The statute currently applies to notarial acts performed on or before February 1, 2004.

NORTH CAROLINA STATE ART SOCIETY NAME CHANGE

Section 6 amends in various statutes the reference to the "North Carolina Art Society, Inc." by inserting the word "State" to reflect the entity's correct corporate name.

REGISTER OF DEEDS CHANGES

Section 7[2] makes several changes to the statutes related to the verification, recordation, and indexing of documents presented to the register of deeds. These changes are recommendations of the North Carolina Association of Register of Deeds. The changes have been reviewed by the Real Property Section of the NC Bar Association, the Electronic Recording Council, and the Land Records Advisory Committee of the Secretary of State.

Subsection (a) amends G.S. 47-14. G.S. 47-14 requires a register of deeds to verify notary seals, signatures, and commission expiration dates on instruments prior to recording them, if the instrument requires acknowledgement or proof. It also sets out those items that and those circumstances under which a register is not required to verify. Under current law, a register is not required to verify whether an original document being presented for rerecording has been changed or altered. Registers are reporting that this language is being used to rerecord documents that have been changed after notarization by someone other than the grantor. The wording of the current law seems to suggest that an original document may be rerecorded with alterations. This statute is also being used to rerecord certified copies that have been altered despite the fact that a certified copy that has been altered is no longer a certified copy.

Subsection (a) of the PCS eliminates the apparent permission to rerecord documents that have been altered after they have been acknowledged. To rerecord an original document, the person presenting the document must mark the first page as a rerecording, which will serve as a representation that it is the same unaltered document as previously recorded. The register has no responsibility to check for alterations. Subsection (b) makes similar changes to the statute governing the rerecording of certified copies.

Subsection (a) also adds language to address the verification of electronic documents. Acknowledged documents must have an original notary signature, unless a statute authorizes a copy to be registered. This requirement ensures some measure of authenticity of documents that the register reviews and copies into the public record. Electronic documents are not capable of the same kind of verification as paper submissions. New subsection (a1) of G.S. 47-14 clarifies the verification requirements for electronically submitted documents. Generally, the register's verification responsibilities would involve four steps:

1. Checking the submitter's authorization to record electronically.
2. Checking for compliance with any agreements with the register.
3. Verifying completion of the same notary elements as are checked with paper documents.
4. Verifying that trusted submitters have placed a statement on the document image about the submitter's identity and recording requirements compliance.

An electronic document will be an "original" only in the sense that it has the same content as it had when the notary completed the acknowledgment. Technology exists for a register to check a record received electronically for information that only the notary could attach to it and that indicates the record was not altered after it was acknowledged. This kind of authentication was not envisioned when the verification statute was enacted, but it seems to serve the "originality" purpose of verification. Under current North Carolina electronic notary rules, an electronically notarized document must have visible images of the notary's seal and signature. For those documents, a register and the public can see the familiar seal and signature on the record. However, not all states require these images for electronic notarizations. Some states allow electronic notaries to use a process that does not create what looks like a seal and handwritten signature, but instead gives the recipient a message confirming that the notary attached code with acknowledgment information to the document. The law does not currently address whether a register may record documents in this form. The new language authorizes registers who wish to accept electronic notarizations requiring acknowledgements to do so if they can confirm that the acknowledgements have been completed. They can accept electronic documents from two kinds of submitters: the government or a "trusted submitter."

Under this new provision, registers are not required to accept electronic submissions, nor does it require registers who decide to accept electronic documents, to accept them from anyone except those who are authorized.

Subsection (b) – See the explanation for subsection (a) regarding changes related to the rerecording of instruments.

Subsection (c) – This subsection changes the available methods for recording a document about typographical or minor errors by eliminating the use of statements of explanation and authorizing the use of an affidavit to explain and show corrections. Any person may submit an affidavit of correction to make a record of typographical or minor errors. The affidavit may include any exhibits to explain or show the correction, including a marked-up copy of the corrected document. Registers would verify the notary certificate in the same manner as with any other affidavit. The subsection provides that if an affidavit is conspicuously identified as a "corrective" or "scrivener's" affidavit in its title, the register is required to index the affiant's name, the names of the original parties to the document, and the recording information for the document being described.

Subsections (d) and (e) make changes to the indexing statutes. There are many indexing statutes, not all of which provide registers with clear guidance about what is reasonable indexing. A strict interpretation of current law would seem to suggest that if a document is not indexed according to all applicable rules, it is not registered at all, which could significantly affect the rights of owners and creditors. The North Carolina courts have not taken such a strict approach. Rather, they have held that indexing is sufficient if a reasonably careful and prudent examiner would find the document in the index, even if the indexing does not technically comply with all the indexing rules. The language in this subsection adopts this judicial interpretation. These subsections make other clarifying changes to address inconsistencies in the statutes that have arisen over the years as the result of changes to parts of the statutes without corresponding changes to related statutes. Subsection (e) also reflects that, as of July 1, 2008, registers will no longer be required to maintain personal property indexes for UCC filings. It also repeals the Class 1 misdemeanor penalty for violations of the indexing statute.

Other than the repeal of G.S. 161-22(c) relating to the indexing of UCC filings, which becomes effective July 1, 2008, the remainder of this section becomes effective when the act becomes law.

MEDIATED SETTLEMENT CONFERENCE CHANGES

Section 8 of the PCS amends the statutes relating to a judge's authority to impose sanctions in the course of a mediated settlement conference. Mediated settlement conferences expedite the settlement of cases filed in district and superior court and before Clerks of Superior Court. Under current law, a judge may impose sanctions when a person required to attend a conference fails to appear without good cause. The revisions would broaden this language to allow sanctions to be imposed when a person who is required to attend fails to pay any or all of the mediator's or the neutral's fee.

This section would become effective January 1, 2009.

Background: These changes are being requested by the Dispute Resolution Commission. The Commission believes it is important that mediators be compensated for their services in order to retain high quality mediators. In an effort to keep mediation programs running smoothly, many judges are already imposing sanctions for failure to pay. This language would codify current practice.

EXTENSION FOR DPI REALIGNMENT OF BUDGETS

Section 9 of the PCS would extend by one year the period that the Department of Public Instruction (DPI) has to realign its budgets consistent with the reorganization of certain positions. In the 2007 Appropriations Act, the Department of Public Instruction was authorized to reorganize in accordance with a plan adopted by the State Board of Education. This authority expires on June 30, 2008. DPI reports that it has almost concluded this reorganization but needs some additional time to line up their budgets with positions that have moved or shifted. Section 9 would extend the time period by one year and would become effective June 30, 2008.

INCREASE DORMITORY CAPACITY FOR CERTAIN DETENTION FACILITIES

Section 10 of the PCS would authorize certain county detention facilities to increase dormitory capacity to up to 56 inmates notwithstanding the current rule that requires a capacity of no more than 40 inmates. This exception would apply only to those counties that have a population in excess of 600,000 according to the most recent decennial federal census.

Background: Wake and Mecklenburg are the two counties with populations meeting this criterion. Wake County is in the process of expanding the Hammond Road Detention Center and has proposed the construction of a 56-bed "direct supervision" housing unit. The current administrative rule, requiring a maximum of 40 inmates per dormitory, was adopted in 1991 prior to the use of the direct supervision model. With the support of the sheriff, Wake County is seeking an exception to the rule for efficiency and cost savings.

DISCLOSURE OF RETIRED STATE, LOCAL AND PUBLIC SCHOOL EMPLOYEE INFORMATION

Section 11 of the PCS would authorize the Retirement Systems Division of the Department of the State Treasurer to disclose to domiciled nonprofit organizations that represent 2,000 or more active or retired State government, local government, or public school employees the names and mailing addresses of former:

- State employees
- Local government employees
- Public school employees
- Community college employees

Organizations that would be eligible to obtain information under this provision include the North Carolina Retired Governmental Employees' Association (NCRGEA), the State Employees Association of North Carolina (SEANC), and the North Carolina Association of Educators (NCAE).

Background: Personnel files of State and local government employees are confidential and cannot be released, except for certain items of information that must be maintained as separate public records. Similar statutes govern the personnel records of public school and community college employees. A personnel file consists of certain employment-related and personal information. "Personal information" includes an individual's home address, social security number, medical history, personal financial data, marital status, dependents, and beneficiaries.

Personnel files of former State employees who have been separated from State employment for 10 or more years are public, except for the following, which remain confidential:

- Documents relating to demotions.
- Documents relating to disciplinary actions resulting in dismissal.
- Personnel files maintained by the Retirement Systems Division of the Department of the State Treasurer.

Therefore, a State employee's address is confidential information even after separation from employment. Without the changes in Section 11, the State Treasurer does not have authority to release this information.

EFFECTIVE DATE: Except as otherwise provided, the PCS would be effective when it becomes law.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO PROVIDE THAT THE COURT MAY CONSIDER A DEFENDANT'S PRIOR WILLFUL FAILURES TO COMPLY WITH CONDITIONS OF RELEASE WHEN PLACED ON SUPERVISED PROBATION, PAROLE, OR POST-RELEASE SUPERVISION AS AN AGGRAVATING FACTOR AND TO PROVIDE THAT A COURT MAY EXTEND OR MODIFY.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 15A-1340.16(d) is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(12a) The defendant willfully failed to comply with conditions of release when placed on supervised probation, parole, or post-release supervision during the 10-year period prior to the commission of the offense for which the defendant is being sentenced."

SECTION 2. G.S. 15A-1342(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) Period. – The court may place a convicted offender on probation for the appropriate period as specified in G.S. 15A-1343.2(d), not to exceed a maximum of five years. The court may place a defendant as to whom prosecution has been deferred on probation for a maximum of two years. The probation remains conditional and subject to revocation during the period of probation imposed, unless terminated as provided in subsection (b) or G.S. 15A-1341(c).

Extension. – ~~The~~ In addition to G.S. 15A-1344, the court with the consent of the defendant may extend the period of probation beyond the original period (i) for the purpose of allowing the defendant to complete a program of restitution, or (ii) to allow the defendant to continue medical or psychiatric treatment ordered as a condition of the probation. The period of extension shall not exceed three years beyond the original period of probation. The special extension authorized herein may be ordered only in the last six months of the original period of probation. Any probationary judgment form provided to a defendant on supervised probation shall state that probation may be extended pursuant to this subsection."

SECTION 3. G.S. 15A-1344 reads as rewritten:

"§ 15A-1344. Response to violations; alteration and revocation.

(a) Authority to Alter or Revoke. – Except as provided in subsection (b), probation may be reduced, terminated, continued, extended, modified, or revoked by any judge entitled to sit in the court which imposed probation and who is resident or presiding in the district court district as defined in G.S. 7A-133 or superior court district or set of districts as defined in G.S. 7A-41.1, as the case may be, where the sentence of probation was imposed, where the probationer violates probation, or where the probationer resides. Upon a finding that an offender sentenced to community punishment under Article 81B has violated one or more conditions of probation, the court's authority to modify the probation judgment includes the authority to require the offender to comply with conditions of probation that would otherwise make the sentence an intermediate punishment. The district attorney of the prosecutorial district as defined in G.S. 7A-60 in which probation was imposed must be given reasonable notice of any hearing to affect probation substantially.

(b) Limits on Jurisdiction to Alter or Revoke Unsupervised Probation. – If the sentencing judge has entered an order to limit jurisdiction to consider a sentence of unsupervised probation under G.S. 15A-1342(h), a sentence of unsupervised probation may be reduced, terminated, continued, extended, modified, or revoked only by the sentencing judge or, if the sentencing judge is no longer on the bench, by a presiding judge in the court where the defendant was sentenced.

(c) Procedure on Altering or Revoking Probation; Returning Probationer to District Where Sentenced. – When a judge reduces, terminates, extends, modifies, or revokes probation outside the county where the judgment was entered, the clerk must send a copy of the order and any other records to the court where probation was originally imposed. A court on its own motion may return the probationer to the district court district as defined in G.S. 7A-133 or superior court district or set of districts as defined in G.S. 7A-41.1, as the case may be, where probation was imposed or where the probationer resides for reduction, termination, continuation, extension, modification, or revocation of probation. In cases where the probation is revoked in a county other than the county of original conviction the clerk in that county must issue a commitment order and must file the order revoking probation and the commitment order, which will constitute sufficient permanent record of the proceeding in that court, and must send a certified copy of the order revoking probation, the commitment order, and all other records pertaining thereto to the county of original conviction to be filed with the original records. The clerk in the county other than the county of original conviction must issue the formal commitment to the North Carolina Department of Correction.

(d) Extension and Modification; Response to Violations. – At any time prior to the expiration or termination of the probation ~~period,~~ period or in accordance with subsection (f) of this section, the court may after notice and hearing and for good cause shown extend the period of probation up to the maximum allowed under

G.S. 15A-1342(a) and may modify the conditions of probation. The probation period shall be tolled if the probationer shall have pending against him criminal charges in any court of competent jurisdiction, which, upon conviction, could result in revocation proceedings against him for violation of the terms of this probation. The hearing may be held in the absence of the defendant, if he fails to appear for the hearing after a reasonable effort to notify him. If a convicted defendant violates a condition of probation at any time prior to the expiration or termination of the period of probation, the court, in accordance with the provisions of G.S. 15A-1345, may continue him on probation, with or without modifying the conditions, may place the defendant on special probation as provided in subsection (e), or, if continuation, modification, or special probation is not appropriate, may revoke the probation and activate the suspended sentence imposed at the time of initial sentencing, if any, or may order that charges as to which prosecution has been deferred be brought to trial; provided that probation may not be revoked solely for conviction of a Class 3 misdemeanor. The court, before activating a sentence to imprisonment established when the defendant was placed on probation, may reduce the sentence, but the reduction shall be consistent with subsection (d1) of this section. A sentence activated upon revocation of probation commences on the day probation is revoked and runs concurrently with any other period of probation, parole, or imprisonment to which the defendant is subject during that period unless the revoking judge specifies that it is to run consecutively with the other period.

(d1) Reduction of Initial Sentence. – If the court elects to reduce the sentence of imprisonment for a felony, it shall not deviate from the range of minimum durations established in Article 81B of this Chapter for the class of offense and prior record level used in determining the initial sentence. If the presumptive range is used for the initial suspended sentence, the reduced sentence shall be within the presumptive range. If the mitigated range is used for the initial suspended sentence, the reduced sentence shall be within the mitigated range. If the aggravated range is used for the initial suspended sentence, the reduced sentence shall be within the aggravated range. If the court elects to reduce the sentence for a misdemeanor, it shall not deviate from the range of durations established in Article 81B for the class of offense and prior conviction level used in determining the initial sentence.

(e) Special Probation in Response to Violation. – When a defendant has violated a condition of probation, the court may modify his probation to place him on special probation as provided in this subsection. In placing him on special probation, the court may continue or modify the conditions of his probation and in addition require that he submit to a period or periods of imprisonment, either continuous or noncontinuous, at whatever time or intervals within the period of probation the court determines. In addition to any other conditions of probation which the court may impose, the court shall impose, when imposing a period or periods of imprisonment as a condition of special probation, the condition that the defendant obey the Rules and Regulations of the Department of Correction governing conduct of inmates, and this condition shall apply to the defendant whether or not the court imposes it as a part of the written order. If imprisonment is for continuous periods, the confinement may be in either the custody of the Department of Correction or a local confinement facility. Noncontinuous periods of imprisonment under special probation may only be served in a designated local confinement or treatment facility. Except for probationary sentences for impaired driving under G.S. 20-138.1, the total of all periods of confinement imposed as an incident of special probation, but not including an activated suspended sentence, may not exceed one-fourth the maximum sentence of imprisonment imposed for the offense. For probationary sentences for impaired driving under G.S. 20-138.1, the total of all periods of confinement imposed as an incident of special probation, but not including an activated suspended sentence, shall not exceed one-fourth the maximum penalty allowed by law. No confinement other than an activated suspended sentence may be required beyond the period of probation or beyond two years of the time the special probation is imposed, whichever comes first.

(e1) Criminal Contempt in Response to Violation. – If a defendant willfully violates a condition of probation, the court may hold the defendant in criminal contempt as provided in Article 1 of Chapter 5A of the General Statutes. A finding of criminal contempt by the court shall not revoke the probation. If the offender serves a sentence for contempt in a local confinement facility, the Department of Correction shall pay for the confinement at the standard rate set by the General Assembly pursuant to G.S. 148-32.1(a) regardless of whether the offender would be eligible under the terms of that subsection.

(e2) Mandatory Satellite-Based Monitoring Required for Extension of Probation in Response to Violation by Certain Sex Offenders. – If a defendant who is in the category described by G.S. 14-208.40(a)(1) or G.S. 14-208.40(a)(2) violates probation and if the court extends the probation as a result of the violation, then the court shall order satellite-based monitoring pursuant to Part 5 of Article 27A of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes as a condition of the extended probation.

(f) Extension, Modification or Revocation after Period of Probation. – The court may extend, modify, or revoke probation after the expiration of the period of probation ~~if:~~if all of the following apply:

(1) Before the expiration of the period of probation the State has filed a written ~~motion~~ violation report with the clerk indicating its intent to conduct a ~~revocation hearing; and~~hearing on one or more violations of one or conditions of probation.

(2) The court finds that the ~~State has made reasonable effort to notify the probationer and to conduct the hearing earlier.~~probationer did violate the one or more conditions of probation prior to the expiration period of probation.

(3) The court finds for good cause shown and stated that the probation should be extended, modified, or revoked.

(4) If the court opts to extend the period of probation, the court may extend the period of probation up to the maximum allowed under G.S. 15A-1342(a)."

SECTION 4. Section 1 of this act becomes effective December 1, 2008, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date. Sections 2 and 3 of this act become effective December 1, 2008, and apply to probation violation hearings on or after that date. The remainder of this act becomes effective December 1, 2008.

HOUSE BILL 1003:
Aggravating Factor/No Probation Compliance

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	June 21, 2008
Introduced by:	Reps. Johnson, Barnhart, Steen	Summary by:	Jeff Hudson
Version:	PCS to Third Edition H1003-CSST-114v3		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 1003 would provide that a court may consider a defendant's prior failure to comply with conditions of release when placed on supervised probation, parole, or post-release supervision as an aggravating factor for purposes of sentencing.

[As introduced, this bill was identical to S1461, as introduced by Sen. Hartsell, which is currently in Senate Judiciary II (Criminal).]

CURRENT LAW & BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1. Structured sentencing applies to offenses committed on or after October 1, 1994. Under structured sentencing, a court must take the following steps to determine the appropriate sentence for felonies under structured sentencing:

- Determine the offense class.
- Determine the prior record level for the defendant.
- Consider aggravating and mitigating factors.
- Select a minimum sentence from the applicable minimum sentence range.
- Determine the maximum sentence.
- Determine the sentence disposition (active, intermediate, or community).

The sentencing grid contains three ranges of punishment for felonies: presumptive, aggravated, and mitigated. To determine the range in which to sentence a defendant, the court must consider any evidence of aggravating and mitigating factors. The statutory aggravating factors are set out in G.S 15A-1340.16(d) (attached below). If the court finds that aggravating factors are present and outweigh any mitigating factors, it may depart from the presumptive range of punishment and impose a term of punishment from the aggravated range. Evidence necessary to prove an element of the offense can not be used to prove any factor in aggravation, and the same item of evidence can not be used to prove more than one factor in aggravation.

The proposed committee substitute for House Bill 1003 would provide that a court may consider a defendant's prior failure to comply with conditions of release when placed on supervised probation, parole, or post-release supervision as an aggravating factor for purposes of sentencing. The proposed committee substitute makes no changes to Section 1 from the 3rd edition of the bill.

Sections 2-3. After the period of probation has expired under the terms of the probation, a judge may only revoke probation according to G.S. 15A-1344(f). For the judge to have the authority to revoke probation, all of the following conditions must be met:

1. Before the expiration of the period of probation the State has filed a written motion with the clerk indicating its intent to conduct a revocation hearing.
2. The court finds that the State has made reasonable effort to notify the probationer and to conduct the hearing earlier.

The proposed committee substitute would allow the court the authority to extend, modify or revoke probation if all of the following conditions are met:

1. Before the expiration of the period of probation the State has filed a written violation report with the clerk indicating its intent to conduct a hearing on one or more violations of one or conditions of probation.
2. The court finds that the probationer did violate the one or more conditions of probation prior to the expiration period of probation.
3. The court finds for good cause shown and stated that the probation should be extended, modified, or revoked.
4. If the court opts to extend the period of probation, the court may extend the period of probation up to three years.

EFFECTIVE DATE:

House Bill 1003 would become effective December 1, 2007, and apply to offenses committed on or after that date.

have the same address, the corporation's bylaws may provide that a single notice may be given to such members jointly.

SECTION 4. G.S. 55A-7-04 reads as rewritten:

"§ 55A-7-04. Action by written consent.

(a) Action required or permitted by this Chapter to be taken at a meeting of members may be taken without a meeting if the action is taken by all members entitled to vote on the action. The action shall be evidenced by one or more written consents describing the action taken, signed before or after such action by all members entitled to vote thereon, and delivered to the corporation for inclusion in the minutes or filing with the corporate records. To the extent the corporation has agreed pursuant to G.S. 55A-1-70, a member's consent to action taken without a meeting may be in electronic form and delivered by electronic means.

(b) If not otherwise determined under G.S. 55A-7-03 or G.S. 55A-7-07, the record date for determining members entitled to take action without a meeting is the date the first member signs the consent under subsection (a) of this section.

(c) A consent signed under this section has the effect of a meeting vote and may be described as such in any document."

SECTION 5. G.S. 55A-7-08 reads as rewritten:

"§ 55A-7-08. Action by written ballot.

(a) Unless prohibited or limited by the articles of incorporation or bylaws and without regard to the requirements of G.S. 55A-7-04, any action that may be taken at any annual, regular, or special meeting of members may be taken without a meeting if the corporation delivers a written ballot to every member entitled to vote on the matter. Any requirement that any vote of the members be made by written ballot may be satisfied by a ballot submitted by electronic transmission, including electronic mail, provided that such electronic transmission shall either set forth or be submitted with information from which it can be determined that the electronic transmission was authorized by the member or the member's proxy.

(b) A written ballot shall:

(1) Set forth each proposed action; and

(2) Provide an opportunity to vote for or against each proposed action.

(c) Approval by written ballot pursuant to this section shall be valid only when the number of votes cast by ballot equals or exceeds the quorum required to be present at a meeting authorizing the action, and the number of approvals equals or exceeds the number of votes that would be required to approve the matter at a meeting at which the same total number of votes were cast.

(d) All solicitations for votes by written ballot shall indicate the time by which a ballot shall be received by the corporation in order to be counted.

(e) Except as otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation or bylaws, a written ballot shall not be revoked."

SECTION 6. G.S. 55A-7-24 reads as rewritten:

"§ 55A-7-24. Proxies.

(a) Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws prohibit or limit proxy voting, a member may vote in person or by proxy. A member may appoint one or more proxies to vote or otherwise act for ~~him~~ the member by signing an appointment form, either personally or by ~~his~~ the member's attorney-in-fact. ~~A photocopy, telegram, cablegram, facsimile transmission, or equivalent reproduction of a writing appointing one or more proxies,~~ Without limiting G.S. 55A-1-70, an appointment in the form of an electronic record that bears the member's electronic signature and that may be directly reproduced in paper form by an automated process shall be deemed a valid appointment form within the meaning of this section. In addition, if and to the extent permitted by the nonprofit corporation, a member may appoint one or more proxies ~~(i) by an electronic mail message or other form of electronic, wire, or wireless communication that provides a written statement appearing to have been sent by the member, or (ii)~~ by any kind of ~~electronic or~~ telephonic transmission, even if not accompanied by written communication, under circumstances or together with information from which the nonprofit corporation can reasonably assume that the appointment was made or authorized by the member.

(b) An appointment of a proxy is effective when received by the secretary or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes. An appointment is valid for 11 months unless a different period is expressly provided in the appointment form.

(c) An appointment of a proxy is revocable by the member unless the appointment form conspicuously states that it is irrevocable and the appointment is coupled with an interest. An appointment made irrevocable under this subsection shall be revocable when the interest with which it is coupled is extinguished. A transferee for value of an interest subject to an irrevocable appointment may revoke the appointment if he did not have actual knowledge of its irrevocability.

(d) The death or incapacity of the member appointing a proxy does not affect the right of the corporation to accept the proxy's authority unless notice of the death or incapacity is received by the secretary or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate votes before the proxy exercises authority under the appointment.

(e) A revocable appointment of a proxy is revoked by the person appointing the proxy:

(1) Attending any meeting and voting in person; or

(2) Signing and delivering to the secretary or other officer or agent authorized to tabulate proxy votes either a writing stating that the appointment of the proxy is revoked or a subsequent appointment form.

(f) Subject to G.S. 55A-7-27 and to any express limitation on the proxy's authority appearing on the face of the appointment form, a corporation is entitled to accept the proxy's vote or other action as that of the member making the appointment."

SECTION 7. G.S. 55A-8-21 reads as rewritten:

"§ 55A-8-21. Action without meeting.

(a) Unless the articles of incorporation or bylaws provide otherwise, action required or permitted by this Chapter to be taken at a board of directors' meeting may be taken without a meeting if the action is taken by all members of the board. The action shall be evidenced by one or more written consents signed by each director before or after such action, describing the action taken, and included in the minutes or filed with the corporate records reflecting the action taken. To the extent the corporation has agreed pursuant to G.S. 55A-1-70, a director's consent to action taken without meeting may be in electronic form and delivered by electronic means.

(b) Action taken under this section is effective when the last director signs the consent, unless the consent specifies a different effective date.

(c) A consent signed under this section has the effect of a meeting vote and may be described as such in any document."

SECTION 8. This act becomes effective October 1, 2008.

MEMORANDUM
June 13, 2008

TO: Senate Judiciary II Committee
FROM: General Statutes Commission
RE: House Bill 2178 (Electronic Voting for Nonprofits)

General Comments

This bill amends Chapter 55A of the General Statutes (North Carolina Nonprofit Corporation Act) to expressly permit nonprofit corporations incorporated in this State to send notices to members and accept votes and proxies from members electronically and to accept members' and directors' consents to action taken without meeting in which the consent is given electronically. The bill also establishes the method by which nonprofit corporations may agree to conduct transactions under Chapter 55A by electronic means.

The amendments in this bill parallel amendments made to Chapter 55 of the General Statutes (North Carolina Business Corporation Act) in 2001, so that this bill conforms Chapter 55A to Chapter 55 in this regard. The legislative staff summary for the part of the 2001 bill that made the amendments to Chapter 55 described the changes as "conforming changes for corporations to operate under the Uniform Electronic Transactions Act." The changes would allow a nonprofit corporation to send notices and to conduct votes of its members in a more efficient and cost-effective manner.

Specific Comments

Section 1 amends G.S. 55A-1-40 (Chapter definitions) to add three new definitions, "electronic," "electronic record," and "electronic signature," which are defined to be the same as the definitions of these terms in Article 40 of Chapter 66 of the General Statutes (Uniform Electronic Transactions Act). The section also amends the definition of "vote" to expressly include electronic ballots and electronic consents.

Section 2 amends G.S. 55A-1-41 (Notice) in three places. In subsection (b), the list of various methods of electronic communication (some now old-fashioned) is replaced with the term, "electronic means" ("electronic" being a newly-defined term). In subsection (c), which currently adopts the "mailbox rule" for paper notices sent by U.S. mail (effective when mailed, whether or not actually received), the amendment specifies that the nonprofit corporation and its member may agree to adopt the electronic equivalent of the "mailbox rule" for electronically transmitted notices and that the member may later terminate the agreement on a prospective basis. In subsection (e), a sentence is added providing that the time of receipt of an electronic notice is determined under G.S. 66-325 (in summary, when a message enters the recipient's processing system in a form capable of being processed by that system).

Section 3 adds a new Part 7 (Miscellaneous) to Article 1 of Chapter 55A, containing one new General Statutes section, G.S. 55A-1-70 (Electronic transactions). This new section provides that for purposes of applying the Uniform Electronic Transactions Act (Article 40 of Chapter 66), a corporation may agree to conduct a transaction by electronic means in its articles of incorporation or bylaws or by action of its board of directors.

Section 4 amends G.S. 55A-7-04 (Action by written consent) in subsection (a) to allow a member to consent electronically to action taken without a meeting if the corporation has agreed as provided in (new) G.S. 55A-1-70.

Section 5 amends G.S. 55A-7-08 (Action by written ballot) in subsection (a) to expressly allow electronically transmitted ballots as long as the transmission includes information showing that the member authorized the electronic transmission.

Section 6 amends G.S. 55A-7-24 (Proxies) in subsection (a) to update the terminology and conform it more closely to the equivalent provisions of G.S. 55-7-22 (Proxies). G.S. 55A-7-24(a) currently allows a proxy to be a photocopy, telegram, cablegram, facsimile transmission, "equivalent reproduction of a writing," or an e-mail if permitted by the corporation. The statute also currently has a catch-all provision, subject to permission by the corporation, for any kind of electronic or telephonic transmission, even without a writing, if the corporation can tell that the member authorized the proxy. The amendment substitutes for the current lists language using the new defined term "electronic record." The amended language also requires that all proxies in the form of an electronic record have the member's electronic signature (also a new defined term) and be reproducible in paper form. The existing catch-all accordingly becomes limited to telephone transmissions only.

Section 7 amends G.S. 55A-8-21 (Action without meeting) in subsection (a) to allow a director to consent electronically to action taken without a meeting if the corporation has agreed as provided in (new) G.S. 55A-1-70. This amendment parallels the amendment in Section 4 to G.S. 55A-7-04 on members' consents to action taken without meeting.

Section 8 provides an effective date of October 1, 2008.

MEMORANDUM
June 13, 2008

TO: Senate Judiciary II Committee
FROM: General Statutes Commission
RE: HB 2287 (Service of Process/Electronic or Fax Receipt)

General Comments

This bill amends Rule 4(j) of the Rules of Civil Procedure to expressly recognize the use of electronic or facsimile proof of delivery receipts when service of process is provided by designated delivery services, i.e., FedEx, UPS, and DHL. The bill makes technical and minor stylistic changes to Rule 4(j) and eliminates an ambiguity in Rule 4(j2)(2). Finally, the bill makes stylistic and conforming changes to G.S. 1-75.10 relating to proof of service of process.

Designated delivery services use electronic receipts, similar to the proof of delivery used in the U.S. Postal Service's signature confirmation service, or provide the sender with a facsimile receipt. The statutes currently allow a copy of the U.S. Postal Service's signature confirmation to be used for proof of delivery. This bill resulted from a report by a litigator who used a designated delivery service for service of process, as allowed by Rule 4, but then had a clerk of court reject a copy of the electronic receipt as proof of delivery.

Specific Comments

Section 1 amends G.S. 1A-1, Rule 4(j) to define "delivery receipt" in the context of a designated delivery service to include an electronic or facsimile receipt. Section 1 also makes technical and minor stylistic changes in Rule 4(j)(1) and Rule 4(j)(9). Sections 1 and 3 together eliminate any implication that the amendments in this bill authorize service of process by e-mail by moving the current prohibition against the use of electronic mailing for service of process from sub-subdivision (j)(1)e., relating to service of process by signature confirmation, to a new subsection (j6).

Section 2 amends G.S. 1A-1, Rule 4(j2)(2) to eliminate an ambiguity in the second sentence of the subdivision by clarifying that the language "provided by the United States Postal Service" does not modify "delivery" receipt and to expressly provide that the term "delivery receipt" includes an electronic or facsimile receipt provided by a designated delivery service. Section 2 also updates cross references to G.S. 1-75.10 as amended by Section 4.

Section 4 amends G.S. 1-75.10 to authorize the use of a facsimile delivery receipt or a printout of an electronic delivery receipt in proving service of process by a designated delivery service and makes minor stylistic changes, and Section 5 amends G.S. 1A-1, Rule 4(j1) to make a conforming cross reference to G.S. 1-75.10 as amended by Section 4.

Section 6, as amended by the House Judiciary I Committee, makes the bill effective October 1, 2008, applicable to receipts given thereafter.

every case of a wound or injury caused, or apparently caused, by a knife or sharp or pointed instrument if it appears to the physician or surgeon treating the case that a criminal act was involved, and every case of a wound, injury or illness in which there is grave bodily harm or grave illness if it appears to the physician or surgeon treating the case that the wound, injury or illness resulted from a criminal act of violence.

(c) Each report made pursuant to subsections (a) and (b) above shall state the name of the wounded, ill or injured person, if known, and the age, sex, race, residence or present location, if known, and the character and extent of his injuries.

(c1) In addition to the reporting requirements of subsection (b) of this section, cases involving recurrent illness or serious physical injury to any child under the age of 18 years where the illness or injury appears, in the physician's professional judgment, to be the result of non-accidental trauma shall be reported by the physician as soon as it becomes practicable before, during, or after completion of treatment. If the case is treated in a hospital, sanitarium, or other medical institution or facility, the report shall be made by the Director, Administrator, or other person designated by the Director or Administrator of the medical institution or facility, or if the case is treated elsewhere, the report shall be made by the physician or surgeon treating the case to the chief of police or the police authorities of the city or town in this State in which the hospital or other institution or place of treatment is located. If the hospital or other institution or place of treatment is located outside the corporate limits of a city or town, then the report shall be made by the proper person in the manner set forth above to the sheriff of the respective county or to one of the sheriff's deputies. This reporting requirement is in addition to the duty set forth in G.S. 7B-301 to report child abuse, neglect, dependence, or the death of any juvenile as the result of maltreatment to the director of the department of social services in the county where the juvenile resides or is found.

(d) Any hospital, sanitarium, or other like institution or Director, Administrator, or other designated person, or physician or surgeon participating in good faith in the making of a report pursuant to this section shall have immunity from any liability, civil or criminal, that might otherwise be incurred or imposed as the result of the making of such report."

HOUSE BILL 2338:
Hospital Report Child Injuries

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	July 2, 2008
Introduced by:	Reps. Weiss, Clary, Earle	Summary by:	Jennifer McGinnis Committee Counsel
Version:	First Edition

SUMMARY: House Bill 2338 would amend existing law requiring physicians and hospitals to report certain cases of wounds, injuries and illnesses to law enforcement agencies to specify that "cases involving recurrent illness or serious physical injury to any child under the age of 18 years old where the illness or injury appears, in the physician's professional judgment, to be the result of non-accidental trauma" shall be reported to law enforcement.

[As introduced, this bill was identical to S1733, as introduced by Sen. Purcell, which is currently in Senate Health Care.]

CURRENT LAW: Two existing sections of the General Statutes require that certain types of injuries be reported to either County Departments of Social Services or local law enforcement agencies.

- G.S. 7B-301. Duty to report abuse, neglect, dependency, or death due to maltreatment. This statute directs, "any person or institution who has cause to suspect that any juvenile is abused, neglected...or has died as the result of maltreatment, shall report the case of that juvenile to the director of the department of social services in the county where the juvenile resides or is found."
- G.S. 90-21.20. Reporting by physicians and hospitals of wounds, injuries and illnesses. This statute directs the treating physician or surgeon, or the director, administrator or designated person of a facility in which a person is treated, to contact the appropriate local law enforcement agency of cases of the following types of wounds, injuries or illnesses: "...every case of a bullet wound, gunshot wound...every case of illness apparently caused by poisoning, every case of a wound or injury caused...by a knife or sharp or pointed instrument if it appears to the physician or surgeon treating the case that the wound...resulted from a criminal act of violence, and every case...in which there is grave bodily harm or grave illness if it appears...that the wound...resulted from a criminal act of violence."

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 2338 would add a new subsection (c1) to G.S. 90-21.20 to specify that in addition to the existing reporting requirements (detailed in second bullet point, above), the parties listed (physician, administrator, etc.) shall report to the appropriate law enforcement agency any, "...cases involving recurrent illness or serious physical injury to any child under the age of 18 years old where the illness or injury appears, in the physician's professional judgment, to be the result of non-accidental trauma...". This new subsection specifies that this requirement to report to law enforcement is in addition to the existing requirement to report to the director of the county department of social services set forth in G.S. 7B-301 (detailed in first bullet point, above).

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act is effective when it becomes law.

Heather Fennel, Counsel to House Judiciary II, and Ben Popkin, Counsel to House Children, Youth and Families and Senate Judiciary II, substantially contributed to this summary.

MEMORANDUM

TO: Senate Judiciary II Committee

FROM: General Statutes Commission

DATE: July 10, 2008

RE: SB 1632 (2008 Technical Corrections Act)

General Comments

Part I of this bill (Sections 1 through 33) contains corrections of a technical nature to the General Statutes that are recommended by the General Statutes Commission. These amendments correct typographical errors, delete obsolete references, update names and statutory references and correct terminology, make conforming changes, including stylistic conforming changes, correct redlining errors, correct obvious drafting errors, insert subsection catchlines as needed for stylistic consistency, change language to be gender neutral, and resolve codification problems. Part II of this bill contains additional provisions that did not come from the General Statutes Commission.

Specific Comments

Section 1. This section amends G.S. 1-75.4(6) to add a missing "or." G.S. 1-75.4(6) was amended by S.L. 2007-351, s. 2, to add a new sub-subdivision d.; the amendment did not include an "or" to go between existing sub-subdivision c. and the new sub-subdivision.

Section 2. This section amends G.S. 7A-177(b) to delete a superfluous preposition. G.S. 7A-177(b) was amended by two different acts last year (S.L. 2007-393, s. 15, and S.L. 2007-484, s. 25.5). Among other things, each act added what was intended to be the same new introductory phrase to G.S. 7A-177(b). One act, however, inserted "in subsection (a)" while the other inserted "under subsection (a)." One of the two prepositions should be deleted, and "under" is more consistent with the style used in this State's statutes.

Section 3. This section amends G.S. 7A-498.8(b) to insert a word ("other") that was included in subdivision (7) but not underlined when G.S. 7A-498.8(b) was amended last year to add subdivision (6a).

Section 4. This section amends G.S. 7A-796(19) to make a conforming change by deleting a reference to repealed G.S. 7A-798 and to update a working title. G.S. 7A-798, repealed last year, dealt with grants that are no longer being made. It required grant applications to name a local program director; it did not authorize the creation of that position. There is no substitute statutory provision, so the reference to G.S. 7A-798 should be deleted. In addition, the Commission is informed by the Administrative Office of the Courts that the current working title for the position is "local drug treatment coordinator" and that some judicial districts have more than one.

Section 5. This section amends G.S. 14-208.41(b) to delete now-extraneous references to (i) the Department of Corrections ordering a defendant to enroll in GPS monitoring and (ii) a GPS monitoring period specified by the Department. These references were added to G.S. 14-208.41(b) by S.L. 2007-213, s. 13.

S.L. 2007-213 amended the statutes on GPS monitoring of certain sex offenders. Among other things, the session law added G.S. 14-208.40A, 14-208.40B, and 14-208.40C. In earlier versions of S.L. 2007-213, G.S. 14-208.40B would have provided that when a defendant met the pertinent criteria for GPS monitoring but the court at defendant's sentencing did not make a determination on that issue and order monitoring, the Department was to do it. As ultimately enacted, however, G.S. 14-208.40B provides for the Department to refer the matter back to the court, which then makes the necessary findings and orders. The amendments to G.S. 14-208.41(b) that were made by S.L. 2007-213 appear to have been conforming amendments to the earlier version of G.S. 14-208.40B that should have been taken out when G.S. 14-208.40B was changed to its current form. Under S.L. 2007-214 as enacted, the Department does not in fact order a defendant to enroll in a GPS monitoring program or specify the period of time.

Section 6. This section amends G.S. 18B-902(h) to add a subsection catchline. The subsection was added last year by S.L. 2007-402, s. 2(b), which did not provide a catchline for the subsection. Every other subsection in G.S. 18B-902 has a subsection catchline, and one should be included in subsection (h) for stylistic consistency.

Section 7. This section makes the same amendment to G.S. 18B-903(b2) that the preceeding section made to G.S. 18B-902(h); it adds a subsection catchline. Subsection (b2) was added last year by S.L. 2007-402, s. 2(c), which did not provide a catchline for the subsection. Every other subsection in G.S. 18B-903 has a subsection catchline, and one should be included in subsection (b2) for stylistic consistency.

Section 8. This section amends G.S. 19A-62(c) to add a subsection catchline for consistency with the style of the rest of G.S. 19A-62.

Section 9. This section amends G.S. 20-19(e) to correct the codification. After amendment last year, this subsection has three numbered lists in the same subsection. Two of them are blocked as subdivisions with subdivision numbering. As a result, subsection (e) has two subdivision (1)s and two subdivision (2)s, which can make citing to those subdivisions difficult.

The amendments in this section break subsection (e) into four subsections. As amended, (i) subsection (e) itself contains the basic provision on permanent license revocation, (ii) new subsection (e1) contains the first exception to the basic provision, (iii) new subsection (e2) contains the second exception to the basic provision, and (iv) new subsection (e3) contains the authority of the Division of Motor Vehicles to place conditions on license restorations under either of the exceptions. The amendments also make the language gender-neutral and the style of the subdivision punctuation consistent.

Section 10. This section amends G.S. 20-38.7 in subdivision (d)(1) to correct terminology by changing "vacated judgment" to "vacated sentence." Under G.S. 20-38.7, when a defendant appeals an implied-consent offense to superior court, defendant's sentence is what is vacated. If the appeal is withdrawn or the case is remanded back to district court, guilt/innocence is not relitigated and the District Court only resentences the defendant.

Section 11. This section amends G.S. 20-171.21 to correct the terminology by changing the word "fine" to "penalty." This section deals with infractions; the correct term is "penalty" rather than "fine."

Section 12. This section amends G.S. 58-24-185(a) to move the conjunction "or" to its correct location. G.S. 58-24-185(a) contains a list of subdivisions with each subdivision in the list separated by semi-colons; the conjunction "or" should be located between the next-to-last and last subdivision. The conjunction is currently located between subdivision (4) and subdivision (5). Last year, S.L. 2007-27 added subdivision (6) but did not move the conjunction.

Section 13. This section amends G.S. 58-84-35 to update the reference to the Firemen's Relief Fund in subdivision (6) to be a reference to the Firefighters' Relief Fund. The name of the Fund was changed to the "Firefighters' Relief Fund" last year in S.L. 2007-246. That session law made a conforming change in subdivision (5) of G.S. 58-84-35 but failed to update the reference in subdivision (6).

Section 14. This section amends G.S. 90-18.5(b)(2) to correct a citation. G.S. 90-18.5 was enacted last year by S.L. 2007-146, which also amended G.S. 90-11 to add a new subsection (a1), setting the criteria for licensure as an anesthesiologist assistant. This new subsection (G.S. 90-11(a1)) is cited in G.S. 90-18.5(b)(2). Later in the 2007 session, however, the article on the practice of medicine (Article 1 of Chapter 90 of the General Statutes) was substantially reorganized by S.L. 2007-346, which repealed the G.S. 90-11(a1) enacted by S.L. 2007-146 and enacted a new G.S. 90-9.4, containing substantially the same language. S.L. 2007-346 failed to make a conforming change to G.S. 90-18.5 to change the citation to G.S. 90-11(a1) to a citation to G.S. 90-9.4. This section makes that change.

Section 15. This section amends G.S. 105-163.9 to correct a redlining error by removing a duplicative "G.S." G.S. 105-163.9 was amended by S.L. 2007-491, s. 18, to, among other things, replace a citation to G.S. 105-266 with a citation to G.S. 105-241.6. In the process, the letters "G.S." in the citation being deleted were not stricken through.

Section 16. This section amends G.S. 105-249.2(b) to correct a citation to G.S. 105-236(2), (3), and (4), which should now be to G.S. 105-236(a)(2), (3), and (4). In 2006, G.S. 105-236 was amended by S.L. 2006-162 to designate the then-existing portion of G.S. 105-236 as subsection (a) and add additional subsections. As a result, G.S. 105-236(2), (3), and (4) became G.S. 105-236(a)(2), (3), and (4), and the citation to them in G.S. 105-249.2 needs to be conformed.

Section 17. This section amends G.S. 108A-25.2 to delete an extra "and" that resulted from a redlining error in S.L. 2007-97, s. 4. S.L. 2007-97 changed the name of the food stamp program and made some additional changes to terminology associated with that program. When S.L. 2007-97, s. 4, changed the phrase "and food stamp program" in the introductory language of G.S. 108A-25.2 to "and the food and nutrition services program," it inserted the word "and" in front of "food and nutrition services program" but did not strike through the word "and" that was in front of "food stamp program," which resulted in the extra "and."

Section 18. This section amends G.S. 108A-53(a) to insert the word "food" in the phrase "electronic and nutrition benefit." The word was inadvertently omitted when the term "food stamps or authorization cards" was updated in S.L. 2007-97 (the updated term is "electronic food and nutrition benefit").

Section 19. This section amends G.S. 115C-366(a3)(1) to move the conjunction "or" to its proper place between the next-to-last and last subdivisions, which was not done when sub-subdivision g. was added to the end of G.S. 115C-366(a3)(1) by S.L. 2007-283.

Section 20. This section amends G.S. 120-103.1(i)(3)b. to remove the now-extraneous word "legislator."

G.S. 120-103.1(i)(3) was amended by S.L. 2007-348, s. 3. In sub-subdivision b., the session law replaced a requirement for hearings to be closed unless the affected legislator requested that they be open with a requirement for hearings to be open unless certain exceptions apply. The base text for sub-subdivision b. that was used in the session law, however, incorrectly referred to and deleted the term "public servant" instead of "legislator." As a result, the word "legislator" was not deleted and remains in the sub-subdivision as "garbage language."

Section 21. This section amends G.S. 138A-12(f) to correct a typographical error. The phrase "under subsection (b) if this section" should read "under subsection (b) of this section" (italics added).

Section 22. This section amends G.S. 143-652.2(g) to delete the word "reenacted." G.S. 143-652.2 was enacted last year in S.L. 2007-528. It is not a reenactment, and the word "reenacted" is therefore incorrect. There used to be a North Carolina Boxing Commission, created under former G.S. 143-652, which was repealed by S.L. 2004-124, s. 18.2. Although former G.S. 143-652 may well have been a model for G.S. 143-652.2 (which creates the Boxing Advisory Commission), S.L. 2007-528 enacted a new section of the General Statutes; the session law did not reenact G.S. 143-652.

Section 23. This section amends G.S. 143-722(b) to correct a typographical error in a citation. There is no G.S. 143-6-14; the correct citation is to G.S. 143C-6-14.

Section 24. This section amends G.S. 143A-44.1 to correct a typographical error in a citation. The correct citation should be to Article IX of the North Carolina Constitution, which provides for the appointment of the State Board of Education. Article IV, Section 4(1), the incorrect reference, deals with the jurisdiction of the North Carolina Supreme Court.

Section 25. This section amends G.S. 143B-139.5B to update an acronym for the former Division of Facility Services, changing "DFS" to read "DHSR" in two places. S.L. 2007-182 changed the name of the Division from "Division of Facility Services" to "Division of Health Service Regulation."

Section 26. Subsection (a) of this section makes a codification correction; it recodifies G.S. 143B-437.11 as G.S. 143B-437.012. G.S. 143B-437.11 was enacted last year in S.L. 2007-552, which assigned it its code number but directed that the new statute be placed in Part 2 of Article 10 of Chapter 143B of the General Statutes. The code number assigned is not in Part 2 of Article 10 of Chapter 143B; it is in Part 2B. To place the statute in the intended Part, it needs to be recodified.

Subsection (b) makes a conforming amendment to G.S. 150B-1(d)(18), which contains a reference to G.S. 143B-437.11.

Section 27. This section amends the catchline of G.S. 143D-8 to correct an obvious drafting error by changing "Internet control documentation" to read "Internal control documentation." G.S. 143D-8 has nothing to do with the Internet but contains requirements relating to State agencies' documentation of their internal control system.

Section 28. This section amends G.S. 147-86.30(c) to delete a "garbage language" reference to G.S. 143C-9-3. G.S. 147-86.30(c) was rewritten by S.L. 2004-179, s. 1.3. In the process, the revision deleted a citation to former G.S. 143-16.4, which was in the Executive Budget Act. In 2006, the Executive Budget Act was repealed by S.L. 2006-203 and replaced with Chapter 143C of the General Statutes (the State Budget Act). S.L. 2006-203, s. 122, amended G.S. 147-86.30(c) in an attempt to change the citation to former G.S. 143-16.4 to the appropriate section in Chapter 143C, using the pre-2004 version of G.S. 147-86.30(c) as the base text that was being amended. Because of the 2004 amendment, however, the citation to former G.S. 143-16.4 was no longer present in G.S. 147-86.30(c), so the 2006 amendment merely added an unnecessary reference to G.S. 143C-9-3 that lacks context.

Section 29. This section amends G.S. 163-278.27(a1) to correct a typographical error in a citation. There is no G.S. 278.32; the correct reference is to G.S. 163-278.32.

Section 30. This section amends the introductory language of S.L. 2007-177, s. 3, to correct a typographical error in the identification of the statute that the session law intended to amend. The introductory language of S.L. 2007-177, s. 3, stated that it was amending "G.S. 122C-430.30". There is no G.S. 122C-430.30, and the intended reference was to G.S. 122C-430.

Section 31. This section amends the introductory language of S.L. 2007-318, s. 2, to correct a typographical error in the identification of the statute that the session law intended to amend. The introductory language of S.L. 2007-318, s. 2, stated that it was amending "G.S. 105-153A-155(g)". There is no G.S. 105-153A-155; the intended reference was to G.S. 153A-155(g).

Section 32. This section amends Section 44 of S.L. 2007-348 to correct an obvious drafting error. S.L. 2007-348 made various amendments to the State Government Ethics Act. Section 44 is the effective date section for S.L. 2007-348. Section 44 contained two different effective dates for Section 34 of the bill, providing for it to become effective on October 1, 2007, in one sentence and on January 1, 2008, two sentences further on. It appears that the January 1, 2008, date was the intended one (Section 34 amended G.S. 138A-24 dealing with the contents of a statement of economic interest).

Section 33. This section corrects obvious drafting errors in two sections of S.L. 2007-391. Subsection (a) amends S.L. 2007-391, s. 1(c), to change "act" to "section." Section 1(c) is an effective date provision for Section 1 of S.L. 2007-391; it was not intended to be the effective date section for the entire act. Subsection (b) amends S.L. 2007-391, s. 6(f), which is an effective date provision for Section 6 of S.L. 2007-391, to correct the references to "Subsections 7(b) through 7(e) of this section" to read "Subsections 6(b) through 6(e) of this section."

(2) The defendant would be entitled to a jury determination of those facts pursuant to G.S. 20-179.

A defendant who has a right of appeal under this subsection, gives notice of appeal, and subsequently withdraws the appeal shall have the sentence imposed by the district court reinstated by the district court as a final judgment that is not subject to further appeal."

SECTION 11. G.S. 20-171.21 reads as rewritten:

"Any person violating any of the provisions of this Part shall be responsible for an infraction and may be subject to a ~~fine~~ penalty of not more than two hundred dollars ($200.00)."

SECTION 12. G.S. 58-24-185(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) Nothing contained in this Article shall be so construed as to affect or apply to:

(1) Grand or subordinate lodges of societies, orders or associations now doing business in this State which provide benefits exclusively through local or subordinate lodges;

(2) Orders, societies or associations which admit to membership only persons engaged in one or more crafts or hazardous occupations, in the same or similar lines of business, insuring only their own members and their families, and the ladies' societies or ladies' auxiliaries to such orders, societies or associations;

(3) Domestic societies which limit their membership to employees of a particular city or town, designated firm, business house or corporation which provide for a death benefit of not more than five hundred dollars ($500.00) or disability benefits of not more than three hundred fifty dollars ($350.00) to any person in any one year, or both;

(4) Domestic societies or associations of a purely religious, charitable or benevolent description, which provide for a death benefit of not more than five hundred dollars ($500.00) or for disability benefits of not more than three hundred fifty dollars ($350.00) to any one person in any one year, or both; ~~or~~

SECTION 35.(a) G.S. 14-208.5 reads as rewritten:

"§ 14-208.5. Purpose.

The General Assembly recognizes that sex offenders often pose a high risk of engaging in sex offenses even after being released from incarceration or commitment and that protection of the public from sex offenders is of paramount governmental interest.

The General Assembly also recognizes that persons who commit certain other types of offenses against minors, such as kidnapping, pose significant and unacceptable threats to the public safety and welfare of the children in this State and that the protection of those children is of great governmental interest. Further, the General Assembly recognizes that law enforcement officers' efforts to protect communities, conduct investigations, and quickly apprehend offenders who commit sex offenses or certain offenses against minors are impaired by the lack of information available to law enforcement agencies about convicted offenders who live within the agency's jurisdiction. Release of information about these offenders will further the governmental interests of public safety so long as the information released is rationally related to the furtherance of those goals.

The enactment of the sex offender monitoring program in Part 5 of this Article is designed to utilize the latest technological solutions to monitor and track serious and violent sex offenders. The use of a continuous satellite-based monitoring system will provide this State with a more efficient and accurate method of monitoring these serious and predatory criminals. United States Department of Justice statistics reveal that, compared to non-sex offenders released from State prisons, released sex offenders were four times more likely to be rearrested for a sex crime. Intensive supervision of serious offenders and violent sex offenders is a crucial element to both the rehabilitation of the released convict and the safety of the surrounding community.

Technological solutions now exist to provide improved supervision and behavioral control of serious offenders and violent sex offenders once they have completed active sentences. These solutions can now also provide law enforcement and correctional professionals with significant new tools for electronic correlation of the constantly updated geographic location of supervised serious offenders and violent sexual offenders following their release, with the geographic location of reported crimes, both to possibly link released offenders to crimes or to possibly exclude released offenders from ongoing criminal investigations. Continuous 24 hours a day, seven days a week electronic monitoring of those convicted of serious and violent sexual offenses is a valuable and reasonable requirement for those convicts who are required by law to register as sex offenders. The satellite-based monitoring program is civil and not punitive in nature, and is primarily designed as a means of assuring, as much as possible, public protection.

Therefore, it is the purpose of this Article to assist law enforcement agencies' efforts to protect communities by requiring persons who are convicted of sex offenses or of certain other offenses committed against minors to register with law enforcement agencies, to require the exchange of relevant information about those offenders among law enforcement agencies, and to authorize the access to necessary and relevant information about those offenders to others as provided in this Article. It is also the purpose of this Article to ensure, through the use of available technology, that there is improved supervision and behavioral control of offenders who have been convicted of serious and violent offenses."

(1) Time-correlated and continuous tracking of the geographic location of the subject using a global positioning system based on satellite and other location tracking technology.

(2) Reporting of subject's violations of prescriptive and proscriptive schedule or location requirements. Frequency of reporting may range from once a day (passive) to near real-time (active).

SENATE BILL 1632:
2008 Technical Corrections Act

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	July 10, 2008
Introduced by:	Sen. Hartsell	Summary by:	Kara McCraw
Version:	PCS to First Edition S1632-CSTC		Committee Counsel

BILL ANALYSIS:

Sections 1-33 are technical changes recommended by the General Statutes Commission.

Section 34.(a)-(c) amends several provisions of the Organized Retail Theft Law to correct a citation and to clarify that the law applies to those acting on behalf of law enforcement agencies and that thefts from multiple establishments can be aggregated to reach the felony threshold.

Section 35.(a)-(e) makes a number of corrections to the statutes involving the satellite-based monitoring for sex offenders which became effective last session. These changes fix a number of problems related to the implementation of hearing provisions for satellite-based monitoring for sex offenders.

Section 36 clarifies that the earliest a petition for expunction can be filed is the later of 1) two years after the date of conviction, or 2) the completion of any period of probation.

Sections 37.(a)-(c) is a purely technical correction that corrects the DWI statutes. These technical changes were made throughout the 2006 DWI bill, but were missed in three places.

Sections 38.(a)-(b) corrects one statutory reference in the Advance Directives law and corrects one section number in the Health Care Power of Attorney Form.

Sections 39.(a)-(g) make technical changes to various statutes governing insurance, social services, and health care facilities to correct statutory citations pertaining to long term care facilities and to change the term "intermediate care facility" to the correct term "intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded."

Sections 40.(a)-(c) amends the Occupational Therapy Practice Act to remove obsolete references to limited permits. The law authorizing the Board to issue limited permits expired on October 1, 2007. This section deletes references that were inadvertently left in the law.

Section 41 adds a subsection to G.S. 115C-284 (method of selection and requirements for principals and supervisors) to restore requirements for school administrator certification that were inadvertently deleted when the Article for the defunct Standards Board for Public School Administrators was repealed.

Section 42 deletes the word "as" which was a typographical error inadvertently placed in the statute.

Section 43 amends Section 2 of S.L. 2007-169 to provide for ongoing membership to the Board of Awards. In 2006, the General Assembly abolished the Advisory Budget Commission effective July 1, 2007. The Chair of the Commission appointed members to the Board of Awards from the membership of the Commission and the Council of State. However, when the Commission was abolished, no alternate provision was enacted to provide for the continuing appointment of members to the Board. S.L. 2007-169 provided that members of the Commission as of June 30, 2007 would continue to be eligible for appointment to the Board by the Secretary of Administration through December 31, 2008. Section 42 extends this deadline to June 30, 2009.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This bill would become effective when it becomes law.

SENATE BILL 1860:
Amend Child Abuse/Child Fatality Task Force

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	July 10, 2008
Introduced by:	Senator Allran	Summary by:	Jeff Hudson
Version:	Fourth Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 1860 would increase the penalty for misdemeanor child abuse and would establish two new felony child abuse offenses for certain acts or omissions that result in the injury of a child. Senate Bill 1860 is a recommendation of the Child Fatality Task Force.

[As introduced, this bill is identical to S1816, as introduced by Senator Boseman, which is currently in Senate Judiciary I, and H2339, as introduced by Representatives Weiss and Clary, which is currently in House Judiciary I.]

[As introduced, this bill was identical to H2339, as introduced by Reps. Weiss, Clary, which is currently in House Judiciary I.]

CURRENT LAW: The General Statutes provide for several levels of criminal offenses for child abuse. The chart below describes the existing non-sexual child abuse offenses and the corresponding penalties.

General Statute Citation	Age of Victim	Relationship of Defendant to Victim	Type of Harm to Victim	Level of Penalty*
G.S. 14-318.2(a)	Child less than 16 years old	Parent or other person providing care to or supervision of the child	By other than accidental means: • Inflicts physical injury • Allows physical injury to be inflicted • Creates or allows to be created a substantial risk of physical injury	Class 1 misdemeanor
G.S.14-318.4(a)	Child less than 16 years old	Parent or other person providing care to or supervision of the child	• Intentionally inflicts serious physical injury • Intentionally commits an assault that results in serious physical injury	Class E felony
G.S. 14-318.4(a3)	Child less than 16 years old	Parent or other person providing care to or supervision of the child	• Intentionally inflicts any serious bodily injury • Intentionally commits an assault that results in any serious bodily injury or results in permanent or protracted loss or impairment of any mental or emotional function	Class C felony

BILL ANALYSIS: Senate Bill 1860 would increase the penalty for misdemeanor child abuse from a Class 1 misdemeanor to a Class A1 misdemeanor.

Senate Bill 1860 would also create the following two new criminal offenses:

General Statute Citation	Age of Victim	Relationship of Defendant to Victim	Type of Harm to Victim	Level of Penalty
G.S. 14-318.4(a4)	Child less than 16 years old	Parent or other person providing care to or supervision of the child	Willful act or grossly negligent omission in the care of the child shows a reckless disregard for human life that results in serious bodily injury to the child	Class E felony
G.S. 14-318.4(a5)	Child less than 16 years old	Parent or other person providing care to or supervision of the child	Willful act or grossly negligent omission in the care of the child shows a reckless disregard for human life that results in serious physical injury to the child	Class H felony

Under current law and Senate Bill 1860, "serious bodily injury" is defined as bodily injury that creates a substantial risk of death or that causes serious permanent disfigurement, coma, a permanent or protracted condition that causes extreme pain, or permanent or protracted loss or impairment of the function of any bodily member or organ, or that results in prolonged hospitalization.

Senate Bill 1860 would define "serious physical injury" as physical injury that causes great pain and suffering and would include serious mental injury.

EFFECTIVE DATE: Senate Bill 1860 would become effective December 1, 2008, and apply to offenses committed on or after that date. The changes to the child abuse statutes would not affect prosecutions for offenses committed before December 1, 2008.

PRESUMPTIVE RANGES OF PUNISHMENT (assuming no prior convictions):

Level of Penalty	Presumptive Range of Punishment
Class C felony	58 to 97 months of active punishment
Class E felony	20 to 39 months of intermediate or active punishment
Class G felony	10 to 16 months of intermediate or active punishment
Class H felony	5 to 8 months of community, intermediate, or active punishment
Class A1 misdemeanor	1 to 60 days of community, intermediate, or active punishment
Class 1 misdemeanor	1 to 45 days of community punishment

Differences between the Senate Version (2nd Edition) and House Version (4th Edition)

All differences exist in new subdivisions (a4) and (a5) of G.S. 14-318.4 (Child abuse a felony)

- 4th Edition provides that omissions must be grossly negligent rather than willful.
- 4th Edition removes the language that an act or omission must be "gross, wanton, and culpable".
- 4th Edition reduces the penalty for causing serious physical injury from a Class G felony to a Class H felony.

SENATE BILL 1632:
2008 Technical Corrections Act

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II (Criminal)	Date:	July 15, 2008
Introduced by:	Sen. Hartsell	Summary by:	Kara McCraw Committee Counsel
Version:	PCS to First Edition S1632-CSTC-25|v31|

BILL ANALYSIS:

Sections 1-33 are technical changes recommended by the General Statutes Commission.

Section 34.(a)-(c) amends several provisions of the Organized Retail Theft Law to correct a citation and to clarify that the law applies to those acting on behalf of law enforcement agencies and that thefts from multiple establishments can be aggregated to reach the felony threshold.

Section 35 clarifies that the earliest a petition for expunction can be filed is the later of 1) two years after the date of conviction, or 2) the completion of any period of probation.

Sections 36.(a)-(c) is a purely technical correction that corrects the DWI statutes. These technical changes were made throughout the 2006 DWI bill, but were missed in three places.

Sections 37.(a)-(b) corrects one statutory reference in the Advance Directives law and corrects one section number in the Health Care Power of Attorney Form.

Sections 38.(a)-(g) make technical changes to various statutes governing insurance, social services, and health care facilities to correct statutory citations pertaining to long term care facilities and to change the term "intermediate care facility" to the correct term "intermediate care facility for the mentally retarded."

Section 39 gives the North Carolina Board of Architecture the power to deal with real property in the same manner as a real person, subject to approval by the Governor and Council of State for acquisition, rental, encumbrance, leasing and sale of real property.

Sections 40.(a)-(c) amends the Occupational Therapy Practice Act to remove obsolete references to limited permits. The law authorizing the Board to issue limited permits expired on October 1, 2007. This section deletes references that were inadvertently left in the law.

Section 41 corrects a statutory reference in G.S. 90-285.1(2).

Section 42 corrects a statutory reference in G.S. 105-164.4B(d)(2).

Section 43 adds a subsection to G.S. 115C-284 (method of selection and requirements for principals and supervisors) to restore requirements for school administrator certification that were inadvertently deleted when the Article for the defunct Standards Board for Public School Administrators was repealed.

Section 44 deletes the word "as" which was a typographical error inadvertently placed in the statute.

Section 45 amends Section 2 of S.L. 2007-169 to provide for ongoing membership to the Board of Awards. In 2006, the General Assembly abolished the Advisory Budget Commission effective July 1, 2007. The Chair of the Commission appointed members to the Board of Awards from the membership of the Commission and the Council of State. However, when the Commission was abolished, no alternate provision was enacted to provide for the continuing appointment of members to the Board. S.L. 2007-169 provided that members of the Commission as of June 30, 2007 would continue to be eligible for appointment to the Board by the Secretary of Administration through December 31, 2008. Section 42 extends this deadline to June 30, 2009.

Section 46 adds the words "of the" that were inadvertently omitted from new language to G.S. 15A-1344(f)(2) as amended by House Bill 1003, if that bill becomes law.

Section 47 clarifies that G.S. 143-299.1A (Limit use of public duty doctrine as affirmative defense), as enacted by House Bill 1113, does not apply to a unit of local government or its officers, employees, or agents, if that bill becomes law.

Section 48 repeals Section 11 of Senate Bill 2015 if both House Bill 2436 and Senate Bill 2015 become law, as House Bill 2436 provides an inclusive definition of state educational institution which makes the change in Section 11 of Senate Bill 2015 unneeded.

Section 49 corrects a statutory citation in Section 2.1 of House Bill 2443, if that bill becomes law.

Section 50 deletes unnecessary conjunctions in G.S. 20-305(5)a. as amended by Senate Bill 1800, if that bill becomes law.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This bill would become effective when it becomes law.

Karen Cochrane-Brown, Tim Hovis and Brad Krehely substantially contributed to this summary.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO INCREASE THE COMPENSATION PROVIDED TO PERSONS ERRONEOUSLY CONVICTED OF FELONIES WHO HAVE RECEIVED PARDONS OF INNOCENCE; TO REQUIRE THE INDUSTRIAL COMMISSION TO ANNUALLY ADJUST THE COMPENSATION TO REFLECT INCREASES IN THE CONSUMER PRICE INDEX FOR ALL URBAN CONSUMERS; AND TO ALLOW THE INDUSTRIAL COMMISSION TO AWARD ADDITIONAL COMPENSATION OF JOB SKILLS TRAINING AND EXPENSES FOR TUITION AND FEES AT A NORTH CAROLINA COMMUNITY COLLEGE OR CONSTITUENT INSTITUTION.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 148-84 reads as rewritten:

"§ 148-84. Evidence; action by Industrial Commission; payment and amount of compensation.

(a) At the hearing the claimant may introduce evidence in the form of affidavits or testimony to support the claim, and the Attorney General may introduce counter affidavits or testimony in refutation. If the Industrial Commission finds from the evidence that the claimant received a pardon of innocence for the reason that the crime was not committed at all, or was not committed by the claimant, and that the claimant was imprisoned and has been vindicated in connection with the alleged offense for which he or she was imprisoned, the Industrial Commission shall award to the claimant an amount equal to ~~twenty thousand dollars ($20,000)~~ fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) for each year or the pro rata amount for the portion of each year of the imprisonment actually served, including any time spent awaiting ~~trial, but in~~ trial. However, (i) in no event shall the ~~compensation~~ compensation, including the compensation provided in subsections (b) and (c) of this section, exceed a total amount of ~~five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000).~~ seven hundred fifty thousand dollars ($750,000), and (ii) a claimant is not entitled to compensation for any portion of a prison sentence during which the claimant was also serving a concurrent sentence for conviction of a crime other than the one for which the pardon of innocence was granted. The compensation is not subject to any child support obligations that may have accrued against the claimant while the claimant was serving a prison sentence for the crime for which the pardon of innocence was granted.

The Director of the Budget shall pay the amount of the award to the claimant out of the Contingency and Emergency Fund, or out of any other available State funds. The Industrial Commission shall give written notice of its decision to all parties concerned. The determination of the Industrial Commission shall be subject to judicial review upon appeal of the claimant or the State according to the provisions and procedures set forth in Article 31 of Chapter 143 of the General Statutes."

SECTION 2. G.S. 148-84 is amended by adding new subsections to read:

"(b) Notwithstanding the amounts provided for in subsection (a) of this section, beginning July 1, 2009, the Industrial Commission shall annually adjust the amount awarded under this Article to reflect the increase, if any, in the Consumer Price Index For All Urban Consumers for the previous calendar year, as determined by the United States Department of Labor; however, no annual increase may exceed five percent (5%) of the existing amount. The actual amount awarded to an individual claimant shall be based upon the adjusted amount in effect on the date that the claimant files a petition with the Industrial Commission under this Article.

(c) In addition to the compensation provided under subsections (a) and (b) of this section, the Industrial Commission shall determine the extent to which incarceration has deprived a claimant of educational or training opportunities and, based upon those findings, may award the following compensation for loss of life opportunities:

(1) Job skills training for at least one year through an appropriate State program; and

(2) Expenses for tuition and fees at any public North Carolina community college or constituent institution of The University of North Carolina for any degree or program of the claimant's choice that is available from one or more of the applicable institutions. Claimants are also entitled to assistance in meeting any admission standards or criteria required at any of those institutions, including assistance in satisfying requirements for a certificate of equivalency of completion of secondary education. A claimant may apply for aid under this subdivision within 10 years of the claimant's release from incarceration, and aid shall continue for up to a total of five years when initiated within the 10-year period, provided the claimant makes satisfactory progress in the courses or degree program in which the claimant is enrolled."

SECTION 3. This act is effective when it becomes law and applies to any person granted a pardon of innocence by the Governor on or after July 1, 2007.

HOUSE BILL 2105:
Compensation for Erroneously Convicted

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Ref to Judiciary II (Criminal). If fav, re-ref to Appropriations/Base Budget	Date:	July 16, 2008
Introduced by:	Representatives Glazier, Ross, Blue, and Harrison	Summary by:	Drupti Chauhan Staff Attorney
Version:	Second Edition

SUMMARY: House Bill 2105 would increase the compensation provided to persons who have been erroneously convicted of felonies and have received pardons of innocence. The bill would require the Industrial Commission to annually adjust the compensation to reflect increases in the Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers. In addition, the bill allows the Industrial Commission to award to these persons job skills training for one year and expenses for tuition and fees at any community college or constituent institution of The University of North Carolina.

CURRENT LAW: A person who had been convicted of a felony and had been imprisoned in a North Carolina State prison may petition the State for compensation if the person:

- Was granted a pardon of innocence by the Governor upon the grounds that:
  - The crime with which the person was charged with was not committed or
  - The crime with which the person was charged was not committed by that person.
- Presented the petition within five years of the granting of the pardon.

The petition is presented to the Industrial Commission which hears the claim for compensation. If the Industrial Commission finds that the claimant received a pardon of innocence for the grounds listed above, the Industrial Commission must award the claimant $20,000 for each year or the pro rata amount for the portion of each year of the imprisonment actually served including any time spent awaiting trial. The compensation cannot exceed a total of $500,000.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 2105 would increase the compensation to $50,000 for each year or the pro rata amount of each year of the imprisonment actually served including any time spent awaiting trial. The total compensation, (including annual adjustments because of increases in the Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers, job skills training, and tuition and fees at a North Carolina public college or community college) could not exceed $750,000. The statute would also specify that the claimant is not entitled to compensation for any portion of a prison sentence during which the claimant was also serving a concurrent sentence for a conviction of a crime other than the one for which the pardon of innocence was granted.

The bill would specify that the compensation is not subject to any child support obligations that may have accrued against the claimant while he or she was incarcerated for the crime for which the pardon was granted.

Section 2 of the bill would add a new subsection that requires the Industrial Commission to annually increase the amount awarded to reflect any increase in the Consumer Price Index for All Urban Consumers for the previous calendar year as determined by the United States Department of Labor. No annual increase can exceed 5% of the existing amount. The actual amount awarded to an individual claimant is to be based on the adjusted amount in effect on the date that the claimant files a petition with the Industrial Commission.

The bill also directs the Industrial Commission to determine the extent to which the incarceration deprived the claimant of educational training and opportunities. Based on those findings, the Industrial Commission may also award the following types of compensation:

- Job skills training for at least one year through an appropriate State program; and
- Expenses for tuition and fees at any North Carolina community college constituent institution of The University of North Carolina for any degree or program of the claimant's choice that is available at the applicable institutions.

Claimants are also entitled to assistance in meeting any admissions standards required by any of the applicable institutions. A claimant can apply for this educational aid within 10 years of the claimant's release. The aid must continue for up to a period of five years when initiated within the 10 year period if the claimant makes satisfactory progress in the courses or degree programs in which the claimant is enrolled.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The act becomes effective when it becomes law and applies to any person granted a pardon of innocence by the Governor on or after July 1, 2007.

AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE NORTH CAROLINA STATE BOARD OF EXAMINERS FOR NURSING HOME ADMINISTRATORS TO OBTAIN CRIMINAL HISTORY RECORD CHECKS OF APPLICANTS FOR LICENSURE AS NURSING HOME ADMINISTRATORS, AS RECOMMENDED BY THE NORTH CAROLINA STUDY COMMISSION ON AGING AND TO AUTHORIZE EMPLOYING ENTITIES OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY TO OBTAIN CRIMINAL HISTORY RECORD CHECKS OF PROSPECTIVE AND CURRENT EMPLOYEES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Chapter 90 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 90-288.01. Criminal history record checks of applicants for licensure.

(a) The following definitions apply in this section:

(1) Applicant. – A person applying for initial licensure pursuant to either G.S. 90-278 or G.S. 90-287 or applying for renewal of licensure pursuant to G.S. 90-286.

(2) Criminal history. – A history of conviction of a state or federal crime, whether a misdemeanor or felony, that bears on an applicant's fitness for licensure as a nursing home administrator. The crimes include the criminal offenses set forth in any of the following Articles of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes: Article 5, Counterfeiting and Issuing Monetary Substitutes; Article 5A, Endangering Executive and Legislative Officers; Article 6, Homicide; Article 7A, Rape and Other Sex Offenses; Article 8, Assaults; Article 10, Kidnapping and Abduction; Article 13, Malicious Injury or Damage by Use of

(b) Criminal History Record Check. – The Board shall require a criminal history record check of all applicants. Refusal to consent to a criminal history record check may constitute grounds for the Board to deny licensure to an applicant. The Board shall provide to the North Carolina Department of Justice the fingerprints of the applicant to be checked, a form signed by the applicant consenting to the criminal history record check and the use of fingerprints and other identifying information required by the State or National Repositories, and any additional information required by the Department of Justice. (c) Convictions. – If the applicant's criminal history record check reveals one or more convictions listed under subdivision (2) of subsection (a) of this section, the conviction shall not automatically bar licensure. The Board shall consider all of the following factors regarding the conviction:

(2) The date of the crime.
(3) The age of the applicant at the time of the conviction.
(4) The circumstances surrounding the commission of the crime, if known.
(5) The nexus between the criminal conduct of the applicant and the job duties of the position to be filled.

The Board shall not provide a copy of the criminal history record check to the applicant. An applicant has the right to appear before the Board to appeal the Board's decision. An appearance before the Board shall constitute an exhaustion of administrative remedies in accordance with Chapter 150B of the General Statutes.

(e) Limited Immunity. – The Board, its officers and employees, acting in good faith and in compliance with this section, shall be immune from civil liability for its actions based on information provided in an applicant's criminal history record check."

Along with the request, the Board shall provide to the Department of Justice the fingerprints of the applicant, a form signed by the applicant consenting to the criminal history record check and use of fingerprints and other identifying information required by the State and National Repositories, and any additional information required by the Department of Justice. The applicant's fingerprints shall be forwarded to the State Bureau of Investigation for a search of the State's criminal history record file, and the State Bureau of Investigation shall forward a set of fingerprints to the Federal Bureau of Investigation for a national criminal history record check. The Board shall keep all information obtained pursuant to this section confidential.

(b) The Department of Justice may charge a fee to offset the cost incurred by it to conduct a criminal history record check under this section. The fee shall not exceed the actual cost of locating, editing, researching, and retrieving the information."

HOUSE BILL 2397:
Nurs. Home Admin & Gen. Assembly/ Crim. Hist

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	July 16, 2008
Introduced by:	Reps. Bordsen, Farmer-Butterfield, Boylan, Pierce	Summary by:	Heather Fennell Committee Counsel
Version:	Fifth Edition

SUMMARY: House Bill 2397 would authorize the State Board of Examiners for Nursing Home Administrators (Board) to obtain criminal record checks for applicants for licensure as nursing home administrators. The House amended the bill to also authorize the employing entities of the General Assembly to conduct criminal record checks for current and potential employees of the General Assembly.

CURRENT LAW: Article 20 of Chapter 90, the Nursing Home Administrator Act, establishes the State Board of Examiners for Nursing Home Administrators and provides the Board with the authority to issue licenses to qualified persons and to establish qualification criteria for such nursing home administrators. Currently, the Board does not have the authority to require criminal history record checks.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 2397 would do the following:

Section 1: Would provide for criminal history checks of applicants for licensure as nursing home administrators.

Definitions:

- Applicant: Any person applying for initial licensure as a nursing home administrator, seeking licensure based on reciprocity with other states, or renewing an existing license.
- Criminal History: A history of conviction of a state or federal crime, whether misdemeanor or felony, that bears on the applicant's fitness for licensure as a nursing home administrator. A list of criminal offenses is included in the definition.

Criminal History Record Check: The Board must require a criminal history record check (record check) of all applicants, and refusal to consent to a record check may constitute grounds for denial of licensure.

- The Board must provide to the NC Department of Justice (DOJ) all of the following:
  - The fingerprints of the applicant to be checked,
  - A form signed by the applicant consenting to the record check and use of fingerprints and other identifying information required by State or National Repositories.
  - Any other information required by DOJ.
- The Board must keep all information obtained pursuant to this section confidential.
- The Board must collect any fees required by DOJ and remit those fees to the DOJ for expenses associated with the record check.

Convictions: A conviction of one or more offenses revealed by the record check shall not automatically bar licensure. The Board must consider the following factors regarding the conviction.

1. Level of seriousness of the crime.
2. Date of the crime.
3. Age of the applicant at the time of the conviction.
4. Circumstances surrounding commission of the crime, if known.
5. Nexus between the criminal conduct and the job duties to be filled.

6. Applicant's prison, jail, parole, rehabilitations, and employment records since date of commission of crime.

7. Subsequent commission by applicant of another crime listed in definition of criminal history.

Denial of Licensure: If the Board refuses to issue or renew a license based on information obtained from a record check:

- The Board must disclose to the applicant the information in the record check relevant to the Board's actions. A copy of the record check shall not be provided to the applicant.
- The applicant has a right to appear before the Board and appeal the decision. Such an appearance constitutes exhaustion of administrative remedies in accordance with Chapter 150B (Administrative Procedure Act).

Limited Immunity: The Board, its officers and employees, are immune from civil liability for actions based on information provided in an applicant's record check, if acting in good faith and in compliance with the section.

Section 2: Would provide authority for the DOJ to provide criminal histories to the Board of any applicant for licensure as a nursing home administrator.

- The Board must include in its request to the DOJ:
  - The fingerprints of the applicant to be checked.
  - A form signed by the applicant consenting to the record check and use of fingerprints and other identifying information required by State or National Repositories.
  - Any other information required by DOJ.
- The applicant's fingerprints will be forwarded to the State Bureau of Investigation for a State criminal history record check and the State Bureau of Investigation must forward the fingerprints to the Federal Bureau of Investigation for a national criminal history record check.
- The Board shall keep all information pursuant to this section confidential.
- The DOJ may charge a fee not exceeding the actual cost of locating, editing, researching, and retrieving the information to offset the cost incurred in conducting a record check.

Section 3: Would creates a new Article 7D of the Chapter 120 to define the employing entities of the General Assembly and to permit the employing entities to deny prospective employees or dismiss current employees for failing to consent to a criminal record check. The General Assembly does not employ individuals; rather individual entities within the General Assembly employ various employees. The employing entities of the General Assembly are:

- The President Pro Tempore of the Senate.
- The Speaker of the House of Representatives.
- The Principal Clerk of the Senate.
- The Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives.
- The Senate Director of Legislative Assistants.
- The Legislative Services Commission.

Section 4: Would provide authority for the DOJ to provide criminal histories to an employing entity of the General Assembly of any current or prospective employee.

- The employing entity must include in its request to the DOJ:
  - The fingerprints of the applicant to be checked.

- A form signed by the applicant consenting to the record check and use of fingerprints and other identifying information required by State or National Repositories.
- Any other information required by DOJ.

- The applicant's fingerprints will be forwarded to the State Bureau of Investigation for a State criminal history record check and the State Bureau of Investigation must forward the fingerprints to the Federal Bureau of Investigation for a national criminal history record check.
- The employing entities shall keep all information pursuant to this section confidential.
- The DOJ may charge a fee not exceeding the actual cost of locating, editing, researching, and retrieving the information to offset the cost incurred in conducting a record check.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The provisions of the bill relating to Nursing Home Administrators would become effective December 1, 2008, and apply to nursing home administrator applications and renewals submitted on or after that date. The remainder of the bill would become effective when it becomes law.

BACKGROUND: House Bill 2397, as introduced, was recommended by the North Carolina Study Commission on Aging.

Pursuant to Public Law 92-544, State statutes must be enacted in order for the Federal Bureau of Investigation to collect and exchange criminal history record information with State and local agencies for purposes of licensing and employment, and the legislation must be reviewed by the FBI before they will consent to provide national criminal records under the statute.

PRINCIPAL DEPARTMENT(S) & PROGRAM(S) AFFECTED: North Carolina State Board of Examiners for Nursing Home Administrators, Department of Justice, North Carolina General Assembly

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act is effective when it becomes law.

BILL SUMMARY:

HB 2397 amends proposed new G.S. 90-288.01 to include in the definition of criminal history a history of conviction of a federal crime and also changes the term person to applicant throughout. The bill changes the statute number of proposed G.S. 114-19.11 to GS 114-19.24 and amends the proposed statute by requiring the Board to obtain a criminal history record check of an applicant. The bill states that the Board shall forward an applicant's fingerprints to the State Bureau of Investigation (SBI) for a search of the State's criminal history record file. The SBI has the authority to forward the fingerprints to the Federal Bureau of Investigation for a national criminal history record check. The bill also authorizes the employing entities of the General Assembly to conduct criminal records checks for current and potential employees of the General Assembly.

ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGY:

Department of Justice

Sections 1 and 2 of proposed G.S. 90-288.01 (and G.S. 114-19.24B) require the Board obtain a criminal history record check for every applicant. To initiate the check via the Department of Justice, the Board must forward the covered person's fingerprints and consent form to the SBI and request that person's criminal record. The Board will collect all associated fees and remit those fees to the Department of Justice.

Section 4 of the bill adds a new section to Chapter 114 of the General Statutes providing that the Department of Justice may provide an employing entity of the General Assembly, as defined in new GS 120-36.20, with state and federal criminal history reports for any current or prospective employee. This bill does not require the Department of Justice to perform criminal background checks for all current or prospective employees of General Assembly employing entities. Because it is unknown how many people would be subject to these checks, the fiscal impact of Section 4 cannot be determined.

The Department charges the following fees to non-criminal justice agencies for state and national fingerprint checks, which largely offset the costs of conducting the checks:

N.C. Fingerprint Check:	$14 ($14 retained by DOJ)
N.C. & National Fingerprint Check:	$38 ($16 retained by DOJ, $22 remitted to the FBI)

Presently, the estimated unit costs for conducting national and criminal record checks via fingerprint card and live-scan are $23.50 and $14.54, respectively (costs include overhead and equipment). Each staff member in the fingerprint identification section can perform, on average, 8,000 - 10,000 checks per year. As implied, the costs incurred for criminal record checks are largely offset by fee collections, and existing personnel will absorb the additional workload. DOJ expenditures on Fiscal Impact Table (page 1) are derived from total fingerprint costs from table below multiplied by the number of expected background checks to be performed (375.)

Record Check	Agency Fee	DOJ Total Cost*
Fingerprint Card Check (NC and FBI data)	$ 38.00	$ 45.50
Live-Scan Fingerprint Check (NC and FBI data)	$ 38.00	$ 36.54

2005 unit costs are derived from OSBM "Study of the Cost of Providing Criminal Record Checks;" costs include an equipment allowance and 12.5% overhead rate*

Cost for state and federal record checks includes $22 remittance per check to the Federal Bureau of Investigation

N.C. State Board of Examiners for Nursing Home Administrators

The Board will increase the license fee for new applications and renewals to cover Department of Justice expenses associated with conducting the criminal history record check. Any additional workload resulting from requisite record checks (e.g. fingerprinting, record-keeping, etc.) will be accommodated by current Board resources. Table 1 shows the current fee schedule and the increases the Board will make to cover the $38.00 charge from the Department of Justice for conducting the record check. Table 2 shows the number of new applicants and renewals that the Board estimates to occur annually and the fiscal impact the increased fee will have on revenues. The increased fee will result in $14,250 additional revenue annually for the Board, all of these funds will be sent to Department of Justice to cover their costs. The Board estimates that the number of new applicants and renewals will remain constant for at least the next five years.

Table 1. Current and Proposed Fee Schedule

Type of License	Fee Amount	New Fee Amount	Total Increase
New Administrator-in-training	$150	$188	$38
New Reciprocity/Endorsement	$200	$238	$38
Renewal	$425	$463	$38

Table 2. Fiscal Impact Due to Change in Fees

	# of Applicants	Fee Increase	Increased Revenue
New Applicants	35	$38	$1,330
Renewals	340	$38	$12,920
Total	375		$14,250

N.C. General Assembly

The intent of this bill is to grant the General Assembly (NCGA) the authority to conduct criminal record history checks on current or prospective employees. NCGA will reimburse the Department of Justice the costs associated with conducting this check. The check is not a requirement for employment. It is anticipated that costs associated with this bill are minimal and can be absorbed within existing resources.

TECHNICAL CONSIDERATIONS:

1. The words "to the Federal Bureau of Investigation for a national criminal history records check" should be added after the word "fingerprints" on Line 22, Page 4.

2. Section 3(b) does not explicitly grant authority to the North Carolina General Assembly to conduct a criminal history check on current or prospective employees.

3. The terms "criminal history check," "criminal record check," and "criminal history record check" are used interchangeably. The terms should be standardized.

HOUSE BILL 2397:
Nurs. Home Admin & Gen. Assembly/ Crim. Hist

BILL ANALYSIS

Committee:	Senate Finance	Date:	July 16, 2008
Introduced by:	Reps. Bordsen, Farmer-Butterfield, Boylan, Pierce	Summary by:	Heather Fennell Committee Counsel
Version:	Fifth Edition

SUMMARY: House Bill 2397 would authorize the State Board of Examiners for Nursing Home Administrators (Board) to obtain criminal record checks for applicants for licensure as nursing home administrators. The House amended the bill to also authorize the employing entities of the General Assembly to conduct criminal record checks for current and potential employees of the General Assembly.

CURRENT LAW: Article 20 of Chapter 90, the Nursing Home Administrator Act, establishes the State Board of Examiners for Nursing Home Administrators and provides the Board with the authority to issue licenses to qualified persons and to establish qualification criteria for such nursing home administrators. Currently, the Board does not have the authority to require criminal history record checks.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 2397 would do the following:

Section 1: Would provide for criminal history checks of applicants for licensure as nursing home administrators.

Definitions:

- Applicant: Any person applying for initial licensure as a nursing home administrator, seeking licensure based on reciprocity with other states, or renewing an existing license.
- Criminal History: A history of conviction of a state or federal crime, whether misdemeanor or felony, that bears on the applicant's fitness for licensure as a nursing home administrator. A list of criminal offenses is included in the definition.

Criminal History Record Check: The Board must require a criminal history record check (record check) of all applicants, and refusal to consent to a record check may constitute grounds for denial of licensure.

- The Board must provide to the NC Department of Justice (DOJ) all of the following:
  - The fingerprints of the applicant to be checked,
  - A form signed by the applicant consenting to the record check and use of fingerprints and other identifying information required by State or National Repositories.
  - Any other information required by DOJ.
- The Board must keep all information obtained pursuant to this section confidential.
- The Board must collect any fees required by DOJ and remit those fees to the DOJ for expenses associated with the record check.

Convictions: A conviction of one or more offenses revealed by the record check shall not automatically bar licensure. The Board must consider the following factors regarding the conviction.

1. Level of seriousness of the crime.
2. Date of the crime.
3. Age of the applicant at the time of the conviction.
4. Circumstances surrounding commission of the crime, if known.
5. Nexus between the criminal conduct and the job duties to be filled.

6. Applicant's prison, jail, parole, rehabilitations, and employment records since date of commission of crime.

7. Subsequent commission by applicant of another crime listed in definition of criminal history.

Denial of Licensure: If the Board refuses to issue or renew a license based on information obtained from a record check:

- The Board must disclose to the applicant the information in the record check relevant to the Board's actions. A copy of the record check shall not be provided to the applicant.
- The applicant has a right to appear before the Board and appeal the decision. Such an appearance constitutes exhaustion of administrative remedies in accordance with Chapter 150B (Administrative Procedure Act).

Limited Immunity: The Board, its officers and employees, are immune from civil liability for actions based on information provided in an applicant's record check, if acting in good faith and in compliance with the section.

Section 2: Would provide authority for the DOJ to provide criminal histories to the Board of any applicant for licensure as a nursing home administrator.

- The Board must include in its request to the DOJ:
  - The fingerprints of the applicant to be checked.
  - A form signed by the applicant consenting to the record check and use of fingerprints and other identifying information required by State or National Repositories.
  - Any other information required by DOJ.
- The applicant's fingerprints will be forwarded to the State Bureau of Investigation for a State criminal history record check and the State Bureau of Investigation must forward the fingerprints to the Federal Bureau of Investigation for a national criminal history record check.
- The Board shall keep all information pursuant to this section confidential.
- The DOJ may charge a fee not exceeding the actual cost of locating, editing, researching, and retrieving the information to offset the cost incurred in conducting a record check.

Section 3: Would creates a new Article 7D of the Chapter 120 to define the employing entities of the General Assembly and to permit the employing entities to deny prospective employees or dismiss current employees for failing to consent to a criminal record check. The General Assembly does not employ individuals; rather individual entities within the General Assembly employ various employees. The employing entities of the General Assembly are:

- The President Pro Tempore of the Senate.
- The Speaker of the House of Representatives.
- The Principal Clerk of the Senate.
- The Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives.
- The Senate Director of Legislative Assistants.
- The Legislative Services Commission.

Section 4: Would provide authority for the DOJ to provide criminal histories to an employing entity of the General Assembly of any current or prospective employee.

- The employing entity must include in its request to the DOJ:
  - The fingerprints of the applicant to be checked.

- A form signed by the applicant consenting to the record check and use of fingerprints and other identifying information required by State or National Repositories.
- Any other information required by DOJ.

- The applicant's fingerprints will be forwarded to the State Bureau of Investigation for a State criminal history record check and the State Bureau of Investigation must forward the fingerprints to the Federal Bureau of Investigation for a national criminal history record check.
- The employing entities shall keep all information pursuant to this section confidential.
- The DOJ may charge a fee not exceeding the actual cost of locating, editing, researching, and retrieving the information to offset the cost incurred in conducting a record check.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The provisions of the bill relating to Nursing Home Administrators would become effective December 1, 2008, and apply to nursing home administrator applications and renewals submitted on or after that date. The remainder of the bill would become effective when it becomes law.

BACKGROUND: House Bill 2397, as introduced, was recommended by the North Carolina Study Commission on Aging.

Pursuant to Public Law 92-544, State statutes must be enacted in order for the Federal Bureau of Investigation to collect and exchange criminal history record information with State and local agencies for purposes of licensing and employment, and the legislation must be reviewed by the FBI before they will consent to provide national criminal records under the statute.

PRINCIPAL DEPARTMENT(S) & PROGRAM(S) AFFECTED: North Carolina State Board of Examiners for Nursing Home Administrators, Department of Justice, North Carolina General Assembly

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act is effective when it becomes law.

BILL SUMMARY:

HB 2397 amends proposed new G.S. 90-288.01 to include in the definition of criminal history a history of conviction of a federal crime and also changes the term person to applicant throughout. The bill changes the statute number of proposed G.S. 114-19.11 to GS 114-19.24 and amends the proposed statute by requiring the Board to obtain a criminal history record check of an applicant. The bill states that the Board shall forward an applicant's fingerprints to the State Bureau of Investigation (SBI) for a search of the State's criminal history record file. The SBI has the authority to forward the fingerprints to the Federal Bureau of Investigation for a national criminal history record check. The bill also authorizes the employing entities of the General Assembly to conduct criminal records checks for current and potential employees of the General Assembly.

ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGY:

Department of Justice

Sections 1 and 2 of proposed G.S. 90-288.01 (and G.S. 114-19.24B) require the Board obtain a criminal history record check for every applicant. To initiate the check via the Department of Justice, the Board must forward the covered person's fingerprints and consent form to the SBI and request that person's criminal record. The Board will collect all associated fees and remit those fees to the Department of Justice.

Section 4 of the bill adds a new section to Chapter 114 of the General Statutes providing that the Department of Justice may provide an employing entity of the General Assembly, as defined in new GS 120-36.20, with state and federal criminal history reports for any current or prospective employee. This bill does not require the Department of Justice to perform criminal background checks for all current or prospective employees of General Assembly employing entities. Because it is unknown how many people would be subject to these checks, the fiscal impact of Section 4 cannot be determined.

The Department charges the following fees to non-criminal justice agencies for state and national fingerprint checks, which largely offset the costs of conducting the checks:

N.C. Fingerprint Check:	$14 ($14 retained by DOJ)
N.C. & National Fingerprint Check:	$38 ($16 retained by DOJ, $22 remitted to the FBI)

Presently, the estimated unit costs for conducting national and criminal record checks via fingerprint card and live-scan are $23.50 and $14.54, respectively (costs include overhead and equipment). Each staff member in the fingerprint identification section can perform, on average, 8,000 - 10,000 checks per year. As implied, the costs incurred for criminal record checks are largely offset by fee collections, and existing personnel will absorb the additional workload. DOJ expenditures on Fiscal Impact Table (page 1) are derived from total fingerprint costs from table below multiplied by the number of expected background checks to be performed (375.)

Record Check	Agency Fee	DOJ Total Cost*
Fingerprint Card Check (NC and FBI data)	$ 38.00	$ 45.50
Live-Scan Fingerprint Check (NC and FBI data)	$ 38.00	$ 36.54

2005 unit costs are derived from OSBM "Study of the Cost of Providing Criminal Record Checks;" costs include an equipment allowance and 12.5% overhead rate*

Cost for state and federal record checks includes $22 remittance per check to the Federal Bureau of Investigation

N.C. State Board of Examiners for Nursing Home Administrators

The Board will increase the license fee for new applications and renewals to cover Department of Justice expenses associated with conducting the criminal history record check. Any additional workload resulting from requisite record checks (e.g. fingerprinting, record-keeping, etc.) will be accommodated by current Board resources. Table 1 shows the current fee schedule and the increases the Board will make to cover the $38.00 charge from the Department of Justice for conducting the record check. Table 2 shows the number of new applicants and renewals that the Board estimates to occur annually and the fiscal impact the increased fee will have on revenues. The increased fee will result in $14,250 additional revenue annually for the Board, all of these funds will be sent to Department of Justice to cover their costs. The Board estimates that the number of new applicants and renewals will remain constant for at least the next five years.

Table 1. Current and Proposed Fee Schedule

Type of License	Fee Amount	New Fee Amount	Total Increase
New Administrator-in-training	$150	$188	$38
New Reciprocity/Endorsement	$200	$238	$38
Renewal	$425	$463	$38

Table 2. Fiscal Impact Due to Change in Fees

	# of Applicants	Fee Increase	Increased Revenue
New Applicants	35	$38	$1,330
Renewals	340	$38	$12,920
Total	375		$14,250

N.C. General Assembly

The intent of this bill is to grant the General Assembly (NCGA) the authority to conduct criminal record history checks on current or prospective employees. NCGA will reimburse the Department of Justice the costs associated with conducting this check. The check is not a requirement for employment. It is anticipated that costs associated with this bill are minimal and can be absorbed within existing resources.
