"(3) The verification form shall be signed by the person and shall indicate the following:

a. Whether the person still resides at the address last reported to the sheriff. If the person has a different address, then the person shall indicate that fact and the new address.

b. Whether the person still uses or intends to use any online identifiers last reported to the sheriff. If the person has any new or different online identifiers, then the person shall provide those online identifiers to the sheriff.

c. Whether the person still uses or intends to use the name under which the person registered and last reported to the sheriff. If the person has any new or different name, then the person shall provide that name to the sheriff."

SECTION 5. G.S. 14-208.12A(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) Ten years from the date of initial county registration, a person required to register under this Part may petition the superior court ~~in the district where the person resides~~ to terminate the 30-year registration requirement if the person has not been convicted of a subsequent offense requiring registration under this Article.

If the reportable conviction is for an offense that occurred in North Carolina, the petition shall be filed in the district where the person was convicted of the offense.

If the reportable conviction is for an offense that occurred in another state, the petition shall be filed in the district where the person resides. A person who petitions to terminate the registration requirement for a reportable conviction that is an out-of-state offense shall also do the following: (i) provide written notice to the sheriff of the county where the person was convicted that the person is petitioning the court to terminate the registration requirement and (ii) include with the petition at the time of its filing, an affidavit, signed by the petitioner, that verifies that the petitioner has notified the sheriff of the county where the person was convicted of the petition and that provides the mailing address and contact information for that sheriff."

SECTION 6. G.S. 14-208.14(a)(3) reads as rewritten:

"(3) To coordinate efforts among law enforcement agencies and penal institutions to ensure that the registration information, changes of address, change of name, prerelease notifications, and notices of failure to register or to report a change of address are conveyed in an appropriate and timely manner."

SECTION 7. G.S. 14-208.14 is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(4a) To maintain the system for public access so that a registrant's full name, any aliases, and any legal name changes are cross-referenced and a member of the public may conduct a search of the system for a registrant under any of those names."

SECTION 8. G.S. 101-5 reads as rewritten:

"§ 101-5. Clerk to order change; certificate and record.

~~If~~ Except as prohibited by G.S. 101-6(c), if the clerk thinks that good and sufficient reason exists for the change of name, it shall be his duty to issue an order changing the name of the applicant from his true name to the name sought to be adopted. Such order shall contain the true name, the county of birth, the date of birth, the full name of parents as shown on birth certificate, and the name sought to be adopted. He shall issue to the applicant a certificate under his hand and seal of office, stating the change made in the applicant's name, and shall also record said application and order on the docket of special proceedings in his court. He shall forward the order to the State Registrar of Vital Statistics on a form provided by him. If the applicant was born in North Carolina, the State Registrar shall note the change of name of the individual or individuals specified in the order on the birth certificate of that individual or those individuals and shall notify the register of deeds in the county of birth. If the applicant was born in another state of the United States, the State Registrar shall forward the notice of change of name to the registration office of the state of birth."

SECTION 9. Sections 1, 2, 3, 4, 6, and 7 of this act become effective December 1, 2011, and apply to persons whose initial registration under Article 27A of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes occurs on or after December 1, 2011, and to persons who are registered under Article 27 of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes prior to December 1, 2011, and continue to be registered on December 1, 2011. However, any person registered under Article 27 of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes prior to December 1, 2011, and continuing to be registered on December 1, 2011, shall not be in violation of the registration, verification, and reporting requirements regarding a person's name, if the person provides the required information at the first verification of information that occurs on or after December 1, 2011. Section 5 of this act becomes effective December 1, 2011, and applies to petitions filed on or after that date. Section 8 of this act is effective when it becomes law and applies to petitions filed or pending on or after that date. The remainder of this act is effective when it becomes law.

HOUSE PCS 219:
Sex Offender Registry Amendments

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	House Judiciary Subcommittee C, if favorable, Appropriations Subcommittee on Justice and Public Safety	Date:	March 8, 2011
Introduced by:	Reps. T. Moore, Hager, Cook, Pridgen	Prepared by:	Susan Sitze Staff Attorney
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition H219-CSSA-6

SUMMARY: The Proposed Committee Substitute for House Bill 219 makes several changes to the requirements of a sex offender to provide information regarding names used, requires the State to provide public searches by name or alias, and amends the venue for filing a petition to terminate a sex offender registration requirement.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 requires a person required to register as a sex offender to indicate their name at the time of conviction for the offense requiring registration as well as any alias they were using at that time and the name as it appears on the judgment imposing the sentence.

Section 2 and 3 require a person required to register as a sex offender to notify the sheriff within 3 business days of any name change.

Section 4 requires verification of the name being used whenever a person required to register as a sex offender verifies their registration as required by law.

Section 5 changes the location where a petition to terminate a registration requirement is filed. If the person was convicted in North Carolina, the petition should be filed in the district where the person was convicted of the offense. If the offense occurred outside of North Carolina, the petition should be filed in the district where the person resides and requires a person with an out-of-state conviction to also (i) provide written notice of the petition to the sheriff of the county where they were convicted and (ii) include with the petition an affidavit that verifies that they have complied with that notification requirement and provides the mailing address and contact information for that sheriff.

Section 6 makes a conforming change to sections 1-4.

Section 7 requires the Division of Criminal Statistics to maintain the public access so that the public may search the sex offender registration system under the registrant's full name, any aliases, and any legal name changes and that all are cross-referenced.

Section 8 amends G.S. 101-5 to clarify that if a person is a registered sex offender, and therefore ineligible to have their name changed under Chapter 101 of the General Statutes, that the clerk of court has no duty to issue a name change order.

EFFECTIVE DATE: Sections 1, 2, 3, 4, 6, and 7 of this act become effective December 1, 2011, and apply to persons whose initial registration under Article 27A of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes occurs on or after December 1, 2011, and to persons who are registered under Article 27 of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes prior to December 1, 2011, and continue to be registered on December 1, 2011. However, any person registered under Article 27 of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes prior to December 1, 2011, and continuing to be registered on December 1, 2011, shall not be in violation of the registration, verification, and reporting requirements regarding a person's name, if the person provides the required information at the first verification of information that occurs on or after December 1, 2011. Section 5 of this act becomes effective December 1, 2011, and applies to petitions filed on or after that date. Section 8 of this act is effective when it becomes law and applies to petitions filed or pending on or after that date. The remainder of this act is effective when it becomes law.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR AN EXPANSION OF RIGHTS UNDER EXISTING LAW REGARDING GRANDPARENT VISITATION.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 50-13.2(b1) reads as rewritten:

"(b1) An order for custody of a minor child may provide visitation rights for any grandparent of the child as the court, in its discretion, deems appropriate. ~~As used in this subsection, "grandparent" includes a biological grandparent of a child adopted by a stepparent or a relative of the child where a substantial relationship exists between the grandparent and the child.~~ Under no circumstances shall a biological grandparent of a child adopted by adoptive parents, neither of whom is related to the child and where parental rights of both biological parents have been terminated, be entitled to visitation rights."

SECTION 2. G.S. 50-13.2A reads as rewritten:

"§ 50-13.2A. Action for visitation ~~of an adopted grandchild.~~by grandparent.

(a) A biological grandparent may institute an action or proceeding for visitation rights with a ~~child adopted by a stepparent or a relative of the child where a substantial relationship exists between the grandparent and the child.~~child under the provisions of this section. Under no circumstances shall a biological grandparent of a child adopted by adoptive parents, neither of whom is related to the child and where parental rights of both biological parents have been terminated, be entitled to visitation rights.

(b) The court shall determine grandparent visitation rights on a case-by-case basis. In awarding grandparent visitation, the court may determine the time, place, and circumstances of visitation. For purposes of this section, visitation shall not include custody. A court may award visitation rights only if it determines that visitation is in the best interest of the child. An order awarding visitation rights shall contain findings of fact ~~which~~ that support the determination by the judge of the best interest of the child. In determining the best interest of the child, the court shall consider each the following:

(1) Whether there is a preexisting relationship between the grandparent and the child, or the willingness of the grandparent to encourage a close relationship between the child and the parent.

(2) The willingness of the child to develop a relationship with the grandparent, if the court determines that the child is of sufficient maturity to make that decision.

(3) The reasonableness or lack of reasonableness of the custodial parent in allowing, restricting, or denying visitation to the grandparent in the past.

(4) The mental and physical health of the child.
(5) The mental and physical health of the grandparent.
(6) Whether the circumstances and amount of visitation will substantially interfere with the right of the parent to exercise his or her parental authority.
(7) Any other relevant factors the court deems necessary in determining the best interest of the child.

There is a rebuttable presumption that visitation by a grandparent is not in the best interest of the child if the child's biological parents agree that the grandparent should not be awarded visitation rights. Procedure, venue, and jurisdiction shall be the same as in an action for custody."

SECTION 3. G.S. 50-13.5(j) reads as rewritten:

"(j) Custody and Visitation Rights of Grandparents. – In any action in which the custody of a minor child has been determined, upon a motion in the cause and a showing of changed circumstances pursuant to G.S. 50-13.7, the grandparents of the child are entitled to such custody or visitation rights as the court, in its discretion, deems appropriate. ~~As used in this subsection, "grandparent" includes a biological grandparent of a child adopted by a stepparent or a relative of the child where a substantial relationship exists between the grandparent and the child.~~ Under no circumstances shall a biological grandparent of a child adopted by adoptive parents, neither of whom is related to the child and where parental rights of both biological parents have been terminated, be entitled to visitation rights."

SECTION 4. This act is effective when it becomes law and applies to actions for visitation rights commenced on or after that date.

HOUSE BILL 239:
Grandparents' Visitation Rights

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	House Judiciary Subcommittee C	Date:	March 23, 2011
Introduced by:	Reps. Brisson, Howard, Hurley	Prepared by:	Wendy Graf Ray
Analysis of:	First Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 239 would expand the right of grandparents to seek visitation with their grandchildren as follows:

- A biological grandparent would be able to institute an action for visitation rights with a child.
- The court would be able to award visitation with the grandparent if it determines it is in the best interest of the child after considering a list of factors.
- There would be a rebuttable presumption that visitation is not in the child's best interest if the biological parents agree that the grandparent should not be awarded visitation rights.

CURRENT LAW: North Carolina law currently allows a grandparent to maintain an action for visitation of a minor child under limited circumstances. If the grandparent does not have standing under one of the following statutes, no action may be brought in court and no visitation order may be entered:

G.S. 50-13.2(b1) permits grandparents to intervene in an ongoing custody dispute and request visitation with the minor child. A grandparent may not initiate an action under this statute unless the question of custody is already before the court.

G.S. 50-13.5(j) permits a grandparent to petition for visitation, where custody has previously been determined, upon a showing of changed circumstances. The burden would be on the grandparent to show the court that there had been a change of circumstances since the original custody order was entered and that the requested visitation would now be in the child's best interest.

G.S. 50-13.2A permits a biological grandparent to petition for visitation where the minor child has been adopted by a step-parent or relative of the child and a substantial relationship exists between the grandparent and the child. Again, it is only under these specific circumstances that the grandparent would even have standing to bring an action before the court.

G.S. 50-13.1(a) permits "any parent, relative, or other person, agency, organization or institution claiming the right to custody of a minor child [to] institute an action or proceeding for the custody of such child," and custody is defined as custody or visitation or both. On its face, it may seem that the statute gives grandparents, along with many others, standing to seek visitation under any circumstances. However, the courts have not interpreted it that way. In McIntyre v. McIntyre, 341 NC 629, 633, 461 S.E.2d 745, 748-49 (1995), the NC Supreme Court held that grandparents do not have standing, under G.S. 50-13.1(a), to seek visitation with their grandchildren when there is no ongoing custody proceeding and the grandchild's family is intact. North Carolina Courts have consistently given North Carolina's nonparental visitation statutes a narrow reading. It should also be noted that NC courts have held that an "intact family" is not limited to situations where both natural parents are living with their children.

If a grandparent does have standing under any of these statutes, then he or she may petition the court for visitation. Once the case is before the court, the judge must look to the best interests of the child in making a determination, and the grandparent has the burden of proving to the judge that visitation is in the best interest of the child.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 239 would amend the law to allow a biological grandparent to institute an action for visitation rights with a child. The court would be able to award visitation rights only if it determines that visitation is in the child's best interest after considering all of the following factors:

- Whether there is a preexisting relationship between the grandparent and child, or willingness of the grandparent to encourage a close relationship between parent and child.
- Willingness of the child to develop a relationship with the grandparent, if the child is mature enough to decide.
- The reasonableness of the parent in allowing, restricting, or denying visitation.
- Mental and physical health of the child.
- Mental and physical health of the grandparent.
- Whether visitation will substantially interfere with parental authority.
- Any other relevant factors.

There would be a rebuttable presumption that visitation is not in the child's best interest if the child's biological parents agree that the grandparent should not be awarded visitation.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The act would be effective when it becomes law, and would apply to actions for visitation commenced on or after that date.

BACKGROUND: The U.S. Supreme Court has long held that parents have a fundamental constitutional right to make decisions concerning the care, custody and control of their children, including decisions regarding with whom they may associate, and there is a presumption that fit parents act in the best interest of their children. In the 2000 case of Troxel v. Granville, 120 S.Ct. 2054, the U.S. Supreme Court affirmed a Washington State Supreme Court ruling that found the state's third-party visitation statute to be invalid. The Court found that Washington's statute was too broad and infringed on the parental right of autonomy in child rearing. Since this decision many state courts have reexamined their states' third-party visitation laws and are using the Supreme Court's ruling as a guideline. Courts and legislatures dealing with this issue have focused on providing a narrow standard for who has standing to petition for visitation and adhering to the Supreme Court's affirmation of a fit parent's constitutional right to determine what is best for his or her child.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT AMENDING THE JUVENILE CODE UNDER THE LAWS PERTAINING TO ABUSE, NEGLECT, AND DEPENDENCY.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 7B-200(a) is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(a) The court has exclusive, original jurisdiction over any case involving a juvenile who is alleged to be abused, neglected, or dependent. This jurisdiction does not extend to cases involving adult defendants alleged to be guilty of abuse or neglect.

The court also has exclusive original jurisdiction of the following proceedings:

(4a) Proceedings for reinstatement of parental rights.

SECTION 2. G.S. 7B-503(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) When a request is made for nonsecure custody, the court shall first consider release of the juvenile to the juvenile's parent, relative, guardian, custodian, or other responsible adult. An order for nonsecure custody shall be made only when there is a reasonable factual basis to believe the matters alleged in the petition are true, and any of the following apply:

(1) The juvenile has been ~~abandoned; or~~ abandoned.

(2) The juvenile has suffered physical injury or sexual ~~abuse; or~~ abuse.

(3) The juvenile is exposed to a substantial risk of physical injury or sexual abuse because the parent, guardian, custodian, or caretaker has created the conditions likely to cause injury or abuse or has failed to provide, or is unable to provide, adequate supervision or ~~protection; or~~ protection.

(4) The juvenile is in need of medical treatment to cure, alleviate, or prevent suffering serious physical harm which may result in death, disfigurement, or substantial impairment of bodily functions, and the juvenile's parent, guardian, custodian, or caretaker is unwilling or unable to provide or consent to the medical ~~treatment; or~~ treatment.

(5) The parent, guardian, custodian, or caretaker consents to the nonsecure custody ~~order; or~~ order.

(6) The juvenile is a runaway and consents to nonsecure custody.

A juvenile alleged to be abused, neglected, or dependent shall be placed in nonsecure custody only when there is a reasonable factual basis to believe that there are no other reasonable means available to protect the juvenile. In no case shall a juvenile alleged to be abused, neglected, or dependent be placed in secure custody."

SECTION 3. G.S. 7B-507 reads as rewritten:

"§ 7B-507. Reasonable efforts.

(a) An order placing or continuing the placement of a juvenile in the custody or placement responsibility of a county department of social services, whether an order for continued nonsecure custody, a dispositional order, or a review order:

...

(4) Shall specify that the juvenile's placement and care are the responsibility of the county department of social services and that the ~~agency~~ department is to provide or arrange for the foster care or other placement of the ~~juvenile; and~~juvenile. After considering the department's recommendations, the court may order a specific placement the court finds to be in the juvenile's best interest; and

...

A finding that reasonable efforts have not been made by a county department of social services shall not preclude the entry of an order authorizing the juvenile's placement when the court finds that placement is necessary for the protection of the juvenile. Where efforts to prevent the need for the juvenile's placement were precluded by an immediate threat of harm to the juvenile, the court may find that the placement of the juvenile in the absence of such efforts was reasonable.

(c) ~~At any hearing at which the court finds that reasonable efforts to eliminate the need for the juvenile's placement are not required or shall cease, the court shall direct that a permanency planning hearing as required by G.S. 7B-907 be held within 30 calendar days after the date of the hearing and, if practicable, shall set the date and time for the permanency planning hearing. At any hearing at which the court finds and orders that reasonable efforts to reunify a family shall cease, the affected parent, guardian, or custodian or that parent, guardian, or custodian's counsel may give notice to preserve the parent, guardian, or custodian's right to appeal the finding and order in accordance with G.S. 7B-1001(a)(5). Notice may be given in open court or in writing within 10 days of the hearing at which the court orders the efforts to reunify the family to cease. The party giving notice shall be permitted to make a detailed offer of proof as to any evidence that person sought to offer in opposition to cessation of reunification that the court refused to admit as evidence or to consider.~~When the court determines that reunification efforts are not required or shall cease, the court shall order a plan for permanence as soon as possible, after providing each party with a reasonable opportunity to prepare and present evidence. If the court's determination to cease reunification efforts is made in a hearing that was duly and timely noticed as a permanency planning hearing, then the court may immediately proceed to consider all of the criteria contained in G.S. 7B-907(b), make findings of fact, and set forth the best plan of care to achieve a safe, permanent home within a reasonable period of time. If the court's decision to cease reunification efforts arises in any other hearing, the court shall schedule a subsequent hearing within 30 days to address the permanent plan in accordance with G.S. 7B-907. At any hearing at which the court orders that reunification efforts shall cease, the affected parent, guardian, or custodian may give notice to preserve the right to appeal that order in accordance with G.S. 7B-1001. The party giving notice shall be permitted to make a detailed offer of proof as to any evidence that party sought to offer in opposition to cessation of reunification that the court refused to admit.

SECTION 4. G.S. 7B-600(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) In any case where the court has determined that the appointment of a relative or other suitable person as guardian of the person for a juvenile is in the best interest of the juvenile and has also made findings in accordance with G.S. 7B-907 that guardianship is the permanent plan for the ~~juvenile,~~juvenile and the guardian is a party to the proceeding, the court may not terminate the guardianship or order that the juvenile be reintegrated into a parent's home unless the court finds that the relationship between the guardian and the juvenile is no longer in the juvenile's best interest, that the guardian is unfit, that the guardian has neglected a guardian's duties, or that the guardian is unwilling or unable to continue assuming a guardian's duties. If a party files a motion or petition under G.S. 7B-906 or G.S. 7B-1000, the court may, prior to conducting a review hearing, do one or more of the following:

(2) Utilize the community resources in behavioral sciences and other professions in the investigation and study of the guardian.

(3) Ensure that a guardian ad litem has been appointed for the juvenile in accordance with G.S. 7B-601 and has been notified of the pending motion or petition.

(4) Take any other action necessary in order to make a determination in a particular case."

SECTION 5. G.S. 7B-801 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(b1) Nothing in this Subchapter precludes the court in an abuse, neglect, or dependency proceeding from entering a consent adjudication order, disposition order, review order, or permanency planning order when each of the following apply:

(1) All parties are present or represented by counsel, who is present and authorized to consent.

(2) The juvenile is represented by counsel.

(3) The court makes sufficient findings of fact."

SECTION 6. G.S. 7B-807(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) If the court finds from the evidence, including stipulations by a party, that the allegations in the petition have been proven by clear and convincing evidence, the court shall so state. Any stipulations by a party to specific adjudicatory facts shall be in writing and signed by that party. If the court finds that the allegations have not been proven, the court shall dismiss the petition with prejudice, and if the juvenile is in nonsecure custody, the juvenile shall be released to the parent, guardian, custodian, or caretaker."

SECTION 7. G.S. 7B-901 reads as rewritten:

"§ 7B-901. Dispositional hearing.

The dispositional hearing shall take place immediately following the adjudicatory hearing and shall be concluded within 30 days of the conclusion of the adjudicatory hearing. The dispositional hearing may be informal and the court may consider written reports or other evidence concerning the needs of the juvenile. The juvenile and the juvenile's parent, guardian, or custodian shall have the right to present evidence, and they may advise the court concerning the disposition they believe to be in the best interests of the juvenile. The court may consider any evidence, including hearsay evidence as defined in G.S. 8C-1, Rule 801, that the court finds to be relevant, reliable, and necessary to determine the needs of the juvenile and the most appropriate disposition. The court may exclude the public from the hearing unless the juvenile moves that the hearing be open, which motion shall be granted.

At the dispositional hearing, the court shall inquire as to the identity and location of any missing parent and whether paternity is at issue. The court shall include findings of the efforts undertaken to locate the missing parent and to serve that parent and efforts undertaken to establish paternity when paternity is an issue. The order may provide for specific efforts in determining the identity and location of any missing parent and specific efforts in establishing

"§ 7B-1112. Effects of termination order.

An order terminating the parental rights completely and permanently terminates all rights and obligations of the parent to the juvenile and of the juvenile to the parent arising from the parental relationship, except that the juvenile's right of inheritance from the juvenile's parent shall not terminate until a final order of adoption is issued. The parent is not thereafter entitled to notice of proceedings to adopt the juvenile and may not object thereto or otherwise participate therein:

(1) If the juvenile had been placed in the custody of or released for adoption by one parent to a county department of social services or licensed child-placing agency and is in the custody of the agency at the time of the filing of the petition or motion, including a petition or motion filed pursuant to G.S. 7B-1103(6), that agency shall, upon entry of the order terminating parental rights, acquire all of the rights for placement of the ~~juvenile~~ juvenile, except as otherwise provided in G.S. 7B-908(d), as the agency would have acquired had the parent whose rights are terminated released the juvenile to that agency pursuant to the provisions of Part 7 of Article 3 of Chapter 48 of the General Statutes, including the right to consent to the adoption of the juvenile.

SECTION 18. Article 11 of Chapter 7B of the General Statutes is amended by adding the following new sections to read:

"§ 7B-1112.1. Selection of adoptive parents.

The process of selection of specific adoptive parents shall be the responsibility of and within the discretion of the county department of social services or licensed child-placing agency. The guardian ad litem may request information from and consult with the county department or child-placing agency concerning the selection process. If the guardian ad litem requests information about the selection process, the county shall provide the information within five business days. The county department of social services shall notify the guardian ad litem of the selection of prospective adoptive parents within 10 days of the selection and before the filing of the adoption petition. If the guardian ad litem disagrees with the selection of adoptive parents, the guardian ad litem shall file a motion within 10 days of the department's notification and schedule the case for hearing on the next juvenile calendar. The department shall not change the juvenile's placement to the prospective adoptive parents unless the time period for filing a motion has expired and no motion has been filed. In hearing the motion, the court shall consider the recommendations of the agency and the guardian ad litem and other facts related to the selection of adoptive parents. The court shall then determine whether the proposed adoptive placement is in the juvenile's best interests.

"§ 7B-1114. Reinstatement of parental rights.

(a) A juvenile whose parent's rights have been terminated pursuant to this Article, the guardian ad litem attorney, or a county department of social services with custody of the juvenile may file a motion to reinstate the parent's rights if all of the following conditions are satisfied:

(1) The juvenile is at least 12 years of age or, if the juvenile is younger than 12, the motion alleges extraordinary circumstances requiring consideration of the motion.

(2) The juvenile does not have a legal parent, is not in an adoptive placement, and is not likely to be adopted within a reasonable period of time.

(3) The order terminating parental rights was entered at least three years before the filing of the motion, unless the court has found or the juvenile's attorney advocate and the county department of social services with custody of the juvenile stipulate that the juvenile's permanent plan is no longer adoption.

(b) If a motion could be filed under subsection (a) of this section and the parent whose rights have been terminated contacts the county department of social services with custody of the juvenile or the juvenile's guardian ad litem regarding reinstatement of the parent's rights, the department or the guardian ad litem shall notify the juvenile that the juvenile has a right to file a motion for reinstatement of parental rights.

(c) If a motion to reinstate parental rights is filed and the juvenile does not have a guardian ad litem appointed pursuant to G.S. 7B-601, the court shall appoint a guardian ad litem to represent the best interests of the juvenile. The appointment, duties, and payment of the guardian ad litem and the guardian ad litem attorney shall be the same as in G.S. 7B-601 and G.S. 7B-603.

(d) The party filing a motion to reinstate parental rights shall serve the motion on each of the following who is not the movant:

(1) The juvenile.

(2) The juvenile's guardian ad litem or the guardian ad litem attorney.

(3) The county department of social services with custody of the juvenile.

(4) The former parent whose rights the motion seeks to have reinstated.

A former parent who is served under this subsection is not a party to the proceeding and is not entitled to appointed counsel but may retain counsel at the former parent's own expense.

(e) The movant shall ask the clerk to calendar the case for a preliminary hearing on the motion for reinstatement of parental rights within 60 days of the filing of the motion at a session of court scheduled for the hearing of juvenile matters. The movant shall give at least 15 days' notice of the hearing and state its purpose to the persons listed in subdivisions (d)(1) through (d)(4) of this section. In addition, the movant shall send a notice of the hearing to the juvenile's placement provider. Nothing in this section shall be construed to make the former parent or the juvenile's placement provider a party to the proceeding based solely on being served with the motion or receiving notice and the right to be heard.

(f) At least seven days before the preliminary hearing, the department of social services and the juvenile's guardian ad litem shall provide to the court, the other parties, and the former parent reports that address the factors specified in subsection (g) of this section.

(g) At the preliminary hearing and any subsequent hearing on the motion, the court shall consider information from the county department of social services with custody of the juvenile, the juvenile, the juvenile's guardian ad litem, the juvenile's former parent whose parental rights are the subject of the motion, the juvenile's placement provider, and any other person or agency that may aid the court in its review. The court may consider any evidence, including hearsay evidence as defined in G.S. 8C-1, Rule 801, that the court finds to be relevant, reliable, and necessary to determine the needs of the juvenile and whether reinstatement is in the juvenile's best interest. The court shall consider the following criteria and make written findings regarding the following that are relevant:

(1) What efforts were made to achieve adoption or a permanent guardianship.

(2) Whether the parent whose rights the motion seeks to have reinstated has remedied the conditions that led to the juvenile's removal and termination of the parent's rights.

(3) Whether the juvenile would receive proper care and supervision in a safe home if placed with the parent.

(4) The age and maturity of the child and the ability of the child to express the child's preference.

(5) The parent's willingness to resume contact with the juvenile and to have parental rights reinstated.

(6) The juvenile's willingness to resume contact with the parent and to have parental rights reinstated.

(7) Services that would be needed by the juvenile and the parent if the parent's rights were reinstated.

(8) Any other criteria the court deems necessary.

(h) At the conclusion of the preliminary hearing, the court shall either dismiss the motion or order that the juvenile's permanent plan become reinstatement of parental rights. If the court does not dismiss the motion, the court shall conduct interim hearings at least every six months until the motion is granted or dismissed. Interim hearings may be combined with posttermination of parental rights review hearings required by G.S. 7B-908. At each interim hearing, the court shall assess whether the plan of reinstatement of parental rights continues to be in the juvenile's best interest and whether the department of social services has made reasonable efforts to achieve the permanent plan.

(i) At any hearing under this section, after making proper findings of fact and conclusions of law, the court may do one of the following:

(1) Enter an order for visitation in accordance with G.S. 7B-905(c).

(2) Order that the juvenile be placed in the former parent's home and supervised by the department of social services either directly or, when the former parent lives in a different county, through coordination with the county department of social services in that county, or by other personnel as may be available to the court, subject to conditions applicable to the former parent as the court may specify. Any order authorizing placement with the former parent shall specify that the juvenile's placement and care remain the responsibility of the county department of social services with custody of the juvenile and that the department is to provide or arrange for the placement of the juvenile.

(j) The court shall either dismiss or grant a motion for reinstatement of parental rights within 12 months from the date the motion was filed, unless the court makes written findings why a final determination cannot be made within that time. If the court makes such findings, the court shall specify the time frame in which a final order shall be entered.

(k) An order reinstating parental rights restores all rights, powers, privileges, immunities, duties, and obligations of the parent as to the juvenile, including those relating to custody, control, and support of the juvenile. If a parent's rights are reinstated, the court shall be relieved of the duty to conduct periodic reviews.

(l) An order shall be entered no later than 30 days following the completion of any hearing pursuant to this section. If the order is not entered within 30 days following completion of the hearing, the clerk of court for juvenile matters shall schedule a subsequent hearing at the first session of court scheduled for the hearing of juvenile matters following the 30-day period to determine and explain the reason for the delay and to obtain any needed clarification as to the contents of the order. The order shall be entered within 10 days of the subsequent hearing required by this subsection.

(m) The granting of a motion for reinstatement of parental rights does not vacate or otherwise affect the validity of the original order terminating parental rights.

(n) A parent whose rights are reinstated pursuant to this section is not liable for child support or the costs of any services provided to the juvenile for the period from the date of the order terminating the parent's rights to the date of the order reinstating the parent's rights."

SECTION 19. This act becomes effective October 1, 2011, and applies to actions filed or pending on or after that date.

HOUSE BILL 382:
Juvenile Code Revisions.-AB

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	House Judiciary Subcommittee C	Date:	March 30, 2011
Introduced by:	Reps. Jordan, Glazier, Randleman, Stevens	Prepared by:	Wendy Graf Ray
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition H382-CSSU-9		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 382 amends the North Carolina Juvenile Code as it pertains to abuse, neglect, and dependency, as recommended by the Juvenile Code Revision Subcommittee of the North Carolina Court Improvement Project.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 382 would amend Chapter 7B (Juvenile Code) of the General Statutes as follows:

Section 1 specifies that the court has jurisdiction over proceedings for reinstatement of parental rights.

Section 2 provides that the suffering of serious emotional damage by a juvenile is grounds for nonsecure custody.

Section 3 provides that the court may order a placement after consideration of the department's recommendations if it is in the child's best interest.

Section 4 specifies that a court-appointed guardian becomes a party to the juvenile proceeding when a permanent plan of guardianship is implemented.

Section 5 creates a new section providing for the entering of consent orders at adjudication, disposition, review or permanency planning hearings when parties are present, the juvenile is represented by counsel, and the court makes sufficient findings of fact. Section 8 of the bill repeals a similar stand alone section regarding consent orders.

Section 6 codifies the common practice of allowing the court to accept stipulations of fact for adjudication.

Section 7 requires the court to inquire about missing parents and paternity at the dispositional hearing.

Section 9 makes a conforming change to G.S. 7B-905(a) to provide for a subsequent hearing following a dispositional order if the order is not timely entered within the 30 day statutory time frame.

Section 10 requires the court to make specific findings of fact regarding certain considerations at post termination of parental rights review hearing, including whether the current placement is in the juvenile's best interest. This section also gives the court discretion about placement when a child has not been placed with prospective adoptive parents.

Section 11 amends statutes to conform to the Rules of Appellate Practice and for consistency of entering notice of appeal.

Section 12 allows the court to order the petitioner to make a diligent search for an unknown parent instead of the court appointing a guardian ad litem for an unknown parent to inquire about the parent's identity.

Section 13 specifies that it is the petitioner in a termination of parental rights proceeding, not the clerk, who sends out the notice of hearing.

Section 14 clarifies that only a district court judge, not a clerk, may give a respondent an extension of time to answer a termination of parental rights petition or motion.

Section 15 specifies that the rules of evidence apply to terminations of parental rights in accordance with case law.

Section 16 specifies that the rules of evidence are relaxed at the best interest determination of a termination of parental rights proceeding, allowing the court to consider any evidence, including hearsay evidence, that the court finds to be relevant, reliable, and necessary. The language is consistent with the rules for all dispositional juvenile hearings. This section also requires the court to make written findings of relevant criteria.

Section 17 conforms G.S. 7B-1112 to reflect changes made in Section 10.

Section 18 provides an avenue for the court to reinstate parental rights in certain situations: when a juvenile is over 12; the juvenile has not been adopted or the adoption has disrupted; and the order terminating parental rights was entered at least three years prior, unless there is a stipulation that adoption is no longer the juvenile's permanent plan. Only the juvenile, the guardian ad litem attorney, or the department of social services may file the motion. Biological parents would not have standing to file the motion since their rights have been terminated. This section provides for interim hearings, trial placements, and other measures to determine whether reinstatement is appropriate.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The bill is effective October 1, 2011, and applies to actions filed or pending on or after that date.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT amending the juvenile code under the laws pertaining to abuse, neglect, and dependency.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 7B-200(a) is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(a) The court has exclusive, original jurisdiction over any case involving a juvenile who is alleged to be abused, neglected, or dependent. This jurisdiction does not extend to cases involving adult defendants alleged to be guilty of abuse or neglect.

The court also has exclusive original jurisdiction of the following proceedings:

(4a) Proceedings for reinstatement of parental rights.

SECTION 2. G.S. 7B-503(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) When a request is made for nonsecure custody, the court shall first consider release of the juvenile to the juvenile's parent, relative, guardian, custodian, or other responsible adult. An order for nonsecure custody shall be made only when there is a reasonable factual basis to believe the matters alleged in the petition are true, and

...

(2) The juvenile has suffered physical ~~injury or~~injury, sexual ~~abuse; or~~abuse, or serious emotional damage as defined by G.S. 7B-101(1)e. or

...

A juvenile alleged to be abused, neglected, or dependent shall be placed in nonsecure custody only when there is a reasonable factual basis to believe that there are no other reasonable means available to protect the juvenile. In no case shall a juvenile alleged to be abused, neglected, or dependent be placed in secure custody."

SECTION 3. G.S. 7B-507 reads as rewritten:

"§ 7B-507. Reasonable efforts.

(a) An order placing or continuing the placement of a juvenile in the custody or placement responsibility of a county department of social services, whether an order for continued nonsecure custody, a dispositional order, or a review order:

(4) Shall specify that the juvenile's placement and care are the responsibility of the county department of social services and that the ~~agency~~ department is to provide or arrange for the foster care or other placement of the ~~juvenile; and~~juvenile. After considering the department's recommendations, the court may order a specific placement the court finds to be in the juvenile's best interest; and

A finding that reasonable efforts have not been made by a county department of social services shall not preclude the entry of an order authorizing the juvenile's placement when the court finds that placement is necessary for the protection of the juvenile. Where efforts to prevent the need for the juvenile's placement were precluded by an immediate threat of harm to the juvenile, the court may find that the placement of the juvenile in the absence of such efforts was reasonable.

(c) ~~At any hearing at which the court finds that reasonable efforts to eliminate the need for the juvenile's placement are not required or shall cease, the court shall direct that a permanency planning hearing as required by G.S. 7B-907 be held within 30 calendar days after the date of the hearing and, if practicable, shall set the date and time for the permanency planning hearing. At any hearing at which the court finds and orders that reasonable efforts to reunify a family shall cease, the affected parent, guardian, or custodian or that parent, guardian, or custodian's counsel may give notice to preserve the parent, guardian, or custodian's right to appeal the finding and order in accordance with G.S. 7B-1001(a)(5). Notice may be given in open court or in writing within 10 days of the hearing at which the court orders the efforts to reunify the family to cease. The party giving notice shall be permitted to make a detailed offer of proof as to any evidence that person sought to offer in opposition to cessation of reunification that the court refused to admit as evidence or to consider.~~When the court determines that reunification efforts are not required or shall cease, the court shall order a plan for permanence as soon as possible, after providing each party with a reasonable opportunity to prepare and present evidence. If the court's determination to cease reunification efforts is made in a hearing that was duly and timely noticed as a permanency planning hearing, then the court may immediately proceed to consider all of the criteria contained in G.S. 7B-907(b), make findings of fact, and set forth the best plan of care to achieve a safe, permanent home within a reasonable period of time. If the court's decision to cease reunification efforts arises in any other hearing, the court shall schedule a subsequent hearing within 30 days to address the permanent plan in accordance with G.S. 7B-907. At any hearing at which the court orders that reunification efforts shall cease, the affected parent, guardian, or custodian may give notice to preserve the right to appeal that order in accordance with G.S. 7B-1001. The party giving notice shall be permitted to make a detailed offer of proof as to any evidence that party sought to offer in opposition to cessation of reunification that the court refused to admit.

SECTION 4. G.S. 7B-600(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) In any case where the court has determined that the appointment of a relative or other suitable person as guardian of the person for a juvenile is in the best interest of the juvenile and has also made findings in accordance with G.S. 7B-907 that guardianship is the permanent plan for the ~~juvenile,~~juvenile and the guardian is a party to the proceeding, the court may not terminate the guardianship or order that the juvenile be reintegrated into a parent's home unless the court finds that the relationship between the guardian and the juvenile is no longer in the juvenile's best interest, that the guardian is unfit, that the guardian has neglected a guardian's duties, or that the guardian is unwilling or unable to continue assuming a guardian's duties. If a party files a motion or petition under G.S. 7B-906 or G.S. 7B-1000, the court may, prior to conducting a review hearing, do one or more of the following:

(1) Order the county department of social services to conduct an investigation and file a written report of the investigation regarding the performance of the guardian of the person of the juvenile and give testimony concerning its investigation.

(2) Utilize the community resources in behavioral sciences and other professions in the investigation and study of the guardian.

(3) Ensure that a guardian ad litem has been appointed for the juvenile in accordance with G.S. 7B-601 and has been notified of the pending motion or petition.

(4) Take any other action necessary in order to make a determination in a particular case."

SECTION 5. G.S. 7B-801 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(b1) Nothing in this Subchapter precludes the court in an abuse, neglect, or dependency proceeding from entering a consent adjudication order, disposition order, review order, or permanency planning order when each of the following apply:

(1) All parties are present or represented by counsel, who is present and authorized to consent.

(2) The juvenile is represented by counsel.

(3) The court makes sufficient findings of fact."

SECTION 6. G.S. 7B-807(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) If the court finds from the evidence, including stipulations by a party, that the allegations in the petition have been proven by clear and convincing evidence, the court shall so state. Any stipulations by a party to specific adjudicatory facts shall be in writing and signed by that party. If the court finds that the allegations have not been proven, the court shall dismiss the petition with prejudice, and if the juvenile is in nonsecure custody, the juvenile shall be released to the parent, guardian, custodian, or caretaker."

SECTION 7. G.S. 7B-901 reads as rewritten:

"§ 7B-901. Dispositional hearing.

The dispositional hearing shall take place immediately following the adjudicatory hearing and shall be concluded within 30 days of the conclusion of the adjudicatory hearing. The dispositional hearing may be informal and the court may consider written reports or other evidence concerning the needs of the juvenile. The juvenile and the juvenile's parent, guardian, or custodian shall have the right to present evidence, and they may advise the court concerning the disposition they believe to be in the best interests of the juvenile. The court may consider any evidence, including hearsay evidence as defined in G.S. 8C-1, Rule 801, that the court finds to be relevant, reliable, and necessary to determine the needs of the juvenile and the most appropriate disposition. The court may exclude the public from the hearing unless the juvenile moves that the hearing be open, which motion shall be granted.

At the dispositional hearing, the court shall inquire as to the identity and location of any missing parent and whether paternity is at issue. The court shall include findings of the efforts undertaken to locate the missing parent and to serve that parent and efforts undertaken to establish paternity when paternity is an issue. The order may provide for specific efforts in determining the identity and location of any missing parent and specific efforts in establishing paternity. The court shall also inquire about efforts made to identify and notify relatives as potential resources for placement or support."

SECTION 8. G.S. 7B-902 is repealed.

SECTION 9. G.S. 7B-905(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) The dispositional order shall be in writing, signed, and entered no later than 30 days from the completion of the hearing, and shall contain appropriate findings of fact and conclusions of law. The court shall state with particularity, both orally and in the written order of disposition, the precise terms of the disposition including the kind, duration, and the person who is responsible for carrying out the disposition and the person or agency in whom custody is vested. If the order is not entered within 30 days following completion of the hearing, the clerk of court for juvenile matters shall schedule a subsequent hearing at the first session of court scheduled for the hearing of juvenile matters following the 30-day period to determine and explain the reason for the delay and to obtain any needed clarification as to the contents of the order. The order shall be entered within 10 days of the subsequent hearing required by this subsection."

(e) If the juvenile is the subject of a decree of adoption prior to the date scheduled for the review, within 10 days of receiving notice that the adoption decree has been entered, the department of social services shall file with the court and serve on any guardian ad litem for the juvenile written notice of the entry. The adoption decree shall not be filed in the court file. The review hearing shall be cancelled with notice of said cancellation given by the clerk to all persons previously notified.

SECTION 17. G.S. 7B-1112(1) reads as rewritten:

"§ 7B-112. Effects of termination order.

An order terminating the parental rights completely and permanently terminates all rights and obligations of the parent to the juvenile and of the juvenile to the parent arising from the parental relationship, except that the juvenile's right of inheritance from the juvenile's parent shall not terminate until a final order of adoption is issued. The parent is not thereafter entitled to notice of proceedings to adopt the juvenile and may not object thereto or otherwise participate therein:

(1) If the juvenile had been placed in the custody of or released for adoption by one parent to a county department of social services or licensed child-placing agency and is in the custody of the agency at the time of the filing of the petition or motion, including a petition or motion filed pursuant to G.S. 7B-1103(6), that agency shall, upon entry of the order terminating parental rights, acquire all of the rights for placement of the ~~juvenile~~ juvenile, except as otherwise provided in G.S. 7B-908(d), as the agency would have acquired had the parent whose rights are terminated released the juvenile to that agency pursuant to the provisions of Part 7 of Article 3 of Chapter 48 of the General Statutes, including the right to consent to the adoption of the juvenile.

SECTION 18. Article 11 of Chapter 7B of the General Statutes is amended by adding the following new sections to read:

"§ 7B-1112.1. Selection of adoptive parents.

The process of selection of specific adoptive parents shall be the responsibility of and within the discretion of the county department of social services or licensed child-placing agency. The guardian ad litem may request information from and consult with the county department or child-placing agency concerning the selection process. If the guardian ad litem requests information about the selection process, the county shall provide the information within five business days. The county department of social services shall notify the guardian ad litem of the selection of prospective adoptive parents within 10 days of the selection and before the filing of the adoption petition. If the guardian ad litem disagrees with the selection of adoptive parents, the guardian ad litem shall file a motion within 10 days of the department's notification and schedule the case for hearing on the next juvenile calendar. The department shall not change the juvenile's placement to the prospective adoptive parents unless the time period for filing a motion has expired and no motion has been filed. In hearing the motion, the court shall consider the recommendations of the agency and the guardian ad litem and other facts related to the selection of adoptive parents. The court shall then determine whether the proposed adoptive placement is in the juvenile's best interests.

"§ 7B-1114. Reinstatement of parental rights.

(a) A juvenile whose parent's rights have been terminated pursuant to this Article, the guardian ad litem attorney, or a county department of social services with custody of the juvenile may file a motion to reinstate the parent's rights if all of the following conditions are satisfied:

(1) The juvenile is at least 12 years of age or, if the juvenile is younger than 12, the motion alleges extraordinary circumstances requiring consideration of the motion.

(2) The juvenile does not have a legal parent, is not in an adoptive placement, and is not likely to be adopted within a reasonable period of time.

(3) The order terminating parental rights was entered at least three years before the filing of the motion, unless the court has found or the juvenile's attorney advocate and the county department of social services with custody of the juvenile stipulate that the juvenile's permanent plan is no longer adoption.

(b) If a motion could be filed under subsection (a) of this section and the parent whose rights have been terminated contacts the county department of social services with custody of the juvenile or the juvenile's guardian ad litem regarding reinstatement of the parent's rights, the department or the guardian ad litem shall notify the juvenile that the juvenile has a right to file a motion for reinstatement of parental rights.

(c) If a motion to reinstate parental rights is filed and the juvenile does not have a guardian ad litem appointed pursuant to G.S. 7B-601, the court shall appoint a guardian ad litem to represent the best interests of the juvenile. The appointment, duties, and payment of the guardian ad litem and the guardian ad litem attorney shall be the same as in G.S. 7B-601 and G.S. 7B-603.

(d) The party filing a motion to reinstate parental rights shall serve the motion on each of the following who is not the movant:

(1) The juvenile.

(2) The juvenile's guardian ad litem or the guardian ad litem attorney.

(3) The county department of social services with custody of the juvenile.

(4) The former parent whose rights the motion seeks to have reinstated.

A former parent who is served under this subsection is not a party to the proceeding and is not entitled to appointed counsel, but may retain counsel at the former parent's own expense.

(e) The movant shall ask the clerk to calendar the case for a preliminary hearing on the motion for reinstatement of parental rights within 60 days of the filing of the motion at a session of court scheduled for the hearing of juvenile matters. The movant shall give at least 15 days' notice of the hearing and state its purpose to the persons listed in subdivisions (d)(1) through (d)(4) of this section. In addition, the movant shall send a notice of the hearing to the juvenile's placement provider. Nothing in this section shall be construed to make the former parent or the juvenile's placement provider a party to the proceeding based solely on being served with the motion or receiving notice and the right to be heard.

(f) At least seven days before the preliminary hearing, the department of social services and the juvenile's guardian ad litem shall provide to the court, the other parties, and the former parent reports that address the factors specified in subsection (g) of this section.

(g) At the preliminary hearing and any subsequent hearing on the motion, the court shall consider information from the county department of social services with custody of the juvenile, the juvenile, the juvenile's guardian ad litem, the juvenile's former parent whose parental rights are the subject of the motion, the juvenile's placement provider, and any other person or agency that may aid the court in its review. The court may consider any evidence, including hearsay evidence as defined in G.S. 8C-1, Rule 801, that the court finds to be relevant, reliable, and necessary to determine the needs of the juvenile and whether reinstatement is in the juvenile's best interest. The court shall consider the following criteria and make written findings regarding the following that are relevant:

(1) What efforts were made to achieve adoption or a permanent guardianship.

(2) Whether the parent whose rights the motion seeks to have reinstated has remedied the conditions that led to the juvenile's removal and termination of the parent's rights.

(3) Whether the juvenile would receive proper care and supervision in a safe home if placed with the parent.

(4) The age and maturity of the child, and the ability of the child to express the child's preference.

(5) The parent's willingness to resume contact with the juvenile and to have parental rights reinstated.

(6) The juvenile's willingness to resume contact with the parent and to have parental rights reinstated.

(7) Services that would be needed by the juvenile and the parent if the parent's rights were reinstated.

(8) Any other criteria the court deems necessary.

(h) At the conclusion of the preliminary hearing, the court shall either dismiss the motion or order that the juvenile's permanent plan become reinstatement of parental rights. If the court does not dismiss the motion, the court shall conduct interim hearings at least every six months until the motion is granted or dismissed. Interim hearings may be combined with post-termination of parental rights review hearings required by G.S. 7B-908. At each interim hearing the court shall assess whether the plan of reinstatement of parental rights continues to be in the juvenile's best interest and whether the department of social services has made reasonable efforts to achieve the permanent plan.

(i) At any hearing under this section, after making proper findings of fact and conclusions of law, the court may do one of the following:

(1) Enter an order for visitation in accordance with G.S. 7B-905.1(b).

(2) Order that the juvenile be placed in the former parent's home and supervised by the department of social services either directly or, when the former parent lives in a different county, though coordination with the county department of social services in that county, or by other personnel as may be available to the court, subject to conditions applicable to the former parent as the court may specify. Any order authorizing placement with the former parent shall specify that the juvenile's placement and care remain the responsibility of the county department of social services with custody of the juvenile and that the department is to provide or arrange for the placement of the juvenile.

(j) The court shall either dismiss or grant a motion for reinstatement of parental rights within 12 months from the date the motion was filed, unless the court makes written findings

why a final determination cannot be made within that time. If the court makes such findings, the court shall specify the time frame in which a final order shall be entered.

(k) An order reinstating parental rights restores all rights, powers, privileges, immunities, duties, and obligations of the parent as to the juvenile, including those relating to custody, control, and support of the juvenile. If a parent's rights are reinstated, the court shall be relieved of the duty to conduct periodic reviews.

(l) An order shall be entered no later than 30 days following the completion of any hearing pursuant to this section. If the order is not entered within 30 days following completion of the hearing, the clerk of court for juvenile matters shall schedule a subsequent hearing at the first session of court scheduled for the hearing of juvenile matters following the 30-day period to determine and explain the reason for the delay and to obtain any needed clarification as to the contents of the order. The order shall be entered within 10 days of the subsequent hearing required by this subsection.

(m) The granting of a motion for reinstatement of parental rights does not vacate or otherwise affect the validity of the original order terminating parental rights.

(n) A parent whose rights are reinstated pursuant to this section is not liable for child support or the costs of any services provided to the juvenile for the period from the date of the order terminating the parent's rights to the date of the order reinstating the parent's rights."

SECTION 19. This act becomes effective October 1, 2011, and applies to actions filed or pending on or after that date.

HOUSE BILL 408:
Amend Criminal Discovery Laws

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	House Judiciary Subcommittee C	Date:	March 29, 2011
Introduced by:	Reps. T. Moore, Spear, Shepard	Prepared by:	Janice Paul Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	First Edition

SUMMARY: House Bill 408 would amend the Criminal Procedure Act relating to discovery in Superior Court.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1. Currently, G.S. 15A-903(a)(1) defines "prosecutorial agency" and requires the State to make available to the defendant the complete files of all law enforcement or prosecutorial agencies involved in the investigation or prosecution of the offenses. Section 1 of the bill would amend G.S. 15A-903(a)(1) to delete the definition of "prosecutorial agency" and provide that, upon motion of the defendant, the court must order the prosecutor to make available to the defendant the prosecutor's complete file related to the investigation of the offenses or prosecution of the defendant. It would modify requirements regarding oral statements made by a witness to a prosecutor when a law enforcement officer is not present to provide that such statements need not be written or recorded unless the information in the statement is material and significantly new or different from one that the witness made previously. The section would add a requirement to G.S. 15A-903(a)(2) that the court must order a representative of the State who requests investigative assistance or expert witness services, to file and serve on the defendant, in open court in the presence of the defendant's attorney, a hearing notice and motion requesting such assistance or services. Subsection 15A-903(c) would add a requirement that a law enforcement agency must provide a complete copy of its files related to the investigation of prosecution of the case to the State at the State's request.

Section 2 would define a CrimeStoppers organization, and add a provision that, unless ordered to do so by the court, the State is not required to divulge the identity of any person who has given information to CrimeStoppers under assurance of anonymity, nor is the State required to disclose the Victim Impact Statement as defined in G.S. 15A-904(a3). The bill would add a provision that the district attorney or prosecuting attorney and legal staff are presumed to be acting in good faith if the State has complied with the provisions of the law relating to discovery in Superior Court.

Section 3 would add a requirement to G.S. 15A-905(c)(2) that, upon motion of the State, a court must order a defendant requesting investigative assistance or expert witness services to file and serve on the State, in open court in the presence of the prosecuting attorney, a hearing notice and motion for such assistance or services.

Section 4 adds a new subsection providing that a court must make specific findings to support the imposition of sanctions on any party for failing to comply with discovery procedures.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The act becomes effective December 1, 2011, and applies to cases pending or filed on or after that date.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO AMEND THE LAW REGARDING DISCOVERY IN CRIMINAL CASES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 15A-903 reads as rewritten:

"§ 15A-903. Disclosure of evidence by the State – Information subject to disclosure.

(a) Upon motion of the defendant, the court must order the State to:

(1) Make available to the defendant the prosecutor's complete ~~files of all law enforcement and prosecutorial agencies involved in the~~ file involving the investigation of the crimes committed or the prosecution of the defendant. The term "file" includes the defendant's statements, the codefendants' statements, witness statements, investigating officers' notes, results of tests and examinations, or any other matter or evidence obtained during the investigation of the offenses alleged to have been committed by the defendant. ~~The term "prosecutorial agency" includes any public or private entity that obtains information on behalf of a law enforcement agency or prosecutor in connection with the investigation of the crimes committed or the prosecution of the defendant.~~ Oral statements shall be in written or recorded form, except that oral statements made by a witness to a prosecuting attorney outside the presence of a law enforcement officer or investigatorial assistant shall not be required to be in written or recorded form unless there is material and significantly new or different information in the oral statement from a prior statement made by the witness. The defendant shall have the right to inspect and copy or photograph any materials contained therein and, under appropriate safeguards, to inspect, examine, and test any physical evidence or sample contained therein.

(2) Give notice to the defendant of any expert witnesses that the State reasonably expects to call as a witness at trial. Each such witness shall prepare, and the State shall furnish to the defendant, a report of the results of any examinations or tests conducted by the expert. The State shall also furnish to the defendant the expert's curriculum vitae, the expert's opinion, and the underlying basis for that opinion. The State shall give the notice and furnish the materials required by this subsection within a reasonable time prior to trial, as specified by the court. Any representative of the State requesting investigatory assistance or expert witness services must file a motion and notice of hearing on the defendant. All such requests must be made in court and in the presence of opposing counsel.

(3) Give the defendant, at the beginning of jury selection, a written list of the names of all other witnesses whom the State reasonably expects to call during the trial. Names of witnesses shall not be subject to disclosure if the State certifies in writing and under seal to the court that to do so may subject the witnesses or others to physical or substantial economic harm or coercion, or that there is other particularized, compelling need not to disclose. If there are witnesses that the State did not reasonably expect to call at the time of the provision of the witness list, and as a result are not listed, the court upon a good faith showing shall allow the witnesses to be called. Additionally, in the interest of justice, the court may in its discretion permit any undisclosed witness to testify.

(b) If the State voluntarily provides disclosure under G.S. 15A-902(a), the disclosure shall be to the same extent as required by subsection (a) of this section.

(c) Upon request by the State, a law enforcement ~~or prosecutorial~~ agency shall make available to the State a complete copy of the complete files related to the investigation of the crimes committed or the prosecution of the defendant for compliance with this section and any disclosure under G.S. 15A-902(a)."

SECTION 2. G.S. 15A-904 reads as rewritten:

"§ 15A-904. Disclosure by the State – Certain information not subject to disclosure.

(a) The State is not required to disclose written materials drafted by the prosecuting attorney or the prosecuting attorney's legal staff for their own use at trial, including witness examinations, voir dire questions, opening statements, and closing arguments. Disclosure is also not required of legal research or of records, correspondence, reports, memoranda, or trial preparation interview notes prepared by the prosecuting attorney or by members of the prosecuting attorney's legal staff to the extent they contain the opinions, theories, strategies, or conclusions of the prosecuting attorney or the prosecuting attorney's legal staff.

(a1) The State is not required to disclose the identity of a confidential informant unless the disclosure is otherwise required by law.

(a2) The State is not required to provide any personal identifying information of a witness beyond that witness's name, address, date of birth, and published phone number, unless the court determines upon motion of the defendant that such additional information is necessary to accurately identify and locate the witness.

(a3) The State is not required to disclose the identity of any individual providing information about a crime or criminal conduct to a Crime Stoppers organization under promise or assurance of anonymity unless ordered by the court. For purposes of this Article, a Crime Stoppers organization or similarly named entity means a private, nonprofit North Carolina corporation governed by a civilian volunteer board of directors that is operated on a local or statewide level that (i) offers anonymity to persons providing information to the organization, (ii) accepts and expands donations for cash rewards to persons who report to the organization information about alleged criminal activity and that the organization forwards to the appropriate law enforcement agency, and (iii) is established as a cooperative alliance between the news media, the community, and law enforcement officials.

(a4) The State is not required to disclose the Victim Impact Statement or its contents unless otherwise required by law. For purposes of this Chapter, a Victim Impact Statement is a document submitted by the victim or the victim's family to the State pursuant to the Victims' Rights Amendment.

(b) Nothing in this section prohibits the State from making voluntary disclosures in the interest of justice nor prohibits a court from finding that the protections of this section have been waived.

(c) This section shall have no effect on the State's duty to comply with federal or State constitutional disclosure requirements.

(d) If the State has undertaken to comply with this Article by making disclosure, the district attorney or other prosecuting attorney and the legal staff are presumed to be acting in good faith for the purposes of determinations made by the court or agency of the State."

SECTION 3. G.S. 15A-905(c)(2) reads as rewritten:

"(c) Notice of Defenses, Expert Witnesses, and Witness Lists. – If the court grants any relief sought by the defendant under G.S. 15A-903, or if disclosure is voluntarily made by the State pursuant to G.S. 15A-902(a), the court must, upon motion of the State, order the defendant to:

(2) Give notice to the State of any expert witnesses that the defendant reasonably expects to call as a witness at trial. Each such witness shall prepare, and the defendant shall furnish to the State, a report of the results of the examinations or tests conducted by the expert. The defendant shall also furnish to the State the expert's curriculum vitae, the expert's opinion, and the underlying basis for that opinion. The defendant shall give the notice and furnish the materials required by this subdivision within a reasonable time prior to trial, as specified by the court. Any defendant requesting investigatory assistance or expert witness services must file a motion and notice of hearing on the State. All such requests must be made in court and in the presence of opposing counsel.

SECTION 4. G.S. 15A-910 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(c) If the court imposes any sanction, it must make specific findings justifying the imposed sanction."

SECTION 5. This act becomes effective December 1, 2011, and applies to cases pending on that date and to cases filed on or after that date.

Advocates for Justice

The Prosecutor's Constitutional Duty To Discover & Produce Brady Material
A Sample of Case Law

"[T]he individual prosecutor has a duty to learn of any favorable evidence known to the others acting on the government's behalf in the case, including the police." Kyles v. Whitley, 514 U.S. 419, 437 (1995).

"[N]o one doubts that police investigators sometimes fail to inform a prosecutor of all they know. But neither is there any serious doubt that 'procedures and regulations can be established to carry [the prosecutor's] burden and to insure communication of all relevant information on each case to every lawyer who deals with it.' Since, then, the prosecutor has the means to discharge the government's Brady responsibility if he will, any argument for excusing a prosecutor from disclosing what he does not happen to know about boils down to a plea to substitute the police for the prosecutor, and even for the courts themselves, as the final arbiters of the government's obligation to ensure fair trials." Kyles v. Whitley, 514 U.S. 419. 438 (1995)(quoting Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972)).

"Nor is the effect of the nondisclosure neutralized because the prosecuting attorney was not shown to have had knowledge of the exculpatory evidence. ... The duty to disclose is that of the state, which ordinarily acts through the prosecuting attorney. ... We cannot condone the attempt to connect the defendant with the crime by ... inferences which might be refuted by undisclosed and unproduced documents then in the hands of the police. To borrow a phrase ..., this procedure passes 'beyond the line of tolerable imperfection and falls into the field of fundamental unfairness.'" Barbee v. Warden, 331 F.2d 842, 846 (4th Cir. Md. 1964)(quoting Curran v. Deleware, 259 F.2d 707, 713 (3d Cir. 1958)).

"[W]hether the nondisclosure was a result of negligence or design, it is the responsibility of the prosecutor. The prosecutor's office is an entity and as such it is the spokesman for the Government. A promise made by one attorney must be attributed, for these purposes, to the Government. To the extent this places a burden on the large prosecution offices, procedures and regulations can be established to carry that burden and to insure communication of all relevant information on each case to every lawyer who deals with it." Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150, 154 (U.S. 1972).

"[T]he prosecutor is the party who is ultimately accountable for the nondisclosure of evidence [and] the 'prosecution' for Brady purposes encompasses not only the individual prosecutor handling the case, but also extends to the prosecutor's entire office, as well as law enforcement personnel and other arms of the state involved in investigative aspects of a particular criminal venture." Smith v. Secretary of N.M. Dep't of Corrections, 50 F.3d 801, 824 (10th Cir. N.M. 1995).

"Of course the prosecutor's own interest in avoiding surprise at trial gives him a very considerable incentive to search accessible files for possibly exculpatory evidence, quite independent of Brady. ... [T]he courts' willingness to insist on an affirmative duty of inquiry may stem primarily from a sense that an inaccurate conviction based on government failure to turn over an easily turned rock is essentially as offensive as one based on government non-disclosure." United States v. Brooks, 966 F.2d 1500, 1502-3 (D.C. Cir. 1992).

"The duty to produce requested evidence falls on the state; there is no suggestion in Brady that different 'arms' of the government are severable entities.... 'The duty to disclose is that of the state, which ordinarily acts through the prosecuting attorney.'" Martinez v. Wainwright, 621 F.2d 184, 186-87 (5th Cir. 1980)(quoting Barbee v. Warden, Maryland Penitentiary, 331 F.2d 842, 846 (4th Cir. 1964)).

"There is no question that the [lawyer] prosecuting a case is responsible for compliance with the dictates of Brady and its progeny. This personal responsibility cannot be evaded by claiming lack of control over the files or procedures of other executive branch agencies." United States v. Jennings, 960 F.2d 1488, 1491 (9th Cir. Cal. 1992)(citations omitted).

"[A] prosecutor's office cannot get around Brady by keeping itself in ignorance, or compartmentalizing information about different aspects of a case." Carey v. Duckworth, 738 F.2d 875, 878 (7th Cir. Ind. 1984).

"If disclosure were excused in instances where the prosecution has not sought out information readily available to it, we would be inviting and placing a premium on conduct unworthy of representatives of the United States Government. This we decline to do." United States v. Auten, 632 F.2d 478, 481 (5th Cir. Tex. 1980). "[N]on-disclosure is inexcusable where the prosecution has not sought out information readily available to it." United States v. Perdomo, 929 F.2d 967, 971 (3d Cir. V.I. 1991)(citing United States v. Auten, 632 F.2d 478 (5th Cir. 1980)).

"[T]he more specifically the defense requests certain evidence, thus putting the prosecutor on notice of its value, the more reasonable it is for the defense to assume from the nondisclosure that the evidence does not exist, and to make pretrial and trial decisions on the basis of this assumption." United States v. Bagley, 473 U.S. 667, 682-83 (1985).

"Where ... there is an explicit request for an apparently very easy examination, and a non-trivial prospect that the examination might yield material exculpatory information, we think the prosecution should make the inquiry." United States v. Brooks, 966 F.2d 1500, 1504 (D.C. Cir. 1992).

"Here, as in most circumstances, Brady compliance demanded no more than simple advertence. The evidence was readily accessible to the prosecution. A cursory review of the crime lab's file would have revealed the existence of the [undisclosed evidence]. ... [T]he prosecutor acknowledged that he would have promptly divulged the information had he been aware of it. Regardless of the reason, he failed to do so." In re Brown, 17 Cal. 4th 873, 884 (Cal. 1998).

"The individual prosecutor is presumed to have knowledge of all information gathered in connection with the government's investigation." United States v. Payne, 63 F.3d 1200, 1208 (2d Cir. N.Y. 1995).

"Knowledge by police or investigators is ... imputed to the prosecution under Brady." United States v. Buchanan, 891 F.2d 1436, 1443 (10th Cir. Okla. 1989).

"The prosecutor's ignorance of the existence of [evidence generated by a police officer] does not justify the State's failure to produce it, since Brady provides that the good faith or bad faith of the prosecution is irrelevant to the due process inquiry. This may be especially true when the withheld evidence is under the control of a state instrumentality closely aligned with the prosecution, such as the police." United States ex rel. Smith v. Fairman, 769 F.2d 386, 391 (7th Cir. Ill. 1985).

"The prosecutor contends that because he was not in possession of the rap sheet and was unaware of its existence, he cannot be held responsible for suppressing evidence under Brady. This argument is unpersuasive in view of his assurance to counsel and to the court that he had exhausted all avenues of inquiry and that no rap sheet or record of conviction existed. ... That the prosecutor was personally unaware of the existence of the rap sheet does not excuse his misrepresentation to the trial court that a rap sheet was unavailable. While the prosecutor's actions can be characterized as only negligent '[t]he deception which results from negligent nondisclosure is no less damaging than that deception which is a product of guile.'" Martinez v. Wainwright, 621 F.2d 184, 187-88 (5th Cir. Fla. 1980)(quoting Shuler v. Wainwright, 341 F. Supp. 1061, 1069 (M.D.Fla.1972)).

NORTH CAROLINA RULES OF PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT FOR LAWYERS
Regarding Discovery Obligations

Rule 3.4 (d)(2)-(3): Fairness to Opposing Party and Counsel

"A lawyer shall not ..., in pretrial procedure, ... fail to make a reasonably diligent effort to comply with a legally proper discovery request by an opposing party, or ... fail to disclose evidence or information that the lawyer knew, or reasonably should have known, was subject to disclosure under applicable law, rules of procedure or evidence, or court opinions."

> "Comment 5: Paragraph (d) makes it clear that a lawyer must be reasonably diligent in making inquiry of the client, or third party, about information or documents responsive to discovery requests or disclosure requirements arising from statutory law, rules of procedure, or caselaw. 'Reasonably' is defined in Rule 0.1, Terminology, as meaning 'conduct of a reasonably prudent and competent lawyer.' Rule 0.1(i). When responding to a discovery request or disclosure requirement, a lawyer must act in good faith. The lawyer should impress upon the client the importance of making a thorough search of the client's records and responding honestly. If the lawyer has reason to believe that a client has not been forthcoming, the lawyer may not rely solely upon the client's assertion that the response is truthful or complete."

Rule 3.8(d): Special Responsibilities of a Prosecutor

"The prosecutor in a criminal case shall ...[,] after reasonably diligent inquiry, make timely disclosure to the defense of all evidence or information required to be disclosed by applicable law, rules of procedure, or court opinions including all evidence or information known to the prosecutor that tends to negate the guilt of the accused or mitigates the offense, and, in connection with sentencing, disclose to the defense and to the tribunal all unprivileged mitigating information known to the prosecutor, except when the prosecutor is relieved of this responsibility by a protective order of the tribunal."

> "Comment 4: Every prosecutor should be aware of the discovery requirements established by statutory law and case law. See, e.g., N.C. Gen. Stat. §15A-903 et. seq, Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963); Giglio v. U.S., 405 U.S. 150 (1972); Kyles v. Whitley, 514 U.S. 419 (1995). The exception in paragraph (d) recognizes that a prosecutor may seek an appropriate protective order from the tribunal if disclosure of information to the defense could result in substantial harm to an individual or to the public interest."

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE GARNISHMENT OF WAGES AS AN ADDITIONAL MEANS OF SATISFYING JUDGMENTS IN CIVIL ACTIONS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Article 1 of Chapter 75 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 75-16.3. Procedure for garnishment.

(a) Definitions. – The following definitions apply to this section:

(1) Judgment creditor. – A person awarded a judgment in which a determination has been made that a judgment debtor is found to have violated G.S. 75-1.1.

(2) Judgment debtor. – A person against whom a judgment has been rendered in which a determination has been made that the judgment debtor is found to have violated G.S. 75-1.1.

(3) Earnings. – Compensation paid or payable for personal services, whether denominated as wages, salary, commission, bonus, or otherwise.

(4) Disposable earnings. – The part of the earnings which remains after the deduction of any amounts required by law to be withheld or withheld to pay for reasonably necessary expenses of the judgment debtor or the judgment debtor's dependents, including health care and day care expenses.

(5) Garnishee. – The person, firm, association, or corporation owing compensation for personal services, whether denominated as wages, salary, commission, bonus, or otherwise.

(b) Judgments May Be Enforced by Garnishment of Wages. – Any judgment creditor awarded a judgment in which a determination has been made that a judgment debtor is found to have violated G.S. 75-1.1 and that the acts or practices which constituted the violation were knowingly and willfully committed may move the court in the county wherein the judgment debtor resides for an order for garnishment of the disposable earnings of the judgment debtor at any time after attempting execution of a judgment for unfair or deceptive acts or practices that has been returned wholly or partially unsatisfied after exhausting remedies available under Article 31 of Chapter 1 of the General Statutes, provided the following conditions have been met:

(1) The judgment creditor has sent a certified letter to the judgment debtor's last known address which includes information that the judgment debtor's disposable earnings may be subject to wage garnishment.

(2) The judgment debtor has neglected or refused to pay or make reasonable arrangements to pay the judgment within 10 days of the mailing of the letter described in subdivision (1) of this subsection.

(c) Motion and Notice Procedures. – The motion shall be in writing and describe in detail the grounds for requesting garnishment, the amount of judgment alleged to be unpaid, and the source of earnings of the judgment debtor. A notice of hearing must be served on the judgment debtor at least 10 days before the hearing, in a form to be prescribed by the Administrative Office of the Courts, that notifies the judgment debtor of the following:

(1) That if the judgment debtor fails to appear at the hearing, the court will enter an order directing the judgment debtor's employer to withhold a portion of wages to apply to the judgment.

(2) That the amount withheld may be as much as fifteen percent (15%) of the judgment debtor's disposable earnings.

(3) That an order of garnishment shall not be rendered if the judgment debtor is making regular payments to the judgment creditor that are equal to ten percent (10%) of the judgment debtor's monthly disposable earnings.

(4) That an order of garnishment shall not be rendered if the judgment debtor can show at the hearing that economic hardship would result to the judgment debtor or judgment debtor's dependents if garnishment is ordered.

(d) Filing Fee. – The motion shall be accompanied by a fee of twenty dollars ($20.00) payable to the clerk of court for the administrative costs of complying with the provisions of this section, which fee may be recoverable by the judgment creditor as a taxable cost of the action.

(e) Hearing. – The court may enter an order of garnishment following notice requirements set forth in this Article and a hearing held before a superior or district court judge pursuant to the motion for garnishment. At the hearing on the motion, the court shall determine whether an order of garnishment is appropriate on the basis of the motion, any affidavit of the judgment creditor, the record in the civil action, and any testimony and other relevant evidence offered by either party. The court shall not enter an order of garnishment if the judgment debtor is making regular payments to the judgment creditor that are equal to ten percent (10%) of the judgment debtor's monthly disposable earnings, or if economic hardship would result to the judgment debtor or judgment debtor's dependents if garnishment is ordered.

(f) Amount Subject to Garnishment. – The court shall not enter an order of garnishment which exceeds the lesser of fifteen percent (15%) of the judgment debtor's monthly disposable earnings, or the amount by which the disposable earnings for that pay period exceed an amount calculated by multiplying the federal minimum hourly wage by 50 times the number of weeks in the pay period. For purposes of applying this provision, a bimonthly pay period shall constitute 2.17 weeks and a monthly pay period shall constitute 4.33 weeks.

(g) Order of Garnishment; Contents. – If an order for garnishment is entered, the order shall state (i) the names and last known addresses of the judgment creditor and judgment debtor, (ii) the court in which and the date on which the money judgment was rendered, (iii) the original amount of the money judgment and the amount due thereon, (iv) the portion of the judgment debtor's earnings which are subject to garnishment thereunder, or the information necessary to determine such portion, and (v) any information which the judgment creditor provides to identify the judgment debtor's employer. The garnishment order shall notify any garnishee of the manner prescribed by this section for complying with the order. A copy of the order shall be served on the judgment debtor and the garnishee either personally or by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested. The garnishment order shall be subject to review for modification or dissolution upon the filing of a motion in the cause.

(h) Payment to the Court; Garnishee May Retain Fee. – Upon receipt of an order of garnishment, the garnishee shall transmit the amount ordered by the court to be garnished to the clerk of court who shall disburse it to the judgment creditor. The garnishee shall not be required to change normal pay cycles but shall make every effort to ensure that payments are received as soon as practicable. The garnishment order shall simplify the withholding process for garnishees to the extent possible. The amount garnished shall be increased by an additional five dollar ($5.00) processing fee to be assessed and retained by the garnishee for each payment under the order.

(i) Duration of Garnishment Order. – A garnishment order issued pursuant to this section shall continue until whichever of the following events occurs first:

(1) The underlying judgment has been satisfied in full.

(2) The judgment debtor ceases to be employed by the employer, unless the judgment debtor is thereafter reinstated or reemployed within 90 days from the date employment was terminated.

HOUSE BILL 637:
Adoption Law Changes

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	House Judiciary Subcommittee C	Date:	April 19, 2011
Introduced by:	Reps. Jordan, Stevens	Prepared by:	Janice Paul
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition H637-CSTJ-4		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: The Proposed Committee Substitute for House Bill 637 would amend G.S. Chapter 48, "Adoptions," as recommended by the North Carolina Bar Association.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 would amend G.S. 48-3-608(b) to provide that a preplacement assessment (adoption home study) must be prepared "substantially in conformance" with the requirements set out in G.S. 48-3-303, entitled "Content and timing of preplacement assessment."

Section 2 would permit the agency preparing the adoption home study to redact certain detailed income information of the prospective parent from the copy of the home study given to the placing parent.

Section 3 would repeal G.S. 48-2-302(a) which requires a petition for adoption to be filed within 30 days after placement of the minor for adoption.

Section 4 would provide that a petitioner must initiate service of notice of the filing of a petition for adoption within 30 days after the filing date.

Section 6. Current law allows the agency and the person relinquishing custody to agree to rescind a relinquishment before the agency places the minor for adoption. The PCS for House Bill 637 would add a provision allowing a relinquishment to become void after a minor is placed if the agency, the person relinquishing custody, and the prospective adoptive parent mutually agree to the rescission.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act becomes effective October 1, 2011, and applies to actions filed on or after that date.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO PROTECT RIGHTS AND PRIVILEGES GRANTED UNDER THE NORTH CAROLINA AND UNITED STATES CONSTITUTIONS IN THE APPLICATION OF FOREIGN LAW.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Chapter 1 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new Article to read:

"Article 7A.

"Application of Foreign Law.

"§ 1-87.2. Definitions.

The following definitions apply in this Article:

(1) Constitutional right. – A right of a natural person guaranteed by the North Carolina Constitution or the United States Constitution.

(2) Foreign law. – A law, rule, legal code, or legal system established and used or applied in a foreign venue or forum.

(3) Foreign venue or forum. – A venue or forum operating under the authority of a government other than any of the following:

a. The United States.

b. A state, district, commonwealth, territory, or insular possession of the United States.

c. Any other government with regard to which the decision in this State as to whether to recognize a judgment of that government's courts is initially subject to determination under the Full Faith and Credit Clause of the United States Constitution.

"§ 1-87.3. Public policy.

The General Assembly hereby declares it to be the public policy of this State to protect its citizens from the application of foreign law that would result in the violation of a right of a natural person guaranteed by the North Carolina Constitution or the United States Constitution. The public policies expressed in this section shall apply only to actual or foreseeable violations of a constitutional right resulting from the application of the foreign law.

"§ 1-87.4. Nonapplication of foreign law that would violate constitutional rights.

A court, administrative agency, arbitrator, mediator, or other entity or person acting under the authority of State law shall not apply a foreign law in any legal proceeding if doing so would violate a constitutional right.

"§ 1-87.5. Interpretation of contracts providing for choice of foreign law.

(a) In the interpretation or enforcement by a court, administrative agency, arbitrator, mediator, or other entity or person acting under the authority of State law of any contract or other agreement that provides for the choice of a foreign law to govern its interpretation or the resolution of any claim or dispute, the court or administrative agency shall preserve the constitutional rights of the parties.

(b) If enforcement of any contract provision or other agreement for the choice of foreign law would result in a violation of a constitutional right of one or more of the parties, the agreement or contract shall be modified or amended to the extent necessary to preserve the constitutional rights of the parties.

"§ 1-87.6. Interpretation of contracts providing for choice of foreign venue or forum.

If the enforcement of any contract provision or other agreement providing for a choice of a foreign venue or forum would result in a violation of a constitutional right of one or more of the parties, that provision shall be modified or amended to the extent necessary to preserve the constitutional rights of the parties.

"§ 1-87.7. Motions to transfer proceedings to a foreign venue or forum.

If a natural person subject to personal jurisdiction in this State seeks to maintain litigation, arbitration proceeding, or similarly binding proceedings in this State, and if a court of this State finds that granting a motion by another party to transfer the proceeding to a foreign venue or forum would likely lead to the violation of the constitutional rights of the nonmovant in the foreign forum with respect to the matter in dispute, the motion shall be denied.

"§ 1-87.8. Contracts not capable of modification to preserve constitutional rights void.

Any contractual provision or agreement incapable of being modified or amended in order to preserve the constitutional rights of the parties pursuant to the provisions of this Article shall be null and void.

"§ 1-87.9. Strict construction of waivers of constitutional rights.

Nothing in this Article shall be interpreted to limit the right of natural persons voluntarily to restrict or limit their own constitutional rights by contract or specific waiver consistent with constitutional principles; however, the language of any such contract or other waiver shall be strictly construed in favor of preserving the constitutional rights of natural persons in this State."

SECTION 2. This act is effective when it becomes law.

HOUSE BILL 640:
Foreign Laws/Protect Constitutional Rights

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	House Judiciary Subcommittee C	Date:	April 15, 2011
Introduced by:	Reps. Cleveland, Killian	Prepared by:	Janice Paul Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	First Edition

SUMMARY: House Bill 640 would protect rights and privileges granted under the North Carolina and United States constitutions in the application of foreign law.

CURRENT LAW: The Constitution of the United States is the supreme law of the United States, and the framework for the organization of the U. S. government and for the relationship of the federal government with the states, citizens, and all people within the United States. The North Carolina State Constitution provides a framework of government for the State and its subdivisions, and provides protections for individuals.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 640 would prohibit the application or enforcement of a foreign law in a legal proceeding if doing so would violate a right granted by the North Carolina or United States constitutions. A provision in a contract or agreement calling for the application of foreign law or choosing a foreign venue would not be enforceable if it violated a constitutional right of a party, and would be void if the provision could not be modified. A court would be required to deny certain motions to transfer a case to another jurisdiction if the transfer would be likely to violate the constitutional rights of the nonmoving party.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act is effective when it becomes law.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO MAKE CHANGES TO THE LAW RELATING TO ALIMONY AND POSTSEPARATION SUPPORT, AS RECOMMENDED BY THE NORTH CAROLINA BAR ASSOCIATION.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 50-11(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) A divorce obtained pursuant to G.S. 50-5.1 or G.S. 50-6 shall not affect the rights of either spouse with respect to any action for alimony or postseparation support pending at the time the judgment for divorce is ~~granted.~~granted, except as provided by G.S. 50-16.1A(4). Furthermore, a judgment of absolute divorce shall not impair or destroy the right of a spouse to receive alimony or postseparation support or affect any other rights provided for such spouse under any judgment or decree of a court rendered before or at the time of the judgment of absolute ~~divorce.~~divorce, except as provided by G.S. 50-16.1A(4)."

SECTION 2. G.S. 50-16.9 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(a1) There is a rebuttable presumption that the voluntary retirement of the supporting spouse after the supporting spouse attains the age of 67 years is not an action in bad faith. Unless the presumption is rebutted, the voluntary retirement of the supporting spouse after the supporting spouse attains the age of 67 years constitutes a change of circumstances, and the court shall consider this change of circumstances when determining whether to modify an alimony or postseparation support order. This subsection applies to any order of alimony, alimony pendent lite, or postseparation support, including any order entered pursuant to a repealed statute."

SECTION 3. G.S. 52-10 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(a1) Any contract between husband and wife, with or without valuable consideration, to waive and release all rights and obligations to postseparation support or alimony is valid and not inconsistent with public policy, if the contract is in writing and is acknowledged by both parties before a certifying officer, and such release may be pleaded in bar of any action or proceeding for the recovery of the rights so released."

SECTION 4. This act is effective October 1, 2011. Section 3 of this act applies to contracts entered into on or after that date.

HOUSE BILL 706:
Alimony/Postseparation Support Changes

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	House Judiciary Subcommittee C	Date:	April 13, 2011
Introduced by:	Rep. Rhyne	Prepared by:	Wendy Graf Ray
Analysis of:	First Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 706 makes the following changes to the law with regard to alimony and postseparation support:

- Makes a conforming change to G.S. 50-11 (effects of absolute divorce) to account for a previous amendment to G.S. 50-16.1A(4) that provides that postseparation support is terminated upon entry of absolute divorce, if no claim for alimony is pending at that time.
- Creates a rebuttable presumption that retirement of the supporting spouse after the age of 67 is not in bad faith and would be a change of circumstances to consider for modification of alimony or postseparation support orders.
- Allows spouses to enter into contracts waiving their rights to alimony and postseparation support during their marriage.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 of the bill amends G.S. 50-11(c), which provides that a judgment of divorce shall not affect the rights of either spouse with regard to an action for alimony or postseparation support. In 2005, G.S. 50-16.1A(4) (definition of 'postseparation support') was amended to provide that support terminates upon entry of a judgment for absolute divorce if no claim for alimony is pending at that time. This section amends G.S. 50-11(c) to reflect the earlier amendment.

Section 2 of the bill amends G.S. 50-16.9 (modification of alimony or postseparation support orders) by adding a new subsection (a1). Subsection (a) provides that an order for alimony or postseparation support may be modified upon a motion and showing of changed circumstances. New subsection (a1) adds a rebuttable presumption that the voluntary retirement of a supporting spouse after the age of 67 would not be considered an action in bad faith. Unless that presumption is rebutted, the retirement would be a change of circumstances to be considered in determining whether to modify an order.

Section 3 of the bill amends G.S. 52-10 to allow spouses to enter into contracts to waive the right to postseparation support or alimony. The contract must be in writing and acknowledged by both parties before a certifying officer. Under current law, spouses may waive the right to postseparation support or alimony before the marriage in a premarital agreement or after separation in a separation agreement.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The act is effective October 1, 2011, and Section 3 of the bill applies to contracts entered into on or after that date.

AN ACT TO EXPAND THE SCOPE OF THE LAW THAT ALLOWS AN AGENCY ACTING AS A CONFIDENTIAL INTERMEDIARY TO OBTAIN A COPY OF A DEATH CERTIFICATE OF A BIOLOGICAL PARENT OR AN ADULT ADOPTEE TO INCLUDE A LINEAL ASCENDANT OF A BIOLOGICAL PARENT WHEN IT IS DETERMINED THE BIOLOGICAL PARENT, ADULT ADOPTEE, OR THE LINEAL ASCENDANT OF THE BIOLOGICAL PARENT IS DECEASED.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 48-9-104(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) If an agency providing confidential intermediary services determines that the person who is the subject of the search is ~~deceased,~~ deceased and upon further search determines that a lineal ascendant of the person who is the subject of the search is also deceased, the agency may obtain a copy of the death certificate of both the deceased person who is the subject of the search and any lineal ascendant of the person who is the subject of the search pursuant to G.S. 130A-93 and deliver it to the person who requested the services."

HOUSE BILL 846:
Expand Access/Death Certificate/Adult Adoptee

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	House Judiciary Subcommittee C	Date:	April 20, 2011
Introduced by:	Rep. LaRoque	Prepared by:	Wendy Graf Ray Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	First Edition

SUMMARY: House Bill 846 would allow confidential intermediaries in adoptions to obtain the death certificate of a lineal ascendant of a biological parent when a search reveals that the lineal ascendant is deceased.

CURRENT LAW: Currently, NC adoption records are closed. The law provides that, with certain exceptions, no one may release a record that would lead directly to the identity of an adoptee, an adoptive parent of an adoptee, an adoptee's parent at birth, or an adoptee's birth sibling or grandparent. Exceptions are available through a court order, through voluntary consent, or through the services of a confidential intermediary. A confidential intermediary is a licensed adoption agency staff person authorized to act as a 3rd party to facilitate contact between an adult adoptee or the adult lineal descendant of a deceased adoptee and the biological parent. To facilitate contact or share the information, the confidential intermediary must have the written consent of all parties.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 846 would expand the law that allows a confidential intermediary to obtain the death certificate of a person who is the subject of a search. The bill would allow the intermediary to obtain the death certificate of a lineal ascendant of the person who is the subject of the search if the search reveals that the person is deceased.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The act would be effective when it becomes law.

(1) The petitioner demonstrates to the court that he or she has not been arrested for any crime that would require registration under this Article since completing the sentence,

(2) The requested relief complies with the provisions of the federal Jacob Wetterling Act, as amended, and any other federal standards applicable to the termination of a registration requirement or required to be met as a condition for the receipt of federal funds by the State, and

The determination as to whether the juvenile is a danger to the community and whether the juvenile shall be ordered to register shall be made by the presiding judge at the dispositional hearing. If the judge rules that the juvenile is a danger to the community and that the juvenile shall register, then an order shall be entered requiring the juvenile to register. The court's findings regarding whether the juvenile is a danger to the community and whether the juvenile shall register shall be entered into the court record. The Department shall have a minimum of 30 days, but not more than 60 days, to complete the risk assessment of the offender and report the results to the court.

(e) Upon receipt of a risk assessment from the Department pursuant to subsection (d) of this section, the court shall determine whether, based on the Department's risk assessment, the offender requires the highest possible level of supervision and monitoring. If the court determines that the offender does require the highest possible level of supervision and monitoring, the court shall order the offender to enroll in a satellite-based monitoring program for a period of time to be specified by the court."

SECTION 19. G.S. 14-208.40B(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) At the hearing, the court shall determine if the offender falls into one of the categories described in G.S. 14-208.40(a). The court shall hold the hearing and make findings of fact pursuant to G.S. 14-208.40A.

If the court finds that (i) the offender has been classified as a sexually violent predator pursuant to G.S. 14-208.20, (ii) the offender is a recidivist, (iii) the conviction offense was ~~an aggravated offense,~~ a tier III offense other than an offense against a minor, or (iv) the conviction offense was a violation of G.S. 14-27.2A or G.S. 14-27.4A, the court shall order the offender to enroll in satellite-based monitoring for life.

The Department shall have a minimum of 30 days, but not more than 60 days, to complete the risk assessment of the offender and report the results to the court. The Department may use a risk assessment of the offender done within six months of the date of the hearing.

Upon receipt of a risk assessment from the Department, the court shall determine whether, based on the Department's risk assessment, the offender requires the highest possible level of supervision and monitoring. If the court determines that the offender does require the highest possible level of supervision and monitoring, the court shall order the offender to enroll in a satellite-based monitoring program for a period of time to be specified by the court."

SECTION 20. G.S. 14-208.43(d1) reads as rewritten:

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO PROVIDE THAT THE PROHIBITION AGAINST CARRYING A CONCEALED WEAPON DOES NOT APPLY TO STATE PROBATION AND PAROLE CERTIFIED OFFICERS WHEN THEY ARE OFF-DUTY.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 14-269(b) is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(6) State probation or parole certified officers, when off-duty, provided that an officer does not carry a concealed weapon while consuming alcohol or an unlawful controlled substance or while alcohol or an unlawful controlled substance remains in the officer's body."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective December 1, 2011.

HOUSE BILL 271:
Probation Officer/No Concealed Carry Required

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	House Judiciary Subcommittee C	Date:	May 10, 2011
Introduced by:	Reps. Guice, Horn, Ingle, Faircloth	Prepared by:	Kory Goldsmith Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	First Edition

SUMMARY: House Bill 271 would allow all certified State probation officers and parole officers to carry a concealed weapon while off-duty, similar to sworn law enforcement officers.

CURRENT LAW: G.S. 14-269 makes it unlawful for any individual to willfully and intentionally carry concealed about their person any of the following:

- Bowie knife
- Dirk
- Dagger
- Slung shot
- Loaded cane
- Metallic knuckles
- Razor
- Shurikin
- Stun gun
- Other deadly weapon

It is also unlawful to carry concealed a pistol or gun, unless it is on the individual's property, the individual has a concealed carry permit, or is a military permittee. Violation is a misdemeanor. The prohibition does not apply to ordinary pocket knives.

The prohibitions above do not apply to any of the following individuals:

1. Officers and enlisted personnel of the armed forces of the United States when in discharge of their official duties and acting under orders requiring them to carry arms and weapons.
2. Civil and law enforcement officers of the United States.
3. Officers and soldiers of the militia and the National Guard when called into actual service.
4. Officers of the State, or of any county, city, town, or company police agency charged with the execution of the laws of the State, when acting in the discharge of their official duties.
5. Sworn law-enforcement officers, when off-duty, provided that an officer does not carry a concealed weapon while consuming alcohol or an unlawful controlled substance or while alcohol or an unlawful controlled substance remains in the officer's body.

For the individuals listed above that are exempt from the prohibitions, those individuals are also exempt from the following statutory provisions:

- G.S. 14-269.2. Weapons on campus or other education property.
- G.S. 14-269.3. Carrying weapons into assemblies and establishments where alcoholic beverages are sold and consumed.
- G.S. 14-269.4. Weapons on State property and courthouses.
- G.S. 14-277.2. Weapons at parades, etc.

- G.S. 14-288.7. Transporting dangerous weapon or substance during emergency; possessing off premises; exceptions.
- G.S. 14-288.8. Manufacture, assembly, possession, storage, transportation, sale, purchase, delivery, or acquisition of weapon of mass death and destruction; exceptions.
- G.S. 14-288.21. Unlawful manufacture, assembly, possession, storage, transportation, sale, purchase, delivery, or acquisition of a nuclear, biological, or chemical weapon of mass destruction; exceptions; punishment.

BILL ANALYSIS: The bill would allow a State probation or parole certified officer to carry a concealed weapon when off-duty without having a concealed carry permit, provided the officer is not consuming, or have remaining in the officer's body, alcohol or an unlawful controlled substance.

EFFECTIVE DATE: December 1, 2011.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO STRENGTHEN NORTH CAROLINA'S OPEN-FILE DISCOVERY LAW, PROTECT CRIME STOPPERS INFORMANTS, PROTECT VICTIM INFORMATION, REQUIRE LAW ENFORCEMENT AND INVESTIGATORY AGENCIES TO MAKE TIMELY DISCLOSURE OF THEIR FILES TO PROSECUTORS, AND AVOID FRIVOLOUS CLAIMS OF PROFESSIONAL MISCONDUCT AGAINST PROSECUTORS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 15A-903 reads as rewritten:

"§ 15A-903. Disclosure of evidence by the State -- Information subject to disclosure.

(a) Upon motion of the defendant, the court must ~~order the State to:~~ order:

(1) The State to make ~~Make~~ available to the defendant the complete files of all law enforcement agencies, investigatory agencies, and ~~prosecutorial agencies~~ prosecutor's offices involved in the investigation of the crimes committed or the prosecution of the defendant.

a. The term "file" includes the defendant's statements, the codefendants' statements, witness statements, investigating officers' notes, results of tests and examinations, or any other matter or evidence obtained during the investigation of the offenses alleged to have been committed by the defendant. When any matter or evidence is submitted for testing or examination, in addition to any test or examination results, all other data, calculations, or writings of any kind shall be made available to the defendant, including preliminary test or screening results and bench notes.

b. The term ~~"prosecutorial agency"~~ "prosecutor's office" refers to the office of the prosecuting attorney.

c. The term "investigatory agency" includes any public or private entity that obtains information on behalf of a law enforcement agency or ~~prosecutor~~ prosecutor's office in connection with the investigation of the crimes committed or the prosecution of the defendant.

d. Oral statements shall be in written or recorded form, except that oral statements made by a witness to a prosecuting attorney outside the presence of a law enforcement officer or investigatorial assistant shall not be required to be in written or recorded form unless there is significantly new or different information in the oral statement from a prior statement made by the witness.

e. The defendant shall have the right to inspect and copy or photograph any materials contained therein and, under appropriate safeguards, to inspect, examine, and test any physical evidence or sample contained therein.

(2) The prosecuting attorney to give ~~Give~~ notice to the defendant of any expert witnesses that the State reasonably expects to call as a witness at trial. Each such witness shall prepare, and the State shall furnish to the defendant, a report of the results of any examinations or tests conducted by the expert. The State shall also furnish to the defendant the expert's curriculum vitae, the expert's opinion, and the underlying basis for that opinion. The State shall give the notice and furnish the materials required by this subsection within a reasonable time prior to trial, as specified by the court. Standardized fee scales shall be developed by the Administrative Office of the Courts and Indigent Defense Services for all expert witnesses and private investigators who are compensated with State funds.

(3) The prosecuting attorney to give~~Give~~ the defendant, at the beginning of jury selection, a written list of the names of all other witnesses whom the State reasonably expects to call during the trial. Names of witnesses shall not be subject to disclosure if the ~~State~~ prosecuting attorney certifies in writing and under seal to the court that to do so may subject the witnesses or others to physical or substantial economic harm or coercion, or that there is other particularized, compelling need not to disclose. If there are witnesses that the State did not reasonably expect to call at the time of the provision of the witness list, and as a result are not listed, the court upon a good faith showing shall allow the witnesses to be called. Additionally, in the interest of justice, the court may in its discretion permit any undisclosed witness to testify.

(b) If the State voluntarily provides disclosure under G.S. 15A-902(a), the disclosure shall be to the same extent as required by subsection (a) of this section.

(c) ~~Upon request by the State, a~~ On a timely basis, law enforcement ~~or prosecutorial~~ and investigatory agencies ~~agency~~ shall make available to the ~~State~~ prosecutor's office a complete copy of the complete files related to the investigation of the crimes committed or the prosecution of the defendant for compliance with this section and any disclosure under G.S. 15A-902(a). Investigatory agencies that obtain information and materials listed in subdivision (1) of subsection (a) of this section shall ensure that such information and materials are fully disclosed to the prosecutor's office on a timely basis for disclosure to the defendant.

(d) Any person who willfully omits or misrepresents evidence or information required to be disclosed pursuant to subdivision (1) of subsection (a) of this section, or required to be provided to the prosecutor's office pursuant to subsection (c) of this section, shall be guilty of a Class H felony. Any person who willfully omits or misrepresents evidence or information required to be disclosed pursuant to any other provision of this section shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor."

SECTION 2. G.S. 15A-904 reads as rewritten:

"§ 15A-904. Disclosure by the State – Certain information not subject to disclosure.

(a) The State is not required to disclose written materials drafted by the prosecuting attorney or the prosecuting attorney's legal staff for their own use at trial, including witness examinations, voir dire questions, opening statements, and closing arguments. Disclosure is also not required of legal research or of records, correspondence, reports, memoranda, or trial preparation interview notes prepared by the prosecuting attorney or by members of the prosecuting attorney's legal staff to the extent they contain the opinions, theories, strategies, or conclusions of the prosecuting attorney or the prosecuting attorney's legal staff.

(a1) The State is not required to disclose the identity of a confidential informant unless the disclosure is otherwise required by law.

(a2) The State is not required to provide any personal identifying information of a witness beyond that witness's name, address, date of birth, and published phone number, unless the court determines upon motion of the defendant that such additional information is necessary to accurately identify and locate the witness.

(a3) The State is not required to disclose the identity of any individual providing information about a crime or criminal conduct to a Crime Stoppers organization under promise or assurance of anonymity unless ordered by the court. For purposes of this Article, a Crime Stoppers organization or similarly named entity means a private, nonprofit North Carolina corporation governed by a civilian volunteer board of directors that is operated on a local or statewide level that (i) offers anonymity to persons providing information to the organization, (ii) accepts and expands donations for cash rewards to persons who report to the organization information about alleged criminal activity and that the organization forwards to the appropriate law enforcement agency, and (iii) is established as a cooperative alliance between the news media, the community, and law enforcement officials.

(a4) The State is not required to disclose the Victim Impact Statement or its contents unless otherwise required by law. For purposes of this Chapter, a Victim Impact Statement is a document submitted by the victim or the victim's family to the State pursuant to the Victims' Rights Amendment.

(b) Nothing in this section prohibits the State from making voluntary disclosures in the interest of justice nor prohibits a court from finding that the protections of this section have been waived.

(c) This section shall have no effect on the State's duty to comply with federal or State constitutional disclosure requirements."

SECTION 3. G.S. 15A-905(c)(2) reads as rewritten:

"(c) Notice of Defenses, Expert Witnesses, and Witness Lists. – If the court grants any relief sought by the defendant under G.S. 15A-903, or if disclosure is voluntarily made by the State pursuant to G.S. 15A-902(a), the court must, upon motion of the State, order the defendant to:

...

(2) Give notice to the State of any expert witnesses that the defendant reasonably expects to call as a witness at trial. Each such witness shall prepare, and the defendant shall furnish to the State, a report of the results of the examinations or tests conducted by the expert. The defendant shall also furnish to the State the expert's curriculum vitae, the expert's opinion, and the underlying basis for that opinion. The defendant shall give the notice and furnish the materials required by this subdivision within a reasonable time prior to trial, as specified by the court. Standardized fee scales shall be developed by the Administrative Office of the Courts and Indigent Defense Services for all expert witnesses and private investigators who are compensated with State funds.

SECTION 4. G.S. 15A-910 is amended by adding two new subsections to read:

"(c) For purposes of determining whether to impose personal sanctions for untimely disclosure of law enforcement and investigatory agencies' files, courts and State agencies shall presume that prosecuting attorneys and their staff have acted in good faith if they have made a reasonably diligent inquiry of those agencies under G.S. 15A-903(c) and disclosed the responsive materials.

(d) If the court imposes any sanction, it must make specific findings justifying the imposed sanction."

SECTION 5. This act becomes effective December 1, 2011, and applies to cases pending on that date and to cases filed on or after that date.

HOUSE BILL 408:
Amend Criminal Discovery Laws

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	House Judiciary Subcommittee C	Date:	May 10, 2011
Introduced by:	Reps. T. Moore, Spear, Shepard	Prepared by:	Janice Paul
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition H408-CSTJ-14		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: The PCS to House Bill 408 would amend the Criminal Procedure Act relating to discovery in Superior Court in order to strengthen the open-file discovery law, protect CrimeStoppers informants, protect victim information, require law enforcement and investigatory agencies to make timely disclosure of their files, and avoid frivolous claims of professional misconduct against prosecutors.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1. Currently, G.S. 15A-903(a)(1) requires the State to make available to the defendant the complete files of all law enforcement or prosecutorial agencies involved in the investigation or prosecution of the offenses. Section 1 of the PCS would change current law by deleting the term "prosecutorial agency" and creating definitions of "prosecutor's office" and "investigatory agency." On a motion of the defendant, the court would be required order the State to make available to the defendant the complete files of all law enforcement agencies, investigatory agencies, and prosecutor's offices involved in the investigation or prosecution of a case, including all preliminary and final test or examination results, underlying data, calculations, or writings. Any person who willfully omits or misrepresents the evidence or information subject to disclosure would be guilty of a Class H felony. The prosecuting attorney would be required to give notice to the defendant of the State's lay and expert witnesses. State-funded experts and private investigators would be compensated according to a fee scale to be developed by the Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC) and Indigent Defense Services (IDS).

The PCS would make it mandatory for law enforcement and investigatory agencies to "timely" provide the prosecutor's office with a complete copy of their investigative files. Any entity obtaining information required to be disclosed must ensure that the information is timely disclosed to the prosecutor's office for further required disclosure to the defendant. Willful failure to provide such evidence or information would be punishable as a Class 1 misdemeanor.

Section 2 defines a CrimeStoppers organization, and would provide that, unless court-ordered, the State is not required to divulge the identity of any person who has given information to CrimeStoppers under assurance of anonymity, nor to disclose information contained in the Victim Impact Statement.

Section 3 would direct AOC and IDS to develop standardized fee scales for payment of defense experts and private investigators compensated by the State.

Section 4 would add two new subsections providing a presumption of good faith by prosecutors and their staff if they made a reasonably diligent inquiry of law enforcement and investigatory agencies, and providing that a court must make specific findings to support the imposition of sanctions on any party for failing to comply with discovery procedures.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The act becomes effective December 1, 2011, and applies to cases pending or filed on or after that date.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 15A-903 reads as rewritten:

"§ 15A-903. Disclosure of evidence by the State – Information subject to disclosure.

(a) Upon motion of the defendant, the court must order the State to:

(1) Make available to the defendant the prosecutor's complete ~~files of all law enforcement and prosecutorial agencies involved in the~~ file involving the investigation of the crimes committed or the prosecution of the defendant. The term "file" includes the defendant's statements, the codefendants' statements, witness statements, investigating officers' notes, results of tests and examinations, or any other matter or evidence obtained during the investigation of the offenses alleged to have been committed by the defendant. ~~The term "prosecutorial agency" includes any public or private entity that obtains information on behalf of a law enforcement agency or prosecutor in connection with the investigation of the crimes committed or the prosecution of the defendant.~~ Oral statements shall be in written or recorded form, except that oral statements made by a witness to a prosecuting attorney outside the presence of a law enforcement officer or investigatorial assistant shall not be required to be in written or recorded form unless there is material and significantly new or different information in the oral statement from a prior statement made by the witness. The defendant shall have the right to inspect and copy or photograph any materials contained therein and, under appropriate safeguards, to inspect, examine, and test any physical evidence or sample contained therein.

(2) Give notice to the defendant of any expert witnesses that the State reasonably expects to call as a witness at trial. (3) Give the defendant, at the beginning of jury selection, a written list of the names of all other witnesses whom the State reasonably expects to call during the trial. Names of witnesses shall not be subject to disclosure if the State certifies in writing and under seal to the court that to do so may subject the witnesses or others to physical or substantial economic harm or coercion, or that there is other particularized, compelling need not to disclose. If there are witnesses that the State did not reasonably expect to call at the time of the provision of the witness list, and as a result are not listed, the court upon a good faith showing shall allow the witnesses to be called. Additionally, in the interest of justice, the court may in its discretion permit any undisclosed witness to testify.

(b) If the State voluntarily provides disclosure under G.S. 15A-902(a), the disclosure shall be to the same extent as required by subsection (a) of this section.

(c) Upon request by the State, a law enforcement ~~or prosecutorial~~ agency shall make available to the State a complete copy of the complete files related to the investigation of the crimes committed or the prosecution of the defendant for compliance with this section and any disclosure under G.S. 15A-902(a)."

SECTION 2. G.S. 15A-904 reads as rewritten:

"§ 15A-904. Disclosure by the State – Certain information not subject to disclosure.

(a) The State is not required to disclose written materials drafted by the prosecuting attorney or the prosecuting attorney's legal staff for their own use at trial, including witness examinations, voir dire questions, opening statements, and closing arguments. Disclosure is also not required of legal research or of records, correspondence, reports, memoranda, or trial preparation interview notes prepared by the prosecuting attorney or by members of the prosecuting attorney's legal staff to the extent they contain the opinions, theories, strategies, or conclusions of the prosecuting attorney or the prosecuting attorney's legal staff.

(a1) The State is not required to disclose the identity of a confidential informant unless the disclosure is otherwise required by law.

(a2) The State is not required to provide any personal identifying information of a witness beyond that witness's name, address, date of birth, and published phone number, unless the court determines upon motion of the defendant that such additional information is necessary to accurately identify and locate the witness.

(a3) The State is not required to disclose the identity of any individual providing information about a crime or criminal conduct to a Crime Stoppers organization under promise or assurance of anonymity unless ordered by the court. (c) This section shall have no effect on the State's duty to comply with federal or State constitutional disclosure requirements.

(d) If the State has undertaken to comply with this Article by making disclosure, the district attorney or other prosecuting attorney and the legal staff are presumed to be acting in good faith for the purposes of determinations made by the court or agency of the State."

SECTION 3. G.S. 15A-905(c)(2) reads as rewritten:

"(c) Notice of Defenses, Expert Witnesses, and Witness Lists. – If the court grants any relief sought by the defendant under G.S. 15A-903, or if disclosure is voluntarily made by the State pursuant to G.S. 15A-902(a), the court must, upon motion of the State, order the defendant to:

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT CLARIFYING WHEN, TO WHOM, AND UNDER WHAT CIRCUMSTANCES THE IDENTITY OF A PERSON REPORTING CHILD ABUSE OR NEGLECT MAY BE RELEASED; AND CLARIFYING WHAT INFORMATION THE DIVISION OF SOCIAL SERVICES IS REQUIRED TO MAINTAIN IN THE FOSTER CARE REGISTRY AND UNDER WHAT CIRCUMSTANCES INFORMATION IN THE REGISTRY MAY BE WITHHELD.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 7B-302(a1) reads as rewritten:

"(a1) All information received by the department of social services, including the identity of the reporter, shall be held in strictest confidence by the department, except ~~that:~~under the following circumstances:

(1) The department shall disclose confidential information to any federal, State, or local government entity or its agent in order to protect a juvenile from abuse or neglect. Any confidential information disclosed to any federal, State, or local government entity or its agent under this subsection shall remain confidential with the other government entity or its agent and shall only be redisclosed for purposes directly connected with carrying out that entity's mandated responsibilities.

(1a) The department shall disclose confidential information regarding the identity of the reporter to any federal, State, or local government entity or its agent with a court order. The department may only disclose confidential information regarding the identity of the reporter to a federal, State, or local government entity or its agent without a court order when the entity demonstrates a need for the reporter's name to carry out the entity's mandated responsibilities.

(2) The information may be examined upon request by the juvenile's guardian ad litem or the juvenile, including a juvenile who has reached age 18 or been emancipated.

(3) A district or superior court judge of this State presiding over a civil matter in which the department of social services is not a party may order the department to release confidential information, after providing the department with reasonable notice and an opportunity to be heard and then determining that the information is relevant and necessary to the trial of the matter before the court and unavailable from any other source. This subdivision shall not be construed to relieve any court of its duty to conduct hearings and make findings required under relevant federal law, before ordering the release of any private medical or mental health information or records related to substance abuse or HIV status or treatment. The department of social services may surrender the requested records to the court, for in camera review, if the surrender is necessary to make the required determinations.

HOUSE BILL 387:
Access Confidential Info/Child Abuse/Neglect.-AB

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	House Judiciary Subcommittee C	Date:	May 17, 2011
Introduced by:	Reps. Glazier, Stevens, Parfitt	Prepared by:	Janice Paul Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	First Edition

SUMMARY: House Bill 387 would clarify when, to whom, and under what circumstances the identity of a reporter of child abuse or neglect may be disclosed. It would also clarify what information the state Division of Social Services must keep in the foster care registry, and under what circumstances confidential information may be withheld.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1. The North Carolina Juvenile Code provides that every person or institution who has cause to suspect abuse, neglect, dependency, or death by maltreatment of a child, must make a report to DSS in the county where the child resides or is found. The law directs DSS to hold "in strictest confidence" the information received in reports, including the reporter's identity. The confidentiality requirement is not absolute, and is subject to five specific exceptions.

House Bill 387 would clarify that DSS is required to disclose the reporter's identity to federal, State, or local government entities or their agents with a court order, or without a court order when the entity demonstrates a need for identity information in order to perform its mandated duties.

Section 2 would require the Department of Health and Human Services' Division of Social Services (Division) to keep a register of all licensed family and therapeutic foster homes, not just licensure applicants, and makes conforming changes as to what information the register must include. The Division would have the discretion to withhold any specific information about a foster parent if the release of the information would likely pose a health or safety risk to the foster parent or child. Anyone denied access to the information would have the right to seek a court order compelling disclosure.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The act would become effective October 1, 2011.

(2) The person who uses defensive force knew or had reason to believe that an unlawful and forcible entry or unlawful and forcible act was occurring or had occurred.

(c) The presumption provided in subsection (b) of this section shall be rebuttable if the use of defensive force occurs in a motor vehicle or a workplace. The presumption set forth in subsection (b) of this section does not apply in any of the following circumstances:

(1) The person against whom the defensive force is used has the right to be in or is a lawful resident of the home, motor vehicle, or workplace such as an owner or lessee, and there is not an injunction for protection from domestic violence or a written pretrial supervision order of no contact against that person.

(e) A person who uses force as permitted by this section is justified in using such force and is immune from civil or criminal liability for the use of such force, unless the person against whom force was used is a law enforcement officer who was lawfully acting in the performance of his or her official duties and the officer identified himself or herself in accordance with any applicable law or the person using force knew or reasonably should have known that the person was a law enforcement officer in the lawful performance of his or her official duties.

(f) A lawful occupant within his or her home, motor vehicle, or workplace does not have a duty to retreat from an intruder in the circumstances described in this section.

(g) This section is not intended to repeal or limit any other defense that may exist under the common law.

"§ 14-51.3. Use of force in defense of person; relief from criminal or civil liability.

(a) A person is justified in using force, except deadly force, against another when and to the extent that the person reasonably believes that the conduct is necessary to defend himself or herself or another against the other's imminent use of unlawful force. However, a person is justified in the use of deadly force and does not have a duty to retreat in any place he or she has the lawful right to be if either of the following applies:

"§ 14-51.4. Justification for defensive force not available.

(1) Was attempting to commit, committing, or escaping after the commission of a felony.

(2) Initially provokes the use of force against himself or herself. However, the person who initially provokes the use of force against himself or herself will be justified in using defensive force if:

b. The person who used defensive force withdraws, in good faith, from physical contact with the person who was provoked, and indicates clearly that he or she desires to withdraw and terminate the use of force, but the person who was provoked continues or resumes the use of force."

"§ 14-409.40. Statewide uniformity of local regulation.

(a) It is declared by the General Assembly that the regulation of firearms is properly an issue of general, statewide concern, and that the entire field of regulation of firearms is preempted from regulation by local governments except as provided by this section.

(a1) The General Assembly further declares that the lawful design, marketing, manufacture, distribution, sale, or transfer of firearms or ammunition to the public is not an unreasonably dangerous activity and does not constitute a nuisance per se and furthermore, that it is the unlawful use of firearms and ammunition, rather than their lawful design, marketing, manufacture, distribution, sale, or transfer that is the proximate cause of injuries arising from their unlawful use. This subsection applies only to causes of action brought under subsection (g) of this section.

(b) Unless otherwise permitted by this section or other State statute, no county or municipality, or instrumentality or agent thereof, by ordinance, resolution, exercise of proprietary authority, or other enactment, shall regulate in any manner the possession, ownership, storage, transfer, sale, purchase, licensing, or registration of firearms, firearms ammunition, components of firearms, dealers in firearms, or dealers in handgun components or parts.

(c) Notwithstanding subsection (b) of this section, a county or municipality, by zoning or other ordinance, may regulate or prohibit the sale of firearms at a location only if there is a lawful, general, similar regulation or prohibition of commercial activities at that location. ~~Nothing in this subsection shall restrict the right of a county or municipality to adopt a general zoning plan that prohibits any commercial activity within a fixed distance of a school or other educational institution except with a special use permit issued for a commercial activity found~~

~~not to pose a danger to the health, safety, or general welfare of persons attending the school or educational institution within the fixed distance.~~However, an ordinance that is designed or enforced effectively to restrict or prohibit the sale, purchase, transfer, manufacture, or display of firearms, ammunition, or firearm accessories that are otherwise lawful under the laws of this State is in conflict with this section and is void.

(d) No county or municipality, or instrumentality or agent thereof, by zoning or other ordinance, shall regulate in any manner firearms shows with regulations more stringent than those applying to shows of other types of items.

(e) A county or municipality may regulate the transport, carrying, or possession of firearms by employees of the local unit of government in the course of their employment with that local unit of government.

(f) Nothing contained in this section prohibits municipalities or counties from application of their authority under G.S. 153A-129, 160A-189, 14-269, 14-269.2, 14-269.3, 14-269.4, 14-277.2, 14-415.11, 14-415.23, ~~including~~ or from prohibiting the possession of firearms in public-owned ~~buildings, on the grounds or parking areas of those buildings, or in public parks or recreation areas,~~ buildings, except nothing in this subsection shall prohibit a person from storing a firearm within a motor vehicle while the vehicle is ~~on these grounds or areas. Nothing contained in this section prohibits municipalities or counties from exercising powers provided by law in declared states of emergency under Article 36A of this Chapter.~~ in parking facilities within or attached to such buildings. A prohibition on firearms in publicly owned buildings shall not apply to business or residential lessees occupying the premises.

(g) The authority to bring suit and the right to recover against any firearms or ammunition marketer, manufacturer, distributor, dealer, seller, or trade association by or on behalf of any governmental unit, created by or pursuant to an act of the General Assembly or the Constitution, or any department, agency, or authority thereof, for damages, abatement, injunctive relief, or any other remedy resulting from or relating to the lawful design, marketing, manufacture, distribution, sale, or transfer of firearms or ammunition to the public is reserved exclusively to the State. Any action brought by the State pursuant to this section shall be brought by the Attorney General on behalf of the State. This section shall not prohibit a political subdivision or local governmental unit from bringing an action against a firearms or ammunition marketer, manufacturer, distributor, dealer, seller, or trade association for breach of contract or warranty for defect of materials or workmanship as to firearms or ammunition purchased by the political subdivision or local governmental unit."

SECTION 16. Article 53B of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

(b) A business, commercial enterprise, or employer shall not establish, maintain, or enforce a policy or rule that prohibits or has the effect of prohibiting a person from transporting or storing any firearm or ammunition when the person is otherwise in compliance with all other applicable laws and regulations and the firearm or ammunition is locked out of sight within the trunk, glove box, or other enclosed compartment or area within or on a motor vehicle.

A person who would be entitled legally to transport or store a firearm or ammunition, but who would be denied the ability to transport or store a firearm or ammunition by a policy in violation of subsection (b) of this section, may bring a civil action in the appropriate court to enjoin any business entity, commercial enterprise, or employer from violating subsection (b) of this section.

(e) An employee discharged by an employer, business entity, or commercial enterprise for violation of a policy or rule prohibited under subsection (b) of this section, when he or she was lawfully transporting or storing a firearm out of plain sight in a locked motor vehicle, is entitled to full recovery as specified in subdivisions (1) through (4) of this subsection, inclusive. If the demand for the recovery is denied, the employee may bring a civil action in the courts of this State against the employer, business entity, or commercial enterprise and is entitled to the following:

(1) Reinstatement to the same position held at the time of his or her termination from employment, or to an equivalent position.

(2) Reinstatement of the employee's full fringe benefits and seniority rights, as appropriate.

Nothing contained in this section shall create a new duty on the part of any business, commercial enterprise, employer, or property owner. This section shall not be construed to permit a person to possess a firearm outside of a motor vehicle while on the premises of a place of employment where the person in legal possession or control of the premises has posted a conspicuous notice prohibiting possession of a concealed firearm on the premises.

(g) In any action relating to the enforcement of any right or obligation under subsections (d) and (e) of this section, the reasonable, good-faith efforts of a business, commercial enterprise, employer, or property owner to comply with other applicable and irreconcilable federal or State safety laws or regulations shall be a complete defense to any liability of the business, commercial enterprise, employer, or property owner.

(h) It is the intent of this section to reinforce and protect the right of each citizen lawfully to transport and store firearms within his or her vehicle for lawful purposes in any place the vehicle is otherwise permitted to be and whenever this would not contravene existing federal or State law or regulation."

HOUSE BILL 650:
Amend Various Gun Laws/Castle Doctrine

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	House Judiciary Subcommittee C	Date:	May 17, 2011
Introduced by:	Reps. Hilton, LaRoque, Cleveland, Hastings	Prepared by:	Kory Goldsmith Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition H650-CSRC-27

SUMMARY: HB650 would amend numerous State laws related to the ownership and possession of guns. It would also expand the "Castle Doctrine" to apply to a motor vehicle or the workplace.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 would eliminate the "objective analysis" by stating that a person is presumed to have held a reasonable fear of death or bodily harm if both of the following apply:

- (1) The intruder was unlawfully and forcibly entering, or had unlawfully and forcibly entered the home, vehicle or workplace or removing or attempting to remove another from these locations (a question of fact), and
- (2) The person using defensive force either knew or had reason to believe that an unlawful act was occurring or occurred.

The presumption would be rebuttable if the entry occurs in a motor vehicle or the workplace.

Section 2 repeals G.S. 14-51.1, the current law regarding use of deadly physical force against an intruder. It provides that deadly force may be used to prevent a forcible entry into the home or to terminate the unlawful entry if:

- (1) The occupant reasonably apprehends that the intruder might kill or inflict serious bodily harm to the occupant or others; or
- (2) the occupant reasonably believes that the intruder intended to commit a felony in the home.

The determination is fact-based and subjective-objective. Whether someone alleged to be an intruder had been attempting to, or had already, unlawfully and forcibly entered the home is a fact-based issue. The occupant must believe [subjective] that the intruder intended to kill or inflict serious bodily harm commit a felony. If so, is the belief reasonable [objective] under the circumstances?

Section 3 amends G.S. 14-269(b) regarding those individuals who may carry a concealed weapon when not on individual's property without first obtaining a concealed carry permit. It would add a qualified retired law enforcement officer who is certified by the North Carolina Criminal Justice Education and Training Standards Commission provided the person is not consuming, or have remaining in the officer's body, alcohol or an unlawful controlled substance.

Section 4 would amend G.S. 14-269.2 (Weapons on campus or other educational property) to reduce the penalty for carrying a firearm on educational property from a Class I felony to a Class 1 misdemeanor. In order to be held criminally liable, the defendant would have to knowingly possessor carry the weapon. A person would not be liable for the offense if the person held a permit to carry a concealed weapon, the firearm is in a closed container within a locked motor vehicle or in a located container securely affixed to the person's vehicle.

Section 5 would amend G.S. 14-269.4 (Weapons on State Property and in courthouses) In order to be held criminally liable, the defendant would have to knowingly and intentionally possess carry a deadly weapon onto certain State property or any building housing a General Court of Justice. The bill would also exempt a person who holds a valid permit to carry a concealed weapon if the firearm is in a closed container within a locked motor vehicle or in a located container securely affixed to the person's vehicle.

Section 6 would add the "knowingly and intentionally" requirement to the prohibition that persons under the age of 18 may not possess or carry a handgun.

Sections 7 and 28 would amend G.S. 14-269.9 (Purchase or possession of firearms by person subject to domestic violence order prohibited) and G.S. 50B-3.1 (Surrender and disposal of firearms; violations; exemptions) to provide that a person who is subject to a 50B order for may own, but not possess, a firearm during the pendency of the order. When the order expires, and provided the defendant is not otherwise precluded from possessing the firearm, the court shall enter an order directing the return of the firearm. The penalty for a violation of either statute would also be reduced from a Class H felony to a Class 1 misdemeanor.

Section 8 would amend G.S. 14-227.1 (Communicating threats) to provide that a person may be guilty of communicating a threat in certain circumstances if the threat is made "without lawful justification."

Section 9 would amend G.S. 14-277.2 (Weapons at parades, etc., prohibited) to allow a person to possess a rifle or gun on a rack in a pickup truck or otherwise locked within a vehicle or stored in a locked container securely affixed to the vehicle. It would also exempt persons carrying a concealed handgun if they have a valid concealed carry permit.

Sections 10 and 11 would allow a person to possess a weapon of mass death and destruction or a machine gun if that person possesses and owns the weapons in compliance with federal law.

Section 12 amends G.S. 14-402 to allow a sworn law-enforcement officer who is certified by the North Carolina Criminal Justice Education and Training Standards Commission to purchase a pistol or a crossbow without first obtaining a pistol permit.

Section 13 makes it a Class F felony to knowingly solicit, persuade, encourage or entice a licensed dealer or private sell of firearms or ammunition to transfer the firearm or ammunition if the person knows the transfer will violate State or federal law. It would also be a Class F felony to provide materially false information to a licensed dealer or private sell of firearms or ammunition with the intent to deceive dealer about the legality of the transfer..

Section 14 would allow a citizen of this State to purchase a firearm in another state if the person undergoes a background check that satisfies the law of that state and that include an inquire of the National Instant Background Check System.

Section 15 amends G.S. 14-409.40 (Statewide uniformity of local regulation) to prohibit a unit of local government from adopting a general zoning plan that prohibits any commercial activity within a fixed distance of a school. It would also prohibit a unit of local government from prohibiting a person from storing a firearm in a motor vehicle that is in a parking facility within or attached to the governmental building. Sections 31 and 33 make conforming changes.

Section 16 amends Article 53B (Firearm Regulation) of Chapter 14 (Criminal Law) of the General Statutes to add a new section providing that no business, commercial enterprise, or employer shall prohibit the transportation or storage of a firearm or ammunition when the firearm and ammunition are locked out of sight in a motor vehicle. It exempts the following from the storage prohibition: vehicles owned or leased by an employer and where transport or storage of a firearm is prohibited by State or federal law or regulation. Section 29 adds a provision to Chapter 95 which would prevents a decision by a business, commercial enterprise or employer to allow persons with handgun permits to carry the handgun on the premises to constitute an occupational hazard.

Section 17 amends G.S. 14-415.1 (Possession of firearms, etc., by felon prohibited) to allow a person who is pardoned or whose firearms rights have been restored to be eligible to possess a firearm.

Section 18 amends G.S. 14-415.11 (Scope of concealed carry permit) to allow individuals with valid permits to carry a concealed weapon at parades, assemblies and at the Legislative Complex.

Section 19 amends G.S. 14-415.12 (Criteria to qualify for the issuance of a permit) to remove the listed disqualifications, most of which are already covered under other State and federal law.

Section 20 limits the permissible use of a release of mental health records.

Section 21 makes a conforming change.

Section 22 reduces, from 90 to 45 days, the amount of time a sheriff has to renew a concealed carry permit. It also removes the fingerprint requirement for renewals.

Section 23 makes a technical change.

Section 24 removes social security numbers from the list of identifying information a sheriff must keep related to concealed carry permittees.

Section 25 on an appeal of a denial to issue a concealed carry permit, the statute is amended to place on the sheriff the burden of showing that a person who applies for or seeks to renew a concealed carry permit is disqualified from receiving one.

Section 26 repeals the criminal penalties for failing to a concealed carry permit when carrying a concealed weapon, or for failing to inform a law enforcement officer that you possess a valid permit.

Section 27 makes North Carolina's concealed carry reciprocity statute a pure recognition statute.

Section 30 prohibits the Legislative Services Commission from adopting a rule that would prohibit the transportation or storage of a firearm in a locked vehicle when the vehicle is parked on the Legislative Complex.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act becomes effective December 1, 2011, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date.

HOUSE BILL 690:
RE Closing Interest/Civil Penalty UPL

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	House Judiciary Subcommittee C	Date:	May 18, 2011
Introduced by:	Reps. Stevens, Jordan, T. Moore	Prepared by:	O. Walker Reagan Staff Attorney
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition H690-CSRU-3

SUMMARY: The Proposed Committee Substitute for House Bill 690 insures that all interest earned on real estate closing funds held in trust by settlement agents must be paid into the N.C. State Bar's Interest on Lawyers' Trust Account (IOLTA) program. The bill prohibits the recovery of fees for legal services performed as the unauthorized practice of law. The bill also creates a private cause of action for damages and attorney's fees arising from the unauthorized practice of law.

CURRENT LAW: Chapter 45A of the General Statutes regulates settlements or closings of real estate transactions involving one- to four-family residential dwellings or lots restricted to residential use.

Article 1 of Chapter 84 of the General Statutes regulates the practice of law in NC. Attorneys are required to maintain their trust accounts as IOLTA accounts, for which interested earned on these accounts is paid to the NC State Bar. The NC Supreme Court has directed that funds in the IOLTA program are to be used by the NC State Bar to provide civil legal services for indigents, improvements in grievance and disciplinary procedures to protect the public from incompetent and unethical attorneys, loans for legal education, and other programs to improve the administration of justice as approved by the NC Supreme Court. Practicing law without a license (also known as the unauthorized practice of law) is a Class 1 misdemeanor. In addition to prosecution as a criminal offense, the NC State Bar is authorized to seek injunctive relief and permanent restraining orders against the continued unauthorized practice of law. Private causes of action for damages arising from the unauthorized practice of law are generally limited to actions based on fraud.

BILL ANALYSIS: Section 1 of the proposed committee substitute for HB 690 amends the Good Funds Settlement Act by adding a new section to require that interest earned on trust or escrow accounts maintained by settlement agents closing real property transactions for one- to four-family residences be paid to the NC State Bar for IOLTA programs.

Section 2 prohibits a person engaged in the unauthorized practice of law from collecting fees for services performed and makes other conforming changes.

Section 3 recodifies current standard exceptions to the unauthorized practice of law.

Section 4 repeals a section setting out punishment for a specific unauthorized practice of law which is now included in the punishments being amended in Section 2 of the bill.

Section 5 creates a private cause of action for a person who is damaged by a person who commits the unauthorized practice of law, fraudulently holds him or herself out as a certified paralegal, or knowingly aids or abets another to commit the unauthorized practice of law. A person proving damages under this section will also be entitled to recover reasonable attorney's fees.

Section 6 makes a conforming change to allow the State Bar to make rules to implement Section 1 of the bill.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The interest earned on trust or escrow account provisions (Sections 1 and 6) become effective January 1, 2012. Sections 2, 3 and 4 become effective December 1, 2011 and apply to offenses committed on or after that date. Sections 5 and 7 become effective October 1, 2011.

HOUSE BILL 650:
Amend Various Gun Laws/Castle Doctrine

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	House Judiciary Subcommittee C	Date:	May 25, 2011
Introduced by:	Reps. Hilton, LaRoque, Cleveland, Hastings	Prepared by:	Kory Goldsmith
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition H650-CSRC-30		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: HB650 would amend numerous State laws related to the ownership and possession of guns. It would also expand the "Castle Doctrine" to apply to a motor vehicle or the workplace.

CURRENT LAW: Castle Doctrine: The General Assembly enacted G.S. 14-51.1 (see attached) in 1994. Prior to the passage of the law, deadly force could only be used if the lawful occupant believed that an intruder attempting to unlawfully and forcibly enter the home might kill or inflict serious bodily injury. The common law rules of self-defense applied to someone who was already within the home. There was no right to use deadly force to protect property within the home, i.e., the lawful occupant believed that the intruder was going to commit some felony (e.g., theft) other than inflicting injury on an occupant.

G.S. 14-51.1 provides that deadly force may be used to prevent a forcible entry into the home or to terminate the unlawful entry if:

(1) The occupant reasonably apprehends that the intruder might kill or inflict serious bodily harm to the occupant or others; OR
(2) The occupant reasonably believes that the intruder intended to commit a felony in the home.

The determination is now a fact-based, subjective-objective analysis. Whether someone alleged to be an intruder had been attempting to, or had already, unlawfully and forcibly entered the home is a fact-based issue. The occupant must believe [subjective] that the intruder intended to kill or inflict serious bodily harm commit a felony. If so, is the belief reasonable [objective] under the circumstances?

BILL ANALYSIS: Castle Doctrine

Section 1 enacts G.S. 14-51.2. which would eliminate the "objective analysis" by stating that a person is presumed to have held a reasonable fear of death or bodily harm if both of the following apply:

1. The intruder was unlawfully and forcibly entering, or had unlawfully and forcibly entered the home, or removing or attempting to remove another from the (a question of fact), AND

2. The person using defensive force either knew or had reason to believe that an unlawful act was occurring or occurred..

The presumption stated above would be rebuttable if the location where the intrusion occurred is either a vehicle or workplace

The statute also:

- Provides definitions for terms, and states that there is a presumption that a person held a reasonable fear of death or great bodily harm to himself or another if the two requirements listed in the statute are met. This removes the burden from the person using defensive force to prove that their belief was reasonable.
- In a criminal case, if the defendant asserts the use of justifiable force as a defense to the charge, then the prosecutor has the burden of proof by producing evidence which disproves the defense beyond a reasonable doubt. In a civil action where the person who used defensive force was the defendant, the plaintiff would have the burden in a civil action to prove that the fear was not reasonable.
- The act contains a list of exceptions to the presumption. The exceptions include circumstances where the person against whom the defensive force is used was a lawful resident, and there was no court order providing for non-contact by that person; the person being removed was a child or grandchild, or was in the lawful custody of the person removing them; the person using defensive force was furthering a criminal offense that involved the use of force; a law enforcement officer was the person against whom the force was used; and the person against whom the force was used had discontinued efforts to unlawfully enter and had exited the dwelling.
- The act also provides that a person who unlawfully and by force enters, or attempts to enter the specified locations is presumed to be doing so with the intent to commit an unlawful act involving force or violence.
- A person who justifiably uses force as provided in the section is immune from criminal prosecution and civil action. An exception to this immunity is where the force was used against a law enforcement officer acting in the performance of duties and who identified himself or herself, or the person using force knew or reasonably should have known that the person was a law enforcement officer.
- The act provides that a person in any of the specified locations has no duty to retreat, which is consistent with the current law in relation to the home.

Section 1 enacts G.S. 14-51.3 – Use of force in defense of person; relief from criminal or civil liability, a "stand your ground" provision. A person is justified in using force, except deadly force, against another when and to the extent that the person reasonably believes that the conduct is necessary to defend himself or herself or another against the other's imminent use of unlawful force. However, a person is justified in the use of deadly force and does not have a duty to retreat in any place he or she has the lawful right to be if either of the following applies:

(1) He or she reasonably believes that such force is necessary to prevent imminent death or great bodily harm to himself or herself or another.

(2) Under the circumstances permitted above in G.S. 14 51.2. (use of force occurs in the home, motor vehicle, or workplace).

This provision does not contain a presumption, i.e., the use of defensive force will be just on what is considered objectively reasonable for the purposes of defense. The use of deadly force would come under the previous rules that applied in the home, i.e., the person must have a reasonable belief that the force was necessary to prevent imminent death or serious bodily harm to himself or herself, or another. However, the use of deadly force to prevent a felony (which is in the current "castle doctrine" as it pertains to the home) is not included in the act. The provision contains a provision concerning immunity from civil or criminal liability that is similar to the one contained in G.S. 14-51.2, above.

Section 1 also enacts G.S. 14-51.4 – Justification for defensive force not available which provides that the justifications for the use of defensive force if the person using the force (1) was attempting to commit a crime or escaping after the commission of a crime; or (2) provoked the use of force. However, even if the person initially provoked the use of force, he or she may still use defensive force if certain conditions are met.

Section 2 repeals G.S. 14-51.1, the current law regarding use of deadly physical force against an intruder. The bill repeals the current "Castle Doctrine" statute.

CURRENT LAW: Possession and carrying concealed weapons

G.S. 14-269(a) makes it unlawful for any individual to willfully and intentionally carry concealed about their person any of the following: bowie knife, dirk, dagger, slung shot, loaded cane, metallic knuckles, razor, shurikin, stun gun, and other deadly weapon.

G.S. 14-269(a1) makes it unlawful to carry concealed a pistol or gun, unless it is on the individual's property, the individual has a concealed carry permit, or is a military permittee. Violation is a misdemeanor. The prohibition does not apply to ordinary pocket knives.

G.S. 14-269(b) provides that the prohibitions against carrying a concealed weapon do not apply to any of the following individuals:

1. Officers and enlisted personnel of the armed forces of the United States when in discharge of their official duties and acting under orders requiring them to carry arms and weapons.
2. Civil and law enforcement officers of the United States.
3. Officers and soldiers of the militia and the National Guard when called into actual service.
4. Officers of the State, or of any county, city, town, or company police agency charged with the execution of the laws of the State, when acting in the discharge of their official duties.
5. Sworn law-enforcement officers, when off-duty, provided that an officer does not carry a concealed weapon while consuming alcohol or an unlawful controlled substance or while alcohol or an unlawful controlled substance remains in the officer's body.

The individuals listed in #1-5 above are also exempt from the following statutory provisions. Persons who hold a concealed carry permit are subject to these provisions.

- G.S. 14-269.2. Weapons on campus or other education property.
- G.S. 14-269.3. Carrying weapons into assemblies and establishments where alcoholic beverages are sold and consumed.
- G.S. 14-269.4. Weapons on State property and courthouses.
- G.S. 14-277.2. Weapons at parades, etc.

- G.S. 14-288.7. Transporting dangerous weapon or substance during emergency; possessing off premises; exceptions.
- G.S. 14-288.8. Manufacture, assembly, possession, storage, transportation, sale, purchase, delivery, or acquisition of weapon of mass death and destruction; exceptions.
- G.S. 14-288.21. Unlawful manufacture, assembly, possession, storage, transportation, sale, purchase, delivery, or acquisition of a nuclear, biological, or chemical weapon of mass destruction; exceptions; punishment.

BILL ANALYSIS: Possession and carrying a concealed weapon

Section 3 amends G.S. 14-269(b) regarding those individuals who may carry a concealed weapon when not on individual's property without first obtaining a concealed carry permit. It would add a qualified retired law enforcement officer who is certified by the North Carolina Criminal Justice Education and Training Standards Commission provided the person is not consuming, or have remaining in the officer's body, alcohol or an unlawful controlled substance.
Sections 4 and 5 would amend G.S. 14-269.2 (Weapons on campus or other educational property). Subsection (a) is amended by restricting the scope of the prohibition against weapons on educational property to property owned or operated by a school. Subsection (b) is amended so that in order to be criminally liable for possessing or carrying a gun onto educational property, the defendant would have to do so willfully and intentionally. The bill would also allow a person who holds a concealed carry permit to possess or carry a firearm on school property or to an extracurricular event provide the firearm is in a closed compartment or container in a locked vehicle or is in a locked container securely affixed to the vehicle.

Section 6 would amend G.S. 14-269.4 (Weapons on State Property and in courthouses) to exempt individuals who hold a valid permit to carry a concealed weapon if the firearm is in a closed container within a locked motor vehicle or in a located container securely affixed to the person's vehicle.

Section 7 would add the "knowingly and intentionally" requirement to the prohibition that persons under the age of 18 may not possess or carry a handgun. It would also increase the penalty for violation from a Class 2 to a Class 1 misdemeanor.

Sections 8, 27 and 28 would amend G.S. 14-269.9 (Purchase or possession of firearms by person subject to domestic violence order prohibited) and G.S. 50B-3.1 (Surrender and disposal of firearms; violations; exemptions) to provide that a person who is subject to a 50B order may own, but not possess, a firearm during the pendency of the order.

Sections 9 and 10 would allow a person to possess a weapon of mass death and destruction or a machine gun if that person possesses and owns the weapons in compliance with federal law.

Section 11amends G.S. 14-402 to allow a sworn law-enforcement officer who is certified by the North Carolina Criminal Justice Education and Training Standards Commission to purchase a pistol or a crossbow without first obtaining a pistol permit.

Section 12 makes it a Class F felony to knowingly solicit, persuade, encourage or entice a licensed dealer or private sell of firearms or ammunition to transfer the firearm or ammunition if the person knows the transfer will violate State or federal law. It would also be a Class F felony to provide materially false information to a licensed dealer or private sell of firearms or ammunition with the intent to deceive dealer about the legality of the transfer.

Section 13 would allow a citizen of this State to purchase a firearm in another state if the person undergoes a background check that satisfies the law of that state and that include an inquire of the National Instant Background Check System.

Section 14 amends Article 53B (Firearm Regulation) of Chapter 14 (Criminal Law) of the General Statutes to add a new section providing that no business, commercial enterprise, or employer shall prohibit the transportation or storage of a firearm or ammunition when the firearm and ammunition are locked out of sight in a motor vehicle. It exempts the following from the storage prohibition: vehicles owned or leased by an employer and where transport or storage of a firearm is prohibited by State or federal law or regulation. Section 29 adds a provision to Chapter 95 which would prevents a decision by a business, commercial enterprise or employer to allow persons with handgun permits to carry the handgun on the premises to constitute an occupational hazard.

Section 15 amends G.S. 14-415.1 (Possession of firearms, etc., by felon prohibited) to allow a person who is pardoned or whose firearms rights have been restored to be eligible to possess a firearm.

Section 16 clarifies the circumstances when a person who holds a concealed carry permit has a duty to disclose to a law enforcement officer that the person holds a permit and is carrying a concealed weapon. The duty applies when the person is approached or addressed by an officer while the officer is in the performance of official duties.

Section 17 adds a new subsection to G.S. 14-415.11 (Scope of concealed carry permit). Unless otherwise provided by law, a person who holds a valid concealed carry permit may carry a weapon in a motor vehicle provided it is locked within the vehicle or stored in a locked container securely affixed to the vehicle.

Section 18 amends G.S. 14-415.11 (Scope of concealed carry permit) to allow individuals with valid permits to carry a concealed weapon at assemblies.

Section 19 limits the permissible use of a release of mental health records.

Section 20 makes a conforming change.

Section 21 reduces, from 90 to 45 days, the amount of time a sheriff has to renew a concealed carry permit. However, the 45 days is measured from the time the sheriff receives the required records concerning mental health or competency of the applicant.

Section 22 removes the requirement to provide fingerprints for a renewal application.

Section 23 removes social security numbers from the list of identifying information a sheriff must keep related to concealed carry permittees

Section 24 clarifies the grounds upon which a sheriff may revoke a concealed carry permit for misuse of the permit. A permit hold may not give a duplicate permit to another person unless that person is a vender and the duplicate is for record keeping purposes.

Section 25 reduces the penalty for second and subsequent offenses involving the failure of a concealed carry permit holder to carry the permit when also carrying a concealed weapon, or for failing to inform a law enforcement officer that the permittee is carrying a concealed weapon.

Section 26 makes North Carolina's concealed carry reciprocity statute a pure recognition statute.

Section 30 prohibits the Legislative Services Commission from adopting a rule that would prohibit the transportation or storage of a firearm in a locked vehicle when the vehicle is parked on the Legislative Complex.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act becomes effective December 1, 2011, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date. Prosecutions for offenses committed before that date are not abated.

(1) The person against whom the defensive force is used has the right to be in or is a lawful resident of the home, motor vehicle, or workplace such as an owner or lessee, and there is not an injunction for protection from domestic violence or a written pretrial supervision order of no contact against that person.

b. The person who used defensive force withdraws, in good faith, from physical contact with the person who was provoked, and indicates clearly that he or she desires to withdraw and terminate the use of force, but the person who was provoked continues or resumes the use of force."

(a) It is declared by the General Assembly that the regulation of firearms is properly an issue of general, statewide concern, and that the entire field of regulation of firearms is preempted from regulation by local governments except as provided by this section.

(a1) The General Assembly further declares that the lawful design, marketing, manufacture, distribution, sale, or transfer of firearms or ammunition to the public is not an unreasonably dangerous activity and does not constitute a nuisance per se and furthermore, that it is the unlawful use of firearms and ammunition, rather than their lawful design, marketing, manufacture, distribution, sale, or transfer that is the proximate cause of injuries arising from their unlawful use. This subsection applies only to causes of action brought under subsection (g) of this section.

(b) Unless otherwise permitted by this section or other State statute, no county or municipality, or instrumentality or agent thereof, by ordinance, resolution, exercise of proprietary authority, or other enactment, shall regulate in any manner the possession, ownership, storage, transfer, sale, purchase, licensing, or registration of firearms, firearms

(d) No county or municipality, or instrumentality or agent thereof, by zoning or other ordinance, shall regulate in any manner firearms shows with regulations more stringent than those applying to shows of other types of items.

(e) A county or municipality may regulate the transport, carrying, or possession of firearms by employees of the local unit of government in the course of their employment with that local unit of government.

(f) Nothing contained in this section prohibits municipalities or counties from application of their authority under G.S. 153A-129, 160A-189, 14-269, 14-269.2, 14-269.3, 14-269.4, 14-277.2, 14-415.11, 14-415.23, ~~including~~ or from prohibiting the possession of firearms in public-owned ~~buildings, on the grounds or parking areas of those buildings, or in public parks or recreation areas,~~ buildings, except nothing in this subsection shall prohibit a person from storing a firearm within a motor vehicle while the vehicle is ~~on these grounds or areas. Any action brought by the State pursuant to this section shall be brought by the Attorney General on behalf of the State. This section shall not prohibit a political subdivision or local governmental unit from bringing an action against a firearms or ammunition marketer, manufacturer, distributor, dealer, seller, or trade association for breach of contract or warranty for defect of materials or workmanship as to firearms or ammunition purchased by the political subdivision or local governmental unit."

SECTION 9. G.S. 14-415.1 reads as rewritten:

The term "conviction" is defined as a final judgment in any case in which felony punishment, or imprisonment for a term exceeding one year, as the case may be, is ~~permissible,~~ authorized, without regard to the plea entered or to the sentence imposed. A judgment of a conviction of the defendant or a plea of guilty by the defendant to such an offense certified to a superior court of this State from the custodian of records of any state or federal court shall be prima facie evidence of the facts so certified.

(c) The indictment charging the defendant under the terms of this section shall be separate from any indictment charging him with other offenses related to or giving rise to a charge under this section. An indictment which charges the person with violation of this section must set forth the date that the prior offense was committed, the type of offense and the penalty therefor, and the date that the defendant was convicted or plead guilty to such offense, the identity of the court in which the conviction or plea of guilty took place and the verdict and judgment rendered therein.

(d) This section does not apply to a person ~~whose firearms rights have been restored under G.S. 14-415.4, unless the person is convicted of a subsequent felony after the petition to restore the person's firearms rights is granted.~~ who, pursuant to the law of the jurisdiction in which the conviction occurred, has been pardoned or has had his or her firearms rights restored.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR REVIEW OF A DEFENDANT'S PARTICIPATION IN A COURT-ORDERED ABUSER TREATMENT PROGRAM, AS RECOMMENDED BY THE JOINT LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE ON DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AND TO EXPAND THE TYPES OF OFFENSES REPORTED BY THE CLERK .

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 15A-1343(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Regular Conditions. – As regular conditions of probation, a defendant must:

(1) Commit no criminal offense in any jurisdiction.

(2) Remain within the jurisdiction of the court unless granted written permission to leave by the court or his probation officer.

(3) Report as directed by the court or his probation officer to the officer at reasonable times and places and in a reasonable manner, permit the officer to visit him at reasonable times, answer all reasonable inquiries by the officer and obtain prior approval from the officer for, and notify the officer of, any change in address or employment.

(4) Satisfy child support and other family obligations as required by the court. If the court requires the payment of child support, the amount of the payments shall be determined as provided in G.S. 50-13.4(c).

(5) Possess no firearm, explosive device or other deadly weapon listed in G.S. 14-269 without the written permission of the court.

(6) Pay a supervision fee as specified in subsection (c1).

(7) Remain gainfully and suitably employed or faithfully pursue a course of study or of vocational training that will equip him for suitable employment. A defendant pursuing a course of study or of vocational training shall abide by all of the rules of the institution providing the education or training, and the probation officer shall forward a copy of the probation judgment to that institution and request to be notified of any violations of institutional rules by the defendant.

(8) Notify the probation officer if he fails to obtain or retain satisfactory employment.

(9) Pay the costs of court, any fine ordered by the court, and make restitution or reparation as provided in subsection (d).

(10) Pay the State of North Carolina for the costs of appointed counsel, public defender, or appellate defender to represent him in the case(s) for which he was placed on probation.

(11) At a time to be designated by his probation officer, visit with his probation officer a facility maintained by the Division of Prisons.

(12) Attend and complete an abuser treatment program if (i) the court finds the defendant is responsible for acts of domestic violence and (ii) there is a program, approved by the Domestic Violence Commission, reasonably available to the defendant, unless the court finds that such would not be in the best interests of justice. A defendant attending an abuser treatment program shall abide by all of the rules of the program. If the defendant is discharged from the program for failure to comply with the program or its rules, such noncompliance shall be reported to the court. The probation officer shall forward a copy of the judgment including all conditions of probation to the program, and the abuser treatment program shall notify the probation officer of any violations of program rules by the defendant.

(13) Submit at reasonable times to warrantless searches by a probation officer of the probationer's person and of the probationer's vehicle and premises while the probationer is present, for purposes directly related to the probation supervision, but the probationer may not be required to submit to any other search that would otherwise be unlawful. Whenever the warrantless search consists of testing for the presence of illegal drugs, the probationer may also be required to reimburse the Department of Correction for the actual cost of drug screening and drug testing, if the results are positive.

(14) Submit to warrantless searches by a law enforcement officer of the probationer's person and of the probationer's vehicle, upon a reasonable suspicion that the probationer is engaged in criminal activity or is in possession of a firearm, explosive device, or other deadly weapon listed in G.S. 14-269 without written permission of the court.

(15) Not use, possess, or control any illegal drug or controlled substance unless it has been prescribed for him or her by a licensed physician and is in the original container with the prescription number affixed on it; not knowingly associate with any known or previously convicted users, possessors, or sellers of any such illegal drugs or controlled substances; and not knowingly be present at or frequent any place where such illegal drugs or controlled substances are sold, kept, or used.

A defendant shall not pay costs associated with a substance abuse monitoring program or any other special condition of probation in lieu of, or prior to, the payments required by this subsection.

In addition to these regular conditions of probation, a defendant required to serve an active term of imprisonment as a condition of special probation pursuant to G.S. 15A-1344(e) or G.S. 15A-1351(a) shall, as additional regular conditions of probation, obey the rules and regulations of the Department of Correction governing the conduct of inmates while imprisoned and report to a probation officer in the State of North Carolina within 72 hours of his discharge from the active term of imprisonment.

Regular conditions of probation apply to each defendant placed on supervised probation unless the presiding judge specifically exempts the defendant from one or more of the conditions in open court and in the judgment of the court. It is not necessary for the presiding judge to state each regular condition of probation in open court, but the conditions must be set forth in the judgment of the court.

Defendants placed on unsupervised probation are subject to the provisions of this subsection, except that defendants placed on unsupervised probation are not subject to the regular conditions contained in subdivisions (2), (3), (6), (8), (11), (13), (14), and (15) of this subsection. If a defendant placed on unsupervised probation is subject to condition (12) of this subsection, the court shall schedule a compliance review hearing within 60 days of judgment and every 60 days thereafter until the defendant completes the abuser treatment program."

SECTION 2. G.S. 15A-1382.1 reads as rewritten:

"§ 15A-1382.1. Reports of disposition; domestic violence; sentencing.

(a) If the court finds that a defendant is guilty of an offense, including, but not limited to acts as defined in G.S. Chapter 50B-1(a), ~~When a defendant is found guilty of an offense involving assault, or communicating a threat,~~ the presiding judge shall determine whether the defendant and victim had a personal relationship. If the judge determines that there was a personal relationship between the defendant and the victim, then the judge shall indicate on the form reflecting the judgment that the case involved domestic violence. The clerk of court shall insure that the official record of the defendant's conviction includes the court's determination, so that any inquiry into the defendant's criminal record will reflect that the offense involved domestic violence.

~~(b) If the presiding judge determines that there was a personal relationship between the defendant and the victim, and a sentence to community punishment is imposed, the judge shall determine whether the defendant shall comply with one or more of the special conditions of probation set forth at G.S. 15A-1343(b1), in addition to any other authorized punishment. Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 15A-1340.11(6)c, the court may require the defendant to comply with the provisions of G.S. 15A-1343(b1)(3c).~~

(b)~~(c)~~ The following definitions apply to this section:

~~(1) "An offense involving assault" includes any offense where an assault occurred, whether or not the conviction is for an offense under Article 8 of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes.~~

(1)~~(2)~~ "Inquiry" shall include any lawful review of the criminal records of persons convicted of an offense in this State, whether by law enforcement personnel or by private individuals.

(2)~~(3)~~ "Personal relationship" is as defined in G.S. 50B-1(b). (2004-186, s. 11.1.)".

SECTION 3. This act becomes effective December 1, 2011, and applies to defendants placed on probation on or after that date.

HOUSE BILL 176:
Review DV Program Participation

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	House Judiciary Subcommittee C	Date:	May 31, 2011
Introduced by:	Reps. McLawhorn, Ross, Farmer-Butterfield	Prepared by:	Janice Paul Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition H176-CSTJ-15

SUMMARY: The Proposed Committee Substitute to House Bill 176 would provide for court review of a defendant's participation in a court-ordered abuser treatment program, as recommended by the Joint Legislative Committee on Domestic Violence, and expand the types of offenses reported by the clerk.

CURRENT LAW: G.S. 15A-1343(12) provides that a court may order a defendant who has been found responsible for acts of domestic violence to attend and complete an abuser treatment program approved by the Domestic Violence Commission, unless the court finds that such would not be in the best interests of justice.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Sec. 1 would add to G.S. 15A-1343(b)(12), allowing the court to order a defendant to participate in an approved abuser treatment program (ATP) as a regular condition of probation, the following requirements:

- A defendant must comply with all rules of the ATP.
- The defendant's discharge from the ATP for rules noncompliance must be reported to the court.
- The defendant's probation officer (P.O.) must provide the ATP with a copy of the court order specifying the conditions of probation.
- The ATP must notify the P.O. if the defendant violates any program rules.

The PCS to HB 176 would also provide that if a defendant placed on unsupervised probation is ordered to attend and complete an ATP, the court is required to schedule a compliance review hearing within 60 days of the entry of judgment, and every 60 days thereafter until the defendant completes the ATP.

Sec. 2 would amend G.S. 15A-1382.1, "Reports of disposition; domestic violence; sentencing," to expand the types of offenses reported by the clerk from offenses involving assault or communicating threats to "acts as defined in G.S. Chapter 50B-1."[1] The remaining changes to this section are conforming changes.

[1] § 50B-1. Domestic violence; definition.

(a) Domestic violence means the commission of one or more of the following acts upon an aggrieved party or upon a minor child residing with or in the custody of the aggrieved party by a person with whom the aggrieved party has or has had a personal relationship, but does not include acts of self-defense:

(1) Attempting to cause bodily injury, or intentionally causing bodily injury; or

(2) Placing the aggrieved party or a member of the aggrieved party's family or household in fear of imminent serious bodily injury or continued harassment, as defined in G.S. 14-277.3A, that rises to such a level as to inflict substantial emotional distress; or

(3) Committing any act defined in G.S. 14-27.2 through G.S. 14-27.7. [First-degree rape; Rape of a child by adult offender; Second-degree rape; First-degree sexual offense; Sexual offense with a child by adult offender; Second-degree sexual offense; Sexual battery; statutory rape or sexual offense.]

EFFECTIVE DATE: The act becomes effective December 1, 2011.

"(12) Attend and complete an abuser treatment program if (i) the court finds the defendant is responsible for acts of domestic violence and (ii) there is a program, approved by the Domestic Violence Commission, reasonably available to the defendant, unless the court finds that such would not be in the best interests of justice. A defendant attending an abuser treatment program shall abide by all of the rules of the program. The probation officer shall forward a copy of the probation judgment to the program and request to be notified of any violations of program rules by the defendant. The court shall review the defendant's participation in the program within 30 days of a notification that the defendant has violated program rules or failed to complete the program within the specified time period for completion. The notification of the review shall be conducted according to the procedures set forth in G.S. 15A-1342(d)."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective December 1, 2011, and applies to defendants placed on probation on or after that date.

HOUSE BILL 650:
Amend Various Gun Laws/Castle Doctrine

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary II	Date:	June 12, 2011
Introduced by:	Reps. Hilton, LaRoque, Cleveland, Hastings	Prepared by:	Hal Pell
Analysis of:	PCS to Third Edition H650-CSRK-104		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: HB650 would amend numerous State laws related to the ownership and possession of guns. It would also expand the "Castle Doctrine" to apply to a motor vehicle or the workplace.

CURRENT LAW: Castle Doctrine: The General Assembly enacted G.S. 14-51.1 in 1994. Prior to the passage of the law, deadly force could only be used if the lawful occupant believed that an intruder attempting to unlawfully and forcibly enter the home might kill or inflict serious bodily injury. The common law rules of self-defense applied to someone who was already within the home. There was no right to use deadly force to protect property within the home, i.e., the lawful occupant believed that the intruder was going to commit some felony (e.g., theft) other than inflicting injury on an occupant.

G.S. 14-51.1 provides that deadly force may be used to prevent a forcible entry into the home or to terminate the unlawful entry if:

- The occupant reasonably apprehends that the intruder might kill or inflict serious bodily harm to the occupant or others; OR
- The occupant reasonably believes that the intruder intended to commit a felony in the home.

The determination is now a fact-based, subjective-objective analysis. Whether someone alleged to be an intruder had been attempting to, or had already, unlawfully and forcibly entered the home is a fact-based issue. The occupant must believe [subjective] that the intruder intended to kill or inflict serious bodily harm commit a felony. If so, is the belief reasonable [objective] under the circumstances?

BILL ANALYSIS: Castle Doctrine

Section 1 enacts G.S. 14-51.2. which would eliminate the "objective analysis" by stating that a person is presumed to have held a reasonable fear of death or bodily harm if both of the following apply:

1. The intruder was unlawfully and forcibly entering, or had unlawfully and forcibly entered the home, or removing or attempting to remove another from the (a question of fact), AND

2. The person using defensive force either knew or had reason to believe that an unlawful act was occurring or occurred..

The presumption stated above is rebuttable.

The statute also:

- Provides definitions for terms, and states that there is a presumption that a person held a reasonable fear of death or great bodily harm to himself or another if the two requirements listed in the statute are met. This removes the burden from the person using defensive force to prove that their belief was reasonable.
- In a criminal case, if the defendant asserts the use of justifiable force as a defense to the charge, then the prosecutor has the burden of proof by producing evidence which disproves the defense beyond a reasonable doubt. In a civil action where the person who used defensive force was the defendant, the plaintiff would have the burden in a civil action to prove that the fear was not reasonable.

- The act contains a list of exceptions to the presumption. The exceptions include circumstances where the person against whom the defensive force is used was a lawful resident, and there was no court order providing for non-contact by that person; the person being removed was a child or grandchild, or was in the lawful custody of the person removing them; the person using defensive force was furthering a criminal offense that involved the use of force; a law enforcement officer or bail bondsman was the person against whom the force was used; and the person against whom the force was used had discontinued efforts to unlawfully enter and had exited the dwelling.
- The act also provides that a person who unlawfully and by force enters, or attempts to enter the specified locations is presumed to be doing so with the intent to commit an unlawful act involving force or violence.
- A person who justifiably uses force as provided in the section is immune from criminal prosecution and civil action. An exception to this immunity is where the force was used against a law enforcement officer or bail bondsman acting in the performance of duties and who identified himself or herself, or the person using force knew or reasonably should have known that the person was a law enforcement officer.
- The act provides that a person in any of the specified locations has no duty to retreat, which is consistent with the current law in relation to the home.

Section 1 enacts G.S. 14-51.3 – Use of force in defense of person; relief from criminal or civil liability, a "stand your ground" provision. A person is justified in using force, except deadly force, against another when and to the extent that the person reasonably believes that the conduct is necessary to defend himself or herself or another against the other's imminent use of unlawful force. However, a person is justified in the use of deadly force and does not have a duty to retreat in any place he or she has the lawful right to be if either of the following applies:

(1) He or she reasonably believes that such force is necessary to prevent imminent death or great bodily harm to himself or herself or another.

(2) Under the circumstances permitted above in G.S. 14 51.2. (use of force occurs in the home, motor vehicle, or workplace).

This provision does not contain a presumption, i.e., the use of defensive force will be just on what is considered objectively reasonable for the purposes of defense. The use of deadly force would come under the previous rules that applied in the home, i.e., the person must have a reasonable belief that the force was necessary to prevent imminent death or serious bodily harm to himself or herself, or another. However, the use of deadly force to prevent a felony (which is in the current "castle doctrine" as it pertains to the home) is not included in the act. The provision contains a provision concerning immunity from civil or criminal liability that is similar to the one contained in G.S. 14-51.2, above.

Section 1 also enacts G.S. 14-51.4 – Justification for defensive force not available which provides that the justifications for the use of defensive force if the person using the force (1) was attempting to commit a crime or escaping after the commission of a crime; or (2) provoked the use of force. However, even if the person initially provoked the use of force, he or she may still use defensive force if certain conditions are met.

Section 2 repeals G.S. 14-51.1, the current law regarding use of deadly physical force against an intruder. The bill repeals the current "Castle Doctrine" statute.

CURRENT LAW: Possession and carrying concealed weapons

G.S. 14-269(a) makes it unlawful for any individual to willfully and intentionally carry concealed about their person any of the following: bowie knife, dirk, dagger, slung shot, loaded cane, metallic knuckles, razor, shurikin, stun gun, and other deadly weapon.

G.S. 14-269(a1) makes it unlawful to carry concealed a pistol or gun, unless it is on the individual's property, the individual has a concealed carry permit, or is a military permittee. Violation is a misdemeanor. The prohibition does not apply to ordinary pocket knives.

G.S. 14-269(b) provides that the prohibitions against carrying a concealed weapon do not apply to any of the following individuals:

1. Officers and enlisted personnel of the armed forces of the United States when in discharge of their official duties and acting under orders requiring them to carry arms and weapons.
2. Civil and law enforcement officers of the United States.
3. Officers and soldiers of the militia and the National Guard when called into actual service.
4. Officers of the State, or of any county, city, town, or company police agency charged with the execution of the laws of the State, when acting in the discharge of their official duties.
5. Sworn law-enforcement officers, when off-duty, provided that an officer does not carry a concealed weapon while consuming alcohol or an unlawful controlled substance or while alcohol or an unlawful controlled substance remains in the officer's body.

The individuals listed in #1-5 above are also exempt from the following statutory provisions. Persons who hold a concealed carry permit are subject to these provisions.

- G.S. 14-269.2. Weapons on campus or other education property.
- G.S. 14-269.3. Carrying weapons into assemblies and establishments where alcoholic beverages are sold and consumed.
- G.S. 14-269.4. Weapons on State property and courthouses.
- G.S. 14-277.2. Weapons at parades, etc.
- G.S. 14-288.7. Transporting dangerous weapon or substance during emergency; possessing off premises; exceptions.
- G.S. 14-288.8. Manufacture, assembly, possession, storage, transportation, sale, purchase, delivery, or acquisition of weapon of mass death and destruction; exceptions.
- G.S. 14-288.21. Unlawful manufacture, assembly, possession, storage, transportation, sale, purchase, delivery, or acquisition of a nuclear, biological, or chemical weapon of mass destruction; exceptions; punishment.

BILL ANALYSIS: Amendments to various gun laws

Section 3 amends G.S. 14-269(b) regarding those individuals who may carry a concealed weapon when not on that individual's property. It would add a district attorney, an assistant district attorney, or an investigator employed by the office of a district attorney, and a qualified retired law enforcement officer who is certified by the North Carolina Criminal Justice Education and Training Standards Commission provided the person is not consuming, or have remaining in the officer's body, alcohol or an unlawful controlled substance.

G.S. 14-415.10(4b) defines a qualified retired law enforcement officer as an individual who meets all of the following qualifications:

a. Retired in good standing from service with a public agency located in the United States as a law enforcement officer, other than for reasons of mental instability.

b. Prior to retirement, was authorized by law to engage in or supervise the prevention, detection, investigation, or prosecution of, or the incarceration of, any person for any violation of law, and had statutory powers of arrest.

c. Prior to retirement, was regularly employed as a law enforcement officer for a total of 15 years or more, or retired after completing probationary periods of service due to a service connected disability, as determined by the agency.

d. Has a vested right to benefits under the retirement plan of the agency.

Section 4 would add a requirement of "knowing" possession on educational property.

Section 5 would amend G.S. 14-269.4 (Weapons on State Property and in courthouses) to exempt individuals who hold a valid permit to carry a concealed weapon if the firearm is in a closed container within a locked motor vehicle or in a located container securely affixed to the person's vehicle.

Section 6 would add the "knowingly and intentionally" requirement to the prohibition that persons under the age of 18 may not possess or carry a handgun. It would also increase the penalty for violation from a Class 2 to a Class 1 misdemeanor.

Sections 7, 23, and 24 would amend G.S. 14-269.9 (Purchase or possession of firearms by person subject to domestic violence order prohibited) and G.S. 50B-3.1 (Surrender and disposal of firearms; violations; exemptions) to clarify that a person who is subject to a 50B order may own, but not possess, a firearm during the pendency of the order.

Sections 8 and 9 would allow a person to possess a weapon of mass death and destruction or a machine gun if that person possesses and owns the weapons in compliance with federal law. The definitions for these weapons are included at the end of this summary.

Section 10 amends G.S. 14-404(d). This provision exempts law enforcement officers from the requirement obtain a purchase permit prior to purchasing a firearm. The amendment removes the requirement that the purchase be directly related to the law officer's official duties, and specifies the type of documentation that is required.

Section 11 makes it a Class F felony to knowingly solicit, persuade, encourage or entice a licensed dealer or private sell of firearms or ammunition to transfer the firearm or ammunition if the person knows the transfer will violate State or federal law. It would also be a Class F felony to provide materially false information to a licensed dealer or private sell of firearms or ammunition with the intent to deceive dealer about the legality of the transfer.

Section 12 clarifies current law regarding the out-of-state purchase of a firearm, and expands purchase to all states (not just contiguous states).

Section 13 amends G.S. 14-415.1 (Possession of firearms, etc., by felon prohibited) to allow a person who is pardoned or whose firearms rights have been restored to be eligible to possess a firearm.

Section 14 makes conforming changes, and adds provisions which preclude carrying a concealed weapon on any private grounds where a sign has been posted to prohibit it; specifies that concealed handgun permit holders may carry concealed on the grounds or waters of any State park; at any State owned rest area, at any State owned rest stop along the highways, and at any State owned hunting and fishing reservation.

Section 15 limits the permissible use of a release of mental health records, but clarifies the information may be included in NICS submissions

Section 16 makes a technical change.

Section 17 reduces, from 90 to 45 days, the amount of time a sheriff has to renew a concealed carry permit. However, the 45 days is measured from the time the sheriff receives the required records concerning mental health or competency of the applicant.

Section 18 removes the requirement to provide fingerprints for a renewal application.

Section 19 removes social security numbers from the list of identifying information a sheriff must keep related to concealed carry permittees.

Section 20 clarifies the grounds upon which a sheriff may revoke a concealed carry permit for misuse of the permit. A permit hold may not give a duplicate permit to another person unless that person is a vender and the duplicate is for record keeping purposes.

Section 21.(a) reduces the penalty for second and subsequent offenses involving the failure of a concealed carry permit holder to carry the permit when also carrying a concealed weapon, or for failing to inform a law enforcement officer that the permittee is carrying a concealed weapon.

Section 21.(b) limits local government ability to prohibit concealed handguns at recreational facilities. Local governments can adopt ordinance only for specific types of facilities: a playground, an athletic field, a swimming pool, and an athletic facility. If an ordinance is adopted, it must include a provision allowing the concealed handgun permittee to secure the handgun in a locked vehicle within the trunk, glove box, or other enclosed compartment or area within or on the motor vehicle.

Section 22.(a) makes North Carolina's concealed carry reciprocity statute a pure recognition statute.

Section 22.(b) authorizes a district attorney, an assistant district attorney, or an investigator employed by the office of a district attorney and who has a concealed handgun permit is not subject to the restrictions and prohibitions set out in G.S. 14 415.11(c).

Sections 23 and 24 (See Section 7)

Section 25 prohibits the Legislative Services Commission from adopting a rule that would prohibit the transportation or storage of a firearm in a locked vehicle when the vehicle is parked on the Legislative Complex. Authorizes legislators and legislative employees to transport and keep firearms in their vehicles while parked in State-leased parking spaces if the firearms are in a closed compartment or container or securely affixed to the vehicle.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act becomes effective December 1, 2011, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date. Prosecutions for offenses committed before that date are not abated.

(2) The person who uses defensive force knew or had reason to believe that an unlawful and forcible entry or unlawful and forcible act was occurring or had occurred.

(c) The presumption set forth in subsection (b) of this section shall be rebuttable and does not apply in any of the following circumstances:

(1) The person against whom the defensive force is used has the right to be in or is a lawful resident of the home, motor vehicle, or workplace, such as an owner or lessee, and there is not an injunction for protection from domestic violence or a written pretrial supervision order of no contact against that person.

"§ 14-51.4. Justification for defensive force not available.

(1) Was attempting to commit, committing, or escaping after the commission of a felony.
(2) Initially provokes the use of force against himself or herself. However, the person who initially provokes the use of force against himself or herself will be justified in using defensive force if either of the following occur:
a. The force used by the person who was provoked is so serious that the person using defensive force reasonably believes that he or she was in imminent danger of death or serious bodily harm, the person using defensive force had no reasonable means to retreat, and the use of force which is likely to cause death or serious bodily harm to the person who was provoked was the only way to escape the danger.
b. The person who used defensive force withdraws, in good faith, from physical contact with the person who was provoked, and indicates clearly that he or she desires to withdraw and terminate the use of force, but the person who was provoked continues or resumes the use of force."

SECTION 3. G.S. 14-269 reads as rewritten:

"§ 14-269. Carrying concealed weapons.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Article 14 of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes is amended by adding the following new sections to read:

"§ 14-51.2. Home, workplace, and motor vehicle protection; presumption of fear of death or serious bodily harm.

(a) The following definitions apply in this section:

(1) Home. – A building or conveyance of any kind, to include its curtilage, whether the building or conveyance is temporary or permanent, mobile or immobile, which has a roof over it, including a tent, and is designed as a temporary or permanent residence.

(2) Law enforcement officer. – Any person employed or appointed as a full-time, part-time, or auxiliary law enforcement officer, correctional officer, probation officer, post-release supervision officer, or parole officer. The term "law enforcement officer" shall include a duly authorized bail bondsman, or his or her employee, who is acting under lawful authority.

(3) Motor vehicle. – As defined in G.S. 20-4.01(23).

(4) Workplace. – A building or conveyance of any kind, whether the building or conveyance is temporary or permanent, mobile or immobile, which has a roof over it, including a tent, which is being used for commercial purposes.

(b) The lawful occupant of a home, motor vehicle, or workplace is presumed to have held a reasonable fear of imminent death or serious bodily harm to himself or herself or another when using defensive force that is intended or likely to cause death or serious bodily harm to another if both of the following apply:

(1) The person against whom the defensive force was used was in the process of unlawfully and forcefully entering, or had unlawfully and forcibly entered, the home, motor vehicle, or workplace, or if that person had removed or was attempting to remove another against that person's will from the home, motor vehicle, or workplace.

(2) The person who uses defensive force knew or had reason to believe that an unlawful and forcible entry or unlawful and forcible act was occurring or had occurred.

(c) The presumption provided in subsection (b) of this section shall be rebuttable if the use of defensive force occurs in a motor vehicle or a workplace. The presumption set forth in subsection (b) of this section does not apply in any of the following circumstances:

(1) The person against whom the defensive force is used has the right to be in or is a lawful resident of the home, motor vehicle, or workplace such as an owner or lessee, and there is not an injunction for protection from domestic violence or a written pretrial supervision order of no contact against that person.

(2) The person sought to be removed from the home, motor vehicle, or workplace is a minor child or minor grandchild or is otherwise in the lawful custody or under the lawful guardianship of the person against whom the defensive force is used.

(3) The person who uses defensive force is engaged in, attempting to escape from, or using the home, motor vehicle, or workplace to further any criminal offense that involves the use or threat of physical force or violence against any individual.

(4) The person against whom the defensive force is used is a law enforcement officer who enters or attempts to enter a home, motor vehicle, or workplace in the lawful performance of his or her official duties, and the officer identified himself or herself in accordance with any applicable law or the person using force knew or reasonably should have known that the person entering or attempting to enter was a law enforcement officer in the lawful performance of his or her official duties.

(5) The person against whom the defensive force is used (i) has discontinued all efforts to unlawfully and forcefully enter the home, motor vehicle, or workplace and (ii) has exited the home, motor vehicle, or workplace.

(d) A person who unlawfully and by force enters or attempts to enter a person's home, motor vehicle, or workplace is presumed to be doing so with the intent to commit an unlawful act involving force or violence.

(e) A person who uses force as permitted by this section is justified in using such force and is immune from civil or criminal liability for the use of such force, unless the person against whom force was used is a law enforcement officer who was lawfully acting in the performance of his or her official duties and the officer identified himself or herself in accordance with any applicable law or the person using force knew or reasonably should have known that the person was a law enforcement officer in the lawful performance of his or her official duties.

(f) A lawful occupant within his or her home, motor vehicle, or workplace does not have a duty to retreat from an intruder in the circumstances described in this section.

(g) This section is not intended to repeal or limit any other defense that may exist under the common law.

"§ 14-51.3. Use of force in defense of person; relief from criminal or civil liability.

(a) A person is justified in using force, except deadly force, against another when and to the extent that the person reasonably believes that the conduct is necessary to defend himself or herself or another against the other's imminent use of unlawful force. However, a person is justified in the use of deadly force and does not have a duty to retreat in any place he or she has the lawful right to be if either of the following applies:

(1) He or she reasonably believes that such force is necessary to prevent imminent death or serious bodily harm to himself or herself or another.
(2) Under the circumstances permitted pursuant to G.S. 14-51.2.

(b) A person who uses force as permitted by this section is justified in using such force and is immune from civil or criminal liability for the use of such force, unless the person against whom force was used is a law enforcement officer who was lawfully acting in the performance of his or her official duties and the officer identified himself or herself in accordance with any applicable law or the person using force knew or reasonably should have known that the person was a law enforcement officer in the lawful performance of his or her official duties.

"§ 14-51.4. Justification for defensive force not available.

The justification described in G.S. 14-51.2, and 14-51.3 is not available to a person who used defensive force and who:

(1) Was attempting to commit, committing, or escaping after the commission of a felony.
(2) Initially provokes the use of force against himself or herself. However, the person who initially provokes the use of force against himself or herself will be justified in using defensive force if:
a. The force used by the person who was provoked is so serious that the person using defensive force reasonably believes that he or she was in imminent danger of death or serious bodily harm, the person using defensive force had no reasonable means to retreat, and the use of force which is likely to cause death or serious bodily harm to the person who was provoked was the only way to escape the danger.
b. The person who used defensive force withdraws, in good faith, from physical contact with the person who was provoked, and indicates clearly that he or she desires to withdraw and terminate the use of force, but the person who was provoked continues or resumes the use of force."

SECTION 2. G.S. 14-51.1 is repealed.

SECTION 3. G.S. 14-269(b) reads as rewritten:

The Department of Justice shall attempt to secure from each state permission for North Carolina residents who hold a valid North Carolina concealed handgun permit to carry a concealed handgun in that state, either on the basis of the North Carolina permit or on the basis that the North Carolina permit is sufficient to permit the issuance of a similar license or permit by the other state."

HOUSE BILL 682:
Require Dom. Vio. Training/Certain Persons

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	House Judiciary Subcommittee C	Date:	May 31, 2011
Introduced by:	Reps. McLawhorn, Farmer-Butterfield, Ross, Lucas	Prepared by:	Janice Paul Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	First Edition

SUMMARY: House Bill 682 would require domestic violence training for certain individuals.

BACKGROUND AND CURRENT LAW: North Carolina's Domestic Violence Act, G.S. Chapter 50B, does not currently contain a provision mandating that certain individuals receive domestic violence (DV) training.

Law enforcement officers are required under G.S. 17C-6(a)(2) to have education and training in response to, and investigation of, domestic violence cases.

District Court Judges. Following the issuance of the Report of the Joint Legislative Committee on Domestic Violence, the 2010 Session of the 2009 General Assembly requested, through Session Law 2010-106 (House Bill 1762) that the North Carolina Supreme Court adopt rules establishing minimum standards of education and training for district court judges in handling civil and criminal DV cases; the UNC School of Government (SOG) was "encouraged" to provide this education and training. In July 2010, the North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC) published the "North Carolina Domestic Violence Best Practices Guide for District Court Judges."

Parenting coordinators currently are required under G.S. 50-90 et seq. to participate in 24 hours of training in topics related to, among other things, "the dynamics of high conflict families."

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 682 would enact a new G.S. 50B-10 requiring domestic violence training for prosecutors, magistrates, mediators, custody evaluators, parenting coordinators, Guardians ad litem, and educators in the public school system. Initial and continuing education would be coordinated by the SOG, the Conference of District Attorneys, the AOC, the Mediation Network of North Carolina, and the Department of Public Instruction, as appropriate, in collaboration with the North Carolina Coalition Against Domestic Violence.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act would become effective October 1, 2011.

HOUSE PCS 706:
Alimony/Postseparation Support Changes

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	House Judiciary Subcommittee C	Date:	June 1, 2011
Introduced by:	Rep. Rhyne	Prepared by:	Wendy Graf Ray Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition H706-CSSU-15

SUMMARY: The Proposed Committee Substitute for House Bill 706 makes the following changes to the law with regard to alimony and postseparation support:

- Makes a conforming change to G.S. 50-11 (effects of absolute divorce) to account for a previous amendment to G.S. 50-16.1A(4) that provides that postseparation support is terminated upon entry of absolute divorce, if no claim for alimony is pending at that time.
- Creates a rebuttable presumption that retirement of the supporting spouse after the age of 67 is not in bad faith and would be a change of circumstances to consider for modification of alimony or postseparation support orders.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 of the PCS amends G.S. 50-11(c), which provides that a judgment of divorce shall not affect the rights of either spouse with regard to an action for alimony or postseparation support. In 2005, G.S. 50-16.1A(4) (definition of 'postseparation support') was amended to provide that support terminates upon entry of a judgment for absolute divorce if no claim for alimony is pending at that time. This section amends G.S. 50-11(c) to reflect the earlier amendment.

Section 2 of the PCS amends G.S. 50-16.9 (modification of alimony or postseparation support orders) by adding a new subsection (a1). Subsection (a) provides that an order for alimony or postseparation support may be modified upon a motion and showing of changed circumstances. New subsection (a1) adds a rebuttable presumption that the voluntary retirement of a supporting spouse after the age of 67 would not be considered an action in bad faith. Unless that presumption is rebutted, the retirement would be a change of circumstances to be considered in determining whether to modify an order.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The act is effective October 1, 2011.

"(a1) There is a rebuttable presumption that the voluntary retirement of the supporting spouse after the supporting spouse attains the age of 67 years is not an action in bad faith. Unless the presumption is rebutted, the voluntary retirement of the supporting spouse after the supporting spouse attains the age of 67 years constitutes a change of circumstances, and the court shall consider this change of circumstances when determining whether to modify an alimony or postseparation support order. This subsection applies to any order of alimony, alimony pendent lite, or postseparation support, including any order entered pursuant to a repealed statute."

SECTION 3. G.S. 52-10 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(a1) Any contract between husband and wife, with or without valuable consideration, to waive and release all rights and obligations to postseparation support or alimony is valid and not inconsistent with public policy, if the contract is in writing and is acknowledged by both parties before a certifying officer, and such release may be pleaded in bar of any action or proceeding for the recovery of the rights so released."

SECTION 4. This act is effective October 1, 2011. Section 3 of this act applies to contracts entered into on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 203:
Set Aside Child Supp./Limited Circumstances

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	House Judiciary Subcommittee C	Date:	June 14, 2011
Introduced by:	Sens. McKissick, East	Prepared by:	Wendy Graf Ray
Analysis of:	Second Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 203 provides that an order of paternity or an affidavit of parentage may be set aside at any time by a trial court if the paternity order or the affidavit of parentage was entered as the result of fraud, duress, mutual mistake, or excusable neglect and genetic tests establish that the putative father is not the biological father of the child.

CURRENT LAW: Under G.S. 49-14, the paternity of a child born out of wedlock may be established by civil action at any time prior to the child's 18th birthday. Proof of paternity is by clear, cogent, and convincing evidence; in other words, the evidence presented must be highly and substantially more probable to be true than not. If the action to establish paternity is brought more than 3 years after the child is born or is brought after the death of the putative father, paternity cannot be established in a contested case without evidence from a blood or genetic marker test.

Under G.S. 110-132, instead of a legal proceeding to establish paternity, the putative father and the mother of a dependent child may execute written affidavits of parentage. The affidavits constitute an admission of paternity, and have the same legal effect as a judgment for the purpose of establishing a child support obligation. Either party may rescind the affidavit within 60 days of the date the document is executed. After 60 days have elapsed, execution of the document may be challenged in court only upon the basis of fraud, duress, mistake or excusable neglect. The burden of proof is on the challenging party, and any child support obligations would continue until the matter is decided, except for good cause shown.

Under G.S. 1A-1 of the NC Rules of Civil Procedure, Rule 60(b) the court may relieve a party from a final judgment, order, or proceeding for reasons including the following, provided the motion for relief is made within one year after the judgment or order was entered.

- Mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect;
- Newly discovered evidence which by due diligence could not have been discovered in time to move for a new trial;
- Fraud, misrepresentation, or other misconduct of an adverse party;

BILL ANALYSIS: Senate Bill 203 provides that an order of paternity or an affidavit of parentage may be set aside at any time by a trial court if the paternity order or the affidavit of parentage was entered as the result of fraud, duress, mutual mistake, or excusable neglect and genetic tests establish that the putative father is not the biological father of the child. The burden of proof in any motion to set aside an affidavit of parentage after 60 days or to set aside an order of paternity would be on the moving party. Upon proper motion alleging fraud, duress, mutual mistake, or excusable neglect, the court would order the child's mother, the child whose parentage is at issue, and the putative father to submit to genetic paternity testing in accordance with State law. If the court determines, as a result of genetic testing, that the putative father is not the biological father of the child and the order of paternity or the affidavit of parentage was entered as a result of fraud, duress, mutual mistake, or excusable neglect the court may set aside the order of paternity or the affidavit of parentage and terminate all future child support obligations of the putative father with regard to the child. The court may consider the best interests of the child in making the determination. Any past-due child support would not be affected, and would remain due and owing. The bill does not affect the presumption of legitimacy where a child is born to a mother and the putative father during the course of a marriage.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The bill would become effective October 1, 2011 and apply to motions made on or after that date.

Brenda Carter, counsel to Senate Judiciary II, substantially contributed to this summary.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT ESTABLISHING A PROCESS TO SET ASIDE AN ORDER OF PATERNITY OR AN AFFIDAVIT OF PARENTAGE UNDER LIMITED CIRCUMSTANCES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 49-14 reads as rewritten:

"§ 49-14. Civil action to establish ~~paternity.~~paternity; motion to set aside paternity.

(a) The paternity of a child born out of wedlock may be established by civil action at any time prior to such child's eighteenth birthday. A copy of a certificate of birth of the child shall be attached to the complaint. The establishment of paternity shall not have the effect of legitimation. The social security numbers, if known, of the minor child's parents shall be placed in the record of the proceeding.

(b) Proof of paternity pursuant to this section shall be by clear, cogent, and convincing evidence.

(c) No such action shall be commenced nor judgment entered after the death of the putative father, unless the action is commenced either:

(1) Prior to the death of the putative father;

(2) Within one year after the date of death of the putative father, if a proceeding for administration of the estate of the putative father has not been commenced within one year of his death; or

(3) Within the period specified in G.S. 28A-19-3(a) for presentation of claims against an estate, if a proceeding for administration of the estate of the putative father has been commenced within one year of his death.

Any judgment under this subsection establishing a decedent to be the father of a child shall be entered nunc pro tunc to the day preceding the date of death of the father.

(d) If the action to establish paternity is brought more than three years after birth of a child or is brought after the death of the putative father, paternity shall not be established in a contested case without evidence from a blood or genetic marker test.

(e) Either party to an action to establish paternity may request that the case be tried at the first session of the court after the case is docketed, but the presiding judge, in his discretion, may first try any pending case in which the rights of the parties or the public demand it.

(f) When a determination of paternity is pending in a IV-D case, the court shall enter a temporary order for child support upon motion and showing of clear, cogent, and convincing evidence of paternity. For purposes of this subsection, the results of blood or genetic tests shall constitute clear, cogent, and convincing evidence of paternity if the tests show that the probability of the alleged parent's parentage is ninety-seven percent (97%) or higher. If paternity is not thereafter established, then the putative father shall be reimbursed the full amount of temporary support paid under the order.

(g) Invoices for services rendered for pregnancy, childbirth, and blood or genetic testing are admissible as evidence without requiring third party foundation testimony and shall constitute prima facie evidence of the amounts incurred for the services or for testing on behalf of the child.

(h) Notwithstanding the time limitations of G.S. 1A-1, Rule 60 of the North Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, or any other provision of law, an order of paternity may be set aside by a trial court if each of the following applies:

(1) The paternity order was entered as the result of fraud, duress, mutual mistake, or excusable neglect.

(2) Genetic tests establish the putative father is not the biological father of the child.

The burden of proof in any motion to set aside an order of paternity shall be on the moving party. Child support responsibilities of the parties may not be suspended while the motion is pending, except for good cause shown. Upon proper motion alleging fraud, duress, mutual mistake, or excusable neglect, the court shall order the child's mother, the child whose parentage is at issue, and the putative father to submit to genetic paternity testing pursuant to G.S. 8-50.1(b1). If the court determines, as a result of genetic testing, the putative father is not the biological father of the child and the order of paternity was entered as a result of fraud, duress, mutual mistake, or excusable neglect, the court may set aside the order of paternity and terminate all future child support obligations of the putative father with regard to the minor child whose parentage is at issue. In determining whether the order of paternity should be set aside, the court may consider the best interests of the child. If the court sets aside an order of paternity pursuant to this section, no party may be required to reimburse past child support paid on behalf of the child to the custodial parent, the State, or any other assignee of child support. Any past-due child support payment vested pursuant to G.S. 50-13.10 shall not be affected by any order entered pursuant to this section. All vested child support arrears shall remain due and owing. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to affect the presumption of legitimacy where a child is born to a mother and the putative father during the course of a marriage."

SECTION 2. G.S. 110-132 reads as rewritten:

"§ 110-132. Affidavit of parentage and agreement to ~~support.~~motion to set aside affidavit of parentage.

(a) In lieu of or in conclusion of any legal proceeding instituted to establish paternity, the written affidavits of parentage executed by the putative father and the mother of the dependent child shall constitute an admission of paternity and shall have the same legal effect as a judgment of paternity for the purpose of establishing a child support obligation, subject to the right of either signatory to rescind within the earlier of:

(1) 60 days of the date the document is executed, or

(2) The date of entry of an order establishing paternity or an order for the payment of child support.

In order to rescind, a challenger must request the district court to order the rescission and to include in the order specific findings of fact that the request for rescission was filed with the clerk of court within 60 days of the signing of the document. The court must also find that all parties, including the child support enforcement agency, if appropriate, have been served in accordance with Rule 4 of the North Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure. In the event the court orders rescission and the putative father is thereafter found not to be the father of the child, then the clerk of court shall send a copy of the order of rescission to the State Registrar of Vital Statistics. Upon receipt of an order of rescission, the State Registrar shall remove the putative father's name from the birth certificate. In the event that the putative father defaults or fails to present or prosecute the issue of paternity, the trial court shall find the putative father to be the biological father as a matter of law.

~~After 60 days have elapsed, execution of the document may be challenged in court only upon the basis of fraud, duress, mistake, or excusable neglect. The burden of proof shall be on the challenging party, and the legal responsibilities, including child support obligations, of any signatory arising from the executed documents may not be suspended during the challenge except for good cause shown.~~

(a1) Notwithstanding the time limitations of G.S. 1A-1, Rule 60 of the North Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, or any other provision of law, an affidavit of parentage may be set aside by a trial court after 60 days have elapsed only if each of the following applies:

(1) The affidavit of parentage was entered as the result of fraud, duress, mutual mistake, or excusable neglect.

(2) Genetic tests establish that the putative father is not the biological father of the child.

The burden of proof in any motion to set aside an affidavit of parentage after 60 days allowed for rescission shall be on the moving party. Child support responsibilities of the parties may not be suspended while the motion is pending, except for good cause shown. Upon proper motion alleging fraud, duress, mutual mistake, or excusable neglect, the court shall order the child's mother, the child whose parentage is at issue, and the putative father to submit to genetic paternity testing pursuant to G.S. 8-50.1(b1). If the court determines, as a result of genetic testing, the putative father is not the biological father of the child and the affidavit of parentage was entered as a result of fraud, duress, mutual mistake, or excusable neglect, the court may set aside the affidavit of parentage and terminate all future child support obligations of the putative father with regard to the minor child whose parentage is at issue. In determining whether the affidavit of parentage should be set aside, the court may consider the best interests of the child. If the court sets aside an affidavit of parentage pursuant to this section, no party may be required to reimburse past child support paid on behalf of the child to the custodial parent, the State, or any other assignee of child support. Any past-due child support payment vested pursuant to G.S. 50-13.10 shall not be affected by any order entered pursuant to this section. All vested child support arrears shall remain due and owing. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to affect the presumption of legitimacy where a child is born to a mother and the putative father during the course of a marriage.

(a2) A written agreement to support the child by periodic payments, which may include provision for reimbursement for medical expenses incident to the pregnancy and the birth of the child, accrued maintenance and reasonable expense of prosecution of the paternity action, when acknowledged as provided herein, filed with, and approved by a judge of the district court at any time, shall have the same force and effect as an order of support entered by that court, and shall be enforceable and subject to modification in the same manner as is provided by law for orders of the court in such cases. The written affidavit shall contain the social security number of the person executing the affidavit. Voluntary agreements to support shall contain the social security number of each of the parties to the agreement. The written affidavits and agreements to support shall be sworn to before a certifying officer or notary public or the equivalent or corresponding person of the state, territory, or foreign country where the affirmation, acknowledgment, or agreement is made, and shall be binding on the person executing the same whether the person is an adult or a minor. The child support enforcement agency shall ensure that the mother and putative father are given oral and written notice of the legal consequences and responsibilities arising from the signing of an affidavit of parentage and of any alternatives to the execution of an affidavit of parentage. The mother shall not be excused from making the affidavit on the grounds that it may tend to disgrace or incriminate her; nor shall she thereafter be prosecuted for any criminal act involved in the conception of the child as to whose paternity she attests.

(b) At any time after the filing with the district court of an affidavit of parentage, upon the application of any interested party, the court or any judge thereof shall cause a summons signed by him or by the clerk or assistant clerk of superior court, to be issued, requiring the putative father to appear in court at a time and place named therein, to show cause, if any he has, why the court should not enter an order for the support of the child by periodic payments, which order may include provision for reimbursement for medical expenses incident to the pregnancy and the birth of the child, accrued maintenance and reasonable expense of the action under this subsection on the affidavit of parentage previously filed with said court. The court may order the responsible parents in a IV-D establishment case to perform a job search, if the responsible parent is not incapacitated. This includes IV-D cases in which the responsible parent is a noncustodial mother or a noncustodial father whose affidavit of parentage has been filed with the court or when paternity is not at issue for the child. The court may further order the responsible parent to participate in the work activities, as defined in 42 U.S.C. § 607, as the court deems appropriate. The amount of child support payments so ordered shall be determined as provided in G.S. 50-13.4(c). The prior judgment as to paternity shall be res judicata as to that issue and shall not be reconsidered by the court."

SECTION 3. This act becomes effective October 1, 2011, and applies to motions to set aside paternity or motions to set aside affidavits of parentage on or after that date.

SECTION 2.(d) The Department of Correction shall report to the Joint Legislative Corrections, Crime Control, and Juvenile Justice Oversight Committee by June 1, 2012, regarding the implementation of the new electronic monitoring service and equipment and provide the Committee with its evaluation of how the new system is functioning and how it compares with other systems used by the Department for this same purpose.

SECTION 3. Section 1 of this act becomes effective December 1, 2011, and applies to violations of pretrial release conditions occurring on or after that date. Section 2 of this act becomes effective October 1, 2011. This section is effective when it becomes law.

SENATE BILL 487:
Disputed Earnest Money/Attorneys Deposit

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	House Judiciary Subcommittee C	Date:	June 14, 2011
Introduced by:	Sens. Stein, Vaughan, Newton	Prepared by:	Wendy Graf Ray Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	First Edition

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 487 permits attorneys who receive disputed funds while acting as a fiduciary to deposit the money with the Clerk of Superior Court after giving the claimants 90 days notice.

CURRENT LAW: G.S. 93A-12 provides that a licensed real estate broker may deposit disputed earnest money, other than a residential security deposit, with the clerk of court for determination of the rightful owner. The broker must provide notice to the persons claiming ownership that the money is to be deposited and that the person may initiate a special proceeding with the clerk of court to recover the disputed monies. In order to give the parties an opportunity to settle the dispute, the monies may not be deposited until 90 days following notification.

Attorneys who are not also licensed real estate brokers and who receive disputed funds while acting as a fiduciary must either hold the funds until the claimants resolve the issue of ownership, or must institute an action for interpleader and declaratory relief pursuant to G.S. 1A-1, Rule 22.[1]

BILL ANALYSIS: Senate Bill 487 amends G.S. 93A-12 to allow a North Carolina licensed attorney holding disputed funds received while acting as a fiduciary, other than a residential security deposit, to deposit the funds with the clerk of court after notifying the parties claiming ownership and giving them 90 days to resolve the dispute among themselves.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act is effective when it becomes law.

Bill Patterson, counsel to Senate Judiciary I, substantially contributed to this summary.

[1] Rule 22. Interpleader.

(a) Persons having claims against the plaintiff may be joined as defendants and required to interplead when their claims expose or may expose the plaintiff to double or multiple liability. It is not ground for objection to the joinder that the claims of the several claimants or the titles on which their claims depend do not have a common origin or are not identical but are adverse to and independent of one another, or that the plaintiff avers that he is not liable in whole or in part to any or all of the claimants. A defendant exposed to similar liability may obtain such interpleader by way of crossclaim or counterclaim. The provisions of this rule supplement and do not in any way limit the joinder of parties permitted in Rule 20.

(b) Where funds are subject to competing claims by parties to the action, the court may order the party in possession of the funds either to deposit the funds in an interest bearing account in a bank, savings and loan, or trust company licensed to do business in this State or to deposit the funds with the clerk. If the funds are deposited in a bank, savings and loan, or trust company, the court shall specify the type of interest bearing account to be used. Funds deposited with the clerk shall be invested or deposited as provided in G.S. 7A-112 and G.S. 7A-112.1. Upon determination of the action, the judgment shall provide for disbursement of the principal and interest earned on the funds while so deposited.

Short Title: Amend Bail Law/Pretrial Release Programs. (Public)

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO AMEND THE STATE'S BAIL LAWS WITH REGARD TO PRETRIAL RELEASE PROGRAMS, TO ELIMINATE UNSECURED APPEARANCE BOND AS A PRETRIAL RELEASE CONDITION, TO AMEND HOUSE ARREST AND ELECTRONIC MONITORING AS A CONDITION OF PRETRIAL RELEASE, AND TO PROVIDE THAT NO STATE FUNDS MAY BE APPROPRIATED TO OR USED FOR THE SUPPORT OF A PRETRIAL RELEASE PROGRAM.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 15A-534 reads as rewritten:

"§ 15A-534. Procedure for determining conditions of pretrial release.

(a) In determining conditions of pretrial release a judicial official must impose at least one of the following conditions:

(1) Release the defendant on his written promise to appear.

~~(2) Release the defendant upon his execution of an unsecured appearance bond in an amount specified by the judicial official.~~

(3) Place the defendant in the custody of a designated person ~~or organization~~ agreeing to supervise ~~him.~~the defendant.

(4) Require the execution of an appearance bond in a specified amount secured by a cash deposit of the full amount of the bond, by a mortgage pursuant to G.S. 58-74-5, or by at least one solvent surety.

(5) ~~House arrest with electronic monitoring.~~Electronic monitoring that may also include house arrest.

If condition (5) is imposed, the defendant must execute a secured appearance bond of at least one thousand dollars ($1,000) under subdivision (4) of this subsection. If condition (3) is imposed, however, the defendant may elect to execute an appearance bond under subdivision (4). If condition (4) is imposed, the defendant may elect to be placed in a pretrial release program pursuant to G.S. 15A-534.7.

If the defendant is required to provide fingerprints pursuant to G.S. 15A-502(a1) or (a2), or a DNA sample pursuant to G.S. 15A-266.3A or G.S. 15A-266.4, and (i) the fingerprints or DNA sample have not yet been taken or (ii) the defendant has refused to provide the fingerprints or DNA sample, the judicial official shall make the collection of the fingerprints or DNA sample a condition of pretrial release. The judicial official may also place restrictions on the travel, associations, conduct, or place of abode of the defendant as conditions of pretrial release.

(b) The judicial official in granting pretrial release must impose condition ~~(1), (2), or (3)~~(1) or (3) in subsection (a) above unless ~~he~~ the judicial official determines that such release will not reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required; will pose a danger of injury to any person; or is likely to result in destruction of evidence, subornation of perjury, or intimidation of potential witnesses. Upon making the determination, the judicial official must then impose condition (4) or (5) in subsection (a) above instead of condition ~~(1), (2), or (3),~~(1) or (3) and must record the reasons for so doing in writing to the extent provided in the policies or requirements issued by the senior resident superior court judge pursuant to G.S. 15A-535(a).

(c) In determining which conditions of release to impose, the judicial official must, on the basis of available information, take into account the nature and circumstances of the offense charged; the weight of the evidence against the defendant; the defendant's family ties, employment, financial resources, character, and mental condition; whether the defendant is intoxicated to such a degree that he would be endangered by being released without supervision; the length of his residence in the community; his record of convictions; his history of flight to avoid prosecution or failure to appear at court proceedings; and any other evidence relevant to the issue of pretrial release.

(d) The judicial official authorizing pretrial release under this section must issue an appropriate order containing a statement of the conditions imposed, if any; inform the defendant in writing of the penalties applicable to violations of the conditions of ~~his~~ the defendant's release; and advise ~~him~~ the defendant that his or her arrest will be ordered immediately upon any violation. The order of release must be filed with the clerk and a copy given the defendant.

(d1) When conditions of pretrial release are being imposed on a defendant who has failed on one or more prior occasions to appear to answer one or more of the charges to which the conditions apply, the judicial official shall at a minimum impose the conditions of pretrial release that are recommended in any order for the arrest of the defendant that was issued for the defendant's most recent failure to appear. If no conditions are recommended in that order for arrest, the judicial official shall require the execution of a secured appearance bond in an amount at least double the amount of the most recent previous secured ~~or unsecured~~ bond for the charges or, if no bond has yet been required for the charges, in the amount of at least five hundred dollars ($500.00). The judicial official shall also impose such restrictions on the travel, associations, conduct, or place of abode of the defendant as will assure that the defendant will not again fail to appear. The judicial official shall indicate on the release order that the defendant was arrested or surrendered after failing to appear as required under a prior release order. If the information available to the judicial official indicates that the defendant has failed on two or more prior occasions to appear to answer the charges, the judicial official shall indicate that fact on the release order.

(d2) When conditions of pretrial release are being determined for a defendant who is charged with a felony offense and the defendant is currently on probation for a prior offense, a judicial official shall determine whether the defendant poses a danger to the public prior to imposing conditions of pretrial release and must record that determination in writing. This subsection shall apply to any judicial official authorized to determine or review the defendant's eligibility for release under any proceeding authorized by this Chapter.

(1) If the judicial official determines that the defendant poses a danger to the public, the judicial official must impose condition (4) or (5) in subsection (a) of this section instead of condition ~~(1), (2), or (3).~~(1) or (3).

(2) If the judicial official finds that the defendant does not pose a danger to the public, then conditions of pretrial release shall be imposed as otherwise provided in this Article.

(3) If there is insufficient information to determine whether the defendant poses a danger to the public, then the defendant shall be retained in custody until a determination of pretrial release conditions is made pursuant to this subdivision. The judicial official that orders that the defendant be retained in custody shall set forth, in writing, the following at the time that the order is entered:

a. The defendant is being held pursuant to this subdivision.

b. The basis for the judicial official's decision that additional information is needed to determine whether the defendant poses a danger to the public and the nature of the necessary information.

c. A date, within 96 hours of the time of arrest, when the defendant shall be brought before a judge for a first appearance pursuant to Article 29 of this Chapter. If the necessary information is provided to the court at any time prior to the first appearance, the first available judicial official shall set the conditions of pretrial release. The judge who reviews the defendant's eligibility for release at the first appearance shall determine the conditions of pretrial release as provided in this Article.

(e) A magistrate or a clerk may modify his or her pretrial release order at any time prior to the first appearance before the district court judge. At or after such first appearance, except when the conditions of pretrial release have been reviewed by the superior court pursuant to G.S. 15A-539, a district court judge may modify a pretrial release order of the magistrate or clerk or any pretrial release order entered by him or her at any time prior to:

(1) In a misdemeanor case tried in the district court, the noting of an appeal; and

(2) In a case in the original trial jurisdiction of the superior court, the binding of the defendant over to superior court after the holding, or waiver, of a probable-cause hearing.

After a case is before the superior court, a superior court judge may modify the pretrial release order of a magistrate, clerk, or district court judge, or any such order entered by ~~him,~~ him or her, at any time prior to the time set out in G.S. 15A-536(a).

(f) For good cause shown any judge may at any time revoke an order of pretrial release. Upon application of any defendant whose order of pretrial release has been revoked, the judge must set new conditions of pretrial release in accordance with this Article.

(g) In imposing conditions of pretrial release and in modifying and revoking orders of release under this section, the judicial official must take into account all evidence available to him which he considers reliable and is not strictly bound by the rules of evidence applicable to criminal trials.

(h) A bail bond posted pursuant to this section is effective and binding upon the obligor throughout all stages of the proceeding in the trial division of the General Court of Justice until the entry of judgment in the district court from which no appeal is taken or the entry of judgment in the superior court. The obligation of an obligor, however, is terminated at an earlier time if:

(1) A judge authorized to do so releases the obligor from his or her bond; or

(2) The principal is surrendered by a surety in accordance with G.S. 15A-540; or

(3) The proceeding is terminated by voluntary dismissal by the State before forfeiture is ordered under G.S. 15A-544.3; or

(4) Prayer for judgment has been continued indefinitely in the district court."

SECTION 2. G.S. 15A-535(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) In any county in which there is a pretrial release program, the senior resident superior court judge may, after consultation with the chief district court judge, order that defendants accepted by such program for supervision shall, with their consent, be released by ~~judicial officials~~ judges to supervision of such ~~programs,~~ programs pursuant to G.S. 15A-534.7 and that defendants released to those programs shall be subject to ~~its~~ the rules and ~~regulations, in lieu of releasing the defendants on conditions (1), (2), or (3) of G.S. 15A-534(a).~~ regulations of the programs."

SECTION 3. Article 26 of Chapter 15A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 15A-534.7. Pretrial release programs.

(a) For purposes of this section, a pretrial release program is an organization designated by a judicial official that agrees to take custody of a defendant and supervise the defendant as a condition of pretrial release.

(b) A judicial official may place a defendant in the custody of a pretrial release program as a condition of pretrial release pursuant to this section. The condition may be imposed only under the same circumstances that the condition described in G.S. 15A-534(a)(3) may be imposed and only if all of the following criteria are met:

(1) The execution of a secured bond as described in G.S. 15A-534(a)(4) is a condition of pretrial release for the defendant at the time that placement with a pretrial release program is being considered as a pretrial release condition under this section.

(2) The judicial official finds as fact that a period of at least 72 hours has elapsed from the date and time on the defendant's release order and, pursuant to G.S. 15A-534(d1) and (d2), determines that the defendant is not a flight risk and does not pose a danger to the public. The pretrial release program shall not contact or otherwise attempt to gain access to the defendant prior to expiration of the 72-hour period.

(c) In addition to the criteria in subsection (b) of this section, the factors to be considered in determining whether placement of a defendant with a pretrial release program is an appropriate condition of pretrial release shall be the same as those in G.S. 15A-534. Except as otherwise provided by this section, the procedure for imposing that condition and authorizing pretrial release under this section shall be the same as those in G.S. 15A-534. In any order imposing a pretrial release condition pursuant to this section, the judicial official shall include the basis for the court's determination.

(d) No State government funds shall be appropriated to or used for the support of a pretrial release program or its activities."

SECTION 4. This section is effective when it becomes law. G.S. 15A-534.7(d), as enacted by Section 3 of this act, becomes effective July 1, 2011. The remainder of this act becomes effective December 1, 2011, and applies to criminal actions to determine pretrial release conditions on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 756:
Amend Bail Law/Pretrial Release Programs

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	House Judiciary Subcommittee C	Date:	June 14, 2011
Introduced by:	Sens. Clary, East, Jones	Prepared by:	Wendy Graf Ray
Analysis of:	PCS to Second Edition S756-CSTJ-21		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: The Proposed Committee Substitute for Senate Bill 756 would amend the State's bail laws with regard to pretrial release programs, amend the provision authorizing unsecured appearance bond as a pretrial release condition, amend house arrest and electronic monitoring as a condition of pretrial release, and provide that no State funds may be appropriated to or used for support of a pretrial release program.

CURRENT LAW: Under G.S. 15A-533, a defendant charged with a noncapital offense must have conditions of pretrial released determined in accordance with G.S. 15A-534. The provisions of G.S. 15A-534 also apply to a defendant charged with a capital offense, if the judge in his or her discretion determines that release is warranted. Drug trafficking and street gang crimes are offenses that are subject to a rebuttable presumption that no condition of release will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant and the safety of the community; the presumption applies if the offense was committed while the defendant was on pretrial release for another offense and not more than five years has passed since the defendant committed the same type of offense.

Under G.S. 15A-534, in determining conditions of pretrial release a judicial official must impose at least one of the following conditions:

- Release the defendant on a written promise to appear.
- Release the defendant upon execution of an unsecured appearance bond in an amount specified by the judicial official. (An unsecured appearance bond is a type of bail in which the accused make a written promise to appear in court, and to pay a specified sum of money if the accused fails to appear as required.)
- Place the defendant in the custody of a designated person or organization agreeing to supervise him.
- Require the execution of an appearance bond in a specified amount secured by a cash deposit of the full amount of the bond, by a mortgage, or by at least one solvent surety.
- House arrest with electronic monitoring.

In determining which conditions of pretrial release to impose, the judicial official must take into account the nature and circumstances of the offense charged; the weight of the evidence against the defendant; the defendant's family ties, employment, financial resources, character, and mental condition; whether the defendant is intoxicated to such a degree that he would be endangered by being released without supervision; the length of the defendant's residence in the community; record of convictions; history of flight to avoid prosecution or failure to appear at court proceedings; and any other evidence relevant to the issue of pretrial release.

BILL ANALYSIS: The PCS for Senate Bill 756 would amend the procedure for determining conditions of pretrial release. The PCS would amend the provision authorizing the imposition of unsecured appearance bonds as a pretrial release condition, specifying that the amount may not exceed $25,000 per arrest, and would require a secured appearance bond of at least $1,000 for a defendant placed on electronic monitoring/house arrest.

Under current law, a defendant may be released into the custody of a designated person or organization, and the "organization" may include a pretrial release program. The PCS would eliminate the option of releasing a defendant into the custody of an "organization"; but it provides that if the court has required the execution of a secured appearance bond as a condition of pretrial release, the defendant may elect to be placed in a pretrial release program. The PCS would add a new statute pertaining to pretrial release programs, defined as "an organization designated by a judicial official that agrees to take custody of a defendant and supervise the defendant as a condition of pretrial release." A defendant could be placed in a pretrial release program only if the defendant is unable to execute a secured bond and is held in custody, and at least 48 hours have elapsed from the date and time on the defendant's release order. The judicial official would be required to include the basis for the court's determination concerning placement of the defendant in a pretrial release program. The PCS provides that no State funds may be appropriated to or used for support of a pretrial release program.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The new statute pertaining to pretrial release programs would become effective July 1, 2011. The remainder of the act would become effective December 1, 2011 and apply to actions to determine pretrial release conditions on or after that date.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO AMEND THE STATE'S BAIL LAWS WITH REGARD TO PRETRIAL RELEASE PROGRAMS, TO AMEND USE OF UNSECURED APPEARANCE BOND AS A PRETRIAL RELEASE CONDITION, TO AMEND HOUSE ARREST AND ELECTRONIC MONITORING AS A CONDITION OF PRETRIAL RELEASE, AND TO PROVIDE THAT NO STATE FUNDS MAY BE APPROPRIATED TO OR USED FOR THE SUPPORT OF A PRETRIAL RELEASE PROGRAM.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 15A-534 reads as rewritten:

"§ 15A-534. Procedure for determining conditions of pretrial release.

(a) In determining conditions of pretrial release a judicial official must impose at least one of the following conditions:

(1) Release the defendant on his written promise to appear.

(2) Release the defendant upon his execution of an unsecured appearance bond in an amount specified by the judicial ~~official.~~ official not to exceed twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) per arrest.

(3) Place the defendant in the custody of a designated person ~~or organization~~ agreeing to supervise ~~him.~~the defendant.

(4) Require the execution of an appearance bond in a specified amount secured by a cash deposit of the full amount of the bond, by a mortgage pursuant to G.S. 58-74-5, or by at least one solvent surety.

(5) ~~House arrest with electronic monitoring.~~Electronic monitoring that may also include house arrest.

If condition (5) is imposed, the defendant must execute a secured appearance bond of at least one thousand dollars ($1,000) under subdivision (4) of this subsection. If condition (3) is imposed, however, the defendant may elect to execute an appearance bond under subdivision (4). If condition (4) is imposed, the defendant may elect to be placed in a pretrial release program pursuant to G.S. 15A-534.7.

If the defendant is required to provide fingerprints pursuant to G.S. 15A-502(a1) or (a2), or a DNA sample pursuant to G.S. 15A-266.3A or G.S. 15A-266.4, and (i) the fingerprints or DNA sample have not yet been taken or (ii) the defendant has refused to provide the fingerprints or DNA sample, the judicial official shall make the collection of the fingerprints or DNA sample a condition of pretrial release. The judicial official may also place restrictions on the travel, associations, conduct, or place of abode of the defendant as conditions of pretrial release.

(b) The judicial official in granting pretrial release must impose condition (1), (2), or (3) in subsection (a) above unless ~~he~~ the judicial official determines that such release will not reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required; will pose a danger of injury to any person; or is likely to result in destruction of evidence, subornation of perjury, or intimidation of potential witnesses. Upon making the determination, the judicial official must then impose condition (4) or (5) in subsection (a) above instead of condition (1), (2), or (3), and must record the reasons for so doing in writing to the extent provided in the policies or requirements issued by the senior resident superior court judge pursuant to G.S. 15A-535(a).

(c) In determining which conditions of release to impose, the judicial official must, on the basis of available information, take into account the nature and circumstances of the offense charged; the weight of the evidence against the defendant; the defendant's family ties, employment, financial resources, character, and mental condition; whether the defendant is intoxicated to such a degree that he would be endangered by being released without supervision; the length of his residence in the community; his record of convictions; his history of flight to avoid prosecution or failure to appear at court proceedings; and any other evidence relevant to the issue of pretrial release.

(d) The judicial official authorizing pretrial release under this section must issue an appropriate order containing a statement of the conditions imposed, if any; inform the defendant in writing of the penalties applicable to violations of the conditions of ~~his~~ the defendant's release; and advise ~~him~~ the defendant that his or her arrest will be ordered immediately upon any violation. The order of release must be filed with the clerk and a copy given the defendant.

(d1) When conditions of pretrial release are being imposed on a defendant who has failed on one or more prior occasions to appear to answer one or more of the charges to which the conditions apply, the judicial official shall at a minimum impose the conditions of pretrial release that are recommended in any order for the arrest of the defendant that was issued for the defendant's most recent failure to appear. If no conditions are recommended in that order for arrest, the judicial official shall require the execution of a secured appearance bond in an amount at least double the amount of the most recent previous secured ~~or unsecured~~ bond for the charges or, if no bond has yet been required for the charges, in the amount of at least five hundred dollars ($500.00). The judicial official shall also impose such restrictions on the travel, associations, conduct, or place of abode of the defendant as will assure that the defendant will not again fail to appear. The judicial official shall indicate on the release order that the defendant was arrested or surrendered after failing to appear as required under a prior release order. If the information available to the judicial official indicates that the defendant has failed on two or more prior occasions to appear to answer the charges, the judicial official shall indicate that fact on the release order.

(d2) When conditions of pretrial release are being determined for a defendant who is charged with a felony offense and the defendant is currently on probation for a prior offense, a judicial official shall determine whether the defendant poses a danger to the public prior to imposing conditions of pretrial release and must record that determination in writing. This subsection shall apply to any judicial official authorized to determine or review the defendant's eligibility for release under any proceeding authorized by this Chapter.

(1) If the judicial official determines that the defendant poses a danger to the public, the judicial official must impose condition (4) or (5) in subsection (a) of this section instead of condition (1), (2), or (3).

(2) If the judicial official finds that the defendant does not pose a danger to the public, then conditions of pretrial release shall be imposed as otherwise provided in this Article.

(3) If there is insufficient information to determine whether the defendant poses a danger to the public, then the defendant shall be retained in custody until a determination of pretrial release conditions is made pursuant to this subdivision. The judicial official that orders that the defendant be retained in custody shall set forth, in writing, the following at the time that the order is entered:

a. The defendant is being held pursuant to this subdivision.

b. The basis for the judicial official's decision that additional information is needed to determine whether the defendant poses a danger to the public and the nature of the necessary information.

c. A date, within 96 hours of the time of arrest, when the defendant shall be brought before a judge for a first appearance pursuant to Article 29 of this Chapter. If the necessary information is provided to the court at any time prior to the first appearance, the first available judicial official shall set the conditions of pretrial release. The judge who reviews the defendant's eligibility for release at the first appearance shall determine the conditions of pretrial release as provided in this Article.

(e) A magistrate or a clerk may modify his or her pretrial release order at any time prior to the first appearance before the district court judge. At or after such first appearance, except when the conditions of pretrial release have been reviewed by the superior court pursuant to G.S. 15A-539, a district court judge may modify a pretrial release order of the magistrate or clerk or any pretrial release order entered by him or her at any time prior to:

(1) In a misdemeanor case tried in the district court, the noting of an appeal; and

(2) In a case in the original trial jurisdiction of the superior court, the binding of the defendant over to superior court after the holding, or waiver, of a probable-cause hearing.

After a case is before the superior court, a superior court judge may modify the pretrial release order of a magistrate, clerk, or district court judge, or any such order entered by ~~him,~~ him or her, at any time prior to the time set out in G.S. 15A-536(a).

(f) For good cause shown any judge may at any time revoke an order of pretrial release. Upon application of any defendant whose order of pretrial release has been revoked, the judge must set new conditions of pretrial release in accordance with this Article.

(g) In imposing conditions of pretrial release and in modifying and revoking orders of release under this section, the judicial official must take into account all evidence available to him which he considers reliable and is not strictly bound by the rules of evidence applicable to criminal trials.

(h) A bail bond posted pursuant to this section is effective and binding upon the obligor throughout all stages of the proceeding in the trial division of the General Court of Justice until the entry of judgment in the district court from which no appeal is taken or the entry of judgment in the superior court. The obligation of an obligor, however, is terminated at an earlier time if:

(1) A judge authorized to do so releases the obligor from his or her bond; or

(2) The principal is surrendered by a surety in accordance with G.S. 15A-540; or

(3) The proceeding is terminated by voluntary dismissal by the State before forfeiture is ordered under G.S. 15A-544.3; or

(4) Prayer for judgment has been continued indefinitely in the district court."

SECTION 2. G.S. 15A-535(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) In any county in which there is a pretrial release program, the senior resident superior court judge may, after consultation with the chief district court judge, order that defendants accepted by such program for supervision shall, with their consent, be released by ~~judicial officials~~ judges to supervision of such ~~programs,~~ programs pursuant to G.S. 15A-534.7 and that defendants released to those programs shall be subject to ~~its~~ the rules and ~~regulations, in lieu of releasing the defendants on conditions (1), (2), or (3) of G.S. 15A-534(a).~~ regulations of the programs."

SECTION 3. Article 26 of Chapter 15A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 15A-534.7. Pretrial release programs.

(a) For purposes of this section, a pretrial release program is an organization designated by a judicial official that agrees to take custody of a defendant and supervise the defendant as a condition of pretrial release.

(b) A judicial official may place a defendant in the custody of a pretrial release program as a condition of pretrial release pursuant to this section. The condition may be imposed only under the same circumstances that the condition described in G.S. 15A-534(a)(3) may be imposed and only if all of the following criteria are met:

(1) The defendant is unable to execute a secured bond as described in G.S. 15A-534(a)(4) and is held in custody.

(2) The judicial official finds as fact that a period of at least 48 hours has elapsed from the date and time on the defendant's release order and, pursuant to G.S. 15A-534(d1) and (d2), determines that the defendant is not a flight risk and does not pose a danger to the public. The pretrial release program shall not contact or otherwise attempt to gain access to the defendant prior to expiration of the 48-hour period.

(c) In addition to the criteria in subsection (b) of this section, the factors to be considered in determining whether placement of a defendant with a pretrial release program is an appropriate condition of pretrial release shall be the same as those in G.S. 15A-534. Except as otherwise provided by this section, the procedure for imposing that condition and authorizing pretrial release under this section shall be the same as those in G.S. 15A-534. In any order imposing a pretrial release condition pursuant to this section, the judicial official shall include the basis for the court's determination.

(d) No State government funds shall be appropriated to or used for the support of a pretrial release program or its activities."

SECTION 4. This section is effective when it becomes law. G.S. 15A-534.7(d), as enacted by Section 3 of this act, becomes effective July 1, 2011. The remainder of this act becomes effective December 1, 2011, and applies to criminal actions to determine pretrial release conditions on or after that date.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO AMEND THE STATE'S BAIL LAWS WITH REGARD TO PRETRIAL RELEASE PROGRAMS, TO ELIMINATE UNSECURED APPEARANCE BOND AS A PRETRIAL RELEASE CONDITION, TO AMEND HOUSE ARREST AND ELECTRONIC MONITORING AS A CONDITION OF PRETRIAL RELEASE, AND TO PROVIDE THAT NO STATE FUNDS MAY BE APPROPRIATED TO OR USED FOR THE SUPPORT OF A PRETRIAL RELEASE PROGRAM.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 15A-534 reads as rewritten:

"§ 15A-534. Procedure for determining conditions of pretrial release.

(a) In determining conditions of pretrial release a judicial official must impose at least one of the following conditions:

(1) Release the defendant on his written promise to appear.

(2) Release the defendant upon his execution of an unsecured appearance bond in an amount specified by the judicial ~~official.~~ official not to exceed twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) per arrest.

(3) Place the defendant in the custody of a designated person ~~or organization~~ agreeing to supervise ~~him.~~the defendant.

(4) Require the execution of an appearance bond in a specified amount secured by a cash deposit of the full amount of the bond, by a mortgage pursuant to G.S. 58-74-5, or by at least one solvent surety.

(5) ~~House arrest with electronic monitoring.~~Electronic monitoring that may also include house arrest.

If condition (5) is imposed, the defendant must execute a secured appearance bond of at least one thousand dollars ($1,000) under subdivision (4) of this subsection. If the defendant is required to provide fingerprints pursuant to G.S. 15A-502(a1) or (a2), or a DNA sample pursuant to G.S. 15A-266.3A or G.S. 15A-266.4, and (i) the fingerprints or DNA sample have not yet been taken or (ii) the defendant has refused to provide the fingerprints or DNA sample, the judicial official shall make the collection of the fingerprints or

(b) The judicial official in granting pretrial release must impose condition (1), (2), or (3) in subsection (a) above unless ~~he~~ the judicial official determines that such release will not reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required; will pose a danger of injury to any person; or is likely to result in destruction of evidence, subornation of perjury, or intimidation of potential witnesses. Upon making the determination, the judicial official must then impose condition (4) or (5) in subsection (a) above instead of condition (1), (2), or (3), and must record the reasons for so doing in writing to the extent provided in the policies or requirements issued by the senior resident superior court judge pursuant to G.S. 15A-535(a).

(c) In determining which conditions of release to impose, the judicial official must, on the basis of available information, take into account the nature and circumstances of the offense charged; the weight of the evidence against the defendant; the defendant's family ties, employment, financial resources, character, and mental condition; whether the defendant is intoxicated to such a degree that he would be endangered by being released without supervision; the length of his residence in the community; his record of convictions; his history of flight to avoid prosecution or failure to appear at court proceedings; and any other evidence relevant to the issue of pretrial release.

(d) The judicial official authorizing pretrial release under this section must issue an appropriate order containing a statement of the conditions imposed, if any; inform the defendant in writing of the penalties applicable to violations of the conditions of ~~his~~ the defendant's release; and advise ~~him~~ the defendant that his or her arrest will be ordered immediately upon any violation. The order of release must be filed with the clerk and a copy given the defendant.

(d1) When conditions of pretrial release are being imposed on a defendant who has failed on one or more prior occasions to appear to answer one or more of the charges to which the conditions apply, the judicial official shall at a minimum impose the conditions of pretrial release that are recommended in any order for the arrest of the defendant that was issued for the defendant's most recent failure to appear. If no conditions are recommended in that order for arrest, the judicial official shall require the execution of a secured appearance bond in an amount at least double the amount of the most recent previous secured ~~or unsecured~~ bond for the charges or, if no bond has yet been required for the charges, in the amount of at least five hundred dollars ($500.00). The judicial official shall also impose such restrictions on the travel, associations, conduct, or place of abode of the defendant as will assure that the defendant will not again fail to appear. The judicial official shall indicate on the release order that the defendant was arrested or surrendered after failing to appear as required under a prior release order. If the information available to the judicial official indicates that the defendant has failed on two or more prior occasions to appear to answer the charges, the judicial official shall indicate that fact on the release order.

(d2) When conditions of pretrial release are being determined for a defendant who is charged with a felony offense and the defendant is currently on probation for a prior offense, a judicial official shall determine whether the defendant poses a danger to the public prior to imposing conditions of pretrial release and must record that determination in writing. This subsection shall apply to any judicial official authorized to determine or review the defendant's eligibility for release under any proceeding authorized by this Chapter.

(1) If the judicial official determines that the defendant poses a danger to the public, the judicial official must impose condition (4) or (5) in subsection (a) of this section instead of condition (1), (2), or (3).

(2) If the judicial official finds that the defendant does not pose a danger to the public, then conditions of pretrial release shall be imposed as otherwise provided in this Article.

(3) If there is insufficient information to determine whether the defendant poses a danger to the public, then the defendant shall be retained in custody until a determination of pretrial release conditions is made pursuant to this subdivision. The judicial official that orders that the defendant be retained in custody shall set forth, in writing, the following at the time that the order is entered:

a. The defendant is being held pursuant to this subdivision.

b. The basis for the judicial official's decision that additional information is needed to determine whether the defendant poses a danger to the public and the nature of the necessary information.

c. A date, within 96 hours of the time of arrest, when the defendant shall be brought before a judge for a first appearance pursuant to Article 29 of this Chapter. If the necessary information is provided to the court at any time prior to the first appearance, the first available judicial official shall set the conditions of pretrial release. The judge who reviews the defendant's eligibility for release at the first appearance shall determine the conditions of pretrial release as provided in this Article.

(e) A magistrate or a clerk may modify his or her pretrial release order at any time prior to the first appearance before the district court judge. (3) The proceeding is terminated by voluntary dismissal by the State before forfeiture is ordered under G.S. 15A-544.3; or

(4) Prayer for judgment has been continued indefinitely in the district court."

SECTION 2. G.S. 15A-535(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) In any county in which there is a pretrial release program, the senior resident superior court judge may, after consultation with the chief district court judge, order that defendants accepted by such program for supervision shall, with their consent, be released by ~~judicial officials~~ judges to supervision of such ~~programs,~~ programs pursuant to G.S. 15A-534.7 and that defendants released to those programs shall be subject to ~~its~~ the rules and ~~regulations, in lieu of releasing the defendants on conditions (1), (2), or (3) of G.S. 15A-534(a).~~ regulations of the programs."

SECTION 3. Article 26 of Chapter 15A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 15A-534.7. Pretrial release programs.

(a) For purposes of this section, a pretrial release program is an organization designated by a judicial official that agrees to take custody of a defendant and supervise the defendant as a condition of pretrial release.

(b) A judicial official may place a defendant in the custody of a pretrial release program as a condition of pretrial release pursuant to this section. The condition may be imposed only under the same circumstances that the condition described in G.S. 15A-534(a)(3) may be imposed and only if all of the following criteria are met:

(1) The defendant is unable to execute a secured bond as described in G.S. 15A-534(a)(4) and is held in custody.

(2) The judicial official finds as fact that a period of at least 48 hours has elapsed from the date and time on the defendant's release order and, pursuant to G.S. 15A-534(d1) and (d2), determines that the defendant is not a flight risk and does not pose a danger to the public. The pretrial release program shall not contact or otherwise attempt to gain access to the defendant prior to expiration of the 48-hour period.

(c) In addition to the criteria in subsection (b) of this section, the factors to be considered in determining whether placement of a defendant with a pretrial release program is an appropriate condition of pretrial release shall be the same as those in G.S. 15A-534. The order of release must be filed with the clerk and a copy given the defendant.

(d1) When conditions of pretrial release are being imposed on a defendant who has failed on one or more prior occasions to appear to answer one or more of the charges to which the conditions apply, the judicial official shall at a minimum impose the conditions of pretrial release that are recommended in any order for the arrest of the defendant that was issued for the defendant's most recent failure to appear. If no conditions are recommended in that order for arrest, the judicial official shall require the execution of a secured appearance bond in an amount at least double the amount of the most recent previous secured ~~or unsecured~~ bond for the charges or, if no bond has yet been required for the charges, in the amount of at least five hundred dollars ($500.00). The judicial official shall also impose such restrictions on the travel, associations, conduct, or place of abode of the defendant as will assure that the defendant will not again fail to appear. The judicial official shall indicate on the release order that the defendant was arrested or surrendered after failing to appear as required under a prior release order. If the information available to the judicial official indicates that the defendant has failed on two or more prior occasions to appear to answer the charges, the judicial official shall indicate that fact on the release order.

(d2) When conditions of pretrial release are being determined for a defendant who is charged with a felony offense and the defendant is currently on probation for a prior offense, a judicial official shall determine whether the defendant poses a danger to the public prior to imposing conditions of pretrial release and must record that determination in writing. This subsection shall apply to any judicial official authorized to determine or review the defendant's eligibility for release under any proceeding authorized by this Chapter.

(1) If the judicial official determines that the defendant poses a danger to the public, the judicial official must impose condition (4) or (5) in subsection (a) of this section instead of condition ~~(1), (2), or (3).~~(1) or (3).

(2) If the judicial official finds that the defendant does not pose a danger to the public, then conditions of pretrial release shall be imposed as otherwise provided in this Article.

(3) If there is insufficient information to determine whether the defendant poses a danger to the public, then the defendant shall be retained in custody until a determination of pretrial release conditions is made pursuant to this subdivision. The judicial official that orders that the defendant be retained in custody shall set forth, in writing, the following at the time that the order is entered:

a. The defendant is being held pursuant to this subdivision.

b. The basis for the judicial official's decision that additional information is needed to determine whether the defendant poses a danger to the public and the nature of the necessary information.

c. A date, within 96 hours of the time of arrest, when the defendant shall be brought before a judge for a first appearance pursuant to Article 29 of this Chapter. If the necessary information is provided to the court at any time prior to the first appearance, the first available judicial official shall set the conditions of pretrial release. The judge who reviews the defendant's eligibility for release at the first appearance shall determine the conditions of pretrial release as provided in this Article.

(e) A magistrate or a clerk may modify his or her pretrial release order at any time prior to the first appearance before the district court judge. At or after such first appearance, except when the conditions of pretrial release have been reviewed by the superior court pursuant to G.S. 15A-539, a district court judge may modify a pretrial release order of the magistrate or clerk or any pretrial release order entered by him or her at any time prior to:

(1) In a misdemeanor case tried in the district court, the noting of an appeal; and

(2) In a case in the original trial jurisdiction of the superior court, the binding of the defendant over to superior court after the holding, or waiver, of a probable-cause hearing.

After a case is before the superior court, a superior court judge may modify the pretrial release order of a magistrate, clerk, or district court judge, or any such order entered by ~~him,~~ him or her, at any time prior to the time set out in G.S. 15A-536(a).

(f) For good cause shown any judge may at any time revoke an order of pretrial release. Upon application of any defendant whose order of pretrial release has been revoked, the judge must set new conditions of pretrial release in accordance with this Article.

(g) In imposing conditions of pretrial release and in modifying and revoking orders of release under this section, the judicial official must take into account all evidence available to him which he considers reliable and is not strictly bound by the rules of evidence applicable to criminal trials.

(h) A bail bond posted pursuant to this section is effective and binding upon the obligor throughout all stages of the proceeding in the trial division of the General Court of Justice until the entry of judgment in the district court from which no appeal is taken or the entry of judgment in the superior court. The obligation of an obligor, however, is terminated at an earlier time if:

(1) A judge authorized to do so releases the obligor from his or her bond; or

(2) The principal is surrendered by a surety in accordance with G.S. 15A-540; or

(3) The proceeding is terminated by voluntary dismissal by the State before forfeiture is ordered under G.S. 15A-544.3; or

(4) Prayer for judgment has been continued indefinitely in the district court."

SECTION 2. G.S. 15A-535(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) In any county in which there is a pretrial release program, the senior resident superior court judge may, after consultation with the chief district court judge, order that defendants accepted by such program for supervision shall, with their consent, be released by ~~judicial officials~~ judges to supervision of such ~~programs,~~ programs pursuant to G.S. 15A-534.7 and that defendants released to those programs shall be subject to ~~its~~ the rules and ~~regulations, in lieu of releasing the defendants on conditions (1), (2), or (3) of G.S. 15A-534(a).~~ regulations of the programs."

SECTION 3. Article 26 of Chapter 15A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 15A-534.7. Pretrial release programs.

(a) For purposes of this section, a pretrial release program is an organization designated by a judicial official that agrees to take custody of a defendant and supervise the defendant as a condition of pretrial release.

(b) A judicial official may place a defendant in the custody of a pretrial release program as a condition of pretrial release pursuant to this section. The condition may be imposed only under the same circumstances that the condition described in G.S. 15A-534(a)(3) may be imposed and only if all of the following criteria are met:

(1) The execution of a secured bond as described in G.S. 15A-534(a)(4) is a condition of pretrial release for the defendant at the time that placement with a pretrial release program is being considered as a pretrial release condition under this section.

(2) The judicial official finds as fact that a period of at least 72 hours has elapsed from the date and time on the defendant's release order and, pursuant to G.S. 15A-534(d1) and (d2), determines that the defendant is not a flight risk and does not pose a danger to the public. The pretrial release program shall not contact or otherwise attempt to gain access to the defendant prior to expiration of the 72-hour period.

(c) In addition to the criteria in subsection (b) of this section, the factors to be considered in determining whether placement of a defendant with a pretrial release program is an appropriate condition of pretrial release shall be the same as those in G.S. 15A-534. Except as otherwise provided by this section, the procedure for imposing that condition and authorizing pretrial release under this section shall be the same as those in G.S. 15A-534. In any order imposing a pretrial release condition pursuant to this section, the judicial official shall include the basis for the court's determination.

(d) No State government funds shall be appropriated to or used for the support of a pretrial release program or its activities."

SECTION 4. This section is effective when it becomes law. G.S. 15A-534.7(d), as enacted by Section 3 of this act, becomes effective July 1, 2011. The remainder of this act becomes effective December 1, 2011, and applies to criminal actions to determine pretrial release conditions on or after that date.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT ESTABLISHING A PROCESS TO SET ASIDE AN ORDER OF PATERNITY OR AN AFFIDAVIT OF PARENTAGE UNDER LIMITED CIRCUMSTANCES, AND TO ALLOW RELIEF FROM A CHILD SUPPORT ORDER WHEN THE OBLIGOR IS NOT THE CHILD'S FATHER.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 49-14 reads as rewritten:

"§ 49-14. Civil action to establish ~~paternity.~~paternity; motion to set aside paternity.

(a) The paternity of a child born out of wedlock may be established by civil action at any time prior to such child's eighteenth birthday. A copy of a certificate of birth of the child shall be attached to the complaint. The establishment of paternity shall not have the effect of legitimation. The social security numbers, if known, of the minor child's parents shall be placed in the record of the proceeding.

(h) Notwithstanding the time limitations of G.S. 1A-1, Rule 60 of the North Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, or any other provision of law, an order of paternity may be set aside by a trial court if each of the following applies:

(1) The paternity order was entered as the result of fraud, duress, mutual mistake, or excusable neglect.

(2) Genetic tests establish the putative father is not the biological father of the child.

The burden of proof in any motion to set aside an order of paternity shall be on the moving party. Upon proper motion alleging fraud, duress, mutual mistake, or excusable neglect, the court shall order the child's mother, the child whose parentage is at issue, and the putative father to submit to genetic paternity testing pursuant to G.S. 8-50.1(b1). If the court determines, as a result of genetic testing, the putative father is not the biological father of the child and the order of paternity was entered as a result of fraud, duress, mutual mistake, or excusable neglect, the court may set aside the order of paternity. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to affect the presumption of legitimacy where a child is born to a mother and the putative father during the course of a marriage."

SECTION 2. G.S. 110-132 reads as rewritten:

"§ 110-132. Affidavit of parentage and agreement to ~~support.~~motion to set aside affidavit of parentage.

(a) In lieu of or in conclusion of any legal proceeding instituted to establish paternity, the written affidavits of parentage executed by the putative father and the mother of the dependent child shall constitute an admission of paternity and shall have the same legal effect as a judgment of paternity for the purpose of establishing a child support obligation, subject to the right of either signatory to rescind within the earlier of:

(1) 60 days of the date the document is executed, or

(2) The date of entry of an order establishing paternity or an order for the payment of child support.

In order to rescind, a challenger must request the district court to order the rescission and to include in the order specific findings of fact that the request for rescission was filed with the clerk of court within 60 days of the signing of the document. The court must also find that all parties, including the child support enforcement agency, if appropriate, have been served in accordance with Rule 4 of the North Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure. In the event the court orders rescission and the putative father is thereafter found not to be the father of the child, then the clerk of court shall send a copy of the order of rescission to the State Registrar of Vital Statistics. Upon receipt of an order of rescission, the State Registrar shall remove the putative father's name from the birth certificate. In the event that the putative father defaults or fails to present or prosecute the issue of paternity, the trial court shall find the putative father to be the biological father as a matter of law.

~~After 60 days have elapsed, execution of the document may be challenged in court only upon the basis of fraud, duress, mistake, or excusable neglect. The burden of proof shall be on the challenging party, and the legal responsibilities, including child support obligations, of any signatory arising from the executed documents may not be suspended during the challenge except for good cause shown.~~

(a1) Paternity established under subsection (a) of this section may be set aside in accordance with subsection (a2) of this section or in accordance with G.S. 50-13.13.

(a2) Notwithstanding the time limitations of G.S. 1A-1, Rule 60 of the North Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, or any other provision of law, an affidavit of parentage may be set aside by a trial court after 60 days have elapsed if each of the following applies:

(1) The affidavit of parentage was entered as the result of fraud, duress, mutual mistake, or excusable neglect.

(2) Genetic tests establish that the putative father is not the biological father of the child.

The burden of proof in any motion to set aside an affidavit of parentage after 60 days allowed for rescission shall be on the moving party. Upon proper motion alleging fraud, duress, mutual mistake, or excusable neglect, the court shall order the child's mother, the child whose parentage is at issue, and the putative father to submit to genetic paternity testing pursuant to G.S. 8-50.1(b1). If the court determines, as a result of genetic testing, the putative father is not the biological father of the child and the affidavit of parentage was entered as a result of fraud, duress, mutual mistake, or excusable neglect, the court may set aside the affidavit of parentage. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to affect the presumption of legitimacy where a child is born to a mother and the putative father during the course of a marriage.

(a3) A written agreement to support the child by periodic payments, which may include provision for reimbursement for medical expenses incident to the pregnancy and the birth of the child, accrued maintenance and reasonable expense of prosecution of the paternity action, when acknowledged as provided herein, filed with, and approved by a judge of the district court at any time, shall have the same force and effect as an order of support entered by that court, and shall be enforceable and subject to modification in the same manner as is provided by law for orders of the court in such cases. The written affidavit shall contain the social security number of the person executing the affidavit. Voluntary agreements to support shall contain the social security number of each of the parties to the agreement. The written affidavits and agreements to support shall be sworn to before a certifying officer or notary public or the equivalent or corresponding person of the state, territory, or foreign country where the affirmation, acknowledgment, or agreement is made, and shall be binding on the person executing the same whether the person is an adult or a minor. The child support enforcement agency shall ensure that the mother and putative father are given oral and written notice of the legal consequences and responsibilities arising from the signing of an affidavit of parentage and of any alternatives to the execution of an affidavit of parentage. The mother shall not be excused from making the affidavit on the grounds that it may tend to disgrace or incriminate her; nor shall she thereafter be prosecuted for any criminal act involved in the conception of the child as to whose paternity she attests.

(b) At any time after the filing with the district court of an affidavit of parentage, upon the application of any interested party, the court or any judge thereof shall cause a summons signed by him or by the clerk or assistant clerk of superior court, to be issued, requiring the putative father to appear in court at a time and place named therein, to show cause, if any he has, why the court should not enter an order for the support of the child by periodic payments, which order may include provision for reimbursement for medical expenses incident to the pregnancy and the birth of the child, accrued maintenance and reasonable expense of the action under this subsection on the affidavit of parentage previously filed with said court. The court may order the responsible parents in a IV-D establishment case to perform a job search, if the responsible parent is not incapacitated. This includes IV-D cases in which the responsible parent is a noncustodial mother or a noncustodial father whose affidavit of parentage has been filed with the court or when paternity is not at issue for the child. The court may further order the responsible parent to participate in the work activities, as defined in 42 U.S.C. § 607, as the court deems appropriate. The amount of child support payments so ordered shall be determined as provided in G.S. 50-13.4(c). The prior judgment as to paternity shall be res judicata as to that issue and shall not be reconsidered by the court."

SECTION 3. Article 1 of Chapter 50 of the General Statutes is amended by adding the following new section to read:

"§ 50-13.13. Motion or claim for relief from child support order based on finding of nonpaternity.

(a) Notwithstanding G.S. 1A-1, Rule 60 of the North Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, or any other provision of law, an individual who, as the father of a child, is required to pay child support under an order that was entered by a North Carolina court pursuant to Chapter 49, 50, 52C, or 110 of the General Statutes, or under an agreement between the parties pursuant to G.S. 52-10.1 or otherwise, and that is subject to modification by a North Carolina court under applicable law may file a motion or claim seeking relief from a child support order as provided in this section.

(b) A motion or claim for relief under this section shall be filed as a motion or claim in the cause in the pending child support action, or as an independent civil action, and shall be filed within one year of the date the moving party knew or reasonably should have known that he was not the father of the child. The motion or claim shall be verified by the moving party and shall state all of the following:

(1) The basis, with particularity, on which the moving party believes that he is not the child's father.

(2) The moving party has not acknowledged paternity of the child or acknowledged paternity without knowing that he was not the child's biological father.

(3) The moving party has not adopted the child, has not legitimated the child pursuant to G.S. 49-10, 49-12, or 49-12.1, or is not the child's legal father pursuant to G.S. 49A-1.

(4) The moving party did not act to prevent the child's biological father from asserting his paternal rights regarding the child.

(c) The court may appoint a guardian ad litem pursuant to Rule 17 to represent the interest of the child in connection with a proceeding under this section.

(d) Notwithstanding G.S. 8-50.1(b1), the court shall, upon motion or claim of a party in a proceeding under this section, order the moving party, the child's mother, and the child to submit to genetic paternity testing if the court finds that there is good cause to believe that the moving party is not the child's father and that the moving party may be entitled to relief under this section. If genetic paternity testing is ordered, the provisions of G.S. 8-50.1(b1) shall govern the admissibility and weight of the genetic test results. The moving party shall pay the costs of genetic testing. If a party fails to comply with an order for genetic testing without good cause, the court may hold the party in civil or criminal contempt or impose appropriate sanctions under G.S. 1A-1, Rule 37, of the North Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, or both. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to require additional genetic paternity testing if paternity has been set aside pursuant to G.S. 49-14 or G.S. 110-132.

(e) The moving party's child support obligation shall be suspended while the motion or claim is pending before the court if the support is being paid on behalf of the child to the State, or any other assignee of child support, where the child is in the custody of the State or other assignee, or where the moving party is an obligor in a IV-D case as defined in G.S. 110-129(7).

The moving party's child support obligation shall not be suspended while the motion or claim is pending before the court if the support is being paid to the mother of the child.

(f) The court may grant relief from a child support order under this section if paternity has been set aside pursuant to G.S. 49-14 or G.S. 110-132; or if the moving party proves by clear and convincing evidence, and the court, sitting without a jury, finds both of the following:

(1) The results of a valid genetic test establish that the moving party is not the child's biological father.

(2) The moving party either (i) has not acknowledged paternity of the child or (ii) acknowledged paternity without knowing that he was not the child's biological father. For purposes of this section, 'acknowledging paternity' means that the moving party has done any of the following:

a. Publicly acknowledged the child as his own and supported the child while married to the child's mother.

b. Acknowledged paternity in a sworn written statement, including an affidavit of parentage executed under G.S. 110-132(a) or G.S. 130A-101(f).

c. Executed a consent order, a voluntary support agreement under G.S. 110-132 or G.S. 110-133, or any other legal agreement to pay child support as the child's father.

d. Admitted paternity in open court or in any pleading.

(g) If the court determines that the moving party has not satisfied the requirements of this section, the court shall deny the motion or claim, and all orders regarding the child's paternity, support, or custody shall remain enforceable and in effect until modified as otherwise provided by law. If the court finds that the moving party did not act in good faith in filing a motion or claim pursuant to this section, the court shall award reasonable attorneys' fees to the prevailing party. The court shall make findings of fact and conclusions of law to support its award of attorneys' fees under this subsection.

(h) If the court determines that the moving party has satisfied the requirements of this section, the court shall enter an order, including written findings of fact and conclusions of law, terminating the moving party's child support obligation regarding the child. The court may tax as costs to the mother of the child the expenses of genetic testing.

Any unpaid support due prior to the filing of the motion or claim is due and owing. If the court finds that the mother of the child used fraud, duress, or misrepresentation, resulting in the belief on the part of the moving party that he was the father of the child, the court may order the mother of the child to reimburse any child support amounts paid and received by the mother after the filing of the motion or claim. The moving party has no right to reimbursement of past child support paid on behalf of the child to the State, or any other assignee of child support, where the child is in the custody of the State or other assignee, or where the moving party is an obligor in a IV-D case as defined in G.S. 110-129(7).

If the child was born in North Carolina and the moving party is named as the father on the child's birth certificate, the court shall order the clerk of superior court to notify the State Registrar of the court's order pursuant to G.S. 130A-118(b)(2). If relief is granted under this subdivision, a party may, to the extent otherwise provided by law, apply for modification of or relief from any judgment or order involving the moving party's paternity of the child.

(i) Any servicemember who is deployed on military orders, and is subject to the protections of the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act, shall have the period for filing a motion pursuant to subsection (b) of this section tolled during the servicemember's deployment. If the period remaining allowed for the filing of the motion following the servicemember's redeployment is less than 30 days, then the servicemember shall have 30 days for filing the motion."

SECTION 4. This act becomes effective January 1, 2012, and applies to motions or claims for relief filed on or after that date. Notwithstanding the provision in Section 3 of this act requiring motions or claims to be filed within one year of discovery that the moving party is not the father, any person who would otherwise be eligible to file a motion or claim may file a motion or claim pursuant to this act prior to January 1, 2013.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT ESTABLISHING A PROCESS TO SET ASIDE AN ORDER OF PATERNITY OR AN AFFIDAVIT OF PARENTAGE UNDER LIMITED CIRCUMSTANCES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 49-14 reads as rewritten:

"§ 49-14. Civil action to establish ~~paternity.~~paternity; motion to set aside paternity.

(a) The paternity of a child born out of wedlock may be established by civil action at any time prior to such child's eighteenth birthday. A copy of a certificate of birth of the child shall be attached to the complaint. The establishment of paternity shall not have the effect of legitimation. The social security numbers, if known, of the minor child's parents shall be placed in the record of the proceeding.

(b) Proof of paternity pursuant to this section shall be by clear, cogent, and convincing evidence.

(c) No such action shall be commenced nor judgment entered after the death of the putative father, unless the action is commenced either:

(1) Prior to the death of the putative father;

(2) Within one year after the date of death of the putative father, if a proceeding for administration of the estate of the putative father has not been commenced within one year of his death; or

(3) Within the period specified in G.S. 28A-19-3(a) for presentation of claims against an estate, if a proceeding for administration of the estate of the putative father has been commenced within one year of his death.

Any judgment under this subsection establishing a decedent to be the father of a child shall be entered nunc pro tunc to the day preceding the date of death of the father.

(d) If the action to establish paternity is brought more than three years after birth of a child or is brought after the death of the putative father, paternity shall not be established in a contested case without evidence from a blood or genetic marker test.

(e) Either party to an action to establish paternity may request that the case be tried at the first session of the court after the case is docketed, but the presiding judge, in his discretion, may first try any pending case in which the rights of the parties or the public demand it.

(f) When a determination of paternity is pending in a IV-D case, the court shall enter a temporary order for child support upon motion and showing of clear, cogent, and convincing evidence of paternity. For purposes of this subsection, the results of blood or genetic tests shall constitute clear, cogent, and convincing evidence of paternity if the tests show that the probability of the alleged parent's parentage is ninety-seven percent (97%) or higher. If paternity is not thereafter established, then the putative father shall be reimbursed the full amount of temporary support paid under the order.

(g) Invoices for services rendered for pregnancy, childbirth, and blood or genetic testing are admissible as evidence without requiring third party foundation testimony and shall constitute prima facie evidence of the amounts incurred for the services or for testing on behalf of the child.

(h) Notwithstanding the time limitations of G.S. 1A-1, Rule 60 of the North Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, or any other provision of law, an order of paternity may be set aside by a trial court if each of the following applies:

(1) The paternity order was entered as the result of fraud, duress, mutual mistake, or excusable neglect.

(2) Genetic tests establish the putative father is not the biological father of the child.

The burden of proof in any motion to set aside an order of paternity shall be on the moving party. Child support responsibilities of the parties may not be suspended while the motion is pending, except for good cause shown. Upon proper motion alleging fraud, duress, mutual mistake, or excusable neglect, the court shall order the child's mother, the child whose parentage is at issue, and the putative father to submit to genetic paternity testing pursuant to G.S. 8-50.1(b1). If the court determines, as a result of genetic testing, the putative father is not the biological father of the child and the order of paternity was entered as a result of fraud, duress, mutual mistake, or excusable neglect, the court may set aside the order of paternity and terminate all future child support obligations of the putative father with regard to the minor child whose parentage is at issue. In determining whether the order of paternity should be set aside, the court may consider the best interests of the child. If the court sets aside an order of paternity pursuant to this section, no party may be required to reimburse past child support paid on behalf of the child to the custodial parent, the State, or any other assignee of child support. Any past-due child support payment vested pursuant to G.S. 50-13.10 shall not be affected by any order entered pursuant to this section. All vested child support arrears shall remain due and owing. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to affect the presumption of legitimacy where a child is born to a mother and the putative father during the course of a marriage."

SECTION 2. G.S. 110-132 reads as rewritten:

"§ 110-132. Affidavit of parentage and agreement to ~~support.~~motion to set aside affidavit of parentage.

(a) In lieu of or in conclusion of any legal proceeding instituted to establish paternity, the written affidavits of parentage executed by the putative father and the mother of the dependent child shall constitute an admission of paternity and shall have the same legal effect as a judgment of paternity for the purpose of establishing a child support obligation, subject to the right of either signatory to rescind within the earlier of:

(1) 60 days of the date the document is executed, or

(2) The date of entry of an order establishing paternity or an order for the payment of child support.

In order to rescind, a challenger must request the district court to order the rescission and to include in the order specific findings of fact that the request for rescission was filed with the clerk of court within 60 days of the signing of the document. The court must also find that all parties, including the child support enforcement agency, if appropriate, have been served in accordance with Rule 4 of the North Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure. In the event the court orders rescission and the putative father is thereafter found not to be the father of the child, then the clerk of court shall send a copy of the order of rescission to the State Registrar of Vital Statistics. Upon receipt of an order of rescission, the State Registrar shall remove the putative father's name from the birth certificate. In the event that the putative father defaults or fails to present or prosecute the issue of paternity, the trial court shall find the putative father to be the biological father as a matter of law.

~~After 60 days have elapsed, execution of the document may be challenged in court only upon the basis of fraud, duress, mistake, or excusable neglect. The burden of proof shall be on the challenging party, and the legal responsibilities, including child support obligations, of any signatory arising from the executed documents may not be suspended during the challenge except for good cause shown.~~

(a1) Notwithstanding the time limitations of G.S. 1A-1, Rule 60 of the North Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, or any other provision of law, an affidavit of parentage may be set aside by a trial court after 60 days have elapsed only if each of the following applies:

(1) The affidavit of parentage was entered as the result of fraud, duress, mutual mistake, or excusable neglect.

(2) Genetic tests establish that the putative father is not the biological father of the child.

The burden of proof in any motion to set aside an affidavit of parentage after 60 days allowed for rescission shall be on the moving party. Child support responsibilities of the parties may not be suspended while the motion is pending, except for good cause shown. Upon proper motion alleging fraud, duress, mutual mistake, or excusable neglect, the court shall order the child's mother, the child whose parentage is at issue, and the putative father to submit to genetic paternity testing pursuant to G.S. 8-50.1(b1). If the court determines, as a result of genetic testing, the putative father is not the biological father of the child and the affidavit of parentage was entered as a result of fraud, duress, mutual mistake, or excusable neglect, the court may set aside the affidavit of parentage and terminate all future child support obligations of the putative father with regard to the minor child whose parentage is at issue. In determining whether the affidavit of parentage should be set aside, the court may consider the best interests of the child. If the court sets aside an affidavit of parentage pursuant to this section, no party may be required to reimburse past child support paid on behalf of the child to the custodial parent, the State, or any other assignee of child support. Any past-due child support payment vested pursuant to G.S. 50-13.10 shall not be affected by any order entered pursuant to this section. All vested child support arrears shall remain due and owing. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to affect the presumption of legitimacy where a child is born to a mother and the putative father during the course of a marriage.

(a2) A written agreement to support the child by periodic payments, which may include provision for reimbursement for medical expenses incident to the pregnancy and the birth of the child, accrued maintenance and reasonable expense of prosecution of the paternity action, when acknowledged as provided herein, filed with, and approved by a judge of the district court at any time, shall have the same force and effect as an order of support entered by that court, and shall be enforceable and subject to modification in the same manner as is provided by law for orders of the court in such cases. The written affidavit shall contain the social security number of the person executing the affidavit. Voluntary agreements to support shall contain the social security number of each of the parties to the agreement. The written affidavits and agreements to support shall be sworn to before a certifying officer or notary public or the equivalent or corresponding person of the state, territory, or foreign country where the affirmation, acknowledgment, or agreement is made, and shall be binding on the person executing the same whether the person is an adult or a minor. The child support enforcement agency shall ensure that the mother and putative father are given oral and written notice of the legal consequences and responsibilities arising from the signing of an affidavit of parentage and of any alternatives to the execution of an affidavit of parentage. The mother shall not be excused from making the affidavit on the grounds that it may tend to disgrace or incriminate her; nor shall she thereafter be prosecuted for any criminal act involved in the conception of the child as to whose paternity she attests.

(b) At any time after the filing with the district court of an affidavit of parentage, upon the application of any interested party, the court or any judge thereof shall cause a summons signed by him or by the clerk or assistant clerk of superior court, to be issued, requiring the putative father to appear in court at a time and place named therein, to show cause, if any he has, why the court should not enter an order for the support of the child by periodic payments, which order may include provision for reimbursement for medical expenses incident to the pregnancy and the birth of the child, accrued maintenance and reasonable expense of the action under this subsection on the affidavit of parentage previously filed with said court. The court may order the responsible parents in a IV-D establishment case to perform a job search, if the responsible parent is not incapacitated. This includes IV-D cases in which the responsible parent is a noncustodial mother or a noncustodial father whose affidavit of parentage has been filed with the court or when paternity is not at issue for the child. The court may further order the responsible parent to participate in the work activities, as defined in 42 U.S.C. § 607, as the court deems appropriate. The amount of child support payments so ordered shall be determined as provided in G.S. 50-13.4(c). The prior judgment as to paternity shall be res judicata as to that issue and shall not be reconsidered by the court."

SECTION 3. This act becomes effective October 1, 2011, and applies to motions to set aside paternity or motions to set aside affidavits of parentage on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 679:
Deeds of Trust/Modernize Procedures

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	House Judiciary Subcommittee C	Date:	June 15, 2011
Introduced by:	Sen. Newton	Prepared by:	Karen Cochrane-Brown
Analysis of:	PCS to Third Edition S679-CSRO-29		Staff Attorney

SUMMARY: The PCS for Senate Bill 679 makes numerous technical changes to Chapter 45 regarding mortgages and deeds of trust. The bill makes revisions and additions to Article 4 relating to "Satisfaction", Article 7 relating to "Future Advances", and Article 9 relating to "Equity Lines of Credit". The bill also makes a number of conforming changes.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Revisions to Article 4: "Satisfaction"

Sections 3 through 14 of the bill address a wide range of issues relating to loan payoffs and the satisfaction of deeds of trust that have arisen since the 2005 enactment of the North Carolina Mortgage Satisfaction Act, including:

- Revising and updating definitions.
- Permitting rescission of a release that has been erroneously recorded.
- Modifying payoff statement statute to include requests for short-pay statements.
- Permitting a settlement agent to require a lender to temporarily suspend a borrower's ability to obtain additional credit in anticipation of a sale or new loan.
- Providing a form for partial releases.
- Permitting lenders to declare that certain obligations are no longer secured by a deed of trust.
- Establishing new "life of lien" rules.
- Adding to the list of documents the register of deeds must index.
- Providing for the automatic release of property from "ancillary security instruments".

A new section is also added to the law clarifying that a trustee is not a required party in most matters relating to a deed of trust, other than a foreclosure.

Revisions to Article 7: "Future Advances"

Sections 16 through 19 revise provisions dealing with deeds of trust that secure future advances and future obligations, to:

- Make it clear that the obligations secured by a future advance deed of trust can be specifically or generally identified, described or referenced in the deed of trust.
- Address treatment of the outstanding balance to the extent it exceeds the maximum principal amount that may be secured by the deed of trust at any one time.

- Clarify that (i) accrued interest and certain payments made, sums advanced, and expenses incurred by the lender to protect the collateral and the lender's lien position are secured by the deed of trust with a priority as of the date the deed of trust was recorded, and (ii) that those sums are not included in the calculation of the principal amount that may be secured by the deed of trust at any one time.

Revisions to Article 9: "Equity Lines of Credit"

Sections 20 through 27 revise provisions dealing with equity lines of credit, including:

- Revising and expanding the definitions in G.S. 45-81.
- Moving the prohibition against prepayment penalties from G.S. 45-81(c) to its own separate section, G.S. 45-82.4.
- Clarifying that (i) accrued interest and certain payments made, sums advanced, and expenses incurred by the lender to protect the collateral and the lender's lien position are secured by the deed of trust with a priority as of the date the deed of trust was recorded, and (ii) that those sums are not included in the calculation of the principal amount that may be secured by the deed of trust at any one time.
- Refining the procedures in G.S. 45-82.1 for extending the period of time within which future advances can be made.
- Permitting the borrower and certain persons acting on the borrower's behalf to request the termination of an equity line of credit.
- Permitting the borrower, certain persons acting on the borrower's behalf, the property owner, and certain subordinate lien holders to bar subsequent future advances obtained by the borrower from being secured by an existing deed of trust. The new section also provides model forms for that purpose.

Section 28 of the bill reorganizes and expands the list of documents that should be indexed by the register of deeds as "subsequent instruments".

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act becomes effective October 1, 2011.

(8) If the request is for a short-pay statement, (i) the specified short-pay date, which may not be more than 30 days after the notification is given, (ii) a clear statement as to whether the request is for the short-pay amount required to release all of the real property described in the security instrument or only a portion of that property, and (iii) if the request is for the short-pay amount required to release only a portion of the real property described in the security instrument, a description of the specific real property to be released upon payment of the short-pay amount.

(b) If a notification under subsection (a) of this section directs the secured creditor to send the payoff statement or a short-pay statement to a person identified as an authorized agent of the entitled person, the secured creditor must send the statement to the agent, unless the secured creditor knows that the entitled person has not authorized the request.

(c) A person who gives to a secured creditor a notification requesting a payoff statement or a short-pay statement thereby represents that the person is an entitled person or the authorized agent of an entitled person. A secured creditor may rely on that representation in providing a payoff statement or a short-pay statement unless the secured creditor knows that the requesting person is neither an entitled person nor the authorized agent of an entitled person. A secured creditor has no duty to make inquiry as to whether, or to verify that, the person requesting a payoff statement or a short-pay statement is an entitled person or the authorized agent of an entitled person.

(d) Within 10 days after the effective date of a notification that complies with subsection (a) of this section, the secured creditor shall issue a payoff statement or a short-pay statement and send it as directed pursuant to subdivision (a)(3) of this section in the manner prescribed in G.S. 45-36.5 for giving a notification. A secured creditor that sends a payoff statement or a short-pay statement to the entitled person or the authorized agent may not claim that the notification did not satisfy subsection (a) of this section. If the person to whom the notification is given once held an interest in the secured obligation but has since assigned that interest, the person need not send a payoff statement or a short-pay statement but shall give (i) a notification of the assignment to the person to whom the payoff statement or a short-pay statement otherwise would have been sent, providing the name and address of the assignee, or (ii) a notification to the person to whom the payoff statement or a short-pay statement otherwise would have been sent, stating that the recipient claims no interest in the security instrument or the secured obligation, that the secured obligation was assigned, but that the identity and address of the assignee is not known.

(e1) A short-pay statement must contain:

(1) The information reasonably necessary to calculate the short-pay amount as of the requested short-pay date, including the per diem interest amount, if any;

(2) The payment cutoff time, if any, the address or place where payment of the short-pay amount must be made, and any limitation as to the authorized method of payment;

(3) Any conditions precedent that must be satisfied to obtain the release of the property identified in the request for the short-pay statement from the lien of the security instrument; and

(4) Confirmation of the specific real property to be released from the lien of the security instrument upon receipt of the timely payment of the short-pay amount and satisfaction of the other conditions precedent to the release of that property.

Unless the short-pay statement expressly provides otherwise, all persons liable for payment or performance of the obligations secured by the security instrument will remain liable for the secured obligations to the extent the short-pay amount is not sufficient to satisfy the secured obligations in full.

(f) A payoff statement or a short-pay statement may contain the amount of any fees authorized under this section not included in the payoff amount. A secured creditor may require the payment in full of any fees authorized under this section before issuing a payoff ~~statement.~~statement or a short-pay statement.

(g) A secured creditor may not qualify a payoff amount or state that it is subject to change before the payoff date unless the payoff statement provides information sufficient to permit the entitled person or the person's authorized agent to request an updated payoff amount at no charge and to obtain that updated payoff amount during the secured creditor's normal business hours on the payoff date or the immediately preceding business day. A secured creditor may not qualify a short-pay amount or state that it is subject to change before the short-pay date unless the short-pay statement provides information sufficient to permit the entitled person or the person's authorized agent to request an updated short-pay amount at no charge and to obtain that updated short-pay amount during the secured creditor's normal business hours on the short-pay date or the immediately preceding business day.

(h) A secured creditor must provide upon request one payoff statement or one short-pay statement without charge during any six-month period. A secured creditor may charge a fee of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) for each additional payoff statement and one hundred dollars ($100.00) for each additional short-pay statement requested during that six-month period. However, a secured creditor may not charge a fee for providing an updated payoff amount or short-pay amount under subsection ~~(f)~~ (g) of this section or a corrected payoff statement or short-pay statement under G.S. 45-36.8(a).

(i) Unless the security instrument provides otherwise, a secured creditor is not required to send a payoff statement or a short-pay statement by means other than first-class mail. If the creditor agrees to send a statement by another means, it may charge a reasonable fee for complying with the requested manner of delivery.

(j) Except as otherwise provided in G.S. 45-36.12, if a secured creditor to which a notification has been given pursuant to subsection (a) of this section does not send a timely payoff statement that substantially complies with subsection ~~(d)~~ (e) of this ~~section,~~ section or a short-pay statement that substantially complies with subsection (e1) of this section, the creditor is liable to the entitled person for any actual damages caused by the failure, but not punitive damages. A creditor that does not pay the damages provided in this subsection within 30 days after receipt of a notification demanding payment shall also be liable for reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

(k) This section does not apply unless (i) the notification requesting a payoff statement is given on or after ~~October 1, 2005.~~ October 1, 2005, and (ii) the notification requesting a short-pay statement is given on or after October 1, 2011."

SECTION 6. Article 4 of Chapter 45 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read as follows:

"§ 45-36.7A. Credit suspension directives.

(a) A credit suspension directive may be given to a secured creditor by any of the following:

(1) Any borrower.

(2) The legal representative of any borrower.

(3) The attorney for any borrower.

(4) An attorney licensed to practice law in the State of North Carolina or a bank, savings and loan association, savings bank, or credit union, but only when (i) the attorney, bank, savings and loan association, savings bank, or credit union is responsible for the disbursement of funds in connection with the sale of, or a new loan secured by, real property then encumbered by an existing security instrument; (ii) a requirement of the sale or new loan transaction is that the property be conveyed or encumbered free and clear of the lien of the existing security instrument; and (iii) the credit suspension directive is given to the secured creditor contemporaneously with a notification requesting a payoff statement or a short-pay statement in anticipation of and in preparation for the imminent settlement of the sale or new loan transaction.

(b) A credit suspension directive must contain all of the following:

(1) The name and authority of the person giving the directive.

(2) Sufficient information to enable the creditor to identify the secured obligation, the identity of the borrower, and the real property encumbered by the security interest.

(3) The specified payoff date, which may not be more than 30 days after the notification is given.

(4) A clear and unambiguous directive to the secured creditor to suspend through and including the payoff date the borrower's right and ability to obtain any additional credit advances which, if made, would be secured by the security instrument.

(c) If the person who gives a credit suspension directive to a secured creditor is a person listed in subdivision (a)(4) of this section, that person shall also (i) give a copy of the credit suspension directive to the borrower and (ii) provide an additional notification to the borrower that provides substantially as follows:

"NOTICE TO BORROWER

You have a loan with (name of lender) secured by a mortgage or deed of trust on real property located at (address of property).

We will be responsible for disbursing funds in connection with a scheduled sale of the property or a new loan that will be secured by the property. A requirement of the sale or new loan transaction is that the property be conveyed or encumbered free and clear of the existing mortgage or deed of trust that secures your loan.

As permitted by North Carolina law, we are sending the (enclosed/attached/following/foregoing) notification to your lender directing that it temporarily suspend your right and ability to obtain credit advances in anticipation of the settlement of the sale or loan. The notification accompanies a request asking the amount that must be sent to your lender to pay your loan in full and cancel the mortgage or deed of trust that secures your loan (or, if your loan will not be paid in full, to release the property from the mortgage or deed of trust that secures your loan). The information your lender provides us may be inaccurate if you obtain additional credit advances before the scheduled settlement date of the sale or new loan transaction.

When your lender receives our directive, it will temporarily suspend your right and ability to obtain credit advances. The period of suspension will continue through and including (anticipated payoff date), the anticipated payoff date, regardless of whether the settlement of the sale or new loan transaction occurs as scheduled. The suspension will not affect your responsibility to continue making payments to your lender during the suspension period. You should not attempt to obtain additional credit advances from your lender during the suspension period.

You may instruct us at any time during the suspension period to withdraw the credit suspension directive we are sending your lender, and we are required by law to comply. However, if you do so, you may jeopardize the settlement of the sale or new loan transaction because the payoff or release information provided by your lender may become inaccurate.

When proceeds from a sale or new loan transaction are used to pay an existing loan in full, lenders typically close the loan account, thereby terminating their borrower's ability to obtain additional credit advances. You should contact your lender to determine whether you will be able to obtain additional credit advances after the settlement of the sale or new loan transaction.

If you have questions about this notice or our action, please contact (name of contact person or department) by calling us at (phone number) or writing to us at (mailing address).

(Name of attorney, bank, savings and loan association, savings bank, or credit union)"

(d) Upon receipt of a credit suspension directive, a secured creditor shall:

(1) Subject to subsection (e) of this section, suspend the borrower's right and ability to obtain credit advances which, if made, would be secured by the security instrument. The period of suspension shall continue through and including the payoff date stated in the credit suspension directive.

(2) Apply all sums subsequently paid during the period of suspension by or on behalf of the borrower in connection with the secured obligation, including sums paid to the secured creditor by a person responsible for the disbursement of funds in connection with the sale of, or a new loan secured by, real property then encumbered by a security instrument, to the satisfaction of the secured obligation, regardless of whether the amount or amounts paid are sufficient to pay the secured obligation and other sums secured by the security instrument in full. Sums paid to the secured creditor in excess of the amount required to pay the secured obligation and other sums secured by the security instrument in full shall be refunded by the secured creditor to or at the direction of the person who paid the excess amount.

(e) Notwithstanding a secured creditor's receipt of a credit suspension directive, a secured creditor may do any of the following, all of which shall be secured by the security instrument:

(1) The secured creditor may advance sums and incur expenses (i) for insurance, taxes, and assessments, (ii) to protect the secured creditor's interest under the security instrument, (iii) to preserve and protect the value or condition of the real property encumbered by the security instrument, or to complete the construction of improvements on the real property encumbered by the security instrument.

(2) The secured creditor may permit the borrower to obtain a credit advance, but only if the credit advance was initiated or approved before the secured creditor received the credit suspension directive.

(f) If the person giving a credit suspension directive is not a borrower, then the person giving a credit suspension directive shall be conclusively deemed the borrower's agent acting with full authority from the borrower to issue the credit suspension directive on the borrower's behalf.

(g) A credit suspension directive may be withdrawn at any time by the person who gave the directive. If the person who gives a credit suspension directive to a secured creditor is a person listed in subdivision (a)(4) of this section, that person shall promptly notify the secured creditor that the credit suspension directive is withdrawn (i) if instructed by the borrower at any time to withdraw the directive or (ii) if the anticipated sale or new loan transaction is cancelled. Upon receipt of a notice from the person who originally gave the credit suspension directive that the credit suspension directive is withdrawn, the secured creditor may reinstate the borrower's right and ability to obtain credit advances."

SECTION 7. G.S. 45-36.8 reads as rewritten:

"§ 45-36.8. Understated payoff ~~statement:~~statement or short-pay statement: correction; effect.

(a) If a secured creditor determines that the payoff amount it provided in a payoff statement or the short-pay amount it provided in a short-pay statement was understated, the creditor may send a corrected payoff ~~statement.~~or short-pay statement. If the entitled person or the person's authorized agent receives and has a reasonable opportunity to act upon a corrected payoff statement or short-pay statement before making payment, the corrected statement supersedes an earlier statement.

(b) A secured creditor that sends a payoff statement containing an understated payoff amount or a short-pay statement containing an understated short-pay amount may not deny the accuracy of the payoff amount or short-pay amount as against any person that reasonably and detrimentally relies upon the understated payoff ~~amount.~~amount or short-pay amount.

(c) This Article does not:

(1) Affect the right of a secured creditor to recover any sum that it did not include in a payoff amount or a short-pay amount from any person liable for payment of the secured obligation; or

(2) Limit any claim or defense that a person liable for payment of a secured obligation may have under law other than this Article."

SECTION 8. G.S. 45-36.9 reads as rewritten:

"§ 45-36.9. Secured creditor to submit satisfaction or release for recording; liability for failure.

(a) A secured creditor shall submit for recording a satisfaction of a security instrument within 30 days after the creditor receives full payment or performance of the secured obligation. If a security instrument secures a line of credit or future advances, the secured obligation is fully performed only if, in addition to full payment, the secured creditor has received (i) a notification requesting the creditor to terminate the line of ~~credit~~ credit, (ii) a credit suspension directive, or (iii) a notification containing ~~a~~ a clear and unambiguous statement sufficient to terminate the effectiveness of the provision for future advances in the security ~~instrument.~~instrument including, but not limited to, a request to terminate an equity line of credit given pursuant to G.S. 45-82.2 or a notice regarding future advances given pursuant to G.S. 45-82.3.

(a1) If the conditions stated in a short-pay statement are fully satisfied on or before the short-pay date stated in the short-pay statement, including the payment in full of the short-pay amount and the satisfaction of all other conditions precedent to the release set forth in the short-pay statement, then within 30 days after the short-pay date the secured creditor shall release the property which is the subject of the short-pay statement from the lien of the security instrument. The release of the property may be accomplished by a deed of release, an instrument of full or partial reconveyance, a partial release recorded pursuant to G.S. 45-36.22, the satisfaction of record of the security instrument by any of the means authorized in G.S. 45-37(a), or by any other lawful means.

SECTION 9. Article 4 of Chapter 45 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read as follows:

"§ 45-36.22. Partial release: content and effect; form.

(a) A document is a partial release if it does all of the following:

(1) Identifies the type of security instrument, the original parties to the security instrument, the recording data for the security instrument, and the office in which the security instrument is recorded.

(2) States that the person signing the partial release is the secured creditor or, if the security instrument is a deed of trust, that the person or persons signing the partial release is or are the secured creditor, the trustee, or both the secured creditor and the trustee.

(3) Contains language releasing property or an interest in property from the lien of the security instrument.

(4) Is signed and acknowledged as required by law for a conveyance of an interest in real property by the secured creditor or, if the security instrument is a deed of trust, by the secured creditor, the trustee, or both the secured creditor and the trustee.

(b) The register of deeds shall accept a partial release for recording unless one of the following applies:

(1) The document is submitted by a method or in a medium not authorized for registration by the register of deeds under applicable law.

(2) The required recording fee is not paid.

(3) The document is not signed and acknowledged as required by law for a conveyance of an interest in real property by the secured creditor or, if the security instrument is a deed of trust, by the secured creditor, the trustee, or both the secured creditor and the trustee. The register of deeds shall not be required to verify or make inquiry concerning the truth of the matters stated in any partial release or the authority of the person executing any partial release to do so.

(c) Upon recording, a partial release shall release from the lien of the security instrument the property or interest in property as is expressly described and released. With respect only to the specific property or interest in property identified and released by a partial release, the partial release shall (i) operate and have the same effect as a duly executed and recorded deed of release or reconveyance of the property or interest in the property; (ii) release and discharge all of the secured creditor's interest in the property or property interest arising from the security instrument; and (iii) if the security instrument is a deed of trust, release and discharge all the interest of the trustee in the property or property interest arising from the deed of trust. The security instrument shall otherwise remain in full force and effect, and the remainder of the property and interests in property described in and encumbered by the security instrument shall remain subject to the lien of the security instrument.

(d) The recording of a partial release does not by itself extinguish any liability of a person for payment or performance of the secured obligation.

(e) The provisions of this section are not exclusive. Property and interests in property may be released from the lien of a security instrument by methods other than the filing of a partial release.

(f) Unless the deed of trust provides otherwise, the trustee in a deed of trust is not a necessary party to a partial release.

(g) No particular phrasing is required for a partial release. The following form, when properly completed, is sufficient to satisfy the requirements of G.S. 45-36.22(a):

"PARTIAL RELEASE

SECTION 10. Article 4 of Chapter 45 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read as follows:

"§ 45-36.23. Obligation release: content and effect.

(a) A document is an obligation release if it does all of the following:

(1) Identifies the type of security instrument, the original parties to the security instrument, the recording data for the security instrument, and the office in which the security instrument is recorded.

(2) States that the person signing the obligation release is the owner and holder of the obligation or obligations to be released.

(3) Identifies one or more of the specific obligations that are secured by the security instrument and contains language confirming that, with respect to each such secured obligation, the obligation is no longer secured by the security instrument.

(4) Is signed and acknowledged as required by law for a conveyance of an interest in real property by the owner and holder of the specific obligation or obligations to be released.

(b) The register of deeds shall accept an obligation release for recording unless one of the following applies:

(1) The document is submitted by a method or in a medium not authorized for registration by the register of deeds under applicable law.

(2) The required recording fee is not paid.

(3) The document is not signed and acknowledged as required by law for a conveyance of an interest in real property by the owner and holder of the obligation or obligations to be released. The register of deeds shall not be required to verify or make inquiry concerning (i) the truth of the matters stated in any obligation release or (ii) the authority of the person executing any obligation release to do so.

(c) From and after the date an obligation release is recorded, the obligation or obligations specifically identified and released in the obligation release (and only such obligation or obligations) shall no longer be secured by the security instrument, without regard to whether the obligation has been paid in full and satisfied. Unless the obligation release states that the secured obligation has been paid in full and satisfied, the recording of an obligation release does not by itself extinguish any liability of a person for payment or performance of the obligation or obligations released.

(d) Secured obligations that are not specifically identified and released in an obligation release remain secured by the security instrument, and the recording of an obligation release does not extinguish any liability of a person for payment or performance of the remaining secured obligation or obligations. The recording of an obligation release has no effect on the lien of the security instrument on the real property described in the security instrument.

(e) Unless the deed of trust provides otherwise, the trustee in a deed of trust is not a necessary party to an obligation release.

(f) No particular phrasing is required for an obligation release. The following form, when properly completed, is sufficient to satisfy the requirements of G.S. 45-36.23(a):

"OBLIGATION RELEASE

SECTION 11. Article 4 of Chapter 45 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read as follows:

"§ 45-36.24. Expiration of lien of security instrument.

(a) Maturity Date. – For purposes of this section:

(1) If a secured obligation is for the payment of money:

a. If all remaining sums owing on the secured obligation are due and payable in full on a date specified in the secured obligation, the maturity date of the secured obligation is the date so specified. If no such date is specified in the secured obligation, the maturity date of the secured obligation is the last date a payment on the secured obligation is due and payable under the terms of the secured obligation.

b. If all remaining sums owing on the secured obligation are due and payable in full on demand or on a date specified in the secured obligation, whichever first occurs, the maturity date of the secured obligation is the date so specified. If all sums owing on the secured obligation are due and payable in full on demand and no alternative date is specified in the secured obligation for payment in full, the maturity date of the secured obligation is the date of the secured obligation.

c. The maturity date of the secured obligation is "stated" in a security instrument if (i) the maturity date of the secured obligation is specified as a date certain in the security instrument, (ii) the last date a payment on the secured obligation is due and payable under the terms of the secured obligation is specified in the security instrument, or (iii) the maturity date of the secured obligation or the last date a payment on the secured obligation is due and payable under the terms of the secured obligation can be ascertained or determined from information contained in the security instrument, such as, for example, from a payment schedule contained in the security instrument.

(2) If the secured obligation is for the performance of some obligation other than the payment of money:

a. If the secured obligation is required to be performed by a date specified in the secured obligation, the maturity date of the secured obligation is the date so specified.

b. If the obligation is to be performed on demand or before a date specified in the secured obligation, whichever first occurs, the maturity date of the secured obligation is the date so specified. If the obligation is to be performed on demand and no alternative date for performance is specified in the secured obligation, the maturity date of the secured obligation is the date of the secured obligation.

c. The maturity date of the secured obligation is "stated" in a security instrument if (i) the maturity date of the secured obligation is specified as a date certain in the security instrument or (ii) the maturity date of the secured obligation can be ascertained or determined from information contained in the security instrument.

(b) Automatic Lien Expiration. – Except as provided in subsection (g) of this section, unless the lien of a security instrument has been extended in the manner prescribed in subsection (c), (d), or (e) of this section, the security instrument has been foreclosed, or the security instrument has been satisfied of record pursuant to G.S. 45-37, the lien of a security instrument automatically expires, and the security instrument is conclusively deemed satisfied of record pursuant to G.S. 45-37, at the earliest of the following times:

(1) If the security instrument was first recorded before October 1, 2011:

a. If the maturity date of the secured obligation is stated in the security instrument, 15 years after the maturity date.

b. If the maturity date is not stated in the security instrument, 35 years after the date the security instrument was recorded in the office of the register of deeds or acknowledged as required by law for a conveyance of an interest in real property, whichever is later.

c. Without regard to whether the maturity date of the secured obligation is stated in the security instrument, 15 years from whichever of the following occurs last:

1. The date when the conditions of the security instrument were required by its terms to have been performed.

2. The date of maturity of the last installment of debt or interest secured thereby.

3. The date an affidavit or separate instrument was recorded pursuant to the provisions of G.S. 45-37(b), if any such affidavit or separate instrument was recorded before October 1, 2011, and before the lien of the security instrument expired.

(2) If the security instrument was first recorded on or after October 1, 2011:

a. If the maturity date of the secured obligation is stated in the security instrument, 15 years after the maturity date.

b. If the maturity date of the secured obligation is not stated in the security instrument, 35 years after the date the security instrument was recorded in the office of the register of deeds or October 1, 2011, whichever is later.

(c) Methods To Extend a Lien. – The lien of a recorded security instrument may be extended one or more times by recording (i) a lien maturity extension agreement or (ii) a notice of maturity date. If more than one lien maturity extension agreement or notice of maturity date is recorded, the most recently recorded lien maturity extension agreement or notice of maturity date controls in determining when the lien of a security instrument expires. A lien maturity extension agreement or notice of maturity date is ineffective unless recorded before the lien expires. The lien of the original security instrument may not be extended to a date more than 50 years after the date the security instrument was originally recorded in the office of the register of deeds without the written agreement of the then owner of the property encumbered by the lien of the security instrument.

(d) Lien Maturity Extension Agreement. –

(1) The lien of a recorded security instrument may be extended to a date specified in a lien maturity extension agreement, provided the lien maturity extension agreement is recorded before the lien expires. When a lien maturity extension agreement has been duly recorded, the lien of the security instrument will expire on the date specified in the lien maturity extension agreement.

(2) A document (including any document that modifies, amends, or restates a security instrument) is a lien maturity extension agreement if it does all of the following:

a. Identifies the type of security instrument, the original parties to the security instrument, the recording data for the security instrument, and the office in which the security instrument is recorded.

b. States the date to which the lien of the security instrument is extended.

c. Is signed and acknowledged as required by law for a conveyance of an interest in real property by the secured creditor and the then owner of the property encumbered by the lien of the security instrument.

(3) No particular phrasing is required for a lien maturity extension agreement. The following form, when properly completed, is sufficient to satisfy the requirements for a lien maturity extension agreement:

"LIEN MATURITY EXTENSION AGREEMENT
(G.S. 45-36.24(d))

(e) Notice of Maturity Date. –

(1) The lien of a recorded security instrument may be extended by a notice of maturity date, provided the notice of maturity date is recorded before the lien expires.

(2) When a notice of maturity date signed only by the secured creditor has been duly recorded, the lien of the security instrument will expire at the earliest of the following times: (i) 15 years after the maturity of the secured obligation as stated in the notice of maturity date or (ii) 50 years after the date the security instrument was originally recorded in the office of the register of deeds. A document signed only by the secured creditor is a notice of maturity date if it does all of the following:

b. States that the person signing the notice of maturity date is the secured creditor.

d. Is signed and acknowledged as required by law for a conveyance of an interest in real property by the secured creditor.

(3) When a notice of maturity date signed by the secured creditor and by the then owner of the property encumbered by the lien of the security instrument has been duly recorded, the lien of the security instrument will expire 15 years after the maturity date of the secured obligation as stated in the notice of maturity. A document (including any document that modifies, amends, or restates a security instrument) signed by the secured creditor and by the then owner of the property encumbered by the lien of the security instrument is a notice of maturity date if it:

a. Identifies the type of security instrument, the original parties to the security instrument, the recording data for the security instrument, and the office in which the security instrument is recorded.

b. States the maturity date of the secured obligation.

c. Is signed and acknowledged as required by law for a conveyance of an interest in real property by the secured creditor and the then owner of the property encumbered by the lien of the security instrument.

(4) No particular phrasing is required for a notice of maturity date. The following form, when properly completed, is sufficient to satisfy the requirements for a notice of maturity date signed only by the secured creditor:

You have an equity line of credit with (name of lender) secured by a mortgage or deed of trust on real property located at (address of property).

We are a title insurance company that has issued or has agreed to issue a title insurance policy on that property. As permitted by North Carolina law, we are sending the

All sums your lender subsequently receives in connection with your equity line of credit (including any sums we may send to your lender) will be applied by your lender to the satisfaction of your account. "NOTICE TO BORROWER

You have an equity line of credit with (name of lender) secured by a mortgage or deed of trust on real property located at (address of property).

We were responsible for disbursing funds in connection with the sale of the property or a new loan secured by the property. When your lender receives our request, your lender will terminate and close your equity line of credit, and you will no longer be able to obtain credit advances. However, termination of your equity line of credit will not release you from liability for the account. All sums your lender subsequently receives in connection with your equity line of credit (including any sums we send to your lender in connection with the closing of the sale of the property or the new loan) will be applied by your lender to the satisfaction of your account. When the balance of your account becomes zero, your lender will be required to cancel the mortgage or deed of trust as a matter of public record.

(a) A notice regarding future advances may be submitted to a lender by an authorized person, an owner of the property, or a qualified lien holder.

(b) Except as provided in subsection (c) of this section, an advance made by a lender to a borrower pursuant to an equity line of credit will not be secured by the related equity line security instrument if the advance occurs after the lender receives and has had not less than one complete business day to act on a notice regarding future advances.

(c) Notwithstanding a lender's receipt of a notice regarding future advances, the following shall be secured by the equity line security instrument and shall have the same priority as if they had been owing, accrued, paid, advanced, or incurred at the time the equity line security instrument was registered:

(2) Any advance made by the lender to a borrower pursuant to an equity line of credit that occurs within one complete business day after the lender receives the notice regarding future advances.

(3) Any advance made by the lender to a borrower pursuant to an equity line of credit that occurs more than one complete business day after the lender receives the notice regarding future advances, but only if the advance was initiated or approved before the lender received the notice regarding future advances.

(d) Receipt by a lender of a notice regarding future advances shall be conclusively deemed to be an action by the borrower adversely affecting the lender's security for the equity line of credit. Upon receipt of a notice regarding future advances, the lender may terminate the borrower's right and ability to obtain additional advances under the equity line of credit.

(e) No particular phrasing is required for a notice regarding future advances. The following form, when properly completed, is sufficient to serve as a notice regarding future advances:

"NOTICE REGARDING FUTURE ADVANCES

I certify that I am:

Signature of person submitting the request"

(f) If the person who gives a lender a notice regarding future advances is (i) a title insurance company described in G.S. 45-81(1); (ii) an attorney, bank, savings and loan association, savings bank, or credit union described in G.S. 45-81(1), (iii) an owner as defined in G.S. 45-81(7), other than an owner who is also a borrower, or (iv) a qualified lien holder described in G.S. 45-81(9), then that person shall give a copy of the notice regarding future advances to the borrower accompanied by a notice that provides substantially as follows:

"NOTICE TO BORROWER

You have an equity line of credit with (name of lender) secured by a mortgage or deed of trust on real property located at (address of property).

As permitted by North Carolina law, we are sending the (enclosed / attached / following / foregoing) Notice Regarding Future Advances to your lender. Subject to certain exceptions, the notice prevents any new credit advances you obtain under your equity line of credit from being secured by the mortgage or deed of trust that currently secures its repayment. Our reason for giving your lender the notice is to limit the amount secured by the mortgage or deed of trust that secures your equity line of credit and to prevent that amount from increasing.

When your lender receives our notice, your lender may elect to terminate your right and ability to obtain additional advances under your equity line of credit. However, termination of your right and ability to obtain additional advances will not release you from liability for the account. You should contact your lender to determine whether you will be able to obtain additional credit advances from your lender.

If you have questions about this notice or our action, please contact (name of contact person or department) by calling us at (phone number) or writing to us at (mailing address).

It is the intent of the General Assembly to prescribe a uniform system for the regulation of legally carrying a concealed handgun. To insure uniformity, no political subdivisions, boards, or agencies of the State nor any county, city, municipality, municipal corporation, town, township, village, nor any department or agency thereof, may enact ordinances, rules, or regulations concerning legally carrying a concealed handgun. A unit of local government may adopt an ordinance to permit the posting of a prohibition against carrying a concealed handgun, in accordance with G.S. 14-415.11(c), on local government ~~buildings, their appurtenant premises, and parks.~~buildings and their appurtenant premises. A unit of local government may adopt an ordinance to prohibit, by posting, the carrying of a concealed handgun on municipal and county recreational facilities that are specifically identified by the unit of local government. If a unit of local government adopts such an ordinance with regard to recreational facilities, then the concealed handgun permittee may, nevertheless, secure the handgun in a locked vehicle within the trunk, glove box, or other enclosed compartment or area within or on the motor vehicle. For purposes of this section, the term "recreational facilities" includes only the following: a playground, an athletic field, a swimming pool, and an athletic facility."

SECTION 8. Article 54B of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 14-415.27. Expanded permit scope for district attorneys, assistant district attorneys, and investigators employed by office of the district attorney.

Notwithstanding G.S. 14-415.11(c), any person who is a district attorney, an assistant district attorney, or an investigator employed by the office of a district attorney and who has a concealed handgun permit issued pursuant to this Article or that is considered valid under G.S. 14-415.24 is not subject to the restrictions and prohibitions set out in G.S. 14-415.11(c) and may carry a concealed handgun in the areas listed in G.S. 14-415.11(c) unless otherwise prohibited by federal law."

SECTION 9. This act becomes effective December 1, 2011, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date. Prosecutions for offenses committed before the effective date of this act are not abated or affected by this act, and the statutes that would be applicable but for this act remain applicable to those prosecutions.

SENATE BILL 133

Short Title:	Juror Privacy.	(Public)
Sponsors:	Senators Clodfelter; and Jones.
Referred to:	Judiciary I.

February 28, 2011

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO ELIMINATE THE REQUIREMENT THAT THE ADDRESS OF EACH QUALIFIED PERSON SELECTED FOR THE JURY LIST APPEAR ON THE LIST FILED WITH THE REGISTER OF DEEDS, IN ORDER TO ALLAY JUROR PRIVACY CONCERNS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 9-4 reads as rewritten:

"§ 9-4. Preparation and custody of list.

As the jury list is prepared, the name ~~and address~~ of each qualified person selected for the list shall be written on a separate card. The cards shall then be alphabetized and permanently numbered, the numbers running consecutively with a different number on each card. These cards shall constitute the jury list for the county. They shall be filed with the register of deeds of the county, together with a statement of the sources used and procedures followed in preparing the list. The list shall be kept under lock and key, but shall be available for public inspection during regular office hours. The register of deeds may elect to store an electronic copy of the jury list for the county."

SECTION 2. This act is effective when it becomes law.

SENATE BILL 133: Juror Privacy

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	House Judiciary Subcommittee C	Date:	May 29, 2012
Introduced by:	Sen. Clodfelter	Prepared by:	Janice Paul Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	First Edition

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 133 would eliminate the requirement that the addresses of qualified persons be included on the jury list that is filed with the register of deeds.

CURRENT LAW: Each county's jury commission periodically prepares a list of prospective jurors qualified to serve, using the names of registered voters, persons with drivers license records, and names from other sources it deems reliable. The commission merges the entire list of names and randomly selects the requisite number of names to form the jury list. Counties may use electronic data processing equipment to prepare and maintain the jury lists. The procedure for these functions must be in writing, adopted by the jury commission, and kept available for public inspection in the clerk's office. G.S. 9-2.1 provides that the procedure must "effectively preserve...the right of public access to the list of prospective juror," and that "[a]ccess to the randomized list shall be prohibited." Public access to the jury list required by G.S. 9-4 is limited to the alphabetical listing of the names.

G.S. 9-4 provides that as the jury list is prepared, the name and address of each qualified person selected for the list must be kept on a separate card. The cards must be alphabetized, consecutively numbered, and filed with the county register of deeds and available for public inspection. These cards constitute the jury list for the county. The register of deeds may elect to store an electronic copy of the county's jury list.

BILL ANALYSIS: Senate Bill 133 would eliminate the requirement that the addresses of qualified persons be included on cards filed with the register of deeds.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act is effective when it becomes law.

Brad Krehely, counsel to Senate Judiciary I, substantially contributed to this summary.

SENATE BILL 798:
Various Emergency Management Changes

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	House Judiciary Subcommittee C	Date:	June 5, 2012
Introduced by:	Sen. Brunstetter	Prepared by:	Janice Paul
Analysis of:	First Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 798 makes various changes to the emergency management statutes and creates a Joint Oversight Emergency Management Oversight Committee.

BACKGROUND: Article 1 of Chapter 166A is the North Carolina Emergency Management Act. It defines the responsibilities within State government for the direction and control of the State emergency management program, the different types of disaster (dependent on damage assessments), and disaster assistance programs and funding. Article 1 authorizes counties to establish and maintain emergency management agencies, appropriate funds for that purpose, and, where such local programs meet State standards, receive State and federal financial assistance.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 doubles the length of disaster declarations. A Type I disaster declaration would expire after 60 days, instead of 30; a Type II disaster would expire after 12 months, instead of 6 months; and a Type III disaster would expire after 24 months, instead of 12 months.

This section clarifies that if a federal-state aid program is created during a period of time in which a disaster declaration is in effect, aid may continue to flow pursuant to that agreement even once the underlying disaster declaration expires.

Section 2 would enact H842 from this past session. This section clarifies that immunity from liability is available for persons and entities whose property is used during an emergency only if the property is being used subject to the order or control of or pursuant to a request of a governmental entity.

This section also clarifies that immunity is available when the property is used "for activities or functions relating to emergency management" (was "sheltering, protecting, safeguarding or aiding in any way persons").

Section 3 defines the State Emergency Response Team (SERT), which has existed for years but whose existence has never been codified. The SERT is defined to include certain enumerated agencies as well as any agencies designated as belonging to it in the State Emergency Operations Plan.

Section 4 amends the Division of Emergency Management's duties to include managing the SERT.

Section 5 requires the Division of Emergency Management to coordinate with the Commissioner of Agriculture, or the Commissioner's designee to amend or revise the State Emergency Operations Plan with respect to agricultural matters.

Section 6 creates the Joint Legislative Emergency Management Oversight Committee. The Committee would consist of 12 members, 6 Senators appointed by the President Pro Tempore and 6 Representatives appointed by the Speaker of the House. The Committee is charged with examining issues of emergency management and to make ongoing recommendations to the General Assembly.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The bill is effective when it becomes law.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO REQUIRE THE STATE TO TERMINATE ITS LEASE OF THE INDIAN CULTURAL CENTER PROPERTY AND TO DIRECT THE DISPOSITION OF THE PROPERTY.

Whereas, the State of North Carolina acquired the following tracts or parcels of land located in Maxton Township, Robeson County, for the development, use, and maintenance of an Indian Cultural Center: (i) 386.69 acres, more or less, by deed from the Riverside Country Club of Pembroke, Inc., dated April 14, 1983, recorded in Book 533, Page 164, Robeson County Registry and by deed dated August 24, 1984, recorded in Book 563, Page 254, Robeson County Registry, less and except approximately 110 acres for the use and operation of the Riverside Golf Course; (ii) 99.62 acres, more or less, by deed from Evelyn S. Morgan Abbott, dated March 25, 1988, recorded in Book 575, Page 523, Robeson County Registry; (iii) 10 acres, more or less, by deed from H.C. Locklear, et ux, dated December 12, 1985, recorded in Book 586, Page 142, Robeson County Registry; and (iv) 42.50 acres, more or less, by deed from Ronald Revels and wife, Dorisetta Revels, dated December 17, 1996, recorded in Book 931, Page 415, Robeson County Registry; and

Whereas, pursuant to Chapter 1074 of the 1989 Session Laws, as amended by Chapter 900 of the 1991 Session Laws and Chapter 88 of the 1993 Session Laws, the General Assembly directed that the State of North Carolina enter into a 99-year lease of the Indian Cultural Center property with a North Carolina nonprofit entity known as the North Carolina Indian Cultural Center, Inc. (NCICC); and

Whereas, the State of North Carolina entered into a 99-year lease agreement, dated May 12, 1994, with NCICC, which lease was subsequently amended on December 9, 1997, and June 6, 2001, in accordance with S.L. 1997-41 and S.L. 2001-89 (collectively, the "lease"); and

Whereas, the lease provides in paragraph 8 that the Indian Cultural Center property is to "be maintained and improved, at no cost or expense to the [State of North Carolina], for those activities covered by the original charter of [T]he North Carolina Indian Cultural Center, Inc., on file with the North Carolina Secretary of State"; and

Whereas, as provided in its charter, the organizational purposes of NCICC are, in part: "a. [t]o respectfully present to the public accurate information on Native North American history, art, and culture"; and "b. [t]o develop, establish, manage, furnish, equip, maintain, preserve, exhibit and interpret to the public the North Carolina Indian Cultural Center with its Indian villages, arts and crafts, archaeological digs, museums, art exhibits, library, visitors' center, recreational facilities, entertainment, restaurants, concessions, and other related operations of an artistic, economic development, educational, and cultural nature"; and

Whereas, in addition to the maintenance requirements of paragraph 8, paragraphs 16 and 20 of the lease require NCICC to maintain during its term of possession, at its expense, the Indian Cultural Center property and all permanent structures located on the property in accordance with all applicable laws, rules, ordinances, orders, and regulations of State and county governmental agencies; and

Whereas, in March 2010, the Office of State Construction assessed the condition of the improvements at the Indian Cultural Center property, from which assessment it appears that the improvements on the property have not been maintained as required in paragraphs 8, 16, and 20 of the lease; and

Whereas, subsequently, the North Carolina Department of Insurance conducted a fire and safety inspection at the Indian Cultural Center property, from which inspection it appears that the improvements on the property have not been maintained as required in paragraphs 8, 16, and 20 of the lease; and

Whereas, the Riverside Golf Course, comprising approximately 110 acres, is contiguous to Indian Cultural Center property and uses as a means of access the main road extending through the Indian Cultural Center property; and

Whereas, pursuant to paragraph 13 of the lease, the State of North Carolina retained the right of ingress and egress, both vehicular and pedestrian, over the main road extending through the Indian Cultural Center property for the purpose of accessing the Riverside Golf Course; and

Whereas, NCICC has hindered or prevented access to the Riverside Golf Course by the State, its lessees, contractors, and invitees by changing the locks on the entrance gate to the Indian Cultural Center property and by other means; and

Whereas, paragraph 25 of the lease requires NCICC to keep in force and maintain throughout the term of the lease, fire and extended coverage insurance on the permanent structures located on the Indian Cultural Center property; and

Whereas, pursuant to paragraph 26 of the lease, NCICC is required to keep in force, for the mutual benefit of the State and NCICC, at no cost to the State, comprehensive broad form general public liability insurance on the terms and conditions set forth in the lease; and

Whereas, NCICC has failed to provide evidence to the State that the insurance required under paragraphs 25 and 26 of the lease is in force; and

Whereas, upon consultation with the Department of Administration, the Office of the Attorney General provided NCICC with notice in a letter dated January 18, 2011, that NCICC was in breach of its obligations under the lease for defaults that included some of those set forth above; and

Whereas, the General Assembly also finds that NCICC is, and has been for some time, in breach of its obligations under the lease for the defaults set forth above and other defaults and that it would be in the best interest of the State if the lease were terminated and existing law amended to allow the State of North Carolina to effect an alternate arrangement for the disposition and management of the Indian Cultural Center property other than the lease with NCICC; and

Whereas, pursuant to subsection (a) of Section 18 of Chapter 1074 of the 1989 Session Laws, as amended by Section 22 of Chapter 900 of the 1991 Session Laws, Section 1 of Chapter 88 of the 1993 Session Laws, Section 33 of Chapter 561 of the 1993 Session Laws, Section 1 of S.L. 1997-41, and Section 1 of S.L. 2001-89, the Riverside Golf Course was excluded from the real property subject to the lease and operated for a period of time under separate lease agreements; and

Whereas, the Riverside Golf Course is not currently in operation and all lease agreements for the Riverside Golf Course have either expired or allow for termination upon 30 days' notice by the State; Now, therefore,

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Termination of lease and repossession of land. – Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (a) of Section 18 of Chapter 1074 of the 1989 Session Laws, as amended by subsection (e) of Section 22 of Chapter 900 of the 1991 Session Laws, Section 1 of Chapter 88 of the 1993 Session Laws, Section 33 of Chapter 561 of the 1993 Session Laws, Section 1 of S.L. 1997-41, and Section 1 of S.L. 2001-89, the State of North Carolina shall immediately terminate its lease of the Indian Cultural Center property and repossess the property.

SECTION 2. Disposition of reacquired land. – After termination of the lease and repossession of the Indian Cultural Center property, the Department of Administration shall dispose of the Indian Cultural Center property, including the Riverside Golf Course, in accordance with applicable provisions of law and shall attempt to dispose of it in such a way that ensures that it will continue to serve the following purposes:

(1) The preservation, exhibition, and interpretation of Native North American arts, crafts, and artifacts.

(2) The provision of information to the public on Native North American history and culture.

(3) The installation of new and the renovation of existing public recreational and entertainment facilities.

(4) The cultivation of economic development enterprises.

SECTION 3. No Governor or Council of State approval. – Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a disposition of the property pursuant to Section 2 of this act shall require neither Governor nor Council of State approval.

SECTION 4. This act is effective when it becomes law.

Introduced by:	Rep. Cleveland	Prepared by:	Wendy Graf Ray

SUMMARY: House Resolution 1191 would disapprove Executive Order No. 85, which ordered the consolidation and reorganization of Executive Branch agencies, so that the Executive Order does not go into effect and become law upon adjournment sine die of the session pursuant to Section 5(10) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution.

CURRENT LAW: Section 5 of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution sets out the duties of the Governor. Subsection (10) authorizes the Governor to make changes in the allocation of offices and agencies of the State and in their functions, powers, and duties, as necessary for efficient administration. If the changes affect existing law, they must be set forth in executive orders, which then go into effect and become law upon adjournment sine die of the session in which they were submitted, unless specifically disapproved by either house of the General Assembly or specifically modified by both houses.

On March 25, 2011, the Governor issued Executive Order No. 85 (see text in its entirety below). The Order provides for the consolidation and reorganization of the Executive Branch and will go into effect upon adjournment sine die of this session, unless it is disapproved or modified. In the meantime, the General Assembly has passed legislation dealing with issues raised in the Order.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Resolution 1191 would specifically disapprove Executive Order No. 85 so that it would not go into effect and become law upon adjournment sine die of the session.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The resolution would be effective upon adoption.

BACKGROUND: The full text of Executive Order No. 85 is included below:

WHEREAS, the Governor has the responsibility to spend tax dollars wisely and efficiently; and

SENATE BILL 756:
Amend Bail Law/Pretrial Release Programs

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	House Judiciary Subcommittee C	Date:	June 5, 2012
Introduced by:	Sens. Clary, East, Jones	Prepared by:	Janice Paul Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	PCS to Second Edition S756-CSTJ-26

SUMMARY: The Proposed Committee Substitute to Senate Bill 756 would amend the State's bail laws with regard to pretrial release programs, amend house arrest and electronic monitoring as a condition of pretrial release, and provide that no State funds may be appropriated to or used for support of a pretrial release program.

CURRENT LAW: Under G.S. 15A-533, a defendant charged with a noncapital offense must have conditions of pretrial release determined in accordance with G.S. 15A-534. The provisions of G.S. 15A-534 also apply to a defendant charged with a capital offense, if the judge in his or her discretion determines that release is warranted. Drug trafficking and street gang crimes are offenses that are subject to a rebuttable presumption that no condition of release will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant and the safety of the community; the presumption applies if the offense was committed while the defendant was on pretrial release for another offense and not more than five years has passed since the defendant committed the same type of offense.

Under G.S. 15A-534, in determining conditions of pretrial release a judicial official must impose at least one of the following conditions:

- Release the defendant on a written promise to appear.
- Release the defendant upon execution of an unsecured appearance bond in an amount specified by the judicial official. (An unsecured appearance bond is a type of bail in which the accused make a written promise to appear in court, and to pay a specified sum of money if the accused fails to appear as required.)
- Place the defendant in the custody of a designated person or organization agreeing to supervise him.
- Require the execution of an appearance bond in a specified amount secured by a cash deposit of the full amount of the bond, by a mortgage, or by at least one solvent surety.
- House arrest with electronic monitoring.

In determining which conditions of pretrial release to impose, the judicial official must take into account the nature and circumstances of the offense charged; the weight of the evidence against the defendant; the defendant's family ties, employment, financial resources, character, and mental condition; whether the defendant is intoxicated to such a degree that he would be endangered by being released without supervision; the length of the defendant's residence in the community; record of convictions; history of flight to avoid prosecution or failure to appear at court proceedings; and any other evidence relevant to the issue of pretrial release.

BILL ANALYSIS: The PCS to Senate Bill 756 would amend the procedure for determining conditions of pretrial release. The PCS would require a secured appearance bond of at least $1,000 for a defendant placed on electronic monitoring/house arrest.

Under current law, a defendant may be released into the custody of a designated person or organization, and the "organization" may include a pretrial release program. The PCS would eliminate the option of releasing a defendant into the custody of an "organization"; but it provides that if the court has required the execution of a secured appearance bond as a condition of pretrial release, the defendant may elect to be placed in a pretrial release program. The PCS would add a new statute pertaining to pretrial release programs, defined as "an organization designated by a judicial official that agrees to take custody of a defendant and supervise the defendant as a condition of pretrial release." A defendant could be placed in a pretrial release program only if execution of a secured bond is a condition of pretrial release, and at least 48 hours have elapsed from the date and time on the defendant's release order. The judicial official would be required to include the basis for the court's determination concerning placement of the defendant in a pretrial release program. The provides that no State funds may be appropriated to or used for support of a pretrial release program.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The new statute pertaining to pretrial release programs would become effective July 1, 2012. The remainder of the act would become effective December 1, 2012, and apply to actions to determine pretrial release conditions on or after that date.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO AMEND THE STATE'S BAIL LAWS WITH REGARD TO PRETRIAL RELEASE PROGRAMS, TO AMEND HOUSE ARREST AND ELECTRONIC MONITORING AS A CONDITION OF PRETRIAL RELEASE, AND TO PROVIDE THAT NO STATE FUNDS MAY BE APPROPRIATED TO OR USED FOR THE SUPPORT OF A PRETRIAL RELEASE PROGRAM.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 15A-534 reads as rewritten:

"§ 15A-534. Procedure for determining conditions of pretrial release.

(a) In determining conditions of pretrial release a judicial official must impose at least one of the following conditions:

(1) Release the defendant on his written promise to appear.

(2) Release the defendant upon his execution of an unsecured appearance bond in an amount specified by the judicial official.

(3) Place the defendant in the custody of a designated person ~~or organization~~ agreeing to supervise ~~him.~~the defendant.

(4) Require the execution of an appearance bond in a specified amount secured by a cash deposit of the full amount of the bond, by a mortgage pursuant to G.S. 58-74-5, or by at least one solvent surety.

(5) ~~House arrest with electronic monitoring.~~Electronic monitoring that may also include house arrest.

If condition (5) is imposed, the defendant must execute a secured appearance bond of at least one thousand dollars ($1,000) under subdivision (4) of this subsection. If condition (3) is imposed, however, the defendant may elect to execute an appearance bond under subdivision (4). If condition (4) is imposed, the defendant may elect to be placed in a pretrial release program pursuant to G.S. 15A-534.7.

If the defendant is required to provide fingerprints pursuant to G.S. 15A-502(a1) or (a2), or a DNA sample pursuant to G.S. 15A-266.3A or G.S. 15A-266.4, and (i) the fingerprints or DNA sample have not yet been taken or (ii) the defendant has refused to provide the fingerprints or DNA sample, the judicial official shall make the collection of the fingerprints or DNA sample a condition of pretrial release. The judicial official may also place restrictions on the travel, associations, conduct, or place of abode of the defendant as conditions of pretrial release.

(b) The judicial official in granting pretrial release must impose condition (1), (2), or (3) in subsection (a) above unless ~~he~~ the judicial official determines that such release will not reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required; will pose a danger of injury to any person; or is likely to result in destruction of evidence, subornation of perjury, or intimidation of potential witnesses. Upon making the determination, the judicial official must then impose condition (4) or (5) in subsection (a) above instead of condition (1), (2) or (3), and must record the reasons for so doing in writing to the extent provided in the policies or requirements issued by the senior resident superior court judge pursuant to G.S. 15A-535(a).

(c) In determining which conditions of release to impose, the judicial official must, on the basis of available information, take into account the nature and circumstances of the offense charged; the weight of the evidence against the defendant; the defendant's family ties, employment, financial resources, character, and mental condition; whether the defendant is intoxicated to such a degree that he would be endangered by being released without supervision; the length of his residence in the community; his record of convictions; his history of flight to avoid prosecution or failure to appear at court proceedings; and any other evidence relevant to the issue of pretrial release.

(d) The judicial official authorizing pretrial release under this section must issue an appropriate order containing a statement of the conditions imposed, if any; inform the defendant in writing of the penalties applicable to violations of the conditions of ~~his~~ the defendant's release; and advise ~~him~~ the defendant that his or her arrest will be ordered immediately upon any violation. The order of release must be filed with the clerk and a copy given the defendant.

(d1) When conditions of pretrial release are being imposed on a defendant who has failed on one or more prior occasions to appear to answer one or more of the charges to which the conditions apply, the judicial official shall at a minimum impose the conditions of pretrial release that are recommended in any order for the arrest of the defendant that was issued for the defendant's most recent failure to appear. If no conditions are recommended in that order for arrest, the judicial official shall require the execution of a secured appearance bond in an amount at least double the amount of the most recent previous secured or unsecured bond for the charges or, if no bond has yet been required for the charges, in the amount of at least five hundred dollars ($500.00). The judicial official shall also impose such restrictions on the travel, associations, conduct, or place of abode of the defendant as will assure that the defendant will not again fail to appear. The judicial official shall indicate on the release order that the defendant was arrested or surrendered after failing to appear as required under a prior release order. If the information available to the judicial official indicates that the defendant has failed on two or more prior occasions to appear to answer the charges, the judicial official shall indicate that fact on the release order.

(d2) When conditions of pretrial release are being determined for a defendant who is charged with a felony offense and the defendant is currently on probation for a prior offense, a judicial official shall determine whether the defendant poses a danger to the public prior to imposing conditions of pretrial release and must record that determination in writing. This subsection shall apply to any judicial official authorized to determine or review the defendant's eligibility for release under any proceeding authorized by this Chapter.

(1) If the judicial official determines that the defendant poses a danger to the public, the judicial official must impose condition (4) or (5) in subsection (a) of this section instead of condition (1), (2) or (3).

(2) If the judicial official finds that the defendant does not pose a danger to the public, then conditions of pretrial release shall be imposed as otherwise provided in this Article.

(3) If there is insufficient information to determine whether the defendant poses a danger to the public, then the defendant shall be retained in custody until a determination of pretrial release conditions is made pursuant to this subdivision. The judicial official that orders that the defendant be retained in custody shall set forth, in writing, the following at the time that the order is entered:

a. The defendant is being held pursuant to this subdivision.

b. The basis for the judicial official's decision that additional information is needed to determine whether the defendant poses a danger to the public and the nature of the necessary information.

c. A date, within 96 hours of the time of arrest, when the defendant shall be brought before a judge for a first appearance pursuant to Article 29 of this Chapter. If the necessary information is provided to the court at any time prior to the first appearance, the first available judicial official shall set the conditions of pretrial release. The judge who reviews the defendant's eligibility for release at the first appearance shall determine the conditions of pretrial release as provided in this Article.

(e) A magistrate or a clerk may modify his or her pretrial release order at any time prior to the first appearance before the district court judge. At or after such first appearance, except when the conditions of pretrial release have been reviewed by the superior court pursuant to G.S. 15A-539, a district court judge may modify a pretrial release order of the magistrate or clerk or any pretrial release order entered by him or her at any time prior to:

(1) In a misdemeanor case tried in the district court, the noting of an appeal; and

(2) In a case in the original trial jurisdiction of the superior court, the binding of the defendant over to superior court after the holding, or waiver, of a probable-cause hearing.

After a case is before the superior court, a superior court judge may modify the pretrial release order of a magistrate, clerk, or district court judge, or any such order entered by ~~him,~~ him or her, at any time prior to the time set out in G.S. 15A-536(a).

(f) For good cause shown any judge may at any time revoke an order of pretrial release. Upon application of any defendant whose order of pretrial release has been revoked, the judge must set new conditions of pretrial release in accordance with this Article.

(g) In imposing conditions of pretrial release and in modifying and revoking orders of release under this section, the judicial official must take into account all evidence available to him which he considers reliable and is not strictly bound by the rules of evidence applicable to criminal trials.

(h) A bail bond posted pursuant to this section is effective and binding upon the obligor throughout all stages of the proceeding in the trial division of the General Court of Justice until the entry of judgment in the district court from which no appeal is taken or the entry of judgment in the superior court. The obligation of an obligor, however, is terminated at an earlier time if:

(1) A judge authorized to do so releases the obligor from his or her bond; or

(2) The principal is surrendered by a surety in accordance with G.S. 15A-540; or

(3) The proceeding is terminated by voluntary dismissal by the State before forfeiture is ordered under G.S. 15A-544.3; or

(4) Prayer for judgment has been continued indefinitely in the district court."

SECTION 2. G.S. 15A-535(b) reads as rewritten:

~~in lieu of releasing the defendants on conditions (1), (2), or (3) of G.S. 15A-534(a).~~regulations of the programs."

SECTION 3. Article 26 of Chapter 15A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

(a) For purposes of this section, a pretrial release program is an organization designated by a judicial official that agrees to take custody of a defendant and supervise the defendant as a condition of pretrial release.

(b) A judicial official may place a defendant in the custody of a pretrial release program as a condition of pretrial release pursuant to this section. The condition may be imposed only under the same circumstances that the condition described in G.S. 15A-534(a)(3) may be imposed and only if all of the following criteria are met:

(1) The execution of a secured bond as described in G.S. 15A-534(a)(4) is a condition of pretrial release for the defendant at the time that placement with a pretrial release program is being considered as a pretrial release condition under this section.

(2) The judicial official finds as fact that a period of at least 48 hours has elapsed from the date and time on the defendant's release order and, pursuant to G.S. 15A-534(d1) and (d2), determines that the defendant is not a flight risk and does not pose a danger to the public. The pretrial release program shall not contact or otherwise attempt to gain access to the defendant prior to expiration of the 48-hour period.

(c) In addition to the criteria in subsection (b) of this section, the factors to be considered in determining whether placement of a defendant with a pretrial release program is an appropriate condition of pretrial release shall be the same as those in G.S. 15A-534. Except as otherwise provided by this section, the procedure for imposing that condition and authorizing pretrial release under this section shall be the same as those in G.S. 15A-534. In any order imposing a pretrial release condition pursuant to this section, the judicial official shall include the basis for the court's determination.

(d) No State government funds shall be appropriated to or used for the support of a pretrial release program or its activities."

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO AMEND THE STATE'S BAIL LAWS WITH REGARD TO PRETRIAL RELEASE PROGRAMS, TO ELIMINATE UNSECURED APPEARANCE BOND AS A PRETRIAL RELEASE CONDITION, TO AMEND HOUSE ARREST AND ELECTRONIC MONITORING AS A CONDITION OF PRETRIAL RELEASE, AND TO PROVIDE THAT NO STATE FUNDS MAY BE APPROPRIATED TO OR USED FOR THE SUPPORT OF A PRETRIAL RELEASE PROGRAM.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 15A-534 reads as rewritten:

"§ 15A-534. Procedure for determining conditions of pretrial release.

(a) In determining conditions of pretrial release a judicial official must impose at least one of the following conditions:

(1) Release the defendant on his written promise to appear.

~~(2) Release the defendant upon his execution of an unsecured appearance bond in an amount specified by the judicial official.~~

(3) Place the defendant in the custody of a designated person ~~or organization~~ agreeing to supervise ~~him.~~the defendant.

(4) Require the execution of an appearance bond in a specified amount secured by a cash deposit of the full amount of the bond, by a mortgage pursuant to G.S. 58-74-5, or by at least one solvent surety.

(5) ~~House arrest with electronic monitoring.~~Electronic monitoring that may also include house arrest.

If condition (5) is imposed, the defendant must execute a secured appearance bond of at least one thousand dollars ($1,000) under subdivision (4) of this subsection. If condition (3) is imposed, however, the defendant may elect to execute an appearance bond under subdivision (4). If condition (4) is imposed, the defendant may elect to be placed in a pretrial release program pursuant to G.S. 15A-534.7.

If the defendant is required to provide fingerprints pursuant to G.S. 15A-502(a1) or (a2), or a DNA sample pursuant to G.S. 15A-266.3A or G.S. 15A-266.4, and (i) the fingerprints or DNA sample have not yet been taken or (ii) the defendant has refused to provide the fingerprints or DNA sample, the judicial official shall make the collection of the fingerprints or DNA sample a condition of pretrial release. The judicial official may also place restrictions on the travel, associations, conduct, or place of abode of the defendant as conditions of pretrial release.

(b) The judicial official in granting pretrial release must impose condition ~~(1), (2), or (3)~~(1) or (3) in subsection (a) above unless ~~he~~ the judicial official determines that such release will not reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required; will pose a danger of injury to any person; or is likely to result in destruction of evidence, subornation of perjury, or intimidation of potential witnesses. Upon making the determination, the judicial official must then impose condition (4) or (5) in subsection (a) above instead of condition ~~(1), (2), or (3),~~(1) or (3) and must record the reasons for so doing in writing to the extent provided in the policies or requirements issued by the senior resident superior court judge pursuant to G.S. 15A-535(a).

(c) In determining which conditions of release to impose, the judicial official must, on the basis of available information, take into account the nature and circumstances of the offense charged; the weight of the evidence against the defendant; the defendant's family ties, employment, financial resources, character, and mental condition; whether the defendant is intoxicated to such a degree that he would be endangered by being released without supervision; the length of his residence in the community; his record of convictions; his history of flight to avoid prosecution or failure to appear at court proceedings; and any other evidence relevant to the issue of pretrial release.

(d) The judicial official authorizing pretrial release under this section must issue an appropriate order containing a statement of the conditions imposed, if any; inform the defendant in writing of the penalties applicable to violations of the conditions of ~~his~~ the defendant's release; and advise ~~him~~ the defendant that his or her arrest will be ordered immediately upon any violation. The order of release must be filed with the clerk and a copy given the defendant.

(d1) When conditions of pretrial release are being imposed on a defendant who has failed on one or more prior occasions to appear to answer one or more of the charges to which the conditions apply, the judicial official shall at a minimum impose the conditions of pretrial release that are recommended in any order for the arrest of the defendant that was issued for the defendant's most recent failure to appear. If no conditions are recommended in that order for arrest, the judicial official shall require the execution of a secured appearance bond in an amount at least double the amount of the most recent previous secured ~~or unsecured~~ bond for the charges or, if no bond has yet been required for the charges, in the amount of at least five hundred dollars ($500.00). The judicial official shall also impose such restrictions on the travel, associations, conduct, or place of abode of the defendant as will assure that the defendant will not again fail to appear. The judicial official shall indicate on the release order that the defendant was arrested or surrendered after failing to appear as required under a prior release order. If the information available to the judicial official indicates that the defendant has failed on two or more prior occasions to appear to answer the charges, the judicial official shall indicate that fact on the release order.

(d2) When conditions of pretrial release are being determined for a defendant who is charged with a felony offense and the defendant is currently on probation for a prior offense, a judicial official shall determine whether the defendant poses a danger to the public prior to imposing conditions of pretrial release and must record that determination in writing. This subsection shall apply to any judicial official authorized to determine or review the defendant's eligibility for release under any proceeding authorized by this Chapter.

(1) If the judicial official determines that the defendant poses a danger to the public, the judicial official must impose condition (4) or (5) in subsection (a) of this section instead of condition ~~(1), (2), or (3).~~(1) or (3).

(2) If the judicial official finds that the defendant does not pose a danger to the public, then conditions of pretrial release shall be imposed as otherwise provided in this Article.

(3) If there is insufficient information to determine whether the defendant poses a danger to the public, then the defendant shall be retained in custody until a determination of pretrial release conditions is made pursuant to this subdivision. The judicial official that orders that the defendant be retained in custody shall set forth, in writing, the following at the time that the order is entered:

a. The defendant is being held pursuant to this subdivision.

b. The basis for the judicial official's decision that additional information is needed to determine whether the defendant poses a danger to the public and the nature of the necessary information.

c. A date, within 96 hours of the time of arrest, when the defendant shall be brought before a judge for a first appearance pursuant to Article 29 of this Chapter. If the necessary information is provided to the court at any time prior to the first appearance, the first available judicial official shall set the conditions of pretrial release. The judge who reviews the defendant's eligibility for release at the first appearance shall determine the conditions of pretrial release as provided in this Article.

(e) A magistrate or a clerk may modify his or her pretrial release order at any time prior to the first appearance before the district court judge. At or after such first appearance, except when the conditions of pretrial release have been reviewed by the superior court pursuant to G.S. 15A-539, a district court judge may modify a pretrial release order of the magistrate or clerk or any pretrial release order entered by him or her at any time prior to:

(1) In a misdemeanor case tried in the district court, the noting of an appeal; and

(2) In a case in the original trial jurisdiction of the superior court, the binding of the defendant over to superior court after the holding, or waiver, of a probable-cause hearing.

After a case is before the superior court, a superior court judge may modify the pretrial release order of a magistrate, clerk, or district court judge, or any such order entered by ~~him,~~ him or her, at any time prior to the time set out in G.S. 15A-536(a).

(f) For good cause shown any judge may at any time revoke an order of pretrial release. Upon application of any defendant whose order of pretrial release has been revoked, the judge must set new conditions of pretrial release in accordance with this Article.

(g) In imposing conditions of pretrial release and in modifying and revoking orders of release under this section, the judicial official must take into account all evidence available to him which he considers reliable and is not strictly bound by the rules of evidence applicable to criminal trials.

(h) A bail bond posted pursuant to this section is effective and binding upon the obligor throughout all stages of the proceeding in the trial division of the General Court of Justice until the entry of judgment in the district court from which no appeal is taken or the entry of judgment in the superior court. The obligation of an obligor, however, is terminated at an earlier time if:

(1) A judge authorized to do so releases the obligor from his or her bond; or

(2) The principal is surrendered by a surety in accordance with G.S. 15A-540; or

(3) The proceeding is terminated by voluntary dismissal by the State before forfeiture is ordered under G.S. 15A-544.3; or

(4) Prayer for judgment has been continued indefinitely in the district court."

SECTION 2. G.S. 15A-535(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) In any county in which there is a pretrial release program, the senior resident superior court judge may, after consultation with the chief district court judge, order that defendants accepted by such program for supervision shall, with their consent, be released by ~~judicial officials~~ judges to supervision of such ~~programs,~~ programs pursuant to G.S. 15A-534.7 and that defendants released to those programs shall be subject to ~~its~~ the rules and ~~regulations, in lieu of releasing the defendants on conditions (1), (2), or (3) of G.S. 15A-534(a).~~ regulations of the programs."

SECTION 3. Article 26 of Chapter 15A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 15A-534.7. Pretrial release programs.

(a) For purposes of this section, a pretrial release program is an organization designated by a judicial official that agrees to take custody of a defendant and supervise the defendant as a condition of pretrial release.

(b) A judicial official may place a defendant in the custody of a pretrial release program as a condition of pretrial release pursuant to this section. The condition may be imposed only under the same circumstances that the condition described in G.S. 15A-534(a)(3) may be imposed and only if all of the following criteria are met:

(1) The execution of a secured bond as described in G.S. 15A-534(a)(4) is a condition of pretrial release for the defendant at the time that placement with a pretrial release program is being considered as a pretrial release condition under this section.

(2) The judicial official finds as fact that a period of at least 72 hours has elapsed from the date and time on the defendant's release order and, pursuant to G.S. 15A-534(d1) and (d2), determines that the defendant is not a flight risk and does not pose a danger to the public. The pretrial release program shall not contact or otherwise attempt to gain access to the defendant prior to expiration of the 72-hour period.

(c) In addition to the criteria in subsection (b) of this section, the factors to be considered in determining whether placement of a defendant with a pretrial release program is an appropriate condition of pretrial release shall be the same as those in G.S. 15A-534. Except as otherwise provided by this section, the procedure for imposing that condition and authorizing pretrial release under this section shall be the same as those in G.S. 15A-534. In any order imposing a pretrial release condition pursuant to this section, the judicial official shall include the basis for the court's determination.

(d) No State government funds shall be appropriated to or used for the support of a pretrial release program or its activities."

SECTION 4. This section is effective when it becomes law. G.S. 15A-534.7(d), as enacted by Section 3 of this act, becomes effective July 1, 2011. The remainder of this act becomes effective December 1, 2011, and applies to criminal actions to determine pretrial release conditions on or after that date.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

PART I. AMENDMENTS TO PLANNED COMMUNITY ACT

SECTION 1. Article 3 of Chapter 47F of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 47F-3-116.1. Associations with claim of lien to file notice of satisfaction with clerk of court upon full payment; liability for failure.

(a) An association that has filed a claim of lien pursuant to G.S. 47F-3-116 shall acknowledge satisfaction of the claim of lien securing the debt within 30 days after the association receives full payment or performance of the debt, as provided in this section. The association shall file with the clerk of court a notice of satisfaction of lien signed by the association's agent or attorney, whereupon the clerk of superior court shall forthwith make upon the record of the claim of lien on real property an entry of acknowledgment of satisfaction.

(b) An association that fails to acknowledge satisfaction of a claim of lien pursuant to this section by the end of the period specified in subsection (a) of this section is liable to the lot owner for any actual damages caused by the failure, but not for punitive damages.

(c) An association that is required to acknowledge satisfaction of a claim of lien pursuant to this section and does not do so by the end of the period specified in subsection (a) of this section is also liable to the lot owner for one thousand dollars ($1,000) and any reasonable attorneys' fees and court costs incurred if, after the expiration of the period specified in subsection (a) of this section, both of the following occur:

(1) The lot owner gives the association a notification, by certified mail and first-class mail, that provides proof the association has received full payment, demanding that the association acknowledge satisfaction with the clerk of superior court.

(2) The association does not acknowledge satisfaction with the clerk of superior court within 30 days after the association's receipt of the notification from the lot owner."

SECTION 2.(a) G.S. 47F-3-118(a) reads as rewritten:

"§ 47F-3-118. Association records.

(a) The association shall keep financial records sufficiently detailed to enable the association to comply with this Chapter. All financial and other records, including records of meetings of the association and executive board, shall be made reasonably available for examination by any lot owner and the lot owner's authorized agents as required in the bylaws and Chapter 55A of the General Statutes. If the bylaws do not specify particular records to be maintained, the association shall keep accurate records of all cash receipts and expenditures and all assets and liabilities. In addition to any specific information that is required by the bylaws to be assembled and reported to the lot owners at specified times, the association shall make an annual income and expense statement and balance sheet available to all lot owners at no charge and within 75 days after the close of the fiscal year to which the information relates. ~~Notwithstanding the bylaws, a more extensive compilation, review, or audit of the association's books and records for the current or immediately preceding fiscal year may be required by a vote of the majority of the executive board or by the affirmative vote of a majority of the lot owners present and voting in person or by proxy at any annual meeting or any special meeting duly called for that purpose.~~"

SECTION 2.(b) Article 3 of Chapter 47F of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 47F-3-118A. Financial review or audit requirements.

(a) Except as provided in subsection (b) of this section, the board of directors shall provide for an annual independent financial review of the association. The review shall be completed no later than 90 days after the end of the association's fiscal year and shall be made available upon request to the lot owners within 30 days after its completion.

(b) The board of directors shall provide for an annual independent financial audit of the association, in lieu of an annual independent financial review, if any of the following conditions are met:

(1) The declaration, bylaws, or other governing documents expressly require conduct of an annual financial audit.

(2) The association has annual revenues or expenditures of at least four hundred thousand dollars ($400,000).

(3) An audit is requested by a vote of a majority of the board or by a vote of a majority of the lot owners present and voting in person or by proxy at any annual meeting or any special meeting duly called for that purpose."

SECTION 3. G.S. 47F-3-108(a) reads as rewritten:

"§ 47F-3-108. Meetings.

(a) A meeting of the association shall be held at least once each year. Special meetings of the association may be called by the president, a majority of the executive board, or by lot owners having ten percent (10%), or any lower percentage specified in the bylaws, of the votes in the association. Not less than 10 nor more than 60 days in advance of any meeting, the secretary or other officer specified in the bylaws shall cause notice to be hand-delivered or sent prepaid by United States mail to the mailing address of each lot or to any other mailing address designated in writing by the lot owner, or sent by electronic means, including by electronic mail over the Internet, to an electronic mailing address designated in writing by the lot owner. The notice of any meeting shall state the time and place of the meeting and the items on the agenda, including the general nature of any proposed amendment to the declaration or bylaws, any budget changes, ~~and~~ any proposal to remove a director or ~~officer.~~officer, and any material matter for which a vote is to be taken."

SECTION 4.(a) G.S. 47F-3-110 is repealed.

SECTION 4.(b) Article 3 of Chapter 47F of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 47F-3-110A. Voting; proxies; ballots.

(a) Unless prohibited or limited by the declaration or bylaws, lot owners may vote at a meeting in person, by absentee ballot pursuant to subsection (b)(4) of the section, by a proxy pursuant to subsection (c) of the section, or, when a vote is conducted without a meeting, by electronic or paper ballot pursuant to subsection (d) of this section.

(b) At a meeting of lot owners, the following requirements apply:

(1) Lot owners who are present in person may vote by voice vote, show of hands, standing, or any other method for accurately determining the votes of lot owners, as designated by the person presiding at the meeting.

(2) If only one of several owners of a lot is present, that owner is entitled to cast all the votes allocated to that lot. If more than one of the owners are present, the votes allocated to that lot may be cast only in accordance with the agreement of a majority in interest of the owners, unless the declaration expressly provides otherwise. There is majority agreement if any one of the owners casts the votes allocated to the lot without protest being made promptly to the person presiding over the meeting by any of the other owners of the lot.

(3) Unless a greater number or fraction of the votes in the association is required for a particular matter to be voted on by this Chapter or the declaration, a majority of the votes cast determines the outcome of any action of the association.

(4) Subject to subsection (a) of this section, a lot owner may vote by absentee ballot without being present at the meeting. The association promptly shall deliver an absentee ballot to an owner that requests it if the request is made at least seven days before the scheduled meeting. Votes cast by absentee ballot must be included in the tally of a vote taken at that meeting.

(5) When a lot owner votes by absentee ballot, the association must be able to verify that the ballot is cast by the lot owner having the right to do so.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in the declaration or bylaws, the following requirements apply with respect to proxy voting:

(1) Votes allocated to a lot may be cast pursuant to a directed or undirected proxy duly executed by a lot owner.

(2) If a lot is owned by more than one person, each owner of the lot may vote or register protest to the casting of votes by the other owners of the lot through a duly executed proxy.

(3) A lot owner may revoke a proxy given pursuant to this section only by actual notice of revocation to the person presiding over a meeting of the association.

(4) A proxy is void if it is not dated, if it purports to be revocable without notice, or if it is given in favor of a board member.

(5) A proxy is valid only for the meeting at which it is cast and any recessed session of that meeting.

(6) A proxy may be used to achieve the required quorum at a meeting.

(7) A proxy is valid only if the nature of the matter for which the vote is to be taken is stated in the notice as required by G.S. 47F-3-108(a).

(8) A person may not cast proxies representing more than fifteen percent (15%) of the votes in the association.

(d) Unless prohibited or limited by the declaration or bylaws, an association may conduct a vote without a meeting. In that event, the following requirements apply:

(1) The association shall notify the lot owners that the vote will be taken by ballot.

(2) The association shall deliver a paper or electronic ballot to every lot owner entitled to vote on the matter.

(3) The ballot must set forth each proposed action and provide an opportunity to vote for or against the action.

(4) When the association delivers the ballots, the association shall do all of the following:

a. Indicate the number of responses needed to meet the quorum requirements.

b. State the percent of votes necessary to approve each matter other than election of directors.

c. Specify the time and date, not fewer than seven days after the date the association delivers the ballot, by which a ballot must be delivered to the association to be counted.

d. Describe the time, date, and manner by which lot owners wishing to deliver information to all lot owners regarding the subject of the vote may do so.

(5) Except as otherwise provided in the declaration or bylaws, a ballot is not revoked after delivery to the association by death or disability or attempted revocation by the person that cast that vote.

(6) Approval by ballot pursuant to this subsection is valid only if the number of votes cast by ballot equals or exceeds the quorum required to be present at a meeting authorizing the action.

(e) If the declaration requires that votes on specified matters affecting the planned community be cast by lessees rather than lot owners of leased lots, (i) the provisions of this section apply to lessees as if they were lot owners; (ii) lot owners who have leased their lots to other persons may not cast votes on those specified matters; and (iii) lessees are entitled to notice of meetings, access to records, and other rights respecting those matters as if they were lot owners. Lot owners shall also be given notice, in the manner provided in G.S. 47F-3-108, of all meetings at which lessees may be entitled to vote.

(f) No votes allocated to a lot owned by the association may be cast.

(g) The declaration may provide that, on specified issues, only a defined subgroup of lot owners may vote, provided:

(1) The issue being voted on is of special interest solely to the members of the subgroup; and

(2) All except de minimis cost that will be incurred based on the vote taken will be assessed solely against those lot owners entitled to vote.

(h) For purposes of subdivision (1) of subsection (g) of this section, an issue to be voted on is not a special interest solely to a subgroup if it substantially affects the overall appearance of the planned community or substantially affects living conditions of lot owners not included in the voting subgroup."

SECTION 5. Article 3 of Chapter 47F of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 47F-3-120.1. Alternative dispute resolution allowed.

Parties to a dispute arising under this Chapter or an association's declaration, bylaws, or rules and regulations may agree to resolve the dispute by any form of binding or nonbinding alternative dispute resolution, except that a declarant may agree with the association to do so only after the period of declarant control has expired. Parties electing to use alternative dispute resolution for disputes arising under this Chapter shall use only mediators certified by the Dispute Resolution Commission. An agreement to submit to any form of binding alternative dispute resolution must be in a record authenticated by the parties."

PART II. AMENDMENTS TO CONDOMINIUM ACT

SECTION 6. Article 3 of Chapter 47C of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 47C-3-116.1. Associations with claim of lien to file notice of satisfaction with clerk of court upon full payment; liability for failure.

(a) An association that has filed a claim of lien pursuant to G.S. 47C-3-116 shall acknowledge satisfaction of the claim of lien securing the debt within 30 days after the association receives full payment or performance of the debt, as provided in this section. The association shall file with the clerk of court a notice of satisfaction of lien signed by the association's agent or attorney, whereupon the clerk of superior court shall forthwith make upon the record of the claim of lien on real property an entry of acknowledgment of satisfaction.

(b) An association that fails to acknowledge satisfaction of a claim of lien pursuant to this section by the end of the period specified in subsection (a) of this section is liable to the unit owner for any actual damages caused by the failure, but not for punitive damages.

(c) An association that is required to acknowledge satisfaction of a claim of lien pursuant to this section and does not do so by the end of the period specified in subsection (a) of this section is also liable to the lot owner for one thousand dollars ($1,000) and any reasonable attorneys' fees and court costs incurred if, after the expiration of the period specified in subsection (a) of this section, both of the following occur:

(1) The lot owner gives the association a notification, by certified mail and first-class mail, that provides proof the association has received full payment, demanding that the association acknowledge satisfaction with the clerk of superior court.

(2) The association does not acknowledge satisfaction with the clerk of superior court within 30 days after the association's receipt of the notification from the lot owner."

SECTION 7.(a) G.S. 47C-3-118(a) reads as rewritten:

"§ 47C-3-118. Association records.

(a) The association shall keep financial records sufficiently detailed to enable the association to comply with this chapter. All financial and other records, including records of meetings of the association and executive board, shall be made reasonably available for examination by any unit owner and the unit owner's authorized agents as required by the bylaws and by Chapter 55A of the General Statutes if the association is a nonprofit corporation. If the bylaws do not specify particular records to be maintained, the association shall keep accurate records of all cash receipts and expenditures and all assets and liabilities. In addition to any specific information that is required by the bylaws to be assembled and reported to the unit owners at specified times, the association shall make an annual income and expense statement and balance sheet available to all unit owners at no charge and within 75 days after the close of the fiscal year to which the information relates. ~~Notwithstanding the bylaws, a more extensive compilation, review, or audit of the association's books and records for the current or immediately preceding fiscal year may be required by a vote of the majority of the executive board or by the affirmative vote of a majority of the unit owners present and voting in person or by proxy at any annual meeting or any special meeting duly called for that purpose.~~"

SECTION 7.(b) Article 3 of Chapter 47C of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 47C-3-103A. Budgets; financial review or audit requirements.

(a) Except as provided in subsection (b) of this section, the board of directors shall provide for an annual independent financial review of the association. The review shall be completed no later than 90 days after the end of the association's fiscal year and shall be made available upon request to the unit owners within 30 days after its completion.

(b) The board of directors shall provide for an annual financial audit of the association, in lieu of an annual independent financial review, if any of the following conditions are met:

(2) The association has annual revenues or expenditures of at least four hundred thousand dollars ($400,000).

(3) An audit is requested by a vote of a majority of the board or by a vote of a majority of the unit owners present and voting in person or by proxy at any annual meeting or any special meeting duly called for that purpose."

SECTION 8. G.S. 47C-3-108(a) reads as rewritten:

"§ 47C-3-108. Meetings.

(a) A meeting of the association shall be held at least once each year. Not less than 10 nor more than 50 days in advance of any meeting, the secretary or other officer specified in the bylaws shall cause notice to be hand-delivered or sent prepaid by United States mail to the mailing address of each unit or to any other mailing address designated in writing by the unit owner, or sent by electronic means, including by electronic mail over the Internet, to an electronic mailing address designated in writing by the unit owner. The notice of any meeting must state the time and place of the meeting and the items on the agenda, including the general nature of any proposed amendment to the declaration or bylaws, any budget changes, ~~and~~ any proposal to remove a director or ~~officer.~~ officer, and any material matter for which a vote is to be taken."

SECTION 9.(a) G.S. 47C-3-110 is repealed.

SECTION 9.(b) Article 3 of Chapter 47C of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 47C-3-110A. Voting; proxies; ballots.

(a) Unless prohibited or limited by the declaration or bylaws, unit owners may vote at a meeting in person, by absentee ballot pursuant to subsection (b)(4) of this section, by a proxy pursuant to subsection (c) of this section, or, when a vote is conducted without a meeting, by electronic or paper ballot pursuant to subsection (d) of this section.

(b) At a meeting of unit owners, all of the following requirements apply:

(1) Unit owners who are present in person may vote by voice vote, show of hands, standing, or any other method for accurately determining the votes of unit owners, as designated by the person presiding at the meeting.

(2) If only one of several owners of a unit is present, that owner is entitled to cast all the votes allocated to that unit. If more than one of the owners are present, the votes allocated to that unit may be cast only in accordance with the agreement of a majority in interest of the owners, unless the declaration expressly provides otherwise. There is majority agreement if any one of the owners casts the votes allocated to the unit without protest being made promptly to the person presiding over the meeting by any of the other owners of the unit.

(3) Unless a greater number or fraction of the votes in the association is required for a particular matter to be voted on by this Chapter or the declaration, a majority of the votes cast determines the outcome of any action of the association.

(4) Subject to subsection (a), a unit owner may vote by absentee ballot without being present at the meeting. The association promptly shall deliver an absentee ballot to an owner that requests it if the request is made at least seven days before the scheduled meeting. Votes cast by absentee ballot must be included in the tally of a vote taken at that meeting.

(5) When a unit owner votes by absentee ballot, the association must be able to verify that the ballot is cast by the unit owner having the right to do so.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in the declaration or bylaws, the following requirements apply with respect to proxy voting:

(1) Votes allocated to a unit may be cast pursuant to a directed or undirected proxy duly executed by a unit owner.

(2) If a unit is owned by more than one person, each owner of the unit may vote or register protest to the casting of votes by the other owners of the unit through a duly executed proxy.

(3) A unit owner may revoke a proxy given pursuant to this section only by actual notice of revocation to the person presiding over a meeting of the association.

(4) A proxy is void if it is not dated, if it purports to be revocable without notice, or if it is given in favor of a board member.

(5) A proxy is valid only for the meeting at which it is cast and any recessed session of that meeting.

(6) A proxy may be used to achieve the required quorum at a meeting.

(7) A proxy is valid only if the nature of the matter for which the vote is to be taken is stated in the notice as required by G.S. 47F-3-108(a).

(8) A person may not cast proxies representing more than fifteen percent (15%) of the votes in the association.

(d) Unless prohibited or limited by the declaration or bylaws, an association may conduct a vote without a meeting. In that event, the following requirements apply:

(1) The association shall notify the unit owners that the vote will be taken by ballot.

(2) The association shall deliver a paper or electronic ballot to every unit owner entitled to vote on the matter.

(3) The ballot must set forth each proposed action and provide an opportunity to vote for or against the action.

(4) When the association delivers the ballots, the association shall do all of the following:

a. Indicate the number of responses needed to meet the quorum requirements.

b. State the percent of votes necessary to approve each matter other than election of directors.

c. Specify a time and date, not fewer than seven days after the date the association delivers the ballot, by which a ballot must be delivered to the association to be counted.

d. Describe the time, date, and manner by which unit owners wishing to deliver information to all unit owners regarding the subject of the vote may do so.

(5) Except as otherwise provided in the declaration or bylaws, a ballot is not revoked after delivery to the association by death or disability or attempted revocation by the person that cast that vote.

(6) Approval by ballot pursuant to this subsection is valid only if the number of votes cast by ballot equals or exceeds the quorum required to be present at a meeting authorizing the action.

(e) If the declaration requires that votes on specified matters affecting the condominium be cast by lessees rather than unit owners of leased units, (i) the provisions of this section apply to lessees as if they were unit owners; (ii) unit owners who have leased their units to other persons may not cast votes on those specified matters; and (iii) lessees are entitled to notice of meetings, access to records, and other rights respecting those matters as if they were unit owners. Unit owners must also be given notice, in the manner provided in G.S. 47C-3-108, of all meetings at which lessees may be entitled to vote.

(f) No votes allocated to a unit owned by the association may be cast.

(g) The declaration may provide that, on specified issues, only a defined subgroup of unit owners may vote provided:

(1) The issue being voted on is of special interest solely to members of the subgroup; and

(2) All except de minimis costs that will be incurred based on the vote taken will be assessed solely against those unit owners entitled to vote.

(h) For purposes of subdivision (1) of subsection (g) of this section, an issue to be voted on is not of special interest solely to a subgroup if it substantially affects the overall appearance of the condominium or substantially affects living conditions of unit owners not included in the voting subgroup."

SECTION 10. Article 3 of Chapter 47C of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 47C-3-120. Alternative dispute resolution allowed.

Parties to a dispute arising under this Chapter or an association's declaration, bylaws, or rules and regulations, may agree to resolve the dispute by any form of binding or nonbinding alternative dispute resolution, except that a declarant may agree with the association to do so only after the period of declarant control has expired. Parties electing to use alternative dispute resolution for disputes arising under this Chapter shall only use mediators certified by the Dispute Resolution Commission. An agreement to submit to any form of binding alternative dispute resolution must be in a record authenticated by the parties."

PART III. AMENDMENTS TO TAXATION OF PROPERTY OWNED BY ASSOCIATIONS

SECTION 11.(a) G.S. 105-277.8 reads as rewritten:

"§ 105-277.8. Taxation of property of nonprofit homeowners' association.

(a) ~~The~~ Except as provided in subsection (a1) of this section, the value of real and personal property owned by a nonprofit homeowners' association shall be included in the appraisals of property owned by members of the association and shall not be assessed against the association ~~if:~~ if each of the following requirements is met:

(2) Each member of the association has an irrevocable right to use and enjoy, on an equal basis, all property owned by the association, subject to any restrictions imposed by the instruments conveying the right or the rules, regulations, or bylaws of the ~~association; and~~ association.

(3) Each irrevocable right to use and enjoy all property owned by the association is appurtenant to taxable real property owned by a member of the association.

The assessor may allocate the value of the association's property among the property of the association's members on any fair and reasonable basis.

(a1) The value of real property owned by a nonprofit homeowners association that (i) meets the requirements of subdivisions (1) through (3) of subsection (a) of this section and (ii) is entirely contained within a taxing jurisdiction that is different from all taxable real property owned by any member of the association to which the rights to use and enjoy the association property is appurtenant shall be subject to taxation only in the jurisdiction in which it is entirely contained and only in the amount of the local tax of the jurisdiction in which it is entirely contained. The value of any property taxed pursuant to this subsection shall not be included in the appraisals of property owned by members of the association that are referenced in subsection (a) of this section or otherwise subject to taxation. The assessor for the jurisdiction that imposes a tax pursuant to this subsection shall provide notice of the property, the value, and any other information to the assessor of any other jurisdiction so that the real properties owned by the members of the association are not subject to taxation for that value.

(b) As used in this section, "nonprofit homeowners' association" means a homeowners' association as defined in § 528(c) of the Internal Revenue Code."

SECTION 11.(b) This section is effective for taxes imposed for taxable years beginning on or after July 1, 2012.

SECTION 12. Except as otherwise provided, this act becomes effective July 1, 2012.

A HOUSE RESOLUTION SPECIFICALLY DISAPPROVING EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 85, ISSUED MARCH 25, 2011, UNDER PROVISIONS OF THE NORTH CAROLINA CONSTITUTION GRANTING EITHER HOUSE OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY TO DO SO, AS THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY HAS ACCOMPLISHED ADMINISTRATIVE REORGANIZATIONS BY LEGISLATION.

Whereas, Section 5(10) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution states: "Administrative reorganization. The General Assembly shall prescribe the functions, powers, and duties of the administrative departments and agencies of the State and may alter them from time to time, but the Governor may make such changes in the allocation of offices and agencies and in the allocation of those functions, powers, and duties as he considers necessary for efficient administration. If those changes affect existing law, they shall be set forth in executive orders, which shall be submitted to the General Assembly not later than the sixtieth calendar day of its session, and shall become effective and shall have the force of law upon adjournment sine die of the session, unless specifically disapproved by resolution of either house of the General Assembly or specifically modified by joint resolution of both houses of the General Assembly"; and

Whereas, on March 25, 2011, the Governor issued Executive Order No. 85, entitled "CONSOLIDATION AND REORGANIZATION OF EXECUTIVE BRANCH AGENCIES TO IMPROVE THE EFFICIENCY OF STATE GOVERNMENT," which recited that it was issued under Section 5(10) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution; and

Whereas, the General Assembly has carefully considered the Executive Order; and

Whereas, by the following legislation among others, the General Assembly has dealt with the issues raised in the Executive Order: (i) S.L. 2011-145 "AN ACT TO SPUR THE CREATION OF PRIVATE SECTOR JOBS; REORGANIZE AND REFORM STATE GOVERNMENT; MAKE BASE BUDGET APPROPRIATIONS FOR CURRENT OPERATIONS OF STATE DEPARTMENTS AND INSTITUTIONS; AND TO ENACT BUDGET RELATED AMENDMENTS"; and (ii) S.L. 2011-401 "AN ACT TO REFORM THE EMPLOYMENT SECURITY LAWS OF NORTH CAROLINA BY CREATING THE DIVISION OF EMPLOYMENT SECURITY WITHIN THE DEPARTMENT OF COMMERCE, TRANSFERRING THE FUNCTIONS OF THE EMPLOYMENT SECURITY COMMISSION TO THAT DIVISION, MAKING THE DIVISION SUBJECT TO RULE MAKING UNDER ARTICLE 2A OF CHAPTER 150B OF THE GENERAL STATUTES, AND BY MAKING OTHER MODIFICATIONS AND CONFORMING CHANGES TO ALIGN THE EMPLOYMENT SECURITY FUNCTIONS OF STATE GOVERNMENT UNDER THE DIRECT LEADERSHIP OF THE SECRETARY OF COMMERCE"; and

Whereas, a resolution of disapproval is necessary as unless it is adopted Executive Order No. 85 may become effective under its terms upon sine die adjournment of the 2011 Regular Session of the General Assembly; Now, therefore,

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives:

SECTION 1. Executive Order No. 85, adopted March 25, 2011 is specifically disapproved under the authority given the House of Representatives by Section 5(10) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution.

SECTION 2. The Enrolling Clerk shall cause this resolution to be published in the Appendices to the Session Laws for the 2011 Regular Session of the General Assembly.

SECTION 3. This resolution is effective upon adoption.

HOUSE SIMPLE RESOLUTION 1191: Resolution of Disapproval of Reorganization

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	House Judiciary Subcommittee C	Date:	June 6, 2012
Introduced by:	Rep. Cleveland	Prepared by:	Wendy Graf Ray
Analysis of:	First Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Resolution 1191 would disapprove Executive Order No. 85, which ordered the consolidation and reorganization of Executive Branch agencies, so that the Executive Order does not go into effect and become law upon adjournment sine die of the session pursuant to Section 5(10) of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution.

CURRENT LAW: Section 5 of Article III of the North Carolina Constitution sets out the duties of the Governor. Subsection (10) authorizes the Governor to make changes in the allocation of offices and agencies of the State and in their functions, powers, and duties, as necessary for efficient administration. If the changes affect existing law, they must be set forth in executive orders, which then go into effect and become law upon adjournment sine die of the session in which they were submitted, unless specifically disapproved by either house of the General Assembly or specifically modified by both houses.

On March 25, 2011, the Governor issued Executive Order No. 85 (see text in its entirety below). The Order provides for the consolidation and reorganization of the Executive Branch and will go into effect upon adjournment sine die of this session, unless it is disapproved or modified. In the meantime, the General Assembly has passed legislation dealing with issues raised in the Order.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Resolution 1191 would specifically disapprove Executive Order No. 85 so that it would not go into effect and become law upon adjournment sine die of the session.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The resolution would be effective upon adoption.

BACKGROUND: The full text of Executive Order No. 85 is included below:

EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 85

CONSOLIDATION AND REORGANIZATION OF EXECUTIVE BRANCH

AGENCIES TO IMPROVE THE EFFICIENCY OF STATE GOVERNMENT

WHEREAS, the North Carolina Constitution gives the Governor the power to submit to the General Assembly changes, elimination, consolidation and reorganization of the powers, duties and functions of the agencies and departments within the Executive Branch of State Government whenever the Governor determines that such action is in the best interest of the State; and

WHEREAS, a principal reason for exercising this power is to ensure that State government services are delivered in an effective and coordinated way; and

WHEREAS, the Governor has the responsibility to spend tax dollars wisely and efficiently; and

WHEREAS, I have determined that the State of North Carolina is in a time of economic challenge, such that the way State Government has operated must change in order to continue to deliver critical services to North Carolina citizens.

NOW, THEREFORE, pursuant to the powers conferred on me as Governor by Article III, Section 5(10) of the Constitution and the laws of North Carolina, as a first step in the process of reorganizing State Government, IT IS ORDERED:

c. All commissions, boards, councils, committees or other similar entities established under or administratively housed in the Office of State Personnel or the Office of Information Technology Services are hereby transferred to the Department of Management and Administration. Such entities shall continue to exercise their authority and power as currently provided in the laws of the State.

d. Section 5. Department of Public Safety

There is hereby established and created a principal department to be known as the Department of Public Safety. Any reference in the General Statutes or laws of the State to the "principal departments" as enumerated in N.C. Gen. Stat. § 143B-6 or to "cabinet agencies" or "cabinet departments" is hereby deemed to include the Department of Public Safety. The Department of Correction, the Department of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, and the Department of Crime Control and Public Safety are hereby consolidated into the Department of Public Safety. The Department of Public Safety shall be headed by the Secretary of Public Safety, who shall be appointed by and serve at the pleasure of the Governor. The Department of Public Safety shall include, but not be limited to, the following three divisions: the Division of Corrections, the Division of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, and the Division of Crime Control and Emergency Management.

Chapter 143B, Article 6 and as specified elsewhere in the laws of this State are transferred to the Department of Public Safety. All references in the General Statutes or laws of the State to the "Department of Correction" are hereby deleted and replaced with the "Department of Public Safety Division of Corrections." All references in the General Statutes or laws of the State to the "Secretary of Correction" are hereby deleted and replaced with the "Secretary of Public Safety or the Secretary's designee." The Secretary of Public Safety shall designate a Commissioner of Corrections who shall be exempt from the State Personnel Act under N.C. Gen. Stat. § 126-5(c1) and who shall oversee those functions formerly housed in the Department of Correction, as assigned by the Secretary. This Executive Order shall not affect any contract, agreement or other obligation of or obligation owed to the former Department of Correction. SENATE BILL 756:
Amend Bail Law/Pretrial Release Programs

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	House Judiciary Subcommittee C	Date:	June 5, 2012
Introduced by:	Sens. Clary, East, Jones	Prepared by:	Janice Paul Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	PCS to Second Edition S756-CSTJ-26

SUMMARY: The Proposed Committee Substitute to Senate Bill 756 would amend the State's bail laws with regard to pretrial release programs, amend house arrest and electronic monitoring as a condition of pretrial release, and provide that no State funds may be appropriated to or used for support of a pretrial release program.

CURRENT LAW: Under G.S. 15A-533, a defendant charged with a noncapital offense must have conditions of pretrial release determined in accordance with G.S. 15A-534. The provisions of G.S. 15A-534 also apply to a defendant charged with a capital offense, if the judge in his or her discretion determines that release is warranted. Drug trafficking and street gang crimes are offenses that are subject to a rebuttable presumption that no condition of release will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant and the safety of the community; the presumption applies if the offense was committed while the defendant was on pretrial release for another offense and not more than five years has passed since the defendant committed the same type of offense.

Under G.S. 15A-534, in determining conditions of pretrial release a judicial official must impose at least one of the following conditions:

- Release the defendant on a written promise to appear.
- Release the defendant upon execution of an unsecured appearance bond in an amount specified by the judicial official. (An unsecured appearance bond is a type of bail in which the accused make a written promise to appear in court, and to pay a specified sum of money if the accused fails to appear as required.)
- Place the defendant in the custody of a designated person or organization agreeing to supervise him.
- Require the execution of an appearance bond in a specified amount secured by a cash deposit of the full amount of the bond, by a mortgage, or by at least one solvent surety.
- House arrest with electronic monitoring.

In determining which conditions of pretrial release to impose, the judicial official must take into account the nature and circumstances of the offense charged; the weight of the evidence against the defendant; the defendant's family ties, employment, financial resources, character, and mental condition; whether the defendant is intoxicated to such a degree that he would be endangered by being released without supervision; the length of the defendant's residence in the community; record of convictions; history of flight to avoid prosecution or failure to appear at court proceedings; and any other evidence relevant to the issue of pretrial release.

BILL ANALYSIS: The PCS to Senate Bill 756 would amend the procedure for determining conditions of pretrial release. The PCS would require a secured appearance bond of at least $1,000 for a defendant placed on electronic monitoring/house arrest.

Under current law, a defendant may be released into the custody of a designated person or organization, and the "organization" may include a pretrial release program. The PCS would eliminate the option of releasing a defendant into the custody of an "organization"; but it provides that if the court has required the execution of a secured appearance bond as a condition of pretrial release, the defendant may elect to be placed in a pretrial release program. The PCS would add a new statute pertaining to pretrial release programs, defined as "an organization designated by a judicial official that agrees to take custody of a defendant and supervise the defendant as a condition of pretrial release." A defendant could be placed in a pretrial release program only if execution of a secured bond is a condition of pretrial release, and at least 48 hours have elapsed from the date and time on the defendant's release order. The judicial official would be required to include the basis for the court's determination concerning placement of the defendant in a pretrial release program. The provides that no State funds may be appropriated to or used for support of a pretrial release program.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The new statute pertaining to pretrial release programs would become effective July 1, 2012. The remainder of the act would become effective December 1, 2012, and apply to actions to determine pretrial release conditions on or after that date.

Wendy Graf Ray and Brenda Carter, staff attorneys, substantially contributed to this summary.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO AMEND THE STATE'S BAIL LAWS WITH REGARD TO PRETRIAL RELEASE PROGRAMS, TO AMEND HOUSE ARREST AND ELECTRONIC MONITORING AS A CONDITION OF PRETRIAL RELEASE, AND TO PROVIDE THAT NO STATE FUNDS MAY BE APPROPRIATED TO OR USED FOR THE SUPPORT OF A PRETRIAL RELEASE PROGRAM.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 15A-534 reads as rewritten:

"§ 15A-534. Procedure for determining conditions of pretrial release.

(a) In determining conditions of pretrial release a judicial official must impose at least one of the following conditions:

(1) Release the defendant on his written promise to appear.

(2) Release the defendant upon his execution of an unsecured appearance bond in an amount specified by the judicial official.

(3) Place the defendant in the custody of a designated person ~~or organization~~ agreeing to supervise ~~him.~~the defendant.

(4) Require the execution of an appearance bond in a specified amount secured by a cash deposit of the full amount of the bond, by a mortgage pursuant to G.S. 58-74-5, or by at least one solvent surety.

(5) ~~House arrest with electronic monitoring.~~Electronic monitoring that may also include house arrest.

If condition (5) is imposed, the defendant must execute a secured appearance bond of at least one thousand dollars ($1,000) under subdivision (4) of this subsection. If condition (3) is imposed, however, the defendant may elect to execute an appearance bond under subdivision (4). If condition (4) is imposed, the defendant may elect to be placed in a pretrial release program pursuant to G.S. 15A-534.7.

If the defendant is required to provide fingerprints pursuant to G.S. 15A-502(a1) or (a2), or a DNA sample pursuant to G.S. 15A-266.3A or G.S. 15A-266.4, and (i) the fingerprints or DNA sample have not yet been taken or (ii) the defendant has refused to provide the fingerprints or DNA sample, the judicial official shall make the collection of the fingerprints or DNA sample a condition of pretrial release. The judicial official may also place restrictions on the travel, associations, conduct, or place of abode of the defendant as conditions of pretrial release.

(b) The judicial official in granting pretrial release must impose condition (1), (2), or (3) in subsection (a) above unless ~~he~~ the judicial official determines that such release will not reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required; will pose a danger of injury to any person; or is likely to result in destruction of evidence, subornation of perjury, or intimidation of potential witnesses. Upon making the determination, the judicial official must then impose condition (4) or (5) in subsection (a) above instead of condition (1), (2) or (3), and must record the reasons for so doing in writing to the extent provided in the policies or requirements issued by the senior resident superior court judge pursuant to G.S. 15A-535(a).

(c) In determining which conditions of release to impose, the judicial official must, on the basis of available information, take into account the nature and circumstances of the offense charged; the weight of the evidence against the defendant; the defendant's family ties, employment, financial resources, character, and mental condition; whether the defendant is intoxicated to such a degree that he would be endangered by being released without supervision; the length of his residence in the community; his record of convictions; his history of flight to avoid prosecution or failure to appear at court proceedings; and any other evidence relevant to the issue of pretrial release.

(d) The judicial official authorizing pretrial release under this section must issue an appropriate order containing a statement of the conditions imposed, if any; inform the defendant in writing of the penalties applicable to violations of the conditions of ~~his~~ the defendant's release; and advise ~~him~~ the defendant that his or her arrest will be ordered immediately upon any violation. The order of release must be filed with the clerk and a copy given the defendant.

(d1) When conditions of pretrial release are being imposed on a defendant who has failed on one or more prior occasions to appear to answer one or more of the charges to which the conditions apply, the judicial official shall at a minimum impose the conditions of pretrial release that are recommended in any order for the arrest of the defendant that was issued for the defendant's most recent failure to appear. If no conditions are recommended in that order for arrest, the judicial official shall require the execution of a secured appearance bond in an amount at least double the amount of the most recent previous secured or unsecured bond for the charges or, if no bond has yet been required for the charges, in the amount of at least five hundred dollars ($500.00). The judicial official shall also impose such restrictions on the travel, associations, conduct, or place of abode of the defendant as will assure that the defendant will not again fail to appear. The judicial official shall indicate on the release order that the defendant was arrested or surrendered after failing to appear as required under a prior release order. If the information available to the judicial official indicates that the defendant has failed on two or more prior occasions to appear to answer the charges, the judicial official shall indicate that fact on the release order.

(d2) When conditions of pretrial release are being determined for a defendant who is charged with a felony offense and the defendant is currently on probation for a prior offense, a judicial official shall determine whether the defendant poses a danger to the public prior to imposing conditions of pretrial release and must record that determination in writing. This subsection shall apply to any judicial official authorized to determine or review the defendant's eligibility for release under any proceeding authorized by this Chapter.

(1) If the judicial official determines that the defendant poses a danger to the public, the judicial official must impose condition (4) or (5) in subsection (a) of this section instead of condition (1), (2) or (3).

(2) If the judicial official finds that the defendant does not pose a danger to the public, then conditions of pretrial release shall be imposed as otherwise provided in this Article.

(3) If there is insufficient information to determine whether the defendant poses a danger to the public, then the defendant shall be retained in custody until a determination of pretrial release conditions is made pursuant to this subdivision. The judicial official that orders that the defendant be retained in custody shall set forth, in writing, the following at the time that the order is entered:

a. The defendant is being held pursuant to this subdivision.

b. The basis for the judicial official's decision that additional information is needed to determine whether the defendant poses a danger to the public and the nature of the necessary information.

c. A date, within 96 hours of the time of arrest, when the defendant shall be brought before a judge for a first appearance pursuant to Article 29 of this Chapter. If the necessary information is provided to the court at any time prior to the first appearance, the first available judicial official shall set the conditions of pretrial release. The judge who reviews the defendant's eligibility for release at the first appearance shall determine the conditions of pretrial release as provided in this Article.

(e) A magistrate or a clerk may modify his or her pretrial release order at any time prior to the first appearance before the district court judge. At or after such first appearance, except when the conditions of pretrial release have been reviewed by the superior court pursuant to G.S. 15A-539, a district court judge may modify a pretrial release order of the magistrate or clerk or any pretrial release order entered by him or her at any time prior to:

(1) In a misdemeanor case tried in the district court, the noting of an appeal; and

(2) In a case in the original trial jurisdiction of the superior court, the binding of the defendant over to superior court after the holding, or waiver, of a probable-cause hearing.

After a case is before the superior court, a superior court judge may modify the pretrial release order of a magistrate, clerk, or district court judge, or any such order entered by ~~him,~~ him or her, at any time prior to the time set out in G.S. 15A-536(a).

(f) For good cause shown any judge may at any time revoke an order of pretrial release. Upon application of any defendant whose order of pretrial release has been revoked, the judge must set new conditions of pretrial release in accordance with this Article.

(g) In imposing conditions of pretrial release and in modifying and revoking orders of release under this section, the judicial official must take into account all evidence available to him which he considers reliable and is not strictly bound by the rules of evidence applicable to criminal trials.

(h) A bail bond posted pursuant to this section is effective and binding upon the obligor throughout all stages of the proceeding in the trial division of the General Court of Justice until the entry of judgment in the district court from which no appeal is taken or the entry of judgment in the superior court. The obligation of an obligor, however, is terminated at an earlier time if:

(1) A judge authorized to do so releases the obligor from his or her bond; or

(2) The principal is surrendered by a surety in accordance with G.S. 15A-540; or

(3) The proceeding is terminated by voluntary dismissal by the State before forfeiture is ordered under G.S. 15A-544.3; or

(4) Prayer for judgment has been continued indefinitely in the district court."

SECTION 2. G.S. 15A-535(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) In any county in which there is a pretrial release program, the senior resident superior court judge may, after consultation with the chief district court judge, order that defendants accepted by such program for supervision shall, with their consent, be released by ~~judicial officials~~ judges to supervision of such ~~programs,~~ programs pursuant to G.S. 15A-534.7 and that defendants released to those programs shall be subject to ~~its~~ the rules and ~~regulations,~~

~~in lieu of releasing the defendants on conditions (1), (2), or (3) of G.S. 15A-534(a).~~regulations of the programs."

SECTION 3. Article 26 of Chapter 15A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 15A-534.7. Pretrial release programs.

(a) For purposes of this section, a pretrial release program is an organization designated by a judicial official that agrees to take custody of a defendant and supervise the defendant as a condition of pretrial release.

(b) A judicial official may place a defendant in the custody of a pretrial release program as a condition of pretrial release pursuant to this section. The condition may be imposed only under the same circumstances that the condition described in G.S. 15A-534(a)(3) may be imposed and only if all of the following criteria are met:

(1) The execution of a secured bond as described in G.S. 15A-534(a)(4) is a condition of pretrial release for the defendant at the time that placement with a pretrial release program is being considered as a pretrial release condition under this section.

(2) The judicial official finds as fact that a period of at least 48 hours has elapsed from the date and time on the defendant's release order and, pursuant to G.S. 15A-534(d1) and (d2), determines that the defendant is not a flight risk and does not pose a danger to the public. The pretrial release program shall not contact or otherwise attempt to gain access to the defendant prior to expiration of the 48-hour period.

(c) In addition to the criteria in subsection (b) of this section, the factors to be considered in determining whether placement of a defendant with a pretrial release program is an appropriate condition of pretrial release shall be the same as those in G.S. 15A-534. Except as otherwise provided by this section, the procedure for imposing that condition and authorizing pretrial release under this section shall be the same as those in G.S. 15A-534. In any order imposing a pretrial release condition pursuant to this section, the judicial official shall include the basis for the court's determination.

(d) No State government funds shall be appropriated to or used for the support of a pretrial release program or its activities."

SECTION 4. This section is effective when it becomes law. G.S. 15A-534.7(d), as enacted by Section 3 of this act, becomes effective July 1, 2011. The remainder of this act becomes effective December 1, 2011, and applies to criminal actions to determine pretrial release conditions on or after that date.

~~(2) Release the defendant upon his execution of an unsecured appearance bond in an amount specified by the judicial official.~~

(3) Place the defendant in the custody of a designated person ~~or organization~~ agreeing to supervise ~~him.~~the defendant.

(4) Require the execution of an appearance bond in a specified amount secured by a cash deposit of the full amount of the bond, by a mortgage pursuant to G.S. 58-74-5, or by at least one solvent surety.

(5) ~~House arrest with electronic monitoring.~~Electronic monitoring that may also include house arrest.

If condition (5) is imposed, the defendant must execute a secured appearance bond of at least one thousand dollars ($1,000) under subdivision (4) of this subsection. If condition (3) is imposed, however, the defendant may elect to execute an appearance bond under subdivision (4). If condition (4) is imposed, the defendant may elect to be placed in a pretrial release program pursuant to G.S. 15A-534.7.

If the defendant is required to provide fingerprints pursuant to G.S. 15A-502(a1) or (a2), or a DNA sample pursuant to G.S. 15A-266.3A or G.S. 15A-266.4, and (i) the fingerprints or DNA sample have not yet been taken or (ii) the defendant has refused to provide the fingerprints or DNA sample, the judicial official shall make the collection of the fingerprints or DNA sample a condition of pretrial release. The judicial official may also place restrictions on the travel, associations, conduct, or place of abode of the defendant as conditions of pretrial release.

(b) The judicial official in granting pretrial release must impose condition ~~(1), (2), or (3)~~(1) or (3) in subsection (a) above unless ~~he~~ the judicial official determines that such release will not reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required; will pose a danger of injury to any person; or is likely to result in destruction of evidence, subornation of perjury, or intimidation of potential witnesses. Upon making the determination, the judicial official must then impose condition (4) or (5) in subsection (a) above instead of condition ~~(1), (2), or (3),~~(1) or (3) and must record the reasons for so doing in writing to the extent provided in the policies or requirements issued by the senior resident superior court judge pursuant to G.S. 15A-535(a).

(c) In determining which conditions of release to impose, the judicial official must, on the basis of available information, take into account the nature and circumstances of the offense charged; the weight of the evidence against the defendant; the defendant's family ties, employment, financial resources, character, and mental condition; whether the defendant is intoxicated to such a degree that he would be endangered by being released without supervision; the length of his residence in the community; his record of convictions; his history of flight to avoid prosecution or failure to appear at court proceedings; and any other evidence relevant to the issue of pretrial release.

(d) The judicial official authorizing pretrial release under this section must issue an appropriate order containing a statement of the conditions imposed, if any; inform the defendant in writing of the penalties applicable to violations of the conditions of ~~his~~ the defendant's release; and advise ~~him~~ the defendant that his or her arrest will be ordered immediately upon any violation. The order of release must be filed with the clerk and a copy given the defendant.

(d1) When conditions of pretrial release are being imposed on a defendant who has failed on one or more prior occasions to appear to answer one or more of the charges to which the conditions apply, the judicial official shall at a minimum impose the conditions of pretrial release that are recommended in any order for the arrest of the defendant that was issued for the defendant's most recent failure to appear. If no conditions are recommended in that order for arrest, the judicial official shall require the execution of a secured appearance bond in an amount at least double the amount of the most recent previous secured ~~or unsecured~~ bond for the charges or, if no bond has yet been required for the charges, in the amount of at least five hundred dollars ($500.00). The judicial official shall also impose such restrictions on the travel, associations, conduct, or place of abode of the defendant as will assure that the defendant will not again fail to appear. The judicial official shall indicate on the release order that the defendant was arrested or surrendered after failing to appear as required under a prior release order. If the information available to the judicial official indicates that the defendant has failed on two or more prior occasions to appear to answer the charges, the judicial official shall indicate that fact on the release order.

(d2) When conditions of pretrial release are being determined for a defendant who is charged with a felony offense and the defendant is currently on probation for a prior offense, a judicial official shall determine whether the defendant poses a danger to the public prior to imposing conditions of pretrial release and must record that determination in writing. This subsection shall apply to any judicial official authorized to determine or review the defendant's eligibility for release under any proceeding authorized by this Chapter.

(1) If the judicial official determines that the defendant poses a danger to the public, the judicial official must impose condition (4) or (5) in subsection (a) of this section instead of condition ~~(1), (2), or (3).~~(1) or (3).

(2) If the judicial official finds that the defendant does not pose a danger to the public, then conditions of pretrial release shall be imposed as otherwise provided in this Article.

(3) If there is insufficient information to determine whether the defendant poses a danger to the public, then the defendant shall be retained in custody until a determination of pretrial release conditions is made pursuant to this subdivision. The judicial official that orders that the defendant be retained in custody shall set forth, in writing, the following at the time that the order is entered:

a. The defendant is being held pursuant to this subdivision.

b. The basis for the judicial official's decision that additional information is needed to determine whether the defendant poses a danger to the public and the nature of the necessary information.

c. A date, within 96 hours of the time of arrest, when the defendant shall be brought before a judge for a first appearance pursuant to Article 29 of this Chapter. If the necessary information is provided to the court at any time prior to the first appearance, the first available judicial official shall set the conditions of pretrial release. The judge who reviews the defendant's eligibility for release at the first appearance shall determine the conditions of pretrial release as provided in this Article.

(e) A magistrate or a clerk may modify his or her pretrial release order at any time prior to the first appearance before the district court judge. At or after such first appearance, except when the conditions of pretrial release have been reviewed by the superior court pursuant to G.S. 15A-539, a district court judge may modify a pretrial release order of the magistrate or clerk or any pretrial release order entered by him or her at any time prior to:

(1) In a misdemeanor case tried in the district court, the noting of an appeal; and

(2) In a case in the original trial jurisdiction of the superior court, the binding of the defendant over to superior court after the holding, or waiver, of a probable-cause hearing.

After a case is before the superior court, a superior court judge may modify the pretrial release order of a magistrate, clerk, or district court judge, or any such order entered by ~~him,~~ him or her, at any time prior to the time set out in G.S. 15A-536(a).

(f) For good cause shown any judge may at any time revoke an order of pretrial release. Upon application of any defendant whose order of pretrial release has been revoked, the judge must set new conditions of pretrial release in accordance with this Article.

(g) In imposing conditions of pretrial release and in modifying and revoking orders of release under this section, the judicial official must take into account all evidence available to him which he considers reliable and is not strictly bound by the rules of evidence applicable to criminal trials.

(h) A bail bond posted pursuant to this section is effective and binding upon the obligor throughout all stages of the proceeding in the trial division of the General Court of Justice until the entry of judgment in the district court from which no appeal is taken or the entry of judgment in the superior court. The obligation of an obligor, however, is terminated at an earlier time if:

(1) A judge authorized to do so releases the obligor from his or her bond; or

(2) The principal is surrendered by a surety in accordance with G.S. 15A-540; or

(3) The proceeding is terminated by voluntary dismissal by the State before forfeiture is ordered under G.S. 15A-544.3; or

(4) Prayer for judgment has been continued indefinitely in the district court."

SECTION 2. G.S. 15A-535(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) In any county in which there is a pretrial release program, the senior resident superior court judge may, after consultation with the chief district court judge, order that defendants accepted by such program for supervision shall, with their consent, be released by ~~judicial officials~~ judges to supervision of such ~~programs,~~ programs pursuant to G.S. 15A-534.7 and that defendants released to those programs shall be subject to ~~its~~ the rules and ~~regulations, in lieu of releasing the defendants on conditions (1), (2), or (3) of G.S. 15A-534(a).~~ regulations of the programs."

SECTION 3. Article 26 of Chapter 15A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 15A-534.7. Pretrial release programs.

(a) For purposes of this section, a pretrial release program is an organization designated by a judicial official that agrees to take custody of a defendant and supervise the defendant as a condition of pretrial release.

(b) A judicial official may place a defendant in the custody of a pretrial release program as a condition of pretrial release pursuant to this section. The condition may be imposed only under the same circumstances that the condition described in G.S. 15A-534(a)(3) may be imposed and only if all of the following criteria are met:

(1) The execution of a secured bond as described in G.S. 15A-534(a)(4) is a condition of pretrial release for the defendant at the time that placement with a pretrial release program is being considered as a pretrial release condition under this section.

(2) The judicial official finds as fact that a period of at least 72 hours has elapsed from the date and time on the defendant's release order and, pursuant to G.S. 15A-534(d1) and (d2), determines that the defendant is not a flight risk and does not pose a danger to the public. The pretrial release program shall not contact or otherwise attempt to gain access to the defendant prior to expiration of the 72-hour period.

(c) In addition to the criteria in subsection (b) of this section, the factors to be considered in determining whether placement of a defendant with a pretrial release program is an appropriate condition of pretrial release shall be the same as those in G.S. 15A-534. Except as otherwise provided by this section, the procedure for imposing that condition and authorizing pretrial release under this section shall be the same as those in G.S. 15A-534. In any order imposing a pretrial release condition pursuant to this section, the judicial official shall include the basis for the court's determination.

(d) No State government funds shall be appropriated to or used for the support of a pretrial release program or its activities."

SECTION 4. This section is effective when it becomes law. G.S. 15A-534.7(d), as enacted by Section 3 of this act, becomes effective July 1, 2011. The remainder of this act becomes effective December 1, 2011, and applies to criminal actions to determine pretrial release conditions on or after that date.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO AMEND THE STATE'S BAIL LAWS WITH REGARD TO PRETRIAL RELEASE PROGRAMS, TO AMEND HOUSE ARREST AND ELECTRONIC MONITORING AS A CONDITION OF PRETRIAL RELEASE, AND TO PROVIDE THAT NO STATE FUNDS MAY BE APPROPRIATED TO OR USED FOR THE SUPPORT OF A PRETRIAL RELEASE PROGRAM.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 15A-534 reads as rewritten:

"§ 15A-534. Procedure for determining conditions of pretrial release.

(a) In determining conditions of pretrial release a judicial official must impose at least one of the following conditions:

(1) Release the defendant on his written promise to appear.

(2) Release the defendant upon his execution of an unsecured appearance bond in an amount specified by the judicial official.

(3) Place the defendant in the custody of a designated person ~~or organization~~agreeing to supervise ~~him.~~the defendant.

(4) Require the execution of an appearance bond in a specified amount secured by a cash deposit of the full amount of the bond, by a mortgage pursuant to G.S. 58-74-5, or by at least one solvent surety.

(5) ~~House arrest with electronic monitoring.~~Electronic monitoring that may also include house arrest.

If condition (5) is imposed, the defendant must execute a secured appearance bond under subdivision (4) of this subsection. If condition (3) is imposed, however, the defendant may elect to execute an appearance bond under subdivision (4). If condition (4) is imposed, the defendant may elect to be placed in a pretrial release program pursuant to G.S. 15A-534.7.

If the defendant is required to provide fingerprints pursuant to G.S. 15A-502(a1) or (a2), or a DNA sample pursuant to G.S. 15A-266.3A or G.S. 15A-266.4, and (i) the fingerprints or DNA sample have not yet been taken or (ii) the defendant has refused to provide the fingerprints or DNA sample, the judicial official shall make the collection of the fingerprints or DNA sample a condition of pretrial release. The judicial official may also place restrictions on the travel, associations, conduct, or place of abode of the defendant as conditions of pretrial release.

(b) The judicial official in granting pretrial release must impose condition (1), (2), or (3) in subsection (a) above unless ~~he~~ the judicial official determines that such release will not reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required; will pose a danger of injury to any person; or is likely to result in destruction of evidence, subornation of perjury, or intimidation of potential witnesses. Upon making the determination, the judicial official must then impose condition (4) or (5) in subsection (a) above instead of condition (1), (2) or (3), and must record the reasons for so doing in writing to the extent provided in the policies or requirements issued by the senior resident superior court judge pursuant to G.S. 15A-535(a).

(c) In determining which conditions of release to impose, the judicial official must, on the basis of available information, take into account the nature and circumstances of the offense charged; the weight of the evidence against the defendant; the defendant's family ties, employment, financial resources, character, and mental condition; whether the defendant is intoxicated to such a degree that he would be endangered by being released without supervision; the length of his residence in the community; his record of convictions; his history of flight to avoid prosecution or failure to appear at court proceedings; and any other evidence relevant to the issue of pretrial release.

(d) The judicial official authorizing pretrial release under this section must issue an appropriate order containing a statement of the conditions imposed, if any; inform the defendant in writing of the penalties applicable to violations of the conditions of ~~his~~ the defendant's release; and advise ~~him~~ the defendant that his arrest will be ordered immediately upon any violation. The order of release must be filed with the clerk and a copy given the defendant.

(d1) When conditions of pretrial release are being imposed on a defendant who has failed on one or more prior occasions to appear to answer one or more of the charges to which the conditions apply, the judicial official shall at a minimum impose the conditions of pretrial release that are recommended in any order for the arrest of the defendant that was issued for the defendant's most recent failure to appear. If no conditions are recommended in that order for arrest, the judicial official shall require the execution of a secured appearance bond in an amount at least double the amount of the most recent previous secured or unsecured bond for the charges or, if no bond has yet been required for the charges, in the amount of at least five hundred dollars ($500.00). The judicial official shall also impose such restrictions on the travel, associations, conduct, or place of abode of the defendant as will assure that the defendant will not again fail to appear. The judicial official shall indicate on the release order that the defendant was arrested or surrendered after failing to appear as required under a prior release order. If the information available to the judicial official indicates that the defendant has failed on two or more prior occasions to appear to answer the charges, the judicial official shall indicate that fact on the release order.

(d2) When conditions of pretrial release are being determined for a defendant who is charged with a felony offense and the defendant is currently on probation for a prior offense, a judicial official shall determine whether the defendant poses a danger to the public prior to imposing conditions of pretrial release and must record that determination in writing. This subsection shall apply to any judicial official authorized to determine or review the defendant's eligibility for release under any proceeding authorized by this Chapter.

(1) If the judicial official determines that the defendant poses a danger to the public, the judicial official must impose condition (4) or (5) in subsection (a) of this section instead of condition (1), (2) or (3).

(2) If the judicial official finds that the defendant does not pose a danger to the public, then conditions of pretrial release shall be imposed as otherwise provided in this Article.

(3) If there is insufficient information to determine whether the defendant poses a danger to the public, then the defendant shall be retained in custody until a determination of pretrial release conditions is made pursuant to this subdivision. The judicial official that orders that the defendant be retained in custody shall set forth, in writing, the following at the time that the order is entered:

a. The defendant is being held pursuant to this subdivision.

b. The basis for the judicial official's decision that additional information is needed to determine whether the defendant poses a danger to the public and the nature of the necessary information.

c. A date, within 96 hours of the time of arrest, when the defendant shall be brought before a judge for a first appearance pursuant to Article 29 of this Chapter. If the necessary information is provided to the court at any time prior to the first appearance, the first available judicial official shall set the conditions of pretrial release. The judge who reviews the defendant's eligibility for release at the first appearance shall determine the conditions of pretrial release as provided in this Article.

(e) A magistrate or a clerk may modify his pretrial release order at any time prior to the first appearance before the district court judge. At or after such first appearance, except when the conditions of pretrial release have been reviewed by the superior court pursuant to G.S. 15A-539, a district court judge may modify a pretrial release order of the magistrate or clerk or any pretrial release order entered by him at any time prior to:

(1) In a misdemeanor case tried in the district court, the noting of an appeal; and

(2) In a case in the original trial jurisdiction of the superior court, the binding of the defendant over to superior court after the holding, or waiver, of a probable-cause hearing.

After a case is before the superior court, a superior court judge may modify the pretrial release order of a magistrate, clerk, or district court judge, or any such order entered by him, at any time prior to the time set out in G.S. 15A-536(a).

(f) For good cause shown any judge may at any time revoke an order of pretrial release. Upon application of any defendant whose order of pretrial release has been revoked, the judge must set new conditions of pretrial release in accordance with this Article.

(g) In imposing conditions of pretrial release and in modifying and revoking orders of release under this section, the judicial official must take into account all evidence available to him which he considers reliable and is not strictly bound by the rules of evidence applicable to criminal trials.

(h) A bail bond posted pursuant to this section is effective and binding upon the obligor throughout all stages of the proceeding in the trial division of the General Court of Justice until the entry of judgment in the district court from which no appeal is taken or the entry of judgment in the superior court. The obligation of an obligor, however, is terminated at an earlier time if:

(1) A judge authorized to do so releases the obligor from his bond; or

(2) The principal is surrendered by a surety in accordance with G.S. 15A-540; or

(3) The proceeding is terminated by voluntary dismissal by the State before forfeiture is ordered under G.S. 15A-544.3; or

(4) Prayer for judgment has been continued indefinitely in the district court."

SECTION 2. G.S. 15A-535(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) In any county in which there is a pretrial release program, the senior resident superior court judge may, after consultation with the chief district court judge, order that defendants accepted by such program for supervision shall, with their consent, be released by ~~judicial officials~~ judges to supervision of such ~~programs,~~ programs pursuant to G.S. 15A-534.7 and that defendants released to those programs shall be subject to ~~its~~ the rules and ~~regulations,~~

~~in lieu of releasing the defendants on conditions (1), (2), or (3) of G.S. 15A-534(a).~~regulations of the programs."

SECTION 3. Article 26 of Chapter 15A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 15A-534.7. Pretrial release programs.

(a) For purposes of this section, a pretrial release program is an organization designated by a judicial official that agrees to take custody of a defendant and supervise the defendant as a condition of pretrial release.

(b) A judicial official may place a defendant in the custody of a pretrial release program as a condition of pretrial release pursuant to this section. The condition may be imposed only under the same circumstances that the condition described in G.S. 15A-534(a)(3) may be imposed and only if all of the following criteria are met:

(1) The execution of a secured bond as described in G.S. 15A-534(a)(4) is a condition of pretrial release for the defendant at the time that placement with a pretrial release program is being considered as a pretrial release condition under this section.

(2) The judicial official finds as fact that a period of at least 48 hours has elapsed from the time of the defendant's arrest and, pursuant to G.S. 15A-534(d1) and (d2), determines that the defendant is not a flight risk and does not pose a danger to the public. The pretrial release program shall not contact or otherwise attempt to gain access to the defendant prior to expiration of the 48-hour period.

(c) In addition to the criteria in subsection (b) of this section, the factors to be considered in determining whether placement of a defendant with a pretrial release program is an appropriate condition of pretrial release shall be the same as those in G.S. 15A-534. Except as otherwise provided by this section, the procedure for imposing that condition and authorizing pretrial release under this section shall be the same as those in G.S. 15A-534. In any order imposing a pretrial release condition pursuant to this section, the judicial official shall include the basis for the court's determination.

(d) No State government funds shall be appropriated to or used for the support of a pretrial release program or its activities."

SECTION 4. This act becomes effective December 1, 2012.

SENATE BILL 756:
Amend Bail Law/Pretrial Release Programs

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	House Judiciary Subcommittee C	Date:	June 5, 2012
Introduced by:	Sens. Clary, East, Jones	Prepared by:	Janice Paul Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	PCS to Second Edition S756-CSTJ-26

SUMMARY: The Proposed Committee Substitute to Senate Bill 756 would amend the State's bail laws with regard to pretrial release programs, amend house arrest and electronic monitoring as a condition of pretrial release, and provide that no State funds may be appropriated to or used for support of a pretrial release program.

CURRENT LAW: Under G.S. 15A-533, a defendant charged with a noncapital offense must have conditions of pretrial release determined in accordance with G.S. 15A-534. The provisions of G.S. 15A-534 also apply to a defendant charged with a capital offense, if the judge in his or her discretion determines that release is warranted. Drug trafficking and street gang crimes are offenses that are subject to a rebuttable presumption that no condition of release will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant and the safety of the community; the presumption applies if the offense was committed while the defendant was on pretrial release for another offense and not more than five years has passed since the defendant committed the same type of offense.

Under G.S. 15A-534, in determining conditions of pretrial release a judicial official must impose at least one of the following conditions:

- Release the defendant on a written promise to appear.
- Release the defendant upon execution of an unsecured appearance bond in an amount specified by the judicial official. (An unsecured appearance bond is a type of bail in which the accused make a written promise to appear in court, and to pay a specified sum of money if the accused fails to appear as required.)
- Place the defendant in the custody of a designated person or organization agreeing to supervise him.
- Require the execution of an appearance bond in a specified amount secured by a cash deposit of the full amount of the bond, by a mortgage, or by at least one solvent surety.
- House arrest with electronic monitoring.

In determining which conditions of pretrial release to impose, the judicial official must take into account the nature and circumstances of the offense charged; the weight of the evidence against the defendant; the defendant's family ties, employment, financial resources, character, and mental condition; whether the defendant is intoxicated to such a degree that he would be endangered by being released without supervision; the length of the defendant's residence in the community; record of convictions; history of flight to avoid prosecution or failure to appear at court proceedings; and any other evidence relevant to the issue of pretrial release.

BILL ANALYSIS: The PCS to Senate Bill 756 would amend the procedure for determining conditions of pretrial release. The PCS would require a secured appearance bond of at least $1,000 for a defendant placed on electronic monitoring/house arrest.

Under current law, a defendant may be released into the custody of a designated person or organization, and the "organization" may include a pretrial release program. The PCS would eliminate the option of releasing a defendant into the custody of an "organization"; but it provides that if the court has required the execution of a secured appearance bond as a condition of pretrial release, the defendant may elect to be placed in a pretrial release program. The PCS would add a new statute pertaining to pretrial release programs, defined as "an organization designated by a judicial official that agrees to take custody of a defendant and supervise the defendant as a condition of pretrial release." A defendant could be placed in a pretrial release program only if execution of a secured bond is a condition of pretrial release, and at least 48 hours have elapsed from the date and time on the defendant's release order. The judicial official would be required to include the basis for the court's determination concerning placement of the defendant in a pretrial release program. The provides that no State funds may be appropriated to or used for support of a pretrial release program.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The new statute pertaining to pretrial release programs would become effective July 1, 2012. The remainder of the act would become effective December 1, 2012, and apply to actions to determine pretrial release conditions on or after that date.

If condition (5) is imposed, the defendant must execute a secured appearance bond of at least one thousand dollars ($1,000) under subdivision (4) of this subsection. If condition (3) is imposed, however, the defendant may elect to execute an appearance bond under subdivision (4). If condition (4) is imposed, the defendant may elect to be placed in a pretrial release program pursuant to G.S. 15A-534.7.

If the defendant is required to provide fingerprints pursuant to G.S. 15A-502(a1) or (a2), or a DNA sample pursuant to G.S. 15A-266.3A or G.S. 15A-266.4, and (i) the fingerprints or DNA sample have not yet been taken or (ii) the defendant has refused to provide the fingerprints or DNA sample, the judicial official shall make the collection of the fingerprints or DNA sample a condition of pretrial release. The judicial official may also place restrictions on the travel, associations, conduct, or place of abode of the defendant as conditions of pretrial release.

(b) The judicial official in granting pretrial release must impose condition ~~(1), (2), or (3)~~(1) or (3) in subsection (a) above unless ~~he~~ the judicial official determines that such release will not reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required; will pose a danger of injury to any person; or is likely to result in destruction of evidence, subornation of perjury, or intimidation of potential witnesses. Upon making the determination, the judicial official must then impose condition (4) or (5) in subsection (a) above instead of condition ~~(1), (2), or (3),~~(1) or (3) and must record the reasons for so doing in writing to the extent provided in the policies or requirements issued by the senior resident superior court judge pursuant to G.S. 15A-535(a).

(c) In determining which conditions of release to impose, the judicial official must, on the basis of available information, take into account the nature and circumstances of the offense charged; the weight of the evidence against the defendant; the defendant's family ties, employment, financial resources, character, and mental condition; whether the defendant is intoxicated to such a degree that he would be endangered by being released without supervision; the length of his residence in the community; his record of convictions; his history of flight to avoid prosecution or failure to appear at court proceedings; and any other evidence relevant to the issue of pretrial release.

(d) The judicial official authorizing pretrial release under this section must issue an appropriate order containing a statement of the conditions imposed, if any; inform the defendant in writing of the penalties applicable to violations of the conditions of ~~his~~ the defendant's release; and advise ~~him~~ the defendant that his or her arrest will be ordered immediately upon any violation. The order of release must be filed with the clerk and a copy given the defendant.

(d1) When conditions of pretrial release are being imposed on a defendant who has failed on one or more prior occasions to appear to answer one or more of the charges to which the conditions apply, the judicial official shall at a minimum impose the conditions of pretrial release that are recommended in any order for the arrest of the defendant that was issued for the defendant's most recent failure to appear. If no conditions are recommended in that order for arrest, the judicial official shall require the execution of a secured appearance bond in an amount at least double the amount of the most recent previous secured ~~or unsecured~~ bond for the charges or, if no bond has yet been required for the charges, in the amount of at least five hundred dollars ($500.00). The judicial official shall also impose such restrictions on the travel, associations, conduct, or place of abode of the defendant as will assure that the defendant will not again fail to appear. The judicial official shall indicate on the release order that the defendant was arrested or surrendered after failing to appear as required under a prior release order. If the information available to the judicial official indicates that the defendant has failed on two or more prior occasions to appear to answer the charges, the judicial official shall indicate that fact on the release order.

(d2) When conditions of pretrial release are being determined for a defendant who is charged with a felony offense and the defendant is currently on probation for a prior offense, a judicial official shall determine whether the defendant poses a danger to the public prior to imposing conditions of pretrial release and must record that determination in writing. This subsection shall apply to any judicial official authorized to determine or review the defendant's eligibility for release under any proceeding authorized by this Chapter.

(1) If the judicial official determines that the defendant poses a danger to the public, the judicial official must impose condition (4) or (5) in subsection (a) of this section instead of condition ~~(1), (2), or (3).~~(1) or (3).

(2) If the judicial official finds that the defendant does not pose a danger to the public, then conditions of pretrial release shall be imposed as otherwise provided in this Article.

(3) If there is insufficient information to determine whether the defendant poses a danger to the public, then the defendant shall be retained in custody until a determination of pretrial release conditions is made pursuant to this subdivision. The judicial official that orders that the defendant be retained in custody shall set forth, in writing, the following at the time that the order is entered:

a. The defendant is being held pursuant to this subdivision.

b. The basis for the judicial official's decision that additional information is needed to determine whether the defendant poses a danger to the public and the nature of the necessary information.

c. A date, within 96 hours of the time of arrest, when the defendant shall be brought before a judge for a first appearance pursuant to Article 29 of this Chapter. If the necessary information is provided to the court at any time prior to the first appearance, the first available judicial official shall set the conditions of pretrial release. The judge who reviews the defendant's eligibility for release at the first appearance shall determine the conditions of pretrial release as provided in this Article.

(e) A magistrate or a clerk may modify his or her pretrial release order at any time prior to the first appearance before the district court judge. At or after such first appearance, except when the conditions of pretrial release have been reviewed by the superior court pursuant to G.S. 15A-539, a district court judge may modify a pretrial release order of the magistrate or clerk or any pretrial release order entered by him or her at any time prior to:

(1) In a misdemeanor case tried in the district court, the noting of an appeal; and

(2) In a case in the original trial jurisdiction of the superior court, the binding of the defendant over to superior court after the holding, or waiver, of a probable-cause hearing.

After a case is before the superior court, a superior court judge may modify the pretrial release order of a magistrate, clerk, or district court judge, or any such order entered by ~~him,~~ him or her, at any time prior to the time set out in G.S. 15A-536(a).

(f) For good cause shown any judge may at any time revoke an order of pretrial release. Upon application of any defendant whose order of pretrial release has been revoked, the judge must set new conditions of pretrial release in accordance with this Article.

(g) In imposing conditions of pretrial release and in modifying and revoking orders of release under this section, the judicial official must take into account all evidence available to him which he considers reliable and is not strictly bound by the rules of evidence applicable to criminal trials.

(h) A bail bond posted pursuant to this section is effective and binding upon the obligor throughout all stages of the proceeding in the trial division of the General Court of Justice until the entry of judgment in the district court from which no appeal is taken or the entry of judgment in the superior court. The obligation of an obligor, however, is terminated at an earlier time if:

(1) A judge authorized to do so releases the obligor from his or her bond; or

(2) The principal is surrendered by a surety in accordance with G.S. 15A-540; or

(3) The proceeding is terminated by voluntary dismissal by the State before forfeiture is ordered under G.S. 15A-544.3; or

(4) Prayer for judgment has been continued indefinitely in the district court."

SECTION 2. G.S. 15A-535(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) In any county in which there is a pretrial release program, the senior resident superior court judge may, after consultation with the chief district court judge, order that defendants accepted by such program for supervision shall, with their consent, be released by ~~judicial officials~~ judges to supervision of such ~~programs,~~ programs pursuant to G.S. 15A-534.7 and that defendants released to those programs shall be subject to ~~its~~ the rules and ~~regulations, in lieu of releasing the defendants on conditions (1), (2), or (3) of G.S. 15A-534(a).~~ regulations of the programs."

SECTION 3. Article 26 of Chapter 15A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 15A-534.7. Pretrial release programs.

(a) For purposes of this section, a pretrial release program is an organization designated by a judicial official that agrees to take custody of a defendant and supervise the defendant as a condition of pretrial release.

(b) A judicial official may place a defendant in the custody of a pretrial release program as a condition of pretrial release pursuant to this section. The condition may be imposed only under the same circumstances that the condition described in G.S. 15A-534(a)(3) may be imposed and only if all of the following criteria are met:

(1) The execution of a secured bond as described in G.S. 15A-534(a)(4) is a condition of pretrial release for the defendant at the time that placement with a pretrial release program is being considered as a pretrial release condition under this section.

(2) The judicial official finds as fact that a period of at least 72 hours has elapsed from the date and time on the defendant's release order and, pursuant to G.S. 15A-534(d1) and (d2), determines that the defendant is not a flight risk and does not pose a danger to the public. The pretrial release program shall not contact or otherwise attempt to gain access to the defendant prior to expiration of the 72-hour period.

(c) In addition to the criteria in subsection (b) of this section, the factors to be considered in determining whether placement of a defendant with a pretrial release program is an appropriate condition of pretrial release shall be the same as those in G.S. 15A-534. Except as otherwise provided by this section, the procedure for imposing that condition and authorizing pretrial release under this section shall be the same as those in G.S. 15A-534. In any order imposing a pretrial release condition pursuant to this section, the judicial official shall include the basis for the court's determination.

(d) No State government funds shall be appropriated to or used for the support of a pretrial release program or its activities."

SECTION 4. This section is effective when it becomes law. G.S. 15A-534.7(d), as enacted by Section 3 of this act, becomes effective July 1, 2011. The remainder of this act becomes effective December 1, 2011, and applies to criminal actions to determine pretrial release conditions on or after that date.

"§ 47F-3-116.1. Associations with claim of lien to file notice of satisfaction with clerk of court upon full payment; liability for failure.

(a) An association that has filed a claim of lien pursuant to G.S. 47F-3-116 shall acknowledge satisfaction of the claim of lien securing the debt within 30 days after the association receives full payment or performance of the debt, as provided in this section. The association shall file with the clerk of court a notice of satisfaction of lien signed by the association's agent or attorney, whereupon the clerk of superior court shall forthwith make upon the record of the claim of lien on real property an entry of acknowledgment of satisfaction.

(b) An association that fails to acknowledge satisfaction of a claim of lien pursuant to this section by the end of the period specified in subsection (a) of this section is liable to the lot owner for any actual damages caused by the failure, but not for punitive damages.

(c) An association that is required to acknowledge satisfaction of a claim of lien pursuant to this section and does not do so by the end of the period specified in subsection (a) of this section is also liable to the lot owner for one thousand dollars ($1,000) and any reasonable attorneys' fees and court costs incurred if, after the expiration of the period specified in subsection (a) of this section, both of the following occur:

(1) The lot owner gives the association a notification, by certified mail and first-class mail, that provides proof the association has received full payment, demanding that the association acknowledge satisfaction with the clerk of superior court.

(2) The association does not acknowledge satisfaction with the clerk of superior court within 30 days after the association's receipt of the notification from the lot owner."

SECTION 2.(a) G.S. 47F-3-118(a) reads as rewritten:

"§ 47F-3-118. Association records.

(a) The association shall keep financial records sufficiently detailed to enable the association to comply with this Chapter. If the bylaws do not specify particular records to be maintained, the association shall keep accurate records of all cash receipts and expenditures and all assets and liabilities. In addition to any specific information that is required by the bylaws to be assembled and reported to the lot owners at specified times, the association shall make an annual income and expense statement and balance sheet available to all lot owners at no charge and within 75 days after the close of the fiscal year to which the information relates. ~~Notwithstanding the bylaws, a more extensive compilation, review, or audit of the association's books and records for the current or immediately preceding fiscal year may be required by a vote of the majority of the executive board or by the affirmative vote of a majority of the lot owners present and voting in person or by proxy at any annual meeting or any special meeting duly called for that purpose.~~"

SECTION 2.(b) Article 3 of Chapter 47F of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 47F-3-118A. Financial review or audit requirements.

(a) Except as provided in subsection (b) of this section, the board of directors shall provide for an annual independent financial review of the association. The review shall be completed no later than 90 days after the end of the association's fiscal year and shall be made available upon request to the lot owners within 30 days after its completion.

(b) The board of directors shall provide for an annual independent financial audit of the association, in lieu of an annual independent financial review, if any of the following conditions are met:

(1) The declaration, bylaws, or other governing documents expressly require conduct of an annual financial audit.

(2) The association has annual revenues or expenditures of at least four hundred thousand dollars ($400,000).

(3) An audit is requested by a vote of a majority of the board or by a vote of a majority of the lot owners present and voting in person or by proxy at any annual meeting or any special meeting duly called for that purpose."

SECTION 3. G.S. 47F-3-108 reads as rewritten:

"§ 47F-3-108. Meetings.

(a) A meeting of the association shall be held at least once each year. Special meetings of the association may be called by the president, a majority of the executive board, or by lot owners having ten percent (10%), or any lower percentage specified in the bylaws, of the votes in the association. Not less than 10 nor more than 60 days in advance of any meeting, the secretary or other officer specified in the bylaws shall cause notice to be hand-delivered or sent prepaid by United States mail to the mailing address of each lot or to any other mailing address designated in writing by the lot owner, or sent by electronic means, including by electronic mail over the Internet, to an electronic mailing address designated in writing by the lot owner. The notice of any meeting shall state the time and place of the meeting and the items on the agenda, including the general nature of any proposed amendment to the declaration or bylaws, any budget changes, ~~and~~ any proposal to remove a director or ~~officer.~~officer, and any material matter for which a vote is to be taken.

(b) Meetings of the executive board shall be held as provided in the bylaws. At regular intervals, the executive board meeting shall provide lot owners an opportunity to attend a portion of an executive board meeting and to speak to the executive board about their issues or concerns. The executive board may place reasonable restrictions on the number of persons who speak on each side of an issue and may place reasonable time restrictions on persons who speak.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in the bylaws, meetings of the association and the executive board shall be conducted in accordance with the most recent edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised.

(d) Actions taken at a meeting held in violation of the association's bylaws or any provision of this Chapter shall be null and void, and no members of the association shall be bound by any decision or ruling made in that meeting."

SECTION 4.(a) G.S. 47F-3-110 is repealed.

SECTION 4.(b) Article 3 of Chapter 47F of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 47F-3-110A. Voting; proxies; ballots.

(a) Unless prohibited or limited by the declaration or bylaws, lot owners may vote at a meeting in person, by absentee ballot pursuant to subdivision (4) of subsection (b) of this section, by a proxy pursuant to subsection (c) of the section, or, when a vote is conducted without a meeting, by electronic or paper ballot pursuant to subsection (d) of this section.

(b) At a meeting of lot owners, the following requirements apply:

(1) Lot owners who are present in person may vote by voice vote, show of hands, standing, or any other method for accurately determining the votes of lot owners, as designated by the person presiding at the meeting.

(2) If only one of several owners of a lot is present, that owner is entitled to cast all the votes allocated to that lot. If more than one of the owners are present, the votes allocated to that lot may be cast only in accordance with the agreement of a majority in interest of the owners, unless the declaration expressly provides otherwise. There is majority agreement if any one of the owners casts the votes allocated to the lot without protest being made promptly to the person presiding over the meeting by any of the other owners of the lot.

(3) Unless a greater number or fraction of the votes in the association is required for a particular matter to be voted on by this Chapter or the declaration, a majority of the votes cast determines the outcome of any action of the association.

(4) Subject to subsection (a) of this section, a lot owner may vote by absentee ballot without being present at the meeting. The association promptly shall deliver an absentee ballot to an owner that requests it if the request is made at least seven days before the scheduled meeting. Votes cast by absentee ballot must be included in the tally of a vote taken at that meeting.

(5) When a lot owner votes by absentee ballot, the association must be able to verify that the ballot is cast by the lot owner having the right to do so.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in the declaration or bylaws, the following requirements apply with respect to proxy voting:

(1) Votes allocated to a lot may be cast pursuant to a directed or undirected proxy duly executed by a lot owner.

(2) If a lot is owned by more than one person, each owner of the lot may vote or register protest to the casting of votes by the other owners of the lot through a duly executed proxy.

(3) A lot owner may revoke a proxy given pursuant to this section only by actual notice of revocation to the person presiding over a meeting of the association.

(4) A proxy is void if it is not dated, if it purports to be revocable without notice, or if it is given in favor of a board member.

(5) A proxy is valid only for the meeting at which it is cast and any recessed session of that meeting.

(6) A proxy may be used to achieve the required quorum at a meeting.

(7) A proxy is valid only if the nature of the matter for which the vote is to be taken is stated in the notice as required by G.S. 47F-3-108(a).

(8) A person may not cast proxies representing more than fifteen percent (15%) of the votes in the association.

(d) Unless prohibited or limited by the declaration or bylaws, an association may conduct a vote without a meeting. In that event, the following requirements apply:

(1) The association shall notify the lot owners that the vote will be taken by ballot.

(2) The association shall deliver a paper or electronic ballot to every lot owner entitled to vote on the matter.

(3) The ballot must set forth each proposed action and provide an opportunity to vote for or against the action.

(4) When the association delivers the ballots, the association shall do all of the following:

a. Indicate the number of responses needed to meet the quorum requirements.

b. State the percentage of votes necessary to approve each matter other than election of directors.

c. Specify the time and date, not fewer than seven days after the date the association delivers the ballot, by which a ballot must be delivered to the association to be counted.

d. Describe the time, date, and manner by which lot owners wishing to deliver information to all lot owners regarding the subject of the vote may do so.

(5) Except as otherwise provided in the declaration or bylaws, a ballot is not revoked after delivery to the association by death or disability or attempted revocation by the person that cast that vote.

(6) Approval by ballot pursuant to this subsection is valid only if the number of votes cast by ballot equals or exceeds the quorum required to be present at a meeting authorizing the action.

(e) If the declaration requires that votes on specified matters affecting the planned community be cast by lessees rather than lot owners of leased lots, (i) the provisions of this section apply to lessees as if they were lot owners; (ii) lot owners who have leased their lots to other persons may not cast votes on those specified matters; and (iii) lessees are entitled to notice of meetings, access to records, and other rights respecting those matters as if they were lot owners. Lot owners shall also be given notice, in the manner provided in G.S. 47F-3-108, of all meetings at which lessees may be entitled to vote.

(f) No votes allocated to a lot owned by the association may be cast.

(g) The declaration may provide that, on specified issues, only a defined subgroup of lot owners may vote, provided both of the following apply:

(1) The issue being voted on is of special interest solely to the members of the subgroup.

(2) All except de minimis costs that will be incurred based on the vote taken will be assessed solely against those lot owners entitled to vote.

(h) For purposes of subdivision (1) of subsection (g) of this section, an issue to be voted on is not a special interest solely to a subgroup if it substantially affects the overall appearance of the planned community or substantially affects living conditions of lot owners not included in the voting subgroup."

SECTION 5. Article 3 of Chapter 47F of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 47F-3-120.1. Alternative dispute resolution allowed.

Parties to a dispute arising under this Chapter or an association's declaration, bylaws, or rules and regulations may agree to resolve the dispute by any form of binding or nonbinding alternative dispute resolution, except that a declarant may agree with the association to do so only after the period of declarant control has expired. Parties electing to use alternative dispute resolution for disputes arising under this Chapter shall use only mediators certified by the Dispute Resolution Commission. An agreement to submit to any form of binding alternative dispute resolution must be in a record authenticated by the parties."

PART II. AMENDMENTS TO CONDOMINIUM ACT

SECTION 6. Article 3 of Chapter 47C of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 47C-3-116.1. Associations with claim of lien to file notice of satisfaction with clerk of court upon full payment; liability for failure.

(a) An association that has filed a claim of lien pursuant to G.S. 47C-3-116 shall acknowledge satisfaction of the claim of lien securing the debt within 30 days after the association receives full payment or performance of the debt, as provided in this section. The association shall file with the clerk of court a notice of satisfaction of lien signed by the association's agent or attorney, whereupon the clerk of superior court shall forthwith make upon the record of the claim of lien on real property an entry of acknowledgment of satisfaction.

(b) An association that fails to acknowledge satisfaction of a claim of lien pursuant to this section by the end of the period specified in subsection (a) of this section is liable to the unit owner for any actual damages caused by the failure, but not for punitive damages.

(c) An association that is required to acknowledge satisfaction of a claim of lien pursuant to this section and does not do so by the end of the period specified in subsection (a) of this section is also liable to the lot owner for one thousand dollars ($1,000) and any reasonable attorneys' fees and court costs incurred if, after the expiration of the period specified in subsection (a) of this section, both of the following occur:

(1) The lot owner gives the association a notification, by certified mail and first-class mail, that provides proof the association has received full payment, demanding that the association acknowledge satisfaction with the clerk of superior court.

(2) The association does not acknowledge satisfaction with the clerk of superior court within 30 days after the association's receipt of the notification from the lot owner."

SECTION 7.(a) G.S. 47C-3-118(a) reads as rewritten:

"§ 47C-3-118. Association records.

(a) The association shall keep financial records sufficiently detailed to enable the association to comply with this chapter. All financial and other records, including records of

If the bylaws do not specify particular records to be maintained, the association shall keep accurate records of all cash receipts and expenditures and all assets and liabilities. In addition to any specific information that is required by the bylaws to be assembled and reported to the unit owners at specified times, the association shall make an annual income and expense statement and balance sheet available to all unit owners at no charge and within 75 days after the close of the fiscal year to which the information relates. ~~Notwithstanding the bylaws, a more extensive compilation, review, or audit of the association's books and records for the current or immediately preceding fiscal year may be required by a vote of the majority of the executive board or by the affirmative vote of a majority of the unit owners present and voting in person or by proxy at any annual meeting or any special meeting duly called for that purpose.~~"

SECTION 7.(b) Article 3 of Chapter 47C of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

SECTION 9.(a) G.S. 47C-3-110 is repealed.

SECTION 9.(b) Article 3 of Chapter 47C of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 47C-3-110A. Voting; proxies; ballots.

(a) Unless prohibited or limited by the declaration or bylaws, unit owners may vote at a meeting in person, by absentee ballot pursuant to subdivision (4) of subsection (b) of this section, by a proxy pursuant to subsection (c) of this section, or, when a vote is conducted without a meeting, by electronic or paper ballot pursuant to subsection (d) of this section.

(b) At a meeting of unit owners, all of the following requirements apply:

(1) Unit owners who are present in person may vote by voice vote, show of hands, standing, or any other method for accurately determining the votes of unit owners, as designated by the person presiding at the meeting.

Lot owners shall also be given notice, in the manner provided in G.S. 47F-3-108, of all meetings at which lessees may be entitled to vote.

(f) No votes allocated to a lot owned by the association may be cast.

(g) The declaration may provide that, on specified issues, only a defined subgroup of lot owners may vote, provided:

SUMMARY: The Proposed Committee Substitute to House Bill 1084 would amend the Planned Community Act and Condominium Act by requiring associations to release liens upon full payment of the debt, requiring all associations to conduct an annual financial review or audit, specifying voting rights procedures, allowing use of alternative dispute resolution for conflicts arising under the Planned Community Act or Condominium Act, and simplifying the collection of property taxes due on property owned by certain nonprofit homeowners associations, as recommended by the House Select Committee on Homeowners Associations.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Sections 1 and 6 create a new G.S. 47F-3-116.1 in the Planned Community Act (PCA) and a corresponding new G.S. 47C-3-116.1 in the Condominium Act (CA) to:

- require an association that has filed a claim of lien for unpaid assessments to acknowledge satisfaction of the claim of lien within 30 days after the association receives full payment or performance of the debt;
- make the association liable for actual but not punitive damages if it fails to acknowledge satisfaction of the debt as required; and
- makes the association liable for $1,000, reasonable attorneys' fees and court costs if the lot owner both notifies the association of full payment and demands an acknowledge of satisfaction with the clerk of superior court, and the association fails to acknowledge satisfaction with the clerk within 30 days of receipt of the lot owner's demand.

Sections 2(a) and 7(a) eliminate current provisions in the PCA and CA which permit a more extensive review or audit of the association's financial records upon a majority vote or the executive board or owners.

Sections 2(b) and 7(b) create new sections in the PCA and CA which require the board of directors to provide for an annual independent financial review of the association, or an audit in lieu of a review if the governing documents require an audit, the association has annual revenues or expenditures of at least $400,000, or upon a majority vote of the board or unit owners.

Sections 3 and 8 add a requirement that meeting notices include notice of "any material matter for which a vote is to be taken."

Sections 4(a) and 9(a) repeal the current sections pertaining to voting.

Sections 4(b) and 9(b) add new sections prescribing the specific procedures for voting at a meeting, whether by absentee ballot, by proxy, or without a meeting.

Sections 5 and 10 add sections allowing parties to resolve disputes through the use of alternative dispute resolution using certified mediators.

Sections 11.(a) and 11.(b) provide that the value of real and personal property owned by a nonprofit homeowners' association (HOA) must be included in the appraisals of property owned by members of the HOA and not be assessed against the HOA if:

- all property owned by the HOA is held for the use, benefit, and enjoyment of all members of the HOA equally;
- each member of the HOA has an irrevocable right to use and enjoy all the property owned by the HOA subject to the rules, regulations or bylaws of the HOA; and
- each irrevocable right to use and enjoy all the property owned by the HOA is appurtenant to taxable real property owned by a member of the HOA.

This section is effective for taxes imposed for taxable years beginning on or after July 1, 2012.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act becomes effective July 1, 2012.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

PART I. AMENDMENTS TO PLANNED COMMUNITY ACT

SECTION 1. Article 3 of Chapter 47F of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 47F-3-116.1. Associations with claim of lien to file notice of satisfaction with clerk of court upon full payment; liability for failure.

(a) An association that has filed a claim of lien pursuant to G.S. 47F-3-116 shall acknowledge satisfaction of the claim of lien securing the debt within 30 days after the association receives full payment or performance of the debt, as provided in this section. The association shall file with the clerk of court a notice of satisfaction of lien signed by the association's agent or attorney, whereupon the clerk of superior court shall forthwith make upon the record of the claim of lien on real property an entry of acknowledgment of satisfaction.

(b) An association that fails to acknowledge satisfaction of a claim of lien pursuant to this section by the end of the period specified in subsection (a) of this section is liable to the lot owner for any actual damages caused by the failure, but not for punitive damages.

(c) An association that is required to acknowledge satisfaction of a claim of lien pursuant to this section and does not do so by the end of the period specified in subsection (a) of this section is also liable to the lot owner for one thousand dollars ($1,000) and any reasonable attorneys' fees and court costs incurred if, after the expiration of the period specified in subsection (a) of this section, both of the following occur:

(1) The lot owner gives the association a notification, by certified mail and first-class mail, that provides proof the association has received full payment, demanding that the association acknowledge satisfaction with the clerk of superior court.

(2) The association does not acknowledge satisfaction with the clerk of superior court within 30 days after the association's receipt of the notification from the lot owner."

SECTION 2.(a) G.S. 47F-3-118(a) reads as rewritten:

"§ 47F-3-118. Association records.

(a) The association shall keep financial records sufficiently detailed to enable the association to comply with this Chapter. All financial and other records, including records of meetings of the association and executive board, shall be made reasonably available for examination by any lot owner and the lot owner's authorized agents as required in the bylaws and Chapter 55A of the General Statutes. If the bylaws do not specify particular records to be maintained, the association shall keep accurate records of all cash receipts and expenditures and all assets and liabilities. In addition to any specific information that is required by the bylaws to be assembled and reported to the lot owners at specified times, the association shall make an annual income and expense statement and balance sheet available to all lot owners at no charge and within 75 days after the close of the fiscal year to which the information relates. ~~Notwithstanding the bylaws, a more extensive compilation, review, or audit of the association's books and records for the current or immediately preceding fiscal year may be required by a vote of the majority of the executive board or by the affirmative vote of a majority of the lot owners present and voting in person or by proxy at any annual meeting or any special meeting duly called for that purpose.~~"

SECTION 2.(b) Article 3 of Chapter 47F of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 47F-3-118A. Financial review or audit requirements.

(a) Except as provided in subsection (b) of this section, the board of directors shall provide for an annual independent financial review of the association. The review shall be completed no later than 90 days after the end of the association's fiscal year and shall be made available upon request to the lot owners within 30 days after its completion.

(b) The board of directors shall provide for an annual independent financial audit of the association, in lieu of an annual independent financial review, if any of the following conditions are met:

(1) The declaration, bylaws, or other governing documents expressly require conduct of an annual financial audit.

(2) The association has annual revenues or expenditures of at least four hundred thousand dollars ($400,000).

(3) An audit is requested by a vote of a majority of the board or by a vote of a majority of the lot owners present and voting in person or by proxy at any annual meeting or any special meeting duly called for that purpose."

SECTION 3. G.S. 47F-3-108(a) reads as rewritten:

"§ 47F-3-108. Meetings.

(a) A meeting of the association shall be held at least once each year. Special meetings of the association may be called by the president, a majority of the executive board, or by lot owners having ten percent (10%), or any lower percentage specified in the bylaws, of the votes in the association. Not less than 10 nor more than 60 days in advance of any meeting, the secretary or other officer specified in the bylaws shall cause notice to be hand-delivered or sent prepaid by United States mail to the mailing address of each lot or to any other mailing address designated in writing by the lot owner, or sent by electronic means, including by electronic mail over the Internet, to an electronic mailing address designated in writing by the lot owner. The notice of any meeting shall state the time and place of the meeting and the items on the agenda, including the general nature of any proposed amendment to the declaration or bylaws, any budget changes, ~~and~~ any proposal to remove a director or ~~officer.~~officer, and any material matter for which a vote is to be taken."

SECTION 4.(a) G.S. 47F-3-110 is repealed.

SECTION 4.(b) Article 3 of Chapter 47F of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 47F-3-110A. Voting; proxies; ballots.

(a) Unless prohibited or limited by the declaration or bylaws, lot owners may vote at a meeting in person, by absentee ballot pursuant to subsection (b)(4) of the section, by a proxy pursuant to subsection (c) of the section, or, when a vote is conducted without a meeting, by electronic or paper ballot pursuant to subsection (d) of this section.

(b) At a meeting of lot owners, the following requirements apply:

(1) Lot owners who are present in person may vote by voice vote, show of hands, standing, or any other method for accurately determining the votes of lot owners, as designated by the person presiding at the meeting.

(2) If only one of several owners of a lot is present, that owner is entitled to cast all the votes allocated to that lot. If more than one of the owners are present, the votes allocated to that lot may be cast only in accordance with the agreement of a majority in interest of the owners, unless the declaration expressly provides otherwise. There is majority agreement if any one of the owners casts the votes allocated to the lot without protest being made promptly to the person presiding over the meeting by any of the other owners of the lot.

(3) Unless a greater number or fraction of the votes in the association is required for a particular matter to be voted on by this Chapter or the declaration, a majority of the votes cast determines the outcome of any action of the association.

(4) Subject to subsection (a) of this section, a lot owner may vote by absentee ballot without being present at the meeting. The association promptly shall deliver an absentee ballot to an owner that requests it if the request is made at least seven days before the scheduled meeting. Votes cast by absentee ballot must be included in the tally of a vote taken at that meeting.

(5) When a lot owner votes by absentee ballot, the association must be able to verify that the ballot is cast by the lot owner having the right to do so.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in the declaration or bylaws, the following requirements apply with respect to proxy voting:

(1) Votes allocated to a lot may be cast pursuant to a directed or undirected proxy duly executed by a lot owner.

(2) If a lot is owned by more than one person, each owner of the lot may vote or register protest to the casting of votes by the other owners of the lot through a duly executed proxy.

(3) A lot owner may revoke a proxy given pursuant to this section only by actual notice of revocation to the person presiding over a meeting of the association.

(4) A proxy is void if it is not dated, if it purports to be revocable without notice, or if it is given in favor of a board member.

(5) A proxy is valid only for the meeting at which it is cast and any recessed session of that meeting.

(6) A proxy may be used to achieve the required quorum at a meeting.

(7) A proxy is valid only if the nature of the matter for which the vote is to be taken is stated in the notice as required by G.S. 47F-3-108(a).

(8) A person may not cast proxies representing more than fifteen percent (15%) of the votes in the association.

(d) Unless prohibited or limited by the declaration or bylaws, an association may conduct a vote without a meeting. In that event, the following requirements apply:

(1) The association shall notify the lot owners that the vote will be taken by ballot.

(2) The association shall deliver a paper or electronic ballot to every lot owner entitled to vote on the matter.

(3) The ballot must set forth each proposed action and provide an opportunity to vote for or against the action.

(4) When the association delivers the ballots, the association shall do all of the following:

a. Indicate the number of responses needed to meet the quorum requirements.

b. State the percent of votes necessary to approve each matter other than election of directors.

c. Specify the time and date, not fewer than seven days after the date the association delivers the ballot, by which a ballot must be delivered to the association to be counted.

d. Describe the time, date, and manner by which lot owners wishing to deliver information to all lot owners regarding the subject of the vote may do so.

(5) Except as otherwise provided in the declaration or bylaws, a ballot is not revoked after delivery to the association by death or disability or attempted revocation by the person that cast that vote.

(6) Approval by ballot pursuant to this subsection is valid only if the number of votes cast by ballot equals or exceeds the quorum required to be present at a meeting authorizing the action.

(e) If the declaration requires that votes on specified matters affecting the planned community be cast by lessees rather than lot owners of leased lots, (i) the provisions of this section apply to lessees as if they were lot owners; (ii) lot owners who have leased their lots to other persons may not cast votes on those specified matters; and (iii) lessees are entitled to notice of meetings, access to records, and other rights respecting those matters as if they were lot owners. Lot owners shall also be given notice, in the manner provided in G.S. 47F-3-108, of all meetings at which lessees may be entitled to vote.

(f) No votes allocated to a lot owned by the association may be cast.

(g) The declaration may provide that, on specified issues, only a defined subgroup of lot owners may vote, provided:

(1) The issue being voted on is of special interest solely to the members of the subgroup; and

(2) All except de minimis cost that will be incurred based on the vote taken will be assessed solely against those lot owners entitled to vote.

(h) For purposes of subdivision (1) of subsection (g) of this section, an issue to be voted on is not a special interest solely to a subgroup if it substantially affects the overall appearance of the planned community or substantially affects living conditions of lot owners not included in the voting subgroup."

SECTION 5. Article 3 of Chapter 47F of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 47F-3-120.1. Alternative dispute resolution allowed.

Parties to a dispute arising under this Chapter or an association's declaration, bylaws, or rules and regulations may agree to resolve the dispute by any form of binding or nonbinding alternative dispute resolution, except that a declarant may agree with the association to do so only after the period of declarant control has expired. Parties electing to use alternative dispute resolution for disputes arising under this Chapter shall use only mediators certified by the Dispute Resolution Commission. An agreement to submit to any form of binding alternative dispute resolution must be in a record authenticated by the parties."

PART II. AMENDMENTS TO CONDOMINIUM ACT

SECTION 6. Article 3 of Chapter 47C of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 47C-3-116.1. Associations with claim of lien to file notice of satisfaction with clerk of court upon full payment; liability for failure.

(a) An association that has filed a claim of lien pursuant to G.S. 47C-3-116 shall acknowledge satisfaction of the claim of lien securing the debt within 30 days after the association receives full payment or performance of the debt, as provided in this section. The association shall file with the clerk of court a notice of satisfaction of lien signed by the association's agent or attorney, whereupon the clerk of superior court shall forthwith make upon the record of the claim of lien on real property an entry of acknowledgment of satisfaction.

(b) An association that fails to acknowledge satisfaction of a claim of lien pursuant to this section by the end of the period specified in subsection (a) of this section is liable to the unit owner for any actual damages caused by the failure, but not for punitive damages.

(c) An association that is required to acknowledge satisfaction of a claim of lien pursuant to this section and does not do so by the end of the period specified in subsection (a) of this section is also liable to the lot owner for one thousand dollars ($1,000) and any reasonable attorneys' fees and court costs incurred if, after the expiration of the period specified in subsection (a) of this section, both of the following occur:

(1) The lot owner gives the association a notification, by certified mail and first-class mail, that provides proof the association has received full payment, demanding that the association acknowledge satisfaction with the clerk of superior court.

(2) The association does not acknowledge satisfaction with the clerk of superior court within 30 days after the association's receipt of the notification from the lot owner."

All financial and other records, including records of meetings of the association and executive board, shall be made reasonably available for examination by any unit owner and the unit owner's authorized agents as required by the bylaws and by Chapter 55A of the General Statutes if the association is a nonprofit corporation. If the bylaws do not specify particular records to be maintained, the association shall keep accurate records of all cash receipts and expenditures and all assets and liabilities. In addition to any specific information that is required by the bylaws to be assembled and reported to the unit owners at specified times, the association shall make an annual income and expense statement and balance sheet available to all unit owners at no charge and within 75 days after the close of the fiscal year to which the information relates. ~~Notwithstanding the bylaws, a more extensive compilation, review, or audit of the association's books and records for the current or immediately preceding fiscal year may be required by a vote of the majority of the executive board or by the affirmative vote of a majority of the unit owners present and voting in person or by proxy at any annual meeting or any special meeting duly called for that purpose.~~"

SECTION 7.(b) Article 3 of Chapter 47C of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 47C-3-103A. Budgets; financial review or audit requirements.

The review shall be completed no later than 90 days after the end of the association's fiscal year and shall be made available upon request to the unit owners within 30 days after its completion.

(a) Receipt Required. – A secondary metals recycler shall issue a receipt for all purchase transactions in which the secondary metals recycler purchases regulated metals property. This receipt shall be issued to and signed by the person delivering the property, and the secondary metals recycler shall be able to provide documentation regarding the employee who completed the transaction.

(b) Records Required. – A secondary metals recycler shall maintain a record of all purchase transactions in which the secondary metals recycler purchases regulated metals property. The record of each transaction shall contain the following information:

(1) The name and address of the secondary metals recycler.

(2) The name, initials, or other identification of the individual entering the information.

(3) The date of the transaction.

(4) The weight of the regulated metals property purchased.

(5) The description made in accordance with the custom of the trade of the type of regulated metals property purchased and the physical address where the regulated metals were obtained by the seller and the date when purchased, and a statement signed by the seller or the seller's agent certifying that the seller or the seller's agent has the lawful right to sell and dispose of the property.

(6) The amount of consideration given for the regulated metals property.

(7) The name and address of the vendor of the regulated metals property and the license plate number, make, model, and color of the vehicle used to deliver the regulated metals.

(8) A photocopy or electronic scan of the unexpired drivers license or state or federally issued photo identification card of the person delivering the regulated metals property to the secondary metals recycler. If the secondary metals recycler has a copy of the valid photo identification of the person delivering the regulated metals property on file, the secondary metals recycler must examine the photo identification and verify that it has not expired, but may reference the photo identification that is on file without making a separate photocopy or electronic scan for each subsequent transaction. If the person delivering the regulated metals property does not have an unexpired drivers license or an unexpired state or federally issued photo identification card, the secondary metals recycler shall not complete the transaction.

(9) A copy of the receipt required under subsection (a) of this section when all the information required under subsection (a) of this section is clear and legible or, in the event the copy of the receipt is not clear or not legible, the original receipt.

(10) A video or digital photograph of the seller together with the regulated metals property being delivered by the seller. The video or photograph required by this section shall be of a quality that is sufficient to allow a person of ordinary faculties to identify the person recorded or photographed.

(11) In transactions involving catalytic converters that are not attached to a vehicle, and central air conditioner evaporator coils or condensers, the person delivering the materials shall place next to that person's signature on the receipt required under subsection (a) of this section, a clear impression of that person's index finger that is in ink and free of any smearing. A secondary metals recycler may elect to obtain the fingerprint electronically. If the secondary metals recycler has a copy of the fingerprint of the person delivering the nonferrous metal on file, the secondary metals recycler must examine the photo identification, but may reference the fingerprint that is on file without making a separate fingerprint for each subsequent transaction.

"§ 66-417. Inspection of regulated metals property and records.

(a) Retention of Records. – A secondary metals recycler shall keep and maintain the information required under G.S. 66-416(b) for not less than two years from the date of the purchase of the regulated metals property. Records shall be securely maintained at all times and shall be destroyed in a manner that protects the identity of the owner of the property, the seller of the property, and the purchaser of the property.

(b) Inspection of Regulated Metals Property and Records. – During the usual and customary business hours of a secondary metals recycler, a law enforcement officer shall have the right to inspect all of the following:

(1) Any and all purchased regulated metals property in the possession of the secondary metals recycler.

(2) Any and all records required to be maintained under G.S. 66-416(b).

(c) Making Receipts Available for Inspection by Law Enforcement. – A secondary metals recycler shall make receipts for the purchase of regulated metals property available for pickup each regular workday if requested by the sheriff or chief of police of the county or the chief of police of the municipality in which the secondary metals recycler is located. The sheriff or the chief of police may request these receipts to be electronically transferred directly to the law enforcement agency. Records retained by a law enforcement agency shall be securely retained as required by law and destroyed in a manner that protects the identity of the owner of the property, the seller of the property, and the purchaser of the property.

(d) Records Are Not Public. – Records submitted to any public law enforcement agency pursuant to this section are records of criminal investigations or records of criminal intelligence information as defined in G.S. 132-1.4 and are not public records as defined by G.S. 132-1.

"§ 66-418. Hold notices for nonferrous metals; retention of nonferrous metals.

(a) Hold Notices. – When a law enforcement officer has reasonable suspicion to believe that any item of nonferrous metal in the possession of a nonferrous metals purchaser has been stolen, the law enforcement officer may issue a hold notice to the nonferrous metals purchaser. The hold notice must be in writing, be delivered to the nonferrous metals purchaser, specifically identify those items of nonferrous metal that are believed to have been stolen and that are subject to the notice, and inform the nonferrous metals purchaser of the information contained in this section. Upon receipt of the notice, the nonferrous metals purchaser must not process or remove the items of nonferrous metal identified in the notice, or any portion thereof, from the secondary metal recycler's fixed site for 15 calendar days after receipt of the notice unless released prior to the 15-day period by the law enforcement officer. A hold notice may be renewed for an additional 30 days by the law enforcement officer. A renewal must satisfy the same requirements as an initial hold notice in order to be valid.

(b) Retention of Nonferrous Metals. – Any secondary metals recycler owner convicted of a felonious violation of this Article, G.S. 14-71, 14-71.1, or 14-72 shall hold and retain nonferrous metals for seven days from the date of purchase before selling, dismantling, crushing, defacing, or in any manner altering or disposing of the regulated metals property.

"§ 66-419. Prohibited activities and transactions.

(a) A secondary metals recycler shall not do any of the following:

(1) Operate any business that cashes checks at a fixed site at which the secondary metals recycler purchases regulated metals property.

(2) Purchase nonferrous metals for the purpose of recycling the nonferrous metals, unless the nonferrous metals purchaser possesses a valid permit.

(3) Purchase any central air conditioner evaporator coils or condensers, or catalytic converters that are not attached to a vehicle, except that a secondary metals recycler may purchase these items from a company, contractor, or individual that is in the business of installing, replacing, maintaining, or removing these items.

(4) Purchase any regulated metals property that the secondary metals recycler knows or reasonably should know to be stolen.

(b) It shall be unlawful to transport or possess on highways of this State an amount of copper weighing in the aggregate more than 25 pounds, unless at least one of the following is true:

(1) The vehicle is used in the ordinary course of business for the purpose of transporting nonferrous metals. This term includes vehicles used by gas, electric, communications, water, plumbing, electrical, and climate conditioning service providers, and their employees, agents, and contractors, in the course of providing these services.

(2) The person transporting or possessing the copper possesses, and presents when requested, a valid bill of sale for the copper.

(3) A law enforcement officer determines that the copper is not stolen and is in the rightful possession of the person.

(c) A secondary metals recycler shall not purchase any of the following:

(1) Any regulated metal marked with the initials or other identification of a telephone, cable, electric, water, or other public utility, or any brewer.

(2) Any utility access cover.

(3) Any street light pole or fixture.
(4) Any road or bridge guard rail.
(5) Any highway or street sign.
(6) Any water meter cover.
(7) Any metal beer keg, including any made of stainless steel that is clearly marked as being the property of the beer manufacturer.
(8) Any traffic directional or control sign.
(9) Any traffic light signal.
(10) Any regulated metal marked with the name of a government entity.
(11) Any spikes, plates, or other railroad track components or signs, and any property owned by a railroad and marked and otherwise identified as such.
(12) Any historical marker or any grave marker or burial vase.

"§ 66-420. Permissible payment methods for nonferrous metals purchasers.

(a) Limitation on Cash Purchases. – No nonferrous metals purchaser shall enter into a cash transaction for the purchase of copper, and no nonferrous metals purchaser shall purchase any nonferrous metal property for any cash consideration greater than one hundred dollars ($100.00) per transaction. Any payment in excess of one hundred dollars ($100.00) per transaction shall be made by check, money order or cash card system. A nonferrous metals purchaser shall not make more than one cash purchase per day from any individual, business, corporation or partnership.

"§ 66-421. Issuance of nonferrous metals purchase permits by Sheriff; form; fees; recordkeeping.

(a) Issuance of Permits. – The sheriff of each county shall issue a nonferrous metals purchase permit to an applicant if the applicant (i) has a fixed site in the sheriff's county; (ii) declares on a form provided by the sheriff that the applicant is informed of and will comply with the provisions of this Part; (iii) does not have a permit that has been revoked pursuant to G.S. 66-324(b) at the time of the application; and (iv) has not been convicted of more than three violations of this Part. A permit shall be valid for 12 months and shall be valid only for fixed sites in the county of issuance. A permit shall be obtained for each fixed site at which nonferrous metals are purchased.

(b) Form. – The Attorney General shall prescribe a standard application form and a standard permit form to be used by sheriffs. The permit form shall contain, at a minimum, the date of issuance and the name and address of the permit holder.

"§ 66-422. Exemptions.

This Part does not apply to:

(1) Purchases of regulated metals property from a manufacturing, industrial, government, or other commercial vendor that generates or sells regulated metals property in the ordinary course of its business.
(2) Purchases of regulated metals property that involve only beverage containers, except that G.S. 66-418 shall apply in that case.

"§ 66-423. Preemption.

A county or municipality shall not enact any local law, ordinance, or regulation regulating secondary metals recyclers or regulated metals property that conflicts with this Part, and this Part preempts all existing laws, ordinances, or regulations that conflict with it.

"§ 66-424. Violations.

(a) Punishment Generally. – Unless the conduct is covered by some other provision of law providing greater punishment, any person knowingly and willfully violating any of the provisions of this Part shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor for a first offense. A second or subsequent violation of this Part is a Class I felony.

(b) Revocation of Permits. – If the owner or the employees of a fixed site are convicted of an aggregate of three or more violations of this Part within a 10 year period, the permit associated with that fixed site shall be immediately revoked by the sheriff for a period of six months. Any attempt to circumvent this subsection by procuring a permit through a family member shall result in extension of the revocation period for an additional 18 months.

"§ 66-425. Restitution.

The court may order a defendant to make restitution to the secondary metals recycler or property owner, as appropriate, for any damage or loss caused by the defendant and arising out of a violation of G.S. 14-71, G.S. 14-71.1, G.S. 14-72, G.S.14-159.4, G.S. 66-419(a) (3), or G.S. 66-419(a)(4) committed by the defendant."

SECTION 29. G.S. 66-11.2(a), as recodified by Section 27 of this act, reads as rewritten:

"§ 66-426. Forfeiture of vehicles used to transport unlawfully obtained regulated metals property.

(a) Vehicles which are used or intended for use to convey or transport, or in any manner to facilitate the conveyance or transportation of unlawfully obtained regulated metals property, as defined by this ~~Article,~~Part, are subject to forfeiture, except that:

(1) No conveyance shall be forfeited under the provisions of this section by reason of any act or omission, committed or omitted while such conveyance was unlawfully in the possession of a person other than the owner in violation of the criminal laws of the United States, or of any state;

(2) No conveyance shall be forfeited unless the violation involved is a felony;

(3) A forfeiture of a vehicle encumbered by a bona fide security interest is subject to the interest of the secured party who had no knowledge of or consented to the act or omission;

(4) No conveyance shall be forfeited under the provisions of this section unless the owner knew or had reason to believe the vehicle was being used in the commission of any violation that may subject the conveyance to forfeiture under this section."

SECTION 30. G.S. 20-62.1(a) reads as rewritten:

"§ 20-62.1. Purchase of vehicles for purposes of scrap or parts only.

(a) Records for Scrap or Parts. – A secondary metals recycler, as defined in ~~G.S. 66-11(a)(3),~~G.S. 66-415(8), and a salvage yard, as defined in G.S. 20-137.7(6), purchasing motor vehicles solely for the purposes of dismantling or wrecking such motor vehicles for the recovery of scrap metal or for the sale of parts only, must comply with the provision of G.S. 20-61, provided, however, that a secondary metals recycler or salvage yard may purchase a motor vehicle without a certificate of title, if the motor vehicle is 10 model years old or older and the secondary metals recycler or salvage yard comply with the following requirements:

SECTION 31. Article 22 of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 14-159.4. Cutting, mutilating, defacing, or otherwise injuring property to obtain nonferrous metals.

(a) Definition of Nonferrous Metals. – For purposes of this section, the term "nonferrous metals" means metals not containing significant quantities of iron or steel, including, but not limited to, copper wire, copper clad steel wire, copper pipe, copper bars, copper sheeting, aluminum other than aluminum cans, a product that is a mixture of aluminum and copper, catalytic converters, lead-acid batteries, and stainless steel beer kegs or containers.

(b) Prohibited Act. – It is unlawful for a person to willfully and wantonly cut, mutilate, deface, or otherwise injure any personal or real property of another, including any fixtures or improvements, for the purpose of obtaining nonferrous metals in any amount.

(c) Punishment. – Violations of this section are punishable as follows:

(1) Default. – If the direct injury is to property, and the amount of loss in value to the property, the amount of repairs necessary to return the property to its condition before the act, or the property loss (including fixtures or improvements) is less than one thousand dollars ($1,000), a violation shall be punishable as a Class 1 misdemeanor. If the applicable amount is one thousand dollars ($1,000) or more, but less than ten thousand dollars ($10,000), a violation shall be punishable as a Class H felony. If the applicable amount is ten thousand dollars ($10,000) or more, a violation shall be deemed an aggravated offense and shall be punishable as a Class F felony.

(2) When person suffers serious injury. – Unless the conduct is covered under some other provision of law providing greater punishment, a violation of this section that results in a serious injury to another person is punishable as a Class A1 misdemeanor.

(3) When person suffers a serious bodily injury. – Unless the conduct is covered under some other provision of law providing greater punishment, a violation of this section that results in serious bodily injury to another person is punishable as a Class F felony. For purposes of this subdivision, "serious bodily injury" is as defined in G.S. 14-32.4.

(4) When person is killed. – Unless the conduct is covered under some other provision of law providing greater punishment, a violation of this section that results in the death of another person is punishable as a Class D felony.

(5) When critical infrastructure affected. – Unless the conduct is covered under some other provision of law providing greater punishment, a violation of this section that results in the disruption of communication or electrical service to critical infrastructure or to more than 10 customers of the communication or electrical service is guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor.

(d) Liability. – This section does not create or impose a duty of care upon the owner of personal or real property that would not otherwise exist under common law. A public or private owner of personal or real property shall not be civilly liable:

(1) To a person who is injured while committing or attempting to commit a violation of this section.

(2) To a person who is injured while a third party is committing or attempting to commit a violation of this section.

(3) For a person's injuries caused by a dangerous condition created as a result of a violation of this section, when the owner does not know and could not have reasonably known of the dangerous condition."

SECTION 32. Pawnbroker licenses and permits to engage as a dealer in the business of purchasing precious metals that are valid on the effective date of this act shall continue in force until the natural expiration thereof, unless otherwise revoked or suspended in accordance with applicable law.

SECTION 33. This act becomes effective October 1, 2012, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date. Prosecutions for offenses committed before the effective date of this act are not abated or affected by this act, and the statutes that would be applicable but for this act remain applicable to those prosecutions.

HOUSE BILL 199:
Metal Theft Prevention Act of 2012

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	House Judiciary Subcommittee C	Date:	June 14, 2012
Introduced by:	Rep. Rhyne	Prepared by:	Wendy Graf Ray
Analysis of:	Fourth Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 199 would recodify the provisions of the General Statutes pertaining to the regulation of precious metals businesses, pawnbrokers and cash converters, and secondary metals recyclers. It would require the permitting of nonferrous metals purchasers, make it a crime to cut, mutilate, deface, or otherwise injure the property of another to obtain nonferrous metals and create other related criminal offenses, and make other related changes.

CURRENT LAW: Pawnbrokers and Cash Converters are currently regulated under Chapter 91A of the General Statutes. Precious Metal Businesses and Secondary Metals Recyclers are regulated under Chapter 66 of the General Statutes (Commerce and Business).

Under current law, recyclers must issue a receipt to individuals who deliver regulated metals for recycling. Receipts for catalytic converters and central air conditioner evaporator coils or condensers must bear the fingerprint of the individual who delivered the item for recycling. Law enforcement officers may request electronic transfer of secondary metals recycler receipts. Recyclers may not purchase catalytic converters not attached to vehicles and central air conditioner evaporator coils or condensers, except from companies that are in the business of replacing the items. Purchases for more than $100 must be paid by check or money order, and a photograph of the individual selling the items must be maintained by the recycler for 90 days. Secondary metals recyclers are prohibited from purchasing any metal with an identification mark or name of a utility, railroad company, brewer, or government entity; they are also prohibited from purchasing utility access covers, street light poles, guard rails, street signs, water meter covers, traffic signals and signs, historical or grave markers, or metal beer kegs. The prohibitions do not apply to purchases of beverage containers, or of regulated metals or metals from an entity that generates or sells the regulated property in the ordinary course of business.

BILL ANALYSIS: Sections 1-14 of the bill would recodify the provisions of the General Statutes pertaining to the regulation of pawnbrokers and cash converters.

Sections 15-23 would recodify provisions of the General Statutes pertaining to the regulation of precious metal businesses.

Sections 24-25, and Section 30 make technical changes that are necessary as a result of the recodification.

Section 26 would repeal existing law concerning the regulation of secondary metals recyclers, and Sections 27 and 29 would recodify and make a technical change to an existing provision concerning the forfeiture of vehicles used to transport unlawfully obtained regulated metals property.

Section 28 of the bill provides for the regulation of sales and purchases of metals. The bill would do the following:

- Require secondary metals recyclers to issue receipts when purchasing regulated metals property. Receipts must be issued to and signed by the person delivering the property.

- Require secondary metals recyclers to maintain a record of purchase transactions; records must contain specified information and be kept for a period of at least 2 years from the date of purchase.
- Authorize law enforcement to inspect regulated metals property in possession of the secondary metals recycler, and all records in possession of the recycler. Receipts would be available for pickup by law enforcement, or transmitted electronically to the law enforcement agency.
- Provide for the holding of property suspected to be stolen.
- Prohibit secondary metals recyclers from making cash payments for copper, and also prohibit cash payments of more than $50. Payments in excess of $50 could be made only by check or money order.
- Require the issuance of purchase permits by the county sheriff. A permittee would be required to have a fixed site in the county where the permit is to be issued. Permits would be valid for 12 months. No fee would be charged for the permit.
- Make knowing and willful violations punishable as a Class 1 misdemeanor for a first offense; 2nd or subsequent violations would be a Class I felony.
- Provide for the revocation of a purchase permit for 3 or more violations.
- Provide for restitution by the defendant.

Section 31 makes it a criminal offense to cut, mutilate, deface, or otherwise injure the real or personal property of another to obtain nonferrous metals. Violations are punishable as prescribed, ranging from a Class 1 misdemeanor to a Class D felony depending upon the amount of property loss and whether the violation results in the injury or death of a person.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The bill would become effective December 1, 2012 and apply to offenses committed on or after that date.

This fiscal analysis is independent of the impact of other criminal penalty bills being considered by the General Assembly, which could also increase the projected prison population and thus the availability of prison beds in future years. The Fiscal Research Division is tracking the cumulative effect of all criminal penalty bills on the prison system as well as the Judicial Department.*

BILL SUMMARY:

The proposed legislation strengthens nonferrous metals theft prevention by (1) requiring permitting of nonferrous metals sellers and purchasers and (2) making it a crime to cut, mutilate, deface, or otherwise injure the property of another to obtain nonferrous metals. The bill requires that receipts and records be kept by secondary metals recyclers, which the bill defines as any firm or corporation that collects used ferrous or nonferrous metals for the purpose of reusing them, converts such metals into raw materials, or has the necessary equipment to convert such metals into raw materials. The bill also provides criminal penalties for various offenses related to the sale, purchase, transport, and possession of nonferrous metals. The proposed legislation defines nonferrous metal as metals not containing significant quantities of iron or steel, such as copper, aluminum other than aluminum cans, catalytic converters, or stainless steel beer kegs or containers.

ASSUMPTIONS AND METHODOLOGY:

General

The Sentencing and Policy Advisory Commission prepares prison population projections for each bill containing a criminal penalty. The Commission assumes for such bills that expanding existing or creating new criminal offenses produces no deterrent or incapacitative effect on crime. Therefore, the Fiscal Research Division does not assume deterrent effects for any criminal penalty bill.

S.L. 2011-192 (H.B. 642), the Justice Reinvestment Act (JRA), makes changes to North Carolina's court system, corrections system (both to prisons and probation), and to post-release supervision. The Act also creates a statewide confinement program for housing misdemeanants with sentences of less than 180 days in county jails. Previously, county jails were only required to house misdemeanants with sentences of fewer than 90 days. In addition, all F-I felons are subject to nine months of post-release supervision (PRS). B1-E felony PRS is increased from nine months to twelve months. Due to the lack of historical data about JRA implementation, it is not possible to estimate the number of prison beds that would be needed as a result of revocations that would occur during the PRS period.

Judicial Branch

The Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC) provides Fiscal Research with a fiscal impact analysis for most criminal penalty bills. For such bills, fiscal impact is typically based on the assumption that court time will increase due to anticipated increases in trials and corresponding increases in workload for judges, clerks, and prosecutors. This increased court time is also expected to result in greater expenditures for jury fees and indigent defense.

The proposed legislation's creation of new criminal offenses will create increased criminal filings. Because these are new offenses, AOC is unable to anticipate the number of persons that will be charged with these new offenses created by the proposed G.S. 66-397 and is therefore unable to predict the fiscal impact of these provisions.

Department of Public Safety – Prison Section

The proposed legislation would impact the need for prison beds and Post-Release Supervision (PRS) caseloads. Due to the lack of historical data under Justice Reinvestment Act (JRA), it is not possible to estimate the number of prison beds that would be needed as a result of PRS revocations. It is also not known how many offenders may be repeat offenders under the proposed statue.

The lack of an AOC offense code is some indication that this offense is infrequently charged and/or infrequently results in convictions. Therefore, the repeal of G.S. 66-11 is not expected to have an impact on the prison population.

Since the proposed section creates a new offense, the Sentencing Commission does not have any historical data from which to estimate the impact of this section on the prison population. It is not known how many offenders might be convicted and sentenced under the proposed section. Since Part 1 of Article 45 is substantially similar to G.S. 66-11, it is not expected to have a significant impact on the prison population.

Violations of Part 1 of Article 45 of the proposed legislation are punishable as Class 2 misdemeanors. In addition, commissions of perjury in order to obtain a nonferrous metals permit are punishable as Class 2 misdemeanors. In FY 2010-11, 27 percent of Class 2 misdemeanor convictions resulted in active sentences. The average sentence imposed for Class 2 convictions was 22 days. In FY 2010-11, 25 percent of Class 1 misdemeanor convictions resulted in active sentences. The average sentence imposed for Class 1 convictions was 41 days. The impact on local jails is unknown.

Violations of Part 3 of Article 45 and certain amendments to Section 31 are punishable as Class 1 misdemeanors. In FY 2010-11, 25 percent of Class 1 misdemeanor convictions resulted in active sentences. The average sentence imposed for Class 1 convictions was 41 days. Structured Sentencing misdemeanants who receive an active sentence of 180 days or less are housed in county jails. Therefore, convictions for this proposed offense would not be expected to have any significant impact on the prison population. The impact on local jail populations is not known.

The amendments to Section 31 made by the proposed bill makes mutilating or defacing property in an attempt to take nonferrous metal from that property a Class A1 misdemeanor if such actions result in injury to another person. In FY 2010-11, 33 percent of Class A1 misdemeanor convictions resulted in active sentences. The average sentence imposed for Class A1 convictions was 70 days.

Structured Sentencing misdemeanants who receive an active sentence of 180 days or less are housed in county. Therefore, convictions for this proposed offense would not be expected to have a significant impact on the prison population. The impact on the Statewide Misdemeanant Confinement Program and local jail populations is not known.

Subsequent violations of certain provisions of the proposed legislation are punishable as Class I felonies. It is not known how many offenders may be repeat offenders under the proposed statute and would be sentenced as Class I felons. Based on FY 2010-11 data and changes under the Justice Reinvestment Act (JRA), it is estimated that 18 percent of Class I convictions will result in active sentences, with an average estimated time served of 7 months. If, for example, there were 11 Class I convictions for this proposed offense per year, active sentences would result in the need for one additional prison bed the first year and one additional prison bed the second year.

The amendments to Section 31 made by the proposed bill makes mutilating or defacing property in an attempt to take nonferrous metal from that property a Class H felony if such actions result in injury to property in a value between $1,000 and $10,000. Based on FY 2010-11 data and changes under the Justice Reinvestment Act (JRA), it is estimated that 38 percent of Class H convictions will result in active sentences, with an average estimated time served of 10 months. If, for example, there were three Class H convictions for this proposed offense per year, active sentences would result in the need for one additional prison bed the first year and one additional prison bed the second year. In addition, since nine months of Post-Release Supervision (PRS) follows release from prison for offenders convicted of Class H felonies, there will be some impact on prison beds due to revocations (length of revocation period may vary). Due to the lack of historical data under JRA, it is not possible to estimate the number of prison beds that would be needed as a result of PRS revocations.

The amendments to Section 31 made by the proposed bill makes mutilating or defacing property in an attempt to take nonferrous metal from that property a Class F felony if such actions result in serious bodily injury to another person or if such actions result in injury to property worth a value that exceeds $10,000. Based on FY 2010-11 data and changes under the Justice Reinvestment Act (JRA), it is estimated that 54 percent of Class F convictions will result in active sentences, with an average estimated time served of 17 months. If, for example, there were two Class F convictions for this proposed offense per year, active sentences would result in the need for one additional prison bed the first year and two additional prison beds the second year.

The amendments to Section 31 made by the proposed bill makes mutilating or defacing property in an attempt to take nonferrous metal from that property a Class D felony if such actions result in the death of another person. Under Structured Sentencing, with the exception of extraordinary mitigation, all Class D offenders are required to receive an active sentence. In FY 2010-11 the average estimated time served for an offender convicted of a Class D offense was 70 months. If, for example, there was one conviction for this proposed offense per year, this proposed change would result in the need for one additional prison bed the first year and two additional prison beds the second year. In addition, since twelve months of Post-Release Supervision follows release from prison for offenders convicted of Class B1-E felonies, there will be some impact on Post-Release Supervision caseloads and prison beds due to revocations (length of revocation period may vary).

Department of Public Safety – Community Corrections Section

For felony offense classes E through I and all misdemeanor classes, offenders may be given non-active (intermediate or community) sentences exclusively, or in conjunction with imprisonment (split-sentence). Sanctions include electronic house arrest, community service, substance abuse treatment, participation in educational or vocational skills development, payment of court costs, fines, and restitution, and short-term jail sentences not exceeding six days per month.

Offenders given intermediate or community sanctions requiring supervision are supervised by the Community Corrections Section (CCS); CCS also oversees community service.[1] General supervision of intermediate and community offenders by a probation officer costs $3.57 per offender, per day; no cost is assumed for those receiving unsupervised probation, or who are only ordered to pay fines, fees, or restitution.

In FY 2010-11, one percent of Class 2 misdemeanants received intermediate sentences; and 72 percent received community punishments. The average lengths of intermediate and community punishment imposed for this offense class were 17 and 13 months, respectively. The notice shall include the employer's proposed written communication to the health care provider and the additional information to be submitted.

The fees adopted by the Commission in its schedule shall be adequate to ensure that (i) injured workers are provided the standard of services and care intended by this Chapter, (ii) providers are reimbursed reasonable fees for providing these services, and (iii) medical costs are adequately contained.

~~Prior to adoption of a fee schedule, the Commission shall publish notice of its intent to adopt the schedule in the North Carolina Register and hold a public hearing. The published notice shall include the location, date and time of the public hearing, the proposed effective date of the fee schedule, the period of time during which the Commission will receive written comments on the proposed schedule, and the person to whom comments and questions should be directed. In addition to publication in the North Carolina Register, the notice may be mailed to parties who have requested notice of the fee schedule hearing. The public hearing shall be~~

~~held no earlier than 15 days after the publication of the notice. The Commission shall receive written comments for at least 30 days or until the date of the public hearing, whichever is later, after which the Commission may adopt the fee schedule.~~

The Commission may consider any and all reimbursement systems and plans in establishing its fee schedule, including, but not limited to, the State Health Plan for Teachers and State Employees (hereinafter, "State Plan"), Blue Cross and Blue Shield, and any other private or governmental plans. The Commission may also consider any and all reimbursement methodologies, including, but not limited to, the use of current procedural terminology ("CPT") codes, diagnostic-related groupings ("DRGs"), per diem rates, capitated payments, and resource-based relative-value system ("RBRVS") payments. The Commission may consider statewide fee averages, geographical and community variations in provider costs, and any other factors affecting provider costs.

~~An appeal from a decision of the Commission establishing a fee schedule, by any party aggrieved thereby, shall be to the North Carolina Court of Appeals. The decision of the Commission shall be affirmed if supported by substantial evidence. For the purposes of the appeal, the Commission is a party.~~

(b) Hospital Fees. – Each hospital subject to the provisions of this subsection shall be reimbursed the amount provided for in this subsection unless it has agreed under contract with the insurer, managed care organization, employer (or other payor obligated to reimburse for inpatient hospital services rendered under this Chapter) to accept a different amount or reimbursement methodology.

Except as otherwise provided herein, payment for medical treatment and services rendered to workers' compensation patients by a hospital shall be a reasonable fee determined by the ~~Commission.~~ Commission and adopted by rule. Effective September 16, 2001, through June 30, 2002, the fee shall be the following amount unless the Commission adopts a different fee schedule in accordance with the provisions of this section:

The payment shall not be more than a maximum of one hundred percent (100%) of the hospital's itemized charges as shown on the UB-92 claim form nor less than the minimum percentage for payment of inpatient DRG claims that was in effect as of June 30, 2001.

(2) For outpatient hospital services and any other services that were reimbursed as a discount off of charges under the State Plan as of June 30, 2001, the amount calculated by the Commission as a percentage of the hospital charges for such services. The percentage applicable to each hospital shall be the percentage used by the Commission to determine outpatient rates for each hospital as of June 30, 2001.

(3) For any other services, a reasonable fee as determined by the Industrial Commission.

~~Notwithstanding any other provisions of law, the Commission's determination of payment rates under this subsection shall:~~

~~(1) Comply with the procedures for adoption of a fee schedule established in G.S. 97-26(a);~~

~~(2) Include publication of the proposed payment rate, and a summary of the data and calculations on which the rate is based at least 90 days before the proposed effective date;~~

~~(3) Be subject to the declaratory ruling provisions of G.S. 150B-4; and~~

~~(4) Be deemed to constitute a final permanent rule under Article 2A of Chapter 150B for purposes of judicial review under Article 4 of that Chapter.~~

The explanation of the fee schedule change that is published pursuant to G.S. 150B-21.2(c)(2) shall include a summary of the data and calculations on which the fee schedule rate is based.

A hospital's itemized charges on the UB-92 claim form for workers' compensation services shall be the same as itemized charges for like services for all other payers.

(c) Maximum Reimbursement for Providers Under Subsection (a). – Each health care provider subject to the provisions of subsection (a) of this section shall be reimbursed the amount specified under the fee schedule unless the provider has agreed under contract with the insurer or managed care organization to accept a different amount or reimbursement methodology. In any instance in which neither the fee schedule nor a contractual fee applies, the maximum reimbursement to which a provider under subsection (a) is entitled under this Article is the usual, customary, and reasonable charge for the service or treatment rendered. In no event shall a provider under subsection (a) charge more than its usual fee for the service or treatment rendered.

(d) Information to Commission. – Each health care provider seeking reimbursement for medical compensation under this Article shall provide the Commission information requested by the Commission for the development of fee schedules and the determination of appropriate reimbursement.

(e) When Charges Submitted. – Health care providers shall submit charges to the insurer or managed care organization within 30 days of treatment, within 30 days after the end of the month during which multiple treatments were provided, or within such other reasonable period of time as allowed by the Commission. If an insurer or managed care organization disputes a portion of a health care provider's bill, it shall pay the uncontested portion of the bill and shall resolve disputes regarding the balance of the charges in accordance with this Article or its contractual arrangement.

(f) Repeating Diagnostic Tests. – A health care provider shall not authorize a diagnostic test previously conducted by another provider, unless the health care provider has reasonable grounds to believe a change in patient condition may have occurred or the quality of the prior test is doubted. The Commission may adopt rules establishing reasonable requirements for reports and records to be made available to other health care providers to prevent unnecessary duplication of tests and examinations. A health care provider that violates this subsection shall not be reimbursed for the costs associated with administering or analyzing the test.

(g) Direct Reimbursement. – The Commission may adopt rules to allow insurers and managed care organizations to review and reimburse charges for medical compensation without submitting the charges to the Commission for review and approval.

(g1) Administrative Simplification. – The applicable administrative standards for code sets, identifiers, formats, and electronic transactions to be used in processing electronic medical bills under this Article shall comply with 45 C.F.R. § 162. The Commission shall adopt rules to require electronic medical billing and payment processes, to standardize the necessary medical documentation for billing adjudication, to provide for effective dates and compliance, and for further implementation of this subsection.

(h) Malpractice. – The employer shall not be liable in damages for malpractice by a physician or surgeon furnished by him pursuant to the provisions of this section, but the consequences of any such malpractice shall be deemed part of the injury resulting from the accident, and shall be compensated for as such.

(i) Resolution of Dispute. – The employee or health care provider may apply to the Commission by motion or for a hearing to resolve any dispute regarding the payment of charges for medical compensation in accordance with this Article."

SECTION 4. G.S. 97-26.1 reads as rewritten:

SECTION 5. G.S. 97-27(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) In any case arising under this Article in which the employee is dissatisfied with the percentage of permanent disability as provided by G.S. 97-31 and determined by the authorized health care provider, the employee is entitled to have another examination solely on the percentage of permanent disability provided by a duly qualified physician of the employee's choosing who is licensed to practice in North Carolina, or licensed in another state if agreed to by the parties or ordered by the Commission, and designated by the employee. That physician shall be paid by the employer in the same manner as health care providers designated by the employer or the Industrial Commission are paid. The Industrial Commission must either disregard or give less weight to the opinions of the duly qualified physician chosen by the employee pursuant to this subsection on issues outside the scope of the G.S. 97-27(b) examination. No fact that is communicated to or otherwise learned by any physician who attended or examined the employee, or who was present at any examination, shall be privileged with respect to a claim before the Industrial Commission. Provided, however, that all travel expenses incurred in obtaining the examination shall be paid by the employee."

SECTION 6. G.S. 97-29(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) When a claim is compensable pursuant to G.S. 97-18(b), paid without prejudice pursuant to G.S. 97-18(d), agreed by the parties pursuant to G.S. 97-82, or when a claim has been deemed compensable following a hearing pursuant to G.S. 97-84, ~~an employee proves by a preponderance of the evidence that the employee is unable to earn the same wages the employee had earned before the injury, either in the same or other employment,~~ the employee qualifies for temporary total disability subject to the limitations noted herein. SECTION 7. G.S. 97-32.2(a) reads as rewritten:

If the employee (i) has not returned to work or (ii) has returned to work earning less than seventy-five percent (75%) of the employee's average weekly wages and is receiving benefits pursuant to G.S. 97-30, the employee may request vocational rehabilitation services, including education and retraining in the North Carolina community college or university systems so long as the education and retraining are reasonably likely to substantially increase the employee's wage-earning capacity following completion of the education or retraining program. Provided, however, the seventy-five percent (75%) threshold is for the purposes of qualification for vocational rehabilitation benefits only and shall not impact a decision as to whether a job is suitable per G.S. 97-2(22). SECTION 8.(c) A vacancy shall be filled within 30 days by the officer who made the original appointment. SECTION 8.(g) Reporting/Termination. – The Committee shall report to the 2013 General Assembly on legislation related to the integrity of the workers' compensation system, including statutory changes to strengthen the prevention and detection of workers' compensation fraud. The Committee shall terminate upon submission of its final report to the 2013 General Assembly.

SECTION 9. Notwithstanding G.S. 97-31.1, this act is effective when it becomes law. Section 2 of this act applies to claims pending on or after that date. Section 5 of this act applies to travel expenses incurred for examinations under G.S. 97-27(b) on or after that date. A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO ELIMINATE OBSOLETE PROVISIONS FROM, AND MAKE CLARIFYING CHANGES TO, THE LAWS GOVERNING PREPARATION AND STORAGE OF JURY LISTS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 9-2 reads as rewritten:

"§ 9-2. Preparation of master jury list; sources of names.

(a) It shall be the duty of the jury commission ~~on July 1 of~~ during every odd-numbered year to prepare a master list of prospective jurors qualified under this Chapter to serve in the biennium beginning on January 1 of the next year. Instead of providing a master list for an entire biennium, the commission may prepare a master list each year if the senior regular resident superior court judge requests in writing that it do so.

(b) In preparing the master list, the jury commission shall use the list of registered voters and persons with drivers' license records supplied to the county by the Commissioner of Motor Vehicles pursuant to G.S. 20-43.4. ~~The commission shall remove from the list the names of those residents of the county who are recently deceased, which shall be supplied to the commission by the State Registrar under G.S. 130A-121(a).~~ The commission may use fewer than all the names from the list if it uses a random method of selection. The commission may use other sources of names deemed by it to be reliable.

(e) The jury commission shall merge the entire list of names of each source used and randomly select the desired number of names to form the ~~jury~~ master list.

(f) The ~~jury~~ master list shall contain not less than one and one-quarter times and not more than three times as many names as were drawn for jury duty in all courts in the county during the previous biennium, or, if an annual list is being prepared as requested under subsection (a) of this section the ~~jury~~ master list shall contain not less than one and one-quarter times and not more than three times as many names as were drawn for jury duty in all courts in the county during the previous year but in no event shall the list include fewer than 500 names, except that in counties in which a different panel of jurors is selected for each day of the week, there is no limit to the number of names that may be placed on the ~~jury~~ master list.

(g) Repealed by Session Laws 2003-226, s. 7(d), effective January 1, 2004.

(h) As used in this section "random" or "randomly" refers to a method of selection that results in each name on a list having an equal opportunity to be selected.

(i) To facilitate random selection of jurors, all the names on the master list may be sorted into random order before the first panel is drawn. Thereafter, names may be selected sequentially from the randomized list without further randomization, except as required by G.S. 15A-1214.

(j) The procedure for performing the preparation of the master list shall be in writing, adopted by the jury commission, and kept available for public inspection in the office of the clerk of court. The procedure must effectively preserve the authorized grounds for disqualification, the right of public access to the master list of prospective jurors as provided by G.S. 9-4, and the time sequence for drawing and summoning a jury panel.

(k) In counties utilizing electronic data processing equipment, the functions of preparing and maintaining custody of the master list of prospective jurors, the procedure for drawing and summoning panels of jurors, and the procedure for maintaining records of names of jurors who have served, been excused or disqualified, or whose service has been deferred may be performed by this equipment, except that decisions as to mental or physical competence of prospective jurors shall continue to be made by jury commissioners."

SECTION 2. G.S. 9-2.1 is repealed.

SECTION 3. G.S. 9-3 reads as rewritten:

Persons not qualified under this section are subject to challenge for cause."

SECTION 4. G.S. 9-4 reads as rewritten:

"§ 9-4. Preparation and custody of alphabetized ~~list.~~ list; access to list.

(a) As the master jury list is prepared, the name ~~and address~~ of each qualified person selected for the list shall be recorded and alphabetically ~~arranged, written on a separate card. The cards shall then be alphabetized and permanently numbered, the numbers running consecutively with a different number on each card. These cards shall constitute the jury list for the county.~~ arranged. The alphabetized list shall be maintained in ~~filed with~~ the office of the clerk of court, ~~register of deeds of the county,~~ together with a statement of the sources used and procedures followed in preparing the list. The alphabetized list shall be kept under lock and key, but shall be available for public inspection during regular office hours. The clerk of court may elect to store an electronic copy of the alphabetized ~~jury~~ list for the county.

(b) Public access to juror information shall be limited to the alphabetized list of the names. The addresses of prospective jurors are confidential and not subject to disclosure without an order of the court."

SECTION 5. G.S. 9-5 reads as rewritten:

"§ 9-5. Procedure for drawing panel of jurors.~~jurors; numbers drawn.~~

The discs, squares, counters, or markers shall be uniform in size, weight, and appearance, and may be made of any suitable material. They shall be numbered consecutively to correspond with the numbers on the jury list. The jury box shall be of sufficient size to hold the discs, squares, counters or markers so that they may be easily shaken and mixed, and the box shall have a hinged lid through which~~

At least 30 days prior to any session or sessions of superior or district court requiring a jury, the clerk of superior court or ~~his~~ assistant or deputy clerk ~~shall, in public, after thoroughly shaking the box, draw therefrom the number of discs, squares, counters, or markers~~ shall prepare or have electronically prepared a randomized list of names from the master jury list equal to the number of jurors required for the session or sessions scheduled. The clerk of superior court may decrease the number of randomized names to account for the addition of names of previously selected jurors whose service has been deferred to this session. For each week of a superior court session, the senior resident superior court judge for the district or set of districts as defined in G.S. 7A-41.1(a) in which the county is located shall specify the number of jurors to be drawn. For each week of a district court jury session, the chief district judge of the district court district in which the county is located shall specify the number of jurors to be drawn. The clerk of superior court shall either (i) prepare and issue the summonses or (ii) deliver the printed summonses or the list of ~~numbers drawn from the jury box to the register of deeds, who shall match the numbers received with the numbers on the jury list. SECTION 6. G.S. 9-6(e) reads as rewritten:

"(e) The judge shall inform the clerk of superior court of persons excused under this section, and the clerk ~~within 10 days shall so notify the register of deeds, who shall note the excuse on the juror's card and file it~~ shall keep a record of excuses separate from the master ~~separately from the~~ jury list."

SECTION 7. G.S. 9-6.1 reads as rewritten:

In the case of supplemental jurors summoned under G.S. 9-11, notice may be given when summoned. In case the chief district court judge, or the judge or trial court administrator designated by the chief district court judge pursuant to G.S. 9-6(b), rejects the request for exemption, the prospective juror shall be immediately notified by the trial court administrator or the clerk of court by telephone, letter, or personally."

SECTION 8. G.S. 9-7 reads as rewritten:

SECTION 9. G.S. 9-10(a) reads as rewritten:

"§ 9-10. Summons to jurors.

(a) The ~~register of deeds~~ clerk of court ~~shall, within three days after the receipt of numbers drawn,~~ shall serve the summons by first-class mail, or shall deliver either printed summonses or the list of the panel of prospective jurors to the sheriff of the county, who shall summon the persons named therein. The summons shall contain information as to the time, place, and authority before whom applications for excuses from jury service may be heard."

SECTION 10. Article 1 of Chapter 9 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

SENATE BILL 133:
Modernize Jury List Procedures

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	House Judiciary Subcommittee C	Date:	June 19, 2012
Introduced by:	Sen. Clodfelter	Prepared by:	Janice Paul
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition S133-CSTJ-24		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: The PCS to Senate Bill 133 would eliminate obsolete provisions from, and make clarifying changes to, the procedures relating to the preparation of jury lists and the drawing of jury panels.

BACKGROUND: Some provisions of North Carolina's current statutory plan for the compilation of a jury list and the selection of jurors date back to 1806. The jury selection system is now performed electronically in almost all of North Carolina's counties. The PCS to Senate Bill 133 would authorize the jury list procedures currently used throughout the state.

Article 1 of Chapter 9 sets forth the procedures for the objective and systematic selection and drawing of jurors. In every county, a jury commission consisting of three appointed members prepares a list of prospective jurors to serve in the biennium starting January 1 of the following year. The jury list (or master list) is normally compiled from lists of registered voters and licensed drivers, but the jury commission is not limited to these sources. An alphabetized list is also prepared and made available for public inspection. Potential jurors (the jury "venire") are randomly selected from the master list to report for jury service. From these individuals, the "venire panel" or "jury array" may be selected at random and called to a courtroom for questioning, or juror "voir dire," and ultimately either excused by the court or the attorneys, or empanelled as jurors at trial (the "petit jury").

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 of the PCS amends G.S. 9-2 as follows: Current G.S. 9-2(a) provides that the jury commissioners must prepare "the jury list" on July 1 of every odd-numbered year. The PCS substitutes the term "master list" for "jury list," and provides that the master list must be prepared during every odd-numbered year, deleting the requirement that the list be prepared on July 1st. The PCS also removes the provision referencing G.S. 130A-121(a), which the PCS would repeal in Section 12 as obsolete.

Section 2 repeals G.S. 9-2.1. Currently, G.S. 9-2.1 makes special provisions for preparing and maintaining jury lists, drawing and summoning panels of jurors, and maintaining jury records in counties with access to electronic data processing equipment. It also addresses the process for the random selection of jurors. These provisions would be incorporated into the proposed revisions to G.S. 9-2 in Section 1 of the PCS.

Current G.S. 9-2.1 also addresses issues of public access to information of prospective jurors, and cross-references current G.S. 9-4. The public access provisions would be clarified in the revisions to G.S. 9-4 in Section 4 of the PCS.

Section 3 makes a conforming change to G.S. 9-3.

Section 4 amends G.S. 9-4 by clarifying references to the "master list" and the "alphabetized list." The PCS includes from the current G.S. 9-2.1 the provision that public access to juror information shall be limited to the alphabetized list of the names. The PCS also incorporates recent amendments to G.S. 9-4 made in S.L. 2012-18 (HB 707).

Section 5 of the PCS eliminates obsolete provisions from G.S. 9-5. The PCS also modernizes the current law by allowing the clerk of superior court to decrease the number of randomized names under certain conditions, and authorizing the clerk either to print and mail the juror summonses, or to provide the necessary information to the sheriff, who will issue the summonses.

Section 6 eliminates references in G.S. 9-6(e) to the register of deeds.

Section 7 makes a technical change to G.S. 9-6.1. It also adds a provision that confidential health information of a juror shall be confidential.

Section 8 and 9 modernize G.S. 9-7 and G.S. 9-10(a)

Section 10 of the PCS creates a new G.S. 9-7.1 to authorize the trial court administrator to perform the duties of the clerk under Article 1 of Chapter 9 of the General Statutes, if the clerk of superior court and the senior resident superior court judge agree.

Section 11 makes a conforming change to G.S. 9-11(a) by deleting the reference to the register of deeds.

Section 12 repeals G.S. 130A-121(a) as obsolete.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act is effective when it becomes law.

SENATE BILL 26:
North Carolina Benefit Corporation Act

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	House Judiciary Subcommittee C	Date:	June 20, 2012
Introduced by:	Sens. Vaughan, Stevens, Kinnaird	Prepared by:	Wendy Graf Ray
Analysis of:	PCS to Third Edition S26-CSSU-35		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: The Proposed Committee Substitute for Senate Bill 26 would establish the North Carolina Benefit Corporation Act. The act authorizes the creation of a benefit corporation which must include within its corporate purposes a general public benefit that has a material positive impact on society and the environment. A benefit corporation may also include one or more specific public benefit purposes in addition to its general public benefit. The benefit corporation must appoint an independent benefits director and prepare an annual benefit report, as provided by the act. The act also authorizes a right of action against the directors of the corporation to enforce the directors' duties under the act.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 of the PCS enacts a new Article 18 in Chapter 55 of the General Statutes, which enacts the North Carolina Benefit Corporation Act.

Part 1. Preliminary Provisions

This part of the act authorizes the creation of benefit corporations in North Carolina. A benefit corporation is a domestic corporation that elects to become subject to the requirements of the act. All other provisions of the Business Corporation Act apply to benefit corporations as well. Part 1 also includes the definitions section.

A benefit corporation is not entitled to claim a property tax exemption.

Part 2. Adoption and Change of Status

This part of the act describes the method by which a corporation may incorporate as a benefit corporation or transition to benefit corporation status. The transition, conversion, merger, or share exchange of an existing corporation requires an affirmative vote of at least 66 2/3% of the outstanding shares of each class or series of stock.

In addition, a benefit corporation can terminate its status by amending its articles of incorporation to delete the provisions identifying it as a benefit corporation. The termination also must be adopted by a vote of 66 2/3% of the outstanding shares.

Part 3. Corporate Purposes.

A benefit corporation must have as one of its corporate purposes the creation of a general public benefit, which is defined as a "material positive impact on society and the environment, taken as a whole, as measured by an independent third-party standard, from the business and operations of a benefit corporation."

A benefit corporation may include as a corporate purpose one or more specific public benefit purposes in addition to its general public benefit. Specific public benefit purposes include:

- Providing low-income or underserved individuals or communities with beneficial products or services.
- Promoting economic opportunity for individuals or communities beyond creation of jobs in the normal course of business.
- Preserving or improving the environment.
- Improving human health.
- Promoting the arts, sciences, or advancement of knowledge.
- Increasing the flow of capital to entities with a public benefit purpose.

The benefit corporation must provide notice to the public and its shareholders of its status by including the words "benefit corporation" in its name, and by including a statement in its articles of incorporation and on each share certificate stating that it has a corporate purpose of creating a public benefit, which is not necessarily compatible with maximizing profits.

Part 4. Accountability.

This part establishes the standards of conduct for directors. Benefit corporation directors are required to consider the effects of any action or decision not to act upon the following:

- Shareholders of the benefit corporation.
- Employees of the corporation, it subsidiaries and suppliers.
- Customers, to the extent they are beneficiaries of the general or specific purposes.
- The local community and society.
- The local and global environment.
- The short and long-term interests of the benefit corporation.
- The ability of the benefit corporation to accomplish its general and any specific purposes.

Directors are not required to give priority to any of the interests or groups. Consideration of these factors is not deemed inconsistent with the general standards of conduct required of all business corporations. A director is not liable for monetary damages for any act or omission taken as a director other than acts or omissions the director knew or believed to be clearly in conflict with the benefit corporations general or specific public benefit purpose. The director is also not liable for failure of the benefit corporation to create a general or specific public benefit.

The board of directors must designate one director who is an independent person to be the benefit director. The benefit director must prepare an opinion regarding the actions and success of the benefit corporation in meeting its benefit purposes over the year, as well as whether the directors complied with the required standard of conduct.

The corporation may also designate a benefit officer to monitor the corporations benefit activities, perform other assigned duties, and prepare the annual benefit report to the shareholders.

The duties of directors may be enforced in a benefit enforcement proceeding. The proceeding may be commenced or maintained only by the corporation directly, or derivatively, by a shareholder who owns 5% or more of the shares, a director, an owner of at least 5% voting interest, by other persons specified in the articles of incorporation, or by the Attorney General.

Part 5. Annual Reporting.

A benefit corporation is required to prepare an annual report that includes:

- A narrative of the manner in which the corporation has pursued its general and specific public benefit purposes, and any circumstances that have hindered the pursuit of the purposes.
- An assessment of the social and environmental performance of the corporation prepared in accordance with a third-party standard.
- The name and address of the benefit director and the benefit officer.
- The compensation paid to each director by the benefit corporation.
- The name of each person that owns 5% or more of the outstanding shares.
- The required statement of the benefit director.
- A statement of any relationship between the benefit corporation and the entity that developed the third-party standard.

The report must be sent annually to each shareholder within 120 days following the end of the fiscal year or when the corporation delivers any other annual report, whichever occurs first. The benefit corporation must also post the report on a publically accessible section of its internet website. The report must also be sent with the annual report that the corporation must deliver to the Secretary of Revenue, or in the alternative to the Secretary of State. Upon delivery the report is considered to be a public record.

Section 2 of the PCS requires that, when shares are issued without certificates, all of the information required to be on a benefit corporation share certificate must be sent to the shareholder in a written statement.

Section 3 of the PCS amends the Business Corporations Law to add designation as a benefit corporation and amendment of a benefit corporation's specific public benefit purpose to the list of events that trigger a shareholder's right to obtain an appraisal and payment of the fair value of the shareholder's shares.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act becomes effective October 1, 2012.

Karen Cochrane-Brown, counsel to House Commerce and Job Development, substantially contributed to this summary.

(b) If a plan of merger, conversion, or share exchange would have the effect of terminating the status of a benefit corporation as a benefit corporation, the plan must be approved in the manner required by G.S. 55-18-23.

"§ 55-18-23. Heightened voting requirements.

In addition to any other requirements of applicable law, where specified in this Article that approval of a matter shall be in the manner required by this section, the following requirements apply:

"§ 55-18-4. Benefit corporation not entitled to property tax exemption.

A benefit corporation shall not be entitled to claim an exemption from any property tax imposed under Subchapter II of Chapter 105 of the General Statutes.

"Part 2. Adoption and Change of Status.

"§ 55-18-20. Incorporation as a benefit corporation.

In addition to other requirements of applicable law, the notice of the meeting of shareholders to approve the plan of merger, conversion, or share exchange must include a discussion of the anticipated effect on the shareholders resulting from the surviving or acquiring corporation being a benefit corporation. Upon the completion of such transaction, the surviving or acquiring corporation to be a benefit corporation must include a provision in its articles of incorporation providing that the corporation shall be a benefit corporation governed by this Article and an identification of any specific public benefit purpose or purposes as required by G.S. 55-18-30.

"§ 55-18-22. Termination of benefit corporation status.

The notice of the meeting of shareholders to approve the amendment must include a statement by the board of directors of the reasons why the board is proposing the amendment and a discussion of the anticipated effect on the shareholders of terminating the status of the corporation as a benefit corporation.

(b) If a plan of merger, conversion, or share exchange would have the effect of terminating the status of a benefit corporation as a benefit corporation, the plan must be approved in the manner required by G.S. 55-18-23.

"§ 55-18-23. Heightened voting requirements.

In addition to any other requirements of applicable law, where specified in this Article that approval of a matter shall be in the manner required by this section, the following requirements apply:

"Part 3. Corporate Purposes.

"§ 55-18-30. Corporate purposes.

(a) A benefit corporation shall have as one of its corporate purposes the creation of a general public benefit. A benefit corporation may include in its articles of incorporation other corporate purposes, including the purpose of engaging in any lawful business.

(b) A benefit corporation may include as a corporate purpose in its articles of incorporation one or more specific public benefit purposes in addition to its purposes under subsection (a) of this section.

The North Carolina House Judiciary Committee C Support for S 26 (Vaughan) Benefit Corporation

June 25, 2012

To House Judiciary Committee C Chairman and Members:

On behalf of UL Environment, I am writing to express our strong support for the North Carolina Benefit Corporation legislation S 26 (Vaughan) to create a new voluntary class of corporations that best serves the needs of North Carolina's business leaders. Because this legislation simply creates an option for businesses who so choose to engage, it doesn't add cost or regulation.

Benefit corporations are a new class of corporation that redefines fiduciary duty to include consideration of the interests of employees, community and the environment, not just shareholders. At UL Environment we believe that these should be what a corporation considers good business. Importantly, shareholders and directors of benefit corporations are given expanded rights to enforce this higher standard of conduct. In addition, recognizing the risks of green-washing, benefit corporations are required to publish an annual report on their overall social and environmental performance using an independent, credible, and transparent third party standard. Benefit corporations are aimed at 'doing good' because their corporate purpose must include the pursuit of a material positive impact on society and the environment as measured by a third party standard and their directors' fiduciary duty includes consideration of the interests of society, not just shareholders.

Benefit corporation legislation has already passed in seven states, and is moving forward in six others. This legislations has received strong bi-partisan support because it is voluntary and has no budget impact-it simply creates the legal infrastructure for the next generation of sustainable businesses that will create high quality jobs and improve quality of life in our communities and on our planet.

UL Environment seeks your affirmative vote on North Carolina Benefit Corporation legislation S 26 (Vaughan). By your affirmative vote you will give North Carolina the additional tools it needs to grow its economy.

SENATE BILL 26:
North Carolina Benefit Corporation Act

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	House Judiciary Subcommittee C	Date:	June 20, 2012
Introduced by:	Sens. Vaughan, Stevens, Kinnaird	Prepared by:	Wendy Graf Ray Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	PCS to Third Edition S26-CSSU-35

SUMMARY: The Proposed Committee Substitute for Senate Bill 26 would establish the North Carolina Benefit Corporation Act. The act authorizes the creation of a benefit corporation which must include within its corporate purposes a general public benefit that has a material positive impact on society and the environment. A benefit corporation may also include one or more specific public benefit purposes in addition to its general public benefit. The benefit corporation must appoint an independent benefits director and prepare an annual benefit report, as provided by the act. The act also authorizes a right of action against the directors of the corporation to enforce the directors' duties under the act.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 of the PCS enacts a new Article 18 in Chapter 55 of the General Statutes, which enacts the North Carolina Benefit Corporation Act.

Part 1. Preliminary Provisions

This part of the act authorizes the creation of benefit corporations in North Carolina. A benefit corporation is a domestic corporation that elects to become subject to the requirements of the act. All other provisions of the Business Corporation Act apply to benefit corporations as well. Part 1 also includes the definitions section.

A benefit corporation is not entitled to claim a property tax exemption.

Part 2. Adoption and Change of Status

This part of the act describes the method by which a corporation may incorporate as a benefit corporation or transition to benefit corporation status. The transition, conversion, merger, or share exchange of an existing corporation requires an affirmative vote of at least 66 2/3% of the outstanding shares of each class or series of stock.

In addition, a benefit corporation can terminate its status by amending its articles of incorporation to delete the provisions identifying it as a benefit corporation. The termination also must be adopted by a vote of 66 2/3% of the outstanding shares.

Part 3. Corporate Purposes.

A benefit corporation must have as one of its corporate purposes the creation of a general public benefit, which is defined as a "material positive impact on society and the environment, taken as a whole, as measured by an independent third-party standard, from the business and operations of a benefit corporation."

A benefit corporation may include as a corporate purpose one or more specific public benefit purposes in addition to its general public benefit. Specific public benefit purposes include:

- Providing low-income or underserved individuals or communities with beneficial products or services.
- Promoting economic opportunity for individuals or communities beyond creation of jobs in the normal course of business.
- Preserving or improving the environment.
- Improving human health.
- Promoting the arts, sciences, or advancement of knowledge.
- Increasing the flow of capital to entities with a public benefit purpose.

The benefit corporation must provide notice to the public and its shareholders of its status by including the words "benefit corporation" in its name, and by including a statement in its articles of incorporation and on each share certificate stating that it has a corporate purpose of creating a public benefit, which is not necessarily compatible with maximizing profits.

Part 4. Accountability.

This part establishes the standards of conduct for directors. Benefit corporation directors are required to consider the effects of any action or decision not to act upon the following:

- Shareholders of the benefit corporation.
- Employees of the corporation, it subsidiaries and suppliers.
- Customers, to the extent they are beneficiaries of the general or specific purposes.
- The local community and society.
- The local and global environment.
- The short and long-term interests of the benefit corporation.
- The ability of the benefit corporation to accomplish its general and any specific purposes.

Directors are not required to give priority to any of the interests or groups. Consideration of these factors is not deemed inconsistent with the general standards of conduct required of all business corporations. A director is not liable for monetary damages for any act or omission taken as a director other than acts or omissions the director knew or believed to be clearly in conflict with the benefit corporations general or specific public benefit purpose. The director is also not liable for failure of the benefit corporation to create a general or specific public benefit.

The board of directors must designate one director who is an independent person to be the benefit director. The benefit director must prepare an opinion regarding the actions and success of the benefit corporation in meeting its benefit purposes over the year, as well as whether the directors complied with the required standard of conduct.

The corporation may also designate a benefit officer to monitor the corporations benefit activities, perform other assigned duties, and prepare the annual benefit report to the shareholders.

The duties of directors may be enforced in a benefit enforcement proceeding. The proceeding may be commenced or maintained only by the corporation directly, or derivatively, by a shareholder who owns 5% or more of the shares, a director, an owner of at least 5% voting interest, by other persons specified in the articles of incorporation, or by the Attorney General.

Part 5. Annual Reporting.

A benefit corporation is required to prepare an annual report that includes:

- A narrative of the manner in which the corporation has pursued its general and specific public benefit purposes, and any circumstances that have hindered the pursuit of the purposes.
- An assessment of the social and environmental performance of the corporation prepared in accordance with a third-party standard.
- The name and address of the benefit director and the benefit officer.
- The compensation paid to each director by the benefit corporation.
- The name of each person that owns 5% or more of the outstanding shares.
- The required statement of the benefit director.
- A statement of any relationship between the benefit corporation and the entity that developed the third-party standard.

The report must be sent annually to each shareholder within 120 days following the end of the fiscal year or when the corporation delivers any other annual report, whichever occurs first. The benefit corporation must also post the report on a publically accessible section of its internet website. The report must also be sent with the annual report that the corporation must deliver to the Secretary of Revenue, or in the alternative to the Secretary of State. Upon delivery the report is considered to be a public record.

Section 2 of the PCS requires that, when shares are issued without certificates, all of the information required to be on a benefit corporation share certificate must be sent to the shareholder in a written statement.

Section 3 of the PCS amends the Business Corporations Law to add designation as a benefit corporation and amendment of a benefit corporation's specific public benefit purpose to the list of events that trigger a shareholder's right to obtain an appraisal and payment of the fair value of the shareholder's shares.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act becomes effective October 1, 2012.

"§ 55-18-43. Right of action; benefit enforcement proceeding.

(a) The duties of directors under this Article may be enforced only in a benefit enforcement proceeding. No person may bring an action or assert a claim against a benefit corporation or its directors with respect to the duties of directors under this Article, except in a benefit enforcement proceeding.

(b) A benefit enforcement proceeding may be commenced or maintained only by the following:

(1) Directly, by the benefit corporation.

(2) Derivatively, by any of the following:

a. A shareholder that owns five percent (5%) or more of the shares in the benefit corporation.

d. Other persons specified in the articles of incorporation or bylaws of the benefit corporation.

SENATE BILL 26:

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	House Judiciary Subcommittee C	Date:	June 27, 2012
Introduced by:	Sens. Vaughan, Stevens, Kinnaird	Prepared by:	Wendy Graf Ray Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	PCS to Third Edition S26-CSSU-35

SUMMARY: The Proposed Committee Substitute for Senate Bill 26 would establish the North Carolina Benefit Corporation Act. The act authorizes the creation of a benefit corporation which must include within its corporate purposes a general public benefit that has a material positive impact on society and the environment. A benefit corporation may also include one or more specific public benefit purposes in addition to its general public benefit. The benefit corporation must appoint an independent benefits director and prepare an annual benefit report, as provided by the act. The act also authorizes a right of action against the directors of the corporation to enforce the directors' duties under the act.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 of the PCS enacts a new Article 18 in Chapter 55 of the General Statutes, which enacts the North Carolina Benefit Corporation Act.

Part 1. Preliminary Provisions

This part of the act authorizes the creation of benefit corporations in North Carolina. A benefit corporation is a domestic corporation that elects to become subject to the requirements of the act. All other provisions of the Business Corporation Act apply to benefit corporations as well. Part 1 also includes the definitions section.

A benefit corporation is not entitled to claim a property tax exemption.

Part 2. Adoption and Change of Status

This part of the act describes the method by which a corporation may incorporate as a benefit corporation or transition to benefit corporation status. The transition, conversion, merger, or share exchange of an existing corporation requires an affirmative vote of 100% of the outstanding shares of each class or series of stock.

In addition, a benefit corporation can terminate its status by amending its articles of incorporation to delete the provisions identifying it as a benefit corporation. The termination must be adopted by a vote of 66 2/3% of the outstanding shares.

Part 3. Corporate Purposes.

A benefit corporation must have as one of its corporate purposes the creation of a general public benefit, which is defined as a "material positive impact on society and the environment, taken as a whole, as measured by an independent third-party standard, from the business and operations of a benefit corporation."

A benefit corporation may include as a corporate purpose one or more specific public benefit purposes in addition to its general public benefit. A specific public benefit purpose includes, but is not limited to:

- Providing low-income or underserved individuals or communities with beneficial products or services.
- Promoting economic opportunity for individuals or communities beyond creation of jobs in the normal course of business.
- Preserving or improving the environment.
- Improving human health.
- Promoting the arts, sciences, or advancement of knowledge.
- Increasing the flow of capital to entities with a public benefit purpose.

The benefit corporation must provide notice to the public and its shareholders of its status by including the words "benefit corporation" or the initials "BC" in its name, and by including a statement on each share certificate stating that it is a benefit corporation and has a corporate purpose of creating a general public benefit.

Part 4. Accountability.

This part establishes the standards of conduct for directors. Benefit corporation directors are required to consider the effects of any action or decision not to act upon the following:

- Shareholders of the benefit corporation.
- Employees of the corporation, it subsidiaries and suppliers.
- Customers, to the extent they are beneficiaries of the general or specific purposes.
- The local community and society.
- The local and global environment.
- The short and long-term interests of the benefit corporation.
- The ability of the benefit corporation to accomplish its general and any specific purposes.

Directors are not required to give priority to any of the interests or groups. Consideration of these factors is not deemed inconsistent with the general standards of conduct required of all business corporations. A director is not liable for monetary damages for any act or omission taken as a director other than acts or omissions the director knew or believed to be clearly in conflict with the benefit corporations general or specific public benefit purpose. The director is also not liable for failure of the benefit corporation to create a general or specific public benefit.

The board of directors must designate one director who is an independent person to be the benefit director. The benefit director must prepare an opinion regarding the actions and success of the benefit corporation in meeting its benefit purposes over the year, as well as whether the directors complied with the required standard of conduct.

The corporation may also designate a benefit officer to monitor the corporations benefit activities, perform other assigned duties, and prepare the annual benefit report to the shareholders.

The duties of directors may be enforced in a benefit enforcement proceeding. The proceeding may be commenced or maintained only by the corporation directly, or derivatively, by a shareholder who owns 5% or more of the shares, a director, an owner of at least 5% voting interest, or by other persons specified in the articles of incorporation.

Part 5. Annual Reporting.

A benefit corporation is required to prepare an annual report that includes:

- A narrative of the manner in which the corporation has pursued its general and specific public benefit purposes, and any circumstances that have hindered the pursuit of the purposes.
- An assessment of the social and environmental performance of the corporation prepared in accordance with a third-party standard.
- The name and address of the benefit director and the benefit officer.
- The compensation paid to each director by the benefit corporation.
- The name of each person that owns 5% or more of the outstanding shares.
- The required statement of the benefit director.
- A statement of any relationship between the benefit corporation and the entity that developed the third-party standard.

The report must be sent annually to each shareholder within 120 days following the end of the fiscal year or when the corporation delivers any other annual report, whichever occurs first. The benefit corporation must also post the report on a publically accessible section of its internet website. The report must also be sent with the annual report that the corporation must deliver to the Secretary of Revenue, or in the alternative to the Secretary of State. Upon delivery the report is considered to be a public record.

Section 2 of the PCS requires that, when shares are issued without certificates, all of the information required to be on a benefit corporation share certificate must be sent to the shareholder in a written statement.

Section 3 of the PCS amends the Business Corporations Law to add designation as a benefit corporation and amendment of a benefit corporation's specific public benefit purpose to the list of events that trigger a shareholder's right to obtain an appraisal and payment of the fair value of the shareholder's shares.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act becomes effective October 1, 2012.

In addition to other requirements of applicable law, the notice of the meeting of shareholders to approve the plan of merger, conversion, or share exchange must include a discussion of the anticipated effect on the shareholders resulting from the surviving or acquiring corporation being a benefit corporation. Upon the completion of such transaction, the surviving or acquiring corporation to be a benefit corporation must include a provision in its articles of incorporation providing that the corporation shall be a benefit corporation governed by this Article and an identification of any specific public benefit purpose or purposes as required by G.S. 55-18-30.

"§ 55-18-22. Termination of benefit corporation status.

(a) A benefit corporation shall have as one of its corporate purposes the creation of a general public benefit. A benefit corporation may include in its articles of incorporation other corporate purposes, including the purpose of engaging in any lawful business.

(d) If a benefit corporation dispenses with a board of directors pursuant to G.S. 55-8-01(c), the articles of incorporation of the benefit corporation must provide that the persons who perform the duties of the board of directors designate an independent person with the powers, duties, rights, and immunities of a benefit director.

(e) Regardless of whether the articles of incorporation or the bylaws of a benefit corporation include a provision limiting or eliminating the personal liability of directors authorized by G.S. 55-2-02(b)(3) or G.S. 55-2-06, a benefit director shall not be personally liable for monetary damages for any act or omission taken in such capacity unless the act or omission constitutes (i) a transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit, (ii) willful misconduct, or (iii) a knowing violation of law.
