The Senate Judiciary II Committee met at 10:00 AM on February 24, 2009, in Room 1124 of the Legislative Building. Fourteen members of the committee were present. Senator Fletcher L. Hartsell, Jr., Chairman, presided.

After welcoming remarks, Senator Hartsell introduced the staff and then invited the members and Sergeant-at-Arms to introduce themselves. He then recognized Paige Lavgisch and thanked her for serving as page.

SB 127 (Prudent Management of Institutional Funds.) Senator Forrester moved to accept the Proposed Committee Substitute for purposes of discussion. All voted and the motion carried. As this was Senator Hartsell's bill, Senator Allran, Vice-Chair, was asked to preside. Senator Hartsell explained the bill. Questions from committee members were answered by Senator Hartsell and Mr. Floyd Lewis of the General Statutes Commission. Mr. Tim McDowell, representing the North Carolina Independent Colleges and Universities, Inc., spoke on the bill. Senator Jones moved for a favorable report. All voted and the motion carried.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO ENACT THE UNIFORM PRUDENT MANAGEMENT OF INSTITUTIONAL FUNDS ACT AND TO MAKE RELATED AMENDMENTS TO THE NORTH CAROLINA UNIFORM TRUST CODE, AS RECOMMENDED BY THE GENERAL STATUTES COMMISSION.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Chapter 36B of the General Statutes is repealed.

SECTION 2. The General Statutes are amended by adding a new Chapter to read:

"Chapter 36E.

"Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act.

"§ 36E-1. Short title.

This Chapter may be cited as the Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act.

"§ 36E-2. Definitions.

The following definitions apply in this Chapter:

(1) Charitable purpose. – The relief of poverty, the advancement of education or religion, the promotion of health, scientific, benevolent, literary, governmental, or municipal purposes, or any other purpose the achievement of which is beneficial to the community.

(2) Endowment fund. – An institutional fund or part thereof that, under the terms of a gift instrument, is not wholly expendable by the institution on a current basis. The term does not include assets that an institution designates as an endowment fund for its own use.

(3) Gift instrument. – A record or records, including an institutional solicitation or a response to an institutional solicitation, under which property is granted to, transferred to, or held by an institution as an institutional fund.

(4) Institution. – Any of the following:

a. A person, other than an individual, organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes;

b. A government or governmental subdivision, agency, or instrumentality, to the extent that it holds funds exclusively for a charitable purpose; or

c. A trust that had both charitable and noncharitable interests, after all noncharitable interests have terminated.

(5) Institutional fund. – A fund held by an institution exclusively for charitable purposes. The term includes tangible assets but does not include:
a. Program-related assets;
b. A fund held for an institution by a trustee that is not an institution; or
c. A fund in which a beneficiary that is not an institution has an interest, other than an interest that could arise only upon violation or failure of the purposes of the fund.

(6) Person. – An individual, corporation, business trust, estate, trust, partnership, limited liability company, association, joint venture, public corporation, government or governmental subdivision, agency, or instrumentality, or any other legal or commercial entity.

(7) Program-related asset. – An asset held by an institution not primarily for investment.

(8) Record. – Information that is inscribed on a tangible medium or that is stored in an electronic or other medium and is retrievable in perceivable form.

"§ 36E-3. Standard of conduct in managing and investing institutional fund.

(a) Subject to the intent of a donor expressed in a gift instrument, an institution, in managing and investing an institutional fund, shall consider the charitable purposes of the institution and the purposes of the institutional fund.

(b) In addition to complying with the duty of loyalty imposed by law other than this Chapter, each person responsible for managing and investing an institutional fund shall manage and invest the fund in good faith and with the care an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances.

(c) In managing and investing an institutional fund, an institution:
(1) May incur only costs that are appropriate and reasonable in relation to the assets, the purposes of the institution, and the skills available to the institution; and
(2) Shall make a reasonable effort to verify facts relevant to the management and investment of the fund.

(d) An institution may pool two or more institutional funds for purposes of management and investment.

(e) Except as otherwise provided by a gift instrument, the following rules apply:
(1) In managing and investing an institutional fund, the following factors, if relevant, must be considered:
a. General economic conditions;
b. The possible effect of inflation or deflation;
c. The expected tax consequences, if any, of investment decisions or strategies;
d. The role that each investment or course of action plays within the overall investment portfolio of the fund;
e. The expected total return from income and the appreciation of investments;
f. Other resources of the institution;
g. The needs of the institution and the fund to make distributions and to preserve capital; and
h. An asset's special relationship or special value, if any, to the charitable purposes of the institution.
(2) Management and investment decisions about an individual asset must be made not in isolation but rather in the context of the institutional fund's portfolio of investments as a whole and as a part of an overall investment strategy having risk and return objectives reasonably suited to the institutional fund and to the institution.

(3) Except as otherwise provided by law other than this Chapter, an institution may invest in any kind of property or type of investment consistent with this section.

(4) An institution shall diversify the investments of an institutional fund unless the institution reasonably determines that, because of special circumstances, the purposes of the fund are better served without diversification.

(5) Within a reasonable time after receiving property, an institution shall make and carry out decisions concerning the retention or disposition of the property or to rebalance a portfolio in order to bring the institutional fund into compliance with the purposes, terms, and distribution requirements of the institution as necessary to meet other circumstances of the institution and the requirements of this Chapter.

(6) A person that has special skills or expertise, or is selected in reliance upon the person's representation that the person has special skills or expertise, has a duty to use those skills or that expertise in managing and investing institutional funds. This subdivision does not apply to a volunteer who is not compensated beyond reimbursement for expenses.

"§ 36E-4. Appropriation for expenditure or accumulation of endowment fund; rules of construction.

(a) Subject to the intent of a donor expressed in the gift instrument, an institution may appropriate for expenditure or accumulate so much of an endowment fund as the institution determines is prudent for the uses, benefits, purposes, and duration for which the endowment fund is established. Unless stated otherwise in the gift instrument, the assets in an endowment fund are donor-restricted assets until appropriated for expenditure by the institution. In making a determination to appropriate or accumulate, the institution shall act in good faith, with the care that an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances, and shall consider, if relevant, the following factors:

(1) The duration and preservation of the endowment fund;

(2) The purposes of the institution and the endowment fund;

(3) General economic conditions;

(4) The possible effect of inflation or deflation;

(5) The expected total return from income and the appreciation of investments;

(6) Other resources of the institution; and

(7) The investment policy of the institution.

(b) To limit the authority to appropriate for expenditure or accumulate under subsection (a) of this section, a gift instrument must specifically state the limitation.

(c) Terms in a gift instrument designating a gift as an endowment, or a direction or authorization in the gift instrument to use only "income," "interest," "dividends," or "rents, issues, or profits," or "to preserve the principal intact," or words of similar import:

(1) Create an endowment fund of permanent duration unless other language in the gift instrument limits the duration or purpose of the fund; and

(2) Do not otherwise limit the authority to appropriate for expenditure or accumulate under subsection (a) of this section.

"§ 36E-5. Delegation of management and investment functions.

(a) Subject to any specific limitation set forth in a gift instrument or in law other than this Chapter, an institution may delegate to an external agent the management and investment of an institutional fund to the extent that an institution could prudently delegate under the circumstances. An institution shall act in good faith, with the care that an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances, in:

(1) Selecting an agent;
(2) Establishing the scope and terms of the delegation, consistent with the purposes of the institution and the institutional fund; and
(3) Periodically reviewing the agent's actions in order to monitor the agent's performance and compliance with the scope and terms of the delegation.

(b) In performing a delegated function, an agent owes a duty to the institution to exercise reasonable care to comply with the scope and terms of the delegation.

(c) An institution that complies with subsection (a) of this section is not liable for the decisions or actions of an agent to which the function was delegated.

(d) By accepting delegation of a management or investment function from an institution that is subject to the laws of this State, an agent submits to the jurisdiction of the courts of this State in all proceedings arising from or related to the delegation or the performance of the delegated function.

(e) An institution may delegate management and investment functions to its committees, officers, or employees as authorized by law of this State other than this Chapter.

"§ 36E-6. Release or modification of restrictions on management, investment, or purpose.

(a) If the donor consents in a record, an institution may release or modify, in whole or in part, a restriction contained in a gift instrument on the management, investment, or purpose of an institutional fund. A release or modification may not allow a fund to be used for a purpose other than a charitable purpose of the institution.

(b) The superior court, upon application of an institution, may modify a restriction contained in a gift instrument regarding the management or investment of an institutional fund if the restriction has become impracticable or wasteful, if it impairs the management or investment of the fund, or if, because of circumstances not anticipated by the donor, a modification of the restriction will further the purposes of the fund. The institution shall notify the Attorney General of the application, and the Attorney General must be given an opportunity to be heard. To the extent practicable, any modification must be made in accordance with the donor's probable intention.

(c) If a particular charitable purpose or restriction contained in a gift instrument on the use of an institutional fund becomes unlawful, impracticable, impossible to achieve, or wasteful, the superior court, upon application of an institution, may modify the purpose of the fund or the restriction on the use of the fund in a manner consistent with the charitable purposes expressed in the gift instrument. The institution shall notify the Attorney General of the application, and the Attorney General must be given an opportunity to be heard.

(d) If an institution determines that a restriction contained in a gift instrument on the management, investment, or purpose of an institutional fund is unlawful, impracticable, impossible to achieve, or wasteful, the institution may release or modify the restriction, in whole or part, if:

(1) The institutional fund subject to the restriction has a total value of less than one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000);
(2) More than 10 years have elapsed since the fund was established; and
(3) The institution uses the property in a manner consistent with the charitable purposes expressed in the gift instrument.

The institution must provide written notice of the proposed release or modification of the restriction to the Attorney General not less than 60 days before releasing or modifying the restriction. The Attorney General may make application to the superior court to contest the institution's determination that the restriction should be released or modified within 60 days of receipt of the institution's written notice.

"§ 36E-7. Reviewing compliance.

Compliance with this Chapter is determined in light of the facts and circumstances existing at the time a decision is made or action is taken, and not by hindsight.

"§ 36E-8. Application to existing institutional funds.

This Chapter applies to institutional funds existing on or established after the effective date of this act. As applied to institutional funds existing on the effective date of this act, this Chapter governs only decisions made or actions taken on or after that date.

"§ 36E-9. Relation to Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act.

This Chapter modifies, limits, and supersedes the Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act, 15 U.S.C. § 7001, et seq., but does not modify, limit, or supersede Section 101 of that act, 15 U.S.C. § 7001(a), or authorize electronic delivery of any of the notices described in Section 103 of that act, 15 U.S.C. § 7003(b).

"§ 36E-10. Conflict with other law; exemptions.

(a) To the extent that the provisions of this Chapter are inconsistent with the provisions of Chapter 36C, Chapter 36D, Chapter 37A, or Chapter 55A of the General Statutes, the provisions of this Chapter shall control.

(b) The provisions of this Chapter do not apply to funds other than endowment funds held by a government or governmental subdivision, agency, or instrumentality.

"§ 36E-11. Uniformity of application and construction.

In applying and construing this Chapter, consideration may be given to promoting uniformity of interpretation with respect to its subject matter among the states that enact it."

SECTION 3. Article 4 of Chapter 36C of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 36C-4-405.2. Spending rules applicable to charitable trusts.

Subject to the intent of a settlor specifically expressed in a trust instrument, including a document making a gift to a charitable trust after it is established, a trustee of a charitable trust may appropriate for expenditure or accumulate so much of the trust property as the trustee determines is prudent for the uses, benefits, purposes, and duration for which that charitable trust is established. In making a determination to appropriate or accumulate trust property, a trustee shall act in good faith, with the care that an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances, and shall consider, if relevant, the following factors:

(1) The duration and preservation of the trust;
(2) The purposes of the trust;
(3) General economic conditions;
(4) The possible effect of inflation or deflation;
(5) The expected total return from income and the appreciation of investments;
(6) Other resources of the trust; and
(7) The investment policy of the trust."

SECTION 4. G.S. 36C-4-413 reads as rewritten:

"§ 36C-4-413. Cy pres.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in ~~subsection (d)~~subsections (c1) and (d) of this section, if a charitable trust becomes unlawful, impracticable, impossible to achieve, or wasteful:

(1) The trust does not fail, in whole or in part;
(2) The trust property does not revert to the settlor or the settlor's successors in interest; and
(3) The court may apply cy pres to modify or terminate the trust by directing that the trust property be applied or distributed, in whole or in part, in a manner consistent with the settlor's charitable purposes.

(b) The settlor or a trustee of a charitable trust, the Attorney General, a beneficiary, or any other interested party may maintain a cy pres proceeding under Article 2 of this Chapter.

(c) Repealed by Session Laws 2007-106, s. 17.1, effective October 1, 2007.

(c1) If a trustee of a charitable trust determines that a restriction contained in the trust instrument, including a document making a gift to a charitable trust after it is established, relating to the management, investment, or purpose of the trust or gift is unlawful, impracticable, impossible to achieve, or wasteful, the trustee may release or modify the restriction, in whole or part, if:

(1) The trust property to which the restriction applies has a total value of less than one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000);

(2) More than 10 years have elapsed since the trust property to which the restriction applies was given to the charitable trust; and

(3) The trustee uses the trust property in a manner consistent with the charitable purposes expressed in the applicable trust instrument.

The trustee must provide written notice of the proposed release or modification of the restriction to the Attorney General not less than 60 days before releasing or modifying the restriction. The Attorney General may make application to the court to contest the trustee's determination that the restriction should be released or modified within 60 days of receipt of the trustee's written notice.

(d) This section is not applicable if the settlor has provided, either directly or indirectly, for an alternative plan in the event that the charitable trust is or becomes unlawful, impracticable, impossible to achieve, or wasteful. However, if the alternative plan is also a charitable trust and that trust fails, the intention shown in the original plan shall prevail in the application of this section."

SECTION 5. G.S. 116-36 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(m) Chapter 36E of the General Statutes applies to an endowment fund authorized by this section."

SECTION 6. The Revisor of Statutes shall cause to be printed along with this act all relevant portions of the official comments to the Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act and all explanatory comments of the drafters of this act as the Revisor deems appropriate.

SECTION 7. This act is effective when it becomes law.

MEMORANDUM
February 23, 2009

TO: Senate Judiciary II Committee
FROM: General Statutes Commission
RE: Senate Bill 127 (Prudent Management of Institutional Funds) (proposed Committee substitute)

General Comments

This bill enacts the Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act (UPMIFA) as a new Chapter 36E of the General Statutes. UPMIFA replaces the earlier Uniform Management of Institutional Funds Act (UMIFA), enacted in this State in 1985 as Chapter 36B of the General Statutes. Like UMIFA, UPMIFA is designed to provide guidance and authority to institutions within its scope concerning the management, investment, and expenditure of institutional funds, the delegation of investment authority, and the release of donor-imposed restrictions on the use or investment of institutional funds. UPMIFA has been enacted in 26 states and the District of Columbia and is expected to be introduced in 15 to 20 other states this year.

UPMIFA:

- Provides updated, more specific standards for the prudent management and investment of institutional funds and spending from endowment funds, balancing protection of donor intent with flexibility that will improve an institution's ability to cope with economic upturns and downturns.

- Eliminates UMIFA's provision that allows an institution to spend only amounts above "historic dollar value" (the value of contributed funds at the time of contribution) that the institution determines to be prudent and replaces this standard with better guidance on making prudent determinations about accumulating or spending endowment funds.

- Updates the provisions governing the delegation of management and investment functions.

- Provides a new procedure for releasing or modifying donor-imposed restrictions on the use or investment of smaller, older funds.

The bill also makes related amendments to the North Carolina Uniform Trusts Code and to G.S. 116-36 and authorizes the printing of drafters comments.

Specific Comments

Section 1 repeals Chapter 36B of the General Statutes, the "Uniform Management of Institutional Funds Act."

Section 2 enacts Chapter 36E of the General Statutes, the "Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act."

Section 36E-1 provides that the new Chapter 36E may be cited as the "Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act."

Section 36E-2 brings forward with some modifications UMIFA's definitions of "endowment fund," "gift instrument," "institution," and "institutional fund." The definition of "endowment fund" is modified to exclude otherwise unrestricted assets that an institution itself designates as "endowment" funds. The definition of "gift instrument" is updated to recognize electronic transactions. The definition of "institution" includes trusts that originally had both charitable and noncharitable interests after the noncharitable interests have terminated. The definition of "institutional fund" is modified in two respects: (i) the elimination of the non-Uniform, limited inclusion of funds held for certain community foundations by noncharitable trustees, which is made unnecessary by Sections 3 and 4 of the bill, and (ii) the deletion of an exclusion for funds other than endowment funds held by a governmental organization, which has been moved to Section 36E-10 (on exclusions from UPMIFA).

UPMIFA includes four definitions not found in UMIFA: "charitable purpose" (contained within the definition of "institution" in UMIFA), "person," "program-related asset," and "record" (derived from the Uniform Electronic Transactions Act). The definitions of "governing board" and "historic dollar value" are not brought forward because these terms are not used in UPMIFA.

Four of the definitions in Section 36E-2 differ from the definitions in UPMIFA. The definition of "charitable purpose" has been modified to conform to the definition of "charitable purpose" in the North Carolina Uniform Trust Code. The definition of "gift instrument" has been modified to include a response to an institutional solicitation. The definition of "institutional fund" has been modified to clarify that the term includes tangible assets. The definition of "program-related asset" has been modified by deleting "primarily to accomplish a charitable purpose of the institution and" immediately before "not primarily for investment" as unnecessary, because "institution" is defined, in pertinent part, as a person, other than an individual, "organized and operated exclusively for charitable purposes."

Section 36E-3 provides an updated standard of conduct for persons responsible for managing and investing institutional funds. The standard is based on the Uniform Prudent Investor Act (Article 9 of Chapter 36C of the General Statutes) and the Revised Model Nonprofit Business Corporation Act (on which Chapter 55A of the General Statutes is based).

Subsection (a) imposes the duty to comply with donor intent as expressed in the gift instrument and to consider the purposes of the institution and the institutional fund in managing and investing institutional funds. Subsection (b) requires each person responsible for managing and investing institutional funds to do so in good faith and with the care an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances, in addition to complying with the duty of loyalty imposed by law other than UPMIFA. Subsection (c) requires an institution, in managing and investing institutional funds, to incur only costs that are appropriate and reasonable in relation to the assets, the purposes of the institution, and the skills available to the institution and to investigate the accuracy of the information used in making investment and management decisions. Subsection (d) allows an institution to pool institutional funds for management and investment purposes.

Subsection (e) provides additional default guidelines for managing and investing institutional funds. Subdivision (1) lists factors that, if relevant, must be considered in managing and investing an institutional fund. Subdivision (2) adopts a portfolio approach to management and investment decisions. Subdivision (3) grants broad investment authority unless otherwise provided by law other than UPMIFA. Subdivision (4) requires asset diversification unless the institution reasonably determines that, because of special circumstances, the purposes of the fund are better served without diversification. Subdivision (5) requires an institution to decide whether or not to retain property contributed to it within a reasonable period of time after the institution receives the property. Subdivision (6) requires a person that has special skills or expertise, or is selected in reliance upon the person's representation that the person has special skills or expertise, to use those skills or that expertise in managing and investing institutional funds. Subdivision (6) has been modified to provide that it does not apply to a volunteer who is not compensated beyond reimbursement for expenses.

Section 36E-4 permits an institution to accumulate or make expenditures from an endowment fund, to the extent the institution determines is prudent, for the uses, benefits, purposes, and duration for which the fund is established. The institution must act in good faith, with the care that an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances, and must consider, if relevant, the factors listed in subsection (a). Accumulations and expenditures are subject to the intent of the donor expressed in the gift instrument. Any limitations on the institution's authority to accumulate or spend must be specifically stated in the gift instrument. Section 36E-4 also provides default rules of construction to use in determining a donor's intent.

The standard in Section 36E-4 replaces UMIFA's requirement that an institution maintain the "historic dollar value" of a gift. The historic dollar value is fixed at an arbitrary point in time, without regard to business cycles. With the passage of time, it becomes essentially meaningless as a prudent management guideline. For example, if the value of the original gift no longer represents the purchasing power it had at the time of the gift, reliance on the historic dollar value as a spending guide may cause the institution to spend too much. In addition, UMIFA is silent as to what happens if an endowment fund falls below its historic dollar value. Uncertainty over this issue is apparently a problem.

Section 36E-5 updates and adds greater detail to UMIFA's delegation authority. UPMIFA permits an institution to delegate management and investment functions to external agents if the institution exercises reasonable skill, care, and caution in selecting, instructing, and monitoring the agents. This authority is subject to any specific limitation set forth in a gift instrument or in law other than UPMIFA. An agent, in performing a delegated function, owes a duty to the institution to exercise reasonable care to comply with the scope and terms of the delegation. An institution that complies with the requirements for proper delegation is not liable for the decisions or actions of an agent to which the function was delegated. An agent submits to the jurisdiction of the courts of this State by accepting delegation of a management or investment function. Internal delegation is addressed by the law of this State other than UPMIFA.

Section 36E-6 permits a restriction on an institutional fund to be released or modified by (i) the institution with the written consent of the donor, or (ii) the superior court, under the circumstances listed in the section. Subsection (d), based on cy pres principles, is a new provision allowing the institution itself, under the conditions specified in the subsection, to release or modify a restriction on an institutional fund that has a total value of less than $100,000 and has existed for more than 10 years. The institution must give 60 days' advance notice to the Attorney General.

Section 36E-7 provides that compliance with UPMIFA is determined in light of the facts and circumstances existing at the time a decision is made or action is taken, not by hindsight.

Section 36E-8 provides that UPMIFA applies to institutional funds existing on or established after its effective date. However, as applied to existing institutional funds, UPMIFA governs only decisions made or actions taken on or after its effective date.

Section 36E-9 provides that UPMIFA preempts the federal Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act, except for certain enumerated sections. The effect of this section is to leave to state law the procedures for obtaining and validating an electronic signature.

Section 36E-10 provides that UPMIFA controls in situations where its provisions are inconsistent with provisions in Chapter 36C, the "North Carolina Uniform Trust Code," Chapter 36D, the "North Carolina Community Trust for Persons with Severe Chronic Disabilities Act," Chapter 37A, the "Uniform Principal and Income Act," or Chapter 55A, the "North Carolina Nonprofit Corporation Act." This section brings forward the exclusion currently found in the definition of "institutional fund" for funds other than endowment funds held by a government or governmental subdivision, agency, or instrumentality, but it omits the current exclusion for The University of North Carolina at the request of the University.

Section 36E-11 provides for uniformity of application and construction of UPMIFA.

Sections 3 and 4, respectively, add a new Section 36C-4-405 and amend G.S. 36C-4-413 to incorporate UPMIFA's endowment spending and new cy pres provisions for the benefit of charitable trusts not included within the scope of UPMIFA. These trusts are primarily charitable trusts managed by corporate trustees and individuals.

Section 5 amends G.S. 116-36, relating to endowment funds of The University of North Carolina, to provide that UPMIFA applies to an endowment fund authorized by that statute.

Sections 6 and 7, respectively, authorize the printing of drafters comments and provide that the bill is effective when it becomes law.

MINUTES

The Senate Judiciary II Committee met at 10:00 AM on February 26, 2009, in Room 1124 of the Legislative Building with sixteen members present. Senator Fletcher L. Hartsell, Jr., Chairman, presided.

Senator Hartsell welcomed and thanked pages Allaina Doyle, James Compton and Austin Hunter for serving. He then noted that Senate Bill 143 would not be heard by the committee at this meeting.

SB 140 (Amend Domestic Crim. Trespass.) Senator Snow was recognized to explain the bill. He then answered questions from the committee members. Ms. Colleen Kochanek, representing the North Carolina Coalition Against Domestic Violence, spoke on the bill. Senator Forrester moved for a favorable report with a referral to Appropriations. All voted and the motion carried.

SB 144 (Limit Liability/Domestic Violence Shelters.) Senator Snow was recognized to explain the bill. Senator Snow and Jeffery Hudson, committee staff member, answered questions from the committee members. Bruton Craig, representing Advocates for Justice, and Timothy Moose of the North Carolina Department of Correction spoke on the bill. Senator Dannelly moved for a favorable report. All voted and the motion carried.

SB 94 (Felony to Assault Probation/Parole Officer.) Senator Hartsell noted that the bill would be heard but would be continued. Senator Foriest was recognized to explain the bill. No action was taken at this meeting.

SENATE BILL 94

Short Title:	Felony to Assault Probation/Parole Officer.	(Public)
Sponsors:	Senator Foriest.
Referred to:	Judiciary II.

February 10, 2009

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO MAKE IT A FELONY TO ASSAULT OR OTHERWISE ENDANGER A PROBATION OR PAROLE OFFICER.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 14-16.10 reads as rewritten:

"§ 14-16.10. Definitions.

The following definitions apply in this Article:

(1) Court officer. – Magistrate, clerk of superior court, acting clerk, assistant or deputy clerk, judge, or justice of the General Court of Justice; district attorney, assistant district attorney, or any other attorney designated by the district attorney to act for the State or on behalf of the district attorney; public defender or assistant defender; court reporter; probation or parole officer; juvenile court counselor as defined in G.S. 7B-1501(18a); any attorney or other individual employed by or acting on behalf of the department of social services in proceedings pursuant to Subchapter I of Chapter 7B of the General Statutes; any attorney or other individual appointed pursuant to G.S. 7B-601 or G.S. 7B-1108 or employed by the Guardian ad Litem Services Division of the Administrative Office of the Courts.

(2) Executive officer. – A person named in G.S. 147-3(c).

(3) Legislative officer. – A person named in G.S. 147-2(1), (2), or (3)."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective December 1, 2009, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 94:
Felony to Assault Probation/Parole Officer

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	February 25, 2009
Introduced by:	Sen. Foriest	Prepared by:	Jennifer McGinnis
Analysis of:	First Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 94 would add probation and parole officers to the list of persons covered under Article 5A of Chapter 14, which makes it a felony to assault or threaten executive, legislative, and court officers.

CURRENT LAW: Article 5A currently provides that a person who assaults a legislative, executive, or court officer ("covered persons") or makes a violent attack upon their residence, office, temporary accommodation or means of transport shall be punished as a Class I felon, except in cases where a deadly weapon is used or serious bodily injury is inflicted in which case the person committing the act shall be punished as a Class F felon. The Article also provides that a person who knowingly and willfully makes a threat to inflict serious bodily injury against a covered person, or knowingly and willfully deposits for conveyance in the mail such a threat, shall be punished as a Class I felon.

Persons currently covered by the statute include: magistrates, clerks of superior court (acting, assistant, or deputy clerks), judges or justices of the General Court of Justice; district attorneys (assistant DAs and other attorneys designated by the DA to act for the State or on behalf of the DA); public defenders (and assistants); court reporters; juvenile court counselors; any attorneys or other individuals employed by or acting on behalf of the department of social services in certain proceedings under the juvenile code, and certain attorneys or other individuals appointed pursuant to the juvenile code or employed by the Guardian ad Litem Services Division of the Administrative Office of the Courts.

BILL ANALYSIS: The bill would add probation and parole officers to the list of persons covered under the statute, making it a felony to assault probation and parole officers (Class I or F dependent on nature of assault) or threaten them with serious bodily injury (Class I).

Other sections of the General Statutes currently cover assaults on probation and parole officers, either by specific reference or in that they apply to assaults on any person. In at least two instances, the penalties under other statutes are higher than those proposed under the bill. For reference, attached is a table of relevant statutes that would cover various types of assaults on probation and parole officers.

Only one other statute found addresses threats. GS 14-277.1 (Communicating threats) makes it a Class 1 misdemeanor to threaten to physically injure another or their child, sibling, spouse, or dependent, or to threaten damage to another's property if that threat is communicated to the other person and the person believes that the threat will be carried out.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The bill would become effective December 1, 2009, and apply to offenses committed on or after that date.

STATUTE	OFFENSE	PUNISHMENT CLASSIFICATION
GS 14-16.6(a) (if amended by bill under consideration)	Assault on Executive, legislative, or court officer (bill would add probation or parole officers)	Class I felony[1]
GS 14-16.6(b) (if amended by bill under consideration)	Assault on Executive, legislative, or court officer w/ deadly weapon (bill would add probation or parole officers)	Class F felony[2]
GS 14-16.6(c) (if amended by bill under consideration)	Assault on Executive, legislative, or court officer that inflicts serious injury (bill would add probation or parole officers)	Class F felony[2]
GS 14-33(a)	Simple assault, battery, or affray on any person	Class 1 misdemeanor[4]
GS 14-33(b)	Simple assault ... inflicting serious injury, with use of a deadly weapon, or against an officer or employee of the State or political subdivision	Class A1 misdemeanor[5]
GS 14-32(b)	Assault on any person w/ a deadly weapon & inflicting serious injury	Class E felony[3]
GS 14-34.2	Assault w/ deadly weapon upon governmental officers and employees	Class F felony[2]
GS 14-34.5	Assault w/ firearm on law enforcement, probation, or parole officer	Class E felony[3]
GS 14-34.7	Assault inflicting serious injury on law enforcement, probation, or parole office	Class F felony[2]

S94-SMRI-1(e1) v1

[1] The presumptive range of punishment for a Class I felony when there are no prior convictions is 4 to 6 months of community punishment.
[2] The presumptive range of punishment for a Class F felony when there are no prior convictions is 1 of intermediate or active punishment.
[3] The presumptive range of punishment for a Class E felony when there are no prior convictions is 20 to 25 months of intermediate or active punishment.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO AMEND THE OFFENSE OF DOMESTIC CRIMINAL TRESPASS BY MAKING IT A FELONY FOR A PERSON WHO IS THE SUBJECT OF A VALID PROTECTIVE ORDER TO TRESPASS ON PROPERTY WHERE THE PROTECTED PARTY RESIDES AND THAT IS OPERATED AS A SAFE HOUSE OR HAVEN FOR DOMESTIC VIOLENCE VICTIMS WITHOUT REGARD AS TO WHETHER THE PERSON COVERED BY THE PROTECTIVE ORDER IS PRESENT ON THE PREMISES AND TO PROVIDE THAT IT IS AN AGGRAVATING CIRCUMSTANCE FOR FIRST DEGREE MURDER IF A DEFENDANT WHO IS THE SUBJECT OF A VALID PROTECTIVE ORDER COMMITS A MURDER ON THE PREMISES OF A SHELTER FOR VICTIMS OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE WHERE THE PROTECTED PARTY IS RESIDING.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 14-134.3 reads as rewritten:

"§ 14-134.3. Domestic criminal trespass.

(a) Any person who enters after being forbidden to do so or remains after being ordered to leave by the lawful occupant, upon the premises occupied by a present or former spouse or by a person with whom the person charged has lived as if married, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor if the complainant and the person charged are living apart; provided, however, that no person shall be guilty if said person enters upon the premises pursuant to a judicial order or written separation agreement which gives the person the right to enter upon said premises for the purpose of visiting with minor children. Evidence that the parties are living apart shall include but is not necessarily limited to:

(1) A judicial order of separation;

(2) A court order directing the person charged to stay away from the premises occupied by the complainant;

(3) An agreement, whether verbal or written, between the complainant and the person charged that they shall live separate and apart, and such parties are in fact living separate and apart; or

(4) Separate places of residence for the complainant and the person charged.

Except as provided in subsection (b) or (c) of this section, upon conviction, said person is guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor.

(b) A person convicted of a violation of this section is guilty of a Class G felony if the person is trespassing upon property operated as a safe house or haven for victims of domestic violence and the person is armed with a deadly weapon at the time of the offense.

(c) It is unlawful for a person who is subject to a valid protective order that is enforceable under Chapter 50B of the General Statutes to enter property being operated as a safe house or haven for victims of domestic violence where the protected party is residing after being forbidden to do so or to remain on the premises after being ordered to leave by the lawful occupant, unless the person enters upon the premises pursuant to a judicial order or written separation agreement that gives the person the right to enter upon the premises for the purpose of visiting with minor children. A person who violates this subsection is guilty of this offense regardless of whether any of the parties protected by the protective order are present on the property. A person who violates this subsection is guilty of a Class H felony."

SECTION 2. G.S. 15A-2000(e) is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(12) The defendant was the subject of a valid protective order enforceable under Chapter 50B of the General Statutes at the time of the commission of the capital felony and committed the capital felony on the premises of a safe house or haven for victims of domestic violence where the protected party was residing."

SECTION 3. This act becomes effective December 1, 2009, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 140:
Amend Domestic Crim. Trespass

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	February 25, 2009
Introduced by:	Sen. Snow	Prepared by:	Brenda J. Carter
Analysis of:	First Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 140 amends the law concerning domestic criminal trespass to make it a Class H felony for a person subject to a domestic violence protective order to enter or remain on the premises of a shelter where the protected party is residing, after that person has been forbidden to enter or has been asked to leave. The bill also makes it an aggravating circumstance for 1st degree murder if a defendant subject to a domestic violence protective order commits murder on the premises of a shelter where the protected party is residing.

CURRENT LAW: Domestic Criminal Trespass: Under G.S. 14-134.3, a person is guilty of domestic criminal trespass if:

- the person enters a premises occupied by the person's present or former spouse, or a person with whom the defendant has lived as if married, after a lawful occupant of the premises has forbidden the person to enter;
- the person refuses to leave a premises occupied by the person's present or former spouse, or a person with whom the defendant has lived as if married, after a lawful occupant of the premises has ordered the person to leave.

An exception applies to persons entering upon the premises pursuant to the terms of a judicial order or a written separation agreement granting the person the right to enter for the purpose of visiting with minor children. Under current law, domestic criminal trespass is generally a Class 1 misdemeanor. However, if the property entered is a safe house for victims of domestic violence and the defendant is armed with a deadly weapon at the time of entry, then the offense is a Class G felony.

Domestic Violence Protective Orders: Under Chapter 50B of the General Statutes, any person residing in this State may seek relief by filing a civil action alleging domestic against himself or herself or a minor child who resides with or is in his or her custody. Domestic violence occurs when a person commits certain offenses against a person with who he or she has or has had a personal relationship. The term "personal relationship" includes current or former spouses, persons of the opposite sex who live or have lived together, parents and children, grandparents and grandchildren, persons who have a child in common, current or former household members, and persons of the opposite sex who are in a dating relationship. If the court finds that an act of domestic violence has occurred, the court is required to grant a protective order restraining the defendant from further acts of domestic violence. A protective order may include any prohibitions or requirements the court deems necessary to protect any party or any minor child. For example, the court may order a party to refrain from threatening, abusing, following, harassing, or otherwise interfering with the other party, order the eviction of a party from the residence, or award temporary custody of minor children. Under current law, violation of a valid protective order is generally a Class A1 misdemeanor. Higher penalties apply if the person commits a felony at a time when the person knows the behavior is prohibited by a valid protective order, or if the person knowingly violates a valid protective order after having been previously convicted of three violations. A person who, while in possession of a deadly weapon, knowingly violates a valid protective order by failing to stay away from a place or a person as directed in the order is guilty of a Class H felony.

BILL ANALYSIS: Section 1 of the bill would amend the existing criminal trespass law by adding a new subsection that would make it unlawful for a person who is subject to a valid domestic violence protective order to enter or remain on property where the protected party is residing, when the property is being operated as a 'safe house' for victims of domestic violence. Violation of this new provision would be a Class H felony. As under current law, the person would be guilty of the offense if the person enters or remains on the premises after being forbidden to do so by the lawful occupant. The new provision also contains the existing exception for persons entering upon the premises pursuant to the terms of a judicial order or a written separation agreement for the purpose of visiting with minor children. The offense does not require that any parties protected by the protective order actually be present on the property.

Section 2 – Under G.S. 15A-2000, when a defendant is found guilty of 1st degree murder after the State has given notice of its intent to seek the death penalty, the court is required to conduct a separate sentencing proceeding to determine whether the defendant should be sentenced to death or life imprisonment. In all cases in which the death penalty may be authorized, the judge must instruct the jury to consider any aggravating or mitigating circumstance which may be supported by the evidence. Aggravating circumstances which may be considered are set out in G.S. 15A-2000(e). This bill would add as an aggravating circumstance the fact that the defendant was the subject of a valid domestic violence protective order, and the capital felony was committed on the premises of a safe house for victims of domestic violence where the protected party was residing.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The bill would become effective December 1, 2009 and apply to offenses committed on or after that date.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO ALLOW CHILD SUPPORT PAYMENTS TO CONTINUE UNTIL THE AGE OF TWENTY-ONE IF THE CHILD IS ATTENDING A COMMUNITY COLLEGE OR COLLEGE OR UNIVERSITY.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 50-13.4(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) Payments ordered for the support of a minor child shall be in such amount as to meet the reasonable needs of the child for health, education, and maintenance, having due regard to the estates, earnings, conditions, accustomed standard of living of the child and the parties, the child care and homemaker contributions of each party, and other facts of the particular case. Payments ordered for the support of a minor child shall be on a monthly basis, due and payable on the first day of each month. The requirement that orders be established on a monthly basis does not affect the availability of garnishment of disposable earnings based on an obligor's pay period.

The court shall determine the amount of child support payments by applying the presumptive guidelines established pursuant to subsection (c1) of this section. However, upon request of any party, the Court shall hear evidence, and from the evidence, find the facts relating to the reasonable needs of the child for support and the relative ability of each parent to provide support. If, after considering the evidence, the Court finds by the greater weight of the evidence that the application of the guidelines would not meet or would exceed the reasonable needs of the child considering the relative ability of each parent to provide support or would be otherwise unjust or inappropriate the Court may vary from the guidelines. If the court orders an amount other than the amount determined by application of the presumptive guidelines, the court shall make findings of fact as to the criteria that justify varying from the guidelines and the basis for the amount ordered.

(1) If the child is otherwise emancipated, payments shall terminate at that time;

(2) If the child is still in primary or secondary school when the child reaches age 18, support payments shall continue until the child graduates, otherwise ceases to attend school on a regular basis, fails to make satisfactory academic progress towards graduation, or reaches age 20, whichever comes first, unless the court in its discretion orders that payments cease at age 18 or prior to high school ~~graduation.~~graduation; or

(3) If the child is attending a community college or college or university as a full-time student, support payments shall continue until the child reaches age 21, unless the child ceases to attend school on a regular basis or fails to make satisfactory academic progress towards graduation. After age 18, child support payments may be given directly to the child or paid directly towards the child's college expenses.

In the case of ~~graduation,~~graduation or attaining age ~~20,~~20 or where the child is no longer attending a community college or college or university as a full-time student, payments shall terminate without order by the court, subject to the right of the party receiving support to show, upon motion and with notice to the opposing party, that the child has not graduated or attained the age of ~~20.~~20 or that the child is still attending a community college or college or university as a full-time student.

If an arrearage for child support or fees due exists at the time that a child support obligation terminates, payments shall continue in the same total amount that was due under the terms of the previous court order or income withholding in effect at the time of the support obligation. The total amount of these payments is to be applied to the arrearage until all arrearages and fees are satisfied or until further order of the court."

SECTION 2. This act is effective when it becomes law, and applies to actions for child support on or after that date.

February 12, 2009

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO LIMIT THE CIVIL LIABILITY OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE SHELTERS AND PERSONS ASSOCIATED WITH THOSE SHELTERS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Chapter 1 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new Article to read:

"Article 51.

"Limited Civil Liability of Domestic Violence Shelters and Persons Associated With the Shelters.

"§ 1-610. Definitions.

As used in this Article, the following terms mean:

(1) Client. – A person who is the victim of domestic violence, as defined in Chapter 50B of the General Statutes, or of nonconsensual sexual conduct or stalking, as defined in Chapter 50C of the General Statutes, and is using services or facilities of a shelter.

(2) Conduct. – One or more actions or omissions.

(3) Domestic violence. – As defined in G.S. 50B-1(a).

(4) Harm. – Injury, death, or loss to person or property.

(5) Perpetrator. – A person who has committed domestic violence and who bears one of the personal relationships specified in G.S. 50B-1(b) to the victim of domestic violence, or a person who has committed nonconsensual sexual conduct or stalking as defined in Chapter 50C of the General Statutes.

(6) Person associated with the shelter. – A person who is a director, owner, trustee, officer, employee, victim advocate, or volunteer connected with the shelter.

(7) Shelter. – A facility that meets the criteria set forth in G.S. 50B-9 and is funded through the Domestic Violence Center Fund providing shelter to victims of domestic violence, nonconsensual sexual conduct, or stalking.

(8) Victim advocate. – A person from a crime victim service organization who provides support and assistance for a victim of a crime during court proceedings and recovery efforts related to the crime.

(9) Volunteer. – An individual who provides any service at a shelter without expectation of receiving and without receiving any compensation or other form of remuneration, directly or indirectly, for the provision of the service.

"§ 1-611. Immunity of a domestic violence shelter and any person associated with the shelter concerning torts committed on the shelter's premises.

(a) Except as provided in subsection (b) of this section, no shelter and no person associated with the shelter is liable in damages in a tort action for any harm that a client or other person who is on the premises of the shelter sustains as a result of tortious conduct of a perpetrator that is committed on the premises of the shelter if the perpetrator is not a person associated with the shelter and if any of the following situations apply:

(1) The perpetrator illegally entered and illegally remained on the premises of the shelter at the time the perpetrator's tortious conduct caused the harm sustained by a client or other person who was also on the premises.

(2) The perpetrator legally entered the premises of the shelter and a person associated with the shelter instructed the perpetrator to leave the premises before the perpetrator caused the harm sustained by a client or other person who was also on the premises and, despite those reasonable steps, the perpetrator remained on the premises and committed the tortious conduct that caused the harm sustained by a client or other person who was on the premises.

(3) The perpetrator legally entered the premises of the shelter and a person associated with the shelter granted the perpetrator permission to remain on the premises after the person associated with the shelter in exercising the reasonable judgment and discretion of a prudent person under similar circumstances, determined that granting the person permission to remain on the premises did not appear to pose a threat of harm to a client or other person who was on the premises.

(b) The immunity established by this section does not extend to gross negligence, wanton conduct, or intentional wrongdoing that would otherwise be actionable."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective December 1, 2009, and applies to offenses committed and causes of action arising on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 144:
Limit Liability/Domestic Violence Shelters

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	February 26, 2009
Introduced by:	Senator Snow	Prepared by:	Jeff Hudson, Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	First Edition

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 144 would, under certain circumstances, provide immunity to domestic violence shelters and persons associated with domestic violence shelters from tort actions related to harm caused to a client of the shelter while on the premises of the shelter.

CURRENT LAW:

Determination of Liability

In a 2008 opinion, the North Carolina Court of Appeals set out the analysis for determining the liability of a domestic violence shelter in a case where a client of the shelter was murdered on the premises of the shelter by her abusive husband. Under this analysis, a court must determine if the shelter exercised reasonable care to protect the client from the foreseeable harmful actions of third parties.

Immunity

Similar immunity provisions exist in the General Statutes for volunteers performing services for charitable organizations or providing emergency services; engineers and architects who voluntarily provide their services during a disaster or emergency; and for various entities who conduct criminal history checks.

BILL ANALYSIS: Senate Bill 144 would provide that no shelter or person associated with the shelter is liable in tort for any harm caused to a client of the shelter or any other person who is on the premises that results from the tortious conduct of a perpetrator that is committed on the premises of the shelter if the perpetrator is not a person associated with the shelter and if any of the following situations apply:

- The perpetrator illegally entered and illegally remained on the premises of the shelter at the time the perpetrator harmed the client or other person on the premises.
- The perpetrator legally entered the premises of the shelter and a person associated with the shelter instructed the perpetrator to leave the premises before the perpetrator harmed the client or other person who was on the premises and the perpetrator remained on the premises and harmed the client or other person who was on the premises.
- The perpetrator legally entered the premises of the shelter and a person associated with the shelter granted the perpetrator permission to remain on the premises after the person associated with the shelter, in exercising the reasonable judgment and discretion of a prudent person under similar circumstances, determined that granting the person permission to remain on the premises did not appear to pose a threat of harm to the client or other person who was on the premises.

The protection provided by this immunity does not extend to gross negligence, wanton conduct, or intentional wrongdoing on the part of the shelter or person associated with the shelter.

EFFECTIVE DATE: Senate Bill 144 would become effective December 1, 2009, and apply to offenses committed and causes of action arising on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 94:
Felony to Assault Probation/Parole Officer

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	February 25, 2009
Introduced by:	Sen. Foriest	Prepared by:	Jennifer McGinnis
Analysis of:	First Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 94 would add probation and parole officers to the list of persons covered under Article 5A of Chapter 14, which makes it a felony to assault or threaten executive, legislative, and court officers.

CURRENT LAW: Article 5A currently provides that a person who assaults a legislative, executive, or court officer ("covered persons") or makes a violent attack upon their residence, office, temporary accommodation or means of transport shall be punished as a Class I felon, except in cases where a deadly weapon is used or serious bodily injury is inflicted in which case the person committing the act shall be punished as a Class F felon. The Article also provides that a person who knowingly and willfully makes a threat to inflict serious bodily injury against a covered person, or knowingly and willfully deposits for conveyance in the mail such a threat, shall be punished as a Class I felon.

Persons currently covered by the statute include: magistrates, clerks of superior court (acting, assistant, or deputy clerks), judges or justices of the General Court of Justice; district attorneys (assistant DAs and other attorneys designated by the DA to act for the State or on behalf of the DA); public defenders (and assistants); court reporters; juvenile court counselors; any attorneys or other individuals employed by or acting on behalf of the department of social services in certain proceedings under the juvenile code, and certain attorneys or other individuals appointed pursuant to the juvenile code or employed by the Guardian ad Litem Services Division of the Administrative Office of the Courts.

BILL ANALYSIS: The bill would add probation and parole officers to the list of persons covered under the statute, making it a felony to assault probation and parole officers (Class I or F dependent on nature of assault) or threaten them with serious bodily injury (Class I).

Other sections of the General Statutes currently cover assaults on probation and parole officers, either by specific reference or in that they apply to assaults on any person. In at least two instances, the penalties under other statutes are higher than those proposed under the bill. For reference, attached is a table of relevant statutes that would cover various types of assaults on probation and parole officers.

Only one other statute found addresses threats. GS 14-277.1 (Communicating threats) makes it a Class 1 misdemeanor to threaten to physically injure another or their child, sibling, spouse, or dependent, or to threaten damage to another's property if that threat is communicated to the other person and the person believes that the threat will be carried out.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The bill would become effective December 1, 2009, and apply to offenses committed on or after that date.

STATUTE	OFFENSE	PUNISHMENT CLASSIFICATION
GS 14-16.6(a) (if amended by bill under consideration)	Assault on Executive, legislative, or court officer (bill would add probation or parole officers)	Class I felony[1]

GS 14-34.2	Assault w/ deadly weapon upon governmental officers and employees	Class F felony[2]
GS 14-34.5	Assault w/ firearm on law enforcement, probation, or parole officer	Class E felony[3]
GS 14-34.7	Assault inflicting serious injury on law enforcement, probation, or parole office	Class F felony[2]

S94-SMRI-1(e1) v1

[1] The presumptive range of punishment for a Class I felony when there are no prior convictions is 4 to 6 months of community punishment.
[2] The presumptive range of punishment for a Class F felony when there are no prior convictions is 1 of intermediate or active punishment.
[3] The presumptive range of punishment for a Class E felony when there are no prior convictions is 20 to 25 months of intermediate or active punishment.
[4] The presumptive range of punishment for a Class 1 misdemeanor when there are no prior convictions is 1 – 45 days of community punishment
[5] The presumptive range of punishment for a Class A1 misdemeanor when there are no prior convictions is 1 – 60 days of community, intermediate, or active punishment

PRINCIPLES OF STRUCTURED SENTENCING

Truthful Sentencing Policies

Sentence length imposed by the judge should bear a close and consistent relationship to the sentence length actually served.

Consistent and Certain Sentencing Policies

Offenders convicted of similar offenses, who have similar prior records, should generally receive similar sentences.

Rational Sentencing Policies

Sentence should be proportional to the severity of the crime as measured by the harm to the victim and the offender's prior record.

Priorities Set for the Use of Correctional Resources

Prisons and jails should be reserved for violent and repeat offenders, and community-based programs should be used for nonviolent offenders with little or no prior record.

Balance Between Sentencing Policies and Correctional Resources

Sentencing Policies should be supported by adequate prison, jail, and community resources.

MINIMUM AND MAXIMUM SENTENCES

The corresponding maximum sentence for each minimum sentence is shown in the tables below. In each column, the number to the left of the dash represents the minimum sentence (in months) and the number to the right of the dash represents the corresponding maximum sentence (in months). To calculate a maximum sentence when the minimum sentence is 340 months or more, see G.S. 15A-1340.17(e1).

THE OFFENSE CLASSIFICATION CRITERIA

The Sentencing Commission was required by G.S. 164-41 to ".... classify criminal offenses into felony and misdemeanor categories on the basis of their severity." The Commission developed a classification criteria to guide the classification process and to ensure that there was a systematic and rational basis for the classifications. The Commission decided that the severity of an offense should be directly related to the harm to the victim that normally results or tends to result from the criminal conduct.

The Commission defined three general types of harms: 1) harms to person (including both physical and mental injury); 2) harms to property; and 3) harms to society (violations of public order and welfare, violations of judicial or governmental operations, and/or violations of public morality). Through considerable discussion and debate, the Commission grouped these harms into a ten-level hierarchy which served as the basis for the Commission's classifications (refer to the classification criteria on the following page). Once the classification criteria was established, the Commission reviewed the individual elements of all felonies in North Carolina and assigned each felony to a specific offense class based on how closely the elements of the crime matched the classification criteria.

The purpose of establishing the classification criteria was to create a rational and consistent philosophical basis for classifying offenses; to assure proportionality in severity; and to provide a guidepost for classifying new crimes in the future.

Under the classification criteria, the most serious offense classes (A through F) primarily involve personal injury, the risk of personal injury, serious societal injury or widespread societal injury. The lower offense levels (G through I) primarily involve property loss or less serious societal injury. The degree of harm is divided into three levels; injury to person, property or society; significant injury to person, property or society; and serious injury to person, property or society.

The Commission also assigned misdemeanor offenses to three classes: class 1, class 2 or class 3. The Commission did not create classification criteria for misdemeanors but relied on the maximum sentences previously set by the General Assembly. Generally, crimes which had previously been punishable by over six months were made class 1 misdemeanors, those previously punishable by more than 30 days and up to six months were made class 2 misdemeanors, and those previously punishable by 30 days or less were made class 3 misdemeanors. Assaultive misdemeanors were made Class A1 misdemeanors.

FELONY OFFENSE CLASSIFICATION CRITERIA*

CLASS	CRITERIA
A	• Reserved for First Degree Murder
	[Reasonably tends to result or does result in]:
B	• Serious debilitating long-term personal injury
C	• Serious long-term personal injury • Serious long-term or widespread societal injury
D	• Serious infringements on property interest which also implicate physical safety concerns by use of a deadly weapon or an offense involving an occupied dwelling
E	• Serious personal injury
F	• Significant personal injury • Serious societal injury
G	• Serious property loss: Loss from the person or from the person's dwelling
H	• Serious property loss: Loss from any structure designed to house or secure any activity or property Loss occasioned by the taking or removing of property Loss occasioned by breach of trust, formal or informal • Personal injury • Serious societal injury
I	• Serious property loss: All other felonious property loss • Societal injury
M	• All other misdemeanors

* Personal injury includes both physical and mental injury.
Societal injury includes violations of public morality, judicial or government operations, and/or public order and welfare.

Note: The criteria were not used in the classification of the homicide offenses or drug offenses.

DISPOSITIONS

ACTIVE PUNISHMENT

An active punishment requires that the offender be sentenced to the custody of the Department of Correction to serve the minimum and up to the maximum sentence imposed by the court.

INTERMEDIATE PUNISHMENT

An intermediate punishment requires a sentence of supervised probation with at least one of the following conditions:

1. Special Probation as defined in G.S. §15A-1351(a) which includes a period of active confinement followed by a period of probation. (This sanction is sometimes referred to as a split sentence.)
2. Residential Program assignment that requires the offender to reside in a facility for a specified period of time and to participate in activities such as counseling, treatment, social skills training, or employment training at the residential facility or other specified locations.
3. House Arrest With Electronic Monitoring assignment that requires the offender to remain at his or her residence unless the court or probation officer authorizes the offender to leave, and in which the offender shall wear a device which permits the supervising agency to monitor the offender's compliance with the conditions electronically.
4. Intensive Probation assignment that requires the offender to submit to supervision by officers assigned to the Intensive Supervision Program established pursuant to G.S. §143B-262(c) and to comply with the rules adopted for that program.
5. Day Reporting Center assignment that requires the offender to report on a daily or other regular basis at specified times for a specified length of time to participate in activities such as counseling, treatment, social skills training, or employment training.
6. Drug Treatment Court Program assignment that requires the offender to comply with the rules adopted for the program pursuant to Article 62 of Chapter 7A of the General Statutes and to report on a regular basis for a specified time to participate in court supervision, drug screening or testing, and drug or alcohol treatment programs.

An intermediate punishment may also include a fine, restitution, or any other conditions of probation which are considered community punishments.

COMMUNITY PUNISHMENT

A community punishment is any authorized sentence that does not include an active punishment or an intermediate punishment. Community punishments may include, but are not limited to, one or more of the following:

1. Supervised or unsupervised probation.
2. Outpatient drug/alcohol treatment.
3. Community service.
4. Restitution.
5. Fines.
6. Any other authorized condition of probation except those defined as intermediate punishments.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO CLARIFY THAT AN ORDER TO EXPUNGE AN INDIVIDUAL'S RECORD SHALL BE FORWARDED BY THE CLERK OF COURT TO ALL APPLICABLE STATE AND LOCAL GOVERNMENT AGENCIES, TO REQUIRE A STATE GOVERNMENT AGENCY TO FORWARD NOTICE OF EXPUNCTION ORDERS RECEIVED BY THE AGENCY TO ANY PRIVATE ENTITY THAT DISSEMINATES CRIMINAL HISTORY RECORDS FOR COMPENSATION THAT IS LICENSED BY THE AGENCY TO ACCESS THE AGENCY'S CRIMINAL HISTORY RECORD DATABASE, TO PROVIDE THAT A PRIVATE ENTITY THAT DISSEMINATES CRIMINAL HISTORY RECORDS FOR COMPENSATION HAS A DUTY TO UPDATE THOSE HISTORIES BEFORE DISSEMINATING THEM AND IS SUBJECT TO BOTH CIVIL LIABILITY AND TO A CIVIL PENALTY FOR FAILURE TO CARRY OUT ITS DUTY.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 14-50.30(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) If the court, after hearing, finds that the petitioner has remained of good behavior and been free of conviction of any felony or misdemeanor, other than a traffic violation, for two years from the date of conviction of the offense in question, the petitioner has no outstanding restitution orders or civil judgments representing amounts ordered for restitution entered against him, and the petitioner had not attained the age of 18 years at the time of the conviction in question, it shall order that such person be restored, in the contemplation of the law, to the status occupied by the petitioner before such arrest or indictment or ~~information.~~ information and that the conviction be expunged from the records of the court. No person as to whom such order has been entered shall be held thereafter under any provision of any laws to be guilty of perjury or otherwise giving a false statement by reason of the person's failure to recite or acknowledge such arrest, or indictment, information, or trial, or response to any inquiry made of the person for any purpose. The court shall also ~~order that the said conviction be expunged from the records of the court, and~~ direct all law enforcement ~~agencies~~ agencies, the Department of Correction, the Division of Motor Vehicles, and any other State or local government agencies identified by the petitioner as bearing record of the ~~same~~ conviction to expunge their records of the petitioner's conviction as the result of a criminal charge. The clerk shall forward a certified copy of the order to the sheriff, chief of police, or other arresting ~~agency.~~ agency; and when applicable, to the Division of Motor Vehicles, the Department of Correction, and any other State or local agency. The sheriff, chief, or head of such other arresting agency shall then transmit the copy of the order with a form supplied by the State Bureau of Investigation to the State Bureau of Investigation, and the State Bureau of Investigation shall forward the order to the Federal Bureau of Investigation."

SECTION 2. G.S. 15A-145(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) The court shall also order that the ~~said~~ misdemeanor conviction, or a civil revocation of a drivers license as the result of a criminal charge, be expunged from the records of the ~~court, and~~ court. The court shall direct all law-enforcement agencies, the Department of Correction, ~~including~~ the Division of Motor Vehicles, and any other State or local government agencies identified by the petitioner as bearing record of the same to expunge their records of the petitioner's conviction or a civil revocation of a drivers license as the result of a criminal charge. This subsection does not apply to civil or criminal charges based upon the civil revocation, or to civil revocations under G.S. 20-16.2. The clerk shall forward a certified copy of the order to the sheriff, chief of police, or other arresting ~~agency.~~ agency; and when applicable, to the Department of Correction, and any other State or local agency. The clerk shall forward a certified copy of the order to the Division of Motor Vehicles for the expunction of a civil revocation provided the underlying criminal charge is also expunged. The civil revocation of a drivers license shall not be expunged prior to a final disposition of any pending civil or criminal charge based upon the civil revocation. The sheriff, chief or head of such other arresting agency shall then transmit the copy of the order with a form supplied by the State Bureau of Investigation to the State Bureau of Investigation, and the State Bureau of Investigation shall forward the order to the Federal Bureau of Investigation."

SECTION 2a. G.S. 15A-145(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) The clerk of superior court in each county in North Carolina shall, as soon as practicable after each term of court in his county, file with the Administrative Office of the Courts, the names of those persons granted a discharge under the provisions of this section, and the Administrative Office of the Courts shall maintain a confidential file containing the names of persons granted conditional discharges. The information contained in such file shall be disclosed only to judges of the General Court of Justice of North Carolina for the purpose of ascertaining whether any person charged with an offense or any person filing a civil action under G.S. 15A-150.1 has been previously granted a discharge."

SECTION 3. G.S. 15A-146(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) The court may also order that the said entries, including civil revocations of drivers licenses as a result of the underlying charge, shall be expunged from the records of the court, and direct all law-enforcement agencies, the Department of Correction, ~~including~~ the Division of Motor Vehicles, and any other State or local government agencies identified by the petitioner as bearing record of the same to expunge their records of the entries, including civil revocations of drivers licenses as a result of the underlying charge being expunged. This subsection does not apply to civil or criminal charges based upon the civil revocation, or to civil revocations under G.S. 20-16.2. The clerk shall forward a certified copy of the order to the sheriff, chief of police, or other arresting ~~agency.~~ agency; and when applicable, to the Department of Correction and any other State or local agency. The clerk shall forward a certified copy of the order to the Division of Motor Vehicles for the expunction of a civil revocation provided the underlying criminal charge is also expunged. The civil revocation of a drivers license shall not be expunged prior to a final disposition of any pending civil or criminal charge based upon the civil revocation. The sheriff, chief or head of such other arresting agency shall then transmit the copy of the order with the form supplied by the State Bureau of Investigation to the State Bureau of Investigation, and the State Bureau of Investigation shall forward the order to the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The costs of expunging these records shall not be taxed against the petitioner."

SECTION 3a. G.S. 15A-146(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) The Clerk of Superior Court in each county in North Carolina shall, as soon as practicable after each term of court in his county, file with the Administrative Office of the Courts, the names of those persons granted an expungement under the provisions of this section and the Administrative Office of the Courts shall maintain a confidential file containing the names of persons granted such expungement. The information contained in such files shall be disclosed only to judges of the General Court of Justice of North Carolina for the purpose of ascertaining whether any person charged with an offense or any person filing a civil action under G.S. 15A-150.1 has been previously granted an expungement."

SECTION 4. G.S. 15A-147 reads as rewritten:

"§ 15A-147. Expunction of records when charges are dismissed or there are findings of not guilty as a result of identity theft.

(a) If any person is named in a charge for an infraction or a crime, either a misdemeanor or a felony, as a result of another person using the identifying information of the named person and the charge against the named person is dismissed, a finding of not guilty is entered, or the conviction is set aside, the named person may apply by petition or written motion to the court where the charge was last pending on a form approved by the Administrative Office of the Courts supplied by the clerk of court for an order to expunge from all official records any entries relating to the person's apprehension, charge, or trial. The court, after notice to the district attorney, shall hold a hearing on the motion or petition and, upon finding that the person's identity was used without permission and the charges were dismissed or the person was found not guilty, the court shall order the expunction.

(b) No person as to whom such an order has been entered under this section shall be held thereafter under any provision of any law to be guilty of perjury, or to be guilty of otherwise giving a false statement or response to any inquiry made for any purpose, by reason of the person's failure to recite or acknowledge any expunged entries concerning apprehension, charge, or trial.

(c) The court shall also order that the said entries shall be expunged from the records of the court and direct all law enforcement agencies, the Department of Correction, the Division of Motor Vehicles, or any other State or local government agencies identified by the petitioner as bearing record of the same to expunge their records of the entries. The clerk shall forward a certified copy of the order to the sheriff, chief of police, or other charging agency; and, when applicable, to the Department of Correction, the Division of Motor ~~Vehicles~~ Vehicles, and any other State or local agency. The sheriff, chief, or head of such other charging agency shall then transmit the copy of the order with the form supplied by the State Bureau of Investigation to the State Bureau of Investigation, and the State Bureau of Investigation shall forward the order to the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Upon receipt of a certified copy of the order, the agency must purge its records as required by this section. The costs of expunging these records shall not be taxed against the petitioner.

(d) The Division of Motor Vehicles shall expunge from its records entries made as a result of the charge or conviction ordered expunged under this section. The Division of Motor Vehicles shall also reverse any administrative actions taken against a person whose record is expunged under this section as a result of the charges or convictions expunged, including the assessment of drivers license points and drivers license suspension or revocation. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Chapter, the Division of Motor Vehicles shall provide to the person whose motor vehicle record is expunged under this section a certified corrected driver history at no cost and shall reinstate at no cost any drivers license suspended or revoked as a result of a charge or conviction expunged under this section.

(e) ~~Any~~ The Department of Correction and any other applicable State or local government agency shall expunge from its records entries made as a result of the charge or conviction ordered expunged under this section. The agency shall also reverse any administrative actions taken against a person whose record is expunged under this section as a result of the charges or convictions expunged. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the normal fee for any reinstatement of a license or privilege resulting under this section shall be waived.

(f) Any insurance company that charged any additional premium based on insurance points assessed against a policyholder as a result of a charge or conviction that was expunged under this section shall refund those additional premiums to the policyholder upon notification of the expungement."

SECTION 5. G.S. 15A-149(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) The order of expunction shall include an instruction that any entries relating to the person's apprehension, charge, or trial shall be expunged from the records of the court and direct all law enforcement agencies, the Department of Correction, the Division of Motor Vehicles, or any other State or local government agencies identified by the petitioner as bearing record of the same to expunge their records of the entries. The clerk shall forward a certified copy of the order to the sheriff, chief of police, or other charging agency; and, when applicable, to the Department of Correction, the Division of Motor ~~Vehicles~~ Vehicles, and any other State or local agency. The sheriff, chief, or head of such other charging agency shall then transmit the copy of the order with the form supplied by the State Bureau of Investigation to the State Bureau of Investigation, and the State Bureau of Investigation shall forward the order to the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Upon receipt of a certified copy of the order, the agency must purge its records as required by this section. The costs of expunging these records shall not be taxed against the petitioner."

SECTION 6. G.S. 90-96(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Upon the dismissal of such person, and discharge of the proceedings against him under subsection (a) of this section, such person, if he were not over 21 years of age at the time of the offense, may apply to the court for an order to expunge from all official records (other than the confidential file to be retained by the Administrative Office of the Courts under subsection (c)) all recordation relating to his arrest, indictment or information, trial, finding of guilty, and dismissal and discharge pursuant to this section. The applicant shall attach to the application the following:

(1) An affidavit by the applicant that he has been of good behavior during the period of probation since the decision to defer further proceedings on the offense in question and has not been convicted of any felony, or misdemeanor, other than a traffic violation, under the laws of the United States or the laws of this State or any other state;

(2) Verified affidavits by two persons who are not related to the applicant or to each other by blood or marriage, that they know the character and reputation of the petitioner in the community in which he lives, and that his character and reputation are good;

(3) Affidavits of the clerk of superior court, chief of police, where appropriate, and sheriff of the county in which the petitioner was convicted, and, if different, the county of which the petitioner is a resident, showing that the applicant has not been convicted of a felony or misdemeanor other than a traffic violation under the laws of this State at any time prior to the conviction for the offense in question or during the period of probation following the decision to defer further proceedings on the offense in question.

The judge to whom the petition is presented is authorized to call upon a probation officer for any additional investigation or verification of the petitioner's conduct during the probationary period deemed desirable.

shall enter such order. The effect of such order shall be to restore such person in the contemplation of the law to the status he occupied before such arrest or indictment or information. No person as to whom such order was entered shall be held thereafter under any provision of any law to be guilty of perjury or otherwise giving a false statement by reason of his failures to recite or acknowledge such arrest, or indictment or information, or trial in response to any inquiry made of him for any purpose.

The court shall also order that said conviction and the records relating thereto be expunged from the records of the court, and direct all law-enforcement ~~agencies~~ agencies, the Department of Correction, the Division of Motor Vehicles, and any other State or local government agencies identified by the petitioner as bearing records of the same to expunge their records of the conviction. The clerk shall forward a certified copy of the order to the sheriff, chief of police or other arresting agency, as ~~appropriate,~~appropriate; and when applicable, to the Department of Correction, Division of Motor Vehicles, and any other State or local government agency. ~~and the~~The sheriff, chief of police or other arresting agency, as appropriate, shall forward such order to the State Bureau of Investigation with a form supplied by the State Bureau of Investigation. The State Bureau of Investigation shall forward the court order in like manner to the Federal Bureau of Investigation."

SECTION 7. G.S. 90-96(e) reads as rewritten:

"(e) Whenever any person who has not previously been convicted of an offense under this Article or under any statute of the United States or any state relating to controlled substances included in any schedule of this Article or to that paraphernalia included in Article 5B of Chapter 90 pleads guilty to or has been found guilty of (i) a misdemeanor under this Article by possessing a controlled substance included within Schedules II through VI of this Article, or by possessing drug paraphernalia as prohibited by G.S. 90-113.21, or (ii) a felony under G.S. 90-95(a)(3) by possessing less than one gram of cocaine, the court may, upon application of the person not sooner than 12 months after conviction, order cancellation of the judgment of conviction and expunction of the records of his arrest, indictment, or information, trial and conviction. A conviction in which the judgment of conviction has been canceled and the records expunged pursuant to this section shall not be thereafter deemed a conviction for purposes of this section or for purposes of disqualifications or liabilities imposed by law upon conviction of a crime including the additional penalties imposed for second or subsequent convictions of this Article. Cancellation and expunction under this section may occur only once with respect to any person. Disposition of a case under this section at the district court division of the General Court of Justice shall be final for the purpose of appeal.

The judge to whom the petition is presented is authorized to call upon a probation officer for additional investigation or verification of the petitioner's conduct since conviction. If the court determines that the petitioner was convicted of (i) a misdemeanor under this Article for possessing a controlled substance included within Schedules II through VI of this Article, or for possessing drug paraphernalia as prohibited in G.S. 90-113.21, or (ii) a felony under G.S. 90-95(a)(3) for possession of less than one gram of cocaine, that he was not over 21 years of age at the time of the offense, that he has been of good behavior since his conviction, that he has successfully completed a drug education program approved for this purpose by the Department of Health and Human Services, and that he has not been convicted of a felony or misdemeanor other than a traffic violation under the laws of this State at any time prior to or since the conviction for the offense in question, it shall enter an order of expunction of the petitioner's court record. The effect of such order shall be to restore the petitioner in the contemplation of the law to the status he occupied before arrest or indictment or information or conviction. No person as to whom such order was entered shall be held thereafter under any provision of any law to be guilty of perjury or otherwise giving a false statement by reason of his failures to recite or acknowledge such arrest, or indictment or information, or conviction, or trial in response to any inquiry made of him for any purpose. The judge may waive the condition that the petitioner attend the drug education school if the judge makes a specific finding that there was no drug education school within a reasonable distance of the defendant's residence or that there were specific extenuating circumstances which made it likely that the petitioner would not benefit from the program of instruction.

The court shall also order that all law-enforcement ~~agencies~~agencies, the Department of Correction, the Division of Motor Vehicles, and any other State or local government agency identified by the petitioner as bearing records of the conviction and records relating thereto to expunge their records of the conviction. The clerk shall forward a certified copy of the order to the sheriff, chief of police, or other arresting agency, as ~~appropriate, and the~~appropriate; and when applicable, to the Department of Correction, Division of Motor Vehicles, and any other State or local government agency. The arresting agency shall forward the order to the State Bureau of Investigation with a form supplied by the State Bureau of Investigation. The State Bureau of Investigation shall forward the court order in like manner to the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

The clerk of superior court in each county in North Carolina shall, as soon as practicable after each term of court in his county, file with the Administrative Office of the Courts the names of those persons whose judgments of convictions have been canceled and expunged under the provisions of this Article, and the Administrative Office of the Courts shall maintain a confidential file containing the names of persons whose judgments of convictions have been canceled and expunged. The information contained in the file shall be disclosed only to judges of the General Court of Justice of North Carolina for the purpose of ascertaining whether any person charged with an offense under this Article or any person filing a civil action under G.S. 15A-150.1 has been previously granted cancellation and expunction of a judgment of conviction pursuant to the terms of this Article."

SECTION 8. G.S. 90-113.14(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Upon the dismissal of such person, and discharge of the proceedings against him under subsection (a) of this section, such person, if he were not over 21 years of age at the time of the offense, may apply to the court for an order to expunge from all official records (other than the confidential file to be retained by the Administrative Office of the Courts under subsection (c)) all recordation relating to his arrest, indictment or information, trial, finding of guilty, and dismissal and discharge pursuant to this section. The applicant shall attach to the application the following:

(1) An affidavit by the applicant that he has been of good behavior during the period of probation since the decision to defer further proceedings on the misdemeanor in question and has not been convicted of any felony, or misdemeanor, other than a traffic violation, under the laws of the United States or the laws of this State or any other state;

(2) Verified affidavits by two persons who are not related to the applicant or to each other by blood or marriage, that they know the character and reputation of the petitioner in the community in which he lives, and that his character and reputation are good;

(3) Affidavits of the clerk of superior court, chief of police, where appropriate, and sheriff of the county in which the petitioner was convicted, and, if different, the county of which the petitioner is a resident, showing that the applicant has not been convicted of a felony or misdemeanor other than a traffic violation under the laws of this State at any time prior to the conviction for the misdemeanor in question or during the period of probation following the decision to defer further proceedings on the misdemeanor in question.

If the court determines, after hearing, that such person was dismissed and the proceedings against him discharged and that he was not over 21 years of age at the time of the offense, it shall enter such order. The effect of such order shall be to restore such person in the contemplation of the law to the status he occupied before such arrest or indictment or information. No person as to whom such order was entered shall be held thereafter under any provision of any law to be guilty of perjury or otherwise giving a false statement by reason of his failures to recite or acknowledge such arrest, or indictment or information, or trial in response to any inquiry made of him for any purpose.

The court shall also order that said conviction and the records relating thereto be expunged from the records of the court, and direct all law-enforcement ~~agencies~~ agencies, the Department of Correction, the Division of Motor Vehicles, and any other State or local government agencies identified by the petitioner as bearing records of the same to expunge their records of the conviction. The clerk shall forward a certified copy of the order to the sheriff, chief of police or other arresting agency, as ~~appropriate, and the~~ appropriate; and when applicable, to the Department of Correction, Division of Motor Vehicles, and any other State or local agency. The sheriff, chief of police or other arresting agency, as appropriate, shall forward such order to the State Bureau of Investigation with a form supplied by the State Bureau of Investigation. The State Bureau of Investigation shall forward the court order in like manner to the Federal Bureau of Investigation."

SECTION 9. G.S. 90-113.14(e) reads as rewritten:

"(e) Whenever any person who has not previously been convicted of an offense under this Article or under any statute of the United States or any state relating to controlled substances included in any schedule of this Article or to that paraphernalia included in Article 5B of Chapter 90 pleads guilty to or has been found guilty of a misdemeanor under this Article by possessing a controlled substance included within Schedules II through VI of this Article, the court may, upon application of the person not sooner than 12 months after conviction, order cancellation of the judgment of conviction and expunction of the records of his arrest, indictment, or information, trial and conviction. A conviction in which the judgment of conviction has been cancelled and the records expunged pursuant to this section shall not be thereafter deemed a conviction for purposes of this section or for purposes of disqualifications or liabilities imposed by law upon conviction of a crime including the additional penalties imposed for second or subsequent convictions of this Article. Cancellation and expunction under this section may occur only once with respect to any person. Disposition of a case under this section at the district court division of the General Court of Justice shall be final for the purpose of appeal.

The judge to whom the petition is presented is authorized to call upon a probation officer for additional investigation or verification of the petitioner's conduct since conviction. If the court determines that the petitioner was convicted of a misdemeanor under this Article for possessing a controlled substance included within Schedules II through VI of this Article, or for possessing drug paraphernalia as prohibited by G.S. 90-113.21, that he was not over 21 years of age at the time of the offense, that he has been of good behavior since his conviction, that he has successfully completed a drug education program approved for this purpose by the Department of Health and Human Services, and that he has not been convicted of a felony or misdemeanor other than a traffic violation under the laws of this State at any time prior to or since the conviction for the misdemeanor in question, it shall enter an order of expunction of the petitioner's court record. The effect of such order shall be to restore the petitioner in the contemplation of the law to the status he occupied before such arrest or indictment or information or conviction. No person as to whom such order was entered shall be held thereafter under any provision of any law to be guilty of perjury or otherwise giving a false statement by reason of his failures to recite or acknowledge such arrest, or indictment or information, or conviction, or trial in response to any inquiry made of him for any purpose. The judge may waive the condition that the petitioner attend the drug education school if the judge makes a specific finding that there was no drug education school within a reasonable distance of the defendant's residence or that there were specific extenuating circumstances which made it likely that the petitioner would not benefit from the program of instruction.

The court shall also order that all law-enforcement ~~agencies~~ agencies, the Department of Correction, the Department of Motor Vehicles, and any other State or local government agencies identified by the petitioner as bearing records of the conviction and records relating thereto to expunge their records of the conviction. The clerk shall forward a certified copy of the order to the sheriff, chief of police, or other arresting agency, as ~~appropriate, and the~~ appropriate; and when applicable, to the Department of Correction, Division of Motor Vehicles, and any other State or local agency. The arresting agency shall forward the order to the State Bureau of Investigation with a form supplied by the State Bureau of Investigation. The State Bureau of Investigation shall forward the court order in like manner to the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

The clerk of superior court in each county in North Carolina shall, as soon as practicable after each term of court in his county, file with the Administrative Office of the Courts the names of those persons whose judgments of convictions have been cancelled and expunged under the provisions of this Article, and the Administrative Office of the Courts shall maintain a confidential file containing the names of persons whose judgments of convictions have been cancelled and expunged. The information contained in the file shall be disclosed only to judges of the General Court of Justice of North Carolina for the purpose of ascertaining whether any person charged with an offense under this Article or any person filing a civil action under G.S. 15A-150.1 has been previously granted cancellation and expunction of a judgment of conviction pursuant to the terms of this Article."

SECTION 10. Article 5 of Chapter 15A of the General Statutes is amended by adding the following new sections to read:

"§ 15A-150. State agency to notify licensed private entities of expunctions.

When a State agency receives a certified copy of an order to expunge a record under G.S. 14-50.30, 15A-145, 15A-146, 15A-147, 15A-149, 90-96, or 90-113.14, the State agency, in addition to expunging its own records pursuant to the expunction order, shall also notify any private entity with which it has a licensing agreement for bulk extracts of data from the agency's criminal record database to delete the record in question.

"§ 15A-150.1. Duty of private entity to expunge records upon notice of expunction and to update criminal history record information; civil liability.

(a) A private entity that compiles and disseminates for compensation criminal history record information shall destroy and shall not disseminate any information in the possession of the entity with respect to which the entity has received notice that an order of expunction has been issued.

(b) Unless the entity is regulated by the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (15 U.S.C. § 1681, et seq.) or the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act (15 U.S.C. §§ 6801 to 6809), a private entity described by subsection (a) of this section that is licensed to access a State agency's criminal history record database:

(1) May disseminate that information only if, within the 90-day period preceding the date of dissemination, the entity: (i) originally obtains that information; or (ii) receives that information as updated record information to its database; and

(2) Shall notify the State agency if the entity sells any compilation of the information to another similar entity.

(c) A private entity that disseminates information in violation of this section is liable for any damages that are sustained as a result of the violation by the person who is the subject of that information. A person who prevails in an action brought under this section is also entitled to recover court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees.

"§ 15A-150.2. Civil penalty: dissemination of certain criminal history information.

(a) A private entity that compiles and disseminates for compensation criminal history record information shall not compile or disseminate information with respect to which the entity has received notice that an order of expunction has been issued under G.S. 14-50.30, 15A-145, 15A-146, 15A-147, 15A-149, 90-96, or 90-113.14.

(b) A district court may issue a warning to a private entity for a first violation of subsection (a) of this section. After receiving a warning for the first violation, the private entity is liable to the State for a civil penalty not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each subsequent violation.

(c) The attorney general or appropriate district attorney may sue to collect a civil penalty under this section.

(d) A civil penalty collected under this section shall be deposited in the Civil Penalty and Forfeiture Fund established under G.S. 115C-457.1."

SECTION 11. This act becomes effective October 1, 2009.

SENATE BILL 262:
Expunctions/Purge Online Databases

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	March 4, 2009
Introduced by:	Sen. Berger of Franklin	Prepared by:	Brenda J. Carter
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition S262-CSRV-3		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 262 amends the laws pertaining to the expunction of criminal records to require that the court send a certified copy of the expunction order to the Department of Correction, DMV, and any other State & local agencies identified by the petitioner, and direct those agencies to expunge their records of the petitioner's charge or conviction. The bill also requires that a State agency receiving an order of expunction notify any private entity with which it has a licensing agreement for data from the agency's criminal record database, and imposes a duty on the private entity to expunge its records and not disseminate any information for which it has received notice of expunction. The bill creates liability for a private entity that violates the expunction requirement and authorizes court costs and attorneys' fees for a prevailing party; it also creates civil penalties for a private entity that compiles and disseminates criminal history information after receiving notice of an order of expunction.

CURRENT LAW: The terms 'expunction' and 'expungement' are used interchangeably, and both appear in the statutes. Expunction is a judicial process for removing records pertaining to a criminal case. The purpose of expunction is to clear the public record of entries so that a person who is entitled to expunction may omit reference to the charges to potential employers and others, and so that a records check for prior arrests and convictions will not disclose the expunged entries. In North Carolina, expunction is limited to specifically defined situations, and a person can generally be granted only one expungement in his or her lifetime. Each expunction statute specifically prescribes who may apply for an expungement and then specifies the conditions under which a court can order an expungement.

Under G.S. 14-50.30 a person who is convicted of an offense under the Street Gang Suppression Act may apply for expunction, provide the person has not been previously convicted of any criminal offense, and the person was under the age of 18 at the time of the conviction. Expunction is not available if the person acted as an organizer, supervisor, or in any position of management with regard to a criminal street gang in engaging in a pattern of street gang activity, or if the person recruited minors under age 16 to participate in criminal street gang activity.

G.S. 15A-145 provides for the expunction of records for first offenders under the age of 18 at the time of conviction of a misdemeanor. A person who is convicted of a misdemeanor before reaching the age of 18 may petition to have that conviction expunged after 2 years, if there have been no other convictions. G.S. 15A-145 also provides for the expunction of records for first offenders under the age of 21 at the time of conviction of misdemeanor possession of alcohol. A person who is convicted of misdemeanor possession of alcohol while under the age of 21 may petition to have that conviction expunged after 2 years, if there have been no other convictions.

G.S. 15A-146 provides for the expunction of records when charges are dismissed or there is a finding of not guilty. A person charged with, but not convicted of, any misdemeanor or felony offense can apply to have the charge expunged. Persons who have previously received an expungement, or persons who have previously been convicted of a felony, would not qualify under this provision.

G.S. 15A-147 provides for the expunction of records when a charge is dismissed or there is a finding of not guilty in a case where a person is charged with a crime as a result of someone else using the person's identifying information to commit an infraction or crime. The person can apply to have the charge expunged when: (1) the charge against the person is dismissed, (2) a finding of not guilty is made, or (3) the conviction is set aside. There is no limit to the number of times a person who is the victim of identity fraud can qualify for an expungement under this provision.

Under G.S. 15A-149, a person who is convicted of a crime and receives a pardon of innocence from the Governor may apply to the Court for an order to expunge from all official records any entries relating to the person's apprehension, charge, or trial.

Drug Offenses -- The N.C. Controlled Substances Act, the Toxic Vapors Act, and the Drug Paraphernalia Act provide for the conditional discharge and dismissal of proceedings for certain first-time offenders. Upon discharge and dismissal, an offender age 21 or under may apply for expunction of the record. G.S. 90-96 provides for the expunction of records when a person age 21 or under is charged with misdemeanor possession of a controlled substance or possession of less than 1 gram of cocaine, and the charges are subsequently dismissed or there is a finding of not guilty. The person may apply to the court for an order to expunge official records relating to the person's arrest, indictment or information, or trial. An order of expunction will be granted if the court determines that the person was not over 21 at the time of any of the proceedings. A similar provision in G.S. 113.14 applies to misdemeanor possession of controlled substances in violation of the Toxic Vapors Act and to possession of drug paraphernalia.

BILL ANALYSIS: Under existing law, when the court issues an order of expunction, it is required to forward a certified copy of the order to the sheriff, chief of police, or other arresting agency and to direct the law enforcement agencies to expunge their records of the petitioner's conviction as the result of a criminal charge. In some cases, the court is required to notify DMV. Sections 1-9 of the bill extend this requirement to routinely include the Department of Correction, the Division of Motor Vehicles, and any other State or local agencies that are identified by the petitioner as bearing record of the charge or conviction. Section 10 of the bill requires a State agency receiving a certified copy of an expunction order to expunge its own records and to also notify any private entity with which it has a licensing agreement for bulk extracts of data from the agency's criminal record database. It requires that a private entity that compiles and disseminates criminal history record information for compensation destroy and not disseminate any information for which it has received notice of an expunction order. Unless an exception applies, a private entity licensed to access a state agency's criminal history record database (1) may disseminate only that information that is received within the 90-day period preceding dissemination and (2) must notify the State agency if the entity sells any compilation of information to another similar entity. A private entity that violates these requirements would be liable for damages to the person who is the subject of the expunction, and the prevailing party would be entitled to recover court costs and reasonable attorneys' fees. The bill also provides for the imposition of a civil penalty upon a private entity that compiles and disseminates criminal history information for which it has received notice of an order of expunction. A district court may issue a warning for the first violation and may assess a civil penalty of up to $1,000 for each subsequent violation. The bill authorizes the Attorney General or the appropriate district attorney to sue to collect a civil penalty. Any civil penalty would be deposited in the Civil Penalty and Forfeiture Fund.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The bill would become effective. October 1, 2009.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO AMEND THE LAW REGULATING THE USE OF CERTAIN REPTILES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Article 55 of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes reads as rewritten:

"Article 55.

"~~Handling~~ Regulation of ~~Poisonous~~ Certain Reptiles.

"§ 14-416. ~~Handling~~ Mishandling of ~~poisonous~~ certain reptiles declared public nuisance and criminal offense.

The intentional or negligent exposure of other human beings to unsafe contact with ~~reptiles of a venomous nature~~ venomous reptiles, large constricting snakes, or crocodilians ~~being~~ is essentially dangerous and injurious and detrimental to public health, safety and welfare, ~~the indulgence in and inducement to such exposure is hereby~~ and is therefore declared to be a public nuisance and a criminal offense, to be abated and punished as provided in this Article.

(a) It shall be unlawful for any person to own, possess, use, transport, or traffic in any venomous reptile ~~of a poisonous nature whose venom is not removed, unless such reptile is at all times kept securely in a box, cage, or other safe container in which there are no openings of sufficient size to permit the escape of such reptile, or through which such reptile can bite or inject its venom into any human being.~~ that is not housed in a sturdy and secure enclosure. Permanent enclosures shall be designed to be escape-proof, bite-proof, and have an operable lock. Transport containers shall be designed to be escape-proof and bite-proof.

(b) Each enclosure shall be clearly and visibly labeled 'Venomous Reptile Inside' with scientific name, common name, appropriate anti-venom, and owner's identifying information noted on the container. A written bite protocol that includes emergency contact information, local animal control office, the name and location of suitable anti-venom, first aid procedures, and treatment guidelines, as well as an escape recovery plan must be within sight of permanent housing, and a copy must accompany the transport of any venomous reptile.

(c) In the event of an escape of a venomous reptile, the owner or possessor of the venomous reptile shall immediately notify local law enforcement.

"§ 14-417.1. Regulation of ownership or use of large constricting snakes.

(a) As used in this Article, large constricting snakes shall mean: Reticulated Python, Python reticulates; Burmese Python, Python molurus; African Rock Python, Python sebae; Amethystine Python, Morelia amethistina; and Green Anaconda, Eunectes murinus; or any of their subspecies or hybrids.

(b) It shall be unlawful for any person to own, possess, use, transport, or traffic in any of the large constricting snakes that are not housed in a sturdy and secure enclosure. Permanent enclosures shall be designed to be escape-proof and shall have an operable lock. Transport containers shall be designed to be escape proof.

(c) Each enclosure shall be labeled clearly and visibly with the scientific name, common name, number of specimens, and owner's identifying information. A written safety protocol and escape recovery plan shall be within sight of permanent housing and a copy shall accompany the transport of any of the large constricting snakes. The safety protocol shall include emergency contact information, identification of the local animal control office, and first aid procedures.

(d) In the event of an escape of a large constricting snake, the owner or possessor shall immediately notify local law enforcement.

"§ 14-417.2. Regulation of ownership or use of crocodilians.

(a) All crocodilians, excluding the American alligator, shall be regulated under this Article. It shall be unlawful for any person to own, possess, use, transport, or traffic in any crocodilian that is not housed in a sturdy and secure enclosure. Permanent enclosures shall be designed to be escape-proof and have a fence of sufficient strength to prevent contact between an observer and the crocodilian and shall have an operable lock. Transport containers shall be designed to be escape-proof.

(b) A written safety protocol and escape recovery plan shall be within sight of permanent housing and a copy must accompany the transport of any crocodilian.

(c) In the event of the escape of a crocodilian, the owner or possessor shall immediately notify local law enforcement.

"§ 14-418. Prohibited handling of reptiles or suggesting or inducing others to handle.

(a) It shall be unlawful for any person to ~~intentionally~~ handle any reptile ~~of a poisonous nature whose venom is not removed, by taking or holding such reptile in bare hands or by placing or holding such reptile against any exposed part of the human anatomy, or by placing their own or another's hand or any other part of the human anatomy in or near any box, cage, or other container wherein such reptile is known or suspected to be.~~ regulated under this Article in a manner that intentionally or negligently exposes another person to unsafe contact with the reptile.

(b) It shall ~~also~~ be unlawful for any person to intentionally or negligently suggest, entice, invite, challenge, intimidate, exhort or otherwise induce or aid any person to handle or expose himself in an unsafe manner to any ~~such poisonous~~ reptile regulated ~~in any manner defined in~~under this Article.

(c) Safe and responsible handling of reptiles for purposes of animal husbandry, exhibition, training, transport, and education is permitted under this section.

"§ 14-418.1. Registration of reptiles.

The owner of any venomous reptile, large constricting snake, or crocodilian regulated under this Article shall register the location of the reptile's housing with local law enforcement. Registration shall be made by December 1, 2010, and shall be updated on an annual basis, and within 30 days of any change in the location of the reptile's housing. Local law enforcement may charge an annual registration fee not to exceed fifty dollars ($50.00) per housing location of reptiles regulated under this Article.

In any case in which any law-enforcement officer or animal control officer has ~~reasonable grounds~~ probable cause to believe that any of the provisions of this Article have been or are about to be violated, it shall be the duty of ~~such~~ the officer and the officer ~~he~~ is ~~hereby~~ authorized, empowered, and directed to immediately investigate ~~such~~ the violation or impending violation and to ~~forthwith~~ seize the reptile or reptiles involved, and ~~all such~~ ~~officers~~the officer is ~~are hereby~~ authorized and directed to deliver ~~such~~ the reptile or reptiles to the North Carolina State Museum of Natural Sciences or to its designated representative for examination ~~and test~~ for the purpose of ascertaining whether ~~said~~ the reptiles ~~contain venom and are poisonous.~~ are venomous reptiles, large constricting snakes, or crocodilians regulated under this Article. If the North Carolina State Museum of Natural Sciences or its designated representative finds that ~~said reptiles are dangerously poisonous,~~ a seized reptile is a venomous reptile, large constricting snake, or crocodilian regulated under this Article, the North Carolina State Museum of Natural Sciences or its designated representative shall ~~be empowered to dispose~~ determine final disposition of ~~said reptiles~~ the reptile in a manner consistent with the safety of the ~~public; but if~~public. If the Museum or its designated representative find that the ~~reptiles are not dangerously poisonous, and are not and cannot be harmful to human life, safety, health or welfare,~~ reptile is not a venomous reptile, large constricting snake, or crocodilian regulated under this Article, and either no criminal warrants or indictments are initiated in connection with the reptile within 10 days of initial seizure, or a court of law determines that the reptile is not being owned, possessed, used, transported, or trafficked in violation of this Article, then it shall be the duty of ~~such~~ the law enforcement officer ~~officers~~ to return the ~~said reptiles~~ reptile or reptiles to the person from whom they were seized within five days.

"§ 14-420. Arrest of persons violating provisions of Article.

If ~~the~~ an examination ~~and tests~~ made by the North Carolina State Museum of Natural Sciences or its designated representative ~~as provided herein show~~ conducted pursuant to this Article shows that ~~such reptiles are dangerously poisonous,~~ the reptile is a venomous reptile, large constricting snake, or crocodilian subject to this Article, it shall be the duty of the ~~officers~~ officer making the ~~seizure~~seizure~~, in addition to destroying such reptiles,~~ ~~also~~ to arrest all persons violating any of the provisions of this Article.

"§ 14-421. Exemptions from provisions of Article.

This Article shall not apply to the possession, exhibition, or handling of reptiles by employees or agents of duly constituted veterinarians, zoos, serpentariums, museums, laboratories, educational or scientific institutions, public and private, in the course of their educational or scientific work.

"§ 14-422. ~~Violation made misdemeanor.~~ Criminal penalties and civil remedies for violation.

(a) Any person violating any of the provisions of this Article shall be guilty of a Class 2 misdemeanor.

(b) If a person other than the owner of a venomous reptile, large constricting snake, or crocodilian, or other than the owners' agent or agents, suffers a life threatening injury or is killed as the result of a violation of this Article, the owner shall be guilty of a Class I felony.

(c) Any person intentionally releasing into the wild a nonnative venomous reptile, a large constricting snake, or a crocodilian shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor.

(d) Violations of this Article as set forth in subsections (b) or (c) of this section shall constitute wanton conduct within the meaning of G.S. 1D-5(7) and subject the violator to punitive damages in any civil action that may be filed as a result of the violator's actions."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective December 1, 2009, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 307:
Regulate Ownership & Use of Certain Reptiles

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	March 5, 2009
Introduced by:	Sen. Jones	Prepared by:	Jennifer McGinnis
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition S307-CSRI-1 [v.4]		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: The proposed committee substitute (PCS) for Senate Bill 307 would add large constricting snakes and crocodilians (with the exception of the American alligator) to an existing Article that governs the handling of venomous reptiles. The PCS would also: (i) provide that negligent exposure, in addition to intentional exposure, of others to regulated reptiles constitutes a violation under the Article; (ii) provide additional requirements for caging, registration, and other protocols associated with these reptiles; (iii) clarify the process upon seizure of a regulated reptile; (iv) add new penalties and remedies for violations of the Article; and (v) make other technical, clarifying, and conforming changes.

CURRENT LAW: Article 55 of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes, "Handling of Poisonous Reptiles", provides that it is unlawful for any person to:

- Own, possess, use, or traffic in any reptile of a poisonous nature whose venom is not removed unless the reptile is kept securely in a box, cage, or safe container without openings that would allow for escape or the biting of humans.
- Intentionally handle any reptile of a poisonous nature whose venom is not removed with bare hands or by holding the reptile against any exposed part of the body or by placing one's hand (or other part of the anatomy), or that of another person's, near any container housing a poisonous reptile.
- Induce others to handle reptiles of a poisonous nature.

The statute also provides that law enforcement or animal control officers with reasonable grounds to believe a violation of the Article exists must immediately investigate the violation, seize the reptile involved, and deliver the reptile to the North Carolina State Museum of Natural Sciences (Museum)or its designee to examine the reptile in order to ascertain whether the reptile is poisonous. If the Museum determines the reptile is dangerously poisonous, the Museum is empowered to dispose of the reptile in a manner consistent with public safety and law enforcement is directed to arrest the person from whom the reptile was seized. If the Museum determines the reptile is not venomous, the statute provides for return of the reptile to the person from whom the reptile was seized.

The statute provides that violations of the Article are punishable as a Class 2 misdemeanor.

The statute exempts museums, laboratories, educational or scientific institutions from the provisions of the Article.

BILL ANALYSIS: The PCS would add large constricting snakes (as listed in the bill) and all crocodilians (except the American alligator, which is already regulated by the State's Wildlife Resources Commission (WRC)) to coverage under the Article. The PCS would also prohibit the transport (in addition to owning, possessing, using, or trafficking) of the regulated reptiles except in compliance with the Article's requirements. Further, the PCS would:

- Provide that negligent exposure, in addition to intentional exposure, of others to regulated reptiles constitutes a violation under the Article.
- Provide additional requirements for caging and associated protocols as follows:
  - Venomous reptiles -- Permanent enclosures designed to be escape-proof, bite-proof, and have an operable lock; transport containers designed to be escape and bite-proof.
  - Large constricting snakes -- Permanent enclosures designed to be escape-proof and have an operable lock; transport containers designed to be escape-proof.
  - Crocodilians -- Permanent enclosures designed to be escape-proof, have a fence of sufficient strength, and have an operable lock; transport containers designed to be escape-proof.

  For venomous reptiles, enclosures must be clearly labeled as containing such a reptile, with identifying anti-venom information. Written bite or safety protocols (as applicable) and escape recovery plans must be kept within sight of a permanent enclosure and accompany transport. Immediate notification of escape to law enforcement would be required.
- Prohibit handling of a regulated reptile in any manner that intentionally or negligently exposes another to unsafe contact with the reptile, or inducement of another to unsafe contact with the reptile.
- Register the location of a regulated reptile's housing with local law enforcement by December 1, 2010 and update annually or within 30 days after a change of location. Local law enforcement may charge an annual registration fee not to exceed $50 per housing location.
- Change the standard under which law enforcement may seize a regulated reptile from "reasonable grounds" to "probable cause".
- Provide that if the Museum determines that a seized reptile is a reptile regulated under the Article, the Museum must determine the final disposition of the reptile and law enforcement must arrest the person in violation of the Article. If the Museum determines the reptile is not regulated under the Article, and either no criminal warrants or indictments are initiated in connection with the reptile within 10 days of seizure or a court determines that the reptile is not being handled in violation of the Article, the reptile must be returned to the person from whom it was seized.
- Add veterinarians, zoos, and serpentariums to the list of entities exempt from the Article's provisions.
- Provide additional penalties/remedies: (i) the owner of a regulated animal would be guilty of a Class I felony if another person suffers a life threatening injury or is killed as a result of a violation of the Article; (ii) a person would be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor for the intentional release of a nonnative regulated reptile into the wild; and (iii) in cases where violations of the Article result in a life threatening injury or death, or in the case of an intentional release into the wild, the violation would be deemed to constitute wanton conduct as defined under the statutes and subject the violator to punitive damages in any civil case filed as a result.

S307-SMRI-3(CSRI-1) v2

SENATE BILL 307:
Regulate Ownership & Use of Certain Reptiles

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	March 5, 2009
Introduced by:	Sen. Jones	Prepared by:	Jennifer McGinnis Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition S307-CSRI-1 [v.4]

SUMMARY: The proposed committee substitute (PCS) for Senate Bill 307 would add large constricting snakes and crocodilians (with the exception of the American alligator) to an existing Article that governs the handling of venomous reptiles. The PCS would also: (i) provide that negligent exposure, in addition to intentional exposure, of others to regulated reptiles constitutes a violation under the Article; (ii) provide additional requirements for caging, registration, and other protocols associated with these reptiles; (iii) clarify the process upon seizure of a regulated reptile; (iv) add new penalties and remedies for violations of the Article; and (v) make other technical, clarifying, and conforming changes.

CURRENT LAW: Article 55 of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes, "Handling of Poisonous Reptiles", provides that it is unlawful for any person to:

- Own, possess, use, or traffic in any reptile of a poisonous nature whose venom is not removed unless the reptile is kept securely in a box, cage, or safe container without openings that would allow for escape or the biting of humans.
- Intentionally handle any reptile of a poisonous nature whose venom is not removed with bare hands or by holding the reptile against any exposed part of the body or by placing one's hand (or other part of the anatomy), or that of another person's, near any container housing a poisonous reptile.
- Induce others to handle reptiles of a poisonous nature.

The statute also provides that law enforcement or animal control officers with reasonable grounds to believe a violation of the Article exists must immediately investigate the violation, seize the reptile involved, and deliver the reptile to the North Carolina State Museum of Natural Sciences (Museum)or its designee to examine the reptile in order to ascertain whether the reptile is poisonous. If the Museum determines the reptile is dangerously poisonous, the Museum is empowered to dispose of the reptile in a manner consistent with public safety and law enforcement is directed to arrest the person from whom the reptile was seized. If the Museum determines the reptile is not venomous, the statute provides for return of the reptile to the person from whom the reptile was seized.

The statute provides that violations of the Article are punishable as a Class 2 misdemeanor.

The statute exempts museums, laboratories, educational or scientific institutions from the provisions of the Article.

BILL ANALYSIS: The PCS would add large constricting snakes (as listed in the bill) and all crocodilians (except the American alligator, which is already regulated by the State's Wildlife Resources Commission (WRC)) to coverage under the Article. The PCS would also prohibit the transport (in addition to owning, possessing, using, or trafficking) of the regulated reptiles except in compliance with the Article's requirements. Further, the PCS would:

- Provide that negligent exposure, in addition to intentional exposure, of others to regulated reptiles constitutes a violation under the Article.
- Provide additional requirements for caging and associated protocols as follows:
    - Venomous reptiles -- Permanent enclosures designed to be escape-proof, bite-proof, and have an operable lock; transport containers designed to be escape and bite-proof.
    - Large constricting snakes -- Permanent enclosures designed to be escape-proof and have an operable lock; transport containers designed to be escape-proof.
    - Crocodilians -- Permanent enclosures designed to be escape-proof, have a fence of sufficient strength, and have an operable lock; transport containers designed to be escape-proof.

  For venomous reptiles, enclosures must be clearly labeled as containing such a reptile, with identifying anti-venom information. Written bite or safety protocols (as applicable) and escape recovery plans must be kept within sight of a permanent enclosure and accompany transport. Immediate notification of escape to law enforcement would be required.
- Prohibit handling of a regulated reptile in any manner that intentionally or negligently exposes another to unsafe contact with the reptile, or inducement of another to unsafe contact with the reptile.
- Register the location of a regulated reptile's housing with local law enforcement by December 1, 2010 and update annually or within 30 days after a change of location. Local law enforcement may charge an annual registration fee not to exceed $50 per housing location.
- Change the standard under which law enforcement may seize a regulated reptile from "reasonable grounds" to "probable cause".
- Provide that if the Museum determines that a seized reptile is a reptile regulated under the Article, the Museum must determine the final disposition of the reptile and law enforcement must arrest the person in violation of the Article. If the Museum determines the reptile is not regulated under the Article, and either no criminal warrants or indictments are initiated in connection with the reptile within 10 days of seizure or a court determines that the reptile is not being handled in violation of the Article, the reptile must be returned to the person from whom it was seized.
- Add veterinarians, zoos, and serpentariums to the list of entities exempt from the Article's provisions.
- Provide additional penalties/remedies: (i) the owner of a regulated animal would be guilty of a Class I felony if another person suffers a life threatening injury or is killed as a result of a violation of the Article; (ii) a person would be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor for the intentional release of a nonnative regulated reptile into the wild; and (iii) in cases where violations of the Article result in a life threatening injury or death, or in the case of an intentional release into the wild, the violation would be deemed to constitute wanton conduct as defined under the statutes and subject the violator to punitive damages in any civil case filed as a result.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The PCS would become effective December 1, 2009, and apply to offenses committed on or after that date.

MINUTES

The Senate Judiciary II Committee met at 10:00 AM on March 10, 2009, in Room 1124 of the Legislative Building with thirteen members of the committee present. Senator Fletcher L. Hartsell, Jr., Chairman, presided.

Senator Hartsell introduced pages Tyler Gartland, Andre's Ainolhayat and Zach Sullivan and thanked them for serving.

SB 241 (Alt. Testimony/Children and Adults with Disab.) Senator Purcell was recognized to explain the bill. Mr. Pete Powell and Ms. Catherine White, representing the Office of the Courts spoke on the bill. Senator Bingham moved for a favorable report. After continued discussion and comments from Dick Taylor, Academy of Trial Lawyers and Stephen Hughes, Public Defenders Office, Senator Hartsell, with Senator Purcell's agreement, noted that the Committee would hold the bill along with Senator Bingham's motion for further information and consideration.

SB 285 (Rewrite Foreign Money Judgments Laws.) As this was Senator Hartsell's bill, Senator Jones was invited to preside. Senator Hartsell noted that the bill was being presented for consideration and that no vote would be taken at this meeting. He then recognized Ms. Kory Goldsmith, Staff Attorney and Mr. Floyd Lewis from the General Statutes Commission to give additional explanation. The bill will be heard again at a later date.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR ALTERNATIVE MEANS OF TESTIMONY FOR CHILDREN AND ADULTS WITH DISABILITIES AS RECOMMENDED BY THE JOINT STUDY COMMITTEE ON AUTISM SPECTRUM DISORDER AND PUBLIC SAFETY.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Article 6 of Chapter 8C of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"Rule 616. Alternative testimony of children and developmentally disabled.

(a) Closed Circuit Testimony Permitted. – When a witness is either (i) under the age of 16 or (ii) developmentally disabled or mentally retarded, the court may, on its own motion or at the request of a party, order that witness's testimony be taken by closed circuit television in any action, whether civil or criminal in nature.

(b) Finding of Emotional Harm Required in Criminal Actions. – Closed circuit testimony may be permitted in criminal actions only if the court finds that there is a substantial likelihood that the witness will suffer emotional harm such that the witness could not reasonably communicate with the finder of fact if required to testify in open court. Such a finding shall be based upon clear and convincing evidence, which may include expert testimony.

(c) Finding of Best Interests of Witness in Civil Actions. – Closed circuit testimony may be permitted in civil actions only if the court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that permitting the witness to testify by closed circuit television is necessary to serve the best interests of the witness or enable the witness to communicate with the finder of fact. In making this finding, the court shall consider:

(1) The nature of the proceeding;
(2) The age and maturity of the witness;
(3) The relationship of the witness to the parties in the proceeding;
(4) The nature and degree of emotional trauma that the witness may suffer in testifying; and
(5) Any other relevant factor.

(d) Definitions. – The following definitions apply in this section:

(1) Closed circuit testimony. – Transmission of witness testimony by closed circuit television which enables the defendant to observe and view the testimony and provides, by any appropriate electronic means, the defendant's right to assistance of counsel, including the right to immediate and direct communication with counsel during cross-examination.

(2) Developmentally disabled. – A person with a severe, chronic disability which:

a. Is attributable to a mental or physical impairment or combination of mental and physical impairments, including cerebral palsy, epilepsy, autism, or other neurological conditions;

b. Is manifested before the person attains age 22, unless the disability is caused by a traumatic head injury and is manifested after age 22;

c. Is likely to continue indefinitely;

d. Results in substantial functional limitations in three or more of the following areas of major life activity: self-care, receptive and expressive language, capacity for independent living, learning, mobility, self-direction and economic self-sufficiency; and

e. Reflects the person's need for a combination and sequence of special interdisciplinary or generic care, treatment, or other services which are of a lifelong or extended duration and are individually planned and coordinated; or

f. When applied to children from birth through four years of age, may be evidenced as a developmental delay.

(3) Mentally retarded. – A person with significantly subaverage general intellectual functioning existing concurrently with deficits in adaptive behavior and manifested before age 22."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective December 1, 2009, and applies to any testimony given on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 241:
Alt. Testimony/Children and Adults with Disab

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	March 9, 2009
Introduced by:	Sen. Purcell	Prepared by:	Brenda J. Carter
Analysis of:	First Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 241 provides procedures for taking the testimony of witnesses who are under the age of 16 or who are developmentally disabled or mentally retarded.

CURRENT LAW: In North Carolina, certain proceedings in criminal matters may be conducted by audio and video transmission in which the parties can see and hear each other, including:

- A hearing to determine the need to continue custody of a juvenile
- Showing of Probable Cause. –oral testimony under oath or affirmation presented by a sworn law enforcement officer to the issuing official.
- A proceeding for initial appearance in a noncapital case, between the magistrate or other authorized judicial official and the defendant.
- First appearance before a district court judge
- A proceeding to determine, modify, or revoke conditions of pretrial release in a noncapital case.
- Arraignment in a noncapital case

BILL ANALYSIS: Senate Bill 241 would amend the NC Rules of Evidence, which govern proceedings in the courts of this State. The bill would authorize the court to permit testimony by closed circuit television in any civil or criminal action when the witness is a child under 16 or when the witness is a developmentally disabled or mentally retarded person of any age. The definitions of "developmentally disabled" and "mentally retarded" are substantially the same as those set out in Chapter 122C of the General Statutes (Mental Health). The bill would apply to persons with severe chronic disability attributable to mental or physical impairments that result in certain functional limitations, and to persons with significantly subaverage intellectual functioning. For persons meeting the requirements set out in the bill, testimony would be taken by closed circuit television which enables the defendant to observe and view the testimony, and which provides the defendant's right to assistance of counsel.

Criminal Actions – Closed circuit testimony would be permitted in criminal actions only if the court finds, based on clear and convincing evidence, that there is a substantial likelihood that the witness will suffer emotional harm such that the witness could not reasonably communicate with the finder of fact if required to testify in open court. The "clear and convincing evidence" requirement means that the evidence must be sufficient to prove that it is highly probable or probably certain that the witness would suffer emotional harm from testifying in open court.

Civil Actions – Closed circuit testimony would be permitted in civil actions if the court finds, by a preponderance of the evidence, that permitting the witness to testify by closed circuit television is necessary to serve the best interests of the witness or to enable the witness to communicate with the finder of fact. The court would be required to consider the nature of the proceeding, the age and maturity of the witness, the relationship of the witness to the parties in the proceeding, the nature and degree of emotional trauma that the witness may suffer in testifying, and any other relevant factor. The "preponderance of the evidence" requirement means that the evidence must be sufficient to incline a fair and impartial mind to one side of the issue rather than the other; that it is more likely true than not that closed circuit testimony would be in the best interests of the witness.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The bill would become effective December 1, 2009 and apply to testimony given on or after that date.

BACKGROUND: The Confrontation Clause of the Sixth Amendment to the United States Constitution provides that "in all criminal prosecutions, the accused shall enjoy the right...to be confronted with the witnesses against him." A similar right is set out in Article 1, Section 23 of the NC Constitution, which provides that "In all criminal prosecutions, every person charged with crime has the right...to confront the accusers and witnesses with other testimony." In 1990, the U.S. Supreme Court ruled that testimony by closed circuit television would not necessarily violate that right under certain conditions. In Maryland v. Craig, 497 U.S. 836 (1990), the United States Supreme Court upheld a Maryland state statute permitting the use of one-way closed circuit testimony for a child witness alleged to be the victim of child abuse when the trial court had determined that the testimony by the child victim in the courtroom would result in the child suffering emotional distress such that the child could not reasonably communicate.

North Carolina courts have addressed the issue of remote child testimony in the case of State v. Stradford, 119 N.C. App 654 (1995), holding that such testimony was allowable under certain circumstances. In Stradford, two minor children, the alleged victims of sexual abuse, were permitted to testify via closed circuit television due to the children's probable inability to communicate if forced to testify in defendant's presence. The Court of Appeals held that such testimony was permissible and did not violate the Confrontation Clause because the remote testimony preserved the essence of effective communication, as the child witnesses (1) testified under oath (2) were subject to full cross-examination, and (3) were able to be observed by the judge and defendant as they testified.

Nine states provide statutorily for alternative testimony by adults with disabilities under certain circumstances.

SENATE BILL 285*

Short Title:	Rewrite Foreign Money Judgments Laws.	(Public)
Sponsors:	Senator Hartsell.
Referred to:	Judiciary II.

February 25, 2009

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO REWRITE THE LAW CONCERNING THE RECOGNITION OF FOREIGN MONEY JUDGMENTS, AS RECOMMENDED BY THE GENERAL STATUTES COMMISSION.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Article 18 of Chapter 1C of the General Statutes is repealed.

SECTION 2. Chapter 1C of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new Article to read:

"Article 20.

"North Carolina Uniform Foreign-Country Money Judgments Recognition Act.

"§ 1C-1850. Short title.

This Article may be cited as the North Carolina Uniform Foreign-Country Money Judgments Recognition Act.

"§ 1C-1851. Definitions.

The following definitions apply in this Article:

(1) Foreign country. – A government other than:

a. The United States;

b. A state, district, commonwealth, territory, or insular possession of the United States; or

c. Any other government with regard to which the decision in this State as to whether to recognize a judgment of that government's courts is initially subject to determination under the Full Faith and Credit Clause of the United States Constitution.

(2) Foreign-country judgment. – A judgment of a court of a foreign country.

"§ 1C-1852. Applicability; saving clause.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (b) of this section, this Article applies to a foreign-country judgment to the extent that the judgment:

(1) Grants or denies recovery of a sum of money; and

(2) Under the law of the foreign country where rendered, is final, conclusive, and enforceable.

(b) This Article does not apply to a foreign-country judgment, even if the judgment grants or denies recovery of a sum of money, to the extent that the judgment is:

(1) A judgment for taxes;

(2) A fine or other penalty; or

(3) A judgment for alimony, support, or maintenance in matrimonial or family matters.

(c) A party seeking recognition of a foreign-country judgment has the burden of establishing that this Article applies to the foreign-country judgment.

(d) This Article does not prevent the recognition under principles of comity or otherwise of a foreign-country judgment to which this Article does not apply.

"§ 1C-1853. Standards for recognition and nonrecognition of foreign-country judgment.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, a court of this State shall recognize a foreign-country judgment to which this Article applies.

(b) A court of this State shall not recognize a foreign-country judgment if:

(1) The judgment was rendered under a judicial system that, taken as a whole, does not provide impartial tribunals or procedures compatible with the requirements of due process of law;

(2) The foreign court did not have personal jurisdiction over the defendant; or

(3) The foreign court did not have jurisdiction over the subject matter.

(c) If a court of this State finds that any of the following exist with respect to a foreign-country judgment for which recognition is sought, recognition of the judgment shall be denied unless the court determines, as a matter of law, that recognition would nevertheless be reasonable under the circumstances:

(1) The defendant in the proceeding in the foreign court did not receive notice of the proceeding in sufficient time to enable the defendant to defend.

(2) The judgment was obtained by fraud that deprived the losing party of an adequate opportunity to present its case.

(3) The judgment, or the cause of action or claim for relief on which the judgment is based, is repugnant to the public policy of this State or of the United States.

(4) Reserved for future codification.

(5) The proceeding in the foreign court was contrary to an agreement between the parties under which the dispute in question was to be determined otherwise than by proceedings in that foreign court.

(6) In the case of jurisdiction based only on personal service, the foreign court was a seriously inconvenient forum for the trial of the action.

(7) The judgment was rendered in circumstances that raise substantial doubt about the integrity of the rendering court with respect to the judgment.

(8) The specific proceeding in the foreign court leading to the judgment was fundamentally unfair.

(d) If a foreign-country judgment for which recognition is sought is otherwise entitled to recognition under this Article but conflicts with a prior final and conclusive judgment, a court of this State shall recognize the judgment for which recognition is sought unless the court determines that nonrecognition would nevertheless be reasonable under the circumstances.

(e) If a foreign-country judgment for which recognition is sought is otherwise entitled to recognition under this Article but conflicts with a subsequent final and conclusive judgment, a court of this State shall deny recognition of the judgment for which recognition is sought unless the court determines that recognition would nevertheless be reasonable under the circumstances.

(f) A party resisting recognition of a foreign-country judgment has the burden of establishing that a ground for nonrecognition stated in subsection (b) of this section exists.

(g) A party resisting recognition of a foreign-country judgment has the burden of establishing that a ground for nonrecognition stated in subsection (c) of this section exists. The party seeking recognition of the judgment has the burden of establishing that, as a matter of law, recognition would nevertheless be reasonable under the circumstances.

(h) A party resisting recognition of a foreign-country judgment under subsection (d) or (e) of this section has the burden of establishing that another final and conclusive judgment

exists and that the other judgment conflicts with the judgment for which recognition is sought. Under subsection (d) of this section, the party resisting recognition also has the burden of establishing that nonrecognition of the judgment for which recognition is sought would be reasonable under the circumstances. Under subsection (e) of this section, the party seeking recognition of the foreign-country judgment has the burden of establishing that recognition would be reasonable under the circumstances.

(i) When a court of this State rules on recognition of a foreign-country judgment, the court shall state the facts specially and state separately its conclusions of law.

"§ 1C-1854. Personal jurisdiction.

(a) A foreign-country judgment shall not be refused recognition for lack of personal jurisdiction if any of the following exist:

(1) The defendant was served with process personally in the foreign country.

(2) The defendant voluntarily appeared in the proceeding, other than for the purpose of protecting property seized or threatened with seizure in the proceeding or of contesting the jurisdiction of the court over the defendant.

(3) The defendant, before the commencement of the proceeding, had agreed to submit to the jurisdiction of the foreign court with respect to the subject matter involved.

(4) The defendant was domiciled in the foreign country when the proceeding was instituted or was a corporation or other form of business organization that had its principal place of business in, or was organized under the laws of, the foreign country.

(5) The defendant had a business office in the foreign country and the proceeding in the foreign court involved a cause of action or claim for relief arising out of business done by the defendant through that office in the foreign country.

(6) The defendant operated a motor vehicle or airplane in the foreign country and the proceeding involved a cause of action or claim for relief arising out of that operation.

(7) There was any other basis for personal jurisdiction that would be consistent with the Due Process Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

(b) The list of bases for personal jurisdiction in subsection (a) of this section is not exclusive. The courts of this State may recognize reasonable bases of personal jurisdiction other than those listed in subsection (a) of this section as sufficient to support a foreign-country judgment.

"§ 1C-1855. Procedure for recognition and nonrecognition of foreign-country judgment.

(a) If recognition of a foreign-country judgment is sought as an original matter, the issue of recognition shall be raised by filing an action seeking recognition of the foreign-country judgment.

(b) If recognition or nonrecognition of a foreign-country judgment is sought in some other action, the issue of recognition may be raised by complaint, counterclaim, cross-claim, or affirmative defense.

"§ 1C-1856. Effect of recognition of foreign-country judgment.

(a) If the court in a proceeding under G.S. 1C-1855 finds that the foreign-country judgment is entitled to recognition under this Article then, to the extent that the foreign-country judgment grants or denies recovery of a sum of money, the foreign-country judgment is:

(1) Conclusive between the parties to the same extent as the judgment of a sister state entitled to full faith and credit in this State would be conclusive; and

(2) Enforceable in the same manner and to the same extent as a judgment rendered in this State.

(b) Article 17 of this Chapter does not apply to the enforcement of foreign-country judgments recognized under this Article.

"§ 1C-1857. Stay of proceedings pending appeal of foreign-country judgment.

If a party establishes that an appeal from a foreign-country judgment is pending or will be taken, the court may stay any proceedings with regard to the foreign-country judgment until the appeal is concluded, the time for appeal expires without an appeal being taken, or the appellant has had sufficient time to prosecute the appeal and has failed to do so.

"§ 1C-1858. Statute of limitations.

An action to recognize a foreign-country judgment must be commenced within the earlier of the time during which the foreign-country judgment is effective in the foreign country or 10 years from the date that the foreign-country judgment became effective in the foreign country.

"§ 1C-1859. Uniformity of interpretation.

In applying and construing this Article, consideration may be given to promoting uniformity of interpretation with respect to its subject matter among states that enact it."

SECTION 3. The Revisor of Statutes shall cause to be printed along with this act all relevant portions of the official comments to the Uniform Foreign-Country Money Judgments Recognition Act and all explanatory comments of the drafters of this act as the Revisor deems appropriate.

SECTION 4. This act is effective October 1, 2009, and applies to all actions commenced on or after that date in which the issue of recognition of a foreign-country judgment is raised.

MEMORANDUM
March 9, 2009

TO: Senate Judiciary II Committee
FROM: General Statutes Commission
RE: Senate Bill 285 (Rewrite Foreign Money Judgments Laws)

General Comments

This bill is based on the Uniform Foreign-Country Money Judgments Recognition Act (new Uniform Act) as approved in 2005 by the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws. The new Uniform Act replaces the earlier Uniform Foreign Money Judgments Recognition Act (old Uniform Act), enacted in this State in 1993 as Article 18 of Chapter 1C of the General Statutes, G.S. 1C-1800 et seq. Like the old Uniform Act, the new Uniform Act provides a process for the recognition of money judgments rendered in other countries.

The new Uniform Act continues the basic policies and approach of the old Uniform Act but updates the old Uniform Act to clarify its provisions and correct problems created by judicial interpretations. The new Uniform Act:

- Updates and clarifies the definitions.
- Reorganizes and clarifies the scope provisions.
- Allocates the burden of proof.
- Establishes a procedure for seeking recognition or nonrecognition of a foreign-country money judgment.
- Clarifies and, to a limited extent, expands the grounds for denying recognition.
- Establishes a statute of limitations for recognizing foreign-country money judgments.

The bill also authorizes the printing of drafters comments and provides an effective date and applicability provision.

Specific Comments

Section 1 repeals Article 18 of Chapter 1C of the General Statutes, the "North Carolina Uniform Foreign Money Judgments Recognition Act" (Article 18).

Section 2 enacts Article 20 of Chapter 1C of the General Statutes, the "North Carolina Uniform Foreign-Country Money Judgments Recognition Act" (new Article 20).

Section 1C-1850 provides that new Article 20 may be cited as the "North Carolina Uniform Foreign-Country Money Judgments Recognition Act."

Section 1C-1851 defines new terms "foreign country" and "foreign-country judgment" to replace the current terms "foreign state" and "foreign judgment" in order to clarify that new Article 20 does not apply to recognition of sister-state judgments. The definition of "foreign country" is substantially similar to the definition of "foreign state." The definition of "foreign-country judgment" is based on the definition of "foreign judgment", except that the part of the definition setting out the scope of Article 18 has been moved to Section 1C-1852 of new Article 20.

Section 1C-1852 provides applicability provisions and a saving clause. Subsections (a) and (b), consistent with Article 18, provide that new Article 20 applies to a foreign-country judgment that grants or denies recovery of a sum of money and that is final, conclusive and enforceable under the law of the foreign country where it was rendered, unless the judgment (i) is for taxes, (ii) constitutes a fine or other penalty, or (iii) is for alimony, support, or maintenance in matrimonial or family matters. Subsection (c), which is new, places the burden of proof of showing that new Article 20 applies to a foreign-country judgment on the party seeking recognition. Subsection (d), like current G.S. 1C-1807, provides that new Article 20 does not prevent a court from applying common law principles of comity or other applicable law to recognize a foreign-country judgment to which the new Article 20 does not apply.

Section 1C-1853 provides standards for recognition and nonrecognition of foreign-country judgments. Subsections (f) through (i) are entirely new. Subsection (a) requires the court to recognize a foreign-country judgment to which new Article 20 applies, except as otherwise provided in the section. Subsection (b) states mandatory grounds for denying recognition that are essentially the same as under Article 18.

Subsection (c) states additional grounds for denying recognition. A court that finds that any of these grounds exist must deny recognition of a foreign-country money judgment unless the court determines as a matter of law that recognition would nevertheless be reasonable under the circumstances. Under Article 18, in contrast, denial of recognition on these grounds is discretionary. The additional grounds stated in subdivisions (c)(7) and (c)(8) are new. This section does not bring forward current G.S. 1C-1804(b)(7) (allowing a court to deny recognition of a foreign-money judgment if the court that rendered the judgment would not recognize a comparable judgment of this State).

Subsections (d) and (e) adopt a modified last-in-time rule for recognition of conflicting foreign-country money judgments. Assuming judgments that are otherwise entitled to recognition, subsection (d) requires the court to recognize the later judgment unless the court determines that nonrecognition would nevertheless be reasonable under the circumstances, and subsection (e) requires the court to deny recognition of an earlier judgment unless the court determines that recognition would nevertheless be reasonable under the circumstances.

Subsections (f) through (h) allocate the burden of proof. Subsection (f) places on the party resisting recognition of a judgment under subsection (b) the burden of establishing that one of the mandatory grounds for nonrecognition exists. Subsection (g) similarly places on the party resisting recognition under subsection (c) the burden of establishing that one of the additional grounds for nonrecognition exists. If such a ground is established, however, the party seeking recognition has the burden of establishing that, as a matter of law, recognition would nevertheless be reasonable under the circumstances. Subsection (h) places the burden on the party resisting recognition under either subsection (d) or (e) to establish that another final and conclusive judgment exists and that the other judgment conflicts with the judgment for which recognition is sought. A party resisting recognition under subsection (d) also has the burden of showing that nonrecognition of the later judgment would be reasonable under the circumstances; a party seeking recognition under subsection (e) has the burden of establishing that recognition of an earlier judgment would be reasonable under the circumstances.

Subsection (i) requires a court, when ruling on recognition of a foreign-country judgment, to state the facts specially and state separately its conclusions of law. When the court is the trier of fact, the facts will be stated in the findings of fact. When the court is ruling on a motion to dismiss, where the nonmovant's factual allegations are treated as true, or a motion for summary judgment, where there is no issue of material fact, the court will need to set out those facts that the court considered to be material.

Section 1C-1854 lists in subsection (a) bases for personal jurisdiction that are adequate as a matter of law to establish that the foreign court had personal jurisdiction over the defendant. These bases for personal jurisdiction are in substance the same as current law except that subdivision (a)(4) has been modified to include other forms of business organizations and subdivision (a)(7) is new. New subdivision (a)(7) provides that the foreign court has personal jurisdiction over the defendant if there was any other basis for personal jurisdiction that would be consistent with the Due Process Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution. Subsection (b) clarifies that the bases for personal jurisdiction listed in subsection (a) are not exclusive; a court of this State may find that the foreign court had personal jurisdiction over the defendant on some other basis.

Section 1C-1855 sets out the procedures by which the issue of recognition or nonrecognition of a foreign-country judgment may be raised. If recognition is sought as an original matter, the issue of recognition must be raised by filing an action seeking recognition. If recognition or nonrecognition is sought in some other action the issue of recognition may be raised by complaint, counterclaim, cross-claim, or affirmative defense.

Section 1C-1856 sets out the effect of recognition of a foreign-country judgment. A judgment recognized under new Article 20 is conclusive between the parties to the same extent as the judgment of a sister state entitled to full faith and credit in this State would be conclusive, but in contrast to Article 18, it is enforceable in the same manner and to the same extent as a judgment rendered in this State. Under Article 18, a judgment once recognized must be enforced under Article 17 of Chapter 1C of the General Statutes, which is cumbersome and partly duplicates the provisions of Article 18.

Section 1C-1857 is substantively the same as current law in providing that the court may stay any proceedings with regard to a foreign-country judgment pending appeal of the foreign-country judgment.

Section 1C-1858 is new. It expressly provides that an action to recognize a foreign-country judgment must be commenced within the earlier of the time during which the judgment is effective in the foreign country or 10 years from the date that the judgment became effective in the foreign country.

Section 1C-1859 provides for uniformity of application and construction of new Article 20.

Sections 3 and 4, respectively, authorize the printing of drafters comments and provide that the bill is effective when it becomes law.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR ALTERNATIVE MEANS OF TESTIMONY FOR CHILDREN AND ADULTS WITH DISABILITIES AS RECOMMENDED BY THE JOINT STUDY COMMITTEE ON AUTISM SPECTRUM DISORDER AND PUBLIC SAFETY.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Article 6 of Chapter 8C of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"Rule 616. Alternative testimony of children and developmentally disabled.

(a) Closed Circuit Testimony Permitted. – When a witness is either (i) under the age of 16 or (ii) developmentally disabled or mentally retarded, the court may, on its own motion or at the request of a party, order that witness's testimony be taken by closed circuit television in any action, whether civil or criminal in nature.

(b) Finding of Emotional Harm Required in Criminal Actions. – Closed circuit testimony may be permitted in criminal actions only if the court finds that there is a substantial likelihood that the witness will suffer emotional harm such that the witness could not reasonably communicate with the finder of fact if required to testify in open court. Such a finding shall be based upon clear and convincing evidence, which may include expert testimony.

(c) Finding of Best Interests of Witness in Civil Actions. – Closed circuit testimony may be permitted in civil actions only if the court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that permitting the witness to testify by closed circuit television is necessary to serve the best interests of the witness or enable the witness to communicate with the finder of fact. In making this finding, the court shall consider:

(1) The nature of the proceeding;
(2) The age and maturity of the witness;
(3) The relationship of the witness to the parties in the proceeding;
(4) The nature and degree of emotional trauma that the witness may suffer in testifying; and
(5) Any other relevant factor.

(d) Definitions. – The following definitions apply in this section:

(1) Closed circuit testimony. – Transmission of witness testimony by closed circuit television which enables the defendant to observe and view the testimony and provides, by any appropriate electronic means, the defendant's right to assistance of counsel, including the right to immediate and direct communication with counsel during cross-examination.

(2) Developmentally disabled. – A person with a severe, chronic disability which:

a. Is attributable to a mental or physical impairment or combination of mental and physical impairments, including cerebral palsy, epilepsy, autism, or other neurological conditions;

b. Is manifested before the person attains age 22, unless the disability is caused by a traumatic head injury and is manifested after age 22;

c. Is likely to continue indefinitely;

d. Results in substantial functional limitations in three or more of the following areas of major life activity: self-care, receptive and expressive language, capacity for independent living, learning, mobility, self-direction and economic self-sufficiency; and

e. Reflects the person's need for a combination and sequence of special interdisciplinary or generic care, treatment, or other services which are of a lifelong or extended duration and are individually planned and coordinated; or

f. When applied to children from birth through four years of age, may be evidenced as a developmental delay.

(3) Mentally retarded. – A person with significantly subaverage general intellectual functioning existing concurrently with deficits in adaptive behavior and manifested before age 22."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective December 1, 2009, and applies to any testimony given on or after that date.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO MAKE IT UNLAWFUL TO USE ADDITIONAL TECHNOLOGY ASSOCIATED WITH A MOBILE PHONE WHILE OPERATING A VEHICLE ON A PUBLIC STREET OR HIGHWAY OR PUBLIC VEHICULAR AREA.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 20-137.3(a)(1) reads as rewritten:

"(1) Additional technology. – Any technology that provides access to digital media ~~such as~~including, but not limited to, a camera, electronic mail, music, the Internet, text messaging, or games."

SECTION 2. Chapter 20 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 20-137.4A. Unlawful use of additional technology.

(a) Offense. – It shall be unlawful for any person to use additional technology, as defined in G.S. 20-137.3(a)(1), associated with any mobile phone, while operating a vehicle on a public street or highway or public vehicular area.

(b) Exceptions. – The provisions of this section shall not apply to any of the following while in the performance of their official duties: a law enforcement officer; a member of a fire department; or the operator of a public or private ambulance.

(c) Penalty. – A violation of this section shall be an infraction and shall be punishable by a fine of one hundred dollars ($100.00) and the cost of court. No drivers license points or insurance surcharge shall be assessed as a result of a violation of this section. A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO MAKE IT UNLAWFUL TO USE ADDITIONAL TECHNOLOGY ASSOCIATED WITH A MOBILE PHONE WHILE OPERATING A VEHICLE ON A PUBLIC STREET OR HIGHWAY OR PUBLIC VEHICULAR AREA.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 20-137.3(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) Definitions. – The following definitions apply in this section:

~~(1) Additional technology. – Any technology that provides access to digital media such as a camera, electronic mail, music, the Internet, or games.~~

(2) Mobile telephone. – A device used by subscribers and other users of wireless telephone service to access the service. The term includes: (i) a device with which a user engages in a call using at least one hand, and (ii) a device that has an internal feature or function, or that is equipped with an attachment or addition, whether or not permanently part of the mobile telephone, by which a user engages in a call without the use of either hand, whether or not the use of either hand is necessary to activate, deactivate, or initiate a function of such telephone.

(3) Wireless telephone service. – A service that is a two-way real-time voice telecommunications service that is interconnected to a public switched telephone network and is provided by a commercial mobile radio service, as such term is defined by 47 C.F.R. § 20.3."

SECTION 2. G.S. 20-137.3(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Offense. – Except as otherwise provided in this section, no person under the age of 18 years shall operate a motor vehicle on a public street or highway or public vehicular area while using a mobile telephone ~~or any additional technology associated with a mobile telephone~~ while the vehicle is in motion. This prohibition shall not apply to the use of a mobile telephone ~~or additional technology~~ in a stationary vehicle."

SECTION 3. G.S. 20-137.4 reads as rewritten:

"§ 20-137.4. Unlawful use of a mobile phone.

(a) Definitions. – ~~For purposes of this section, the following terms shall mean:~~ The following definitions apply in this section:

~~(1) Additional technology. – As defined in G.S. 20-137.3(a)(1).~~

(2) Emergency situation. – Circumstances such as medical concerns, unsafe road conditions, matters of public safety, or mechanical problems that create a risk of harm for the operator or passengers of a school bus.

(3) Mobile telephone. – As defined in G.S. 20-137.3(a)(2).

(4) School bus. – As defined in G.S. 20-4.01(27)d4. The term also includes any school activity bus as defined in G.S. 20-4.01(27)d3. and any vehicle transporting public, private, or parochial school students for compensation.

(b) Offense. – Except as otherwise provided in this section, no person shall operate a school bus on a public street or highway or public vehicular area while using a mobile telephone ~~or any additional technology associated with a mobile telephone~~ while the school bus is in motion. This prohibition shall not apply to the use of a mobile telephone ~~or additional technology associated with a mobile telephone~~ in a stationary school bus.

(c) Seizure. – The provisions of this section shall not be construed as authorizing the seizure or forfeiture of a mobile telephone ~~or additional technology,~~ telephone, unless otherwise provided by law.

(d) Exceptions. – The provisions of subsection (b) of this section shall not apply to the use of a mobile telephone ~~or additional technology associated with a mobile telephone~~ for the sole purpose of communicating in an emergency situation.

(e) Local Ordinances. – No local government may pass any ordinance regulating the use of mobile telephones ~~or additional technology associated with a mobile telephone~~ by operators of school buses.

(f) Penalty. – A violation of this section shall be a Class 2 misdemeanor and shall be punishable by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00). No drivers license points or insurance surcharge shall be assessed as a result of a violation of this section. Failure to comply with the provisions of this section shall not constitute negligence per se or contributory negligence by the operator in any action for the recovery of damages arising out of the operation, ownership, or maintenance of a school bus."

SECTION 4. Chapter 20 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 20-137.4A. Unlawful use of additional technology.

(d) Penalty. –A violation of this section while operating a school bus, as defined in G.S. 20-137.4(a)(4), shall be a Class 2 misdemeanor and shall be punishable by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00). Any other violation of this section shall be an infraction and shall be punishable by a fine of one hundred dollars ($100.00) and the cost of court.

No drivers license points or insurance surcharge shall be assessed as a result of a violation of this section. Failure to comply with the provisions of this section shall not constitute negligence per se or contributory negligence by the operator in any action for the recovery of damages arising out of the operation, ownership, or maintenance of a vehicle."

SECTION 5. This act becomes effective December 1, 2009, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 22
SENATE BILL 96:
Ban Texting While Driving

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	March 19, 2009
Introduced by:	Sen. Forrester/Sen. Bingham	Prepared by:	Brenda J. Carter
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition S22-CSRV-7		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 22/Senate Bill 96 would prohibit all drivers fro m using the additional technologies available on a mobile phone, including text messaging, while operating a motor vehicle; an exception would apply for law enforcement officers, firefighters, and ambulance drivers.

The Proposed Committee Substitute makes technical and clarifying changes made necessary by the fact that existing laws regarding the use of cell phones already make it unlawful for drivers under 18 and school bus drivers to use additional technology while driving. By deleting the use of additional technology from those existing cell phone laws, it is clear that the new statute prohibiting the use of additional technology would now apply to all drivers; the existing criminal penalty for school bus drivers would be retained under the new law.

[As introduced, these bills were identical to each other and to H9, as introduced by Reps. Pierce, Harrison, Hall, which is currently in House Ways & Means / Broadband Connectivity, if favorable, House Judiciary III.]

CURRENT LAW: North Carolina law currently prohibits the use of a mobile telephone or any additional technology associated with a mobile telephone by a person under the age of 18 while operating a motor vehicle (G.S. 20-137.3), or by a person operating a school bus (G.S. 20-137.4), with certain limited exceptions. See chart on reverse side for additional details.

"Mobile telephone" is a device used by subscribers and other users of wireless telephone service to access the service, and includes hand held and hands-free devices. "Additional technology" includes such things as cameras, electronic mail, music, the Internet, or games.

BILL ANALYSIS: The Proposed Committee Substitute for Senate Bill 22 / Senate Bill 96 would prohibit the use of additional technologies available on a cell phone, including text messaging, while operating a motor vehicle. The prohibition would apply to all drivers except for law enforcement officers, firefighters, and ambulance drivers.

Sections 1 and 2 of the bill remove the definition of "additional technology" currently used in the statute prohibiting the use of mobile telephones by individuals under 18 while operating a motor vehicle and also remove all references to additional technology in that statute. These changes will leave the offense of using a mobile telephone by someone under 18 while operating a motor vehicle and will not change the penalty for that offense.

Section 3 of the bill removes all references to "additional technology" currently in the statute prohibiting the use of mobile telephones by persons operating a school bus. These changes will leave the offense of using a mobile telephone by a person operating a school bus and will not change the penalty for that offense.

Section 4 of the bill defines "additional technology" as any technology that provides access to digital media including, but not limited to, a camera, electronic mail, music, the Internet, text messaging, or games. A new offense is created prohibiting any person from operating a vehicle on a public street or highway or public vehicular area while using additional technology associated with any mobile phone, while the vehicle is in motion.

Exceptions:

- Law Enforcement Officer while in the performance of official duties.
- Fire Department Members while in performance of official duties.
- Operators of public or private ambulances while in performance of official duties.

Penalties for School Bus Drivers: (These are the same as current law)

- Class 2 misdemeanor
- $100.00 fine.
- No drivers license points or insurance surcharge.

Penalties Generally:

- Infraction.
- $100.00 fine.
- No drivers license points or insurance surcharge.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This bill would become effective December 1, 2009, and apply to offenses committed on or after that date.

BACKGROUND:

	Prohibition	Exceptions	Penalty
G.S. 20-137.3 [CURRENT LAW]	Persons under the age of 18 may not use mobile phone or associated technology while operating a motor vehicle while the vehicle is in motion.	• In emergency situation to call emergency response operator; hospital, physician, or health clinic; ambulance; law enforcement • To call parent, legal guardian, or spouse	• Infraction • $25 fine • No drivers license points, insurance surcharge, or court costs

(b) Offense. – Except as otherwise provided in this section, no person shall operate a school bus on a public street or highway or public vehicular area while using a mobile telephone ~~or any additional technology associated with a mobile telephone~~ while the school bus is in motion. This prohibition shall not apply to the use of a mobile telephone ~~or additional technology associated with a mobile telephone~~ in a stationary school bus.

(c) Seizure. – The provisions of this section shall not be construed as authorizing the seizure or forfeiture of a mobile telephone ~~or additional technology,~~ telephone, unless otherwise provided by law.

(d) Exceptions. – The provisions of subsection (b) of this section shall not apply to the use of a mobile telephone ~~or additional technology associated with a mobile telephone~~ for the sole purpose of communicating in an emergency situation.

(e) Local Ordinances. – No local government may pass any ordinance regulating the use of mobile telephones ~~or additional technology associated with a mobile telephone~~ by operators of school buses.

(f) Penalty. – A violation of this section shall be a Class 2 misdemeanor and shall be punishable by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00). No drivers license points or insurance surcharge shall be assessed as a result of a violation of this section. Failure to comply with the provisions of this section shall not constitute negligence per se or contributory negligence by the operator in any action for the recovery of damages arising out of the operation, ownership, or maintenance of a school bus."

SECTION 4. Chapter 20 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 20-137.4A. Unlawful use of additional technology.

(a) Additional technology. – Any technology that provides access to digital media including, but not limited to a camera, electronic mail, music, the Internet, text messaging, or games.

(b) Offense. – It shall be unlawful for any person to operate a vehicle on a public street or highway or public vehicular area while using additional technology associated with any mobile telephone, while the vehicle is in motion. This prohibition shall not apply to the use of additional technology in a stationary vehicle.

(c) Exceptions. – The provisions of this section shall not apply to any of the following while in the performance of their official duties: a law enforcement officer; a member of a fire department; or the operator of a public or private ambulance.

(d) Penalty. –A violation of this section while operating a school bus, as defined in G.S. 20-137.4(a)(4), shall be a Class 2 misdemeanor and shall be punishable by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00). Any other violation of this section shall be an infraction and shall be punishable by a fine of one hundred dollars ($100.00) and the cost of court.

No drivers license points or insurance surcharge shall be assessed as a result of a violation of this section. Failure to comply with the provisions of this section shall not constitute negligence per se or contributory negligence by the operator in any action for the recovery of damages arising out of the operation, ownership, or maintenance of a vehicle."

SECTION 5. This act becomes effective December 1, 2009, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 22
SENATE BILL 96:
Ban Texting While Driving

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	March 19, 2009
Introduced by:	Sen. Forrester/Sen. Bingham	Prepared by:	Brenda J. Carter
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition S22-CSRV-7		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 22/Senate Bill 96 would prohibit all drivers fro m using the additional technologies available on a mobile phone, including text messaging, while operating a motor vehicle; an exception would apply for law enforcement officers, firefighters, and ambulance drivers.

The Proposed Committee Substitute makes technical and clarifying changes made necessary by the fact that existing laws regarding the use of cell phones already make it unlawful for drivers under 18 and school bus drivers to use additional technology while driving. By deleting the use of additional technology from those existing cell phone laws, it is clear that the new statute prohibiting the use of additional technology would now apply to all drivers; the existing criminal penalty for school bus drivers would be retained under the new law.

[As introduced, these bills were identical to each other and to H9, as introduced by Reps. Pierce, Harrison, Hall, which is currently in House Ways & Means / Broadband Connectivity, if favorable, House Judiciary III.]

CURRENT LAW: North Carolina law currently prohibits the use of a mobile telephone or any additional technology associated with a mobile telephone by a person under the age of 18 while operating a motor vehicle (G.S. 20-137.3), or by a person operating a school bus (G.S. 20-137.4), with certain limited exceptions. See chart on reverse side for additional details.

"Mobile telephone" is a device used by subscribers and other users of wireless telephone service to access the service, and includes hand held and hands-free devices. "Additional technology" includes such things as cameras, electronic mail, music, the Internet, or games.

BILL ANALYSIS: The Proposed Committee Substitute for Senate Bill 22 / Senate Bill 96 would prohibit the use of additional technologies available on a cell phone, including text messaging, while operating a motor vehicle. The prohibition would apply to all drivers except for law enforcement officers, firefighters, and ambulance drivers.

Sections 1 and 2 of the bill remove the definition of "additional technology" currently used in the statute prohibiting the use of mobile telephones by individuals under 18 while operating a motor vehicle and also remove all references to additional technology in that statute. These changes will leave the offense of using a mobile telephone by someone under 18 while operating a motor vehicle and will not change the penalty for that offense.

Section 3 of the bill removes all references to "additional technology" currently in the statute prohibiting the use of mobile telephones by persons operating a school bus. These changes will leave the offense of using a mobile telephone by a person operating a school bus and will not change the penalty for that offense.

Section 4 of the bill defines "additional technology" as any technology that provides access to digital media including, but not limited to, a camera, electronic mail, music, the Internet, text messaging, or games. A new offense is created prohibiting any person from operating a vehicle on a public street or highway or public vehicular area while using additional technology associated with any mobile phone, while the vehicle is in motion.

Exceptions:

- Law Enforcement Officer while in the performance of official duties.
- Fire Department Members while in performance of official duties.
- Operators of public or private ambulances while in performance of official duties.

Penalties for School Bus Drivers: (These are the same as current law)

- Class 2 misdemeanor
- $100.00 fine.
- No drivers license points or insurance surcharge.

Penalties Generally:

- Infraction.
- $100.00 fine.
- No drivers license points or insurance surcharge.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This bill would become effective December 1, 2009, and apply to offenses committed on or after that date.

BACKGROUND:

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO REQUIRE THE DIVISION OF MOTOR VEHICLES TO COLLECT DATA REGARDING MOBILE PHONE USE RELATED TO CRASHES ON FORMS SUPPLIED BY THE DIVISION.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 20-166.1(h) reads as rewritten:

"(h) Forms. – The Division shall provide forms or procedures for submitting crash data to persons required to make reports under this section and the reports shall be made in a format approved by the Commissioner. The following information shall be included about a reportable crash:

(1) The cause of the crash.
(2) The conditions existing at the time of the crash.
(3) The persons and vehicles involved.
(4) Whether the vehicle has been seized and is subject to forfeiture under G.S. 20-28.2.
(5) The use of mobile phones or any additional technology, as those terms are defined in G.S. 20-137.3."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective October 1, 2009, and applies to crashes investigated on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 380:
Collection of Mobile Phone Data/DMV Reports

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	March 18, 2009
Introduced by:	Sen. Dannelly	Prepared by:	Brenda J. Carter
Analysis of:	First Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 380 would require DMV to provide for the collection of data regarding mobile phone use by persons involved in a reportable crash.

CURRENT LAW: G.S. 20-166.1(h) requires DMV to provide forms or procedures for use by investigating officers in submitting crash data about reportable crashes. A reportable crash, as defined in G.S. 20-4.01(33b), is a crash involving a motor vehicle that results in one or more of the following:

- Death or injury of a human being.
- Total property damage of one thousand dollars ($1,000) or more, or property damage of any amount to a vehicle seized for an offense involving impaired driving while license revoked or without license and insurance.

BILL ANALYSIS: Senate Bill 380 amends the law regarding reports and investigations required in the event of an accident to require that DMV, in providing forms or procedures for use by investigating officers in submitting crash data include, along with other information concerning the crash, the use of mobile phone or any additional technology associated with a mobile phone, such as cameras, electronic mail, the Internet, or games.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The bill would become effective October 1, 2009 and apply to crashes investigated on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 22
SENATE BILL 96:
Ban Texting While Driving

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	March 23, 2009
Introduced by:	Sen. Forrester/Sen. Bingham	Prepared by:	Brenda J. Carter Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition S22-CSRV-8

SUMMARY: This PCS for Senate Bill 22 would prohibit all drivers from using a mobile phone to read or send electronic mail or text messages, while operating a motor vehicle; an exception would apply for law enforcement officers, firefighters, and ambulance drivers in performance of their official duties. The bill would not apply to voice- operated technology, to GPS devices, or to devices that are part of a digital dispatch system such as OnStar.

[As introduced, this bill was identical to S96, as introduced by Sen. Bingham; the bills were also identical to H9, as introduced by Rep. Pierce.]

CURRENT LAW: North Carolina law currently prohibits the use of a mobile telephone or any additional technology associated with a mobile telephone by a person under the age of 18 while operating a motor vehicle (G.S. 20-137.3), or by a person operating a school bus (G.S. 20-137.4), with certain limited exceptions. See chart on reverse side for additional details.

"Mobile telephone" is a device used by subscribers and other users of wireless telephone service to access the service, and includes hand held and hands-free devices. "Additional technology" includes such things as cameras, electronic mail, music, the Internet, or games.

BILL ANALYSIS: The Proposed Committee Substitute for Senate Bill 22 / Senate Bill 96 would make it unlawful for a person to use a mobile telephone to enter letters or text as a means of communicating with another person, while operating a motor vehicle. The bill would also make it unlawful for a driver to read an electronic mail or text message on a mobile telephone. The prohibition would apply to all drivers except for law enforcement officers, firefighters, and ambulance drivers in the performance of their official duties.

Section 1 of the bill amends the definition of "additional technology" as it applies to the statutes prohibiting the use of mobile telephones by drivers under 18 and by persons operating a school bus. This change makes it clear that electronic mail and text messaging are not included as "additional technology" the use of which is punishable under laws that apply specifically to drivers under 18 and to persons operating a school bus.

Section 2 of the bill creates a new offense making it unlawful for any driver to operate a vehicle on a public street or highway or public vehicular area while using a mobile phone to create or read electronic mail or text messages. The offense would not include accessing caller ID information or any name or number stored in the mobile phone.

Exceptions:

- Law Enforcement Officer/Fire Department Members/Operators of public or private ambulances, while in the performance of official duties.
- The operator of a lawfully parked or stopped vehicle.
- The use of GPS or digital dispatch systems such as OnStar.
- The use of voice operated technology.

Penalties for School Bus Drivers: (These are the same as under current law)

- Class 2 misdemeanor
- $100.00 fine.
- No drivers license points or insurance surcharge.

Penalties Generally:

- Infraction.
- $100.00 fine.
- No drivers license points or insurance surcharge.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This bill would become effective December 1, 2009, and apply to offenses committed on or after that date.

BACKGROUND:

SECTION 5. G.S. 50B-1(a)(2) reads as rewritten:

"(2) Placing the aggrieved party or a member of the aggrieved party's family or household in fear of imminent serious bodily injury or continued harassment, as defined in G.S. ~~14-277.3,~~ 14-277.3A, that rises to such a level as to inflict substantial emotional distress; or".

SECTION 6. G.S. 50C-1(6) reads as rewritten:

"(6) Stalking. – On more than one occasion, following or otherwise harassing, as defined in G.S. ~~14-277.3(c),~~ 14-277.3A(b)(2), another person without legal purpose with the intent to do any of the following:

a. Place the person in reasonable fear either for the person's safety or the safety of the person's immediate family or close personal associates.

b. Cause that person to suffer substantial emotional distress by placing that person in fear of death, bodily injury, or continued harassment and that in fact causes that person substantial emotional distress."

SECTION 7. G.S. 95-260(3)b. reads as rewritten:

"b. Willfully, and on more than one occasion, following, being in the presence of, or otherwise harassing, as defined in G.S. ~~14-277.3,~~ 14-277.3A, without legal purpose and with the intent to place the employee in reasonable fear for the employee's safety."

SECTION 8. This act is effective when it becomes law.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO REQUIRE THAT A PERSON CONVICTED OF DRIVING WHILE IMPAIRED BE IMPRISONED FOR A PERIOD OF TWENTY-FOUR HOURS IN A CONFINEMENT FACILITY.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 20-179(i) reads as rewritten:

"(i) Level Three Punishment. – A defendant subject to Level Three punishment may be fined up to one thousand dollars ($1,000) and shall be sentenced to a term of imprisonment that includes a minimum term of not less than 72 hours and a maximum term of not more than six months. The term of imprisonment may be suspended. However, the suspended sentence shall include the condition that the defendant:

(1) Be imprisoned for a term of at least 72 hours as a condition of special probation; or

(2) Perform community service for a term of at least 72 hours; or

(3) Repealed by Session Laws 2006-253, s. 23, effective December 1, 2006, and applicable to offenses committed on or after that date.

(4) Any combination of these conditions.

If the defendant is placed on probation, the judge shall impose a requirement that the defendant obtain a substance abuse assessment and the education or treatment required by G.S. 20-17.6 for the restoration of a drivers license and as a condition of probation. The judge may impose any other lawful condition of probation.

If the judge, or a jury in superior court, determines that the defendant has an alcohol concentration of 0.20 or more within a relevant time after the driving, any suspended sentence imposed shall include a condition of special probation to require the defendant to serve a term of imprisonment of at least 24 hours. For purposes of this subsection, the results of a chemical analysis presented at trial or sentencing shall be sufficient to prove the person's alcohol concentration, shall be conclusive, and shall not be subject to modification by any party, with or without approval of the court."

SECTION 2. G.S. 20-179(j) reads as rewritten:

(j) Level Four Punishment. – A defendant subject to Level Four punishment may be fined up to five hundred dollars ($500.00) and shall be sentenced to a term of imprisonment that includes a minimum term of not less than 48 hours and a maximum term of not more than 120 days. The term of imprisonment may be suspended. However, the suspended sentence shall include the condition that the defendant:

(1) Be imprisoned for a term of 48 hours as a condition of special probation; or
(2) Perform community service for a term of 48 hours; or
(3) Repealed by Session Laws 2006-253, s. 23, effective December 1, 2006, and applicable to offenses committed on or after that date.
(4) Any combination of these conditions.

If the defendant is placed on probation, the judge shall impose a requirement that the defendant obtain a substance abuse assessment and the education or treatment required by G.S. 20-17.6 for the restoration of a drivers license and as a condition of probation. The judge may impose any other lawful condition of probation.

If the judge, or a jury in superior court, determines that the defendant has an alcohol concentration of 0.20 or more within a relevant time after the driving, any suspended sentence imposed shall include a condition of special probation to require the defendant to serve a term of imprisonment of at least 24 hours. For purposes of this subsection, the results of a chemical analysis presented at trial or sentencing shall be sufficient to prove the person's alcohol concentration, shall be conclusive, and shall not be subject to modification by any party, with or without approval of the court."

SECTION 3. G.S. 20-179(k) reads as rewritten:

(k) Level Five Punishment. – A defendant subject to Level Five punishment may be fined up to two hundred dollars ($200.00) and shall be sentenced to a term of imprisonment that includes a minimum term of not less than 24 hours and a maximum term of not more than 60 days. The term of imprisonment may be suspended. However, the suspended sentence shall include the condition that the defendant:

(1) Be imprisoned for a term of 24 hours as a condition of special probation; or
(2) Perform community service for a term of 24 hours; or
(3) Repealed by Session Laws 2006-253, s. 23, effective December 1, 2006, and applicable to offenses committed on or after that date.
(4) Any combination of these conditions.

If the defendant is placed on probation, the judge shall impose a requirement that the defendant obtain a substance abuse assessment and the education or treatment required by G.S. 20-17.6 for the restoration of a drivers license and as a condition of probation. The judge may impose any other lawful condition of probation.

If the judge, or a jury in superior court, determines that the defendant has an alcohol concentration of 0.20 or more within a relevant time after the driving, any suspended sentence imposed shall include a condition of special probation to require the defendant to serve a term of imprisonment of 24 hours. For purposes of this subsection, the results of a chemical analysis presented at trial or sentencing shall be sufficient to prove the person's alcohol concentration, shall be conclusive, and shall not be subject to modification by any party, with or without approval of the court."

SECTION 4. This act becomes effective December 1, 2009, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 131:
Penalty for DWI Conviction/BAC .20 or Higher

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	March 25, 2009
Introduced by:	Sen. Vaughan	Prepared by:	Kory Goldsmith
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition S131-CSRC-1		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 131 would require 24 hours minimum active jail time in cases where the defendant has a blood alcohol content of .20 or more within a relevant time after driving. The act becomes effective December 1, 2009, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date. The Proposed Committee Substitute makes clarifying changes to the original bill.

CURRENT LAW: G.S. 20-79 governs sentencing hearings following a conviction for impaired driving, including the determination of punishments. Driving while impaired is a misdemeanor offense that has five levels of punishment, depending on the presence and weight assigned to certain specified aggravating and mitigating factors. The levels and correlating punishment are:

Level One: Minimum imprisonment of 30 days, maximum of 2 years; maximum fine of $4,000.

Level Two: Minimum imprisonment of 7 seven days, maximum of 1 year; maximum fine of $2,000.

Level Three: Minimum imprisonment of 72 hours, maximum of 6 months; maximum fine of $1,000. The term of imprisonment may be suspended, but the suspended sentence must include the condition that the defendant:

1. Be imprisoned for a term of at least 72 hours as a condition of special probation;
2. Perform community service for a term of at least 72 hours; or
3. Any combination of the above.

Level Four: Minimum imprisonment of 48 hours, maximum of 120 days; maximum fine of $500. The term of imprisonment may be suspended, but the suspended sentence must include the condition that the defendant:

1. Be imprisoned for a term of at least 48 hours as a condition of special probation;
2. Perform community service for a term of at least 48 hours; or
3. Any combination of the above.

Level Five: Minimum imprisonment of 24 hours, maximum of 60; maximum fine of $200. The term of imprisonment may be suspended, but the suspended sentence must include the condition that the defendant:

1. Be imprisoned for a term of at least 24 hours as a condition of special probation;
2. Perform community service for a term of at least 24 hours; or
3. Any combination of the above.

For Levels One and Two, a defendant must serve a term of imprisonment equal to that level's minimum term of imprisonment. For Levels Three, Four and Five, special probation does not have to include a term of imprisonment. Probation orders under any level may include a substance abuse assessment and education or treatment for license restoration.

BILL ANALYSIS: Senate Bill 131 would require a defendant to serve at least 24 hours of active jail time under punishment Levels Three, Four and Five if the judge, or a jury in superior court, determines the defendant had an alcohol concentration of 0.20 or more within a relevant time after driving.

SENATE BILL 144

Short Title: Limit Liability/Domestic Violence Shelters. (Public)

Sponsors: Senators Snow; Berger of Franklin and Dorsett.

Referred to: Judiciary II.

February 12, 2009

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO LIMIT THE CIVIL LIABILITY OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE SHELTERS AND PERSONS ASSOCIATED WITH THOSE SHELTERS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Chapter 1 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new Article to read:

"Article 51.

"Limited Civil Liability of Domestic Violence Shelters and Persons Associated With the Shelters.

"§ 1-610. Definitions.

As used in this Article, the following terms mean:

(1) Client. – A person who is the victim of domestic violence, as defined in Chapter 50B of the General Statutes, or of nonconsensual sexual conduct or stalking, as defined in Chapter 50C of the General Statutes, and is using services or facilities of a shelter.

(2) Conduct. – One or more actions or omissions.

(3) Domestic violence. – As defined in G.S. 50B-1(a).

(4) Harm. – Injury, death, or loss to person or property.

(5) Perpetrator. – A person who has committed domestic violence and who bears one of the personal relationships specified in G.S. 50B-1(b) to the victim of domestic violence, or a person who has committed nonconsensual sexual conduct or stalking as defined in Chapter 50C of the General Statutes.

(6) Person associated with the shelter. – A person who is a director, owner, trustee, officer, employee, victim advocate, or volunteer connected with the shelter.

(7) Shelter. – A facility that meets the criteria set forth in G.S. 50B-9 and is funded through the Domestic Violence Center Fund providing shelter to victims of domestic violence, nonconsensual sexual conduct, or stalking.

(8) Victim advocate. – A person from a crime victim service organization who provides support and assistance for a victim of a crime during court proceedings and recovery efforts related to the crime.

(9) Volunteer. – An individual who provides any service at a shelter without expectation of receiving and without receiving any compensation or other form of remuneration, directly or indirectly, for the provision of the service.

"§ 1-611. Immunity of a domestic violence shelter and any person associated with the shelter concerning torts committed on the shelter's premises.

(a) Except as provided in subsection (b) of this section, no shelter and no person associated with the shelter is liable in damages in a tort action for any harm that a client or other person who is on the premises of the shelter sustains as a result of tortious conduct of a perpetrator that is committed on the premises of the shelter if the perpetrator is not a person associated with the shelter and if any of the following situations apply:

(1) The perpetrator illegally entered and illegally remained on the premises of the shelter at the time the perpetrator's tortious conduct caused the harm sustained by a client or other person who was also on the premises.

(2) The perpetrator legally entered the premises of the shelter and a person associated with the shelter instructed the perpetrator to leave the premises before the perpetrator caused the harm sustained by a client or other person who was also on the premises and, despite those reasonable steps, the perpetrator remained on the premises and committed the tortious conduct that caused the harm sustained by a client or other person who was on the premises.

(3) The perpetrator legally entered the premises of the shelter and a person associated with the shelter granted the perpetrator permission to remain on the premises after the person associated with the shelter in exercising the reasonable judgment and discretion of a prudent person under similar circumstances, determined that granting the person permission to remain on the premises did not appear to pose a threat of harm to a client or other person who was on the premises.

(b) The immunity established by this section does not extend to gross negligence, wanton conduct, or intentional wrongdoing that would otherwise be actionable."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective December 1, 2009, and applies to offenses committed and causes of action arising on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 144:
Limit Liability/Domestic Violence Shelters

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	March 26, 2009
Introduced by:	Senator Snow	Prepared by:	Jeff Hudson Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	Proposed Committee Substitute to First Edition S144-CSSB-4[v.1]

SUMMARY: The Proposed Committee Substitute (PCS) for Senate Bill 144 would, under certain circumstances, provide immunity to domestic violence shelters and persons associated with domestic violence shelters from tort actions related to harm caused to a client of the shelter while on the premises of the shelter.

CURRENT LAW:

Determination of Liability

In a 2008 opinion, the North Carolina Court of Appeals set out the analysis for determining the liability of a domestic violence shelter in a case where a client of the shelter was murdered on the premises of the shelter by her abusive husband. Under this analysis, a court must determine if the shelter exercised reasonable care to protect the client from the foreseeable harmful actions of third parties.

Immunity

Similar immunity provisions exist in the General Statutes for volunteers performing services for charitable organizations or providing emergency services; engineers and architects who voluntarily provide their services during a disaster or emergency; and for various entities who conduct criminal history checks.

BILL ANALYSIS: The PCS for Senate Bill 144 would provide that no shelter or person associated with the shelter is liable in tort for any harm caused to a client of the shelter or any other person who is on the premises that results from the tortious conduct of a perpetrator that is committed on the premises of the shelter if the perpetrator is not a person associated with the shelter. The protection provided by this immunity does not extend to gross negligence, wanton conduct, or intentional wrongdoing on the part of the shelter or person associated with the shelter.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The PCS for Senate Bill 144 would become effective December 1, 2009, and apply to offenses committed and causes of action arising on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 285*

Short Title:	Rewrite Foreign Money Judgments Laws.	(Public)
Sponsors:	Senator Hartsell.
Referred to:	Judiciary II.

February 25, 2009

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO REWRITE THE LAW CONCERNING THE RECOGNITION OF FOREIGN MONEY JUDGMENTS, AS RECOMMENDED BY THE GENERAL STATUTES COMMISSION.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Article 18 of Chapter 1C of the General Statutes is repealed.

SECTION 2. Chapter 1C of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new Article to read:

"Article 20.

"North Carolina Uniform Foreign-Country Money Judgments Recognition Act.

"§ 1C-1850. Short title.

This Article may be cited as the North Carolina Uniform Foreign-Country Money Judgments Recognition Act.

"§ 1C-1851. Definitions.

The following definitions apply in this Article:

(1) Foreign country. – A government other than:

a. The United States;

b. A state, district, commonwealth, territory, or insular possession of the United States; or

c. Any other government with regard to which the decision in this State as to whether to recognize a judgment of that government's courts is initially subject to determination under the Full Faith and Credit Clause of the United States Constitution.

(2) Foreign-country judgment. – A judgment of a court of a foreign country.

"§ 1C-1852. Applicability; saving clause.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (b) of this section, this Article applies to a foreign-country judgment to the extent that the judgment:

(1) Grants or denies recovery of a sum of money; and

(2) Under the law of the foreign country where rendered, is final, conclusive, and enforceable.

(b) This Article does not apply to a foreign-country judgment, even if the judgment grants or denies recovery of a sum of money, to the extent that the judgment is:

(1) A judgment for taxes;

(2) A fine or other penalty; or

(3) A judgment for alimony, support, or maintenance in matrimonial or family matters.

(c) A party seeking recognition of a foreign-country judgment has the burden of establishing that this Article applies to the foreign-country judgment.

(d) This Article does not prevent the recognition under principles of comity or otherwise of a foreign-country judgment to which this Article does not apply.

"§ 1C-1853. Standards for recognition and nonrecognition of foreign-country judgment.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, a court of this State shall recognize a foreign-country judgment to which this Article applies.

(b) A court of this State shall not recognize a foreign-country judgment if:

(1) The judgment was rendered under a judicial system that, taken as a whole, does not provide impartial tribunals or procedures compatible with the requirements of due process of law;

(2) The foreign court did not have personal jurisdiction over the defendant; or

(3) The foreign court did not have jurisdiction over the subject matter.

(c) If a court of this State finds that any of the following exist with respect to a foreign-country judgment for which recognition is sought, recognition of the judgment shall be denied unless the court determines, as a matter of law, that recognition would nevertheless be reasonable under the circumstances:

(1) The defendant in the proceeding in the foreign court did not receive notice of the proceeding in sufficient time to enable the defendant to defend.

(2) The judgment was obtained by fraud that deprived the losing party of an adequate opportunity to present its case.

(3) The judgment, or the cause of action or claim for relief on which the judgment is based, is repugnant to the public policy of this State or of the United States.

(4) Reserved for future codification.

(5) The proceeding in the foreign court was contrary to an agreement between the parties under which the dispute in question was to be determined otherwise than by proceedings in that foreign court.

(6) In the case of jurisdiction based only on personal service, the foreign court was a seriously inconvenient forum for the trial of the action.

(7) The judgment was rendered in circumstances that raise substantial doubt about the integrity of the rendering court with respect to the judgment.

(8) The specific proceeding in the foreign court leading to the judgment was fundamentally unfair.

(d) If a foreign-country judgment for which recognition is sought is otherwise entitled to recognition under this Article but conflicts with a prior final and conclusive judgment, a court of this State shall recognize the judgment for which recognition is sought unless the court determines that nonrecognition would nevertheless be reasonable under the circumstances.

(e) If a foreign-country judgment for which recognition is sought is otherwise entitled to recognition under this Article but conflicts with a subsequent final and conclusive judgment, a court of this State shall deny recognition of the judgment for which recognition is sought unless the court determines that recognition would nevertheless be reasonable under the circumstances.

(f) A party resisting recognition of a foreign-country judgment has the burden of establishing that a ground for nonrecognition stated in subsection (b) of this section exists.

(g) A party resisting recognition of a foreign-country judgment has the burden of establishing that a ground for nonrecognition stated in subsection (c) of this section exists. The party seeking recognition of the judgment has the burden of establishing that, as a matter of law, recognition would nevertheless be reasonable under the circumstances.

(h) A party resisting recognition of a foreign-country judgment under subsection (d) or (e) of this section has the burden of establishing that another final and conclusive judgment

exists and that the other judgment conflicts with the judgment for which recognition is sought. Under subsection (d) of this section, the party resisting recognition also has the burden of establishing that nonrecognition of the judgment for which recognition is sought would be reasonable under the circumstances. Under subsection (e) of this section, the party seeking recognition of the foreign-country judgment has the burden of establishing that recognition would be reasonable under the circumstances.

(i) When a court of this State rules on recognition of a foreign-country judgment, the court shall state the facts specially and state separately its conclusions of law.

"§ 1C-1854. Personal jurisdiction.

(a) A foreign-country judgment shall not be refused recognition for lack of personal jurisdiction if any of the following exist:

(1) The defendant was served with process personally in the foreign country.

(2) The defendant voluntarily appeared in the proceeding, other than for the purpose of protecting property seized or threatened with seizure in the proceeding or of contesting the jurisdiction of the court over the defendant.

(3) The defendant, before the commencement of the proceeding, had agreed to submit to the jurisdiction of the foreign court with respect to the subject matter involved.

(4) The defendant was domiciled in the foreign country when the proceeding was instituted or was a corporation or other form of business organization that had its principal place of business in, or was organized under the laws of, the foreign country.

(5) The defendant had a business office in the foreign country and the proceeding in the foreign court involved a cause of action or claim for relief arising out of business done by the defendant through that office in the foreign country.

(6) The defendant operated a motor vehicle or airplane in the foreign country and the proceeding involved a cause of action or claim for relief arising out of that operation.

(7) There was any other basis for personal jurisdiction that would be consistent with the Due Process Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

(b) The list of bases for personal jurisdiction in subsection (a) of this section is not exclusive. The courts of this State may recognize reasonable bases of personal jurisdiction other than those listed in subsection (a) of this section as sufficient to support a foreign-country judgment.

"§ 1C-1855. Procedure for recognition and nonrecognition of foreign-country judgment.

(a) If recognition of a foreign-country judgment is sought as an original matter, the issue of recognition shall be raised by filing an action seeking recognition of the foreign-country judgment.

(b) If recognition or nonrecognition of a foreign-country judgment is sought in some other action, the issue of recognition may be raised by complaint, counterclaim, cross-claim, or affirmative defense.

"§ 1C-1856. Effect of recognition of foreign-country judgment.

(a) If the court in a proceeding under G.S. 1C-1855 finds that the foreign-country judgment is entitled to recognition under this Article then, to the extent that the foreign-country judgment grants or denies recovery of a sum of money, the foreign-country judgment is:

(1) Conclusive between the parties to the same extent as the judgment of a sister state entitled to full faith and credit in this State would be conclusive; and

(2) Enforceable in the same manner and to the same extent as a judgment rendered in this State.

(b) Article 17 of this Chapter does not apply to the enforcement of foreign-country judgments recognized under this Article.

"§ 1C-1857. Stay of proceedings pending appeal of foreign-country judgment.

If a party establishes that an appeal from a foreign-country judgment is pending or will be taken, the court may stay any proceedings with regard to the foreign-country judgment until the appeal is concluded, the time for appeal expires without an appeal being taken, or the appellant has had sufficient time to prosecute the appeal and has failed to do so.

"§ 1C-1858. Statute of limitations.

An action to recognize a foreign-country judgment must be commenced within the earlier of the time during which the foreign-country judgment is effective in the foreign country or 10 years from the date that the foreign-country judgment became effective in the foreign country.

"§ 1C-1859. Uniformity of interpretation.

In applying and construing this Article, consideration may be given to promoting uniformity of interpretation with respect to its subject matter among states that enact it."

SECTION 3. The Revisor of Statutes shall cause to be printed along with this act all relevant portions of the official comments to the Uniform Foreign-Country Money Judgments Recognition Act and all explanatory comments of the drafters of this act as the Revisor deems appropriate.

SECTION 4. This act is effective October 1, 2009, and applies to all actions commenced on or after that date in which the issue of recognition of a foreign-country judgment is raised.

MEMORANDUM
March 9, 2009

TO: Senate Judiciary II Committee
FROM: General Statutes Commission
RE: Senate Bill 285 (Rewrite Foreign Money Judgments Laws)

General Comments

This bill is based on the Uniform Foreign-Country Money Judgments Recognition Act (new Uniform Act) as approved in 2005 by the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws. The new Uniform Act replaces the earlier Uniform Foreign Money Judgments Recognition Act (old Uniform Act), enacted in this State in 1993 as Article 18 of Chapter 1C of the General Statutes, G.S. 1C-1800 et seq. Like the old Uniform Act, the new Uniform Act provides a process for the recognition of money judgments rendered in other countries.

The new Uniform Act continues the basic policies and approach of the old Uniform Act but updates the old Uniform Act to clarify its provisions and correct problems created by judicial interpretations. The new Uniform Act:

- Updates and clarifies the definitions.
- Reorganizes and clarifies the scope provisions.
- Allocates the burden of proof.
- Establishes a procedure for seeking recognition or nonrecognition of a foreign-country money judgment.
- Clarifies and, to a limited extent, expands the grounds for denying recognition.
- Establishes a statute of limitations for recognizing foreign-country money judgments.

The bill also authorizes the printing of drafters comments and provides an effective date and applicability provision.

Specific Comments

Section 1 repeals Article 18 of Chapter 1C of the General Statutes, the "North Carolina Uniform Foreign Money Judgments Recognition Act" (Article 18).

Section 2 enacts Article 20 of Chapter 1C of the General Statutes, the "North Carolina Uniform Foreign-Country Money Judgments Recognition Act" (new Article 20).

Section 1C-1850 provides that new Article 20 may be cited as the "North Carolina Uniform Foreign-Country Money Judgments Recognition Act."

Section 1C-1851 defines new terms "foreign country" and "foreign-country judgment" to replace the current terms "foreign state" and "foreign judgment" in order to clarify that new Article 20 does not apply to recognition of sister-state judgments. The definition of "foreign country" is substantially similar to the definition of "foreign state." The definition of "foreign-country judgment" is based on the definition of "foreign judgment", except that the part of the definition setting out the scope of Article 18 has been moved to Section 1C-1852 of new Article 20.

Section 1C-1852 provides applicability provisions and a saving clause. Subsections (a) and (b), consistent with Article 18, provide that new Article 20 applies to a foreign-country judgment that grants or denies recovery of a sum of money and that is final, conclusive and enforceable under the law of the foreign country where it was rendered, unless the judgment (i) is for taxes, (ii) constitutes a fine or other penalty, or (iii) is for alimony, support, or maintenance in matrimonial or family matters. Subsection (c), which is new, places the burden of proof of showing that new Article 20 applies to a foreign-country judgment on the party seeking recognition. Subsection (d), like current G.S. 1C-1807, provides that new Article 20 does not prevent a court from applying common law principles of comity or other applicable law to recognize a foreign-country judgment to which the new Article 20 does not apply.

Section 1C-1853 provides standards for recognition and nonrecognition of foreign-country judgments. Subsections (f) through (i) are entirely new. Subsection (a) requires the court to recognize a foreign-country judgment to which new Article 20 applies, except as otherwise provided in the section. Subsection (b) states mandatory grounds for denying recognition that are essentially the same as under Article 18.

Subsection (c) states additional grounds for denying recognition. A court that finds that any of these grounds exist must deny recognition of a foreign-country money judgment unless the court determines as a matter of law that recognition would nevertheless be reasonable under the circumstances. Under Article 18, in contrast, denial of recognition on these grounds is discretionary. The additional grounds stated in subdivisions (c)(7) and (c)(8) are new. This section does not bring forward current G.S. 1C-1804(b)(7) (allowing a court to deny recognition of a foreign-money judgment if the court that rendered the judgment would not recognize a comparable judgment of this State).

Subsections (d) and (e) adopt a modified last-in-time rule for recognition of conflicting foreign-country money judgments. Assuming judgments that are otherwise entitled to recognition, subsection (d) requires the court to recognize the later judgment unless the court determines that nonrecognition would nevertheless be reasonable under the circumstances, and subsection (e) requires the court to deny recognition of an earlier judgment unless the court determines that recognition would nevertheless be reasonable under the circumstances.

Subsections (f) through (h) allocate the burden of proof. Subsection (f) places on the party resisting recognition of a judgment under subsection (b) the burden of establishing that one of the mandatory grounds for nonrecognition exists. Subsection (g) similarly places on the party resisting recognition under subsection (c) the burden of establishing that one of the additional grounds for nonrecognition exists. If such a ground is established, however, the party seeking recognition has the burden of establishing that, as a matter of law, recognition would nevertheless be reasonable under the circumstances. Subsection (h) places the burden on the party resisting recognition under either subsection (d) or (e) to establish that another final and conclusive judgment exists and that the other judgment conflicts with the judgment for which recognition is sought. A party resisting recognition under subsection (d) also has the burden of showing that nonrecognition of the later judgment would be reasonable under the circumstances; a party seeking recognition under subsection (e) has the burden of establishing that recognition of an earlier judgment would be reasonable under the circumstances.

Subsection (i) requires a court, when ruling on recognition of a foreign-country judgment, to state the facts specially and state separately its conclusions of law. When the court is the trier of fact, the facts will be stated in the findings of fact. When the court is ruling on a motion to dismiss, where the nonmovant's factual allegations are treated as true, or a motion for summary judgment, where there is no issue of material fact, the court will need to set out those facts that the court considered to be material.

Section 1C-1854 lists in subsection (a) bases for personal jurisdiction that are adequate as a matter of law to establish that the foreign court had personal jurisdiction over the defendant. These bases for personal jurisdiction are in substance the same as current law except that subdivision (a)(4) has been modified to include other forms of business organizations and subdivision (a)(7) is new. New subdivision (a)(7) provides that the foreign court has personal jurisdiction over the defendant if there was any other basis for personal jurisdiction that would be consistent with the Due Process Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution. Subsection (b) clarifies that the bases for personal jurisdiction listed in subsection (a) are not exclusive; a court of this State may find that the foreign court had personal jurisdiction over the defendant on some other basis.

Section 1C-1855 sets out the procedures by which the issue of recognition or nonrecognition of a foreign-country judgment may be raised. If recognition is sought as an original matter, the issue of recognition must be raised by filing an action seeking recognition. If recognition or nonrecognition is sought in some other action the issue of recognition may be raised by complaint, counterclaim, cross-claim, or affirmative defense.

Section 1C-1856 sets out the effect of recognition of a foreign-country judgment. A judgment recognized under new Article 20 is conclusive between the parties to the same extent as the judgment of a sister state entitled to full faith and credit in this State would be conclusive, but in contrast to Article 18, it is enforceable in the same manner and to the same extent as a judgment rendered in this State. Under Article 18, a judgment once recognized must be enforced under Article 17 of Chapter 1C of the General Statutes, which is cumbersome and partly duplicates the provisions of Article 18.

Section 1C-1857 is substantively the same as current law in providing that the court may stay any proceedings with regard to a foreign-country judgment pending appeal of the foreign-country judgment.

Section 1C-1858 is new. It expressly provides that an action to recognize a foreign-country judgment must be commenced within the earlier of the time during which the judgment is effective in the foreign country or 10 years from the date that the judgment became effective in the foreign country.

Section 1C-1859 provides for uniformity of application and construction of new Article 20.

Sections 3 and 4, respectively, authorize the printing of drafters comments and provide that the bill is effective when it becomes law.

SENATE BILL 307

Short Title:	Regulate Ownership & Use of Certain Reptiles.	(Public)
Sponsors:	Senator Jones.
Referred to:	Judiciary II.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO AMEND THE LAW REGULATING THE USE OF CERTAIN REPTILES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Article 55 of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes reads as rewritten:

"Article 55.

"~~Handling~~ Regulation of ~~Poisonous~~ Certain Reptiles.

"§ 14-416. Handling of poisonous reptiles declared public nuisance and criminal offense.

The intentional or negligent exposure of other human beings to contact with ~~reptiles of a venomous nature~~ venomous reptiles, with large constricting snakes, or with crocodilians being essentially dangerous and injurious and detrimental to public health, safety and welfare, the indulgence in and inducement to such exposure is hereby declared to be a public nuisance and a criminal offense, to be abated and punished as provided in this Article.

"§ 14-417. Regulation of ownership or use of ~~poisonous~~ venomous reptiles.

It shall be unlawful for any person to own, possess, use, transport, or traffic in any venomous reptile ~~of a poisonous nature whose venom is not removed, unless such reptile is at all times kept securely in a box, cage, or other safe container in which there are no openings of sufficient size to permit the escape of such reptile, or through which such reptile can bite or inject its venom into any human being.~~ that is not housed in a sturdy and secure enclosure. Permanent enclosures shall be designed to be escape-proof, bite-proof, and have an operable lock. Each enclosure shall be clearly and visibly labeled 'Venomous Reptile Inside' with scientific name, common name, appropriate anti-venom, and owner's identifying information noted on the container. Transport containers shall be designed to be escape-proof and bite-proof. A written bite protocol that includes emergency contact information, local animal control office, the name and location of suitable anti-venom, first aid procedures and treatment guidelines, as well as an escape recovery plan must be within sight of permanent housing, and a copy must accompany the transport of any venomous reptile. In the event of an escape of a venomous reptile, the owner or possessor of the venomous reptile shall immediately notify local law enforcement.

"§ 14-417.1. Regulation of ownership or use of large constricting snakes.

As used in this Article, large constricting snakes shall mean: Reticulated Python, Python reticulates; Burmese Python, Python molurus; African Rock Python, Python sebae; Amethystine Python, Morelia amethistina; and Green Anaconda, Eunectes murinus; or any of their subspecies or hybrids. It shall be unlawful for any person to own, possess, use, transport, or traffic in any of the large constricting snakes that are not housed in a sturdy and secure enclosure. Permanent enclosures shall be designed to be escape-proof and shall have an operable lock. Each enclosure shall be labeled clearly and visibly with the scientific name, common name, number of specimens, and owner's identifying information. Transport containers shall be designed to be escape proof. A written safety protocol and escape recovery plan shall be within sight of permanent housing and a copy shall accompany the transport of any of the large constricting snakes. The safety protocol shall include emergency contact information, identification of the local animal control office, and first aid procedures. In the event of an escape of a large constricting snake, the owner or possessor shall immediately notify local law enforcement.

"§ 14-417.2. Regulation of ownership or use of crocodilians.

All crocodilians, excluding the American alligator, shall be regulated under this Article. It shall be unlawful for any person to own, possess, use, transport, or traffic in any crocodilian that is not housed in a sturdy and secure enclosure. Permanent enclosures shall be designed to be escape-proof and have a fence of sufficient strength to prevent contact between an observer and the crocodilian and shall have an operable lock. Transport containers shall be designed to be escape-proof. A written safety protocol and escape recovery plan shall be within sight of permanent housing and a copy must accompany the transport of any crocodilian. In the event of the escape of a crocodilian, the owner or possessor shall immediately notify local law enforcement.

"§ 14-418. Prohibited handling of reptiles or suggesting or inducing others to handle.

It shall be unlawful for any person to intentionally handle any reptile of a ~~poisonous nature whose venom is not removed, by taking or holding such reptile in bare hands or by placing or holding such reptile against any exposed part of the human anatomy, or by placing their own or another's hand or any other part of the human anatomy in or near any box, cage, or other container wherein such reptile is known or suspected to be.~~ species regulated under this Article in a manner that intentionally or negligently exposes another individual to unsafe contact with such reptile. It shall also be unlawful for any person to intentionally suggest, entice, invite, challenge, intimidate, exhort or otherwise induce or aid any person to handle or expose himself to any ~~such poisonous~~ reptile of a species regulated under this Article in any manner ~~defined in this Article.~~ that intentionally or negligently exposes another individual to unsafe contact with such reptile. Safe and responsible handling of reptiles for purposes of animal husbandry, training, transport, and education is permitted.

"§ 14-418.1. Registration of reptiles.

The owner of any venomous reptile, large constricting snake, or crocodilian, as defined in this Article, shall register the location of the reptile's housing with local law enforcement. Registration shall be made by December 1, 2010, and shall be updated on an annual basis, and within 30 days of any change in the location of the reptile's housing. Local law enforcement may charge an annual registration fee not to exceed fifty dollars ($50.00) per housing location of reptiles named in this Article.

In any case in which any law-enforcement officer or animal control officer has reasonable grounds to believe that any of the provisions of this Article have been or are about to be violated, it shall be the duty of such officer and he is hereby authorized, empowered, and directed to immediately investigate such violation or impending violation and to forthwith seize the reptile or reptiles involved, and all such officers are hereby authorized and directed to deliver such reptiles to the North Carolina State Museum of Natural Sciences or to its designated representative for examination ~~and test~~ for the purpose of ascertaining whether ~~said~~ the reptiles ~~contain venom and are poisonous.~~ are venomous reptiles, large constricting snakes, or crocodilians subject to this Article. If the North Carolina State Museum of Natural Sciences or its designated representative finds that ~~said reptiles are dangerously poisonous,~~ a seized reptile is a venomous reptile, large constricting snake, or crocodilian subject to this Article, the North Carolina State Museum of Natural Sciences or its designated representative shall be empowered to ~~dispose~~ determine final disposition of ~~said reptiles~~ the reptile in a manner consistent with the safety of the public; but if the Museum or its designated representative find that the ~~reptiles are not dangerously poisonous, and are not and cannot be harmful to human life, safety, health or welfare,~~ reptile is not a venomous reptile, large constricting snake, or crocodilian subject to this Article, and either no criminal warrants or indictments are initiated in connection with the reptile within 10 days of initial seizure, or a court of law determines that the reptile is not being owned, possessed, used, transported, or trafficked in violation of this Article, then it shall be the duty of ~~such~~ the law enforcement officers to return the ~~said reptiles~~ the reptile to the person from whom they were seized within five days.

"§ 14-420. Arrest of persons violating provisions of Article.

If the examination ~~and tests~~ made by the North Carolina State Museum of Natural Sciences ~~or its designated representative~~ as provided herein ~~show~~ shows that ~~such reptiles are dangerously poisonous,~~ the reptile is a venomous reptile, large constricting snake, or crocodilian, it shall be the duty of the officers making the ~~seizure,~~ seizure with probable cause to believe that the reptile is being owned, possessed, used, transported, or trafficked in violation of this Article, in addition to ~~destroying such reptiles,~~ authorizing the North Carolina Museum of Natural Sciences or its designated representative to determine final disposition of the reptile, also to arrest all persons violating any of the provisions of this Article.

"§ 14-421. Exemptions from provisions of Article.

This Article shall not apply to the possession, exhibition, or handling of reptiles by employees or agents of duly constituted museums, laboratories, educational or scientific institutions in the course of their educational or scientific work.

"§ 14-422. ~~Violation made misdemeanor.~~ Criminal penalties and civil remedies for violation.

(a) Any person violating any of the provisions of this Article shall be guilty of a Class 2 misdemeanor.

(b) If a person other than the owner of a venomous reptile, large constricting snake, or crocodilian, or other than the owners' agent or agents, suffers a life threatening injury or is killed as the result of a violation of this Article, the owner shall be guilty of a Class I felony.

(c) Any person intentionally releasing into the wild a nonnative venomous reptile, a large constricting snake, or a crocodilian shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor.

(d) A violation of this Article subject to the provisions of subsection (b) or (c) of this section shall constitute wanton conduct within the meaning of G.S. 1D-5(7) and subject the violator to punitive damages in any civil action that may be filed as a result of the violator's actions."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective December 1, 2009, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO AMEND THE LAW REGULATING THE USE OF CERTAIN REPTILES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Article 55 of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes reads as rewritten:

"Article 55.

"~~Handling~~ Regulation of ~~Poisonous~~ Certain Reptiles.

"§ 14-416. ~~Handling~~ Mishandling of ~~poisonous~~ certain reptiles declared public nuisance and criminal offense.

The intentional or negligent exposure of other human beings to unsafe contact with ~~reptiles of a venomous nature~~ venomous reptiles, large constricting snakes, or crocodilians ~~being~~ is essentially dangerous and injurious and detrimental to public health, safety and welfare, ~~the indulgence in and inducement to such exposure is hereby~~ and is therefore declared to be a public nuisance and a criminal offense, to be abated and punished as provided in this Article.

(a) It shall be unlawful for any person to own, possess, use, transport, or traffic in any venomous reptile ~~of a poisonous nature whose venom is not removed, unless such reptile is at all times kept securely in a box, cage, or other safe container in which there are no openings of sufficient size to permit the escape of such reptile, or through which such reptile can bite or inject its venom into any human being.~~ that is not housed in a sturdy and secure enclosure. Permanent enclosures shall be designed to be escape-proof, bite-proof, and have an operable lock. Transport containers shall be designed to be escape-proof and bite-proof.

(b) Each enclosure shall be clearly and visibly labeled 'Venomous Reptile Inside' with scientific name, common name, appropriate anti-venom, and owner's identifying information noted on the container. A written bite protocol that includes emergency contact information, local animal control office, the name and location of suitable anti-venom, first aid procedures, and treatment guidelines, as well as an escape recovery plan must be within sight of permanent housing, and a copy must accompany the transport of any venomous reptile.

(c) In the event of an escape of a venomous reptile, the owner or possessor of the venomous reptile shall immediately notify local law enforcement.

"§ 14-417.1. Regulation of ownership or use of large constricting snakes.

(a) As used in this Article, large constricting snakes shall mean: Reticulated Python, Python reticulates; Burmese Python, Python molurus; African Rock Python, Python sebae; Amethystine Python, Morelia amethistina; and Green Anaconda, Eunectes murinus; or any of their subspecies or hybrids.

(b) It shall be unlawful for any person to own, possess, use, transport, or traffic in any of the large constricting snakes that are not housed in a sturdy and secure enclosure. Permanent enclosures shall be designed to be escape-proof and shall have an operable lock. Transport containers shall be designed to be escape proof.

(c) Each enclosure shall be labeled clearly and visibly with the scientific name, common name, number of specimens, and owner's identifying information. A written safety protocol and escape recovery plan shall be within sight of permanent housing and a copy shall accompany the transport of any of the large constricting snakes. The safety protocol shall include emergency contact information, identification of the local animal control office, and first aid procedures.

(d) In the event of an escape of a large constricting snake, the owner or possessor shall immediately notify local law enforcement.

"§ 14-417.2. Regulation of ownership or use of crocodilians.

(a) All crocodilians, excluding the American alligator, shall be regulated under this Article. It shall be unlawful for any person to own, possess, use, transport, or traffic in any crocodilian that is not housed in a sturdy and secure enclosure. Permanent enclosures shall be designed to be escape-proof and have a fence of sufficient strength to prevent contact between an observer and the crocodilian and shall have an operable lock. Transport containers shall be designed to be escape-proof.

(b) A written safety protocol and escape recovery plan shall be within sight of permanent housing and a copy must accompany the transport of any crocodilian.

(c) In the event of the escape of a crocodilian, the owner or possessor shall immediately notify local law enforcement.

"§ 14-418. Prohibited handling of reptiles or suggesting or inducing others to handle.

(a) It shall be unlawful for any person to ~~intentionally~~ handle any reptile ~~of a poisonous nature whose venom is not removed, by taking or holding such reptile in bare hands or by placing or holding such reptile against any exposed part of the human anatomy, or by placing their own or another's hand or any other part of the human anatomy in or near any box, cage, or other container wherein such reptile is known or suspected to be.~~ regulated under this Article in a manner that intentionally or negligently exposes another person to unsafe contact with the reptile.

(b) It shall ~~also~~ be unlawful for any person to intentionally or negligently suggest, entice, invite, challenge, intimidate, exhort or otherwise induce or aid any person to handle or expose himself in an unsafe manner to any ~~such poisonous~~ reptile regulated ~~in any manner defined in~~under this Article.

(c) Safe and responsible handling of reptiles for purposes of animal husbandry, exhibition, training, transport, and education is permitted under this section.

In any case in which any law-enforcement officer or animal control officer has ~~reasonable grounds~~ probable cause to believe that any of the provisions of this Article have been or are about to be violated, it shall be the duty of ~~such~~ the officer and the officer ~~he~~ is ~~hereby~~ authorized, empowered, and directed to immediately investigate ~~such~~ the violation or impending violation and to ~~forthwith~~ seize the reptile or reptiles involved, and ~~all such officers~~the officer is ~~are hereby~~ authorized and directed to ~~deliver such reptiles~~ deliver: (i) a reptile believed to be venomous to the North Carolina State Museum of Natural Sciences or to its designated representative for examination ~~and test~~ for the purpose of ascertaining whether ~~said reptiles contain venom and are poisonous.~~ the reptile is regulated under this Article; and, (ii) a reptile believed to be a large constricting snake or crocodilian to the North Carolina Zoological Park for the purpose of ascertaining whether the reptile is regulated under this Article. If the Museum or the Zoological Park ~~North Carolina State Museum of Natural~~ ~~Sciences or its designated representative finds that said reptiles are dangerously poisonous,~~or their designated representatives find that a seized reptile is a venomous reptile, large constricting snake, or crocodilian regulated under this Article, the ~~North Carolina State Museum of Natural Sciences~~ Museum or the Zoological Park or ~~its~~ their designated representative shall ~~be empowered to dispose~~ determine final disposition of ~~said reptiles~~ the reptile in a manner consistent with the safety of the ~~public; but if~~public. If the Museum or the Zoological Park or ~~its~~ their designated ~~representative~~ representatives find that the ~~reptiles are not dangerously poisonous, and are not and cannot be harmful to human life, safety, health or welfare,~~ reptile is not a venomous reptile, large constricting snake, or crocodilian regulated under this Article, and either no criminal warrants or indictments are initiated in connection with the reptile within 10 days of initial seizure, or a court of law determines that the reptile is not being owned, possessed, used, transported, or trafficked in violation of this Article, then it shall be the duty of ~~such~~ the law enforcement officer ~~officers~~ to return the ~~said reptiles~~ reptile or reptiles to the person from whom they were seized within ~~five~~ fifteen days.

"§ 14-420. Arrest of persons violating provisions of Article.

If ~~the~~ an examination ~~and tests~~ made by the North Carolina State Museum of Natural Sciences or the North Carolina Zoological Park or ~~its~~ their designated representatives~~representative as provided herein show~~ conducted pursuant to this Article shows that ~~such reptiles are dangerously poisonous,~~ the reptile is a venomous reptile, large constricting snake, or crocodilian subject to this Article, it shall be the duty of the ~~officers~~ officer making the seizure with probable cause to believe that the reptile is being owned, possessed, used, transported, or trafficked in violation of this Article,~~seizure,in addition to destroying such reptiles, also~~ to arrest all persons violating any of the provisions of this Article.

"§ 14-421. Exemptions from provisions of Article.

This Article shall not apply to the possession, exhibition, or handling of reptiles by employees or agents of duly constituted veterinarians, zoos, serpentariums, museums, laboratories, educational or scientific institutions, public and private, in the course of their educational or scientific ~~work.~~work, or Wildlife Damage Control Agents in the course of the work for which they are approved by the Wildlife Resources Commission.

"§ 14-422. ~~Violation made misdemeanor.~~ Criminal penalties and civil remedies for violation.

(a) Any person violating any of the provisions of this Article shall be guilty of a Class 2 misdemeanor.

(b) If any person, other than the owner of a venomous reptile, large constricting snake, or crocodilian, the owner's agent, employee, or a member of the owner's immediate family, suffers a life threatening injury or is killed as the result of a violation of this Article, the owner of the reptile shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor. This subsection shall not apply to violations that result from incidents that could not have been prevented or avoided by the owner's exercise of due care or foresight, such as natural disasters or other acts of God, or in the case of thefts of the reptile from the owner.

(c) Any person intentionally releasing into the wild a nonnative venomous reptile, a large constricting snake, or a crocodilian shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor.

(d) Violations of this Article as set forth in subsections (b) or (c) of this section shall constitute wanton conduct within the meaning of G.S. 1D-5(7) and subject the violator to punitive damages in any civil action that may be filed as a result of the violator's actions."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective December 1, 2009, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 307:
Regulate Ownership & Use of Certain Reptiles

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	March 28, 2009
Introduced by:	Sen. Jones	Prepared by:	Jennifer McGinnis Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition S307-CSRI-1 [v.12]

CHANGES FROM PREVIOUS PROPOSED COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE (PCS): This PCS differs from that discussed by the Committee on March 5, 2009 (S307-CSRI-1 [v.4]) by:

- Deleting the provision that required an owner to register the location of a regulated reptile's housing with local law enforcement by December 1, 2010 and update the registration annually or within 30 days after a change of location. The deleted provision also authorized local law enforcement to charge an annual registration fee not to exceed $50 per housing location.
- Changing the entity that would render a determination as to whether or not a seized reptile is one regulated by the statute from the North Carolina State Museum of Natural Sciences (Museum) to the North Carolina Zoological Park (Zoo).
- Modifying the penalty provision included in the previously discussed version of the PCS applicable to violations of the Article that result in life threatening injuries or death. In the previous PCS, this violation would have been a Class I felony and applicable to anyone injured other than the owner of the reptile. Now, the owner of a regulated animal would be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor if another person (other than owner, the owner's agent, employee, or member of the owner's immediate family) suffers a life threatening injury or is killed as a result of a violation of the Article. In addition, the new PCS adds an exemption providing that the provision would not apply to violations that result from incidents that could not have been prevented or avoided by the owner's exercise of due care or foresight, such as natural disasters or other acts of God, or in the case of thefts of the reptile from the owner.
- Adding Wildlife Damage Control Agents approved by the Wildlife Resources Commission to the list of entities exempt from the Article's provisions.

SUMMARY: The PCS for Senate Bill 307 would add large constricting snakes and crocodilians (with the exception of the American alligator) to an existing Article that governs the handling of venomous reptiles. The PCS would also: (i) provide that negligent exposure, in addition to intentional exposure, of others to regulated reptiles constitutes a violation under the Article; (ii) provide additional requirements for caging and other protocols associated with these reptiles; (iii) clarify the process upon seizure of a regulated reptile; (iv) add new penalties and remedies for violations of the Article; and (v) make other technical, clarifying, and conforming changes.

CURRENT LAW: Article 55 of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes, "Handling of Poisonous Reptiles", provides that it is unlawful for any person to:

- Own, possess, use, or traffic in any reptile of a poisonous nature whose venom is not removed unless the reptile is kept securely in a box, cage, or safe container without openings that would allow for escape or the biting of humans.
- Intentionally handle any reptile of a poisonous nature whose venom is not removed with bare hands or by holding the reptile against any exposed part of the body or by placing one's hand

(or other part of the anatomy), or that of another person's, near any container housing a poisonous reptile.

- Induce others to handle reptiles of a poisonous nature.

The statute also provides that law enforcement or animal control officers with reasonable grounds to believe a violation of the Article exists must immediately investigate the violation, seize the reptile involved, and deliver the reptile to the Museum or its designee to examine the reptile in order to ascertain whether the reptile is poisonous. If the Museum determines the reptile is dangerously poisonous, the Museum is empowered to dispose of the reptile in a manner consistent with public safety and law enforcement is directed to arrest the person from whom the reptile was seized. If the Museum determines the reptile is not venomous, the statute provides for return of the reptile to the person from whom the reptile was seized.

The statute provides that violations of the Article are punishable as a Class 2 misdemeanor.

The statute exempts museums, laboratories, educational or scientific institutions from the provisions of the Article.

BILL ANALYSIS: The PCS would add large constricting snakes (as listed in the bill) and all crocodilians (except the American alligator, which is already regulated by the State's Wildlife Resources Commission (WRC)) to coverage under the Article. The PCS would also prohibit the transport (in addition to owning, possessing, using, or trafficking) of the regulated reptiles except in compliance with the Article's requirements. Further, the PCS would:

- Provide that negligent exposure, in addition to intentional exposure, of others to regulated reptiles constitutes a violation under the Article.
- Provide additional requirements for caging and associated protocols as follows:
  - Venomous reptiles -- Permanent enclosures designed to be escape-proof, bite-proof, and have an operable lock; transport containers designed to be escape and bite-proof.
  - Large constricting snakes -- Permanent enclosures designed to be escape-proof and have an operable lock; transport containers designed to be escape-proof.
  - Crocodilians -- Permanent enclosures designed to be escape-proof, have a fence of sufficient strength, and have an operable lock; transport containers designed to be escape-proof.

  For venomous reptiles, enclosures must be clearly labeled as containing such a reptile, with identifying anti-venom information. Written bite or safety protocols (as applicable) and escape recovery plans must be kept within sight of a permanent enclosure and accompany transport. Immediate notification of escape to law enforcement would be required.
- Prohibit handling of a regulated reptile in any manner that intentionally or negligently exposes another to unsafe contact with the reptile, or inducement of another to unsafe contact with the reptile.
- Change the standard under which law enforcement may seize a regulated reptile from "reasonable grounds" to "probable cause".
- Provides that law enforcement that seize a reptile must deliver: (i) a reptile believed to be venomous to the Museum; and, (ii) and reptile believed to be a large constricting snake or crocodilian to the Zoo for determination as to whether the reptile is one regulated by the Article. If the Museum or Zoo renders an affirmative determination, the Museum or Zoo must determine the final disposition of the reptile and law enforcement must arrest the person in violation of the Article. If the Museum or Zoo determines the reptile is not regulated under the Article, and either no criminal warrants or indictments are initiated in connection with the reptile within 10 days of seizure or a court determines that the reptile is not being handled in violation of the Article, the reptile must be returned to the person from whom it was seized.

- Add veterinarians, zoos, serpentariums, and Wildlife Damage Control Agents to the list of entities exempt from the Article's provisions.
- Provide additional penalties/remedies: (i) the owner of a regulated animal would be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor if another person (other than owner, the owner's agent, employee, or member of the owner's immediate family) suffers a life threatening injury or is killed as a result of a violation of the Article. This provision would not apply to violations that result from incidents that could not have been prevented or avoided by the owner's exercise of due care or foresight, such as natural disasters or other acts of God, or in the case of thefts of the reptile from the owner; (ii) a person would be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor for the intentional release of a nonnative regulated reptile into the wild; and (iii) in cases where violations of the Article result in a life threatening injury or death, or in the case of an intentional release into the wild, the violation would be deemed to constitute wanton conduct as defined under the statutes and subject the violator to punitive damages in any civil case filed as a result.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The PCS would become effective December 1, 2009, and apply to offenses committed on or after that date.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO MAKE IT UNLAWFUL TO USE A MOBILE TELEPHONE FOR E-MAIL OR TEXT MESSAGING WHILE OPERATING A VEHICLE ON A PUBLIC STREET OR HIGHWAY OR PUBLIC VEHICULAR AREA.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 20-137.3(a)(1) reads as rewritten:

"(1) Additional technology. – Any technology that provides access to digital media ~~such as~~including, but not limited to, a camera, ~~electronic mail,~~ music, the Internet, or games. The term does not include electronic mail or text messaging."

SECTION 2. Chapter 20 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 20-137.4A. Unlawful use of mobile telephone for text messaging or electronic mail.

(a) Offense. – It shall be unlawful for any person to operate a vehicle on a public street or highway or public vehicular area while using a mobile telephone to:

(1) Manually enter multiple letters or text in the device as a means of communicating with another person; or

(2) Read any electronic mail or text message transmitted to the device or stored within the device, provided that this prohibition shall not apply to any name or number stored in the device nor to any caller identification information.

(b) Exceptions. – The provisions of this section shall not apply to:

(1) The operator of a vehicle that is lawfully parked or stopped.

(2) Any of the following while in the performance of their official duties: a law enforcement officer; a member of a fire department; or the operator of a public or private ambulance.

SENATE BILL 22
SENATE BILL 96:
Ban Texting While Driving

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	March 23, 2009
Introduced by:	Sen. Forrester/Sen. Bingham	Prepared by:	Brenda J. Carter Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition S22-CSRV-8

SUMMARY: This PCS for Senate Bill 22 would prohibit all drivers from using a mobile phone to read or send electronic mail or text messages, while operating a motor vehicle; an exception would apply for law enforcement officers, firefighters, and ambulance drivers in performance of their official duties. The bill would not apply to voice- operated technology, to GPS devices, or to devices that are part of a digital dispatch system such as OnStar.

[As introduced, this bill was identical to S96, as introduced by Sen. Bingham; the bills were also identical to H9, as introduced by Rep. Pierce.]

CURRENT LAW: North Carolina law currently prohibits the use of a mobile telephone or any additional technology associated with a mobile telephone by a person under the age of 18 while operating a motor vehicle (G.S. 20-137.3), or by a person operating a school bus (G.S. 20-137.4), with certain limited exceptions. See chart on reverse side for additional details.

"Mobile telephone" is a device used by subscribers and other users of wireless telephone service to access the service, and includes hand held and hands-free devices. "Additional technology" includes such things as cameras, electronic mail, music, the Internet, or games.

BILL ANALYSIS: The Proposed Committee Substitute for Senate Bill 22 / Senate Bill 96 would make it unlawful for a person to use a mobile telephone to enter letters or text as a means of communicating with another person, while operating a motor vehicle. The bill would also make it unlawful for a driver to read an electronic mail or text message on a mobile telephone. The prohibition would apply to all drivers except for law enforcement officers, firefighters, and ambulance drivers in the performance of their official duties.

Section 1 of the bill amends the definition of "additional technology" as it applies to the statutes prohibiting the use of mobile telephones by drivers under 18 and by persons operating a school bus. This change makes it clear that electronic mail and text messaging are not included as "additional technology" the use of which is punishable under laws that apply specifically to drivers under 18 and to persons operating a school bus.

Section 2 of the bill creates a new offense making it unlawful for any driver to operate a vehicle on a public street or highway or public vehicular area while using a mobile phone to create or read electronic mail or text messages. The offense would not include accessing caller ID information or any name or number stored in the mobile phone.

Exceptions:

- Law Enforcement Officer/Fire Department Members/Operators of public or private ambulances, while in the performance of official duties.
- The operator of a lawfully parked or stopped vehicle.
- The use of GPS or digital dispatch systems such as OnStar.
- The use of voice operated technology.

Penalties for School Bus Drivers: (These are the same as under current law)

- Class 2 misdemeanor
- $100.00 fine.
- No drivers license points or insurance surcharge.

Penalties Generally:

- Infraction.
- $100.00 fine.
- No drivers license points or insurance surcharge.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This bill would become effective December 1, 2009, and apply to offenses committed on or after that date.

BACKGROUND:

	Prohibition	Exceptions	Penalty
G.S. 20-137.3 [CURRENT LAW]	Persons under the age of 18 may not use mobile phone or associated technology while operating a motor vehicle while the vehicle is in motion.	• In emergency situation to call emergency response operator; hospital, physician, or health clinic; ambulance; law enforcement • To call parent, legal guardian, or spouse	• Infraction • $25 fine • No drivers license points, insurance surcharge, or c costs
G.S. 20-137.4 [CURRENT LAW]	Person operating a school bus, activity bus, or any vehicle transporting school children for compensation, may not use mobile phone or associated technology while the vehicle is in motion.	• In an emergency situation, defined as circumstances such as medical concerns, unsafe road conditions, matters of public safety, or mechanical problems that create a risk of harm for operator and passengers	• Class 2 misdemeanor (1-30 days community punishment with no prior convictions) • Minimum $100 fine • No drivers license points or insurance surcharge

h. Any violation of a valid protective order under G.S. 50B-4.1."

SECTION 4. G.S. 15C-2(12) reads as rewritten:

"(12) Victim of stalking. – An individual against whom stalking, as described in ~~G.S. 14-277.3,~~ former G.S. 14-277.3 for acts occurring before December 1, 2008, or G.S. 14-277.3A for acts occurring on or after December 1, 2008, has been committed."

SECTION 5. G.S. 50B-1(a)(2) reads as rewritten:

"(2) Placing the aggrieved party or a member of the aggrieved party's family or household in fear of imminent serious bodily injury or continued harassment, as defined in G.S. ~~14-277.3,~~ 14-277.3A, that rises to such a level as to inflict substantial emotional distress; or".

SECTION 6. G.S. 50C-1(6) reads as rewritten:

"(6) Stalking. – On more than one occasion, following or otherwise harassing, as defined in G.S. ~~14-277.3(c),~~ 14-277.3A(b)(2), another person without legal purpose with the intent to do any of the following:

a. Place the person in reasonable fear either for the person's safety or the safety of the person's immediate family or close personal associates.

b. Cause that person to suffer substantial emotional distress by placing that person in fear of death, bodily injury, or continued harassment and that in fact causes that person substantial emotional distress."

SECTION 7. G.S. 95-260(3)b. reads as rewritten:

SECTION 8. This act is effective when it becomes law.

MEMORANDUM
March 23, 2009

TO: Senate Judiciary II Committee
FROM: General Statutes Commission
RE: Senate Bill 617 (Stalking Law Conforming Changes)

This bill makes conforming amendments to various sections of the General Statutes as a result of last year's amendments to the criminal offense of stalking. S.L. 2008-167 repealed G.S. 14-277.3 (Stalking) and replaced it with new G.S. 14-277.3A (Stalking), effective December 1, 2008, and applicable to offenses occurring on or after that date. As it happens, seven sections in the General Statutes contain references to former G.S. 14-277.3 that need to be updated. In some of these sections, rather than simply substituting the new G.S. number in place of the repealed section, which would be the normal conforming amendment, references to both sections should be retained because of the nature of the provision in which the reference appears.

Section 1 amends G.S. 14-415.12(b)(8) to add a reference to new G.S. 14-277.3A and to move the existing reference to G.S. 14-277.3 to the end of the subdivision and label it as "former" G.S. 14-277.3. G.S. 14-415.12(b) contains a list of disqualifications for obtaining or renewing a concealed handgun permit, so it needs to continue to reference convictions under the former stalking law.

Section 2 amends G.S. 15A-266.4(b)(3) to add a reference to new G.S. 14-277.3A and to insert the word "former" before the existing reference to G.S. 14-277.3. G.S. 15A-266.4 authorizes the taking of DNA samples from persons convicted of the crimes listed in subsection (b). The reference to former G.S. 14-277.3 is retained out of caution, so that if DNA has not yet been collected under this section from someone convicted under former G.S. 14-277.3, it can still be collected.

Section 3 amends G.S. 15A-830(a)(7) in three places to add a reference to new G.S. 14-277.3A and to move the reference to G.S. 14-277.3 to the end of the sentence in which it appears and label it as "former" G.S. 14-277.3. G.S. 15A-830(a)(7) is the definition of "victim" in the Crime Victims' Rights Act (Article 46 of Chapter 15A of the General Statutes). Retaining the reference to G.S. 14-277.3 ensures that victims of stalking under the former stalking statute will continue to qualify as crime victims under the Crime Victims' Rights Act. Section 4 similarly amends G.S. 15C-2(12), the definition of "victim of stalking" under the Address Confidentiality Program (Chapter 15C of the General Statutes), except that, due to differences in the structure of the definitions, the amendment to G.S. 15C-2(12) specifies the time periods to which each reference applies.

Sections 5, 6, and 7 amend G.S. 50B-1(a)(2), 50C-1(6), and 95-260(3)b., respectively, to insert a reference to the new G.S. section in the reference to harassing or harassment "as defined in G.S. 14-277.3", because the definition of harass or harassment is now located there.

Section 8 provides that the act is effective when it becomes law.

SENATE BILL 714*

Short Title:	Offense for Portable Toilets/Pumper Trucks.	(Public)
Sponsors:	Senator Berger of Franklin.
Referred to:	Judiciary II.

March 24, 2009

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO CREATE THE OFFENSE OF LARCENY, DESTRUCTION, DEFACEMENT, OR VANDALISM OF PORTABLE TOILETS OR PUMPER TRUCKS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Article 16 of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 14-82.6. Larceny, destruction, defacement, or vandalism of portable toilets or pumper trucks.

If any person steals, takes from its temporary location or from any person having the lawful custody thereof, or destroys, defaces, or vandalizes a chemical or portable toilet as defined in G.S. 130A-290 or a pumper truck that is operated by a septage management firm that is permitted by the Department of Environment and Natural Resources under G.S. 130A-291.1, the person is guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective December 1, 2009, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 714:
Offense for Portable Toilets/Pumper Trucks

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	March 31, 2009
Introduced by:	Sen. Berger of Franklin	Prepared by:	Jennifer McGinnis
Analysis of:	First Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 714 (First Edition) would create the offense of larceny, destruction, defacement, or vandalism of portable toilets or pumper trucks.

[As introduced, this bill was identical to H616, as introduced by Rep. Allen, which is currently in House Judiciary III.]

CURRENT LAW: GS 14-72 (Larceny of property; receiving stolen goods or possessing stolen goods) provides that the larceny of goods of the value of more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) is a Class H felony[1]. Larceny of property where the value of the property or goods is not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), is a Class 1 misdemeanor.

GS 14-160 (Willful and wanton injury to personal property; punishments) provides that if any person: wantonly and willfully injures the personal property of another the person is guilty of a Class 2 misdemeanor[2], except where the damage caused is in an amount in excess of $200.00, in which case the person is guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor[3].

BILL ANALYSIS: Senate Bill 714would make it a Class 1 misdemeanor[3] for any person to steal, take from its temporary location or from any person who has lawful custody, destroy, deface, or vandalize a chemical or portable toilet or a pumper truck that is operated by a septage management firm.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act would become effective on December 1, 2009 and would apply to offenses committed on or after that date.

Jennifer Mundt, Legislative Analyst for the House Environment and Natural Resources Committee, substantially contributed to this summary.

S714-SMRI-12(e1) v1

[1] The presumptive range of minimum punishment for a Class H felony when there are no prior convictions is 5 to 6 months of community, intermediate, or active punishment.

[2] The range of punishment for a Class 2 misdemeanor when there are no prior convictions is 1 to 30 days of community punishment

[3] The range of punishment for a Class 1 misdemeanor when there are no prior convictions is 1 to 45 days of community punishment

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO MAKE IT A CRIME TO PROVIDE CELL PHONES TO INMATES IN THE CUSTODY OF THE DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTION.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 14-258.1 reads as rewritten:

"§ 14-258.1. Furnishing poison, controlled substances, deadly weapons, cartridges, ammunition or alcoholic beverages to inmates of charitable, mental or penal institutions or local confinement ~~facilities.~~ facilities; furnishing mobile phones to inmates.

(a) ~~If any person~~ Any person who shall give or sell to any inmate of any charitable, mental or penal institution, or local confinement facility, or ~~if any person~~ any person who shall combine, confederate, conspire, aid, abet, solicit, urge, investigate, counsel, advise, encourage, attempt to procure, or procure another or others to give or sell to any inmate of any charitable, mental or penal institution, or local confinement facility, any deadly weapon, or any cartridge or ammunition for firearms of any kind, or any controlled substances included in Schedules I through VI contained in Article 5 of Chapter 90 of the General Statutes except under the general supervision of a practitioner, poison or poisonous substance, except upon the prescription of a physician, ~~he~~ shall be punished as a Class H ~~felon; and if he be~~ felon. If the person is an officer or employee of any institution of the State, or of any local confinement facility, ~~he~~ the person shall be dismissed from ~~his position or~~ office.

(b) Any person who shall knowingly give or sell any alcoholic beverages to any inmate of any State mental or penal institution, or to any inmate of any local confinement facility, except for medical purposes as prescribed by a duly licensed physician and except for an ordained minister or rabbi who gives sacramental wine to an inmate as part of a religious service; or any person who shall combine, confederate, conspire, procure, or procure another or others to give or sell any alcoholic beverages to any inmate of any such State institution or local confinement facility, except for medical purposes as prescribed by a duly licensed physician and except for an ordained minister or rabbi who gives sacramental wine to an inmate as part of a religious service; or any person who shall bring into the buildings, grounds or other facilities of such institution any alcoholic beverages, except for medical purposes as prescribed by a duly licensed physician or sacramental wine brought by an ordained minister or rabbi for use as part of a religious service, shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor. If such person is an officer or employee of any institution of the State, such person shall be dismissed from office.

(c) Any person who knowingly gives or sells a mobile telephone as defined in G.S. 20-137.3(a), or a component of a mobile telephone, to an inmate in the custody of the Department of Correction, or any person who knowingly gives or sells a mobile telephone or component to a person who is not an inmate for delivery to an inmate, is guilty of a Class A1 misdemeanor."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective December 1, 2009, and applies to acts committed on or after that date.

HOUSE BILL 8:
Prohibit Cell Phones in Prison

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	March 30, 2009
Introduced by:	Reps. Pierce, Hall	Prepared by:	Brenda J. Carter
Analysis of:	Third Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 8 makes it a Class A1 misdemeanor to provide a cell phone to an inmate in the custody of the Department of Corrections.

CURRENT LAW: Under current law, it is a Class H felony to provide poison, a controlled substance, a deadly weapon, or any cartridge or ammunition to an inmate of any charitable, mental, or penal institution, including a local confinement facility. An exception applies for drugs administered under the general supervision of a practitioner or upon the prescription of a physician. It is a Class 1 misdemeanor to knowingly give or sell any alcoholic beverages to any inmate of any State mental or penal institution, or local confinement facility, except when prescribed by a physician or when sacramental wine is given by a minister or rabbi as part of a religious service.

If the person providing the contraband to the inmate is an officer or employee of the institution, in addition to any criminal penalties that person's employment will be terminated.

Inmates in possession of contraband items are subject to prison disciplinary proceedings.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 8 makes it a Class A1 misdemeanor for any person to knowingly give or sell a mobile telephone to an inmate in the custody of the Department of Corrections, or to knowingly give or sell a mobile telephone to another person for delivery to an inmate. Assuming no prior convictions, a Class A1 misdemeanor is punishable by 1-60 days community, intermediate, or active punishment. This means that a judge has the full range of punishments available –from imprisonment to a fine only; the amount of the fine would be in the discretion of the court.

The definition of "mobile phone" referenced in the bill is set out below.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act becomes effective December 1, 2009, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date.

§ 20-137.3. Unlawful use of a mobile phone by persons under 18 years of age.

(a) Definitions. – The following definitions apply in this section:

(2) Mobile telephone. – A device used by subscribers and other users of wireless telephone service to access the service. The term includes: (i) a device with which a user engages in a call using at least one hand, and (ii) a device that has an internal feature or function, or that is equipped with an attachment or addition, whether or not permanently part of the mobile telephone, by which a user engages in a call without the use of either hand, whether or not the use of either hand is necessary to activate, deactivate, or initiate a function of such telephone.

SENATE BILL 44

Short Title:	Appeals of Quasi-Judicial Land-Use Decisions.	(Public)
Sponsors:	Senator Kinnaird.
Referred to:	Judiciary II.

February 4, 2009

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO CLARIFY THE LAW REGARDING APPEALS OF QUASI-JUDICIAL DECISIONS MADE UNDER ARTICLE 19 OF CHAPTER 160A AND ARTICLE 18 OF CHAPTER 153A OF THE GENERAL STATUTES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1.(a) Part 3 of Article 19 of Chapter 160A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 160A-393. Appeals in the nature of certiorari.

(a) Applicability. – This section applies to appeals of quasi-judicial decisions of decision-making boards when that appeal is to superior court and in the nature of certiorari as required by this Article.

(b) For purposes of this section, the following terms mean:

(1) Decision-making board. – A city council, planning board, board of adjustment, or other board making quasi-judicial decisions appointed by the city council under this Article or under comparable provisions of any local act.

(2) Person. – Any legal entity authorized to bring suit in the legal entity's name.

(c) Filing the Petition. – An appeal in the nature of certiorari shall be initiated by filing with the superior court a petition for writ of certiorari. The petition shall:

(1) State the facts that demonstrate that the petitioner has standing to seek review.

(2) Set forth the grounds upon which the petitioner contends that an error was made. The facts, if any, in support of allegations that, as the result of impermissible conflict as described in G.S. 160A-388(e1), the decision-making body was not sufficiently impartial to comply with due process principles shall be set forth with particularity.

(3) Set forth the relief the petitioner seeks.

(d) Standing. – A petition may be filed under this section only by a petitioner who has standing to challenge the decision being appealed. The following persons shall have standing to file a petition under this section:

(1) Any person meeting any of the following criteria:

a. Has an ownership interest, leasehold interest, or other interest created by easement, restriction, or covenant in the property that is the subject of the decision being appealed.

b. Has an option or contract to purchase the property that is the subject of the decision being appealed.

c. Was an applicant before the decision-making board whose decision is being appealed.

(2) Any person with an ownership interest or leasehold interest in property any portion of which is located within 200 feet of the boundary of the property that is the subject of the decision being appealed.

(3) Any other person who will suffer special damages as the result of the decision being appealed. For purposes of this subdivision, 'special damages' mean a substantial harm suffered by a person that is distinct from the rest of the community, amounting to a reduction in the value of such person's property.

(4) An incorporated or unincorporated association to which owners or lessees of property in a designated area belong by virtue of their owning or leasing property in that area, or an association otherwise organized to protect and foster the interest of a particular neighborhood or local area, so long as at least one of the members of the association would have standing as an individual to challenge the decision being appealed, and the association was not created in response to the particular development or issue that is the subject of the appeal.

(5) A city whose decision-making board has made a decision that the council believes improperly grants a variance from or is otherwise inconsistent with the proper interpretation of an ordinance adopted by that council.

(e) Respondent. – The respondent named in the petition shall be the city whose decision-making board made the decision that is being appealed, except that if the petitioner is a city that has filed a petition pursuant to subdivision (d)(5) of this section, then the respondent shall be the decision-making board. If the petitioner is not the applicant before the decision-making board whose decision is being appealed, the petitioner shall also name that applicant as a respondent. Any petitioner may name as a respondent any person with an ownership or leasehold interest in the property that is the subject of the decision being appealed who participated in the hearing before the decision-making board.

(f) Writ of Certiorari. – Upon filing the petition, the petitioner shall present the petition and a proposed writ of certiorari to the clerk of court of the county in which the matter arose. The writ shall direct the respondent city (or the respondent decision-making board if the petitioner is a city that has filed a petition pursuant to subdivision (d)(5) of this section) to prepare and certify to the court the record of proceedings below within a specified date. The writ shall also direct that the petitioner shall serve the petition and the writ upon each respondent named therein in the manner provided for service of a complaint under Rule 4j of the Rules of Civil Procedure (except that, if the respondent is a decision-making board, the petition and the writ shall be served upon the chairman of that decision-making board). No summons shall be issued. The clerk shall issue the writ without notice to the respondent or respondents if the petition has been properly filed and the writ is in proper form. A copy of the executed writ shall be filed with the court.

(g) Answer to the Petition. – The respondent may, but need not, file an answer to the petition, except that if the respondent contends that any petitioner lacks standing to bring the appeal, that contention must be set forth in an answer served on all petitioners at least 30 days prior to the hearing on the petition.

(h) Intervention. – Rule 24 of the Rules of Civil Procedure shall govern motions to intervene as a petitioner or respondent in an action initiated under this section with the following exceptions:

(1) Any person described in subdivision (d)(1) of this section shall have standing to intervene and shall be allowed to intervene as a matter or right.

(2) Any person, other than one described in subdivision (d)(1) of this section, who seeks to intervene as a petitioner must demonstrate that the person would have had standing to challenge the decision being appealed in accordance with subdivisions (d)(2) through (d)(5) of this section.

(3) Any person, other than one described in subdivision (d)(1) of this section, who seeks to intervene as a respondent must demonstrate that the person would have had standing to file a petition in accordance with subdivisions (d)(2) through (d)(5) of this section if the decision-making board had made a decision that is consistent with the relief sought by the petitioner(s).

(i) The Record. – The record shall consist of all documents and exhibits submitted to the decision-making board whose decision is being appealed, together with the minutes of the meeting or meetings at which the decision being appealed was considered. Upon request of any party, the record shall also contain an audio or videotape of the meeting or meetings at which the decision being appealed was considered if such a recording was made. Any party may also include in the record a transcript of the proceedings, which shall be prepared at the cost of the party choosing to include it. The parties may agree, or the court may direct, that matters unnecessary to the court's decision be deleted from the record or that matters other than those specified herein be included. The record shall be bound and paginated or otherwise organized for the convenience of the parties and the court. A copy of the record shall be served by the municipal respondent upon all petitioners within three days after it is filed with the court.

(j) Hearing on the Record. – The court shall hear and decide all issues raised by the petition by reviewing the record submitted in accordance with subsection (h) of this section. Except that the court may, in its discretion, allow the record to be supplemented with affidavits, testimony of witnesses, or documentary or other evidence if, and to the extent that, the record is not adequate to allow an appropriate determination of the following issues:

(1) Whether a petitioner or intervenor has standing.

(2) Whether, as a result of impermissible conflict as described in G.S. 160A-388(e1), the decision-making body was not sufficiently impartial to comply with due process principles.

(3) Whether the decision-making body erred for the reasons set forth in sub-subdivisions a. and b. of subdivision (1) of subsection (k) of this section.

(k) Scope of Review. –

(1) When reviewing the decision of a decision-making board under the provisions of this section, the trial court shall ensure that the rights of petitioners have not been prejudiced because the decision-making body's findings, inferences, conclusions, or decisions were:

a. In violation of constitutional provisions, including those protecting procedural due process rights.

b. In excess of the statutory authority conferred upon the city or the authority conferred upon the decision-making board by ordinance.

c. Inconsistent with applicable procedures specified by statute or ordinance.

d. Affected by other error of law.

e. Unsupported by substantial competent evidence in view of the entire record.

f. Arbitrary or capricious.

(2) When the issue before the trial court is whether the decision-making board erred in interpreting an ordinance, the trial court may review that issue de novo and freely substitute its judgment for that of the decision-making board, provided that the court may give due consideration to the construction adopted by those entities charged with the execution and administration of the ordinance, taking into account the extent to which such construction may have been based on sound reasoning and consistent application.

(3) The term "competent evidence," as used in this subsection, shall not preclude reliance by the decision-making board on evidence that would not be admissible under the rules of evidence as applied in the trial division of the General Court of Justice if (i) the evidence was admitted without objection, or (ii) the evidence appears to be sufficiently trustworthy and was admitted under such circumstances that it was reasonable for the decision-making board to rely upon it. The term "competent evidence" shall not be deemed to include the opinion testimony of lay witnesses as to any of the following:

a. The use of property in a particular way would affect the value of other property.

b. The increase in vehicular traffic resulting from a proposed development would pose a danger to the public safety.

c. Matters about which only expert testimony would generally be admissible under the rules of evidence.

(l) Decision of the Trial Court. – Following its review of the decision-making board in accordance with subsection (k) of this section, the trial court may affirm the decision, reverse the decision and remand the case with appropriate instructions, or remand the case for further proceedings. If the court does not affirm the decision below in its entirety, then the court shall be guided by the following in determining what relief should be granted to the petitioners:

(1) If the court concludes that the error committed by the decision-making board is procedural only, the court may remand the case for further proceedings to correct the procedural error.

(2) If the court concludes that the decision-making board has erred by failing to make findings of fact such that the court cannot properly perform its function, then the court may remand the case with appropriate instructions so long as the record contains substantial competent evidence that could support the decision below with appropriate findings of fact. However, findings of fact are not necessary when the record sufficiently reveals the basis for the decision below or when the material facts are undisputed and the case presents only an issue of law.

(3) If the court concludes that the decision by the decision-making board is not supported by substantial competent evidence in the record or is based upon an error of law, then the court may remand the case with an order that directs the decision-making board to take whatever action should have been taken had the error not been committed or to take such other action as is necessary to correct the error. Specifically:

a. If the court concludes that a permit was wrongfully denied because the denial was not based on substantial competent evidence or was otherwise based on an error of law, the court shall remand with instructions that the permit be issued.

b. If the court concludes that a permit was wrongfully issued because the issuance was not based on substantial competent evidence or was otherwise based on an error of law, the court shall remand with instructions that the permit be revoked.

(m) Ancillary Injunctive Relief. – Upon motion of a party to a proceeding under this section, and under appropriate circumstances, the trial court may issue an injunctive order requiring any other party to that proceeding to take certain action or refrain from taking action that is consistent with the court's decision on the merits of the appeal."

SECTION 1.(b) Article 18 of Chapter 153A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 153A-349. Appeals in the nature of certiorari.

(a) Whenever appeals of quasi-judicial decisions of decision-making boards are to superior court and in the nature of certiorari as required by this Article, the provisions of G.S. 160A-393 shall be applicable to those appeals.

(b) For purposes of this section, as used in G.S. 160A-393, the term "city council" shall be deemed to refer to the "board of commissioners," and the term "city" or "municipal" shall be deemed to refer to the "county."

(c) For purposes of this section, the "impermissible conflict as described in G.S. 160A-388(e1)" shall mean "impermissible conflict as described in G.S. 153A-345(e1)."""

SECTION 2.(a) Part 2 of Article 19 of Chapter 160A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 160A-377. Appeals of decisions on subdivision plats.

(a) When a subdivision ordinance adopted under this Part provides that the decision whether to approve or deny a preliminary or final subdivision plat is to be made by a city council or a planning board, other than a planning board comprised solely of members of a city planning staff, and the ordinance authorizes the council or planning board to make a quasi-judicial decision in deciding whether to approve the subdivision plat, then that quasi-judicial decision of the council or planning board shall be subject to review by the superior court by proceedings in the nature of certiorari. The provisions of G.S. 160A-381(c), 160A-388(e2), and 160A-393 shall apply to those appeals.

(b) When a subdivision ordinance adopted under this Part provides that a city council, planning board, or staff member is authorized to make only an administrative or ministerial decision in deciding whether to approve a preliminary or final subdivision plat, then any party aggrieved by that administrative or ministerial decision may seek to have the decision reviewed by filing an action in superior court seeking appropriate declaratory or equitable relief. Such an action must be filed within the time frame specified in G.S. 160A-381(c) for petitions in the nature of certiorari.

(c) For purposes of this section, an ordinance shall be deemed to authorize a quasi-judicial decision if the city council or planning board is authorized to decide whether to approve or deny the plat based not only upon whether the application complies with the specific requirements set forth in the ordinance, but also on whether the application complies with one or more generally stated standards requiring a discretionary decision to be made by the city council or planning board."

SECTION 2.(b) Part 2 of Article 18 of Chapter 153A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 153A-336. Appeals of decisions on subdivision plats.

(a) When a subdivision ordinance adopted under this Part provides that the decision whether to approve or deny a preliminary or final subdivision plat is to be made by a board of commissioners or a planning board, other than a planning board comprised solely of members of a county planning staff, and the ordinance authorizes the board of commissioners or planning board to make a quasi-judicial decision in deciding whether to approve the subdivision plat, then that quasi-judicial decision of the board of commissioners or planning board shall be subject to review by the superior court by proceedings in the nature of certiorari. The provisions of G.S. 153A-340(f), 153A-345(e2), and 153A-349 shall apply to those appeals.

(b) When a subdivision ordinance adopted under this Part provides that a board of commissioners, planning board, or staff member is authorized to make only an administrative or ministerial decision in deciding whether to approve a preliminary or final subdivision plat, then any party aggrieved by that administrative or ministerial decision may seek to have the decision reviewed by filing an action in superior court seeking appropriate declaratory or equitable relief. Such an action must be filed within the time frame specified in G.S. 153A-340(f) for petitions in the nature of certiorari.

(c) For purposes of this section, an ordinance shall be deemed to authorize a quasi-judicial decision if the board of commissioners or planning board is authorized to decide whether to approve or deny the plat based not only upon whether the application complies with the specific requirements set forth in the ordinance, but also on whether the application complies with one or more generally stated standards requiring a discretionary decision to be made by the board of commissioners or planning board."

SECTION 3. G.S. 63-34 reads as rewritten:

"§ 63-34. Judicial review.

(a) Any person aggrieved by any decision of the board of appeals, or any taxpayer, or any officer, department, board, or bureau of the political subdivision, may present to the superior court a verified petition setting forth that the decision is illegal, in whole or in part, and specifying the grounds of the illegality. Such petition shall be presented to the court within 30 days after the decision is filed in the office of the board. Such petition shall comply with the provisions of G.S. 160A-393.

(b) ~~Upon presentation of such petition the court may allow a writ of certiorari directed to the board of appeals to review such decision of the board.~~The allowance of the writ shall not stay proceedings upon the decision appealed from, but the court may, on application, on notice to the board and on due cause shown, grant a restraining order.

(c) The board of appeals shall not be required to return the original papers acted upon by it, but it shall be sufficient to return certified or sworn copies thereof or of such portions thereof as may be called for by the writ. The return shall concisely set forth such other facts as may be pertinent and material to show the grounds of the decision appealed from and shall be verified.

~~(d) The court shall have exclusive jurisdiction to affirm, modify, or set aside the decision brought up for review, in whole or in part, and if need be, to order further proceedings by the board of appeals. The findings of fact by the board, if supported by substantial evidence, shall be accepted by the court as conclusive, and no objection to a decision of the board shall be considered by the court unless such objection shall have been urged before the board, or if it was not so urged, unless there were reasonable grounds for failure to do so.~~

(e) Costs shall not be allowed against the board of appeals unless it appears to the court that it acted with gross negligence, in bad faith, or with malice, in making the decision appealed from."

SECTION 4. G.S. 162A-93(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) The provisions of subsection (a) shall not apply if the city council adopts an annexation ordinance including an area served by a district and finds, after a public hearing, that adequate fire protection cannot be provided in the area because of the level of available water service. Notice of the public hearing shall be provided by first class mail to each affected customer and by publication in a newspaper having general circulation in the area, each not less than 10 days before the hearing. The clerk's certification of the mailing shall be deemed conclusive in the absence of fraud. Any resident of the annexed area aggrieved by such a finding of the council may file a petition for review in the superior court in the nature of certiorari, within 30 days after the finding. The petition for review in the nature of certiorari shall comply with G.S. 160A-393."

SECTION 5. G.S. 160A-388(e1) reads as rewritten:

"(e1) A member of the board or any other body exercising ~~the functions of a board of adjustment~~quasi-judicial functions pursuant to this Article shall not participate in or vote on any quasi-judicial matter in a manner that would violate affected persons' constitutional rights to an impartial decision maker. Impermissible conflicts include, but are not limited to, a member having a fixed opinion prior to hearing the matter that is not susceptible to change, undisclosed ex parte communications, a close familial, business, or other associational relationship with an affected person, or a financial interest in the outcome of the matter. If an objection is raised to a member's participation and that member does not recuse himself or herself, the remaining members shall by majority vote rule on the objection."

SECTION 6. G.S. 153A-345(e1) reads as rewritten:

"(e1) A member of the board or any other body exercising ~~the functions of a board of adjustment~~quasi-judicial functions pursuant to this Article shall not participate in or vote on any quasi-judicial matter in a manner that would violate affected persons' constitutional rights to an impartial decision maker. Impermissible conflicts include, but are not limited to, a member having a fixed opinion prior to hearing the matter that is not susceptible to change, undisclosed ex parte communications, a close familial, business, or other associational relationship with an affected person, or a financial interest in the outcome of the matter. If an objection is raised to a member's participation and that member does not recuse himself or herself, the remaining members shall by majority vote rule on the objection."

SECTION 7. This act becomes effective January 1, 2010, and applies to appeals filed on or after that date.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO INCREASE THE PENALTY FOR SECOND DEGREE MURDER TO A B1 FELONY.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 14-17 reads as rewritten:

"§ 14-17. Murder in the first and second degree defined; punishment.

A murder which shall be perpetrated by means of a nuclear, biological, or chemical weapon of mass destruction as defined in G.S. 14-288.21, poison, lying in wait, imprisonment, starving, torture, or by any other kind of willful, deliberate, and premeditated killing, or which shall be committed in the perpetration or attempted perpetration of any arson, rape or a sex offense, robbery, kidnapping, burglary, or other felony committed or attempted with the use of a deadly weapon shall be deemed to be murder in the first degree, a Class A felony, and any person who commits such murder shall be punished with death or imprisonment in the State's prison for life without parole as the court shall determine pursuant to G.S. 15A-2000, except that any such person who was under 18 years of age at the time of the murder shall be punished with imprisonment in the State's prison for life without parole. All other kinds of murder, including that which shall be proximately caused by the unlawful distribution of opium or any synthetic or natural salt, compound, derivative, or preparation of opium, or cocaine or other substance described in G.S. 90-90(1)d., or methamphetamine, when the ingestion of such substance causes the death of the user, shall be deemed murder in the second degree, and any person who commits such murder shall be punished as a ~~Class B2 felon.~~Class B1 felon."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective December 1, 2009, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 74:
Increase Penalty/2nd Degree Murder

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	April 2, 2009
Introduced by:	Sen. Jones	Prepared by:	Jennifer McGinnis
Analysis of:	First Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 74 would increase the penalty for second degree murder from a Class B2 felony to a Class B1 felony.

CURRENT LAW: G.S. 14-17 provides that second degree murder is punishable as a Class B2 felony. The presumptive range of the minimum sentence for a Class B2 Felony, assuming no prior convictions, is between 125 and 157 months of active punishment.

BILL ANALYSIS: The bill would increase the penalty for second degree murder from a Class B2 felony to a Class B1 felony. The essential elements of murder in the second degree are that the killing was unlawful and with malice.

The presumptive range of the minimum sentence for a Class B1 Felony, assuming no prior convictions, is between 192 and 240 months of active punishment. Other offenses punishable as Class B1 felonies include first degree rape and first degree sexual offense.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This bill would become effective December 1, 2009, and apply to offenses committed on or after that date.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT AMENDING CHAPTER 95 OF THE GENERAL STATUTES TO PROTECT THE HEALTH AND SAFETY OF CHILDREN BY INCREASING THE PENALTIES FOR VIOLATIONS OF CHILD LABOR LAWS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 95-25.23(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) Any employer who violates the provisions of G.S. 95-25.5 (Youth Employment) or any regulation issued thereunder, shall be subject to a civil penalty not to exceed ~~two hundred fifty dollars ($250.00)~~ five hundred dollars ($500.00) for ~~each violation.~~ the first violation and not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each subsequent violation. In determining the amount of such penalty, the appropriateness of such penalty to the size of the business of the person charged and the gravity of the violation shall be considered. The determination by the Commissioner shall be final, unless within 15 days after receipt of notice thereof by certified mail with return receipt, by signature confirmation as provided by the U.S. Postal Service, by a designated delivery service authorized pursuant to 26 U.S.C. § 7502(f)(2) with delivery receipt, or via hand delivery, the person charged with the violation takes exception to the determination, in which event final determination of the penalty shall be made in an administrative proceeding pursuant to Article 3 of Chapter 150B and in a judicial proceeding pursuant to Article 4 of Chapter 150B."

SECTION 2. G.S. 95-25.15(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Except as otherwise provided in this Article, every employer subject to any provision of this Article shall make, keep, and preserve such records of the persons employed by the ~~employer~~ employer, including the ages of employees, and of the wages, hours, and other conditions and practices of employment which are essential to the enforcement of this Article and are prescribed by regulation of the Commissioner, except that the Commissioner shall have no authority to prescribe records for the State of North Carolina, a city, town, county or other municipality or agency or instrumentality of government."

SECTION 3. G.S. 95-25.23A(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) Any employer who violates the provisions of G.S. 95-25.15(b) or any regulation issued pursuant to G.S. 95-25.15(b), shall be subject to a civil penalty of up to two hundred fifty dollars ($250.00) per employee with the maximum not to exceed ~~one thousand dollars ($1,000)~~ two thousand dollars ($2,000) per investigation by the Commissioner or ~~his~~ the Commissioner's authorized representative. In determining the amount of the penalty, the Commissioner shall ~~consider:~~consider each of the following:

(1) The appropriateness of the penalty for the size of the business of the employer ~~charged; and~~charged.

(2) The gravity of the violation.
(3) Whether the violation involves an employee under 18 years of age.

The determination by the Commissioner shall be final, unless within 15 days after receipt of notice thereof by certified mail with return receipt, by signature confirmation as provided by the U.S. Postal Service, by a designated delivery service authorized pursuant to 26 U.S.C. § 7502(f)(2) with delivery receipt, or via hand delivery, the person charged with the violation takes exception to the determination, in which event final determination of the penalty shall be made in an administrative proceeding pursuant to Article 3 of Chapter 150B and in a judicial proceeding pursuant to Article 4 of Chapter 150B."

SECTION 4. G.S. 95-138 reads as rewritten:

"§ 95-138. Civil penalties.

(a) The Commissioner, upon recommendation of the Director, or the North Carolina Occupational Safety and Health Review Commission in the case of an appeal, shall have the authority to assess penalties against any employer who violates the requirements of this Article, or any standard, rule, or order adopted under this Article, as follows:

(1) A minimum penalty of five thousand dollars ($5,000) to a maximum penalty of seventy thousand dollars ($70,000) may be assessed for each willful or repeat violation.
(1a) A penalty of up to fourteen thousand dollars ($14,000) shall be assessed for each serious violation that involves injury to, or endangerment of, an employee under 18 years of age.
(2) A penalty of up to seven thousand dollars ($7,000) shall be assessed for each serious ~~violation.~~violation that does not involve injury to, or endangerment of, an employee under 18 years of age.
(2a) A penalty of up to seven thousand dollars ($7,000) may be assessed for each violation that is adjudged not to be of a serious nature.
(3) A penalty of up to seven thousand dollars ($7,000) may be assessed against an employer who fails to correct and abate a violation, within the period allowed for its correction and abatement, which period shall not begin to run until the date of the final Order of the Commission in the case of any appeal proceedings in this Article initiated by the employer in good faith and not solely for the delay of avoidance of penalties. The assessment shall be made to apply to each day during which the failure or violation continues.
(4) A penalty of up to seven thousand dollars ($7,000) shall be assessed for violating the posting requirements, as required under the provisions of this Article.

(b) The Commissioner shall adopt uniform standards that the Commissioner, the Commission, and the hearing examiner shall apply when determining appropriateness of the penalty. The following factors shall be used in determining whether a penalty is appropriate:

(1) Size of the business of the employer being charged.
(2) The gravity of the violation.
(3) The good faith of the employer.
(4) The record of previous violations; provided that for purposes of determining repeat violations, only the record within the previous three years is applicable.
(5) Whether the violation involves injury to, or endangerment of, an employee under 18 years of age.

The report of the hearing examiner and the report, decision, or determination of the Commission on appeal shall specify the standards applied in determining the reduction or affirmation of the penalty assessed by the Commissioner.

(c) The clear proceeds of all civil penalties and interest recovered by the Commissioner, together with the costs thereof, shall be remitted to the Civil Penalty and Forfeiture Fund in accordance with G.S. 115C-457.2."

SECTION 5. G.S. 95-139 reads as rewritten:

"§ 95-139. Criminal penalties.

(a) Any employer who willfully violates any standard, rule, regulation or order promulgated pursuant to the authority of this Article, and said violation causes the death of any employee, shall be guilty of a Class 2 misdemeanor, which may include a fine of not more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000); except that if the conviction is for a violation committed after a first conviction of such person, the employer shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor which may include a fine of not more than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000). This section shall not prevent any prosecuting officer of the State of North Carolina from proceeding against such employer on a prosecution charging any degree of willful or culpable homicide. Any person who gives advance notice of any inspection to be conducted under this Article, without authority from the Commissioner, Director, or any of their agents to whom such authority has been delegated, shall be guilty of a Class 2 misdemeanor. Whoever knowingly makes any false statement, representation, or certification in any application, record, report, plan, or any other document filed or required to be maintained pursuant to this Article, shall be guilty of a Class 2 misdemeanor, which may include a fine of not more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000). Whoever shall commit any kind of assault upon or whoever kills a person engaged in or on account of the performance of investigative, inspection, or law-enforcement functions shall be subject to prosecution under the general criminal laws of the State and upon such charges as the proper prosecuting officer shall charge or allege.

(b) Any employer who willfully violates any standard, rule, regulation, or order promulgated pursuant to the authority of this Article, and the violation causes the death of any employee under 18 years of age, shall be guilty of a Class 2 misdemeanor, which may include a fine of not more than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000); except that if the conviction is for a subsequent violation committed after a first conviction of such person under this section, the employer shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor which may include a fine of not more than forty thousand dollars ($40,000). This section shall not prevent any prosecuting officer of the State of North Carolina from proceeding against such employer on a prosecution charging any degree of willful or culpable homicide. Any person who gives advance notice of any inspection to be conducted under this Article, without authority from the Commissioner, Director, or any of their agents to whom such authority has been delegated, shall be guilty of a Class 2 misdemeanor. Whoever knowingly makes any false statement, representation, or certification in any application, record, report, plan, or any other document filed or required to be maintained pursuant to this Article, and pertaining to an employee under 18 years of age, shall be guilty of a Class 2 misdemeanor, which may include a fine of not more than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000)."

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO AMEND THE CRIME VICTIMS COMPENSATION ACT TO PROVIDE THAT CRIMINALLY INJURIOUS CONDUCT INCLUDES BOTH FELONY AND MISDEMEANOR DEATH BY VEHICLE AND TO PROVIDE THAT ECONOMIC LOSS FOR WHICH COMPENSATION MAY BE AWARDED INCLUDES THE COST OF GRIEF COUNSELING FOR THE SPOUSE AND CHILDREN OF THE DECEASED VICTIM.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 15B-2(5) reads as rewritten:

"(5) "Criminally injurious conduct" means conduct that by its nature poses a substantial threat of personal injury or death, and is punishable by fine or imprisonment or death, or would be so punishable but for the fact that the person engaging in the conduct lacked the capacity to commit the crime under the laws of this State. Criminally injurious conduct includes conduct that amounts to an offense involving impaired driving as defined in G.S. 20-4.01(24a), and conduct that amounts to a violation of G.S. 20-166 if the victim was a pedestrian or was operating a vehicle moved solely by human power or a mobility impairment device. For purposes of this Article, a mobility impairment device is a device that is designed for and intended to be used as a means of transportation for a person with a mobility impairment, is suitable for use both inside and outside a building, and whose maximum speed does not exceed 12 miles per hour when the device is being operated by a person with a mobility impairment. Criminally injurious conduct includes the offenses of felony and misdemeanor death by vehicle under G.S. 20-141.4, but does not include any other conduct arising out of the ownership, maintenance, or use of a motor vehicle when the conduct is punishable only as a violation of other provisions of Chapter 20 of the General Statutes. Criminally injurious conduct shall also include an act of terrorism, as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2331, that is committed outside of the United States against a citizen of this State."

SECTION 2. G.S. 15B-2(10) reads as rewritten:

"(10) "Economic loss" means economic detriment consisting only of allowable expense, work loss, replacement services loss, and household support loss. If criminally injurious conduct causes death, economic loss includes a dependent's economic loss and a dependent's replacement service ~~loss.~~ loss, and also includes the cost of grief counseling for the spouse and children of the deceased victim. Noneconomic detriment is not economic loss, but economic loss may be caused by pain and suffering or physical impairment."

SECTION 3. This act becomes effective July 1, 2009, and applies to pending claims and claims filed on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 403:
Victims Compensation Amendment

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Ref to Judiciary II. If fav, re-ref to Appropriations/Base Budget	Date:	April 1, 2009
Introduced by:	Sen. Berger of Franklin	Prepared by:	Brenda J. Carter Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition S403-CSRV-14

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 403 would amend the Crime Victims Compensation Act to allow for the payment of compensation to families of victims of both felony and misdemeanor death by vehicle. It would also allow compensation for the cost of grief counseling for the spouse and children of a deceased victim; the proposed committee substitute adds a $1,000,000 appropriation to cover those costs.

CURRENT LAW: Under the North Carolina Crime Victims Compensation Act (Chapter 15B of the General Statutes), a person may be reimbursed for economic loss suffered as a result of being an innocent victim of certain crimes committed in this State. Compensation may be awarded for victims of conduct that by its nature poses a substantial threat of personal injury or death, including: acts of terrorism. Victims may be compensated for economic loss including:

- Medical care, rehabilitation, medically-related property, and other remedial treatment and care.
- Loss of income from work.
- Expenses reasonably incurred in obtaining ordinary and necessary services in lieu of those the injured person would have performed for himself or his family.
- In the case of an unemployed victim whose spouse is the offender, the loss of support that a victim would have received from the victim's spouse for the purpose of maintaining a home or residence for the victim and the victim's dependents.
- In the case of a victim's death, up to $5,000) for funeral expenses.

Most motor vehicle violations are not offenses for which a victim is eligible for compensation. The exceptions are offenses involving impaired driving, and hit-and-run offenses where the victim is a pedestrian, cyclist, or a person on a mobility impairment device.

BILL ANALYSIS: Because felony death by vehicle involves impaired driving, families of victims of felony death by vehicle are eligible to apply for compensation under current law; Section 1 of the bill would make families of victims of misdemeanor death by vehicle also eligible to apply for compensation. A person commits the offense of misdemeanor death by vehicle if:

(1) The person unintentionally causes the death of another person,
(2) The person was engaged in the violation of any State law or local ordinance applying to the operation or use of a vehicle or to the regulation of traffic, other than impaired driving, and
(3) The commission of the offense is the proximate cause of the death.

Section 2 of the bill would allow compensation for the cost of grief counseling for the spouse and children of a deceased victim.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The bill would become effective July 1, 2009 and apply to pending claims and to claims filed on or after that date.

Cost to Victims Compensation Program

Most counselors do not do group or family grief counseling stating because of the different ages in the family (child, adolescent and adult). Each individual has a different perspective of death; therefore each person would need to be seen separately.

Even though there is no way to forecast the exact number of eligible victim family members that would apply for grief counseling benefit, the following information is based on motor vehicles deaths reported by the State Highway Patrol and research that the average immediate family consist of four.

DOES NOT INCLUDE VEHICLE DEATHS REPORTED BY POLICE DEPARTMENTS

Counselors recommend one session per week for first 12 weeks and bi-weekly for the rest of the year. Total of 12+ 16 = 28 sessions
Average cost of counseling session

Intake - $110 - $165 (average cost $137.50)
Session- $100 -$125 (average cost $112.50)
Total cost 28 x $112.50 = $3,150 + $137.50 = $3,287.50
28 sessions per family member $3,287.50
28 sessions per family $3,287.50

182 average Felony and Misdemeanor death by vehicle per year reported by SHP.

For one family member based on SHP = 182 x $3,287.50 = $598,325
For an average family (mother, 2 children) 3 x $3,287.50 = $1,794,975

In fiscal year 2007/2008, NC paid funeral expenses for 257 homicides in NC totaling $1,128,657.

Grief counseling for families of homicide victims:
257 x 3 family members = 771.
771 x $3,287.50 = $2,534,662.50

$2,534,662.50 + $1,794,975 = $4,329,637.50 in additional funding for grief counseling.

If S403 is enacted into law, economic loss would now include misdemeanor death by vehicle so an additional 182 potential victims would be eligible for $30,000 in medical expenses and an additional $5,000 in funeral cost. The cost for grief counseling and the economic loss combined could potentially be a total cost of $10,699,637.50.

Potential Total cost: $10,699,637.50

While I certainly agree that grief counseling would be a wonderful benefit for families who have lost loved ones caused by felony and misdemeanor death by vehicle, the Crime Victims Compensation Program would go into a huge back log without the additional funding.

By statute a victim means a person who suffers personal injury or death proximately caused by criminally injurious conduct.

(5) Criminally injurious conduct" means conduct that by its nature poses a substantial threat of personal injury or death, and is punishable by fine or imprisonment or death, or would be so punishable but for the fact that the person engaging in the conduct lacked the capacity to commit the crime under the laws of this State. Criminally injurious conduct includes conduct that amounts to an offense involving impaired driving as defined in G.S. 20-4.01(24a), and conduct that amounts to a violation of G.S. 20-166 if the victim was a pedestrian or was operating a vehicle moved solely by human power or a mobility impairment device. For purposes of this Article, a mobility impairment device is a device that is designed for and intended to be used as a means of transportation for a person with a mobility impairment, is suitable for use both inside and outside a building, and whose maximum speed does not exceed 12 miles per hour when the device is being operated by a person with a mobility impairment. Criminally injurious conduct does not include conduct arising out of the ownership, maintenance, or use of a motor vehicle when the conduct is punishable only as a violation of other provisions of Chapter 20 of the General Statutes. Criminally injurious conduct shall also include an act of terrorism, as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2331, that is committed outside of the United States against a citizen of this State.

Misdemeanor Death by Vehicle – A person commits the offense of misdemeanor death by vehicle if:

1. The person unintentionally causes the death of another person.
2. The person was engaged in the violation of any State law or local ordinance applying to the operation or use of a vehicle or to the regulations of traffic, other than impaired driving
3. The commission of the offense in subdivision is the proximate cause of the death.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT AMENDING CHAPTER 95 OF THE GENERAL STATUTES TO PROTECT THE HEALTH AND SAFETY OF CHILDREN BY INCREASING THE PENALTIES FOR VIOLATIONS OF CHILD LABOR LAWS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 95-25.23(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) Any employer who violates the provisions of G.S. 95-25.5 (Youth Employment) or any regulation issued thereunder, shall be subject to a civil penalty not to exceed ~~two hundred fifty dollars ($250.00)~~ five hundred dollars ($500.00) for ~~each violation.~~ the first violation and not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each subsequent violation. In determining the amount of such penalty, the appropriateness of such penalty to the size of the business of the person charged and the gravity of the violation shall be considered. The determination by the Commissioner shall be final, unless within 15 days after receipt of notice thereof by certified mail with return receipt, by signature confirmation as provided by the U.S. Postal Service, by a designated delivery service authorized pursuant to 26 U.S.C. § 7502(f)(2) with delivery receipt, or via hand delivery, the person charged with the violation takes exception to the determination, in which event final determination of the penalty shall be made in an administrative proceeding pursuant to Article 3 of Chapter 150B and in a judicial proceeding pursuant to Article 4 of Chapter 150B."

SECTION 2. G.S. 95-25.15(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Except as otherwise provided in this Article, every employer subject to any provision of this Article shall make, keep, and preserve such records of the persons employed by the ~~employer~~ employer, including the ages of employees, and of the wages, hours, and other conditions and practices of employment which are essential to the enforcement of this Article and are prescribed by regulation of the Commissioner, except that the Commissioner shall have no authority to prescribe records for the State of North Carolina, a city, town, county or other municipality or agency or instrumentality of government."

SECTION 3. G.S. 95-25.23A(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) Any employer who violates the provisions of G.S. 95-25.15(b) or any regulation issued pursuant to G.S. 95-25.15(b), shall be subject to a civil penalty of up to two hundred fifty dollars ($250.00) per employee with the maximum not to exceed ~~one thousand dollars ($1,000)~~ two thousand dollars ($2,000) per investigation by the Commissioner or ~~his~~ the Commissioner's authorized representative. In determining the amount of the penalty, the Commissioner shall ~~consider:~~consider each of the following:

(1) The appropriateness of the penalty for the size of the business of the employer ~~charged; and~~charged.

(2) The gravity of the violation.

(3) Whether the violation involves an employee under 18 years of age.

The determination by the Commissioner shall be final, unless within 15 days after receipt of notice thereof by certified mail with return receipt, by signature confirmation as provided by the U.S. Postal Service, by a designated delivery service authorized pursuant to 26 U.S.C. § 7502(f)(2) with delivery receipt, or via hand delivery, the person charged with the violation takes exception to the determination, in which event final determination of the penalty shall be made in an administrative proceeding pursuant to Article 3 of Chapter 150B and in a judicial proceeding pursuant to Article 4 of Chapter 150B."

SECTION 4. G.S. 95-138(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) The Commissioner shall adopt uniform standards that the Commissioner, the Commission, and the hearing examiner shall apply when determining appropriateness of the penalty. The following factors shall be used in determining whether a penalty is appropriate:

(1) Size of the business of the employer being charged.
(2) The gravity of the violation.
(3) The good faith of the employer.
(4) The record of previous violations; provided that for purposes of determining repeat violations, only the record within the previous three years is applicable.
(5) Whether the violation involves injury to an employee under 18 years of age.

The report of the hearing examiner and the report, decision, or determination of the Commission on appeal shall specify the standards applied in determining the reduction or affirmation of the penalty assessed by the Commissioner."

SECTION 5. G.S. 95-139 reads as rewritten:

"§ 95-139. Criminal penalties.

(a) Any employer who willfully violates any standard, rule, regulation or order promulgated pursuant to the authority of this Article, and ~~said~~ the violation causes the death of any ~~employee,~~ employee 18 years of age or older, shall be guilty of a Class 2 misdemeanor, which may include a fine of not more than ten thousand dollars ~~($10,000); except that if the conviction is for a violation committed after a first conviction of such person, the employer shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor which may include a fine of not more than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000).~~ ($10,000).

(b) Any employer who willfully violates any standard, rule, regulation, or order promulgated pursuant to the authority of this Article, and the violation causes the death of any employee under 18 years of age, shall be guilty of a Class 2 misdemeanor, which may include a fine of not more than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000).

(c) If an employer is convicted of more than one violation of subsection (a) or (b) of this section, the subsequent violation shall be penalized as follows:

(1) The employer shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor which may include a fine of not more than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) if the subsequent violation results in the death of an employee 18 years of age or older.
(2) The employer shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor which may include a fine of not more than forty thousand dollars ($40,000) if the subsequent violation results in the death of an employee under 18 years of age.

(d) This section shall not prevent any prosecuting officer of the State of North Carolina from proceeding against such employer on a prosecution charging any degree of willful or culpable homicide. Any person who gives advance notice of any inspection to be conducted under this Article, without authority from the Commissioner, Director, or any of their agents to whom such authority has been delegated, shall be guilty of a Class 2 misdemeanor.

(e) Whoever knowingly makes any false statement, representation, or certification in any application, record, report, plan, or any other document filed or required to be maintained pursuant to this Article, shall be guilty of a Class 2 misdemeanor, which may include a fine of

(i) not more than ten thousand dollars ~~($10,000).~~($10,000) for falsifications pertaining to employees 18 years of age or older or (ii) not more than twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) for falsifications pertaining to employees under 18 years of age.

(f) Whoever shall commit any kind of assault upon or whoever kills a person engaged in or on account of the performance of investigative, inspection, or law-enforcement functions shall be subject to prosecution under the general criminal laws of the State and upon such charges as the proper prosecuting officer shall charge or allege."

SECTION 6. This act becomes effective December 1, 2009, and applies to violations occurring or offenses committed on or after that date.

HOUSE BILL 23:
Strengthen Child Labor Violation Penalties

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	April 2, 2009
Introduced by:	Rep Weiss, Luebke, Bryant, Goodwin	Prepared by:	Jeff Hudson
Analysis of:	Second Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 23 would increase the penalties for violations of child labor laws.

[As introduced, this bill was identical to S277, as introduced by Sen. Berger of Franklin, which is currently in Senate Judiciary II.]

CURRENT LAW:

Article 2A of Chapter 95 of the General Statutes is the Wage and Hour Act. The Act is enforced by the Commissioner of Labor and governs wage levels, hours of labor, and the well being of minors. The Act contains a number of restrictions regarding when and how a youth may be employed. It provides a civil penalty not to exceed $250 for each violation of the youth employment provisions. It also requires employers to make and keep records of wages, hours, and other conditions and practices of employment. Violations of these requirements result in civil penalties of up to $250 per employee with a maximum of $1,000 per investigation.

Article 16 of Chapter 95 of the General Statutes is the Occupational Safety and Health Act of North Carolina (OSHA). OSHA is administered by the Commissioner of Labor and is designed to ensure safe conditions for workers. OSHA contains the following civil and criminal penalties:

- Willfully violating a standard promulgated under OSHA and causing the death of any employee is a Class 2 misdemeanor, which may include a fine of not more than $10,000. A subsequent violation would be a Class 1 misdemeanor, which could include a fine of not more than $20,000.
- Making a false statement in a document is a Class 2 misdemeanor which may include a fine of not more than $10,000.

The penalties set out above for the Wage and Hour Act and OSHA do not take into consideration the age of the worker.

BILL ANALYSIS:

House Bill 23 would make the following changes to the Wage and Hour Act:

Violations Regarding Youth Employment:

- Increases the civil penalty for violations regarding youth employment to $500 for the first violation (was $250).
- Provides that fines for each subsequent violation cannot exceed $1,000.

Maintaining Records:

- Requires employers to maintain records of the ages of employees.
- Increases the maximum civil penalty per investigation for violations regarding employer's records of employees to $2,000 (was $1,000).
- Clarifies that in determining the amount of the penalty, the Commissioner of Labor must consider whether the violation involves an employee less than 18 years of age.

House Bill 23 would make the following changes to OSHA:

Civil Penalties:

- Provides that when determining whether a penalty is appropriate, the Commissioner of Labor must consider, in addition to other factors, whether the violation involves injury to an employee less than 18 years of age.

Criminal Penalties: The bill would not change the offense class, but would create differences regarding the amount of fines that may be imposed as follows:

- First violation – Willfully violating a standard promulgated under OSHA and causing the death of an employee:
  - If the employee is 18 years of age or older – Class 2 misdemeanor which may include a fine of up to $10,000.
  - If the employee is less than 18 years of age – Class 2 misdemeanor which may include a fine of up to $20,000.
- Subsequent violations – If an employer is convicted of a willful violation that results in the death of any person, the subsequent violation is penalized as follows:
  - If the subsequent violation leads to the death of someone 18 years of age or older- Class 1 misdemeanor which may include a fine of up to $20,000.
  - If the subsequent violation results in the death of an employee less than 18 years of age- Class 1 misdemeanor which may include a fine of up to $40,000.
- False statements in documents –
  - Falsifications pertaining to employees 18 years of age or older-Class 2 misdemeanor, which may include a fine of up to $10,000.
  - Falsifications pertaining to employees less than 18 years of age-Class 2 misdemeanor, which may include a fine of up to $20,000.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act becomes effective December 1, 2009, and applies to violations occurring or offenses committed on or after that date.

Brad Krehely, counsel to House Judiciary II, substantially contributed to this summary.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO AMEND THE PRIVATE PROTECTIVE SERVICES ACT.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 74C-3(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) As used in this Chapter, the term "private protective services profession" means and includes the following:

(1) Armored car profession. – Any person, firm, association, or corporation which for a fee or other valuable consideration provides secured transportation and protection from one place or point to another place or point of money, currency, coins, bullion, securities, checks, documents, stocks, bonds, jewelry, paintings, and other valuables. This definition does not include a person operating an armored car business pursuant to a motor carrier certificate or permit issued by the North Carolina Utilities Commission which grants operating rights for such business; however, armed armored car service guards shall be subject to the provisions of G.S. 74C-13.

(2) Repealed by Session Laws 1983, c. 786, s. 2.

(3) Redesignated as (a)(5a) by Revisor of Statutes. See Editor's notes.

(4) Courier service profession. – Any person, firm, association, or corporation which for a fee or other valuable consideration transports or offers to transport from one place or point to another place or point documents, papers, maps, stocks, bonds, checks, or other small items of value which require expeditious services. Armed courier service guards shall be subject to the provisions of G.S. 74C-13.

(5) Detection of deception examiner. – Any person, firm, association, or corporation which uses any device or instrument, regardless of its name or design, for the purpose of the detection of deception or any person who reviews the work product of an examiner including charts, tapes or other methods of record keeping for the purpose of detecting deception or determining accuracy.

(5a) Digital forensics examiner. – Any person who, on a contractual basis, engages in the practice of conducting examinations of digitally stored data to recover, image, analyze, or examine the data by using specialized software to determine responsibility or reconstruct usage of the data. However, a digital forensics examiner shall not include any of the following:

a. An accountant.

b. A person employed to conduct network security operations regarding network security violations.

c. A member of a network security compromise response team.

d. A person who analyzes computer or digital storage media for the purpose of upgrading, maintaining, or repairing the system.

e. A person who uses utilities proprietary to the examined device to recover data without the use of additional software, such as cellular telephone call information.

f. Any other computer or digital media technician who is not conducting imaging, analysis, or other activities under this subdivision.

g. An officer, employee, or agent of the United States, this State, or any political subdivision while the officer, employee, or agent is engaged in the performance of his or her official duties within the course and scope of his or her employment.

~~(5a)~~(5b) Electronic countermeasures profession. – Any person, firm, association, or corporation which for a fee or other valuable consideration discovers, locates, or disengages by electronic, electrical, or mechanical means any listening or other monitoring equipment surreptitiously placed to gather information concerning any individual, firm, association, or corporation.

~~(6) Security guard and patrol profession. – Any person, firm, association, or corporation that provides a security guard on a contractual basis for another person, firm, association, or corporation for a fee or other valuable consideration and performs one or more of the following functions:~~

~~a. Prevention or detection of intrusion, entry, larceny, vandalism, abuse, fire, or trespass on private property.~~

~~b. Prevention, observation, or detection of any unauthorized activity on private property.~~

~~c. Protection of patrons and persons lawfully authorized to be on the premises or being escorted between premises of the person, firm, association, or corporation that entered into the contract for security services.~~

~~d. Control, regulation, or direction of the flow or movement of the public, whether by vehicle or otherwise, only to the extent and for the time directly and specifically required to assure the protection of properties.~~

(7) Guard dog service profession. – Any person, firm, association, or corporation which for a fee or other valuable consideration contracts with another person, firm, association, or corporation to place, lease, rent, or sell a trained dog for the purpose of protecting lives or property.

(8) Private detective or private investigator. – Any person who engages in the profession of or accepts employment to furnish, agrees to make, or makes inquiries or investigations concerning any of the following on a contractual basis:

a. Crimes or wrongs done or threatened against the United States or any state or territory of the United States.

b. The identity, habits, conduct, business, occupation, honesty, integrity, credibility, knowledge, trustworthiness, efficiency, loyalty, activity, movement, whereabouts, affiliations, associations, transactions, acts, reputation, or character of any person.

c. The location, disposition, or recovery of lost or stolen property.

d. The cause or responsibility for fires, libels, losses, accidents, damages, or injuries to persons or to properties.
e. Securing evidence to be used before any court, board, officer, or investigative committee.
f. Protection of individuals from serious bodily harm or death.

(8a) Security guard and patrol profession. – Any person, firm, association, or corporation that provides a security guard on a contractual basis for another person, firm, association, or corporation for a fee or other valuable consideration and performs one or more of the following functions:
a. Prevention or detection of intrusion, entry, larceny, vandalism, abuse, fire, or trespass on private property.
b. Prevention, observation, or detection of any unauthorized activity on private property.
c. Protection of patrons and persons lawfully authorized to be on the premises or being escorted between premises of the person, firm, association, or corporation that entered into the contract for security services.
d. Control, regulation, or direction of the flow or movement of the public, whether by vehicle or otherwise, only to the extent and for the time directly and specifically required to assure the protection of properties.

(9) Special limited guard and patrol profession. – Any person who is licensed under Chapter 74D of the General Statutes of North Carolina and provides armed alarm responders pursuant to G.S. 74C-13. Applicants for this limited license shall not be required to meet the experience requirements for a security guard and patrol license. Any experience gained under this limited license shall not be counted as experience for a security guard and patrol license."

SECTION 2. G.S. 74C-3(b)(13) reads as rewritten:

"(b) "Private protective services" shall not include any of the following:

...

(13) A person who works regularly and exclusively as an employee of an employer in connection with the business affairs of that employer. ~~If the employee is an armed security guard and wears, carries, or possesses a firearm in the performance of the employee's duties, the provisions of G.S. 74C-13 apply.~~ However, the provisions of this Chapter shall apply if: (i) the employee is an armed security guard who wears, carries, or possesses a firearm in the performance of the employee's duties; or (ii) the person is an armed or unarmed security guard at an establishment that sells alcohol. The term 'establishment' shall include an eating establishment, a private club, or a restaurant as defined in G.S. 18B-1000.

...."

SECTION 3. G.S. 74C-7 reads as rewritten:

"§ 74C-7. Investigative powers of the Attorney General.

The Attorney General for the State of North Carolina shall have the power to investigate or cause to be investigated any complaints, allegations, or suspicions of wrongdoing or violations of this Chapter involving individuals licensed, or to be licensed, under this Chapter. Any investigation conducted pursuant to this section is deemed confidential and is not subject to review under G.S. 132-1. However, the report may be released to the licensee after the investigation is complete but before the report is presented to the Board."

SECTION 4. G.S. 74C-8(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) (1) A business entity other than a sole proprietorship shall not do business under this Chapter unless the business entity has in its employ a designated resident qualifying agent who meets the requirements for a license issued under this Chapter and who is, in fact, licensed under the provisions of this Chapter, unless otherwise approved by the Board. Provided however, that this approval shall not be given unless the business entity has and continuously maintains in this State a registered agent who shall be an individual resident in this State. Service upon the registered agent appointed by the business entity of any process, notice, or demand required by or permitted to be served upon the business entity by the Private Protective Services Board shall be binding upon the business entity and the licensee. Nothing herein contained shall limit or affect the right to serve any process, notice, or demand required or permitted by law to be served upon a business entity in any other manner now or hereafter permitted by law.

(2) For the purposes of the Chapter a qualifying agent means an individual in a management position who is licensed under this Chapter and whose name and address have been registered with the Director.

(3) In the event that the qualifying agent upon whom the business entity relies in order to do business ceases to perform his duties as qualifying agent, the business entity shall notify the Director within 10 working days. The business entity must obtain a substitute qualifying agent within 30 days after the original qualifying agent ceases to serve as qualifying agent unless for good cause: (i) the Board, in its discretion, ~~extends this period, for good cause, for a~~ extends the period of time not to exceed three ~~months.~~months; or (ii) following petition by an applicant and a hearing by the Board, the Board extends the period of time not to exceed six months.

(4) The certificate authorizing the business entity to engage in a private protective services profession shall list the name of at least one designated qualifying agent. No licensee shall serve as the qualifying agent for more than one business entity without prior approval of the Director, subject to the approval of the Board.

(5) The Department of Justice may provide a criminal record check to the Private Protective Services Board for a person who has applied for a new or renewal license, registration, certification, or permit through the Private Protective Services Board. The Board shall provide to the Department of Justice, along with the request, the fingerprints of ~~the applicant,~~a new applicant, and the Department of Justice shall provide a criminal record check based upon the applicant's fingerprints. The Board may request a criminal record check from the Department of Justice for a renewal applicant based upon the applicant's fingerprints in accordance with policy adopted by the Board. The Board shall provide any additional information required by the Department of Justice, and a form signed by the applicant consenting to the check of the criminal record and to the use of the fingerprints and other identifying information required by the State or national repositories. The applicant's fingerprints shall be forwarded to the State Bureau of Investigation for a search of the State's criminal history record file, and the State Bureau of Investigation shall forward a set of the fingerprints to the Federal Bureau of Investigation for a national criminal history check. The Board shall keep all information pursuant to this subdivision privileged, in accordance with applicable State law and federal guidelines, and the information shall be confidential and shall not be a public record under Chapter 132 of the General Statutes.

The Department of Justice may charge each applicant a fee for conducting the checks of criminal history records authorized by this subdivision."

SECTION 5. G.S. 74C-8(f) reads as rewritten:

"(f) Upon a finding that the application is in proper form, the completion of the background investigation, and the completion of an examination required by the Board, the Director shall submit to the Board the application and his recommendations. Upon completion of the background investigation, the Director may in his discretion issue a temporary license pending approval of the application by the Board at the next regularly scheduled meeting. The Board shall determine whether to approve or deny the application for a license. Upon approval by the Board, a license will be issued to the applicant upon payment by the applicant of the initial license fee and the required contribution to the Private Protective Services ~~Recovery~~ Education Fund, and certificate of liability insurance."

SECTION 6. G.S. 74C-9(e) reads as rewritten:

"(e) The Board is authorized to charge reasonable application and license fees as follows:

(1) A nonrefundable initial application fee in an amount not to exceed one hundred fifty dollars ($150.00);

(2) A new or renewal license fee in an amount not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250.00) per year of the license term;

(3) A new or renewal trainee permit fee in an amount not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250.00) per year of the license term;

(4) A new or renewal fee for each license or duplicate license in addition to the basic license referred to in subsection (2) in an amount not to exceed fifty dollars ~~($50.00);~~($50.00) per year of the license term;

(5) A late renewal fee to be paid within 90 days from the date the license expires in addition to the renewal fee due in an amount not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100.00), if the ~~license~~ license, registration, permit, or certification has not been renewed on or before the expiration date of the ~~licensee;~~license, registration, permit, or certification;

(6) A new, renewal, replacement or reissuance fee for an unarmed registration identification card in an amount not to exceed thirty dollars ($30.00);

(7) An application fee for a firearm registration permit not to exceed fifty dollars ($50.00);

(8) A new, renewal, replacement, or reissuance fee for a firearm registration permit not to exceed thirty dollars ($30.00);

(9) An application fee for certification as a certified trainer not to exceed fifty dollars ($50.00);

(10) A renewal or replacement fee for certified trainer certification not to exceed twenty-five dollars ($25.00);

(11) A new nonresident temporary permit fee not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100.00);

(12) An unarmed registration transfer fee not to exceed fifteen dollars ($15.00);

(13) A branch office license fee not to exceed fifty dollars ~~($50.00); and~~($50.00) per year of the license term;

(14) A special limited guard and patrol license fee not to exceed one hundred dollars ~~($100.00).~~($100.00) per year of the license term; and

(15) A correctable error fee not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100.00) for each subsequent filing of an application following review and rejection of the initial application.

Except as provided in G.S. 74C-13(k), all fees collected pursuant to this section shall be expended, under the direction of the Board, for the purpose of defraying the expenses of administering this Chapter."

SECTION 7. G.S. 74C-11(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) All licensees may employ unarmed security guards as probationary employees for 20 consecutive calendar days. Upon completion of the probationary period and the desire of the licensee to hire an unarmed security guard as a regular employee, the licensee shall register the employee who will be engaged in providing private protective services covered by this Chapter with the Board within 30 days after the probationary employment period ends, unless the Director, in the Director's discretion, extends the time period, for good cause. Before a probationary employee engages in private protective services, the employee shall complete any training requirements, and the licensee shall conduct a criminal record check on the employee, as the Board deems appropriate. The licensee shall submit a list of the probationary employees to the Director on a monthly basis. The list shall include the name, address, social security number, and dates of employment of the employees.

To register an employee after the probationary period ends, a licensee must give the Board the following:

(1) Set(s) of classifiable fingerprints on standard F.B.I. applicant cards; recent photograph(s) of acceptable quality for identification; and

(2) Statements of any criminal records obtained from the appropriate authority in each area where the employee has resided within the immediately preceding 48 months."

SECTION 8. G.S. 74C-12(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) The Board may, after compliance with Chapter 150B of the General Statutes, deny, suspend or revoke a license, registration, or permit issued under this Chapter if it is determined that the applicant, licensee, registrant, or permit holder has done any of the following acts:

(1) Made any false statement or given any false information in connection with any application for a license, registration, or permit or for the renewal or reinstatement of a license, registration, or permit.

(2) Violated any provision of this Chapter.

(3) Violated any rule adopted by the Board pursuant to the authority contained in this Chapter.

(4) Repealed by Session Laws 1989, c. 759, s. 10.

(5) Impersonated or permitted or aided and abetted any other person to impersonate a law enforcement officer of the United States, this State, any other state, or any political subdivision of a state.

(6) Engaged in or permitted any employee to engage in a private protective services profession when not lawfully in possession of a valid license issued under the provisions of this Chapter.

(7) Willfully failed or refused to render to a client service as agreed between the parties and for which compensation has been paid or tendered in accordance with the agreement of the parties.

(8) Knowingly made any false report to the employer or client for whom information is being obtained.

(9) Committed an unlawful breaking or entering, assault, battery, or kidnapping.

(10) Knowingly violated or advised, encouraged, or assisted the violation of any court order or injunction in the course of business as a licensee.

(11) Repealed by Session Laws 1989, c. 759, s. 10.

(12) Undertaken to give legal advice or counsel or to in any way falsely represent that he or she is representing any attorney or he or she is appearing or will appear as an attorney in any legal proceeding.

(13) Issued, delivered, or uttered any simulation of process of any nature which might lead a person or persons to believe that such simulation – written, printed, or typed – may be a summons, warrant, writ or court process, or any pleading in any court proceeding.

(14) Failed to make the required contribution to the Private Protective Services ~~Recovery~~ Education Fund or failed to maintain the certificate of liability insurance required by this Chapter.

(15) Violated the firearm provisions set forth in this Chapter.

(16) Repealed by Session Laws 1989, c. 759, s. 10.

(17) Failed to notify the Director by a business entity other than a sole proprietorship licensed pursuant to this Chapter of the cessation of employment of the business entity's qualifying agent within the time set forth in this Chapter.

(18) Failed to obtain a substitute qualifying agent by a business entity within 30 days after its qualifying agent has ceased to serve as the business entity's qualifying agent.

(19) Been judged incompetent by a court having jurisdiction under Chapter 35A or former Chapter 35 of the General Statutes or committed to a mental health facility for treatment of mental illness, as defined in G.S. 122C-3, by a court under G.S. 122C-271.

(20) Failed or refused to offer a report to a client within 30 days of the client's written request after the client has paid for services rendered.

(21) Been previously denied a license, registration, or permit under this Chapter or previously had a license, registration, or permit revoked for cause. The denial or revocation shall include a principal in the applicant's business.

(22) Engaged in a private protective services profession under a name other than the name under which the license was obtained under the provisions of this Chapter.

(23) Divulged to any person, except as required by law, any information acquired by the license holder except at the direction of the employer or client for whom the information was obtained. A licensee may divulge to any law enforcement officer or district attorney or district attorney's representative any information the law enforcement officer may require to investigate a criminal offense with the prior approval and consent of the client.

(24) Fraudulently held himself or herself out as employed by or licensed by the State Bureau of Investigation or any other governmental authority.

(25) Intemperate habits or lacks good moral character. The acts that are prima facie evidence of intemperate habits or lack of good moral character under G.S. 74C-8(d)(2) are prima facie evidence of the same under this subdivision.

(26) Advertised or solicited business using a name other than that in which the license was issued.

(27) Worn, carried, or accepted any badge or shield purporting to indicate that the person is a law enforcement officer while licensed under the provisions of this Chapter as a private investigator.

(28) Possessed or displayed a badge or shield while providing private protective services that was not designed and approved by the Board pursuant to G.S. 74C-5(12).

(29) Failed or refused to reasonably cooperate with the Board or its agents during an investigation of any complaint, allegation, suspicion of wrongdoing, or violation of this Chapter.

(30) Failed to properly make any disclosure to the Board or provide documents or information required by this Chapter or rules adopted by the Board.

(31) Engaged in conduct constituting dereliction of duty or otherwise deceived, defrauded, or harmed the public in the course of professional activities or services.

(32) Demonstrated a lack of financial responsibility."

SECTION 9. G.S. 74C-12(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) The following persons may not be issued a ~~license, registration, or permit~~license under this Chapter:

(1) A sworn court official.

(2) A holder of a company police commission under Chapter 74E of the General Statutes."

SECTION 10. G.S. 74C-13(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) It shall be unlawful for any person performing private protective services duties to carry a firearm in the performance of those duties without first having met the qualifications of this section and having been issued a firearm registration permit by the Board. A licensee shall register any individual carrying a firearm within 30 days of employment. Before engaging in any private protective services activity, the individual shall receive any required training prescribed by the Board."

SECTION 11. G.S. 74C-14 is repealed.

SECTION 12. G.S. 74C-21(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) No law enforcement officer of the United States, this State, any other state, or any political subdivision of a state shall be licensed as a private ~~detective~~detective, digital forensics examiner, or security guard and patrol licensee under this Chapter."

SECTION 13. Chapter 74C of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 74C-23. Acquisition or change of ownership or control of licensed firm, association, or corporation.

In the event a company, firm, or corporation, including a limited liability corporation, licensed under this Chapter transfers ownership, control, or a majority of assets to another person, firm, association, or corporation, the person, firm, association, or corporation acquiring control or ownership shall have the following responsibilities:

(1) Notify the Director of the acquisition or change of ownership or control by registered mail within five business days from the date of the transaction.

(2) Describe the transaction that has occurred by providing the following information:

a. The name and address of the registered agent of the party acquiring control or ownership or otherwise succeeding the licensee.

b. The name and address of the acquiring party, including each individual owner of any interest in the party or, if the party is a corporation, each officer of the corporation and member of the board of directors.

c. Any change in location of any branch office.

d. Any change in insurance or bonding limits.

(3) Return to the Director all licenses held by the licensee within five business days from the date of the transaction if the acquiring party does not continue to operate the business under its previous name and license.

(4) Provide to the Director within 60 calendar days from the date of the transaction the following:

a. A list of all registrants or licensees affected by the transaction.

b. Written confirmation of completion of any changes necessary for the acquiring party to comply with the requirements of this Chapter or any applicable rules adopted by the Board on a form approved by the Director."

SECTION 14. G.S. 74C-30 reads as rewritten:

"Article 2.

"Private Protective Services ~~Recovery~~ Education Fund.

"§ 74C-30. Private Protective Services ~~Recovery~~ Education Fund created; payments to Fund; management; use of funds.

(a) There is hereby created and established a special fund to be known as the "Private Protective Services ~~Recovery~~ Education Fund" (hereinafter Fund) which shall be set aside and maintained in the Office of the State Treasurer. ~~Said~~ The Fund shall be used in the manner provided in this Article for the ~~payment of claims where the aggrieved person has suffered a direct monetary loss by reason of certain acts committed by any person licensed under this Chapter.~~education of licensees and registrants as deemed appropriate by the Board.

~~(b) Nothing contained in this Article shall limit the authority of the Board to take disciplinary action against any licensee or trainee under this Chapter, nor shall the repayment in full or all obligations to the Fund by any licensee or trainee nullify or modify the effect of any other disciplinary proceeding brought under this Chapter.~~

(c) In addition to the fees provided for elsewhere in this Chapter, the Board shall charge the following fees which shall be deposited into the Fund:

(1) Repealed by Session Laws 2007-511, s. 10.

(2) The Board shall charge each new applicant for a licensee or trainee permit fifty dollars ($50.00), provided that for purposes of this Article a new applicant is hereby defined as an applicant who did not possess a license or trainee permit on July 1, 1983; and

(3) The Board is authorized to charge each licensee and trainee an additional amount, not to exceed fifty dollars ($50.00), on July 1 of any year in which the balance of the Fund is less than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), provided that any amount so assessed will be only so much as is needed to raise the level of the Fund to twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000).

(d) The State Treasurer shall invest and reinvest the moneys in the Fund in a manner provided by ~~law, provided that sufficient liquidity shall be maintained to satisfy claims authorized by the Board. The proceeds from the investments shall be deposited to the credit of the Fund.~~law. The ~~Board~~ Board, in its discretion, may use ~~any and all of the proceeds from the investments or funds that exceed twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000)~~ the Fund for any of the following purposes:

(1) To advance education and research in the private protective services field for the benefit of those licensed or registered under the provisions of this Chapter and for the improvement of the industry.

(2) To underwrite educational seminars, training centers and other educational projects for the use and benefit generally of ~~licensees~~ licensees, registrants, and trainees.

(3) To sponsor, contract for and to underwrite any and all additional educational training and research projects of a similar nature having to do with the advancement of the private protective services field in North Carolina. The Board shall have the authority to sponsor courses given by private individuals, associations, or corporations. However, the Board shall only grant funds as necessary to offset the actual cost of the educational course. Any individual, association, or corporation receiving grant money from the Board shall make the course available to the industry at large. Any individual, association, or corporation receiving grant money from the Board and advertising the course to the industry is required to include in its advertising the following statement: "The course is being given in whole or in part by a grant from the Private Protective Services Board."

(e) By a unanimous vote of the Board, funds in the Fund in excess of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) may be converted to offset the operating expenses of the Board. However, in converting the funds, the Board shall make findings of fact by a written order or resolution supporting the need to make the conversion."

SECTION 15. G.S. 74C-31, 74C-32, and 74C-33 are repealed.

SECTION 16. This act is effective when it becomes law.

SENATE BILL 481

Short Title:	Trustee's Power to Appoint to Other Trust.	(Public)
Sponsors:	Senator Hartsell.
Referred to:	Judiciary II.

March 10, 2009

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO ALLOW A TRUSTEE TO APPOINT TRUST PROPERTY TO ANOTHER TRUST FOR THE SAME BENEFICIARY AND TO GRANT CLERKS JURISDICTION TO HEAR MOTIONS TO APPROVE THE APPOINTMENT OF TRUST PROPERTY TO ANOTHER TRUST.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Article 8 of Chapter 36C of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 36C-8-816.1. Trustee's special power to appoint to another trust.

(a) A trustee who has the discretionary power under the terms of an irrevocable trust instrument to distribute principal or income of the trust (the 'first trust') to or for the benefit of one or more beneficiaries of the trust, whether or not there is a current need to distribute principal or income under any standard provided in the trust instrument, may instead, without authorization by the court, exercise the power by appointing all or part of the principal or income subject to the power in favor of a trustee of another trust (the 'second trust') for the current benefit of one or more of the beneficiaries under the same trust instrument or under a different trust instrument which may be created by the trustee.

(b) The terms of the second trust shall be subject to the following:

(1) The beneficiaries of the second trust may include only beneficiaries of the first trust.

(2) A beneficiary who has only a future beneficial interest, vested or contingent, in the first trust cannot have the future beneficial interest accelerated to a present interest in the second trust.

(3) The second trust may not reduce any fixed income, annuity, or unitrust interest in the assets of the first trust.

(4) If any contribution to the first trust qualified for a marital or charitable deduction for federal income, gift, or estate tax purposes under the Internal Revenue Code, then the second trust shall not contain any provision that, if included in the first trust, would have prevented the first trust from qualifying for the deduction or that would have reduced the amount of the deduction.

(5) If contributions to the first trust have been excluded from the gift tax by the application of Section 2503(b) and Section 2503(c) of the Internal Revenue Code, then the second trust shall provide that the beneficiary's remainder interest in the contributions shall vest and become distributable no later than the date upon which the interest would have vested and become distributable under the terms of the first trust.

(6) If one or more beneficiaries of the first trust has a power of withdrawal over trust property, then either:
a. The second trust must provide a power of withdrawal in the second trust identical to the power of withdrawal in the first trust; or
b. Sufficient trust property must remain in the first trust to satisfy the outstanding power of withdrawal.

(7) If the power to distribute principal or income in the first trust is subject to an ascertainable standard, then the terms of the second trust shall be subject to all of the following:
a. The power to distribute principal or income in the second trust must be subject to the same ascertainable standard; and
b. The second trust may not confer a power of appointment upon a beneficiary of the first trust; and
c. The beneficiaries of the first trust must have the same beneficial interests in the second trust.

(8) If the power to distribute principal or income in the first trust is not subject to an ascertainable standard, then the second trust may confer a power of appointment upon a beneficiary of the first trust to whom or for the benefit of whom the trustee has the power to distribute principal or income of the first trust. The permissible appointees of the power of appointment conferred upon a beneficiary may include persons who are not beneficiaries of the first or second trust. The power of appointment conferred upon a beneficiary shall be subject to the provisions of G.S. 41-23 covering the time at which the permissible period of the rule against perpetuities and suspension of power of alienation begins and the law that determines the permissible period of the rule against perpetuities and suspension of power of alienation of the first trust.

(c) A trustee may not exercise the power to appoint principal or income under subsection (a) of this section if the trustee is a beneficiary of the first trust, but the remaining cotrustee or a majority of the remaining cotrustees may act for the trust.

(d) The exercise of the power to appoint principal or income under subsection (a) of this section:

(1) Shall be considered the exercise of a power of appointment, other than a power to appoint to the trustee, the trustee's creditors, the trustee's estate, or the creditors of the trustee's estate; and

(2) Shall be subject to the provisions of G.S. 41-23 covering the time at which the permissible period of the rule against perpetuities and suspension of power of alienation begins and the law that determines the permissible period of the rule against perpetuities and suspension of power of alienation of the first trust; and

(3) Is not prohibited by a spendthrift provision or by a provision in the trust instrument that prohibits amendment or revocation of the trust.

(e) To effect the exercise of the power to appoint principal or income under subsection (a) of this section the following shall apply:

(1) The exercise of the power to appoint shall be made by an instrument in writing, signed and acknowledged by the trustee, setting forth the manner of the exercise of the power, including the terms of the second trust, and the effective date of the exercise of the power. The instrument shall be filed with the records of the first trust.

(2) The trustee shall give written notice to all qualified beneficiaries of the first trust, at least 60 days prior to the effective date of the exercise of the power to appoint, of the trustee's intention to exercise the power. The notice shall include a copy of the instrument described in subdivision (1) of this subsection.

(3) If all qualified beneficiaries waive the notice period by a signed written instrument delivered to the trustee, the trustee's power to appoint principal or income shall be exercisable after notice is waived by all qualified beneficiaries, notwithstanding the effective date of the exercise of the power.

(4) The trustee's notice under this subsection shall not limit the right of any beneficiary to object to the exercise of the trustee's power to appoint and bring an action for breach of trust seeking appropriate relief as provided by G.S. 36C-10-1001.

(f) Nothing in this section shall be construed to create or imply a duty of the trustee to exercise the power to distribute principal or income, and no inference of impropriety shall be made as a result of a trustee not exercising the power to appoint principal or income conferred under subsection (a) of this section. Nothing in this section shall be construed to abridge the right of any trustee who has a power to appoint property in further trust that arises under the terms of the first trust or under any other section of this Chapter or under another provision of law or under common law."

SECTION 2. G.S. 36C-2-203 is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"§ 36C-2-203. Subject matter jurisdiction.

(a) The clerks of superior court of this State have original jurisdiction over all proceedings concerning the internal affairs of trusts. Except as provided in subdivision (9) of this subsection, the clerk of superior court's jurisdiction is exclusive. Proceedings concerning the internal affairs of the trust are those concerning the administration and distribution of trusts, the declaration of rights, and the determination of other matters involving trustees and trust beneficiaries, to the extent that those matters are not otherwise provided for in the governing instrument. These include proceedings:

...

(8a) To approve the exercise of the trustee's special power to appoint trust principal or income to another trust as provided in G.S. 36C-8-816.1."

SECTION 3. This act becomes effective October 1, 2009.

March 10, 2009

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO CLARIFY THAT A PERMISSIBLE APPOINTEE UNDER A POWER OF APPOINTMENT IS NOT A TRUST BENEFICIARY, AND TO CLARIFY THAT A LOAN OR PLEDGE BY A TRUSTEE MAY BE MADE IN CONNECTION WITH A LOAN OF THE TRUSTEE'S OWN FUNDS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 36C-1-103(3) reads as rewritten:

"§ 36C-1-103. Definitions.

The following definitions apply in this Chapter:

...

(3) Beneficiary. – A person who:

a. Has a present or future beneficial interest in a trust, vested or contingent, including the owner of an interest by assignment or ~~transfer;~~ transfer, but excluding a permissible appointee of a general or nongeneral power of appointment; or

b. In a capacity other than that of trustee, holds a power of appointment over trust property."

SECTION 2. G.S. 36C-3-302 reads as rewritten:

"§ 36C-3-302. Representation by holder of general testamentary power of appointment.

The sole holder or all coholders of a power of revocation or a presently exercisable or testamentary general power of appointment, including one in the form of a power of amendment, shall represent and bind other persons to the extent that their interests, as ~~permissible appointees,~~ takers in default, ~~or otherwise,~~ are subject to the power. ~~To the extent there is no conflict of interest between the holder of a general testamentary power of appointment and the persons represented with respect to the particular question or dispute, the holder may represent and bind persons whose interests, as permissible appointees, takers in default, or otherwise, are subject to the power.~~"

SECTION 3. Subdivisions (19), (19a), (19b), and (19c) of G.S. 36C-8-816 read as rewritten:

"§ 36C-8-816. Specific powers of trustee.

Without limiting the authority conferred by G.S. 36C-8-815, a trustee may:

...

(19) Pledge trust property to guarantee loans made ~~by others~~ to any beneficiary;

(19a) Guarantee loans made ~~by others~~ to any beneficiary;

(19b) Pledge trust property to guarantee loans made ~~by others~~ to any proprietorship, partnership, limited liability company, business trust, corporation, venture, agricultural operation, or other form of business or enterprise in which the trust or any beneficiary has an ownership interest.

(19c) Guarantee loans made ~~by others~~ to ~~a~~ any proprietorship, partnership, limited liability company, business trust, corporation, venture, agricultural operation, or other form of business or enterprise in which the trust or any beneficiary has an ownership interest."

SECTION 4. This act becomes effective October 1, 2009.

SENATE BILL 483

Short Title:	Clarify Judicial Creation of Trust.	(Public)
Sponsors:	Senator Hartsell.
Referred to:	Judiciary II.

March 10, 2009

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO CLARIFY THAT COURTS IN NORTH CAROLINA HAVE THE AUTHORITY TO CREATE TRUSTS BY JUDICIAL ORDER OR JUDGMENT IN CASES PROPERLY BEFORE THE COURT; AND TO SPECIFICALLY PROVIDE THAT NORTH CAROLINA COURTS HAVE THE RIGHT TO CREATE TRUSTS PURSUANT TO 42 U.S.C. § 1396P(D)(4)(A).

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 36C-2-203(a)(9) reads as rewritten:

"§ 36C-2-203. Subject matter jurisdiction.

(9) To ascertain beneficiaries, to determine any question arising in the administration or distribution of any trust, including questions of construction of trust instruments, to create a trust, and to determine the existence or nonexistence of trusts created other than by will and the existence or nonexistence of any immunity, power, privilege, duty, or right. Any party may file a notice of transfer of a proceeding pursuant to this subdivision to the superior court division of the General Court of Justice as provided in G.S. 36C-2-205(g1). In the absence of a transfer to Superior Court, Article 26 of Chapter 1 of the General Statutes shall apply to a trust proceeding pending before the clerk of superior court to the extent consistent with this Article.

SECTION 2. G.S. 36C-4-401 reads as rewritten:

"§ 36C-4-401. Methods of creating trust.

A trust may be created by any of the following methods:

(1) Transfer of property by a settlor to a person as trustee during the settlor's lifetime or by will or other disposition taking effect upon the settlor's death including either of the following:

a. The devise or bequest to the trustee of the trust as provided in G.S. 31-47.

b. The designation of the trust as beneficiary of life insurance or other death benefits as provided in G.S. 36C-4-401.1.

(2) Declaration by the owner of property that the owner holds identifiable property as trustee unless the transfer of title of that property is otherwise required by law.

(3) Exercise of a power of appointment in favor of a trustee.

(4) A court by judgment, order, or decree, including the establishment of a trust pursuant to section 1396p(d)(4) of Title 42 of the United States Code."

SECTION 3. Article 4 of Chapter 36C of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 36C-4-401.2. Trust pursuant to 46 U.S.C. § 1396p(d)(4).

Any interested party may petition the court, in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter, to establish a trust pursuant to section 1396p(d)(4) of Title 42 of the United States Code. This section is not the exclusive method of establishing a trust pursuant to section 1396p(d)(4) of Title 42 of the United States Code; and the court shall maintain its authority to create or establish any trust, including a trust pursuant to section 1396p(d)(4) of Title 42 of the United States Code, by means of judgment, order, or decree in any matter properly before the court."

SECTION 4. This act becomes effective October 1, 2009.

MINUTES

The Senate Judiciary II Committee met at 10:00 AM on April 14, 2009, in Room 1124 of the Legislative Building, with fifteen members of the committee present. Senator Fletcher Hartsell, Chairman, presided.

Senator Hartsell introduced pages Dylan Frick, Melanie Martin, Laura Perry, Indya Brown and Amanda Farquarson and thanked them for serving.

As all the bills on the agenda today were Senator Hartsell's bills, he invited Senator Vaughan to chair the committee.

SB 481 (Trustee's Power to Appoint to Other Trust.) Senator Jones moved to adopt the Proposed Committee Substitute for purposes of discussion. All voted and the motion carried. Senator Hartsell recognized Ms. Elizabeth Arias, from the Estate Planning Section of the North Carolina Bar Association and requested that she be allowed to explain the bill. Ms. Arias answered questions from Senators Jacumin and Goodall. Senator Jones moved for a favorable report of the Proposed Committee Substitute, unfavorable to the original bill. All voted and the motion carried.

SB 482 (Clarifications to trust Code.) Senator Jones moved to adopt the Proposed Committee Substitute for purposes of discussion. All voted and the motion carried. Ms. Elizabeth Arias explained the bill and answered Senator Forrester's question. Senator Forrester moved for a favorable report of the Proposed Committee Substitute, unfavorable to the original bill. All voted and the motion carried.

SB 483 (Clarify Judicial Creation of Trust.) Ms. Arias explained the bill. Senator Bingham moved for a favorable report. All voted and the motion carried.

SB 967 (Creation of Yadkin River Trust.) Senator Goodall moved to accept the Proposed Committee Substitute for purposes of discussion. All voted and the motion carried. Senator Hartsell explained the bill and answered question from Senators Apodaca, Goodall and Allran. Mr. Charles Neely, representing Alcoa, spoke in opposition to the bill as did Mr. Lynn Strong and Mr. Mel Wofford, both representing High Rock Lake. Speaking in support of the bill were Mr. Bruce Thompson of Stanly County and Senate Page Dylan Frick. Senator Berger moved for a favorable report with a referral to Finance. All voted and the motion carried.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO ALLOW A TRUSTEE TO APPOINT TRUST PROPERTY TO ANOTHER TRUST FOR THE SAME BENEFICIARY AND TO GRANT CLERKS JURISDICTION TO HEAR MOTIONS TO APPROVE THE APPOINTMENT OF TRUST PROPERTY TO ANOTHER TRUST.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Article 8 of Chapter 36C of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 36C-8-816.1. Trustee's special power to appoint to another trust.

(a) A trustee who has the discretionary power under the terms of an irrevocable trust instrument to distribute principal or income of the trust (the 'first trust') to or for the benefit of one or more beneficiaries of the trust, whether or not there is a current need to distribute principal or income under any standard provided in the trust instrument, may instead, without authorization by the court, exercise the power by appointing all or part of the principal or income subject to the power in favor of a trustee of another trust (the 'second trust') for the current benefit of one or more of the beneficiaries under the same trust instrument or under a different trust instrument which may be created by the trustee.

(b) The terms of the second trust shall be subject to the following:

(1) The beneficiaries of the second trust may include only beneficiaries of the first trust.

(3) The second trust may not reduce any fixed income, annuity, or unitrust interest in the assets of the first trust.

(4) If any contribution to the first trust qualified for a marital or charitable deduction for federal income, gift, or estate tax purposes under the Internal Revenue Code, then the second trust shall not contain any provision that, if included in the first trust, would have prevented the first trust from qualifying for the deduction or that would have reduced the amount of the deduction.

(5) If contributions to the first trust have been excluded from the gift tax by the application of Section 2503(b) and Section 2503(c) of the Internal Revenue Code, then the second trust shall provide that the beneficiary's remainder interest in the contributions shall vest and become distributable no later than the date upon which the interest would have vested and become distributable under the terms of the first trust.

(6) If one or more beneficiaries of the first trust has a power of withdrawal over trust property, then either:
a. The second trust must provide a power of withdrawal in the second trust identical to the power of withdrawal in the first trust; or
b. Sufficient trust property must remain in the first trust to satisfy the outstanding power of withdrawal.
(7) If the power to distribute principal or income in the first trust is subject to an ascertainable standard, then the terms of the second trust shall be subject to all of the following:
a. The power to distribute principal or income in the second trust must be subject to the same ascertainable standard; and
b. The second trust may not confer a power of appointment upon a beneficiary of the first trust; and
c. The beneficiaries of the first trust must have the same beneficial interests in the second trust.
(8) If the power to distribute principal or income in the first trust is not subject to an ascertainable standard, then the second trust may confer a power of appointment upon a beneficiary of the first trust to whom or for the benefit of whom the trustee has the power to distribute principal or income of the first trust. The permissible appointees of the power of appointment conferred upon a beneficiary may include persons who are not beneficiaries of the first or second trust. The power of appointment conferred upon a beneficiary shall be subject to the provisions of G.S. 41-23 covering the time at which the permissible period of the rule against perpetuities and suspension of power of alienation begins and the law that determines the permissible period of the rule against perpetuities and suspension of power of alienation of the first trust.

(c) A trustee may not exercise the power to appoint principal or income under subsection (a) of this section if the trustee is a beneficiary of the first trust, but the remaining cotrustee or a majority of the remaining cotrustees may act for the trust.

(d) The exercise of the power to appoint principal or income under subsection (a) of this section:
(1) Shall be considered the exercise of a power of appointment, other than a power to appoint to the trustee, the trustee's creditors, the trustee's estate, or the creditors of the trustee's estate; and
(2) Shall be subject to the provisions of G.S. 41-23 covering the time at which the permissible period of the rule against perpetuities and suspension of power of alienation begins and the law that determines the permissible period of the rule against perpetuities and suspension of power of alienation of the first trust; and
(3) Is not prohibited by a spendthrift provision or by a provision in the trust instrument that prohibits amendment or revocation of the trust.

(e) To effect the exercise of the power to appoint principal or income under subsection (a) of this section the following shall apply:
(1) The exercise of the power to appoint shall be made by an instrument in writing, signed and acknowledged by the trustee, setting forth the manner of the exercise of the power, including the terms of the second trust, and the effective date of the exercise of the power. The instrument shall be filed with the records of the first trust.
(2) The trustee shall give written notice to all qualified beneficiaries of the first trust, at least 60 days prior to the effective date of the exercise of the power to appoint, of the trustee's intention to exercise the power. The notice shall include a copy of the instrument described in subdivision (1) of this subsection.

(3) If all qualified beneficiaries waive the notice period by a signed written instrument delivered to the trustee, the trustee's power to appoint principal or income shall be exercisable after notice is waived by all qualified beneficiaries, notwithstanding the effective date of the exercise of the power.

(4) The trustee's notice under this subsection shall not limit the right of any beneficiary to object to the exercise of the trustee's power to appoint and bring an action for breach of trust seeking appropriate relief as provided by G.S. 36C-10-1001.

(f) Nothing in this section shall be construed to create or imply a duty of the trustee to exercise the power to distribute principal or income, and no inference of impropriety shall be made as a result of a trustee not exercising the power to appoint principal or income conferred under subsection (a) of this section. Nothing in this section shall be construed to abridge the right of any trustee who has a power to appoint property in further trust that arises under the terms of the first trust or under any other section of this Chapter or under another provision of law or under common law."

SECTION 2. G.S. 36C-2-203 is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"§ 36C-2-203. Subject matter jurisdiction.

(a) The clerks of superior court of this State have original jurisdiction over all proceedings concerning the internal affairs of trusts. Except as provided in subdivision (9) of this subsection, the clerk of superior court's jurisdiction is exclusive. Proceedings concerning the internal affairs of the trust are those concerning the administration and distribution of trusts, the declaration of rights, and the determination of other matters involving trustees and trust beneficiaries, to the extent that those matters are not otherwise provided for in the governing instrument. These include proceedings:

...

(8a) To approve the exercise of the trustee's special power to appoint trust principal or income to another trust as provided in G.S. 36C-8-816.1."

SECTION 3. This act becomes effective October 1, 2009.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to abridge the right of any trustee who has a power to appoint property in further trust that arises under the terms of the first trust or under any other section of this Chapter or under another provision of law or under common law.

(g) A trustee or beneficiary may commence a proceeding to approve or disapprove a proposed exercise of the trustee's special power to appoint to another trust pursuant to subsection (a) of this section."

SECTION 2. G.S. 36C-2-203(f) is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"§ 36C-2-203. Subject matter jurisdiction.

...

(f) Without otherwise limiting the jurisdiction of the superior court division of the General Court of Justice, proceedings concerning the internal affairs of trusts shall not include, and, therefore, the clerk of superior court shall not have jurisdiction under subsection (a) of this section of the following:

(1) Actions to reform, terminate, or modify a trust as provided by G.S. 36C-4-410 through G.S. 36C-4-416;

(2) Actions by or against creditors or debtors of a trust;

(3) Actions involving claims for monetary damages, including claims for breach of fiduciary duty, fraud, and negligence;

(4) Actions to enforce a charitable trust under G.S. 36C-4-405.1; and

(5) Actions to amend or reform a charitable trust under G.S. 36C-4A-1.

(6) Actions involving the exercise of the trustee's special power to appoint to another trust pursuant to G.S.36C-8-816.1."

SECTION 3. This act becomes effective October 1, 2009.

SENATE BILL 481:
Trustee's Power to Appoint to Other Trust

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	April 13, 2009
Introduced by:	Sen. Hartsell	Prepared by:	Kory Goldsmith Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition S481-CSRC-5

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 481 would allow a trustee under certain circumstances to appoint trust property into another trust without the approval of a court. The PCS differs from the 1st Edition of the bill by removing a provision that would have allowed the clerk of court to create trusts in this manner and substituting a provision that makes it clear the clerks do not have this authority.

CURRENT LAW: A trustee may currently seek court approval to appoint trust property into another trust.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 of Senate Bill 481 amends Chapter 36C (Uniform Trust Code) by creating a new section (G.S. 36C- 8-816.1) that would allow a trustee under certain circumstances to appoint trust property into another trust without the approval of a court. The restrictions on the ability to appoint from one trust to another would be:

- A trustee must have discretionary power to distribute principal and income before the trustee can use this power to appoint.
- The beneficiaries of the second trust (the one the assets are being appointed to) may only include beneficiaries of the first trust.
- A beneficiary who has only a future beneficial interest, vested or contingent, in the first trust cannot have that interest accelerated to a present interest in the second trust.
- The second trust may not reduce any fixed income, annuity, or unitrust interest in the assets of the first trust.
- Any assets in the first trust subject to a federal marital or charitable deduction cannot be appointed to a second trust if the effect would be to lose the deduction.
- A minor's remainder interest in a 2503(c) trust cannot be changed in the second trust.
- If a beneficiary of the first trust has a power of withdrawal over trust property, then the second trust must provide an identical power of withdrawal or sufficient property must remain in the first trust to satisfy the outstanding power of withdrawal.
- If the power to distribute principal or income in the first trust is subject to an ascertainable standard, the power must be subject to the same standard in the second trust. Additionally, the second trust may not confer a power of appointment upon a beneficiary of the first trust and the beneficiaries of the first trust must have the same beneficial interests in the second trust.
- If the power to distribute principal or income in the first trust is not subject to an ascertainable standard, the second trust may confer a power of appointment upon a beneficiary of the first trust. The power of appointment conferred shall be subject to the rule against perpetuities applicable to the first trust.

In addition to these restrictions, exercise of the power of appointment must be made in a written instrument, signed and acknowledged by the trustee and filed with the records of the first trust. The trustee must give the qualified beneficiaries 60 days written notice before exercising the power. This notice requirement may be waived by all qualified beneficiaries. A beneficiary who objects to the trustee's exercise of this power of appointment may seek appropriate relief from the court under G.S. 36C-10-1001.

Any exercise of the power of appointment by a trustee under this section would be subject to the trustee's fiduciary duties.

Section 2 amends G.S. 36C-2-203(f) to prohibit clerks of superior court from having jurisdiction over actions involving a trustee's exercise of the power of appointment authorized under G.S. 36C-8-816.1.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The act would become October 1, 2009 and would apply to new and existing trusts.

SENATE BILL 482:
Clarifications to Trust Code

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	April 13, 2009
Introduced by:	Sen. Hartsell	Prepared by:	Kory Goldsmith Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition S482-CSRC-7

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 482 amends the definition of "beneficiary" of a trust to clarify that it does not include an appointee under a power of appointment and make other conforming changes.

The PCS makes a technical change.

CURRENT LAW: G.S. 36C-1-103(3) defines a beneficiary of a trust as (1) a person who has a present or future beneficial interest in a trust, whether vested or contingent, or (2) holds a power of appointment over trust property, but in a capacity other than as a trustee. The definition would appear to include as a beneficiary a potential appointee under a power of appointment. These potential appointees (as beneficiaries) would be entitled to notice and representation in proceedings related to the trust.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 amends the definition of a "beneficiary" of a trust to clarify that it does not include permissible appointees under a power of appointment. An appointee under those conditions has an expectancy to become a beneficiary, but until the appointment is made, does not have any vested rights under the trust.

Section 2 amends G.S. 36C-3-302 to delete the reference to permissible appointees as persons entitled to notice and representation in proceedings related to the trust. This amendment is consistent with the change in G.S. 36C-1-103(3) regarding the definition of a beneficiary of a trust.

Section 3 amends G.S. 36C-8-816(19), (19a), (19b) and (19c) to allow a trustee to make and or guarantee loans to a beneficiary or related to trust property.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The act would become effective October 1, 2009.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO CLARIFY THAT COURTS IN NORTH CAROLINA HAVE THE AUTHORITY TO CREATE TRUSTS BY JUDICIAL ORDER OR JUDGMENT IN CASES PROPERLY BEFORE THE COURT; AND TO SPECIFICALLY PROVIDE THAT NORTH CAROLINA COURTS HAVE THE RIGHT TO CREATE TRUSTS PURSUANT TO 42 U.S.C. § 1396P(D)(4)(A).

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 36C-2-203(a)(9) reads as rewritten:

"§ 36C-2-203. Subject matter jurisdiction.

(9) To ascertain beneficiaries, to determine any question arising in the administration or distribution of any trust, including questions of construction of trust instruments, to create a trust, and to determine the existence or nonexistence of trusts created other than by will and the existence or nonexistence of any immunity, power, privilege, duty, or right. Any party may file a notice of transfer of a proceeding pursuant to this subdivision to the superior court division of the General Court of Justice as provided in G.S. 36C-2-205(g1). In the absence of a transfer to Superior Court, Article 26 of Chapter 1 of the General Statutes shall apply to a trust proceeding pending before the clerk of superior court to the extent consistent with this Article.

SECTION 2. G.S. 36C-4-401 reads as rewritten:

"§ 36C-4-401. Methods of creating trust.

A trust may be created by any of the following methods:

(1) Transfer of property by a settlor to a person as trustee during the settlor's lifetime or by will or other disposition taking effect upon the settlor's death including either of the following:

a. The devise or bequest to the trustee of the trust as provided in G.S. 31-47.

b. The designation of the trust as beneficiary of life insurance or other death benefits as provided in G.S. 36C-4-401.1.

(2) Declaration by the owner of property that the owner holds identifiable property as trustee unless the transfer of title of that property is otherwise required by law.

(3) Exercise of a power of appointment in favor of a trustee.

(4) A court by judgment, order, or decree, including the establishment of a trust pursuant to section 1396p(d)(4) of Title 42 of the United States Code."

SECTION 3. Article 4 of Chapter 36C of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 36C-4-401.2. Trust pursuant to 46 U.S.C. § 1396p(d)(4).

Any interested party may petition the court, in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter, to establish a trust pursuant to section 1396p(d)(4) of Title 42 of the United States Code. This section is not the exclusive method of establishing a trust pursuant to section 1396p(d)(4) of Title 42 of the United States Code; and the court shall maintain its authority to create or establish any trust, including a trust pursuant to section 1396p(d)(4) of Title 42 of the United States Code, by means of judgment, order, or decree in any matter properly before the court."

SECTION 4. This act becomes effective October 1, 2009.

SENATE BILL 483:
Clarify Judicial Creation of Trust

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	April 13, 2009
Introduced by:	Sen. Hartsell	Prepared by:	Kory Goldsmith
Analysis of:	First Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 483 provides statutory authorization for a court to create a trust for Medicaid purposes under section 1396d(4) of Title 42 of the U.S. Code. The authorization is not the exclusive method for a court to create this or any other type of trust.

CURRENT LAW: A court may establish a trust by judgment, order or decree. G.S. 36C-2-203(a) provides that the clerks of superior court have original jurisdiction over all proceedings concerning the internal affairs of trusts.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 3 amends Article 4 of Chapter 36C to specifically provide that a court may create a trust for Medicaid purposes under Section 1396d(4) of Title 42 of the U.S. Code. The provision is not a limitation on the court's ability to otherwise create a trust under existing law.

Section 1 and 2 make it clear that a court may create a trust by means other than a Medicaid trust under the proposed G.S. 36C-4-401.2.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The act would become October 1, 2009.

S483-SMRC-9(e1) v1

SENATE BILL 967

Short Title:	Creation of Yadkin River Trust.	(Public)
Sponsors:	Senators Hartsell; Berger of Rockingham, Bingham, Clodfelter, Purcell, Rand, and Tillman.
Referred to:	Judiciary II.

March 26, 2009

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO CREATE THE YADKIN RIVER TRUST IN ORDER TO: (1) DEVELOP THE YADKIN RIVER IN STANLY, DAVIDSON, MONTGOMERY, AND ROWAN COUNTIES AS AN INSTRUMENTALITY OF INTRASTATE, INTERSTATE, AND FOREIGN COMMERCE AND NAVIGATION; (2) ACQUIRE AND OPERATE THE YADKIN PROJECT, AN EXISTING HYDROELECTRIC FACILITY, AND TO AUTHORIZE ISSUANCE OF BONDS AND NOTES BY THE TRUST FOR THAT PURPOSE; AND (3) PRODUCE, DISTRIBUTE, AND SELL HYDROELECTRIC POWER FROM EXISTING OR NEW HYDROELECTRIC FACILITIES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Chapter 77 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new Article to read as follows:

"Article 9.

"Yadkin River Trust.

"§ 77-120. Trust established; purposes.

There is established the Yadkin River Trust as a body politic and corporate. The purpose of the Trust is: (i) to develop the Yadkin River in Stanly, Davidson, Montgomery, and Rowan Counties as an instrumentality of intrastate, interstate, and foreign commerce and navigation through the development, sale, and distribution of hydroelectric power; (ii) to ensure the equitable distribution of water for public purposes; and (iii) to maintain recreational facilities associated with the Yadkin River. These purposes are declared to be in all respects for the benefit of the people of the State.

"§ 77-121. Definitions.

The following definitions apply in this Article:

(1) Board. – The Board of Directors of the Yadkin River Trust.

(2) Bonds. – The revenue bonds or other interest bearing obligations authorized to be issued by the Board under this Article.

(3) Costs. – The capital cost of a project, including:

a. The costs of doing any or all of the following:

1. Acquiring, constructing, erecting, providing, developing, installing, furnishing, and equipping.

2. Reconstructing, remodeling, altering, renovating, replacing, refurnishing, and reequipping.

3. Enlarging, expanding, and extending.

4. Demolishing, relocating, improving, grading, draining, landscaping, paving, widening, and resurfacing.

b. The costs of all property, both real and personal and both improved and unimproved, and of plants, works, appurtenances, structures, facilities, furnishings, machinery, equipment, vehicles, easements, water rights, air rights, franchises, and licenses used or useful in connection with the project.

c. The costs of demolishing or moving structures from land acquired and acquiring land to which the structures are to be moved.

d. Financing charges, including estimated interest during the acquisition or construction of a project and for one year thereafter.

e. The costs of services to provide plans, specifications, studies, reports, surveys, and estimates of costs and revenues.

f. The costs of paying any interim financing, including principal, interest, and premium, related to the acquisition or construction of the project.

g. Administrative and legal expenses and administrative charges.

h. The costs of obtaining bond and reserve fund insurance and investment contracts, of credit-enhancement facilities, liquidity facilities, and interest-rate agreements, and of establishing and maintaining debt service and other reserves.

i. Any other services, costs, and expenses necessary or incidental to the project.

(4) Credit facility. – An agreement with a banking institution, an insurance institution, an investment institution, or other financial institution located inside or outside the United States of America that provides for prompt payment, whether at maturity, presentment, or tender for purchase, redemption, or acceleration, of part or all of the principal or purchase price, redemption premium, if any, and interest on a bond or note issued by the Trust and for repayment of the institution.

(5) Local Government Commission. – The Local Government Commission of the Department of State Treasurer, established by Article 2 of Chapter 159 of the General Statutes.

(6) Notes. – Revenue notes or revenue bond anticipation notes issued by the Trust under this Article.

(7) Par formula. – A provision or formula to make periodic adjustments in the interest rate of a bond or note, including:

a. A provision for an adjustment to keep the purchase price of the bond or note in the open market as close to par as possible.

b. A provision for an adjustment based on one or more percentages of a prime rate or base rate that may vary or apply for specified periods of time.

c. Any other provision that does not materially and adversely affect the financial position of the Trust and the marketing of the bonds or notes at a reasonable interest cost to the Trust.

(8) Person. – Any person, corporation, partnership, association, trust, or other legal entity.

(9) Revenues. – Rents, fees, charges, payments, proceeds, or other income or profit derived from the hydroelectric project or from any pledge of nontax revenues, appropriation, or payment made by the State or a county in which the hydroelectric project is located.

(10) Security document. – One or more written instruments establishing the rights and responsibilities of the Trust and the holders of bonds issued to finance the hydroelectric project. A security document may provide for, or be in the form of an agreement with, a trustee for the benefit of the bondholders. A security document may contain an assignment, pledge, mortgage, or other encumbrance of part or all of the Trust's interest in, or right to receive revenues from, the hydroelectric project.

(11) Trust. – The Yadkin River Trust as established by this Article.

(12) Yadkin Project. – Project No. 2197 as described in a license issued by the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission as of May 1, 1958, and as thereafter subject to the regulation of the Federal Regulatory Commission.

"§ 77-122. Board of Directors.

(a) Appointment. – The Board of Directors of the Yadkin River Trust shall consist of seven directors who shall be appointed by the Governor upon the advice of the House Public Utilities Committee and Senate Commerce Committee and subject to confirmation by the General Assembly by joint resolution. Two of the directors shall have substantial work experience within the operations of electric cooperatives or investor-owned utilities or substantial experience on an electric cooperative board or investor-owned utility board but must not serve as an employee or board member of an electric cooperative or investor-owned utility during their term as a director of the Yadkin River Trust. The names of directors to be appointed by the Governor shall be submitted by the Governor to the General Assembly for confirmation by the General Assembly on or before June 1 of the year in which the terms for which the appointments are to be made are to expire. Upon failure of the Governor to submit names as herein provided, the President Pro Tempore of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Representatives jointly shall submit the names of a like number of directors to the General Assembly on or before June 15 of the same year for confirmation by the General Assembly. Regardless of the way in which the names of directors are submitted, confirmation of directors must be accomplished prior to adjournment of the then current session of the General Assembly.

(b) Terms. – The term of office of directors of the Board is four years. A director may be reappointed to any number of successive four-year terms. A director in office shall continue to serve until the director's successor is duly confirmed and qualified, but the holdover shall not affect the expiration date of the succeeding term.

(c) Chairman; Vice-Chair. – Upon confirmation of the directors by the General Assembly as provided in subsection (a) of this section, the Governor shall designate one of the directors to serve as chairman of the Board for the succeeding four years and until the director's successor is duly confirmed and qualifies. Upon death or resignation of the director appointed as chairman, the Governor shall designate the chairman from the remaining directors and appoint a successor as hereinafter provided to fill the vacancy on the Board. The Governor shall convene the first meeting of the Board, at which time the members of the Board shall elect from their membership a vice-chair of the Board.

(d) Removal. – The Governor may remove any director of the Board for misfeasance, malfeasance, or nonfeasance as provided in G.S. 143B-13.

(e) Vacancies. – In case of death, incapacity, resignation, or vacancy for any other reason in the office of any director prior to the expiration of the director's term of office, the name of the director's successor shall be submitted by the Governor within four weeks after the vacancy arises to the General Assembly for confirmation by the General Assembly. Upon failure of the Governor to submit the name of the successor, the President Pro Tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives jointly shall submit the name of a successor to the General Assembly within six weeks after the vacancy arises. Regardless of the way in which the names of directors are submitted, confirmation of directors must be accomplished prior to the adjournment of the then current session of the General Assembly. If a vacancy arises in the office of director when the General Assembly is not in session, and the appointment is deemed urgent by the Governor, the director may be appointed and serve on an interim basis pending confirmation by the General Assembly.

(f) Organization of the Board. – The Board shall adopt bylaws with respect to the calling of meetings, quorums, voting procedures, the keeping of records, and other organizational and administrative matters as the Board may determine. A quorum shall consist of a majority of the members of the Board. No vacancy in the membership of the Board shall impair the right of a quorum to exercise all rights and to perform all the duties of the Board and the Trust.

(g) Compensation of the Board. – No part of the revenues or assets of the Trust shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to the members of the Board or officers or other private persons. The members of the Board shall receive no salary for their services but shall be entitled to receive per diem and allowances in accordance with the provisions of G.S. 138-5.

(h) Treasurer. – The Board shall select the Trust's treasurer. The Board shall require a surety bond of the appointee in the amount as the Board may fix, and the premium shall be paid by the Trust as a necessary expense of the Trust.

(i) Executive Director and Other Employees. – The Board shall appoint an executive director, whose salary shall be fixed by the Board, to serve at its pleasure. The executive director or a person designated by the executive director shall appoint, employ, dismiss, and, within the limits of available funding, fix the compensation of other employees as considered necessary.

(j) Office. – The Board shall establish an office for the transaction of the Trust's business at the place the Board finds advisable or necessary to implement the provisions of this Article.

"§ 77-123. Authority to acquire Yadkin Project.

The Yadkin River Trust may acquire the Yadkin Project. If the Trust acquires the Yadkin Project, it shall pursue transfer of the license from the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission and other transfer of title and may enter into negotiations, execute agreements, amend the license, and take any other actions necessary to become licensee for the Yadkin Project on behalf of the State. Any terms of acquisition shall be approved by the Board of Directors for the Trust prior to completion of the acquisition. If acquired, the Trust shall not surrender, terminate, transfer, or sell the license or the Yadkin Project without the consent of the General Assembly.

"§ 77-124. Powers and duties.

(a) The Trust has the power to: (i) develop the Yadkin River in Stanly, Davidson, Montgomery, and Rowan Counties as an instrumentality of intrastate, interstate, and foreign commerce and navigation; (ii) acquire existing hydroelectric facilities; and (iii) produce, distribute, and sell hydroelectric power from existing or new hydroelectric facilities. The Trust has all powers that may be necessary or convenient for the exercise of these powers including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the following:

(1) The powers of a corporate body, including the power to sue and be sued, to make contracts, to adopt and use a common seal, and to alter the adopted seal as needed.

(2) To have perpetual succession as a corporation.

(3) To adopt, alter, or repeal its own bylaws and adopt, promulgate, and amend rules to implement the provisions of this Article. The Trust and its activities shall not be governed by the North Carolina Utilities Commission but shall be governed by the provisions of this Article and the rules adopted thereunder.

(4) To establish, finance, purchase, construct, operate, and regulate hydroelectric facilities to implement the provisions of this Article.

(5) To manufacture, produce, and generate hydroelectric power using the waters of the Yadkin River, and to sell the hydroelectric power to utilities within and without the State of North Carolina.

(6) To set rates, services, and practices, or participate in any organized power sales market with one or more entities for the sale, transmission, or distribution of the power generated by the hydroelectric facility, and to charge and collect fees for the use of power generated.

(7) To contract and enter into agreements with the State, local governments, other authorities of North Carolina, and other states for the interchange of business and to facilitate the business of the Trust.

(8) To rent, lease, purchase, acquire, own, hold, use, encumber, sell, transfer, or dispose of any property, real, personal, or mixed, or any interest therein.

(9) To acquire, purchase, establish, build, construct, maintain, equip, and operate any structure or facilities necessary, useful, or customarily used and employed in generation of hydroelectric power.

(10) To appoint officers, agents, employees, to prescribe their duties, and to fix their compensation.

(11) To create and operate agencies and departments needed to implement this Article.

(12) To pay all necessary costs and expenses in the formation, organization, administration, and operation of the Trust.

(13) To apply for, accept, and administer loans and grants of money from any federal agency, from the State or its political subdivisions, or from any other public or private sources available, to expend the money in accordance with the requirements imposed by the lender or donor, and to give any evidences of indebtedness that are required. No indebtedness of any kind incurred or created by the Trust shall constitute an indebtedness of the State or its political subdivisions, and no indebtedness of the Trust shall involve or be secured by the faith, credit, or taxing power of the State or its political subdivisions.

(14) To execute security documents and other instruments necessary in exercising its power under this Article.

(15) To fix, charge, collect, pledge, or assign revenues of the Trust.

(16) To employ consulting engineers, architects, attorneys, real estate counselors, appraisers, and other consultants and employees as may be required in the judgment of the Board and to fix and pay their compensation from funds available to the Trust, and, when approved by the Local Government Commission under G.S. 159-123(e) and (f) as if the Trust were an issuing unit, to select and retain financial consultants, underwriters, and bond attorneys in connection with the issuance of any bonds and to pay for their services out of the proceeds of any bond issue for which their services were performed.

(17) To issue bonds or notes of the Trust as provided under this Article to pay the costs associated with the business of the Trust.

(18) To issue revenue refunding bonds of the Trust as provided under this Article.

(19) To procure and maintain adequate insurance or otherwise provide for adequate protection to indemnify the Trust and its officers, directors, agents, employees, adjoining property owners, or the general public against loss or liability resulting from any act or omission by or on behalf of the Trust.

(20) To purchase or finance real or personal property in the manner provided for cities and counties under G.S. 160A-20.

(21) With the approval of any unit of local government, to use officers, employees, agents, and facilities of the unit of local government for the purposes and upon the terms as may be mutually agreeable.

(22) To issue obligations, without Local Government Commission approval, to finance the purchase or acquisition of land or options on land, or the construction of buildings or facilities. An obligation may be secured by the land purchased or acquired, or by the buildings or facilities constructed, may be unsecured, or may be made payable from revenues, the proceeds of notes, bonds, or the sale of any lands, the proceeds of any bonds of the State or moneys appropriated by the State, or any other available moneys of the Trust. An obligation to finance the purchase or acquisition of land or options on land, or the construction of buildings or facilities, may be sold only to the Escheat Fund as an investment of the Fund pursuant to G.S. 147-69.2(b)(11).

(23) To receive and use appropriations from the State, including an appropriation from the proceeds of State general obligation bonds or notes.

(b) To execute the powers provided in subsection (a) of this section, the Board shall determine the policies of the Trust by majority vote of the members of the Board present and voting, a quorum having been established. Once a policy is determined, the Board shall communicate it to the executive director who shall have the sole and exclusive authority to execute the policy of the Trust. No member of the Board shall have the responsibility or authority to give operational directives to any employee of the Trust other than the executive director.

(c) If the Yadkin River Trust acquires the Yadkin Project as provided in this Article, in addition to other powers and duties, the Trust shall:

(1) Conduct environmental testing and assessment of all properties located in Stanly County currently or formerly owned and operated by Alcoa Power Generating, Inc., or Alcoa, Inc., and its subsidiaries, in order to evaluate danger to public health or the environment.

(2) Require remediation of contamination at the Badin Works site located in Stanly County to levels over and above the minimum levels that Alcoa or its subsidiaries would be required to perform under current law in order to restore the contaminated land and water to multiple use purposes.

(3) Establish a remediation fund to perform necessary environmental testing and remediation of hazardous waste sites in the Yadkin River Basin, excluding properties owned or under the control of Alcoa Power Generating, Inc., or Alcoa, Inc., and its subsidiaries.

(4) Install aeration technology in association with the Yadkin Project to increase dissolved oxygen levels and improve water quality in the Yadkin River.

(5) Institute operational changes to the Yadkin Project that will retain more water in High Rock Lake and provide a consistent flow of water to downstream water users.

(6) Extend the recreation season at High Rock Lake by three months from April 1 to October 31.

(7) Implement a comprehensive drought management plan, or "Low Inflow Protocol," that requires the Trust to reduce power generation and send less water downstream when certain drought-related triggers are reached.

(8) Develop and maintain new or expanded public recreation facilities across the Yadkin River, including a new public swim area in Rowan County, new tailwater fishing access areas, two new reservoir fishing piers, and 10 new campsites.

(9) Allow the City of Albemarle to increase water withdrawals from the Yadkin River up to 30 million gallons per day.

(10) Utilize a portion of the proceeds from power generation to fund a Yadkin River Basin Clean Water Trust Fund to be created in order to acquire land for water quality improvements, implement innovative storm water strategies, state-of-the art waste water improvements, and aquatic habitat improvements, and to provide funding mechanisms to assist local governments to make water quality improvements throughout the Yadkin River Basin.

(11) Apportion a percentage of electricity from the Yadkin Project output for use by a regional economic development entity to be designated by the Department of Commerce. To the extent that there are renewable energy credits attributable to the output, the credits shall belong to the designated entity.

(12) Use proceeds from power generation to: (i) acquire and donate land to the Town of Badin for a new public park; (ii) acquire and donate land to Rowan County for the continued protection and public access to the Eagle Point Nature Preserve; (iii) acquire other land for conservation purposes; and (iv) make a forty thousand dollars ($40,000) donation to the Yadkin-Pee Dee River Trail Fund.

"§ 77-125. Bonds and notes.

(a) The Trust may provide for the issuance, at one time or from time to time, of bonds and notes, including bond anticipation notes and renewal notes, of the Trust to carry out its corporate purposes including financing the costs of projects. The principal of and interest on the bonds or notes shall be payable from funds provided under this Article for their payment. A bond anticipation note may be made payable from the proceeds of bonds or renewal notes or, in the event bond or renewal note proceeds are not available, from any available Trust revenues or other funds provided for this purpose. Bonds and notes may also be paid from the proceeds of any credit facility.

All bonds, notes, or refunding bonds or notes of the Trust are subject to this section and G.S. 77-126.

The bonds and notes of each issue shall be dated and may be made redeemable prior to maturity at the option of the Trust or otherwise, at one or more prices, on one or more dates, and upon the terms and conditions set by the Trust. The bonds or notes may also be made payable from time to time on demand or tender for purchase by the owner upon terms and conditions set by the Trust.

A bond or note shall bear interest at a rate or rates, including variable rates, as determined by the Local Government Commission with the approval of the Trust. A bond or note may be secured by a reserve fund created for that purpose and funded from proceeds of the bond or note, revenues, or any other source of funds available to the Trust.

(b) In fixing the details of bonds or notes, the Trust may provide that the bonds or notes may:

(1) Be payable from time to time on demand or tender for purchase by the owner of the bond or note if a credit facility supports the bond or note, unless the Local Government Commission specifically determines that a credit facility is not required because the absence of a credit facility will not materially and adversely affect the financial position of the Trust and the marketing of the bonds or notes at a reasonable interest cost to the Trust.

(2) Be additionally supported by a credit facility.

(3) Be made subject to redemption or a mandatory tender for purchase prior to maturity.

(4) Be capital appreciation bonds.
(5) Bear interest at a rate or rates that may vary, including variations permitted pursuant to a par formula.
(6) Be made the subject of a remarketing agreement whereby an attempt is made to remarket the bonds or notes to new purchasers prior to their presentment for payment to the provider of the credit facility or to the Trust.

(c) Notes and bonds shall mature at the times determined by the Trust, not to exceed 40 years from the date of issue. The Trust shall determine the form and manner of execution of a bond or note, including any interest coupons to be attached to the bond or note. The Trust shall fix the denominations and places of payment of principal and interest of the bond or note. The principal of and interest on a bond or note may be paid at any bank or trust company, whether located inside or outside the United States of America.

(d) The validity of a bond, note, or coupon that has the signature or facsimile signature of a person who was an officer when the bond, note, or coupon was signed or the facsimile signature attached but who is not that officer when the bond, note, or coupon is delivered is not affected by the change in officers. A bond, note, or coupon may bear the signature or facsimile signature of a person who will be the proper officer to sign the bond, note, or coupon when it is executed but who is not the officer on the date of the bond, note, or coupon.

(e) The Trust may provide for any of the following:
(1) Authentication of a bond or note by a trustee or other authenticating agent.
(2) Issuance of a bond or note as a certificated obligation, an uncertificated obligation, or both.
(3) Issuance of a bond or note in coupon form, in registered form, or both.
(4) Registration of a coupon bond or note as to principal alone or as to both principal and interest.
(5) The reconversion of a bond or note registered as to both principal and interest into a coupon bond or note.
(6) The interchange of registered and coupon bonds or notes.
(7) A system for registration in accordance with Chapter 159E of the General Statutes.
(8) Replacement of a bond or note that has been mutilated, lost, or destroyed.

(f) The Trust may not issue a bond or note under this Article, other than an obligation permitted under G.S. 77-123(a)(22), unless its issuance is approved by the Local Government Commission, and it is sold by the Local Government Commission. To obtain approval of a bond or note, the Trust shall file an application for approval with the Local Government Commission. The application shall contain the information required by the Local Government Commission.

In determining whether to approve a proposed bond or note issue of the Trust, the Local Government Commission shall consider the following:
(1) For bonds or notes to finance activities of the Trust, the criteria for its approval of revenue bonds under G.S. 159-86.
(2) The effect of the proposed financing upon any proposed or scheduled sale of obligations by the State, another State agency, or a unit of local government.

The Local Government Commission shall approve the proposed bond or note issue if it determines that the proposed financing for the issue meets the criteria and will effect the purposes of this Article.

When the Local Government Commission approves a bond or note issue of the Trust, the Trust may submit a written request to the Local Government Commission to sell the approved bonds or notes. Upon receiving a written request, the Local Government Commission shall consult with the Trust on the manner in which the bonds or notes will be sold and the price or prices at which the bonds or notes will be sold. With the approval of the Trust, the Local Government Commission shall sell the bonds or notes either at public or private sale in the manner and at the prices determined to be in the best interest of the Trust and to effect the purposes of this Article.

Bonds or notes may be issued under this Article without obtaining, except as otherwise expressly provided in this Article, the consent of any department, division, commission, board, body, bureau, or other agency of the State or without any other proceedings or conditions except as specifically authorized by this Article or by the provisions of the resolution authorizing the issuance of, or any trust agreement securing, the bonds or notes.

(g) Each bond or note that is represented by an instrument shall contain a statement signed by the Secretary of the Local Government Commission, or an assistant designated by the Secretary, certifying that the issuance of the bond or note has been approved under this Article. The signature may be a manual signature or a facsimile signature, as determined by the Local Government Commission. Each bond or note that is not represented by an instrument shall be evidenced by a writing relating to the obligation that identifies the obligation or the issue of which it is a part, contains the signed statement certifying approval of the Local Government Commission that is required on an instrument, and is filed with the Local Government Commission. A certification of approval by the Local Government Commission is conclusive evidence that a bond or note complies with this Article.

(h) The proceeds of a bond or note shall be used solely for the purposes for which the bond or note was issued and shall be disbursed in accordance with the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bond or note and with any trust agreement securing the bond or note.

(i) Prior to the preparation of definitive bonds, the Trust may issue interim receipts or temporary bonds, with or without coupons, exchangeable for definitive bonds when the bonds have been executed and are available for delivery.

(j) The Trust may secure a bond or note issued under this Article by a trust agreement between the Trust and a corporate trustee. The corporate trustee may be any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company inside or outside the State. The Trust may secure a bond or note issued under this Article by a deed of trust. The trustee of the deed of trust may be an individual who is a resident of the State. A bank or trust company that is incorporated in this State and is a depository of the proceeds of obligations, revenues, or other money of the Trust may furnish indemnifying bonds or pledge securities required by the Trust.

The pledge of any assets, income, or revenues of the Trust to the payment of the principal of or the interest on any obligations of the Trust is binding from the time the pledge is made, and any assets, income, or revenues of the Trust are immediately subject to the lien of the pledge without any physical delivery or other act. The lien created by a pledge is binding against all persons who have claims of any kind against the Trust, regardless of whether they have notice of the lien.

(k) A resolution authorizing the issuance of a bond or note and a trust agreement securing a bond or note may provide that any moneys held under the resolution or trust agreement may be temporarily invested pending disbursement. Any officer with whom, or any bank or trust company with which, the moneys are deposited is considered a trustee of the moneys and must hold and apply the moneys for their stated purpose in accordance with this Article and the resolution or trust agreement. The Trust may invest any moneys as allowed in G.S. 147-69.1 for investments of the State Treasurer or in this subsection.

In connection with or incidental to the acquisition or carrying of any investment relating to bonds, program of investment relating to bonds, or carrying of bonds, the Trust may, with the approval of the Local Government Commission, enter into a contract to place the investment or obligation of the Trust, as represented by the bonds, investment, or program of investment and the contract or contracts, in whole or in part, on an interest rate, currency, cash flow, or other basis, including the following:

(1) Interest rate swap agreements, currency swap agreements, insurance agreements, forward payment conversion agreements, and futures.
(2) Contracts providing for payments based on levels of, or changes in, interest rates, currency exchange rates, or stock or other indices.
(3) Contracts to exchange cash flows or a series of payments.
(4) Contracts to hedge payment, currency, rate, spread, or similar exposure, including interest rate floors or caps, options, puts, and calls.

The Trust may enter a contract of this type in connection with, or incidental to, entering into or maintaining any agreement that secures bonds. A contract shall contain the payment, security, term, default, remedy, and other terms and conditions the Board considers appropriate. The Trust may enter a contract of this type with any person after giving due consideration, where applicable, of the person's creditworthiness as determined by a rating by a nationally recognized rating agency or any other criteria the Board considers appropriate. In connection with, or incidental to, the issuance or carrying of bonds, or the entering of any contract described in this subsection, the Trust may enter into credit enhancement or liquidity agreements, with payment, interest rate, termination date, currency, security, default, remedy, and other terms and conditions as the Trust determines. Proceeds of bonds and any moneys set aside and pledged to secure payment of bonds or any of the contracts entered into under this subsection may be pledged to and used to service any of the contracts entered into under this section.

(l) Bonds and notes are exempt from all State, county, and municipal taxation or assessment, direct or indirect, general or special, whether imposed for the purpose of general revenue or otherwise, excluding inheritance and gift taxes, income taxes on the gain from the transfer of bonds and notes, and franchise taxes. The interest on bonds and notes is not subject to taxation as income.

(m) Bonds or notes issued under this Article shall not constitute a debt secured by a pledge of the faith and credit of the State or a political subdivision of the State and shall be payable solely from the revenues, income, or assets of the Trust that are pledged for their payment. The face of each bond or note issued shall contain a statement that the Trust is obligated to pay the bond or note or the interest on the bond or note only from the revenues, income, or assets pledged in payment of the bond or note and that neither the faith and credit nor the taxing power of the State or any political subdivision of the State is pledged in payment of the principal of or the interest on the bond or note.

(n) The State pledges to the holder of a bond or note issued under this Article that, as long as the bond or note is outstanding and unpaid, the State will not limit or alter the power the Trust had when the bond or note was issued in a way that impairs the ability of the Trust to produce revenues sufficient with other available funds to do all of the following:

(1) Maintain and operate the project for which the bond or note was issued.
(2) Pay the principal of, interest on, and redemption premium, if any, of the bond or note.
(3) Fulfill the terms of an agreement with the holder.

The State further pledges to the holder of a bond or note issued under this Article that the State will not impair the rights and remedies of the holder concerning the bond or note.

(o) Obligations issued under this Article are made securities in which all public officers and public bodies of the State and its political subdivisions, and all insurance companies, trust companies, banking associations, investment companies, executors, administrators, trustees, and other fiduciaries may properly and legally invest funds, including capital in their control or belonging to them. The obligations are made securities that may properly and legally be deposited with and received by any State or municipal officer or any agency or political subdivision of the State for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds, notes, or obligations of the State is now or may be authorized by law.

"§ 77-126. Refunding bonds or notes.

(a) The Trust may issue refunding bonds or notes for the purpose of refunding any outstanding bonds or notes issued under this Article, including any redemption premium on the bonds or notes and any interest accrued or to accrue to the date of redemption. Refunding bonds or notes shall be issued in accordance with the same procedures and requirements as bonds or notes. Refunding bonds or notes may be sold or exchanged for outstanding bonds and notes issued under this Article.

Refunding bonds or notes may have different interest rates and maturities than the bonds or notes being refunded. The proceeds of refunding bonds or notes may be applied to any of the following:

(1) The payment, purchase, and retirement of the bonds or notes being refunded by direct application to the payment, purchase, and retirement.

(2) The payment, purchase, and retirement of the bonds or notes being refunded by the deposit in trust of the proceeds.

(3) The payment of any expenses incurred in connection with the refunding.

(4) For any other uses not inconsistent with the refunding.

(b) The proceedings providing for the issuance of refunding bonds or notes may limit the investments in which the proceeds of a particular refunding issue may be invested. Unless prohibited by the proceedings, the proceeds of refunding bonds or notes that are deposited in trust for the payment, purchase, and retirement of outstanding bonds or notes may be invested in any of the following:

(1) Direct obligations of the United States of America.

(2) Obligations whose principal and interest are guaranteed by the United States of America.

(3) Evidences of ownership of a proportionate interest in an obligation that is described in subdivision (1) or (2) of this subsection and is held in a custodial capacity by a bank or trust company organized under the laws of the United States of America or a state.

(4) Obligations of the State or a unit of local government of the State when payment of the principal of and interest on the obligations has been provided for by depositing with a trustee or other escrow agent obligations that meet all of the following:

a. Are described in subdivisions (1), (2), or (3) of this subsection.

b. When due and payable, will provide enough money when added to any other money held in trust for this purpose to pay the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the State or local obligations.

c. Are rated in the highest category by Standard & Poor's Corporation and Moody's Investors Service, Inc.

(5) Obligations of the State or a unit of local government when payment of the principal and interest on the obligations is insured by a bond insurance company rated in the highest category by Standard & Poor's Corporation and Moody's Investors Service, Inc.

(6) Full faith and credit obligations of the State or a unit of local government of the State that are rated in the highest category by Standard & Poor's Corporation and Moody's Investors Service, Inc.

(7) Any obligations or investments in which the State Treasurer is then authorized to invest funds of the State.

(c) This section does not limit any of the following:

(1) The period for which the proceeds of refunding bonds or notes may be held in trust to retire the bonds or notes that are being refunded and have not

matured, are not redeemable or, if redeemable, have not been called for redemption.

(2) The power to issue bonds or notes for the combined purpose of refunding outstanding bonds or notes and of providing funds for any other corporate purpose.

"§ 77-127. Public hearing requirements.

To the extent federal tax law requires public hearings to be held with respect to the issuance of bonds to finance projects, the hearings may be called for by the executive director and held before one or more members of the Board of the Trust. The hearings may be held at any place within the State pursuant to public notice given in accordance with current federal tax regulations. To the extent federal tax law requires approval following the hearing of the issuance of bonds to finance a project, the approval shall be sought from the Governor following a report to the Governor of the results of the public hearing accompanied by information relating to the purposes for the proposed bond issue.

Bonds issued under the provisions of this Article may be secured by a security document which may be a trust instrument between the Trust and a bank or trust company or individual within the State, or a bank or a trust company outside the State, as trustee. The security document may pledge and assign the revenues provided for the security of the bonds, including proceeds from the sale of any project, or part thereof, and insurance proceeds, and may convey or mortgage the project and other property to secure a bond issue.

The revenues and other funds derived from the project, except for any part as may be necessary to provide reserves therefor, if any, may be set aside at regular intervals as may be provided in the security document in a sinking fund which may be pledged to, and charged with, the payment of the principal of and the interest on the bonds as the same shall become due and the redemption price or the purchase price of bonds retired by call or purchase as provided. The pledge shall be valid and binding from the time when the pledge is made. The revenues pledged and received by the Trust shall immediately be subject to the lien of the pledge without any physical delivery or further act, and the lien of any pledge shall be valid and binding as against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract, or otherwise against the Trust, irrespective of whether the parties have notice. The use and disposition of money to the credit of the sinking fund shall be subject to the provisions of the security document. The security document may contain provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the bondholders as may be reasonable and proper and not in violation of law, including, without limitation, any one or more of the following:

(1) Acceleration of all amounts payable under the security document.

(2) Appointment of a receiver to manage the project and any other property mortgaged or assigned as security for the bonds.

(3) Foreclosure and sale of the project and any other property mortgaged or assigned as security for the bonds.

(4) Rights to bring and maintain such other actions at law or in equity as may appear necessary or desirable to collect the amounts payable under, or to enforce the covenants made in, the security document.

It shall be lawful for any bank or trust company incorporated under the laws of this State which may act as depository of the proceeds of bonds, revenues, or other funds provided under this Article to furnish indemnifying bonds or to pledge securities as may be required by the Trust. All expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of the security document may be treated as a part of the cost of the project in connection with which bonds are issued or as an expense of administration of the project.

The Trust may subordinate the bonds or its rights under the security document or otherwise to any prior, contemporaneous, or future securities or obligations or lien, mortgage, or other security interest.

"§ 77-129. Remedies.

Any owner of bonds or notes issued under the provisions of this Article or any coupons appertaining thereto, and the trustee under any trust agreement securing or resolution authorizing the issuance of such bonds or notes, except to the extent the rights given may be restricted by the trust agreement or resolution, may either at law or in equity, by suit, action, mandamus, or other proceeding, protect and enforce any and all rights under the laws of the State or granted hereunder or under the trust agreement or resolution, or under any other contract executed by the Trust pursuant to this Article, and may enforce and compel the performance of all duties required by this Article or by the trust agreement or resolution by the Trust or by any officer of the Trust.

"§ 77-130. Status of bonds and notes under Uniform Commercial Code.

All bonds and notes and interest coupons, if any, issued under this Article are made investment securities within the meaning of and for all the purposes of Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code, as enacted in Chapter 25 of the General Statutes.

"§ 77-131. Officers not liable.

No director or officer of the Trust shall be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the director or officer's execution of any bonds or notes or the issuance of any bonds or notes.

"§ 77-132. Conflicts of interest.

If any director, officer, or employee of the Trust shall be interested either directly or indirectly, or shall be an officer or employee of or have an ownership interest in any firm or corporation, not including units of local government, interested directly or indirectly, in any contract with the Trust, the interest shall be disclosed to the Board and shall be set forth in the minutes of the Board. The director, officer, or employee having an interest shall not participate on behalf of the Trust in the authorization of any contract. Other provisions of law notwithstanding, failure to take any or all actions necessary to carry out the purposes of this section may not affect the validity of any bonds or notes issued under this Article.

"§ 77-133. Cooperation by other State agencies.

All State officers and agencies shall render the services to the Trust within their respective functions as may be requested by the Trust.

"§ 77-134. Net earnings; disposition and use.

The Yadkin River Trust is a corporation completely owned by and to be operated for the benefit of the people of this State. Any and all net earnings of the Yadkin River Trust not necessary for the prudent conduct and operation of its business in the best interests of the Trust or to pay the principal of and interest on its bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness or other obligations, or to fulfill the terms and provisions of any agreements made with the purchasers or holders thereof or others shall be remitted semiannually to the State Treasurer for deposit to the General Fund of the State. Nothing in this section shall prohibit the Trust from paying to the State each year up to one percent (1%) of its projected operating revenues, as such revenues would be determined on an accrual basis, from the combined electric and water systems.

"§ 77-135. Funds of Trust.

All funds of the Trust shall be deposited in one or more banks to be designated by the Board. The Funds shall be paid out only upon warrants signed by the treasurer or assistant treasurer of the Trust and countersigned by the chair, the acting chair, or the executive director. No warrants shall be drawn or issued disbursing any of the funds of the Trust except for a purpose authorized by this Article and only when the account or expenditure has been audited and approved by the Trust or the chairman of the board of directors.

"§ 77-136. Exemption from taxation; payments in lieu of taxes.

(a) Property owned by the Yadkin River Trust is exempt from taxation in accordance with Article V, Section 2 of the North Carolina Constitution, except as provided in this section.

(b) The Trust shall pay annually to all counties, municipalities, and school districts in which the Trust has acquired property a sum of money equivalent to the amount paid annually for taxes on properties within these jurisdictions at the time of acquisition of the property by the Trust. Payments shall be apportioned between the counties, municipalities, and school districts in which the property is owned or an operation is carried on by the Trust on the basis of the percentage of loss of property taxes to each. Payments in lieu of taxes shall only be made from the Trust after: (i) payment of necessary operating expenses; (ii) payment of all annual debt requirements on bonds, notes, or other obligations at any time outstanding; and (iii) the discharge of all annual obligations arising under finance agreements with the United States or any agency or corporation of the United States and indentures or other instruments under which bonds have been, or may be issued.

"§ 77-137. Annual budget and report.

The Yadkin River Trust shall submit a budget for the upcoming fiscal year and a report regarding its operations and transactions for the preceding fiscal year to the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations, the Joint Legislative Utility Review Committee, and the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations on or before July 1 of each year. The annual report shall include, but not be limited to, the following information: (i) the amount of power and energy produced by the Trust; (ii) financial and operating information for the Trust during the preceding fiscal year including income and expense statements, balance sheets, and changes in financial position, debt structure, and a summary of funds on a cash basis, all in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles; and (iii) the price of power and energy sold by the Trust."

SECTION 2. Notwithstanding G.S. 77-122(b), as enacted by Section 1 of this act, in order to provide for the staggering of the terms of the Board of Directors of the Yadkin River Trust, the terms of the initial appointments of the directors made by the Governor shall be made as follows: (i) two shall be for a period of two years; (ii) two shall be for a period of three years; and (iii) three shall be for a period of four years.

SECTION 3. This act becomes effective July 1, 2009.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF NORTH CAROLINA
SESSION 2009

SENATE BILL 967
PROPOSED COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE S967-CSRIxf-6 [v.4]

4/7/2009 11:37:17 AM

Short Title: Creation of Yadkin River Trust. (Public)

Sponsors:

Referred to:

March 26, 2009

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO CREATE THE YADKIN RIVER TRUST IN ORDER TO: (1) DEVELOP THE YADKIN RIVER IN DAVIDSON, MONTGOMERY, ROWAN, AND STANLY COUNTIES AS AN INSTRUMENTALITY OF INTRASTATE, INTERSTATE, AND FOREIGN COMMERCE AND NAVIGATION; (2) ACQUIRE AND OPERATE THE YADKIN PROJECT, AN EXISTING HYDROELECTRIC FACILITY, AND TO AUTHORIZE ISSUANCE OF BONDS AND NOTES BY THE TRUST FOR THAT PURPOSE; AND (3) PRODUCE, DISTRIBUTE, AND SELL HYDROELECTRIC POWER FROM EXISTING OR NEW HYDROELECTRIC FACILITIES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Chapter 77 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new Article to read as follows:

"Article 9.
"Yadkin River Trust.

"§ 77-120. Trust established; purposes.

There is established the Yadkin River Trust as a body politic and corporate. The purpose of the Trust is: (i) to develop the Yadkin River in Davidson, Montgomery, Rowan, and Stanly Counties as an instrumentality of intrastate, interstate, and foreign commerce and navigation through the development, sale, and distribution of hydroelectric power; (ii) to ensure the equitable distribution of water for public purposes; and (iii) to maintain recreational facilities associated with the Yadkin River. These purposes are declared to be in all respects for the benefit of the people of the State.

"§ 77-121. Definitions.

The following definitions apply in this Article:

(1) Board. – The Board of Directors of the Yadkin River Trust.

(2) Bonds. – The revenue bonds or other interest bearing obligations authorized to be issued by the Board under this Article.

(3) Costs. – The capital cost of a project, including:

a. The costs of doing any or all of the following:

1. Acquiring, constructing, erecting, providing, developing, installing, furnishing, and equipping.

2. Reconstructing, remodeling, altering, renovating, replacing, refurnishing, and reequipping.

3. Enlarging, expanding, and extending.

4. Demolishing, relocating, improving, grading, draining, landscaping, paving, widening, and resurfacing.

b. The costs of all property, both real and personal and both improved and unimproved, and of plants, works, appurtenances, structures, facilities, furnishings, machinery, equipment, vehicles, easements, water rights, air rights, franchises, and licenses used or useful in connection with the Yadkin Project.

c. The costs of demolishing or moving structures from land acquired and acquiring land to which the structures are to be moved.

d. Financing charges, including estimated interest during the acquisition or construction of a project and for one year thereafter and any payments related to hedging instruments.

e. The costs of services to provide plans, specifications, studies, reports, surveys, and estimates of costs and revenues.

f. The costs of paying any interim financing, including principal, interest, and premium, related to the acquisition or construction of the Yadkin Project.

g. Administrative and legal expenses and administrative charges.

h. The costs of obtaining bond and reserve fund insurance and investment contracts, of credit-enhancement facilities, liquidity facilities, and interest-rate agreements, and of establishing and maintaining debt service and other reserves.

i. Any other services, costs, and expenses necessary or incidental to the Yadkin Project.

(4) Credit facility. – An agreement with a banking institution, an insurance institution, an investment institution, or other financial institution located inside or outside the United States of America that provides for prompt payment, whether at maturity, presentment, or tender for purchase, redemption, or acceleration, of part or all of the principal or purchase price, redemption premium, if any, and interest on a bond or note issued by the Trust and for repayment of the institution.

(5) Local Government Commission. – The Local Government Commission of the Department of State Treasurer, established by Article 2 of Chapter 159 of the General Statutes.

(6) Notes. – Revenue notes or revenue bond anticipation notes issued by the Trust under this Article.

(7) Par formula. – A provision or formula to make periodic adjustments in the interest rate of a bond or note, including:

a. A provision for an adjustment to keep the purchase price of the bond or note in the open market as close to par as possible.

b. A provision for an adjustment based on one or more percentages of a prime rate or base rate that may vary or apply for specified periods of time.

c. Any other provision that does not materially and adversely affect the financial position of the Trust and the marketing of the bonds or notes at a reasonable interest cost to the Trust.

(8) Person. – Any person, corporation, partnership, association, trust, or other legal entity.

(9) Revenues. – Rents, fees, charges, payments, proceeds, or other income or profit derived from the Yadkin Project or from any pledge of nontax revenues, appropriation, or payment made by the State or a county in which the Yadkin Project is located.

(10) Security document. – One or more written instruments establishing the rights and responsibilities of the Trust and the holders of bonds issued to finance the acquisition, improvement, or operation of the Yadkin Project and related facilities, and to ensure compliance with the terms of any Yadkin Project license, permits and contracts, including any license issued by the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission. A security document may provide for, or be in the form of an agreement with, a trustee for the benefit of the bondholders. A security document may contain an assignment, pledge, mortgage, or other encumbrance of part or all of the Trust's interest in, or right to receive revenues from, the Yadkin Project.

(11) Trust. – The Yadkin River Trust as established by this Article.

(12) Yadkin Project. – Project No. 2197 as described in a license issued by the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission as of May 1, 1958, and as thereafter amended and otherwise subject to the regulation of the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission.

(13) Yadkin Project License. – The license issued by the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission as of May 1, 1958, which expired on April 30, 2008, the year-to-year annual licenses that have been issued since that time, and any future renewal license for Project No. 2197.

"§ 77-122. Board of Directors.

(a) Appointment. – The Board of Directors of the Yadkin River Trust shall consist of seven directors who shall be appointed by the Governor upon the advice of the House Public Utilities Committee and Senate Commerce Committee and subject to confirmation by the General Assembly by joint resolution. Two of the directors shall have substantial work experience within the operations of electric cooperatives or investor-owned utilities or substantial experience on an electric cooperative board or investor-owned utility board but must not serve as an employee or board member of an electric cooperative or investor-owned utility during their term as a director of the Yadkin River Trust. The names of directors to be appointed by the Governor shall be submitted by the Governor to the General Assembly for confirmation by the General Assembly on or before June 1 of the year in which the terms for which the appointments are to be made are to expire. Upon failure of the Governor to submit names as herein provided, the President Pro Tempore of the Senate and Speaker of the House of Representatives jointly shall submit the names of a like number of directors to the General Assembly on or before June 15 of the same year for confirmation by the General Assembly. Regardless of the way in which the names of directors are submitted, confirmation of directors must be accomplished prior to adjournment of the then current session of the General Assembly.

(b) Terms. – The term of office of directors of the Board is four years. A director may be reappointed to any number of successive four-year terms. A director in office shall continue to serve until the director's successor is duly confirmed and qualified, but the holdover shall not affect the expiration date of the succeeding term.

(c) Chairman; Vice-Chair. – Upon confirmation of the directors by the General Assembly as provided in subsection (a) of this section, the Governor shall designate one of the directors to serve as chairman of the Board for the succeeding four years and until the director's successor is duly confirmed and qualified. Upon death or resignation of the director appointed as chairman, the Governor shall designate the chairman from the remaining directors and appoint a successor as hereinafter provided to fill the vacancy on the Board. The Governor shall convene the first meeting of the Board, at which time the members of the Board shall elect from their membership a vice-chair of the Board.

(d) Removal. – The Governor may remove any director of the Board for misfeasance, malfeasance, or nonfeasance as provided in G.S. 143B-13.

(e) Vacancies. – In case of death, incapacity, resignation, or vacancy for any other reason in the office of any director prior to the expiration of the director's term of office, the name of the director's successor shall be submitted by the Governor within four weeks after the vacancy arises to the General Assembly for confirmation by the General Assembly. Upon failure of the Governor to submit the name of the successor, the President Pro Tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives jointly shall submit the name of a successor to the General Assembly within six weeks after the vacancy arises. Regardless of the way in which the names of directors are submitted, confirmation of directors must be accomplished prior to the adjournment of the then current session of the General Assembly. If a vacancy arises in the office of director when the General Assembly is not in session, and the appointment is deemed urgent by the Governor, the director may be appointed and serve on an interim basis pending confirmation by the General Assembly.

(f) Organization of the Board. – The Board shall adopt bylaws with respect to the calling of meetings, quorums, voting procedures, the keeping of records, and other organizational and administrative matters as the Board may determine. A quorum shall consist of a majority of the members of the Board. No vacancy in the membership of the Board shall impair the right of a quorum to exercise all rights and to perform all the duties of the Board and the Trust.

(g) Compensation of the Board. – No part of the revenues or assets of the Trust shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to the members of the Board or officers or other private persons. The members of the Board shall receive no salary for their services but shall be entitled to receive per diem and allowances in accordance with the provisions of G.S. 138-5.

(h) Treasurer. – The Board shall select the Trust's treasurer. The Board shall require a surety bond of the appointee in the amount as the Board may fix, and the premium shall be paid by the Trust as a necessary expense of the Trust.

(i) Executive Director and Other Employees. – The Board shall appoint an executive director, whose salary shall be fixed by the Board, to serve at its pleasure. The executive director or a person designated by the executive director shall appoint, employ, dismiss, and, within the limits of available funding, fix the compensation of other employees as considered necessary.

(j) Office. – The Board shall establish an office for the transaction of the Trust's business at the place the Board finds advisable or necessary to implement the provisions of this Article.

"§ 77-123. Authority to acquire Yadkin Project and Yadkin Project License.

The Yadkin River Trust may acquire the Yadkin Project License and the Yadkin Project, including all associated facilities and land and water rights. If the Trust acquires the Yadkin Project License, it shall pursue transfer of the license at the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission and other transfer of title for property or permits and may enter into negotiations, execute agreements, file an application for a new license, amend the existing license, and take any other actions necessary to become the licensee for the Yadkin Project on behalf of the State. Any terms of acquisition shall be approved by the Board of Directors for the Trust prior to completion of the acquisition. If acquired, the Trust shall not agree to voluntarily surrender, terminate, transfer, or sell the license or the Yadkin Project without the consent of the General Assembly.

"§ 77-124. Powers and duties.

(a) The Trust has the power to: (i) develop the Yadkin River in Davidson, Montgomery, Rowan, and Stanly Counties as an instrumentality of intrastate, interstate, and foreign commerce and navigation; (ii) acquire existing hydroelectric facilities; and (iii) produce, distribute, and sell hydroelectric power from existing or new hydroelectric facilities. The Trust has all powers that may be necessary or convenient for the exercise of these powers including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the following:

(1) The powers of a corporate body, including the power to sue and be sued, to make contracts, to adopt and use a common seal, and to alter the adopted seal as needed.

(2) To have perpetual succession as a corporation.

(3) To adopt, alter, or repeal its own bylaws and adopt, promulgate, and amend rules to implement the provisions of this Article. The Trust and its activities shall not be governed by the North Carolina Utilities Commission but shall be governed by the provisions of this Article and the rules adopted thereunder.

(4) To establish, finance, purchase, construct, operate, and regulate hydroelectric facilities to implement the provisions of this Article.

(5) To manufacture, produce, and generate hydroelectric power using the waters of the Yadkin River, and to sell the hydroelectric power to utilities within and without the State of North Carolina.

(6) To set rates, services, and practices, or participate in any organized power sales market with one or more entities for the sale, transmission, or distribution of the power generated by the hydroelectric facility, and to charge and collect fees for the use of power generated.

(7) To contract and enter into agreements with the State, local governments, other authorities of North Carolina, and other states for the interchange of business and to facilitate the business of the Trust.

(8) To rent, lease, purchase, acquire, own, hold, use, encumber, sell, transfer, or dispose of any property, real, personal, or mixed, or any interest therein.

(9) To acquire, purchase, establish, build, construct, maintain, equip, and operate any structure or facilities necessary, useful, or customarily used and employed in generation of hydroelectric power.

(10) To appoint officers, agents, employees, to prescribe their duties, and to fix their compensation.

(11) To create and operate agencies and departments needed to implement this Article.

(12) To pay all necessary costs and expenses in the formation, organization, administration, and operation of the Trust.

(13) To apply for, accept, and administer loans and grants of money from any federal agency, from the State or its political subdivisions, or from any other public or private sources available, to expend the money in accordance with the requirements imposed by the lender or donor, and to give any evidences of indebtedness that are required. Bonds or notes issued under this Article shall not constitute a debt secured by a pledge of the faith and credit of the State or a political subdivision of the State and shall be payable solely from the revenues, income, or assets of the Trust that are pledged for their payment. The face of each bond or note issued shall contain a statement that the Trust is obligated to pay the bond or note or the interest on the bond or note only from the revenues, income, or assets pledged in payment of the bond or note and that neither the faith and credit nor the taxing power of the State or any political subdivision of the State is pledged in payment of the principal of or the interest on the bond or note.

(14) To execute security documents and other instruments necessary in exercising its power under this Article.

(15) To fix, charge, collect, pledge, or assign revenues of the Trust.

(16) To employ consulting engineers, architects, attorneys, real estate counselors, appraisers, and other consultants and employees as may be required in the judgment of the Board and to fix and pay their compensation from funds available to the Trust, and, when approved by the Local Government Commission under G.S. 159-123(e) and (f) as if the Trust were an issuing unit, to select and retain financial consultants, underwriters, and bond attorneys in connection with the issuance of any bonds and to pay for their services out of the proceeds of any bond issue for which their services were performed.

(17) To issue bonds or notes of the Trust as provided under this Article to pay the costs associated with the business of the Trust.

(18) To issue revenue refunding bonds of the Trust as provided under this Article.

(19) To procure and maintain adequate insurance or otherwise provide for adequate protection to indemnify the Trust and its officers, directors, agents, employees, adjoining property owners, or the general public against loss or liability resulting from any act or omission by or on behalf of the Trust.

(20) To purchase or finance real or personal property in the manner provided for cities and counties under G.S. 160A-20.

(21) With the approval of any unit of local government, to use officers, employees, agents, and facilities of the unit of local government for the purposes and upon the terms as may be mutually agreeable.

(22) To issue obligations, without Local Government Commission approval, to finance the purchase or acquisition of land or options on land, or the construction of buildings or facilities. An obligation may be secured by the land purchased or acquired, or by the buildings or facilities constructed, may be unsecured, or may be made payable from revenues, the proceeds of notes, bonds, or the sale of any lands, the proceeds of any bonds of the State or moneys appropriated by the State, or any other available moneys of the Trust. An obligation to finance the purchase or acquisition of land or options on land, or the construction of buildings or facilities, may be sold only to the Escheat Fund as an investment of the Fund pursuant to G.S. 147-69.2(b)(11).

(23) To receive and use appropriations from the State, including an appropriation from the proceeds of State general obligation bonds or notes.

(24) To seek enforcement of environmental laws and contribution to environmental cleanup costs, consistent with its obligations under this Act.

(b) To execute the powers provided in subsection (a) of this section, the Board shall determine the policies of the Trust by majority vote of the members of the Board present and voting, a quorum having been established. Once a policy is determined, the Board shall communicate it to the executive director who shall have the sole and exclusive authority to execute the policy of the Trust. No member of the Board shall have the responsibility or authority to give operational directives to any employee of the Trust other than the executive director.

(c) If the Yadkin River Trust acquires the Yadkin Project and Yadkin Project License as provided in this Article, in addition to other powers and duties, the Trust shall:

(1) Conduct environmental testing and assessment of all properties located in Stanly County currently or formerly owned and operated by Alcoa Power Generating, Inc., or Alcoa, Inc., and its subsidiaries, in order to evaluate danger to public health or the environment.

(2) Pursue remediation of contamination at the Badin Works site located in Stanly County to levels over and above the minimum levels that Alcoa or its subsidiaries would be required to perform under current law in order to restore the contaminated land and water to multiple use purposes.

(3) Establish a remediation fund to perform necessary environmental testing and remediation of hazardous waste sites in the Yadkin River Basin, excluding properties owned or under the control of Alcoa Power Generating, Inc., or Alcoa, Inc., and its subsidiaries.

(4) Install aeration technology in association with the Yadkin Project to increase dissolved oxygen levels and improve water quality in the Yadkin River.

(5) Institute operational changes to the Yadkin Project that will retain more water in Badin, Falls, High Rock, and Tuckertown lakes and provide a consistent flow of water to downstream water users.

(6) Extend the recreation seasons at Badin, Falls, High Rock, and Tuckertown lakes by three months from April 1 to October 31.

(7) Implement a comprehensive drought management plan, or "Low Inflow Protocol," that requires the Trust to reduce power generation and send less water downstream when certain drought-related triggers are reached.

(8) Develop and maintain new or expanded public recreation facilities across the Yadkin River, including a new public swim area in Rowan County, new tailwater fishing access areas, two new reservoir fishing piers, and 10 new campsites.

(9) Allow the City of Albemarle to increase water withdrawals from the Yadkin River up to 30 million gallons per day.

(10) Utilize a portion of the proceeds from power generation to fund a Yadkin River Basin Clean Water Trust Fund to be created in order to acquire land for water quality improvements, implement innovative storm water strategies, state-of-the art waste water improvements, and aquatic habitat improvements, and to provide funding mechanisms to assist local governments to make water quality improvements throughout the Yadkin River Basin.

(11) Apportion a percentage of electricity from the Yadkin Project output for use by a regional economic development entity to be designated by the Department of Commerce. To the extent that there are renewable energy credits attributable to the output, the credits shall belong to the designated entity.

(12) Use proceeds from power generation to: (i) acquire and donate land to the Town of Badin for a new public park; (ii) acquire and donate land to Rowan County for the continued protection and public access to the Eagle Point Nature Preserve; (iii) acquire other land for conservation purposes; and (iv) make a forty thousand dollars ($40,000) donation to the Yadkin-Pee Dee River Trail Fund.

(13) Review the proposed Water Infrastructure Mitigation license condition proposed by the City of Salisbury and determine what the Yadkin River Trust can do to assure an adequate, clean future water supply for the region.

"§ 77-125. Bonds and notes.

(a) The Trust may provide for the issuance, at one time or from time to time, of bonds and notes, including bond anticipation notes and renewal notes, of the Trust to carry out its corporate purposes including financing the costs of projects. The principal of and interest on the bonds or notes shall be payable from funds provided under this Article for their payment. A bond anticipation note may be made payable from the proceeds of bonds or renewal notes or, in the event bond or renewal note proceeds are not available, from any available Trust revenues or other funds provided for this purpose. Bonds and notes may also be paid from the proceeds of any credit facility.

All bonds, notes, or refunding bonds or notes of the Trust are subject to this section and G.S. 77-126.

The bonds and notes of each issue shall be dated and may be made redeemable prior to maturity at the option of the Trust or otherwise, at one or more prices, on one or more dates, and upon the terms and conditions set by the Trust. The bonds or notes may also be made payable from time to time on demand or tender for purchase by the owner upon terms and conditions set by the Trust.

A bond or note shall bear interest at a rate or rates, including variable rates, as determined by the Local Government Commission with the approval of the Trust. A bond or note may be secured by a reserve fund created for that purpose and funded from proceeds of the bond or note, revenues, or any other source of funds available to the Trust.

(b) In fixing the details of bonds or notes, the Trust may provide that the bonds or notes may:

(1) Be payable from time to time on demand or tender for purchase by the owner of the bond or note if a credit facility supports the bond or note, unless the Local Government Commission specifically determines that a credit facility is not required because the absence of a credit facility will not materially and adversely affect the financial position of the Trust and the marketing of the bonds or notes at a reasonable interest cost to the Trust.

(2) Be additionally supported by a credit facility.

(3) Be made subject to redemption or a mandatory tender for purchase prior to maturity.

(4) Be capital appreciation bonds.

(5) Bear interest at a rate or rates that may vary, including variations permitted pursuant to a par formula.

(6) Be made the subject of a remarketing agreement whereby an attempt is made to remarket the bonds or notes to new purchasers prior to their presentment for payment to the provider of the credit facility or to the Trust.

(c) Notes and bonds shall mature at the times determined by the Trust, not to exceed 40 years from the date of issue. The Trust shall determine the form and manner of execution of a bond or note, including any interest coupons to be attached to the bond or note. The Trust shall fix the denominations and places of payment of principal and interest of the bond or note. The principal of and interest on a bond or note may be paid at any bank or trust company, whether located inside or outside the United States of America.

(d) The validity of a bond, note, or coupon that has the signature or facsimile signature of a person who was an officer when the bond, note, or coupon was signed or the facsimile signature attached but who is not that officer when the bond, note, or coupon is delivered is not affected by the change in officers. A bond, note, or coupon may bear the signature or facsimile signature of a person who will be the proper officer to sign the bond, note, or coupon when it is executed but who is not the officer on the date of the bond, note, or coupon.

(e) The Trust may provide for any of the following:

(1) Authentication of a bond or note by a trustee or other authenticating agent.

(2) Issuance of a bond or note as a certificated obligation, an uncertificated obligation, or both.

(3) Issuance of a bond or note in coupon form, in registered form, or both.

(4) Registration of a coupon bond or note as to principal alone or as to both principal and interest.

(5) The reconversion of a bond or note registered as to both principal and interest into a coupon bond or note.

(6) The interchange of registered and coupon bonds or notes.

(7) A system for registration in accordance with Chapter 159E of the General Statutes.

(8) Replacement of a bond or note that has been mutilated, lost, or destroyed.

(f) The Trust may not issue a bond or note under this Article, other than an obligation permitted under G.S. 77-123(a)(22), unless its issuance is approved by the Local Government Commission, and it is sold by the Local Government Commission. To obtain approval of a bond or note, the Trust shall file an application for approval with the Local Government Commission. The application shall contain the information required by the Local Government Commission.

In determining whether to approve a proposed bond or note issue of the Trust, the Local Government Commission shall consider the following:

(1) For bonds or notes to finance activities of the Trust, the criteria for its approval of revenue bonds under G.S. 159-86.

(2) The effect of the proposed financing upon any proposed or scheduled sale of obligations by the State, another State agency, or a unit of local government.

The Local Government Commission shall approve the proposed bond or note issue if it determines that the proposed financing for the issue meets the criteria and will effect the purposes of this Article.

When the Local Government Commission approves a bond or note issue of the Trust, the Trust may submit a written request to the Local Government Commission to sell the approved bonds or notes. Upon receiving a written request, the Local Government Commission shall consult with the Trust on the manner in which the bonds or notes will be sold and the price or prices at which the bonds or notes will be sold. With the approval of the Trust, the Local Government Commission shall sell the bonds or notes either at public or private sale in the manner and at the prices determined to be in the best interest of the Trust and to effect the purposes of this Article.

Bonds or notes may be issued under this Article without obtaining, except as otherwise expressly provided in this Article, the consent of any department, division, commission, board, body, bureau, or other agency of the State or without any other proceedings or conditions except as specifically authorized by this Article or by the provisions of the resolution authorizing the issuance of, or any trust agreement securing, the bonds or notes.

(g) Each bond or note that is represented by an instrument shall contain a statement signed by the Secretary of the Local Government Commission, or an assistant designated by the Secretary, certifying that the issuance of the bond or note has been approved under this Article. The signature may be a manual signature or a facsimile signature, as determined by the Local Government Commission. Each bond or note that is not represented by an instrument shall be evidenced by a writing relating to the obligation that identifies the obligation or the issue of which it is a part, contains the signed statement certifying approval of the Local Government Commission that is required on an instrument, and is filed with the Local Government Commission. A certification of approval by the Local Government Commission is conclusive evidence that a bond or note complies with this Article.

(h) The proceeds of a bond or note shall be used solely for the purposes for which the bond or note was issued and shall be disbursed in accordance with the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bond or note and with any trust agreement securing the bond or note.

(i) Prior to the preparation of definitive bonds, the Trust may issue interim receipts or temporary bonds, with or without coupons, exchangeable for definitive bonds when the bonds have been executed and are available for delivery.

(j) The Trust may secure a bond or note issued under this Article by a trust agreement between the Trust and a corporate trustee. The corporate trustee may be any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company inside or outside the State. The Trust may secure a bond or note issued under this Article by a deed of trust. The trustee of the deed of trust may be an individual who is a resident of the State. A bank or trust company that is incorporated in this State and is a depository of the proceeds of obligations, revenues, or other money of the Trust may furnish indemnifying bonds or pledge securities required by the Trust.

The pledge of any assets, income, or revenues of the Trust to the payment of the principal of or the interest on any obligations of the Trust is binding from the time the pledge is made, and any assets, income, or revenues of the Trust are immediately subject to the lien of the pledge without any physical delivery or other act. The lien created by a pledge is binding against all persons who have claims of any kind against the Trust, regardless of whether they have notice of the lien.

(k) A resolution authorizing the issuance of a bond or note and a trust agreement securing a bond or note may provide that any moneys held under the resolution or trust agreement may be temporarily invested pending disbursement. Any officer with whom, or any bank or trust company with which, the moneys are deposited is considered a trustee of the moneys and must hold and apply the moneys for their stated purpose in accordance with this Article and the resolution or trust agreement. The Trust may invest any moneys as allowed in G.S. 147-69.1 for investments of the State Treasurer or in this subsection.

In connection with or incidental to the acquisition or carrying of any investment relating to bonds, program of investment relating to bonds, or carrying of bonds, the Trust may, with the approval of the Local Government Commission, enter into a contract to place the investment or obligation of the Trust, as represented by the bonds, investment, or program of investment and the contract or contracts, in whole or in part, on an interest rate, currency, cash flow, or other basis, including the following:

(1) Interest rate swap agreements, currency swap agreements, insurance agreements, forward payment conversion agreements, and futures.

(2) Contracts providing for payments based on levels of, or changes in, interest rates, currency exchange rates, or stock or other indices.

(3) Contracts to exchange cash flows or a series of payments.

(4) Contracts to hedge payment, currency, rate, spread, or similar exposure, including interest rate floors or caps, options, puts, and calls.

The Trust may enter a contract of this type in connection with, or incidental to, entering into or maintaining any agreement that secures bonds. A contract shall contain the payment, security, term, default, remedy, and other terms and conditions the Board considers appropriate. The Trust may enter a contract of this type with any person after giving due consideration, where applicable, of the person's creditworthiness as determined by a rating by a nationally recognized rating agency or any other criteria the Board considers appropriate. In connection with, or incidental to, the issuance or carrying of bonds, or the entering of any contract described in this subsection, the Trust may enter into credit enhancement or liquidity agreements, with payment, interest rate, termination date, currency, security, default, remedy, and other terms and conditions as the Trust determines. Proceeds of bonds and any moneys set aside and pledged to secure payment of bonds or any of the contracts entered into under this subsection may be pledged to and used to service any of the contracts entered into under this section.

(l) Bonds and notes are exempt from all State, county, and municipal taxation or assessment, direct or indirect, general or special, whether imposed for the purpose of general revenue or otherwise, excluding inheritance and gift taxes, income taxes on the gain from the transfer of bonds and notes, and franchise taxes. The interest on bonds and notes is not subject to taxation as income.

(m) Bonds or notes issued under this Article shall not constitute a debt secured by a pledge of the faith and credit of the State or a political subdivision of the State and shall be payable solely from the revenues, income, or assets of the Trust that are pledged for their payment. The face of each bond or note issued shall contain a statement that the Trust is obligated to pay the bond or note or the interest on the bond or note only from the revenues, income, or assets pledged in payment of the bond or note and that neither the faith and credit nor the taxing power of the State or any political subdivision of the State is pledged in payment of the principal of or the interest on the bond or note.

(n) The State pledges to the holder of a bond or note issued under this Article that, as long as the bond or note is outstanding and unpaid, the State will not limit or alter the power the Trust had when the bond or note was issued in a way that impairs the ability of the Trust to produce revenues sufficient with other available funds to do all of the following:

(1) Maintain and operate the project for which the bond or note was issued.

(2) Pay the principal of, interest on, and redemption premium, if any, of the bond or note.

(3) Fulfill the terms of an agreement with the holder.

The State further pledges to the holder of a bond or note issued under this Article that the State will not impair the rights and remedies of the holder concerning the bond or note.

(o) Obligations issued under this Article are made securities in which all public officers and public bodies of the State and its political subdivisions, and all insurance companies, trust companies, banking associations, investment companies, executors, administrators, trustees, and other fiduciaries may properly and legally invest funds, including capital in their control or belonging to them. The obligations are made securities that may properly and legally be deposited with and received by any State or municipal officer or any agency or political subdivision of the State for any purpose for which the deposit of bonds, notes, or obligations of the State is now or may be authorized by law.

"§ 77-126. Refunding bonds or notes.

(a) The Trust may issue refunding bonds or notes for the purpose of refunding any outstanding bonds or notes issued under this Article, including any redemption premium on the bonds or notes and any interest accrued or to accrue to the date of redemption. Refunding bonds or notes shall be issued in accordance with the same procedures and requirements as bonds or notes. Refunding bonds or notes may be sold or exchanged for outstanding bonds and notes issued under this Article.

Refunding bonds or notes may have different interest rates and maturities than the bonds or notes being refunded. The proceeds of refunding bonds or notes may be applied to any of the following:

(1) The payment, purchase, and retirement of the bonds or notes being refunded by direct application to the payment, purchase, and retirement.

(2) The payment, purchase, and retirement of the bonds or notes being refunded by the deposit in trust of the proceeds.

(3) The payment of any expenses incurred in connection with the refunding.

(4) For any other uses not inconsistent with the refunding.

(b) The proceedings providing for the issuance of refunding bonds or notes may limit the investments in which the proceeds of a particular refunding issue may be invested. Unless prohibited by the proceedings, the proceeds of refunding bonds or notes that are deposited in trust for the payment, purchase, and retirement of outstanding bonds or notes may be invested in any of the following:

(1) Direct obligations of the United States of America.

(2) Obligations whose principal and interest are guaranteed by the United States of America.

(3) Evidences of ownership of a proportionate interest in an obligation that is described in subdivision (1) or (2) of this subsection and is held in a custodial capacity by a bank or trust company organized under the laws of the United States of America or a state.

(4) Obligations of the State or a unit of local government of the State when payment of the principal of and interest on the obligations has been provided for by depositing with a trustee or other escrow agent obligations that meet all of the following:

a. Are described in subdivisions (1), (2), or (3) of this subsection.

b. When due and payable, will provide enough money when added to any other money held in trust for this purpose to pay the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the State or local obligations.

c. Are rated in the highest category by Standard & Poor's Corporation and Moody's Investors Service, Inc.

(5) Obligations of the State or a unit of local government when payment of the principal and interest on the obligations is insured by a bond insurance company rated in the highest category by Standard & Poor's Corporation and Moody's Investors Service, Inc.

(6) Full faith and credit obligations of the State or a unit of local government of the State that are rated in the highest category by Standard & Poor's Corporation and Moody's Investors Service, Inc.

(7) Any obligations or investments in which the State Treasurer is then authorized to invest funds of the State.

(c) This section does not limit any of the following:

(1) The period for which the proceeds of refunding bonds or notes may be held in trust to retire the bonds or notes that are being refunded and have not matured, are not redeemable or, if redeemable, have not been called for redemption.

(2) The power to issue bonds or notes for the combined purpose of refunding outstanding bonds or notes and of providing funds for any other corporate purpose.

"§ 77-127. Public hearing requirements.

To the extent federal tax law requires public hearings to be held with respect to the issuance of bonds to finance projects, the hearings may be called for by the executive director and held before one or more members of the Board of the Trust. The hearings may be held at any place within the State pursuant to public notice given in accordance with current federal tax regulations. To the extent federal tax law requires approval following the hearing of the issuance of bonds to finance a project, the approval shall be sought from the Governor following a report to the Governor of the results of the public hearing accompanied by information relating to the purposes for the proposed bond issue.

Bonds issued under the provisions of this Article may be secured by a security document which may be a trust instrument between the Trust and a bank or trust company or individual within the State, or a bank or a trust company outside the State, as trustee. The security document may pledge and assign the revenues provided for the security of the bonds, including proceeds from the sale of any project, or part thereof, and insurance proceeds, and may convey or mortgage the project and other property to secure a bond issue.

The revenues and other funds derived from the Yadkin Project, except for any part as may be necessary to provide reserves therefor, if any, may be set aside at regular intervals as may be provided in the security document in a sinking fund which may be pledged to, and charged with, the payment of the principal of and the interest on the bonds as the same shall become due and the redemption price or the purchase price of bonds retired by call or purchase as provided. The pledge shall be valid and binding from the time when the pledge is made. The revenues pledged and received by the Trust shall immediately be subject to the lien of the pledge without any physical delivery or further act, and the lien of any pledge shall be valid and binding as against all parties having claims of any kind in tort, contract, or otherwise against the Trust, irrespective of whether the parties have notice. The use and disposition of money to the credit of the sinking fund shall be subject to the provisions of the security document. The security document may contain provisions for protecting and enforcing the rights and remedies of the bondholders as may be reasonable and proper and not in violation of law, including, without limitation, any one or more of the following:

(1) Acceleration of all amounts payable under the security document.

(2) Appointment of a receiver to manage the Yadkin Project and any other property mortgaged or assigned as security for the bonds.

(3) Foreclosure and sale of the Yadkin Project and any other property mortgaged or assigned as security for the bonds.

(4) Rights to bring and maintain such other actions at law or in equity as may appear necessary or desirable to collect the amounts payable under, or to enforce the covenants made in, the security document.

It shall be lawful for any bank or trust company incorporated under the laws of this State which may act as depository of the proceeds of bonds, revenues, or other funds provided under this Article to furnish indemnifying bonds or to pledge securities as may be required by the Trust. All expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of the security document may be treated as a part of the cost of the project in connection with which bonds are issued or as an expense of administration of the Yadkin Project.

The Trust may subordinate the bonds or its rights under the security document or otherwise to any prior, contemporaneous, or future securities or obligations or lien, mortgage, or other security interest.

"§ 77-129. Remedies.

Any owner of bonds or notes issued under the provisions of this Article or any coupons appertaining thereto, and the trustee under any trust agreement securing or resolution authorizing the issuance of such bonds or notes, except to the extent the rights given may be restricted by the trust agreement or resolution, may either at law or in equity, by suit, action, mandamus, or other proceeding, protect and enforce any and all rights under the laws of the State or granted hereunder or under the trust agreement or resolution, or under any other contract executed by the Trust pursuant to this Article, and may enforce and compel the performance of all duties required by this Article or by the trust agreement or resolution by the Trust or by any officer of the Trust.

"§ 77-130. Status of bonds and notes under Uniform Commercial Code.

All bonds and notes and interest coupons, if any, issued under this Article are made investment securities within the meaning of and for all the purposes of Article 8 of the Uniform Commercial Code, as enacted in Chapter 25 of the General Statutes.

"§ 77-131. Officers not liable.

No director or officer of the Trust shall be subject to any personal liability or accountability by reason of the director or officer's execution of any bonds or notes or the issuance of any bonds or notes.

"§ 77-132. Conflicts of interest.

If any director, officer, or employee of the Trust shall be interested either directly or indirectly, or shall be an officer or employee of or have an ownership interest in any firm or corporation, not including units of local government, interested directly or indirectly, in any contract with the Trust, the interest shall be disclosed to the Board and shall be set forth in the minutes of the Board. The director, officer, or employee having an interest shall not participate on behalf of the Trust in the authorization of any contract. Other provisions of law notwithstanding, failure to take any or all actions necessary to carry out the purposes of this section may not affect the validity of any bonds or notes issued under this Article.

"§ 77-133. Cooperation by other State agencies.

All State officers and agencies shall render the services to the Trust within their respective functions as may be requested by the Trust.

"§ 77-134. Net earnings; disposition and use.

The Yadkin River Trust is a corporation completely owned by and to be operated for the benefit of the people of this State. Any and all net earnings of the Yadkin River Trust not necessary for the prudent conduct and operation of its business in the best interests of the Trust or to pay the principal of and interest on its bonds, notes, or other evidences of indebtedness or other obligations, or to fulfill the terms and provisions of any agreements made with the purchasers or holders thereof or others shall be remitted semiannually to the State Treasurer for deposit to the General Fund of the State. Nothing in this section shall prohibit the Trust from paying to the State each year up to one percent (1%) of its projected operating revenues, as such revenues would be determined on an accrual basis, from the combined electric and water systems.

"§ 77-135. Funds of Trust.

All funds of the Trust shall be deposited in one or more banks to be designated by the Board. The Funds shall be paid out only upon warrants signed by the treasurer or assistant treasurer of the Trust and countersigned by the chair, the acting chair, or the executive director. No warrants shall be drawn or issued disbursing any of the funds of the Trust except for a purpose authorized by this Article and only when the account or expenditure has been audited and approved by the Trust or the chairman of the board of directors.

"§ 77-136. Exemption from taxation; payments in lieu of taxes.

(a) Property owned by the Yadkin River Trust is exempt from taxation in accordance with Article V, Section 2 of the North Carolina Constitution, except as provided in this section.

(b) The Trust shall pay annually to all counties, municipalities, and school districts in which the Trust has acquired property a sum of money equivalent to the amount paid annually for taxes on properties within these jurisdictions at the time of acquisition of the property by the Trust. Payments shall be apportioned between the counties, municipalities, and school districts in which the property is owned or an operation is carried on by the Trust on the basis of the percentage of loss of property taxes to each. Payments in lieu of taxes shall only be made from the Trust after: (i) payment of necessary operating expenses; (ii) payment of all annual debt requirements on bonds, notes, or other obligations at any time outstanding; and (iii) the discharge of all annual obligations arising under finance agreements with the United States or any agency or corporation of the United States and indentures or other instruments under which bonds have been, or may be issued.

"§ 77-137. Annual budget and report.

The Yadkin River Trust shall submit a budget for the upcoming fiscal year and a report regarding its operations and transactions for the preceding fiscal year to the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations, the Joint Legislative Utility Review Committee, and the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations on or before July 1 of each year. The annual report shall include, but not be limited to, the following information: (i) the amount of power and energy produced by the Trust; (ii) financial and operating information for the Trust during the preceding fiscal year including income and expense statements, balance sheets, and changes in financial position, debt structure, and a summary of funds on a cash basis, all in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles; (iii) the price of power and energy sold by the Trust; (iv) the amount of water distributed to each entity or water user; and (v) the status of environmental testing, assessment, and remediation of contamination at the Badin Works and other sites located in Stanly County."

SECTION 2. Notwithstanding G.S. 77-122(b), as enacted by Section 1 of this act, in order to provide for the staggering of the terms of the Board of Directors of the Yadkin River Trust, the terms of the initial appointments of the directors made by the Governor shall be made as follows: (i) two shall be for a period of two years; (ii) two shall be for a period of three years; and (iii) three shall be for a period of four years.

SECTION 3. G.S. 66-58(b) is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(b) The provisions of subsection (a) of this section shall not apply to:

...

(26) The Yadkin River Trust."

SECTION 4. This act becomes effective July 1, 2009.

SENATE BILL 967:
Creation of Yadkin River Trust

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II. If fav, re-ref to Finance	Date:	April 14, 2009
Introduced by:	Sen. Hartsell	Prepared by:	Jennifer McGinnis
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition S967-CSRIxf-6 [v.4]		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: The Proposed Committee Substitute (PCS) for Senate Bill 967 would authorize: (i) creation of the Yadkin River Trust (Trust); (ii) acquisition by the Trust of a hydroelectric project located along the Yadkin River, which is currently owned and operated by Alcoa Power Generating Inc. (the Yadkin Project or Project); acquisition of the associated license issued by the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (FERC); (iii) production, distribution, and sale of power from the Project by the Trust; and (iv) issuance of bonds and notes by the Trust in order to finance acquisition and operation of the Project.

CURRENT LAW: Under the authority of the Federal Power Act, FERC has the exclusive authority to license most nonfederal hydropower projects located on navigable waterways or federal lands, or connected to the interstate electric grid. FERC may issue an original license for up to 50 years for constructing, operating, and maintaining jurisdictional projects. At the end of a stated term of an original license, a licensee must undertake the relicensing process. In response, FERC can issue a new license (relicense) to either the existing licensee or a new licensee for a period of 30 to 50 years, the federal government can take over a project, or a project may be decommissioned.[1]

With regard to federal takeover of a project, 16 USC § 807 provides that the United States, upon or after the expiration of any license may take over, maintain, and operate any project, or may take over upon mutual agreement with the licensee all property owned and held by the licensee. The section further provides that the United States shall pay the net investment of the licensee in the project taken, not to exceed its fair value, plus such reasonable damages, if any, to property of the licensee – such value to be determined by FERC. Under the section, the right of the United States or any State or municipality to take over, maintain, and operate any project licensed under the chapter at any time by condemnation proceedings upon payment of just compensation is expressly reserved.

BACKGROUND[2]: In 1958, the Federal Power Commission, predecessor to FERC, issued a 50 year license to Carolina Aluminum Company (a wholly-owned subsidiary of Alcoa, Inc.) to operate and maintain the Yadkin Project. The Yadkin Project is comprised of four hydroelectric stations, dams, and reservoirs located along a 38-mile stretch of the Yadkin River in Davidson, Davie, Montgomery, Rowan, and Stanly counties. The Project has an installed capacity of 210 megawatts. Alcoa Power Generating Inc (APGI, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Alcoa) filed a license application with FERC for the Yadkin Project on April 25, 2006, and filed a Relicensing Settlement Agreement with FERC on May 7, 2007.

In 2008, the General Assembly directed the Environmental Review Commission (ERC) to study the impacts on the State of the potential issuance by FERC of a new fifty-year license to APGI for the Yadkin Project (S.L. 2008-137). The study authorized the ERC to consider and develop proposals regarding all of the following issues:

- The socioeconomic impacts of APGI's decision to discontinue its job-producing manufacturing activities at its Badin facility that relied on the use of low-cost power from the Yadkin Hydroelectric Project.
- Assurance of an adequate, clean future water supply for the region.
- The allocation of water for non-power uses from the Yadkin Hydroelectric Project.

To facilitate the study, representatives of APGI and Stanly County submitted various materials to the ERC for consideration, and several meetings were held between the parties and staff to the ERC. No formal report or proposals on the matter were issued.

BILL ANALYSIS: The PCS would authorize creation of the Yadkin River Trust. The Trust would have a Board of Directors consisting of seven members to be appointed by the Governor upon the advice of the House Utilities Committee and the Senate Commerce Committee. Created as a body politic and corporate, completely owned by and to be operated for the benefit of the people of the State, the Trust would have all powers necessary and convenient to: (i) develop the Yadkin River in Stanly, Davidson, Montgomery, and Rowan Counties as an instrumentality of intrastate, interstate, and foreign commerce and navigation; (ii) acquire the Yadkin Project and the associated license issued by FERC; (iii) produce, distribute, and sell hydroelectric power from existing or new hydroelectric facilities; and (iv) issue bonds or notes to finance acquisition and operation of the Project. In addition to other powers and duties, the PCS provides that the Trust would be required to:

- conduct environmental testing on properties owned, or formerly owned by Alcoa or its subsidiaries
- pursue remediation of contamination at the Badin Works site in Stanly County to levels over and above minimum levels that Alcoa and its subsidiaries would be required to perform under current law to restore contaminated land and water to multiple use purposes
- install aeration technology to improve water quality in the Yadkin River
- institute operational changes to retain more water in several lakes, extend recreational seasons at those lakes, and develop new or expanded public recreation facilities across the Yadkin River
- implement a "Low Inflow Protocol" (comprehensive drought management plan)
- allow the City of Albemarle to increase water withdrawals from the Yadkin River
- use a portion of the proceeds of power generation to fund a Yadkin River Basin Clean Water Trust Fund, and to acquire and donate land for various conservation purposes
- apportion a percentage of electrical output from the Project for use by a regional economic development entity

- submit a budget for the upcoming fiscal year and a report regarding its operation and transactions for the preceding fiscal year to the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations, the Joint Legislative Utility Review Committee, and the House and Senate Committees on Appropriations on or before July 1 each year.

The PCS provides that the property of the Trust would be exempt from taxation. The Trust would be required to make payments in lieu of taxes to affected counties, municipalities, and school districts after payments for necessary operating expenses, annual debt requirements, and discharge annual obligations from finance agreements.

With regard to net earnings of the Trust that are not necessary for the prudent conduct and operation of its business or to pay required debt service, the PCS provides the earnings shall be remitted semiannually to the State Treasurer for deposit to the General Fund.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This PCS would become effective July 1, 2009.

S967-SMRI-16(CSRIxf-6) v3

Mr. Chairman, I'm Leonard Strong, a private citizen of Davidson County and a property owner on the Yadkin River. I rise to oppose SB 967, the creation of the Yadkin River Trust. I present 4 issues:

1. The adjacent counties, Davidson, Rowan, Stanly, & Montgomery all will lose any direct property tax revenues now generated by Alcoa's ownership of acreage in and around the basin. Instead they are to be paid a fixed amount by the proposed authority but only after all debt service, operating and maintenance costs, and upgrade expenses are paid. According to the bill, all property owned by the Authority is to be exempt from taxation.
2. At the same time that the State is anxiously counting on Federal stimulus monies and recently declared spending freezes in an attempt to repair the No. Carolina deficit and budget, this bill obligates the State to millions of dollars to aquire the lands and equipments now owned by Alcoa along 38 miles of river basin. Moreover, significant upgrades in power generation equipment Will be needed in view of the age and inefficiencies of the present equipment. Recent estimates place these costs in excess of $240 million dollars over the next 40 years. The debt service costs alone will average $40 million dollars. This is intended to provide a profit to the taxpayers of NC??? I don't think so. The present private enterprise is costing approx. $24 million yearly to operate. Present electrical grid sales are generating approx. a $20 mill. Profit. But with the proposed State take-over, those profits will quickly disappear in the financing costs not to mention re-staffing the project with an all local staff to both operate as well as market the power output. This project is ripe for a financial default at the taxpayer's expense. Further, the Bill specifically exempts the State from interfering in the operation of the project if it would impair the ability of the Trust from meeting any of its financial obligations. This would prevent the Authority from responding to unusual drougnt or other unforeseen inflow problems. These conditions have been specifically addressed in the present Relicensing Settlement Agreement negotiated with the Fed. Energy Regulatory Comm. Over the last 5 years.

2 Hard Copies Requested

3. The proposed Bill places the responsibility for contamination and pollution remediation for the over 4000 sq. miles of the Yadkin River Basin squarely in the hands of the Yadkin Trust and therefore the NC taxpayer. This is obviously a great unknown. Just the cost of testing, and monitoring not to mention abatement places a further burden on our citizens.
4. Alcoa's operation of the power generation facilities on the Yadkin is a classic example of private enterprise managing their services, paying their taxes, contributing to the community, planning for the future. Have they always done it right...of course not. But in the aggregate, have they contributed to our state's economy, have they been a supplier to a vital national industry, have they worked with our Federal and State agencies to achieve safety and performance standards// You bet!! Isn't that what our state is about? To foster and encourage private enterprise for the public good?
5. Gentlemen, this bill is a serious mistake.
6. Thank You. .

SENATE BILL 584*

Short Title:	Amend Private Protective Services Act.	(Public)
Sponsors:	Senator Snow.
Referred to:	Judiciary II.

March 12, 2009

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO AMEND THE PRIVATE PROTECTIVE SERVICES ACT.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 74C-3(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) As used in this Chapter, the term "private protective services profession" means and includes the following:

(1) Armored car profession. – Any person, firm, association, or corporation which for a fee or other valuable consideration provides secured transportation and protection from one place or point to another place or point of money, currency, coins, bullion, securities, checks, documents, stocks, bonds, jewelry, paintings, and other valuables. This definition does not include a person operating an armored car business pursuant to a motor carrier certificate or permit issued by the North Carolina Utilities Commission which grants operating rights for such business; however, armed armored car service guards shall be subject to the provisions of G.S. 74C-13.

(2) Repealed by Session Laws 1983, c. 786, s. 2.

(3) Redesignated as (a)(5a) by Revisor of Statutes. See Editor's notes.

(4) Courier service profession. – Any person, firm, association, or corporation which for a fee or other valuable consideration transports or offers to transport from one place or point to another place or point documents, papers, maps, stocks, bonds, checks, or other small items of value which require expeditious services. Armed courier service guards shall be subject to the provisions of G.S. 74C-13.

(5) Detection of deception examiner. – Any person, firm, association, or corporation which uses any device or instrument, regardless of its name or design, for the purpose of the detection of deception or any person who reviews the work product of an examiner including charts, tapes or other methods of record keeping for the purpose of detecting deception or determining accuracy.

(5a) Digital forensics examiner. – Any person who, on a contractual basis, engages in the practice of conducting examinations of digitally stored data to recover, image, analyze, or examine the data by using specialized software to determine responsibility or reconstruct usage of the data. However, a digital forensics examiner shall not include any of the following:

a. An accountant.

b. A person employed to conduct network security operations regarding network security violations.

c. A member of a network security compromise response team.

d. A person who analyzes computer or digital storage media for the purpose of upgrading, maintaining, or repairing the system.

e. A person who uses utilities proprietary to the examined device to recover data without the use of additional software, such as cellular telephone call information.

f. Any other computer or digital media technician who is not conducting imaging, analysis, or other activities under this subdivision.

g. An officer, employee, or agent of the United States, this State, or any political subdivision while the officer, employee, or agent is engaged in the performance of his or her official duties within the course and scope of his or her employment.

~~(5a)~~(5b) Electronic countermeasures profession. – Any person, firm, association, or corporation which for a fee or other valuable consideration discovers, locates, or disengages by electronic, electrical, or mechanical means any listening or other monitoring equipment surreptitiously placed to gather information concerning any individual, firm, association, or corporation.

~~(6) Security guard and patrol profession. – Any person, firm, association, or corporation that provides a security guard on a contractual basis for another person, firm, association, or corporation for a fee or other valuable consideration and performs one or more of the following functions:~~

~~a. Prevention or detection of intrusion, entry, larceny, vandalism, abuse, fire, or trespass on private property.~~

~~b. Prevention, observation, or detection of any unauthorized activity on private property.~~

~~c. Protection of patrons and persons lawfully authorized to be on the premises or being escorted between premises of the person, firm, association, or corporation that entered into the contract for security services.~~

~~d. Control, regulation, or direction of the flow or movement of the public, whether by vehicle or otherwise, only to the extent and for the time directly and specifically required to assure the protection of properties.~~

(7) Guard dog service profession. – Any person, firm, association, or corporation which for a fee or other valuable consideration contracts with another person, firm, association, or corporation to place, lease, rent, or sell a trained dog for the purpose of protecting lives or property.

(8) Private detective or private investigator. – Any person who engages in the profession of or accepts employment to furnish, agrees to make, or makes inquiries or investigations concerning any of the following on a contractual basis:

a. Crimes or wrongs done or threatened against the United States or any state or territory of the United States.

b. The identity, habits, conduct, business, occupation, honesty, integrity, credibility, knowledge, trustworthiness, efficiency, loyalty, activity, movement, whereabouts, affiliations, associations, transactions, acts, reputation, or character of any person.

c. The location, disposition, or recovery of lost or stolen property.

d. The cause or responsibility for fires, libels, losses, accidents, damages, or injuries to persons or to properties.
e. Securing evidence to be used before any court, board, officer, or investigative committee.
f. Protection of individuals from serious bodily harm or death.

(8a) Security guard and patrol profession. – Any person, firm, association, or corporation that provides a security guard on a contractual basis for another person, firm, association, or corporation for a fee or other valuable consideration and performs one or more of the following functions:
a. Prevention or detection of intrusion, entry, larceny, vandalism, abuse, fire, or trespass on private property.
b. Prevention, observation, or detection of any unauthorized activity on private property.
c. Protection of patrons and persons lawfully authorized to be on the premises or being escorted between premises of the person, firm, association, or corporation that entered into the contract for security services.
d. Control, regulation, or direction of the flow or movement of the public, whether by vehicle or otherwise, only to the extent and for the time directly and specifically required to assure the protection of properties.

(9) Special limited guard and patrol profession. – Any person who is licensed under Chapter 74D of the General Statutes of North Carolina and provides armed alarm responders pursuant to G.S. 74C-13. Applicants for this limited license shall not be required to meet the experience requirements for a security guard and patrol license. Any experience gained under this limited license shall not be counted as experience for a security guard and patrol license."

SECTION 2. G.S. 74C-3(b)(13) reads as rewritten:

"(b) "Private protective services" shall not include any of the following:

...

(13) A person who works regularly and exclusively as an employee of an employer in connection with the business affairs of that employer. ~~If the employee is an armed security guard and wears, carries, or possesses a firearm in the performance of the employee's duties, the provisions of G.S. 74C-13 apply.~~ However, the provisions of this Chapter shall apply if: (i) the employee is an armed security guard who wears, carries, or possesses a firearm in the performance of the employee's duties; or (ii) the person is an armed or unarmed security guard at an establishment that sells alcohol. The term 'establishment' shall include an eating establishment, a private club, or a restaurant as defined in G.S. 18B-1000.

...."

SECTION 3. G.S. 74C-7 reads as rewritten:

"§ 74C-7. Investigative powers of the Attorney General.

The Attorney General for the State of North Carolina shall have the power to investigate or cause to be investigated any complaints, allegations, or suspicions of wrongdoing or violations of this Chapter involving individuals licensed, or to be licensed, under this Chapter. Any investigation conducted pursuant to this section is deemed confidential and is not subject to review under G.S. 132-1. However, the report may be released to the licensee after the investigation is complete but before the report is presented to the Board."

SECTION 4. G.S. 74C-8(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) (1) A business entity other than a sole proprietorship shall not do business under this Chapter unless the business entity has in its employ a designated resident qualifying agent who meets the requirements for a license issued under this Chapter and who is, in fact, licensed under the provisions of this Chapter, unless otherwise approved by the Board. Provided however, that this approval shall not be given unless the business entity has and continuously maintains in this State a registered agent who shall be an individual resident in this State. Service upon the registered agent appointed by the business entity of any process, notice, or demand required by or permitted to be served upon the business entity by the Private Protective Services Board shall be binding upon the business entity and the licensee. Nothing herein contained shall limit or affect the right to serve any process, notice, or demand required or permitted by law to be served upon a business entity in any other manner now or hereafter permitted by law.

(2) For the purposes of the Chapter a qualifying agent means an individual in a management position who is licensed under this Chapter and whose name and address have been registered with the Director.

(3) In the event that the qualifying agent upon whom the business entity relies in order to do business ceases to perform his duties as qualifying agent, the business entity shall notify the Director within 10 working days. The business entity must obtain a substitute qualifying agent within 30 days after the original qualifying agent ceases to serve as qualifying agent unless for good cause: (i) the Board, in its discretion, ~~extends this period, for good cause, for a~~ extends the period of time not to exceed three ~~months.~~months; or (ii) following petition by an applicant and a hearing by the Board, the Board extends the period of time not to exceed six months.

(4) The certificate authorizing the business entity to engage in a private protective services profession shall list the name of at least one designated qualifying agent. No licensee shall serve as the qualifying agent for more than one business entity without prior approval of the Director, subject to the approval of the Board.

(5) The Department of Justice may provide a criminal record check to the Private Protective Services Board for a person who has applied for a new or renewal license, registration, certification, or permit through the Private Protective Services Board. The Board shall provide to the Department of Justice, along with the request, the fingerprints of ~~the applicant,~~a new applicant, and the Department of Justice shall provide a criminal record check based upon the applicant's fingerprints. The Board may request a criminal record check from the Department of Justice for a renewal applicant based upon the applicant's fingerprints in accordance with policy adopted by the Board. The Board shall provide any additional information required by the Department of Justice, and a form signed by the applicant consenting to the check of the criminal record and to the use of the fingerprints and other identifying information required by the State or national repositories. The applicant's fingerprints shall be forwarded to the State Bureau of Investigation for a search of the State's criminal history record file, and the State Bureau of Investigation shall forward a set of the fingerprints to the Federal Bureau of Investigation for a national criminal history check. The Board shall keep all information pursuant to this subdivision privileged, in accordance with applicable State law and federal guidelines, and the information shall be confidential and shall not be a public record under Chapter 132 of the General Statutes.

The Department of Justice may charge each applicant a fee for conducting the checks of criminal history records authorized by this subdivision."

SECTION 5. G.S. 74C-8(f) reads as rewritten:

"(f) Upon a finding that the application is in proper form, the completion of the background investigation, and the completion of an examination required by the Board, the Director shall submit to the Board the application and his recommendations. Upon completion of the background investigation, the Director may in his discretion issue a temporary license pending approval of the application by the Board at the next regularly scheduled meeting. The Board shall determine whether to approve or deny the application for a license. Upon approval by the Board, a license will be issued to the applicant upon payment by the applicant of the initial license fee and the required contribution to the Private Protective Services ~~Recovery~~ Education Fund, and certificate of liability insurance."

SECTION 6. G.S. 74C-9(e) reads as rewritten:

"(e) The Board is authorized to charge reasonable application and license fees as follows:

(1) A nonrefundable initial application fee in an amount not to exceed one hundred fifty dollars ($150.00);

(2) A new or renewal license fee in an amount not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250.00) per year of the license term;

(3) A new or renewal trainee permit fee in an amount not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250.00) per year of the license term;

(4) A new or renewal fee for each license or duplicate license in addition to the basic license referred to in subsection (2) in an amount not to exceed fifty dollars ~~($50.00);~~($50.00) per year of the license term;

(5) A late renewal fee to be paid within 90 days from the date the license expires in addition to the renewal fee due in an amount not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100.00), if the ~~license~~ license, registration, permit, or certification has not been renewed on or before the expiration date of the ~~licensee;~~license, registration, permit, or certification;

(6) A new, renewal, replacement or reissuance fee for an unarmed registration identification card in an amount not to exceed thirty dollars ($30.00);

(7) An application fee for a firearm registration permit not to exceed fifty dollars ($50.00);

(8) A new, renewal, replacement, or reissuance fee for a firearm registration permit not to exceed thirty dollars ($30.00);

(9) An application fee for certification as a certified trainer not to exceed fifty dollars ($50.00);

(10) A renewal or replacement fee for certified trainer certification not to exceed twenty-five dollars ($25.00);

(11) A new nonresident temporary permit fee not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100.00);

(12) An unarmed registration transfer fee not to exceed fifteen dollars ($15.00);

(13) A branch office license fee not to exceed fifty dollars ~~($50.00); and~~($50.00) per year of the license term;

(14) A special limited guard and patrol license fee not to exceed one hundred dollars ~~($100.00).~~($100.00) per year of the license term; and

(15) A correctable error fee not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100.00) for each subsequent filing of an application following review and rejection of the initial application.

Except as provided in G.S. 74C-13(k), all fees collected pursuant to this section shall be expended, under the direction of the Board, for the purpose of defraying the expenses of administering this Chapter."

SECTION 7. G.S. 74C-11(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) All licensees may employ unarmed security guards as probationary employees for 20 consecutive calendar days. Upon completion of the probationary period and the desire of the licensee to hire an unarmed security guard as a regular employee, the licensee shall register the employee who will be engaged in providing private protective services covered by this Chapter with the Board within 30 days after the probationary employment period ends, unless the Director, in the Director's discretion, extends the time period, for good cause. Before a probationary employee engages in private protective services, the employee shall complete any training requirements, and the licensee shall conduct a criminal record check on the employee, as the Board deems appropriate. The licensee shall submit a list of the probationary employees to the Director on a monthly basis. The list shall include the name, address, social security number, and dates of employment of the employees.

To register an employee after the probationary period ends, a licensee must give the Board the following:

(1) Set(s) of classifiable fingerprints on standard F.B.I. applicant cards; recent photograph(s) of acceptable quality for identification; and

(2) Statements of any criminal records obtained from the appropriate authority in each area where the employee has resided within the immediately preceding 48 months."

SECTION 8. G.S. 74C-12(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) The Board may, after compliance with Chapter 150B of the General Statutes, deny, suspend or revoke a license, registration, or permit issued under this Chapter if it is determined that the applicant, licensee, registrant, or permit holder has done any of the following acts:

c. Any change in location of any branch office.

d. Any change in insurance or bonding limits.

(3) Return to the Director all licenses held by the licensee within five business days from the date of the transaction if the acquiring party does not continue to operate the business under its previous name and license.

(4) Provide to the Director within 60 calendar days from the date of the transaction the following:

a. A list of all registrants or licensees affected by the transaction.

b. Written confirmation of completion of any changes necessary for the acquiring party to comply with the requirements of this Chapter or any applicable rules adopted by the Board on a form approved by the Director."

SECTION 14. G.S. 74C-30 reads as rewritten:

"Article 2.

"Private Protective Services ~~Recovery~~ Education Fund.

"§ 74C-30. Private Protective Services ~~Recovery~~ Education Fund created; payments to Fund; management; use of funds.

(a) There is hereby created and established a special fund to be known as the "Private Protective Services ~~Recovery~~ Education Fund" (hereinafter Fund) which shall be set aside and maintained in the Office of the State Treasurer. ~~Said~~ The Fund shall be used in the manner provided in this Article for the ~~payment of claims where the aggrieved person has suffered a direct monetary loss by reason of certain acts committed by any person licensed under this Chapter.~~education of licensees and registrants as deemed appropriate by the Board.

~~(b) Nothing contained in this Article shall limit the authority of the Board to take disciplinary action against any licensee or trainee under this Chapter, nor shall the repayment in full or all obligations to the Fund by any licensee or trainee nullify or modify the effect of any other disciplinary proceeding brought under this Chapter.~~

(c) In addition to the fees provided for elsewhere in this Chapter, the Board shall charge the following fees which shall be deposited into the Fund:

(1) Repealed by Session Laws 2007-511, s. 10.

(2) The Board shall charge each new applicant for a licensee or trainee permit fifty dollars ($50.00), provided that for purposes of this Article a new applicant is hereby defined as an applicant who did not possess a license or trainee permit on July 1, 1983; and

(3) The Board is authorized to charge each licensee and trainee an additional amount, not to exceed fifty dollars ($50.00), on July 1 of any year in which the balance of the Fund is less than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), provided that any amount so assessed will be only so much as is needed to raise the level of the Fund to twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000).

(d) The State Treasurer shall invest and reinvest the moneys in the Fund in a manner provided by ~~law, provided that sufficient liquidity shall be maintained to satisfy claims authorized by the Board. The proceeds from the investments shall be deposited to the credit of the Fund.~~law. The ~~Board~~ Board, in its discretion, may use ~~any and all of the proceeds from the investments or funds that exceed twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000)~~ the Fund for any of the following purposes:

(1) To advance education and research in the private protective services field for the benefit of those licensed or registered under the provisions of this Chapter and for the improvement of the industry.

(2) To underwrite educational seminars, training centers and other educational projects for the use and benefit generally of ~~licensees~~ licensees, registrants, and trainees.

(3) To sponsor, contract for and to underwrite any and all additional educational training and research projects of a similar nature having to do with the advancement of the private protective services field in North Carolina. The Board shall have the authority to sponsor courses given by private individuals, associations, or corporations. However, the Board shall only grant funds as necessary to offset the actual cost of the educational course. Any individual, association, or corporation receiving grant money from the Board shall make the course available to the industry at large. Any individual, association, or corporation receiving grant money from the Board and advertising the course to the industry is required to include in its advertising the following statement: "The course is being given in whole or in part by a grant from the Private Protective Services Board."

(e) By a unanimous vote of the Board, funds in the Fund in excess of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) may be converted to offset the operating expenses of the Board. However, in converting the funds, the Board shall make findings of fact by a written order or resolution supporting the need to make the conversion."

SECTION 15. G.S. 74C-31, 74C-32, and 74C-33 are repealed.

SECTION 16. This act is effective when it becomes law.

Short Title: Amend Private Protective Services Act. (Public)

Sponsors:

Referred to:

March 12, 2009

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO AMEND THE PRIVATE PROTECTIVE SERVICES ACT.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 74C-3(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) As used in this Chapter, the term "private protective services profession" means and includes the following:

(1) Armored car profession. – Any person, firm, association, or corporation which for a fee or other valuable consideration provides secured transportation and protection from one place or point to another place or point of money, currency, coins, bullion, securities, checks, documents, stocks, bonds, jewelry, paintings, and other valuables. This definition does not include a person operating an armored car business pursuant to a motor carrier certificate or permit issued by the North Carolina Utilities Commission which grants operating rights for such business; however, armed armored car service guards shall be subject to the provisions of G.S. 74C-13.

(2) Repealed by Session Laws 1983, c. 786, s. 2.

(3) Redesignated as (a)(5a) by Revisor of Statutes. See Editor's notes.

(4) Courier service profession. – Any person, firm, association, or corporation which for a fee or other valuable consideration transports or offers to transport from one place or point to another place or point documents, papers, maps, stocks, bonds, checks, or other small items of value which require expeditious services. Armed courier service guards shall be subject to the provisions of G.S. 74C-13.

(5) Detection of deception examiner. – Any person, firm, association, or corporation which uses any device or instrument, regardless of its name or design, for the purpose of the detection of deception or any person who reviews the work product of an examiner including charts, tapes or other methods of record keeping for the purpose of detecting deception or determining accuracy.

(5a) Digital forensics examiner. – Any person who, on a contractual basis, for another person, firm, association, or corporation for a fee or other valuable consideration engages in the practice of conducting examinations of digitally stored data to recover, image, analyze, or examine the data by using specialized software to determine responsibility or reconstruct usage of the data for one or more of the following functions:

a. Crimes or wrongs done or threatened against the United States or any state or territory of the United States.

b. The identity, habits, conduct, business, occupation, honesty, integrity, credibility, knowledge, trustworthiness, efficiency, loyalty, activity, movement, whereabouts, affiliations, associations, transactions, acts, reputation, or character of any person.

c. The location, disposition, or recovery of lost or stolen property.

d. Securing evidence to be used before any court, board, officer, or investigative committee.

~~(5a)~~(5b) Electronic countermeasures profession. – Any person, firm, association, or corporation which for a fee or other valuable consideration discovers, locates, or disengages by electronic, electrical, or mechanical means any listening or other monitoring equipment surreptitiously placed to gather information concerning any individual, firm, association, or corporation.

~~(6) Security guard and patrol profession. – Any person, firm, association, or corporation that provides a security guard on a contractual basis for another person, firm, association, or corporation for a fee or other valuable consideration and performs one or more of the following functions:~~

~~a. Prevention or detection of intrusion, entry, larceny, vandalism, abuse, fire, or trespass on private property.~~

~~b. Prevention, observation, or detection of any unauthorized activity on private property.~~

~~c. Protection of patrons and persons lawfully authorized to be on the premises or being escorted between premises of the person, firm, association, or corporation that entered into the contract for security services.~~

~~d. Control, regulation, or direction of the flow or movement of the public, whether by vehicle or otherwise, only to the extent and for the time directly and specifically required to assure the protection of properties.~~

(7) Guard dog service profession. – Any person, firm, association, or corporation which for a fee or other valuable consideration contracts with another person, firm, association, or corporation to place, lease, rent, or sell a trained dog for the purpose of protecting lives or property.

(8) Private detective or private investigator. – Any person who engages in the profession of or accepts employment to furnish, agrees to make, or makes inquiries or investigations concerning any of the following on a contractual basis:

a. Crimes or wrongs done or threatened against the United States or any state or territory of the United States.

b. The identity, habits, conduct, business, occupation, honesty, integrity, credibility, knowledge, trustworthiness, efficiency, loyalty, activity, movement, whereabouts, affiliations, associations, transactions, acts, reputation, or character of any person.

c. The location, disposition, or recovery of lost or stolen property.

d. The cause or responsibility for fires, libels, losses, accidents, damages, or injuries to persons or to properties.

e. Securing evidence to be used before any court, board, officer, or investigative committee.

f. Protection of individuals from serious bodily harm or death.

(8a) Security guard and patrol profession. – Any person, firm, association, or corporation that provides a security guard on a contractual basis for another person, firm, association, or corporation for a fee or other valuable consideration and performs one or more of the following functions:

a. Prevention or detection of intrusion, entry, larceny, vandalism, abuse, fire, or trespass on private property.

b. Prevention, observation, or detection of any unauthorized activity on private property.

c. Protection of patrons and persons lawfully authorized to be on the premises or being escorted between premises of the person, firm, association, or corporation that entered into the contract for security services.

d. Control, regulation, or direction of the flow or movement of the public, whether by vehicle or otherwise, only to the extent and for the time directly and specifically required to assure the protection of properties.

(9) Special limited guard and patrol profession. – Any person who is licensed under Chapter 74D of the General Statutes of North Carolina and provides armed alarm responders pursuant to G.S. 74C-13. Applicants for this limited license shall not be required to meet the experience requirements for a security guard and patrol license. Any experience gained under this limited license shall not be counted as experience for a security guard and patrol license."

SECTION 2. G.S. 74C-3(b)(13) reads as rewritten:

"(b) "Private protective services" shall not include any of the following:

...

(13) A person who works regularly and exclusively as an employee of an employer in connection with the business affairs of that employer. ~~If the employee is an armed security guard and wears, carries, or possesses a firearm in the performance of the employee's duties, the provisions of G.S. 74C-13 apply.~~ However, the provisions of this Chapter shall apply if: (i) the employee is an armed security guard who wears, carries, or possesses a firearm in the performance of the employee's duties; or (ii) the person is an armed or unarmed security guard at an establishment that sells alcohol. The term 'establishment' shall include an eating establishment, a private club, or a restaurant as defined in G.S. 18B-1000.

...."

SECTION 2.1. G.S. 74C-3(b) is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(b) "Private protective services" shall not include any of the following:

...

(17) A person who engages in some or all of the activities that are consistent with being a digital forensics examiner, but who is:

a. An accountant.

b. A person employed to conduct network security operations regarding network security violations.

c. A member of a network security compromise response team.

d. A person who analyzes computer or digital storage media for the purpose of upgrading, maintaining, or repairing the system.

e. A person who uses utilities proprietary to the examined device to recover data without the use of additional software, such as cellular telephone call information.

f. Any other computer or digital media technician who is not conducting imaging, analysis, or other activities under this subdivision.

g. An officer, employee, or agent of the United States, this State, or any political subdivision while the officer, employee, or agent is engaged in the performance of his or her official duties within the course and scope of his or her employment.

h. An attorney at law while engaged in the practice of law and the attorney's agent, provided the agent is performing duties only in connection with his or her principal's practice of law.

. . ."

SECTION 3. G.S. 74C-7 reads as rewritten:

"§ 74C-7. Investigative powers of the Attorney General.

The Attorney General for the State of North Carolina shall have the power to investigate or cause to be investigated any complaints, allegations, or suspicions of wrongdoing or violations of this Chapter involving individuals licensed, or to be licensed, under this Chapter. Any investigation conducted pursuant to this section is deemed confidential and is not subject to review under G.S. 132-1 until the investigation is complete and a report is presented to the Board. However, the report may be released to the licensee after the investigation is complete but before the report is presented to the Board."

SECTION 4. G.S. 74C-8(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) (1) A business entity other than a sole proprietorship shall not do business under this Chapter unless the business entity has in its employ a designated resident qualifying agent who meets the requirements for a license issued under this Chapter and who is, in fact, licensed under the provisions of this Chapter, unless otherwise approved by the Board. Provided however, that this approval shall not be given unless the business entity has and continuously maintains in this State a registered agent who shall be an individual resident in this State. Service upon the registered agent appointed by the business entity of any process, notice, or demand required by or permitted to be served upon the business entity by the Private Protective Services Board shall be binding upon the business entity and the licensee. Nothing herein contained shall limit or affect the right to serve any process, notice, or demand required or permitted by law to be served upon a business entity in any other manner now or hereafter permitted by law.

(2) For the purposes of the Chapter a qualifying agent means an individual in a management position who is licensed under this Chapter and whose name and address have been registered with the Director.

(3) In the event that the qualifying agent upon whom the business entity relies in order to do business ceases to perform his duties as qualifying agent, the business entity shall notify the Director within 10 working days. The business entity must obtain a substitute qualifying agent within 30 days after the original qualifying agent ceases to serve as qualifying agent unless for good cause: (i) the Board, in its discretion, ~~extends this period, for good cause, for a~~ extends the period of time not to exceed three ~~months.~~months; or (ii) following petition by an applicant and a hearing by the Board, the Board extends the period of time not to exceed six months.

(4) The certificate authorizing the business entity to engage in a private protective services profession shall list the name of at least one designated qualifying agent. No licensee shall serve as the qualifying agent for more than one business entity without prior approval of the Director, subject to the approval of the Board.

(5) The Department of Justice may provide a criminal record check to the Private Protective Services Board for a person who has applied for a new or renewal license, registration, certification, or permit through the Private Protective Services Board. The Board shall provide to the Department of Justice, along with the request, the fingerprints of ~~the applicant,~~a new applicant, and the Department of Justice shall provide a criminal record check based upon the applicant's fingerprints. The Board may request a criminal record check from the Department of Justice for a renewal applicant based upon the applicant's fingerprints in accordance with policy adopted by the Board. The Board shall provide any additional information required by the Department of Justice, and a form signed by the applicant consenting to the check of the criminal record and to the use of the fingerprints and other identifying information required by the State or national repositories. The applicant's fingerprints shall be forwarded to the State Bureau of Investigation for a search of the State's criminal history record file, and the State Bureau of Investigation shall forward a set of the fingerprints to the Federal Bureau of Investigation for a national criminal history check. The Board shall keep all information pursuant to this subdivision privileged, in accordance with applicable State law and federal guidelines, and the information shall be confidential and shall not be a public record under Chapter 132 of the General Statutes.

The Department of Justice may charge each applicant a fee for conducting the checks of criminal history records authorized by this subdivision."

SECTION 5. G.S. 74C-8(f) reads as rewritten:

"(f) Upon a finding that the application is in proper form, the completion of the background investigation, and the completion of an examination required by the Board, the Director shall submit to the Board the application and ~~his~~ the Director's recommendations. Upon completion of the background investigation, the Director may ~~in his discretion~~ issue a temporary license pending approval of the application by the Board at the next regularly scheduled meeting. The Board shall determine whether to approve or deny the application for a license. Upon approval by the Board, a license will be issued to the applicant upon payment by the applicant of the initial license fee and the required contribution to the Private Protective Services ~~Recovery~~ Education Fund, and certificate of liability insurance."

SECTION 6. G.S. 74C-9(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) The operator or manager of any branch office shall be properly licensed or registered. The license shall be posted at all times in a conspicuous place in the branch office. This license shall be issued for a term of ~~one year.~~two years. Every business covered under the provisions of this Chapter shall file in writing with the Board the addresses of each of its branch offices, if any, within 10 working days after the establishment, closing, or changing of the location of any branch office. The Director may, upon the successful completion of an investigation of the application, issue a temporary branch office license pending approval of the application by the Board."

SECTION 7. G.S. 74C-9(e) reads as rewritten:

"(e) The Board is authorized to charge reasonable application and license fees as follows:

(1) A nonrefundable initial application fee in an amount not to exceed one hundred fifty dollars ~~($150.00);~~($150.00).

(2) A new or renewal license fee in an amount not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250.00) per year of the license ~~term;~~term.

(3) A new or renewal trainee permit fee in an amount not to exceed two hundred fifty dollars ($250.00) per year of the license ~~term;~~term.

(4) A new or renewal fee for each license or duplicate license in addition to the basic license referred to in subsection (2) in an amount not to exceed fifty dollars ~~($50.00);~~($50.00) per year of the license term.

(5) A late renewal fee to be paid within 90 days from the date the license, registration, permit, or certification expires in addition to the renewal fee due in an amount not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100.00), if the ~~license~~ license, registration, permit, or certification has not been renewed on or before the expiration date of the ~~licensee;~~license, registration, permit, or certification.

(6) A new, renewal, replacement or reissuance fee for an unarmed registration identification card in an amount not to exceed thirty dollars ~~($30.00);~~($30.00).

(7) An application fee for a firearm registration permit not to exceed fifty dollars ~~($50.00);~~($50.00).

(8) A new, renewal, replacement, or reissuance fee for a firearm registration permit not to exceed thirty dollars ~~($30.00);~~($30.00).

(9) An application fee for certification as a certified trainer not to exceed fifty dollars ~~($50.00);~~($50.00).

(10) A renewal or replacement fee for certified trainer certification not to exceed twenty-five dollars ~~($25.00);~~($25.00).

(11) A new nonresident temporary permit fee not to exceed one hundred dollars ~~($100.00);~~($100.00).

(12) An unarmed registration transfer fee not to exceed fifteen dollars ~~($15.00);~~($15.00).

(13) A branch office license fee not to exceed fifty dollars ~~($50.00); and~~($50.00) per year of the license term.

(14) A special limited guard and patrol license fee not to exceed one hundred dollars ~~($100.00).~~($100.00) per year of the license term.

(15) A correctable error fee not to exceed one hundred dollars ($100.00) for each subsequent filing of an application following review and rejection of the initial application.

Except as provided in G.S. 74C-13(k), all fees collected pursuant to this section shall be expended, under the direction of the Board, for the purpose of defraying the expenses of administering this Chapter."

SECTION 8. G.S. 74C-11(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) All licensees may employ unarmed security guards as probationary employees for 20 consecutive calendar days. Upon completion of the probationary period and the desire of the licensee to hire an unarmed security guard as a regular employee, the licensee shall register the employee who will be engaged in providing private protective services covered by this Chapter with the Board within 30 days after the probationary employment period ends, unless the Director, in the Director's discretion, extends the time period, for good cause. Before a probationary employee engages in private protective services, the employee shall complete any training requirements, and the licensee shall conduct a criminal record check on the employee, as the Board deems appropriate. The licensee shall submit a list of the probationary employees to the Director on a monthly basis. The list shall include the name, address, social security number, and dates of employment of the employees.

To register an employee after the probationary period ends, a licensee must give the Board the following:

(1) Set(s) of classifiable fingerprints on standard F.B.I. applicant cards; recent photograph(s) of acceptable quality for identification; and

(2) Statements of any criminal records obtained from the appropriate authority in each area where the employee has resided within the immediately preceding 48 months."

SECTION 9. G.S. 74C-12(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) The Board may, after compliance with Chapter 150B of the General Statutes, deny, suspend or revoke a license, registration, or permit issued under this Chapter if it is determined that the applicant, licensee, registrant, or permit holder has done any of the following acts:

(1) Made any false statement or given any false information in connection with any application for a license, registration, or permit or for the renewal or reinstatement of a license, registration, or permit.

(2) Violated any provision of this Chapter.

(3) Violated any rule adopted by the Board pursuant to the authority contained in this Chapter.

(4) Repealed by Session Laws 1989, c. 759, s. 10.

(5) Impersonated or permitted or aided and abetted any other person to impersonate a law enforcement officer of the United States, this State, any other state, or any political subdivision of a state.

(6) Engaged in or permitted any employee to engage in a private protective services profession when not lawfully in possession of a valid license issued under the provisions of this Chapter.

(7) Willfully failed or refused to render to a client service as agreed between the parties and for which compensation has been paid or tendered in accordance with the agreement of the parties.

(9) Committed an unlawful breaking or entering, assault, battery, or kidnapping.

(10) Knowingly violated or advised, encouraged, or assisted the violation of any court order or injunction in the course of business as a licensee.

(11) Repealed by Session Laws 1989, c. 759, s. 10.

(12) Undertaken to give legal advice or counsel or to in any way falsely represent that he or she is representing any attorney or he or she is appearing or will appear as an attorney in any legal proceeding.

(13) Issued, delivered, or uttered any simulation of process of any nature which might lead a person ~~or persons~~ to believe that such simulation – written, printed, or typed – may be a summons, warrant, writ or court process, or any pleading in any court proceeding.

(14) Failed to make the required contribution to the Private Protective Services ~~Recovery~~ Education Fund or failed to maintain the certificate of liability insurance required by this Chapter.

(15) Violated the firearm provisions set forth in this Chapter.

(16) Repealed by Session Laws 1989, c. 759, s. 10.

(17) Failed to notify the Director by a business entity other than a sole proprietorship licensed pursuant to this Chapter of the cessation of employment of the business entity's qualifying agent within the time set forth in this Chapter.

(18) Failed to obtain a substitute qualifying agent by a business entity within 30 days after its qualifying agent has ceased to serve as the business entity's qualifying agent.

(19) Been judged incompetent by a court having jurisdiction under Chapter 35A or former Chapter 35 of the General Statutes or committed to a mental health facility for treatment of mental illness, as defined in G.S. 122C-3, by a court under G.S. 122C-271.

(20) Failed or refused to offer a report to a client within 30 days of the client's written request after the client has paid for services rendered.

(21) Been previously denied a license, registration, or permit under this Chapter or previously had a license, registration, or permit revoked for cause. The denial or revocation shall include a principal in the applicant's business.

(22) Engaged in a private protective services profession under a name other than the name under which the license was obtained under the provisions of this Chapter.

(23) Divulged to any person, except as required by law, any information acquired by the license holder except at the direction of the employer or client for whom the information was obtained. A licensee may divulge to any law enforcement officer or district attorney or district attorney's representative any information the law enforcement officer may require to investigate a criminal offense with the prior approval and consent of the client.

(24) Fraudulently held himself or herself out as employed by or licensed by the State Bureau of Investigation or any other governmental authority.

(25) ~~Intemperate~~ Demonstrated intemperate habits or ~~lacks~~ a lack of good moral character. The acts that are prima facie evidence of intemperate habits or lack of good moral character under G.S. 74C-8(d)(2) are prima facie evidence of the same under this subdivision.

(26) Advertised or solicited business using a name other than that in which the license was issued.

(27) Worn, carried, or accepted any badge or shield purporting to indicate that the person is a law enforcement officer while licensed under the provisions of this Chapter as a private investigator.

(28) Possessed or displayed a badge or shield while providing private protective services that was not designed and approved by the Board pursuant to G.S. 74C-5(12).

(29) Failed or refused to reasonably cooperate with the Board or its agents during an investigation of any complaint, allegation, suspicion of wrongdoing, or violation of this Chapter.

(30) Failed to properly make any disclosure to the Board or provide documents or information required by this Chapter or rules adopted by the Board.

(31) Engaged in conduct constituting dereliction of duty or otherwise deceived, defrauded, or harmed the public in the course of professional activities or services.

(32) Demonstrated a lack of financial responsibility."

SECTION 10. G.S. 74C-12(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) The following persons may not be issued a ~~license, registration, or permit~~license under this Chapter:

(1) A sworn court official.

(2) A holder of a company police commission under Chapter 74E of the General Statutes."

SECTION 11. G.S. 74C-13(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) It shall be unlawful for any person performing private protective services duties to carry a firearm in the performance of those duties without first having met the qualifications of this section and having been issued a firearm registration permit by the Board. A licensee shall register any individual carrying a firearm within 30 days of employment. Before engaging in any private protective services activity, the individual shall receive any required training prescribed by the Board."

SECTION 12. G.S. 74C-14 is repealed.

SECTION 13. G.S. 74C-21(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) No law enforcement officer of the United States, this State, any other state, or any political subdivision of a state shall be licensed as a private ~~detective~~ detective, digital forensics examiner, or security guard and patrol licensee under this Chapter."

SECTION 14. Chapter 74C of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 74C-23. Acquisition or change of ownership or control of licensed firm, association, or corporation.

In the event a company, firm, or corporation licensed under this Chapter transfers ownership, control, or a majority of assets to another person, firm, association, or corporation, the person, firm, association, or corporation acquiring control or ownership shall have the following responsibilities:

(1) Notify the Director of the acquisition or change of ownership or control by registered mail within five business days from the date of the transaction.

(2) Describe the transaction that has occurred by providing the following information:

a. The name and address of the registered agent of the party acquiring control or ownership or otherwise succeeding the licensee.

b. The name and address of the acquiring party, including each individual owner of any interest in the party or, if the party is a corporation, the name and address of each officer of the corporation and member of the board of directors.

c. Any change in location of any branch office.

d. Any change in insurance or bonding limits.

(3) Return to the Director all licenses held by the licensee within five business days from the date of the transaction if the acquiring party does not continue to operate the business under its previous name and license.

(4) Provide to the Director within 60 calendar days from the date of the transaction the following:

a. A list of all registrants or licensees affected by the transaction.

b. Written confirmation of completion of any changes necessary for the acquiring party to comply with the requirements of this Chapter or any applicable rules adopted by the Board on a form approved by the Director."

SECTION 15. G.S. 74C-30 reads as rewritten:

"Article 2.

"Private Protective Services ~~Recovery~~ Education Fund.

"§ 74C-30. Private Protective Services ~~Recovery~~ Education Fund created; payments to Fund; management; use of funds.

(a) There is hereby created and established a special fund to be known as the "Private Protective Services ~~Recovery~~ Education Fund" (hereinafter Fund) which shall be set aside and maintained in the Office of the State Treasurer. ~~Said~~ The Fund shall be used in the manner provided in this Article for the ~~payment of claims where the aggrieved person has suffered a~~ ~~direct monetary loss by reason of certain acts committed by any person licensed under this Chapter.~~education of licensees and registrants as deemed appropriate by the Board.

~~(b) Nothing contained in this Article shall limit the authority of the Board to take disciplinary action against any licensee or trainee under this Chapter, nor shall the repayment in full or all obligations to the Fund by any licensee or trainee nullify or modify the effect of any other disciplinary proceeding brought under this Chapter.~~

(c) In addition to the fees provided for elsewhere in this Chapter, the Board shall charge the following fees which shall be deposited into the Fund:

(1) Repealed by Session Laws 2007-511, s. 10.

(2) The Board shall charge each new applicant for a licensee or trainee permit fifty dollars ($50.00), provided that for purposes of this Article a new applicant is hereby defined as an applicant who did not possess a license or trainee permit on July 1, 1983; and

(3) The Board is authorized to charge each licensee and trainee an additional amount, not to exceed fifty dollars ($50.00), on July 1 of any year in which the balance of the Fund is less than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), provided that any amount so assessed will be only so much as is needed to raise the level of the Fund to twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000).

(d) The State Treasurer shall invest and reinvest the moneys in the Fund in a manner provided by ~~law, provided that sufficient liquidity shall be maintained to satisfy claims authorized by the Board. The proceeds from the investments shall be deposited to the credit of the Fund.~~law. The ~~Board~~ Board, in its discretion, may use ~~any and all of the proceeds from the investments or funds that exceed twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000)~~ the Fund for any of the following purposes:

(1) To advance education and research in the private protective services field for the benefit of those licensed or registered under the provisions of this Chapter and for the improvement of the industry.

(2) To underwrite educational seminars, training centers and other educational projects for the use and benefit generally of ~~licensees~~ licensees, registrants, and trainees.

(3) To sponsor, contract for and to underwrite any and all additional educational training and research projects of a similar nature having to do with the advancement of the private protective services field in North Carolina. The Board shall have the authority to sponsor courses given by private individuals, associations, or corporations. However, the Board shall only grant funds as necessary to offset the actual cost of the educational course. Any individual, association, or corporation receiving grant money from the Board shall make the course available to the industry at large. Any individual, association, or corporation receiving grant money from the Board and advertising the course to the industry is required to include in its advertising the following statement: "The course is being given in whole or in part by a grant from the Private Protective Services Board."

(e) By a unanimous vote of the Board, funds in the Fund in excess of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) may be converted to offset the operating expenses of the Board. However, in converting the funds, the Board shall make findings of fact by a written order or resolution supporting the need to make the conversion."

SECTION 16. G.S. 74C-31, 74C-32, and 74C-33 are repealed.

SECTION 17. This act becomes effective October 1, 2009.

SENATE BILL 584:
Amend Private Protective Services Act

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	April 6, 2009
Introduced by:	Sen. Snow	Prepared by:	Kory Goldsmith
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition S584-CSRCf-3		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: The Proposed Committee Substitute for Senate Bill 584 makes the following changes to Chapter 74C of the General Statutes, which regulates the private protective services profession:

- Adds "digital forensics examiner" to the list of regulated professions.
- Amends an exemption to provide regulation of any security guard working for a business if he or she is armed or is working at an establishment that serves alcohol.
- Provides confidentiality for ongoing investigations of violations by the Attorney General.
- Extends from 3 to 6 months the amount of time a licensed company has to replace a qualifying agent.
- Makes fingerprint background checks optional for renewal applicants.
- Makes the term of a branch office license two years instead of one, clarifies fees that are per year, specifies when a late renewal fee must be paid, and authorizes a reduced fee for applications that are resubmitted for correctable errors.
- Adds four new grounds for which a license may be denied, suspended, or revoked.
- Allows a sworn court official or holder of a company police commission to be registered or permitted.
- Requires registration of a firearm by a licensee within 30 days of employment, and requires the individual to receive training prior to engaging in private protective services.
- Repeals provision allowing use of mace.
- Adds provision setting out requirements for when a licensed business changes ownership.
- Converts the Private Protective Services Recovery Fund to an Education Fund.

BILL ANALYSIS:

"Digital forensics examiners" regulated. Currently, under Chapter 74C, the Private Protective Services Board regulates the private protective services profession, which includes security guards, private investigators, guard dog service, electronic countermeasures, detection of deception examiners, courier service, and the armored car profession. The bill adds "digital forensics examiners" as one of the listed professions regulated by the Board. Currently, a digital forensic examiner, depending on the type of work he or she performs, may or may not fall under the definition of a private investigator and require licensure.

Amend proprietary exemption. Under the current law, there is an exemption from licensure for a person who works regularly and exclusively for an employer in connection with the employer's business affairs. The bill excludes from this exemption an armed security guard who carries a firearm, or an armed or unarmed guard at an establishment that serves alcohol.

Confidential investigations. The Attorney General has the authority to investigate violations of Chapter 74C and report to the Board. Records of investigations are public records under G.S. 132-1 since there is no specific exemption. The bill would make these investigations confidential and not subject to the public records law until the investigation is complete and a report is presented to the Board.

Time within which a substitute qualifying agent must be named. A business entity that is licensed by the Board is required to employ a qualifying agent (a person in a management position who is licensed by the Board). If the qualifying agent ceases to serve, the business must obtain a substitute agent within 30 days, but the Board may extend that time to 3 months for good cause. The bill would extend the time within which a substitute qualifying agent must be named to 6 months. A petition by the applicant and a hearing by the Board would be required before the additional 3 month extension would be given.

Background check based on fingerprints. Currently, the Board is required to provide fingerprints to the Department of Justice for background checks of new and renewal license applicants. The bill would require the fingerprint check for new applicants only, and it would be optional for renewals.

License period/fee changes. In 2007, the term for licenses issues by the Board was changed from one year to two years. Because the provision applying to licenses for branch offices is set out in a separate subsection, it was overlooked. The bill amends that provision to make the term of the branch office license two years instead of one. The bill also amends the fee provision to clarify that license fees are per year, and sets a specific time period within which a late renewal fee must be paid (90 days from the date of expiration).

Correctable error fee. The bill creates a new reduced fee for applications that are resubmitted for correctable errors. The Board currently has the authority to charge up to $250 (the regular application fee) for any application that is resubmitted. The bill would provide a reduced fee of up to $100 for an application that is resubmitted for correctable errors.

Grounds for denying, suspending, revoking a license. The bill would add the following new grounds for denying, suspending, or revoking a license:

- Failure to cooperate with the Board during an investigation.
- Failure to make disclosures or provide documents to the Board as required.
- Dereliction of duty or otherwise deceiving, defrauding, or harming the public in the course of professional activities or services.
- Demonstrated lack of financial responsibility.

Persons prohibited from license, registration, permit. Current law prohibits sworn court officials and holders of a company police commission from being licensed, registered, or permitted under Chapter 74C. The bill would allow them to be registered or permitted, but not licensed.

Firearms training and registration requirements. In addition to being licensed, a person who performs private protective services and carries a firearm in the performance of those duties must also be issued a firearm registration permit by the Board. In order to get a firearm registration permit, an applicant must complete training, which includes classroom training and a minimum qualifying score on an approved target course. The bill would require registration of an individual carrying a firearm within 30 days of employment. It would also require that an individual receive training prior to engaging in private protective services activity.

Repeal provision allowing mace. The bill would repeal the provision that authorizes security guards to possess and use mace, as mace is no longer used.

Change of ownership of a licensed business. Chapter 74C does not currently provide requirements for licensed businesses that have a change of ownership or control. The bill adds a new statutory section to Chapter 74C setting out specific requirements for when a licensed business transfers ownership, control, or a majority of assets to another person, firm, association, or corporation. The person or entity acquiring control must:

- Notify the Director of the Board of the change within five business days of the transaction.
- Describe the transaction, including the name and address of the acquiring party and its registered agent, any change in location of a branch office, and any change in insurance or bonding limits.
- Return all licenses within five business days of the transaction if the acquiring party does not continue to operate the business under its previous name and license.
- Within 60 days of the transaction, provide a list of registrants or licensees affected and written confirmation of completion of any required changes.

Convert Private Protective Services Recovery Fund to Education Fund. Under current law, there is a Private Protective Services Recovery Fund, which is intended to be used for the payment of claims of aggrieved parties that have suffered a monetary loss because of acts committed by a licensee under Chapter 74C. New applicants and licensees are charged additional fees to be contributed to the Fund. Money in the Fund is to be invested by the State Treasurer, and the proceeds from the investments or fund in excess of $25,000 may be used for education, training, and research projects to benefit licensees and the industry. The bill would amend the law to make the Fund an education fund only, allowing all of the funds to be used for education, training, and research projects.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO DIRECT THE NORTH CAROLINA SENTENCING AND POLICY ADVISORY COMMISSION TO REVIEW AND EVALUATE THE CURRENT STRUCTURED SENTENCING SYSTEM FOR THE PURPOSE OF ELIMINATING MANDATORY MINIMUM SENTENCES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. The North Carolina Sentencing and Policy Advisory Commission shall review and evaluate the current sentencing structure in North Carolina as set out in Chapter 15A and Chapter 90 of the General Statutes for the purpose of eliminating the requirement that a mandatory minimum sentence be imposed for any crime. The Sentencing Commission shall develop a plan to revise the sentencing structure to eliminate mandatory minimum sentences and shall provide that plan and report its recommendations on how to implement the revised structure to the 2009 General Assembly, 2010 Regular Session.

March 25, 2009

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO ALLOW DISTRICT COURTS TO SUPERVISE DEFENDANTS CONVICTED IN SUPERIOR COURT WHO ARE ASSIGNED TO DRUG TREATMENT COURTS OR PROBLEM-SOLVING COURTS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 7A-271 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(f) The superior court has exclusive jurisdiction over all hearings to revoke probation pursuant to G.S. 15A-1345(e) in which the district court is supervising a drug treatment court or a problem-solving criminal court probation judgment under G.S. 7A-272(e)."

SECTION 2. G.S. 7A-272 is amended by adding two new subsections to read:

"(e) With the consent of the chief district court judge and the senior resident superior court judge, the district court has jurisdiction to preside over the supervision of probation judgments entered in superior court in which the defendant is required to participate in a drug treatment court program pursuant to G.S. 15A-1343(b1)(2b) or a problem-solving criminal court, as defined in subsection (f) of this section, or is participating in the drug treatment court pursuant to a deferred prosecution agreement under G.S. 15A-1341(a2). The district court may modify or extend the probation judgment, but jurisdiction to revoke probation supervised under this subsection is as provided in G.S. 7A-271(f).

(f) As used in subsection (e) of this section, the term "problem-solving criminal court" refers to a court program, other than a drug treatment court established pursuant to Article 62 of Chapter 7A of the General Statutes, in which a criminal defendant, either as a condition of probation or pursuant to a deferred prosecution agreement under G.S. 15A-1341, is ordered to participate in specified activities designed to address underlying problems, such as substance abuse or mental illness, that contribute to the person's criminal activity. The ordered activities shall, at a minimum, require the person to participate in treatment and attend regular court sessions of the treatment court over an extended period of time. The senior resident superior court judge and the chief district court judge shall agree in writing that the problem-solving criminal court is being established before jurisdiction established by subsection (f) may be exercised by the district court."

SECTION 3. G.S. 15A-1344(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) Authority to Alter or Revoke. – Except as provided in subsection (a1) or (b), probation may be reduced, terminated, continued, extended, modified, or revoked by any judge entitled to sit in the court which imposed probation and who is resident or presiding in the district court district as defined in G.S. 7A-133 or superior court district or set of districts as defined in G.S. 7A-41.1, as the case may be, where the sentence of probation was imposed, where the probationer violates probation, or where the probationer resides. Upon a finding that an offender sentenced to community punishment under Article 81B has violated one or more conditions of probation, the court's authority to modify the probation judgment includes the authority to require the offender to comply with conditions of probation that would otherwise make the sentence an intermediate punishment. The district attorney of the prosecutorial district as defined in G.S. 7A-60 in which probation was imposed must be given reasonable notice of any hearing to affect probation substantially."

SECTION 4. G.S. 15A-1344 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(a1) Authority to Supervise Probation in Drug Treatment Court or Problem-Solving Criminal Court. – Jurisdiction to supervise and modify probation imposed in cases in which the offender is required to participate in a drug treatment court or a problem-solving criminal court is as provided in G.S. 7A-272(e) and (f) and G.S. 7A-271(f). Proceedings to modify or revoke probation in such cases shall be held in the county in which the drug treatment court or problem-solving court is located."

SECTION 5. This act becomes effective October 1, 2009, and applies to probation judgments entered or deferred prosecution agreements executed on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 851:
Supervision of Certain Defendants

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	April 16, 2009
Introduced by:	Senator Vaughan	Prepared by:	Jeff Hudson Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	First Edition

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 851 would authorize a district court to supervise the probation of a defendant who is convicted in superior court and required to participate in a drug treatment court program or a problem-solving criminal court program or who is participating in a drug treatment court program pursuant to a deferred prosecution agreement.

[As introduced, this bill was identical to H1076, as introduced by Reps. Wiley, Jones, Harrison, which is currently in House Ways and Means/Broadband Connectivity, if favorable, Judiciary III.]

CURRENT LAW:

Under current law, the district court has jurisdiction over the trial of misdemeanor criminal actions. With the consent of the presiding district court judge, the prosecutor, and the defendant, the district court also has jurisdiction to accept a defendant's plea of guilty or no contest to a Class H or I felony under certain circumstances. Generally, the superior court has jurisdiction over all criminal actions not assigned to the district court. The superior court also jurisdiction over appeals from the district court.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Senate Bill 851 would provide that, with the consent of the chief district court judge and the senior resident superior court judge, the district court would supervise the probation of a defendant who is convicted in superior court and required to participate in a drug treatment court program or a problem-solving criminal court program or who is participating in a drug treatment court program pursuant to a deferred prosecution agreement. The district court would be authorized to modify or extend probation, but the authority to revoke probation would remain with the superior court.

Under Senate Bill 851, a "problem-solving criminal court" is a court program, other than a drug treatment court program, in which a criminal defendant must participate in specified activities designed to address underlying problems that contribute to the person's criminal behavior as a condition of the defendant's probation or deferred prosecution.

EFFECTIVE DATE:

Senate Bill 851 would become effective October 1, 2009, and apply to probation judgments entered or deferred prosecution agreements executed on or after that date.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT ALLOWING PROBATION OFFICERS IN THE DIVISION OF COMMUNITY CORRECTIONS ACCESS TO THE JUVENILE RECORDS OF PERSONS SUBJECT TO PROBATION UNDER THEIR SUPERVISION FOR THE PURPOSE OF DETERMINING RISK ASSESSMENT FOR PROBATION.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 7B-3000 reads as rewritten:

"§ 7B-3000. Juvenile court records.

(a) The clerk shall maintain a complete record of all juvenile cases filed in the clerk's office to be known as the juvenile record. The record shall include the summons and petition, any secure or nonsecure custody order, any electronic or mechanical recording of hearings, and any written motions, orders, or papers filed in the proceeding.

(b) All juvenile records shall be withheld from public inspection and, except as provided in this subsection, may be examined only by order of the court. Except as provided in subsection (c) of this section, the following persons may examine the juvenile's record and obtain copies of written parts of the record without an order of the court:

(1) The juvenile;

(2) The juvenile's parent, guardian, or custodian, or the authorized representative of the juvenile's parent, guardian, or custodian;

(3) The prosecutor; and

(4) Court counselors.

(5) Probation officers in the Division of Community Corrections of the Department of Correction in accordance with subsection (e1) of this section and G.S. 15A-1341(e).

Except as provided in subsection (c) of this section, the prosecutor may, in the prosecutor's discretion, share information obtained from a juvenile's record with law enforcement officers sworn in this State, but may not allow a law enforcement officer to photocopy any part of the record.

(c) The court may direct the clerk to "seal" any portion of a juvenile's record. The clerk shall secure any sealed portion of a juvenile's record in an envelope clearly marked "SEALED: MAY BE EXAMINED ONLY BY ORDER OF THE COURT", or with similar notice, and shall permit examination or copying of sealed portions of a juvenile's record only pursuant to a court order specifically authorizing inspection or copying.

(d) Any portion of a juvenile's record consisting of an electronic or mechanical recording of a hearing shall be transcribed only when notice of appeal has been timely given and shall be copied electronically or mechanically, only by order of the court. After the time for appeal has expired with no appeal having been filed, the court may enter a written order directing the clerk to destroy the recording of the hearing.

(e) The juvenile's record of an adjudication of delinquency for an offense that would be a felony if committed by an adult may be used by law enforcement, the magistrate, and the prosecutor for pretrial release and plea negotiating decisions.

(e1) A probation officer in the Division of Community Corrections assigned to supervise a person subject to probation under Article 82 of Chapter 15A of the General Statutes may examine the person's juvenile record without a court order at anytime during which the person is subject to probation for the purpose of determining risk assessment.

(f) The juvenile's record of an adjudication of delinquency for an offense that would be a Class A, B1, B2, C, D, or E felony if committed by an adult may be used in a subsequent criminal proceeding against the juvenile either under G.S. 8C-1, Rule 404(b), or to prove an aggravating factor at sentencing under G.S. 15A-1340.4(a), 15A-1340.16(d), or 15A-2000(e). The record may be so used only by order of the court in the subsequent criminal proceeding, upon motion of the prosecutor, after an in camera hearing to determine whether the record in question is admissible.

(g) Except as provided in subsection (d) of this section, a juvenile's record shall be destroyed only as authorized by G.S. 7B-3200 or by rules adopted by the Administrative Office of the Courts."

SECTION 2. G.S. 7B-3100(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) The Department, after consultation with the Conference of Chief District Court Judges, shall adopt rules designating certain local agencies that are authorized to share information concerning juveniles in accordance with the provisions of this section. Agencies so designated shall share with one another, upon request and to the extent permitted by federal law and regulations, information that is in their possession that is relevant to any assessment of a report of child abuse, neglect, or dependency or the provision or arrangement of protective services in a child abuse, neglect, or dependency case by a local department of social services pursuant to the authority granted under Chapter 7B of the General Statutes or to any case in which a petition is filed alleging that a juvenile is abused, neglected, dependent, undisciplined, or delinquent and shall continue to do so until the protective services case is closed by the local department of social services, or if a petition is filed when the juvenile is no longer subject to the jurisdiction of juvenile court. Agencies that may be designated as "agencies authorized to share information" include local mental health facilities, local health departments, local departments of social services, local law enforcement agencies, local school administrative units, the district's district attorney's office, the Department of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, the Division of Community Corrections of the Department of Correction, and the Office of Guardian ad Litem Services of the Administrative Office of the Courts. Any information shared among agencies pursuant to this section shall remain confidential, shall be withheld from public inspection, and shall be used only for the protection of the juvenile and others or to improve the educational opportunities of the juvenile, and shall be released in accordance with the provisions of the Family Educational and Privacy Rights Act as set forth in 20 U.S.C. § 1232g. Nothing in this section or any other provision of law shall preclude any other necessary sharing of information among agencies. Nothing herein shall be deemed to require the disclosure or release of any information in the possession of a district attorney."

SECTION 3. G.S. 15A-1341 is amended by adding the following new subsection to read:

"(e) Review of Defendant's Juvenile Record. – The probation officer assigned to the defendant may examine the defendant's juvenile record in a manner consistent with G.S. 7B-3000(e1)."

SECTION 4. This act becomes effective December 1, 2009, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date.

Except as provided in subsection (c) of this section, the following persons may examine the juvenile's record and obtain copies of written parts of the record without an order of the court:

(1) The juvenile;

(2) The juvenile's parent, guardian, or custodian, or the authorized representative of the juvenile's parent, guardian, or custodian;

(3) The prosecutor; ~~and~~

(4) Court ~~counselors.~~counselors; and

(5) Probation officers in the Division of Community Corrections of the Department of Correction in accordance with subsection (e1) of this section and G.S. 15A-1341(e).

Except as provided in subsection (c) of this section, the prosecutor may, in the prosecutor's discretion, share information obtained from a juvenile's record with law enforcement officers sworn in this State, but may not allow a law enforcement officer to photocopy any part of the record.

(c) The court may direct the clerk to "seal" any portion of a juvenile's record. The clerk shall secure any sealed portion of a juvenile's record in an envelope clearly marked "SEALED: MAY BE EXAMINED ONLY BY ORDER OF THE COURT", or with similar notice, and shall permit examination or copying of sealed portions of a juvenile's record only pursuant to a court order specifically authorizing inspection or copying.

(d) Any portion of a juvenile's record consisting of an electronic or mechanical recording of a hearing shall be transcribed only when notice of appeal has been timely given and shall be copied electronically or mechanically, only by order of the court. After the time for appeal has expired with no appeal having been filed, the court may enter a written order directing the clerk to destroy the recording of the hearing.

(e) The juvenile's record of an adjudication of delinquency for an offense that would be a felony if committed by an adult may be used by law enforcement, the magistrate, and the prosecutor for pretrial release and plea negotiating decisions.

(e1) A probation officer in the Division of Community Corrections assigned to supervise a person subject to probation under Article 82 of Chapter 15A of the General Statutes may examine the person's juvenile record without a court order at anytime during which the person is subject to probation for the purpose of determining risk assessment.

(f) The juvenile's record of an adjudication of delinquency for an offense that would be a Class A, B1, B2, C, D, or E felony if committed by an adult may be used in a subsequent criminal proceeding against the juvenile either under G.S. 8C-1, Rule 404(b), or to prove an aggravating factor at sentencing under G.S. 15A-1340.4(a), 15A-1340.16(d), or 15A-2000(e). The record may be so used only by order of the court in the subsequent criminal proceeding, upon motion of the prosecutor, after an in camera hearing to determine whether the record in question is admissible.

(g) Except as provided in subsection (d) of this section, a juvenile's record shall be destroyed only as authorized by G.S. 7B-3200 or by rules adopted by the Administrative Office of the Courts."

SECTION 2. G.S. 7B-3100(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) The Department, after consultation with the Conference of Chief District Court Judges, shall adopt rules designating certain local agencies that are authorized to share information concerning juveniles in accordance with the provisions of this section. Agencies so designated shall share with one another, upon request and to the extent permitted by federal law and regulations, information that is in their possession that is relevant to any assessment of a report of child abuse, neglect, or dependency or the provision or arrangement of protective services in a child abuse, neglect, or dependency case by a local department of social services pursuant to the authority granted under Chapter 7B of the General Statutes or to any case in which a petition is filed alleging that a juvenile is abused, neglected, dependent, undisciplined, or delinquent and shall continue to do so until the protective services case is closed by the local department of social services, or if a petition is filed when the juvenile is no longer subject to the jurisdiction of juvenile court. Agencies that may be designated as "agencies authorized to share information" include local mental health facilities, local health departments, local departments of social services, local law enforcement agencies, local school administrative units, the district's district attorney's office, the Department of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, the Division of Community Corrections of the Department of Correction, and the Office of Guardian ad Litem Services of the Administrative Office of the Courts. Any information shared among agencies pursuant to this section shall remain confidential, shall be withheld from public inspection, and shall be used only for the protection of the juvenile and others or to improve the educational opportunities of the juvenile, and shall be released in accordance with the provisions of the Family Educational and Privacy Rights Act as set forth in 20 U.S.C. § 1232g. Nothing in this section or any other provision of law shall preclude any other necessary sharing of information among agencies. Nothing herein shall be deemed to require the disclosure or release of any information in the possession of a district attorney."

SECTION 3. G.S. 15A-1341 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(e) Review of Defendant's Juvenile Record. – The probation officer assigned to the defendant may examine the defendant's juvenile record in a manner consistent with G.S. 7B-3000(e1)."

SECTION 4. This act becomes effective December 1, 2009, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 1082:
Juvenile Records/Probation Risk Assessment

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	April 16, 2009
Introduced by:	Sen. Snow	Prepared by:	Jennifer McGinnis Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition S1082-CSRI-8

SUMMARY: The Proposed Committee Substitute for Senate Bill 1082 would: (i) add probation officers in the Division of Community Corrections (Division) of the Department of Correction to a list of parties entitled to examine a juvenile's record and obtain copies of the record without a court order; and (ii) add the Division to a list of agencies authorized to share certain information concerning juveniles in the agencies' possession with one another.

CURRENT LAW: Under current law, the only persons entitled to examine and obtain copies of a juvenile's record absent a court order are: the juvenile, or the juvenile's parent, guardian, custodian, or an authorized representative of these persons; the prosecutor; and court counselors. Prosecutors are authorized to share information from the juvenile's record with sworn law enforcement officers, but prohibited from allowing a law enforcement officer to copy any part of the record.

The statutes also authorize certain agencies to share information with one another that is in the agencies' possession concerning a juvenile -- information relevant to any assessment of a report of child abuse, neglect, or dependency, or relevant to petitions filed alleging that a juvenile is abused, neglected, dependent, undisciplined, or delinquent. These authorized agencies currently include:

- Local mental health facilities, local health departments, local departments of social services, local law enforcement agencies, local school administrative units, and the district's district attorney's office
- The Department of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention
- The office of Guardian ad Litem Services of the Administrative Office of the Courts

BILL ANALYSIS: The PCS would permit probation officers assigned to supervise individuals subject to probation to examine the person's juvenile record without a court order at anytime during which the person is subject to probation for the purpose of determining risk assessment.

The PCS also adds the Division to the list of agencies authorized to share information concerning juveniles.

The PCS makes technical changes.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act becomes effective December 1, 2009, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT AMENDING RULE 4 OF THE NORTH CAROLINA RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE RELATING TO SERVICE OF PROCESS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 1A-1, Rule 4(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) Summons – Issuance; who may serve. – Upon the filing of the complaint, summons shall be issued forthwith, and in any event within five days. The complaint and summons shall be delivered to some proper person for service. In this State, such proper person shall be the sheriff of the county where service is to be ~~made or some other person duly authorized by law to serve summons.~~ made, the sheriff's deputy, any person not less than 21 years of age who is not a party, or some other person duly authorized by law to serve a summons. An authorized person includes a private investigator duly licensed under Chapter 74C of the General Statutes. Outside this State, such proper person shall be anyone who is not a party and is not less than 21 years of age or anyone duly authorized to serve summons by the law of the place where service is to be made. Upon request of the plaintiff separate or additional summons shall be issued against any defendants. A summons is issued when, after being filled out and dated, it is signed by the officer having authority to do so. The date the summons bears shall be prima facie evidence of the date of issue."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective October 1, 2009, and applies to civil actions instituted on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 852

Short Title:	Alcohol Screening Device Test Results.	(Public)
Sponsors:	Senator Vaughan.
Referred to:	Judiciary II.

March 25, 2009

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO ESTABLISH A THRESHOLD FOR POSITIVE ALCOHOL SCREENING TEST RESULTS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 20-16.3(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) Use of Screening Test Results or Refusal by Officer. – The fact that a driver showed a positive or negative result on an alcohol screening test, but not the actual alcohol concentration result, or a driver's refusal to submit may be used by a law-enforcement officer, is admissible in a court, or may also be used by an administrative agency in determining if there are reasonable grounds for believing:

(1) That the driver has committed an implied-consent offense under G.S. 20-16.2; and

(2) That the driver had consumed alcohol and that the driver had in his or her body previously consumed alcohol, but not to prove a particular alcohol concentration. Negative results on the alcohol screening test may be used in factually appropriate cases by the officer, a court, or an administrative agency in determining whether a person's alleged impairment is caused by an impairing substance other than alcohol.

For the purposes of this section, a positive result is a result that registers .08 or higher on an alcohol screening device. Any result that registers lower than .08 on an alcohol screening device is a negative result."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective December 1, 2009, and applies to alcohol screening tests taken on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 853

Short Title:	Motion for Appropriate Relief/New Requirement.	(Public)
Sponsors:	Senator Vaughan.
Referred to:	Judiciary II.

March 25, 2009

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO PROVIDE THAT AN ATTORNEY MAKING A MOTION FOR APPROPRIATE RELIEF, WHETHER BY ORAL OR WRITTEN MOTION, MUST CERTIFY IN WRITING TO THE COURT THAT THE ATTORNEY HAS REVIEWED THE TRIAL TRANSCRIPT AND HAS NOTIFIED AND CONSULTED WITH OR HAS MADE A GOOD FAITH EFFORT TO NOTIFY AND CONSULT WITH BOTH THE ATTORNEY WHO INITIALLY PROSECUTED THE CASE AND THE DEFENSE ATTORNEY WHO INITIALLY REPRESENTED THE DEFENDANT OF THE MOTION AND TO REQUIRE THAT THE CERTIFICATION APPEAR IN WRITING ON THE MOTION.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 15A-1420(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) Form, Service, Filing.

(1) A motion for appropriate relief must:

a. Be made in writing unless it is made:

1. In open court;
2. Before the judge who presided at trial;
3. Before the end of the session if made in superior court; and
4. Within 10 days after entry of judgment;

b. State the grounds for the motion;

c. Set forth the relief sought; ~~and~~

c1. Certify in writing that the attorney making the motion has reviewed the trial transcript and has notified and consulted with or has made a good faith effort to notify and consult with both the attorney who initially prosecuted the case and the defense attorney who initially represented the defendant in the case, if the defendant was represented by counsel, of the motion; and

d. Be timely filed.

(2) A written motion for appropriate relief must be served in the manner provided in G.S. 15A-951(b). When the written motion is made more than 10 days after entry of judgment, service of the motion and a notice of hearing must be made not less than five working days prior to the date of the hearing. When a motion for appropriate relief is permitted to be made orally the court must determine whether the matter may be heard immediately or at a later time. If the opposing party, or his counsel if he is represented, is not present, the court must provide for the giving of adequate notice of the motion and the date of hearing to the opposing party, or his counsel if he is represented by counsel.

(3) A written motion for appropriate relief must be filed in the manner provided in G.S. 15A-951(c).

(4) An oral or written motion for appropriate relief may not be granted in district court without the signature of the district attorney, indicating that the State has had an opportunity to consent or object to the motion. However, the court may grant a motion for appropriate relief without the district attorney's signature 10 business days after the district attorney has been notified in open court of the motion, or served with the motion pursuant to G.S. 15A-951(c).

(5) An oral or written motion for appropriate relief may not be granted by the court without written certification by the attorney making the motion that the attorney has reviewed the trial transcript and has notified and consulted with or has made a good faith effort to notify and consult with both the attorney who initially prosecuted the case and the defense attorney who initially represented the defendant in the case, if the defendant was represented by counsel, of the motion. The written certification required by this subdivision shall appear on the motion."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective December 1, 2009, and applies to all motions for appropriate relief made on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 853:
Motion for Appropriate Relief/New Requirement

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	April 21, 2009
Introduced by:	Sen. Vaughan	Prepared by:	Jennifer McGinnis
Analysis of:	First Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 853 would require that an attorney making a motion for appropriate relief must certify in writing to the court that the attorney has: (i) reviewed the trial transcript, and (ii) consulted with or made a good faith effort to notify the attorney who originally prosecuted the case and the attorney who initially represented the defendant of the motion.

CURRENT LAW: Article 89 of Chapter 15A of the General Statutes governs motions for appropriate relief, and provides for a single, unified procedure for raising at the trial level errors which are asserted to have been made during the trial. Relief available upon grant of a motion for appropriate relief includes:

- A new trial on all or any of the charges.
- Dismissal of all or any of the charges.
- Pursuant to relief sought by the State, (1) the imposition of sentence when prayer for judgment has been continued and grounds for the imposition of sentence are asserted; or (2) the initiation of any proceeding authorized under Article 82 (Probation), Article 83 (Imprisonment), and Article 84 (Fines), with regard to the modification of sentences.
- For claims of factual innocence, referral to the Innocence Inquiry Commission.
- Any other appropriate relief.

BILL ANALYSIS: The bill would require that an attorney making a motion for appropriate relief must certify in writing to the court that the attorney has: (i) reviewed the trial transcript, and (ii) consulted with or made a good faith effort to notify the attorney who originally prosecuted the case and the attorney who initially represented the defendant of the motion (if the defendant was represented by counsel).

EFFECTIVE DATE: The bill would become effective December 1, 2009, and apply to all motions for appropriate relief made on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 925

Short Title:	Misrepresentation of Bottled NC Spring Water.	(Public)
Sponsors:	Senator Apodaca.
Referred to:	Judiciary II.

March 26, 2009

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO PROVIDE THAT THE DECEPTIVE MISREPRESENTATION OF NORTH CAROLINA NATURAL SPRING WATER THAT IS OFFERED FOR SALE BY A BUSINESS IS AN UNFAIR TRADE PRACTICE.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Article 1 of Chapter 75 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 75-43. Deceptive misrepresentation of North Carolina natural spring water by a business.

(a) A person who is engaged in the business of selling, or offering for sale, bottled water as a beverage shall not misrepresent the bottled water to be 'North Carolina natural spring water.' A person misrepresents the bottled water to be 'North Carolina natural spring water' if the water is not water that is both:

(1) Derived from an underground land formation from which the water freely flows without the use of a borehole and without the aid of mechanical means.

(2) Collected at the natural orifice in the earth's surface (i) that is connected to the underground land formation and through which this water freely flows and (ii) that is on land located in North Carolina.

(b) A violation of this section is an unfair trade practice under G.S. 75-1.1."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective October 1, 2009, and applies to beverages that are sold or offered for sale on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 926

Short Title:	Misbranding of Bottled NC Spring Water.	(Public)
Sponsors:	Senator Apodaca.
Referred to:	Judiciary II.

March 26, 2009

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO PROVIDE THAT WATER THAT IS REPRESENTED AS NORTH CAROLINA NATURAL SPRING WATER AND OFFERED FOR SALE AS A BEVERAGE IS MISBRANDED AND, AS SUCH, THE PERSONS WHO BOTTLE, SELL, OR DELIVER SUCH ITEM ARE SUBJECT TO CIVIL AND CRIMINAL PENALTIES AND INJUNCTIONS, UNLESS IT IS FROM A NORTH CAROLINA NATURAL SPRING, WHICH IS WATER THAT IS DERIVED FROM AN UNDERGROUND LAND FORMATION FROM WHICH THE WATER FREELY FLOWS WITHOUT THE USE OF A BOREHOLE AND WITHOUT THE AID OF MECHANICAL MEANS AND THAT IS COLLECTED AT THE SPRING'S NATURAL ORIFICE IN THE EARTH'S SURFACE.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 106-130 reads as rewritten:

"§ 106-130. Foods deemed misbranded.

A food shall be deemed to be misbranded:

(1) a. If its labeling is false or misleading in any particular, or

b. If its labeling or packaging fails to conform with the requirements of G.S. 106-139 and 106-139.1 of this Article.

...

(16) If it purports to be or is represented as 'North Carolina natural spring water' and is offered for sale as a beverage, unless it is from a North Carolina natural spring. As used in this subdivision, 'North Carolina natural spring water' means water that is derived from an underground land formation from which the water freely flows without the use of a borehole and without the aid of mechanical means and that is collected at the natural orifice in the earth's surface (i) that is connected to the underground land formation and through which this water freely flows and (ii) that is on land located in North Carolina."

SECTION 2. G.S. 106-122(1) reads as rewritten:

"(1) The manufacture, sale, or delivery, holding or offering for sale of any food, drug, device, or cosmetic that is adulterated or ~~misbranded.~~misbranded and the bottling, sale, or delivery of any water that is adulterated or misbranded."

SECTION 3. G.S. 106-121(8) reads as rewritten:

"(8) The term "food" ~~means~~means any of the following:

a. Articles used for food or drink for man or other animals, including water that is bottled and offered for sale as a beverage.

b. Chewing ~~gum, and~~gum.

c. Articles used for components of any such article."

SECTION 4. This act becomes effective October 1, 2009, and applies to food items sold or offered for sale on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 926:
Misbranding of Bottled NC Spring Water

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	April 21, 2009
Introduced by:	Senator Apodaca	Prepared by:	Jeff Hudson
Analysis of:	First Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 926 would add products represented as North Carolina natural spring water that are not from a natural, North Carolina spring to the list of statutorily misbranded foods.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1. The bill would provide that a food is deemed to be misbranded if it purports to be North Carolina natural spring water and is not from a North Carolina natural spring where the water is derived from an underground land formation from which the water freely flows without the use of a borehole and without the aid of mechanical means and that is collected at the natural orifice in the earth's surface that is connected to the underground land formation and through which the water freely flows.

Section 2. The bill would add to the list of prohibited acts under the Food, Drug and Cosmetic Act the bottling, sale, or delivery of any water that is adulterated or misbranded.

Section 3. The bill would amend the definitions under the Act to include under the term 'food' water that is bottled and offered for sale as a beverage.

CURRENT LAW:

The Commissioner of Agriculture may seek a temporary or permanent injunction restraining any person from violating the provisions of Article 12 of Chapter 106, Food, Drugs and Cosmetics. The Commissioner may also assess civil penalties of not more than $2,000 against any person violating the provisions of that Article. Prior to assessing civil penalties, the Commissioner must give the person written notice and a reasonable time to correct the violation. Violations of the Article are Class 2 misdemeanors.

Violations of the Article include misbranding of foods. G.S. 106-130 sets forth various criteria by which a food is deemed misbranded, such as offering for sale a food under the name of another food or the food has labeling that is false or misleading in any particular. "Food" is defined as any of the following:

- Articles used for food or drink for man or other animals.
- Chewing gum.
- Articles used for components of any of the above.

Under federal law, the Food and Drug Administration (FDA), which is responsible for assuring that foods sold in the United States are safe, wholesome, and properly labeled, defines "spring water" as water derived from an underground formation from which water flows naturally to the surface of the earth. Spring water may be collected only at the spring or through a bore hole tapping the underground formation feeding the spring. Federal law also provides that no state may directly or indirectly establish any definition for food, including bottled water, for which there is a FDA definition unless the state definition is identical.

Federal law does provide an exemption process for a state that wants to use a definition different from the federal definition. The Secretary of Health and Human Services may exempt a state requirement from preemption if the requirement:

- Would not cause any food to be in violation of any applicable requirement under federal law.
- Would not unduly burden interstate commerce.
- Is designed to address a particular need for information that is not met by federal requirements.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act would become effective October 1, 2009, and apply to food or items sold or offered for sale on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 1078

Short Title:	Delay Bond/Probationer Arrested for Felony.	(Public)
Sponsors:	Senators Snow and Kinnaird.
Referred to:	Judiciary II.

March 31, 2009

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO PROVIDE THAT A PROBATIONER WHO IS ARRESTED AND CHARGED WITH THE COMMISSION OF A FELONY SHALL BE TEMPORARILY DETAINED WITHOUT BOND UNTIL THE COURT HAS SUFFICIENT INFORMATION TO DETERMINE WHETHER THE PROBATIONER'S RELEASE POSES A DANGER TO THE PUBLIC.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 15A-1345(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Bail Following Arrest for Probation Violation. – If at any time during the period of probation the probationer is arrested for a violation of any of the conditions of probation, he must be taken without unnecessary delay before a judicial official to have conditions of release pending a revocation hearing set in the same manner as provided in G.S. 15A-534. If the probationer has been convicted of an offense at any time that requires registration under Article 27A of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes or an offense that would have required registration but for the effective date of the law establishing the Sex Offender and Public Protection Registration Program, the court must make a finding that the probationer is not a danger to the public prior to release with or without bail. If a probationer is arrested and charged with the commission of a felony, the probationer shall not be released with or without bail until the court makes a finding that the probationer is not a danger to the public. If a probationer is arrested and charged with the commission of a felony, and the court finds that it has insufficient information to determine whether the probationer poses a danger to the public, then the probationer shall be detained without bond, not to exceed seven working days from the date of the arrest, until the court is provided sufficient information to determine whether the probationer poses a danger to the public."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective December 1, 2009, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 1087

Short Title:	Continuous Alcohol Monitoring Systems.	(Public)

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO ALLOW THE USE OF CONTINUOUS ALCOHOL MONITORING SYSTEMS AS A CONDITION OF PROBATION, TO MEET REQUIREMENTS FOR THE RESTORATION OF A REVOKED DRIVERS LICENSE, TO MITIGATE PUNISHMENTS FOR IMPAIRED DRIVING OFFENSES, AND TO ENSURE COMPLIANCE WITH CHILD CUSTODY AND VISITATION ORDERS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 15A-534.1(a)(2) reads as rewritten:

"(2) A judge may impose the following conditions on pretrial release:

a. That the defendant stay away from the home, school, business or place of employment of the alleged ~~victim;~~victim.

b. That the defendant refrain from assaulting, beating, molesting, or wounding the alleged ~~victim;~~victim.

c. That the defendant refrain from removing, damaging or injuring specifically identified ~~property;~~property.

d. That the defendant may visit his or her child or children at times and places provided by the terms of any existing order entered by a judge.

e. That the defendant abstain from alcohol consumption as verified by the use of an approved continuous alcohol monitoring system.

The conditions set forth above may be imposed in addition to requiring that the defendant execute a secured appearance bond."

SECTION 2. G.S. 15A-1340.11(6) reads as rewritten:

"(6) Intermediate punishment. – A sentence in a criminal case that places an offender on supervised probation and includes at least one of the following conditions:

a. Special probation as defined in G.S. 15A-1351(a).

b. Assignment to a residential program.

c. House arrest with electronic monitoring.

d. Intensive probation.

e. Assignment to a day-reporting center.

f. Assignment to a drug treatment court program.

g. Abstinence from alcohol consumption as verified by continuous alcohol monitoring system approved by the Department of Corrections."

SECTION 3. G.S. 15A-1543(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Regular Conditions. – As regular conditions of probation, a defendant must:

(1) Commit no criminal offense in any jurisdiction.

(2) Remain within the jurisdiction of the court unless granted written permission to leave by the court or his probation officer.

(3) Report as directed by the court or his probation officer to the officer at reasonable times and places and in a reasonable manner, permit the officer to visit him at reasonable times, answer all reasonable inquiries by the officer and obtain prior approval from the officer for, and notify the officer of, any change in address or employment.

(4) Satisfy child support and other family obligations as required by the court. If the court requires the payment of child support, the amount of the payments shall be determined as provided in G.S. 50-13.4(c).

(5) Possess no firearm, explosive device or other deadly weapon listed in G.S. 14-269 without the written permission of the court.

(6) Pay a supervision fee as specified in subsection (c1).

(7) Remain gainfully and suitably employed or faithfully pursue a course of study or of vocational training that will equip him for suitable employment. A defendant pursuing a course of study or of vocational training shall abide by all of the rules of the institution providing the education or training, and the probation officer shall forward a copy of the probation judgment to that institution and request to be notified of any violations of institutional rules by the defendant.

(8) Notify the probation officer if he fails to obtain or retain satisfactory employment.

(9) Pay the costs of court, any fine ordered by the court, and make restitution or reparation as provided in subsection (d).

(10) Pay the State of North Carolina for the costs of appointed counsel, public defender, or appellate defender to represent him in the case(s) for which he was placed on probation.

(11) At a time to be designated by his probation officer, visit with his probation officer a facility maintained by the Division of Prisons.

(12) Attend and complete an abuser treatment program if (i) the court finds the defendant is responsible for acts of domestic violence and (ii) there is a program, approved by the Domestic Violence Commission, reasonably available to the defendant, unless the court finds that such would not be in the best interests of justice.

~~A defendant shall not pay costs associated with a substance abuse monitoring program or any other special condition of probation in lieu of, or prior to, the payments required by this subsection.~~

In addition to these regular conditions of probation, a defendant required to serve an active term of imprisonment as a condition of special probation pursuant to G.S. 15A-1344(e) or G.S. 15A-1351(a) shall, as additional regular conditions of probation, obey the rules and regulations of the Department of Correction governing the conduct of inmates while imprisoned and report to a probation officer in the State of North Carolina within 72 hours of his discharge from the active term of imprisonment.

Regular conditions of probation apply to each defendant placed on supervised probation unless the presiding judge specifically exempts the defendant from one or more of the conditions in open court and in the judgment of the court. It is not necessary for the presiding judge to state each regular condition of probation in open court, but the conditions must be set forth in the judgment of the court.

Defendants placed on unsupervised probation are subject to the provisions of this subsection, except that defendants placed on unsupervised probation are not subject to the regular conditions contained in subdivisions (2), (3), (6), (8), and (11)."

SECTION 4. G.S. 15A-1343(b1) is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(b1) Special Conditions. – In addition to the regular conditions of probation specified in subsection (b), the court may, as a condition of probation, require that during the probation the defendant comply with one or more of the following special conditions:

...

(2c) Submit to continuous alcohol monitoring when alcohol dependency or chronic abuse has been identified by a substance abuse assessment, or have two or more convictions for any alcohol related offense, including impaired driving offenses.

...."

SECTION 5. G.S. 15A-1343.2(f) is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(f) Delegation to Probation Officer in Intermediate Punishments. – Unless the presiding judge specifically finds in the judgment of the court that delegation is not appropriate, the Division of Community Corrections in the Department of Correction may require an offender sentenced to intermediate punishment to:

(1) Perform up to 50 hours of community service, and pay the fee prescribed by law for this ~~supervision;~~supervision.

(2) Submit to a curfew which requires the offender to remain in a specified place for a specified period each day and wear a device that permits the offender's compliance with the condition to be monitored ~~electronically;~~electronically.

(3) Submit to substance abuse assessment, monitoring or ~~treatment; or~~treatment, including continuous alcohol monitoring when abstinence from alcohol consumption has been specified as a term of probation.

(4) Participate in an educational or vocational skills development program.

(5) Submit to satellite-based monitoring pursuant to Part 5 of Article 27A of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes, if the defendant is described by G.S. 14-208.40(a)(2).

If the Division imposes any of the above requirements, then it may subsequently reduce or remove those same requirements.

If the probation officer exercises authority delegated to him or her by the court pursuant to this subsection, the offender may file a motion with the court to review the action taken by the probation officer. The offender shall be given notice of the right to seek such a court review. The Division may exercise any authority delegated to it under this subsection only if it first determines that the offender has failed to comply with one or more of the conditions of probation imposed by the court."

SECTION 6. G.S. 20-19(e1) reads as rewritten:

"(e1) Notwithstanding subsection (e) of this section, the Division may conditionally restore the license of a person to whom subsection (e) applies after it has been revoked for at least three years under subsection (e) if the person provides the Division with satisfactory proof of all of the following:

(1) In the three years immediately preceding the person's application for a restored license, the person has not been convicted in North Carolina or in any other state or federal court of a motor vehicle offense, an alcohol beverage control law offense, a drug law offense, or any criminal offense involving the consumption of alcohol or drugs.

(2) The person is not currently an excessive user of alcohol, drugs, or prescription drugs, or unlawfully using any controlled substance. The person may voluntarily submit themselves to continuous alcohol monitoring for the purpose of proving abstinence from alcohol consumption during the revocation period. Monitoring periods of 120 days or longer shall be accepted by the Division as evidence of abstinence. The person shall use a continuous alcohol monitoring system approved by the Department of Corrections."

SECTION 7. G.S. 20-19(e2) reads as rewritten:

"(e2) Notwithstanding subsection (e) of this section, the Division may conditionally restore the license of a person to whom subsection (e) applies after it has been revoked for at least 24 months under G.S. 20-17(a)(2) if the person provides the Division with satisfactory proof of all of the following:

(1) The person has not consumed any alcohol for the 12 months preceding the restoration while being monitored by a continuous alcohol monitoring device of a type approved by the Department of Correction.

(2) The person has not in the period of revocation been convicted in North Carolina or any other state or federal jurisdiction of a motor vehicle offense, an alcoholic beverage control law offense, a drug law offense, or any other criminal offense involving the possession or consumption of alcohol or drugs.

(3) The person is not currently an excessive user of alcohol, drugs or prescription drugs. The person may voluntarily submit themselves to continuous alcohol monitoring for the purpose of proving abstinence from alcohol consumption during the revocation period. Monitoring periods of 120 days or longer shall be accepted by the Division as evidence of abstinence. The person must use a continuous alcohol monitoring system approved by the Department of Corrections.

(4) The person is not unlawfully using any controlled substance."

SECTION 8. G.S. 20-28(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) Driving While License Revoked. – Except as provided in subsection (a1) of this section, any person whose drivers license has been revoked who drives any motor vehicle upon the highways of the State while the license is revoked is guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor. Upon conviction, the person's license shall be revoked for an additional period of one year for the first offense, two years for the second offense, and permanently for a third or subsequent offense.

In cases involving revocation as a result of convictions under G.S. 20-138.1, the judge may order the offender to abstain from alcohol consumption and verify compliance by continuous alcohol monitoring for a minimum period of 90 days instead of incarceration.

The restoree of a revoked drivers license who operates a motor vehicle upon the highways of the State without maintaining financial responsibility as provided by law shall be punished as for driving without a license."

SECTION 9. G.S. 20-179 reads as rewritten:

"§ 20-179. Sentencing hearing after conviction for impaired driving; determination of grossly aggravating and aggravating and mitigating factors; punishments.

(a) Sentencing Hearing Required. – After a conviction under G.S. 20-138.1, G.S. 20-138.2, a second or subsequent conviction under G.S. 20-138.2A, or a second or subsequent conviction under G.S. 20-138.2B, or when any of those offenses are remanded back to district court after an appeal to superior court, the judge shall hold a sentencing hearing to determine whether there are aggravating or mitigating factors that affect the sentence to be imposed.

(1) The court shall consider evidence of aggravating or mitigating factors present in the offense that make an aggravated or mitigated sentence appropriate. The State bears the burden of proving beyond a reasonable doubt that an aggravating factor exists, and the offender bears the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence that a mitigating factor exists.

(2) Before the hearing the prosecutor shall make all feasible efforts to secure the defendant's full record of traffic convictions, and shall present to the judge that record for consideration in the hearing. Upon request of the defendant, the prosecutor shall furnish the defendant or his attorney a copy of the defendant's record of traffic convictions at a reasonable time prior to the introduction of the record into evidence. In addition, the prosecutor shall present all other appropriate grossly aggravating and aggravating factors of which he is aware, and the defendant or his attorney may present all appropriate mitigating factors. In every instance in which a valid chemical analysis is made of the defendant, the prosecutor shall present evidence of the resulting alcohol concentration.

(a1) Jury Trial in Superior Court; Jury Procedure if Trial Bifurcated. –

(1) Notice. – If the defendant appeals to superior court, and the State intends to use one or more aggravating factors under subsections (c) or (d) of this section, the State must provide the defendant with notice of its intent. The notice shall be provided no later than 10 days prior to trial and shall contain a plain and concise factual statement indicating the factor or factors it intends to use under the authority of subsections (c) and (d) of this section. The notice must list all the aggravating factors that the State seeks to establish.

(2) Aggravating factors. – The defendant may admit to the existence of an aggravating factor, and the factor so admitted shall be treated as though it were found by a jury pursuant to the procedures in this section. If the defendant does not so admit, only a jury may determine if an aggravating factor is present. The jury impaneled for the trial may, in the same trial, also determine if one or more aggravating factors is present, unless the court determines that the interests of justice require that a separate sentencing proceeding be used to make that determination. If the court determines that a separate proceeding is required, the proceeding shall be conducted by the trial judge before the trial jury as soon as practicable after the guilty verdict is returned. The State bears the burden of proving beyond a reasonable doubt that an aggravating factor exists, and the offender bears the burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence that a mitigating factor exists.

(3) Convening the jury. – If prior to the time that the trial jury begins its deliberations on the issue of whether one or more aggravating factors exist, any juror dies, becomes incapacitated or disqualified, or is discharged for any reason, an alternate juror shall become a part of the jury and serve in all respects as those selected on the regular trial panel. An alternate juror shall become a part of the jury in the order in which the juror was selected. If the trial jury is unable to reconvene for a hearing on the issue of whether one or more aggravating factors exist after having determined the guilt of the accused, the trial judge shall impanel a new jury to determine the issue.

(4) Jury selection. – A jury selected to determine whether one or more aggravating factors exist shall be selected in the same manner as juries are selected for the trial of criminal cases.

(a2) Jury Trial on Aggravating Factors in Superior Court.

(1) Defendant admits aggravating factor only. – If the defendant admits that an aggravating factor exists, but pleads not guilty to the underlying charge, a jury shall be impaneled to dispose of the charge only. In that case, evidence that relates solely to the establishment of an aggravating factor shall not be admitted in the trial.

(2) Defendant pleads guilty to the charge only. – If the defendant pleads guilty to the charge, but contests the existence of one or more aggravating factors, a jury shall be impaneled to determine if the aggravating factor or factors exist.

(b) Repealed by Session Laws 1983, c. 435, s. 29.

(c) Determining Existence of Grossly Aggravating Factors. – At the sentencing hearing, based upon the evidence presented at trial and in the hearing, the judge, or the jury in superior court, must first determine whether there are any grossly aggravating factors in the case. Whether a prior conviction exists under subdivision (1) of this subsection, or whether a conviction exists under subdivision (d)(5) of this section, shall be matters to be determined by the judge, and not the jury, in district or superior court. If the sentencing hearing is for a case remanded back to district court from superior court, the judge shall determine whether the defendant has been convicted of any offense that was not considered at the initial sentencing hearing and impose the appropriate sentence under this section. The judge must impose the Level One punishment under subsection (g) of this section if it is determined that two or more grossly aggravating factors apply. The judge must impose the Level Two punishment under subsection (h) of this section if it is determined that only one of the grossly aggravating factors applies. The grossly aggravating factors are:

(1) A prior conviction for an offense involving impaired driving if:

a. The conviction occurred within seven years before the date of the offense for which the defendant is being sentenced; or

b. The conviction occurs after the date of the offense for which the defendant is presently being sentenced, but prior to or contemporaneously with the present sentencing; or

c. The conviction occurred in district court; the case was appealed to superior court; the appeal has been withdrawn, or the case has been remanded back to district court; and a new sentencing hearing has not been held pursuant to G.S. 20-38.7.

Each prior conviction is a separate grossly aggravating factor.

(2) Driving by the defendant at the time of the offense while his driver's license was revoked under G.S. 20-28, and the revocation was an impaired driving revocation under G.S. 20-28.2(a).

(3) Serious injury to another person caused by the defendant's impaired driving at the time of the offense.

(4) Driving by the defendant while a child under the age of 16 years was in the vehicle at the time of the offense.

In imposing a Level One or Two punishment, the judge may consider the aggravating and mitigating factors in subsections (d) and (e) in determining the appropriate sentence. If there are no grossly aggravating factors in the case, the judge must weigh all aggravating and mitigating factors and impose punishment as required by subsection (f).

(c1) Written Findings. – The court shall make findings of the aggravating and mitigating factors present in the offense. If the jury finds factors in aggravation, the court shall ensure that those findings are entered in the court's determination of sentencing factors form or any comparable document used to record the findings of sentencing factors. Findings shall be in writing.

(d) Aggravating Factors to Be Weighed. – The judge, or the jury in superior court, shall determine before sentencing under subsection (f) whether any of the aggravating factors listed below apply to the defendant. The judge shall weigh the seriousness of each aggravating factor in the light of the particular circumstances of the case. The factors are:

(1) Gross impairment of the defendant's faculties while driving or an alcohol concentration of 0.15 or more within a relevant time after the driving. For purposes of this subdivision, the results of a chemical analysis presented at trial or sentencing shall be sufficient to prove the person's alcohol concentration, shall be conclusive, and shall not be subject to modification by any party, with or without approval by the court.

(2) Especially reckless or dangerous driving.

(3) Negligent driving that led to a reportable accident.

(4) Driving by the defendant while his driver's license was revoked.

(5) Two or more prior convictions of a motor vehicle offense not involving impaired driving for which at least three points are assigned under G.S. 20-16 or for which the convicted person's license is subject to revocation, if the convictions occurred within five years of the date of the offense for which the defendant is being sentenced, or one or more prior convictions of an offense involving impaired driving that occurred more than seven years before the date of the offense for which the defendant is being sentenced.

(6) Conviction under G.S. 20-141.5 of speeding by the defendant while fleeing or attempting to elude apprehension.

(7) Conviction under G.S. 20-141 of speeding by the defendant by at least 30 miles per hour over the legal limit.

(8) Passing a stopped school bus in violation of G.S. 20-217.

(9) Any other factor that aggravates the seriousness of the offense.

Except for the factor in subdivision (5) the conduct constituting the aggravating factor shall occur during the same transaction or occurrence as the impaired driving offense.

(e) Mitigating Factors to Be Weighed. – The judge shall also determine before sentencing under subsection (f) whether any of the mitigating factors listed below apply to the defendant. The judge shall weigh the degree of mitigation of each factor in light of the particular circumstances of the case. The factors are:

(1) Slight impairment of the defendant's faculties resulting solely from alcohol, and an alcohol concentration that did not exceed 0.09 at any relevant time after the driving.

(2) Slight impairment of the defendant's faculties, resulting solely from alcohol, with no chemical analysis having been available to the defendant.

(3) Driving at the time of the offense that was safe and lawful except for the impairment of the defendant's faculties.

(4) A safe driving record, with the defendant's having no conviction for any motor vehicle offense for which at least four points are assigned under G.S. 20-16 or for which the person's license is subject to revocation within five years of the date of the offense for which the defendant is being sentenced.

(5) Impairment of the defendant's faculties caused primarily by a lawfully prescribed drug for an existing medical condition, and the amount of the drug taken was within the prescribed dosage.

(6) The defendant's voluntary submission to a mental health facility for assessment after he was charged with the impaired driving offense for which he is being sentenced, and, if recommended by the facility, his voluntary participation in the recommended treatment.

(6a) Completion of a substance abuse assessment, compliance with its recommendations, and simultaneously maintaining 60 days of continuous abstinence from alcohol consumption, as proven by a continuous alcohol monitoring system. The continuous alcohol monitoring system shall be of a type approved by the Department of Correction.

(7) Any other factor that mitigates the seriousness of the offense.

Except for the factors in subdivisions (4), (6), (6a), and (7), the conduct constituting the mitigating factor shall occur during the same transaction or occurrence as the impaired driving offense.

(f) Weighing the Aggravating and Mitigating Factors. – If the judge or the jury in the sentencing hearing determines that there are no grossly aggravating factors, the judge shall weigh all aggravating and mitigating factors listed in subsections (d) and (e). If the judge determines that:

(1) The aggravating factors substantially outweigh any mitigating factors, the judge shall note in the judgment the factors found and his finding that the defendant is subject to the Level Three punishment and impose a punishment within the limits defined in subsection (i).

(2) There are no aggravating and mitigating factors, or that aggravating factors are substantially counterbalanced by mitigating factors, the judge shall note in the judgment any factors found and the finding that the defendant is subject to the Level Four punishment and impose a punishment within the limits defined in subsection (j).

(3) The mitigating factors substantially outweigh any aggravating factors, the judge shall note in the judgment the factors found and his finding that the defendant is subject to the Level Five punishment and impose a punishment within the limits defined in subsection (k).

It is not a mitigating factor that the driver of the vehicle was suffering from alcoholism, drug addiction, diminished capacity, or mental disease or defect. Evidence of these matters may be received in the sentencing hearing, however, for use by the judge in formulating terms and conditions of sentence after determining which punishment level shall be imposed.

(f1) Aider and Abettor Punishment. – Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, a person convicted of impaired driving under G.S. 20-138.1 under the common law concept of aiding and abetting is subject to Level Five punishment. The judge need not make any findings of grossly aggravating, aggravating, or mitigating factors in such cases.

(g) Level One Punishment. – A defendant subject to Level One punishment may be fined up to four thousand dollars ($4,000) and shall be sentenced to a term of imprisonment that includes a minimum term of not less than 30 days and a maximum term of not more than 24 months. The term of imprisonment may be suspended only if a condition of special probation is imposed to require the defendant to serve a term of imprisonment of at least 30 ~~days.~~ days or if the defendant has abstained from consuming alcohol for at least 180 consecutive days, as verified by a continuous alcohol monitoring system approved by the Department of Corrections. If the defendant is placed on probation, the judge shall impose a requirement that the defendant obtain a substance abuse assessment and the education or treatment required by G.S. 20-17.6 for the restoration of a drivers license and as a condition of probation. The judge may impose any other lawful condition of probation.

(h) Level Two Punishment. – A defendant subject to Level Two punishment may be fined up to two thousand dollars ($2,000) and shall be sentenced to a term of imprisonment that includes a minimum term of not less than seven days and a maximum term of not more than 12 months. The term of imprisonment may be suspended only if a condition of special probation is imposed to require the defendant to serve a term of imprisonment of at least seven ~~days.~~ days or if the defendant has abstained from consuming alcohol for at least 90 consecutive days, as verified by a continuous alcohol monitoring system approved by the Department of Corrections. If the defendant is placed on probation, the judge shall impose a requirement that the defendant obtain a substance abuse assessment and the education or treatment required by G.S. 20-17.6 for the restoration of a drivers license and as a condition of probation. The judge may impose any other lawful condition of probation.

~~(h1) The judge may impose, as a condition of probation for defendants subject to Level One or Level Two punishments, that the defendant abstain from alcohol consumption for a minimum of 30 days, to a maximum of 60 days, as verified by a continuous alcohol monitoring system. The total cost to the defendant for the continuous alcohol monitoring system may not exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000). The defendant's abstinence from alcohol shall be verified by a continuous alcohol monitoring system of a type approved by the Department of Correction.~~

~~(h2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (h1), if the court finds, upon good cause shown, that the defendant should not be required to pay the costs of the continuous alcohol monitoring system, the court shall not impose the use of a continuous alcohol monitoring system unless the local governmental entity responsible for the incarceration of the defendant in the local confinement facility agrees to pay the costs of the system.~~

~~(h3) Any fees or costs paid pursuant to subsections (h1) or (h2) of this section shall be paid to the clerk of court for the county in which the judgment was entered or the deferred prosecution agreement was filed. Fees or costs collected under this subsection shall be transmitted to the entity providing the continuous alcohol monitoring system.~~

(i) Level Three Punishment. – A defendant subject to Level Three punishment may be fined up to one thousand dollars ($1,000) and shall be sentenced to a term of imprisonment that includes a minimum term of not less than 72 hours and a maximum term of not more than six months. The term of imprisonment may be suspended. However, the suspended sentence shall include the condition that the defendant:

(1) Be imprisoned for a term of at least 72 hours as a condition of special probation; or
(2) Perform community service for a term of at least 72 hours; or
(3) Repealed by Session Laws 2006-253, s. 23, effective December 1, 2006, and applicable to offenses committed on or after that date.
(4) Any combination of these conditions.

If the defendant is placed on probation, the judge shall impose a requirement that the defendant obtain a substance abuse assessment and the education or treatment required by G.S. 20-17.6 for the restoration of a drivers license and as a condition of probation. The judge may impose any other lawful condition of probation.

(j) Level Four Punishment. – A defendant subject to Level Four punishment may be fined up to five hundred dollars ($500.00) and shall be sentenced to a term of imprisonment that includes a minimum term of not less than 48 hours and a maximum term of not more than 120 days. The term of imprisonment may be suspended. However, the suspended sentence shall include the condition that the defendant:

(1) Be imprisoned for a term of 48 hours as a condition of special probation; or
(2) Perform community service for a term of 48 hours; or
(3) Repealed by Session Laws 2006-253, s. 23, effective December 1, 2006, and applicable to offenses committed on or after that date.

(4) Any combination of these conditions.

If the defendant is placed on probation, the judge shall impose a requirement that the defendant obtain a substance abuse assessment and the education or treatment required by G.S. 20-17.6 for the restoration of a drivers license and as a condition of probation. The judge may impose any other lawful condition of probation.

(k) Level Five Punishment. – A defendant subject to Level Five punishment may be fined up to two hundred dollars ($200.00) and shall be sentenced to a term of imprisonment that includes a minimum term of not less than 24 hours and a maximum term of not more than 60 days. The term of imprisonment may be suspended. However, the suspended sentence shall include the condition that the defendant:

(1) Be imprisoned for a term of 24 hours as a condition of special probation; or

(2) Perform community service for a term of 24 hours; or

(3) Repealed by Session Laws 2006-253, s. 23, effective December 1, 2006, and applicable to offenses committed on or after that date.

(4) Any combination of these conditions.

If the defendant is placed on probation, the judge shall impose a requirement that the defendant obtain a substance abuse assessment and the education or treatment required by G.S. 20-17.6 for the restoration of a drivers license and as a condition of probation. The judge may impose any other lawful condition of probation.

(k1) Credit for Inpatient Treatment. – Pursuant to G.S. 15A-1351(a), the judge may order that a term of imprisonment imposed as a condition of special probation under any level of punishment be served as an inpatient in a facility operated or licensed by the State for the treatment of alcoholism or substance abuse where the defendant has been accepted for admission or commitment as an inpatient. The defendant shall bear the expense of any treatment unless the trial judge orders that the costs be absorbed by the State. The judge may impose restrictions on the defendant's ability to leave the premises of the treatment facility and require that the defendant follow the rules of the treatment facility. The judge may credit against the active sentence imposed on a defendant the time the defendant was an inpatient at the treatment facility, provided such treatment occurred after the commission of the offense for which the defendant is being sentenced. This section shall not be construed to limit the authority of the judge in sentencing under any other provisions of law.

(k2) Probationary Requirement for Abstinence and Use of Continuous Alcohol Monitoring. – The judge may order that as a condition of special probation for any level of offense under G.S. 20-179 that the defendant abstain from alcohol consumption as verified by a continuous alcohol monitoring system of a type approved by the Department of Corrections.

(k3) Probation officers may require defendants to submit to continuous alcohol monitoring for assessment purposes if the defendant has been required to abstain from alcohol consumption during the term of probation and the probation officer believes the defendant is consuming alcohol.

(k4) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (g), (h), (k2), and (k3), if the court finds, upon good cause shown, that the defendant should not be required to pay the costs of the continuous alcohol monitoring system, the court shall not impose the use of a continuous alcohol monitoring system unless the local governmental entity responsible for the incarceration of the defendant in the local confinement facility agrees to pay the costs of the system.

(l) Repealed by Session Laws 1989, c. 691.

(m) Repealed by Session Laws 1995, c. 496, s. 2.

(n) Time Limits for Performance of Community Service. – If the judgment requires the defendant to perform a specified number of hours of community service as provided in subsections (i), (j), or (k), the community service shall be completed:

(1) Within 90 days, if the amount of community service required is 72 hours or more; or
(2) Within 60 days, if the amount of community service required is 48 hours; or
(3) Within 30 days, if the amount of community service required is 24 hours.

The court may extend these time limits upon motion of the defendant if it finds that the defendant has made a good faith effort to comply with the time limits specified in this subsection.

(o) Evidentiary Standards; Proof of Prior Convictions. – In the sentencing hearing, the State shall prove any grossly aggravating or aggravating factor beyond a reasonable doubt, and the defendant shall prove any mitigating factor by the greater weight of the evidence. Evidence adduced by either party at trial may be utilized in the sentencing hearing. Except as modified by this section, the procedure in G.S. 15A-1334(b) governs. The judge may accept any evidence as to the presence or absence of previous convictions that he finds reliable but he shall give prima facie effect to convictions recorded by the Division or any other agency of the State of North Carolina. A copy of such conviction records transmitted by the police information network in general accordance with the procedure authorized by G.S. 20-26(b) is admissible in evidence without further authentication. If the judge decides to impose an active sentence of imprisonment that would not have been imposed but for a prior conviction of an offense, the judge shall afford the defendant an opportunity to introduce evidence that the prior conviction had been obtained in a case in which he was indigent, had no counsel, and had not waived his right to counsel. If the defendant proves by the preponderance of the evidence all three above facts concerning the prior case, the conviction may not be used as a grossly aggravating or aggravating factor.

(p) Limit on Amelioration of Punishment. – For active terms of imprisonment imposed under this section:

(1) The judge may not give credit to the defendant for the first 24 hours of time spent in incarceration pending trial.
(2) The defendant shall serve the mandatory minimum period of imprisonment and good or gain time credit may not be used to reduce that mandatory minimum period.
(3) The defendant may not be released on parole unless he is otherwise eligible, has served the mandatory minimum period of imprisonment, and has obtained a substance abuse assessment and completed any recommended treatment or training program.

With respect to the minimum or specific term of imprisonment imposed as a condition of special probation under this section, the judge may not give credit to the defendant for the first 24 hours of time spent in incarceration pending trial.

(q) Repealed by Session Laws 1991, c. 726, s. 20.

(r) Supervised Probation Terminated. – Unless a judge in his discretion determines that supervised probation is necessary, and includes in the record that he has received evidence and finds as a fact that supervised probation is necessary, and states in his judgment that supervised probation is necessary, a defendant convicted of an offense of impaired driving shall be placed on unsupervised probation if he meets three conditions. These conditions are that he has not been convicted of an offense of impaired driving within the seven years preceding the date of this offense for which he is sentenced, that the defendant is sentenced under subsections (i), (j), and (k) of this section, and has obtained any necessary substance abuse assessment and completed any recommended treatment or training program.

When a judge determines in accordance with the above procedures that a defendant should be placed on supervised probation, the judge shall authorize the probation officer to modify the defendant's probation by placing the defendant on unsupervised probation upon the completion by the defendant of the following conditions of his suspended sentence:

(1) Community service; or
(2) Repealed by Session Laws 1995 c. 496, s. 2.
(3) Payment of any fines, court costs, and fees; or
(4) Any combination of these conditions.

(s) Method of Serving Sentence. – The judge in his discretion may order a term of imprisonment to be served on weekends, even if the sentence cannot be served in consecutive sequence. However, if the defendant is ordered to a term of 48 hours or more, or has 48 hours or more remaining on a term of imprisonment, the defendant shall be required to serve 48 continuous hours of imprisonment to be given credit for time served.

(1) Credit for any jail time shall only be given hour for hour for time actually served. The jail shall maintain a log showing number of hours served.
(2) The defendant shall be refused entrance and shall be reported back to court if the defendant appears at the jail and has remaining in his body any alcohol as shown by an alcohol screening device or controlled substance previously consumed, unless lawfully obtained and taken in therapeutically appropriate amounts.
(3) If a defendant has been reported back to court under subdivision (2) of this subsection, the court shall hold a hearing. The defendant shall be ordered to serve his jail time immediately and shall not be eligible to serve jail time on weekends if the court determines that, at the time of his entrance to the jail,
a. The defendant had previously consumed alcohol in his body as shown by an alcohol screening device, or
b. The defendant had a previously consumed controlled substance in his body.

It shall be a defense to an immediate service of sentence of jail time and ineligibility for weekend service of jail time if the court determines that alcohol or controlled substance was lawfully obtained and was taken in therapeutically appropriate amounts.

(t) Repealed by Session Laws 1995, c. 496, s. 2."

SECTION 10. G.S. 50-13.2 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(b2) Any order for custody, including visitation, may as a condition of such custody or visitation require either or both parents, or any other person seeking custody or visitation, to abstain from consuming alcohol and may require submission to an approved continuous alcohol monitoring system to verify compliance with this condition of custody or visitation. Failure to comply with this condition shall be grounds for civil or criminal contempt."

SECTION 11. This act becomes effective December 1, 2009, and applies to offenses committed or any custody and visitation orders issued on or after that date.

SENATE JUDICIARY II COMMITTEE
Tuesday, April 28, 2009 at 10:00 AM
Room 1124, Legislative Building

MINUTES

The Senate Judiciary II Committee met at 10:00 AM on April 28, 2009, in Room 1124 of the Legislative Building with sixteen members of the committee present. Senator Fletcher L. Hartsell, Chairman, presided.

Senator Hartsell introduced pages Tahirah Smith, Brandon Crady, Caleb Pletcher and Michael Horton and thanked them for serving.

SB 138 – (Salvia Divinorum Schedule 1.) Senator Allran moved to adopt the Proposed Committee Substitute for Purposes of Discussion. All voted and the motion carried. Senator Purcell was recognized to explain the bill. Ms. Brenda Carter, Staff Attorney, gave additional information. Questions from Senators Allran and Goodall were answered by Senator Purcell and Ms. Carter. Senator Bingham moved for a favorable report of the Proposed Committee Substitute, unfavorable to the original bill with a referral to Appropriations. All voted and the motion carried.

SB 1078 – (Delay Bond/Probationer Arrested For Felony.) Senator Snow was recognized to explain the bill. He then answered questions from Senators Forrester, Jones, Queen, Bingham, and Apodaca. Senator Dannelly moved for a favorable report. All voted and the motion carried.

SB 925 – (Misrepresentation of Bottled NC Spring Water.) Senator Apodaca was recognized to explain the bill. Mr. Phil Whited, President and CEO of Clearwater Springs, spoke in favor of the bill. Also commenting on the bill were Mr. Bob Plimpton and Mr. McCloud of the North Carolina Department of Agriculture. Mr. Andy Ellen, representing the North Carolina Merchants Association, spoke in opposition to the bill. After much discussion, Senator Snow moved for a favorable report. All voted and the motion carried.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO CLASSIFY SALVIA DIVINORUM AS A SCHEDULE I CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 90-89 reads as rewritten:

"§ 90-89. Schedule I controlled substances.

This schedule includes the controlled substances listed or to be listed by whatever official name, common or usual name, chemical name, or trade name designated. In determining that a substance comes within this schedule, the Commission shall find: a high potential for abuse, no currently accepted medical use in the United States, or a lack of accepted safety for use in treatment under medical supervision. The following controlled substances are included in this schedule:

(1) Any of the following opiates, including the isomers, esters, ethers, salts and salts of isomers, esters, and ethers, unless specifically excepted, or listed in another schedule, whenever the existence of such isomers, esters, ethers, and salts is possible within the specific chemical designation:

a. Acetyl-alpha-methylfentanyl (N[1-(1-methyl-2-phenethyl)-4-piperidinyl]-N-phenylacetamide).

b. Acetylmethadol.

c. Repealed by Session Laws 1987, c. 412, s. 2.

d. Alpha-methylthiofentanyl (N-[1-methyl-2-(2-thienyl)ethyl-4-piperidinyl]-N-phenylpropanamide).

e. Allylprodine.

f. Alphacetylmethadol.

g. Alphameprodine.

h. Alphamethadol.

i. Alpha-methylfentanyl (N-(1-(alpha-methyl-beta-phenyl) ethyl-4-piperidyl) propionalilide; 1(1-methyl-2-phenyl-ethyl)-4-(N-propanilido) piperidine).

j. Benzethidine.

k. Betacetylmethadol.

l. Beta-hydroxfentanyl (N-[1-(2-hydroxy-2-phenethyl)-4-piperidinyl]-N-phenylpropanamide).

m. Beta-hydroxy-3-methylfentanyl (N-[1-(2-hydroxy-2-phenethyl)-3-methyl-4-piperidinyl]-N-phenylpropanamide).
n. Betameprodine.
o. Betamethadol.
p. Betaprodine.
q. Clonitazene.
r. Dextromoramide.
s. Diampromide.
t. Diethylthiambutene.
u. Difenoxin.
v. Dimenoxadol.
w. Dimepheptanol.
x. Dimethylthiambutene.
y. Dioxaphetyl butyrate.
z. Dipipanone.
aa. Ethylmethylthiambutene.
bb. Etonitazene.
cc. Etoxeridine.
dd. Furethidine.
ee. Hydroxypethidine.
ff. Ketobemidone.
gg. Levomoramide.
hh. Levophenacylmorphan.
ii. 1-methyl-4-phenyl-4-propionox ypiperidine (MPPP).
jj. 3-Methylfentanyl (N-[3-methyl-1-(2-Phenylethyl)-4-Pi-peridyl]-N-Phenylpropanamide).
kk. 3-Methylthiofentanyl (N-[(3-methyl-1-(2-thienyl)ethyl-4-piperidinyl]-N-phenylpropa namide).
lo . Morpheridine.
mm. Noracymethadol.
nn. Norlevorphanol.
oo. Normethadone.
pp. Norpipanone.
qq. Para-fluorofentanyl (N-(4-fluorophenyl)-N-[1-(2-phen-ethyl)-4-piperidinyl]-propanamide .
rr. Phenadoxone.
ss. Phenampromide.
tt. 1-(2-phenethyl)-4-phenyl-4-ac etoxypiperidine (PEPAP).
uu. Phenomorphan.
vv. Phenoperidine.
ww. Piritramide.
xx. Proheptazine.
yy. Properidine.
zz. Propiram.
aaa. Racemoramide.
bbb. Thiofentanyl (N-phenyl-N-[1-(2-thienyl)ethyl-4-piperidinyl]-propanamide.

ccc. Tilidine.
ddd. Trimeperidine.

(2) Any of the following opium derivatives, including their salts, isomers, and salts of isomers, unless specifically excepted, or listed in another schedule, whenever the existence of such salts, isomers, and salts of isomers is possible within the specific chemical designation:

a. Acetorphine.
b. Acetyldihydrocodeine.
c. Benzylmorphine.
d. Codeine methylbromide.
e. Codeine-N-Oxide.
f. Cyprenorphine.
g. Desomorphine.
h. Dihydromorphine.
i. Etorphine (except hydrochloride salt).
j. Heroin.
k. Hydromorphinol.
l. Methyldesorphine.
m. Methyldihydromorphine.
n. Morphine methylbromide.
o. Morphine methylsulfonate.
p. Morphine-N-Oxide.
q. Myrophine.
r. Nicocodeine.
s. Nicomorphine.
t. Normorphine.
u. Pholcodine.
v. Thebacon.
w. Drotebanol.

(3) Any material, compound, mixture, or preparation which contains any quantity of the following hallucinogenic substances, including their salts, isomers, and salts of isomers, unless specifically excepted, or listed in another schedule, whenever the existence of such salts, isomers, and salts of isomers is possible within the specific chemical designation:

a. 3, 4-methylenedioxyamphetamine.
b. 5-methoxy-3, 4-methylenedioxyamphetamine.
c. 3, 4-Methylenedioxymethamphetamine (MDMA).
d. 3,4-methylenedioxy-N-ethylamphetamine (also known as N-ethyl-alpha-methyl-3,4-(methylenedioxy)phenethylamine, N-ethyl MDA, MDE, and MDEA).
e. N-hydroxy-3,4-methylenedioxyamphetamine (also known as N-hydroxy-alpha-methyl-3,4-(methylenedioxy)phenethylamine, and N-hydroxy MDA).
f. 3, 4, 5-trimethoxyamphetamine.
g. Alpha-ethyltryptamine. Some trade or other names: etryptamine, Monase, alpha-ethyl-1H-indole-3- ethanamine, 3-(2-aminobutyl) indole, alpha-ET, and AET.
h. Bufotenine.
i. Diethyltryptamine.
j. Dimethyltryptamine.
k. 4-methyl-2, 5-dimethoxyamphetamine.

l. Ibogaine.
m. Lysergic acid diethylamide.
n. Mescaline.
o. Peyote, meaning all parts of the plant presently classified botanically as Lophophora Williamsii Lemaire, whether growing or not; the seeds thereof; any extract from any part of such plant; and every compound, manufacture, salt, derivative, mixture or preparation of such plant, its seed or extracts.
p. N-ethyl-3-piperidyl benzilate.
q. N-methyl-3-piperidyl benzilate.
r. Psilocybin.
s. Psilocin.
t. 2, 5-dimethoxyamphetamine.
u. 2, 5-dimethoxy-4-ethylamphetamin e. Some trade or other names: DOET.
v. 4-bromo-2, 5-dimethoxyamphetamine.
w. 4-methoxyamphetamine.
x. Ethylamine analog of phencyclidine. Some trade or other names: N-ethyl-1-phenylcyclohexylamine, (1- phenylcyclohexyl) ethylamine, N-(1-phenylcyclohexyl) ethylamine, cyclohexamine, PCE.
y. Pyrrolidine analog of phencyclidine. Some trade or other names: 1-(1-phenylcyclohexyl)-pyrrol idine, PCPy, PHP.
z. Thiophene analog of phencyclidine. Some trade or other names: 1-[1-(2-thienyl)-cyclohexyl]-piperidine, 2- thienyl analog of phencyclidine, TPCP, TCP.
aa. 1-[1-(2-thienyl)cyclohexyl]pyrrolidine; Some other names: TCPy.
bb. Parahexyl.
cc. 4-Bromo-2, 5-Dimethoxyphenethylamine.
dd. Salvia divinorum, Salvinorin A.

(4) Any material compound, mixture, or preparation which contains any quantity of the following substances having a depressant effect on the central nervous system, including its salts, isomers, and salts of isomers whenever the existence of such salts, isomers, and salts of isomers is possible within the specific chemical designation, unless specifically excepted or unless listed in another schedule:
a. Mecloqualone.
b. Methaqualone.
c. Gamma hydroxybutyric acid; Some other names: GHB, gamma-hydroxybutyrate, 4-hydroxybutyrate, 4-hydroxybutanoic acid; sodium oxybate; sodium oxybutyrate.

(5) Stimulants. – Unless specifically excepted or unless listed in another schedule, any material, compound, mixture, or preparation that contains any quantity of the following substances having a stimulant effect on the central nervous system, including its salts, isomers, and salts of isomers:
a. Aminorex. Some trade or other names: aminoxaphen; 2-amino-5-phenyl-2-oxazoline; or 4,5-dihydro-5-phenly-2-oxazolamine.
b. Cathinone. Some trade or other names: 2-amino-1-phenyl-1-propanone, alpha-aminopropiophenone, 2-aminopropiophenone, and norephedrone.

c. Fenethylline.
d. Methcathinone. Some trade or other names: 2-(methylamino)propiophenone, alpha-(methylamino)propiophenone, 2-(methylamino)-1-phenylpropan-1-one, alpha-N-methylaminopropiophenone, monomethylproprion, ephedrone, N-methylcathinone, methylcathinone, AL- 464, AL-422, AL-463, and UR1432.
e. (+/-)cis-4-methylaminorex |(+/-)cis-4,5-dihydro-4-methyl-5-phenyl-2-oxazolamine_ (also known as 2-amino-4-methyl-5-phenyl-2-o xazoline).
f. N,N-dimethylamphetamine. Some other names: N,N,alpha-trimethylbenzeneetha neamine; N,N,alpha-trimethylphenethyla mine.
g. N-ethylamphetamine."

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO CREATE THE OFFENSE OF UNLAWFUL MANUFACTURE, SALE, DELIVERY, OR POSSESSSION OF SALVIA DIVINORUM.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Article 52 of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§14-401.23. Unlawful manufacture, sale, delivery, or possession of Salvia divinorum.

(a) It shall be unlawful for any person to knowingly or intentionally manufacture, sell or deliver, or possess with intent to manufacture, sell or deliver Salvia divinorum or Salvinorin A.

(b) It shall be unlawful for any person to knowingly or intentionally possess Salvia divinorum or Salvinorin A.

(c) A violation of this section is punishable as follows:

(1) For a first or second offense under this section, the person is responsible for an infraction and shall be required to pay a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars ($25.00).

(2) For a third or subsequent offense under this section, the person is guilty of a a Class 3 misdemeanor.

(d) For purposes of this section:

(1) "Deliver" means the actual constructive or attempted transfer of Salvia divinorum or Salvinorin A from one person to another.

(2) "Manufacture" means the production, preparation, propagation, compounding, conversion or processing of Salvia divinorum or Salvinorin A by any means, whether directly or indirectly, artificially or naturally, or by extraction from substances of a natural origin, or independently by means of chemical synthesis, or by a combination of extraction and chemical synthesis. Manufacture includes any packaging or repackaging of the substance, or labeling or relabeling of its container, except that this term does not include the preparation or compounding of the substance by an individual for the individual's own use.

(3) "Production" includes the manufacture, planting, cultivation, growing, or harvesting of a plant.

(e) The provisions of this Section shall not apply to:

(1) Employees or contractors of any accredited college or school of medicine or pharmacy at a public or private university in this state while performing medical or pharmacological research for such institution.

(2) The possession, planting, cultivation, growing, or harvesting of a plant strictly for aesthetic, landscaping, or decorative purposes."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective December 1, 2009, and applies to acts committed on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 138:
Salvia Divinorum Schedule I

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	April 24, 2009
Introduced by:	Sen. Purcell	Prepared by:	Brenda J. Carter Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition S138-CSRV-23

SUMMARY: This PCS for Senate Bill 138 would make it unlawful to manufacture, sell, deliver, or possess Salvia divinorum or salvinorin A. Exceptions apply for use in research & landscaping.

CURRENT LAW: Currently, neither Salvia divinorum nor any of its constituents, including salvinorin A, are controlled under the federal or the NC Controlled Substances Act (CSA).

BILL ANALYSIS: The proposed committee substitute for Senate Bill 138 would make it unlawful to manufacture, sell, deliver, or possess Salvia divinorum or salvinorin A. A first or second violation would be an infraction, and the penalty would be a fine not less than $25; A third or subsequent violation would be a Class 3 misdemeanor. An exception applies for use in medical or pharmacological research, and for use in landscaping.

An infraction is a noncriminal violation of law not punishable by imprisonment. Unless otherwise provided by law, the sanction for a person found responsible for an infraction is a penalty of not more than one hundred dollars ($100.00). The proceeds of penalties for infractions are payable to the county in which the infraction occurred for the use of the public schools.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The bill would become effective December 1, 2009 and apply to violations occurring on or after that date.

BACKGROUND: Salvia divinorum is a perennial herb in the mint family native to certain areas of the Sierra Mazateca region of Oaxaca, Mexico. The active constituent of Salvia divinorum has been identified as salvinorin A. The abuse of Salvia Divinorum is reportedly gaining popularity in the United States, particularly by adolescents and young adults. A limited number of studies have reported the effects of using either plant material or salvinorin A. Psychic effects include perceptions of bright lights, vivid colors and shapes, as well as body movements and body or object distortions. Other effects include dysphoria, uncontrolled laughter, a sense of loss of body, overlapping realities, and hallucinations (seeing objects that are not present). Adverse physical effects may include incoordination, dizziness, and slurred speech. The US Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA) indicates that due to the hallucinogenic effects there is a substantial risk of injury or death as a result of impaired judgment due to disruptions of sensory and cognitive functions. According to the DEA, as of November 2008, thirteen states have enacted legislation placing regulatory controls on Salvia divinorum and/or salvinorin A. Delaware, Florida, Illinois, Kansas, Mississippi, Missouri, North Dakota, Oklahoma, and Virginia have placed Salvia divinorum and/or salvinorin A into schedule I of state law. California, Louisiana, Maine and Tennessee enacted other forms of legislation restricting the distribution of the plant. States in which legislative bills proposing regulatory controls died are Alabama, Alaska, Hawaii, Indiana, Iowa, Minnesota, Nebraska, Oregon, South Carolina, and Utah. Legislative bills proposing regulatory controls are pending in Michigan, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Texas and Wisconsin.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO CREATE THE CRIMINAL OFFENSE OF HOME IMPROVEMENT FRAUD.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Article 19 of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 14-104.1. Home improvement fraud; penalties.

(a) The following definitions apply in this section:

(1) Contractor. – A person who has contracted to perform any home improvement, or who has subcontracted for the performance of any home improvement.

(2) Home improvement. – Any alteration, repair, modification, or other improvement to any immovable or movable property primarily designed or used as a residence or to any structure within the residence or upon the land adjacent thereto.

(b) Home improvement fraud is committed when a contractor knowingly engages in any of the following actions:

(1) The use by a contractor, or by an agent or employee of a contractor, of any deception, false pretense, or false promise to cause any person to enter into a contract for home improvements.

(2) The damaging of any property of any person by a contractor, or by an agent or employee of a contractor, with the intent to induce that person to enter into a contract for home improvements.

(c) A person convicted of home improvement fraud shall be punished as follows:

(1) For a first offense a person is guilty of a Class H felony.

(2) For a second offense a person is guilty of a Class F felony.

(3) For a third or subsequent offense a person is guilty of a Class C felony.

(d) In addition to the penalties imposed under subsection (c) of this section, the court, in its discretion, may also order restitution."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective December 1, 2009, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date.

SECTION 1. G.S. 14-100 reads as rewritten:

"§ 14-100. Obtaining property by false pretenses.

(a) If any person shall knowingly and designedly by means of any kind of false pretense whatsoever, whether the false pretense is of a past or subsisting fact or of a future fulfillment or event, obtain or attempt to obtain from any person within this State any money, goods, property, services, chose in action, or other thing of value with intent to cheat or defraud any person of such money, goods, property, services, chose in action or other thing of value, such person shall be guilty of a felony: Provided, that if, on the trial of anyone indicted for such crime, it shall be proved that he obtained the property in such manner as to amount to larceny or embezzlement, the jury shall have submitted to them such other felony proved; and no person tried for such felony shall be liable to be afterwards prosecuted for larceny or embezzlement upon the same facts: Provided, further, that it shall be sufficient in any indictment for obtaining or attempting to obtain any such money, goods, property, services, chose in action, or other thing of value by false pretenses to allege that the party accused did the act with intent to defraud, without alleging an intent to defraud any particular person, and without alleging any ownership of the money, goods, property, services, chose in action or other thing of value; and upon the trial of any such indictment, it shall not be necessary to prove either an intent to defraud any particular person or that the person to whom the false pretense was made was the person defrauded, but it shall be sufficient to allege and prove that the party accused made the false pretense charged with an intent to defraud.

(a1) A person convicted of an offense under this section shall be punished as follows:

(1) If the value of the money, goods, property, services, chose in action, or other thing of value is one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) or more, a violation of this section is a Class C felony.

(2) If the value of the money, goods, property, services, chose in action, or other thing of value is fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) or more, but less than one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), a violation of this section is a Class E felony.

(3) If the value of the money, goods, property, services, chose in action, or other thing of value is twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) or more, but less than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), a violation of this section is a Class F felony.

(4) If the value of the money, goods, property, services, chose in action, or other thing of value is five thousand dollars ($5,000) or more, but less than twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), a violation of this section is a Class G felony.

(5) If the value of the money, goods, property, services, chose in action, or other thing of value is less than ~~one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000),~~ five thousand dollars ($5,000) a violation of this section is a Class H felony.

(b) Evidence of nonfulfillment of a contract obligation standing alone shall not establish the essential element of intent to defraud.

(c) For purposes of this section, "person" means person, association, consortium, corporation, body politic, partnership, or other group, entity, or organization."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective December 1, 2009, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 925

Short Title:	Misrepresentation of Bottled NC Spring Water.	(Public)
Sponsors:	Senator Apodaca.
Referred to:	Judiciary II.

March 26, 2009

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO PROVIDE THAT THE DECEPTIVE MISREPRESENTATION OF NORTH CAROLINA NATURAL SPRING WATER THAT IS OFFERED FOR SALE BY A BUSINESS IS AN UNFAIR TRADE PRACTICE.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Article 1 of Chapter 75 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 75-43. Deceptive misrepresentation of North Carolina natural spring water by a business.

(a) A person who is engaged in the business of selling, or offering for sale, bottled water as a beverage shall not misrepresent the bottled water to be 'North Carolina natural spring water.' A person misrepresents the bottled water to be 'North Carolina natural spring water' if the water is not water that is both:

(1) Derived from an underground land formation from which the water freely flows without the use of a borehole and without the aid of mechanical means.

(2) Collected at the natural orifice in the earth's surface (i) that is connected to the underground land formation and through which this water freely flows and (ii) that is on land located in North Carolina.

(b) A violation of this section is an unfair trade practice under G.S. 75-1.1."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective October 1, 2009, and applies to beverages that are sold or offered for sale on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 925:
Misrepresentation of Bottled NC Spring Water

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	April 21, 2009
Introduced by:	Senator Apodaca	Prepared by:	Jeff Hudson
Analysis of:	First Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 925 would declare the misrepresentation of bottled water as "North Carolina natural spring water" an unfair trade practice.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Senate Bill 925 would prohibit a person from selling or offering for sale bottled water as "North Carolina natural spring water" unless the water is derived from an underground land formation from which the water freely flows without the use of a borehole and without the aid of mechanical means and the water is collected at a natural orifice in the earth's surface that is connected to the underground land formation and through which this water freely flows and that is on land located in North Carolina.

A violation of this prohibition would be an unfair trade practice under Article 1 of Chapter 75 of the General Statutes. Under this Article, the Attorney General can seek to enjoin the unfair trade practice and seek to obtain a civil penalty of up to $5,000 for each violation. The Article also allows a person injured by an unfair trade practice to sue the violator for treble damages and reasonable attorney's fees.

CURRENT LAW:

Under federal law, the Food and Drug Administration (FDA), which is responsible for assuring that foods sold in the United States are safe, wholesome, and properly labeled, defines "spring water" as water derived from an underground formation from which water flows naturally to the surface of the earth. Spring water may be collected only at the spring or through a bore hole tapping the underground formation feeding the spring. Federal law also provides that no state may directly or indirectly establish any definition for food, including bottled water, for which there is a FDA definition unless the state definition is identical.

Federal law does provide an exemption process for a state that wants to use a definition different from the federal definition. The Secretary of Health and Human Services may exempt a state requirement from preemption if the requirement:

- Would not cause any food to be in violation of any applicable requirement under federal law.
- Would not unduly burden interstate commerce.
- Is designed to address a particular need for information that is not met by federal requirements.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The act would become effective October 1, 2009 and apply to beverages sold or offered for sale on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 926

Short Title:	Misbranding of Bottled NC Spring Water.	(Public)
Sponsors:	Senator Apodaca.
Referred to:	Judiciary II.

March 26, 2009

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO PROVIDE THAT WATER THAT IS REPRESENTED AS NORTH CAROLINA NATURAL SPRING WATER AND OFFERED FOR SALE AS A BEVERAGE IS MISBRANDED AND, AS SUCH, THE PERSONS WHO BOTTLE, SELL, OR DELIVER SUCH ITEM ARE SUBJECT TO CIVIL AND CRIMINAL PENALTIES AND INJUNCTIONS, UNLESS IT IS FROM A NORTH CAROLINA NATURAL SPRING, WHICH IS WATER THAT IS DERIVED FROM AN UNDERGROUND LAND FORMATION FROM WHICH THE WATER FREELY FLOWS WITHOUT THE USE OF A BOREHOLE AND WITHOUT THE AID OF MECHANICAL MEANS AND THAT IS COLLECTED AT THE SPRING'S NATURAL ORIFICE IN THE EARTH'S SURFACE.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 106-130 reads as rewritten:

"§ 106-130. Foods deemed misbranded.

A food shall be deemed to be misbranded:

(1) a. If its labeling is false or misleading in any particular, or

b. If its labeling or packaging fails to conform with the requirements of G.S. 106-139 and 106-139.1 of this Article.

...

(16) If it purports to be or is represented as 'North Carolina natural spring water' and is offered for sale as a beverage, unless it is from a North Carolina natural spring. As used in this subdivision, 'North Carolina natural spring water' means water that is derived from an underground land formation from which the water freely flows without the use of a borehole and without the aid of mechanical means and that is collected at the natural orifice in the earth's surface (i) that is connected to the underground land formation and through which this water freely flows and (ii) that is on land located in North Carolina."

SECTION 2. G.S. 106-122(1) reads as rewritten:

"(1) The manufacture, sale, or delivery, holding or offering for sale of any food, drug, device, or cosmetic that is adulterated or ~~misbranded.~~misbranded and the bottling, sale, or delivery of any water that is adulterated or misbranded."

SECTION 3. G.S. 106-121(8) reads as rewritten:

"(8) The term "food" ~~means~~means any of the following:

a. Articles used for food or drink for man or other animals, including water that is bottled and offered for sale as a beverage.

b. Chewing ~~gum, and~~gum.

c. Articles used for components of any such article."

SECTION 4. This act becomes effective October 1, 2009, and applies to food items sold or offered for sale on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 1078

Sponsors:	Senators Snow and Kinnaird.
Referred to:	Judiciary II.

March 31, 2009

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO PROVIDE THAT A PROBATIONER WHO IS ARRESTED AND CHARGED WITH THE COMMISSION OF A FELONY SHALL BE TEMPORARILY DETAINED WITHOUT BOND UNTIL THE COURT HAS SUFFICIENT INFORMATION TO DETERMINE WHETHER THE PROBATIONER'S RELEASE POSES A DANGER TO THE PUBLIC.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 15A-1345(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Bail Following Arrest for Probation Violation. – If at any time during the period of probation the probationer is arrested for a violation of any of the conditions of probation, he must be taken without unnecessary delay before a judicial official to have conditions of release pending a revocation hearing set in the same manner as provided in G.S. 15A-534. If the probationer has been convicted of an offense at any time that requires registration under Article 27A of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes or an offense that would have required registration but for the effective date of the law establishing the Sex Offender and Public Protection Registration Program, the court must make a finding that the probationer is not a danger to the public prior to release with or without bail. If a probationer is arrested and charged with the commission of a felony, the probationer shall not be released with or without bail until the court makes a finding that the probationer is not a danger to the public. If a probationer is arrested and charged with the commission of a felony, and the court finds that it has insufficient information to determine whether the probationer poses a danger to the public, then the probationer shall be detained without bond, not to exceed seven working days from the date of the arrest, until the court is provided sufficient information to determine whether the probationer poses a danger to the public."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective December 1, 2009, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 1078:
Delay Bond/Probationer Arrested for Felony

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	April 21, 2009
Introduced by:	Sen. Snow	Prepared by:	Jennifer McGinnis Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	First Edition

SUMMARY: Senate bill 1078 would prevent the release, with or without bail, of a probationer arrested and charged with the commission of a felony until a court makes a finding that the probationer is not a danger to the public. If insufficient information exists to make the determination, the bill requires detention of the probationer without bond for a period not to exceed seven working days from the date of the arrest until the court has sufficient information to make the determination.

CURRENT LAW: With regard to bail following arrest for a probation violation, GS 15A-1345 provides that if at any time during a period of probation a probationer is arrested for a violation of a condition of probation, the probationer must be taken before a judicial official to have conditions of release pending a revocation hearing set.

In 2008, the General Assembly amended this statute to provide that if the probationer has been convicted of an offense requiring registration on the sex offender registry, the court must make a finding that the probationer is not a danger to the public prior to release with or without bail.

BILL ANALYSIS: The bill would prevent the release, with or without bail, of a probationer arrested and charged with the commission of a felony until a court makes a finding that the probationer is not a danger to the public. The bill provides that if a court finds it has insufficient information to determine whether a probationer poses a danger to the public, then a probationer is to be detained without bond for a period not to exceed seven working days from the date of the arrest until the court has sufficient information to make the determination.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This bill would become effective December 1, 2009, and apply to offenses committed on or after that date.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO CREATE THE CRIMINAL OFFENSE OF HOME IMPROVEMENT FRAUD.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Article 19 of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 14-104.1. Home improvement fraud; penalties.

(a) The following definitions apply in this section:

(1) Contractor. – A person who has contracted to perform any home improvement, or who has subcontracted for the performance of any home improvement.

(2) Home improvement. – Any alteration, repair, modification, or other improvement to any immovable or movable property primarily designed or used as a residence or to any structure within the residence or upon the land adjacent thereto.

(b) Home improvement fraud is committed when a contractor knowingly engages in any of the following actions:

(1) The use by a contractor, or by an agent or employee of a contractor, of any deception, false pretense, or false promise to cause any person to enter into a contract for home improvements.

(2) The damaging of any property of any person by a contractor, or by an agent or employee of a contractor, with the intent to induce that person to enter into a contract for home improvements.

(c) A person convicted of home improvement fraud shall be punished as follows:

(1) For a first offense a person is guilty of a Class H felony.

(2) For a second offense a person is guilty of a Class F felony.

(3) For a third or subsequent offense a person is guilty of a Class C felony.

(d) In addition to the penalties imposed under subsection (c) of this section, the court, in its discretion, may also order restitution."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective December 1, 2009, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date.

AN ACT TO CREATE THE CRIMINAL OFFENSE OF HOME IMPROVEMENT FRAUD.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Article 19 of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 14-104.1. Home improvement fraud; penalties.

(a) The following definitions apply in this section:

(1) Contractor. – A person who has agreed to perform any home improvement in exchange for compensation, including any agent or employee of the person. The term includes a subcontractor who has agreed to perform any home improvement. The term does not include a person who is licensed as a general contractor under Article 1 of Chapter 87 of the General Statutes.

(2) Home improvement. – Any alteration, repair, modification, or other improvement to any dwelling house or to any structure within the curtilage of a dwelling house, and any other structure designed to house or secure within it any activity or property.

(b) Home improvement fraud is committed when a contractor knowingly engages in any of the following actions:

(1) The use by a contractor of any false pretense whatsoever, whether the false pretense is of a past or subsisting fact or of a future fulfillment or event, with the intent to cause any other person to enter into a home improvement contract.

(2) The damaging of any property of any person by a contractor with the intent to induce that person to enter into a home improvement contract.

(c) A person convicted of home improvement fraud shall be punished as follows:

(1) For a first offense a person is guilty of a Class H felony.

SENATE BILL 709:
Home Improvement Fraud

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	April 24. 2009
Introduced by:	Sen. Allran	Prepared by:	Kory Goldsmith
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition S709-CSRC-14		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 709 would make it a crime to use any false pretense to cause another to enter into a contract for home repair, or to damage any property of another to cause that person to enter into a contract for home repair. The crime of home improvement fraud would be punishable as a Class H felony for a first offense, a Class F felony for a second offense, and a Class C felony for a third or subsequent offense.

The PCS exempts licensed general contractors from the provisions of the act..

CURRENT LAW: G.S. 14-100 (Obtaining property by false pretenses) makes it a crime for a person to make a false representation regarding a past, existing, or future event that is intended to and does deceive another person and by which the person making the false representation obtains or attempts to obtain anything of value from the other person. This is a Class H felony[1] if the value of the property is less than $100,000 and a Class C felony if the value of the property is $100,000 or more.

G.S. 14-104 (Obtaining advances under promise to work and pay for same) makes it a crime to obtain any advances of any description from another person under color of promise to work where the person making the promise to work intends to defraud another and willfully fails to commence or complete the work as agreed. A violation of this law is a Class 2 misdemeanor.[2]

G.S. 14 -127 (Willful and wanton injury to real property) makes it a Class 1 misdemeanor to willfully damage, injure or destroy real property.[3]

G.S. 14-160 (Willful and wanton injury to personal property) makes it a Class 2 misdemeanor to willfully injure personal property valued $200 or less. It is a Class 1 misdemeanor if the property is valued at over $200.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 creates the new criminal offense of "home improvement fraud". A first offense would be punishable as a Class H felony. A second offense would be punishable as a Class F felony[4]. A third or subsequent offense would be punishable as a Class C felony. A court could also order restitution.

The offense occurs in one of two situations:

---

[1] The mandatory minimum sentence for a Class H felony for a defendant with no prior convictions is 4 to 8 months of either community, intermediate or active punishment. The mandatory minimum sentence for a Class C felony for a defendant with no prior convictions is 44 to 92 months of active punishment.

[2] The mandatory minimum sentence for a Class 2 misdemeanor for a defendant with no prior convictions is 1 to 30 days of community punishment.

[3] The mandatory minimum sentence for a Class 1 misdemeanor for a defendant with no prior convictions is 1 to 45 days of community punishment.

[4] The mandatory minimum sentence for a Class F felony for a defendant with no prior convictions is 10 to 20 months of intermediate or active punishment.

1. A contractor knowingly uses a false pretense to induce another person to enter into a contract for home improvements. The false pretense could be as to any past or present fact or any future fulfillment of an event.
2. A contractor knowingly damages another person's property with the intent to induce the person to enter into a home improvement contract.

A "contractor" is any person who has agreed to perform any home improvement in exchange for compensation. The term includes any employee or agent of the contractor as well as any subcontractor of the contractor, but it does not include a person who is a licensed general contractor under Article 1 of Chapter 87 of the General Statutes.

A "home improvement" is any alteration, repair, modification or improvement to the dwelling house or any structure within the cartilage and any other structure designed to house or secure any activity or property.

The proposed new criminal law differs from "Obtaining Property by False Pretenses" in that it only applies to fraudulent home improvement situations and the punishment levels depend upon whether the defendant is a repeat offender rather than the amount of damage to the victim.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The act becomes effective December 1, 2009, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date.

SECTION 1. G.S. 14-100 reads as rewritten:

"§ 14-100. Obtaining property by false pretenses.

(a) If any person shall knowingly and designedly by means of any kind of false pretense whatsoever, whether the false pretense is of a past or subsisting fact or of a future fulfillment or event, obtain or attempt to obtain from any person within this State any money, goods, property, services, chose in action, or other thing of value with intent to cheat or defraud any person of such money, goods, property, services, chose in action or other thing of value, such person shall be guilty of a felony: Provided, that if, on the trial of anyone indicted for such crime, it shall be proved that he obtained the property in such manner as to amount to larceny or embezzlement, the jury shall have submitted to them such other felony proved; and no person tried for such felony shall be liable to be afterwards prosecuted for larceny or embezzlement upon the same facts: Provided, further, that it shall be sufficient in any indictment for obtaining or attempting to obtain any such money, goods, property, services, chose in action, or other thing of value by false pretenses to allege that the party accused did the act with intent to defraud, without alleging an intent to defraud any particular person, and without alleging any ownership of the money, goods, property, services, chose in action or other thing of value; and upon the trial of any such indictment, it shall not be necessary to prove either an intent to defraud any particular person or that the person to whom the false pretense was made was the person defrauded, but it shall be sufficient to allege and prove that the party accused made the false pretense charged with an intent to defraud.

(a1) A person convicted of an offense under this section shall be punished as follows:

(1) If the value of the money, goods, property, services, chose in action, or other thing of value is one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) or more, a violation of this section is a Class C felony.

(2) If the value of the money, goods, property, services, chose in action, or other thing of value is fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) or more, but less than one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), a violation of this section is a Class E felony.

(3) If the value of the money, goods, property, services, chose in action, or other thing of value is twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) or more, but less

SENATE BILL 710:
False Pretenses/Increase Some Penalties

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	April 24, 2009
Introduced by:	Sen. Allran	Prepared by:	Kory Goldsmith Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	First Edition

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 710 would amend the punishment levels for the crime of obtaining property under false pretenses. It would create more levels of punishment based upon the value of the money, goods, services, debts, or other things of value that were falsely obtained.

CURRENT LAW: G.S. 14-100 (Obtaining property by false pretenses) makes it a crime for a person to make a false representation regarding a past, existing, or future event that is intended to and does deceive another person and by which the person making the false representation obtains or attempts to obtain anything of value from the other person. Obtaining property by false pretenses is a Class H felony[1] if the value of the property is less than $100,000 and a Class C felony if the value of the property is $100,000 or more.

BILL ANALYSIS: Senate Bill 710 would amend G.S. 14-100 as follows:

- Make it a Class E felony if the value of the money, goods, services, debts, or other things of value that were falsely obtained were $50,000 or more, but less than $100,000.[2]
- Make it a Class F felony if the value of the money, goods, services, debts, or other things of value that were falsely obtained were less than $50,000, but more than $25,000.[3]
- Make it a Class G felony if the value of the money, goods, services, debts, or other things of value that were falsely obtained were less than $25,000, but more than $5,000.[4]
- Make it a Class G felony if the value of the money, goods, services, debts, or other things of value that were falsely obtained were less than $5,000.

It would still be a Class C felony if the value of the money, goods, services, debts, or other things of value that were falsely obtained were $100,000 or more.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The act would become effective December 1, 2009, and apply to offenses committed on or after that date.

S710-SMRC-20(e1) v2

[1] The mandatory minimum sentence for a Class H felony for a defendant with no prior convictions is 4 to 8 months of either community, intermediate or active punishment. The mandatory minimum sentence for a Class C felony for a defendant with no prior convictions is 44 to 92 months of active punishment.

[2] The mandatory minimum sentence for a Class E felony for a defendant with no prior convictions is 15 to 31 months of intermediate or active punishment.

[3] The mandatory minimum sentence for a Class F felony for a defendant with no prior convictions is 10 to 20 months of intermediate or active punishment.

[4] The mandatory minimum sentence for a Class G felony for a defendant with no prior convictions is 8 to 16 months of intermediate or active punishment.

SENATE BILL 884*

Short Title:	Renunciation Amendments.	(Public)
Sponsors:	Senator Hartsell.
Referred to:	Judiciary II.

March 26, 2009

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO AMEND THE LAW RELATING TO RENUNCIATIONS AND TO MAKE RELATED AMENDMENTS TO THE NORTH CAROLINA UNIFORM TRUST CODE AND THE LAW GOVERNING POWERS OF ATTORNEY AND ADMINISTRATION OF DECEDENTS' ESTATES, AS RECOMMENDED BY THE GENERAL STATUTES COMMISSION.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 31B-1 reads as rewritten:

"§ 31B-1. Right to renounce succession.

(a) A person who succeeds to a property interest as:

(1) ~~Heir, or~~ Heir;

(2) Next of ~~kin, or~~ kin;

(3) ~~Devisee, or~~ Devisee;

(4) ~~Legatee, or~~ Legatee;

(4a) Donee;

(5) Beneficiary of a life insurance policy who did not possess the incidents of ownership under the policy at the time of death of the ~~insured, or~~ insured;

(6) Person succeeding to a renounced ~~interest, or~~ interest;

(7) Beneficiary under a testamentary trust or under an inter vivos ~~trust, or~~ trust;

(8) Appointee under a power of appointment exercised by a testamentary instrument or a nontestamentary ~~instrument, or~~ instrument;

(9) Repealed by Session Laws 1989, c. 684, s. 2.

(9a) Surviving joint tenant, surviving tenant by the entireties, or surviving tenant of a tenancy with a right of ~~survivorship, or~~ survivorship;

(9b) Person entitled to share in a testator's estate under the provisions of ~~G.S. 31-5.5, or~~ G.S. 31-5.5;

(9c) Beneficiary under any other testamentary or nontestamentary instrument, including a beneficiary under:

a. Any qualified or nonqualified deferred compensation, employee benefit, retirement or death benefit, plan, fund, annuity, contract, policy, program or instrument, either funded or unfunded, which is established or maintained to provide retirement income or death benefits or results in, or is intended to result in, deferral of income;

b. An individual retirement account or individual retirement annuity; or

c. Any annuity, payable on ~~death,~~ death account, or other right to death benefits arising under ~~contract; or~~ contract;

(9e) Subject to G.S. 31B-1.1 and G.S. 31B-1.2, fiduciary, including a trustee of a charitable trust, an attorney-in-fact of any of the persons listed in subdivisions (1) through (9e) of this subsection if expressly authorized by the governing power of attorney, and a personal representative appointed under Chapter 28A of the General Statutes of any of the persons listed in subdivisions (1) through (9c) of this subsection;

~~(10) The personal representative appointed under Chapter 28A of any of the above,~~

~~or the attorney in fact of any of the above~~ may renounce at any time, in whole or in ~~part~~ part, the right of succession to any property or interest therein, including a future interest, by filing a written instrument under the provisions of this Chapter. A renunciation may be of a fractional share or any limited interest or estate. The renunciation shall be deemed to include the entire interest of the person whose property or interest is being renounced unless otherwise specifically limited. A person may renounce any interest in or power over property, including a power of appointment, even if its creator imposed a spendthrift provision or similar restriction on transfer or a restriction or limitation on the right to renounce. ~~Provided, however,~~ Notwithstanding the foregoing, there shall be no right of partial renunciation if ~~the decedent or donee of the power expressly so provided in~~ the instrument creating the ~~interest.~~interest expressly so provides.

(b) This Chapter shall apply to all renunciations of present and future interests, whether qualified or nonqualified for federal and State inheritance, estate, and gift tax purposes, unless expressly provided otherwise in the instrument creating the interest.

(c) The instrument of renunciation shall (i) identify the transferor of the property or interest in the property or the creator of the power or the holder of the power, (ii) describe the property or interest renounced, ~~(ii)~~ (iii) declare the renunciation and extent thereof, ~~(iii)~~ and (iv) be signed and acknowledged by the person ~~authorized to renounce.~~ renouncing.

(d) A parent of a minor for whom no general guardian or guardian of the estate has been appointed may renounce, in whole or in part, an interest in or power over property (including a power of appointment) that would have passed to the minor as the result of that parent's renunciation. The parent may renounce the interest or power even if its creator imposed a spendthrift provision or similar restriction on transfer or a restriction or limitation on the right to renounce."

SECTION 2. G.S. 31B-1A is recodified as G.S. 31B-1.1. G.S. 31B-1.1, as recodified by this section, reads as rewritten:

"§ 31B-1.1. ~~Right to renounce fiduciary powers.~~ Right of fiduciary to renounce.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in the testamentary or nontestamentary instrument, a fiduciary under a testamentary or nontestamentary instrument may renounce, in whole or in part, fiduciary rights, privileges, powers, and ~~immunities by executing and by delivering, filing, or recording a written renunciation pursuant to the provisions of G.S. 31B-2. A~~ immunities; however, a fiduciary may not renounce the ~~rights of beneficiaries~~ personal rights exercisable by a beneficiary alone, unless the instrument creating the fiduciary relationship authorizes such a renunciation. The instrument of renunciation shall (i) identify the creator of the rights, powers, privileges, or immunities, (ii) describe any right, power, privilege, or immunity renounced, (iii) declare the renunciation and the extent thereof, and (iv) be signed and acknowledged by the fiduciary authorized to renounce.

(b) ~~The instrument of renunciation shall (i) describe any fiduciary right, power, privilege, or immunity renounced, (ii) declare the renunciation and the extent thereof, and (iii) be signed and acknowledged by the fiduciary authorized to renounce.~~ Except as provided in subsection (c) of this section and except to the extent a statute of this State expressly restricts or limits a fiduciary's right to renounce, a fiduciary acting in a fiduciary capacity may renounce the right of succession to any property or interest therein as permitted by this Chapter, even if the testamentary or nontestamentary instrument governing the fiduciary restricts or limits the right to renounce the fiduciary's right of succession to the property or interest therein.

(c) An attorney-in-fact for a principal acting under subsection (a) or subsection (b) of this section may renounce only if expressly authorized by the governing power of attorney."

SECTION 3. Chapter 31B of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 31B-1.2. Right of fiduciary to institute a proceeding for review of renunciation.

(a) Prior to renouncing, if a fiduciary so elects, the fiduciary may institute a proceeding by petition before the clerk of court for a determination as to whether a renunciation would be compatible with the fiduciary's duties. Commencement of the proceeding, jurisdiction, venue, parties, representation, and notice shall be governed by Chapter 36C of the General Statutes. In addition to any other notice requirements, notice of the proceeding shall be given to all persons entitled to delivery of a copy of an instrument of renunciation under G.S. 31B-2.1.

(b) After renouncing, if a fiduciary so elects, the fiduciary has a right to institute a declaratory judgment action pursuant to Article 26 of Chapter 1 of the General Statutes for a determination as to whether the renunciation is compatible with the fiduciary's duties. In addition to any other notice requirements, notice of the action shall be given to all persons entitled to delivery of a copy of an instrument of renunciation under G.S. 31B-2.1.

(c) A proceeding or action instituted under this section shall comply with all of the following:

(1) The petition or complaint shall state the basis for the fiduciary's allegation that the renunciation is compatible with the fiduciary's duties, considering among other things the intended purposes of the trust or other instrument and the impact of the renunciation on beneficiaries and potential beneficiaries. A petition or complaint filed by a trustee of a charitable trust shall contain a statement that a copy of the petition or complaint is being provided to the Attorney General.

(2) After considering among other things the intended purposes of the trust or other instrument and the impact of the renunciation on beneficiaries and potential beneficiaries, the court shall enter an order stating the court's determination as to whether the renunciation is compatible with the fiduciary's duties.

(d) The effectiveness of a renunciation is not affected by a determination under this section that the renunciation is not compatible with a fiduciary's duties."

SECTION 4. G.S. 31B-2 reads as rewritten:

"§ 31B-2. Time and place of filing renunciation.

(a) To be a qualified disclaimer for federal and State inheritance, estate, and gift tax purposes, an instrument ~~renouncing a present interest~~ of renunciation shall be filed within the time period required under the applicable federal statute for a renunciation to be given effect as a disclaimer for federal estate and gift tax purposes. If there is no such federal statute the instrument shall be filed not later than nine months after the date the transfer of the renounced interest to the ~~renouncer~~ person whose property or interest is being renounced was complete for the purpose of such taxes.

~~interest indefeasibly vested and he is entitled to possession even though such renunciation may not be recognized as a disclaimer for federal estate tax purposes.~~ When a renunciation of real property or an interest in real property is made within the time period required under subsection (a) of this section, the spouse of the person whose property or interest is being renounced is not required to join in the execution of the instrument of renunciation, and, as provided in G.S. 31B-3(a)(1), the spouse has no statutory dower, inchoate marital rights, elective share, or any other marital interest in the real property or real property interest renounced.

(c) The renunciation ~~shall be~~ is effective when filed with the clerk of court ~~of~~ (i) in the county in which court proceedings have been commenced for the administration of the estate of the deceased owner or deceased ~~donee~~ creator of the power ~~or, if they have not been commenced, in which they could be commenced. A copy of the renunciation shall be delivered in person or mailed by registered or certified mail to any personal representative, or other fiduciary of the decedent or donee of the power. If the property interest renounced includes any proceeds of a life insurance policy being renounced pursuant to G.S. 31B-1(a)(5) the person renouncing shall mail, by registered or certified mail, a copy of the renunciation to the insurance company issuing the policy. If the property or property interest renounced is created by nontestamentary instrument, a copy of the renunciation shall be delivered in person, or mailed by registered or certified mail, to the trustee or other person who has legal title to, or possession of, the property or property interest renounced.~~ or holder of the power; or (ii) if proceedings have not been commenced, then in a county in which they could be commenced; or (iii) in all other cases, in a county with a court that has jurisdiction to enforce the terms of the instrument creating the interest renounced. In those cases in which an estate proceeding has not been commenced, the renunciation shall be filed as an estate matter. In addition to the above requirements, a renunciation of real property, or an interest therein, shall be registered in accordance with the provisions of G.S. 31B-2(d).

(d) If real property or an interest therein is renounced, ~~a copy of~~ the instrument of renunciation shall also be ~~filed for recording in the office of the register of deeds of all counties wherein any part of the interest renounced is situated.~~ registered as provided in G.S. 47-18 or G.S. 47-20. The instrument of renunciation shall be indexed in the grantor's index under (i) the name of the ~~deceased owner~~ transferor or ~~donee~~ creator of the ~~power,~~ power or holder of the power, and (ii) the name of the ~~person renouncing.~~ person whose property or interest is being renounced. ~~The renunciation of an interest, or a part thereof, in real property shall not be effective to renounce such interest until a copy of the renunciation is filed for recording in the office of the register of deeds in the county wherein such interest or part thereof is situated. A spouse of a person renouncing real property or an interest in real property shall have no statutory dower, inchoate marital rights, or any other interest in the real property or real property interest renounced.~~ Failure to file or register the instrument of renunciation does not affect the effectiveness of the renunciation as between the person whose property or interest is being renounced and persons to whom the property interest or power passes by reason of the renunciation; however, record title to a renounced interest in real property does not pass to persons receiving the renounced interest by reason of the renunciation until the instrument of renunciation is registered as provided in G.S. 47-18 or G.S. 47-20.

(e) If an instrument transferring an interest in or right, privilege, power, or immunity over property subject to a renunciation is required or permitted by law to be filed or registered, the instrument of renunciation may be so filed or registered. Failure to file or register the instrument of renunciation does not affect the effectiveness of the renunciation as between the person whose property or interest is being renounced and persons to whom the property interest or power passes by reason of the renunciation."

SECTION 5. Chapter 31B of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 31B-2.1. Delivery to other persons of instrument of renunciation by the person renouncing.

(a) In this section:

(1) "Beneficiary designation" means an instrument, other than an instrument creating a trust, naming the beneficiary of:

a. An annuity or insurance policy;

b. An account with a designation for payment on death;

c. A security registered in beneficiary form;

d. A pension, profitsharing, retirement, or other employment-related benefit plan;

e. An individual retirement account or retirement annuity; or

f. Any other nonprobate transfer at death.

(2) "Deliver" means to deliver in person or to send, properly addressed, by first-class mail, telephonic facsimile transmission equipment, electronic mail, or third-party commercial carrier, or by any method permitted by G.S. 1A-1, Rule 4.

(b) The failure to deliver a copy of an instrument of renunciation by a method permitted by G.S. 1A-1, Rule 4, or by a method that results in actual receipt tolls any statute of limitations with regard to any right of action for breach of fiduciary duty.

(c) If a fiduciary renounces an interest in property pursuant to G.S. 31B-1(a)(9e), a copy of the instrument of renunciation shall be delivered to each living person whose beneficial interest is affected by the renunciation and to any co-fiduciary who did not join in the renunciation.

(d) In the case of an interest created under the law of intestate succession or an interest created by will, other than an interest in a testamentary trust, a copy of the instrument of renunciation must:

(1) Be delivered to the personal representative of the decedent's estate; or

(2) If no personal representative is then serving, be filed as an estate matter with a court having jurisdiction to appoint the personal representative.

(e) In the case of a beneficiary renouncing an interest in a testamentary trust, a copy of the instrument of renunciation must:

(1) Be delivered to the trustee then serving;

(2) If no trustee is then serving, be delivered to the personal representative of the decedent's estate; or

(3) If no personal representative or trustee is then serving, be filed as an estate matter with a court having jurisdiction to enforce the trust.

(f) In the case of a beneficiary renouncing an interest in an inter vivos trust, a copy of the instrument of renunciation must:

(1) Be delivered to the trustee then serving;

(3) If the renunciation is made before the time the instrument creating the trust becomes irrevocable, be delivered to the settlor of the trust or the transferor of the interest.

(g) In the case of a beneficiary renouncing an interest created by a beneficiary designation made before the time the designation becomes irrevocable, a copy of the instrument of renunciation must be delivered to the person making the beneficiary designation.

(h) In the case of a beneficiary renouncing an interest created by a beneficiary designation made after the time the designation becomes irrevocable, a copy of the instrument of renunciation must be delivered to the person obligated to distribute the interest.

(i) In the case of a renunciation by a surviving holder of an interest in property subject to a right of survivorship, a copy of the instrument of renunciation must be delivered to the persons to whom the person renouncing reasonably believes the renounced interest passes, at their last addresses known to the person renouncing, and to the personal representative of the deceased joint holder, if any.

(j) In the case of a renunciation by a permissible appointee, or taker in default of exercise, of a power of appointment at any time after the power was created, a copy of the instrument of renunciation must be delivered:

(1) To the holder of the power;

(2) To the fiduciary acting under the instrument that created the power or, if no fiduciary is then serving under the instrument that created the power, filed as an estate matter with a court having authority to appoint the fiduciary; and

(3) To any holder of legal title to the property subject to the power of appointment other than the fiduciary.

(k) In the case of a renunciation by an appointee of an exercised power of appointment, a copy of the instrument of renunciation must be delivered:

(1) To the holder of the power or the personal representative of the holder's estate;

(2) To the fiduciary under the instrument that created the power or, if no fiduciary is then serving under the instrument that created the power, filed as an estate matter with a court having authority to appoint the fiduciary; and

(3) To any holder of legal title to the property subject to the power of appointment other than the fiduciary.

(l) In the case of a renunciation of a power of appointment by the holder of the power, a copy of the instrument of renunciation must be delivered:

(1) To the fiduciary acting under the instrument that created the power or, if no fiduciary is then serving under the instrument that created the power, filed as an estate matter with a court having authority to appoint the fiduciary; and

(2) To any holder of legal title to the property subject to the power of appointment other than the fiduciary.

(m) In the case of a renunciation by a fiduciary of a right, privilege, power, or immunity relating to a trust or estate, a copy of the instrument of renunciation must be delivered as provided in subsection (c), (d), (e), or (f) of this section, as if the power renounced were an interest in property.

(n) In the case of a renunciation of a power by an agent, including an attorney-in-fact, a copy of the instrument of renunciation must be delivered to the principal or the principal's legal representative other than the agent.

(o) In the case of a renunciation by a trustee of a charitable trust, a copy of the instrument of renunciation must be delivered to the North Carolina Attorney General in addition to any other delivery required by this section.

(p) In the case of a renunciation by a donee, a copy of the instrument of renunciation must be delivered to the persons to whom the person renouncing reasonably believes the renounced interest passes, at their last addresses known to the person renouncing, and to the donor or the donor's legal representative other than the donee.

(q) The failure to deliver a copy of the instrument of renunciation as required in this section does not affect the validity of the renunciation for purposes of G.S. 31B-3 even though the renunciation may not be recognized as a disclaimer for federal estate tax purposes."

SECTION 6. G.S. 31B-3 reads as rewritten:

"§ 31B-3. Effect of renunciation.

(1) If the renunciation is filed within the time period described in G.S. 31B-2(a), the property or interest renounced devolves and any interest that takes effect in possession or enjoyment after the termination of the property or interest renounced takes effect as if the ~~renouncer~~ person whose property or interest is being renounced had predeceased the date the transfer of the renounced interest ~~to the renouncer~~ was complete for federal and State inheritance, estate, and gift tax purposes, or, in the case of the renunciation of a fiduciary right, power, privilege, or immunity, the property or interest subject to the power devolves as if the fiduciary right, power, privilege, or immunity never existed. Any such renunciation relates back for all purposes to the date the transfer of the renounced interest ~~to the renouncer~~ was complete for the purpose of those ~~taxes.~~ taxes, and the spouse of the person whose property or interest is being renounced has no elective share or other marital interest in the renounced property.

(2) If the renunciation is not filed within the time period described in G.S. 31B-2(a), the person whose property or interest is being renounced is deemed to have made a transfer of the property or interest and the property or interest devolves and any interest that takes effect in possession or enjoyment after the termination of the property or interest renounced takes effect as if the ~~renouncer~~ person whose property or interest is being renounced had died on the date the renunciation is filed, or, in the case of the renunciation of a fiduciary right, power, privilege, or immunity, the property or interest subject to the power devolves as if the fiduciary right, power, privilege, or immunity ceased to exist as of the date the renunciation is filed.

(3) Any future interest that takes effect in possession or enjoyment after the termination of the estate or interest renounced takes effect as if the ~~renouncer~~ person whose property or interest is being renounced had died on the date determined under subdivision (1) or (2) of this subsection, and upon the filing of the renunciation the persons in being as of the time the ~~renouncer~~ person whose property or interest is being renounced is deemed to have died will immediately become entitled to possession or enjoyment of any such future interest.

(b) In the event that the property or interest renounced was created by testamentary disposition, the devolution of the property or interest renounced shall be ~~governed by G.S. 31-42(a)~~ as provided in G.S. 31-42 notwithstanding that in fact the ~~renouncer~~ person whose property or interest is being renounced has not actually died before the testator.

(c) In the event that the decedent dies intestate, or the ownership or succession to property or to an interest is to be determined as though a decedent had died intestate, and the ~~renouncer~~ person whose property or interest is being renounced has living issue who would have been entitled to an interest in the property or interest if the ~~renouncer~~ person whose property or interest is being renounced had predeceased the decedent, then the property or interest renounced shall be distributed to such issue, per stirpes. If the ~~renouncer~~ person whose property or interest is being renounced does not have such issue, then the property or interest shall be distributed as though the ~~renouncer~~ person whose property or interest is being renounced had predeceased the decedent.

(d) In the event that the property or interest renounced was created by a revocable or irrevocable inter vivos trust, the devolution of the property or interest renounced shall be as provided in G.S. 36C-6-605 notwithstanding that in fact the person whose property or interest is being renounced has not actually died before the event that would otherwise cause the property or interest renounced to pass to the person whose property or interest is being renounced.

(e) If a trustee files, within the time period described in G.S. 31B-2(a), a renunciation of an interest in property, the interest does not become trust property. If a trustee does not file a renunciation of an interest in property within the time period described in G.S. 31B-2(a), the interest passes to the person or persons who would have taken the interest as of the date of the renunciation if the trust had never existed.

(f) Except as provided in the instrument of renunciation, if a renunciation causes property to pass to a trust in which the person whose property or interest is being renounced holds a power of appointment, the person renouncing is deemed to have renounced the power of appointment with respect to assets passing into the trust by reason of the renunciation if the person renouncing is a person who holds a right to renounce the power of appointment.

(g) Unless otherwise provided in the instrument of renunciation, the interest in property being renounced by a surviving tenant by the entireties upon the death of the other tenant is deemed to be a one-half interest in the former entirety property, and title to that one-half interest passes as if the deceased tenant survived the tenant renouncing.

(h) Unless otherwise provided in the instrument of renunciation, the interest in property being renounced by a surviving joint tenant with right of survivorship is deemed to be the fractional interest of the deceased joint tenant to which the surviving joint tenant would have been entitled by right of survivorship, and title to that fractional interest passes as if the tenant renouncing predeceased the deceased joint tenant.

(i) Reserved for future codification.

(j) Reserved for future codification.

(k) A renunciation is binding upon the person whose interest is being renounced and all persons claiming through or under that person."

SECTION 7. G.S. 31B-4 reads as rewritten:

"§ 31B-4. Waiver and bar.

(a) The right to renounce property or an interest therein is barred by:

(1) An assignment, conveyance, encumbrance, pledge, or transfer of the property or interest, or a contract therefor by the person authorized to renounce,

(2) A written waiver of the right to renounce, or

(3) Repealed by Session Laws 1998-148, s. 4.

(4) A sale of the property or interest under judicial sale made before the renunciation is effected.

(b) ~~The renunciation or the written waiver of~~ An instrument waiving or barring the right to renounce is binding upon the ~~renouncer or~~ person waiving the right to renounce or the person barred from renouncing and all persons claiming through or under ~~him.~~ that person.

(c) A fiduciary's application for appointment or assumption of duties as fiduciary does not waive or bar the fiduciary's right to renounce a right, power, privilege, or immunity.

(d) No person shall be liable for distributing or disposing of property in reliance upon the terms of a renunciation that is invalid for the reason that the right of renunciation has been waived or barred, if the distribution or disposition is otherwise proper, and the person has no actual knowledge or record notice of the facts that constitute a waiver or bar to the right of renunciation.

(e) The right to renounce property or an interest in property pursuant to this Chapter is not barred by an acceptance of the property, interest, or benefit thereunder; provided, however, an acceptance of the property, interest, or benefit thereunder may preclude such renunciation from being a qualified renunciation for federal and State inheritance, estate, and gift tax purposes.

(f) An instrument waiving or barring the right to renounce an interest in real property is not effective as to persons protected under G.S. 47-18 or G.S. 47-20 until either (i) registered as provided in those sections or (ii) registered pursuant to a judicial sale proceeding as described in subdivision (4) of subsection (a) of this section in which the person renouncing is a party. The instrument of waiver or bar shall be indexed in the grantor's index under (i) the name of the transferor of the property or interest in the property or creator of the power or holder of the power and (ii) the name of the person whose renunciation is waived or barred."

SECTION 8. Chapter 31B of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 31B-4.1. Tax qualified renunciation.

If, as a result of a renunciation, the renounced property is treated pursuant to the provisions of Title 26 of the United States Code, as now or hereafter amended, or any successor statute thereto, and the regulations promulgated thereunder, as never having been transferred to the person whose property or interest is being renounced, then the renunciation is an effective renunciation, notwithstanding any other provision of this Chapter. This section does not preclude an action for breach of fiduciary duty."

SECTION 9. G.S. 31B-6 is repealed.

SECTION 10. G.S. 28A-13-3 reads as rewritten:

"§ 28A-13-3. Powers of a personal representative or fiduciary.

(a) Except as qualified by express limitations imposed in a will of the decedent or a court order, and subject to the provisions of G.S. 28A-13-6 respecting the powers of joint personal representatives, a personal representative has the power to perform in a reasonable and prudent manner every act which a reasonable and prudent person would perform incident to the collection, preservation, liquidation or distribution of a decedent's estate so as to accomplish the desired result of settling and distributing the decedent's estate in a safe, orderly, accurate and expeditious manner as provided by law, including the powers specified in the following subdivisions:

~~(33) To renounce in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 31B of the General Statutes.~~

(a1) Except as qualified by express limitations imposed in a will of the decedent, and subject to the provisions of G.S. 28A-13-6 respecting the powers of joint personal representatives, a personal representative shall have absolute discretion to make the election as to which items of the decedent's personal and household effects shall be excluded from the carry over basis provision of the federal income tax law and such election shall be conclusive and binding on all concerned.

(a2) Subject to the provisions of G.S. 28A-13-6 respecting the powers of joint personal representatives, a personal representative has the power to renounce in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 31B of the General Statutes.

(b) Any question arising out of the powers conferred by subsections ~~(a) and (a1) above~~ (a), (a1), and (a2) of this section shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Article 18 of this Chapter.

(c) Prior to the personal representative exercising possession, custody or control over real property of the estate he shall petition the clerk of court to obtain an order authorizing such possession, custody or control. The petition shall include:

(1) A description of the real property which is the subject of the petition;

(2) The names, ages, and addresses, if known, of the devisees and heirs of the decedent;

(3) A statement by the personal representative that he has determined that such possession, custody or control is in the best interest of the administration of the estate.

The devisees and heirs will be made parties to the proceeding by service of summons in the manner prescribed by law. If the clerk of court determines that it is in the best interest of the administration of the estate to authorize the personal representative to take possession, custody or control he shall grant an order authorizing that power. If a special proceeding has been instituted by the personal representative pursuant to G.S. 28A-15-1(c), the personal representative may petition for possession, custody, or control of any real property as a part of that proceeding and is not required to institute a separate special proceeding."

SECTION 11. G.S. 32A-1 reads as rewritten:

"§ 32A-1. Statutory Short Form of General Power of Attorney.

The use of the following form in the creation of a power of attorney is lawful, and, when used, it shall be construed in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO CLARIFY WHEN A PERSON MAY USE DEFENSIVE FORCE TO PROTECT AGAINST THE UNLAWFUL AND FORCIBLE ENTRY INTO THE PERSON'S DWELLING BY ANOTHER, TO PREVENT THE REMOVAL OF A PERSON AGAINST HIS OR HER WILL FROM THE PERSON'S DWELLING, TO PROVIDE THAT A PERSON WHO IS IN A PLACE WHERE THE PERSON HAS A RIGHT TO BE HAS NO DUTY TO RETREAT, AND TO PROVIDE THAT A PERSON IS JUSTIFIED IN USING DEFENSIVE FORCE IN THESE CIRCUMSTANCES AND SO IS IMMUNE FROM CRIMINAL PROSECUTION AND CIVIL ACTION FOR THE USE OF SUCH FORCE.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Article 14 of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 14-51.2. Home protection; use of deadly force; presumption of fear of death or great bodily harm; immunity from criminal prosecution and civil action for justifiable use of force.

(a) The following definitions apply in this section:

(1) Criminal prosecution. – The term includes arresting, detaining in custody, and charging or prosecuting the defendant.

(2) Deadly force. – Force that is likely to cause death or great bodily harm.

(3) Dwelling. – A building or conveyance of any kind, including any attached porch, whether the building or conveyance is temporary or permanent, mobile or immobile, which has a roof over it, including a tent, and is designed to be occupied by people lodging therein at night.

(4) Forcible felony. – Treason; murder; manslaughter; rape, sexual offense, sexual battery; robbery; burglary; arson; kidnapping; aggravated assault; felonious stalking; malicious use of explosive or incendiary device; and any other felony which involves the use or threat of physical force or violence against any individual.

(5) Law enforcement officer. – Any person employed or appointed as a full-time, part-time, or auxiliary law enforcement officer, correctional officer, probation officer, post-release supervision officer, or parole officer.

(6) Residence. – A dwelling in which a person resides either temporarily or permanently or is visiting as an invited guest.

(b) A person is presumed to have held a reasonable fear of imminent peril of death or great bodily harm to himself or herself or another when using defensive force that is intended or likely to cause death or great bodily harm to another if:

(1) The person against whom the defensive force was used was in the process of unlawfully and forcefully entering, or had unlawfully and forcibly entered, a dwelling or residence, or if that person had removed or was attempting to remove another against that person's will from the dwelling or residence; and

(2) The person who uses defensive force knew or had reason to believe that an unlawful and forcible entry or unlawful and forcible act was occurring or had occurred.

(c) The presumption set forth in subsection (b) does not apply if:

(1) The person against whom the defensive force is used has the right to be in or is a lawful resident of the dwelling or residence, such as an owner or lessee, and there is not an injunction for protection from domestic violence or a written pretrial supervision order of no contact against that person; or

(2) The person sought to be removed is a child or grandchild, or is otherwise in the lawful custody or under the lawful guardianship of, the person against whom the defensive force is used; or

(3) The person who uses defensive force is engaged in an unlawful activity or is using the dwelling or residence to further an unlawful activity; or

(4) The person against whom the defensive force is used is a law enforcement officer who enters or attempts to enter a dwelling or residence in the performance of his or her official duties and the officer identified himself or herself in accordance with any applicable law or the person using force knew or reasonably should have known that the person entering or attempting to enter was a law enforcement officer.

(d) A person who is not engaged in an unlawful activity and who is attacked in any other place where he or she has a right to be has no duty to retreat and has the right to stand his or her ground and meet force with force, including deadly force if he or she reasonably believes it is necessary to do so to prevent death or great bodily harm to himself or herself or another or to prevent the commission of a forcible felony.

(e) A person who unlawfully and by force enters or attempts to enter a person's dwelling or residence is presumed to be doing so with the intent to commit an unlawful act involving force or violence.

(f) A person who uses force as permitted by this section is justified in using such force and is immune from criminal prosecution and civil action for the use of such force, unless the person against whom force was used is a law enforcement officer, who was acting in the performance of his or her official duties and the officer identified himself or herself in accordance with any applicable law or the person using force knew or reasonably should have known that the person was a law enforcement officer."

SECTION 2. G.S. 14-51.1 is repealed.

SECTION 3. This act becomes effective December 1, 2009, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date. Prosecutions for offenses committed before the effective date of this act are not abated or affected by this act, and the statutes that would be applicable but for this act remain applicable to those prosecutions.

SENATE BILL 928:
The Castle Doctrine

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	April 29, 2009
Introduced by:	Sen. Berger of Franklin	Prepared by:	Brenda J. Carter Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition S928-CSRV-28

SUMMARY: This proposed committee substitute for Senate Bill 928 would repeal the existing law concerning the use of deadly physical force against an intruder, and enact a new law that would create a presumption that a person, when using defensive force against a person unlawfully and forcibly entering a residence, did so because he or she held a reasonable fear of imminent peril of death or great bodily harm. The bill would also create a presumption that a person who unlawfully and by force enters or attempts to enter a person's residence is doing so with the intent to commit an unlawful act involving force or violence. A person would be justified in using defensive force in accordance with provisions in the bill and would be immune from criminal prosecution or civil liability for the use of that force. The PCS differs from the original bill in that the PCS only applies to defense of a dwelling or residence.

CURRENT LAW:

§ 14-51.1. Use of deadly physical force against an intruder.

(a) A lawful occupant within a home or other place of residence is justified in using any degree of force that the occupant reasonably believes is necessary, including deadly force, against an intruder to prevent a forcible entry into the home or residence or to terminate the intruder's unlawful entry (i) if the occupant reasonably apprehends that the intruder may kill or inflict serious bodily harm to the occupant or others in the home or residence, or (ii) if the occupant reasonably believes that the intruder intends to commit a felony in the home or residence.

(b) A lawful occupant within a home or other place of residence does not have a duty to retreat from an intruder in the circumstances described in this section.

(c) This section is not intended to repeal, expand, or limit any other defense that may exist under the common law.

BILL ANALYSIS: This proposed committee substitute for Senate Bill 928 would repeal the existing law concerning the use of deadly physical force against an intruder. The bill creates two presumptions. A legal presumption generally means that the court must assume a fact is true until such time as there is evidence which disproves or rebuts the presumption.

First, the bill creates a presumption that a person using defensive force intended or likely to cause great bodily did so because he or she held a reasonable fear of imminent peril of death or great bodily harm.

The fear of imminent peril presumption applies if both of the following apply:

- The person against whom the defensive force was used:
  - Unlawfully and forcefully entered or was entering a dwelling or residence; or
  - Removed or was attempting to remove another from the dwelling or residence against his or her will
- The person who uses defensive force knew or had reason to believe that an unlawful and forcible entry or act was occurring or had occurred

The fear of imminent peril presumption does not apply if:

- The person against whom the defensive force is used was
  - An owner, lessee, or lawful resident of the property, and there is not a domestic violence protection order or "no contact" order against that person.
  - A parent, grandparent, legal custodian or guardian of the person being removed from the property.
  - A law enforcement officer in the lawful performance of official duties, and the officer identified himself or herself or the person knew or should have known that the person was a law enforcement officer.

The fear of imminent peril presumption also would not apply if the person who uses defensive force is engaged in, attempting to escape from, or using the residence to further any criminal offense involving the use or threat of physical force or violence against any person.

Secondly, the bill would create a presumption that a person who unlawfully and by force enters or attempts to enter a person's residence is doing so with the intent to commit an unlawful act involving force or violence.

The bill would provide that a person is justified in using defensive force in accordance with provisions enacted in the bill and would be immune from criminal prosecution or civil liability for the use of that force; an exception applies for the use of force against a law enforcement officer.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The bill would become effective December 1, 2009 and apply to offenses committed on or after that date; the bill would not affect prosecutions for offenses committed before that date.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO AMEND REQUIREMENTS FOR THE STORAGE OF FIREARMS TO PROTECT MINORS, TO ENCOURAGE UNLOADED STORAGE OF FIREARMS, AND TO PROVIDE NOTICE OF SAFE STORAGE REQUIREMENTS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 14-315.1 reads as rewritten:

"§ 14-315.1. Storage of firearms to protect minors.

(a) Any person who ~~resides in the same premises as a minor, owns or possesses a firearm, and~~ stores or leaves ~~the~~ a firearm ~~(i) in a condition that the firearm can be discharged and (ii)~~ in a manner that the person knew or should have known that an unsupervised minor would be able to gain access to the firearm, is guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor if a minor gains access to the firearm without the lawful permission of the minor's parents or a person having charge of the minor and the minor:

(1) Possesses it in violation of G.S. 14-269.2(b); or

(2) Exhibits it in a public ~~place~~ place.~~in a careless, angry, or threatening manner;~~

~~(3) Causes personal injury or death with it not in self defense; or~~

~~(4) Uses it in the commission of a crime.~~

(a1) Any person who stores or leaves a firearm in a manner in which the person knew or should have known that a minor would be able to gain access to the firearm is guilty of a Class A1 misdemeanor if a minor gains access to the firearm without the lawful permission of the minor's parents or a person having charge of the minor and the minor:

(1) Uses the firearm to cause personal injury or death, not in self-defense; or

(2) Uses the firearm in the commission of a crime.

(a2) Subsections (a) and (a1) of this section shall not apply if:

(1) The firearm is kept unloaded in a locked box or container, with the ammunition stored separately; or

(2) The firearm is kept unloaded and equipped with a tamper-resistant mechanical lock or other safety device properly engaged so as to render the weapon inoperable by any person other than the owner or other lawfully authorized user.

(b) Nothing in this section shall prohibit a person from carrying a firearm on his or her body, or placed in such close proximity that it can be used as easily and quickly as if carried on the body.

(c) This section shall not apply if the minor obtained the firearm as a result of an unlawful entry by any person.

(d) "Minor" as used in this section means a person under 18 years of age who is not emancipated."

SECTION 2. G.S. 14-315.2(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Any retail or wholesale store, shop, or sales outlet that sells firearms shall conspicuously post at each purchase counter the following warning in block letters not less than one inch in height the phrase: "IT IS UNLAWFUL TO STORE OR LEAVE A FIREARM THAT CAN BE DISCHARGED IN A MANNER THAT A REASONABLE PERSON SHOULD KNOW IS ACCESSIBLE TO A MINOR. IF YOU KEEP A LOADED FIREARM WITHIN ANY PREMISES UNDER YOUR CUSTODY OR CONTROL, AND A MINOR OBTAINS IT AND USES IT, RESULTING IN INJURY OR DEATH, OR CARRIES IT TO A PUBLIC PLACE, YOU MAY BE GUILTY OF A CRIMINAL OFFENSE UNLESS YOU STORED THE FIREARM IN A LOCKED CONTAINER OR LOCKED THE FIREARM WITH A LOCKING DEVICE TO KEEP IT FROM TEMPORARILY FUNCTIONING."

SECTION 3. This act becomes effective December 1, 2009, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 90-95(h)(3b) reads as rewritten:

"(3b) Any person who sells, manufactures, delivers, transports, or possesses 28 grams or more of ~~methamphetamine or amphetamine~~ methamphetamine, amphetamine, or any mixture containing such substance shall be guilty of a felony which felony shall be known as "trafficking in methamphetamine or amphetamine" and if the quantity of such substance or mixture involved:

a. Is 28 grams or more, but less than 200 grams, such person shall be punished as a Class F felon and shall be sentenced to a minimum term of 70 months and a maximum term of 84 months in the State's prison and shall be fined not less than fifty thousand dollars ($50,000);

b. Is 200 grams or more, but less than 400 grams, such person shall be punished as a Class E felon and shall be sentenced to a minimum term of 90 months and a maximum term of 117 months in the State's prison and shall be fined not less than one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000);

c. Is 400 grams or more, such person shall be punished as a Class C felon and shall be sentenced to a minimum term of 225 months and a maximum term of 279 months in the State's prison and shall be fined at least two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000)."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective September 1, 2009, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 1091:
Clarify Wt. Measurement/Meth Trafficking

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	April 28, 2009
Introduced by:	Sen. Snow	Prepared by:	Jennifer McGinnis
Analysis of:	First Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate bill 1091 amends the law pertaining to trafficking in amphetamines and methamphetamines by adding the clause "or any mixture containing such substance" to clarify that the charge of trafficking is based on the weight of the entire powder or liquid mixture seized rather than the weight of the actual amount of the controlled substance contained within the powder or liquid mixture.

CURRENT LAW: G.S. 90-95(h)(3b) provides that any person who sells, manufactures, delivers, transports, or possesses 28 grams or more of methamphetamine or amphetamine is guilty of trafficking in methamphetamine or amphetamine. If the quantity of such substance or mixture involved is:

- 28 grams or more, but less than 200 grams, the person is guilty of a Class F felony
- 200 grams or more, but less than 400 grams, the person is guilty of a Class E felony
- 400 grams or more, the person is guilty of a Class C felony

BACKGROUND: In 2008, a decision by the North Carolina Court of Appeals[1] revealed that the language in the statute pertaining to trafficking in amphetamines and methamphetamines differed from other trafficking statutes governing drugs which are commonly manufactured and sold in powder form – specifically the statute governing amphetamine and methamphetamine did not contain the clause "or any mixture containing such substance." This clause is contained in the trafficking statutes pertaining to methaqualone, cocaine, heroin, and LSD, and allows a charge to be brought on the total weight of the powder seized rather than the actual amount of controlled substance contained within the powder mixture.

BILL ANALYSIS: The bill would amend the law pertaining to trafficking in amphetamines and methamphetamines by adding the clause "or any mixture containing such substance" to clarify that the charge of trafficking is based on the weight of the entire powder or liquid mixture seized rather than the weight of the actual amount of the controlled substance contained within the powder or liquid mixture.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The bill would become effective September 1, 2009, and apply to offenses committed on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 44

Short Title:	Appeals of Quasi-Judicial Land-Use Decisions.	(Public)
Sponsors:	Senator Kinnaird.
Referred to:	Judiciary II.

February 4, 2009

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO CLARIFY THE LAW REGARDING APPEALS OF QUASI-JUDICIAL DECISIONS MADE UNDER ARTICLE 19 OF CHAPTER 160A AND ARTICLE 18 OF CHAPTER 153A OF THE GENERAL STATUTES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1.(a) Part 3 of Article 19 of Chapter 160A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 160A-393. Appeals in the nature of certiorari.

(a) Applicability. – This section applies to appeals of quasi-judicial decisions of decision-making boards when that appeal is to superior court and in the nature of certiorari as required by this Article.

(b) For purposes of this section, the following terms mean:

(1) Decision-making board. – A city council, planning board, board of adjustment, or other board making quasi-judicial decisions appointed by the city council under this Article or under comparable provisions of any local act.

(2) Person. – Any legal entity authorized to bring suit in the legal entity's name.

(c) Filing the Petition. – An appeal in the nature of certiorari shall be initiated by filing with the superior court a petition for writ of certiorari. The petition shall:

(1) State the facts that demonstrate that the petitioner has standing to seek review.

(2) Set forth the grounds upon which the petitioner contends that an error was made. The facts, if any, in support of allegations that, as the result of impermissible conflict as described in G.S. 160A-388(e1), the decision-making body was not sufficiently impartial to comply with due process principles shall be set forth with particularity.

(3) Set forth the relief the petitioner seeks.

(d) Standing. – A petition may be filed under this section only by a petitioner who has standing to challenge the decision being appealed. The following persons shall have standing to file a petition under this section:

(1) Any person meeting any of the following criteria:

a. Has an ownership interest, leasehold interest, or other interest created by easement, restriction, or covenant in the property that is the subject of the decision being appealed.

b. Has an option or contract to purchase the property that is the subject of the decision being appealed.

c. Was an applicant before the decision-making board whose decision is being appealed.

(2) Any person with an ownership interest or leasehold interest in property any portion of which is located within 200 feet of the boundary of the property that is the subject of the decision being appealed.

(3) Any other person who will suffer special damages as the result of the decision being appealed. For purposes of this subdivision, 'special damages' mean a substantial harm suffered by a person that is distinct from the rest of the community, amounting to a reduction in the value of such person's property.

(4) An incorporated or unincorporated association to which owners or lessees of property in a designated area belong by virtue of their owning or leasing property in that area, or an association otherwise organized to protect and foster the interest of a particular neighborhood or local area, so long as at least one of the members of the association would have standing as an individual to challenge the decision being appealed, and the association was not created in response to the particular development or issue that is the subject of the appeal.

(5) A city whose decision-making board has made a decision that the council believes improperly grants a variance from or is otherwise inconsistent with the proper interpretation of an ordinance adopted by that council.

(e) Respondent. – The respondent named in the petition shall be the city whose decision-making board made the decision that is being appealed, except that if the petitioner is a city that has filed a petition pursuant to subdivision (d)(5) of this section, then the respondent shall be the decision-making board. If the petitioner is not the applicant before the decision-making board whose decision is being appealed, the petitioner shall also name that applicant as a respondent. Any petitioner may name as a respondent any person with an ownership or leasehold interest in the property that is the subject of the decision being appealed who participated in the hearing before the decision-making board.

(f) Writ of Certiorari. – Upon filing the petition, the petitioner shall present the petition and a proposed writ of certiorari to the clerk of court of the county in which the matter arose. The writ shall direct the respondent city (or the respondent decision-making board if the petitioner is a city that has filed a petition pursuant to subdivision (d)(5) of this section) to prepare and certify to the court the record of proceedings below within a specified date. The writ shall also direct that the petitioner shall serve the petition and the writ upon each respondent named therein in the manner provided for service of a complaint under Rule 4j of the Rules of Civil Procedure (except that, if the respondent is a decision-making board, the petition and the writ shall be served upon the chairman of that decision-making board). No summons shall be issued. The clerk shall issue the writ without notice to the respondent or respondents if the petition has been properly filed and the writ is in proper form. A copy of the executed writ shall be filed with the court.

(g) Answer to the Petition. – The respondent may, but need not, file an answer to the petition, except that if the respondent contends that any petitioner lacks standing to bring the appeal, that contention must be set forth in an answer served on all petitioners at least 30 days prior to the hearing on the petition.

(h) Intervention. – Rule 24 of the Rules of Civil Procedure shall govern motions to intervene as a petitioner or respondent in an action initiated under this section with the following exceptions:

(1) Any person described in subdivision (d)(1) of this section shall have standing to intervene and shall be allowed to intervene as a matter or right.

(2) Any person, other than one described in subdivision (d)(1) of this section, who seeks to intervene as a petitioner must demonstrate that the person would have had standing to challenge the decision being appealed in accordance with subdivisions (d)(2) through (d)(5) of this section.

(3) Any person, other than one described in subdivision (d)(1) of this section, who seeks to intervene as a respondent must demonstrate that the person would have had standing to file a petition in accordance with subdivisions (d)(2) through (d)(5) of this section if the decision-making board had made a decision that is consistent with the relief sought by the petitioner(s).

(i) The Record. – The record shall consist of all documents and exhibits submitted to the decision-making board whose decision is being appealed, together with the minutes of the meeting or meetings at which the decision being appealed was considered. Upon request of any party, the record shall also contain an audio or videotape of the meeting or meetings at which the decision being appealed was considered if such a recording was made. Any party may also include in the record a transcript of the proceedings, which shall be prepared at the cost of the party choosing to include it. The parties may agree, or the court may direct, that matters unnecessary to the court's decision be deleted from the record or that matters other than those specified herein be included. The record shall be bound and paginated or otherwise organized for the convenience of the parties and the court. A copy of the record shall be served by the municipal respondent upon all petitioners within three days after it is filed with the court.

(j) Hearing on the Record. – The court shall hear and decide all issues raised by the petition by reviewing the record submitted in accordance with subsection (h) of this section. Except that the court may, in its discretion, allow the record to be supplemented with affidavits, testimony of witnesses, or documentary or other evidence if, and to the extent that, the record is not adequate to allow an appropriate determination of the following issues:

(1) Whether a petitioner or intervenor has standing.

(2) Whether, as a result of impermissible conflict as described in G.S. 160A-388(e1), the decision-making body was not sufficiently impartial to comply with due process principles.

(3) Whether the decision-making body erred for the reasons set forth in sub-subdivisions a. and b. of subdivision (1) of subsection (k) of this section.

(k) Scope of Review. –

(1) When reviewing the decision of a decision-making board under the provisions of this section, the trial court shall ensure that the rights of petitioners have not been prejudiced because the decision-making body's findings, inferences, conclusions, or decisions were:

a. In violation of constitutional provisions, including those protecting procedural due process rights.

b. In excess of the statutory authority conferred upon the city or the authority conferred upon the decision-making board by ordinance.

c. Inconsistent with applicable procedures specified by statute or ordinance.

d. Affected by other error of law.

e. Unsupported by substantial competent evidence in view of the entire record.

f. Arbitrary or capricious.

(2) When the issue before the trial court is whether the decision-making board erred in interpreting an ordinance, the trial court may review that issue de novo and freely substitute its judgment for that of the decision-making board, provided that the court may give due consideration to the construction adopted by those entities charged with the execution and administration of the ordinance, taking into account the extent to which such construction may have been based on sound reasoning and consistent application.

(3) The term "competent evidence," as used in this subsection, shall not preclude reliance by the decision-making board on evidence that would not be admissible under the rules of evidence as applied in the trial division of the General Court of Justice if (i) the evidence was admitted without objection, or (ii) the evidence appears to be sufficiently trustworthy and was admitted under such circumstances that it was reasonable for the decision-making board to rely upon it. The term "competent evidence" shall not be deemed to include the opinion testimony of lay witnesses as to any of the following:

a. The use of property in a particular way would affect the value of other property.

b. The increase in vehicular traffic resulting from a proposed development would pose a danger to the public safety.

c. Matters about which only expert testimony would generally be admissible under the rules of evidence.

(l) Decision of the Trial Court. – Following its review of the decision-making board in accordance with subsection (k) of this section, the trial court may affirm the decision, reverse the decision and remand the case with appropriate instructions, or remand the case for further proceedings. If the court does not affirm the decision below in its entirety, then the court shall be guided by the following in determining what relief should be granted to the petitioners:

(1) If the court concludes that the error committed by the decision-making board is procedural only, the court may remand the case for further proceedings to correct the procedural error.

(2) If the court concludes that the decision-making board has erred by failing to make findings of fact such that the court cannot properly perform its function, then the court may remand the case with appropriate instructions so long as the record contains substantial competent evidence that could support the decision below with appropriate findings of fact. However, findings of fact are not necessary when the record sufficiently reveals the basis for the decision below or when the material facts are undisputed and the case presents only an issue of law.

(3) If the court concludes that the decision by the decision-making board is not supported by substantial competent evidence in the record or is based upon an error of law, then the court may remand the case with an order that directs the decision-making board to take whatever action should have been taken had the error not been committed or to take such other action as is necessary to correct the error. Specifically:

a. If the court concludes that a permit was wrongfully denied because the denial was not based on substantial competent evidence or was otherwise based on an error of law, the court shall remand with instructions that the permit be issued.

b. If the court concludes that a permit was wrongfully issued because the issuance was not based on substantial competent evidence or was otherwise based on an error of law, the court shall remand with instructions that the permit be revoked.

(m) Ancillary Injunctive Relief. – Upon motion of a party to a proceeding under this section, and under appropriate circumstances, the trial court may issue an injunctive order requiring any other party to that proceeding to take certain action or refrain from taking action that is consistent with the court's decision on the merits of the appeal."

SECTION 1.(b) Article 18 of Chapter 153A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 153A-349. Appeals in the nature of certiorari.

(a) Whenever appeals of quasi-judicial decisions of decision-making boards are to superior court and in the nature of certiorari as required by this Article, the provisions of G.S. 160A-393 shall be applicable to those appeals.

(b) For purposes of this section, as used in G.S. 160A-393, the term "city council" shall be deemed to refer to the "board of commissioners," and the term "city" or "municipal" shall be deemed to refer to the "county."

(c) For purposes of this section, the "impermissible conflict as described in G.S. 160A-388(e1)" shall mean "impermissible conflict as described in G.S. 153A-345(e1)."""

SECTION 2.(a) Part 2 of Article 19 of Chapter 160A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 160A-377. Appeals of decisions on subdivision plats.

(a) When a subdivision ordinance adopted under this Part provides that the decision whether to approve or deny a preliminary or final subdivision plat is to be made by a city council or a planning board, other than a planning board comprised solely of members of a city planning staff, and the ordinance authorizes the council or planning board to make a quasi-judicial decision in deciding whether to approve the subdivision plat, then that quasi-judicial decision of the council or planning board shall be subject to review by the superior court by proceedings in the nature of certiorari. The provisions of G.S. 160A-381(c), 160A-388(e2), and 160A-393 shall apply to those appeals.

(b) When a subdivision ordinance adopted under this Part provides that a city council, planning board, or staff member is authorized to make only an administrative or ministerial decision in deciding whether to approve a preliminary or final subdivision plat, then any party aggrieved by that administrative or ministerial decision may seek to have the decision reviewed by filing an action in superior court seeking appropriate declaratory or equitable relief. Such an action must be filed within the time frame specified in G.S. 160A-381(c) for petitions in the nature of certiorari.

(c) For purposes of this section, an ordinance shall be deemed to authorize a quasi-judicial decision if the city council or planning board is authorized to decide whether to approve or deny the plat based not only upon whether the application complies with the specific requirements set forth in the ordinance, but also on whether the application complies with one or more generally stated standards requiring a discretionary decision to be made by the city council or planning board."

SECTION 2.(b) Part 2 of Article 18 of Chapter 153A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 153A-336. Appeals of decisions on subdivision plats.

(a) When a subdivision ordinance adopted under this Part provides that the decision whether to approve or deny a preliminary or final subdivision plat is to be made by a board of commissioners or a planning board, other than a planning board comprised solely of members of a county planning staff, and the ordinance authorizes the board of commissioners or planning board to make a quasi-judicial decision in deciding whether to approve the subdivision plat, then that quasi-judicial decision of the board of commissioners or planning board shall be subject to review by the superior court by proceedings in the nature of certiorari. The provisions of G.S. 153A-340(f), 153A-345(e2), and 153A-349 shall apply to those appeals.

(b) When a subdivision ordinance adopted under this Part provides that a board of commissioners, planning board, or staff member is authorized to make only an administrative or ministerial decision in deciding whether to approve a preliminary or final subdivision plat, then any party aggrieved by that administrative or ministerial decision may seek to have the decision reviewed by filing an action in superior court seeking appropriate declaratory or equitable relief. Such an action must be filed within the time frame specified in G.S. 153A-340(f) for petitions in the nature of certiorari.

(c) For purposes of this section, an ordinance shall be deemed to authorize a quasi-judicial decision if the board of commissioners or planning board is authorized to decide whether to approve or deny the plat based not only upon whether the application complies with the specific requirements set forth in the ordinance, but also on whether the application complies with one or more generally stated standards requiring a discretionary decision to be made by the board of commissioners or planning board."

SECTION 3. G.S. 63-34 reads as rewritten:

"§ 63-34. Judicial review.

(a) Any person aggrieved by any decision of the board of appeals, or any taxpayer, or any officer, department, board, or bureau of the political subdivision, may present to the superior court a verified petition setting forth that the decision is illegal, in whole or in part, and specifying the grounds of the illegality. Such petition shall be presented to the court within 30 days after the decision is filed in the office of the board. Such petition shall comply with the provisions of G.S. 160A-393.

(b) ~~Upon presentation of such petition the court may allow a writ of certiorari directed to the board of appeals to review such decision of the board.~~The allowance of the writ shall not stay proceedings upon the decision appealed from, but the court may, on application, on notice to the board and on due cause shown, grant a restraining order.

(c) The board of appeals shall not be required to return the original papers acted upon by it, but it shall be sufficient to return certified or sworn copies thereof or of such portions thereof as may be called for by the writ. The return shall concisely set forth such other facts as may be pertinent and material to show the grounds of the decision appealed from and shall be verified.

~~(d) The court shall have exclusive jurisdiction to affirm, modify, or set aside the decision brought up for review, in whole or in part, and if need be, to order further proceedings by the board of appeals. The findings of fact by the board, if supported by substantial evidence, shall be accepted by the court as conclusive, and no objection to a decision of the board shall be considered by the court unless such objection shall have been urged before the board, or if it was not so urged, unless there were reasonable grounds for failure to do so.~~

(e) Costs shall not be allowed against the board of appeals unless it appears to the court that it acted with gross negligence, in bad faith, or with malice, in making the decision appealed from."

SECTION 4. G.S. 162A-93(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) The provisions of subsection (a) shall not apply if the city council adopts an annexation ordinance including an area served by a district and finds, after a public hearing, that adequate fire protection cannot be provided in the area because of the level of available water service. Notice of the public hearing shall be provided by first class mail to each affected customer and by publication in a newspaper having general circulation in the area, each not less than 10 days before the hearing. The clerk's certification of the mailing shall be deemed conclusive in the absence of fraud. Any resident of the annexed area aggrieved by such a finding of the council may file a petition for review in the superior court in the nature of certiorari, within 30 days after the finding. The petition for review in the nature of certiorari shall comply with G.S. 160A-393."

SECTION 5. G.S. 160A-388(e1) reads as rewritten:

"(e1) A member of the board or any other body exercising ~~the functions of a board of adjustment~~quasi-judicial functions pursuant to this Article shall not participate in or vote on any quasi-judicial matter in a manner that would violate affected persons' constitutional rights to an impartial decision maker. Impermissible conflicts include, but are not limited to, a member having a fixed opinion prior to hearing the matter that is not susceptible to change, undisclosed ex parte communications, a close familial, business, or other associational relationship with an affected person, or a financial interest in the outcome of the matter. If an objection is raised to a member's participation and that member does not recuse himself or herself, the remaining members shall by majority vote rule on the objection."

SECTION 6. G.S. 153A-345(e1) reads as rewritten:

"(e1) A member of the board or any other body exercising ~~the functions of a board of adjustment~~quasi-judicial functions pursuant to this Article shall not participate in or vote on any quasi-judicial matter in a manner that would violate affected persons' constitutional rights to an impartial decision maker. Impermissible conflicts include, but are not limited to, a member having a fixed opinion prior to hearing the matter that is not susceptible to change, undisclosed ex parte communications, a close familial, business, or other associational relationship with an affected person, or a financial interest in the outcome of the matter. If an objection is raised to a member's participation and that member does not recuse himself or herself, the remaining members shall by majority vote rule on the objection."

SECTION 7. This act becomes effective January 1, 2010, and applies to appeals filed on or after that date.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO CLARIFY THE LAW REGARDING APPEALS OF QUASI-JUDICIAL DECISIONS MADE UNDER ARTICLE 19 OF CHAPTER 160A AND ARTICLE 18 OF CHAPTER 153A OF THE GENERAL STATUTES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1.(a) Part 3 of Article 19 of Chapter 160A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 160A-393. Appeals in the nature of certiorari.

(a) Applicability. – This section applies to appeals of quasi-judicial decisions of decision-making boards when that appeal is to superior court and in the nature of certiorari as required by this Article.

(b) For purposes of this section, the following terms mean:

(1) Decision-making board. – A city council, planning board, board of adjustment, or other board making quasi-judicial decisions appointed by the city council under this Article or under comparable provisions of any local act or any interlocal agreement authorized by law.

(2) Person. – Any legal entity authorized to bring suit in the legal entity's name.

(3) Quasi-judicial decision. – A decision involving the finding of facts regarding a specific application of an ordinance and the exercise of discretion when applying the standards of the ordinance. Quasi-judicial decisions include decisions involving variances, special and conditional use permits, and appeals of administrative determinations. Decisions on the approval of site plans are quasi-judicial in nature if the ordinance authorizes a decision-making board to approve or deny the site plan based not only upon whether the application complies with the specific requirements set forth in the ordinance, but also on whether the application complies with one or more generally stated standards requiring a discretionary decision on the findings of fact to be made by the decision-making board.

(c) Filing the Petition. – An appeal in the nature of certiorari shall be initiated by filing with the superior court a petition for writ of certiorari. The petition shall:

(1) State the facts that demonstrate that the petitioner has standing to seek review.

(2) Set forth the grounds upon which the petitioner contends that an error was made.

(3) Set forth with particularity the allegations and facts, if any, in support of allegations that, as the result of impermissible conflict as described in G.S. 160A-388(e1), or locally adopted conflict rules, the decision-making body was not sufficiently impartial to comply with due process principles.

(4) Set forth the relief the petitioner seeks.

(d) Standing. – A petition may be filed under this section only by a petitioner who has standing to challenge the decision being appealed. The following persons shall have standing to file a petition under this section:

(1) Any person meeting any of the following criteria:

a. Has an ownership interest, leasehold interest, or other interest created by easement, restriction, or covenant in the property that is the subject of the decision being appealed.

b. Has an option or contract to purchase the property that is the subject of the decision being appealed.

c. Was an applicant before the decision-making board whose decision is being appealed.

(2) Any other person who will suffer special damages as the result of the decision being appealed.

(3) An incorporated or unincorporated association to which owners or lessees of property in a designated area belong by virtue of their owning or leasing property in that area, or an association otherwise organized to protect and foster the interest of the particular neighborhood or local area, so long as at least one of the members of the association would have standing as an individual to challenge the decision being appealed, and the association was not created in response to the particular development or issue that is the subject of the appeal.

(4) A city whose decision-making board has made a decision that the council believes improperly grants a variance from or is otherwise inconsistent with the proper interpretation of an ordinance adopted by that council.

(e) Respondent. – The respondent named in the petition shall be the city whose decision-making board made the decision that is being appealed, except that if the petitioner is a city that has filed a petition pursuant to subdivision (d)(4) of this section, then the respondent shall be the decision-making board. If the petitioner is not the applicant before the decision-making board whose decision is being appealed, the petitioner shall also name that applicant as a respondent. Any petitioner may name as a respondent any person with an ownership or leasehold interest in the property that is the subject of the decision being appealed who participated in the hearing, or was an applicant, before the decision-making board.

(f) Writ of Certiorari. – Upon filing the petition, the petitioner shall present the petition and a proposed writ of certiorari to the clerk of court of the county in which the matter arose. The writ shall direct the respondent city, or the respondent decision-making board if the petitioner is a city that has filed a petition pursuant to subdivision (d)(4) of this section, to prepare and certify to the court the record of proceedings below within a specified date. The writ shall also direct that the petitioner shall serve the petition and the writ upon each respondent named therein in the manner provided for service of a complaint under Rule 4(j) of the Rules of Civil Procedure, except that, if the respondent is a decision-making board, the petition and the writ shall be served upon the chair of that decision-making board. Rule 4(j)(5)d of the Rules of Civil Procedure shall apply in the event the chair of a decision-making board cannot be found. No summons shall be issued. The clerk shall issue the writ without notice to the respondent or respondents if the petition has been properly filed and the writ is in proper form. A copy of the executed writ shall be filed with the court.

(g) Answer to the Petition. – The respondent may, but need not, file an answer to the petition, except that, if the respondent contends that any petitioner lacks standing to bring the appeal, that contention must be set forth in an answer served on all petitioners at least 30 days prior to the hearing on the petition.

(h) Intervention. – Rule 24 of the Rules of Civil Procedure shall govern motions to intervene as a petitioner or respondent in an action initiated under this section with the following exceptions:

(1) Any person described in subdivision (d)(1) of this section shall have standing to intervene and shall be allowed to intervene as a matter or right.

(2) Any person, other than one described in subdivision (d)(1) of this section, who seeks to intervene as a petitioner must demonstrate that the person would have had standing to challenge the decision being appealed in accordance with subdivisions (d)(2) through (d)(4) of this section.

(3) Any person, other than one described in subdivision (d)(1) of this section, who seeks to intervene as a respondent must demonstrate that the person would have had standing to file a petition in accordance with subdivisions (d)(2) through (d)(4) of this section if the decision-making board had made a decision that is consistent with the relief sought by the petitioner.

(i) The Record. – The record shall consist of all documents and exhibits submitted to the decision-making board whose decision is being appealed, together with the minutes of the meeting or meetings at which the decision being appealed was considered. Upon request of any party, the record shall also contain an audio or videotape of the meeting or meetings at which the decision being appealed was considered if such a recording was made. Any party may also include in the record a transcript of the proceedings, which shall be prepared at the cost of the party choosing to include it. The parties may agree, or the court may direct, that matters unnecessary to the court's decision be deleted from the record or that matters other than those specified herein be included. The record shall be bound and paginated or otherwise organized for the convenience of the parties and the court. A copy of the record shall be served by the municipal respondent, or the respondent decision-making board, upon all petitioners within three days after it is filed with the court.

(j) Hearing on the Record. – The court shall hear and decide all issues raised by the petition by reviewing the record submitted in accordance with subsection (h) of this section. Except that the court may, in its discretion, allow the record to be supplemented with affidavits, testimony of witnesses, or documentary or other evidence if, and to the extent that, the record is not adequate to allow an appropriate determination of the following issues:

(1) Whether a petitioner or intervenor has standing.

(2) Whether, as a result of impermissible conflict as described in G.S. 160A-388(e1), or locally adopted conflict rules, the decision-making body was not sufficiently impartial to comply with due process principles.

(3) Whether the decision-making body erred for the reasons set forth in sub-subdivisions a. and b. of subdivision (1) of subsection (k) of this section.

(k) Scope of Review. –

(1) When reviewing the decision of a decision-making board under the provisions of this section, the court shall ensure that the rights of petitioners have not been prejudiced because the decision-making body's findings, inferences, conclusions, or decisions were:

a. In violation of constitutional provisions, including those protecting procedural due process rights.

b. In excess of the statutory authority conferred upon the city or the authority conferred upon the decision-making board by ordinance.

c. Inconsistent with applicable procedures specified by statute or ordinance.
d. Affected by other error of law.
e. Unsupported by substantial competent evidence in view of the entire record.
f. Arbitrary or capricious.

(2) When the issue before the court is whether the decision-making board erred in interpreting an ordinance, the court shall review that issue de novo, and freely substitute its judgment for that of the decision-making board.

(3) The term "competent evidence," as used in this subsection, shall not preclude reliance by the decision-making board on evidence that would not be admissible under the rules of evidence as applied in the trial division of the General Court of Justice if (i) the evidence was admitted without objection, or (ii) the evidence appears to be sufficiently trustworthy and was admitted under such circumstances that it was reasonable for the decision-making board to rely upon it. The term "competent evidence," as used in this subsection, shall not be deemed to include the opinion testimony of lay witnesses as to any of the following:

a. The use of property in a particular way would affect the value of other property.
b. The increase in vehicular traffic resulting from a proposed development would pose a danger to the public safety.
c. Matters about which only expert testimony would generally be admissible under the rules of evidence.

(l) Decision of the Court. – Following its review of the decision-making board in accordance with subsection (k) of this section, the court may affirm the decision, reverse the decision and remand the case with appropriate instructions, or remand the case for further proceedings. If the court does not affirm the decision below in its entirety, then the court shall be guided by the following in determining what relief should be granted to the petitioners:

(1) If the court concludes that the error committed by the decision-making board is procedural only, the court may remand the case for further proceedings to correct the procedural error.

(2) If the court concludes that the decision-making board has erred by failing to make findings of fact such that the court cannot properly perform its function, then the court may remand the case with appropriate instructions so long as the record contains substantial competent evidence that could support the decision below with appropriate findings of fact. However, findings of fact are not necessary when the record sufficiently reveals the basis for the decision below or when the material facts are undisputed and the case presents only an issue of law.

(3) If the court concludes that the decision by the decision-making board is not supported by substantial competent evidence in the record or is based upon an error of law, then the court may remand the case with an order that directs the decision-making board to take whatever action should have been taken had the error not been committed or to take such other action as is necessary to correct the error. Specifically:

a. If the court concludes that a permit was wrongfully denied because the denial was not based on substantial competent evidence or was otherwise based on an error of law, the court may remand with instructions that the permit be issued, subject to reasonable and appropriate conditions.

b. If the court concludes that a permit was wrongfully issued because the issuance was not based on substantial competent evidence or was otherwise based on an error of law, the court may remand with instructions that the permit be revoked.

(m) Ancillary Injunctive Relief. – Upon motion of a party to a proceeding under this section, and under appropriate circumstances, the court may issue an injunctive order requiring any other party to that proceeding to take certain action or refrain from taking action that is consistent with the court's decision on the merits of the appeal."

SECTION 1.(b) Article 18 of Chapter 153A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 153A-349. Appeals in the nature of certiorari.

(a) Whenever appeals of quasi-judicial decisions of decision-making boards are to superior court and in the nature of certiorari as required by this Article, the provisions of G.S. 160A-393 shall be applicable to those appeals.

(b) For purposes of this section, as used in G.S. 160A-393, the term "city council" shall be deemed to refer to the "board of commissioners," and the term "city" or "municipal" shall be deemed to refer to the "county".

(c) For purposes of this section, the "impermissible conflict as described in G.S. 160A-388(e1)" shall mean "impermissible conflict as described in G.S. 153A-345(e1)"."

SECTION 2.(a) Part 2 of Article 19 of Chapter 160A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 160A-377. Appeals of decisions on subdivision plats.

(a) When a subdivision ordinance adopted under this Part provides that the decision whether to approve or deny a preliminary or final subdivision plat is to be made by a city council or a planning board, other than a planning board comprised solely of members of a city planning staff, and the ordinance authorizes the council or planning board to make a quasi-judicial decision in deciding whether to approve the subdivision plat, then that quasi-judicial decision of the council or planning board shall be subject to review by the superior court by proceedings in the nature of certiorari. The provisions of G.S. 160A-381(c), 160A-388(e2), and 160A-393 shall apply to those appeals.

(b) When a subdivision ordinance adopted under this Part provides that a city council, planning board, or staff member is authorized to make only an administrative or ministerial decision in deciding whether to approve a preliminary or final subdivision plat, then any party aggrieved by that administrative or ministerial decision may seek to have the decision reviewed by filing an action in superior court seeking appropriate declaratory or equitable relief. Such an action must be filed within the time frame specified in G.S. 160A-381(c) for petitions in the nature of certiorari.

(c) For purposes of this section, an ordinance shall be deemed to authorize a quasi-judicial decision if the city council or planning board is authorized to decide whether to approve or deny the plat based not only upon whether the application complies with the specific requirements set forth in the ordinance, but also on whether the application complies with one or more generally stated standards requiring a discretionary decision to be made by the city council or planning board."

SECTION 2.(b) Part 2 of Article 18 of Chapter 153A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 153A-336. Appeals of decisions on subdivision plats.

(a) When a subdivision ordinance adopted under this Part provides that the decision whether to approve or deny a preliminary or final subdivision plat is to be made by a board of commissioners or a planning board, other than a planning board comprised solely of members of a county planning staff, and the ordinance authorizes the board of commissioners or planning board to make a quasi-judicial decision in deciding whether to approve the subdivision plat, then that quasi-judicial decision of the board of commissioners or planning board shall be subject to review by the superior court by proceedings in the nature of certiorari. The provisions of G.S. 153A-340(f), 153A-345(e2), and 153A-349 shall apply to those appeals.

(b) When a subdivision ordinance adopted under this Part provides that a board of commissioners, planning board, or staff member is authorized to make only an administrative or ministerial decision in deciding whether to approve a preliminary or final subdivision plat, then any party aggrieved by that administrative or ministerial decision may seek to have the decision reviewed by filing an action in superior court seeking appropriate declaratory or equitable relief. Such an action must be filed within the time frame specified in G.S. 153A-340(f) for petitions in the nature of certiorari.

(c) For purposes of this section, an ordinance shall be deemed to authorize a quasi-judicial decision if the board of commissioners or planning board is authorized to decide whether to approve or deny the plat based not only upon whether the application complies with the specific requirements set forth in the ordinance, but also on whether the application complies with one or more generally stated standards requiring a discretionary decision to be made by the board of commissioners or planning board."

SECTION 3. G.S. 63-34 reads as rewritten:

"§ 63-34. Judicial review.

(a) Any person aggrieved by any decision of the board of appeals, or any taxpayer, or any officer, department, board, or bureau of the political subdivision, may present to the superior court a verified petition setting forth that the decision is illegal, in whole or in part, and specifying the grounds of the illegality. Such petition shall be presented to the court within 30 days after the decision is filed in the office of the board. Such petition shall comply with the provisions of G.S. 160A-393.

(b) ~~Upon presentation of such petition the court may allow a writ of certiorari directed to the board of appeals to review such decision of the board.~~ The allowance of the writ shall not stay proceedings upon the decision appealed from, but the court may, on application, on notice to the board and on due cause shown, grant a restraining order.

(c) The board of appeals shall not be required to return the original papers acted upon by it, but it shall be sufficient to return certified or sworn copies thereof or of such portions thereof as may be called for by the writ. The return shall concisely set forth such other facts as may be pertinent and material to show the grounds of the decision appealed from and shall be verified.

~~(d) The court shall have exclusive jurisdiction to affirm, modify, or set aside the decision brought up for review, in whole or in part, and if need be, to order further proceedings by the board of appeals. The findings of fact by the board, if supported by substantial evidence, shall be accepted by the court as conclusive, and no objection to a decision of the board shall be considered by the court unless such objection shall have been urged before the board, or if it was not so urged, unless there were reasonable grounds for failure to do so.~~

(e) Costs shall not be allowed against the board of appeals unless it appears to the court that it acted with gross negligence, in bad faith, or with malice, in making the decision appealed from."

SECTION 4. G.S. 162A-93(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) The provisions of subsection (a) shall not apply if the city council adopts an annexation ordinance including an area served by a district and finds, after a public hearing, that adequate fire protection cannot be provided in the area because of the level of available water service. Notice of the public hearing shall be provided by first class mail to each affected customer and by publication in a newspaper having general circulation in the area, each not less than 10 days before the hearing. The clerk's certification of the mailing shall be deemed conclusive in the absence of fraud. Any resident of the annexed area aggrieved by such a finding of the council may file a petition for review in the superior court in the nature of ~~certiorari~~certiorari, within 30 days after the finding. The petition for review in the nature of certiorari shall comply with G.S. 160A-393."

SECTION 5. G.S. 160A-388(e1) reads as rewritten:

"(e1) A member of the board or any other body exercising ~~the functions of a board of adjustment~~quasi-judicial functions pursuant to this Article shall not participate in or vote on any quasi-judicial matter in a manner that would violate affected persons' constitutional rights to an impartial decision maker. Impermissible conflicts include, but are not limited to, a member having a fixed opinion prior to hearing the matter that is not susceptible to change, undisclosed ex parte communications, a close familial, business, or other associational relationship with an affected person, or a financial interest in the outcome of the matter. If an objection is raised to a member's participation and that member does not recuse himself or herself, the remaining members shall by majority vote rule on the objection."

SECTION 6. G.S. 153A-345(e1) reads as rewritten:

"(e1) A member of the board or any other body exercising ~~the functions of a board of adjustment~~quasi-judicial functions pursuant to this Article shall not participate in or vote on any quasi-judicial matter in a manner that would violate affected persons' constitutional rights to an impartial decision maker. Impermissible conflicts include, but are not limited to, a member having a fixed opinion prior to hearing the matter that is not susceptible to change, undisclosed ex parte communications, a close familial, business, or other associational relationship with an affected person, or a financial interest in the outcome of the matter. If an objection is raised to a member's participation and that member does not recuse himself or herself, the remaining members shall by majority vote rule on the objection."

SECTION 7. This act becomes effective January 1, 2010, and applies to quasi-judicial decisions rendered on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 44:
Appeals of Quasi-Judicial Land-Use Decisions

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	May 3, 2009
Introduced by:	Sen. Kinnaird	Prepared by:	Kory Goldsmith
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition S44-CSRC-13		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: This Proposed Committee Substitute for Senate Bill 44 would establish a statutory appeals procedure for quasi-judicial decisions of local governments on land use matters. It also provides that when any local board makes a quasi-judicial decision, it must observe the same conflict of interest standards that apply to boards of adjustment.

CURRENT LAW: Currently there is little statutory guidance for appeals from the quasi-judicial decisions of local governments concerning land use. Those would include the decisions authorized under Article 19 of Chapter 160A for cities and Article 18 of Chapter 153A for counties to issue subdivision permits, special or conditional use permits, and zoning variances.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1.(a) creates G.S. 160A-393 which establishes a statutory process for appealing quasi-judicial decisions of decision-making boards making quasi-judicial decisions. A "decision making board" is any city council, planning board, board of adjustment or other board appointed by the city council. A quasi-judicial decision is a decision involving the finding of facts regarding a specific application of an ordinance and the exercise of discretion when applying the standards of the ordinance. Examples of quasi-judicial decisions are decisions involving variances as well as special and conditional use permits. Decisions on the approval of site plans may be quasi-judicial if the ordinance authorizes the board to deny the application based in part on whether the application complies with generally stated standards requiring the application of discretion on the findings of fact to be made by the board.

An appeal would be initiated by the filing of a petition for writ of certiorari stating the facts to be reviewed, the grounds for the error, the relief the petitioner seeks, and whether the petitioner alleges an impermissible conflict of interest. The following persons would have standing to file a petition:

- The person has a property interest in the property, an option or contract to purchase the property, or was an applicant before the decision-making board.
- Any person who will suffer special damages as a result of the decision being appealed.
- A property owners association, neighborhood association, or similar civic association, if any of its members have standing as an individual, if the interests sought to be protected are germane to the association's purpose, and neither the claim asserted nor the relief requested requires the participation of individual members who would have standing.
- A city if the city council believes the quasi-judicial decision is not consistent with the ordinance adopted by the council.

The respondent in the appeal is generally the city whose board or agency made the decision.

Upon filing the petition, the petitioner shall present a proposed writ of certiorari to the clerk of court in the county where the matter arises. The writ would direct the respondent to prepare and certify to the court a record of the proceedings. The writ also directs the petitioner to serve the writ on the respondent. The writ is issued without notice to the respondent, and the respondent is not required to file an answer to the petition unless the respondent challenges the petitioner's standing.

Generally, the right to intervene is governed by Rule 24 of the Rules of Civil Procedure. In addition. G.S. 160A-393(h) would allow a person has a property interest in the property, an option or contract to purchase the property, or was an applicant before the decision-making board to intervene as a matter of right. Otherwise, a person seeking to intervene as a petitioner must have had standing to challenge the quasi-judicial decision, and a person seeking to intervene as a respondent must have had standing to file a petition if the decision had been in accordance with the relief the petitioner is seeking.

In a hearing on the record, the Superior Court shall ensure that the petitioner's rights were not prejudiced because the decision-making body's actions were:

1. Unconstitutional.
2. In excess of authority given it by statute or ordinance.
3. Inconsistent with what statute or ordinance prescribes as procedure.
4. Affected by other error of law.
5. Unsupported by competent evidence.
6. Arbitrary and capricious.

The trial court may affirm the decision, reverse the decision and remand with appropriate instructions or remand the case for further proceedings.

Section 1.(b) creates G.S. 153A-349 which makes the same procedures applicable to county decision-making boards quasi-judicial decisions.

Section 2.(a) and (b) applies the appeals principles of Section 1 to appeals from city and county subdivision plat decisions. It makes the distinction between quasi-judicial plat decisions and administrative ones.

Sections 3 and 4 applies the appeals principles to airport zoning decisions and a decision by a municipality to extend water or sewer lines into an area served by a county water and sewer district.

Section 5 clarifies that when any local board makes a quasi-judicial decision, it must observe the same conflict of interest standards that are applicable to boards of adjustment.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act becomes effective January 12, 2010 and would apply to quasi-judicial decisions made on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 94

Short Title:	Felony to Assault Probation/Parole Officer.	(Public)
Sponsors:	Senator Foriest.
Referred to:	Judiciary II.

February 10, 2009

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO MAKE IT A FELONY TO ASSAULT OR OTHERWISE ENDANGER A PROBATION OR PAROLE OFFICER.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 14-16.10 reads as rewritten:

"§ 14-16.10. Definitions.

The following definitions apply in this Article:

(1) Court officer. – Magistrate, clerk of superior court, acting clerk, assistant or deputy clerk, judge, or justice of the General Court of Justice; district attorney, assistant district attorney, or any other attorney designated by the district attorney to act for the State or on behalf of the district attorney; public defender or assistant defender; court reporter; probation or parole officer; juvenile court counselor as defined in G.S. 7B-1501(18a); any attorney or other individual employed by or acting on behalf of the department of social services in proceedings pursuant to Subchapter I of Chapter 7B of the General Statutes; any attorney or other individual appointed pursuant to G.S. 7B-601 or G.S. 7B-1108 or employed by the Guardian ad Litem Services Division of the Administrative Office of the Courts.

(2) Executive officer. – A person named in G.S. 147-3(c).

(3) Legislative officer. – A person named in G.S. 147-2(1), (2), or (3)."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective December 1, 2009, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 94:
Felony to Assault Probation/Parole Officer

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	May 5, 2009
Introduced by:	Sen. Foriest	Prepared by:	Jennifer McGinnis Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	First Edition

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 94 would add probation and parole officers to the list of persons covered under Article 5A of Chapter 14, which makes it a felony to assault or threaten executive, legislative, and court officers.

CURRENT LAW: Article 5A currently provides that a person who assaults a legislative, executive, or court officer ("covered persons") or makes a violent attack upon their residence, office, temporary accommodation or means of transport shall be punished as a Class I felon, except in cases where a deadly weapon is used or serious bodily injury is inflicted in which case the person committing the act shall be punished as a Class F felon. The Article also provides that a person who knowingly and willfully makes a threat to inflict serious bodily injury against a covered person, or knowingly and willfully deposits for conveyance in the mail such a threat, shall be punished as a Class I felon.

Persons currently covered by the statute include: magistrates, clerks of superior court (acting, assistant, or deputy clerks), judges or justices of the General Court of Justice; district attorneys (assistant DAs and other attorneys designated by the DA to act for the State or on behalf of the DA); public defenders (and assistants); court reporters; juvenile court counselors; any attorneys or other individuals employed by or acting on behalf of the department of social services in certain proceedings under the juvenile code, and certain attorneys or other individuals appointed pursuant to the juvenile code or employed by the Guardian ad Litem Services Division of the Administrative Office of the Courts.

BILL ANALYSIS: The bill would add probation and parole officers to the list of persons covered under the statute, making it a felony to assault probation and parole officers (Class I or F dependent on nature of assault) or threaten them with serious bodily injury (Class I).

Other sections of the General Statutes currently cover assaults on probation and parole officers, either by specific reference or in that they apply to assaults on any person. In at least two instances, the penalties under other statutes are higher than those proposed under the bill. For reference, attached is a table of relevant statutes that would cover various types of assaults on probation and parole officers.

Only one other statute found addresses threats. GS 14-277.1 (Communicating threats) makes it a Class 1 misdemeanor to threaten to physically injure another or their child, sibling, spouse, or dependent, or to threaten damage to another's property if that threat is communicated to the other person and the person believes that the threat will be carried out.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The bill would become effective December 1, 2009, and apply to offenses committed on or after that date.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO PROVIDE THAT A PERSON REQUIRED TO SUBMIT TO A CONTROLLED SUBSTANCE EXAMINATION WHOSE FIRST SCREENING TEST PRODUCES A POSITIVE RESULT MAY WAIVE A SECOND EXAMINATION THAT IS INTENDED TO CONFIRM THE RESULTS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 95-232(c1) reads as rewritten:

"(c1) Confirmation test of samples: if a preliminary screening procedure or other screening test produces a positive result, an approved laboratory shall confirm that result by a second examination of the sample utilizing gas chromatography with mass spectrometry or an equivalent scientifically accepted ~~method.~~method, unless a second examination is waived by the examinee."

SECTION 2. This act is effective when it becomes law.

SENATE BILL 643:
Amend Drug Exam Regulation

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	May 5, 2009
Introduced by:	Sen. Swindell	Prepared by:	Jennifer McGinnis Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	First Edition

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 643 would amend the statutes that govern employers' testing of employees for controlled substances, to allow an examinee whose first test shows a positive result to waive the second confirmation test required by current law.

CURRENT LAW: The stated purpose of Article 20 (Controlled Substance Examination) of Chapter 95 (Labor Regulations) is to "establish procedural and other requirements for the administration of controlled substance examinations" by businesses in the State (including the State and local governments) to employees or applicants for employment.

Under current law, if a screening procedure or test produces a positive result, an approved laboratory must confirm the result by a second examination utilizing gas chromatography with mass spectrometry or an equivalent scientifically accepted method.

BILL ANALYSIS: The bill would allow an examinee whose first test shows a positive result to waive the second confirmation test required by current law.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act is effective when it becomes law.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT AMENDING THE POLICY OF NORTH CAROLINA REGARDING THE PROTECTION OF CHILDREN'S WELFARE UNDER THE LAWS PERTAINING TO CHILD PLACING AND CARE.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 131D-10.1 reads as rewritten:

"§ 131D-10.1. Purpose.

It is the policy of this State to strengthen and preserve the family as a ~~unit.~~unit consistent with a high priority of protecting children's welfare. When a child requires care outside the family unit, it is the duty of the State to assure that the quality of substitute care is as close as possible to the care and nurturing that society expects of a family. However, the State recognizes there are instances when protecting a child's welfare outweighs reunifying the family unit, and as such, the care of children in primarily educational institutions or residential education programs satisfies the standard of protecting a child's welfare, regardless of the child's age, particularly when the sibling groups can be kept in tact.

The purpose of this Article is to assign the authority to protect the health, safety and well-being of children separated from or being cared for away from their families."

SECTION 2. The Division of Social Services of the Department of Health and Human Services shall revise its rules to reflect the policy changes under G.S. 131D-10.1, as enacted in Section 1 of this act.

SECTION 3. This act is effective when it becomes law.

Amend Purpose/Child Placing/Child Care Laws

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	May 4, 2009
Introduced by:	Sen. Queen	Prepared by:	Brenda J. Carter Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition S969-CSRV-30

SUMMARY: This proposed committee substitute for Senate Bill 969 would amend the policy statement for North Carolina laws governing child placing and child care, and direct the Division of Social Services of the Department of Health and Human Services to revise its rules to reflect the revised policy statement.

CURRENT LAW: Article 1A of Chapter 131D of the General Statutes makes the Department of Health and Human Services responsible for investigating and licensing persons who provide foster care for children or receive and place children in residential group care, family foster homes, or adoptive homes. G.S. 131D-10.1 states that it is the policy of the State to strengthen and preserve the family as a unit, and that when a child requires care outside the family unit it is the duty of the State to assure that the quality of substitute care is as close as possible to the care and nurturing that society expects of a family.

BILL ANALYSIS: This proposed committee substitute for Senate Bill 969 would amend the policy statement for North Carolina laws governing child placing and child care, and direct the Division of Social Services of the Department of Health and Human Services to revise its rules to reflect the revised policy statement. The revised policy statement notes the high priority of protecting children's welfare, and notes that residential care facilities can satisfy the standard of protecting a child's welfare, regardless of the child's age, particularly when sibling groups can be kept intact.

SENATE BILL 1007*

Short Title:	Amend Home Inspector Licensure Laws.	(Public)
Sponsors:	Senators Hoyle and Vaughan.
Referred to:	Judiciary II.

March 26, 2009

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT AMENDING THE LAWS UNDER THE NORTH CAROLINA HOME INSPECTOR LICENSURE ACT.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 143-151.51 reads as rewritten:

"§ 143-151.51. Requirements to be licensed as a home inspector.

(a) To be licensed as a home inspector, an applicant must do all of the following:

(1) Submit a completed application to the Board upon a form provided by the Board.

(2) Pass a licensing examination prescribed by the Board.

(3) Have minimum net assets or a bond in an amount determined by the Board. The amount may not be less than five thousand dollars ($5,000) nor more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000).

(4) Pay the applicable fees.

(5) Meet one of the following three conditions:

a. Have a high school diploma or its equivalent, have been engaged as a licensed associate home inspector for at least one year, and have completed 100 home inspections for compensation.

b. Have education and experience the Board considers to be equivalent to that required by ~~subpart~~ sub-subdivision a. of this subdivision.

c. Be licensed as a general contractor under Article 1 of Chapter 87 of the General Statutes, as an architect under Chapter 83A of the General Statutes, or as a professional engineer under Chapter 89C of the General Statutes.

(5a) Effective October 1, 2011, meet one of the following conditions:

a. Have satisfactorily completed an approved pre-licensing education program consisting of no more than 200 hours of instruction in subjects determined by the Board at least three years before the date the application is made. The instruction may include requirements of field training, classroom instruction, distance learning, peer review, or other educational formats approved by the Board.

b. Have education and experience the Board considers to be equivalent to the requirements of sub-subdivision a. of this subdivision.

c. Be licensed as a general contractor under Article 1 of Chapter 87 of the General Statutes, an architect under Chapter 83A of the General Statutes, or a professional engineer under Chapter 89C of the General Statutes. A person qualifying under this sub-subdivision shall remain in good standing with the person's respective licensing board.

(b) When an applicant has satisfactorily completed the requirements in subsection (a) of this section, the Board shall notify the applicant and the applicant shall submit evidence to the Board that the applicant has the following:

(1) General liability insurance in the amount of two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000), which insurance may be individual coverage or coverage under an employer policy, with coverage parameters established by the Board; and

(2) One of the following:

a. Minimum net assets in an amount determined by the Board, which amount may not be less than seventeen thousand five hundred dollars ($17,500) nor more than thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000);

b. A bond in an amount determined by the Board, which amount may not be less than seventeen thousand five hundred dollars ($17,500) nor more than thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000); or

c. Errors and omissions insurance in the amount of two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000), which insurance may be individual coverage or coverage under an employer policy, with coverage parameters established by the Board.

Upon determining that an applicant has satisfied the requirements of this subsection, the Board shall issue a home inspector license to the applicant.

(c) All home inspectors licensed on or before September 30, 2011, shall, no later than October 1, 2013, complete an abbreviated licensing education program prescribed by the Board of not less than 50 educational hours of instruction and not more than 75 educational hours of instruction. The instruction may include requirements of field training, classroom instruction, distance learning, peer review, or other educational formats approved by the Board. A home inspector licensed before October 1, 2006, shall not be required to complete the abbreviated licensing education program required by this subsection if the home inspector submits to the Board a request to waive the abbreviated licensing education program requirement and an affidavit stating that the home inspector has completed at least 750 home inspections that meet the standards of practice guidelines of two or more systems. The Board may require each licensed home inspector submitting a request for waiver and an affidavit to submit up to three inspection reports for the Board's random review. Upon reviewing the inspection reports, the Board may request further inspection reports or information from the home inspector or require the home inspector to complete the abbreviated licensing education program. The Board shall either approve or deny a request for waiver within 120 days from the date the request and the affidavit are submitted unless the Board requests that a home inspector submit three inspection reports for review or further information regarding the request.

(d) All associate licensed home inspectors with an active license on October 1, 2011, shall do one of the following:

(1) No later than September 30, 2013, complete the associate licensure program and the abbreviated licensing education program prescribed by the Board under subsection (c) of this section.

(2) Enroll in the new licensing program prescribed by the Board pursuant to subsection (a)(5a) of this section.

Upon completing one of the options under subdivisions (1) or (2) of this subsection, the Board shall terminate the associate status of the associate home inspector's license and the associate home inspector shall be issued a home inspector license. If an associate home inspector fails to complete the requirements of this subsection before October 1, 2013, the Board shall cancel the associate home inspector's license."

SECTION 2. G.S. 143-151.54 reads as rewritten:

"§ 143-151.54. Miscellaneous license provisions.

(a) License as Property of the Board and Display of License. – A license issued by the Board is the property of the Board. If the Board suspends or revokes a license issued by it, the individual to whom it is issued must give it to the Board upon demand. An individual who is licensed by the Board must display the license certificate in the manner prescribed by the Board. A license holder whose address changes must report the change to the Board.

(b) Report Criminal Convictions and Disciplinary Actions. – A license holder who is convicted of any felony or misdemeanor or is disciplined by any governmental agency in connection with any other occupational or professional license shall file with the Board a written report of the conviction or disciplinary action within 60 days of the final judgment, order, or disposition of the case."

SECTION 3. G.S. 143-151.55 reads as rewritten:

"§ 143-151.55. Renewal of license; inactive licenses; lapsed licenses.

(a) Renewal. – A license expires on September 30 of each year. A license may be renewed by filing an application for renewal with the Board and paying the required renewal fee. The Board must notify license holders at least 30 days before their licenses expire. The Board must renew the license of a person who files an application for renewal, pays the required renewal fee, has fulfilled the continuing education requirements set by the Board, and is not in violation of this Article when the application is filed. If the Board imposes a continuing education requirement as a condition of renewing a license, the Board must ensure that the courses needed to fulfill the requirement are available in all geographic areas of the State.

(b) Late Renewal. – The Board may provide for the late renewal of a license upon the payment of a late fee, but no late renewal of a license may be granted more than ~~five years~~one year after the license expires.

(c) Inactive License. – A license holder may apply to the Board to be placed on inactive status. An applicant for inactive status must follow the procedure set by the Board. A license holder who is granted inactive status is not subject to the license renewal requirements during the period the license holder remains on inactive status.

A license holder whose application is granted and is placed on inactive status may apply to the Board to be reinstated to active status at any time. To change a license from inactive status to active status, the license holder must complete the same number of continuing education credit hours that would have been required of the license holder had the license holder maintained an active license. The number of continuing education credit hours required to return an inactive license to active status shall not exceed 24 credit hours. The Board may set conditions for reinstatement to active status. An individual who is on inactive status and applies to be reinstated to active status must comply with the conditions set by the Board.

(d) Lapsed License. – The license of a licensed home inspector shall lapse if the licensee fails to continuously maintain minimum net assets or a bond as required by G.S. 143-151.58. The license of a licensed associate home inspector shall lapse if the licensee fails to continuously be employed by or affiliated with a licensed home inspector as required by G.S. 143-151.58."

SECTION 4. G.S. 143-151.56(a) is amended by adding the following new subdivision to read:

"(a) The Board may deny or refuse to issue or renew a license, may suspend or revoke a license, or may impose probationary conditions on a license if the license holder or applicant for licensure has engaged in any of the following conduct:

...

(8) Failed to maintain the requirements prescribed by G.S. 143-151.51(b)."

SECTION 5. G.S. 143-151.57(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Subsequent Application. – An individual who applied for a license as a home inspector and who failed the home inspector examination is not required to pay an additional application fee if the individual submits another application for a license as a home inspector. The individual must pay the examination fee, however, to be eligible to take the examination again. An individual may take the examination only once every 180 days."

SECTION 6. G.S. 143-151.58 reads as rewritten:

"§ 143-151.58. Duties of licensed home inspector or licensed associate home inspector.

(a) Home Inspection Report. – A licensed home inspector or licensed associate home inspector must give to each person for whom the inspector performs a home inspection for compensation a written report of the home inspection. The inspector must give the person the report by the date set in a written agreement by the parties to the home inspection. If the parties to the home inspection did not agree on a date in a written agreement, the inspector must give the person the report within three business days after the inspection was performed.

(a1) Summary Page. – A licensed home inspector or licensed associate home inspector must provide a summary page with each written report of the home inspection for each prepurchase home inspection of three or more systems. The summary page must describe any system or component of the home that does not function as intended, warrants further investigation by a specialist, or requires subsequent observation. The summary page may also describe any system or component that poses a safety concern. All other subject matter pertaining to the home inspection must appear in the body of the report. The summary page must contain the following statement: 'This summary page is not the entire report. The complete report may include additional information of interest or concern to you. It is strongly recommended that you promptly read the complete report. For information regarding the negotiability of any item in this report under the real estate purchase contract, contact your North Carolina real estate agent or an attorney.'

(a2) North Carolina State Building Code. – If a licensed home inspector or licensed associate home inspector includes a deficiency in the written report of the home inspection that is stated as a violation of the North Carolina State Residential Building Code, the home inspector or associate home inspector is responsible for determining the construction dates of the home, State, and municipal building codes in effect at the time of construction and must conduct the home inspection using the building codes in effect at the time of the construction.

(b) Insurance, Net Assets, and Bond ~~Required.~~Requirements. – A licensed home inspector must continuously maintain general liability insurance and minimum net ~~assets or~~ assets, a ~~bond~~ bond, or errors and omissions insurance as required in G.S. ~~143-151.51(3).~~143-151.51(b).

(c) Supervision. – A licensed associate home inspector must be continuously employed by or affiliated with a licensed home inspector as required in G.S. 143-151.52(5).

(d) Record Keeping. – All licensees under this Article shall make and keep full and accurate records of business done under their licenses. Records shall include the written, signed contract and the written report required by the standards of practice referred to in G.S. 143-151.49(a)(2) and any other information the Board requires by rule. Records shall be retained by licensees for not less than three years. Licensees shall furnish their records to the Board on demand."

SECTION 7. G.S. 143-151.64(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) Requirements. – The Board may establish programs of continuing education for licensees under this Article. A licensee subject to a program under this section shall present evidence to the Board upon the license renewal following initial licensure, and every renewal thereafter, that during the 12 months preceding the annual license expiration date the licensee has completed the required number of classroom hours of instruction in courses approved by the Board. Annual continuing education hour requirements shall be determined by the Board, but shall ~~not~~ be ~~more than~~no less than 12 credit ~~hours.~~hours and no more than 20 credit hours.

No member of the Board shall provide or sponsor a continuing education course under this section while that person is serving on the Board."

SECTION 8. Effective September 30, 2011, the Board shall not issue associate home inspector licenses. The Board shall not accept any applications for licensure as an associate home inspector after April 1, 2011.

SECTION 9. G.S. 143-151.51(a)(3) and (5) are repealed effective September 30, 2011.

SECTION 10. G.S. 143-151.52 is repealed effective September 30, 2013.

SECTION 11. Sections 2, 3, and 7 of this act become effective September 1, 2009. Sections 4 and 6 of this act become effective October 1, 2011. The remainder of this act is effective when it becomes law.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT AMENDING THE LAWS UNDER THE NORTH CAROLINA HOME INSPECTOR LICENSURE ACT.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 143-151.51 reads as rewritten:

"§ 143-151.51. Requirements to be licensed as a home inspector.

(a) To be licensed as a home inspector, an applicant must do all of the following:

(1) Submit a completed application to the Board upon a form provided by the Board.

(2) Pass a licensing examination prescribed by the Board.

(3) Have minimum net assets or a bond in an amount determined by the Board. The amount may not be less than five thousand dollars ($5,000) nor more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000).

(4) Pay the applicable fees.

(5) Meet one of the following three conditions:

a. Have a high school diploma or its equivalent, have been engaged as a licensed associate home inspector for at least one year, and have completed 100 home inspections for compensation.

b. Have education and experience the Board considers to be equivalent to that required by ~~subpart~~ sub-subdivision a. of this subdivision.

c. Be licensed as a general contractor under Article 1 of Chapter 87 of the General Statutes, as an architect under Chapter 83A of the General Statutes, or as a professional engineer under Chapter 89C of the General Statutes.

(b) All home inspectors licensed on or before September 30, 2011, shall, no later than October 1, 2013, complete an abbreviated licensing education program prescribed by the Board of not less than 50 educational hours of instruction and not more than 75 educational hours of instruction. The instruction may include requirements of field training, classroom instruction, distance learning, peer review, or other educational formats approved by the Board. A home inspector licensed before October 1, 2006, shall not be required to complete the abbreviated licensing education program required by this subsection if the home inspector submits to the Board a request to waive the abbreviated licensing education program requirement and an affidavit stating that the home inspector has completed at least 750 home inspections that meet the standards of practice guidelines of two or more systems. The Board may require each licensed home inspector submitting a request for waiver and an affidavit to submit up to three inspection reports for the Board's random review. Upon reviewing the inspection reports, the Board may request further inspection reports or information from the home inspector or require the home inspector to complete the abbreviated licensing education program. The Board shall either approve or deny a request for waiver within 120 days from the date the request and the affidavit are submitted unless the Board requests that a home inspector submit three inspection reports for review or further information regarding the request."

SECTION 1.1. Effective September 30, 2011, G.S. 143-151.49(b) is repealed.

SECTION 1.2. Effective September 30, 2001, G.S. 151.51(a)(5), as amended by Section 1 of this act reads as rewritten:

"(a) To be licensed as a home inspector, an applicant must do all of the following:

(5) Meet one of the following three conditions:

a. ~~Have a high school diploma or its equivalent, have been engaged as a licensed associate home inspector for at least one year, and have completed 100 home inspections for compensation.~~ Have satisfactorily completed an approved pre-licensing education program consisting of no more than 200 hours of instruction in subjects determined by the Board at least three years before the date the application is made. c. Be licensed for at least six months as a general contractor under Article 1 of Chapter 87 of the General Statutes, as an architect under Chapter 83A of the General Statutes, or as a professional engineer under Chapter 89C of the General Statutes."

(c) All licensed associate home inspectors with an active license on October 1, 2011, shall no later than September 30, 2013, do one of the following:

(1) Successfully complete the associate licensure program and the abbreviated licensing education program prescribed by the Board under subsection (b) of this section.

(2) Successfully complete the licensing program prescribed by the Board pursuant to sub-subdivision (a)(5)a. of this section.

Upon completing one of the options under subdivisions (1) or (2) of this subsection, the Board shall terminate the associate status of the associate home inspector's license and the associate home inspector shall be issued a home inspector license. If an associate home inspector fails to complete the requirements of this subsection before October 1, 2013, the Board shall cancel the associate home inspector's license."

SECTION 1.3. Effective September 30, 2011, G.S. 143-151.51(a)(3) is repealed.

SECTION 1.4. Effective September 30, 2011, G.S. 143-151.51 is amended by adding two new subsections to read:

". . .

(a1) When an applicant has satisfactorily completed the requirements in subsection (a) of this section, the Board shall notify the applicant and the applicant shall submit evidence to the Board that the applicant has the following:

(1) General liability insurance in the amount of two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000), which insurance may be individual coverage or coverage under an employer policy, with coverage parameters established by the Board; and

(2) One of the following:

a. Minimum net assets in an amount determined by the Board, which amount may not be less than seventeen thousand five hundred dollars ($17,500) nor more than thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000);

b. A bond in an amount determined by the Board, which amount may not be less than seventeen thousand five hundred dollars ($17,500) nor more than thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000); or

c. Errors and omissions insurance in the amount of two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000), which insurance may be individual coverage or coverage under an employer policy, with coverage parameters established by the Board.

Upon determining that an applicant has satisfied the requirements of this subsection, the Board shall issue a home inspector license to the applicant.

(c) All associate licensed home inspectors with an active license on October 1, 2011, shall do one of the following:

Upon completing one of the options under subdivisions (1) or (2) of this subsection, the Board shall terminate the associate status of the associate home inspector's license and the associate home inspector shall be issued a home inspector license. If an associate home inspector fails to complete the requirements of this subsection before October 1, 2013, the Board shall cancel the associate home inspector's license."

SECTION 1.5. Effective September 30, 2011, the Board shall not issue associate home inspector licenses. The Board shall not accept any applications for licensure as an associate home inspector after April 1, 2011.

SECTION 2. G.S. 143-151.54 reads as rewritten:

"§ 143-151.54. Miscellaneous license provisions.

(a) License as Property of the Board and Display of License. – A license issued by the Board is the property of the Board. If the Board suspends or revokes a license issued by it, the individual to whom it is issued must give it to the Board upon demand. An individual who is licensed by the Board must display the license certificate in the manner prescribed by the Board. A license holder whose address changes must report the change to the Board.

(b) Report Criminal Convictions and Disciplinary Actions. – A license holder who is convicted of any felony or misdemeanor or is disciplined by any governmental agency in connection with any other occupational or professional license shall file with the Board a written report of the conviction or disciplinary action within 60 days of the final judgment, order, or disposition of the case."

SECTION 3. G.S. 143-151.55(b) and (c) read as rewritten:

"...

(b) Late Renewal. – The Board may provide for the late renewal of a license upon the payment of a late fee, but no late renewal of a license may be granted more than ~~five years~~one year after the license expires.

(c) Inactive License. – A license holder may apply to the Board to be placed on inactive status. An applicant for inactive status must follow the procedure set by the Board. A license holder who is granted inactive status is not subject to the license renewal requirements during the period the license holder remains on inactive status.

A license holder whose application is granted and is placed on inactive status may apply to the Board to be reinstated to active status at any time. To change a license from inactive status to active status, the license holder must complete the same number of continuing education credit hours that would have been required of the license holder had the license holder maintained an active license. The number of continuing education credit hours required to return an inactive license to active status shall not exceed 24 credit hours. The Board may set conditions for reinstatement to active status. An individual who is on inactive status and applies to be reinstated to active status must comply with the conditions set by the Board.

. . ."

SECTION 3.1. Effective September 30, 2011, G.S. 143-151.55(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) Lapsed License. – The license of a licensed home inspector shall lapse if the licensee fails to continuously maintain ~~minimum net assets or a bond as required by G.S. 143-151.58~~the requirements provided in G.S. 143-151.58(b). The license of a licensed associate home inspector shall lapse if the licensee fails to continuously be employed by or affiliated with a licensed home inspector as required by G.S. 143-151.58."

SECTION 4. Effective September 30, 2011, G.S. 143-151.56(a) is amended by adding the following new subdivision to read:

"(a) The Board may deny or refuse to issue or renew a license, may suspend or revoke a license, or may impose probationary conditions on a license if the license holder or applicant for licensure has engaged in any of the following conduct:

...

(8) Failed to maintain the requirements prescribed by G.S. 143-151.51(b)."

SECTION 5. G.S. 143-151.57(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Subsequent Application. – An individual who applied for a license as a home inspector and who failed the home inspector examination is not required to pay an additional application fee if the individual submits another application for a license as a home inspector. The individual must pay the examination fee, however, to be eligible to take the examination again. An individual may take the examination only once every 180 days."

SECTION 6. G.S. 143-151.58 is amended by adding two new subsections to read:

"(a1) Summary Page. – A licensed home inspector or licensed associate home inspector must provide a summary page with each written report of the home inspection for each prepurchase home inspection of three or more systems. The summary page must describe any system or component of the home that does not function as intended, allowing for normal wear and tear. The summary page may describe any system or component that, based upon documented visible evidence, either requires subsequent examination because the system or component appears to not function as intended or that requires further investigation by a specialist.. The summary page may also describe any system or component that poses a safety concern. All other subject matter pertaining to the home inspection must appear in the body of the report. The summary page must contain the following statement: 'This summary page is not the entire report. The complete report may include additional information of interest or concern to you. It is strongly recommended that you promptly read the complete report. For information regarding the negotiability of any item in this report under the real estate purchase contract, contact your North Carolina real estate agent or an attorney.'

(a2) North Carolina State Building Code. – If a licensed home inspector or licensed associate home inspector includes a deficiency in the written report of the home inspection that is stated as a violation of the North Carolina State Residential Building Code, the home inspector or associate home inspector is responsible for determining the construction dates of the home, State, and municipal building codes in effect at the time of construction and must conduct the home inspection using the building codes in effect at the time of the construction."

SECTION 6.1. G.S. 143-151.58(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) Record Keeping. – All licensees under this Article shall make and keep full and accurate records of business done under their licenses. Records shall include the written, signed contract and the written report required by subsection (a) of this section and the standards of practice referred to in G.S. 143-151.49(a)(2) and any other information the Board requires by rule. Records shall be retained by licensees for not less than three years. Licensees shall furnish their records to the Board on demand."

SECTION 6.2. Effective September 30, 2011, G.S. 143-151.58(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Insurance, Net Assets, and Bond ~~Required.~~Requirements. – A licensed home inspector must continuously maintain general liability insurance and minimum net ~~assets or~~ assets, a ~~bond~~ bond, or errors and omissions insurance as required in G.S. ~~143-151.51(3).~~143-151.51(b)."

SECTION 7. G.S. 143-151.64(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) Requirements. – The Board may establish programs of continuing education for licensees under this Article. A licensee subject to a program under this section shall present evidence to the Board upon the license renewal following initial licensure, and every renewal thereafter, that during the 12 months preceding the annual license expiration date the licensee has completed the required number of classroom hours of instruction in courses approved by the Board. Annual continuing education hour requirements shall be determined by the Board, but shall ~~not~~ be ~~more than~~no less than 12 credit ~~hours.~~hours and no more than 20 credit hours. No member of the Board shall provide or sponsor a continuing education course under this section while that person is serving on the Board."

SECTION 8. G.S. 143-151.50(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) Requirement. – To perform a home inspection for compensation ~~on or after October 1, 1996,~~ or to claim to be a licensed home inspector or a licensed associate home ~~inspector on or after that date,~~ inspector, an individual must be licensed by the Board. An individual who is not licensed by the Board may perform a home inspection without compensation."

SECTION 9. Effective September 30, 2013, G.S. 143-151.45(1), G.S. 143-151.52, G.S. 143-151.58(c) and G.S. 143-151.61 are repealed.

SECTION 10. Effective September 30, 2013, G.S. 143-151.50, as amended by Section 8of this Act reads as rewritten:

"§ 143-151.50. License required to perform home inspections for compensation or to claim to be a "licensed home inspector".

(a) Requirement. – To perform a home inspection for compensation or to claim to be a licensed home ~~inspector or a licensed associate home~~ inspector, an individual must be licensed by the Board. An individual who is not licensed by the Board may perform a home inspection without compensation.

(b) Form of License. – The Board may issue a license only to an individual and may not issue a license to a partnership, an association, a corporation, a firm, or another group. A licensed home ~~inspector or licensed associate home~~ inspector, however, may perform home inspections for or on behalf of a partnership, an association, a corporation, a firm, or another group, may conduct business as one of these entities, and may enter into and enforce contracts as one of these entities."

SECTION 11. Effective September 30, 2013, G.S. 143-151.55(d), as amended by Section 3.1 of this Act reads as rewritten:

"(d) Lapsed License. – The license of a licensed home inspector shall lapse if the licensee fails to continuously maintain the requirements provided in G.S. 143-151.58(b). ~~The~~ ~~license of a licensed associate home inspector shall lapse if the licensee fails to continuously be employed by or affiliated with a licensed home inspector as required by G.S. 143-151.58.~~"

SECTION 12. Effective September 30, 2013, G.S. 143-151.57(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) Maximum Fees. – The Board may adopt fees that do not exceed the amounts set in the following table for administering this Article:

Item	Maximum Fee
Application for home inspector license	$25.00
~~Application for associate home inspector~~	~~15.00~~
Home inspector examination	75.00
Issuance of home inspector license	150.00
~~Issuance of associate home inspector license~~	~~100.00~~
Late renewal of home inspector license	25.00
~~Late renewal of associate home inspector license~~	~~15.00~~
Application for course approval	150.00
Renewal of course approval	75.00
Course fee, per credit hour per license	5.00
Credit for unapproved continuing education course	50.00
Copies of Board rules or licensure standards	Cost of printing and mailing."

SECTION 13. Effective September 30, 2013, G.S. 143-151.58(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) Home Inspection Report. – A licensed home inspector ~~or licensed associate home inspector~~ must give to each person for whom the inspector performs a home inspection for compensation a written report of the home inspection. The inspector must give the person the report by the date set in a written agreement by the parties to the home inspection. If the parties to the home inspection did not agree on a date in a written agreement, the inspector must give the person the report within three business days after the inspection was performed."

SECTION 14. Sections 1, 2, 3, 6, 6.1, 7 and 8 of this act become effective October 1, 2009. Except as otherwise provided, the remainder of this act is effective when it becomes law.

SENATE BILL 1007:
Amend Home Inspector Licensure Laws

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	May 4, 2009
Introduced by:	Sen. Hoyle	Prepared by:	Kory Goldsmith Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition S1007-CSRCf-22

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 1007 amends the laws related to the licensing of home inspectors to require a pre-licensing education requirement, insurance requirements, and phases-out the licensure category of "associate" home inspector. It also clarifies what information is to be included on the Summary page of a home inspection, requires home inspectors to self-report criminal or other disciplinary actions and increases from 12 to 20 hours of continuing education.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 amends G.S. 143-151.51 to require home inspectors licensed between October 1, 2006, and September 30, 2011, to complete an abbreviated licensing education program of not less than 50, but not more than 75 hours of instruction as determined by the licensing board. These inspectors must complete this requirement no later than October 1, 2013. Inspectors licensed prior to October 1, 2006, are not required to complete the educational program if they submit a request to waive the requirement and provide an affidavit showing the inspector has conducted at least 750 home inspections that meet certain standard of practice guidelines. The Board may require the inspector submit up to three inspection reports for review. The Board has 120 days to approve or deny the request for a waiver. These provisions become effective September 30, 2011.

Section 1.1 repeals a provision related to the contents of the licensure exam that requires an emphasis on knowledge gained through experience. This provision becomes effective September 30, 2011.

Section 1.2 also amends G.S. 143-151.51 to require pre-licensing educational requirements, to require that a person who qualifies to take the licensing exam because they have a general contractor's, architect's or professional engineer's license to wait at least 6 months after receiving that license before taking the home inspector license exam. Currently, there are no pre-licensing educational requirements and person's with licenses in other fields are eligible to take the exam without any experience requirements.

This section also phases-out the associate home inspector license. Persons holding an active associate home inspector license on October 1, 2011 will have until September 30, 2013 to become a licensed home inspector.

These provisions become effective September 30, 2011.

Section 1.4 creates new requirements regarding a home inspector's ability to pay claims. Beginning September 30, 2011, an inspector must carry general liability insurance of at least $250,000 and one of the following: minimum net assets as determined by the Board, but not less than $17,500 and not more than $35,000; have a bond in a similar amount; or carry errors and omissions insurance in the amount of $250,000. Section 1.3 repeals a previous requirement that the inspector have a net worth of between $5,000 and $10,000. These provisions become effective September 30, 2011.

Section 1.5 prohibits the Board from issuing Associate home inspector licenses after September 30, 2011 and from admitting individuals into the associate program after April 1, 2011.

Section 2 requires home inspectors to report to the Board if the inspector is convicted of any felony or a crime of moral turpitude, or if the member is disciplined by another licensing board.

Section 3 reduces from 5 years to 1 year the amount of time that a license may be renewed as a late renewal. It also requires a member to take a certain number of continuing education hours in order to change a license from inactive to active status.

Section 3.1 requires that an inspector must complete the abbreviated education requirements or apply for a waiver in order to change a license from inactive to active status. This provision becomes effective September 30, 2011.

Section 4 makes failure to meet the abbreviated education or waiver requirements grounds for the Board to suspend or revoke a license. This provision becomes effective when the education and waiver requirements become effective.

Section 5 provides that an individual who fails to pass the licensure exam must wait at least 180 before retaking the exam.

Section 6 provides what information must be included in the Summary page of a home inspection. The information in the page would be limited to items that do not function as intended, warrant further investigation by a specialist, or does not function as intended taking into account normal wear and tear. The Summary page may contain a description of any system or component that poses a safety concern. An inspector may include a code deficiency in the report, but must determine the construction date of the home and the applicable code requirement when the home was built.

Section Sections 6.1 and 6.2 contain conforming amendments related to record-keeping and financial responsibility.

Section 7 increases the number of continuing education hours from 12 to 20.

Section 8 removes some obsolete dates.

Sections 9 – 13 remove statutory references to associate home inspectors.

EFFECTIVE DATE: Except as otherwise provided, the requirements become effective October 1, 2009.

SENATE BILL 1062:
Strengthen Dom. Vio. Protective Orders/Pets

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	May 5, 2009
Introduced by:	Senator Boseman	Prepared by:	Jeff Hudson Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	First Edition

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 1062 would provide that a domestic violence protective order may include provisions to ensure the proper care and treatment of pets owned by the parties subject to the order.

CURRENT LAW: Under current law, if a court finds that an act of domestic violence has occurred, the court may grant a protective order restraining the defendant from further acts of domestic violence. The protective order may include any of the following types of relief:

- Direct a party to refrain from such acts.
- Exclude party from the residence or household.
- Require a party to provide a spouse and his or her children suitable alternate housing.
- Award temporary custody of minor children and establish temporary visitation.
- Order the eviction of a party from the residence or household.
- Order either party to make payments for the support of a minor child.
- Order either party to make payments for the support of a spouse.
- Provide for possession of personal property of the parties.
- Order a party to refrain from doing any or all of the following:
    - Threatening, abusing, or following the other party.
    - Harassing the other party.
    - Otherwise interfering with the other party.
- Award attorney's fees to either party.
- Prohibit a party from purchasing a firearm for a time fixed in the order.
- Order a party to attend and complete an abuser treatment program.
- Include any additional prohibitions or requirements the court deems necessary to protect any party or any minor child.

BILL ANALYSIS: Under Senate Bill 1062, a domestic violence protection order could also:

- Provide for the care, custody, and control of any animal owned, possessed, kept, or held as a pet by either party or minor child residing in the household.
- Direct a party to refrain from the cruel treatment or abuse of an animal owned, possessed, kept, or held as a pet by either party or minor child residing in the household.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act would become effective when it becomes law.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO MODIFY THE CRIMINAL JUSTICE PARTNERSHIP PROGRAM TO ALLOW COMMUNITY-LEVEL OFFENDERS TO BE SERVED BY THE PROGRAM.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 143B-273.4 reads as rewritten:

"§ 143B-273.4. Eligible population.

(a) An eligible offender is an adult offender who was convicted of a misdemeanor or a felony offense and received a nonincarcerative sentence of a community punishment or an intermediate punishment or is serving a term of parole or post-release supervision after serving an active sentence of imprisonment.

(b) The priority populations for programs funded under this Article shall be offenders sentenced to intermediate punishments."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective July 1, 2009.

SENATE BILL 1076:
Modify Crim. Justice Partnership Program

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	May 4, 2009
Introduced by:	Sen. Snow	Prepared by:	Brenda J. Carter
Analysis of:	First Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 1076 would amend the law concerning the Criminal Justice Partnership Program to make offenders sentenced to a community punishment eligible for the program.

CURRENT LAW: The Criminal Justice Partnership Program is a State-County partnership intended to provide supplemental community-based corrections programs which expand sentencing options by adding community-based corrections programs for offenders receiving a non-incarcerative sentence, and which appropriately punish criminal behavior and provide effective rehabilitative services. The goals of the community-based programs include the following:

- To reduce recidivism;
- To reduce the number of probation revocations;
- To reduce alcoholism and other drug dependencies among offenders; and
- To reduce the cost to the State and the counties of incarceration.

An offender is eligible for the program if he or she is sentenced to an intermediate punishment or is serving a term of parole or post-release supervision after serving an active sentence of imprisonment.

BILL ANALYSIS: Senate Bill 1076 would amend the law concerning the Criminal Justice Partnership Program to make offenders sentenced to a community punishment eligible for the program. Community punishments include such things as supervised or unsupervised probation, outpatient drug/alcohol treatment, community service, restitution, and fines. Most misdemeanors and some Class H and Class I felonies are subject to community punishment.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The bill would become effective July 1, 2009.

Referred to:	Judiciary II.

March 31, 2009

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO EXPAND THE AUTHORITY DELEGATED TO PROBATION OFFICERS IN ORDER TO MAKE INTERMEDIATE SANCTIONS AVAILABLE FOR AN OFFENDER SENTENCED TO COMMUNITY PUNISHMENT IF THE RISK ASSESSMENT JUSTIFIES THOSE SANCTIONS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 15A-1343.2(e) reads as rewritten:

"(e) Delegation to Probation Officer in Community Punishment. – Unless the presiding judge specifically finds in the judgment of the court that delegation is not appropriate, the Division of Community Corrections in the Department of Correction may require an offender sentenced to community punishment to:

(1) Perform up to 20 hours of community service, and pay the fee prescribed by law for this supervision;

(2) Report to the offender's probation officer on a frequency to be determined by the officer; or

(3) Submit to substance abuse assessment, monitoring or ~~treatment.~~treatment, or to any of the conditions listed in G.S. 15A-1340.11(6).

If the Division imposes any of the above requirements, then it may subsequently reduce or remove those same requirements.

If the probation officer exercises authority delegated by the court pursuant to this subsection, the offender may file a motion with the court to review the action taken by the probation officer. The offender shall be given notice of the right to seek such a court review. The Division may exercise any authority delegated to it under this subsection only if it first determines that the offender has failed to comply with one or more of the conditions of probation imposed by the court."

SECTION 2. G.S. 15A-1340.11(2) reads as rewritten:

"(2) Community punishment. – A sentence in a criminal case that does not include an active punishment, an intermediate punishment, or any of the conditions of probation listed in subdivision (6) of this ~~section.~~ section, except to the extent that the court has delegated authority to a probation officer to include those conditions pursuant to G.S. 15A-1343.2(e)."

SECTION 3. This act becomes effective July 1, 2009.

SENATE BILL 1077:
Expand Parole Officers' Delegated Authority

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	May 4, 2009
Introduced by:	Sen. Snow	Prepared by:	Brenda J. Carter Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	First Edition

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 1077 would amend the law concerning offenders sentenced to community punishment to allow the Division of Community Corrections in the Department of Correction to require offenders who fail to comply with one or more of the conditions of probation imposed by the court to submit to conditions of probation that would normally be incident to intermediate punishment.

CURRENT LAW: Special probation rules for persons sentenced under structured sentencing are set out in G.S. 15A-1343.2. The Division of Community Corrections in the Department of Correction may require an offender sentenced to community punishment to perform up to 20 hours of community service and pay the fee for supervision, to report to the offender's probation officer as required, and to submit to substance abuse assessment, monitoring or treatment.

BILL ANALYSIS: Section 1 of the bill would amend the law concerning offenders sentenced to community punishment to allow the Division of Community Corrections in the Department of Correction to require offenders who fail to comply with one or more of the conditions of probation imposed by the court to submit to special probation, assignment to a residential program, house arrest with electronic monitoring, intensive probation, or assignment to a day reporting center or a drug treatment court program. Section 2 of the bill would amend the definition of "community punishment" to allow for imposing conditions of probation that would normally be incident to intermediate punishment, when the offender has failed to comply with one or more of the conditions of probation imposed by the court.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The bill would become effective July 1, 2009.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO ALLOW CHILD SUPPORT PAYMENTS TO CONTINUE UNTIL THE AGE OF TWENTY-ONE IF THE CHILD IS ATTENDING A COMMUNITY COLLEGE OR COLLEGE OR UNIVERSITY.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 50-13.4(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) Payments ordered for the support of a minor child shall be in such amount as to meet the reasonable needs of the child for health, education, and maintenance, having due regard to the estates, earnings, conditions, accustomed standard of living of the child and the parties, the child care and homemaker contributions of each party, and other facts of the particular case. Payments ordered for the support of a minor child shall be on a monthly basis, due and payable on the first day of each month. The requirement that orders be established on a monthly basis does not affect the availability of garnishment of disposable earnings based on an obligor's pay period.

The court shall determine the amount of child support payments by applying the presumptive guidelines established pursuant to subsection (c1) of this section. However, upon request of any party, the Court shall hear evidence, and from the evidence, find the facts relating to the reasonable needs of the child for support and the relative ability of each parent to provide support. If, after considering the evidence, the Court finds by the greater weight of the evidence that the application of the guidelines would not meet or would exceed the reasonable needs of the child considering the relative ability of each parent to provide support or would be otherwise unjust or inappropriate the Court may vary from the guidelines. If the court orders an amount other than the amount determined by application of the presumptive guidelines, the court shall make findings of fact as to the criteria that justify varying from the guidelines and the basis for the amount ordered.

Payments ordered for the support of a child shall terminate when the child reaches the age of 18 except:

(1) If the child is otherwise emancipated, payments shall terminate at that time;

(2) If the child is still in primary or secondary school when the child reaches age 18, support payments shall continue until the child graduates, otherwise ceases to attend school on a regular basis, fails to make satisfactory academic progress towards graduation, or reaches age 20, whichever comes first, unless the court in its discretion orders that payments cease at age 18 or prior to high school ~~graduation.~~graduation; or

(3) If the child is attending a community college or college or university as a full-time student, support payments shall continue until the child reaches age 21, unless the child ceases to attend school on a regular basis or fails to make satisfactory academic progress towards graduation. After age 18, child support payments may be given directly to the child or paid directly towards the child's college expenses.

In the case of ~~graduation,~~graduation or attaining age ~~20,~~20 or where the child is no longer attending a community college or college or university as a full-time student, payments shall terminate without order by the court, subject to the right of the party receiving support to show, upon motion and with notice to the opposing party, that the child has not graduated or attained the age of ~~20.~~20 or that the child is still attending a community college or college or university as a full-time student.

If an arrearage for child support or fees due exists at the time that a child support obligation terminates, payments shall continue in the same total amount that was due under the terms of the previous court order or income withholding in effect at the time of the support obligation. The total amount of these payments is to be applied to the arrearage until all arrearages and fees are satisfied or until further order of the court."

SECTION 2. This act is effective when it becomes law, and applies to actions for child support on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 143:
Continue Child Supp./21 Yrs/College Students

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	May 6, 2009
Introduced by:	Sen. Snow	Prepared by:	Kory Goldsmith
Analysis of:	First Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 143 would require court-ordered child support to continue while a child is a full-time student in a college, university or community college. The payments may be given directly to the child who is over 18.

CURRENT LAW: Court-ordered child support payments terminate either (1) when the child is emancipated, or (2) if the child is still attending primary or secondary school on a regular basis at the age of 18, then until the child graduates, ceases to attend school on a regular basis , fails to make satisfactory progress towards graduation or reaches age 20.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act is effective when it becomes law and applies to actions for child support on or after that date.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO MAKE TECHNICAL CORRECTIONS IN THE GENERAL STATUTES AS REQUESTED BY THE GENERAL STATUTES COMMISSION.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 14-318.2 reads as rewritten:

"§ 14-318.2. Child abuse a ~~Class 1~~ misdemeanor.

(a) Any parent of a child less than 16 years of age, or any other person providing care to or supervision of such child, who inflicts physical injury, or who allows physical injury to be inflicted, or who creates or allows to be created a substantial risk of physical injury, upon or to such child by other than accidental means is guilty of the Class A1 misdemeanor of child abuse.

(b) The Class A1 misdemeanor of child abuse is an offense additional to other civil and criminal provisions and is not intended to repeal or preclude any other sanctions or remedies.

(c) A parent who abandons an infant less than seven days of age pursuant to G.S. 14-322.3 shall not be prosecuted under this section for any acts or omissions related to the care of that infant."

SECTION 2. G.S. 14-404(g) reads as rewritten:

"(g) An applicant shall not be ineligible to receive a permit under ~~subsection (4) of subsection (c)~~ subdivision (c)(4) of this section because of involuntary commitment to mental health services if the individual's rights have been restored under G.S. 122C-54.1."

SECTION 3. G.S. 144-3 reads as rewritten:

"§ 144-3. Flags to be displayed on public buildings and institutions.

The board of trustees or managers of the several State institutions and public buildings shall provide a North Carolina flag, of such dimensions and material as they may deem best, and the same shall be displayed from a staff upon the top of each and every such building, at all times except during inclement weather, and upon the death of any State officer or any prominent citizen the flag shall be put at ~~half-mast~~ half-staff until the burial of such person has taken place."

SECTION 4. This act is effective when it becomes law.

MEMORANDUM

TO: Senate Judiciary II Committee

FROM: General Statutes Commission

DATE: March 24, 2009

RE: SB 220 (General Statutes Comm. Technical Corrections)

General Comments

This bill contains corrections of a technical nature to the General Statutes that are recommended by the General Statutes Commission. These amendments make a conforming change and correct terminology.

Specific Comments

Section 1. This section amends the catchline of G.S. 14-318.2 to remove the reference to misdemeanor classification. G.S. 14-318.2 contains two misdemeanor offenses for particular forms of child abuse. For both offenses, the misdemeanor classification was increased last year by S.L. 2008-191 from Class 1 to Class A1. No change was made to the catchline, however, which continues to refer to "Class 1 misdemeanor" and needs to be corrected. The problem could be corrected by substituting "Class A1" for "Class 1" in the catchline, but deleting the reference to "Class 1" corrects the problem and also prevents repetition of the error if the misdemeanor's classification is changed again in the future.

Section 2. This section amends G.S. 14-404(g) to correct the terminology in a citation. "[S]ubsection (4)" of "subsection (c) of this section" is incorrect, because "(4)" is a subdivision, not a subsection. The phrase should read either "subdivision (4) of subsection (c) of this section" or the more concise "subdivision (c)(4) of this section," which is the correction in the bill.

Section 3. This section amends G.S. 144-3 to correct terminology. Because this section deals only with flags on buildings, the term "half-mast" should be "half-staff."

Section 4. This section provides for the bill to be effective when it becomes law.

(3) ~~Devisee, or~~ Devisee;

(4) ~~Legatee, or~~ Legatee;

(4a) Donee;

(5) Beneficiary of a life insurance policy who did not possess the incidents of ownership under the policy at the time of death of the ~~insured, or~~ insured;

(6) Person succeeding to a renounced ~~interest, or~~ interest;

(7) Beneficiary under a testamentary trust or under an inter vivos ~~trust, or~~ trust;

(8) Appointee under a power of appointment exercised by a testamentary instrument or a nontestamentary ~~instrument, or~~ instrument;

(9) Repealed by Session Laws 1989, c. 684, s. 2.

(9a) Surviving joint tenant, surviving tenant by the entireties, or surviving tenant of a tenancy with a right of ~~survivorship, or~~ survivorship;

(9b) Person entitled to share in a testator's estate under the provisions of ~~G.S. 31-5.5, or~~ G.S. 31-5.5;

(9c) Beneficiary under any other testamentary or nontestamentary instrument, including a beneficiary under:

a. Any qualified or nonqualified deferred compensation, employee benefit, retirement or death benefit, plan, fund, annuity, contract, policy, program or instrument, either funded or unfunded, which is established or maintained to provide retirement income or death benefits or results in, or is intended to result in, deferral of income;

b. An individual retirement account or individual retirement annuity; or

c. Any annuity, payable on ~~death,~~ death account, or other right to death benefits arising under ~~contract; or~~ contract;

(9e) Subject to G.S. 31B-1.1 and G.S. 31B-1.2, fiduciary, including a trustee of a charitable trust, an attorney-in-fact of any of the persons listed in subdivisions (1) through (9e) of this subsection if expressly authorized by the governing power of attorney, and a personal representative appointed under Chapter 28A of the General Statutes of any of the persons listed in subdivisions (1) through (9c) of this subsection;

~~(10) The personal representative appointed under Chapter 28A of any of the above,~~

~~or the attorney in fact of any of the above~~ may renounce at any time, in whole or in ~~part~~ part, the right of succession to any property or interest therein, including a future interest, by filing a written instrument under the provisions of this Chapter. A renunciation may be of a fractional share or any limited interest or estate. The renunciation shall be deemed to include the entire interest of the person whose property or interest is being renounced unless otherwise specifically limited. A person may renounce any interest in or power over property, including a power of appointment, even if its creator imposed a spendthrift provision or similar restriction on transfer or a restriction or limitation on the right to renounce. ~~Provided, however,~~ Notwithstanding the foregoing, there shall be no right of partial renunciation if ~~the decedent or donee of the power expressly so provided in~~ the instrument creating the ~~interest.~~interest expressly so provides.

(b) This Chapter shall apply to all renunciations of present and future interests, whether qualified or nonqualified for federal and State inheritance, estate, and gift tax purposes, unless expressly provided otherwise in the instrument creating the interest.

(c) The instrument of renunciation shall (i) identify the transferor of the property or interest in the property or the creator of the power or the holder of the power, (ii) describe the property or interest renounced, ~~(ii)~~ (iii) declare the renunciation and extent thereof, ~~(iii)~~ and (iv) be signed and acknowledged by the person ~~authorized to renounce.~~ renouncing.

(d) A parent of a minor for whom no general guardian or guardian of the estate has been appointed may renounce, in whole or in part, an interest in or power over property (including a power of appointment) that would have passed to the minor as the result of that parent's renunciation. The parent may renounce the interest or power even if its creator imposed a spendthrift provision or similar restriction on transfer or a restriction or limitation on the right to renounce."

SECTION 2. G.S. 31B-1A is recodified as G.S. 31B-1.1. G.S. 31B-1.1, as recodified by this section, reads as rewritten:

"§ 31B-1.1. ~~Right to renounce fiduciary powers.~~ Right of fiduciary to renounce.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in the testamentary or nontestamentary instrument, a fiduciary under a testamentary or nontestamentary instrument may renounce, in whole or in part, fiduciary rights, privileges, powers, and ~~immunities by executing and by delivering, filing, or recording a written renunciation pursuant to the provisions of G.S. 31B-2. A~~ immunities; however, a fiduciary may not renounce the ~~rights of beneficiaries~~ personal rights exercisable by a beneficiary alone, unless the instrument creating the fiduciary relationship authorizes such a renunciation. The instrument of renunciation shall (i) identify the creator of the rights, powers, privileges, or immunities, (ii) describe any right, power, privilege, or immunity renounced, (iii) declare the renunciation and the extent thereof, and (iv) be signed and acknowledged by the fiduciary authorized to renounce.

(b) ~~The instrument of renunciation shall (i) describe any fiduciary right, power, privilege, or immunity renounced, (ii) declare the renunciation and the extent thereof, and (iii) be signed and acknowledged by the fiduciary authorized to renounce.~~ Except as provided in subsection (c) of this section and except to the extent a statute of this State expressly restricts or limits a fiduciary's right to renounce, a fiduciary acting in a fiduciary capacity may renounce the right of succession to any property or interest therein as permitted by this Chapter, even if the testamentary or nontestamentary instrument governing the fiduciary restricts or limits the right to renounce the fiduciary's right of succession to the property or interest therein.

(c) An attorney-in-fact for a principal acting under subsection (a) or subsection (b) of this section may renounce only if expressly authorized by the governing power of attorney."

SECTION 3. Chapter 31B of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 31B-1.2. Right of fiduciary to institute a proceeding for review of renunciation.

(a) Prior to renouncing, if a fiduciary so elects, the fiduciary may institute a proceeding by petition before the clerk of court for a determination as to whether a renunciation would be compatible with the fiduciary's duties. Commencement of the proceeding, jurisdiction, venue, parties, representation, and notice shall be governed by Chapter 36C of the General Statutes. In addition to any other notice requirements, notice of the proceeding shall be given to all persons entitled to delivery of a copy of an instrument of renunciation under G.S. 31B-2.1.

(b) After renouncing, if a fiduciary so elects, the fiduciary has a right to institute a declaratory judgment action pursuant to Article 26 of Chapter 1 of the General Statutes for a determination as to whether the renunciation is compatible with the fiduciary's duties. In addition to any other notice requirements, notice of the action shall be given to all persons entitled to delivery of a copy of an instrument of renunciation under G.S. 31B-2.1.

(c) A proceeding or action instituted under this section shall comply with all of the following:

(1) The petition or complaint shall state the basis for the fiduciary's allegation that the renunciation is compatible with the fiduciary's duties, considering among other things the intended purposes of the trust or other instrument and the impact of the renunciation on beneficiaries and potential beneficiaries. A petition or complaint filed by a trustee of a charitable trust shall contain a statement that a copy of the petition or complaint is being provided to the Attorney General.

(2) After considering among other things the intended purposes of the trust or other instrument and the impact of the renunciation on beneficiaries and potential beneficiaries, the court shall enter an order stating the court's determination as to whether the renunciation is compatible with the fiduciary's duties.

(d) The effectiveness of a renunciation is not affected by a determination under this section that the renunciation is not compatible with a fiduciary's duties."

SECTION 4. G.S. 31B-2 reads as rewritten:

"§ 31B-2. Time and place of filing renunciation.

(a) To be a qualified disclaimer for federal and State inheritance, estate, and gift tax purposes, an instrument ~~renouncing a present interest~~ of renunciation shall be filed within the time period required under the applicable federal statute for a renunciation to be given effect as a disclaimer for federal estate and gift tax purposes. If there is no such federal statute the instrument shall be filed not later than nine months after the date the transfer of the renounced interest to the ~~renouncer~~ person whose property or interest is being renounced was complete for the purpose of such taxes.

(b) ~~An instrument renouncing a future interest shall be filed not later than six months after the event by which the taker of the property or interest is finally ascertained and his~~

~~interest indefeasibly vested and he is entitled to possession even though such renunciation may not be recognized as a disclaimer for federal estate tax purposes.~~ When a renunciation of real property or an interest in real property is made within the time period required under subsection (a) of this section, the spouse of the person whose property or interest is being renounced is not required to join in the execution of the instrument of renunciation, and, as provided in G.S. 31B-3(a)(1), the spouse has no statutory dower, inchoate marital rights, elective share, or any other marital interest in the real property or real property interest renounced.

(c) The renunciation ~~shall be~~ is effective when filed with the clerk of court ~~of~~ (i) in the county in which court proceedings have been commenced for the administration of the estate of the deceased owner or deceased ~~donee~~ creator of the power ~~or, if they have not been commenced, in which they could be commenced. A copy of the renunciation shall be delivered in person or mailed by registered or certified mail to any personal representative, or other fiduciary of the decedent or donee of the power. If the property interest renounced includes any proceeds of a life insurance policy being renounced pursuant to G.S. 31B-1(a)(5) the person renouncing shall mail, by registered or certified mail, a copy of the renunciation to the insurance company issuing the policy. If the property or property interest renounced is created by nontestamentary instrument, a copy of the renunciation shall be delivered in person, or mailed by registered or certified mail, to the trustee or other person who has legal title to, or possession of, the property or property interest renounced.~~ or holder of the power; or (ii) if proceedings have not been commenced, then in a county in which they could be commenced; or (iii) in all other cases, in a county with a court that has jurisdiction to enforce the terms of the instrument creating the interest renounced. In those cases in which an estate proceeding has not been commenced, the renunciation shall be filed as an estate matter. In addition to the above requirements, a renunciation of real property, or an interest therein, shall be registered in accordance with the provisions of G.S. 31B-2(d).

(d) If real property or an interest therein is renounced, ~~a copy of~~ the instrument of renunciation shall also be ~~filed for recording in the office of the register of deeds of all counties wherein any part of the interest renounced is situated.~~ registered as provided in G.S. 47-18 or G.S. 47-20. The instrument of renunciation shall be indexed in the grantor's index under (i) the name of the ~~deceased owner~~ transferor or ~~donee~~ creator of the ~~power,~~ power or holder of the power, and (ii) the name of the ~~person renouncing.~~ person whose property or interest is being renounced. ~~The renunciation of an interest, or a part thereof, in real property shall not be effective to renounce such interest until a copy of the renunciation is filed for recording in the office of the register of deeds in the county wherein such interest or part thereof is situated. A spouse of a person renouncing real property or an interest in real property shall have no statutory dower, inchoate marital rights, or any other interest in the real property or real property interest renounced.~~ Failure to file or register the instrument of renunciation does not affect the effectiveness of the renunciation as between the person whose property or interest is being renounced and persons to whom the property interest or power passes by reason of the renunciation; however, record title to a renounced interest in real property does not pass to persons receiving the renounced interest by reason of the renunciation until the instrument of renunciation is registered as provided in G.S. 47-18 or G.S. 47-20.

(e) If an instrument transferring an interest in or right, privilege, power, or immunity over property subject to a renunciation is required or permitted by law to be filed or registered, the instrument of renunciation may be so filed or registered. Failure to file or register the instrument of renunciation does not affect the effectiveness of the renunciation as between the person whose property or interest is being renounced and persons to whom the property interest or power passes by reason of the renunciation."

SECTION 5. Chapter 31B of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 31B-2.1. Delivery to other persons of instrument of renunciation by the person renouncing.

(a) In this section:

(1) "Beneficiary designation" means an instrument, other than an instrument creating a trust, naming the beneficiary of:

a. An annuity or insurance policy;

b. An account with a designation for payment on death;

c. A security registered in beneficiary form;

d. A pension, profitsharing, retirement, or other employment-related benefit plan;

e. An individual retirement account or retirement annuity; or

f. Any other nonprobate transfer at death.

(2) "Deliver" means to deliver in person or to send, properly addressed, by first-class mail, telephonic facsimile transmission equipment, electronic mail, or third-party commercial carrier, or by any method permitted by G.S. 1A-1, Rule 4.

(b) The failure to deliver a copy of an instrument of renunciation by a method permitted by G.S. 1A-1, Rule 4, or by a method that results in actual receipt tolls any statute of limitations with regard to any right of action for breach of fiduciary duty.

(c) If a fiduciary renounces an interest in property pursuant to G.S. 31B-1(a)(9e), a copy of the instrument of renunciation shall be delivered to each living person whose beneficial interest is affected by the renunciation and to any co-fiduciary who did not join in the renunciation.

(d) In the case of an interest created under the law of intestate succession or an interest created by will, other than an interest in a testamentary trust, a copy of the instrument of renunciation must:

(1) Be delivered to the personal representative of the decedent's estate; or

(2) If no personal representative is then serving, be filed as an estate matter with a court having jurisdiction to appoint the personal representative.

(e) In the case of a beneficiary renouncing an interest in a testamentary trust, a copy of the instrument of renunciation must:

(1) Be delivered to the trustee then serving;

(2) If no trustee is then serving, be delivered to the personal representative of the decedent's estate; or

(3) If no personal representative or trustee is then serving, be filed as an estate matter with a court having jurisdiction to enforce the trust.

(f) In the case of a beneficiary renouncing an interest in an inter vivos trust, a copy of the instrument of renunciation must:

(1) Be delivered to the trustee then serving;

(3) If the renunciation is made before the time the instrument creating the trust becomes irrevocable, be delivered to the settlor of the trust or the transferor of the interest.

(g) In the case of a beneficiary renouncing an interest created by a beneficiary designation made before the time the designation becomes irrevocable, a copy of the instrument of renunciation must be delivered to the person making the beneficiary designation.

(h) In the case of a beneficiary renouncing an interest created by a beneficiary designation made after the time the designation becomes irrevocable, a copy of the instrument of renunciation must be delivered to the person obligated to distribute the interest.

(i) In the case of a renunciation by a surviving holder of an interest in property subject to a right of survivorship, a copy of the instrument of renunciation must be delivered to the persons to whom the person renouncing reasonably believes the renounced interest passes, at their last addresses known to the person renouncing, and to the personal representative of the deceased joint holder, if any.

(j) In the case of a renunciation by a permissible appointee, or taker in default of exercise, of a power of appointment at any time after the power was created, a copy of the instrument of renunciation must be delivered:

(1) To the holder of the power;

(2) To the fiduciary acting under the instrument that created the power or, if no fiduciary is then serving under the instrument that created the power, filed as an estate matter with a court having authority to appoint the fiduciary; and

(3) To any holder of legal title to the property subject to the power of appointment other than the fiduciary.

(k) In the case of a renunciation by an appointee of an exercised power of appointment, a copy of the instrument of renunciation must be delivered:

(1) To the holder of the power or the personal representative of the holder's estate;

(2) To the fiduciary under the instrument that created the power or, if no fiduciary is then serving under the instrument that created the power, filed as an estate matter with a court having authority to appoint the fiduciary; and

(3) To any holder of legal title to the property subject to the power of appointment other than the fiduciary.

(l) In the case of a renunciation of a power of appointment by the holder of the power, a copy of the instrument of renunciation must be delivered:

(1) To the fiduciary acting under the instrument that created the power or, if no fiduciary is then serving under the instrument that created the power, filed as an estate matter with a court having authority to appoint the fiduciary; and

(2) To any holder of legal title to the property subject to the power of appointment other than the fiduciary.

(m) In the case of a renunciation by a fiduciary of a right, privilege, power, or immunity relating to a trust or estate, a copy of the instrument of renunciation must be delivered as provided in subsection (c), (d), (e), or (f) of this section, as if the power renounced were an interest in property.

(n) In the case of a renunciation of a power by an agent, including an attorney-in-fact, a copy of the instrument of renunciation must be delivered to the principal or the principal's legal representative other than the agent.

(o) In the case of a renunciation by a trustee of a charitable trust, a copy of the instrument of renunciation must be delivered to the North Carolina Attorney General in addition to any other delivery required by this section.

(p) In the case of a renunciation by a donee, a copy of the instrument of renunciation must be delivered to the persons to whom the person renouncing reasonably believes the renounced interest passes, at their last addresses known to the person renouncing, and to the donor or the donor's legal representative other than the donee.

(q) The failure to deliver a copy of the instrument of renunciation as required in this section does not affect the validity of the renunciation for purposes of G.S. 31B-3 even though the renunciation may not be recognized as a disclaimer for federal estate tax purposes."

SECTION 6. G.S. 31B-3 reads as rewritten:

"§ 31B-3. Effect of renunciation.

(a) Unless the decedent, donee of a power of appointment, or creator of an interest under an inter vivos instrument has otherwise provided in the instrument creating the interest, the property or interest renounced devolves as follows:

(1) If the renunciation is filed within the time period described in G.S. 31B-2(a), the property or interest renounced devolves and any interest that takes effect in possession or enjoyment after the termination of the property or interest renounced takes effect as if the ~~renouncer~~ person whose property or interest is being renounced had predeceased the date the transfer of the renounced interest ~~to the renouncer~~ was complete for federal and State inheritance, estate, and gift tax purposes, or, in the case of the renunciation of a fiduciary right, power, privilege, or immunity, the property or interest subject to the power devolves as if the fiduciary right, power, privilege, or immunity never existed. Any such renunciation relates back for all purposes to the date the transfer of the renounced interest ~~to the renouncer~~ was complete for the purpose of those ~~taxes.~~ taxes, and the spouse of the person whose property or interest is being renounced has no elective share or other marital interest in the renounced property.

(2) If the renunciation is not filed within the time period described in G.S. 31B-2(a), the person whose property or interest is being renounced is deemed to have made a transfer of the property or interest and the property or interest devolves and any interest that takes effect in possession or enjoyment after the termination of the property or interest renounced takes effect as if the ~~renouncer~~ person whose property or interest is being renounced had died on the date the renunciation is filed, or, in the case of the renunciation of a fiduciary right, power, privilege, or immunity, the property or interest subject to the power devolves as if the fiduciary right, power, privilege, or immunity ceased to exist as of the date the renunciation is filed.

(3) Any future interest that takes effect in possession or enjoyment after the termination of the estate or interest renounced takes effect as if the ~~renouncer~~ person whose property or interest is being renounced had died on the date determined under subdivision (1) or (2) of this subsection, and upon the filing of the renunciation the persons in being as of the time the ~~renouncer~~ person whose property or interest is being renounced is deemed to have died will immediately become entitled to possession or enjoyment of any such future interest.

(b) In the event that the property or interest renounced was created by testamentary disposition, the devolution of the property or interest renounced shall be ~~governed by G.S. 31-42(a)~~ as provided in G.S. 31-42 notwithstanding that in fact the ~~renouncer~~ person whose property or interest is being renounced has not actually died before the testator.

(c) In the event that the decedent dies intestate, or the ownership or succession to property or to an interest is to be determined as though a decedent had died intestate, and the ~~renouncer~~ person whose property or interest is being renounced has living issue who would have been entitled to an interest in the property or interest if the ~~renouncer~~ person whose property or interest is being renounced had predeceased the decedent, then the property or interest renounced shall be distributed to such issue, per stirpes. If the ~~renouncer~~ person whose property or interest is being renounced does not have such issue, then the property or interest shall be distributed as though the ~~renouncer~~ person whose property or interest is being renounced had predeceased the decedent.

(d) In the event that the property or interest renounced was created by a revocable or irrevocable inter vivos trust, the devolution of the property or interest renounced shall be as provided in G.S. 36C-6-605 notwithstanding that in fact the person whose property or interest is being renounced has not actually died before the event that would otherwise cause the property or interest renounced to pass to the person whose property or interest is being renounced.

(e) If a trustee files, within the time period described in G.S. 31B-2(a), a renunciation of an interest in property, the interest does not become trust property. If a trustee does not file a renunciation of an interest in property within the time period described in G.S. 31B-2(a), the interest passes to the person or persons who would have taken the interest as of the date of the renunciation if the trust had never existed.

(f) Except as provided in the instrument of renunciation, if a renunciation causes property to pass to a trust in which the person whose property or interest is being renounced holds a power of appointment, the person renouncing is deemed to have renounced the power of appointment with respect to assets passing into the trust by reason of the renunciation if the person renouncing is a person who holds a right to renounce the power of appointment.

(g) Unless otherwise provided in the instrument of renunciation, the interest in property being renounced by a surviving tenant by the entireties upon the death of the other tenant is deemed to be a one-half interest in the former entirety property, and title to that one-half interest passes as if the deceased tenant survived the tenant renouncing.

(h) Unless otherwise provided in the instrument of renunciation, the interest in property being renounced by a surviving joint tenant with right of survivorship is deemed to be the fractional interest of the deceased joint tenant to which the surviving joint tenant would have been entitled by right of survivorship, and title to that fractional interest passes as if the tenant renouncing predeceased the deceased joint tenant.

(i) Reserved for future codification.

(j) Reserved for future codification.

(k) A renunciation is binding upon the person whose interest is being renounced and all persons claiming through or under that person."

SECTION 7. G.S. 31B-4 reads as rewritten:

"§ 31B-4. Waiver and bar.

(a) The right to renounce property or an interest therein is barred by:

(1) An assignment, conveyance, encumbrance, pledge, or transfer of the property or interest, or a contract therefor by the person authorized to renounce,

(2) A written waiver of the right to renounce, or

(3) Repealed by Session Laws 1998-148, s. 4.

(4) A sale of the property or interest under judicial sale made before the renunciation is effected.

(b) ~~The renunciation or the written waiver of~~ An instrument waiving or barring the right to renounce is binding upon the ~~renouncer or~~ person waiving the right to renounce or the person barred from renouncing and all persons claiming through or under ~~him.~~ that person.

(c) A fiduciary's application for appointment or assumption of duties as fiduciary does not waive or bar the fiduciary's right to renounce a right, power, privilege, or immunity.

(d) No person shall be liable for distributing or disposing of property in reliance upon the terms of a renunciation that is invalid for the reason that the right of renunciation has been waived or barred, if the distribution or disposition is otherwise proper, and the person has no actual knowledge or record notice of the facts that constitute a waiver or bar to the right of renunciation.

(e) The right to renounce property or an interest in property pursuant to this Chapter is not barred by an acceptance of the property, interest, or benefit thereunder; provided, however, an acceptance of the property, interest, or benefit thereunder may preclude such renunciation from being a qualified renunciation for federal and State inheritance, estate, and gift tax purposes.

(f) An instrument waiving or barring the right to renounce an interest in real property is not effective as to persons protected under G.S. 47-18 or G.S. 47-20 until either (i) registered as provided in those sections or (ii) registered pursuant to a judicial sale proceeding as described in subdivision (4) of subsection (a) of this section in which the person renouncing is a party. The instrument of waiver or bar shall be indexed in the grantor's index under (i) the name of the transferor of the property or interest in the property or creator of the power or holder of the power and (ii) the name of the person whose renunciation is waived or barred."

SECTION 8. Chapter 31B of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 31B-4.1. Tax qualified renunciation.

If, as a result of a renunciation, the renounced property is treated pursuant to the provisions of Title 26 of the United States Code, as now or hereafter amended, or any successor statute thereto, and the regulations promulgated thereunder, as never having been transferred to the person whose property or interest is being renounced, then the renunciation is an effective renunciation, notwithstanding any other provision of this Chapter. This section does not preclude an action for breach of fiduciary duty."

SECTION 9. G.S. 31B-6 is repealed.

SECTION 10. G.S. 28A-13-3 reads as rewritten:

"§ 28A-13-3. Powers of a personal representative or fiduciary.

(a) Except as qualified by express limitations imposed in a will of the decedent or a court order, and subject to the provisions of G.S. 28A-13-6 respecting the powers of joint personal representatives, a personal representative has the power to perform in a reasonable and prudent manner every act which a reasonable and prudent person would perform incident to the collection, preservation, liquidation or distribution of a decedent's estate so as to accomplish the desired result of settling and distributing the decedent's estate in a safe, orderly, accurate and expeditious manner as provided by law, including the powers specified in the following subdivisions:

~~(33) To renounce in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 31B of the General Statutes.~~

(a1) Except as qualified by express limitations imposed in a will of the decedent, and subject to the provisions of G.S. 28A-13-6 respecting the powers of joint personal representatives, a personal representative shall have absolute discretion to make the election as to which items of the decedent's personal and household effects shall be excluded from the carry over basis provision of the federal income tax law and such election shall be conclusive and binding on all concerned.

(a2) Subject to the provisions of G.S. 28A-13-6 respecting the powers of joint personal representatives, a personal representative has the power to renounce in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 31B of the General Statutes.

(b) Any question arising out of the powers conferred by subsections ~~(a) and (a1) above~~ (a), (a1), and (a2) of this section shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Article 18 of this Chapter.

(c) Prior to the personal representative exercising possession, custody or control over real property of the estate he shall petition the clerk of court to obtain an order authorizing such possession, custody or control. The petition shall include:

(1) A description of the real property which is the subject of the petition;

(2) The names, ages, and addresses, if known, of the devisees and heirs of the decedent;

(3) A statement by the personal representative that he has determined that such possession, custody or control is in the best interest of the administration of the estate.

The devisees and heirs will be made parties to the proceeding by service of summons in the manner prescribed by law. If the clerk of court determines that it is in the best interest of the administration of the estate to authorize the personal representative to take possession, custody or control he shall grant an order authorizing that power. If a special proceeding has been instituted by the personal representative pursuant to G.S. 28A-15-1(c), the personal representative may petition for possession, custody, or control of any real property as a part of that proceeding and is not required to institute a separate special proceeding."

SECTION 11. G.S. 32A-1 reads as rewritten:

"§ 32A-1. Statutory Short Form of General Power of Attorney.

The use of the following form in the creation of a power of attorney is lawful, and, when used, it shall be construed in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO AMEND THE LAW RELATING TO RENUNCIATIONS AND TO MAKE RELATED AMENDMENTS TO THE NORTH CAROLINA UNIFORM TRUST CODE AND THE LAW GOVERNING POWERS OF ATTORNEY AND ADMINISTRATION OF DECEDENTS' ESTATES, AS RECOMMENDED BY THE GENERAL STATUTES COMMISSION.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 31B-1 reads as rewritten:

"§ 31B-1. Right to renounce succession.

(a) A person who succeeds to a property interest as:

(1) ~~Heir, or~~ Heir;

(2) Next of ~~kin, or~~ kin;

(3) ~~Devisee, or~~ Devisee;

(4) ~~Legatee, or~~ Legatee;

(4a) Donee;

(5) Beneficiary of a life insurance policy who did not possess the incidents of ownership under the policy at the time of death of the ~~insured, or~~ insured;

(6) Person succeeding to a renounced ~~interest, or~~ interest;

(7) Beneficiary under a testamentary trust or under an inter vivos ~~trust, or~~ trust;

(8) Appointee under a power of appointment exercised by a testamentary instrument or a nontestamentary ~~instrument, or~~ instrument;

(9) Repealed by Session Laws 1989, c. 684, s. 2.

(9a) Surviving joint tenant, surviving tenant by the entireties, or surviving tenant of a tenancy with a right of ~~survivorship, or~~ survivorship;

(9b) Person entitled to share in a testator's estate under the provisions of ~~G.S. 31-5.5, or~~ G.S. 31-5.5;

(9c) Beneficiary under any other testamentary or nontestamentary instrument, including a beneficiary under:

a. Any qualified or nonqualified deferred compensation, employee benefit, retirement or death benefit, plan, fund, annuity, contract, policy, program or instrument, either funded or unfunded, which is established or maintained to provide retirement income or death benefits or results in, or is intended to result in, deferral of income;

b. An individual retirement account or individual retirement annuity; or

c. Any annuity, payable on ~~death,~~ death account, or other right to death benefits arising under ~~contract; or~~ contract;

(9d) ~~The duly~~ Duly authorized or appointed guardian of any of the persons listed in subdivisions (1) through (9c) of this subsection, but only with the prior or subsequent approval of the clerk of superior court, or if required, of the resident judge of the superior court, ~~of any of the above.~~ pursuant to a proceeding or action instituted in accordance with and subject to the requirements of G.S. 31B-1.2; or

(9e) Subject to G.S. 31B-1.1 and G.S. 31B-1.2, fiduciary, including a trustee of a charitable trust, an attorney-in-fact of any of the persons listed in subdivisions (1) through (9e) of this subsection if expressly authorized by the governing power of attorney, and a personal representative appointed under Chapter 28A of the General Statutes of any of the persons listed in subdivisions (1) through (9c) of this subsection;

~~(10) The personal representative appointed under Chapter 28A of any of the above,~~

~~or the attorney in fact of any of the above~~ may renounce at anytime, in whole or in ~~part~~ part, the right of succession to any property or interest therein, including a future interest, by filing a written instrument under the provisions of this Chapter. A renunciation may be of a fractional share or any limited interest or estate. The renunciation shall be deemed to include the entire interest of the person whose property or interest is being renounced unless otherwise specifically limited. A person may renounce any interest in or power over property, including a power of appointment, even if its creator imposed a spendthrift provision or similar restriction on transfer or a restriction or limitation on the right to renounce. ~~Provided, however,~~ Notwithstanding the foregoing, there shall be no right of partial renunciation if ~~the decedent or donee of the power expressly so provided in~~ the instrument creating the ~~interest.~~interest expressly so provides.

(b) This Chapter shall apply to all renunciations of present and future interests, whether qualified or nonqualified for federal and State inheritance, estate, and gift tax purposes, unless expressly provided otherwise in the instrument creating the interest.

(c) The instrument of renunciation shall (i) identify the transferor of the property or interest in the property or the creator of the power or the holder of the power, (ii) describe the property or interest renounced, ~~(ii)~~ (iii) declare the renunciation and extent thereof, ~~(iii)~~ and (iv) be signed and acknowledged by the person ~~authorized to renounce.~~ renouncing.

(d) A parent of a minor for whom no general guardian or guardian of the estate has been appointed may renounce, in whole or in part, an interest in or power over property (including a power of appointment) that would have passed to the minor as the result of that parent's renunciation. The parent may renounce the interest or power even if its creator imposed a spendthrift provision or similar restriction on transfer or a restriction or limitation on the right to renounce."

SECTION 2. G.S. 31B-1A is recodified as G.S. 31B-1.1. G.S. 31B-1.1, as recodified by this section, reads as rewritten:

"§ 31B-1.1. ~~Right to renounce fiduciary powers.~~ Right of fiduciary to renounce.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in the testamentary or nontestamentary instrument, a fiduciary under a testamentary or nontestamentary instrument may renounce, in whole or in part, fiduciary rights, privileges, powers, and ~~immunities by executing and by delivering, filing, or recording a written renunciation pursuant to the provisions of G.S. 31B-2. A~~ immunities; however, a fiduciary may not renounce the ~~rights of beneficiaries~~ personal rights exercisable by a beneficiary alone, unless the instrument creating the fiduciary relationship authorizes such a renunciation. The instrument of renunciation shall (i) identify the creator of the rights, powers, privileges, or immunities, (ii) describe any right, power, privilege, or immunity renounced, (iii) declare the renunciation and the extent thereof, and (iv) be signed and acknowledged by the fiduciary authorized to renounce.

(b) ~~The instrument of renunciation shall (i) describe any fiduciary right, power, privilege, or immunity renounced, (ii) declare the renunciation and the extent thereof, and (iii) be signed and acknowledged by the fiduciary authorized to renounce.~~ Except as provided in subsection (c) of this section and except to the extent a statute of this State expressly restricts or limits a fiduciary's right to renounce, a fiduciary acting in a fiduciary capacity may renounce the right of succession to any property or interest therein as permitted by this Chapter, even if the testamentary or nontestamentary instrument governing the fiduciary restricts or limits the right to renounce the fiduciary's right of succession to the property or interest therein.

(c) An attorney-in-fact for a principal acting under subsection (a) or subsection (b) of this section may renounce only if expressly authorized by the governing power of attorney."

SECTION 3. Chapter 31B of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 31B-1.2. Right of fiduciary to institute a proceeding for review of renunciation.

(a) Prior to renouncing, if a fiduciary so elects, the fiduciary may institute a proceeding by petition before the clerk of court for a determination as to whether a renunciation would be compatible with the fiduciary's duties. Commencement of the proceeding, jurisdiction, venue, parties, representation, and notice shall be governed by Chapter 36C of the General Statutes. In addition to any other notice requirements, notice of the proceeding shall be given to all persons entitled to delivery of a copy of an instrument of renunciation under G.S. 31B-2.1.

(b) After renouncing, if a fiduciary so elects, the fiduciary has a right to institute a declaratory judgment action pursuant to Article 26 of Chapter 1 of the General Statutes for a determination as to whether the renunciation is compatible with the fiduciary's duties. In addition to any other notice requirements, notice of the action shall be given to all persons entitled to delivery of a copy of an instrument of renunciation under G.S. 31B-2.1.

(c) A proceeding or action instituted under this section shall comply with all of the following:

(1) The petition or complaint shall state the basis for the fiduciary's allegation that the renunciation is compatible with the fiduciary's duties, considering among other things the intended purposes of the trust or other instrument and the impact of the renunciation on beneficiaries and potential beneficiaries. A petition or complaint filed by a trustee of a charitable trust shall contain a statement that a copy of the petition or complaint is being provided to the Attorney General.

(2) After considering among other things the intended purposes of the trust or other instrument and the impact of the renunciation on beneficiaries and potential beneficiaries, the court shall enter an order stating the court's determination as to whether the renunciation is compatible with the fiduciary's duties.

(d) The effectiveness of a renunciation is not affected by a determination under this section that the renunciation is not compatible with a fiduciary's duties."

SECTION 4. G.S. 31B-2 reads as rewritten:

"§ 31B-2. ~~Time and place of filing renunciation.~~Filing and registering of renunciations; failure to file or register; spouse's interest.

(a) To be a qualified disclaimer for federal and State inheritance, estate, and gift tax purposes, an instrument ~~renouncing a present interest~~ of renunciation shall be filed within the time period required under the applicable federal statute for a renunciation to be given effect as a disclaimer for federal estate and gift tax purposes. If there is no such federal statute the instrument shall be filed not later than nine months after the date the transfer of the renounced interest to the ~~renouncer~~ person whose property or interest is being renounced was complete for the purpose of such taxes.

(b) ~~An instrument renouncing a future interest shall be filed not later than six months after the event by which the taker of the property or interest is finally ascertained and his interest indefeasibly vested and he is entitled to possession even though such renunciation may not be recognized as a disclaimer for federal estate tax purposes.~~ When a renunciation of real property or an interest in real property is made within the time period required under subsection (a) of this section, the spouse of the person whose property or interest is being renounced is not required to join in the execution of the instrument of renunciation, and, as provided in G.S. 31B-3(a)(1), the spouse has no statutory dower, inchoate marital rights, elective share, or any other marital interest in the real property or real property interest renounced.

(c) The renunciation ~~shall be~~ is effective when filed with the clerk of court ~~of~~ (i) in the county in which court proceedings have been commenced for the administration of the estate of the deceased owner or deceased ~~donee~~ creator of the power ~~or, if they have not been commenced, in which they could be commenced. A copy of the renunciation shall be delivered in person or mailed by registered or certified mail to any personal representative, or other fiduciary of the decedent or donee of the power. If the property interest renounced includes any proceeds of a life insurance policy being renounced pursuant to G.S. 31B-1(a)(5) the person renouncing shall mail, by registered or certified mail, a copy of the renunciation to the insurance company issuing the policy. If the property or property interest renounced is created by nontestamentary instrument, a copy of the renunciation shall be delivered in person, or mailed by registered or certified mail, to the trustee or other person who has legal title to, or possession of, the property or property interest renounced.~~ or holder of the power; or (ii) if proceedings have not been commenced, then in a county in which they could be commenced; or (iii) in all other cases, in a county with a court that has jurisdiction to enforce the terms of the instrument creating the interest renounced. In those cases in which an estate proceeding has not been commenced, the renunciation shall be filed as an estate matter. In addition to the above requirements, a renunciation of real property, or an interest therein, shall be registered in accordance with the provisions of subsection (d) of this section.

(d) If real property or an interest therein is renounced, ~~a copy of~~ the instrument of renunciation shall also be ~~filed for recording in the office of the register of deeds of all counties wherein any part of the interest renounced is situated.~~ registered as provided in G.S. 47-18 or G.S. 47-20. The instrument of renunciation shall be indexed in the grantor's index under (i) the name of the ~~deceased owner~~ transferor or ~~donee~~ creator of the ~~power,~~ power or holder of the power, and (ii) the name of the ~~person renouncing.~~ person whose property or interest is being renounced. ~~The renunciation of an interest, or a part thereof, in real property shall not be effective to renounce such interest until a copy of the renunciation is filed for recording in the office of the register of deeds in the county wherein such interest or part thereof is situated. A spouse of a person renouncing real property or an interest in real property shall have no statutory dower, inchoate marital rights, or any other interest in the real property or real property interest renounced.~~ Failure to file or register the instrument of renunciation does not affect the effectiveness of the renunciation as between the person whose property or interest is being renounced and persons to whom the property interest or power passes by reason of the renunciation; however, record title to a renounced interest in real property does not pass to persons receiving the renounced interest by reason of the renunciation until the instrument of renunciation is registered as provided in G.S. 47-18 or G.S. 47-20.

(e) If an instrument transferring an interest in or right, privilege, power, or immunity over property subject to a renunciation is required or permitted by law to be filed or registered, the instrument of renunciation may be so filed or registered. Failure to file or register the instrument of renunciation does not affect the effectiveness of the renunciation as between the person whose property or interest is being renounced and persons to whom the property interest or power passes by reason of the renunciation."

SECTION 5. Chapter 31B of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 31B-2.1. Delivery to other persons of instrument of renunciation by the person renouncing.

(a) In this section:

(1) "Beneficiary designation" means an instrument, other than an instrument creating a trust, naming the beneficiary of:

a. An annuity or insurance policy;

b. An account with a designation for payment on death;

c. A security registered in beneficiary form;

d. A pension, profitsharing, retirement, or other employment-related benefit plan;

e. An individual retirement account or retirement annuity; or

f. Any other nonprobate transfer at death.

(2) "Deliver" means to deliver in person or to send, properly addressed, by first-class mail, telephonic facsimile transmission equipment, electronic mail, or third-party commercial carrier, or by any method permitted by G.S. 1A-1, Rule 4.

(b) The failure to deliver a copy of an instrument of renunciation by a method permitted by G.S. 1A-1, Rule 4, or by a method that results in actual receipt tolls any statute of limitations with regard to any right of action for breach of fiduciary duty.

(c) If a fiduciary renounces an interest in property pursuant to G.S. 31B-1(a)(9e), a copy of the instrument of renunciation shall be delivered to each living person whose beneficial interest is affected by the renunciation and to any co-fiduciary who did not join in the renunciation.

(d) In the case of an interest created under the law of intestate succession or an interest created by will, other than an interest in a testamentary trust, a copy of the instrument of renunciation must:

(1) Be delivered to the personal representative of the decedent's estate; or

(2) If no personal representative is then serving, be filed as an estate matter with a court having jurisdiction to appoint the personal representative.

(e) In the case of a beneficiary renouncing an interest in a testamentary trust, a copy of the instrument of renunciation must:

(1) Be delivered to the trustee then serving;

(2) If no trustee is then serving, be delivered to the personal representative of the decedent's estate; or

(3) If no personal representative or trustee is then serving, be filed as an estate matter with a court having jurisdiction to enforce the trust.

(f) In the case of a beneficiary renouncing an interest in an inter vivos trust, a copy of the instrument of renunciation must:

(1) Be delivered to the trustee then serving;

(3) If the renunciation is made before the time the instrument creating the trust becomes irrevocable, be delivered to the settlor of the trust or the transferor of the interest.

(g) In the case of a beneficiary renouncing an interest created by a beneficiary designation made before the time the designation becomes irrevocable, a copy of the instrument of renunciation must be delivered to the person making the beneficiary designation.

(h) In the case of a beneficiary renouncing an interest created by a beneficiary designation made after the time the designation becomes irrevocable, a copy of the instrument of renunciation must be delivered to the person obligated to distribute the interest.

(i) In the case of a renunciation by a surviving holder of an interest in property subject to a right of survivorship, a copy of the instrument of renunciation must be delivered to the persons to whom the person renouncing reasonably believes the renounced interest passes, at their last addresses known to the person renouncing, and to the personal representative of the deceased joint holder, if any.

(j) In the case of a renunciation by a permissible appointee, or taker in default of exercise, of a power of appointment at anytime after the power was created, a copy of the instrument of renunciation must be delivered:

(1) To the holder of the power;

(2) To the fiduciary acting under the instrument that created the power or, if no fiduciary is then serving under the instrument that created the power, filed as an estate matter with a court having authority to appoint the fiduciary; and

(3) To any holder of legal title to the property subject to the power of appointment other than the fiduciary.

(k) In the case of a renunciation by an appointee of an exercised power of appointment, a copy of the instrument of renunciation must be delivered:

(1) To the holder of the power or the personal representative of the holder's estate;

(2) To the fiduciary under the instrument that created the power or, if no fiduciary is then serving under the instrument that created the power, filed as an estate matter with a court having authority to appoint the fiduciary; and

(3) To any holder of legal title to the property subject to the power of appointment other than the fiduciary.

(l) In the case of a renunciation of a power of appointment by the holder of the power, a copy of the instrument of renunciation must be delivered:

(1) To the fiduciary acting under the instrument that created the power or, if no fiduciary is then serving under the instrument that created the power, filed as an estate matter with a court having authority to appoint the fiduciary; and

(2) To any holder of legal title to the property subject to the power of appointment other than the fiduciary.

(m) In the case of a renunciation by a fiduciary of a right, privilege, power, or immunity relating to a trust or estate, a copy of the instrument of renunciation must be delivered as provided in subsection (c), (d), (e), or (f) of this section, as if the power renounced were an interest in property.

(n) In the case of a renunciation of a power by an agent, including an attorney-in-fact, a copy of the instrument of renunciation must be delivered to the principal or the principal's legal representative other than the agent.

(o) In the case of a renunciation by a trustee of a charitable trust, a copy of the instrument of renunciation must be delivered to the North Carolina Attorney General in addition to any other delivery required by this section.

(p) In the case of a renunciation by a donee, a copy of the instrument of renunciation must be delivered to the persons to whom the person renouncing reasonably believes the renounced interest passes, at their last addresses known to the person renouncing, and to the donor or the donor's legal representative other than the donee.

(q) The failure to deliver a copy of the instrument of renunciation as required in this section does not affect the validity of the renunciation for purposes of G.S. 31B-3 even though the renunciation may not be recognized as a disclaimer for federal estate tax purposes."

SECTION 6. G.S. 31B-3 reads as rewritten:

"§ 31B-3. Effect of renunciation.

(a) Unless the decedent, donee of a power of appointment, or creator of an interest under an inter vivos instrument has otherwise provided in the instrument creating the interest, the property or interest renounced devolves as follows:

(1) If the renunciation is filed within the time period described in G.S. 31B-2(a), the property or interest renounced devolves and any interest that takes effect in possession or enjoyment after the termination of the property or interest renounced takes effect as if the ~~renouncer~~ person whose property or interest is being renounced had predeceased the date the transfer of the renounced interest ~~to the renouncer~~ was complete for federal and State inheritance, estate, and gift tax purposes, or, in the case of the renunciation of a fiduciary right, power, privilege, or immunity, the property or interest subject to the power devolves as if the fiduciary right, power, privilege, or immunity never existed. Any such renunciation relates back for all purposes to the date the transfer of the renounced interest ~~to the renouncer~~ was complete for the purpose of those ~~taxes.~~ taxes, and the spouse of the person whose property or interest is being renounced has no elective share or other marital interest in the renounced property.

(2) If the renunciation is not filed within the time period described in G.S. 31B-2(a), the person whose property or interest is being renounced is deemed to have made a transfer of the property or interest and the property or interest devolves and any interest that takes effect in possession or enjoyment after the termination of the property or interest renounced takes effect as if the ~~renouncer~~ person whose property or interest is being renounced had died on the date the renunciation is filed, or, in the case of the renunciation of a fiduciary right, power, privilege, or immunity, the property or interest subject to the power devolves as if the fiduciary right, power, privilege, or immunity ceased to exist as of the date the renunciation is filed.

(3) Any future interest that takes effect in possession or enjoyment after the termination of the estate or interest renounced takes effect as if the ~~renouncer~~ person whose property or interest is being renounced had died on the date determined under subdivision (1) or (2) of this subsection, and upon the filing of the renunciation the persons in being as of the time the ~~renouncer~~ person whose property or interest is being renounced is deemed to have died will immediately become entitled to possession or enjoyment of any such future interest.

(b) In the event that the property or interest renounced was created by testamentary disposition, the devolution of the property or interest renounced shall be ~~governed by G.S. 31-42(a)~~ as provided in G.S. 31-42 notwithstanding that in fact the ~~renouncer~~ person whose property or interest is being renounced has not actually died before the testator.

(c) In the event that the decedent dies intestate, or the ownership or succession to property or to an interest is to be determined as though a decedent had died intestate, and the ~~renouncer~~ person whose property or interest is being renounced has living issue who would have been entitled to an interest in the property or interest if the ~~renouncer~~ person whose property or interest is being renounced had predeceased the decedent, then the property or interest renounced shall be distributed to such issue, per stirpes. If the ~~renouncer~~ person whose property or interest is being renounced does not have such issue, then the property or interest shall be distributed as though the ~~renouncer~~ person whose property or interest is being renounced had predeceased the decedent.

(d) In the event that the property or interest renounced was created by a revocable or irrevocable inter vivos trust, the devolution of the property or interest renounced shall be as provided in G.S. 36C-6-605 notwithstanding that in fact the person whose property or interest is being renounced has not actually died before the event that would otherwise cause the property or interest renounced to pass to the person whose property or interest is being renounced.

(e) If a trustee files, within the time period described in G.S. 31B-2(a), a renunciation of an interest in property, the interest does not become trust property. If a trustee does not file a renunciation of an interest in property within the time period described in G.S. 31B-2(a), the interest passes to the person or persons who would have taken the interest as of the date of the renunciation if the trust had never existed.

(f) Except as provided in the instrument of renunciation, if a renunciation causes property to pass to a trust in which the person whose property or interest is being renounced holds a power of appointment, the person renouncing is deemed to have renounced the power of appointment with respect to assets passing into the trust by reason of the renunciation if the person renouncing is a person who holds a right to renounce the power of appointment.

(g) Unless otherwise provided in the instrument of renunciation, the interest in property being renounced by a surviving tenant by the entireties upon the death of the other tenant is deemed to be a one-half interest in the former entirety property, and title to that one-half interest passes as if the deceased tenant survived the tenant renouncing.

(h) Unless otherwise provided in the instrument of renunciation, the interest in property being renounced by a surviving joint tenant with right of survivorship is deemed to be the fractional interest of the deceased joint tenant to which the surviving joint tenant would have been entitled by right of survivorship, and title to that fractional interest passes as if the tenant renouncing predeceased the deceased joint tenant.

(i) Reserved for future codification purposes.

(j) Reserved for future codification purposes.

(k) A renunciation is binding upon the person whose property or interest is being renounced and all persons claiming through or under that person."

SECTION 7. G.S. 31B-4 reads as rewritten:

"§ 31B-4. Waiver and bar.

(a) The right to renounce property or an interest therein is barred by:

(1) An assignment, conveyance, encumbrance, pledge, or transfer of the property or interest, or a contract therefor by the person authorized to renounce,

(2) A written waiver of the right to renounce, or

(3) Repealed by Session Laws 1998-148, s. 4.

(4) A sale of the property or interest under judicial sale made before the renunciation is effected.

(b) ~~The renunciation or the written waiver of~~ An instrument waiving or barring the right to renounce is binding upon the ~~renouncer or~~ person waiving the right to renounce or the person barred from renouncing and all persons claiming through or under ~~him.~~ that person.

(c) A fiduciary's application for appointment or assumption of duties as fiduciary does not waive or bar the fiduciary's right to renounce a right, power, privilege, or immunity.

(d) No person shall be liable for distributing or disposing of property in reliance upon the terms of a renunciation that is invalid for the reason that the right of renunciation has been waived or barred, if the distribution or disposition is otherwise proper, and the person has no actual knowledge or record notice of the facts that constitute a waiver or bar to the right of renunciation.

(e) The right to renounce property or an interest in property pursuant to this Chapter is not barred by an acceptance of the property, interest, or benefit thereunder; provided, however, an acceptance of the property, interest, or benefit thereunder may preclude such renunciation from being a qualified renunciation for federal and State inheritance, estate, and gift tax purposes.

(f) An instrument waiving or barring the right to renounce an interest in real property is not effective as to persons protected under G.S. 47-18 or G.S. 47-20 until either (i) registered as provided in those sections or (ii) registered pursuant to a judicial sale proceeding as described in subdivision (4) of subsection (a) of this section in which the person renouncing is a party. The instrument of waiver or bar shall be indexed in the grantor's index under (i) the name of the transferor of the property or interest in the property or creator of the power or holder of the power and (ii) the name of the person whose renunciation is waived or barred."

SECTION 8. Chapter 31B of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 31B-4.1. Tax qualified renunciation.

If, as a result of a renunciation, the renounced property is treated pursuant to the provisions of Title 26 of the United States Code, as now or hereafter amended, or any successor statute thereto, and the regulations promulgated thereunder, as never having been transferred to the person whose property or interest is being renounced, then the renunciation is an effective renunciation, notwithstanding any other provision of this Chapter. This section does not preclude an action for breach of fiduciary duty."

SECTION 9. G.S. 31B-6 is repealed.

SECTION 10. G.S. 28A-13-3 reads as rewritten:

"§ 28A-13-3. Powers of a personal representative or fiduciary.

(a) Except as qualified by express limitations imposed in a will of the decedent or a court order, and subject to the provisions of G.S. 28A-13-6 respecting the powers of joint personal representatives, a personal representative has the power to perform in a reasonable and prudent manner every act which a reasonable and prudent person would perform incident to the collection, preservation, liquidation or distribution of a decedent's estate so as to accomplish the desired result of settling and distributing the decedent's estate in a safe, orderly, accurate and expeditious manner as provided by law, including the powers specified in the following subdivisions:

~~(33) To renounce in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 31B of the General Statutes.~~

(a1) Except as qualified by express limitations imposed in a will of the decedent, and subject to the provisions of G.S. 28A-13-6 respecting the powers of joint personal representatives, a personal representative shall have absolute discretion to make the election as to which items of the decedent's personal and household effects shall be excluded from the carry over basis provision of the federal income tax law and such election shall be conclusive and binding on all concerned.

(a2) Subject to the provisions of G.S. 28A-13-6 respecting the powers of joint personal representatives, a personal representative has the power to renounce in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 31B of the General Statutes.

(b) Any question arising out of the powers conferred by subsections ~~(a) and (a1) above~~ (a), (a1), and (a2) of this section shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Article 18 of this Chapter.

(c) Prior to the personal representative exercising possession, custody or control over real property of the estate he shall petition the clerk of court to obtain an order authorizing such possession, custody or control. The petition shall include:

(1) A description of the real property which is the subject of the petition;

(2) The names, ages, and addresses, if known, of the devisees and heirs of the decedent;

(3) A statement by the personal representative that he has determined that such possession, custody or control is in the best interest of the administration of the estate.

The devisees and heirs will be made parties to the proceeding by service of summons in the manner prescribed by law. If the clerk of court determines that it is in the best interest of the administration of the estate to authorize the personal representative to take possession, custody or control he shall grant an order authorizing that power. If a special proceeding has been instituted by the personal representative pursuant to G.S. 28A-15-1(c), the personal representative may petition for possession, custody, or control of any real property as a part of that proceeding and is not required to institute a separate special proceeding."

SECTION 11. G.S. 32A-1 reads as rewritten:

"§ 32A-1. Statutory Short Form of General Power of Attorney.

The use of the following form in the creation of a power of attorney is lawful, and, when used, it shall be construed in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter.

SECTION 12. G.S. 32A-2 is amended by adding two new subdivisions to read:

"(16) Renunciation of an interest in or power over property to benefit persons other than the attorney-in-fact. – To renounce, in accordance with Chapter 31B of the General Statutes, an interest in or power over property, including a power of appointment, to benefit persons other than the attorney-in-fact or the estate, creditors, or the creditors of the estate of the attorney-in-fact, or an individual to whom the attorney-in-fact owes a legal obligation of support.

(17) Renunciation of an interest in or power over property to benefit persons including the attorney-in-fact. – To renounce, in accordance with Chapter 31B of the General Statutes, an interest in or power over property, including a power of appointment, to benefit persons including the attorney-in-fact, or the estate, creditors, or the creditors of the estate of the attorney-in-fact, or an individual to whom the attorney-in-fact owes a legal obligation of support."

SECTION 13. The title of Article 2A of Chapter 32A of the General Statutes reads as rewritten:

"Article 2A.

Authority of Attorney-In-Fact to Make ~~Gifts.~~ Gifts and to Renounce."

SECTION 14. Article 2A of Chapter 32A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 32A-14.2. Renunciation under power of attorney.

(a) If any power of attorney authorizes an attorney-in-fact to do, execute, or perform any act that the principal might or could do or evidences the principal's intent to give the attorney-in-fact full power to handle the principal's affairs or deal with the principal's property, but does not expressly authorize the attorney-in-fact to renounce an interest in or power over property, the attorney-in-fact shall not have the power or authority to renounce on behalf of the principal pursuant to Chapter 31B of the General Statutes.

(b) Notwithstanding an express grant of general authority to renounce, an attorney-in-fact that is not an ancestor, spouse, or descendant of the principal may not renounce under a power of attorney to create in the attorney-in-fact or the estate, creditors, or the creditors of the estate of the attorney-in-fact, or in an individual to whom the attorney-in-fact owes a legal obligation of support, an interest in or power over the principal's property by reason of a renunciation unless the power of attorney expressly authorizes a renunciation that benefits the attorney-in-fact or the estate, creditors, or the creditors of the estate of the attorney-in-fact, or an individual to whom the attorney-in-fact owes a legal obligation of support."

SECTION 15. G.S. 36C-1-105(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) The terms of a trust prevail over any provision of this Chapter except:

(11) The requirement that the exercise of the powers described in G.S. 36C-6-602.1(a) shall not alter the designation of beneficiaries to receive property on the settlor's death under that settlor's existing estate plan.

(12) The power of a trustee to renounce an interest in or power over property under G.S. 36C-8-816(32)."

SECTION 16. G.S. 36C-8-816 reads as rewritten:

"§ 36C-8-816. Specific powers of trustee.

Without limiting the authority conferred by G.S. 36C-8-815, a trustee may:

...

(30) Request an order from the court for the sale of real or personal property under Article 29A of Chapter 1 of the General Statutes, or for the exchange, partition, or other disposition or change in the character of, or for the grant of options or other rights in or to, such ~~property; and~~ property;

(31) Distribute the assets of an inoperative trust consistent with the authority granted under ~~G.S. 28A-22-10.~~G.S. 28A-22-110; and

(32) Renounce, in accordance with Chapter 31B of the General Statutes, an interest in or power over property, including property that is or may be burdened with liability for violation of environmental law."

SECTION 17. G.S. 36C-8-816(13)c. is repealed.

SECTION 18. The Revisor of Statutes shall cause to be printed along with this act all explanatory comments of the drafters of this act as the Revisor deems appropriate.

SECTION 19. This act becomes effective October 1, 2009, and applies to renunciations and powers of attorney executed on or after that date.

MEMORANDUM
April 24, 2009

TO: Senate Judiciary II Committee
FROM: General Statutes Commission
RE: Senate Bill 884 (Renunciation Amendments)

General Comments

Current Law. Chapter 31B of the General Statutes ("Chapter 31B") provides a procedure for a person to renounce an interest in or power over property ("property") that the person would otherwise become entitled to, as for example, by inheritance. Reasons for renouncing property include unfavorable tax consequences and environmental contamination. If the renunciation occurs within the nine-month time limit for a qualified disclaimer for federal estate and gift tax purposes, the person who renounces the property is treated as having died immediately before that person would have taken the property and the next taker's interest in the property relates back to that date. The effect is that the person is deemed never to have had the property. If the renunciation does not occur within that time limit, the person is treated as having died the day of the renunciation, and the property is deemed to have been transferred to the next taker then.

Changes Made in this Bill. This bill makes changes to Chapter 31B. Primarily, the bill:

- Adds trustees to the list of persons who can renounce, whereas guardians, personal representatives of decedents' estates, and attorneys-in-fact are already able to renounce. (Secs. 1 and 2)

- Adds donees to the list of persons who can renounce, and allows the parent of a minor to renounce, on the minor's behalf, property that would have passed to the minor as the result of that parent's renunciation. (Sec. 1)

- Provides that a personal representative or trustee may renounce as permitted by Chapter 31B even if the governing instrument provides otherwise. (Secs. 1, 2, 10, and 15)

- Provides that an attorney-in-fact may renounce only if expressly authorized by the principal; the bill also makes co-ordinating changes to the statutes on powers of attorney. (Secs. 1, 2, and 11-14)

- Provides optional procedures for a fiduciary to obtain a judicial determination as to whether a renunciation would be or is compatible with the fiduciary's duties. (Sec. 3)

- Gives more detailed instructions on delivering and filing renunciations. (Secs. 4, 5, and 7)

- Makes various other amendments to Chapter 31B, including clarifying, stylistic, and organizational changes, and makes conforming amendments elsewhere in the General Statutes.

Specific Comments

Section 1 amends G.S. 31B-1, which authorizes the persons listed to renounce an interest in property by filing an instrument of renunciation under Chapter 31B. In addition to stylistic and clarifying changes:

- Subsection (a)'s list of persons who can renounce is amended (i) to add "donee" (subdivision (4a)) and (ii) to add a new entry for fiduciaries (subdivision (9e)). The new subdivision (9e) includes trustees. The existing entries for personal representatives (subdivision (10)) and attorneys-in-fact (immediately after subdivision (10)) are moved to new subdivision (9e). The separate entry for guardians is retained (subdivision (9d)).

- Subsection (a) is amended to clarify that, unless otherwise specifically limited in the instrument of renunciation, a renunciation is deemed to include the entire interest of the person whose property or interest is being renounced.

- Subsection (a) is also amended to expressly provide that a person may renounce an interest in or power over property even if the creator of the interest or power imposed a restriction or limitation on the right to renounce. The creator of the interest or power may prohibit partial renunciations.

- Subsection (c) is amended to require that the instrument of renunciation identify the transferor of the property or the creator or holder of the power over property. This amendment is designed to assist registers of deeds with indexing instruments of renunciation of real property as required under G.S. 31B-2(d).

- New subsection (d) authorizes the parent of a minor who does not have a general guardian or guardian of the estate to renounce an interest in or power over property that would have passed to the minor as the result of that parent's own renunciation.

Section 2 recodifies and amends G.S. 31B-1A, which currently addresses only the renunciation of fiduciary powers. Section 2 first recodifies G.S. 31B-1A as G.S. 31B-1.1, because "31B-1A" is not a proper G.S. number. Section 2 then amends G.S. 31B-1.1, as recodified, to address both the renunciation of fiduciary powers and the renunciation of an interest in or power over property by a fiduciary. The provisions relating to the renunciation of fiduciary powers are consolidated into subsection (a), which also addresses the contents of an instrument of renunciation under that subsection. Subsection (b) is completely rewritten to provide that, except as provided in new subsection (c) and to the extent a statute of this State expressly restricts or limits a fiduciary's right to renounce, a fiduciary may renounce property as permitted by G.S. 31B-1, even if the instrument governing the fiduciary restricts or limits the right to renounce. New subsection (c) provides that an attorney-in-fact may renounce only if expressly authorized by the governing power of attorney.

Section 3 adds new G.S. 31B-1.2 to permit a fiduciary to institute a pre-renunciation proceeding to have the clerk of superior court determine whether a renunciation would be compatible with the fiduciary's duties. The general procedural provisions are those of Chapter 36C of the General Statutes (the North Carolina Uniform Trust Code). Post-renunciation, a fiduciary who wants a judicial determination of that issue may institute a declaratory judgment action. Either procedure is permissive and does not affect the effectiveness of the renunciation.

Section 4 amends G.S. 31B-2, dealing with filing and registering a renunciation. Among other things, Section 4 makes stylistic and conforming changes in subsections (a), (c), and (d).

Section 4 rewrites subsection (b), deleting a six-month time period for renouncing a future interest in property. The effect is to treat the renunciation of a future interest the same as the renunciation of a present interest, which has no time limit on when the renunciation can be made. In addition, the six-month time period is inconsistent with the nine-month time period for a qualified disclaimer for federal estate and gift tax purposes. As rewritten, subsection (b) contains the gist of a provision moved from subsection (d), that the spouse of the person whose property or interest is being renounced has no marital rights in the property or interest renounced, and clarifies that this provision applies only to renunciations made within the time period for qualified disclaimers for federal estate and gift tax purposes. Subsection (b) further specifies that the spouse in this case is not required to join in the execution of the instrument of renunciation.

Section 4 amends subsection (c) (which requires filing an instrument of renunciation with the clerk of superior court) to delete the current requirements for delivering a copy to persons who have a duty to distribute the renounced property; more detailed instructions with regard to delivering copies of an instrument of renunciation are provided in new G.S. 31B-2.1. As amended, subsection (c) also provides that a renunciation is effective when filed with the clerk and includes more detailed instructions for filing a renunciation with the clerk.

Section 4 amends subsection (d) (which requires registering an instrument of renunciation with the register of deeds if an interest in real property is being renounced) to provide that the failure to file or register an instrument of renunciation does not affect the effectiveness of the renunciation as between the person whose property or interest is being renounced and persons to whom the property interest or power passes by reason of the renunciation, although record title does not pass to persons receiving the renounced interest until the instrument of renunciation is registered.

New subsection (e) provides that, if an instrument transferring an interest in or right, privilege, power, or immunity over property subject to a renunciation is required or permitted by law to be filed or registered, the instrument of renunciation may be so filed or registered. The failure to file or register the instrument of renunciation does not affect the effectiveness of the renunciation as between the person whose property or interest is being renounced and persons to whom the property interest or power passes by reason of the renunciation.

Section 5 adds new G.S. 31B-2.1 to provide more detailed instructions with regard to the delivery and filing of an instrument of renunciation in order to provide notice of the renunciation to anyone who has a duty to distribute the renounced property. The failure to deliver a copy as required does not affect the validity of the renunciation but tolls any statute of limitations with regard to any right of action for breach of fiduciary duty.

Section 6 amends G.S. 31B-3, governing the effect of a renunciation, to make stylistic and clarifying changes to subsections (a), (b), and (c) and to add new subsections.

New subsection (d) provides that, in the event that the renounced property or interest was created by a revocable or irrevocable inter vivos trust, the property or interest devolves as provided in the North Carolina Uniform Trust Code.

New subsection (e) provides that a property interest renounced by a trustee within the time for a qualified disclaimer for federal estate and gift tax purposes does not become trust property. If the renunciation is not filed within this time, the property interest passes to the person who would have taken the interest as of the date of the renunciation if the trust had never existed.

New subsection (f) addresses the case where a renunciation causes property to pass to a trust in which the person whose property or interest is being renounced holds a power of appointment. Unless the instrument of renunciation provides otherwise, the person renouncing is deemed to have renounced the power of appointment with respect to assets passing into the trust by reason of the renunciation if the person renouncing holds a right to renounce the power of appointment.

New subsections (g) and (h) expressly provide for the effect of a renunciation of property held in a tenancy by the entireties and property held in a joint tenancy with right of survivorship. Under subsection (g), unless otherwise provided in the instrument of renunciation, the property interest being renounced by a surviving tenant by the entireties upon the death of the other tenant is deemed to be a one-half interest in the former entirety property, and title to that one-half interest passes as if the deceased tenant survived the tenant renouncing. Under subsection (h), unless otherwise provided in the instrument of renunciation, the property interest being renounced by a surviving joint tenant with right of survivorship is deemed to be the fractional interest of the deceased joint tenant to which the surviving joint tenant would have been entitled by right of survivorship, and title to that fractional interest passes as if the tenant renouncing predeceased the deceased joint tenant.

New subsection (k) is a restatement and a recodification of the provision in G.S. 31B-4(b) stating the binding effect of a renunciation. G.S. 31B-3, addressing the effect of a renunciation, is a more appropriate location for the provision.

Section 7 amends G.S. 31B-4, which specifies the events that bar the right to renounce property. Subsection (b) is amended to apply only to the binding effect of an instrument waiving or barring the right to renounce; the binding effect of a renunciation is moved to new G.S. 31B-3(k). Subsection (d) currently provides that a person is not liable for distributing or disposing of property in reliance upon a renunciation that is invalid because the right to renounce has been barred, if the person has no actual knowledge of the bar. Subsection (d) is amended to include record notice of the bar, because a person has record notice of instruments registered in the register of deeds' office. New subsection (f) provides that an instrument waiving or barring the right to renounce real property is not effective as to lien creditors or purchasers for value until either (i) registered in the office of the register of deeds in the county in which the real property or any part thereof is situated or (ii) registered pursuant to a judicial sale proceeding in which the person renouncing is a party. New subsection (f) also provides instructions to the register of deeds for indexing an instrument of waiver or bar.

Section 8 adds new G.S. 31B-4.1 to coordinate Chapter 31B with the requirements for a qualified renunciation for tax purposes under Internal Revenue Code § 2518. Any renunciation which is qualified for federal estate and gift tax purposes is a valid renunciation under Chapter 31B even if the renunciation does not otherwise meet the Chapter's more specific requirements. New G.S. 31B-4.1 does not preclude an action for breach of fiduciary duty.

Section 9 repeals G.S. 31B-6 ("Application of Chapter"), a transition provision dating from 1975 when Chapter 31B was enacted. The statute, which has become obsolete, reads:

> A present interest in property existing on October 1, 1975, as to which the time for filing a renunciation under this Chapter has not expired may be renounced within six months after October 1, 1975. A future interest in property existing on October 1, 1975, as to which the time for filing a renunciation under this Chapter has not expired may be renounced within six months after October 1, 1975, or within six months after the future interest has become indefeasibly vested and the taker is entitled to possession, whichever is later.

There is currently no time limit on a person's ability to renounce unless the renunciation is intended to be a qualified disclaimer for federal estate and gift tax purposes.

Section 10 amends G.S. 28A-13-3, dealing with a personal representative's powers, to provide that a testator cannot eliminate the power to renounce under Chapter 31B.

Section 11 amends the statutory short form power of attorney in G.S. 32A-1 to allow a principal to expressly authorize an attorney-in-fact to renounce an interest in or power over property to benefit persons other than the attorney-in-fact or to benefit persons including the attorney-in-fact. Section 12 amends G.S. 32A-2 to describe these powers.

Section 13 amends the title of Article 2A of Chapter 32A of the General Statutes to reflect the addition of G.S. 32A-14.2, governing the authority to renounce under a power of attorney.

Section 14 enacts new G.S. 32A-14.2, placing limitations on the authority of an attorney-in-fact to renounce an interest in or power over property. Subsection (a) requires express authorization in the power of attorney for an attorney-in-fact to renounce an interest in or power over property; mere authorization to do whatever the principal could do (or words to that effect) is not sufficient. Subsection (b) provides that an attorney-in-fact who is not an ancestor, spouse, or descendent of the principal and who has an express grant of general renunciation authority may nevertheless not exercise that authority to create in the attorney-in-fact, or in an individual to whom the attorney-in-fact owes a legal obligation of support, an interest in the principal's property, unless expressly authorized to do so by the power of attorney.

Sections 15, 16, and 17 amend the North Carolina Uniform Trust Code to provide that the terms of a trust may not alter the authority of a trustee to renounce an interest in or power over property under Chapter 31B.

Section 18 authorizes the printing of drafters comments.

Section 19 provides that the act becomes effective October 1, 2009, and applies to renunciations and powers of attorney executed on or after that date.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO: (1) AMEND REQUIREMENTS APPLICABLE TO AND CLARIFY SANCTIONS THAT MAY BE IMPOSED IN CONJUNCTION WITH MOTIONS TO SET ASIDE FORFEITURES; AND (2) PROVIDE THAT A COURT MAY REFUSE TO SET ASIDE A BOND FORFEITURE ONLY IF, BEFORE EXECUTING THE BOND, THE SURETY OR BAIL AGENT HAD ACTUAL NOTICE OF A DEFENDANT'S FAILURE TO APPEAR ON TWO OR MORE PRIOR OCCASIONS IN THE CASE FOR WHICH THE BOND WAS EXECUTED.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 15A-544.5(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) Motion Procedure. – If a forfeiture is not set aside under subsection (c) of this section, the only procedure for setting it aside is as follows:

...

(4) If neither the district attorney nor the board of education has filed a written objection to the motion by the ~~tenth~~ twentieth day after the motion is served, the clerk shall enter an order setting aside the forfeiture.

...

(8) If at the hearing the court determines that the motion to set aside was not signed or that the documentation required to be attached pursuant to subdivision (1) of this subsection is fraudulent or was not attached to the motion at the time the motion was filed, the court may order monetary sanctions against the surety filing the motion, unless the court also finds that the failure to sign the motion or attach the required documentation was unintentional. A motion for sanctions and notice of the hearing thereof shall be served on the surety not later than ten (10) days before the time specified for the hearing. If the court concludes that a sanction should be ordered, in addition to ordering the denial of the motion to set aside, sanctions shall be imposed as follows: (i) twenty-five percent (25%) of the bond amount for failure to sign the motion; (ii) fifty percent (50%) of the bond amount for failure to attach the required documentation; and (iii) not less than one hundred percent (100%) of the bond amount for the filing of fraudulent documentation. This subdivision shall not limit the criminal prosecution of any individual involved in the creation or filing of any fraudulent documentation."

SECTION 2. G.S. 15A-544.5(f) reads as rewritten:

"(f) ~~No More Than Two Forfeitures May Be~~ Set Aside Prohibited in Certain Circumstances. ~~Per Case.~~ No forfeiture of a bond may be set aside for any reason ~~In~~ in any case in which ~~the State proves that~~ the surety or the bail agent had actual notice ~~or actual knowledge,~~ before executing a bail ~~bond,~~ bond that the defendant had already failed to appear on two or more prior occasions in the case for which the bond was executed. SECTION 3. Section 1 of this act becomes effective October 1, 2009, and applies to all motions to set aside filed on or after that date. Section 2 of this act becomes effective October 1, 2009, and applies to bail bonds executed on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 929:
No Set Aside of Bond Forfeit/Actual Notice

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	May 7, 2009
Introduced by:	Sen. Berger of Franklin	Prepared by:	Jennifer McGinnis Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition S929-CSRI-13 [v.9]

SUMMARY: The Proposed Committee Substitute (PCS) for Senate Bill 919 would amend requirements applicable to and clarify sanctions that may be imposed in conjunction with motions to set aside forfeitures; and (2) provide that a court may refuse to set aside a bond forfeiture only if, before executing the bond, the surety or bail agent had actual notice of a defendant's failure to appear on two or more prior occasions in the case for which the bond was executed.

CURRENT LAW: If a defendant released upon execution of bail fails to appear as required, the court must generally enter a forfeiture for the amount of the bail bond in favor of the State against the defendant and each surety on the bond (GS 15A-44.3). A forfeiture may be set aside, however, in certain circumstances (death of the defendant, incarceration elsewhere, etc) and if certain procedures are followed in accordance with the statute (GS 15A-44.3).

BILL ANALYSIS: The PCS would amend the statute governing the process pertaining to a motion to set aside a forfeiture by:

Section 1:

- Changing the period of time during which the district attorney or county board of education may file a written objection to a motion to set aside from ten to twenty days
- Providing that, in addition to failure to attach required documentation to a motion to set aside or attachment of fraudulent information, failure to sign a motion is grounds for sanctions and denial of the motion – unless failure to sign or attach the required documentation was unintentional. In addition, the PCS: (i) provides that a motion for sanctions and notice of same must be provided to a surety not later than 10 days before a hearing; and (ii) specifies the amount of sanctions to be imposed for failure to sign a motion (25% of bond), failure to attach required documentation (50% of bond), and attachment of fraudulent documentation (not less than 100%).

Section 2: With regard to cases in which a defendant has failed to appear on two or more prior occasions, which would give rise to a prohibition on setting aside a forfeiture under existing law, the PCS would amend the language to provide that a surety or bail agent must have actual notice (rather than "notice or actual knowledge" under current law) and specify that actual notice will only occur if the two prior failures to appear are indicated on the defendant's release order.

EFFECTIVE DATE: . Section 1 of the PCS would become effective October 1, 2009, and apply to all motions to set aside filed on or after that date. Section 2 of the PCS would become effective October 1, 2009, and apply to bail bonds executed on or after that date.

Referred to:	Judiciary II.

March 26, 2009

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT AMENDING THE LAWS UNDER THE NORTH CAROLINA HOME INSPECTOR LICENSURE ACT.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 143-151.51 reads as rewritten:

"§ 143-151.51. Requirements to be licensed as a home inspector.

(a) To be licensed as a home inspector, an applicant must do all of the following:

(1) Submit a completed application to the Board upon a form provided by the Board.

(2) Pass a licensing examination prescribed by the Board.

(3) Have minimum net assets or a bond in an amount determined by the Board. The amount may not be less than five thousand dollars ($5,000) nor more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000).

(4) Pay the applicable fees.

(5) Meet one of the following three conditions:

a. Have a high school diploma or its equivalent, have been engaged as a licensed associate home inspector for at least one year, and have completed 100 home inspections for compensation.

b. Have education and experience the Board considers to be equivalent to that required by ~~subpart~~ sub-subdivision a. of this subdivision.

c. Be licensed as a general contractor under Article 1 of Chapter 87 of the General Statutes, as an architect under Chapter 83A of the General Statutes, or as a professional engineer under Chapter 89C of the General Statutes.

(5a) Effective October 1, 2011, meet one of the following conditions:

a. Have satisfactorily completed an approved pre-licensing education program consisting of no more than 200 hours of instruction in subjects determined by the Board at least three years before the date the application is made. The instruction may include requirements of field training, classroom instruction, distance learning, peer review, or other educational formats approved by the Board.

b. Have education and experience the Board considers to be equivalent to the requirements of sub-subdivision a. of this subdivision.

c. Be licensed as a general contractor under Article 1 of Chapter 87 of the General Statutes, an architect under Chapter 83A of the General Statutes, or a professional engineer under Chapter 89C of the General Statutes. A person qualifying under this sub-subdivision shall remain in good standing with the person's respective licensing board.

(b) When an applicant has satisfactorily completed the requirements in subsection (a) of this section, the Board shall notify the applicant and the applicant shall submit evidence to the Board that the applicant has the following:

(1) General liability insurance in the amount of two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000), which insurance may be individual coverage or coverage under an employer policy, with coverage parameters established by the Board; and

(2) One of the following:

a. Minimum net assets in an amount determined by the Board, which amount may not be less than seventeen thousand five hundred dollars ($17,500) nor more than thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000);

b. A bond in an amount determined by the Board, which amount may not be less than seventeen thousand five hundred dollars ($17,500) nor more than thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000); or

c. Errors and omissions insurance in the amount of two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000), which insurance may be individual coverage or coverage under an employer policy, with coverage parameters established by the Board.

Upon determining that an applicant has satisfied the requirements of this subsection, the Board shall issue a home inspector license to the applicant.

(c) All home inspectors licensed on or before September 30, 2011, shall, no later than October 1, 2013, complete an abbreviated licensing education program prescribed by the Board of not less than 50 educational hours of instruction and not more than 75 educational hours of instruction. The instruction may include requirements of field training, classroom instruction, distance learning, peer review, or other educational formats approved by the Board. A home inspector licensed before October 1, 2006, shall not be required to complete the abbreviated licensing education program required by this subsection if the home inspector submits to the Board a request to waive the abbreviated licensing education program requirement and an affidavit stating that the home inspector has completed at least 750 home inspections that meet the standards of practice guidelines of two or more systems. The Board may require each licensed home inspector submitting a request for waiver and an affidavit to submit up to three inspection reports for the Board's random review. Upon reviewing the inspection reports, the Board may request further inspection reports or information from the home inspector or require the home inspector to complete the abbreviated licensing education program. The Board shall either approve or deny a request for waiver within 120 days from the date the request and the affidavit are submitted unless the Board requests that a home inspector submit three inspection reports for review or further information regarding the request.

(d) All associate licensed home inspectors with an active license on October 1, 2011, shall do one of the following:

(1) No later than September 30, 2013, complete the associate licensure program and the abbreviated licensing education program prescribed by the Board under subsection (c) of this section.

(2) Enroll in the new licensing program prescribed by the Board pursuant to subsection (a)(5a) of this section.

Upon completing one of the options under subdivisions (1) or (2) of this subsection, the Board shall terminate the associate status of the associate home inspector's license and the associate home inspector shall be issued a home inspector license. If an associate home inspector fails to complete the requirements of this subsection before October 1, 2013, the Board shall cancel the associate home inspector's license."

SECTION 2. G.S. 143-151.54 reads as rewritten:

"§ 143-151.54. Miscellaneous license provisions.

(a) License as Property of the Board and Display of License. – A license issued by the Board is the property of the Board. If the Board suspends or revokes a license issued by it, the individual to whom it is issued must give it to the Board upon demand. An individual who is licensed by the Board must display the license certificate in the manner prescribed by the Board. A license holder whose address changes must report the change to the Board.

(b) Report Criminal Convictions and Disciplinary Actions. – A license holder who is convicted of any felony or misdemeanor or is disciplined by any governmental agency in connection with any other occupational or professional license shall file with the Board a written report of the conviction or disciplinary action within 60 days of the final judgment, order, or disposition of the case."

SECTION 3. G.S. 143-151.55 reads as rewritten:

"§ 143-151.55. Renewal of license; inactive licenses; lapsed licenses.

(a) Renewal. – A license expires on September 30 of each year. A license may be renewed by filing an application for renewal with the Board and paying the required renewal fee. The Board must notify license holders at least 30 days before their licenses expire. The Board must renew the license of a person who files an application for renewal, pays the required renewal fee, has fulfilled the continuing education requirements set by the Board, and is not in violation of this Article when the application is filed. If the Board imposes a continuing education requirement as a condition of renewing a license, the Board must ensure that the courses needed to fulfill the requirement are available in all geographic areas of the State.

(b) Late Renewal. – The Board may provide for the late renewal of a license upon the payment of a late fee, but no late renewal of a license may be granted more than ~~five years~~one year after the license expires.

(c) Inactive License. – A license holder may apply to the Board to be placed on inactive status. An applicant for inactive status must follow the procedure set by the Board. A license holder who is granted inactive status is not subject to the license renewal requirements during the period the license holder remains on inactive status.

A license holder whose application is granted and is placed on inactive status may apply to the Board to be reinstated to active status at any time. To change a license from inactive status to active status, the license holder must complete the same number of continuing education credit hours that would have been required of the license holder had the license holder maintained an active license. The number of continuing education credit hours required to return an inactive license to active status shall not exceed 24 credit hours. The Board may set conditions for reinstatement to active status. An individual who is on inactive status and applies to be reinstated to active status must comply with the conditions set by the Board.

(d) Lapsed License. – The license of a licensed home inspector shall lapse if the licensee fails to continuously maintain minimum net assets or a bond as required by G.S. 143-151.58. The license of a licensed associate home inspector shall lapse if the licensee fails to continuously be employed by or affiliated with a licensed home inspector as required by G.S. 143-151.58."

SECTION 4. G.S. 143-151.56(a) is amended by adding the following new subdivision to read:

"(a) The Board may deny or refuse to issue or renew a license, may suspend or revoke a license, or may impose probationary conditions on a license if the license holder or applicant for licensure has engaged in any of the following conduct:

...

(8) Failed to maintain the requirements prescribed by G.S. 143-151.51(b)."

SECTION 5. G.S. 143-151.57(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Subsequent Application. – An individual who applied for a license as a home inspector and who failed the home inspector examination is not required to pay an additional application fee if the individual submits another application for a license as a home inspector. The individual must pay the examination fee, however, to be eligible to take the examination again. An individual may take the examination only once every 180 days."

SECTION 6. G.S. 143-151.58 reads as rewritten:

"§ 143-151.58. Duties of licensed home inspector or licensed associate home inspector.

(a) Home Inspection Report. – A licensed home inspector or licensed associate home inspector must give to each person for whom the inspector performs a home inspection for compensation a written report of the home inspection. The inspector must give the person the report by the date set in a written agreement by the parties to the home inspection. If the parties to the home inspection did not agree on a date in a written agreement, the inspector must give the person the report within three business days after the inspection was performed.

(a1) Summary Page. – A licensed home inspector or licensed associate home inspector must provide a summary page with each written report of the home inspection for each prepurchase home inspection of three or more systems. The summary page must describe any system or component of the home that does not function as intended, warrants further investigation by a specialist, or requires subsequent observation. The summary page may also describe any system or component that poses a safety concern. All other subject matter pertaining to the home inspection must appear in the body of the report. The summary page must contain the following statement: 'This summary page is not the entire report. The complete report may include additional information of interest or concern to you. It is strongly recommended that you promptly read the complete report. For information regarding the negotiability of any item in this report under the real estate purchase contract, contact your North Carolina real estate agent or an attorney.'

(a2) North Carolina State Building Code. – If a licensed home inspector or licensed associate home inspector includes a deficiency in the written report of the home inspection that is stated as a violation of the North Carolina State Residential Building Code, the home inspector or associate home inspector is responsible for determining the construction dates of the home, State, and municipal building codes in effect at the time of construction and must conduct the home inspection using the building codes in effect at the time of the construction.

(b) Insurance, Net Assets, and Bond ~~Required.~~Requirements. – A licensed home inspector must continuously maintain general liability insurance and minimum net ~~assets or~~ assets, a ~~bond~~ bond, or errors and omissions insurance as required in G.S. ~~143-151.51(3).~~143-151.51(b).

(c) Supervision. – A licensed associate home inspector must be continuously employed by or affiliated with a licensed home inspector as required in G.S. 143-151.52(5).

(d) Record Keeping. – All licensees under this Article shall make and keep full and accurate records of business done under their licenses. Records shall include the written, signed contract and the written report required by the standards of practice referred to in G.S. 143-151.49(a)(2) and any other information the Board requires by rule. Records shall be retained by licensees for not less than three years. Licensees shall furnish their records to the Board on demand."

SECTION 7. G.S. 143-151.64(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) Requirements. – The Board may establish programs of continuing education for licensees under this Article. A licensee subject to a program under this section shall present evidence to the Board upon the license renewal following initial licensure, and every renewal thereafter, that during the 12 months preceding the annual license expiration date the licensee has completed the required number of classroom hours of instruction in courses approved by the Board. Annual continuing education hour requirements shall be determined by the Board, but shall ~~not~~ be ~~more than~~no less than 12 credit ~~hours.~~hours and no more than 20 credit hours.

No member of the Board shall provide or sponsor a continuing education course under this section while that person is serving on the Board."

SECTION 8. Effective September 30, 2011, the Board shall not issue associate home inspector licenses. The Board shall not accept any applications for licensure as an associate home inspector after April 1, 2011.

SECTION 9. G.S. 143-151.51(a)(3) and (5) are repealed effective September 30, 2011.

SECTION 10. G.S. 143-151.52 is repealed effective September 30, 2013.

SECTION 11. Sections 2, 3, and 7 of this act become effective September 1, 2009. Sections 4 and 6 of this act become effective October 1, 2011. The remainder of this act is effective when it becomes law.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT AMENDING THE LAWS UNDER THE NORTH CAROLINA HOME INSPECTOR LICENSURE ACT.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 143-151.51 reads as rewritten:

"§ 143-151.51. Requirements to be licensed as a home inspector.

(a) To be licensed as a home inspector, an applicant must do all of the following:

(1) Submit a completed application to the Board upon a form provided by the Board.

(2) Pass a licensing examination prescribed by the Board.

(3) Have minimum net assets or a bond in an amount determined by the Board. The amount may not be less than five thousand dollars ($5,000) nor more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000).

(4) Pay the applicable fees.

(5) Meet one of the following three conditions:

a. Have a high school diploma or its equivalent, have been engaged as a licensed associate home inspector for at least one year, and have completed 100 home inspections for compensation.

b. Have education and experience the Board considers to be equivalent to that required by ~~subpart~~ sub-subdivision a. of this subdivision.

c. Be licensed as a general contractor under Article 1 of Chapter 87 of the General Statutes, as an architect under Chapter 83A of the General Statutes, or as a professional engineer under Chapter 89C of the General Statutes.

(b) All home inspectors licensed on or before September 30, 2011, shall, no later than October 1, 2013, complete an abbreviated licensing education program prescribed by the Board of not less than 50 educational hours of instruction and not more than 75 educational hours of instruction. The instruction may include requirements of field training, classroom instruction, distance learning, peer review, or other educational formats approved by the Board. A home inspector licensed before October 1, 2006, shall not be required to complete the abbreviated licensing education program required by this subsection if the home inspector submits to the Board a request to waive the abbreviated licensing education program requirement and an affidavit stating that the home inspector has completed at least 750 home inspections that meet the standards of practice guidelines of two or more systems. The Board may require each licensed home inspector submitting a request for waiver and an affidavit to submit up to three inspection reports for the Board's random review. Upon reviewing the inspection reports, the Board may request further inspection reports or information from the home inspector or require the home inspector to complete the abbreviated licensing education program. The Board shall either approve or deny a request for waiver within 120 days from the date the request and the affidavit are submitted unless the Board requests that a home inspector submit three inspection reports for review or further information regarding the request."

SECTION 1.1. Effective September 30, 2011, G.S. 143-151.49(b) is repealed.

SECTION 1.2. Effective September 30, 2011, G.S. 151.51(a)(5), as amended by Section 1 of this act reads as rewritten:

"(a) To be licensed as a home inspector, an applicant must do all of the following:

(5) Meet one of the following three conditions:

a. ~~Have a high school diploma or its equivalent, have been engaged as a licensed associate home inspector for at least one year, and have completed 100 home inspections for compensation.~~ Within three years preceding the date the application is made to the Board and prior to taking the licensing examination, have satisfactorily completed an approved pre-licensing education program consisting of no more than 200 hours of instruction in subjects determined by the Board. The instruction may include requirements of field training, classroom instruction, distance learning, peer review, or other educational formats approved by the Board.

b. Have education and experience the Board considers to be equivalent to that required by sub-subdivision a. of this subdivision.

c. Be licensed for at least six months as a general contractor under Article 1 of Chapter 87 of the General Statutes, as an architect under Chapter 83A of the General Statutes, or as a professional engineer under Chapter 89C of the General Statutes. A person qualifying under this sub-subdivision shall remain in good standing with that person's respective licensing board."

SECTION 1.3. Effective September 30, 2011, G.S. 143-151.51(a)(3) is repealed.

SECTION 1.4. Effective September 30, 2011, G.S. 143-151.51 is amended by adding two new subsections to read:

". . .

(a1) When an applicant has satisfactorily completed the requirements in subsection (a) of this section, the Board shall notify the applicant and the applicant shall submit evidence to the Board that the applicant has the following:

(1) General liability insurance in the amount of two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000), which insurance may be individual coverage or coverage under an employer policy, with coverage parameters established by the Board; and

(2) One of the following:

a. Minimum net assets in an amount determined by the Board, which amount may not be less than seventeen thousand five hundred dollars ($17,500) nor more than thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000);

b. A bond in an amount determined by the Board, which amount may not be less than seventeen thousand five hundred dollars ($17,500) nor more than thirty-five thousand dollars ($35,000); or

c. Errors and omissions insurance in the amount of two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000), which insurance may be individual coverage or coverage under an employer policy, with coverage parameters established by the Board.

Upon determining that an applicant has satisfied the requirements of this subsection, the Board shall issue a home inspector license to the applicant.

(c) All licensed associate home inspectors with an active license on October 1, 2011, shall do one of the following:

(1) No later than September 30, 2013, complete the associate licensure program and the abbreviated licensing education program prescribed by the Board under subsection (c) of this section.

(2) Enroll in the new licensing program prescribed by the Board pursuant to subsection (a)(5) of this section.

Upon completing one of the options under subdivisions (1) or (2) of this subsection and passing the examination required by subdivision (2) of subsection (a) of this section, the Board shall terminate the associate status of the associate home inspector's license and the licensed associate home inspector shall be issued a home inspector license. If an associate home inspector fails to complete the requirements of this subsection before October 1, 2013, the Board shall cancel the associate home inspector's license."

SECTION 1.5. The Board shall not accept any applications for licensure as an associate home inspector after April 1, 2011. Beginning September 30, 2011, the Board shall not issue new associate home inspector licenses. The Board may renew existing associate home licenses on September 30, 2012.

SECTION 2. G.S. 143-151.54 reads as rewritten:

"§ 143-151.54. Miscellaneous license provisions.

(a) License as Property of the Board and Display of License. – A license issued by the Board is the property of the Board. If the Board suspends or revokes a license issued by it, the individual to whom it is issued must give it to the Board upon demand. An individual who is licensed by the Board must display the license certificate in the manner prescribed by the Board. A license holder whose address changes must report the change to the Board.

(b) Report Criminal Convictions and Disciplinary Actions. – A license holder who is convicted of any felony or misdemeanor or is disciplined by any governmental agency in connection with any other occupational or professional license shall file with the Board a written report of the conviction or disciplinary action within 60 days of the final judgment, order, or disposition of the case."

SECTION 3. G.S. 143-151.55(b) and (c) read as rewritten:

". . .

(b) Late Renewal. – The Board may provide for the late renewal of a license upon the payment of a late fee, but no late renewal of a license may be granted more than ~~five years~~ one year after the license expires.

(c) Inactive License. – A license holder may apply to the Board to be placed on inactive status. An applicant for inactive status must follow the procedure set by the Board. A license holder who is granted inactive status is not subject to the license renewal requirements during the period the license holder remains on inactive status.

A license holder whose application is granted and is placed on inactive status may apply to the Board to be reinstated to active status at any time. To change a license from inactive status to active status, the license holder must complete the same number of continuing education credit hours that would have been required of the license holder had the license holder maintained an active license. The number of continuing education credit hours required to return an inactive license to active status shall not exceed 24 credit hours. The Board may set conditions for reinstatement to active status. An individual who is on inactive status and applies to be reinstated to active status must comply with the conditions set by the Board.

SECTION 3.1. Effective September 30, 2011, G.S. 143-151.55(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) Lapsed License. – The license of a licensed home inspector shall lapse if the licensee fails to continuously maintain ~~minimum net assets or a bond as required by G.S. 143-151.58~~the requirements provided in G.S. 143-151.58(b). The license of a licensed associate home inspector shall lapse if the licensee fails to continuously be employed by or affiliated with a licensed home inspector as required by G.S. 143-151.58."

SECTION 4. Effective September 30, 2011, G.S. 143-151.56(a) is amended by adding the following new subdivision to read:

"(a) The Board may deny or refuse to issue or renew a license, may suspend or revoke a license, or may impose probationary conditions on a license if the license holder or applicant for licensure has engaged in any of the following conduct:

...

(8) Failed to maintain the requirements prescribed by G.S. 143-151.58(b)."

SECTION 5. G.S. 143-151.57(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Subsequent Application. – An individual who applied for a license as a home inspector and who failed the home inspector examination is not required to pay an additional application fee if the individual submits another application for a license as a home inspector. The individual must pay the examination fee, however, to be eligible to take the examination again. An individual may take the examination only once every 180 days."

SECTION 6. G.S. 143-151.58 is amended by adding two new subsections to read:

SENATE BILL 1007:
Amend Home Inspector Licensure Laws

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	May 6, 2009
Introduced by:	Sen. Hoyle	Prepared by:	Kory Goldsmith
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition S1007-CSRCf-22		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 1007 amends the laws related to the licensing of home inspectors to require a pre-licensing education requirement, certain insurance requirements, and phases-out the licensure category of "associate" home inspector. It also clarifies what information is to be included on the Summary page of a home inspection, requires home inspectors to self-report criminal or other disciplinary actions and increases from 12 to 20 hours of continuing education.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 amends G.S. 143-151.51 to require home inspectors licensed between October 1, 2006, and September 30, 2011, to complete an abbreviated licensing education program of not less than 50, but not more than 75 hours of instruction as determined by the licensing board. These inspectors must complete his requirement no later than October 1, 2013. Inspectors licensed prior to October 1, 2006, are not equired to complete the educational program if they submit a request to waive the requirement and provide an affidavit showing the inspector has conducted at least 750 home inspections that meet certain standard of practice guidelines. The Board may require the inspector to submit up to three inspection reports for review. The Board has 120 days to approve or deny the request for a waiver.

Section 1.1 repeals a provision related to the contents of the licensure exam that requires an emphasis on knowledge gained through experience.

Section 1.2 also amends G.S. 143-151.51 to require pre-licensing educational requirements, to require that a person who qualifies to take the licensing exam because they have a general contractor's, architect's or professional engineer's license to wait at least 6 months after receiving that license before taking the home inspector license exam. It also requires these individuals to remain in good standing with their respective licensing boards. Currently, there are no pre-licensing educational requirements and persons with licenses these fields are eligible to take the exam without any experience requirements. This provision becomes effective September 30, 2011.

Section 1.3 repeals a previous requirement that the inspector have a net worth of between $5,000 and $10,000.

Section 1.4 creates new requirements regarding a home inspector's ability to pay claims. Beginning September 30, 2011, an inspector must carry general liability insurance of at least $250,000 and one of the following: minimum net assets as determined by the Board, but not less than $17,500 and not more than $35,000; have a bond in a similar amount; or carry errors and omissions insurance in the amount of $250,000.

his section also phases-out the associate home inspector license. Persons holding an active associate nome inspector license on October 1, 2011 will have until September 30, 2013 to become a licensed home inspector. These provisions become effective September 30, 2011.

Section 1.5 prohibits the Board from issuing associate home inspector licenses after October 1, 2011 and from admitting individuals into the associate program after April 1, 2011.

Section 2 requires home inspectors to report to the Board if the inspector is convicted of any felony or a misdemeanor, or if the member is disciplined by a governmental agency or another licensing board.

Section 3 reduces from 5 years to 1 year the amount of time that a license may be renewed as a late renewal. It also requires a member to take a certain number of continuing education hours in order to change a license from inactive to active status.

Section 3.1 requires that an inspector must complete the abbreviated education requirements or apply for a waiver in order to change a license from inactive to active status. This provision becomes effective September 30, 2011.

Section 4 makes failure to meet the abbreviated education or waiver requirements grounds for the Board to suspend or revoke a license. This provision becomes effective when the education and waiver requirements become effective.

Section 5 provides that an individual who fails to pass the licensure exam must wait at least 180 before retaking the exam.

Section 6 provides what information must be included in the Summary page of a home inspection. The information in the page would be limited to items that do not function as intended, warrant further investigation by a specialist, or does not function as intended taking into account normal wear and tear. The Summary page may contain a description of any system or component that poses a safety concern. An inspector may include a code deficiency in the report, but must determine the construction date of the home and the applicable code requirement when the home was built.

Section Sections 6.1 and 6.2 contain conforming amendments related to record-keeping and financial responsibility.

Section 7 increases the number of continuing education hours from 12 to 20.

Section 8 removes some obsolete dates.

Sections 9 – 14 repeal statutory references to associate home inspectors once that license no longer exists.

EFFECTIVE DATE: Except as otherwise provided, the requirements become effective October 1, 2009.

S1007-SMRC-31(CSRCf-22) v1

SENATE BILL 1007:
Amend Home Inspector Licensure Laws

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	May 6, 2009
Introduced by:	Sen. Hoyle	Prepared by:	Kory Goldsmith Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition S1007-CSRCF-22

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 1007 amends the laws related to the licensing of home inspectors to require a pre-licensing education requirement, certain insurance requirements, and phases-out the licensure category of "associate" home inspector. It also clarifies what information is to be included on the Summary page of a home inspection, requires home inspectors to self-report criminal or other disciplinary actions and increases from 12 to 20 hours of continuing education.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 amends G.S. 143-151.51 to require home inspectors licensed between October 1, 2006, and September 30, 2011, to complete an abbreviated licensing education program of not less than 50, but not more than 75 hours of instruction as determined by the licensing board. These inspectors must complete his requirement no later than October 1, 2013. Inspectors licensed prior to October 1, 2006, are not required to complete the educational program if they submit a request to waive the requirement and provide an affidavit showing the inspector has conducted at least 750 home inspections that meet certain standard of practice guidelines. The Board may require the inspector to submit up to three inspection reports for review. The Board has 120 days to approve or deny the request for a waiver.

Section 1.1 repeals a provision related to the contents of the licensure exam that requires an emphasis on knowledge gained through experience.

Section 1.2 also amends G.S. 143-151.51 to require pre-licensing educational requirements, to require that a person who qualifies to take the licensing exam because they have a general contractor's, architect's or professional engineer's license to wait at least 6 months after receiving that license before taking the home inspector license exam. It also requires these individuals to remain in good standing with their respective licensing boards. Currently, there are no pre-licensing educational requirements and persons with licenses these fields are eligible to take the exam without any experience requirements. This provision becomes effective September 30, 2011.

Section 1.3 repeals a previous requirement that the inspector have a net worth of between $5,000 and $10,000.

Section 1.4 creates new requirements regarding a home inspector's ability to pay claims. Beginning September 30, 2011, an inspector must carry general liability insurance of at least $250,000 and one of the following: minimum net assets as determined by the Board, but not less than $17,500 and not more than $35,000; have a bond in a similar amount; or carry errors and omissions insurance in the amount of $50,000.

This section also phases-out the associate home inspector license. Persons holding an active associate home inspector license on October 1, 2011 will have until September 30, 2013 to become a licensed home inspector. These provisions become effective September 30, 2011.

Section 1.5 prohibits the Board from issuing associate home inspector licenses after October 1, 2011 and from admitting individuals into the associate program after April 1, 2011.

Section 2 requires home inspectors to report to the Board if the inspector is convicted of any felony or a misdemeanor, or if the member is disciplined by a governmental agency or another licensing board.

Section 3 reduces from 5 years to 1 year the amount of time that a license may be renewed as a late renewal. It also requires a member to take a certain number of continuing education hours in order to change a license from inactive to active status.

Section 3.1 requires that an inspector must complete the abbreviated education requirements or apply for a waiver in order to change a license from inactive to active status. This provision becomes effective September 30, 2011.

Section 4 makes failure to meet the abbreviated education or waiver requirements grounds for the Board to suspend or revoke a license. This provision becomes effective when the education and waiver requirements become effective.

Section 5 provides that an individual who fails to pass the licensure exam must wait at least 180 before retaking the exam.

Section 6 provides what information must be included in the Summary page of a home inspection. The information in the page would be limited to items that do not function as intended, warrant further investigation by a specialist, or does not function as intended taking into account normal wear and tear. The Summary page may contain a description of any system or component that poses a safety concern. An inspector may include a code deficiency in the report, but must determine the construction date of the home and the applicable code requirement when the home was built.

Section Sections 6.1 and 6.2 contain conforming amendments related to record-keeping and financial responsibility.

Section 7 increases the number of continuing education hours from 12 to 20.

Section 8 removes some obsolete dates.

Sections 9 – 14 repeal statutory references to associate home inspectors once that license no longer exists.

EFFECTIVE DATE: Except as otherwise provided, the requirements become effective October 1, 2009.

b. Was issued a warrant for failing to appear.
c. Was arrested for any offense while on release through the pretrial release program.

(11) Any additional information deemed necessary by the county commissioners of the county in which the program is operating to assess the performance and cost-efficiency of the pretrial release program."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective October 1, 2009.

SENATE BILL 1013:
Citizens' Right to Know Act/Pretrial Release

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	May 6, 2009
Introduced by:	Sen. Berger of Franklin	Prepared by:	Brenda J. Carter
Analysis of:	First Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 1013 would amend the NC Public Records Act to require a pretrial release program to prepare and maintain a public register providing information about the pretrial release program and the defendants released through the program, and to require that a copy of that register be located in the office of the clerk of court. The bill would also require that each pretrial release program submit an annual report to the county commissioners and the clerk of court in the appropriate county.

CURRENT LAW: G.S. 15A-531 through 15A-547 contain the basic provisions on pretrial release. Under G.S. 15A-535(a), the senior resident superior court judge, in consultation with chief district court judge, issues pretrial release policies in each judicial district. Generally, under G.S. 15A-533(b), defendants charged with a noncapital offense are entitled to have pretrial release conditions determined, except in specified circumstances. Defendants charged with a capital offense do not have the right to have pretrial release conditions determined; however, a judge has the discretion to authorize pretrial release.

Several North Carolina counties have pretrial services programs. In any county in which there is a pretrial release program, the senior resident superior court judge may, after consultation with the chief district court judge, order that defendants accepted by a pretrial release program for supervision be released by judicial officials to the supervision of such programs, and be subject to the program's rules and regulations. Some programs primarily gather information through interviews and record checks of defendants; others may arrange for pretrial release for defendants before first appearance and then supervise them after release; and others become closely involved with defendants, obtaining substance abuse treatment for them and coordinating educational and employment activities. Defendants may have to comply with various conditions, such as reporting periodically to a pretrial services caseworker, obtaining substance abuse treatment, etc.[1]

BILL ANALYSIS: Senate Bill 1013 would amend the NC Public Records Act by adding a new Article entitled the "Citizens Right to Know Act". The Act would require each pretrial release program to prepare a register that would be located in the office of the clerk of superior court in the county where the program is located. The register, which would be updated on a weekly basis, would contain specified information about the pretrial release program, including:

- Name, location, and funding source of the program
- Number of defendants/indigent defendants assessed and interviewed for pretrial release
- Names and number of defendants/indigent defendants accepted into the program
- Charges filed against and the case numbers of defendants accepted into the program
- The nature of any prior criminal conviction of a defendant accepted into the program
- Court appearances required of defendants accepted into the program

[1] NC Defender Manual, May 1998,Institute of Government

- The date of each defendant's failure to appear for a scheduled court appearance
- The number of warrants issued for a defendant's arrest for failure to appear in court
- The number and type of program noncompliance infractions committed by a defendant in the pretrial release program and whether the pretrial release program recommended that the court revoke the defendant's release.

Each pretrial release program would also be required to submit an annual report by March 31 of each year, containing information for the preceding calendar year. The report would include specified information about offenders served by the program as well as information concerning program operations, finances, and budget, and including the amount of public funding. The annual report, which would be submitted to the county commissioners and to the clerk of superior court in the county where the program is located, may contain any additional information deemed necessary by the county commissioners to assess the performance and cost-efficiency of the program. The bill would require that the report be readily accessible to the public.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The bill would become effective October 1, 2009

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE PROBATION OFFICERS TO TRANSFER LOW-RISK MISDEMEANANTS WITH NO SPECIAL CONDITIONS TO UNSUPERVISED PROBATION.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 15A-1343(g) reads as rewritten:

"(g) Probation Officer May Determine Payment ~~Schedules.~~Schedules and May Transfer Low-Risk Misdemeanants to Unsupervised Probation. – If a person placed on supervised probation is required as a condition of that probation to pay any moneys to the clerk of superior court, the court may delegate to a probation officer the responsibility to determine the payment schedule. The court may also authorize the probation officer to transfer the person to unsupervised probation after all the moneys are paid to the clerk. If the probation officer transfers a person to unsupervised probation, he must notify the clerk of that action. In addition, a probation officer may transfer a misdemeanant from supervised to unsupervised probation if the misdemeanant is not subject to any special conditions and was placed on probation solely for the collection of court-ordered payments, and the risk assessment shows the misdemeanant to be a low-risk offender."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective July 1, 2009.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO CLARIFY TYPES OF NUISANCES WHEREIN OBSCENE OR LEWD MATTER OR OTHER CONDUCT PROHIBITED IS INVOLVED.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 19-1.2(1) reads as rewritten:

"(1) Any and every place in the State where lewd films are publicly exhibited as a predominant ~~and regular~~ course of business, or possessed for the purpose of such exhibition;".

SECTION 2. G.S. 19-1.1(1a) reads as rewritten:

"(1a) "Knowledge" or "knowledge of such nuisance" means having knowledge of the contents and character of the patently offensive sexual conduct which appears in the lewd matter, or knowledge of the acts of lewdness. With regard to nuisances involving assignation, prostitution, gambling, the illegal possession or sale of alcoholic beverages, the illegal possession or sale of controlled substances as defined in the North Carolina Controlled Substances Act, or repeated acts which create and constitute a breach of the ~~peace,~~peace, or repeated activities or conditions which violate a local ordinance regulating sexually oriented businesses, or evidence that the defendant knew or by the exercise of due diligence should have known of the acts or conduct constitutes proof of knowledge."

SECTION 3. G.S. 19-1.2(6) reads as rewritten:

"(6) Every place ~~which, as a regular course of business,~~ which is used for the purposes of lewdness, assignation, gambling, the illegal possession or sale of alcoholic beverages, the illegal possession or sale of controlled substances as defined in the North Carolina Controlled Substances Act, or prostitution, and every such place in or upon which acts of lewdness, assignation, gambling, the illegal possession or sale of alcoholic beverages, the illegal possession or sale of controlled substances as defined in the North Carolina Controlled Substances Act, or prostitution, are held or occur. Knowledge of, acquiescence to, or participation in activities proscribed by this Chapter by any person charged with maintaining a nuisance shall be prima facie evidence that the person used the place for the purposes of such activities."

SECTION 4. G.S. 19-1.3(3) reads as rewritten:

"(3) All money or other valuable consideration, vehicles, conveyances, or other property received or used in gambling, prostitution, the illegal sale of alcoholic ~~beverages or~~beverages, the illegal sale of substances proscribed under the North Carolina Controlled Substances ~~Act,~~Act, or the operation of a sexually oriented business in violation of G.S. 19-1(b1).~~as well as the furniture and movable contents of a place used in connection with such prohibited conduct.~~"

SECTION 5. G.S. 19-1.3 is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(4) The furniture and movable contents of a place used in connection with conduct prohibited by G.S. 19-1(a), (b), or (b1)."

SECTION 6. G.S. 19-2.1 reads as rewritten:

"§ 19-2.1. Action for abatement; injunction.

Wherever a nuisance is kept, maintained, or exists, as defined in this Article, the Attorney General, district attorney, county, municipality, or any private citizen of the county may maintain a civil action in the name of the State of North Carolina to abate a nuisance under this Chapter, perpetually to enjoin all persons from maintaining the same, and to enjoin the use of any structure or thing adjudged to be a nuisance under this Chapter; provided, however, that no private citizen may maintain such action where the alleged nuisance involves the illegal possession or sale of obscene or lewd matter.

Upon request from the Attorney General, district attorney, county or municipality, including the sheriff or chief of police of any county or municipality, the Alcohol Law Enforcement Division of the Department of Crime Control and Public Safety or any other law enforcement agency with jurisdiction may investigate alleged public nuisances and make recommendations regarding actions to abate the public nuisances.

If an action is instituted by a private person, the complainant shall execute a bond prior to the issuance of a temporary restraining order or a ~~temporary~~ preliminary injunction, with good and sufficient surety to be approved by the court or clerk thereof, in the sum of not less than one thousand dollars ($1,000), to secure to the party enjoined the damages he may sustain if such action is wrongfully brought, not prosecuted to final judgment, or is dismissed, or is not maintained, or if it is finally decided that the temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction ought not to have been granted. The party enjoined shall have recourse against said bond for all damages suffered, including damages to his property, person, or character and including reasonable attorney's fees incurred by him in making defense to said action. No bond shall be required of the prosecuting attorney, the Attorney General, county, or municipality, and no action shall be maintained against any public official or public entity, their employees, or agents for investigating or maintaining an action for abatement of a nuisance under the provisions of this Chapter."

SECTION 7. G.S. 19-2.3 reads as rewritten:

"§ 19-2.3. Temporary order restraining removal of personal property from premises; service; punishment.

Where such application for a preliminary injunction is made, the court may, on application of the complainant showing good cause, issue an ex parte temporary restraining order in accordance with G.S. 1A-1, Rule 65(b), preserving the status quo and restraining the defendant and all other persons from removing or in any manner interfering with any evidence specifically described, or in any manner removing or interfering with the personal property and contents of the place where such nuisance is alleged to exist, until the decision of the court granting or refusing such preliminary injunction and until further order of the court thereon. Nothing herein shall be interpreted to allow the prior restraint of the distribution of any matter or the sale of the stock in trade, but an inventory and full accounting of all business transactions involving alleged obscene or lewd matter thereafter shall be required. The inventory provisions provided by this section shall not apply to nuisances occurring at a private dwelling place unless the court finds the private dwelling place is used for profit.

Any person, firm, or corporation enjoined pursuant to this section may file with the court a motion to dissolve any temporary restraining order. Such a motion shall be heard within 24 hours of the time a copy of the motion is served on the complaining party, or on the next day the superior courts are open in the district, whichever is later. At such hearing the complaining party shall have the burden of showing why the restraining order should be continued.

In the event a temporary restraining order is issued, it may be served in accordance with the provisions of G.S. 1A-1, Rule 4, or may be served by handing to and leaving a copy of such order with any person in charge of such place or residing therein, or by posting a copy thereof in a conspicuous place at or upon one or more of the principal doors or entrances to such place, or by such service under said ~~Rule 4, delivery and posting.~~ Rule 4. The officer serving such temporary restraining order shall forthwith enter upon the property and make and return into court an inventory of the personal property and contents situated in and used in conducting or maintaining such nuisance.

Any violation of such temporary restraining order is a contempt of court, and where such order is posted, mutilation or removal thereof, while the same remains in force, is a contempt of court, provided such posted order contains therein a notice to that effect."

SECTION 8. G.S. 19-3(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) The action provided for in this Chapter ~~shall~~ shall, on application of either of the parties, be set down for trial at the first term of the court and shall have precedence over all other cases except crimes, election contests, or injunctions."

SECTION 9. G.S. 19-6 reads as rewritten:

"§ 19-6. Civil penalty; forfeiture; accounting; lien as to expenses of abatement; invalidation of lease.

Lewd matter is contraband, and there are no property rights therein. All personal property, including all money and other considerations, declared to be a nuisance under the provisions of G.S. 19-1.3 and other sections of this Article, are subject to forfeiture to the local government and are recoverable as damages in the county wherein such matter is sold, exhibited or otherwise used. Such property including moneys may be traced to and shall be recoverable from persons who, under G.S. 19-2.4, have knowledge of the nuisance at the time such moneys are received by them.

Upon judgment against the defendant or defendants in legal proceedings brought pursuant to this Article, an accounting shall be made by such defendant or defendants of all moneys received by them which have been declared to be a nuisance under this Article. An amount equal to the sum of all moneys estimated to have been taken in as gross income from such unlawful commercial activity shall be forfeited to the general funds of the city and county governments wherein such activity took place, to be shared equally, as a forfeiture of the fruits of an unlawful enterprise, and as partial restitution for damages done to the public welfare; provided, however, that no provision of this Article shall authorize the recovery of any moneys or gross income received from the sale of any book, magazine, or exhibition of any motion picture prior to the issuance of a preliminary injunction. Where the action is brought pursuant to this Article, special injury need not be proven, and the costs of abatement are a lien on both the real and personal property used in maintaining the nuisance. Costs of abatement include, but are not limited to, reasonable attorney's fees and court costs.

Upon the filing of the action, the plaintiff may file a notice of lis pendens in the official records of the county where the property is located.

If it is judicially found after an adversary hearing pursuant to this Article that a tenant or occupant of a building or tenement, under a lawful title, uses such place for the purposes of lewdness, assignation, prostitution, gambling, sale or possession of illegal alcoholic beverages or substances proscribed under the North Carolina Controlled Substances Act, or repeated acts which create and constitute a breach of the ~~peace,~~ peace, or repeated acts or omissions that violate a local ordinance regulating sexually oriented businesses, or such use makes void the lease or other title under which he holds, at the option of the owner, and, without any act of the owner, causes the right of possession to revert and vest in such owner.

The clear proceeds of civil penalties and forfeitures provided for in this section, except for penalties and properties that accrue to local governments instead of the State, shall be remitted to the Civil Penalty and Forfeiture Fund in accordance with G.S. 115C-457.2."

SECTION 10. G.S. 19-6.1 reads as rewritten:

"§ 19-6.1. Forfeiture of real property.

In all actions where a preliminary injunction, permanent injunction, or an order of abatement is issued pursuant to this Article in which the nuisance consists of or includes at least two prior occurrences within five years of the manufacture, possession with intent to sell, or sale of controlled substances as defined by the North Carolina Controlled Substances Act, two prior occurrences of the possession of any controlled substance included within Schedule I or II of that Act, or two prior convictions within five years of violation of G.S. 14-72.7, the real property on which the nuisance exists or is maintained is subject to forfeiture in accordance with this section. In the case of the two prior convictions of G.S. 14-72.7, the convictions shall not arise out of the same transaction or occurrence.

If all of the owners of the property are defendants in the action, the plaintiff, other than a plaintiff who is a private citizen, may request forfeiture of the real property as part of the relief sought. If forfeiture is requested, and if jurisdiction over all defendant owners is established, upon judgment against the defendant or defendants, the court shall order forfeiture as follows:

(1) If the court finds by clear and convincing evidence that all the owners either (i) have participated in maintaining the nuisance on the property, or (ii) prior to the action had written notice from the plaintiff, or any governmental agent or entity authorized to bring an action pursuant to this Chapter, that the nuisance existed or was maintained on the property and have not made good faith efforts to stop the nuisance from occurring or recurring, the court shall order that the property be forfeited;

(2) If the court finds that one or more of the owners did not participate in maintaining the nuisance on the property or did not have written notice from the plaintiff prior to the action that the nuisance existed or was maintained on the property, the court shall not order forfeiture of the property immediately upon judgment. However, if after judgment and an order directing the defendants to abate the nuisance, the nuisance either continues, begins again, or otherwise recurs within five years of the order and the defendants have not made good faith efforts to abate the nuisance, the plaintiff may petition the court for forfeiture. Upon such petition, the defendant owner or owners shall be given notice and an opportunity to appear and be heard at a hearing to determine the continuation or recurrence of the nuisance. If, in this hearing (i) the plaintiff establishes by clear and convincing evidence that the nuisance, with the owner's or owners' knowledge, has either continued, begun again, or otherwise recurred, and (ii) the defendants fail to establish that they have made and are continuing to make good faith efforts to abate the nuisance, the court shall order that the property be forfeited.

For the purposes of this section, factors which may evidence good faith by the defendant to abate the nuisance include but are not limited to (i) cooperation with law enforcement authorities to abate the nuisance; (ii) lease restrictions prohibiting the illegal possession or sale of ~~narcotic drugs~~controlled substances and an action to evict a tenant for any violations of the lease provision; (iii) a criminal record check of prospective tenants; and (iv) reference checks of prior residency of prospective tenants.

Upon an order of forfeiture, title to the property shall vest in the school board of the county in which the property is located. If at the time of forfeiture the property is subject to a lien or security interest of a person not participating in the maintenance of the nuisance, the school board shall either (i) pay an amount to that person satisfying the lien or security interest; or (ii) sell the property and satisfy the lien or security interest from the proceeds of the sale. If the property is not subject to any lien or security interest at the time of forfeiture, the school board may hold, maintain, lease, sell, or otherwise dispose of the property as it sees fit.

Upon the filing of the action, the plaintiff may file a notice of lis pendens in the official records of the county where the property is located. If the plaintiff files a notice of lis pendens, any person purchasing or obtaining an interest in the property thereafter shall be considered to have notice of the alleged nuisance, and shall forfeit his interest in the property upon a judgment of forfeiture in favor of the plaintiff.

If in the same action in which real property is forfeited the court finds that a tenant or occupant of the property participated in or maintained the nuisance, the lease or other title under which the tenant or occupant holds is void, and the right of possession vests in the new owner. Upon forfeiture, the rights of innocent tenants occupying separate units of the property who were not involved in the nuisance at the time the action was filed shall be in accordance with any relevant lease provisions in effect at the time or, in the absence of relevant lease provisions, in accordance with the law applying to other tenants or occupants of property that is sold, foreclosed upon, or otherwise obtained by new owners."

SECTION 11. This act becomes effective October 1, 2009, and applies to offenses committed and abatement actions commenced on or after that date.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO CLARIFY TYPES OF NUISANCES WHEREIN OBSCENE OR LEWD MATTER OR OTHER CONDUCT PROHIBITED IS INVOLVED AND TO PROVIDE THAT INDIVIDUALS ENGAGED IN A PATTERN OF STREET GANG ACTIVITY ARE SUBJECT TO INJUNCTIONS PURSUANT TO CHAPTER 19 OF THE GENERAL STATUTES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 19-1.2 reads as rewritten:

"§ 19-1.2. Types of nuisances.

The following are declared to be nuisances wherein obscene or lewd matter or other conduct prohibited in G.S. 19-1(a) is involved:

(1) Any and every place in the State where lewd films are publicly exhibited as a predominant ~~and regular~~ course of business, or possessed for the purpose of such ~~exhibition;~~exhibition.

(2) Any and every place in the State where a lewd film is publicly and repeatedly exhibited, or possessed for the purpose of such ~~exhibition;~~exhibition.

(3) Any and every lewd film which is publicly exhibited, or possessed for such purpose at a place which is a nuisance under this ~~Article;~~Article.

(4) Any and every place of business in the State in which lewd publications constitute a principal or substantial part of the stock in ~~trade;~~trade.

(5) Any and every lewd publication possessed at a place which is a nuisance under this ~~Article;~~Article.

(6) Every place ~~which, as a regular course of business,~~ which is used for the purposes of lewdness, assignation, gambling, the illegal possession or sale of alcoholic beverages, the illegal possession or sale of controlled substances as defined in the North Carolina Controlled Substances Act, or prostitution, and every such place in or upon which acts of lewdness, assignation, gambling, the illegal possession or sale of alcoholic beverages, the illegal possession or sale of controlled substances as defined in the North Carolina Controlled Substances Act, or prostitution, are held or occur. Knowledge of, acquiescence to, or participation in activities proscribed by this Chapter by any person charged with maintaining a nuisance shall be prima facie evidence that the person used the place for the purposes of such activities."

SECTION 2. G.S. 19-1.1(1a) reads as rewritten:

"§ 19-1.1. Definitions.

As used in this Chapter relating to illegal possession or sale of obscene matter or to the other conduct prohibited in G.S. 19-1(a), the following definitions shall apply:

...

(1a) "Knowledge" or "knowledge of such nuisance" means having knowledge of the contents and character of the patently offensive sexual conduct which appears in the lewd matter, or knowledge of the acts of lewdness. With regard to nuisances involving assignation, prostitution, gambling, the illegal possession or sale of alcoholic beverages, the illegal possession or sale of controlled substances as defined in the North Carolina Controlled Substances Act, or repeated acts which create and constitute a breach of the ~~peace;~~peace, or repeated activities or conditions which violate a local ordinance regulating sexually oriented businesses, or evidence that the defendant knew or by the exercise of due diligence should have known of the acts or conduct constitutes proof of knowledge."

SECTION 3. G.S. 19-1.3 reads as rewritten:

"§ 19-1.3. Personal property as a nuisance; knowledge of nuisance.

The following are also declared to be nuisances, as personal property used in conducting and maintaining a nuisance under this Chapter:

(1) All moneys paid as admission price to the exhibition of any lewd film found to be a ~~nuisance;~~nuisance.

(2) All valuable consideration received for the sale of any lewd publication which is found to be a ~~nuisance;~~nuisance.

(3) All money or other valuable consideration, vehicles, conveyances, or other property received or used in gambling, prostitution, the illegal sale of alcoholic ~~beverages or~~beverages, the illegal sale of substances proscribed under the North Carolina Controlled Substances ~~Act;~~Act, or the operation of a sexually oriented business in violation of G.S. 19-1(b1).~~as well as the furniture and movable contents of a place used in connection with such prohibited conduct.~~

(4) The furniture and movable contents of a place used in connection with conduct prohibited by G.S. 19-1(a), (b), or (b1).

From and after service of a copy of the notice of hearing of the application for a preliminary injunction, provided for in G.S. 19-2.4 upon the place, or its manager, or acting manager, or person then in charge, all such parties are deemed to have knowledge of the contents of the restraining order and the use of the place occurring thereafter. Where the circumstantial proof warrants a determination that a person had knowledge of the nuisance prior to such service of process, the court may make such finding."

SECTION 4. G.S. 19-2.1 reads as rewritten:

"§ 19-2.1. Action for abatement; injunction.

Wherever a nuisance is kept, maintained, or exists, as defined in this Article, the Attorney General, district attorney, county, municipality, or any private citizen of the county may maintain a civil action in the name of the State of North Carolina to abate a nuisance under this Chapter, perpetually to enjoin all persons from maintaining the same, and to enjoin the use of any structure or thing adjudged to be a nuisance under this Chapter; provided, however, that no private citizen may maintain such action where the alleged nuisance involves the illegal possession or sale of obscene or lewd matter.

Upon request from the Attorney General, district attorney, county or municipality, including the sheriff or chief of police of any county or municipality, the Alcohol Law Enforcement Division of the Department of Crime Control and Public Safety or any other law enforcement agency with jurisdiction may investigate alleged public nuisances and make recommendations regarding actions to abate the public nuisances.

If an action is instituted by a private person, the complainant shall execute a bond prior to the issuance of a temporary restraining order or a ~~temporary~~ preliminary injunction, with good and sufficient surety to be approved by the court or clerk thereof, in the sum of not less than one thousand dollars ($1,000), to secure to the party enjoined the damages he may sustain if such action is wrongfully brought, not prosecuted to final judgment, or is dismissed, or is not maintained, or if it is finally decided that the temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction ought not to have been granted. The party enjoined shall have recourse against said bond for all damages suffered, including damages to his property, person, or character and including reasonable attorney's fees incurred by him in making defense to said action. No bond shall be required of the prosecuting attorney, the Attorney General, county, or municipality, and no action shall be maintained against any public official or public entity, their employees, or agents for investigating or maintaining an action for abatement of a nuisance under the provisions of this Chapter."

SECTION 5. G.S. 19-2.3 reads as rewritten:

"§ 19-2.3. Temporary order restraining removal of personal property from premises; service; punishment.

Where such application for a preliminary injunction is made, the court may, on application of the complainant showing good cause, issue an ex parte temporary restraining order in accordance with G.S. 1A-1, Rule 65(b), preserving the status quo and restraining the defendant and all other persons from removing or in any manner interfering with any evidence specifically described, or in any manner removing or interfering with the personal property and contents of the place where such nuisance is alleged to exist, until the decision of the court granting or refusing such preliminary injunction and until further order of the court thereon. Nothing herein shall be interpreted to allow the prior restraint of the distribution of any matter or the sale of the stock in trade, but an inventory and full accounting of all business transactions involving alleged obscene or lewd matter thereafter shall be required. The inventory provisions provided by this section shall not apply to nuisances occurring at a private dwelling place unless the court finds the private dwelling place is used for profit.

Any person, firm, or corporation enjoined pursuant to this section may file with the court a motion to dissolve any temporary restraining order. Such a motion shall be heard within 24 hours of the time a copy of the motion is served on the complaining party, or on the next day the superior courts are open in the district, whichever is later. At such hearing the complaining party shall have the burden of showing why the restraining order should be continued.

In the event a temporary restraining order is issued, it may be served in accordance with the provisions of G.S. 1A-1, Rule 4, or may be served by handing to and leaving a copy of such order with any person in charge of such place or residing therein, or by posting a copy thereof in a conspicuous place at or upon one or more of the principal doors or entrances to such place, or by such service under said ~~Rule 4, delivery and posting.~~ Rule 4. The officer serving such temporary restraining order shall forthwith enter upon the property and make and return into court an inventory of the personal property and contents situated in and used in conducting or maintaining such nuisance.

Any violation of such temporary restraining order is a contempt of court, and where such order is posted, mutilation or removal thereof, while the same remains in force, is a contempt of court, provided such posted order contains therein a notice to that effect."

SECTION 6. G.S. 19-3(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) The action provided for in this Chapter ~~shall~~ shall, on application of either of the parties, be set down for trial at the first term of the court and shall have precedence over all other cases except crimes, election contests, or injunctions."

SECTION 7. G.S. 19-6 reads as rewritten:

"§ 19-6. Civil penalty; forfeiture; accounting; lien as to expenses of abatement; invalidation of lease.

Lewd matter is contraband, and there are no property rights therein. All personal property, including all money and other considerations, declared to be a nuisance under the provisions of G.S. 19-1.3 and other sections of this Article, are subject to forfeiture to the local government and are recoverable as damages in the county wherein such matter is sold, exhibited or otherwise used. Such property including moneys may be traced to and shall be recoverable from persons who, under G.S. 19-2.4, have knowledge of the nuisance at the time such moneys are received by them.

Upon judgment against the defendant or defendants in legal proceedings brought pursuant to this Article, an accounting shall be made by such defendant or defendants of all moneys received by them which have been declared to be a nuisance under this Article. An amount equal to the sum of all moneys estimated to have been taken in as gross income from such unlawful commercial activity shall be forfeited to the general funds of the city and county governments wherein such activity took place, to be shared equally, as a forfeiture of the fruits of an unlawful enterprise, and as partial restitution for damages done to the public welfare; provided, however, that no provision of this Article shall authorize the recovery of any moneys or gross income received from the sale of any book, magazine, or exhibition of any motion picture prior to the issuance of a preliminary injunction. Where the action is brought pursuant to this Article, special injury need not be proven, and the costs of abatement are a lien on both the real and personal property used in maintaining the nuisance. Costs of abatement include, but are not limited to, reasonable attorney's fees and court costs.

Upon the filing of the action, the plaintiff may file a notice of lis pendens in the official records of the county where the property is located.

If it is judicially found after an adversary hearing pursuant to this Article that a tenant or occupant of a building or tenement, under a lawful title, uses such place for the purposes of lewdness, assignation, prostitution, gambling, sale or possession of illegal alcoholic beverages or substances proscribed under the North Carolina Controlled Substances Act, or repeated acts which create and constitute a breach of the ~~peace,~~ peace, or repeated acts or omissions that violate a local ordinance regulating sexually oriented businesses, or such use makes void the lease or other title under which he holds, at the option of the owner, and, without any act of the owner, causes the right of possession to revert and vest in such owner.

The clear proceeds of civil penalties and forfeitures provided for in this section, except for penalties and properties that accrue to local governments instead of the State, shall be remitted to the Civil Penalty and Forfeiture Fund in accordance with G.S. 115C-457.2."

SECTION 8. G.S. 19-6.1 reads as rewritten:

"§ 19-6.1. Forfeiture of real property.

In all actions where a preliminary injunction, permanent injunction, or an order of abatement is issued pursuant to this Article in which the nuisance consists of or includes at least two prior occurrences within five years of the manufacture, possession with intent to sell, or sale of controlled substances as defined by the North Carolina Controlled Substances Act, two prior occurrences of the possession of any controlled substance included within Schedule I or II of that Act, or two prior convictions within five years of violation of G.S. 14-72.7, the real property on which the nuisance exists or is maintained is subject to forfeiture in accordance with this section. In the case of the two prior convictions of G.S. 14-72.7, the convictions shall not arise out of the same transaction or occurrence.

If all of the owners of the property are defendants in the action, the plaintiff, other than a plaintiff who is a private citizen, may request forfeiture of the real property as part of the relief sought. If forfeiture is requested, and if jurisdiction over all defendant owners is established, upon judgment against the defendant or defendants, the court shall order forfeiture as follows:

(1) If the court finds by clear and convincing evidence that all the owners either (i) have participated in maintaining the nuisance on the property, or (ii) prior to the action had written notice from the plaintiff, or any governmental agent or entity authorized to bring an action pursuant to this Chapter, that the nuisance existed or was maintained on the property and have not made good faith efforts to stop the nuisance from occurring or recurring, the court shall order that the property be forfeited;

(2) If the court finds that one or more of the owners did not participate in maintaining the nuisance on the property or did not have written notice from the plaintiff prior to the action that the nuisance existed or was maintained on the property, the court shall not order forfeiture of the property immediately upon judgment. However, if after judgment and an order directing the defendants to abate the nuisance, the nuisance either continues, begins again, or otherwise recurs within five years of the order and the defendants have not made good faith efforts to abate the nuisance, the plaintiff may petition the court for forfeiture. Upon such petition, the defendant owner or owners shall be given notice and an opportunity to appear and be heard at a hearing to determine the continuation or recurrence of the nuisance. If, in this hearing (i) the plaintiff establishes by clear and convincing evidence that the nuisance, with the owner's or owners' knowledge, has either continued, begun again, or otherwise recurred, and (ii) the defendants fail to establish that they have made and are continuing to make good faith efforts to abate the nuisance, the court shall order that the property be forfeited.

For the purposes of this section, factors which may evidence good faith by the defendant to abate the nuisance include but are not limited to (i) cooperation with law enforcement authorities to abate the nuisance; (ii) lease restrictions prohibiting the illegal possession or sale of ~~narcotic drugs~~controlled substances and an action to evict a tenant for any violations of the lease provision; (iii) a criminal record check of prospective tenants; and (iv) reference checks of prior residency of prospective tenants.

Upon an order of forfeiture, title to the property shall vest in the school board of the county in which the property is located. If at the time of forfeiture the property is subject to a lien or security interest of a person not participating in the maintenance of the nuisance, the school board shall either (i) pay an amount to that person satisfying the lien or security interest; or (ii) sell the property and satisfy the lien or security interest from the proceeds of the sale. If the property is not subject to any lien or security interest at the time of forfeiture, the school board may hold, maintain, lease, sell, or otherwise dispose of the property as it sees fit.

Upon the filing of the action, the plaintiff may file a notice of lis pendens in the official records of the county where the property is located. If the plaintiff files a notice of lis pendens, any person purchasing or obtaining an interest in the property thereafter shall be considered to have notice of the alleged nuisance, and shall forfeit his interest in the property upon a judgment of forfeiture in favor of the plaintiff.

If in the same action in which real property is forfeited the court finds that a tenant or occupant of the property participated in or maintained the nuisance, the lease or other title under which the tenant or occupant holds is void, and the right of possession vests in the new owner. Upon forfeiture, the rights of innocent tenants occupying separate units of the property who were not involved in the nuisance at the time the action was filed shall be in accordance with any relevant lease provisions in effect at the time or, in the absence of relevant lease provisions, in accordance with the law applying to other tenants or occupants of property that is sold, foreclosed upon, or otherwise obtained by new owners."

SECTION 9. G.S. 14-50.24 is repealed.

SECTION 10. Chapter 14 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new Article to read:

"Article 13B.

"North Carolina Street Gang Nuisance Abatement Act.

"§ 14-50.31. Short title.

This Article shall be known and may be cited as the "North Carolina Street Gang Nuisance Abatement Act."

"§ 14-50.32. Real property used by criminal street gangs declared a public nuisance; abatement.

(a) Public Nuisance. – Any real property that is erected, established, maintained, owned, leased, or used by any criminal street gang for the purpose of conducting criminal street gang activity, as defined in G.S. 14-50.16, shall constitute a public nuisance and may be abated as provided by Article 1 of Chapter 19 of the General Statutes.

(b) Innocent Activities. – The provisions of this section shall not apply to real property used for criminal street gang activity where the owner or person who has legal possession of the real property does not have actual knowledge that the real property is being used for criminal street gang activity.

"§ 14-50.33. Street gangs declared a public nuisance.

(a) A street gang, as defined in G.S. 14-50.16(b), which regularly associates in street gang activities, as defined in G.S. 14-50.16(c), constitutes a public nuisance. For the purposes of this section, "regularly" means at least five times in a period not more than 12 months.

(b) Any person who regularly associates with others to engage in street gang activity, as defined in G.S. 14-50.16, may be made a defendant in a suit, brought pursuant to Chapter 19 of the General Statutes, to abate any public nuisance resulting from street gang activity.

(c) If the court finds that a public nuisance exists under this section, the court may enter an order enjoining the defendant in the suit from engaging in gang activities and impose other reasonable requirements to prevent the defendant or a gang from engaging in future gang activities."

SECTION 11. This act becomes effective October 1, 2009, and applies to offenses committed and abatement actions commenced on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 372:
Clarification of Nuisance Abatement Laws

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	May 11, 2009
Introduced by:	Sen. Boseman	Prepared by:	Kory Goldsmith
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition S372-CSRC-24		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 372 makes changes to the nuisance abatement laws to clarify that a place need not be operated solely for the purpose of carrying on nuisance activity in order to be considered a nuisance. The Proposed Committee Substitute also makes a street gang that regularly engages in street gang activity a public nuisance. Individuals who regularly associate with others to engage in street gang activity may be enjoined from engaging in street gang activities.

CURRENT LAW: Article 1 of Chapter 19 of the General Statutes deals with the abatement of nuisances. It provides a civil process by which individuals who control real property may be enjoined from maintaining that property and allowing certain illegal activities occur. The Article covers buildings used for the purpose of: assignation, prostitution, gambling, illegal possession or sale of alcoholic beverages, illegal possession or sale of controlled substances, illegal possession or sale of obscene or lewd matter, repeated acts that constitute a breach of the peace, repeated activities or conditions that violate a local ordinance regulating sexually oriented business, or maintaining a "chop shop".

G.S. 14-50.24 provides real property used by and criminal street gang for the purpose of conducting criminal street gang activity may be declared a public nuisance and enjoined. The following definitions apply:

- "criminal street gang" or "street gang" means any ongoing organization, association, or group of three or more persons, whether formal or informal, that:
  - (1) Has as one of its primary activities the commission of one or more felony offenses, or delinquent acts that would be felonies if committed by an adult;
  - (2) Has three or more members individually or collectively engaged in, or who have engaged in, criminal street gang activity; and
  - (3) May have a common name, common identifying sign or symbol.
- "criminal street gang activity" means to commit, to attempt to commit, or to solicit, coerce, or intimidate another person to commit an act or acts, with the specific intent that such act or acts were intended or committed for the purpose, or in furtherance, of the person's involvement in a criminal street gang or street gang. An act or acts are included if accompanied by the necessary mens rea or criminal intent and would be chargeable by indictment under the following laws of this State:
  - (1) Any offense under Article 5 of Chapter 90 of the General Statutes (Controlled Substances Act).
  - (2) Any offense under Chapter 14 of the General Statutes except Articles 9, 22A, 40, 46, 47, 59 thereof; and further excepting G.S. 14-78.1, 14-82, 14-86, 14-145, 14-179, 14-183, 14-184, 14-186, 14-190.9, 14-195, 14-197, 14-201, 14-247, 14-248, 14-313 thereof.
- "pattern of criminal street gang activity" means engaging in, and having a conviction for, at least two prior incidents of criminal street gang activity; that have the same or similar purposes, results, accomplices, victims, or methods of commission or otherwise are interrelated by common characteristics and are not isolated and unrelated incidents, provided that at least one of these offenses occurred after December 1, 2008, and the last of the offenses occurred within three years, excluding any periods of imprisonment, of prior criminal street gang activity. Any offenses committed by a defendant prior to indictment for an offense based upon a pattern of street gang activity shall not be used as the basis for any subsequent indictments for offenses involving a pattern of street gang activity.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 deletes existing language that has been interpreted as requiring that a place be operated solely for the purpose of carrying on nuisance activity in order to be deemed a nuisance.[1] This amendment also clarifies that an owner who knowingly allows nuisance activities to occur may be found to have used his property "for the purpose of" such activities.
Section 2 makes the statute consistent by including all nuisances defined in §19-1.
Section 3 amends existing language to clarify that a sexually oriented business is a "for profit" nuisance, the proceeds of which are subject to forfeiture. The proceeds of all "for profit" nuisances are subject to forfeiture, as provided in §19-6. The Section also separates "contents" from "proceeds" and clarifies that the contents of any nuisance, whether "for profit" or not, are declared a nuisance and are subject to a lien and available to satisfy the costs of abatement, as already provided in § 19-1(c) and §19-6.
Section 4 corrects the terminology used in the statute to conform to the North Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure.

Section 5 deletes unnecessary language.

Section 6 conforms the statute to the way these cases are usually scheduled for trial (like any other civil action), while leaving open the option for any party to insist on an immediate trial.

Section 7 clarifies that the State is entitled to a money judgment against the defendant in an amount equal to the gross income from the operation of a "for profit" nuisance, consistent with the prior paragraph.

Section 8 corrects certain language to make G.S. 19-6.1 consistent with the remainder of the Article.
Section 9 repeals the provisions in Chapter 14 related to the abatement of street gang activity as a nuisance.

Section 10 re-enacts the language from G.S. 14-50.24 in a new Article 13B. Individuals who regularly associate with others to engage in street gang activity may be enjoined from engaging in street gang activities.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act becomes effective October 1, 2009, and applies to offenses committed and abatement actions commenced on or after that date.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO EXTEND THE DEADLINE FOR THE COMMISSIONERS IN A PARTITION ACTION TO REPORT BACK TO THE COURT ON THEIR PROPOSED DIVISION OF THE LAND, AND TO EXTEND THE DEADLINE FOR RESPONDING TO A SUMMONS IN A PARTITION ACTION FROM TEN DAYS TO THIRTY DAYS, AS RECOMMENDED BY THE PARTITION SALES STUDY COMMITTEE.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 46-17 reads as rewritten:

"§ 46-17. Report of commissioners; contents; filing.

The commissioners, within a reasonable time, not exceeding ~~60~~ 90 days after the notification of their appointment, shall make a full and ample report of their proceedings, under the hands of any two of them, specifying therein the manner of executing their trust and describing particularly the land or parcels of land divided, and the share allotted to each tenant in severalty, with the sum or sums charged on the more valuable dividends to be paid to those of inferior value. The report shall be filed in the office of the superior court clerk: Provided, that the clerk of the superior court may, in ~~his~~ the clerk's discretion, for good cause shown, extend the time for the filing of the report of said commissioners for an additional period not exceeding 60 days. This proviso shall be applicable to proceedings now pending for the partition of real property."

SECTION 2.(a) G.S. 1-394 reads as rewritten:

"§ 1-394. Contested special proceedings; commencement; summons.

Special proceedings against adverse parties shall be commenced as is prescribed for civil actions. The summons shall notify the defendant or defendants to appear and answer the complaint, or petition, of the plaintiff within 10 days after its service upon the defendant or defendants, and must contain a notice stating in substance that if the defendant or defendants fail to answer the complaint, or petition, within the time specified, plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded in the complaint, or petition. The summons must run in the name of the State, and be dated and signed by the clerk, assistant clerk or deputy clerk of the superior court having jurisdiction in the special proceeding, and be directed to the defendant or defendants; and be delivered for service to some proper person, as defined by Rule 4(a) of the Rules of Civil Procedure. The clerk shall indicate on the summons by appropriate words that the summons is issued in a special proceeding and not in a civil action. The manner of service shall be as is prescribed for summons in civil actions by Rule 4 of the Rules of Civil Procedure: Provided, in partition proceedings under Chapter 46 of the General Statutes or where the defendant is an agency of the federal government, or an agency of the State, or a local government, or an agency of a local government, the time for filing answer or other plea shall be within 30 days after the date of service of summons or after the final determination of any motion required to be made prior to the filing of an answer."

SECTION 2.(b) Article 1 of Chapter 46 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 46-2.1 Summons.

In partition proceedings initiated under this Chapter, the period of time for answering a summons is provided in G.S. 1-394."

SECTION 3. This act becomes effective October 1, 2009.

SENATE BILL 612:
Partition Sales/Extend Report & Answer Times

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	May 11, 2009
Introduced by:	Sen. Atwater	Prepared by:	Brenda J. Carter
Analysis of:	First Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 612 extends the deadline for the commissioners in a partition action to report back to the court on their proposed division of the land, and extends the deadline for responding to a summons in a partition action from ten days to thirty days, as recommended by the Partition Sales Study Committee. This act becomes effective October 1, 2009.

[As introduced, this bill was identical to H581, as introduced by Reps. Bryant, Spear, Stam, Michaux, which is currently in Senate Judiciary II.]

CURRENT LAW: Under the laws governing the partition of real property (Chapter 46 of the General Statutes), one or more persons claiming joint ownership in real property may petition the superior court for partition of the property. To "partition" property means to bring a proceeding in court to force the physical division or sale of real property, and to have the property or proceeds from sale of the property divided among co-owners of the property. The court appoints three disinterested commissioners to divide and apportion the real estate among the joint owners of the property. The action is a special proceeding. Generally a defendant in a special proceeding is allowed 10 days to respond to a summons; however, thirty days are allowed when the defendant is an agency of the federal government, a State or local agency, or a local government.

BILL ANALYSIS: Section 1 of the bill would extend from 60 days to 90 days the deadline for the commissioners in a partition action to report back to the court on their proposed division of the land.

Section 2 of the bill would amend the procedural rules applicable to special proceedings, by extending the length of time for responding to a summons in a partition action from 10 days to 30 days.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act becomes effective October 1, 2009.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO PROHIBIT ATTORNEYS REPRESENTING PARTIES IN A PARTITION ACTION FROM SERVING AS COMMISSIONERS TO DIVIDE THE LAND, EXCEPT BY CONSENT OF THE PARTIES, AND TO SPECIFY WHO MAY NOT HOLD A PARTITION SALE OF PROPERTY AND WHO MAY NOT PURCHASE PROPERTY IN A PARTITION SALE, AS RECOMMENDED BY THE PARTITION SALES STUDY COMMITTEE.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 46-7 reads as rewritten:

"§ 46-7. Commissioners appointed.

The superior court shall appoint three disinterested commissioners to divide and apportion such real estate, or so much thereof as the court may deem best, among the several tenants in common, or joint tenants. Provided, in cases where the land to be partitioned lies in more than one county, then the court may appoint such additional commissioners as it may deem necessary from counties where the land lies other than the county where the proceedings are instituted. For purposes of this section, attorneys who currently represent the parties in the pending partition proceeding and attorneys who have previously represented the parties in a related partition proceeding are not "disinterested" and cannot serve as commissioners, except by consent of the parties."

SECTION 2.(a) G.S. 46-31 reads as rewritten:

"§ 46-31. ~~Clerk not to appoint self, assistant or deputy to sell real property.~~Who may not hold sale.

~~No clerk of the superior court shall appoint himself or his assistant or deputy to make sale of any property in any proceeding before him.~~ The following persons shall not sell or be appointed to sell the property in a partition sale under Article 2 of Chapter 46 of the General Statutes:

(1) The clerk of superior court, the clerk's assistant clerk, or the clerk's deputy clerk if there has been a proceeding before that clerk of court.

(2) Attorneys who currently represent the parties in the pending partition proceeding.

(3) Attorneys who have previously represented the parties in a related partition proceeding."

SECTION 2.(b) Article 4 of Chapter 46 is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 46-31.1. Ineligible purchasers.

The following persons are not eligible to purchase land in a partition sale under Article 2 of Chapter 46 of the General Statutes:

(1) Attorneys who currently represent the parties in the pending partition proceeding or the attorneys' agents.
(2) Attorneys who have previously represented the parties in a related partition proceeding or the attorneys' agents.
(3) Commissioners who have been involved in the partition proceedings at any time or the commissioners' agents.
(4) Appraisers who have been involved in the partition proceedings at any time or the appraisers' agents."

SECTION 3. This act becomes effective October 1, 2009.

March 17, 2009

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO PROVIDE GREATER NOTICE TO PARTIES WHO MAY BE UNKNOWN IN A PARTITION PROCEEDING, TO CODIFY THE CURRENT PRACTICE OF GRANTING OWNERS CREDIT FOR THEIR EXISTING INTEREST IN LAND WHEN BIDDING ON A PARTITION SALE, AND TO REQUIRE A COURT TO ORDER AN INDEPENDENT APPRAISAL IF A PARTY TO THE PARTITION CHALLENGES THE AMOUNT BID IN A PARTITION SALE, AS RECOMMENDED BY THE PARTITION SALES STUDY COMMITTEE.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 46-6 reads as rewritten:

"§ 46-6. Unknown parties; ~~summons and~~ summons, notice, and representation.

(a) If, upon the filing of a petition for partition, it be made to appear to the court by affidavit or otherwise that there are any persons interested in the premises whose names are unknown to and cannot after due diligence be ascertained by the petitioner, the court shall order notices as provided in this section. The petitioner must specifically allege in an affidavit or otherwise the facts showing what due diligence the petitioner exercised. The petitioner shall set forth facts based upon the personal knowledge of the petitioner concerning the methods, means, and attempts to locate and to effect personal service on the unknown or unlocatable persons, including efforts to utilize, review, or otherwise draw upon sources of information readily available to the petitioner, including Internet sources. Before ordering notice by publication, the clerk must determine that the petitioner did exercise due diligence in attempting to find unknown or unlocatable persons who may have an interest in the property.

(b) The court shall order notices to be given to all such persons by a publication of the petition, or of the substance thereof, with the order of the court thereon, in one or more newspapers to be designated in the order. The notice by publication shall include a description of the property which includes the street address or other common designation for the property, the legal description, and the acreage of the property.

(c) ~~If~~ Before or after such general notice by publication if any person interested in the premises and entitled to notice fails to appear, the court shall ~~in its discretion~~ appoint some disinterested person to represent the owner of any shares in the property to be divided, the ownership of which is unknown and unrepresented. For purposes of this section, attorneys who currently represent the parties in the pending partition proceeding and attorneys who have previously represented the parties in a related partition proceeding cannot represent unknown or unlocatable persons who may have an interest in the property."

SECTION 2. G.S. 46-28 reads as rewritten:

"§ 46-28. Sale procedure.

(a) The procedure for a partition sale shall be the same as is provided in Article 29A of Chapter 1 of the General ~~Statutes.~~ Statutes, except as provided herein.

(b) The commissioners shall certify to the court that at least 20 days prior to sale a copy of the notice of sale was sent by first class mail to the last known address of all petitioners and respondents who previously were served by personal delivery or by registered or certified mail. The commissioners shall also certify to the court that at least ten days prior to any resale pursuant to G.S. 46-28.1(e) a copy of the notice of resale was sent by first class mail to the last known address of all parties to the partition proceeding who have filed a written request with the court that they be given notice of any resale. An affidavit from the commissioners that copies of the notice of sale and resale were mailed to all parties entitled to notice in accordance with this section shall satisfy the certification requirement and shall also be deemed prima facie true. If after hearing it is proven that a party seeking to revoke the order of confirmation of a sale or subsequent resale was mailed notice as required by this section prior to the date of the sale or subsequent resale, then that party shall not prevail under the provisions of G.S. 46-28.1(a)(2)a. and b.

(c) Any cotenant making an offer in a sale of an entire parcel shall receive credit for the interest the cotenant already owns and shall receive a corresponding reduction in the amount of money owed after deducting the costs and fees associated with the sale. When making a joint offer, cotenants may aggregate the credit for the cotenants' interests."

SECTION 3. G.S. 46-28.1 reads as rewritten:

"§ 46-28.1. Petition for revocation of confirmation order.

(a) Notwithstanding G.S. 46-28 or any other provision of law, an order confirming the partition sale of real property shall not become final and effective until 15 days after entered. At any time before the confirmation order becomes final and effective, any party to the partition proceeding or the purchaser may petition the court to revoke its order of confirmation and to order the withdrawal of the purchaser's offer to purchase the property upon the following grounds:

(1) In the case of a purchaser, a lien remains unsatisfied on the property to be conveyed.

(2) In the case of any party to the partition proceeding:

a. Notice of the partition was not served on the petitioner for revocation as required by Rule 4 of the Rules of Civil Procedure; or

b. Notice of the sale was not mailed to the petitioner for revocation as required by G.S. 46-28(b); or

c. The amount bid or price offered is inadequate and inequitable and will result in irreparable damage to the owners of the real property.

In no event shall the confirmation order become final or effective during the pendency of a petition under this section. No upset bid shall be permitted after the entry of the confirmation order.

(b) The party petitioning for revocation shall deliver a copy of the petition to all parties required to be served under Rule 5 of G.S. 1A-1, and the officer or person designated to make such sale in the manner provided for service of process in Rule 4(j) of G.S. 1A-1. The court shall schedule a hearing on the petition within a reasonable time and shall cause a notice of the hearing to be served on the petitioner, the officer or person designated to make such a sale and all parties required to be served under Rule 5 of G.S. 1A-1.

(c) In the case of a petition brought under this section by a purchaser claiming the existence of an unsatisfied lien on the property to be conveyed, if the purchaser proves by a preponderance of the evidence that:

(1) A lien remains unsatisfied on the property to be conveyed; and

(2) The purchaser has not agreed in writing to assume the lien; and

(3) The lien will not be satisfied out of the proceeds of the sale; and

(4) The existence of the lien was not disclosed in the notice of sale of the property, the court may revoke the order confirming the sale, order the withdrawal of the purchaser's offer, and order the return of any money or security to the purchaser tendered pursuant to the offer.

The order of the court in revoking an order of confirmation under this section may not be introduced in any other proceeding to establish or deny the existence of a lien.

(d) In the case of a petition brought pursuant to this section by a party to the partition proceeding, if the court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that petitioner has proven a case pursuant to a., b., or c. of subsection (a)(2), the court may revoke the order confirming the sale, order the withdrawal of the purchaser's offer, and order the return of any money or security to the purchaser tendered pursuant to the offer.

(d1) In the case of a petition brought pursuant to sub-subdivision c. of subdivision (2) of subsection (a) of this section, the court shall order an independent appraisal. Based on the appraisal, the court may revoke the order confirming the sale, order the withdrawal of the purchaser's offer, and order the return of any money or security to the purchaser tendered pursuant to the offer. The cost of an independent appraisal shall be apportioned to all parties, pro rata.

(e) If the court revokes its order of confirmation under this section, the court shall order a resale. The procedure for a resale is the same as is provided for an original public sale under Article 29A of Chapter 1 of the General Statutes."

AN ACT TO DIRECT THE NORTH CAROLINA CRIMINAL JUSTICE EDUCATION AND TRAINING STANDARDS COMMISSION TO COORDINATE WITH LOCAL AND STATE LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICERS AND WITH THE COMMUNITY COLLEGE SYSTEM TO PROVIDE MULTIPLE FIREARMS QUALIFICATION SITES FOR CERTIFICATION TO CARRY A CONCEALED HANDGUN PURSUANT TO FEDERAL LAW.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 14-415.26 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(b1) The Commission shall coordinate with local and State law enforcement officers and with the community college system to provide multiple firearms qualification sites throughout the State where a qualified law enforcement officer may satisfy the firearms qualification criteria required for certification under this section."

SECTION 2. This act is effective when it becomes law.

SENATE BILL 978:
Firearms Qualification Sites/Retired LEOs

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	April 30, 2009
Introduced by:	Sen. Bingham	Prepared by:	Jennifer McGinnis
Analysis of:	First Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 978 would require the North Carolina Criminal Justice Education and Training Standards Commission (Commission) to coordinate with local and State law enforcement officers and with the community college system to provide multiple firearms qualification sites throughout the State where qualified law enforcement officers may satisfy the firearms qualification criteria required for certification under the statutes.

CURRENT LAW: In 2007, the General Assembly enacted SL 2007-427, which waived the requirement to obtain a concealed handgun permit for certain persons authorized by federal law to carry concealed handguns, if they are in compliance with federal law, and for certain federal and state retired law enforcement officers. The act gave the Commission the responsibility and authority to establish the necessary standards and guidelines to certify and recertify qualified retired law enforcement officers to carry concealed weapons, pursuant to federal law, and to adopt rules and charge a reasonable fee. A qualified retired law enforcement officer may apply to the Commission for certification, instead of applying for a concealed carry permit. The Commission is required to notify the person of the limitations applicable under federal or State law, but failure to receive such a notification is not a defense to a violation of federal or State laws.[1]

BILL ANALYSIS: The bill would amend the statute that provides that in lieu of obtaining a concealed handgun permit, a qualified retired law enforcement officer may apply to the Commission for certification. The bill would add a requirement to the statute that the Commission coordinate with local and State law enforcement officers and with the community college system to provide multiple firearms qualification sites throughout the State where qualified law enforcement officers may satisfy the firearms qualification criteria required for certification.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This bill would be effective when it becomes law.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT STRENGTHENING DOMESTIC VIOLENCE PROTECTIVE ORDERS TO PROVIDE FOR THE PROTECTION OF PETS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 50B-3(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) If the court, including magistrates as authorized under G.S. 50B-2(c1), finds that an act of domestic violence has occurred, the court shall grant a protective order restraining the defendant from further acts of domestic violence. A protective order may include any of the following types of relief:

(1) Direct a party to refrain from such acts.

(2) Grant to a party possession of the residence or household of the parties and exclude the other party from the residence or household.

(3) Require a party to provide a spouse and his or her children suitable alternate housing.

(4) Award temporary custody of minor children and establish temporary visitation rights pursuant to G.S. 50B-2 if the order is granted ex parte, and pursuant to subsection (a1) of this section if the order is granted after notice or service of process.

(5) Order the eviction of a party from the residence or household and assistance to the victim in returning to it.

(6) Order either party to make payments for the support of a minor child as required by law.

(7) Order either party to make payments for the support of a spouse as required by law.

(8) Provide for possession of personal property of the ~~parties.~~parties, including the care, custody, and control of any animal owned, possessed, kept, or held as a pet by either party or minor child residing in the household.

(9) Order a party to refrain from doing any or all of the following:

a. Threatening, abusing, or following the other party.

b. Harassing the other party, including by telephone, visiting the home or workplace, or other means.

b1. Cruelly treating or abusing an animal owned, possessed, kept, or held as a pet by either party or minor child residing in the household.

c. Otherwise interfering with the other party.

(10) Award attorney's fees to either party.

(11) Prohibit a party from purchasing a firearm for a time fixed in the order.

(12) Order any party the court finds is responsible for acts of domestic violence to attend and complete an abuser treatment program if the program is approved by the Domestic Violence Commission.

(13) Include any additional prohibitions or requirements the court deems necessary to protect any party or any minor child."

SECTION 2. This act is effective when it becomes law.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO CLARIFY TYPES OF NUISANCES WHEREIN OBSCENE OR LEWD MATTER OR OTHER CONDUCT PROHIBITED IS INVOLVED AND TO PROVIDE THAT INDIVIDUALS ENGAGED IN A PATTERN OF STREET GANG ACTIVITY ARE SUBJECT TO INJUNCTIONS PURSUANT TO CHAPTER 19 OF THE GENERAL STATUTES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 19-1(a) reads as rewritten:

"§ 19-1. What are nuisances under this Chapter.

(a) The erection, establishment, continuance, maintenance, use, ownership or leasing of any building or place for the purpose of regular and repeated acts of assignation, prostitution, gambling, illegal possession or sale of alcoholic beverages, illegal possession or sale of controlled substances as defined in the North Carolina Controlled Substances Act, or illegal possession or sale of obscene or lewd matter, as defined in this Chapter, shall constitute a nuisance."

SECTION 1.1. G.S. 19-1.2 reads as rewritten:

"§ 19-1.2. Types of nuisances.

The following are declared to be nuisances wherein obscene or lewd matter or other conduct prohibited in G.S. 19-1(a) is involved:

(1) Any and every place in the State where lewd films are publicly exhibited as a predominant ~~and regular~~ course of business, or possessed for the purpose of such ~~exhibition;~~exhibition.

(2) Any and every place in the State where a lewd film is publicly and repeatedly exhibited, or possessed for the purpose of such ~~exhibition;~~exhibition.

(3) Any and every lewd film which is publicly exhibited, or possessed for such purpose at a place which is a nuisance under this ~~Article;~~Article.

(4) Any and every place of business in the State in which lewd publications constitute a principal or substantial part of the stock in ~~trade;~~trade.

(5) Any and every lewd publication possessed at a place which is a nuisance under this ~~Article;~~Article.

(6) Every place ~~which, as a regular course of business,~~ which is used for the regular and repeated purposes of lewdness, assignation, gambling, the illegal possession or sale of alcoholic beverages, the illegal possession or sale of controlled substances as defined in the North Carolina Controlled Substances Act, or prostitution, and every such place in or upon which acts of lewdness, assignation, gambling, the illegal possession or sale of alcoholic beverages, the illegal possession or sale of controlled substances as defined in the North Carolina Controlled Substances Act, or prostitution, are held or occur. Knowledge of, acquiescence to, or participation in the regular and repeated activities proscribed by this Chapter by any person charged with maintaining a nuisance shall be prima facie evidence that the person used the place for the purposes of such activities."

SECTION 2. G.S. 19-1.1(1a) reads as rewritten:

"§ 19-1.1. Definitions.

As used in this Chapter relating to illegal possession or sale of obscene matter or to the other conduct prohibited in G.S. 19-1(a), the following definitions shall apply:

...

(1a) "Knowledge" or "knowledge of such nuisance" means having knowledge of the contents and character of the patently offensive sexual conduct which appears in the lewd matter, or knowledge of the acts of lewdness. With regard to nuisances involving assignation, prostitution, gambling, the illegal possession or sale of alcoholic beverages, the illegal possession or sale of controlled substances as defined in the North Carolina Controlled Substances Act, or repeated acts which create and constitute a breach of the ~~peace;~~peace, or repeated activities or conditions which violate a local ordinance regulating sexually oriented businesses, or evidence that the defendant knew or by the exercise of due diligence should have known of the acts or conduct constitutes proof of knowledge."

SECTION 3. G.S. 19-1.3 reads as rewritten:

"§ 19-1.3. Personal property as a nuisance; knowledge of nuisance.

The following are also declared to be nuisances, as personal property used in conducting and maintaining a nuisance under this Chapter:

(1) All moneys paid as admission price to the exhibition of any lewd film found to be a ~~nuisance;~~nuisance.

(2) All valuable consideration received for the sale of any lewd publication which is found to be a ~~nuisance;~~nuisance.

(3) All money or other valuable consideration, vehicles, conveyances, or other property received or used in gambling, prostitution, the illegal sale of alcoholic ~~beverages or~~beverages, the illegal sale of substances proscribed under the North Carolina Controlled Substances ~~Act;~~Act, or the operation of a sexually oriented business in violation of G.S. 19-1(b1).~~as well as the furniture and movable contents of a place used in connection with such prohibited conduct.~~

(4) The furniture and movable contents of a place used in connection with conduct prohibited by G.S. 19-1(a), (b), or (b1).

From and after service of a copy of the notice of hearing of the application for a preliminary injunction, provided for in G.S. 19-2.4 upon the place, or its manager, or acting manager, or person then in charge, all such parties are deemed to have knowledge of the contents of the restraining order and the use of the place occurring thereafter. Where the circumstantial proof warrants a determination that a person had knowledge of the nuisance prior to such service of process, the court may make such finding."

SECTION 4. G.S. 19-2.1 reads as rewritten:

"§ 19-2.1. Action for abatement; injunction.

Wherever a nuisance is kept, maintained, or exists, as defined in this Article, the Attorney General, district attorney, county, municipality, or any private citizen of the county may maintain a civil action in the name of the State of North Carolina to abate a nuisance under this Chapter, perpetually to enjoin all persons from maintaining the same, and to enjoin the use of any structure or thing adjudged to be a nuisance under this Chapter; provided, however, that no private citizen may maintain such action where the alleged nuisance involves the illegal possession or sale of obscene or lewd matter.

Upon request from the Attorney General, district attorney, county or municipality, including the sheriff or chief of police of any county or municipality, the Alcohol Law Enforcement Division of the Department of Crime Control and Public Safety or any other law enforcement agency with jurisdiction may investigate alleged public nuisances and make recommendations regarding actions to abate the public nuisances.

If an action is instituted by a private person, the complainant shall execute a bond prior to the issuance of a temporary restraining order or a ~~temporary~~ preliminary injunction, with good and sufficient surety to be approved by the court or clerk thereof, in the sum of not less than one thousand dollars ($1,000), to secure to the party enjoined the damages he may sustain if such action is wrongfully brought, not prosecuted to final judgment, or is dismissed, or is not maintained, or if it is finally decided that the temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction ought not to have been granted. The party enjoined shall have recourse against said bond for all damages suffered, including damages to his property, person, or character and including reasonable attorney's fees incurred by him in making defense to said action. No bond shall be required of the prosecuting attorney, the Attorney General, county, or municipality, and no action shall be maintained against any public official or public entity, their employees, or agents for investigating or maintaining an action for abatement of a nuisance under the provisions of this Chapter."

SECTION 5. G.S. 19-2.3 reads as rewritten:

"§ 19-2.3. Temporary order restraining removal of personal property from premises; service; punishment.

Where such application for a preliminary injunction is made, the court may, on application of the complainant showing good cause, issue an ex parte temporary restraining order in accordance with G.S. 1A-1, Rule 65(b), preserving the status quo and restraining the defendant and all other persons from removing or in any manner interfering with any evidence specifically described, or in any manner removing or interfering with the personal property and contents of the place where such nuisance is alleged to exist, until the decision of the court granting or refusing such preliminary injunction and until further order of the court thereon. Nothing herein shall be interpreted to allow the prior restraint of the distribution of any matter or the sale of the stock in trade, but an inventory and full accounting of all business transactions involving alleged obscene or lewd matter thereafter shall be required. The inventory provisions provided by this section shall not apply to nuisances occurring at a private dwelling place unless the court finds the private dwelling place is used for profit.

Any person, firm, or corporation enjoined pursuant to this section may file with the court a motion to dissolve any temporary restraining order. Such a motion shall be heard within 24 hours of the time a copy of the motion is served on the complaining party, or on the next day the superior courts are open in the district, whichever is later. At such hearing the complaining party shall have the burden of showing why the restraining order should be continued.

In the event a temporary restraining order is issued, it may be served in accordance with the provisions of G.S. 1A-1, Rule 4, or may be served by handing to and leaving a copy of such order with any person in charge of such place or residing therein, or by posting a copy thereof in a conspicuous place at or upon one or more of the principal doors or entrances to such place, or by such service under said ~~Rule 4, delivery and posting.~~ Rule 4. The officer serving such temporary restraining order shall forthwith enter upon the property and make and return into court an inventory of the personal property and contents situated in and used in conducting or maintaining such nuisance.

Any violation of such temporary restraining order is a contempt of court, and where such order is posted, mutilation or removal thereof, while the same remains in force, is a contempt of court, provided such posted order contains therein a notice to that effect."

SECTION 6. G.S. 19-3(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) The action provided for in this Chapter ~~shall~~ shall, on application of either of the parties, be set down for trial at the first term of the court and shall have precedence over all other cases except crimes, election contests, or injunctions."

SECTION 7. G.S. 19-6 reads as rewritten:

"§ 19-6. Civil penalty; forfeiture; accounting; lien as to expenses of abatement; invalidation of lease.

Lewd matter is contraband, and there are no property rights therein. All personal property, including all money and other considerations, declared to be a nuisance under the provisions of G.S. 19-1.3 and other sections of this Article, are subject to forfeiture to the local government and are recoverable as damages in the county wherein such matter is sold, exhibited or otherwise used. Such property including moneys may be traced to and shall be recoverable from persons who, under G.S. 19-2.4, have knowledge of the nuisance at the time such moneys are received by them.

Upon judgment against the defendant or defendants in legal proceedings brought pursuant to this Article, an accounting shall be made by such defendant or defendants of all moneys received by them which have been declared to be a nuisance under this Article. An amount equal to the sum of all moneys estimated to have been taken in as gross income from such unlawful commercial activity shall be forfeited to the general funds of the city and county governments wherein such activity took place, to be shared equally, as a forfeiture of the fruits of an unlawful enterprise, and as partial restitution for damages done to the public welfare; provided, however, that no provision of this Article shall authorize the recovery of any moneys or gross income received from the sale of any book, magazine, or exhibition of any motion picture prior to the issuance of a preliminary injunction. Where the action is brought pursuant to this Article, special injury need not be proven, and the costs of abatement are a lien on both the real and personal property used in maintaining the nuisance. Costs of abatement include, but are not limited to, reasonable attorney's fees and court costs.

Upon the filing of the action, the plaintiff may file a notice of lis pendens in the official records of the county where the property is located.

If it is judicially found after an adversary hearing pursuant to this Article that a tenant or occupant of a building or tenement, under a lawful title, uses such place for the purposes of lewdness, assignation, prostitution, gambling, sale or possession of illegal alcoholic beverages or substances proscribed under the North Carolina Controlled Substances Act, or repeated acts which create and constitute a breach of the ~~peace,~~ peace, or repeated acts or omissions that violate a local ordinance regulating sexually oriented businesses, or such use makes void the lease or other title under which he holds, at the option of the owner, and, without any act of the owner, causes the right of possession to revert and vest in such owner.

The clear proceeds of civil penalties and forfeitures provided for in this section, except for penalties and properties that accrue to local governments instead of the State, shall be remitted to the Civil Penalty and Forfeiture Fund in accordance with G.S. 115C-457.2."

SECTION 8. G.S. 19-6.1 reads as rewritten:

"§ 19-6.1. Forfeiture of real property.

In all actions where a preliminary injunction, permanent injunction, or an order of abatement is issued pursuant to this Article in which the nuisance consists of or includes at least two prior occurrences within five years of the manufacture, possession with intent to sell, or sale of controlled substances as defined by the North Carolina Controlled Substances Act, two prior occurrences of the possession of any controlled substance included within Schedule I or II of that Act, or two prior convictions within five years of violation of G.S. 14-72.7, the real property on which the nuisance exists or is maintained is subject to forfeiture in accordance with this section. In the case of the two prior convictions of G.S. 14-72.7, the convictions shall not arise out of the same transaction or occurrence.

If all of the owners of the property are defendants in the action, the plaintiff, other than a plaintiff who is a private citizen, may request forfeiture of the real property as part of the relief sought. If forfeiture is requested, and if jurisdiction over all defendant owners is established, upon judgment against the defendant or defendants, the court shall order forfeiture as follows:

(1) If the court finds by clear and convincing evidence that all the owners either (i) have participated in maintaining the nuisance on the property, or (ii) prior to the action had written notice from the plaintiff, or any governmental agent or entity authorized to bring an action pursuant to this Chapter, that the nuisance existed or was maintained on the property and have not made good faith efforts to stop the nuisance from occurring or recurring, the court shall order that the property be forfeited;

(2) If the court finds that one or more of the owners did not participate in maintaining the nuisance on the property or did not have written notice from the plaintiff prior to the action that the nuisance existed or was maintained on the property, the court shall not order forfeiture of the property immediately upon judgment. However, if after judgment and an order directing the defendants to abate the nuisance, the nuisance either continues, begins again, or otherwise recurs within five years of the order and the defendants have not made good faith efforts to abate the nuisance, the plaintiff may petition the court for forfeiture. Upon such petition, the defendant owner or owners shall be given notice and an opportunity to appear and be heard at a hearing to determine the continuation or recurrence of the nuisance. If, in this hearing (i) the plaintiff establishes by clear and convincing evidence that the nuisance, with the owner's or owners' knowledge, has either continued, begun again, or otherwise recurred, and (ii) the defendants fail to establish that they have made and are continuing to make good faith efforts to abate the nuisance, the court shall order that the property be forfeited.

For the purposes of this section, factors which may evidence good faith by the defendant to abate the nuisance include but are not limited to (i) cooperation with law enforcement authorities to abate the nuisance; (ii) lease restrictions prohibiting the illegal possession or sale of ~~narcotic drugs~~controlled substances and an action to evict a tenant for any violations of the lease provision; (iii) a criminal record check of prospective tenants; and (iv) reference checks of prior residency of prospective tenants.

Upon an order of forfeiture, title to the property shall vest in the school board of the county in which the property is located. If at the time of forfeiture the property is subject to a lien or security interest of a person not participating in the maintenance of the nuisance, the school board shall either (i) pay an amount to that person satisfying the lien or security interest; or (ii) sell the property and satisfy the lien or security interest from the proceeds of the sale. If the property is not subject to any lien or security interest at the time of forfeiture, the school board may hold, maintain, lease, sell, or otherwise dispose of the property as it sees fit.

Upon the filing of the action, the plaintiff may file a notice of lis pendens in the official records of the county where the property is located. If the plaintiff files a notice of lis pendens, any person purchasing or obtaining an interest in the property thereafter shall be considered to have notice of the alleged nuisance, and shall forfeit his interest in the property upon a judgment of forfeiture in favor of the plaintiff.

If in the same action in which real property is forfeited the court finds that a tenant or occupant of the property participated in or maintained the nuisance, the lease or other title under which the tenant or occupant holds is void, and the right of possession vests in the new owner. Upon forfeiture, the rights of innocent tenants occupying separate units of the property who were not involved in the nuisance at the time the action was filed shall be in accordance with any relevant lease provisions in effect at the time or, in the absence of relevant lease provisions, in accordance with the law applying to other tenants or occupants of property that is sold, foreclosed upon, or otherwise obtained by new owners."

SECTION 9. G.S. 14-50.24 is repealed.

SECTION 10. Chapter 14 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new Article to read:

"Article 13B.

"North Carolina Street Gang Nuisance Abatement Act.

"§ 14-50.31. Short title.

This Article shall be known and may be cited as the "North Carolina Street Gang Nuisance Abatement Act."

"§ 14-50.32. Real property used by criminal street gangs declared a public nuisance; abatement.

(a) Public Nuisance. – Any real property that is erected, established, maintained, owned, leased, or used by any criminal street gang for the purpose of conducting criminal street gang activity, as defined in G.S. 14-50.16, shall constitute a public nuisance and may be abated as provided by Article 1 of Chapter 19 of the General Statutes.

(b) Innocent Activities. – The provisions of this section shall not apply to real property used for criminal street gang activity where the owner or person who has legal possession of the real property does not have actual knowledge that the real property is being used for criminal street gang activity.

"§ 14-50.33. Street gangs declared a public nuisance.

(a) A street gang, as defined in G.S. 14-50.16(b), which regularly associates in street gang activities, as defined in G.S. 14-50.16(c), constitutes a public nuisance. For the purposes of this section, "regularly" means at least five times in a period not more than 12 months.

(b) Any person who regularly associates with others to engage in street gang activity, as defined in G.S. 14-50.16, may be made a defendant in a suit, brought pursuant to Chapter 19 of the General Statutes, to abate any public nuisance resulting from street gang activity.

(c) If the court finds that a public nuisance exists under this section, the court may enter an order enjoining the defendant in the suit from engaging in gang activities and impose other reasonable requirements to prevent the defendant or a gang from engaging in future gang activities."

SECTION 11. This act becomes effective October 1, 2009, and applies to offenses committed and abatement actions commenced on or after that date.

AN ACT TO CLARIFY TYPES OF NUISANCES WHEREIN OBSCENE OR LEWD MATTER OR OTHER CONDUCT PROHIBITED IS INVOLVED.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 19-1.2(1) reads as rewritten:

"(1) Any and every place in the State where lewd films are publicly exhibited as a predominant ~~and regular~~ course of business, or possessed for the purpose of such exhibition;".

SECTION 2. G.S. 19-1.1(1a) reads as rewritten:

"(1a) "Knowledge" or "knowledge of such nuisance" means having knowledge of the contents and character of the patently offensive sexual conduct which appears in the lewd matter, or knowledge of the acts of lewdness. With regard to nuisances involving assignation, prostitution, gambling, the illegal possession or sale of alcoholic beverages, the illegal possession or sale of controlled substances as defined in the North Carolina Controlled Substances Act, or repeated acts which create and constitute a breach of the ~~peace,~~peace, or repeated activities or conditions which violate a local ordinance regulating sexually oriented businesses, or evidence that the defendant knew or by the exercise of due diligence should have known of the acts or conduct constitutes proof of knowledge."

SECTION 3. G.S. 19-1.2(6) reads as rewritten:

"(6) Every place ~~which, as a regular course of business,~~ which is used for the purposes of lewdness, assignation, gambling, the illegal possession or sale of alcoholic beverages, the illegal possession or sale of controlled substances as defined in the North Carolina Controlled Substances Act, or prostitution, and every such place in or upon which acts of lewdness, assignation, gambling, the illegal possession or sale of alcoholic beverages, the illegal possession or sale of controlled substances as defined in the North Carolina Controlled Substances Act, or prostitution, are held or occur. Knowledge of, acquiescence to, or participation in activities proscribed by this Chapter by any person charged with maintaining a nuisance shall be prima facie evidence that the person used the place for the purposes of such activities."

SECTION 4. G.S. 19-1.3(3) reads as rewritten:

"(3) All money or other valuable consideration, vehicles, conveyances, or other property received or used in gambling, prostitution, the illegal sale of alcoholic ~~beverages or~~beverages, the illegal sale of substances proscribed under the North Carolina Controlled Substances ~~Act,~~Act, or the operation of a sexually oriented business in violation of G.S. 19-1(b1).~~as well as the furniture and movable contents of a place used in connection with such prohibited conduct.~~"

SECTION 5. G.S. 19-1.3 is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(4) The furniture and movable contents of a place used in connection with conduct prohibited by G.S. 19-1(a), (b), or (b1)."

SECTION 6. G.S. 19-2.1 reads as rewritten:

"§ 19-2.1. Action for abatement; injunction.

Wherever a nuisance is kept, maintained, or exists, as defined in this Article, the Attorney General, district attorney, county, municipality, or any private citizen of the county may maintain a civil action in the name of the State of North Carolina to abate a nuisance under this Chapter, perpetually to enjoin all persons from maintaining the same, and to enjoin the use of any structure or thing adjudged to be a nuisance under this Chapter; provided, however, that no private citizen may maintain such action where the alleged nuisance involves the illegal possession or sale of obscene or lewd matter.

Upon request from the Attorney General, district attorney, county or municipality, including the sheriff or chief of police of any county or municipality, the Alcohol Law Enforcement Division of the Department of Crime Control and Public Safety or any other law enforcement agency with jurisdiction may investigate alleged public nuisances and make recommendations regarding actions to abate the public nuisances.

If an action is instituted by a private person, the complainant shall execute a bond prior to the issuance of a temporary restraining order or a ~~temporary~~ preliminary injunction, with good and sufficient surety to be approved by the court or clerk thereof, in the sum of not less than one thousand dollars ($1,000), to secure to the party enjoined the damages he may sustain if such action is wrongfully brought, not prosecuted to final judgment, or is dismissed, or is not maintained, or if it is finally decided that the temporary restraining order or preliminary injunction ought not to have been granted. The party enjoined shall have recourse against said bond for all damages suffered, including damages to his property, person, or character and including reasonable attorney's fees incurred by him in making defense to said action. No bond shall be required of the prosecuting attorney, the Attorney General, county, or municipality, and no action shall be maintained against any public official or public entity, their employees, or agents for investigating or maintaining an action for abatement of a nuisance under the provisions of this Chapter."

SECTION 7. G.S. 19-2.3 reads as rewritten:

"§ 19-2.3. Temporary order restraining removal of personal property from premises; service; punishment.

Where such application for a preliminary injunction is made, the court may, on application of the complainant showing good cause, issue an ex parte temporary restraining order in accordance with G.S. 1A-1, Rule 65(b), preserving the status quo and restraining the defendant and all other persons from removing or in any manner interfering with any evidence specifically described, or in any manner removing or interfering with the personal property and contents of the place where such nuisance is alleged to exist, until the decision of the court granting or refusing such preliminary injunction and until further order of the court thereon. Nothing herein shall be interpreted to allow the prior restraint of the distribution of any matter or the sale of the stock in trade, but an inventory and full accounting of all business transactions involving alleged obscene or lewd matter thereafter shall be required. The inventory provisions provided by this section shall not apply to nuisances occurring at a private dwelling place unless the court finds the private dwelling place is used for profit.

Any person, firm, or corporation enjoined pursuant to this section may file with the court a motion to dissolve any temporary restraining order. Such a motion shall be heard within 24 hours of the time a copy of the motion is served on the complaining party, or on the next day the superior courts are open in the district, whichever is later. At such hearing the complaining party shall have the burden of showing why the restraining order should be continued.

In the event a temporary restraining order is issued, it may be served in accordance with the provisions of G.S. 1A-1, Rule 4, or may be served by handing to and leaving a copy of such order with any person in charge of such place or residing therein, or by posting a copy thereof in a conspicuous place at or upon one or more of the principal doors or entrances to such place, or by such service under said ~~Rule 4, delivery and posting.~~ Rule 4. The officer serving such temporary restraining order shall forthwith enter upon the property and make and return into court an inventory of the personal property and contents situated in and used in conducting or maintaining such nuisance.

Any violation of such temporary restraining order is a contempt of court, and where such order is posted, mutilation or removal thereof, while the same remains in force, is a contempt of court, provided such posted order contains therein a notice to that effect."

SECTION 8. G.S. 19-3(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) The action provided for in this Chapter ~~shall~~ shall, on application of either of the parties, be set down for trial at the first term of the court and shall have precedence over all other cases except crimes, election contests, or injunctions."

SECTION 9. G.S. 19-6 reads as rewritten:

"§ 19-6. Civil penalty; forfeiture; accounting; lien as to expenses of abatement; invalidation of lease.

Lewd matter is contraband, and there are no property rights therein. All personal property, including all money and other considerations, declared to be a nuisance under the provisions of G.S. 19-1.3 and other sections of this Article, are subject to forfeiture to the local government and are recoverable as damages in the county wherein such matter is sold, exhibited or otherwise used. Such property including moneys may be traced to and shall be recoverable from persons who, under G.S. 19-2.4, have knowledge of the nuisance at the time such moneys are received by them.

Upon judgment against the defendant or defendants in legal proceedings brought pursuant to this Article, an accounting shall be made by such defendant or defendants of all moneys received by them which have been declared to be a nuisance under this Article. An amount equal to the sum of all moneys estimated to have been taken in as gross income from such unlawful commercial activity shall be forfeited to the general funds of the city and county governments wherein such activity took place, to be shared equally, as a forfeiture of the fruits of an unlawful enterprise, and as partial restitution for damages done to the public welfare; provided, however, that no provision of this Article shall authorize the recovery of any moneys or gross income received from the sale of any book, magazine, or exhibition of any motion picture prior to the issuance of a preliminary injunction. Where the action is brought pursuant to this Article, special injury need not be proven, and the costs of abatement are a lien on both the real and personal property used in maintaining the nuisance. Costs of abatement include, but are not limited to, reasonable attorney's fees and court costs.

Upon the filing of the action, the plaintiff may file a notice of lis pendens in the official records of the county where the property is located.

If it is judicially found after an adversary hearing pursuant to this Article that a tenant or occupant of a building or tenement, under a lawful title, uses such place for the purposes of lewdness, assignation, prostitution, gambling, sale or possession of illegal alcoholic beverages or substances proscribed under the North Carolina Controlled Substances Act, or repeated acts which create and constitute a breach of the ~~peace,~~ peace, or repeated acts or omissions that violate a local ordinance regulating sexually oriented businesses, or such use makes void the lease or other title under which he holds, at the option of the owner, and, without any act of the owner, causes the right of possession to revert and vest in such owner.

The clear proceeds of civil penalties and forfeitures provided for in this section, except for penalties and properties that accrue to local governments instead of the State, shall be remitted to the Civil Penalty and Forfeiture Fund in accordance with G.S. 115C-457.2."

SECTION 10. G.S. 19-6.1 reads as rewritten:

"§ 19-6.1. Forfeiture of real property.

In all actions where a preliminary injunction, permanent injunction, or an order of abatement is issued pursuant to this Article in which the nuisance consists of or includes at least two prior occurrences within five years of the manufacture, possession with intent to sell, or sale of controlled substances as defined by the North Carolina Controlled Substances Act, two prior occurrences of the possession of any controlled substance included within Schedule I or II of that Act, or two prior convictions within five years of violation of G.S. 14-72.7, the real property on which the nuisance exists or is maintained is subject to forfeiture in accordance with this section. In the case of the two prior convictions of G.S. 14-72.7, the convictions shall not arise out of the same transaction or occurrence.

If all of the owners of the property are defendants in the action, the plaintiff, other than a plaintiff who is a private citizen, may request forfeiture of the real property as part of the relief sought. If forfeiture is requested, and if jurisdiction over all defendant owners is established, upon judgment against the defendant or defendants, the court shall order forfeiture as follows:

(1) If the court finds by clear and convincing evidence that all the owners either (i) have participated in maintaining the nuisance on the property, or (ii) prior to the action had written notice from the plaintiff, or any governmental agent or entity authorized to bring an action pursuant to this Chapter, that the nuisance existed or was maintained on the property and have not made good faith efforts to stop the nuisance from occurring or recurring, the court shall order that the property be forfeited;

(2) If the court finds that one or more of the owners did not participate in maintaining the nuisance on the property or did not have written notice from the plaintiff prior to the action that the nuisance existed or was maintained on the property, the court shall not order forfeiture of the property immediately upon judgment. However, if after judgment and an order directing the defendants to abate the nuisance, the nuisance either continues, begins again, or otherwise recurs within five years of the order and the defendants have not made good faith efforts to abate the nuisance, the plaintiff may petition the court for forfeiture. Upon such petition, the defendant owner or owners shall be given notice and an opportunity to appear and be heard at a hearing to determine the continuation or recurrence of the nuisance. If, in this hearing (i) the plaintiff establishes by clear and convincing evidence that the nuisance, with the owner's or owners' knowledge, has either continued, begun again, or otherwise recurred, and (ii) the defendants fail to establish that they have made and are continuing to make good faith efforts to abate the nuisance, the court shall order that the property be forfeited.

For the purposes of this section, factors which may evidence good faith by the defendant to abate the nuisance include but are not limited to (i) cooperation with law enforcement authorities to abate the nuisance; (ii) lease restrictions prohibiting the illegal possession or sale of ~~narcotic drugs~~controlled substances and an action to evict a tenant for any violations of the lease provision; (iii) a criminal record check of prospective tenants; and (iv) reference checks of prior residency of prospective tenants.

Upon an order of forfeiture, title to the property shall vest in the school board of the county in which the property is located. If at the time of forfeiture the property is subject to a lien or security interest of a person not participating in the maintenance of the nuisance, the school board shall either (i) pay an amount to that person satisfying the lien or security interest; or (ii) sell the property and satisfy the lien or security interest from the proceeds of the sale. If the property is not subject to any lien or security interest at the time of forfeiture, the school board may hold, maintain, lease, sell, or otherwise dispose of the property as it sees fit.

Upon the filing of the action, the plaintiff may file a notice of lis pendens in the official records of the county where the property is located. If the plaintiff files a notice of lis pendens, any person purchasing or obtaining an interest in the property thereafter shall be considered to have notice of the alleged nuisance, and shall forfeit his interest in the property upon a judgment of forfeiture in favor of the plaintiff.

If in the same action in which real property is forfeited the court finds that a tenant or occupant of the property participated in or maintained the nuisance, the lease or other title under which the tenant or occupant holds is void, and the right of possession vests in the new owner. Upon forfeiture, the rights of innocent tenants occupying separate units of the property who were not involved in the nuisance at the time the action was filed shall be in accordance with any relevant lease provisions in effect at the time or, in the absence of relevant lease provisions, in accordance with the law applying to other tenants or occupants of property that is sold, foreclosed upon, or otherwise obtained by new owners."

SECTION 11. This act becomes effective October 1, 2009, and applies to offenses committed and abatement actions commenced on or after that date.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO MAKE IT UNLAWFUL TO USE A MOBILE TELEPHONE FOR E-MAIL OR TEXT MESSAGING WHILE OPERATING A VEHICLE ON A PUBLIC STREET OR HIGHWAY OR PUBLIC VEHICULAR AREA.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 20-137.3(a)(1) reads as rewritten:

"(1) Additional technology. – Any technology that provides access to digital media ~~such as~~including, but not limited to, a camera, ~~electronic mail,~~ music, the Internet, or games. The term does not include electronic mail or text messaging."

SECTION 2. Chapter 20 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 20-137.4A. Unlawful use of mobile telephone for text messaging or electronic mail.

(a) Offense. – It shall be unlawful for any person to operate a vehicle on a public street or highway or public vehicular area while using a mobile telephone to:

(1) Manually enter multiple letters or text in the device as a means of communicating with another person; or

(2) Read any electronic mail or text message transmitted to the device or stored within the device, provided that this prohibition shall not apply to any name or number stored in the device nor to any caller identification information.

(b) Exceptions. – The provisions of this section shall not apply to:

(1) The operator of a vehicle that is lawfully parked or stopped.

(2) Any of the following while in the performance of their official duties: a law enforcement officer; a member of a fire department; or the operator of a public or private ambulance.

(3) The use of factory-installed or aftermarket global positioning systems (GPS) or wireless communications devices used to transmit or receive data as part of a digital dispatch system.

(4) The use of voice operated technology.

(c) Penalty. – A violation of this section while operating a school bus, as defined in G.S. 20-137.4(a)(4), shall be a Class 2 misdemeanor and shall be punishable by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00). Any other violation of this section shall be an infraction and shall be punishable by a fine of one hundred dollars ($100.00) and the costs of court.

No drivers license points or insurance surcharge shall be assessed as a result of a violation of this section. Failure to comply with the provisions of this section shall not constitute negligence per se or contributory negligence per se by the operator in any action for the recovery of damages arising out of the operation, ownership, or maintenance of a vehicle."

SECTION 3. The Joint Legislative Transportation Oversight Committee shall identify and study the leading causes of driver inattention or distraction, the risks posed by driver inattention or distraction, and any methods that might be used to manage those driver distractions and promote highway safety. The Committee shall report its findings and recommendations, including any proposed legislation, to the General Assembly by April 15, 2010.

SECTION 4. This act becomes effective December 1, 2009, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date.

HOUSE BILL 9:
No Texting While Driving

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	May 18, 2009
Introduced by:	Reps. Pierce, Harrison, Hall	Prepared by:	Brenda J. Carter Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	Third Edition

SUMMARY: House Bill 9 would prohibit all drivers from using a mobile phone to read or send electronic mail or text messages, while operating a motor vehicle. An exception would apply for law enforcement officers, firefighters, and ambulance drivers in performance of their official duties. The bill would not apply to voice- operated technology, to GPS devices, or to devices that are part of a digital dispatch system such as OnStar.

[As introduced, this bill was identical to S22, as introduced by Sen. Forrester and S96, as introduced by Sen. Bingham. A PCS for S22 was given a favorable report by Senate Judiciary II and re-referred to Senate Appropriations. This bill differs from S22 in that it makes a clarifying change to provide that violation does not constitute negligence per se or contributory negligence per se; and it would require the Legislative Transportation Oversight Committee to study and make recommendations to the General Assembly concerning driver distraction.]

CURRENT LAW: North Carolina law currently prohibits the use of a mobile telephone or any additional technology associated with a mobile telephone by a person under the age of 18 while operating a motor vehicle (G.S. 20-137.3), or by a person operating a school bus (G.S. 20-137.4), with certain limited exceptions. See chart on reverse side for additional details.

"Mobile telephone" is a device used by subscribers and other users of wireless telephone service to access the service, and includes hand held and hands-free devices. "Additional technology" includes such things as cameras, electronic mail, music, the Internet, or games.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 9 would make it unlawful for a person to use a mobile telephone to enter letters or text as a means of communicating with another person, while operating a motor vehicle. The bill would also make it unlawful for a driver to read an electronic mail or text message on a mobile telephone. The prohibition would apply to all drivers except for law enforcement officers, firefighters, and ambulance drivers in the performance of their official duties.

Section 1 of the bill amends the definition of "additional technology" as it applies to the statutes prohibiting the use of mobile telephones by drivers under 18 and by persons operating a school bus. This change would make it clear that electronic mail and text messaging would not be included as "additional technology" the use of which is punishable under those laws that apply only to drivers under 18 and to persons operating a school bus, and would therefore not be subject to the exclusions that apply to the use of mobile telephones.

Section 2 of the bill creates a new offense making it unlawful for any driver to operate a vehicle on a public street or highway or public vehicular area while using a mobile phone to create or read electronic mail or text messages. The offense would not include accessing caller ID information or any name or number stored in the mobile phone. Failure to comply would not constitute negligence per se or contributory negligence per se by the operator of the vehicle.

Exceptions:

- Law Enforcement Officer/Fire Department Members/Operators of public or private ambulances, while in the performance of official duties.

- The operator of a lawfully parked or stopped vehicle.
- The use of GPS or digital dispatch systems such as OnStar.
- The use of voice operated technology.

Penalties for School Bus Drivers: (These are the same as under current law)

- Class 2 misdemeanor
- $100.00 fine.
- No drivers license points or insurance surcharge.

Penalties Generally:

- Infraction.
- $100.00 fine.
- No drivers license points or insurance surcharge.

Section 3 of the bill would require the Joint Legislative Transportation Oversight Committee to identify and study the leading causes of driver inattention and distraction, along with any methods that might be used to manage those distractions and promote highway safety. The Committee would reports its findings and recommendations to the General Assembly by April 15, 2010.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This bill would become effective December 1, 2009, and apply to offenses committed on or after that date.

BACKGROUND:

	Prohibition	Exceptions	Penalty
G.S. 20-137.3 [CURRENT LAW]	Persons under the age of 18 may not use mobile phone or associated technology while operating a motor vehicle while the vehicle is in motion.	• In emergency situation to call emergency response operator; hospital, physician, or health clinic; ambulance; law enforcement • To call parent, legal guardian, or spouse	• Infraction • $25 fine • No drivers license points, insurance surcharge, or court costs
G.S. 20-137.4 [CURRENT LAW]	Person operating a school bus, activity bus, or any vehicle transporting school children for compensation, may not use mobile phone or associated technology while the vehicle is in motion.	• In an emergency situation, defined as circumstances such as medical concerns, unsafe road conditions, matters of public safety, or mechanical problems that create a risk of harm for operator and passengers	• Class 2 misdemeanor (1-30 days community punishment with no prior convictions) • Minimum $100 fine • No drivers license points or insurance surcharge

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO CREATE THE OFFENSE OF LARCENY, DESTRUCTION, DEFACEMENT, OR VANDALISM OF PORTABLE TOILETS OR PUMPER TRUCKS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Article 16 of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 14-86.2. Larceny, destruction, defacement, or vandalism of portable toilets or pumper trucks.

Unless the conduct is covered under some other provision of law providing greater punishment, if any person steals, takes from its temporary location or from any person having the lawful custody thereof, or willfully destroys, defaces, or vandalizes a chemical or portable toilet as defined in G.S. 130A-290 or a pumper truck that is operated by a septage management firm that is permitted by the Department of Environment and Natural Resources under G.S. 130A-291.1, the person is guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective December 1, 2009, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date.

HOUSE BILL 616:
Offense for Portable Toilets/Pumper Trucks

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	May 19, 2009
Introduced by:	Rep. Allen	Prepared by:	Jennifer McGinnis
Analysis of:	Third Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 616 714 (Third Edition) would create the offense of larceny, destruction, defacement, or vandalism of portable toilets or pumper trucks.

[As introduced, this bill was identical to Senate Bill 714, as introduced by Sen. Berger of Franklin. SB 714 (First Edition) was given a favorable report in Senate Judiciary II on March 31, 2009. The bill is currently in Senate Appropriations/Base Budget.]

CURRENT LAW: GS 14-72 (Larceny of property; receiving stolen goods or possessing stolen goods) provides that the larceny of goods of the value of more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) is a Class H felony[1]. Larceny of property where the value of the property or goods is not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), is a Class 1 misdemeanor.

GS 14-160 (Willful and wanton injury to personal property; punishments) provides that if any person: wantonly and willfully injures the personal property of another the person is guilty of a Class 2 misdemeanor[2], except where the damage caused is in an amount in excess of $200.00, in which case the person is guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor[3].

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 714would make it a Class 1 misdemeanor[3] for any person to steal, take from its temporary location or from any person who has lawful custody, or willfully destroy, deface, or vandalize a chemical or portable toilet or a pumper truck that is operated by a septage management firm. This penalty would apply unless the conduct is covered under another provision of law providing greater punishment.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act would become effective on December 1, 2009 and would apply to offenses committed on or after that date.

Jennifer Mundt, Legislative Analyst for the House Environment and Natural Resources Committee, substantially contributed to this summary.

H616-SMRI-44(e3) v1

[1] The presumptive range of minimum punishment for a Class H felony when there are no prior convictions is 5 to 6 months of community, intermediate, or active punishment.

[2] The range of punishment for a Class 2 misdemeanor when there are no prior convictions is 1 to 30 days of community punishment

[3] The range of punishment for a Class 1 misdemeanor when there are no prior convictions is 1 to 45 days of community punishment

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO AMEND THE LAW RELATING TO RENUNCIATIONS AND TO MAKE RELATED AMENDMENTS TO THE NORTH CAROLINA UNIFORM TRUST CODE AND THE LAW GOVERNING POWERS OF ATTORNEY AND ADMINISTRATION OF DECEDENTS' ESTATES, AS RECOMMENDED BY THE GENERAL STATUTES COMMISSION.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 31B-1 reads as rewritten:

"§ 31B-1. Right to renounce succession.

(a) A person who succeeds to a property interest as:

(8) Appointee under a power of appointment exercised by a testamentary instrument or a nontestamentary ~~instrument, or~~ instrument;

(9) Repealed by Session Laws 1989, c. 684, s. 2.

(9a) Surviving joint tenant, surviving tenant by the entireties, or surviving tenant of a tenancy with a right of ~~survivorship, or~~ survivorship;

(9b) Person entitled to share in a testator's estate under the provisions of ~~G.S. 31-5.5, or~~ G.S. 31-5.5;

(9c) Beneficiary under any other testamentary or nontestamentary instrument, including a beneficiary under:

a. Any qualified or nonqualified deferred compensation, employee benefit, retirement or death benefit, plan, fund, annuity, contract, policy, program or instrument, either funded or unfunded, which is established or maintained to provide retirement income or death benefits or results in, or is intended to result in, deferral of income;

b. An individual retirement account or individual retirement annuity; or

c. Any annuity, payable on ~~death,~~ death account, or other right to death benefits arising under ~~contract; or~~ contract;

(9d) ~~The duly~~ Duly authorized or appointed guardian of any of the persons listed in subdivisions (1) through (9c) of this subsection, but only with the prior or subsequent approval of the clerk of superior court, or if required, of the resident judge of the superior court, ~~of any of the above.~~ pursuant to a proceeding or action instituted in accordance with and subject to the requirements of G.S. 31B-1.2; or

(9e) Subject to G.S. 31B-1.1 and G.S. 31B-1.2, fiduciary, including a trustee of a charitable trust, an attorney-in-fact of any of the persons listed in subdivisions (1) through (9e) of this subsection if expressly authorized by the governing power of attorney, and a personal representative appointed under Chapter 28A of the General Statutes of any of the persons listed in subdivisions (1) through (9c) of this subsection;

~~(10) The personal representative appointed under Chapter 28A of any of the above,~~

~~or the attorney in fact of any of the above~~ may renounce at anytime, in whole or in ~~part~~ part, the right of succession to any property or interest therein, including a future interest, by filing a written instrument under the provisions of this Chapter. A renunciation may be of a fractional share or any limited interest or estate. The renunciation shall be deemed to include the entire interest of the person whose property or interest is being renounced unless otherwise specifically limited. A person may renounce any interest in or power over property, including a power of appointment, even if its creator imposed a spendthrift provision or similar restriction on transfer or a restriction or limitation on the right to renounce. ~~Provided, however,~~ Notwithstanding the foregoing, there shall be no right of partial renunciation if ~~the decedent or donee of the power expressly so provided in~~ the instrument creating the ~~interest.~~interest expressly so provides.

(b) This Chapter shall apply to all renunciations of present and future interests, whether qualified or nonqualified for federal and State inheritance, estate, and gift tax purposes, unless expressly provided otherwise in the instrument creating the interest.

(c) The instrument of renunciation shall (i) identify the transferor of the property or interest in the property or the creator of the power or the holder of the power, (ii) describe the property or interest renounced, ~~(ii)~~ (iii) declare the renunciation and extent thereof, ~~(iii)~~ and (iv) be signed and acknowledged by the person ~~authorized to renounce.~~ renouncing.

(d) A parent of a minor for whom no general guardian or guardian of the estate has been appointed may renounce, in whole or in part, an interest in or power over property (including a power of appointment) that would have passed to the minor as the result of that parent's renunciation. The parent may renounce the interest or power even if its creator imposed a spendthrift provision or similar restriction on transfer or a restriction or limitation on the right to renounce."

SECTION 2. G.S. 31B-1A is recodified as G.S. 31B-1.1. G.S. 31B-1.1, as recodified by this section, reads as rewritten:

"§ 31B-1.1. ~~Right to renounce fiduciary powers.~~ Right of fiduciary to renounce.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in the testamentary or nontestamentary instrument, a fiduciary under a testamentary or nontestamentary instrument may renounce, in whole or in part, fiduciary rights, privileges, powers, and ~~immunities by executing and by delivering, filing, or recording a written renunciation pursuant to the provisions of G.S. 31B-2. A~~ immunities; however, a fiduciary may not renounce the ~~rights of beneficiaries~~ personal rights exercisable by a beneficiary alone, unless the instrument creating the fiduciary relationship authorizes such a renunciation. The instrument of renunciation shall (i) identify the creator of the rights, powers, privileges, or immunities, (ii) describe any right, power, privilege, or immunity renounced, (iii) declare the renunciation and the extent thereof, and (iv) be signed and acknowledged by the fiduciary authorized to renounce.

(b) ~~The instrument of renunciation shall (i) describe any fiduciary right, power, privilege, or immunity renounced, (ii) declare the renunciation and the extent thereof, and (iii) be signed and acknowledged by the fiduciary authorized to renounce.~~ Except as provided in subsection (c) of this section and except to the extent a statute of this State expressly restricts or limits a fiduciary's right to renounce, a fiduciary acting in a fiduciary capacity may renounce the right of succession to any property or interest therein as permitted by this Chapter, even if the testamentary or nontestamentary instrument governing the fiduciary restricts or limits the right to renounce the fiduciary's right of succession to the property or interest therein.

(c) An attorney-in-fact for a principal acting under subsection (a) or subsection (b) of this section may renounce only if expressly authorized by the governing power of attorney."

SECTION 3. Chapter 31B of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 31B-1.2. Right of fiduciary to institute a proceeding for review of renunciation.

(a) Prior to renouncing, if a fiduciary so elects, the fiduciary may institute a proceeding by petition before the clerk of court for a determination as to whether a renunciation would be compatible with the fiduciary's duties. Commencement of the proceeding, jurisdiction, venue, parties, representation, and notice shall be governed by Chapter 36C of the General Statutes. In addition to any other notice requirements, notice of the proceeding shall be given to all persons entitled to delivery of a copy of an instrument of renunciation under G.S. 31B-2.1.

(b) After renouncing, if a fiduciary so elects, the fiduciary has a right to institute a declaratory judgment action pursuant to Article 26 of Chapter 1 of the General Statutes for a determination as to whether the renunciation is compatible with the fiduciary's duties. In addition to any other notice requirements, notice of the action shall be given to all persons entitled to delivery of a copy of an instrument of renunciation under G.S. 31B-2.1.

(c) A proceeding or action instituted under this section shall comply with all of the following:

(1) The petition or complaint shall state the basis for the fiduciary's allegation that the renunciation is compatible with the fiduciary's duties, considering among other things the intended purposes of the trust or other instrument and the impact of the renunciation on beneficiaries and potential beneficiaries. A petition or complaint filed by a trustee of a charitable trust shall contain a statement that a copy of the petition or complaint is being provided to the Attorney General.

(2) After considering among other things the intended purposes of the trust or other instrument and the impact of the renunciation on beneficiaries and potential beneficiaries, the court shall enter an order stating the court's determination as to whether the renunciation is compatible with the fiduciary's duties.

(d) The effectiveness of a renunciation is not affected by a determination under this section that the renunciation is not compatible with a fiduciary's duties."

SECTION 4. G.S. 31B-2 reads as rewritten:

"§ 31B-2. ~~Time and place of filing renunciation.~~Filing and registering of renunciations; failure to file or register; spouse's interest.

(a) To be a qualified disclaimer for federal and State inheritance, estate, and gift tax purposes, an instrument ~~renouncing a present interest~~ of renunciation shall be filed within the time period required under the applicable federal statute for a renunciation to be given effect as a disclaimer for federal estate and gift tax purposes. If there is no such federal statute the instrument shall be filed not later than nine months after the date the transfer of the renounced interest to the ~~renouncer~~ person whose property or interest is being renounced was complete for the purpose of such taxes.

(b) ~~An instrument renouncing a future interest shall be filed not later than six months after the event by which the taker of the property or interest is finally ascertained and his interest indefeasibly vested and he is entitled to possession even though such renunciation may not be recognized as a disclaimer for federal estate tax purposes.~~ When a renunciation of real property or an interest in real property is made within the time period required under subsection (a) of this section, the spouse of the person whose property or interest is being renounced is not required to join in the execution of the instrument of renunciation, and, as provided in G.S. 31B-3(a)(1), the spouse has no statutory dower, inchoate marital rights, elective share, or any other marital interest in the real property or real property interest renounced.

(c) The renunciation ~~shall be~~ is effective when filed with the clerk of court ~~of~~ (i) in the county in which court proceedings have been commenced for the administration of the estate of the deceased owner or deceased ~~donee~~ creator of the power ~~or, if they have not been commenced, in which they could be commenced. A copy of the renunciation shall be delivered in person or mailed by registered or certified mail to any personal representative, or other fiduciary of the decedent or donee of the power. If the property interest renounced includes any proceeds of a life insurance policy being renounced pursuant to G.S. 31B-1(a)(5) the person renouncing shall mail, by registered or certified mail, a copy of the renunciation to the insurance company issuing the policy. If the property or property interest renounced is created by nontestamentary instrument, a copy of the renunciation shall be delivered in person, or mailed by registered or certified mail, to the trustee or other person who has legal title to, or possession of, the property or property interest renounced.~~ or holder of the power; or (ii) if proceedings have not been commenced, then in a county in which they could be commenced; or (iii) in all other cases, in a county with a court that has jurisdiction to enforce the terms of the instrument creating the interest renounced. In those cases in which an estate proceeding has not been commenced, the renunciation shall be filed as an estate matter. In addition to the above requirements, a renunciation of real property, or an interest therein, shall be registered in accordance with the provisions of subsection (d) of this section.

(d) If real property or an interest therein is renounced, ~~a copy of~~ the instrument of renunciation shall also be ~~filed for recording in the office of the register of deeds of all counties wherein any part of the interest renounced is situated.~~ registered as provided in G.S. 47-18 or G.S. 47-20. The instrument of renunciation shall be indexed in the grantor's index under (i) the name of the ~~deceased owner~~ transferor or ~~donee~~ creator of the ~~power,~~ power or holder of the power, and (ii) the name of the ~~person renouncing.~~ person whose property or interest is being renounced. ~~The renunciation of an interest, or a part thereof, in real property shall not be effective to renounce such interest until a copy of the renunciation is filed for recording in the office of the register of deeds in the county wherein such interest or part thereof is situated. A spouse of a person renouncing real property or an interest in real property shall have no statutory dower, inchoate marital rights, or any other interest in the real property or real property interest renounced.~~ Failure to file or register the instrument of renunciation does not affect the effectiveness of the renunciation as between the person whose property or interest is being renounced and persons to whom the property interest or power passes by reason of the renunciation; however, record title to a renounced interest in real property does not pass to persons receiving the renounced interest by reason of the renunciation until the instrument of renunciation is registered as provided in G.S. 47-18 or G.S. 47-20.

(e) If an instrument transferring an interest in or right, privilege, power, or immunity over property subject to a renunciation is required or permitted by law to be filed or registered, the instrument of renunciation may be so filed or registered. Failure to file or register the instrument of renunciation does not affect the effectiveness of the renunciation as between the person whose property or interest is being renounced and persons to whom the property interest or power passes by reason of the renunciation."

SECTION 5. Chapter 31B of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 31B-2.1. Delivery to other persons of instrument of renunciation by the person renouncing.

(a) In this section:

(1) "Beneficiary designation" means an instrument, other than an instrument creating a trust, naming the beneficiary of:

a. An annuity or insurance policy;

b. An account with a designation for payment on death;

c. A security registered in beneficiary form;

d. A pension, profitsharing, retirement, or other employment-related benefit plan;

e. An individual retirement account or retirement annuity; or

f. Any other nonprobate transfer at death.

(2) "Deliver" means to deliver in person or to send, properly addressed, by first-class mail, telephonic facsimile transmission equipment, electronic mail, or third-party commercial carrier, or by any method permitted by G.S. 1A-1, Rule 4.

(b) The failure to deliver a copy of an instrument of renunciation by a method permitted by G.S. 1A-1, Rule 4, or by a method that results in actual receipt tolls any statute of limitations with regard to any right of action for breach of fiduciary duty.

(c) If a fiduciary renounces an interest in property pursuant to G.S. 31B-1(a)(9e), a copy of the instrument of renunciation shall be delivered to each living person whose beneficial interest is affected by the renunciation and to any co-fiduciary who did not join in the renunciation.

(d) In the case of an interest created under the law of intestate succession or an interest created by will, other than an interest in a testamentary trust, a copy of the instrument of renunciation must:

(1) Be delivered to the personal representative of the decedent's estate; or

(2) If no personal representative is then serving, be filed as an estate matter with a court having jurisdiction to appoint the personal representative.

(e) In the case of a beneficiary renouncing an interest in a testamentary trust, a copy of the instrument of renunciation must:

(1) Be delivered to the trustee then serving;

(2) If no trustee is then serving, be delivered to the personal representative of the decedent's estate; or

(3) If no personal representative or trustee is then serving, be filed as an estate matter with a court having jurisdiction to enforce the trust.

(f) In the case of a beneficiary renouncing an interest in an inter vivos trust, a copy of the instrument of renunciation must:

(1) Be delivered to the trustee then serving;

(3) If the renunciation is made before the time the instrument creating the trust becomes irrevocable, be delivered to the settlor of the trust or the transferor of the interest.

(g) In the case of a beneficiary renouncing an interest created by a beneficiary designation made before the time the designation becomes irrevocable, a copy of the instrument of renunciation must be delivered to the person making the beneficiary designation.

(h) In the case of a beneficiary renouncing an interest created by a beneficiary designation made after the time the designation becomes irrevocable, a copy of the instrument of renunciation must be delivered to the person obligated to distribute the interest.

(i) In the case of a renunciation by a surviving holder of an interest in property subject to a right of survivorship, a copy of the instrument of renunciation must be delivered to the persons to whom the person renouncing reasonably believes the renounced interest passes, at their last addresses known to the person renouncing, and to the personal representative of the deceased joint holder, if any.

(j) In the case of a renunciation by a permissible appointee, or taker in default of exercise, of a power of appointment at anytime after the power was created, a copy of the instrument of renunciation must be delivered:

(1) To the holder of the power;

(2) To the fiduciary acting under the instrument that created the power or, if no fiduciary is then serving under the instrument that created the power, filed as an estate matter with a court having authority to appoint the fiduciary; and

(3) To any holder of legal title to the property subject to the power of appointment other than the fiduciary.

(k) In the case of a renunciation by an appointee of an exercised power of appointment, a copy of the instrument of renunciation must be delivered:

(1) To the holder of the power or the personal representative of the holder's estate;

(2) To the fiduciary under the instrument that created the power or, if no fiduciary is then serving under the instrument that created the power, filed as an estate matter with a court having authority to appoint the fiduciary; and

(3) To any holder of legal title to the property subject to the power of appointment other than the fiduciary.

(l) In the case of a renunciation of a power of appointment by the holder of the power, a copy of the instrument of renunciation must be delivered:

(1) To the fiduciary acting under the instrument that created the power or, if no fiduciary is then serving under the instrument that created the power, filed as an estate matter with a court having authority to appoint the fiduciary; and

(2) To any holder of legal title to the property subject to the power of appointment other than the fiduciary.

(m) In the case of a renunciation by a fiduciary of a right, privilege, power, or immunity relating to a trust or estate, a copy of the instrument of renunciation must be delivered as provided in subsection (c), (d), (e), or (f) of this section, as if the power renounced were an interest in property.

(n) In the case of a renunciation of a power by an agent, including an attorney-in-fact, a copy of the instrument of renunciation must be delivered to the principal or the principal's legal representative other than the agent.

(o) In the case of a renunciation by a trustee of a charitable trust, a copy of the instrument of renunciation must be delivered to the North Carolina Attorney General in addition to any other delivery required by this section.

(p) In the case of a renunciation by a donee, a copy of the instrument of renunciation must be delivered to the persons to whom the person renouncing reasonably believes the renounced interest passes, at their last addresses known to the person renouncing, and to the donor or the donor's legal representative other than the donee.

(q) The failure to deliver a copy of the instrument of renunciation as required in this section does not affect the validity of the renunciation for purposes of G.S. 31B-3 even though the renunciation may not be recognized as a disclaimer for federal estate tax purposes."

SECTION 6. G.S. 31B-3 reads as rewritten:

"§ 31B-3. Effect of renunciation.

(a) Unless the decedent, donee of a power of appointment, or creator of an interest under an inter vivos instrument has otherwise provided in the instrument creating the interest, the property or interest renounced devolves as follows:

(1) If the renunciation is filed within the time period described in G.S. 31B-2(a), the property or interest renounced devolves and any interest that takes effect in possession or enjoyment after the termination of the property or interest renounced takes effect as if the ~~renouncer~~ person whose property or interest is being renounced had predeceased the date the transfer of the renounced interest ~~to the renouncer~~ was complete for federal and State inheritance, estate, and gift tax purposes, or, in the case of the renunciation of a fiduciary right, power, privilege, or immunity, the property or interest subject to the power devolves as if the fiduciary right, power, privilege, or immunity never existed. Any such renunciation relates back for all purposes to the date the transfer of the renounced interest ~~to the renouncer~~ was complete for the purpose of those ~~taxes.~~ taxes, and the spouse of the person whose property or interest is being renounced has no elective share or other marital interest in the renounced property.

(2) If the renunciation is not filed within the time period described in G.S. 31B-2(a), the person whose property or interest is being renounced is deemed to have made a transfer of the property or interest and the property or interest devolves and any interest that takes effect in possession or enjoyment after the termination of the property or interest renounced takes effect as if the ~~renouncer~~ person whose property or interest is being renounced had died on the date the renunciation is filed, or, in the case of the renunciation of a fiduciary right, power, privilege, or immunity, the property or interest subject to the power devolves as if the fiduciary right, power, privilege, or immunity ceased to exist as of the date the renunciation is filed.

(3) Any future interest that takes effect in possession or enjoyment after the termination of the estate or interest renounced takes effect as if the ~~renouncer~~ person whose property or interest is being renounced had died on the date determined under subdivision (1) or (2) of this subsection, and upon the filing of the renunciation the persons in being as of the time the ~~renouncer~~ person whose property or interest is being renounced is deemed to have died will immediately become entitled to possession or enjoyment of any such future interest.

(b) In the event that the property or interest renounced was created by testamentary disposition, the devolution of the property or interest renounced shall be ~~governed by G.S. 31-42(a)~~ as provided in G.S. 31-42 notwithstanding that in fact the ~~renouncer~~ person whose property or interest is being renounced has not actually died before the testator.

(c) In the event that the decedent dies intestate, or the ownership or succession to property or to an interest is to be determined as though a decedent had died intestate, and the ~~renouncer~~ person whose property or interest is being renounced has living issue who would have been entitled to an interest in the property or interest if the ~~renouncer~~ person whose property or interest is being renounced had predeceased the decedent, then the property or interest renounced shall be distributed to such issue, per stirpes. If the ~~renouncer~~ person whose property or interest is being renounced does not have such issue, then the property or interest shall be distributed as though the ~~renouncer~~ person whose property or interest is being renounced had predeceased the decedent.

(d) In the event that the property or interest renounced was created by a revocable or irrevocable inter vivos trust, the devolution of the property or interest renounced shall be as provided in G.S. 36C-6-605 notwithstanding that in fact the person whose property or interest is being renounced has not actually died before the event that would otherwise cause the property or interest renounced to pass to the person whose property or interest is being renounced.

(e) If a trustee files, within the time period described in G.S. 31B-2(a), a renunciation of an interest in property, the interest does not become trust property. If a trustee does not file a renunciation of an interest in property within the time period described in G.S. 31B-2(a), the interest passes to the person or persons who would have taken the interest as of the date of the renunciation if the trust had never existed.

(f) Except as provided in the instrument of renunciation, if a renunciation causes property to pass to a trust in which the person whose property or interest is being renounced holds a power of appointment, the person renouncing is deemed to have renounced the power of appointment with respect to assets passing into the trust by reason of the renunciation if the person renouncing is a person who holds a right to renounce the power of appointment.

(g) Unless otherwise provided in the instrument of renunciation, the interest in property being renounced by a surviving tenant by the entireties upon the death of the other tenant is deemed to be a one-half interest in the former entirety property, and title to that one-half interest passes as if the deceased tenant survived the tenant renouncing.

(h) Unless otherwise provided in the instrument of renunciation, the interest in property being renounced by a surviving joint tenant with right of survivorship is deemed to be the fractional interest of the deceased joint tenant to which the surviving joint tenant would have been entitled by right of survivorship, and title to that fractional interest passes as if the tenant renouncing predeceased the deceased joint tenant.

(i) Reserved for future codification purposes.

(j) Reserved for future codification purposes.

(k) A renunciation is binding upon the person whose property or interest is being renounced and all persons claiming through or under that person."

SECTION 7. G.S. 31B-4 reads as rewritten:

"§ 31B-4. Waiver and bar.

(a) The right to renounce property or an interest therein is barred by:

(1) An assignment, conveyance, encumbrance, pledge, or transfer of the property or interest, or a contract therefor by the person authorized to renounce,

(2) A written waiver of the right to renounce, or

(3) Repealed by Session Laws 1998-148, s. 4.

(4) A sale of the property or interest under judicial sale made before the renunciation is effected.

(b) ~~The renunciation or the written waiver of~~ An instrument waiving or barring the right to renounce is binding upon the ~~renouncer or~~ person waiving the right to renounce or the person barred from renouncing and all persons claiming through or under ~~him.~~ that person.

(c) A fiduciary's application for appointment or assumption of duties as fiduciary does not waive or bar the fiduciary's right to renounce a right, power, privilege, or immunity.

(d) No person shall be liable for distributing or disposing of property in reliance upon the terms of a renunciation that is invalid for the reason that the right of renunciation has been waived or barred, if the distribution or disposition is otherwise proper, and the person has no actual knowledge or record notice of the facts that constitute a waiver or bar to the right of renunciation.

(e) The right to renounce property or an interest in property pursuant to this Chapter is not barred by an acceptance of the property, interest, or benefit thereunder; provided, however, an acceptance of the property, interest, or benefit thereunder may preclude such renunciation from being a qualified renunciation for federal and State inheritance, estate, and gift tax purposes.

(f) An instrument waiving or barring the right to renounce an interest in real property is not effective as to persons protected under G.S. 47-18 or G.S. 47-20 until either (i) registered as provided in those sections or (ii) registered pursuant to a judicial sale proceeding as described in subdivision (4) of subsection (a) of this section in which the person renouncing is a party. The instrument of waiver or bar shall be indexed in the grantor's index under (i) the name of the transferor of the property or interest in the property or creator of the power or holder of the power and (ii) the name of the person whose renunciation is waived or barred."

SECTION 8. Chapter 31B of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 31B-4.1. Tax qualified renunciation.

If, as a result of a renunciation, the renounced property is treated pursuant to the provisions of Title 26 of the United States Code, as now or hereafter amended, or any successor statute thereto, and the regulations promulgated thereunder, as never having been transferred to the person whose property or interest is being renounced, then the renunciation is an effective renunciation, notwithstanding any other provision of this Chapter. This section does not preclude an action for breach of fiduciary duty."

SECTION 9. G.S. 31B-6 is repealed.

SECTION 10. G.S. 28A-13-3 reads as rewritten:

"§ 28A-13-3. Powers of a personal representative or fiduciary.

(a) Except as qualified by express limitations imposed in a will of the decedent or a court order, and subject to the provisions of G.S. 28A-13-6 respecting the powers of joint personal representatives, a personal representative has the power to perform in a reasonable and prudent manner every act which a reasonable and prudent person would perform incident to the collection, preservation, liquidation or distribution of a decedent's estate so as to accomplish the desired result of settling and distributing the decedent's estate in a safe, orderly, accurate and expeditious manner as provided by law, including the powers specified in the following subdivisions:

~~(33) To renounce in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 31B of the General Statutes.~~

(a1) Except as qualified by express limitations imposed in a will of the decedent, and subject to the provisions of G.S. 28A-13-6 respecting the powers of joint personal representatives, a personal representative shall have absolute discretion to make the election as to which items of the decedent's personal and household effects shall be excluded from the carry over basis provision of the federal income tax law and such election shall be conclusive and binding on all concerned.

(a2) Subject to the provisions of G.S. 28A-13-6 respecting the powers of joint personal representatives, a personal representative has the power to renounce in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 31B of the General Statutes.

(b) Any question arising out of the powers conferred by subsections ~~(a) and (a1) above~~ (a), (a1), and (a2) of this section shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Article 18 of this Chapter.

(c) Prior to the personal representative exercising possession, custody or control over real property of the estate he shall petition the clerk of court to obtain an order authorizing such possession, custody or control. The petition shall include:

(1) A description of the real property which is the subject of the petition;

(2) The names, ages, and addresses, if known, of the devisees and heirs of the decedent;

(3) A statement by the personal representative that he has determined that such possession, custody or control is in the best interest of the administration of the estate.

The devisees and heirs will be made parties to the proceeding by service of summons in the manner prescribed by law. If the clerk of court determines that it is in the best interest of the administration of the estate to authorize the personal representative to take possession, custody or control he shall grant an order authorizing that power. If a special proceeding has been instituted by the personal representative pursuant to G.S. 28A-15-1(c), the personal representative may petition for possession, custody, or control of any real property as a part of that proceeding and is not required to institute a separate special proceeding."

SECTION 11. G.S. 32A-1 reads as rewritten:

"§ 32A-1. Statutory Short Form of General Power of Attorney.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO MAKE TECHNICAL AND CLARIFYING CHANGES TO THE JUVENILE CODE.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 7B-101(1)d. reads as rewritten:

"(1) Abused juveniles. – Any juvenile less than 18 years of age whose parent, guardian, custodian, or caretaker:

...

d. Commits, permits, or encourages the commission of a violation of the following laws by, with, or upon the juvenile: first-degree rape, as provided in G.S. 14-27.2; rape of a child by an adult offender, as provided in G.S. 14-27.2A; second degree rape as provided in G.S. 14-27.3; first-degree sexual offense, as provided in G.S. 14-27.4; sexual offense with a child by an adult offender, as provided in G.S. 14-27.4A; second degree sexual offense, as provided in G.S. 14-27.5; sexual act by a custodian, as provided in G.S. 14-27.7; crime against nature, as provided in G.S. 14-177; incest, as provided in G.S. 14-178; preparation of obscene photographs, slides, or motion pictures of the juvenile, as provided in G.S. 14-190.5; employing or permitting the juvenile to assist in a violation of the obscenity laws as provided in G.S. 14-190.6; dissemination of obscene material to the juvenile as provided in G.S. 14-190.7 and G.S. 14-190.8; displaying or disseminating material harmful to the juvenile as provided in G.S. 14-190.14 and G.S. 14-190.15; first and second degree sexual exploitation of the juvenile as provided in G.S. 14-190.16 and G.S. 14-190.17; promoting the prostitution of the juvenile as provided in G.S. 14-190.18; and taking indecent liberties with the juvenile, as provided in G.S. 14-202.1.

...."

SECTION 2. G.S. 7B-1104 reads as rewritten:

"§ 7B-1104. Petition or motion.

The petition, or motion pursuant to G.S. 7B-1102, shall be verified by the petitioner or movant and shall be entitled "In Re (last name of juvenile), a minor juvenile", who shall be a party to the action, and shall set forth such of the following facts as are known; and with respect to the facts which are unknown the petitioner or movant shall so state:

(1) The name of the juvenile as it appears on the juvenile's birth certificate, the date and place of birth, and the county where the juvenile is presently residing.

(2) The name and address of the petitioner or movant and facts sufficient to identify the petitioner or movant as one authorized by G.S. 7B-1103 to file a petition or motion.

(3) The name and address of the parents of the juvenile. If the name or address of one or both parents is unknown to the petitioner or movant, the petitioner or movant shall set forth with particularity the petitioner's or movant's efforts to ascertain the identity or whereabouts of the parent or parents. The information may be contained in an affidavit attached to the petition or motion and incorporated therein by reference. A person whose actions resulted in a conviction under G.S. 14-27.2 or G.S. 14-27.3 and the conception of the juvenile need not be named in the petition.

(4) The name and address of any person who has been judicially appointed as guardian of the person of the juvenile.

(5) The name and address of any person or agency to whom custody of the juvenile has been given by a court of this or any other state; and a copy of the custody order shall be attached to the petition or motion.

(6) Facts that are sufficient to warrant a determination that one or more of the grounds for terminating parental rights exist.

(7) That the petition or motion has not been filed to circumvent the provisions of Article 2 of Chapter 50A of the General Statutes, the Uniform Child-Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act."

SECTION 3. G.S. 7B-1106 reads as rewritten:

"§ 7B-1106. Issuance of summons.

(a) Except as provided in G.S. 7B-1105, upon the filing of the petition, the court shall cause a summons to be issued. The summons shall be directed to the following persons or agency, not otherwise a party petitioner, who shall be named as respondents:

(1) The parents of the ~~juvenile;~~ juvenile. However, a summons does not need to be directed to or served upon any parent who, under Chapter 48 of the General Statutes, has irrevocably relinquished the juvenile to a county department of social services or licensed child-placing agency or to any parent who has consented to the adoption of the juvenile by the petitioner.

(2) Any person who has been judicially appointed as guardian of the person of the ~~juvenile;~~juvenile.

(3) The custodian of the juvenile appointed by a court of competent ~~jurisdiction;~~jurisdiction.

(4) Any county department of social services or licensed child-placing agency to whom a juvenile has been released by one parent pursuant to Part 7 of Article 3 of Chapter 48 of the General Statutes or any county department of social services to whom placement responsibility for the child has been given by a court of competent ~~jurisdiction; and~~jurisdiction.

~~(5) The juvenile.~~

~~Provided, no summons need be directed to or served upon any parent who, under Chapter 48 of the General Statutes, has irrevocably relinquished the juvenile to a county department of social services or licensed child-placing agency nor to any parent who has consented to the adoption of the juvenile by the petitioner.~~ The summons shall notify the respondents to file a written answer within 30 days after service of the summons and petition. ~~Except that the summons and other pleadings or papers directed to the juvenile shall be served upon the juvenile's guardian ad litem if one has been appointed, service~~ Service of the summons shall be completed as provided under the procedures established by G.S. 1A-1, Rule 4(j). But the parent of the juvenile shall not be deemed to be under a disability even though the parent is a minor.

(a1) If a guardian ad litem has been appointed for the juvenile pursuant to G.S. 7B-601 and has not been relieved of responsibility or if the court appoints a guardian ad litem for the juvenile after the petition is filed, a copy of all pleadings and other papers required to be served shall be served on the juvenile's guardian ad litem or attorney advocate pursuant to procedures established under G.S. 1A-1, Rule 5.

(b) The summons shall be issued for the purpose of terminating parental rights pursuant to the provisions of subsection (a) of this section and shall include:

(1) The name of the minor juvenile;

(2) Notice that a written answer to the petition must be filed with the clerk who signed the petition within 30 days after service of the summons and a copy of the petition, or the parent's rights may be terminated;

(3) Notice that if they are indigent, the parents are entitled to appointed counsel; the parents may contact the clerk immediately to request counsel;

(4) Notice that this is a new case. Any attorney appointed previously will not represent the parents in this proceeding unless ordered by the court;

(5) Notice that the date, time, and place of the hearing will be mailed by the clerk upon filing of the answer or 30 days from the date of service if no answer is filed; and

(6) Notice of the purpose of the hearing and notice that the parents may attend the termination hearing.

(c) If a county department of social services, not otherwise a party petitioner, is served with a petition alleging that the parental rights of the parent should be terminated pursuant to G.S. 7B-1111, the department shall file a written answer and shall be deemed a party to the proceeding."

SECTION 4. G.S. 7B-1106.1(a) reads as rewritten:

"§ 7B-1106.1. Notice in pending child abuse, neglect, or dependency cases.

(a) Upon the filing of a motion pursuant to G.S. 7B-1102, the movant shall prepare a notice directed to each of the following persons or agency, not otherwise a movant:

(1) The parents of the juvenile. However, notice does not need to be directed to or served upon any parent who, under Chapter 48 of the General Statutes, has irrevocably relinquished the juvenile to a county department of social services or licensed child-placing agency or to any parent who has consented to the adoption of the juvenile by the movant.

(2) Any person who has been judicially appointed as guardian of the person of the juvenile.

(3) The custodian of the juvenile appointed by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(4) Any county department of social services or licensed child-placing agency to whom a juvenile has been released by one parent pursuant to Part 7 of Article 3 of Chapter 48 of the General Statutes or any county department of social services to whom placement responsibility for the juvenile has been given by a court of competent jurisdiction.

(5) The juvenile's guardian ad ~~litem~~ litem or attorney advocate, if one has been appointed pursuant to G.S. 7B-601 and has not been relieved of responsibility.

~~(6) The juvenile, if the juvenile is 12 years of age or older at the time the motion is filed.~~

~~Provided, no notice need be directed to or served upon any parent who, under Chapter 48 of the General Statutes, has irrevocably relinquished the juvenile to a county department of social services or licensed child-placing agency nor to any parent who has consented to the adoption~~

~~of the juvenile by the movant.~~ The notice shall notify the person or agency to whom it is directed to file a written response within 30 days after service of the motion and notice. Service of the motion and notice shall be completed as provided under G.S. 7B-1102(b)."

SECTION 5. This act is effective when it becomes law.

HOUSE BILL 1272:
Technical/Clarifying Changes/Juvenile Code

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	May 19, 2009
Introduced by:	Representatives Goodwin, Glazier, Cotham	Prepared by:	Jeff Hudson Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	First Edition

SUMMARY: House Bill 1272 makes technical and clarifying changes to the juvenile code.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 amends G.S. 7B-101(1)(d) to add G.S. 14-27.2A (rape of a child by an adult offender) and G.S. 14-27.4A (sexual offense with a child by an adult offender) to the list of offenses which, when committed upon a juvenile by a parent, guardian, custodian, or caretaker, make the juvenile an abused juvenile.

Section 2 amends G.S. 7B-1104 to clarify that the juvenile is a party to an action to terminate parental rights.

Sections 3 and 4 make clarifying changes to the procedure for issuance of summons in terminations of parental rights under G.S. 7B-1106 and the procedure for notice in pending abuse, neglect and dependency cases under 7B-1106.1.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act is effective when it becomes law.

Susan Sitze, counsel to House Juvenile Justice, substantially contributed to this summary.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO ENHANCE YOUTH EMPLOYMENT PROTECTIONS BY REQUIRING THE COMMISSIONER OF LABOR TO REPORT ON ENFORCEMENT ACTIVITIES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Article 2A of Chapter 95 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 95-25.23C. Report on youth employment enforcement activities.

(a) Findings. – The General Assembly finds that:

(1) There is an increasing need to protect the educational opportunities of youths under age 18 and to prohibit their employment in jobs and under conditions that are detrimental to their health and well-being.

(2) Although the statutory protections available for youths under age 18 who are employed in this State are comprehensive, those protections are rendered meaningless without effective enforcement.

(3) It is in the best interest of the State and its youngest workers to ensure that North Carolina employers are in full compliance with the youth employment laws and regulations enacted under the Wage and Hour Act.

(b) Intent. – Recognizing that the Department of Labor is the State agency charged with enforcing the Wage and Hour Act as it pertains to youth employment, the General Assembly intends to review the Department's education and enforcement activities on a regular basis in order to identify effective measures for enhancing youth employment protections in this State.

(c) By February 1, 2010, the Commissioner shall make a written report to the General Assembly, the Legislative Study Commission on Children and Youth, and the Fiscal Research Division of the General Assembly on the Department of Labor's investigative, inspection, and enforcement activities under the Wage and Hour Act pertaining to youth employment for the period commencing January 1, 2008, and ending December 31, 2008. The written report shall include at least all of the following:

(1) All activities the Department of Labor has sponsored or participated in for the purpose of educating employers about their responsibilities under the Wage and Hour Act.

(2) The total number of complaints received by the Department of Labor alleging youth employment violations under the Wage and Hour Act, or any regulations issued under the Wage and Hour Act, or both.

(3) The specific types of youth employment violations alleged and the ages of the youths referenced in the complaints received by the Department of Labor.

(4) The total number of investigations conducted by the Department of Labor concerning alleged youth employment violations, the length of the investigations, and the number of investigators assigned to conduct the investigations. For purposes of this subdivision, the Commissioner shall provide a separate analysis of (i) investigations initiated by the Department in response to a complaint, (ii) investigations initiated by the Department in the absence of a complaint, and (iii) alleged record-keeping violations pertaining to youth employment.

(5) The total number of administrative proceedings involving youth employment violations.

(6) The total number and identity of employers cited for youth employment violations and the industries or occupations that received the greatest and the least number of complaints alleging youth employment violations.

(7) The total number and dollar amount of civil penalties assessed pursuant to G.S. 95-25.23 and the total number and dollar amount of civil penalties actually collected pursuant to that section. For purposes of this subdivision, the Commissioner shall provide a detailed, itemized list of each civil penalty represented in the total number and dollar amounts reported pursuant to this subdivision and indicate whether each civil penalty is the result of a complaint.

(8) The total number and dollar amount of civil penalties assessed pursuant to G.S. 95-25.23A and the total number and dollar amount of civil penalties actually collected pursuant to that section. For purposes of this subdivision, the Commissioner shall provide a detailed, itemized list of each civil penalty represented in the total number and dollar amounts reported pursuant to this subdivision and indicate whether each civil penalty is the result of a complaint.

(9) An explanation of any obstacles that prevented the Department of Labor from enforcing any provision of the Wage and Hour Act as it pertains to youth employment, any recommended changes to the Wage and Hour Act to strengthen the Department of Labor's oversight and enforcement of youth employment laws and regulations in this State, and any other information related to the Department of Labor's enhanced enforcement of the State's youth employment laws and regulations.

(10) Recommendations about the funding needed by the Department to (i) eliminate any identified obstacles to enforcement of youth employment laws and regulations and (ii) effectively implement any recommended changes.

(d) Beginning February 1, 2011, and annually thereafter, the Commissioner shall submit a written report to the General Assembly, the Legislative Study Commission on Children and Youth, and the Fiscal Research Division of the General Assembly updating the information set forth in the report required by subsection (c) of this section. Each written report submitted pursuant to this subsection shall contain data and information about the calendar year preceding the date of the last written report submitted."

SECTION 2. This act is effective when it becomes law.

(3) It is in the best interest of the State and its youngest workers to ensure that North Carolina employers are in full compliance with the youth employment laws and regulations enacted under the Wage and Hour Act.

(b) Intent. – Recognizing that the Department of Labor is the State agency charged with enforcing the Wage and Hour Act as it pertains to youth employment, the General Assembly intends to review the Department's education and enforcement activities on a regular basis in order to identify effective measures for enhancing youth employment protections in this State.

(c) Report. – No later than February 1 of each year, the Commissioner shall submit a written report to the General Assembly, the Legislative Study Commission on Children and Youth, and the Fiscal Research Division of the General Assembly on the Department of Labor's investigative, inspection, and enforcement activities under the Wage and Hour Act pertaining to youth employment. Each report submitted pursuant to this subsection shall contain data and information about the calendar year preceding the date on which the last written report was submitted. The report shall include at least all of the following:

(1) All activities the Department of Labor has sponsored or participated in for the purpose of educating employers about their responsibilities under the Wage and Hour Act.

(2) The total number of complaints received by the Department of Labor alleging youth employment violations under the Wage and Hour Act, or any regulations issued under the Wage and Hour Act, or both.

(3) The specific types of youth employment violations alleged and the ages of the youths referenced in the complaints received by the Department of Labor.

(4) The total number of investigations conducted by the Department of Labor concerning alleged youth employment violations, the length of the investigations, and the number of investigators assigned to conduct the investigations. For purposes of this subdivision, the Commissioner shall provide a separate analysis of (i) investigations initiated by the Department in response to a complaint, (ii) investigations initiated by the Department in the absence of a complaint, and (iii) alleged record-keeping violations pertaining to youth employment.

(5) The total number of administrative proceedings involving youth employment violations.

(6) The total number and identity of employers cited for youth employment violations and the industries or occupations that received the greatest and the least number of complaints alleging youth employment violations.

(7) The total number and dollar amount of civil penalties assessed pursuant to G.S. 95-25.23 and the total number and dollar amount of civil penalties actually collected pursuant to that section. For purposes of this subdivision, the Commissioner shall provide a detailed, itemized list of each civil penalty represented in the total number and dollar amounts reported pursuant to this subdivision and indicate whether each civil penalty is the result of a complaint.

(8) The total number and dollar amount of civil penalties assessed pursuant to G.S. 95-25.23A and the total number and dollar amount of civil penalties actually collected pursuant to that section. For purposes of this subdivision, the Commissioner shall provide a detailed, itemized list of each civil penalty represented in the total number and dollar amounts reported pursuant to this subdivision and indicate whether each civil penalty is the result of a complaint.

(9) An explanation of any obstacles that prevented the Department of Labor from enforcing any provision of the Wage and Hour Act as it pertains to youth employment, any recommended changes to the Wage and Hour Act to strengthen the Department of Labor's oversight and enforcement of youth employment laws and regulations in this State, and any other information related to the Department of Labor's enhanced enforcement of the State's youth employment laws and regulations.

(10) Recommendations about the funding needed by the Department to (i) eliminate any identified obstacles to enforcement of youth employment laws and regulations and (ii) effectively implement any recommended changes.

SECTION 2. The first report required by G.S. 95-25.23C, as enacted by Section 1 of this act, is due no later than February 1, 2010 and shall cover investigative, inspection and enforcement activities under the Wage and Hour Act pertaining to youth employment for the period January 1, 2008 through December 31, 2008.

SECTION 3. This act is effective when it becomes law.

HOUSE BILL 22:
Enhance Youth Employment Protections

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	May 26, 2009
Introduced by:	Representatives Weiss, Goodwin, Luebke, Bryant	Prepared by:	Jeff Hudson Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	Third Edition

SUMMARY: House Bill 22 would require the Commissioner of Labor to report to the General Assembly on enforcement activities undertaken by the Department of Labor regarding youth employment protections in North Carolina; provide that the General Assembly intends to review the Department of Labor's education activities; and provides that the Department of Labor must report on the activities it has sponsored or participated in for the purpose of educating employers about their responsibilities under the Wage and Hour Act.

[As introduced, this bill was identical to S276, as introduced by Sen. Berger of Franklin, which is currently in Senate Commerce.]

CURRENT LAW: G.S. 95-5 requires the Commission of Labor (Commissioner) to file with the Governor (and the General Assembly in the years that it is in session) an annual report covering the activities of the Department of Labor (DOL) and any recommendations for statutory changes. According to G.S. 95-6, the report must also include statistical details on "all divisions of labor in the State".

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 22 would require the Commissioner to report to the General Assembly, the Legislative Study Commission on Children and Youth, and the Fiscal Research Division of the General Assembly on enforcement activities undertaken by the DOL regarding youth employment protections in the State. The bill would include the following findings by the General Assembly:

- That there is an increasing need to protect the educational opportunities of youths under 18 and prohibit their employment in jobs that hurt their health and well-being.
- Statutory protections are meaningless without effective enforcement.
- It is in the best interest of the State and its youngest workers to ensure that the State's employers are in compliance with the youth employment laws.

The Commissioner would be required to make a written report to the General Assembly, the Legislative Study Commission on Children and Youth, and the Fiscal Research Division by February 1, 2010 on the DOL's investigative, inspection, and enforcement activities under the State's Wage and Hour Act for youth employment for the period between January 1, 2008 and December 31, 2008. The report must include:

- All of the activities the DOL has sponsored or participated in for the purpose of educating employers about their responsibilities under the Wage and Hour Act.
- The total number of complaints received by DOL alleging youth employment violations under the Wage and Hour Act or any regulations or both.

  The specific types of youth employment violations alleged and the ages of the youths referenced in the complaints received by the DOL.

- The total number of investigations conducted by the DOL on alleged youth employment violations including the length of the investigations and the number of investigators assigned.
- The total number of administrative proceedings on youth employment violations.
- The total number and the identity of employers cited for youth employment violations and the industries/occupations that received the most and least number of complaints.
- The total number and dollar amount of the civil penalties assessed and collected for violations of youth employment.
- An explanation of any obstacles that prevented the DOL from enforcing any provisions concerning youth employment and any recommended statutory changes to strengthen the DOL's oversight and enforcement of youth employment laws and regulations.
- Recommendations about the funding needed by the DOL to eliminate identified obstacles that restrict the enforcement of youth employment laws and effectively implement any recommended changes.

Beginning February 1, 2011, and annually thereafter, the Commissioner would be required to submit a written report to the General Assembly, the Legislative Study Commission on Children and Youth, and the Fiscal Research Division updating the information required in the report due on February 1, 2010. The annual report must contain data and information about the calendar year preceding the date of the last written report submitted.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO INCREASE THE LIMIT ON RAFFLE PRIZES AND TO AUTHORIZE THE RAFFLE OF REAL PROPERTY.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 14-309.15 reads as rewritten:

"§ 14-309.15. Raffles.

(a) It is lawful for any nonprofit organization or association, recognized by the Department of Revenue as tax-exempt pursuant to G.S. 105-130.11(a), or for any bona fide branch, chapter, or affiliate of such organization, and for any government entity within the State, to conduct raffles in accordance with this section. Any person who conducts a raffle in violation of any provision of this section shall be guilty of a Class 2 misdemeanor. Upon conviction that person shall not conduct a raffle for a period of one year. It is lawful to participate in a raffle conducted pursuant to this section. It shall not constitute a violation of State law to advertise a raffle conducted in accordance with this section. A raffle conducted pursuant to this section is not "gambling".

(b) For purposes of this section "raffle" means a game in which the prize is won by random drawing of the name or number of one or more persons purchasing chances.

(c) Raffles shall be limited to two per nonprofit organization per year.

(d) Except as provided in subsection (g) of this section, ~~The~~ the maximum cash prize that may be offered or paid for any one raffle is ~~fifty thousand dollars ($50,000)~~ one hundred twenty-five thousand dollars ($125,000) and if merchandise is used as a prize, and it is not redeemable for cash, the maximum fair market value of that prize may be ~~fifty thousand dollars ($50,000)~~one hundred twenty-five thousand dollars ($125,000). ~~No real property may be offered as a prize in a raffle.~~ The total cash prizes offered or paid by any nonprofit organization or association may not exceed ~~fifty thousand dollars ($50,000)~~ one hundred twenty-five thousand dollars ($125,000) in any calendar year. The total fair market value of all prizes offered by any nonprofit organization or association, either in cash or in merchandise that is not redeemable for cash, may not exceed ~~fifty thousand dollars ($50,000)~~one hundred twenty-five thousand dollars ($125,000) in any calendar year.

(e) Raffles shall not be conducted in conjunction with bingo.

(f) As used in this subsection, "net proceeds of a raffle" means the receipts less the cost of prizes awarded. No less than ninety percent (90%) of the net proceeds of a raffle shall be used by the nonprofit organization or association for charitable, religious, educational, civic, or other nonprofit purposes. None of the net proceeds of the raffle may be used to pay any person to conduct the raffle, or to rent a building where the tickets are received or sold or the drawing is conducted.

(g) Real property may be offered as a prize in a raffle. The maximum appraised value of real property that may be offered for any one raffle is five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000). The total appraised value of all real estate prizes offered by any nonprofit organization or association may not exceed five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000) in any calendar year."

SECTION 2. This act is effective when it becomes law.

HOUSE BILL 85:
Increase Raffle Prize Limit

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	May 26, 2009
Introduced by:	Reps. Burr, Sager	Prepared by:	Jennifer McGinnis
Analysis of:	Second Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 85 increases the maximum limit for cash and merchandise used as raffle prizes by nonprofit organizations from $50,000 to $125,000. The bill would also authorize the raffle of real property with an appraised value of up to $500,000. The bill clarifies that the authorization applies to branches, chapters and affiliates of such organizations.

CURRENT LAW:

G.S. 14-309.15 authorizes nonprofit organizations and associations, recognized as such by the Department of Revenue, as well as government entities within the State, to conduct raffles in accordance with the restrictions contained in the statute. The law defines "raffle" as a game in which the prize is won by random drawing of the name or number of one or more persons purchasing chances.

The maximum amount that can be offered as a cash prize is $50,000. If merchandize is used as a prize, the maximum fair market value of the merchandise may be $50,000. A nonprofit is limited to two raffles per year. The total value of all prizes, whether in cash or merchandise, offered in a calendar year cannot exceed $50,000.

A nonprofit organization must use no less than 90% of the net proceeds of a raffle for charitable, religious, educational, civic or other nonprofit purposes and net proceeds may not be used to pay a person to conduct the raffle or to rent the space used for the raffle.

A person who violates the statute's provisions governing raffles is guilty of a Class 2 misdemeanor.[1] Upon conviction a person may not conduct a raffle for a period of one year.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 85 would:

- Amend current law governing raffles to allow any bona fide branch, chapter or affiliate of a nonprofit organization to conduct raffles on the same basis as the parent organization.
- Increase the maximum amounts for cash prizes and for merchandise used as prizes in raffles from $50,000 to $125,000.
- Authorize the raffle of real property with an appraised value of up to $500,000.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act would be effective when it becomes law.

BACKGROUND: The maximum limit for cash prizes was last changed in 2005. At that time the limit was increased from $10,000 to $50,000. The limit for merchandise used as a raffle prize has been set at $50,000 since 1997.

HOUSE BILL 440:
The Nicolas Adkins School Bus Safety Act

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	May 22, 2009
Introduced by:	Reps. Folwell, Cole, Mills, Love	Prepared by:	Brenda J. Carter
Analysis of:	Second Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 440 would authorize the use of automated camera and video recording devices to detect and prosecute violations of the law prohibiting passing a stopped school bus, and would provide that photos or video from the device may be admissible as evidence consistent with the North Carolina Rules of Evidence.

CURRENT LAW: Under G.S. 20-217, passing a stopped school bus is a Class 1 misdemeanor.[1] A person who willfully passes a stopped school bus, and who strikes someone, is guilty of a Class I felony.[2] Conviction of passing a stopped school bus also subjects the driver to five drivers license points [G.S. 20-16(c)], and four insurance points under the North Carolina Safe Driver Incentive Plan.

(The full text of G.S. 20-217 is printed on the reverse side of this memorandum.)

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 440 would authorize the use of automated camera and video recording systems to detect and prosecute drivers who violate the law by passing a stopped school bus. The bill provides that any photograph or video recorded by a camera or video recording system would, if consistent with the North Carolina Rules of Evidence, be admissible as evidence in any proceeding alleging that a driver violated the law by passing a stopped school bus displaying a stop sign.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The bill would become effective December 1, 2009, and apply to offenses committed on or after that date.

1-45 days community penalty, fine in the discretion of the court

Presumptive minimum:4-6 months community penalty, fine in the discretion of the court

Text of current G.S. 20-217:

§ 20-217. Motor vehicles to stop for properly marked and designated school buses in certain instances; evidence of identity of driver.

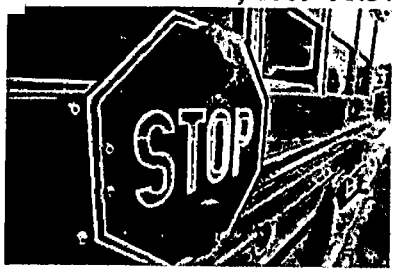
(a) When a school bus is displaying its mechanical stop signal or flashing red lights and the bus is stopped for the purpose of receiving or discharging passengers, the driver of any other vehicle that approaches the school bus from any direction on the same street, highway, or public vehicular area shall bring that other vehicle to a full stop and shall remain stopped. The driver of the other vehicle shall not proceed to move, pass, or attempt to pass the school bus until after the mechanical stop signal has been withdrawn, the flashing red stoplights have been turned off, and the bus has started to move.

(b) For the purpose of this section, a school bus includes a public school bus transporting children or school personnel, a public school bus transporting senior citizens under G.S. 115C-243, or a privately owned bus transporting children. This section applies only in the event the school bus bears upon the front and rear a plainly visible sign containing the words "school bus."

(c) Notwithstanding subsection (a) of this section, the driver of a vehicle traveling in the opposite direction from the school bus, upon any road, highway or city street that has been divided into two roadways, so constructed as to separate vehicular traffic between the two roadways by an intervening space (including a center lane for left turns if the roadway consists of at least four more lanes) or by a physical barrier, need not stop upon meeting and passing any school bus that has stopped in the roadway across the dividing space or physical barrier.

(d) It shall be unlawful for any school bus driver to stop and receive or discharge passengers or for any principal or superintendent of any school, routing a school bus, to authorize the driver of any school bus to stop and receive or discharge passengers upon any roadway described by subsection (c) of this section where passengers would be required to cross the roadway to reach their destination or to board the bus; provided, that passengers may be discharged or received at points where pedestrians and vehicular traffic are controlled by adequate stop-and-go traffic signals.

(e) Except as provided in subsection (g) of this section, any person violating this section shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor. A person who violates subsection (a) of this section shall not receive a prayer for judgment continued under any circumstances.



(f) Expired.

(g) Any person who willfully violates subsection (a) of this section and strikes any person shall be guilty of a Class I felony.

Stop, we mean it

Republican state Rep. Dale Folwell of Forsyth County has long had an interest in highway safety issues, but a bill he's guiding through the General Assembly has a personal meaning.

It's a good bill that would allow counties to place cameras on school bus "Stop" arms that could photograph those who pass stopped school buses, a most serious moving violation. The pictures could be used in court. The legislature has toughened laws on this particular offense over several years, trying to prevent defendants from dodging punishment. Legislators, advised by the N.C. Child Fatality Task Force, now know that there are over 400,000 times a year when people pass stopped school buses. Only a relative few are convicted of that offense.

st Friday morning, Joseph Liptak was hurt (he is recovering and listed in good condition) by a pickup truck on nny Road in Cary, near Oak Grove Elementary School. The 12-year-old Carnage Middle School student was crossing the street to catch the school bus, which had its lights on and its stop arm extended. The truck's driver has been charged with failing to stop for a school bus.

The possibility of tragedy and near-tragedy with school bus stops of course is ever-present, but the risk goes up when it is raining, or early in the morning before it is fully light, both of which were true in connection with the Cary incident. It amounts to all the more reason to take every precaution that we can.

"You cannot legislate common sense and common courtesy," said Folwell, a soft-spoken three-term incumbent whose co-sponsor on the bill is Nelson Cole, a Rockingham County Democrat.

Folwell, however, believes that when it comes to protecting school children, the state needs all the tools it can muster. It simply defies logic that people would see a stopped school bus, knowing that children will be crossing the road to board it or to leave it, and drive on past. Yet it's an all-to-frequent occurrence. What often happens is that drivers get distracted and carelessly whiz on past -- not that that's any excuse.

The bill is named for Nicolas Adkins from Rockingham County, who was 16 when he was hit and killed by a driver who ignored a school bus "Stop" sign. Also undoubtedly on Folwell's mind is his own 7-year-old son, who was killed in 1999 when a driver ran past a school bus.

ddition to working on this bill, Folwell has consulted with the state Division of Motor Vehicles to include as of the license renewal sign test the school bus "Stop." DMV was quick to respond to his idea.

Folwell is right that one can't legislate common sense. But we do need common-sense legislators who are on the lookout for ways to enhance public safety.

School bus safety bill gets push

RALEIGH - An accident that claimed the life of a Rockingham County student in January has given an extra push to legislation that lawmakers plan to file this week that would allow cameras to be placed on school bus stop arms.

Nicholas Adkins, 16, was hit and killed by a driver who ignored a school bus stop sign, which activates when students are boarding and getting off.

Rep. Dale Folwell, a Forsyth County Republican, and Rep. Nelson Cole, a Rockingham County Democrat, will introduce a bill today or Tuesday named in Adkins' honor that would further tighten North Carolina's laws on school bus stop signs.

Specifically, the Nicholas Adkins School Bus Safety Act would allow school districts to install cameras on their buses and allow pictures taken with those cameras to be used in court against those who ignore an activated sign.

"We want Nicholas' family and friends and community to know that he's not forgotten in terms of our focus on trying to prevent this from happening again," said Folwell, who lost his 7-year-old son when a driver ran past a school bus stop sign in 1999.

The bill is the fourth in recent years to crack down on such violators. Previous legislation has forbidden judges from giving lenient judgments to violators and increased the penalties associated with the crime.

This latest version came as a recommendation of the North Carolina Child Fatality Task Force, a group that advises the General Assembly on ways to prevent injuries to children of all ages.

"School buses are passed 400,000 times a year in North Carolina," said Tom Vitaglione, chairman of the task force. "The fact we're not losing more children is a miracle."

Despite recent changes to the law, prosecuting stop arm violators remains difficult and happens only in a small percentage of cases reported by school bus drivers.

Currently, the law is unclear on whether pictures taken by a school bus could be used in issuing citations. Vitaglione said the bill put forward by Folwell and Cole would clear up any confusion and clear the way for local school districts to equip their buses to catch violators.

The task force also is trying other ways to educate the public, including adding a school bus stop arm to the sign-recognition test drivers take when they renew their licenses.

In addition to the stop signs, Cole noted, school buses also have yellow and red blinking lights to alert drivers that kids are loading or unloading.

"I don't understand how they don't see the blinking yellow lights or the blinking red lights," Cole said. "It's beyond me."

HOUSE BILL 960:
Sanitary District Quick Take

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	May 26, 2009
Introduced by:	Reps. Glazier, Dickson, Lucas, E. Floyd	Prepared by:	Jennifer McGinnis Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	Second Edition

SUMMARY: House Bill 960 would grant sanitary districts "quick-take" authority, i.e., allow these entities to acquire title and the right to immediate possession of condemned property upon the filing of a complaint containing a declaration of taking and deposit of estimated just compensation, unless the owner of the property to be condemned institutes an action for injunctive relief.

CURRENT LAW: Chapter 40A of the General Statutes currently grants the power of eminent domain to sanitary districts and other local public condemnors.

The time at which a local public condemnor acquires title to and the right to immediate possession of a property is dependent upon the type of public condemnor and the purpose for which the property is condemned. Some local public condemnors exercising the power of eminent domain for certain purposes are provided "quick-take" authority, in which title to the property and the right to immediate possession vests in the condemnor immediately upon the filing of the complaint containing a declaration of taking and deposit of the estimated just compensation (unless the owner of the property to be condemned institutes an action for injunctive relief). Otherwise, title and the right to possession vests in the condemnor only upon (i) filing of an answer by the property owner requesting only a determination of just compensation (not challenging authority of the condemnor to take the property), (ii) failure of the property owner to file an answer within 120 days of service of the complaint containing a declaration of taking, or (iii) upon disbursement of the deposit of the estimated just compensation to the property owner.

BILL ANALYSIS: Sanitary districts currently have the power of eminent domain, but do not have "quick-take" authority. The bill would grant them "quick-take" authority that would allow the districts to acquire title to property and the right to immediate possession immediately upon the filing of a complaint and deposit, unless the owner of property to be condemned institutes an action for injunctive relief.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO MAKE CERTAIN SALES OF STATE PROPERTY SUBJECT TO UPSET BIDS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 146-27 reads as rewritten:

"§ 146-27. The role of the Department of Administration in sales, leases, and rentals.

(a) General. – Every sale, lease, rental, or gift of land owned by the State or by any State agency shall be made by the Department of Administration and approved by the Governor and Council of State. A lease or rental of land owned by the State may not exceed a period of 99 years. The Department of Administration may initiate proceedings for sales, leases, rentals, and gifts of land owned by the State or by any State agency.

(b) Large Disposition. – If a proposed disposition is a sale or gift of land with an appraised value of at least twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), the sale or gift shall not be made until after consultation with the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations.

(b1) Upset Bids. – If a proposed disposition of land or other real property with a value of at least twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) is a sale or other transfer to a private entity that operates or is established to operate for profit, the proposed disposition shall be subject to upset bids, unless other, non-monetary consideration associated with the transaction has been made public. If other consideration is offered such that upset bids are not required, notice of the sale and other consideration shall be posted and published in a manner similar to that provided in G.S. 1-339.17. The Department of Administration shall adopt a procedure for upset bids that is based on the upset bid procedure set forth in Part 2 of Article 29A of Chapter 1 of the General Statutes.

(c) Expired effective September 1, 2007."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective October 1, 2009.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT MAKING IT UNLAWFUL FOR A SCHOOL BOARD MEMBER TO WILLFULLY FAIL TO DISCHARGE THE DUTIES OF THE OFFICE.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 14-230 reads as rewritten:

"§ 14-230. Willfully failing to discharge duties.

If any clerk of any court of record, sheriff, magistrate, school board member, county commissioner, county surveyor, coroner, treasurer, or official of any of the State institutions, or of any county, city or town, shall willfully omit, neglect or refuse to discharge any of the duties of his office, for default whereof it is not elsewhere provided that he shall be indicted, he shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor. If it shall be proved that such officer, after his qualification, willfully and corruptly omitted, neglected or refused to discharge any of the duties of his office, or willfully and corruptly violated his oath of office according to the true intent and meaning thereof, such officer shall be guilty of misbehavior in office, and shall be punished by removal therefrom under the sentence of the court as a part of the punishment for the offense."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective December 1, 2009.

HOUSE BILL 43:
School Bd. Members/Failure to Discharge Duty

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	May 27, 2009
Introduced by:	Reps. Glazier, Martin, Cotham, Fisher	Prepared by:	Kory Goldsmith Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	First Edition

SUMMARY: House Bill 43 would make a school board member guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor if the individual willfully fails to discharge the duties of that office.

CURRENT LAW: Under G.S. 14-230, certain public officials are guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor if they willfully and corruptly omit, neglect, or refuse to discharge any of the duties of the offices they hold. The official must also be removed from office under the sentence of the court as part of the punishment for the offense. The listed officials that are currently covered by the statute are: clerk of any court of record, sheriff, magistrate, county commissioner, county surveyor, coroner, treasurer, and officials of any State institutions or of any county, city, or town. In addition, Article 6, Section 8 of the North Carolina Constitution states that "any person who has been adjudged guilty of treason or any other felony against this State or the United States, or any person who has been adjudged guilty of a felony in another state that also would be a felony if it had been committed in this State, or any person who has been adjudged guilty of corruption or malpractice in any office, or any person who has been removed by impeachment from any office, and who has not been restored to the rights of citizenship in the manner prescribed by law" is disqualified from holding elected office.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 43 would add school board member to the list of public officials who would be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor for willfully and corruptly omitting, neglecting or refusing to discharge the duties of the offices they hold. The school board member would also have to be removed from office under the sentence of the court as part of the punishment for the offense.

The maximum punishment for a Class 1 misdemeanor is 120 days of active punishment.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The bill would become effective December 1, 2009.

BACKGROUND: In 2007, the General Assembly repealed G.S. 115C-39(a) which had provided a removal procedure for local school board members. The statute stated that if the State Board of Education (SBE) had sufficient evidence that a member of a local board of education was not capable of discharging or was not discharging the duties of the office or was guilty of immoral or disreputable conduct, the SBE had to notify the chairman of that local board of education. If the member in question was the chairman, then the SBE had to notify all of the other members of that local board of education. On receiving such a notice from the SBE, the local board of education had to hold a meeting to investigate the charges. If those charges were found to be true, then the office of that member was declared vacant.

Under G.S. 115C-105.39 and G.S. 115C-39(b), the SBE can still suspend any of the powers and duties of a local board of education that the SBE considers are necessary or appropriate to improve student performance. The SBE can perform all of these assigned duties and powers for a period of time specified by the SBE. If the SBE subsequently determines that it is necessary to change the governance of the local school administrative unit in order to improve student performance, the SBE can recommend this change to the General Assembly which must then consider future governance of the identified local school administrative unit.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO PERMIT CAPITAL APPELLATE AND POSTCONVICTION COUNSEL REASONABLE ACCESS TO THEIR CLIENTS FOLLOWING DECISIONS BY THE COURTS WITH RESPECT TO THEIR CLIENTS' SENTENCES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 7A-451 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(e1) When the Supreme Court of North Carolina files an opinion affirming or reversing the judgment of the trial court in a case in which the defendant was sentenced to death, or files an opinion or decision with regard to such a defendant's postconviction petition for relief from a sentence of death, or when any federal court files or issues an opinion or decision in such circumstances, the Department of Correction shall, on the day the opinion or decision is filed or issued, permit counsel for the defendant to visit the defendant at the institution at which the defendant is confined. The visit shall be permitted during regular business hours for not less than one hour, unless a visit outside regular business hours is agreed to by both the institution's administrator and counsel for the defendant. This section shall not be construed to abridge the adequate and reasonable opportunity for attorneys to consult with clients sentenced to death generally and shall not be construed to mandate an attorney visit during an emergency at the institution at which a defendant is confined."

SECTION 2. This act is effective when it becomes law.

HOUSE BILL 1037:
Permit Access to Capital Defendants

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	May 28, 2009
Introduced by:	Reps. Glazier, Ross, Blue, Harrison	Prepared by:	Brenda J. Carter Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	First Edition

SUMMARY: House Bill 1037 would require that counsel be permitted to visit an indigent defendant on the day an opinion by the North Carolina Supreme Court or federal court is filed in cases where the defendant has been sentenced to death.

CURRENT LAW: G.S. 7A-451 provides for services of counsel to indigent persons in certain actions and proceedings. G.S. 7A-451(b) provides that in a capital case in which a defendant is under a sentence of death, entitlement to counsel continues through review of any judgment or decree rendered on direct appeal by the Supreme Court of North Carolina pursuant to certiorari jurisdiction of the United States Supreme Court. G.S. 7A-451(c) provides that in any capital case, an indigent defendant under a sentence of death may apply for appointment of postconviction counsel.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 1037 would require that when one of the following filings occurs in a case where the indigent defendant was sentenced to death, the defendant's counsel must be permitted by the Department of Corrections to visit the defendant on the day of the filing of any of the following:

- An opinion of the North Carolina Supreme Court affirming or reversing the trial court judgment sentencing defendant to death.
- An opinion or decision of the North Carolina Supreme Court with regard to defendant's postconviction petition for relief from a sentence of death.
- An opinion or decision by a federal court in such circumstances.

The visit must be permitted during regular business hours for not less than 1 hour, unless a visit outside regular business hours is agreed to by both the institution administrator and defendant's counsel.

The provision shall not be construed to limit the adequate and reasonable opportunity for attorneys to generally consult with clients sentenced to death, or to mandate an attorney visit during an emergency at an institution where a defendant is confined.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The bill would become effective when it becomes law.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO DIRECT THE ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICE OF THE COURTS TO REVISE THE "TRANSCRIPT OF PLEA" FORM PROVIDED TO A DEFENDANT WHO ENTERS A PLEA OF GUILTY OR NO CONTEST TO MORE CLEARLY ADDRESS THE RIGHT OF APPEAL LIMITATIONS AND SHORTER BIOLOGICAL EVIDENCE PRESERVATION TIME FRAME THAT MAY APPLY AS A RESULT OF THE PLEA.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. The Administrative Office of the Courts shall revise the "Transcript of Plea" form that is provided to a defendant who enters a plea of guilty or no contest to a criminal offense so that the form more clearly informs the defendant that G.S. 15A-1444 imposes limitations on the right of appeal when a defendant pleads guilty or no contest to a criminal offense with which the defendant is charged, and that also assists a judge in determining whether the defendant's plea is a product of informed choice as required by G.S. 15A-1022(b). In revising the form, the Administrative Office of the Courts shall insert to the list of items that currently appear on the form a new item that reads as follows: "Do you understand that following a plea of guilty or no contest there are limitations on your right to appeal?".

SECTION 2. The Administrative Office of the Courts shall revise the "Transcript of Plea" form that is provided to a defendant who decides to enter a plea of guilty to a criminal offense so that the form more clearly informs the defendant that under G.S. 15A-268 there may be a shorter preservation period for biological evidence when a defendant pleads guilty to a criminal offense than if the defendant had been tried and convicted by a jury for the same offense, and that also assists a judge in determining whether a defendant's plea is a product of informed choice as required by G.S. 15A-1022(b). In revising the form, the Administrative Office of the Courts shall insert to the list of items that currently appear on the form a new item that reads as follows: "Do you understand that your plea of guilty may impact how long biological evidence related to your case (for example, blood, hair, skin tissue) will be preserved?".

SECTION 3. The Administrative Office of the Courts shall revise the form pursuant to this act by September 1, 2009, and the revised form shall be made available for pleas of guilty or no contest that are entered on or after October 1, 2009.

SECTION 4. This act is effective when it becomes law.

HOUSE BILL 1039:
Guilty Plea Form Revisions

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	May 28, 2009
Introduced by:	Representatives Glazier, Ross	Prepared by:	Jeff Hudson
Analysis of:	Second Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 1039 would direct the Administrative Office of the Courts to revise the "Transcript of Plea" form provided to a defendant who enters a plea of not guilty or no contest to clearly state the limitations on the right of appeal and the shorter time frame for the preservation of biological evidence that may apply as a result of the plea.

CURRENT LAW:

Informed Choice as to a Plea of Guilty or No Contest

G.S. 15A-1022 provides that, except in limited situations, a superior court judge may not accept a plea of guilty or no contest from a defendant without first personally addressing the defendant and informing him or her of various rights including the right to plead not guilty and determining that the plea is a product of informed choice. The statute does not provide that the court must inform the defendant on the limitations of appeal or the preservation of biological evidence.

Right of Appeal Based on Plea

G.S. 15A-1444 provides that a defendant who has entered a plea of not guilty and who has been found guilty of a crime is entitled to an appeal as a matter of right. Rights to appeal are more limited if the defendant enters a plea of guilty or no contest.

- A defendant who has entered a plea of guilty or no contest to a felony may appeal as a matter of right on the issue of whether the sentence is supported by evidence introduced at the trial and sentencing hearing only if the minimum sentence of imprisonment does not fall within the presumptive range for the defendant's prior record or conviction level and class of offense.
- A defendant who enters a plea of guilty or no contest to a felony or misdemeanor in superior court may appeal as matter of right the issue of whether the sentence imposed: (i) resulted from a incorrect finding of the prior record level or prior conviction level; (ii) contains a sentence disposition not authorized for the class of offense or prior record or conviction level; or (iii) contains a term of imprisonment for a duration not authorized for the class of offense and prior record or conviction level.
- Under other circumstances, the defendant may file an appeal for review by writ of certiorari.

Time Frame for Preservation of Biological Evidence Based on Plea

G.S. 15A-268 provides the time frames during which biological evidence must be preserved.

- For convictions resulting in the death penalty, biological evidence must be preserved until the execution.

  For offenses that require sex offender registration, the biological evidence must be preserved for the period of incarceration and period of mandatory supervised release or probation.

- For convictions of violent felonies, biological evidence must be preserved for the period of incarceration but if the defendant was convicted on a plea of guilty, the evidence must be preserved for 3 years from the date of conviction.
- For any other felonies not covered for which the defendant's genetic profile may be included in the State DNA database, the biological evidence must be preserved for 7 yeas from conviction but if the defendant was convicted on a plea of guilty, the biological evidence must be preserved for 3 years form the date of the conviction.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1: House Bill 1039 would direct the Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC) to revise the "Transcript of Plea" form (Form) provided to a defendant who enters a plea of not guilty or no contest to clearly state that G.S. 15A-1444 imposes limitations on the right of appeal when a defendant pleads guilty or no contest to a criminal offense with which the defendant is charged. The AOC must insert a new item that reads:

- "Do you understand that the following a plea of guilty or no contest, there are limitations on your right to appeal and has your lawyer explained these limitations to you?"

Section 2: House Bill 1039 would direct the AOC to revise the Form to clearly state that under G.S. 15A-268, there may be shorter preservation period for biological evidence when a defendant pleads guilty to a criminal offense than if the defendant had been tried and convicted by a jury for the same offense. The AOC must insert a new item that reads:

- "Do you understand that your plea of guilty may impact how long biological evidence related to your case (for example, blood, hair, skin tissue) will be preserved and has your lawyer explained these limitations to you?"

EFFECTIVE DATE: The AOC must revise the Form by September 1, 2009 and the revised from must be made available for pleas of guilty or no contest that are entered on or after October 1, 2009. The bill would become effective when it becomes law.

(8) Social Worker. – A person ~~engaging in the practice of social work who is not certified or licensed under this Chapter as a Certified Social Worker, Certified Master Social Worker, Licensed Clinical Social Worker, or Certified Social Work Manager.~~certified, licensed, or provisionally licensed by this Chapter or otherwise exempt under G.S. 90B-10."

SECTION 2. G.S. 90B-10 is amended by adding the following new subsection to read:

"(c) Notwithstanding the requirements of G.S. 90B-16, any individual who is employed by an agency of a local or State governmental entity, and who is in a position holding the title of 'Social Worker' or any variation of the name, and whose position title is derived from the Office of State Personnel Social Work Series may use the title 'Social Worker' or any variation of the title. This includes persons in such positions in counties whose classification and compensation systems have been certified as substantially equivalent by the State Personnel Commission and persons serving in such positions in Human Services agencies created by counties pursuant to G.S. 153A-77."

SECTION 3. Chapter 90B of the General Statutes is amended by adding the following new section to read:

"§ 90B-16. Title protection.

(a) Except as provided in G.S. 90B-10, an individual who (i) is not certified, licensed, or provisionally licensed by this Chapter as a social worker, (ii) does not hold a bachelor's or master's degree in social work from a college or university having a social work program accredited or admitted to candidacy for accreditation by the Council of Social Work Education, or (iii) has not received a doctorate in social work shall not use the title 'Social Worker' or any variation of the title.

(b) The Board is authorized to enforce title protection pursuant to this section in accordance with G.S. 90B-13.

(c) The Board shall adopt rules to implement this section."

SECTION 4. This act is effective when it becomes law.

HOUSE BILL 1168:
Title Protection/Social Workers

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	May 28, 2009
Introduced by:	Reps. Glazier, Dickson, England, Wainwright	Prepared by:	Jennifer McGinnis Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	Third Edition

SUMMARY: House Bill 1168 amends the Social Worker Certification and Licensure Act to prohibit the unauthorized use of the title 'Social Worker' by individuals lacking the required academic credentials. The bill also creates an exemption from the prohibition for employees of local or State governmental entities.

CURRENT LAW:

Under current law, the NC Social Work Certification and Licensure Board issues certificates to "Certified Social Workers", Certified Master Social Workers", and "Certified Social Work Managers". The Board also licenses "Clinical Social Workers". The law provides that it is unlawful for a person who is not certified under the act to hold him or herself out to the public by any title that denotes that the person is certified. In addition, the law makes it unlawful for any person to engage in the practice of clinical social work without a license. The law, however, does not prohibit the practice of social work by a person who is not certified, except with regard to clinical social workers. The law further prevents any governmental entity from requiring certification under the act as a condition for obtaining or continuing employment.

BILL ANALYSIS:

House Bill 1168 amends the law to limit the use of the title "Social Worker" to those who meet one or more of the following standards:

- Must be certified or licensed or provisionally licensed under the act;
- Must hold a bachelor's or master's degree in social work from an accredited college or university; or
- Must have received a doctorate in social work.

The bill also creates an exemption from the title restriction for individuals employed by a local or State governmental agency and who are working in a position, the title of which is derived from the Office of State Personnel Social Work Series, that has been certified by the State Personnel Commission to be substantially equivalent, or that is employed in a Human Services agency created by a county.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act is effective when it becomes law.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT AUTHORIZING LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCIES TO DISSEMINATE AN ASSESSMENT OF CRIMINAL INTELLIGENCE INFORMATION TO A SCHOOL PRINCIPAL PURSUANT TO FEDERAL LAW.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Article 13A of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 14-50.27A. Dissemination of criminal intelligence information.

A law enforcement agency may disseminate an assessment of criminal intelligence information to the principal of a school when necessary to avoid imminent danger to the life of a student or employee of the school or to the public school property pursuant to 28 C.F.R. § 23.20. The notification may be made in person or by telephone. As used in this subsection, the term "school" means any public or private school in the State under Chapter 115C of the General Statutes."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective December 1, 2009.

HOUSE BILL 1327:
Schools Notified of Crim. Intell. Info

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	May 27, 2009
Introduced by:	Reps. Folwell, Justice, Langdon, Cleveland	Prepared by:	Kory Goldsmith
Analysis of:	Third Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: HB 1327 would permit a law enforcement agency to disseminate an assessment of criminal intelligence information to the principal of a school when necessary to avoid imminent danger to the life of a student or employee of the school or to the public school property pursuant to 28 C.F.R. § 23.20. The provisions provide that the notification may be made in person or by telephone, and that schools in this section refer to both public and private schools.

CURRENT LAW: 28 C.F.R. 23 provides the federal regulations for Criminal Intelligence Systems Operating policies. The guidelines regulate the sharing of certain criminal intelligence data funded with federal money to prevent potential threats to the privacy of individuals to whom the date relates. Criminal intelligence data includes but is not limited to criminal activities such as loan sharking, drug trafficking, trafficking in stolen property, gambling, extortion, smuggling, and bribery.

Under those regulations, 28 C.F.R. 30 provides that criminal intelligence information may be disseminated only when there is a need to know and right to know the information in the performance of a law enforcement activity. The criminal intelligence project may only disseminate the information to law enforcement authorizes who agree to follow required procedures in maintaining the information.

An exception is created however to provide that these restriction shall not limit dissemination of an assessment of criminal intelligence information to a government official or to any other individual when necessary to avoid imminent danger to life or property.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act becomes effective December 1, 2009.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO MAKE CERTAIN SALES OF STATE PROPERTY SUBJECT TO UPSET BIDS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 146-27 reads as rewritten:

"§ 146-27. The role of the Department of Administration in sales, leases, and rentals.

(a) General. – Every sale, lease, rental, or gift of land owned by the State or by any State agency shall be made by the Department of Administration and approved by the Governor and Council of State. A lease or rental of land owned by the State may not exceed a period of 99 years. The Department of Administration may initiate proceedings for sales, leases, rentals, and gifts of land owned by the State or by any State agency.

(b) Large Disposition. – If a proposed disposition is a sale or gift of land with an appraised value of at least twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), the sale or gift shall not be made until after consultation with the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations.

(b1) Upset Bids. – If a proposed disposition of land or other real property with a value of at least twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) is a sale or other transfer to a private entity that operates or is established to operate for profit, the proposed disposition shall be subject to upset bids, unless other, non-monetary consideration associated with the transaction has been made public. If other consideration is offered such that upset bids are not required, notice of the sale and other consideration shall be posted and published in a manner similar to that provided in G.S. 1-339.17. The Department of Administration shall adopt a procedure for upset bids that is based on the upset bid procedure set forth in Part 2 of Article 29A of Chapter 1 of the General Statutes.

(c) Expired effective September 1, 2007."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective October 1, 2009.

HOUSE BILL 1377:
Taxpayer Optimization Act

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	May 22, 2009
Introduced by:	Reps. Folwell, McElraft, Brown, Moore	Prepared by:	Brenda J. Carter Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	Second Edition

SUMMARY: House Bill 1377 would make a proposed sale of State-owned real property subject to upset bids if the real property has a value of at least $25,000 and the sale or transfer is being made to a for-profit private entity. The bill would direct the Department of Administration to adopt procedures for upset bids based on procedures currently used for judicial sales.

CURRENT LAW: Under G.S. 146-27, every sale or transfer of State-owned land is made by the Department of Administration and must be approved by the Governor and Council of State. If the land has an appraised value of at least $25,000, the sale or transfer cannot be made prior to consultation with the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 1377 would add a new provision to the law concerning the role of the Department of Administration in the sale of State property. The bill would make any proposed sale or transfer of State-owned real property subject to upset bids if all of the following apply:

- The property has a value of at least $25,000
- The property is being sold/transferred to a for-profit private entity
- No other non-monetary consideration associated with the transaction has been made public

If other consideration is offered such that upset bids are not required, notice of the sale and other consideration would have to be posted in the county where the property is located and published in the appropriate newspaper for at least two successive weeks.

The bill also would direct the Department of Administration to adopt a procedure for upset bids that is based on the procedure currently used for judicial sales of real property. Under G.S.1-339.25, an upset bid is "an advanced, increased, or raised bid in a public sale by auction whereby a person offers to purchase real property theretofore sold for an amount exceeding the reported sale price or the last upset bid by a minimum of 5% thereof, but in any event with a minimum increase of $750."

EFFECTIVE DATE: The bill would become effective October 1, 2009.

H1377-SMRV-83(e2) v1

House Bill 1377 Short Title: Sale of State Property Subject to Upset Bid

A Bill to Be Entitled An Act To Make Certain Sales of State Property Subject to Upset Bids (b1) Upset Bids. – If a proposed disposition of land with an appraised value of at least twenty five thousand dollars ($25,000) is a sale to a private entity that operates or is established to operate for profit, the proposed disposition shall be subject to upset bids.

Prepared by Department of Administration, State Property Office
Fiscal Note completed April 2009

Currently the State Property Office implements the sale of property based on the method that will produce the highest price for that specific property by bid or negotiation. Property may also be disposed of by exchange when it is determined to be in the best interest of the State. Disposition of state property is a public process whether negotiated or by bid. Pursuant to Article 2 146-3 real property is disposed of in the manner prescribed in NCAC 6B .0303 All sales of state land are subject to the approval of the Council of State and those properties with a value of $25,000 or greater include consultation with the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations.

Typically, the upset bid process works best for properties that are utilized at the intended highest and best use, all facts are known and the zoning cannot be changed. (i.e. a house on a residential lot, residential lot, some commercial buildings).

Selling property by the proposed legislation does not work in the best interest of the state because:

- Upset bid limits the pool of potential buyers and limits the ability of the State Property Office to market to a diverse range of buyers. Buyers are reluctant to purchase real estate through the upset bid process because it deviates from the normal method of submitting an offer to purchase.

- Upset Bid restricts the ability to sell at the potential highest and best use. The upset bid process does not work for commercial properties that are not at the current highest and best use. (i.e. vacant land that could be used for a shopping center) This type of sale is best handled by negotiated sale. These properties attain the highest prices by marketing the properties (advertising in local newspapers, signage, web site) and accepting offers with contingencies for re-zoning, environmental studies, and other studies that would assure the buyer that the property could be utilized for their intended use. The upset bid process must allow for a due diligence period. The upset bid process is an unconventional marketing practice for commercial/industrial real estate as it deviates from the normal/standard practice in the real estate industry.

- The proposed legislation eliminates some land exchanges. Agencies and Universities utilize this method to exchange property that is under utilized for property that will better serve the mission of the agency and the public. (i.e. A 2 acre fire tower site in a high growth area that has rendered the agency unable to respond to fire activity in a timely manner due to traffic congestion is exchanged to a private entity for a 5 acre property and the construction of a new County Forestry Headquarters facility).

- The proposed legislation eliminates the direct sale of uneconomic remnant property currently sold to adjoining property owners at the appraised value. (i.e. an isolated land locked parcel sold to a private entity that operates for profit)

- The proposed legislation will limit or eliminate potential buyers on large sales. Potential buyers would be required to place substantial sums of money at risk during the bidding process for due diligence and the required bid deposit. All bids must be accompanied by a certified or cashier's check for no less than five percent of the bid, payable to the "State of North Carolina" as required by NCAC 6B .0304.

- The proposed change would limit the state's ability to negotiate the most favorable terms for the state as is now allowed under the NC Administrative Code.

- Upset bid does not tap into the regional or national developer/investor market. Marketing property through the traditional private sector methods exposes the property to the regional and national developer/investor market and local commercial real estate brokers representing buyers. Negotiated sales encourage competition and result in higher prices for the State. (i.e. a physically obsolete office building in a highly desirable location).

- Limiting the marketing process to 'only' the upset bid process doesn't enhance the ability to achieve the most favorable sales terms nor highest sales price for the state.

Additional Information
"The bid procedure produced prices that may be hindered by breadth of market tapped" as stated in the report by CB Richard Ellis, the consultant that developed the "State-Owned Surplus Real Property System" as directed by the legislature.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO REQUIRE THE DIVISION OF CRIMINAL STATISTICS TO COLLECT, MAINTAIN, AND PUBLISH STATISTICS ON THE USE OF DEADLY FORCE BY LAW ENFORCEMENT WHICH RESULTS IN DEATH.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Chapter 114 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 114-10.02. Collection of statistics on the use of deadly force by law enforcement officers.

(a) In addition to the duties set forth in G.S. 114-10, the Division of Criminal Statistics shall collect, maintain, and annually publish the number of deaths, by law enforcement agency, resulting from the use of deadly force by law enforcement officers in the course and scope of their official duties.

(b) For purposes of this section, "law enforcement officer" means sworn law enforcement officers with the power of arrest, both State and local."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective January 1, 2010, and applies to uses of deadly force resulting in death that occur on or after that date.

HOUSE BILL 266:
Use of Deadly Force by LEO/Collect & Publish

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	June 2, 2009
Introduced by:	Representative E. Floyd	Prepared by:	Jeff Hudson
Analysis of:	Second Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 266 would direct the Division of Criminal Statistics in the Department of Justice to collect, maintain, and publish the number of deaths, by law enforcement agency, resulting from the use of deadly force by a law enforcement officer in the course and scope of the officer's official duties.

CURRENT LAW:

The Division of Criminal Statistics (Division) in the Department of Justice collects, correlates and maintains information related to criminal law and the criminal justice system, including:

- Crimes committed, arrests made, dispositions on preliminary hearings, prosecutions, convictions, acquittals, punishment, appeals, together with the age, race, and sex of the offender, the necessary data to make a trace regarding all firearms seized, forfeited, found, or otherwise coming into the possession of any State or local law enforcement agency of the State that are believed to have been used in the commission of a crime, and such other information concerning crime and criminals as may appear significant or helpful.
- Motor vehicle registration, drivers' licenses, wanted and missing persons, stolen property, warrants, stolen vehicles, firearms registration, sexual offender registration, drugs, drug users and parole and probation histories.

The Division is also responsible for the scientific study, analysis and comparison of the collected information and for reporting information to the Governor and the General Assembly biennially, or more often if required by the Governor. In addition to the information listed above, the Division is responsible for colleting, correlating, and maintaining information related to traffic law enforcement.

BILL ANALYSIS:

House Bill 266 would direct the Division to collect, maintain, and publish annually the number of deaths, by law enforcement agency, resulting from the use of deadly force by a law enforcement officer in the course and scope of the officer's official duties. For the purposes of the section, 'law enforcement officer' includes sworn law enforcement officers, both State and local, with the power of arrest.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act would become effective January 1, 2010, and would apply to uses of deadly force resulting in death on or after that date.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO PROVIDE THAT A MAGISTRATE WHO HAS A CONCEALED HANDGUN PERMIT MAY CARRY OR POSSESS A CONCEALED HANDGUN WHILE IN A COURTHOUSE TO DISCHARGE OFFICIAL DUTIES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 14-269.4 reads as rewritten:

"§ 14-269.4. Weapons on State property and in courthouses.

It shall be unlawful for any person to possess, or carry, whether openly or concealed, any deadly weapon, not used solely for instructional or officially sanctioned ceremonial purposes in the State Capitol Building, the Executive Mansion, the Western Residence of the Governor, or on the grounds of any of these buildings, and in any building housing any court of the General Court of Justice. If a court is housed in a building containing nonpublic uses in addition to the court, then this prohibition shall apply only to that portion of the building used for court purposes while the building is being used for court purposes.

This section shall not apply to:

(1) Repealed by S.L. 1997-238, s. 3, effective June 27, 1997,

(1a) A person exempted by the provisions of G.S. 14-269(b),

(2) through (4) Repealed by S.L. 1997-238, s. 3, effective June 27, 1997,

(4a) Any person in a building housing a court of the General Court of Justice in possession of a weapon for evidentiary purposes, to deliver it to a law-enforcement agency, or for purposes of registration,

(4b) Any magistrate, district court ~~judge~~ judge, or superior court judge who carries or possesses a concealed handgun in a building housing a court of the General Court of Justice if the magistrate or judge is in the building to discharge his or her official duties and the magistrate or judge has a concealed handgun permit issued in accordance with Article 54B of this Chapter or considered valid under G.S. 14-415.24,

(4c) Firearms in a courthouse, carried by detention officers employed by and authorized by the sheriff to carry firearms,

(5) State-owned rest areas, rest stops along the highways, and State-owned hunting and fishing reservations.

Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor."

SECTION 2. This act is effective when it becomes law.

HOUSE BILL 473:
Magistrate Can Carry Gun in Courthouse

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	June 2, 2009
Introduced by:	Representatives Hurley, Justus, Spear, Sutton	Prepared by:	Jeff Hudson Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	First Edition

SUMMARY: House Bill 473 would amend G.S. 14-269.4 to authorize a magistrate to carry a concealed handgun in a courthouse if the magistrate is there to discharge his or her official duties and has a valid concealed handgun permit issued pursuant to Article 54B of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes.

CURRENT LAW:

G.S. 14-269.4 prohibits deadly weapons from being carried, openly or concealed, in various State buildings, including a building housing a court of the General Court of Justice. Violation is a Class 1 misdemeanor. One of the current exceptions to the statute is for district and superior court judges discharging official duties who carry a concealed handgun if they have a valid concealed handgun permit issued pursuant to Article 54B of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes.

BILL ANALYSIS: HB 473 would make the exception for judges applicable to magistrates.

EFFECTIVE DATE: House Bill 473 would become effective when it becomes law.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO REVISE THE EXISTING ELECTIVE SHARE STATUTES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Article 1A of Chapter 30 of the General Statutes reads as rewritten:

"Article 1A.

"Elective Share.

"§ 30-3.1. Right of elective share.

(a) Elective Share. – The surviving spouse of a decedent who dies domiciled in this State has a right to claim an "elective share", which means an amount equal to (i) the applicable share of the Total Net Assets, as defined in G.S. 30-3.2(4), less (ii) the value of Net Property Passing to Surviving Spouse, as defined in ~~G.S. 30-3.3(a).~~G.S. 30-3.2(2b). The applicable share of the Total Net Assets is as follows:

(1) If the decedent is not survived by any lineal descendants, one-half of the Total Net Assets.

(2) If the decedent is survived by one child, or lineal descendants of one deceased child, one-half of the Total Net Assets.

(3) If the decedent is survived by two or more children, or by one or more children and the lineal descendants of one or more deceased children, or by the lineal descendants of two or more deceased children, one-third of the Total Net Assets.

(b) Reduction of Applicable Share. – In those cases in which the surviving spouse is a second or successive spouse, and the decedent has one or more lineal descendants ~~surviving by a prior marriage~~ surviving who are not lineal descendants of the decedent's marriage to the surviving spouse but there are no lineal descendants surviving by the surviving spouse, the applicable share as determined in subsection (a) of this section shall be reduced by one-half.

~~(c) Death Taxes. – Death taxes shall be taken into account as a claim against the estate in determining Total Net Assets only to the extent that the assets received by the surviving spouse do not qualify for the federal estate tax marital deduction pursuant to section 2056 of the Code or similar provisions under the laws of any other applicable taxing jurisdiction. The amount of such claims shall equal the difference between the amount of such death taxes as finally determined and the amount such death taxes would have been if all assets received by the surviving spouse had qualified for the federal estate tax marital deduction pursuant to section 2056 of the Code and similar provisions under the laws of any other applicable taxing jurisdictions.~~

"§ 30-3.2. Definitions.

The following definitions apply in this Article:

(1) ~~"Code" means the~~ Code. – The Internal Revenue Code in effect at the time of the decedent's death.

(1a) Claims. – Includes liabilities of the decedent whether arising in contract, in tort, or otherwise, and liabilities of the decedent's estate which arise at or after the death of the decedent, including funeral and administrative expenses, except for:

a. A claim for equitable distribution of property pursuant to G.S. 50-20 awarded subsequent to the death of the decedent.

b. Death taxes, except for those death taxes attributable to Property Passing to the Surviving Spouse. "Death taxes attributable to Property Passing to the Surviving Spouse" equals the amount of decedent's death taxes as finally determined, less the amount such death taxes would have been if all Property Passing to the Surviving Spouse had qualified for the federal estate tax marital deduction pursuant to section 2056 of the Code or had qualified for a similar provision under the laws of another applicable taxing jurisdiction.

c. A claim founded on a promise or agreement of the decedent, to the extent such claim is not arm's length or is not supported by full or adequate consideration in money or money's worth.

(2) ~~"Death taxes" means any~~ Death taxes. – Any estate, inheritance, succession, and similar taxes imposed by any taxing authority, reduced by any applicable credits against those taxes.

(2a) General power of appointment. – Any power of appointment, including a power to designate the beneficiary of a beneficiary designation, exercisable by the decedent, regardless of the decedent's capacity to exercise such power, in favor of the decedent, the decedent's estate, the decedent's creditors, or the creditors of the decedent's estate, except for (i) powers limited by an "ascertainable standard" as defined in G.S. 36C-1-103 and (ii) powers which are not exercisable by the decedent except in conjunction with a person who created the power or has a substantial interest in the property subject to the power and whose interest is adverse to the exercise of the power in favor of the decedent, the decedent's estate, the decedent's creditors, or the creditors of the decedent's estate. In no event shall a power held by the decedent as attorney-in-fact under a power of attorney be considered a general power of appointment.

(2b) Net Property Passing to Surviving Spouse. – The Property Passing to Surviving Spouse reduced by (i) death taxes attributable to Property Passing to the Surviving Spouse, (ii) any expenses described in G.S. 30-3.4(h) that are a charge against or are apportioned to the surviving spouse with respect to property included in Property Passing to Surviving Spouse, and (iii) claims satisfied out of property included in Property Passing to the Surviving Spouse.

(2c) Lineal descendant. – Defined in G.S. 29-2.

(3) ~~"Nonadverse trustee" means:~~ Nonadverse trustee. – Any of the following:

a. Any person who does not possess a substantial beneficial interest in the trust that would be adversely affected by the exercise or nonexercise of the power that the individual trustee possesses respecting the trust;

b. Any person subject to a power of removal by the surviving spouse with or without cause; or

c. Any company authorized to engage in trust business under the laws of this State, or that otherwise meets the requirements to engage in trust business under the laws of this State.

(3a) Nonspousal assets. – All property included in total assets other than the property included in Property Passing to Surviving Spouse. The value of nonspousal assets shall be their net values used in determining Total Net Assets.

(3b) Presently exercisable general power of appointment. – A general power of appointment which is exercisable at the time in question. A testamentary general power of appointment is not presently exercisable.

(3c) Property Passing to Surviving Spouse. – The sum of the values, as valued pursuant to G.S. 30-3.3A, of the following:

a. Property (i) devised, outright or in trust, by the decedent to the surviving spouse or (ii) that passes, outright or in trust, to the surviving spouse by intestacy, beneficiary designation, the exercise or failure to exercise the decedent's testamentary general power of appointment or the decedent's testamentary limited power of appointment, operation of law, or otherwise by reason of the decedent's death, excluding any benefits under the federal social security system.

b. Any year's allowance awarded to the surviving spouse.

c. Property renounced by the surviving spouse.

d. The surviving spouse's interest in any life insurance proceeds on the life of the decedent.

e. Any interest in property, outright or in trust, transferred from the decedent to the surviving spouse during the lifetime of the decedent for which the surviving spouse signs a statement acknowledging such a gift. For purposes of this sub-subdivision, any gift to the surviving spouse by the decedent of the decedent's interest in any property held by the decedent and the surviving spouse as tenants by the entirety or as joint tenants with right of survivorship shall be deemed to be a gift of one-half of the entire interest in property so held by the decedent and the surviving spouse.

f. Property awarded to the surviving spouse, subsequent to the death of the decedent, pursuant to an equitable distribution claim under G.S. 50-20.

g. Property held in a spousal trust described in G.S. 30-3.3A(e)(1).

If property falls under more than one sub-subdivision of this subdivision, then the property shall be included only once, but under the sub-subdivision yielding the greatest value of the property.

(3d) Responsible person. – A person or entity other than the surviving spouse that received, held, or controlled property constituting nonspousal assets on the date used to determine the value of the property.

(3e) Responsible person's nonspousal assets. – The nonspousal assets received, held, or controlled by a responsible person.

(3f) Total assets. – The sum of the values, as determined pursuant to G.S. 30-3.3A, of the following:

a. The decedent's property that would pass by intestate succession if the decedent died without a will, other than wrongful death proceeds;

b. Property over which the decedent, immediately before death, held a presently exercisable general power of appointment, except for (i) property held jointly with right of survivorship, which is includable in total assets only to the extent provided in sub-subdivision c. of this subdivision and (ii) life insurance, which is includable in Total Assets only to the extent provided in sub-subdivision d. of this subdivision. Includes, without limitation:

1. Property held in a trust that the decedent could revoke.
2. Property held in a trust to the extent that the decedent had an unrestricted power to withdraw the property.
3. Property held in a depository account owned by the decedent in a financial institution payable or transferable at decedent's death to a beneficiary designated by the decedent.
4. Securities owned by the decedent in an account or in certificated form that are payable or transferable at decedent's death to a beneficiary designated by the decedent.

c. Property held as tenants by the entirety or jointly with rights of survivorship as follows:

1. One-half of any property held by the decedent and the surviving spouse as tenants by the entirety or as joint tenants with rights of survivorship is included, without regard to who contributed the property.
2. Property held by the decedent and one or more other persons other than the surviving spouse as joint tenants with rights of survivorship is included to the following extent:
   I. All property attributable to the decedent's contribution.
   II. The decedent's pro rata share of property not attributable to the decedent's contribution, except to the extent of property attributable to contributions by a surviving joint tenant.

   The decedent is presumed to have contributed the jointly owned property unless contribution by another is proven by clear and convincing evidence.

d. Benefits payable by reason of the decedent's death under any policy, plan, contract, or other arrangement, either owned by the decedent or over which the decedent had a general power of appointment or had the power to designate the surviving spouse as beneficiary, including, without limitation:

1. Insurance on the life of the decedent.
2. Accidental death benefits.
3. Annuities.
4. Employee benefits or similar arrangements.
5. Individual retirement accounts.
6. Pension or profit-sharing plans.
7. Deferred compensation.
8. Any private or governmental retirement plan.

e. Property irrevocably transferred by the decedent to the extent the decedent retained the possession or enjoyment of, or the right to income from, the property for life or for any period not ascertainable without reference to the decedent's death or for any period which does not in fact end before the decedent's death, except:

1. Property transferred for full and adequate consideration.

2. Transfers to which the surviving spouse consented in writing by signing a deed, an income or gift tax return that reports the gift, or other writing.
3. Transfers which became irrevocable before the decedent's marriage to the surviving spouse.

The property included in total assets is that fraction of the transferred property to which the decedent retained the right.

f. Property transferred by the decedent to the extent the decedent created a power over the property or the income from the property, which, immediately prior to death, could be exercised by the decedent in conjunction with any other person, or which could be exercised by a person who does not have a substantial interest that would be adversely affected by the exercise or nonexercise of the power, for the benefit of the decedent, the decedent's estate, the decedent's creditors, or the creditors of the decedent's estate, except:
1. Property transferred for full and adequate consideration.
2. Transfers to which the surviving spouse consented in writing by signing a deed, an income or gift tax return that reports the gift, or other writing.
3. Transfers which became irrevocable before the decedent's marriage to the surviving spouse.

The property included in total assets with respect to a power over property is that fraction of the property to which the power related.

g. Property transferred by the decedent to persons other than the surviving spouse if such transfer was made both during the one-year period immediately preceding the decedent's death and during the decedent's marriage to the surviving spouse, except:
1. Property transferred for full and adequate consideration.
2. Transfers to which the surviving spouse consented in writing by signing a deed, an income or gift tax return that reports such gift, or other writing.
3. That part of any property transferred to any one transferee that qualified for exclusion from gift tax under section 2503 of the Code.

For purposes of this sub-subdivision, the termination of a right or interest in, or power over, property that would have been included in the total assets under sub-subdivisions b., e., or f. if the right, interest, or power had not terminated until the decedent's death shall be deemed to be a transfer of such property. Termination occurs when, with respect to a right or interest in property, the decedent transfers or relinquishes the right or interest; with respect to a power over property, the power terminates by exercise or release, but not by lapse or default.

If property falls under more than one sub-subdivision of this subdivision, then the property shall be included only once, but under the sub-subdivision yielding the greatest value of the property.

(4) ~~"Total Net Assets" means, after the payment or provision for payment of the decedent's funeral expenses, year's allowances to persons other than to the surviving spouse, debts, claims other than an equitable distribution of property awarded to the surviving spouse pursuant to G.S. 50-20 subsequent~~

~~to the death of the decedent, and administration expenses, the sum of the following:~~

~~a. All property to which the decedent had legal and equitable title immediately prior to death;~~

~~b. All property received by the decedent's personal representative by reason of the decedent's death, other than wrongful death proceeds;~~

~~c. One half of the value of any property held by the decedent and the surviving spouse as tenants by the entirety, or as joint tenants with rights of survivorship;~~

~~d. The entire value of any interest in property held by the decedent and another person, other than the surviving spouse, as joint tenants with right of survivorship, except to the extent that contribution can be proven by clear and convincing evidence;~~

~~e. The value of any property which would be included in the taxable estate of the decedent pursuant to sections 2033, 2035, 2036, 2037, 2038, 2039, or 2040 of the Code.~~

~~f. Any gifts of property made by the decedent to donees other than the surviving spouse within six months of the decedent's death, excluding:~~

~~1. Any gifts within the annual exclusion provisions of section 2503 of the Code;~~

~~2. Any gifts to which the surviving spouse consented. A signing of a deed, or income or gift tax return reporting such gift shall be considered consent; and~~

~~3. Any gifts made prior to marriage;~~

~~g. Any proceeds of any individual retirement account, pension or profit sharing plan, or any private or governmental retirement plan or annuity of which the decedent controlled the designation of beneficiary, excluding any benefits under the federal social security system;~~

~~h. Any other Property Passing to Surviving Spouse under G.S. 30-3.3; and~~

~~i. In case of overlapping application of the same property under more than one provision, the property shall be included only once under the provision yielding the greatest value."~~

Total Net Assets. – The total assets reduced by year's allowances to persons other than the surviving spouse and claims.

"~~§ 30-3.3. Property passing to surviving spouse.~~

~~(a) Property Passing to Surviving Spouse. For purposes of this Article, "Property Passing to Surviving Spouse" means the sum of the following:~~

~~(1) One half of the value of any interest in property held by the decedent and the surviving spouse as tenants by the entirety or as joint tenants with rights of survivorship;~~

~~(2) The value of any interest in property (outright or in trust, including any interest subject to a general power of appointment held by the surviving spouse, as defined in section 2041 of the Code) devised by the decedent to the surviving spouse, or which passes to the surviving spouse by intestacy, or by beneficiary designation, or by exercise of or in default of the exercise of the decedent's testamentary general or limited power of appointment, or by operation of law or otherwise by reason of the decedent's death, excluding any benefits under the federal social security system;~~

~~(3) Any year's allowance awarded to the surviving spouse;~~
~~(4) The value of any property renounced by the surviving spouse;~~
~~(5) The value of the surviving spouse's interest, outright or in trust, in any life insurance proceeds on the life of the decedent;~~
~~(6) The value of any interest in property, outright or in trust, transferred from the decedent to the surviving spouse during the lifetime of decedent for which (i) a gift tax return is timely filed reporting such gift, or (ii) the surviving spouse signs a statement acknowledging such a gift. For purposes of this subdivision, any gift to the surviving spouse by the decedent of the decedent's interest in any property held by the decedent and the surviving spouse as tenants by the entirety or as joint tenants with right of survivorship shall be valued at one-half of the entire value of that interest in property at the time the gift is made;~~
~~(7) Notwithstanding any other provision of law related to valuing a partial interest in property, the entire fair market value of any property held in trust for the exclusive benefit of the surviving spouse during the surviving spouse's lifetime, if the terms of the trust meet the following requirements:~~
~~a. During the lifetime of the surviving spouse, the trust is controlled by one or more Nonadverse Trustees;~~
~~b. The trustee is required to distribute to or for the benefit of the surviving spouse either (i) the entire net income of the trust at least annually; or (ii) the income of the trust in such amounts and at such times as the trustee, in its discretion, determines necessary for the health, maintenance, and support of the surviving spouse;~~
~~c. The trustee is required to distribute to or for the benefit of the surviving spouse out of the principal of the trust such amounts and at such times as the trustee, in its discretion, determines necessary for the health, maintenance, and support of the surviving spouse; and~~
~~In exercising discretion, the trustee may be authorized or required to take into consideration all other income, assets, and other means of support as are available to the surviving spouse; and~~
~~(8) The net value of the marital estate awarded to the surviving spouse pursuant to G.S. 50-20 subsequent to the death of the decedent.~~

~~(b) Death Taxes. The value of Property Passing to Surviving Spouse shall be reduced by any death taxes that are a charge against or apportioned against the surviving spouse on property interests included in Property Passing to Surviving Spouse.~~

~~(c) No Duplication. In case of overlapping application of the same property under more than one provision, the property shall be included only once, under the provision yielding the greatest value.~~

"§ 30-3.3A. Valuation of property.

(a) Basic Principles. – Unless otherwise expressly stated to the contrary in this section, the value of property shall be that property's fair market value, taking into consideration any applicable discounts. The value shall be determined as of the date of death, except for (i) property transferred to persons other than the surviving spouse described in G.S. 30-3.2(3f)g. and (ii) property transferred to the surviving spouse described in G.S. 30-3.2(3c)e. that is not held in trust, that is not life insurance, and that is not held as tenants by the entirety or some other form of ownership that passes to the surviving spouse by reason of survivorship. The value of gift property described in clauses (i) and (ii) shall be determined as the value on the date of transfer; but if the donee proves to the satisfaction of the clerk that the value on the date of disposal of the asset prior to the decedent's death is less than on the original date of transfer or that the value on the date of death is less than on the original date of transfer, then the lesser value shall be used.

(b) Certain Joint Property. – In valuing a partial interest in jointly owned property with rights of survivorship, there shall be no discount taken to reflect the decedent's partial interest including, but not limited to, discounts for lack of control, ownership of a fractional interest, or lack of marketability.

(c) Certain Powers of Appointment. – In valuing property over which the decedent held a presently exercisable general power of appointment, the value includes only the property subject to the power that passes at the decedent's death, whether by exercise, release, lapse, default, or otherwise.

(d) Certain Transfers With Retained Interests. – In valuing property transferred by the decedent with a retained right of possession or enjoyment or the right to income described in G.S. 30-3.2(3f)e., only the fraction of the property to which the decedent retained a right shall be included. In valuing property in which the decedent created a power as described in G.S. 30-3.2(3f)f., the value includes, with respect to a power, the value of the property subject to the power, and the amount included in the valuation with respect to a power over the income is the value of the property that produces or produced the income; provided, however, if the power is a power over both income and property and the foregoing produces different amounts, the amount included in the valuation is the greater amount.

(e) Partial or Contingent Interest Property. – The valuation of partial and contingent property interests, outright or in trust, which are limited to commence or terminate upon the death of one or more persons, upon the expiration of a period of time, or upon the occurrence of one or more contingencies, shall be determined by computations based upon the mortality and annuity tables set forth in G.S. 8-46 and G.S. 8-47, and by using a presumed rate of return of six percent (6%) of the value of the underlying property in which those interests are limited. However, in valuing partial and contingent interests passing to the surviving spouse, the following special rules apply:

(1) The value of the beneficial interest of a spouse shall be the entire fair market value of any property held in trust if the decedent was the settlor of the trust, if the trust is held for the exclusive benefit of the surviving spouse during the surviving spouse's lifetime, and if the terms of the trust meet the following requirements:

a. During the lifetime of the surviving spouse, the trust is controlled by one or more nonadverse trustees.

b. The trustee shall distribute to or for the benefit of the surviving spouse either (i) the entire net income of the trust at least annually or (ii) the income of the trust in such amounts and at such times as the trustee, in its discretion, determines necessary for the health, maintenance, and support of the surviving spouse.

c. The trustee shall distribute to or for the benefit of the surviving spouse out of the principal of the trust such amounts and at such times as the trustee, in its discretion, determines necessary for the health, maintenance, and support of the surviving spouse.

d. In exercising discretion, the trustee may be authorized or required to take into consideration all other income assets and other means of support available to the surviving spouse.

(2) To the extent that the partial or contingent interest is dependent upon the occurrence of any contingency that is not subject to the control of the surviving spouse and that is not subject to valuation by reference to the mortality and annuity tables set forth in G.S. 8-46 and G.S. 8-47, the contingency will be conclusively presumed to result in the lowest possible value passing to the surviving spouse. However, a life estate or income interest that will terminate upon the surviving spouse's death or remarriage will be valued without regard to the possibility of termination upon remarriage.

(3) To the extent that the valuation of a partial or contingent interest is dependent upon the life expectancy of the surviving spouse, that life expectancy shall be conclusively presumed to be no less than 10 years, regardless of the actual attained age of the surviving spouse at the decedent's death.

(f) Method for Determining Value. – Unless otherwise stated in this Article, the value of property shall be determined as follows:

(1) The value of property passing by intestacy described in G.S. 30-3.2(3f)a. and Property Passing to Surviving Spouse, other than property held in a trust, shall be established by the good faith agreement of the surviving spouse and the personal representative, unless either (i) the surviving spouse is the personal representative or (ii) the clerk determines that the personal representative may not be able to represent the estate adversely to the surviving spouse, in which cases the value of such property shall be determined pursuant to subdivision (4) of this subsection.

(2) The value of property constituting an interest in a trust shall be established by good faith agreement of the surviving spouse, the personal representative, and the trustee, unless either (i) the surviving spouse is both the personal representative and the trustee or (ii) the clerk determines that the trustee or the personal representative may not be able to represent the trust or the estate, respectively, adversely to the surviving spouse, in which cases the value of such property shall be determined pursuant to subdivision (4) of this subsection.

(3) The value of all other property shall be established by the good faith agreement of the surviving spouse, the personal representative, and the responsible person that received, held, or controlled such property on the date used to determine the value of such property for purposes of determining total assets, unless the clerk determines that valuation under subdivision (4) of this subsection is more appropriate.

(4) If the value of any property is not established by agreement as provided above, the parties may present evidence regarding value, which may include expert testimony, and the clerk may appoint one or more qualified and disinterested persons to help determine the value of such property. After hearing, the clerk shall make a finding of fact of the value of each asset.

"§ 30-3.4. Procedure for determining the elective share.

(a) Exercisable Only During Lifetime. – The right of the surviving spouse to file a claim for an elective share must be exercised during the lifetime of the surviving spouse, by the surviving spouse, by the surviving spouse's ~~agent under a~~ attorney-in-fact if the surviving spouse's power of ~~attorney,~~ attorney expressly authorizes the attorney-in-fact to do so or to generally engage in estate transactions, ~~or~~ or, with approval of court, by the guardian of the surviving spouse's ~~estate.~~ estate or general guardian. If a surviving spouse dies before the claim for an elective share has been settled, the surviving spouse's personal representative shall succeed to the surviving spouse's rights to an elective share.

(b) Time Limitations. – A claim for an elective share must be made within six months after the issuance of letters testamentary or letters of administration in connection with the will or intestate proceeding with respect to which the surviving spouse claims the elective share by (i) filing a petition with the clerk of superior court of the county in which the primary administration of the decedent's estate lies, and (ii) mailing or delivering a copy of that petition to the personal representative of the decedent's estate. A surviving spouse's incapacity shall not toll the six-month period of limitations.

(c) Time for Hearing. – Unless waived by the personal representative and the surviving spouse, the clerk shall set the matter for hearing no earlier than two months and no later than six months after the filing of the petition. However, the clerk may extend the time of hearing as the clerk sees fit. The surviving spouse shall give notice of the hearing to the personal representative, and to any person described in G.S. 30-3.5 who may be required to contribute toward the satisfaction of the elective share.

~~(d) Preparation of Tax Form. – In every case in which a petition to determine an elective share has been filed, and within two months of the filing of the petition, the personal representative shall prepare and submit to the clerk a proposed Form 706, federal estate tax return, for the estate, regardless of whether that form is required to be filed with the Internal Revenue Service. The clerk may extend the time for submission of the proposed Form 706 as the clerk sees fit.~~

~~(e) Valuation. – The valuation of interests in property for purposes of G.S. 30-3.2 and G.S. 30-3.3 shall be determined as follows:~~

~~(1) Basic principles. – Each interest shall be valued at its fair market value, reduced by all liens, claims, or encumbrances against the interest. For interests passing at the decedent's death, valuation shall be as of the date of death, and for interests transferred during the decedent's lifetime, valuation shall be as of the date of transfer.~~

~~(2) Valuation of partial and contingent interests in property. – The valuation of interests in property, outright or in trust, which are limited to commence or terminate upon the death of one or more persons, upon the expiration of a period of time, or upon the occurrence of one or more contingencies, shall be determined by computations based upon the mortuary and annuity tables set forth in G.S. 8-46 and G.S. 8-47, and upon the basis of six percent (6%) of the gross value of the underlying property in which those interests are limited. However, in valuing interests passing to the surviving spouse, the following special rules apply:~~

~~b. To the extent that the interest is dependent upon the occurrence of any contingency that is not subject to the control of the surviving spouse and that is not subject to valuation by reference to the mortuary and annuity tables set forth in G.S. 8-46 and G.S. 8-47, the contingency will be conclusively presumed to result in the lowest possible value passing to the surviving spouse. However, a life estate or income interest that will terminate only upon the earlier of the surviving spouse's death or remarriage will be valued without regard to the possibility of termination upon remarriage; and~~

~~c. To the extent that the valuation of an interest is dependent upon the life expectancy of the surviving spouse, that life expectancy shall be conclusively presumed to be no less than 10 years, regardless of the actual attained age of the surviving spouse at the decedent's death.~~

~~(3) Determination of fair market value. – The fair market value of each asset comprising Total Net Assets shall be determined as follows:~~

~~a. Probate assets and assets passing to spouse. – The value of each probate asset and Property Passing to Surviving Spouse, other than~~

~~assets held in trust, shall be established by the good faith agreement of the surviving spouse and the personal representative, unless either (i) the surviving spouse is the personal representative, or (ii) the clerk determines that the personal representative may not be able to represent the estate adversely to the surviving spouse.~~

~~b. Trust assets. The value of each trust asset shall be established by good faith agreement of the surviving spouse and the trustee, unless either (i) the surviving spouse is the trustee, or (ii) the clerk determines that the trustee may not be able to represent the trust adversely to the surviving spouse.~~

~~c. Other assets. The value of any other asset shall be established by the good faith agreement of the surviving spouse and each person described in G.S. 30-3.5 who may be required to contribute toward the satisfaction of the elective share because of that person's interest in the asset, unless the clerk determines that valuation under sub-subdivision d. of this subdivision is more appropriate.~~

~~d. Use of disinterested persons. If the value of any asset is not established by agreement, the clerk shall appoint one or more qualified and disinterested persons to determine a value of each asset. That determination of the value of an asset shall be final for the exclusive purposes of this Article.~~

(d1) Mediation. – The clerk may order mediation as described in G.S. 7A-38.3B of any disputes in connection with an elective share proceeding.

(e1) Procedure. – An elective share proceeding shall be an estate matter and may be appealed pursuant to G.S. 1-301.3.

(e2) Information About Total Net Assets. – In order to assist the clerk in determining whether a surviving spouse is entitled to an elective share, and, if so, the amount thereof, the following provisions apply:

(1) Submission within two months. – In every case in which a petition to determine an elective share has been filed, within two months of the filing of the petition, the personal representative shall submit sufficient information about the total assets for the clerk to determine the elective share. To fulfill its obligation to provide information, the personal representative may prepare and submit to the clerk a proposed Form 706, United States Estate (and Generation-Skipping Transfer) Tax Return, for the estate, regardless of whether that form is required to be filed with the Internal Revenue Service. The clerk may extend the time for submission of the proposed Form 706 or other information as the clerk sees fit.

(2) Examination regarding assets. – If the personal representative, the surviving spouse, or a responsible person has reasonable grounds to believe that any person has a claim or has in its possession assets included in Total Net Assets, then the personal representative, surviving spouse, or responsible person may use the procedures set out in G.S. 28A-15-12 to cause the clerk to examine the person believed to have a claim or to possess assets included in Total Net Assets.

(f) Findings and Conclusions. – After notice and hearing, the clerk shall determine whether or not the surviving spouse is entitled to an elective share, and if so, the clerk shall then determine the elective share and shall order the personal representative to transfer that amount to the surviving spouse. The clerk's order shall recite specific findings of fact and conclusions of law in arriving at the decedent's Total Net Assets, Property Passing to Surviving Spouse, and the elective share.

~~(g) Appeals. – Any party in interest may appeal from the decision of the clerk to the superior court. If an appeal is taken from the decision of the clerk, that appeal shall have the effect of staying the judgment and order of the clerk until the cause is heard and determined by the superior court upon the appeal taken. Upon an appeal taken from the clerk to the superior court, the judge may review the findings of fact by the clerk and may find the facts or take other evidence, but the facts found by the judge shall be final and conclusive upon any appeal to the Appellate Division.~~

(h) Expenses. – The expenses (including attorneys' fees) reasonably incurred by the personal representative, other responsible persons, and the surviving spouse in connection with elective share proceedings shall be equitably apportioned by the clerk of court in the clerk's discretion among the personal representative, other responsible persons, and the surviving spouse. Each responsible person shall pay its apportioned expenses to the personal representative in cash.

"§ 30-3.5. ~~Recovery of assets by personal representative.~~ Satisfaction of elective share.

~~(a) Recovery of Assets. The personal representative is entitled to recover proportionately from all persons, other than the surviving spouse, receiving or in possession of any of the decedent's Total Net Assets a sufficient amount to enable the personal representative to pay the elective share. The apportionment shall be made in the proportion that the value of the interest of each person receiving or in possession of any of Total Net Assets bears to Total Net Assets, excluding any Property Passing to Surviving Spouse. The only persons subject to contribution to make up the elective share are (i) original recipients of property comprising the decedent's Total Net Assets, and subsequent gratuitous inter vivos donees or persons claiming by testate or intestate succession to the extent those persons have the property or its proceeds on or after the date of decedent's death, and (ii) a fiduciary, as to the property under the fiduciary's control at or after the time a fiduciary receives notice that a surviving spouse has claimed an elective share. A fiduciary shall not be considered to have notice until it receives notice at its address as shown in the decedent's estate papers in the clerk's office or, if there are no such papers or no such address is shown in those papers, at the fiduciary's residence or the office of its registered agent.~~

~~The personal representative may withhold from any property of the decedent in his possession, distributable to any person subject to apportionment, the amount of the elective share apportioned to such person. If the property in possession of the personal representative and distributable to any person subject to apportionment is insufficient to satisfy the proportionate amount of the elective share determined to be due from that person, the personal representative may recover the deficiency from that person. If the property is not in possession of the personal representative, the personal representative may recover from the person the amount of the elective share apportioned to that person in accordance with this Article. If the personal representative cannot reasonably collect from any person subject to apportionment the amount of the elective share apportioned to that person, the amount not reasonably recoverable shall, with the approval of the clerk, be apportioned among the other persons who are subject to apportionment. The apportionment shall be made in the proportion that the value of the interest of each remaining person bears to the total value of the interests of all remaining persons.~~

(a1) Apportionment. – The personal representative shall determine each responsible person's liability to the surviving spouse by multiplying the value of the elective share by a fraction, the numerator of which is the value of the responsible person's nonspousal assets and the denominator of which is the total value of all of the nonspousal assets included in Total Net Assets.

(a2) Recovery From Responsible Persons. – As a responsible person, the personal representative shall satisfy its liability for payment of the elective share out of the decedent's estate's nonspousal assets using first the nonspousal assets in the decedent's residuary estate. If the nonspousal assets in the residuary estate are not sufficient, the personal representative shall reduce each other responsible person's share of the nonspousal assets proportionately based on the values used in determining the Total Net Assets. The personal representative shall recover from each other responsible person the responsible person's liability for the payment of the elective share. Each responsible person, including the decedent's personal representative, may elect to satisfy its liability in full by any of the following methods:

(1) Conveyance of that portion of the responsible person's nonspousal assets (or identical substitute assets), valued on the date of conveyance, sufficient to satisfy the responsible person's liability; or, if the value of the responsible person's nonspousal assets on the date of conveyance is less than the responsible person's liability, conveyance of all of the responsible person's nonspousal assets (or identical substitute assets).

(2) Payment of the liability in cash.

(3) Payment of the liability in other property upon written agreement of the surviving spouse at values agreed by the surviving spouse for purposes of determining the extent of the liability satisfied.

(4) Any combination of the payment methods set forth under subdivisions (2) through (4) of this subsection, provided that the total value of assets conveyed by the responsible person equals such responsible person's liability.

(a3) Inability or Refusal to Pay. – The personal representative shall be entitled to petition the clerk of court for an order requiring any responsible person to satisfy its liability. Upon refusal of a responsible person to obey such an order, the personal representative shall be entitled to a judgment against such responsible person in the amount of the liability and to any other remedies the clerk deems appropriate. Although the responsible person shall remain primarily liable for such responsible person's liability for the elective share, the following rules apply:

(1) If the responsible person makes a gratuitous transfer, whether inter vivos or by testate or intestate succession, of all or any part of the responsible person's nonspousal assets or the proceeds thereof after the decedent's death, then the gratuitous transferee shall be liable for the amount transferred, and the personal representative shall be entitled to recover that amount from the transferee as if the transferee were the responsible person.

(2) If the responsible person is a fiduciary and makes a distribution of all or any part of the responsible person's nonspousal assets or the proceeds thereof after the decedent's death, then the distributee shall be liable for the amount transferred, and the personal representative shall be entitled to recover that amount from the distributee as if the distributee were the responsible person.

If, after exhausting all other remedies in this section, the personal representative cannot reasonably recover a responsible person's liability, then, with the approval of the clerk, the defaulting responsible person's liability shall be apportioned on a pro rata basis among the responsible persons who have not defaulted. Each nondefaulting other responsible person shall be liable for the amount of the liability apportioned to it in the same manner and to the same extent as its original liability for the elective share; provided, that each responsible person's liability shall not exceed the responsible person's proportionate share of the value of the nonspousal assets based on the values used in determining Total Net Assets. Each nondefaulting other responsible person shall be entitled to a proportionate share of any judgment against or subsequent recovery of the liability from the defaulting responsible person.

(b) Standstill Order. – After the filing of the petition demanding an elective share, ~~either the personal representative or surviving spouse~~ the personal representative, surviving spouse, or any responsible person may request the clerk to issue an order that any ~~recipients~~ responsible person not dispose of ~~any~~ all or a portion of the decedent's Total Net Assets or the proceeds thereof pending the ~~hearing.~~ payment of the elective share. The decision to issue such an order shall be in the discretion of the clerk. A person who violates the standstill order may be held in civil contempt of court pursuant to Article 5A of Chapter 2 of the General Statutes. The clerk shall enter an order terminating the standstill order upon the clerk's determination that the standstill order is no longer necessary or desirable.

~~(c) Satisfaction of Liability. A person receiving or in possession of any of the decedent's Total Net Assets may pay his proportionate elective share liability with respect to that property by any of the following methods:~~

~~(1) Conveyance of the property included in the decedent's Total Net Assets;~~

~~(2) Payment of the value of his liability in cash or, upon agreement of the surviving spouse, other property; or~~

~~(3) Partial conveyance and partial payment under subdivisions (1) and (2) of this subsection, provided the value conveyed and paid is equal to his liability.~~

~~(d) Expenses. The expenses reasonably incurred by the personal representative in connection with the appraisal or recovery of assets shall be apportioned as provided for the elective share under this Article. If the personal representative finds that it is inequitable to apportion the expenses because those expenses were incurred because of the fault of one or more persons subject to apportionment, the personal representative may direct other more equitable apportionment, with the approval of the clerk.~~

(e) Bond. – ~~If property held by the personal representative is distributed~~ If a responsible person distributes or disposes of nonspousal assets prior to final apportionment of the elective ~~share,~~ share and expenses, the personal representative may require the ~~distributee~~ responsible person or the transferee to provide a bond or other security for the ~~apportionment~~ responsible person's liability for payment of the elective share and apportioned expenses in the form and amount prescribed by the personal representative, with the approval of the clerk.

"§ 30-3.6. Waiver of rights.

(a) The right of a surviving spouse to claim an elective share may be waived, wholly or partially, before or after marriage, with or without consideration, by a written waiver signed by the surviving ~~spouse.~~ spouse, by the surviving spouse's attorney-in-fact if the surviving spouse's power of attorney expressly authorizes the attorney-in-fact to do so or to generally engage in estate transactions, or, with approval of court, by the guardian of the surviving spouse's estate or general guardian.

(b) A waiver is not enforceable if the surviving spouse proves that:

(1) The waiver was not executed voluntarily; or

(2) The surviving spouse or the surviving spouse's representative making the waiver was not provided a fair and reasonable disclosure of the property and financial obligations of the decedent, unless the surviving spouse waived, in writing, the right to that disclosure.

(c) A written waiver that would have been effective to waive a spouse's right to dissent in estates of decedents dying on or before December 31, 2000, under Article 1 of Chapter 30 of the General Statutes is effective to waive that spouse's right of elective share under this Article for estates of decedents dying on or after January 1, 2001."

SECTION 2. This act is effective when it becomes law and applies to decedents dying on or after October 1, 2009.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO REVISE THE EXISTING ELECTIVE SHARE STATUTES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Article 1A of Chapter 30 of the General Statutes reads as rewritten:

"Article 1A.

"Elective Share.

"§ 30-3.1. Right of elective share.

(a) Elective Share. – The surviving spouse of a decedent who dies domiciled in this State has a right to claim an "elective share", which means an amount equal to (i) the applicable share of the Total Net Assets, as defined in G.S. 30-3.2(4), less (ii) the value of Net Property Passing to Surviving Spouse, as defined in ~~G.S. 30-3.3(a).~~G.S. 30-3.2(2c). The applicable share of the Total Net Assets is as follows:

(1) If the decedent is not survived by any lineal descendants, one-half of the Total Net Assets.

(2) If the decedent is survived by one child, or lineal descendants of one deceased child, one-half of the Total Net Assets.

(3) If the decedent is survived by two or more children, or by one or more children and the lineal descendants of one or more deceased children, or by the lineal descendants of two or more deceased children, one-third of the Total Net Assets.

(b) Reduction of Applicable Share. – In those cases in which the surviving spouse is a second or successive spouse, and the decedent has one or more lineal descendants ~~surviving by a prior marriage~~ surviving who are not lineal descendants of the decedent's marriage to the surviving spouse but there are no lineal descendants surviving by the surviving spouse, the applicable share as determined in subsection (a) of this section shall be reduced by one-half.

~~(c) Death Taxes. Death taxes shall be taken into account as a claim against the estate in determining Total Net Assets only to the extent that the assets received by the surviving spouse do not qualify for the federal estate tax marital deduction pursuant to section 2056 of the Code or similar provisions under the laws of any other applicable taxing jurisdiction. The amount of such claims shall equal the difference between the amount of such death taxes as finally determined and the amount such death taxes would have been if all assets received by the surviving spouse had qualified for the federal estate tax marital deduction pursuant to~~

~~section 2056 of the Code and similar provisions under the laws of any other applicable taxing jurisdictions.~~

"§ 30-3.2. Definitions.

The following definitions apply in this Article:

(1) ~~"Code" means the~~ Code. – The Internal Revenue Code in effect at the time of the decedent's death.

(1a) Claims. – Includes liabilities of the decedent whether arising in contract, in tort, or otherwise, and liabilities of the decedent's estate which arise at or after the death of the decedent, including funeral and administrative expenses, except for:

a. A claim for equitable distribution of property pursuant to G.S. 50-20 awarded subsequent to the death of the decedent.

b. Death taxes, except for those death taxes attributable to Property Passing to the Surviving Spouse. "Death taxes attributable to Property Passing to the Surviving Spouse" equals the amount of decedent's death taxes as finally determined, less the amount such death taxes would have been if all Property Passing to the Surviving Spouse had qualified for the federal estate tax marital deduction pursuant to section 2056 of the Code or had qualified for a similar provision under the laws of another applicable taxing jurisdiction.

c. A claim founded on a promise or agreement of the decedent, to the extent such claim is not arm's length or is not supported by full or adequate consideration in money or money's worth.

d. Expenses apportioned by the clerk of court under G.S. 30-3.4(h).

(2) ~~"Death taxes" means any~~ Death taxes. – Any estate, inheritance, succession, and similar taxes imposed by any taxing authority, reduced by any applicable credits against those taxes.

(2a) General power of appointment. – Any power of appointment, including a power to designate the beneficiary of a beneficiary designation, exercisable by the decedent, regardless of the decedent's capacity to exercise such power, in favor of the decedent, the decedent's estate, the decedent's creditors, or the creditors of the decedent's estate, except for (i) powers limited by an "ascertainable standard" as defined in G.S. 36C-1-103 and (ii) powers which are not exercisable by the decedent except in conjunction with a person who created the power or has a substantial interest in the property subject to the power and whose interest is adverse to the exercise of the power in favor of the decedent, the decedent's estate, the decedent's creditors, or the creditors of the decedent's estate. In no event shall a power held by the decedent as attorney-in-fact under a power of attorney be considered a general power of appointment.

(2b) Lineal descendant. – Defined in G.S. 29-2.

(2c) Net Property Passing to Surviving Spouse. – The property passing to surviving spouse reduced by (i) death taxes attributable to property passing to surviving spouse, and (ii) claims payable out of, charge against or otherwise properly allocated to property passing to surviving spouse.

(3) ~~"Nonadverse trustee" means:~~ Nonadverse trustee. – Any of the following:

a. Any person who does not possess a substantial beneficial interest in the trust that would be adversely affected by the exercise or nonexercise of the power that the individual trustee possesses respecting the trust;

b. Any person subject to a power of removal by the surviving spouse with or without cause; or

c. Any company authorized to engage in trust business under the laws of this State, or that otherwise meets the requirements to engage in trust business under the laws of this State.

(3a) Nonspousal assets. – All property included in total assets other than the property included in Property Passing to Surviving Spouse.

(3b) Presently exercisable general power of appointment. – A general power of appointment which is exercisable at the time in question. A testamentary general power of appointment is not presently exercisable.

(3c) Property Passing to Surviving Spouse. – The sum of the values, as valued pursuant to G.S. 30-3.3A, of the following:

a. Property (i) devised, outright or in trust, by the decedent to the surviving spouse or (ii) that passes, outright or in trust, to the surviving spouse by intestacy, beneficiary designation, the exercise or failure to exercise the decedent's testamentary general power of appointment or the decedent's testamentary limited power of appointment, operation of law, or otherwise by reason of the decedent's death, excluding any benefits under the federal social security system.

b. Any year's allowance awarded to the surviving spouse.

c. Property renounced by the surviving spouse.

d. The surviving spouse's interest in any life insurance proceeds on the life of the decedent.

e. Any interest in property, outright or in trust, transferred from the decedent to the surviving spouse during the lifetime of the decedent for which the surviving spouse signs a statement acknowledging such a gift. For purposes of this sub-subdivision, any gift to the surviving spouse by the decedent of the decedent's interest in any property held by the decedent and the surviving spouse as tenants by the entirety or as joint tenants with right of survivorship shall be deemed to be a gift of one-half of the entire interest in property so held by the decedent and the surviving spouse.

f. Property awarded to the surviving spouse, subsequent to the death of the decedent, pursuant to an equitable distribution claim under G.S. 50-20.

g. Property held in a spousal trust described in G.S. 30-3.3A(e)(1).

If property falls under more than one sub-subdivision of this subdivision, then the property shall be included only once, but under the sub-subdivision yielding the greatest value of the property.

(3d) Responsible person. – A person or entity other than the surviving spouse that received, held, or controlled property constituting nonspousal assets on the date used to determine the value of the property. The personal representative is the responsible person for nonspousal assets that pass under the decedent's will or by intestate succession.

(3e) Responsible person's nonspousal assets. – The nonspousal assets received, held, or controlled by a responsible person.

(3f) Total assets. – The sum of the values, as determined pursuant to G.S. 30-3.3A, of the following:

a. The decedent's property that would pass by intestate succession if the decedent died without a will, other than wrongful death proceeds;

b. Property over which the decedent, immediately before death, held a presently exercisable general power of appointment, except for (i) property held jointly with right of survivorship, which is includable in total assets only to the extent provided in sub-subdivision c. of this subdivision and (ii) life insurance, which is includable in Total Assets only to the extent provided in sub-subdivision d. of this subdivision. Includes, without limitation:
   1. Property held in a trust that the decedent could revoke.
   2. Property held in a trust to the extent that the decedent had an unrestricted power to withdraw the property.
   3. Property held in a depository account owned by the decedent in a financial institution payable or transferable at decedent's death to a beneficiary designated by the decedent.
   4. Securities owned by the decedent in an account or in certificated form that are payable or transferable at decedent's death to a beneficiary designated by the decedent.

c. Property held as tenants by the entirety or jointly with rights of survivorship as follows:
   1. One-half of any property held by the decedent and the surviving spouse as tenants by the entirety or as joint tenants with rights of survivorship is included, without regard to who contributed the property.
   2. Property held by the decedent and one or more other persons other than the surviving spouse as joint tenants with rights of survivorship is included to the following extent:
      I. All property attributable to the decedent's contribution.
      II. The decedent's pro rata share of property not attributable to the decedent's contribution, except to the extent of property attributable to contributions by a surviving joint tenant.

      The decedent is presumed to have contributed the jointly owned property unless contribution by another is proven by clear and convincing evidence.

d. Benefits payable by reason of the decedent's death under any policy, plan, contract, or other arrangement, either owned by the decedent or over which the decedent had a general power of appointment or had the power to designate the surviving spouse as beneficiary, including, without limitation:
   1. Insurance on the life of the decedent.
   2. Accidental death benefits.
   3. Annuities.
   4. Employee benefits or similar arrangements.
   5. Individual retirement accounts.
   6. Pension or profit-sharing plans.
   7. Deferred compensation.
   8. Any private or governmental retirement plan.

e. Property irrevocably transferred by the decedent to the extent the decedent retained the possession or enjoyment of, or the right to income from, the property for life or for any period not ascertainable without reference to the decedent's death or for any period which does not in fact end before the decedent's death, except:

1. Property transferred for full and adequate consideration.
2. Transfers to which the surviving spouse consented in writing by signing a deed, an income or gift tax return that reports the gift, or other writing.
3. Transfers which became irrevocable before the decedent's marriage to the surviving spouse.

The property included in total assets is that fraction of the transferred property to which the decedent retained the right.

f. Property transferred by the decedent to the extent the decedent created a power over the property or the income from the property, which, immediately prior to death, could be exercised by the decedent in conjunction with any other person, or which could be exercised by a person who does not have a substantial interest that would be adversely affected by the exercise or nonexercise of the power, for the benefit of the decedent, the decedent's estate, the decedent's creditors, or the creditors of the decedent's estate, except:

1. Property transferred for full and adequate consideration.
2. Transfers to which the surviving spouse consented in writing by signing a deed, an income or gift tax return that reports the gift, or other writing.
3. Transfers which became irrevocable before the decedent's marriage to the surviving spouse.

The property included in total assets with respect to a power over property is that fraction of the property to which the power related.

g. Property transferred by the decedent to persons other than the surviving spouse if such transfer was made both during the one-year period immediately preceding the decedent's death and during the decedent's marriage to the surviving spouse, except:

1. Property transferred for full and adequate consideration.
2. Transfers to which the surviving spouse consented in writing by signing a deed, an income or gift tax return that reports such gift, or other writing.
3. That part of any property transferred to any one transferee that qualified for exclusion from gift tax under section 2503 of the Code.

For purposes of this sub-subdivision, the termination of a right or interest in, or power over, property that would have been included in the total assets under sub-subdivisions b., e., or f. if the right, interest, or power had not terminated until the decedent's death shall be deemed to be a transfer of such property. Termination occurs when, with respect to a right or interest in property, the decedent transfers or relinquishes the right or interest; with respect to a power over property, the power terminates by exercise or release, but not by lapse or default.

If property falls under more than one sub-subdivision of this subdivision, then the property shall be included only once, but under the sub-subdivision yielding the greatest value of the property.

(4) ~~"Total Net Assets" means, after the payment or provision for payment of the decedent's funeral expenses, year's allowances to persons other than to the~~

~~surviving spouse, debts, claims other than an equitable distribution of property awarded to the surviving spouse pursuant to G.S. 50-20 subsequent to the death of the decedent, and administration expenses, the sum of the following:~~

~~a. All property to which the decedent had legal and equitable title immediately prior to death;~~

~~b. All property received by the decedent's personal representative by reason of the decedent's death, other than wrongful death proceeds;~~

~~c. One-half of the value of any property held by the decedent and the surviving spouse as tenants by the entirety, or as joint tenants with rights of survivorship:~~

~~d. The entire value of any interest in property held by the decedent and another person, other than the surviving spouse, as joint tenants with right of survivorship, except to the extent that contribution can be proven by clear and convincing evidence;~~

~~e. The value of any property which would be included in the taxable estate of the decedent pursuant to sections 2033, 2035, 2036, 2037, 2038, 2039, or 2040 of the Code.~~

~~f. Any gifts of property made by the decedent to donees other than the surviving spouse within six months of the decedent's death, excluding:~~

~~1. Any gifts within the annual exclusion provisions of section 2503 of the Code;~~

~~2. Any gifts to which the surviving spouse consented. A signing of a deed, or income or gift tax return reporting such gift shall be considered consent; and~~

~~3. Any gifts made prior to marriage;~~

~~g. Any proceeds of any individual retirement account, pension or profit sharing plan, or any private or governmental retirement plan or annuity of which the decedent controlled the designation of beneficiary, excluding any benefits under the federal social security system;~~

~~h. Any other Property Passing to Surviving Spouse under G.S. 30-3.3; and~~

~~i. In case of overlapping application of the same property under more than one provision, the property shall be included only once under the provision yielding the greatest value."~~

Total Net Assets. – The total assets reduced by year's allowances to persons other than the surviving spouse and claims.

"~~§ 30-3.3. Property passing to surviving spouse.~~

~~(a) Property Passing to Surviving Spouse. – For purposes of this Article, "Property Passing to Surviving Spouse" means the sum of the following:~~

~~(1) One-half of the value of any interest in property held by the decedent and the surviving spouse as tenants by the entirety or as joint tenants with rights of survivorship;~~

~~(2) The value of any interest in property (outright or in trust, including any interest subject to a general power of appointment held by the surviving spouse, as defined in section 2041 of the Code) devised by the decedent to the surviving spouse, or which passes to the surviving spouse by intestacy, or by beneficiary designation, or by exercise of or in default of the exercise of the decedent's testamentary general or limited power of appointment, or~~

~~by operation of law or otherwise by reason of the decedent's death, excluding any benefits under the federal social security system;~~

~~(3) Any year's allowance awarded to the surviving spouse;~~

~~(4) The value of any property renounced by the surviving spouse;~~

~~(5) The value of the surviving spouse's interest, outright or in trust, in any life insurance proceeds on the life of the decedent;~~

~~(6) The value of any interest in property, outright or in trust, transferred from the decedent to the surviving spouse during the lifetime of decedent for which (i) a gift tax return is timely filed reporting such gift, or (ii) the surviving spouse signs a statement acknowledging such a gift. For purposes of this subdivision, any gift to the surviving spouse by the decedent of the decedent's interest in any property held by the decedent and the surviving spouse as tenants by the entirety or as joint tenants with right of survivorship shall be valued at one-half of the entire value of that interest in property at the time the gift is made;~~

~~(7) Notwithstanding any other provision of law related to valuing a partial interest in property, the entire fair market value of any property held in trust for the exclusive benefit of the surviving spouse during the surviving spouse's lifetime, if the terms of the trust meet the following requirements:~~

~~a. During the lifetime of the surviving spouse, the trust is controlled by one or more Nonadverse Trustees;~~

~~b. The trustee is required to distribute to or for the benefit of the surviving spouse either (i) the entire net income of the trust at least annually; or (ii) the income of the trust in such amounts and at such times as the trustee, in its discretion, determines necessary for the health, maintenance, and support of the surviving spouse;~~

~~c. The trustee is required to distribute to or for the benefit of the surviving spouse out of the principal of the trust such amounts and at such times as the trustee, in its discretion, determines necessary for the health, maintenance, and support of the surviving spouse; and~~

~~In exercising discretion, the trustee may be authorized or required to take into consideration all other income, assets, and other means of support as are available to the surviving spouse; and~~

~~(8) The net value of the marital estate awarded to the surviving spouse pursuant to G.S. 50-20 subsequent to the death of the decedent.~~

~~(b) Death Taxes. The value of Property Passing to Surviving Spouse shall be reduced by any death taxes that are a charge against or apportioned against the surviving spouse on property interests included in Property Passing to Surviving Spouse.~~

~~(c) No Duplication. In case of overlapping application of the same property under more than one provision, the property shall be included only once, under the provision yielding the greatest value.~~

"§ 30-3.3A. Valuation of property.

(a) Basic Principles. – Unless otherwise expressly stated to the contrary in this section, the value of property shall be that property's fair market value, taking into consideration any applicable discounts. The value shall be determined as of the date of death, except for (i) property transferred to persons other than the surviving spouse described in G.S. 30-3.2(3f)g. and (ii) property transferred to the surviving spouse described in G.S. 30-3.2(3c)e. that is not held in trust, that is not life insurance, and that is not held as tenants by the entirety or some other form of ownership that passes to the surviving spouse by reason of survivorship. The value of gift property described in clauses (i) and (ii) shall be determined as the value on the date of transfer; but if the donee proves to the satisfaction of the clerk that the value on the date of disposal of the asset prior to the decedent's death is less than on the original date of transfer or that the value on the date of death is less than on the original date of transfer, then the lesser value shall be used.

(b) Certain Joint Property. – In valuing a partial interest in jointly owned property with rights of survivorship, there shall be no discount taken to reflect the decedent's partial interest including, but not limited to, discounts for lack of control, ownership of a fractional interest, or lack of marketability.

(c) Certain Powers of Appointment. – In valuing property over which the decedent held a presently exercisable general power of appointment, the value includes only the property subject to the power that passes at the decedent's death, whether by exercise, release, lapse, default, or otherwise.

(d) Certain Transfers With Retained Interests. - In valuing property transferred by the decedent with a retained right of possession or enjoyment or the right to income described in G.S. 30-3.2(3f)e., only the fraction of the property to which the decedent retained a right shall be included. In valuing property in which the decedent created a power as described in G.S. 30-3.2(3f)f., the value includes, with respect to a power, the value of the property subject to the power, and the amount included in the valuation with respect to a power over the income is the value of the property that produces or produced the income; provided, however, if the power is a power over both income and property and the foregoing produces different amounts, the amount included in the valuation is the greater amount.

(e) Partial or Contingent Interest Property. – The valuation of partial and contingent property interests, outright or in trust, which are limited to commence or terminate upon the death of one or more persons, upon the expiration of a period of time, or upon the occurrence of one or more contingencies, shall be determined by computations based upon the mortality and annuity tables set forth in G.S. 8-46 and G.S. 8-47, and by using a presumed rate of return of six percent (6%) of the value of the underlying property in which those interests are limited. However, in valuing partial and contingent interests passing to the surviving spouse, the following special rules apply:

(1) The value of the beneficial interest of a spouse shall be the entire fair market value of any property held in trust if the decedent was the settlor of the trust, if the trust is held for the exclusive benefit of the surviving spouse during the surviving spouse's lifetime, and if the terms of the trust meet the following requirements:

a. During the lifetime of the surviving spouse, the trust is controlled by one or more nonadverse trustees.

b. The trustee shall distribute to or for the benefit of the surviving spouse either (i) the entire net income of the trust at least annually or (ii) the income of the trust in such amounts and at such times as the trustee, in its discretion, determines necessary for the health, maintenance, and support of the surviving spouse.

c. The trustee shall distribute to or for the benefit of the surviving spouse out of the principal of the trust such amounts and at such times as the trustee, in its discretion, determines necessary for the health, maintenance, and support of the surviving spouse.

d. In exercising discretion, the trustee may be authorized or required to take into consideration all other income assets and other means of support available to the surviving spouse.

(2) To the extent that the partial or contingent interest is dependent upon the occurrence of any contingency that is not subject to the control of the surviving spouse and that is not subject to valuation by reference to the mortality and annuity tables set forth in G.S. 8-46 and G.S. 8-47, the

contingency will be conclusively presumed to result in the lowest possible value passing to the surviving spouse. However, a life estate or income interest that will terminate upon the surviving spouse's death or remarriage will be valued without regard to the possibility of termination upon remarriage.

(3) To the extent that the valuation of a partial or contingent interest is dependent upon the life expectancy of the surviving spouse, that life expectancy shall be conclusively presumed to be no less than 10 years, regardless of the actual attained age of the surviving spouse at the decedent's death.

(f) Method for Determining Value. – Unless otherwise stated in this Article, the value of property shall be determined as follows:

(1) The value of property passing by intestacy described in G.S. 30-3.2(3f)a. and Property Passing to Surviving Spouse, other than property held in a trust, shall be established by the good faith agreement of the surviving spouse and the personal representative, unless either (i) the surviving spouse is the personal representative or (ii) the clerk determines that the personal representative may not be able to represent the estate adversely to the surviving spouse, in which cases the value of such property shall be determined pursuant to subdivision (4) of this subsection.

(2) The value of property constituting an interest in a trust shall be established by good faith agreement of the surviving spouse, the personal representative, and the trustee, unless either (i) the surviving spouse is both the personal representative and the trustee or (ii) the clerk determines that the trustee or the personal representative may not be able to represent the trust or the estate, respectively, adversely to the surviving spouse, in which cases the value of such property shall be determined pursuant to subdivision (4) of this subsection.

(3) The value of all other property shall be established by the good faith agreement of the surviving spouse, the personal representative, and the responsible person that received, held, or controlled such property on the date used to determine the value of such property for purposes of determining total assets, unless the clerk determines that valuation under subdivision (4) of this subsection is more appropriate.

(4) If the value of any property is not established by agreement as provided above, the parties may present evidence regarding value, which may include expert testimony, and the clerk may appoint one or more qualified and disinterested persons to help determine the value of such property. After hearing, the clerk shall make a finding of fact of the value of each asset.

"§ 30-3.4. Procedure for determining the elective share.

(a) Exercisable Only During Lifetime. – The right of the surviving spouse to file a claim for an elective share must be exercised during the lifetime of the surviving spouse, by the surviving spouse, by the surviving spouse's ~~agent under a~~ attorney-in-fact if the surviving spouse's power of ~~attorney,~~ attorney expressly authorizes the attorney-in-fact to do so or to generally engage in estate transactions, ~~or~~ or, with approval of court, by the guardian of the surviving spouse's ~~estate.~~ estate or general guardian. If a surviving spouse dies before the claim for an elective share has been settled, the surviving spouse's personal representative shall succeed to the surviving spouse's rights to an elective share.

(b) Time Limitations. – A claim for an elective share must be made within six months after the issuance of letters testamentary or letters of administration in connection with the will or intestate proceeding with respect to which the surviving spouse claims the elective share by

(i) filing a petition with the clerk of superior court of the county in which the primary administration of the decedent's estate lies, and (ii) mailing or delivering a copy of that petition to the personal representative of the decedent's estate. A surviving spouse's incapacity shall not toll the six-month period of limitations.

(c) Time for Hearing. – Unless waived by the personal representative and the surviving spouse, the clerk shall set the matter for hearing no earlier than two months and no later than six months after the filing of the petition. However, the clerk may extend the time of hearing as the clerk sees fit. The surviving spouse shall give notice of the hearing to the personal representative, and to any person described in G.S. 30-3.5 who may be required to contribute toward the satisfaction of the elective share.

~~(d) Preparation of Tax Form. – In every case in which a petition to determine an elective share has been filed, and within two months of the filing of the petition, the personal representative shall prepare and submit to the clerk a proposed Form 706, federal estate tax return, for the estate, regardless of whether that form is required to be filed with the Internal Revenue Service. The clerk may extend the time for submission of the proposed Form 706 as the clerk sees fit.~~

~~(e) Valuation. – The valuation of interests in property for purposes of G.S. 30-3.2 and G.S. 30-3.3 shall be determined as follows:~~

~~(1) Basic principles. – Each interest shall be valued at its fair market value, reduced by all liens, claims, or encumbrances against the interest. For interests passing at the decedent's death, valuation shall be as of the date of death, and for interests transferred during the decedent's lifetime, valuation shall be as of the date of transfer.~~

~~(2) Valuation of partial and contingent interests in property. – The valuation of interests in property, outright or in trust, which are limited to commence or terminate upon the death of one or more persons, upon the expiration of a period of time, or upon the occurrence of one or more contingencies, shall be determined by computations based upon the mortuary and annuity tables set forth in G.S. 8-46 and G.S. 8-47, and upon the basis of six percent (6%) of the gross value of the underlying property in which those interests are limited. However, in valuing interests passing to the surviving spouse, the following special rules apply:~~

~~b. To the extent that the interest is dependent upon the occurrence of any contingency that is not subject to the control of the surviving spouse and that is not subject to valuation by reference to the mortuary and annuity tables set forth in G.S. 8-46 and G.S. 8-47, the contingency will be conclusively presumed to result in the lowest possible value passing to the surviving spouse. However, a life estate or income interest that will terminate only upon the earlier of the surviving spouse's death or remarriage will be valued without regard to the possibility of termination upon remarriage; and~~

~~c. To the extent that the valuation of an interest is dependent upon the life expectancy of the surviving spouse, that life expectancy shall be conclusively presumed to be no less than 10 years, regardless of the actual attained age of the surviving spouse at the decedent's death.~~

~~(3) Determination of fair market value. – The fair market value of each asset comprising Total Net Assets shall be determined as follows:~~

~~a. Probate assets and assets passing to spouse. The value of each probate asset and Property Passing to Surviving Spouse, other than assets held in trust, shall be established by the good faith agreement of the surviving spouse and the personal representative, unless either (i) the surviving spouse is the personal representative, or (ii) the clerk determines that the personal representative may not be able to represent the estate adversely to the surviving spouse.~~

~~b. Trust assets. The value of each trust asset shall be established by good faith agreement of the surviving spouse and the trustee, unless either (i) the surviving spouse is the trustee, or (ii) the clerk determines that the trustee may not be able to represent the trust adversely to the surviving spouse.~~

~~c. Other assets. The value of any other asset shall be established by the good faith agreement of the surviving spouse and each person described in G.S. 30-3.5 who may be required to contribute toward the satisfaction of the elective share because of that person's interest in the asset, unless the clerk determines that valuation under sub-subdivision d. of this subdivision is more appropriate.~~

~~d. Use of disinterested persons. If the value of any asset is not established by agreement, the clerk shall appoint one or more qualified and disinterested persons to determine a value of each asset. That determination of the value of an asset shall be final for the exclusive purposes of this Article.~~

(d1) Mediation. – The clerk may order mediation as described in G.S. 7A-38.3B of any disputes in connection with an elective share proceeding.

(e1) Procedure. – An elective share proceeding shall be an estate matter and may be appealed pursuant to G.S. 1-301.3.

(e2) Information About Total Net Assets. – In order to assist the clerk in determining whether a surviving spouse is entitled to an elective share, and, if so, the amount thereof, the following provisions apply:

(1) Submission within two months. – In every case in which a petition to determine an elective share has been filed, within two months of the filing of the petition, the personal representative shall submit sufficient information about the total assets for the clerk to determine the elective share. To fulfill its obligation to provide information, the personal representative may prepare and submit to the clerk a proposed Form 706, United States Estate (and Generation-Skipping Transfer) Tax Return, for the estate, regardless of whether that form is required to be filed with the Internal Revenue Service. The clerk may extend the time for submission of the proposed Form 706 or other information as the clerk sees fit.

(2) Examination regarding assets. – If the personal representative, the surviving spouse, or a responsible person has reasonable grounds to believe that any person has a claim or has in its possession assets included in Total Net Assets, then the personal representative, surviving spouse, or responsible person may use the procedures set out in G.S. 28A-15-12 to cause the clerk to examine the person believed to have a claim or to possess assets included in Total Net Assets.

(f) Findings and Conclusions. – After notice and hearing, the clerk shall determine whether or not the surviving spouse is entitled to an elective share, and if so, the clerk shall then determine the elective share and shall order the personal representative to transfer that amount to the surviving spouse. The clerk's order shall recite specific findings of fact and conclusions of law in arriving at the decedent's Total Net Assets, Property Passing to Surviving Spouse, and the elective share.

~~(g) Appeals. Any party in interest may appeal from the decision of the clerk to the superior court. If an appeal is taken from the decision of the clerk, that appeal shall have the effect of staying the judgment and order of the clerk until the cause is heard and determined by the superior court upon the appeal taken. Upon an appeal taken from the clerk to the superior court, the judge may review the findings of fact by the clerk and may find the facts or take other evidence, but the facts found by the judge shall be final and conclusive upon any appeal to the Appellate Division.~~

(h) Expenses. – The expenses (including attorneys' fees) reasonably incurred by the personal representative, other responsible persons, and the surviving spouse in connection with elective share proceedings shall be equitably apportioned by the clerk of court in the clerk's discretion among the personal representative, other responsible persons, and the surviving spouse.

"§ 30-3.5. ~~Recovery of assets by personal representative.~~ Satisfaction of elective share.

~~(a) Recovery of Assets. The personal representative is entitled to recover proportionately from all persons, other than the surviving spouse, receiving or in possession of any of the decedent's Total Net Assets a sufficient amount to enable the personal representative to pay the elective share. The apportionment shall be made in the proportion that the value of the interest of each person receiving or in possession of any of Total Net Assets bears to Total Net Assets, excluding any Property Passing to Surviving Spouse. The only persons subject to contribution to make up the elective share are (i) original recipients of property comprising the decedent's Total Net Assets, and subsequent gratuitous inter vivos donees or persons claiming by testate or intestate succession to the extent those persons have the property or its proceeds on or after the date of decedent's death, and (ii) a fiduciary, as to the property under the fiduciary's control at or after the time a fiduciary receives notice that a surviving spouse has claimed an elective share. A fiduciary shall not be considered to have notice until it receives notice at its address as shown in the decedent's estate papers in the clerk's office or, if there are no such papers or no such address is shown in those papers, at the fiduciary's residence or the office of its registered agent.~~

~~The personal representative may withhold from any property of the decedent in his possession, distributable to any person subject to apportionment, the amount of the elective share apportioned to such person. If the property in possession of the personal representative and distributable to any person subject to apportionment is insufficient to satisfy the proportionate amount of the elective share determined to be due from that person, the personal representative may recover the deficiency from that person. If the property is not in possession of the personal representative, the personal representative may recover from the person the amount of the elective share apportioned to that person in accordance with this Article. If the personal representative cannot reasonably collect from any person subject to apportionment the amount of the elective share apportioned to that person, the amount not reasonably recoverable shall, with the approval of the clerk, be apportioned among the other persons who are subject to apportionment. The apportionment shall be made in the proportion that the value of the interest of each remaining person bears to the total value of the interests of all remaining persons.~~

(a1) Apportionment. – The personal representative shall apportion the liability to the surviving spouse for the amount of the elective share among all responsible persons as follows:

(1) The net value of each nonspousal asset shall be determined by calculating the value of the nonspousal asset under G.S. 30-3.3.1 and reducing such value by that portion of the claims (including year's allowances to persons other than the surviving spouse) payable out of, charged against or otherwise properly allocable to the nonspousal asset.

(2) Using the net value of each nonspousal asset as determined under subdivision (1) of this subsection, the personal representative shall determine each responsible person's liability to the surviving spouse by multiplying the amount of the elective share by a fraction, the numerator of which is the net value of the responsible person's nonspousal assets and the denominator of which is the net value of all of the nonspousal assets.

(a2) Recovery From Responsible Persons. – In recovering assets from Responsible Persons, the following rules apply:

(1) To the extent the personal representative is a responsible person, the personal representative shall satisfy its liability to the surviving spouse out of its nonspousal assets according to the following order of priority:

a. The personal representative shall satisfy its liability out of the net value of the nonspousal assets passing by intestate succession by allocating the liability proportionately among each intestate heir based on the fraction of the net value of the nonspousal assets passing by intestate succession that each intestate heir is entitled to receive.

b. If the net value of the nonspousal assets passing by intestate succession is not sufficient to satisfy the personal representative's liability in full, the personal representative shall satisfy its remaining liability out of the net value of the nonspousal assets passing as part of the decedent's residuary estate by allocating the liability proportionately among each beneficiary of the decedent's residuary estate based on the fraction of the net value of the nonspousal assets passing as part of the decedent's residuary estate that each residuary beneficiary is entitled to receive.

c. If the net value of the nonspousal assets in the residuary estate is not sufficient to satisfy the personal representative's liability in full, the personal representative shall satisfy its remaining liability by allocating the remaining liability proportionately among each other beneficiary of the decedent's will based on the fraction of the net value of the remaining nonspousal assets each other beneficiary is entitled to receive.

(2) The personal representative shall recover from each other responsible person the responsible person's liability to the surviving spouse.

(3) Each responsible person, including the personal representative in its capacity as a responsible person, may elect to satisfy its liability in full by any of the following methods:

a. Conveyance of that portion of the responsible person's nonspousal assets (or identical substitute assets), valued on the date of conveyance, sufficient to satisfy the responsible person's liability; or, if the value of the responsible person's nonspousal assets on the date of conveyance is less than the responsible person's liability, conveyance of all of the responsible person's nonspousal assets (or identical substitute assets).

b. Payment of the liability in cash.

c. Payment of the liability in other property upon written agreement of the surviving spouse at values agreed by the surviving spouse for purposes of determining the extent of the liability satisfied.

d. Any combination of the payment methods set forth under sub-subsubdivisions b. through d. of this subsection, provided that the total value of assets conveyed by the responsible person equals such responsible person's liability.

(a3) Inability or Refusal to Pay. – The personal representative shall be entitled to petition the clerk of court for an order requiring any responsible person to satisfy its liability. Upon refusal of a responsible person to obey such an order, the personal representative shall be entitled to a judgment against such responsible person in the amount of the liability and to any other remedies the clerk deems appropriate. Although the responsible person shall remain primarily liable for such responsible person's liability for the elective share, the following rules apply:

(1) If the responsible person makes a gratuitous transfer, whether inter vivos or by testate or intestate succession, of all or any part of the responsible person's nonspousal assets or the proceeds thereof after the decedent's death, then the gratuitous transferee shall be liable for the amount transferred, and the personal representative shall be entitled to recover that amount from the transferee as if the transferee were the responsible person.

(2) If the responsible person is a fiduciary and makes a distribution of all or any part of the responsible person's nonspousal assets or the proceeds thereof after the decedent's death, then the distributee shall be liable for the amount transferred, and the personal representative shall be entitled to recover that amount from the distributee as if the distributee were the responsible person.

If, after exhausting all other remedies in this section, the personal representative cannot reasonably recover a responsible person's liability, then, with the approval of the clerk, the defaulting responsible person's liability shall be apportioned on a pro rata basis among the responsible persons who have not defaulted. Each nondefaulting other responsible person shall be liable for the amount of the liability apportioned to it in the same manner and to the same extent as its original liability for the elective share; provided, that each responsible person's liability shall not exceed the responsible person's proportionate share of the value of the nonspousal assets based on the values used in determining Total Net Assets. Each nondefaulting other responsible person shall be entitled to a proportionate share of any judgment against or subsequent recovery of the liability from the defaulting responsible person.

(b) Standstill Order. – After the filing of the petition demanding an elective share, ~~either the personal representative or surviving spouse~~ the personal representative, surviving spouse, or any responsible person may request the clerk to issue an order that any ~~recipients~~ responsible person not dispose of ~~any~~ all or a portion of the decedent's Total Net Assets or the proceeds thereof pending the ~~hearing.~~ payment of the elective share. The decision to issue such an order shall be in the discretion of the clerk. A person who violates the standstill order may be held in civil contempt of court pursuant to Article 5A of Chapter 2 of the General Statutes. The clerk shall enter an order terminating the standstill order upon the clerk's determination that the standstill order is no longer necessary or desirable.

~~(c) Satisfaction of Liability. – A person receiving or in possession of any of the decedent's Total Net Assets may pay his proportionate elective share liability with respect to that property by any of the following methods:~~

~~(1) Conveyance of the property included in the decedent's Total Net Assets;~~

~~(2) Payment of the value of his liability in cash or, upon agreement of the surviving spouse, other property; or~~

~~(3) Partial conveyance and partial payment under subdivisions (1) and (2) of this subsection, provided the value conveyed and paid is equal to his liability.~~

~~(d) Expenses. – The expenses reasonably incurred by the personal representative in connection with the appraisal or recovery of assets shall be apportioned as provided for the elective share under this Article. If the personal representative finds that it is inequitable to apportion the expenses because those expenses were incurred because of the fault of one or~~

~~more persons subject to apportionment, the personal representative may direct other more equitable apportionment, with the approval of the clerk.~~

(e) Bond. – ~~If property held by the personal representative is distributed~~ If a responsible person distributes or disposes of nonspousal assets prior to final apportionment of the elective ~~share,~~ share and expenses, the personal representative may require the ~~distributee~~ responsible person or the transferee to provide a bond or other security for the ~~apportionment~~ responsible person's liability for payment of the elective share and apportioned expenses in the form and amount prescribed by the personal representative, with the approval of the clerk.

"§ 30-3.6. Waiver of rights.

(a) The right of a surviving spouse to claim an elective share may be waived, wholly or partially, before or after marriage, with or without consideration, by a written waiver signed by the surviving ~~spouse.~~ spouse, by the surviving spouse's attorney-in-fact if the surviving spouse's power of attorney expressly authorizes the attorney-in-fact to do so or to generally engage in estate transactions, or, with approval of court, by the guardian of the surviving spouse's estate or general guardian.

(b) A waiver is not enforceable if the surviving spouse proves that:

(1) The waiver was not executed voluntarily; or

(2) The surviving spouse or the surviving spouse's representative making the waiver was not provided a fair and reasonable disclosure of the property and financial obligations of the decedent, unless the surviving spouse waived, in writing, the right to that disclosure.

(c) A written waiver that would have been effective to waive a spouse's right to dissent in estates of decedents dying on or before December 31, 2000, under Article 1 of Chapter 30 of the General Statutes is effective to waive that spouse's right of elective share under this Article for estates of decedents dying on or after January 1, 2001."

SECTION 2. This act is effective when it becomes law and applies to decedents dying on or after October 1, 2009.

HOUSE BILL 765:
Revise Elective Share Statutes

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	June 1, 2009
Introduced by:	Rep. Stam	Prepared by:	Kory Goldsmith Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	PCS to Second Edition H765-CSRC-29

SUMMARY: The Proposed Committee Substitute for House Bill 765 rewrites Article 1A of Chapter 30 of the General Statutes governing a surviving spouse's elective share.

The bill is a recommendation of the Estate Planning Section of the North Carolina State Bar.

BACKGROUND: Under North Carolina law, a surviving spouse is entitled to a minimum share of their deceased spouse's estate regardless of the provisions, if any, of the deceased spouse's will. The minimum share is one-half of the surviving spouse's net assets if the decedent is survived by no lineal descendants or no more than one lineal descendants and one-third of the assets if decedent is survived by two or more children. The purpose of the elective share is to prevent a spouse from disinheriting a surviving spouse.

BILL ANALYSIS: The Proposed Committee Substitute makes changes to each section of Article 1A. An overview of the changes to each section is set out below.

G.S. 30-3.1. Right to Elective Share

Subsection (b) is changed to allow for the consideration of lineal descendants whether or not those descendants are the children of a prior marriage.

In addition to technical changes, subsection (c) governing the treatment and computation of death taxes is deleted. This language is now included in the definition section in the new definition of claims.

G.S. 30-3.2. Definitions

This section was changed to include computational language or calculations where appropriate, leaving primarily procedural language in the other sections.

New definitions include:

- "Claims" -- The current definition of "total net assets" (p.6, line 38) provides for the payment of funeral expenses, debts and other claims. The new definition of claims clarifies what is considered a claim against a decedent's estate and exempts from claims the following: (1) a claim for equitable distribution awarded subsequent to the decedent's death; (2) death taxes; and (3) claims not supported by adequate consideration, all of which are exempted under current law.
- "General Power of Appointment" -- This term is referenced in the new definition of "total assets" (p.3, line 48). The purpose of the new definition, coupled with the definition of total assets, is to include in total assets that property or interest over which the decedent retains control by a general power of appointment.
- "Net Property Passing to Surviving Spouse" – This term is added to include in the definitions the calculation under existing language as intended in the current G.S. 30-3.3 which is repealed by the bill (page 6, line 40).

- "Nonspousal Assets" – This term is used in new language in G.S. 30-3.5 (p. 12, line 44). The personal representative may recover non-spousal assets from a responsible person if the property is part of the decedent's total net assets.
- "Property Passing to the Surviving Spouse" – This definition is added and is substantially the same as language currently in G.S. 30-3.3 which is repealed by the bill. Again, the language is primarily used to compute the elective share and, as such, is being placed in the definitions.
- "Responsible person" and "Responsible Person's Non-spousal Assets" – These terms are used in new language in G.S. 30-3.5. Non-spousal assets may be recovered from responsible persons if the property is a part of the decedent's total net assets.
- "Total Assets" – This term is added and the definition is primarily based on language originally found in the definition of "Total Net Assets" included in a decedent's estate (p. 5, line 47) which is deleted by the bill. Again, the language is primarily a calculation or computation to determine the elective share. The language is expanded from the original language to provide clarification and divides property into the following categories:

    1. Property that would pass by intestate succession. (sub-subdivision a)
    2. Property over which the decedent held a general power of appointment including property held in revocable trusts, or a trust in which the decedent had the power to withdraw property, bank accounts, and stocks. (sub-subdivision b)
    3. Property held by joint tenancy. (sub-subdivision c)
    4. Beneficiary property including life insurance (not specified under current law), death benefits, annuities, IRAs, pensions, and retirement plans. (sub-subdivision d)
    5. Irrevocable transfers to the extent the decedent retained possession or enjoyment or income from the property. (sub-subdivision e)
    6. Property transferred with and to the extent of a power that could be exercised by the decedent with someone else. (sub-subdivision f)
    7. Gifts made one year preceding death (currently 6 months) (sub-subdivision g)

    For 5, 6, and 7 above, property transferred for full and adequate consideration or with the written consent of the surviving spouse are not include in total assets. In addition, for 5 and 6 above, transfers which are irrevocable and made before the decedent's marriage to the surviving spouse are not included. This language is new. Also, for 7 above, gifts that qualify for exclusion from gift tax ($13,000 or less) are not included.
- "Total Net Assets" – This definition is new and is based on total assets less funeral expenses, administration expenses, and claims.

G.S. 30-3.3. Property passing to surviving spouse.

This section is repealed. Provisions governing property passing to surviving spouse are now included in the definition in G.S. 30-3.2(3c) (p. 3, line 11).

G.S. 30-3.3A Valuation of Property. (new section added)

The valuation of property is currently addressed in G.S. 30-3.4(e) (p. 10, line 16) which is repealed by the bill.

Subsection (a) is based on the current language and provides that the value of the property shall be the fair market value at the time of death except for: (1) gifts made to person other than the surviving spouse and (2) gifts made to the surviving spouse that is not held in trust, not life insurance, or other form of ownership that passes to the surviving spouse on the decedent's death. For these transfers, the value is determined as of the date of transfer, unless the property is disposed of and the donee proves that the value prior to death is less than the value on the date of transfer.

Other provisions include the following:

- For joint property with right of survivorship, there shall be no discount taken to reflect the decedent's partial interest (subsection (b)).
- For property subject to power of appointment, value shall be only for the property subject to the power (subsection (c)).
- For transfers with a sole or shared retained right of possession or enjoyment, values shall be only for the property subject to the power (subsection (d)).
- For partial or contingent property interests commencing or terminating on the death of one or more persons, value is based on the statutory mortality and annuity tables. (subsection (e)). Special rules under the current law for contingent interests passing to the surviving spouse are included in this subsection. (repealed under current law on p. 7, line 16).

Subsection (f) provides that the method for determining fair market value can be by good faith agreement of, as applicable: (1) the surviving spouse and the personal representative for property passing by intestacy; (2) in the case of a trust, the personal representative, surviving spouse, and trustee; (3) the personal representative, surviving spouse, and the responsible person, for property held by a responsible person. If an agreement cannot be reached, the parties may present evidence to the clerk who shall determine the fair market value. This language is based on language deleted from the current G.S. 30-3.4(e)(3) (p. 10, line 17).

Subsection (f) adds new language requiring the clerk to make findings of fact from which the parties may appeal to the superior court.

G.S. 30-3.4. Procedure for determining the elective share

Subsection (a) adds language to (1) require a power of attorney to specifically authorize the attorney-in-fact to exercise the right to file for an elective share or to engage in estate transactions and (2) to require a general guardian or guardian of the estate to obtain court approval before filing for an elective share.

Subsection (d) requiring the preparation of a tax return within two months of filing a petition for elective share is repealed. This language is deleted because some estates or property within the estate aren't taxable. Under new language set out in subsection (e2)(1) of this section, the personal representative may file a return to assist the clerk in determining whether the spouse is entitled to an elective share.

Subsection (e) governing valuation is deleted in light of new language included in G.S. 30-3.3 discussed above.

Subsection (d1) is new and adds language authorizing the clerk to order mediation of disputes in connection with elective share claims.

Subsection (e1) is new and adds language authorizing appeal of an elective share claim as an estate matter under G.S.1-301.3. Under G.S. 1-301.3, a superior court judge may only consider whether the findings of fact are supported by the evidence, whether the conclusions of law are supported by the findings of fact, and whether the order is consistent with the conclusions of law and applicable law.

Subsection (f1) is new and requires parties to submit sufficient information to the clerk to allow a determination of total assets of the decedent's estate.

Subsection (g) concerning appeals is deleted and is no longer needed in light of the new subsection (e1). Unlike the new language in subsection (e1), this section authorizes the superior court to review findings of fact by the clerk and find facts or take other evidence.

Subsection (h) is new and allows the apportionment of expenses by the clerk as currently provided in G.S. 30-3.5(d) which is deleted.

G.S. 30-3.5 Satisfaction of elective share. (new heading, was Recovery of assets by personal representative.)

Subsection (a) of this section is deleted and rewritten in new subsections (a1), (a2), and (a3). The revisions discussed below are intended to be clarifying only.

As is the current law, subsection (a1) provides that the personal representative apportions each responsible person's liability to the surviving spouse by multiplying the value of the elective share by a fraction comprised of the value of the responsible person's nonspousal assets over the total value of the all nonspousal assets.

Subsection (a2) provides that the personal representative must pay the elective share using first the non-spousal assets in the decedent's residuary estate. If these are insufficient, each responsible person's share is reduced proportionately. The responsible person may satisfy its liability by any of the following methods: (1) conveying back that portion of non-spousal assets valued on the date of conveyance or, if the value is less than the party's liability, the conveyance of all the non-spousal assets (There is no liability out of personal assets, only non-spousal assets.); (2) payment in cash; (3) payment in other property upon written agreement; or (4) any combination of the above.

Subsection (a3) provides that the personal representative may petition the court for the recovery from the responsible person. A responsible person is primarily liable for the elective share, but if the person made a gratuitous transfer or, if the person is a fiduciary and made a distribution of the non-spousal assets upon the decedent's death, then the transferee or distributee is liable for the amount transferred.

If the personal representative cannot recover from a responsible person, then the responsible person's liability may be apportioned among the remaining responsible persons. The non-defaulting responsible person or persons are then entitled to recover from the defaulting responsible person. A responsible person's liability may not exceed their proportionate share of the non-spousal assets. (Again, there is no liability out of personal assets, only non-spousal assets.)

Subsection (b) adds new language providing that a responsible person violating a standstill order prohibiting disposal of a decedent's total net assets may be held in civil contempt.

Subsection (c) is repealed. These provisions are included in the new subsection (a2).

Subsection (d) is repealed. The clerk may apportion expenses as provided in the new G.S. 30-3.4(h) discussed above.

Subsection (e) adds new language to the provision requiring a responsible person or transferee to post a bond to clarify that the bond is to secure payment not just of the elective share, but also of any apportioned expenses.

G.S. 30-3.6 Waiver of rights.

Language is added requiring a power of attorney to specifically authorize the attorney-in-fact to waive the right to claim an elective share or to engage in estate transactions and also requires a general guardian or guardian of the estate to obtain court approval before doing so. (As noted earlier in this summary, similar language was also added in G.S. 30-3.4(a) governing the petitioning for an elective share.)

EFFECTIVE DATE: The Proposed Committee Substitute for House Bill 765 is effective when it becomes law and applies to decedents dying on or after October 1, 2009.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO ENABLE COMPANY POLICE AGENCIES OF THE DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE AND CONSUMER SERVICES TO ENTER INTO MUTUAL AID AGREEMENTS WITH OTHER LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCIES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 160A-288(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) For purposes of this section, the following shall be considered the equivalent of a municipal police department:

(1) Campus law-enforcement agencies established pursuant to G.S. 115D-21.1(a) or ~~G.S. 116-40.5(a); and~~G.S. 116-40.5(a).

(2) Colleges or universities which are licensed, or exempted from licensure, by G.S. 116-15 and which employ company police officers commissioned by the Attorney General pursuant to Chapter 74E or Chapter 74G of the General ~~Statutes; and~~Statutes.

(3) Law enforcement agencies operated or eligible to be operated by a municipality pursuant to ~~G.S. 63-53(2); and~~G.S. 63-53(2).

(4) Butner Public Safety.

(5) A Company Police agency of the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services commissioned by the Attorney General pursuant to Chapter 74E of the General Statutes."

SECTION 2. This act is effective when it becomes law.

HOUSE BILL 1109:
State Fairgrounds Special Police/Mutual Aid

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	June 2, 2009
Introduced by:	Rep. Hill	Prepared by:	Jennifer McGinnis
Analysis of:	First Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: This act adds a company police agency of the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services as an equivalent to a municipal police department for the purposes of entering into mutual aid agreements. This act is effective when it becomes law.

CURRENT LAW: The head of a law enforcement agency is authorized by statute to provide assistance to another law enforcement agency if requested to do so in writing by the head of the requesting agency. The statute provides the guidelines and applicable regulations when there is an aid agreement, including grant of jurisdiction, operational control, and all other rights, privileges and immunities. All pay, and other personnel and administrative matters, remain with the lending agency for officers that are assisting the requesting agency.

BILL ANALYSIS: The act adds Company Police of the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services as the equivalent of a municipal law enforcement agency; consequently, the head of the Company Police would be authorized to enter into agreements with other municipal agencies, or agencies that have also been given that status.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act is effective when it becomes law.

HOUSE BILL 1132:
Renew Concealed Carry Permit/30 Day Limit

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	June 1, 2009
Introduced by:	Reps. Hilton, Gulley	Prepared by:	Brenda J. Carter
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition H1132-CSRV-44		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: This proposed committee substitute for House Bill 1132 would make it clear that an application for renewal of a concealed carry permit must be submitted within the 30 days prior to expiration of the permit. It would also require a sheriff to act on a renewal application within 30 days after receipt of the completed application, and would extend the validity of a concealed carry permit if it reaches its expiration date and the permittee has not received a renewal permit or been denied a renewal permit by the sheriff. The proposed committee substitute adds a provision that would exempt qualified former sworn law enforcement officers who have 15 or more aggregate years of part-time or auxiliary law enforcement service from the requirement to complete a firearms safety and training course prior to obtaining a concealed carry permit, provided other requirements are met.

CURRENT LAW: A concealed carry permit holder must apply to the sheriff in his or her county of residence for renewal of a permit at least 30 days prior to its expiration. If the permit holder applies for renewal within 30 days of its expiration date, and the permittee remains qualified, then the sheriff must renew the permit.

To qualify for the issuance of a concealed carry permit, an applicant must successfully complete an approved firearms safety and training course which involves the actual firing of handguns and instruction in the laws of this State governing the carrying of a concealed handgun and the use of deadly force. Under G.S. 14-415.12A(a), a person who is a "qualified sworn law enforcement officer" or a "qualified former sworn law enforcement officer" is deemed to have satisfied the firearms safety and training course requirement.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 1132 would:

- Clarify that the holder of a concealed carry permit must submit a renewal application within the 30 days prior to expiration of the permit.
- Require that a sheriff renew the permit of a qualified applicant within 30 days after receiving the completed renewal application. If the 30th day falls on a Saturday, Sunday, State holiday, or federal holiday, the period would be extended to the next business day.
- Provide that if the applicant for permit renewal meets the statutory requirements, the permit would remain valid until the permittee either receives a renewal permit or is denied a renewal permit by the sheriff.
- Amend the definition of a "qualified former sworn law enforcement officer" that would be exempt from the requirement to complete a firearms safety and training course prior to obtaining a concealed carry permit. The exemption would include a person who has retired from service as a law enforcement officer in North Carolina not more than 2 years prior to the date of the application, and who meets all of the following requirements:
    - Was, immediately before retirement, a qualified law enforcement officer with a local, State, or company police agency in this State.
    - Has 15 or more aggregate years of part-time or auxiliary law enforcement service.
    - Is not prohibited by State or federal law from receiving a firearm.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The act would be effective when it becomes law, and apply to permit and renewal applications submitted on or after that date.

HOUSE BILL 1447:
Crime Stoppers Tips Are Confidential

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	June 1, 2009
Introduced by:	Rep. Wiley	Prepared by:	Kory Goldsmith Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	PCS to Third Edition H1447-CSRC-30

SUMMARY: House Bill 1447 would ensure confidentiality for individuals who provide tips to Crime Stoppers organizations in the following ways:

- Provides a statutory definition for "Crime Stoppers" organization.
- Provides that evidence of the communication and any information contained in the tip from an anonymous Crime Stoppers' tip may not be relied upon by a court official for the purposes of determining probable cause or issuing a warrant and is not subject to discovery or admissible in a court proceeding.
- Provides that public law enforcement agencies are not required to disclose information received from a Crime Stoppers organization.

CURRENT LAW: There is currently no statute in North Carolina that provides confidentiality for individuals who provide tips to Crime Stopper organizations under a promise of anonymity. G.S. 132-1.4 excludes records of criminal investigation conducted by law enforcement agencies from the definition of a "public record". G.S. 132-1.4(h) provides that information that is not required to be disclosed under Chapter 15A (Criminal Procedure) or that is reasonably likely to identify a confidential informant does not need to be disclosed by a public law enforcement agency.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 1447 would provide confidentiality for individuals providing tips to Crime Stoppers organizations.

Definition of "Crime Stoppers" organization. The bill defines "Crime Stoppers" organization as a nonprofit corporation organized under Chapter 55A of the General Statues and operated on a local or statewide level that:

- Offers anonymity to those providing tips
- Takes donations to provide cash rewards to those providing tips, which the organization forwards to law enforcement
- Is established as a cooperative alliance between the media, the community, and law enforcement

Confidentiality of the tip. The bill would provide that any evidence of a communication or any information contained in a communication between a person submitting a report on an alleged criminal act to a Crime Stoppers organization and the person receiving the report is not subject to discovery or admissible in any court proceeding and may not be used by a court official as the basis for finding probably cause or issuing a warrant.

Use by Law enforcement and confidentiality. The bill would limit the use of Crime Stoppers information by law enforcement to assist in the directing of a criminal investigation. It also provides that information that is not required to be disclosed under Chapter 15A (Criminal Procedure) or that is reasonably likely to identify a confidential informant does not have to be disclosed by a public law enforcement agency.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The act would become effective December 1, 2009.

BACKGROUND: The purpose of Crime Stopper organizations is to provide an identity-protected means of reporting information regarding a crime that rewards citizens whose tips result in an arrest. When a person provides information they are given a coded number to protect their identity.

North Carolina Crime Stoppers organizations have increasingly been dealing with defense attorneys who attempt to gain access to tips and tip sheets through the discovery process. Under G.S. 15A-908, upon written motion of a party and a finding of good cause, a court is authorized to order that discovery be denied, restricted, or deferred. However, getting these protective orders requires each of the 93 programs to file motions in their various jurisdictions for protective orders in order to maintain their promise of anonymity.

Referred to:	Judiciary II.

March 25, 2009

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT PROVIDING FOR THE PROTECTION OF THE PUBLIC AGAINST THE HEALTH AND SAFETY RISKS THAT CERTAIN CHARACTERISTICALLY WILD ANIMALS POSE TO THE COMMUNITY.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. The General Statutes are amended by adding a new Chapter to read:

"Chapter 19B.

"Characteristically Wild Animals.

"§ 19B-1. Definitions.

The following terms as used in this Chapter mean:

(1) "Animal control authority" means the agency designated by the city or county to administer ordinances regulating, restricting, or prohibiting the possession of characteristically wild animals. The animal control agency may be a municipal or county animal control agency, county sheriff, or other designated agency.

(2) "Characteristically wild animal" means one of the following types of animals of the Order Carnivora, and any hybrids of these animals, unless otherwise specified:

a. Family Felidae – only lions, tigers, and leopards.

b. Family Ursidae – all bears that are not native to this State.

(3) "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, organization, trade or professional association, firm, limited liability company, joint venture, association, trust, estate, or any other legal entity, and any employee, agent, or representative of the entity.

(4) "Possessor" means any person who owns, possesses, keeps, harbors, brings into the State, acts as a custodian of, or has custody or control of, a characteristically wild animal.

(5) "Wildlife sanctuary" means a nonprofit organization that cares for animals defined as characteristically wild animals and within whose facilities:

a. No activity that is not inherent to the animal's nature, natural conduct, or the animal in its natural habitat is conducted;

b. No commercial activity involving an animal occurs including, but not limited to, the sale of or trade in animals, animal parts, animal by-products, or animal offspring, or the sale of photographic opportunities involving an animal, or the use of an animal for any type of entertainment purpose;

c. No unescorted public visitations or direct contact occurs between the public and an animal; and

d. No breeding of animals occurs.

"§ 19B-2. Exemptions.

(a) The provisions of this Chapter do not apply to:

(1) Institutions accredited by the American Zoo and Aquarium Association (AZA).

(2) Duly incorporated nonprofit animal protection organizations, such as humane societies and shelters, housing a characteristically wild animal at the written request of the animal control authority or acting under the authority of this Chapter.

(3) Federal or State wildlife enforcement officers acting under the scope of their authority.

(4) Animal control or law enforcement agencies or officers acting under the authority of this act.

(5) Veterinary hospitals, clinics, veterinarians, and persons employed at such facilities under the direction of a veterinarian who are actively treating a characteristically wild animal in their professional capacity as a veterinarian or employee of such facility.

(6) Any wildlife sanctuary as defined in G.S. 19B-1(e).

(7) A university, college, laboratory, or other research facility holding a Class R registration under the Animal Welfare Act, 7 U.S.D.A. Section 2131.

(8) Circuses, defined as incorporated, Class C licensees under the Animal Welfare Act, 7 U.S.D.A. Section 2131, as amended, that are temporarily in this State, and that offer performances by live animals, clowns, and acrobats for public entertainment. Circuses do not include persons, whether or not Class C licensees, who present any listed animal to the public as part of a carnival or for the purpose of (i) exhibition; or (ii) entertainment that includes wrestling, a photography opportunity with a patron, or an activity in which any listed animal and a patron are in close contact with each other.

(9) Any person who possesses a valid United States Department of Agriculture Class A, B, or C license and is in compliance with the United States Department of Agriculture Animal Welfare Act regulations and standards on January 1, 2010, may acquire new characteristically wild animals after that date in order to maintain the inventory of characteristically wild animals possessed on that date, and must:

a. Register with the animal control authority as required by G.S. 19B-4(1) of this Chapter.

b. Maintain a liability insurance policy with an insurer authorized or approved to write such insurance in this State that covers claims for injury or damage to persons or property.

c. Not allow photo opportunities or direct contact between animals and members of the public and the owner's family and friends, except that the owner's family and friends may be allowed direct contact with animals that are under the age of six months. "Direct contact" means any situation in which an individual may potentially touch or otherwise come into physical contact with a characteristically wild animal.

If a characteristically wild animal dies of neglect or cruelty, is seized pursuant to G.S. 19B-5, or if the person is involved in illegal activities, the possessor shall no longer be permitted to continue to replace any animal in order to maintain the operating inventory of characteristically wild animals possessed on January 1, 2010.

(10) A person who does not reside in this State and is traveling through this State with listed species if the transit time is not more than 72 hours and the animal is at all times maintained within a confinement sufficient to prevent the animal from escaping.

(11) Indigenous species already regulated by the North Carolina Wildlife Resources Commission.

"§ 19B-3. Keeping of characteristically wild animals; conditions under which grandfathered animals may be kept.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this Chapter, it is unlawful for a person to import into, possess, keep, purchase, have custody or control of, breed, or sell within this State, by any means, a characteristically wild animal, including transactions conducted via the Internet.

(b) A person in legal possession of a characteristically wild animal prior to January 1, 2010, and who is the legal possessor of the animal, may keep possession of the animal for the remainder of the animal's life, subject to the following conditions:

(1) Within 90 days of January 1, 2010, the possessor of a characteristically wild animal shall register with the animal control authority for the county in which the animal is located. The registration shall include the person's name, address, telephone number, a complete inventory of each characteristically wild animal that the person possesses, a photograph or microchip number for each animal possessed, and the payment to the county of a onetime fee of one hundred dollars ($100.00) per animal to cover the costs of enforcement of this Chapter.

(2) The possessor shall prepare and submit to the county at the time of payment of the fee required by subdivision (1) of this section a contingency plan to protect first responders by providing for the quick and safe recapture of the characteristically wild animal in the event of an escape.

(3) The possessor shall maintain veterinary records, acquisition papers for the animal, if available, or other documents or records that establish that the person possessed the animal prior to January 1, 2010.

(4) The possessor shall present paperwork described in subdivision (3) of this subsection to an animal control or law enforcement authority upon request.

(5) The possessor shall comply with the basic standards for housing exotic animals and protecting the public under the federal Animal Welfare Act as amended, 7 U.S.C. §§ 2131, et seq., and the regulations adopted pursuant to that act, and shall allow the animal control authority access to the animal's housing in order to ensure that the animal is properly cared for.

(6) A legally possessed characteristically wild animal shall not be traded or replaced by a person who does not have an exemption as established in G.S. 19B-2.

(7) The possessor shall notify the animal control authority, the local sheriff's department, and police department, if applicable, immediately upon discovery that the animal has escaped. The possessor of the animal shall be liable for any and all costs associated with the escape, capture, and disposition of a permitted animal.

(8) A possessor of a characteristically wild animal shall notify local law enforcement and local fire departments about the types and numbers of characteristically wild animals the possessor has.

(9) The possessor shall comply with any and all applicable federal, State, or local law, rule, regulation, ordinance, permit, or other permission. Failure to comply with any such law, rule, regulation, ordinance, permit, or other permission constitutes a violation of this Chapter.

A person in legal possession of a characteristically wild animal prior to January 1, 2010, who is the legal possessor of the animal, and who complies with the provisions of this Chapter during the animal's life, may replace the animal upon its death with an animal of the same species, so long as the animal's death was not the result of neglect or cruelty.

"§ 19B-4. Confiscation of characteristically wild animals.

(a) An animal control authority or other person authorized to enforce the provisions of this Chapter may immediately confiscate a characteristically wild animal if:

(1) The animal control authority or other person designated under this Chapter has probable cause to believe that the animal was acquired after January 1, 2010;

(2) The animal poses a public safety or health risk;

(3) The animal is in poor health and condition as a result of the possessor; or

(4) The animal is being held in contravention of this Chapter.

(b) A characteristically wild animal that is confiscated under this section may be returned to the possessor only if the animal control authority or law enforcement officer establishes that the possessor had possession of the animal prior to January 1, 2010, and the return does not pose a public safety or health risk.

(c) The animal control or other persons authorized to enforce this Chapter under G.S. 19B-6 shall serve notice upon the possessor in person or by regular and certified mail, return receipt requested, notifying the possessor of the confiscation, that the possessor is responsible for payment of reasonable costs for caring and providing for the animal during the confiscation and that the possessor must meet the requirements of subsection (b) of this section in order for the animal to be returned to the possessor.

(d) If a characteristically wild animal that is confiscated under this section is not returned to the possessor, the animal control or other persons designated under this Chapter may release the animal to a facility such as a wildlife sanctuary or a facility exempted pursuant to G.S. 19B-2.

(e) If a characteristically wild animal escapes or is released and poses an immediate threat to public safety, the animal control authority or other persons designated under this Chapter may exercise judgment in attempting to recapture the animal or in killing the animal.

"§ 19B-5. City or county ordinances.

A city or county may adopt an ordinance governing characteristically wild animals that is more restrictive than this Chapter. However, nothing in this Chapter requires a city or county to adopt an ordinance to be in compliance with this Chapter.

"§ 19B-6. Enforcement of Chapter.

(a) The animal control authority and its staff and agents, local law enforcement agents, and county sheriffs are authorized and empowered to enforce the provisions of this Chapter.

(b) The possessor of a characteristically wild animal shall, at all reasonable times, allow the animal control authority or other persons designated by this Chapter to enter the premises where the animal is being kept to ensure compliance with this Chapter.

"§ 19B-7. Penalties.

A person who violates this Chapter is liable for a civil penalty to be determined by the court.

"§ 19B-8. Severability.

If any part of this Chapter is determined to be unconstitutional or unenforceable, it shall not affect the constitutionality or enforceability of any other part."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective January 1, 2010, and applies to acts committed on or after that date.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT PROVIDING FOR THE PROTECTION OF THE PUBLIC AGAINST THE HEALTH AND SAFETY RISKS THAT CERTAIN CHARACTERISTICALLY WILD ANIMALS POSE TO THE COMMUNITY.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. The General Statutes are amended by adding a new Chapter to read:

"Chapter 19B.

"Characteristically Wild Animals.

"§ 19B-1. Definitions.

The following terms as used in this Chapter mean:

(1) "Animal control authority" means the agency designated by the city or county to administer ordinances regulating, restricting, or prohibiting the possession of characteristically wild animals. The animal control agency may be a municipal or county animal control agency, county sheriff, or other designated agency.

(2) "Characteristically wild animal" means one of the following types of animals of the Order Carnivora, and any hybrids of these animals, unless otherwise specified:

a. Family Felidae – only lions, tigers, and leopards.

b. Family Ursidae – all bears that are not native to this State.

(3) "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, organization, trade or professional association, firm, limited liability company, joint venture, association, trust, estate, or any other legal entity, and any employee, agent, or representative of the entity.

(4) "Possessor" means any person who owns, possesses, keeps, harbors, brings into the State, acts as a custodian of, or has custody or control of, a characteristically wild animal.

(5) "Wildlife sanctuary" means a nonprofit organization that cares for animals defined as characteristically wild animals and within whose facilities none of the following activities occur:

a. Activity that is not inherent to the animal's nature, natural conduct, or the animal in its natural habitat is conducted.

b. Commercial activity involving an animal occurs including, but not limited to, the sale of or trade in animals, animal parts, animal by-products, or animal offspring, or the sale of photographic opportunities involving an animal, or the use of an animal for any type of entertainment purpose.

c. Unescorted public visitations or direct contact occurs between the public and an animal.

d. Breeding of animals.

"§ 19B-2. Exemptions.

(a) The provisions of this Chapter do not apply to:

(1) Institutions accredited by the American Zoo and Aquarium Association (AZA).

(2) Duly incorporated nonprofit animal protection organizations, such as humane societies and shelters, housing a characteristically wild animal at the written request of the animal control authority or acting under the authority of this Chapter.

(3) Federal or State wildlife enforcement officers acting under the scope of their authority.

(4) Animal control or law enforcement agencies or officers acting under the authority of this act.

(5) Veterinary hospitals, clinics, veterinarians, and persons employed at such facilities under the direction of a veterinarian who are actively treating a characteristically wild animal in their professional capacity as a veterinarian or employee of such facility.

(6) Any wildlife sanctuary as defined in G.S. 19B-1(5).

(7) A university, college, laboratory, or other research facility holding a Class R registration under the Animal Welfare Act, 7 U.S.C. §§ 2131, et seq., as amended.

(8) Circuses that are incorporated and hold a Class C license under the Animal Welfare Act, 7 U.S.C. §§ 2131, et seq., as amended, that are temporarily in this State, and that offer performances by live animals, clowns, and acrobats for public entertainment. Circuses do not include persons, whether or not Class C licensees, who present any regulated animal to the public as part of a carnival or for the purpose of (i) exhibition; or (ii) entertainment that includes wrestling, a photography opportunity with a patron, or an activity in which any regulated animal and a patron are in close contact with each other.

(9) Any person who possesses a valid United States Department of Agriculture Class A, B, or C license and is in compliance with the United States Department of Agriculture Animal Welfare Act regulations and standards on January 1, 2010, may acquire new characteristically wild animals after that date, and must do all of the following:

a. Register with the animal control authority as required by G.S. 19B-3(b)(1) and G.S. 19B-3(c) of this Chapter, as applicable.

b. Maintain a liability insurance policy in an amount not less than two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) with an insurer authorized or approved to write such insurance in this State that covers claims for injury or damage to persons or property.

c. Not allow photo opportunities or direct contact between characteristically wild animals and members of the public or the possessor's family and friends with animals that are over the age of six months. "Direct contact" means any situation in which an individual may potentially touch or otherwise come into physical contact with a characteristically wild animal.

If a characteristically wild animal possessed pursuant to this subdivision dies of neglect or cruelty, is confiscated and not returned to the possessor pursuant to G.S. 19B-4, or if the possessor is involved in illegal activities, the possessor shall no longer be permitted to acquire new characteristically wild animals.

(10) A person who does not reside in this State and is traveling through this State with a regulated species if the transit time is not more than 72 hours and the animal is at all times maintained within a confinement sufficient to prevent the animal from escaping.

(11) Indigenous species already regulated by the North Carolina Wildlife Resources Commission.

"§ 19B-3. Keeping of characteristically wild animals; conditions under which grandfathered animals may be kept.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this Chapter, it is unlawful for a person to import into, possess, keep, purchase, have custody or control of, breed, or sell within this State, by any means, a characteristically wild animal, including transactions conducted via the Internet.

(b) A person in legal possession of a characteristically wild animal prior to January 1, 2010, and who is the legal possessor of the animal, may keep possession of the animal for the remainder of the animal's life, subject to all of the following conditions:

(1) On or before January 1, 2010, the possessor of a characteristically wild animal shall register with the animal control authority for the city or county in which the animal is located. The registration shall include the person's name, address, telephone number, a complete inventory of each characteristically wild animal that the person possesses, a photograph or microchip number for each animal, the address for the site at which each animal is located, and the payment to the animal control authority of a one-time fee of one hundred dollars ($100.00) per site at which a characteristically wild animal is to be located and ten dollars ($10.00) per characteristically wild animal located at that site to cover the costs of enforcement of this Chapter. A possessor shall have a continuing obligation to promptly notify the animal control authority with jurisdiction of any material changes to the information required for registration.

(2) The possessor shall prepare and submit to the animal control authority at the time of payment of the fee required by subdivision (1) of this subsection a contingency plan to protect first responders by providing for the quick and safe recapture of the characteristically wild animal in the event of an escape.

(3) The possessor shall maintain veterinary records, acquisition papers for the animal, if available, or other documents or records that establish that the person possessed the animal prior to January 1, 2010.

(4) The possessor shall present paperwork described in subdivision (3) of this subsection to an animal control or law enforcement authority upon request.

(5) The possessor shall comply with the basic standards for housing exotic animals and protecting the public under the federal Animal Welfare Act, 7 U.S.C. §§ 2131, et seq., as amended, and the regulations adopted pursuant to that act, and shall allow the animal control authority access to the animal's housing in order to ensure that the animal is properly cared for.

(6) Except as provided in subsection (c) of this section, a legally possessed characteristically wild animal shall not be traded or replaced by a person who does not have an exemption as established in G.S. 19B-2.

(7) The possessor shall notify the animal control authority, the local sheriff's department, and police department, if applicable, immediately upon discovery that the characteristically wild animal has escaped. The possessor of the animal shall be liable for any and all costs associated with the escape, capture, and disposition of a registered animal.

(8) A possessor of a characteristically wild animal shall notify local law enforcement and local fire departments about the types and numbers of characteristically wild animals the possessor has.

(9) The possessor shall comply with any and all applicable federal, State, or local law, rule, regulation, ordinance, permit, or other permission. Failure to comply with any such law, rule, regulation, ordinance, permit, or other permission constitutes a violation of this Chapter.

(c) A person in legal possession of a characteristically wild animal prior to January 1, 2010 pursuant to this section, and who complies with the provisions of this Chapter during the animal's life, may replace the animal upon its death with an animal of the same species, so long as the animal's death was not the result of neglect or cruelty. A person replacing an animal pursuant to this subsection shall: (i) register the animal in the manner set forth in subdivision (1) of subsection (a) of this section; (ii) maintain veterinary records, acquisition papers for the animal, if available, or other documents or records that establish the person is in legal possession of the animal, and present the paperwork to an animal control or law enforcement authority upon request; and (iii) otherwise comply with the requirements of this section.

"§ 19B-4. Confiscation of characteristically wild animals.

(a) An animal control authority or other person authorized to enforce the provisions of this Chapter may immediately confiscate a characteristically wild animal under any of the following circumstances:

(1) The animal control authority or other person designated under this Chapter has probable cause to believe that the animal was acquired or is being held in contravention of this Chapter.

(2) The animal poses a public safety or health risk.

(3) The animal is in poor health and condition as a result of the action or inaction of the possessor.

(b) A characteristically wild animal that is confiscated under this section may be returned to the possessor only if the animal control authority or law enforcement officer establishes that the possessor had legal possession of the animal pursuant to G.S. 19B-2 or G.S. 19B-3, the return does not pose a public safety or health risk, or the animal is determined not to be in poor health and condition as a result of the action or inaction of the possessor.

(c) The animal control authority or other persons authorized to enforce this Chapter under G.S. 19B-6 shall serve notice upon the possessor in person or by regular and certified mail, return receipt requested, notifying the possessor of the confiscation, that the possessor is responsible for payment of reasonable costs for caring and providing for the animal during the confiscation and that the possessor must meet the requirements of subsection (b) of this section in order for the animal to be returned to the possessor.

(d) If a characteristically wild animal that is confiscated under this section is not returned to the possessor, the animal control authority or other persons designated under this Chapter may release the animal to a facility such as a wildlife sanctuary or a facility exempted pursuant to G.S. 19B-2.

(e) If a characteristically wild animal escapes or is released and poses an immediate threat to public safety, the animal control authority or other persons designated under this Chapter may exercise judgment in attempting to recapture the animal or in killing the animal.

"§ 19B-5. City or county ordinances.

A city or county may adopt an ordinance governing characteristically wild animals that is more restrictive than this Chapter. However, nothing in this Chapter requires a city or county to adopt an ordinance to be in compliance with this Chapter.

"§ 19B-6. Enforcement of Chapter.

(a) The animal control authority and its staff and agents, local law enforcement agents, and county sheriffs are authorized and empowered to enforce the provisions of this Chapter.

(b) The possessor of a characteristically wild animal shall, at all reasonable times, allow the animal control authority or other persons designated by this Chapter to enter the premises where the animal is being kept to ensure compliance with this Chapter.

"§ 19B-7. Penalties.

A person who violates this Chapter is liable for a civil penalty to be determined by the court.

"§ 19B-8. Severability.

If any part of this Chapter is determined to be unconstitutional or unenforceable, it shall not affect the constitutionality or enforceability of any other part."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective January 1, 2010, and applies to acts committed on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 807: Public Safety Registration

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	June 4, 2009
Introduced by:	Sen. Jones	Prepared by:	Jennifer McGinnis
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition S807-CSRIf-20 [v.6]		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: The proposed committee substitute (PCS) for Senate Bill 807 would make it unlawful for a person to import into, possess, keep, purchase, have custody or control of, breed, or sell within this State, a characteristically wild animal (regulated animals), except in certain circumstances. A person violating the provisions of the PCS would be liable for a civil penalty to be determined by a court. The PCS also authorizes animal control authorities and other law enforcement personnel to confiscate a regulated animal kept in contravention of the provisions of the act.

The provisions of the PCS would become effective January 1, 2010, and would apply to acts occurring on or after that date.

BILL ANALYSIS: The PCS would create a new Chapter 19B of the General Statutes that would –

- Make it unlawful for a person to import into, possess, keep, purchase, have custody or control of, breed, or sell within this State a regulated wild animal, except in certain circumstances.
  - Regulated animals: Lions, tigers, leopards, and all bears that are not native to the State.
  - Exemptions to the prohibition include: Institutions accredited by the American Zoo and Aquarium Association; certain nonprofit animal protection organizations housing a regulated animal at the written request of the animal control authority; federal or State wildlife enforcement officers; animal control or law enforcement agencies or officers; licensed veterinary hospitals or clinics; wildlife sanctuaries; universities, colleges, laboratories, or other research facilities licensed under federal law; circuses licensed under federal law that are temporarily in the State, a non-resident of the State in the State with a regulated animal for not more than 72 hours; and indigenous species regulated by the Wildlife Resources Commission. United States Department of Agriculture Class A, B, or C licensees would also be exempt provided that they: (i) register regulated animals with the appropriate animal control authority, (ii) maintain a liability insurance policy of not less that $250,000; and (iii) prohibit direct contact between regulated animals and the public and family members with animals over the age of six months.
  - Grandfathered possession of characteristically wild animals, under certain circumstances: A person in legal possession of a regulated animal prior to January 1, 2010 may keep possession of the animal for the remainder of the animal's life, subject to the following conditions: (1) timely registration of the animal with the animal control authority and payment of a one-time fee of $100 per site where regulated animals are kept and $10 per regulated animal at the site; (2) preparation and submittal of a contingency plan to protect first responders if a regulated animal escapes; (3) maintenance of certain records to be presented to animal control or law enforcement authorities upon request; (4) compliance with basic standards for housing exotic animals provided under federal law; (5) immediate notification of animal control or law enforcement authorities upon discovery that the animal has escaped; (6) the animal must not be traded or replaced; (7) notification to local law enforcement and fire departments of the types and numbers of regulated animals kept; and (8) compliance with any applicable federal, State, or local laws, rules, regulations, ordinances, permits, or other permissions. A person in legal possession of a regulated animal and who is in compliance with these provisions during the animal's life may replace the animal upon its death, provided that the animal's death was not the result of neglect or cruelty.

- Confiscation of characteristically wild animals by authorities: An animal control or law enforcement authority may confiscate an animal if: (1) it has probable cause to believe that the animal was acquired or held in contravention of Chapter 19B; (2) the animal poses a public safety or health risk; or (3) the animal is in poor health and condition as a result of the owner's actions or inaction.

  This section includes procedures for notice of the confiscation; return of the animal based on certain findings, and if not returned then procedures for placement or euthanasia; and discretion of authorities to act in response to release or escape of a regulated animal.

- Penalties: A person violating the provisions of the PCS would be liable for a civil penalty to be determined by a court.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The provisions of the PCS would become effective January 1, 2010, and would apply to acts occurring on or after that date.

HOUSE BILL 1132:
Renew Concealed Carry Permit/30 Day Limit

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	June 1, 2009
Introduced by:	Reps. Hilton, Gulley	Prepared by:	Brenda J. Carter
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition H1132-CSRV-44		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: This proposed committee substitute for House Bill 1132 would make it clear that an application for renewal of a concealed carry permit must be submitted within the 30 days prior to expiration of the permit. It would also require a sheriff to act on a renewal application within 30 days after receipt of the completed application, and would extend the validity of a concealed carry permit if it reaches its expiration date and the permittee has not received a renewal permit or been denied a renewal permit by the sheriff. The proposed committee substitute adds a provision that would exempt qualified former sworn law enforcement officers who have 15 or more aggregate years of part-time or auxiliary law enforcement service from the requirement to complete a firearms safety and training course prior to obtaining a concealed carry permit, provided other requirements are met.

CURRENT LAW: A concealed carry permit holder must apply to the sheriff in his or her county of residence for renewal of a permit at least 30 days prior to its expiration. If the permit holder applies for renewal within 30 days of its expiration date, and the permittee remains qualified, then the sheriff must renew the permit.

To qualify for the issuance of a concealed carry permit, an applicant must successfully complete an approved firearms safety and training course which involves the actual firing of handguns and instruction in the laws of this State governing the carrying of a concealed handgun and the use of deadly force. Under G.S. 14-415.12A(a), a person who is a "qualified sworn law enforcement officer" or a "qualified former sworn law enforcement officer" is deemed to have satisfied the firearms safety and training course requirement.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 1132 would:

- Clarify that the holder of a concealed carry permit must submit a renewal application within the 30 days prior to expiration of the permit.
- Require that a sheriff renew the permit of a qualified applicant within 30 days after receiving the completed renewal application. If the 30th day falls on a Saturday, Sunday, State holiday, or federal holiday, the period would be extended to the next business day.
- Provide that if the applicant for permit renewal meets the statutory requirements, the permit would remain valid until the permittee either receives a renewal permit or is denied a renewal permit by the sheriff.
- Amend the definition of a "qualified former sworn law enforcement officer" that would be exempt from the requirement to complete a firearms safety and training course prior to obtaining a concealed carry permit. The exemption would include a person who has retired from service as a law enforcement officer in North Carolina not more than 2 years prior to the date of the application, and who meets all of the following requirements:
    - Was, immediately before retirement, a qualified law enforcement officer with a local, State, or company police agency in this State.
    - Has 15 or more aggregate years of part-time or auxiliary law enforcement service.
    - Is not prohibited by State or federal law from receiving a firearm.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The act would be effective when it becomes law, and apply to permit and renewal applications submitted on or after that date.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO MAKE CERTAIN SALES OF STATE PROPERTY SUBJECT TO UPSET BIDS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 146-27 reads as rewritten:

"§ 146-27. The role of the Department of Administration in sales, leases, and rentals.

(a) General. – Every sale, lease, rental, or gift of land owned by the State or by any State agency shall be made by the Department of Administration and approved by the Governor and Council of State. A lease or rental of land owned by the State may not exceed a period of 99 years. The Department of Administration may initiate proceedings for sales, leases, rentals, and gifts of land owned by the State or by any State agency.

(b) Large Disposition. – If a proposed disposition is a sale or gift of land with an appraised value of at least twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), the sale or gift shall not be made until after consultation with the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations.

(b1) Upset Bids. – If a proposed disposition of land or other real property with a value of at least twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) is a sale or other transfer to a private entity that operates or is established to operate for profit, the proposed disposition shall be subject to upset bids, unless other, non-monetary consideration associated with the transaction has been made public. If other consideration is offered such that upset bids are not required, notice of the sale and other consideration shall be posted and published in a manner similar to that provided in G.S. 1-339.17. The Department of Administration shall adopt a procedure for upset bids that is based on the upset bid procedure set forth in Part 2 of Article 29A of Chapter 1 of the General Statutes.

(c) Expired effective September 1, 2007."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective October 1, 2009.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR THE REGULATION OF CERTAIN DEVICES THAT MAY BE USED AS DRUG PARAPHERNALIA.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Chapter 90 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new Article to read:

"Article 5F.

"Control of Potential Drug Paraphernalia Products.

"§ 90-113.80. Title.

This Article shall be known and may be cited as the "Drug Paraphernalia Control Act of 2009."

"§ 90-113.81. Definitions.

For the purposes of this Article:

(a) "Glass tube" means an object which meets all of the following requirements:

(1) A hollow glass cylinder, either open or closed at either end.

(2) No less than two or more than seven inches in length.

(3) No less than one-eighth inch or more than three-fourths inch in diameter.

(4) May be used to facilitate, or intended or designed to facilitate, violations of the Controlled Substances Act, including, but not limited to, processing, preparing, testing, analyzing, packaging, repackaging, storing, containing, and concealing controlled substances and injecting, ingesting, inhaling, or otherwise introducing controlled substances into the human body.

(5) Sold individually, or in connection with another object such as a novelty holder, flower vase, or pen. The foregoing descriptions are intended to be illustrative and not exclusive.

(b) "Retailer" means an individual or entity that is the general owner of an establishment where glass tubes are available for sale.

(c) "Splitter" means a ring-shaped device that does both of the following:

(1) Allows the insertion of a wrapped tobacco product, such as a cigar, so that it can be pulled through the device.

(2) Cuts or slices the wrapping of the tobacco product along the product's length as it is drawn through the device.

"§ 90-113.82. Glass tubes or splitters; restrictions on sales.

(a) Glass tubes or splitters shall not be offered for retail sale by self-service, but shall be stored and sold from behind a counter where the general public cannot access them without the assistance of a retailer's agent or employee.

(b) The retailer shall require any member of the public to whom it transfers a glass tube or splitter, with or without consideration, to do all of the following:

(1) Present identification that includes a photograph that is an accurate depiction of the person and that also includes the person's name and current address.

(2) Enter his or her name and current address on a record that the retailer shall maintain solely for the purposes of this section.

(3) Sign his or her name, verifying by signature the glass tube or splitter will not be used as drug paraphernalia in violation of the criminal laws of the State of North Carolina.

(c) The retailer shall maintain the record described in subsection (b) of this section for a period of two years from the date of each transaction, after which it may be destroyed.

(d) The record shall be readily available within 48 hours of the time of the transaction for inspection by an authorized official of a federal, State, or local law enforcement agency.

(e) The retailer shall train its agents and employees on the requirements of this section.

"§ 90-113.83. Penalties.

(a) A retailer, or an employee of the retailer, who willfully and knowingly violates any one of the subsections of G.S. 90-113.82 shall be guilty of a Class 2 misdemeanor.

(b) Any person who knowingly makes a false statement or representation in fulfilling the requirements in G.S. 90-113.82(b) shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor.

"§ 90-113.84. Immunity.

(a) A retailer, or an employee of the retailer, who, reasonably and in good faith, (i) reports to any law enforcement agency any alleged criminal activity related to the sale or purchase of glass tubes or splitters or (ii) refuses to sell a glass tube or splitter to a person reasonably believed to be purchasing it for use as drug paraphernalia is immune from civil liability for that conduct, except in cases of willful misconduct."

SECTION 2. G.S. 95-241(a)(1) reads as rewritten:

"§ 95-241. Discrimination prohibited.

(a) No person shall discriminate or take any retaliatory action against an employee because the employee in good faith does or threatens to do any of the following:

(1) File a claim or complaint, initiate any inquiry, investigation, inspection, proceeding or other action, or testify or provide information to any person with respect to any of the following:

a. Chapter 97 of the General Statutes.

b. Article 2A or Article 16 of this Chapter.

c. Article 2A of Chapter 74 of the General Statutes.

d. G.S. 95-28.1.

e. Article 16 of Chapter 127A of the General Statutes.

f. G.S. 95-28.1A.

g. Article 52 of Chapter 143 of the General Statutes.

h. Article 5F of Chapter 90 of the General Statutes."

SECTION 3. This act becomes effective December 1, 2009, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date.

HOUSE BILL 722:
Paraphernalia Control Act

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	June 9, 2009
Introduced by:	Reps. Hilton, Frye	Prepared by:	Jennifer McGinnis Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	Fourth Edition

SUMMARY: This act would regulate the sale of certain items that could be used as drug paraphernalia. It would become effective December 1, 2009, and apply to offenses committed on or after that date.

CURRENT LAW: Article 5B of Chapter 90 (G.S. 90-113.20 et seq) is the North Carolina Drug Paraphernalia Act. As used in the Article, "drug paraphernalia" includes objects used for ingesting, inhaling, or otherwise introducing marijuana, cocaine, hashish, or hashish oil into the body. Examples in the statute include: "metal, wooden, acrylic, glass, stone, plastic, or ceramic pipes... miniature cocaine spoons and cocaine vials...." In determining whether an object is drug paraphernalia, the following may be considered:

- Advertising concerning its use.
- The manner in which it is displayed for sale.
- Whether the owner (or anyone in control of the product) is a legitimate supplier of like or related items to the community, such as a seller of tobacco products.
- Possible legitimate uses of the object in the community.
- Expert testimony concerning its use.
- The intent of the owner (or person in control of the object) to deliver it to persons whom he knows, or reasonably should know, intend to use the object to facilitate violations of the Controlled Substances Act.

Unlawful use of, or possession with intent to use, drug paraphernalia is a Class 1 misdemeanor.

BILL ANALYSIS: The PCS would create a new Article 5F to Chapter 90 of the General Statutes to be entitled "Control of Potential Drug Paraphernalia Products."

- Items regulated: The act would regulate the sale of two items by a retailer: glass tubes and splitters (both items are defined in the act).
- Requirements of sale:
  - The items must be kept "behind the counter" so that store employees would only be able to access the items upon customer request.
  - In order to acquire either item, a purchaser would be required to present photo identification, with name and address, which would be entered into a log or recorded. The customer must sign for the item, verifying that the item would not be used as drug paraphernalia. The record must be available to law enforcement personnel within 48 hours of the transaction time, and also must be kept for two years. The retailer must train its employees on the requirements of the act.

- Penalty provisions:
  - A retailer or employee who willfully and knowingly violates the sales provisions of the act would be guilty of a Class 2 misdemeanor[1].
  - A person who knowingly makes a false statement or representation in providing the required information to the retailer is guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor[2].
- Immunity provisions:
  - A retailer, or employee who reasonably and in good faith: (i) reports alleged criminal activity related to the sale of glass tubes or splitters, or (ii) refuses to sell either item because of a reasonable belief that it will be used as paraphernalia, is immune from civil liability, except if there is willful misconduct.
  - The act would include the Article in the State labor law provision that provides that no person shall discriminate or take any retaliatory action against an employee because the employee in good faith does or threatens to do any of the following: file a claim or complaint, initiate any inquiry, investigation, inspection, proceeding or other action, or testify or provide information to any person in connection with the Article.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The act would become effective December 1, 2009, and apply to offenses committed on or after that date.

Susan Sitze, Committee Counsel to House Ways and Means/Broadband Connectivity, and Hal Pell, Committee Counsel to House Judiciary I, substantially contributed to this summary.

March 25, 2009

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO REVISE THE EXISTING ELECTIVE SHARE STATUTES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Article 1A of Chapter 30 of the General Statutes reads as rewritten:

"Article 1A.

"Elective Share.

"§ 30-3.1. Right of elective share.

(a) Elective Share. – The surviving spouse of a decedent who dies domiciled in this State has a right to claim an "elective share", which means an amount equal to (i) the applicable share of the Total Net Assets, as defined in G.S. 30-3.2(4), less (ii) the value of Net Property Passing to Surviving Spouse, as defined in ~~G.S. 30-3.3(a).~~G.S. 30-3.2(2b). The applicable share of the Total Net Assets is as follows:

(1) If the decedent is not survived by any lineal descendants, one-half of the Total Net Assets.

(2) If the decedent is survived by one child, or lineal descendants of one deceased child, one-half of the Total Net Assets.

(3) If the decedent is survived by two or more children, or by one or more children and the lineal descendants of one or more deceased children, or by the lineal descendants of two or more deceased children, one-third of the Total Net Assets.

(b) Reduction of Applicable Share. – In those cases in which the surviving spouse is a second or successive spouse, and the decedent has one or more lineal descendants ~~surviving by a prior marriage~~ surviving who are not lineal descendants of the decedent's marriage to the surviving spouse but there are no lineal descendants surviving by the surviving spouse, the applicable share as determined in subsection (a) of this section shall be reduced by one-half.

~~(c) Death Taxes. Death taxes shall be taken into account as a claim against the estate in determining Total Net Assets only to the extent that the assets received by the surviving spouse do not qualify for the federal estate tax marital deduction pursuant to section 2056 of the Code or similar provisions under the laws of any other applicable taxing jurisdiction. The amount of such claims shall equal the difference between the amount of such death taxes as finally determined and the amount such death taxes would have been if all assets received by the surviving spouse had qualified for the federal estate tax marital deduction pursuant to section 2056 of the Code and similar provisions under the laws of any other applicable taxing jurisdictions.~~

"§ 30-3.2. Definitions.

The following definitions apply in this Article:

(1) ~~"Code" means the~~ Code. – The Internal Revenue Code in effect at the time of the decedent's death.

(1a) Claims. – Includes liabilities of the decedent whether arising in contract, in tort, or otherwise, and liabilities of the decedent's estate which arise at or after the death of the decedent, including funeral and administrative expenses, except for:

a. A claim for equitable distribution of property pursuant to G.S. 50-20 awarded subsequent to the death of the decedent.

b. Death taxes, except for those death taxes attributable to Property Passing to the Surviving Spouse. "Death taxes attributable to Property Passing to the Surviving Spouse" equals the amount of decedent's death taxes as finally determined, less the amount such death taxes would have been if all Property Passing to the Surviving Spouse had qualified for the federal estate tax marital deduction pursuant to section 2056 of the Code or had qualified for a similar provision under the laws of another applicable taxing jurisdiction.

c. A claim founded on a promise or agreement of the decedent, to the extent such claim is not arm's length or is not supported by full or adequate consideration in money or money's worth.

(2) ~~"Death taxes" means any~~ Death taxes. – Any estate, inheritance, succession, and similar taxes imposed by any taxing authority, reduced by any applicable credits against those taxes.

(2a) General power of appointment. – Any power of appointment, including a power to designate the beneficiary of a beneficiary designation, exercisable by the decedent, regardless of the decedent's capacity to exercise such power, in favor of the decedent, the decedent's estate, the decedent's creditors, or the creditors of the decedent's estate, except for (i) powers limited by an "ascertainable standard" as defined in G.S. 36C-1-103 and (ii) powers which are not exercisable by the decedent except in conjunction with a person who created the power or has a substantial interest in the property subject to the power and whose interest is adverse to the exercise of the power in favor of the decedent, the decedent's estate, the decedent's creditors, or the creditors of the decedent's estate. In no event shall a power held by the decedent as attorney-in-fact under a power of attorney be considered a general power of appointment.

(2b) Net Property Passing to Surviving Spouse. – The Property Passing to Surviving Spouse reduced by (i) death taxes attributable to Property Passing to the Surviving Spouse, (ii) any expenses described in G.S. 30-3.4(h) that are a charge against or are apportioned to the surviving spouse with respect to property included in Property Passing to Surviving Spouse, and (iii) claims satisfied out of property included in Property Passing to the Surviving Spouse.

(2c) Lineal descendant. – Defined in G.S. 29-2.

(3) ~~"Nonadverse trustee" means:~~ Nonadverse trustee. – Any of the following:

a. Any person who does not possess a substantial beneficial interest in the trust that would be adversely affected by the exercise or nonexercise of the power that the individual trustee possesses respecting the trust;

b. Any person subject to a power of removal by the surviving spouse with or without cause; or

c. Any company authorized to engage in trust business under the laws of this State, or that otherwise meets the requirements to engage in trust business under the laws of this State.

(3a) Nonspousal assets. – All property included in total assets other than the property included in Property Passing to Surviving Spouse. The value of nonspousal assets shall be their net values used in determining Total Net Assets.

(3b) Presently exercisable general power of appointment. – A general power of appointment which is exercisable at the time in question. A testamentary general power of appointment is not presently exercisable.

(3c) Property Passing to Surviving Spouse. – The sum of the values, as valued pursuant to G.S. 30-3.3A, of the following:

a. Property (i) devised, outright or in trust, by the decedent to the surviving spouse or (ii) that passes, outright or in trust, to the surviving spouse by intestacy, beneficiary designation, the exercise or failure to exercise the decedent's testamentary general power of appointment or the decedent's testamentary limited power of appointment, operation of law, or otherwise by reason of the decedent's death, excluding any benefits under the federal social security system.

b. Any year's allowance awarded to the surviving spouse.

c. Property renounced by the surviving spouse.

d. The surviving spouse's interest in any life insurance proceeds on the life of the decedent.

e. Any interest in property, outright or in trust, transferred from the decedent to the surviving spouse during the lifetime of the decedent for which the surviving spouse signs a statement acknowledging such a gift. For purposes of this sub-subdivision, any gift to the surviving spouse by the decedent of the decedent's interest in any property held by the decedent and the surviving spouse as tenants by the entirety or as joint tenants with right of survivorship shall be deemed to be a gift of one-half of the entire interest in property so held by the decedent and the surviving spouse.

f. Property awarded to the surviving spouse, subsequent to the death of the decedent, pursuant to an equitable distribution claim under G.S. 50-20.

g. Property held in a spousal trust described in G.S. 30-3.3A(e)(1).

If property falls under more than one sub-subdivision of this subdivision, then the property shall be included only once, but under the sub-subdivision yielding the greatest value of the property.

(3d) Responsible person. – A person or entity other than the surviving spouse that received, held, or controlled property constituting nonspousal assets on the date used to determine the value of the property.

(3e) Responsible person's nonspousal assets. – The nonspousal assets received, held, or controlled by a responsible person.

(3f) Total assets. – The sum of the values, as determined pursuant to G.S. 30-3.3A, of the following:

a. The decedent's property that would pass by intestate succession if the decedent died without a will, other than wrongful death proceeds;

b. Property over which the decedent, immediately before death, held a presently exercisable general power of appointment, except for (i) property held jointly with right of survivorship, which is includable in total assets only to the extent provided in sub-subdivision c. of this subdivision and (ii) life insurance, which is includable in Total Assets only to the extent provided in sub-subdivision d. of this subdivision. Includes, without limitation:

1. Property held in a trust that the decedent could revoke.
2. Property held in a trust to the extent that the decedent had an unrestricted power to withdraw the property.
3. Property held in a depository account owned by the decedent in a financial institution payable or transferable at decedent's death to a beneficiary designated by the decedent.
4. Securities owned by the decedent in an account or in certificated form that are payable or transferable at decedent's death to a beneficiary designated by the decedent.

c. Property held as tenants by the entirety or jointly with rights of survivorship as follows:

1. One-half of any property held by the decedent and the surviving spouse as tenants by the entirety or as joint tenants with rights of survivorship is included, without regard to who contributed the property.
2. Property held by the decedent and one or more other persons other than the surviving spouse as joint tenants with rights of survivorship is included to the following extent:
   I. All property attributable to the decedent's contribution.
   II. The decedent's pro rata share of property not attributable to the decedent's contribution, except to the extent of property attributable to contributions by a surviving joint tenant.

   The decedent is presumed to have contributed the jointly owned property unless contribution by another is proven by clear and convincing evidence.

d. Benefits payable by reason of the decedent's death under any policy, plan, contract, or other arrangement, either owned by the decedent or over which the decedent had a general power of appointment or had the power to designate the surviving spouse as beneficiary, including, without limitation:

1. Insurance on the life of the decedent.
2. Accidental death benefits.
3. Annuities.
4. Employee benefits or similar arrangements.
5. Individual retirement accounts.
6. Pension or profit-sharing plans.
7. Deferred compensation.
8. Any private or governmental retirement plan.

e. Property irrevocably transferred by the decedent to the extent the decedent retained the possession or enjoyment of, or the right to income from, the property for life or for any period not ascertainable without reference to the decedent's death or for any period which does not in fact end before the decedent's death, except:

1. Property transferred for full and adequate consideration.

2. Transfers to which the surviving spouse consented in writing by signing a deed, an income or gift tax return that reports the gift, or other writing.
3. Transfers which became irrevocable before the decedent's marriage to the surviving spouse.

The property included in total assets is that fraction of the transferred property to which the decedent retained the right.

f. Property transferred by the decedent to the extent the decedent created a power over the property or the income from the property, which, immediately prior to death, could be exercised by the decedent in conjunction with any other person, or which could be exercised by a person who does not have a substantial interest that would be adversely affected by the exercise or nonexercise of the power, for the benefit of the decedent, the decedent's estate, the decedent's creditors, or the creditors of the decedent's estate, except:
1. Property transferred for full and adequate consideration.
2. Transfers to which the surviving spouse consented in writing by signing a deed, an income or gift tax return that reports the gift, or other writing.
3. Transfers which became irrevocable before the decedent's marriage to the surviving spouse.

The property included in total assets with respect to a power over property is that fraction of the property to which the power related.

g. Property transferred by the decedent to persons other than the surviving spouse if such transfer was made both during the one-year period immediately preceding the decedent's death and during the decedent's marriage to the surviving spouse, except:
1. Property transferred for full and adequate consideration.
2. Transfers to which the surviving spouse consented in writing by signing a deed, an income or gift tax return that reports such gift, or other writing.
3. That part of any property transferred to any one transferee that qualified for exclusion from gift tax under section 2503 of the Code.

For purposes of this sub-subdivision, the termination of a right or interest in, or power over, property that would have been included in the total assets under sub-subdivisions b., e., or f. if the right, interest, or power had not terminated until the decedent's death shall be deemed to be a transfer of such property. Termination occurs when, with respect to a right or interest in property, the decedent transfers or relinquishes the right or interest; with respect to a power over property, the power terminates by exercise or release, but not by lapse or default.

If property falls under more than one sub-subdivision of this subdivision, then the property shall be included only once, but under the sub-subdivision yielding the greatest value of the property.

(4) ~~"Total Net Assets" means, after the payment or provision for payment of the decedent's funeral expenses, year's allowances to persons other than to the surviving spouse, debts, claims other than an equitable distribution of property awarded to the surviving spouse pursuant to G.S. 50-20 subsequent~~

~~to the death of the decedent, and administration expenses, the sum of the following:~~

~~a. All property to which the decedent had legal and equitable title immediately prior to death;~~

~~b. All property received by the decedent's personal representative by reason of the decedent's death, other than wrongful death proceeds;~~

~~c. One half of the value of any property held by the decedent and the surviving spouse as tenants by the entirety, or as joint tenants with rights of survivorship;~~

~~d. The entire value of any interest in property held by the decedent and another person, other than the surviving spouse, as joint tenants with right of survivorship, except to the extent that contribution can be proven by clear and convincing evidence;~~

~~e. The value of any property which would be included in the taxable estate of the decedent pursuant to sections 2033, 2035, 2036, 2037, 2038, 2039, or 2040 of the Code.~~

~~f. Any gifts of property made by the decedent to donees other than the surviving spouse within six months of the decedent's death, excluding:~~

~~1. Any gifts within the annual exclusion provisions of section 2503 of the Code;~~

~~2. Any gifts to which the surviving spouse consented. A signing of a deed, or income or gift tax return reporting such gift shall be considered consent; and~~

~~3. Any gifts made prior to marriage;~~

~~g. Any proceeds of any individual retirement account, pension or profit sharing plan, or any private or governmental retirement plan or annuity of which the decedent controlled the designation of beneficiary, excluding any benefits under the federal social security system;~~

~~h. Any other Property Passing to Surviving Spouse under G.S. 30-3.3; and~~

~~i. In case of overlapping application of the same property under more than one provision, the property shall be included only once under the provision yielding the greatest value."~~

Total Net Assets. – The total assets reduced by year's allowances to persons other than the surviving spouse and claims.

"~~§ 30-3.3. Property passing to surviving spouse.~~

~~(a) Property Passing to Surviving Spouse. For purposes of this Article, "Property Passing to Surviving Spouse" means the sum of the following:~~

~~(1) One half of the value of any interest in property held by the decedent and the surviving spouse as tenants by the entirety or as joint tenants with rights of survivorship;~~

~~(2) The value of any interest in property (outright or in trust, including any interest subject to a general power of appointment held by the surviving spouse, as defined in section 2041 of the Code) devised by the decedent to the surviving spouse, or which passes to the surviving spouse by intestacy, or by beneficiary designation, or by exercise of or in default of the exercise of the decedent's testamentary general or limited power of appointment, or by operation of law or otherwise by reason of the decedent's death, excluding any benefits under the federal social security system;~~

~~(3) Any year's allowance awarded to the surviving spouse;~~
~~(4) The value of any property renounced by the surviving spouse;~~
~~(5) The value of the surviving spouse's interest, outright or in trust, in any life insurance proceeds on the life of the decedent;~~
~~(6) The value of any interest in property, outright or in trust, transferred from the decedent to the surviving spouse during the lifetime of decedent for which (i) a gift tax return is timely filed reporting such gift, or (ii) the surviving spouse signs a statement acknowledging such a gift. For purposes of this subdivision, any gift to the surviving spouse by the decedent of the decedent's interest in any property held by the decedent and the surviving spouse as tenants by the entirety or as joint tenants with right of survivorship shall be valued at one-half of the entire value of that interest in property at the time the gift is made;~~
~~(7) Notwithstanding any other provision of law related to valuing a partial interest in property, the entire fair market value of any property held in trust for the exclusive benefit of the surviving spouse during the surviving spouse's lifetime, if the terms of the trust meet the following requirements:~~
~~a. During the lifetime of the surviving spouse, the trust is controlled by one or more Nonadverse Trustees;~~
~~b. The trustee is required to distribute to or for the benefit of the surviving spouse either (i) the entire net income of the trust at least annually; or (ii) the income of the trust in such amounts and at such times as the trustee, in its discretion, determines necessary for the health, maintenance, and support of the surviving spouse;~~
~~c. The trustee is required to distribute to or for the benefit of the surviving spouse out of the principal of the trust such amounts and at such times as the trustee, in its discretion, determines necessary for the health, maintenance, and support of the surviving spouse; and~~
~~In exercising discretion, the trustee may be authorized or required to take into consideration all other income, assets, and other means of support as are available to the surviving spouse; and~~
~~(8) The net value of the marital estate awarded to the surviving spouse pursuant to G.S. 50-20 subsequent to the death of the decedent.~~

~~(b) Death Taxes. The value of Property Passing to Surviving Spouse shall be reduced by any death taxes that are a charge against or apportioned against the surviving spouse on property interests included in Property Passing to Surviving Spouse.~~

~~(c) No Duplication. In case of overlapping application of the same property under more than one provision, the property shall be included only once, under the provision yielding the greatest value.~~

"§ 30-3.3A. Valuation of property.

(a) Basic Principles. – Unless otherwise expressly stated to the contrary in this section, the value of property shall be that property's fair market value, taking into consideration any applicable discounts. The value shall be determined as of the date of death, except for (i) property transferred to persons other than the surviving spouse described in G.S. 30-3.2(3f)g. and (ii) property transferred to the surviving spouse described in G.S. 30-3.2(3c)e. that is not held in trust, that is not life insurance, and that is not held as tenants by the entirety or some other form of ownership that passes to the surviving spouse by reason of survivorship. The value of gift property described in clauses (i) and (ii) shall be determined as the value on the date of transfer; but if the donee proves to the satisfaction of the clerk that the value on the date of disposal of the asset prior to the decedent's death is less than on the original date of transfer or that the value on the date of death is less than on the original date of transfer, then the lesser value shall be used.

(b) Certain Joint Property. – In valuing a partial interest in jointly owned property with rights of survivorship, there shall be no discount taken to reflect the decedent's partial interest including, but not limited to, discounts for lack of control, ownership of a fractional interest, or lack of marketability.

(c) Certain Powers of Appointment. – In valuing property over which the decedent held a presently exercisable general power of appointment, the value includes only the property subject to the power that passes at the decedent's death, whether by exercise, release, lapse, default, or otherwise.

(d) Certain Transfers With Retained Interests. – In valuing property transferred by the decedent with a retained right of possession or enjoyment or the right to income described in G.S. 30-3.2(3f)e., only the fraction of the property to which the decedent retained a right shall be included. In valuing property in which the decedent created a power as described in G.S. 30-3.2(3f)f., the value includes, with respect to a power, the value of the property subject to the power, and the amount included in the valuation with respect to a power over the income is the value of the property that produces or produced the income; provided, however, if the power is a power over both income and property and the foregoing produces different amounts, the amount included in the valuation is the greater amount.

(e) Partial or Contingent Interest Property. – The valuation of partial and contingent property interests, outright or in trust, which are limited to commence or terminate upon the death of one or more persons, upon the expiration of a period of time, or upon the occurrence of one or more contingencies, shall be determined by computations based upon the mortality and annuity tables set forth in G.S. 8-46 and G.S. 8-47, and by using a presumed rate of return of six percent (6%) of the value of the underlying property in which those interests are limited. However, in valuing partial and contingent interests passing to the surviving spouse, the following special rules apply:

(1) The value of the beneficial interest of a spouse shall be the entire fair market value of any property held in trust if the decedent was the settlor of the trust, if the trust is held for the exclusive benefit of the surviving spouse during the surviving spouse's lifetime, and if the terms of the trust meet the following requirements:

a. During the lifetime of the surviving spouse, the trust is controlled by one or more nonadverse trustees.

b. The trustee shall distribute to or for the benefit of the surviving spouse either (i) the entire net income of the trust at least annually or (ii) the income of the trust in such amounts and at such times as the trustee, in its discretion, determines necessary for the health, maintenance, and support of the surviving spouse.

c. The trustee shall distribute to or for the benefit of the surviving spouse out of the principal of the trust such amounts and at such times as the trustee, in its discretion, determines necessary for the health, maintenance, and support of the surviving spouse.

d. In exercising discretion, the trustee may be authorized or required to take into consideration all other income assets and other means of support available to the surviving spouse.

(2) To the extent that the partial or contingent interest is dependent upon the occurrence of any contingency that is not subject to the control of the surviving spouse and that is not subject to valuation by reference to the mortality and annuity tables set forth in G.S. 8-46 and G.S. 8-47, the contingency will be conclusively presumed to result in the lowest possible value passing to the surviving spouse. However, a life estate or income interest that will terminate upon the surviving spouse's death or remarriage will be valued without regard to the possibility of termination upon remarriage.

(3) To the extent that the valuation of a partial or contingent interest is dependent upon the life expectancy of the surviving spouse, that life expectancy shall be conclusively presumed to be no less than 10 years, regardless of the actual attained age of the surviving spouse at the decedent's death.

(f) Method for Determining Value. – Unless otherwise stated in this Article, the value of property shall be determined as follows:

(1) The value of property passing by intestacy described in G.S. 30-3.2(3f)a. and Property Passing to Surviving Spouse, other than property held in a trust, shall be established by the good faith agreement of the surviving spouse and the personal representative, unless either (i) the surviving spouse is the personal representative or (ii) the clerk determines that the personal representative may not be able to represent the estate adversely to the surviving spouse, in which cases the value of such property shall be determined pursuant to subdivision (4) of this subsection.

(2) The value of property constituting an interest in a trust shall be established by good faith agreement of the surviving spouse, the personal representative, and the trustee, unless either (i) the surviving spouse is both the personal representative and the trustee or (ii) the clerk determines that the trustee or the personal representative may not be able to represent the trust or the estate, respectively, adversely to the surviving spouse, in which cases the value of such property shall be determined pursuant to subdivision (4) of this subsection.

(3) The value of all other property shall be established by the good faith agreement of the surviving spouse, the personal representative, and the responsible person that received, held, or controlled such property on the date used to determine the value of such property for purposes of determining total assets, unless the clerk determines that valuation under subdivision (4) of this subsection is more appropriate.

(4) If the value of any property is not established by agreement as provided above, the parties may present evidence regarding value, which may include expert testimony, and the clerk may appoint one or more qualified and disinterested persons to help determine the value of such property. After hearing, the clerk shall make a finding of fact of the value of each asset.

"§ 30-3.4. Procedure for determining the elective share.

(a) Exercisable Only During Lifetime. – The right of the surviving spouse to file a claim for an elective share must be exercised during the lifetime of the surviving spouse, by the surviving spouse, by the surviving spouse's ~~agent under a~~ attorney-in-fact if the surviving spouse's power of ~~attorney,~~ attorney expressly authorizes the attorney-in-fact to do so or to generally engage in estate transactions, ~~or~~ or, with approval of court, by the guardian of the surviving spouse's ~~estate.~~ estate or general guardian. If a surviving spouse dies before the claim for an elective share has been settled, the surviving spouse's personal representative shall succeed to the surviving spouse's rights to an elective share.

(b) Time Limitations. – A claim for an elective share must be made within six months after the issuance of letters testamentary or letters of administration in connection with the will or intestate proceeding with respect to which the surviving spouse claims the elective share by (i) filing a petition with the clerk of superior court of the county in which the primary administration of the decedent's estate lies, and (ii) mailing or delivering a copy of that petition to the personal representative of the decedent's estate. A surviving spouse's incapacity shall not toll the six-month period of limitations.

(c) Time for Hearing. – Unless waived by the personal representative and the surviving spouse, the clerk shall set the matter for hearing no earlier than two months and no later than six months after the filing of the petition. However, the clerk may extend the time of hearing as the clerk sees fit. The surviving spouse shall give notice of the hearing to the personal representative, and to any person described in G.S. 30-3.5 who may be required to contribute toward the satisfaction of the elective share.

~~(d) Preparation of Tax Form. – In every case in which a petition to determine an elective share has been filed, and within two months of the filing of the petition, the personal representative shall prepare and submit to the clerk a proposed Form 706, federal estate tax return, for the estate, regardless of whether that form is required to be filed with the Internal Revenue Service. The clerk may extend the time for submission of the proposed Form 706 as the clerk sees fit.~~

~~(e) Valuation. – The valuation of interests in property for purposes of G.S. 30-3.2 and G.S. 30-3.3 shall be determined as follows:~~

~~(1) Basic principles. – Each interest shall be valued at its fair market value, reduced by all liens, claims, or encumbrances against the interest. For interests passing at the decedent's death, valuation shall be as of the date of death, and for interests transferred during the decedent's lifetime, valuation shall be as of the date of transfer.~~

~~(2) Valuation of partial and contingent interests in property. – The valuation of interests in property, outright or in trust, which are limited to commence or terminate upon the death of one or more persons, upon the expiration of a period of time, or upon the occurrence of one or more contingencies, shall be determined by computations based upon the mortuary and annuity tables set forth in G.S. 8-46 and G.S. 8-47, and upon the basis of six percent (6%) of the gross value of the underlying property in which those interests are limited. However, in valuing interests passing to the surviving spouse, the following special rules apply:~~

~~b. To the extent that the interest is dependent upon the occurrence of any contingency that is not subject to the control of the surviving spouse and that is not subject to valuation by reference to the mortuary and annuity tables set forth in G.S. 8-46 and G.S. 8-47, the contingency will be conclusively presumed to result in the lowest possible value passing to the surviving spouse. However, a life estate or income interest that will terminate only upon the earlier of the surviving spouse's death or remarriage will be valued without regard to the possibility of termination upon remarriage; and~~

~~c. To the extent that the valuation of an interest is dependent upon the life expectancy of the surviving spouse, that life expectancy shall be conclusively presumed to be no less than 10 years, regardless of the actual attained age of the surviving spouse at the decedent's death.~~

~~(3) Determination of fair market value. – The fair market value of each asset comprising Total Net Assets shall be determined as follows:~~

~~a. Probate assets and assets passing to spouse. – The value of each probate asset and Property Passing to Surviving Spouse, other than~~

~~assets held in trust, shall be established by the good faith agreement of the surviving spouse and the personal representative, unless either (i) the surviving spouse is the personal representative, or (ii) the clerk determines that the personal representative may not be able to represent the estate adversely to the surviving spouse.~~

~~b. Trust assets. – The value of each trust asset shall be established by good faith agreement of the surviving spouse and the trustee, unless either (i) the surviving spouse is the trustee, or (ii) the clerk determines that the trustee may not be able to represent the trust adversely to the surviving spouse.~~

~~c. Other assets. – The value of any other asset shall be established by the good faith agreement of the surviving spouse and each person described in G.S. 30-3.5 who may be required to contribute toward the satisfaction of the elective share because of that person's interest in the asset, unless the clerk determines that valuation under sub-subdivision d. of this subdivision is more appropriate.~~

~~d. Use of disinterested persons. – If the value of any asset is not established by agreement, the clerk shall appoint one or more qualified and disinterested persons to determine a value of each asset. That determination of the value of an asset shall be final for the exclusive purposes of this Article.~~

(d1) Mediation. – The clerk may order mediation as described in G.S. 7A-38.3B of any disputes in connection with an elective share proceeding.

(e1) Procedure. – An elective share proceeding shall be an estate matter and may be appealed pursuant to G.S. 1-301.3.

(e2) Information About Total Net Assets. – In order to assist the clerk in determining whether a surviving spouse is entitled to an elective share, and, if so, the amount thereof, the following provisions apply:

(1) Submission within two months. – In every case in which a petition to determine an elective share has been filed, within two months of the filing of the petition, the personal representative shall submit sufficient information about the total assets for the clerk to determine the elective share. To fulfill its obligation to provide information, the personal representative may prepare and submit to the clerk a proposed Form 706, United States Estate (and Generation-Skipping Transfer) Tax Return, for the estate, regardless of whether that form is required to be filed with the Internal Revenue Service. The clerk may extend the time for submission of the proposed Form 706 or other information as the clerk sees fit.

(2) Examination regarding assets. – If the personal representative, the surviving spouse, or a responsible person has reasonable grounds to believe that any person has a claim or has in its possession assets included in Total Net Assets, then the personal representative, surviving spouse, or responsible person may use the procedures set out in G.S. 28A-15-12 to cause the clerk to examine the person believed to have a claim or to possess assets included in Total Net Assets.

(f) Findings and Conclusions. – After notice and hearing, the clerk shall determine whether or not the surviving spouse is entitled to an elective share, and if so, the clerk shall then determine the elective share and shall order the personal representative to transfer that amount to the surviving spouse. The clerk's order shall recite specific findings of fact and conclusions of law in arriving at the decedent's Total Net Assets, Property Passing to Surviving Spouse, and the elective share.

~~(g) Appeals. — Any party in interest may appeal from the decision of the clerk to the superior court. If an appeal is taken from the decision of the clerk, that appeal shall have the effect of staying the judgment and order of the clerk until the cause is heard and determined by the superior court upon the appeal taken. Upon an appeal taken from the clerk to the superior court, the judge may review the findings of fact by the clerk and may find the facts or take other evidence, but the facts found by the judge shall be final and conclusive upon any appeal to the Appellate Division.~~

(h) Expenses. – The expenses (including attorneys' fees) reasonably incurred by the personal representative, other responsible persons, and the surviving spouse in connection with elective share proceedings shall be equitably apportioned by the clerk of court in the clerk's discretion among the personal representative, other responsible persons, and the surviving spouse. Each responsible person shall pay its apportioned expenses to the personal representative in cash.

"§ 30-3.5. ~~Recovery of assets by personal representative.~~ Satisfaction of elective share.

~~(a) Recovery of Assets. — The personal representative is entitled to recover proportionately from all persons, other than the surviving spouse, receiving or in possession of any of the decedent's Total Net Assets a sufficient amount to enable the personal representative to pay the elective share. The apportionment shall be made in the proportion that the value of the interest of each person receiving or in possession of any of Total Net Assets bears to Total Net Assets, excluding any Property Passing to Surviving Spouse. The only persons subject to contribution to make up the elective share are (i) original recipients of property comprising the decedent's Total Net Assets, and subsequent gratuitous inter vivos donees or persons claiming by testate or intestate succession to the extent those persons have the property or its proceeds on or after the date of decedent's death, and (ii) a fiduciary, as to the property under the fiduciary's control at or after the time a fiduciary receives notice that a surviving spouse has claimed an elective share. A fiduciary shall not be considered to have notice until it receives notice at its address as shown in the decedent's estate papers in the clerk's office or, if there are no such papers or no such address is shown in those papers, at the fiduciary's residence or the office of its registered agent.~~

~~The personal representative may withhold from any property of the decedent in his possession, distributable to any person subject to apportionment, the amount of the elective share apportioned to such person. If the property in possession of the personal representative and distributable to any person subject to apportionment is insufficient to satisfy the proportionate amount of the elective share determined to be due from that person, the personal representative may recover the deficiency from that person. If the property is not in possession of the personal representative, the personal representative may recover from the person the amount of the elective share apportioned to that person in accordance with this Article. If the personal representative cannot reasonably collect from any person subject to apportionment the amount of the elective share apportioned to that person, the amount not reasonably recoverable shall, with the approval of the clerk, be apportioned among the other persons who are subject to apportionment. The apportionment shall be made in the proportion that the value of the interest of each remaining person bears to the total value of the interests of all remaining persons.~~

(a1) Apportionment. – The personal representative shall determine each responsible person's liability to the surviving spouse by multiplying the value of the elective share by a fraction, the numerator of which is the value of the responsible person's nonspousal assets and the denominator of which is the total value of all of the nonspousal assets included in Total Net Assets.

(a2) Recovery From Responsible Persons. – As a responsible person, the personal representative shall satisfy its liability for payment of the elective share out of the decedent's estate's nonspousal assets using first the nonspousal assets in the decedent's residuary estate. If the nonspousal assets in the residuary estate are not sufficient, the personal representative shall reduce each other responsible person's share of the nonspousal assets proportionately based on the values used in determining the Total Net Assets. The personal representative shall recover from each other responsible person the responsible person's liability for the payment of the elective share. Each responsible person, including the decedent's personal representative, may elect to satisfy its liability in full by any of the following methods:

(1) Conveyance of that portion of the responsible person's nonspousal assets (or identical substitute assets), valued on the date of conveyance, sufficient to satisfy the responsible person's liability; or, if the value of the responsible person's nonspousal assets on the date of conveyance is less than the responsible person's liability, conveyance of all of the responsible person's nonspousal assets (or identical substitute assets).

(2) Payment of the liability in cash.

(3) Payment of the liability in other property upon written agreement of the surviving spouse at values agreed by the surviving spouse for purposes of determining the extent of the liability satisfied.

(4) Any combination of the payment methods set forth under subdivisions (2) through (4) of this subsection, provided that the total value of assets conveyed by the responsible person equals such responsible person's liability.

(a3) Inability or Refusal to Pay. – The personal representative shall be entitled to petition the clerk of court for an order requiring any responsible person to satisfy its liability. Upon refusal of a responsible person to obey such an order, the personal representative shall be entitled to a judgment against such responsible person in the amount of the liability and to any other remedies the clerk deems appropriate. Although the responsible person shall remain primarily liable for such responsible person's liability for the elective share, the following rules apply:

(1) If the responsible person makes a gratuitous transfer, whether inter vivos or by testate or intestate succession, of all or any part of the responsible person's nonspousal assets or the proceeds thereof after the decedent's death, then the gratuitous transferee shall be liable for the amount transferred, and the personal representative shall be entitled to recover that amount from the transferee as if the transferee were the responsible person.

(2) If the responsible person is a fiduciary and makes a distribution of all or any part of the responsible person's nonspousal assets or the proceeds thereof after the decedent's death, then the distributee shall be liable for the amount transferred, and the personal representative shall be entitled to recover that amount from the distributee as if the distributee were the responsible person.

If, after exhausting all other remedies in this section, the personal representative cannot reasonably recover a responsible person's liability, then, with the approval of the clerk, the defaulting responsible person's liability shall be apportioned on a pro rata basis among the responsible persons who have not defaulted. Each nondefaulting other responsible person shall be liable for the amount of the liability apportioned to it in the same manner and to the same extent as its original liability for the elective share; provided, that each responsible person's liability shall not exceed the responsible person's proportionate share of the value of the nonspousal assets based on the values used in determining Total Net Assets. Each nondefaulting other responsible person shall be entitled to a proportionate share of any judgment against or subsequent recovery of the liability from the defaulting responsible person.

(b) Standstill Order. – After the filing of the petition demanding an elective share, ~~either the personal representative or surviving spouse~~ the personal representative, surviving spouse, or any responsible person may request the clerk to issue an order that any ~~recipients~~ responsible person not dispose of ~~any~~ all or a portion of the decedent's Total Net Assets or the proceeds thereof pending the ~~hearing.~~ payment of the elective share. The decision to issue such an order shall be in the discretion of the clerk. A person who violates the standstill order may be held in civil contempt of court pursuant to Article 5A of Chapter 2 of the General Statutes. The clerk shall enter an order terminating the standstill order upon the clerk's determination that the standstill order is no longer necessary or desirable.

~~(c) Satisfaction of Liability. – A person receiving or in possession of any of the decedent's Total Net Assets may pay his proportionate elective share liability with respect to that property by any of the following methods:~~

~~(1) Conveyance of the property included in the decedent's Total Net Assets;~~

~~(2) Payment of the value of his liability in cash or, upon agreement of the surviving spouse, other property; or~~

~~(3) Partial conveyance and partial payment under subdivisions (1) and (2) of this subsection, provided the value conveyed and paid is equal to his liability.~~

~~(d) Expenses. – The expenses reasonably incurred by the personal representative in connection with the appraisal or recovery of assets shall be apportioned as provided for the elective share under this Article. If the personal representative finds that it is inequitable to apportion the expenses because those expenses were incurred because of the fault of one or more persons subject to apportionment, the personal representative may direct other more equitable apportionment, with the approval of the clerk.~~

(e) Bond. – ~~If property held by the personal representative is distributed~~ If a responsible person distributes or disposes of nonspousal assets prior to final apportionment of the elective ~~share,~~ share and expenses, the personal representative may require the ~~distributee~~ responsible person or the transferee to provide a bond or other security for the ~~apportionment~~ responsible person's liability for payment of the elective share and apportioned expenses in the form and amount prescribed by the personal representative, with the approval of the clerk.

"§ 30-3.6. Waiver of rights.

(a) The right of a surviving spouse to claim an elective share may be waived, wholly or partially, before or after marriage, with or without consideration, by a written waiver signed by the surviving ~~spouse.~~ spouse, by the surviving spouse's attorney-in-fact if the surviving spouse's power of attorney expressly authorizes the attorney-in-fact to do so or to generally engage in estate transactions, or, with approval of court, by the guardian of the surviving spouse's estate or general guardian.

(b) A waiver is not enforceable if the surviving spouse proves that:

(1) The waiver was not executed voluntarily; or

(2) The surviving spouse or the surviving spouse's representative making the waiver was not provided a fair and reasonable disclosure of the property and financial obligations of the decedent, unless the surviving spouse waived, in writing, the right to that disclosure.

(c) A written waiver that would have been effective to waive a spouse's right to dissent in estates of decedents dying on or before December 31, 2000, under Article 1 of Chapter 30 of the General Statutes is effective to waive that spouse's right of elective share under this Article for estates of decedents dying on or after January 1, 2001."

SECTION 2. This act is effective when it becomes law and applies to decedents dying on or after October 1, 2009.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO REVISE THE EXISTING ELECTIVE SHARE STATUTES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Article 1A of Chapter 30 of the General Statutes reads as rewritten:

"Article 1A.

"Elective Share.

"§ 30-3.1. Right of elective share.

(a) Elective Share. – The surviving spouse of a decedent who dies domiciled in this State has a right to claim an "elective share", which means an amount equal to (i) the applicable share of the Total Net Assets, as defined in G.S. 30-3.2(4), less (ii) the value of Net Property Passing to Surviving Spouse, as defined in ~~G.S. 30-3.3(a).~~G.S. 30-3.2(2c). The applicable share of the Total Net Assets is as follows:

(1) If the decedent is not survived by any lineal descendants, one-half of the Total Net Assets.

(2) If the decedent is survived by one child, or lineal descendants of one deceased child, one-half of the Total Net Assets.

(3) If the decedent is survived by two or more children, or by one or more children and the lineal descendants of one or more deceased children, or by the lineal descendants of two or more deceased children, one-third of the Total Net Assets.

(b) Reduction of Applicable Share. – In those cases in which the surviving spouse is a second or successive spouse, and the decedent has one or more lineal descendants ~~surviving by a prior marriage~~ surviving who are not lineal descendants of the decedent's marriage to the surviving spouse but there are no lineal descendants surviving by the surviving spouse, the applicable share as determined in subsection (a) of this section shall be reduced by one-half.

~~(c) Death Taxes. Death taxes shall be taken into account as a claim against the estate in determining Total Net Assets only to the extent that the assets received by the surviving spouse do not qualify for the federal estate tax marital deduction pursuant to section 2056 of the Code or similar provisions under the laws of any other applicable taxing jurisdiction. The amount of such claims shall equal the difference between the amount of such death taxes as finally determined and the amount such death taxes would have been if all assets received by the surviving spouse had qualified for the federal estate tax marital deduction pursuant to~~

~~section 2056 of the Code and similar provisions under the laws of any other applicable taxing jurisdictions.~~

"§ 30-3.2. Definitions.

The following definitions apply in this Article:

(1) ~~"Code" means the~~ Code. – The Internal Revenue Code in effect at the time of the decedent's death.

(1a) Claims. – Includes liabilities of the decedent, whether arising in contract, in tort, or otherwise, and liabilities of the decedent's estate that arise at or after the death of the decedent, including funeral and administrative expenses, except for:

a. A claim for equitable distribution of property pursuant to G.S. 50-20 awarded subsequent to the death of the decedent.

b. Death taxes, except for those death taxes attributable to Property Passing to the Surviving Spouse. "Death taxes attributable to Property Passing to the Surviving Spouse" equals the amount of decedent's death taxes as finally determined, less the amount such death taxes would have been if all Property Passing to the Surviving Spouse had qualified for the federal estate tax marital deduction pursuant to section 2056 of the Code or had qualified for a similar provision under the laws of another applicable taxing jurisdiction.

c. A claim founded on a promise or agreement of the decedent, to the extent such claim is not arm's length or is not supported by full or adequate consideration in money or money's worth.

d. Expenses apportioned by the clerk of court under G.S. 30-3.4(h).

(2) ~~"Death taxes" means any~~ Death taxes. – Any estate, inheritance, succession, and similar taxes imposed by any taxing authority, reduced by any applicable credits against those taxes.

(2a) General power of appointment. – Any power of appointment, including a power to designate the beneficiary of a beneficiary designation, exercisable by the decedent, regardless of the decedent's capacity to exercise such power, in favor of the decedent, the decedent's estate, the decedent's creditors, or the creditors of the decedent's estate, except for (i) powers limited by an "ascertainable standard" as defined in G.S. 36C-1-103 and (ii) powers which are not exercisable by the decedent except in conjunction with a person who created the power or has a substantial interest in the property subject to the power and whose interest is adverse to the exercise of the power in favor of the decedent, the decedent's estate, the decedent's creditors, or the creditors of the decedent's estate. In no event shall a power held by the decedent as attorney-in-fact under a power of attorney be considered a general power of appointment.

(2b) Lineal descendant. – Defined in G.S. 29-2.

(2c) Net Property Passing to Surviving Spouse. – The Property Passing to Surviving Spouse reduced by (i) death taxes attributable to property passing to surviving spouse, and (ii) claims payable out of, charged against or otherwise properly allocated to Property Passing to Surviving Spouse.

(3) ~~"Nonadverse trustee" means:~~ Nonadverse trustee. – Any of the following:

a. Any person who does not possess a substantial beneficial interest in the trust that would be adversely affected by the exercise or nonexercise of the power that the individual trustee possesses respecting the trust;

b. Any person subject to a power of removal by the surviving spouse with or without cause; or

c. Any company authorized to engage in trust business under the laws of this State, or that otherwise meets the requirements to engage in trust business under the laws of this State.

(3a) Nonspousal assets. – All property included in total assets other than the property included in Property Passing to Surviving Spouse.

(3b) Presently exercisable general power of appointment. – A general power of appointment which is exercisable at the time in question. A testamentary general power of appointment is not presently exercisable.

(3c) Property Passing to Surviving Spouse. – The sum of the values, as valued pursuant to G.S. 30-3.3A, of the following:

a. Property (i) devised, outright or in trust, by the decedent to the surviving spouse or (ii) that passes, outright or in trust, to the surviving spouse by intestacy, beneficiary designation, the exercise or failure to exercise the decedent's testamentary general power of appointment or the decedent's testamentary limited power of appointment, operation of law, or otherwise by reason of the decedent's death, excluding any benefits under the federal social security system.

b. Any year's allowance awarded to the surviving spouse.

c. Property renounced by the surviving spouse.

d. The surviving spouse's interest in any life insurance proceeds on the life of the decedent.

e. Any interest in property, outright or in trust, transferred from the decedent to the surviving spouse during the lifetime of the decedent for which the surviving spouse signs a statement acknowledging such a gift. For purposes of this sub-subdivision, any gift to the surviving spouse by the decedent of the decedent's interest in any property held by the decedent and the surviving spouse as tenants by the entirety or as joint tenants with right of survivorship shall be deemed to be a gift of one-half of the entire interest in property so held by the decedent and the surviving spouse.

f. Property awarded to the surviving spouse, subsequent to the death of the decedent, pursuant to an equitable distribution claim under G.S. 50-20.

g. Property held in a spousal trust described in G.S. 30-3.3A(e)(1).

If property falls under more than one sub-subdivision of this subdivision, then the property shall be included only once, but under the sub-subdivision yielding the greatest value of the property.

(3d) Responsible person. – A person or entity other than the surviving spouse that received, held, or controlled property constituting nonspousal assets on the date used to determine the value of the property. The personal representative is the responsible person for nonspousal assets that pass under the decedent's will or by intestate succession.

(3e) Responsible person's nonspousal assets. – The nonspousal assets received, held, or controlled by a responsible person.

(3f) Total assets. – The sum of the values, as determined pursuant to G.S. 30-3.3A, of the following:

a. The decedent's property that would pass by intestate succession if the decedent died without a will, other than wrongful death proceeds;

b. Property over which the decedent, immediately before death, held a presently exercisable general power of appointment, except for (i) property held jointly with right of survivorship, which is includable in total assets only to the extent provided in sub-subdivision c. of this subdivision and (ii) life insurance, which is includable in Total Assets only to the extent provided in sub-subdivision d. of this subdivision. Includes, without limitation:
   1. Property held in a trust that the decedent could revoke.
   2. Property held in a trust to the extent that the decedent had an unrestricted power to withdraw the property.
   3. Property held in a depository account owned by the decedent in a financial institution payable or transferable at decedent's death to a beneficiary designated by the decedent.
   4. Securities owned by the decedent in an account or in certificated form that are payable or transferable at decedent's death to a beneficiary designated by the decedent.

c. Property held as tenants by the entirety or jointly with right of survivorship as follows:
   1. One-half of any property held by the decedent and the surviving spouse as tenants by the entirety or as joint tenants with right of survivorship is included, without regard to who contributed the property.
   2. Property held by the decedent and one or more other persons other than the surviving spouse as joint tenants with right of survivorship is included to the following extent:
      I. All property attributable to the decedent's contribution.
      II. The decedent's pro rata share of property not attributable to the decedent's contribution, except to the extent of property attributable to contributions by a surviving joint tenant.

      The decedent is presumed to have contributed the jointly owned property unless contribution by another is proven by clear and convincing evidence.

d. Benefits payable by reason of the decedent's death under any policy, plan, contract, or other arrangement, either owned by the decedent or over which the decedent had a general power of appointment or had the power to designate the surviving spouse as beneficiary, including, without limitation:
   1. Insurance on the life of the decedent.
   2. Accidental death benefits.
   3. Annuities.
   4. Employee benefits or similar arrangements.
   5. Individual retirement accounts.
   6. Pension or profit sharing plans.
   7. Deferred compensation.
   8. Any private or governmental retirement plan.

e. Property irrevocably transferred by the decedent to the extent the decedent retained the possession or enjoyment of, or the right to income from, the property for life or for any period not ascertainable without reference to the decedent's death or for any period that does not in fact end before the decedent's death, except:

1. Property transferred for full and adequate consideration.
2. Transfers to that the surviving spouse consented in writing by signing a deed, an income or gift tax return that reports the gift, or other writing.
3. Transfers that became irrevocable before the decedent's marriage to the surviving spouse.

The property included in total assets is that fraction of the transferred property to which the decedent retained the right.

f. Property transferred by the decedent to the extent the decedent created a power over the property or the income from the property, which, immediately prior to death, could be exercised by the decedent in conjunction with any other person, or which could be exercised by a person who does not have a substantial interest that would be adversely affected by the exercise or nonexercise of the power, for the benefit of the decedent, the decedent's estate, the decedent's creditors, or the creditors of the decedent's estate, except:

1. Property transferred for full and adequate consideration.
2. Transfers to which the surviving spouse consented in writing by signing a deed, an income or gift tax return that reports the gift, or other writing.
3. Transfers which became irrevocable before the decedent's marriage to the surviving spouse.

The property included in total assets with respect to a power over property is that fraction of the property to which the power related.

g. Property transferred by the decedent to persons other than the surviving spouse if such transfer was made both during the one-year period immediately preceding the decedent's death and during the decedent's marriage to the surviving spouse, except:

1. Property transferred for full and adequate consideration.
2. Transfers to which the surviving spouse consented in writing by signing a deed, an income or gift tax return that reports such gift, or other writing.
3. That part of any property transferred to any one transferee that qualified for exclusion from gift tax under section 2503 of the Code.

For purposes of this sub-subdivision, the termination of a right or interest in, or power over, property that would have been included in the total assets under sub-subdivisions b., e., or f. of this subdivision if the right, interest, or power had not terminated until the decedent's death shall be deemed to be a transfer of such property. Termination occurs when, with respect to a right or interest in property, the decedent transfers or relinquishes the right or interest; with respect to a power over property, the power terminates by exercise or release, but not by lapse or default.

If property falls under more than one sub-subdivision of this subdivision, then the property shall be included only once, but under the sub-subdivision yielding the greatest value of the property.

(4) ~~"Total Net Assets" means, after the payment or provision for payment of the decedent's funeral expenses, year's allowances to persons other than to the~~

~~surviving spouse, debts, claims other than an equitable distribution of property awarded to the surviving spouse pursuant to G.S. 50-20 subsequent to the death of the decedent, and administration expenses, the sum of the following:~~

~~a. All property to which the decedent had legal and equitable title immediately prior to death;~~

~~b. All property received by the decedent's personal representative by reason of the decedent's death, other than wrongful death proceeds;~~

~~c. One-half of the value of any property held by the decedent and the surviving spouse as tenants by the entirety, or as joint tenants with rights of survivorship;~~

~~d. The entire value of any interest in property held by the decedent and another person, other than the surviving spouse, as joint tenants with right of survivorship, except to the extent that contribution can be proven by clear and convincing evidence;~~

~~e. The value of any property which would be included in the taxable estate of the decedent pursuant to sections 2033, 2035, 2036, 2037, 2038, 2039, or 2040 of the Code.~~

~~f. Any gifts of property made by the decedent to donees other than the surviving spouse within six months of the decedent's death, excluding:~~

~~1. Any gifts within the annual exclusion provisions of section 2503 of the Code;~~

~~2. Any gifts to which the surviving spouse consented. A signing of a deed, or income or gift tax return reporting such gift shall be considered consent; and~~

~~3. Any gifts made prior to marriage;~~

~~g. Any proceeds of any individual retirement account, pension or profit-sharing plan, or any private or governmental retirement plan or annuity of which the decedent controlled the designation of beneficiary, excluding any benefits under the federal social security system;~~

~~h. Any other Property Passing to Surviving Spouse under G.S. 30-3.3; and~~

~~i. In case of overlapping application of the same property under more than one provision, the property shall be included only once under the provision yielding the greatest value."~~

Total Net Assets. – The total assets reduced by year's allowances to persons other than the surviving spouse and claims.

~~"§ 30-3.3. Property passing to surviving spouse.~~

~~(a) Property Passing to Surviving Spouse. – For purposes of this Article, "Property Passing to Surviving Spouse" means the sum of the following:~~

~~(1) One-half of the value of any interest in property held by the decedent and the surviving spouse as tenants by the entirety or as joint tenants with rights of survivorship;~~

~~(2) The value of any interest in property (outright or in trust, including any interest subject to a general power of appointment held by the surviving spouse, as defined in section 2041 of the Code) devised by the decedent to the surviving spouse, or which passes to the surviving spouse by intestacy, or by beneficiary designation, or by exercise of or in default of the exercise of the decedent's testamentary general or limited power of appointment, or~~

~~by operation of law or otherwise by reason of the decedent's death, excluding any benefits under the federal social security system;~~

~~(3) Any year's allowance awarded to the surviving spouse;~~

~~(4) The value of any property renounced by the surviving spouse;~~

~~(5) The value of the surviving spouse's interest, outright or in trust, in any life insurance proceeds on the life of the decedent;~~

~~(6) The value of any interest in property, outright or in trust, transferred from the decedent to the surviving spouse during the lifetime of decedent for which (i) a gift tax return is timely filed reporting such gift, or (ii) the surviving spouse signs a statement acknowledging such a gift. For purposes of this subdivision, any gift to the surviving spouse by the decedent of the decedent's interest in any property held by the decedent and the surviving spouse as tenants by the entirety or as joint tenants with right of survivorship shall be valued at one-half of the entire value of that interest in property at the time the gift is made;~~

~~(7) Notwithstanding any other provision of law related to valuing a partial interest in property, the entire fair market value of any property held in trust for the exclusive benefit of the surviving spouse during the surviving spouse's lifetime, if the terms of the trust meet the following requirements:~~

~~a. During the lifetime of the surviving spouse, the trust is controlled by one or more Nonadverse Trustees;~~

~~b. The trustee is required to distribute to or for the benefit of the surviving spouse either (i) the entire net income of the trust at least annually; or (ii) the income of the trust in such amounts and at such times as the trustee, in its discretion, determines necessary for the health, maintenance, and support of the surviving spouse;~~

~~c. The trustee is required to distribute to or for the benefit of the surviving spouse out of the principal of the trust such amounts and at such times as the trustee, in its discretion, determines necessary for the health, maintenance, and support of the surviving spouse; and~~

~~In exercising discretion, the trustee may be authorized or required to take into consideration all other income, assets, and other means of support as are available to the surviving spouse; and~~

~~(8) The net value of the marital estate awarded to the surviving spouse pursuant to G.S. 50-20 subsequent to the death of the decedent.~~

~~(b) Death Taxes. The value of Property Passing to Surviving Spouse shall be reduced by any death taxes that are a charge against or apportioned against the surviving spouse on property interests included in Property Passing to Surviving Spouse.~~

~~(c) No Duplication. In case of overlapping application of the same property under more than one provision, the property shall be included only once, under the provision yielding the greatest value.~~

"§ 30-3.3A. Valuation of property.

(a) Basic Principles. – Unless otherwise expressly stated to the contrary in this section, the value of property shall be that property's fair market value, taking into consideration any applicable discounts. The value shall be determined as of the date of death, except for (i) property transferred to persons other than the surviving spouse described in G.S. 30-3.2(3f)g. and (ii) property transferred to the surviving spouse described in G.S. 30-3.2(3c)e. that is not held in trust, that is not life insurance, and that is not held as tenants by the entirety or some other form of ownership that passes to the surviving spouse by reason of survivorship. The value of gift property described in clauses (i) and (ii) shall be determined as the value on the date of transfer; but if the donee proves to the satisfaction of the clerk that the value on the date of disposal of the asset prior to the decedent's death is less than on the original date of transfer or that the value on the date of death is less than on the original date of transfer, then the lesser value shall be used.

(b) Certain Joint Property. – In valuing a partial interest in jointly owned property with right of survivorship, there shall be no discount taken to reflect the decedent's partial interest including, but not limited to, discounts for lack of control, ownership of a fractional interest, or lack of marketability.

(c) Certain Powers of Appointment. – In valuing property over which the decedent held a presently exercisable general power of appointment, the value includes only the property subject to the power that passes at the decedent's death, whether by exercise, release, lapse, default, or otherwise.

(d) Certain Transfers With Retained Interests. – In valuing property transferred by the decedent with a retained right of possession or enjoyment or the right to income described in G.S. 30-3.2(3f)e., only the fraction of the property to which the decedent retained a right shall be included. In valuing property in which the decedent created a power as described in G.S. 30-3.2(3f)f., the value includes, with respect to a power, the value of the property subject to the power, and the amount included in the valuation with respect to a power over the income is the value of the property that produces or produced the income; provided, however, if the power is a power over both income and property and the foregoing produces different amounts, the amount included in the valuation is the greater amount.

(e) Partial or Contingent Interest Property. – The valuation of partial and contingent property interests, outright or in trust, which are limited to commence or terminate upon the death of one or more persons, upon the expiration of a period of time, or upon the occurrence of one or more contingencies, shall be determined by computations based upon the mortality and annuity tables set forth in G.S. 8-46 and G.S. 8-47, and by using a presumed rate of return of six percent (6%) of the value of the underlying property in which those interests are limited. However, in valuing partial and contingent interests passing to the surviving spouse, the following special rules apply:

(1) The value of the beneficial interest of a spouse shall be the entire fair market value of any property held in trust if the decedent was the settlor of the trust, if the trust is held for the exclusive benefit of the surviving spouse during the surviving spouse's lifetime, and if the terms of the trust meet the following requirements:

a. During the lifetime of the surviving spouse, the trust is controlled by one or more nonadverse trustees.

b. The trustee shall distribute to or for the benefit of the surviving spouse either (i) the entire net income of the trust at least annually or (ii) the income of the trust in such amounts and at such times as the trustee, in its discretion, determines necessary for the health, maintenance, and support of the surviving spouse.

c. The trustee shall distribute to or for the benefit of the surviving spouse out of the principal of the trust such amounts and at such times as the trustee, in its discretion, determines necessary for the health, maintenance, and support of the surviving spouse.

d. In exercising discretion, the trustee may be authorized or required to take into consideration all other income assets and other means of support available to the surviving spouse.

(2) To the extent that the partial or contingent interest is dependent upon the occurrence of any contingency that is not subject to the control of the surviving spouse and that is not subject to valuation by reference to the mortality and annuity tables set forth in G.S. 8-46 and G.S. 8-47, the

contingency will be conclusively presumed to result in the lowest possible value passing to the surviving spouse. However, a life estate or income interest that will terminate upon the surviving spouse's death or remarriage will be valued without regard to the possibility of termination upon remarriage.

(3) To the extent that the valuation of a partial or contingent interest is dependent upon the life expectancy of the surviving spouse, that life expectancy shall be conclusively presumed to be no less than 10 years, regardless of the actual attained age of the surviving spouse at the decedent's death.

(f) Method for Determining Value. – Unless otherwise stated in this Article, the value of property shall be determined as follows:

(1) The value of property passing by intestacy described in G.S. 30-3.2(3f)a. and Property Passing to Surviving Spouse, other than property held in a trust, shall be established by the good-faith agreement of the surviving spouse and the personal representative, unless either (i) the surviving spouse is the personal representative or (ii) the clerk determines that the personal representative may not be able to represent the estate adversely to the surviving spouse, in which cases the value of such property shall be determined pursuant to subdivision (4) of this subsection.

(2) The value of property constituting an interest in a trust shall be established by good-faith agreement of the surviving spouse, the personal representative, and the trustee, unless either (i) the surviving spouse is both the personal representative and the trustee or (ii) the clerk determines that the trustee or the personal representative may not be able to represent the trust or the estate, respectively, adversely to the surviving spouse, in which cases the value of such property shall be determined pursuant to subdivision (4) of this subsection.

(3) The value of all other property shall be established by the good-faith agreement of the surviving spouse, the personal representative, and the responsible person that received, held, or controlled such property on the date used to determine the value of such property for purposes of determining total assets, unless the clerk determines that valuation under subdivision (4) of this subsection is more appropriate.

(4) If the value of any property is not established by agreement as provided above, the parties may present evidence regarding value, which may include expert testimony, and the clerk may appoint one or more qualified and disinterested persons to help determine the value of such property. After hearing, the clerk shall make a finding of fact of the value of each asset.

"§ 30-3.4. Procedure for determining the elective share.

(a) Exercisable Only During Lifetime. – The right of the surviving spouse to file a claim for an elective share must be exercised during the lifetime of the surviving spouse, by the surviving spouse, by the surviving spouse's ~~agent under a~~ attorney-in-fact if the surviving spouse's power of ~~attorney,~~ attorney expressly authorizes the attorney-in-fact to do so or to generally engage in estate transactions, ~~or~~ or, with approval of court, by the guardian of the surviving spouse's ~~estate.~~ estate or general guardian. If a surviving spouse dies before the claim for an elective share has been settled, the surviving spouse's personal representative shall succeed to the surviving spouse's rights to an elective share.

(b) Time Limitations. – A claim for an elective share must be made within six months after the issuance of letters testamentary or letters of administration in connection with the will or intestate proceeding with respect to which the surviving spouse claims the elective share by

(i) filing a petition with the clerk of superior court of the county in which the primary administration of the decedent's estate lies, and (ii) mailing or delivering a copy of that petition to the personal representative of the decedent's estate. A surviving spouse's incapacity shall not toll the six-month period of limitations.

(c) Time for Hearing. – Unless waived by the personal representative and the surviving spouse, the clerk shall set the matter for hearing no earlier than two months and no later than six months after the filing of the petition. However, the clerk may extend the time of hearing as the clerk sees fit. The surviving spouse shall give notice of the hearing to the personal representative, and to any person described in G.S. 30-3.5 who may be required to contribute toward the satisfaction of the elective share.

~~(d) Preparation of Tax Form. – In every case in which a petition to determine an elective share has been filed, and within two months of the filing of the petition, the personal representative shall prepare and submit to the clerk a proposed Form 706, federal estate tax return, for the estate, regardless of whether that form is required to be filed with the Internal Revenue Service. The clerk may extend the time for submission of the proposed Form 706 as the clerk sees fit.~~

~~(e) Valuation. – The valuation of interests in property for purposes of G.S. 30-3.2 and G.S. 30-3.3 shall be determined as follows:~~

~~(1) Basic principles. – Each interest shall be valued at its fair market value, reduced by all liens, claims, or encumbrances against the interest. For interests passing at the decedent's death, valuation shall be as of the date of death, and for interests transferred during the decedent's lifetime, valuation shall be as of the date of transfer.~~

~~(2) Valuation of partial and contingent interests in property. – The valuation of interests in property, outright or in trust, which are limited to commence or terminate upon the death of one or more persons, upon the expiration of a period of time, or upon the occurrence of one or more contingencies, shall be determined by computations based upon the mortuary and annuity tables set forth in G.S. 8-46 and G.S. 8-47, and upon the basis of six percent (6%) of the gross value of the underlying property in which those interests are limited. However, in valuing interests passing to the surviving spouse, the following special rules apply:~~

~~b. To the extent that the interest is dependent upon the occurrence of any contingency that is not subject to the control of the surviving spouse and that is not subject to valuation by reference to the mortuary and annuity tables set forth in G.S. 8-46 and G.S. 8-47, the contingency will be conclusively presumed to result in the lowest possible value passing to the surviving spouse. However, a life estate or income interest that will terminate only upon the earlier of the surviving spouse's death or remarriage will be valued without regard to the possibility of termination upon remarriage; and~~

~~c. To the extent that the valuation of an interest is dependent upon the life expectancy of the surviving spouse, that life expectancy shall be conclusively presumed to be no less than 10 years, regardless of the actual attained age of the surviving spouse at the decedent's death.~~

~~(3) Determination of fair market value. – The fair market value of each asset comprising Total Net Assets shall be determined as follows:~~

~~a. Probate assets and assets passing to spouse. The value of each probate asset and Property Passing to Surviving Spouse, other than assets held in trust, shall be established by the good faith agreement of the surviving spouse and the personal representative, unless either (i) the surviving spouse is the personal representative, or (ii) the clerk determines that the personal representative may not be able to represent the estate adversely to the surviving spouse.~~

~~b. Trust assets. The value of each trust asset shall be established by good faith agreement of the surviving spouse and the trustee, unless either (i) the surviving spouse is the trustee, or (ii) the clerk determines that the trustee may not be able to represent the trust adversely to the surviving spouse.~~

~~c. Other assets. The value of any other asset shall be established by the good faith agreement of the surviving spouse and each person described in G.S. 30-3.5 who may be required to contribute toward the satisfaction of the elective share because of that person's interest in the asset, unless the clerk determines that valuation under sub-subdivision d. of this subdivision is more appropriate.~~

~~d. Use of disinterested persons. If the value of any asset is not established by agreement, the clerk shall appoint one or more qualified and disinterested persons to determine a value of each asset. That determination of the value of an asset shall be final for the exclusive purposes of this Article.~~

(d1) Mediation. – The clerk may order mediation as described in G.S. 7A-38.3B of any disputes in connection with an elective share proceeding.

(e1) Procedure. – An elective share proceeding shall be an estate matter and may be appealed pursuant to G.S. 1-301.3.

(e2) Information About Total Net Assets. – In order to assist the clerk in determining whether a surviving spouse is entitled to an elective share, and, if so, the amount thereof, the following provisions apply:

(1) Submission within two months. – In every case in which a petition to determine an elective share has been filed, within two months of the filing of the petition, the personal representative shall submit sufficient information about the total assets for the clerk to determine the elective share. To fulfill its obligation to provide information, the personal representative may prepare and submit to the clerk a proposed Form 706, United States Estate (and Generation-Skipping Transfer) Tax Return, for the estate, regardless of whether that form is required to be filed with the Internal Revenue Service. The clerk may extend the time for submission of the proposed Form 706 or other information as the clerk sees fit.

(2) Examination regarding assets. – If the personal representative, the surviving spouse, or a responsible person has reasonable grounds to believe that any person has a claim or has in its possession assets included in Total Net Assets, then the personal representative, surviving spouse, or responsible person may use the procedures set out in G.S. 28A-15-12 to cause the clerk to examine the person believed to have a claim or to possess assets included in Total Net Assets.

(f) Findings and Conclusions. – After notice and hearing, the clerk shall determine whether or not the surviving spouse is entitled to an elective share, and if so, the clerk shall then determine the elective share and shall order the personal representative to transfer that amount to the surviving spouse. The clerk's order shall recite specific findings of fact and conclusions of law in arriving at the decedent's Total Net Assets, Property Passing to Surviving Spouse, and the elective share.

~~(g) Appeals. – Any party in interest may appeal from the decision of the clerk to the superior court. If an appeal is taken from the decision of the clerk, that appeal shall have the effect of staying the judgment and order of the clerk until the cause is heard and determined by the superior court upon the appeal taken. Upon an appeal taken from the clerk to the superior court, the judge may review the findings of fact by the clerk and may find the facts or take other evidence, but the facts found by the judge shall be final and conclusive upon any appeal to the Appellate Division.~~

(h) Expenses. – The expenses (including attorneys' fees) reasonably incurred by the personal representative, other responsible persons, and the surviving spouse in connection with elective share proceedings shall be equitably apportioned by the clerk of court in the clerk's discretion among the personal representative, other responsible persons, and the surviving spouse.

"§ 30-3.5. ~~Recovery of assets by personal representative.~~ Satisfaction of elective share.

~~(a) Recovery of Assets. – The personal representative is entitled to recover proportionately from all persons, other than the surviving spouse, receiving or in possession of any of the decedent's Total Net Assets a sufficient amount to enable the personal representative to pay the elective share. The apportionment shall be made in the proportion that the value of the interest of each person receiving or in possession of any of Total Net Assets bears to Total Net Assets, excluding any Property Passing to Surviving Spouse. The only persons subject to contribution to make up the elective share are (i) original recipients of property comprising the decedent's Total Net Assets, and subsequent gratuitous inter vivos donees or persons claiming by testate or intestate succession to the extent those persons have the property or its proceeds on or after the date of decedent's death, and (ii) a fiduciary, as to the property under the fiduciary's control at or after the time a fiduciary receives notice that a surviving spouse has claimed an elective share. A fiduciary shall not be considered to have notice until it receives notice at its address as shown in the decedent's estate papers in the clerk's office or, if there are no such papers or no such address is shown in those papers, at the fiduciary's residence or the office of its registered agent.~~

~~The personal representative may withhold from any property of the decedent in his possession, distributable to any person subject to apportionment, the amount of the elective share apportioned to such person. If the property in possession of the personal representative and distributable to any person subject to apportionment is insufficient to satisfy the proportionate amount of the elective share determined to be due from that person, the personal representative may recover the deficiency from that person. If the property is not in possession of the personal representative, the personal representative may recover from the person the amount of the elective share apportioned to that person in accordance with this Article. If the personal representative cannot reasonably collect from any person subject to apportionment the amount of the elective share apportioned to that person, the amount not reasonably recoverable shall, with the approval of the clerk, be apportioned among the other persons who are subject to apportionment. The apportionment shall be made in the proportion that the value of the interest of each remaining person bears to the total value of the interests of all remaining persons.~~

(a1) Apportionment. – The personal representative shall apportion the liability to the surviving spouse for the amount of the elective share among all responsible persons as follows:

(1) The net value of each nonspousal asset shall be determined by calculating the value of the nonspousal asset under G.S. 30-3.3A and reducing such value by that portion of the claims (including year's allowances to persons other than the surviving spouse) payable out of, charged against, or otherwise properly allocable to the nonspousal asset.

(2) Using the net value of each nonspousal asset as determined under subdivision (1) of this subsection, the personal representative shall determine each responsible person's liability to the surviving spouse by multiplying the amount of the elective share by a fraction, the numerator of which is the net value of the responsible person's nonspousal assets and the denominator of which is the net value of all of the nonspousal assets.

(a2) Recovery From Responsible Persons. – In recovering assets from responsible persons, the following rules apply:

(1) To the extent the personal representative is a responsible person, the personal representative shall satisfy its liability to the surviving spouse out of its nonspousal assets according to the following order of priority:

a. The personal representative shall satisfy its liability out of the net value of the nonspousal assets passing by intestate succession by allocating the liability proportionately among each intestate heir based on the fraction of the net value of the nonspousal assets passing by intestate succession that each intestate heir is entitled to receive.

b. If the net value of the nonspousal assets passing by intestate succession is not sufficient to satisfy the personal representative's liability in full, the personal representative shall satisfy its remaining liability out of the net value of the nonspousal assets passing as part of the decedent's residuary estate by allocating the liability proportionately among each beneficiary of the decedent's residuary estate based on the fraction of the net value of the nonspousal assets passing as part of the decedent's residuary estate that each residuary beneficiary is entitled to receive.

c. If the net value of the nonspousal assets in the residuary estate is not sufficient to satisfy the personal representative's liability in full, the personal representative shall satisfy its remaining liability by allocating the remaining liability proportionately among each other beneficiary of the decedent's will based on the fraction of the net value of the remaining nonspousal assets each other beneficiary is entitled to receive.

(2) The personal representative shall recover from each other responsible person the responsible person's liability to the surviving spouse.

(3) Each responsible person, including the personal representative in its capacity as a responsible person, may elect to satisfy its liability in full by any of the following methods:

a. Conveyance of that portion of the responsible person's nonspousal assets (or identical substitute assets), valued on the date of conveyance, sufficient to satisfy the responsible person's liability; or, if the value of the responsible person's nonspousal assets on the date of conveyance is less than the responsible person's liability, conveyance of all of the responsible person's nonspousal assets (or identical substitute assets).

b. Payment of the liability in cash.

c. Payment of the liability in other property upon written agreement of the surviving spouse at values agreed by the surviving spouse for purposes of determining the extent of the liability satisfied.

d. Any combination of the payment methods set forth under sub-subdivision a. through d. of this subdivision, provided that the total value of assets conveyed by the responsible person equals such responsible person's liability.

(a3) Inability or Refusal to Pay. – The personal representative shall be entitled to petition the clerk of court for an order requiring any responsible person to satisfy its liability. Upon refusal of a responsible person to obey such an order, the personal representative shall be entitled to a judgment against such responsible person in the amount of the liability and to any other remedies the clerk deems appropriate. Although the responsible person shall remain primarily liable for such responsible person's liability for the elective share, the following rules apply:

(1) If the responsible person makes a gratuitous transfer, whether inter vivos or by testate or intestate succession, of all or any part of the responsible person's nonspousal assets or the proceeds thereof after the decedent's death, then the gratuitous transferee shall be liable for the amount transferred, and the personal representative shall be entitled to recover that amount from the transferee as if the transferee were the responsible person.

(2) If the responsible person is a fiduciary and makes a distribution of all or any part of the responsible person's nonspousal assets or the proceeds thereof after the decedent's death, then the distributee shall be liable for the amount transferred, and the personal representative shall be entitled to recover that amount from the distributee as if the distributee were the responsible person.

If, after exhausting all other remedies in this section, the personal representative cannot reasonably recover a responsible person's liability, then, with the approval of the clerk, the defaulting responsible person's liability shall be apportioned on a pro rata basis among the responsible persons who have not defaulted. Each nondefaulting other responsible person shall be liable for the amount of the liability apportioned to it in the same manner and to the same extent as its original liability for the elective share; provided, that each responsible person's liability shall not exceed the responsible person's proportionate share of the value of the nonspousal assets based on the values used in determining Total Net Assets. Each nondefaulting other responsible person shall be entitled to a proportionate share of any judgment against or subsequent recovery of the liability from the defaulting responsible person.

(b) Standstill Order. – After the filing of the petition demanding an elective share, ~~either the personal representative or surviving spouse~~ the personal representative, surviving spouse, or any responsible person may request the clerk to issue an order that any ~~recipients~~ responsible person not dispose of ~~any~~ all or a portion of the decedent's Total Net Assets or the proceeds thereof pending the ~~hearing.~~ payment of the elective share. The decision to issue such an order shall be in the discretion of the clerk. A person who violates the standstill order may be held in civil contempt of court pursuant to Article 5A of Chapter 2 of the General Statutes. The clerk shall enter an order terminating the standstill order upon the clerk's determination that the standstill order is no longer necessary or desirable.

~~(c) Satisfaction of Liability. A person receiving or in possession of any of the decedent's Total Net Assets may pay his proportionate elective share liability with respect to that property by any of the following methods:~~

~~(1) Conveyance of the property included in the decedent's Total Net Assets;~~

~~(2) Payment of the value of his liability in cash or, upon agreement of the surviving spouse, other property; or~~

~~(3) Partial conveyance and partial payment under subdivisions (1) and (2) of this subsection, provided the value conveyed and paid is equal to his liability.~~

~~(d) Expenses. The expenses reasonably incurred by the personal representative in connection with the appraisal or recovery of assets shall be apportioned as provided for the elective share under this Article. If the personal representative finds that it is inequitable to apportion the expenses because those expenses were incurred because of the fault of one or~~

~~more persons subject to apportionment, the personal representative may direct other more equitable apportionment, with the approval of the clerk.~~

(e) Bond. – ~~If property held by the personal representative is distributed~~ If a responsible person distributes or disposes of nonspousal assets prior to final apportionment of the elective ~~share,~~ share and expenses, the personal representative may require the ~~distributee~~ responsible person or the transferee to provide a bond or other security for the ~~apportionment~~ responsible person's liability for payment of the elective share and apportioned expenses in the form and amount prescribed by the personal representative, with the approval of the clerk.

"§ 30-3.6. Waiver of rights.

(a) The right of a surviving spouse to claim an elective share may be waived, wholly or partially, before or after marriage, with or without consideration, by a written waiver signed by the surviving ~~spouse.~~ spouse, by the surviving spouse's attorney-in-fact if the surviving spouse's power of attorney expressly authorizes the attorney-in-fact to do so or to generally engage in estate transactions, or, with approval of court, by the guardian of the surviving spouse's estate or general guardian.

(b) A waiver is not enforceable if the surviving spouse proves that:

(1) The waiver was not executed voluntarily; or

(2) The surviving spouse or the surviving spouse's representative making the waiver was not provided a fair and reasonable disclosure of the property and financial obligations of the decedent, unless the surviving spouse waived, in writing, the right to that disclosure.

(c) A written waiver that would have been effective to waive a spouse's right to dissent in estates of decedents dying on or before December 31, 2000, under Article 1 of Chapter 30 of the General Statutes is effective to waive that spouse's right of elective share under this Article for estates of decedents dying on or after January 1, 2001."

SECTION 2. This act is effective when it becomes law and applies to decedents dying on or after October 1, 2009.

HOUSE BILL 765:
Revise Elective Share Statutes

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	June 8, 2009
Introduced by:	Rep. Stam	Prepared by:	Kory Goldsmith Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	PCS to Second Edition H765-PCS80458

SUMMARY: The Proposed Committee Substitute for House Bill 765 rewrites Article 1A of Chapter 30 of the General Statutes governing a surviving spouse's elective share.

The bill is a recommendation of the Estate Planning Section of the North Carolina State Bar.

BACKGROUND: Under North Carolina law, a surviving spouse is entitled to a minimum share of their deceased spouse's estate regardless of the provisions, if any, of the deceased spouse's will. The minimum share is one-half of the surviving spouse's net assets if the decedent is survived by no lineal descendants or no more than one lineal descendants and one-third of the assets if decedent is survived by two or more children. The purpose of the elective share is to prevent a spouse from disinheriting a surviving spouse.

BILL ANALYSIS: The Proposed Committee Substitute makes changes to each section of Article 1A. An overview of the changes to each section is set out below.

G.S. 30-3.1. Right to Elective Share

Subsection (b) is changed to allow for the consideration of lineal descendants whether or not those descendants are the children of a prior marriage.

In addition to technical changes, subsection (c) governing the treatment and computation of death taxes is deleted. This language is now included in the definition section in the new definition of claims.

G.S. 30-3.2. Definitions

This section was changed to include computational language or calculations where appropriate, leaving primarily procedural language in the other sections.

New definitions include:

- "Claims" -- The current definition of "total net assets" (p.6, line 38) provides for the payment of funeral expenses, debts and other claims. The new definition of claims clarifies what is considered a claim against a decedent's estate and exempts from claims the following: (1) a claim for equitable distribution awarded subsequent to the decedent's death; (2) death taxes; and (3) claims not supported by adequate consideration, all of which are exempted under current law.
- "General Power of Appointment" -- This term is referenced in the new definition of "total assets" (p.3, line 48). The purpose of the new definition, coupled with the definition of total assets, is to include in total assets that property or interest over which the decedent retains control by a general power of appointment.
- "Net Property Passing to Surviving Spouse" – This term is added to include in the definitions the calculation under existing language as intended in the current G.S. 30-3.3 which is repealed by the bill (page 6, line 40).

- "Nonspousal Assets" – This term is used in new language in G.S. 30-3.5 (p. 12, line 44). The personal representative may recover non-spousal assets from a responsible person if the property is part of the decedent's total net assets.
- "Property Passing to the Surviving Spouse" – This definition is added and is substantially the same as language currently in G.S. 30-3.3 which is repealed by the bill. Again, the language is primarily used to compute the elective share and, as such, is being placed in the definitions.
- "Responsible person" and "Responsible Person's Non-spousal Assets" – These terms are used in new language in G.S. 30-3.5. Non-spousal assets may be recovered from responsible persons if the property is a part of the decedent's total net assets.
- "Total Assets" – This term is added and the definition is primarily based on language originally found in the definition of "Total Net Assets" included in a decedent's estate (p. 5, line 47) which is deleted by the bill. Again, the language is primarily a calculation or computation to determine the elective share. The language is expanded from the original language to provide clarification and divides property into the following categories:
    1. Property that would pass by intestate succession. (sub-subdivision a)
    2. Property over which the decedent held a general power of appointment including property held in revocable trusts, or a trust in which the decedent had the power to withdraw property, bank accounts, and stocks. (sub-subdivision b)
    3. Property held by joint tenancy. (sub-subdivision c)
    4. Beneficiary property including life insurance (not specified under current law), death benefits, annuities, IRAs, pensions, and retirement plans. (sub-subdivision d)
    5. Irrevocable transfers to the extent the decedent retained possession or enjoyment or income from the property. (sub-subdivision e)
    6. Property transferred with and to the extent of a power that could be exercised by the decedent with someone else. (sub-subdivision f)
    7. Gifts made one year preceding death (currently 6 months) (sub-subdivision g)

  For 5, 6, and 7 above, property transferred for full and adequate consideration or with the written consent of the surviving spouse are not include in total assets. In addition, for 5 and 6 above, transfers which are irrevocable and made before the decedent's marriage to the surviving spouse are not included. This language is new. Also, for 7 above, gifts that qualify for exclusion from gift tax ($13,000 or less) are not included.
- "Total Net Assets" – This definition is new and is based on total assets less funeral expenses, administration expenses, and claims.

G.S. 30-3.3. Property passing to surviving spouse.

This section is repealed. Provisions governing property passing to surviving spouse are now included in the definition in G.S. 30-3.2(3c) (p. 3, line 11).

G.S. 30-3.3A Valuation of Property. (new section added)

The valuation of property is currently addressed in G.S. 30-3.4(e) (p. 10, line 16) which is repealed by the bill.

Subsection (a) is based on the current language and provides that the value of the property shall be the fair market value at the time of death except for: (1) gifts made to person other than the surviving spouse and (2) gifts made to the surviving spouse that is not held in trust, not life insurance, or other form of ownership that passes to the surviving spouse on the decedent's death. For these transfers, the value is determined as of the date of transfer, unless the property is disposed of and the donee proves that the value prior to death is less than the value on the date of transfer.

Other provisions include the following:

- For joint property with right of survivorship, there shall be no discount taken to reflect the decedent's partial interest (subsection (b)).
- For property subject to power of appointment, value shall be only for the property subject to the power (subsection (c)).
- For transfers with a sole or shared retained right of possession or enjoyment, values shall be only for the property subject to the power (subsection (d)).
- For partial or contingent property interests commencing or terminating on the death of one or more persons, value is based on the statutory mortality and annuity tables. (subsection (e)). Special rules under the current law for contingent interests passing to the surviving spouse are included in this subsection. (repealed under current law on p. 7, line 16).

Subsection (f) provides that the method for determining fair market value can be by good faith agreement of, as applicable: (1) the surviving spouse and the personal representative for property passing by intestacy; (2) in the case of a trust, the personal representative, surviving spouse, and trustee; (3) the personal representative, surviving spouse, and the responsible person, for property held by a responsible person. If an agreement cannot be reached, the parties may present evidence to the clerk who shall determine the fair market value. This language is based on language deleted from the current G.S. 30-3.4(e)(3) (p. 10, line 17).

Subsection (f) adds new language requiring the clerk to make findings of fact from which the parties may appeal to the superior court.

G.S. 30-3.4. Procedure for determining the elective share

Subsection (a) adds language to (1) require a power of attorney to specifically authorize the attorney-in-fact to exercise the right to file for an elective share or to engage in estate transactions and (2) to require a general guardian or guardian of the estate to obtain court approval before filing for an elective share.

Subsection (d) requiring the preparation of a tax return within two months of filing a petition for elective share is repealed. This language is deleted because some estates or property within the estate aren't taxable. Under new language set out in subsection (e2)(1) of this section, the personal representative may file a return to assist the clerk in determining whether the spouse is entitled to an elective share.

Subsection (e) governing valuation is deleted in light of new language included in G.S. 30-3.3 discussed above.

Subsection (d1) is new and adds language authorizing the clerk to order mediation of disputes in connection with elective share claims.

Subsection (e1) is new and adds language authorizing appeal of an elective share claim as an estate matter under G.S.1-301.3. Under G.S. 1-301.3, a superior court judge may only consider whether the findings of fact are supported by the evidence, whether the conclusions of law are supported by the findings of fact, and whether the order is consistent with the conclusions of law and applicable law.

Subsection (f1) is new and requires parties to submit sufficient information to the clerk to allow a determination of total assets of the decedent's estate.

Subsection (g) concerning appeals is deleted and is no longer needed in light of the new subsection (e1). Unlike the new language in subsection (e1), this section authorizes the superior court to review findings of fact by the clerk and find facts or take other evidence.

Subsection (h) is new and allows the apportionment of expenses by the clerk as currently provided in G.S. 30-3.5(d) which is deleted.

G.S. 30-3.5 Satisfaction of elective share. (new heading, was Recovery of assets by personal representative.)

Subsection (a) of this section is deleted and rewritten in new subsections (a1), (a2), and (a3). The revisions discussed below are intended to be clarifying only.

As is the current law, subsection (a1) provides that the personal representative apportions each responsible person's liability to the surviving spouse by multiplying the value of the elective share by a fraction comprised of the value of the responsible person's nonspousal assets over the total value of the all nonspousal assets.

Subsection (a2) provides that the personal representative must pay the elective share using first the non-spousal assets in the decedent's residuary estate. If these are insufficient, each responsible person's share is reduced proportionately. The responsible person may satisfy its liability by any of the following methods: (1) conveying back that portion of non-spousal assets valued on the date of conveyance or, if the value is less than the party's liability, the conveyance of all the non-spousal assets (There is no liability out of personal assets, only non-spousal assets.); (2) payment in cash; (3) payment in other property upon written agreement; or (4) any combination of the above.

Subsection (a3) provides that the personal representative may petition the court for the recovery from the responsible person. A responsible person is primarily liable for the elective share, but if the person made a gratuitous transfer or, if the person is a fiduciary and made a distribution of the non-spousal assets upon the decedent's death, then the transferee or distributee is liable for the amount transferred.

If the personal representative cannot recover from a responsible person, then the responsible person's liability may be apportioned among the remaining responsible persons. The non-defaulting responsible person or persons are then entitled to recover from the defaulting responsible person. A responsible person's liability may not exceed their proportionate share of the non-spousal assets. (Again, there is no liability out of personal assets, only non-spousal assets.)

Subsection (b) adds new language providing that a responsible person violating a standstill order prohibiting disposal of a decedent's total net assets may be held in civil contempt.

Subsection (c) is repealed. These provisions are included in the new subsection (a2).

Subsection (d) is repealed. The clerk may apportion expenses as provided in the new G.S. 30-3.4(h) discussed above.

Subsection (e) adds new language to the provision requiring a responsible person or transferee to post a bond to clarify that the bond is to secure payment not just of the elective share, but also of any apportioned expenses.

G.S. 30-3.6 Waiver of rights.

Language is added requiring a power of attorney to specifically authorize the attorney-in-fact to waive the right to claim an elective share or to engage in estate transactions and also requires a general guardian or guardian of the estate to obtain court approval before doing so. (As noted earlier in this summary, similar language was also added in G.S. 30-3.4(a) governing the petitioning for an elective share.)

EFFECTIVE DATE: The Proposed Committee Substitute for House Bill 765 is effective when it becomes law and applies to decedents dying on or after October 1, 2009.

HOUSE BILL 1261:
Protect Our Kids/Cyber Bullying Misdemeanor

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	June 8, 2009
Introduced by:	Reps. Mackey, Parmon	Prepared by:	Brenda J. Carter Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition H1261-CSRV-48

SUMMARY: House Bill 1261 would create and define the criminal offense of cyber bullying, making it punishable as a Class 1 misdemeanor. This PCS makes some technical changes.

CURRENT LAW: The offense of Cyberstalking is a Class 2 misdemeanor under G.S. 14-196.3, it is currently unlawful to do any of the following:

- use any words or language in electronic communication threatening to inflict bodily harm to any person, or to extort money or anything of value from another person
- electronically communicate with another repeatedly, for the purpose of abusing, annoying, threatening, harassing, or embarrassing any person
- electronically communicate to another and knowingly make any false statement concerning death, injury, illness, disfigurement, indecent conduct, or criminal conduct of the person electronically mailed or of any member of the person's family or household with the intent to abuse, annoy, threaten, terrify, harass, or embarrass.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 1261 would enact a new provision in Article 60 of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes (Computer Related Crime) creating the offense of cyber bullying and making it a Class 1 misdemeanor to use a computer or computer network to commit any of the following acts, when done for the purpose of intimidating or tormenting a minor, or with the intent to embarrass, intimidate, or torment the minor or the minor's parent or guardian:

- falsify one's identity in a chat room, electronic mail message, or instant message
- follow a minor online or into a chat room
- build a fake profile or a Website, or pose as a minor in an Internet chat room, an electronic mail message, or an instant message
- post a real or doctored image of a minor on the Internet
- post or encourage others to post on the Internet private, personal, or sexual information pertaining to a minor
- access, alter, or erase any computer network, computer data, computer program, or computer software, including breaking into a password protected account or stealing or otherwise accessing passwords
- repeatedly communicate insults to, or about, a minor
- copy and disseminate, or cause to be made an unauthorized copy of any data pertaining to a minor

The following acts would be unlawful, but would not require the same showing of purpose or intent:

- planting any statement that actually provokes or would tend to provoke any third party to stalk or harass a minor
- signing up or registering a minor for a pornographic Internet site
- signing up or registering for electronic mailing lists or to receive junk electronic messages and instant messages without authorization, resulting in either costs to the minor or to the minor's parent or guardian or intimidation or torment of the minor.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The bill would become effective December 1, 2009 and apply to offenses occurring on or after that date.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO MAKE CERTAIN SALES OF STATE PROPERTY SUBJECT TO UPSET BIDS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 146-27 reads as rewritten:

"§ 146-27. The role of the Department of Administration in sales, leases, and rentals.

(a) General. – Every sale, lease, rental, or gift of land owned by the State or by any State agency shall be made by the Department of Administration and approved by the Governor and Council of State. A lease or rental of land owned by the State may not exceed a period of 99 years. The Department of Administration may initiate proceedings for sales, leases, rentals, and gifts of land owned by the State or by any State agency.

(b) Large Disposition. – If a proposed disposition is a sale or gift of land with an appraised value of at least twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000), the sale or gift shall not be made until after consultation with the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations.

(b1) Upset Bids. – If a proposed disposition of land or other real property with a value of at least twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) is a sale or other transfer to a private entity that operates or is established to operate for profit, the proposed disposition shall be subject to upset bids, unless other, non-monetary consideration associated with the transaction has been made public. If other consideration is offered such that upset bids are not required, notice of the sale and other consideration shall be posted and published in a manner similar to that provided in G.S. 1-339.17. The Department of Administration shall adopt a procedure for upset bids that is based on the upset bid procedure set forth in Part 2 of Article 29A of Chapter 1 of the General Statutes.

(c) Expired effective September 1, 2007."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective October 1, 2009.

Referred to:

February 26, 2009

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO INCREASE THE AMOUNT OF THE YEAR'S ALLOWANCE FOR A SURVIVING SPOUSE AND TO MAKE CONFORMING CHANGES TO RELATED PROVISIONS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 30-15 reads as rewritten:

"§ 30-15. When spouse entitled to allowance.

Every surviving spouse of an intestate or of a testator, whether or not he or she has petitioned for an elective share, shall, unless ~~he~~ the surviving spouse has forfeited his or her right thereto, as provided by law, be entitled, out of the personal property of the deceased spouse, to an allowance of the value of ~~ten~~ twenty thousand dollars ~~($10,000)~~ ($20,000) for ~~his~~the surviving spouse's support for one year after the death of the deceased spouse. Such allowance shall be exempt from any lien, by judgment or execution, acquired against the property of the deceased spouse, and shall, in cases of testacy, be charged against the share of the surviving spouse."

SECTION 2. G.S. 30-26 reads as rewritten:

"§ 30-26. When above allowance is in full.

If the estate of a deceased be insolvent, or if his or her personal estate does not exceed ~~ten~~ twenty thousand dollars ~~($10,000),~~ ($20,000), the allowances for the year's support of the surviving spouse and the children shall not, in any case, exceed the value prescribed in G.S. 30-15 and G.S. 30-17; and the allowances made to them as above prescribed shall preclude them from any further allowances."

SECTION 3. G.S. 30-29 reads as rewritten:

"§ 30-29. What complaint must show.

In the complaint the plaintiff shall set forth, besides the facts entitling plaintiff to a year's support and the value of the support claimed, the further facts that the estate of the decedent is not insolvent, and that the personal estate of which he or she died possessed exceeded ~~ten~~ twenty thousand dollars ~~($10,000),~~ ($20,000), and also whether or not an allowance has been made to plaintiff and the nature and value thereof."

SECTION 4. This act becomes effective January 1, 2010, and applies to estates of individuals dying on or after that date.

HOUSE BILL 312:
Increase Spousal Year's Allowance/Conform Lng

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	June 11, 2009
Introduced by:	Reps. Hurley, Spear, Randleman, McLawhorn	Prepared by:	Jennifer McGinnis
Analysis of:	Second Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: HB 312 would increase the year's allowance for a surviving spouse from $10,000 to $20,000 and make conforming changes to other statutes.

CURRENT LAW: All states have some statutory provision for the support and maintenance of a decedent's spouse and minor children during the administration of the estate. North Carolina calls these payments for support and maintenance the "year's allowance." The payments are made from the decedent's personal property and are superior to claims of creditors.

G.S. 30-15 provides for a $10,000 allowance for a one-year period for every surviving spouse from the personal property of a deceased spouse, unless otherwise forfeited by law. If the decedent dies intestate, the allowance is in addition to the spouse's intestate share. If the decedent left a will, the allowance is charged against the share of the spouse given under the will.

G.S. 30-26 provides that if a deceased spouse is insolvent or the personal estate does not exceed $10,000, the year's allowance to the surviving spouse and children shall not exceed the statutory limits, and further allowances shall not be made.

G.S. 30-29 provides that, for a surviving spouse who applies to superior court for support, the complaint must set forth the following: facts entitling plaintiff to a year's support, the value of the support claimed, that the deceased's estate was not insolvent, that the personal estate exceeded $10,000 and whether or not an allowance has been made to the plaintiff and the nature and value thereof.

BILL ANALYSIS: HB 312 would increase the allowance for the surviving spouse from the personal property of a deceased spouse from $10,000 to $20,000, and would make conforming changes in other statutes which reference the amount of the spousal share.

EFFECTIVE DATE: HB 312 would become effective January 1, 2010 and apply to estates of individuals dying or after that date.

BACKGROUND: The current spousal share limit of $10,000 was established in 1995 in S.L. 1995-262.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO AMEND THE LAW GOVERNING BUSINESS TRUSTS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 39-44 reads as rewritten:

"§ 39-44. Definition.

The term "business trust" whenever used or referred to in this Article shall mean any unincorporated association, including ~~but not limited to~~an Illinois land trust, a Delaware statutory trust, or a Massachusetts business trust, engaged in any business or trade under a written instrument or declaration of trust under which the beneficial interest therein is divided into shares represented by certificates or shares of beneficial interest."

SECTION 2. G.S. 39-46 reads as rewritten:

"§ 39-46. Title vested; conveyance; probate.

(a) Where real estate has been or may be hereafter conveyed to a business trust in its trust name or in the names of its trustees in their capacity as trustees of such business trust, the said title shall vest in said business trust, and the said real estate and interests therein may be conveyed, encumbered or otherwise disposed of by said business trust in its trust name by an instrument signed by at least one of its trustees, its president, a vice-president or other duly authorized officer, ~~and attested or countersigned by its secretary, assistant secretary or such other officer as is the custodian of its common seal, not acting in dual capacity, with its official seal affixed,~~ the said conveyance to be proven and probated in the same manner as provided by law for conveyances by corporations. Any conveyance, encumbrance or other disposition thus made by any such business trust shall convey good and sufficient title to said real estate and interests therein in accordance with the provisions of said conveyance; provided, however, that with respect to any such conveyance, encumbrance or other disposition effected after June 28, 1977, there must be recorded in the county where the land lies a memorandum of the written instrument or declaration of trust referred to in G.S. 39-44. As a minimum such memorandum shall set forth the name, date and place of filing, if any, of such written instrument or declaration of trust, and the place where the written instrument or declaration of trust, and all amendments thereto, is kept and may be examined upon reasonable notice, which place need not be a public office. Such memorandum may include designation of trustees and duly authorized officers and the authority granted to them with regard to real estate matters, pursuant to subsection (b) of this section.

(b) Any business trust may convey or encumber an interest in real property that is transferable by either (i) an instrument duly executed by either an officer of the business trust other than one of its trustees, its president, a vice president, or other authorized agent identified in the recorded memorandum, or (ii) a declaration of trust described in subsection (a) of this section, if the conveyance has attached to it a signed resolution adopted by the board of trustees, as certified by an officer authorized to make such certifications of the business trust, authorizing the officer to execute, sign, seal, and deliver deeds, conveyances, or other instruments. This section is deemed to have been complied with if a resolution required by this subsection is recorded separately in the office of the register of deeds in the county where the land lies. Such a resolution shall be applicable to all instruments executed subsequently to the recording of the resolution and pursuant to its authority.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, this section does not require a signed resolution adopted by the board of directors, as certified by an officer authorized to make such certifications, to be attached to an instrument or separately recorded in the case of an instrument duly executed by one of its trustees, its president, or a vice president of the business trust. All deeds, conveyances, or other instruments so executed shall, if otherwise sufficient, be valid and shall have the effect to pass the title to the real or personal property described in the instrument. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the trust agreement, and absent any provision otherwise in the recorded memorandum or declaration of trust required under subsection (a) of this section, when it appears on the face of an instrument registered in the office of the register of deeds that the instrument was signed in the ordinary course of business on behalf of a business trust by at least one of its trustees, its president, a vice president, or an assistant vice president, such an instrument shall be as valid with respect to the rights of innocent third parties for value without notice of a defect or breach of fiduciary duty as if executed pursuant to authorization from the board of trustees, unless the instrument reveals on its face a breach of fiduciary obligation. The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to parties who had actual knowledge of lack of authority or of a breach of fiduciary obligation.

(c) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to exclude the power of any representatives of a business trust to bind the business trust pursuant to express, implied, inherent, or apparent authority, ratification, estoppel, or otherwise.

(d) Nothing in this section shall relieve trustees or officers of a business trust from liability to the business trust or from any other liability that they may have incurred from any violation of their actual authority."

SECTION 3. This act becomes effective October 1, 2009, and applies to all instruments recorded on or after that date.

HOUSE BILL 615: Business Trusts

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	June 11, 2009
Introduced by:	Representative Martin	Prepared by:	Jeff Hudson
Analysis of:	Third Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 615 would specifically identify Illinois land trusts and Delaware statutory trusts in the definition of "business trusts". It would also amend the law governing the conveyance of an interest in real property by a business trust.

CURRENT LAW: Business trusts are governed by Article 8 of Chapter 39 of the General Statutes. A business trust is an unincorporated business organization that operates under a declaration of trust or other written instrument. Generally, under a business trust arrangement, property is conveyed to trustees who hold title to and manage the property for the beneficiaries. The beneficial interest is usually represented by transferable shares.[1] A classic example of a business trust is a real estate investment trust (REIT). A Massachusetts business trust is one common form of business trust and is already specifically recognized in the statutory definition of "business trust".

According to Black's, an Illinois land trust is "a land ownership arrangement by which a trustee holds both legal and equitable title to land while the beneficiary retains the power to direct the trustee, manage the property, and draw income from the trust."

A Delaware statutory trust is a business trust created pursuant to Delaware statutes, 12 Del. C. §3801, et seq.

G.S. 39-46 governs the conveyance of real property by a business trust. An interest in real property may be conveyed, encumbered, or otherwise disposed of in the business trust's name by an instrument signed by at least one of the trustees, its president or vice president, or other authorized officer and attested or countersigned by another officer and sealed. Dispositions made in this matter pass good and sufficient title to the property if a memorandum of the declaration of trust is recorded in the county in which the land is located.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 would amend the definition of "business trust" to specifically identify Indiana land trusts and Delaware statutory trusts as "business trusts".

Section 2 would amend G.S. 39-46 in several respects:

- It would delete the requirement that an instrument conveying real property held by the business trust be attested or countersigned and sealed. The intent is to update the requirements for conveyance in accordance with the requirements for corporations.
- The memorandum of the declaration of trust required to be filed in the county in which the land is located could contain a designation of trustees and authorized officers and their authority in real property matters.

[1] See, 12A, CJS Business Trusts, p.392-394 (2004). CJS also notes "Business Trusts are distinguished from ordinary trusts by the fact that they are organized to make a profit, rather than to preserve property or facilitate its transfer."

- A new subdivision (b) would be created to provide that:
  - The conveyance of an interest in real property by an officer of the business trust, other than those identified in subdivision (a), would be authorized if the conveyance has attached a resolution of the Board of Trustees authorizing the officer to execute, sign, seal, and deliver deeds, conveyances, or other instruments.
  - One would also be able to comply with this section by recording the resolution separately at the register of deeds office in the county where the land is located.
  - A signed resolution would not be required in the case of an instrument signed by a trustee, president, vice president, or assistant vice president.
  - As long as there is nothing contrary in the trust agreement or provision in the memorandum or declaration of trust providing otherwise, if the instrument registered at the register of deeds office appears on its face to have been signed in the ordinary course of business by a trustee, president, vice president, or assistant vice president on behalf of the business trust, the instrument would be valid with respect to the rights of innocent third parties for value.
- New subsection (c) would provide that the Section does not exclude the power of a representative of the business trust to bind the trust pursuant to express or implied authority or other means.
- New subsection (d) would provide that the Section does not relieve a trustee or other officer of a business trust from liability incurred through a violation of their actual authority.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The act would become effective October 1, 2009 and apply to instruments recorded on or after that date.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO AMEND THE LAW GOVERNING SUBSTITUTION OF TRUSTEES IN MORTGAGES AND DEEDS OF TRUST.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 45-10 reads as rewritten:

"§ 45-10. Substitution of trustees in mortgages and deeds of trust.

(a) In addition to the rights and remedies now provided by law, the holders or owners of a majority in amount of the indebtedness, notes, bonds, or other instruments evidencing a promise or promises to pay money and secured by mortgages, deeds of trust, or other instruments conveying real property, or creating a lien thereon, may, in their discretion, substitute a trustee whether the trustee then named in the instrument is the original or a substituted trustee, by the execution of a written document properly recorded pursuant to Chapter 47 of the North Carolina General Statutes.

(b) If the name of a trustee is omitted from an instrument that appears on its face to be intended to be a deed of trust, the instrument shall be deemed to be a deed of trust, the owner or owners executing the deed of trust and granting an interest in the real property shall be deemed to be the constructive trustee or trustees of record for the secured party or parties named in the instrument, and a substitution of trustee may be undertaken under subsection (a) of this section. However, no such constructive trustee shall have the authority or power to take any of the following actions without the consent and joinder of the holders or owners of a majority in amount of the obligations secured by the deed of trust: (i) effect a substitution of trustee, (ii) effect the satisfaction of the deed of trust, (iii) release any property or any interest therein from the lien of the deed of trust, or (iv) modify or amend the terms of the deed of trust. Any substitute trustee named under the authority of subsection (a) of this section shall succeed to all the rights, titles, authority, and duties of the trustee under the terms of the deed of trust without regard to the limitations imposed by this subsection on the authority of a constructive trustee."

SECTION 2. This act is effective when it becomes law and applies to all instruments recorded before, on, or after that date.

HOUSE BILL 794:
Substitution of Trustees

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	June 11, 2009
Introduced by:	Representatives Martin, Hall	Prepared by:	Jeff Hudson
Analysis of:	Second Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 794 would amend the law governing substitution of trustees in mortgages and deeds of trust.

CURRENT LAW: A deed of trust is a three party arrangement which includes the lender, the borrower, and the trustee. The lender loans money to the borrower. In exchange, the borrower places legal title to real property in the hands of a third party trustee to hold for the benefit of the lender until the borrower repays the loan. When the loan is repaid, the trustee cancels the deed of trust, and the borrower (who at all times has equitable title and can possess the land) obtains legal title.

Current law permits the substitution of trustees in mortgages and deeds of trust. The trustee who is then named in the instrument may be the original trustee or a substituted trustee. This substitution occurs by executing a written document and having it properly recorded. The holders or owners of a majority of the indebtedness secured by mortgages, deeds of trust, or other instruments conveying real property have discretion to substitute a trustee. The substitution of a trustee may be made as often as is justifiable.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 794 deals with situations in which the name of a trustee is omitted from an instrument that appears on its face to be intended to be a deed of trust. In such cases the bill would provide that

- The instrument will be deemed to be a deed of trust.
- The owner/owners executing the deed of trust and granting an interest in the real property will be deemed to be the constructive trustee/trustees for the secured party or parties (e.g. the lender) named in the instrument.
- A substitution of trustee may be undertaken.

To prevent fraudulent transfers, the bill would provide that a constructive trustee cannot take any of the following actions without the consent of those who own a majority amount of the obligations:

- Effect a substitution of trustee or the satisfaction of the deed of trust.
- Release any property or interest in the property from the lien of the deed of trust.
- Modify or amend the terms of the deed of trust.

The bill would also clarify that a substitute trustee succeeds the rights of the trustee and does not have the same limitations that a constructive trustee has.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The act would become effective when it becomes law and apply to all instruments recorded before, on, or after that date.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO CLARIFY THAT INTERESTS IN A JOINT TENANCY WITH A RIGHT OF SURVIVORSHIP MAY BE HELD IN UNEQUAL SHARES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 41-2 reads as rewritten:

"§ 41-2. Survivorship in joint tenancy defined; proviso as to partnership.

Except as otherwise provided herein, in all estates, real or personal, held in joint tenancy, the part or share of any tenant dying shall not descend or go to the surviving tenant, but shall descend or be vested in the heirs, executors, or administrators, respectively, of the tenant so dying, in the same manner as estates held by tenancy in common: Provided, that estates held in joint tenancy for the purpose of carrying on and promoting trade and commerce, or any useful work or manufacture, established and pursued with a view of profit to the parties therein concerned, are vested in the surviving partner, in order to enable him to settle and adjust the partnership business, or pay off the debts which may have been contracted in pursuit of the joint business; but as soon as the same is effected, the survivor shall account with, and pay, and deliver to the heirs, executors and administrators respectively of such deceased partner all such part, share, and sums of money as he may be entitled to by virtue of the original agreement, if any, or according to his share or part in the joint concern, in the same manner as partnership stock is usually settled between joint merchants and the representatives of their deceased partners. Nothing in this section prevents the creation of a joint tenancy with right of survivorship in real or personal property if the instrument creating the joint tenancy expressly provides for a right of survivorship, and no other document shall be necessary to establish said right of survivorship. Upon conveyance to a third party by less than all of three or more joint tenants holding property in joint tenancy with right of survivorship, a tenancy in common is created among the third party and the remaining joint tenants, who remain joint tenants with right of survivorship as between themselves. Upon conveyance to a third party by one of two joint tenants holding property in joint tenancy with right of survivorship, a tenancy in common is created between the third party and the remaining joint tenant. A conveyance of any interest in real property by a party to ~~himself and~~ one or more other parties, whether or not jointly with the grantor-party, as joint tenants with right of survivorship, creates in the parties that interest, if the instrument of conveyance expressly provides for a joint tenancy with right of survivorship. The interests of the grantees shall be deemed to be equal unless otherwise specified in the conveyance. Any joint tenancy interest held by a husband and wife, unless otherwise specified, shall be deemed to be held as a single tenancy by the entirety, which shall be treated as a single party when determining interests in the joint tenancy with right of survivorship. If joint tenancy interests among three or more joint tenants holding property in joint tenancy with right of survivorship are held in unequal shares, upon the death of one joint tenant, the share of the deceased joint tenant shall be divided among the surviving joint tenants according to their respective pro rata interest and not equally, unless the creating instrument provides otherwise."

SECTION 2. This act is effective when it becomes law and shall apply to any conveyance of an interest in property created prior to the effective date that explicitly sought to create unequal ownership interests in a joint tenancy with right of survivorship; however, distributions made prior to the effective date of this act that were made in equal amounts from a joint tenancy with the right of survivorship that sought to create unequal ownership shares shall remain valid and shall not be subject to modification on the basis of this act.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO CLARIFY THAT INTERESTS IN A JOINT TENANCY WITH A RIGHT OF SURVIVORSHIP MAY BE HELD IN UNEQUAL SHARES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 41-2 reads as rewritten:

"§ 41-2. Survivorship in joint tenancy defined; proviso as to partnership.

(a) Except as otherwise provided herein, in all estates, real or personal, held in joint tenancy, the part or share of any tenant dying shall not descend or go to the surviving tenant, but shall descend or be vested in the heirs, executors, or administrators, respectively, of the tenant so dying, in the same manner as estates held by tenancy in common: Provided, that estates held in joint tenancy for the purpose of carrying on and promoting trade and commerce, or any useful work or manufacture, established and pursued with a view of profit to the parties therein concerned, are vested in the surviving partner, in order to enable ~~him~~ the surviving partner to settle and adjust the partnership business, or pay off the debts which may have been contracted in pursuit of the joint business; but as soon as the same is effected, the survivor shall account with, and pay, and deliver to the heirs, executors and administrators respectively of such deceased partner all such part, share, and sums of money as ~~he~~ the deceased partner may be entitled to by virtue of the original agreement, if any, or according to ~~his~~ the deceased partner's share or part in the joint concern, in the same manner as partnership stock is usually settled between joint merchants and the representatives of their deceased partners. Nothing in this section prevents the creation of a joint tenancy with right of survivorship in real or personal property if the instrument creating the joint tenancy expressly provides for a right of survivorship, and no other document shall be necessary to establish said right of survivorship. Upon conveyance to a third party by less than all of three or more joint tenants holding property in joint tenancy with right of survivorship, a tenancy in common is created among the third party and the remaining joint tenants, who remain joint tenants with right of survivorship as between themselves. Upon conveyance to a third party by one of two joint tenants holding property in joint tenancy with right of survivorship, a tenancy in common is created between the third party and the remaining joint tenant. A conveyance of any interest in real property by a party to ~~himself and~~ one or more other parties, whether or not jointly with the grantor-party, as joint tenants with right of survivorship, creates in the parties that interest, if the instrument of conveyance expressly provides for a joint tenancy with right of survivorship.

(b) The interests of the grantees holding property in joint tenancy with right of survivorship shall be deemed to be equal unless otherwise specified in the conveyance. Any joint tenancy interest held by a husband and wife, unless otherwise specified, shall be deemed to be held as a single tenancy by the entirety, which shall be treated as a single party when determining interests in the joint tenancy with right of survivorship. If joint tenancy interests among three or more joint tenants holding property in joint tenancy with right of survivorship are held in unequal shares, upon the death of one joint tenant, the share of the deceased joint tenant shall be divided among the surviving joint tenants according to their respective pro rata interest and not equally, unless the creating instrument provides otherwise.

This subsection shall apply to any conveyance of an interest in property created at any time that explicitly sought to create unequal ownership interests in a joint tenancy with right of survivorship. Distributions made prior to the enactment of this subsection that were made in equal amounts from a joint tenancy with the right of survivorship that sought to create unequal ownership shares shall remain valid and shall not be subject to modification on the basis of this act"

SECTION 2. This act is effective when it becomes.

HOUSE BILL 799:
Unequal Shares/Joint Tenancy Survivorship

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	June 10, 2009
Introduced by:	Rep. Rhyne	Prepared by:	Kory Goldsmith
Analysis of:	PCS to Second Edition H799-CSRC-36		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: HB 799 would provide that interest in a joint tenancy with right of survivorship (JTROS) may be held in unequal shares if specifically provided for in the conveyance.

The PCS for HB 799 codifies provisions that had been in the effective date section to clarify how the new language applies to distributions prior to the effective date of the act.

CURRENT LAW: G.S. 41-2 provides for estates held in joint tenancy as follows:

- No automatic JTROS: Except as otherwise provide in the statute, for all estates held in joint tenancy, the part of the estate held by a deceased tenant shall not go to the surviving tenant, but shall instead descend or vest in the heirs of the deceased tenant.
  - Partnership Exception: Estates held in joint tenancy for trade or commerce are vested in the surviving partner to enable settlement and adjustment of partnership business and to pay off debts. Once this has been effected, the surviving partner must account to the deceased's estate anything entitled by the original agreement, or share of the joint concern.

  Express creation of JTROS permitted: A instrument created a joint tenancy may expressly provide for a right of survivorship, permitting the interest in the joint tenancy to go to the joint tenant, rather than the deceased's estate.
- Conveyance: In a conveyance to a third party by less than all of three or more joint tenants holding property in JTROS, the remaining joint tenants remains JTROS, and a tenancy in common is created with the third party. In a conveyance to a third party by one of two joint tenants holding property in JTROS, a tenancy in common is created between the third party and remaining tenant. A person's conveyance of an interest in real property to that person and one or more parties as JTROS creates that interest if expressly provided in the instrument of conveyance.

BILL ANALYSIS: HB 799 would modify G.S. 41-2 as follows:

- Provide that a conveyance of a interest by a party to one or more parties as JTROS would create that interest if expressly provided in the instrument of conveyance, whether or not the conveyance was jointly with the grantor-party.
- Provide that the interest of the grantees in such a conveyance be deemed equal unless otherwise specified in the conveyance.
- Provide that joint tenancy interest held by a husband and wife would be deemed a single tenancy by the entirely, and treated as a single party when determining interest in the JTROS, unless otherwise specified.
- Provide that if joint tenancy interests among three or more JTROS were held in unequal shares, upon the death of one joint tenant, the share of the deceased tenant would be divided among the surviving joint tenants according to their respective pro rata interest and not equally, unless otherwise provided in the creating instrument.
- Retroactively recognize past conveyances of unequal ownership interests in a JTROS prior to the effective date of the act, but would require that past distributions in equal amounts from a JTROS that sought to create unequal ownership shares remain valid and not be disturbed.

EFFECTIVE DATE: HB 799 would become effective when it becomes law.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO AMEND THE FUTURE ADVANCES STATUTES BY DISTINGUISHING BETWEEN A FUTURE ADVANCE AND A FUTURE OBLIGATION AND BY MAKING VARIOUS OTHER CHANGES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 45-67 reads as rewritten:

"§ 45-67. ~~Definition.~~ Definitions.

~~As used in this Article,~~ The following definitions apply in this Article:

(1) Advance. – A disbursement of funds or other action that increases the outstanding principal balance owing on an obligation for the payment of money.

(2) ~~"security instrument" means a~~ Security instrument. – A mortgage, deed of trust, or other instrument relating to real property securing an obligation or obligations to a person, firm, or corporation specifically named in such instrument for the payment of money."

SECTION 2. G.S. 45-68 reads as rewritten:

"§ 45-68. Requirements.

A security instrument, otherwise valid, shall secure ~~future obligations which may from time to time be incurred thereunder~~ the following so as to give priority ~~thereto~~ as provided in ~~G.S. 45-70, if:~~ G.S. 45-70:

(1a) Existing obligations identified in the security instrument and all advances made at or prior to the registration of the security instrument.

~~(1)~~(1b) ~~Such security instrument shows:~~ Future advances and future obligations that may from time to time be made or incurred under the security instrument, but only if the security instrument shows all of the following:

a. That ~~it~~ the security instrument is given wholly or partly to secure future advances and/or future obligations ~~which~~ that may be made or incurred ~~thereunder;~~ under the security instrument.

b. The ~~amount of present obligations secured, and the~~ maximum principal ~~amount, including present and future obligations, which~~ amount that may be secured ~~thereby~~ by the security instrument at any one ~~time;~~ time.

c. The period within which ~~such~~ future advances may be made and future obligations may be ~~incurred, which period~~ incurred, which period shall not extend more than ~~15~~ 30 years beyond the date of the security ~~instrument; and~~ instrument or, if the security agreement is not dated, the date the security instrument is registered.

~~(2) At the time of incurring any such future obligations, each obligation is evidenced by a written instrument or notation, signed by the obligor and stipulating that such obligation is secured by such security instrument; provided, however, that this subsection shall apply only if the obligor and obligee have contracted in writing that each future obligation shall be evidenced by a written instrument or notation; and~~

~~(3) At any time a security instrument securing future advances is transferred or assigned by the owner thereof that the amount, date and due date of each note, bond, or other undertaking for the payment of money representing a future obligation secured by such security instrument be noted in writing thereon.~~"

SECTION 3. G.S. 45-69 reads as rewritten:

"§ 45-69. Fluctuation of obligations within maximum amount.

Unless the security instrument provides to the contrary, if the maximum amount secured by the security instrument has not been advanced or if any obligation secured thereby is paid or is reduced by partial payment, further advances may be made and additional ~~obligation~~ obligations secured by the security instrument may be incurred from time to time within the time limit fixed by the security ~~instrument, provided the unpaid balance of principal outstanding shall never exceed the maximum amount authorized pursuant to G.S. 45-68(1)b.~~ instrument. Such further advances and obligations shall be secured to the same extent as original advances and obligations ~~thereunder,~~ under the security instrument, if the provisions of ~~G.S. 45-68(2) and (3)~~ G.S. 45-68 are complied with. However, if at any time the aggregate outstanding principal balance of the obligation or obligations secured by the security instrument exceeds the maximum principal amount that may be secured by the security instrument at any one time, then the excess shall not be secured by the security instrument."

SECTION 4. G.S. 45-70 reads as rewritten:

"§ 45-70. Priority of security instrument.

(a) Any security instrument ~~which~~ that conforms to the requirements of this Article shall, from the time and date of registration thereof, have the same priority to the extent of all future advances and future obligations secured by it, as if all the advances had been made and all the obligations incurred at the time ~~of the execution of the instrument.~~ the security instrument was registered.

(b) Repealed by Session Laws 1989, c. 496, s. 3.

(c) Payments made by the secured creditor for fire and extended coverage insurance, taxes, assessments, or other necessary expenditures for the preservation of the security shall be secured by the security instrument and shall have the same priority as if such payments had been made at the time ~~of the execution of the instrument.~~ the security instrument was registered. The provisions of ~~G.S. 45-68(2) and (3)~~ G.S. 45-68 shall not be applicable to such payments, nor shall such payments or accrued interest be considered in computing the maximum principal amount which may be secured by the instrument.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Article, any security instrument hereafter executed which secures an obligation or obligations of an electric or telephone membership corporation incorporated or domesticated in North Carolina to the United States of America or any of its agencies, or to any other financing institution, or of an electric or gas utility operating in North Carolina, shall from the time and date of registration of said security instrument have the same priority to the extent of all future advances secured by it as if all the advances had been made at the time of the execution of the instrument, regardless of whether the making of such advances is obligatory or whether the security instrument meets the requirements of G.S. 45-68."

SECTION 5. This act applies to all security instruments, whether registered before, after, or on the effective date of this act. Any security instrument registered before the effective date of this act shall be conclusively presumed to comply with the provisions of G.S. 45-68, as enacted by this act, if the security instrument either (i) complies with the provisions of G.S. 45-68, as enacted by this act, or (ii) complied with the provisions of G.S. 45-68 in effect prior to the effective date of this act.

SECTION 6. This act becomes effective October 1, 2009.

HOUSE BILL 1368:
Amend Future Advances Statutes

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	June 10, 2009
Introduced by:	Reps. Love, Stam, Moore, Blue	Prepared by:	Brenda J. Carter
Analysis of:	Second Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 1368 would amend the future advances statutes by distinguishing between a future advance and a future obligation and by making various other changes.

CURRENT LAW: Chapter 45 of the General Statutes deals with mortgages and deeds of trust. Article 7 addresses instruments to secure future advances and future obligations. A security instrument is "a mortgage, deed of trust, or other instrument relating to real property securing an obligation or obligations to a person, firm, or corporation specifically named in such instrument for the payment of money." The current law has provisions including definitions, requirements of the security instrument, and priority of security instruments.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 would define "advance" as "a disbursement of funds or other action that increases the outstanding principal balance owing on an obligation for the payment of money." This would help draw a distinction between an "obligation" (e.g. a note) and an "advance" (e.g. loan proceeds actually disbursed under a note).

Section 2 would rewrite the statute which sets out the requirements for priority of a security instrument. The bill provides that to give priority, a security instrument shall secure:

- existing obligations and advances made at or prior to registration of the security instrument
- future advances and future obligations that may from time to time be made or incurred under the security instrument, provided the security instrument shows specified information including:
    - the maximum principal amount that may be secured at any one time
    - the period within which future advances may be made and future obligations may be incurred.

The bill extends the period within which future advances may be made and future obligations incurred under a security instrument to 30 years (currently 15 years) beyond the date of the security instrument. The bill provides that if the security instrument is not dated, the date the security instrument is registered would be used.

Section 3 would amend the statute which addresses the fluctuation of the amounts secured by a security instrument. The bill would make it clear that further advances and additional obligations may be made under a security instrument within the specified time period and would be secured to the same extent as original advances and obligations under the security instrument. However, if at any time the outstanding principal balance exceeds the maximum principal amount that may be secured by the security instrument at one time, the excess would not be secured by the security instrument.

Section 4 would provide that a security instrument has the same priority to the extent of future obligations and future advances secured by it, as if the advances and obligations had been made or incurred at the time the instrument was registered (not the date it was executed).

Section 5 would make the bill applicable to all security instruments, whether registered before, after, or on the effective date of the bill. It provides that any security instrument registered before the effective date of the bill would be presumed to comply with the provisions of G.S. 45-68, as enacted by the bill, if the security instrument either (i) complies with the provisions of G.S. 45-68, as enacted by the bill, or (ii) complied with the provisions of G.S. 45-68 in effect prior to the effective date of the bill.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This bill would become effective October 1, 2009.

BACKGROUND: Article 7 of Chapter 45 has posed problems for real estate practitioners, title insurance companies, and lenders. The statute currently refers to "future advances" and "future obligations" without defining the terms or distinguishing between them. House Bill 1368 attempts to clarify some of the confusion in Article 7. Article 1, Section 10 of the United States Constitution prohibits states from enacting laws that impair existing contracts. However, it does not appear to prevent laws which would effectuate the intent of the parties.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO RENDER VOID ANY BEQUEST OR DEVISE IN A WILL TO THE ATTORNEY WHO DRAFTED THE WILL UNLESS THE ATTORNEY IS A RELATIVE OF THE TESTATOR, AND TO REQUIRE ATTORNEYS WHO DRAFT A WILL OR CODICIL TO STATE THEIR NAME ON THE DOCUMENT.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Chapter 31 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 31-4.1. Attorneys as beneficiaries.

An attorney who drafts an attested written will, or a codicil to an attested written will, may not be a beneficiary under that will or codicil, regardless of whether the attorney receives compensation for preparing the will or codicil, unless the attorney is a relative of the testator within five degrees of kinship, a present or former spouse of the testator, or a parent, sibling, or child of the testator's present or former spouse. Any bequest or devise to an attorney in violation of this section shall be void. A designation of the attorney in a fiduciary role is neither a bequest nor a devise within the meaning of this section.

An attorney who drafts an attested written will, or a codicil to an attested written will, under which the attorney is a beneficiary, shall attach to the will or codicil an affidavit certifying that the attorney is in compliance with the provisions of this section.

Nothing in this section prevents an attorney from being a beneficiary under a codicil to a will if the codicil was not drafted by that attorney."

SECTION 2. Chapter 31 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 31-4.2. Attorney's name on will or codicil.

An attorney who drafts an attested written will or a codicil to an attested written will must have his or her name and business address affixed to the instrument and indicate that he or she is the drafter."

SECTION 3. This act becomes effective January 1, 2010, and applies to wills and codicils executed on or after that date.

HOUSE BILL 1390:
Wills/Bequests to Drafting Attorney

2009-2010 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	June 10, 2009
Introduced by:	Reps. Mackey, Hall, Mobley, Faison	Prepared by:	Brenda J. Carter Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	Third Edition

SUMMARY: House Bill 1390 would provide that an attorney who drafts an attested written will, or a codicil to an attested written will, may not be a beneficiary under that will, regardless of whether the attorney receives compensation for preparing the will. The bill includes exceptions for attorneys who are relatives of the testator. An attorney who drafts a will or codicil would be required to include on the document the attorney's name and business address.

BILL ANALYSIS: Section 1 would add a new section to Chapter 31 of the General Statutes, Wills. The bill would provide that an attorney who drafts an attested written will, or a codicil to an attested written will, may not be a beneficiary under that will, regardless of whether the attorney receives compensation for preparing the will. The bill includes an exception for attorneys who are relatives of the testator within five degrees of kinship, a present or former spouse of the testator, or a parent, sibling, or child of the testator's present or former spouse. An attorney who drafts a will or codicil in which the attorney is a beneficiary must attach an affidavit certifying that the attorney is in compliance with the law. The bill would void any bequest or devise to an attorney in violation of the law. The bill would not prevent an attorney from being a beneficiary under a codicil to a will if the codicil was not drafted by the attorney. Section 2 an attorney who drafts an attested written will, or a codicil to an attested written will to place his or her name and business address on the instrument, as drafter.

EFFECTIVE DATE: House Bill 1390 would become effective January 1, 2010 and apply to wills and codicils executed on or after that date.

Additional Information:

§ 104A-1. Degrees of kinship; how computed.

In all cases where degrees of kinship are to be computed, the same shall be computed in accordance with the civil law rule, as follows:

(1) The degrees of lineal kinship of two persons is computed by counting one degree for each person in the line of ascent or descent, exclusive of the person from whom the computing begins; and

(2) The degree of collateral kinship of two persons is computed by commencing with one of the persons and ascending from him to a common ancestor, descending from that ancestor to the other person, and counting one degree for each person in the line of ascent and in the line of descent, exclusive of the person from whom the computation begins, the total to represent the degree of such kinship.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO PROVIDE NOTICE OF RIGHT TO SEEK LEGAL COUNSEL AND CLARIFY NOTICE REQUIRED TO PARTIES WHO MAY BE UNKNOWN OR UNLOCATABLE IN A PARTITION PROCEEDING; TO CODIFY THE CURRENT PRACTICE OF GRANTING OWNERS CREDIT FOR THEIR EXISTING INTEREST IN LAND WHEN BIDDING ON A PARTITION SALE; TO PERMIT A COURT TO ORDER AN INDEPENDENT APPRAISAL IF REQUESTED AND PAID FOR BY A PARTY TO THE PARTITION WHO CHALLENGES THE AMOUNT BID IN A PARTITION SALE, AS RECOMMENDED BY THE PARTITION SALES STUDY COMMITTEE.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Article 1 of Chapter 46 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 46-2.1. Summons; notice.

(a) In partition proceedings initiated under this Chapter, the period of time for answering a summons is provided in G.S. 1-394.

(b) Written notice shall be included in the petition in a manner reasonably calculated to make the respondent aware of the following:

(1) That the respondent has the right to seek the advice of an attorney and that free legal services may be available to the respondent by contacting Legal Aid of North Carolina or other legal services organizations.

(2) That pursuant to G.S. 6-21 the court has the authority, in its discretion, to order reasonable attorneys' fees to be paid as a part of the costs of the proceeding."

SECTION 2. G.S. 46-6 reads as rewritten:

"§ 46-6. Unknown or unlocatable parties; ~~summons and~~ summons, notice, and representation.

(a) If, upon the filing of a petition for partition, it be made to appear to the court by affidavit or otherwise that there are any persons interested in the premises whose names are unknown to and cannot after due diligence be ascertained by the petitioner, the court shall order notices to be given to all such persons by a publication of the petition, or of the substance thereof, with the order of the court thereon, in one or more newspapers to be designated in the order.
