On motion of Representative Owens, seconded by Representative Love, the House adjourns at 11:25 a.m., in memory of Ike Andrews, a former Member of the North Carolina House and Senate and of the United States House, to reconvene Monday, May 17, 2010, at 7:00 p.m.

ONE HUNDRED SEVENTEENTH DAY

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Monday, May 17, 2010

The House meets at 7:00 p.m. pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by the Speaker.

The following prayer is offered by the Reverend Bruce E. Stanley, Methodist Home for Children, Raleigh, North Carolina:

"Lord of us all:

"Some of Your children throughout the years have been called names meant as criticism at the time which later came to be names of which they were proud. Thousands of years ago nomads coming into wealthy Egypt were labeled as 'A'piru,' or 'dust covered ones'. They claimed the name 'Hebrew' and proudly celebrated their nomadic heritage. Carousing students at Oxford University in the early 1700s mocked the disciplined lives of brothers John and Charles Wesley, and the other members of their Holy Club. 'Methodist' they called their fellow students, meaning to demean them. But the Wesleys took their mocking not as an insult but as accurate, and became proud of their method of faithful living.

May 17, 2010

"Lord, all the children sitting here this day have been called a name as well. They have been called 'politicians'. While the name on some occasions clearly has been meant as criticism, let it be a name they proudly carry. Let each Legislator here be a living definition of politician as the term was originally applied, 'one skilled in the art of ruling and compromise.' Enable these Your children to govern humbly and always with the needs of others in mind. And when this Session of the Legislature is ended, may each Legislator here be proud to be known as 'politician.' Amen."

The Speaker leads the Body in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Representative Owens, for the Committee on Rules, Calendar, and Operations of the House, reports the Journal of May 13 has been examined and found correct. Upon his motion, the Journal is approved as written.

Leaves of absence are granted Representatives Barnhart, Carney, Harrison, Justice, May, and Parmon for today.

The following prayer is offered by the Reverend Lisa Yebuah, Edenton Street United Methodist Church, Raleigh, North Carolina:

"Gracious God, in the stillness of this moment, we recognize how lovely it is that we need not be guarded or hesitant to ask You to be generous in Your giving of gifts this day. So as the hymnist once proclaimed, we now boldly ask that You would pour upon us a generous portion of Your power, for apart from You, we can do nothing. Make us attentive to Your gentle whispers as we work. Grant us strength when our bodies begin to tire. Give us clarity of vision when our minds begin to wander. Help us to believe that those things which seem out of our reach today, are simply treasures to be grasped tomorrow. We, who are mortal, offer ourselves fully to You for we trust that You are the One who can do all things in us and through us. Amen."

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Wednesday, May 19, 2010

The House meets at 3:00 p.m. pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by the Speaker.

The following prayer is offered by the Reverend Bruce E. Stanley, Methodist Home for Children, Raleigh, North Carolina:

"John Milton's prayer in Book 9 of Paradise Lost, before he put pen to paper, is that God would grant him 'answerable style'. By answerable, he meant style equal to his great subject and style worthy of his own talent and genius.

"Our prayer today to You, O Lord of us all, is that You would grant these legislators 'answerable style' for they are about to put pen to paper. Enable them to fashion laws and a budget worthy of the citizens of North Carolina whom they represent. Guide them to craft decisions that display their wisdom and genius. Let them by their actions create a beautiful future for all the residents of our State. And when Session is over, when accountability is required, may they then each be able to reply as did Milton, with an unquestioned 'answerable style'. Amen."

May 19, 2010

ONE HUNDRED TWENTIETH DAY

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Thursday, May 20, 2010

The House meets at 1:00 p.m. pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by the Speaker.

The following prayer is offered by the Reverend Bruce E. Stanley, Methodist Home for Children, Raleigh, North Carolina:

"Lord, Your servant Martin Luther was famous for his bold pronouncements. When confronted by authorities who demanded he change his teachings, with his life hanging in the balance, he defied them claiming, 'Here I stand, I can do no other.' Yet his most profound words were his last; words not bold but humble. Luther whispered on his deathbed this prayer, 'we all are beggars, that is sure.'

"O Lord, these Representatives, these servants of Yours must tire when person after person brings request after request. It must be difficult for our Representatives when every extended hand brings with it a new petition or plea. Of course they weary of all the asking. Renew their energy and relieve their weariness. Renew their humility and relieve their wariness. Give them hearts and minds that are open to the voices of everyone. Because Martin Luther's final prayer was right, we all are beggars, that is sure. And we, as beggars, humbly ask You to help us serve You as You would have us serve. Amen."

Representative Owens, for the Committee on Rules, Calendar, and Operations of the House, reports the Journal of May 19 has been examined and found correct. Upon his motion, the Journal is approved as written.

Leaves of absence are granted Representatives Adams, Current, E. Floyd, Mills, Underhill, and Womble for today.

ONE HUNDRED TWENTY-FIRST DAY

Monday, May 24, 2010

The House meets at 6:00 p.m. pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by the Speaker.

May 24, 2010

The following prayer is offered by the Reverend Bruce E. Stanley, Methodist Home for Children, Raleigh, North Carolina:

"Marcel Proust wrote that often in life 'the calendar of facts does not reconcile with the calendar of feelings'. In these moments, he wrote, we live with great tension and stress. Lord of us all, these Legislators surely have arrived in such a place. For the 'calendar of facts' calls this the 'Short' Session. The 'calendar of feelings' strongly begs to differ.

"This Session truly has not been short on preparation or forethought, not short on passion or purpose, or level of engagement, or energy expended, and certainly not short on principle and commitment. In addition to all these ways that this cannot accurately be called a 'Short Session', Lord, each official here lives with the knowledge that the decisions they make each and every time they vote have long-lasting implications.

"And so we pray this day, dear God, that it may be the 'calendar of feelings' that is recognized as the official way of describing this Session. And we pray that when decisions are reached and Your servants dismissed to return home, that everyone will say this Session was full only of farsighted servants making wise decisions for the long-term needs of the people. Amen."

The Speaker leads the Body in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Representative Owens, for the Committee on Rules, Calendar, and Operations of the House, reports the Journal of May 20 has been examined and found correct. Upon his motion, the Journal is approved as written.

ONE HUNDRED TWENTY-SECOND DAY

Tuesday, May 25, 2010

The House meets at 3:00 p.m. pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by the Speaker.

The following prayer is offered by the Reverend Bruce E. Stanley, Methodist Home for Children, Raleigh, North Carolina:

"While on what he believed to be his deathbed, John Donne wrote that he had become 'a Mapp flat on the bed'. He gave thanks that on that map, the direction of life's ocean had currents that were clear, moving ever forward, and would, in his words, 'yield return to no person'. Lord, during a tumultuous Session of the legislature it is easy for these elected officials to feel tossed by storms and to wonder in what, if any, direction things are moving. Sometimes surely it must seem that everything is a whirlwind and there is no discernible course. Other times we might even be moved to despair and feel as if we are regressing and moving backward. We all want to be like John Donne, and be convinced that we are making progress and moving forward.

"Like this great servant of Yours, enable us to be confident of what lies ahead. We pray this day that You indeed will keep everyone here moving ahead. Help these elected Representatives of Yours to pilot this ship of State with certitude into Your preferred future for all Your children. Amen."

Representative Owens, for the Committee on Rules, Calendar, and Operations of the House, reports the Journal of May 24 has been examined and found correct. Upon his motion, the Journal is approved as written.

ONE HUNDRED TWENTY-THIRD DAY

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Wednesday, May 26, 2010

The House meets at 3:00 p.m. pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by the Speaker.

The following prayer is offered by the Reverend Bruce E. Stanley, Methodist Home for Children, Raleigh, North Carolina:

"In the great American novel, Moby Dick, Ahab stands on the quarter deck of the ship addressing the crew, explaining the perilous pursuit of the great white whale. Without apology, Ahab declares, 'He (the whale) is a great wall pushed against me...he tasks me, he heaps me,' he declares.

"Lord of us all, the constricted finances of our State and the undiminished needs of the people surely are 'a great wall that pushes against' this Session of the House of Representatives. Certainly affairs of state 'task the Legislators, and heap them'. Our prayer this day is that, like that great ship's Captain, they shrink not from responsibility. We pray they may with vigorous purpose resolve to relentlessly pursue their task to its conclusion. We pray that they be able to get on top of these heaps of concerns in wise triumph. In line item and in law, let these assembled on this quarter deck faithfully meet the challenges You have set before them. Amen."

crosses both on our shores and the landscapes of other nations. We remember their supreme sacrifice and the words of Your Scripture, Our Lord, which states; 'Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.' We are also appreciative for the brave and dedicated men and women who today continue to defend our priceless freedom. We pray for their protection and safety and that they may safely be returned and reunited with their dear families and friends.

"We also thank You our Lord for the freedoms of our representative government, of the people, by the people and for the people. We thank You that You have continued to raise up men and women such as these, throughout the history of our State to do the people's business. We ask Your blessings upon their lives, that wisdom will be given to them as they seek to lead this State into the future. At the beginning of this week we ask that You guide our dear Representatives through the difficult decision-making process. Bring to them unity, wisdom and understanding of the times. Honor them with Your Presence to first do Your will, then the will of the people, for this we ask in the Name of Jesus our Lord. Amen."

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Wednesday, June 2, 2010

The following prayer is offered by Representative Ruth Samuelson:

"Dear Lord, God Almighty:

"We are in a difficult place and time trying to set a responsible budget for the people of North Carolina with many demands and too few resources. While this is a daunting challenge for us, it is not too much for You.

"Throughout history You have been in the habit of meeting us in difficult times when needs exceeded available resources. When Moses prayed, You provided daily manna from Heaven. When Elijah prayed, You provided flour and oil in abundance, and when Jesus prayed, You fed the 5,000 till they were full.

"While I would be pleased to have You meet our current need in these miraculous ways, I ask instead that You hear our prayers today and bless us all - House, Senate, and Governor's Office with an abundance of wisdom, discernment and courage to make the difficult decisions required to balance this budget in a way that prepares our State for a prosperous future.

"And I will close with the words of the psalmist, 'may the words of our mouths and the meditations of our hearts be pleasing in Your sight, O Lord, our Rock and our Redeemer'. Amen."

June 4, 2010

The following prayer is offered by Representative William Wainwright:

"O Merciful God:

"We thank You for the beginning of a new day and for all of the blessings that will come our way. We bow humbly before You as we begin this Legislative Session recognizing the awesome responsibility that we have accepted. O Lord, there can be nothing more difficult than deciding between the competing requests for programs, personnel, and policies; each request promises a positive return for the State and makes claim for the good it can do. The requests for funding seem endless, but we acknowledge the revenues of our State are all too finite. Cuts must be made. Programs may have to end or may never get to start. The decisions are difficult and by ourselves, we are not up to such a task; so we seek Your wisdom in making these decisions. We truly need the prompting of Your spirit. Guide us in the give and take of democracy that we know when to stand fast for the sake of principle and when to relent for the sake of the greater good. Direct our sights toward Your standards of justice, mercy, and compassion. O Lord, may the budget we finally pass, not only reflect our priorities, but Yours as well.

"It is in Your Holy Name that we pray. Amen."

The following prayer is offered by the Reverend Lisa Yebuah, Edenton Street United Methodist Church, Raleigh, North Carolina:

June 7, 2010

"O God, we oftentimes find ourselves in the position of feeling that we must invite Your presence into our midst as though You are not already here, so maybe Lord, it would be more of a risk for us this evening if we would dare ask You to help us to be more present to You. We openly confess our tendency to come into this place distracted or consumed with worry and there are times when we are restless and not fully attentive. Would You remind us again, O God, that from generations to generations You are the same? Would you remind us again that You stand at the beginning and at the end of time? Would You remind us again that You will - in this moment - be present to us and for us and in us? So with great confidence and hope, we now quiet our hearts and we offer ourselves to You. Amen."

ONE HUNDRED THIRTY-FIRST DAY

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Tuesday, June 8, 2010

The House meets at 3:00 p.m. pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by the Speaker.

The following prayer is offered by the Reverend Peter Milner, Midtown Community Church, Raleigh, North Carolina:

"Everlasting and All-Knowing God:

"You are the giver of all good gifts. We praise You and thank You for gathering us here today in this hallowed place to dutifully fulfill our calling to serve this great Nation. We come before You and we bow our hearts, minds, and souls, trusting not in our own devices, but in Your grace.

June 8, 2010

"You, O God, love to meet with us. May we open our ears so that we may hear Your voice on this day. As we draw near to You, may we acknowledge that You have clothed us with our right minds, and it is You that has given us another day of life. For this we are grateful. Give us confidence as we deliberate and common grace as we make decisions. But remind us that it is only by Your strength that we carry on.

"We beseech You, Everlasting God, to remove division, discord, dismay, disunity, and dysfunction. We pray that You would still the confusion in our souls. We ask that You give our souls grace today and peace, the peace that surpasses understanding. Make of our diverse voices a beautiful and joyful noise and help us to abide in Your strength. Bind us to one another in purpose. Heal our wounds. And separate us from our paralyzing fears of the future. We ask that You may shape our living, and shape our differing perspectives by respectful dialogue so we may be unified in serving the common good of this Nation and be a light to the world, a city on a hill.

"We ask that You might lift up Your countenance upon us, and bless us, keep us, and shine Your face on us. Amen."

ONE HUNDRED FORTY-SECOND DAY

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES
Monday, June 28, 2010

The House meets at 7:00 p.m. pursuant to adjournment and is called to order by the Speaker.

The following prayer is offered by the Reverend Lisa Yebuah, Edenton Street United Methodist Church, Raleigh, North Carolina:

"O Lord:

"Throughout the ages, You have spoken through ordinary people to proclaim good news to a hurting world. We know You are a God who chooses to work through broken vessels to speak words of blessings and to share signs of peace. You see fit to use vulnerable bodies to do great things in Your name. You even call imperfect people to engage in tasks beyond human capacity.

"O God, this evening, we are not afraid to ask You then, what is it that You will do through us? Will it be that by Your power and grace, we, too, would be heralds of good news, or agents of Your peace? Will You allow us to accomplish tasks we believe to be impossible? Will You take our imperfect work and make it into something beautiful? Whatever it is You choose to do through us, do not let our humanness, or our brokenness, or our vulnerabilities prohibit Your creative hand at work among us. Let our work be aligned with Your work in the world and remind us to give thanks when we are indeed co-laborers with You. Guide us, Lord, and help us to be faithful. Amen."

The Speaker leads the Body in the Pledge of Allegiance.

Representative Owens, for the Committee on Rules, Calendar, and Operations of the House, reports the Journal of June 24 has been examined and found correct. Upon his motion, the Journal is approved as written.

The following prayer is offered by Representative William Wainwright:

"Our God and Father:

"We pause in the midst of our busy day for a few moments to place ourselves in Your presence and to thank You for Your goodness.

"We come seeking a greater insight into ourselves and our true work. Open our eyes and remind us of the sacred responsibilities we each carry as persons created in Your image. Open our hearts that we might recognize and respect those around us. Remind us that our work is more than simply the fulfilling of mundane tasks; that with openness to Your voice and will, our work can be labors for Your kingdom.

"Forgive us when we have placed self-interest above Your interest in the least, the last and the lowly. Help us to do our best as we strive to love and serve our fellow man.

June 30, 2010

"May we sincerely examine the issues before us, and the needs of the people we serve, and seek to accomplish Your will in our decisions and policymaking.

"Supply us with wisdom and understanding and give us Your peace. It is in Your holy name that we pray. Amen."

July 7, 2010

"Our Eternal God and Master:

"We come to exalt You, and to say thanks for Your loving kindness and tender mercies toward us. We honor You for the gift of Your presence as we seek Your wisdom even in these trying times of economic turmoil and moral uncertainty; as financial institutions crumble, and the very economic and social fabric of our lives are shaken. Through it all, God, You remain our Refuge and our Stronghold. For You, O Lord, will not abandon those who seek You. So right now, we call on Your wisdom to guide these men and women whom You have chosen to serve Your people. We have no better Guide than You. We therefore ask that You would enable them by Your wisdom to keep things in clear perspective. You are bigger than the problems we face. We remember Your mercy and faithfulness in the most challenging of times. For You are a God who hears, answers, and acts on our behalf, out of the abundance of Your eternal grace. We trust in Your bounteous favor to sustain us, Your divine wisdom to guide us, and Your mighty power to keep us. Amen."

NORTH CAROLINA GENERAL ASSEMBLY

July 27, 2010

Dear Colleagues and Staff:

With mixed emotions, I am announcing my resignation from the NC House of Representatives effective July 31, 2010.

I would like to thank my fellow House Members, from both sides of the aisle, for your friendship during my tenure.

And to the Freshman Class of 2003, thank you for the opportunity to work with such brilliant and dedicated individuals as yourselves. I think we made a difference for many North Carolinians.

And to the many, many staff members in Research, Fiscal, Billing Drafting and other areas of the General Assembly, thank you, for without you we would not be able to do our jobs. We have some of the best staff in the nation.

And to all of you that I have become such good friends with during my time at the General Assembly, I just want to say thank you for being such an important part of my world for the past eight years.

Sincerely,

Rep. Bruce Goforth

SECOND SESSION

INDEX GUIDE

The North Carolina General Statutes titles form the basis for these indices. Following each bill title, the last action or the present status of said bill is indicated. For example, a ratified bill will be followed by its chapter number in the Session Laws. Bills included in whole or in part in other measures are reflected as such, if known.

All bills dealing with funds are indexed under Appropriations. Local legislation is placed under the county it affects.

A list of bills and resolutions introduced by each Representative is found under the Member's name with an asterisk (*) noting that person as the primary sponsor.
