(2) When the surviving spouse or next of kin are not known or when for any other reason such notice cannot be given, a notice to the same effect must be published not less than once a week for four consecutive weeks in some newspaper published in the county where the will is offered for probate, or if no newspaper is published in the county, then in some newspaper having general circulation therein.

(c) A nuncupative will may be probated only in the following manner:
(1) Upon the testimony of at least two competent witnesses who establish the terms of such will and who state that they were simultaneously present at the making thereof, that the testator declared he was then making his will, and that they were then and there specially requested by him to bear witness thereto; and
(2) Upon the testimony of one competent witness, who may but need not be one of the witnesses referred to in subdivision (1) of this subsection, that the will was made in the testator's last illness or while he was in imminent peril of death, and that he did not survive such sickness or imminent peril, but it is not necessary that all such facts be proved by the testimony of the same witness.

"§ 28A-2A-11. Probate of wills of members of the armed forces.

In addition to the methods already provided in existing statutes therefor, a will executed by a person while in the armed forces of the United States or the merchant marine, shall be admitted to probate (whether there were subscribing witnesses thereto or not, if they, or either of them, is out of the State at the time said will is offered for probate) upon the oath of at least three credible witnesses that the signature to said will is in the handwriting of the person whose will it purports to be. Such will so proven shall be effective to devise real property as well as to bequeath personal estate of all kinds. This section shall not apply to cases pending in courts and at issue on the date of its ratification.

"§ 28A-2A-12. Probate conclusive until vacated; substitution of consolidated bank as executor or trustee under will.

Such record and probate is conclusive in evidence of the validity of the will, until it is vacated on appeal or declared void by a competent tribunal. Provided, that whenever in a will so probated or recorded a bank or trust company shall be named executor and/or trustee and shall have at the time of such probate and recording become absorbed by or consolidated with another bank or trust company or shall have sold and transferred all its assets and liabilities to another bank or trust company doing business in North Carolina, such latter bank or trust company shall be deemed substituted for and shall have all the rights and powers of the former bank or trust company.

"§ 28A-2A-13. Wills filed in clerk's office.

All original wills shall remain in the clerk's office, among the records of the court where the same shall be proved, and to such wills any person may have access, as to the other records. If said will contains a devise of real estate, outside said county where said will is probated, then a copy of the said will, together with the probate of the same, certified under the hand and seal of the clerk of the superior court of said county may be recorded in the book of wills and filed in the office of the clerk of the superior court of any county in the State in which said land is situated with the same effect as to passing the title to said real estate as if said will had originally been probated and filed in said county and the clerk of the superior court of said last-mentioned county had had jurisdiction to probate the same.

"§ 28A-2A-14. Validation of wills heretofore certified and recorded.

All wills which have prior to March 9, 1921, been certified and recorded in the office of the clerk of the superior court of any county, substantially following the provisions of ~~G.S. 31-20~~ G.S. 28A-2A-13, are hereby validated and approved as to the conveyance and transfer of any title to real estate as contained therein, to the same extent as if said wills had originally been probated and filed in said county, and the clerk of the superior court of said county had had jurisdiction to probate the same, provided the probates and witnesses to the said wills are sufficient and according to law.

"§ 28A-2A-15. Certified copy of will proved in another state or country.

When a will, made by a citizen of this State, is proved and allowed in some other state or country, and the original will cannot be removed from its place of legal deposit in such other state or country, for probate in this State, the clerk of the superior court of the county where the testator had his last usual residence or has any property, upon a duly certified copy or exemplification of such will being exhibited to him for probate, shall take every order and proceeding for proving, allowing and recording such copy as by law might be taken upon the production of the original.

"§ 28A-2A-16. Examination of witnesses by affidavit.

(a) The examination of witnesses to a will may be taken and subscribed in the form of an affidavit before a notary public or other person who is authorized to administer oaths in the jurisdiction where the examination is held.

(b) A photographic copy of the original will certified to be a true and exact copy thereof by the clerk of superior court of the county in which the will is to be probated may be used in the examination of the witnesses in the procedures set out in ~~subsection (a);~~ subsection (a) of this section; provided, the said clerk has in his possession the original will at the time of examination of the witnesses.

(c) Affidavits taken in accordance with subsection (a) of this section shall be transmitted by the person taking the affidavit to the clerk of superior court of the county in which the will is to be probated.

(d) Testimony submitted in accordance with subsection (a) of this section is competent in regard to all requirements of G.S. 31-3.3 and to establish that a will was executed in compliance with the requirements of G.S. 31-3.3.

(e) Nothing in this section is to limit or otherwise affect the authority of a clerk of superior court in the exercise of his authority as judge of probate under G.S. 28A-2-1 to:

(1) ~~issue~~ Issue subpoenas under G.S. 7A-103; or

(2) ~~order~~ Order the taking of depositions of witnesses.

"§ 28A-2A-17. Certified copy of will of nonresident recorded.

(a) Subject to the provisions of ~~subsection (b),~~ subsection (b) of this section, if the will of a citizen or subject of another state or country is probated in accordance with the laws of that jurisdiction and a duly certified copy of the will and the probate proceedings are produced before a clerk of superior court of any county wherein the testator had property, the copy of the will shall be probated as if it were the original. If the jurisdiction is within the United States, the copy of the will and the probate proceedings shall be certified by the clerk of the court wherein the will was probated. If the jurisdiction is outside the United States, the copy of the will and probate proceedings shall be certified by any ambassador, minister, consul or commercial agent of the United States under his official seal.

(b) For a copy of a will probated under the provisions of subsection (a) of this section to be valid to pass title to or otherwise dispose of real estate in this State, the execution of said will according to the laws of this State must appear affirmatively, to the satisfaction of the clerk of the superior court of the county in which such will is offered for probate, from the testimony of a witness or witnesses to such will, or from findings of fact or recitals in the order of probate, or otherwise in such certified copy of the will and probate proceedings.

(c) If the execution of the will in accordance with the laws of this State does not appear as required by ~~subsection (b),~~ subsection (b) of this section, the clerk before whom the copy is exhibited shall have power to take proof as prescribed in ~~G.S. 31-24,~~ G.S. 28A-2A-16, and the will may be adjudged duly proved, and if so proved, the will shall be recorded as herein provided.

(d) Any copy of a will of a nonresident heretofore allowed, filed and recorded in this State in compliance with the foregoing shall be valid to pass title to or otherwise dispose of real estate in this State.

"§ 28A-2A-18. Probates validated where proof taken by commissioner or another clerk.

In all cases of the probate of any will made prior to March 8, 1899, in common form before any clerk of the superior courts of this State, where the testimony of the subscribing witnesses has been taken in the State or out of it by any commissioner appointed by said clerk or taken by any other clerk of the superior court in any other county of this State, and the will admitted to probate upon such testimony, the proceedings are validated.

"§ 28A-2A-19. Probates in another state before 1860 validated.

In all cases where any will devises land in this State, and the original will was duly admitted to probate in some other state prior to the year 1860, and a certified copy of such will and the probate thereof has been admitted to probate and record in any county in this State, and it in any way appears from such recorded copy that there were two subscribing witnesses to such will, and its execution was proved by the examination of such witnesses when the original was admitted to probate, such will shall be held and considered, and is hereby declared to be, good and valid for the purpose of passing title to the lands devised thereby, situated in this State, as fully and completely as if the original will had been duly executed and admitted to probate and recorded in this State in accordance with the laws of this State.

"§ 28A-2A-20. Validation of wills recorded without probate by subscribing witnesses.

In all cases where wills and testaments were executed prior to the first day of January, 1875, and which appear as recorded in the record of last wills and testaments to have had two or more witnesses thereto, and such last wills and testaments were admitted to probate and recorded in the record of wills in the proper county in this State prior to the first day of January, 1888, without having been duly proven as provided by law, and such wills were presented to the clerk of the superior court in any county in this State where the makers of said wills owned property, and where the makers of such wills lived and died, and were by such clerks recorded in the record of wills for his county, said wills and testaments or exemplified copies or certified true copies thereof, so recorded, if otherwise sufficient, shall have the effect to pass the title to real or personal property, or both, therein devised and bequeathed, to the same extent and as completely as if the execution thereof had been duly proven by the two subscribing witnesses thereto in the manner provided by law of this State. Nothing herein shall be construed to prevent such wills from being impeached for fraud.

"§ 28A-2A-21. Validation of wills admitted on oath of one subscribing witness.

In all cases where last wills and testaments which appear as recorded in the record of last wills and testaments to have had two witnesses thereto and such last wills and testaments were admitted to probate and recorded in the record of wills in the proper county in this State prior to the first day of January, 1890, upon the oath and examination of one of the witnesses, such proof being taken in writing and recorded, and the certificate of probate of the clerk of the court states that such a will is proven by one of the subscribing witnesses thereto and the handwriting of the other subscribing witness being a nonresident is proven under oath, and such a will and certificate has been recorded in the record of wills of the proper county, such probate is hereby validated as fully as if the proof of the handwriting of the nonresident witness had been taken in regular form in writing and recorded.

"§ 28A-2A-22. Validation of probates of wills when witnesses examined before notary public; acts of deputy clerks validated.

Whenever any last will and testament has been probated, based upon the examination of the subscribing witness or the subscribing witnesses, taken before a notary public in the county in which the will is probated, or taken before a notary public of any other county, it is hereby in all respects validated and shall be sufficient to pass the title to all real and personal property purported to be transferred thereby.

All acts heretofore performed by deputy clerks of the superior court in taking acknowledgments, examining witnesses and probate of any wills, deeds and other instruments required or permitted by law to be recorded, are hereby validated. Nothing herein contained shall affect pending litigation.

§ 28A-2A-23. Validation of wills when recorded without order of probate or registration upon oath and examination of subscribing witness or witnesses.

Whenever any last will and testament has been duly presented to the clerk of the superior court, and the said will together with the oath and examination of the subscribing witness or witnesses thereto taken before a notary public in the county in which the will is probated, or taken before a notary public of any other county, or before the clerk of the superior court of said county, or any other county, is duly recorded in the office of the clerk of the superior court of the said county, without a formal order of probate or registration, such will, if executed in accordance with the laws of this State, is hereby validated with respect to the probate and registration thereof and shall be sufficient to pass title to all real and personal property purported to be transferred thereby to the same extent that the said will would have done so if there had been a formal order of probate and registration. This section shall apply only to wills presented to the clerk of the superior court and recorded prior to the first day of January, 1943.

"Article 3.

"Venue for Probate of Wills and Administration of Estates of Decedents.

"§ 28A-3-1. Proper county.

The venue for the probate of a will and for all proceedings relating to the administration of the estate of a decedent shall be:

(1) In the county in this State where the decedent ~~had his domicile~~ was domiciled at the time of ~~his~~ the decedent's death; or

(2) If the decedent had no domicile in this State at the time of death, then in any county wherein the decedent left any property or assets or into which any property or assets belonging to this estate may have come. If there be more than one such county, that county in which proceedings are first commenced shall have priority of venue; or

(3) If the decedent was a nonresident motorist who died in the State, then in any county in the State.

"§ 28A-3-2. Proceedings to determine venue.

(a) If proceedings are commenced in more than one county or if upon commencement of a proceeding a question arises as to the proper county of venue, or if for any other reason a delay arises in determining venue, ~~then~~ the matter shall be referred by the clerk of superior court ~~before whom the question arises~~ for a hearing ~~before~~ and determination by the senior resident superior court judge or any judge assigned to hold the superior courts of the district which includes the county where the proceedings were first commenced. ~~The~~ Upon the filing of a motion or petition to determine venue, the judge shall determine which is the proper county for administration of the estate and stay proceedings in all other counties. ~~He~~ The judge shall make such orders as are necessary to transfer the entire proceedings to the proper county. The clerk of superior court of each county in which proceedings are stayed shall retain a true copy of the entire file and transmit the original to the clerk of superior court of such county as the judge directs.

(a1) Any interested person may file a petition to determine proper venue within the time prescribed by G.S. 28A-3-5. The matter shall be referred by the clerk of superior court by or before whom the petition is filed for a hearing and determination by the senior resident superior court judge or any judge assigned to hold the superior courts of the district that includes the county where the proceedings were first commenced.

(b) A proceeding shall be deemed commenced by the offering of a will for probate or by applying for letters of administration as provided by G.S. 28A-6-1 through 28A-6-5 or by applying for letters of collection as provided by G.S. 28A-11-1 through 28A-11-4 and the proceeding first legally commenced shall extend to all of the property or assets of the decedent in this State.

"§ 28A-3-3. Procedure after determination of improper appointment.

Where a person has been improperly appointed, and a different person in another county is determined under G.S. 28A-3-2(a) to be the properly appointed personal representative, such improperly appointed personal representative shall surrender to the properly appointed personal representative all assets of the estate under ~~his control.~~ control of the improperly appointed personal representative. In addition such improperly appointed personal representative shall file an accounting with the clerk of superior court in the proper county according to the form prescribed for collectors by G.S. 28A-11-4.

"§ 28A-3-4. Liability of personal representative appointed in improper county.

When a personal representative has been appointed in an improper county, and a different person in another county is determined under G.S. 28A-3-2(a) to be the properly appointed personal representative, such improperly appointed personal representative shall not thereby incur personal liability for administrative acts performed prior to the transfer except as provided in G.S. 28A-13-10.

"§ 28A-3-5. Waiver of venue.

If questions as to priority of venue are not raised within three months after the issuance of letters testamentary or letters of administration to the personal representative, the validity of the proceeding shall not be affected by any error in venue.

"Article 4.

"Qualification and Disqualification for Letters Testamentary and Letters of Administration.

"§ 28A-4-1. Order of persons qualified to serve.

(a) Letters Testamentary. – Letters testamentary shall be granted to the executor or executors named or designated in the will, or if no such person qualifies, to any substitute or successor executor named or designated in the will. If no person so named or designated qualifies, letters testamentary shall be granted to some other person nominated by a person upon whom the will expressly confers the authority to make such nomination. If none of the foregoing persons ~~qualifies or if the clerk of superior court upon hearing finds that none of the foregoing persons is qualified in accordance with G.S. 28A-4-2,~~ qualifies, the clerk shall grant letters of administration in accordance with subsection ~~(b).~~(b) of this section.

(8) An administrator with the will annexed who resides in the State of North Carolina when all of the devisees of the decedent are over 18 years of age and file with the clerk of superior court a written waiver instrument agreeing to relieve ~~him~~ the administrator with the will annexed of the necessity of giving bond.

"§ 28A-8-1.1. Deposited money; exclusion in computing amount of bond.

Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 28A-8-1, in any proceeding for the determination of the amount of bond to be required of the personal representative or testamentary trustee, whether at the time of appointment or subsequently, when it appears that the estate of the decedent or the testamentary trust includes money which has been or will be deposited in a bank or banks in this State, or money which has been or will be invested in an account or accounts in an insured savings and loan association or associations upon condition that such money will not be withdrawn except on authorization of the court, the court may, in its discretion, order such money so deposited or so invested and shall exclude such deposited money from the computation of the amount of such bond or reduce the amount of bond to be required in respect of such money to such an amount as it may deem reasonable.

The petitioner for letters testamentary, of administration, or of trusteeship may deliver to any such bank or association any such money in ~~his~~ the petitioner's possession, or may allow such bank to retain any such money already in its possession, or may allow such association to retain any such money already invested with it; and, in either event, the petitioner shall secure and file with the court a written receipt including the agreement of the bank or association that such money shall not be allowed to be withdrawn except on authorization of the court. In so receiving and retaining such money, the bank or association shall be protected to the same extent as though it had received the same from a person to whom letters testamentary, of administration, or of trusteeship had been issued.

The term "account in an insured savings and loan association" as used in this section means an account insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation or by a mutual deposit guaranty association authorized by Article 7A of Chapter 54 of the General Statutes of North Carolina.

The term "money" as used in this section means the principal of the decedent's estate and does not include the income earned by the principal of the decedent's estate which may be withdrawn without any authorization of the court.

"§ 28A-8-2. Provisions of bond.

A bond given pursuant to this Article shall be:

(1) Payable to the State to the use of all persons interested in the estate; and

(2) Conditioned that the personal representative giving the bond shall faithfully execute the trust reposed in ~~him~~ the personal representative and obey all lawful orders of the clerk of superior court or other court touching the administration of the estate committed to ~~him;~~ the personal representative; and

(3) In an amount not less than:

a. One and one-fourth times the value of all personal property of the decedent when the bond is secured by a suretyship bond executed by a corporate surety company authorized by the Commissioner of Insurance to do business in this State, provided that the clerk of superior court, when the value of the personal property to be administered by the personal representative exceeds one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000), may accept bond in an amount equal to the value of the personal property plus ten percent (10%) thereof; or

b. Double the value of all personal property of the decedent when the bond is secured by one of the methods provided in subdivision (4)b, (4)c or (4)d; such value of said personal property to be ascertained by the clerk of superior court by examination, on oath, of the applicant or of some other person determined by the clerk to be qualified to testify as to its value; and

(4) Secured by one or more of the following:

a. Suretyship bond executed, at the expense of the estate, by a corporate surety company authorized by the Commissioner of Insurance to do business in this State;

b. Suretyship bond executed and justified upon oath before the clerk of superior court by two or more sufficient personal sureties each of whom shall reside in and own real estate in North Carolina and shall have assets with an aggregate value above encumbrances of not less than the amount of the penalty of the required bond;

c. A first mortgage or first deed of trust in form approved by the administrative officer of the courts on real estate located in North Carolina:

1. Executed by the owner, and conditioned on the performance of the obligations of the bond, and

2. Containing a power of sale which, in the case of a mortgage, is exercisable by the clerk of superior court upon a breach of any condition thereof, or, in the case of a deed of trust, is exercisable by the trustee after notice by the clerk of superior court that a breach of condition has occurred.

The clerk of superior court shall not accept such mortgage or deed of trust until it shall have been properly registered in the county or counties in which the real estate is located, and the clerk of superior court is satisfied that the real estate subject to the mortgage or deed of trust is worth the amount to be secured thereby, and that the mortgage or deed of trust is a first charge on said real estate. No such mortgage or deed of trust shall be cancelled or surrendered until the approval of the final account, unless substitution is permitted as provided in G.S. 28A-8-3(d).

d. A deposit by the owner with the clerk of superior court of negotiable securities, of a kind permitted by law to be proper investments for fiduciaries exercising due care, having a fair market value determined by the clerk to be equal to the amount of the penalty of the bond. Such securities shall be properly endorsed, delivered to the clerk of superior court, and accompanied by a security agreement containing a power of sale authorizing the clerk of superior court to sell them in the event the person to whom letters are being issued commits a breach of any duty imposed upon ~~him~~ that person by law in respect of ~~his~~ that person's office. Such securities shall not be surrendered by the clerk of superior court to the owner until the approval of the final account, unless substitution is permitted as provided in G.S. 28A-8-3(d). For the purposes of determining the value of the assets of the personal sureties in subdivision (4)b, or the value of the real estate in subdivision (4)c, or the value of the negotiable securities in subdivision (4)d, the clerk of superior court may require a certificate of the value of such property by one or more persons not interested in the estate determined by the clerk to be qualified to certify such value.

"§ 28A-8-3. Modification of bond requirements.

(a) Increase of Bond or Security in Case of Inadequacy or Insufficiency. –

(1) The clerk of superior ~~court may, on his own motion or upon verified application of any person interested in the estate,~~ court, on the clerk's own motion, may require the personal representative to give a new bond or to furnish additional security if ~~he~~ the clerk of superior court finds that the bond filed pursuant to this Article, or its security, is insufficient, inadequate in amount, or that any of the individual sureties has become or is about to become a nonresident or, in the case of a corporate surety, has withdrawn or is about to withdraw from doing business in this State. ~~Before ordering the personal representative to give a new bond or furnish additional security,~~

(2) Any interested person may file a verified petition in accordance with Article 2 of this Chapter requesting modification of bond requirements. Upon the filing of a verified petition, the clerk of superior court shall ~~issue a citation requiring the personal representative, within 10 days after service thereof, to show cause why such action should not be taken.~~ conduct a hearing in accordance with Article 2 of this Chapter. If the clerk of superior court finds that the bond filed or its security is insufficient or inadequate, ~~he~~ the clerk shall make an order requiring the personal representative to give a new bond or to furnish additional security within a reasonable time to be fixed in the order.

(b) Increase of Bond upon Sale of Real Estate. – When a personal representative makes application for an order to sell real estate, the provisions of G.S. 1-339.10 shall govern.

(c) Reduction of Bond. – On application of the personal representative the penalty of the bond may be reduced from time to time when the clerk of superior court finds that such reduction is clearly justified, but in no event shall the penalty of the bond be reduced below the amount required by G.S. 28A-8-2(3).

(d) Substitution of Security. – When a bond is secured by a mortgage or deed of trust on real estate as provided in G.S. 28A-8-2(4)c or a deposit of negotiable securities as provided in G.S. 28A-8-2(4)d, the clerk of superior court may, on application of the personal representative, order that such real estate or negotiable securities, or a part thereof, be released upon the substitution therefor of other security in compliance with G.S. 28A-8-2(4)a, (4)c, or (4)d. Such substitution may be allowed in conjunction with any other modification of bond requirements permitted by this section.

"§ 28A-8-4. Failure to give additional bond; letters revoked.

If any personal representative fails to give an additional bond or new bond or to furnish additional security as ordered by the clerk of superior court pursuant to the provisions of this Article, within the time specified in any such ~~order,~~ order (not less than five days or more than 15 days), the clerk of superior court shall proceed as provided in G.S. 28A-9-2.

"§ 28A-8-5. Rights of surety in danger of loss.

Any surety on the bond of a personal representative who is in danger of loss under ~~his~~ the surety's suretyship may file ~~his~~ a verified petition ~~on oath~~ with the clerk of superior court setting forth the facts, and asking that such personal representative be removed from office, or that ~~he~~ the personal representative be required to give security to indemnify the petitioner against apprehended loss, or that the petitioner be discharged as surety and be released from liability for any future breach of the bond. The clerk of superior court shall ~~thereupon issue a citation to the personal representative, requiring him to answer the petition within 10 days after service thereof.~~ conduct a hearing in accordance with Article 2 of this Chapter. If, upon the hearing, the clerk of superior court determines that the surety is entitled to relief, ~~he~~ the clerk may grant the same in such manner as to serve the best interest of the estate. In any event, however, the previous surety shall not be released from liability for any breach of duty by the personal representative occurring prior to the filing of bond with a new surety unless the new surety assumes liability for the earlier breaches.

"§ 28A-8-6. Action against obligors on bond of personal representative.

Any person injured by the breach of any bond given by a personal representative or collector may institute a civil action against one or more of the obligors of the bond and recover such damages as ~~he~~ the person may have sustained. Any successor personal representative, or any other personal representative of the same decedent, may institute such action on behalf of the persons interested in the estate. Any such action against one or more of the obligors of the bond shall be brought in the name of the State of North Carolina and shall be instituted in the county in which letters were issued to the personal representative or collector, and the clerk of superior court shall give notice of the institution of the action in such manner as ~~he~~ the clerk may determine to all other persons shown by ~~his~~ the clerk's records to be interested in the estate. The bond of the personal representative is not void after the first or any subsequent recovery thereon until the entire penalty is recovered. If the plaintiff fails to prevail, costs may be taxed against the person or persons for whose benefit the action on a personal representative's bond is prosecuted.

"Article 9.

"Revocation of Letters.

"§ 28A-9-1. Revocation after hearing.

(a) Grounds. – Letters testamentary, letters of administration, or letters of collection may be revoked after hearing on any of the following grounds:

(5) All additional facts and circumstances known to ~~him~~ the collector the disclosure of which is necessary for a full and fair understanding of all matters concerning the estate.

(c) The clerk of superior court shall examine the account of the collector and if ~~he~~ the clerk finds all of the accounts proper, ~~he~~ the clerk shall by order approve the account.

"§ 28A-11-5. Compensation.

A collector shall be compensated in accordance with Article 23 of this Chapter.

"Article 12.

"Public Administrator.

"§ 28A-12-1. Appointment and term.

There shall be a public administrator in every county, appointed by the clerk of superior court, with the written approval of the senior resident superior court judge of the district in which the appointment is made, for a term of four years.

"§ 28A-12-2. Oath of office.

The public administrator shall take and subscribe an oath or affirmation in the form provided in G.S. 11-11 for administrators and in the manner provided in G.S. 28A-7-1; and the oath or affirmation so taken and subscribed shall be filed in the office of the clerk of superior court.

"§ 28A-12-3. Qualification and bond.

(a) The public administrator shall qualify and give bond with regard to each estate administered by ~~him~~ the public administrator as provided in Article 8 of this Chapter, at the expense of such estate.

(b) As an alternative to and in lieu of the bonding requirement provided in subsection (a), the administrator may, in the discretion of the clerk of superior court, enter into a single permanent bond, secured by any of the methods provided in G.S. 28A-8-2(4), payable to the State of North Carolina, conditioned upon the faithful performance of the duties of ~~his~~ the administrator's office and obedience to all lawful orders of the clerk of superior court or other court touching the administration of any estate committed to ~~him.~~ the administrator. The amount of the permanent bond shall be determined by the clerk, based on the total value of all the estates administered by the public administrator, and may be increased or decreased from time to time as the clerk determines is necessary. The expense of the bond shall be borne by the estates administered by the administrator, as determined by the clerk.

"§ 28A-12-4. When public administrator shall apply for letters.

The public administrator shall apply for and may, with the approval of the clerk of superior court, obtain letters on the estates of decedents when:

(1) It is brought to ~~his~~ the public administrator's attention that a period of six months has elapsed from the death of any decedent who has died owning property, and no letters testamentary, or letters of administration or collection, have been applied for or issued to any person; or
(2) Any person without known heirs shall die intestate owning property; or
(3) Any person entitled to apply for letters of administration shall, in writing, request the clerk to issue letters to the public administrator as provided in G.S. 28A-5-2(c).

"§ 28A-12-5. Powers and duties.

(a) The public administrator shall have, in respect to the several estates in ~~his~~ the public administrator's hands, all the rights and powers and shall be subject to all the duties and liabilities of other personal representatives.

(b) After the expiration of the term of office of a public administrator or ~~his~~ the public administrator's resignation as public administrator, ~~he~~ the public administrator shall continue, subject to the provisions of Articles 9 and 10 of this Chapter, to administer the several estates previously committed to ~~him~~ the public administrator until ~~he~~ the public administrator has fully administered the same, and ~~his~~ the public administrator's bonds shall continue in effect as to all such estates.

"§ 28A-12-6. Removal from office.

If letters of administration issued to the public administrator with respect to any estate are subsequently revoked on the grounds that they were obtained by false representation as provided in G.S. 28A-9-1(a)(2), or on the grounds as specified in G.S. 28A-9-1(a)(1), 28A-9-1(a)(3), 28A-9-2(a)(3), 28A-9-2(a)(5), or 28A-9-2(a)(6) or if ~~he~~ the public administrator becomes a nonresident of the State, the clerk of superior court shall order the removal of the public administrator from ~~office.~~ office upon notice and hearing in accordance with Article 2 of this Chapter.

"§ 28A-12-7. Procedure after removal from office.

The clerk of superior court shall require of any public administrator who is removed from office pursuant to G.S. 28A-12-6 a complete accounting of all ~~his~~ of the public administrator's activities as public administrator and for the property remaining under ~~his~~ the public administrator's control by reason of ~~his~~ the public administrator's appointment under this Article as administrator of any estate that has not been fully administered at the time of ~~his~~ the public administrator's removal. If it appears to the clerk of superior court that grounds exist for revocation of letters of administration issued with respect to any such estate, ~~he~~ the clerk shall proceed in accordance with the provisions of Article 9 of this Chapter. If letters of administration are revoked pursuant to such proceedings, the clerk of superior court shall issue letters of administration to the successor public administrator or to some other person not disqualified under G.S. 28A-4-2.

"§ 28A-12-8. Compensation.

A public administrator shall be compensated in accordance with Article 23 of this Chapter.

"Article 13.

"Representative's Powers, Duties and Liabilities.

"§ 28A-13-1. Time of accrual of duties and powers.

The duties and powers of a personal representative commence upon ~~his or her~~ the personal representative's appointment. The powers of a personal representative relate back to give acts by the person appointed which are beneficial to the estate occurring prior to appointment the same effect as those occurring thereafter. However, a person named executor in a will may, prior to appointment, carry out written instructions of the decedent relating to the decedent's body, funeral and burial arrangements; provided that a health care agent authorized in a valid health care power of attorney to make body, funeral, and burial arrangements shall have precedence in making these arrangements, both before and after qualification of the decedent's personal representative, to the extent provided in G.S. 32A-19(b). A personal representative may ratify and accept acts on behalf of the estate done by others where the acts would have been proper for a personal representative.

"§ 28A-13-2. General duties; relation to persons interested in estate.

A personal representative is a fiduciary who, in addition to the specific duties stated in this Chapter, is under a general duty to settle the estate of ~~his~~ the personal representative's decedent as expeditiously and with as little sacrifice of value as is reasonable under all of the circumstances. ~~He~~ A personal representative shall use the authority and powers conferred upon ~~him~~ the personal representative by this Chapter, by the terms of the will under which ~~he~~ the personal representative is acting, by any order of court in proceedings to which ~~he~~ the personal representative is party, and by the rules generally applicable to fiduciaries, for the best interests of all persons interested in the estate, and with due regard for their respective rights.

"§ 28A-13-3. Powers of a personal representative or fiduciary.

(a) Except as qualified by express limitations imposed in a will of the decedent or a court order, and subject to the provisions of G.S. 28A-13-6 respecting the powers of joint personal representatives, a personal representative has the power to perform in a reasonable and prudent manner every act which a reasonable and prudent person would perform incident to the collection, preservation, liquidation or distribution of a decedent's estate so as to accomplish the desired result of settling and distributing the decedent's estate in a safe, orderly, accurate and expeditious manner as provided by law, including the powers specified in the following subdivisions:

(1) To take possession, custody or control of the personal property of the decedent. If in the opinion of the personal representative ~~his~~ the personal representative's possession, custody or control of such property is not necessary for purposes of administration, such property may be left with or surrendered to the heir or devisee presumptively entitled thereto. ~~He~~ The personal representative has the power to take possession, custody or control of the real property of the decedent if ~~he~~ the personal representative determines such possession, custody or control is in the best interest of the administration of the ~~estate.~~ estate, including the power to eject occupants of real property. Prior to exercising such power over real property the procedure as set out in subsection G.S. 28A-13-3(c) shall be ~~followed.~~ followed, except with respect to real property that is devised to the personal representative in the decedent's will or title to which is acquired by the personal representative during the estate administration, in which case the personal representative shall be immediately entitled to custody, possession, and control, and may institute an estate proceeding under subsection (d) of this section to enforce those rights. If the personal representative determines that such possession, custody or control is not in the best interest of the administration of the estate such property may be left with or surrendered to the heir or devisee presumptively entitled thereto.

(2) To retain assets owned by the decedent pending distribution or liquidation even though such assets may include items which are otherwise improper for investment of trust funds.

(3) To receive assets from other fiduciaries or other sources.

(4) To complete performance of contracts entered into by the decedent that continue as obligations of ~~his~~ the decedent's estate, or to refuse to complete such contracts, as the personal representative may determine to be in the best interests of the estate, but such refusal shall not limit any cause of action which might have been maintained against decedent if ~~he~~ the decedent had refused to complete such contract. In respect to enforceable contracts by the decedent to convey an interest in land, the provisions of G.S. 28A-17-9 are controlling.

(5) To deposit, as a fiduciary, funds of the estate in a bank, including a bank operated by the personal representative pursuant to G.S. 53-163.1.

(6) To make, as a fiduciary, any form of investment allowed by law to the State Treasurer under G.S. 147-69.1, with funds of the estate, when such are not needed to meet debts and expenses immediately payable and are not immediately distributable, including money received from the sale of other assets; or to enter into other short-term loan arrangements that may be appropriate for use by trustees or beneficiaries generally. Provided, that in addition to the types of investments hereby authorized, deposits in interest-bearing accounts of any credit union authorized to do business in this State, when such deposits are insured in the same manner as required by G.S. 147-69.1 for deposits in a savings and loan association, are hereby authorized.

(7) To abandon or relinquish all rights in any property when, in the opinion of the personal representative acting reasonably and in good faith, it is valueless, or is so encumbered or is otherwise in such condition that it is of no benefit to the estate.

(8) To vote shares of stock or other securities in person or by general or limited proxy, and to execute waivers, consents or objections with respect to such stock or securities.

(9) To pay calls, assessments, and any other sums chargeable or accruing against or on account of securities.

(10) To hold shares of stock or other securities in the name of a nominee, without mention of the estate in the instrument representing stock or other securities or in registration records of the issuer thereof; provided, that

a. The estate records and all reports or accounts rendered by the personal representative clearly show the ownership of the stock or other securities by the personal representative and the facts regarding its holdings, and

b. The nominee shall not have possession of the stock or other securities or access thereto except under the immediate supervision of the personal representative or when such securities are deposited by the personal representative in a clearing corporation as defined in G.S. 25-8-102.

Such personal representative shall be personally liable for any acts or omissions of such nominee in connection with such stock or other securities so held, as if such personal representative had done such acts or been guilty of such omissions.

(11) To insure, at the expense of the estate, the assets of the estate in ~~his~~ the personal representative's possession, custody or control against damage or loss.

(12) To borrow money for such periods of time and upon such terms and conditions as to rates, maturities, renewals, and security as the personal representative shall deem advisable, including the power of a corporate personal representative to borrow from its own banking department, for the purpose of paying debts, taxes, and other claims against the estate, and to mortgage, pledge or otherwise encumber such portion of the estate as may be required to secure such loan or loans. In respect to the borrowing of money on the security of the real property of the decedent, G.S. 28A-17-11 is controlling.

(13) To renew obligations of the decedent for the payment of money.

(14) To advance ~~his~~ the personal representative's own money for the protection of the estate, and for all expenses, losses and liabilities sustained in the administration of the estate or because of the holding or ownership of any estate assets. For such advances, with any interest, the personal representative shall have a lien on the assets of the estate as against a devisee or heir.

(15) To compromise, adjust, arbitrate, sue on or defend, abandon, or otherwise deal with and settle claims in favor of or against the estate.

(16) To pay taxes, assessments, ~~his~~ the personal representative's own compensation, and other expenses incident to the collection, care, administration and protection of the assets of the estate in ~~his~~ the personal representative's possession, custody or control.

(17) To sell or exercise stock subscription or conversion rights; consent, directly or through a committee or other agent, to the reorganization, consolidation, merger, dissolution, or liquidation of a corporation or other business enterprise.

(18) To allocate items of income or expense to either estate income or principal, as permitted or provided by law.

(19) To employ persons, including attorneys, auditors, investment advisors, appraisers or agents to advise or assist ~~him~~ the personal representative in the performance of ~~his~~ the personal representative's administrative duties.

(20) To continue any business or venture in which the decedent was engaged at the date of ~~his~~ the decedent's death, where such continuation is reasonably necessary or desirable to preserve the value, including goodwill, of the decedent's interest in such business. With respect to the use of the decedent's interest in a continuing partnership, the provisions of G.S. 59-71 and 59-72 qualify this power; and with respect to farming operations engaged in by the decedent at the time of ~~his~~ the decedent's death, the provisions of G.S. 28A-13-4 qualify this power.

(21) To incorporate or participate in the incorporation of any business or venture in which the decedent was engaged at the time of ~~his~~ the decedent's death.

(22) To provide for the exoneration of the personal representative from personal liability in any contract entered into on behalf of the estate.

(23) To maintain actions for the wrongful death of the decedent according to the provisions of Article 18 of this Chapter and to compromise or settle any such claims, whether in litigation or not. Unless all persons who would be entitled to receive any damages recovered under G.S. 28A-18-2(b)(4) are competent adults and have consented in writing, any such settlement shall be subject to the approval of a judge of the court or tribunal exercising jurisdiction over the action or a judge of the district or superior court in cases where no action has previously been filed. If the claim is brought under Article 31 of Chapter 143 of the General Statutes, the settlement is subject to the approval of the Industrial Commission in accordance with that Article. It shall be the duty of the personal representative in distributing the proceeds of such settlement in any instance to take into consideration and to make a fair allocation to those claimants for funeral, burial, hospital and medical expenses which would have been payable from damages which might have been recovered had a wrongful death action gone to judgment in favor of the plaintiff.

(24) To maintain any appropriate action or proceeding to recover possession of any property of the decedent, or to determine the title thereto; to recover damages for any injury done prior to the death of the decedent to any of ~~his~~ the decedent's property; and to recover damages for any injury done subsequent to the death of the decedent to such property.

(25) To purchase at any public or private sale of any real or personal property belonging to the decedent's estate or securing an obligation of the estate as a fiduciary for the benefit of the estate when, in ~~his~~ the personal representative's opinion, it is necessary to prevent a loss to the estate.

(26) To sell or lease personal property of the estate in the manner prescribed by the provisions of Article 16 of this Chapter.

(27) To sell or lease real property of the estate in the manner prescribed by the provisions of Article 17 of this Chapter.

(28) To enter into agreements with taxing authorities to secure the benefit of the federal marital deduction pursuant to G.S. 28A-22-6.

(29) To pay or satisfy the debts and claims against the decedent's estate in the order and manner prescribed by Article 19 of this Chapter.

(30) To distribute any sum recovered for the wrongful death of the decedent according to the provisions of G.S. 28A-18-2; and to distribute all other assets available for distribution according to the provisions of this Chapter or as otherwise lawfully authorized.

(31) To exercise such additional lawful powers as are conferred upon ~~him~~ the personal representative by the will.

(32) To execute and deliver all instruments which will accomplish or facilitate the exercise of the powers vested in the personal representative.

(33) Repealed by Session Laws 2009-48, s. 10, effective October 1, 2009, and applicable to renunciations and powers of attorney executed on or after that date.

(a1) Except as qualified by express limitations imposed in a will of the decedent, and subject to the provisions of G.S. 28A-13-6 respecting the powers of joint personal representatives, a personal representative shall have absolute discretion to make the election as to which items of the decedent's personal and household effects shall be excluded from the carry over basis provision of the federal income tax law and such election shall be conclusive and binding on all concerned.

(a2) Subject to the provisions of G.S. 28A-13-6 respecting the powers of joint personal representatives, a personal representative has the power to renounce in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 31B of the General Statutes.

(b) Any question arising out of the powers conferred by subsections (a), (a1), and (a2) of this section shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Article 18 of this Chapter.

(c) ~~Prior~~ Except with respect to real property that is devised to the personal representative in the decedent's will, or title to which is acquired by the personal representative during the estate administration, in which case the personal representative shall be immediately entitled to custody, possession, and control and may institute an estate proceeding under subsection (d) to enforce those rights, prior to the personal representative exercising possession, custody or control over real property of the ~~estate he~~ estate, the personal representative shall petition the clerk of court to obtain an order authorizing such possession, custody or control. The petition shall include:

(1) A description of the real property which is the subject of the petition;

(2) The names, ages, and addresses, if known, of the devisees and heirs of the decedent;

(3) A statement by the personal representative that ~~he~~ the personal representative has determined that such possession, custody or control is in the best interest of the administration of the estate.

The devisees and heirs will be made parties to the proceeding by service of summons in the manner prescribed by law. If the clerk of court determines that it is in the best interest of the administration of the estate to authorize the personal representative to take possession, custody or ~~control he~~ control, the clerk of court shall grant an order authorizing that power. If a special proceeding has been instituted by the personal representative pursuant to G.S. 28A-15-1(c), the personal representative may petition for possession, custody, or control of any real property as a part of that proceeding and is not required to institute a separate special proceeding.

(d) The personal representative shall have the power to institute an estate proceeding pursuant to Article 2 of this Chapter to enforce the rights set forth in this subsection. The clerk of superior court may enter orders necessary to enforce the rights set forth in this subsection. If the person occupying the real property is a tenant or lessee of the property, the personal representative may seek ejectment of the tenant or lessee only pursuant to the provisions of Article 3 of Chapter 42 of the General Statutes.

"§ 28A-13-4. Continuance of farming operations of deceased persons.

When any person dies while engaged in farming operations, ~~his~~ the decedent's personal representative is authorized to continue such farming operations until the end of the current calendar year, and until all crops grown during that year are harvested. The net income from such farming operations shall be personal assets of the estate. Any indebtedness incurred in connection with such farming operations after the date of death shall be preferred over the claims of any heir, legatee, devisee, distributee, general or unsecured creditor of said estate. Nothing herein contained shall limit the powers of a personal representative under the terms of a will.

"§ 28A-13-5. Personal representatives hold in joint tenancy.

Any estate or interest in property which becomes vested in two or more personal representatives shall be held by them in joint tenancy with the incident of survivorship.

"§ 28A-13-6. Exercise of powers of joint personal representatives by one or more than one.

(a) Repealed by Session Laws 2005-192, s. 5, effective January 1, 2006.

(b) If a will expressly makes provision for the execution of any of the powers of personal representatives by all of them or by any one or more of them, the provisions of the will govern.

(c) Repealed by Session Laws 2005-192, s. 5, effective January 1, 2006.

(c1) If there is no governing provision in the will, personal representatives may, by written agreement signed by all of them and filed with and approved by the clerk of superior court of the county in which the personal representatives qualified, provide that any designated one or more of the personal representatives may exercise one or more of the following powers:

(1) Establish and maintain bank accounts for the ~~trust~~ estate and issue checks for the estate.

(2) Maintain inventories, accountings, and income and expense records of the estate.

(3) Enter any safety deposit box rented by the estate.

(4) Employ persons as advisors or assistants in the performance of administrative duties, including agents, attorneys, accountants, brokers, appraisers, and custodians.

(5) List estate property for taxes and prepare and file tax returns for the ~~trust.~~ estate.

(6) Collect and give receipts for claims and debts of the estate.

(7) Pay debts, claims, costs of administration, and taxes of the estate.

(8) Compromise, adjust, or otherwise settle any claim by or against the ~~trust~~ estate and release, in whole or in part, a claim belonging to the estate.

(9) Have custody of the estate property.

(10) Perform any function relating to investment of estate assets.

(d) Subject to subsection (b) of this section, if two or more personal representatives own shares of corporate stock or other securities, their acts with respect to voting shall have the following effect:

(1) If only one votes, in person or by proxy, that personal representative's act binds all;

(2) If more than one vote, in person or by proxy, the act of the majority so voting binds all;

(3) If more that one vote, in person or by proxy, but the vote is evenly split on any particular matter, each faction is entitled to vote the stock or other securities in question proportionately.

(e) Subject to subsections (b), (c1), and (d) of this section, all other acts and duties must be performed by both of the personal representatives if there are two, and by a majority of them if there are more than two. No personal representative who has not joined in exercising a power shall be liable for the consequences of such exercise, nor shall a dissenting personal representative be liable for the consequences of an act in which the personal representative joins at the direction of the majority of the personal representatives, if that personal representative expressed his or her dissent in writing to any other personal representative at or before the time of such joinder.

(f) No personal representative shall be relieved of liability on his or her bond or otherwise by entering into any agreement under this section.

"§ 28A-13-7. Powers and duties of successor personal representative.

A successor personal representative is one appointed to succeed a personal representative whose appointment has terminated by death, resignation or revocation. Unless a contrary intent clearly appears from the will, a successor personal representative has all the powers and duties, discretionary or otherwise, of the original personal representative.

"§ 28A-13-8. Powers and duties of administrator with will annexed.

When an administrator with the will annexed has been appointed, whether or not ~~he~~ the administrator is succeeding a previously appointed personal representative, ~~he~~ that administrator has the same powers and duties, discretionary or otherwise, as if ~~he~~ the administrator had been named executor in the will, unless a contrary intent clearly appears from the will.

"§ 28A-13-9. Powers of surviving personal representative.

When one or more of those nominated as coexecutors in a will is not appointed, or when the appointment of one or more joint personal representatives is terminated, every power granted to such joint personal representatives may be exercised by the surviving representative or representatives; provided that nothing to the contrary appears in the will of a testate decedent.

"§ 28A-13-10. Liability of personal representative.

(a) Property of Estate. – A personal representative shall be liable for and chargeable in ~~his~~ the personal representative's accounts with all of the estate of the decedent which comes into ~~his~~ the personal representative's possession at any time, including all the income therefrom; but ~~he~~ the personal representative shall not be liable for any debts due to the decedent or other assets of the estate which remain uncollected without ~~his~~ the personal representative's fault. Except for commissions allowable by law, ~~he~~ the personal representative shall not be entitled to any profits caused by an increase in values, nor be chargeable with loss by a decrease in value or destruction without ~~his~~ the personal representative's fault, of any part of the estate.

(b) Property Not a Part of Estate. – A personal representative shall be chargeable in ~~his~~ the personal representative's accounts with property not a part of the estate which comes into ~~his~~ the personal representative's possession at any time and shall be liable to the persons entitled thereto if:

(1) The property was received under a duty imposed on ~~him~~ the personal representative by law in the capacity of personal representative; or

(2) ~~He~~ The personal representative has commingled such property with the assets of the estate.

(c) Breach of Duty. – A personal representative shall be liable and chargeable in ~~his~~ the personal representative's accounts for any loss to the estate arising from ~~his~~ the personal representative's embezzlement or commingling of the estate with other property; for loss to the estate through self-dealing; for any loss to the estate from wrongful acts or omissions of ~~his~~ the personal representative's joint personal representatives which ~~he~~ the personal representative could have prevented by the exercise of ordinary care; and for any loss to the estate arising from ~~his~~ the personal representative's failure to act in good faith and with such care, foresight and diligence as an ordinarily reasonable and prudent ~~man~~ person would act with ~~his~~ the ordinarily reasonable and prudent person's own property under like circumstances. If the exercise of power concerning the estate is improper, the personal representative is liable for breach of fiduciary duty to interested persons for resulting damage or loss to the same extent as a trustee of an express trust.

"Article 14.

"Notice to Creditors.

"§ 28A-14-1. Notice for claims.

(a) Every personal representative and collector after the granting of letters shall notify all persons, firms and corporations having claims against the decedent to present the same to such personal representative or collector, on or before a day to be named in such notice, which day must be at least three months from the day of the first publication or posting of such notice. The notice shall set out a mailing address for the personal representative or collector. The notice shall be published once a week for four consecutive weeks in a newspaper qualified to publish legal advertisements, if any such newspaper is published in the county. If there is no newspaper published in the county, but there is a newspaper having general circulation in the county, then at the option of the personal representative, or collector, the notice shall be published once a week for four consecutive weeks in the newspaper having general circulation in the county and posted at the courthouse or the notice shall be posted at the courthouse and four other public places in the county. Personal representatives are not required to publish or mail notice to creditors if the only asset of the estate consists of a claim for damages arising from death by wrongful act. When any collector or personal representative of an estate has published or mailed the notice provided for by this section, no further publication or mailing shall be required by any other collector or personal representative.

(b) Prior to filing the proof of notice required by G.S. 28A-14-2, every personal representative and collector shall personally deliver or send by first class mail to the last known address a copy of the notice required by subsection (a) of this section to all persons, firms, and corporations having unsatisfied claims against the decedent who are actually known or can be reasonably ascertained by the personal representative or collector within 75 days after the granting of letters. Provided, however, no notice shall be required to be delivered or mailed with respect to any claim that is recognized as a valid claim by the personal representative or collector.

(c) The personal representative or collector may personally deliver or mail by first class mail a copy of the notice required by subsection (a) of this section to all creditors of the estate whose names and addresses can be ascertained with reasonable diligence. If the personal representative or collector in good faith believes that the notice required by subsection (b) of this section to a particular creditor is or may be required and gives notice based on that belief, the personal representative or collector is not liable to any person for giving the notice, whether or not the notice is actually required by subsection (b) of this section. If the personal representative or collector in good faith fails to give notice required by subsection (b) of this section, the personal representative or collector is not liable to any person for such failure.

"§ 28A-14-1.1. Validation of certain notices.

(a) Any notice to creditors published or posted under G.S. 28A-14-1 which did not, in the advertisement, name the day after which claims could not be presented is validated.

(b) This section applies to all notices published and posted between October 1, 1975, and January 1, 1991, except that it does not affect any pending litigation or any litigation instituted within 90 days of January 1, 1991.

"§ 28A-14-2. Proof of notice.

A copy of the notice directed by G.S. 28A-14-1(a) to be posted or published, together with an affidavit or affidavits of one of the persons authorized by G.S. 1-600(a) to make affidavits to the effect that such notice was posted or published in accordance with G.S. 28A-14-1(a), and an affidavit of the personal representative or collector, or the attorney for the personal representative or collector, to the effect that a copy of the notice was personally delivered or mailed to each creditor entitled to notice in accordance with G.S. 28A-14-1(b) shall be filed in the office of the clerk of superior court by the personal representative or collector at the time the inventory required by G.S. 28A-20-1 is filed. The copy of the notice, together with the affidavit or affidavits, shall be deemed a record of the court and a copy thereof, duly certified by the clerk of superior court, shall be received as prima facie evidence of the fact of publication or mailing in all the courts of this State.

"§ 28A-14-3. Personal notice to creditor.

The personal representative or collector may cause the notice to be personally served on any creditor.

"Article 15.

"Assets; Discovery of Assets.

"§ 28A-15-1. Assets of the estate generally.

(a) All of the real and personal property, both legal and equitable, of a decedent shall be assets available for the discharge of debts and other claims against ~~his~~ the decedent's estate in the absence of a statute expressly excluding any such property. Provided that before real property is selected the personal representative must determine that such selection is in the best interest of the administration of the estate.

(b) In determining what property of the estate shall be sold, leased, pledged, mortgaged or exchanged for the payment of the debts of the decedent and other claims against ~~his~~ the decedent's estate, the personal representative shall select the assets which in ~~his~~ the personal representative's judgment are calculated to promote the best interests of the estate. In the selection of assets for this purpose, there shall be no necessary distinction between real and personal property, absent any contrary provision in the will.

(c) If it shall be determined by the personal representative that it is in the best interest of the administration of the estate to sell, lease, or mortgage any real estate or interest therein to obtain money for the payment of debts and other claims against the decedent's estate, the personal representative shall institute a special proceeding before the clerk of superior court for such purpose pursuant to Article 17 of this Chapter, except that no such proceeding shall be required for a sale made pursuant to authority given by will. A general provision granting authority to the personal representative to sell the testator's real property, or incorporation by reference of the provisions of G.S. 32-27(2) shall be sufficient to eliminate the necessity for a proceeding under Article 17. If a special proceeding has been instituted by the personal representative pursuant to G.S. 28A-13-3(c), the personal representative may petition for sale, lease, or mortgage of any real property as a part of that proceeding and is not required to institute a separate special proceeding.

(d) The crops of every deceased person, remaining ungathered at ~~his~~ the person's death, shall, in all cases, belong to the personal representative or collector, as part of the personal assets of the decedent's estate; and shall not pass to the devisee by virtue of any devise of the land, unless such intent be manifest and specified in the will.

"§ 28A-15-2. Title and possession of property.

(a) Personal Property. – Subsequent to the death of the decedent and prior to the appointment and qualification of the personal representative or collector, the title and the right of possession of personal property of the decedent is vested in ~~his~~ the decedent's heirs; but upon the appointment and qualification of the personal representative or collector, the heirs shall be divested of such title and right of possession which shall be vested in the personal representative or collector relating back to the time of the decedent's death for purposes of administering the estate of the decedent. But, if in the opinion of the personal representative, ~~his~~ the personal representative's possession, custody and control of any item of personal property is not necessary for purposes of administration, such possession, custody and control may be left with or surrendered to the heir or devisee presumptively entitled thereto.

(b) Real Property. – The title to real property of a decedent is vested in ~~his~~ the decedent's heirs as of the time of ~~his~~ the decedent's death; but the title to real property of a decedent devised under a valid probated will becomes vested in the devisees and shall relate back to the decedent's death, subject to the provisions of G.S. 31-39.

"§ 28A-15-3. Nonexoneration of encumbered property.

When real or personal property subject to any lien or security interest, except judgment liens, is specifically devised, the devisee takes the property subject to the encumbrance and without a right to have other assets of the decedent applied to discharge the secured obligation, unless an express provision of the will confers such right of exoneration. A general testamentary direction to pay the debts of the decedent is not sufficient to confer such right.

"§ 28A-15-4. Encumbered assets.

When any assets of the estate are encumbered by mortgage, pledge, lien or other security interest, the personal representative may pay the encumbrance or any part thereof, renew or extend any obligation secured by the encumbrance, or convey or transfer the encumbered assets to the creditor in satisfaction of ~~his~~ the creditor's lien, in whole or in part, whether or not the holder of the encumbrance has filed a claim, if it appears to be for the best interest of the estate; provided that payment of an encumbrance shall not increase the share of the distributee entitled to the encumbered assets unless the distributee is entitled to exoneration by express provisions of the will.

"§ 28A-15-5. Order in which assets appropriated; abatement.

(a) General Rules. – In the absence of testamentary indication as to the order of abatement, or some other controlling statute, shares of devisees and of heirs abate, without any preference or priority as between real and personal property, in the following order:

(1) Property not disposed of by the will;
(2) Residuary devises;
(3) General devises;
(4) Specific devises.

For purposes of abatement, a demonstrative devise of money or property payable out of or charged on a particular fund or other property is treated as a specific devise; but if the particular fund or property out of which the demonstrative devise is to be paid is nonexistent or insufficient at the death of the testator, the deficiency is to be payable out of the general estate of the decedent and is to be regarded as a general devise and must abate pro rata with other general devises. Abatement within each classification is in proportion to the amounts of property each of the beneficiaries would have received, had full distribution of the property been made in accordance with the terms of the will.

(b) Abatement; Sales; Contribution. – When property which has been specifically devised is sold, leased, or mortgaged, or a security therein is created, by the personal representative, abatement shall be achieved by ratable adjustments in, or contributions from other interest in the remaining assets. The clerk of superior court shall, at the time of the hearing on the petition for final distribution, determine the amounts of the respective contributions and whether the same shall be made before distribution or shall constitute a lien on specific property which is distributed.

"§ 28A-15-6. Federal income tax refunds – joint returns.

Upon the determination by the United States Treasury Department of an overpayment of income tax by a married couple filing a joint federal income tax return, one of whom has died since the filing of such return or where a joint federal income tax return is filed on behalf of a husband and wife, one of whom has died prior to the filing of the return, any refund of the tax by reason of such overpayment, if not in excess of five hundred dollars ($500.00), shall be the sole and separate property of the surviving spouse. In the event that both spouses are dead at the time such overpayment is determined, such refund, if not in excess of five hundred dollars ($500.00), shall be the sole and separate property of the estate of the spouse who died last and may be paid directly by the Treasury Department to the executor or administrator of such estate, or to the person entitled to the possession of the assets of a small estate pursuant to the provisions of Article 25 of this Chapter.

"§ 28A-15-7. Federal income tax refunds – separate returns.

Upon the determination by the United States Treasury Department of an overpayment of income tax by any married person filing a separate return, any refund of the tax by reason of such overpayment, if not in excess of two hundred fifty dollars ($250.00), exclusive of interest, shall be the sole and separate property of the surviving spouse, and the United States Treasury Department may pay said sum directly to such surviving spouse, and such payment to the extent thereof shall operate as a complete acquittal and discharge of the United States Treasury Department.

"§ 28A-15-8. State income tax returns.

Upon the determination by the Secretary of Revenue of North Carolina of an overpayment of income tax by any married person, any refund of the tax by reason of such overpayment, if not in excess of two hundred dollars ($200.00) exclusive of interest, shall be the sole and separate property of the surviving spouse, and said Secretary of Revenue may pay said sum directly to such surviving spouse, and such payment to the extent thereof shall operate as a complete acquittal and discharge of the Secretary of Revenue.

"§ 28A-15-9. Excess funds.

If the amount of any refund exceeds the sums specified in G.S. 28A-15-6, 28A-15-7 or 28A-15-8, the sums specified therein and one half of any additional sums shall be the sole and separate property of the surviving spouse. The remaining one half of such additional sums shall be the property of the estate of the decedent spouse.

"§ 28A-15-9.1. Phase II payments.

A Phase II payment as defined in G.S. 28A-21-3.1 shall be the property of the distributees paid in accordance with that section.

"§ 28A-15-10. Assets of decedent's estate for limited purposes.

(a) When needed to satisfy claims against a decedent's estate, assets may be acquired by a personal representative or collector from the following sources:

(1) Tentative trusts created by the decedent in savings accounts for other persons.

(2) Gifts causa mortis made by the decedent.

(3) Joint deposit accounts with right of survivorship created by decedent pursuant to the provisions of G.S. 41-2.1 or otherwise; and joint tenancies with right of survivorship created by decedent in corporate stocks or other investment securities.

(4) An interest in a security passing to a beneficiary pursuant to the provisions of Article 4 of Chapter 41 of the General Statutes.

Such assets shall be acquired solely for the purpose of satisfying such claims, however, and shall not be available for distribution to heirs or devisees.

(b) Where there are not sufficient personal and real assets of the decedent to satisfy all the debts and other claims against ~~his~~ the decedent's estate, the personal representative shall have the right to sue for and recover any and all personal property or real property, or interest therein, which the decedent may in any manner have transferred or conveyed with intent to hinder, delay, or defraud ~~his~~ the decedent's creditors, and any personal property or real property, or interest therein, so recovered shall constitute assets of the estate in the hands of the personal representative for the payment of debts and other claims against the estate of the decedent. But if the alienee has sold the personal property or real property, or interest therein, so fraudulently acquired by ~~him~~ the alienee from the decedent to a bona fide purchaser for value without notice of the fraud, then such personal property or real property, or interest therein, may not be recovered from such bona fide purchaser but the fraudulent alienee shall be liable to the personal representative for the value of the personal property or real property, or interest therein, so acquired and disposed of to a bona fide purchaser. If the whole recovery from the fraudulent alienee shall not be necessary for the payment of the debts and other claims against the estate of the decedent, the surplus shall be returned to such fraudulent alienee or ~~his~~ the fraudulent alienee's assigns.

(c) Where there has been a recovery in an action for wrongful death, the same shall not be applied to the payment of debts and other claims against the estate of decedent or devises, except as to the payment of reasonable burial and funeral expenses and reasonable hospital and medical expenses incident to the injury resulting in death and as limited and provided in G.S. 28-18-2 [G.S. 28A-18-2].

"§ 28A-15-11. Debt due from personal representative not discharged by appointment.

The appointment of any person as personal representative does not discharge any debt or demand due from such person to the decedent.

"§ 28A-15-12. ~~Examination of persons or corporations believed to have possession of~~ Actions to recover property of decedent.

(a) ~~Whenever a personal representative or collector makes oath or affirmation before the clerk of superior court of the county where the party to be examined resides or does business that he has reasonable ground to believe, setting forth the grounds of his belief, that any person, firm or corporation has in his or its possession any property of any kind belonging to the estate of his decedent, the clerk shall issue a notice to be served upon the person or any member of the firm or officer, agent or employee of the firm or corporation designated in the affidavit, to appear before the clerk at his office at a time fixed in the notice, not less than three days after the issuance of the notice, and be examined under oath by the personal representative or collector or his attorney concerning the possession of such property. If upon examination the clerk of superior court finds that the person examined or the firm or corporation for which he works has in his or its possession any property belonging solely to the decedent, and fails to show any satisfactory reason for retaining possession of the property, the clerk shall issue an order requiring the person, firm or corporation forthwith to deliver the property to said personal representative or collector and may enforce compliance with the order by proceedings as for contempt of court: Provided, that in the case of a firm or corporation, whenever any person other than a partner or executive officer of such firm or corporation is examined, no such order shall be made until at least three days after service of notice upon a partner or executive officer of such firm or corporation to show cause why such order should not be made.~~

(a1) A personal representative or collector shall have the right to bring an action to sue for and recover any property of any kind belonging to the estate of the personal representative's decedent, by action filed in the Superior Court Division of the General Court of Justice and shall be entitled to such other provisional remedies as provided for under Subchapter 13 of Chapter 1 of the General Statutes.

(b) ~~Any person aggrieved by the order of the clerk of superior court may, within five days, appeal to the judge holding the next session of superior court of the county after the order is made or to the resident judge of the district, but as a condition precedent to his appeal he shall give a justified bond in a sum at least double the value of the property in question, conditioned upon the safe delivery of the property and the payment of damages for its~~

~~detention, to the personal representative or collector in the event that the order of the clerk should be finally sustained. When the bond is executed and delivered to the court, no attachment as for contempt shall be served upon the appealing party and any contempt order theretofore issued shall be stayed; but if the appellant fails to have his appeal heard at the next session of superior court held in his county, or by the resident judge of the district within 30 days after giving notice, the appeal shall be deemed abandoned, and the stay of any contempt order theretofore issued shall terminate.~~

(b1) A personal representative, collector, or any interested person shall have the right to bring an estates proceeding seeking the examination of any persons reasonably believed to be in possession of property of any kind belonging to the estate of the decedent including a demand for the recovery of such property. An estates proceeding brought under the provisions of this subsection shall be instituted by the filing of a verified petition and shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of Article 2 of this Chapter. The court may enter orders requiring the examination of persons consistent with this subsection and, if the court determines that a person is in possession of property of the estate of the decedent, shall have the authority to order recovery of that property. Orders issued by the clerk of superior court shall be enforceable by proceedings as for contempt of court.

(c) The party against whom the final judgment is rendered shall be adjudged to pay the costs of the proceedings hereunder.

(d) The remedies provided in this section shall not be exclusive, but shall be in addition to any remedies which are now or may hereafter be provided.

"§ 28A-15-13. Opening and inventory of decedent's safe-deposit box.

(a) Definitions. – The following definitions apply to this section:

(1) Institution. – Any entity or person having supervision or possession of a safe-deposit box to which a decedent had access.

(1a) Deputy. – A person appointed in writing by a lessee or cotenant of a safe-deposit box as having right of access to the safe-deposit box without further authority or permission of the lessee or cotenant, in a manner and form designated by the institution.

(2) Letter of authority. – Letters of administration, letters testamentary, an affidavit of collection of personal property, an order of summary administration, or a letter directed to the institution designating a person entitled to receive the contents of a safe-deposit box to which the decedent had access. The letter of authority must be signed by the clerk of superior court or by the clerk's representative.

(3) Qualified person. – A person possessing a letter of authority or a person named as a deputy, lessee or cotenant of the safe-deposit box to which the decedent had access.

(b) Presence of Clerk Required. – Any safe-deposit box to which a decedent had access shall be sealed by the institution having supervision or possession of the box. Except as provided in subsection (c) of this section, the presence of the clerk of superior court of the county where the safe-deposit box is located or the presence of the clerk's representative is required before the box may be opened. The clerk or the clerk's representative shall open the safe-deposit box in the presence of the person possessing a key to the box and a representative of the institution having supervision or possession of the box. The clerk shall make an inventory of the contents of the box and furnish a copy to the institution and to the person possessing a key to the box.

(c) Presence of Clerk Not Required. – The presence of the clerk of superior court or the clerk's representative is not required when the person requesting the opening of the decedent's safe-deposit box is a qualified person. In that event, the qualified person shall make an inventory of the contents of the box and furnish a copy to the institution and to the person possessing a key to the box if that person is someone other than the qualified person.

(d) Testamentary Instrument in Box. – If the safe-deposit box contains any writing that appears to be a will, codicil, or any other instrument of a testamentary nature, then the clerk of superior court or the qualified person shall file the instrument in the office of the clerk of superior court.

(e) Release of Contents. – Except as provided in subsection (d) for testamentary instruments, the institution shall not release any contents of the safe-deposit box to anyone other than a qualified person.

(f) No Tax Waiver Required. – No tax waiver is required for the release of the contents of the decedent's safe-deposit box.

"Article 16.

"Sales or Leases of Personal Property.

"§ 28A-16-1. Sales or leases without court order.

(a) A personal representative has the power to sell, at either a public or private sale, or to lease, personal property of the decedent without a court order.

(b) A personal representative who sells or leases personal property of the decedent without a court order is not required to file a special report or have the transaction confirmed by the clerk of superior court, or to follow any of the procedure set forth in Article 29A of Chapter 1 of the General Statutes, entitled "Judicial Sales," but shall include in ~~his~~ the personal representative's next account, either annual or final, a record of the receipts and disbursements incident to the transaction.

"§ 28A-16-2. Sales or leases by court order.

(a) All sales or leases of personal property of the decedent by a collector shall be made only upon order obtained, by motion, from the clerk of superior court.

(b) A personal representative may, if ~~he~~ the personal representative so desires, request the clerk of superior court to issue to ~~him~~ the personal representative an order to sell or lease personal property of the decedent.

(c) Sales or leases of personal property of the decedent held pursuant to court order shall be conducted as provided in Article 29A of Chapter 1 of the General Statutes, entitled "Judicial Sales."

(d) A personal representative may, for ~~his~~ the personal representative's own benefit, purchase or lease personal property belonging to the decedent at a public sale conducted under an order of the clerk of superior court, if the transaction is reported to the clerk of superior court and confirmed by ~~him.~~ the clerk of superior court.

"§ 28A-16-3. Sales of household furnishings.

If the decedent is survived by a spouse, no sale or lease shall be made of the household furnishings in the usual dwelling house occupied by the surviving spouse at the time of the death of the deceased spouse, if such dwelling house was owned by the deceased spouse at the time of his or her death, until the expiration of the time limits set forth in G.S. 29-30(c) for the filing by the surviving spouse of an election in regard to the property of the decedent.

"Article 17.

"Sales, Leases or Mortgages of Real Property.

"§ 28A-17-1. Sales of real property.

Pursuant to authority contained in G.S. 28A-15-1 the personal representative may, at any time, apply to the clerk of superior court of the county where the decedent's real property or some part thereof is situated, by petition, to sell such real property for the payment of debts and other claims against the decedent's estate.

"§ 28A-17-2. Contents of petition for sale.

The petition to sell real property shall include:

(1) A description of the real property and interest therein sought to be sold;

(2) The names, ages and addresses, if known, of the devisees and heirs of the decedent;

(3) A statement that the personal representative has determined that it is in the best interest of the administration of the estate to sell the real property sought to be sold.

"§ 28A-17-3. Petition for partition.

When it is alleged that the real property of the decedent sought to be sold consists in whole or in part of an undivided interest in real property, the personal representative of the decedent may include, in the petition to sell the real property for the payment of debts and other claims against the decedent's estate, a request for partition of the lands sought to be sold.

"§ 28A-17-4. Heirs and devisees necessary parties.

No order to sell real property shall be granted until the heirs and devisees of the decedent have been made parties to the special proceeding by service of summons in the manner required by ~~law.~~ law, in accordance with G.S. 1A-1, Rule 4. Upon such service, the court shall appoint a guardian ad litem for heirs and devisees who are unknown or whose addresses are unknown, and summons shall issue to ~~him~~ the guardian ad litem as such. The guardian ad litem shall file answer for such heirs and devisees and defend for them, and ~~he~~ the guardian ad litem shall be paid such sum as the court may fix, to be paid as costs of the proceeding.

"§ 28A-17-5. Property subject to sale; conveyance by deceased in fraud of creditors.

The real property subject to sale under this Article shall include real property recovered from a fraudulent alienee pursuant to G.S. 28A-15-10(b).

"§ 28A-17-6. Adverse claimant to be heard; procedure.

When the real property sought to be sold, or any interest therein, is claimed by another person, such claimant may be made a party to the proceeding, and in any event may become a party upon ~~his~~ the claimant's own motion. When an issue of law or fact is joined between the parties, the procedure shall be as prescribed for other special proceedings.

"§ 28A-17-7. Order granted if petition not denied; public or private sale; procedure for sale.

If, by default or admission, the allegations in the petition are not controverted, the clerk of superior court may summarily order a sale. The procedure for the sale shall be as is provided in Article 29A of Chapter 1 of the General Statutes, entitled "Judicial Sales." If it is made to appear to the clerk by petition and by satisfactory proof that it will be for the best interest of the estate to sell by private sale, the clerk may authorize a private sale in accordance with the provisions of G.S. 1-339.33 through 1-339.40.

"§ 28A-17-8. Under power in will, sales public or private.

Sales of real property made pursuant to authority given by will may be either public or private, unless the will otherwise directs, and may be on such terms as in the opinion of the personal representative are most advantageous to those interested in the decedent's estate.

"§ 28A-17-9. Death of vendor under contract; representative to convey.

When any decedent has contracted to sell any real property and has given bond or other enforceable written contract to the purchaser to convey the same, ~~his~~ the decedent's personal representative may execute and deliver a deed to such real property and such deed shall convey the title as fully as if it had been executed and delivered by the decedent. No deed shall be made unless the purchaser complies with the terms of the bond or other written contract. If the contract for conveyance requires the giving of a warranty deed, the deed given by the personal representative shall contain such warranties as required by the contract and the warranties shall be binding on the estate and not on the personal representative personally.

"§ 28A-17-10. Title in personal representative for estate; he or successor to convey.

When real property is conveyed to a personal representative for the benefit of the estate ~~he~~ the personal representative represents, ~~he~~ the personal representative or any successor personal representative may sell and convey it upon such terms as ~~he~~ the personal representative may deem just and for the advantage of the estate. The procedure shall be as is provided in Article 29A of Chapter 1 of the General Statutes, entitled "Judicial Sales." If it is made to appear to the clerk of superior court by petition and by satisfactory proof that it will be for the best interest of the estate to sell by private sale, the clerk may authorize a private sale in accordance with the provisions of G.S. 1-339.33 through 1-339.40.

"§ 28A-17-11. Personal representative may lease or mortgage.

In lieu of asking for an order of sale of real property, the personal representative may request the clerk of superior court to issue to ~~him~~ the personal representative an order to lease or to mortgage real property of the decedent. The clerk of superior court is authorized to issue an order to lease or mortgage on such terms as ~~he~~ the clerk deems to be in the best interest of the estate.

"§ 28A-17-12. Sale, lease or mortgage of real property by heirs or devisees.

(a) If the first publication or posting of the general notice to creditors as provided for in G.S. 28A-14-1 occurs within two years after the death of the decedent:

(1) All sales, leases or mortgages of real property by heirs or devisees of any resident or nonresident decedent made after the death of the decedent and before the first publication or posting of the general notice to creditors are void as to creditors and personal representatives; and

(2) All sales, leases or mortgages of real property by heirs or devisees of any resident or nonresident decedent made after such first publication or posting and before approval of the final account shall be void as to creditors and personal representatives unless the personal representative joins in the sale, lease or mortgage.

(b) If the first publication or posting of the general notice to creditors as provided for in G.S. 28A-14-1 does not occur within two years after the death of the decedent, all sales, leases or mortgages of real property by heirs or devisees of any resident or nonresident decedent shall be valid as to creditors and personal representatives of the decedent.

"§ 28A-17-13. Prior validating acts.

Chapter 70 of the Public Laws of 1923, Chapter 48 of the Public Laws of 1925, Chapter 146 of the Public Laws of 1931, and Chapters 31 and 381 of the Public Laws of 1935, all validating certain prior sales of real property by executors or administrators and heretofore codified as G.S. 28-100 through 28-104, shall remain in full force and effect, though no longer carried forward as part of the General Statutes.

"Article 18.

"Actions and Proceedings.

"§ 28A-18-1. Survival of actions to and against personal representative.

(a) Upon the death of any person, all demands whatsoever, and rights to prosecute or defend any action or special proceeding, existing in favor of or against such person, except as provided in subsection (b) hereof, shall survive to and against the personal representative or collector of ~~his~~ the person's estate.

(b) The following rights of action in favor of a decedent do not survive:

(1) Causes of action for libel and for slander, except slander of title;

(2) Causes of action for false imprisonment;

(3) Causes of action where the relief sought could not be enjoyed, or granting it would be nugatory after death.

"§ 28A-18-2. Death by wrongful act of another; recovery not assets.

(a) When the death of a person is caused by a wrongful act, neglect or default of another, such as would, if the injured person had lived, have entitled ~~him~~ the injured person to an action for damages therefor, the person or corporation that would have been so liable, and ~~his or their~~ the personal representatives or ~~collectors,~~ collectors of the person or corporation that would have been so liable, shall be liable to an action for damages, to be brought by the personal representative or collector of the decedent; and this notwithstanding the death, and although the wrongful act, neglect or default, causing the death, amounts in law to a felony. The personal representative or collector of the decedent who pursues an action under this section may pay from the assets of the estate the reasonable and necessary expenses, not including attorneys' fees, incurred in pursuing the action. At the termination of the action, any amount recovered shall be applied first to the reimbursement of the estate for the expenses incurred in pursuing the action, then to the payment of attorneys' fees, and shall then be distributed as provided in this section. The amount recovered in such action is not liable to be applied as assets, in the payment of debts or legacies, except as to burial expenses of the deceased, and reasonable hospital and medical expenses not exceeding four thousand five hundred dollars ($4,500) incident to the injury resulting in death, except that the amount applied for hospital and medical expenses shall not exceed fifty percent (50%) of the amount of damages recovered after deducting attorneys' fees, but shall be disposed of as provided in the Intestate Succession Act. The limitations on recovery for hospital and medical expenses under this subsection do not apply to subrogation rights exercised pursuant to G.S. 135-40.13A. All claims filed for such services shall be approved by the clerk of the superior court and any party adversely affected by any decision of said clerk as to said claim may appeal to the superior court in term time.

(b) Damages recoverable for death by wrongful act include:

(1) Expenses for care, treatment and hospitalization incident to the injury resulting in death;

(2) Compensation for pain and suffering of the decedent;

(3) The reasonable funeral expenses of the decedent;

(4) The present monetary value of the decedent to the persons entitled to receive the damages recovered, including but not limited to compensation for the loss of the reasonably expected;

a. Net income of the decedent,

b. Services, protection, care and assistance of the decedent, whether voluntary or obligatory, to the persons entitled to the damages recovered,

c. Society, companionship, comfort, guidance, kindly offices and advice of the decedent to the persons entitled to the damages recovered;

(5) Such punitive damages as the decedent could have recovered pursuant to Chapter 1D of the General Statutes had ~~he~~ the decedent survived, and punitive damages for wrongfully causing the death of the decedent through malice or willful or wanton conduct, as defined in G.S. 1D-5;

(6) Nominal damages when the jury so finds.

(c) All evidence which reasonably tends to establish any of the elements of damages included in subsection (b), or otherwise reasonably tends to establish the present monetary value of the decedent to the persons entitled to receive the damages recovered, is admissible in an action for damages for death by wrongful act.

(d) In all actions brought under this section the dying declarations of the deceased shall be admissible as provided for in G.S. 8-51.1.

"§ 28A-18-3. To sue or defend in representative capacity.

All actions and proceedings brought by or against personal representatives or collectors upon any cause of action or right to which the estate of the decedent is the real party in interest, must be brought by or against them in their representative capacity.

"§ 28A-18-4. Service on or appearance of one binds all.

In actions against personal representatives or collectors, they are all to be considered as one person, representing the decedent; and if the summons is served on one or more, but not all, the plaintiff may proceed against those served, and if ~~he~~ the plaintiff recovers, judgment may be entered against all.

"§ 28A-18-5. When creditors may sue on claim; execution in such action.

An action may be brought by a creditor against the personal representative or collector on a demand at any time after it is due, but no execution shall issue against the personal representative or collector on a judgment therein against ~~him~~ the personal representative or collector without leave of the court, upon notice of 20 days and upon proof that the defendant has refused to pay such judgment or its ratable part, and such judgment shall be a lien on the property of the estate of the decedent only from the time of such leave granted.

"§ 28A-18-6. Service by publication on executor without bond.

Whenever process may issue against an executor who has not given bond, and the same cannot be served upon ~~him~~ the executor by reason of ~~his~~ the executor's absence or concealment, service of such process may be made by publication in the manner prescribed in other civil actions.

"§ 28A-18-7. Execution by successor in office.

Any personal representative or collector may have execution issued on any judgment recovered by any person who preceded ~~him~~ the personal representative or collector in the administration of the estate, or by the decedent, in the same cases and the same manner as the original plaintiff might have done.

"§ 28A-18-8. Action to continue, though letters revoked.

In case the letters of a personal representative or collector are revoked, pending an action to which ~~he~~ the personal representative or collector is a party, the adverse party may, notwithstanding, continue the action against ~~him~~ the personal representative or collector in order to charge ~~him~~ the personal representative or collector personally. If such party does not elect so to do, within six months after notice of such revocation, the action may be continued against the successor of the personal representative or collector in the administration of the estate, in the same manner as in case of death.

"Article 19.

"Claims against the Estate.

"§ 28A-19-1. Manner of presentation of claims.

(a) A claim against a decedent's estate must be in writing and state the amount or item claimed, or other relief sought, the basis for the claim, and the name and address of the claimant; and must be presented by one of the following methods:

(1) By delivery in person or by mail to the personal representative, collector or the clerk of superior court. Such claim will be deemed to have been presented from the time of such delivery.

(2) By mailing, registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, to the personal representative or collector at the address set out in the general notice to creditors. Such claim will be deemed to have been presented from the time when the return receipt is signed by the personal representative, collector, or ~~his agent,~~ agent of the personal representative or collector, or is refused by the personal representative, collector, or ~~his agent.~~ agent of the personal representative or collector.

(3) By delivery to the clerk of court of the county in which the estate is pending, which notice shall be filed in the appropriate estate file and copy mailed first class by the clerk of superior court at the expense of the claimant to the personal representative, collector, or ~~his agent.~~ agent of the personal representative or collector. The claim will be deemed to have been presented from the time of delivery to the clerk of court.

(b) In an action commenced after the death of the decedent against ~~his~~ the decedent's personal representative or collector as such, the commencement of the action in the court in which such personal representative or collector qualified will constitute the presentation of a claim and no further presentation is necessary. In an action filed in any other court such claim will be deemed to have been presented at the time of the completion of service of process on such personal representative or collector.

(c) In an action pending against the decedent at the time of ~~his~~ the decedent's death, which action survives at law, the court may order the substitution of the personal representative or collector for the decedent ~~or~~ on motion therefor and that motion will constitute the presentation of a ~~claim~~ claim, provided that substitution occurs within the time specified for the presentation of claims under G.S. 28A-19-3 and no further presentation is necessary. Such claim will be deemed to have been presented from the time of the substitution, or motion therefor.

"§ 28A-19-2. Further information or affidavit of claim may be required.

(a) If the personal representative or collector so elects, ~~he~~ the personal representative or collector may demand any or all of the following prior to taking action on the claim:

(1) If the claim is not yet due, that the date when it will become due be stated;

(2) If the claim is contingent or unliquidated, that the nature of the uncertainty be stated;

(3) If the claim is secured, that the security be described.

(b) Upon any claim being presented against the estate in the manner prescribed in G.S. 28A-19-1, the personal representative or collector may require the affidavit of the claimant or other satisfactory evidence that such claim is justly due, that no payments have been made thereon, and that there are no offsets against the same, to the knowledge of the claimant; or if any payments have been made, or any offsets exist that their nature and amount be shown by the evidence or stated in the affidavit.

"§ 28A-19-3. Limitations on presentation of claims.

(a) All claims against a decedent's estate which arose before the death of the decedent, except contingent claims based on any warranty made in connection with the conveyance of real estate and claims of the United States and tax claims of the State of North Carolina and subdivisions thereof, whether due or to become due, absolute or contingent, liquidated or unliquidated, secured or unsecured, founded on contract, tort, or other legal basis, which are not presented to the personal representative or collector pursuant to G.S. 28A-19-1 by the date specified in the general notice to creditors as provided for in G.S. 28A-14-1(a) or in those cases requiring the delivery or mailing of notice as provided for in G.S. 28A-14-1(b), within 90 days after the date of the delivery or mailing of the notice if the expiration of said 90-day period is later than the date specified in the general notice to creditors, are forever barred against the estate, the personal representative, the collector, the heirs, and the devisees of the decedent. Provided further, if the expiration of said 90-day period is later than the date specified in the general notice to creditors, the notice delivered or mailed to each creditor, if any, shall be accompanied by a statement which specifies the deadline for filing the claim of the affected creditor.

(b) All claims against a decedent's estate which arise at or after the death of the decedent, except claims of the United States and tax claims of the State of North Carolina and subdivisions thereof whether due or to become due, absolute or contingent, liquidated or unliquidated, secured or unsecured, founded on contract, tort, or other legal basis are forever barred against the estate, the personal representative, the collector, the heirs, and the devisees of the decedent unless presented to the personal representative or collector as follows:

(1) With respect to any claim based on a contract with the personal representative or collector, within six months after the date on which performance by the personal representative or collector is due;

(2) With respect to any claim other than a claim based on a contract with the personal representative or collector, within six months after the date on which the claim arises.

(c) Except as otherwise provided by subsection (f) of this section, no claim shall be barred by the statute of limitations which was not barred thereby at the time of the decedent's death, if the claim is presented within the period provided by subsection (a) hereof.

(d) All claims of creditors upon whom there has been personal service of notice as provided in G.S. 28A-14-3 are forever barred unless presented to the personal representative or collector within the time and manner set out in this Article.

(e) Except as otherwise provided by subsection (f) of this section, unless a claim has been presented pursuant to G.S. 28A-19-1 giving notice of an action or special proceeding pending against a decedent at the time of ~~his~~ the decedent's death and surviving under G.S. 28A-18-1 within the time provided by subsection (a) of this section, no recovery may be had upon any judgment obtained in any such action or proceeding against the estate, the personal representative, the collector, the heirs, and the devisees of the decedent.

(f) All claims barrable under the provisions of subsections (a) and (b) hereof shall, in any event, be barred if the first publication or posting of the general notice to creditors as provided for in G.S. 28A-14-1 does not occur within three years after the death of the decedent.

(g) Nothing in this section affects or prevents any action or proceeding to enforce any mortgage, deed of trust, pledge, lien (including judgment lien), or other security interest upon any property of the decedent's estate, but no deficiency judgment will be allowed if the provisions of this section are not complied with.

(h) The word "claim" as used in this section does not apply to claims of heirs or devisees to their respective shares or interests in the decedent's estate in their capacity as such heirs or devisees.

(i) Nothing in this section shall bar:

(1) Any claim alleging the liability of the decedent or personal representative; or

(2) Any proceeding or action to establish the liability of the decedent or personal representative; or

(3) The recovery on any judgment against the decedent or personal representative to the extent that the decedent or personal representative is protected by insurance coverage with respect to such claim, proceeding or judgment or where there is underinsured or uninsured motorist coverage that might extend to such claim, proceeding, or judgment.

(j) Except as otherwise specifically provided in this section, the limitations on presentation of claims set forth in this section apply to claims by the State of North Carolina, its subdivisions, and its agencies.

"§ 28A-19-4. Payment of claims and charges.

As soon as the personal representative or collector is possessed of sufficient means over and above the other costs of administration, ~~he~~ the personal representative or collector shall pay the year's allowances in the amounts and in the manner prescribed in G.S. 30-15 to 30-33. Prior to the date specified in the general notice to creditors as provided for in G.S. 28A-14-1, the personal representative or collector may pay such other claims and charges as ~~he~~ the personal representative or collector deems in the best interest of the estate if the total assets are sufficient to pay all claims and charges against the estate.

"§ 28A-19-5. Contingent or unliquidated claims.

(a) If a contingent or unliquidated claim becomes absolute before the distribution of the estate of the decedent, it shall be paid in the same manner as absolute claims of the same class. In other cases the clerk of superior court may provide for the payment of contingent or unliquidated claims in any one of the following ways:

(1) The creditor and the personal representative or collector may determine, by agreement, arbitration, or compromise, the value of the contingent or unliquidated claim, according to its probable present worth, and with the approval of the clerk of superior court, it may be allowed and paid in the same manner as an absolute claim.

(2) The clerk of superior court may order the personal representative or collector to retain sufficient funds to pay the claim if and when the same becomes absolute, and order distribution of the balance of the estate.

(3) The clerk of superior court may order distribution of the estate as though the contingent or unliquidated claim did not exist, but the heirs and devisees of the estate of the decedent are liable to the creditor to the extent of the estate received by them, if the contingent or unliquidated claim thereafter becomes absolute; and the court may require such heirs and devisees to give bond for the performance of their liability to the contingent or unliquidated creditor.

(4) Such other method as the clerk of superior court may order.

(b) With respect to a contingent or unliquidated claim rejected by a personal representative pursuant to G.S. 28A-19-16, the claimant may, within the three-month period prescribed by G.S. 28A-19-16, file a petition for an order of the clerk of superior court in accordance with subsection (a) of this section, provided that nothing in this section shall require the clerk of superior court to hear and determine the validity of, priority of, or amount of a contingent or unliquidated claim that has yet become absolute.

"§ 28A-19-6. Order of payment of claims.

(a) After payment of costs and expenses of administration, the claims against the estate of a decedent must be paid in the following order:

First class. Claims which by law have a specific lien on property to an amount not exceeding the value of such property.

Second class. Funeral expenses to the extent of three thousand five hundred dollars ($3,500). This limitation shall not include burial place or gravestone. The preferential limitation herein granted shall be construed to be only a limit with respect to preference of payment and shall not be construed to be a limitation on reasonable funeral expenses which may be incurred; nor shall the preferential limitation of payment in the amount of three thousand five hundred dollars ($3,500) be diminished by any Veterans Administration, social security or other federal governmental benefits awarded to the estate of the decedent or to ~~his or her~~ the decedent's beneficiaries.

Third class. Costs associated with gravestones and reasonable costs for the purchase of a suitable burial place as provided in G.S. 28A-19-9 to the extent of one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500). The preferential limitation herein granted shall be construed to be only a limit with respect to preference of payment and shall not be construed to be a limitation on reasonable gravestone or burial place expenses which may be incurred; nor shall the preferential limitation of payment in the amount of one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500) be diminished by any Veterans Administration, social security or other federal governmental benefits awarded to the estate of the decedent or to ~~his or her~~ the decedent's beneficiaries.

Fourth class. All dues, taxes, and other claims with preference under the laws of the United States.

Fifth class. All dues, taxes, and other claims with preference under the laws of the State of North Carolina and its subdivisions.

Sixth class. Judgments of any court of competent jurisdiction within the State, docketed and in force, to the extent to which they are a lien on the property of the decedent at ~~his~~ the decedent's death.

Seventh class. Wages due to any employee employed by the decedent, which claim for wages shall not extend to a period of more than 12 months next preceding the death; or if such employee was employed for the year current at the decease, then from the time of such employment; for medical services within the 12 months preceding the decease; for drugs and all other medical supplies necessary for the treatment of such decedent during the last illness of such decedent, said period of last illness not to exceed 12 months.

Eighth class. A claim for equitable distribution.

Ninth class. All other claims.

(b) Notwithstanding subsection (a) of this section, if payment of the commissions of the personal representative under G.S. 28A-23-3(g) would cause the estate to be unable to pay all claims against the estate of a decedent, then the commissions shall be limited to the amount allowed under G.S. 28A-23-3(a).

"§ 28A-19-7. Satisfaction of claims other than by payment.

Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary,

(1) If a decedent was liable in person at the time of ~~his~~ the decedent's death for the payment or satisfaction of any claim or the performance, satisfaction, or discharge of any liability or obligation, whether joint or several, primary or secondary, direct or contingent, or enforceable in any other manner or form whatsoever, or

(2) If only the property of a decedent or some part thereof was liable at the time of ~~his~~ the decedent's death for the payment or satisfaction of any claim or the performance, satisfaction, or discharge or any liability or obligation, whether joint or several, primary or secondary, direct or contingent, or enforceable in any other manner or form against the property of the decedent but not against ~~him~~ the decedent or ~~his~~ the decedent's estate as a personal liability, and

(3) If any person other than the personal representative of the decedent is willing to assume the liability of the decedent and of ~~his~~ the decedent's estate or to receive or accept property of the decedent subject to such liability in cases where the decedent was not personally liable and the creditor, obligee, or other person for whose benefit such liability exists is willing to accept an agreement with that effect and to discharge the personal representative of the decedent and the estate of the decedent from the payment, satisfaction, or discharge of such liability, and

(4) If such creditor, obligee, or other person for whose benefit such liability exists and the person assuming the liability or the person receiving or accepting property of the decedent subject to such liability shall execute, acknowledge, and deliver in the form and manner required for deeds conveying real property in North Carolina, an agreement between themselves as to such assumption of liability or the receipt or acceptance of property of the decedent subject to such liability which shall contain a release, as hereinafter defined, discharging the personal representative of the decedent and ~~his~~ the decedent's estate from the payment, satisfaction, or discharge of the liability, and thereafter the said creditor, obligee, or other person for whose benefit such liability exists shall have no remedy for the enforcement thereof except against the person assuming it or against the property subject to it as provided in the said agreement; then upon the filing with the clerk of superior court having jurisdiction over the estate and the personal representative of one duplicate original of the said agreement, or of a certified copy thereof if it is a duly recorded instrument, the same shall be accepted in the same manner as a voucher showing payment or discharge of the said liability in the accounts of the personal representative of the decedent.

The word "person" as used in this section shall include one or more natural persons, corporations, partnerships, or entities having the power to own property or to make contracts in regard thereto. The word "release" as used in this section shall include a covenant not to sue in any case in which an unqualified release or discharge of one obligee would discharge another, and if the liability involved is a negotiable instrument or other instrument transferable to a holder in due course, such release shall not be effective unless notice thereof is endorsed on the instrument involved, dated, and signed by the creditor or the holder of the indebtedness or person for whose benefit the property is encumbered.

"§ 28A-19-8. Funeral expenses of decedent.

(a) Any person authorized under G.S. 130A-420 to dispose of a decedent's body may bind a decedent's estate for funeral expenses and related charges, including interest and finance charges, in accordance with this section, including the execution and delivery on behalf of the estate of any agreements, promissory notes, and other instruments relating to the estate. Whether or not a personal representative of the estate has been appointed at the time the expenses are incurred, funeral expenses of a decedent, together with interest or finance charges if financed by the funeral establishment or a third-party creditor, or advanced by a health care agent exercising authority described in G.S. 32A-19(b), shall be considered as an obligation of the estate of the decedent and the decedent's estate shall be primarily liable for those expenses to the funeral establishment that provided the funeral service, to any third-party creditor that finances the payment of those expenses, or to any other person described in this section who has paid such expenses.

(b) The provisions of this section shall not affect the application of G.S. 28A-19-6 or G.S. 130A-420.

"§ 28A-19-9. Gravestone and burial place authorized.

(a) ~~It~~ If the decedent has duly appointed a health care agent pursuant to Article 3 of Chapter 32A of the General Statutes to provide for these expenses, the health care agent may make arrangements to provide a suitable gravestone to mark the grave of the testator or intestate, and the personal representative shall reimburse the health care agent subject to the monetary limitations and procedures contained in this section. If the decedent did not have a health care agent, or if the health care agent does not act, it is lawful for a personal representative or the decedent's duly appointed health care agent to provide a suitable gravestone to mark the graves of the testator or intestate and to pay for the cost of erecting the same. The cost thereof shall be treated as a third class claim under G.S. 28A-19-6 and credited as such in final accounts. The costs thereof shall be in the sound discretion of the personal ~~representative,~~ representative or health care agent, having due regard to the value of the estate and to the interests of creditors and needs of the surviving spouse and the heirs and devisees of the estate. Where the personal representative or health care agent desires to spend more than one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500) for the purpose of a gravestone, and the will does not grant specific authority to the personal representative for such expenditures in excess of one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500), the personal representative shall file a petition before the clerk of the court, and such order as will be made by the court shall specify the amount to be expended for such purpose. In specifying the amount, the clerk may consider the value of the estate. To the extent that the personal representative or health care agent advances the costs for providing a suitable gravestone to mark the graves of the testator or intestate and for erecting the same, the advancement shall be considered as an obligation of the decedent's estate, and the decedent's estate shall be primarily liable for the costs for providing a suitable gravestone to mark the graves of the testator or intestate and for erecting the same.

(b) It is lawful for ~~a personal representative~~ the decedent's duly appointed health care agent to provide a suitable burial place for the testator or intestate. If the decedent did not have a health care agent, or if the health care agent does not act, then the personal representative may provide a suitable burial place for the testator or intestate. The cost of a suitable burial place shall be in the sound discretion of the personal ~~representative,~~ representative or the decedent's health care agent, having due regard to the value of the estate and to the interests of creditors and needs of the surviving spouse and the heirs and devisees of the estate, and shall be treated as a third class claim under G.S. 28A-19-6.

"§ 28A-19-10. Perpetual care of cemetery lot.

It shall be lawful for a personal representative to provide for perpetual care for the lot upon which is located the grave of the testator or intestate, and the cost thereof shall be paid and credited as such in final accounts: Provided, that the provisions of this section shall be applicable to an interment made in a cemetery authorized by law to operate as a perpetual-care cemetery or association, and the cost thereof shall be in the sound discretion of the personal representative having due regard to the value of the estate and to the interest of the surviving spouse and the heirs and devisees of the estate. Provided, where the personal representative desires to spend more than two hundred fifty dollars ($250.00) for such purpose, and the will does not grant specific authority to the personal representative for such expenditure in excess of two hundred fifty dollars ($250.00), ~~he~~ the personal representative shall file ~~his~~ the personal representative's petition before the clerk of the superior court and such order as will be made by the court shall specify the amount to be expended for such purpose.

"§ 28A-19-11. Pleading statute of limitations.

When claims are not barred pursuant to G.S. 28A-19-3, it shall be within the discretion of the personal representative or collector acting in good faith to determine whether or not any applicable statute of limitations shall be pleaded to bar a claim which ~~he~~ the personal representative or collector believes to be just. ~~His~~ The personal representative's or collector's admission of such claim or ~~his~~ the personal representative's or collector's decision not to plead the statute in an action brought on the claim shall, in the absence of any showing of collusion or bad faith, be binding on all persons interested in the estate.

"§ 28A-19-12. Claims due representative not preferred.

No property or assets of the decedent shall be retained by the personal representative or collector in satisfaction of ~~his~~ the personal representative's or collector's own claim, in preference to others of the same class. Prior to payment of ~~his~~ the personal representative's or collector's own claim the personal representative or collector shall receive written approval of the clerk of superior court. If the clerk does not approve the claim the personal representative or collector may refer the claim as a disputed claim under the provisions of G.S. 28A-19-15. The provisions of G.S. 28A-19-1 and G.S. 28A-19-3 shall not apply to such claims and the personal representative or collector may present ~~his~~ the personal representative's or collector's own claim at any time prior to the filing of ~~his~~ the personal representative's or collector's final account.

"§ 28A-19-13. No preference within class.

No personal representative or collector shall give to any claim any preference whatever, either by paying it out of its class or by paying thereon more than a pro rata proportion in its class.

"§ 28A-19-14. Claims not due rebated.

Claims owed by the estate but not yet due may be paid by the personal representative on a rebate of interest thereon for the time unexpired.

"§ 28A-19-15. Disputed claim may be referred.

If the personal representative doubts the justness of any claim so presented, ~~he~~ the personal representative may enter into an agreement, in writing, with the claimant, to refer the matter in controversy, whether the same be of a legal or equitable nature, to one or more disinterested persons, not exceeding three, whose proceedings shall be the same in all respects as if such reference had been ordered in an action. Such agreement to refer, and the award thereupon, shall be filed in the clerk's office where the letters were granted, and shall be a lawful voucher for the personal representative. The same may be impeached in any proceeding against the personal representative for fraud therein: Provided, that the right to refer claims under this section shall extend to claims in favor of the estate as well as those against the estate.

"§ 28A-19-16. Disputed claim not referred barred in three months.

If a claim is presented to and rejected by the personal representative or collector, and not referred as provided in G.S. 28A-19-15, the claimant must, within three months, after due notice in writing of such rejection, ~~or after some part of the claim becomes due,~~ commence an action for the recovery thereof, or in the case of a contingent or unliquidated claim, file a petition for an order from the clerk of superior court pursuant to G.S. 28A-19-5(b), or be forever barred from maintaining an action thereon.

"§ 28A-19-17. No lien by suit against representative.

No lien shall be created by the commencement of a suit against a personal representative or collector.

"§ 28A-19-18. When costs against representative allowed.

No costs shall be recovered in any action against a personal representative or collector unless it appears that payment was unreasonably delayed or neglected, or that the defendant refused to refer the matter in controversy, in which case the court may award such costs against the defendant personally, or against the estate, as may be just.

"§ 28A-19-19. Claims for equitable distribution.

(a) The provisions of G.S. 28A-19-5 and G.S. 28A-19-7 shall not apply to claims for equitable distribution.

(b) The personal representative may enter into an agreement, in writing, with a claimant providing for distribution of marital or divisible property, or both, in a manner deemed by the personal representative and the claimant to be equitable. The agreement shall be filed in the clerk's office where the letters were granted and shall be a lawful voucher for the personal representative. The same may be impeached in any proceeding against the personal representative for fraud therein.

(c) Unless the claim for equitable distribution has been referred as provided in G.S. 28A-19-15, the claimant may at anytime, subject to the provisions of G.S. 28A-19-16, file an action with the district court for distribution of marital or divisible property in accordance with the provisions of G.S. 50-20.

"Article 20.

"Inventory.

"§ 28A-20-1. Inventory within three months.

Every personal representative and collector, within three months after ~~his qualification,~~ the qualification of that personal representative or collector, shall return to the clerk, on oath, a just, true and perfect inventory of all the real and personal property of the deceased, which have come to ~~his hands,~~ the hands of the personal representative or collector, or to the hands of any person for ~~him,~~ the personal representative or collector, which inventory shall be signed by ~~him~~ the personal representative or collector and be recorded by the clerk.

"§ 28A-20-2. Compelling the inventory.

(a) If the inventory specified in G.S. 28A-20-1 is not filed as prescribed, the clerk of superior court must issue an order requiring the personal representative or collector to file it within the time specified in the order, not less than 20 days, or to show cause why ~~he~~ the personal representative or collector should not be removed from office. If, after due service of the order, the personal representative or collector does not on or before the return day of the order file such inventory or obtain further time in which to file it, the clerk may remove ~~him~~ the personal representative or collector from office or may issue an attachment against ~~him~~ the personal representative or collector for a contempt and commit ~~him until he~~ the personal representative or collector until the personal representative or collector files said inventory report.

(b) The personal representative or collector shall be personally liable for the costs of any proceeding incident to ~~his~~ the personal representative's or collector's failure to file the inventory required by G.S. 28A-20-1. Such costs shall be taxed against ~~him~~ the personal representative or collector by the clerk of superior court and may be collected by deduction from any commissions which may be found due the personal representative or collector upon final settlement of the estate.

"§ 28A-20-3. Supplemental inventory.

(a) Whenever any property not included in the original inventory report becomes known to any personal representative or collector or whenever the personal representative or collector learns that the valuation or description of any property or interest therein indicated in the original inventory is erroneous or misleading, ~~he~~ the personal representative or collector shall prepare and file with the clerk of superior court a supplementary inventory in the same manner as prescribed for the original inventory. The clerk shall record the supplemental report with the original inventory.

(b) The making of the supplemental inventory shall be enforced in a manner specified in G.S. 28A-20-2.

"§ 28A-20-4. Employment of appraisers.

A personal representative or collector may, but shall not be required to, employ qualified and disinterested appraisers to assist in ascertaining the fair market value as of the date of the decedent's death of any asset the value of which may be subject to reasonable doubt. Different persons may be employed to appraise different kinds of assets. The name and address of any appraiser shall be indicated in the inventory with the asset or assets ~~he~~ the appraiser appraised.

"Article 21.

"Accounting.

"§ 28A-21-1. Annual accounts.

Until the final account has been filed pursuant to G.S. 28A-21-2, the personal representative or collector shall, for so long as any of the property of the estate remains in ~~his~~ the control, custody or ~~possession,~~ possession of the personal representative or collector, file annually in the office of the clerk of superior court an inventory and account, under oath, of the amount of property received by ~~him,~~ the personal representative or collector, or invested by ~~him,~~ the personal representative or collector, and the manner and nature of such investment, and ~~his~~ the receipts and disbursements of the personal representative or collector for the past year. Such accounts shall be due by the fifteenth day of the fourth month after the close of the fiscal year selected by the personal representative or collector, and annually thereafter. The election of a fiscal year shall be made by the personal representative or collector upon filing of the first annual account. In no event may a personal representative or collector select a fiscal year-end which is more than twelve months from the date of death of the decedent or, in the case of trust administration, the date of the opening of the trust. Any fiscal year selected may not be changed without the permission of the clerk of superior court.

The personal representative or collector shall produce vouchers for all payments or verified proof for payments in lieu of vouchers. The clerk of superior court may examine, under oath, such accounting party, or any other person, concerning the receipts, disbursements or any other matter relating to the estate. ~~He~~ The clerk of superior court must carefully review and audit such account and, if ~~he~~ the clerk approves the account, ~~he~~ the clerk must endorse ~~his~~ the approval of the clerk thereon, which shall be prima facie evidence of correctness, and cause the same to be recorded.

"§ 28A-21-2. Final accounts.

(a) Unless the time for filing the final account has been extended by the clerk of superior court, the personal representative or collector must file the final account for settlement within one year after qualifying or within six months after receiving a State estate or inheritance tax release, or in the time period for filing an annual account pursuant to

G.S. 28A-21-1, whichever is later. If no estate or inheritance tax return was required to be filed for the estate, the personal representative or collector shall so certify in the final account filed with the clerk of superior court. Such certification shall list the amount and value of all of the decedent's property, and with respect to real estate, its particular location within or outside the State, including any property transferred by the decedent over which the decedent had retained any interest, or any property transferred within three years prior to the date of the decedent's death, and after being filed and accepted by the clerk of ~~the~~ superior court shall be prima facie evidence that such property is free of any State inheritance or State estate tax liability. The personal representative or collector shall produce vouchers for all payments or verified proof for all payments in lieu of vouchers. With the approval of the clerk of superior court, such account may be filed voluntarily at any time. In all cases, the accounting shall be reviewed, audited and recorded by the clerk of superior court in the manner prescribed in G.S. 28A-21-1.

(b) Except as provided in subsection (a), after the date specified in the general notice to creditors as provided for in G.S. 28A-14-1, if all of the debts and other claims against the estate of the decedent duly presented and legally owing have been paid in the case of a solvent estate or satisfied pro rata according to applicable statutes in the case of an insolvent estate, the personal representative or collector may file ~~his~~ the personal representative's or collector's final account to be reviewed, audited and recorded by the clerk of superior court. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed as limiting the right of the surviving spouse or minor children to file for allowances under G.S. 30-15 through 30-18 and the right of a surviving spouse to file for property rights under G.S. 29-30.

"§ 28A-21-2.2. Final accounting by limited personal representative.

(a) Filing Requirement. – A limited personal representative appointed pursuant to Article 29 of this Chapter shall file a sworn affidavit or report listing all debts and other claims duly presented to the limited personal representative and providing proof that the debts and other claims were satisfied, compromised, or denied, and that the time for filing suit thereon has expired. The sworn affidavit or report shall be filed within 30 days of the later of the following:

(1) The date by which a claim must be presented as set forth in the general notice to creditors provided for in G.S. 28A-14-1.

(2) The date by which an action for recovery of a rejected claim must be commenced under G.S. 28A-19-6.

(b) Action by Clerk. – The affidavit or report shall be reviewed and recorded by the clerk of superior court. Following the review, the clerk of superior court shall take one of the following actions:

(1) Discharge the limited personal representative from office.

(2) Require the filing of any additional information or documents determined by the clerk to be necessary to the understanding of the affidavit or report.

(3) Order the full administration of the decedent's estate and appoint a personal representative.

"§ 28A-21-3. What accounts must contain.

Accounts filed with the clerk of superior court pursuant to G.S. 28A-21-1, signed and under oath, shall contain:

(1) The period which the account covers and whether it is an annual accounting or a final accounting;

(2) The amount and value of the property of the estate according to the inventory and appraisal or according to the next previous accounting, the amount of income and additional property received during the period being accounted for, and all gains from the sale of any property or otherwise;

(3) All payments, charges, losses, and distributions;

(4) The property on hand constituting the balance of the account, if any; and

(5) Such other facts and information determined by the clerk to be necessary to an understanding of the account.

"§ 28A-21-3.1. Phase II tobacco grower and quota owner payments; list of Phase II distributees.

(a) The following definitions apply in this section:

(1) "National Tobacco Grower Settlement Trust" means the trust established by tobacco companies to provide payments to tobacco growers and tobacco quota owners in 14 states for the purposes of ameliorating potential adverse economic consequences of likely reduction in demand, sales, and prices for tobacco as an agricultural product as a result of the Master Settlement Agreement incorporated in the consent decree entered in the action of State of North Carolina vs. Philip Morris, Incorporated, et al., 98 CVS 14377, in the General Court of Justice, Superior Court Division, Wake County, North Carolina.

(2) "Phase II payment" means an amount certified by the North Carolina Phase II Tobacco Certification Entity, Inc., to be paid pursuant to the trust agreement establishing the National Tobacco Grower Settlement Trust.

(b) A personal representative or collector of the estate of a decedent who, during 1993 or any subsequent year, was a tobacco grower or a tobacco quota owner as defined in Section 4.01 of the trust agreement establishing the National Tobacco Grower Settlement Trust may file, along with a final account, a list of Phase II distributees for Phase II payments if all of the following conditions are met:

(1) There are no unsatisfied creditors.

(2) There are no unsatisfied general monetary bequests.

(3) All assets other than any potential Phase II payments have been distributed.

(c) A list of Phase II distributees, signed under oath, must contain the following information:

(1) The name and address of the personal representative or collector.

(2) The name and social security number of the decedent.

(3) The name and address, if known, of each devisee or heir entitled to receive Phase II payments and the percentage of Phase II payments to be received by each.

(d) The clerk of superior court must review the list of Phase II distributees to determine if the list of distributees and their shares of potential Phase II payments are in accordance with the will or, if there is no will, in accordance with the Intestate Succession Act. If the clerk accepts the list of Phase II distributees for filing, the clerk must endorse the clerk's approval thereon, which shall be prima facie evidence of correctness.

(e) Upon determination by the North Carolina Phase II Tobacco Certification Entity, Inc., that the estate of a decedent entitled to any Phase II payment covering a time period when the decedent was alive has been closed, the payment may be paid directly to those distributees and in those shares set forth on a list of Phase II distributees filed under this section without the estate's having to be reopened under G.S. 28A-23-5.

(f) The estate of a decedent who is entitled to any Phase II payment may be reopened, if necessary, in accordance with G.S. 28A-23-5 in order to file a list of Phase II distributees under this section.

(g) For purposes of this section, Phase II payments covering a time period when decedent was alive are deemed cash and shall not pass by virtue of any devise or inheritance of the decedent's real property.

"§ 28A-21-4. Clerk may compel account.

If any personal representative or collector fails to account as directed in G.S. 28A-9-3, 28A-21-1 or 28A-21-2 or renders an unsatisfactory account, the clerk of superior court shall, upon ~~his own~~ motion of the clerk of superior court or upon the request of one or more creditors of the decedent or other interested party, promptly order such personal representative or collector to render a full satisfactory account within 20 days after service of the order. If, after due service of the order, the personal representative or collector does not on or before the return day of the order file such account, or obtain further time in which to file it, the clerk may remove ~~him~~ the personal representative or collector from office or may issue an attachment against ~~him~~ the personal representative or collector for a contempt and commit ~~him until he~~ the personal representative or collector until the personal representative or collector files said account.

"§ 28A-21-5. Vouchers presumptive evidence.

Vouchers, without other proof, are presumptive evidence of disbursement, unless impeached. If lost, the accounting party must, if required, make oath to that fact setting forth the manner of loss, and state the contents and purport of the voucher.

"§ 28A-21-6. Permissive Notice of Final Accounts.

The personal representative or collector may, but is not required to, give written notice of a proposed final account pursuant to G.S. 1A-1, Rule 4, to all devisees of the estate in the case of testacy, and to all heirs of the estate in the case of intestacy, of the date and place of filing of such account. In giving written notice, the personal representative shall attach a copy of the proposed final accounting with exhibits made a part thereof, but is not required to include copies of vouchers, account statements, or other supporting evidence submitted to the clerk. If the personal representative or collector elects to provide this notice, the personal representative or collector shall file with the clerk of superior court a certificate indicating that this notice has been given to all devisees and heirs. Notwithstanding any right to appeal an order or judgment under G.S. 1-301.3, any payment, distribution, action, or other matter disclosed on such account or any annual account for the estate filed by the personal representative or collector must be objected to by a devisee or heir within 30 days after the receipt of the written notice or will be deemed to be accepted by the devisee or heir.

"Article 22.

"Distribution.

"§ 28A-22-1. Scheme of distribution; testate and intestate estates.

After the payment of costs of administration, taxes and other valid claims against the decedent's estate, the personal representative shall distribute the remaining assets of the estate in accordance with the terms of decedent's valid probated will or the provisions of Chapter 29 of the General Statutes or as otherwise lawfully authorized.

"§ 28A-22-2. Shares of after-born and after-adopted children.

The share of an after-born or after-adopted child, as provided by G.S. 29-9 and 31-5.5, shall be allotted to ~~him~~ the after-born or after-adopted child out of any undevised real or personal property, or out of both, if there is enough such undevised property for that purpose. If there is no undevised real or personal property, or if there is not enough, then the whole of the child's share, or the deficiency, shall be made up from the devised real or personal property, or from both. The portion contributed by a devisee shall bear the same ratio to ~~his~~ the devisee's devise as the after-born or after-adopted child's share bears to the net estate.

If there may be heirs, born or unborn, of the decedent, other than those known to the personal representative and whose names and residences are unknown, before distributing such estate the personal representative is authorized to institute a special proceeding before the clerk of superior court for the purpose of determining who are the heirs of the decedent. All unknown heirs of the decedent shall be made parties thereto and shall be served with summons by publication as provided by G.S. 1A-1, Rule 4. Upon such service being had, the court shall appoint some discreet person to act as guardian ad litem for said unknown heirs and summons shall issue as to such guardian ad litem. Said guardian ad litem shall file answer on behalf of said unknown heirs and ~~he~~ the guardian ad litem may be paid for ~~his~~ services of the guardian ad litem such sum as the court may fix, to be paid as other costs out of the estate. Upon the filing of the answer by said guardian ad litem all such unknown heirs shall be before the court for the purposes of the proceeding to the same extent as if each had been personally served with summons. Any judgment entered by the court in such proceeding shall be as binding upon said unknown heirs as if they were personally before the court and any payment or distribution made by the personal representative under orders of the court shall have the effect of fully discharging such personal representative and any sureties on ~~his~~ the personal representative's official bond to the full extent of such payment or distribution as ordered.

"§ 28A-22-4. Distribution to nonresident trustee only upon appointment of process agent.

(a) No assets of the estate of a decedent subject to administration in this State shall be delivered or transferred to a trustee of a testamentary trust or an inter vivos trust who is a nonresident of this State who has not appointed a resident agent for the service of civil process for actions or proceedings arising out of the administration of the trust with regard to such property.

(b) If property is delivered or transferred to a trustee in violation of this section, process may be served outside this State or by publication, as provided by G.S. 1A-1, Rule 4, and the courts of this State shall have the same jurisdiction over the trustee as might have been obtained by service upon a properly appointed process agent. The provisions of this section with regard to jurisdiction shall be in addition to other means of obtaining jurisdiction permissible under the laws of this State.

"§ 28A-22-5. Distribution of assets in kind in satisfaction of bequests and transfers in trust.

(a) Subject to the provisions of subsection (b) of this section, whenever under any will or trust indenture the executor, trustee or other fiduciary is required to, or has an option to, satisfy a bequest or transfer in trust by a transfer of assets of the estate or trust in kind at the values as finally determined for federal estate tax purposes, the executor, trustee or other fiduciary shall, in the absence of contrary provisions in such will or trust indenture, be required to satisfy such bequest or transfer by the distribution of assets fairly representative of the appreciation or depreciation in the value of all property available for distribution in satisfaction of such bequest or transfer.

(b) The provisions of subsection (a) of this section shall not apply unless either:

(1) The decedent's surviving spouse is the beneficiary of the bequest or trust transfer described in subsection (a) of this section or of the residue of the estate or trust; or

(2) Any "skip person", as that term is defined in Chapter 13 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, is or may be a current or future beneficiary of the bequest or trust transfer described in subsection (a) of this section or of the residue of the estate or trust, and the value of the decedent's gross estate for federal tax purposes exceeds the value of the decedent's unused generation-skipping tax exemption available under Chapter 13 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

"§ 28A-22-6. Agreements with taxing authorities to secure benefit of federal marital deduction.

The executor, trustee, or other fiduciary having discretionary powers under a will or trust indenture with respect to the selection of assets to be distributed in satisfaction of a bequest or transfer in trust to or for the benefit of the surviving spouse of a decedent shall be authorized to enter into agreements with the Commissioner of Internal Revenue of the United States of America, and other taxing authorities, requiring the fiduciary to exercise the fiduciary's discretion so that cash and other properties distributed in satisfaction of such bequest or transfer in trust will be fairly representative of the net appreciation or depreciation in value on the date, or dates, of distribution of all property then available for distribution in satisfaction of such bequest or transfer in trust. Any such fiduciary shall be authorized to enter into any other agreement not in conflict with the express terms of the will or trust indenture that may be necessary or advisable in order to secure for federal estate tax purposes the appropriate marital deduction available under the Internal Revenue Laws of the United States of America and to do and perform all acts incident to such purpose.

"§ 28A-22-7. Distribution to parent or guardian of a minor.

(a) If a devise or legacy of personal property to a person under the age of 18 has a total value of less than one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500), and the devisee or legatee is residing in the same household with a parent or a guardian appointed prior to the decedent's death, the personal representative may distribute to the parent or guardian the devise or legacy. However, such distribution shall only be made with the prior approval of the clerk of court who issued the letters testamentary or of administration.

(b) If such distribution has been made the parent or guardian shall use the property solely for the education, maintenance and support of the devisee or legatee. However, the parent or guardian shall not be required to file an accounting with the clerk of court or to the personal representative, nor shall such distribution be cause for a delay in the filing of the personal representative's final account under the provisions of Article 21 of this Chapter.

(c) This section establishes a procedure that is separate from the provisions of G.S. 33-69.1 and it is not the intention of this section to repeal in whole or in part the provisions of G.S. 33-69.1.

(d) This section may also be applied to several devises or legacies of personal property to a single devisee or legatee having a combined total value of less than one thousand five hundred dollars ($1,500).

"§ 28A-22-8. Executor or trustee; discretion over distributions.

Unless otherwise restricted by the terms of the will or trust, an executor or trustee shall have absolute discretion to make distributions in cash or in specific property, real or personal, or an undivided interest therein or partly in cash or partly in such property, and to do so without regard to the income tax basis for federal tax purposes of specific property allocated to any beneficiary.

"§ 28A-22-9. Distribution to known but unlocated devisees or heirs.

(a) If there are known but unlocated devisees or heirs of property held by the personal representative, the personal representative may deliver the share of such devisee or heir to the clerk of superior court immediately prior to filing of the final account. If the devisee or heir is located after the final account has been filed, ~~he~~ the devisee or heir may present a claim for the share to the clerk. If the clerk determines that the claimant is entitled to the share, ~~he~~ the clerk shall deliver the share to the devisee or claimant. If the clerk denies the claim, the claimant may take an appeal as in a special proceeding.

(b) The clerk shall hold the share without liability for profit or interest. If no claim has been presented within a period of one year after the filing of the final account, the clerk shall deliver the share to the State Treasurer as abandoned property.

(c) The clerk shall not be required to publish any notice to such devisee or heir and shall not be required to report such share to the State Treasurer. If the devisee or heir is located, the clerk shall inform the devisee or heir that ~~he~~ the devisee or heir is entitled to file a claim with the State Treasurer for the share under the provisions of G.S. 116B-67.

"§ 28A-22-10. Distribution of assets of inoperative trust.

When the facts at the time of distribution of property to a trust are such that the trust would be inoperative under the terms of the instrument creating the trust for any reason, including the death of a beneficiary, renunciation by a beneficiary, the exercise of a right to withdraw the property by a beneficiary, or the attainment of a stipulated age by a beneficiary, the personal representative or the trustee authorized or required to make the distribution of that property to the trust may distribute the property directly to the person or persons entitled to it under the terms of the instrument creating the trust without the interposition of the establishment of the trust. If only a portion of the trust would be inoperative, the property distributable to that portion of the trust may be distributed directly to the person or persons entitled to the property under the terms of the instrument creating the trust.

"§ 28A-22-11. Agreements with heirs.

Any agreement by an heir, unknown or known but unlocated, the primary purpose of which is to locate or recover, or assist in the recovery of, a share in a decedent's estate shall be subject to the provisions of G.S. 116B-78.

"Article 23.

"Settlement.

"§ 28A-23-1. Settlement after final account filed.

When the personal representative or collector has paid or otherwise satisfied or provided for all claims against the estate, has distributed the remainder of the estate pursuant to G.S. 28A-22-1 and has filed ~~his~~ the personal representative's or collector's final account for settlement pursuant to G.S. 28A-21-2, if the clerk of superior court, after review of the personal representative's or collector's final account, approves the same, ~~he~~ the clerk of superior court shall enter an order discharging the personal representative or collector from further ~~liability.~~ duties and liabilities as personal representative or collector, including those set forth in Article 13 of this Chapter. However, that such an order shall not include a release or discharge of liability for any breach of duty set forth in G.S. 28A-13-10(c).

"§ 28A-23-2. Payment into court of fund due minor.

When any personal representative or collector holds property due a minor without a guardian and desires to file ~~his~~ the personal representative's or collector's petition for settlement, ~~he~~ the personal representative or collector may deliver the property to the clerk of superior court who shall invest upon interest or otherwise manage said property for the use of the minor or the clerk may proceed to appoint a guardian for the minor pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 35A of the General Statutes and then may deliver the property of the minor to the guardian.

"§ 28A-23-3. Commissions allowed personal representatives; representatives guilty of misconduct or default.

(a) Personal representatives, collectors or public administrators shall be entitled to commissions to be fixed in the discretion of the clerk of superior court not to exceed five percent (5%) upon the amounts of receipts, including the value of all personal property when received, and upon the expenditures made in accordance with law. In determining the maximum commissions allowable under this subsection, the clerk of superior court may take into consideration fees paid by the estate for professional services performed in the ordinary course of administering the estate, including services performed by attorneys and accountants. However, the clerk is not required to reduce the maximum commissions allowed by the aggregate fees paid to professionals on a dollar-for-dollar basis.

The commissions shall be charged as a part of the costs of administration and, upon allowance, may be retained out of the assets of the estate against creditors and all other persons claiming an interest in the estate. If the gross value of an estate is two thousand dollars ($2,000) or less, the clerk of superior court may fix the commission to be received by the personal representative, collector or public administrator in an amount the clerk of superior court, in the clerk's discretion, deems just and adequate.

(b) In determining the amount of the commissions, both upon personal property received and upon expenditures made, the clerk of superior court shall consider the time, responsibility, trouble and skill involved in the management of the estate. Where real property is sold to pay debts or legacies, the commission shall be computed only on the proceeds actually applied in the payment of debts or legacies.

(c) The clerk of superior court may allow commissions from time to time during the course of the administration, but the total commissions allowed shall be determined on final settlement of the estate and shall not exceed the limit fixed in this section.

(d) Nothing in this section shall be construed to:

(1) Prevent the clerk of ~~the~~ superior court from allowing reasonable sums for necessary charges and disbursements incurred in the management of the estate.

(2) Allow commissions on distribution of the shares of heirs or on distribution of shares of devisees.

(3) Abridge the right of any party interested in the administration of a decedent's estate to appeal an order of the clerk of superior court to a judge of superior court.

(e) No personal representative, collector or public administrator, who has been guilty of default or misconduct in the due execution of ~~his or her~~ the personal representative's, collector's, or public administrator's office resulting in the revocation of ~~his or her~~ the appointment of the personal representative, collector, or public administrator under the provisions of G.S. 28A-9-1, shall be entitled to any commission under the provisions of this section.

(f) For the purpose of computing commissions whenever any portion of the dividends, interest, rents or other amounts payable to a personal representative, collector or public administrator is required by any law of the United States or other governmental unit to be withheld for income tax purposes by the person, corporation, organization or governmental unit paying the same, the amount withheld shall be deemed to have been received and expended.

(g) Subsection (a) of this section does not apply if the testator's will specifies a stipulated amount or method or standard for determining the compensation for the services rendered by the personal representative, including a provision in the will that the compensation of the personal representative is to be determined by applying the personal representative's regularly adopted schedule of compensation in effect at the time of performance of those services. Subsection (a) of this section also shall not apply if the testator's will provides that the personal representative is to receive "reasonable compensation" for those services or similar language to that effect if the personal representative and the beneficiaries whose shares would be charged with the payment of the personal representative's compensation consent in writing to the specific amount that constitutes reasonable compensation.

(h) Subsection (a) of this section shall apply if the testator's will provides that compensation of the personal representative shall be the amount "as provided by law," the "maximum amount provided by law," or other similar language.

"§ 28A-23-4. Counsel fees allowable to attorneys serving as representatives.

The clerk of superior court, in ~~his discretion,~~ the discretion of the clerk of superior court, is authorized and empowered to allow counsel fees to an attorney serving as a personal representative, collector or public administrator (in addition to the commissions allowed ~~him~~ the attorney as such representative, collector or public administrator) where such attorney in behalf of the estate ~~he~~ the attorney represents renders professional services, as an attorney, which are beyond the ordinary routine of administration and of a type which would reasonably justify the retention of legal counsel by any such representative, collector or public administrator not ~~himself~~ licensed to practice law.

"§ 28A-23-5. Reopening administration.

If, after an estate has been settled and the personal representative discharged, other property of the estate shall be discovered, or if it shall appear that any necessary act remains unperformed on the part of the personal representative, or for any other proper cause, the clerk of superior court, upon the petition of any person interested in the estate and without notice or upon such notice as ~~he~~ the clerk of superior court may direct, may order that said estate be reopened. ~~He~~ The clerk of superior court may reappoint the personal representative or appoint another personal representative to administer such property or perform such acts as may be deemed necessary. Unless the clerk of superior court shall otherwise order, the provisions of this Chapter as to an original administration shall apply to the proceedings had in the reopened administration; but no claim which is already barred can be asserted in the reopened administration.

"Article 24.

"120-Hour Survivorship Requirement; Revised Simultaneous Death Act.

"§ 28A-24-1. Definitions.

In this Article:

(1) "Co-owners with right of survivorship" includes joint tenants in a joint tenancy with right of survivorship, tenants by the entireties, and other co-owners of property or accounts held under circumstances that entitle one or more to the whole of the property or account on the death of the other or others.

(2) "Governing instrument" means a deed, will, trust, insurance or annuity policy, account with a POD designation, pension, profit sharing, retirement, or similar benefit plan, instrument creating or exercising a power of appointment or a power of attorney, or a dispositive, appointive, or nominative instrument of any similar type.

(3) "Payor" means a trustee, insurer, business entity, employer, government, governmental agency or subdivision, or any other person authorized or obligated by law or a governing instrument to make payments.

"§ 28A-24-2. Requirement of survival by 120 hours.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this Article, where the title to property, the devolution of property, the right to elect an interest in property, or any other right or benefit depends upon an individual's survivorship of the death of another individual, an individual who is not established by clear and convincing evidence to have survived the other individual by at least 120 hours is deemed to have predeceased the other individual.

(b) If the language of the governing instrument disposes of property in such a way that two or more beneficiaries are designated to take alternatively by reason of surviving each other and it is not established by clear and convincing evidence that any such beneficiary has survived any other such beneficiary by at least 120 hours, the property shall be divided into as many equal shares as there are alternative beneficiaries, and these shares shall be distributed respectively to each such beneficiary's estate.

(c) If the language of the governing instrument disposes of property in such a way that it is to be distributed to the member or members of a class who survived an individual, each member of the class will be deemed to have survived that individual by at least 120 hours unless it is established by clear and convincing evidence that the individual survived the class member or members by at least 120 hours.

"§ 28A-24-3. Co-owners with right of survivorship; requirement of survival by 120 hours.

Except as otherwise provided in this Article, (i) if it is not established by clear and convincing evidence that one of two co-owners with right of survivorship survived the other co-owner by at least 120 hours, one-half of the property passes as if one had survived by at least 120 hours and one-half as if the other had survived by at least 120 hours and (ii) if there are more than two co-owners with right of survivorship and it is not established by clear and convincing evidence that at least one of them survived the others by at least 120 hours, the property passes to the estates of each of the co-owners in the proportion that one bears to the whole number of co-owners.

"§ 28A-24-4. Survival of an event; 120-hour period not applicable.

For purposes of a governing instrument that requires survival of an event, other than the death of another individual, the 120-hour survivorship requirement of this Article does not apply.

"§ 28A-24-5. Victim deemed to survive slayer.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Article, solely for the purpose of determining whether the victim is entitled to any right or benefit that depends on surviving the death of a slayer under G.S. 31A-3, the slayer is deemed to have predeceased the victim and the victim is deemed to have survived the slayer by at least 120 hours (or any greater survival period required of the victim under the slayer's will or other governing instrument) unless it is established by clear and convincing evidence that the slayer survived the victim by at least 120 hours.

"§ 28A-24-6. Exceptions to the 120-hour survival requirement.

Survival by 120 hours is not required if any of the following apply:

(1) The governing instrument contains language dealing explicitly with simultaneous deaths or deaths in a common disaster and the language is operable under the facts of the case.

(2) The governing instrument expressly indicates that an individual is not required to survive the death of another individual by any specified period or expressly requires the individual to survive another individual for a specified period; but survival must be established by clear and convincing evidence.

(3) The imposition of a 120-hour requirement of survival would cause a nonvested property interest or a power of appointment to fail to qualify for validity under G.S. 41-15; but survival must be established by clear and convincing evidence.

(4) The application of a 120-hour requirement of survival to multiple governing instruments would result in an unintended failure or duplication of a disposition; but survival must be established by clear and convincing evidence.

(5) The application of a 120-hour requirement of survival would deprive an individual or the estate of an individual of an otherwise available tax exemption, deduction or credit, expressly including the marital deduction, resulting in the imposition of a tax upon a donor or testator or other person (or their estate) as the transferor of any property. "Tax" includes any federal or State gift, estate or inheritance tax.

(6) The application of a 120-hour requirement of survival would result in an escheat.

"§ 28A-24-7. Evidence of death or status.

For purposes of this Article, the following rules of evidence apply relating to the determination of death and status of a beneficiary subject to a requirement of survivorship and of the person the beneficiary must survive:

(1) Death occurs when an individual is determined to be dead pursuant to G.S. 90-323 or Chapter 28C of the General Statutes.

(2) A certified or authenticated copy of a death certificate purporting to be issued by an official or agency in the place where the death purportedly occurred is prima facie evidence of the fact, place, date, and time of death and the identity of the decedent. In the absence of evidence disputing the death certificate, that certificate shall be conclusive evidence of the fact, place, date, and time of death and the identity of the decedent.

(3) A certified or authenticated copy of any record or report of a governmental agency, domestic or foreign, that an individual is missing, detained, dead, or alive is prima facie evidence of the status and of the dates, circumstances, and places disclosed by the record or report. The record or report is conclusive evidence of the status and of the dates, circumstances, and places disclosed by the record or report unless there is evidence to the contrary.

(4) In the absence of prima facie evidence of death under subdivision (2) or (3) of this section, the fact of death may be established by clear and convincing evidence, including circumstantial evidence.

"§ 28A-24-8. Protection of payors, bona fide purchasers, and other third parties; personal liability of recipient.

(a) A payor or other third party is not liable for having made a payment or transferred an item of property or any other benefit to a person designated in a governing instrument who, under this Article, is not entitled to the payment or item of property, or for having taken any other action in good faith reliance on the person's apparent entitlement under the terms of the governing instrument, before the payor or other third party received written notice of a claimed lack of entitlement under this Article. A payor or other third party is liable for a payment made or other action taken after the payor or other third party received written notice of a claimed lack of entitlement under this Article.

Written notice of a claimed lack of entitlement under this Article must be mailed to the payor's or other third party's main office or home by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, or served upon the payor or other third party in the same manner as a summons in a civil action. Upon receipt of written notice of a claimed lack of entitlement under this Article, a payor or other third party may pay any amount owed or transfer or deposit any item of property other than tangible personal property held by it to or with the clerk of the superior court having jurisdiction of the probate proceedings relating to the decedent's estate, or if no proceedings have been commenced, to or with the clerk of the superior court having jurisdiction of probate proceedings relating to decedents' estates located in the county of the decedent's residence. The clerk shall hold the funds or item of property and, upon the clerk's determination under this Article, shall order disbursement in accordance with the determination. Payments, transfers, or deposits made to or with the clerk discharge the payor or other third party from all claims for the value of amounts paid to or items of property transferred to or deposited with the clerk.

(b) A person who purchases property for value and without notice, or who received a payment or other item of property in partial or full satisfaction of a legally enforceable obligation, is neither obligated under this Article to return the payment, item of property, or benefit, nor liable under this Article for the amount of the payment or the value of the item of property or benefit. But a person who, not for value, receives a payment, item of property, or any other benefit to which the person is not entitled under this Article is obligated to return the payment, item of property, or benefit, or is personally liable for the amount of the payment or the value of the item of property or benefit, to the person who is entitled to it under this Article.

"Article 25.

"Small Estates.

"§ 28A-25-1. Collection of property by affidavit when decedent dies intestate.

(a) When a decedent dies intestate leaving personal property, less liens and encumbrances thereon, not exceeding twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) in value, at any time after 30 days from the date of death, any person indebted to the decedent or having possession of tangible personal property or an instrument evidencing a debt, obligation, stock or chose in action belonging to the decedent shall make payment of the indebtedness or deliver the tangible personal property or an instrument evidencing a debt, obligation, stock or chose in action to a person claiming to be the public administrator appointed pursuant to G.S. 28A-12-1, or an heir or creditor of the decedent, not disqualified under G.S. 28A-4-2, upon being presented a certified copy of an affidavit filed in accordance with subsection (b) and made by or on behalf of the heir or creditor or the public administrator stating:

(1) The name and address of the affiant and the fact that ~~he or she~~ the affiant is the public administrator or an heir or creditor of the decedent;
(2) The name of the decedent and ~~his~~ the decedent's residence at time of death;
(3) The date and place of death of the decedent;
(4) That 30 days have elapsed since the death of the decedent;
(5) That the value of all the personal property owned by the estate of the decedent, less liens and encumbrances thereon, does not exceed twenty thousand dollars ($20,000);
(6) That no application or petition for appointment of a personal representative is pending or has been granted in any jurisdiction;
(7) The names and addresses of those persons who are entitled, under the provisions of the Intestate Succession Act, to the personal property of the decedent and their relationship, if any, to the decedent; and
(8) A description sufficient to identify each tract of real property owned by the decedent at the time of ~~his~~ the decedent's death.

In those cases in which the affiant is the surviving spouse and sole heir of the decedent, not disqualified under G.S. 28A-4-2, the property described in this subsection that may be collected pursuant to this section may exceed twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) in value but shall not exceed thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) in ~~value.~~ value, after reduction for any spousal allowance paid to the surviving spouse pursuant to G.S. 30-15. In such cases, the affidavit shall state: (i) the name and address of the affiant and the fact that ~~he or she~~ the affiant is the surviving spouse and is entitled, under the provisions of the Intestate Succession Act, to all of the property of the decedent; (ii) that the value of all of the personal property owned by the estate of the decedent, less liens and encumbrances thereon, does not exceed thirty thousand dollars ($30,000); and (iii) the information required under subdivisions (2), (3), (4), (6), and (8) of this subsection.

(b) Prior to the recovery of any assets of the decedent, a copy of the affidavit described in subsection (a) shall be filed in the office of the clerk of superior court of the county where the decedent ~~had his domicile at the time of his~~ was domiciled at the time of death. The affidavit shall be filed by the clerk upon payment of the fee provided in G.S. 7A-307, shall be indexed in the index to estates, and a copy thereof shall be mailed by the clerk to the persons shown in the affidavit as entitled to the personal property.

(c) The presentation of an affidavit as provided in subsection (a) shall be sufficient to require the transfer to the affiant or ~~his~~ the affiant's designee of the title and license to a motor vehicle registered in the name of the decedent owner; the ownership rights of a savings account or checking account in a bank in the name of the decedent owner; the ownership rights of a savings account or share certificate in a credit union, building and loan association, or savings and loan association in the name of the decedent owner; the ownership rights in any stock or security registered on the books of a corporation in the name of a decedent owner; or any other property or contract right owned by decedent at the time of ~~his~~ the decedent's death.

"§ 28A-25-1.1. Collection of property by affidavit when decedent dies testate.

(a) When a decedent dies testate leaving personal property, less liens and encumbrances thereon, not exceeding twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) in value, at any time after 30 days from the date of death, any person indebted to the decedent or having possession of tangible personal property or an instrument evidencing a debt, obligation, stock or chose in action belonging to the decedent shall make payment of the indebtedness or deliver the tangible personal property or an instrument evidencing a debt, obligation, stock or chose in action to a person claiming to be the public administrator appointed pursuant to G.S. 28A-12-1, a person named or designated as executor in the will, devisee, heir or creditor, of the decedent, not disqualified under G.S. 28A-4-2, upon being presented a certified copy of an affidavit filed in accordance with subsection (b) and made by or on behalf of the heir, the person named or designated as executor in the will of the decedent, the creditor, the public administrator, or the devisee, stating:

(1) The name and address of the affiant and the fact that ~~he~~ the affiant is the public administrator, a person named or designated as executor in the will, devisee, heir or creditor, of the decedent;
(2) The name of the decedent and ~~his~~ the decedent's residence at time of death;
(3) The date and place of death of the decedent;
(4) That 30 days have elapsed since the death of the decedent;
(5) That the decedent died testate leaving personal property, less liens and encumbrances thereon, not exceeding twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) in value;
(6) That the decedent's will has been admitted to probate in the court of the proper county and a duly certified copy of the will has been recorded in each county in which is located any real property owned by the decedent at the time of ~~his~~ the decedent's death;
(7) That a certified copy of the decedent's will is attached to the affidavit;
(8) That no application or petition for appointment of a personal representative is pending or has been granted in any jurisdiction;
(9) The names and addresses of those persons who are entitled, under the provisions of the will, or if applicable, of the Intestate Succession Act, to the property of the decedent; and their relationship, if any, to the decedent; and
(10) A description sufficient to identify each tract of real property owned by the decedent at the time of ~~his~~ the decedent's death.

In those cases in which the affiant is the surviving spouse, is entitled to all of the property of the decedent, and is not disqualified under G.S. 28A-4-2, the property described in this subsection that may be collected pursuant to this section may exceed twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) in value but shall not exceed thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) in value. In such cases, the affidavit shall state: (i) the name and address of the affiant and the fact that ~~he or she~~ the affiant is the surviving spouse and is entitled, under the provisions of the decedent's will, or if applicable, of the Intestate Succession Act, to all of the property of the decedent; (ii) that the decedent died testate leaving personal property, less liens and encumbrances thereon, not exceeding thirty thousand dollars ($30,000); and (iii) the information required under subdivisions (2), (3), (4), (6), (7), (8), and (10) of this subsection.

(b) Prior to the recovery of any assets of the decedent, a copy of the affidavit described in subsection (a) shall be filed in the office of the clerk of superior court of the county where the decedent ~~had his domicile at the time of his~~ was domiciled at the time of death. The affidavit shall be filed by the clerk upon payment of the fee provided in G.S. 7A-307, shall be indexed in the index to estates, and a copy shall be mailed by the clerk to the persons shown in the affidavit as entitled to the property.

(c) The presentation of an affidavit as provided in subsection (a) shall be sufficient to require the transfer to the affiant or ~~his~~ the affiant's designee of the title and license to a motor vehicle registered in the name of the decedent owner; the ownership rights of a savings account or checking account in a bank in the name of the decedent owner; the ownership rights of a savings account or share certificate in a credit union, building and loan association, or savings and loan association in the name of the decedent owner; the ownership rights in any stock or security registered on the books of a corporation in the name of a decedent owner; or any other property or contract right owned by decedent at the time of ~~his~~ the decedent's death.

The person paying, delivering, transferring or issuing personal property or the evidence thereof pursuant to an affidavit meeting the requirements of G.S. 28A-25-1(a) or G.S. 28A-25-1.1(a) is discharged and released to the same extent as if ~~he~~ the person dealt with a duly qualified personal representative of the decedent. ~~He~~ The person is not required to see to the application of the personal property or evidence thereof or to inquire into the truth of any statement in the affidavit. If any person to whom an affidavit is delivered refuses to pay, deliver, transfer, or issue any personal property or evidence thereof, it may be recovered or its payment, delivery, transfer, or issuance compelled upon proof of their right in an action brought for that purpose by or on behalf of the persons entitled thereto. The court costs and attorney's fee incident to the action shall be taxed against the person whose refusal to comply with the provisions of G.S. 28A-25-1(a) or G.S. 28A-25-1.1(a) made the action necessary. The heir or creditor to whom payment, delivery, transfer or issuance is made is answerable and accountable therefor to any duly qualified personal representative or collector of the decedent's estate or to any other person having an interest in the estate.

"§ 28A-25-3. Disbursement and distribution of property collected by affidavit.

(a) If there has been no personal representative or collector appointed by the clerk of superior court, the affiant who has collected personal property of the decedent by affidavit pursuant to G.S. 28A-25-1 or G.S. 28A-25-1.1 shall:

(1) Disburse and distribute the same in the following order:

a. To the payment of the surviving spouse's year's allowance and the children's year's allowance assigned in accordance with G.S. 30-15 through G.S. 30-33;

b. To the payment of the debts and claims against the estate of the decedent in the order of priority set forth in G.S. 28A-19-6, or to the reimbursement of any person who has already made payment thereof;

c. To the distribution of the remainder of the personal property to the persons entitled thereto under the provisions of the will or of the Intestate Succession Act; and

(2) File an affidavit with the clerk of superior court that ~~he~~ the affiant has collected the personal property of the decedent and the manner in which ~~he~~ the affiant has disbursed and distributed the same. This final affidavit shall be filed within 90 days of the date of filing of the qualifying affidavit provided for in G.S. 28A-25-1 or G.S. 28A-25-1.1. If the affiant cannot file the final affidavit within 90 days, ~~he~~ the affiant shall file a report with the clerk within that time period stating ~~his~~ the affiant's reasons. Upon determining that the affiant has good reason not to file the final affidavit within 90 days, the clerk may extend the time for filing up to one year from the date of filing the qualifying affidavit.

(b) Nothing in this section shall be construed as changing the rule of G.S. 28A-15-1 and G.S. 28A-15-5 rendering both real and personal property, without preference or priority, available for the discharge of debts and other claims against the estate of the decedent. If it appears that it may be in the best interest of the estate to sell, lease, or mortgage any real property to obtain money for the payment of debts or other claims against the decedent's estate, the affiant shall petition the clerk of superior court for the appointment of a personal representative to conclude the administration of the decedent's estate pursuant to G.S. 28A-25-5.

"§ 28A-25-4. Clerk may compel compliance.

If any affiant who has collected personal property of the decedent by affidavit pursuant to G.S. 28A-25-1 or G.S. 28A-25-1.1 shall fail to make distribution or file affidavit as required by G.S. 28A-25-3, the clerk of superior court may, upon ~~his own~~ motion of the clerk of superior court or at the request of any interested person, issue an attachment against ~~him~~ the affiant for a contempt and commit ~~him~~ the affiant until ~~he~~ the affiant makes proper distribution and files the affidavit. In addition to or in lieu of filing this attachment, the clerk may require the affiant to post a bond conditioned as provided in G.S. 28A-8-2.

"§ 28A-25-5. Subsequently appointed personal representative or collector.

Nothing in this Article shall preclude any interested person, including the affiant, from petitioning the clerk of superior court for the appointment of a personal representative or collector to conclude the administration of the decedent's estate. If such is done, the affiant who has been collecting personal property by affidavit shall cease to do so, shall deliver all assets in ~~his~~ the affiant's possession to the personal representative, and shall render a proper accounting to the personal representative or collector. A copy of the accounting shall also be filed with the clerk having jurisdiction over the personal representative or collector.

"§ 28A-25-6. Payment to clerk of money owed decedent.

(a) As an alternative to the small estate settlement procedures of this Article, any person indebted to a decedent may satisfy such indebtedness by paying the amount of the debt to the clerk of the superior court of the county of the domicile of the decedent:

(1) If no administrator has been appointed, and

(2) If the amount owed by such person does not exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000), and

(3) If the sum tendered to the clerk would not make the aggregate sum which has come into the clerk's hands belonging to the decedent exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000).

(b) Such payments may not be made to the clerk if the total amount paid or tendered with respect to any one decedent would exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000), even though disbursements have been made so that the aggregate amount in the clerk's hands at any one time would not exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000).

(c) If the sum tendered pursuant to this section would make the aggregate sum coming into the clerk's hands with respect to any one decedent exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000) the clerk shall appoint an administrator, or the sum may be administered under the preceding sections of this Article.

(d) If it appears to the clerk after making a preliminary survey that disbursements pursuant to this section would not exhaust funds received pursuant to this section, ~~he~~ the clerk may, in ~~his~~ the clerk's discretion, appoint an administrator, or the funds may be administered under the preceding sections of this Article.

(e) The receipt from the clerk of the superior court of a payment purporting to be made pursuant to this section is a full release to the debtor for the payment so made.

(f) If no administrator has been appointed, the clerk of superior court shall disburse the money received under this section for the following purposes and in the following order:

(1) To pay the surviving spouse's year's allowance and children's year's allowance assigned in accordance with law;

(2), (3) Repealed by Session Laws 1981, c. 383, s. 3.

(4) All other claims shall be disbursed according to the order set out in G.S. 28A-19-6.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this subsection, the clerk shall pay, out of funds provided the deceased pursuant to G.S. 111-18 and Part 3 of Article 2 of Chapter 108A of the General Statutes of North Carolina, any lawful claims for care provided by an adult care home to the deceased, incurred not more than 90 days prior to ~~his~~ the deceased's death. After the death of a spouse who died intestate and after the disbursements have been made in accordance with this subsection, the balance in the clerk's hands belonging to the estate of the decedent shall be paid to the surviving spouse, and if there is no surviving spouse, the clerk shall pay it to the heirs in proportion to their respective interests.

(g) The clerk shall not be required to publish notice to creditors.

(h) Whenever an administrator is appointed after a clerk of superior court has received any money pursuant to this section, the clerk shall pay to the administrator all funds which have not been disbursed. The clerk shall receive no commissions for payments made to the administrator, and the administrator shall receive no commissions for receiving such payments.

"Article 26.

"Foreign Personal Representatives and Ancillary Administration.

"§ 28A-26-1. Domiciliary and ancillary probate and administration.

The domiciliary, or original, administration of the estates of all decedents domiciled in North Carolina at the time of death shall be under the jurisdiction of this State and of a proper clerk of superior court in this State, and the original probate of all wills of such persons shall be in this State. Any administration of the estate and any probate of a will of such decedents outside North Carolina shall be ancillary only. All assets, except real estate (but including proceeds from the sale of real estate), subject to ancillary administration in a jurisdiction outside North Carolina shall, to the extent such assets are not necessary for the requirements of such ancillary administration, be transferred and delivered by the ancillary personal representative to the duly qualified personal representative in this State for administration and distribution by the domiciliary personal representative, and the domiciliary personal representative in this State shall have the duty of collecting all such assets from the ancillary personal representative. The receipt of the domiciliary personal representative shall fully acquit the ancillary personal representative with respect to the assets covered thereby. The domiciliary personal representative in North Carolina shall have the exclusive right and duty to pay all federal and North Carolina taxes owed by the estate of such decedent and to make proper distribution of all assets including those collected from the ancillary personal representative.

"§ 28A-26-2. Payment of debt and delivery of property to domiciliary personal representative of a nonresident decedent without ancillary administration in this State.

(a) At any time after the expiration of 60 days from the death of a nonresident decedent, any resident of this State indebted to the estate of the nonresident decedent or having possession or control of personal property, or of an instrument evidencing a debt, obligation, stock or chose in action belonging to the estate of the nonresident decedent may pay the debt or deliver the personal property, or the instrument evidencing the debt, obligation, stock or chose in action, to the domiciliary personal representative of the nonresident decedent upon being presented with a certified or exemplified copy of ~~his~~ the domiciliary personal representative's letters of appointment and an affidavit made by or on behalf of the domiciliary personal representative stating:

(1) The date of the death of the nonresident decedent;

(2) That to the best of ~~his~~ the domiciliary personal representative's knowledge no administration, or application or petition therefor, is pending in this State;

(3) That the domiciliary personal representative is entitled to payment or delivery.

(b) Payment or delivery made in good faith on the basis of the proof of appointment as domiciliary personal representative of a nonresident decedent and an affidavit meeting the requirements of subsection (a) constitutes a release to the same extent as if payment or delivery had been made to an ancillary personal representative.

(c) Payment or delivery under this section shall not be made if a resident creditor of the nonresident decedent has, by registered or certified mail, notified the resident debtor of the nonresident decedent or the resident having possession of the personal property belonging to the nonresident decedent that the debt should not be paid nor the property delivered to the domiciliary personal representative of the nonresident decedent. If no ancillary administrator qualifies within 90 days from the date of the notice, however, the resident debtor may pay the debt or deliver the property directly to the nonresident domiciliary personal representative as set forth in subsection (a) of this section.

"§ 28A-26-3. Ancillary administration.

(a) Any domiciliary personal representative of a nonresident decedent upon the filing of a certified or exemplified copy of letters of appointment with the clerk of superior court who has venue under G.S. 28A-3-1 may be granted ancillary letters in this State notwithstanding that the domiciliary personal representative is a nonresident of this State or is a foreign corporation. If the domiciliary personal representative is a foreign corporation, it need not qualify under any other law of this State to authorize it to act as ancillary personal representative in the particular estate. If application is made for the issuance of ancillary letters to the domiciliary personal representative, the clerk of superior court shall give preference in appointment to the domiciliary personal representative unless the decedent shall have otherwise directed in a will.

(b) If, within 90 days after the death of the nonresident, or within 60 days after issue of domiciliary letters, should that be a shorter period, no application for ancillary letters has been made by a domiciliary personal representative, any person who could apply for issue of letters had the decedent been a resident may apply for issue of ancillary letters.

If it is known that there is a duly qualified domiciliary personal representative, the clerk of superior court shall send notice of such application, by registered mail, to that personal representative and to the appointing court. Such notice shall include a statement that, within 14 days after its mailing, the domiciliary personal representative may apply for the issue of ancillary letters with the preference specified in subsection (a) of this section; and that ~~his~~ failure of the domiciliary personal representative to do so will be deemed a waiver, with the result that letters will be issued to another. Upon such failure, the clerk of superior court may issue ancillary letters in accordance with the provisions of Article 4 of this Chapter.

If the applicant and the clerk of superior court have no knowledge of the existence of a domiciliary personal representative, the clerk of superior court may proceed to issue ancillary letters. Subsequently, upon it becoming known that a domiciliary personal representative has been appointed, whether such appointment occurred before or after the issue of ancillary letters, the clerk of superior court shall notify the domiciliary personal representative, by registered mail, of the action taken by the clerk of superior court and the state of the ancillary administration. Such notice shall include a statement that at any time prior to approval of the ancillary personal representative's final account the domiciliary personal representative may appear in the proceedings for any purpose ~~he~~ the domiciliary personal representative may deem advisable; and that ~~he~~ the domiciliary personal representative may apply to be substituted as ancillary personal representative, but that such request will not be granted unless the clerk of superior court finds that such action will be for the best interests of North Carolina administration of the estate.

"§ 28A-26-4. Bonds.

(a) Subject to the exception in subsection (b), any personal representative, including a domiciliary personal representative, who is granted ancillary letters of administration in this State must satisfy the bond requirements prescribed in Article 8 of this Chapter.

(b) Where a citizen or subject of a foreign country, or of any other state or territory of the United States, by will sufficient according to the laws of this State, and duly probated and recorded in the proper county, devises to ~~his~~ that person's executor, with power to sell and convey, real property situated in this State in trust for a person named in the will, the power being vested in the executor as such trustee, the executor may execute the power without giving bond in this State.

"§ 28A-26-5. Authority of domiciliary personal representative of a nonresident decedent.

The domiciliary personal representative of the nonresident decedent after qualifying as ancillary personal representative in this State is authorized to administer the North Carolina estate of the nonresident decedent in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter.

"§ 28A-26-6. Jurisdiction.

(a) A domiciliary personal representative of a nonresident decedent may invoke the jurisdiction of the courts of this State after qualifying as ancillary personal representative in this State except that ~~he~~ the domiciliary personal representative may invoke such jurisdiction prior to qualification for the purpose of appealing from a decision of the clerk of superior court regarding a question of qualification.

(b) A domiciliary personal representative of a nonresident decedent submits to the jurisdiction of the courts of this State:

(1) As provided in G.S. 1-75.4, or

(2) By receiving payment of money or taking delivery of personal property under G.S. 28A-26-2; or

(3) By acceptance of ancillary letters of administration in this State under G.S. 28A-26-3; or

(4) By doing any act as personal representative in this State which if done as an individual would have given the State jurisdiction over ~~him~~ the personal representative as an individual.

"§ 28A-26-7. Service on personal representative of a nonresident decedent.

A court of this State having jurisdiction of the subject matter and grounds for personal jurisdiction as provided in G.S. 28A-26-6 may exercise personal jurisdiction over a defendant by service of process in accordance with the provisions of G.S. 1A-1, Rule 4(j).

"§ 28A-26-8. Duties of personal representative in an ancillary administration.

(a) All assets of estates of nonresident decedents being administered in this State are subject to all claims, allowances and charges existing or established against the estate of the decedent wherever existing or established.

(b) An adjudication of a claim rendered in any jurisdiction in favor of or against any personal representative of the estate of a nonresident decedent is binding on the ancillary personal representative in this State and on all parties to the litigation.

(c) Limitations on presentation of claims shall be governed by the provisions of this Chapter except that creditors residing in the domiciliary state barred by the statutes of that state may not file claims in an ancillary administration in this State.

(d) In the payment of claims by the ancillary administrator, the following rules shall apply:

(1) If the value of the entire estate, wherever administered, equals or exceeds family exemptions and allowances, prior charges and claims against the entire estate, the claims allowed in this State shall be paid in full from assets in this State, if such assets are sufficient for the purpose.

(2) If such total exemptions, allowances, charges and claims exceed the value of the entire estate, the claims allowed in this State shall be paid their proper percentage pro rata by class, if assets in this State are sufficient for the purpose.

(3) If assets in this State are inadequate for either of the purposes stated in subdivisions (1) or (2) above, the claims allowed in this State shall be paid, pro rata by class, to the extent the local assets will permit.

(4) If the value of the entire estate, wherever administered, is insufficient to pay all exemptions and allowances, prior charges and claims against the entire estate, the priority for order of payment established by the law of the domicile will prevail.

"§ 28A-26-9. Remission of surplus assets by ancillary personal representative to domiciliary personal representative.

Unless a testator in a will otherwise directs, any assets (including proceeds from the sale of real estate) remaining after payment of claims against the estate of a nonresident decedent being administered by an ancillary personal representative other than the domiciliary personal representative shall be transferred and delivered to the domiciliary personal representative or, if none, to the court in the domicile of the decedent which has jurisdiction to administer the estate.

"Article 27.

"Apportionment of Federal Estate Tax.

"§ 28A-27-1. Definitions.

For the purposes of this Article:

(1) "Estate" means the gross estate of a decedent as determined for the purpose of the federal estate tax.

(2) "Fiduciary" includes a personal representative and a trustee.

(3) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, joint stock company, corporation, governmental agency, including any multiples or combinations of the foregoing as, for example, individuals as joint tenants.

(4) "Person interested in the estate" means any person, including a personal representative, guardian, or trustee, entitled to receive, or who has received, from a decedent while alive or by reason of the death of a decedent any property or interest therein included in the decedent's taxable estate.

(5) "State" means any state, territory, or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, or the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

(6) "Tax" means the net Federal Estate Tax due, after application of any available unified transfer tax credit, and interest and penalties imposed in addition to the tax.

"§ 28A-27-2. Apportionment.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (b) of this section, or in G.S. 28A-27-5, G.S. 28A-27-6, or G.S. 28A-27-8, the tax shall be apportioned among all persons interested in the estate in the proportion that the value of the interest of each person interested in the estate bears to the total value of the interests of all persons interested in the estate. The values as finally determined for federal estate tax purposes shall be used for the purposes of this computation.

(b) In the event the decedent's will provides a method of apportionment of the tax different from the method provided in subsection (a) above, the method described in the will shall control. However, in the case of any will executed on or after October 1, 1986, a general direction in the will that taxes shall not be apportioned, whether or not referring to this Article, but shall be paid from the residuary portion of the estate shall not, unless specifically stated otherwise, apply to taxes imposed on assets which are includible in the valuation of the decedent's gross estate for federal estate tax purposes only by reason of Sections 2041, 2042 or 2044 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 or corresponding provisions of any subsequent tax law. In the case of an estate administered under any will executed on or after October 1, 1986, in the event that the estate tax computation involves assets described in the preceding sentence, unless specifically stated otherwise, apportionment shall be made against such assets and the tax so apportioned shall be recovered from the persons receiving such assets as provided in Sections 2206, 2207 or 2207A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 or corresponding provisions of any subsequent tax law.

"§ 28A-27-3. Procedure for determining apportionment.

(a) The personal representative of a decedent shall determine the apportionment of the tax.

(b) If the personal representative finds that it is inequitable to apportion interest and penalties in the manner provided in this Article because such interest or penalties were imposed due to the fault of one or more persons interested in the ~~estate he~~ estate, the personal representative may direct apportionment thereon in the manner ~~he~~ the personal representative finds equitable.

(c) The expenses reasonably incurred by the personal representative in connection with the apportionment of the tax shall be apportioned as provided for taxes under this Article. If the personal representative finds that it is inequitable to apportion the expenses because such expenses were incurred because of the fault of one or more persons interested in the ~~estate he~~ estate, the personal representative may direct other more equitable apportionment.

"§ 28A-27-4. Uncollected tax.

The personal representative shall not be under any duty to institute any suit or proceeding to recover from any person interested in the estate the amount of the tax apportioned to the person until the expiration of the six months next following final determination of the tax. A personal representative who institutes the suit or proceeding within a reasonable time after the six months' period shall not be subject to any liability or surcharge because any portion of the tax apportioned to any person interested in the estate was collectable at a time following the death of the decedent but thereafter became uncollectable. If the personal representative cannot collect from any person interested in the estate the amount of the tax apportioned to the person, the amount not recoverable shall be apportioned among the other persons interested in the estate who are subject to apportionment. The apportionment shall be made in the proportion that the value of the interest of each remaining person interested in the estate bears to the total value of the interests of all remaining persons interested in the estate.

"§ 28A-27-5. Exemptions, deductions, and credits.

(a) Any interest for which a deduction or exemption is allowed under the federal revenue laws in determining the value of the decedent's net taxable estate, such as property passing to or in trust for a surviving spouse and gifts or bequests for charitable, public, or similar purposes, shall not be included in the computation provided for in G.S. 28A-27-2 to the extent of the allowable deduction or exemption. When such an interest is subject to a prior present interest which is not allowable as a deduction or exemption, such present interest shall not be included in the computation provided for in this Article and no tax shall be apportioned to or paid from principal.

(b) Any credit for property previously taxed and any credit for gift taxes or death taxes of a foreign country paid by the decedent or ~~his~~ the decedent's estate shall inure to the proportionate benefit of all persons liable to apportionment; provided, however, that if the tax which gives rise to such a credit has in fact been paid by a person interested in the estate, the benefit of such credit shall inure to that person paying the tax.

(c) Any credit for inheritance, succession, or estate taxes or taxes in the nature thereof in respect to property or interests includible in the estate shall inure to the benefit of the persons or interests chargeable with the payment thereof to the extent that, or in the proportion that, the credit reduces the tax.

(d) To the extent that property passing to or in trust for a surviving spouse or any charitable, public, or similar gift or bequest does not constitute an allowed deduction for purposes of the tax solely by reason of an inheritance tax or other death tax imposed upon and deductible from the property, the property shall not be included in the computation provided for in this Article, and to that extent no apportionment shall be made against the property. This section does not apply in any instance where the result will be to deprive the estate of a deduction otherwise allowable under Section 2053(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 of the United States or corresponding provisions of any subsequent tax law, relating to deduction for State death taxes on transfers for public, charitable, or religious uses.

"§ 28A-27-6. No apportionment between temporary and remainder interests.

No interest in income and no estate for years or for life or other temporary interest in any property or fund is subject to apportionment as between the temporary interest and the remainder. The tax on the temporary interest and the tax, if any, on the remainder is chargeable against the corpus of the property or funds subject to the temporary interest and remainder.

"§ 28A-27-7. Fiduciary's rights and duties.

(a) The personal representative may withhold from any property of the decedent in ~~his~~ the personal representative's possession, distributable to any person interested in the estate, the amount of the tax apportioned to ~~his~~ the person's interest. If the property in possession of the personal representative and distributable to any person interested in the estate tax is insufficient to satisfy the proportionate amount of the tax determined to be due from the person, the personal representative may recover the deficiency from the person interested in the estate. If the property is not in the possession of the personal ~~representative he~~ representative, the personal representative may recover from any person interested in the estate the amount of the tax apportioned to the person in accordance with this Article.

(b) If property held by the fiduciary or other person is distributed prior to final apportionment of the tax, the personal representative may require the distributee to provide a bond or other security for the apportionment liability in the form and amount prescribed by the fiduciary, with the approval of the clerk of superior court having jurisdiction of the administration of the estate.

"§ 28A-27-8. Difference with Federal Estate Tax Law.

If the liabilities of persons interested in the estate as prescribed by this Article differ from those which result under the Federal Estate Tax Law, the liabilities imposed by the federal law will control and the balance of this Article shall apply as if the resulting liabilities had been prescribed herein.

"§ 28A-27-9. Effective date.

The provisions of this Article shall not apply to taxes due on account of the death of decedents dying prior to October 1, 1986.

"Article 28.

"Summary Administration.

"§ 28A-28-1. Summary administration where spouse is sole beneficiary.

When a decedent dies testate or intestate leaving a surviving spouse as the sole devisee or heir, the surviving spouse may file a petition for summary administration with the clerk of superior court of the county where the decedent was domiciled at the time of death. This procedure is available if the decedent died partially testate, provided that the surviving spouse is the sole devisee under the will and the sole heir of the decedent's intestate property. This procedure is not available if the decedent's will provides that it is not available or if the devise to the surviving spouse is in trust rather than outright.

"§ 28A-28-2. Petition.

(a) The petition shall be signed by the surviving spouse and verified to be accurate and complete to the best of the spouse's knowledge and belief and shall state as follows:

(1) The name and address of the spouse and the fact that ~~he or she~~ the spouse is the surviving spouse of the decedent;

(2) The name and domicile of the decedent at the time of death;

(3) The date and place of death of the decedent;

(4) The date and place of marriage of the spouse and the decedent;

(5) A description sufficient to identify each tract of real property owned in whole or in part by the decedent at the time of death;

(6) A description of the nature of the decedent's personal property and the location of such property, as far as these facts are known or can with reasonable diligence be ascertained;

(7) The probable value of the decedent's personal property, so far as the value is known or can with reasonable diligence be ascertained;

(9) That the spouse is the sole devisee or sole heir, or both, of the decedent, and that there is no other devisee or heir; that the decedent's will, if any, does not prohibit summary administration; and that any property passing to the spouse under the will is not in trust;

(10) The name and address of any executor or coexecutor named by the will and that, if the decedent died testate, a copy of the petition has been personally delivered or sent by first-class mail by the spouse to the last-known address of any executor or coexecutor named by the will, if different from the spouse;

(11) That, to the extent of the value of the property received by the spouse under the will of the decedent or by intestate succession, the spouse assumes all liabilities of the decedent that were not discharged by reason of death and assumes liability for all taxes and valid claims against the decedent or the estate, as provided in G.S. 28A-28-6; and

(12) If the decedent died testate, that the decedent's will has been admitted to probate in the court of the proper county; that a duly certified copy of the will has been recorded in each county in which is located any real property owned by the decedent at the time of death; and that a certified copy of the decedent's will is attached to the petition.

(b) The petition shall be filed by the clerk upon payment of the fee provided in G.S. 7A-307 and shall be indexed in the index to estates.

"§ 28A-28-3. Clerk's order.

If it appears to the clerk that the petition and supporting evidence, if any, comply with the requirements of G.S. 28A-28-2 and on the basis thereof the spouse is entitled to summary administration, the clerk shall enter an order to that effect and no further administration of the estate is necessary. Nothing in this section shall preclude a petition under the provisions of G.S. 28A-28-7(a) or the appointment of a personal representative or a collector under the provisions of Article 6 or Article 11 of this Chapter.

"§ 28A-28-4. Effect of order.

(a) The presentation of a certified copy of the order described in G.S. 28A-28-3 shall be sufficient to require the transfer to the spouse of any property or contract right owned by the decedent at the time of death, including but not limited to: (i) wages and salary; (ii) the title and license to a motor vehicle registered in the name of the decedent owner; (iii) the ownership rights of a savings account, checking account, or certificate of deposit in a bank in the name of the decedent owner; (iv) the ownership rights of a savings account, share certificate, or certificate of deposit in a credit union, building and loan association, or savings and loan association in the name of the decedent owner; and (v) the ownership rights in any stock or security registered on the books of a corporation in the name of the decedent owner.

(b) After the entry of the order described in G.S. 28A-28-3, the spouse may convey, lease, sell, or mortgage any real property devised to or inherited by the spouse from the decedent, at public or private sale, upon such terms as the spouse may determine. This section shall not limit any other powers the spouse may have over property devised to or inherited by the spouse from the decedent. The provisions of G.S. 28A-17-12 are not applicable to a conveyance, sale, lease, or mortgage under this subsection.

"§ 28A-28-5. Effect of payment.

The person paying, delivering, transferring, or issuing property or the evidence thereof pursuant to the order described in G.S. 28A-28-3 is discharged and released to the same extent as if the person dealt with a duly qualified personal representative of the decedent. The person is not required to see to the application of the property or evidence thereof or to inquire into the truth of any statement in the petition or order.

If any person to whom the order is presented refuses to pay, deliver, transfer, or issue any property or evidence thereof, the property may be recovered or its payment, delivery, transfer, or issuance may be compelled in an action brought for that purpose by the surviving spouse. The court costs and attorney's fee incident to the action shall be taxed against the person whose refusal to comply with the provisions of G.S. 28A-28-4 made the action necessary.

"§ 28A-28-6. Spouse's assumption of liabilities.

If the clerk grants the order for summary administration, the spouse shall be deemed to have assumed, to the extent of the value of the property received by the spouse under the will of the decedent or by intestate succession, all liabilities of the decedent that were not discharged by reason of death and liability for all taxes and valid claims against the decedent or the estate. The value of the property is the fair market value of the property on the date of death of the decedent less any liens or encumbrances on the property so received. The spouse may assert any defense, counterclaim, cross-claim, or setoff which would have been available to the decedent if the decedent had not died except for actions listed in G.S. 28A-18-1(b). A spouse shall not be deemed to have assumed any liabilities of the decedent that were discharged by reason of death.

"§ 28A-28-7. Right to petition for appointment of personal representative; discharge of spouse's liability.

(a) Nothing in this Article shall preclude any person qualified to serve as personal representative pursuant to G.S. 28A-4-1, including the surviving spouse, from petitioning the clerk of superior court for the appointment of a personal representative or collector to administer the decedent's estate. If a personal representative or collector is appointed, the spouse shall render a proper accounting to the personal representative or collector and file a copy of the accounting with the clerk. The spouse shall deliver assets of the decedent's estate, cash, or other property and shall be discharged of liability in accordance with the provisions of subsection (b) of this section.

(b) In the event that a personal representative or collector is appointed, the spouse shall be discharged of liability for the debts of the decedent as follows:

(1) If the spouse delivers to the personal representative or collector all of the property received by the spouse in the identical form that it was received by the spouse, then the spouse will be discharged of all liability.

(2) If the spouse does not deliver to the personal representative or collector all of the property in the identical form that it was received by the spouse, then the spouse shall be discharged of liability as follows:

a. For property delivered to the personal representative or collector that is in the identical form that it was received by the spouse, the spouse is discharged to the extent of the fair market value of the property at the time of the decedent's death or the fair market value at the time the property was received by the personal representative or collector, whichever is greater.

b. For property delivered to the personal representative or collector that is not in the identical form that it was received by the spouse, the spouse is discharged to the extent of the fair market value of such property at the time it was delivered to the personal representative or collector.

"Article 29.

"Notice to Creditors Without Estate Administration.

"§ 28A-29-1. Notice to creditors without estate administration.

When a decedent dies testate or intestate leaving no property subject to probate, any person otherwise qualified to serve as personal representative of the estate pursuant to Article 4 of this Chapter or the trustee then serving under the terms of a revocable trust created by the decedent may file a petition to be appointed as a limited personal representative to provide notice to creditors without administration of an estate before the clerk of superior court of the county where the decedent was domiciled at the time of death. This procedure is not available if the decedent's will provides that it is not available. A limited personal representative shall have the rights and obligations provided for in this Article."

SECTION 5. Chapter 29 of the General Statutes reads as rewritten:

"Chapter 29.

"Intestate Succession.

"Article 1.

"General Provisions.

"§ 29-1. Short title.

This Chapter shall be known and may be cited as the Intestate Succession Act.

"§ 29-2. Definitions.

As used in this Chapter, unless the context otherwise requires, the term:

(1) "Advancement" means an irrevocable inter vivos gift of property, made by an intestate donor to any person who would be ~~his~~ the donor's heir or one of ~~his~~ the donor's heirs upon ~~his~~ the donor's death, and intended by the intestate donor to enable the donee to anticipate ~~his~~ the donee's inheritance to the extent of the gift; except that no gift to a spouse shall be considered an advancement unless so designated by the intestate donor in a writing signed by the donor at the time of the gift.

(2) "Estate" means all the property of a decedent, including but not limited to:

a. An estate for the life of another; and

b. All future interests in property not terminable by the death of the owner thereof, including all reversions, remainders, executory interests, rights of entry and possibilities of reverter, subject, however, to all limitations and conditions imposed upon such future interests.

(3) "Heir" means any person entitled to take real or personal property upon intestacy under the provisions of this Chapter.

(4) "Lineal descendants" of a person means all children of such person and successive generations of children of such children.

(5) "Net estate" means the estate of a decedent, exclusive of family allowances, costs of administration, and all lawful claims against the estate.

(6) "Share," when used to describe the share of a net estate or property which any person is entitled to take, includes both the fractional share of the personal property and the undivided fractional interest in the real property, which the person is entitled to take.

"§ 29-3. Certain distinctions as to intestate succession abolished.

In the determination of those persons who take upon intestate succession there is no distinction:

(1) Between real and personal property, or

(2) Between ancestral and nonancestral property, or

(3) Between relations of the whole blood and those of the half blood.

"§ 29-4. Curtesy and dower abolished.

The estates of curtesy and dower are hereby abolished.

"§ 29-5. Computation of next of kin.

Degrees of kinship shall be computed as provided in G.S. 104A-1.

"§ 29-6. Lineal succession unlimited.

There shall be no limitation on the right of succession by lineal descendants of an intestate.

"§ 29-7. Collateral succession limited.

There shall be no right of succession by collateral kin who are more than five degrees of kinship removed from an intestate; provided that if there is no collateral relative within the five degrees of kinship referred to herein, then collateral succession shall be unlimited to prevent any property from escheating.

"§ 29-8. Partial intestacy.

If part but not all of the estate of a decedent is validly disposed of by ~~his~~ the decedent's will, the part not disposed of by such will shall descend and be distributed as intestate property.

"§ 29-9. Inheritance by unborn infant.

Lineal descendants and other relatives of an intestate born within 10 lunar months after the death of the intestate, shall inherit as if they had been born in the lifetime of the intestate and had survived him.

"§ 29-10. Renunciation.

Renunciation of an intestate share shall be as provided for in Chapter 31B of the General Statutes.

"§ 29-11. Aliens.

Unless otherwise provided by law, it shall be no bar to intestate succession by any person, that ~~he,~~ the person, or any other person through whom ~~he~~ the person traces ~~his~~ the person's inheritance, is or has been an alien.

"§ 29-12. Escheats.

If there is no person entitled to take under G.S. 29-14 or G.S. 29-15, or if in case of an illegitimate intestate, there is no one entitled to take under G.S. 29-21 or G.S. 29-22 the net estate shall escheat as provided in G.S. 116B-2.

"§ 29-12.1. Controversies under this Chapter.

Any controversy arising under this Chapter shall be determined as an estate proceeding under Article 2 of Chapter 28A of the General Statutes, except that controversies arising under Article 8 of this Chapter shall be determined as set forth in that Chapter.

"Article 2.

"Shares of Persons Who Take upon Intestacy.

"§ 29-13. Descent and distribution upon intestacy; 120-hour survivorship requirement, revised simultaneous death act, Article 24, Chapter 28A.

(a) All the estate of a person dying intestate shall descend and be distributed, subject to the payment of costs of administration and other lawful claims against the estate, and subject to the payment of State inheritance or estate taxes, as provided in this Chapter.

(b) The determination of whether an heir has predeceased a person dying intestate shall be made as provided by Article 24 of Chapter 28A of the General Statutes.

"§ 29-14. Share of surviving spouse.

(a) Real Property. – The share of the surviving spouse in the real property is:

(1) If the intestate is survived by only one child or by any lineal descendant of only one deceased child, a one-half undivided interest in the real property;

(2) If the intestate is survived by two or more children, or by one child and any lineal descendant of one or more deceased children or by lineal descendants of two or more deceased children, a one-third undivided interest in the real property;

(3) If the intestate is not survived by a child, children or any lineal descendant of a deceased child or children, but is survived by one or more parents, a one-half undivided interest in the real property;

(4) If the intestate is not survived by a child, children or any lineal descendant of a deceased child or children, or by a parent, all the real property.

(b) Personal Property. – The share of the surviving spouse in the personal property is:

(2) If the intestate is survived by two or more children, or by one child and any lineal descendant of one or more deceased children, or by lineal descendants of two or more deceased children, and the net personal property does not exceed thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) in value, all of the personal property; if the net personal property exceeds thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) in value, the sum of thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) plus one third of the balance of the personal property;

(3) If the intestate is not survived by a child, children, or any lineal descendant of a deceased child or children, but is survived by one or more parents, and the net personal property does not exceed fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) in value, all of the personal property; if the net personal property exceeds fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) in value, the sum of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) plus one half of the balance of the personal property;

(4) If the intestate is not survived by a child, children, or any lineal descendant of a deceased child or children, or by a parent, all of the personal property.

(c) When an equitable distribution of property is awarded to the surviving spouse pursuant to G.S. 50-20 subsequent to the death of the decedent, the share of the surviving spouse determined under subsections (a) and (b) of this section shall be first determined as though no property had been awarded to the surviving spouse pursuant to G.S. 50-20 subsequent to the death of the decedent, and then reduced by the net value of the marital estate awarded to the surviving spouse pursuant to G.S. 50-20 subsequent to the death of the decedent.

"§ 29-15. Shares of others than surviving spouse.

Those persons surviving the intestate, other than the surviving spouse, shall take that share of the net estate not distributable to the surviving spouse, or the entire net estate if there is no surviving spouse, as follows:

(1) If the intestate is survived by only one child or by only one lineal descendant of only one deceased child, that person shall take the entire net estate or share, but if the intestate is survived by two or more lineal descendants of only one deceased child, they shall take as provided in G.S. 29-16; or

(2) If the intestate is survived by two or more children or by one child and any lineal descendant of one or more deceased children, or by lineal descendants of two or more deceased children, they shall take as provided in G.S. 29-16; or

(3) If the intestate is not survived by a child, children or any lineal descendant of a deceased child or children, but is survived by both parents, they shall take in equal shares, or if either parent is dead, the surviving parent shall take the entire share; or

(4) If the intestate is not survived by such children or lineal descendants or by a parent, the brothers and sisters of the intestate, and the lineal descendants of any deceased brothers or sisters, shall take as provided in G.S. 29-16; or

(5) If there is no one entitled to take under the preceding subdivisions of this section or under G.S. 29-14,

a. The paternal grandparents shall take one half of the net estate in equal shares, or, if either is dead, the survivor shall take the entire one half of the net estate, and if neither paternal grandparent survives, then the paternal uncles and aunts of the intestate and the lineal descendants of deceased paternal uncles and aunts shall take said one half as provided in G.S. 29-16; and

b. The maternal grandparents shall take the other one half in equal shares, or if either is dead, the survivor shall take the entire one half of the net estate, and if neither maternal grandparent survives, then the maternal uncles and aunts of the intestate and the lineal descendants of deceased maternal uncles and aunts shall take one half as provided in G.S. 29-16; but

c. If there is no grandparent and no uncle or aunt, or lineal descendant of a deceased uncle or aunt, on the paternal side, then those of the maternal side who otherwise would be entitled to take one half as hereinbefore provided in this subdivision shall take the whole; or

d. If there is no grandparent and no uncle or aunt, or lineal descendant of a deceased uncle or aunt, on the maternal side, then those on the paternal side who otherwise would be entitled to take one half as hereinbefore provided in this subdivision shall take the whole.

"Article 3.

"Distribution among Classes.

"§ 29-16. Distribution among classes.

(a) Children and Their Lineal Descendants. – If the intestate is survived by lineal descendants, their respective shares in the property which they are entitled to take under G.S. 29-15 of this Chapter shall be determined in the following manner:

(1) Children. – To determine the share of each surviving child, divide the property by the number of surviving children plus the number of deceased children who have left lineal descendants surviving the intestate.

(2) Grandchildren. – To determine the share of each surviving grandchild by a deceased child of the intestate in the property not taken under the preceding subdivision of this subsection, divide that property by the number of such surviving grandchildren plus the number of deceased grandchildren who have left lineal descendants surviving the intestate.

(3) Great-Grandchildren. – To determine the share of each surviving great-grandchild by a deceased grandchild of the intestate in the property not taken under the preceding subdivisions of this subsection, divide that property by the number of such surviving great-grandchildren plus the number of deceased great-grandchildren who have left lineal descendants surviving the intestate.

(4) Great-Great-Grandchildren. – To determine the share of each surviving great-great-grandchild by a deceased great-grandchild of the intestate in the property not taken under the preceding subdivisions of this subsection, divide that property by the number of such surviving great-great-grandchildren plus the number of deceased great-great-grandchildren who have left lineal descendants surviving the intestate.

(5) Other Lineal Descendants of Children. – Divide, according to the formula established in the preceding subdivisions of this subsection, any property not taken under such preceding subdivisions, among the lineal descendants of the children of the intestate not already participating.

(b) Brothers and Sisters and Their Lineal Descendants. – If the intestate is survived by brothers and sisters or the lineal descendants of deceased brothers and sisters, their respective shares in the property which they are entitled to take under G.S. 29-15 of this Chapter shall be determined in the following manner:

(1) Brothers and Sisters. – To determine the share of each surviving brother and sister, divide the property by the number of surviving brothers and sisters plus the number of deceased brothers and sisters who have left lineal descendants surviving the intestate within the fifth degree of kinship to the intestate.

(2) Nephews and Nieces. – To determine the share of each surviving nephew or niece by a deceased brother or sister of the intestate in the property not taken under the preceding subdivision of this subsection, divide that property by the number of such surviving nephews or nieces plus the number of deceased nephews and nieces who have left lineal descendants surviving the intestate within the fifth degree of kinship to the intestate.

(3) Grandnephews and Grandnieces. – To determine the share of each surviving grandnephew or grandniece by a deceased nephew or niece of the intestate in the property not taken under the preceding subdivisions of this subsection, divide that property by the number of such surviving grandnephews and grandnieces plus the number of deceased grandnephews and grandnieces who have left children surviving the intestate.

(4) Great-Grandnephews and Great-Grandnieces. – To determine the share of each surviving child of a deceased grandnephew or grandniece of the intestate, divide equally among the great-grandnephews and great-grandnieces of the intestate any property not taken under the preceding subdivisions of this subsection.

(5) Grandparents and Others. – If there is no one within the fifth degree of kinship to the intestate entitled to take the property under the preceding subdivisions of this subsection, then the intestate's property shall go to those entitled to take under G.S. 29-15(5).

(c) Uncles and Aunts and Their Lineal Descendants. – If the intestate is survived by uncles and aunts or the lineal descendants of deceased uncles and aunts, their respective shares in the property which they are entitled to take under G.S. 29-15 shall be determined in the following manner:

(1) Uncles and Aunts. – To determine the share of each surviving uncle and aunt, divide the property by the number of surviving uncles and aunts plus the number of deceased uncles and aunts who have left children or grandchildren surviving the intestate.

(2) Children of Uncles and Aunts. – To determine the share of each surviving child of a deceased uncle or aunt of the intestate in the property not taken under the preceding subdivision of this subsection, divide that property by the number of surviving children of deceased uncles and aunts plus the number of deceased children of deceased uncles and aunts who have left children surviving the intestate.

(3) Grandchildren of Uncles and Aunts. – To determine the share of each surviving child of a deceased child of a deceased uncle or aunt of the intestate, divide equally among the grandchildren of uncles or aunts of the intestate any property not taken under the preceding subdivisions of this subsection.

"Article 4.

"Adopted Children.

"§ 29-17. Succession by, through and from adopted children.

(a) A child, adopted in accordance with Chapter 48 of the General Statutes or in accordance with the applicable law of any other jurisdiction, and the heirs of such child, are entitled by succession to any property by, through and from ~~his~~ the child's adoptive parents and their heirs the same as if ~~he~~the child were the natural legitimate child of the adoptive parents.

(b) An adopted child is not entitled by succession to any property, by, through, or from ~~his~~ the child's natural parents or their heirs, except as provided in subsection (e) of this section.

(c) The adoptive parents and the heirs of the adoptive parents are entitled by succession to any property, by, through and from an adopted child the same as if the adopted child were the natural legitimate child of the adoptive parents.

(d) The natural parents and the heirs of the natural parents are not entitled by succession to any property, by, through or from an adopted child, except as provided in subsection (e) of this section.

(e) If a natural parent has previously married, is married to, or shall marry an adoptive parent, the adopted child is considered the child of such natural parent for all purposes of intestate succession.

"Article 5.

"Legitimated Children.

"§ 29-18. Succession by, through and from legitimated children.

A child born an illegitimate who shall have been legitimated in accordance with G.S. 49-10 or 49-12 or in accordance with the applicable law of any other jurisdiction, and the heirs of such child, are entitled by succession to property by, through and from ~~his~~ the child's father and mother and their heirs the same as if born in lawful wedlock; and if ~~he~~ the child dies intestate, ~~his~~ the child's property shall descend and be distributed as if ~~he~~ the child had been born in lawful wedlock.

"Article 6.

"Illegitimate Children.

"§ 29-19. Succession by, through and from illegitimate children.

(a) For purposes of intestate succession, an illegitimate child shall be treated as if ~~he~~ that child were the legitimate child of ~~his~~ the child's mother, so that ~~he~~ the child and ~~his~~ the child's lineal descendants are entitled to take by, through and from ~~his~~ the child's mother and ~~his~~ the child's other maternal kindred, both descendants and collaterals, and they are entitled to take from ~~him.~~ the child.

(b) For purposes of intestate succession, an illegitimate child shall be entitled to take by, through and from:

(1) Any person who has been finally adjudged to be the father of such child pursuant to the provisions of G.S. 49-1 through 49-9 or the provisions of G.S. 49-14 through 49-16;

(2) Any person who has acknowledged himself during his own lifetime and the child's lifetime to be the father of such child in a written instrument executed or acknowledged before a certifying officer named in G.S. 52-10(b) and filed during his own lifetime and the child's lifetime in the office of the clerk of superior court of the county where either he or the child resides.

Notwithstanding the above provisions, no person shall be entitled to take hereunder unless ~~he~~ the person has given written notice of the basis of ~~his~~ the person's claim to the personal representative of the putative father within six months after the date of the first publication or posting of the general notice to creditors.

(c) Any person described under subdivision (b)(1) or (2) above and ~~his~~ the person's lineal and collateral kin shall be entitled to inherit by, through and from the illegitimate child.

(d) Any person who acknowledges ~~himself to be~~ that he is the father of an illegitimate child in his duly probated last will shall be deemed to have intended that such child be treated as expressly provided for in said will or, in the absence of any express provision, the same as a legitimate child.

"§ 29-20. Descent and distribution upon intestacy of illegitimate children.

All the estate of a person dying illegitimate and intestate shall descend and be distributed, subject to the payment of costs of administration and other lawful claims against the estate, and subject to the payment of State inheritance or estate taxes, as provided in this Article.

"§ 29-21. Share of surviving spouse.

The share of the surviving spouse of an illegitimate intestate shall be the same as provided in G.S. 29-14 for the surviving spouse of a legitimate person. In determining whether the illegitimate intestate is survived by one or more parents as provided in G.S. 29-14(3), any person identified as the father under G.S. 29-19(b)(1) or (b)(2) shall be regarded as a parent.

"§ 29-22. Shares of others than the surviving spouse.

Those persons surviving the illegitimate intestate, other than the surviving spouse, shall take that share of the net estate provided in G.S. 29-15. In determining whether the illegitimate intestate is survived by one or more parents or their collateral kindred as provided in G.S. 29-15, any person identified as the father under G.S. 29-19(b)(1) or (b)(2) shall be regarded as a parent.

"Article 7.

"Advancements.

"§ 29-23. In general.

If a person dies intestate as to all ~~his~~ the person's estate, property which ~~he~~ the person gave in his lifetime as an advancement shall be counted toward the advancee's intestate share, and to the extent that it does not exceed such intestate share, shall be taken into account in computing the estate to be distributed.

"§ 29-24. Presumption of gift.

A gratuitous inter vivos transfer is presumed to be an absolute gift and not an advancement unless shown to be an advancement.

"§ 29-25. Effect of advancement.

If the amount of the advancement equals or exceeds the intestate share of the ~~advance, he~~ advancee, the advancee he shall be excluded from any further portion in the distribution of the estate, but ~~he~~ the advancee shall not be required to refund any part of such advancement; and if the amount of the advancement is less than ~~his~~ the advancee's share, ~~he~~ the advancee shall be entitled to such additional amount as will give ~~him his~~ the advancee the advancee's full share of the intestate donor's estate.

"§ 29-26. Valuation.

The value of the property given as an advancement shall be determined as of the time when the advancee came into possession or enjoyment, or at the time of the death of the intestate, whichever first occurs. However, if the value of the property, so advanced, is stated by the intestate donor in a writing signed by ~~him~~ the intestate donor and designating the gift as an advancement, such value shall be deemed the value of the advancement.

"§ 29-27. Death of advancee before intestate donor.

If the advancee dies before the intestate donor leaving a lineal heir or heirs who take by intestate succession from the intestate donor, the advancement shall be taken into account in the same manner as if it had been made directly to such heir or heirs, but the value shall be determined as of the time the original advancee came into possession or enjoyment, or when the heir or heirs came into possession or enjoyment or at the time of the death of the intestate donor, whichever first occurs.

"§ 29-28. Inventory.

If any person who has, in the lifetime of an intestate donor, received a part of the donor's property, refuses, upon order of the clerk of superior court of the county in which the administrator or collector qualifies, to give an inventory on oath, setting forth therein to the best of ~~his~~ the person's knowledge and belief the particulars of the transfer of such property, ~~he~~ the person shall be considered to have received ~~his~~ the person's full share of the donor's estate, and shall not be entitled to receive any further part or share.

"§ 29-29. Release by advancee.

If the advancee acknowledges to the intestate donor by a signed writing that ~~he~~ the advancee has been advanced ~~his~~ the advancee's full share of the intestate donor's estate, both ~~he~~ the advancee and those claiming through ~~him~~ the advancee shall be excluded from any further participation in the intestate donor's estate.

"Article 8.

"Election to Take Life Interest in Lieu of Intestate Share.

"§ 29-30. Election of surviving spouse to take life interest in lieu of intestate share provided.

(a) In lieu of the intestate share provided in G.S. 29-14 or G.S. 29-21, or of the elective share provided in G.S. 30-3.1, the surviving spouse of an intestate or the surviving spouse who has petitioned for an elective share shall be entitled to take as ~~his or her~~ the surviving spouse's intestate share or elective share a life estate in one third in value of all the real estate of which the deceased spouse was seised and possessed of an estate of inheritance at any time during coverture, except that real estate as to which the surviving spouse:

(1) Has waived ~~his or her~~ the surviving spouse's rights by joining with the other spouse in a conveyance thereof, or

(2) Has ~~release~~ released or quitclaimed ~~his or her~~ the surviving spouse's interest therein in accordance with G.S. 52-10, or

(3) Was not required by law to join in conveyance thereof in order to bar the elective life estate, or

(4) Is otherwise not legally entitled to the election provided in this section.

(b) ~~Regardless of the value thereof and despite the fact that a life estate therein might exceed the fractional limitation provided for in subsection (a), the life estate provided for in subsection (a) shall at the election of the surviving spouse include~~ The surviving spouse may elect to take a life estate in the usual dwelling house occupied by the surviving spouse at the time of the death of the deceased spouse if such dwelling house were owned by the deceased spouse at the time of ~~his or her~~ the deceased spouse's death, together with the outbuildings, improvements and easements thereunto belonging or appertaining, and lands upon which situated and reasonably necessary to the use and enjoyment thereof, as well as a fee simple ownership in the household furnishings ~~therein.~~ therein, despite the fact that a life estate therein might exceed the fractional limitation provided for in subsection (a) of this section. If the value of a life estate in the dwelling house is less than the value of a life estate in one-third in value of all the real estate, the surviving spouse may elect to take a life estate in the dwelling and a life estate in such other real estate as to make the aggregate life estate of the surviving spouse equal to a life estate in one-third in value of all the real estate.

(c) The election provided for in subsection (a) shall be made by the filing of a ~~notice thereof~~ petition in accordance with Article 2 of Chapter 28A of the General Statutes with the clerk of the superior court of the county in which the administration of the estate is pending, or, if no administration is pending, then with the clerk of the superior court of any county in which the administration of the estate could be commenced. ~~Such~~ The election shall be ~~made:~~made prior to the shorter of the following applicable periods:

(1) ~~At any time within~~ In case of testacy, (i) within 12 months of the date of death of the deceased spouse if letters testamentary are not issued within that period, or (ii) within one month after the expiration of the time ~~fixed~~ limit for ~~the~~ filing ~~of the petition~~ a claim for elective share ~~under Article 1A of Chapter 30, or~~ if letters have been issued.

(2) In case of intestacy, ~~then~~ (i) within 12 months after the date of death of the deceased spouse if letters of administration are not issued within that period, or

~~(3) If letters of administration are issued within 12 months after the date of the death of the deceased spouse, then~~ (ii) within one month after the expiration of the time ~~limited~~ limit for filing claims against the estate, ~~or~~ if letters have been issued.

(4) If litigation that affects the share of the surviving spouse in the estate is ~~pending,~~ pending, including a pending petition for determination of an elective share, then within such reasonable time as may be allowed by written order of the clerk of the superior court.

(5) Nothing in this subsection shall extend the period of time for a surviving spouse to petition for an elective share under Article 1A of Chapter 30 of the General Statutes.

(c1) The ~~notice of election~~ petition shall:

(1) Be directed to the clerk with whom filed;

(2) State that the surviving spouse making the same elects to take under this section rather than under the provisions of G.S. 29-14, 29-21, or 30-3.1, as applicable;

(3) Set forth the names of all heirs, devisees, legatees, personal representatives and all other persons in possession of or claiming an estate or an interest in the property described in subsection (a); and

(4) Request the allotment of the life estate provided for in subsection (a).

(c2) The ~~notice of election~~ petition may be filed in person, or by attorney authorized in a writing executed and duly acknowledged by the surviving spouse and attested by at least one witness. If the surviving spouse is a minor or an incompetent, the ~~notice of election~~ petition may be executed and filed by a general guardian or by the guardian of the person or estate of the minor or incompetent spouse. If the minor or incompetent spouse has no guardian, the ~~notice of election~~ petition may be executed and filed by a ~~next friend~~ guardian ad litem appointed by the clerk. The ~~notice of election,~~ petition, whether in person or by attorney, shall be filed as a record of the court, and a summons together with a copy of the ~~notice~~ petition shall be served upon each of the interested persons named in the ~~notice of election.~~petition, in accordance with G.S. 1A-1, Rule 4.

(d) In case of election to take a life estate in lieu of an intestate share or elective share, as provided in either G.S. 29-14, 29-21, or 30-3.3(a), the clerk of superior court, with whom the ~~notice of election~~ petition has been filed, shall summon and appoint a jury of three disinterested persons who being first duly sworn shall promptly allot and set apart to the surviving spouse the life estate provided for in subsection (a) and make a final report of such action to the clerk.

(e) The final report shall be filed by the jury not more than 60 days after the summoning and appointment thereof, shall be signed by all jurors, and shall describe by metes and bounds the real estate in which the surviving spouse shall have been allotted and set aside a life estate. It shall be filed as a record of court and a certified copy thereof shall be filed and recorded in the office of the register of deeds of each county in which any part of the real property of the deceased spouse, affected by the allotment, is located.

(f) In the election and procedure to have the life estate allotted and set apart provided for in this section, the rules of procedure relating to partition proceedings under Chapter 46 of the General Statutes shall apply except insofar as the same would be inconsistent with the provisions of this section. A determination of the life estate under this section may be appealed in accordance with G.S. 1-301.3.

(g) Neither the household furnishings in the dwelling house nor the life estates taken by election under this section shall be subject to the payment of debts due from the estate of the deceased spouse, except those debts secured by such property as follows:

(1) By a mortgage or deed of trust in which the surviving spouse has waived ~~his or her~~ the surviving spouse's rights by joining with the other spouse in the making thereof; or

(2) By a purchase money mortgage or deed of trust, or by a conditional sales contract of personal property in which title is retained by the vendor, made prior to or during the marriage; or

(3) By a mortgage or deed of trust made prior to the marriage; or

(4) By a mortgage or deed of trust constituting a lien on the property at the time of its acquisition by the deceased spouse either before or during the marriage.

(h) If no election is made in the manner and within the time provided for in subsection (c) the surviving spouse shall be conclusively deemed to have waived ~~his or her~~ the surviving spouse's right to elect to take under the provisions of this section, and any interest which the surviving spouse may have had in the real estate of the deceased spouse by virtue of this section shall terminate."

SECTION 6. G.S. 30-3.4 reads as rewritten:

"§ 30-3.4. Procedure for determining the elective share.

(a) Exercisable Only During Lifetime. – The right of the surviving spouse to file a claim for an elective share must be exercised during the lifetime of the surviving spouse, by the surviving spouse, by the surviving spouse's attorney-in-fact if the surviving spouse's power of attorney expressly authorizes the attorney-in-fact to do so or to generally engage in estate transactions, or, with approval of court, by the guardian of the surviving spouse's estate or general guardian. If a surviving spouse dies before the claim for an elective share has been settled, the surviving spouse's personal representative shall succeed to the surviving spouse's rights to an elective share.

(b) Time Limitations. – A claim for an elective share must be made within six months after the issuance of letters testamentary or letters of administration in connection with the will or intestate proceeding with respect to which the surviving spouse claims the elective share by (i) filing a petition with the clerk of superior court of the county in which the primary administration of the decedent's estate lies, and (ii) mailing or delivering a copy of that petition to the personal representative of the decedent's estate. A surviving spouse's incapacity shall not toll the six-month period of limitations.

~~(c) Time for Hearing. – Unless waived by the personal representative and the surviving spouse, the clerk shall set the matter for hearing no earlier than two months and no later than six months after the filing of the petition. However, the clerk may extend the time of hearing as the clerk sees fit. The surviving spouse shall give notice of the hearing to the personal representative, and to any person described in G.S. 30-3.5 who may be required to contribute toward the satisfaction of the elective share.~~

(d) Repealed by Session Laws 2009, c. 368, s. 1, effective July 27, 2009, and applicable to decedents dying on or after October 1 , 2009.

(d1) Mediation. – The clerk may order mediation as described in G.S. 7A-38.3B of any disputes in connection with an elective share proceeding.

(e) Repealed by Session Laws 2009, c. 368, s. 1, effective July 27, 2009, and applicable to decedents dying on or after October 1 , 2009.

(e1) Procedure. – An elective share proceeding shall be an estate ~~matter and may be appealed pursuant to G.S. 1-301.3.~~ proceeding and shall be conducted in accordance with the procedures of Article 2 of Chapter 28A of the General Statutes.

(e2) Information About Total Net Assets. – In order to assist the clerk in determining whether a surviving spouse is entitled to an elective share, and, if so, the amount thereof, the following provisions apply:

(1) Submission within two months. – In every case in which a petition to determine an elective share has been filed, within two months of the filing of the petition, the personal representative shall submit sufficient information about the total assets for the clerk to determine the elective share. To fulfill its obligation to provide information, the personal representative may prepare and submit to the clerk a proposed Form 706, United States Estate (and Generation-Skipping Transfer) Tax Return, for the estate, regardless of whether that form is required to be filed with the Internal Revenue Service. The clerk may extend the time for submission of the proposed Form 706 or other information as the clerk sees fit.

(2) Examination regarding assets. – If the personal representative, the surviving spouse, or a responsible person has reasonable grounds to believe that any person has a claim or has in its possession assets included in Total Net Assets, then the personal representative, surviving spouse, or responsible person may use the procedures set out in G.S. 28A-15-12 to cause the clerk to examine the person believed to have a claim or to possess assets included in Total Net Assets.

(f) Findings and Conclusions. – After notice and hearing, the clerk shall determine whether or not the surviving spouse is entitled to an elective share, and if so, the clerk shall then determine the elective share and shall order the personal representative to transfer that amount to the surviving spouse. The clerk's order shall recite specific findings of fact and conclusions of law in arriving at the decedent's Total Net Assets, Property Passing to Surviving Spouse, and the elective share.

(g) Repealed by Session Laws 2009, c. 368, s. 1, effective July 27, 2009, and applicable to decedents dying on or after October 1, 2009.

(h) Expenses. – The expenses (including attorneys' fees) reasonably incurred by the personal representative, other responsible persons, and the surviving spouse in connection with elective share proceedings shall be equitably apportioned by the clerk of court in the clerk's discretion among the personal representative, other responsible persons, and the surviving spouse."

SECTION 7. Article 4 of Chapter 30 of the General Statutes reads as rewritten:

"Article 4.

"Year's Allowance.

"Part 1. Nature of Allowance.

"§ 30-15. When spouse entitled to allowance.

Every surviving spouse of an intestate or of a testator, whether or not ~~he or she~~ the surviving spouse has petitioned for an elective share, shall, unless the surviving spouse has forfeited ~~his or her~~ the surviving spouse's right thereto, as provided by law, be entitled, out of the personal property of the deceased spouse, to an allowance of the value of twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) for the surviving spouse's support for one year after the death of the deceased spouse. Such allowance shall be exempt from any lien, by judgment or execution, acquired against the property of the deceased spouse, and shall, in cases of testacy, be charged against the share of the surviving spouse.

"§ 30-16. Duty of personal representative, magistrate, or clerk to assign allowance.

It shall be the duty of every administrator, collector, or executor of a will, on application in writing, signed by the surviving spouse, at any time within one year after the death of the deceased spouse, to assign to the surviving spouse the year's allowance as provided in this Article.

If there shall be no administration, or if the personal representative shall fail or refuse to apply to a magistrate or clerk of court, as provided in G.S. 30-20, for 10 days after the surviving spouse has filed the aforesaid application, or if the surviving spouse is the personal representative, the surviving spouse may make application to the magistrate or clerk, and it shall be the duty of the magistrate or clerk to proceed in the same manner as though the application had been made by the personal representative.

Where any personal property of the deceased spouse shall be located outside the township or county where the deceased spouse resided at the time of ~~his~~ the deceased spouse's death, the personal representative or the surviving spouse may apply to any magistrate or to any clerk of court of any township or county where such personal property is located, and it shall be the duty of such magistrate or clerk to assign the year's allowance as if the deceased spouse had resided and died in that township.

"§ 30-17. When children entitled to an allowance.

Whenever any parent dies survived by any child under the age of 18 years, including an adopted child or a child with whom the widow may be pregnant at the death of her husband, or a child who is less than 22 years of age and is a full-time student in any educational institution, or a child under 21 years of age who has been declared mentally incompetent, or a child under 21 years of age who is totally disabled, or any other person under the age of 18 years residing with the deceased parent at the time of death to whom the deceased parent or the surviving parent stood in loco parentis, every such child shall be entitled to receive an allowance of two thousand dollars ($2,000) for the child's support for the year next ensuing the death of such parent. Such allowance shall be in addition to the child's share of the deceased parent's estate and shall be exempt from any lien by judgment or execution against the property of such parent. The personal representative of the deceased parent shall, within one year after the parent's death, assign to every such child the allowance herein provided for; but if there is no personal representative or if ~~he~~ the personal representative fails or refuses to act within 10 days after written request by a guardian ~~or next friend~~ on behalf of such child, the allowance may be assigned by a magistrate or clerk of court upon application of said ~~guardian or next friend.~~ guardian.

If the child resides with the widow of the deceased parent at the time such allowance is paid, the allowance shall be paid to said widow for the benefit of said child. If the child resides with its surviving parent who is other than the widow of the deceased parent, such allowance shall be paid to said surviving parent for the use and benefit of such child, regardless of whether the deceased died testate or intestate or whether the widow dissented from the will. Provided, however, the allowance shall not be available to an illegitimate child of a deceased father, unless such deceased father shall have recognized the paternity of such illegitimate child by deed, will or other paper-writing. If the child does not reside with a parent when the allowance is paid, the allowance shall be paid to the child's general guardian, if any, and if none, to the clerk of the superior court who shall receive and disburse same for the benefit of such child.

"§ 30-18. From what property allowance assigned.

Such allowance shall be made in money or other personal property of the estate of the deceased spouse.

"Part 2. Assigned by Magistrate or Clerk.

"§ 30-19. Value of property ascertained.

The value of the personal property assigned to the surviving spouse and children shall be ascertained by a magistrate or the clerk of court of the county in which administration was granted or the will probated.

"§ 30-20. Procedure for assignment.

Upon the application of the surviving spouse, a child by ~~his guardian or next friend,~~ the child's guardian, or the personal representative of the deceased, the clerk of superior court of the county in which the deceased resided may assign the inquiry to a magistrate of the county. The clerk of court, or magistrate upon assignment, shall ascertain the person or persons entitled to an allowance according to the provisions of this Article, and determine the money or other personal property of the estate, and pay over to or assign to the surviving spouse and to the children, if any, so much thereof as they shall be entitled to as provided in this Article. Any deficiencies shall be made up from any of the personal property of the deceased, and if the personal property of the estate shall be insufficient to satisfy such allowance, the clerk of the superior court shall enter judgment against the personal representative for the amount of such deficiency, to be paid when a sufficiency of such assets shall come into ~~his hands.~~ the personal representative's hands.

"§ 30-21. Report of clerk or magistrate.

The clerk of court, or magistrate upon assignment, shall make and sign three lists of the money or other personal property assigned to each person, stating their quantity and value, and the deficiency to be paid by the personal representative. Where the allowance is to the surviving spouse, one of these lists shall be delivered to ~~him.~~ the surviving spouse. Where the allowance is to a child, one of these lists shall be delivered to the surviving parent with whom the child is living; or to the child's guardian ~~or next friend~~ if the child is not living with said surviving parent; or to the child if said child is not living with the surviving parent and has no ~~guardian or next friend.~~ guardian. One list shall be delivered to the personal representative. One list shall be returned by the magistrate or clerk, within 20 days after the assignment, to the superior court of the county in which administration was granted or the will probated, and the clerk shall file and record the same, together with any judgment entered pursuant to G.S. 30-20.

"§ 30-22. Repealed by Session Laws 1971, c. 528, s. 25.

"§ 30-23. Right of appeal.

The personal representative, or the surviving spouse, or child by ~~his guardian or next friend,~~ the child's guardian, or any creditor, legatee or heir of the deceased, may appeal from the finding of the magistrate or clerk of court to the superior court of the county, ~~and,~~ by filing a copy of the assignment and a notice of appeal within 10 days after the assignment, ~~cite the adverse party to appear before such court on a certain day, not less than five nor exceeding 10 days after the service of the citation.~~ and the appeal shall be heard as provided in G.S. 1-301.2, provided that the hearing on the appeal shall be at the next available session of superior court.

~~At or before the day named, the appellant shall file with the clerk a copy of the assignment and a statement of his exceptions thereto, and the issues thereby raised shall be decided de novo.~~

"§ 30-25. Personal representative entitled to credit.

Upon the settlement of the accounts of the personal representative, ~~he~~ the personal representative shall be credited with the articles assigned, and the value of the deficiency assessed as aforesaid, if the same shall have been paid, unless the allowance be impeached for fraud or gross negligence in him.

~~"§ 30-26. When above allowance is in full.~~

~~If the estate of a deceased be insolvent, or if his or her personal estate does not exceed twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), the allowances for the year's support of the surviving spouse and the children shall not, in any case, exceed the value prescribed in G.S. 30-15 and G.S. 30-17; and the allowances made to them as above prescribed shall preclude them from any further allowances.~~

"Part 3. Assigned in Superior Court.

"§ 30-27. Surviving spouse or child may apply to superior court.

~~It shall not, however, be obligatory on a~~ In addition to any support assigned to the surviving spouse or child ~~to have the support assigned~~ as above ~~prescribed. Without~~ prescribed, without application to the personal representative, the surviving spouse, or the child through ~~his~~ the child's guardian ~~or next friend, may at any time~~ may, after the date specified in the general notice to creditors as provided for in G.S. 28A-14-1(a), and within one year after the decedent's death, apply to the superior court of the county in which administration was granted or the will probated to have a year's support ~~assigned.~~ assigned at an amount other than prescribed in G.S. 30-15 and G.S. 30-17.

"§ 30-28. Nature of proceeding; parties.

The application shall be by ~~summons, as is prescribed for special proceedings, in which the~~ petition in a special proceeding before the clerk of superior court. The personal representative of the deceased, if there ~~be~~ is one other than the ~~plaintiff, the largest known creditor, or legatee, or some distributee of the deceased, living in the county, shall be made defendant, and the proceedings shall be as prescribed for special proceedings between parties.~~ petitioner, all known creditors, and all known heirs of the deceased, if the deceased is intestate, and devisees of the deceased, if the deceased is testate, shall be made parties to the special proceeding. If the personal representative of the deceased is aware of a creditor, heir, or devisee who should have been made a respondent but was not, then the personal representative shall file a motion to add the creditor, heir, or devisee as a necessary party, and the court shall order such other party to appear in the proceeding.

"§ 30-29. What ~~complaint~~ petition must show.

In the ~~complaint~~ petition the ~~plaintiff~~ petitioner shall set forth, besides the facts entitling ~~plaintiff~~ petitioner to a year's support and the value of the support claimed, the further facts that the ~~estate of the decedent is not insolvent, and that the~~ personal estate of which ~~he or she~~ the decedent died possessed exceeded twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), and also whether or not an allowance has been made to ~~plaintiff~~ petitioner and the nature and value thereof.

"§ 30-30. Judgment and order for commissioners.

~~If the material allegations of the complaint be found true, the judgment shall be that plaintiff is entitled to the relief sought; and the court shall thereupon issue an order to the sheriff or other proper officer of the county, commanding him to summon a magistrate and two persons qualified to act as jurors, who~~ The clerk of superior court shall hear the matter and determine whether the petitioner is entitled to some or all of the relief sought and, if the clerk determines that the petitioner is so entitled, the clerk shall determine the money or other personal property of the estate and assign to the ~~plaintiff~~ petitioner a sufficiency thereof for ~~plaintiff's~~ petitioner's support for one year from the decedent's death. Any deficiency shall be made up from any of the personal property of the deceased, and if the personal property of the estate shall be insufficient for such support, the clerk of ~~the~~ superior court shall enter judgment against the personal representative for the amount of such deficiency, to be paid when a sufficiency of such assets shall come into ~~his~~ the personal representative's hands. Any judgment so rendered shall have the same priority over other debts and claims against the estate as an allowance assigned pursuant to G.S. 30-15 or G.S. 30-17.

"§ 30-31. ~~Duty of commissioners; amount~~ Amount of allowance.

~~The said commissioners shall be sworn by the magistrate and shall proceed as prescribed in this Chapter, except that they~~ The clerk of superior court may assign to the ~~plaintiff~~ petitioner a value sufficient for the support of ~~plaintiff~~ petitioner according to the estate and condition of the decedent and without regard to the limitations set forth in this Chapter; but the value allowed shall be fixed with due consideration for other persons entitled to allowances for year's support from the decedent's estate; and the total value of all allowances shall not in any case exceed the one half of the average annual net income of the deceased for three years next preceding ~~his~~ the deceased's death. This report shall be returned by the magistrate to the court.

"§ 30-31.1. Service of judgment and appeal.

The petitioner shall serve the clerk's judgment on all other parties. The judgment also shall be filed in the estate file of the deceased. Any aggrieved party may appeal the judgment in accordance with G.S. 1-301.2.

"§ 30-31.2. Execution.

If the clerk's judgment is not appealed as provided in G.S. 1-301.2, execution shall issue to enforce the judgment as in like cases under Article 28 of Chapter 1 of the General Statutes.

~~"§ 30-32. Exceptions to the report.~~

~~The personal representative, or any creditor, distributee or legatee of the deceased, within 10 days after the return of the report, may file exceptions thereto. The plaintiff shall be notified thereof and cited to appear before the court on a certain day, within 20 and not less than 10 days after service of the notice, and answer the same; the case shall thereafter be proceeded in, heard and decided as provided in special proceedings between parties.~~

~~"§ 30-33. Confirmation of report; execution.~~

~~If the report shall be confirmed, the court shall so declare, and execution shall issue to enforce the judgment as in like cases.~~"

SECTION 8. Chapter 31 of the General Statutes, as amended by Section 3 of this act, reads as rewritten:

"Chapter 31.

"Wills.

"Article 1.

"Execution of Will.

"§ 31-1. Who may make will.

Any person of sound mind, and 18 years of age or over, may make a will.

"§ 31-2: Repealed by Session Laws 1953, c. 1098, s. 1.

"§ 31-3: Rewritten and renumbered as G.S. 31-3.1 to 31-3.6 by Session Laws 1953, c. 1098, s. 2.

"§ 31-3.1. Will invalid unless statutory requirements complied with.

No will is valid unless it complies with the requirements prescribed therefor by this Article.

"§ 31-3.2. Kinds of wills.

(a) Personal property may be bequeathed and real property may be devised by

(1) An attested written will which complies with the requirements of G.S. 31-3.3, or

(2) A holographic will which complies with the requirements of G.S. 31-3.4.

(b) Personal property may also be bequeathed by a nuncupative will which complies with the requirements of G.S. 31-3.5.

"§ 31-3.3. Attested written will.

(a) An attested written will is a written will signed by the testator and attested by at least two competent witnesses as provided by this section.

(b) The testator must, with intent to sign the will, do so by actually signing the will ~~himself~~ or by having someone else in the testator's presence and at ~~his~~ the testator's direction sign the testator's name thereon.

(c) The testator must signify to the attesting witnesses that the instrument is ~~his~~ the testator's instrument by signing it in their presence or by acknowledging to them ~~his~~ the testator's signature previously affixed thereto, either of which may be done before the attesting witnesses separately.

(d) The attesting witnesses must sign the will in the presence of the testator but need not sign in the presence of each other.

"§ 31-3.4. Holographic will.

(a) A holographic will is a will

(1) Written entirely in the handwriting of the testator but when all the words appearing on a paper in the handwriting of the testator are sufficient to constitute a valid holographic will, the fact that other words or printed matter appear thereon not in the handwriting of the testator, and not affecting the meaning of the words in such handwriting, shall not affect the validity of the will, and

(2) Subscribed by the testator, or with ~~his~~ the testator's name written in or on the will in ~~his~~ the testator's own handwriting, and

(3) Found after the testator's death among ~~his~~ the testator's valuable papers or effects, or in a safe-deposit box or other safe place where it was deposited by ~~him~~ the testator or under ~~his~~ the testator's authority, or in the possession or custody of some person with whom, or some firm or corporation with which, it was deposited by ~~him~~the testator or under ~~his~~ the testator's authority for safekeeping.

(b) No attesting witness to a holographic will is required.

"§ 31-3.5. Nuncupative will.

A nuncupative will is a will

(1) Made orally by a person who is in ~~his~~ that person's last sickness or in imminent peril of death and who does not survive such sickness or imminent peril, and

(2) Declared to be ~~his~~ that person's will before two competent witnesses simultaneously present at the making thereof and specially requested by ~~him~~ the person to bear witness thereto.

"§ 31-3.6. Seal not required.

A seal is not necessary to the validity of a will.

"§ 31-4. Execution of power of appointment by will.

No appointment, made by will in the exercise of any power, shall be valid unless the same be executed in the manner by law required for the execution of wills; and every will, executed in such manner, shall, so far as respects the execution and attestation thereof, be a valid execution of a power of appointment by will, notwithstanding it shall have been expressly required that a will made in exercise of such power should be executed with some additional or other form of execution or solemnity.

"§ 31-4.1: Repealed by Session Laws 2010-181, s. 1, effective July 1, 2010.

"§ 31-4.2: Repealed by Session Laws 2010-181, s. 2, effective July 1, 2010.

"Article 2.

"Revocation of Will.

"§ 31-5: Rewritten and renumbered as G.S. 31-5.1 by Session Laws 1953, c. 1098, s. 3.

"§ 31-5.1. Revocation of written will.

A written will, or any part thereof, may be revoked only

(1) By a subsequent written will or codicil or other revocatory writing executed in the manner provided herein for the execution of written wills, or

(2) By being burnt, torn, canceled, obliterated, or destroyed, with the intent and for the purpose of revoking it, by the testator himself or by another person in ~~his~~ the testator's presence and by ~~his~~ the testator's direction.

"§ 31-5.2. Revocation of nuncupative will.

A nuncupative will or any part thereof may be revoked

(1) By a subsequent nuncupative will, or

(2) By a subsequent written will or codicil or other revocatory writing executed in the manner provided herein for the execution of written wills.

"§ 31-5.3. Will not revoked by marriage; dissent from will made prior to marriage.

A will is not revoked by a subsequent marriage of the maker; and the surviving spouse may petition for an elective share when there is a will made prior to the marriage in the same manner, upon the same conditions, and to the same extent, as a surviving spouse may petition for an elective share when there is a will made subsequent to marriage.

"§ 31-5.4. Revocation by divorce or annulment; revival.

Dissolution of marriage by absolute divorce or annulment after making a will does not revoke the will of any testator but, unless otherwise specifically provided in the will, it revokes all provisions in the will in favor of the testator's former spouse or purported former spouse, including, but not by way of limitation, any provision conferring a general or special power of appointment on the former spouse or purported former spouse and any appointment of the former spouse or purported former spouse as executor, trustee, conservator, or guardian. If provisions are revoked solely by this section, they are revived by the testator's remarriage to the former spouse or purported former spouse.

"§ 31-5.5. After-born or after-adopted child; illegitimate child; effect on will.

(a) A will shall not be revoked by the subsequent birth of a child to the testator, or by the subsequent adoption of a child by the testator, or by the subsequent entitlement of an after-born illegitimate child to take as an heir of the testator pursuant to the provisions of G.S. 29-19(b), but any after-born, after-adopted or entitled after-born illegitimate child shall have the right to share in the testator's estate to the same extent ~~he~~ the after-born, after-adopted, or entitled after-born illegitimate child would have shared if the testator had died intestate unless:

(1) The testator made some provision in the will for the child, whether adequate or not;

(2) It is apparent from the will itself that the testator intentionally did not make specific provision therein for the child;

(3) The testator had children living when the will was executed, and none of the testator's children actually take under the will;

(4) The surviving spouse receives all of the estate under the will; or

(5) The testator made provision for the child that takes effect upon the death of the testator, whether adequate or not.

(b) The provisions of G.S. 28A-22-2 shall be construed as being applicable to after-adopted children and to after-born children, whether legitimate or entitled illegitimate.

(c) The terms "after-born," "after-adopted" and "entitled after-born" as used in this section refer to children born, adopted or entitled subsequent to the execution of the will.

"§ 31-5.6. No revocation by subsequent conveyance.

No conveyance or other act made or done subsequently to the execution of a will of, or relating to, any real or personal estate therein comprised, except an act by which such will shall be duly revoked, shall prevent the operation of the will with respect to any estate or interest in such real or personal estate as the testator shall have power to dispose of by will at the time of ~~his~~ the testator's death.

"§ 31-5.7. Specific provisions for revocation exclusive; effect of changes in circumstances.

No will can be revoked in whole or in part by any act of the testator or by a change in ~~his~~ the testator's circumstances or condition except as provided by G.S. 31-5.1 through 31-5.6 inclusive.

"§ 31-5.8. Revival of revoked will.

No will or any part thereof that has been in any manner revoked can, except as provided in G.S. 31-5.4, be revived otherwise than by a reexecution thereof, or by the execution of another will in which the revoked will or part thereof is incorporated by reference.

"§ 31-6: Renumbered as G.S. 31-5.3 by Session Laws 1953, c. 1098, s. 5.

"§ 31-7: Repealed by Session Laws 1953, c. 1098, s. 9.

"Article 3.

"Witnesses to Will.

"§ 31-8.1. Who may witness.

Any person competent to be a witness generally in this State may act as a witness to a will.

"§ 31-9. Executor competent witness.

No person, on account of being an executor of a will, shall be incompetent to be admitted a witness to prove the execution of such will, or to prove the validity or invalidity thereof.

"§ 31-10. Beneficiary competent witness; when interest rendered void.

(a) A witness to an attested written or a nuncupative will, to whom or to whose spouse a beneficial interest in property, or a power of appointment with respect thereto, is given by the will, is nevertheless a competent witness to the will and is competent to prove the execution or validity thereof. However, if there are not at least two other witnesses to the will who are disinterested, the interested witness and ~~his~~ the interested witness' spouse and anyone claiming under ~~him~~ the interested witness shall take nothing under the will, and so far only as their interests are concerned the will is void.

(b) A beneficiary under a holographic will may testify to such competent, relevant and material facts as tend to establish such holographic will as a valid will without rendering void the benefits to be received by ~~him~~ the beneficiary thereunder.

"§ 31-10.1. Corporate trustee not disqualified by witnessing of will by stockholder.

A corporation named as a trustee in a will is not disqualified to act as trustee by reason of the fact that a person owning stock in the corporation signed the will as a witness.

"Article 4.

"Depository for Wills.

"§ 31-11. Depositories in offices of clerks of superior court where living persons may file wills.

The clerk of the superior court in each county of North Carolina shall be required to keep a receptacle or depository in which any person who desires to do so may file ~~his or her~~ that person's will for safekeeping; and the clerk shall, upon written request of the testator, or the duly authorized agent or attorney for the testator, permit said will or testament to be withdrawn from said depository or receptacle at any time prior to the death of the testator: Provided, that the contents of said will shall not be made public or open to the inspection of anyone other than the testator or ~~his~~ the testator's duly authorized agent until such time as the said will shall be offered for probate.

"Article 5.
"Probate of Will.
"§§ 31-12 through 31-31.2: Recodified as Article 2A of Chapter 28A of the General Statutes by Section 3 of this act.
"Article 6.
"Caveat to Will.
"§ 31-32. ~~When and by whom caveat filed.~~ Filing of caveat.
(a) At the time of application for probate of any will, and the probate thereof in common form, or at any time within three years thereafter, any ~~person entitled under such will, or~~ party interested in the estate, may appear in person or by attorney before the clerk of the superior court and enter a caveat to the probate of such ~~will: Provided,~~ will; provided, that if any person entitled to file a caveat be within the age of 18 years, or ~~insane, or imprisoned,~~ incompetent as defined in G.S. 35A-1101(7) or (8), then such person may file a caveat within three years after the removal of such disability.
~~Notwithstanding the provisions of the first paragraph of this section, as to persons not under disability, a caveat to the probate of a will probated in common form prior to May 1, 1951, must be filed within seven years of the date of probate or within three years from May 1, 1951, whichever period of time is shorter.~~
(b) The caveat shall be filed in the decedent's estate file. The clerk of superior court shall give notice of the filing by making an entry upon the page of the will book where the will is recorded, evidencing that the caveat has been filed and giving the date of such filing.
(c) If a will has been probated in solemn form pursuant to G.S. 28A-2A-7, any party who was properly served in that probate in solemn form shall be barred from filing a caveat.
"§ 31-33. ~~Bond given and cause~~ Cause transferred to trial docket.
~~When a caveator shall have given bond with surety approved by the clerk, in the sum of two hundred dollars ($200.00), payable to the propounder of the will, conditioned upon the payment of all costs which shall be adjudged against such caveator in the superior court or when a caveator shall have deposited money or given a mortgage in lieu of such bond, or shall have filed affidavits and satisfied the clerk of his inability to give such bond or otherwise secure such costs,~~
(a) Upon the filing of a caveat, the clerk shall transfer the cause to the superior court for ~~trial. Such~~ trial by jury. The caveat shall be served upon all interested parties in accordance with G.S. 1A-1, Rule 4 of the Rules of Civil Procedure.
(b) After service under subsection (a) of this section, the caveator shall cause notice of ~~the caveat proceeding to be given to all devisees, legatees, or other persons in interest in the manner provided for service of process by G.S. 1A-1, Rule 4(j) and (k). The notice shall advise such devisees, legatees, or other persons in interest, of the session of superior court to which the proceeding has been transferred and shall call upon them to appear and make themselves proper parties to the proceeding if they so choose. At the session of court to which such proceeding is transferred, or as soon thereafter as motion to that effect shall be made by the propounder, and before trial, the judge shall require any of the devisees, legatees or other persons in interest so cited, either those who make themselves~~ a hearing to align the parties to be served upon all parties in accordance with G.S. 1A-1, Rule 5 of the Rules of Civil Procedure. At the alignment hearing, all of the interested parties who wish to be aligned as parties shall appear and be aligned by the court as parties with the caveators or ~~whose interests appear to him antagonistic to that of~~ parties with the propounders of the ~~will, to align themselves and to file bond within such time as he shall direct and before trial. Upon the failure of any party to file such bond,~~ will. If an interested party does not appear to be aligned or chooses not to be aligned, the judge shall dismiss that interested party from the ~~proceeding~~ proceeding, but that party shall be bound by the proceeding.

(c) Within 30 days following the entry of an order aligning the parties, any interested party who was aligned may file a responsive pleading to the caveat, provided, however, that failure to respond to any averment or claim of the caveat shall not be deemed an admission of that averment or claim. An extension of time to file a responsive pleading to the caveat may be granted as provided by G.S. 1A-1, Rule 6 of the Rules of Civil Procedure.

(d) Upon motion of an aligned party, the court may require a caveator to provide security in such sum as the court deems proper, for the payment of such costs and damages as may be incurred or suffered by the estate if the estate is found to have been wrongfully enjoined or restrained. The court may consider relevant facts related to whether a bond should be required and the amount of any such bond, including, but not limited to, (i) whether the estate may suffer irreparable injury, loss, or damage as a result of the caveat and (ii) whether the caveat has substantial merit. Provisions for bringing suit in forma pauperis apply to the provisions of this subsection.

~~"§ 31-34. Prosecution bond required in actions to contest wills.~~

~~When any action is instituted to contest a will the clerk of the superior court will require the prosecution bond required in other civil actions: Provided, however, that provisions for bringing suit in forma pauperis shall also apply to the provisions of this section.~~

"§ 31-35. Affidavit of witness as evidence.

Whenever the subscribing witness to any will shall die, or be ~~insane or~~ mentally incompetent, or be absent beyond the State, it shall be competent upon any issue of devisavit vel non to give in evidence the affidavits and proofs taken by the clerk upon admitting the will to probate in common form, and such affidavit and proceedings before the clerk shall be prima facie evidence of the due and legal execution of said will.

"§ 31-36. Effect of caveat on estate administration.

(a) Order of Clerk. – Where a caveat is ~~entered and bond given,~~ filed, the clerk of the superior court shall forthwith issue an order that shall apply during the pendency of the caveat to any personal representative, having the estate in charge, as follows:

(1) Distributions to beneficiaries. – That there shall be no distributions of assets of the estate to any beneficiary;

(2) Commissions. – That no commissions shall be advanced or awarded to any personal representative;

(3) Accountings. – That the personal representative shall file all accountings required by the clerk of superior court and that the personal representative may pay any applicable filing fees associated with those accountings from the assets of the estate;

(4) Preservation of estate assets. – That the personal representative shall preserve the property of the estate and that the personal representative is authorized to pursue and prosecute claims that the estate may have against others; and

(5) Taxes, claims and debts of estate. – That the personal representative may file all appropriate tax returns and that the personal representative may pay, in accordance with the procedures of subsection (b) of this section: taxes; funeral expenses of the decedent; debts that are a lien upon the property of the decedent; bills of the decedent accrued before death; claims against the estate that are timely filed; professional fees related to administration of the estate, including fees for tax return preparation, appraisal fees, and attorneys' fees for estate administration.

(b) Procedures. – In regard to payment of any of the items listed in subdivision (5) of subsection (a) of this section, the personal representative shall file with the clerk a notice of the personal representative's intent to pay those items and shall serve the notice upon all parties to the caveat, pursuant to G.S. 1A-1, Rule 4 of the Rules of Civil Procedure. If within 10 days of service any party files with the clerk a written objection to that payment, the clerk shall schedule a hearing and determine whether the proposed payment shall be made. If no such objection is filed with the clerk, the clerk may approve the payment without hearing, and upon that approval, the personal representative may make the payment. The parties to the caveat may consent to any such payment, and upon such consent, the clerk may approve the payment without hearing. The clerk may defer ruling on the payment pending the resolution of the caveat.

(c) Preservation of Estate Assets. – Questions regarding the use, location, and disposition of assets that cannot be resolved by the parties and consented to by the clerk shall be decided by the clerk. When a question has not been resolved by agreement, either party may request a hearing before the clerk upon 10 days notice and shall serve the notice upon all parties to the caveat, pursuant to G.S. 1A-1, Rule 4 of the Rules of Civil Procedure. Decisions of the clerk may be appealed to the superior ~~court.~~ court pursuant to G.S. 1-301.3.

"~~§ 31-37. Superior court clerks to enter notice of caveat on will book; final judgment also to be entered.~~

~~Wherever a caveat is filed with the clerk of the superior court of any county in the State to any last will and testament which has been admitted to probate in said office, it shall be the duty of such clerk, and he is hereby directed to give notice of the filing of such caveat by making an entry upon the page of the will book where such last will and testament is recorded, evidencing that such caveat has been filed and giving the date of such filing. When such caveat and proceedings resulting therefrom shall have resulted in final judgment with respect to such will, the clerk of the court shall make a further entry upon the page of the will book where such last will and testament is recorded to the effect that final judgment has been entered, either sustaining or setting aside such will.~~

"§ 31-37.1. ~~Parties may enter into a settlement agreement.~~Settlement agreement; filing of judgment.

(a) Prior to an entry of judgment by the superior court in a caveat proceeding, the parties may enter into a settlement agreement, ~~whereupon judgment may be entered by the court,~~ which must be approved by the superior court. Upon approval of a settlement agreement, the court shall enter judgment, without a verdict by a jury, in accordance with the terms of the settlement ~~agreement,~~ agreement. The consent of interested parties who are not aligned as parties pursuant to G.S. 31-33 is not necessary for a settlement agreement under this section.

(b) When judgment is entered by the superior court in a caveat proceeding, the clerk of superior court shall file a copy of the judgment in the estate file and shall make entry upon the page of the will book where such will is recorded to the effect that final judgment has been entered, either sustaining or setting aside the ~~contested~~ will.

"Article 7.

"Construction of Will.

"§ 31-38. Devise presumed to be in fee.

When real estate shall be devised to any person, the same shall be held and construed to be a devise in fee simple, unless such devise shall, in plain and express words, show, or it shall be plainly intended by the will, or some part thereof, that the testator intended to convey an estate of less dignity.

"§ 31-39. Probate necessary to pass title; recordation in county where land lies; rights of innocent purchasers.

No will shall be effectual to pass real or personal estate unless it shall have been duly proved and allowed in the probate court of the proper county, and a duly certified copy thereof shall be recorded in the office of the superior court clerk of the county wherein the land is situate, and the probate of a will devising real estate shall be conclusive as to the execution thereof against the heirs and devisees of the testator, whenever the probate thereof under the like cirumstances, would be conclusive against the next of kin and legatees of the testator:

Provided, that the probate and registration of any will shall not affect the rights of innocent purchasers for value from the heirs at law of the testator when such purchase is made more than two years after the death of such testator or when such purchase is made after the filing of the final account by the duly authorized administrator of the decedent and the approval thereof by the clerk of the superior court having jurisdiction of the estate. Such conveyances, if made before the expiration of the time required by this section to have elapsed in order for same to be valid against the heirs and devisees of the testator, shall, upon the expiration of such time, become good and valid to the same effect as if made after the expiration of such time, unless in the meantime a proceeding shall have been instituted in the proper court to probate the will of the testator.

"§ 31-40. What property passes by will.

Any testator, by ~~his~~ the testator's will duly executed, may devise, bequeath, or dispose of all real and personal estate which ~~he~~ the testator shall be entitled to at the time of ~~his~~ the testator's death, and which, if not so devised, bequeathed, or disposed of, would descend or devolve upon ~~his~~ the testator's heirs at law, or upon ~~his~~ the testator's executor or administrator; and the power hereby given shall extend to all contingent, executory, or other future interest in any real or personal estate, whether the testator may or may not be the person or one of the persons in whom the same may become vested, or whether ~~he~~ the testator may be entitled thereto under the instrument by which the same was created, or under any disposition thereof by deed or will; and also to all rights of entry for conditions broken, whether any such condition has or has not been broken at the testator's death, all other rights of entry, and possibilities of reverter; and also to such of the same estates, interests, and rights respectively, and other real and personal estate, as the testator may be entitled to at the time of ~~his~~ the testator's death, notwithstanding that ~~he~~ the testator may become entitled to the same subsequently to the execution of ~~his~~ the testator's will.

"§ 31-41. Will relates to death of testator.

Every will shall be construed, with reference to the real and personal estate comprised therein, to speak and take effect as if it had been executed immediately before the death of the testator, unless a contrary intention shall appear by the will.

"§ 31-42. Failure of devises by lapse or otherwise; renunciation; 120-hour survivorship requirement, revised simultaneous death act, Article 24, Chapter 28A.

(a) Unless the will indicates a contrary intent, if a devisee predeceases the testator, whether before or after the execution of the will, and if the devisee is a grandparent of or a descendant of a grandparent of the testator, then the issue of the predeceased devisee shall take in place of the deceased devisee. The devisee's issue shall take the deceased devisee's share in the same manner that the issue would take as heirs of the deceased devisee under the intestacy provisions in effect at the time of the testator's death. The provisions of this section apply whether the devise is to an individual, to a class, or is a residuary devise. In the case of the class devise, the issue shall take whatever share the deceased devisee would have taken had the devisee survived the testator; in the event the deceased class member leaves no issue, the devisee's share shall devolve upon the members of the class who survived the testator and the issue of any deceased members taking by substitution.

(b) Unless the will indicates a contrary intent, if the provisions of subsection (a) of this section do not apply to a devise to a devisee who predeceases the testator, or if a devise otherwise fails, the property shall pass to the residuary devisee or devisees in proportion to their share of the residue. If the devise is a residuary devise, it shall augment the shares of the other residuary devisees, including the shares of any substitute takers under subsection (a) of this section. If there are no residuary devisees, then the property shall pass by intestacy.

(c) Renunciation of a devise is as provided for in Chapter 31B of the General Statutes.

(c1) The determination of whether a devisee has predeceased the testator shall be made as provided by Article 24 of Chapter 28A of the General Statutes.

(d) As used in this section, "devisee" means any person entitled to take real or personal property under the provisions of a will.

"§§ 31-42.1 through 31-42.2. Repealed by Session Laws 1965, c. 938, s. 2.

"§ 31-43. General gift by will an execution of power of appointment.

A general devise of the real estate of the testator, or of ~~his~~ the testator's real estate in any place or in the occupation of any person mentioned in the will, or otherwise described in a general manner, shall be construed to include any real estate, or any real estate to which such description shall extend, as the case may be, which ~~he~~ the testator may have power to appoint in any manner ~~he~~ the testator may think proper; and shall operate as an execution of such power, unless a contrary intention shall appear by the will; and in like manner a bequest of the personal estate of the testator, or any bequest of personal property, described in a general manner, shall be construed to include any personal estate, or any personal estate to which such description shall extend, as the case may be, which ~~he~~ testator may have power to appoint in any manner ~~he~~ the testator may think proper, and shall operate as an execution of such power, unless a contrary intention shall appear by the will.

"§ 31-44. Repealed by Session Laws 1951, c. 762, s. 2.

"§ 31-45: Rewritten and renumbered as G.S. 31-5.5 by Session Laws 1953, c. 1098, s. 7.

"§ 31-46. Validity of will; which laws govern.

A will is valid if it meets the requirements of the applicable provisions of law in effect in this State either at the time of its execution or at the time of the death of the testator.

"§ 31-46.1. Construction of certain formula clauses applicable to estates of decedents dying in calendar year 2010.

(a) Purpose. – The federal estate tax and generation-skipping transfer tax expired January 1, 2010, for one year. To carry out the intent of decedents in the construction of wills and trusts and to promote judicial economy in the administration of trusts and estates, this section construes certain formula clauses that reference federal estate and generation-skipping transfer tax laws and that are used in wills or codicils of decedents who die in or before calendar year 2010.

(b) Applicability. – This section applies to the following:

(1) To a will or codicil executed by a decedent before December 31, 2009, that contains a formula provision described in subsection (c) of this section if the decedent dies after December 31, 2009, and before the earlier of January 1, 2011, and the effective date of the reinstatement of the federal estate tax and generation-skipping transfer tax, unless the will or codicil clearly manifests an intent that a rule contrary to the rule of construction described in subsection (c) of this section applies.

(2) To the terms of a will or codicil executed by a decedent who dies before December 31, 2009, providing for a disposition of property that contains a formula provision described in subsection (c) of this section and occurs as a result of the death of another individual who dies after December 31, 2009, and before the earlier of January 1, 2011, and the effective date of the reinstatement of the federal estate tax and generation-skipping transfer tax, unless the terms of the will or codicil clearly manifests an intent that a rule contrary to the rule of construction described in subsection (c) of this section applies.

(c) Construction. – A will or codicil subject to this section is considered to refer to the federal estate and generation-skipping transfer tax laws as they applied with respect to estates of decedents dying on December 31, 2009, if the will or codicil contains a formula that meets one or more of the following conditions:

(1) The formula refers to any of the following: "applicable credit amount," "applicable exclusion amount," "applicable exemption amount," "applicable fraction," "estate tax exemption," "generation-skipping transfer tax exemption," "GST exemption," "inclusion ratio," "marital deduction," "maximum marital deduction," "unified credit," or "unlimited marital deduction."

(2) The formula measures a share of an estate or trust based on the amount that can pass free of federal estate taxes or the amount that can pass free of federal generation-skipping transfer taxes.

(3) The formula is otherwise based on a provision of federal estate tax or federal generation-skipping transfer tax law similar to the provisions in subdivision (1) or (2) of this subsection.

(d) Judicial Determination. – The personal representative or an affected beneficiary under a will or testamentary trust may bring an action in the superior court division of the General Court of Justice under Article 26 of Chapter 1 of the General Statutes, and the trustee of a trust created under the will or an affected beneficiary under the trust may bring a proceeding as permitted under Article 2 of Chapter 36C of the General Statutes to determine whether the decedent intended that the references under subsection (c) of this section be construed with respect to the federal law as it existed after December 31, 2009. The action must be commenced within 12 months following the death of the decedent.

"Article 8.

"Testamentary Additions to Trusts.

"§ 31-47. Testamentary additions to trusts.

(a) A will may validly devise property to:

(1) The trustee of a trust established before the testator's death by the testator, by the testator and some other person, or by some other person, including a trust authorized by G.S. 36C-4-401.1; or

(2) The trustee of a trust to be established at the testator's death, if the trust is identified in the testator's will and its terms are set forth in a written instrument executed before or concurrently with the execution of the testator's will, regardless of the existence, size, or character of the corpus of the trust during the testator's lifetime.

The devise is not invalid because the trust is amendable or revocable, or because the trust instrument or any amendment thereto was not executed in the manner required for wills, or because the trust was amended after the execution of the testator's will or after the testator's death. A revocable trust to which property is first transferred under subdivision (2) of this subsection is an inter vivos trust and not a testamentary trust and, as of the date of the execution of the trust instrument, is subject to Article 6 of Chapter 36C of the General Statutes.

(b) Unless the testator's will provides otherwise, property devised to the trustee of a trust described in subsection (a) of this section is not held under a testamentary trust of the testator, but it becomes a part of the trust to which it is devised, and shall be administered and disposed of in accordance with the provisions of the governing instrument setting forth the terms of the trust, including any amendments thereto made before or after the testator's death.

(c) Unless the testator's will provides otherwise, a revocation or termination of the trust before the testator's death causes the devise to lapse.

(d) A devise to a trust shall be construed as a devise to the trustee of that trust.

(e) For purposes of this section, "devise," when used as a noun, means a testamentary disposition of real or personal property and, when used as a verb, means to dispose of real or personal property by will.

(f) Nothing in this section alters, amends, or in any manner affects the application of the doctrine of acts of independent significance.

"Article 9.

"Incorporation by Reference; Acts of Independent Significance.

"§ 31-51. Incorporation by reference.

A writing in existence when a will is executed may be incorporated by reference if the language of the will manifests this intent and describes the writing sufficiently to permit its identification.

"§ 31-52. Acts and events of independent significance.

A will may dispose of property by reference to acts and events that have significance apart from their effect upon the disposition made by the will, whether they occur before or after the execution of the will or before or after the testator's death. These acts and events may include the execution or revocation of another individual's will and the safekeeping of items in a secured depository.

SECTION 9. G.S. 31B-1.2 reads as rewritten:

"§ 31B-1.2. Right of fiduciary to institute a proceeding for review of renunciation.

(a) Prior to renouncing, if a fiduciary so elects, the fiduciary may institute a proceeding by petition before the clerk of court for a determination as to whether a renunciation would be compatible with the fiduciary's duties. ~~Commencement~~ In the case of a trustee, commencement of the proceeding, jurisdiction, venue, parties, representation, and notice shall be governed by Chapter 36C of the General Statutes. In the case of a personal representative, commencement of the proceeding, jurisdiction, venue, parties, representation, and notice shall be governed by Chapter 28A of the General Statutes. In addition to any other notice requirements, notice of the proceeding shall be given to all persons entitled to delivery of a copy of an instrument of renunciation under G.S. 31B-2.1.

(b) After renouncing, if a fiduciary so elects, the fiduciary has a right to institute a declaratory judgment action pursuant to Article 26 of Chapter 1 of the General Statutes for a determination as to whether the renunciation is compatible with the fiduciary's duties. In addition to any other notice requirements, notice of the action shall be given to all persons entitled to delivery of a copy of an instrument of renunciation under G.S. 31B-2.1.

(c) A proceeding or action instituted under this section shall comply with all of the following:

(1) The petition or complaint shall state the basis for the fiduciary's allegation that the renunciation is compatible with the fiduciary's duties, considering among other things the intended purposes of the trust or other instrument and the impact of the renunciation on beneficiaries and potential beneficiaries. A petition or complaint filed by a trustee of a charitable trust shall contain a statement that a copy of the petition or complaint is being provided to the Attorney General.

(2) After considering among other things the intended purposes of the trust or other instrument and the impact of the renunciation on beneficiaries and potential beneficiaries, the court shall enter an order stating the court's determination as to whether the renunciation is compatible with the fiduciary's duties.

(d) The effectiveness of a renunciation is not affected by a determination under this section that the renunciation is not compatible with a fiduciary's duties."

SECTION 10. G.S. 32A-20(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) A health care power of attorney shall become effective when and if the physician or physicians or, in the case of mental health treatment, physician or eligible psychologist as defined in G.S. 122C-3(13d), designated by the principal determine in writing that the principal lacks sufficient understanding or capacity to make or communicate decisions relating to the health care of the principal, and shall continue in effect during the incapacity of the principal. The determination shall be made by the principal's attending physician or eligible psychologist if the physician or physicians or eligible psychologist designated by the principal is unavailable or is otherwise unable or unwilling to make this determination or if the principal failed to designate a physician or physicians or eligible psychologist to make this determination. A health care power of attorney may include a provision that, if the principal does not designate a physician for reasons based on his religious or moral beliefs as specified in the health care power of attorney, a person designated by the principal in the health care power of attorney may certify in writing, acknowledged before a notary public, that the principal lacks sufficient understanding or capacity to make or communicate decisions relating to his health care. The person so designated must be a competent person 18 years of age or older, not engaged in providing health care to the principal for remuneration, and must be a person other than the health care agent. For purposes of exercising authority described in G.S. 32A-19(b), however, a health care power of attorney shall be effective following the death of the principal without regard to the principal's understanding or capacity when the principal was living. Nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent a principal from revoking a health care power of attorney."

SECTION 11. G.S. 36C-2-205(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) Extensions of Time. – The clerk of superior court, for cause shown at any time in the clerk's discretion, with or without motion or notice, may enter an order enlarging the period of time within which an act is required or permitted by this Article, by any applicable Rules of Civil Procedure or by order of the court, if the request is made before the expiration of the period originally prescribed, but not to exceed 10 days, ~~nor more than once.~~ except to the extent that the court finds the justice requires that the time be enlarged for a period of greater than 10 days. Upon motion made after the expiration of the specified period, the clerk of superior court may permit the act where the failure to act was the result of excusable neglect. Notwithstanding any other provision of this subsection, the parties to a proceeding may enter into binding stipulations, without approval of the clerk of superior court, enlarging the time within which an act is required or permitted by this Article, by any applicable Rules of Civil Procedure or by order of the court, not to exceed 30 days."

SECTION 12. G.S. 36C-2-205(e) reads as rewritten:

"(e) Rules of Civil Procedure. – Unless the clerk of superior court otherwise directs, G.S. 1A-1, Rules 4, 5, 6(a), 6(d), 6(e), 18, 19, 20, 21, 24, ~~and 45~~ 45, 56, and 65 of the Rules of Civil Procedure shall apply to trust proceedings. Upon motion of a party or the clerk of superior court, the clerk may further direct that any or all of the ~~following~~ remaining Rules of Civil ~~Procedure~~ Procedure, shall ~~apply: Rules 15, 16, 17, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, and 37;~~ apply, including, without limitation, discovery rules; however, nothing in Rule 17 requires the appointment of a guardian ad litem for a party represented except as provided under ~~G.S. 36C-3-305.~~ G.S. 36C-2-206. In applying these Rules to a trust proceeding pending before the clerk of superior court, the term "judge" shall be construed as "clerk of superior court."

SECTION 13. G.S. 36C-6-604 reads as rewritten:

"§ 36C-6-604. Limitation on action contesting validity of revocable trust; distribution of trust property.

(a) A person may commence a judicial proceeding to contest the validity of a trust that was revocable at the settlor's death within the earlier of:

(1) Three years after the settlor's death; or

(2) 120 days after the trustee sent the person a copy of the trust instrument and ~~a notice~~ written notice pursuant to G.S. 1A-1, Rule 4 of the Rules of Civil Procedure, informing the person of the trust's existence, of the trustee's name and address, and of the time allowed for commencing a proceeding.

(b) Upon the death of the settlor of a trust that was revocable at the settlor's death, the trustee may proceed to distribute the trust property in accordance with the terms of the trust. The trustee is not subject to liability for doing so unless:

(1) The trustee knows of a pending judicial proceeding contesting the validity of the trust; or

(2) A potential contestant has notified the trustee of a possible judicial proceeding to contest the trust, and a judicial proceeding is commenced within 60 days after the contestant sent the notification.

(c) A beneficiary of a trust that is determined to have been invalid is liable to return any distribution received."

SECTION 14. This act becomes effective January 1, 2012, and applies to estates of decedents dying on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 432:
Revise Probate Code

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary I	Date:	April 21, 2011
Introduced by:	Sen. Hartsell	Prepared by:	Brad Krehely
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition S432-CSRN-10		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: The Proposed Committee Substitute for Senate Bill 432 would amend the provisions of the probate code, would define the jurisdiction of the clerk of superior court consistent with the provisions of the Uniform Trust Code, would recodify provisions relating to the probate of wills, and would update the procedure for claiming spousal and children's allowances. The Proposed Committee Substitute (1) contains all of the provisions from the PCS handed out on April 19 (S-432-CSRN-7), (2) incorporates the two amendments adopted in committee on April 19, and (3) modifies Section 10, which deals with health care powers of attorney, by moving the language to G.S. 32A-20(a) (was in G.S. 32A-20(b)) and by clarifying that nothing in the section prevents a principal from revoking a health care power of attorney.

BILL ANALYSIS: The PCS for Senate Bill 432 does all of the following:

- Provides that G.S. 1-301.3 applies to the administration of trusts (was, testamentary trusts) and of estates of decedents, incompetents and minors. Provides that a party wishing to appeal an order or judgment by the clerk may file a written notice of appeal containing a short and plain statement of the basis for the appeal (was, required written notice to specify the basis for the appeal) within ten days of the entry of the order or judgment after service of the order on that party. Provides that in an appeal to superior court, if the record is insufficient, the judge of superior court may receive additional evidence on the factual (was evidentiary) issue in question.
- Amends G.S. 7A-307 to add estate proceedings to the list of those whose costs are assessed under this section. Adds that the cost assessed for the filing of a caveat to a will is $200. Provides that the only cost assessed with reopening an estate administration is forty cents per $100, or major fraction, of any additional gross estate, including income, coming into the hands of the fiduciary after the estate is reopened; caps the total cost assessed, including the total cost assessed in all previous administrations of the estate, at $6,000.
- Recodifies portions of the General Statutes.
- Expands the definitions under G.S. 28A-1-1.
- Enacts new G.S. 28A-2-4 providing that the clerks of superior court of North Carolina, as ex-officio judges of probate, have original jurisdiction of estate proceedings. Provides types of estate proceedings under the subject matter jurisdiction of the clerk of superior court. Also provides criteria regarding the transfer of an estate proceeding to superior court. Provides that nothing in this section affects a person's right to file an action in the Superior Court for declaratory relief under Article 26, G.S. Chapter 1. Provides additional specifications regarding requests for declaratory relief and motions for a transfer of proceedings to superior court. Declares that the clerk of superior court does not have jurisdiction of (1) actions by or against creditors or debtors of an estate except as provided in Article 19 of G.S. Chapter 28A; (2) actions involving claims for monetary damages; (3) caveats, except as provide under GS 31-36; (4) proceedings to determine venue; and (5) recovery of property transferred or conveyed by a decedent with the intent to hinder, delay, or defraud creditors, pursuant to G.S. 28A-15-10(b). Enacts new G.S. 28-2-5 to provide that the clerk of superior court has jurisdiction over special proceedings and that nothing in the statute is to be construed as limiting the jurisdiction of the clerk of superior court in special proceedings.

- Enacts new G.S. 28A-2-6. Provides directives for the commencement of contested and uncontested estate proceedings. Additionally, provides directives regarding pleadings, extensions of time, consolidation of an estate proceeding and a civil action involving a common question of law or fact, joinder of claims, and providing notice of transfer. Provides that unless otherwise directed by the clerk of superior court, the listed Rules of Civil Procedure apply to estate proceedings. Also provides that the clerk may further direct that any or all of the remaining rules apply.
- Enacts additional new statutory provisions regarding representation of parties (G.S. 28A-2-7), waiver of notice (G.S. 28A-2-8), appeals of estate proceedings and special proceedings (G.S. 28A-2-9), and approval of settlement agreements by the clerk (G.S. 28A-2-10).

The act makes the following changes to new Article 2A of G.S. Chapter 28A.

- Authorizes the clerk of superior court to shorten the initial 60-day period during which the executor may apply to have the will proved, if good cause is shown. Enacts new GS 28A-2A-7 to provide that a person entitled to apply for probate of a will may file a petition for probate of the will in solemn form, and the matter will proceed as an estate proceeding governed by Article 2 of G.S. Chapter 28A. Provides directives regarding probate of a will in solemn form and regarding contesting the validity of a will by an interested party.
- Administration of Decedents' Estates. Amends G.S. 28A-3-2 to provide that any interested person may file a petition to determine the proper venue for the administration of the estate..
- Amends G.S. 28A-5-1 regarding the implied renunciation by a named or designated executor, providing the procedures to be followed should a person named or designated as an executor fail to qualify or renounce the office of executor within 30 days after the will has been admitted to probate. Amends G.S. 28A-5-2 regarding the implied renunciation of the right to administer an estate by a person entitled to apply for letters of administration, providing the procedures to be followed should a person so entitled fail to apply for letters of administration within 30 days from the date of death of the intestate decedent. Amends both G.S. 28A-5-1 and G.S. 28A-5-2 to delete provision authorizing the clerk of superior court to issue a citation against a person who has failed to qualify or renounce to show cause that the person should not be determined to have renounced the office of executor; instead provides for the clerk of superior court to issue a notice to that person to qualify or move for an extension of time to qualify within 15 days. Also provides that any interested person may file a petition in accordance with Article 2 of G.S. Chapter 28A seeking an order finding that the person be deemed to have renounced the office of executor.
- Amends G.S. 28A-6-1 to provide that the clerk of superior court may rely on the following as evidence of death: (1) a certified or authenticated copy of a death certificate purported to be issued by an official or agency of the place where the death purportedly occurred, (2) a certified or authenticated copy of any record or report of a domestic or foreign governmental agency evidencing the date of death, (3) a certificate or authenticated copy of medical records evidencing the date of death, or (4) any other evidence that clerk of superior court deems sufficient to confirm the date of death.

- Amends G.S. 28A-6-2 to provide that letters of administration or testamentary letters may be issued without notice including upon a finding of implied renunciation. Provides that all persons entitled to an equal or higher preference for appointment than an applicant who is not entitled to a priority of appointment under G.S. 28A-4-1 are to be given 15 days prior written notice of the application of the person who is not entitled to a priority of appointment, unless the persons with an equal or higher preference have renounced.
- Amends G.S. 28A-6-4 to clarify that before letters of administration or letters testamentary are issued, any interested person may by written petition (was, objection), filed with the clerk of superior court and served on interested persons as directed by the clerk of superior court, contest the issuing of letters of administration or letters testamentary to a person who is otherwise entitled to apply for the letters. Directs the clerk to conduct a hearing to determine to whom the letters are to be issued and provides that an appeal from the order may be taken as in an estate proceeding under G.S. 1-301.3.
- Amends G.S. 28A-8-1 to provide that no bond is required for a personal representative who is a trust institution licensed under G.S. 53-159 (was, a national banking association having its principal place of business in this state or a state bank acting under G.S. 53-159).
- Amends G.S. 28A-8-3 to provide that upon receipt of a verified petition filed by an interested party requesting modification of bond requirements, the clerk of superior court is to conduct a hearing in accordance with Article 2 of G.S. Chapter 28A (was, required the clerk to issue a citation requiring the personal representative to show cause why the bond should not be modified). Amends G.S. 28A-8-4 to provide that if any personal representative fails to comply with an order by the clerk regarding additional bond or new bond within the time specified in the order (not less than five days or more than 15 days), the clerk is to proceed as provided in G.S. 28A-9-2.
- Amends G.S. 28A-8-5 to direct the clerk conduct a hearing under Article 2 of G.S. Chapter 28A upon verified petition from any surety, on the bond of a personal representative, who is in danger of loss of the surety's suretyship. Amends subsection (b) of G.S. 28A-9-1 to allow the clerk to conduct a hearing, on the clerk's own motion or upon the verified petition of any person interested in the estate, to determine if any of the grounds for revocation of letters of administration, letters testamentary, or letters of collection as indicated in subsection (a) of this section exist. Amends G.S. 28A-9-4 and G.S. 28A-10-6 to clarify that (1) an appeal from the order of the clerk granting or denying revocation and (2) an appeal from an order of the clerk denying or allowing the resignation of a personal representative are special proceedings pursuant to G.S. 28A-2-9(b). Authorizes the clerk to issue a stay of an order of revocation or of an order allowing resignation upon the appellant posting an appropriate bond set by the clerk until such time as the cause is heard and determined upon appeal.
- Amends G.S. 28A-13-3. Current law requires a personal representative to petition the clerk to obtain an order authorizing the personal representative's custody, control, or possession over real property of the estate. Makes an exception for real property that is given to the personal representative in the deceased person's will, or real property to which the personal representative acquires title during the administration of the estate, providing that the personal representative is immediately entitled to custody, possession, and control of real property meeting this exception and may institute an estate proceeding under subsection (d) of this section to enforce those rights. Subsection (d) provides that the personal representative may institute an estate proceeding under Article 2 of G.S. Chapter 28A. Also provides that if the real property is occupied by a tenant or lessee, the personal representative may seek ejectment of the tenant or lessee only through the summary ejectment provisions of Article 3 of G.S. Chapter 42.

- Amends G.S. 28A-13-6(c1), deletes "trust" and substitutes "estate." Deletes subsection (a) and replaces it with subsection (a1) providing that a personal representative or collector has the right to sue in superior court to recover any property of any kind that belongs to the estate of the decedent and is entitled to provisional remedies as provided for under Subchapter 13 of Chapter 1. Also deletes subsection (b) and replaces it with subsection (b1) providing a personal representative, collector, or any interested person has the right to file a verified petition to institute an estates proceeding for examination of any persons reasonably believed to be in possession of property of any kind belonging to the decedent's estate and to make a demand for the recovery of that property.
- Amends G.S. 28A-19-1 to provide that in a pending legal action against the decedent at the time of the decedent's death, which survives the decedent's death, the court may order, on motion, the substitution of the personal representative or collector for the decedent and that motion will constitute the presentation of a claim providing that the substitution occurs within the time specified for the presentation of claims under G.S. 28A-19-3.
- Amends G.S. 28A-19-3 to clarify that except as otherwise specifically provided in this section, the limitations on presentation of claims set out in this section apply to claims by the State of North Carolina, its subdivisions, and its agencies.
- Amends G.S. 28A-19-5 providing that the clerk may provide for the payment of contingent and unliquidated claims via transfer of a petition filed under subsection (b) of G.S. 28A-19-5 to the superior court trial division for a determination of the validity or priority of the claim. Clarifies that clerks are not required to rule on the validity of contingent and unliquidated claims.
- Amends G.S. 28A-19-8 to provide that funeral expenses of a decedent advanced by a health care agent exercising authority are considered as an obligation of the estate regardless as to whether or not a personal representative of the estate has been appointed at the time the expenses are incurred. Amends GS 28A-19-9 to authorize a decedent's health care agent duly appointed under Article 3 of G.S. Chapter 32A to purchase a gravestone and provide a suitable burial place and receive reimbursement for the expenses incurred subject to the monetary limitations and procedures contained in this section. Amends GS 28A-19-16 to provide that a claimant must begin an action for recovery with regards to a claim that is presented and rejected within three months of receiving written notice of the rejection (was, after due notice in writing or after some part of claim becomes due). Provides that in the cares of a contingent or unliquidated claim, the claimant must file a petition for an order from the clerk pursuant to GS 23A-19-5(b).
- Amends G.S. 28A-21-2 to provide that absent an extension by the clerk of the time for filing the final account the personal representative or collector must file the final account for settlement within one year after qualifying or within six months after receiving a state estate or inheritance tax release, or in the time period for filing an annual account under G.S. 28A-21-1, whichever is later.
- Enacts new G.S. 28A-21-6 to provide that the personal representative or collector may give written notice of a proposed final account to all devises of the estate in the case of a will, and to all heirs of the state when the decedent was without a will, indicating the date and place of the filing of the final account. Provides guidelines regarding the permissive notice of final accounts.

- Amends G.S. 28A-23-1 to direct the clerk, upon reviewing and approving the personal representative's or collector's final account, to enter an order discharging the personal representative or collector from further duties and liabilities (was, liabilities), including those set out in Article 13 of G.S. Chapter 28A. Prohibits the discharge order from including a release or discharge of liability for any breach of duty by a personal representative or collector as set forth in G.S. 28A-13-10(c).
- Amends G.S. 28A-25-1 regarding the collection of property through use of an affidavit when the decedent dies intestate. Provides that when the person collecting the property by affidavit is the surviving spouse and only heir of the decedent, and not disqualified under GS 28A-4-2, the property that may be collected under this section may be more than $20,000 in value but may not exceed $30,000 in value, after reduction for any spousal allowance paid to the surviving spouse under G.S. 30-15.
- Makes conforming and clarifying changes to Chapter 28A.
- Intestate Succession. Enacts new G.S. 29-12.1 to provide that controversies arising under Chapter 29 are to be determined as an estate proceeding under Article 2 of G.S. Chapter 28A except for controversies arising under Article 8 of G.S. Chapter 29 (Election to Take Life Interest in Lieu of Intestate Share), which are to be determined as set out in G.S. Chapter 29. Amends G.S. 29-30 to provide that when a surviving spouse of an intestate decedent elects to take a life estate in the dwelling house and the value of that life estate is less than one-third in value of all the real estate, the surviving spouse may elect to take a life estate in other real estate of the intestate decedent so as to make the aggregate life estate of the surviving spouse equal to a life estate that is one-third in value of all the real estate. Provides that the election of the surviving spouse to tale a life estate in one-third value of all the real estate of the decedent is to be made by the filing of a petition (was filing of a notice) in accordance with Article 2 of G.S. Chapter 28A with the clerk of superior court in the appropriate county. Also lists applicable time periods for making the election and requires that the election be made before the shorter of the applicable time periods. Directs that no provisions in subsection (c) of GS 29-30 extends the time period for a surviving spouse to petition for an elective share under Article 1A of G.S. Chapter 30. Provides for service of the petition in accordance with GS 1A-1, Rule 4.
- Provides that the rules of procedure relating to partition proceedings under Chapter 46 apply to the election and procedure to allot and set apart the life estate, except to the extent they would be inconsistent with the provisions of this section. Provides that a determination of the life estate under this section may be appealed in accordance with GS 1-301.3.
- Amends G.S. 30-3.4 to provide that an elective share proceeding is an estate proceeding and is to be conducted under the procedures of Article 2 of GS Chapter 28A (was, an estate matter to be conducted under GS 1-301.3).
- Year's Allowance. Amends G.S. 30-17 regarding surviving children who are entitled to an allowance to delete reference to the authority of the guardian or next friend acting on behalf of the child and replacing it with simply, guardian. Current law provides that the clerk or on assignment by the clerk, the magistrate of the county in which administration was granted or the will was probated is to ascertain the value of the personal property from which the allowance is assigned. Provides for a right of appeal from the assignment by filing a copy of the assignment and a notice of appeal within 10 days after the assignment, and directs that the appeal is to be heard as provided in G.S. 1-301.2 at the next available session of superior court. Deletes provision requiring the appellant to file a copy of the assignment with the clerk and a statement of the appellant's exceptions and declaring that the issues will be decided de novo.

- Amends G.S. 30-27 to provide that a surviving spouse or child may apply to superior court after specified conditions are met and within one year after the decedent's death to have a year's support assigned at an amount other than prescribed in G.S. 30-15 (when spouse entitled to allowance) and G.S. 30-17 (when children entitled to an allowance). Provides for the nature of the proceedings (G.S. 30-28) requiring that application be by petition in a special proceeding before the clerk of superior court and specifies persons to be made parties to the special proceeding, including all known creditors, heirs, and devisees. Makes conforming changes to G.S. 30-29 replacing complaint with petition and plaintiff with petitioner. Provides that the clerk is to hear the matter and determine if the petitioner is entitled to the relief sought (G.S. 30-30). Provides that any judgment rendered in favor of the petitioner is subject to the same priority over other debts and claims against the estate as an allowance assigned under G.S. 30-15 or G.S. 30-17. Amends GS 30-31 to provide that the clerk may assign a value sufficient for the support of the petitioner to the petitioner. Amends GS 30-31.1 to require the petitioner to serve the clerk's judgment on all other parties and requires the judgment to be filed in the estate file of the deceased. Provides that any aggrieved party may appeal the judgment under GS 1-301.2. Provides that if the judgment is not appealed that the judgment is to be executed. Makes additional conforming changes.

- Wills. Provides that GS 31-12 through GS 31-31.2 are recodified as Article 2A of GS Chapter 28A by Section 3 of this act. Amends GS 31-32 as follows. Declares that if any person who is entitled to file a caveat is within the age of 18 years, or incompetent then that person may file a caveat within three years after the removal of the disability. Requires the caveat to be placed in the decedent's estate file and directs the clerk to give notice of the filing by making an entry on the page of the will book where the will is recorded that includes the date of the filing. Provides that if a will has been probated in solemn form under GS 28A-2A-7, any party that was properly served in that probate in solemn form is prohibited from filing a caveat.

- Amends GS 31-33 as follows. Directs the clerk to transfer the cause to superior court upon the filing of a caveat. Requires service of the caveat on all interested parties in accordance with GS 1A-1, Rule 4 of the Rules of Civil Procedure (Rules), after which the caveator is responsible for causing notice of hearing to be served on all parties in accordance with Rule 5. Provides that at the alignment hearing, all of the interested parties who wish to be aligned are to appear in court and be aligned by the court as parties with the caveator or parties with the propounders of the will. Directs the judge to dismiss from the proceeding an interested party who does not appear to be aligned or chooses not to be aligned. Deletes provisions requiring that the caveator and all interested parties who wish to be aligned by the court as parties in the action to file bond as directed by the court. Provides that the court, upon motion of an aligned party, may require a caveator to provide security in an amount determined by the court. Provides that the court is to consider relevant facts related to the need for a bond and the amount of any bond. Permits any interested party who was aligned to file a responsive pleading to caveat within 30 days following the entry of an order aligning the parties. Provides that failure to respond to any claim or averment of the caveat is not deemed to be an admission. Provides that an extension of time to file a responsive pleading may be granted as provided by Rule 6 of the Rules.

- Current law provides that questions regarding the use, location, and disposition of assets that cannot be resolved by the parties are to be decided by the clerk. Amends G.S. 31-36 to provide that decisions of the clerk may be appealed to superior court.

- Amends G.S. 31-37.1 to clarify that a settlement agreement entered into by the parties must be approved by the superior court and the judgment entered by the court. Provides that the consent of parties that are not aligned as prescribed in G.S. 31-33 is not necessary for a settlement agreement under this section. Requires the clerk to file a copy of the judgment entered by the superior court in a caveat proceeding in the estate file and to make an entry on the page of the will book where the will is recorded declaring that the final judgment has been entered either sustaining or setting aside the will (was, contested will) (this provision was previously codified in GS 31-37).
- Makes conforming changes deleting GS 31-34 and GS 31-37.
- Current law provides a fiduciary may institute a proceeding for review of renunciation. Amends GS 31B-1.2 to provide that if the fiduciary is a trustee, the proceeding is governed by GS Chapter 36C; however, if the fiduciary is a personal representative, then the proceeding is governed by GS Chapter 28A.
- Amends GS 32A-20(a) to provide that a health care power of attorney is effective following the death of the person granting the authority (principal) without regard to the principal's understanding or capacity when the principal was living for the purpose of exercising the authority described in GS 32A-19(b) (This allows a health care power of attorney to authorize the health care agent to exercise any and all rights the principal may have with respect to anatomical gifts, the authorization of any autopsy, and the disposition of remains). This section also clarifies that nothing shall be construed to prevent a principal from revoking a health care power of attorney.
- Amends GS 36C-2-205(d) to delete restriction that extensions of time not be granted more than once under Article 2 (Judicial Proceedings) of GS Chapter 36C and to provide that the court may enlarge an extension of time beyond 10 days if the court finds that justice requires that the time be extended beyond that time.
- Amends GS 36C-2-205(e) to add Rules 4, 56, and 65 to the list of Rules of Civil Procedure that apply to trust proceedings unless the clerk directs otherwise. Provides that the clerk may direct that any or all of the remaining Rules of Civil Procedure apply, including discovery rules.
- Amends GS 36C-6-604 to provide that the notice informing a person of the existence of a trust must be written notice pursuant to GS 1A-1, Rule 4 of the Rules of Civil Procedure.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The act is effective January 1, 2012, and applies to estates of decedents dying on or after that date.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF NORTH CAROLINA

S 1

SENATE BILL 435

Short Title:	Civil Pro./Require Certificate of Merit.	(Public)
Sponsors:	Senator Hartsell.
Referred to:	Judiciary I.

March 29, 2011

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT REQUIRING A CERTIFICATE OF MERIT ON CIVIL ACTIONS FILED AGAINST A PERSON OR FIRM PROVIDING ARCHITECTURE OR ENGINEERING SERVICES IN THIS STATE.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Subchapter VI of Chapter 1 of the General Statutes is amended by adding the following new Article to read:

"Article 12A.

"Certificate of Merit for Civil Actions Against Design Professionals.

"§ 1-123.1. Definitions.

The following definitions shall apply in this Article:

(1) Certificate of merit. – A certification from a third-party licensed professional engineer or licensed architect that a civil action filed against a design professional has merit.

(2) Design professional. – A professional engineer licensed pursuant to Chapter 89C of the General Statutes, an architect licensed pursuant to Chapter 83A of the General Statutes, or any firm in which the licensed engineer or architect practices, including a corporation, professional corporation, limited liability corporation, partnership, limited liability partnership, sole proprietorship, joint venture, or any other business entity.

(3) Practice of architecture. – As defined by G.S. 83A-1(7).

(4) Practice of engineering. – As defined by G.S. 89C-3(6).

"§ 1-123.2. Certificate of merit for civil actions against design professionals.

(a) In any civil action or arbitration proceeding for damages arising out of the provision of professional services performed by a design professional, the plaintiff shall be required to file with the complaint an affidavit of a third-party licensed professional engineer or licensed architect. The third-party licensed professional engineer or licensed architect shall (i) be competent to testify and hold the same professional license and practice in the same area of practice as the defendant design professional and (ii) offer testimony based upon knowledge, skill, experience, education, training, and practice. The affidavit shall specifically state for each theory of recovery for which damages are sought, the negligence, if any, or other action, error, or omission of the design professional in providing the professional service, including any error or omission in providing advice, judgment, opinion, or a similar professional skill claimed to exist and the factual basis for each such claim. The third-party licensed professional engineer or licensed architect shall be licensed in this State and actively engaged in the practice of engineering or architecture respectively.

(b) The contemporaneous filing requirement of subsection (a) of this section shall not apply to any case in which the period of limitation will expire within 10 days of the date of filing the action and, because of these time constraints, the plaintiff has alleged that an affidavit of a third-party licensed professional engineer or licensed architect could not be prepared. In these instances, the plaintiff shall have 30 days after the filing of the complaint to supplement the pleadings with the affidavit. The court may, on motion, after hearing and for good cause, extend the time within which the affidavit is to be filed, as justice requires.

(c) The defendant shall not be required to file an answer to the complaint and affidavit until 30 days after the filing of the affidavit.

(d) The plaintiff's failure to file the affidavit in accordance with subsection (a) or (b) of this section shall result in a dismissal of the complaint against the defendant. In the court's discretion, the dismissal may be with prejudice.

(e) An order granting or denying a motion for dismissal is immediately appealable as an interlocutory order.

(f) This section shall not be construed to extend any applicable period of limitation or repose.

(g) This section does not apply to any suit or action for the payment of fees arising out of the provision of professional services performed by a design professional."

SECTION 2. G.S. 1A-1, Rule 9, is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(j1) Civil Actions Against Design Professionals. – Any complaint alleging damages arising out of the provision of professional services performed by a design professional, as defined by G.S. 1-123.1(2), shall be filed in accordance with Article 12A of Chapter 1 of the General Statutes."

SECTION 3. G.S. 89C-10 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(j) The Board shall have the power to adopt rules to discipline professional engineers licensed under this Chapter who certify a civil action that is without merit in violation of Article 12A of Chapter 1 of the General Statutes."

SECTION 4. G.S. 83A-6(a) is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(a) The Board shall have the power to adopt bylaws, rules, and standards of professional conduct to carry out the purposes of this Chapter, including, but not limited to:

(6) The disciplining of architects licensed under this Chapter who certify a civil action that is without merit in violation of Article 12A of Chapter 1 of the General Statutes."

SECTION 5. This act becomes effective October 1, 2011, and applies to complaints and affidavits filed on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 435:
Civil Pro./Require Certificate of Merit

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary I	Date:	April 20, 2011
Introduced by:	Sen. Hartsell	Prepared by:	Susan Sitze
Analysis of:	First Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 435 would require a certificate of merit on civil actions filed against a person or firm providing architecture or engineering services in this State.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 of the bill would amend Chapter 1 of the General Statutes by adding a new Article 12 entitled "Certificate of Merit for Civil Actions Against Design Professionals".

A "design professional" would be a professional engineer licensed pursuant to Chapter 89C, an architect licensed pursuant to Chapter 83A, or any firm in which the licensed engineer or architect practices.

The new Article would require that in any civil action or arbitration proceeding arising out of the provision of professional services by a design professional, except an action for the payment of fees, the plaintiff must file with the complaint an affidavit of a third-party licensed professional who is competent to testify and holds the same professional license in this State and actively practices in the same area as the defendant and who can offer testimony based upon knowledge, skill, experience, education, training, and practice. The affidavit must specifically state the theory of recovery for damages, the exact negligence or error claimed to exist and a factual basis for each claim.

If the period of limitation will expire within 10 days of the date of the filing of the action, and the plaintiff alleges the affidavit cannot be prepared in time because of the time constraint, the plaintiff would have 30 days after the filing of the complaint to supplement the pleadings with the required affidavit. The court may extend the time to file the affidavit upon motion, hearing and good cause. The defendant shall not be required to file an answer to the complaint until 30 days after the filing of the affidavit.

Failure to file the affidavit would result in a dismissal of the complaint, and the court may choose to dismiss with prejudice. An order granting or denying a motion for dismissal is immediately appealable as an interlocutory order.

Section 2 of the bill would make a conforming change to G.S. 1A-1, Rule 9.

Sections 3 & 4 of the bill would amend the statutes relating to professional engineers and architects to allow the respective licensing boards to discipline licensed professional engineers or architects who certify a civil action that is without merit in violation of the provisions of Section 1 of the bill.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The act becomes effective October 1, 2011, and applies to complaints and affidavits filed on or after that date.

February 28, 2011

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO ALLOW A JUVENILE RECORD TO BE CONSIDERED IN MAKING THE RISK DETERMINATION FOR ESTABLISHING A BOND UNDER THE LAWS PERTAINING TO THE JUVENILE CODE.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 7B-3000(e) reads as rewritten:

"(e) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, if the defendant in a criminal proceeding involving a Class A1 misdemeanor or a felony was less than 21 years of age at the time of the offense, information obtained pursuant to subsection (b) of this section regarding the juvenile's record of an adjudication of delinquency for an offense that would be a Class A1 misdemeanor or a felony if committed by an ~~adult, where the adjudication occurred 18 months or less before the defendant reached 16 years of age or the adjudication occurred after the defendant reached 16 years of age,~~adult may be used by law enforcement, the magistrate, the courts, and the prosecutor for pretrial release, plea negotiating decisions, and plea acceptance decisions. Information obtained regarding any juvenile record shall remain confidential and shall not be placed in any public record."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective December 1, 2011, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 135:
Allow Juvenile Record/Risk Determination/Bond

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary I	Date:	April 25, 2011
Introduced by:	Sen. Clodfelter	Prepared by:	Susan Sitze
Analysis of:	First Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 135 would allow the use of certain juvenile records in pre-trial release, plea negotiations, and plea acceptance decisions.

CURRENT LAW: G.S. 7B-3000(e) allows the use of juvenile adjudications for Class A1 misdemeanors or felonies to be used in pre-trial release, plea negotiations, and plea acceptance decisions for persons under 21 charged as an adult with a Class A1 misdemeanor or felony, if the juvenile adjudication occurred within 18 months before the person's 16th birthday, or after the 16th birthday.

BILL ANALYSIS: Senate Bill 135 would remove the restriction that the juvenile adjudication has to occur within 18 months before the 16th birthday, or after the 16th birthday. Any juvenile adjudication, no matter when it occurred, for a Class A1 misdemeanor or a felony could be considered in determining pre-trial release, in plea negotiations, or in plea acceptance decisions.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act becomes effective December 1, 2011, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT REQUIRING LANDLORDS TO GIVE NOTICE TO THE NORTH CAROLINA STATE BAR OF AN ATTORNEY'S DEFAULT ON A LEASE IN ORDER TO PROTECT THE CONFIDENTIALITY OF THE ATTORNEY'S FILES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Chapter 42 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read as follows:

"§ 42-14.4. Notice to State Bar of attorney default on lease.

(a) If a landlord has knowledge that a tenant is or may have been an attorney, the landlord shall deliver notice to the North Carolina State Bar (hereinafter "State Bar") at least 30 days prior to the destruction or sale of any "potentially confidential materials" remaining in the premises after the landlord obtains possession of the premises, whether by summary ejectment under Article 3 of this Chapter or by any other means, including the tenant vacating the premises. For purposes of this section, the term "potentially confidential materials" means client files, trust or operating account records, or other materials relating to client matters. The landlord's notice to the State Bar shall contain the name of the attorney who is presumed to be the tenant, the location of the potentially confidential materials, and a phone number, address, or other means to contact the landlord. If the landlord removes the potentially confidential materials from the premises, the landlord must store the potentially confidential materials in a reasonably secure location in file cabinets, boxes, or other appropriate containers. The landlord shall exercise reasonable care to maintain the potentially confidential materials intact and undamaged by the landlord's actions.

(b) The State Bar or its designee may take possession of the materials, at its sole expense, within the 30-day period provided for in subsection (a) of this section without the necessity of a court order. Upon the request of the State Bar, the landlord shall cooperate with and allow the State Bar to take possession of the potentially confidential materials, and the landlord shall not be liable in any way to the tenant for his or her cooperation. However, if the tenant elects to take possession of the potentially confidential materials prior to the State Bar obtaining possession of them, and there is no court order to the contrary having been previously delivered to the landlord, the landlord may deliver possession of the potentially confidential materials to the tenant and shall promptly notify the State Bar of his or her actions. If neither the State Bar nor its designee take possession of the potentially confidential materials within the 30-day period provided for in subsection (a) of this section, the landlord may destroy or discard the materials in a manner that will provide reasonable protection against access to the potentially confidential materials by third parties, including shredding or delivering the potentially confidential materials to a corporate document disposal service."

SECTION 2. G.S. 44A-2 is amended by adding a new subsection to read as follows:

"(h) Any landlord of residential or nonresidential property, including any storage or self-storage space, in which potentially confidential materials, as that term is defined in G.S. 42-14.4(a), remains after the landlord has obtained possession of the property, must provide notice to the North Carolina State Bar as required in G.S. 42-14.4. Potentially confidential materials shall not be the subject of a lien under the provisions of this Article and must be destroyed or safely discarded if the State Bar or its designee does not take possession pursuant to G.S. 42-14.4."

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT REQUIRING LANDLORDS TO GIVE NOTICE TO THE NORTH CAROLINA STATE BAR OF AN ATTORNEY'S DEFAULT ON A LEASE IN ORDER TO PROTECT THE CONFIDENTIALITY OF THE ATTORNEY'S FILES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Chapter 42 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read as follows:

"§ 42-14.4. Notice to State Bar of attorney default on lease.

(a) If a landlord has actual knowledge that a tenant is an attorney, the landlord shall deliver notice to the North Carolina State Bar (hereinafter "State Bar") at least 15 days prior to the destruction or discard of any "potentially confidential materials" remaining in the premises after the landlord obtains possession of the premises, whether by summary ejectment under Article 3 of this Chapter or by any other means, including the tenant vacating the premises. For purposes of this section, the term "potentially confidential materials" means client files, trust or operating account records, or other materials relating to client matters. For purposes of this section, the term "landlord" means any owner and any rental management company, rental agency, or any other person having the actual or apparent authority of an agent to perform the duties imposed by this Article. The landlord's notice to the State Bar shall contain the name of the attorney who is presumed to be the tenant, the location of the potentially confidential materials, and a phone number, address, or other means to contact the landlord. During the 15 day period after notice, a landlord may move for storage purposes, but shall not throw away, dispose of, or sell potentially confidential materials remaining on the premises.

(b) The State Bar or its designee may take possession of the materials, at its sole expense, within the 15-day period provided for in subsection (a) of this section without the necessity of a court order. Upon the request of the State Bar, the landlord shall cooperate with and allow the State Bar to take possession of the potentially confidential materials, and the landlord shall not be liable in any way to the tenant for his or her cooperation. However, if the tenant elects to take possession of the potentially confidential materials prior to the State Bar obtaining possession of them, and there is no court order to the contrary having been previously delivered to the landlord, the landlord may deliver possession of the potentially confidential materials to the tenant and shall promptly notify the State Bar of his or her actions. If neither the State Bar nor its designee take possession of the potentially confidential materials within the 15-day period provided for in subsection (a) of this section, the landlord may destroy or discard the materials in accordance with the lease agreement with the defaulting tenant.

(c) A landlord that attempts in good faith to comply with the requirements of this section shall not be liable for losses to any person arising directly or indirectly out of the disposal of any potentially confidential materials. Failure to comply with this section shall not constitute an unfair trade practice under G.S. 75-1.1."

SECTION 2. G.S. 44A-2 is amended by adding a new subsection to read as follows:

"(h) Any landlord of nonresidential property, including any storage or self-storage space, in which potentially confidential materials, as that term is defined in G.S. 42-14.4(a), remains after the landlord has obtained possession of the property, must provide notice to the North Carolina State Bar and comply with the provisions of G.S. 42-14.4, if the landlord has actual knowledge that the former tenant is an attorney. Potentially confidential materials shall not be the subject of a lien under the provisions of this Article."

SECTION 3. This act is effective when it becomes law.

SENATE BILL 488:
Landlord/State Bar Notice of Lease Default

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary I	Date:	April 26, 2011
Introduced by:	Sens. Stein, Vaughan, Newton	Prepared by:	Bill Patterson
Analysis of:	First Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 488 requires that a landlord with actual knowledge that a tenant is an attorney, upon taking possession of the demised premises, must give the State Bar notice and an opportunity to retrieve any potentially confidential materials left behind by the tenant. The PCS changes the knowledge triggering a duty under the statute to "actual knowledge that a tenant is an attorney," defines "landlord," permits storage of the materials in the 15 days after notice is given to State Bar, relieves the landlord who complies with this section from liability for resulting losses, clarifies that violation is not an unfair trade practice, and makes other conforming changes.

CURRENT LAW: Under current law, landlords who have regained possession of leased premises pursuant to summary ejectment must hold any personal property left in the premises for ten days, and must release it to the tenant upon request within that ten day period. If the tenant does not request release of the property within the permitted time, however, the landlord may dispose of or sell the personal property by following the procedures of G.S. 42-25.9(g), in which case all costs of summary ejectment, execution and storage proceedings shall be charged as court costs to the tenant, and constitute a lien on the stored property. There are no specific requirements for disposal of records that may constitute confidential client files left in the premises by an attorney-tenant. G.S. 44A-2 gives lessors of nonresidential premises and of spaces for manufactured homes a lien on personal property that remains on the demised premises for 21 or more days after the lessor is entitled to possession of the premises, for payment of any lawful claim for damages against the tenant.

BILL ANALYSIS: Section 1 enacts G.S. 42-14.4, which requires that a landlord who has actual knowledge that a tenant is an attorney, and who takes possession of the demised premises, must notify the State Bar at least 15 days before destroying or discarding potentially confidential client files left behind by the tenant, and must permit the State Bar or its designee to retrieve the materials. A landlord is not liable to the former tenant for cooperating with the State Bar in compliance with this section. In the absence of a court order to the contrary, the landlord may allow the tenant to retrieve the files before the State Bar does so, but must notify the State Bar if this occurs. During the 15 day period after notice, the landlord is permitted to move the materials to another location for storage.

If the materials are not retrieved by the tenant or the State Bar within 15 days after notice is given, the landlord may destroy or discard the materials in accordance with the lease agreement. A landlord who attempts in good faith to comply with this section's requirements is not liable to any person for resulting losses, and a violation of this section does not constitute an unfair trade practice.

Section 2 of the bill amends G.S. 44A-2 to provide that landlords having actual knowledge that a former tenant is an attorney are not entitled to a lien on potentially confidential materials that remain on the premises, but must follow the procedure of G.S. 42-14.4 in dealing with any such materials.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act is effective when it becomes law.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT PROVIDING THAT A RESTRICTION ON THE TRANSFER OF REAL PROPERTY OR A TENANT'S INTEREST IN A LEASE APPLIES TO A SUBSEQUENT TRANSFER OF THE REAL PROPERTY OR INTEREST IN THE LEASE UNLESS THE GRANTOR OR LANDLORD EXPRESSLY PROVIDES OTHERWISE.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Chapter 39 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read as follows:

"§ 39-6.8. Subsequent transfers of real property; effect of grantor's consent to or waiver of restrictions on prior transfers.

A restriction on the transfer of land or an interest in land contained in a deed, lease, or other written conveyance applies to a subsequent transfer of the land or interest in the land notwithstanding the grantor's consent to a prior transfer or the grantor's waiver of a standard or condition for a prior transfer. However, the provisions of this section shall not apply if one of the following conditions is met:

(1) The deed, lease, or other written conveyance expressly provides that the restriction on transfer is limited to the original grantee, trustee, beneficiary, tenant, or other person to whom the land or interest in land was conveyed.

(2) The grantor expressly states in writing that the consent or waiver applies to a subsequent transfer."

SECTION 2. Chapter 42 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read as follows:

"§ 42-14.4. Subsequent transfers of tenant's interest; effect of landlord's consent to or waiver of restrictions on prior transfers.

A restriction on the transfer of a tenant's interest in a lease applies to a subsequent transfer by a tenant or subtenant notwithstanding the landlord's consent to a prior transfer or the landlord's waiver of a standard or condition for a prior transfer. However, the provisions of this section shall not apply if one of the following conditions is met:

(1) The lease expressly provides that the restriction on transfer is limited to the original tenant.

(2) The landlord expressly states in writing that the consent or waiver applies to a subsequent transfer."

SECTION 3. This act becomes effective October 1, 2011, and applies to all subsequent transfers of real property or interests in a lease that occur on or after that date.

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 521 abolishes the Rule in Dumpor's Case. The PCS completely rewrote and simplified the original bill.

CURRENT LAW: The ancient Rule in Dumpor's Case[1] provides that once consent is given to a covenant or condition in a lease, that covenant or condition is discharged forever and may not subsequently be enforced. Unlike courts in other states, North Carolina courts have not expressly repudiated this rule.[2]

BILL ANALYSIS: Senate Bill 521 abolishes the Rule in Dumpor's Case.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act becomes effective October 1, 2011, and applies to all transfers of property that occur on or after that date.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO CLARIFY THAT A LEGISLATOR'S OR PUBLIC SERVANT'S PUBLIC POSITION MAY BE DISCLOSED IN AN AGENDA OR OTHER DOCUMENT RELATED TO A MEETING, CONFERENCE, OR SIMILAR EVENT.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 138A-31 reads as rewritten:

"§ 138A-31. Use of public position for private gain.

(a) Except as permitted under G.S. 138A-38, a covered person or legislative employee shall not knowingly use the covered person's or legislative employee's public position in an official action or legislative action that will result in financial benefit to the covered person or legislative employee, a member of the covered person's or legislative employee's extended family, or business with which the covered person or legislative employee is associated. This subsection shall not apply to financial or other benefits derived by a covered person or legislative employee that the covered person or legislative employee would enjoy to an extent no greater than that which other citizens of the State would or could enjoy, or that are so remote, tenuous, insignificant, or speculative that a reasonable person would conclude under the circumstances that the covered person's or legislative employee's ability to protect the public interest and perform the covered person's or legislative employee's official duties would not be compromised.

(b) A covered person shall not mention or ~~permit~~ authorize another person to mention the covered person's public position in nongovernmental advertising that advances the private interest of the covered person or others. The prohibition in this subsection shall not apply to any of the following:

(1) ~~political advertising,~~Political advertising.

SENATE BILL 620:
Clarify Use of Position

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary I	Date:	April 22, 2011
Introduced by:	Sen. Clodfelter	Prepared by:	R. Erika Churchill
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition S620-CSST-21		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: The proposed committee substitute for Senate Bill 620 would clarify the prohibition on the use of public title in non-governmental advertising for legislators and public servants under the State Government Ethics Act.

CURRENT LAW: The State Government Ethics Act sets forth a code of conduct for legislators, legislative employees and public servants. As part of that code of conduct legislators and public servants are prohibited from mentioning, or allowing another to mention, their public position in non-governmental advertising that advances the private interest of the legislator or public servant, or another. Exceptions apply for: political advertising, news stories and articles, directories and biographical listings, charitable solicitations for 501(c)(3) non-profits, and disclosure to an existing or prospective customer, supplier or client if the public position could reasonably be considered material by the customer, supplier or client.

For purposes of the State Government Ethics Act, "public servant" has a specific definition that includes the council of state, certain high level State employees, and members of non-advisory boards and commissions, including the Board of Governors, the university's boards of trustees, and the Community College boards of trustees.

For purposes of the State Government Ethics Act, "covered person" means all legislators and public servants.

BILL ANALYSIS: The proposed committee substitute would clarify that the prohibition also did not apply to the inclusion of a legislator's or public servant's public position on an agenda for a conference, meeting or similar event when that inclusion could reasonably be considered material by an individual attending the conference, meeting, or similar event.

The proposed committee substitute would also modify the prohibition to require an authorization by the legislator or public servant to use their public position in the non-governmental advertising, instead of permitting its use.

EFFECTIVE DATE: October 1, 2011.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO AMEND THE NORTH CAROLINA CONSTITUTION TO REPLACE THE PRESENT PRACTICE OF SELECTING JUSTICES AND JUDGES OF THE APPELLATE DIVISION AND JUDGES OF THE SUPERIOR COURT GENERALLY BY GUBERNATORIAL APPOINTMENT, FOLLOWED BY ELECTIONS, WITH A METHOD BY WHICH (1) TWO CANDIDATES FOR JUSTICE AND JUDGE WILL BE NOMINATED BY A JUDICIAL NOMINATING COMMISSION, THE GOVERNOR WILL APPOINT ONE OF THEM, AND AT THE NEXT ELECTION THE VOTERS WILL CHOOSE IN A NONPARTISAN ELECTION BETWEEN THE TWO PERSONS, (2) AT THE END OF THE TERM OF A JUSTICE OR JUDGE WHO HAS SUCCESSFULLY WON AN ELECTION, THE QUESTION OF THE JUSTICE'S OR JUDGE'S RETENTION IN OFFICE IS SUBMITTED FOR APPROVAL OR DISAPPROVAL BY NONPARTISAN VOTE OF THE PEOPLE, (3) PROVISION IS MADE FOR THE CASE OF WITHDRAWAL OF A CANDIDATE BEFORE THE ELECTION, AND (4) PROVISION IS MADE FOR APPOINTMENT OF THE CHIEF JUSTICE FROM AMONG THE ASSOCIATE JUSTICES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Section 16 of Article IV of the North Carolina Constitution reads as rewritten:

"Sec. 16.(1) Terms of office and election of Justices of the Supreme Court, Judges of the Court of Appeals, and Judges of the Superior Court. Justices of the Supreme Court, Judges of the Court of Appeals, and regular Judges of the Superior Court shall be elected and retained by the qualified voters as provided by this section and shall hold office for terms of eight years and until their successors are elected and qualified. Justices of the Supreme Court and Judges of the Court of Appeals shall be elected and retained by the qualified voters of the State. Regular Judges of the Superior Court ~~may~~ shall be elected and retained by the qualified voters of ~~the State or by the voters of~~ their respective ~~districts, as the General Assembly may prescribe.~~districts.

(2) General principles. Justices and Judges of the Appellate Division and Judges of the Superior Court should be selected for and continue to hold office solely upon the basis of personal and professional fitness to administer justice wisely, according to law, and without favor, denial, or delay to all persons who come into the courts. While their continuation in office should be periodically subject to approval by the people, both their initial selection and continuation in office should be free from the influences and necessities of partisan political activity.

(3) Nomination, appointment, election, and retention election. Nomination, appointment, election, retention election, and terms of Justices and Judges are as follows:

a. When a vacancy occurs in the office of Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, Judge of the Appellate Division, or Judge of Superior Court, the Governor shall appoint a person to fill the vacancy from among two nominees of the Judicial Nominating Commission. For purposes of this subsection, creation of a new judgeship creates a vacancy.

b. The term of office by appointment as Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, Judge of the Appellate Division, or Judge of Superior Court extends through January 31 after the next statewide election for members of the General Assembly that is held more than 210 days after the vacancy. That election shall be between the two candidates nominated by the Judicial Nominating Commission, with the winning candidate elected to a regular term.

c. If the person not appointed by the Governor chooses by July 31 of the year of the election not to seek election, the person holding by appointment the office of Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, Judge of the Appellate Division, or Judge of Superior Court who desires to continue in office shall be subject to approval by nonpartisan ballot, by a majority of the votes cast on the issue of the Justice's or Judge's retention. An Associate Justice, Judge of the Appellate Division, or Judge of Superior Court then approved for retention serves a regular term.

d. If the person appointed by the Governor chooses by July 31 of the year of the election not to seek election, the Judicial Nominating Commission shall nominate to the Governor two persons to hold office beginning the next February 1 as if there were a vacancy occurring on that next February 1, and the Governor shall appoint one of them to fill the vacancy.

e. An incumbent Justice or Judge who was successful in a contested election, or was successful in a retention election, files for retention by February 1 of the year of election is subject to approval by nonpartisan ballot, by a majority of the votes cast on the issue of the Justice's or Judge's retention for the subsequent term. If the person does not file for retention by that date, the office shall become vacant at the end of the term of office, and it shall be filled by nomination and appointment as prescribed in this section as if the vacancy occurred on February 1 after the election.

f. The regular terms of office of the Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, Judge of the Court of Appeals, and Judge of Superior Court is eight years and expires on January 31.

g. If the voters fail to approve the retention in office of an Associate Justice, Judge of the Court of Appeals, or Judge of Superior Court serving an appointed or regular term, the office shall become vacant at the end of the term of office and it shall be filled by nomination and appointment as prescribed in this section as if the vacancy occurred on February 1 after the election.

h. The General Assembly shall implement this Section by general law.

(4) Chief Justice. If a vacancy occurs in the office of Chief Justice, the Governor shall appoint to that office an Associate Justice who was elected to that position to serve as Chief Justice. The person appointed to be Chief Justice shall serve in that capacity for the remaining portion of the term to which the person serving was elected as Associate Justice. At the end of the term, the person so appointed shall be subject to a retention election as if the position were Associate Justice under subsection (3) of this Section. If there is no Associate Justice who was elected, the Governor shall appoint an Associate Justice to be Chief Justice, and the person shall be treated as if filling a vacancy as Associate Justice under subsection (3) of this Section.

Appointment of an Associate Justice as Chief Justice creates a vacancy in the office of Associate Justice.

(5) Transition provisions. The term of office of a person who has been elected before January 1, 2013, to the office of Chief Justice, Associate Justice, or Judge of the Appellate Division for a term which extends beyond January 1, 2013, and who is in office on December 31, 2012, is extended through January 31 of the year following the eighth year after the date any such Justice or Judge was last elected to the office. If the person so elected continues to serve for the remainder of the term, that person may stand for retention in the office for a succeeding regular term as provided in this Section, subject to the provisions of law relating to mandatory retirement. If the person continues to serve for the remainder of the term but does not stand for retention election, a vacancy is created in the office upon expiration of the term, and this vacancy shall be filled by nomination and appointment as provided in this Section.

The term of office of a person who has been appointed prior to January 1, 2013, to a vacancy occurring during the period beginning on the sixtieth day before the 2012 general election and ending December 31, 2012, to the office of Chief Justice, Associate Justice, or Judge of the Appellate Division for a term which extends beyond January 1, 2013, and who is in office on December 31, 2012, shall end on January 31, 2015. If the person so appointed continues to serve for the remainder of the term, that person may stand for retention in the office for a regular term as provided by this Section at the statewide election for members of the General Assembly held in 2014.

Upon the death, resignation, removal, or retirement of any incumbent Justice or Judge on or after January 1, 2013, and before the expiration of the Justice's or Judge's term of office, the resulting vacancy shall be filled by nomination and appointment as provided in this Section.

Vacancies in judicial offices in the Appellate Division occurring before January 1, 2012, and not filled by that date, shall be filled by nomination and appointment as provided in this Section.

From the date any incumbent described in this subsection is continued in office by retention vote for a term next succeeding the term in progress on January 1, 2013, or is succeeded in office by another person, the office is held subject to the provisions of this Section.

(6) The General Assembly shall create by law a Judicial Nominating Commission. Once established, the composition and method of choosing the members of the Commission shall not be changed except by a law approved by two-thirds of the members of each house present and voting. The law may provide for direct appointments by officers and leaders of the General Assembly. Except to fill a vacancy in the office of Chief Justice as provided by this Section, the Judicial Nominating Commission shall recommend two eligible persons to fill the vacancy, and the Governor may only appoint a person so recommended.

(7) The General Assembly may implement this Section by general law."

SECTION 2. The amendment set out in Section 1 of this act shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the State at an election on November 6, 2012, which election shall be conducted under the laws then governing elections in the State. Ballots, voting systems, or both may be used in accordance with Chapter 163 of the General Statutes. The question on the ballot shall be:

"[ ] FOR [ ] AGAINST

Constitutional amendment to replace the present practice of selecting Justices and Judges of the Appellate Division and Judges of the Superior Court by gubernatorial appointment, followed by elections, with a method by which (i) two candidates for Justice and Judge will be nominated by a nominating commission, the Governor will appoint one of them, and at the next election the voters will choose in a nonpartisan election between the two persons, (ii) at the end of the term of a Justice or Judge who has successfully won an election, the question of the Justice's or Judge's retention in office is submitted for approval or disapproval by nonpartisan vote of the people, (iii) provision is made for the case of withdrawal of a candidate before the election, and (iv) provision is made for appointment of the Chief Justice from among the Associate Justices."

SECTION 3. If a majority of votes cast on the question are in favor of the amendment set out in Section 1 of this act, the State Board of Elections shall certify the amendment to the Secretary of State. The amendment becomes effective upon this certification. The Secretary of State shall enroll the amendment so certified among the permanent records of that office.

SECTION 4. Chapter 7A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new Article to read:

"Article 1A.

"Appointment of Justices and Judges; Retention Elections.

"§ 7A-4.1. Nomination of justices and judges by Judicial Nominating Commission and appointment by Governor.

Vacancies in the offices of justice of the Supreme Court, judge of the Court of Appeals, and judge of superior court are filled by nomination of two candidates by the Judicial Nomination Commission and appointment of one of the two nominees by the Governor in accordance with Section 16 of Article IV of the North Carolina Constitution.

"§ 7A-4.2. Judicial Nominating Commission – creation; membership; terms; administration.

(a) The Judicial Nominating Commission is created within the Administrative Office of the Courts for budgetary purposes.

(5) One person who is not an attorney, appointed by the minority leader of the House of Representatives.

(6) One person who is not an attorney, appointed by the majority leader or minority leader of the Senate of the party with which the Governor is not affiliated.

(7) One person who is not an attorney, appointed by the majority leader or minority leader of the House of Representatives of the party with which the Governor is not affiliated.

(8) One person appointed by the Governor from a list of three persons authorized to practice law in the courts of this State, submitted by the North Carolina Bar Association.

(9) One person appointed by the Governor from a list of three persons authorized to practice law in the courts of this State, submitted by the North Carolina Advocates For Justice, Inc.

(10) One person appointed by the Governor from a list of three persons authorized to practice law in the courts of this State, submitted by the North Carolina Association of Defense Attorneys.

(11) One person appointed by the Governor from a list of three persons authorized to practice law in the courts of this State, submitted by the North Carolina Association of Women Attorneys, Inc.

(12) One person appointed by the Governor from a list of three persons authorized to practice law in the courts of this State, submitted by the North Carolina Association of Black Lawyers, Inc.

(13) One person appointed by the Governor from a list of three persons authorized to practice law in the courts of this State, submitted by the Council of the State Bar.

(14) One person appointed by the Governor from a list of three persons authorized to practice law in the courts of this State, submitted by the North Carolina Conference of District Attorneys.

(15) One person appointed by the Governor from a list of three persons authorized to practice law in the courts of this State, submitted by the Commission on Indigent Defense Services.

(c) In addition to the voting members, all retired Chief Justices are nonvoting members, but shall not be considered in determining a quorum, and may serve in addition to any other offices they are authorized to hold under Chapter 128 of the General Statutes.

(d) Members of the Commission shall serve staggered four-year terms. One-half of the appointees shall serve an initial term of two years, as determined by lot at the first meeting of the Commission. The remainder of the appointees shall serve an initial term of four years. Commission members may not serve more than one full four-year term.

(e) Vacancies in the membership of the Commission shall be filled for the remainder of the unexpired term by the appointing officer who made the initial appointment under the same process as a regular appointment.

(f) The Governor shall appoint a chair from among the voting membership to serve a two-year term. The Commission shall appoint from among its membership a vice-chair for a two-year term and shall appoint a Secretary.

(g) Members of the Commission shall not receive compensation but shall be paid necessary subsistence and travel expenses as provided by G.S. 138-5 and G.S. 138-6 as applicable, paid from funds appropriated to implement this Article and within the limits of those funds.

(h) No member of the General Assembly shall serve concurrently as a member of the Commission.

(i) In making appointments to the Commission from among lists of three nominated persons, the Governor shall consider and give due regard to the following:

(1) An even balance of party affiliation.

(2) Law practice background, practice area, and practice setting.

(3) Race and ethnicity.

(4) Gender.

(5) Geography.

"§ 7A-4.3. Judicial Nominating Commission; duties.

The Commission shall do the following:

(1) Establish operating procedures for the Commission.

(2) Solicit judicial nominations from interested persons and members of the general public to fill appellate and superior court vacancies.

(3) Establish and publicize the procedures for submitting a candidate to be considered by the Commission.

(4) Interview and investigate candidates for judicial appointment to the appellate courts.

(5) Nominate persons to the Governor for appointment to the appellate and superior courts.

(6) Review and evaluate the tenure of justices and judges who must stand for a contested or retention election.

(7) Issue a report on justices and judges standing for a contested or retention election 90 days before the election. The report shall include (i) information the Commission believes would be helpful to the citizens of North Carolina and (ii) information regarding any disciplinary action taken against a justice or judge during tenure. The report may include a recommendation by the Commission for or against the justice's or judge's retention.

(8) Perform any other duties the Commission deems necessary to carry out the mandate of this Article.

"§ 7A-4.4. Nomination procedures.

(a) The Commission shall conduct an investigation of a candidate for nomination based on criteria it establishes, including the following at a minimum:

(1) Integrity.

(2) Legal knowledge and ability.

(3) Professional experience demonstrating excellence in the profession.

(4) Judicial temperament.

(5) Diligence.

(6) Health.

(7) Personal financial responsibility.

(8) Public service.

(b) In choosing nominees, the Commission shall foster diversity in race, sex, ethnicity, geography, and professional experience.

(c) The Commission shall establish a procedure for eligible persons to submit themselves as candidates for nomination. If fewer than two eligible persons apply, the Commission shall reopen the process one time.

(d) A candidate for nomination shall be given an opportunity to present to the Commission any information that the candidate determines to be appropriate.

(e) The commission shall not investigate any candidate for nomination who is not eligible to hold the office.

(f) Notwithstanding G.S. 7A-377, the Commission may inspect the files of the Judicial Standards Commission by request of the chair of the Commission. Testimony and other evidence presented to the Commission are privileged in any action for defamation.

(g) The Commission shall nominate two persons to be considered by the Governor for judicial appointment within 60 days of any vacancy in office. The Governor shall appoint one of the persons nominated by the Commission.

(h) The internal files and information obtained by the Commission during the examination of a potential judicial nominee are not public records until such time as the candidate is recommended to the Governor for a judicial appointment. Nominations, the Commission's vote on judicial nominees, and reports made by the Commission are public records.

"§ 7A-4.5. Governor to issue commissions to justices and judges.

Every person duly nominated by the Judicial Nomination Commission and appointed by the Governor as Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, judge of the Court of Appeals, or judge of superior court shall procure from the Governor a commission attesting that fact."

SECTION 5. G.S. 7A-10(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) The Supreme Court shall consist of a Chief Justice and six associate justices, ~~elected by the qualified voters of the State for terms of eight years.~~selected as provided by Article 1A of this Chapter. Before entering upon the duties of his office, each justice shall take an oath of office. Four justices shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of the business of the court. Sessions of the court shall be held in the city of Raleigh, and scheduled by rule of court so as to discharge expeditiously the court's business. The court may by rule hold sessions not more than twice annually in the Old Chowan County Courthouse (1767) in the Town of Edenton, which is a State-owned court facility that is designated as a National Historic Landmark by the United States Department of the Interior."

SECTION 6. G.S. 7A-16 reads as rewritten:

"§ 7A-16. Creation and organization.

~~The Court of Appeals is created effective January 1, 1967. It shall consist initially of six judges, elected by the qualified voters of the State for terms of eight years. The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court shall designate one of the judges as Chief Judge, to serve in such capacity at the pleasure of the Chief Justice. Before entering upon the duties of his office, a judge of the Court of Appeals shall take the oath of office prescribed for a judge of the General Court of Justice.~~

~~The Governor on or after July 1, 1967, shall make temporary appointments to the six initial judgeships. The appointees shall serve until January 1, 1969. Their successors shall be elected at the general election for members of the General Assembly in November, 1968, and shall take office on January 1, 1969, to serve for the remainder of the unexpired term which began on January 1, 1967.~~

~~Upon the appointment of at least five judges, and the designation of a Chief Judge, the court is authorized to convene, organize, and promulgate, subject to the approval of the Supreme Court, such supplementary rules as it deems necessary and appropriate for the discharge of the judicial business lawfully assigned to it.~~

~~Effective January 1, 1969, the number of judges is increased to nine, and the Governor, on or after March 1, 1969, shall make temporary appointments to the additional judgeships thus created. The appointees shall serve until January 1, 1971. Their successors shall be elected at the general election for members of the General Assembly in November, 1970, and shall take office on January 1, 1971, to serve for the remainder of the unexpired term which began on January 1, 1969.~~

~~Effective January 1, 1977, the number of judges is increased to 12; and the Governor, on or after July 1, 1977, shall make temporary appointments to the additional judgeships thus created. The appointees shall serve until January 1, 1979. Their successors shall be elected at the general election for members of the General Assembly in November, 1978, and shall take office on January 1, 1979, to serve the remainder of the unexpired term which began on January 1, 1977.~~

~~On or after December 15, 2000, the Governor shall appoint three additional judges to increase the number of judges to 15.~~

The Court of Appeals shall consist of 15 judges, selected as provided in Article 1A of this Chapter. The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court shall designate one of the judges as Chief Judge to serve in such capacity at the pleasure of the Chief Justice. Before entering upon the duties of his office, a judge of the Court of Appeals shall take the oath of office prescribed for a judge of the General Court of Justice.

The Court of Appeals shall sit in panels of three judges each. The Chief Judge insofar as practicable shall assign the members to panels in such fashion that each member sits a substantially equal number of times with each other member. He shall preside over the panel of which he is a member, and shall designate the presiding judge of the other panel or panels.

Three judges shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of the business of the court, except as may be provided in G.S. 7A-32.

In the event the Chief Judge is unable, on account of absence or temporary incapacity, to perform the duties placed upon him as Chief Judge, the Chief Justice shall appoint an acting Chief Judge from the other judges of the Court, to temporarily discharge the duties of Chief Judge."

SECTION 7. G.S. 163-1 is amended in the table by deleting the entries for "Justices and Judges of the Appellate Division."

SECTION 8. G.S. 163-9 reads as rewritten:

"§ 163-9. Filling vacancies in ~~State and district judicial offices.~~district court.

~~(a) Vacancies occurring in the offices of Justice of the Supreme Court, judge of the Court of Appeals, and judge of the superior court for causes other than expiration of term shall be filled by appointment of the Governor. An appointee to the office of Justice of the Supreme Court or judge of the Court of Appeals shall hold office until January 1 next following the election for members of the General Assembly that is held more than 60 days after the vacancy occurs, at which time an election shall be held for an eight-year term and until a successor is elected and qualified.~~

~~(b) Except for judges specified in the next paragraph of this subsection, an appointee to the office of judge of superior court shall hold his place until the next election for members of the General Assembly that is held more than 60 days after the vacancy occurs, at which time an election shall be held to fill the unexpired term of the office.~~

~~Appointees for judges of the superior court from any district:~~

~~(1) With only one resident judge; or~~

~~(2) In which no county is subject to section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965,~~ ~~shall hold the office until the next election of members of the General Assembly that is held more than 60 days after the vacancy occurs, at which time an election shall be held to fill an eight-year term.~~

~~(c) When the unexpired term of the office in which the vacancy has occurred expires on the first day of January succeeding the next election for members of the General Assembly, the Governor shall appoint to fill that vacancy for the unexpired term of the office.~~

(d) Vacancies in the office of district judge which occur before the expiration of a term shall not be filled by election. Vacancies in the office of district judge shall be filled in accordance with G.S. 7A-142."

SECTION 9. G.S. 143-318.11(a) is amended by adding the following new subdivision to read:

"(10) To consider the qualifications, competence, performance, character, and fitness of a candidate who is seeking a judicial nomination to the Governor by the Judicial Nominating Commission."

SECTION 10. The title of Subchapter X of Chapter 163 of the General Statutes reads as rewritten:

"SUBCHAPTER X. ELECTION AND RETENTION ELECTION OF ~~APPELLATE, SUPERIOR,~~ APPELLATE AND SUPERIOR COURT JUDGES, AND ELECTION OF ~~AND~~ DISTRICT COURT JUDGES."

SECTION 11. G.S. 163-321 reads as rewritten:

"§ 163-321. Applicability.

The ~~nomination and~~ election and retention election of justices of the Supreme Court, judges of the Court of Appeals, and superior court judges and the nomination and election of district court judges of the General Court of Justice shall be as provided by this Article."

SECTION 12. G.S. 163-323 reads as rewritten:

"§ 163-323. Notice of candidacy.

(a) Form of Notice. – Each person offering to be a candidate for election as district court judge shall do so by filing a notice of candidacy with the State Board of Elections in the following form, inserting the words in parentheses when appropriate:

Date: _____

I hereby file notice that I am a candidate for election to the office of _____ district court judge in the regular election to be held _____, ____.

Signed: _____
(Name of Candidate)

Witness: _____

The notice of candidacy shall be either signed in the presence of the chairman or secretary of the State Board of Elections, or signed and acknowledged before an officer authorized to take acknowledgments who shall certify the notice under seal. An acknowledged and certified notice may be mailed to the State Board of Elections. In signing a notice of candidacy, the candidate shall use only the candidate's legal name and, in his discretion, any nickname by which commonly known. A candidate may also, in lieu of that candidate's first name and legal middle initial or middle name, if any, sign that candidate's nickname, provided the candidate appends to the notice of candidacy an affidavit that the candidate has been commonly known by that nickname for at least five years prior to the date of making the affidavit. The candidate shall also include with the affidavit the way the candidate's name (as permitted by law) should be listed on the ballot if another candidate with the same last name files a notice of candidacy for that office.

A notice of candidacy signed by an agent or any person other than the candidate himself shall be invalid.

(b) Time for Filing Notice of Candidacy. – Candidates seeking election to the following offices shall file their notice of candidacy with the State Board of Elections no earlier than 12:00 noon on the second Monday in February and no later than 12:00 noon on the last business day in February preceding the election:

~~Justices of the Supreme Court.~~
~~Judges of the Court of Appeals.~~
~~Judges of the superior courts.~~
Judges of the district courts.

(c) Withdrawal of Notice of Candidacy. – Any person who has filed a notice of candidacy for an office shall have the right to withdraw it at any time prior to the date on which the right to file for that office expires under the terms of subsection (b) of this section.

(d) Certificate That Candidate Is Registered Voter. – Candidates shall file along with their notice a certificate signed by the chairman of the board of elections or the supervisor of elections of the county in which they are registered to vote, stating that the person is registered to vote in that county, and if the candidacy is for superior court judge and the county contains more than one superior court district, stating the superior court district of which the person is a resident. In issuing such certificate, the chairman or supervisor shall check the registration records of the county to verify such information. During the period commencing 36 hours immediately preceding the filing deadline, the State Board of Elections shall accept, on a conditional basis, the notice of candidacy of a candidate who has failed to secure the verification ordered herein subject to receipt of verification no later than three days following the filing deadline. The State Board of Elections shall prescribe the form for such certificate, and distribute it to each county board of elections no later than the last Monday in December of each odd-numbered year.

(e) Candidacy for More Than One Office Prohibited. – No person may file a notice of candidacy for more than one office ~~or group of offices~~ described in subsection (b) of this section, or for an office ~~or group of offices~~ described in subsection (b) of this section and an office described in G.S. 163-106(c), for any one election. If a person has filed a notice of candidacy with a board of elections under this section or under G.S. 163-106(c) for one office or group of offices, then a notice of candidacy may not later be filed for any other office or group of offices under this section when the election is on the same date unless the notice of candidacy for the first office is withdrawn under subsection (c) of this section.

(f) Notice of Candidacy for Certain Offices to Indicate Vacancy. – In any election in which there are two or more vacancies for the office of ~~justice of the Supreme Court, judge of the Court of Appeals, or~~ district court judge to be filled by nominations, each candidate shall, at the time of filing notice of candidacy, file with the State Board of Elections a written statement designating the vacancy to which the candidate seeks election. Votes cast for a candidate shall be effective only for election to the vacancy for which the candidate has given notice of candidacy as provided in this subsection.

A person seeking election for a specialized district judgeship established under G.S. 7A-147 shall, at the time of filing notice of candidacy, file with the State Board of Elections a written statement designating the specialized judgeship to which the person seeks nomination.

~~(g) No person may file a notice of candidacy for superior court judge unless that person is at the time of filing the notice of candidacy a resident of the judicial district as it will exist at the time the person would take office if elected. No person may be nominated as a superior court judge under G.S. 163-114 unless that person is at the time of nomination a resident of the judicial district as it will exist at the time the person would take office if elected. This subsection implements Article IV, Section 9(1) of the North Carolina Constitution which requires regular Superior Court Judges to reside in the district for which elected.~~"

SECTION 13. G.S. 163-325 reads as rewritten:

"§ 163-325. Petition in lieu of payment of filing fee.

(a) General. – Any qualified voter who seeks election as district court judge under this Article may, in lieu of payment of any filing fee required for the office he seeks, file a written petition requesting him to be a candidate for a specified office with the State Board of Elections.

(b) Requirements of Petition; Deadline for Filing. – If the candidate is seeking the office of ~~justice of the Supreme Court, judge of the Court of Appeals, or superior or~~ district court judge, that individual shall file a written petition with the State Board of Elections no later than 12:00 noon on Monday preceding the filing deadline before the primary. ~~If the office is justice of the Supreme Court or judge of the Court of Appeals, the petition shall be signed by 10,000 registered voters in the State. If the office is superior court or district court judge, the~~ The petition shall be signed by ten percent (10%) of the registered voters of the election area in which the office will be voted for. The board of elections shall verify the names on the petition, and if the petition and notice of candidacy are found to be sufficient, the candidate's name shall be printed on the appropriate ballot. Petitions must be presented to the county board of elections for verification at least 15 days before the petition is due to be filed with the State Board of Elections. The State Board of Elections may adopt rules to implement this section and to provide standard petition forms."

SECTION 14. G.S. 163-326(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Notification of Local Boards. – No later than 10 days after the time for filing notices of candidacy under the provisions of G.S. 163-323(b) has expired, the chairman of the State Board of Elections shall certify to the chairman of the county board of elections in each county in the appropriate district the names of candidates for nomination to the offices of ~~justice of the Supreme Court, judge of the Court of Appeals, and superior and~~ district court judge who have filed the required notice and paid the required filing fee or presented the required petition to the State Board of Elections, so that their names may be printed on the official ~~judicial ballot for justice of the Supreme Court, judge of the Court of Appeals, and superior and district court.~~ ballot."

SECTION 15. G.S. 163-328(e) is repealed.

SECTION 16. G.S. 163-329(a) is repealed.

SECTION 17. G.S. 163-329(b1) is repealed.

SECTION 18. G.S. 163-332(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Ballots to Be Furnished by County Board of Elections. – It shall be the duty of the county board of elections to print official ballots for the following offices to be voted for in the primary:

Justice of the Supreme Court.
Judge of the Court of Appeals.
Superior court judge.
District court judge.

In printing ballots, the county board of elections shall be governed by instructions of the State Board of Elections with regard to width, color, kind of paper, form, and size of type.

Three days before the election, the chairman of the county board of elections shall distribute official ballots to the chief judge of each precinct in his county, and the chief judge shall give a receipt for the ballots received. On the day of the primary, it shall be the chief judge's duty to have all the ballots so delivered available for use at the precinct voting place.

Ballots for justice of the supreme court, judge of the Court of Appeals, and superior court judge shall be either (i) between the two candidates nominated by the Judicial Nominating Commission in accordance with Section 16 of Article IV of the North Carolina Constitution, G.S. 7A-4.4, and G.S. 163-331.1 or (ii) on the question of retention of the justice or judge in accordance with Section 16 of Article IV of the North Carolina Constitution and G.S. 163-331.2."

SECTION 19. Article 25 of Chapter 163 of the General Statutes is amended by adding new sections to read:

"§ 163-333.1. Contested election after appointment by the Governor.

(a) When two persons have been nominated by the Judicial Nominating Commission for the Governor to appoint to fill a vacancy, and an election is to be held in accordance with Section 16 of Article IV of the North Carolina Constitution between the person appointed by the Governor and the person not appointed by the Governor, it shall be held under the applicable provisions of this Chapter. The ballot shall allow the voter to choose between the two candidates, and the party affiliation of the two candidates shall not appear on the ballot.

(b) If the nominee of the Judicial Nominating Commission not appointed by the Governor to fill the vacancy files with the State Board of Elections prior to August 1 of the year of the election notice that the person does not seek election, no election shall be held under this section, but a retention election shall be held under G.S. 163-331.2.

(c) If the person appointed by the Governor prior to August 1 of the year of the election files notice with the State Board of Elections that the person chooses not to seek election, no election shall be held under this Article that year, and the Judicial Nominating Commission shall nominate to the Governor two persons to hold office beginning the next February 1 as if there were a vacancy occurring on that next February 1, and the Governor shall appoint one of them to fill the vacancy.

(d) Any notice under this section shall be on a form prescribed by the State Board of Elections.

"§ 163-331.2. Retention elections.

(a) As provided by Section 16 of Article IV of the North Carolina Constitution, an Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, judge of the Court of Appeals, or judge of superior court desiring to continue in office shall be subject to approval by nonpartisan ballot, by a majority of votes cast on the issue of the justice's or judge's retention. This section applies (i) when the incumbent was elected to that term under G.S. 163-331.1(a), (ii) when the person not appointed declines candidacy under G.S. 163-331.1(b), (iii) where an Associate Justice has been appointed Chief Justice under Section 16(4) of Article IV of the North Carolina Constitution and seeks retention at the end of the term as provided therein, or (iv) in the case of a person holding office on December 31, 2012, where the provisions of Section 16(5) of Article IV of the North Carolina Constitution provides for a retention election in 2014.

(b) A person subject to subsection (a) of this section shall indicate the choice to continue in office by filing a notice to that effect with the State Board of Elections no later than 12:00 noon on February 1 in the year of the election. The notice shall be on a form approved by the State Board of Elections. Notice can be withdrawn at any time prior to the deadline for filing notice under this subsection.

(c) Retention elections shall be conducted and canvassed in accordance with rules of the State Board of Elections in the same general manner as general elections under Chapter 163 of the General Statutes, except that the retention election is nonpartisan. The form of the ballot shall be determined by the State Board of Elections. The ballot shall ask whether the named justice or judge shall continue in an office for another term.

(d) If a person who has filed a notice calling a retention election dies or is removed from office prior to the time that the ballots are printed, the retention election is cancelled. If a person who has filed a notice calling a retention election dies or is removed from office after the ballots are printed, the State Board of Elections may cancel the election if it determines that the ballots can be reprinted without significant expense. If the ballots cannot be reprinted, then the results of the election shall be ineffective."

SECTION 20. G.S. 163-182.16 reads as rewritten:

"§ 163-182.16. Governor to issue commissions for certain offices.

The Secretary of State shall send a notice to the Governor that a certificate of election has been issued for any of the following offices, and upon receiving the notice, the Governor shall provide to each such elected official a commission attesting to that person's ~~election:~~ election or retention:

(1) Members of the United States House of Representatives.

(2) Justices, judges, and district attorneys of the General Court of Justice."

SECTION 21. Sections 4 through 20 of this act are effective only if the constitutional amendment proposed by Section 1 of this act is approved by the qualified voters in accordance with Section 2 of this act.

SECTION 22. Except as otherwise provided for herein, this act is effective when it becomes law.

SENATE BILL 458:

Introduced by:	Sens. Clodfelter, Hartsell	Prepared by:	R. Erika Churchill
Analysis of:	First Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 458 would amend the constitution of North Carolina, upon voter approval, to provide for appointment, election and retention election of justices and judges of the Appellate Courts and Superior Courts.

CURRENT LAW: The North Carolina Court System is comprised of the Trial Division and the Appellate Division. The Trial Division includes the Superior and District courts. The Appellate Division includes the Court of Appeals and the Supreme Court.

Under Section 16 of Article IV of the State Constitution, Justices of the Supreme Court, Judges of the Court of Appeals, and Judges of the Superior Court are elected by the voters and serve 8 year terms. The General Assembly is to set a mandatory retirement age for justices and judges (Article IV, Section 8), which has been set as the last day of the month in which the justice or judge reaches age 72 (G.S. 7A-4.20).

The Supreme Court consists of a Chief Justice and 6 Associate Justices; the General Assembly is authorized to increase the number of Associate Justices to not more than eight. Article IV, Section 6. The Court of Appeals structure, organization and composition is to be determined by the General Assembly, with no less than 5 members. Article IV, Section 7. Currently, the Court of Appeals consists of a total of 15 members, sitting in panels of 3 judges each. G.S. 7A-16. The Superior Court is to be divided into a convenient number of districts, with each judge residing in the district from which he or she is elected. Additional special and emergency judges may be provided for by statute. Article IV, Section 9.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Sections 1-3. Constitutional Amendment.

The bill would amend the constitution of North Carolina to provide for appointment, then contested election, then retention election for justices and judges of the Appellate Courts and Superior Court. The constitutional amendment would be on the ballot for voter approval in the 2012 general election, and become effective if a majority of the voters approve the amendment.

Under the constitutional amendment, appointment, election and retention election would occur as follows:

- Associate Justice of the Appellate Court or Judge of the Superior Court
  - Upon vacancy, the Judicial Nomination Commission sends forth 2 names to the Governor. The Governor appoints one of the two.
  - The appointee serves through January 31 after the next statewide general election for the General Assembly that is held more than 210 days after the vacancy.
  - In the year of the election, the appointee and the person not appointed must decide whether or not they will seek election by July 31st. If the appointee decides not to run, the Judicial Nominating Commission is to present a list of 2 names for appointment to fill the vacancy beginning the next February 1st. If the person not appointed decided not to run, the appointee is to be placed on the ballot for retention.

- After election, the justice or judge serves for a term of 8 years.
- After the 8 year term, the justice or judge is on the ballot for a retention election, after filing for such by February 1 of the year of the election.

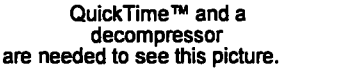
- Chief Justice
  - A vacancy in the office of Chief Justice is filled by appointment by the Governor. The appointee must be an elected Associate Justice. It there is no elected Associate Justice, then the Governor appoints an associate justice, and an election is held as if for filling a vacancy for associate justice.

The General Assembly is to enact statutory provisions to implement the constitutional amendment. Once enacted, a 2/3 vote of the General Assembly would be needed to amend the statutory provisions.

Section 4. Judicial Nomination Commission.

The Judicial Nomination Commission would be created, consisting of 16 members, one half lawyers, one half non-lawyers. Appointments would be made by the Governor, the President Pro Tem, the Speaker, the majority leaders of each chamber, and the minority leaders of each chamber. Terms would be for 4 years, with vacancies filled by the appointing authority. Persons could only serve one full 4 year term.

The Commission would be charged with interviewing and investigating candidates for judicial appointment to the Appellate Courts, nominating candidates for Superior Court, reviewing and evaluating the tenure of justices and judges, and issuing a report on justices and judges standing for contested election, including recommendations for or against a candidate and disclosing any disciplinary actions against the candidate.



The Commission would investigate nominees, including integrity, legal knowledge and ability, professional experience, judicial temperament, diligence, health, personal financial responsibility, and public service. The Commission would have access to inspect files of the Judicial Standards Commission.

Sections 5-20. Conforming changes.

Conforming changes to existing statutory provisions providing for election of justices and judges, and enacting new sections to establish new procedures for election and retention of appointed justices and judges.

EFFECTIVE DATE: Effective when it becomes law, with a majority vote of the people for the constitutional amendment.

S458-SMST-31(e1) v1

In 2008, the NC Center for Voter Education launched the Better Courts Project as a three to five year campaign to carry out the public education and outreach necessary to raise awareness and understanding of important issues relating to the judiciary.

In the first year, the Better Courts Project engaged in the most extensive research on North Carolina public attitudes concerning the courts in nearly two decades. Combining public opinion research with focus group surveys, the Center captured a very detailed picture of how North Carolinians view their state judiciary. A full report of the 2008 work is available from Center staff, but two areas seem most relevant to the current discussion:

- Most North Carolinians (60%) say they are either "not too familiar" or "not familiar at all" with the way judges in North Carolina are selected. Only 2% considered themselves to be very familiar about the judicial selection process.

- When respondents were asked to choose between having voters elect judges or the governor appoint them, a solid majority (77%) said they preferred having voters elect statewide judges.

Following up on the extensive research in 2008, the Center recently conducted a statewide survey about two specific proposals currently being discussed. The results of this poll, conducted in April of 2009, are below. It is important to not underestimate the public's desire to have a say in judicial selection. Even if voters self-identify as uninformed, they still overwhelmingly support a competitive elections. Therefore, in order for any proposal to muster public support, some form of competitive election must be preserved.

NORTH CAROLINA SURVEY

There is a proposal in the General Assembly right now that would alter the way statewide judges in North Carolina are chosen. They would be nominated by a commission and then appointed by the Governor. After a set period of time a 'retention' election would be held where the voters would have an up or down vote on keeping that individual in office or ending their term. What is your position on this proposal?

24% Strongly Support
28% Somewhat Support	TOTAL SUPPORT	52%
13% Somewhat Oppose	TOTAL OPPOSE	30%
17% Strongly Oppose
19% Not Sure

Another proposal in the General Assembly right now would also change the way judges are elected. It would create a commission that would allow individuals to apply for statewide judicial positions, then choose the top two candidates. Voters would then choose between the recommended candidates in a statewide election. What is your position on this proposal?

22% Strongly Support
33% Somewhat Support	TOTAL SUPPORT	55%
14% Somewhat Oppose	TOTAL OPPOSE	23%
9% Strongly Oppose
22% Not Sure

If you had a choice between the two proposals I just outlined, would your preference be the one where the Governor appointed judges who were then subject to a retention election, or one where a commission chose two candidates and let the voters pick between them?

21% Retention Election	APPOINTED	21%
65% Commission Chooses 'Finalists'	VOTERS PICK	65%
14% Not Sure

Merit Selection: Some Facts

- Judicial nominating commissions represent the interests of the community and guarantee legal expertise in a nonpolitical screening process. Unlike political appointments by governors or contested elections, merit selection systems guarantee input from the public and the specialized knowledge of lawyers in choosing judges. A survey of nominating commissioners found that lawyers value the role of non-lawyers in the process and non-lawyers likewise value the input of lawyers. The typical composition of nominating commissions ensures a balance between professional assessment of an applicant's legal ability and the voice of citizens. Only 1% of commissioners reported that political considerations were regularly included in commission deliberations.

- Merit selection is good for economic growth. A vibrant business climate that can create jobs depends upon a state's commitment to the rule of law, including fair and impartial courts that bring stability and consistency to economic decision-making. Each year, the U.S. Chamber Institute for Legal Reform ranks all states' litigation environments. In the 2010 survey, 4 of the 5 "best" states use merit selection for all appellate court judges; 4 of the 5 "worst" use judicial elections. Of those surveyed for the report, 37% list "Biased/Partial Juries or Judges" as the most important factor in creating an unfair and unreasonable litigation environment. Four of the five states ranked as having the most impartial judges use merit selection to choose all appellate judges. All of the states ranked "worst" for impartiality use judicial elections.

- Merit selection produces ethical judges. An AJS study of six states finds that elected judges are more frequently disciplined for ethical violations than are judges chosen through merit selection. When disciplined, the harshest punishments were generally given to elected judges, indicating that elected judges are more frequently engaged in more egregious ethical violations than are merit-selected judges.

- Merit selection advances diversity on the bench. Recent AJS research indicates that merit selection is the most effective way to advance diversity on state high courts. Even after controlling for a wide range of factors that may influence diversity on the bench, merit selection significantly increases the likelihood that minorities will be chosen to serve on state supreme courts. Ongoing research has consistently found that merit selection is as effective as other methods of selection for promoting women and minorities to the state bench.

- Judicial retention elections are generally inexpensive—bucking a national trend of soaring special-interest group contributions in competitive court races. According to "The New Politics of Judicial Elections, 2000-2009: Decade of Change," more than $204 million was raised by candidates in contestable judicial elections. During the same period, less than $2.3 million was raised by all judges running in retention elections nationwide. In 2010, retention elections in Iowa and several other states generated increased spending and interest-group involvement. AJS expressed concerns about trends in retention elections in a December 2010 editorial.

The American Judicature Society strongly supports the merit selection system, believing that it lessons political influence in judicial appointments while providing for accountability to the public. In a merit selection system, a commission screens potential appointees and presents a list of qualified candidates to the governor. The governor then appoints one person from the list. Once appointed, judges in most states run in regular retention elections, where the public has the opportunity to remove them from the bench. Merit selection reduces the role of special interests and money in the selection process, and increases the quality of state judges, thereby increasing the public's trust and confidence in a fair and independent judiciary.

The American Judicature Society works to maintain the independence and integrity of the courts and increase public understanding of the justice system. AJS is a nonpartisan organization based in Des Moines, Iowa, with a national membership of judges, lawyers and other citizens interested in the administration of justice. SENATE BILL 435

Short Title:	Civil Pro./Require Certificate of Merit.	(Public)
Sponsors:	Senator Hartsell.
Referred to:	Judiciary I.

March 29, 2011

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT REQUIRING A CERTIFICATE OF MERIT ON CIVIL ACTIONS FILED AGAINST A PERSON OR FIRM PROVIDING ARCHITECTURE OR ENGINEERING SERVICES IN THIS STATE.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Subchapter VI of Chapter 1 of the General Statutes is amended by adding the following new Article to read:

"Article 12A.

"Certificate of Merit for Civil Actions Against Design Professionals.

"§ 1-123.1. Definitions.

The following definitions shall apply in this Article:

(1) Certificate of merit. – A certification from a third-party licensed professional engineer or licensed architect that a civil action filed against a design professional has merit.

(2) Design professional. – A professional engineer licensed pursuant to Chapter 89C of the General Statutes, an architect licensed pursuant to Chapter 83A of the General Statutes, or any firm in which the licensed engineer or architect practices, including a corporation, professional corporation, limited liability corporation, partnership, limited liability partnership, sole proprietorship, joint venture, or any other business entity.

(3) Practice of architecture. – As defined by G.S. 83A-1(7).

(4) Practice of engineering. – As defined by G.S. 89C-3(6).

"§ 1-123.2. Certificate of merit for civil actions against design professionals.

(a) In any civil action or arbitration proceeding for damages arising out of the provision of professional services performed by a design professional, the plaintiff shall be required to file with the complaint an affidavit of a third-party licensed professional engineer or licensed architect. The third-party licensed professional engineer or licensed architect shall (i) be competent to testify and hold the same professional license and practice in the same area of practice as the defendant design professional and (ii) offer testimony based upon knowledge, skill, experience, education, training, and practice. The affidavit shall specifically state for each theory of recovery for which damages are sought, the negligence, if any, or other action, error, or omission of the design professional in providing the professional service, including any error or omission in providing advice, judgment, opinion, or a similar professional skill claimed to exist and the factual basis for each such claim. The third-party licensed professional engineer or licensed architect shall be licensed in this State and actively engaged in the practice of engineering or architecture respectively.

(b) The contemporaneous filing requirement of subsection (a) of this section shall not apply to any case in which the period of limitation will expire within 10 days of the date of filing the action and, because of these time constraints, the plaintiff has alleged that an affidavit of a third-party licensed professional engineer or licensed architect could not be prepared. In these instances, the plaintiff shall have 30 days after the filing of the complaint to supplement the pleadings with the affidavit. The court may, on motion, after hearing and for good cause, extend the time within which the affidavit is to be filed, as justice requires.

(c) The defendant shall not be required to file an answer to the complaint and affidavit until 30 days after the filing of the affidavit.

(d) The plaintiff's failure to file the affidavit in accordance with subsection (a) or (b) of this section shall result in a dismissal of the complaint against the defendant. In the court's discretion, the dismissal may be with prejudice.

(e) An order granting or denying a motion for dismissal is immediately appealable as an interlocutory order.

(f) This section shall not be construed to extend any applicable period of limitation or repose.

(g) This section does not apply to any suit or action for the payment of fees arising out of the provision of professional services performed by a design professional."

SECTION 2. G.S. 1A-1, Rule 9, is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(j1) Civil Actions Against Design Professionals. – Any complaint alleging damages arising out of the provision of professional services performed by a design professional, as defined by G.S. 1-123.1(2), shall be filed in accordance with Article 12A of Chapter 1 of the General Statutes."

SECTION 3. G.S. 89C-10 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(j) The Board shall have the power to adopt rules to discipline professional engineers licensed under this Chapter who certify a civil action that is without merit in violation of Article 12A of Chapter 1 of the General Statutes."

SECTION 4. G.S. 83A-6(a) is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(a) The Board shall have the power to adopt bylaws, rules, and standards of professional conduct to carry out the purposes of this Chapter, including, but not limited to:

(6) The disciplining of architects licensed under this Chapter who certify a civil action that is without merit in violation of Article 12A of Chapter 1 of the General Statutes."

SECTION 5. This act becomes effective October 1, 2011, and applies to complaints and affidavits filed on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 435:
Civil Pro./Require Certificate of Merit

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary I	Date:	April 20, 2011
Introduced by:	Sen. Hartsell	Prepared by:	Susan Sitze
Analysis of:	First Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 435 would require a certificate of merit on civil actions filed against a person or firm providing architecture or engineering services in this State.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 of the bill would amend Chapter 1 of the General Statutes by adding a new Article 12 entitled "Certificate of Merit for Civil Actions Against Design Professionals".

A "design professional" would be a professional engineer licensed pursuant to Chapter 89C, an architect licensed pursuant to Chapter 83A, or any firm in which the licensed engineer or architect practices.

The new Article would require that in any civil action or arbitration proceeding arising out of the provision of professional services by a design professional, except an action for the payment of fees, the plaintiff must file with the complaint an affidavit of a third-party licensed professional who is competent to testify and holds the same professional license in this State and actively practices in the same area as the defendant and who can offer testimony based upon knowledge, skill, experience, education, training, and practice. The affidavit must specifically state the theory of recovery for damages, the exact negligence or error claimed to exist and a factual basis for each claim.

If the period of limitation will expire within 10 days of the date of the filing of the action, and the plaintiff alleges the affidavit cannot be prepared in time because of the time constraint, the plaintiff would have 30 days after the filing of the complaint to supplement the pleadings with the required affidavit. The court may extend the time to file the affidavit upon motion, hearing and good cause. The defendant shall not be required to file an answer to the complaint until 30 days after the filing of the affidavit.

Failure to file the affidavit would result in a dismissal of the complaint, and the court may choose to dismiss with prejudice. An order granting or denying a motion for dismissal is immediately appealable as an interlocutory order.

Section 2 of the bill would make a conforming change to G.S. 1A-1, Rule 9.

Sections 3 & 4 of the bill would amend the statutes relating to professional engineers and architects to allow the respective licensing boards to discipline licensed professional engineers or architects who certify a civil action that is without merit in violation of the provisions of Section 1 of the bill.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The act becomes effective October 1, 2011, and applies to complaints and affidavits filed on or after that date.

GUIDANCE FOR DESIGN PROFESSIONALS

CERTIFICATE OF MERIT LEGISLATION: CLEARING THE JUDICIAL SYSTEM OF MERITLESS CLAIMS

In 1957, Victor O. Schinnerer & Company, Inc.—in conjunction with The American Institute of Architects and the National Society of Professional Engineers—developed the nation's first professional liability insurance policy and risk management program addressing the coverage needs of design professionals. Since that time, Schinnerer, the underwriting manager, and CNA Insurance Companies, the insurer for the program, have kept records of the nature and sources of claims against design professionals insured in the program.

An analysis of claims against construction-related professional firms insured by the CNA/Schinnerer program illustrates the cost and effort spent by firms in defending themselves against meritless claims. These findings indicate that the inefficiencies of the judicial system diminish the ability of firms to effectively provide design services to protect public health, safety and welfare.

Most Claims are Meritless

It is clear from national statistics that design professionals are infrequently found responsible for causing property damage or personal injury through their negligence in providing professional design services. It also becomes apparent that because of the nature of the United States civil justice system and a misunderstanding of the services provided by design professionals, they often are subjected to defending their professional practices against unfounded allegations of negligence. These claims appear to result in:

- unnecessary judicial administrative costs;
- defense costs to those design professionals alleged to be negligent—costs that must be covered by increasing fees to all public and private clients;
- a loss of productivity because of the time that such claims consume;
- groundless damage to the reputation of the firm and its profession; and
- wasted effort by attorneys representing plaintiffs.

Our study of claims on a national basis indicates that from 2000 through 2004 only 29.7 percent of all claims brought against North Carolina design professionals insured in the CNA/Schinnerer program resulted in a payment by the program on behalf of the policyholder to correct property or economic damage or provide a remedy for a personal injury. The national average is 25.6 percent.

This indicates that in 70.3 percent of the claims, design professionals were determined to have had no responsibility for damage or injury as measured by having no indemnity payment by the insurer on behalf of the design professional. In each situation, however, these firms were forced to diminish their productivity by expending their time and money to defend them. Clearly, claims that resulted in no payment to correct damage or harm drained the design professions and the economy of productive time and forced an increase in the cost of providing professional services.

Claims Rarely Require Fault-Based Indemnity

The following table separates claims into those for which the insurer either made no payment whatsoever or paid only expenses, such as defense costs, and those claims that required an indemnity payment by the insurance company on behalf of the insured firm.

Those claims that had sufficient merit—a finding of fault or an agreement to pay—to require the insurance company to pay on behalf of the insured for damage or harm account less than one-third of claims filed. In more than two-thirds of the situations, there was no payment to rectify damage or compensate the party bringing the claims for an injury or loss. In North Carolina it appears that a great percentage of claims brought against design professionals are without merit and produce no recovery to the plaintiff or the plaintiff's attorney.

Every insured firm carries a deductible obligation as part of its professional liability insurance. That deductible is usually consumed by the expense of the firm's defense. Firm's must charge clients to recover these defense costs as well as to pay for insurance coverage and lost productivity. It is clear that construction-related design firms that pay to defend themselves, and erode their productivity by responding to claims without merit, are victimized by a civil justice system that allows specious allegations or unfounded complaints to drive up the operating costs of professional service firms. Firms must pass on to public and private clients a significant cost of claims that result in no payment to remedy damage or injury caused by their negligence.

A certificate of merit system requires that before a negligence claim against a professional is filed, an industry expert must review the facts and certify that the claim is not frivolous. Our legal system, because of the rules of civil procedure, relies on a finder of fact in litigation, usually a jury, to separate claims with factual merit from those that may not be justifiable. A certificate of merit law moves the first step in this procedure to much earlier in the process. It usually requires an affidavit from an expert in the field in question to specify the factual basis for a claim. Thus, meritorious lawsuits survive this process while claims with no merit are removed from the legal system. Plaintiffs benefit because they can better focus their claim on facts. Attorneys representing plaintiffs benefit because they do not have to bring parties into litigation from whom the plaintiff will not recover. Defendants benefit because they no longer have significant defense costs or damage to their reputations from meritless claims. And our society benefits because the costs of litigation and of lost productivity are minimized.

SENATE BILL 356*

Short Title:	No Filing for Party and Unaffiliated.	(Public)
Sponsors:	Senators Robinson; Garrou, Jones, Kinnaird, Mansfield, and Walters.
Referred to:	Judiciary I.

March 17, 2011

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO LIMIT A PARTY NOMINEE FROM FILING AS AN UNAFFILIATED CANDIDATE FOR ANOTHER OFFICE EXCEPT IN CERTAIN CIRCUMSTANCES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 163-122 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(a1) No person who is the nominee of a party for one office may file a petition under this section to have that person's name on the ballot for another office for the same general election, except in the following cases:

(1) When the other office is for the remainder of the unexpired term for an office and the party nomination is being made by the appropriate executive committee because the time of occurrence of the vacancy did not allow filing for a primary.

(2) When the petition is filed more than 120 days before the general election and the person submitting the petition resigns as the nominee of the party prior to the 120th day before the general election."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective with respect to elections occurring on or after January 1, 2012.

SENATE BILL 356:
No Filing for Party and Unaffiliated

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary I	Date:	May 2, 2011
Introduced by:	Sen. Robinson	Prepared by:	R. Erika Churchill
Analysis of:	First Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 356 would limit a party nominee from filing as an unaffiliated candidate for another office, except to fill the remainder of the term of a vacancy or if the individual resigned as the nominee of the party more than 120 days before the general election.

CURRENT LAW: Generally, candidates gain access to the general election ballot in a number of ways, as follows:

- Party nominees:
  - By filing a notice of candidacy and running in a primary. G.S. 163-106.
  - By nomination of a new political party. G.S. 163-98
- Unaffiliated Candidates: By filing a petition with the appropriate board of elections by noon on the last Friday in July before the general election, with the appropriate number of signatures as follows:
  - For Statewide office: Petition must have signature of qualified voters equal to 2% of the vote for Governor in the most recent election, and must be signed by 200 voters from 4 Congressional districts.
  - For district office: Petition must have signature of qualified voters of the district equal to 4% of the total number of registered voters in that district.
  - For county office or single county legislative district: Petition must have signature of qualified voters of the county equal to 4% of the total number of registered voters in that county.
  - For partisan municipal office: Petition must have signature of qualified voters of the municipality equal to 4% of the total number of registered voters in that municipality (petition is due by noon on Friday before 7th Saturday before the election).
- Write-in Candidates: By filing a declaration of intent, and filing a subsequent petition by noon on the 90th day before the general election with the appropriate board of elections, with the appropriate number of signatures as follows:
  - For Statewide office: Petition must have signatures of 500 qualified voters of the State.
  - For district office: Petition must have signatures of 250 qualified voters.
  - For county office, single county legislative district, or partisan school district: Petition must have signatures of 100 qualified voters who are eligible to vote for the office, unless fewer than 5,000 people are eligible to vote for the office, then signatures of at least 1% of the registered voters eligible to vote.

Individuals are permitted to file only one notice of candidacy per election, unless it is to fill an unexpired term as U.S. Senator or U.S. Representative. G.S. 163-106(h). Changes in party affiliation must be completed at least 90 days before filing a notice of candidacy for a party primary. Individuals registered as unaffiliated are ineligible to file as a candidate in a party primary election. G.S. 163-106(b). An individual who appeared on the primary ballot is not eligible to be nominated to fill a vacancy in the nomination of another party for the same office in the same year. G.S. 163-114.

Individuals appearing on the primary ballot for the same office are not eligible as unaffiliated candidates for that office. G.S. 163-122. Individuals appearing on the primary ballot are not eligible to have votes counted for that individual as a write-in candidate for the same office in that year. G.S. 163-123.

BILL ANALYSIS: The bill would prohibit any individual who is the nominee of a party for elected office from filing a petition as an unaffiliated candidate for another office on the ballot in the same general election unless one of the following applies:

1. The second office is for the remainder of the unexpired term for an office and the party nomination is being made by the appropriate executive committee because of the timing of the vacancy did not allow for filing for a primary.
2. The petition is filed more than 120 days before the general election and the petitioner resigned as the nominee of the party prior to the 120th day before the general election.

EFFECTIVE DATE: January 1, 2012, but may not be implemented until the session law has received 'preclearance' approval under Section 5 of the Voting Rights of 1965 by the U.S. Department of Justice.

SENATE BILL 459

Short Title:	Repeal Matching Funds.	(Public)
Sponsors:	Senator Brock.
Referred to:	Judiciary I.

March 30, 2011

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO REMOVE THE MATCHING FUNDS PROVISIONS OF THE PUBLIC CAMPAIGN ACT AND THE VOTER-OWNED ELECTION ACT, CONSISTENT WITH THE DECISION OF THE SUPREME COURT OF THE UNITED STATES IN DAVIS V. FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION, AND TO MAKE CONFORMING AND RELATED CHANGES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 163-278.62(18) is repealed.

SECTION 2. G.S. 163-278.66 is repealed.

SECTION 3. G.S. 163-278.67 is repealed.

SECTION 4. G.S. 163-278.64(d)(2) reads as rewritten:

"(2) From the filing of a declaration of intent through the end of the qualifying period, a candidate may accept only qualifying contributions, contributions under ten dollars ($10.00) from North Carolina voters, and personal and family contributions permitted under subdivision (4) of this subsection. The total contributions the candidate may accept during this period shall not exceed the maximum qualifying contributions for that candidate. In addition to these contributions, the candidate may only expend during this period the remaining money raised pursuant to subdivision (1) of this ~~subsection and possible matching funds received pursuant to G.S. 163-278.67.~~subsection. Except for personal and family contributions permitted under subdivision (4) of this subsection, multiple contributions from the same contributor to the same candidate shall not exceed five hundred dollars ($500.00)."

SECTION 5. G.S. 163-278.64A(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) Participation Provisions Modified. – Candidates involved in elections described in G.S. 163-329 may participate in the Fund subject to the provisions of G.S. 163-278.64 as modified by this section. The Board shall adapt other provisions of this ~~Article, including G.S. 163-278.67,~~ Article to those elections."

SECTION 6. G.S. 163-278.65(b)(2) reads as rewritten:

"(2) Contested primaries. – No funds shall be ~~distributed except as provided in G.S. 163-278.67.~~distributed."

SECTION 7. G.S. 163-278.68(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) Board to Adopt Rules and Issue Opinions. – The Board shall adopt rules and issue opinions to ensure effective administration of this Article. Such rules and opinions shall include, but not be limited to, procedures for obtaining qualifying contributions, certification of candidates, addressing circumstances involving special elections, vacancies, recounts, withdrawals, or replacements, collection of revenues for the Fund, distribution of Fund revenue to certified candidates, return of unspent Fund disbursements, and compliance with this Article. ~~The Board shall adopt procedures for the distribution of matching money that further the purpose and avoid the subversion of G.S. 163-278.67.~~ For races involving special elections, recounts, vacancies, withdrawals, or replacement candidates, the Board shall establish procedures for qualification, certification, disbursement of Fund revenues, and return of unspent Fund revenues. The Board shall fulfill each of these duties in consultation with the Advisory Council on the Public Campaign Fund."

SECTION 8. G.S. 163-278.96(17) is repealed.

SECTION 9. G.S. 163-278.99A is repealed.

SECTION 10. G.S. 163-278.99B is repealed.

SECTION 11. G.S. 163-278.98(e)(2) reads as rewritten:

"(2) From the filing of a declaration of intent through the end of the qualifying period, a candidate may accept only qualifying contributions, contributions under ten dollars ($10.00) from North Carolina voters, in-kind party contributions as permitted in subdivision (4) of this subsection, and personal and family contributions permitted under subdivision (4a) of this subsection. The total contributions the candidate may accept during this period shall not exceed the maximum qualifying contributions for that candidate. In addition to these contributions, the candidate may only expend during this period the remaining money raised pursuant to subdivision (1) of this ~~subsection and possible matching funds received pursuant to G.S. 163-278.99B~~ subsection. If the candidate has any remaining money that was raised as contributions before August 1 of the year before the election, the candidate may not expend that money after filing the declaration of intent, except for purposes permitted under subdivision (2), (3), (6), (7), or (8) of G.S. 163-278.16B(a)."

SECTION 12. G.S. 163-278.98(e)(3) reads as rewritten:

"(3) After the qualifying period and through the date of the general election, the candidate shall cease campaign-related fund-raising activities and shall expend only the funds the candidate receives from the Fund pursuant to G.S. 163-278.99(b) plus any funds remaining from the qualifying ~~period and possible matching funds.~~period."

SECTION 13. G.S. 163-278.99(b)(2) reads as rewritten:

"(2) Contested primaries. – No funds shall be ~~distributed except as provided in G.S. 163-278.99B.~~distributed."

SECTION 14. G.S. 163-278.13(e4) is repealed.

SECTION 15. This act is effective when it becomes law.

SENATE BILL 459:
Repeal Matching Funds

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary I	Date:	April 22, 2011
Introduced by:	Sen. Brock	Prepared by:	R. Erika Churchill
Analysis of:	First Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 459 would repeal the matching funds provisions in both the judicial and council of state public funding for campaigns programs.

CURRENT LAW: North Carolina currently provides two separate programs for public financing of elections – one for appellate judicial races and one for 3 of the 10 Council of State races (Auditor, Superintendent of Public Instruction and Commissioner of Insurance).

To participate, the candidate must file a declaration of intent with the State Board of Elections BEFORE collecting any qualifying contributions. The declaration of intent has to be filed before or during the "qualifying period," which is September 1 of the year before the election until the day of the primary. After filing the declaration of intent, the candidate must collect qualifying contributions from a certain number of registered voters during the qualifying period. The State Board of Elections "certifies" that the candidate has filed a declaration of intent, collected the appropriate contributions, filed a notice of candidacy. Once certified, the candidate is entitled to receive distributions from the public financing fund. Distributions are as follows: none for an uncontested primary or general election; an initial distribution within 5 business days of certification by the State Board for a candidate in a contested general election; and matching funds, upon trigger.

If participating candidates are faced with "funds in opposition to a certified candidate or in support of an opponent to that candidate" exceed the trigger amount, the public financing programs provide for "matching funds" to be released to those participating certified candidates. In the case of a primary, the trigger amount equals the maximum qualifying contributions for participating candidates. In the case of a contested general election, the trigger amount equals the base level of funding available for the contested election for that office.

The opposition spending is subject to 24-hour expedited reporting so the matching fund provision can be administered. Matching funds are available in amounts matching the opposition spending, up to twice the trigger amount.

BILL ANALYSIS: The bill would repeal all of the matching funds provisions in the judicial public financing program (Sections 1-7 of the bill) and the council of state public financing program (Sections 8-14 of the bill), while making necessary corresponding conforming changes.

EFFECTIVE DATE: When it becomes law.

BACKGROUND: Senate Judiciary I has previously heard Senate Bill 419, Campaign Finance and Regulatory Reforms, which would repeal all public financing provisions.

Referred to:	Judiciary I.

April 20, 2011

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO ADJUST THE CALENDAR PERIODS COVERED BY QUARTERLY REPORTS OF CAMPAIGN CONTRIBUTIONS AND EXPENDITURES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 163-278.9(a)(5a) reads as rewritten:

"(5a) Quarterly Reports. – During even-numbered years during which there is an election for that candidate or in which the campaign committee is supporting or opposing a candidate, the treasurer shall file a report by mailing or otherwise delivering it to the Board no later than seven working days after the end of each calendar quarter covering the prior calendar quarter, except that:

a. The report for the first quarter shall also cover the period in April through the seventeenth day before the primary, the first quarter report shall be due seven days after that date, and the second quarter report shall not include that period if a first quarter report was required to be ~~filed; and~~filed.

b. The report for the third quarter shall also cover the period in October through the seventeenth day before the election, the third quarter report shall be due seven days after that date, and the fourth quarter report shall not include that period if a third quarter report was required to be filed.

c. The report for the fourth quarter shall also cover the month of January after the election, and the next required report shall not cover that period if a fourth quarter report was required to be filed."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective October 1, 2012, and applies to reports covering calendar periods occurring after that date.

SENATE BILL 712:
Adjust Quarterly Reporting

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary I	Date:	May 2, 2011
Introduced by:	Sens. Nesbitt, Brown	Prepared by:	R. Erika Churchill Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	First Edition

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 712 would change the calendar period for fourth quarter campaign finance reports of candidates, political committees, electioneering communications and independent expenditures.

CURRENT LAW: Current law requires certain reports to be filed at certain times with respect to campaign finance. The same reporting schedule applies to:

- Political committees – candidates included
- Political parties
- Independent expenditures
- Electioneering communications

The following reports are to be filed at the time stated:

- Organizational Report – within 10 days following organization
- 48 Hour Report – within 48 hours of receipt of a contribution or transfer of $1,000 or more before an election but after the period covered by the last report due before the election
- Quarterly Reports – in even-numbered years, within 7 working days after the end of the calendar quarter for that quarter, except that:
  - In the 1st quarter, the report shall include the period in April through the 17th day before the primary and the 2nd quarter report shall not include that period
  - In the 3rd quarter, the report shall include the period in October through the 17th day before the election, and the 4th quarter report shall not include that period
- Semi-annual reports – in any time period not already covered, if contributions are received or expenditures are made, then a report is due on the last day of July for the period January 1 – June 30, and on the last day of January for July 1 – December 31.

BILL ANALYSIS: The bill would add to the provision requiring quarterly reports that in the 4th quarter, the report shall include the January following the election, and the next required report shall not include that period.

EFFECTIVE DATE: October 1, 2012.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE A CITY WITH A POPULATION OF MORE THAN FIVE HUNDRED THOUSAND PEOPLE WHICH HOLDS A NATIONAL CONVENTION TO CONTRACT WITH OUT-OF-STATE LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCIES TO PROVIDE LAW ENFORCEMENT AND SECURITY FOR THE NATIONAL CONVENTION.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Article 13 of Chapter 160A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 160A-288.3. Assistance by out-of-state law enforcement officers; rules.

(a) In accordance with rules, policies, or guidelines officially adopted by the governing body of the city by which the officer is employed, and subject to any conditions or restrictions included therein, the head of any law enforcement agency of a municipality with a population that exceeds 500,000 may request and enter into temporary intergovernmental law enforcement agreements with out-of-state law enforcement agencies or officers to aid in enforcing the laws of North Carolina within the jurisdiction of the requesting municipality if so requested in writing by the head of the requesting agency. The assistance may comprise allowing officers of the out-of-state agencies to work temporarily with officers of the requesting agency (including in an undercover capacity) and lending equipment and supplies. While working with the requesting agency under the authority of this section, an officer shall have the same jurisdiction, powers, rights, privileges, and immunities (including those relating to the defense of civil actions and payment of judgments) as the officers of the requesting agency. While on duty with the requesting agency, the officer shall be subject to the lawful operational commands of the chief of police and the chief's chain of command for the requesting agency.

(b) As used in this section, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Head" means any director or chief officer of a law enforcement agency, including the chief of police of the requesting agency or an officer of the requesting agency to whom the head of that agency has delegated authority to make or grant requests under this section.

(2) "Law enforcement agency" means a municipal police department for a municipality that has a population of more than 500.000. All other State and local agencies are exempted from the provisions of this section.

(3) "Out-of-state law enforcement officer" means a full-time paid employee of a governmental employer who is actively serving in a position with assigned primary duties and responsibilities for prevention and detection of crime or the general enforcement of the criminal laws of the State or serving civil processes, and who possesses the power of arrest by virtue of an oath administered under the authority of the home state, who is in good standing and has no pending civil, criminal, or departmental action that would disqualify the officer if the officer were certified by this State.

(4) "Out-of-state law enforcement agency" means an employer which is a governmental agency outside of this State and which is assigned primary duties and responsibilities for prevention and detection of crime or the general enforcement of the criminal laws of the State or serving civil processes, and which has employees who possess the power of arrest by virtue of an oath administered under the authority of the home state.

(5) "Temporary intergovernmental law enforcement agreement" means any agreement entered into by the agency head with the head of another out-of-state law enforcement agency for the use of officers or equipment for a designated period of time.

(c) This section in no way reduces the jurisdiction or authority of State law enforcement officers.

(d) Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 128-1 and G.S. 128-1.1(c1), out-of-state law enforcement officers shall be authorized to hold dual offices when the one of the appointive offices held is that of out-of-state law enforcement officer and the other appointive office is that of a law enforcement officer for a municipality authorized to enter into temporary intergovernmental law enforcement agreements pursuant to this section.

(e) An intergovernmental law enforcement agreement entered into pursuant to this section shall address standards of conduct for the out-of-state officers, including the requesting agencies' policies regarding the use of force. Additionally, the intergovernmental law enforcement agreement shall require all out-of-state law enforcement officers to successfully complete training as prescribed by the requesting agency. The intergovernmental law enforcement agreement shall also address the compensation of out-of-state law enforcement officers and the protocol for processing claims made against or by the out-of-state law enforcement officer.

(f) This section shall expire on October 1, 2012."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective January 1, 2012, and applies to all intergovernmental law enforcement agreements entered into on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 600:
Out-of-State Law Enforcement/Special Events

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary I	Date:	May 10, 2011
Introduced by:	Sen. Clodfelter	Prepared by:	Brad Krehely
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition S600-CSMA-17		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: The Proposed Committee Substitute (PCS) for Senate Bill 600 would authorize a city with a population of more than 500,000 which holds a national convention to contract with out-of-state law enforcement agencies to provide security for the national convention. The PCS (1) deletes the term "home state" and substitutes the term "home jurisdiction" in the definitions of "out-of-state law enforcement officer" and "out-of-state law enforcement agency" and (2) makes other technical changes (uses the defined term "out-of-state law enforcement officers" where some of those words were inadvertently left out).

CURRENT LAW: Article 13 of Chapter 160A governs law enforcement for municipalities. The statutes address cooperation between law enforcement agencies, assistance by State law enforcement officers, and assistance to State law enforcement agencies. However, the statutes do not appear to address assistance by out-of-state law enforcement officers.

BILL ANALYSIS: The PCS for Senate Bill 600 would do all of the following:

- Allow the head of any law enforcement agency of a municipality with a population that exceeds 500,000 (e.g. Charlotte) to request and enter into temporary intergovernmental law enforcement agreements with out-of-state law enforcements agencies.
- Gives an out-of-state officer the same jurisdiction as the officers of the requesting agency and requires the out-of-state law enforcement officer to be subject to the commands of the chief of police for the requesting agency.
- Clarifies that the statute does not reduce the jurisdiction of State law enforcement officers.
- Authorizes out-of-state law enforcement officers to hold dual offices—to serve as out-of-state law enforcement officer and an officer for Charlotte—as provided in the act.
- Provides that officers sworn in their home jurisdictions are deemed to have met certification requirements for the purpose of being a sworn officer of the requesting agency.
- Provides that intergovernmental agreements must (1) address standards of conduct for the out-of-state officers, (2) require out-of-state law enforcement officers to complete training required by the requesting agency, and (3) address compensation of out-of-state law enforcement officers and the protocol for processing claims by or against out-of-state law enforcement officers.
- Provides that the section shall expire on October 1, 2012.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The act becomes effective January 1, 2012, and applies to all intergovernmental law enforcement agreements entered into on or after that date.

BACKGROUND: The City of Charlotte will be hosting the 2012 Democratic National Convention. Senate Bill 600 would give the city the authority to seek assistance and additional security from out-of-state law enforcement agencies.

SENATE BILL 712:
Adjust Quarterly Reporting

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary I	Date:	May 9, 2011
Introduced by:	Sens. Nesbitt, Brown	Prepared by:	R. Erika Churchill
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition S712-CSST-26		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 712 would change the calendar period for fourth quarter campaign finance reports of candidates, political committees, electioneering communications and independent expenditures.

CURRENT LAW: Current law requires certain reports to be filed at certain times with respect to campaign finance. The same reporting schedule applies to:

- Political committees – candidates included
- Political parties
- Independent expenditures
- Electioneering communications

The following reports are to be filed at the time stated:

- Organizational Report – within 10 days following organization
- 48 Hour Report – within 48 hours of receipt of a contribution or transfer of $1,000 or more before an election but after the period covered by the last report due before the election
- Quarterly Reports – in even-numbered years, within 7 working days after the end of the calendar quarter for that quarter, except that:
  - In the 1st quarter, the report shall include the period in April through the 17th day before the primary and the 2nd quarter report shall not include that period
  - In the 3rd quarter, the report shall include the period in October through the 17th day before the election, and the 4th quarter report shall not include that period
- Semi-annual reports – in any time period not already covered, if contributions are received or expenditures are made, then a report is due on the last day of July for the period January 1 – June 30, and on the last day of January for July 1 – December 31.

BILL ANALYSIS: The bill would add to the provision requiring quarterly reports that in the 4th quarter, the report shall include the January following the election, the next required report shall not include that period, and the 4th quarter report is due within 7 days after the close of period.

EFFECTIVE DATE: October 1, 2012.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO ALLOW A CANDIDATE TO LIST PARTY AFFILIATION OR UNAFFILIATED STATUS ON THE BALLOT IN ALL ELECTIONS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1.(a) G.S. 115C-37(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) Method of Election. – The county boards of education shall be elected on a nonpartisan basis at the time of the primary election in 1970 and biennially thereafter. ~~The~~ Unless a candidate in the notice of candidacy under G.S. 163-106 chooses to list the political party recognized under Article 9 of Chapter 163 of the General Statutes that the candidate is affiliated with, the names of the candidates shall be printed on the ballots without reference to any party affiliation and any qualified voter residing in the county shall be entitled to vote such ballots. A candidate not affiliated with a political party may also list that status on the ballot by so providing in the notice of candidacy under G.S. 163-106. Except as otherwise provided herein, the election shall be conducted according to the provisions of Chapter 163 of the General Statutes then governing primary elections."

SECTION 1.(b) Chapter 115C of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 115C-37.2. Nonpartisan elections under local act.

Whenever a local act or plan of consolidation and merger provides that an election for a county or city or merged board of education is to be elected on a nonpartisan basis, unless a candidate in the notice of candidacy provided by law chooses to list the political party recognized under Article 9 of Chapter 163 of the General Statutes with which the candidate is affiliated, the names of the candidates shall be printed on the ballots without reference to any party affiliation. A candidate not affiliated with a political party may also list that status on the ballot by so providing in the notice of candidacy provided by law."

SECTION 2. G.S. 163-323 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(h) Unless a candidate in the notice of candidacy under this section chooses to list the political party recognized under Article 9 of this Chapter with which the candidate is affiliated, the names of the candidates shall be printed on the ballots without reference to any party affiliation. A candidate not affiliated with a political party may also list that status on the ballot by so providing in the notice of candidacy under this section."

SECTION 3. G.S. 163-294.2 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(g) Unless a candidate in the notice of candidacy under this section chooses to list the political party recognized under Article 9 of this Chapter with which the candidate is affiliated, the names of the candidates shall be printed on the ballots without reference to any party affiliation. A candidate not affiliated with a political party may also list that status on the ballot by so providing in the notice of candidacy under this section."

SECTION 4. G.S. 139-6 reads as rewritten:

"§ 139-6. District board of supervisors – elective members; certain duties.

(a) After the issuance of the certificate of organization of the soil and water conservation district by the Secretary of State, an election shall be held in each county of the district to elect the members of the soil and water conservation district board of supervisors as herein provided.

(b) The district board of supervisors shall consist of three elective members to be elected in each county of the district, and that number of appointive members as provided in G.S. 139-7. Upon the creation of a district, the first election of the members shall be held at the next succeeding election for county officers.

All elections for members of the district board of supervisors shall be held at the same time as the regular election for county officers beginning in November 1974. The election shall be nonpartisan and no primary election shall be held. The election shall be held and conducted by the county board of elections.

Candidates shall file their notice of candidacy on forms prescribed by the county board of elections. The notice of candidacy must be filed no earlier than noon on the second Monday in June and no later than noon on the first Friday in July preceding the election. The candidate shall pay a filing fee of five dollars ($5.00) at the time of filing the notice of candidacy.

Unless a candidate in the notice of candidacy under this section chooses to list the political party recognized under Article 9 of Chapter 163 of the General Statutes with which the candidate is affiliated, the names of the candidates shall be printed on the ballots without reference to any party affiliation. A candidate not affiliated with a political party may also list that status on the ballot by so providing in the notice of candidacy under this section.

(c) Beginning with the election to be held in November 1974, the two candidates receiving the highest number of votes shall be elected for a term of four years, and the candidate receiving the next highest number of votes shall be elected for a term of two years; thereafter, as their terms expire, their successors shall be elected for terms of four years. If the position of district supervisor is not filled by failure to elect, then the office shall be deemed vacant upon the expiration of the term of the incumbent, and the office shall be filled as provided in G.S. 139-7.

The persons elected in 1974 and thereafter shall take office on the first Monday in December following their election.

The terms of the present members of the soil and water conservation districts, both elective and appointive members, are hereby extended to or terminated on the first Monday in December 1974.

All qualified voters of the district shall be eligible to vote in the election. Except as provided in this Chapter, the election shall be held in accordance with the applicable provisions of Articles 23 and 24 of Chapter 163 of the General Statutes.

(d) The district board of supervisors, after the appointment of the appointive members has been made, shall select from its members a chairman, a vice-chairman and a secretary. It shall be the duty of the district board of supervisors to perform those powers, duties, and authority conferred upon supervisors under this Chapter; to develop annual county and district goals and plans for soil conservation work therein; to request agencies, whose duties are such as to render assistance in soil and water conservation, to set forth in writing what assistance they may have available in the county and district."

SECTION 5. This act is effective with respect to elections conducted on or after January 1, 2012.

SENATE BILL 456:
Candidate List Party or Unaffiliated Status

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary I	Date:	May 9, 2011
Introduced by:	Sen. Goolsby	Prepared by:	R. Erika Churchill
Analysis of:	Second Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 456 would allow candidates running in non-partisan races for appellate judge, superior or district court judge, local school board, municipal council, and soil and water conservation districts to have that candidate's party affiliation printed on the ballot.

CURRENT LAW: Non-partisan elections are conducted for the following offices, without the party affiliation of any candidate being listed on the ballot for that office:

- Appellate judge
- Superior court judge
- District court judge
- Local school board, with some exceptions
- Municipal elections, with some exceptions
- Sanitary boards established under Chapter 130A of the General Statutes
- Soil and Water Conservation boards established under Chapter 139 of the General Statutes

BILL ANALYSIS: For all of the elections listed above, except sanitary boards, a candidate for a non-partisan election could request that candidate's party affiliation be printed on the ballot.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The act is effective for elections occurring on or after January 1, 2012, but may not be implemented until the session law has received 'preclearance' approval under Section 5 of the Voting Rights of 1965 by the U.S. Department of Justice.

SENATE BILL 440

Short Title:	Presidential Primary in March.	(Public)
Sponsors:	Senators Brock; and Jackson.
Referred to:	Judiciary I.

March 29, 2011

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO MOVE THE PRESIDENTIAL PREFERENCE PRIMARY TO MARCH.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 163-213.2 reads as rewritten:

"§ 163-213.2. Primary to be held; date; qualifications and registration of voters.

On the ~~Tuesday after the first Monday in May, 1992,~~ first Tuesday in March 2012, and every four years thereafter, the voters of this State shall be given an opportunity to express their preference for the person to be the presidential candidate of their political party.

Any person otherwise qualified who will become qualified by age to vote in the general election held in the same year of the presidential preference primary shall be entitled to register and vote in the presidential preference primary. Such persons may register not earlier than 60 days nor later than the last day for making application to register under G.S. 163-82.6 prior to the said primary. In addition, persons who will become qualified by age to register and vote in the general election for which the primary is held, who do not register during the special period may register to vote after such period as if they were qualified on the basis of age, but until they are qualified by age to vote, they may vote only in primary elections."

SECTION 2. G.S. 163-213.4 reads as rewritten:

"§ 163-213.4. Nomination by State Board of Elections.

By the ~~first~~ third Tuesday in ~~February~~ December of the year preceding the North Carolina presidential preference primary, the chair of each political party shall submit to the State Board of Elections a list of its presidential candidates to be placed on the presidential preference primary ballot. The list must be comprised of candidates whose candidacy is generally advocated and recognized in the news media throughout the United States or in North Carolina, unless any such candidate executes and files with the chair of the political party an affidavit stating without qualification that the candidate is not and does not intend to become a candidate for nomination in the North Carolina Presidential Preference Primary Election. The State Board of Elections shall prepare and publish a list of the names of the presidential candidates submitted. The State Board of Elections shall convene in Raleigh on the first Tuesday in ~~March~~ January preceding the presidential preference primary election. At the meeting required by this section, the State Board of Elections shall nominate as presidential primary candidates all candidates affiliated with a political party, recognized pursuant to the provisions of Article 9 of Chapter 163 of the General Statutes, who have been submitted to the State Board of Elections. Immediately upon completion of these requirements, the Board shall release to the news media all such nominees selected. Provided, however, nothing shall prohibit the partial selection of nominees prior to the meeting required by this section, if all provisions herein have been complied with."

SECTION 3. This act is effective when it becomes law.

SENATE BILL 440:
Presidential Primary in March

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary I	Date:	May 13, 2011
Introduced by:	Sen. Brock	Prepared by:	R. Erika Churchill
Analysis of:	First Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 440 would move North Carolina's presidential primary from the Tuesday after the first Monday in May (in 2012, May 8) to the first Tuesday in March (in 2012, March 6).

CURRENT LAW: Currently, North Carolina holds its presidential primaries at the same time as party primaries for other federal, State, and county offices, which is on the Tuesday after the first Monday in May. In 2012, that day will fall on May 8.

Current law provides two alternative methods for a presidential candidate to get on the ballot in the N.C. Presidential primary:

1. Nomination by the State Board of Elections. G.S. 163-213.4. The chair of each political party submits a list of its presidential candidates to be placed on presidential preference primary ballot by the 1st Tuesday in February of the year preceding the primary, which is February 7, 2012. The list is to be compromised of candidates whose candidacy is generally advocated and recognized in the news media throughout the United States or in North Carolina, unless that candidate executes and files with the chair of the political party an affidavit stating without qualification that the candidate is not and does not intend to become a candidate for nomination in the North Carolina Presidential Preference Primary Election. The State Board then prepares and publishes the list.
2. Nomination by Petition. The candidate collects signatures from 10,000 registered voters of the same party in North Carolina. Those signatures must be filed with the State Board of Elections by 5:00 pm on the day before its meeting to nominate presidential primary candidates on the first Tuesday in March, March 6, 2012.

Candidates for president can seek to have their name printed on the general election ballot as an unaffiliated candidate in other following ways:

- By filing a petition with the State Board by noon on the last Friday in June, which is June 29, 2012, signed by 2% of the total number of voters voting the most recent Governor's election (85,379).
- By filing a declaration of intent to become a write-in candidate and a petition with the signatures of at least 500 qualified voters of the State by noon on the 90th day before the general election, or Friday, August 17, 2012.
- By nomination of a new political party following the party convention, no later than July 1st.

The parties are required to allocate the delegates to their national presidential nominating conventions proportionally according to the votes of the primary. However, if that law puts the State's party in conflict with the national rules of its party, the party's State executive committee may resolve the conflict by adopting the national rules, but only to the extent of the conflict. GS 163-213.8.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1. The bill moves the presidential primary from the Tuesday after the first Monday in May to the first Tuesday in March. In 2012, that would mean from May 8 to March 6.

It leaves the primaries for non-presidential offices in May, so NC would have two separate primaries, the presidential one in March and the non-presidential one in May.

Section 2. The bill moves two dates:

1. The date for the meeting at which each political party is to submit a list of its presidential candidates to be placed on the primary ballot, from the first Tuesday in February to the third Tuesday in December of the year preceding the primary. That is from February 7, 2012 to December 20, 2011.
2. The date for the meeting at which the State Board of Elections approves candidates for the presidential preference primary ballot from the first Tuesday in March to the first Tuesday in January. That is from March 6 back to January 3 for the year 2012.

To get on the NC primary ballot, presidential candidates would have to either become eligible for federal primary matching payments by January 3, 2012, or file their 10,000 signatures by January 2, 2012.

EFFECTIVE DATE: Effective when it becomes law, but may not be implemented until the session law has received 'preclearance' approval under Section 5 of the Voting Rights of 1965 by the U.S. Department of Justice.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO MODIFY DORMITORY REQUIREMENTS IN CERTAIN COUNTY DETENTION FACILITIES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 153A-221(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) Notwithstanding any law or rule to the contrary, each dormitory in a county detention facility may house up to ~~56~~64 inmates as long as the dormitory provides all of the following:

(1) A minimum floor space of 70 square feet per inmate, including both the sleeping and dayroom areas.
(2) One shower per eight inmates, one toilet per eight inmates, one sink with a security mirror per eight inmates, and one water fountain.
(3) A telephone jack or other telephone arrangement provided within the dormitory.
(4) Space designed to allow a variety of activities.
(5) Sufficient seating and tables for all inmates.
(6) A way for officers to observe the entire area from the entrance.

SECTION 2. This act is effective when it becomes law.

SENATE BILL 143:
Detention Facility Requirements

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary I	Date:	May 17, 2011
Introduced by:	Sen. Mansfield	Prepared by:	Karen Cochrane-Brown
Analysis of:	First Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 143 would modify the requirement regarding the maximum number of inmates that may be housed in a dormitory of a county detention facility located in certain counties.

CURRENT LAW: Under current law, the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services is directed to establish minimum standards for the operation of local confinement facilities with a view to providing secure custody of prisoners and to protecting their health and welfare and providing for their humane treatment.

The Secretary has adopted an administrative rule (10A NCAC 14J .1226) which provides that each dormitory shall house no more than 40 inmates and shall have:

(1) A minimum floor space of 70 square feet per inmate, including both the sleeping and dayroom areas.
(2) One shower per eight inmates, one toilet per eight inmates, one sink with a security mirror per eight inmates, and one water fountain.
(3) A telephone jack or other telephone arrangement provided within the dormitory.
(4) Space designed to allow a variety of activities.
(5) Sufficient seating and tables for all inmates.
(6) A way for officers to observe the entire area from the entrance.

In 2008, the law was amended to authorize certain county detention facilities to increase dormitory capacity to up to 56 inmates, notwithstanding the administrative rule which required a capacity of no more than 40 inmates. This exception was limited to counties with a population in excess of 600,000 according to the most recent decennial federal census. The only counties to which the exception currently applies are Wake and Mecklenburg.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Senate Bill 143 would increase the current exception applicable to Wake and Mecklenburg counties relating to dormitory capacity from 56 to 64 inmates. The bill would also make the exception applicable to counties that have a population in excess of 300,000 according to the most recent decennial federal census. This would extend the exception to Cumberland, Guilford, and Forsyth counties.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act is effective when it becomes law.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO EXEMPT TAXICAB DRIVERS WHO ARE INDEPENDENT CONTRACTORS FROM COVERAGE UNDER THE WORKERS' COMPENSATION ACT.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Article 1 of Chapter 96 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 97-5.1. Presumption that taxicab drivers are independent contractors.

(a) It shall be a conclusive presumption under this Chapter that any person who operates, and who has an ownership or leasehold interest in, a passenger motor vehicle that is operated as a taxicab is an independent contractor for the purposes of this Chapter and not an employee as defined in G.S. 97-2.

(b) The following definitions apply in this section:

(1) Lease. – A contract under which the lessor provides a vehicle to a lessee for consideration.

(2) Leasehold. – Includes, but is not limited to, a lease for a shift or a longer period.

(3) Passenger motor vehicle that is operated as a taxicab. – Any vehicle that:

a. Has a passenger seating capacity that does not exceed seven persons; and

b. Is transporting persons, property, or both on a route that begins or ends in this State and either:

1. Carries passengers for hire when the destination and route traveled may be controlled by a passenger and the fare is calculated on the basis of any combination of an initial fee, distance traveled, or waiting time; or

2. Is in use under a contract to provide specific service to a third party to transport designated passengers or to provide errand services to locations selected by the third party."

SECTION 2. This act is effective when it becomes law and applies to persons affected on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 659:
WC/Taxi Driver/Independent Contractor

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary I	Date:	May 16, 2011
Introduced by:	Sen. Clodfelter	Prepared by:	Bill Patterson
Analysis of:	First Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 659 creates a conclusive presumption that taxi operators who own or lease their vehicles are independent contractors not covered under the Workers Compensation Act.

CURRENT LAW: The Workers Compensation Act, Article 2 of Chapter 97 of the General Statutes, applies to employers regularly employing three or more "employees" in the same business or establishment. "Employee" is defined in G.S. 97-2. Independent contractors are not covered under the Act. Whether someone who performs work for another is regarded as an employee or as an independent contractor is generally determined by applying ordinary common-law tests[1] to the facts of each case.[2]

BILL ANALYSIS: Senate Bill 659 enacts new G.S. 97-5.1, establishing a conclusive presumption that a person who operates, and who has an ownership or leasehold interest in, a motor vehicle with a passenger seating capacity of up to seven persons "that is operated as a taxicab," is an independent contractor and is not an "employee" subject to the Workers Compensation Act.

Under the bill a "leasehold interest" includes, without limitation a lease for a shift or a longer period. To be "operated as a taxicab," the vehicle must begin or end its trip in this State and either carry passengers who control the destination and route in exchange for a fare based on an initial fee, distance traveled, waiting time, or any combination thereof, or transport designated passengers or provide errand service under a contract with a third party to locations the third party has selected.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act is effective when it becomes law and applies to persons affected on or after that date.

[1] The elements of a contract creating the relationship of employer and independent contractor were set out in Hayes v. Elon College, 224 N.C. 11, 29 S.E.2d 137 (1944):

> The person employed (a) is engaged in an independent business, calling, or occupation; (b) is to have the independent use of his special skill, knowledge, or training in the execution of the work; (c) is doing a specified piece of work at a fixed price or for a lump sum or upon a quantitative basis; (d) is not subject to discharge because he adopts one method of doing the work rather than another; (e) is not in the regular employ of the other contracting party; (f) is free to use such assistants as he may think proper; (g) has full control over such assistants; and (h) selects his own time.

224 N.C. at 16, 29 S.E.2d at 140. "The court [in Hayes] went on to state that the presence of no particular one of these indicia is controlling, nor is the presence of all required. However, they are to be considered along with all other circumstances to determine whether the one employed has that degree of independence necessary to require his classification as independent contractor rather than employee." A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO REQUIRE THAT VOTERS PROVIDE PHOTO IDENTIFICATION PRIOR TO VOTING; AND TO PROVIDE FOR THE ISSUANCE OF NORTH CAROLINA VOTER IDENTIFICATION CARDS; AND TO REQUIRE VOTER EDUCATION ON PROPER IDENTIFICATION FOR VOTING; AND TO PROVIDE FOR THE ISSUANCE OF NO FEE SPECIAL IDENTIFICATION CARDS TO REGISTERED VOTERS WITHOUT PROPER IDENTIFICATION FOR VOTING.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1.1. Article 14A of Chapter 163 of the General Statutes is amended by adding the following new sections to read:

"§ 163-166.13. Requirement for presentation of identification to local election officials at a voting place.

(a) Except as provided in subsection (c) of this section, every individual seeking to vote in person shall present proper identification to a local election official at a voting place prior to voting there. Proper identification shall consist of one of the following, provided the identification contains a photograph of the registered voter:

(1) A North Carolina drivers license that was issued by the appropriate State agency.

(2) A valid North Carolina voter identification card issued under G.S. 163-166.14 or other identification card issued by a branch, department, agency, or entity of the State of North Carolina, any other state, or the United States permitted by law to issue personal identification.

(3) A valid United States passport.

(4) A valid employee identification card issued by any branch, department, agency, or entity of the United States government, the State of North Carolina, or any county, municipality, board, authority, or other entity of the State.

(5) A valid United States military identification card.

(6) A valid tribal identification card.

(b) Except as provided in subsection (c) of this section, if an individual is unable to produce any of the items of identification listed in subsection (a) of this section, the individual shall be allowed to vote a provisional ballot upon executing a written affirmation before an election official at the voting place pursuant to G.S. 163-166.11. Such provisional ballot shall be counted only if the county board of elections is able to verify proper identification of the individual as provided in subsection (a) of this section prior to the canvass conducted by the county board of elections pursuant to G.S. 163-182.5.

(c) An individual subject to the requirements of G.S. 163-166.12 shall present the identification required by that section to a local election official prior to voting at a voting place. If the individual is unable to produce the required identification, the individual may vote a provisional ballot pursuant to G.S. 163-166.12.

"§ 163-166.14. Voter identification cards.

(a) Each county board of elections shall provide at least one place in the county at which it shall accept applications for and issue North Carolina voter identification cards which shall be valid only for purposes of voter identification under this Chapter and available only to registered voters of this State. No fee shall be charged or collected for the application for or issuance of a North Carolina voter identification card.

(b) No person shall be eligible for a North Carolina voter identification card if such person has a valid unexpired drivers license or special identification card issued under G.S. 20-37.7.

(c) The North Carolina voter identification card shall be captioned "NORTH CAROLINA VOTER IDENTIFICATION CARD" and shall contain a prominent statement that under North Carolina law it is valid only as identification for voting purposes. The North Carolina voter identification card shall be laminated, shall contain a digital color photograph of the applicant, and shall include the following information:

(1) Full legal name.
(2) Address of residence.
(3) Birth date.
(4) Date identification card was issued.
(5) Sex.
(6) Height.
(7) Weight.
(8) Eye color.
(9) County where the identification card was issued.
(10) Such other information or identification as required by rule of the State Board of Elections.

(d) The application for a North Carolina voter identification card shall elicit the information required under subsection (c) of this section and such other information as may be required by rule of the State Board of Elections. The application shall be signed and sworn to by the applicant and any falsification or fraud in the making of the application shall constitute a Class I felony.

(e) The county board of elections shall require presentation and verification of the following information before issuing a North Carolina voter identification card to a person:

(1) A photo identity document, except that a nonphoto identity document is acceptable if it includes both the person's full legal name and date of birth.
(2) Documentation showing the person's date of birth.
(3) Evidence that the person is registered to vote in this State.
(4) Documentation showing the person's name and address of residence.

(f) A North Carolina voter identification card shall remain valid so long as a person resides at the same address and remains qualified to vote. It shall be the duty of a person who moves his or her residence within the State to surrender his or her card to the county board of elections of the county of his or her new residence; and such person may after such surrender apply for and receive a new card if such person is otherwise eligible under this section. It shall be the duty of a person who moves his or her residence outside the State or who ceases to be qualified to vote to surrender his or her card to the county board of elections by which it was issued.

(g) The State Board of Elections shall provide each county board of elections with the necessary equipment, forms, supplies, and training for the production of the North Carolina voter identification cards and shall maintain such equipment.

(h) The State Board of Elections shall adopt rules and regulations for the administration of this section. Such rules and regulations may further define or prescribe the types of documentation required under subsection (e) of this section."

SECTION 1.2. G.S. 163-22 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(r) The State Board of Elections shall formulate and conduct a voter education program concerning voting procedures for voting by absentee ballot and at the polls with particular emphasis on proper identification required for voting."

SECTION 1.3. G.S. 163-82.6A(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Both Attestation and Proof of Residence Required. – To vote under this section, a voter must present proper identification as defined by G.S. 163-166.13(a). This requirement is separate from the requirement to provide proof of residence under subdivision (2) of this subsection. If an individual does not present the required identification, that individual may vote a provisional official ballot subject to the requirements of G.S. 163-166.13(b). To register ~~and vote~~ under this section, the person shall do both of the following:

(1) Complete a voter registration form as prescribed in G.S. 163-82.4, including the attestation requirement of G.S. 163-82.4(b) that the person meets each eligibility requirement. Such attestation is signed under penalty of a Class I felony under G.S. 163-275(13); and

(2) Provide proof of residence by presenting any of the following valid documents that show the person's current name and current residence address: a North Carolina drivers license, a photo identification from a government agency, or any of the documents listed in G.S. 163-166.12(a)(2). The State Board of Elections may designate additional documents or methods that suffice and shall prescribe procedures for establishing proof of residence."

SECTION 1.4. G.S. 163-166.7(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) Checking Registration. – A person seeking to vote shall enter the voting enclosure through the appropriate entrance. A precinct official assigned to check registration shall at once ask the voter to state current name and residence address. The voter shall answer by stating current name and residence ~~address.~~ address and present proper identification in accordance with G.S. 163-166.13. In a primary election, that voter shall also be asked to state, and shall state, the political party with which the voter is affiliated or, if unaffiliated, the authorizing party in which the voter wishes to vote. After examination, that official shall state whether that voter is duly registered to vote in that precinct and shall direct that voter to the voting equipment or to the official assigned to distribute official ballots. If a precinct official states that the person is duly registered, the person shall sign the pollbook, other voting record, or voter authorization document in accordance with subsection (c) of this section before voting."

SECTION 1.5. G.S. 163-166.11(2) reads as rewritten:

"(2) The individual may cast a provisional official ballot at that voting place upon executing a written affirmation before an election official at the voting place, stating that the individual is a registered voter in the jurisdiction as provided in G.S. 163-82.1 in which the individual seeks to vote and is eligible to vote in that election. The individual shall also present the identification required by G.S. 163-166.13."

SECTION 1.6. G.S. 163-227.2(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Not earlier than the third Thursday before an election, in which absentee ballots are authorized, in which a voter seeks to vote and not later than 1:00 P.M. on the last Saturday before that election, the voter shall appear in person only at the office of the county board of elections, except as provided in subsection (g) of this section. A county board of elections shall conduct one-stop voting on the last Saturday before the election until 1:00 P.M. and may conduct it until 5:00 P.M. on that Saturday. That voter shall enter the voting enclosure at the board office through the appropriate entrance and shall at once state his or her name and place of residence to an authorized member or employee of the ~~board.~~ board and present proper identification in accordance with G.S. 163-166.13. If an individual does not present the required identification, that individual may vote a provisional official ballot subject to the requirements of G.S. 163-166.13(b). In a primary election, the voter shall also state the political party with which the voter affiliates and in whose primary the voter desires to vote, or if the voter is an unaffiliated voter permitted to vote in the primary of a particular party under G.S. 163-119, the voter shall state the name of the authorizing political party in whose primary he wishes to vote. The board member or employee to whom the voter gives this information shall announce the name and residence of the voter in a distinct tone of voice. After examining the registration records, an employee of the board shall state whether the person seeking to vote is duly registered. If the voter is found to be registered that voter may request that the authorized member or employee of the board furnish the voter with an application form as specified in G.S. 163-227. The voter shall complete the application in the presence of the authorized member or employee of the board, and shall deliver the application to that person."

SECTION 1.7. G.S. 20-37.7(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) Expiration and Fee. – A special identification card issued to a person for the first time under this section expires when a drivers license issued on the same day to that person would expire. A special identification card renewed under this section expires when a drivers license renewed by the card holder on the same day would expire.

The fee for a special identification card is the same as the fee set in G.S. 20-14 for a duplicate license. The fee does not apply to a special identification card issued to a resident of this State ~~who is~~ who:

(1) Is legally ~~blind,~~blind.

(2) ~~is~~ Is at least 70 years ~~old,~~old.

(3) ~~is homeless,~~Is homeless. To obtain a special identification card without paying a fee, a homeless person must present a letter to the Division from the director of a facility that provides care or shelter to homeless persons verifying that the person is homeless.

(4) ~~or who has~~Has been issued a drivers license but the drivers license is cancelled under G.S. 20-15, in accordance with G.S. 20-9(e) and (g), as a result of a physical or mental disability or disease. ~~To obtain a special identification card without paying a fee, a homeless person must present a letter to the Division from the director of a facility that provides care or shelter to homeless persons verifying that the person is homeless.~~

(5) Is a registered North Carolina voter who lacks proper identification required for voting by G.S. 163-166.13. To obtain a special identification card without paying a fee, the individual must produce evidence that he or she is registered to vote in the State of North Carolina, and must swear under oath that the individual desires an identification card in order to vote in a primary or election in North Carolina, and that the individual does not have any other form of identification that is acceptable under G.S. 163-166.13. An individual who has been issued a valid drivers license shall not be eligible for a special identification card under this subdivision."

SECTION 1.8. This act becomes effective January 1, 2012, and applies to elections held on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 595:
Voter Identification at Polls

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary I	Date:	April 22, 2011
Introduced by:	Sen. Clary	Prepared by:	R. Erika Churchill
Analysis of:	First Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 595 would require voters voting in person to present photo identification prior to voting.

CURRENT LAW: Pursuant to the Help America Vote Act, enacted by the U.S. Congress in 2002, G.S. 163-166.12 requires individuals who register to vote by mail after January 1, 2003, who have not previously voted in an election with a federal ballot item to show one of the following forms of identification prior to voting:

- A current and valid photo ID.
- A copy of any one of a current utility bill, bank statement, government check, paycheck, or other government document that shows the name and address of the voter.

An individual is exempted from showing the required identification if that individual included as part of the voter registration one of the forms of ID listed above, a driver's license number, or the last four digits of their social security number. The driver's license number or social security numbers are used by the State Board of Elections to cross match to an existing State identification record.

The statute also provides exceptions from the identification requirement as provided under federal law, such as overseas and military voters entitled to vote by absentee ballot, and voters entitled to vote other than in person under the federal Voting Accessibility for the Elderly and Handicapped Act.

BILL ANALYSIS:

The bill would require all voters voting in person to present a photo ID prior to voting.

Section 1.1.

Valid Photo ID: The following identification would be accepted, but only if it contained a photograph of the voter:

- North Carolina driver's license.
- Valid North Carolina voter identification card issued by a county board of elections, or other identification card issued by a branch, department, agency, or entity of the State of North Carolina, any other state, or the federal government that is permitted by law to issue personal identification.
- Valid United States passport.
- Valid employee identification card issued by a branch, department, agency, or entity of the federal government, State of North Carolina, or any county, municipality, board, authority, or other entity of the State.
- Valid United States military identification card.
- Valid tribal identification card.

Any voter not providing the photo identification would be allowed to vote a provisional ballot upon executing a written affirmation before an election official at the voting place. The provisional ballot would be counted only if the county board of elections is able to verify proper photo identification prior to the canvass, which is 10 days after the election.

Voter Identification Cards.

County boards of elections would be required to issue voter identification cards at no cost to registered voters who do not have a valid North Carolina drivers' license or North Carolina non-operators special identification card. The voter identification cards could only be used for voting.

In application for a North Carolina voter identification card, voter would be required to present certain information and provide certain information. The application must be signed and sworn, with falsification or fraud punishable as a Class I felony. The information that must be provided and presented by the registered voter is:

1. A photo identity document or a nonphoto identity document that includes the voter's full legal name and date of birth.
2. Documentation of date of birth.
3. Evidence of the person's voter registration.
4. Documentation of name and address of residence.
5. Full legal name.
6. Address.
7. Date of birth.
8. Sex.
9. Height.
10. Eye color.
11. County of issuance.
12. Date of issuance.
13. Digital color photograph of the voter.
14. Any other information required by the State Board of Elections.

Items 5-14 must be printed on the voter identification card. The voter identification card would remain valid as long as the person resided at the same address and remained qualified to vote. The voter would be responsible for surrendering the card to the county board of elections if the voter changes residence or ceases to be qualified to vote.

The State Board of Elections is to provide supplies and equipment necessary to issue voter identification cards to the county boards of elections and adopt policies for administration.

Sections 1.3 through 1.6. Conforming changes: The bill would make conforming changes to the following statutes where an individual presents to vote in person:

- Same Day Registration – Section 1.3.
- Election Day voting – Section 1.4
- Provisional voting on Election Day – Section 1.5
- Early Voting – Section 1.6

Photo identification would not be required for mail-in absentee voting. The current identification requirements of G.S. 163-166.12 for first-time voters who register by mail would still apply to mail-in absentee voting.

Section 1.7. Special ID Cards for Nonoperators: The bill would permit registered North Carolina voters who do not have valid photo ID required for voting to be issued a special ID card without a fee, upon swearing under oath that individual has no other acceptable photo ID for voting.

EFFECTIVE DATE: January 1, 2012, but may not be implemented until the session law has received 'preclearance' approval under Section 5 of the Voting Rights of 1965 by the U.S. Department of Justice as the bill impacts elections in the 40 counties in North Carolina subject to Section 5.

SENATE BILL 143

Short Title:	Detention Facility Requirements.	(Public)
Sponsors:	Senator Mansfield.
Referred to:	Rules and Operations of the Senate.

February 28, 2011

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO MODIFY DORMITORY REQUIREMENTS IN CERTAIN COUNTY DETENTION FACILITIES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 153A-221(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) Notwithstanding any law or rule to the contrary, each dormitory in a county detention facility may house up to ~~56~~64 inmates as long as the dormitory provides all of the following:

(1) A minimum floor space of 70 square feet per inmate, including both the sleeping and dayroom areas.
(2) One shower per eight inmates, one toilet per eight inmates, one sink with a security mirror per eight inmates, and one water fountain.
(3) A telephone jack or other telephone arrangement provided within the dormitory.
(4) Space designed to allow a variety of activities.
(5) Sufficient seating and tables for all inmates.
(6) A way for officers to observe the entire area from the entrance.

SECTION 2. This act is effective when it becomes law.

SENATE BILL 143:
Detention Facility Requirements

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary I	Date:	May 17, 2011
Introduced by:	Sen. Mansfield	Prepared by:	Karen Cochrane-Brown
Analysis of:	First Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 143 would modify the requirement regarding the maximum number of inmates that may be housed in a dormitory of a county detention facility located in certain counties.

CURRENT LAW: Under current law, the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services is directed to establish minimum standards for the operation of local confinement facilities with a view to providing secure custody of prisoners and to protecting their health and welfare and providing for their humane treatment.

The Secretary has adopted an administrative rule (10A NCAC 14J .1226) which provides that each dormitory shall house no more than 40 inmates and shall have:

(1) A minimum floor space of 70 square feet per inmate, including both the sleeping and dayroom areas.
(2) One shower per eight inmates, one toilet per eight inmates, one sink with a security mirror per eight inmates, and one water fountain.
(3) A telephone jack or other telephone arrangement provided within the dormitory.
(4) Space designed to allow a variety of activities.
(5) Sufficient seating and tables for all inmates.
(6) A way for officers to observe the entire area from the entrance.

In 2008, the law was amended to authorize certain county detention facilities to increase dormitory capacity to up to 56 inmates, notwithstanding the administrative rule which required a capacity of no more than 40 inmates. This exception was limited to counties with a population in excess of 600,000 according to the most recent decennial federal census. The only counties to which the exception currently applies are Wake and Mecklenburg.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Senate Bill 143 would increase the current exception applicable to Wake and Mecklenburg counties relating to dormitory capacity from 56 to 64 inmates. The bill would also make the exception applicable to counties that have a population in excess of 300,000 according to the most recent decennial federal census. This would extend the exception to Cumberland, Guilford, and Forsyth counties.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act is effective when it becomes law.

SENATE BILL 772

Short Title:	Consolidate Ethics, Elections, and Lobbying.	(Public)
Sponsors:	Senator Brock.
Referred to:	Judiciary I.

April 20, 2011

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO CONSOLIDATE ETHICS, ELECTIONS, AND LOBBYING UNDER THE STATE BOARD OF ETHICS AND ELECTIONS ENFORCEMENT.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. The General Statutes are amended by adding a new Chapter to read:

"Chapter 163A.

"State Elections and Ethics Act.

"Article 1.

"General Provisions.

"§ 163A-100. Title.

This Chapter shall be known and may be cited as the 'State Elections and Ethics Act.'

"§ 163A-101. Definitions.

The following definitions apply in this Chapter:

(1) Blind trust. – A trust established by or for the benefit of a covered person or a member of the covered person's immediate family for divestiture of all control and knowledge of assets. A trust qualifies as a blind trust under this subdivision if the covered person or a member of the covered person's immediate family has no knowledge of the holdings and sources of income of the trust, the trustee of the trust is independent of and not associated with or employed by the covered person or a member of the covered person's immediate family and is not a member of the covered person's extended family, and the trustee has sole discretion as to the management of the trust assets.

(2) Board. – Any State board, council, committee, task force, authority, or similar public body, however denominated, created by statute or executive order, as determined and designated by the State Board, except for those public bodies that have only advisory authority.

(3) Business. – Any of the following organized for profit:

a. Association.
b. Business trust.
c. Corporation.
d. Enterprise.
e. Joint venture.

f. A communication at a conference, meeting, or similar event.

The term "solicitation of others" does not include communications made by a person or by the person's agent to that person's stockholders, employees, board members, officers, members, subscribers, or other recipients who have affirmatively assented to receive the person's regular publications or notices.

(45) Vested trust. – A trust, annuity, or other funds held by a trustee or other third party for the benefit of the covered person or a member of the covered person's immediate family, except a blind trust. A vested trust shall not include a widely held investment fund, including a mutual fund, regulated investment company, or pension or deferred compensation plan, if:
a. The covered person or a member of the covered person's immediate family neither exercises nor has the ability to exercise control over the financial interests held by the fund; and
b. The fund is publicly traded, or the fund's assets are widely diversified.

"§ 163A-102. Application to the Lieutenant Governor.

For purposes of this Chapter, the Lieutenant Governor shall be considered a legislator when carrying out the Lieutenant Governor's duties under Section 13 of Article II of the North Carolina Constitution and a public servant for all other purposes.

"§ 163A-103. Application to candidates to certain offices.

For purposes of Articles 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7 of this Chapter, the term "legislator" and the term "public servant" shall include an individual having filed a notice of candidacy for such office under this Chapter.

"Article 2.

"Board of Elections and Ethics Enforcement.

"§ 163A-200. Board of Elections and Ethics Enforcement established.

There is established the State Board of Elections and Ethics Enforcement.

"§ 163A-201. Membership.

(a) The State Board shall consist of nine members. Three members shall be appointed by the Governor, of whom no more than two shall be of the same political party. Six members shall be appointed by the General Assembly, three upon the recommendation of the Speaker of the House of Representatives, neither of whom shall be of the same political party, and three upon the recommendation of the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, neither of whom shall be of the same political party. Members shall serve for three year terms, beginning January 1, 2012, except for the initial terms that shall be as follows:

(1) One member appointed by the Governor shall serve an initial term of one year.

(2) Two members appointed by the General Assembly, one upon the recommendation of the Speaker of the House of Representatives and one upon the recommendation of the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, shall serve initial terms of one year.

(3) One member appointed by the Governor shall serve initial terms of two years.

(4) Two members appointed by the General Assembly, one upon the recommendation of the Speaker of the House of Representatives and one member upon the recommendation of the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, shall serve initial terms of two years.

(b) Members shall be removed from the Board only for misfeasance, malfeasance, or nonfeasance. Members appointed by the Governor may be removed by the Governor. Members appointed by the General Assembly upon the recommendation of the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall be removed by the Governor upon the recommendation of the Speaker. Members appointed by the General Assembly upon the recommendation of the President Pro Tempore of the Senate shall be removed by the Governor upon the recommendation of the President Pro Tempore.

(c) Vacancies in appointments made by the Governor shall be filled by the Governor for the remainder of any unfulfilled term. Vacancies in appointments made by the General Assembly shall be filled in accordance with G.S. 120-122 for the remainder of any unfulfilled term.

(d) No member while serving on the State Board or employee while employed by the Board shall:

(1) Hold or be a candidate for any other office or place of trust or profit under the United States, the State, or a political subdivision of the State.

(2) Hold office in any political party above the precinct level.

(3) Participate in or contribute to the political campaign of any covered person or any candidate for a public office as a covered person over which the Board would have jurisdiction or authority.

(4) Otherwise be an employee of the State, a community college, or a local school system, or serve as a member of any other state board.

(e) The Governor shall annually appoint a member of the Board to serve as chair of the State Board. The State Board shall elect a vice-chair annually from its membership. The vice-chair shall act as the chair in the chair's absence or if there is a vacancy in that position.

(f) Members of the Board shall receive compensation for service on the Board.

"§ 163A-202. Meetings and quorum.

The State Board shall meet at least quarterly and at other times as called by its chair or by four of its members. In the case of a vacancy in the chair, meetings may be called by the vice-chair. Five members of the State Board constitute a quorum.

"§ 163A-203. Staff and offices.

The State Board may employ professional and clerical staff, including an executive director. The State Board shall be located within the Department of Administration for administrative purposes only, but shall exercise all of its powers, including the power to employ, direct, and supervise all personnel, independently of the Secretary of Administration, and is subject to the direction and supervision of the Secretary of Administration only with respect to the management functions of coordinating and reporting.

"§ 163A-204. Powers and duties.

(a) In addition to other powers and duties specified in this Chapter, the State Board shall:

(1) Provide reasonable assistance to covered persons in complying with this Chapter.

(2) Develop readily understandable forms, policies, and procedures to accomplish the purposes of this Chapter.

(3) Identify and publish the following:

a. A list of nonadvisory boards.

b. The names of individuals subject to this Chapter as covered persons and legislative employees.

(4) Receive and review all statements of economic interests filed with the State Board by prospective and actual covered persons and evaluate whether (i) the statements conform to the law and the rules of the State Board and (ii) the financial interests and other information reported reveals actual or potential conflicts of interest. This subdivision does not apply to statements of economic interest filed by legislators or judicial officers.

(5) Conduct inquiries of alleged violations against judicial officers, legislators, and legislative employees in accordance with G.S. 138A-12.

(6) Conduct inquiries into alleged violations against public servants in accordance with this Chapter.

(7) Render advisory opinions in accordance with this Chapter and G.S. 120C-102.

(8) Initiate and maintain oversight of educational programs for ethics, lobbying, and campaign finance consistent with G.S. 163A-208.

(9) Conduct a continuing study of governmental ethics in the State and propose changes to the General Assembly in the government process and the law as are conducive to promoting and continuing high ethical behavior by governmental officers and employees.

(10) Adopt rules and forms necessary to implement this Chapter.

(11) Report annually to the General Assembly and the Governor on the State Board's activities and generally on the subject of public disclosure, ethics, and conflicts of interest, including recommendations for administrative and legislative action, as the State Board deems appropriate.

(12) Publish annually statistics on complaints filed with or considered by the Board, including the number of complaints filed, the number of complaints referred under G.S. 163A-206(b), the number of complaints dismissed under G.S. 163A-206(c)(4), the number of complaints dismissed under G.S. 163A-206(f), the number of complaints referred for criminal prosecution under G.S. 163A-206, the number of complaints dismissed under G.S. 163A-206(h), the number of complaints referred for appropriate action under G.S. 163A-206(h) or G.S. 163A-206(k)(3), and the number and age of complaints pending action by the Board.

(13) Provide general supervision over the primaries and elections in the State and shall have authority to make such reasonable rules and regulations with respect to the conduct of primaries and elections as it may deem advisable so long as they do not conflict with any provisions of this Chapter.

(14) Publish and furnish to the county boards of elections and other election officials a sufficient number of indexed copies of all election laws and State Board rules and regulations. It shall also publish, issue, and distribute to the electorate such materials explanatory of primary and election laws and procedures as the State Board shall deem necessary.

(15) Appoint, in the manner provided by law, and advise all members of the county boards of elections as to the proper methods of conducting primaries and elections. The State Board shall require such reports from the county boards of elections as are provided by law, or as are deemed necessary by the State Board, and shall compel observance of the requirements of the election laws by county boards of elections and other election officers. In performing these duties, the State Board shall have the right to hear and act on complaints arising by petition or otherwise, on the failure or neglect of a county board of elections to comply with any part of the election laws imposing duties upon such a board. The State Board shall have power to remove from office any member of a county board of elections for incompetency, neglect or failure to perform duties, fraud, or for any other satisfactory cause. Before exercising this power, the State Board shall notify the county board member affected and give that board member an opportunity to be heard. When any county board member shall be removed by the State Board, the vacancy occurring shall be filled by the State Board.

(16) Investigate when necessary or advisable the administration of election laws, frauds, and irregularities in elections in any county, municipal, and special district and shall report violations of the election laws to the Attorney General or district attorney or prosecutor of the district for further investigation and prosecution.

(17) Determine, in the manner provided by law, the form and content of ballots, instruction sheets, pollbooks, tally sheets, abstract and return forms, certificates of election, and other forms to be used in primaries and elections. The State Board shall furnish to the county boards of elections the voter registration application forms required pursuant to this Chapter. The State Board shall direct the county boards of elections to purchase a sufficient quantity of all forms attendant to the registration and elections process. In addition, the State Board shall provide a source of supply from which the county boards of elections may purchase the quantity of pollbooks needed for the execution of its responsibilities. In the preparation of ballots, pollbooks, abstract and return forms, and all other forms, the State Board may call to its aid the Attorney General of the State, and it shall be the duty of the Attorney General to advise and aid in the preparation of these books, ballots, and forms.

(18) Prepare, print, distribute to the county boards of elections all ballots for use in any primary or election held in the State which the law provides shall be printed and furnished by the State to the counties. The State Board shall instruct the county boards of elections as to the printing of county and local ballots.

(19) Certify to the appropriate county boards of elections the names of candidates for district offices who have filed notice of candidacy with the State Board and whose names are required to be printed on county ballots.

(20) Tabulate the primary and election returns to declare the results and to prepare abstracts of the votes cast in each county in the State for offices which, according to law, shall be tabulated by the State Board.

(21) Make recommendations to the Governor and legislature relative to the conduct and administration of the primaries and elections in the State as it may deem advisable.

(22) Perform systematic reviews of reports required to be filed under this Chapter on a regular basis to assure complete and timely disclosure. Complaints of violations of this Chapter, all other records accumulated in conjunction with the investigation of these complaints, and any records accumulated in the performance of a systematic review shall be considered confidential records and may be released only by order of a court of competent jurisdiction. Any information obtained by the State Board from any law enforcement agency, administrative agency, or regulatory organization on a confidential or otherwise restricted basis in the course of an investigation or systematic review shall be confidential and exempt from G.S. 132-6 to the same extent that it is confidential in the possession of the providing agency or organization.

(23) Publish annual statistics on complaints received and systematic reviews conducted under this section, including the number of systematic reviews, the number of complaints, the number of apparent violations of this Chapter referred to a district attorney, the number of complaints dismissed, and the number and age of complaints pending. Subject to the provisions of Chapter 132 of the General Statutes, the levy of all civil fines, including the amount of the fine and the identity of the person or governmental unit against whom it was levied, shall be a public record as defined in G.S. 132-1(a).

(24) Perform other duties as may be necessary to accomplish the purposes of this Chapter.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other section of this Chapter, the State Board is empowered to have access to any ballot boxes and their contents, any voting machines and their contents, any registration records, pollbooks, voter authorization cards or voter lists, any lists of absentee voters, any lists of presidential registrants under the Voting Rights Act of 1965 as amended, and any other voting equipment or similar records, books, or lists in any precinct, county, municipality, or electoral district over whose elections it has jurisdiction or for whose elections it has responsibility.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions contained in Article 31 of this Chapter, the State Board shall be authorized, by resolution adopted prior to the printing of the primary ballots, to reduce the time by which absentee ballots are required to be printed and distributed for the primary election from 50 days to 45 days. This authority shall not be authorized for absentee ballots to be voted in the general election, except if the law requires ballots to be available for mailing 60 days before the general election, and they are not ready by that date, the State Board shall allow the counties to mail them out as soon as they are available.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, in order to obtain judicial review of any decision of the State Board rendered in the performance of its duties or in the exercise of its powers under this Chapter, the petition seeking review shall be filed in the Superior Court of Wake County.

(e) The State Board shall adopt rules for the minimum requirements of the number of pollbooks, voting machines, and curbside ballots to be available at each precinct, such that more will be available at general elections and a sufficient number will be available to allow voting without excessive delay. The State Board shall provide additional testing of voting machines to ensure that they operate properly even with complicated ballots.

(f) The State Board shall require counties with voting systems to have sufficient personnel available on election day with technical expertise to make repairs in such equipment, to investigate election day problems, and assist in curbside voting.

(g) The State Board may assign responsibility for enumerated administrative matters to the Executive Director by resolution, if that resolution provides a process for the State Board to review any administrative decision made by the Executive Director. The State Board may authorize the staff of the State Board to evaluate statements of economic interest as authorized under subdivision (a)(4) of this section.

(h) The State Board shall possess full power and authority to maintain order and to enforce obedience to its lawful commands during its sessions and shall be constituted an inferior court for that purpose. If any person shall refuse to obey the lawful commands of the State Board or its chair, or by disorderly conduct in its hearing or presence shall interrupt or disturb its proceedings, it may, by an order in writing, signed by its chair, and attested by its secretary, commit the person so offending to the common jail of the county for a period not exceeding 30 days. Such order shall be executed by any sheriff to whom the same shall be delivered, or if a sheriff shall not be present, or shall refuse to act, by any other person who shall be deputed by the State Board in writing, and the keeper of the jail shall receive the person so committed and safely keep that person for such time as shall be mentioned in the commitment: Provided, that any person committed under the provisions of this section shall have the right to post a two hundred dollar ($200.00) bond with the clerk of the superior court and appeal to the superior court for a trial on the merits of the commitment.

"§ 163A-208. Education programs.

(a) The State Board shall develop and implement an ethics and lobbying education and awareness program designed to instill in all covered persons and legislative employees a keen and continuing awareness of their ethical obligations and a sensitivity to situations that might result in real or potential conflicts of interest.

(b) The State Board shall offer basic ethics and lobbying education and awareness presentations to all public servants upon their election, appointment, or employment and shall offer periodic refresher presentations as the State Board deems appropriate. Every public servant shall participate in an ethics and lobbying presentation approved by the State Board within six months of the public servant's election, reelection, appointment, or employment and shall attend refresher ethics education presentations at least every two years thereafter in a manner as the State Board deems appropriate. This subsection shall not apply to judicial officers.

(c) A public servant appointed to a board determined and designated as nonadvisory under G.S. 138A-10(a)(3) shall attend an ethics and lobbying presentation approved by the Board within six months of notification of the designation by the State Board and at least every two years thereafter in a manner as the State Board deems appropriate.

(d) The State Board, jointly with the Legislative Ethics Committee, shall make basic ethics and lobbying education and awareness presentations to all legislators and legislative employees upon their election, reelection, appointment, or employment and shall offer periodic refresher presentations as the State Board and the Committee deem appropriate. Every legislator shall participate in an ethics and lobbying presentation approved by the State Board and Committee within two months of either the convening of the General Assembly to which the legislator is elected or within two months of the legislator's appointment, whichever is later. Every legislative employee shall participate in an ethics and lobbying presentation approved by the State Board and Committee within three months of employment and shall attend refresher ethics education presentations at least every two years thereafter in a manner as the State Board and Committee deem appropriate.

(e) The State Board shall develop and implement a lobbying education and awareness program designed to instill in lobbyists and lobbyists' principals a keen and continuing awareness of their obligations and sensitivity to situations that might result in real or potential violation of this Chapter or other related laws. The State Board shall make lobbying education and awareness programs available to lobbyists and lobbyists' principals.

(f) Upon request, the State Board shall assist each State agency in developing in-house ethics and lobbying education programs and procedures necessary or desirable to meet the State agency's particular needs for ethics education, conflict identification, and conflict avoidance.

(g) Each State agency head shall designate an ethics liaison who shall maintain active communication with the State Board on all State agency ethics and lobbying issues. The ethics liaison shall attend ethics and lobbying education and awareness programs as provided under this section. The ethics liaison shall continuously assess and advise the State Board of any issues or conduct which might reasonably be expected to result in a conflict of interest and seek advice and rulings from the State Board as to their appropriate resolution.

(h) The State Board shall publish a newsletter containing summaries of the State Board's opinions, policies, procedures, and interpretive bulletins with respect to ethics and lobbying as issued from time to time. The newsletter shall be distributed to all covered persons and legislative employees. Publication under this subsection may be done electronically.

(i) The State Board shall publish a newsletter containing summaries of the State Board's opinions, policies, procedures, and interpretive decisions with respect to campaign finance as issued from time to time. The newsletter shall be distributed to all treasurers and candidates. Publication under this section may be done electronically.

(j) The State Board shall assemble and maintain a collection of relevant State laws, rules, and regulations and set forth ethical standards applicable to covered persons, lobbying laws and regulations, and campaign finance laws and regulations. This collection shall be made available electronically as resource material.

(k) The State Board shall provide specific training to county boards of elections regarding rules for registering all voters.

(l) The State Board shall provide for training and screening program for county boards of elections, county directors of elections, chief judges, and judges.

"§ 163A-209. Requests for advice.

(a) At the written request of any public servant or legislative employee, any individual who is responsible for the supervision or appointment of a public servant or legislative employee, legal counsel for any public servant or legislative employee, any ethics liaison under G.S. 163A-208, or any member of the State Board, the State Board shall render advice on specific questions involving the meaning and application of Articles 9 and 10 of this Chapter and the public servant's or legislative employee's compliance therewith. This subsection shall apply to judicial officers only for advice related to Article 9 of this Chapter.

(b) At the request of a legislator, the State Board shall render recommended advice on specific questions involving the meaning and application of this Chapter and Part 1 of Article 14 of Chapter 120 of the General Statutes and the legislator's compliance therewith. Any recommended formal advisory opinion issued to a legislator under this subsection shall immediately be delivered to the chairs of the Committee, together with a copy of the request. Except for the Lieutenant Governor, the immunity granted under this section shall not apply after the time the Committee modifies or overturns the advisory opinion of the State Board in accordance with G.S. 120-104.

(c) At the written request of any person, State agency, or governmental unit affected by Articles 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7 of this Chapter, the State Board shall render advice on specific questions involving the meaning and application of Articles 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7 of this Chapter and that person's, State agency's, or any governmental unit's compliance therewith.

(d) At the written request of candidates, the communications media, political committees, referendum committees, or other entities upon request shall render advice on specific questions regarding filing procedures and compliance with Articles of this Chapter.

(e) On its own motion, the State Board may render advisory opinions on specific questions involving the meaning and application of this Chapter.

(f) All written requests for advice and advice rendered in response to those requests shall relate prospectively to real or reasonably anticipated fact settings or circumstances.

(g) A request for a formal advisory opinion under subsections (a), (b), and (c) of this section shall be in writing, electronic or otherwise. The State Board shall issue formal advisory opinions having prospective application only. Any individual, person, or governmental unit who relies upon the advice provided on a specific matter addressed by the requested formal advisory opinion shall be immune from all of the following:

(1) Investigation by the State Board, except for an inquiry under G.S. 163A-206(b)(3).

(2) Any adverse action by the employing entity.

(3) Investigation by the Secretary of State.

(h) At the request of the Auditor, the State Board shall render advisory opinions on specific questions involving the meaning and application of this Chapter, Article 14 of Chapter 120 of the General Statutes, and an affected person's compliance therewith. The request shall be in writing, electronic or otherwise, and relate to real fact settings and circumstances. Except when the question involves a question governed by subsection (b) of this section, the State Board shall issue an advisory opinion under this subsection within 60 days of the receipt of all information deemed necessary by the State Board to render an opinion. If the question involves a question governed by subsection (b) of this section, the State Board shall comply with the provisions of that section prior to responding to the Auditor by delivering the recommended advisory opinion to the Committee within 60 days of the receipt of all information deemed necessary by the State Board to render an opinion. The Committee shall act on the opinion within 30 days of receipt and the Committee shall deliver the opinion to the Auditor. If the Committee fails to act on a recommended advisory opinion under this subsection with 30 days of receipt, the State Board shall deliver its recommended advisory opinion to the Auditor. Notwithstanding subsection (k) of this section, the Auditor may only release those portions of the advisory opinion necessary to comply with the requirements of G.S. 147-64.6(c)(1).

(i) Staff to the State Board may issue advice, but not formal or recommended formal advisory opinions, under procedures adopted by the State Board.

(j) The State Board shall publish its formal advisory opinions within 30 days of issuance. These formal advisory opinions shall be edited for publication purposes as necessary to protect the identities of the individuals requesting formal advisory opinions. When the State Board issues a recommended formal advisory opinion to a legislator under subsection (b) of this section, the State Board shall publish only the edited formal advisory opinion of the Committee within 30 days of receipt of the edited opinion from the Committee.

(k) Except as provided under subsections (h), (j), and (l) of this section, a request for advice, any advice provided by State Board staff, any formal or recommended formal advisory opinions, any supporting documents submitted or caused to be submitted to the State Board or State Board staff, and any documents prepared or collected by the State Board or State Board staff in connection with a request for advice are confidential. The identity of the individual making the request for advice, the existence of the request, and any information related to the request may not be revealed without the consent of the requestor. An individual who requests advice or receives advice, including a formal or recommended formal advisory opinion, may authorize the release to any other person, the State, or any governmental unit of the request, the advice, or any supporting documents.

For purposes of this section, "document" is as defined in G.S. 120-129. Requests for advice, any advice, and any documents related to requests for advice are not "public records" as defined in G.S. 132-1.

(l) Staff to the State Board may share all information and documents related to requests for advice, made by legislators under this section with staff to the Committee. The information and documents in the possession of staff to the Committee are confidential and are not public records.

(m) Requests for advice may be withdrawn by the requestor at any time prior to the issuance of the advice.

"§ 163A-210. Enforcement.

In addition to any other remedy, penalty, or crime in this Chapter:

(1) Violation of Articles 9 and 10 of this Chapter by any covered person or legislative employee is grounds for disciplinary action. Except as specifically provided in this Chapter and for perjury under G.S. 163A-206 and G.S. 138A-24, no criminal penalty shall attach for any violation of Articles 9 and 10 of this Chapter.

(2) The willful failure of any public servant serving on a board to comply with Articles 9 and 10 of this Chapter is misfeasance, malfeasance, or nonfeasance. In the event of misfeasance, malfeasance, or nonfeasance, the offending public servant serving on a board is subject to removal from the board of which the public servant is a member. For appointees of the Governor and members of the Council of State, the appointing authority may remove the offending public servant. For appointees of the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the Speaker of the House of Representatives may remove the offending public servant. For appointees of the General Assembly made upon the recommendation of the Speaker of the House of Representatives, the Governor at the recommendation of the Speaker of the House of Representatives may remove the offending public servant. For appointees of the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, the President Pro Tempore of the Senate may remove the offending public servant. For appointees of the General Assembly made upon the recommendation of the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, the Governor at the recommendation of the President Pro Tempore of the Senate may remove the offending public servant. For public servants elected to a board by either the Senate or House of Representatives, the electing house of the General Assembly shall exercise the discretion of whether to remove the offending public servant. For all other appointees, the State Board shall exercise the discretion of whether to remove the offending public servant.

(3) The willful failure of any public servant serving as a State employee to comply with Articles 9 and 10 of this Chapter is a violation of a written work order, thereby permitting disciplinary action as allowed by the law, including termination from employment. For employees of State departments headed by a member of the Council of State, the appropriate member of the Council of State shall make all final decisions on the manner in which the offending public servant shall be disciplined. For public servants who are judicial employees, the Chief Justice shall make all final decisions on the matter in which the offending judicial employee shall be disciplined. For legislative employees, the Legislative Services State Board shall make or refer to the hiring authority all final decisions on the matter in which the offending legislative employee shall be disciplined. For public servants appointed or elected for The University of North Carolina or the Community Colleges System, the appointing or electing authority shall make all final decisions on the matter in which the offending public servant shall be disciplined. For any other public servant serving as a State employee, the Governor shall make all final decisions on the manner in which the offending public servant shall be disciplined.

(4) The willful failure of any constitutional officer of the State to comply with Articles 9 and 10 of this Chapter is malfeasance in office for purposes of G.S. 123-5.

(5) The willful failure of a legislator, other than the Lieutenant Governor, to comply with Articles 9 and 10 of this Chapter is grounds for sanctions under G.S. 120-103.1.

(6) The State Board may seek to enjoin violations of G.S. 138A-34.

(7) Whoever willfully violates any provision of Article 3 or 4 of this Chapter shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor, except as provided in those Articles. In addition, no lobbyist who is convicted of a violation of the provisions of those Articles shall in any way act as a lobbyist for a period of two years from the date of conviction.

(8) In addition to the criminal penalties set forth in this section, State Board may levy civil fines for a violation of any provision of Article 3, 5, or 8 of this Chapter up to five thousand dollars ($5,000) per violation.

(9) Complaints of violations of this Chapter involving the State Board or any member or employee of the State Board shall be referred to the Attorney General for investigation. The Attorney General shall, upon receipt of a complaint, make an appropriate investigation thereof, and the Attorney General shall forward a copy of the investigation to the district attorney of the prosecutorial district as defined in G.S. 7A-60 of which Wake County is a part, who shall prosecute any person or governmental unit who violates any provision of this Chapter.

(10) Nothing in this Chapter affects the power of the State to prosecute any person for any violation of the criminal law.

"§ 163A-212. Powers of the chair in the execution of State Board duties.

(a) In the performance of the duties enumerated in this Chapter, the chair of the State Board shall have power to administer oaths, issue subpoenas, summon witnesses, and compel the production of papers, books, records, and other evidence.

(b) Upon the written request or requests of two or more members of the State Board , the chair shall issue subpoenas for designated witnesses or identified papers, books, records, and other evidence.

(c) In the absence of the chair or upon the chair's refusal to act, any two members of the State Board may issue subpoenas, summon witnesses, and compel the production of papers, books, records, and other evidence. In the absence of the chair or upon the chair's refusal to act, any member of the State Board may administer oaths.

(d) The State Board may petition the Superior Court of Wake County for the approval to issue subpoenas and subpoenas duces tecum as necessary to conduct investigations of violations of this Chapter. The court shall authorize subpoenas under this subsection when the court determines they are necessary for the enforcement of this Chapter. Subpoenas issued under this subsection shall be enforceable by the court through contempt powers. Venue shall be with the Superior Court of Wake County for any nonresident person, or that person's agent, who makes a reportable expenditure under this Chapter, and personal jurisdiction may be asserted under G.S. 1-75.4.

"§ 163A-215. Executive Director of the State Board.

(a) There is hereby created the position of Executive Director of the State Board, who shall perform all duties imposed by statute and such duties as might be assigned by the State Board.

(b) The State Board shall appoint an Executive Director for a term of four years with compensation to be determined by the Department of Personnel. The Executive Director shall serve, unless removed for cause, until a successor is appointed. In the event of a vacancy, the vacancy shall be filled for the remainder of the term.

(c) The Executive Director shall be responsible for staffing, administration, execution of the State Board's decisions and orders, and shall perform such other responsibilities as may be assigned by the State Board.

SENATE BILL 772:
Consolidate Ethics, Elections, and Lobbying

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary I	Date:	May 18, 2011
Introduced by:	Sen. Brock	Prepared by:	R. Erika Churchill
Analysis of:	First Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 772 would consolidate the boards and functions of the State Ethics Commission, State Board of Elections and the Lobbying Section of the Secretary of State.

CURRENT LAW:

The State Board of Elections administers elections and campaign finance, including providing guidance, advice, and training for the county boards of elections with respect to both of those. The State Board consists of 5 members appointed by the Governor. No more than three of the five are to be of the same political party as the Governor. Members serve 4 year terms, may be reappointed, but may not be elected or hold an office in a political committee.

The State Ethics Commission administers the State Government Ethics Act, including providing guidance to public servants and ethics education. The advisory authority of the State Ethics Commission includes advising all persons affected by the lobbying laws, Chapter 120C of the General Statutes. The State Ethics Commission consists of 8 members, with a bi-partisan make up. Members serve 4 year terms and may be reappointed; but may not be elected, hold an office in a political committee, or be an employee of the State, community colleges or local school systems.

The Secretary of State administers the reporting and audit function of the lobbying laws.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1. The bill would consolidate the functions of lobbying, ethics, and elections under one board, the new Board of Elections and Ethics Enforcement. The Board would consist of 9 members with 3 appointed by the Governor and no more than 2 of the same political party, 3 by the General Assembly upon recommendation of the Speaker and neither of whom are to be of the same political party, and 3 by the General Assembly upon recommendation of the President Pro Tem and neither of whom are to be of the same political party. Members would serve 3 year staggered terms, and could be reappointed. The Governor would select the chair annually, and the committee selects the vice-chair. Members may not be elected, hold an office in a political committee, or be an employee of the State, community colleges or local school systems.

The bill would consolidate, into one statute, the current statutory duties and responsibilities of the State Ethics Commission and the State Board of Elections. The bill would statutorily create the position of Executive Director, to be filled by the Board, serving a term of 4 years and removable for cause.

Sections 2-48. The bill would make conforming changes, either transferring existing provisions in Chapter 120C (Lobbying Law), Chapter 138A (State Government Ethics Act), and Chapter 163 (Election Laws) or repealing provisions re-set out in Section 1 of the bill.

Section 49. The bill would transfer the staffs of the State Ethics Commission, State Board of Elections, lobbying registration and enforcement to the State Board of Elections and Ethics Enforcement created by Section 1 of the bill.

Sections 50-52. The bill would instruct the Codifier of Statutes to change the references to Secretary of State, State Ethics Commission and State Board of Elections, and any derivation thereof, to to "State Board" where those terms are used in Chapters 120C, 138A and 163.

Section 53. The bill would require the newly consolidated board to report to the 2012 General Assembly and to the 2013 General Assembly as to further statutory changes needed to implement the consolidation.

EFFECTIVE DATE: July 1, 2011.

SENATE BILL 148*

Short Title:	General Statutes Comm. Technical Corrections.	(Public)
Sponsors:	Senator Hartsell.
Referred to:	Judiciary I.

March 1, 2011

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO MAKE TECHNICAL CORRECTIONS TO THE GENERAL STATUTES AS RECOMMENDED BY THE GENERAL STATUTES COMMISSION.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 28A-15-9.1 and G.S. 28A-21-3.1 are repealed.

SECTION 2. G.S. 135-45.8(13) reads as rewritten:

"(13) Charges for routine eye examinations, eyeglasses or other corrective lenses (except for cataract lenses certified as medically necessary for aphakia persons) and, except as authorized under G.S. 58-3-285, hearing aids or examinations for the prescription or fitting thereof.
~~hearing aids or examinations for the prescription or fitting thereof.~~"

SECTION 3.(a) G.S. 148-132(5) is repealed.

SECTION 3.(b) G.S. 148-132, as amended by subsection (a) of this section, reads as rewritten:

"§ 148-132. Distribution of products and services.

(a) The Division of Correction Enterprises is empowered and authorized to market and sell products and services produced by Correction Enterprises to any of the following entities:

(1) Any public agency or institution owned, managed, or controlled by the State.
(2) Any county, city, or town in this State.
(3) Any federal, state, or local public agency or institution in any other state of the union.
(4) An entity or organization that has tax-exempt status pursuant to section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and also receives local, state, or federal grant funding.
(5) Repealed.

(b) Products purchased by State and local governmental employees and retirees under the authority of subdivision (a)(5) of this section before July 1, 2012, may not be resold."

SECTION 3.(c) This section becomes effective July 1, 2012.

SECTION 4. Unless otherwise provided, this act is effective when it becomes law.

MEMORANDUM

TO: House Committee on Rules/Senate Judiciary I Committee

FROM: General Statutes Commission

DATE: May 11, 2011

RE: House Bill 190/Senate Bill 148 (General Statutes Comm. Technical Corrections)

General Comments

Sections 1 through 3 of this bill contain corrections of a technical nature to the General Statutes that are recommended by the General Statutes Commission. These amendments include correcting grammatical and redlining errors and deleting obsolete provisions.

Specific Comments

Section 1. This section repeals as obsolete G.S. 28A-15-9.1 (Phase II payments) and G.S. 28A-21-3.1 (Phase II tobacco grower and quota owner payments; list of Phase II distributees) (for text see Appendix).

These two statutes were enacted in 2003 as a recommendation of the General Statutes Commission. Their purpose was to permit Phase II payments under the National Tobacco Grower Settlement Trust to be paid to a decedent's devisees or heirs, after a solvent estate had been closed, without reopening the estate. The Phase II program has been superseded by the Tobacco Transition Payment Program (TTPP). The TTPP was established by the Fair and Equitable Tobacco Reform Act of 2004, Title VI of the American Jobs Creation Act of 2004, Public Law No. 108-357, which ended the tobacco marketing quota and price support loan programs. The TTPP will provide payments over a ten-year period (from 2005 through 2014) to quota holders and producers of quota tobacco to help them make the transition from the federally-regulated program to a free-market system. Unlike the Phase II payment program, the TTPP has its own way of dealing with payments when a quota holder or producer of quota tobacco has died. As a result, G.S. 28A-15-9.1 and G.S. 28A-21-3.1 are now obsolete and no replacement provisions are needed.

Section 2. This section amends G.S. 135-45.8(13) to remove a duplicated phrase caused by a redlining error. G.S. 135-45.8(13) was amended last year by S.L. 2010-2, s. 2, to insert a cross-reference to an insurance statute. In the process, the underlining was accidently extended to the end of the subdivision, covering not only the new language but also the existing phrase "hearing aids or examinations for the prescription or fitting thereof." The effect was to duplicate that phrase.

Section 3. This section amends G.S. 148-132 to correct a grammatical problem.

G.S. 148-132 allows the Division of Correction Enterprises to sell its products to five listed categories of purchasers. The category in subdivision (5) consists of State and local government employees and retirees, whose purchases are subject to a yearly limit of $2,500 and a prohibition on resale. Most of subdivision (5) will expire on July 1, 2012. As of that date, only the sentence containing the prohibition on resale will remain. The subdivision will no longer fit the grammatical structure of the statute, and it will also not be particularly clear what the subdivision means.

To fix the problem described above, subsection 3(a) of this bill completely repeals G.S. 148-132(5), which will remove the State and local government employee and retiree category from the list as was intended by the original session law that enacted the provision. Subsection 3(b) then codifies the existing text as G.S. 148-132(a) and enacts a new G.S. 148-132 (b) that brings forward the resale prohibition and clarifies that it applies to previously authorized sales. Subsection 3(c) makes these amendments effective July 1, 2012, to match the timing of the "fix" with the date when the resale problem arises.

Here is the current text in pertinent part:

§ 148-132. Distribution of products and services.

The Division of Correction Enterprises is empowered and authorized to market and sell products and services produced by Correction Enterprises to any of the following entities:

. . . .

(5) (Effective until July 1, 2012) Any current employee or retiree of the State of North Carolina or of a unit of local government of this State, verified through State-issued identification, or through proof of retirement status, but purchases by a State or local governmental employee or retiree may not exceed two thousand five hundred dollars ($2,500) during any calendar year. Products purchased by State and local governmental employees and retirees under this section may not be resold.

(5) (Effective July 1, 2012) Products purchased by State and local governmental employees and retirees under this section may not be resold. (2007-280, s. 1; 2009-451, s. 19.16.)

Section 4. This section makes the bill effective when it becomes law, except where otherwise provided.

Appendix

§ 28A-15-9.1. Phase II payments.

A Phase II payment as defined in G.S. 28A-21-3.1 shall be the property of the distributees paid in accordance with that section. (2003-295, s. 1.)

§ 28A-21-3.1. Phase II tobacco grower and quota owner payments; list of Phase II distributees.

(a) The following definitions apply in this section:

(1) "National Tobacco Grower Settlement Trust" means the trust established by tobacco companies to provide payments to tobacco growers and tobacco quota owners in 14 states for the purposes of ameliorating potential adverse economic consequences of likely reduction in demand, sales, and prices for tobacco as an agricultural product as a result of the Master Settlement Agreement incorporated in the consent decree entered in the action of State of North Carolina vs. Philip Morris, Incorporated, et al., 98 CVS 14377, in the General Court of Justice, Superior Court Division, Wake County, North Carolina.

(2) "Phase II payment" means an amount certified by the North Carolina Phase II Tobacco Certification Entity, Inc., to be paid pursuant to the trust agreement establishing the National Tobacco Grower Settlement Trust.

(b) A personal representative or collector of the estate of a decedent who, during 1993 or any subsequent year, was a tobacco grower or a tobacco quota owner as defined in Section 4.01 of the trust agreement establishing the National Tobacco Grower Settlement Trust may file, along with a final account, a list of Phase II distributees for Phase II payments if all of the following conditions are met:

(1) There are no unsatisfied creditors.

(2) There are no unsatisfied general monetary bequests.

(3) All assets other than any potential Phase II payments have been distributed.

(c) A list of Phase II distributees, signed under oath, must contain the following information:

(1) The name and address of the personal representative or collector.

(2) The name and social security number of the decedent.

(3) The name and address, if known, of each devisee or heir entitled to receive Phase II payments and the percentage of Phase II payments to be received by each.

(d) The clerk of superior court must review the list of Phase II distributees to determine if the list of distributees and their shares of potential Phase II payments are in accordance with the will or, if there is no will, in accordance with the Intestate Succession Act. If the clerk accepts the list of Phase II distributees for filing, the clerk must endorse the clerk's approval thereon, which shall be prima facie evidence of correctness.

(e) Upon determination by the North Carolina Phase II Tobacco Certification Entity, Inc., that the estate of a decedent entitled to any Phase II payment covering a time period when the decedent was alive has been closed, the payment may be paid directly to those distributees and in those shares set forth on a list of Phase II distributees filed under this section without the estate's having to be reopened under G.S. 28A-23-5.

(f) The estate of a decedent who is entitled to any Phase II payment may be reopened, if necessary, in accordance with G.S. 28A-23-5 in order to file a list of Phase II distributees under this section.

(g) For purposes of this section, Phase II payments covering a time period when decedent was alive are deemed cash and shall not pass by virtue of any devise or inheritance of the decedent's real property. (2003-295, s. 2.)

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO EXEMPT TAXICAB DRIVERS WHO ARE INDEPENDENT CONTRACTORS FROM COVERAGE UNDER THE WORKERS' COMPENSATION ACT.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Article 1 of Chapter 97 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 97-5.1. Presumption that taxicab drivers are independent contractors.

(a) It shall be a rebuttable presumption under this Chapter that any person who operates, and who has an ownership or leasehold interest in, a passenger motor vehicle that is operated as a taxicab is an independent contractor for the purposes of this Chapter and not an employee as defined in G.S. 97-2. The presumption is not rebutted solely because the operator is required to comply with rules and regulations imposed on taxicabs by the local government unit that licenses companies, taxicabs, or operators.

(b) The following definitions apply in this section:

(1) Lease. – A contract under which the lessor provides a vehicle to a lessee for consideration.

(2) Leasehold. – Includes, but is not limited to, a lease for a shift or a longer period.

(3) Passenger motor vehicle that is operated as a taxicab. – Any vehicle that:

a. Has a passenger seating capacity that does not exceed seven persons; and

b. Is transporting persons, property, or both on a route that begins or ends in this State and either:

1. Carries passengers for hire when the destination and route traveled may be controlled by a passenger and the fare is calculated on the basis of any combination of an initial fee, distance traveled, or waiting time; or

2. Is in use under a contract between the operator and a third party to provide specific service to transport designated passengers or to provide errand services to locations selected by the third party."

SECTION 2. This act is effective when it becomes law and applies to persons affected on or after that date..

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO CREATE ENHANCED PROTECTIONS FOR VICTIMS AND WITNESSES BY ADDING AN EXCEPTION TO THE HEARSAY RULE THAT ALLOWS THE STATEMENT OF AN UNAVAILABLE WITNESS TO BE INTRODUCED INTO EVIDENCE IN CERTAIN CIRCUMSTANCES AND BY INCREASING THE CRIMINAL PENALTY FOR THE OFFENSE OF INTIMIDATING OR INTERFERING WITH A WITNESS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Rule 804(b) of the North Carolina Rules of Evidence, as contained in G.S. 8C-1, is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(6) Forfeiture by wrongdoing. – A statement is not excluded by the hearsay rule if the statement is offered against a party that has engaged or acquiesced in wrongdoing that was intended to and did procure the unavailability of a witness who was the declarant of the statement. The court shall determine the admissibility of the statement under this section by a preponderance of the evidence."

SECTION 2. G.S. 14-226(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) If any person shall by threats, menaces or in any other manner intimidate or attempt to intimidate any person who is summoned or acting as a witness in any of the courts of this State, or prevent or deter, or attempt to prevent or deter any person summoned or acting as such witness from attendance upon such court, ~~he~~ the person shall be guilty of a ~~Class H felony.~~Class D felony."

SECTION 3. This act becomes effective December 1, 2011, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 268:
Enhance Protection of Victims and Witnesses

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary I	Date:	June 6, 2011
Introduced by:	Sens. McKissick, Stevens	Prepared by:	Karen Cochrane-Brown
Analysis of:	First Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 268 would amend the Rules of Evidence to create an exception to the Hearsay rule for a statement offered against a party that has engaged or acquiesced in wrongdoing that resulted in the unavailability of a witness. The bill would also increase the penalty for intimidating or interfering with a witness.

CURRENT LAW:

Under current law, "hearsay" is defined as "a statement, other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the trial or hearing, offered in evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted." Hearsay is generally not admissible unless an exception is provided by law.

The following categories of statements are not excluded by the hearsay rule if the declarant is unavailable as a witness:

- Former Testimony. – Testimony given as a witness at another hearing if the party against whom the testimony is offered had an opportunity to examine the witness.
- Statement Under Belief of Impending Death. – A statement by a declarant who believed his death was imminent about the cause or circumstances of his impending death.
- Statement Against Interest. – A statement which at the time it was made was so far contrary to the declarant's pecuniary or proprietary interest or so far tended to subject him to civil or criminal liability that a reasonable person would not have made the statement unless he believed it to be true.
- Statement of Personal or Family History. – A statement concerning a declarant's own birth, adoption, marriage, divorce, legitimacy or other similar fact of personal or family history; or a statement concerning the foregoing, and death, of another person if the declarant was related by blood, adoption, or marriage, or so closely associated with the other person's family as to be likely to have accurate information.
- Other Exceptions. – Statements having equivalent circumstantial guarantees of trustworthiness if the court makes certain determinations.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Senate Bill 268 would add another hearsay exception to the list in the case of a statement offered against a party that has engaged or acquiesced in wrongdoing that was intended to and did procure the unavailability of the witness who was the declarant of the statement. The court shall determine the admissibility of the statement by a preponderance of the evidence.

The bill also increases the penalty for intimidating or interfering with a witness from a Class H felony to Class D felony.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act becomes effective December 1, 2011, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date.

Short Title:	Vote for the Person, Not the Party Act.	(Public)

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO ELIMINATE THE OPTION OF STRAIGHT-PARTY TICKET VOTING ON BALLOTS IN NORTH CAROLINA.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 163-165.6(e) is repealed.

SECTION 2. G.S. 163-182.1(a)(7) is repealed.

SECTION 3. This act is effective when it becomes law.

SENATE BILL 411:
Vote for the Person, Not the Party Act

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary I	Date:	June 6, 2011
Introduced by:	Sens. Newton, Meredith, Brown	Prepared by:	R. Erika Churchill Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	First Edition

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 411 would eliminate the option of straight party voting in North Carolina.

CURRENT LAW: As of October 2008, North Carolina is one of 16 states that offer straight ticket voting. Straight ticket voting, generally, is the ability to choose a party's entire slate of candidates by marking once on the ballot to vote for every candidate of that party on that ballot.

In North Carolina, this is true, with one exception. In a presidential election, the voter must mark his or her choice for president separate and apart from the straight ticket option. The straight-ticket option would apply to remainder of the partisan ballot.

BILL ANALYSIS: The bill would repeal the authority for allowing, and counting, straight party voting in North Carolina.

EFFECTIVE DATE: Effective when it becomes law, but but may not be implemented until the session law has received 'preclearance' approval under Section 5 of the Voting Rights of 1965.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT REQUIRING A CERTIFICATE OF MERIT IN CIVIL ACTIONS OR ARBITRATION PROCEEDINGS BROUGHT AGAINST A PERSON OR FIRM PROVIDING ARCHITECTURE OR ENGINEERING SERVICES IN THIS STATE.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Subchapter VI of Chapter 1 of the General Statutes is amended by adding the following new Article to read:

"Article 12A.

"Certificate of Merit in Malpractice Claims Against Design Professionals.

"§ 1-123.1. Definitions.

The following definitions shall apply in this Article:

(1) Claim. – A claim, counterclaim, crossclaim, or third-party claim alleging malpractice against a design professional.

(2) Defendant. – A design professional against whom a claim of malpractice is asserted.

(3) Design professional. – A professional engineer licensed pursuant to Chapter 89C of the General Statutes, an architect licensed pursuant to Chapter 83A of the General Statutes, or any firm in which the licensed engineer or architect practices, including a corporation, professional corporation, limited liability corporation, partnership, limited liability partnership, sole proprietorship, joint venture, or any other business entity.

(4) Practice of architecture. – As defined by G.S. 83A-1(7).

(5) Practice of engineering. – As defined by G.S. 89C-3(6).

"§ 1-123.2. Certificate of merit in malpractice claims against design professionals.

(a) Any claim in a civil action or arbitration proceeding asserting malpractice by a design professional shall be dismissed unless both of the following conditions are met:

(1) The pleading asserting the claim specifically asserts that the professional services provided by the defendant and all records pertaining to the alleged negligence that are available to the claimant after reasonable inquiry have been reviewed by a licensed professional engineer or licensed architect who holds the same type of professional license and practices in the same area of practice as the design professional against whom the claim is being brought, who is willing to testify that the professional services provided by the defendant did not comply with the applicable standard of care, and who either is reasonably expected to qualify as an expert witness under G.S. 8C-1, Rule 702, or is a person whom the claimant will seek to have qualified as an expert witness by motion under subsection (b) of this section filed with the pleading; and

(2) The pleading asserting the claim is accompanied by a certificate of merit signed by a licensed professional engineer or licensed architect who holds the same type of professional license and practices in the same area of practice as the design professional against whom the claim is being brought, certifying that the engineer or architect has reviewed the services provided by the defendant and all records provided by the claimant relating to those services, has reviewed the pleading asserting the claim against the defendant, and is willing to testify that the claim of malpractice against the defendant has merit.

The claimant shall provide, at the request of the defendant, proof of compliance with this subsection through up to ten written interrogatories, the answers to which shall be verified by the expert required under this section. These interrogatories do not count against the interrogatory limit under G.S. 1A-1, Rule 33.

(b) Upon motion by either party, a resident judge of the superior court in the county or judicial district in which the action or proceeding is pending may allow expert testimony on the appropriate standard of care by a witness who does not meet the requirements of G.S. 8C-1, Rule 702 or of subdivision (a)(2) of this section relating to type of license and area of practice, but who is otherwise qualified as an expert witness, upon a showing by the movant of extraordinary circumstances and a determination by the court that the motion should be allowed to serve the ends of justice.

(c) Upon motion by the plaintiff prior to the expiration of the applicable statute of limitations, a resident judge of the superior court for a judicial district in which venue for the cause of action is appropriate under G.S. 1-82 or, if no resident judge for that judicial district is physically present in that judicial district, otherwise available, or able or willing to consider the motion, then any presiding judge of the superior court for that judicial district may allow a motion to extend the statute of limitations for a period not to exceed 120 days to file a complaint in an action alleging malpractice by a design professional in order to comply with this section, upon a determination that good cause exists for the granting of the motion and that the ends of justice would be served by an extension."

SECTION 2. G.S. 1A-1, Rule 9, is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(j1) Design Professional Malpractice. – Any pleading alleging malpractice by a design professional, as defined by G.S. 1-123.1(3), shall be filed in accordance with Article 12A of Chapter 1 of the General Statutes."

SECTION 3. G.S. 89C-10 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(j) The Board shall have the power to adopt rules to discipline professional engineers licensed under this Chapter who certify a civil action that is without merit in violation of Article 12A of Chapter 1 of the General Statutes."

SECTION 4. G.S. 83A-6(a) is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(a) The Board shall have the power to adopt bylaws, rules, and standards of professional conduct to carry out the purposes of this Chapter, including, but not limited to:

...

(6) The disciplining of architects licensed under this Chapter who certify a civil action that is without merit in violation of Article 12A of Chapter 1 of the General Statutes."

SECTION 5. This act becomes effective October 1, 2011, and applies to actions and proceedings commenced on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 435:
Civil Pro./Require Certificate of Merit

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary I	Date:	June 6, 2011
Introduced by:	Sen. Hartsell	Prepared by:	Bill Patterson
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition S435-CSTG-26		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: The PCS to Senate Bill 435 would require a certificate of merit in civil actions or arbitration proceedings asserting malpractice claims against a person or firm providing architecture or engineering services in this State.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 of the bill would amend Chapter 1 of the General Statutes by adding a new Article 12 entitled "Certificate of Merit in Malpractice Claims Against Design Professionals".

A "design professional" is defined as a professional engineer licensed pursuant to Chapter 89C, an architect licensed pursuant to Chapter 83A, or any firm in which the licensed engineer or architect practices.

The new Article requires dismissal of any action or arbitration proceeding alleging malpractice by a design professional unless the pleading asserting the claim states that the professional design services and all records relating to the alleged negligence have been reviewed by a licensed engineer or architect holding the same type of license and practicing in the same area as the defendant, who is willing to testify that the claim has merit, and who either is reasonably expected to qualify as an expert witness or is someone the plaintiff will seek to have qualified by motion, filed with the pleading, showing extraordinary circumstances warranting expert testimony to serve the ends of justice.

The pleading also must be accompanied by a certificate of merit signed by the engineer or architect certifying that he or she has reviewed all records provided by the claimant, has reviewed the allegations of the complaint, and is willing to testify that the malpractice claim has merit.

On motion of the plaintiff prior to the expiration of the applicable statute of limitations, the court can extend the statute of limitations by not more than 120 days upon a showing of good cause, in order to permit the plaintiff to comply with this requirement.

Section 2 of the bill would make a conforming change to G.S. 1A-1, Rule 9.

Sections 3 & 4 of the bill would amend the statutes relating to professional engineers and architects to allow the respective licensing boards to discipline licensed professional engineers or architects who certify a civil action that is without merit in violation of the provisions of Section 1 of the bill.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The act becomes effective October 1, 2011, and applies to actions and proceedings commenced on or after that date.

Susan Sitze, counsel to Senate Judiciary I, substantially contributed to this summary.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT WHICH ALLOWS THE NORTH CAROLINA STATE BOARD OF EXAMINERS IN OPTOMETRY TO CONSIDER CERTAIN INVESTIGATIVE INFORMATION AS CONFIDENTIAL, REQUIRES LICENSEES TO COOPERATE WITH LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCIES, AND REQUIRES LICENSEES TO SELF-REPORT CERTAIN INDICTMENTS, ARRESTS, MEDICAL JUDGMENTS, AWARDS, PAYMENTS, AND SETTLEMENTS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Article 6 of Chapter 90 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 90-121.5. Confidentiality of investigative information; cooperation with law enforcement; self-reporting requirements.

(a) The Board may, in a closed session, receive information or evidence involving or concerning the treatment of a patient who has not expressly or impliedly consented to the public disclosure of the treatment when necessary for the protection of the rights of the patient or the accused licensee and the full presentation of relevant evidence.

(b) All records, papers, investigative files, investigative notes, reports, other investigative information, and other documents containing information in the possession of or received, gathered, or completed by the Board, its members, staff, employees, attorneys, or consultants as a result of investigations, inquiries, assessments, or interviews conducted in connection with a license, complaint, assessment, potential impairment, disciplinary matter, or report of professional liability insurance awards or settlements shall not be considered public records within the meaning of Chapter 132 of the General Statutes. Such documents are privileged, confidential, and not subject to discovery, subpoena, or other means of legal compulsion for release to any person other than the Board or its employees or consultants involved in the application for licensure, impairment assessment, or discipline of a licensee, except as provided in this section. However, any notice or statement of charges against any licensee or applicant, any notice to any licensee or applicant of a hearing in any proceeding, or any decision rendered in connection with a hearing in any proceeding shall be a public record within the meaning of Chapter 132 of the General Statutes, notwithstanding that the documentation may contain information collected and compiled as a result of the investigation, inquiry, or hearing. Identifying information concerning the treatment of or delivery of services to a patient or client who has not consented to the public disclosure of the treatment or services may be deleted. If any record, paper, or other document containing information collected and compiled by or on behalf of the Board is received and admitted in evidence in any hearing before the Board, the documents shall be a public record within the meaning of Chapter 132 of the General Statutes, subject to any deletions of identifying information concerning the treatment of or delivery of professional services to a patient who has not consented to the public disclosure of the treatment or services.

For purposes of this subsection, 'investigative information' includes (i) formal or informal complaints received or information relating to the identity of, or a report made by, another licensee or other person performing an expert review or similar analysis for the Board or (ii) transcripts of any deposition taken or affidavit or statement obtained by Board counsel in preparation for or anticipation of a hearing held pursuant to this Article but not admitted into evidence at the hearing.

(b1) When the Board receives a complaint regarding a licensee's care of a patient, the Board shall determine whether there is reasonable cause to believe that a licensee has violated a statute or rule governing the practice of optometry. In making such determination, the Board shall provide the licensee with a copy of the complaint and ask for a response. If providing a copy of the complaint identifies an anonymous complainant or compromises the integrity of an investigation, the Board shall provide the licensee with a summary of all substantial elements of the complaint. Upon written request of a patient, the Board may provide the patient a licensee's written response to a complaint filed by the patient with the Board regarding the patient's care. Upon written request of a complainant, who is not the patient but is authorized by State and federal law to receive protected health information about the patient, the Board may provide the complainant a licensee's written response to a complaint filed with the Board regarding the patient's care.

(b2) If information in the possession of the Board, its employees, or agents indicates that a crime may have been committed, the Board may report the information to the appropriate law enforcement agency or district attorney of the district in which the offense was committed.

(b3) The Board shall cooperate with and assist a law enforcement agency or district attorney conducting a criminal investigation or prosecution of a licensee by providing information that is relevant to the criminal investigation or prosecution to the investigating agency or district attorney. Information disclosed by the Board to an investigative agency or district attorney remains confidential and may not be disclosed by the investigating agency except as necessary to further the investigation.

(b4) All persons licensed under this Article shall self-report to the Board within 30 days of arrest or indictment any of the following:

(1) Any felony arrest or indictment.

(2) Any arrest for driving while impaired or driving under the influence.

(3) Any arrest or indictment for the possession, use, or sale of any controlled substance.

(c) The Board, its members, attorneys, and staff may release confidential or nonpublic information to any health care licensure board in this State or another state or authorized Department of Health and Human Services personnel with enforcement or investigative responsibilities about (i) the issuance, denial, annulment, suspension, revocation, or other public disciplinary action taken concerning a license, (ii) the voluntary surrender to the Board of a license by a licensee, including the reasons for the action, or (iii) any disciplinary action taken by the Board. The Board shall notify the licensee in writing within 60 days after the information is transmitted. A summary of the information that is being transmitted shall be furnished to the licensee. If the licensee requests in writing within 30 days after being notified that the information has been transmitted, the licensee shall be furnished a copy of all information transmitted but shall be liable for the reasonable expense of the copies. The notice or copies of the information shall not be provided if the information relates to an ongoing criminal investigation by any law enforcement agency or authorized Department of Health and Human Services personnel with enforcement or investigative responsibilities."

SECTION 2. Article 6 of Chapter 90 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 90-121.6 Reporting and publication of judgments, awards, payments, and settlements.

(a) All optometrists licensed or applying for licensure by the Board shall report to the Board:

(1) All medical malpractice judgments or awards affecting or involving the optometrist.

(2) All settlements in the amount of seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000) or more related to an incident of alleged medical malpractice affecting or involving the optometrist where the settlement occurred on or after May 1, 2008.

(3) All settlements in the aggregate amount of seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000) or more related to any one incident of alleged medical malpractice affecting or involving the optometrist not already reported pursuant to subdivision (2) of this subsection where, instead of a single payment of seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000) or more occurring on or after May 1, 2008, there is a series of payments made to the same claimant which, in the aggregate, equal or exceed seventy-five thousand dollars ($75,000).

(b) The report required under subsection (a) of this section shall contain the following information:

(1) The date of the judgment, award, payment, or settlement.

(2) The city, state, and country in which the incident occurred that resulted in the judgment, award, payment, or settlement.

(3) The date the incident occurred that resulted in the judgment, award, payment, or settlement.

(c) The Board shall publish on the Board's Web site or other publication information collected under this section. The Board shall publish this information for seven years from the date of the judgment, award, payment, or settlement. The Board shall not release or publish individually identifiable numeric values of the reported judgment, award, payment, or settlement. The Board shall not release or publish the identity of the patient associated with the judgment, award, payment, or settlement. The Board shall allow the optometrist to publish a statement explaining the circumstances that led to the judgment, award, payment, or settlement, and whether the case is under appeal. The Board shall ensure these statements:

(1) Conform to the ethics of optometry.

(2) Not contain individually identifiable numeric values of the judgment, award, payment, or settlement.

(3) Not contain information that would disclose the patient's identity.

(d) The term "settlement" for the purpose of this section includes a payment made from personal funds, a payment by a third party on behalf of the optometrist, or a payment from any other source of funds.

(e) Nothing in this section shall limit the Board from collecting information needed to administer this Article."

SECTION 3. This act is effective when it becomes law.

SENATE BILL 349:
Confidentiality/Investigative Info/Optometry

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary I	Date:	June 6, 2011
Introduced by:	Sens. Purcell, Pate	Prepared by:	Brad Krehely
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition S349-CSRN-6		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 349 would allow the North Carolina State Board of Examiners in Optometry to consider certain investigative information as confidential. The Proposed Committee Substitute (PCS) (1) would provide additional complaint procedures, (2) would permit the Board to report information indicating that a crime may have been committed, (3) would require the Board to cooperate with law enforcement or the district attorney conducting an investigation of a licensee, (4) would require licensees to self-report to the Board certain arrests and indictments, and (5) would require the reporting and publication of judgments and settlements against optometrists and applicants for licensure. This PCS is identical to the PCS that was distributed and discussed on April 21, 2011.

CURRENT LAW: The North Carolina State Board of Examiners in Optometry (Board) regulates the practice of optometry. It consists of 5 optometrists that have been in the practice for at least 5 years and two members of the public. The President of the Board and/or secretary-treasurer may issue subpoenas. The Board may also make necessary regulations to carry out its duties. The Board may hear and determine all complaints, allegations, and charges of malpractice made against any licensed optometrist. The Board may refuse to issue or renew a license, revoke or suspend a license, and invoke other disciplinary measures. Before taking action that would affect a licensee, the Board shall grant a hearing.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 does all of the following:

- Allows the Board to receive, in closed session, information or evidence on the treatment of a patient who has not expressly or impliedly consented to public disclosure of the treatment when necessary for the protection of the rights of the patient or the accused licensee and to allow full presentation of relevant evidence.
- Specifies that records, papers, "investigative information," and documents gathered as a result of an investigation in connection with a license, complaint, or disciplinary matter are not public records. Provides that these documents are privileged, confidential, and not subject to discovery, subpoena, or other release to any person other than the Board, its employees, or consultants (except as provided in this section).
- Provides that the following are public records:
    - Any notice or statement of charges against any licensee or applicant.
    - Any notice of a hearing to a licensee or applicant.
    - Any decision rendered in connection with a hearing.
    - Records admitted into evidence in a hearing (subject to deletions of identifying information where a patient has not consented to public disclosure of treatment).
- Defines "investigative information" to include:

- Formal or informal complaints received or information relating to the identity of or a report made by another licensee for the Board.
- Transcripts of depositions, affidavits, or statements obtained by Board counsel in preparation for a hearing, but not admitted into evidence.

- Provides that when the Board receives a complaint regarding a licensee's care of a patient, the Board must determine whether there is reasonable cause to believe that a licensee has violated a statute or rule governing optometry. The Board must provide the licensee with a copy of the complaint and ask for a response; a summary can be provided if sending a copy would identify an anonymous complainant or compromise an investigation. If the patient makes a written request, the Board may to provide a patient with the licensee's response to a complaint filed by the patient.
- Allows the Board to report information that a crime may have been committed.
- Requires the Board to assist a law enforcement agency or district attorney conducting a criminal investigation or prosecution of a licensee. The information is confidential except as necessary to further the investigation.
- Requires licensees to self-report any of the following to the Board within 30 days:
  - Any felony arrest or indictment.
  - Any arrest for driving while impaired or driving under the influence.
  - Any arrest or indictment for the possession, use, or sale of any controlled substance.
- Allows the Board, members, attorneys, and staff to release confidential information to any health care licensure board in North Carolina or another state or to authorized Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS) personnel with enforcement responsibilities about:
  - Issuance, suspension, or public disciplinary action concerning a license.
  - Voluntary surrender to the Board of a license (by a licensee).
  - Any disciplinary action taken by the Board.
- If confidential information is released to a licensure board or DHHS, the Board must notify the licensee within 60 days after the information is transmitted. A summary of the information must be furnished to the licensee. The licensee must be furnished a copy of all the information transmitted if a licensee makes a request in writing within 30 days after notification (but not if the information is related to an ongoing criminal investigation).

Section 2 requires optometrists licensed or applying for licensure to report the following to the Board:

- All medical malpractice judgments or awards affecting or involving the optometrist.
- Settlements of $75,000 or more related to an incident of alleged medical malpractice affecting or involving the optometrist on or after May 1, 2008.
- Settlements in the aggregate amount of $75,000 or more related to any one incident of alleged medical malpractice affecting or involving the optometrist not already reported where, instead of a single payment of $75,000, there is a series of payments made to the same claimant which, in the aggregate, equal or exceed $75,000. Applies to settlements on or after May 1, 2008.

The report provided to the Board must also include the date of the judgment or settlement, the location where the incident occurred, and the date the incident occurred.

Section 2 also imposes the following requirements on the Board:

- To publish information collected under this section on the Board's Web site or other publication for seven years from the date of the judgment or settlement.
- To not release or publish numeric values of the reported judgment or settlement.
- To not release or publish the identity of the patient associated with the judgment or settlement.
- To allow the optometrist to publish a statement explaining the circumstances that led to the judgment or settlement (with certain restrictions on these statements).

Section 2 does not limit the Board from collecting information needed to administer these provisions.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The act is effective when it becomes law.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO LIMIT AN INDIVIDUAL FROM RUNNING ON THE SAME GENERAL ELECTION BALLOT FOR MORE THAN ONE OFFICE, EXCEPT TO FILL A VACANCY FOR THE REMAINDER OF AN UNEXPIRED TERM.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Article 11 of Chapter 163 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 163-124. No run for two separate offices at the same time.

(a) No individual is eligible to have that individual's name on the general election ballot for two separate offices, unless one of the offices is for the remainder of the unexpired term for an office that requires an election to fill the unexpired portion of the term.

(b) This section shall apply to any individual nominated under Article 9 of this Chapter, filing under G.S. 163-106, or filing a petition under this Article."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective with respect to elections occurring on or after January 1, 2012.

SENATE BILL 356:
No Filing for Party and Unaffiliated

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary I	Date:	June 3, 2011
Introduced by:	Sen. Robinson	Prepared by:	R. Erika Churchill
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition S356-CSST-27		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: The proposed committee substitute for Senate Bill 356 limits an individual from running on the same general election ballot for more than one office except to fill a vacancy for the remainder of an unexpired term.

CURRENT LAW: Generally, candidates gain access to the general election ballot in a number of ways, as follows:

- Party nominees:
  - By filing a notice of candidacy and running in a primary. G.S. 163-106.
  - By nomination of a new political party. G.S. 163-98.
- Unaffiliated Candidates: By filing a petition with the appropriate board of elections by noon on the last Friday in July before the general election, with the appropriate number of signatures as follows:
  - For Statewide office: Petition must have signature of qualified voters equal to 2% of the vote for Governor in the most recent election, and must be signed by 200 voters from 4 Congressional districts.
  - For district office: Petition must have signature of qualified voters of the district equal to 4% of the total number of registered voters in that district.
  - For county office or single county legislative district: Petition must have signature of qualified voters of the county equal to 4% of the total number of registered voters in that county.
  - For partisan municipal office: Petition must have signature of qualified voters of the municipality equal to 4% of the total number of registered voters in that municipality (petition is due by noon on Friday before 7th Saturday before the election).
- Write-in Candidates: By filing a declaration of intent, and filing a subsequent petition by noon on the 90th day before the general election with the appropriate board of elections, with the appropriate number of signatures as follows:
  - For Statewide office: Petition must have signatures of 500 qualified voters of the State.
  - For district office: Petition must have signatures of 250 qualified voters.
  - For county office, single county legislative district, or partisan school district: Petition must have signatures of 100 qualified voters who are eligible to vote for the office, unless fewer than 5,000 people are eligible to vote for the office, then signatures of at least 1% of the registered voters eligible to vote.

Individuals are permitted to file only one notice of candidacy per election, unless it is to fill an unexpired term as U.S. Senator or U.S. Representative. G.S. 163-106(h). Changes in party affiliation must be completed at least 90 days before filing a notice of candidacy for a party primary. Individuals registered as unaffiliated are ineligible to file as a candidate in a party primary election. G.S. 163-106(b). An individual who appeared on the primary ballot is not eligible to be nominated to fill a vacancy in the nomination of another party for the same office in the same year. G.S. 163-114.

Individuals appearing on the primary ballot for the same office are not eligible as unaffiliated candidates for that office. G.S. 163-122. Individuals appearing on the primary ballot are not eligible to have votes counted for that individual as a write-in candidate for the same office in that year. G.S. 163-123.

BILL ANALYSIS: The proposed committee substitute would limit an individual from running on the same general election ballot for more than one office except to fill a vacancy for the remainder of an unexpired term, regardless of how that individual gained access to the ballot.

EFFECTIVE DATE: January 1, 2012, but may not be implemented until the session law has received 'preclearance' approval under Section 5 of the Voting Rights of 1965.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE EASTERN BAND OF CHEROKEE INDIANS, A FEDERALLY RECOGNIZED INDIAN TRIBE AND SOVEREIGN NATION, TO RECEIVE SHIPMENTS OF SPIRITUOUS LIQUOR FROM THE NORTH CAROLINA ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGE CONTROL COMMISSION AND TO AUTHORIZE THE EASTERN BAND OF CHEROKEE INDIANS TO ESTABLISH A TRIBAL ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGE CONTROL COMMISSION TO REGULATE THE PURCHASE, POSSESSION, CONSUMPTION, SALE, AND DELIVERY OF ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES AT RETAIL.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 18B-109(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Armed Forces ~~Installation.~~Installation and Indian Country Lands. – No person shall have malt beverages or unfortified wine shipped directly from a point outside this State to an armed forces installation within this State if those alcoholic beverages are for resale on the installation or to the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians for resale on Indian Country lands within this State under the jurisdiction of the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians."

SECTION 2. G.S. 18B-203(a)(17) reads as rewritten:

"(a) Powers. – The Commission shall have authority to:

(17) Provide for the distribution of spirituous liquor to armed forces installations within this State for resale on the ~~installation;~~installation and to the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians for resale on Indian Country lands within this State under the jurisdiction of the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians.

. . . ."

SECTION 3. Article 1 of Chapter 18B of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 18B-112. Tribal alcoholic beverage control.

(a) Application of this Chapter. – The Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians, a federally recognized Indian tribe and sovereign nation, shall be exempt from the provisions of this Chapter, except for those made applicable by this section. The Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians tribe shall adopt by ordinance the provisions of this Chapter which are made applicable to the tribe by this section and such ordinance shall be approved by the Secretary of the United States Department of the Interior and published in the Federal Register accordingly. The Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians shall hold lawful tribal elections as set out in

G.S. 18B-600(a), and if the result of such election authorizes the activity upon which a vote was held, the activity shall be deemed authorized by this section. For the purposes of this section, the tribal alcoholic beverage control commission shall possess the same powers and authority conveyed upon the North Carolina Alcoholic Beverage Control Commission by any section of this Chapter made applicable to the tribe by this section.

(b) Compliance Required. – The Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians shall comply with the following provisions of this Chapter to the extent they apply to or can be made applicable to the tribe:

(1) The following provisions of Article 1. – General Provisions.
  a. G.S. 18B-101(4), (7), 7(c), (9), (10), (11), (12), (12a), (13), (14) (14a), (14b) and (15).
  b. G.S. 18B-102.1.
  c. G.S. 18B-104.
  d. G.S. 18B-105 except that this section shall not apply to any establishment where gaming is permitted under a state compact and pursuant to federal law.
  e. G.S. 18B-109(b).
  f. G.S. 18B-110.
  g. G.S. 18B-111.
  h. G.S. 18B-112.

(2) Article 1A. – Compensation for Injury Caused by Sales to Underage Persons to the extent it applies to retail establishments or the tribal alcoholic beverage control commission if it operates ABC stores, or any other permitted establishment, at retail pursuant to the provisions of this section.

(3) Article 3. – Sale, Possession, and Consumption, except for G.S. 18B-308 and 18B-309.

(4) Article 4. – Transportation.

(5) Article 5. – Enforcement, except for G.S. 18B-500 and G.S. 18B-501.

(7) Article 9. – Issuance of Permits, except for G.S. 18B-902(g) and (h) and G.S. 18B-906.

(8) Article 10. – Retail Activity, except for G.S. 18B-1001.1, G.S. 18B-1001.2, and G.S.18B-1001.3.

Any provision of this Chapter which has not been made applicable to the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians by this section shall act as a bar to engaging in any activity authorized by that Article or section.

(c) Alcoholic Beverages Which May Be Sold. – No alcoholic beverage may be sold on Indian Country lands under the jurisdiction of the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians pursuant to this section which has not been approved for sale in this State by the North Carolina Alcoholic Beverage Control Commission.

(d) Establishment of a Tribal Commission. – In accordance with the provisions of 18 U.S.C. § 1161, the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians, is authorized to establish a tribal alcoholic beverage control commission to regulate the purchase, possession, consumption, sale, and delivery of alcoholic beverages at retail on any land designated as Indian Country pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 1151 under the jurisdiction of the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians. The tribal commission shall have exclusive authority to issue retail permits to retail establishments, located wholly on Indian Country lands under the jurisdiction of the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians, and to regulate the purchase, possession, consumption, sale, and delivery of alcoholic beverages at retail outlets and premises. Permits issued by the tribal commission pursuant to this section shall be deemed issued by the state for the purposes of sales and delivery of beer and wine by wholesalers to the retail outlets located on Indian Country lands. The fees generated by the tribal alcoholic beverage control commission for the issuance of retail permits may be retained by the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians to offset costs of operating the tribal alcoholic beverage control commission.

(e) Establishment of Rules. – The tribal alcoholic beverage control commission shall adopt the rules of the North Carolina Alcoholic Beverage Control Commission regulating retail outlet activity.

(f) Authority of the North Carolina Alcoholic Beverage Control Commission. – The North Carolina Alcoholic Beverage Control Commission shall have the authority to enter into agreements with the tribal alcoholic beverage control commission to provide for the sale, delivery, and distribution of spirituous liquor to the tribal alcoholic beverage control commission. The tribal alcoholic beverage control commission shall purchase spirituous liquor for resale by the tribal alcoholic beverage control commission exclusively from the North Carolina Alcoholic Beverage Control Commission at the same price and on the same basis that such spirits are purchased by local boards. To the extent there is a conflict between the tribal alcoholic beverage control commission's authority or purpose and the North Carolina Alcoholic Beverage Control Commission's authority or purpose, the North Carolina Alcoholic Beverage Control Commission shall prevail.

(g) Discrimination. – The tribal alcoholic beverage control commission shall not discriminate against non-Indians in the application of the Tribal ABC law. Non-Indians shall be entitled to apply for and receive ABC permits in the same manner as an Indian on Indian Country lands under the jurisdiction of the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians.

(h) Resolution of Contested Cases. – If the tribal alcoholic beverage control commission levies a fine, or suspends or revokes a permit pursuant to the provisions of G.S. 18B-104 for a violation of the provisions applicable to the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians in this Section, the permittee shall have the right of appeal of an agency final decision of the tribal commission to the tribal courts. Any further appeal shall be to the appellate courts of the tribe. All fines paid to the tribal commission in satisfaction of any penalty assessed by the tribal commission may be retained by the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians to offset costs of operating the tribal alcoholic beverage control commission.

(i) Failure to Comply With Laws of This State. – If the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians fails to adopt the provisions of this Chapter, made applicable to the tribe by this section, by ordinance, fails to amend tribal ordinances to comply with amendments to the provisions of this Chapter, made applicable to the tribe by this section, within six months of passage of such amendments, or fails to comply with the provisions of this Chapter, made applicable to the tribe by this section, as required by 18 U.S.C. § 1161, the North Carolina Alcoholic Beverage Control Commission is authorized to terminate and prohibit future delivery of any alcoholic beverages from any person to the tribal alcoholic beverage control commission until the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians complies with the provisions of this Chapter made applicable to the tribe by this section and 18 U.S.C. § 1161.

(j) Conflict of Laws. – If any provision of this section or its application conflicts with federal law, the conflict of laws shall be resolved in favor of the federal law unless compliance with the federal law abrogates a right reserved to the State under the Constitution of the United States."

SECTION 3. This act is effective when it becomes law.

SENATE BILL 580

Short Title:	AOC Omnibus Courts Act.	(Public)
Sponsors:	Senator Hartsell.
Referred to:	Judiciary I.

April 14, 2011

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR AUTOMATIC REINSTATEMENT OF CASES THAT WERE DISMISSED WITH LEAVE IF THOSE CASES ARE WAIVABLE, TO CLARIFY THE CONDITIONS OF PRETRIAL RELEASE WHEN A DNA SAMPLE IS REQUIRED, TO ALLOW FOR SERVICE OF CRIMINAL PROCESS BY A LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICER BEFORE A MAGISTRATE EVEN WHEN THE OFFICER IS OUTSIDE THE OFFICER'S TERRITORIAL JURISDICTION, TO ADD TO THE STATUTORY DUTIES OF THE DIRECTOR OF THE ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICE OF THE COURTS, TO DECREASE THE PERIOD OF TIME THAT STATE EMPLOYEES MUST BE SEPARATED FROM EMPLOYMENT PRIOR TO BEING SELECTED TO SERVE IN A POSITION WITHIN THE JUDICIAL BRANCH, TO ELIMINATE THE NECESSITY OF A HEARING TO REMOVE A PERSONAL REPRESENTATIVE IN ESTATE CASES, TO REPEAL THE REQUIREMENT THAT MAGISTRATES BE RESIDENTS OF THE COUNTY TO WHICH THEY ARE APPOINTED TO SERVE, TO CLARIFY WHEN A CLERK OF SUPERIOR COURT MAY RELEASE FUNDS HELD UNDER A CLAIM OF LIEN ON REAL PROPERTY, TO CHANGE THE DATE ON WHICH A NEWLY ELECTED CLERK OF SUPERIOR COURT TAKES OFFICE, TO GRANT THE COURT THE DISCRETION TO FIND THAT DISTANCE FROM THE COURT IS GOOD CAUSE TO EXEMPT A PARTY FROM CUSTODY MEDIATION, AND TO PROVIDE THAT FEES COLLECTED BY THE DISPUTE RESOLUTION COMMISSION ARE NONREVERTING.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 15A-932 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(d1) If the proceeding was dismissed pursuant to subdivision (2) of subsection (a) of this section and charged only offenses for which written appearance, waiver of trial or hearing, and plea of guilty or admission of responsibility are permitted pursuant to G.S. 7A-148(a), and the defendant later tenders to the court that waiver and payment in full of all applicable fines, costs, and fees, the clerk shall accept said waiver and payment without need for a written reinstatement from the prosecutor. Upon disposition of the case pursuant to this subsection, the clerk shall recall any outstanding criminal process in the case pursuant to G.S. 15A-301(g)(2)b."

SECTION 2. G.S. 15A-534(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) In determining conditions of pretrial release a judicial official must impose at least one of the following conditions:

(1) Release the defendant on his written promise to appear.

(2) Release the defendant upon his execution of an unsecured appearance bond in an amount specified by the judicial official.
(3) Place the defendant in the custody of a designated person or organization agreeing to supervise him.
(4) Require the execution of an appearance bond in a specified amount secured by a cash deposit of the full amount of the bond, by a mortgage pursuant to G.S. 58-74-5, or by at least one solvent surety.
(5) House arrest with electronic monitoring.

If condition (5) is imposed, the defendant must execute a secured appearance bond under subdivision (4) of this subsection. If condition (3) is imposed, however, the defendant may elect to execute an appearance bond under subdivision (4). If the defendant is required to provide fingerprints pursuant to G.S. 15A-502(a1) or (a2), or a DNA sample pursuant to ~~G.S. 15A-266.3A or G.S. 15A-266.4,~~ G.S. 15A-266.3A, and (i) the fingerprints or DNA sample have not yet been taken or (ii) the defendant has refused to provide the fingerprints or DNA sample, the judicial official shall make the collection of the fingerprints or DNA sample a condition of pretrial release. The judicial official may also place restrictions on the travel, associations, conduct, or place of abode of the defendant as conditions of pretrial release."

SECTION 3.(a) G.S. 15A-301(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) Service. –

(1) A ~~law enforcement~~ law enforcement officer or other employee designated as provided in subsection (b) receiving for service or execution a criminal process that was first created and exists only in paper form must note thereon the date and time of its receipt. A law enforcement officer receiving a copy of a criminal process that was printed in paper form as provided in G.S. 15A-301.1 shall cause the date of receipt to be recorded as provided in that section. Upon execution or service, a copy of the process must be delivered to the person arrested or served.
(2) A corporation may be served with criminal summons as provided in G.S. 15A-773.
(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a municipal law enforcement officer may serve criminal process in a building housing a court or office of the General Court of Justice or before any judicial official authorized to conduct an initial appearance if the officer otherwise has territorial jurisdiction to serve criminal process in a municipality located in that county. The officer may arrest the person named in the process as provided in G.S. 15A-402(b). A municipal law enforcement officer serving criminal process as provided in this subdivision shall be protected under subsection (f) of this section."

SECTION 3.(b) G.S. 15A-402(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Territorial Jurisdiction of County and City Officers. – ~~Law enforcement~~ Law enforcement officers of cities and counties may arrest persons within their particular cities or counties and on any property and rights-of-way owned by the city or county outside its limits. Law enforcement officers of cities serving criminal process as provided in G.S. 15A-301(c)(3) may arrest the person named in the process when required by the process."

SECTION 4.(a) G.S. 7A-343 reads as rewritten:

"§ 7A-343. Duties of Director.

The Director is the Administrative Officer of the Courts, and the Director's duties include all of the following:

(1) Collect and compile statistical data and other information on the judicial and financial operation of the courts and on the operation of other offices directly related to and serving the courts.

(2) Determine the state of the dockets and evaluate the practices and procedures of the courts, and make recommendations concerning the number of judges, district attorneys, and magistrates required for the efficient administration of justice.

(3) Prescribe uniform administrative and business methods, systems, forms and records to be used in the offices of the clerks of superior court.

(3a) Maintain and staff as necessary an Internal Audit Division of the Judicial Department and the Administrative Office of the Courts that:

a. Evaluates and discloses potential weaknesses in the effectiveness of internal controls in the court system for the purpose of safeguarding public funds and assets and minimizing incidences of fraud, waste, and abuse.

b. Examines and analyzes the design and effectiveness of administrative and procedural operations.

c. Ensures overall compliance with federal and State laws, internal and external regulations, rules and procedures, and other applicable requirements.

d. Inspects and reviews the effectiveness and efficiency of processes and proceedings conducted by judicial officers.

e. Collaborates with other divisions to guide, direct, and support court officials in efforts to conform to both recommended and required compliance standards.

f. Executes routine audits of the Judicial Department's systems and controls, including, but not limited to:

1. Accounting systems and controls.
2. Administrative systems and controls.
3. Electronic data processing systems and controls.

(4) Prepare and submit budget estimates of State appropriations necessary for the maintenance and operation of the Judicial Department, and authorize expenditures from funds appropriated for these purposes.

(5) Investigate, make recommendations concerning, and assist in the securing of adequate physical accommodations for the General Court of Justice.

(6) Procure, distribute, exchange, transfer, and assign such equipment, books, forms and supplies as are to be acquired with State funds for the General Court of Justice.

(7) Make recommendations for the improvement of the operations of the Judicial Department.

(8) Prepare and submit an annual report on the work of the Judicial Department to the Chief Justice, and transmit a copy to each member of the General Assembly. The annual report shall include the activities of each North Carolina Business Court site, including the number of new, closed, and pending cases, the average age of pending cases, and the annual expenditures for the prior fiscal year.

(9) Assist the Chief Justice in performing his duties relating to the transfer of district court judges for temporary or specialized duty.

(9a) Establish and operate systems and services that provide for electronic filing in the court system and further provide electronic transaction processing and access to court information systems pursuant to G.S. 7A-343.2.

(9b) Enter into contracts with one or more private vendors to provide for the payment of fines, fees, and costs due to the court by credit, charge, or debit cards; such contracts may provide for the assessment of a convenience or transaction fee by the vendor to cover the costs of providing this service.

(9c) Prescribe policies and procedures for the appointment and payment of foreign language interpreters in those cases specified in G.S. 7A-314(f). These policies and procedures shall be applied uniformly throughout the General Court of Justice. After consultation with the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations, the Director may also convert contractual foreign language interpreter positions to permanent State positions when the Director determines that it is more cost-effective to do so.

(9d) Analyze the use of contractual positions in the Judicial Department and, after consultation with the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations, convert contractual positions to permanent State positions when the Director determines it is in the best interests of the Judicial Department to do so.

(9e) Prescribe policies and procedures for the appointment and payment of deaf and hearing-impaired interpreters, in accordance with G.S. 8B-8(a), for those cases specified in G.S. 8B-8(b) and (c). These policies and procedures shall be applied uniformly throughout the General Court of Justice. After consultation with the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations, the Director may also convert contractual hearing-impaired interpreter positions to permanent State positions when the Director determines that it is more cost-effective to do so.

(9f) Prescribe policies and procedures for the payment of those experts acting on behalf of the court or prosecutorial offices, as provided for in G.S. 7A-314(d).

(10) Perform such additional duties and exercise such additional powers as may be prescribed by statute or assigned by the Chief Justice.

(11) Prescribe policies and procedures for the assignment and compensation of magistrates performing temporary duty outside their county of residence during an emergency, as provided for in G.S. 7A-146(9).

(12) Issue photographic identification cards to appropriate Judicial Department employees and officials authorizing those employees and officials to travel to and from, enter, and work in court and court-related locations for the conduct or support of essential court operations in preparation for, during, or in the aftermath of emergency situations, including, but not limited to, catastrophic conditions. Notwithstanding any other provision of the law, and notwithstanding any emergency restrictions on travel or closures that may have been issued due to the emergency situations, an identification card issued pursuant to this subdivision shall be honored by all State and local law enforcement, emergency and health officers, and other authorities to permit the person to whom the card was issued to travel to and from court and court-related locations and otherwise carry out the purposes authorized by this subdivision. An identification card issued pursuant to this subdivision shall set forth its effective date and the full name, position, and employing unit of the person to whom the card is issued, with a provision, signed by the person, stating that the person is credentialed solely for the purposes stated in this subdivision and that the card shall not be used for any other purpose.

(13) Prescribe policies and procedures and establish and operate systems for the exchange of criminal and civil information from and to the Judicial Department and local, State, and federal governments and the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians.

(14) Transfer equipment and supply funds to the appropriate programs and between programs as the equipment priorities and supply consumptions occur during the operating year.

(15) Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 138-6(a)(1), elect to establish a per-mile reimbursement rate for transportation by privately owned vehicles at a rate less than the business standard mileage rate set by the Internal Revenue Service."

SECTION 4.(b) G.S. 7A-146 reads as rewritten:

"§ 7A-146. Administrative authority and duties of chief district judge.

The chief district judge, subject to the general supervision of the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, has administrative supervision and authority over the operation of the district courts and magistrates in his district. These powers and duties include, but are not limited to, the following:

....

(9) Assigning magistrates during an emergency to temporary duty outside the county of their residence but within that ~~district;~~ district pursuant to the policies and procedures prescribed under G.S. 7A-343(11); and, upon the request of a chief district judge of an adjoining district and upon the approval of the Administrative Officer of the Courts, to temporary duty in the district of the requesting chief district ~~judge.~~ judge pursuant to the policies and procedures prescribed under G.S. 7A-343(11).

...."

SECTION 5. G.S. 135-1(20) reads as rewritten:

"(20) "Retirement" means the termination of employment and the complete separation from active service with no intent or agreement, express or implied, to return to service. A retirement allowance under the provisions of this Chapter may only be granted upon retirement of a member. In order for a member's retirement to become effective in any month, the member must render no service, including part-time, temporary, substitute, or contractor service, at any time during the six months immediately following the effective date of ~~retirement.~~ retirement, except for persons rendering service, including part-time, temporary, substitute, or contractor service for the Judicial Branch. For purposes of this subdivision, service as a member of a school board or as an unpaid bona fide volunteer in a local school administrative unit shall not be considered service. For persons selected to render service, including part-time, temporary, substitute, or contractor service for the Judicial Branch, a member's retirement becomes effective in any month that the member has rendered no service, including part-time, temporary, substitute, or contractor service, for a period of 30 days immediately following the effective date of retirement."

SECTION 6.(a) G.S. 28A-9-1(a)(3) is repealed.

SECTION 6.(b) G.S. 28A-9-2(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) Grounds. – Letters testamentary, letters of administration, or letters of collection, shall be revoked by the clerk of superior court without hearing when:

(1) After letters of administration or collection have been issued, a will is subsequently admitted to probate.

(2) After letters testamentary have been issued:

a. The will is set aside, or

b. A subsequent testamentary paper revoking the appointment of the executor is admitted to probate.

(3) Any personal representative or collector required to give a new bond or furnish additional security pursuant to G.S. 28A-8-3 fails to do so within the time ordered.
(4) A nonresident personal representative refuses or fails to obey any citation, notice, or process served on him or his process agent.
(5) A trustee in bankruptcy, liquidating agent, or receiver has been appointed for any personal representative or collector, or any personal representative or collector has executed an assignment for the benefit of creditors.
(6) A personal representative has failed to file an inventory or an annual account with the clerk of superior court, as required by Article 20 and Article 21 of this Chapter, and proceedings to compel such filing pursuant to G.S. 28A-20-2 or 28A-21-4 cannot be had because service cannot be completed because the personal representative cannot be found.
(7) The person to whom they were issued has violated a fiduciary duty through default or misconduct in the execution of his office."

SECTION 7. G.S. 7A-171.2(a) is repealed.

SECTION 8. G.S. 44A-16 reads as rewritten:

"§ 44A-16. Discharge of record claim of lien on real property.

(a) Any claim of lien on real property filed under this Article may be discharged by any of the following methods:

(1) The lien claimant of record, the claimant's agent or attorney, in the presence of the clerk of superior court may acknowledge the satisfaction of the claim of lien on real property indebtedness, whereupon the clerk of superior court shall forthwith make upon the record of such claim of lien on real property an entry of such acknowledgment of satisfaction, which shall be signed by the lien claimant of record, the claimant's agent or attorney, and witnessed by the clerk of superior court.
(2) The owner may exhibit an instrument of satisfaction signed and acknowledged by the lien claimant of record which instrument states that the claim of lien on real property indebtedness has been paid or satisfied, whereupon the clerk of superior court shall cancel the claim of lien on real property by entry of satisfaction on the record of such claim of lien on real property.
(3) By failure to enforce the claim of lien on real property within the time prescribed in this Article.
(4) By filing in the office of the clerk of superior court the original or certified copy of a judgment or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction showing that the action by the claimant to enforce the claim of lien on real property has been dismissed or finally determined adversely to the claimant.
(5) Whenever a sum equal to the amount of the claim or claims of lien on real property claimed is deposited with the clerk of court, to be applied to the payment finally determined to be due, whereupon the clerk of superior court shall cancel the claim or claims of lien on real property or claims of lien on real property of record.
(6) Whenever a corporate surety bond, in a sum equal to one and one-fourth times the amount of the claim or claims of lien on real property claimed and conditioned upon the payment of the amount finally determined to be due in satisfaction of said claim or claims of lien on real property, is deposited with the clerk of court, whereupon the clerk of superior court shall cancel the claim or claims of lien on real property of record.

(b) The clerk may release funds held or a corporate surety bond upon receipt of one of the following:

(1) Written agreement of the parties.

(2) A final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

(3) A consent order."

SECTION 9. G.S. 163-1(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) If primaries for the State Senate or State House of Representatives are temporarily moved from the date provided in subsection (b) of this section for any election year, all primaries shall be held on the same day.

OFFICE	JURISDICTION	DATE OF ELECTION	TERM OF OFFICE
...
Clerk of superior court	County	At the regular election for members of the General Assembly immediately preceding the termination of each regular term	Four years, from the first ~~Monday~~ day in December next after election

SECTION 10. G.S. 50-13.1(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) For good cause, on the motion of either party or on the court's own motion, the court may waive the mandatory setting under Article 39A of Chapter 7A of the General Statutes of a contested custody or visitation matter for mediation. Good cause may include, but is not limited to, the following: a showing of undue hardship to a party; an agreement between the parties for voluntary mediation, subject to court approval; allegations of abuse or neglect of the minor child; allegations of alcoholism, drug abuse, or domestic violence between the parents in common; or allegations of severe psychological, psychiatric, or emotional problems. A showing by either party that the party resides more than fifty miles from the court ~~shall~~ may be considered good cause."

SECTION 11. G.S. 7A-38.2(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) An administrative fee, not to exceed two hundred dollars ($200.00), may be charged by the Administrative Office of the Courts to applicants for certification and annual renewal of certification for mediators and mediation training programs operating under this Article. The fees collected may be used by the Director of the Administrative Office of the Courts to establish and maintain the operations of the Commission and its staff. Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 143C-1-2(b), certification and renewal fees collected by the Dispute Resolution Commission are nonreverting and are only to be used at the direction of the Commission."

SECTION 12. This act becomes effective July 1, 2011.

SENATE BILL 580:
AOC Omnibus Courts Act

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary I	Date:	June 6, 2011
Introduced by:	Sen. Hartsell	Prepared by:	Susan Sitze
Analysis of:	First Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 580 makes various changes to statutes related to the Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC) and the Judicial Branch.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 would authorize the automatic reinstatement of a case that was dismissed with leave for failure of the defendant to appear, for offenses for which written appearance, waiver of trial or hearing and plea of guilty or admission of responsibility are permitted, if the defendant tenders the waiver and payment in full of all applicable fines, cost, and fees. The clerk shall accept the waiver and payment without written reinstatement from the prosecutor and shall recall any outstanding criminal process.

Section 2 would remove from the conditions of pre-trial release that a defendant must provide a DNA sample that is required for conviction of an offense before being released. The statute would keep the requirement that the defendant must provide a DNA sample required based on arrest for certain offenses.

Section 3 would authorize a city police officer to serve criminal process outside the city limits if they are serving the process in a building housing a court or office of the General Court of Justice, or in front of a judicial official authorized to conduct an initial appearance, and would authorize them to arrest that person pursuant to the criminal process if required.

Section 4 amends the duties of the AOC Director as follows:

- Clarifies that the annual report on the Judicial Department shall include activities and specific information on each NC Business Court site.
- Adds authority to prescribe policies and procedures for assignment and compensation of magistrates performing temporary duty outside their county of residence in emergency situations.
- Authorizes the issuance of photo ID cards to Judicial Department employees for use in emergency situations to travel to and from, enter, and work in court and court-related locations, notwithstanding restrictions on travel.
- Adds authority to prescribe policies and procedures and establish and operate systems for exchange of criminal and civil information from and to the Judicial Department and local, State, and federal governments and the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians.
- Authorizes the transfer of equipment and supply funds to the appropriate programs and between programs as equipment priorities and supply consumptions occur during the operating year.
- Authorizes the establishment of a per-mile reimbursement rate for transportation by privately owned vehicles at a rate less than the business standard mileage rate set by the IRS.

Section 5 would decrease the separation time for retirement to become effective from 6 months to 30 days for the Judicial Branch.

Section 6 would eliminate the necessity of a hearing to remove a personal representative in estate cases where the representative has violated a fiduciary duty.

Section 7 would eliminate the requirement that magistrates must reside in the county for which they are appointed.

Section 8 would authorize a clerk to release funds held under a claim of lien on real property or a corporate security bond when the clerk receives a written agreement of the parties, a final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction, or a consent order.

Section 9 would provide that the term of office for the clerk of superior court runs for 4 years from the first day in December after the election, rather than the first Monday in December.

Section 10 would amend the statute allowing the court to waive the mandatory setting of a contested custody or visitation case for mediation upon motion of showing and good cause, to permit, rather than require, the court to consider a showing that either party lives more than 50 miles from the court as good cause.

Section 11 would provide that certification and renewal fees collected by the Dispute Resolution Commission are nonreverting and may be used only at the direction of the Commission.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act becomes effective July 1, 2011.

SENATE BILL 324:
ABC Law/Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary I	Date:	June 7, 2011
Introduced by:	Sens. Apodaca, Davis	Prepared by:	Brad Krehely
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition S324-CSRN-22		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: The Proposed Committee Substitute for Senate Bill 324 would authorize the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians to receive shipments of spirituous liquor from the North Carolina ABC Commission and would authorize the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians to establish a tribal ABC Commission to regulate the purchase, consumption, sale, and delivery of alcoholic beverages at retail. The Proposed Committee Substitute makes the following changes: (1) provides that when the Eastern Band of Cherokees adopts by ordinance the provisions made applicable to the tribe, the ordinance must be approved by the U.S. Secretary of the Interior and published in the Federal Register, (2) requires the Eastern Band of Cherokees to hold tribal elections for malt beverages, unfortified wine, ABC store, and mixed beverages, (3) specifies a number of provisions of Chapter 18B with which the Eastern Band of Cherokees must comply, (4) provides that the tribal commission must adopt the NC ABC Commission rules regulating retail activity, and (5) provides that the tribal ABC Commission must not discriminate against non-Indians in the application of tribal ABC law.

CURRENT LAW: Chapter 18B of the North Carolina General Statutes governs the regulation of alcoholic beverages. Federal law addresses the application of Indian liquor laws. Generally, the provisions related to Indian liquor laws do not apply if (1) an area is not Indian country or (2) is in an area that is Indian country if the act conforms with both the laws of the State in which the act occurs and with an ordinance adopted by the tribe having jurisdiction over the area of Indian country.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 prohibits any person from having malt beverages or unfortified wine shipped directly from a point outside this State to the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians for resale on Indian Country lands in the State if those alcoholic beverages are for resale.

Section 2 provides that the ABC Commission has the authority to provide for the distribution of spirituous liquor to the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians for resale on Indian County lands within the State and under the jurisdiction of the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians.

Section 3 creates a new section that does all of the following:

- Provides that the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians are exempt from Chapter 18B, except for those provisions made applicable under the new G.S. 18B-112.
- Requires the Eastern Band of Cherokees to adopt by ordinance the provisions made applicable to the tribe by G.S. 18B-112. The ordinance will be approved by the Secretary of the Interior and published in the Federal Register.
- Requires the Eastern Band of Cherokees to hold lawful tribal elections (for malt beverages, unfortified wine, ABC store, and mixed beverage). If the election authorizes the activity for which a vote was held, the activity will be deemed authorized.
- Provides that the tribal ABC commission will have the same powers and authority the NC ABC Commission by any section of this Chapter made applicable by the tribe.

- Provides that the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians must comply with the following provisions of Chapter 18 to the extent they apply or can be made applicable to the tribe:
    - Various definitions set forth in 18B-101.
    - Prohibitions on direct shipments of alcoholic beverages from an out-of-state retail or wholesale dealer (G.S. 18B-102.1).
    - Administrative penalties in 18B-104.
    - Rules on advertising in 18B-105, except that the advertising provisions do not apply to an establishment where gaming is allowed under a state compact under federal law.
    - Prohibitions on having malt beverages or unfortified wine shipped from outside the State to an armed services installation within the State for resale on the installation (18B-109(b).
    - Provisions allowing the governor to close ABC stores or order cessation of sales or bottling of alcoholic beverages during a "state of emergency." (18B-110).
    - Provisions prohibiting the possession, transport, or sale of nontaxpaid alcoholic beverages. (18B-111).
    - Article 1A- Compensation for Injury Caused by Sales to Underage Persons- to the extent it applies to retail establishments or the tribal alcoholic beverage control commission if it operates ABC stores, or any other permitted establishment.
    - Article 3- Sale, Possession, and Consumption, except for G.S. 18B-308 (Sale and Consumption at Bingo Games) and 18B-309 (Alcoholic Beverage Sales in Urban Redevelopment Areas).
    - Article 4-Transportation.
    - Article 5- Enforcement, except for 18B-500 (Alcohol law-enforcement agents) and 18B-501 (Local ABC Officers).
    - Article 9-Issuance of Permits, except for provisions requiring that collected fees go the General Fund (18B-902(g)), provisions requiring a recycling plan (18B-902(h)), and provisions dealing with the applicability of the Administrative Procedure Act (18B-906).
    - Article 10- Retail Activity, except 18B-1000.1 (Authorization of Wine Shipper Permit), 18B-1001.2 (Additional Wine Shipping Requirements), and 18B-1001.3 (Authorization of Wine Shipper Packager Permit).
- Provides that any provision of Chapter 18 that has not been made applicable to the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians under newly-enacted 18B-112 will act as a bar to engaging in any activity authorized by that provision.
- Alcoholic Beverages which may be sold- Provides that no alcoholic beverage may be sold on Indian Country lands which has not been approved by the North Carolina ABC Commission.
- Establishment of a Tribal Commission- Authorizes the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians to establish a tribal alcoholic beverage control commission to regulate the purchase, possession, sale, and delivery of alcoholic beverages at retail on land designated as Indian Country.
    - Permits- Gives the tribal commission the exclusive authority to issue permits at retail establishments located on Indian Country lands.

- Provides that the fees generated by the issuance of retail permits may be retained by the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians to offset the costs of operating the tribal alcoholic beverage control commission.

- Establishment of Rules- Provides that the tribal ABC commission must adopt rules of the NC ABC Commission which regulate retail outlet activity.
- Authority of NC ABC Commission- Provides that the NC ABC Commission may enter into agreements with the tribal commission to commission to provide for the sale, delivery, and distribution of spirituous liquor to the tribal alcoholic beverage control commission. The tribal ABC commission must purchase spirituous liquor for resale exclusively from the NC ABC Commission at the same price and same basis as local boards. If there is a conflict between the NC ABC Commission's authority or purpose and the tribal commission's authority or purpose, the ABC Commission's authority or purpose prevails.
- Discrimination- Provides that the tribal alcoholic beverage control commission shall not discriminate against non-Indians in the application of the Tribal ABC law. Non-Indians shall be entitled to apply for and receive ABC permits in the same manner as an Indian on Indian Country lands.
- Contested Cases- Provides that if the tribal alcoholic beverage control commission levies a fine, or suspends or revokes a permit for a violation of the provisions applicable to the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians, the permittee will have the right to appeal an agency final decision of the tribal commission to the tribal courts. Any further appeal shall be to the appellate courts of the tribe.
    - All fines paid to the tribal commission may be retained by the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians to offset costs of operating the tribal alcoholic beverage control commission.
- Failure to Comply With State Law. –Provides that if the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians fails to adopt the provisions of this Chapter fails to amend tribal ordinances to comply with amendments to the provisions of this Chapter, within six months of passage of such amendments, then the North Carolina ABC Commission may terminate and prohibit future delivery of any alcoholic beverages from any person to the tribal alcoholic beverage control commission until the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians complies.
- Conflict of Laws- Provides that if any provision of this section conflicts with federal law, then the federal law prevails unless compliance with the federal law abrogates a right reserved to the State under the U.S. Constitution.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The act is effective when it becomes law.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO ADJUST THE CALENDAR PERIODS COVERED BY QUARTERLY REPORTS OF CAMPAIGN CONTRIBUTIONS AND EXPENDITURES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 163-278.9(a)(5a) reads as rewritten:

"(5a) Quarterly Reports. – During even-numbered years during which there is an election for that candidate or in which the campaign committee is supporting or opposing a candidate, the treasurer shall file a report by mailing or otherwise delivering it to the Board no later than seven working days after the end of each calendar quarter covering the prior calendar quarter, except that:

a. The report for the first quarter shall also cover the period in April through the seventeenth day before the primary, the first quarter report shall be due seven days after that date, and the second quarter report shall not include that period if a first quarter report was required to be ~~filed; and~~filed.

b. The report for the third quarter shall also cover the period in October through the seventeenth day before the election, the third quarter report shall be due seven days after that date, and the fourth quarter report shall not include that period if a third quarter report was required to be filed.

c. The report for the fourth quarter shall also cover the period through the last day in January after the election, the fourth quarter report shall be due fourteen days after that date, and the next required report shall not cover that period if a fourth quarter report was required to be filed."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective October 1, 2012, and applies to reports covering calendar periods occurring after that date.

SENATE BILL 712:
Adjust Quarterly Reporting

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary I	Date:	June 3, 2011
Introduced by:	Sens. Nesbitt, Brown	Prepared by:	R. Erika Churchill
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition S712-CSST-26		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: The proposed committee substitute for Senate Bill 712 would change the calendar period for fourth quarter campaign finance reports of candidates, political committees, electioneering communications and independent expenditures.

CURRENT LAW: Current law requires certain reports to be filed at certain times with respect to campaign finance. The same reporting schedule applies to:

- Political committees – candidates included
- Political parties
- Independent expenditures
- Electioneering communications

The following reports are to be filed at the time stated:

- Organizational Report – within 10 days following organization.
- 48 Hour Report – within 48 hours of receipt of a contribution or transfer of $1,000 or more before an election but after the period covered by the last report due before the election.
- Quarterly Reports – in even-numbered years, within 7 working days after the end of the calendar quarter for that quarter, except that:
  - In the 1st quarter, the report shall include the period in April through the 17th day before the primary and the 2nd quarter report shall not include that period.
  - In the 3rd quarter, the report shall include the period in October through the 17th day before the election, and the 4th quarter report shall not include that period.
- Semi-annual reports – in any time period not already covered, if contributions are received or expenditures are made, then a report is due on the last day of July for the period January 1 – June 30, and on the last day of January for July 1 – December 31.

BILL ANALYSIS: The proposed committee substitute would amend the provision requiring quarterly reports to provide that in the 4th quarter, the report shall include the January following the election, the next required report shall not include that period, and the 4th quarter report is due within 14 days after the close of period.

EFFECTIVE: October 1, 2012 and applies to reports covering dates after that.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO ALLOW A CANDIDATE TO LIST PARTY AFFILIATION OR UNAFFILIATED STATUS ON THE BALLOT IN ALL ELECTIONS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1.(a) G.S. 115C-37(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) Method of Election. – The county boards of education shall be elected on a nonpartisan basis at the time of the primary election in 1970 and biennially thereafter. ~~The~~ Unless a candidate in the notice of candidacy under G.S. 163-106 chooses to list the political party recognized under Article 9 of Chapter 163 of the General Statutes that the candidate is affiliated with, the names of the candidates shall be printed on the ballots without reference to any party affiliation and any qualified voter residing in the county shall be entitled to vote such ballots. A candidate not affiliated with a political party may also list that status on the ballot by so providing in the notice of candidacy under G.S. 163-106. Except as otherwise provided herein, the election shall be conducted according to the provisions of Chapter 163 of the General Statutes then governing primary elections."

SECTION 1.(b) Chapter 115C of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 115C-37.2. Nonpartisan elections under local act.

Whenever a local act or plan of consolidation and merger provides that an election for a county or city or merged board of education is to be elected on a nonpartisan basis, unless a candidate in the notice of candidacy provided by law chooses to list the political party recognized under Article 9 of Chapter 163 of the General Statutes with which the candidate is affiliated, the names of the candidates shall be printed on the ballots without reference to any party affiliation. A candidate not affiliated with a political party may also list that status on the ballot by so providing in the notice of candidacy provided by law."

SECTION 2. G.S. 130A-50(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) The election shall be nonpartisan and decided by simple plurality as provided in G.S. 163-292 and shall be held and conducted by the county board of elections in accordance with the applicable provisions of Articles 23 and 24 of Chapter 163 of the General Statutes. Unless a candidate in the notice of candidacy under this section chooses to list the political party recognized under Article 9 of this Chapter with which the candidate is affiliated, the names of the candidates shall be printed on the ballots without reference to any party affiliation.

A candidate not affiliated with a political party may also list that status on the ballot by so providing in the notice of candidacy under this section. If the district is in more than one county, then the county board of elections of the county including the largest part of the district shall conduct the election for the entire district with the assistance and full cooperation of the boards of elections in the other counties."

SECTION 3. G.S. 163-165.5 reads as rewritten:

"§ 163-165.5. Contents of official ballots.

Each official ballot shall contain all the following elements:

(1) The heading prescribed by the State Board of Elections. The heading shall include the term "Official Ballot".

(2) The title of each office to be voted on and the number of seats to be filled in each ballot item.

(3) The names of the candidates as they appear on their notice of candidacy filed pursuant to G.S. 163-106 or G.S. 163-323, or on petition forms filed in accordance with G.S. 163-122. No title, appendage, or appellation indicating rank, status, or position shall be printed on the official ballot in connection with the candidate's name. Candidates, however, may use the title Mr., Mrs., Miss, or Ms. Nicknames shall be permitted on an official ballot if used in the notice of candidacy or qualifying petition, but the nickname shall appear according to standards adopted by the State Board of Elections. Those standards shall allow the presentation of legitimate nicknames in ways that do not mislead the voter or unduly advertise the candidacy. In the case of candidates for presidential elector, the official ballot shall not contain the names of the candidates for elector but instead shall contain the nominees for President and Vice President which the candidates for elector represent. The State Board of Elections shall establish a review procedure that local boards of elections shall follow to ensure that candidates' names appear on the official ballot in accordance with this subdivision.

(4) Party designations in partisan ballot ~~items.~~items and in non-partisan ballot items as requested by the candidate.

(5) A means by which the voter may cast write-in votes, as provided in G.S. 163-123. No space for write-ins is required unless a write-in candidate has qualified under G.S. 163-123 or unless the ballot item is exempt from G.S. 163-123.

(6) Instructions to voters, unless the State Board of Elections allows instructions to be placed elsewhere than on the official ballot.

(7) The printed title and facsimile signature of the chair of the county board of elections."

SECTION 4. G.S. 163-165.6(e) reads as rewritten:

"(e) Straight-Party Voting. – Each official ballot shall be arranged so that the voter may cast one vote for a party's nominees for all offices except President and Vice President. A vote for President and Vice President shall be cast separately from a straight-party vote. The official ballot shall be prepared so that a voter may cast a straight-party vote, but then make an exception to that straight-party vote by voting for a candidate not nominated by that party or by voting for fewer than all the candidates nominated by that party. The official ballot shall clearly indicate that non-partisan races with party designations are not included in the straight-party vote. Instructions for general election ballots shall clearly advise voters of the rules in this subsection and of the statutes providing for the counting of ballots."

SECTION 5. G.S. 163-323 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(h) Unless a candidate in the notice of candidacy under this section chooses to list the political party recognized under Article 9 of this Chapter with which the candidate is affiliated, the names of the candidates shall be printed on the ballots without reference to any party affiliation. A candidate not affiliated with a political party may also list that status on the ballot by so providing in the notice of candidacy under this section."

SECTION 6. G.S. 163-294.2 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(g) Unless a candidate in the notice of candidacy under this section chooses to list the political party recognized under Article 9 of this Chapter with which the candidate is affiliated, the names of the candidates shall be printed on the ballots without reference to any party affiliation. A candidate not affiliated with a political party may also list that status on the ballot by so providing in the notice of candidacy under this section."

SECTION 7. G.S. 139-6 reads as rewritten:

"§ 139-6. District board of supervisors – elective members; certain duties.

(a) After the issuance of the certificate of organization of the soil and water conservation district by the Secretary of State, an election shall be held in each county of the district to elect the members of the soil and water conservation district board of supervisors as herein provided.

(b) The district board of supervisors shall consist of three elective members to be elected in each county of the district, and that number of appointive members as provided in G.S. 139-7. Upon the creation of a district, the first election of the members shall be held at the next succeeding election for county officers.

All elections for members of the district board of supervisors shall be held at the same time as the regular election for county officers beginning in November 1974. The election shall be nonpartisan and no primary election shall be held. The election shall be held and conducted by the county board of elections.

Candidates shall file their notice of candidacy on forms prescribed by the county board of elections. The notice of candidacy must be filed no earlier than noon on the second Monday in June and no later than noon on the first Friday in July preceding the election. The candidate shall pay a filing fee of five dollars ($5.00) at the time of filing the notice of candidacy.

Unless a candidate in the notice of candidacy under this section chooses to list the political party recognized under Article 9 of Chapter 163 of the General Statutes with which the candidate is affiliated, the names of the candidates shall be printed on the ballots without reference to any party affiliation. A candidate not affiliated with a political party may also list that status on the ballot by so providing in the notice of candidacy under this section.

(c) Beginning with the election to be held in November 1974, the two candidates receiving the highest number of votes shall be elected for a term of four years, and the candidate receiving the next highest number of votes shall be elected for a term of two years; thereafter, as their terms expire, their successors shall be elected for terms of four years. If the position of district supervisor is not filled by failure to elect, then the office shall be deemed vacant upon the expiration of the term of the incumbent, and the office shall be filled as provided in G.S. 139-7.

The persons elected in 1974 and thereafter shall take office on the first Monday in December following their election.

The terms of the present members of the soil and water conservation districts, both elective and appointive members, are hereby extended to or terminated on the first Monday in December 1974.

All qualified voters of the district shall be eligible to vote in the election. Except as provided in this Chapter, the election shall be held in accordance with the applicable provisions of Articles 23 and 24 of Chapter 163 of the General Statutes.

(d) The district board of supervisors, after the appointment of the appointive members has been made, shall select from its members a chairman, a vice-chairman and a secretary. It shall be the duty of the district board of supervisors to perform those powers, duties, and authority conferred upon supervisors under this Chapter; to develop annual county and district goals and plans for soil conservation work therein; to request agencies, whose duties are such as to render assistance in soil and water conservation, to set forth in writing what assistance they may have available in the county and district."

SECTION 8. This act is effective with respect to elections conducted on or after January 1, 2012.

SENATE BILL 456:
Candidate List Party or Unaffiliated Status

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary I	Date:	June 3, 2011
Introduced by:	Sen. Goolsby	Prepared by:	R. Erika Churchill Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	PCS to Second Edition S456-CSST-47

SUMMARY: The proposed committee substitute for Senate Bill 456 would allow candidates running in non-partisan races for appellate judge, superior or district court judge, local school board, municipal council, sanitary boards, and soil and water conservation districts to have that candidate's party affiliation printed on the ballot.

CURRENT LAW: Non-partisan elections are conducted for the following offices, without the party affiliation of any candidate being listed on the ballot for that office:

- Appellate judge
- Superior court judge
- District court judge
- Local school board, with some exceptions
- Municipal elections, with some exceptions
- Sanitary boards established under Chapter 130A of the General Statutes
- Soil and Water Conservation boards established under Chapter 139 of the General Statutes

BILL ANALYSIS: For all of the elections listed above, the proposed committee substitute would allow a candidate for a non-partisan election to request that candidate's party affiliation be printed on the ballot.

The proposed committee substitute makes conforming changes to allow for the printing of party affiliation in non-partisan races.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The act is effective for elections occurring on or after January 1, 2012, but may not be implemented until the session law has received 'preclearance' approval under Section 5 of the Voting Rights of 1965.

All Justices, Judges, and District Attorneys of the General Court of Justice	One percent (1%) of the annual salary of the office sought
United States Senator	One percent (1%) of the annual salary of the office sought
Members of the United States House of Representatives	One percent (1%) of the annual salary of the office sought
State Senator	One percent (1%) of the annual salary of the office sought
Member of the State House of Representatives	One percent (1%) of the annual salary of the office sought
All county offices not compensated by fees	One percent (1%) of the annual salary of the office sought
All county offices compensated partly by salary and partly by fees	One percent (1%) of the first annual salary to be received (exclusive of fees)

The salary of any office that is the basis for calculating the filing fee is the starting salary for the office, rather than the salary received by the incumbent, if different. If no starting salary can be determined for the office, then the salary used for calculation is the salary of the incumbent, as of January 1 of the election year."

SECTION 5. G.S. 163-107.1(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) County, Municipal and District Primaries. – If the candidate is seeking one of the offices set forth in G.S. 163-106(c) but which is not listed in subsection (b) of this section, or a municipal or any other office requiring a partisan primary which is not set forth in G.S. 163-106(c) or (d), ~~he~~ the candidate shall file a written petition with the appropriate board of elections no later than 12:00 noon on Monday preceding the filing deadline before the primary. The petition shall be signed by ten percent (10%) of the registered voters of the election area in which the office will be voted for, who are affiliated with the same political party in whose primary the candidate desires to run, or in the alternative, the petition shall be signed by no less than 200 registered voters regardless of said voter's political party affiliation, whichever requirement is greater. The board of elections shall verify the names on the petition, and if the petition is found to be sufficient, the candidate's name shall be printed on the appropriate primary ballot. Petitions for candidates for member of the U.S. House of Representatives, District Attorney, judge of the superior court, judge of the district court, and members of the State House of Representatives from multi-county districts or members of the State Senate from multi-county districts must be presented to the county board of elections for verification at least 15 days before the petition is due to be filed with the State Board of Elections, and such petition must be filed with the State Board of Elections no later than 12:00 noon on Monday preceding the filing deadline. The State Board of Elections may adopt rules to implement this section and to provide standard petition forms."

SECTION 6. G.S. 163-111(c)(1) reads as rewritten:

"(c) Procedure for Requesting Second Primary. –

(1) A candidate who is apparently entitled to demand a second primary, according to the unofficial results, for one of the offices listed below, and desiring to do so, shall file a request for a second primary in writing with the Executive Director of the State Board of Elections no later than 12:00 noon on the ninth day (including Saturdays and Sundays) following the date on which the primary was conducted, and such request shall be subject to the certification of the official results by the State Board of Elections. If the vote certification by the State Board of Elections determines that a candidate who was not originally thought to be eligible to call for a second primary is in fact eligible to call for a second primary, the Executive Director of the State Board of Elections shall immediately notify such candidate and permit him to exercise any options available to him within a 48-hour period following the notification:

Governor,
Lieutenant Governor,
All State executive officers,
Justices, Judges, or District Attorneys of the General Court of Justice, United States Senators,
Members of the United States House of Representatives,
State Senators in multi-county senatorial districts, and Members of the State House of Representatives in multi-county representative districts."

SECTION 7. G.S. 163-114 reads as rewritten:

"§ 163-114. Filling vacancies among party nominees occurring after nomination and before election.

If any person nominated as a candidate of a political party for one of the offices listed below (either in a primary or convention or by virtue of having no opposition in a primary) dies, resigns, or for any reason becomes ineligible or disqualified before the date of the ensuing general election, the vacancy shall be filled by appointment according to the following instructions:

Position
President Vice President	Vacancy is to be filled by appointment of national executive committee of political party in which vacancy occurs
Presidential elector or alternate elector Any elective State office United States Senator	Vacancy is to be filled by appointment of State executive committee of political party in which vacancy occurs
A district office, including: Member of the United States House of Representatives Judge of district court	Appropriate district executive committee of political party in which vacancy occurs

District Attorney State Senator in a multi-county senatorial district Member of State House of Representatives in a multi-county representative district
State Senator in a single-county senatorial district Member of State House of Representatives in a single-county representative district Any elective county office	County executive committee of political party in which vacancy occurs, provided, in the case of the State Senator or State Representative in a single-county district where not all the county is located in that district, then in voting, only those members of the county executive committee who reside within the district shall vote
Judge of superior court in a single-county judicial district where the district is the whole county or part of the county	County executive committee of political party in which vacancy occurs; provided, in the case of a superior court judge in a single-county district where not all the county is located in that district, then in voting, only those members of the county executive committee who reside within the district shall vote
Judge of superior court in a multi-county judicial district	Appropriate district executive committee of political party in which vacancy occurs.

The party executive making a nomination in accordance with the provisions of this section shall certify the name of its nominee to the chairman of the board of elections, State or county, that has jurisdiction over the ballot item under G.S. 163-182.4. If at the time a nomination is made under this section the general election ballots have already been printed, the provisions of G.S.163-165.3(c) shall apply. If a vacancy occurs in a nomination of a political party and that vacancy arises from a cause other than death and the vacancy in nomination occurs more than 120 days before the general election, the vacancy in nomination may be filled under this section only if the appropriate executive committee certifies the name of the nominee in accordance with this paragraph at least 75 days before the general election.

In a county which is partly in a multi-county judicial district, in choosing that county's member or members of the judicial district executive committee for the multi-county district, only the county convention delegates or county executive committee members who reside within the area of the county which is within that multi-county district may vote.

In a county not all of which is located in one congressional district, in choosing the congressional district executive committee member or members from that area of the county, only the county convention delegates or county executive committee members who reside within the area of the county which is within the congressional district may vote.

In a county which is partly in a multi-county senatorial district or which is partly in a multi-county House of Representatives district, in choosing that county's member or members of the senatorial district executive committee or House of Representatives district executive committee for the multi-county district, only the county convention delegates or county executive committee members who reside within the area of the county which is within that multi-county district may vote.

An individual whose name appeared on the ballot in a primary election preliminary to the general election shall not be eligible to be nominated to fill a vacancy in the nomination of another party for the same office in the same year."

SECTION 8. G.S. 138A-22(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) A candidate for an office subject to this Article shall file the statement of economic interest at the same place and in the same manner as the notice of candidacy for that office is required to be filed under G.S. 163-106 ~~or G.S. 163-323~~ within 10 days of the filing deadline for the office the candidate seeks. An individual who is nominated under G.S. 163-114 after the primary and before the general election, and an individual who qualifies under G.S. 163-122 as an unaffiliated candidate in a general election, shall file a statement of economic interest with the county board of elections of each county in the senatorial or representative district. An individual nominated under G.S. 163-114 shall file the statement within three days following the individual's nomination, or not later than the day preceding the general election, whichever occurs first. An individual seeking to qualify as an unaffiliated candidate under G.S. 163-122 shall file the statement of economic interest with the petition filed under that section. An individual seeking to have write-in votes counted for that individual in a general election shall file a statement of economic interest at the same time the candidate files a declaration of intent under G.S. 163-123. A candidate of a new party chosen by convention shall file a statement of economic interest at the same time that the president of the convention certifies the names of its candidates to the State Board of Elections under G.S. 163-98."

SECTION 9. G.S. 163-22.3 reads as rewritten:

"§ 163-22.3. State Board of Elections littering notification.

At the time an individual files with the State Board of Elections a notice of candidacy pursuant to G.S. 163-106, 163-112, 163-291, ~~163-294.2, or 163-323,~~ or 163-294.2, is certified to the State Board of Elections by a political party executive committee to fill a nomination vacancy pursuant to G.S. 163-114, is certified to the State Board of Elections by a new political party as that party's nominee pursuant to G.S. 163-98, qualifies with the State Board of Elections as an unaffiliated or write-in candidate pursuant to Article 11 of this Chapter, or formally initiates a candidacy with the State Board of Elections pursuant to any statute or local act, the State Board of Elections shall notify the candidate of the provisions concerning campaign signs in G.S. 136-32 and G.S. 14-156, and the rules adopted by the Department of Transportation pursuant to G.S. 136-18."

SECTION 10. G.S. 163-82.10B reads as rewritten:

"§ 163-82.10B. Confidentiality of date of birth.

Boards of elections shall keep confidential the date of birth of every voter-registration applicant and registered voter, except in the following situations:

(1) When a voter has filed notice of candidacy for elective office under G.S. 163-106, 163-122, 163-123, or 163-294.2, ~~or 163-323,~~ has been nominated as a candidate under G.S. 163-98 or G.S. 163-114, or has otherwise formally become a candidate for elective office. The exception of this subdivision does not extend to an individual who meets the definition of "candidate" only by beginning a tentative candidacy by receiving funds or making payments or giving consent to someone else to receive funds or transfer something of value for the purpose of exploring a candidacy.

(2) When a voter is serving in an elective office.

(3) When a voter has been challenged pursuant to Article 8 of this Chapter.

(4) When a voter-registration applicant or registered voter expressly authorizes in writing the disclosure of that individual's date of birth.

The disclosure of an individual's age does not constitute disclosure of date of birth in violation of this section.

The county board of elections shall give precinct officials access to a voter's date of birth where necessary for election administration, consistent with the duty to keep dates of birth confidential.

Disclosure of a date of birth in violation of this section shall not give rise to a civil cause of action. This limitation of liability does not apply to the disclosure of a date of birth in violation of this subsection as a result of gross negligence, wanton conduct, or intentional wrongdoing that would otherwise be actionable."

SECTION 11. G.S. 163-165.5(3) reads as rewritten:

"§ 163-165.5. Contents of official ballots.

Each official ballot shall contain all the following elements:

...

(3) The names of the candidates as they appear on their notice of candidacy filed pursuant to G.S. 163-106 ~~or G.S. 163-323,~~ or on petition forms filed in accordance with G.S. 163-122. No title, appendage, or appellation indicating rank, status, or position shall be printed on the official ballot in connection with the candidate's name. Candidates, however, may use the title Mr., Mrs., Miss, or Ms. Nicknames shall be permitted on an official ballot if used in the notice of candidacy or qualifying petition, but the nickname shall appear according to standards adopted by the State Board of Elections. Those standards shall allow the presentation of legitimate nicknames in ways that do not mislead the voter or unduly advertise the candidacy. In the case of candidates for presidential elector, the official ballot shall not contain the names of the candidates for elector but instead shall contain the nominees for President and Vice President which the candidates for elector represent. The State Board of Elections shall establish a review procedure that local boards of elections shall follow to ensure that candidates' names appear on the official ballot in accordance with this subdivision.

...."

SECTION 12. G.S. 163-278.100(1) reads as rewritten:

"§ 163-278.100. Definitions.

As used in this Article, the following terms have the following definitions:

(1) The term "candidate-specific communication" means any broadcast, cable, or satellite communication that has all the following characteristics:

a. Refers to a clearly identified candidate for a statewide office or the General Assembly.

b. Is aired in an even-numbered year after the final date on which a Notice of Candidacy can be filed for the office, pursuant to ~~G.S. 163-106(c) or G.S. 163-323,~~ G.S. 163-106(c), and through the day on which the general election is conducted, excluding the time period set in the definition for "electioneering communication" in G.S. 163-278.80(2)b.

c. Is targeted to the relevant electorate.

...."

SECTION 13. G.S. 163-278.110(1) reads as rewritten:

"§ 163-278.110. Definitions.

As used in this Article, the following terms have the following definitions:

(1) The term "candidate-specific communication" means any mass mailing or telephone bank that has all the following characteristics:

a. Refers to a clearly identified candidate for a statewide office or the General Assembly.

b. Is transmitted in an even-numbered year after the final date on which a Notice of Candidacy can be filed for the office, pursuant to ~~G.S. 163-106(c) or G.S. 163-323,~~ G.S. 163-106(c), and through the day on which the general election is conducted, excluding the time period set in the definition for "electioneering communication" in G.S. 163-278.90(2)b.

c. Is targeted to the relevant electorate.

SECTION 14. G.S. 163-1(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) On Tuesday next after the first Monday in May preceding each general election to be held in November for the officers referred to in subsection (a) of this section, there shall be held in all election precincts within the territory for which the officers are to be elected a primary election for the purpose of nominating candidates for each political party in the State for those ~~offices, and nonpartisan candidates as to offices elected under the provisions of Article 25 of this Chapter.~~offices."

SECTION 15. G.S. 163-122(c) is repealed.

SECTION 16. G.S. 163-123(g) reads as rewritten:

"(g) Municipal and Nonpartisan Elections Excluded. – This section does not apply to municipal elections conducted under Subchapter IX of Chapter 163 of the General Statutes, and does not apply to nonpartisan elections.~~elections except for elections under Article 25 of this Chapter.~~"

SECTION 17. G.S. 163-278.64(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) Certification of Candidates. – Upon receipt of a submittal of the record of demonstrated support by a participating candidate, the Board shall determine whether or not the candidate has complied with all the following requirements:

(1) Signed and filed a declaration of intent to participate in this Article.

(2) Submitted a report itemizing the appropriate number of qualifying contributions received from registered voters, which the Board shall verify through a random sample or other means it adopts. The report shall include the county of residence of each registered voter listed.

(3) Filed a valid notice of candidacy pursuant to Article ~~25~~ 10 of this ~~Chapter.~~ Chapter, a valid petition or declaration of intent under Article 11 of this Chapter, or is nominated under G.S. 163-98.

(4) Otherwise met the requirements for participation in this Article.

The Board shall certify candidates complying with the requirements of this section as soon as possible and no later than five business days after receipt of a satisfactory record of demonstrated support."

SECTION 18. G.S. 163-278.64A is repealed.

SECTION 19.(a) Notwithstanding Section 1 of this act, G.S. 163-329 reads as rewritten:

"§ 163-329. Elections to fill vacancy in office created after primary filing period opens.

(a) General. – If a vacancy is created in the office of justice of the Supreme Court, judge of the Court of Appeals, or judge of superior court after the filing period for the primary opens but more than 60 days before the general election, and under the Constitution of North Carolina an election is to be held for that position, such that the office shall be filled in the general election as provided in G.S. 163-9, the election to fill the office for the remainder of the term shall be conducted without a primary using the method provided in subsection (b1) of this section. If a vacancy is created in the office of justice of the Supreme Court, judge of the Court of Appeals, or judge of superior court before the filing period for the primary opens, and under the Constitution of North Carolina an election is to be held for that position, such that the office shall be filled in the general election as provided in G.S. 163-9, the election to fill the office for the remainder of the term shall be conducted in accordance with G.S. 163-322.

(b) Repealed by Session Laws 2006-192, s. 8(a), effective August 3, 2006, and applicable to vacancies occurring on or after that date.

(b1) Method for Vacancy Election. – If a vacancy for the office of justice of the Supreme Court, judge of the Court of Appeals, or judge of the superior court occurs more than 60 days before the general election and after the opening of the filing period for the primary, then the State Board of Elections shall designate a special filing period of one week for candidates for the office. If more than two candidates file and qualify for the office in accordance with G.S. 163-323, then the Board shall conduct the election for the office as follows:

(1) When the vacancy described in this section occurs more than 63 days before the date of the second primary for members of the General Assembly, a special primary shall be held on the same day as the second primary. The two candidates with the most votes in the special primary shall have their names placed on the ballot for the general election held on the same day as the general election for members of the General Assembly.

(2) When the vacancy described in this section occurs less than 64 days before the date of the second primary, a general election for all the candidates shall be held on the same day as the general election for members of the General Assembly and the plurality method of determining the results shall be used, as follows:

a. When more than one person is seeking election to a single office, the candidate who receives the highest number of votes shall be declared elected.

b. When more persons are seeking election to two or more offices as superior court judge (constituting a group) than there are offices to be filled, those candidates receiving the highest numbers of votes, equal in number to the number of offices to be filled, shall be declared elected.

~~"instant runoff voting" method shall be used to determine the winner. Under "instant runoff voting," voters rank up to three of the candidates by order of preference, first, second, or third. If the candidate with the greatest number of first choice votes receives more than fifty percent (50%) of the first choice votes, that candidate wins. If no candidate receives that minimum number, the two candidates with the greatest number of first choice votes advance to a second round of counting. In this round, each ballot counts as a vote for whichever of the two final candidates is ranked highest by the voter. The candidate with the most votes in the second round wins the election. If more than one seat is to be filled in the same race, the voter votes the same way as if one seat were to be filled. The counting is the same as when one seat is to be filled, with one or two rounds as needed,~~

~~except that counting is done separately for each seat to be filled. The first count results in the first winner. Then the second count proceeds without the name of the first winner. This process results in the second winner. For each additional seat to be filled, an additional count is done without the names of the candidates who have already won. In multi-seat contests, the State Board of Elections may give the voter more than three choices.~~

(3) If two or more candidates receiving the highest number of votes each receive the same number of votes, the board of elections shall resolve the tie in accordance with G.S. 163-182.8.

(c) Applicable Provisions. – Except as provided in this section, the provisions of this Article apply to elections conducted under this section.

(d) Rules. – The State Board of Elections shall adopt rules for the implementation of this section. The rules are not subject to Article 2A of Chapter 150B of the General Statutes. ~~The rules shall include the following:~~

~~(1) If after the first choice candidate is eliminated, a ballot does not indicate one of the uneliminated candidates as an alternative choice, the ballot is exhausted and shall not be counted after the initial round.~~

~~(2) The fact that the voter does not designate a second or third choice does not invalidate the voter's higher choice or choices.~~

~~(3) The fact that the voter gives more than one ranking to the same candidate shall not invalidate the vote. The highest ranking given a particular candidate shall count as long as the candidate is not eliminated.~~

~~(4) In case of a tie between candidates such that two or more candidates have an equal number of first choices and more than two candidates qualify for the second round, instant runoff voting shall be used to determine which two candidates shall advance to the second round.~~"

SECTION 19.(b) G.S. 163-329, as amended by this section, is recodified as G.S. 163-120.

SECTION 20. This act becomes effective with respect to primaries and elections held on or after January 1, 2012.

SENATE BILL 47:
Restore Partisan Judicial Elections

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary I	Date:	June 6, 2011
Introduced by:	Sen. Tillman	Prepared by:	R. Erika Churchill
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition S47-CSST-50		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: The proposed committee substitute for Senate Bill 47 would provide that elections of appellate court, superior court and district court judges be conducted in partisan manner.

[As introduced, this bill was identical to H64, as introduced by Reps. Sager, Dixon, Cleveland, Jones, which is currently in House Elections.]

CURRENT LAW: Prior to 1996, elections of judges in North Carolina were conducted in partisan manner. In 1996, the law governing the elections of superior court judges was amended to make those elections nonpartisan. In 2001, the law governing the elections of district court judges was amended to make those elections nonpartisan. In 2002, the law governing the elections of appellate court judges was amendment to make those elections nonpartisan, beginning with the 2004 elections. As a result, currently, all elections of appellate court, superior court and district court judges in North Carolina are conducted in a nonpartisan manner.

Appellate Court justices are elected statewide, and serve eight year terms. The Superior and District Court Divisions of the General Court of Justice consist of various district courts organized in territorial districts, with at least one district judge in each district. The General Assembly determines the number of judges for each district. Each judge must be a resident of the district to which he or she is elected. Superior Court judges serve eight-year terms, district court judges serve four-year terms. Vacancies in the offices are filled for the unexpired term by appointment of the Governor. from nominations submitted by the district bar. If elected from a district, nominees must be residents of the district who are licensed to practice law in the district and who are members of the same political party as the vacating judge.

The provisions for nonpartisan judicial races are set out in Article 25 of Chapter 163 of the General Statutes. Candidates run in nonpartisan primaries, held on the same day in May as the party primaries. The primaries reduce the field to twice the number to be elected, eliminating additional candidates. Then, the reduced field runs in the November general election. The system is patterned after the nonpartisan primary and elections used by some cities to elect their mayors and city councils. The nonpartisan primaries and elections are by district for superior and district court judges.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 would repeal Article 25 of Chapter 163 of the General Statutes, which sets out the process for conducting nonpartisan judicial races.

Sections 2-7 would amend various partisan election procedural statutes to include judicial candidates.

Sections 8-19 would make conforming changes necessary to implement the repeal of Article 25 of Chapter 163 of the General Statutes and repeal instant run-off voting method used to determine elections to fill certain judicial vacancies.

EFFECTIVE DATE: Effective January 1, 2012, but may not be implemented until the session law has received 'preclearance' approval under Section 5 of the Voting Rights of 1965.

moves to amend the bill on page 9, lines 28-29 by inserting the following between those lines:

"SECTION 20. G.S. 105-159.2(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Returns. – Individual income tax returns must give an individual an opportunity to agree to the allocation of three dollars ($3.00) of the individual's tax liability to the North Carolina Public Campaign Fund. The Department must make it clear to the taxpayer that the dollars ~~will support a nonpartisan court system, that the dollars~~ will go to the Fund if the taxpayer marks an agreement, and that allocation of the dollars neither increases nor decreases the individual's tax liability. The following statement must be used to meet this requirement: "Mark 'Yes' if you want to designate $3 of taxes to this special Fund for voter education materials and for candidates who accept spending limits. Marking 'Yes' does not change your tax or refund." The Department must consult with the State Board of Elections to ensure that the information given to taxpayers complies with the intent of this section.

The Department must inform the entities it approves to reproduce the return that they must comply with the requirements of this section and that a return may not reflect an agreement or objection unless the individual completing the return decided to agree or object after being presented with the statement required by subsection (b) of this section and, as available background information or instructions, the information required by subsection (c) of this section. No software package used in preparing North Carolina income tax returns may default to an agreement or objection. A paid preparer of tax returns may not mark an agreement or objection for a taxpayer without the taxpayer's consent."; moves to amend the bill on page 9, lines 28-29 by inserting the following between those lines:

"SECTION 21.(a) G.S. 84-34 reads as rewritten:

"§ 84-34. Membership fees and list of members.

Every active member of the North Carolina State Bar shall, prior to the first day of July of each year, pay to the secretary-treasurer an annual membership fee in an amount determined by the Council but not to exceed ~~three hundred dollars ($300.00), plus a surcharge of fifty dollars ($50.00) for the implementation of Article 22D of Chapter 163 of the General Statutes,~~ three hundred dollars ($300.00) and every member shall notify the secretary-treasurer of the member's correct mailing address. Any member who fails to pay the required dues by the last day of June of each year shall be subject to a late fee in an amount determined by the Council but not to exceed thirty dollars ($30.00). All dues for prior years shall be as were set forth in the General Statutes then in effect. The membership fee shall be regarded as a service charge for the maintenance of the several services authorized by this Article, and shall be in addition to all fees required in connection with admissions to practice, and in addition to all license taxes required by law. The fee shall not be prorated: Provided, that no fee shall be required of an attorney licensed after this Article shall have gone into effect until the first day of January of the calendar year following that in which the attorney was licensed; but this proviso shall not apply to attorneys from other states admitted on certificate. The fees shall be disbursed by the secretary-treasurer on the order of the Council. ~~The fifty-dollar ($50.00) surcharge shall be sent on a monthly schedule to the State Board of Elections.~~ The secretary-treasurer shall annually, at a time and in a law magazine or daily newspaper to be prescribed by the Council, publish an account of the financial transactions of the Council in a form to be prescribed by it. The secretary-treasurer shall compile and keep currently correct from the names and mailing addresses forwarded to the secretary-treasurer and from any other available sources of information a list of members of the North Carolina State Bar and furnish to the clerk of the superior court in each county, not later than the first day of October in each year, a list showing the name and address of each attorney for that county who has not complied with the provisions of this Article. The name of each of the active members who are in arrears in the payment of membership fees shall be furnished to the presiding judge at the next term of the superior court after the first day of October of each year, by the clerk of the superior court of each county wherein the member or members reside, and the court shall thereupon take action that is necessary and proper. The names and addresses of attorneys so certified shall be kept available

AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR AUTOMATIC REINSTATEMENT OF CASES THAT WERE DISMISSED WITH LEAVE IF THOSE CASES ARE WAIVABLE, TO ALLOW FOR SERVICE OF CRIMINAL PROCESS BY A LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICER BEFORE A MAGISTRATE EVEN WHEN THE OFFICER IS OUTSIDE THE OFFICER'S TERRITORIAL JURISDICTION, TO ADD TO THE STATUTORY DUTIES OF THE DIRECTOR OF THE ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICE OF THE COURTS, TO REPEAL THE REQUIREMENT THAT MAGISTRATES BE RESIDENTS OF THE COUNTY TO WHICH THEY ARE APPOINTED TO SERVE, TO CLARIFY WHEN A CLERK OF SUPERIOR COURT MAY RELEASE FUNDS HELD UNDER A CLAIM OF LIEN ON REAL PROPERTY, TO GRANT THE COURT THE DISCRETION TO FIND THAT DISTANCE FROM THE COURT IS GOOD CAUSE TO EXEMPT A PARTY FROM CUSTODY MEDIATION, AND TO PROVIDE THAT FEES COLLECTED BY THE DISPUTE RESOLUTION COMMISSION ARE NONREVERTING.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 15A-932 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(d1) If the proceeding was dismissed pursuant to subdivision (2) of subsection (a) of this section and charged only offenses for which written appearance, waiver of trial or hearing, and plea of guilty or admission of responsibility are permitted pursuant to G.S. 7A-148(a), and the defendant later tenders to the court that waiver and payment in full of all applicable fines, costs, and fees, the clerk shall accept said waiver and payment without need for a written reinstatement from the prosecutor. Upon disposition of the case pursuant to this subsection, the clerk shall recall any outstanding criminal process in the case pursuant to G.S. 15A-301(g)(2)b."

SECTION 2.(a) G.S. 15A-301(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) Service. –

(1) A ~~law enforcement~~ law enforcement officer or other employee designated as provided in subsection (b) receiving for service or execution a criminal process that was first created and exists only in paper form must note thereon the date and time of its receipt. A law enforcement officer receiving a copy of a criminal process that was printed in paper form as provided in G.S. 15A-301.1 shall cause the date of receipt to be recorded as provided in that section. Upon execution or service, a copy of the process must be delivered to the person arrested or served.

(2) A corporation may be served with criminal summons as provided in G.S. 15A-773.

(3) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a municipal law enforcement officer may serve criminal process in a building housing a court or office of the General Court of Justice or before any judicial official authorized to conduct an initial appearance if the officer otherwise has territorial jurisdiction to serve criminal process in a municipality located in that county. The officer may arrest the person named in the process as provided in G.S. 15A-402(b). A municipal law enforcement officer serving criminal process as provided in this subdivision shall be protected under subsection (f) of this section."

SECTION 2.(b) G.S. 15A-402(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Territorial Jurisdiction of County and City Officers. – ~~Law enforcement~~ Law enforcement officers of cities and counties may arrest persons within their particular cities or counties and on any property and rights-of-way owned by the city or county outside its limits. Law enforcement officers of cities serving criminal process as provided in G.S. 15A-301(c)(3) may arrest the person named in the process when required by the process."

SECTION 3.(a) G.S. 7A-343 reads as rewritten:

"§ 7A-343. Duties of Director.

The Director is the Administrative Officer of the Courts, and the Director's duties include all of the following:

(1) Collect and compile statistical data and other information on the judicial and financial operation of the courts and on the operation of other offices directly related to and serving the courts.

(2) Determine the state of the dockets and evaluate the practices and procedures of the courts, and make recommendations concerning the number of judges, district attorneys, and magistrates required for the efficient administration of justice.

(3) Prescribe uniform administrative and business methods, systems, forms and records to be used in the offices of the clerks of superior court.

(3a) Maintain and staff as necessary an Internal Audit Division of the Judicial Department and the Administrative Office of the Courts that:

a. Evaluates and discloses potential weaknesses in the effectiveness of internal controls in the court system for the purpose of safeguarding public funds and assets and minimizing incidences of fraud, waste, and abuse.

b. Examines and analyzes the design and effectiveness of administrative and procedural operations.

c. Ensures overall compliance with federal and State laws, internal and external regulations, rules and procedures, and other applicable requirements.

d. Inspects and reviews the effectiveness and efficiency of processes and proceedings conducted by judicial officers.

e. Collaborates with other divisions to guide, direct, and support court officials in efforts to conform to both recommended and required compliance standards.

f. Executes routine audits of the Judicial Department's systems and controls, including, but not limited to:

1. Accounting systems and controls.
2. Administrative systems and controls.
3. Electronic data processing systems and controls.

(4) Prepare and submit budget estimates of State appropriations necessary for the maintenance and operation of the Judicial Department, and authorize expenditures from funds appropriated for these purposes.

(5) Investigate, make recommendations concerning, and assist in the securing of adequate physical accommodations for the General Court of Justice.

(6) Procure, distribute, exchange, transfer, and assign such equipment, books, forms and supplies as are to be acquired with State funds for the General Court of Justice.

(7) Make recommendations for the improvement of the operations of the Judicial Department.

(8) Prepare and submit an annual report on the work of the Judicial Department to the Chief Justice, and transmit a copy to each member of the General Assembly. The annual report shall include the activities of each North Carolina Business Court site, including the number of new, closed, and pending cases, the average age of pending cases, and the annual expenditures for the prior fiscal year.

(9) Assist the Chief Justice in performing his duties relating to the transfer of district court judges for temporary or specialized duty.

(9a) Establish and operate systems and services that provide for electronic filing in the court system and further provide electronic transaction processing and access to court information systems pursuant to G.S. 7A-343.2.

(9b) Enter into contracts with one or more private vendors to provide for the payment of fines, fees, and costs due to the court by credit, charge, or debit cards; such contracts may provide for the assessment of a convenience or transaction fee by the vendor to cover the costs of providing this service.

(9c) Prescribe policies and procedures for the appointment and payment of foreign language interpreters in those cases specified in G.S. 7A-314(f). These policies and procedures shall be applied uniformly throughout the General Court of Justice. After consultation with the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations, the Director may also convert contractual foreign language interpreter positions to permanent State positions when the Director determines that it is more cost-effective to do so.

(9d) Analyze the use of contractual positions in the Judicial Department and, after consultation with the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations, convert contractual positions to permanent State positions when the Director determines it is in the best interests of the Judicial Department to do so.

(9e) Prescribe policies and procedures for the appointment and payment of deaf and hearing-impaired interpreters, in accordance with G.S. 8B-8(a), for those cases specified in G.S. 8B-8(b) and (c). These policies and procedures shall be applied uniformly throughout the General Court of Justice. After consultation with the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations, the Director may also convert contractual hearing-impaired interpreter positions to permanent State positions when the Director determines that it is more cost-effective to do so.

(9f) Prescribe policies and procedures for the payment of those experts acting on behalf of the court or prosecutorial offices, as provided for in G.S. 7A-314(d).

(10) Perform such additional duties and exercise such additional powers as may be prescribed by statute or assigned by the Chief Justice.

(11) Prescribe policies and procedures for the assignment and compensation of magistrates performing temporary duty outside their county of residence during an emergency, as provided for in G.S. 7A-146(9).

(12) Issue photographic identification cards to appropriate Judicial Department employees and officials authorizing those employees and officials to travel to and from, enter, and work in court and court-related locations for the conduct or support of essential court operations in preparation for, during, or in the aftermath of emergency situations, including, but not limited to, catastrophic conditions. Notwithstanding any other provision of the law, and notwithstanding any emergency restrictions on travel or closures that may have been issued due to the emergency situations, an identification card issued pursuant to this subdivision shall be honored by all State and local law enforcement, emergency and health officers, and other authorities to permit the person to whom the card was issued to travel to and from court and court-related locations and otherwise carry out the purposes authorized by this subdivision. An identification card issued pursuant to this subdivision shall set forth its effective date and the full name, position, and employing unit of the person to whom the card is issued, with a provision, signed by the person, stating that the person is credentialed solely for the purposes stated in this subdivision and that the card shall not be used for any other purpose.

(13) Prescribe policies and procedures and establish and operate systems for the exchange of criminal and civil information from and to the Judicial Department and local, State, and federal governments and the Eastern Band of Cherokee Indians.

(14) Transfer equipment and supply funds to the appropriate programs and between programs as the equipment priorities and supply consumptions occur during the operating year.

(15) Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 138-6(a)(1), elect to establish a per-mile reimbursement rate for transportation by privately owned vehicles at a rate less than the business standard mileage rate set by the Internal Revenue Service."

SECTION 3.(b) G.S. 7A-146 reads as rewritten:

"§ 7A-146. Administrative authority and duties of chief district judge.

The chief district judge, subject to the general supervision of the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, has administrative supervision and authority over the operation of the district courts and magistrates in his district. These powers and duties include, but are not limited to, the following:

....

(9) Assigning magistrates during an emergency to temporary duty outside the county of their residence but within that ~~district;~~ district pursuant to the policies and procedures prescribed under G.S. 7A-343(11); and, upon the request of a chief district judge of an adjoining district and upon the approval of the Administrative Officer of the Courts, to temporary duty in the district of the requesting chief district ~~judge.~~ judge pursuant to the policies and procedures prescribed under G.S. 7A-343(11).

...."

SECTION 4. G.S. 7A-171.2(a) is repealed.

SECTION 5. G.S. 44A-16 reads as rewritten:

"§ 44A-16. Discharge of record claim of lien on real property.

(a) Any claim of lien on real property filed under this Article may be discharged by any of the following methods:

(1) The lien claimant of record, the claimant's agent or attorney, in the presence of the clerk of superior court may acknowledge the satisfaction of the claim of lien on real property indebtedness, whereupon the clerk of superior court shall forthwith make upon the record of such claim of lien on real property an entry of such acknowledgment of satisfaction, which shall be signed by the lien claimant of record, the claimant's agent or attorney, and witnessed by the clerk of superior court.

(2) The owner may exhibit an instrument of satisfaction signed and acknowledged by the lien claimant of record which instrument states that the claim of lien on real property indebtedness has been paid or satisfied, whereupon the clerk of superior court shall cancel the claim of lien on real property by entry of satisfaction on the record of such claim of lien on real property.

(3) By failure to enforce the claim of lien on real property within the time prescribed in this Article.

(4) By filing in the office of the clerk of superior court the original or certified copy of a judgment or decree of a court of competent jurisdiction showing that the action by the claimant to enforce the claim of lien on real property has been dismissed or finally determined adversely to the claimant.

(5) Whenever a sum equal to the amount of the claim or claims of lien on real property claimed is deposited with the clerk of court, to be applied to the payment finally determined to be due, whereupon the clerk of superior court shall cancel the claim or claims of lien on real property or claims of lien on real property of record.

(6) Whenever a corporate surety bond, in a sum equal to one and one-fourth times the amount of the claim or claims of lien on real property claimed and conditioned upon the payment of the amount finally determined to be due in satisfaction of said claim or claims of lien on real property, is deposited with the clerk of court, whereupon the clerk of superior court shall cancel the claim or claims of lien on real property of record.

(b) The clerk may release funds held or a corporate surety bond upon receipt of one of the following:

(1) Written agreement of the parties.

(2) A final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction.

(3) A consent order."

SECTION 6. G.S. 50-13.1(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) For good cause, on the motion of either party or on the court's own motion, the court may waive the mandatory setting under Article 39A of Chapter 7A of the General Statutes of a contested custody or visitation matter for mediation. Good cause may include, but is not limited to, the following: a showing of undue hardship to a party; an agreement between the parties for voluntary mediation, subject to court approval; allegations of abuse or neglect of the minor child; allegations of alcoholism, drug abuse, or domestic violence between the parents in common; or allegations of severe psychological, psychiatric, or emotional problems. A showing by either party that the party resides more than fifty miles from the court ~~shall~~ may be considered good cause."

SECTION 7. G.S. 7A-38.2(d) reads as rewritten:

SECTION 8. This act becomes effective July 1, 2011.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO AMEND THE PLANNED COMMUNITY ACT AND THE CONDOMINIUM ACT CONCERNING THE TIME PERIOD FOR FORECLOSURE OF A CLAIM OF LIEN FOR UNPAID ASSESSMENTS, TO AMEND THE LAW CONCERNING DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION ABOUT HOMEOWNERS ASSOCIATIONS TO POTENTIAL PURCHASERS, AND TO REQUIRE THE REAL ESTATE COMMISSION TO PREPARE AND MAKE AVAILABLE INFORMATION ABOUT RESTRICTIVE COVENANTS TO POTENTIAL PURCHASERS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 47F-3-116(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) Any assessment levied against a lot remaining unpaid for a period of 30 days or longer shall constitute a lien on that lot when a claim of lien is filed of record in the office of the clerk of superior court of the county in which the lot is located in the manner provided herein. Prior to filing a claim of lien, the association must make reasonable and diligent efforts to ensure that its records contain the lot owner's current mailing address. No fewer than 15 days prior to filing the lien, the association shall mail a statement of the assessment amount due by first-class mail to the physical address of the lot and the lot owner's address of record with the association, and, if different, to the address for the lot owner shown on the county tax records and the county real property records for the lot. If the lot owner is a corporation, the statement shall also be sent by first-class mail to the mailing address of the registered agent for the corporation. Unless the declaration otherwise provides, fees, charges, late charges, and other charges imposed pursuant to G.S. 47F-3-102, 47F-3-107, 47F-3-107.1, and 47F-3-115 are enforceable as assessments under this section. Except as provided in subsections (a1) and (a2) of this section, the ~~association~~ association, acting through the executive board, may foreclose the claim of lien in like manner as a mortgage on real estate under of power of sale or under Article 2A of Chapter 45 of the General ~~Statutes.~~Statutes, if the assessment remains unpaid for 90 days or more. The association shall not foreclose the claim of lien unless the executive board votes to commence the proceeding against the specific lot."

SECTION 2. G.S. 47C-3-116(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) Any assessment levied against a unit remaining unpaid for a period of 30 days or longer shall constitute a lien on that unit when a claim of lien is filed of record in the office of the clerk of superior court of the county in which the unit is located in the manner provided herein. Prior to filing a claim of lien, the association must make reasonable and diligent efforts to ensure that its records contain the unit owner's current mailing address. No fewer than 15 days prior to filing the lien, the association shall mail a statement of the assessment amount due by first-class mail to the physical address of the unit and the unit owner's address of record with the association, and, if different, to the address for the unit owner shown on the county tax records and the county real property records for the unit. If the unit owner is a corporation, the statement shall also be sent by first-class mail to the mailing address of the registered agent for the corporation. Unless the declaration otherwise provides, fees, charges, late charges and other charges imposed pursuant to G.S. 47C-3-102, 47C-3-107, 47C-3-107.1, and 47C-3-115 are enforceable as assessments under this section. Except as provided in subsections (a1) and (a2) of this section, the ~~association~~ association, acting through the executive board, may foreclose the claim of lien in like manner as a mortgage on real estate under power of sale or under Article 2A of Chapter 45 of the General ~~Statutes.~~Statutes, if the assessment remains unpaid for 90 days or more. The association shall not foreclose the claim of lien unless the executive board votes to commence the proceeding against the specific unit."

SECTION 3.(a) G.S. 47E-2 reads as rewritten:

"§ 47E-2. Exemptions.

The following transfers are exempt from the provisions of this Chapter:

...

(11) Transfers between parties when both parties agree not to complete a residential property disclosure ~~statement.~~statement or an owners' association and mandatory covenants disclosure statement."

SECTION 3.(b) G.S. 47E-4 reads as rewritten:

"§ 47E-4. Required disclosures.

(a) With regard to transfers described in G.S. 47E-1, the owner of the real property shall furnish to a purchaser a residential property disclosure statement. The disclosure statement shall:

(1) Disclose those items which are required to be disclosed relative to the characteristics and condition of the property and of which the owner has actual knowledge; or

(2) State that the owner makes no representations as to the characteristics and condition of the real property or any improvements to the real property except as otherwise provided in the real estate contract.

(b) The North Carolina Real Estate Commission shall develop and require the use of a standard disclosure statement to comply with the requirements of this section. The disclosure statement shall specify that certain transfers of residential property are excluded from this requirement by G.S. 47E-2, including transfers of residential property made pursuant to a lease with an option to purchase where the lessee occupies or intends to occupy the dwelling, and shall include at least the following characteristics and conditions of the property:

(1) The water supply and sanitary sewage disposal system;

(2) The roof, chimneys, floors, foundation, basement, and other structural components and any modifications of these structural components;

(3) The plumbing, electrical, heating, cooling, and other mechanical systems;

(4) Present infestation of wood-destroying insects or organisms or past infestation the damage for which has not been repaired;

(5) The zoning laws, restrictive covenants, building codes, and other land-use restrictions affecting the real property, any encroachment of the real property from or to adjacent real property, and notice from any governmental agency affecting this real property; and

(6) Presence of lead-based paint, asbestos, radon gas, methane gas, underground storage tank, hazardous material or toxic material (whether buried or covered), and other environmental contamination.

The disclosure statement shall provide the owner with the option to indicate whether the owner has actual knowledge of the specified characteristics or conditions, or the owner is making no representations as to any characteristic or condition.

(b1) With regard to transfers described in G.S. 47E-1, the owner of the real property shall furnish to a purchaser an owners' association and mandatory covenants disclosure statement.

(1) The North Carolina Real Estate Commission shall develop and require the use of a standard disclosure statement to comply with the requirements of this subsection. The disclosure statement shall specify that certain transfers of residential property are excluded from this requirement by G.S. 47E-2, including transfers of residential property made pursuant to a lease with an option to purchase where the lessee occupies or intends to occupy the dwelling. The standard disclosure statement shall require disclosure of whether or not the property to be conveyed is subject to regulation by one or more owners' association(s) and governing documents which impose various mandatory covenants, conditions, and restrictions upon the property, including, but not limited to, obligations to pay regular assessments or dues and special assessments. The statement required by this subsection shall include information on all of the following:

a. The name, address, telephone number, or e-mail address for the president or manager of the association to which the lot is subject.

b. The amount of any regular assessments or dues to which the lot is subject.

c. Whether there are any services that are paid for by regular assessments or dues to which the lot is subject.

d. Whether, as of the date the disclosure is signed, there are any assessments, dues, fees, or special assessments which have been duly approved as required by the applicable declaration or bylaws, payable to an association to which the lot is subject.

e. Whether, as of the date the disclosure is signed, there are any unsatisfied judgments against or pending lawsuits involving the lot, the planned community or the association to which the lot is subject, with the exception of any action filed by the association for the collection of delinquent assessments on lots other than the lot to be sold.

f. Any fees charged by an association or management company to which the lot is subject in connection with the conveyance or transfer of the lot to a new owner.

(2) The owners' association and mandatory covenants disclosure statement shall provide the owner with the option to indicate whether the owner has actual knowledge of the specified characteristics, or conditions or the owner is making no representations as to any characteristic or condition contained in the statement.

(c) The rights of the parties to a real estate contract as to conditions of the property of which the owner had no actual knowledge are not affected by this Article unless the residential disclosure statement or the owners' association and mandatory covenants disclosure statement, as applicable, states that the owner makes no representations as to those conditions. If the statement states that an owner makes no representations as to the conditions of the property, then the owner has no duty to disclose those conditions, whether or not the owner should have known of them."

SECTION 3.(c) G.S. 47E-5 reads as rewritten:

"§ 47E-5. Time for disclosure; cancellation of contract.

(a) The owner of real property subject to this Chapter shall deliver to the purchaser the disclosure ~~statement~~ statements required by this Chapter no later than the time the purchaser makes an offer to purchase, exchange, or option the property, or exercises the option to purchase the property pursuant to a lease with an option to purchase. The residential property disclosure statement or the owners' association and mandatory covenants disclosure statement may be included in the real estate contract, in an addendum, or in a separate document.

(b) If the disclosure ~~statement~~ statements required by this Chapter ~~is~~ are not delivered to the purchaser prior to or at the time the purchaser makes an offer, the purchaser may cancel any resulting real estate contract. The purchaser's right to cancel shall expire if not exercised prior to the following, whichever occurs first:

(1) The end of the third calendar day following the purchaser's receipt of the disclosure statement;

(2) The end of the third calendar day following the date the contract was made;

(3) Settlement or occupancy by the purchaser in the case of a sale or exchange; or

(4) Settlement in the case of a purchase pursuant to a lease with option to purchase.

Any right of the purchaser to cancel the contract provided by this subsection is waived conclusively if not exercised in the manner required by this subsection.

In order to cancel a real estate contract when permitted by this section, the purchaser shall, within the time required above, give written notice to the owner or the owner's agent either by hand delivery or by depositing into the United States mail, postage prepaid, and properly addressed to the owner or the owner's agent. If the purchaser cancels a real estate contract in compliance with this subsection, the cancellation shall be without penalty to the purchaser, and the purchaser shall be entitled to a refund of any deposit the purchaser may have paid. Any rights of the purchaser to cancel or terminate the contract for reasons other than those set forth in this subsection are not affected by this subsection."

SECTION 3.(d) G.S. 47E-6 reads as rewritten:

"§ 47E-6. Owner liability for disclosure of information provided by others.

The owner may discharge the duty to disclose imposed by this Chapter by providing a written report attached to the residential property disclosure statement and the owners' association and mandatory covenants disclosure statement by a public agency or by an attorney, engineer, land surveyor, geologist, pest control operator, contractor, home inspector or other expert, dealing with matters within the scope of the public agency's functions or the expert's license or expertise. The owner shall not be liable for any error, inaccuracy, or omission of any information delivered pursuant to this section if the error, inaccuracy, or omission was made in reasonable reliance upon the information provided by the public agency or expert and the owner was not grossly negligent in obtaining the information or transmitting it."

SECTION 3.(e) G.S. 47E-7 reads as rewritten:

"§ 47E-7. Change in circumstances.

If, subsequent to the owner's delivery of a residential property disclosure statement and the owners' association and mandatory covenants disclosure statement to a purchaser, the owner discovers a material inaccuracy in ~~the~~ a disclosure ~~statement,~~ statement, or ~~the~~ a disclosure statement is rendered inaccurate in a material way by the occurrence of some event or circumstance, the owner shall promptly correct the inaccuracy by delivering a corrected disclosure statement or statements to the purchaser. Failure to deliver ~~the~~ a corrected disclosure statement or to make the repairs made necessary by the event or circumstance shall result in such remedies for the buyer as are provided for by law in the event the sale agreement requires the property to be in substantially the same condition at closing as on the date of the offer to purchase, reasonable wear and tear excepted."

SECTION 3.(f) G.S. 47E-8 reads as rewritten:

"§ 47E-8. Agent's duty.

A real estate broker or salesman acting as an agent in a residential real estate transaction has the duty to inform each of the clients of the real estate broker or salesman of the client's rights and obligations under this Chapter. Provided the owner's real estate broker or salesman has performed this duty, the broker or salesman shall not be responsible for the owner's willful refusal to provide a prospective purchaser with a residential property disclosure ~~statement.~~statement or an owners' association and mandatory covenants disclosure statement. Nothing in this Chapter shall be construed to conflict with, or alter, the broker or salesman's duties under Chapter 93A of the General Statutes."

SECTION 3.(g) This section becomes effective January 1, 2012, and applies to real estate transfers or dispositions occurring on or after that date. The North Carolina Real Estate Commission shall develop and make available the standard disclosure form required by G.S. 47E-4(b1), as enacted by Section 3(b) of this act, by December 1, 2011.

SECTION 4. The North Carolina Real Estate Commission shall develop and make available for homebuyers a brochure about restrictive covenants. The brochure shall include an explanation that unpaid assessments, fines, fees, or charges may result in foreclosure of the owner's property. The brochure shall be available by December 1, 2011.

SECTION 5. This act is effective when it becomes law and applies to foreclosure actions filed on or after October 1, 2011.

HOUSE BILL 165:
Planned Community & Condo Act Amends

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary I	Date:	June 8, 2011
Introduced by:	Reps. McGee, Weiss, Earle, Howard	Prepared by:	Giles S. Perry
Analysis of:	Third Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 165 makes changes to the Planned Community Act and the Condominium Act to require a claim of lien for an assessment to remain unpaid for 90 or more days before foreclosure, to require specified disclosure of information about homeowners' associations to potential purchasers, and to require the Real Estate Commission to prepare and make available information about restrictive covenants to potential purchasers

CURRENT LAW: Under current law, when any homeowner or unit owner assessments levied against a lot or unit remain unpaid for 30 days or longer, the association is authorized to file a claim of lien against the property in the office of the clerk of superior court.

G.S. 47C-3-116 (North Carolina Condominium Act) and G.S. 47F-3-116 (North Carolina Planned Community Act) provide that the association may use power of sale foreclosure, Article 2A of Chapter 45, to enforce a lien for assessments, but may only use judicial foreclosure (Article 29A of Chapter 1) if the lien is solely for fines, interest, or attorney's fees.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 of the bill amends the North Carolina Planned Community Act to provide that an association, acting through its executive board, may foreclose a claim of lien under power of sale if the assessment remains unpaid for 90 days or more, and if the executive board votes to commence the proceeding against the specific lot.

Section 2 of the bill amends the North Carolina Condominium Act to provide that an association, acting through its executive board, may foreclose a claim of lien under power of sale if the assessment remains unpaid for 90 days or more, and if the executive board votes to commence the proceeding against the specific lot.

Section 3 of the bill amends the provisions of the Residential Property Disclosure Act, as follows:

- In Section 3.(a), to amend the law providing that the Act does not apply to transfers between parties when both parties agree not to complete a residential property disclosure statement, to add an owners' association and mandatory covenants disclosure statement.
- In Section 3.(b), to amend the list of required disclosures, to require the owner of real property to furnish to a purchaser an owners' association and mandatory covenants disclosure statement. The North Carolina Real Estate Commission is directed to develop the disclosure statement, which must include the specified elements.
- In Section 3.(c), to amend the law requiring owners to deliver to purchasers disclosure statements, and providing that they may be included in the real estate contract, in an addendum, or in a separate document, to add owners' association and mandatory covenant disclosure statements.
- In Section 3.(d), to amend the statute allowing the owner to discharge the duty to disclose by attaching a report to the residential property disclosure statement, to add owners' association and mandatory covenants disclosure statements, and by adding reports from attorneys as an acceptable form of disclosure.

- In Section 3.(e), to amend the statute requiring correction to disclosure statements upon discovery of material changes in circumstances, to include owners' association and mandatory covenants disclosure statements.
- In Section 3.(f), to amend the statute that provides a broker or salesman is not responsible for the owner's willful refusal to provide a prospective purchaser with a residential property disclosure statement, to include owners' association and mandatory covenants disclosure statements.
- In Section 3.(g), to provide that Section 3 is effective January 1, 2012, and applies to real estate transfers or dispositions occurring on or after that date.

  This section also provides that the North Carolina Real Estate Commission shall develop and make available the standard disclosure form required by G.S. 47E-4(b1), as enacted by Section 3.(b) of this act, by December 1, 2011.

Section 4 of the bill directs the North Carolina Real Estate Commission to develop and make available for homebuyers a brochure about restrictive covenants. The brochure shall include an explanation that unpaid assessments, fines, fees or charges may result in foreclosure of the owner's property. The brochure shall be available by December 1, 2011.

EFFECTIVE DATE: Effective when it becomes law, and applies to foreclosure actions filed on or after October 1, 2011.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO MAKE REFERENCES IN CHAPTER 127A OF THE NORTH CAROLINA GENERAL STATUTES TO FEDERAL AND STATE MILITARY ORGANIZATIONS PROPER AND UNIFORM, AS DIRECTED BY SESSION LAW 2009-281, AS AMENDED BY SESSION LAW 2010-152, AND TO MAKE OTHER CLARIFYING, CONFORMING, AND TECHNICAL AMENDMENTS, AS RECOMMENDED BY THE GENERAL STATUTES COMMISSION.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1.(a) Chapter 127A of the General Statutes reads as rewritten:

"Chapter 127A.

"Militia.

"Article 1.

"Classification of Militia.

"§ 127A-1. Composition of militia.

The militia of the State shall consist of all able-bodied citizens of the State and of the United States and ~~such~~ all other able-bodied persons who have or shall declare their intention to become citizens of the United States, subject to ~~such~~ the qualifications ~~as may be hereinafter prescribed,~~ prescribed in this Chapter, who shall be drafted into ~~said~~ the militia or shall voluntarily accept commission, appointment, or assignment to duty therein.

"§ 127A-3. Organized militia; National Guard.

The North Carolina National Guard, both ~~army and air,~~ Army and Air, shall consist of regularly commissioned, warrant and enlisted personnel ~~between such ages as may be~~ within the age limits established by regulations promulgated by the secretary of the appropriate service and shall be organized, governed, armed, equipped and have ~~such~~ the duties and responsibilities ~~as hereinafter provided.~~provided in this Chapter.

"§ 127A-4. Organized militia; naval militia.

The naval militia shall consist of regularly commissioned, warrant and enlisted personnel ~~between such ages as may be~~ within the age limits established by regulations promulgated by the secretary of the appropriate service and shall be organized, governed, armed, equipped and have ~~such~~ the duties and responsibilities ~~as hereinafter provided.~~provided in this Chapter.

"§ 127A-5. Organized militia; State defense militia.

The State defense militia shall consist of commissioned, warrant and enlisted personnel called, ordered, appointed or enlisted therein by the Governor under the provisions of Article 5 of this Chapter and shall be organized, governed, armed, equipped and have ~~such~~ the duties and responsibilities ~~as hereinafter provided.~~provided in this Chapter.

"§ 127A-6. Organized militia; historic military commands.

Historic military commands are those historic groups which remain active by meeting at least once a month and which follow military procedures. Only ~~such~~ groups ~~as may be~~ designated by the Governor shall fall within this branch of the militia. Any maximum age limits prescribed by this Chapter ~~shall not be applicable~~ do not apply to members of historic military commands.

"§ 127A-7. Composition of unorganized militia.

The unorganized militia shall consist of all other able-bodied citizens of the State and of the United States and ~~such~~ all other able-bodied persons who have or shall declare their intention to become citizens of the United States, who shall be at least 17 years of age, except those who have been convicted of a felony or discharged from any component of the military under other than honorable conditions.

"§ 127A-8. Exemptions from duty with the militia.

The officers, judicial and executive, of the government of the United States and the State of North Carolina, persons in the military or naval service of the United States, customhouse clerks, persons employed by the United States in the transmission of mail, artificers and personnel employed in the armories, arsenals and navy yards of the United States, pilots, and mariners actually employed in the sea service of any citizen or merchant within the United States shall be exempt from duty with the militia without regard to age, and all persons who, because of religious beliefs, ~~shall~~ claim exemption from duty with the militia, if the conscientious holding of ~~such~~ the belief by ~~such~~ that person ~~shall be~~ is established under ~~such~~ the regulations ~~as are or may be~~ prescribed for exemption from service with the ~~armed forces~~ Armed Forces of the United States, shall be exempted from militia service in a combatant capacity; but no person so exempted shall be exempt from militia service in any capacity that shall be declared noncombatant for the ~~armed forces~~ Armed Forces of the United States.

"§ 127A-9. Number of troops authorized.

In time of peace the State shall maintain only ~~such~~ those troops ~~as may be~~ that are authorized by the President of the United States; but nothing contained in this Chapter shall be construed as limiting the rights of the State in the use of the North Carolina National Guard or the State defense militia or both within its borders in time of peace. Nothing contained in this Chapter shall prevent the organization and maintenance of State police or constabulary.

"§ 127A-10. Corps entitled to retain privileges.

Any corps of artillery, cavalry, or infantry existing in the State on the passage of the act of Congress of May 8, 1792, which by the laws, customs, or usages of the State has been in continuous existence since the passage of ~~such~~ that act, under its provisions and under the provisions of section 232 and sections 1625 to 1660, both inclusive, of Title 16 of the revised statutes of 1873 and the act of Congress of January 21, 1903, relating to the militia, shall be allowed to retain its ancient privileges, subject, nevertheless, to all duties required by law of the militia; but ~~such~~ these organizations may be a part of the North Carolina National Guard, and entitled to all the privileges of this Chapter, and shall conform in all respects to the organization, discipline, and training of the North Carolina National Guard in time of war. For purposes of training and when on active duty in the service of the United States they may be assigned to higher units, as the President may direct, and shall be subject to the orders of officers under whom they shall be serving.

"Article 2.

"General Administrative Officers.

...

"§ 127A-17. Commander in chief to prescribe regulations.

The commander in chief shall have the power and ~~it shall be his duty~~the duty, from time to ~~time~~ time, to issue ~~such~~ orders and to prescribe ~~such~~ regulations relating to the organized and unorganized militia ~~as will cause~~that are necessary for the ~~same~~ militia at all times to conform to the federal requirements of the United States government relating thereto.

"§ 127A-17.1. Confidentiality of National Guard records.

Notwithstanding any provision of Chapter ~~143B,~~143B of the General Statutes, no records of the North Carolina National Guard in the Department of Crime Control and Public Safety shall be disclosed or used for any purpose except for official purposes, and no records shall be disclosed, destroyed or used in any manner which is in violation of any existing federal law or regulation. Nothing in this Chapter shall convert records which are the property of the federal government into State property.

"§ 127A-18. Personal staff of Governor.

The Governor may detail not more than 10 active North Carolina National Guard members and two active naval militia members who shall in addition to their regular duties, perform the duties of aides-de-camp on the personal staff of the Governor.

"§ 127A-19. Adjutant General.

The military head of the militia shall be the Adjutant General who shall hold the rank of major general. The Adjutant General shall be appointed by the Governor in ~~his~~ the Governor's capacity as commander in chief of the militia, in consultation with the Secretary of Crime Control and Public Safety, and shall serve at the pleasure of the Governor. No person shall be appointed as Adjutant General who has less than five years' commissioned service in an active status in any component of the ~~armed forces~~Armed Forces of the United States. The Adjutant General, while holding ~~such~~ this office, may be a member of the active North Carolina National Guard or naval militia.

Subject to the approval of the Governor and in consultation with the ~~Secretary,~~ ~~Department~~Secretary of Crime Control and Public Safety, the Adjutant General may appoint (i) a deputy adjutant general who may hold the rank of major general, and (ii) an assistant adjutant general for Army National Guard, and an assistant adjutant general for Air National Guard, each of whom may hold the rank of brigadier general and who shall serve at the pleasure of the Governor. The Adjutant General may also employ ~~such~~ staff members and other personnel as ~~may be~~ authorized by the Secretary and funded.

"§ 127A-21. United States property and fiscal officer.

(a) The Governor of the State, in consultation with the Secretary of Crime Control and Public Safety, shall appoint, designate, or detail, subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Army and the Secretary of the Air Force, a qualified commissioned officer of the North Carolina National Guard who is also a commissioned officer of the Army National Guard of the United States or the Air National Guard of the United States, as the case may be, to be the United States property and fiscal officer for North Carolina. If the officer is not on active duty, the President may order ~~him~~ the officer to active duty, with ~~his~~ the officer's consent, to serve as a property and fiscal officer.

(b) The status of the United States property and fiscal officer is that of a reserve commissioned officer of the ~~army or air force,~~United States Army or Air Force, as appropriate, on extended active duty and detailed for duty with the National Guard Bureau for administrative purposes. In ~~his~~ the officer's capacity as United States property and fiscal officer, ~~he~~ the officer will function under the direction of and cooperate fully with the State Adjutant General.

(c) The assumption and performance of duties and responsibilities, pay and allowances, and other personnel actions to include retention and retirement of an officer appointed and serving as the United States property and fiscal officer will be governed by regulations promulgated by the National Guard Bureau or pursuant to regulations promulgated by the secretary of the appropriate service.

"§ 127A-22. North Carolina property and fiscal officer.

(a) Upon full mobilization of the North Carolina National Guard into federal service to the extent that the functions of a United States property and fiscal officer no longer exist or are authorized under federal statutes, the Governor of the State, in consultation with the Secretary of Crime Control and Public Safety, may appoint, designate or detail a qualified individual to serve at the pleasure of the Governor as the North Carolina property and fiscal officer for any composition of a nonfederally recognized State National Guard or State defense militia organized under the provisions of ~~G.S. 127A-1 et seq.~~this Chapter.

(b) In consideration of ~~his~~ the North Carolina property and fiscal officer's services for the responsibility, care, utilization, and issue of State or federal facilities and property, under the jurisdiction of the State of North Carolina, the ~~North Carolina property and fiscal~~ officer shall receive from the State ~~such~~ a just and proper salary as ~~the Governor may authorize to be just and proper;~~authorized by the Governor; the salary to constitute a charge upon appropriations made to the Department of Crime Control and Public Safety.

(c) The North Carolina property and fiscal officer ~~for North Carolina~~ shall be an employee of the Department of Crime Control and Public Safety. ~~He~~ The officer shall be required to give good and sufficient bond to the State, the amount thereof to be determined by the Governor, for the faithful performance of ~~his~~ duties and for the safekeeping and proper distribution of ~~such~~ the funds and property entrusted to ~~his~~ the officer's care. ~~He~~ The officer shall receipt for and account for all funds and property allotted to ~~his~~ the officer's custody from the appropriation for military purposes by State and federal agencies, and shall make ~~such~~ returns and reports through the Secretary of Crime Control and Public Safety concerning ~~same~~ the property and funds as ~~may be~~ required by the Governor or State laws.

"§ 127A-23. Commissions for commandants and officers at qualified educational institutions.

The Governor of North Carolina is authorized to appoint and commission, as staff officers of the North Carolina unorganized militia, the officers of any university, college, academy or other educational institution which qualifies as ~~herein provided.~~provided in this section. Any university, college, academy or other educational institution shall be qualified under this section when ~~such~~ the institution has been regularly incorporated under and by virtue of the laws of North Carolina; the institution, as a part of its courses of study, regularly teaches military science and tactics; the Department of Defense at Washington, D.C., has detailed an officer of the ~~armed forces~~Armed Forces of the United States as professor or assistant professor of military science and tactics; the institution has been designated as qualified by the secretary of the appropriate service and has been made a unit of the Senior or Junior Reserve Officers' Training Corps, or the institution, not having a unit of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps, has been approved and authorized by the Secretary of Defense to participate in the National Defense Cadet Corps Training Program or other military training programs under Title 10, United States Code, sections 3540 and 4651.

Any qualified institution desiring the appointment of officers in the North Carolina unorganized militia shall make application to the Governor setting forth all requisite facts as to its qualifications, the names of the persons to be commissioned, the rank desired for each, and the person's position at the institution. The application shall be signed by the chancellor, president, superintendent or other presiding official, under the seal of the institution. Upon receipt of the application, the Governor may appoint and commission the officers of ~~such~~ a qualified institution as follows: the chancellor, president, superintendent or other presiding official, as colonel; the vice-president, principal or other officer second in authority, as major; the professors and members of the faculty, as captains. The persons so commissioned shall have no connection with the North Carolina National Guard or other military forces of the State, nor shall they exercise any military authority other than in the discharge of their duties at their respective institutions. The commissions issued under this section may be terminated at the will of the Governor.

"Article 3.

"National Guard.

"§ 127A-29. National Guard.

The North Carolina National Guard class of the four classes of the organized militia as established under G.S. 127A-2 is hereby designated the ~~North Carolina National Guard.~~North Carolina National Guard.' Those elements of the North Carolina National Guard which receive federal recognition by the United States government shall hold a dual status both as State troops and as a reserve component of the ~~armed forces~~Armed Forces of the United States. In its federal status, the North Carolina National Guard shall be subject to federal laws and regulations pertaining thereto. The Adjutant General shall insure compliance with ~~such~~ those federal laws and regulations and with all State laws and orders of the Governor not inconsistent with ~~those federal laws and regulations.~~them.

"§ 127A-30. Organization of National Guard units.

Except as otherwise specifically provided by the laws of the United States, the organization of the North Carolina National Guard, including the composition of all ~~units thereof,~~its units, shall be the same as that which is or may hereafter be prescribed for the regular ~~army or air force~~United States Army or Air Force subject in time of peace to ~~such~~ general exceptions ~~as may be~~ authorized by the Secretary of Defense.

"§ 127A-31. Location of units.

The Governor shall determine and fix the location of the units and headquarters of the North Carolina National Guard within the State; but no organization of the North Carolina National Guard, members of which shall be entitled to and shall have received compensation under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 3, 1916, as amended, shall be disbanded without the consent of the President, nor without ~~such~~ that consent shall the commissioned or enlisted strength of any such organization be reduced below the minimum that is now or shall be hereafter prescribed therefor by the President.

"§ 127A-32. Officers appointed and commissioned; oath of office.

All officers of the North Carolina National Guard shall be appointed and commissioned by the Governor as follows, viz.:

(1) Except as otherwise specifically provided by the laws of the United States, the qualifications for appointment as an officer in the North Carolina National Guard shall be the same as those prescribed for the regular establishment, subject to ~~such~~ general exceptions ~~as may be~~ authorized by the Secretary of Defense.

(2) Candidates for ~~such~~ appointment shall make written application therefor on ~~such~~ forms ~~as may be~~ prescribed by the secretary of the appropriate service, to the Adjutant General, State of North Carolina, through command channels for comment by endorsements thereon.

(3) No person shall hereafter be appointed an officer of the North Carolina National Guard unless ~~he~~ the person has established to the satisfaction of a board of officers ~~his~~ that person's physical, moral, and professional qualifications to perform the duties of the grade and position for which examined, subject to ~~such~~ general exceptions ~~as may be~~ authorized by the Secretary of Defense. The board shall consist of three or more commissioned officers of the appropriate service, appointed under ~~such~~ regulations ~~as may be~~ promulgated by the secretary of the appropriate service.

(4) Candidates appointed as officers of the North Carolina National Guard shall take and subscribe to the following oath of office:

"I, (First Name – Middle Name – Last Name), do solemnly swear that I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of North Carolina against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I will obey orders of the President of the United States and of the Governor of the State of North Carolina; that I make this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion, and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office of (Grade) (Branch) in the National Guard of the State of North Carolina upon which I am about to enter, so help me God."

"§ 127A-33. Promotion of officers by seniority and in accordance with regulations.

The promotion of all officers shall be by seniority as far as ~~the same is~~ practicable and ~~to~~ in the best interest of the service within the organization, and in accordance with regulations promulgated by the secretary of the appropriate service.

"§ 127A-35. Elimination and disposition of officers; efficiency board; transfer to inactive status.

(a) Whenever the efficiency or general fitness, including physical fitness, of a North Carolina National Guard officer is in question, the Adjutant General, State of North Carolina, may order ~~him~~ the officer to appear before an efficiency board to determine whether or not the appointment of the officer should be withdrawn. The efficiency board will be composed of not less than three commissioned officers, all senior in rank to the officer undergoing investigation. A member of the board serving in a legal or medical advisory capacity may be junior to any person, other than a judge advocate, law specialist, or medical officer being considered. The findings of an efficiency board are not final until reviewed and approved by the Secretary ~~of the Department~~ of Crime Control and Public Safety and the Governor of the State of North Carolina.

(b) Commissions of officers of the North Carolina National Guard may be vacated upon resignation, absence without leave for 30 days, pursuant to sentence of a court martial, or pursuant to regulations promulgated by the secretary of the appropriate service.

(c) Officers of the North Carolina National Guard may, upon their own request, be transferred to the inactive North Carolina National Guard, subject to ~~such~~ exceptions ~~as may be~~ authorized by the Adjutant General, State of North Carolina, or the Secretary of Defense.

...

"§ 127A-37. Enlistments in National Guard; oath of enlistment.

(a) Enlistments in the North Carolina National Guard shall be for ~~such~~ the periods and subject to ~~such~~ the qualifications as prescribed by the secretary of the appropriate service.

(b) Enlisted ~~men~~ persons shall not be recognized as members of the North Carolina National Guard until they shall have subscribed to the following oath of enlistment:

"I do hereby acknowledge to have voluntarily enlisted this ____day of_____, ____, in the (Army) (Air) National Guard of the State of North Carolina and as a Reserve of the (Army) (Air Force) with membership in the (Army National Guard of the United States) (Air National Guard of the United States) for a period of (Years – Months – Days) under the conditions prescribed by law, unless sooner discharged by proper authority.

"I, (First Name – Middle Name – Last Name), do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States and of the State of North Carolina against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to them; and that I will obey the orders of the President of the United States and the Governor of North Carolina and the orders of the officers appointed over me, according to law, regulations, and the Uniform Code of Military Justice, so help me God."

"§ 127A-38. Discharge of enlisted personnel.

(a) Enlisted personnel discharged from service in the North Carolina National Guard shall receive a discharge in writing in ~~such~~ the form and with ~~such~~ the classification ~~as~~ that is or shall be prescribed under regulations promulgated by the appropriate service.

(b) Discharges may be given prior to the expiration of terms of enlistment under ~~such~~ regulations ~~as may be~~ prescribed by the Adjutant General, State of North Carolina, or pursuant to regulations promulgated by the secretary of the appropriate service.

"§ 127A-39. Membership continued in the National Guard.

When called or ordered into federal service and discharged therefrom, members shall continue their membership in the North Carolina National Guard until the expiration of their enlistment or appointment, unless sooner terminated by proper authority.

"§ 127A-40. Pensions for the members of the North Carolina National Guard.

(a) Every member and former member of the North Carolina National Guard who meets the requirements ~~hereinafter set forth~~of this section shall receive, commencing at age 60, a pension of ninety-five dollars ($95.00) per month for 20 years' creditable military service with an additional nine dollars fifty cents ($9.50) per month for each additional year of such service; provided, however, that the total pension shall not exceed one hundred ninety dollars ($190.00) per month. The requirements for ~~such~~ a pension are that each member shall:

(1) Have served and qualified for at least 20 years' creditable military service, including National Guard, reserve and active duty, under the same requirement specified for entitlement to retired pay for nonregular service under Chapter 67, Title 10, United States Code.

(2) Have at least 15 years of the aforementioned service as a member of the North Carolina National Guard.

(3) Have received an honorable discharge from the North Carolina National Guard.

(b) Payment to a retired member of the North Carolina National Guard under the provisions of this section will cease at the death of the individual and no payment will be made to beneficiaries or to the decedent's estate, except that the legal representative of a retired member who dies shall be entitled to a full check for the month in which the death occurred.

(c) No individual receiving retired pay as a result of length of service, age or physical disability retirement from any of the regular components of the ~~armed forces~~Armed Forces of the United States will be eligible for benefits under this section.

(d) Nothing contained in this section shall preclude or in any way affect the benefits that an individual may be entitled to from State, federal or private retirement systems.

(e) Repealed by Session Laws 1989, c. 792, s. 2.3.

(f) The Secretary of Crime Control and Public Safety shall determine the eligibility of ~~guard~~ North Carolina National Guard members for the benefits ~~herein~~ provided in this section and shall certify those eligible to the State Treasurer. In addition, the Department of Crime Control and Public Safety shall, on and after July 1, 1983, provide the Department of State Treasurer with an annual census population, by age and the number of years of creditable service, for all former members of the North Carolina National Guard in receipt of a pension as well as for all active members of the North Carolina National Guard who are not in receipt of a pension and who have seven and more years of creditable service. The Department of Crime Control and Public Safety shall also provide the State Treasurer a census population of all former members of the North Carolina National Guard who are not in receipt of a pension and who have 15 and more years of creditable service. The Department of State Treasurer shall make pension payments to those persons certified from the North Carolina National Guard Pension Fund, which shall include general fund appropriations made to the Department of State Treasurer. The Department of State Treasurer shall have performed an annual actuarial valuation of the fund and shall have the financial responsibility for maintaining the fund on a generally accepted actuarial basis. The Department of Crime Control and Public Safety shall provide the Department of State Treasurer with whatever assistance is required by the State Treasurer in carrying out ~~his~~ the State Treasurer's financial responsibilities.

(g) The provisions of this section shall apply to any member or former member of the North Carolina National Guard who is qualified for the above retirements with eligibility ~~of such person~~ commencing at age 60 or July 1, 1974, whichever is the later date.

(h) If, for any reason, the North Carolina National Guard Pension Fund shall be insufficient to pay in full any pension benefits, or other charges, then all benefits or payments shall be reduced pro rata, for as long as the deficiency in amount exists. No claim shall accrue with respect to any amount by which a pension or benefit payment shall have been reduced.

(h1) Any member or former member of the North Carolina National Guard who is qualified for benefits under this section and who is a member of a domiciled employees' or retirees' association that has at least 2,000 members, the majority of whom are active or retired employees of the State or public school employees, may authorize, in writing, the periodic deduction from the member's retirement benefits a designated lump sum to be paid to the employees' or retirees' association. The authorization shall remain in effect until revoked by the member. A plan of deductions pursuant to this subsection shall become void if the employees' or retirees' association engages in collective bargaining with the State, any political subdivision of the State, or any local school administrative unit.

(i) Pensions for members of the North Carolina National Guard shall be subject to future legislative change or revision.

"§ 127A-41. Uniforms, arms and equipment.

The North Carolina National Guard shall, as far as practicable, be uniformed, ~~armed~~ armed, and equipped with the same type of uniforms, arms and equipment as is or shall be provided for the appropriate regular service.

"§ 127A-41.1. Stay of legal and court proceedings because of State military service.

At any stage of any legal proceeding in any court in which a person called into service of the State by the Governor is involved, either as plaintiff or defendant, during the period of service or within 60 days after the conclusion of the period of active service, all actions and proceedings:

(1) May be stayed by the court on its own motion; or

(2) Shall be stayed on application by the member or by a person acting on behalf of the member, unless, in the opinion of the court, the ability of the plaintiff to prosecute the action or the defendant to conduct ~~his~~ a defense is not materially affected by reason of the military service.

...

"§ 127A-42. Distinguished Service Medal by Governor of North Carolina.

There is hereby created the North Carolina Distinguished Service Medal which shall be of appropriate design, and a ribbon, together with a rosette or other device to be worn in lieu thereof. This medal and appurtenances thereto shall be of a design approved by the Governor. ...

"§ 127A-59. Sentences.

When any sentence to fine or imprisonment ~~shall be~~is imposed by any military court of this State, it shall be the duty of the military judge, president of ~~said~~ the court, or summary court officer, upon the approval of the court's findings and ~~sentence of such court,~~sentence, to make out and sign a certificate entitling the case, giving the name of the accused, the date and place of trial, the date of approval of sentence, and the terms of the sentence. The trial counsel shall deliver ~~such~~ the certificate to the Clerk of the Superior Court of Wake County, and it shall thereupon be the duty of the clerk to take ~~such~~ the actions ~~as are~~ necessary to carry ~~said~~ the sentence into execution in the same manner as prescribed by law for the collection of fines, or commitment to service of terms of imprisonment, in criminal cases determined in the courts of this State. The Administrative Office of the Courts shall ensure that the State's criminal history records include pertinent information relating to a court-martial under this Chapter in a like manner as a comparable offense under the State's criminal laws would be recorded.

"§ 127A-60. Approval of sentence.

No sentence imposed by a special or general court-martial of the North Carolina National Guard, not in the service of the United States, shall be executed until approved by the Governor. Any officer convicted by a general court-martial and dismissed from the service shall be forever disqualified from holding a commission in the militia.

...

"§ 127A-62. Appeals; discretionary review.

(a) Jurisdiction. – Court-martial judgments which include a sentence to confinement shall have a right of appeal to the Wake County Superior Court. The provisions of G.S. 15A-1451 shall apply to appeals under this section.

(b) Filing and Service. – An appeal under this section must be made in writing and filed with the Clerk of Superior Court of Wake County within 10 days after the approval of the sentence by the Governor. A copy of the petition shall be filed with the military court and the military trial counsel of record. For the purposes of a filing fee, the appeal shall be treated as an administrative appeal to the Superior Court.

(c) Assertion of Errors. – All errors, including, but not limited to, the following, must be asserted or shall be deemed waived:

(1) Any error of law, including the following:

a. The court erroneously failed to dismiss the charge prior to the court-martial.
b. The court's ruling was contrary to law with regard to motions made before or during the trial or with regard to the admission or exclusion of evidence.
c. The evidence, at the close of all the evidence, was insufficient to justify submission of the case to the court-martial panel, whether or not a motion so asserting was made before verdict.
d. The court erroneously instructed the court-martial panel.

(2) The verdict is contrary to the weight of the evidence.

(3) For any other cause, the defendant did not receive a fair and impartial trial.

(d) Appointment of Superior Court Judge. – The appeal shall be heard by a judge assigned by the Chief Justice of the North Carolina Supreme Court, to be heard at ~~such a~~ session of the Wake County Superior Court ~~as the Chief Justice shall direct.~~designated by the Chief Justice.

(e) Applicable Law. – The presiding judge, in determining whether there were errors, shall apply the law as provided for trial by courts-martial under this Article.

(f) Setting Aside of Findings or Sentence. – The findings or sentence, or both, may be modified or set aside, in whole or in part, by the court on the ground of newly discovered evidence, fraud on the court, lack of jurisdiction over the accused or the offense, or error prejudicial to the substantial rights of the accused.

(g) Hearings and Rehearings. – The court may remand the matter to the court-martial for ~~such~~ evidentiary hearings or other proceedings, to be conducted by a military judge alone, ~~as~~ that it deems necessary prior to the court's final disposition of the case. If the court sets aside the findings or sentence, the court may, except when the setting aside is based on lack of sufficient evidence in the record to support the findings, order a rehearing. If the court sets aside the findings and sentence and does not order a rehearing, the court shall dismiss the charges. If the court orders a rehearing, but the convening authority finds a rehearing impractical, the convening authority shall dismiss the charges.

(h) Counsel. –

(1) The Staff Judge Advocate of the North Carolina National Guard shall:
a. Designate a judge advocate who is qualified and certified under Article 27(b) of the Uniform Code of Military Justice, and who is a member of the North Carolina Bar, to represent the defendant.
b. Designate a judge advocate who is qualified and certified under Article 27(b) of the Uniform Code of Military Justice, and who is a member of the North Carolina Bar, to represent the State.

(2) The counsel designated to represent the defendant under sub-subdivision a. of subdivision (1) of this subsection shall not be the counsel who represented the defendant at the court-martial.

(3) Where a defendant alleges ineffective assistance of prior counsel as a ground for relief, the defendant shall be deemed to waive the attorney-client privilege with respect to both oral and written communications between ~~such counsel and~~ the defendant and the prior counsel to the extent the defendant's prior counsel reasonably believes ~~such~~ the communications are necessary to defend against the allegations of ineffectiveness. This waiver of the attorney-client privilege shall be automatic upon the filing of the pleadings alleging ineffective assistance of prior counsel, and the Wake County Superior Court need not enter an order waiving the privilege.

(4) The Adjutant General, upon the recommendation of the Staff Judge Advocate, shall place the designated judge advocates described in this subsection onto State active duty for ~~such~~ the periods of time ~~as~~ necessary for either counsel to provide adequate representation to the respective parties, if regularly scheduled unit training periods are insufficient. The Staff Judge Advocate shall verify to the Adjutant General whether any such additional periods of time are necessary.

(i) Discretionary Review. – Review of decisions by the Wake County Superior Court shall be pursuant to G.S. 7A-31.1.

(j) The rules for practice and procedure for review of courts-martial by the Wake County Superior Court shall be consistent with those prescribed for review of administrative appeals by the Superior Court, except as modified by this section.

"Article 4.

"Naval Militia.

"§ 127A-67. Organization and equipment.

The organization of the naval militia shall be units of convenient size, in each of which the number and rank of officers and the distribution of the total enlisted strength among the several ratings of petty officers and other enlisted personnel shall be such as are prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy, who may also prescribe the number of officers and the number of petty officers and other enlisted personnel required for the organization of ~~such~~ the units into larger bodies for administrative and other purposes, and the arms and equipment of the naval militia shall be those which are now or may hereafter be prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy.

"§ 127A-68. Officers appointed to naval militia.

Officers of the United States ~~navy and marine corps~~Navy and Marine Corps may, with the approval of the Secretary of the Navy, be appointed by the Governor and commissioned as officers of the naval militia.

...

"§ 127A-70 Discipline in naval militia.

The naval militia shall be subject to the system of discipline prescribed for the United States ~~navy and marine corps,~~Navy and Marine Corps, and the commanding officer of a naval militia ~~battalion or brigade,~~unit or a naval militia officer in command of naval militia forces on shore or on any vessel of the ~~navy~~ United States Navy loaned to the State, or on any vessel on which such forces are training, whether within or without the State, or wherever, either within or without the State, naval militia forces of the State shall be assembled pursuant to orders, shall have power without trial by courts-martial to impose upon members of the naval militia the punishments which the commanding officer of a vessel of the ~~navy~~ United States Navy is authorized by law to impose.

"§ 127A-71. Disbursing and accounting officer.

The Governor shall appoint a disbursing officer, approved by and of ~~such~~ a rank ~~as may be~~ prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy, to perform ~~such~~ the duties ~~as~~ the Secretary of the Navy may prescribe. The Governor shall also appoint the ~~above described~~ disbursing officer, or ~~such other~~another officer of the ~~pay corps~~appropriate finance office of the naval militia ~~as he~~that the Governor may elect, as accounting officer for each ~~battalion~~ unit thereof, or at ~~his~~ the Governor's option for each larger unit or combination of ~~units of the same,~~units, who shall be responsible for the proper accounting for all public property issued to and for the use of ~~such battalion~~ the unit or larger unit or combination of units.

"§ 127A-72. Rendition of accounts.

Accounting officers shall render accounts as prescribed by the Governor or by the Secretary of the Navy, and shall be required to give good and sufficient bond to the State and to the United States, in ~~such~~ the sums ~~as~~ that the Governor or the Secretary of the Navy ~~may direct,~~directs, and conditioned upon the faithful accounting for all public property and for the safekeeping of ~~such~~ the part thereof ~~as may be~~ in the personal custody of ~~such~~ the officer. Accounting officers may issue any or all such property to other officers or enlisted personnel of the naval militia under ~~such rules and regulations as may be prescribed.~~applicable rules and regulations.

"§ 127A-74. Courts-martial for naval militia.

Courts-martial for the naval militia, not in the service of the United States, shall be organized, have the same powers, functions and authorities, and follow the same procedures as courts-martial for the North Carolina National Guard as set forth in G.S. 127A-47 through ~~127A-61.~~127A-62.

"Article 5.

"State Defense Militia.

"§ 127A-80. Authority to organize and maintain ~~State defense militia of North Carolina.~~North Carolina State Defense Militia.

(a) The Governor is authorized to organize ~~such~~ any part of the unorganized militia as a State force for discipline and training, into companies, battalions, regiments, brigades or similar organizations, as ~~may be~~ deemed necessary for the defense of the State; to maintain, uniform and equip ~~such~~ this military force within the appropriations available; to exercise discipline in the same manner as is now or may hereafter be provided by the laws of the State for the North Carolina National Guard. ~~Such~~ The military force shall be subject to the call or the order of the Governor to execute the law and secure the safety of persons and property, suppress riots or insurrections, repel invasions or provide disaster relief, as may now or hereafter be provided by law for the North Carolina National Guard or for the State militia.

(b) ~~Such~~ The military force shall be designated as the "North Carolina State Defense Militia" and shall be composed of personnel of the unorganized militia as may volunteer for service therein or be drafted as provided by law. To be eligible for service in an enlisted status, a person must be at least 17 years of age. To be eligible for service as an officer, a person must be at least 18 years of age. The force and its personnel shall be additional to and distinct from the North Carolina National Guard organized under existing law. A person may not become a member of the defense militia established under this section, if a member of a reserve component of the ~~armed forces.~~Armed Forces of the United States.

(c) The Governor is hereby authorized: to prescribe rules and regulations governing the appointment of officers, the enlistment of other personnel, the organization, administration, equipment, discipline and discharge of the personnel of ~~such~~ the military force; to requisition from the Secretary of Defense ~~such~~ arms and equipment ~~as may be~~that are in possession of and can be spared by the Department of Defense; and to furnish the facilities of available armories, equipment, State premises and property, for the purpose of drill and instruction.

(d) ~~Such~~ The force shall not be called, ordered, or in any manner drafted, as such, into the military service of the United States, but no person shall by reason of membership therein, be exempt from military service under any federal law.

(e) The Governor is hereby authorized to transfer to the benefit of the State defense militia any available and unexpended funds which ~~he shall find~~ the Governor finds necessary for its use from any appropriations to the North Carolina National Guard by the General Assembly, and for the same purpose to allot ~~moneys~~ monies from the Contingency and Emergency Fund with the concurrence of the Council of State. Upon disbandment of the State defense militia any ~~moneys~~ monies or balance to the credit of any unit of this organization shall be paid into the State treasury for the benefit of the North Carolina National Guard, and all property, clothing, and equipment belonging to the State shall be transferred to the account of the North Carolina National Guard for disposition in accordance with the best interests of the State and as deemed advisable by the Governor. Upon disbandment of any unit of the State defense militia prior to the disbandment of the entire organization, the Governor is authorized to direct the transfer of any State property or balance of funds of the disbanded unit to any other unit, including any new unit or units organized to fill vacancies, or otherwise, as the Governor may direct.

(f) The ~~North Carolina~~ State defense militia shall be subject to the military laws of the State not inconsistent with or contrary to the provisions contained in this Article with the following exceptions:

The provisions of G.S. 127A-117, 127A-118, and 127A-139 as amended, shall not be applicable to the personnel and units of the State defense militia.

(g) There shall be allowed annually to each unit or company of the State defense militia ~~such~~ the funds ~~as may be~~ necessary ~~to be applied to the payment of~~for armory rent, heat, light, stationery, printing, and other expenses.

(h) All payments are to be made by the Secretary of ~~the Department of~~ Crime Control and Public Safety in accordance with State laws in semiannual installments on the first day of July and the first day of January of each year, but no payment shall be made unless all assemblies and duties required by law are duly performed by all organizations named.

(i) The commander of each organization participating in the appropriation herein named shall render an itemized statement of all funds received from any source whatsoever for the support of the organization in ~~such~~ the manner and on ~~such~~ the forms ~~as may be~~ prescribed by the Secretary of ~~the Department of~~ Crime Control and Public Safety. Failure on the part of any commander to submit promptly when due the financial statement of the organization will be sufficient cause to withhold all appropriations for the organization.

"§ 127A-81. State defense militia cadre.

(a) The Governor is authorized: to organize and regulate part of the unorganized militia as a State defense militia cadre in units or commands which ~~he~~ the Governor may deem necessary to provide a cadre for an active State defense militia; to prescribe regulations for the maintenance of the property and equipment of the cadre, for the exercise of its discipline, and for its training and duties.

(b) The cadre shall be designated the "North Carolina State Defense Militia Cadre" and shall be composed of a force of officers and enlisted personnel raised by appointment of the Governor, or otherwise, as may be provided by law. The Secretary of ~~the Department of~~ Crime Control and Public Safety may reimburse cadre members for expenses actually incurred, not to exceed the amount appropriated and authorized for ~~such purposes~~the purpose by the General Assembly.

(c) The Governor's authority ~~hereunder~~ under this Article shall not be subject to regulations prescribed by the Secretary of Defense. Age and membership requirements for the State defense militia generally, as set forth in ~~G.S. 127A-80~~G.S. 127A-80, shall apply. The training of the cadre need not be in accordance with training regulations issued by the Department of Defense. The provisions of G.S. 127A-80(c), (d), (g), (h) and (i) shall also apply to cadres.

(d) The total authorized strength of the cadre, its authorized officer and enlisted strength, the composition of each of its units or commands, and the allocation of cadre units or commands among the counties, cities, and towns of the State, shall be as prescribed by the Governor in suitable regulations enforced through the Adjutant General, or as otherwise provided by law.

(e) The duties of the State defense militia cadre shall be as ordered and directed by the Governor from time to time, or in regulations, and may include authority to take charge of armories and other military installations and real properties used by the North Carolina National Guard, together with ~~such~~ any other property ~~as~~ that the regulations may provide, when and if the North Carolina National Guard, or any part thereof, ~~may be~~is inducted into the service of the United States, or, for any extended period of time, ~~may be~~is absent on any duty from its home station. In addition, the cadre shall have duties appropriate to the organization, maintenance, and training of a military cadre to act as a nucleus for the organization of an active State defense militia whenever the necessity may arise.

"Article 6.

"Unorganized Militia.

"§ 127A-87. Unorganized militia ordered out for service.

The commander in chief may at any time, in order to execute the law, secure the safety of persons and property, suppress riots or insurrections, repel invasions or provide disaster relief, in addition to the North Carolina National Guard, the State defense militia and the naval militia, order out the whole or any part of the unorganized militia. When the militia of this State or a part thereof is called forth under the Constitution and laws of the United States, the Governor shall first order out for service the North Carolina National Guard, the State defense militia or naval militia, or ~~such~~ any part thereof ~~as~~ that may be necessary, and if the number available ~~be~~ is insufficient, ~~he~~ the Governor shall then order out ~~such a~~any part of the unorganized militia ~~as he~~that the Governor may deem necessary. During the absence or organizations of the North Carolina National Guard or naval militia in the service of the United States, their state designations shall not be given to new organizations.

"§ 127A-88. Manner of ordering out unorganized militia.

The Governor shall, when ordering out the unorganized militia, designate the number. ~~He~~ The Governor may order them out either by calling for volunteers or by draft. ~~He~~ The Governor may attach them to the several organizations of the North Carolina National Guard, the State defense militia or naval militia, as may be best for the service.

"§ 127A-89. Draft of unorganized militia.

If the unorganized militia is ordered out by draft, the Governor shall designate the persons in each county to make the draft, and prescribe rules and regulations for conducting ~~the same.~~it.

"§ 127A-90. Punishment for failure to appear.

Every member of the militia ordered out for duty, or who shall volunteer or be drafted, who does not appear at the time and place ordered, shall be liable to ~~such~~ punishment as ~~a court-martial may determine.~~determined by a court-martial.

"§ 127A-91. Promotion of marksmanship.

The Adjutant General is authorized to detail a commissioned officer of the North Carolina National Guard or member of the State defense militia to promote rifle marksmanship among the State defense militia and the unorganized militia of the State. ~~Such~~ The officer or member so detailed shall serve without pay and it shall be ~~his duty~~the duty of the officer or member to organize and supervise rifle clubs in schools, colleges, universities, clubs and other groups, under ~~such~~ rules and regulations ~~as~~ prescribed by the Adjutant General ~~shall prescribe~~ and in ~~such~~ a manner ~~to~~ that will make them, when duly organized, acceptable for membership in the National Rifle Association. Provided, that ~~such~~ these duties and efforts shall in nowise interfere or conflict with clubs of schools or units operating in ~~R.O.T.C.~~Reserve Officers' Training Corps or similar schools under the supervision of ~~armed forces instructors.~~instructors of the Armed Forces of the United States.

"Article 7.

"Regulations as to Active Service.

"§ 127A-97. National Guard and naval militia first ordered out.

In all cases the North Carolina National Guard and naval militia as provided for in this Chapter shall be first ordered into service.

"§ 127A-98. Regulations enforced on active State service.

Whenever any portion of the militia ~~shall be~~is called into active State service to execute the law, secure the safety of persons and property, suppress riots or insurrections, repel invasions or provide disaster relief, the provisions of the Uniform Code of Military Justice of the United States, governing the ~~armed forces~~Armed Forces of the United States, and the regulations prescribed for the ~~armed forces~~Armed Forces of the United States, and the regulations issued thereunder, shall be enforced and regarded as part of this Chapter until ~~said forces shall be~~this portion of the militia is relieved from ~~such~~ the duty. As to offenses committed when ~~such~~ the provisions of the Uniform Code of Military Justice of the United States are so enforced, courts-martial shall possess, in addition to the jurisdiction and power of sentence and punishment herein vested in them, all additional jurisdiction and power of sentence and punishment exercisable by like courts under ~~such~~ the provisions of the Uniform Code of Military Justice of the United States or regulations or laws governing the ~~United States armed forces~~Armed Forces of the United States or the customs and usages thereof; but no punishment under ~~such~~ the Code ~~which shall extend~~that extends to the taking of life shall in any case be inflicted except in case of war, invasion, or insurrection, declared by a proclamation of the Governor to exist and then only after approval by the Governor of the sentence inflicting ~~such~~ that punishment. Imprisonment other than in guardhouse shall be executed in county jails or other prisons designated by the Governor for that purpose.

"§ 127A-99. Regulations governing unorganized militia.

Whenever any part of the unorganized militia is ordered out, it shall be governed by the same rules and regulations and be subject to the same penalties as the North Carolina National Guard or naval militia.

"Article 8.

"Pay of Militia.

"§ 127A-106. Paid by the State.

When the militia or any portion thereof ~~shall be~~is ordered by the Governor into State service, the pay (including payment for any leave earned as a result of more than 30 days of continuous service), subsistence, transportation and other necessary expenses incident thereto shall be paid by the State Treasurer, upon the approval of the Governor.

"§ 127A-107. Rate of pay for other service.

The Governor may, whenever the public service requires it, order upon special or regular duty any officer or enlisted member of the North Carolina National Guard or naval militia, and the expenses and compensation therefor of ~~such~~ the officer ~~and~~ or enlisted member shall be paid out of the appropriations made to the Department of Crime Control and Public Safety. ~~Such officers and enlisted members~~The officers or enlisted members shall receive the same rate of pay as officers and enlisted members of the same grade and like service of the ~~regular service,~~Armed Forces of the United States, provided that no such officer or enlisted member shall receive less than 18 times the minimum hourly wage per day as provided for in G.S. 95-25.3(a). Officers and enlisted members when on duty in connection with examining boards, efficiency boards, advisory boards, courts of inquiry or similar duty shall be allowed per diem and subsistence prescribed for lawful State boards and commissions generally for such duty. Officers and enlisted members serving on general or special courts-martial shall receive the base pay of their rank. No staff officer or enlisted member who receives a salary from the State as such shall be entitled to any additional compensation other than actual and necessary expenses incurred while traveling upon orders issued by the proper authority.

"§ 127A-108. Pay and care of soldiers, airmen and sailors disabled in service.

A member of the North Carolina National Guard, the State defense militia, or the naval militia who without fault or negligence on ~~his~~ the member's part is disabled through illness, injury, or disease contracted or incurred while on duty or by reason of duty in the service of the State or while reasonably proceeding to or returning from ~~such~~ duty shall receive the actual necessary expenses for care and medicine and medical attention at the expense of the State and if ~~such shall~~the disability temporarily ~~incapacitate him for~~incapacitates the member from pursuing ~~his~~ the member's usual business or occupation ~~he~~ the member shall receive during ~~such~~ his or her incapacity the pay and allowances ~~as~~ that are provided for the same grade and rating in like circumstances in the active ~~armed forces~~Armed Forces of the United States. If ~~such~~ the member is permanently disabled, ~~he~~ the member shall receive the pensions and ~~rewards~~ benefits that persons under similar circumstances in the ~~military service~~Armed Forces of the United States receive from the United States. In case ~~any such~~a member ~~shall die~~dies as a result of such an injury, illness or disease within one year after it has been incurred or contracted, the surviving spouse, minor children, or dependent parents of the member shall receive ~~such~~ the pension and ~~rewards~~ benefits as persons under similar circumstances receive from the United States.

The cost incurred by reason of this section shall be paid out of the Contingency and Emergency Fund, or ~~such~~another ~~other~~ fund ~~as may be~~ designated by law.

The Adjutant General, with the approval of the Governor, shall make and publish ~~such~~ regulations pursuant to this section ~~as may be~~that are necessary for its implementation. Before the name of any person is placed on the disability or pension rolls of the State under this section, proof shall be made in accordance with ~~such~~ these regulations that the applicant is entitled to ~~such~~ the care, pension, or ~~reward.~~benefit.

Nothing ~~herein~~ in this section shall in any way limit or condition any other payment to ~~such~~ a member ~~as by law may be allowed: Provided, however,~~that the law allows, except that any payments made under the provisions of Chapter 97 of the General Statutes or under federal statutes as now or hereafter amended shall be deducted from the payments made under this section.

"§ 127A-110. Proceedings against third party injuring or killing ~~guard~~ organized militia personnel.

(a) The right of a member of the North Carolina National Guard, the State defense militia, or the naval militia to compensation and other benefits under G.S. 127A-108 shall not be affected by the fact that the injury or death was caused under circumstances creating a liability in some person other than the ~~State~~ State, or "third party," to pay damages ~~therefor, such person hereinafter being referred to as the "third party."~~ therefor. The respective rights and interests of the ~~guard~~ member under this Article, and the State, if any, in respect of the common-law cause of action against ~~such~~ a third party and the damages recovered shall be as set forth in this section.

(b) The ~~guard~~ member or personal representative if ~~guard~~ the member be dead, shall have the exclusive right to proceed to enforce the liability of the third party by appropriate proceedings if ~~such~~ the proceedings are instituted not later than 12 months after the date of injury or death, whichever is later. During ~~said~~ this 12-month period, and at any time thereafter if summons is issued against the third party during ~~said~~ the 12-month period, the ~~guard~~ member or personal representative shall have the right to settle with the third party and to give a valid and complete release of all claims to the third party by reason of ~~such~~ the injury or death, subject to the provisions of ~~(h) below.~~subsection (h) of this section.

(c) If settlement is not made and summons is not issued within ~~said~~ the 12-month ~~period,~~period described in subsection (b) of this section, then all rights of the ~~guard~~ member, or personal representative if ~~guard~~ the member be dead, against the third party shall pass by operation of the period fixed by the statute of limitations applicable to ~~such~~ these rights and if the State ~~shall not have~~has not settled with or instituted proceedings against the third party within ~~such~~ this time, then all such rights shall revert to the ~~guard~~ member or personal representative 60 days before the expiration of the applicable statute of limitations.

(d) The person in whom the right to bring ~~such~~ a proceeding or make settlement is vested shall, during the continuation thereof, also have the exclusive right to make settlement with the third party and the release of the person having the right shall fully acquit and discharge the third party except as provided by ~~(h) below.~~subsection (h) of this section. A proceeding so instituted by the person having the right shall be brought in the name of the ~~guard~~ member or personal representative and the State shall not be a necessary or proper party thereto. If the ~~guard~~ member or personal representative ~~should refuse~~refuses to cooperate with the State by being the party plaintiff, then the action shall be brought in the name of the State and the ~~guard~~ member or personal representative shall be made a party plaintiff or party defendant by order of court.

(e) The amount of compensation and other benefits paid or payable on account of ~~such~~ the injury or death shall not be admissible in evidence in any proceeding against the third party. If the third party defending ~~such~~ the proceeding, by answer duly served on the State, sufficiently alleges that actionable negligence of the State joined and concurred with the negligence of the third party in producing the injury or death, then an issue shall be submitted to the jury in ~~such~~ the case as to whether actionable negligence of the State joined and concurred with the negligence of the third party in producing the injury or death. The State shall have the right to appear, to be represented, to introduce evidence, to cross-examine adverse witnesses, and to argue to the jury as to this issue as fully as though it were a party although not named or joined as a party to the proceeding. ~~Such issue~~The issue as to the State's negligence shall be the last of the issues submitted to the jury. If the verdict ~~shall be~~is that actionable negligence of the State did join and concur with that of the third party in producing the injury or death, then the court shall reduce the damages awarded by the jury against the third party by the amount which the State would otherwise be entitled to receive therefrom by way of subrogation hereunder and the entire amount recovered, after such reduction, shall belong to the ~~guard~~ member or personal representative free of any claim by the State and the third party shall have no further right by way of contribution or otherwise against the State, except any right which may exist by reason of an express contract of indemnity between the State and the third party, which was entered into prior to the injury to the ~~guard~~ member.

(f) (1) Any amount obtained by any person by settlement with, judgment against, or otherwise from the third party by reason of ~~such~~ the injury or death shall be disbursed by order of the court for the following purposes and in the following order of priority:

a. First to the payment of actual court costs taxed by judgment.

b. Second to the payment of the fee of the attorney representing the person making settlement or obtaining judgment, and ~~such~~ this fee shall not exceed one third of the amount obtained or recovered of the third party.

c. Third to the reimbursement of the State for all benefits by way of compensation or medical treatment expense paid or to be paid by the State pursuant to G.S. 127A-108.

d. Fourth to the payment of any amount remaining to the ~~guard~~ member or personal representative.

(2) The attorney fee paid under ~~(f)(1)~~subdivision (1) of this section shall be paid by the ~~guard~~ member and the State in direct proportion to the amount each shall receive under ~~(f)(1)c and (f)(1)d hereof~~sub-subdivisions (1)c. and d. of this subsection and shall be deducted from ~~such~~ the payments when distribution is made.

(g) In any proceeding against or settlement with the third party, every party to the claim for compensation shall have a lien to the extent of the party's interest under ~~(f) hereof~~subsection (f) of this section upon any payment made by the third party by reason of ~~such~~ the injury or death, whether paid in settlement, in satisfaction of judgment, as consideration for covenant not to sue, or otherwise and ~~such~~ the lien may be enforced against any person receiving ~~such~~ the funds. Neither the ~~guard~~ member or personal representative nor the State shall make any settlement with or accept any payment from the third party without the written consent of the other and no release to or agreement with the third party shall be valid or enforceable for any purpose unless both State and ~~guard~~ member or personal representative join therein; provided, that this sentence shall not apply if the State is made whole for all benefits paid or to be paid by ~~him~~ the member or personal representative under this Chapter less attorney's fees as provided by ~~(f)(1) and (2) hereof~~subsection (f) of this section and the release to or agreement with the third party is executed by the ~~guard~~ member. The Attorney General shall have the right on behalf of the State to reduce by compromise its claim.

(h) Institution of proceedings against or settlement with the third party, or acceptance of benefits under this Chapter, shall not in any way or manner affect any other remedy which any party to the claim for compensation may have except as otherwise specifically provided in this Chapter, and the exercise of one remedy shall not in any way or manner be held to constitute an election of remedies so as to bar the other.

"§ 127A-163. Powers of Department specified.

The Department of Crime Control and Public Safety is further authorized and empowered:

(1) To act as an agency of the State of North Carolina for the purpose of setting up and administering any statewide plan for the acquisition of armories and armory sites, for the construction and maintenance of armories and for providing facilities which are now or may be necessary in order to comply with any federal law and in order to receive, administer and disburse any funds which may be provided by act of Congress for such purpose;

(2) ~~As such~~When acting as an agency of the State of North ~~Carolina,~~ Carolina under subdivision (1) of this section, to promulgate statewide plans for the acquisition of armories and armory sites, for the construction and maintenance of armories and ~~such~~ other facilities ~~as may be found~~ that are desirable or necessary to meet the requirements and receive the benefits of any federal legislation with respect thereto;

(3) To receive and administer any funds which may be appropriated by any act of Congress or otherwise for the acquisition of armories and armory ~~sites;~~ sites, for the construction and maintenance of ~~armories~~ armories, and for providing ~~facilities, which~~ facilities that may at any time become available for ~~such~~ those purposes;

(4) To receive and administer any other funds which may be available in furtherance of any activity in which the Department of Crime Control and Public Safety is authorized and empowered to engage under the provisions of this Article; and

(5) To adopt ~~such~~ rules ~~and regulations as may be necessary~~ to carry out the intent and purpose of this Article.

"§ 127A-167. Appropriations to supplement available funds authorized.

Any city or town and any county in the State, separately or jointly, may make appropriations to supplement available federal or State funds to be used for the construction of armory facilities for the North Carolina National Guard. Appropriations made under authority of this Article shall be in ~~such~~ the amounts and in ~~such~~ the proportions ~~as may be~~ deemed adequate and necessary by the governing body of the county and/or municipality desiring to participate in the armory construction program.

"§ 127A-168. Local financial support.

Each county and city in this State is authorized to make appropriations for the purposes of this Article and to fund them by levy of property taxes pursuant to G.S. 153A-149 and G.S. 160A-209 and by the allocation of other revenues whose use is not otherwise restricted by law.

"§ 127A-169. Unexpended portion of State appropriation.

The unexpended portion of any appropriation from the ~~general fund~~General Fund of the State for the purposes set out in this Article, remaining at the end of any biennium, shall not revert to the ~~general fund~~ General Fund of the State, but shall constitute part of a permanent fund to be expended from time to time in the manner and for the purposes set out in this Article.

"Article 14.

"National Guard Mutual Assistance Compact.

...

"§ 127A-177. Definitions; mutual aid.

(a) As used in this Article:

(1) "Emergency" means an occurrence or condition, temporary in nature, in which police and other public safety officials and locally available National Guard forces are, or may reasonably be expected to be, unable to cope with substantial and imminent danger to the public safety.

(2) "Requesting state" means the state whose governor requests assistance in coping with an emergency.

(3) "Responding state" means the state furnishing aid, or requested to furnish aid.

(b) Upon request of the governor of a party state for assistance in an emergency, the governor of a responding state shall have authority under this Compact to send without the borders of ~~his~~ the responding state and place under the temporary command of the appropriate National Guard or other military authorities of the requesting state all or any part of the National Guard forces of ~~his~~ the responding state as ~~he~~ the governor of the responding state may deem necessary, and the exercise of ~~his~~ the governor's discretion in this regard shall be conclusive.

(c) The governor of a party state may withhold the National Guard forces of ~~his~~ that governor's state from such use and recall any forces or part or member thereof previously deployed in a requesting state.

(d) Whenever National Guard forces of any party state are engaged in another state in carrying out the purposes of this Compact, the members thereof so engaged shall have the same powers, duties, rights, privileges and immunities as members of National Guard forces in such other state. The requesting state shall save members of the National Guard forces of responding states harmless from civil liability for acts or omissions in good faith which occur in the performance of their duty while engaged in carrying out the purposes of this Compact, whether the responding forces are serving the requesting state within its borders or are in transit to or from such service.

(e) Subject to the provisions of subsections (f), (g) and (h) of this section, all liability that may arise under the laws of the requesting state, the responding state, or a third state on account of or in connection with a request for aid, shall be assumed and borne by the requesting state.

(f) Any responding state rendering aid pursuant to this Compact shall be reimbursed by the requesting state for any loss or damage to, or expense incurred in the operation of any equipment answering a request for aid, and for the cost of the materials, transportation and maintenance of National Guard personnel and equipment incurred in connection with such request: Provided, that nothing herein contained shall prevent any responding state from assuming such loss, damage, expense or other cost.

(g) Each party state shall provide, in the same amounts and manner as if they were on duty within their state, for the pay and allowances of the personnel of its National Guard units while engaged without the state pursuant to this Compact and while going to and returning from such duty pursuant to this Compact. Such pay and allowances shall be deemed items of expense reimbursable under subsection (f) of this section by the requesting state.

(h) Each party state providing for the payment of compensation and death benefits to injured members and the representatives of deceased members of its National Guard forces in case such members sustain injuries or are killed within their own state, shall provide for the payment of compensation and death benefits in the same manner and on the same terms in case such members sustain injury or are killed while rendering aid pursuant to this Compact. Such compensation and death benefits shall be deemed items of expense reimbursable pursuant to subsection (f) of this section.

"§ 127A-178. Delegation.

Nothing in this Compact shall be construed to prevent the governor of a party state from delegating any of ~~his~~ the governor's responsibilities or authority respecting the National Guard, provided that such delegation is otherwise in accordance with law. For purposes of this

Compact, however, the governor shall not delegate the power to request assistance from another state.

"§ 127A-179. Limitations.

Nothing in this Compact shall:

(1) Expand or add to the functions of the National Guard, except with respect to the jurisdictions within which such functions may be performed;

(2) Authorize or permit National Guard units to be placed under the field command of any person not having the military or National Guard rank or status required by law for the field command position in question.

"§ 127A-181. Payment of liability to responding state.

Upon presentation of a claim therefor by an appropriate authority of a state whose National Guard forces have aided this State pursuant to the Compact, any liability of this State pursuant to G.S. 127A-177(f) ~~of this Compact~~ shall be paid out of the general fund.

"§ 127A-182. Status, rights and benefits of forces engaged pursuant to Compact.

In accordance with ~~G.S. 127A-177(h) of this Compact,~~ G.S. 127A-177(h), members of the National Guard forces of this State shall be deemed to be in State service at all times when engaged pursuant to this Compact, and shall be entitled to all rights and benefits provided pursuant to the laws of this State.

"§ 127A-183. Injury or death while going to or returning from duty.

All benefits to be paid under G.S. 127A-177(h) ~~of the foregoing Compact~~ shall include any injury or death sustained while going to or returning from such duty.

"§ 127A-184. Authority of responding state required to relieve from assignment or reassign officers.

Nothing in ~~the foregoing~~ this Compact shall authorize or permit state officials or military officers of the requesting state to relieve from assignment or reassign officers or noncommissioned officers of National Guard units of the responding state without authorization by the appropriate authorities of the responding state.

...

"Article 16.

"National Guard Reemployment Rights.

"§ 127A-202. Rights.

Upon release from State duty, the employee shall make written application to ~~his~~ the employee's previous employer for reemployment within five days of ~~his~~ the employee's release from duty or from hospitalization continuing after release. If the employee is still qualified for ~~his~~ the employee's previous employment, ~~he~~ the employee shall be restored to his previous position or to a position of like seniority, status and salary, unless the employer's circumstances now make the restoration unreasonable. If the employee is no longer qualified for ~~his~~ the employee's previous employment, ~~he~~ the employee shall be placed in another position, for which ~~he~~ the employee is qualified, and which will give ~~him~~ the employee appropriate seniority, status and salary, unless the employer's circumstances now make the placement unreasonable.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO MAKE REFERENCES IN THE NORTH CAROLINA GENERAL STATUTES TO FEDERAL AND STATE MILITARY ORGANIZATIONS PROPER AND UNIFORM, AS DIRECTED BY SESSION LAW 2009-281, AS AMENDED BY SESSION LAW 2010-152, AND TO MAKE CONFORMING CHANGES AND OTHER TECHNICAL CORRECTIONS TO THOSE SECTIONS, AS RECOMMENDED BY THE GENERAL STATUTES COMMISSION.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 1-82 reads as rewritten:

"§ 1-82. Venue in all other cases.

In all other cases the action must be tried in the county in which the plaintiffs or the defendants, or any of them, reside at its commencement, or if none of the defendants reside in the State, then in the county in which the plaintiffs, or any of them, reside; and if none of the parties reside in the State, then the action may be tried in any county which the plaintiff designates in ~~his~~ the plaintiff's summons and complaint, subject to the power of the court to change the place of trial, in the cases provided by statute; provided that any person who has resided on or been stationed in a United States ~~army, navy, marine corps, coast guard or air force~~ Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, or Air Force installation or reservation within this State for a period of one (1) year or more next preceding the institution of an action shall be deemed a resident of the county within which such installation or reservation, or part thereof, is situated and of any county adjacent to such county where such person stationed at such installation or reservation lives in such adjacent county, for the purposes of this section. The term person shall include military personnel and the spouses and dependents of such personnel."

SECTION 2. G.S. 7B-101(14) reads as rewritten:

"(14) Juvenile. – A person who has not reached the person's eighteenth birthday and is not married, emancipated, or a member of the ~~armed forces~~ Armed Forces of the United States."

SECTION 3. G.S. 7B-600(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) In any case when no parent appears in a hearing with the juvenile or when the court finds it would be in the best interests of the juvenile, the court may appoint a guardian of the person for the juvenile. The guardian shall operate under the supervision of the court with or without bond and shall file only such reports as the court shall require. The guardian shall have the care, custody, and control of the juvenile or may arrange a suitable placement for the juvenile and may represent the juvenile in legal actions before any court. The guardian may consent to certain actions on the part of the juvenile in place of the parent including (i) marriage, (ii) enlisting in the ~~armed forces,~~ Armed Forces of the United States, and (iii) enrollment in school. The guardian may also consent to any necessary remedial, psychological, medical, or surgical treatment for the juvenile. The authority of the guardian shall continue until the guardianship is terminated by court order, until the juvenile is emancipated pursuant to Article 35 of Subchapter IV of this Chapter, or until the juvenile reaches the age of majority."

SECTION 4. G.S. 7B-1501(17) reads as rewritten:

"(17) Juvenile. – Except as provided in subdivisions (7) and (27) of this section, any person who has not reached the person's eighteenth birthday and is not married, emancipated, or a member of the ~~armed forces~~ Armed Forces of the United States. Wherever the term "juvenile" is used with reference to rights and privileges, that term encompasses the attorney for the juvenile as well."

SECTION 5. G.S. 7B-2001 reads as rewritten:

"§ 7B-2001. Appointment of guardian.

In any case when no parent, guardian, or custodian appears in a hearing with the juvenile or when the court finds it would be in the best interests of the juvenile, the court may appoint a guardian of the person for the juvenile. The guardian shall operate under the supervision of the court with or without bond and shall file only such reports as the court shall require. Unless the court orders otherwise, the guardian:

...

(3) May consent to certain actions on the part of the juvenile in place of the parent or custodian, including (i) marriage, (ii) enlisting in the ~~armed forces,~~ Armed Forces of the United States, and (iii) enrollment in school.

...."

SECTION 6. G.S. 7B-3402 reads as rewritten:

"§ 7B-3402. Exceptions.

This Article shall not apply to any juvenile under the age of 18 who is married or who is serving in the ~~armed forces~~ Armed Forces of the United States, or who has been emancipated."

SECTION 7. G.S. 10B-20(g) reads as rewritten:

"(g) Persons authorized by federal law or regulation to perform notarial acts may perform the acts for persons serving in or with the Armed Forces of the United ~~States armed forces,~~ States, their spouses, and their dependents."

SECTION 8. G.S. 14-34.3(b)(1) reads as rewritten:

"(b) This section does not apply to:

(1) Officers and enlisted personnel of the ~~armed forces~~ Armed Forces of the United States when in discharge of their official duties as such and acting under orders requiring them to carry arms or weapons, civil officers of the United States while in the discharge of their official duties, officers and soldiers of the militia when called into actual service, officers of the State, or of any county, city or town, charged with the execution of the laws of the State, when acting in the discharge of their official duties;".

SECTION 9. G.S. 14-269.7(b)(1) reads as rewritten:

"(b) This section does not apply:

(1) To officers and enlisted personnel of the ~~armed forces~~ Armed Forces of the United States when in discharge of their official duties or acting under orders requiring them to carry handguns."

SECTION 10. G.S. 14-288.1 reads as rewritten:

"§ 14-288.1. Definitions.

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the definitions in this section apply throughout this Article:

(1) "Chairman of the board of county commissioners": The chairman of the board of county commissioners or, in case of ~~his~~ the chairman's absence or disability, the person authorized to act in ~~his~~ the chairman's stead. ...

(8) Knowingly accepting an application for life insurance or issuing a policy of life insurance on the life of an enlisted member of the ~~armed forces~~ Armed Forces without first obtaining for the insurer's files a completed copy of any required form that confirms that the applicant has received counseling or fulfilled any other similar requirement for the sale of life insurance established by regulations, directives, or rules of the Department of Defense or any branch of the ~~armed forces.~~Armed Forces.

(b) The following acts or practices when committed on a military installation by an insurer or insurance producer constitute corrupt practices, improper influences or inducements and are declared to be false, misleading, deceptive, or unfair:

(1) Using Department of Defense personnel, directly or indirectly, as a representative or agent in any official or business capacity with or without compensation with respect to the solicitation or sale of life insurance to service members.

(2) Using an insurance producer to participate in any ~~armed forces~~ Armed Forces sponsored education or orientation program."

SECTION 48.(a) G.S. 58-58-345(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) The following acts or practices by an insurer or insurance producer constitute corrupt practices, improper influences or inducements and are declared to be false, misleading, deceptive, or unfair:

(1) Submitting, processing, or assisting in the submission or processing of any allotment form or similar device used by the ~~United States armed forces~~ Armed Forces to direct a service member's pay to a third party for the purchase of life insurance. The foregoing includes, but is not limited to, using or assisting in using a service member's MyPay account or other similar Internet or electronic medium for such purposes. This subdivision does not prohibit assisting a service member by providing insurer or premium information necessary to complete any allotment form.

SECTION 48.(b) G.S. 58-58-345(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) The following acts or practices by an insurer or insurance producer lead to confusion regarding source, sponsorship, approval, or affiliation and are declared to be false, misleading, deceptive, or unfair:

(1) Making any representation, or using any device, title, descriptive name, or identifier that has the tendency or capacity to confuse or mislead a service member into believing that the insurer, insurance producer, or product offered is affiliated, connected or associated with, endorsed, sponsored, sanctioned, or recommended by the U.S. Government, the ~~United States armed forces,~~ Armed Forces, or any state or federal agency or government entity. Examples of prohibited insurance producer titles include, but are not limited to, "Battalion Insurance Counselor," "Unit Insurance Advisor," "Servicemen's Group Life Insurance Conversion Consultant," or "Veteran's Benefits Counselor." Nothing in this subdivision prohibits a person from using a professional designation awarded after the successful completion of a course of instruction in the business of insurance by an accredited institution of higher learning. Those designations include, but are not limited to, Chartered Life Underwriter (CLU), Chartered Financial Consultant, (ChFC), Certified Financial Planner (CFP), Master of Science in Financial Services (MSFS), or Masters of Science Financial Planning (MS).

(2) Soliciting the purchase of any life insurance product through the use of or in conjunction with any third party organization that promotes the welfare of or assists members of the ~~United States armed forces~~ Armed Forces in a manner that has the tendency or capacity to confuse or mislead a service member into believing that either the insurer, insurance producer, or insurance product is affiliated, connected or associated with, endorsed, sponsored, sanctioned, or recommended by the U.S. Government or the ~~United States armed forces.~~Armed Forces."

SECTION 48.(c) G.S. 58-58-345(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) The following acts or practices by an insurer or insurance producer regarding SGLI or VGLI are declared to be false, misleading, deceptive, or unfair:

...

(3) Suggesting, recommending, or encouraging a service member to cancel or terminate his or her SGLI policy or issuing a life insurance policy that replaces an existing SGLI policy unless the replacement shall take effect upon or after the service member's separation from the ~~armed forces.~~Armed Forces."

(10) Any person employed by the North Carolina Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services as a livestock inspector or by the U.S. Department of Agriculture as an animal health technician from performing regular duties assigned to him or her during the course and scope of that person's employment."

SECTION 63. G.S. 90-210.25(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) Qualifications, Examinations, Resident Traineeship and Licensure. –

(4) ...

d. A certificate of resident traineeship shall be signed by the resident trainee and upon payment of the renewal fee shall be renewable one year after the date of original registration; but the certificate may not be renewed more than two times. The Board shall mail to each registered trainee at his last known address a notice that the renewal fee is due and that, if not paid within 30 days of the notice, the certificate will be canceled. A late fee, in addition to the renewal fee, shall be charged for a late renewal, but the renewal of the registration of any resident trainee who is engaged in ~~the~~ active service in the ~~military service~~ Armed Forces of the United States at the time renewal is due may, at the discretion of the Board, be held in abeyance for the duration of that service without penalties. No credit shall be allowed for the 12-month period of resident traineeship that shall have been completed more than five years preceding the examination for a license.

(5) The Board by regulation may recognize other examinations that the Board deems equivalent to its own.

...

b. The holder of any license issued by the Board who shall fail to renew the same on or before February 1 of the calendar year for which the license is to be renewed shall have forfeited and surrendered the license as of that date. No license forfeited or surrendered pursuant to the preceding sentence shall be reinstated by the Board unless it is shown to the Board that the applicant has, throughout the period of forfeiture, engaged full time in another state of the United States or the District of Columbia in the practice to which ~~his~~ the applicant's

North Carolina license applies and has completed for each such year continuing education substantially equivalent in the opinion of the Board to that required of North Carolina licensees; or has completed in North Carolina a total number of hours of accredited continuing education computed by multiplying five times the number of years of forfeiture; or has passed the North Carolina examination for the forfeited license. No additional resident traineeship shall be required. The applicant shall be required to pay all delinquent annual renewal fees and a reinstatement fee. The Board may waive the provisions of this section for an applicant for a forfeiture which occurred during ~~his~~ the applicant's service in the ~~armed forces~~ Armed Forces of the United States provided ~~he~~ the applicant applies within six months following severance therefrom.

...."

"§ 90-210.101. Member ~~in armed forces~~ of Armed Forces failing to pay assessments; reinstatement.

If a member of a burial association who is in the ~~military or naval forces~~ Armed Forces of the United States fails to pay any assessment, ~~he~~ the member shall be in bad standing, and unless and until restored, shall not be entitled to benefits. However, the ~~said~~ member shall be reinstated in the burial association upon application made by ~~him~~ the member at any time until 12 months after ~~his~~ the member's discharge from the ~~military or naval forces~~ Armed Forces of the United States, notwithstanding ~~his~~ the member's physical condition and without the payment of assessments which have become due during ~~his~~ the member's service in the ~~military or naval forces~~ Armed Forces of the United States. Benefits will be in force immediately after such reinstatement."

SECTION 65. G.S. 90-224.1(c)(2) reads as rewritten:

"(2) Has no history of disciplinary action or pending disciplinary action in the ~~military~~ Armed Forces of the United States or in any state or territory in which the applicant is or has ever been licensed."

"(3) Practitioners of physical therapy employed in the ~~United States armed services,~~ Armed Forces of the United States, United States Public Health Service, Veterans Administration or other federal agency, to the extent permitted under federal law, so long as the practitioner limits services to those directly relating to work with the employing government agency;".

SECTION 67. G.S. 90-664(3) reads as rewritten:

"(3) A respiratory care practitioner serving in the ~~armed forces~~ Armed Forces or the Public Health Service of the United States or employed by the Veterans Administration when performing duties associated with that service or employment."

SECTION 68. G.S. 93B-15 reads as rewritten:

"§ 93B-15. Payment of license fees by members of the ~~armed forces;~~ Armed Forces; board waiver rules.

(a) An individual who is serving in the ~~armed forces~~ Armed Forces of the United States and to whom G.S. 105-249.2 grants an extension of time to file a tax return is granted an extension of time to pay any license fee charged by an occupational licensing board as a condition of retaining a license granted by the board. The extension is for the same period that would apply if the license fee were a tax.

(b) Occupational licensing boards shall adopt rules to postpone or waive continuing education, payment of renewal and other fees, and any other requirements or conditions relating to the maintenance of licensure by an individual who is currently licensed by and in good standing with the board, is serving in the ~~armed forces~~ Armed Forces of the United States, and to whom G.S. 105-249.2 grants an extension of time to file a tax return."

SECTION 69.(a) G.S. 96-8(6)i. reads as rewritten:

"i. The term "employment" includes service performed for any State and local governmental employing unit or for any Indian tribe, except that employment does not include service performed (a) as an elected official; (b) as a member of a legislative body or a member of the judiciary, of a State or political subdivision thereof or of an Indian tribe; (c) as a member of the ~~State~~ North Carolina National ~~Guard or Air National~~ Guard; (d) as an employee serving on a temporary basis in case of fire, storm, snow, earthquake, flood, or similar emergency; or (e) in a policymaking or advisory position the performance of the duties of which ordinarily does not require more than eight hours per week. The services to which clause (d) of the preceding sentence applies include but are not limited to temporary emergency services compensated solely by a fixed payment for each emergency call answered whether or not provided for by prior agreement and training in preparation for such temporary emergency service whether or not compensated."

SECTION 69.(b) G.S. 96-8(8b) reads as rewritten:

"(8b) "Severely disabled veteran" means an honorably discharged veteran of the ~~armed forces~~ Armed Forces of the United States who has received a disability rating from the United States Department of Veterans Affairs that meets the disability percentage requirements set forth in 38 CFR 4.16, as amended, if the veteran (i) has a right to apply to the United States Department of Veterans Affairs for compensation based on total disability or individual unemployability, and (ii) has elected to work instead of assert the right to receive compensation from the United States Department of Veterans Affairs based on total disability or individual unemployability."

SECTION 69.(c) Effective July 1, 2011, G.S. 96-8(10) reads as rewritten:

"(10) Total and partial unemployment.

a. For the purpose of establishing a benefit year, an individual shall be deemed to be unemployed:

1. If ~~he~~ the individual has payroll attachment but, because of lack of work during the payroll week for which ~~he~~ the individual is requesting the establishment of a benefit year, ~~he~~ the individual worked less than the equivalent of three customary scheduled full-time days in the establishment, plant, or industry in which ~~he~~the individual has payroll attachment as a regular employee. If a benefit year is established, it shall begin on the Sunday preceding the payroll week ending date.

2. If ~~he~~the individual has no payroll attachment on the date ~~he~~the individual reports to apply for unemployment insurance. If a benefit year is established, it shall begin on the Sunday of the calendar week with respect to which the claimant met the reporting requirements provided by Commission regulation.

b. For benefit weeks within an established benefit year, a claimant shall be deemed to be:

1. Totally unemployed, irrespective of job attachment, if ~~his~~ the claimant's earnings for such week, including payments defined in ~~subparagraph c below,~~ sub-subdivision c. of this subdivision, would not reduce ~~his~~ the claimant's weekly benefit amount as prescribed by G.S. 96-12(c).
2. Partially unemployed, if ~~he~~ the claimant has payroll attachment but because of lack of work during the payroll week for which ~~he~~the claimant is requesting benefits ~~he~~the claimant worked less than three customary scheduled full-time days in the establishment, plant, or industry in which ~~he~~the claimant is employed and whose earnings from such employment (including payments defined in ~~subparagraph c below)~~ sub-subdivision c. of this subdivision) would qualify ~~him~~the claimant for a reduced payment as prescribed by G.S. 96-12(c).
3. Part-totally unemployed, if the claimant had no job attachment during all or part of such week and whose earnings for odd jobs or subsidiary work (including payments defined in ~~subparagraph c below)~~ sub-subdivision c. of this subdivision) would qualify ~~him~~ the claimant for a reduced payment as prescribed by G.S. 96-12(c).

c. No individual shall be considered unemployed if, with respect to the entire calendar week, ~~he~~ the individual is receiving, has received, or will receive as a result of ~~his~~ the individual's separation from employment, remuneration in the form of (i) wages in lieu of notice, (ii) accrued vacation pay, (iii) terminal leave pay, (iv) severance pay, (v) separation pay, or (vi) dismissal payments or wages by whatever name. Provided, however, if such payment is applicable to less than the entire week, the claimant may be considered to be unemployed as defined in ~~subsections a and b of this paragraph.~~ sub-subdivisions a. and b. of this subdivision. Sums received by any individual for services performed as an elected official who holds an elective office, as defined in G.S. 128-1.1(d), or as a member of the ~~N. C.~~ North Carolina National Guard, as defined in G.S. 127A-3, or as a member of any reserve component of the ~~United States~~ Armed Forces of the United States shall not be considered in determining that individual's employment status under this subsection. Provided further, however, that an individual shall be considered to be unemployed as to receipt of severance pay for any week the individual is registered at or attending any institution of higher education as defined in G.S. 96-8(5)j., or secondary school as defined in G.S. 96-8(5)q., or Commission approved vocational, educational, or training programs as defined in G.S. 96-13.

d. An individual's week of unemployment shall be deemed to commence only after ~~his~~ the individual's registration at an employment office, except as the Commission may by regulation otherwise prescribe.

e. Repealed by Session Laws 2009-506, s. 2, effective October 1, 2009, and applicable to claims filed on or after that date.

f. No substitute teacher or other substitute school personnel shall be considered unemployed for days or weeks when not called to work unless the individual is or was employed as a full-time substitute during the period of time for which the individual is requesting benefits. For the purposes of this subsection, full-time substitute is defined as a substitute employee who works more than 30 hours a week on a continual basis for a period of six months or more."

SECTION 70. G.S. 96-9(c)(6) reads as rewritten:

"(6) If the Commission finds that an employer's business is closed solely because of the entrance of one or more of the owners, officers, partners, or the majority stockholder into the Armed Forces of the United States, or of any of its allies, or of the United Nations, such employer's experience rating account shall not be terminated; and, if the business is resumed within two years after the discharge or release from active duty in the Armed Forces of the United States of such person or persons, the employer's account shall be deemed to have been chargeable with benefits throughout more than 13 consecutive calendar months ending July 31 immediately preceding the computation date. This subdivision shall apply only to employers who are liable for contributions under the experience rating system of financing unemployment benefits. Also, a nonresident of the United States who has resided in North Carolina for a 12-month qualifying period and has filed an immigrant petition with the United States Immigration and Naturalization Service shall be considered a State resident for community college tuition purposes."

SECTION 81. G.S. 116-15(e) reads as rewritten:

"(e) Post-secondary Degree Activity within the ~~Military.~~Armed Forces of the United States. – To the extent that an institution undertakes post-secondary degree activity on the premises of military posts or reservations located in this State for military personnel stationed on active duty there, or their dependents, the institution shall be exempt from the licensure requirements of this section."

SECTION 82. G.S. 116-21.3(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) Any member of the ~~armed services,~~Armed Forces, as defined in G.S. 116-143.3(a), abiding in this State incident to active military duty, who does not qualify as a resident for tuition purposes, as defined under G.S. 116-143.1, is eligible for a legislative tuition grant pursuant to this section if the member is enrolled as a full-time undergraduate student or as a licensure student. The member's legislative tuition grant shall not exceed the cost of tuition less any tuition assistance paid by the member's employer."

SECTION 83. G.S. 116-143.1(h) reads as rewritten:

"(h) No person shall lose his or her resident status for tuition purposes solely by reason of serving in the ~~armed forces~~ Armed Forces of the United States outside this State."

SECTION 84. G.S. 116-143.3 reads as rewritten:

"§ 116-143.3. Tuition of ~~armed services~~ Armed Forces personnel and their dependents.

(a) Definitions. – The following definitions apply in this section:

(1) The term "abode" shall mean the place where a person actually lives, whether temporarily or permanently; the term "abide" shall mean to live in a given place.

(2) The term ~~"armed services"~~ "Armed Forces" shall mean the United States Air Force, Army, Coast Guard, Marine Corps, and Navy; the North Carolina National Guard; and any ~~Reserve Component~~ reserve component of the foregoing.

(3) Repealed by Session Laws 2007-484, s. 15, effective August 30, 2007.

(b) Any active duty member of the ~~armed services~~ Armed Forces qualifying for admission to an institution of higher education as defined in G.S. 116-143.1(a)(3) but not qualifying as a resident for tuition purposes under G.S. 116-143.1 shall be charged the in-State tuition rate and applicable mandatory fees for enrollments while the member of the ~~armed services~~ Armed Forces is abiding in this State incident to active military duty in this State. In the event the active duty member of the ~~armed services~~ Armed Forces is reassigned outside of North Carolina or retires, the member shall continue to be eligible for the in-State tuition rate and applicable mandatory fees so long as the member is continuously enrolled in the degree or other program in which the member was enrolled at the time the member is reassigned. In the event the active duty member of the ~~armed services~~ Armed Forces receives an Honorable Discharge from military service, the member shall continue to be eligible for the in-State tuition rate and applicable mandatory fees so long as the member establishes residency in North Carolina within 30 days after the discharge and is continuously enrolled in the degree or other program in which the member was enrolled at the time the member is discharged.

(b1), (b2) Repealed by Session Laws 2004-130, s. 1, effective August 1, 2004.

(c) Any dependent relative of a member of the ~~armed services~~ Armed Forces who is abiding in this State incident to active military duty, as defined by the Board of Governors of The University of North Carolina and by the State Board of Community Colleges while sharing the abode of that member shall be eligible to be charged the in-State tuition rate, if the dependent relative qualifies for admission to an institution of higher education as defined in G.S. 116-143.1(a)(3). The dependent relatives shall comply with the requirements of the Selective Service System, if applicable, in order to be accorded this benefit. In the event the member of the ~~armed services~~ Armed Forces is reassigned outside of North Carolina or retires, the dependent relative shall continue to be eligible for the in-State tuition rate and applicable mandatory fees so long as the dependent relative is continuously enrolled in the degree or other program in which the dependent relative was enrolled at the time the member is reassigned or retires. In the event the member of the ~~armed services~~ Armed Forces receives an Honorable Discharge from military service, the dependent relative shall continue to be eligible for the in-State tuition rate and applicable mandatory fees so long as the dependent relative establishes residency within North Carolina within 30 days after the discharge and is continuously enrolled in the degree or other program in which the dependent relative was enrolled at the time the member is discharged.

(d) The person applying for the benefit of this section has the burden of proving entitlement to the benefit.

(e) A person charged less than the out-of-state tuition rate solely by reason of this section shall not, during the period of receiving that benefit, qualify for or be the basis of conferring the benefit of G.S. 116-143.1(g), (h), (i), (j), (k), or (l)."

SECTION 85. G.S. 116-209.51 reads as rewritten:

"§ 116-209.51. Purpose.

The General Assembly of North Carolina, recognizing that the North Carolina National Guard is the only organized, trained and equipped military force subject to the control of the State, hereby establishes a program of tuition assistance for qualifying guard members for the purpose of encouraging voluntary membership in the ~~guard,~~ North Carolina National Guard, improving the educational level of its members, and thereby benefiting the State as a whole."

SECTION 86.(a) G.S. 116-209.54(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) Active members of the North Carolina National Guard who are enrolled or who shall enroll in any business or trade school, private educational institution, or State educational institution shall be eligible to apply for this tuition assistance benefit: Provided, that the applicant has a minimum obligation of two years remaining as a member of the North Carolina National Guard from the end of the academic period for which tuition assistance is provided or that the applicant commit himself or herself to extended membership for at least two additional years from the end of that academic period."

SECTION 86.(b) G.S. 116-209.54(c)(2)a. reads as rewritten:

"a. The applicant has a minimum obligation of two years remaining as a member of the North Carolina National Guard from the time of the application; or"

SECTION 87. G.S. 116-209.55(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) All tuition benefit disbursements shall be made to the business or trade school or State or private educational institution concerned, for credit to the tuition account of each recipient. Funds disbursed pursuant to subsection (g) of this section shall be made to the student loan creditor concerned to be applied against the outstanding student loans of each North Carolina National Guard member beneficiary."

SECTION 88. G.S. 116-235(b)(1) reads as rewritten:

"(1) Admission of Students. – The School shall admit students in accordance with criteria, standards, and procedures established by the Board of Trustees. To be eligible to be considered for admission, an applicant must be either a legal resident of the State, as defined by G.S. 116-143.1(a)(1), or a student whose parent is an active duty member of the ~~armed services,~~ Armed Forces, as defined by G.S. 116-143.3(2), who is abiding in this State incident to active military duty at the time the application is submitted, provided the student shares the abode of that parent; eligibility to remain enrolled in the School shall terminate at the end of any school year during which a student becomes a nonresident of the State. The Board of Trustees shall ensure, insofar as possible without jeopardizing admission standards, that an equal number of qualified applicants is admitted to the program and to the residential summer institutes in science and mathematics from each of North Carolina's congressional districts. In no event shall the differences in the number of qualified applicants offered admission to the program from each of North Carolina's congressional districts be more than two and one-half percentage points from the average number per district who are offered admission."

SECTION 89. G.S. 120-4.12(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) Any member of the Retirement System who has eight or more years of creditable service as a member of the General Assembly may purchase prior service credit for service in the ~~armed forces~~ Armed Forces of the United States at the same rates and conditions as set forth in G.S. 120-4.14 and G.S. 120-4.16; provided that credit is allowed only for the initial period of active duty in the ~~armed forces~~Armed Forces of the United States up to the time the member was first eligible to be separated or released therefrom, and subsequent periods of such active duty as required by the ~~armed forces~~ Armed Forces of the United States up to the date of first eligibility for separation or release therefrom; and further provided that the member submits satisfactory evidence of the service claimed and that service credit be allowed only for the period of active service in the ~~armed forces~~ Armed Forces of the United States not creditable in any other retirement system, except the National Guard or any reserve component of the ~~armed forces~~ Armed Forces of the United States."

SECTION 90. G.S. 126-2(b)(3) reads as rewritten:

"(3) Two State employees subject to the State Personnel Act serving in nonexempt positions, appointed by the Governor, including one of whom is a veteran of the ~~armed forces~~ Armed Forces of the United States appointed upon the nomination of the Veterans' Affairs Commission. One employee shall serve in a State government position having supervisory duties, and one employee shall serve in a nonsupervisory position. Neither employee may be a human resources professional. The Governor shall consider nominations submitted by the State Employees Association of North Carolina. The initial members appointed under this subdivision shall serve terms expiring June 30, 2001; the terms of subsequent appointees shall be six years."

SECTION 91. G.S. 127B-2 reads as rewritten:

"§ 127B-2. Military property defined.

"Military property" means property originally manufactured for the United States or State of North Carolina which is a type and kind issued for use in, or furnished and intended for, the ~~military service~~ Armed Forces of the United States or the militia of the State of North Carolina."

SECTION 92. G.S. 127B-11 reads as rewritten:

"§ 127B-11. Private discrimination prohibited.

No person shall discriminate against any officer, warrant officer or enlisted person of the military ~~or naval~~ forces of the State or of the United States because of their membership therein. No member of these military forces shall be prejudiced or injured by any person, employer, officer or agent of any corporation, company or firm with respect to their employment, position or status or denied or disqualified for employment by virtue of their membership or service in the military forces of this State or of the United States."

SECTION 93. G.S. 127B-12 reads as rewritten:

"§ 127B-12. Public discrimination prohibited.

No officer or employee of the State, or of any county, city and county, municipal corporation, school district, water district, or other district shall discriminate against any officer, warrant officer or enlisted person of the military ~~or naval~~ forces of the State or of the United States because of their membership therein. No member of the military forces shall be prejudiced or injured by any officer or employee of the State, or of any county, city and county, municipal corporation, school district, water district, or other district with respect to their employment, appointment, position or status or denied or disqualified for or discharged from their employment or position by virtue of their membership or service in the military forces of this State or of the United States."

SECTION 94. G.S. 127B-13 reads as rewritten:

"§ 127B-13. Refusing entrance prohibited.

No person shall prohibit or refuse entrance to any officer, warrant officer or enlisted person of the military ~~or naval~~ forces of this State or of the United States into any public place of entertainment, of amusement, or accommodation because the officer or enlisted person is wearing the uniform of the organization to which they belong or because of their membership or service in the military forces of this State or of the United States."

SECTION 95. G.S. 127B-14 reads as rewritten:

"§ 127B-14. Employer discrimination prohibited.

No employer or officer or agent of any corporation, company, or firm, or other person shall discharge any person from employment because of the performance of any emergency military duty by reason of being an officer, warrant officer or enlisted person of the military ~~or naval~~ forces of this State or the United States."

SECTION 96. G.S. 128-15(c) reads as rewritten:

"§ 128-15. Employment preference for veterans and their spouses or surviving spouses.

(c) Hereafter, in all evaluations of applicants for positions with this State or any of its departments, institutions or agencies, a preference shall be awarded to all eligible veterans who are citizens of the State and who served the State or the United States honorably in ~~either the army, navy, marine corps, nurses' corps, air corps, air force, coast guard, or any of the armed services~~ the military forces of this State or of the United States during a period of war. This preference applies to initial employment with the State and extends to other employment events including subsequent hirings, promotions, reassignments, and horizontal transfers."

SECTION 97.(a) G.S. 128-26(a) reads as rewritten:

"§ 128-26. Allowance for service.

(a) Each person who becomes a member during the first year of his or her employer's participation, and who was an employee of the same employer at any time during the year immediately preceding the date of participation, shall file a detailed statement of all service rendered by him or her to that employer prior to the date of participation for which he or she claims credit.

A participating employer may allow prior service credit to any of its employees on account of: their earlier service to the aforesaid employer; or, their earlier service to any other employer as the term employer is defined in G.S. 128-21(11); or, their earlier service to any state, territory, or other governmental subdivision of the United States other than this State.

A participating employer may allow prior service credit to any of its employees on account of service, as defined in G.S. 135-1(23), to the State of North Carolina to the extent of such service prior to the establishment of the Teachers' and State Employees' Retirement System on July 1, 1941; provided that employees allowed such prior service credit pay in a total lump sum an amount calculated on the basis of compensation the employee earned when ~~he~~ the employee first entered membership and the employee contribution rate at that time together with interest thereon from year of first membership to year of payment shall be one half of the calculated cost.

With respect to a member retiring on or after July 1, 1967, the governing board of a participating unit may allow credit for any period of military service in the ~~armed forces~~ Armed Forces of the United States if the person returned to the service of ~~his~~ the person's employer within two years after having been honorably discharged, or becoming entitled to be discharged, released, or separated from such ~~armed services;~~ the Armed Forces of the United States; provided that, notwithstanding the above provisions, any member having credit for not less than 10 years of otherwise creditable service may be allowed credit for such military services which are not creditable in any other governmental retirement system; provided further, that a member will receive credit for military service under the provisions of this paragraph only if ~~he~~ the member submits satisfactory evidence of the military service claimed and the participating unit of which ~~he~~ the member is an employee agrees to grant credit for such military service prior to January 1, 1972.

A member retiring on or after July 1, 1971, who is not granted credit for military service under the provisions of the preceding paragraph will be allowed credit for any period in the ~~armed services~~ Armed Forces of the United States up to the date ~~he~~ the member was first eligible to be separated or released therefrom; provided that ~~he~~ the member was an employee as defined in G.S. 128-21(10) at the time ~~he~~ the member entered military service, and either of the following conditions is met:

(1) ~~He~~ The member returns to service, with the employer by whom ~~he~~ the member was employed when ~~he~~ the member entered military service, within a period of two years after ~~he~~ the member is first eligible to be separated or released from such military service under other than dishonorable conditions.

(2) ~~He~~ The member is in service, with the employer by whom ~~he~~ the member was employed when ~~he~~ the member entered military service, for a period of not less than 10 years after ~~he~~ the member is separated or released from ~~such armed services~~ the Armed Forces of the United States under other than dishonorable conditions."

SECTION 97.(b) G.S. 128-26(j1)(1) reads as rewritten:

"(1) For members who completed 10 years of membership service, and retired members who completed 10 years of membership service prior to retirement, and whose membership began on or prior to January 1, 1988, and who make such purchase within three years after first becoming eligible, the cost shall be an amount equal to the monthly compensation the member earned when ~~he~~ the member first entered membership service times the employee contribution rate at that time times the months of service to be purchased with sufficient interest added thereto so as to equal one-half of the cost of allowing such service, plus an administrative fee to be set by the Board of Trustees."

SECTION 98. G.S. 128-39.1(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) Any elective or appointive State official may obtain leave of absence from the official's duties when the official enters active duty in the ~~armed forces~~ Armed Forces of the United States or the North Carolina National Guard as a result of being voluntarily or involuntarily activated, drafted, or otherwise called to duty. The official shall receive no salary during the period of leave. No vacancy is created by a State official obtaining a leave of absence under this section."

SECTION 99. G.S. 128-42(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) Any elective or appointive county or municipal official may obtain leave of absence from the official's duties when the official enters active duty in the ~~armed forces~~ Armed Forces of the United States or the North Carolina National Guard as a result of being voluntarily or involuntarily activated, drafted, or otherwise called to duty. The official shall receive no salary during the period of leave. No vacancy is created by a county or municipal official obtaining a leave of absence under this section."

SECTION 100. G.S. 135-1(10) reads as rewritten:

"(10) "Employee" shall mean all full-time employees, agents or officers of the State of North Carolina or any of its departments, bureaus and institutions other than educational, whether such employees are elected, appointed or employed: Provided that the term "employee" shall not include any person who is a member of the Consolidated Judicial Retirement System, any member of the General Assembly or any part-time or temporary employee. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, "employee" shall include all employees of the General Assembly except participants in the Legislative Intern Program, pages, and beneficiaries in receipt of a monthly retirement allowance under this Chapter who are reemployed on a temporary basis. "Employee" also includes any participant whose employment is interrupted by reason of service in the Uniformed Services, as that term is defined in section 4303(16) of the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act, Public Law 103-353, if that participant was an employee at the time of the interruption; if the participant does not return immediately after that service to employment with a covered employer in this System, then the participant shall be deemed "in service" until the date on which the participant was first eligible to be separated or released from his or her involuntary military service. In all cases of doubt, the Board of Trustees shall determine whether any person is an employee as defined in this Chapter. "Employee" shall also mean every full-time civilian employee of the ~~Army National Guard and Air National Guard of this State~~ North Carolina National Guard who is employed pursuant to section 709 of Title 32 of the United States Code and paid from federal appropriated funds, but held by the federal authorities not to be a federal employee: Provided, however, that the authority or agency paying the salaries of such employees shall deduct or cause to be deducted from each employee's salary the employee's contribution in accordance with applicable provisions of G.S. 135-8 and remit the same, either directly or indirectly, to the Retirement System; coverage of employees described in this sentence shall commence upon the first day of the calendar year or fiscal year, whichever is earlier, next following the date of execution of an agreement between the Secretary of Defense of the United States and the Adjutant General of the State acting for the Governor in behalf of the State, but no credit shall be allowed pursuant to this sentence for any service previously rendered in the above-described capacity as a civilian employee of the North Carolina National Guard: Provided, further, that the Adjutant General, in ~~his~~ the Adjutant General's discretion, may terminate the Retirement System coverage of the above-described North Carolina National Guard employees if a federal retirement system is established for such employees and the Adjutant General elects to secure coverage of such employees under such federal retirement system. Any full-time civilian employee of the North Carolina National Guard described above who is now or hereafter may become a member of the Retirement System may secure Retirement System credit for such service as a North Carolina National Guard civilian employee for the period preceding the time when such employees became eligible for Retirement System coverage by paying to the Retirement System an amount equal to that which would have constituted employee contributions if ~~he~~ the employee had been a member during the years of ineligibility, plus interest. Employees of State agencies, departments, institutions, boards, and commissions who are employed in permanent job positions on a recurring basis and who work 30 or more hours per week for nine or more months per calendar year are covered by the provisions of this subdivision. On and after August 1, 2001, a person who is a nonimmigrant alien and who otherwise meets the requirements of this subdivision shall not be excluded from the definition of "employee" solely because the person holds a temporary or time-limited visa."

SECTION 101. G.S. 135-4(f) reads as rewritten:

"(f) Armed Service Credit. –

(1) Teachers and other State employees who entered the ~~armed services~~ Armed Forces of the United States on or after September 16, 1940, and prior to February 17, 1941, and who returned to the service of the State within a period of two years after they were first eligible to be separated or released from ~~such armed services~~ the Armed Forces of the United States under other than dishonorable conditions shall be entitled to full credit for all prior service.

(2) Teachers and other State employees who entered the ~~armed services~~ Armed Forces of the United States on or after September 16, 1940, and who returned to the service of the State prior to October 1, 1952, or who devote not less than 10 years of service to the State after they are separated or released from ~~such armed services~~ the Armed Forces of the United States under other than dishonorable conditions, shall be entitled to full credit for all prior service, and, in addition they shall receive membership service credit for the period of service in ~~such armed services~~ the Armed Forces of the United States up to the date they were first eligible to be separated or released therefrom, occurring after the date of establishment of the Retirement System.

(3) Teachers and other State employees who enter the ~~armed services~~ Armed Forces of the United States on or after July 1, 1950, or who engage in active military service on or after July 1, 1950, and who return to the service of the State within a period of two years after they are first eligible to be separated or released from such active military service under other than dishonorable conditions shall be entitled to full membership service credit for the period of such active service in the ~~armed services.~~ Armed Forces of the United States.

(4) Under such rules as the Board of Trustees shall adopt, credit will be provided by the Retirement System with respect to each such teacher or other State employee in the amounts that he or she would have been paid during such service in ~~such armed services~~ the Armed Forces of the United States on the basis of his or her earnable compensation when such service commenced. Such contributions shall be credited to the individual account of the member in the annuity savings fund, in such manner as the Board of Trustees shall determine, but any such contributions so credited and any regular interest thereon shall be available to the member only in the form of an annuity, or benefit in lieu thereof, upon ~~his~~ the member's retirement on a service, disability or special retirement allowance; and in the event of cessation of membership or death prior thereto, any such contributions so credited and regular interest thereon shall not be payable to ~~him~~ the member or on ~~his~~ the member's account, but shall be transferred from the annuity savings fund to the pension accumulation fund. If any payments were made by a member on account of such service as provided by subdivision (5) of subsection (b) of G.S. 135-8, the Board of Trustees shall refund to or reimburse such member for such payments.

(5) The provisions of this subsection shall also apply to members of the North Carolina National Guard with respect to teachers and State employees who are called into federal service or who are called into State service, to the extent that such persons fail to receive compensation for performance of the duties of their employment other than for service in the North Carolina National Guard.

(6) Repealed by Session Laws 1981, c. 636, s. 1. For proviso as to inchoate or accrued rights, see Editor's Note below.

(7) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Chapter, any member and any retired member as herein described may purchase creditable service in the Armed Forces of the United States, not otherwise allowed, by paying a total lump sum payment determined as follows:

a. For members who completed 10 years of membership service, and retired members who completed 10 years of membership service prior to retirement, whose membership began on or prior to July 1, 1981, and who make this purchase within three years after first becoming eligible, the cost shall be an amount equal to the monthly compensation the member earned when ~~he~~ the member first entered membership service times the employee contribution rate at that time times the months of service to be purchased, with sufficient interest added thereto so as to equal one-half of the cost of allowing this service, plus an administrative fee to be set by the Board of Trustees.

...."

SECTION 102. G.S. 135-45.1(17) reads as rewritten:

"(17) National Guard members. – Members of the North Carolina ~~Army and Air~~ National Guard who are not eligible for any type of comprehensive group health insurance or other comprehensive group health benefit coverage and who have been without any form of group health insurance or other comprehensive group health benefit coverage for at least six months. Members of the North Carolina ~~Army and Air~~ National Guard include those who are actively serving in the North Carolina National Guard as well as former members of the North Carolina National Guard who have completed 20 or more years of service in the North Carolina National Guard but have not attained the minimum age to begin receipt of a uniformed service military retirement benefit. Comprehensive group health insurance and other benefit coverage consists of inpatient and outpatient hospital and medical benefits, as well as other outpatient medical services, prescription drugs, medical supplies, and equipment that are generally available in the health insurance market. Comprehensive group health insurance and other benefit coverage includes Medicare benefits, Civilian Health and Medical Program of the Uniformed Services (CHAMPUS) benefits, and other Uniformed Services benefits. North Carolina National Guard units shall certify the eligibility of their members to the Plan for their participation in its benefits prior to enrollment."

SECTION 103. G.S. 135-45.12(d)(2) reads as rewritten:

"(2) In the event of approved leave of absence without pay, other than for active duty in the ~~armed forces~~ Armed Forces of the United States, coverage under this Plan for an employee and his or her dependents may be continued during the period of such leave of absence by the employee's paying one hundred percent (100%) of the cost."

SECTION 104. G.S. 143-166.2(e) reads as rewritten:

"(e) The term "spouse" shall mean the wife or husband of the deceased officer, fireman, rescue squad worker or senior Civil Air Patrol member who survives him and who was residing with such officer, fireman, rescue squad worker, or senior Civil Air Patrol member at the time of and during the six months next preceding the date of injury to such officer, fireman, rescue squad worker or senior Civil Air Patrol member which resulted in his death and who also resided with such officer, fireman, rescue squad worker or senior Civil Air Patrol member from that date of injury up to and at the time of his death and who remains unmarried during the time benefits are forthcoming; provided, however, the part of this section requiring the spouse to have been residing with the deceased officer, fireman, rescue squad worker or senior Civil Air Patrol member for six months next preceding the date of the injury which resulted in his death shall not apply where marriage occurred during this six-month period or where the officer, fireman, rescue squad worker or senior Civil Air Patrol member was absent during this six-month period due to service in the ~~armed forces of this country.~~ Armed Forces of the United States."

SECTION 105. G.S. 143B-515(14) reads as rewritten:

"(14) Juvenile. – Except as provided in subdivisions (7) and (22) of this section, any person who has not reached the person's eighteenth birthday and is not married, emancipated, or a member of the ~~armed forces~~ Armed Forces of the United States. Wherever the term "juvenile" is used with reference to rights and privileges, that term encompasses the attorney for the juvenile as well."

SECTION 106. G.S. 145-32 reads as rewritten:

"§ 145-32. Honor and Remember Flag.

The Honor and Remember Flag created by Honor and Remember, Inc., is adopted as a symbol to honor and recognize members of the ~~United States~~ Armed Forces of the United States who have died in the line of duty."

SECTION 107. G.S. 147-33.2 reads as rewritten:

"§ 147-33.2. Emergency war powers of the Governor.

Upon ~~his~~ the Governor's own initiative, or on the request or recommendation of the President of the United States, the ~~army, navy~~ United States Army, Navy, or any other branch of the ~~armed forces~~ Armed Forces of the United States, the federal Director of Civilian Defense, or any other federal officer, department or agency having duties and responsibilities related to the prosecution of the war or the health, welfare, safety and protection of the civilian population, whenever in ~~his~~ the Governor's judgment any such action is in the public interest and is necessary for the protection of the lives or property of the people of the State, or for the defense and security of the State or nation, or for the proper conduct of the war and the successful prosecution thereof, the Governor may, with the approval of the Council of State, at any time and from time to time during the existing state of war:

...

(6) Authorize any department or agency of the State to lease or lend to the ~~army, navy~~ United States Army, Navy, or any other branch of the ~~armed forces~~ Armed Forces of the United States, any real or personal property of the State upon such terms and conditions as ~~he~~ the Governor may impose, or, on behalf of the State, to make a contract directly therefor.

(7) Authorize the temporary transfer of personnel of the State for employment by the ~~army, navy~~ United States Army, Navy, or any other branch of the ~~armed forces~~ Armed Forces of the United States and fix the terms and conditions of such transfers.

(8) At any time when the General Assembly is not in session, suspend, or modify, in whole or in part, generally or in its application to certain classes of persons, firms, corporations or circumstances, any law, rule or regulation with reference to the subjects hereinafter enumerated, when ~~he~~ the Governor shall find and proclaim after such study, investigation or hearings as ~~he~~ the Governor may direct, make or conduct, that the operation, enforcement or application of such law, or any part thereof, materially hinders, impedes, delays or interferes with the proper conduct of the war; said subjects being as follows:

d. Whenever it should be certified by the Adjutant General of the State that emergency conditions require such procedure, the Governor, with the approval of the Council of State, shall have the power to call up and mobilize the State militia; to provide transportation and facilities for mobilization and full utilization of the State militia, in such emergency; and to allocate from the Contingency and Emergency Fund such amounts as may be necessary for such purposes during the period of such emergency;

...

(13) Hold and conduct hearings, administer oaths and take testimony, issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of relevant books, papers, records or documents, in connection with any investigation made by ~~him~~ the Governor under the authority of this Article."

SECTION 108. G.S. 157-53(f) reads as rewritten:

"(f) "Persons engaged in national defense activities," as used in this Article shall include: enlisted personnel in the ~~armed services~~ Armed Forces of the United States and employees of the Defense Department assigned to duty at ~~armed forces~~ reservations, posts or ~~bases;~~ bases of the Armed Forces of the United States; and workers engaged or to be engaged in industries connected with and essential to the National Defense Program; and shall include the families of the aforesaid persons who are living with them."

SECTION 109. G.S. 161-10.1 reads as rewritten:

"§ 161-10.1. Exemption of ~~armed forces~~ Armed Forces discharge documents and certain other records needed in support of claims for veterans' benefits.

Any schedule of fees which is now or may be prescribed in Chapter 161 of the General Statutes or in G.S. 161-10 shall not apply to nor shall the same repeal any of the provisions of Article 5 of Chapter 47 of the General Statutes. Any schedule of fees which is now or may be hereafter prescribed in Chapter 161 of the General Statutes or as may appear in G.S. 161-10 shall not apply to nor shall the same repeal any of the provisions of G.S. 165-11."

SECTION 110. G.S. 163-27.1(3) reads as rewritten:

"(3) An armed conflict involving ~~United States armed forces,~~ Armed Forces of the United States, or mobilization of those forces, including ~~State~~ North Carolina National Guard and reserve components of the Armed Forces of the United States."

SECTION 111. G.S. 163-82.21 reads as rewritten:

"§ 163-82.21. Voter registration at military recruitment offices.

The Executive Director, jointly with the Department of Defense, shall develop and implement procedures for persons to apply to register to vote at recruitment offices of the ~~armed forces~~ Armed Forces of the United States in compliance with section 7(c) of the National Voter Registration Act."

SECTION 112. G.S. 165-3(4)b. reads as rewritten:

"b. For entitlement to the services of the Department of Administration, any person who may be entitled to any benefits or rights under the laws of the United States by reason of service in the ~~armed forces~~ Armed Forces of the United States."

SECTION 113. G.S. 165-13 reads as rewritten:

"§ 165-13. Definition.

As used in this Article, "veteran" means any person who may be entitled to any benefits or rights under the laws of the United States, by reason of service in the ~~armed forces~~ Armed Forces of the United States."

SECTION 114. G.S. 165-17 reads as rewritten:

"§ 165-17. Definition.

As used in this Article, "veteran" means any person who may be entitled to any benefits or rights under the laws of the United States, by reason of service in the ~~armed forces~~ Armed Forces of the United States."

SECTION 115. G.S. 165-20 reads as rewritten:

"§ 165-20. Definitions.

As used in this Article the terms defined in this section shall have the following meaning:

(1) "Active federal service" means full-time duty in the ~~armed forces~~ Armed Forces other than active duty for training; however, if disability or death occurs while on active duty for training (i) as a direct result of armed conflict or (ii) while engaged in extra-hazardous service, including such service under conditions simulating war, such active duty for training shall be considered as active federal service.

(2) ~~"Armed forces"~~ "Armed Forces" means the ~~army, navy, marine corps, air force and coast guard,~~ United States Army, Navy, Marine Corps, Air Force, and Coast Guard, including their reserve components.

(3) "Child" means a person: (i) under 25 years of age at the time of application for a scholarship, (ii) who is a domiciliary of North Carolina and is a resident of North Carolina when applying for a scholarship, (iii) who has completed high school or its equivalent prior to receipt of a scholarship awarded under this Article, (iv) who has complied with the requirements of the Selective Service System, if applicable, and (v) who further meets one of the following requirements:

a. A person whose veteran parent was a legal resident of North Carolina at the time of said veteran's entrance into that period of service in the ~~armed forces~~ Armed Forces during which eligibility is established under G.S. 165-22.

(4) "Period of war" and "wartime" shall mean any of the periods or circumstances as defined below:

a. World War I, meaning (i) the period beginning on April 6, 1917 and ending on November 11, 1918, and (ii) in the case of a veteran who served with the ~~United States armed forces~~ Armed Forces in Russia, the period beginning on April 6, 1917 and ending on April 1, 1920.

b. World War II, meaning the period beginning on December 7, 1941 and ending on December 31, 1946.

b. Was awarded a Purple Heart for wounds received as a result of an act of any opposing armed force, as a result of an international terrorist attack, or as a result of military operations while serving as part of a peacekeeping force.

...

(5) Class IV: Under this class a scholarship as defined in G.S. 165-21 shall be awarded to any child whose parent, while serving honorably as a member of the ~~armed forces of the United States~~ Armed Forces in active federal service during a period of war, as defined in G.S. 165-20(4), was listed by the United States government as (i) missing in action, (ii) captured in line of duty by a hostile force, or (iii) forcibly detained or interned in line of duty by a foreign government or power."

SECTION 117. G.S. 165-24 reads as rewritten:

"§ 165-24. Finding and declaration of necessity.

It is hereby declared that conditions resulting from the concentration in various cities and towns of the State having a population of more than one hundred thousand inhabitants of persons serving in the ~~armed forces~~ Armed Forces of the United States in connection with the present war, or who after having served in the ~~armed services~~ Armed Forces of the United States during the present war, or previously have been honorably discharged, require the construction, maintenance and operation of adequate recreation facilities for the use of such persons; that it is in the public interest that adequate recreation facilities be provided in such concentrated centers; and the necessity, in the public interest, for the provisions hereinafter enacted is hereby declared as a matter of legislative determination."

SECTION 118. G.S. 165-25(10) reads as rewritten:

"(10) "Veteran" shall include every person who has enlisted or who has been inducted, warranted or commissioned, and who served honorably in active duty in the military ~~or naval~~ service of the United States at any time, and who is honorably separated or discharged from such service, or who, at the time of making use of the facilities, is still in active service, or has been retired, or who has been furloughed to a reserve. This definition shall be liberally construed, with a view completely to effectuate the purpose and intent of this Article."

SECTION 119. G.S. 165-39 reads as rewritten:

"§ 165-39. Validity of acts of agent performed after death of principal.

No agency created by a power of attorney in writing given by a principal who is at the time of execution, or who, after executing such power of attorney, becomes, either (i) a member of the ~~armed forces~~ Armed Forces of the United States, or (ii) a person serving as a merchant seaman outside the limits of the United States, included within the several states and the District of Columbia; or (iii) a person outside said limits by permission, assignment or direction of any department or official of the United States government, in connection with any activity pertaining to or connected with the prosecution of any war in which the United States is then engaged, shall be revoked or terminated by the death of the principal, as to the agent or other person who, without actual knowledge or actual notice of the death of the principal, shall have acted or shall act, in good faith, under or in reliance upon such power of attorney or agency, and any action so taken, unless otherwise invalid or unenforceable, shall be binding on the heirs, devisees, legatees, or personal representatives of the principal."

SECTION 120. G.S. 165-43 reads as rewritten:

"§ 165-43. Protecting status of State employees in ~~armed forces,~~ Armed Forces, etc.

Any employee of the State of North Carolina, who has been granted a leave of absence for service in either (i) the ~~armed forces~~ Armed Forces of the United States; or (ii) the ~~merchant marine of the United States;~~ United States Merchant Marine; or (iii) outside the continental

United States with the Red Cross, shall, upon return to State employment, if reemployed in the same position and if within the time limits set forth in the leave of absence, receive an annual salary of at least (i) the annual salary the employee was receiving at the time such leave was granted; plus (ii) an amount obtained by multiplying the step increment applicable to the employee's classification as provided in the classification and salary plan for State employees by the number of years of such service, counting a fraction of a year as a year; provided that no such employee shall receive a salary in excess of the top of the salary range applicable to the classification to which such employee is assigned upon return."

SECTION 121. G.S. 165-44 reads as rewritten:

"§ 165-44. Korean and Vietnam veterans; benefits and privileges.

(a) All benefits and privileges now granted by the laws of this State to veterans of World War I and World War II and their dependents and next of kin are hereby extended and granted to veterans of the Korean Conflict and their dependents and next of kin.

For the purposes of this section, the term "veterans of the Korean Conflict" means those persons serving in the ~~armed forces~~ Armed Forces of the United States during the period beginning on June 27, 1950, and ending on January 31, 1955.

(b) All benefits and privileges now granted by the laws of this State to veterans of World War I, World War II, the Korean Conflict, and their dependents and next of kin are hereby extended and granted to veterans of the Vietnam era and their dependents and next of kin.

For purposes of this section, the term "veterans of the Vietnam era" means those persons serving in the ~~armed forces~~ Armed Forces of the United States during the period beginning August 5, 1964, and ending on such date as shall be prescribed by Presidential proclamation or concurrent resolution of the Congress."

SECTION 122. G.S. 165-44.01(d)(1) reads as rewritten:

"(1) Military service medal. – Any medal, badge, ribbon, or other decoration awarded by the active or reserve components of the ~~armed forces~~ Armed Forces of the United ~~States, the North Carolina Air National Guard, or the North Carolina Army National Guard~~ States or the North Carolina National Guard to members of those forces."

SECTION 123. The title of Article 7A of Chapter 165 of the General Statutes reads as rewritten:

"Article 7A.

Priority in Employment Assistance for ~~United States Armed Forces Veterans.~~Veterans of the Armed Forces of the United States."

SECTION 124. G.S. 165-44.2 reads as rewritten:

"§ 165-44.2. Veteran defined.

For the purposes of this Article, "veteran" means a person who served on active duty (other than for training) in any component of the ~~United States~~ Armed Forces of the United States for a period of 180 days or more, unless released earlier because of service-connected disability, and who was discharged or released from the ~~armed forces~~ Armed Forces of the United States under honorable conditions."

SECTION 125. G.S. 165-51 reads as rewritten:

"§ 165-51. Program staff.

The Division shall appoint and fix the salary of an Administrative Officer for the State veterans home program. The Administrative Officer shall be an honorably discharged veteran who has served in active military service in the ~~armed forces~~ Armed Forces of the United States for other than training purposes. The Administrative Officer shall direct the establishment of the State veterans home program, coordinate the master planning, land acquisition, and construction of all State veterans homes under the procedures of the Office of State Construction, and oversee the ongoing operation of said veterans homes. The Division may hire any required additional administrative staff to help with administrative and operational responsibilities at each established State ~~Veterans Home.~~ veterans home."

SECTION 126. G.S. 165-53(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) To be eligible for admission to a State veterans home, an applicant shall meet the following requirements:

(1) The veteran shall have served in the active ~~armed forces~~ Armed Forces of the United States for other than training purposes;

(2) The veteran shall have been discharged from the ~~armed forces~~ Armed Forces of the United States under honorable conditions;

(3) The veteran shall be disabled by age, disease, or other reason as determined through a physical examination by a State veterans home physician; and

(4) The veteran shall have resided in the State of North Carolina for two years immediately prior to the date of application."

SECTION 127.(a) The Revisor of Statutes is authorized to substitute, consistent with this act, the term "Armed Forces of the United States" for the following terms, wherever these terms appear in the General Statutes, when referring to the Armed Forces of the United States:

(1) "armed forces."
(2) "Armed Forces."
(3) "armed forces of the United States."
(4) "armed services of the United States."
(5) "United States armed services."
(6) "United States armed forces."
(7) "United States Armed Forces."
(8) "U.S. armed forces."
(9) "U.S. Armed Forces."

SECTION 127.(b) The Revisor of Statutes is authorized to insert, consistent with this act, the words "United States" before references to the "army," "navy," "marine corps," "coast guard," and "air force," wherever these terms appear in the General Statutes, when referring to a branch or branches of the Armed Forces of the United States, and to capitalize those terms.

SECTION 127.(c) The Revisor of Statutes is authorized to substitute, consistent with this act, the term "North Carolina National Guard" for the terms "National Guard," "national guard," and "guard," wherever these terms appear in the General Statutes, when referring to the North Carolina National Guard.

SECTION 128. Except as provided in subsection (c) of Section 69 of this act, this act is effective when it becomes law.

MEMORANDUM
May 31, 2011

TO: Senate Judiciary I Committee
FROM: General Statutes Commission
RE: House Bill 262 (References to Military Orgs./Make Uniform)

Session Law 2009-281 (Capitalize National Guard/GSC Study), as amended by Session Law 2010-152, directed the General Statutes Commission to study and recommend to the 2011 General Assembly ways to ensure that the General Statutes properly and uniformly refer to federal and State military organizations. This bill and House Bill 250 (Various Clarifying Militia Law Amendments) are the results of that study.

Terms Referring to Federal Military Organizations

Primarily, House Bill 262 substitutes "Armed Forces of the United States" as a proper and uniform term for various references to the nation's armed forces. The term "Armed Forces of the United States" was selected because it is used in the General Statutes more often than any other term in this context, and because "Armed Forces" is the current defined term in 10 U.S.C. § 101. Replacements are as follows:

military	Sections 58 (G.S. 90-36(c)(2)), 65 (G.S. 90-224.1(c)(2)), 81 (G.S. 116-15(e))

The term "Armed Forces of the United States" was not used in some places where it appeared that an exception was warranted.

First, because shortened forms can be appropriate in catchlines, Sections 72 and 109 amend the catchlines of G.S. 105-158 and G.S. 161-10.1, respectively, to capitalize "armed forces" without adding "of the United States."

Second, where one of the terms for which "Armed Forces of the United States" appears as a defined term, the defined term is changed to "Armed Forces" and any needed conforming changes are made. Specifically:

- Section 46 amends G.S. 58-58-335, which is a definitions section for Part 6 of Article 58 of Chapter 58 of the General Statutes, to replace the current defined alternative terms "United States armed forces" and "armed forces" with "Armed Forces." Sections 44, 45, 46, 47, 48.(a), 48.(b), and 48.(c) amend G.S. 58-58-325, 58-58-330(b), 58-58-335, 58-58-340, 58-58-345(a), 58-58-345(b), and 58-58-345(d), respectively, to replace references to the current alternative terms with the term "Armed Forces."

- Section 84 amends G.S. 116-143.3 to replace the defined term "armed services" with the term "Armed Forces." Sections 80, 82, and 88 amend G.S. 115D-39(a), 116-21.3(c) and G.S. 116-235(b)(1), respectively, to replace the term "armed services" with the term "Armed Forces." All three statutes cross-refer to the defined term in G.S. 116-143.3.

- Section 115 amends G.S. 165-20 to capitalize the defined term "Armed forces." Sections 115 and 116 amend G.S. 165-20 and G.S. 165-22, respectively, to capitalize that term wherever it appears in the two statutes (the definitions in G.S. 165-20 apply to G.S. 165-22).

Third, no change was made to Article 21 of Chapter 163 (Military Absentee Registration and Voting in Primary and General Elections), because the Article uses a nonstandard definition for the term "armed forces of the United States" (see G.S. 163-245(b) and G.S. 163-254 (1)).

The bill also standardizes references to the branches of the Armed Forces of the United States by inserting "United States" before, and capitalizing, references to the "army," "navy," "marine corps," "coast guard," "air force," and "merchant marine," whether set out individually or in a list, in the following sections: Sections 1 (G.S. 1-82), 25 (G.S. 28B-1), 26 (G.S. 28C-20), 27 (G.S. 31-18.4), 30 (G.S. 47-2), 31 (G.S. 47-2.1), 32 (G.S. 47-81.2), 34

(G.S. 47-109), 35 (G.S. 47-110), 36 (G.S. 47-111), 39 (G.S. 50-18), 107 (G.S. 147-33.2), 115 (G.S. 165-20), and 120 (G.S. 165-43).

The bill also substitutes "reserve components of the Armed Forces of the United States" for "armed forces reserves of the United States" in Section 15 (G.S. 14-415.10(2a)), because the term "reserve components" is currently used in 10 U.S.C. § 101.

Terms referring to State Military Organizations

The bill substitutes the term "North Carolina National Guard," where appropriate, for the following terms:

Terms Replaced by "North Carolina National Guard":	Replacement Found In:
State National Guard or Air National Guard	Section 69.(a) (G.S. 96-8(6)i.)
N.C. National Guard	Section 69.(c) (G.S. 96-8(10))
National Guard	Sections 77 (G.S. 115C-254), 86.(a) (G.S. 116-209.54(a)), 86.(b) (G.S. 116-209.54(c)(2)a.), 87 (G.S. 116-209.55(c)), 100 (G.S. 135-1(10)), 101 (G.S. 135-4(f)), 102 (G.S. 135-45.1(17))
national guard	Section 77 (G.S. 115C-254)
guard	Section 85 (G.S. 116-209.51)
Army National Guard and Air National Guard of this State	Section 100 (G.S. 135-1(10))
North Carolina Army and Air National Guard	Section 102 (G.S. 135-45.1(17))
State National Guard	Section 110 (G.S. 163-27.1(3))
North Carolina Air National Guard, or the North Carolina Army National Guard	Section 122 (G.S. 165-44.01(d)(1))

Section 10 amends G.S. 14-288.1 to substitute the term "North Carolina State Defense Militia" for the term "State defense militia," since the reference appears to be in a list of proper names.

Section 77 amends G.S. 115C-254 in part to standardize the references to the State defense militia. After the first reference, which uses the State defense militia's proper name, this section substitutes the term "State defense militia" for the terms "North Carolina State Defense Militia" and"State militia" in the remainder of the section to standardize the usage.

Other Amendments

Section 54 amends G.S. 90-12.1A(a)(3) to change "personnel enlisted" to "military personnel serving" because "personnel enlisted" excludes commissioned officers. The statute authorizes the North Carolina Medical Board to issue a "military limited volunteer license" to an applicant who, among other things, is authorized to treat "personnel enlisted" in a branch of the Armed Forces of the United States or veterans. The exclusion of commissioned officers appears to be unintentional. This change has been approved by the Executive Director of the North Carolina Medical Board.

Section 59 similarly amends G.S. 90-37.1(a)(1) to change "personnel enlisted" to personnel serving" because the existing language inadvertently excludes commissioned officers.

Section 74 amends G.S. 108A-55.3(b)(13) to change "U.S. Military" to "U.S. Department of Defense."

Sections 92, 93, 94, and 95 amend G.S. 127B-11, 127B-12, 127B-13, and 127B-14, respectively, to delete as redundant the words "or naval" in the phrase "military or naval forces of the State or of the United States."

Section 96 amends G.S. 128-15(c) to substitute the words "the military forces of this State or of the United States" for the words "either the army, navy, marine corps, nurses' corps, air corps, air force, coast guard, or any of the armed services."

Section 118 amends G.S. 165-25(10) to delete as redundant the words "or naval" in the phrase "military or naval service of the United States." This amendment is similar to the one in Sections 92, 93, 94, and 95.

The bill also makes conforming changes and other technical corrections to various sections of the General Statutes otherwise amended by the bill.

Section 127(a), (b), and (c) of the bill authorizes the Revisor of Statutes to make changes, consistent with this bill, in sections of the General Statutes added or amended during the 2011 General Assembly.

Section 128 provides that, except as provided in Section 69.(c) of the bill, the bill is effective when it becomes law. Section 69.(c) is effective July 1, 2011, and has a special effective date in order to coordinate with previously enacted technical corrections due to expire on that date.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO ADOPT PROVISIONS OF THE UNIFORM MILITARY AND OVERSEAS VOTERS ACT PROMULGATED BY THE NATIONAL CONFERENCE OF COMMISSIONERS ON UNIFORM STATE LAW, WHILE RETAINING EXISTING NORTH CAROLINA LAW MORE BENEFICIAL TO THOSE VOTERS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Chapter 163 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new Article to read:

"Article 21A.

"Uniform Military and Overseas Voters Act.

"§ 163-258.1. Short title.

This Article may be cited as the Uniform Military and Overseas Voters Act.

"§ 163-258.2. Definitions.

As used in this Article:

(1) "Covered voter" means any of the following:

a. A uniformed-service voter or an overseas voter who is registered to vote in this State.

b. A uniformed-service voter defined in subdivision (7) of this section whose voting residence is in this State and who otherwise satisfies this State's voter eligibility requirements.

c. An overseas voter who, before leaving the United States, was last eligible to vote in this State and, except for a State residency requirement, otherwise satisfies this State's voter eligibility requirements.

d. An overseas voter who, before leaving the United States, would have been last eligible to vote in this State had the voter then been of voting age and, except for a State residency requirement, otherwise satisfies this State's voter eligibility requirements.

e. An overseas voter who was born outside the United States, is not described in sub-subdivision c. or d. of this subdivision, and, except for a State residency requirement, otherwise satisfies this State's voter eligibility requirements, if:

1. The last place where a parent or legal guardian of the voter was, or under this Article would have been, eligible to vote before leaving the United States is within this State; and

2. The voter has not previously registered to vote in any other state.

(2) "Dependent" means an individual recognized as a dependent by a uniformed service.

(3) "Military-overseas ballot" means any of the following:

a. A federal write-in absentee ballot described in the Uniformed and Overseas Citizens Absentee Voting Act, section 103, 42 U.S.C. § 1973ff-2.

b. A ballot specifically prepared or distributed for use by a covered voter in accordance with this Article.

c. A ballot cast by a covered voter in accordance with this Article.

(4) "Overseas voter" means a United States citizen who is outside the United States.

(5) "State" means a state of the United States, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the United States Virgin Islands, or any territory or insular possession subject to the jurisdiction of the United States.

(6) "Uniformed service" means any of the following:

a. Active and reserve components of the Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard of the United States.

b. The Merchant Marine, the commissioned corps of the Public Health Service, and the commissioned corps of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration of the United States.

c. The National Guard and state militia units.

(7) "Uniformed-service voter" means an individual who is qualified to vote and is one of the following:

a. A member of the active or reserve components of the Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard of the United States who is on active duty.

b. A member of the Merchant Marine, the commissioned corps of the Public Health Service, or the commissioned corps of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration of the United States.

c. A member of the National Guard or state militia unit who is on activated status.

d. A spouse or dependent of a member referred to in this subdivision.

(8) "United States," used in the territorial sense, means the several states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the United States Virgin Islands, and any territory or insular possession subject to the jurisdiction of the United States.

"§ 163-258.3. Elections covered.

The voting procedures in this Article apply to all of the following:

(1) A primary, general, or special election for federal or State office.

(2) A State ballot measure.

(3) A primary, general, special, or runoff election for local government office or a local ballot measure if absentee balloting is allowed under Article 20 of this Chapter.

"§ 163-258.4. Role of State Board of Elections.

(a) The State Board of Elections is the State official responsible for implementing this Article and the State's responsibilities under the Uniformed and Overseas Citizens Absentee Voting Act, 42 U.S.C. § 1973ff, et seq.

(b) The State Board of Elections shall make available to covered voters information regarding voter registration procedures for covered voters and procedures for casting military-overseas ballots. The State Board of Elections may delegate the responsibility under this subsection only to the State office designated in compliance with the Uniformed and Overseas Citizens Absentee Voting Act, section 102(b)(1), 42 U.S.C. § 1973ff-1(b)(1).

(c) The State Board of Elections shall establish an electronic transmission system through which covered voters may apply for and receive voter registration materials, military-overseas ballots, and other information under this Article.

(d) The State Board of Elections shall develop standardized absentee-voting materials, including privacy and transmission envelopes and their electronic equivalents, authentication materials, and voting instructions, to be used with the military-overseas ballot of a voter authorized to vote in any jurisdiction in this State, and, to the extent reasonably possible, shall do so in coordination with other states.

(e) The State Board of Elections shall prescribe the form and content of a declaration for use by a covered voter to swear or affirm specific representations pertaining to the voter's identity, eligibility to vote, status as a covered voter, and timely and proper completion of an overseas-military ballot. The declaration shall be based on the declaration prescribed to accompany a federal write-in absentee ballot under the Uniformed and Overseas Citizens Absentee Voting Act, section 103, 42 U.S.C. § 1973ff-2, as modified to be consistent with this Article. The State Board of Elections shall ensure that a form for the execution of the declaration, including an indication of the date of execution of the declaration, is a prominent part of all balloting materials for which the declaration is required.

"§ 163-258.5. Overseas voter's registration address.

In registering to vote, an overseas voter who is eligible to vote in this State shall use and shall be assigned to the precinct of the address of the last place of residence of the voter in this State, or, in the case of a voter described by G.S. 163-258.2(1)e., the address of the last place of residence in this State of the parent or legal guardian of the voter. If that address is no longer a recognized residential address, the voter shall be assigned an address for voting purposes.

"§ 163-258.6. Methods of registering to vote.

(a) In addition to any other approved method for registering to vote, a covered voter may use a federal postcard application, as prescribed under the Uniformed and Overseas Citizens Absentee Voting Act, section 101(b)(2), 42 U.S.C. § 1973ff(b)(2), or the application's electronic equivalent, to apply to register to vote.

(b) A covered voter may use the declaration accompanying the federal write-in absentee ballot, as prescribed under the Uniformed and Overseas Citizens Absentee Voting Act, section 103, 42 U.S.C. § 1973ff-2, to apply to register to vote simultaneously with the submission of the federal write-in absentee ballot.

(c) The State Board of Elections shall ensure that the electronic transmission system described in G.S. 163-258.4(c) is capable of accepting both a federal postcard application and any other approved electronic registration application sent to the appropriate election official. The voter may use the electronic transmission system or any other approved method to register to vote.

(d) A covered voter's registration to vote by any method authorized by this section may be received at any time prior to the primary or election, but no later than 5:00 P.M. on the day before the primary or election.

"§ 163-258.7. Methods of applying for military-overseas ballot.

(a) A covered voter who is registered to vote in this State may apply for a military-overseas ballot using either the regular application provided by Article 20 of this Chapter or the federal postcard application, as prescribed under the Uniformed and Overseas Citizens Absentee Voting Act, section 101(b)(2), 42 U.S.C. § 1973ff(b)(2), or the application's electronic equivalent.

(b) A covered voter who is not registered to vote in this State may use the federal postcard application or the application's electronic equivalent simultaneously to apply to register to vote under G.S. 163-258.6 and to apply for a military-overseas ballot.

(c) The State Board of Elections shall ensure that the electronic transmission system described in G.S. 163-258.4(c) is capable of accepting the submission of both a federal postcard application and any other approved electronic military-overseas ballot application sent to the appropriate election official. The voter may use the electronic transmission system or any other approved method to apply for a military-overseas ballot.

(d) A covered voter may use the declaration accompanying the federal write-in absentee ballot, as prescribed under the Uniformed and Overseas Citizens Absentee Voting Act, section 103, 42 U.S.C. § 1973ff-2, as an application for a military-overseas ballot simultaneously with the submission of the federal write-in absentee ballot, if the declaration is received by the appropriate election official no later than 5:00 P.M. on the day before the election.

(e) To receive the benefits of this Article, a covered voter shall inform the appropriate election official that the voter is a covered voter. Methods of informing the appropriate election official that a voter is a covered voter include any of the following:

(1) The use of a federal postcard application or federal write-in absentee ballot.

(2) The use of an overseas address on an approved voter registration application or ballot application.

(3) The inclusion on an approved voter registration application or ballot application of other information sufficient to identify the voter as a covered voter.

(f) This Article does not preclude a covered voter from voting an absentee ballot under Article 20 of this Chapter.

"§ 163-258.8. Timeliness and scope of application for military-overseas ballot.

An application for a military-overseas ballot is timely if received by the appropriate election official by 5:00 P.M. of the day before the election or primary. An application from a covered voter for a military-overseas ballot shall be considered a valid absentee ballot request for any election covered under G.S. 163-258.3 held during the calendar year in which the application was received.

"§ 163-258.9. Transmission of unvoted ballots.

(a) Not later than 60 days before the statewide general election in even-numbered years and not later than 50 days before any other election, the county board of elections shall transmit a ballot and balloting materials to all covered voters who by that date submit a valid military-overseas ballot application, except for a second primary. However, in the case of municipal elections, absentee ballots shall be made available no later than 30 days before an election. For a second primary which includes a candidate for federal office, the county board of elections shall transmit a ballot and balloting material to all covered voters who by that date submit a valid military-overseas ballot application no later than 45 days before the second primary. For a second primary which does not include a candidate for federal office, the transmission of the ballot and ballot materials shall be as soon as practicable, and shall be transmitted electronically no later than three business days and by mail no later than 15 days from the date the appropriate board of elections orders that the second primary be held pursuant to G.S. 163-111. If additional offices are added to the ballot to fill a vacancy occurring after the deadline provided by this subsection, those ballots shall be transmitted as soon as practicable.

(b) A covered voter who requests that a ballot and balloting materials be sent to the voter by electronic transmission may choose facsimile transmission or electronic mail delivery, or, if offered by the voter's jurisdiction, Internet delivery. The election official in each jurisdiction charged with distributing a ballot and balloting materials shall transmit the ballot and balloting materials to the voter using the means of transmission chosen by the voter.

(c) If a ballot application from a covered voter arrives after the jurisdiction begins transmitting ballots and balloting materials to voters, the official charged with distributing a ballot and balloting materials shall transmit them to the voter not later than two business days after the application arrives.

"§ 163-258.10. Timely casting of ballot.

To be valid, a military-overseas ballot shall either be received by the appropriate county board of elections no later than the close of the polls or the covered voter shall submit the ballot for mailing, electronic transmission, or other authorized means of delivery not later than 12:01 A.M., at the place where the voter completes the ballot, on the date of the election.

"§ 163-258.11. Federal write-in absentee ballot.

A covered voter may use the federal write-in absentee ballot, in accordance with the Uniformed and Overseas Citizens Absentee Voting Act, section 103, 42 U.S.C. § 1973ff-2, to vote for all offices and ballot measures in a covered election.

"§ 163-258.12. Receipt of voted ballot.

(a) A valid military-overseas ballot cast in accordance with G.S. 163-258.10 shall be counted if it is delivered to the address that the appropriate State or local election office has specified by the end of business on the business day before the canvass conducted by the county board of elections held pursuant to G.S. 163-182.5 to determine the final official results.

(b) If the ballot is timely received, it may not be rejected on the basis that it has a late postmark, an unreadable postmark, or no postmark.

"§ 163-258.13. Declaration.

Each military-overseas ballot shall include or be accompanied by a declaration signed by the voter declaring that a material misstatement of fact in completing the document may be grounds for a conviction of perjury under the laws of the United States or this State.

"§ 163-258.14. Confirmation of receipt of application and voted ballot.

The State Board of Elections, in coordination with local election officials, shall implement an electronic free-access system by which a covered voter may determine by telephone, electronic mail, or Internet whether:

(1) The voter's federal postcard application or other registration or military-overseas ballot application has been received and accepted; and

(2) The voter's military-overseas ballot has been received and the current status of the ballot.

"§ 163-258.15. Use of voter's electronic mail address.

(a) The county board of elections shall request an electronic-mail address from each covered voter who registers to vote after January 1, 2012. An electronic-mail address provided by a covered voter is not a public record under Chapter 132 of the General Statutes. The address may be used only for official communication with the voter about the voting process, including transmitting military-overseas ballots and election materials if the voter has requested electronic transmission, and verifying the voter's mailing address and physical location, as needed. The request for an electronic-mail address shall describe the purposes for which the electronic-mail address may be used and include a statement that any other use or disclosure of the electronic-mail address is prohibited.

(b) A covered voter who provides an electronic-mail address may request that the voter's application for a military-overseas ballot be considered a standing request for electronic delivery of a ballot for all elections held through December 31 of the year following the calendar year of the date of the application or another shorter period the voter specifies, including for any runoff elections that occur as a result of such elections. An election official shall provide a military-overseas ballot to a voter who makes a request for each election to which the request is applicable. A covered voter entitled to receive a military-overseas ballot for a primary election under this subsection is also entitled to receive a military-overseas ballot for the general election.

"§ 163-258.16. Publication of election notice.

(a) Not later than 100 days before a regularly scheduled election to which this Article applies, and as soon as practicable in the case of an election or vacancy election not regularly scheduled, each county board of elections shall prepare an election notice for that jurisdiction to be used in conjunction with the federal write-in absentee ballot described in

G.S. 163-258.11. For a second primary required by G.S 163-111, the county board of elections shall prepare, no later than the day following the date the appropriate board of elections orders that a second primary be held, an election notice for that jurisdiction to be used in conjunction with the federal write-in absentee ballot. The election notice shall contain a list of all of the ballot measures and federal, State, and local offices that as of that date the official expects to be on the ballot on the date of the election. The notice also shall contain specific instructions for how a voter is to indicate on the federal write-in absentee ballot the voter's choice for each office to be filled and for each ballot measure to be contested.

(b) A covered voter may request a copy of an election notice. The official charged with preparing the election notice shall send the notice to the voter by facsimile, electronic mail, or regular mail, as the voter requests.

(c) As soon as ballot styles are printed, the county board of elections shall update the notice with the certified candidates for each office and ballot measure questions and make the updated notice publicly available.

(d) A county board of elections that maintains an Internet Web site shall make updated versions of its election notices regularly available on the Web site.

"§ 163-258.17. Prohibition of nonessential requirements.

(a) If a voter's mistake or omission in the completion of a document under this Article does not prevent determining whether a covered voter is eligible to vote, the mistake or omission does not invalidate the document. Failure to satisfy a nonessential requirement, such as using paper or envelopes of a specified size or weight, does not invalidate a document submitted under this Article. In any write-in ballot authorized by this Article or in any vote for a write-in candidate on a regular ballot, if the intention of the voter is discernable under this State's uniform definition of what constitutes a vote, as required by the Help America Vote Act, 42 U.S.C. § 15481(a)(6), an abbreviation, misspelling, or other minor variation in the form of the name of a candidate or a political party shall be accepted as a valid vote.

(b) An authentication, other than the declaration specified in G.S. 163-278.13 or the declaration on the federal postcard application and federal write-in absentee ballot, is not required for execution of a document under this Article. The declaration and any information in the declaration may be compared against information on file to ascertain the validity of the document.

"§ 163-258.18. Issuance of injunction or other equitable relief.

A court may issue an injunction or grant other equitable relief appropriate to ensure substantial compliance with, or enforce, this Article on application by:

(1) A covered voter alleging a grievance under this Article; or

(2) An election official in this State.

"§ 163-258.19. Uniformity of application and construction.

In applying and construing this uniform act, consideration shall be given to the need to promote uniformity of the law with respect to its subject matter among states that enact it.

"§ 163-258.20. Relation to Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act.

This Article modifies, limits, and supersedes the federal Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act, 15 U.S.C. § 7001, et seq., but does not modify, limit, or supersede section 101(c) of that act, 15 U.S.C. § 7001(c), or authorize electronic delivery of any of the notices described in section 103(b) of that act, 15 U.S.C. § 7003(b)."

SECTION 2. Article 21 of Chapter 163 of the General Statutes is repealed, except that G.S. 163-251, 253, 254, 255, 256, and 258 are recodified as G.S. 163-258.21 through G.S. 163-258.26, respectively, and as such read as rewritten:

"§ ~~163-258-21.~~163-258.21 Certified list of approved ~~military-absentee~~military-overseas ballot applications; record of ballots received; disposition of list; list constitutes registration.

(a) Preparation of List. – The ~~chairman~~ chair of the county board of elections shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, a list in quadruplicate of all ~~military absentee~~military-overseas ballots returned to the county board of elections under this Article to be counted which have been approved by the county board of elections. At the end of the list the ~~chairman~~ chair shall execute the following certificate under oath:

"State of North Carolina
County of _____
I, _____, ~~Chairman~~ Chair of the _____ County Board of Elections, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a list of all executed ~~military absentee~~military-overseas ballots to be voted in the election to be conducted on the _____ day of _____, _____, which have been approved by the County Board of Elections. I further certify that I have issued ballots to no other persons than those listed herein and further that I have not delivered ~~military absentee~~military-overseas ballots to persons other than those listed herein; that this list constitutes the only precinct registration of ~~military absentee~~covered voters whose names have not heretofore been entered on the regular registration of the appropriate precinct.
This the _____ day of _____, _____.

_____
(Signature of ~~Chairman~~ Chair of County Board of Elections)
Sworn to and subscribed before me this _____ day of _____, _____

_____
(Signature of Officer administering oath)

(Title of officer)"

(b) Distribution of List. – No earlier than 3:00 P.M. on the day before the election and no later than 10:00 A.M. on election day, the ~~chairman~~ chair shall cause one copy of the list of executed ~~military absentee~~military-overseas ballots, which may be a continuing countywide list or a separate list for each precinct, to be immediately deposited as first-class mail to the State Board of Elections. The ~~chairman~~ chair shall retain one copy in the board office for public inspection and ~~he~~ shall cause two copies of the appropriate precinct list to be delivered to the chief judge of each precinct in the county. The chief judge shall post one copy in the voting place and retain one copy until all challenges of absentee ballots have been heard by the county board of elections. Challenges shall be made as provided in G.S. 163-89.

After receipt of the list of absentee voters required by this section the chief judge shall call the name of each person recorded on the list and enter an "A" in the appropriate voting square on the voter's permanent registration record, if ~~any~~ any, or a similar entry on the computer list used at the polls. If such person is already recorded as having voted in that election, the chief judge shall enter a challenge which shall be presented to the ~~chairman~~ chair of the county board of elections for resolution by the board of elections prior to certification of results by the board.

(c) List Constitutes Registration. – The "List of Applicants for ~~Military Absentee~~Military-Overseas Ballots to Whom Ballots Have Been Issued" prescribed by this section, when delivered to the chief judges of the various precincts, shall constitute the only precinct registration of the ~~military absentee~~covered voters listed thereon whose names are not already entered in the registration records of the appropriate precinct. Chief judges shall not add the names of persons listed on the ~~military absentee~~ covered voters list to the regular registration books of their precincts.

(d) Counting Ballots, Hearing Challenges. – The county board of elections shall count ~~military~~ military-overseas ballots as provided for civilian absentee ballots in G.S. 163-234, and shall hear challenges as provided in G.S. 163-89.

"§ 163-258.22. Article inapplicable to persons after change of status; reregistration not required.

~~Upon discharge from the armed forces of the United States or termination of any other status qualifying the voter to register and vote by absentee ballot~~An individual who no longer qualifies as a covered voter under the provisions of this ~~Article, the voter~~Article shall not be entitled subsequently to vote by ~~military absentee ballot,~~military-overseas ballot under this Article, but if the covered voter was registered under the provisions of this Article that voter's registration shall remain valid for the remainder of the calendar year that voter registered, and that voter shall be entitled to vote in any primary or election for the remainder of the calendar year without having to reregister. If requested by election officials, the voter shall present proof of military status at the time of registration. This section does not entitle a person to vote in North Carolina if that person has become disqualified because of change of permanent residence to another State or because of conviction of a felony.

"§ 163-258.23. Registration and voting on primary or election day.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of ~~Chapter 163 of the General Statutes,~~ this Chapter, an individual shall be permitted to register in person at any time the office of the board of elections or the voting place is open, including the day of a primary or election if that individual was absent on the day the registration records close for an election, but returns to that individual's county of residence in North Carolina thereafter, and if the absence is due to uniformed service as defined by G.S. 163-258.2. ~~an occupation or status of that individual listed below:~~

~~(1) Individuals serving in the armed forces of the United States, including (but not limited to) the Army, the Navy, the Air Force, the Marine Corps, the Coast Guard, the Merchant Marine, the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, the commissioned corps of the Public Health Service, and members of the National Guard and military reserve.~~

~~(2) Spouses of individuals serving in the armed forces of the United States residing outside the counties of their spouses' voting residence.~~

~~(3) Disabled war veterans in United States government hospitals.~~

~~(4) Civilians attached to and serving outside the United States with the armed forces of the United States.~~

~~(5) Members of the Peace Corps.~~

If an individual so absent on the day registration closes shall appear in person at the voting place on election day and is otherwise eligible to vote, that individual shall be entitled to register and vote at the voting place that day, regardless of whether the person's ~~occupation or status as outlined in subdivisions (1) through (5) of this section~~ uniformed service status has changed since the close of registration.

"§ 163-258.24. Absentee voting at office of board of elections.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of ~~Chapter 163 of the General Statutes,~~ this Chapter, any ~~person eligible to vote an absentee ballot pursuant to G.S. 163-245~~covered voter under this Article shall be permitted to vote an absentee ballot pursuant to G.S. 163-227.2 if the ~~person~~ covered voter has not already voted an absentee ballot which has been returned to the board of elections, and if ~~he~~ the covered voter will not be in the county on the day of the primary or election.

In the event an absentee application or ballot has already been mailed to ~~such person~~the covered voter applying to vote pursuant to G.S. 163-227.2, the board of elections shall void the application and ballot unless the voted absentee ballot has been received by the board of elections. ~~Such person~~The covered voter shall be eligible to vote pursuant to G.S. 163-227.2 no later than 5:00 P.M. on the day next preceding the primary, second primary or election.

"§ 163-258.25. Regulations of State Board of Elections.

(a) The State Board of Elections shall adopt rules and regulations to carry out the intent and purpose of G.S. ~~163-254 and 163-255,~~ 163-278.23 and G.S. 163-278.24 and to ensure that a proper list of persons voting under said sections shall be maintained by the boards of elections, and to ensure proper registration records, and such rules and regulations shall not be subject to the provisions of Article 2A of Chapter 150B of the General Statutes.

(b) The State Board of Elections shall be the single office responsible for providing information concerning voter registration and absentee voting procedures to be used by ~~absent uniformed services voters and overseas~~covered voters as to all elections and procedures relating to the use of federal write-in absentee ballots. Unless otherwise required by law, the State Board of Elections shall be responsible for maintaining contact and cooperation with the Federal Voting Assistance Program, the United States Department of Defense, and other federal entities that deal with military and overseas voting. The State Board of Elections shall, as needed, make recommendations concerning military and overseas citizen voting to the General Assembly, the Governor, and other State officials.

"§ 163-258.26. Emergency powers.

If an international, national, or local emergency or other situation arises that makes substantial compliance with this Article or the Uniformed and Overseas Citizens Absentee Voting Act impossible or unreasonable, the State Board of Elections may prescribe, by emergency rule, such special procedures or requirements as may be necessary to facilitate absentee voting by those absent uniformed services voters or overseas voters directly affected who are eligible to vote in this State. The rule shall become effective when filed with the Codifier of Rules."

SECTION 3. G.S. 163-22(k) reads as rewritten:

"(k) Notwithstanding the provisions contained in Article 20 or Article ~~21~~ 21A of Chapter 163 the State Board of Elections shall be authorized, by resolution adopted prior to the printing of the primary ballots, to reduce the time by which absentee ballots are required to be printed and distributed for the primary election from 50 days to 45 days. This authority shall not be authorized for absentee ballots to be voted in the general election, except if the law requires ballots to be available for mailing 60 days before the general election, and they are not ready by that date, the State Board of Elections shall allow the counties to mail them out as soon as they are available."

SECTION 4. G.S. 163-111(e) reads as rewritten:

"(e) Date of Second Primary; Procedures. – If a second primary is required under the provisions of this section, the appropriate board of elections, State or county, shall order that it be held ~~seven weeks after the first primary.~~10 weeks after the first primary if any of the offices for which a second primary is required are for a candidate for the office of United States Senate or member of the United State House of Representatives. Otherwise, the second primary shall be held seven weeks after the first primary.

There shall be no registration of voters between the dates of the first and second primaries. Persons whose qualifications to register and vote mature after the day of the first primary and before the day of the second primary may register on the day of the second primary and, when thus registered, shall be entitled to vote in the second primary. The second primary is a continuation of the first primary and any voter who files a proper and timely written affirmation of change of address within the county under the provisions of G.S. 163-82.15, in the first primary may vote in the second primary without having to refile that written affirmation if ~~he~~ the voter is otherwise qualified to vote in the second primary. Subject to this provision for registration, the second primary shall be held under the laws, rules, and regulations provided for the first primary."

SECTION 5. G.S. 163-231(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Transmitting Executed Absentee Ballots to County Board of Elections. – The sealed container-return envelope in which executed absentee ballots have been placed shall be transmitted to the county board of elections who issued them as follows: All ballots issued under the provisions of Articles 20 and ~~21~~ 21A of this Chapter shall be transmitted by mail or by commercial courier service, at the voter's expense, or delivered in person, or by the voter's near relative or verifiable legal guardian not later than 5:00 p.m. on the day before the statewide primary or general election or county bond election. Ballots issued under the provisions of Article 21A may also be electronically transmitted. If ballots are received later than that hour, they shall not be accepted unless (i) federal law so requires, (ii) if ballots issued under Article 20 of this Chapter are postmarked by the day of the statewide primary or general election or county bond election and are received by the county board of elections not later than three days after the election by 5:00 p.m., or (iii) if ballots issued under Article ~~21~~ 21A of this Chapter are received by the county board of elections not later than the end of business on the business day before the canvass conducted by the county board of elections held pursuant to G.S. 163-182.5. ~~three days after the election by 5:00 p.m.~~ Ballots issued under Article 20 of this Chapter not postmarked by the day of the election shall not be accepted by the county board of elections."

SECTION 6. G.S. 163-232.1(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) The county board of elections shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, a list in at least triplicate, of all ~~military-absentee~~military-overseas ballots issued under Article ~~21~~ 21A of this Chapter and returned to the county board of elections to be counted, which have been approved by the county board of elections, have not been included on the certified list prepared pursuant to G.S. 163-232, and which have been received by the county board of elections not later than three days after the election by 5:00 p.m. The list shall be supplemented with new information each business day following the day of the election until the deadline for receipt of such absentee ballots. At the end of the list, the ~~chairman~~ chair shall execute the following certificate under oath:

"State of North Carolina

County of _____

I, _____, ~~chairman~~ chair of the _____ County Board of Elections, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a list of all executed ~~military-absentee~~military-overseas ballots to be voted in the election to be conducted on the ____ day of _____, _____, which have been approved by the county board of elections, and which have been postmarked by the day of the statewide primary or general election or county bond election and received by the county board of elections not later than three days after the election by 5:00 p.m. I further certify that I have issued ballots to no other persons than those listed herein and further that I have not delivered ~~military-absentee~~military-overseas ballots to persons other than those listed herein; that this list constitutes the only precinct registration of ~~military-absentee~~covered voters whose names have not heretofore been entered on the regular registration of the appropriate precinct.

SECTION 7. G.S. 163-234(2) reads as rewritten:

"(2) The county board of elections shall meet at 5:00 p.m. on election day in the board office or other public location in the county courthouse for the purpose of counting all absentee ballots except those which have been challenged before 5:00 p.m. on election day and those received pursuant to G.S. 163-231(b)(ii) or (iii). Any elector of the county shall be permitted to attend the meeting and allowed to observe the counting process, provided the elector shall not in any manner interfere with the election officials in the discharge of their duties.

Provided, that the county board of elections is authorized to begin counting absentee ballots issued under Article 21A of this Chapter between the hours of 9:00 A.M. and 5:00 P.M and to begin counting all absentee ballots between the hours of 2:00 p.m. and 5:00 p.m. upon the adoption of a resolution at least two weeks prior to the election wherein the hour and place of counting absentee ballots shall be stated. Such resolution also may provide for an additional meeting following the day of the election and prior to the day of canvass to count absentee ballots received pursuant to G.S. 163-231(b)(ii) or (iii) as provided in subdivision (10) of this section. A copy of the resolutions shall be published once a week for two weeks prior to the election, in a newspaper having general circulation in the county. Notice may additionally be made on a radio or television station or both, but such notice shall be in addition to the newspaper and other required notice. The count shall be continuous until completed and the members shall not separate or leave the counting place except for unavoidable necessity, except that if the count has been completed prior to the time the polls close, it shall be suspended until that time pending receipt of any additional ballots. Nothing in this section shall prohibit a county board of elections from taking preparatory steps for the count earlier than the times specified in this section, as long as the preparatory steps do not reveal to any individual not engaged in the actual count election results before the times specified in this subdivision for the count to begin. By way of illustration and not limitation, a preparatory step for the count would be the entry of tally cards from direct record electronic voting units into a computer for processing. The board shall not announce the result of the count before 7:30 p.m."

SECTION 8. G.S. 163-239 reads as rewritten:

"§ 163-239. Article ~~21~~ 21A relating to absentee voting by ~~servicemen and certain civilians~~ military and overseas voters not applicable.

Except as otherwise provided therein, Article ~~21~~ 21A of this ~~Chapter, relating to absentee registration and voting by servicemen and certain civilians,~~ Chapter shall not apply to or modify the provisions of this Article."

SECTION 9. This act becomes effective January 1, 2012.

and on page 11, lines 40-41 by inserting the following between those lines:

"SECTION 9. G.S. 163-82.10(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) Official Record. – The State voter registration system is the official voter registration list for the conduct of all elections in the State. The State Board of Elections and the county board of elections may keep copies of voter registration data, including voter registration applications, in any medium and format expressly approved by the Department of Cultural Resources pursuant to standards and conditions established by the Department and mutually agreed to by the Department and the State Board of Elections. A completed and signed registration application form, if available, described in G.S. 163-82.3, once approved by the county board of elections, becomes backup to the official registration record of the voter. Full or partial social security numbers, dates of birth, the identity of the public agency at which the voter registered under G.S. 163-82.20, any electronic-mail address submitted under Article 21A of this Chapter, and drivers license numbers that may be generated in the voter registration process, by either the State Board of Elections or a county board of elections, are confidential and shall not be considered public records and subject to disclosure to the general public under Chapter 132 of the General Statutes. Cumulative data based on those items of information may be publicly disclosed as long as information about any individual cannot be discerned from the disclosed data. Disclosure of information in violation of this subsection shall not give rise to a civil cause of action. This limitation of liability does not apply to the disclosure of information in violation of this subsection as a result of gross negligence, wanton conduct, or intentional wrongdoing that would otherwise be actionable. The signature of the voter, either on the paper application or an electronically captured image of it, may be viewed by the public but may not be copied or traced except by election officials for election administration purposes. A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO PROTECT CONSUMERS BY REQUIRING NOTICE OF BUYER'S RIGHT TO CHOOSE TITLE INSURER AND CLOSING ATTORNEY. .

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Chapter 45 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 45-45.3. Buyer's choice of title insurer and closing attorney.

(a) The following definitions apply in this section:

(1) Acquiring party. – Any person or entity who acquires residential property through a judicial foreclosure or foreclosure under power of sale of a deed of trust or mortgage held by such person or entity, or held by another person or entity who assigned the successful bid at the foreclosure sale to such person or entity that acquired the residential property, and who seeks to sell the residential property to a buyer.

(2) Conspicuous. – In reference to a document, language that is so written, displayed, or presented that a reasonable person who reads the notice ought to have noticed it. Whether a term is "conspicuous" or not is a decision for the court. Conspicuous terms include the following:

a. A heading in capitals equal to or greater in size than the surrounding text, or in contrasting type, font, or color to the surrounding text of the same or lesser size; and

b. Language in the body of a record or display in larger type than the surrounding text, or in contrasting type, font, or color to the surrounding text of the same size, or set off from surrounding text of the same size by symbols or other marks that call attention to the language.

(3) Residential property. – Real property improved by four or fewer dwelling units acquired by an acquiring party through a judicial foreclosure or foreclosure under power of sale.

(b) A buyer of residential property shall have the right to select the title insurer and closing attorney of the buyer's choice.

(c) This section shall not prohibit a buyer from agreeing to accept the services of a title insurer and/or a closing attorney selected or designated by the acquiring party to be used in the transaction if written notice of the right to make an independent selection of those services is first provided to the buyer by the acquiring party. The notice may either be separate from or included in the sales contract, and in either event, shall:

(1) contain the following conspicuous statement: "The Buyer shall have the right to make an independent selection of title insurance and closing attorney services. The buyer's use of title insurance and closing attorney services selected or designated by the Seller is not a condition of this sale."; and

(2) provide, in conspicuous language, that a buyer who agrees to accept the services of a title insurer or a closing attorney selected or designated by the acquiring party to be used in the transaction may rescind the buyer's acceptance of such services at any time not later than ten (10) days after the written notice is received by the buyer.

The notice may also contain the following statement: "If the buyer selects the title insurer and closing attorney, the buyer's closing costs may be different from the closing costs charged by the title insurer and closing attorney selected by the seller."

(d) A transaction subject to this section shall not be invalidated because of the failure of any person to comply with any provision of this section."

SECTION 2. This act is effective when it becomes law and applies to all sales placed under a sales contract on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 518:
Buyer Choice/Title Insurer & Settlement Agent

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary I	Date:	June 8, 2011
Introduced by:	Sens. Vaughan, Stein	Prepared by:	Bill Patterson
Analysis of:	PCS to First Edition S518-CSTG-33		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: The PCS to Senate Bill 518 requires any person selling residential real property improved by four or fewer dwelling units obtained through foreclosure to provide a buyer of the property with notice of the buyer's right to use a title insurer or closing attorney of the buyer's choosing. (The PCS removed provisions in the original bill prohibiting a mortgagee from requiring a buyer to use the title insurer or settlement agent designated by the mortgagee and imposing liability for violations, and substituted the term "closing attorney" for "settlement agent.")

BILL ANALYSIS: Senate Bill 518 adds a new G.S. 45-45.3 to Article 5 of Chapter 45, Mortgages and Deeds of Trusts, requiring any person selling residential real property improved by four or fewer dwelling units, acquired through foreclosure, to provide written notice to a buyer of the buyer's right to choose the title insurer or closing attorney.

A violation of this provision does not invalidate any transaction subject to it.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act is effective when it becomes law and applies to all sales placed under a sales contract on or after that date.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE PHYSICIAN ASSISTANTS AND NURSE PRACTITIONERS TO COMPLETE MEDICAL CERTIFICATIONS AS TO THE CAUSE OF DEATH FOR DEATH REGISTRATION.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 90-18.1 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(e1) Any medical certification completed by a physician assistant for a death certificate shall be deemed to have been authorized by the physician approved by the Board as the supervisor of the physician assistant, and the supervising physician shall be responsible for authorizing the completion of the medical certification."

SECTION 2. G.S. 90-18.2 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(e1) Any medical certification completed by a nurse practitioner for a death certificate shall be deemed to have been authorized by the physician approved by the boards as the supervisor of the nurse practitioner, and the supervising physician shall be responsible for authorizing the completion of the medical certification."

SECTION 3. G.S. 130A-115(c) and (d) read as rewritten:

"(c) The medical certification shall be completed and signed by the physician in charge of the patient's care for the illness or condition which resulted in death, except when the death falls within the circumstances described in G.S. 130A-383. In the absence of the physician or with the physician's approval, the certificate may be completed and signed by an associate physician, a physician assistant in a manner consistent with G.S. 90-18.1(e1), a nurse practitioner in a manner consistent with G.S. 90-18.2(e1), the chief medical officer of the hospital or facility in which the death occurred or a physician who performed an autopsy upon the decedent under the following circumstances: the individual has access to the medical history of the deceased; the individual has viewed the deceased at or after death; and the death is due to natural causes. When specifically approved by the State Registrar, an electronic signature or facsimile signature of the ~~physician~~ physician, physician assistant, or nurse practitioner shall be acceptable. As used in this section, the term electronic signature has the same meaning as applies in G.S. 66-58.2. The ~~physician~~ physician, physician assistant, or nurse practitioner shall state the cause of death on the certificate in definite and precise terms. A certificate containing any indefinite terms or denoting only symptoms of disease or conditions resulting from disease as defined by the State Registrar, shall be returned to the person making the medical certification for correction and more definite statement.

(d) The ~~physician~~ physician, physician assistant, nurse practitioner, or medical examiner making the medical certification as to the cause of death shall complete the medical certification no more than three days after death. The ~~physician~~ physician, physician assistant, nurse practitioner, or medical examiner may, in appropriate cases, designate the cause of death as unknown pending an autopsy or upon some other reasonable cause for delay, but shall send the supplementary information to the local registrar as soon as it is obtained."

SECTION 4. This act becomes effective October 1, 2011, and applies to certifications signed on or after that date.

HOUSE BILL 331:
Allow PAs and NPs to Sign Death Cert

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary I	Date:	June 9, 2011
Introduced by:	Reps. Hollo, Brubaker, Dollar, Justice	Prepared by:	Brad Krehely
Analysis of:	Second Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 331 would allow physician assistants and nurse practitioners to complete medical certifications as to the cause of death.

CURRENT LAW: G.S. 130A-115 governs the registration of deaths that occur in North Carolina. The statute provides that for each death occurring in the State a death certificate shall be completed and filed within 5 days to the local registrar in the county where the death occurred, where the body was found, or where the body was removed from the conveyance in the case where the death occurred in a moving conveyance. The statute further provides that the person making the medical certification as to the cause of death shall complete the certificate within 3 days of the death.

Except for deaths resulting from violence, poisoning, accident, suicide or homicide, or occurring in certain State facilities, the medical certificate is completed and signed by the physician in charge of the patient's care for the illness or condition which resulted in death. A certificate may also be completed and signed by a physician who performed the autopsy, an associate physician, or the chief medical examiner of the hospital/facility where the death occurred if the death was due to natural causes and the individual had access to the medical history and viewed the deceased at or after death. Currently, physician assistants and nurse practitioners may not sign death certificates.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 provides that a physician assistant may complete a medical certification for a death certificate, and it will be deemed to have been authorized by the physician assistant's supervising physician.

Section 2 provides that a nurse practitioner may complete a medical certification for a death certificate, and it will be deemed to have been authorized by the nurse practitioner's supervising physician.

Section 3 allows physician assistants and nurse practitioners to use electronic or facsimile signatures on medical certifications of death certificates without specific approval by the State Registrar. It also makes conforming changes.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The act becomes effective October 1, 2011, and applies to certifications signed on or after that date.

BACKGROUND: The provisions of House Bill 331 are identical to the provisions in the Second Edition of Senate Bill 191- Death Certificate Signatures. That version of Senate Bill 191 received a favorable report in Senate Judiciary I on March 21, 2011, passed the Senate, and currently is in the House Health and Human Services Committee.

Referred to:

March 17, 2011

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO ENACT THE NORTH CAROLINA INTERSTATE DEPOSITIONS AND DISCOVERY ACT AND TO MAKE CONFORMING AMENDMENTS TO THE NORTH CAROLINA RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. The General Statutes are amended by adding a new Chapter to read:

"Chapter 1F.

"North Carolina Interstate Deposition and Discovery Act.

"§ 1F-1. Short title.

This Chapter may be cited as the 'North Carolina Uniform Interstate Depositions and Discovery Act.'

"§ 1F-2. Definitions.

The following definitions apply in this Chapter:

(1) Foreign jurisdiction. – A state other than North Carolina.

(2) Foreign subpoena. – A subpoena issued under authority of a court of record of a foreign jurisdiction.

(3) Person. – An individual, corporation, business trust, estate, trust, partnership, limited liability company, association, joint venture, public corporation, government, or governmental subdivision, agency, or instrumentality, or any other legal or commercial entity.

(4) State. – A state of the United States, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the United States Virgin Islands, a federally recognized Indian tribe, or any territory or insular possession subject to the jurisdiction of the United States.

(5) Subpoena. – A document, however denominated, issued under authority of a court of record requiring a person to:

a. Attend and give testimony at a deposition, either oral or upon written questions;

b. Produce and permit inspection and copying of designated books, documents, records, electronically stored information, or tangible things in the possession, custody, or control of the person; or

c. Permit inspection of premises under the control of the person.

"§ 1F-3. Issuance of subpoena.

(a) To request issuance of a subpoena under this section, a party must submit a foreign subpoena to a clerk of court in the county in which discovery is sought to be conducted in this State. A request for the issuance of a subpoena under this act does not constitute an appearance in the courts of this State.

(b) When a party submits a foreign subpoena to a clerk of court in this State, the clerk, in accordance with that court's procedure, shall promptly open an appropriate court file, assign a file number, collect the applicable filing fee pursuant to G.S. 7A-305(a)(2), and issue a subpoena for service upon the person to which the foreign subpoena is directed.

(c) A subpoena under subsection (b) of this section must:

(1) Incorporate the terms used in the foreign subpoena; and

(2) Contain or be accompanied by the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of all counsel of record in the proceeding to which the subpoena relates and of any party not represented by counsel.

"§ 1F-4. Service of subpoena.

A subpoena issued by a clerk of court in North Carolina under G.S. 1F-3 must be served in compliance with Rule 45(b) of the North Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure.

"§ 1F-5. Deposition; production; inspection.

Rules 26, 28, 30, 31, 34, and 45 of G.S. 1A-1, the North Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure, apply to subpoenas issued under G.S. 1F-3.

"§ 1F-6. Application to court.

An application to the court for a protective order or to enforce, quash, or modify a subpoena issued by a clerk of court under G.S. 1F-3 must comply with the rules or statutes of this State and be submitted to the court in the county in which discovery is to be conducted. Where a dispute exists between the parties to the action, the party opposing the discovery shall apply for appropriate relief to the court in which the action is pending and not to the court in the state in which the discovery is sought.

"§ 1F-7. Uniformity of application and construction.

In applying and construing this Chapter, consideration shall be given to the need to promote uniformity of the law with respect to its subject matter among states that have enacted the Uniform Interstate Depositions and Discovery Act."

SECTION 2. G.S. 1A-1, Rule 28(d), reads as rewritten:

"(d) Depositions to be used ~~outside this State.~~ in foreign countries. –

(1) A person desiring to take depositions in this State to be used in proceedings pending in the courts of any other ~~state or~~ country may present to a judge of the superior or district court a commission, order, notice, consent, or other authority under which the deposition is to be taken, whereupon it shall be the duty of the judge to issue the necessary subpoenas pursuant to Rule 45. Orders of the character provided in Rules 30(b), 30(d), and 45(b) may be made upon proper application therefor by the person to whom such subpoena is directed. Failure by any person without adequate excuse to obey a subpoena served upon him pursuant to this rule may be deemed a contempt of the court from which the subpoena issued.

SECTION 3. G.S. 1A-1, Rule 45, is amended by adding the following new subsection to read:

"(f) Discovery From Persons Residing Outside the State. –

(1) Any party may obtain discovery from a person residing in another state of the United States or a territory or an insular possession subject to its jurisdiction in any one or more of the following forms: (i) oral depositions, (ii) depositions upon written questions, or (iii) requests for production of documents and tangible things. In doing so, the party shall use and follow any applicable process and procedures required and available under the laws of the state, territory, or insular possession where the discovery is to be obtained. If required by the process or procedure of the state, territory, or insular possession where the discovery is to be obtained, a commission may issue from the court in which the action is pending in accordance with the procedures set forth in subdivision (2) of this subsection.

(2) Obtaining a commission. –

a. The party desiring a commission to obtain discovery outside the State shall prepare and file a motion indicating the party's intent to obtain a commission and requesting that the commission be issued.

b. The motion shall indicate that the moving party has conferred, or describe fully the moving party's good faith attempts to confer, with counsel for all other parties regarding the request and shall indicate whether the motion is unopposed. The motion shall also attach a copy of any proposed subpoena, notice of deposition, or other papers to be served on the person from whom the moving party is seeking to obtain discovery.

c. The motion shall indicate that counsel for the moving party has read the applicable rules and procedures of the foreign state and that the moving party will comply with those rules and procedures in obtaining the requested discovery.

d. If the motion reflects that it is unopposed or indicates that the moving party has made reasonable, good faith efforts to confer with all other parties and that no other party has indicated that it opposes the motion, the motion shall immediately be placed on the calendar for a hearing within 20 days before the court in which the action is pending where the commission shall be issued. However, if the court determines, in its discretion, that the moving party has failed to make reasonable, good faith efforts to confer with all other parties prior to filing the motion, the court shall refuse to issue the commission, and the motion shall be denied.

e. If the motion does not reflect that it is unopposed or that the moving party has made reasonable, good faith efforts to confer with all other parties and that no other party has indicated that it opposes the motion, any party wishing to oppose the motion shall file written objections to issuance of the commission within 10 days of being served with the motion, and the motion shall immediately be placed on the calendar for a hearing to be held within 20 days before the court in which the action is pending. The hearing may be held by telephone in the court's discretion. The court may refuse to issue the commission only upon a showing of substantial good cause to deny the motion.

f. If the court, in its discretion, determines that any party opposing the motion did so without good cause, the court shall require the party opposing the motion to pay the moving party the reasonable costs and expenses incurred in obtaining the order, including attorneys' fees, unless circumstances exist which make an award of expenses unjust.

(3) In addition to any terms required by the foreign jurisdiction to initiate the process of obtaining the requested discovery, the commission shall:

a. State the time and place at which the requested discovery is to occur; and

b. State the name and address of the person from whom the discovery is sought, if known, and, if unknown, a general description sufficient to identify the person or the particular class or group to which he or she belongs.

c. Attach a copy of any case management order, discovery order, local rule, or other rule or order establishing any discovery deadlines in the North Carolina action."

SECTION 4. The Revisor of Statutes shall cause to be printed, as annotations to the published General Statutes, all relevant portions of the Official Comments to the Uniform Interstate Depositions and Discovery Act and all explanatory comments of the drafters of this act as the Revisor may deem appropriate.

SECTION 5. This act becomes effective December 1, 2011, and shall apply to all cases then pending or filed on or after that date.

HOUSE BILL 379:
Uniform Depositions and Discovery Act

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary I	Date:	June 9, 2011
Introduced by:	Reps. Glazier, Rhyne, Ross, McGrady	Prepared by:	Brad Krehely
Analysis of:	Second Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 379 would adopt a slightly modified version of the Uniform Interstate Depositions and Discovery Act and would amend Rule 45 of the North Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure (NCRCP) to provide a uniform procedure for obtaining commissions to take discovery from out-of-state witnesses in cases pending in the North Carolina courts.

CURRENT LAW: The process for obtaining a North Carolina subpoena to depose an in-state witness in cases pending in other states is spread over three sources – Rule 28(d) of the NCRCP, an AOC memorandum to Superior Court clerks and judges, and, for Mecklenburg County, Local Rule 18. There is no set procedure in North Carolina for obtaining a commission from a North Carolina court for use in obtaining a subpoena in another state for discovery in that state.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 would add a new Chapter 1F to the General Statutes that would establish a procedure for the issuance of North Carolina subpoenas for discovery in cases pending in other states.

G.S. 1F-1 sets out the title – The North Carolina Uniform Interstate Depositions and Discovery Act.

G.S. 1F-2 provides the definitions applicable to the Chapter. "Foreign jurisdiction" means a state other than North Carolina. "Foreign subpoena" means a subpoena issued under the authority of a court of record of another state. "Subpoena" is defined as a document requiring a person to attend and testify at a deposition, either oral or on written questions, produce and permit inspection of documents and things, and permit inspection of premises under control of the person.

G.S. 1F-3 sets out the process for the issuance of the subpoena. The party seeking the subpoena must submit the foreign subpoena to the clerk of court of the county in which discovery is sought. The request for issuance of a subpoena is not an appearance in the North Carolina courts. (Under current law, the party seeking the subpoena would have to hire local counsel or move for admission pro hac vice).

When presented with a foreign subpoena, the clerk is to promptly open a court file, collect the appropriate filing fee, and issue a subpoena for service upon the person sought to be deposed. The subpoena must incorporate the terms of the foreign subpoena and contain the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of all counsel of record in the relevant proceeding and of any party not represented.

G.S. 1F-4 provides that service of the subpoena under G.S. 1F-3 must follow Rule 45 of the NCRCP.

G.S. 1F-5 provides that the NCRCP relating to discovery, depositions, production of documents, and subpoenas, specifically Rules 26, 28, 30, 31, 34, and 45 apply to subpoenas issued under 1F-3.

G.S. 1F-6 provides that issues between the party seeking discovery and the person from whom discovery is sought must be submitted to the court in the county in which the discovery is to be conducted and North Carolina law applies. For disputes between parties to the action, appropriate relief is to be had in he court in which the action is pending.

G.S. 1F-7 provides that in construing the Act, the need to promote uniformity should be considered.

Section 2 amends G.S. 1A-1, Rule 28(d) to make that provision of the NCRCP applicable only to persons wishing to take depositions in North Carolina to be used in proceedings in foreign countries. Rule 28(d) will no longer apply to depositions in North Carolina for actions pending in other states.

Section 3 amends G.S. 1A-1 Rule 45 to provide a procedure for obtaining discovery from persons outside of North Carolina. Discovery may be had through oral depositions, depositions upon written questions, and requests for production of documents. The party seeking discovery shall follow the procedures required under the laws of the jurisdiction in which discovery is sought.

Where the foreign jurisdiction requires a commission, a commission may be obtained from the court in which the action is pending by filing a motion requesting the commission be issued.

- The motion shall indicate that the moving party has conferred, or made a good faith effort to confer, with counsel for all other parties and whether the motion is unopposed.
- Copies of any proposed subpoena or notice of deposition shall be attached.
- The motion shall indicate that the moving party has read the applicable rules and procedures of the other state and will comply with such.
- If the motion is unopposed or good faith efforts to confer have been made, the motion must be calendared for a hearing within 20 days before the court in which the action is pending.
- If the court determines that the moving party has failed to make good faith efforts to confer with all other parties before filing the motion, the court shall refuse to issue the commission.
- If the motion does not reflect that it is unopposed, or that reasonable good faith efforts to confer have been made, a party wishing to oppose the motion shall file written objections within 10 days of service of the motion and the motion shall be placed on the calendar for a hearing to be held within 20 days. Permits the hearing to be held by telephone.
- The court may refuse to issue the commission only on a showing of substantial good cause.
- If the court determines that a party opposed the motion without good cause, the court must require that party to pay the moving party reasonable costs and expenses incurred including attorneys' fees, unless there are circumstances that would make such an award unjust.

The commission shall include any terms required by the foreign jurisdiction to obtain the discovery. It shall also (1) state the time and place the discovery is to occur, (2) state the name and address of the person from whom the discovery is sought, if known and if not known, a general description of the person sufficient to identify the person or the particular class or group to which he or she belongs, and (3) include a copy of any case management order, discovery order, or other rule or order establishing discovery deadlines in the North Carolina action.

Section 4 directs the Revisor of Statutes to print, as annotations to the statutes, the relevant portions of the Official Comments to the Act and explanatory comments as the Revisor deems appropriate.

EFFECTIVE DATE: Effective December 1, 2011 (applies to all cases then pending or filed on or after that date.)

BACKGROUND: The Uniform Interstate Depositions and Discovery Act (2007) has been adopted, either by court rule or enactment, by at least 10 States: California, Colorado, Idaho, Kentucky, Maryland, Montana, New Mexico, Tennessee, Utah, and Virginia.

Referred to:

March 17, 2011

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO CLARIFY THE PROCEDURE FOR DISCOVERY OF ELECTRONICALLY STORED INFORMATION AND TO MAKE CONFORMING CHANGES TO THE NORTH CAROLINA RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 1A-1, Rule 16, reads as rewritten:

"Rule 16. Pre-trial procedure; formulating issues.

(a) In any action, the ~~judge~~ court may in ~~his~~ its discretion direct the attorneys for the parties to appear before ~~him~~ the court for a conference to consider

(1) The simplification and formulation of the issues;
(2) The necessity or desirability of amendments to the pleadings;
(3) The possibility of obtaining admissions of fact and of documents which will avoid unnecessary proof;
(4) The limitation of the number of expert witnesses;
(5) The advisability or necessity of a reference of the case, either in whole or in part;
(6) Matters of which the court is to be asked to take judicial notice;
(7) Such other matters as may aid in the disposition of the action.

If a conference is held, the judge ~~may~~ shall make an order which recites the action taken at the conference, ~~the~~ any amendments allowed to the pleadings, and ~~the~~ any agreements made by the parties as to any of the matters considered, and which ~~limits~~ may limit the issues for trial to those not disposed of by admissions or agreements of counsel; and such order when entered controls the subsequent course of the action, unless modified at the trial to prevent manifest injustice. If any issue for trial as stated in the order is not raised by the pleadings in accordance with the provisions of Rule 8, upon motion of any party, the order shall require amendment of the pleadings.

(b) In a medical malpractice action as defined in G.S. 90-21.11, at the close of the discovery period scheduled pursuant to ~~Rule 26(f1),~~ Rule 26(g), the judge shall schedule a final conference. After the conference, the judge shall refer any consent order calendaring the case for trial to the senior resident superior court judge or the chief district court judge, who shall approve the consent order unless ~~he~~ the judge finds that:

(1) The date specified in the order is unavailable,
(2) The terms of the order unreasonably delay the trial, or
(3) The ends of justice would not be served by approving the order.

If the senior resident superior court judge or the chief district court judge does not approve the consent order, ~~he~~ the judge shall calendar the case for trial.

In calendaring the case, the court shall take into consideration the nature and complexity of the case, the proximity and convenience of witnesses, the needs of counsel for both parties concerning their respective calendars, the benefits of an early disposition and such other matters as the court may deem proper."

SECTION 2. G.S. 1A-1, Rule 26, reads as rewritten:

"Rule 26. General provisions governing discovery.

(a) Discovery methods. – Parties may obtain discovery by one or more of the following methods: depositions upon oral examination or written questions; written interrogatories; production of documents or things or permission to enter upon land or other property, for inspection and other purposes; physical and mental examinations; and requests for admission.

(b) Discovery scope and limits. – Unless otherwise limited by order of the court in accordance with these rules, the scope of discovery is as follows:

(1) In General. – Parties may obtain discovery regarding any matter, not privileged, which is relevant to the subject matter involved in the pending action, whether it relates to the claim or defense of the party seeking discovery or to the claim or defense of any other party, including the existence, description, nature, custody, condition and location of any books, documents, electronically stored information, or other tangible things and the identity and location of persons having knowledge of any discoverable matter. It is not ground for objection that the information sought will be inadmissible at the trial if the information sought appears reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence nor is it grounds for objection that the examining party has knowledge of the information as to which discovery is sought. For the purposes of these rules regarding discovery, the phrase 'electronically stored information' includes reasonably accessible metadata that will enable the discovering party to have the ability to access such information as the date sent, date received, author, and recipients. The phrase does not include other metadata unless the parties agree otherwise or the court orders otherwise upon motion of a party and a showing of good cause for the production of certain metadata.

(2) Limitations on Frequency and Extent. – The frequency or extent of use of the discovery methods set forth in section (a) shall be limited by the court if it determines that: (i) the discovery sought is unreasonably cumulative or duplicative, or is obtainable from some other source that is more convenient, less burdensome, or less expensive; (ii) the party seeking discovery has had ample opportunity by discovery in the action to obtain the information sought; or (iii) the discovery is unduly burdensome or expensive, taking into account the needs of the case, the amount in controversy, limitations on the parties' resources, and the importance of the issues at stake in the litigation. The court may act upon its own initiative after reasonable notice or pursuant to a motion under section (c).

(3) Specific Limitations on Electronically Stored Information. – In addition to any limitations imposed by subdivision (b)(2) of this rule, discovery of electronically stored information is subject to the limitations set forth in Rule 34(b). The court may specify conditions for the discovery, including allocation of discovery costs.

~~(2)~~(4) Insurance Agreements. – A party may obtain discovery of the existence and contents of any insurance agreement under which any person carrying on an insurance business may be liable to satisfy part or all of a judgment which may be entered in the action or to indemnify or reimburse for payments made to satisfy the judgment. Information concerning the insurance agreement is not by reason of disclosure admissible in evidence at trial. For purposes of this subsection, an application for insurance shall not be treated as part of an insurance agreement.

~~(3)~~(5) Trial Preparation; Materials. – Subject to the provisions of subsection ~~(b)(4)~~ (b)(6) of this rule, a party may obtain discovery of documents and tangible things otherwise discoverable under subsection (b)(1) of this rule and prepared in anticipation of litigation or for trial by or for another party or by or for that other party's consultant, surety, indemnitor, insurer, or agent only upon a showing that the party seeking discovery has substantial need of the materials in the preparation of ~~his~~ the case and that ~~he~~ the party is unable without undue hardship to obtain the substantial equivalent of the materials by other means. In ordering discovery of such materials when the required showing has been made, the court may not permit disclosure of the mental impressions, conclusions, opinions, or legal theories of an attorney or other representative of a party concerning the litigation in which the material is sought or work product of the attorney or attorneys of record in the particular action.

A party may obtain without the required showing a statement concerning the action or its subject matter previously made by that party. Upon request, a person not a party may obtain without the required showing a statement concerning the action or its subject matter previously made by that person. If the request is refused, the person may move for a court order. The provisions of Rule 37(a)(4) apply to the award of expenses incurred in relation to the motion. For purposes of this paragraph, a statement previously made is (i) a written statement signed or otherwise adopted or approved by the person making it, or (ii) a stenographic, mechanical, electrical, or other recording, or a transcription thereof, which is a substantially verbatim recital of an oral statement by the person making it and contemporaneously recorded.

~~(4)~~(6) Trial Preparation; Experts. – Discovery of facts known and opinions held by experts, otherwise discoverable under the provisions of subsection (b)(1) of this rule and acquired or developed in anticipation of litigation or for trial, may be obtained only as follows:

a. 1. A party may through interrogatories require any other party to identify each person whom the other party expects to call as an expert witness at trial, to state the subject matter on which the expert is expected to testify, and to state the substance of the facts and opinions to which the expert is expected to testify and a summary of the grounds for each opinion.

2. Upon motion, the court may order further discovery by other means, subject to such restrictions as to scope and such provisions, pursuant to ~~subdivision~~ sub-subdivision ~~(b)(4)c~~ (b)(6)b. of this rule, concerning fees and expenses as the court may deem appropriate.

b. Unless manifest injustice would result, (i) the court shall require that the party seeking discovery pay the expert a reasonable fee for time spent in responding to discovery under subdivision ~~(b)(4)a2~~ (b)(6)a2 of this rule; and (ii) with respect to discovery obtained under subdivision ~~(b)(4)a2~~ (b)(6)a2 of this rule the court may require the party seeking discovery to pay the other party a fair portion of the fees and expenses reasonably incurred by the latter party in obtaining facts and opinions from the expert.

(7) Claiming privilege or protecting trial-preparation materials.

a. Information withheld. – When a party withholds information otherwise discoverable by claiming that the information is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material, the party must (i) expressly make the claim and (ii) describe the nature of the documents, communications, or tangible things not produced or disclosed, and do so in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable other parties to assess the claim.

b. Information produced. – If information subject to a claim of privilege or protection as trial-preparation material is inadvertently produced in response to a discovery request, the party that produced the material may assert the claim by notifying any party that received the information of the claim and basis for it. After being notified, a party (i) must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has, (ii) must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved, (iii) must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified, and (iv) may promptly present the information to the court under seal for determination of the claim. The producing party must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(c) Protective orders. – Upon motion by a party or by the person from whom discovery is sought, and for good cause shown, the judge of the court in which the action is pending may make any order which justice requires to protect a party or person from unreasonable annoyance, embarrassment, oppression, or undue burden or expense, including one or more of the following: (i) that the discovery not be had; (ii) that the discovery may be had only on specified terms and conditions, including a designation of the time or place; (iii) that the discovery may be had only by a method of discovery other than that selected by the party seeking discovery; (iv) that certain matters not be inquired into, or that the scope of the discovery be limited to certain matters; (v) that discovery be conducted with no one present except persons designated by the court; (vi) that a deposition after being sealed be opened only by order of the court; (vii) that a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information not be disclosed or be disclosed only in a designated way; (viii) that the parties simultaneously file specified documents or information enclosed in sealed envelopes to be opened as directed by the court.

A party seeking a protective order on the basis that electronically stored information sought is from a source identified as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost has the burden of showing that the basis exists. If the showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from the source if the requesting party shows good cause, but only after considering the limitations of subsection (b)(2) of this rule.

If the motion for a protective order is denied in whole or in part, the court may, on such terms and conditions as are just, order that any party or person provide or permit discovery. The provisions of Rule 37(a)(4) apply to the award of expenses incurred in relation to the motion.

(d) Sequence and timing of discovery. – Unless the court upon motion, for the convenience of parties and witnesses and in the interests of justice, orders otherwise, methods of discovery may be used in any sequence and the fact that a party is conducting discovery, whether by deposition or otherwise, shall not operate to delay any other party's discovery. Any order or rule of court setting the time within which discovery must be completed shall be construed to fix the date after which the pendency of discovery will not be allowed to delay trial or any other proceeding before the court, but shall not be construed to prevent any party from utilizing any procedures afforded under Rules 26 through 36, so long as trial or any hearing before the court is not thereby delayed.

(e) Supplementation of responses. – A party who has responded to a request for discovery with a response that was complete when made is under no duty to supplement ~~his~~ the party's response to include information thereafter acquired, except as follows:

(1) A party is under a duty seasonably to supplement ~~his~~ the party's response with respect to any question directly addressed to (i) the identity and location of persons having knowledge of discoverable matters, and (ii) the identity of each person expected to be called as an expert witness at trial, the subject matter on which ~~he~~ the person is expected to testify, and the substance of ~~his~~ the testimony.

(2) A party is under a duty seasonably to amend a prior response if ~~he~~ the party obtains information upon the basis of which (i) ~~he~~ the party knows that the response was incorrect when made, or (ii) ~~he~~ the party knows that the response though correct when made is no longer true and the circumstances are such that a failure to amend the response is in substance a knowing concealment.

(3) A duty to supplement responses may be imposed by order of the court, agreement of the parties, or at any time prior to trial through new requests for supplementation of prior responses.

(f) Discovery ~~conference.~~ meeting, discovery conference, discovery plan. – ~~At any time after commencement of an action the court may direct the attorneys for the parties to appear before it for a conference on the subject of discovery. The court may do so upon motion by the attorney for any party if the motion includes:~~

~~(1) A statement of the issues as they then appear;~~

~~(2) A proposed plan and schedule of discovery;~~

~~(3) Any limitations proposed to be placed on discovery;~~

~~(4) Any other proposed orders with respect to discovery; and~~

~~(5) A statement showing that the attorney making the motion has made a reasonable effort to reach agreement with opposing attorneys on the matters set forth in the motion. Each party and his attorney are under a duty to participate in good faith in the framing of a discovery plan if a plan is proposed by the attorney for any party. Notice of the motion shall be served on all parties. Objections or additions to matters set forth in the motion shall be served not later than 10 days after service of the motion.~~

~~Following the discovery conference, the court shall enter an order tentatively identifying the issues for discovery purposes, establishing a plan and schedule for discovery, setting limitations on discovery, if any; and determining such other matters, including the allocation of expenses, as are necessary for the proper management of discovery in the action. An order may be altered or amended whenever justice so requires.~~

~~Subject to the right of a party who properly moves for a discovery conference to prompt convening of the conference, the court may combine the discovery conference with a pretrial conference authorized by Rule 16.~~

(1) No earlier than 40 days after the complaint is filed in an action, any party's attorney or an unrepresented party may request a meeting on the subject of discovery, including the discovery of electronically stored information. If such a request is filed, the parties shall meet in the county in which the action is pending not less than 21 days after the initial request for a meeting is filed and served upon the parties, unless agreed otherwise by the parties or their attorneys and unless an earlier time for the meeting is ordered by the court or agreed by the parties. Even if the parties or their attorneys do not seek to have a discovery meeting, at any time after commencement of an action the court may direct the parties or their attorneys to appear before it for a discovery conference.

(2) During a discovery meeting held pursuant to subdivision (f)(1) of this rule, the attorneys and any unrepresented parties shall (i) consider the nature and basis of the parties' claims and defenses and the possibilities for promptly settling or resolving the case and (ii) discuss the preparation of a discovery plan as set forth in subdivision (f)(3) of this rule. Attorneys for the parties, and any unrepresented parties, that have appeared in the case are jointly responsible for arranging the meeting, for being prepared to discuss a discovery plan, and for attempting in good faith to agree on a discovery plan. The meeting may be held by telephone, by videoconference, or in person, or a combination thereof, unless the court, on motion, orders the attorneys and the unrepresented parties to attend in person. If a discovery plan is agreed upon, the plan shall be submitted to the court within 14 days after the meeting, and the parties may request a conference with the court regarding the plan. If the parties do not agree upon a discovery plan, they shall submit to the court within 14 days after the meeting a joint report containing those parts of a discovery plan upon which they agree and the position of each of the parties on the parts upon which they disagree. Unless the parties agree otherwise, the attorney for the first plaintiff listed on the complaint shall be responsible for submitting the discovery plan or joint report.

(3) A discovery plan shall contain the following: (i) a statement of the issues as they then appear; (ii) a proposed plan and schedule of discovery, including the discovery of electronically stored information; (iii) with respect to electronically stored information, and if appropriate under the circumstances of the case, a reference to the preservation of such information, the media form, format, or procedures by which such information will be produced, the allocation of the costs of preservation, production, and, if necessary, restoration, of such information, the method for asserting or preserving claims of privilege or of protection of the information as trial-preparation materials if different from that provided in subdivision (b)(7) of this rule, the method for asserting or preserving confidentiality and proprietary status, and any other matters addressed by the parties; (iv) any limitations proposed to be placed on discovery, including, if appropriate under the circumstances of the case, that discovery be conducted in phases or be limited to or focused on particular issues; (v) when discovery should be completed; and (vi) if appropriate under the circumstances of the case, any limitations or conditions pursuant to section (c) of this rule regarding protective orders.

(4) If the parties are unable to agree to a discovery plan at a meeting held pursuant to subdivision (f)(1) of this rule, they shall, upon motion of any party, appear before the court for a discovery conference at which the court shall order the entry of a discovery plan after consideration of the report required to be submitted under subdivision (f)(2) of this rule and the position of the parties. The order may address other matters, including the allocation of discovery costs, as are necessary for the proper management of discovery in the action. An order may be altered or amended as justice may require.

The court may combine the discovery conference with a pretrial conference authorized by Rule 16. A discovery conference in a medical malpractice action shall be governed by subsection (g) of this rule.

~~(f1)~~(g) Medical malpractice discovery conference. – In a medical malpractice action as defined in G.S. 90-21.11, upon the case coming at issue or the filing of a responsive pleading or motion requiring a determination by the court, the judge shall, within 30 days, direct the attorneys for the parties to appear for a discovery conference. At the conference the court may consider the matters set out in Rule 16 and subdivision (f)(3) of this rule and shall:

(1) Rule on all motions;

(2) Establish an appropriate schedule for designating expert witnesses, consistent with a discovery schedule pursuant to subdivision (3), to be complied with by all parties to the action such that there is a deadline for designating all expert witnesses within an appropriate time for all parties to implement discovery mechanisms with regard to the designated expert witnesses;

(3) Establish by order an appropriate discovery schedule designated so that, unless good cause is shown at the conference for a longer time, and subject to further orders of the court, discovery shall be completed within 150 days after the order is issued; nothing herein shall be construed to prevent any party from utilizing any procedures afforded under Rules 26 through 36, so long as trial or any hearing before the court is not thereby delayed; and

(4) Approve any consent order which may be presented by counsel for the parties relating to ~~parts~~ subdivisions (2) and (3) of this subsection, unless the court finds that the terms of the consent order are unreasonable.

If a party fails to identify an expert witness as ordered, the court shall, upon motion by the moving party, impose an appropriate sanction, which may include dismissal of the action, entry of default against the defendant, or exclusion of the testimony of the expert witness at trial.

~~(g)~~(h) Signing of discovery requests, responses, and objections. – Every request for discovery or response or objection thereto made by a party represented by an attorney shall be signed by at least one attorney of record in ~~his individual~~ that attorney's name, whose address shall be stated. A party who is not represented by an attorney shall sign the request, response, or objection and state ~~his~~ that party's address. The signature of the attorney or party constitutes a certification that ~~he~~ the attorney or party has read the request, response, or objection and that to the best of ~~his~~ the knowledge, information, and belief of that attorney or party formed after a reasonable inquiry it is: (1) consistent with the rules and warranted by existing law or a good faith argument for the extension, modification, or reversal of existing law; (2) not interposed for any improper purpose, such as to harass or cause unnecessary delay or needless increase in the cost of litigation; and (3) not unreasonable or unduly burdensome or expensive, given the needs of the case, the discovery already had in the case, the amount in controversy, and the importance of the issues at stake in the litigation. If a request, response, or objection is not signed, it shall be stricken unless it is signed promptly after the omission is called to the attention of the party making the request, response, or objection and a party shall not be obligated to take any action with respect to it until it is signed.

If a certification is made in violation of the rule, the court, upon motion or upon its own initiative, shall impose upon the person who made the certification, the party on whose behalf the request, response, or objection is made, or both, an appropriate sanction, which may include an order to pay the amount of the reasonable expenses incurred because of the violation, including a reasonable attorney's fee."

SECTION 3. G.S. 1A-1, Rule 33(c), reads as rewritten:

"(c) Option to produce business records. – Where the answer to an interrogatory may be derived or ascertained from the business ~~records~~ records, including electronically stored information, of the party upon whom the interrogatory has been served or from an examination, audit or inspection of such business records, or from a compilation, abstract or summary based thereon, and the burden of deriving or ascertaining the answer is substantially the same for the party serving the interrogatory as for the party served, it is a sufficient answer to such interrogatory to specify the records from which the answer may be derived or ascertained and to afford to the party serving the interrogatory reasonable opportunity to examine, audit or inspect such records and to make copies, compilations, abstracts or summaries. A specification shall be in sufficient detail to permit the interrogating party to locate and to identify, as readily as can the party served, the records from which the answer may be ascertained."

SECTION 4. G.S. 1A-1, Rule 34, reads as rewritten:

"Rule 34. Production of ~~documents and things and~~ documents, electronically stored information, and things; entry upon land for inspection and other purposes.

(a) Scope. – Any party may serve on any other party a request (i) to produce and permit the party making the request, or someone acting on ~~his~~ that party's behalf, to inspect and copy, ~~any designated documents (including writings, drawings, graphs, charts, photographs, phono-records, and other data compilations from which information can be obtained, translated, if necessary, by the respondent through detection devices into reasonably usable form), or to inspect and copy,~~ test, or sample any designated documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things which constitute or contain matters within the scope of Rule 26(b) and which are in the possession, custody or control of the party upon whom the request is served; or (ii) to permit entry upon designated land or other property in the possession or control of the party upon whom the request is served for the purpose of inspection and measuring, surveying, photographing, testing, or sampling the property or any designated object or operation thereon, within the scope of Rule 26(b).

(b) Procedure. – The request may, without leave of court, be served upon the plaintiff after commencement of the action and upon any other party with or after service of the summons and complaint upon that party. The request shall set forth the items to be inspected either by individual item or by category, and describe each item and category with reasonable particularity. The request shall specify a reasonable time, place, and manner of making the inspection and performing the related acts. The request may specify the form or forms in which electronically stored information is to be produced.

The party upon whom the request is served shall serve a written response within 30 days after the service of the request, except that a defendant may serve a response within 45 days after service of the summons and complaint upon that defendant. The court may allow a shorter or longer time. The response shall state, with respect to each item or category, that inspection and related activities will be permitted as requested, unless the request is objected to, in which event the reasons for objection shall be stated. If objection is made to part of an item or category, the part shall be specified. In addition to other bases for objection, the response may state an objection to production of electronically stored information from sources that the party identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. The response may also state an objection to a requested form for producing electronically stored information. If the responding party objects to a requested form, or if no form is specified in the request, the party must state the form or forms it intends to use. The party submitting the request may move for an order under Rule 37(a) with respect to any objection to or other failure to respond to the request or any part thereof, or any failure to permit inspection as requested.

Unless otherwise stipulated by the parties or ordered by the court, the following procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(1) A party must produce documents as they are kept in the usual course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the request;

(2) If a request does not specify a form for producing the electronically stored information, a party must produce it in a reasonably usable form or forms; and

(3) A party need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(c) Form of response. – There shall be sufficient space following each request in which the respondent may state the response. The respondent shall: (1) state the response in the space provided, using additional pages if necessary; or (2) restate the request to be followed by the response. An objection to a request shall be made by stating the objection and the reason therefor either in the space following the request or following the restated request.

~~(c)~~(d) Persons not parties. – This rule does not preclude an independent action against a person not a party for production of documents and things and permission to enter upon land."

SECTION 5. G.S. 1A-1, Rule 37, reads as rewritten:

"Rule 37. Failure to make discovery; sanctions.

(a) Motion for order compelling discovery. – A party, upon reasonable notice to other parties and all persons affected thereby, may apply for an order compelling discovery as follows:

(1) Appropriate Court. – An application for an order to a party or a deponent who is not a party may be made to a judge of the court in which the action is pending, or, on matters relating to a deposition where the deposition is being taken in this State, to a judge of the court in the county where the deposition is being taken, as defined by Rule 30(h).

(2) Motion. – If a deponent fails to answer a question propounded or submitted under Rules 30 or 31, or a corporation or other entity fails to make a designation under Rule 30(b)(6) or 31(a), or a party fails to answer an interrogatory submitted under Rule 33, or if a party, in response to a request for inspection submitted under Rule 34, fails to respond that inspection will be permitted as requested or fails to permit inspection as requested, the discovering party may move for an order compelling an answer, or a designation, or an order compelling inspection in accordance with the request. The motion must include a certification that the movant has in good faith conferred or attempted to confer with the person or party failing to make the discovery in an effort to secure the information or material without court action. When taking a deposition on oral examination, the proponent of the question shall complete the examination on all other matters before ~~he adjourns~~ the examination is adjourned, in order to apply for an order. If the motion is based upon an objection to production of electronically stored information from sources the objecting party identified as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost, the objecting party has the burden of showing that the basis for the objection exists.

If the court denies the motion in whole or in part, it may make such protective order as it would have been empowered to make on a motion made pursuant to Rule 26(c).

(3) Evasive or Incomplete Answer. – For purposes of this subdivision an evasive or incomplete answer is to be treated as a failure to answer.

(4) Award of Expenses of Motion. – If the motion is granted, the court shall, after opportunity for hearing, require the party or deponent whose conduct necessitated the motion or the party advising such conduct or both of them to pay to the moving party the reasonable expenses incurred in obtaining the order, including attorney's fees, unless the court finds that the opposition to the motion was substantially justified or that other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust.

If the motion is denied, the court shall, after opportunity for hearing, require the moving party to pay to the party or deponent who opposed the motion the reasonable expenses incurred in opposing the motion, including attorney's fees, unless the court finds that the making of the motion was substantially justified or that other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust.

If the motion is granted in part and denied in part, the court may apportion the reasonable expenses incurred in relation to the motion among the parties and persons in a just manner.

(b) Failure to comply with order. –

(1) Sanctions by Court in County Where Deposition Is Taken. – If a deponent fails to be sworn or to answer a question after being directed to do so by a judge of the court in the county in which the deposition is being taken, the failure may be considered a contempt of that court.

(2) Sanctions by Court in Which Action Is Pending. – If a party or an officer, director, or managing agent of a party or a person designated under Rule 30(b)(6) or 31(a) to testify on behalf of a party fails to obey an order to provide or permit discovery, including an order made under section (a) of this rule or Rule 35, or if a party fails to obey an order entered under Rule 26(f) a judge of the court in which the action is pending may make such orders in regard to the failure as are just, and among others the following:

a. An order that the matters regarding which the order was made or any other designated facts shall be taken to be established for the purposes of the action in accordance with the claim of the party obtaining the order;

b. An order refusing to allow the disobedient party to support or oppose designated claims or defenses, or prohibiting ~~him~~ the party from introducing designated matters in evidence;

c. An order striking out pleadings or parts thereof, or staying further proceedings until the order is obeyed, or dismissing the action or proceeding or any part thereof, or rendering a judgment by default against the disobedient party;

d. In lieu of any of the foregoing orders or in addition thereto, an order treating as a contempt of court the failure to obey any orders except an order to submit to a physical or mental examination;

e. Where a party has failed to comply with an order under Rule 35(a) requiring ~~him~~ the party to produce another for examination, such orders as are listed in subdivisions a, b, and c of this subsection, unless the party failing to comply shows that ~~he~~ the party is unable to produce such person for examination.

In lieu of any of the foregoing orders or in addition thereto, the court shall require the party failing to obey the order to pay the reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, caused by the failure, unless the court finds that the failure was substantially justified or that other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust.

(c) Failure to provide electronically stored information. – Absent exceptional circumstances, a court may not impose sanctions under these rules on a party for failing to provide electronically stored information lost as a result of routine, good-faith operation of an electronic information system.

~~(c)~~(d) Expenses on failure to admit. – If a party fails to admit the genuineness of any document or the truth of any matter as requested under Rule 36, and if the party requesting the admissions thereafter proves the genuineness of the document or the truth of the matter, ~~he~~ the requesting party may apply to the court for an order requiring the other party to pay to him or her the reasonable expenses incurred in making that proof, including reasonable attorney's fees. The court shall make the order unless it finds that (i) the request was held objectionable pursuant to Rule 36(a), or (ii) the admission sought was of no substantial importance, or (iii) the party failing to admit had reasonable ground to believe that he or she might prevail on the matter, or (iv) there was other good reason for the failure to admit.

~~(d)~~(e) Failure of party to attend at own deposition or serve answers to interrogatories or respond to request for inspection. – If a party or an officer, director, or managing agent of a party or a person designated under Rule 30(b)(6) or 31(a) to testify on behalf of a party fails (i) to appear before the person who is to take ~~his~~ the deposition, after being served with a proper notice, or (ii) to serve answers or objections to interrogatories submitted under Rule 33, after proper service of the interrogatories, or (iii) to serve a written response to a request for inspection submitted under Rule 34, after proper service of the request, the court in which the action is pending on motion may make such orders in regard to the failure as are just, and among others it may take any action authorized under subdivisions a, b, and c of subsection (b)(2) of this rule. In lieu of any order or in addition thereto, the court shall require the party failing to act to pay the reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, caused by the failure, unless the court finds that the failure was substantially justified or that other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust.

The failure to act described in this section may not be excused on the ground that the discovery sought is objectionable unless the party failing to act has applied for a protective order as provided by Rule 26(c).

~~(e),~~ (f) Reserved for future codification purposes.

(g) Failure to participate in the framing of a discovery plan. – If a party or ~~his~~ the party's attorney fails to participate in good faith in the framing of a discovery plan by agreement as is required by Rule 26(f), the court may, after opportunity for hearing, require such party or ~~his~~ the party's attorney to pay to any other party the reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, caused by the failure."

SECTION 6. G.S. 1A-1, Rule 45, reads as rewritten:

"Rule 45. Subpoena.

(a) Form; Issuance. –

(1) Every subpoena shall state all of the following:

a. The title of the action, the name of the court in which the action is pending, the number of the civil action, and the name of the party at whose instance the witness is summoned.

b. A command to each person to whom it is directed to attend and give testimony or to produce and permit inspection and copying of designated records, books, papers, documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things in the possession, custody, or control of that person therein specified.

c. The protections of persons subject to subpoenas under subsection (c) of this rule.

d. The requirements for responses to subpoenas under subsection (d) of this rule.

(2) A command to produce ~~evidence~~ records, books, papers, electronically stored information, or tangible things may be joined with a command to appear at trial or hearing or at a deposition, or any subpoena may be issued separately. A subpoena may specify the form or forms in which electronically stored information is to be produced.

(3) A subpoena shall issue from the court in which the action is pending.

(4) The clerk of court in which the action is pending shall issue a subpoena, signed but otherwise blank, to a party requesting it, who shall complete it before service. Any judge of the superior court, judge of the district court, magistrate, or attorney, as officer of the court, may also issue and sign a subpoena.

(b) Service. –

(1) Manner. – Any subpoena may be served by the sheriff, by the sheriff's deputy, by a coroner, or by any person who is not a party and is not less than 18 years of age. Service of a subpoena upon a person named therein shall be made by delivering a copy thereof to that person or by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested. Service of a subpoena for the attendance of a witness only may also be made by telephone communication with the person named therein only by a sheriff, the sheriff's designee who is not less than 18 years of age and is not a party, or a coroner.

(2) Service of copy. – A copy of the subpoena served under subdivision ~~(1)~~ (b)(1) of this subsection shall also be served upon each party in the manner prescribed by Rule 5(b). ~~This subdivision~~

(3) Subdivision (b)(2) of this subsection does not apply to subpoenas issued under G.S. 15A-801 or G.S. 15A-802.

(c) Protection of Persons Subject to Subpoena. –

(1) Avoid undue burden or expense. – A party or an attorney responsible for the issuance and service of a subpoena shall take reasonable steps to avoid imposing an undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The court shall enforce this subdivision and impose upon the party or attorney in violation of this requirement an appropriate sanction that may include compensating the person unduly burdened for lost earnings and for reasonable attorney's fees.

(2) For production of public records or hospital medical records. – Where the subpoena commands any custodian of public records or any custodian of hospital medical records, as defined in G.S. 8-44.1, to appear for the sole purpose of producing certain records in the custodian's custody, the custodian subpoenaed may, in lieu of personal appearance, tender to the court in which the action is pending by registered or certified mail or by personal delivery, on or before the time specified in the subpoena, certified copies of the records requested together with a copy of the subpoena and an affidavit by the custodian testifying that the copies are true and correct copies and that the records were made and kept in the regular course of business, or if no such records are in the custodian's custody, an affidavit to that effect. When the copies of records are personally delivered under this subdivision, a receipt shall be obtained from the person receiving the records. Any original or certified copy of records or an affidavit delivered according to the provisions of this subdivision, unless otherwise objectionable, shall be admissible in any action or proceeding without further certification or authentication. Copies of hospital medical records tendered under this subdivision shall not be open to inspection or copied by any person, except to the parties to the case or proceedings and their attorneys in depositions, until ordered published by the judge at the time of the hearing or trial. Nothing contained herein shall be construed to waive the physician-patient privilege or to require any privileged communication under law to be disclosed.

(3) Written objection to subpoenas. – Subject to subsection (d) of this rule, a person commanded to appear at a deposition or to produce and permit the inspection and copying of ~~records~~ records, books, papers, documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things may, within 10 days after service of the subpoena or before the time specified for compliance if the time is less than 10 days after service, serve upon the party or the attorney designated in the subpoena written objection to the subpoena, setting forth the specific grounds for the objection. The written objection shall comply with the requirements of Rule 11. Each of the following grounds may be sufficient for objecting to a subpoena:

a. The subpoena fails to allow reasonable time for compliance.

b. The subpoena requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter and no exception or waiver applies to the privilege or protection.

c. The subpoena subjects a person to an undue ~~burden.~~burden or expense.

d. The subpoena is otherwise unreasonable or oppressive.

e. The subpoena is procedurally defective.

(4) Order of court required to override objection. – If objection is made under subdivision (3) of this subsection, the party serving the subpoena shall not be entitled to compel the subpoenaed person's appearance at a deposition or to inspect and copy materials to which an objection has been made except pursuant to an order of the court. If objection is made, the party serving the subpoena may, upon notice to the subpoenaed person, move at any time for an order to compel the subpoenaed person's appearance at the deposition or the production of the materials designated in the subpoena. The motion shall be filed in the court in the county in which the deposition or production of materials is to occur.

(5) Motion to quash or modify subpoena. – A person commanded to appear at a trial, hearing, deposition, or to produce and permit the inspection and copying of records, books, papers, documents, electronically stored information, or other tangible things, within 10 days after service of the subpoena or before the time specified for compliance if the time is less than 10 days after service, may file a motion to quash or modify the subpoena. The court shall quash or modify the subpoena if the subpoenaed person demonstrates the existence of any of the reasons set forth in subdivision (3) of this subsection. The motion shall be filed in the court in the county in which the trial, hearing, deposition, or production of materials is to occur.

(6) Order to compel; expenses to comply with subpoena. – When a court enters an order compelling a deposition or the production of records, books, papers, documents, electronically stored information, or other tangible things, the order shall protect any person who is not a party or an agent of a party from significant expense resulting from complying with the subpoena. The court may order that the person to whom the subpoena is addressed will be reasonably compensated for the cost of producing the records, books, papers, documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things specified in the subpoena.

(7) Trade secrets; confidential information. – When a subpoena requires disclosure of a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information, a court may, to protect a person subject to or affected by the subpoena, quash or modify the subpoena, or when the party on whose behalf the subpoena is issued shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot otherwise be met without undue hardship, the court may order a person to make an appearance or produce the materials only on specified conditions stated in the order.

(8) Order to quash; expenses. – When a court enters an order quashing or modifying the subpoena, the court may order the party on whose behalf the subpoena is issued to pay all or part of the subpoenaed person's reasonable expenses including attorney's fees.

(d) Duties in Responding to Subpoenas. –

(1) Form of response. – A person responding to a subpoena to produce ~~documents~~ records, books, documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things shall produce them as they are kept in the usual course of business or shall organize and label ~~the documents~~ them to correspond with the categories in the request.

(2) Form of producing electronically stored information not specified. – If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it ordinarily is maintained or in a reasonably useable form or forms.

(3) Electronically stored information in only one form. – The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(4) Inaccessible electronically stored information. – The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, after considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2). The court may specify conditions for discovery, including requiring the party that seeks discovery from a nonparty to bear the costs of locating, preserving, collecting, and producing the electronically stored information involved.

~~(2)~~(5) Specificity of objection. – When information subject to a subpoena is withheld on the objection that it is subject to protection as trial preparation materials, or that it is otherwise privileged, the objection shall be made with specificity and shall be supported by a description of the nature of the communications, records, books, papers, documents, electronically stored information, or other tangible things not produced, sufficient for the requesting party to contest the objection.

(d1) Opportunity for Inspection of Subpoenaed Material. – A party or attorney responsible for the issuance and service of a subpoena shall, within five business days after the receipt of material produced in compliance with the subpoena, serve all other parties with notice of receipt of the material produced in compliance with the subpoena and, upon request, shall provide all other parties a reasonable opportunity to copy and inspect such material at the expense of the inspecting party.

(e) Contempt; Expenses to Force Compliance With Subpoena. –

(1) Failure by any person without adequate excuse to obey a subpoena served upon the person may be deemed a contempt of court. Failure by any party without adequate cause to obey a subpoena served upon the party shall also subject the party to the sanctions provided in Rule 37(d).

(2) The court may award costs and attorney's fees to the party who issued a subpoena if the court determines that a person objected to the subpoena or filed a motion to quash or modify the subpoena, and the objection or motion was unreasonable or was made for improper purposes such as unnecessary delay."

SECTION 7. The Revisor of Statutes shall cause to be printed, as annotations to the published General Statutes, all explanatory comments of the drafters of this act, the North Carolina Bar Association Litigation Section E-Discovery Committee, as the Revisor may deem appropriate.

SECTION 8. This act becomes effective October 1, 2011, and shall apply to actions filed on or after that date.

HOUSE BILL 380:
Amend RCP/Electronically Stored Information

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary I	Date:	June 8, 2011
Introduced by:	Reps. Glazier, T. Moore, Ross, Jordan	Prepared by:	Susan Sitze* Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	Second Edition

SUMMARY: House Bill 380 makes changes to the North Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure concerning discovery of electronically stored information.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 of the bill amends Rule 16 (Pre-trial procedure; formulating issues) of Article 3 (Pleadings and Motions) the Rules of Civil Procedure, to:

- provide that, if the parties are directed by the court to appear at a pretrial conference, the judge shall issue an order reflecting the action taken at the conference, including any amendments to the pleadings and agreements reached by the parties; and
- provide that the judge may, in the order, limit the issues for trial to those not disposed of by admissions or agreements of counsel.

Section 2 of the bill amends Rule 26 (General provisions regarding discovery) of Article 5 (Depositions and discovery) of the Rules of Civil Procedure, to:

- include electronically stored information within the meaning of the discovery rule.
- provide that the phrase "electronically stored information" includes reasonably accessible metadata that will enable the discovering party to have the ability to access such information as the date sent, date received, author, and recipients. The phrase does not include other metadata unless the parties agree otherwise or the court orders otherwise.
- provide that discovery of electronically stored information is subject to the limitations of this rule and Rule 34(b) (See Section 4 of the bill), and that the court may specify conditions for the discovery, including allocation of discovery costs.
- add language concerning when a party can withhold information by claiming that the information is privileged or subject to protection as trial preparation material; and concerning inadvertent production information subject to a claim of privilege or protection as trial preparation material.
- provide that a party seeking a protective order on the basis that electronically stored information sought is from a source identified as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost has the burden of showing that the basis exists. If the showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery if the requesting party shows good cause.
- provide a process for a meeting on the process of discovery, including the discovery of electronically stored information, no earlier than 40 days after the complaint is filed.
- provide that during the discovery meeting, the attorneys shall consider the parties' claims and defenses and the possibilities for promptly settling or resolving the case, discuss the preparation of a discovery plan, if agreed, its submittal to the court, and the scheduling of a conference with the court regarding the plan.

- provide the elements that should be in the discovery plan, including the discovery of electronically stored information.
- provide that if the parties are unable to agree to a discovery plan, they shall, upon motion of any party, appear before the court for a discovery conference at which the court shall order the entry of a discovery plan.
- provide that the court may combine the discovery conference with a pretrial conference authorized by Rule 16 (see Section 1).
- make a conforming change to the malpractice discovery conference provisions.

Section 3 of the bill amends Rule 33 (Interrogatories to parties) of Article 5 (Depositions and Discovery) of the Rules of Civil Procedure, to:

- provide that when a response to an interrogatory specifies business records from which the answer may be derived, the term "business records" includes electronically stored information; and
- provide that such a specification shall be in sufficient detail to permit the interrogating party to locate and to identify, as readily as can the party served, the records from which the answer may be ascertained.

Section 4 of the bill amends Rule 34 (Production of documents, electronically stored information, etc.) of Article 5 (Depositions and Discovery) of the Rules of Civil Procedure) to:

- specifically includes electronically stored information under this discovery rule.
- provide that a discovery request for electronically stored information may include the form in which it is to be produced.
- provide that a response to a request for electronically stored information may state an objection due to undue burden or cost, or to the requested form for producing electronically stored information. If the responding party objects to the requested form, the party must state the form it intends to use.
- provide procedures that apply to production of electronically stored information.

Section 5 of the bill amends Rule 37 (Failure to make discovery; sanctions) of Article 5 (Depositions and Discovery) of the Rules of Civil Procedure, to:

- provide that if a motion to compel discovery of electronically stored information is based on objection to the production on the basis that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost, the party objecting to production has the burden of showing the basis for the objection.
- provide that a court may not impose sanction for failure to provide electronically stored information that is lost as a result of routine, good-faith operation of an electronic information system.

Section 6 of the bill amends Rule 45 (Subpoena) of Article 6 (Trials) of the Rules of Civil Procedure to conform the provision for subpoenas concerning electronically stored information to the other discovery rule changes made by the bill, as follows:

- amends the subpoena rule to include the phrase "electronically stored information", and provides that a subpoena may specify the form in which electronically stored information is to be produced.
- provides that if a subpoena does not specify the form for producing electronically stored information, the person producing it may do so in a form that it is ordinarily maintained, or in a reasonably usable form.
- provides that electronically stored information need not be produced in more than one form.
- provides that the person responding does not have to provide electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost; that on a motion to compel discovery, the person responding must show the undue burden. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, and specify conditions for discovery.

Section 7 of the bill provides that the Revisor of Statutes shall cause to be printed, as annotations to the published General Statutes, all explanatory comments of the drafters of this act, the North Carolina Bar Association Litigation Section E-Discovery Committee, as the Revisor may deem appropriate.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act becomes effective October 1, 2011, and shall apply to all cases filed on or after that date.

BACKGROUND: House Bill 380 is the recommendation of the North Carolina Bar Association Litigation Section E-Discovery Committee.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO STRENGTHEN NORTH CAROLINA'S OPEN-FILE DISCOVERY LAW, PROTECT CRIME STOPPERS INFORMANTS, PROTECT VICTIM INFORMATION, REQUIRE LAW ENFORCEMENT AND INVESTIGATORY AGENCIES TO MAKE TIMELY DISCLOSURE OF THEIR FILES TO PROSECUTORS, AND AVOID FRIVOLOUS CLAIMS OF PROFESSIONAL MISCONDUCT AGAINST PROSECUTORS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 15A-903 reads as rewritten:

"§ 15A-903. Disclosure of evidence by the State – Information subject to disclosure.

(a) Upon motion of the defendant, the court must ~~order the State to:~~order:

(1) ~~Make~~ The State to make available to the defendant the complete files of all law enforcement ~~and prosecutorial agencies~~agencies, investigatory agencies, and prosecutor's offices involved in the investigation of the crimes committed or the prosecution of the defendant.

a. The term "file" includes the defendant's statements, the codefendants' statements, witness statements, investigating officers' notes, results of tests and examinations, or any other matter or evidence obtained during the investigation of the offenses alleged to have been committed by the defendant. When any matter or evidence is submitted for testing or examination, in addition to any test or examination results, all other data, calculations, or writings of any kind shall be made available to the defendant, including, but not limited to, preliminary test or screening results and bench notes.

b. The term ~~"prosecutorial agency"~~"prosecutor's office" refers to the office of the prosecuting attorney.

c. The term "investigatory agency" includes any public or private entity that obtains information on behalf of a law enforcement agency or ~~prosecutor~~ prosecutor's office in connection with the investigation of the crimes committed or the prosecution of the defendant.

~~c.~~d. Oral statements shall be in written or recorded form, except that oral statements made by a witness to a prosecuting attorney outside the presence of a law enforcement officer or investigatorial assistant shall not be required to be in written or recorded form unless there is significantly new or different information in the oral statement from a prior statement made by the witness.

~~d.~~e. The defendant shall have the right to inspect and copy or photograph any materials contained therein and, under appropriate safeguards, to inspect, examine, and test any physical evidence or sample contained therein.

(2) The prosecuting attorney to give~~Give~~ notice to the defendant of any expert witnesses that the State reasonably expects to call as a witness at trial. Each such witness shall prepare, and the State shall furnish to the defendant, a report of the results of any examinations or tests conducted by the expert. The State shall also furnish to the defendant the expert's curriculum vitae, the expert's opinion, and the underlying basis for that opinion. The State shall give the notice and furnish the materials required by this subsection within a reasonable time prior to trial, as specified by the court. Standardized fee scales shall be developed by the Administrative Office of the Courts and Indigent Defense Services for all expert witnesses and private investigators who are compensated with State funds.

(3) The prosecuting attorney to give~~Give~~ the defendant, at the beginning of jury selection, a written list of the names of all other witnesses whom the State reasonably expects to call during the trial. Names of witnesses shall not be subject to disclosure if the ~~State~~ prosecuting attorney certifies in writing and under seal to the court that to do so may subject the witnesses or others to physical or substantial economic harm or coercion, or that there is other particularized, compelling need not to disclose. If there are witnesses that the State did not reasonably expect to call at the time of the provision of the witness list, and as a result are not listed, the court upon a good faith showing shall allow the witnesses to be called. Additionally, in the interest of justice, the court may in its discretion permit any undisclosed witness to testify.

(b) If the State voluntarily provides disclosure under G.S. 15A-902(a), the disclosure shall be to the same extent as required by subsection (a) of this section.

(c) On a timely basis,~~Upon request by the State, a~~ law enforcement ~~or prosecutorial agency~~ and investigatory agencies shall make available to the ~~State~~ prosecutor's office a complete copy of the complete files related to the investigation of the crimes committed or the prosecution of the defendant for compliance with this section and any disclosure under G.S. 15A-902(a). ~~All public and private entities~~Investigatory agencies that obtain ~~such~~ information and materials ~~shall ensure that all material~~ listed in subdivision (1) of subsection (a) of this section shall ensure that such information and materials are~~is~~ fully disclosed to the ~~referring prosecutorial agency~~prosecutor's office on a timely basis for disclosure to the defendant.

(d) Any person who willfully omits or misrepresents evidence or information required to be disclosed pursuant to subdivision (1) of subsection (a) of this section, or required to be provided to the ~~State~~ prosecutor's office pursuant to subsection (c) of this section, shall be guilty of a Class H felony. Any person who willfully omits or misrepresents evidence or information required to be disclosed pursuant to any other provision of this section shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor."

SECTION 2. G.S. 15A-904 reads as rewritten:

"§ 15A-904. Disclosure by the State – Certain information not subject to disclosure.

(a) The State is not required to disclose written materials drafted by the prosecuting attorney or the prosecuting attorney's legal staff for their own use at trial, including witness examinations, voir dire questions, opening statements, and closing arguments. Disclosure is also not required of legal research or of records, correspondence, reports, memoranda, or trial preparation interview notes prepared by the prosecuting attorney or by members of the prosecuting attorney's legal staff to the extent they contain the opinions, theories, strategies, or conclusions of the prosecuting attorney or the prosecuting attorney's legal staff.

(a1) The State is not required to disclose the identity of a confidential informant unless the disclosure is otherwise required by law.

(a2) The State is not required to provide any personal identifying information of a witness beyond that witness's name, address, date of birth, and published phone number, unless the court determines upon motion of the defendant that such additional information is necessary to accurately identify and locate the witness.

(a3) The State is not required to disclose the identity of any individual providing information about a crime or criminal conduct to a Crime Stoppers organization under promise or assurance of anonymity unless ordered by the court. For purposes of this Article, a Crime Stoppers organization or similarly named entity means a private, nonprofit North Carolina corporation governed by a civilian volunteer board of directors that is operated on a local or statewide level that (i) offers anonymity to persons providing information to the organization, (ii) accepts and expends donations for cash rewards to persons who report to the organization information about alleged criminal activity and that the organization forwards to the appropriate law enforcement agency, and (iii) is established as a cooperative alliance between the news media, the community, and law enforcement officials.

(a4) The State is not required to disclose the Victim Impact Statement or its contents unless otherwise required by law. For purposes of this Chapter, a Victim Impact Statement is a document submitted by the victim or the victim's family to the State pursuant to the Victims' Rights Amendment.

(b) Nothing in this section prohibits the State from making voluntary disclosures in the interest of justice nor prohibits a court from finding that the protections of this section have been waived.

(c) This section shall have no effect on the State's duty to comply with federal or State constitutional disclosure requirements."

SECTION 3. G.S. 15A-905(c)(2) reads as rewritten:

"(c) Notice of Defenses, Expert Witnesses, and Witness Lists. – If the court grants any relief sought by the defendant under G.S. 15A-903, or if disclosure is voluntarily made by the State pursuant to G.S. 15A-902(a), the court must, upon motion of the State, order the defendant to:

...

(2) Give notice to the State of any expert witnesses that the defendant reasonably expects to call as a witness at trial. Each such witness shall prepare, and the defendant shall furnish to the State, a report of the results of the examinations or tests conducted by the expert. The defendant shall also furnish to the State the expert's curriculum vitae, the expert's opinion, and the underlying basis for that opinion. The defendant shall give the notice and furnish the materials required by this subdivision within a reasonable time prior to trial, as specified by the court. Standardized fee scales shall be developed by the Administrative Office of the Courts and Indigent Defense Services for all expert witnesses and private investigators who are compensated with State funds.

..."

SECTION 4. G.S. 15A-910 is amended by adding two new subsections to read:

"(c) For purposes of determining whether to impose personal sanctions for untimely disclosure of law enforcement and investigatory agencies' files, courts and State agencies shall presume that prosecuting attorneys and their staff have acted in good faith if they have made a reasonably diligent inquiry of those agencies under G.S. 15A-903(c) and disclosed the responsive materials.

(d) If the court imposes any sanction, it must make specific findings justifying the imposed sanction."

SECTION 5. This act becomes effective December 1, 2011, and applies to cases pending on that date and to cases filed on or after that date.

HOUSE BILL 408:
Amend Criminal Discovery Laws

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary I	Date:	June 8, 2011
Introduced by:	Reps. T. Moore, Spear, Shepard	Prepared by:	Susan Sitze*
Analysis of:	PCS to Second Edition H408-CSSA-61		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: The PCS to House Bill 408 would amend the Criminal Procedure Act relating to discovery in Superior Court in order to strengthen the open-file discovery law, protect CrimeStoppers informants, protect victim information, require law enforcement and investigatory agencies to make timely disclosure of their files, and avoid frivolous claims of professional misconduct against prosecutors.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1. Currently, G.S. 15A-903(a)(1) requires the State to make available to the defendant the complete files of all law enforcement or prosecutorial agencies involved in the investigation or prosecution of the offenses. Section 1 of the PCS would change current law by deleting the term "prosecutorial agency" and creating definitions of "prosecutor's office" and "investigatory agency." On a motion of the defendant, the court would be required order the State to make available to the defendant the complete files of all law enforcement agencies, investigatory agencies, and prosecutor's offices involved in the investigation or prosecution of a case. The prosecuting attorney would be required to give notice to the defendant of the State's lay and expert witnesses. State-funded experts and private investigators would be compensated according to a fee scale to be developed by the Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC) and Indigent Defense Services (IDS).

The PCS would make it mandatory for law enforcement and investigatory agencies to "timely" provide the prosecutor's office with a complete copy of their investigative files. Any entity obtaining information required to be disclosed must ensure that the information is timely disclosed to the prosecutor's office for further required disclosure to the defendant.

Section 2 defines a CrimeStoppers organization, and would provide that, unless court-ordered, the State is not required to divulge the identity of any person who has given information to CrimeStoppers under assurance of anonymity, nor to disclose information contained in the Victim Impact Statement.

Section 3 would direct AOC and IDS to develop standardized fee scales for payment of defense experts and private investigators compensated by the State.

Section 4 would add two new subsections providing a presumption of good faith by prosecutors and their staff if they made a reasonably diligent inquiry of law enforcement and investigatory agencies, and providing that a court must make specific findings to support the imposition of sanctions on any party for failing to comply with discovery procedures.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The act becomes effective December 1, 2011, and applies to cases pending or filed on or after that date.

~~c. House arrest with electronic monitoring.~~
~~d. Intensive supervision.~~
~~e. Assignment to a day reporting center.~~
~~f. Assignment to a drug treatment court program.~~"

SECTION 1.(c) G.S. 15A-1343 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(a1) Community and Intermediate Probation Conditions. – In addition to any conditions a court may be authorized to impose pursuant to G.S. 15A-1343(b1), the court may include any one or more of the following conditions as part of a community or intermediate punishment:

(1) House arrest with electronic monitoring.
(2) Special probation as defined in G.S. 15A-1351(a).
(3) Perform community service.
(4) Submission to a period or periods of confinement in a local confinement facility for a total of no more than six days per month during any three separate months during the period of probation. The six days per month confinement provided for in this subdivision may only be imposed as two-day or three-day consecutive periods.

(5) Substance abuse assessment, monitoring, or treatment.

(6) Participation in an educational or vocational skills development program, including an evidence-based program.

(7) Submission to satellite-based monitoring, pursuant to Part 5 of Article 27A of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes, if the defendant is described by G.S. 14-208.40(a)(2)."

SECTION 1.(d) G.S. 15A-1343.2(e) reads as rewritten:

"(e) Delegation to Probation Officer in Community Punishment. – Unless the presiding judge specifically finds in the judgment of the court that delegation is not appropriate, the Division of Community Corrections in the Department of Correction may require an offender sentenced to community punishment ~~to:~~to do any of the following:

(1) Perform up to 20 hours of community service, and pay the fee prescribed by law for this ~~supervision;~~supervision.

(2) Report to the offender's probation officer on a frequency to be determined by the ~~officer; or~~officer.

(3) Submit to substance abuse assessment, monitoring or treatment.

(4) Submit to house arrest with electronic monitoring.

(5) Submit to a period or periods of confinement in a local confinement facility for a total of no more than six days per month during any three separate months during the period of probation. The six days per month confinement provided for in this subdivision may only be imposed as two-day or three-day consecutive periods.

(6) Submit to a curfew which requires the offender to remain in a specified place for a specified period each day and wear a device that permits the offender's compliance with the condition to be monitored electronically.

(7) Participate in an educational or vocational skills development program, including an evidence-based program.

If the Division imposes any of the above requirements, then it may subsequently reduce or remove those same requirements.

The probation officer may exercise authority delegated to him or her by the court pursuant to subsection (e) of this section after administrative review and approval by a Chief Probation Officer. The offender may file a motion with the court to review the action taken by the probation officer. The offender shall be given notice of the right to seek such a court review. However, the offender shall have no right of review if he or she has signed a written waiver of rights as required by this subsection. The Division may exercise any authority delegated to it under this subsection only if it first determines that the offender has failed to comply with one or more of the conditions of probation imposed by the court or the offender is determined to be high risk based on the results of the risk assessment in G.S. 15A-1343.2, except that the condition at subdivision (5) of this subsection may not be imposed unless the Division determines that the offender failed to comply with one or more of the conditions imposed by the court. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the availability of the procedures authorized under G.S. 15A-1345.

~~If the probation officer exercises authority delegated to him or her by the court pursuant to this subsection, the offender may file a motion with the court to review the action taken by the probation officer. The offender shall be given notice of the right to seek such a court review. The Division may exercise any authority delegated to it under this subsection only if it first determines that the offender has failed to comply with one or more of the conditions of probation imposed by the court.~~

The Department shall adopt guidelines and procedures to implement the requirements of this section, which shall include a supervisor's approval prior to exercise of the delegation of authority authorized by this section. Prior to imposing confinement pursuant to subdivision (5) of this subsection, the probationer must first be presented with a violation report, with the alleged violations noted and advised of the right (i) to a hearing before the court on the alleged violation, with the right to present relevant oral and written evidence; (ii) to have counsel at the hearing, and that one will be appointed if the probationer is indigent; (iii) to request witnesses who have relevant information concerning the alleged violations; and (iv) to examine any witnesses or evidence. Upon the signing of a waiver of rights by the probationer, with both the probation officer and a supervisor signing as witnesses, the probationer may be confined for the period designated on the violation report."

SECTION 1.(e) G.S. 15A-1343.2(f) reads as rewritten:

"(f) Delegation to Probation Officer in Intermediate Punishments. – Unless the presiding judge specifically finds in the judgment of the court that delegation is not appropriate, the Division of Community Corrections in the Department of Correction may require an offender sentenced to intermediate punishment ~~to:~~to do any of the following:

(1) Perform up to 50 hours of community service, and pay the fee prescribed by law for this ~~supervision;~~supervision.

(2) Submit to a curfew which requires the offender to remain in a specified place for a specified period each day and wear a device that permits the offender's compliance with the condition to be monitored ~~electronically;~~ electronically.

(3) Submit to substance abuse assessment, monitoring or ~~treatment;~~ treatment.

(4) Participate in an educational or vocational skills development ~~program.~~program, including an evidence-based program.

(5) Submit to satellite-based monitoring pursuant to Part 5 of Article 27A of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes, if the defendant is described by G.S. 14-208.40(a)(2).

(6) Submit to a period or periods of confinement in a local confinement facility for a total of no more than six days per month during any three separate months during the period of probation. The six days per month confinement provided for in this subdivision may only be imposed as two-day or three-day consecutive periods.

(7) Submit to house arrest with electronic monitoring.

(8) Report to the offender's probation officer on a frequency to be determined by the officer.

If the Division imposes any of the above requirements, then it may subsequently reduce or remove those same requirements.

The probation officer may exercise authority delegated to him or her by the court pursuant to subsection (f) of this section after administrative review and approval by a Chief Probation Officer. The offender may file a motion with the court to review the action taken by the probation officer. The offender shall be given notice of the right to seek such a court review. However, the offender shall have no right of review if he or she has signed a written waiver of rights as required by this subsection. The Division may exercise any authority delegated to it under this subsection only if it first determines that the offender has failed to comply with one or more of the conditions of probation imposed by the court or the offender is determined to be high risk based on the results of the risk assessment in G.S. 15A-1343.2, except that the condition at subdivision (6) of this subsection may not be imposed unless the Division determines that the offender failed to comply with one or more of the conditions imposed by the court. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the availability of the procedures authorized under G.S. 15A-1345.

~~If the probation officer exercises authority delegated to him or her by the court pursuant to this subsection, the offender may file a motion with the court to review the action taken by the probation officer. The offender shall be given notice of the right to seek such a court review. The Division may exercise any authority delegated to it under this subsection only if it first determines that the offender has failed to comply with one or more of the conditions of probation imposed by the court.~~

The Department shall adopt guidelines and procedures to implement the requirements of this section, which shall include a supervisor's approval prior to exercise of the delegation of authority authorized by this section. Prior to imposing confinement pursuant to subdivision (6) of this subsection, the probationer must first be presented with a violation report, with the alleged violations noted and advised of the right (i) to a hearing before the court on the alleged violation, with the right to present relevant oral and written evidence; (ii) to have counsel at the hearing, and that one will be appointed if the probationer is indigent; (iii) to request witnesses who have relevant information concerning the alleged violations; and (iv) to examine any witnesses or evidence. Upon the signing of a waiver of rights by the probationer, with both the probation officer and a supervisor signing as witnesses, the probationer may be confined for the period designated on the violation report."

SECTION 1.(f) G.S. 15A-1343.2 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(b1) Departmental Risk Assessment by Validated Instrument Required. – As part of the probation program developed by the Department of Correction pursuant to subsection (b) of this section, the Department of Correction shall use a validated instrument to assess each probationer for risk of reoffending and shall place a probationer in a supervision level based on the probationer's risk of reoffending and criminogenic needs."

SECTION 1.(g) G.S. 15A-1343(b1)(3b) is repealed.

SECTION 1.(h) G.S. 15A-1340.11(3) is repealed.

SECTION 1.(i) G.S. 15A-1340.11(5) is repealed.

SECTION 1.(j) G.S. 15A-1340.11(8) is repealed.

SECTION 1.(k) G.S. 15A-1343.2(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) Probation Caseload Goals. – It is the goal of the General Assembly that, subject to the availability of funds, caseloads for probation officers supervising persons who are determined to be high or moderate risk of rearrest as determined by the Department's validated risk assessment should not exceed an average of 60 offenders per officer.~~sentenced to community punishment should not exceed an average of 90 offenders per officer, and caseloads for offenders sentenced to intermediate punishments should not exceed an average of 60 offenders per officer by July 1, 1998.~~"

SECTION 1.(l) This section becomes effective December 1, 2011, and applies to persons placed on probation based on offenses which occur on or after December 1, 2011; however, this section and the provisions of this act requiring the Department of Correction to adopt guidelines and procedures are effective when this act becomes law.

PART II. POST-RELEASE SUPERVISION CHANGES

SECTION 2.(a) G.S. 15A-1368.1 reads as rewritten:

"§ 15A-1368.1. Applicability of Article 84A.

This Article applies to all felons ~~in Class B1 through Class E~~ sentenced to an active punishment under Article 81B of this Chapter, but does not apply to felons in Class A and Class B1 sentenced to life imprisonment without parole. Prisoners subject to Articles 85 and 85A of this Chapter are excluded from this Article's coverage."

SECTION 2.(b) G.S. 15A-1368.2 reads as rewritten:

"§ 15A-1368.2. Post-release supervision eligibility and procedure.

(a) A prisoner to whom this Article applies shall be released from prison for post-release supervision on the date equivalent to his maximum imposed prison term less ~~nine~~ ~~months,~~ 12 months in the case of Class B1 through E felons and less nine months in the case of Class F through I felons, less any earned time awarded by the Department of Correction or the custodian of a local confinement facility under G.S. 15A-1340.13(d). If a prisoner has not been awarded any earned time, the prisoner shall be released for post-release supervision on the date equivalent to his maximum prison term less nine months.

(b) A prisoner shall not refuse post-release supervision.

(c) A supervisee's period of post-release supervision shall be for a period of ~~nine months,~~ 12 months in the case of Class B1 through E felons and nine months in the case of Class F through I felons, unless the offense is an offense for which registration is required pursuant to Article 27A of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes. For offenses subject to the registration requirement of Article 27A of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes, the period of post-release supervision is five years. The conditions of post-release supervision are as authorized in G.S. 15A-1368.5.

...."

SECTION 2.(c) G.S. 15A-1368.4(e) is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(7a) Not to abscond, by willfully avoiding supervision or by willfully making the supervisee's whereabouts unknown to the supervising probation officer."

SECTION 2.(d) G.S. 15A-1368.3(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) Effect of Violation. – If the supervisee violates a condition, described in G.S. 15A-1368.4, at any time before the termination of the supervision period, the Commission may continue the supervisee on the existing supervision, with or without modifying the conditions, or if continuation or modification is not appropriate, may revoke post-release supervision as provided in G.S. 15A-1368.6 and reimprison the supervisee for a term consistent with the following requirements:

(1) ~~The supervisee~~Supervisees who were convicted of an offense for which registration is required under Article 27A of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes and supervisees whose supervision is revoked for a violation of the required controlling condition under G.S. 15A-1368.4(b) or for absconding in violation of G.S. 15A-1368.4(e)(7a) will be returned to prison up to the time remaining on ~~his~~their maximum imposed ~~term.~~terms. All other supervisees will be returned to prison for three months and may be returned for three months on each of two subsequent violations, after which supervisees who were Class B1 through E felons may be returned to prison up to the time remaining on their maximum imposed terms.

(2) The supervisee shall not receive any credit for days on post-release supervision against the maximum term of imprisonment imposed by the court under G.S. 15A-1340.13.

(3) Pursuant to Article 19A of Chapter 15, the Department of Correction shall award a prisoner credit against any term of reimprisonment for all time spent in custody as a result of revocation proceedings under G.S. 15A-1368.6.

(4) The prisoner is eligible to receive earned time credit against the maximum prison term as provided in G.S. 15A-1340.13(d) for time served in prison after the revocation."

SECTION 2.(e) G.S. 15A-1340.17(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) Maximum Sentences Specified for Class F through Class I Felonies. – Unless provided otherwise in a statute establishing a punishment for a specific crime, for each minimum term of imprisonment in the chart in subsection (c) of this section, expressed in months, the corresponding maximum term of imprisonment, also expressed in months, is as specified in the table below for Class F through Class I felonies. The first figure in each cell in the table is the minimum term and the second is the maximum term.

SECTION 2.(g) G.S. 15A-1340.17(e1) reads as rewritten:

"(e1) Maximum Sentences Specified for Class B1 through Class E Felonies for Minimum Terms of 340 Months or More. – Unless provided otherwise in a statute establishing a punishment for a specific crime, when the minimum sentence is 340 months or more, the corresponding maximum term of imprisonment shall be equal to the sum of the minimum term of imprisonment and twenty percent (20%) of the minimum term of imprisonment, rounded to the next highest month, plus ~~nine~~ 12 additional months."

SECTION 2.(h) This section becomes effective December 1, 2011, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date.

PART III. STATUS OFFENSE OF HABITUAL BREAKING AND ENTERING

SECTION 3.(a) Chapter 14 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new Article to read:

"Article 2D.

"Habitual Breaking and Entering Status Offense.

"§ 14-7.25. Definitions.

The following definitions apply in this Article:

(1) "Breaking and entering." – The term means any of the following felony offenses:

a. First degree burglary (G.S. 14-51).

b. Second degree burglary (G.S. 14-51).

c. Breaking out of dwelling house burglary (G.S. 14-53).

d. Breaking or entering buildings generally (G.S. 14-54(a)).

e. Breaking or entering a building that is a place of religious worship (G.S. 14-54.1).

f. Any repealed or superseded offense substantially equivalent to any of the offenses in sub-subdivision a., b., c., d., or e. of this subdivision.

g. Any offense committed in another jurisdiction substantially similar to any of the offenses in sub-subdivision a., b., c., d., or e. of this subdivision.

(2) "Convicted." – The person has been adjudged guilty of or has entered a plea of guilty or no contest to the offense of breaking and entering.

(3) "Status offender." – A person who is a habitual breaking and entering status offender as described in G.S. 14-7.26.

"§ 14-7.26. Habitual breaking and entering status offender.

Any person who has been convicted of or pled guilty to one or more prior felony offenses of breaking and entering in any federal court or state court in the United States, or combination thereof, is guilty of the status offense of habitual breaking and entering and may be charged with that status offense pursuant to this Article.

This Article does not apply to a second felony offense of breaking and entering unless it is committed after the conviction of the first felony offense of breaking and entering. For purposes of this Article, felony offenses of breaking and entering committed before the person is 18 years of age shall not constitute more than one felony of breaking and entering. Any felony to which a pardon has been extended shall not, for the purposes of this Article, constitute a felony offense of breaking and entering.

"§ 14-7.27. Punishment.

When any person is charged with a felony offense of breaking and entering and is also charged with being a status offender as defined in G.S. 14-7.26, the person must, upon conviction, be sentenced and punished as a status offender as provided by this Article.

"§ 14-7.28. Charge of habitual breaking and entering status offender.

(a) The district attorney, in his or her discretion, may charge a person with the status offense of habitual breaking and entering pursuant to this Article. To sustain a conviction of a person as a status offender, the person must be charged separately for the felony offense of breaking and entering and for the habitual breaking and entering status offense. The indictment charging the defendant as a status offender shall be separate from the indictment charging the person with the principal felony offense of breaking and entering.

(b) An indictment that charges a person with being a status offender must set forth the date that the prior felony offense of breaking and entering was committed, the name of the state or other sovereign against whom the felony offense of breaking and entering was committed, the dates that the plea of guilty was entered into or conviction returned in the felony offense of breaking and entering, and the identity of the court in which the plea or conviction took place. No defendant charged with being a status offender in a bill of indictment shall be required to go to trial on the charge within 20 days of the finding of a true bill by the grand jury; provided, the defendant may waive this 20-day period.

"§ 14-7.29. Evidence of prior convictions of breaking and entering.

In all cases in which a person is charged under the provisions of this Article with being a status offender, the record of prior conviction of the felony offense of breaking and entering shall be admissible in evidence, but only for the purpose of proving that the person has been convicted of a former felony offense of breaking and entering. A prior conviction may be proved by stipulation of the parties or by the original or a certified copy of the court record of the prior conviction. The original or certified copy of the court record, bearing the same name as that by which the defendant is charged, shall be prima facie evidence that the defendant named therein is the same as the defendant before the court and shall be prima facie evidence of the facts set out therein.

"§ 14-7.30. Verdict and judgment.

(a) When an indictment charges a person with a felony offense of breaking and entering as provided by this Article and an indictment also charges that the person is a status offender, the defendant shall be tried for the principal offense of breaking and entering as provided by law. The indictment that the person is a status offender shall not be revealed to the jury unless the jury shall find that the defendant is guilty of the principal felony offense of breaking and entering with which the defendant is charged.

(b) If the jury finds the defendant guilty of the felony offense of breaking and entering, the bill of indictment charging the defendant as a status offender may be presented to the same jury. Except that the same jury may be used, the proceedings shall be as if the issue of status offender were a principal charge.

(c) If the jury finds that the defendant is a status offender, the trial judge shall enter judgment according to the provisions of this Article. If the jury finds that the defendant is not a status offender, the trial judge shall pronounce judgment on the principal felony offense of breaking and entering as provided by law.

"§ 14-7.31. Sentencing of status offenders.

(a) When a status offender as defined in this Article commits a felony offense of breaking and entering under the laws of the State of North Carolina, the status offender must, upon conviction or plea of guilty under indictment as provided in this Article, be sentenced as a Class E felon.

(b) In determining the prior record level, any conviction used to establish a person's status as a status offender shall not be used. Sentences imposed under this Article shall run consecutively with and shall commence at the expiration of any sentence being served by the person sentenced under this section.

(c) A conviction as a status offender under this Article shall not constitute commission of a felony for the purpose of either Article 2A or Article 2B of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes."

SECTION 3.(b) G.S. 14-7.1 reads as rewritten:

"§ 14-7.1. Persons defined as habitual felons.

Any person who has been convicted of or pled guilty to three felony offenses in any federal court or state court in the United States or combination thereof is declared to be an habitual ~~felon.~~ felon and may be charged as a status offender pursuant to this Article. For the purpose of this Article, a felony offense is defined as an offense which is a felony under the laws of the State or other sovereign wherein a plea of guilty was entered or a conviction was returned regardless of the sentence actually imposed. Provided, however, that federal offenses relating to the manufacture, possession, sale and kindred offenses involving intoxicating liquors shall not be considered felonies for the purposes of this Article. For the purposes of this Article, felonies committed before a person attains the age of 18 years shall not constitute more than one felony. The commission of a second felony shall not fall within the purview of this Article unless it is committed after the conviction of or plea of guilty to the first felony. The commission of a third felony shall not fall within the purview of this Article unless it is committed after the conviction of or plea of guilty to the second felony. Pleas of guilty to or convictions of felony offenses prior to July 6, 1967, shall not be felony offenses within the meaning of this Article. Any felony offense to which a pardon has been extended shall not for the purpose of this Article constitute a felony. The burden of proving such pardon shall rest with the defendant and the State shall not be required to disprove a pardon."

SECTION 3.(c) G.S. 14-7.3 reads as rewritten:

"§ 14-7.3. Charge of habitual felon.

The district attorney, in his or her discretion, may charge a person as an habitual felon pursuant to this Article. An indictment which charges a person who is an habitual felon within the meaning of G.S. 14-7.1 with the commission of any felony under the laws of the State of North Carolina must, in order to sustain a conviction of habitual felon, also charge that said person is an habitual felon. The indictment charging the defendant as an habitual felon shall be separate from the indictment charging him with the principal felony. An indictment which charges a person with being an habitual felon must set forth the date that prior felony offenses were committed, the name of the state or other sovereign against whom said felony offenses were committed, the dates that pleas of guilty were entered to or convictions returned in said felony offenses, and the identity of the court wherein said pleas or convictions took place. No defendant charged with being an habitual felon in a bill of indictment shall be required to go to trial on said charge within 20 days of the finding of a true bill by the grand jury; provided, the defendant may waive this 20-day period."

SECTION 3.(d) G.S. 14-7.6 reads as rewritten:

"§ 14-7.6. Sentencing of habitual felons.

When an habitual felon as defined in this Article commits any felony under the laws of the State of North Carolina, the felon must, upon conviction or plea of guilty under indictment as provided in this Article (except where the felon has been sentenced as a Class A, B1, or B2 felon) be sentenced ~~as a Class C felon.~~ at a felony class level that is four classes higher than the principal felony for which the person was convicted; but under no circumstances shall an habitual felon be sentenced at a level higher than a Class C felony. In determining the prior record level, convictions used to establish a person's status as an habitual felon shall not be used. Sentences imposed under this Article shall run consecutively with and shall commence at the expiration of any sentence being served by the person sentenced under this section."

SECTION 3.(e) This section becomes effective December 1, 2011, and applies to any offense that occurs on or after that date and that is the principal felony offense for a charge of either the status offenses of habitual breaking and entering or habitual felon. Prosecutions for offenses committed before the effective date of this act are not abated or affected by this act, and the statutes that would be applicable but for this act remain applicable to those prosecutions.

PART IV. LIMIT TIME/CERTAIN VIOLATIONS OF PROBATION

SECTION 4.(a) G.S. 15A-1343(b) is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(3a) Not to abscond, by willfully avoiding supervision or by willfully making the defendant's whereabouts unknown to the supervising probation officer."

SECTION 4.(b) G.S. 15A-1344(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) Authority to Alter or Revoke. – Except as provided in subsection (a1) or (b), probation may be reduced, terminated, continued, extended, modified, or revoked by any judge entitled to sit in the court which imposed probation and who is resident or presiding in the district court district as defined in G.S. 7A-133 or superior court district or set of districts as defined in G.S. 7A-41.1, as the case may be, where the sentence of probation was imposed, where the probationer violates probation, or where the probationer resides. Upon a finding that an offender sentenced to community punishment under Article 81B has violated one or more conditions of probation, the court's authority to modify the probation judgment includes the authority to require the offender to comply with conditions of probation that would otherwise make the sentence an intermediate punishment. The court may only revoke probation for a violation of a condition of probation under G.S. 15A-1343(b)(1) or G.S. 15A-1343(b)(3a), except as provided in G.S. 15A-1344(d2). Imprisonment may be imposed pursuant to G.S. 15A-1344(d2) for a violation of a requirement other than G.S. 15A-1343(b)(1) or G.S. 15A-1343(b)(3a). The district attorney of the prosecutorial district as defined in G.S. 7A-60 in which probation was imposed must be given reasonable notice of any hearing to affect probation substantially."

SECTION 4.(c) G.S. 15A-1344 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(d2) Confinement in Response to Violation. – When a defendant has violated a condition of probation other than G.S. 15A-1343(b)(1) or G.S. 15A-1343(b)(3a), the court may impose a 90-day period of confinement, but may not revoke probation unless the defendant has previously received a total of two 90-day periods of confinement under this subsection. A defendant may receive only two 90-day periods of confinement under this subsection. If the time remaining on the defendant's maximum imposed sentence is less than 90 days, then the term of confinement is for the remaining period of the sentence. Confinement under this section shall be credited pursuant to G.S. 15-196.1."

SECTION 4.(d) This section is effective December 1, 2011, and applies to probation violations occurring on or after that date.

PART V. DIVERSION PROGRAM/FELONY DRUG POSSESSION

SECTION 5.(a) G.S. 90-96 reads as rewritten:

"§ 90-96. Conditional discharge for first offense.

(a) Whenever any person who has not previously been convicted of (i) any felony offense under any state or federal laws; (ii) any offense under this ~~Article~~ Article; or (iii) an offense under any statute of the United States or any state relating to those substances included in Article 5 or 5A of Chapter 90 or to that paraphernalia included in Article 5B of Chapter ~~90~~90 of the General Statutes pleads guilty to or is found guilty of (i) a misdemeanor under this Article by possessing a controlled substance included within Schedules ~~II~~ I through VI of this Article or by possessing drug paraphernalia as prohibited by G.S. 90 113.22, or (ii) a felony under G.S. 90-95(a)(3), ~~G.S. 90-95(a)(3) by possessing less than one gram of cocaine,~~ the court ~~may,~~ shall, without entering a judgment of guilt and with the consent of such person, defer further proceedings and place him on probation upon such reasonable terms and conditions as it may require. Notwithstanding the provisions of G.S. 15A 1342(c) or any other statute or law, probation may be imposed under this section for an offense under this Article for which the prescribed punishment includes only a fine. To fulfill the terms and conditions of probation the court may allow the defendant to participate in a drug education program approved for this purpose by the Department of Health and Human ~~Services.~~ Services or in the Treatment for Effective Community Supervision Program under Article 6B of Chapter 143B of the General Statutes. Upon violation of a term or condition, the court may enter an adjudication of guilt and proceed as otherwise provided. Upon fulfillment of the terms and conditions, the court shall discharge such person and dismiss the proceedings against him. Discharge and dismissal under this section shall be without court adjudication of guilt and shall not be deemed a conviction for purposes of this section or for purposes of disqualifications or disabilities imposed by law upon conviction of a crime including the additional penalties imposed for second or subsequent convictions under this Article. Discharge and dismissal under this section or G.S. 90 113.14 may occur only once with respect to any person. Disposition of a case to determine discharge and dismissal under this section at the district court division of the General Court of Justice shall be final for the purpose of appeal. Prior to taking any action to discharge and dismiss under this section the court shall make a finding that the defendant has no record of previous convictions ~~under the "North Carolina Controlled Substances Act", Article 5, Chapter 90, the "North Carolina Toxic Vapors Act", Article 5A, Chapter 90, or the "Drug Paraphernalia Act", Article 5B, Chapter 90.~~as provided in this subsection.

(a1) Upon the first conviction only of any offense ~~included in G.S. 90-95(a)(3) or G.S. 90-113.22 and subject to the provisions of this subsection (a1),~~ which qualifies under the provisions of subsection (a) of this section, and the provisions of this subsection, the court may place defendant on probation under this section for an offense under this Article including an offense for which the prescribed punishment includes only a fine. The probation, if imposed, shall be for not less than one year and shall contain a minimum condition that the defendant who was found guilty or pleads guilty enroll in and successfully complete, within 150 days of the date of the imposition of said probation, the program of instruction at the drug education school approved by the Department of Health and Human Services pursuant to G.S. 90 96.01. The court may impose probation that does not contain a condition that defendant successfully complete the program of instruction at a drug education school if:

(1) There is no drug education school within a reasonable distance of the defendant's residence; or

(2) There are specific, extenuating circumstances which make it likely that defendant will not benefit from the program of instruction.

The court shall enter such specific findings in the record; provided that in the case of subdivision (2) above, such findings shall include the specific, extenuating circumstances which make it likely that the defendant will not benefit from the program of instruction.

Upon fulfillment of the terms and conditions of the probation, the court shall discharge such person and dismiss the proceedings against the person.

For the purposes of determining whether the conviction is a first conviction or whether a person has already had discharge and dismissal, no prior offense occurring more than seven years before the date of the current offense shall be considered. In addition, convictions for violations of a provision of G.S. 90-95(a)(1) or 90-95(a)(2) or 90-95(a)(3), or 90-113.10, or 90-113.11, or 90-113.12, or 90-113.22 shall be considered previous convictions.

Failure to complete successfully an approved program of instruction at a drug education school shall constitute grounds to revoke probation pursuant to this subsection and deny application for expunction of all recordation of defendant's arrest, indictment, or information, trial, finding of guilty, and dismissal and discharge pursuant to G.S. 15A-145.2. For purposes of this subsection, the phrase "failure to complete successfully the prescribed program of instruction at a drug education school" includes failure to attend scheduled classes without a valid excuse, failure to complete the course within 150 days of imposition of probation, willful failure to pay the required fee for the course as provided in G.S. 90-96.01(b), or any other manner in which the person fails to complete the course successfully. The instructor of the course to which a person is assigned shall report any failure of a person to complete successfully the program of instruction to the court which imposed probation. Upon receipt of the instructor's report that the person failed to complete the program successfully, the court shall revoke probation, shall not discharge such person, shall not dismiss the proceedings against the person, and shall deny application for expunction of all recordation of defendant's arrest, indictment, or information, trial, finding of guilty, and dismissal and discharge pursuant to G.S. 15A-145.2. A person may obtain a hearing before the court of original jurisdiction prior to revocation of probation or denial of application for expunction.

This subsection is supplemental and in addition to existing law and shall not be construed so as to repeal any existing provision contained in the General Statutes of North Carolina.

(b) Upon the discharge of such person, and dismissal of the proceedings against the person under subsection (a) or (a1) of this section, such person, if he or she was not over 21 years of age at the time of the offense, may be eligible to apply for expunction of certain records relating to the offense pursuant to G.S. 15A-145.2(a).

(c) Repealed by Session Laws 2009-510, s. 8(b), effective October 1, 2010.

(d) Whenever any person is charged with a misdemeanor under this Article by possessing a controlled substance included within Schedules ~~II~~ I through VI of this Article or a felony under ~~G.S. 90-95(a)(3) by possessing less than one gram of cocaine,~~ G.S. 90-95(a)(3), upon dismissal by the State of the charges against such person, upon entry of a nolle prosequi, or upon a finding of not guilty or other adjudication of innocence, the person may be eligible to apply for expunction of certain records relating to the offense pursuant to G.S. 15A-145.2(b).

(e) Whenever any person who has not previously been convicted of (i) any felony offense under any state or federal laws; (ii) any offense under this Article; or (iii) an offense under any statute of the United States or any state relating to ~~Whenever any person who has not previously been convicted of an offense under this Article or under any statute of the United States or any state relating to~~ controlled substances included in any schedule of this Article or to that paraphernalia included in Article 5B of Chapter 90 of the General Statutes pleads guilty to or has been found guilty of (i) a misdemeanor under this Article by possessing a controlled substance included within Schedules ~~II~~ I through VI of this Article, or by possessing drug paraphernalia as prohibited by G.S. 90-113.22 or (ii) a felony under ~~G.S. 90-95(a)(3) by possessing less than one gram of cocaine,~~G.S. 90-95(a)(3), the person may be eligible to apply for cancellation of the judgment and expunction of certain records related to the offense pursuant to G.S. 15A-145.2(c).

SECTION 5.(b) G.S. 15A-145.2 reads as rewritten:

"§ 15A-145.2. Expunction of records for first offenders not over 21 years of age at the time of the offense of certain drug offenses.

...

(b) Whenever any person is charged with a misdemeanor under Article 5 of Chapter 90 of the General Statutes by possessing a controlled substance included within Schedules ~~II~~ I through VI of Article 5 of Chapter 90 of the General Statutes or a felony under ~~G.S. 90-95(a)(3) by possessing less than one gram of cocaine,~~ G.S. 90-95(a)(3), upon dismissal by the State of the charges against the person, upon entry of a nolle prosequi, or upon a finding of not guilty or other adjudication of innocence, such person may apply to the court for an order to expunge from all official records all recordation relating to his or her arrest, indictment or information, or trial. If the court determines, after hearing, that such person was not over 21 years of age at the time the offense for which the person was charged occurred, it shall enter such order. The clerk shall notify State and local agencies of the court's order as provided in G.S. 15A-150. No person as to whom such order has been entered shall be held thereafter under any provision of any law to be guilty of perjury or otherwise giving a false statement by reason of the person's failures to recite or acknowledge such arrest, or indictment or information, or trial in response to any inquiry made of him or her for any purpose.

(c) Whenever any person who has not previously been convicted of (i) any felony offense under any state or federal laws; (ii) any offense under Chapter 90 of the General Statutes; or (iii) an offense under any statute of the United States or any state relating to controlled substances included in any schedule of Chapter 90 of the General Statutes or to that paraphernalia included in Article 5B of Chapter 90 of the General Statutes, pleads guilty to or has been found guilty of (i) a misdemeanor under this Article by possessing a controlled substance included within Schedules I through VI of Chapter 90, or by possessing drug paraphernalia as prohibited by G.S. 90-113.22 or (ii) a felony under G.S. 90-95(a)(3), ~~Whenever any person who has not previously been convicted of an offense under Article 5 of Chapter 90 of the General Statutes or under any statute of the United States or any state relating to controlled substances included in any schedule of Article 5 of Chapter 90 of the General Statutes or to that paraphernalia included in Article 5B of Chapter 90 of the General Statutes pleads guilty to or has been found guilty of (i) a misdemeanor under Article 5 of Chapter 90 of the General Statutes by possessing a controlled substance included within Schedules through VI of Article 5 of Chapter 90 of the General Statutes or by possessing drug paraphernalia as prohibited by G.S. 90-113.22 or (ii) a felony under~~ the court may, upon application of the person not sooner than 12 months after conviction, order cancellation of the judgment of conviction and expunction of the records of the person's arrest, indictment or information, trial, and conviction. A conviction in which the judgment of conviction has been canceled and the records expunged pursuant to this subsection shall not be thereafter deemed a conviction for purposes of this subsection or for purposes of disqualifications or liabilities imposed by law upon conviction of a crime, including the additional penalties imposed for second or subsequent convictions of Article 5 of Chapter 90 of the General Statutes. Cancellation and expunction under this subsection may occur only once with respect to any person. Disposition of a case under this subsection at the district court division of the General Court of Justice shall be final for the purpose of appeal.

The granting of an application filed under this subsection shall cause the issue of an order to expunge from all official records, other than the confidential files retained under G.S. 15A-151, all recordation relating to the petitioner's arrest, indictment or information, trial, finding of guilty, judgment of conviction, cancellation of the judgment, and expunction of records pursuant to this subsection.

The judge to whom the petition is presented is authorized to call upon a probation officer for additional investigation or verification of the petitioner's conduct since conviction. If the court determines that the petitioner was convicted of (i) a misdemeanor under Article 5 of Chapter 90 of the General Statutes for possessing a controlled substance included within Schedules ~~II~~ I through VI of Article 5 of Chapter 90 of the General Statutes or for possessing drug paraphernalia as prohibited in G.S. 90-113.22 or (ii) a felony under ~~G.S. 90-95(a)(3) for possession of less than one gram of cocaine,~~ G.S. 90-95(a)(3), that the petitioner has no disqualifying previous convictions as set forth in this subsection, that the petitioner was not over 21 years of age at the time of the offense, that the petitioner has been of good behavior since his or her conviction, that the petitioner has successfully completed a drug education program approved for this purpose by the Department of Health and Human Services, and that the petitioner has not been convicted of a felony or misdemeanor other than a traffic violation under the laws of this State at any time prior to or since the conviction for the offense in question, it shall enter an order of expunction of the petitioner's court record. The effect of such order shall be to restore the petitioner in the contemplation of the law to the status the petitioner occupied before arrest or indictment or information or conviction. No person as to whom such order was entered shall be held thereafter under any provision of any law to be guilty of perjury or otherwise giving a false statement by reason of the person's failures to recite or acknowledge such arrest, or indictment or information, or conviction, or trial in response to any inquiry made of him or her for any purpose. The judge may waive the condition that the petitioner attend the drug education school if the judge makes a specific finding that there was no drug education school within a reasonable distance of the defendant's residence or that there were specific extenuating circumstances which made it likely that the petitioner would not benefit from the program of instruction.

The court shall also order all law enforcement agencies, the Department of Correction, the Division of Motor Vehicles, and any other State or local agencies identified by the petitioner as bearing records of the conviction and records relating thereto to expunge their records of the conviction. The clerk shall notify State and local agencies of the court's order as provided in G.S. 15A-150."

SECTION 5.(c) Article 81B of Chapter 15A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 15A-1340.18. Advanced supervised release.

(a) Definitions. – For the purposes of this section, the following definitions apply:

(1) "Advanced supervised release" or "ASR" means release from prison and placement on post-release supervision under this section if an eligible defendant is sentenced to active time.

(2) "Eligible defendant" means a defendant convicted and sentenced based upon any of the following felony classes and prior record levels:

a. Class D, Prior Record Level I-III.

b. Class E, Prior Record Level I-IV.

c. Class F, Prior Record Level I-V.

d. Class G, Prior Record Level I-VI.

e. Class H, Prior Record Level I-VI.

(3) "Risk reduction incentive" is a sentencing condition which, upon successful completion during incarceration, results in a prisoner being placed on ASR.

(b) The Department of Correction is authorized to create risk reduction incentives consisting of treatment, education, and rehabilitative programs. The incentives shall be designed to reduce the likelihood that the prisoner who receives the incentive will reoffend.

(c) The court, in its discretion and without objection from the prosecutor, may include a risk reduction incentive or incentives in sentencing an eligible defendant to an active sentence.

(d) The court shall impose a sentence calculated pursuant to Article 81B of the General Statutes. The ASR date shall be the shortest mitigated sentence for the offense at the offender's prior record level. If the court utilizes the mitigated range in sentencing the defendant, then the ASR date shall be eighty percent (80%) of the minimum sentence imposed.

(e) The defendant shall be notified at sentencing that if the defendant completes the risk reduction incentives as identified by the Department, then he or she will be released on the ASR date. If the Department determines that the defendant is unable to complete the incentives by the ASR date, through no fault of the defendant, then the defendant shall be released at the ASR date.

(f) Termination from the risk reduction incentive program shall result in the nullification of the ASR date, and the defendant's release date shall be calculated based upon the adjudged sentence. A prisoner who has completed the risk reduction incentives prior to the ASR date may have the ASR date nullified due to noncompliance with Department rules or regulations.

(g) A defendant released on the ASR date is subject to post-release supervision under this Article. Notwithstanding the provisions in G.S. 15A-1368.3(c), if the defendant has been returned to prison for three, three-month periods of confinement, a subsequent violation shall result in the defendant returning to prison to serve the time remaining on the maximum imposed term, and is ineligible for further post-release supervision regardless of the amount of time remaining to be served.

(h) The Department shall adopt policies and procedures for the assessment to occur at diagnostic processing, for documentation of the inmate's progress, and for termination from the incentive program due to a lack of progress or a pattern of noncompliance in the program or with other Department rules or regulations."

SECTION 5.(d) G.S. 15A-1340.13(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) Service of Minimum Required; Earned Time Authorization. – An offender sentenced to an active punishment shall serve the minimum term ~~imposed.~~ imposed, except as provided in G.S. 15A-1340.18. The maximum term may be reduced to, but not below, the minimum term by earned time credits awarded to an offender by the Department of Correction or the custodian of the local confinement facility, pursuant to rules adopted in accordance with law."

SECTION 5.(e) This section becomes effective January 1, 2012, and applies to persons entering a plea or who are found guilty of an offense on or after that date.

PART VI. REFOCUS CRIMINAL JUSTICE PARTNERSHIP PROGRAM

SECTION 6.(a) Article 6A of Chapter 143B of the General Statutes is repealed.

SECTION 6.(b) Chapter 143B of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new Article to read:

"Article 6B.

"Treatment for Effective Community Supervision Program.

"§ 143B-274.1. Short title.

This Article is the "Treatment for Effective Community Supervision Act of 2011" and may be cited by that name.

"§ 143B-274.2. Legislative policy.

The policy of the General Assembly with respect to the Treatment for Effective Community Supervision Program is to support the use of evidence-based practices to reduce recidivism and to promote coordination between State and community-based corrections programs.

"§ 143B-274.3. Definitions.

The following definitions apply in this Article:

(1) Certified and licensed. – North Carolina Substance Abuse Professional Practice Board certified or licensed substance abuse professionals or Department of Health and Human Services licensed agencies.

(2) Department. – The Department of Correction.

(3) Division. – The Department of Correction, Division of Community Corrections.

(4) Eligible entity. – A local or regional government, a nongovernmental entity, or collaborative partnership that demonstrates capacity to provide services that address the criminogenic needs of offenders.

(5) Program. – A community-based corrections program.

(6) Secretary. – The Secretary of the Department of Correction.

(7) State Board. – The State Community Corrections Advisory Board.

"§ 143B-274.4. Goals of community-based corrections programs funded under this Article.

The goals of community-based programs funded under this Article are to reduce recidivism and to reduce the rate of probation and post-release supervision revocations from the rate in the 2009-2010 fiscal year.

"§ 143B-274.5. Eligible population.

(a) An eligible offender is an adult offender who was convicted of a misdemeanor or a felony offense or is sentenced under the conditional discharge program as defined in G.S. 90-96 and meets any one of the following criteria:

(1) Received a nonincarcerative sentence of a community punishment.

(2) Received a nonincarcerative sentence of an intermediate punishment.

(3) Is serving a term of parole or post-release supervision after serving an active sentence of imprisonment.

(b) The priority populations for programs funded under this Article shall be as follows:

(1) Offenders convicted of a felony or offenders sentenced under G.S. 90-96 conditional discharge for a felony offense.

(2) Offenders identified by the Department of Correction using a validated risk assessment instrument to have a high likelihood of reoffending and a moderate to high need for substance abuse treatment.

"§ 143B-274.6. Duties of Department of Correction.

(a) In addition to those otherwise provided by law, the Department of Correction shall have the following duties:

(1) To enter into contractual agreements with eligible entities for the operation of community-based corrections programs and monitor compliance with those agreements.

(2) To develop the minimum program standards, policies, and rules for community-based corrections programs and to consult with the Department of Health and Human Services on those standards, policies, and rules that are applicable to licensed and credentialed substance abuse services.

(3) To monitor, oversee, and evaluate contracted service providers.

(4) To act as an information clearinghouse regarding community-based corrections programs.

(5) To collaborate with the Department of Health and Human Services on focusing treatment resources on high-risk and moderate to high need offenders on probation, parole, and post-release supervision.

(b) The Department of Correction, Division of Community Corrections, shall develop and publish a recidivism reduction plan for the State that accomplishes the following:

(1) Articulates a goal of reducing revocations among people on probation and post-release supervision by twenty percent (20%) from the rate in the 2009-2010 fiscal year.

(2) Identifies the number of people on probation and post-release supervision in each county that are in the priority population and have a likely need for substance abuse and/or mental health treatment, employment, education, and/or housing.

(3) Identifies the program models that research has shown to be effective at reducing recidivism for the target population and ranks those programs based on their cost-effectiveness.

(4) Propose a plan to fund the provision of the most cost-effective programs and services across the State. The plan shall describe the number and types of programs and/or services to be funded in each region of the State and how that program capacity compares with the needs of the target population in that region.

(c) The Department of Correction shall report by March 1 of each year to the Chairs of the Senate and House of Representatives Appropriations Committees, the Senate and House of Representatives Appropriations Subcommittees on Justice and Public Safety, and the Joint Legislative Corrections, Crime Control, and Juvenile Justice Oversight Committee on the status of the Treatment for Effective Community Supervision Program. The report shall include the following information:

(1) The dollar amount and purpose of funds provided on a contractual basis to service providers for the previous fiscal year.

(2) An analysis of offender participation data received, including the following:

a. The number of people on probation and post-release supervision that are in the priority population that received services.

b. The number of people on probation and post-release supervision that are in the priority population that did not receive services.

c. The number of people on probation and post-release supervision outside of the priority population that received services.

d. The type of services provided to these populations.

e. The rate of revocations and successful completions for people who received services.

f. Other measures as determined appropriate.

(3) The dollar amount needed to provide additional services to meet the needs of the priority population in the upcoming budget year.

(4) Details of personnel, travel, contractual, operating, and equipment expenditures for each program type.

"§ 143B-274.7. Contract for services.

(a) The Department of Correction shall contract with service providers through a competitive procurement process to provide community-based services to offenders on probation, parole, or post-release supervision.

(b) Contracts for substance abuse treatment services shall be awarded to certified or licensed substance abuse professionals and appropriately licensed agencies to provide services and use practices that have a demonstrated evidence base.

(c) The Department of Correction, in partnership with the Department of Health and Human Services, shall develop standard service definitions and performance measures for substance abuse and aftercare support services for inclusion in the contracts.

(d) The percentage of funds received by a service provider that may be used for administrative purposes is up to fifteen percent (15%).

"§ 143B-274.8. State Community Corrections Advisory Board.

(a) The State Board shall act as an advisory body to the Secretary with regard to this Article. The State Board shall consist of 23 members as follows, to be appointed as provided in subsection (b) of this section:

(1) A member of the Senate.

(2) A member of the House of Representatives.

(3) A judge of the superior court.

(4) A judge of the district court.

(5) A district attorney.

(6) A criminal defense attorney.

(7) A county sheriff.

(8) A chief of a city police department.

(9) Two county commissioners, one from a predominantly urban county and one from a predominantly rural county.

(10) A representative of an existing community-based corrections program.

(11) A member of the public who has been the victim of a crime.

(12) Two rehabilitated ex-offenders.

(13) A member of the business community.

(14) Three members of the general public, one of whom is a person recovering from chemical dependency or who is a previous consumer of substance abuse treatment services.

(15) A victim service provider.

(16) A member selected from each of the following service areas: mental health, substance abuse, and employment and training.

(17) A clerk of superior court.

(b) The membership of the State Board shall be selected as follows:

(1) The Governor shall appoint the following members: the county sheriff, the chief of a city police department, the member of the public who has been the victim of a crime, a rehabilitated ex-offender, and the members selected from each of the service areas.

(2) The Lieutenant Governor shall appoint the following members: the member of the business community, one member of the general public who is a person recovering from chemical dependency or who is a previous consumer of substance abuse treatment services, and the victim service provider.

(3) The Chief Justice of the North Carolina Supreme Court shall appoint the following members: the superior court judge, the district court judge, the district attorney, the clerk of superior court, the criminal defense attorney, and the representative of an existing community-based corrections program.

(4) The President Pro Tempore of the Senate shall appoint the following members: the member of the Senate, the county commissioner from a predominantly urban county, and one member of the general public.

(5) The Speaker of the House of Representatives shall appoint the following members: the member of the House of Representatives, the county commissioner from a predominantly rural county, and one member of the general public.

In appointing the members of the State Board, the appointing authorities shall make every effort to ensure fair geographic representation of the State Board membership and to ensure that minority persons and women are fairly represented.

(c) The initial members shall serve staggered terms; one-third shall be appointed for a term of one year, one-third shall be appointed for a term of two years, and one-third shall be appointed for a term of three years. The members identified in subdivisions (1) through (7) of subsection (a) of this section shall be appointed initially for a term of one year. The members identified in subdivisions (8) through (13) in subsection (a) of this section shall be appointed initially for a term of two years. The members identified in subdivisions (14) through (16) of subsection (a) of this section shall each be appointed for a term of three years. The additional member identified in subdivision (17) in subsection (a) of this section shall be appointed initially for a term of three years.

At the end of their respective terms of office their successors shall be appointed for terms of three years. A vacancy occurring before the expiration of the term of office shall be filled in the same manner as original appointments for the remainder of the term. Members may be reappointed without limitation.

(d) Each appointing authority shall have the power to remove a member it appointed from the State Board for misfeasance, malfeasance, or nonfeasance.

(e) The members of the State Board shall, within 30 days after the last initial appointment is made, meet and elect one member as Chair and one member as Vice-Chair.

(f) The State Board shall meet at least quarterly and may also hold special meetings at the call of the Chair. For purposes of transacting business, a majority of the membership shall constitute a quorum.

(g) Any member who has an interest in a governmental agency or unit or private nonprofit agency which is applying for a Treatment for Effective Community Supervision Program contract or which has received a contract and which is the subject of an inquiry or vote by a contract oversight committee, shall publicly disclose that interest on the record and shall take no part in discussion or have any vote in regard to any matter directly affecting that particular grant applicant or grantee. "Interest" in a grant applicant or grantee means a formal and direct connection to the entity, including, but not limited to, employment, partnership, serving as an elected official, board member, director, officer, or trustee, or being an immediate family member of someone who has such a connection to the grant applicant or grantee.

(h) The members of the State Board shall serve without compensation but shall be reimbursed for necessary travel and subsistence expenses.

"§ 143B-274.9. State Community Corrections Advisory Board; powers and duties.

(a) The State Community Corrections Advisory Board, as defined under this Article, has the following duties and responsibilities:

(1) To review the criteria for monitoring and evaluating community-based corrections programs.

(2) To recommend community-based corrections program priorities.

(3) To review the minimum program standards, policies, and rules for community-based corrections programs.

(4) To review the evaluation of programs funded by this Article.

"§ 143B-274.10. North Carolina Sentencing and Policy Advisory Commission report.

The North Carolina Sentencing and Policy Advisory Commission shall report by April 30 of each even-numbered year to the General Assembly and the Governor on recidivism rates for offenders on probation, parole, and post-release supervision participating in programming funded through this Article according to risk level.

"§ 143B-274.11. Program types eligible for funding; community-based corrections programs.

Based on the prioritized populations in G.S. 143B-274.5(b), program types eligible for funding may include, but are not limited to, the following:

(1) Substance abuse treatment services, to include co-occurring substance abuse and mental health disorder services, residential, intensive outpatient, outpatient, peer support, and relapse prevention.

(2) Cognitive behavioral programming and other evidence-based programming deemed to be the most cost-effective method to reduce criminogenic needs identified by the risk/needs assessment."

SECTION 6.(c) This section becomes effective July 1, 2011. The Department of Correction may enter into contracts under this section with current program providers in the Criminal Justice Partnership Program on a sole-source basis during the 2011-2012 fiscal year.

PART VII. MOST MISDEMEANANTS TO SERVE SENTENCES IN JAIL

SECTION 7.(a) It is the intent of the General Assembly to authorize the Department of Correction to enter into voluntary agreements with counties to provide housing for misdemeanants serving periods of confinement of more than 90 days and up to 180 days, except for those serving a sentence for an impaired driving offense. It is further the intent of the General Assembly, that the Department of Correction in conjunction with the North Carolina Sheriffs' Association establish a program for housing misdemeanants serving periods of confinement of more than 90 days and up to 180 days, except for those serving sentences for an impaired driving offense. It is also the intent of the General Assembly that the Department of Correction contract with the North Carolina Sheriffs' Association to provide a service that identifies space in local confinement facilities that is available for housing these misdemeanants.

The General Assembly intends that the cost of housing and caring for these misdemeanants, including, but not limited to, care, supervision, transportation, medical, and any other related costs be covered by State funds and not be imposed as a local cost. Therefore, the General Assembly intends that the funds in the Statewide Misdemeanor Confinement Fund be used to provide funding to cover the costs of managing a system for providing that housing of misdemeanants in local confinement facilities as well as reimbursing the counties for housing and related expenses for those misdemeanants.

SECTION 7.(b) G.S. 15A-1352(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) A person sentenced to imprisonment for a felony under this Article shall be committed for the term designated by the court to the custody of the Department of ~~Correction; except that, upon request of the sheriff or the board of commissioners of a county, the presiding judge may, in his discretion, sentence the person to a local confinement facility in that county.~~Correction."

SECTION 7.(c) G.S. 15A-1352 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(e) A person sentenced for a misdemeanor who has a sentence imposed that requires confinement for a period of more than 90 days and up to 180 days, except for those serving sentences for an impaired driving offense under G.S. 20-138.1 under this Article or for nonpayment of a fine under Article 84 of this Chapter, shall be committed for the term designated by the court to confinement pursuant to the Statewide Misdemeanant Confinement Program established by G.S. 148-32.1."

SECTION 7.(d) G.S. 148-32.1(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) In the event that the custodian of the local confinement facility certifies in writing to the clerk of the superior court in the county in which ~~said~~ the local confinement facility is located that the local confinement facility is filled to capacity, or that the facility cannot reasonably accommodate any more prisoners due to segregation requirements for particular prisoners, or that the custodian anticipates, in light of local experiences, an influx of temporary prisoners at that time, or if the local confinement facility does not meet the minimum standards published pursuant to G.S. 153A-221, any judge of the district court in the district court district as defined in G.S. 7A-133 where the facility is located, or any superior court judge who has jurisdiction pursuant to G.S. 7A-47.1 or G.S. 7A-48 in a district or set of districts as defined in G.S. 7A-41.1 where the facility is located may order that ~~the~~ a prisoner not housed pursuant to the Statewide Misdemeanor Confinement Program established in subsection (b1) of this section be transferred to any other qualified local confinement facility within that district or within another such district where space is available, including a satellite jail unit operated pursuant to G.S. 153A-230.3 if the prisoner is a non-violent misdemeanant, which local facility shall accept the transferred ~~prisoner, if the prison population has exceeded a manageable level as provided for in G.S. 148-4.1(a). If no such local confinement facility is available, then any such judge may order the prisoner transferred to such camp or facility as the proper authorities of the Department of Correction shall designate, notwithstanding that the term of imprisonment of the prisoner is 90 days or less. In no event, however, shall a prisoner whose term of imprisonment is less than 30 days be assigned or ordered transferred to any such camp or facility.~~prisoner.

If no other local confinement facility is available and the reason for the requested transfer is that the local confinement facility that would be required to house the prisoner cannot reasonably accommodate any more prisoners due to segregation requirements for particular prisoners or the local facility does not meet the minimum standards published pursuant to G.S. 153A-221, then the judge may order that a prisoner not housed pursuant to the Statewide Misdemeanor Confinement Program established in subsection (b1) of this section be transferred to a facility operated by the Department of Correction as designated by the Department of Correction. In no event, however, shall a prisoner whose term of imprisonment is less than 30 days be assigned or ordered transferred to a facility operated by the Department of Correction."

SECTION 7.(e) G.S. 148-32.1 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(b1) The Statewide Misdemeanor Confinement Program is established. The Program shall provide for the housing of misdemeanants from all counties serving sentences imposed for a period of more than 90 days and up to 180 days, except for those serving sentences for an impaired driving offense under G.S. 20-138.1. Those misdemeanants shall be confined in local confinement facilities except as provided in subsections (b2) and (b3) of this section. The Program shall address methods for the placement and transportation of inmates and reimbursement to counties for the housing of those inmates. Any county that voluntarily agrees to house misdemeanants from that county or from other counties pursuant to the Program may enter into a written agreement with the Department of Correction to do so.

This Program shall only operate as long as sufficient State funds are available through the Statewide Misdemeanor Confinement Fund established in G.S. 148-10.4(c)."

SECTION 7.(f) The North Carolina Sheriffs' Association in consultation with the Department of Correction shall develop the Statewide Misdemeanor Confinement Program established in G.S. 148-32.1, as enacted in subsection (e) of this section, by September 1, 2011.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, no later than November 1, 2011, the Secretary of Correction shall contract with the North Carolina Sheriffs' Association to implement the Program. The contract terms shall include all of the following:

(1) A provision that the Program shall be operated on a statewide basis no later than January 1, 2012, but may be phased in beginning at an earlier date.

(2) A provision addressing the method of payment to the North Carolina Sheriffs' Association for the costs of administering the Program.

(3) A provision authorizing reimbursement by the North Carolina Sheriffs' Association to counties or to the Department of Correction, as appropriate, for all expenses incurred on behalf of those misdemeanants.

SECTION 7.(g) G.S. 148-32.1 is amended by adding new subsections to read:

"(b2) The custodian of a local confinement facility may request a judicial order to transfer a misdemeanant housed pursuant to the Statewide Misdemeanor Confinement Program to a facility operated by the Department of Correction by certifying in writing to the clerk of the superior court in the county in which the local confinement facility is located that:

(1) The misdemeanant poses a security risk because the misdemeanant:

a. Poses a serious escape risk;

b. Exhibits violently aggressive behavior that cannot be contained and warrants a higher level of supervision;

c. Needs to be protected from other inmates, and the county jail facility cannot provide such protection;

d. Is a female or a person 18 years of age or younger, and the county jail facility does not have adequate housing for such prisoners;

e. Is in custody at a time when a fire or other catastrophic event has caused the county jail facility to cease or curtail operations; or

f. Otherwise poses an imminent danger to the staff of the county jail facility or to other prisoners in the facility.

(2) The misdemeanant requires medical or mental health treatment that the county decides can best be provided by the Department of Correction.

(3) The local confinement facility that would be required to house the prisoner (i) cannot reasonably accommodate any more prisoners due to segregation requirements for particular prisoners, or the local facility does not meet the minimum standards published pursuant to G.S. 153A-221; and (ii) no other local confinement facility is available.

Upon receiving such request and certification in writing, any superior or district court judge for the district in which the local confinement facility is located may, after ascertaining that the request meets the criteria set forth in subdivision (1), (2), or (3) of this subsection, order the misdemeanant transferred to a unit of the State prison system designated by the Secretary of Correction or the Secretary's authorized representative. The Department of Correction shall be reimbursed from the Statewide Misdemeanor Confinement Fund for the costs of housing the misdemeanant, including the care, supervision, and transportation of the misdemeanant.

(b3) A misdemeanant housed under the Statewide Misdemeanor Confinement Program established pursuant to subsection (b1) of this section may be transferred to a facility operated by the Department of Correction if the North Carolina Sheriffs' Association determines that the local confinement facilities available for housing misdemeanants under the Program are filled to capacity. The Department of Correction shall be reimbursed from the Statewide Misdemeanor Confinement Fund for the costs of housing the misdemeanant, including the care, supervision, and transportation of the misdemeanant."

SECTION 7.(h) Article 1 of Chapter 148 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 148-10.4. Statewide Misdemeanor Confinement Fund.

(a) Definitions. – The following definitions apply in this section:

(1) Department. – Department of Correction.

(2) Fund. – The Statewide Misdemeanor Confinement Fund established by this section.

(3) Program. – Statewide Misdemeanor Confinement Program established under G.S. 148-32.1(b2).

(4) Sheriffs' Association. – North Carolina Sheriffs' Association, Inc.

(b) Intent and Purpose. – It is the intent of the General Assembly that the funds in the Fund established by this section be used to reimburse local governments for expenses incurred for housing misdemeanants under the Program, and other related expenses; and to cover administrative costs incurred by the North Carolina Sheriffs' Association for services provided by it regarding the housing of these misdemeanants.

(c) Statewide Misdemeanor Confinement Fund established. – There is created within the Department of Correction a special nonreverting fund called the Statewide Misdemeanor Confinement Fund.

(d) Fund Uses. – Moneys in the Fund may be used for the following:

(1) Reimbursements by the Sheriffs' Association to counties for the costs of housing misdemeanants under the Program, including the care, supervision, and transportation of those misdemeanants.

(2) Reimbursements to the Department of Correction for the cost of housing misdemeanants transferred to the Department pursuant to G.S. 148-32.1(b2), including the care, supervision, and transportation of those misdemeanants.

(3) To pay the Sheriffs' Association for administrative and operating expenses pursuant to subsection (e) of this section.

(4) To pay the Department of Correction for administrative and operating expenses pursuant to subsection (e) of this section.

(e) Operating and Administrative Expenses. – Ten percent (10%) of the monthly receipts collected and credited to the Statewide Misdemeanor Confinement Fund shall be transferred on a monthly basis to the Sheriffs' Association to be used to support the Program and for administrative and operating expenses of the Association and its staff. One percent (1%) of the monthly receipts collected and credited to the Statewide Misdemeanor Confinement Fund shall be transferred on a monthly basis to the General Fund to be allocated to the Department of Correction for its administrative and operating expenses for the Program."

SECTION 7.(i) The North Carolina Sheriffs' Association shall report to the Joint Legislative Corrections, Crime Control, and Juvenile Justice Oversight Committee by October 1, 2011, on the implementation of this Part, and shall report thereafter as requested by the Committee. The report shall include relevant information collected monthly by the Sheriffs' Association regarding the jail capacity and population in each county.

SECTION 7.(j) The General Assembly finds that while the Program developed pursuant to G.S. 148-32.1(b1) as enacted by subsection (e) of this section shall be available statewide on January 1, 2012, it may be available to some counties at an earlier date. Therefore, notwithstanding any other provision of law, a misdemeanant, who has a sentence imposed of more than 90 days and up to 180 days prior to January 1, 2012, excluding those serving sentences for an impaired driving offense under G.S. 20-138.1, may be transferred or reassigned to a local confinement facility designated by the Sheriffs' Association as provided by the Program developed pursuant to G.S. 148-32.1(b1).

SECTION 7.(k) Of the funds appropriated to the Department of Correction for the 2011-2012 fiscal year, the Department shall transfer the sum of three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) to the North Carolina Sheriffs' Association for expenses related to initiating the provisions of this Part.

SECTION 7.(l) If there is not adequate capacity in the Statewide Misdemeanor Confinement program, such that the Department of Correction must continue to house prisoners serving more than 90 and up to 180 days pursuant to G.S. 148-32.1(b3), then the Department of Correction is authorized to use funds received from the Statewide Misdemeanor Confinement Fund to operate facilities previously identified for closure and for diagnostic staff positions.

SECTION 7.(m) G.S. 148-32.1(b1), as enacted by subsection (e) of this section, and subsections (a), (h), (i), (j), (k), and (l) of this section become effective July 1, 2011. The remainder of this section becomes effective January 1, 2012, and applies to sentences imposed on or after that date.

PART VIII. ANNUAL REPORT

SECTION 8. Article 4 of Chapter 164 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 164-50. Annual report on implementation of Justice Reinvestment Project.

The Judicial Department, through the North Carolina Sentencing and Policy Advisory Commission, and the Department of Correction shall jointly conduct ongoing evaluations regarding the implementation of the Justice Reinvestment Act of 2011. The Commission shall present the first evaluation report to the Joint Legislative Correction, Crime Control, and Juvenile Justice Oversight Committee and to the Chairs of the Senate and House of Representatives Appropriations Subcommittees on Justice and Public Safety by April 15, 2012, and future reports shall be made annually by April 15 of each year."

PART IX. TITLE

SECTION 9. This act shall be known as "The Justice Reinvestment Act of 2011."

PART X. EFFECTIVE DATE

SECTION 10. Except as otherwise provided in this act, this act is effective when it becomes law. Prosecutions for offenses committed before the effective date of this act are not abated or affected by this act, and the statutes that would be applicable but for this act remain applicable to those prosecutions.

HOUSE BILL 642:
Justice Reinvestment Act

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Ref to Judiciary I. If fav, re-ref to Appropriations/Base Budget. If fav, re-ref to Finance	Date:	June 8, 2011
Introduced by:	Reps. Guice, Faircloth, Bordsen, Parmon	Prepared by:	Hal Pell Susan Sitze Staff Attorneys
Analysis of:	Fourth Edition

SUMMARY: This act revises State criminal laws, criminal procedure laws, and probation statutes based upon the recommendations of the Justice Reinvestment Project. Unless otherwise provided in the act, it is effective when it becomes law.

BACKGROUND: Since 2009, the Council of State Governments (CSG) Justice Center has been developing a statewide policy framework [Justice Reinvestment Project] to reduce spending on corrections and reinvest in strategies to increase public safety. The Justice Reinvestment Project was the result of a request for technical assistance by the Governor and other State officials. The CSG has been collecting data from multiple sources including FBI Uniform Crime Reports, the North Carolina Department of Correction (DOC), the North Carolina Sentencing and Policy Advisory Commission, the North Carolina Administrative Office of the Courts, and the North Carolina Department of Health and Human Services, along with other state agencies, county agencies and organizations.

n addition to these quantitative analyses, the CSG Justice Center staff conducted meetings and interviews with criminal justice practitioners and stakeholders from around the state, including superior and district court judges, district attorneys, defense attorneys, behavioral health treatment providers, family members, consumers, law enforcement officials, victim advocates, and probation officers.

BILL ANALYSIS:

PART I. STRENGTHEN PROBATION SUPERVISION

Section 1.(a) – Redefines Community Punishment in the Structured Sentencing Act. The amendment will authorize a sentencing court to impose drug treatment court or any one or more of the conditions listed in the G.S. 15A-1343(a1) [see the description of G.S. 15A-1343(a1) at Section 1.(c), below]. The change broadens the court's discretion by enlarging the scope of sentences which may be ordered by the court. In order to allow for these conditions to be "delegated" to the Department of Correction [see Section 1.(d) below], they must initially be available to the sentencing court.

Section 1(b) – Redefines Intermediate Punishment in the Structured Sentencing Act. In addition to the current requirement of placement on supervised probation, the amendment will authorize a sentencing court to impose drug treatment court or any one or more of the conditions listed in the G.S. 15A-1343(a1) [see the description of G.S. 15A-1343(a1) at Section 1.(c), below]. The change broadens the court's discretion by enlarging the scope of sentences which may be ordered by the court. In order to allow for these conditions to be "delegated" to the Department of Correction [see Section 1.(e) below], they must initially be available to the sentencing court.

Section 1.(c) – Enacts a new subsection that lists the probation conditions for either community or intermediate punishments. In addition to any special conditions of probation that may be ordered, the court may impose any one or more of the following:

- House arrest with electronic monitoring.
- Special probation (probation with confinement portion)
- Community service.
- Periods of confinement in a local confinement facility (up to six days per month, limited to consecutive 2 or 3 day periods, in any three months of the period of probation).
- Substance abuse assessment, monitoring, or treatment.
- Participation in an educational or vocational skills development program, including an evidence-based program.
- Satellite-monitoring based on sex offender statutes [if authorized by statute].

Section 1.(d) – Amends the current statute which delegates authority to the Department to require offenders sentenced to community punishment to comply with certain conditions, unless the court decides that delegation is not appropriate. Currently, the Department can require: up to 20 hours of community service; a frequency for reporting; and that the probationer submit to substance abuse assessment, monitoring or treatment. The act would add the following: house arrest with electronic monitoring; confinement for up to six days per month in 2 or 3 day consecutive periods (in any of 3 months of the probation); curfew with electronic monitoring; and participation in an educational or vocational skills program, including an evidence-based program.

- The conditions may be imposed if the Department determines that either: (1) the probationer has failed to comply with one or more court-ordered conditions, or (2) the offender is determined to be a "high risk" offender based upon a departmental assessment. The periods of confinement may only be used upon the failure to comply with one or more court-ordered conditions.
- The offender has the right to judicial review of any imposed condition.
- Probation officers must obtain administrative review and approval before exercising any delegated authority.
- The Department of Correction must establish guidelines and procedures for the imposition of the requirements, including a waiver of rights form if the Department wants to impose a period of confinement. The form must include waiver of a hearing before the court, assistance of counsel, and other procedural rights.
- The use of any of the requirements does not prevent the Department from utilizing the statutes which provide for probation revocation.

Section 1.(e) – Amends the current statute which delegates authority to the Department to require offenders sentenced to intermediate punishment to comply with certain conditions, unless the court

'ecides that delegation is not appropriate. Currently, the Department can require: up to 50 hours of ommunity service; curfew with electronic monitoring; substance abuse assessment, monitoring or treatment; participation in an educational or vocational skills program (act adds "including evidence-based programs"); and satellite monitoring for sex offenders (if authorized by statute). The act would add the following: house arrest with electronic monitoring; confinement for up to six days per month in 2 or 3 day consecutive periods (in any of 3 months during the probation); and reporting on a frequency determined by the officer.

- The conditions may be imposed if the Department determines that either: (1) the probationer has failed to comply with one or more court-ordered conditions, or (2) the offender is determined to be a "high risk" offender based upon a departmental assessment. The periods of confinement may only be used upon the failure to comply with one or more court-ordered conditions.
- The offender has the right to judicial review of any imposed condition.
- Probation officers must obtain administrative review and approval before exercising any delegated authority.
- The Department of Correction must establish guidelines and procedures for the imposition of the requirements, including a waiver of rights form if the Department wants to impose a period of confinement. The form must include waiver of a hearing before the court, assistance of counsel, and other procedural rights.
- The use of any of the requirements does not prevent the Department from utilizing the statutes which provide for revocation of probation.

Section 1.(f) – Requires the Department to use a validated risk assessment instrument in assessing each probationer for determining (i) the offender's risk of reoffending, and (ii) an appropriate supervision level based upon the risk of reoffending and the offender's criminogenic needs.

Section 1.(g) – Repeals intensive supervision as a special condition of probation.

Section 1.(h) – Repeals the definition of "day-reporting center" as a conforming change.

Section 1.(i) – Repeals the definition of "intensive probation" as a conforming change.

Section 1.(j) – Repeals the definition of "residential program" as a conforming change.

Section 1.(k) – Amends the statute setting forth the Department's caseload goals. The amendment uses the characterization of "high or moderate risk of rearrest" offenders in lieu of offenders sentenced to community or intermediate punishments. The goal states that a probation officer should have an average of no more than 60 "high or moderate risk of rearrest" offenders.

Section 1.(l) – This section becomes effective December 1, 2011, and applies to persons placed on probation based on offenses which occur on or after December 1, 2011; however, this section and the provisions of this act requiring the Department of Correction to adopt a risk assessment instrument are effective when the act becomes law.

PART II. POST RELEASE SUPERVISION CHANGES

Section 2.(a) – Amends the post-release supervision statutes to include all felons, except Class A and Class B1 prisoners sentenced to life imprisonment without parole. Currently, only Class B1 (non-life without parole) through Class E felons are included.

Section 2.(b) – Amends the post-release supervision release date to 12 months (from 9 months) before the maximum imposed prison term for Class B1 through Class E felons, and sets the post-supervision release date for Class F through Class I felons at 9 months before the maximum imposed prison term.

The period of post-release supervision is set at 12 months for Class B1 through Class E felons, and 9 months for Class F through Class I felons. Sex offenders have a 5 year period of post-release supervision. [Note: It would be possible for a sex offender to serve the maximum imposable term of confinement prior to the end of the 5 year period; consequently, further confinement would not be possible for violations of post-release supervision].

Secton 2.(c) – Amends the conditions of probation that can result in a revocation of post-release supervision to add a "non-absconding" condition. A probationer who willfully avoids supervision, or willfully makes his or her whereabouts unknown to the probation officer, is subject to revocation of post-release supervision.

Section 2.(d) – Amends the statute providing for imprisonment for violation of post-release supervision conditions. A person required to register on the sex offender registry who commits a new offense or absconds is returned to prison to complete the maximum imposed term. Other felons are returned for 3 months, and may be returned for 3 months on 2 subsequent occasions. If the supervisee is a Class B1 through Class E felon, and has completed 3 periods of confinement of 3 months each, then a fourth violation can result in the completion of the maximum imposed prison term.

Section 2.(e) – Adds 9 months to the maximum term for Class F through Class I felonies, to provide for a post-release supervision release date that is equivalent to the current maximum imposed term.

Section 2.(f) – Adds 3 months to the maximum term for Class B1 through Class E felonies. Nine months have already been included in the maximum in the table to account for the current release date, which is 9 months prior to the maximum term. The addition of 3 months adjusts the time to take into account the increase of post-release supervision from 9 months to 12 months for these offenders.

Section 2.(g) – Amends the statute which provides for the period of post-release supervision for offenders with a minimum sentence of 340 months or more (adds 3 months, to bring the total period to 12 months—equal to that of Class B1 through E offenders).

Section 2.(h) – This section becomes effective December 1, 2011, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date.

PART III. STATUS OFFENSE OF HABITUAL BREAKING AND ENTERING

Section 3.(a) – Creates a new status offense for habitual breaking and entering. If a defendant has one or more prior convictions for any of the listed offenses, then he or she is subject to separate indictments for the offense upon which he or she was arrested, and for the habitual breaking and entering felony charge. A person with more than one felony conviction prior to the age of 18 will only considered to have one prior felony conviction for the purposes of determining the number of prior convictions.

Section 3.(b) – Changes the law to allow discretion in charging the offense.

Section 3.(c) – Conforming change authorizing the district attorney to charge the offense in his or her discretion.

Section 3.(d) – Changes the penalty for a conviction under the habitual felon statute. The felon must be sentenced at a level that is four levels higher than the underlying felony for which the person was convicted, with a maximum sentence at the Class C felony level.

Section 3.(e) – The section becomes effective December 1, 2011, and applies to any offense that occurs on or after that date, and that is the principal offense for a charge of either the status offenses of habitual breaking and entering or habitual felon. Prosecutions for offenses committed before the effective date of this act are not abated or affected by this act, and the statutes that would be applicable but for this act remain applicable to those prosecutions.

PART IV. LIMIT TIME/CERTAIN VIOLATIONS OF PROBATION

Section 4.(a) -- The act adds a duty not to abscond to the regular conditions of probation, which are applicable to all offenders placed on probation.

Section 4.(b) – The section provides that the court may not revoke probation for violations of conditions of probation other than for a new criminal offense or for absconding (except as provided in Section 4.(c) below), but that the court may impose imprisonment for the other types of violations. [See Section 4.(c), below].

Section 4.(c) – Provides that if a probation commits a violation of a condition of probation (other than a new crime or absconding, which can result in probation revocation), then the court may impose a 90-day period of confinement on two occasions. The court may not revoke the probation for a violation unless the two 90-day periods have previously been imposed. If there are less than 90 days left on the maximum imposed term, then the term of confinement is for the remaining part of the sentence. If the probationer serves confinement under the section, then that period counts toward service of the maximum imposed term.

Section 4.(d) – This section is effective December 1, 2011, and applies to probation violations occurring on or after that date.

PART V. DIVERSION PROGRAM/FELONY DRUG POSSESSION/ADVANCED SUPERVISED RELEASE PROGRAM

Section 5.(a) and 5.(b) -- Amends the controlled substance diversion program, which provides for dismissal of charges upon successful completion of probation.

The act adds all first-time felony drug possession offenders eligible for the program. If the defendant has had no prior felony convictions, and no prior misdemeanor convictions under the Controlled Substances Act, then the court "shall" enter the defendant into the program. Currently, the program is discretionary and only allows drug offense misdemeanants, and persons convicted of felony possession of less than one gram of cocaine. The sections also amend the expunction statutes that provide for expunction of all first-time drug possession offenses.

Section 5.(c) – The act creates a procedure for a defendant, through completion of designated "risk reduction incentives" to be released on post-release supervision in advance of the minimum imposed term. The section:

- Designates who is an eligible defendant.

- Authorizes the Department to create incentives consisting of treatment, education, and rehabilitative programs. The programs must be designed to reduce the likelihood that the offender will reoffend.
- Authorizes the court, in its discretion (and without objection of the prosecutor) to include a risk reduction incentive or incentives in a sentence which includes an active term. The court would first adjudge and impose an authorized sentence for the offense class pursuant to the Structured Sentencing Act, which will have a minimum and maximum imposed term.
- The Advanced Supervised Release (ASR) date would be the shortest mitigated sentence for the offense at the offender's prior record level. If the court utilized the mitigated range in determining the sentence, then the ASR date would be 80% of the minimum term imposed by the court.
- The defendant would be notified at sentencing that if the defendant completes the risk reduction incentive or incentives, then he or she will be released on the ASR date. If the prisoner cannot complete the incentives through no fault of the defendant, then the prisoner would still be released on the ASR date.
- If the prisoner is terminated from the program due to a lack of progress or a rules violation, then the ASR date is nullified. The prisoner's release date would then revert back to the original imposed sentence. A prisoner who completes the incentives prior to the ASR date, and then violates rules, may have the ASR date nullified.
- A prisoner released on the ASR date will be placed on post-release supervision. If the prisoner is returned to prison three times (a total of nine months), a subsequent violation shall result in revocation of post-release status and the prisoner must serve the remainder of the maximum imposed sentence.
- The Department is required to adopt policies and procedures for assessment of the prisoner; documentation of the prisoner's progress; and for termination from the program.

Section 5.(d) – Adds a conforming change to include the ASR program in the statute which designates the minimum time which must be served by a prisoner.

Section 5.(e) -- The section becomes effective January, 2012, and applies to persons entering a plea or who are found guilty of an offense on or after that date.

PART VI. REFOCUS CRIMINAL JUSTICE PARTNERSHIP PROGRAM

Section 6.(a) and 6.(b) – Repeals the current Criminal Justice Partnership Program (CJPP), eliminates the local CJPP boards, and creates a new Article entitled the "Treatment for Effective Community Supervision Act of 2011." The Article provides for a program called Treatment for Effective Community Supervision. The act does the following:

- Establishes the eligibility criteria for offenders. Persons who were (i) convicted of drug offenses, (ii) have a high likelihood of reoffending, and (iii) have a high to moderate need for substance abuse treatment are designated as priority participants.
- Provides for duties of the Department, including the formulation of a recidivism reduction plan.
- Requires the Department to report annually on funds expended by contract, and to provide an analysis of the participants and services.

- Establishes a State Community Corrections Advisory Board, with the following duities and responsibilities: review the criteria for monitoring and evaluating community-based corrections programs; recommend community-based corrections program priorities; review minimum program standards, policies, and rules for community-based corrections programs; and review the evaluation of programs.
- Requires the North Carolina Sentencing Policy and Advisory Commission to report by April 30 on each even-numbered year to the General Assembly and the Governor on recidivism rates for offenders on probation, parole, and post-release supervision who are Program participants.
- Establishes types of programs which are eligible for funding, to include: substance abuse treatment services and cognitive behavioral programming.

Section 6.(c) -- This section becomes effective July 1, 2011. Authorizes the Department of Correction to enter into contracts with current program providers in the Criminal Justice Partnership Program on a sole-source basis during the 2011-2012 fiscal year.

PART VII. MISDEMEANANTS TO SERVE SENTENCES IN JAIL

Sections 7.(a) through 7.(l) –

- States the intent of the General Assembly to authorize the Department of Correction to enter into voluntary agreements with counties to provide housing for misdemeanants serving periods of confinement of more than 90 days and up to 180 days. The costs of housing these prisoners, including, but not limited to, care, supervision, transportation, medical, and any other related costs, are to be covered by State funds and not be imposed as local costs. The agreements would not apply to misdemeanants sentenced for violations of the impaired driving laws. Also states the intent of the General Assembly that the Department of Correction contract with the North Carolina Sheriffs' Association to provide a service that identifies space in local confinement facilities that is available for housing these misdemeanants.
- Provides that persons convicted of a felony must be committed to the custody of the Department of Correction.
- States that a person sentenced for a misdemeanor who must serve more than 90 days and up to 180 days are committed for the term designated by the court pursuant to the Statewide Misdemeanant Confinement program. Excepted from the program are persons serving sentences for an impaired driving offense, or for the nonpayment of a fine.
- Provides that the North Carolina Sheriffs' Association, in consultation with the Department of Correction, shall develop a plan for the Statewide Misdemeanor Confinement Program by September 1, 2011. By November 1, 2011, the Secretary shall contract with the North Carolina Sheriffs' Association to implement the Program. The contract terms shall include:
    - A provision that the Program shall be operated on a statewide basis by January 1, 2012, but may be phased in beginning at an earlier date.
    - A provision addressing the method of payment to the North Carolina Sheriffs' Association for the costs of administering the Program.

  - A provision authorizing reimbursement by the Sheriffs' Association to counties or to the Department of Correction, as appropriate, for all expenses incurred on behalf of those misdemeanants.

- Allows, by judicial order, the transfer of a program prisoner into the custody of the Department of Correction if the inmate is a security risk, or needs medical or mental health treatment. The prisoner may also be transferred for segregation requirements or if the local facility does not meet minimum standards, if no other local facility is available.
- States that the Program shall only operate as long as sufficient State funds are available through the Statewide Misdemeanor Confinement Fund established in G.S. 148-10.4(c).
- Creates the Statewide Misdemeanor Confinement Fund, a non-reverting fund established within the Department of Correction. Moneys in the Fund may be used for the following:
  - Reimbursements by the Sheriffs' Association to counties for the costs of housing misdemeanants under the Program, including the care, supervision, and transportation of those misdemeanants.
  - Reimbursements to the Department of Correction for the cost of housing misdemeanants transferred to the Department pursuant to G.S. 148-32.1(b2), including the care, supervision, and transportation of those misdemeanants.
  - To pay the Sheriffs' Association for administrative and operating expenses.
  - To pay the Department of Correction for administrative and operating expenses.
- Ten percent (10%) of the monthly receipts collected and credited to the Statewide Misdemeanor Confinement Fund will be transferred on a monthly basis to the Sheriffs' Association to be used to support the Program and for administrative and operating expenses of the Association and its staff.
- One percent (1%) of the monthly receipts collected and credited to the Statewide Misdemeanor Confinement Fund will be transferred on a monthly basis to the General Fund to be allocated to the Department of Correction for its administrative and operating expenses for the Program.
- Allows for implementation of the program to some counties at a date earlier than the planned statewide implementation date of January 1, 2012. Authorizes the transfer of prisoners serving more than 90 and up to 180 days to be transferred or reassigned to a local confinement facility designated by the Sheriffs' Association as provided by the program.
- Of the funds appropriated to the Department of Correction for the 2011-2012 fiscal year, the Department is to transfer the sum of three hundred thousand dollars ($300,000) to the North Carolina Sheriffs' Association for expenses related to initiating the program.
- Provides that the Judicial Department, through the North Carolina Sentencing and Policy Advisory Commission, and the Department of Correction shall jointly conduct ongoing evaluations regarding the implementation of the Justice Reinvestment Act of 2011.
- Provides that the North Carolina Sheriffs' Association shall report to the Joint Legislative Corrections, Crime Control, and Juvenile Justice Oversight Committee by October 1, 2011, on the implementation of the program, and shall report thereafter as requested by the Committee. The report shall include relevant information collected monthly by the Sheriffs' Association regarding the jail capacity and population in each county.

- Authorizes the Department of Correction to use funds received from the Statewide Misdemeanor Confinement Fund to operate facilities previously identified for closure and for diagnostic staff positions, if there is not adequate capacity in the Statewide Misdemeanor Confinement program and the Department must continue to house prisoners serving more than 90 and up to 180 days.
- The sections relating to the fund, and for planning and contracting for the program, are effective July 1, 2011; the remaining sections are effective January 1, 2012.

PART VIII. ANNUAL REPORT

Section 8. – Requires the North Carolina Sentencing and Policy Advisory Commission, and the Department of Correction, to report on the implementation and results of the implementation of the act to the Joint Legislative Correction, Crime Control, and Juvenile Justice Oversight Committee and to the Chairs of the Senate and House of Representatives Appropriations Subcommittees on Justice and Public Safety, by April 15, 2012. Reports are to be made annually by April 15 of each year.

PART IX. TITLE

Section 9. – Provides for the title of the act: The Justice Reinvestment Act of 2011.

EFFECTIVE DATE: Unless otherwise provided in the act, it is effective when it becomes law.

moves to amend the bill on page 20, line 41 through page 21, line 7, by rewriting those lines to read:

SECTION 7.(a) G.S. 148-32.1 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(b1) It is the intent of the General Assembly to authorize the Department of Correction to enter into voluntary agreements with counties to provide housing for misdemeanants serving periods of confinement of more than 90 days and up to 180 days, except for those serving a sentence for an impaired driving offense. It is further the intent of the General Assembly, that the Department of Correction in conjunction with the North Carolina Sheriffs' Association, Inc., establish a program for housing misdemeanants serving periods of confinement of more than 90 days and up to 180 days, except for those serving sentences for an impaired driving offense. It is also the intent of the General Assembly that the Department of Correction contract with the North Carolina Sheriffs' Association, Inc., to provide a service that identifies space in local confinement facilities that is available for housing these misdemeanants.

The General Assembly intends that the cost of housing and caring for these misdemeanants, including, but not limited to, care, supervision, transportation, medical, and any other related costs be covered by State funds and not be imposed as a local cost. Therefore, the General Assembly intends that the funds in the Statewide Misdemeanor Confinement Fund be used to provide funding to cover the costs of managing a system for providing that housing of misdemeanants in local confinement facilities as well as reimbursing the counties for housing and related expenses for those misdemeanants."; and

AN ACT TO PROVIDE TORT REFORM FOR NORTH CAROLINA CITIZENS AND BUSINESSES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

PART I. GENERAL REFORMS

SECTION 1.1. Article 4 of Chapter 8C of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"Rule 414. Evidence of medical expenses.

Evidence offered to prove past medical expenses shall be limited to evidence of the amounts actually paid to satisfy the bills that have been satisfied, regardless of the source of payment, and evidence of the amounts actually necessary to satisfy the bills that have been incurred but not yet satisfied. This rule does not impose upon any party an affirmative duty to seek a reduction in billed charges to which the party is not contractually entitled. Nothing in this rule modifies current law governing the admissibility of evidence relating to collateral sources of payments, except that a provider, as that term is defined in G.S. 8-58.1(b), may disclose the existence of a contract or negotiation with a third party as the basis for any discount provided to a plaintiff."

SECTION 1.2. G.S. 8-58.1 reads as rewritten:

"§ 8-58.1. Injured party as witness when medical charges at issue.

(a) Whenever an issue of hospital, medical, dental, pharmaceutical, or funeral charges arises in any civil proceeding, the injured party or his guardian, administrator, or executor is competent to give evidence regarding the amount paid or required to be paid in full satisfaction of such charges, provided that records or copies of such charges showing the amount paid or required to be paid in full satisfaction of such charges accompany such testimony.

(b) The testimony of ~~such~~ a person pursuant to subsection (a) of this section establishes a rebuttable presumption of the reasonableness of the amount paid or required to be paid in full satisfaction of the ~~charges.~~charges. However, in the event that the provider of hospital, medical, dental, pharmaceutical, or funeral services gives sworn testimony that the charge for that provider's service either was satisfied by payment of an amount less than the amount charged, or can be satisfied by payment of an amount less than the amount charged, then with respect to that provider's charge only, the presumption of the reasonableness of the amount charged is rebutted and a rebuttable presumption is established that the lesser satisfaction amount is the reasonable amount of the charges for the testifying provider's services. For the purposes of this subsection, the word "provider" shall include the agent or employee of a provider of hospital, medical, dental, pharmaceutical or funeral services, or a person with responsibility to pay a provider of hospital, medical, dental, pharmaceutical or funeral services on behalf of an injured party.

(c) The fact that a provider charged for services provided to the injured person establishes a permissive presumption that the services provided were reasonably necessary but no presumption is established that the services provided were necessary because of injuries caused by the acts or omissions of an alleged tortfeasor."

SECTION 1.3. G.S. 8C-702(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) If scientific, technical or other specialized knowledge will assist the trier of fact to understand the evidence or to determine a fact in issue, a witness qualified as an expert by knowledge, skill, experience, training, or education, may testify thereto in the form of an ~~opinion.~~opinion, or otherwise if all of the following apply:

(1) The testimony is based upon sufficient facts or data.

(2) The testimony is the product of reliable principles and methods.

(3) The witness has applied the principles and methods reliably to the facts of the case."

PART II. REFORM APPLICABLE TO PRODUCTS LIABILITY ACTIONS

SECTION 2.1. G.S. 99B-1 reads as rewritten:

"§ 99B-1. Definitions.

When used in this Chapter, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Claimant" means a person or other entity asserting a claim and, if said claim is asserted on behalf of an estate, an incompetent or a minor, "claimant" includes plaintiff's decedent, guardian, or guardian ad litem.

(1a) "Government agency" means this State or the United States, or any agency of this State or the United States, or any entity vested with the authority of this State or of the United States to issue rules, regulations, orders, or standards concerning the design, manufacture, packaging, labeling, or advertising of a product or provision of a service.

(2) "Manufacturer" means a person or entity who designs, assembles, fabricates, produces, constructs or otherwise prepares a product or component part of a product prior to its sale to a user or consumer, including a seller owned in whole or significant part by the manufacturer or a seller owning the manufacturer in whole or significant part.

(3) "Product liability action" includes any action brought for or on account of personal injury, death or property damage caused by or resulting from the manufacture, construction, design, formulation, development of standards, preparation, processing, assembly, testing, listing, certifying, warning, instructing, marketing, selling, advertising, packaging, or labeling of any product.

(4) "Seller" includes a retailer, wholesaler, or distributor, and means any individual or entity engaged in the business of selling a product, whether such sale is for resale or for use or consumption. "Seller" also includes a lessor or bailor engaged in the business of leasing or bailment of a product."

SECTION 2.2. Chapter 99B of the General Statutes is amended by adding the following new section to read:

"§ 99B-12. Regulatory compliance.

(a) Except as provided in subsection (b) or (c) of this section, in any product liability action against a manufacturer or seller of a drug, if the drug that is alleged to have caused the harm was approved for safety and efficacy by the United States Food and Drug Administration, and the drug and its labeling were in compliance with the United States Food and Drug Administration's approval at the time the drug left the control of the manufacturer or seller, there is a rebuttable presumption that the drug was safe and effective for its approved use, and the manufacturer or seller is not liable. This presumption may be rebutted only by clear and convincing evidence.

(b) This section does not apply if the claimant proves that the manufacturer or seller, at any time before the event that allegedly caused the harm, did any of the following:

(1) Sold the drug in the United States after the effective date of an order of the United States Food and Drug Administration to remove the drug from the market, to withdraw its approval, or to substantially alter the terms of approval in a manner that would have avoided the claimant's alleged injury.

(2) Intentionally, and in violation of applicable regulations as determined by final agency action, withheld from or misrepresented to the United States Food and Drug Administration information material to the approval or maintaining of approval of the drug, and such information is relevant to the harm which the claimant allegedly suffered.

(3) Made an illegal payment to an official or employee of a government agency for the purpose of securing or maintaining approval of the drug.

(c) This section shall not bar an action brought pursuant to Article 51 of Chapter 1 of the General Statutes, if the action is not based upon allegations that the product was not safe or effective or that the manufacturer failed to provide an adequate warning."

PART III. OTHER REFORMS

SECTION 3.1. G.S. 6-21.1 reads as rewritten:

"§ 6-21.1. Allowance of counsel fees as part of costs in certain cases.

(a) In any personal injury or property damage suit, or suit against an insurance company under a policy issued by the defendant insurance company ~~and~~ in which the insured or beneficiary is the plaintiff, instituted in a court of record, upon ~~a finding~~findings by the court (i) that there was an unwarranted refusal by the defendant ~~insurance company~~ to negotiate or pay the claim which constitutes the basis of such suit, ~~instituted in a court of record, where~~ (ii) that the ~~judgment for recovery of~~amount of damages recovered is ~~ten thousand dollars ($10,000)~~twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) or less, and (iii) that the amount of damages recovered exceeded the highest offer made by the defendant no later than 90 days before the commencement of trial, the presiding judge may, in ~~his~~the judge's discretion, allow a reasonable ~~attorney fee~~ attorneys' fees to the duly licensed ~~attorney~~ attorneys representing the litigant obtaining a judgment for damages in said suit, said ~~attorney's fee~~ attorneys' fees to be taxed as a part of the court costs. The attorneys' fees so awarded shall not exceed ten thousand dollars ($10,000).

(b) When the presiding judge determines that an award of attorneys' fees is to be made under this statute, the judge shall issue a written order including findings of fact detailing the factual basis for the finding of an unwarranted refusal to negotiate or pay the claim, and setting forth the amount of the highest offer made 90 days or more before the commencement of trial, and the amount of damages recovered, as well as the factual basis and amount of any such attorneys' fees to be awarded."

SECTION 3.2. The General Statutes are amended by adding a new Chapter to read:

"Chapter 38B.

"Trespasser Responsibility.

"§ 38B-1. Title.

This Chapter may be cited as the Trespasser Responsibility Act.

"§ 38B-2. General rule.

A possessor of land, including an owner, lessee, or other occupant, does not owe a duty of care to a trespasser and is not subject to liability for any injury to a trespasser.

"§ 38B-3. Exceptions.

Notwithstanding G.S. 38B-2, a possessor of land may be subject to liability for physical injury or death to a trespasser in the following situations:

(1) Intentional harms. – A possessor may be subject to liability if the trespasser's bodily injury or death resulted from the possessor's willful or wanton conduct, or was intentionally caused by the possessor, except that a possessor may use reasonable force to repel a trespasser who has entered the land or a building with the intent to commit a crime.

(2) Harms to trespassing children caused by artificial condition. – A possessor may be subject to liability for bodily injury or death to a child trespasser resulting from an artificial condition on the land if all of the following apply:

a. The possessor knew or had reason to know that children were likely to trespass at the location of the condition.

b. The condition is one the possessor knew or reasonably should have known involved an unreasonable risk of serious bodily injury or death to such children.

c. The injured child did not discover the condition or realize the risk involved in the condition or in coming within the area made dangerous by it.

d The utility to the possessor of maintaining the condition and the burden of eliminating the danger were slight as compared with the risk to the child involved.

e. The possessor failed to exercise reasonable care to eliminate the danger or otherwise protect the injured child.

(3) Position of peril. – A possessor may be subject to liability for physical injury or death to a trespasser if the possessor discovered the trespasser in a position of peril or helplessness on the property and failed to exercise ordinary care not to injure the trespasser.

"§ 38B-4. Definitions.

The following definitions shall apply in this Chapter:

(1) Child trespasser. – A trespasser who is less than 14 years of age or who has the level of mental development found in a person less than 14 years of age.

(2) Possessor. – A person in lawful possession of land, including an owner, lessee, or other occupant, or a person acting on behalf of such a lawful possessor of land.

(3) Trespasser. – A person who enters on the property of another without permission and without an invitation, express or implied."

PART IV. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

SECTION 4.1. Severability. – If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the remainder of this act or the application of the provision to other persons or circumstances is not affected.

SECTION 4.2. Sections 2.1, 2.2, and 3.2 of this act become effective October 1, 2011, and apply to causes of actions arising on or after that date. The remainder of this act becomes effective October 1, 2011, and applies to actions commenced on or after that date.

HOUSE BILL 542:
Tort Reform for Citizens and Businesses

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary I	Date:	June 8, 2011
Introduced by:	Reps. Rhyne, McComas, Brisson, Crawford	Prepared by:	Bill Patterson Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	PCS to Third Edition H542-CSTG-31

SUMMARY: The PCS to House Bill 542 makes the following changes in the law:

- Section 1.1 enacts a new evidence rule under which proof of past medical expenses is restricted to evidence of the amount actually paid or required to be paid to fully satisfy the bills. (Changed by PCS)
- Section 1.2 amends G.S. 8-58.1 to modify the presumption that arises when a party testifies and offers records of the charges for medical or funeral services. (Changed by PCS)
- Section 1.3 adopts the federal evidence rule governing the admissibility of expert witness testimony.*
- Section 2.1 establishes a rebuttable presumption that a drug was safe and effective for its approved use if it was in compliance with FDA approval of the drug at the time it left the manufacturer's or seller's control, unless the approval was obtained by bribery or by withholding or misrepresenting material facts relating to the harm to the claimant, or if a drug is sold after the FDA withdraws its approval or recalls the drug. This section would not bar actions under the False Claims Act not based on allegations that the drug was not safe or effective or that inadequate warnings were provided by the manufacturer.*
- Section 3.1 changes the law governing an award of attorneys' fees in certain lawsuits, to double the size of the maximum award that qualifies a case for consideration of an attorney's fee award, to place a cap of $10,000 on the attorney's fees that can be awarded, and to prohibit an award of attorney's fees absent court determination that the amount recovered was more than the highest pre-trial offer made, and that there was an unwarranted refusal by the defendant to negotiate or pay the claim. (Changed by PCS)
- Section 3.2 codifies the existing common law general rule of no landowner liability for injury to trespassers, with an exception for willful and wanton or intentional injury, and for negligent injury to child trespassers too young to appreciate the danger of the artificial condition causing injury.*

CURRENT LAW AND BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1.1: Evidence of Medical Expenses

Current Law: In negligence actions, an award of medical expenses includes all bills reasonably incurred or to be incurred in the future by the plaintiff as a proximate result of the negligence or wrongful conduct of the defendant. To be reasonably incurred, medical expenses must: 1) be reasonable in amount, 2) must have been reasonably necessary for the proper treatment of the plaintiff's injury, and 3) must have been incurred as a proximate result of the defendant's negligence. If the expense has been incurred, there need not be evidence of actual payment. Further, the fact that medical expenses were paid by the plaintiff's employer, his medical insurer, or some other collateral source generally does not deprive the plaintiff of the right to recover them."[1]

The common law "collateral source" rule prohibits the admission of evidence that the plaintiff has or will receive compensation to pay medical expenses from a source other than the defendant.

Bill Analysis: Section 1.1 of the bill enacts a new rule of evidence that limits the evidence that may be offered to prove past medical expenses to evidence of the amount actually paid in satisfaction of the bills that have been paid, and the amount actually required to satisfy any bills incurred but not yet paid. The rule does not require any party to negotiate a reduction in a provider's bill to which the party is not contractually entitled, and does modify the collateral source rule, except the PCS permits permit a provider to disclose the existence of a contract or negotiation with a third-party as the basis for any discount provided to a plaintiff.

Section 1.2: G.S. 8-58.1 (Presumption of Reasonableness of Medical and Funeral Charges)

Current Law: G.S. 8-58.1 provides that:

> Whenever an issue of hospital, medical, dental, pharmaceutical, or funeral charges arises in any civil proceeding, the injured party or his guardian, administrator, or executor is competent to give evidence regarding the amount of such charges, provided that records or copies of such charges accompany such testimony. The testimony of such a person establishes a rebuttable presumption of the reasonableness of the amount of the charges.

Bill Analysis: Section 1.2 amends G.S 8-58.1 to change what the testifying injured party is competent to give evidence regarding from "the amount of such charges" to the amount "paid or required to be paid in full satisfaction of such charges," and changes the resulting presumption from a presumption of the "reasonableness of the charges" to a presumption of the "reasonableness of the amount paid or required to be paid in full satisfaction of the charges."

The PCS provides that sworn testimony (changed from "testimony given in person") of the provider, the provider's agent or employee or a person with responsibility to pay the provider on behalf of an injured party that the charge was or can be satisfied for less than the full amount of the charge rebuts any presumption that the amount charged was reasonable, and establishes a rebuttable presumption of the reasonableness of the lesser amount. In the PCS, the fact that a provider charged for services provided to the injured person establishes a permissive presumption (was a "rebuttable presumption" in bill) that the services provided were reasonably necessary, but such fact does not establish a presumption that the services were necessary because of injuries caused by an alleged tortfeasor.

Section 1.3: Expert Witness Testimony

Current Law: Rule 702(a) of the N.C. Rules of Evidence permits the court to allow expert opinion testimony "[i]f scientific, technical or other specialized knowledge will assist the trier of fact to understand the evidence or to determine a fact in issue, a witness qualified as an expert by knowledge, skill, experience, training, or education." In applying this rule, courts consider whether:

- the expert's proffered method of proof is reliable
- the witness presenting the evidence qualifies as an expert in that area
- the evidence is relevant

[1] N.C. Pattern Jury Instructions, Civil 810.04, & n. 3-4 (citations omitted).

In deciding these issues, state trial courts currently have wide discretion and will not be overturned on appeal absent an abuse of discretion.[2]

Bill Analysis: Section 1.3 of the bill amends Rule 702(a) to impose the following additional requirements for the admission of expert opinion testimony:

- it must be based on sufficient data or facts
- it must be the result of reliable methods and scientific principles
- the expert must have applied the principles and methods reliably to the facts of the case[3]

Section 3.1: Rebuttable Presumption Arising from FDA Approval

Current Law: Under current law, in determining whether a manufacturer is liable for inadequate design or formulation of a product, G.S. 99B-6 requires the following factors, among others, to be considered:

- The extent to which the design or formulation conformed to any applicable government standard that was in effect when the product left the control of its manufacturer[4]
- The extent to which the labeling for a prescription or nonprescription drug approved by the United States Food and Drug Administration conformed to any applicable government or private standard that was in effect when the product left the control of its manufacturer[5]

In neither instance does a presumption arise.

Bill Analysis: Section 3.1 of the bill enacts a new Section 99B-12, providing that if the FDA approved a drug for safety and efficacy and if the drug's labeling was in compliance with FDA approval at the time it left the control of the manufacturer or seller, a rebuttable presumption arises that the drug was safe and effective for its approved use. This presumption may be rebutted only by clear and convincing evidence.

The defense is not available if FDA approval of the product was obtained through bribery or intentional withholding or misrepresentation of material information relevant to the harm caused to the plaintiff, or if the drug was sold after the effective date of an FDA order recalling the product or withdrawing its approval or substantially altering the terms of approval in a way that would have avoided the claimant's injury.

In addition, the defense is not available to bar an action brought under the False Claims Act, Article 51 of Chapter 1 of the General Statutes, if the action is not based on allegations that the dug was not safe or effective or that the manufacturer failed to provide an adequate warning.

Section 3.1: Attorneys' Fees in Small Cases

Current Law: G.S. 6-21.1 gives the court discretion to award an attorney fee under the following cases when the plaintiff recovers $10,000 or less:

- Personal injury suits
- Property damage suits
- Suits against an insurance company under a policy issued by the defendant insurance company and in which the insured or beneficiary is the plaintiff, upon a finding by the court

---

[2] State v. Morgan, 359 N.C. 131, 160 (2004).
[3] As amended, Rule 702(a) will mirror Federal Rule 702(a), which was amended in 2000 to conform to the standard outlined in Daubert v. Merrell Dow Pharmaceuticals, Inc., 509 U.S. 579 (1993).
[4] G.S. 99B-6(b)(3).
[5] G.S. 99B-6(b)(4).

that there was an unwarranted refusal by the defendant insurance company to pay the claim which constitutes the basis of such suit

Bill Analysis: Section 3.1 of the bill raises the maximum damages award qualifying a case for consideration of an award of attorney's fees under the statute to $20,000, and requires the following findings in order for attorneys' fees to be awarded:

- there was an unwarranted refusal to negotiate or pay the claim by the defendant
- the amount of the damages recovered at trial exceeded the defendant's highest pretrial offer made no later than 90 days before trial

Section 3.1 also places a cap on any award of attorneys' fees in the amount of $10,000.

Section 3.2: Trespasser Liability

Current Law: Under North Carolina common law, a trespasser may not recover against an owner or occupier of land for injuries resulting from encountering a passive existing condition on the land unless the injury was caused by the owner or occupier's willful or wanton negligence.[6] Under the "attractive nuisance" doctrine, the common law makes a limited exception to this general rule in certain cases involving injuries to children caused by dangerous conditions if the child could not reasonably be expected to have realized or appreciated the risk the condition posed. This exception is generally available to child trespassers who are younger than 14 years of age; older children are only entitled to recover on a showing that their mental development was that of a younger child.

Bill Analysis: Section 4.2 of the bill codifies the general rule that persons in lawful possession of land are not liable to trespassers for injuries resulting from their encounter with conditions on the land, with exceptions for willful and wanton or intentional conduct and for trespassers less than 14 years of age, or who have the level of mental development found in a person less than 14 years of age.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The act becomes effective October 1, 2011. Sections 2.1, 2.2, and 3.2 apply to causes of action arising on or after that date. The remainder of the act applies to actions commenced on or after that date.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO RESTORE CONFIDENCE IN GOVERNMENT BY REQUIRING THAT VOTERS PROVIDE PHOTO IDENTIFICATION BEFORE VOTING.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1.1. Article 14A of Chapter 163 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 163-166.13. Photo identification requirement for voting in person.

(a) Every individual voting in person shall present photo identification to a local election official at the voting place before voting.

(b) Notwithstanding subsection (a) of this section, any voter without photo identification shall be permitted to vote a provisional official ballot.

(c) As used in this section, "photo identification" means any of the following that contain a photograph of the registered voter:

(1) A North Carolina drivers license issued under Article 2 of Chapter 20 of the General Statutes, including a learner's permit or a provisional license.

(2) A special identification card for nonoperators issued under G.S. 20-37.7.

(3) An identification card issued by a branch, department, agency, or entity of this State, any other state, or the United States.

(4) A United States passport.

(5) An employee identification card issued by any branch, department, agency, or entity of the United States government, this State, or any county, municipality, board, authority, or other entity of this State.

(6) A United States military identification card.

(7) A tribal identification card.

(8) A North Carolina voter identification card issued under G.S. 163-166.14."

SECTION 1.2. Article 14A of Chapter 163 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 163-166.14. Voter identification card.

(a) Each county board of elections shall accept applications for and issue North Carolina voter identification cards to registered voters in that county. The voter identification card shall be valid only for purposes of voter identification and proof of voter registration under this Chapter and available only to registered voters of this State. No fee shall be charged or collected for the application for or issuance of a North Carolina voter identification card.

(b) No registered voter shall be eligible for a North Carolina voter identification card if that registered voter has a valid unexpired drivers license, learner's permit, provisional license, or a special identification card for nonoperators issued under G.S. 20-37.7.

(c) The North Carolina voter identification card shall be captioned "NORTH CAROLINA VOTER IDENTIFICATION CARD" and shall contain a prominent statement that under North Carolina law it is valid only as identification for voting purposes. The North Carolina voter identification card shall be laminated, shall contain a digital color photograph of the applicant, and shall include all of the following information:

(1) Full legal name.
(2) Address of residence.
(3) Birth date.
(4) Date identification card was issued.
(5) Sex.
(6) Eye color.
(7) County where the identification card was issued.
(8) Such other information or identification as required by rule of the State Board of Elections.

(d) The application for a North Carolina voter identification card shall elicit the information required under subsection (c) of this section and such other information as may be required by rule of the State Board of Elections. The application shall be signed by the applicant registered voter. The information collected by the county board of elections shall be subject to G.S. 163-82.10 and G.S. 163-82.10B.

(e) The county board of elections shall require, and shall verify, all of the following information before issuing a North Carolina voter identification card to a registered voter:

(1) A photo identity document, except that a nonphoto identity document is acceptable if it includes the registered voter's name.
(2) Evidence that the individual is registered to vote in this State.
(3) Documentation showing the registered voter's name and residence address.

(f) A North Carolina voter identification card shall remain valid so long as a person resides at the same address and remains qualified to vote. If a person moves his or her residence within the State, that person may apply for and receive a new card if such person is otherwise eligible under this section.

(g) The State Board of Elections shall provide each county board of elections issuing North Carolina voter identification cards with the necessary equipment, forms, supplies, and training for the production of the North Carolina voter identification cards and shall maintain such equipment.

(h) The State Board of Elections shall adopt policies for the administration of this section and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, such policies may further define or prescribe the types of documentation required under subsection (e) of this section."

SECTION 1.3. G.S. 163-82.6A(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Both Attestation and Proof of Residence Required. – To vote under this section, a voter must present photo identification as required by G.S. 163-166.13. This requirement is separate from the requirement to provide proof of residence under subdivision (2) of this subsection. If an individual does not present the required photo identification, that individual may vote a provisional official ballot. To register ~~and vote~~ under this section, the person shall do both of the following:

(1) Complete a voter registration form as prescribed in G.S. 163-82.4, including the attestation requirement of G.S. 163-82.4(b) that the person meets each eligibility requirement. Such attestation is signed under penalty of a Class I felony under G.S. 163-275(13); and

(2) Provide proof of residence by presenting any of the following valid documents that show the person's current name and current residence address: a North Carolina drivers license, a photo identification from a government agency, or any of the documents listed in G.S. 163-166.12(a)(2). The State Board of Elections may designate additional documents or methods that suffice and shall prescribe procedures for establishing proof of residence."

SECTION 1.4. G.S. 163-166.7(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) Checking Registration. – A person seeking to vote shall enter the voting enclosure through the appropriate entrance. A precinct official assigned to check registration shall at once ask the voter to state current name and residence address. The voter shall answer by stating current name and residence ~~address.~~ address and presenting photo identification in accordance with G.S. 163-166.13. If an individual does not present the required identification, that individual may vote a provisional official ballot. In a primary election, that voter shall also be asked to state, and shall state, the political party with which the voter is affiliated or, if unaffiliated, the authorizing party in which the voter wishes to vote. After examination, that official shall state whether that voter is duly registered to vote in that precinct and shall direct that voter to the voting equipment or to the official assigned to distribute official ballots. If a precinct official states that the person is duly registered, the person shall sign the pollbook, other voting record, or voter authorization document in accordance with subsection (c) of this section before voting."

SECTION 1.5. G.S. 163-227.2(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Not earlier than the third Thursday before an election, in which absentee ballots are authorized, in which a voter seeks to vote and not later than 1:00 P.M. on the last Saturday before that election, the voter shall appear in person only at the office of the county board of elections, except as provided in subsection (g) of this section. A county board of elections shall conduct one-stop voting on the last Saturday before the election until 1:00 P.M. and may conduct it until 5:00 P.M. on that Saturday. That voter shall enter the voting enclosure at the board office through the appropriate entrance and shall at once state his or her name and place of residence to an authorized member or employee of the ~~board.~~ board and present photo identification in accordance with G.S. 163-166.13. If an individual does not present the required identification, that individual may vote a provisional official ballot. In a primary election, the voter shall also state the political party with which the voter affiliates and in whose primary the voter desires to vote, or if the voter is an unaffiliated voter permitted to vote in the primary of a particular party under G.S. 163-119, the voter shall state the name of the authorizing political party in whose primary he wishes to vote. The board member or employee to whom the voter gives this information shall announce the name and residence of the voter in a distinct tone of voice. After examining the registration records, an employee of the board shall state whether the person seeking to vote is duly registered. If the voter is found to be registered that voter may request that the authorized member or employee of the board furnish the voter with an application form as specified in G.S. 163-227. The voter shall complete the application in the presence of the authorized member or employee of the board, and shall deliver the application to that person."

SECTION 1.6. Article 15A of Chapter 163 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 163-182.1A. Counting of provisional official ballots cast because of failure to provide valid photo identification at the polls.

(a) A voter who cast a provisional official ballot wholly or partly as a result of the voter's inability or declination to provide proof of identification may personally appear at an office of the county board of elections not later than the date of the conclusion of the election canvass for that county to seek counting of the provisional official ballot as provided in subsection (b) or (c) of this section.

(b) Unless the vote is disqualified for some other reason provided by law, the county board of elections shall find that the voter's provisional ballot is valid and direct that the provisional ballot be opened and counted in accordance with this Chapter if the voter both:

(1) Provides valid photo identification to the county board of elections; and

(2) Executes an affidavit, in the form prescribed by the State Board of Elections, affirming under the penalties of perjury that the voter is the same individual who:

a. Personally appeared to vote on the day of election or at an early voting site; and

b. Cast the provisional ballot on that day.

(c) Unless the vote is disqualified for some other reason provided by law, the county board of elections shall find that the voter's provisional ballot is valid and direct that the provisional ballot be opened and counted in accordance with this Chapter if the voter executes an affidavit before the county board of elections, in the form prescribed by the State Board of Elections, affirming under the penalties of perjury that:

(1) The voter is the same individual who:

a. Personally appeared to vote on the day of election or at an early voting site; and

b. Cast the provisional ballot on that day; and

(2) The voter has a sincerely held religious objection to being photographed.

(d) If the county board of elections determines that a voter described in subsection (b) or (c) of this section has also cast a provisional official ballot for a cause other than the voter's inability or declination to provide valid photo identification, the board shall both:

(1) Note on the envelope containing the provisional official ballot that the voter has complied with the proof of valid photo identification requirement; and

(2) Proceed to determine any other reasons for which the ballot was cast provisionally before ruling on the validity of the voter's provisional ballot."

SECTION 1.7. G.S. 163-87 reads as rewritten:

"§ 163-87. Challenges allowed on day of primary or election.

On the day of a primary or election, at the time a registered voter offers to vote, any other registered voter of the precinct may exercise the right of challenge, and when ~~he~~ the voter does so may enter the voting enclosure to make the challenge, but ~~he~~ the voter shall retire therefrom as soon as the challenge is heard.

On the day of a primary or election, any other registered voter of the precinct may challenge a person for one or more of the following reasons:

(1) One or more of the reasons listed in G.S. 163-85(c).

(2) That the person has already voted in that primary or election.

(3) Repealed by Session Laws 2009-541, s. 16.1(b), effective August 28, 2009.

(4) If the challenge is made with respect to voting in a partisan primary, that the person is a registered voter of another political party.

(5) The voter does not present proof of identification as required by G.S. 163-166.13.

The chief judge, judge, or assistant appointed under G.S. 163-41 or 163-42 may enter challenges under this section against voters in the precinct for which appointed regardless of the place of residence of the chief judge, judge, or assistant.

If a person is challenged under this subsection, and the challenge is sustained under G.S. 163-85(c)(3), the voter may still transfer his registration under G.S. 163-82.15(e) if eligible under that section, and the registration shall not be cancelled under G.S. 163-90.2(a) if the transfer is made. A person who has transferred his registration under G.S. 163-82.15(e) may be challenged at the precinct to which the registration is being transferred."

SECTION 1.8. G.S. 20-37.7(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) Expiration and Fee. – A special identification card issued to a person for the first time under this section expires when a drivers license issued on the same day to that person would expire. A special identification card renewed under this section expires when a drivers license renewed by the card holder on the same day would expire.

The fee for a special identification card is the same as the fee set in G.S. 20-14 for a duplicate license. The fee does not apply to a special identification card issued to a resident of this State who (i) is legally blind, (ii) is at least 70 years old, (iii) is registered to vote in this State but does not have photo identification acceptable under G.S. 163-166.13, (iv) is homeless, or (v) ~~who~~ has been issued a drivers license but the drivers license is cancelled under G.S. 20-15, in accordance with G.S. 20-9(e) and (g), as a result of a physical or mental disability or disease. To obtain a special identification card without paying a fee, a homeless person must present a letter to the Division from the director of a facility that provides care or shelter to homeless persons verifying that the person is homeless. To obtain a special identification card without paying a fee, a registered voter shall sign an unnotarized affidavit stating the registered voter is registered and does not have other photo identification acceptable under G.S. 163-166.13."

SECTION 1.9.(a) Education and Publicity Requirements. – The public shall be educated about the photo identification to vote requirements of this act as follows:

(1) As counties use their regular processes to notify voters of assignments and reassignments to districts for election to the United States House of Representatives, State Senate, State House of Representatives, or local office, by including information about the provisions of this act.

(2) As counties send new voter registration cards to voters as a result of new registration, changes of address, or other reasons, by including information about the provisions of this act.

(3) Counties that maintain a board of elections Web site shall include information about the provisions of this act.

(4) Notices of elections published by county boards of elections under G.S. 163-22(8) for the 2012 primary and 2012 general election shall include a brief statement that photo identification is required to vote.

(5) The State Board of Elections shall include on its Web site information about the provisions of this act.

(6) Counties shall post at the polls and at early voting sites beginning with the 2012 primary elections information about the provisions of this act.

(7) The State Board of Elections shall include in the Judicial Voter Guide described in G.S. 163-278.69 information about the provisions of this act and shall also include the information in the Voter Guide under G.S. 163-278.99E if it is published separately.

(8) The State Board of Elections and the county boards of elections shall take reasonable steps to provide public service announcements about the provisions of this act through print, radio, television, online, and social media. Of the funds appropriated in Section 1.10 of this act, the sum of six hundred thousand dollars ($600,000) for the 2011-2012 fiscal year shall be placed in a special reserve to carry out the provisions of this subdivision and to provide for issuance of North Carolina voter identification cards under G.S. 163-166.13 as enacted by this act. Those funds shall be made available as follows:

a. $100,000 to the State Board of Elections.
b. $100,000 in an equal share to each county board of elections.
c. $200,000 to county boards of elections in proportion to the number of registered voters in the county.
d. $200,000 to county boards of elections in counties covered by section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, in proportion to the number of registered voters in the county.

SECTION 1.9.(b) G.S. 163-278.69 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(d) The Judicial Voter Guide published under this section shall also include information on the photo identification requirement for voting in person pursuant to G.S. 163-166.13."

SECTION 1.10.(a) Of the unexpended funds remaining in the North Carolina Voter-Owned Elections Fund, up to four hundred twenty-nine thousand four hundred fifty-five dollars ($429,455) shall be used for the purposes of implementing this act and are hereby appropriated.

SECTION 1.10.(b) Fund from the surcharge on attorney membership fees under G.S. 84-34 collected on or after July 1, 2011, may be used for the purpose of the judicial voter guide as provided in G.S. 163-278.69, as amended by this act.

SECTION 1.10.(c) Of the funds appropriated to the General Assembly for the 2010-2011 fiscal year, the sum of two hundred thirty-one thousand four hundred thirty-seven dollars ($231,437) remaining on June 30, 2011, is transferred to the State Board of Elections for the 2011-2012 fiscal year to implement the provisions of this act and are hereby appropriated.

SECTION 1.10.(d) Of the funds appropriated to the General Assembly for the 2010-2011 fiscal year, the sum of thirty-nine thousand one hundred twenty-eight dollars ($39,128) remaining on June 30, 2011, is transferred to the State Board of Elections for the 2012-2013 fiscal year to implement the provisions of this act and are hereby appropriated.

SECTION 1.10.(e) Of the funds appropriated to the Department of Transportation, Division of Motor Vehicles, up to one million four hundred sixty-eight thousand thirty-three dollars ($1,468,033) for the 2011-2012 fiscal year and the sum of one hundred thousand four hundred thirty-eight dollars ($100,438) for the 2012-2013 fiscal year may be used from the Highway Fund, including unexpended funds within the Inspections Program Account and Telecommunications Account created by G.S. 20-183.7, to support the costs of issuing special identification cards for nonoperators and for costs associated with modifications to the State Automated Driver License System.

SECTION 2. If any provision of this act or its application is held invalid, the invalidity does not affect other provisions or applications of this act that can be given effect without the invalid provisions or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are severable.

SECTION 3. Sections 1.8, 1.9, and 1.10 of this act become effective July 1, 2011. Except as otherwise provided, this act is effective when it becomes law and applies to primaries and elections conducted on or after January 1, 2012.

HOUSE BILL 351:
Restore Confidence in Government

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary I	Date:	June 13, 2011
Introduced by:	Reps. Lewis, T. Moore, Killian	Prepared by:	R. Erika Churchill Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	PCS to Fourth Edition H351-CSST-67

SUMMARY: The proposed committee for House Bill 351 would require any person voting in person to show photo identification prior to voting.

[As introduced, this bill was identical to S352, as introduced by Sens. Meredith, Hise, which is currently in Senate Judiciary I.]

CURRENT LAW:

When appearing at the polls, the voter is to state their name and residence address to the precinct official so requesting. The individual, if verified by the precinct official as a registered voter, is then to sign their name to the pollbook, other voting record, or voter authorization document prior to voting.

For individuals who register to vote by mail after January 1, 2003, and have not previously voted in an election with a federal ballot item since that time, who appear at the polls to vote, that voter is also required to provide following forms of identification prior to voting:

- A current and valid photo ID.
- A copy of one of the following documents that shows the name and address of the voter: current utility bill, bank statement, government check, paycheck, or other government document.

An individual is exempted from showing identification if that individual included as part of the voter registration one of the forms of ID listed above, or their driver's license number or the last four digits of their social security number. The identification provided is then used to provide a match to an existing State identification record. Also exempt are those individuals, such as overseas and military voters entitled to vote by absentee ballot and voters entitled to vote other than in person under the federal Voting Accessibility for the Elderly and Handicapped Act, who are exempted under the federal law.

BILL ANALYSIS:

All voters appearing in person to vote, whether on election day, one-stop absentee, or same-day registration voting, would be required to present a photo ID when voting in-person under the new section, G.S. 163-166.13. The following photo IDs would be accepted:

- North Carolina drivers' license, including a learner's permit or provisional license.
- Special NC ID card for non-operators.
- ID card issued by a branch, department, agency, or entity of the State of NC, any other state, or the United States.
- US passport.

- Employer ID card issued by a branch, department, agency, or entity of the US government, State of NC, or any county, municipality, board, authority, or other entity of the State of NC.
- US military ID card.
- Tribal ID card.
- NC Voter ID card.

Any individual not having one of the required photo IDs would be allowed to vote a provisional ballot. Voters casting provisional ballots as a result of failure to show photo ID would be required to appear in person at the county board of election no later than the conclusion of the election canvass (10^{th} day following the general election and 7^{th} day following any other election. G.S. 163-182.5) to seek counting of the provisional ballot in one of two ways:

1. Provide photo ID and execute an affidavit that the person voted on the relevant day and cast a provisional ballot.
2. Execute an affidavit that the voter has a sincerely held religious objection to being photographed and that the person voted on the relevant day and cast a provisional ballot.

Unless the vote is disqualified for some other legal reason, the board must count the ballot.

For those individuals without one of the required photo IDs, two options would exist to obtain a required photo ID:

1. County boards of elections would issue voter identification cards at no cost to registered voters of that county who do not have a valid unexpired drivers' license, learner's permit, provisional license, or special ID card for non-operators. The cards could only be used for voting purposes and would require certain information about the person be printed on the card, including a photograph of the voter. A voter would be required to present a photo identity document or a nonphoto identity document that includes the person's name, evidence of the person's voter registration, and documentation of name and address. The card would remain valid as long as the person resided at the same address and remained qualified to vote. A person who moved within the State may apply for a new voter ID card if otherwise eligible to vote. The State Board would provide supplies and equipment to county boards of elections and adopt policies for administration, including policies to define the types of documentation needed to be verified before issuing a voter ID card.
2. The Department of Motor Vehicles would issue, to individuals registered to vote in North Carolina without a photo ID required for voting, a special ID card upon the individual signing an un-notarized affidavit attesting to registration and lack of acceptable photo ID. DMV could not charge a fee for the special ID under these circumstances.

The bill would require voters be educated about the photo ID requirements through regular mailings, State and county board of election websites, notices of elections, posting at polling sites, the Judicial Voters Guide, and public service announcements. Sources of funding for publicity and to provide for issuance of ID cards would be:

- Unexpended funds in the NC Voter Owned Elections Fund.

- Funds from the surcharge on attorney membership fees as related to judicial elections collected on or after July 1, 2011.
- A $600,000 special reserve to be created within the State Board of Elections from the appropriations in Section 1.10 of the act. That money would be used for voter education and the issuance of voter ID's by the county boards of election. The State Board of Elections is required to provide the counties with the necessary equipment, forms, supplies, and training for the production of the voter ID, as well as maintain the equipment.

Additionally, the bill would appropriate monies as follows:

- Section 1.10(d) - In 2011-2012, $231,437 from the funds appropriated to the General Assembly, and in 2012-2013, $39,128 from the funds appropriated to the General Assembly, is transferred to the State Board of Elections to implement the provisions of this act.
- Section 1.10(e) - In 2011-2012, $1,468,033 of the funds appropriated to the Department of Motor Vehicles, and in 2012-2013, $100,438 of the funds appropriated to the Department of Motor Vehicles is to be used to implement the provisions of this act.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The appropriations would become effective July 1, 2011. The substantive provisions of the act would become effective when it becomes law and apply to primaries and elections conducted on or after January 1, 2012, but may not be implemented until the session law has received "preclearance" approval under Section 5 of the Voting Rights of 1965.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO AMEND THE NORTH CAROLINA CONSTITUTION TO LIMIT THE SPEAKER OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES AND THE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE OF THE SENATE TO SERVICE FOR FOUR CONSECUTIVE TWO-YEAR TERMS IN THOSE OFFICES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Section 15 of Article II of the North Carolina Constitution reads as rewritten:

"Sec. 15. Officers of the House of Representatives.

(1) The House of Representatives shall elect its Speaker and other officers.

(2) No person may serve as Speaker in more than four consecutive General Assemblies. The initial convening of a regular session of the General Assembly after the terms of members commence shall constitute a new General Assembly for the purpose of this Section. Only service as Speaker during any part of an odd-numbered year constitutes service as Speaker for that General Assembly for the purpose of this Section. Service as Speaker in the 2011 and subsequent regular sessions of the General Assembly shall be considered in applying the limit established by this subsection."

SECTION 2. Section 14 of Article II of the North Carolina Constitution reads as rewritten:

"Sec. 14. Other officers of the Senate.

(1) President Pro Tempore – succession to presidency. The Senate shall elect from its membership a President Pro Tempore, who shall become President of the Senate upon the failure of the Lieutenant Governor-elect to qualify, or upon succession by the Lieutenant Governor to the office of Governor, or upon the death, resignation, or removal from office of the President of the Senate, and who shall serve until the expiration of his term of office as Senator.

(1a) No person may serve as President Pro Tempore in more than four consecutive General Assemblies. The initial convening of a regular session of the General Assembly after the terms of members commence shall constitute a new General Assembly for the purpose of this Section. Only service as President Pro Tempore during any part of an odd-numbered year constitutes service as President Pro Tempore for that General Assembly for the purpose of this Section. Service as President Pro Tempore in the 2011 and subsequent regular sessions of the General Assembly shall be considered in applying the limit established by this subsection.

(2) President Pro Tempore – temporary succession. During the physical or mental incapacity of the President of the Senate to perform the duties of his office, or during the absence of the President of the Senate, the President Pro Tempore shall preside over the Senate.

(3) Other officers. The Senate shall elect its other officers."

SECTION 3. The amendments set out in Sections 1 and 2 of this act shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the State at the general election on November 6, 2012, which election shall be conducted under the laws then governing elections in the State. Ballots, voting systems, or both may be used in accordance with Chapter 163 of the General Statutes. The question to be used in the voting systems and ballots shall be:

"[ ] FOR [ ] AGAINST

Term Limits: Constitutional amendments providing that neither the Speaker of the House of Representatives nor the President Pro Tempore of the Senate may serve more than four consecutive terms."

SECTION 4. If a majority of the votes cast on the question are in favor of the amendments set out in Sections 1 and 2 of this act, the State Board of Elections shall certify the amendments to the Secretary of State, and the amendments become effective upon certification. The Secretary of State shall enroll the amendments so certified among the permanent records of that office.

SECTION 5. This act is effective when it becomes law.

HOUSE BILL 823:
Speaker/Pro Tem Term Limits

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary I	Date:	September 12, 2011
Introduced by:	Reps. Holloway, Hilton, Brubaker, Blackwell	Prepared by:	Brad Krehely
Analysis of:	PCS to Third Edition H823-CSRN-34		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: The Proposed Committee Substitute (PCS) for House Bill 823 would amend the North Carolina Constitution to limit the North Carolina Speaker of the House of Representatives and the President Pro Tempore of the North Carolina Senate to four consecutive two-year terms in those offices.

CURRENT LAW: Currently, the State Constitution and statutes do no limit the terms of the Speaker of the House of Representatives or the President Pro Tempore of the Senate.

BILL ANALYSIS: The PCS would place on the November 6, 2012 general election ballot an amendment to the North Carolina Constitution that, if approved by a majority of the votes cast, would do all of the following:

- Provide that neither the Speaker of the House of Representatives nor the President Pro Tempore of the Senate may serve more than 4 consecutive terms.
- Only service as Speaker or President Pro Tempore during any part of an odd-numbered year constitutes service as Speaker or President Pro Tempore.
- Service as Speaker or President Pro Tempore in the 2011 and subsequent regular sessions must be considered in applying the term limit.
- Effective Date- If a majority of votes cast on the question are in favor or the amendments in Part II, then the State Board of Elections must certify the amendment to the Secretary of State. The amendment would become effective upon certification.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The act is effective when it becomes law, and the constitutional amendments would become effective as described above.

BACKGROUND: The current North Carolina Constitution provisions governing the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the President Pro Tempore of the Senate are set forth below.

Article II, Sec. 11. Sessions.

(1) Regular Sessions. The General Assembly shall meet in regular session in 1973 and every two years thereafter on the day prescribed by law. Neither house shall proceed upon public business unless a majority of all of its members are actually present.

(2) Extra sessions on legislative call. The President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall convene the General Assembly in extra session by their joint proclamation upon receipt by the President of the Senate of written requests therefor signed by three-fifths of all the members of the Senate and upon receipt by the Speaker of the House of Representatives of written requests therefor signed by three-fifths of all the members of the House of Representatives.

ticle II, Sec. 15. Officers of the House of Representatives.

ıe House of Representatives shall elect its Speaker and other officers.

Article II, Sec. 14. Other officers of the Senate.

(1) President Pro Tempore - succession to presidency. The Senate shall elect from its membership a President Pro Tempore, who shall become President of the Senate upon the failure of the Lieutenant Governor-elect to qualify, or upon succession by the Lieutenant Governor to the office of Governor, or upon the death, resignation, or removal from office of the President of the Senate, and who shall serve until the expiration of his term of office as Senator.

(2) President Pro Tempore - temporary succession. During the physical or mental incapacity of the President of the Senate to perform the duties of his office, or during the absence of the President of the Senate, the President Pro Tempore shall preside over the Senate.

(3) Other officers. The Senate shall elect its other officers.

Judicial Selection—An Overview

James Drennan
UNC School of Government
October 26, 2011

The Court's Job

- Magna Carta: To no one will we sell, to no one deny or delay right or justice.
- In the 1660's the English Crown instructed the Lord Proprietors to build a system of courts 'to do equal justice to all men to the best of their skill and judgment, without corruption, favor or affection'.
- N C Constitution: Right and justice shall be administered without favor, denial and delay.
- N C Code of Judicial Conduct: A judge should respect and comply with the law and should conduct himself/herself at all times in a manner that promotes public confidence in the integrity and impartiality of the judiciary. . . A judge should be faithful to the law and maintain professional competence in it. A judge should be unswayed by partisan interests, public clamor, or fear of criticism.

What People Tend to Agree On

- Judges should be (In addition to being competent in the law, in descending order)
  - Honest
  - Fair
  - Unbiased
  - Good Managers
  - Hardworking
  - Consistent
  - Speedy

– Commission on the Future of Justice And the Courts in North Carolina, 1995

What People Often Disagree About

- How to select judges who have those qualities
- How to weigh those various qualities
- What the role of a judge should be
- Whether the same system works for trial and appellate courts
- How to best keep judges accountable when they should be and independent when they should be

Things to Consider in Any Selection System

- Providing appropriate candidate pool
  - Providing appropriate job security to candidates selected
- Providing appropriate safeguards to protect public from poor choices
- Providing appropriate public input

How Others Do It

- Federal Model
  - Appointment by President, confirmed by Senate
    - Indefinite term, guaranteed salary
  - "He has made Judges dependent on his Will alone, for the tenure of their offices, and the amount and payment of their salaries." Declaration of Independence
- Basic methods used by States
  - Appointment by Executive
  - Appointment by Legislature
  - "Merit" Selection
  - Nonpartisan Election
  - Partisan Election

- State judicial selection is classic federalism
  - Many states combine more than one method
  - Many use different methods for different courts
- Building blocks for a system
  - Filling vacancies in mid term
  - Filling vacancies at end of term
  - Selection for full term
  - Retention

Appointments

- Clustered in original colonies, in Northeast.
  - Some have indefinite terms ("good behavior")
  - Others has specific terms
  - Most use some form of screening, either formal or informal
  - Legislature/Senate confirms
  - No elections for subsequent terms

Partisan Elections

- Began to appear in 1830's as part of Jacksonian democracy movement
  - Initial method for most new states and for states rethinking method during the 19th century
- Seen as creating independence from appointing authorities
- Candidates selected by parties
- Run in elections on party banners
- Currently in South and Great Lakes area (Pa., Ill., Ohio, W. Va.)
- Used more often for trial courts than appellate courts

Nonpartisan elections

- Began to appear in early around turn of the 20th century
- Established to provide independence from political parties
- Candidates run without party designation
- Clustered in upper Midwest and Northwest
- More common in trial courts
- Some states have moved from partisan to nonpartisan in last generation

"Merit" Selection

- First adopted in Missouri in 1940; popular in 1960's and 1970's
- Appointment by Governor for initial term from screened candidates
- Screening done by nominating commission
  - Typically bipartisan, with multiple appointing authorities
- Subsequent, full terms are usually by retention election
- Occasionally, nominee is confirmed by some other body
- Used more often in appellate courts than trial courts
- Clustered in mid-western states

Legislative Appointment

- Used in only two states, South Carolina and Virginia
- Reflects distrust of executive power common when states were established
- Applies to both initial appointment and reappointments
- May also involve some screening by outside entity

Some numbers

- Pure merit selection states—6
- Full-term election only states—22
- States with both merit selection and elections for full terms—11
- States with no elections—12

Some More Numbers

- States that use elections partly or fully—33
- States that use merit selection for vacancies or for full terms—38
- Election-only states that use merit selection nominating commissions for vacancies—11
- Election-only states that don't limit appointments for vacancies—11
  - Election-only states that have EO's setting up commissions for vacancies—2

NC's Judicial Selection

- Crown/provisional governors appointed colonial judges
- Legislature appointed judges until 1868
- Partisan elections in 1868 constitution
- Nonpartisan elections in last fifteen years
  - Superior Court, then District Court, then Appellate Courts

Recent Efforts to Change

- Bell Commission (1958)
  - Recommended appointment of district judges, not of superior and supreme court judges
- Courts Commission (1970-85)
  - Recommended merit selection plans
- Judicial Selection Study Commission (1986-87)
  - Recommended appointment by Governor, confirmation by legislature, reconfirmation by legislature after review by Judicial Standards Commission
- Efforts since 1989 have not had formal study commission support
  - Focused on appellate judges, appointments by governor, with and without legislative confirmation and with and without nominating commission screening

Litigation Developments

- NC voting rights litigation in 1980's
  - Led to establishment of smaller superior court districts
- Republican party litigation in 1990's
  - Led to district elections for superior court
- Republican Party of Minnesota v. White, 2002
  - Established judicial candidates right to speak on disputed legal or political issues
- Caperton v. AT Massey Coal, 2009
  - Found due process violation when major contributor to judge's election had case pending which supreme court judge cast deciding vote on

Efforts By Some States to Provide Information to Voters

- Judicial evaluations
- Voter guides
- Recommendation from nominating commissions

Independence and accountability

- Methods to promote independence
  - Salary guarantee
  - Terms of Office
  - More security in retention decision than in initial decision
  - Committees to defend judges

Independence and Accountability

- Methods of holding judges accountable
  - Elections
  - Judicial Standards
  - Criminal prosecution
  - Recusal statutes
  - Appellate review
  - Public media
  - Judicial evaluation

"There Ain't No Good Way to Select Judges"

- Bottom line—There is a tension between accountability and independence
- States have been seeking the right balance since they were established
- They still are

MEMORANDUM OF LAW

TO: Rep. Paul Stam

FROM: Hal Pell, Staff Attorney

DATE: November 26, 2011

ISSUE: Whether a petitioner seeking relief under the Racial Justice Act (RJA), who committed the capital offense prior to October 1, 1994, would be eligible for release from prison—even though the RJA provides that if racial bias is found to be a significant factor in seeking or imposing the death sentence, the petitioner is to be sentenced to life without parole.

ANSWER: The North Carolina Supreme Court has held that where a capital defendant was subject to either death or life with the possibility of parole at the time of the offense, the imposition of a life without parole sentence would be more onerous than life with the possibility of parole—and therefore a violation of the ex post facto clause. The case law related to whether a jury could be instructed on sentencing a defendant to life without parole, and not whether a statute could impose a life without parole sentence to ameliorate a death sentence.

At least one federal court and a state supreme court have ruled that, depending upon the circumstances, sentencing a capital defendant to life without parole--although not a possible sentence at the time of the offense--was not an ex post facto violation. The appellate courts will have the final say on whether it violates the ex post facto clause to sentence a defendant to life without parole when that sentence was not available at the time of the offense—or that the statute is ameliorative and does not disadvantage the defendant in relation to the sentence that was actually imposed.

I. Background

In 1994, the General Assembly amended the capital sentencing statutes to provide that a person convicted of first degree murder could be sentenced to death or life in prison without parole. The act was effective October 1, 1994. Prior to that date, the options were a death sentence, or life with the possibility of parole after 20 years of confinement. In addition, although the statute provided for "life without parole," for offenses occurring between 1994 and 1998, the statutes continued to provide that a defendant could, after serving 25 years, seek release though a hearing before a superior court judge. It wasn't until 1998, when the 25 year provision was repealed, that all possibility of release was eliminated for a prisoner serving a life without parole sentence.

II. State v. Connor

In State v. Connor, 345 N.C. 319 (1997), the North Carolina Supreme Court considered a case where the defendant had been convicted of a murder which had occurred before the "life without parole" sentencing statute became effective. The defendant had requested that the jury be instructed that it could sentence him to life without parole—even though that sentence was not enacted until after the murder offense. Connor believed that he had a better chance of escaping a death sentence if the jury had the life without parole option, instead of just death or life with the possibility of parole.

The North Carolina Supreme Court held that because (1) the life without parole statute was passed after the offense occurred, and (2) it increased the penalty of life with the possibility of parole to life without parole, that it would have been a violation of the ex post facto clause of the Constitution to have sentenced Connor to life without parole. The ex post facto clause (in both the U.S. and State Constitutions) prevents a harsher sentence from being imposed than was in the law at the time of the offense.

This document is confidential and/or privileged and is protected pursuant to G.S. 120-130 and G.S. 120-131.

III. Barnes v. Scott

Three years after State v. Connor was decided, a federal circuit court of appeals took a different approach. In Barnes v. Scott, 201 F.3d 1292 (10th Cir. 2000), the defendant had committed first degree murder at a time when the punishment in Oklahoma was the death penalty or life imprisonment with the possibility of parole. Subsequent to the date of the murder, Oklahoma amended its capital sentencing law to allow for a third option, life imprisonment without parole. The State did not seek the death penalty. The conviction was reversed on unrelated grounds, and following a retrial, Barnes was sentenced to life without parole.

Barnes argued on appeal that because the statute providing for life without parole was passed subsequent to the date of the offense, applying it in his case violated the ex post facto clause as it was more severe than life with the possibility of parole. Id. at 1293. The court rejected the argument and held that the imposition of life without parole, although not an available punishment at the time of the offense, did not violate defendant's rights under the ex post facto clause:

> [T]he [life without parole statute] provides an intermediate alternative punishment for the crime of first degree murder. It does not alter the crime for which Mr. Barnes was indicted, increase the maximum punishment prescribed for that crime, or change the quantity or level of proof necessary to convict him. See Dobbert v. Florida, 432 U.S. 282, 294, 97 S.Ct. 2290, 53 L.Ed.2d 344 (1977) (holding it "axiomatic that for a law to be ex post facto it must be more onerous than the prior law").
>
>
> In sum, it is our conclusion that at the time Mr. Barnes committed the crime, he was on notice that the presumptive sentencing range for first degree murder in Oklahoma was life imprisonment to death. At the time of his trial, his presumptive sentencing range remained life imprisonment to death. Adding an intermediate punishment did not prescribe more onerous punishment than that available under the old law.

Barnes, 201 F.3d at 1296 (emphasis added). Thus, unlike the Connor court, the federal court held that the life without parole statute did not alter the maximum sentence (death) that the defendant could have received—it did not prescribe "more onerous punishment than that available under the old law." Since it did not make the penalty more onerous, its application to an offense committed prior to its passage was not a violation of the ex post facto clause. In contrast, the Connor Court had looked to the minimum penalty for the offense, not the maximum, in making its "more onerous" determination.

This document is confidential and/or privileged and is protected pursuant to G.S. 120-130 and G.S. 120-131.

IV. State v. Fortin

More recently, the New Jersey Supreme Court addressed the issue. The State of New Jersey had repealed its death penalty statute and replaced it with life without parole. The state prosecutor attempted to have the court impose a sentence of life without parole in Fortin's case—even though his offense occurred before that sentence was available.

The court noted that the State argued that a life without parole sentence did not violate the Ex Post Facto Clause, because the statute was ameliorative, i.e., it eliminated death as a sentencing option. Essentially, the State argued the position of the court in the Barnes case: since life without parole was less than the maximum penalty (death), then it was not an ex post facto violation. State v. Fortin, 198 N.J. 619, 625-626 (2009). As stated by the court:

> [T]he State asserts that the courts below wrongly compared the thirty-year parole disqualifier provision in the earlier statute with the life-without-parole provision in the amended statute to find an increased penalty, when instead the comparison should be between the former maximum penalty of death and the current less severe punishment of life without parole.
>
> . . .
>
> Defendant argues that the courts below correctly ruled that applying the mandatory term of life without parole to him would violate the Ex Post Facto Clause because the new law makes the punishment for his crime more burdensome [than life with possibility of parole].

Id. Thus, while the State argued the position of the federal court in Barnes (life without parole not greater than the maximum penalty), the defendant argued the position of the North Carolina

Supreme Court in Connor (life without parole increased the minimum penalty of life with possibility of parole).

The court essentially agreed with the State, i.e., that Fortin was subject to life without parole. However, before it would allow the possibility of life without parole, it required the State to prove that the defendant could have been sentenced to death based upon the statutory requirement (a showing that aggravating factors existed that would have resulted in a death sentence). The court's ruling implies that if the sentence ameliorative (would result in a lesser sentence that would have been imposed), then it is not an ex post facto violation—even though the sentence did not exist at the time of the offense.

V. State v. Connor and the Racial Justice Act

In the Connor case, the defendant did argue that the statute which created the life without parole statute was ameliorative, even though it made a sentence of life imprisonment "more onerous" than life with the possibility of parole. The court held that the statute creating the life without parole statute was not ameliorative, because it > clearly increased the punishment for first degree murder by making it a crime for which parole is no longer a possibility. . . . By its plain terms, the amendment increases, rather than decreases, a penalty. Therefore, retroactive application of the amendment would violate the constitutional prohibition on ex post facto application of punitive laws. See State v. Wright, 302 N.C. 122, 128, 273 S.E.2d 699, 704 (1981) ("Any legislation which increases the punishment for a crime between the time the offense was committed and the time a defendant is punished therefor is considered an invalid ex post facto law as applied to that defendant.").

Conner, 345 N.C. at 331-332; see also State v. Fullwood, 343 N.C. 725, 741(1996)(applying life without parole statute would violate the prohibition against ex post facto laws because it makes the minimum sentence for first degree murder more onerous than life with the possibility of parole after twenty years, the punishment in effect when the crime was committed).

This document is confidential and/or privileged and is protected pursuant to G.S. 120-130 and G.S. 120-131.

The RJA provides that if the court does find that race was a significant factor in seeking or imposing the death penalty, then the court must resentence the defendant to life in prison without parole. For defendants who committed first degree murder on or after October 1, 1994, there would be no issue that this resentencing was a violation of the ex post facto clause because life without parole was in effect at the time of their offenses. However, if the murder was committed before October 1, 1994, then those petitioners would have a strong argument that they could not be sentenced to life without parole, based on the Connor decision. See United States v. Dobbert, 432 U.S. 282, 300 (1977)("[T]he ex post facto clause looks to the standard of punishment prescribed by a statute, rather than to the sentence actually imposed."). It could also be argued that defendants who committed their offenses between 1994 and 1998, would still be eligible for parole after 25 years of confinement. The Connor holding, that the trial jury could not be instructed that life without parole was a possible sentence for offenses committed prior to the life without parole statute, was reaffirmed by the Court in State v. Warren, 348 N.C. 80 (1998).

The Connor decision emphasized that any legislation that increases the punishment for a crime between the time it was committed and when the defendant is punished is an invalid ex post facto law. The RJA requires the trial court to resentence the petitioner. A defendant, upon the hearing judge determining that race was a significant factor in his case, could assert based on Connor that the application of a life without parole sentence was a violation of the ex post facto clause. A defense counsel representing the defendant may well be required to raise this issue in fulfilling his or her responsibility to be a zealous advocate for the client. In that there is certainly a good faith argument to be made, in light of N.C. Supreme Court precedent, there would likely be an appealable issue if counsel failed to make this argument.

The State, in this circumstance, would be left attempting to distinguish Connor's holding, arguing that the Racial Justice Act is, in fact, an ameliorative act. In this case (as opposed to the facts in Connor), a life without parole sentence is a lesser sentence than the death penalty, which was actually adjudged—not a more severe sentence than what could have been adjudged. As such, there is no factual issue (as in Fortin) as to whether the defendant would have received the death penalty. The State may also argue that federal law, decided subsequent to Connor, has determined that the "calculation" as to what is more onerous should be based upon the maximum penalty (as in Barnes), not the minimum. State law has emphasized the federal and State law on the ex post facto law should be parallel. See State v. Wiley, 355 N.C. 592, 625 (2002)("Because both the federal and state constitutional ex post facto provisions are evaluated under the same definition, we analyze defendant's state and federal constitutional contentions jointly.")

VI. Conclusion

There has not been a Racial Justice Act case where a court has found that race was a significant factor in seeking or imposing a death sentence, and resentenced the defendant. Exactly what will occur is unknown. The appellate courts will have the final say on whether it violates the ex post facto clause to sentence a defendant to life without parole when that sentence was not available at the time of the offense—or that the statute is ameliorative and does not disadvantage the defendant in relation to the sentence that was actually imposed.

MEMORANDUM OF LAW

TO: Rep. Paul Stam

FROM: Hal Pell, Staff Attorney

DATE: November 25, 2011

ISSUE: Whether a retroactive application of a repeal of the Racial Justice Act which abates current proceedings in Superior Courts would violate the Ex post facto clauses of the State or federal Constitutions.

ANSWER: No. Under an ex post facto constitutional analysis, the key issues in determining whether a law is ex post facto is whether the crime for which the present defendant was indicted, the punishment prescribed therefor, and the quantity or the degree of proof necessary to establish his guilt, were affected by the law. For persons convicted of first degree murder, either prior to or after the enactment of the Racial Justice Act, none of these factors would be affected by a repeal of the Act's hearing provisions.

A. The Racial Justice Act

Article 101 of Chapter 15 of the General Statutes (G.S. 15A-2010 et seq.) is entitled the "North Carolina Racial Justice Act" (RJA). The RJA was enacted on July 11, 2009, and changed the criminal procedure applicable to persons who had been sentenced to death or charged with a capital offense prior to or following its enactment. The Act provided a new procedure by which a capital defendant or capital prisoner, in either pretrial or posttrial proceedings, may prove by the use of statistical evidence that race was a significant factor in decisions to seek or impose the death penalty in the county, the prosecutorial district, the judicial division, or the State. G.S. 15A-2011(b). Relevant statistics can include that:

(1) Death sentences were sought or imposed significantly more frequently upon persons of one race than upon persons of another race.
(2) Death sentences were sought or imposed significantly more frequently as punishment for capital offenses against persons of one race than as punishment of capital offenses against persons of another race.
(3) Race was a significant factor in decisions to exercise peremptory challenges during jury selection.

G.S. 15A-2011 (b). If the court finds that race was a significant factor in decisions to seek or impose the death penalty in the county, the prosecutorial district, the judicial division, or the State at the time of the defendant's case, then the court must order that the death not be sought in the case, or that the adjudged death penalty be vacated and a sentence of life without parole be imposed. G.S. 15A-2012(a)(3).

B. Ex post facto Law

In general, "an impermissible ex post facto law is one which, among other things, aggravates a crime or makes it a greater crime than when committed, or changes the punishment of a crime to make the punishment greater than the law permitted when the crime was committed." State v. Mason, 126 N.C.App. 318, 324, 484 S.E.2d 818, 821 (1997)(emphasis added), cert. denied, 354 N.C. 72, 553 S.E.2d 208 (2001). The North Carolina Court of Appeals has noted that under Article I, Section 10 of the United States Constitution, there are two critical elements which must be present for a law to be considered ex post facto: (1) the case law or statute must apply to events occurring before its enactment, and (2) the case law or statute as applied must disadvantage the offender affected by it. Harter v. Vernon, 532 S.E.2d 836 (N.C.Ct.App. 2000). See State v. Jones, 133 N.C.App. 448, 516 S.E.2d 405 (1999), and In Re

Hayes, 111 N.C.App. 384, 432 S.E.2d 862 (1993). With regard to "disadvantage," a federal Circuit Court of Appeals, citing the United States Supreme Court, stated:

> The United States Constitution expressly prohibits states from enacting ex post facto laws. U.S. Const. Art. I, § 10, cl. 1. "The focus of the ex post facto inquiry is not on whether a legislative change produces some ambiguous sort of 'disadvantage' [to covered offenders] ... but on whether any such change alters the definition of criminal conduct or increases the penalty by which a crime is punishable." California Dep't of Corrections v. Morales, 514 U.S. 499, 506 n. 3, 115 S.Ct. 1597, 131 L.Ed.2d 588 (1995).

Barnes v. Scott, 201 F.3d 1292, 1294 (10th Cir. 2000)(emphasis added). In Barnes, the defendant had committed first degree murder at a time when the punishment in Oklahoma was the death penalty or life imprisonment. Subsequent to the date of the murder, Oklahoma amended its capital sentencing law to allow for a third option, life imprisonment without parole. The State did not seek the death penalty. The conviction was reversed on unrelated grounds, and following a retrial, Barnes was sentenced to life without parole.

Barnes argued on appeal that because the statute providing for life without parole was passed subsequent to the date of the offense, it violated the Ex post facto clause, and could not be constitutionally applied in his case. Id. at 1293. The court rejected the argument and held that the imposition of life without parole, although not an available punishment at the time of the offense, did not violate defendant's rights under the Ex post facto Clause. Because the 1987 amendment did not alter either the minimum or maximum penalty for first degree murder, the amendment was procedural in nature and therefore, not in violation of the Ex post facto Clause. The North Carolina Supreme Court took a different approach in State v. Connor, 345 N.C. 319 (1997), where a defendant sought a jury instruction that life without parole statute was a possible sentence—even though the life without parole statute was not passed until after the offense. The Court noted that since life without parole increased the penalty of life with the possibility of parole, it would have been a violation of the ex post facto clause of the Constitution to have sentenced Connor to life without parole.

Provisions relating to relief from punishments, which were in effect at the time of the offense, can also be the subject of an ex post facto law. For example, a rule or policy that rescinds or alters the amount of a prisoner's "good time" or "gain time" in effect at the time of an offense, may violate the ex post facto prohibition. As stated by the U.S. Supreme Court:

> Critical to relief under the Ex post facto Clause is not an individual's right to less punishment, but the lack of fair notice and governmental restraint when the legislature increases the punishment beyond what was prescribed when the crime was consummated. Thus, even if a statute merely alters penal provisions accorded by the grace of the legislature, it violates the Clause if it is both retrospective and more onerous than the law in effect on the date of the offense.

Weaver v. Graham, 450 U.S. 24, 29-31 (1981).

It is also clear that changes in trial procedure, including evidentiary rules, can be applied to trials where the offender committed the offense prior to the enactment of the legislation authorizing those changes. The United States Supreme Court, in a leading case on ex post facto law, where the defendant had been sentenced to death, reiterated that any statute which punishes as a crime an act previously committed, which was innocent when done; which makes more burdensome the punishment for a crime, after its commission, or which deprives one charged with crime of any defense available according to law at the time when the act was committed, is prohibited as ex post facto. Dobbert v. Florida, 432 U.S. 282, 292 (1977). However, the Court went on to note:

> It is equally well settled, however, that "(t)he inhibition upon the passage of ex post facto laws does not give a criminal a right to be tried, in all respects, by the law in force when the crime charged was committed." . . "(T)he constitutional provision was intended to secure substantial personal rights against arbitrary and oppressive legislation, see Malloy v. South Carolina, . . . and not to limit the legislative control of remedies and modes of procedure which do not affect matters of substance.

This document is confidential and/or privileged and is protected pursuant to G.S. 120-130 and G.S. 120-131.

> Even though it may work to the disadvantage of a defendant, a procedural change is not ex post facto.

Dobbert v. Florida, 432 U.S. at 293 (emphasis added). The Court then illustrated its point by describing instances where procedural changes in the law had been applied to defendants who had committed their offenses prior to the law going into effect. In Hopt v. Utah, on the date of an alleged homicide, a convicted felon was barred from being a witness. Prior to Hopt's trial, the law was changed and a convicted felon testified against him. Although the law worked to Hopt's disadvantage, the Court ruled that the law was not an ex post facto violation. Id. citing Hopt v. Utah, 100 U.S. 574 (1884). In Thompson v. Missouri, the defendant was convicted based upon circumstantial evidence. The conviction was reversed based upon the inadmissibility of certain evidence that was introduced at trial. Prior to the retrial, the law was changed to allow the evidence, and the defendant was again convicted. The U.S. Supreme Court upheld the conviction. Dobbert, 432 U.S. at 293.

In Dobbert, at issue was Florida's change to its capital sentencing law. At the time of Dobbert's offense, the law provided that a person convicted of first degree murder was to be punished by death unless mercy was recommended by majority of jury. Subsequent to the offense, the law was changed so that the jury gave only an advisory opinion. In finding that the law was procedural only, and not ex post facto, the Court stated:

> In the case at hand, the change in the statute was clearly procedural. The new statute simply altered the methods employed in determining whether the death penalty was to be imposed; there was no change in the quantum of punishment attached to the crime. The following language from Hopt v. Utah, supra, applicable with equal force to the case at hand, summarizes our conclusion that the change was procedural and not a violation of the Ex post facto Clause: "The crime for which the present defendant was indicted, the punishment prescribed therefor, and the quantity or the degree of proof necessary to establish his guilt, all remained unaffected by the subsequent statute."

This document is confidential and/or privileged and is protected pursuant to G.S. 120-130 and G.S. 120-131.

Dobbert, 432 U.S. 293-294. (emphasis added). The Supreme Court also addressed the issue of procedural changes in Collins v. Youngblood, 497 U.S. 37 (1990) stating its "best knowledge of the original understanding of the Ex post facto Clause: Legislatures may not retroactively alter the definition of crimes or increase the punishment for criminal acts." Youngblood, 497 U.S. at 43. The Court notes that several of its cases have described changes as "procedural" which, although they worked to the disadvantage of an accused, did not violate the Ex post facto Clause. Id., citing Dobbert v. Florida, 432 U.S. at 292-293, and n.6; Beazell v. Ohio, 269 U.S. 167, 171; Mallett v. North Carolina, 181 U.S. 589, 597 (1901). Recognizing that the cases did not explicitly define the word " 'procedural,' it is logical to think that the term refers to changes in the procedures by which a criminal case is adjudicated, as opposed to changes in the substantive law of crimes."

The Court agreed with the defendant that a procedural change may constitute an ex post facto violation if it affects matters of substance, by depriving a defendant of substantial protections with which the existing law surrounds the person accused of crime, or arbitrarily infringing upon "substantial personal rights." Youngblood, 497 U.S. at 45 (cits. omitted)(quots. omitted). The Court determined that the "best way to make sense" of the discussion in the cases was to say that "by simply labeling a law 'procedural,' a legislature does not thereby immunize it from scrutiny under the Ex post facto Clause." Id. The Court related these substantial protections to the analysis explained in Beazell and other cases, i.e., does the law punish as a crime an act previously committed, which was innocent when done; make more burdensome the punishment for a crime, after its commission; or deprive one charged with crime of any defense available according to law at the time when the act was committed? See Youngblood, 497 U.S. at 52. For example, a law that abolishes an affirmative defense of justification or excuse—although related to trial procedure--contravenes the ex post facto clause, because it expands the scope of a criminal prohibition after the act is done. Id. at 49.

The North Carolina Court of Appeals addressed the ex post facto clause in the federal and State Constitutions in a case where a statute was changed to require a defendant, who had been acquitted based on the insanity defense and committed, to carry the burden of proving that that he was no longer dangerous or mentally ill as a prerequisite for release. At the time of the homicides to which he had pled not guilty by reason of insanity, the law had required the State to prove continuing mental illness and dangerousness of an acquitted. In the Matter of Michael Charles Hayes, 111 N.C.App. 384, appeal dismissed, 335 N.C. 173 (1993). The court initially noted that even "a procedural change which deprived a defendant of "substantial protections" may constitute an ex post facto violation." Matter of Hayes, 111 N.C.App. at 390 (original emphasis)(cit. omitted). The court then stated:

> Although the Youngblood Court noted that a law labeled as procedural will not necessarily immunize it from ex post facto scrutiny, the Court held that for purposes of the Ex post facto Clause, it is logical to presume that a change in procedure by which a criminal case is adjudicated, as opposed to substantive changes in the law, will not violate the Clause even though the change may work to the accused's disadvantage. Youngblood, 497 U.S. at 49-50, 110 S.Ct. at 2722-23, 111 L.Ed.2d at 43-44. In other words, only a procedural change that alters the definition of an offense or increases the punishment, thereby expanding the scope of a criminal prohibition after the act is done, violates the Ex post facto Clause. Id.

Hayes, 111 N.C.App. at 390 (emphasis added). The court found that neither of the statutory amendments made an innocent act criminal, altered the nature of the offense, or increased the punishment for a criminal act. The court concluded that shifting the burden of proof to the respondent, as well as making the hearing open to the public, were procedural changes that did not violate substantive rights or protections, even though they might disadvantage the respondent. Id. at 391. In support of its ruling, the court citing the holdings in In the Matter of Rogers, 63 N.C.App. 705 (1983)("statute requiring hearing for insanity acquittees before release from mental institution not ex post facto law under federal or state constitutions because procedures do not compromise punishment for crime"), and United States v. Mest, 789 F.2d 1069 (4th Cir.), cert. denied, 479 U.S. 846 (1986)("procedural change, although retroactive in application, not violative of Ex post facto Clause if it does not increase punishment, change ingredients of offense, or ultimate facts necessary to establish guilt").

C. Application of the Law

Initially, the Racial Justice Act applies to two different "classes" of offenders: those that committed capital offenses prior to its enactment, and those that will be tried or have been convicted of capital offenses which occurred on or after July 11, 2009 (the enactment date). For offenses committed prior to the Act, the Supreme Court's decisional law removes them from consideration as subject to ex post facto analysis. At the time the offenses occurred, the defendants had no expectation of any procedures included in North Carolina's criminal justice system designed to permit the use of statistical evidence relating to other capital cases that might result in a lesser sentence. See Weaver v. Graham, 450 U.S. 24, 30 ("Critical to relief under the Ex post facto Clause is not an individual's right to less punishment, but the lack of fair notice and governmental restraint when the legislature increases punishment beyond what was prescribed when the crime was consummated.") (emphasis added).

Thus, under a constitutional analysis with respect to the application of ex post facto laws to capital defendants currently seeking post-conviction relief under the RJA, the key issue is whether there was a lack of "fair notice" to the offender at the time the offense was committed. A defendant who committed the capital offense prior to the enactment of the RJA had no notice or rights to any procedures under the RJA at the time of an offense committed before its enactment; consequently, a repeal of RJA hearing provisions would not implicate any ex post facto violations for these offenses. Second, elimination of hearings for capital defendants who committed offenses on or after July 11, 2009, would not violate the ex post facto clause. A repeal would result in a procedural change to the law; they would not make an innocent act criminal, alter the nature of the offense of first degree murder, or increase the punishment for first degree murder. See Barnes v. Scott, 201 F.3d 1292 (10th Cir. 2000)(sentencing defendant to life without parole, which was not a penalty at the time of the offense, did not alter either the minimum or maximum penalty for first degree murder; therefore, the amendment adding the punishment was procedural in nature and not in violation of the Ex post facto Clause.)

Further, the U.S. Supreme Court decision in McCleskey v. Kemp, 481 U.S. 279 (1987) appears to remove any doubt as to whether the procedures in the Racial Justice Act protect substantive rights, and might be the type of "substantive right" which, although procedural, may not be repealed without implicating the ex post facto clause. See Youngblood, above. McCleskey's base holding was that a statistical study was insufficient to support an inference that any of the decision makers in the defendant's case acted with discriminatory purpose. The study had indicated that the death penalty in Georgia was more frequently imposed on black defendants, and defendants killing white victims, than on white defendants, and defendants killing black victims. Because a defendant must show that the decision makers in his own case acted with discriminatory purpose, the decision relegates the type of statistical information allowed by the Racial Justice Act into the category of evidence that fails to create an inference—and it's submission would not be a substantive right.

The North Carolina Supreme Court has held, citing Rule 402 of the North Carolina Rules of Evidence, that in order for evidence to be admissible, it must be relevant. State v. Burke, 342

This document is confidential and/or privileged and is protected pursuant to G.S. 120-130 and G.S. 120-131.

N.C. 113, 118 (1995). "The test of relevancy of evidence is whether it has any tendency to make the existence of any fact that is of consequence to the determination of the action more probable or less probable than it would be without the evidence." Id. (cit. omitted). Because the U.S. Supreme Court has held that the type of evidence precluded by the amendments fails to create an inference that the decision makers in a defendant's case acted with discriminatory purpose, removing a defendant's ability to introduce this type of evidence would not qualify as retroactively depriving a defendant of a "substantive right."

D. Conclusion

A long line of cases decided by the U.S. Supreme Court, and followed by the North Carolina courts, set forth some basic considerations for determining whether a law, which purports to apply to offenses which occurred prior to its passage, is proscribed by the Ex post facto clause. Does the law make innocent conduct unlawful or expand the scope of an offense? Does it prescribe punishment for an offense which was beyond that which was authorized at the time of the offense? Does it change the necessary facts to establish guilt for the offense? These questions would be answered in the negative as to a law which repealed the Racial Justice Act's hearing provisions. Such a law would not change the crime of first degree murder, nor affect the defendant's rights relating to defenses to the crime. They would not increase the statutory maximum or minimum punishments for first degree murder for offenders. A defendant charged with first degree murder—before or after the enactment of the RJA—was and is on "fair notice" that the maximum penalty for first degree murder is death, and the minimum penalty is life without parole. The right provided in the RJA to include statistical evidence is not a "substantive right." For the above stated reasons, a law repealing rights to a hearing at which statistical evidence may be admitted would not be proscribed by the Ex post facto clauses of the federal or State Constitutions. Upon passage of such a law, a court would be without jurisdiction to continue a hearing that had commenced prior to the law's enactment.

SENATE BILL 9:
No Discriminatory Purpose in Death Penalty

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:		Date:	November 25, 2011
Introduced by:		Prepared by:	Hal Pell
Analysis of:	Third Edition		Staff Attorney
	S9-CSRK-64

SUMMARY: This act would remove provisions in the Racial Justice Act that allow the introduction of certain statistical evidence to show discrimination in either pretrial or posttrial proceedings in capital cases. This act is effective when it becomes law, and applies to all capital cases—based on offenses occurring prior to, on, or after the effective date.

CURRENT LAW:

Article 101 of Chapter 15 of the General Statutes (G.S. 15A-2010 et seq.) is entitled the "North Carolina Racial Justice Act" (RJA). The RJA was enacted on July 11, 2009, and changed the criminal procedure applicable to persons who had been sentenced to death or charged with a capital offense prior to or following its enactment. The Act provided a new procedure by which a capital defendant or capital prisoner, in either pretrial or posttrial proceedings, may prove by the use of statistical evidence that race was a significant factor in decisions to seek or impose the death penalty in the county, the prosecutorial district, the judicial division, or the State. G.S. 15A-2011(b). Relevant statistics can include that:

(1) Death sentences were sought or imposed significantly more frequently upon persons of one race than upon persons of another race.
(2) Death sentences were sought or imposed significantly more frequently as punishment for capital offenses against persons of one race than as punishment of capital offenses against persons of another race.
(3) Race was a significant factor in decisions to exercise peremptory challenges during jury selection.

G.S. 15A-2011 (b). If the court finds that race was a significant factor in decisions to seek or impose the death penalty in the county, the prosecutorial district, the judicial division, or the State at the time of the defendant's case, then the court must order that the death not be sought in the case, or that the adjudged death penalty be vacated and a sentence of life without parole be imposed. G.S. 15A-2012(a)(3).

In McCleskey v. Kemp, the United States Supreme Court held that a capital defendant, in making a discrimination claim, must prove that the decision makers in the defendant's case acted with discriminatory purpose. In that case, the Court held that the statistical studies indicating that the death penalty in Georgia was more frequently imposed on black defendants and defendants killing white victims, than on white defendants and defendants killing black victims, was insufficient to support an inference that any of decision makers in the defendant's case acted with discriminatory purpose.

In general, a law that impacts offenses committed prior to the enactment of the law is not in violation of the ex post facto clauses of the State or federal constitutions if it does not punish as a crime an act previously committed, which was innocent when done; make more burdensome the punishment for a crime, after its commission; or deprive one charged with crime of any defense available according to law at the time when the act was committed. Collins v. Youngblood, 497 U.S. 37 (1990). Changes in procedures which do not affect substantive rights, even though they may disadvantage a defendant, do not constitute ex post facto applications of the law. In the Matter of Michael Charles Hayes, 111 N.C.App. 384 (1993).

BILL ANALYSIS. The act:

- Deletes all provision in the Racial Justice Act that provided for pretrial or posttrial proceedings, at which a defendant is allowed to introduce statistical evidence relating to the (1) frequency of the imposition of the death penalty depending on the race of the defendant and the victim, and (2) on the race of jurors who were excused by peremptory challenges.
- Amends the statute to include the language used in the McCleskey case, i.e., that the defendant has the burden of proving that the decision makers in the defendant's case acted with discriminatory purpose.
- Nullifies all hearings that may have been ordered under the current law.
- Provides that the act does not change the laws relating to pretrial or posttrial proceedings which were in effect prior to the passage of the Racial Justice Act, and that the act does not authorize any hearings, i.e., defendant has (had) the right to claim that the decision makers acted with a discriminatory purpose in his or her case, either before trial or in postconviction proceedings, prior to the enactment of Article 101 of Chapter 15A.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The act is effective when it becomes law and applies to all capital trials held prior to, on, or after the effective date of the act and to all capital defendants sentenced to the death penalty prior to, on, or after the effective date of this act.

SENATE JUDICIARY I COMMITTEE
Thursday, May 17, 2012 at 10:00 AM
Room 1027, Legislative Building

MINUTES

The Senate Judiciary I Committee met at 10:00 AM on May 17, 2012, in Room 1027 of the Legislative Building. 18 members of the committee were present. Senator Brunstetter, presided.

HB 843-MODERNIZE NC EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT ACT-Senator Apodaca moves that the PCS for the bill be brought before the committee for the purpose of consideration. Representative Martin was recognized to explain the PCS. The bill would make several changes to the NC Emergency Management Act, including correcting the effective date to October 1, 2012 and Chapter 166A. The committee members agreed to review the legislation over the weekend and no action was taken on the bill.

SB 798-VARIOUS EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT CHANGES-Senator Goolsby was recognized to chair the committee. Senator Brunstetter was recognized to explain the bill. The bill was the product of a committee appointed by President Pro-Tem Berger. The bill changes the length of disaster declarations. Clarifies that if a federal aid program is enacted during that declaration, aid would continue to flow pursuant to that federal program after the declaration expires. The committee members agreed to review the legislation over the weekend and no action was taken on the bill.

HB 489-MECHANICS LIEN & BOND LAW CHANGES-Senator Brunstetter recognized to explain the bill. The legislation responds to the decision in Bateman v. Perdue and repeals the unconstitutional ban on firearms during emergencies and disasters in accordance with Bateman v. Perdue. Allows municipalities to enact ordinances regarding the possession of firearms in disaster areas, but prohibits restrictions on firearms and ammunition for self-defense on one's property. The committee members agreed to review the legislation over the weekend and no action was taken on the bill.

The meeting adjourned at 10:28AM.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT AUTHORIZING THE LEGISLATIVE RESEARCH COMMISSION TO STUDY NORTH CAROLINA'S MECHANICS' LIEN AND BOND LAWS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. The Legislative Research Commission may study North Carolina's mechanics' lien and bond laws and may make recommendations on ways to modernize and improve those laws and may propose legislation for consideration by the 2011 General Assembly, 2012 Regular Session, and the 2013 General Assembly. In its study, the Commission may consider all of the following:

(1) Hidden mechanics' liens and requiring the filing and posting of Notices of Commencement and Notices to Owners as a means of preventing them.

(2) Protecting general contractors from incurring double liability under payment bonds on public projects by requiring subcontractors to serve the contractor with notice that they are furnishing labor or materials on a project.

(3) Protecting subcontractors and addressing bankruptcy court rulings that prevent subcontractors from perfecting and enforcing mechanics' liens after a bankruptcy is filed.

(4) Ensuring that extremely small mechanics' liens do not hold up much larger pay applications.

(5) Addressing any concerns produced by the Business Court's decision in Wachovia v. Superior Construction, under which a partial lien waiver could act to waive a contractor's first date of furnishing.

(6) Addressing the current Notice of Contract problem created when a general contractor is hired to perform work on a project either directly or as a replacement contractor more than 30 days after the building permit is issued.

(7) Creating standard statutory forms for partial and final lien waivers.

(8) Providing all contractors who furnish work on a project and comply with applicable statutory requirements the same mechanics' lien priority date.

(9) Providing a savings clause for contractors who fail to timely file and serve their Notice to Owner within 30 days from the first date of furnishing.

(10) Providing a residential carve-out for owner-builder projects involving one- to four-unit residential structures.

(11) Any other issues the Commission considers relevant to this topic.

SECTION 2. The Legislative Research Commission may make an interim report to the 2011 General Assembly, 2012 Regular Session, and shall make its final report to the 2013 General Assembly.

SECTION 3. This act is effective when it becomes law.

HOUSE BILL 489:
Dangerous Weapon Restrictions in Emergencies

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary I	Date:	May 16, 2012
Introduced by:	Reps. Pridgen, Stam, Martin	Prepared by:	Susan Sitze Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	PCS to Second Edition H489-CSSA-71

SUMMARY: The Proposed Committee Substitute for House Bill 489 would authorize the possession, storage, and use of dangerous weapons during a state of emergency for self-defense in a person's home; or for other lawful purposes in a person's home; and would authorize the transportation, possession, sale, or purchase of ammunition for self-defense purposes in a person's home or for other lawful purposes in a person's home.

CURRENT LAW: Under the current G.S. 14-288.7, it is a Class 1 misdemeanor for any person to transport or possess off his own premises any dangerous weapon or substance in any area (i) in which a declared state of emergency exists, or (ii) within the immediate vicinity of a riot. Additionally, G.S. 14-288.12 authorizes a municipality to enact ordinances dealing with states of emergency that include prohibitions and restrictions upon the "possession, transportation, sale, purchase, storage, and use of dangerous weapons and substances..."

On March 29, 2012, in Bateman v. Perdue, the US District Court for the Eastern District of North Carolina declared these statutes unconstitutional as applied to the plaintiffs. The court stopped short of declaring the statutes unconstitutional on their face, but the ruling indicates that future restrictions on dangerous weapons will need to be more narrowly tailored.

BILL ANALYSIS: The PCS for H489 would amend the statutes relating to regulation of dangerous weapons during an emergency.

Section 1 of the PCS would repeal G.S. 14-288.7, therefore removing the "automatic" ban on transporting weapons during an emergency or in the vicinity of a riot.

Section 2 of the PCS would amend the statute authorizing municipalities to adopt ordinances dealing with states of emergency. The amendments in this statute would also apply to ordinances adopted by a county or control exercised by the Governor, as the statutes authorizing those restrictions all refer back to the statute amended by this PCS. The amendments would do the following:

- Clarify that places that sell dangerous weapons are treated the same as other places of business.
- Limit gun restrictions to those situations in which they are necessary to preserve the public peace where there is an imminent risk of damage, injury, or loss of life or property.
- Prohibit restrictions on possession, storage or use of a dangerous weapon for self-defense in a person's home or other lawful purpose in a person's home or on other real property in which they have a lawful possessory or ownership interest.
- Prohibit restrictions on the transportation, possession, sale, purchase or use of ammunition for self-defense purposes in a person's home or on other real property in which a person has a lawful possessory or ownership interest.

Sections 3, 4 and 5 of the PCS are contingent on the passing of H843, which, if enacted, would modify or repeal the statutes amended in Sections 1 and 2 of this PCS and would recodify G.S. 14-288.12 and other relevant statutes. The provisions of these sections of this PCS would make the same changes as in Section 1 and 2 of this PCS to the statutes as they would exist should H843 be enacted.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act is effective when it becomes law.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO MODERNIZE THE NORTH CAROLINA EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT ACT AND RELATED STATUTES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

I. CHANGES TO CHAPTER 166A OF THE GENERAL STATUTES

SECTION 1.(a) G.S. 166A-6.1 is recodified as G.S. 166A-29 and the remainder of Article 1 of Chapter 166A is repealed.

SECTION 1.(b) Chapter 166A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new Article to read:

"Article 1A.
"North Carolina Emergency Management Act.
"Part 1. General Provisions.

"§ 166A-19. Short title.

This Article may be cited as 'North Carolina Emergency Management Act.'

"§ 166A-19.1. Purposes.

The purposes of this Article are to set forth the authority and responsibility of the Governor, State agencies, and local governments in prevention of, preparation for, response to, and recovery from natural or man-made emergencies or hostile military or paramilitary action and to do the following:

(1) Reduce vulnerability of people and property of this State to damage, injury, and loss of life and property;

(2) Prepare for prompt and efficient rescue, care, and treatment of threatened or affected persons;

(3) Provide for the rapid and orderly rehabilitation of persons and restoration of property; and

(4) Provide for cooperation and coordination of activities relating to emergency mitigation, preparedness, response, and recovery among agencies and officials of this State and with similar agencies and officials of other states, with local and federal governments, with interstate organizations, and with other private and quasi-official organizations.

"§ 166A-19.2. Limitations.

Nothing in this Article shall be construed to do any of the following:

(1) Interfere with dissemination of news or comment on public affairs; but any communications facility or organization, including, but not limited to, radio and television stations, wire services, and newspapers may be requested to transmit or print public service messages furnishing information or instructions in connection with an emergency, disaster, or war.

(2) Limit, modify, or abridge the authority of the Governor to declare martial law or exercise any other powers vested in the Governor under the North Carolina Constitution, statutes, or common law of this State independent of, or in conjunction with, any provisions of this Article.

"§ 166A-19.3. Definitions.

The following definitions apply in this Article:

(1) Account. – The State Emergency Response Account established in G.S. 166A-19.42.

(2) Chairman of the board of county commissioners. – The chairman of the board of county commissioners or, in case of the chairman's absence or disability, the person authorized to act in the chairman's stead. Unless the governing body of the county has specified who is to act in lieu of the chairman with respect to a particular power or duty set out in this Article, this term shall mean the person generally authorized to act in lieu of the chairman.

(3) Disaster declaration. – A gubernatorial declaration that the impact or anticipated impact of an emergency constitutes a disaster of one of the types enumerated in G.S. 166A-19.21(b).

(4) Division. – The Division of Emergency Management established in Subpart A of Part 5 of Article 13 of Chapter 143B of the General Statutes.

(5) Eligible entity. – Any political subdivision. The term also includes an owner or operator of a private nonprofit utility that meets the eligibility criteria set out in this Article.

(7) Emergency area. – The geographical area covered by a state of emergency.

(8) Emergency management. – Those measures taken by the populace and governments at federal, State, and local levels to minimize the adverse effect of any type emergency, which includes the never-ending preparedness cycle of planning, prevention, mitigation, warning, movement, shelter, emergency assistance, and recovery.

(9) Emergency management agency. – A State or local governmental agency charged with coordination of all emergency management activities for its jurisdiction.

(10) Hazard risk management. – The systematic application of policies, practices, and resources to the identification, assessment, and control of risk associated with hazards affecting human health and safety and property. Hazard, risk, and cost-benefit analysis are used to support development of risk reduction options, program objectives, and prioritization of issues and resources.

(11) Mayor. – The mayor or other chief executive official of a municipality or, in case of that person's absence or disability, the person authorized to act in that person's stead. Unless the governing body of the municipality has specified who is to act in lieu of the mayor with respect to a particular power or duty set out in this Article, the term shall mean the person generally authorized to act in lieu of the mayor.

(12) Political subdivision. – Counties and incorporated cities, towns, and villages.

(13) Preliminary damage assessment. – The initial estimate prepared by State, local, or federal emergency management workers used to determine the severity and magnitude of damage caused by an emergency.

(14) Private nonprofit utility. – A utility that would be eligible for federal public assistance disaster funds pursuant to 44 C.F.R. Part 206.

(15) Secretary. – The Secretary of the Department of Public Safety.

(16) Stafford Act. – The Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act, Pub. L. No. 93-288, 88 Stat. 143, codified generally at 42 U.S.C. § 5121, et seq., as amended.

(17) State Acquisition and Relocation Fund. – State funding for supplemental grants to homeowners participating in a federal Hazard Mitigation Grant Program Acquisition and Relocation Program. These grants are used to acquire safe, decent, and sanitary housing by paying the difference between the cost of the home acquired under the federal Hazard Mitigation Grant Program Acquisition and Relocation Program and the cost of a comparable home located outside the 100-year floodplain.

(18) State of emergency. – A finding and declaration by any of the following authorities that an emergency exists:

a. The Governor, acting under the authority of G.S. 166A-19.20.

b. The General Assembly, acting under the authority of G.S. 166A-19.20.

c. The governing body of a municipality or the mayor of a municipality, acting under the authority of G.S. 166A-19.22.

d. The governing body of a county or the chairman of the board of commissioners of a county, acting under the authority of G.S. 166A-19.22.

"Part 2. State Emergency Management.

"§ 166A-19.10. Powers of the Governor.

(a) State Emergency Management Program. – The State Emergency Management Program includes all aspects of preparations for, response to, recovery from, and mitigation against war or peacetime emergencies.

(b) Powers of the Governor. – The Governor is authorized and empowered to do the following:

(1) To exercise general direction and control of the State Emergency Management Program and to be responsible for carrying out the provisions of this Article, other than those provisions that confer powers and duties exclusively on local governments.

(2) To make, amend, or rescind the necessary orders, rules, and regulations within the limits of the authority conferred upon the Governor herein, with due consideration of the policies of the federal government.

(3) To delegate any authority vested in the Governor under this Article and to provide for the subdelegation of any such authority.

(4) To cooperate and coordinate with the President and the heads of the departments and agencies of the federal government, and with other appropriate federal officers and agencies, and with the officers and agencies of other states and local units of government in matters pertaining to the emergency management of the State and nation.

(5) To enter into agreements with the American National Red Cross, Salvation Army, Mennonite Disaster Service, and other disaster relief organizations.

(6) To make, amend, or rescind mutual aid agreements in accordance with G.S. 166A-19.72.

(7) To utilize the services, equipment, supplies, and facilities of existing departments, offices, and agencies of the State and of the political subdivisions thereof. The officers and personnel of all such departments, offices, and agencies are required to cooperate with and extend such services and facilities to the Governor upon request. This authority shall extend to a state of emergency declared pursuant to G.S. 166A-19.20, to the imminent threat of an emergency that will likely require an emergency to be declared pursuant to G.S. 166A-19.20, or to emergency management planning and training purposes.

(8) To agree, when required to obtain federal assistance in debris removal, that the State will indemnify the federal government against any claim arising from the removal of the debris.

(9) To sell, lend, lease, give, transfer, or deliver materials or perform services for emergency purposes on such terms and conditions as may be prescribed by any existing law, and to account to the State Treasurer for any funds received for such property.

(10) In an emergency, or when requested by the governing body of a political subdivision in the State, to assume operational control over all or any part of the emergency management functions within this State.

"§ 166A-19.11. Powers of the Secretary of Public Safety.

The Secretary shall be responsible to the Governor for State emergency management activities. The Secretary shall have the following powers and duties as delegated by the Governor:

(1) To activate the State and local plans applicable to the areas in question and to authorize and direct the deployment and use of any personnel and forces to which the plan or plans apply, and the use or distribution of any supplies, equipment, materials, and facilities available pursuant to this Article or any other provision of law.

(2) To adopt the rules to implement those provisions of this Article that deal with matters other than those that are exclusively local.

(3) To develop a system to produce a preliminary damage assessment from which the Secretary will recommend the appropriate level of disaster declaration to the Governor. The system shall, at a minimum, consider whether the damage involved and its effects are of such a severity and magnitude as to be beyond the response capabilities of the local government or political subdivision.

(4) Additional authority, duties, and responsibilities as may be prescribed by the Governor. The Secretary may subdelegate his authority to the appropriate member of the Secretary's department.

"§ 166A-19.12. Powers of the Division of Emergency Management.

The Division of Emergency Management shall have the following powers and duties as delegated by the Governor and Secretary of Public Safety:

(1) Coordination of the activities of all State agencies for emergency management within the State, including planning, organizing, staffing, equipping, training, testing, and activating emergency management programs.

(2) Preparation and maintenance of State plans for emergencies. The State plans or any parts thereof may be incorporated into department regulations and into executive orders of the Governor.

(3) Coordination with the State Health Director to amend or revise the North Carolina Emergency Operations Plan regarding public health matters. At a minimum, the revisions to the Plan shall provide for the following:

a. The epidemiologic investigation of a known or suspected threat caused by nuclear, biological, or chemical agents.

b. The examination and testing of persons and animals that may have been exposed to a nuclear, biological, or chemical agent.

c. The procurement and allocation of immunizing agents and prophylactic antibiotics.

d. The allocation of the Strategic National Stockpile.

e. The appropriate conditions for quarantine and isolation in order to prevent further transmission of disease.

f. Immunization procedures.

g. The issuance of guidelines for prophylaxis and treatment of exposed and affected persons.

(4) Establishment of a voluntary model registry for use by political subdivisions in identifying functionally and medically fragile persons in need of assistance during an emergency. All records, data, information, correspondence, and communications relating to the registration of persons with special needs or of functionally and medically fragile persons obtained pursuant to this subdivision are confidential and are not a public record pursuant to G.S. 132-1 or any other applicable statute, except that this information shall be available to emergency response agencies, as determined by the local emergency management director. This information shall be used only for the purposes set forth in this subdivision.

(5) Promulgation of standards and requirements for local plans and programs consistent with federal and State laws and regulations, determination of eligibility for State financial assistance provided for in G.S. 166A-19.15 and provision of technical assistance to local governments. Standards and requirements for local plans and programs promulgated under this subdivision shall be reviewed by the Division at least biennially and updated as necessary.

(6) Development and presentation of training programs, including the Emergency Management Certification Program established under Article 5 of this Chapter, and public information programs to insure the furnishing of adequately trained personnel and an informed public in time of need.

(7) Making of such studies and surveys of the resources in this State as may be necessary to ascertain the capabilities of the State for emergency management, maintaining data on these resources, and planning for the most efficient use thereof.

(8) Coordination of the use of any private facilities, services, and property.

(9) Preparation for issuance by the Governor of executive orders, declarations, and regulations as necessary or appropriate.

(10) Cooperation and maintenance of liaison with the other states, the federal government, and any public or private agency or entity in achieving any purpose of this Article and in implementing programs for emergency or war prevention, preparation, response, and recovery.

(11) Making recommendations, as appropriate, for zoning, building, and other land-use controls, and safety measures for securing mobile homes or other nonpermanent or semipermanent works designed to protect against or mitigate the effects of an emergency.

(12) Coordination of the use of existing means of communications and supplementing communications resources and integrating them into a comprehensive State or State-federal telecommunications or other communications system or network.

(13) Administration of federal and State grant funds provided for emergency management purposes, including those funds provided for planning and preparedness activities by emergency management agencies.

(14) Serving as the lead State agency for the coordination of information and resources for hazard risk management, which shall include the following responsibilities:

a. Coordinating with other State agencies and county governments in conducting hazard risk analysis. To the extent another State agency has primary responsibility for the adoption of hazard mitigation standards, those standards shall be applied in conducting a hazard risk analysis.

b. Establishing and maintaining a hazard risk management information system and tools to display natural hazards and vulnerabilities and conducting risk assessment.

c. Acquiring and leveraging all natural hazard data generated or maintained by State agencies and county governments.

d. Acquiring and leveraging all vulnerability data generated or maintained by State agencies and county governments.

e. Maintaining a clearinghouse for methodologies and metrics for calculating and communicating hazard probability and loss estimation.

(15) Utilizing and maintaining technology that enables efficient and effective communication and management of resources between political subdivisions, State agencies, and other governmental entities involved in emergency management activities.

(16) Establishing and operating a 24 hour Operations Center to serve as a single point of contact for local governments to report the occurrence of emergency and disaster events, and to coordinate local and state response assets.

(17) Developing, maintaining, and implementing plans for response to any emergency occurring at a fixed nuclear power generating facility located in or near the borders of the State of North Carolina.

(18) Maintaining the State Emergency Operations Center as the facility to house the State Emergency Response Team whenever it is activated for disaster response.

(19) Serving as the agency responsible for the management of intrastate and interstate mutual aid planning, implementation, and resource procurement necessary for supporting emergency response and recovery.

"Part 3. Local Emergency Management.

"§ 166A-19.15. County and municipal emergency management.

(a) Governing Body of Counties Responsible for Emergency Management. – The governing body of each county is responsible for emergency management within the geographical limits of such county. All emergency management efforts within the county will be coordinated by the county, including activities of the municipalities within the county.

(b) Counties May Establish and Maintain Emergency Management Agencies. – The governing body of each county is hereby authorized to establish and maintain an emergency management agency for the purposes contained in G.S. 166A-19.1. The governing body of each county which establishes an emergency management agency pursuant to this authorization shall appoint a coordinator who will have a direct responsibility for the organization, administration, and operation of the county program and will be subject to the direction and guidance of such governing body. In the event that any county fails to establish an emergency management agency, and the Governor, in the Governor's discretion, determines that a need exists for such an emergency management agency, then the Governor is hereby empowered to establish an emergency management agency within that county.

(c) Municipalities May Establish and Maintain Emergency Management Agencies. – All incorporated municipalities are authorized to establish and maintain emergency management agencies subject to coordination by the county.

(d) Joint Agencies Authorized. – Counties and incorporated municipalities are authorized to form joint emergency management agencies composed of a county and one or more municipalities within the county's borders, between two or more counties, or between two or more counties and one or more municipalities within the borders of those counties.

(e) Local Appropriations Authorized. – Each county and incorporated municipality in this State is authorized to make appropriations for the purposes of this Article and to fund them by levy of property taxes pursuant to G.S. 153A-149 and G.S. 160A-209 and by the allocation of other revenues, whose use is not otherwise restricted by law.

(f) Additional Powers. – In carrying out the provisions of this Article each political subdivision is authorized to do the following:

(1) To appropriate and expend funds, make contracts, obtain and distribute equipment, materials, and supplies for emergency management purposes and to provide for the health and safety of persons and property, including emergency assistance, consistent with this Article.

(2) To direct and coordinate the development of emergency management plans and programs in accordance with the policies and standards set by the Division, consistent with federal and State laws and regulations.

(3) To assign and make available all available resources for emergency management purposes for service within or outside of the physical limits of the subdivision.

(4) To delegate powers in a local state of emergency declared pursuant to G.S. 166A-19.22.

(5) To coordinate the voluntary registration of functionally and medically fragile persons in need of assistance during an emergency either through a registry established by this subdivision or by the State. All records, data, information, correspondence, and communications relating to the registration of persons with special needs or of functionally and medically fragile persons obtained pursuant to this subdivision are confidential and are not a public record pursuant to G.S. 132-1 or any other applicable statute, except that this information shall be available to emergency response agencies, as determined by the local emergency management director. This information shall be used only for the purposes set forth in this subdivision.

(g) County Eligibility for State and Federal Financial Assistance. – Each county which establishes an emergency management agency pursuant to State standards and which meets requirements for local plans and programs may be eligible to receive State and federal financial assistance, including State and federal funding appropriated for emergency management planning and preparedness, and for the maintenance and operation of a county emergency management program. Such financial assistance is subject to an appropriation being made for this purpose. Where the appropriation does not allocate appropriated funds among counties, the amount allocated to each county shall be determined annually by the Division. The size of this allocation shall be based in part on the degree to which local plans and programs meet State standards and requirements promulgated by the Division, including those relating to professional competencies of local emergency management personnel. However, in making an allocation determination, the Division shall, where appropriate, take into account the fact that a particular county may lack sufficient resources to meet the standards and requirements promulgated by the Division.

"Part 4. Declarations of State of Emergency.

"§ 166A-19.20. Gubernatorial or legislative declaration of state of emergency.

(a) Declaration. – A state of emergency may be declared by the Governor, or by a resolution of the General Assembly, if either of these finds that an emergency exists.

(b) Emergency Area. – An executive order or resolution declaring a state of emergency shall include a definition of the area constituting the emergency area.

(c) Expiration of States of Emergency. – A state of emergency declared pursuant to this section shall expire when it is rescinded by the authority that issued it.

(d) Exercise of Powers Not Contingent on Declaration of Disaster Type. – Once a state of emergency has been declared pursuant to this section, the fact that a declaration of disaster type has not been issued shall not preclude the exercise of powers otherwise conferred during a state of emergency.

"§ 166A-19.21. Gubernatorial disaster declaration.

(a) Preliminary Damage Assessment. – When a state of emergency is declared pursuant to G.S. 166A-19.20, the Secretary shall provide the Governor and the General Assembly with a preliminary damage assessment as soon as the assessment is available.

(b) Declaration of Disaster. – Upon receipt of a preliminary damage assessment, the Governor is authorized to issue a disaster declaration declaring the impact or anticipated impact of the emergency to constitute a disaster of one of the following types:

(1) Type I Disaster. – A Type I disaster may be declared by the Governor prior to, and independently of, any action taken by the Small Business Administration, the Federal Emergency Management Agency, or any other federal agency, if all of the following criteria are met:

a. A local state of emergency has been declared pursuant to G.S. 166A-19.22 and a written copy of the declaration has been forwarded to the Governor.

b. The preliminary damage assessment meets or exceeds the criteria established for the Small Business Administration Disaster Loan Program pursuant to 13 C.F.R. Part 123 or meets or exceeds the State infrastructure criteria set out in G.S. 166A-19.41(b)(2)a.

c. A major disaster declaration by the President of the United States pursuant to the Stafford Act has not been declared.

(2) Type II Disaster. – A Type II disaster may be declared if the President of the United States has issued a major disaster declaration pursuant to the Stafford Act. The Governor may request federal disaster assistance under the Stafford Act without making a Type II disaster declaration.

(3) Type III Disaster. – A Type III disaster may be declared if the President of the United States has issued a major disaster declaration under the Stafford Act and either of the following is true:

a. The preliminary damage assessment indicates that the extent of damage is reasonably expected to meet the threshold established for an increased federal share of disaster assistance under applicable federal law and regulations.

b. The preliminary damage assessment prompts the Governor to call a special session of the General Assembly to establish programs to meet the unmet needs of individuals, businesses, or political subdivisions affected by the emergency.

(c) Expiration of Disaster Declarations. –

(1) Expiration of Type I Disaster Declarations. – A Type I disaster declaration shall expire 30 days after its issuance unless renewed by the Governor or the General Assembly. Such renewals may be made in increments of 30 days each, not to exceed a total of 120 days from the date of first issuance. The Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations shall be notified prior to the issuance of any renewal of a Type I disaster declaration.

(2) Expiration of Type II Disaster Declarations. – A Type II disaster declaration shall expire six months after its issuance unless renewed by the Governor or the General Assembly. Such renewals may be made in increments of three months each, not to exceed a total of 12 months from the date of first issuance. The Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations shall be notified prior to the issuance of any renewal of a Type II disaster declaration.

(3) Expiration of Type III Disaster Declarations. – A Type III disaster declaration shall expire 12 months after its issuance unless renewed by the General Assembly.

(4) Expiration of Disaster Declarations Declared Prior to July 1, 2001. – Any state of disaster declared or proclaimed before July 1, 2001, irrespective of type, shall terminate by a declaration of the Governor or resolution of the General Assembly. A declaration or resolution declaring or terminating a state of disaster shall be disseminated promptly by means calculated to bring its contents to the attention of the general public and, unless the circumstances attendant upon the disaster prevent or impede, promptly filed with the Secretary, the Secretary of State, and the clerks of superior court in the area to which it applies.

"§ 166A-19.22. Municipal or county declaration of state of emergency.

(a) Declaration. – A state of emergency may be declared by the governing body of a municipality or county if either of these finds that an emergency exists. Authority to declare a state of emergency under this section may also be delegated by ordinance to the mayor of a municipality or to the chairman of the board of county commissioners of a county.

(b) Emergency Area. – The emergency area shall be determined in accordance with the following:

(1) Unless another subdivision of this subsection is applicable, the emergency area shall not exceed the area over which the municipality or county has jurisdiction to enact general police-power ordinances. The governing body declaring the state of emergency may declare that the emergency area includes part or all of the governing body's jurisdiction. Unless the governing body declaring the state of emergency provides otherwise, the emergency area includes this entire jurisdiction, subject to the limitations contained in the other subdivisions in this subsection.

(2) The emergency area of a state of emergency declared by a county shall not include any area within the corporate limits of any municipality, or within any area of the county over which a municipality has jurisdiction to enact general police-power ordinances, unless the municipality's governing body or mayor consents to or requests the state of emergency's application. Such an extension may be with respect to one or more of the prohibitions and restrictions imposed in that county pursuant to the authority granted in G.S. 166A-19.31 and need not be with respect to all prohibitions and restrictions authorized by that section.

(3) The board of commissioners or chairman of the board of commissioners of any county who has been requested to do so by a mayor may by declaration extend the emergency area of a state of emergency declared by a municipality to any area within the county in which the board or chairman determines it to be necessary to assist in the controlling of the emergency within the municipality. The extension may be with respect to one or more of the prohibitions and restrictions imposed in that mayor's municipality pursuant to the authority granted in G.S. 166A-19.31 and need not be with respect to all prohibitions and restrictions authorized by that section. Extension of the emergency area pursuant to this subdivision shall be subject to the following additional limitations:

a. The extension of the emergency area shall not include any area within the corporate limits of a municipality, or within any area of the county over which a municipality has jurisdiction to enact general police-power ordinances, unless the mayor or governing body of that other municipality consents to its application.

b. A chairman of a board of county commissioners extending the emergency area under the authority of this subdivision shall take reasonable steps to give notice of its terms to those likely to be affected.

c. The chairman of the board of commissioners shall declare the termination of any prohibitions and restrictions extended pursuant to this subdivision upon the earlier of:

1. The chairman's determination that they are no longer necessary.
2. The determination of the board of county commissioners that they are no longer necessary.
3. The termination of the prohibitions and restrictions within the municipality.

d. The powers authorized under this subdivision may be exercised whether or not the county has enacted ordinances under the authority of G.S. 166A-19.31. Exercise of this authority shall not preclude the imposition of prohibitions and restrictions under any ordinances enacted by the county under the authority of G.S. 166A-19.31.

(c) Expiration of States of Emergency. – Unless an ordinance adopted pursuant to G.S. 166A-19.31 provides otherwise, a state of emergency declared pursuant to this section shall expire when it is terminated by the official or governing body that declared it.

(d) Effect of Declaration. – The declaration of a state of emergency pursuant to this section shall activate the local ordinances authorized in G.S. 166A-19.31 and any and all applicable local plans, mutual assistance compacts and agreements and shall also authorize the furnishing of assistance thereunder.

"§ 166A-19.23. Excessive pricing prohibitions.

A declaration issued pursuant to this Article shall trigger the prohibitions against excessive pricing during states of disaster, states of emergency, or abnormal market disruptions pursuant to G.S. 75-37 and 75-38.

"Part 5. Additional Powers During States of Emergency.

"§ 166A-19.30. Additional powers of the Governor during state of emergency.

(a) In addition to any other powers conferred upon the Governor by law, during a gubernatorially or legislatively declared state of emergency, the Governor shall have the following powers:

(1) To utilize all available State resources as reasonably necessary to cope with an emergency, including the transfer and direction of personnel or functions of State agencies or units thereof for the purpose of performing or facilitating emergency services.

(2) To take such action and give such directions to State and local law enforcement officers and agencies as may be reasonable and necessary for the purpose of securing compliance with the provisions of this Article and with the orders, rules, and regulations made pursuant thereto.

(3) To take steps to assure that measures, including the installation of public utilities, are taken when necessary to qualify for temporary housing assistance from the federal government when that assistance is required to protect the public health, welfare, and safety.

(4) Subject to the provisions of the State Constitution to relieve any public official having administrative responsibilities under this Article of such responsibilities for willful failure to obey an order, rule, or regulation adopted pursuant to this Article.

(b) During a gubernatorially or legislatively declared state of emergency, with the concurrence of the Council of State, the Governor has the following powers:

(1) To direct and compel the evacuation of all or part of the population from any stricken or threatened area within the State, to prescribe routes, modes of transportation, and destinations in connection with evacuation; and to control ingress and egress of an emergency area, the movement of persons within the area, and the occupancy of premises therein.

(2) To establish a system of economic controls over all resources, materials, and services to include food, clothing, shelter, fuel, rents, and wages, including the administration and enforcement of any rationing, price freezing, or similar federal order or regulation.

(3) To regulate and control the flow of vehicular and pedestrian traffic, the congregation of persons in public places or buildings, lights and noises of all kinds, and the maintenance, extension, and operation of public utility and transportation services and facilities.

(4) To waive a provision of any regulation or ordinance of a State agency or a political subdivision which restricts the immediate relief of human suffering.

(5) To perform and exercise such other functions, powers, and duties as are necessary to promote and secure the safety and protection of the civilian population.

(6) To appoint or remove an executive head of any State agency or institution the executive head of which is regularly selected by a State board or commission.

a. Such an acting executive head will serve during the following:

1. The physical or mental incapacity of the regular office holder, as determined by the Governor after such inquiry as the Governor deems appropriate.

2. The continued absence of the regular holder of the office.

3. A vacancy in the office pending selection of a new executive head.

b. An acting executive head of a State agency or institution appointed in accordance with this subdivision may perform any act and exercise any power which a regularly selected holder of such office could lawfully perform and exercise.

c. All powers granted to an acting executive head of a State agency or institution under this section shall expire immediately:

1. Upon the termination of the incapacity as determined by the Governor of the officer in whose stead the Governor acts;

2. Upon the return of the officer in whose stead the Governor acts; or

3. Upon the selection and qualification of a person to serve for the unexpired term, or the selection of an acting executive head of the agency or institution by the board or commission authorized to make such selection, and the person's qualification.

(7) To procure, by purchase, condemnation, seizure, or by other means to construct, lease, transport, store, maintain, renovate, or distribute materials and facilities for emergency management without regard to the limitation of any existing law.

(c) In addition to any other powers conferred upon the Governor by law, during a gubernatorially or legislatively declared state of emergency, if the Governor determines that local control of the emergency is insufficient to assure adequate protection for lives and property because (i) needed control cannot be imposed locally because local authorities responsible for preservation of the public peace have not enacted appropriate ordinances or issued appropriate declarations as authorized by G.S. 166A-19.31; (ii) local authorities have not taken implementing steps under such ordinances or declarations, if enacted or declared, for effectual control of the emergency that has arisen; (iii) the area in which the emergency exists has spread across local jurisdictional boundaries and the legal control measures of the jurisdictions are conflicting or uncoordinated to the extent that efforts to protect life and property are, or unquestionably will be, severely hampered; or (iv) the scale of the emergency is so great that it exceeds the capability of local authorities to cope with it, the Governor has the following powers:

(1) To impose by declaration prohibitions and restrictions in the emergency area. These prohibitions and restrictions may, in the Governor's discretion, as appropriate to deal with the emergency, impose any of the types of prohibitions and restrictions enumerated in G.S. 166A-19.31(b), and may amend or rescind any prohibitions and restrictions imposed by local authorities. Prohibitions and restrictions imposed pursuant to this subdivision shall take effect in accordance with the provisions of G.S. 166A-19.31(d) and shall expire upon the earliest occurrence of either of the following: (i) the prohibition or restriction is terminated by the Governor or (ii) the state of emergency is terminated.

(2) Give to all participating State and local agencies and officers such directions as may be necessary to assure coordination among them. These directions may include the designation of the officer or agency responsible for directing and controlling the participation of all public agencies and officers in the emergency. The Governor may make this designation in any manner which, in the Governor's discretion, seems most likely to be effective. Any law enforcement officer participating in the control of a state of emergency in which the Governor is exercising control under this section shall have the same power and authority as a sheriff throughout the territory to which the law enforcement officer is assigned.

(d) Violation. – Any person who violates any provision of a declaration or executive order issued pursuant to this section shall be guilty of a Class 2 misdemeanor in accordance with G.S. 14-288.20A.

"§ 166A-19.31. Power of municipalities and counties to enact ordinances to deal with states of emergency.

(a) Authority to Enact Prohibitions and Restrictions. – The governing body of any municipality or county may enact ordinances designed to permit the imposition of prohibitions and restrictions within the emergency area during a state of emergency declared pursuant to G.S. 166A-19.22. Authority to impose by declaration prohibitions and restrictions under this section, and to impose those prohibitions and restrictions at a particular time as appropriate, may be delegated by ordinance to the mayor of a municipality or to the chairman of the board of county commissioners of a county.

(b) Type of Prohibitions and Restrictions Authorized. – The ordinances authorized by this section may permit prohibitions and restrictions:

(1) Of movements of people in public places, including imposing a curfew; directing and compelling the voluntary or mandatory evacuation of all or part of the population from any stricken or threatened area within the governing body's jurisdiction; prescribing routes, modes of transportation, and destinations in connection with evacuation; and controlling ingress and egress of an emergency area, and the movement of persons within the area.

(2) Of the operation of offices, business establishments, and other places to or from which people may travel or at which they may congregate.

(3) Upon the possession, transportation, sale, purchase, and consumption of alcoholic beverages.

(4) Upon the possession, transportation, sale, purchase, storage, and use of dangerous weapons and substances, and gasoline. As used in this subdivision, the term 'dangerous weapon and substance' has the same meaning as it does under G.S. 14-288.1.

(5) Upon other activities or conditions the control of which may be reasonably necessary to maintain order and protect lives or property during the state of emergency.

The ordinances authorized by this section need not require or provide for the imposition of all of the types of prohibitions or restrictions, or any particular prohibition or restriction, authorized by this section during an emergency but may instead authorize the official or officials who impose those prohibitions or restrictions to determine and impose the prohibitions or restrictions deemed necessary or suitable to a particular state of emergency.

(c) When Ordinances Take Effect. – Notwithstanding any other provision of law, whether general or special, relating to the promulgation or publication of ordinances by any municipality or county, upon the declaration of a state of emergency by the mayor or chairman of the board of county commissioners within the municipality or the county, any ordinance enacted under the authority of this section shall take effect immediately unless the ordinance sets a later time. If the effect of this section is to cause an ordinance to go into effect sooner than it otherwise could under the law applicable to the municipality or county, the mayor or chairman of the board of county commissioners, as the case may be, shall take steps to cause reports of the substance of the ordinance to be disseminated in a fashion that its substance will likely be communicated to the public in general, or to those who may be particularly affected by the ordinance if it does not affect the public generally. As soon as practicable thereafter, appropriate distribution or publication of the full text of any such ordinance shall be made.

(d) When Prohibitions and Restrictions Take Effect. – All prohibitions and restrictions imposed by declaration pursuant to ordinances adopted under this section shall take effect in the emergency area immediately upon publication of the declaration unless the declaration sets a later time. For the purpose of requiring compliance, publication may consist of reports of the substance of the prohibitions and restrictions in the mass communications media serving the emergency area or other effective methods of disseminating the necessary information quickly. As soon as practicable, however, appropriate distribution of the full text of any declaration shall be made. This subsection shall not be governed by the provisions of G.S. 1-597.

(e) Expiration of Prohibitions and Restrictions. – Prohibitions and restrictions imposed pursuant to this section shall expire upon the earliest occurrence of any of the following:

(1) The prohibition or restriction is terminated by the official or entity that imposed the prohibition or restriction.

(2) The state of emergency terminates.

(f) Intent to Supplement Other Authority. – This section is intended to supplement and confirm the powers conferred by G.S. 153A-121(a), G.S. 160A-174(a), and all other general and local laws authorizing municipalities and counties to enact ordinances for the protection of the public health and safety in times of riot or other grave civil disturbance or emergency.

(g) Previously Enacted Ordinances Remain in Effect. – Any ordinance of a type authorized by this section promulgated prior to October 1, 2012, if otherwise valid, continue in full force and effect without reenactment.

(h) Violation. – Any person who violates any provision of an ordinance or a declaration enacted or declared pursuant to this section shall be guilty of a Class 2 misdemeanor in accordance with G.S. 14-288.20A.

"Part 6. Funding of Emergency Preparedness and Response.

"§ 166A-19.40. Use of contingency and emergency funds.

(a) Use of Funds for Relief and Assistance. –The Governor may use contingency and emergency funds as necessary and appropriate to provide relief and assistance from the effects of an emergency and may reallocate such other funds as may reasonably be available within the appropriations of the various departments when the severity and magnitude of the emergency so requires and the contingency and emergency funds are insufficient or inappropriate.

(b) Use of Funds for National Guard Training. – In preparation for a state of emergency, with the concurrence of the Council of State, the Governor may use contingency and emergency funds as necessary and appropriate for National Guard training in preparation for emergencies.

"§ 166A-19.41. State emergency assistance funds.

(a) Governor May Make Funds Available for Emergency Assistance. – In the event of a gubernatorially or legislatively declared state of emergency, the Governor may make State funds available for emergency assistance as authorized by this section. Any State funds made available by the Governor for emergency assistance may be administered through State emergency assistance programs which may be established by the Governor upon the declaration of a state of emergency. It is the intent of the General Assembly in authorizing the Governor to make State funds available for emergency assistance and in authorizing the Governor to establish State emergency assistance programs to provide State assistance for recovery from those emergencies for which federal assistance under the Stafford Act is either not available or does not adequately meet the needs of the citizens of the State in the emergency area.

(b) Emergency Assistance in a Type I Disaster. – In the event that a Type I disaster is declared, the Governor may make State funds available for emergency assistance in the emergency area in the form of individual assistance and public assistance as provided in this subsection.

(1) Individual assistance. – State emergency assistance in the form of grants to individuals and families may be made available when damage meets or exceeds the criteria set out in 13 C.F.R. Part 123 for the Small Business Administration Disaster Loan Program. Individual assistance grants shall include benefits comparable to those provided by the Stafford Act and may be provided for the following:

a. Provision of temporary housing and rental assistance.

b. Repair or replacement of dwellings. Grants for repair or replacement of housing may include amounts necessary to locate the individual or family in safe, decent, and sanitary housing.

c. Replacement of personal property (including clothing, tools, and equipment).

d. Repair or replacement of privately owned vehicles.

e. Medical or dental expenses.

f. Funeral or burial expenses resulting from the emergency.

g. Funding for the cost of the first year's flood insurance premium to meet the requirements of the National Flood Insurance Act of 1968, as amended, 42 U.S.C. § 4001, et seq.

(2) Public assistance. – State emergency assistance in the form of public assistance grants may be made available to eligible entities located within the emergency area on the following terms and conditions:

a. Eligible entities shall meet the following qualifications:

1. The eligible entity suffers a minimum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) in uninsurable losses;

2. The eligible entity suffers uninsurable losses in an amount equal to or exceeding one percent (1%) of the annual operating budget;

3. For a state of emergency declared pursuant to G.S. 166A-19.20(a) after the deadline established by the Federal Emergency Management Agency pursuant to the Disaster Mitigation Act of 2002, P.L. 106-390, the eligible entity shall have a hazard mitigation plan approved pursuant to the Stafford Act; and

4. For a state of emergency declared pursuant to G.S. 166A-19.20(a), after August 1, 2002, the eligible entity shall be participating in the National Flood Insurance Program in order to receive public assistance for flooding damage.

b. Eligible entities shall be required to provide non-State matching funds equal to twenty-five percent (25%) of the eligible costs of the public assistance grant.

c. An eligible entity that receives a public assistance grant pursuant to this subsection may use the grant for the following purposes only:

1. Debris clearance.
2. Emergency protective measures.
3. Roads and bridges.
4. Crisis counseling.
5. Assistance with public transportation needs.

(c) Emergency Assistance in a Type II Disaster. – If a Type II disaster is declared, the Governor may make State funds available for emergency assistance in the emergency area in the form of the following types of grants:

(1) State Acquisition and Relocation Funds.

(2) Supplemental repair and replacement housing grants available to individuals or families in an amount necessary to locate the individual or family in safe, decent, and sanitary housing not to exceed twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) per family.

(d) Emergency Assistance in a Type III Disaster. – If a Type III disaster is declared, the Governor may make State funds available for emergency assistance in the emergency area in the form of the following types of grants:

(1) State Acquisition and Relocation Funds.

(2) Supplemental repair and replacement housing grants available to individuals or families in an amount necessary to locate the individual or family in safe, decent, and sanitary housing not to exceed twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) per family.

(3) Any programs authorized by the General Assembly.

"§ 166A-19.42. State Emergency Response Account.

(a) Account Established. – There is established a State Emergency Response Account as a reserve in the General Fund. Any funds appropriated to the Account shall remain available for expenditure as provided by this section, unless directed otherwise by the General Assembly.

(b) Use of Funds. – The Governor may spend funds from the Account for the following purposes:

(1) To cover the start-up costs of State Emergency Response Team operations for an emergency that poses an imminent threat of a Type I, Type II, or Type III disaster.

(2) To cover the cost of first responders to a Type I, Type II, or Type III disaster and any related supplies and equipment needed by first responders that are not provided for under subdivision (1) of this subsection.

All other types of emergency assistance authorized by this Part shall continue to be financed by the funds made available under G.S. 166A-19.41.

(c) Reporting Requirement. – The Governor shall report to the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations and to the Chairs of the Appropriations Committees of the Senate and House of Representatives on any expenditures from the State Emergency Response Account no later than 30 days after making the expenditure. The report shall include a description of the emergency and type of action taken.

"Part 7. Immunity and Liability.

"§ 166A-19.60. Immunity and exemption.

(a) Generally. – All functions hereunder and all other activities relating to emergency management as provided for in this Chapter or elsewhere in the General Statutes are hereby declared to be governmental functions. Neither the State nor any political subdivision thereof, nor, except in cases of willful misconduct, gross negligence, or bad faith, any emergency management worker, firm, partnership, association, or corporation complying with or reasonably attempting to comply with this Article or any order, rule, or regulation promulgated pursuant to the provisions of this Article or pursuant to any ordinance relating to any emergency management measures enacted by any political subdivision of the State, shall be liable for the death of or injury to persons, or for damage to property as a result of any such activity.

(b) Immunity. – The immunity provided to firms, partnerships, associations, or corporations, under subsection (a) of this section, is subject to all of the following conditions:

(1) The immunity applies only when the firm, partnership, association, or corporation is acting without compensation or with compensation limited to no more than actual expenses and one of the following applies:

a. Emergency management services are provided at any place in this State during a state of emergency declared by the Governor or General Assembly pursuant to this Article, and the services are provided under the direction and control of the Secretary pursuant to G.S. 166A-19.10, 166A-19.11, 166A-19.12, 166A-19.20, 166A-19.30, and 143B-602, or the Governor.

b. Emergency management services are provided during a state of emergency declared pursuant to G.S. 166A-19.22, and the services are provided under the direction and control of the governing body of a municipality or county under G.S. 166A-19.31, or the chair of a board of county commissioners under G.S. 166A-19.22(b)(3).

c. The firm, partnership, association, or corporation is engaged in planning, preparation, training, or exercises with the Division, the Division of Public Health, or the governing body of each county or municipality under G.S. 166A-19.15 related to the performance of emergency management services or measures.

(2) The immunity shall not apply to any firm, partnership, association, or corporation, or to any employee or agent thereof, whose act or omission caused in whole or in part the actual or imminent emergency or whose act or omission necessitated emergency management measures.

(3) To the extent that any firm, partnership, association, or corporation has liability insurance, that firm, partnership, association, or corporation shall be deemed to have waived the immunity to the extent of the indemnification by insurance for its negligence. An insurer shall not under a contract of insurance exclude from liability coverage the acts or omissions of a firm, partnership, association, or corporation for which the firm, partnership, association, or corporation would only be liable to the extent indemnified by insurance as provided by this subdivision.

(c) No Effect on Benefits. – The rights of any person to receive benefits to which the person would otherwise be entitled under this Article or under the Workers' Compensation Law or under any pension law and the right of any such person to receive any benefits or compensation under any act of Congress shall not be affected by performance of emergency management functions.

(d) License Requirements Suspended. – Any requirement for a license to practice any professional, mechanical, or other skill shall not apply to any authorized emergency management worker who shall, in the course of performing the worker's duties as such, practice such professional, mechanical, or other skill during a state of emergency.

(e) Definition of Emergency Management Worker. – As used in this section, the term 'emergency management worker' shall include any full- or part-time paid, volunteer, or auxiliary employee of this State or other states, territories, possessions, or the District of Columbia, of the federal government or any neighboring country or of any political subdivision thereof, or of any agency or organization performing emergency management services at any place in this State, subject to the order or control of or pursuant to a request of the State government or any political subdivision thereof. The term 'emergency management worker' under this section shall also include any health care worker performing health care services as a member of a hospital-based or county-based State Medical Assistance Team designated by the North Carolina Office of Emergency Medical Services and any person performing emergency health care services under G.S. 90-12.2.

(f) Powers of Individuals Operating Pursuant to Mutual Aid Agreements. – Any emergency management worker, as defined in this section, performing emergency management services at any place in this State pursuant to agreements, compacts, or arrangements for mutual aid and assistance to which the State or a political subdivision thereof is a party, shall possess the same powers, duties, immunities, and privileges the person would ordinarily possess if performing duties in the State, or political subdivision thereof, in which normally employed or rendering services.

"§ 166A-19.61. No private liability.

Any person, firm, or corporation owning or controlling real or personal property who, voluntarily or involuntarily, knowingly or unknowingly, with or without compensation, grants a license or privilege or otherwise permits or allows the designation or use of the whole or any part or parts of such real or personal property for the purpose of sheltering, protecting, safeguarding, or aiding in any way persons shall, together with his successors in interest, if any, not be civilly liable for the death of or injury to any person or the loss of or damage to the property of any persons where such death, injury, loss, or damage resulted from, through, or because of the use of the said real or personal property for any of the above purposes.

"§ 166A-19.62. Civil liability of persons who willfully ignore a warning in an emergency.

In an emergency, a person who willfully ignores a warning regarding personal safety issued by a federal, State, or local law enforcement agency, emergency management agency, or other governmental agency responsible for emergency management under this Article is civilly liable for the cost of a rescue effort to any governmental agency or nonprofit agency cooperating with a governmental agency conducting a rescue on the endangered person's behalf if all of the following are true:

(1) The person ignores the warning and (i) engages in an activity or course of action that a reasonable person would not pursue or (ii) fails to take a course of action that a reasonable person would pursue.

(2) As a result of ignoring the warning the person places himself or herself or another in danger.

(3) A governmental rescue effort is undertaken on the endangered person's behalf.

"Part 8. Miscellaneous Provisions.

"§ 166A-19.70. Ensuring availability of emergency supplies and utility services.

(a) Executive Order. – In addition to any other powers conferred on the Governor by law, whenever a curfew has been imposed, the Governor may declare by executive order that the health, safety, or economic well-being of persons or property in this State require that persons transporting essentials in commerce to the curfew area, or assisting in ensuring their availability, and persons assisting in restoring utility services, be allowed to enter or remain in areas from which they would otherwise be excluded for the limited purpose of delivering the essentials, assisting in ensuring their availability, or assisting in restoring utility services.

(b) Maximum Hours of Service Waiver. – As part of an executive order issued pursuant to subsection (a) of this section, or independently of such an order, the Governor may declare by executive order that the health, safety, or economic well-being of persons or property in this State require that the maximum hours of service prescribed by the Department of Public Safety pursuant to G.S. 20-381 and similar rules be waived for persons transporting essentials or assisting in the restoration of utility services.

(c) Certification System. – The Secretary shall develop a system pursuant to which a person who transports essentials in commerce, or assists in ensuring their availability, and persons who assist in the restoring of utility services can be certified as such. The certification system shall allow for both preemergency declaration and postemergency declaration certification and may include an annually renewable precertification. The Secretary shall only allow those who routinely transport or distribute essentials or assist in the restoring of utility services to be certified. A certification of the employer shall constitute a certification of the employer's employees. The Secretary shall create an easily recognizable indicium of certification in order to assist local officials' efforts to determine which persons have received certification by the system established under this subsection.

(d) Presence in Curfew Area Permitted. – Notwithstanding the existence of any curfew, a person who is certified pursuant to the system established under subsection (c) of this section shall be allowed to enter or remain in the curfew area for the limited purpose of delivering or assisting in the distribution of essentials or assisting in the restoration of utility services and shall be allowed to provide service that exceeds otherwise applicable hours of service maximums, to the extent authorized by an executive order executed pursuant to subsection (a) of this section. Nothing in this section prohibits law enforcement or other local officials from specifying the permissible route of ingress or egress for persons with certifications.

(e) Abnormal Market Disruptions with Respect to Petroleum. – If the Governor declares the existence of an abnormal market disruption with respect to petroleum pursuant to, G.S. 75-38(f), the Governor shall contemporaneously seek all applicable waivers under the federal Clean Air Act, 42 U.S.C. § 7401, et seq., and any other applicable federal law to facilitate the transportation of fuel within this State in order to address or prevent a fuel supply emergency in this State. Waiver requests shall be directed to the appropriate federal agencies and shall seek waivers of the following:

(1) The Reformulated Gasoline requirements throughout the State.

(2) The Federal and State Implementation Plan summertime gasoline requirements (low RVP) throughout the State.

(3) Any other waiver that will, if obtained, facilitate the transportation of fuel within this State.

(f) Definitions. – The following definitions apply in this section:

(1) Curfew. – Any restriction on ingress and egress to the emergency area of a state of emergency or any restriction on the movement of persons within such an area.

(2) Curfew area. – The area that is subject to a curfew.

(3) Essentials. – Any goods that are consumed or used as a direct result of an emergency or which are consumed or used to preserve, protect, or sustain life, health, safety, or economic well-being of persons or their property. The Secretary shall determine what goods constitute essentials for purposes of this section.

"§ 166A-19.71. Accept services, gifts, grants, and loans.

Whenever the federal government or any agency or officer thereof or of any person, firm, or corporation shall offer to the State, or through the State to any political subdivision thereof, services, equipment, supplies, materials, or funds by way of gift, grant, or loan, for emergency management purposes, the State acting through the Governor, or such political subdivision, acting with the consent of the Governor and through its governing body, may accept such offer. Upon such acceptance the Governor of the State or governing body of such political subdivision may authorize any officer of the State or of the political subdivision, as the case may be, to receive such services, equipment, supplies, materials, or funds on behalf of the State or of such political subdivision, and subject to the terms of the offer and the rules and regulations, if any, of the agency making the offer.

"§ 166A-19.72. Establishment of mutual aid agreements.

(a) Governor Authorized to Enter Agreements with Other States and Federal Government. – The Governor may establish mutual aid agreements with other states and with the federal government provided that any special agreements so negotiated are within the Governor's authority.

(b) Governor Authorized to Enter Agreements with Political Subdivisions. – The Governor may establish mutual aid agreements with political subdivisions in the State with the concurrence of the subdivision's governing body.

(c) Political Subdivisions Authorized to Enter Agreements with Other Political Subdivisions. – The chief executive of each political subdivision, with the concurrence of the subdivision's governing body, may develop mutual aid agreements for reciprocal emergency management aid and assistance. Such agreements shall be consistent with the State emergency management program and plans.

(d) Political Subdivisions Authorized to Enter Agreements with Political Subdivisions in Other States. – The chief executive officer of each political subdivision, with the concurrence of the governing body and subject to the approval of the Governor, may enter into mutual aid agreements with local chief executive officers in other states for reciprocal emergency management aid and assistance. These agreements shall be consistent with the State emergency management program and plans.

(e) Terms of Agreements. – Mutual aid agreements may include, but are not limited to, the furnishing or exchange of such supplies, equipment, facilities, personnel, and services as may be needed; the reimbursement of costs and expenses for equipment, supplies, personnel, and similar items; and on such terms and conditions as deemed necessary.

"§ 166A-19.73. Compensation.

(a) Extent of Compensation. – Compensation for services or for the taking or use of property shall be only to the extent that legal obligations of individual citizens are exceeded in a particular case and then only to the extent that the claimant has not been deemed to have volunteered his services or property without compensation.

(b) Limitation; Basis of Compensation. – Compensation for property shall be only if the property was commandeered, seized, taken, condemned, or otherwise used in coping with an emergency and this action was ordered by the Governor. The State shall make compensation for the property so seized, taken, or condemned on the following basis:

(1) In case property is taken for temporary use, the Governor, within 30 days of the taking, shall fix the amount of compensation to be paid for such damage or failure to return. Whenever the Governor shall deem it advisable for the State to take title to property taken under this section, the Governor shall forthwith cause the owner of such property to be notified thereof in writing by registered mail, postage prepaid, or by the best means available, and forthwith cause to be filed a copy of said notice with the Secretary of State.

(2) If the person entitled to receive the amounts so determined by the Governor as just compensation is unwilling to accept the same as full and complete compensation for such property or the use thereof, the person shall be paid seventy-five percent (75%) of such amount and shall be entitled to recover from the State of North Carolina in an action brought in the superior court in the county of residence of claimant, or in Wake County, in the same manner as other condemnation claims are brought, within three years after the date of the Governor's award.

"§ 166A-19.74. Nondiscrimination in emergency management.

State and local governmental bodies and other organizations and personnel who carry out emergency management functions under the provisions of this Article are required to do so in an equitable and impartial manner. Such State and local governmental bodies, organizations, and personnel shall not discriminate on the grounds of race, color, religion, nationality, sex, age, or economic status in the distribution of supplies, the processing of applications, and other relief and assistance activities.

"§ 166A-19.75. Emergency management personnel.

(a) Limitation. – No person shall be employed or associated in any capacity in any emergency management agency established under this Article if that person does or has done any of the following:

(1) Advocates or has advocated a change by force or violence in the constitutional form of the Government of the United States or in this State.

(2) Advocates or has advocated the overthrow of any government in the United States by force or violence.

(3) Has been convicted of any subversive act against the United States.

(4) Is under indictment or information charging any subversive act against the United States.

(5) Has ever been a member of the Communist Party.

(b) Oath. – Each person who is appointed to serve in any emergency management agency shall, before entering upon the person's duties, take a written oath before a person authorized to administer oaths in this State, which oath shall be substantially as follows:

'I, _____, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of North Carolina, against all enemies, foreign and domestic; and that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion; and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties upon which I am about to enter. And I do further swear (or affirm) that I do not advocate, nor am I, nor have I ever knowingly been, a member of any political party or organization that advocates the overthrow of the Government of the United States or of this State by force or violence; and that during such time as I am a member of the State Emergency Management Agency I will not advocate nor become a member of any political party or organization that advocates the overthrow of the Government of the United States or of this State by force or violence, so help me God.'

(c) No Violation of Dual Office Holding Prohibition. – No position created by or pursuant to this Article shall be deemed an office within the meaning of Section 9 of Article 6 of the North Carolina Constitution.

"§ 166A-19.76. Leave options for voluntary firefighters, rescue squad workers, and emergency medical service personnel called into service.

(a) Leave Without Pay. – A member of a volunteer fire department, rescue squad, or emergency medical services agency called into service of the State after a declaration of a state of emergency by the Governor or by the General Assembly, or upon the activation of the State Emergency Response Team in response to an emergency, shall have the right to take leave without pay from his or her civilian employment. No member of a volunteer fire department, rescue squad, or emergency medical services agency shall be forced to use or exhaust his or her vacation or other accrued leave from his or her civilian employment for a period of active service. The choice of leave shall be solely within the discretion of the member.

(b) Request in Writing Required. – For the volunteer member to be entitled to take leave without pay pursuant to this section, his or her services shall be requested in writing by the Director of the Division or by the head of a local emergency management agency. The request shall be directed to the Chief of the member's volunteer fire department, rescue squad, or emergency medical services agency and a copy shall be provided to the member's employer. This section shall not apply to those members whose services have been certified by their employer to the Director of the Division, or to the head of a local emergency management agency, as essential to the employer's own ongoing emergency relief activities.

(c) Definition of an Emergency Requiring Activation of the State Emergency Response Team. – For purposes of this section, an emergency requiring the activation of the State Emergency Response Team means an emergency at Activation Level 2 or greater according to the North Carolina State Emergency Operations Plan of November 2002. Activation Level 2 requires the State Emergency Operations Center to be fully activated with 24-hour staffing from all State Emergency Response Team members.

(d) Enforcement. – The Commissioner of Labor shall enforce the provisions of this section pursuant to Chapter 95 of the General Statutes.

"§ 166A-19.77. Division of Forest Resources designated as emergency response agency.

The Division of Forest Resources of the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services is designated an emergency response agency of the State of North Carolina for purposes of the following:

(1) Supporting the Division in responding to all-risk incidents.
(2) Receipt of any applicable State or federal funding.
(3) Training of other State and local agencies in emergency management.
(4) Any other emergency response roles for which the Division has special training or qualifications.

"§ 166A-19.78. Governor's power to order evacuation of public building.

When it is determined by the Governor that a great public crisis, disaster, riot, catastrophe, or any other similar public emergency exists, or the occurrence of any such condition is imminent, and, in the Governor's opinion it is necessary to evacuate any building owned or controlled by any department, agency, institution, school, college, board, division, commission, or subdivision of the State in order to maintain public order and safety or to afford adequate protection for lives or property, the Governor is hereby authorized to issue an order of evacuation directing all persons within the building to leave the building and its premises forthwith. The order shall be delivered to any law enforcement officer or officer of the National Guard, and such officer shall, by a suitable public address system, read the order to the occupants of the building and demand that the occupants forthwith evacuate said building within the time specified in the Governor's order.

"§ 166A-19.79. Severability.

If any provision of this Article or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the invalidity does not affect other provisions or applications of the Article which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Article are severable."

SECTION 1.(c) The title of Article 36A of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes reads as rewritten:

"Article 36A.

~~Riots and Civil Disorders.~~Riots, Civil Disorders, and Emergencies."

SECTION 1.(d) Article 36A of Chapter 14 is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 14-288.20A. Violation of emergency prohibitions and restrictions.

Any person who does any of the following is guilty of a Class 2 misdemeanor:

(1) Violates any provision of an ordinance or a declaration enacted or declared pursuant to G.S. 166A-19.31.

(2) Violates any provision of a declaration or executive order issued pursuant to G.S. 166A-19.30

(3) Willfully refuses to leave the building as directed in a Governor's order issued pursuant to G.S. 166A-19.78."

II. CONFORMING CHANGES

SECTION 2.(a) G.S. 14-288.1 reads as rewritten:

"§ 14-288.1. Definitions.

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the ~~definitions in this section apply throughout this Article:~~ following definitions apply in this Article:

(1) ~~"Chairman of the board of county commissioners":~~Chairman of the board of county commissioners. – The chairman of the board of county commissioners or, in case of the chairman's absence or disability, the person authorized to act in the chairman's stead. Unless the governing body of the county has specified who is to act in lieu of the chairman with respect to a particular power or duty set out in this Article, the term "chairman of the board of county commissioners" shall apply to the person generally authorized to act in lieu of the chairman.

(2) ~~"Dangerous weapon or substance":~~Dangerous weapon or substance. – Any deadly weapon, ammunition, explosive, incendiary device, radioactive material or device, as defined in G.S. 14-288.8(c)(5), or any instrument or substance designed for a use that carries a threat of serious bodily injury or destruction of property; or any instrument or substance that is capable of being used to inflict serious bodily injury, when the circumstances indicate a probability that such instrument or substance will be so used; or any part or ingredient in any instrument or substance included above, when the circumstances indicate a probability that such part or ingredient will be so used.

(3) ~~"Declared state of emergency":~~Declared state of emergency. – A state of emergency as that term is defined in G.S. 166A-19.3 or a state of emergency found and ~~proclaimed by the Governor under the authority of G.S. 14-288.15, by any mayor or other municipal official or officials under the authority of G.S. 14-288.12, by any chairman of the board of commissioners of any county or other county official or officials under the authority of G.S. 14-288.13, by any chairman of the board of county commissioners acting under the authority of G.S. 14-288.14, by~~ declared by any chief executive official or acting chief executive official of any county or municipality acting under the authority of any other applicable statute or provision of the common law to preserve the public peace in a state of emergency, or by any executive official or military commanding officer of the United States or the State of North Carolina who becomes primarily responsible under applicable law for the preservation of the public peace within any part of North Carolina.

(4) ~~"Disorderly conduct":~~Disorderly conduct. – As defined in G.S. 14-288.4(a).

(4a) Emergency. – As defined in G.S. 166A-19.3.

(5) ~~"Law enforcement officer":~~Law enforcement officer. – Any officer of the State of North Carolina or any of its political subdivisions authorized to make arrests; any other person authorized under the laws of North Carolina to make arrests and either acting within that person's territorial jurisdiction or in an area in which that person has been lawfully called to duty by the Governor or any mayor or chairman of the board of county commissioners; any member of the Armed Forces of the United States, the North Carolina National Guard, or the North Carolina State Defense Militia called to duty in a state of emergency in North Carolina and made responsible for enforcing the laws of North Carolina or preserving the public peace; or any officer of the United States authorized to make arrests without warrant and assigned to duties that include preserving the public peace in North Carolina.

(6) ~~"Mayor":~~Mayor. – The mayor or other chief executive official of a municipality or, in case of that person's absence or disability, the person authorized to act in that person's stead. Unless the governing body of the municipality has specified who is to act in lieu of the mayor with respect to a particular power or duty set out in this Article, the word "mayor" shall apply to the person generally authorized to act in lieu of the mayor.

(7) ~~"Municipality":~~Municipality. – Any active incorporated city or town, but not including any sanitary district or other municipal corporation that is not a city or town. An "active" municipality is one which has conducted the most recent election required by its charter or the general law, whichever is applicable, and which has the authority to enact general police-power ordinances.

(8) ~~"Public disturbance":~~Public disturbance. – Any annoying, disturbing, or alarming act or condition exceeding the bounds of social toleration normal for the time and place in question which occurs in a public place or which occurs in, affects persons in, or is likely to affect persons in a place to which the public or a substantial group has access. The places covered by this definition shall include, but not be limited to, highways, transport facilities, schools, prisons, apartment houses, places of business or amusement, or any neighborhood.

(9) ~~"Riot":~~Riot. – As defined in G.S. 14-288.2(a).

~~(10) "State of emergency": The condition that exists whenever, during times of public crisis, disaster, rioting, catastrophe, or similar public emergency, public safety authorities are unable to maintain public order or afford adequate protection for lives or property, or whenever the occurrence of any such condition is imminent.~~"

SECTION 2.(b) G.S. 14-288.4(a)(4)c. reads as rewritten:

"(a) Disorderly conduct is a public disturbance intentionally caused by any person who does any of the following:

...

(4) Refuses to vacate any building or facility of any public or private educational institution in obedience to any of the following:

...

c. If ~~a state of~~ an emergency is occurring or is imminent within the institution, an order given by any law-enforcement officer acting within the scope of the officer's authority."

SECTION 2.(c) G.S. 14-288.7(a) reads as rewritten:

"§ 14-288.7. Transporting dangerous weapon or substance during emergency; possessing off premises; exceptions.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, it is unlawful for any person to transport or possess off his own premises any dangerous weapon or substance in any area:

~~(1) In which a declared state of emergency exists; or~~

(2) Within the immediate vicinity of which a riot is occurring."

SECTION 2.(d) G.S. 14-288.11 reads as rewritten:

"§ 14-288.11. Warrants to inspect vehicles in riot areas or approaching municipalities during emergencies.

(a) Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 4 of Chapter 15, any law-enforcement officer may, under the conditions specified in this section, obtain a warrant authorizing inspection of vehicles under the conditions and for the purpose specified in subsection (b).

(b) The inspection shall be for the purpose of discovering any dangerous weapon or substance likely to be used by one who is or may become unlawfully involved in a riot. The warrant may be sought to inspect:

(1) All vehicles entering or approaching a municipality in which ~~a state of~~ an emergency exists; or

(2) All vehicles which might reasonably be regarded as being within or approaching the immediate vicinity of an existing riot.

(c) The warrant may be issued by any judge or justice of the General Court of Justice.

(d) The issuing official shall issue the warrant only when he has determined that the one seeking the warrant has been specifically authorized to do so by the head of the law-enforcement agency of which the affiant is a member, and:

(1) If the warrant is being sought for the inspection of vehicles entering or approaching a municipality, that ~~a state of~~ an emergency exists within the municipality; or

(2) If the warrant being sought is for the inspection of vehicles within or approaching the immediate vicinity of a riot, that a riot is occurring within that area.

Facts indicating the basis of these determinations must be stated in an affidavit and signed by the affiant under oath or affirmation.

(e) The warrant must be signed by the issuing official and must bear the hour and date of its issuance.

(f) The warrant must indicate whether it is for the inspection of vehicles entering or approaching a municipality or whether it is for the inspection of vehicles within or approaching the immediate vicinity of a riot. In either case, it must also specify with reasonable precision the area within which it may be exercised.

(g) The warrant shall become invalid 24 hours following its issuance and must bear a notation to that effect.

(h) Warrants authorized under this section shall not be regarded as search warrants for the purposes of application of Article 4 of Chapter 15.

(i) Nothing in this section is intended to prevent warrantless frisks, searches, and inspections to the extent that they may be constitutional and consistent with common law and governing statutes."

SECTION 2.(e) G.S. 14-288.12 through G.S. 14-288.17 and G.S. 14-288.19 are repealed.

SECTION 2.(f) G.S. 14-288.18 reads as rewritten:

"§ 14-288.18. Injunction to cope with emergencies at public and private educational institutions.

(a) The chief administrative officer, or his authorized representative, of any public or private educational institution may apply to any superior court judge for injunctive relief if ~~a state of~~ an emergency exists ~~or is imminent~~ within his institution. For the purposes of this section, the superintendent of any city or county administrative school unit shall be deemed the chief administrative officer of any public elementary or secondary school within his unit.

(b) Upon a finding by a superior court judge, to whom application has been made under the provisions of this section, that ~~a state of~~ an emergency exists ~~or is imminent~~ within a public or private educational institution by reason of riot, disorderly conduct by three or more persons, or the imminent threat of riot, the judge may issue an injunction containing provisions appropriate to cope with the emergency then occurring or threatening. The injunction may be addressed to named persons or named or described groups of persons as to whom there is satisfactory cause for believing that they are contributing to the ~~existing or imminent state of~~ emergency, and ordering such persons or groups of persons to take or refrain or desist from taking such various actions as the judge finds it appropriate to include in his order."

SECTION 2.(g) G.S. 20-118.4(a) reads as rewritten:

"§ 20-118.4. Firefighting equipment exempt from size and weight restrictions while transporting or moving heavy equipment in an emergency; permits.

(a) Exemption From Weight and Size Restrictions During Emergency Response. – Any overweight or oversize vehicle owned and operated by a State or local government or cooperating federal agency is exempt from the weight and size restrictions of this Chapter and implementing rules while it is actively engaged in (i) a response to a fire under the authority of a forest ranger pursuant to G.S. 113-55(a); (ii) a county request for forest protection assistance pursuant to G.S. 113-59; (iii) a request for assistance under a state of emergency declared pursuant to ~~G.S. 14-288.12, 14-288.13, 14-288.14, 14-288.15,~~G.S. 166A-19.20 or G.S. 166A-19.22, and any other applicable statutes and provisions of common law; (iv) a request for assistance under a disaster declared pursuant to ~~G.S 166A-6 or G.S. 166A-8,~~ G.S. 166A-19.21 when the vehicle meets the following conditions:

...."

SECTION 2.(h) G.S. 42A-36 reads as rewritten:

"§ 42A-36. Mandatory evacuations.

If State or local authorities, acting pursuant to ~~Article 36A of Chapter 14 or Article 1 of Chapter 166A~~ Article 1A of Chapter 166A of the General Statutes, order a mandatory evacuation of an area that includes the residential property subject to a vacation rental, the tenant under the vacation rental agreement, whether in possession of the property or not, shall comply with the evacuation order. Upon compliance, the tenant shall be entitled to a refund from the landlord of the rent, taxes, and any other payments made by the tenant pursuant to the vacation rental agreement as a condition of the tenant's right to occupy the property prorated for each night that the tenant is unable to occupy the property because of the mandatory evacuation order. The tenant shall not be entitled to a refund if: (i) prior to the tenant taking possession of the property, the tenant refused insurance offered by the landlord or real estate broker that would have compensated the tenant for losses or damages resulting from loss of use of the property due to a mandatory evacuation order; or (ii) the tenant purchased insurance offered by the landlord or real estate broker. The insurance offered shall be provided by an insurance company duly authorized by the North Carolina Department of Insurance, and the cost of the insurance shall not exceed eight percent (8%) of the total amount charged for the vacation rental to the tenant less the amount paid by the tenant for a security deposit."

SECTION 2.(i) G.S. 58-2-46 reads as rewritten:

"§ 58-2-46. State of ~~disaster;~~emergency automatic stay of proof of loss requirements; premium and debt deferrals; loss adjustments for separate windstorm policies.

Whenever a state of ~~disaster~~ emergency is proclaimed for the State or for an area within the State under ~~G.S. 166A-6~~ G.S. 166A-19.20 or whenever the President of the United States has issued a major disaster declaration for the State or for an area within the State under the Stafford Act, 42 U.S.C. § 5121, et seq., as amended:

...."

SECTION 2.(j) G.S. 58-2-47 reads as rewritten:

"§ 58-2-47. Incident affecting operations of the Department; stay of deadlines and deemer provisions.

Regardless of whether a state of ~~disaster~~ emergency has been proclaimed under ~~G.S. 166A-6~~ G.S. 166A-19.20 or declared under the Stafford Act, whenever an incident beyond the Department's reasonable control, including an act of God, insurrection, strike, fire, power outage, or systematic technological failure, substantially affects the daily business operations of the Department, the Commissioner may issue an order, effective immediately, to stay the application of any deadlines and deemer provisions imposed by law or rule upon the Commissioner or Department or upon persons subject to the Commissioner's jurisdiction, which deadlines and deemer provisions would otherwise operate during the time period for which the operations of the Department have been substantially affected. The order shall remain in effect for a period not exceeding 30 days. The order may be renewed by the Commissioner for successive periods not exceeding 30 days each for as long as the operations of the Department remain substantially affected, up to a period of one year from the effective date of the initial order."

SECTION 2.(k) G.S. 58-3-228(b)(2) reads as rewritten:

"(2) The covered person requesting coverage of the refill or replacement prescription resides in a county that:

a. Is covered under a ~~proclamation of state of disaster~~state of emergency issued by the Governor or ~~by a resolution of the~~ General Assembly under ~~G.S. 166A-6,~~ G.S. 166A-19.20, or a declaration of major disaster issued by the President of the United States under the Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act, 42 U.S.C. § 5121, et seq., as amended; or

~~b. Is declared to be under a state of emergency in a proclamation issued by the Governor under G.S. 14-288.15.~~"

SECTION 2.(l) G.S. 58-33-70(e) reads as rewritten:

"(e) The Commissioner may permit an experienced adjuster, who regularly adjusts in another state and who is licensed in the other state (if that state requires a license), to act as an adjuster in this State without a North Carolina license only for an insurance company authorized to do business in this State, for emergency insurance adjustment work, for a period to be determined by the Commissioner, done for an employer who is an adjuster licensed by this State or who is a regular employer of one or more adjusters licensed by this State; provided that the employer shall furnish to the Commissioner a notice in writing immediately upon the beginning of any such emergency insurance adjustment work. As used in this subsection, "emergency insurance adjustment work" includes, but is not limited to, (i) adjusting of a single loss or losses arising out of an event or catastrophe common to all of those losses or (ii) adjusting losses in any area declared to be a state of ~~disaster~~ emergency by the Governor under ~~G.S. 166A-6~~ G.S. 166A-19.20 or by the President of the United States under applicable federal law."

SECTION 2.(m) G.S. 58-44-70(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) This Part provides for a nonadversarial alternative dispute resolution procedure for a facilitated claim resolution conference prompted by the critical need for effective, fair, and timely handling of insurance claims arising out of damages to residential property as the result of an event for which there is a state of ~~disaster~~ emergency declared within 60 days of the event. This Part applies only (i) if a state of ~~disaster~~ emergency has been proclaimed for the State or for an area within the State by the Governor or by a resolution of the General Assembly under ~~G.S. 166A-6;~~ G.S. 166A-19.20; or (ii) if the President of the United States has issued a major disaster declaration for the State or for an area within the State under the Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act, 42 U.S.C. § 5121, et seq., as amended; and (iii) if the Commissioner issues an order establishing the mediation procedure authorized by this Part."

SECTION 2.(n) G.S. 58-44-75(2) reads as rewritten:

"§ 58-44-75. Definitions.

As used in this Part:

...

(2) Disaster. ~~As defined in G.S. 166A-4(1).~~As the term 'emergency' is defined in G.S. 166A-19.3(6)."

SECTION 2.(o) G.S. 75-38(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) A "triggering event" means the declaration of a state of emergency ~~pursuant to G.S. 166A-8 or Article 36A of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes, the proclamation of a state of disaster pursuant to G.S. 166A-6,~~ pursuant to Article 1A of Chapter 166A of the General Statutes or a finding of abnormal market disruption pursuant to G.S. 75-38(e)."

SECTION 2.(p) G.S. 83A-13.1(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) A professional architect who voluntarily, without compensation, provides structural, electrical, mechanical, or other architectural services at the scene of a declared disaster or emergency, declared under federal law or in accordance with the provisions of ~~Article 1 of Chapter 166A of the General Statutes or Article 36A of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes,~~ Article 1A of Chapter 166A of the General Statutes, at the request of a public official, law enforcement official, public safety official, or building inspection official, acting in an official capacity, shall not be liable for any personal injury, wrongful death, property damage, or other loss caused by the professional architect's acts or omissions in the performance of the architectural services."

SECTION 2.(q) G.S. 89C-19.1(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) A professional engineer who voluntarily, without compensation, provides structural, electrical, mechanical, or other engineering services at the scene of a declared disaster or emergency, declared under federal law or in accordance with the provisions of ~~Article 1 of Chapter 166A of the General Statutes or Article 36A of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes,~~ Article 1A of Chapter 166A of the General Statutes, at the request of a public official, law enforcement official, public safety official, or building inspection official, acting in an official capacity, shall not be liable for any personal injury, wrongful death, property damage, or other loss caused by the professional engineer's acts or omissions in the performance of the engineering services."

SECTION 2.(r) G.S. 122C-409 reads as rewritten:

"§ 122C-409. Community of Butner comprehensive emergency management plan.

The Department of Public Safety shall establish an emergency management agency as defined in ~~G.S. 166A-4(2)~~ G.S. 166A-19.3(9) for the Camp Butner Reservation, and the Town of Butner."

SECTION 2.(s) G.S. 131D-7 reads as rewritten:

"§ 131D-7. Waiver of rules for certain adult care homes providing shelter or services during disaster or emergency.

(a) The Division of Health Service Regulation may temporarily waive, during disasters or emergencies declared in accordance with ~~Article 1~~ Article 1A of Chapter 166A of the General Statutes, any rules of the Commission pertaining to adult care homes to the extent necessary to allow the adult care home to provide temporary shelter and temporary services requested by the emergency management agency. The Division may identify, in advance of a declared disaster or emergency, rules that may be waived, and the extent the rules may be waived, upon a disaster or emergency being declared in accordance with ~~Article 1~~ Article 1A of Chapter 166A of the General Statutes. The Division may also waive rules under this subsection during a declared disaster or emergency upon the request of an emergency management agency and may rescind the waiver if, after investigation, the Division determines the waiver poses an unreasonable risk to the health, safety, or welfare of any of the persons occupying the adult care home. The emergency management agency requesting temporary shelter or temporary services shall notify the Division within 72 hours of the time the preapproved waivers are deemed by the emergency management agency to apply.

(b) As used in this section, "emergency management agency" is as defined in ~~G.S. 166A-4(2).~~G.S. 166A-19.3."

SECTION 2.(t) G.S. 131E-84 reads as rewritten:

"§ 131E-84. Waiver of rules for hospitals that provide temporary shelter or temporary services during a disaster or emergency.

(a) The Division of Health Service Regulation may temporarily waive, during disasters or emergencies declared in accordance with ~~Article 1~~ Article 1A of Chapter 166A of the General Statutes, any rules of the Commission pertaining to a hospital to the extent necessary to allow the hospital to provide temporary shelter and temporary services requested by the emergency management agency. The Division may identify, in advance of a declared disaster or emergency, rules that may be waived, and the extent to which the rules may be waived, upon a declaration of disaster or emergency in accordance with ~~Article 1~~ Article 1A of Chapter 166A of the General Statutes. The Division may also waive rules under this subsection during a declared disaster or emergency upon the request of an emergency management agency and may rescind the waiver if, after investigation, the Division determines the waiver poses an unreasonable risk to the health, safety, or welfare of any of the persons occupying the hospital. The emergency management agency requesting temporary shelter or temporary services shall notify the Division within 72 hours of the time the preapproved waivers are deemed by the emergency management agency to apply.

(b) As used in this section, "emergency management agency" is as defined in ~~G.S. 166A-4.~~G.S. 166A-19.3."

(2) To adopt the rules to implement those provisions of this Article that deal with matters other than those that are exclusively local.

(3) To develop a system of damage assessment through which the Secretary will recommend the appropriate level of emergency declaration to the Governor. The system shall, at a minimum, consider whether the damage involved and its effects are of such a severity and magnitude as to be beyond the response capabilities of the local government or political subdivision.

(4) Additional authority, duties, and responsibilities as may be prescribed by the Governor. The Secretary may subdelegate his authority to the appropriate member of the Secretary's department.

"§ 166A-19.12. Powers of the Division of Emergency Management.

The Division of Emergency Management shall have the following powers and duties as delegated by the Governor and Secretary of Crime Control and Public Safety:

(1) Coordination of the activities of all State agencies for emergency management within the State, including planning, organizing, staffing, equipping, training, testing, and the activation of emergency management programs.

(2) Preparation and maintenance of State plans for emergencies. The State plans or any parts thereof may be incorporated into department regulations and into executive orders of the Governor.

(3) Coordination with the State Health Director to amend or revise the North Carolina Emergency Operations Plan regarding public health matters. At a minimum, the revisions to the Plan shall provide for the following:
a. The epidemiologic investigation of a known or suspected threat caused by nuclear, biological, or chemical agents.
b. The examination and testing of persons and animals that may have been exposed to a nuclear, biological, or chemical agent.
c. The procurement and allocation of immunizing agents and prophylactic antibiotics.
d. The allocation of the National Pharmaceutical Stockpile.
e. The appropriate conditions for quarantine and isolation in order to prevent further transmission of disease.
f. Immunization procedures.
g. The issuance of guidelines for prophylaxis and treatment of exposed and affected persons.

(4) Establishment of a voluntary model registry for use by political subdivisions in identifying functionally and medically fragile persons in need of assistance during an emergency. All records, data, information, correspondence, and communications relating to the registration of persons with special needs or of functionally and medically fragile persons obtained pursuant to this subdivision are confidential and are not a public record pursuant to G.S. 132-1 or any other applicable statute, except that this information shall be available to emergency response agencies, as determined by the local emergency management director. This information shall be used only for the purposes set forth in this subdivision.

(5) Promulgation of standards and requirements for local plans and programs consistent with federal and State laws and regulations, determination of eligibility for State financial assistance provided for in G.S. 166A-19.15 and provision of technical assistance to local governments. Standards and requirements for local plans and programs promulgated under this subdivision shall be reviewed by the Division at least biennially and updated as necessary.

(6) Development and presentation of training programs, including the Emergency Management Certification Program established under Article 5 of this Chapter, and public information programs to insure the furnishing of adequately trained personnel and an informed public in time of need.

(7) Making of such studies and surveys of the resources in this State as may be necessary to ascertain the capabilities of the State for emergency management, maintaining data on these resources, and planning for the most efficient use thereof.

(8) Coordination of the use of any private facilities, services, and property.

(9) Preparation for issuance by the Governor of executive orders, declarations, and regulations as necessary or appropriate.

(10) Cooperation and maintenance of liaison with the other states, the federal government, and any public or private agency or entity in achieving any purpose of this Article and in implementing programs for emergency or war prevention, preparation, response, and recovery.

(11) Making recommendations, as appropriate, for zoning, building, and other land-use controls, and safety measures for securing mobile homes or other nonpermanent or semipermanent works designed to protect against or mitigate the effects of an emergency.

(12) Coordination of the use of existing means of communications and supplementing communications resources and integrating them into a comprehensive State or State-federal telecommunications or other communications system or network.

(13) Administration of federal and State grant funds provided for emergency management purposes, including those funds provided for planning and preparedness activities by emergency management agencies.

(14) Serving as the lead State agency for the coordination of information and resources for hazard risk management, which shall include the following responsibilities:

a. Coordinating with other State agencies and county governments in conducting hazard risk analysis. To the extent another State agency has primary responsibility for the adoption of hazard mitigation standards, those standards shall be applied in conducting a hazard risk analysis.

b. Establishing and maintaining a hazard risk management information system and tools to display natural hazards and vulnerabilities and conducting risk assessment.

c. Acquiring and leveraging all natural hazard data generated or maintained by State agencies and county governments.

d. Acquiring and leveraging all vulnerability data generated or maintained by State agencies and county governments.

e. Maintaining a clearinghouse for methodologies and metrics for calculating and communicating hazard probability and loss estimation.

(15) Utilizing and maintaining technology that enables efficient and effective communication and management of resources between political subdivisions, State agencies, and other governmental entities involved in emergency management activities.

"Part 3. Local Emergency Management.

"§ 166A-19.15. County and municipal emergency management.

(a) Governing Body of Counties Responsible for Emergency Management. – The governing body of each county is responsible for emergency management within the geographical limits of such county. All emergency management efforts within the county will be coordinated by the county, including activities of the municipalities within the county.

(b) Counties May Establish and Maintain Emergency Management Agencies. – The governing body of each county is hereby authorized to establish and maintain an emergency management agency for the purposes contained in G.S. 166A-19.1. The governing body of each county which establishes an emergency management agency pursuant to this authorization shall appoint a coordinator who will have a direct responsibility for the organization, administration, and operation of the county program and will be subject to the direction and guidance of such governing body. In the event that any county fails to establish an emergency management agency, and the Governor, in the Governor's discretion, determines that a need exists for such an emergency management agency, then the Governor is hereby empowered to establish an emergency management agency within that county.

(c) Municipalities May Establish and Maintain Emergency Management Agencies. – All incorporated municipalities are authorized to establish and maintain emergency management agencies subject to coordination by the county.

(d) Joint Agencies Authorized. – Counties and incorporated municipalities are authorized to form joint emergency management agencies composed of a county and one or more municipalities within the county's borders, between two or more counties, or between two or more counties and one or more municipalities within the borders of those counties.

(e) Local Appropriations Authorized. – Each county and incorporated municipality in this State is authorized to make appropriations for the purposes of this Article and to fund them by levy of property taxes pursuant to G.S. 153A-149 and G.S. 160A-209 and by the allocation of other revenues, whose use is not otherwise restricted by law.

(f) Additional Powers. – In carrying out the provisions of this Article each political subdivision is authorized to do the following:

(1) To appropriate and expend funds, make contracts, obtain and distribute equipment, materials, and supplies for emergency management purposes and to provide for the health and safety of persons and property, including emergency assistance, consistent with this Article.

(2) To direct and coordinate the development of emergency management plans and programs in accordance with the policies and standards set by the Division, consistent with federal and State laws and regulations.

(3) To assign and make available all available resources for emergency management purposes for service within or outside of the physical limits of the subdivision.

(4) To delegate powers in a local state of emergency declared pursuant to G.S. 166A-19.21.

(5) To coordinate the voluntary registration of functionally and medically fragile persons in need of assistance during an emergency either through a registry established by this subdivision or by the State. All records, data, information, correspondence, and communications relating to the registration of persons with special needs or of functionally and medically fragile persons obtained pursuant to this subdivision are confidential and are not a public record pursuant to G.S. 132-1 or any other applicable statute, except that this information shall be available to emergency response agencies, as determined by the local emergency management director. This information shall be used only for the purposes set forth in this subdivision.

(g) County Eligibility for State and Federal Financial Assistance. – Each county which establishes an emergency management agency pursuant to State standards and which meets requirements for local plans and programs may be eligible to receive State and federal financial assistance, including State and federal funding appropriated for emergency management planning and preparedness, and for the maintenance and operation of a county emergency management program. Such financial assistance is subject to an appropriation being made for this purpose. Where the appropriation does not allocate appropriated funds among counties, the amount allocated to each county shall be determined annually by the Division. The size of this allocation shall be based in part on the degree to which local plans and programs meet State standards and requirements promulgated by the Division, including those relating to professional competencies of local emergency management personnel. However, in making an allocation determination, the Division shall, where appropriate, take into account the fact that a particular county may lack sufficient resources to meet the standards and requirements promulgated by the Division.

"Part 4. Declarations of State of Emergency.

"§ 166A-19.20. Gubernatorial or legislative declaration of state of emergency.

(a) Declaration. – A state of emergency may be declared by the Governor, or by a resolution of the General Assembly, if either of these finds that an emergency exists. A Type L emergency may only be declared by the Governor.

(b) Preliminary Damage Assessment. – When a state of emergency other than a Type L emergency is declared pursuant to this section, the Secretary shall provide the Governor and the General Assembly with a preliminary damage assessment as soon as the assessment is available.

(c) Declaration of Emergency Area and Emergency Type. – Upon receipt of a preliminary damage assessment, the Governor shall issue a declaration defining the emergency area and declaring the state of emergency to be one of the types defined in subsection (d) of this section. If the Governor declares the state of emergency to be a Type L emergency, then no preliminary damage assessment is required for that declaration and the declaration of type shall be made at the same time as the emergency is declared.

(d) Types of Emergency. –

(1) Type I Disaster. – A Type I disaster may be declared by the Governor prior to, and independently of, any action taken by the Small Business Administration, the Federal Emergency Management Agency, or any other federal agency, if all of the following criteria are met:

a. A local state of emergency has been declared pursuant to G.S. 166A-19.21 and a written copy of the declaration has been forwarded to the Governor.

b. The preliminary damage assessment meets or exceeds the criteria established for the Small Business Administration Disaster Loan Program pursuant to 13 C.F.R. Part 123 or meets or exceeds the State infrastructure criteria set out in G.S. 166A-19.41(b)(2)a.

c. A major disaster declaration by the President of the United States pursuant to the Stafford Act has not been declared.

(2) Type II Disaster. – A Type II disaster may be declared if the President of the United States has issued a major disaster declaration pursuant to the Stafford Act. The Governor may request federal disaster assistance under the Stafford Act without making a Type II disaster declaration.

(3) Type III Disaster. – A Type III disaster may be declared if the President of the United States has issued a major disaster declaration under the Stafford Act and either of the following is true:

a. The preliminary damage assessment indicates that the extent of damage is reasonably expected to meet the threshold established for an increased federal share of disaster assistance under applicable federal law and regulations.

b. The preliminary damage assessment prompts the Governor to call a special session of the General Assembly to establish programs to meet the unmet needs of individuals or political subdivisions affected by the emergency.

(4) Type L Emergency. – A Type L emergency may be declared if the Governor determines that an emergency exists in any part of North Carolina and further finds that local control of the emergency is insufficient to assure adequate protection for lives and property. Local control shall be deemed insufficient only if the Governor finds that at least one of the following is true: (i) needed control cannot be imposed locally because local authorities responsible for preservation of the public peace have not enacted appropriate ordinances or issued appropriate declarations as authorized by G.S. 166A-19.31; (ii) local authorities have not taken implementing steps under such ordinances or declarations, if enacted or declared, for effectual control of the emergency that has arisen; (iii) the area in which the emergency exists has spread across local jurisdictional boundaries and the legal control measures of the jurisdictions are conflicting or uncoordinated to the extent that efforts to protect life and property are, or unquestionably will be, severely hampered; or (iv) the scale of the emergency is so great that it exceeds the capability of local authorities to cope with it.

(e) Expiration of States of Emergency. –

(1) Expiration of Type I disaster declarations. – A Type I disaster declaration shall expire 30 days after its issuance unless renewed by the Governor or the General Assembly. Such renewals may be made in increments of 30 days each, not to exceed a total of 120 days from the date of first issuance. The Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations shall be notified prior to the issuance of any renewal of a Type I disaster declaration.

(2) Expiration of Type II disaster declarations. – A Type II disaster declaration shall expire six months after its issuance unless renewed by the Governor or the General Assembly. Such renewals may be made in increments of three months each, not to exceed a total of 12 months from the date of first issuance. The Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations shall be notified prior to the issuance of any renewal of a Type II disaster declaration.

(3) Expiration of Type III disaster declarations. – A Type III disaster declaration shall expire 12 months after its issuance unless renewed by the General Assembly.

(4) Expiration of Type L emergency declarations. – A Type L emergency declaration shall expire 10 days after its issuance unless renewed by the Governor one or more times. Renewals expire 10 days after issuance.

(5) Expiration of disaster declarations declared prior to July 1, 2001. – Any state of disaster declared or proclaimed before July 1, 2001, irrespective of type, shall terminate by a declaration of the Governor or resolution of the General Assembly. A declaration or resolution declaring or terminating a state of disaster shall be disseminated promptly by means calculated to bring its contents to the attention of the general public and, unless the circumstances attendant upon the disaster prevent or impede, promptly filed with the Secretary, the Secretary of State, and the clerks of superior court in the area to which it applies.

(f) Relation of Type L Emergency to Other Types of Emergency. – The declaration of a Type L emergency shall not preclude a simultaneous or subsequent declaration of a Type I, II, or III disaster in the same emergency area.

(g) Exercise of Powers Not Contingent on Declaration of Disaster Type. – Once a state of emergency has been declared pursuant to subsection (a) of this section, the fact that a declaration of disaster type has not yet been issued shall not preclude the exercise of powers that are otherwise conferred during a state of emergency.

"§ 166A-19.21. Municipal or county declaration of state of emergency.

(a) Declaration. – A state of emergency may be declared by the governing body of a municipality or county if either of these finds that an emergency exists. Authority to declare a state of emergency under this section may also be delegated by ordinance to the mayor of a municipality or to the chairman of the board of county commissioners of a county.

(b) Emergency Area. – The emergency area of a state of emergency declared pursuant to this section, or pursuant to an ordinance authorized by this section, shall be determined in accordance with the following:

(1) Unless another subdivision of this subsection is applicable, the emergency area shall not exceed the area over which the municipality or county has jurisdiction to enact general police-power ordinances, and unless the governing body declaring the state of emergency provides otherwise, the emergency area includes this entire jurisdiction, subject to the limitations contained in the other subdivisions in this subsection.

(2) The emergency area of a state of emergency declared by a county shall not include any area within the corporate limits of any municipality, or within any area of the county over which a municipality has jurisdiction to enact general police-power ordinances, unless the municipality by resolution consents to the state of emergency's application. Such an extension may be with respect to one or more of the prohibitions and restrictions imposed in that county pursuant to the authority granted in G.S. 166A-19.31 and need not be with respect to all prohibitions and restrictions authorized by that section.

(3) The chairman of the board of commissioners of any county who has been requested to do so by a mayor may by declaration extend the emergency area of a state of emergency declared by a municipality to any area within the county in which the chairman determines it to be necessary to assist in the controlling of the emergency within the municipality. The extension may be with respect to one or more of the prohibitions and restrictions imposed in that mayor's municipality pursuant to the authority granted in G.S. 166A-19.31 and need not be with respect to all prohibitions and restrictions authorized by that section. Extension of the emergency area pursuant to this subdivision shall be subject to the following additional limitations:

a. The extension of the emergency area shall not include any area within the corporate limits of a municipality, or within any area of the county over which a municipality has jurisdiction to enact general police-power ordinances, unless that other municipality consents to its application.

b. A chairman of a board of county commissioners extending the emergency area under the authority of this subdivision shall take reasonable steps to give notice of its terms to those likely to be affected.

c. The chairman of the board of commissioners shall declare the termination of any prohibitions and restrictions extended pursuant to this subdivision upon the earlier of:

1. The chairman's determination that they are no longer necessary.
2. The determination of the board of county commissioners that they are no longer necessary.
3. The termination of the prohibitions and restrictions within the municipality.

d. The powers authorized under this subdivision may be exercised whether or not the county has enacted ordinances under the authority of G.S. 166A-19.31. Exercise of this authority shall not preclude the imposition of prohibitions and restrictions under any ordinances enacted by the county under the authority of G.S. 166A-19.31.

(c) Expiration of States of Emergency. – Unless an ordinance adopted pursuant to G.S. 166A-19.31 provides otherwise, a state of emergency declared pursuant to this section shall expire when it is terminated by the official or governing body that declared it.

(d) Effect of Declaration. – The declaration of a state of emergency pursuant to this section shall activate the local ordinances authorized in G.S. 166A-19.31 and any and all applicable local plans, mutual assistance compacts and agreements and shall also authorize the furnishing of assistance thereunder.

"Part 5. Additional Powers During States of Emergency.

"§ 166A-19.30. Additional powers of the Governor during state of emergency.

(a) In addition to any other powers conferred upon the Governor by law, during a gubernatorially or legislatively declared state of emergency, other than a Type L emergency, the Governor shall have the following powers:

(1) To utilize all available State resources as reasonably necessary to cope with an emergency, including the transfer and direction of personnel or functions of State agencies or units thereof for the purpose of performing or facilitating emergency services.

(2) To take such action and give such directions to State and local law enforcement officers and agencies as may be reasonable and necessary for the purpose of securing compliance with the provisions of this Article and with the orders, rules, and regulations made pursuant thereto.

(3) To take steps to assure that measures, including the installation of public utilities, are taken when necessary to qualify for temporary housing assistance from the federal government when that assistance is required to protect the public health, welfare, and safety.

(4) Subject to the provisions of the State Constitution to relieve any public official having administrative responsibilities under this Article of such responsibilities for willful failure to obey an order, rule, or regulation adopted pursuant to this Article.

(b) During a gubernatorially or legislatively declared state of emergency other than a Type L emergency, with the concurrence of the Council of State, the Governor has the following powers:

(1) To direct and compel the evacuation of all or part of the population from any stricken or threatened area within the State, to prescribe routes, modes of transportation, and destinations in connection with evacuation; and to control ingress and egress of an emergency area, the movement of persons within the area, and the occupancy of premises therein.

(2) To establish a system of economic controls over all resources, materials, and services to include food, clothing, shelter, fuel, rents, and wages, including the administration and enforcement of any rationing, price freezing, or similar federal order or regulation.

(3) To regulate and control the flow of vehicular and pedestrian traffic, the congregation of persons in public places or buildings, lights and noises of all kinds, and the maintenance, extension, and operation of public utility and transportation services and facilities.

(4) To waive a provision of any regulation or ordinance of a State agency or a political subdivision which restricts the immediate relief of human suffering.

(5) To perform and exercise such other functions, powers, and duties as are necessary to promote and secure the safety and protection of the civilian population.

(6) To appoint or remove an executive head of any State agency or institution the executive head of which is regularly selected by a State board or commission.

a. Such an acting executive head will serve during the following:

1. The physical or mental incapacity of the regular office holder, as determined by the Governor after such inquiry as the Governor deems appropriate.

2. The continued absence of the regular holder of the office.
3. A vacancy in the office pending selection of a new executive head.

b. An acting executive head of a State agency or institution appointed in accordance with this subdivision may perform any act and exercise any power which a regularly selected holder of such office could lawfully perform and exercise.

c. All powers granted to an acting executive head of a State agency or institution under this section shall expire immediately:
1. Upon the termination of the incapacity as determined by the Governor of the officer in whose stead he acts;
2. Upon the return of the officer in whose stead he acts; or
3. Upon the selection and qualification of a person to serve for the unexpired term, or the selection of an acting executive head of the agency or institution by the board or commission authorized to make such selection, and his qualification.

(7) To procure, by purchase, condemnation, seizure, or by other means to construct, lease, transport, store, maintain, renovate, or distribute materials and facilities for emergency management without regard to the limitation of any existing law.

(c) In addition to any other powers conferred upon the Governor by law, during a Type L emergency the Governor shall have the following powers:

(1) To impose by declaration prohibitions and restrictions in the emergency area. These prohibitions and restrictions may, in the Governor's discretion, as appropriate to deal with the emergency, impose any of the types of prohibitions and restrictions enumerated in G.S. 166A-19.31(b), and may amend or rescind any prohibitions and restrictions imposed by local authorities. Prohibitions and restrictions imposed pursuant to this subdivision shall take effect in accordance with the provisions of G.S. 166A-19.31(d) and shall expire upon the earliest occurrence of either of the following: (i) the prohibition or restriction is terminated by the Governor or (ii) the state of emergency is terminated.

(2) Give to all participating State and local agencies and officers such directions as may be necessary to assure coordination among them. These directions may include the designation of the officer or agency responsible for directing and controlling the participation of all public agencies and officers in the emergency. The Governor may make this designation in any manner which, in the Governor's discretion, seems most likely to be effective. Any law enforcement officer participating in the control of a state of emergency in which the Governor is exercising control under this section shall have the same power and authority as a sheriff throughout the territory to which the law enforcement officer is assigned.

(d) Violation. – Any person who violates any provision of a declaration or executive order issued pursuant to this section shall be guilty of a Class 2 misdemeanor in accordance with G.S. 14-288.20A.

"§ 166A-19.31. Power of municipalities and counties to enact ordinances to deal with states of emergency.

(a) Authority to Enact Prohibitions and Restrictions. – The governing body of any municipality or county may enact ordinances designed to permit the imposition of prohibitions and restrictions within the emergency area during a state of emergency declared pursuant to G.S. 166A-19.21. Authority to impose by declaration prohibitions and restrictions under this section, and to impose those prohibitions and restrictions at a particular time as appropriate, may be delegated by ordinance to the mayor of a municipality or to the chairman of the board of county commissioners of a county.

(b) Type of Prohibitions and Restrictions Authorized. – The ordinances authorized by this section may permit prohibitions and restrictions:

(1) Of movements of people in public places, including directing and compelling the evacuation of all or part of the population from any stricken or threatened area within the governing body's jurisdiction, to prescribe routes, modes of transportation, and destinations in connection with evacuation; and to control ingress and egress of an emergency area, and the movement of persons within the area.

(2) Of the operation of offices, business establishments, and other places to or from which people may travel or at which they may congregate.

(3) Upon the possession, transportation, sale, purchase, and consumption of alcoholic beverages.

(4) Upon the possession, transportation, sale, purchase, storage, and use of dangerous weapons and substances, and gasoline. As used in this subdivision, the term 'dangerous weapon and substance' has the same meaning as it does under G.S. 14-288.1.

(5) Upon other activities or conditions the control of which may be reasonably necessary to maintain order and protect lives or property during the state of emergency.

The ordinances authorized by this section need not require or provide for the imposition of all of the types of prohibitions or restrictions, or any particular prohibition or restriction, authorized by this section during an emergency but may instead authorize the official or officials who impose those prohibitions or restrictions to determine and impose the prohibitions or restrictions deemed necessary or suitable to a particular state of emergency.

(c) When Ordinances Take Effect. – Notwithstanding any other provision of law, whether general or special, relating to the promulgation or publication of ordinances by any municipality or county, upon the declaration of a state of emergency by the mayor or chairman of the board of county commissioners within the municipality or the county, any ordinance enacted under the authority of this section shall take effect immediately unless the ordinance sets a later time. If the effect of this section is to cause an ordinance to go into effect sooner than it otherwise could under the law applicable to the municipality or county, the mayor or chairman of the board of county commissioners, as the case may be, shall take steps to cause reports of the substance of the ordinance to be disseminated in a fashion that its substance will likely be communicated to the public in general, or to those who may be particularly affected by the ordinance if it does not affect the public generally. As soon as practicable thereafter, appropriate distribution or publication of the full text of any such ordinance shall be made.

(d) When Prohibitions and Restrictions Take Effect. – All prohibitions and restrictions imposed by declaration pursuant to ordinances adopted under this section shall take effect in the emergency area immediately upon publication of the declaration unless the declaration sets a later time. For the purpose of requiring compliance, publication may consist of reports of the substance of the prohibitions and restrictions in the mass communications media serving the emergency area or other effective methods of disseminating the necessary information quickly. As soon as practicable, however, appropriate distribution of the full text of any declaration shall be made. This subsection shall not be governed by the provisions of G.S. 1-597.

(e) Expiration of Prohibitions and Restrictions. – Prohibitions and restrictions imposed pursuant to this section shall expire upon the earliest occurrence of any of the following:

(1) The prohibition or restriction is terminated by the governing body of the county or municipality.

(2) The state of emergency terminates.

(f) Intent to Supplement Other Authority. – This section is intended to supplement and confirm the powers conferred by G.S. 153A-121(a), G.S. 160A-174(a), and all other general and local laws authorizing municipalities and counties to enact ordinances for the protection of the public health and safety in times of riot or other grave civil disturbance or emergency.

(g) Previously Enacted Ordinances Remain in Effect. – Any ordinance of a type authorized by this section promulgated prior to [Date Bill Becomes Law], 2011, shall, if otherwise valid, continue in full force and effect without reenactment.

(h) Violation. – Any person who violates any provision of an ordinance or a declaration enacted or declared pursuant to this section shall be guilty of a Class 2 misdemeanor in accordance with G.S. 14-288.20A.

"Part 6. Funding of Emergency Preparedness and Response.

"§ 166A-19.40. Use of contingency and emergency funds.

(a) Use of Funds for Relief and Assistance. –The Governor may use contingency and emergency funds as necessary and appropriate to provide relief and assistance from the effects of an emergency and may reallocate such other funds as may reasonably be available within the appropriations of the various departments when the severity and magnitude of the emergency so requires and the contingency and emergency funds are insufficient or inappropriate.

(b) Use of Funds for National Guard Training. – In preparation for a state of emergency, with the concurrence of the Council of State, the Governor may use contingency and emergency funds as necessary and appropriate for National Guard training in preparation for emergencies.

"§ 166A-19.41. State emergency assistance funds.

(a) Governor May Make Funds Available for Emergency Assistance. – In the event of a gubernatorially or legislatively declared state of emergency, the Governor may make State funds available for emergency assistance as authorized by this section. Any State funds made available by the Governor for emergency assistance may be administered through State emergency assistance programs which may be established by the Governor upon the declaration of a state of emergency. It is the intent of the General Assembly in authorizing the Governor to make State funds available for emergency assistance and in authorizing the Governor to establish State emergency assistance programs to provide State assistance for recovery from those emergencies for which federal assistance under the Stafford Act is either not available or does not adequately meet the needs of the citizens of the State in the emergency area.

(b) Emergency Assistance in a Type I Disaster. – In the event that a Type I disaster is declared, the Governor may make State funds available for emergency assistance in the emergency area in the form of individual assistance and public assistance as provided in this subsection.

(1) Individual assistance. – State emergency assistance in the form of grants to individuals and families may be made available when damage meets or exceeds the criteria set out in 13 C.F.R. Part 123 for the Small Business Administration Disaster Loan Program. Individual assistance grants shall include benefits comparable to those provided by the Stafford Act and may be provided for the following:

a. Provision of temporary housing and rental assistance.

b. Repair or replacement of dwellings. Grants for repair or replacement of housing may include amounts necessary to locate the individual or family in safe, decent, and sanitary housing.

c. Replacement of personal property (including clothing, tools, and equipment).

d. Repair or replacement of privately owned vehicles.

e. Medical or dental expenses.
f. Funeral or burial expenses resulting from the emergency.
g. Funding for the cost of the first year's flood insurance premium to meet the requirements of the National Flood Insurance Act of 1968, as amended, 42 U.S.C. § 4001, et seq.

(2) Public assistance. – State emergency assistance in the form of public assistance grants may be made available to eligible entities located within the emergency area on the following terms and conditions:

a. Eligible entities shall meet the following qualifications:
1. The eligible entity suffers a minimum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) in uninsurable losses;
2. The eligible entity suffers uninsurable losses in an amount equal to or exceeding one percent (1%) of the annual operating budget;
3. For a state of emergency declared pursuant to G.S. 166A-19.20(a) after the deadline established by the Federal Emergency Management Agency pursuant to the Disaster Mitigation Act of 2002, P.L. 106-390, the eligible entity shall have a hazard mitigation plan approved pursuant to the Stafford Act; and
4. For a state of emergency declared pursuant to G.S. 166A-19.20(a), other than a Type L emergency, after August 1, 2002, the eligible entity shall be participating in the National Flood Insurance Program in order to receive public assistance for flooding damage.

b. Eligible entities shall be required to provide non-State matching funds equal to twenty-five percent (25%) of the eligible costs of the public assistance grant.

c. An eligible entity that receives a public assistance grant pursuant to this subsection may use the grant for the following purposes only:
1. Debris clearance.
2. Emergency protective measures.
3. Roads and bridges.
4. Crisis counseling.
5. Assistance with public transportation needs.

(c) Emergency Assistance in a Type II Disaster. – If a Type II disaster is declared, the Governor may make State funds available for emergency assistance in the emergency area in the form of the following types of grants:

(1) State Acquisition and Relocation Funds.
(2) Supplemental repair and replacement housing grants available to individuals or families in an amount necessary to locate the individual or family in safe, decent, and sanitary housing not to exceed twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) per family.

(d) Emergency Assistance in a Type III Disaster. – If a Type III disaster is declared, the Governor may make State funds available for emergency assistance in the emergency area in the form of the following types of grants:

(1) State Acquisition and Relocation Funds.
(2) Supplemental repair and replacement housing grants available to individuals or families in an amount necessary to locate the individual or family in safe, decent, and sanitary housing not to exceed twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) per family.

(3) Any programs authorized by the General Assembly.

"§ 166A-19.42. State Emergency Response Account.

(a) Account Established. – There is established a State Emergency Response Account as a reserve in the General Fund. Any funds appropriated to the Account shall remain available for expenditure as provided by this section, unless directed otherwise by the General Assembly.

(b) Use of Funds. – The Governor may spend funds from the Account for the following purposes:

(1) To cover the start-up costs of State Emergency Response Team operations for an emergency that poses an imminent threat of a Type I, Type II, or Type III disaster.

(2) To cover the cost of first responders to a Type I, Type II, or Type III disaster and any related supplies and equipment needed by first responders that are not provided for under subdivision (1) of this subsection.

All other types of emergency assistance authorized by this Part shall continue to be financed by the funds made available under G.S. 166A-19.41.

(c) Reporting Requirement. – The Governor shall report to the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations and to the Chairs of the Appropriations Committees of the Senate and House of Representatives on any expenditures from the State Emergency Response Account no later than 30 days after making the expenditure. The report shall include a description of the emergency and type of action taken.

"Part 7. Immunity and Liability.

"§ 166A-19.60. Immunity and exemption.

(a) Generally. – All functions hereunder and all other activities relating to emergency management as provided for in this Chapter or elsewhere in the General Statutes are hereby declared to be governmental functions. Neither the State nor any political subdivision thereof, nor, except in cases of willful misconduct, gross negligence, or bad faith, any emergency management worker, firm, partnership, association, or corporation complying with or reasonably attempting to comply with this Article or any order, rule, or regulation promulgated pursuant to the provisions of this Article or pursuant to any ordinance relating to any emergency management measures enacted by any political subdivision of the State, shall be liable for the death of or injury to persons, or for damage to property as a result of any such activity.

(b) Immunity. – The immunity provided to firms, partnerships, associations, or corporations, under subsection (a) of this section, is subject to all of the following conditions:

(1) The immunity applies only when the firm, partnership, association, or corporation is acting without compensation or with compensation limited to no more than actual expenses and one of the following applies:

a. Emergency management services are provided at any place in this State during a state of emergency declared by the Governor or General Assembly pursuant to this Article, and the services are provided under the direction and control of the Secretary pursuant to G.S. 166A-19.10, 166A-19.11, 166A-19.12, 166A-19.20, 166A-19.30, and 143B-476, or the Governor.

b. Emergency management services are provided during a state of emergency declared pursuant to G.S. 166A-19.21, and the services are provided under the direction and control of the governing body of a municipality or county under G.S. 166A-19.31, or the chair of a board of county commissioners under G.S. 166A-19.21(b)(3).

c. The firm, partnership, association, or corporation is engaged in planning, preparation, training, or exercises with the Division, the Division of Public Health, or the governing body of each county or municipality under G.S. 166A-19.15 related to the performance of emergency management services or measures.

(2) The immunity shall not apply to any firm, partnership, association, or corporation, or to any employee or agent thereof, whose act or omission caused in whole or in part the actual or imminent emergency or whose act or omission necessitated emergency management measures.

(3) To the extent that any firm, partnership, association, or corporation has liability insurance, that firm, partnership, association, or corporation shall be deemed to have waived the immunity to the extent of the indemnification by insurance for its negligence. An insurer shall not under a contract of insurance exclude from liability coverage the acts or omissions of a firm, partnership, association, or corporation for which the firm, partnership, association, or corporation would only be liable to the extent indemnified by insurance as provided by this subdivision.

(c) No Effect on Benefits. – The rights of any person to receive benefits to which the person would otherwise be entitled under this Article or under the Workers' Compensation Law or under any pension law and the right of any such person to receive any benefits or compensation under any act of Congress shall not be affected by performance of emergency management functions.

(d) License Requirements Suspended. – Any requirement for a license to practice any professional, mechanical, or other skill shall not apply to any authorized emergency management worker who shall, in the course of performing the worker's duties as such, practice such professional, mechanical, or other skill during a state of emergency.

(e) Definition of Emergency Management Worker. – As used in this section, the term 'emergency management worker' shall include any full- or part-time paid, volunteer, or auxiliary employee of this State or other states, territories, possessions, or the District of Columbia, of the federal government or any neighboring country or of any political subdivision thereof, or of any agency or organization performing emergency management services at any place in this State, subject to the order or control of or pursuant to a request of the State government or any political subdivision thereof. The term 'emergency management worker' under this section shall also include any health care worker performing health care services as a member of a hospital-based or county-based State Medical Assistance Team designated by the North Carolina Office of Emergency Medical Services and any person performing emergency health care services under G.S. 90-12.2.

(f) Powers of Individuals Operating Pursuant to Mutual Aid Agreements. – Any emergency management worker, as defined in this section, performing emergency management services at any place in this State pursuant to agreements, compacts, or arrangements for mutual aid and assistance to which the State or a political subdivision thereof is a party, shall possess the same powers, duties, immunities, and privileges the person would ordinarily possess if performing duties in the State, or political subdivision thereof, in which normally employed or rendering services.

"§ 166A-19.61. No private liability.

Any person, firm, or corporation owning or controlling real or personal property who, voluntarily or involuntarily, knowingly or unknowingly, with or without compensation, grants a license or privilege or otherwise permits or allows the designation or use of the whole or any part or parts of such real or personal property for the purpose of sheltering, protecting, safeguarding, or aiding in any way persons shall, together with his successors in interest, if any, not be civilly liable for the death of or injury to any person or the loss of or damage to the property of any persons where such death, injury, loss, or damage resulted from, through, or because of the use of the said real or personal property for any of the above purposes.

"§ 166A-19.62. Civil liability of persons who willfully ignore a warning in a disaster.

In an emergency, a person who willfully ignores a warning regarding personal safety issued by a federal, State, or local law enforcement agency, emergency management agency, or other governmental agency responsible for emergency management under this Article is civilly liable for the cost of a rescue effort to any governmental agency or nonprofit agency cooperating with a governmental agency conducting a rescue on the endangered person's behalf if all of the following are true:

(1) The person ignores the warning and (i) engages in an activity or course of action that a reasonable person would not pursue or (ii) fails to take a course of action that a reasonable person would pursue.

(2) As a result of ignoring the warning the person places himself or herself or another in danger.

(3) A governmental rescue effort is undertaken on the endangered person's behalf.

"Part 8. Miscellaneous Provisions.

"§ 166A-19.70. Ensuring availability of emergency supplies and utility services.

(a) Executive Order. – In addition to any other powers conferred on the Governor by law, whenever a curfew has been imposed, the Governor may declare by executive order that the health, safety, or economic well-being of persons or property in this State require that persons transporting essentials in commerce to the curfew area, or assisting in ensuring their availability, and persons assisting in restoring utility services, be allowed to enter or remain in areas from which they would otherwise be excluded for the limited purpose of delivering the essentials, assisting in ensuring their availability, or assisting in restoring utility services.

(b) Maximum Hours of Service Waiver. – As part of an executive order issued pursuant to subsection (a) of this section, or independently of such an order, the Governor may declare by executive order that the health, safety, or economic well-being of persons or property in this State require that the maximum hours of service prescribed by the Department of Crime Control and Public Safety pursuant to G.S. 20-381 and similar rules be waived for persons transporting essentials or assisting in the restoration of utility services.

(c) Certification System. – The Secretary of Crime Control and Public Safety shall develop a system pursuant to which a person who transports essentials in commerce, or assists in ensuring their availability, and persons who assist in the restoring of utility services can be certified as such. The certification system shall allow for both preemergency declaration and postemergency declaration certification and may include an annually renewable precertification. The Secretary shall only allow those who routinely transport or distribute essentials or assist in the restoring of utility services to be certified. A certification of the employer shall constitute a certification of the employer's employees. The Secretary shall create an easily recognizable indicium of certification in order to assist local officials' efforts to determine which persons have received certification by the system established under this subsection.

(d) Presence in Curfew Area Permitted. – Notwithstanding the existence of any curfew, a person who is certified pursuant to the system established under subsection (c) of this section shall be allowed to enter or remain in the curfew area for the limited purpose of delivering or assisting in the distribution of essentials or assisting in the restoration of utility services and shall be allowed to provide service that exceeds otherwise applicable hours of service maximums, to the extent authorized by an executive order executed pursuant to subsection (a) of this section. Nothing in this section prohibits law enforcement or other local officials from specifying the permissible route of ingress or egress for persons with certifications.

(e) Abnormal Market Disruptions with Respect to Petroleum. – If the Governor declares the existence of an abnormal market disruption with respect to petroleum pursuant to, G.S. 75-38(f), the Governor shall contemporaneously seek all applicable waivers under the federal Clean Air Act, 42 U.S.C. § 7401, et seq., and any other applicable federal law to facilitate the transportation of fuel within this State in order to address or prevent a fuel supply emergency in this State. Waiver requests shall be directed to the appropriate federal agencies and shall seek waivers of the following:

(1) The Reformulated Gasoline requirements throughout the State.

(2) The Federal and State Implementation Plan summertime gasoline requirements (low RVP) throughout the State.

(3) Any other waiver that will, if obtained, facilitate the transportation of fuel within this State.

(f) Definitions. – The following definitions apply in this section:

(1) Curfew. – Any restriction on ingress and egress to the emergency area of a state of emergency or any restriction on the movement of persons within such an area.

(2) Curfew area. – The area that is subject to a curfew.

(3) Essentials. – Any goods that are consumed or used as a direct result of an emergency or which are consumed or used to preserve, protect, or sustain life, health, safety, or economic well-being of persons or their property. The Secretary shall determine what goods constitute essentials for purposes of this section.

"§ 166A-19.71. Accept services, gifts, grants, and loans.

Whenever the federal government or any agency or officer thereof or of any person, firm, or corporation shall offer to the State, or through the State to any political subdivision thereof, services, equipment, supplies, materials, or funds by way of gift, grant, or loan, for emergency management purposes, the State acting through the Governor, or such political subdivision, acting with the consent of the Governor and through its governing body, may accept such offer. Upon such acceptance the Governor of the State or governing body of such political subdivision may authorize any officer of the State or of the political subdivision, as the case may be, to receive such services, equipment, supplies, materials, or funds on behalf of the State or of such political subdivision, and subject to the terms of the offer and the rules and regulations, if any, of the agency making the offer.

"§ 166A-19.72. Establishment of mutual aid agreements.

(a) Governor Authorized to Enter Agreements with Other States and Federal Government. – The Governor may establish mutual aid agreements with other states and with the federal government provided that any special agreements so negotiated are within the Governor's authority.

(b) Governor Authorized to Enter Agreements with Political Subdivisions. – The Governor may establish mutual aid agreements with political subdivisions in the State with the concurrence of the subdivision's governing body.

(c) Political Subdivisions Authorized to Enter Agreements with Other Political Subdivisions. – The chief executive of each political subdivision, with the concurrence of the subdivision's governing body, may develop mutual aid agreements for reciprocal emergency management aid and assistance. Such agreements shall be consistent with the State emergency management program and plans.

(d) Political Subdivisions Authorized to Enter Agreements with Political Subdivisions in Other States. – The chief executive officer of each political subdivision, with the concurrence of the governing body and subject to the approval of the Governor, may enter into mutual aid agreements with local chief executive officers in other states for reciprocal emergency management aid and assistance. These agreements shall be consistent with the State emergency management program and plans.

(e) Terms of Agreements. – Mutual aid agreements may include, but are not limited to, the furnishing or exchange of such supplies, equipment, facilities, personnel, and services as may be needed; the reimbursement of costs and expenses for equipment, supplies, personnel, and similar items; and on such terms and conditions as deemed necessary.

"§ 166A-19.73. Compensation.

(a) Extent of Compensation. – Compensation for services or for the taking or use of property shall be only to the extent that legal obligations of individual citizens are exceeded in a particular case and then only to the extent that the claimant has not been deemed to have volunteered his services or property without compensation.

(b) Limitation; Basis of Compensation. – Compensation for property shall be only if the property was commandeered, seized, taken, condemned, or otherwise used in coping with an emergency and this action was ordered by the Governor. The State shall make compensation for the property so seized, taken, or condemned on the following basis:

(1) In case property is taken for temporary use, the Governor, within 30 days of the taking, shall fix the amount of compensation to be paid for such damage or failure to return. Whenever the Governor shall deem it advisable for the State to take title to property taken under this section, the Governor shall forthwith cause the owner of such property to be notified thereof in writing by registered mail, postage prepaid, or by the best means available, and forthwith cause to be filed a copy of said notice with the Secretary of State.

(2) If the person entitled to receive the amounts so determined by the Governor as just compensation is unwilling to accept the same as full and complete compensation for such property or the use thereof, the person shall be paid seventy-five percent (75%) of such amount and shall be entitled to recover from the State of North Carolina in an action brought in the superior court in the county of residence of claimant, or in Wake County, in the same manner as other condemnation claims are brought, within three years after the date of the Governor's award.

"§ 166A-19.74. Nondiscrimination in emergency management.

State and local governmental bodies and other organizations and personnel who carry out emergency management functions under the provisions of this Article are required to do so in an equitable and impartial manner. Such State and local governmental bodies, organizations, and personnel shall not discriminate on the grounds of race, color, religion, nationality, sex, age, or economic status in the distribution of supplies, the processing of applications, and other relief and assistance activities.

"§ 166A-19.75. Emergency management personnel.

(a) Limitation. – No person shall be employed or associated in any capacity in any emergency management agency established under this Article if that person does or has done any of the following:

(1) Advocates or has advocated a change by force or violence in the constitutional form of the Government of the United States or in this State.

(2) Advocates or has advocated the overthrow of any government in the United States by force or violence.

(3) Has been convicted of any subversive act against the United States.

(4) Is under indictment or information charging any subversive act against the United States.

(5) Has ever been a member of the Communist Party.

(b) Oath. – Each person who is appointed to serve in any emergency management agency shall, before entering upon the person's duties, take a written oath before a person authorized to administer oaths in this State, which oath shall be substantially as follows:

'I, _____, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of North Carolina, against all enemies, foreign and domestic; and that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion; and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties upon which I am about to enter. And I do further swear (or affirm) that I do not advocate, nor am I, nor have I ever knowingly been, a member of any political party or organization that advocates the overthrow of the Government of the United States or of this State by force or violence; and that during such time as I am a member of the State Emergency Management Agency I will not advocate nor become a member of any political party or organization that advocates the overthrow of the Government of the United States or of this State by force or violence, so help me God.'

(c) No Violation of Dual Office Holding Prohibition. – No position created by or pursuant to this Article shall be deemed an office within the meaning of Section 9 of Article 6 of the North Carolina Constitution.

"§ 166A-19.76. Leave options for voluntary firefighters, rescue squad workers, and emergency medical service personnel called into service.

(a) Leave Without Pay. – A member of a volunteer fire department, rescue squad, or emergency medical services agency called into service of the State after a declaration of a state of emergency by the Governor or by the General Assembly, or upon the activation of the State Emergency Response Team in response to an emergency, shall have the right to take leave without pay from his or her civilian employment. No member of a volunteer fire department, rescue squad, or emergency medical services agency shall be forced to use or exhaust his or her vacation or other accrued leave from his or her civilian employment for a period of active service. The choice of leave shall be solely within the discretion of the member.

(b) Request in Writing Required. – For the volunteer member to be entitled to take leave without pay pursuant to this section, his or her services shall be requested in writing by the Director of the Division or by the head of a local emergency management agency. The request shall be directed to the Chief of the member's volunteer fire department, rescue squad, or emergency medical services agency and a copy shall be provided to the member's employer. This section shall not apply to those members whose services have been certified by their employer to the Director of the Division, or to the head of a local emergency management agency, as essential to the employer's own ongoing emergency relief activities.

(c) Definition of an Emergency Requiring Activation of the State Emergency Response Team. – For purposes of this section, an emergency requiring the activation of the State Emergency Response Team means an emergency at Activation Level 2 or greater according to the North Carolina State Emergency Operations Plan of November 2002. Activation Level 2 requires the State Emergency Operations Center to be fully activated with 24-hour staffing from all State Emergency Response Team members.

(d) Enforcement. – The Commissioner of Labor shall enforce the provisions of this section pursuant to Chapter 95 of the General Statutes.

"§ 166A-19.77. Division of Forest Resources designated as emergency response agency.

The Division of Forest Resources of the Department of Environment and Natural Resources is designated an emergency response agency of the State of North Carolina for purposes of the following:

(1) Supporting the Division of Emergency Management of the Department of Crime Control and Public Safety in responding to all-risk incidents.
(2) Receipt of any applicable State or federal funding.
(3) Training of other State and local agencies in emergency management.
(4) Any other emergency response roles for which the Division has special training or qualifications.

"§ 166A-19.78. Governor's power to order evacuation of public building.

When it is determined by the Governor that a great public crisis, disaster, riot, catastrophe, or any other similar public emergency exists, or the occurrence of any such condition is imminent, and, in the Governor's opinion it is necessary to evacuate any building owned or controlled by any department, agency, institution, school, college, board, division, commission, or subdivision of the State in order to maintain public order and safety or to afford adequate protection for lives or property, the Governor is hereby authorized to issue an order of evacuation directing all persons within the building to leave the building and its premises forthwith. The order shall be delivered to any law enforcement officer or officer of the National Guard, and such officer shall, by a suitable public address system, read the order to the occupants of the building and demand that the occupants forthwith evacuate said building within the time specified in the Governor's order.

"§ 166A-19.79. Severability.

If any provision of this Article or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the invalidity does not affect other provisions or applications of the Article which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Article are severable."

SECTION 1.(c) The title of Article 36A of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes reads as rewritten:

"Article 36A.

~~Riots and Civil Disorders.~~Riots, Civil Disorders, and Emergencies."

SECTION 1.(d) Article 36A of Chapter 14 is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 14-288.20A. Violation of emergency prohibitions and restrictions.

Any person who does any of the following is guilty of a Class 2 misdemeanor:

(1) Violates any provision of an ordinance or a declaration enacted or declared pursuant to G.S. 166A-19.31.

(2) Violates any provision of a declaration or executive order issued pursuant to G.S. 166A-19.30

(3) Willfully refuses to leave the building as directed in a Governor's order issued pursuant to G.S. 166A-19.78."

II. CONFORMING CHANGES

SECTION 2.(a) G.S. 14-288.1 reads as rewritten:

"§ 14-288.1. Definitions.

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the ~~definitions in this section apply throughout this Article:~~ following definitions apply in this Article:

(1) ~~"Chairman of the board of county commissioners":~~Chairman of the board of county commissioners. – The chairman of the board of county commissioners or, in case of his absence or disability, the person authorized to act in his stead. Unless the governing body of the county has specified who is to act in lieu of the chairman with respect to a particular power or duty set out in this Article, the term "chairman of the board of county commissioners" shall apply to the person generally authorized to act in lieu of the chairman.

(2) ~~"Dangerous weapon or substance":~~Dangerous weapon or substance. – Any deadly weapon, ammunition, explosive, incendiary device, radioactive material or device, as defined in G.S. 14-288.8(c)(5), or any instrument or substance designed for a use that carries a threat of serious bodily injury or destruction of property; or any instrument or substance that is capable of being used to inflict serious bodily injury, when the circumstances indicate a probability that such instrument or substance will be so used; or any part or ingredient in any instrument or substance included above, when the circumstances indicate a probability that such part or ingredient will be so used.

(3) ~~"Declared state of emergency":~~Declared state of emergency. – A state of emergency as that term is defined in G.S. 166A-19.3 or a state of emergency found and ~~proclaimed by the Governor under the authority of G.S. 14-288.15, by any mayor or other municipal official or officials under the authority of G.S. 14-288.12, by any chairman of the board of commissioners of any county or other county official or officials under the authority of G.S. 14-288.13, by any chairman of the board of county commissioners acting under the authority of G.S. 14-288.14, by~~ declared by any chief executive official or acting chief executive official of any county or municipality acting under the authority of any other applicable statute or provision of the common law to preserve the public peace in a state of emergency, or by any executive official or military commanding officer of the United States or the State of North Carolina who becomes primarily responsible under applicable law for the preservation of the public peace within any part of North Carolina.

(4) ~~"Disorderly conduct":~~Disorderly conduct. – As defined in G.S. 14-288.4(a).

(4a) Emergency. – As defined in G.S. 166A-19.3.

(5) ~~"Law enforcement officer":~~Law enforcement officer. – Any officer of the State of North Carolina or any of its political subdivisions authorized to make arrests; any other person authorized under the laws of North Carolina to make arrests and either acting within his territorial jurisdiction or in an area in which he has been lawfully called to duty by the Governor or any mayor or chairman of the board of county commissioners; any member of the armed forces of the United States, the North Carolina National Guard, or the State defense militia called to duty in a state of emergency in North Carolina and made responsible for enforcing the laws of North Carolina or preserving the public peace; or any officer of the United States authorized to make arrests without warrant and assigned to duties that include preserving the public peace in North Carolina.

(6) ~~"Mayor":~~Mayor. – The mayor or other chief executive official of a municipality or, in case of his absence or disability, the person authorized to act in his stead. Unless the governing body of the municipality has specified who is to act in lieu of the mayor with respect to a particular power or duty set out in this Article, the word "mayor" shall apply to the person generally authorized to act in lieu of the mayor.

(7) ~~"Municipality":~~Municipality. – Any active incorporated city or town, but not including any sanitary district or other municipal corporation that is not a city or town. An "active" municipality is one which has conducted the most recent election required by its charter or the general law, whichever is applicable, and which has the authority to enact general police-power ordinances.

(8) ~~"Public disturbance":~~Public disturbance. – Any annoying, disturbing, or alarming act or condition exceeding the bounds of social toleration normal for the time and place in question which occurs in a public place or which occurs in, affects persons in, or is likely to affect persons in a place to which the public or a substantial group has access. The places covered by this definition shall include, but not be limited to, highways, transport facilities, schools, prisons, apartment houses, places of business or amusement, or any neighborhood.

(9) ~~"Riot":~~Riot. – As defined in G.S. 14-288.2(a).

~~(10) "State of emergency": The condition that exists whenever, during times of public crisis, disaster, rioting, catastrophe, or similar public emergency, public safety authorities are unable to maintain public order or afford adequate protection for lives or property, or whenever the occurrence of any such condition is imminent.~~"

SECTION 2.(c) G.S. 14-288.4(a)(4)c. reads as rewritten:

"(a) Disorderly conduct is a public disturbance intentionally caused by any person who does any of the following:

...

(4) Refuses to vacate any building or facility of any public or private educational institution in obedience to any of the following:

...

c. If ~~a state of~~ an emergency is occurring or is imminent within the institution, an order given by any law-enforcement officer acting within the scope of the officer's authority."

SECTION 2.(c) G.S. 14-288.7 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(d) For purposes of this section, the term 'declared state of emergency' does not include a legislatively or gubernatorially declared state of emergency, other than a Type L emergency, as that term is defined in G.S. 166A-19.20."

SECTION 2.(d) G.S. 14-288.11 reads as rewritten:

"§ 14-288.11. Warrants to inspect vehicles in riot areas or approaching municipalities during emergencies.

(a) Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 4 of Chapter 15, any law-enforcement officer may, under the conditions specified in this section, obtain a warrant authorizing inspection of vehicles under the conditions and for the purpose specified in subsection (b).

(b) The inspection shall be for the purpose of discovering any dangerous weapon or substance likely to be used by one who is or may become unlawfully involved in a riot. The warrant may be sought to inspect:

(1) All vehicles entering or approaching a municipality in which ~~a state of~~ an emergency exists; or

(2) All vehicles which might reasonably be regarded as being within or approaching the immediate vicinity of an existing riot.

(c) The warrant may be issued by any judge or justice of the General Court of Justice.

(d) The issuing official shall issue the warrant only when he has determined that the one seeking the warrant has been specifically authorized to do so by the head of the law-enforcement agency of which the affiant is a member, and:

(1) If the warrant is being sought for the inspection of vehicles entering or approaching a municipality, that ~~a state of~~ an emergency exists within the municipality; or

(2) If the warrant being sought is for the inspection of vehicles within or approaching the immediate vicinity of a riot, that a riot is occurring within that area.

Facts indicating the basis of these determinations must be stated in an affidavit and signed by the affiant under oath or affirmation.

(e) The warrant must be signed by the issuing official and must bear the hour and date of its issuance.

(f) The warrant must indicate whether it is for the inspection of vehicles entering or approaching a municipality or whether it is for the inspection of vehicles within or approaching the immediate vicinity of a riot. In either case, it must also specify with reasonable precision the area within which it may be exercised.

(g) The warrant shall become invalid 24 hours following its issuance and must bear a notation to that effect.

(h) Warrants authorized under this section shall not be regarded as search warrants for the purposes of application of Article 4 of Chapter 15.

(i) Nothing in this section is intended to prevent warrantless frisks, searches, and inspections to the extent that they may be constitutional and consistent with common law and governing statutes."

SECTION 2.(e) G.S. 14-288.12 through G.S. 14-288.17 and G.S. 14-288.19 are repealed.

SECTION 2.(f) G.S. 14-288.18 reads as rewritten:

"§ 14-288.18. Injunction to cope with emergencies at public and private educational institutions.

(a) The chief administrative officer, or his authorized representative, of any public or private educational institution may apply to any superior court judge for injunctive relief if ~~a state of~~ an emergency exists ~~or is imminent~~ within his institution. For the purposes of this section, the superintendent of any city or county administrative school unit shall be deemed the chief administrative officer of any public elementary or secondary school within his unit.

(b) Upon a finding by a superior court judge, to whom application has been made under the provisions of this section, that ~~a state of~~ an emergency exists ~~or is imminent~~ within a public or private educational institution by reason of riot, disorderly conduct by three or more persons, or the imminent threat of riot, the judge may issue an injunction containing provisions appropriate to cope with the emergency then occurring or threatening. The injunction may be addressed to named persons or named or described groups of persons as to whom there is satisfactory cause for believing that they are contributing to the ~~existing or imminent state of~~ emergency, and ordering such persons or groups of persons to take or refrain or desist from taking such various actions as the judge finds it appropriate to include in his order."

SECTION 2.(g) G.S. 20-118.4(a) reads as rewritten:

"§ 20-118.4. Firefighting equipment exempt from size and weight restrictions while transporting or moving heavy equipment in an emergency; permits.

(a) Exemption From Weight and Size Restrictions During Emergency Response. – Any overweight or oversize vehicle owned and operated by a State or local government or cooperating federal agency is exempt from the weight and size restrictions of this Chapter and implementing rules while it is actively engaged in (i) a response to a fire under the authority of a forest ranger pursuant to G.S. 113-55(a); (ii) a county request for forest protection assistance pursuant to G.S. 113-59; (iii) a request for assistance under a state of emergency declared pursuant to G.S. 14-288.12, 14-288.13, 14-288.14, 14-288.15, and any other applicable statutes and provisions of common law; (iv) a request for assistance under a disaster declared pursuant to ~~G.S 166A-6 or G.S. 166A-8,~~ G.S. 166A-19.20 or G.S. 166A-19.21, when the vehicle meets the following conditions:

...."

SECTION 2.(h) G.S. 42A-36 reads as rewritten:

"§ 42A-36. Mandatory evacuations.

If State or local authorities, acting pursuant to ~~Article 36A of Chapter 14 or Article 1 of Chapter 166A~~ Article 1A of Chapter 166A of the General Statutes, order a mandatory evacuation of an area that includes the residential property subject to a vacation rental, the tenant under the vacation rental agreement, whether in possession of the property or not, shall comply with the evacuation order. Upon compliance, the tenant shall be entitled to a refund from the landlord of the rent, taxes, and any other payments made by the tenant pursuant to the vacation rental agreement as a condition of the tenant's right to occupy the property prorated for each night that the tenant is unable to occupy the property because of the mandatory evacuation order. The tenant shall not be entitled to a refund if: (i) prior to the tenant taking possession of the property, the tenant refused insurance offered by the landlord or real estate broker that would have compensated the tenant for losses or damages resulting from loss of use of the property due to a mandatory evacuation order; or (ii) the tenant purchased insurance offered by the landlord or real estate broker. The insurance offered shall be provided by an insurance company duly authorized by the North Carolina Department of Insurance, and the cost of the insurance shall not exceed eight percent (8%) of the total amount charged for the vacation rental to the tenant less the amount paid by the tenant for a security deposit."

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO MAKE VARIOUS CHANGES TO THE EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT STATUTES; AND TO ESTABLISH THE JOINT LEGISLATIVE EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT OVERSIGHT COMMITTEE, AS RECOMMENDED BY THE SENATE SELECT COMMITTEE ON EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS AND RESPONSE.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 166A-6 reads as rewritten:

"§ 166A-6. State of disaster.

(a) The existence of a state of disaster may be proclaimed by the Governor, or by a resolution of the General Assembly if either of these finds that a disaster threatens or exists.

(a1) If a state of disaster is proclaimed, the Secretary shall provide the Governor and the General Assembly with a preliminary damage assessment as soon as the assessment is available. Upon receipt of the preliminary damage assessment, the Governor shall issue a proclamation defining the area subject to the state of disaster and proclaiming the disaster as a Type I, Type II, or Type III disaster. In determining whether the disaster shall be proclaimed as a Type I, Type II, or Type III disaster, the Governor shall follow the standards set forth below.

(1) A Type I disaster may be declared if all of the following criteria are met:

a. A local state of emergency has been declared pursuant to G.S. 166A-8, and a written copy of the declaration has been forwarded to the Governor;

b. The preliminary damage assessment meets or exceeds the criteria established for the Small Business Administration Disaster Loan Program pursuant to 13 C.F.R. Part 123 or meets or exceeds the State infrastructure criteria set out in G.S. 166A-6.01(b)(2)a.; and

c. A major disaster declaration by the President of the United States pursuant to the Stafford Act has not been declared.

A Type I disaster declaration may be made by the Governor prior to, and independently of, any action taken by the Small Business Administration, the Federal Emergency Management Agency, or any other federal agency. A Type I disaster declaration shall expire ~~30 days~~60 days after its issuance unless renewed by the Governor or the General Assembly. Such renewals may be made in increments of 30 days each, not to exceed a total of 120 days from the date of first issuance. The Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations shall be notified prior to the issuance of any renewal of a Type I disaster declaration.

(2) A Type II disaster may be declared if the President of the United States has issued a major disaster declaration pursuant to the Stafford Act. The Governor may request federal disaster assistance under the Stafford Act without making a Type II disaster declaration. A Type II disaster declaration shall expire ~~six months~~12 months after its issuance unless renewed by the Governor or the General Assembly. Such renewals may be made in increments of three months ~~each, not to~~ each. A Type II disaster declaration and any renewals of that declaration shall not exceed a total of ~~12 months from the date of first issuance.~~ 24 months. The Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations shall be notified prior to the issuance of any renewal of a Type II disaster declaration.

(3) A Type III disaster may be declared if the President of the United States has issued a major disaster declaration under the Stafford Act and:

a. The preliminary damage assessment indicates that the extent of damage is reasonably expected to meet the threshold established for an increased federal share of disaster assistance under applicable federal law and regulations; or

b. The preliminary damage assessment prompts the Governor to call a special session of the General Assembly to establish programs to meet the unmet needs of individuals or political subdivisions affected by the disaster.

A Type III disaster declaration shall expire ~~12 months~~24 months after its issuance unless renewed by the General Assembly.

(a2) Any state of disaster declared before July 1, 2001, shall terminate by a proclamation of the Governor or resolution of the General Assembly. A proclamation or resolution declaring or terminating a state of disaster shall be disseminated promptly by means calculated to bring its contents to the attention of the general public and, unless the circumstances attendant upon the disaster prevent or impede, promptly filed with the Secretary of Public Safety, the Secretary of State and the clerks of superior court in the area to which it applies.

(a3) Expiration of a Type II or III disaster declaration shall not affect the State's obligations under federal-State agreements entered into prior to the expiration of the disaster declaration.

...."

SECTION 2. G.S. 166A-15 reads as rewritten:

"§ 166A-15. No private liability.

Any person, firm or ~~corporation~~ corporation, together with any successors in interest, if any, owning or controlling real or personal property who, voluntarily or involuntarily, knowingly or unknowingly, with or without compensation, grants a license or privilege or otherwise permits or allows the designation or use of the whole or any part or parts of such real or personal property for the purpose of ~~sheltering, protecting, safeguarding or aiding in any way persons shall, together with his successors in interest, if any,~~ activities or functions relating to emergency management as provided for in this Chapter or elsewhere in the General Statutes shall not be civilly liable for the death of or injury to any person or the loss of or damage to the property of any persons where such death, injury, loss or damage resulted from, through or because of the use of the said real or personal property for any of the above ~~purposes.~~purposes, provided that the use of said property is subject to the order or control of or pursuant to a request of the State government or any political subdivision thereof."

SECTION 3. G.S. 166A-4 is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(11) State Emergency Response Team. – The representative group of State agency personnel designated to carry out the emergency management support functions identified in the Plan. The State Emergency Response Team leader shall be the Director of the Division, who shall have authority to manage the Team pursuant to G.S. 166A-5(3)a., as delegated by the Governor. The Team shall consist of the following State agencies:

a. Department of Public Safety.
b. Department of Transportation.
c. Department of Health and Human Services.
d. Department of Environment and Natural Resources.
e. Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services.
f. Any other agency identified in the North Carolina Emergency Operations Plan."

SECTION 4. G.S. 166A-5(3)a. reads as rewritten:

"(3) Functions of State Emergency Management. – The functions of the State emergency management program include:

a. Coordination of the activities of all agencies for emergency management within the State, including planning, organizing, staffing, equipping, training, testing, and the activation ~~of~~ and management of the State Emergency Response Team and emergency management programs."

SECTION 5. G.S. 166A-5(3) is amended by adding a new sub-subdivision to read:

"(3) Functions of State Emergency Management. – The functions of the State emergency management program include:

...

b1. Coordination with the State Health Director to amend or revise the North Carolina Emergency Operations Plan regarding public health matters. At a minimum, the revisions to the Plan shall provide for the following:

1. The epidemiologic investigation of a known or suspected threat caused by nuclear, biological, or chemical agents.

...

b3. Coordination with the Commissioner of Agriculture, or the Commissioner's designee, to amend or revise the North Carolina Emergency Operations Plan regarding agricultural matters. At a minimum, the revisions to the Plan shall provide for the following:

1. The examination and testing of animals that may have been exposed to a nuclear, biological, or chemical agent.
2. The appropriate conditions for quarantine and isolation of animals in order to prevent further transmission of disease.

...."

SECTION 6. Chapter 120 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new Article to read:

"Article 12Q.

"Joint Legislative Emergency Management Oversight Committee.

"§ 120-70.150. Creation and membership of Joint Legislative Emergency Management Oversight Committee.

The Joint Legislative Emergency Management Oversight Committee is established. The Committee consists of 12 members as follows:

(1) Six members of the Senate appointed by the President Pro Tempore of the Senate; and

(2) Six members of the House of Representatives appointed by the Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Terms on the Committee are for two years and begin on the convening of the General Assembly in each odd-numbered year, except the terms of the initial members, which begin on appointment and end on the day of the convening of the 2013 General Assembly. Members may complete a term of service on the Committee even if they do not seek reelection or are not reelected to the General Assembly, but resignation or removal from service in the General Assembly constitutes resignation or removal from service on the Committee.

A member continues to serve until a successor is appointed. A vacancy shall be filled by the officer who made the original appointment.

"§ 120-70.151. Purpose and powers of Committee.

(a) The Joint Legislative Emergency Management Oversight Committee shall examine, on a continuing basis, issues related to emergency management in North Carolina in order to make ongoing recommendations to the General Assembly on ways to promote effective emergency preparedness, management, response, and recovery. The Committee may examine:

(1) Whether the State building code sufficiently addresses issues related to commercial and residential construction in hurricane and flood prone areas.

(2) The public health infrastructure in place to respond to natural and nonnatural disasters.

(3) Hurricane preparedness, evacuation, and response.

(4) Energy security issues.

(5) Terrorism preparedness and response, including bioterrorism.

(6) Flood and natural disaster preparation and response.

(7) Any other topic the Committee believes is related to its purpose.

(b) The Committee may make interim reports to the General Assembly on matters for which it may report to a regular session of the General Assembly. A report to the General Assembly may contain any legislation needed to implement a recommendation of the Committee.

"§ 120-70.152. Organization of Committee.

(a) The President Pro Tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall each designate a cochair of the Joint Legislative Emergency Management Oversight Committee. The Committee shall meet upon the joint call of the cochairs.

(b) A quorum of the Committee is seven members. Only recommendations, including proposed legislation, receiving at least six affirmative votes may be included in a Committee report to the General Assembly. While in the discharge of its official duties, the Committee has the powers of a joint committee under G.S. 120-19 and G.S. 120-19.1 through G.S. 120-19.4.

(c) The cochairs of the Committee may call upon other knowledgeable persons or experts to assist the Committee in its work.

(d) Members of the Committee shall receive subsistence and travel expenses as provided in G.S. 120-3.1, 138-5, or 138-6, as appropriate. The Committee may contract for consultants or hire employees in accordance with G.S. 120-32.02. The Legislative Services Commission, through the Legislative Services Officer, shall assign professional staff to assist the Committee in its work. Upon the direction of the Legislative Services Commission, the Supervisors of Clerks of the Senate and of the House of Representatives shall assign clerical staff to the Committee. The expenses for clerical employees shall be borne by the Committee.

(e) In appointing members to the Committee, the President Pro Tempore of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives shall take into consideration the goal of having members appointed to the Committee who have knowledge and experience relating to areas that are most impacted by disasters and emergencies."

SECTION 7. This act is effective when it becomes law.

SENATE BILL 798:
Various Emergency Management Changes

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary I	Date:	May 22, 2012
Introduced by:	Sen. Brunstetter	Prepared by:	Brad Krehely
Analysis of:	First Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 798 makes various changes to the emergency management statutes and creates a Joint Oversight Emergency Management Oversight Committee.

BACKGROUND: Article 1 of Chapter 166A is the North Carolina Emergency Management Act. It defines the responsibilities within State government for the direction and control of the State emergency management program, the different types of disaster (dependent on damage assessments), and disaster assistance programs and funding. Article 1 authorizes counties to establish and maintain emergency management agencies, appropriate funds for that purpose, and, where such local programs meet State standards, receive State and federal financial assistance.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 doubles the length of disaster declarations. A Type I disaster declaration would expire after 60 days, instead of 30; a Type II disaster would expire after 12 months, instead of 6 months; and a Type III disaster would expire after 24 months, instead of 12 months.

This section clarifies that if a federal-state aid program is created during a period of time in which a disaster declaration is in effect, aid may continue to flow pursuant to that agreement even once the underlying disaster declaration expires.

Section 2 would enact H842 from this past session. This section clarifies that immunity from liability is available for persons and entities whose property is used during an emergency only if the property is being used subject to the order or control of or pursuant to a request of a governmental entity.

This section also clarifies that immunity is available when the property is used "for activities or functions relating to emergency management" (was "sheltering, protecting, safeguarding or aiding in any way persons").

Section 3 defines the State Emergency Response Team (SERT), which has existed for years but whose existence has never been codified. The SERT is defined to include certain enumerated agencies as well as any agencies designated as belonging to it in the State Emergency Operations Plan.

Section 4 amends the Division of Emergency Management's duties to include managing the SERT.

Section 5 requires the Division of Emergency Management to coordinate with the Commissioner of Agriculture, or the Commissioner's designee to amend or revise the State Emergency Operations Plan with respect to agricultural matters.

Section 6 creates the Joint Legislative Emergency Management Oversight Committee. The Committee would consist of 12 members, 6 Senators appointed by the President Pro Tempore and 6 Representatives appointed by the Speaker of the House. The Committee is charged with examining issues of emergency management and to make ongoing recommendations to the General Assembly.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The bill is effective when it becomes law.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO MAKE VARIOUS CHANGES TO THE EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT STATUTES; AND TO ESTABLISH THE JOINT LEGISLATIVE EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT OVERSIGHT COMMITTEE, AS RECOMMENDED BY THE SENATE SELECT COMMITTEE ON EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS AND RESPONSE.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 166A-6 reads as rewritten:

"§ 166A-6. State of disaster.

(a) The existence of a state of disaster may be proclaimed by the Governor, or by a resolution of the General Assembly if either of these finds that a disaster threatens or exists.

(a1) If a state of disaster is proclaimed, the Secretary shall provide the Governor and the General Assembly with a preliminary damage assessment as soon as the assessment is available. Upon receipt of the preliminary damage assessment, the Governor shall issue a proclamation defining the area subject to the state of disaster and proclaiming the disaster as a Type I, Type II, or Type III disaster. In determining whether the disaster shall be proclaimed as a Type I, Type II, or Type III disaster, the Governor shall follow the standards set forth below.

(1) A Type I disaster may be declared if all of the following criteria are met:

a. A local state of emergency has been declared pursuant to G.S. 166A-8, and a written copy of the declaration has been forwarded to the Governor;

b. The preliminary damage assessment meets or exceeds the criteria established for the Small Business Administration Disaster Loan Program pursuant to 13 C.F.R. Part 123 or meets or exceeds the State infrastructure criteria set out in G.S. 166A-6.01(b)(2)a.; and

c. A major disaster declaration by the President of the United States pursuant to the Stafford Act has not been declared.

A Type I disaster declaration may be made by the Governor prior to, and independently of, any action taken by the Small Business Administration, the Federal Emergency Management Agency, or any other federal agency. A Type I disaster declaration shall expire ~~30 days~~60 days after its issuance unless renewed by the Governor or the General Assembly. Such renewals may be made in increments of 30 days each, not to exceed a total of 120 days from the date of first issuance. The Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations shall be notified prior to the issuance of any renewal of a Type I disaster declaration.

(2) A Type II disaster may be declared if the President of the United States has issued a major disaster declaration pursuant to the Stafford Act. The Governor may request federal disaster assistance under the Stafford Act without making a Type II disaster declaration. A Type II disaster declaration shall expire ~~six months~~12 months after its issuance unless renewed by the Governor or the General Assembly. Such renewals may be made in increments of three months ~~each, not to~~ each. SENATE BILL 798:
Various Emergency Management Changes

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary I	Date:	May 22, 2012
Introduced by:	Sen. Brunstetter	Prepared by:	Brad Krehely
Analysis of:	First Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 798 makes various changes to the emergency management statutes and creates a Joint Oversight Emergency Management Oversight Committee.

BACKGROUND: Article 1 of Chapter 166A is the North Carolina Emergency Management Act. It defines the responsibilities within State government for the direction and control of the State emergency management program, the different types of disaster (dependent on damage assessments), and disaster assistance programs and funding. Article 1 authorizes counties to establish and maintain emergency management agencies, appropriate funds for that purpose, and, where such local programs meet State standards, receive State and federal financial assistance.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 doubles the length of disaster declarations. A Type I disaster declaration would expire after 60 days, instead of 30; a Type II disaster would expire after 12 months, instead of 6 months; and a Type III disaster would expire after 24 months, instead of 12 months.

This section clarifies that if a federal-state aid program is created during a period of time in which a disaster declaration is in effect, aid may continue to flow pursuant to that agreement even once the underlying disaster declaration expires.

Section 2 would enact H842 from this past session. This section clarifies that immunity from liability is available for persons and entities whose property is used during an emergency only if the property is being used subject to the order or control of or pursuant to a request of a governmental entity.

This section also clarifies that immunity is available when the property is used "for activities or functions relating to emergency management" (was "sheltering, protecting, safeguarding or aiding in any way persons").

Section 3 defines the State Emergency Response Team (SERT), which has existed for years but whose existence has never been codified. The SERT is defined to include certain enumerated agencies as well as any agencies designated as belonging to it in the State Emergency Operations Plan.

Section 4 amends the Division of Emergency Management's duties to include managing the SERT.

Section 5 requires the Division of Emergency Management to coordinate with the Commissioner of Agriculture, or the Commissioner's designee to amend or revise the State Emergency Operations Plan with respect to agricultural matters.

Section 6 creates the Joint Legislative Emergency Management Oversight Committee. The Committee would consist of 12 members, 6 Senators appointed by the President Pro Tempore and 6 Representatives appointed by the Speaker of the House. The Committee is charged with examining issues of emergency management and to make ongoing recommendations to the General Assembly.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The bill is effective when it becomes law.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR THE APPOINTMENT OF CHIEF MAGISTRATES, TO PROVIDE FOR ADDITIONAL DISCIPLINE OF MAGISTRATES, TO PROVIDE FOR A STUDY ON THE METHOD OF APPOINTING MAGISTRATES, AND TO PROVIDE FOR CERTAIN CONTROL OF CALENDARING IN SUPERIOR COURT BY THE SENIOR RESIDENT SUPERIOR COURT JUDGE.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 7A-146 reads as rewritten:

"§ 7A-146. Administrative authority and duties of chief district judge.

The chief district judge, subject to the general supervision of the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, has administrative supervision and authority over the operation of the district courts and magistrates in his district. These powers and duties include, but are not limited to, the following:

...

(4) Assigning matters to magistrates, and consistent with the salaries set by the Administrative Officer of the Courts, prescribing times and places at which magistrates shall be available for the performance of their duties; however, the chief district judge may in writing delegate his authority to prescribe times and places at which magistrates in a particular county shall be available for the performance of their duties to another district court judge or the clerk of the superior court, or the judge may appoint a chief magistrate to fulfill some or all of the duties under subdivision (12) of this section, and the person to whom such authority is delegated shall make monthly reports to the chief district judge of the times and places actually served by each magistrate.

...

(12) Designating a full-time magistrate in a county to serve as chief magistrate for that county for an indefinite term and at the judge's pleasure. The chief magistrate shall have the derivative administrative authority assigned by the chief district court judge under subdivision (4) of this section. This subdivision applies only to counties in which the chief district court judge determines that designating a chief magistrate would be in the interest of justice."

SECTION 2. G.S. 7A-173 reads as rewritten:

"§ 7A-173. ~~Suspension;~~ Suspension pending a hearing; ~~removal;~~ removal or suspension from duties; reinstatement.

(a) A magistrate may be suspended from performing the duties of ~~his~~the magistrate's office by the chief district judge of the district court district in which his county is located, ~~or~~ and suspended or removed from office by the senior regular resident superior court judge of, or any regular superior court judge holding court in, the district or set of districts as defined in G.S. 7A-41.1(a) in which the county is located. Grounds for suspension or removal are the same as for a judge of the General Court of Justice.

(b) Suspension from performing the duties of the office may be ordered by the chief district judge upon filing of sworn written charges in the office of clerk of superior court for the county in which the magistrate resides. If the chief district judge, upon examination of the sworn charges, finds that the charges, if true, constitute grounds for removal, ~~he~~ the chief district judge may enter an order suspending the magistrate from performing the duties of his office until a final determination of the charges on the merits. During suspension the salary of the magistrate continues.

(c) If a hearing, with or without suspension, is ordered, the magistrate against whom the charges have been made shall be given immediate written notice of the proceedings and a true copy of the charges, and the matter shall be set by the chief district judge for hearing before the senior regular resident superior court judge or a regular superior court judge holding court in the district or set of districts as defined in G.S. 7A-41.1(a) in which the county is located. The hearing shall be held in a county within the district or set of districts not less than 10 days nor more than 30 days after the magistrate has received a copy of the charges. The hearing shall be open to the public. All testimony offered shall be recorded. At the hearing the superior court judge shall receive evidence, and make findings of fact and conclusions of law. If ~~he~~ the court finds that grounds for removal exist, ~~he shall~~ the court may enter an order permanently removing the magistrate from office, and terminating his salary. In lieu of a permanent removal, the court may order the magistrate to be suspended from any performance of the duties of the magistrate's office for a period of time set by the court at its discretion. A magistrate who is suspended under this subsection shall receive no salary during the period of that suspension. If ~~he~~ the court finds that no ~~such~~ grounds for disciplinary action exist, ~~he~~ the court shall terminate the ~~suspension,~~ suspension imposed under subsection (b) of this section, if any. Upon a determination that a magistrate has engaged in conduct that is not of such a nature as would warrant suspension or removal, the court may issue to the magistrate a public reprimand.

(d) A magistrate may appeal from an order of removal or suspension under subsection (c) of this section to the Court of Appeals on the basis of error of law by the superior court judge. Pending decision of the case on appeal, the magistrate shall not perform any of the duties of ~~his~~ the magistrate's office. If, upon final determination, ~~he~~ the magistrate is ordered reinstated, either by the appellate division or by the superior court on remand, ~~his~~the magistrate's salary shall be restored from the date of the original order of ~~removal.~~removal or suspension."

SECTION 3. The Administrative Office of the Courts, in consultation with the Conference of Superior Court Judges, the Conference of District Court Judges, the Conference of Clerks of Superior Court, and the North Carolina Magistrates Association, shall study the issue of whether the State constitutional provision that the senior resident superior court judge shall appoint magistrates from nominations by the Clerk of Superior Court should continue as the method for appointment of magistrates, or whether an amendment to the State Constitution to provide for a different method would be both practical in light of the current responsibilities of officers of the court and lead to better efficiencies in the administration of justice. The Administrative Office of the Courts shall submit a report of its findings and recommendations, including any legislative recommendations, to the 2013 General Assembly no later than March 1, 2013.

SECTION 4. G.S. 7A-49.4(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) Definite Trial Date. – When a case has not otherwise been scheduled for trial within 120 days of indictment or of service of notice of indictment if required by law, then upon motion by the defendant at any time thereafter, the senior resident superior court judge, or a superior court judge designated by the senior resident superior court judge, may hold a hearing for the purpose of establishing a trial date for the defendant. Notwithstanding the establishment of a trial date under this subsection, if a case has not been tried within nine months after the defendant has been indicted or bound over to superior court, the senior resident superior court judge may give notice to the district attorney and the defendant's attorney and schedule a trial conference for trial of the case, unless the district attorney provides good cause that the case is not yet ready for trial."

SECTION 5. Sections 1 and 3 of the act are effective when this act becomes law. Section 2 of this act becomes effective January 1, 2013, and applies to the filing of charges on or after that date. Section 4 of this act becomes effective January 1, 2013. The remainder of this act is effective when it becomes law.

HOUSE BILL 517:
Magistrates/Calendaring

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary I	Date:	May 22, 2012
Introduced by:	Reps. Stevens, Sager	Prepared by:	Brad Krehely
Analysis of:	PCS to Second Edition H517-CSRN-41		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: The Proposed Committee Substitute for House Bill 517 (PCS) amends the statutes to provide for the appointment of a Chief Magistrate, discipline of magistrates, a study on magistrate appointment, and for calendaring by the court under certain circumstances. The PCS (1) corrects the effective date, (2) changes the date by which the Administrative Office of the Courts must report the results of its study to no later than March 1, 2013, (3) provides that a magistrate's suspension is for a period of time set by the court at its discretion, and (4) makes other technical changes.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1: The chief district judge may currently appoint another district court judge or the clerk of superior court to perform administrative duties. The act authorizes the appointment of a "chief magistrate" as well.

Section 2: Currently, a magistrate may only be removed from office following a hearing by the senior regular resident superior court judge or a regular superior court judge. The act would also allow the magistrate to be suspended without pay, or receive a public reprimand.

Section 3: The act provides for a study by the Administrative Office of the Courts on whether an amendment to the State Constitution to provide for a different method for appointment of magistrates would be both practical in light of the current responsibilities of officers of the court and lead to better efficiencies in the administration of justice. The Administrative Office of the Courts shall submit a report of its findings and recommendations, including any legislative recommendations, to the 2013 General Assembly no later than March 1, 2013.

Section 4: G.S. 7A-49.4 deals with Superior Court criminal case docketing. Section 4 authorizes the senior resident superior court judge to schedule a trial conference if the case has not been tried within 9 months of indictment or the defendant has not been bound over to superior court unless the district attorney provides good cause as to why the case is not ready for trial.

EFFECTIVE DATE: Sections 1 and 3 are effective when the act becomes law. Section 2 becomes effective January 1, 2013, and applies to the filing of charges on or after that date. Section 4 becomes effective January 1, 2013. The remainder of this act is effective when it becomes law.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO AMEND LAWS RELATING TO THE NORTH CAROLINA INNOCENCE INQUIRY COMMISSION AND THE PRESERVATION OF BIOLOGICAL EVIDENCE.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 15A-268(a1) reads as rewritten:

"(a1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law and subject to subsection (b) of this section, a custodial agency shall preserve any physical ~~evidence~~ evidence, regardless of the date of collection, that is reasonably likely to contain any biological evidence collected in the course of a criminal investigation or prosecution. Evidence shall be preserved in a manner reasonably calculated to prevent contamination or degradation of any biological evidence that might be present, subject to a continuous chain of custody, and securely retained with sufficient official documentation to locate the evidence."

SECTION 2. G.S. 15A-268(a7) reads as rewritten:

"(a7) Upon written request by the defendant, the custodial agency shall prepare an inventory of biological evidence relevant to the defendant's case that ~~has been preserved pursuant to this section.~~is in the custodial agency's custody. If the evidence was destroyed through court order or other written directive, the custodial agency shall provide the defendant with a copy of the court order or written directive."

SECTION 3. G.S. 15A-268(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) The custodial agency required to preserve evidence pursuant to subsection (a1) of this section may dispose of the evidence prior to the expiration of the period of time described in subsection (a6) of this section if all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The custodial agency sent notice of its intent to dispose of the evidence to the district attorney in the county in which the conviction was obtained.

(1a) The custodial agency has determined that it has no duty to preserve the evidence under G.S. 15A-1471.

(2) The district attorney gave to each of the following persons written notification of the intent of the custodial agency to dispose of the evidence: any defendant convicted of a felony who is currently incarcerated in connection with the case, the defendant's counsel of record for that case, and the Office of Indigent Defense Services. The notice shall be consistent with the provisions of this section, and the district attorney shall send a copy of the notice to the custodial agency. Delivery of written notification from the district attorney to the defendant was effectuated by the district attorney transmitting the written notification to the superintendent of the correctional facility where the defendant was assigned at the time and the superintendent's personal delivery of the written notification to the defendant. Certification of delivery by the superintendent to the defendant in accordance with this subdivision was in accordance with subsection (c) of this section.

(3) The written notification from the district attorney specified the following:

a. That the custodial agency would destroy the evidence collected in connection with the case unless the custodial agency received a written request that the evidence not be destroyed.

b. The address of the custodial agency where the written request was to be sent.

c. That the written request from the defendant, or his or her representative, must be received by the custodial agency within 90 days of the date of receipt by the defendant of the district attorney's written notification.

d. That the written request must ask that the evidence not be destroyed or disposed of for one of the following reasons:

1. The case is currently on appeal.

2. The case is currently in postconviction proceedings.

3. The defendant will file a motion for DNA testing pursuant to G.S. 15A-269 within 180 days of the postmark of the defendant's response to the district attorney's written notification of the custodial agency's intent to dispose of the evidence, unless a request for extension is requested by the defendant and agreed to by the custodial agency.

4. The case has been referred to the North Carolina Innocence Inquiry Commission pursuant to Article 92 of Chapter 15A of the General Statutes.

(4) The custodial agency did not receive a written request in compliance with the conditions set forth in sub-subdivision (3)d. of this subsection within 90 days of the date of receipt by the defendant of the district attorney's written notification."

SECTION 4. G.S. 15A-1460 reads as rewritten:

"§ 15A-1460. Definitions.

The following definitions apply in this Article:

(1) "Claim of factual innocence" means a claim on behalf of a living person convicted of a felony in the General Court of Justice of the State of North Carolina, asserting the complete innocence of any criminal responsibility for the felony for which the person was convicted and for any other reduced level of criminal responsibility relating to the crime, and for which there is some credible, verifiable evidence of innocence that has not previously been presented at trial or considered at a hearing granted through postconviction relief.

(1a) "Claimant" means a person asserting that he or she is completely innocent of any criminal responsibility for a felony crime upon which the person was convicted and for any other reduced level of criminal responsibility relating to the crime.

(2) "Commission" means the North Carolina Innocence Inquiry Commission established by this Article.

(3) "Director" means the Director of the North Carolina Innocence Inquiry Commission.

(4) "Victim" means the victim of the crime, or if the victim of the crime is deceased, the next of kin of the victim."

SECTION 5. G.S. 15A-1467(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) A claim of factual innocence may be referred to the Commission by any court, ~~person, or agency.~~ a State or local agency, a claimant, or a claimant's counsel. The Commission shall not consider a claim of factual innocence if the convicted person is deceased. The determination of whether to grant a formal inquiry regarding any other claim of factual innocence is in the discretion of the Commission. The Commission may informally screen and dismiss a case summarily at its discretion."

SECTION 6. G.S. 15A-1468(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) The Director shall use all due diligence to notify the victim at least 30 days prior to any proceedings of the full Commission held in regard to the victim's case. The Commission shall notify the victim that the victim is permitted to attend proceedings otherwise closed to the public, subject to any limitations imposed by this Article. If the victim plans to attend proceedings otherwise closed to the public, the victim shall notify the Commission at least 10 days in advance of the proceedings of his or her intent to attend. ~~If the Commission determines that the victim's presence may interfere with the investigation, the Commission may close any portion of the proceedings to the victim.~~"

SECTION 7. The Innocence Inquiry Commission shall include, as part of its rules of operation, the holding of a prehearing conference to be held at least 10 days prior to any proceedings of the full Commission. Only the following persons shall be notified and authorized to attend the prehearing conference: the District Attorney, or the District Attorney's designee, of the district where the claimant was convicted of the felony upon which the claim of factual innocence is based; the claimant's counsel, if any; the Chair of the Commission; the Executive Director of the Commission; and any Commission staff designated by the Director. The District Attorney, or designee, shall be provided (i) an opportunity to inspect any evidence that may be presented to the Commission that has not previously been presented to any judicial officer or body and (ii) any information that he or she deems relevant to the proceedings. Prior to any Commission proceedings, the District Attorney or designee is authorized to provide the Commission with a written statement, which shall be included in the record of the Commission's proceedings. Any statement included in the record shall be part of the Commission's record of proceedings pursuant to G.S. 15A-1468(e).

SECTION 8. G.S. 15A-1469 reads as rewritten:

"§ 15A-1469. Postcommission three-judge panel.

(a) If the Commission concludes there is sufficient evidence of factual innocence to merit judicial review, the Chair of the Commission shall request the Chief Justice to appoint a three-judge panel, not to include any trial judge that has had substantial previous involvement in the case, and issue commissions to the members of the three-judge panel to convene a special session of the superior court of the original jurisdiction to hear evidence relevant to the Commission's recommendation. The senior judge of the panel shall preside. The Chief Justice shall appoint the three-judge panel within 20 days of the filing of the Commission's opinion finding sufficient evidence of factual innocence to merit judicial review.

(a1) If ~~there is an allegation of or evidence~~ the Commission concludes that there is credible evidence of prosecutorial misconduct in the case, the Chair of the Commission ~~or the district attorney of the district of conviction~~ may request the ~~Director of the Administrative Office of the Courts~~ Attorney General to appoint a special prosecutor to represent the State in lieu of the district attorney of the district of conviction or the district attorney's designee. The request for the special prosecutor shall be made within 20 days of the filing of the Commission's opinion finding sufficient evidence of innocence to merit judicial review.

Upon receipt of a request under this subsection to appoint a special prosecutor, the ~~Director of the Administrative Office of the Courts~~ Attorney General may temporarily assign a district attorney, assistant district attorney, or other qualified attorney, ~~including one from the prosecutorial district where the convicted person was tried,~~ to represent the State at the hearing before the three-judge panel. However, the ~~Director of the Administrative Office of the Courts~~ Attorney General shall not appoint as special prosecutor any attorney who prosecuted or assisted with the prosecution in the trial of the convicted ~~person.~~ person, or is a prosecuting attorney in the district where the convicted person was tried. The appointment shall be made ~~pursuant to G.S. 7A-64 and shall be made~~ no later than 20 days after the receipt of the request.

(b) The senior resident superior court judge shall enter an order setting the case for hearing at the special session of superior court for which the three-judge panel is commissioned and shall require the State to file a response to the Commission's opinion within 90 days of the date of the order. Such response, at the time of original filing or through amendment at any time before or during the proceedings, may include joining the defense in a motion to dismiss the charges with prejudice on the basis of innocence.

(c) The district attorney of the district of conviction, or the district attorney's designee, shall represent the State at the hearing before the three-judge panel, except as otherwise provided by this section.

(d) The three-judge panel shall conduct an evidentiary hearing. At the hearing, the court, and the defense and prosecution through the court, may compel the testimony of any witness, including the convicted person. All credible, verifiable evidence relevant to the case, even if considered by a jury or judge in a prior proceeding, may be presented during the hearing. The convicted person may not assert any privilege or prevent a witness from testifying. The convicted person has a right to be present at the evidentiary hearing and to be represented by counsel. A waiver of the right to be present shall be in writing.

(e) The senior resident superior court judge shall determine the convicted person's indigence status and, if appropriate, enter an order for the appointment of counsel. The court may also enter an order relieving an indigent convicted person of all or a portion of the costs of the proceedings.

(f) The clerk of court shall provide written notification to the victim 30 days prior to any case-related hearings.

(g) Upon the motion of either party, the senior judge of the panel may direct the attorneys for the parties to appear before him or her for a conference on any matter in the case.

(h) The three-judge panel shall rule as to whether the convicted person has proved by clear and convincing evidence that the convicted person is innocent of the charges. Such a determination shall require a unanimous vote. If the vote is unanimous, the panel shall enter dismissal of all or any of the charges. If the vote is not unanimous, the panel shall deny relief.

(i) A person who is determined by the three-judge panel to be innocent of all charges and against whom the charges are dismissed pursuant to this section is eligible for compensation under Article 8 of Chapter 148 of the General Statutes without obtaining a pardon of innocence from the Governor."

SECTION 9. G.S. 7A-64(a1) is repealed.

SECTION 10. Article 92 of Chapter 15A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 15A-1471. Preservation of files and evidence; production of files and evidence; forensic and DNA testing.

(a) Upon receiving written notice from the Commission of a Commission inquiry, the State shall preserve all files and evidence subject to disclosure under G.S. 15A-903. Once the Commission provides written notice to the State that the Commission's inquiry is complete, the duty to preserve under this section shall cease; however, other preservation requirements may be applicable.

(b) The Commission is entitled to a copy of all records preserved under subsection (a) of this section, including access to inspect and examine all physical evidence.

(c) Upon request of the Commission, the State shall transfer custody of physical evidence to the Commission's Director, or the Director's designee, for forensic and DNA testing. The Commission shall preserve evidence in a manner reasonably calculated to prevent contamination or degradation of any biological evidence that might be present, while subject to a continuous chain of custody and securely retained with sufficient official documentation to locate the evidence. At or prior to the completion of the Commission's inquiry, the Commission shall return all remaining evidence.

(d) The Commission shall have the right to subject physical evidence to forensic and DNA testing, including consumption of biological material, as necessary for the Commission's inquiry. If testing complies with FBI requirements and the data meets NDIS criteria, profiles obtained from the testing shall be searched and uploaded to CODIS. The Commission shall incur all costs associated with ensuring compliance with FBI requirements and NDIS criteria."

SECTION 11. G.S. 148-82(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Any person who, having been convicted of a felony after pleading not guilty or nolo contendere and having been imprisoned therefor in a State prison of this State, and who is determined to be innocent of all charges and against whom the charges are dismissed pursuant to G.S. 15A-1469 may as hereinafter provided present by petition a claim against the State for the pecuniary loss sustained by the person through his or her erroneous conviction and imprisonment, provided the petition is presented within five years of the date that the dismissal of the charges is entered by the three-judge panel under G.S. 15A-1469."

SECTION 12. This act is effective when it becomes law and applies to any pending claims on the effective date or claims filed on or after the effective date.

HOUSE BILL 803:
Allow Court to Assess Atty Fees/50C Orders

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary I	Date:	May 21, 2012
Introduced by:	Rep. Rhyne	Prepared by:	R. Erika Churchill Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	PCS to Second Edition H803-CSST-93

SUMMARY: The proposed committee substitute for House Bill 803 would authorize the court to assess attorneys' fees in Chapter 50C civil no-contact orders.

CURRENT LAW: In 2004, the General Assembly enacted Chapter 50C of the General Statutes, creating civil no-contact protective orders. Courts can issue these protective orders in situations where a person has been a victim of stalking or nonconsensual sexual conduct committed by a person with whom the victim is not in a personal relationship.

G.S. 50C-5 permits the court to issue a no-contact order where it is found that the complainant is a victim of unlawful conduct. The court may order the respondent to not visit, assault, molest or otherwise interfere with the victim. The court may order the respondent to cease stalking, harassing, abusing, injuring, or contacting the victim by telephone, written communication or electronic means. The court may also order the respondent to stay away from the victim including prohibitions against entering the victim's residence, school, place of employment or other specified places at times when the complainant is present.

Currently, recovery of attorneys' fees is not authorized in civil no-contact orders.

BILL ANALYSIS: The proposed committee substitute for House Bill 803 would authorize the court to assess attorneys' fees in Chapter 50C civil no-contact orders.

EFFECTIVE DATE: October 1, 2012 and applies to actions filed on or after that date.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR THE APPOINTMENT OF CHIEF MAGISTRATES, TO PROVIDE FOR ADDITIONAL DISCIPLINE OF MAGISTRATES, TO PROVIDE FOR A STUDY ON THE METHOD OF APPOINTING MAGISTRATES, AND TO PROVIDE FOR CERTAIN CONTROL OF CALENDARING IN SUPERIOR COURT BY THE SENIOR RESIDENT SUPERIOR COURT JUDGE.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 7A-146 reads as rewritten:

"§ 7A-146. Administrative authority and duties of chief district judge.

The chief district judge, subject to the general supervision of the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, has administrative supervision and authority over the operation of the district courts and magistrates in his district. These powers and duties include, but are not limited to, the following:

...

(4) Assigning matters to magistrates, and consistent with the salaries set by the Administrative Officer of the Courts, prescribing times and places at which magistrates shall be available for the performance of their duties; however, the chief district judge may in writing delegate his authority to prescribe times and places at which magistrates in a particular county shall be available for the performance of their duties to another district court judge or the clerk of the superior court, or the judge may appoint a chief magistrate to fulfill some or all of the duties under subdivision (12) of this section, and the person to whom such authority is delegated shall make monthly reports to the chief district judge of the times and places actually served by each magistrate.

...

(12) Designating a full-time magistrate in a county to serve as chief magistrate for that county for an indefinite term and at the judge's pleasure. The chief magistrate shall have the derivative administrative authority assigned by the chief district court judge under subdivision (4) of this section. This subdivision applies only to counties in which the chief district court judge determines that designating a chief magistrate would be in the interest of justice."

SECTION 2. G.S. 7A-173 reads as rewritten:

"§ 7A-173. ~~Suspension;~~ Suspension pending a hearing; ~~removal;~~ removal or suspension from duties; reinstatement.

(a) A magistrate may be suspended from performing the duties of ~~his~~the magistrate's office by the chief district judge of the district court district in which his county is located, ~~or~~ and suspended or removed from office by the senior regular resident superior court judge of, or any regular superior court judge holding court in, the district or set of districts as defined in G.S. 7A-41.1(a) in which the county is located. Grounds for suspension or removal are the same as for a judge of the General Court of Justice.

(b) Suspension from performing the duties of the office may be ordered by the chief district judge upon filing of sworn written charges in the office of clerk of superior court for the county in which the magistrate resides. If the chief district judge, upon examination of the sworn charges, finds that the charges, if true, constitute grounds for removal, ~~he~~ the chief district judge may enter an order suspending the magistrate from performing the duties of his office until a final determination of the charges on the merits. During suspension the salary of the magistrate continues.

(c) If a hearing, with or without suspension, is ordered, the magistrate against whom the charges have been made shall be given immediate written notice of the proceedings and a true copy of the charges, and the matter shall be set by the chief district judge for hearing before the senior regular resident superior court judge or a regular superior court judge holding court in the district or set of districts as defined in G.S. 7A-41.1(a) in which the county is located. The hearing shall be held in a county within the district or set of districts not less than 10 days nor more than 30 days after the magistrate has received a copy of the charges. The hearing shall be open to the public. All testimony offered shall be recorded. At the hearing the superior court judge shall receive evidence, and make findings of fact and conclusions of law. If ~~he~~ the court finds that grounds for removal exist, ~~he shall~~ the court may enter an order permanently removing the magistrate from office, and terminating his salary. In lieu of a permanent removal, the court may order the magistrate to be suspended from any performance of the duties of the magistrate's office for a period of time set by the court at its discretion. A magistrate who is suspended under this subsection shall receive no salary during the period of that suspension. If ~~he~~ the court finds that no ~~such~~ grounds for disciplinary action exist, ~~he~~ the court shall terminate the ~~suspension,~~ suspension imposed under subsection (b) of this section, if any. Upon a determination that a magistrate has engaged in conduct that is not of such a nature as would warrant suspension or removal, the court may issue to the magistrate a public reprimand.

(d) A magistrate may appeal from an order of removal or suspension under subsection (c) of this section to the Court of Appeals on the basis of error of law by the superior court judge. Pending decision of the case on appeal, the magistrate shall not perform any of the duties of ~~his~~ the magistrate's office. If, upon final determination, ~~he~~ the magistrate is ordered reinstated, either by the appellate division or by the superior court on remand, ~~his~~the magistrate's salary shall be restored from the date of the original order of ~~removal.~~removal or suspension."

SECTION 3. The Administrative Office of the Courts, in consultation with the Conference of Superior Court Judges, the Conference of District Court Judges, the Conference of Clerks of Superior Court, and the North Carolina Magistrates Association, shall study the issue of whether the State constitutional provision that the senior resident superior court judge shall appoint magistrates from nominations by the Clerk of Superior Court should continue as the method for appointment of magistrates, or whether an amendment to the State Constitution to provide for a different method would be both practical in light of the current responsibilities of officers of the court and lead to better efficiencies in the administration of justice. The Administrative Office of the Courts shall submit a report of its findings and recommendations, including any legislative recommendations, to the 2013 General Assembly no later than March 1, 2013.

SECTION 4. G.S. 7A-49.4(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) Definite Trial Date. – When a case has not otherwise been scheduled for trial within 120 days of indictment or of service of notice of indictment if required by law, then upon motion by the defendant at any time thereafter, the senior resident superior court judge, or a superior court judge designated by the senior resident superior court judge, may hold a hearing for the purpose of establishing a trial date for the defendant. Notwithstanding the establishment of a trial date under this subsection, if a case has not been tried within nine months after the defendant has been indicted or bound over to superior court, the senior resident superior court judge may give notice to the district attorney and the defendant's attorney and schedule a trial conference for trial of the case, unless the district attorney provides good cause that the case is not yet ready for trial."

SECTION 5. Sections 1 and 3 of the act are effective when this act becomes law. Section 2 of this act becomes effective January 1, 2013, and applies to the filing of charges on or after that date. Section 4 of this act becomes effective January 1, 2013. The remainder of this act is effective when it becomes law.

HOUSE BILL 517:
Magistrates/Calendaring

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary I	Date:	May 22, 2012
Introduced by:	Reps. Stevens, Sager	Prepared by:	Brad Krehely
Analysis of:	PCS to Second Edition H517-CSRN-41		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: The Proposed Committee Substitute for House Bill 517 (PCS) amends the statutes to provide for the appointment of a Chief Magistrate, discipline of magistrates, a study on magistrate appointment, and for calendaring by the court under certain circumstances. The PCS (1) corrects the effective date, (2) changes the date by which the Administrative Office of the Courts must report the results of its study to no later than March 1, 2013, (3) provides that a magistrate's suspension is for a period of time set by the court at its discretion, and (4) makes other technical changes.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1: The chief district judge may currently appoint another district court judge or the clerk of superior court to perform administrative duties. The act authorizes the appointment of a "chief magistrate" as well.

Section 2: Currently, a magistrate may only be removed from office following a hearing by the senior regular resident superior court judge or a regular superior court judge. The act would also allow the magistrate to be suspended without pay, or receive a public reprimand.

Section 3: The act provides for a study by the Administrative Office of the Courts on whether an amendment to the State Constitution to provide for a different method for appointment of magistrates would be both practical in light of the current responsibilities of officers of the court and lead to better efficiencies in the administration of justice. The Administrative Office of the Courts shall submit a report of its findings and recommendations, including any legislative recommendations, to the 2013 General Assembly no later than March 1, 2013.

Section 4: G.S. 7A-49.4 deals with Superior Court criminal case docketing. Section 4 authorizes the senior resident superior court judge to schedule a trial conference if the case has not been tried within 9 months of indictment or the defendant has not been bound over to superior court unless the district attorney provides good cause as to why the case is not ready for trial.

EFFECTIVE DATE: Sections 1 and 3 are effective when the act becomes law. Section 2 becomes effective January 1, 2013, and applies to the filing of charges on or after that date. Section 4 becomes effective January 1, 2013. The remainder of this act is effective when it becomes law.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO AMEND LAWS RELATING TO THE NORTH CAROLINA INNOCENCE INQUIRY COMMISSION AND THE PRESERVATION OF BIOLOGICAL EVIDENCE.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 15A-268(a1) reads as rewritten:

"(a1) Notwithstanding any other provision of law and subject to subsection (b) of this section, a custodial agency shall preserve any physical ~~evidence~~ evidence, regardless of the date of collection, that is reasonably likely to contain any biological evidence collected in the course of a criminal investigation or prosecution. Evidence shall be preserved in a manner reasonably calculated to prevent contamination or degradation of any biological evidence that might be present, subject to a continuous chain of custody, and securely retained with sufficient official documentation to locate the evidence."

SECTION 2. G.S. 15A-268(a7) reads as rewritten:

"(a7) Upon written request by the defendant, the custodial agency shall prepare an inventory of biological evidence relevant to the defendant's case that ~~has been preserved pursuant to this section.~~is in the custodial agency's custody. If the evidence was destroyed through court order or other written directive, the custodial agency shall provide the defendant with a copy of the court order or written directive."

SECTION 3. G.S. 15A-268(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) The custodial agency required to preserve evidence pursuant to subsection (a1) of this section may dispose of the evidence prior to the expiration of the period of time described in subsection (a6) of this section if all of the following conditions are met:

(1) The custodial agency sent notice of its intent to dispose of the evidence to the district attorney in the county in which the conviction was obtained.

(1a) The custodial agency has determined that it has no duty to preserve the evidence under G.S. 15A-1471.

(2) The district attorney gave to each of the following persons written notification of the intent of the custodial agency to dispose of the evidence: any defendant convicted of a felony who is currently incarcerated in connection with the case, the defendant's counsel of record for that case, and the Office of Indigent Defense Services. The notice shall be consistent with the provisions of this section, and the district attorney shall send a copy of the notice to the custodial agency. Delivery of written notification from the district attorney to the defendant was effectuated by the district attorney transmitting the written notification to the superintendent of the correctional facility where the defendant was assigned at the time and the superintendent's personal delivery of the written notification to the defendant. Certification of delivery by the superintendent to the defendant in accordance with this subdivision was in accordance with subsection (c) of this section.

(3) The written notification from the district attorney specified the following:

a. That the custodial agency would destroy the evidence collected in connection with the case unless the custodial agency received a written request that the evidence not be destroyed.

b. The address of the custodial agency where the written request was to be sent.

c. That the written request from the defendant, or his or her representative, must be received by the custodial agency within 90 days of the date of receipt by the defendant of the district attorney's written notification.

d. That the written request must ask that the evidence not be destroyed or disposed of for one of the following reasons:

1. The case is currently on appeal.

2. The case is currently in postconviction proceedings.

3: The defendant will file a motion for DNA testing pursuant to G.S. 15A-269 within 180 days of the postmark of the defendant's response to the district attorney's written notification of the custodial agency's intent to dispose of the evidence, unless a request for extension is requested by the defendant and agreed to by the custodial agency.

4. The case has been referred to the North Carolina Innocence Inquiry Commission pursuant to Article 92 of Chapter 15A of the General Statutes.

(4) The custodial agency did not receive a written request in compliance with the conditions set forth in sub-subdivision (3)d. of this subsection within 90 days of the date of receipt by the defendant of the district attorney's written notification."

SECTION 4. G.S. 15A-1460 reads as rewritten:

"§ 15A-1460. Definitions.

The following definitions apply in this Article:

(1) "Claim of factual innocence" means a claim on behalf of a living person convicted of a felony in the General Court of Justice of the State of North Carolina, asserting the complete innocence of any criminal responsibility for the felony for which the person was convicted and for any other reduced level of criminal responsibility relating to the crime, and for which there is some credible, verifiable evidence of innocence that has not previously been presented at trial or considered at a hearing granted through postconviction relief.

(1a) "Claimant" means a person asserting that he or she is completely innocent of any criminal responsibility for a felony crime upon which the person was convicted and for any other reduced level of criminal responsibility relating to the crime.

(2) "Commission" means the North Carolina Innocence Inquiry Commission established by this Article.

(3) "Director" means the Director of the North Carolina Innocence Inquiry Commission.

(4) "Victim" means the victim of the crime, or if the victim of the crime is deceased, the next of kin of the victim."

SECTION 5. G.S. 15A-1467(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) A claim of factual innocence may be referred to the Commission by any court, ~~person, or agency.~~ a State or local agency, a claimant, or a claimant's counsel. The Commission shall not consider a claim of factual innocence if the convicted person is deceased. The determination of whether to grant a formal inquiry regarding any other claim of factual innocence is in the discretion of the Commission. The Commission may informally screen and dismiss a case summarily at its discretion."

SECTION 6. G.S. 15A-1468(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) The Director shall use all due diligence to notify the victim at least 30 days prior to any proceedings of the full Commission held in regard to the victim's case. The Commission shall notify the victim that the victim is permitted to attend proceedings otherwise closed to the public, subject to any limitations imposed by this Article. If the victim plans to attend proceedings otherwise closed to the public, the victim shall notify the Commission at least 10 days in advance of the proceedings of his or her intent to attend. ~~If the Commission determines that the victim's presence may interfere with the investigation, the Commission may close any portion of the proceedings to the victim.~~"

SECTION 7. The Innocence Inquiry Commission shall include, as part of its rules of operation, the holding of a prehearing conference to be held at least 10 days prior to any proceedings of the full Commission. Only the following persons shall be notified and authorized to attend the prehearing conference: the District Attorney, or the District Attorney's designee, of the district where the claimant was convicted of the felony upon which the claim of factual innocence is based; the claimant's counsel, if any; the Chair of the Commission; the Executive Director of the Commission; and any Commission staff designated by the Director. The District Attorney, or designee, shall be provided (i) an opportunity to inspect any evidence that may be presented to the Commission that has not previously been presented to any judicial officer or body and (ii) any information that he or she deems relevant to the proceedings. Prior to any Commission proceedings, the District Attorney or designee is authorized to provide the Commission with a written statement, which shall be included in the record of the Commission's proceedings. Any statement included in the record shall be part of the Commission's record of proceedings pursuant to G.S. 15A-1468(e).

SECTION 8. G.S. 15A-1469 reads as rewritten:

"§ 15A-1469. Postcommission three-judge panel.

(a) If the Commission concludes there is sufficient evidence of factual innocence to merit judicial review, the Chair of the Commission shall request the Chief Justice to appoint a three-judge panel, not to include any trial judge that has had substantial previous involvement in the case, and issue commissions to the members of the three-judge panel to convene a special session of the superior court of the original jurisdiction to hear evidence relevant to the Commission's recommendation. The senior judge of the panel shall preside. The Chief Justice shall appoint the three-judge panel within 20 days of the filing of the Commission's opinion finding sufficient evidence of factual innocence to merit judicial review.

(a1) If ~~there is an allegation of or evidence~~ the Commission concludes that there is credible evidence of prosecutorial misconduct in the case, the Chair of the Commission ~~or the district attorney of the district of conviction~~ may request the ~~Director of the Administrative Office of the Courts~~ Attorney General to appoint a special prosecutor to represent the State in lieu of the district attorney of the district of conviction or the district attorney's designee. The request for the special prosecutor shall be made within 20 days of the filing of the Commission's opinion finding sufficient evidence of innocence to merit judicial review.

Upon receipt of a request under this subsection to appoint a special prosecutor, the ~~Director of the Administrative Office of the Courts~~ Attorney General may temporarily assign a district attorney, assistant district attorney, or other qualified attorney, ~~including one from the prosecutorial district where the convicted person was tried,~~ to represent the State at the hearing before the three-judge panel. However, the ~~Director of the Administrative Office of the Courts~~ Attorney General shall not appoint as special prosecutor any attorney who prosecuted or assisted with the prosecution in the trial of the convicted ~~person.~~ person, or is a prosecuting attorney in the district where the convicted person was tried. The appointment shall be made ~~pursuant to G.S. 7A-64 and shall be made~~ no later than 20 days after the receipt of the request.

(b) The senior resident superior court judge shall enter an order setting the case for hearing at the special session of superior court for which the three-judge panel is commissioned and shall require the State to file a response to the Commission's opinion within 90 days of the date of the order. Such response, at the time of original filing or through amendment at any time before or during the proceedings, may include joining the defense in a motion to dismiss the charges with prejudice on the basis of innocence.

(c) The district attorney of the district of conviction, or the district attorney's designee, shall represent the State at the hearing before the three-judge panel, except as otherwise provided by this section.

(d) The three-judge panel shall conduct an evidentiary hearing. At the hearing, the court, and the defense and prosecution through the court, may compel the testimony of any witness, including the convicted person. All credible, verifiable evidence relevant to the case, even if considered by a jury or judge in a prior proceeding, may be presented during the hearing. The convicted person may not assert any privilege or prevent a witness from testifying. The convicted person has a right to be present at the evidentiary hearing and to be represented by counsel. A waiver of the right to be present shall be in writing.

(e) The senior resident superior court judge shall determine the convicted person's indigence status and, if appropriate, enter an order for the appointment of counsel. The court may also enter an order relieving an indigent convicted person of all or a portion of the costs of the proceedings.

(f) The clerk of court shall provide written notification to the victim 30 days prior to any case-related hearings.

(g) Upon the motion of either party, the senior judge of the panel may direct the attorneys for the parties to appear before him or her for a conference on any matter in the case.

(h) The three-judge panel shall rule as to whether the convicted person has proved by clear and convincing evidence that the convicted person is innocent of the charges. Such a determination shall require a unanimous vote. If the vote is unanimous, the panel shall enter dismissal of all or any of the charges. If the vote is not unanimous, the panel shall deny relief.

(i) A person who is determined by the three-judge panel to be innocent of all charges and against whom the charges are dismissed pursuant to this section is eligible for compensation under Article 8 of Chapter 148 of the General Statutes without obtaining a pardon of innocence from the Governor."

SECTION 9. G.S. 7A-64(a1) is repealed.

SECTION 10. Article 92 of Chapter 15A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 15A-1471. Preservation of files and evidence; production of files and evidence; forensic and DNA testing.

(a) Upon receiving written notice from the Commission of a Commission inquiry, the State shall preserve all files and evidence subject to disclosure under G.S. 15A-903. Once the Commission provides written notice to the State that the Commission's inquiry is complete, the duty to preserve under this section shall cease; however, other preservation requirements may be applicable.

(b) The Commission is entitled to a copy of all records preserved under subsection (a) of this section, including access to inspect and examine all physical evidence.

(c) Upon request of the Commission, the State shall transfer custody of physical evidence to the Commission's Director, or the Director's designee, for forensic and DNA testing. The Commission shall preserve evidence in a manner reasonably calculated to prevent contamination or degradation of any biological evidence that might be present, while subject to a continuous chain of custody and securely retained with sufficient official documentation to locate the evidence. At or prior to the completion of the Commission's inquiry, the Commission shall return all remaining evidence.

(d) The Commission shall have the right to subject physical evidence to forensic and DNA testing, including consumption of biological material, as necessary for the Commission's inquiry. If testing complies with FBI requirements and the data meets NDIS criteria, profiles obtained from the testing shall be searched and uploaded to CODIS. The Commission shall incur all costs associated with ensuring compliance with FBI requirements and NDIS criteria."

SECTION 11. G.S. 148-82(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Any person who, having been convicted of a felony after pleading not guilty or nolo contendere and having been imprisoned therefor in a State prison of this State, and who is determined to be innocent of all charges and against whom the charges are dismissed pursuant to G.S. 15A-1469 may as hereinafter provided present by petition a claim against the State for the pecuniary loss sustained by the person through his or her erroneous conviction and imprisonment, provided the petition is presented within five years of the date that the dismissal of the charges is entered by the three-judge panel under G.S. 15A-1469."

SECTION 12. This act is effective when it becomes law and applies to any pending claims on the effective date or claims filed on or after the effective date.

HOUSE BILL 778:
Amend Innocence Commission Laws

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary I	Date:	May 21, 2012
Introduced by:	Rep. Stevens	Prepared by:	Susan Sitze
Analysis of:	Third Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: This bill would amend statutes relating to claims referred to the Innocence Inquiry Commission, and to the preservation of physical and biological evidence.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1: Clarifies that all evidence, regardless of when it was collected, is subject to preservation laws.

Section 2: Provides that a custodial agency shall provide a defendant an inventory of the evidence it possesses, and if the evidence was destroyed by court order or directive, a copy of the same shall be provided.

Section 3: Amends the list of conditions which must be met for an evidence custodian to dispose of evidence to include a determination that there is no duty to maintain the evidence under the Innocence Inquiry Commission statute, and that the district attorney has not provided notification that the evidence is needed for a Commission proceeding.

Section 4: Defines the term "claimant" as used in the Innocence Inquiry Commission proceedings.

Section 5: Amends the law which provides who may refer a claim of factual innocence to the Commission. Current law allows any court, person, or agency to do so. The amendment provides that any court, State or local law enforcement agency, claimant, or claimant's counsel. The change would require an organization working on behalf of a claimant to have either the claimant or the claimant's counsel submit the referral.

Section 6: Removes the Commission's authority to close the proceedings to the victim.

Section 7: Provides in uncodified language that the Commission must include in its rules the holding of a prehearing conference at least 10 days prior to full Commission proceedings. The conference attendees are limited to the DA where the claimant was convicted, the claimant's counsel, the Chair of the Commission, the Executive Director of the Commission, and any Commission staff designated by the Director. The DA shall be allowed an opportunity to inspect any new evidence and any information that they deem relevant to the proceedings. Prior to any Commission proceedings, the DA may provide a written statement to the Commission, which shall be included in the record of the Commission's proceedings.

Section 8: In cases of prosecutorial misconduct, changes the appointment authority for a special prosecutor before three-judge panel from the Director of the Administrative Office of the Courts to the Attorney General.

The threshold for the appointment of a special prosecutor is changed from "allegation of or evidence of" prosecutorial misconduct to a conclusion of "credible evidence" of prosecutorial misconduct by the Commission.

An attorney who prosecuted or assisted with the prosecution in the trial of the convicted person, or is a prosecuting attorney in the district where the convicted person was tried, would be ineligible for appointment.

Limits evidence in the hearing before the three-judge panel to only credible, verifiable evidence that is relevant to the case.

Section 9: Makes a conforming change by repealing a subsection of a statute that authorized the Director of the Administrative Office of the Courts to appoint a special prosecutor.

Section 10: Provides procedures for the preservation of evidence while a claim is pending before the Innocence Inquiry Commission

- The State must preserve evidence upon receipt of a notice from the Commission until notified that the inquiry is complete.
- The Commission has the right to copies of all records and to access and inspect all physical evidence.
- Upon notice, the State must transfer physical evidence to the Commission for forensic and DNA testing; the Commission must preserve evidence in a manner reasonably calculated to prevent contamination or degradation of any biological evidence.
- If testing complies with FBI requirements and the data meets NDIS criteria, profiles obtained from the testing will be searched and uploaded to CODIS."

Section 11: Amends the prerequisite for applying for compensation for imprisonment, based on a finding of Innocence by the three-judge panel, to require that the person pled not guilty or nolo contendere.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act is effective when it becomes law and applies to any pending claims on the effective date or claims filed on or after the effective date.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO PROVIDE THAT AN INDIVIDUAL WHO HAS BEEN AWARDED UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE BENEFITS BY THE EMPLOYMENT SECURITY COMMISSION, BUT DOES NOT RECEIVE THOSE BENEFITS AS THE RESULT OF AN ACT OR OMISSION OF THE COMMISSION, IS DEEMED AN AGGRIEVED PARTY FOR THE PURPOSES OF JUDICIAL REVIEW WITHOUT THE REQUIREMENT TO EXHAUST ADMINISTRATIVE REMEDIES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 96-12(b)(1) reads as rewritten:

"(b) (1) a. Repealed by Session Laws 1977, c. 727, s. 52.

b. An individual who is totally unemployed shall be paid the individual's weekly benefit amount. The weekly benefit amount for an individual is the amount of the high-quarter wages paid to the individual in the individual's base period, divided by 26 and, if the quotient is not a whole dollar, rounded to the next lower whole dollar. If this amount is less than fifteen dollars ($15.00), the individual is not eligible for benefits.

c. Repealed by Session Laws 1981, c. 160, s. 17.

d. In any case where an individual has applied for weekly benefits and has been awarded benefits but fails to receive those benefits as the result of an act or omission on the part of the Commission, the Commission shall rectify the error and shall pay the benefits immediately. Any failure of the Commission to rectify and pay as required by this subdivision renders the individual an aggrieved party for the purposes of G.S. 96-15(h) who is not required to exhaust administrative remedies and who may obtain injunctive and other relief, including an order to compel the Commission to pay the benefits."

SECTION 2. This act is effective when it becomes law.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO AMEND THE LAWS REGARDING DISPOSITION OF BLOOD EVIDENCE, ADMISSIBILITY OF REPORTS AFTER NOTICE AND DEMAND, AND EXPUNCTION OF DNA SAMPLES TAKEN UPON ARREST.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 20-139.1 is amended by adding a new section to read:

"(h) Disposition of Blood Evidence – Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any blood or urine sample subject to chemical analysis for the presence of alcohol, a controlled substance or its metabolite, or any impairing substance pursuant to this section may be destroyed by the analyzing agency 12 months after the issuance date of the report of all examinations conducted, without further notice to the parties. However, if a Motion to Preserve the evidence has been filed by either party, the evidence shall remain in the custody of the analyzing agency or the agency that collected the sample until dispositive order of a court of competent jurisdiction is entered."

SECTION 2. G.S. 8-58.20(f) reads as rewritten:

"(f) If the defendant's attorney of record, or the defendant if that person has no attorney, fails to file a written objection with the court to the use of the laboratory report and affidavit within the time allowed by this section, then the laboratory report and affidavit ~~may~~ shall be admitted in evidence in any proceeding without the testimony of the analyst subject to the presiding judge ruling otherwise at the proceeding when offered. If, however, a written objection is filed, this section does not apply and the admissibility of the evidence shall be determined and governed by the appropriate rules of evidence."

SECTION 3. G.S. 8-58.20(g)(5) reads as rewritten:

"(5) If the defendant's attorney of record, or the defendant if that person has no attorney, fails to file the written objection as provided in this subsection, then the statement ~~may~~ shall be admitted into evidence without the necessity of a personal appearance by the person signing the statement."

SECTION 4. G.S. 20-139.1(c1) reads as rewritten:

"(c1) Admissibility. – The results of a chemical analysis of blood or urine reported by the North Carolina State Crime Laboratory, the Charlotte, North Carolina, Police Department Laboratory, or any other laboratory approved for chemical analysis by the Department of Health and Human Services, are admissible as evidence in all administrative hearings, and in any court, without further authentication and without the testimony of the analyst. The results shall be certified by the person who performed the analysis. The provisions of this subsection may be utilized in any administrative hearing, but can only be utilized in cases tried in the district and superior court divisions, or in an adjudicatory hearing in juvenile court, if:

(1) The State notifies the defendant at least 15 business days before the proceeding at which the evidence would be used of its intention to introduce the report into evidence under this subsection and provides a copy of the report to the defendant, and

(2) The defendant fails to file a written objection with the court, with a copy to the State, at least five business days before the proceeding at which the report would be used that the defendant objects to the introduction of the report into evidence.

If the defendant's attorney of record, or the defendant if that person has no attorney, fails to file a written objection as provided in this subsection, then the report ~~may~~ shall be admitted into evidence without the testimony of the analyst. Upon filing a timely objection, the admissibility of the report shall be determined and governed by the appropriate rules of evidence.

The report containing the results of any blood or urine test may be transmitted electronically or via facsimile. A copy of the affidavit sent electronically or via facsimile shall be admissible in any court or administrative hearing without further authentication. A copy of the report shall be sent to the charging officer, the clerk of superior court in the county in which the criminal charges are pending, the Division of Motor Vehicles, and the Department of Health and Human Services.

Nothing in this subsection precludes the right of any party to call any witness or to introduce any evidence supporting or contradicting the evidence contained in the report."

SECTION 5. G.S. 20-139.1(c3) reads as rewritten:

"(c3) Procedure for Establishing Chain of Custody Without Calling Unnecessary Witnesses. –

(1) For the purpose of establishing the chain of physical custody or control of blood or urine tested or analyzed to determine whether it contains alcohol, a controlled substance or its metabolite, or any impairing substance, a statement signed by each successive person in the chain of custody that the person delivered it to the other person indicated on or about the date stated is prima facie evidence that the person had custody and made the delivery as stated, without the necessity of a personal appearance in court by the person signing the statement.

(2) The statement shall contain a sufficient description of the material or its container so as to distinguish it as the particular item in question and shall state that the material was delivered in essentially the same condition as received. The statement may be placed on the same document as the report provided for in subsection (c1) of this section.

(3) The provisions of this subsection may be utilized in any administrative hearing, but can only be utilized in cases tried in the district and superior court divisions, or in an adjudicatory hearing in juvenile court, if:

a. The State notifies the defendant at least 15 business days before the proceeding at which the statement would be used of its intention to introduce the statement into evidence under this subsection and provides a copy of the statement to the defendant, and

b. The defendant fails to file a written notification with the court, with a copy to the State, at least five business days before the proceeding at which the statement would be used that the defendant objects to the introduction of the statement into evidence.

If the defendant's attorney of record, or the defendant if that person has no attorney, fails to file a written objection as provided in this subsection, then the statement ~~may~~ shall be admitted into evidence without the necessity of a personal appearance by the person signing the statement. Upon filing a timely objection, the admissibility of the report shall be determined and governed by the appropriate rules of evidence.

(4) Nothing in this subsection precludes the right of any party to call any witness or to introduce any evidence supporting or contradicting the evidence contained in the statement."

SECTION 6. G.S. 20-139.1(e1) reads as rewritten:

"(e1) Use of Chemical Analyst's Affidavit in District Court. – An affidavit by a chemical analyst sworn to and properly executed before an official authorized to administer oaths ~~is~~ shall be admissible in evidence without further authentication and without the testimony of the analyst in any hearing or trial in the District Court Division of the General Court of Justice with respect to the following matters:

(1) The alcohol concentration or concentrations or the presence or absence of an impairing substance of a person given a chemical analysis and who is involved in the hearing or trial.

(2) The time of the collection of the blood, breath, or other bodily fluid or substance sample or samples for the chemical analysis.

(3) The type of chemical analysis administered and the procedures followed.

(4) The type and status of any permit issued by the Department of Health and Human Services that the analyst held on the date the analyst performed the chemical analysis in question.

(5) If the chemical analysis is performed on a breath-testing instrument for which regulations adopted pursuant to subsection (b) require preventive maintenance, the date the most recent preventive maintenance procedures were performed on the breath-testing instrument used, as shown on the maintenance records for that instrument.

The Department of Health and Human Services shall develop a form for use by chemical analysts in making this affidavit."

SECTION 7. G.S. 90-95(g) reads as rewritten:

"(g) Whenever matter is submitted to the North Carolina State Crime Laboratory, the Charlotte, North Carolina, Police Department Laboratory or to the Toxicology Laboratory, Reynolds Health Center, Winston-Salem for chemical analysis to determine if the matter is or contains a controlled substance, the report of that analysis certified to upon a form approved by the Attorney General by the person performing the analysis shall be admissible without further authentication and without the testimony of the analyst in all proceedings in the district court and superior court divisions of the General Court of Justice as evidence of the identity, nature, and quantity of the matter analyzed. Provided, however, the provisions of this subsection may be utilized by the State only if:

(1) The State notifies the defendant at least 15 business days before the proceeding at which the report would be used of its intention to introduce the report into evidence under this subsection and provides a copy of the report to the defendant, and

(2) The defendant fails to file a written objection with the court, with a copy to the State, at least five business days before the proceeding that the defendant objects to the introduction of the report into evidence.

If the defendant's attorney of record, or the defendant if that person has no attorney, fails to file a written objection as provided in this subsection, then the report ~~may~~ shall be admitted into evidence without the testimony of the analyst. Upon filing a timely objection, the admissibility of the report shall be determined and governed by the appropriate rules of evidence.

Nothing in this subsection precludes the right of any party to call any witness or to introduce any evidence supporting or contradicting the evidence contained in the report."

SECTION 8. G.S. 90-95(g1) reads as rewritten:

"(g1) Procedure for establishing chain of custody without calling unnecessary witnesses. –

(1) For the purpose of establishing the chain of physical custody or control of evidence consisting of or containing a substance tested or analyzed to determine whether it is a controlled substance, a statement signed by each successive person in the chain of custody that the person delivered it to the other person indicated on or about the date stated is prima facie evidence that the person had custody and made the delivery as stated, without the necessity of a personal appearance in court by the person signing the statement.

(2) The statement shall contain a sufficient description of the material or its container so as to distinguish it as the particular item in question and shall state that the material was delivered in essentially the same condition as received. The statement may be placed on the same document as the report provided for in subsection (g) of this section.

(3) The provisions of this subsection may be utilized by the State only if:

a. The State notifies the defendant at least 15 days before trial of its intention to introduce the statement into evidence under this subsection and provides the defendant with a copy of the statement, and

b. The defendant fails to notify the State at least five days before trial that the defendant objects to the introduction of the statement into evidence.

If the defendant's attorney of record, or the defendant if that person has no attorney, fails to file a written objection as provided in this subsection, then the statement shall be admitted into evidence without the necessity of a personal appearance by the person signing the statement. Upon filing a timely objection, the admissibility of the report shall be determined and governed by the appropriate rules of evidence.

(4) Nothing in this subsection precludes the right of any party to call any witness or to introduce any evidence supporting or contradicting the evidence contained in the statement."

SECTION 9. G.S. 15A-266.3A(k) reads as rewritten:

"(k) Within ~~30~~ 90 days of receipt of the verification form, the SBI shall:

(1) Determine whether the requirement of subdivision (2) of subsection (h) of this section has been met.

(2) If the requirement has been met, remove the defendant's DNA record and samples as required by subsection (h) of this section.

(3) Mail to the defendant, at the address specified in the verification form, a notice either:

a. Documenting expunction of the DNA record and destruction of the DNA sample, or

b. Notifying the defendant that the DNA record and sample do not qualify for expunction pursuant to subsection (h) of this section."

SECTION 10. This act becomes effective December 1, 2012. Sections 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, and 8 of this act apply to proceedings that occur on or after December 1, 2012.

HOUSE BILL 690:
Amend Evidence & Expunction Laws

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Ref to Judiciary I. If fav, re-ref to Finance	Date:	May 23, 2012
Introduced by:	Reps. Stevens, Jordan, T. Moore	Prepared by:	Susan Sitze Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	PCS to Third Edition H690-CSLH-10

SUMMARY: The Proposed Committee Substitute for House Bill 690 would amend the laws regarding disposition of blood evidence, the admissibility of analyst statements, and the expunction of DNA samples taken upon arrest.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 would authorize the destruction of blood or urine samples, taken upon arrest for an implied consent offense, for chemical analysis for the presence of alcohol, a controlled substance or its metabolite, or any impairing substance 12 months after the issuance of the report, without further notice to the parties. If a motion to preserve evidence has been filed by a party, the evidence shall be retained until a court issues a dispositive order.

Sections 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7 & 8 would amend various statutes relating to the admissibility of an analyst's report or a chain of custody report without the testimony of the analyst or the persons in the chain of custody to provide that after notice by the district attorney of the intent to submit the report as evidence, if the defendant or the defendant's attorney does not file written objection, the report shall be admissible as evidence without the personal appearance of the analyst or persons in the chain of custody.

Section 9 would allow the SBI 90 days, instead of the current 30 days, after receipt of a verification form to determine whether a DNA sample that was taken upon arrest of a defendant is eligible for expunction, remove the sample from the database if it is eligible for expunction, and mail notice to the defendant.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act becomes effective December 1, 2012. Sections 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, and 8 of this act apply to proceedings that occur on or after December 1, 2012.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO ELIMINATE OBSOLETE REGISTER OF DEEDS PROVISIONS FROM THE GENERAL STATUTES, TO AMEND LOCAL AGENCY CHARGES FOR VITAL RECORDS SEARCHES, TO CLARIFY THE LAW GOVERNING PERSONS HOLDING THE POWER TO DIRECT TRUSTEES, TRUST PROTECTORS, AND DIRECTED TRUSTEES AND OTHER FIDUCIARIES, TO MAKE TECHNICAL CHANGES IN THE LAW GOVERNING TRUSTS AND DECEDENTS' ESTATES, AND TO AUTHORIZE THE REVISOR OF STATUTES TO PRINT OFFICIAL COMMENTS TO THE UNIFORM TRUST CODE.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

PART I: OBSOLETE REGISTER OF DEEDS PROVISIONS

SECTION 1.1. G.S. 9-4 reads as rewritten:

"§ 9-4. Preparation and custody of list.

As the jury list is prepared, the name and address of each qualified person selected for the list shall be recorded and alphabetically arranged. ~~written on a separate card. The cards shall then be alphabetized and permanently numbered, the numbers running consecutively with a different number on each card. These cards shall constitute the jury list for the county. They~~ The list shall be filed with the office of the clerk of court, ~~register of deeds of the county,~~ together with a statement of the sources used and procedures followed in preparing the list. The list shall be kept under lock and key, but shall be available for public inspection during regular office hours. The ~~register of deeds~~clerk of court may elect to store an electronic copy of the jury list for the county."

SECTION 1.2. G.S. 45-16 is repealed.

SECTION 1.3. G.S. 45-21.17A(b) reads as rewritten:

"§ 45-21.17A. Requests for copies of notice.

...

(b) Register of Deeds' Duties. – Upon the filing for record of such request, the register of deeds shall index in the general index of grantors the names of the trustors (mortgagors) recited therein, and the names of the persons requesting copies, with a reference in the index of the book and page of the recorded security instrument to which the request refers.~~refers; or upon the filing for record of such request, the register of deeds may, instead of indexing such request on the general index of grantors, stamp upon the face of the security instrument referred to in the request the book and page of each request for notice thereunder.~~"

SECTION 1.4. G.S. 47-14(e) reads as rewritten:

"§ 47-14. Register of deeds to verify the presence of proof or acknowledgement and register instruments and electronic documents; order by judge; instruments to which register of deeds is a party.

...

(e) Register of Deeds as Party. – Any instrument required or permitted by law to be registered in which the register of deeds of the county of registration is a party may be proved or acknowledged before any magistrate or any notary public. ~~The clerk of superior court of the county of registration shall examine any instrument presented for registration. If it appears that the execution and acknowledgment are in due form, the clerk shall so certify and the instrument shall then be recorded in the office of the register of deeds.~~"

SECTION 1.5. G.S. 47C-2-101(a) reads as rewritten:

"§ 47C-2-101. Execution and recordation of declaration.

(a) A declaration creating a condominium shall be executed in the same manner as a deed, shall be recorded in every county in which any portion of the condominium is located.~~located, and shall be indexed in the Grantee index in the name of the condominium and in the Grantor index in the name of each person executing the declaration.~~"

SECTION 1.6. G.S. 47C-2-109(a) reads as rewritten:

"§ 47C-2-109. Plats and plans.

(a) The declarant shall file with the register of deeds in each county where the condominium is located the condominium's plat or plan prepared in accordance with this section. The plat or plan shall be considered a part of the declaration but shall be recorded separately, and the declaration shall refer by number to the file where such plat or plan is recorded. ~~Each plat or plan shall be kept by the register of deeds in a separate file, indexed in the same manner as a conveyance entitled to be recorded, numbered serially in the order of receipt, and designated "Condominium" with the name of the building, if any, and shall contain a reference to the book and page numbers and date of the recording of the declaration.~~ Each plat or plan must contain a certification by an architect licensed under the provisions of Chapter 83A of the General Statutes or an engineer registered under the provisions of Chapter 89C of the General Statutes that it contains all of the information required by this section."

SECTION 1.7. G.S. 47F-2-101 reads as rewritten:

"§ 47F-2-101. Creation of the planned community.

A declaration creating a planned community shall be executed in the same manner as a ~~deed,~~deed and shall be recorded in every county in which any portion of the planned community is located.~~located, and shall be indexed in the Grantee index in the name of the planned community and the association and in the Grantor index in the name of each person executing the declaration.~~"

SECTION 1.8. G.S. 47F-2-117(c) reads as rewritten:

"§ 47F-2-117. Amendment of declaration.

...

(c) Every amendment to the declaration shall be recorded in every county in which any portion of the planned community is located and is effective only upon recordation. ~~An amendment shall be indexed in the Grantee index in the name of the planned community and the association and in the Grantor index in the name of each person executing the amendment.~~"

SECTION 1.9. G.S. 58-72-50 reads as rewritten:

"§ 58-72-50. Approval, acknowledgment and custody of bonds.

The approval of all official bonds taken or renewed by the board of commissioners shall be recorded by the clerk to the board. Every such bond shall be acknowledged by the parties thereto or proved by a subscribing witness, before the chairman of the board of commissioners, or before the clerk of the superior court, ~~registered in the register's office in a separate book to be kept for the registration of official bonds,~~ and the original bond, with the approval of the commissioners endorsed thereon and certified by their chairman; shall be deposited with the clerk of the superior court for safekeeping. Provided that an official bond executed as surety by a surety company authorized to do business in this State need not be acknowledged upon behalf of the surety when such bond is executed under seal in the name of the surety by an agent or attorney-in-fact by authority of a power of attorney duly recorded in the office of the register of deeds of such county.~~county and such bond may be recorded by the register of deeds without an order of probate entered by the clerk of the superior court.~~"

SECTION 1.10. G.S. 68-18.1 reads as rewritten:

"§ 68-18.1. Notice when owner not known.

If the owner of the impounded livestock is not known or cannot be found, the impounder shall inform the ~~register of deeds that he has impounded the livestock and provide the register of deeds with a description of the livestock. The register of deeds shall record the information in a book kept for that purpose, and shall charge the impounder a fee of ten dollars ($10.00). The register of deeds shall immediately publish a notice of the impoundment of the animal by posting a notice on the courthouse door. The notice on the courthouse door shall be posted for 30 days, and shall contain~~ sheriff of the county in which the livestock was found of the impoundment, giving a full description of the livestock impounded, including all marks or brands on the livestock, and shall state when and where the animal was taken up.~~The impounder shall publish once, in some newspaper published and distributed in the county, a notice containing the same information as the notice posted by the register of deeds. The fees for publishing the notice shall be paid by the impounder.~~"

SECTION 1.11. G.S. 80-16 reads as rewritten:

"§ 80-16. How adopted, registered and published.

Every such dealer desiring to adopt a trademark may do so pursuant to the provisions of Article 1, Chapter 80 of the General Statutes. Nothing in this section invalidates or otherwise alters the legal effect of any timber mark registered according to the law in effect at the time of registration. ~~by the execution of a writing in form and effect as follows:~~

~~Notice is hereby given that I (or we, etc., as the case may be) have adopted the following trademark, to be used in my (or our, etc.) business as timber dealer (or dealers), to wit: (Here insert the words, letters, figures, etc., constituting the trademark, or if it be any device other than words, letters or figures, insert a facsimile thereof).~~

~~Dated this ____ day of ____, ____ A ____B ____~~

~~Such writing shall be acknowledged or proved for record in the same manner as deeds are acknowledged or proved, and shall be registered in the office of the register of deeds of the county in which the principal office or place of business of such timber dealer may be, in a book to be kept for that purpose marked Registry of Timber Marks, also in office of Secretary of State, and a copy thereof shall be published at least once in each week for four successive weeks in some newspaper printed in such county, or if there be no such newspaper printed therein, then in some newspaper of general circulation in such county.~~"

SECTION 1.12. G.S. 80-33 through G.S. 80-37 are repealed.

SECTION 1.13. G.S. 80-38 reads as rewritten:

"§ 80-38. When transfer of farm carries name.

When any owner of a farm, the name of which has been recorded in the office of the register of deeds of the county in which the farm is located according to the law in effect at the time of recording, ~~as provided in this Article,~~ transfers by deed or otherwise the whole of such farm, such transfer may include the registered name thereof; but if the owner shall transfer only a portion of such farm, then, in the event, the registered name thereof shall not be transferred to the purchaser unless so stated in the deed or conveyance."

SECTION 1.14. G.S. 80-39 reads as rewritten:

"§ 80-39. Cancellation of registry; fee.

When any owner of a ~~registered~~ farm name that has been registered in the office of the register of deeds of the county in which the farm is located desires to cancel the registered name thereof, such owner may record a duly signed and acknowledged instrument to that effect in the register of deeds real estate records.~~he shall state on the margin of the record of the register of such name the following: "This name is canceled and I hereby release all rights thereunder," which shall be signed by the person canceling such name, and attested by the register of deeds. For such latter service the register of deeds shall charge a fee of twenty five cents (25¢), which shall be paid to the county treasurer as other fees are paid to the county treasurer by him.~~"

SECTION 1.15. G.S. 87-110(d) reads as rewritten:

"§ 87-110. Recording requirements for utility owners.

...

(d) ~~Upon receipt of the documents recorded pursuant to subsections (a), (b), or (c) of this section, the Register of Deeds shall place the documents in the Grantor's Index under the heading "Underground Utilities".~~ The registration fee imposed by Chapter 161 of the General Statutes shall apply to these documents."

SECTION 1.16. G.S. 104-7(c) reads as rewritten:

"§ 104-7. Acquisition of lands by the United States for customhouses, courthouses, post offices, forts, arsenals, or armories; cession of jurisdiction; exemption from taxation.

...

(c) The jurisdiction ceded shall not vest until the United States has acquired title to the land by purchase, condemnation, or otherwise; accepted the cession of jurisdiction in writing; and filed a certified copy of the acceptance in the office of the register of deeds in the county or counties in which the land is located. ~~The acceptance of jurisdiction shall be made by an authorized official of the United States and shall include a precise description of the land involved and a statement of the extent to which cession of jurisdiction is accepted. The register of deeds shall record the acceptance of jurisdiction and index it in both the grantor and the grantee index under the name of the United States and, if title to the land over which jurisdiction is ceded is vested in any entity other than the United States, then the register of deeds shall also index the acceptance of jurisdiction in both the grantor and the grantee index under the name of that entity.~~"

SECTION 1.17. G.S. 130A-301 reads as rewritten:

"§ 130A-301. Recordation of permits for disposal of waste on land and Notice of Open Dump.

(a) Whenever the Department approves a permit for a sanitary landfill or a facility for the disposal of hazardous waste on land, the owner of the facility shall be granted both an original permit and a copy certified by the Secretary. The permit shall include a legal description of the site that would be sufficient as a description in an instrument of conveyance.

(b) The owner of a facility granted a permit for a sanitary landfill or a facility for the disposal of hazardous waste on land shall file the certified copy of the permit in the office of the register of deeds in the county or counties in which the land is located.

~~(c) The register of deeds shall record the certified copy of the permit and index it in the grantor index under the name of the owner of the land.~~

(d) The permit shall not be effective unless the certified copy is filed as required under subsection (b) of this section.

(e) When a sanitary landfill or a facility for the disposal of hazardous waste on land is sold, leased, conveyed or transferred, the deed or other instrument of transfer shall contain in the description section in no smaller type than that used in the body of the deed or instrument a statement that the property has been used as a sanitary landfill or a disposal site for hazardous waste and a reference by book and page to the recordation of the permit.

(f) When the Department determines that an open dump exists, the Department shall notify the owner or operator of the open dump of applicable requirements to take remedial action at the site of the open dump to protect public health and the environment. If the owner or operator fails to take remedial action, the Department may record a Notice of Open Dump in the office of the register of deeds in the county or counties where the open dump is located. Not less than 30 days before recording the Notice of Open Dump, the Department shall notify the owner or operator of its intention to file a Notice of Open Dump. The Department may notify the owner or operator of its intention to file a Notice of Open Dump at the time it notifies the owner or operator of applicable requirements to take remedial action. An owner or operator may challenge a decision of the Department to file a Notice of Open Dump by filing a contested case under Article 3 of Chapter 150B of the General Statutes. If an owner or operator challenges a decision of the Department to file a Notice of Open Dump, the Department shall not file the Notice of Open Dump until the contested case is resolved, but may file a notice of pending litigation under Article 11 of Chapter 1 of the General Statutes. This power is additional and supplemental to any other power granted to the Department. This subsection does not repeal or supersede any statute or rule requiring or authorizing record notice by the owner.

(1) The Department shall file the Notice of Open Dump in the office of the register of deeds in substantially the following form:

"NOTICE OF OPEN DUMP

The Division of Waste Management of the North Carolina Department of Environment and Natural Resources has determined that an open dump exists on the property described below. The Department provides the following information regarding this open dump as a public service. This Notice is filed pursuant to G.S. 130A-301(f).

Name(s) of the record owner(s): _____

Description of the real property: _____

Description of the particular area where the open dump is located: ____

Any person who has questions regarding this Notice should contact the Division of Waste Management of the North Carolina Department of Environment and Natural Resources. The contact person for this Notice is: _____ who may be reached by telephone at _____ or by mail at _____. Requests for inspection and copying of public records regarding this open dump may be directed to _____ who may be reached by telephone at _____ or by mail at _____.

_____

Secretary of Environment and Natural Resources by _____

Date: _____."

(2) The description of the particular area where the open dump is located shall be based on the best information available to the Department but need not be a survey plat that meets the requirements of G.S. 47-30 unless a survey plat that meets those requirements and that is approved by the Department is furnished by the owner or operator.

~~(3) The register of deeds shall record the Notice of Open Dump and index it in the grantor index under the name of the record owner or owners. After recording the Notice of Open Dump, the register of deeds shall return the Notice of Open Dump to the Department in care of the person listed as the contact person in the Notice of Open Dump.~~

(4) When the owner removes all solid waste from the open dump site to the satisfaction of the Department, the Department shall file a Cancellation of the Notice of Open Dump. The Cancellation shall be in a form similar to the original Notice of Open Dump and shall state that all the solid waste that constituted the open dump has been removed to the satisfaction of the Department. ~~The Cancellation shall be filed and indexed in the same manner as the original Notice of Open Dump.~~"

SECTION 1.18. G.S. 130A-310.8 reads as rewritten:

"§ 130A-310.8. Recordation of inactive hazardous substance or waste disposal sites.

(a) After determination by the Department of the existence and location of an inactive hazardous substance or waste disposal site, the owner of the real property on which the site is located, within 180 days after official notice to the owner to do so, shall submit to the Department a survey plat of areas designated by the Department that has been prepared and certified by a professional land surveyor, and entitled "NOTICE OF INACTIVE HAZARDOUS SUBSTANCE OR WASTE DISPOSAL SITE". Where an inactive hazardous substance or waste disposal site is located on more than one parcel or tract of land, a composite map or plat showing all parcels or tracts may be recorded. The Notice shall include a legal description of the site that would be sufficient as a description in an instrument of conveyance, shall meet the requirements of G.S. 47-30 for maps and plats, and shall identify:

(1) The location and dimensions of the disposal areas and areas of potential environmental concern with respect to permanently surveyed benchmarks.

(2) The type, location, and quantity of hazardous substances known by the owner of the site to exist on the site.

(3) Any restrictions approved by the Department on the current or future use of the site.

(b) After the Department approves and certifies the Notice, the owner of the site shall file the certified copy of the Notice in the register of deeds' office in the county or counties in which the land is located within 15 days of the date on which the owner receives approval of the Notice from the Department.

~~(c) The register of deeds shall record the certified copy of the Notice and index it in the grantor index under the names of the owners of the lands.~~

(d) In the event that the owner of the site fails to submit and file the Notice required by this section within the time specified, the Secretary may prepare and file such Notice. The costs thereof may be recovered by the Secretary from any responsible party. In the event that an owner of a site who is not a responsible party submits and files the Notice required by this section, he may recover the reasonable costs thereof from any responsible party.

(e) When an inactive hazardous substance or waste disposal site is sold, leased, conveyed, or transferred, the deed or other instrument of transfer shall contain in the description section, in no smaller type than that used in the body of the deed or instrument, a statement that the property has been used as a hazardous substance or waste disposal site and a reference by book and page to the recordation of the Notice.

(f) A Notice of Inactive Hazardous Substance or Waste Disposal Site filed pursuant to this section may, at the request of the owner of the land, be cancelled by the Secretary after the hazards have been eliminated. If requested in writing by the owner of the land and if the Secretary concurs with the request, the Secretary shall send to the register of deeds of each county where the Notice is recorded a statement that the hazards have been eliminated and request that the Notice be cancelled of record. The Secretary's statement shall contain the names of the owners of the land as shown in the Notice and reference the plat book and page where the Notice is recorded. ~~The register of deeds shall record the Secretary's statement in the deed books and index it on the grantor index in the names of the owners of the land as shown in the Notice and on the grantee index in the name "Secretary of Environment and Natural~~ ~~Resources". The register of deeds shall make a marginal entry on the Notice showing the date of cancellation and the book and page where the Secretary's statement is recorded, and the register of deeds shall sign the entry. If a marginal entry is impracticable because of the method used to record maps and plats, the register of deeds shall not be required to make a marginal entry.~~

(g) Recordation under this section is not required for any inactive hazardous substance or waste disposal site that is undergoing voluntary remedial action pursuant to this Part unless the Secretary determines that either:

(1) A concentration of a hazardous substance or hazardous waste that poses a danger to public health or the environment will remain following implementation of the voluntary remedial action program.

(2) The voluntary remedial action program is not being implemented in a manner satisfactory to the Secretary and in compliance with the agreement between the Secretary and the owner, operator, or other responsible party.

(h) The Secretary may waive recordation under this section with respect to any residential real property that is contaminated solely because a hazardous substance or hazardous waste migrated to the property from other property by means of groundwater flow if disclosure of the contamination is required under Chapter 47E of the General Statutes. An owner of residential real property whose recordation requirement is waived by the Secretary under this subsection and who fails to disclose contamination as required by Chapter 47E of the General Statutes is subject to both the penalties and remedies under this Chapter applicable to a person who fails to comply with the recordation requirements of this section as though those requirements had not been waived and to the remedies available under Chapter 47E of the General Statutes."

SECTION 1.19. G.S. 130A-310.35 reads as rewritten:

"§ 130A-310.35. Notice of Brownfields Property; land-use restrictions in deed.

(a) In order to reduce or eliminate the danger to public health or the environment posed by a brownfields property being addressed under this Part, a prospective developer who desires to enter into a brownfields agreement with the Department shall submit to the Department a proposed Notice of Brownfields Property. A Notice of Brownfields Property shall be entitled "Notice of Brownfields Property", shall include a survey plat of areas designated by the Department that has been prepared and certified by a professional land surveyor and that meets the requirements of G.S. 47-30, shall include a legal description of the brownfields property that would be sufficient as a description of the property in an instrument of conveyance, and shall identify all of the following:

(1) The location and dimensions of the areas of potential environmental concern with respect to permanently surveyed benchmarks.

(2) The type, location, and quantity of regulated substances and contaminants known to exist on the brownfields property.

(3) Any restrictions on the current or future use of the brownfields property or, with the owner's permission, other property that are necessary or useful to maintain the level of protection appropriate for the designated current or future use of the brownfields property and that are designated in the brownfields agreement. These land-use restrictions may apply to activities on, over, or under the land, including, but not limited to, use of groundwater, building, filling, grading, excavating, and mining. Where a brownfields property encompasses more than one parcel or tract of land, a composite map or plat showing all parcels or tracts may be recorded.

(b) After the Department approves and certifies the Notice of Brownfields Property under subsection (a) of this section, a prospective developer who enters into a brownfields agreement with the Department shall file a certified copy of the Notice of Brownfields Property in the register of deeds' office in the county or counties in which the land is located. The prospective developer shall file the Notice of Brownfields Property within 15 days of the prospective developer's receipt of the Department's approval of the notice or the prospective developer's entry into the brownfields agreement, whichever is later.

~~(c) The register of deeds shall record the certified copy of the notice and index it in the grantor index under the names of the owners of the land, and, if different, also under the name of the prospective developer conducting the redevelopment of the brownfields property.~~

(d) When a brownfields property is sold, leased, conveyed, or transferred, the deed or other instrument of transfer shall contain in the description section, in no smaller type than that used in the body of the deed or instrument, a statement that the brownfields property has been classified and, if appropriate, cleaned up as a brownfields property under this Part.

(e) A Notice of Brownfields Property filed pursuant to this section may, at the request of the owner of the land, be cancelled by the Secretary after the hazards have been eliminated. If requested in writing by the owner of the land and if the Secretary concurs with the request, the Secretary shall send to the register of deeds of each county where the notice is recorded a statement that the hazards have been eliminated and request that the notice be cancelled of record. The Secretary's statement shall contain the names of the owners of the land as shown in the notice and reference the plat book and page where the notice is recorded. ~~The register of deeds shall record the Secretary's statement in the deed books and index it on the grantor index in the names of the owners of the land as shown in the Notice of Brownfields Property and on the grantee index in the name "Secretary of Environment and Natural Resources". The register of deeds shall make a marginal entry on the Notice of Brownfields Property showing the date of cancellation and the book and page where the Secretary's statement is recorded, and the register of deeds shall sign the entry. If a marginal entry is impracticable because of the method used to record maps and plats, the register of deeds shall not be required to make a marginal entry.~~

(f) Any land-use restriction filed pursuant to this section shall be enforced by any owner of the land. Any land-use restriction may also be enforced by the Department through the remedies provided in Part 2 of Article 1 of this Chapter or by means of a civil action. The Department may enforce any land-use restriction without first having exhausted any available administrative remedies. A land-use restriction may also be enforced by any unit of local government having jurisdiction over any part of the brownfields property by means of a civil action without the unit of local government having first exhausted any available administrative remedy. A land-use restriction may also be enforced by any person eligible for liability protection under this Part who will lose liability protection if the land-use restriction is violated. A land-use restriction shall not be declared unenforceable due to lack of privity of estate or contract, due to lack of benefit to particular land, or due to lack of any property interest in particular land. Any person who owns or leases a property subject to a land-use restriction under this section shall abide by the land-use restriction.

(g) This section shall apply in lieu of the provisions of G.S. 130A-310.8 for brownfields properties remediated under this Part."

SECTION 1.20. G.S. 143-215.85A reads as rewritten:

"§ 143-215.85A. Recordation of oil or hazardous substance discharge sites.

(a) The owner of the real property on which a site is located that is subject to current or future use restrictions approved as provided in G.S. 143-215.84(f) shall submit to the Department a survey plat as required by this section within 180 days after the owner is notified to do so. The survey plat shall identify areas designated by the Department, shall be prepared and certified by a professional land surveyor, and shall be entitled "NOTICE OF OIL OR HAZARDOUS SUBSTANCE DISCHARGE SITE". Where an oil or hazardous substance discharge site is located on more than one parcel or tract of land, a composite map or plat showing all parcels or tracts may be recorded. The Notice shall include a legal description of the site that would be sufficient as a description in an instrument of conveyance, shall meet the requirements of G.S. 47-30 for maps and plats, and shall identify:

(1) The location and dimensions of the disposal areas and areas of potential environmental concern with respect to permanently surveyed benchmarks.

(2) The type, location, and quantity of oil or hazardous substances known to the owner of the site to exist on the site.

(3) Any restrictions approved by the Department on the current or future use of the site.

(b) After the Department approves and certifies the Notice, the owner of the site shall file the certified copy of the Notice in the register of deeds office in the county or counties in which the land is located within 15 days of the date on which the owner receives approval of the Notice from the Department.

~~(c) The register of deeds shall record the certified copy of the Notice and index it in the grantor index under the names of the owners of the lands.~~

(d) In the event that the owner of the site fails to submit and file the Notice required by this section within the time specified, the Secretary may prepare and file the Notice. The costs thereof may be recovered by the Secretary from any responsible party. In the event that an owner of a site who is not a responsible party submits and files the Notice required by this section, he may recover the reasonable costs thereof from any responsible party.

(e) When an oil or hazardous substance discharge site that is subject to current or future land-use restrictions under this section is sold, leased, conveyed, or transferred, the deed or other instrument of transfer shall contain in the description section, in no smaller type than that used in the body of the deed or instrument, a statement that the property has been used as an oil or hazardous substance discharge site and a reference by book and page to the recordation of the Notice.

(f) A Notice of Oil or Hazardous Substance Discharge Site filed pursuant to this section may, at the request of the owner of the land, be cancelled by the Secretary after the hazards have been eliminated. If requested in writing by the owner of the land and if the Secretary concurs with the request, the Secretary shall send to the register of deeds of each county where the Notice is recorded a statement that the hazards have been eliminated and request that the Notice be cancelled of record. The Secretary's statement shall contain the names of the owners of the land as shown in the Notice and reference the plat book and page where the Notice is recorded. ~~The register of deeds shall record the Secretary's statement in the deed books and index it on the grantor index in the names of the owners of the land as shown in the Notice and on the grantee index in the name "Secretary of Environment and Natural Resources". The register of deeds shall make a marginal entry on the Notice showing the date of cancellation and the book and page where the Secretary's statement is recorded, and the register of deeds shall sign the entry. If a marginal entry is impracticable because of the method used to record maps and plats, the register of deeds shall not be required to make a marginal entry.~~"

SECTION 1.21. G.S. 143-215.104M reads as rewritten:

"§ 143-215.104M. (Expires January 1, 2022 – see notes) Notice of Dry-Cleaning Solvent Remediation; land-use restrictions in deeds.

(a) Land-Use Restriction. – In order to reduce or eliminate the danger to public health or the environment posed by a dry-cleaning solvent contamination site, the owner of property upon which dry-cleaning solvent contamination has been discovered may file a Notice of Dry-Cleaning Solvent Remediation approved by the Commission identifying the site on which the contamination has been discovered and providing for current or future restrictions on the use of the property. If a petitioner requests that a contamination site be remediated to standards that require land-use restrictions, the owner of the property must file a Notice of Dry-Cleaning Solvent Remediation for the remediation agreement to become effective.

(b) Notice of Restriction. – A Notice of Dry-Cleaning Solvent Remediation shall include:

(1) A survey plat of the contamination site that has been prepared and certified by a professional land surveyor and that meets the requirements of G.S. 47-30.

(2) A legal description of the property that would be sufficient as a description in an instrument of conveyance.

(3) A description of the location and dimensions of the areas of potential environmental concern with respect to permanently surveyed benchmarks.

(4) The type, location, and quantity of dry-cleaning solvent contamination known to exist on the property.

(5) Any restrictions on the current or future use of the property or other property that are necessary to assure adequate protection of public health and the environment as provided in rules adopted pursuant to G.S. 143-215.104D(b)(3). These land-use restrictions may apply to activities on, over, or under the land, including, but not limited to, use of groundwater, building, filling, grading, excavating, and mining. Where a contamination site encompasses more than one parcel or tract of land, a composite map or plat showing all parcels or tracts may be recorded.

(c) Recordation of Notice. – After the Commission approves and certifies the Notice of Dry-Cleaning Solvent Remediation under subsection (a) of this section, a certified copy of a Notice of Dry-Cleaning Solvent Remediation shall be filed in the office of the register of deeds of the county or counties in which the property described is located. The owner of the property shall file the Notice of Dry-Cleaning Solvent Remediation within 15 days of the property owner's receipt of the Commission's approval of the notice or the effective date of the dry-cleaning solvent remediation agreement, whichever is later. ~~The register of deeds shall record the certified copy of the Notice of Dry-Cleaning Solvent Remediation and index it in the grantor index under the names of the owners of the land~~.

(d) Notice of Transfer. – When property for which a Notice of Dry-Cleaning Solvent Remediation has been filed is sold, leased, conveyed, or transferred, the deed or other instrument of transfer shall contain in the description section, in no smaller type than that used in the body of the deed or instrument, a statement that the property has been contaminated with dry-cleaning solvent and, if appropriate, cleaned up under this Part.

(e) Cancellation of Notice. – A Notice of Dry-Cleaning Solvent Remediation filed pursuant to this Part may, at the request of the owner of the property subject to the Notice of Dry-Cleaning Solvent Remediation, be canceled by the Secretary after the risk to public health and the environment associated with the dry-cleaning solvent contamination and any other contaminants included in the dry-cleaning solvent remediation agreement has been eliminated as a result of remediation of the property. The Secretary shall forward notice of cancellation to the register of deeds of the county or counties where the Notice of Dry-Cleaning Solvent Remediation is recorded and request that the Notice of Dry-Cleaning Solvent Remediation be canceled. The notice of cancellation shall contain the names of the landowners as shown in the Notice of Dry-Cleaning Solvent Remediation. ~~The register of deeds shall record the notice of cancellation in the deed books and index it on the grantor index in the name of the landowner as shown in the Notice of Dry-Cleaning Solvent Remediation and on the grantee index in the name "Secretary of Environment and Natural Resources". The register of deeds shall make a marginal entry on the Notice of Dry-Cleaning Solvent Remediation showing the date of cancellation and the book and page where the notice of cancellation is recorded, and the register of deeds shall sign the entry. If a marginal entry is impracticable because of the method used to record maps and plats, the register of deeds shall not be required to make a marginal entry.~~

(f) Enforcement. – Any restriction on the current or future use of property subject to a Notice of Dry-Cleaning Solvent Remediation filed pursuant to this section shall be enforced by any owner of the property or by any other potentially responsible party. Any land-use restriction may also be enforced by the Commission through the remedies provided in this Part or by means of a civil action in the superior court. The Commission may enforce any land-use restriction without first having exhausted any available administrative remedies. Restrictions also may be enforced by any unit of local government having jurisdiction over any part of the property by means of a civil action without the unit of local government having first exhausted any available administrative remedy. A land-use restriction may also be enforced by any person eligible for liability protection under this Part who will lose liability protection if the land-use restriction is violated. A restriction shall not be declared unenforceable due to lack of privity of estate or contract, due to lack of benefit to particular land, or due to lack of privity of any property interest in particular land. Any person who owns or leases a property subject to a land-use restriction under this section shall abide by the land-use restriction. Failure to submit an annual certification that land-use restrictions are properly recorded and followed shall result in a notice from the Commission to the property owner. The notice shall inform the person of the actions that need to be taken in order for the person to come into compliance and specify a date by which the person must comply, which shall not be less than 30 calendar days from the date the notice is mailed. Any person who fails to comply within the time specified shall then be subject to enforcement procedures as provided in this Part.

(g) Relation to Brownfields Notice. – Unless the Commission decertifies a previously certified facility or a previously certified abandoned site, this section shall apply in lieu of the provisions of Article 9 of Chapter 130A of the General Statutes and Parts 1 and 2 of Article 21A of Chapter 143 of the General Statutes for properties remediated under this Part."

SECTION 1.22. G.S. 143B-279.10 reads as rewritten:

"§ 143B-279.10. Recordation of contaminated sites.

(a) The owner of the real property on which a site is located that is subject to current or future use restrictions approved as provided in G.S. 143B-279.9(a) shall submit to the Department a survey plat as required by this section within 180 days after the owner is notified to do so. The survey plat shall identify areas designated by the Department, shall be prepared and certified by a professional land surveyor, and shall be entitled "NOTICE OF CONTAMINATED SITE". Where a contaminated site is located on more than one parcel or tract of land, a composite map or plat showing all parcels or tracts may be recorded. The Notice shall include a legal description of the site that would be sufficient as a description in an instrument of conveyance, shall meet the requirements of G.S. 47-30 for maps and plats, and shall identify:

(1) The location and dimensions of any disposal areas and areas of potential environmental concern with respect to permanently surveyed benchmarks.

(2) The type, location, and quantity of contamination known to the owner of the site to exist on the site.

(3) Any restriction approved by the Department on the current or future use of the site.

(b) The Department shall review the proposed Notice to determine whether the Notice meets the requirements of this section and rules adopted to implement this section, and shall provide the owner of the site with a notarized copy of the approved Notice. After the Department approves the Notice, the owner of the site shall file a notarized copy of the approved Notice in the register of deeds office in the county or counties in which the land is located within 15 days of the date on which the owner receives approval of the Notice from the Department.

~~(c) The register of deeds shall record the notarized copy of the approved Notice and index it in the grantor index under the names of the owners of the land.~~

(d) In the event that the owner of the site fails to submit and file the Notice required by this section within the time specified, the Secretary may prepare and file the Notice. The costs thereof may be recovered by the Secretary from any responsible party. In the event that an owner of a site who is not a responsible party submits and files the Notice required by this section, the owner may recover the reasonable costs thereof from any responsible party.

(e) When a contaminated site that is subject to current or future land-use restrictions is sold, leased, conveyed, or transferred, the deed or other instrument of transfer shall contain in the description section, in no smaller type than that used in the body of the deed or instrument, a statement that the property is a contaminated site and a reference by book and page to the recordation of the Notice.

(f) A Notice of Contaminated Site filed pursuant to this section shall, at the request of the owner of the land, be cancelled by the Secretary after the contamination has been eliminated or remediated to unrestricted use standards. If requested in writing by the owner of the land and if the Secretary concurs with the request, the Secretary shall send to the register of deeds of each county where the Notice is recorded a statement that the contamination has been eliminated, or that the contamination has been remediated to unrestricted use standards, and request that the Notice be cancelled of record. The Secretary's statement shall contain the names of the owners of the land as shown in the Notice and reference the plat book and page where the Notice is recorded. ~~The register of deeds shall record the Secretary's statement in the deed books and index it on the grantor index in the names of the owners of the land as shown in the Notice and on the grantee index in the name "Secretary of Environment and Natural Resources". The register of deeds shall make a marginal entry on the Notice showing the date of cancellation and the book and page where the Secretary's statement is recorded, and the register of deeds shall sign the entry. If a marginal entry is impracticable because of the method used to record maps and plats, the register of deeds shall not be required to make a marginal entry.~~

(g) This section does not apply to the cleanup pursuant to a remedial action plan that addresses environmental damage resulting from a discharge or release of petroleum from an underground storage tank pursuant to Part 2A of Article 21A of Chapter 143 of the General Statutes.

(h) The definitions set out in G.S. 143B-279.9 apply to this section."

SECTION 1.23. G.S. 143B-279.11 reads as rewritten:

"§ 143B-279.11. Recordation of residual petroleum from an underground storage tank.

(a) The definitions set out in G.S. 143-215.94A and G.S. 143B-279.9 apply to this section. This section applies only to a cleanup pursuant to a remedial action plan that addresses environmental damage resulting from a discharge or release of petroleum from an underground storage tank pursuant to Part 2A of Article 21A of Chapter 143 of the General Statutes.

(b) The owner, operator, or other person responsible for a discharge or release of petroleum from an underground storage tank shall prepare and submit to the Department a proposed Notice that meets the requirements of this section. The proposed Notice shall be submitted to the Department (i) before the property is conveyed, or (ii) when the owner, operator, or other person responsible for the discharge or release requests that the Department issue a determination that no further action is required under the remedial action plan, whichever first occurs. The Notice shall be entitled "NOTICE OF RESIDUAL PETROLEUM". The Notice shall include a description that would be sufficient as a description in an instrument of conveyance of the (i) real property on which the source of contamination is located and (ii) any real property on which contamination is located at the time the remedial action plan is approved and that was owned or controlled by any owner or operator of the underground storage tank or other responsible party at the time the discharge or release of petroleum is discovered or reported or at any time thereafter. The Notice shall identify the location of any residual petroleum known to exist on the real property at the time the Notice is prepared. The Notice shall also identify the location of any residual petroleum known, at the time the Notice is prepared, to exist on other real property that is a result of the discharge or release. The Notice shall set out any restrictions on the current or future use of the real property that are imposed by the Secretary pursuant to G.S. 143B-279.9(b) to protect public health, the environment, or users of the property.

(c) If the contamination is located on more than one parcel or tract of land, the Department may require that the owner, operator, or other person responsible for the discharge or release prepare a composite map or plat that shows all parcels or tracts. If the contamination is located on one parcel or tract of land, the owner, operator, or other person responsible for the discharge or release may prepare a map or plat that shows the parcel but is not required to do so. A map or plat shall be prepared and certified by a professional land surveyor, shall meet the requirements of G.S. 47-30, and shall be submitted to the Department for approval. When the Department has approved a map or plat, it shall be recorded in the office of the register of deeds and shall be incorporated into the Notice by reference.

(d) The Department shall review the proposed Notice to determine whether the Notice meets the requirements of this section and rules adopted to implement this section and shall provide the owner, operator, or other person responsible for the discharge or release of petroleum from an underground storage tank with a notarized copy of the approved Notice. After the Department approves the Notice, the owner, operator, or other person responsible for the discharge or release of petroleum from an underground storage tank shall file a notarized copy of the approved Notice in the register of deeds office in the county or counties in which the real property is located (i) before the property is conveyed or (ii) within 30 days after the owner, operator, or other person responsible for the discharge or release receives notice from the Department that no further action is required under the remedial action plan, whichever first occurs. If the owner, operator, or other person responsible for the discharge or release fails to file the Notice as required by this section, any determination by the Department that no further action is required is void. The owner, operator, or other person responsible for the discharge or release, may record the Notice required by this section without the agreement of the owner of the real property. The owner, operator, or other person responsible for the discharge or release shall submit a certified copy of the Notice as filed in the register of deeds office to the Department.

~~(e) The register of deeds shall record the notarized copy of the approved Notice and index it in the grantor index under the names of the owners of the real property.~~

(f) In the event that the owner, operator, or other person responsible for the discharge or release fails to submit and file the Notice required by this section within the time specified, the Secretary may prepare and file the Notice. The costs thereof may be recovered by the Secretary from any responsible party. In the event that an owner of the real property who is not a responsible party submits and files the Notice required by this section, the owner may recover the reasonable costs thereof from any responsible party.

(g) A Notice filed pursuant to this section shall, at the request of the owner of the real property, be cancelled by the Secretary after the residual petroleum has been eliminated or remediated to unrestricted use standards. If requested in writing by the owner of the land, the Secretary shall send to the register of deeds of each county where the Notice is recorded a statement that the residual petroleum has been eliminated, or that the residual petroleum has been remediated to unrestricted use standards, and request that the Notice be cancelled of record. The Secretary's statement shall contain the names of the owners of the land as shown in the Notice and reference the plat book and page where the Notice is recorded. ~~The register of deeds shall record the Secretary's statement in the deed books and index it on the grantor index in the names of the owners of the real property as shown in the Notice and on the grantee index in the name "Secretary of Environment and Natural Resources". The register of deeds shall make a marginal entry on the Notice showing the date of cancellation and the book and page~~

~~where the Secretary's statement is recorded, and the register of deeds shall sign the entry. If a marginal entry is impracticable because of the method used to record, the register of deeds shall not be required to make a marginal entry.~~"

SECTION 1.24. G.S. 160A-400.6 reads as rewritten:

"§ 160A-400.6. Required landmark designation procedures.

As a guide for the identification and evaluation of landmarks, the commission shall undertake, at the earliest possible time and consistent with the resources available to it, an inventory of properties of historical, architectural, prehistorical, and cultural significance within its jurisdiction. Such inventories and any additions or revisions thereof shall be submitted as expeditiously as possible to the Office of Archives and History. No ordinance designating a historic building, structure, site, area or object as a landmark nor any amendment thereto may be adopted, nor may any property be accepted or acquired by a preservation commission or the governing board of a municipality, until all of the following procedural steps have been taken:

...

(6) Upon adoption of the ordinance, the owners and occupants of each designated landmark shall be given written notification of such designation insofar as reasonable diligence permits. One copy of the ordinance and all amendments thereto shall be filed by the preservation commission in the office of the register of deeds of the county in which the landmark or landmarks are located. ~~Each designated landmark shall be indexed according to the name of the owner of the property in the grantee and grantor indexes in the register of deeds office, and the preservation commission shall pay a reasonable fee for filing and indexing.~~ In the case of any landmark property lying within the zoning jurisdiction of a city, a second copy of the ordinance and all amendments thereto shall be kept on file in the office of the city or town clerk and be made available for public inspection at any reasonable time. A third copy of the ordinance and all amendments thereto shall be given to the city or county building inspector. The fact that a building, structure, site, area or object has been designated a landmark shall be clearly indicated on all tax maps maintained by the county or city for such period as the designation remains in effect.

..."

PART II. LOCAL AGENCY CHARGES FOR VITAL RECORDS SEARCHES

SECTION 2.1. G.S. 130A-93.1(a)(1) reads as rewritten:

"§ 130A-93.1. Fees for vital records copies or search; automation fund.

(a) The State Registrar shall collect, process, and utilize fees for services as follows:

(1) A fee not to exceed twenty-four dollars ($24.00) shall be charged for issuing a first copy of a vital record or for conducting a routine search of the files for the record when no copy is made. A fee of fifteen dollars ($15.00) shall be charged for each additional certificate copy requested from the same search. When certificates are issued or searches conducted for statewide issuance by local agencies using databases maintained by the State Registrar, the local agency shall charge ~~these fees and shall retain ten dollars ($10.00) of these fees to cover local administrative costs~~ and forward ~~the remaining fees~~ to the State Registrar for the purposes established in subsection (b) of this ~~section.~~section fourteen dollars ($14.00) and shall charge and retain ten dollars ($10.00) if a copy of the record is made. Provided, however, that a local agency may waive the ten dollars ($10.00) charge for its retention when the copy is issued to a person over the age of 62 years."

SECTION 2.2. G.S. 161-10(8a) is repealed.

PART III. CHANGES TO THE LAWS GOVERNING TRUSTS AND DECEDENTS' ESTATES

SUBPART A. UNIFORM TRUST CODE AMENDMENTS RELATING TO PERSONS HOLDING THE POWER TO DIRECT TRUSTEES, TRUST PROTECTORS, DIRECTED TRUSTEES AND OTHER FIDUCIARIES

SECTION 3.1. G.S. 36C-8-808 reads as rewritten:

"§ 36C-8-808. Powers ~~to direct.~~of a settlor to take certain actions with respect to the trust.

~~(a)~~ While a trust is revocable, the settlor of a revocable trust has, at all times, the power to direct or consent to the actions of the trustee whether or not the power is conferred upon the settlor by the terms of the trust. The duty and liability of the trustee subject to the direction and consent of the settlor is as follows:

(1) The trustee may follow a direction of the settlor that is not authorized by or is contrary to the terms of the trust, even if by doing so (i) the trustee exceeds the authority granted to the trustee under the terms of the trust, or (ii) the trustee would otherwise violate a duty the trustee owes under the trust.

(2) The trustee is not liable, individually or as a fiduciary, for any loss resulting directly or indirectly from compliance with the direction. If the settlor requires the settlor's consent to certain actions of the trustee, and the settlor does not provide consent within a reasonable time after the trustee has made a timely request for the settlor's consent, the trustee is not liable, individually or as a fiduciary, for any loss resulting directly or indirectly from the trustee's failure to take any action that required the settlor's consent.

~~(b) If the terms of a trust confer upon a person other than the settlor of a revocable trust power to direct certain actions of the trustee, the trustee must act in accordance with an exercise of the power unless the attempted exercise is manifestly contrary to the terms of the trust, or the trustee knows the attempted exercise would constitute a serious breach of a fiduciary duty that the person holding the power owes to the beneficiaries of the trust.~~

~~(c) The terms of a trust may confer upon a trustee or other person a power to direct the modification or termination of the trust.~~

~~(d) A person, other than a beneficiary, who holds a power to direct is presumptively a fiduciary who, as such, is required to act in good faith with regard to the purposes of the trust and the interests of the beneficiaries. The holder of a power to direct is liable for any loss that results from breach of a fiduciary duty.~~"

SECTION 3.2. G.S. 36C-7-703 is amended by adding the following new subsection to read:

"§ 36C-7-703. Cotrustees.

...

(e1) If the terms of a trust confer upon a cotrustee, to the exclusion of another cotrustee, the power to take certain actions with respect to the trust, including the power to direct or prevent certain actions of the trustees, the following apply:

(1) The duty and liability of the excluded trustee is as follows:

a. If the terms of a trust confer upon the cotrustee the power to direct certain actions of the excluded trustee, the excluded trustee must act in accordance with the direction and is not liable, individually or as a fiduciary, for any loss resulting directly or indirectly from compliance with the direction unless compliance with the direction constitutes intentional misconduct on the part of the directed cotrustee.

b. If the terms of the trust confer upon the cotrustee any other power, the excluded trustee is not liable, individually or as a fiduciary, for any loss resulting directly or indirectly from the action taken by the cotrustee.

c. The excluded trustee has no duty to monitor the conduct of the cotrustee, provide advice to the cotrustee, or consult with or request directions from the cotrustee. The excluded trustee is not required to give notice to any beneficiary of any action taken or not taken by the cotrustee whether or not the excluded trustee agrees with the result. Administrative actions taken by the excluded trustee for the purpose of implementing directions of the cotrustee, including confirming that the directions of the cotrustee have been carried out, do not constitute monitoring of the cotrustee nor do they constitute participation in decisions within the scope of the cotrustee's authority.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in sub-subdivision a. of subdivision (1) of this subsection, the cotrustee holding the power to take certain actions with respect to the trust shall be liable to the beneficiaries with respect to the exercise of the power as if the excluded trustee were not in office and has the exclusive obligation to account to the beneficiaries and defend any action brought by the beneficiaries with respect to the exercise of the power."

SECTION 3.3. G.S. 32-72(d) reads as rewritten:

"§ 32-72. Terms of creating instrument.

...

(d) The following provisions apply to an instrument creating a fiduciary relationship other than a trust instrument to which Chapter 36C of the General Statutes applies and to a fiduciary other than a trustee:

(1) The terms of the instrument may confer upon a person the power to direct or consent to certain actions of the fiduciary with respect to the following:

a. Investments, including retention, purchase, sale, exchange, or other transaction affecting the ownership of investments with respect to all or any one or more assets.

b. Any other administrative matter.

(2) When the terms of the instrument confer upon a person the power to direct or consent to certain actions of the fiduciary, the duty and liability of the fiduciary are as follows:

a. If the terms of the instrument confer upon the person the power to direct certain actions of the fiduciary, the fiduciary must act in accordance with the direction and is not liable, individually or as a fiduciary, for any loss resulting directly or indirectly from compliance with the direction unless compliance with the direction constitutes intentional misconduct on the part of the fiduciary.

b. If the terms of the instrument confer upon a person the power to consent to certain actions of the fiduciary, and the power holder does not provide consent within a reasonable time after the fiduciary has made a timely request for the power holder's consent, the fiduciary is not liable, individually or as a fiduciary, for any loss resulting directly or indirectly from the fiduciary's failure to take any action that required the power holder's consent.

c. The fiduciary has no duty to monitor the conduct of the power holder, provide advice to the power holder, or consult with the power holder. The fiduciary is not required to give notice to any beneficiary of any action taken or not taken by the power holder whether or not the fiduciary agrees with the result. Administrative actions taken by the fiduciary for the purpose of implementing directions of the power holder, including confirming that the directions of the power holder have been carried out, do not constitute monitoring of the power holder or other participation in decisions within the scope of the power holder's authority.

(3) A person who holds a power to direct or consent is a fiduciary who, as such, is required to act in good faith with regard to the purposes of the estate, or other relationship between the fiduciary and beneficiaries, and the interests of the beneficiaries, except that if a beneficiary is a person with a power to direct or consent, the beneficiary is not a fiduciary with respect to the following:

a. A power that constitutes a power of appointment.

b. A power the exercise or nonexercise of which affects only the interests of the beneficiary holding the power and no other beneficiary.

The holder of the power to direct or consent is liable for any loss that results from breach of a fiduciary duty occurring as a result of the exercise or nonexercise of the power.

~~Whenever an instrument reserves to the settlor or vests in any person, including an advisory or investment committee or one or more co-fiduciaries, the authority to direct the making or retention of any investment to the exclusion of the fiduciary or to the exclusion of one or more of several co-fiduciaries, the excluded fiduciary or co-fiduciary who has no discretion in selecting the person authorized to make or retain investments is not liable to the beneficiaries or to the trust for the decisions or actions of the settlor or other person authorized to direct the making or retention of investments. As used in this subsection, the term "person" includes an individual, a corporation, or any legal or commercial entity authorized to hold property or do business in the State.~~"

SECTION 3.4. Chapter 36C of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new Article to read:

"Article 8A

"Powers, Duties and Liability of a Power Holder other than a Trustee; Duty and Liability of a Trustee with respect to Power Holder's Actions.

"§ 36C-8A-801. Definition.

For purposes of this Article, the term "power holder" means a person who under the terms of a trust has the power to take certain actions with respect to a trust and who is not a trustee or a settlor with a power to direct or consent pursuant to G.S. 36C-8-808.

"§ 36C-8A-802. Powers of a power holder.

(a) The terms of a trust may confer upon a power holder a power to direct or consent to a duty that would normally be required of a trustee, including, but not limited to, a power to direct or consent to the following:

(1) Investments, including any action relating to investment of all or any one or more of the trust assets that a trustee is authorized to take under this Chapter.

(2) Discretionary distributions of trust assets, including distributions to one or more beneficiaries, distribution of one of more trust assets, and termination of the trust by distribution of all of the trust assets.

(3) Any other matter regarding trust administration, including the transfer of the principal place of administration of the trust.

(b) The terms of a trust may also confer upon the power holder any other power, including, but not limited to, the power to:

(1) Modify or amend the trust to do any of the following:

a. Achieve favorable tax status under applicable law.

b. Take advantage of laws governing restraints on alienation or other State laws restricting the terms of the trust, distribution of trust property, or the administration of the trust.

(2) Remove and appoint trustees and power holders.
(3) Increase or decrease the interests of any beneficiary.
(4) Grant a power of appointment to one or more beneficiaries of the trust or modify the terms of or terminate a power of appointment granted to a beneficiary by the governing instrument, except that a grant or modification of a power of appointment may not grant a beneficial interest to any of the following:
a. Any individual or class of individuals not specifically provided for in the trust instrument.
b. The person having the power to grant, modify, or terminate the power of appointment.
c. The estate and creditors of the person having the power to grant, modify, or terminate the power of appointment.
(5) Change the governing law of the trust.

"§ 36C-8A-803. Duty and liability of power holder.

(a) A power holder is a fiduciary with respect to the powers conferred upon the power holder who, as such, is required to act in good faith and in accordance with the purposes and terms of a trust and the interests of the beneficiaries, except a power holder is not a fiduciary with respect to the following:
(1) A power to remove and appoint a trustee or power holder.
(2) A power that constitutes a power of appointment held by a beneficiary of a trust.
(3) A power the exercise or non-exercise of which may affect only the interests of the power holder and no other beneficiary.

(b) A power holder is liable for any loss that results from breach of fiduciary duty occurring as a result of the exercise or nonexercise of the power.

(c) The following provisions applicable to a trustee shall also be applicable to a power holder with respect to powers conferred upon the power holder as a fiduciary:
(1) The provisions of G.S. 36C-8-814 regarding discretionary powers and tax savings.
(2) The provisions of G.S. 36C-10-1001 through G.S. 36C-10-1012 regarding liability of trustees and rights of third persons dealing with trustees.
(3) The provisions of Article 9 of this Chapter regarding the uniform prudent investor rule.

"§ 36C-8A-804. Duty and liability of trustee.

(a) If the terms of a trust confer upon a power holder the power to direct certain actions of the trustee, the trustee must act in accordance with the direction and is not liable, individually or as a fiduciary, for any loss resulting directly or indirectly from compliance with the direction unless compliance with the direction constitutes intentional misconduct on the part of the trustee.

(b) If the terms of a trust confer upon the power holder the power to consent to certain actions of the trustee, and the power holder does not provide consent within a reasonable time after the trustee has made a timely request for the power holder's consent, the trustee is not liable, individually or as a fiduciary, for any loss resulting directly or indirectly from the trustee's failure to take any action that required the power holder's consent.

(c) If the terms of a trust confer upon the person a power other than the power to direct or consent to actions of the trustee, the trustee is not liable, individually or as a fiduciary, for any loss resulting directly or indirectly from the exercise or non-exercise of the power.

(d) The trustee has no duty to monitor the conduct of the power holder, provide advice to the power holder, or consult with the power holder. The trustee is not required to give notice to any beneficiary of any action taken or not taken by the power holder whether or not the trustee agrees with the result. Administrative actions taken by the trustee for the purpose of implementing directions of the power holder, including confirming that the directions of the power holder have been carried out, do not constitute monitoring of the power holder nor do they constitute participation in decisions within the scope of the power holder's authority.

"§ 36C-8A-805. Compensation and reimbursement of expenses of power holder.

A power holder as a fiduciary is entitled to compensation and reimbursement of expenses as provided in G.S. 32-59.

"§ 36C-8A-806. Jurisdiction over power holder.

(a) By accepting appointment to serve as a power holder with respect to a trust having its principal place of business in this State, or by moving the principal place of administration to this State, the power holder submits personally to the jurisdiction of the courts of this State regarding any matter involving action or inaction of the power holder.

(b) This section does not preclude other methods of obtaining jurisdiction over a power holder.

"§ 36C-8A-807. Accepting or declining the appointment as power holder.

(a) A person designated as a power holder accepts the appointment to serve as a power holder:

(1) By substantially complying with a method of acceptance provided in the terms of a trust; or

(2) If the terms of a trust do not provide a method or the method provided in the terms of a trust is not expressly made exclusive, by exercising powers or performing duties as a power holder or otherwise indicating acceptance of the appointment to serve as a power holder.

(b) A person designated as a power holder may reject the appointment to serve as a power holder. A trustee may give written notice to a power holder requesting acceptance of the appointment as power holder. A power holder who does not accept such appointment within 120 days after receipt of such notice is considered to have rejected the appointment to serve as a power holder.

"§ 36C-8A-808. Powers of trustee in the absence of a power holder.

The trustee shall be vested with any fiduciary power or duty conferred upon a power holder by the terms of a trust that are described in G.S. 36C-8A-802(a) during the time when no power holder is available to exercise such power or perform such duty because of absence, illness or other cause.

"§ 36C-8A-809. More than one power holder.

When there is more than one power holder authorized to act, and they are unable to reach a unanimous decision, they may act by majority decision. Unanimity is required when only two are authorized to act.

"§ 36C-8A-810. Resignation of power holder.

(a) A power holder may resign:

(1) Upon at least 30 days' notice in writing to the qualified beneficiaries, the settlor, if living, and all trustees; or

(2) With the approval of the court.

(b) In approving a resignation, the court may issue orders and impose conditions reasonably necessary for the protection of the trust property.

"§ 36C-8A-811. Removal of power holder.

(a) For the reasons set forth in subsection (b) of this section, the settlor of an irrevocable trust, a trustee of an irrevocable trust, or a beneficiary of an irrevocable trust may request the court to remove a powerholder, or a power holder may be removed by the court on its own initiative.

(b) The court may remove a power holder if:

(1) The power holder has committed a serious breach of trust;

(2) Lack of cooperation with the trustee substantially impairs the administration of the trust;

(3) Because of unfitness, unwillingness, or a persistent failure of the power holder to exercise the duties and powers conferred upon the power holder effectively, the court determines that removal of the power holder best serves the interests of the beneficiaries; or

(4) There has been a substantial change of circumstances, the court finds that removal of the power holder best serves the interests of all of the beneficiaries and is consistent with a material purpose of the trust, and a suitable successor power holder is available.

(c) Pending a final decision on a request to remove a power holder, or in lieu of or in addition to removing a power holder, the court may order appropriate relief under G.S. 36C-10-1001(b) as may be necessary to protect the trust property or the interests of the beneficiaries."

SUBPART B. TECHNICAL CORRECTIONS TO LAWS GOVERNING TRUSTS AND DECEDENTS' ESTATES

SECTION 3.5. G.S. 36C-7-707(b) reads as rewritten:

"§ 36C-7-707. Delivery of property by former trustee.

...

(b) A trustee who has resigned or been removed shall proceed expeditiously to deliver the trust property within the trustee's possession to the cotrustee, successor trustee, or other person entitled to it. A former trustee shall execute those documents ~~transferring~~ acknowledging the transfer of title to trust property as may be ~~appropriate~~ reasonably requested by the cotrustee, successor trustee, or other person entitled to it to facilitate administration of the trust, and in the event that the former trustee fails to do so, the clerk of superior court may order the former trustee to execute those ~~documents, or the clerk of superior court may transfer title.~~documents."

SECTION 3.6. G.S. 108A-70.5(c) reads as rewritten:

"§ 108A-70.5. Medicaid Estate Recovery Plan.

(c) The amount the Department recovers from the estate of any recipient shall not exceed the amount of medical assistance made on behalf of the recipient and shall be recoverable only for medical care services prescribed in subsection (b) of this section. The Department is a ~~fifth-class~~sixth-class creditor, as prescribed in G.S. 28A-19-6, for purposes of determining the order of claims against an estate; provided, however, that judgments in favor of other ~~fifth-class~~sixth-class creditors docketed and in force before the Department seeks recovery for medical assistance shall be paid prior to recovery by the Department."

SECTION 3.7. G.S. 28A-13-3 reads as rewritten:

"§ 28A-13-3. Powers of a personal representative or fiduciary.

...

~~(b) Any question arising out of the powers conferred by subsections (a), (a1), and (a2) of this section shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of Article 18 of this Chapter.~~

...

(d) The personal representative ~~shall have~~has the power to institute ~~an estate~~a proceeding pursuant to Article 2 of this Chapter to enforce the rights set forth in this ~~subsection [section].~~ section. The clerk of superior court may enter orders necessary to enforce the rights set forth in this ~~subsection [section].~~section. If the person occupying the real property is a tenant or lessee of the property, the personal representative may seek ejectment of the tenant or lessee only pursuant to the provisions of Article 3 of Chapter 42 of the General Statutes."

SECTION 3.8. G.S. 28A-21-6 reads as rewritten:

"§ 28A-21-6. Permissive notice of final accounts.

The personal representative or collector may, but is not required to, give written notice of a proposed final account pursuant to G.S. 1A-1, Rule 4, to all devisees of the estate in the case of testacy, and to all heirs of the estate in the case of intestacy, of the date and place of filing of such account. In giving written notice, the personal representative shall attach a copy of the proposed final accounting with exhibits made a part thereof, but is not required to include copies of vouchers, account statements, or other supporting evidence submitted to the clerk. If the personal representative or collector elects to provide this notice, the personal representative or collector shall file with the clerk of superior court a certificate indicating that this notice has been given to all devisees and heirs. Notwithstanding any right to appeal an order or judgment under G.S. 1-301.3, any payment, distribution, action, or other matter disclosed on such account or any annual account for the estate ~~filed by the personal representative or collector~~attached to the written notice must be objected to by a devisee or heir within 30 days after the receipt of the written notice or will be deemed to be accepted by the devisee or heir."

SECTION 3.9. G.S. 28A-25-1.1(a) reads as rewritten:

"§ 28A-25-1.1. Collection of property by affidavit when decedent dies testate.

(a) When a decedent dies testate leaving personal property, less liens and encumbrances thereon, not exceeding twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) in value, at any time after 30 days from the date of death, any person indebted to the decedent or having possession of tangible personal property or an instrument evidencing a debt, obligation, stock or chose in action belonging to the decedent shall make payment of the indebtedness or deliver the tangible personal property or an instrument evidencing a debt, obligation, stock or chose in action to a person claiming to be the public administrator appointed pursuant to G.S. 28A-12-1, a person named or designated as executor in the will, devisee, heir or creditor, of the decedent, not disqualified under G.S. 28A-4-2, upon being presented a certified copy of an affidavit filed in accordance with subsection (b) and made by or on behalf of the heir, the person named or designated as executor in the will of the decedent, the creditor, the public administrator, or the devisee, stating:

(1) The name and address of the affiant and the fact that the affiant is the public administrator, a person named or designated as executor in the will, devisee, heir or creditor, of the decedent;
(2) The name of the decedent and the decedent's residence at time of death;
(3) The date and place of death of the decedent;
(4) That 30 days have elapsed since the death of the decedent;
(5) That the decedent died testate leaving personal property, less liens and encumbrances thereon, not exceeding twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) in value;
(6) That the decedent's will has been admitted to probate in the court of the proper county and a duly certified copy of the will has been recorded in each county in which is located any real property owned by the decedent at the time of the decedent's death;
(7) That a certified copy of the decedent's will is attached to the affidavit;
(8) That no application or petition for appointment of a personal representative is pending or has been granted in any jurisdiction;
(9) The names and addresses of those persons who are entitled, under the provisions of the will, or if applicable, of the Intestate Succession Act, to the property of the decedent; and their relationship, if any, to the decedent; and
(10) A description sufficient to identify each tract of real property owned by the decedent at the time of the decedent's death.

In those cases in which the affiant is the surviving spouse, is entitled to all of the property of the decedent, and is not disqualified under G.S. 28A-4-2, the property described in this subsection that may be collected pursuant to this section may exceed twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) in value but shall not exceed thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) in ~~value.~~ value, after reduction for any spousal allowance paid to the surviving spouse pursuant to G.S. 30-15. In such cases, the affidavit shall state: (i) the name and address of the affiant and the fact that the affiant is the surviving spouse and is entitled, under the provisions of the decedent's will, or if applicable, of the Intestate Succession Act, to all of the property of the decedent; (ii) that the decedent died testate leaving personal property, less liens and encumbrances thereon, not exceeding thirty thousand dollars ($30,000); and (iii) the information required under subdivisions (2), (3), (4), (6), (7), (8), and (10) of this subsection."

SECTION 3.10. G.S. 30-31 reads as rewritten:

"§ 30-31. Amount of allowance.

The clerk of superior court may assign to the petitioner a value sufficient for the support of petitioner according to the estate and condition of the decedent and without regard to the limitations set forth in this Chapter; but the value allowed shall be fixed with due consideration for other persons entitled to allowances for year's support from the decedent's estate; and the total value of all allowances shall not in any case exceed the one half of the average annual net income of the deceased for three years next preceding the deceased's death. ~~This report shall be returned by the magistrate to the court.~~"

SECTION 3.11. Section 14 of Session Law 2011-344 reads as rewritten:

"SECTION 14. ~~This~~ Except as provided below, this act becomes effective January 1, 2012, and applies to estates of decedents dying on or after that ~~date.~~ date:

(1) Subject to subdivision (3) of this section, Section 10 of this act becomes effective January 1, 2012 and applies to health care powers of attorney executed before, on or after that date.

(2) Subject to subdivision (3) of this section, Sections 11, 12, and 13 of this act become effective January 1, 2012, and apply to trust proceedings commenced before, on or after that date.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivisions (1) and (2) of this section:

a. In any proceeding pending before the effective date of this act, the provisions in Sections 10, 11, 12, and 13 of this act shall not apply retroactively, and shall not apply prospectively if the court finds that application of a newly effective provision would substantially interfere with the effective conduct of a judicial proceeding or prejudice the rights of the parties.

b. An act done before the date of enactment of this act is not affected by this act, and a right that was acquired, extinguished, barred or commenced to run prior to the date of this act is not affected by this act."

SECTION 4. The Revisor of Statutes shall cause to be printed, as annotations to the published General Statutes, all relevant portions of the Official Comments to the North Carolina Uniform Trust Code and all explanatory comments of the drafters of this act as the Revisor may deem appropriate.

SECTION 5. Sections 1.1 through 1.24 and Sections 2.1 and 2.2 of this act become effective July 1, 2012. The remaining sections of this act are effective when it becomes law.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 24-9 reads as rewritten:

"§ 24-9. Loans exempt from rate and fee limitations.

...

(c) The provisions of G.S. 24-1.2A, 24-11, and 24-11.1 shall not apply to equity lines of credit offered by banks. Except as provided in this subsection and notwithstanding any other provision of this Chapter or any other provision of State law, any bank may charge and collect from any borrower interest at any rate and fees and other charges in any amount that the borrower agrees to pay in connection with an equity line of credit. However, an equity line of credit made by a bank shall be subject to the following, to the extent otherwise applicable:

...

(3) Notwithstanding the limitation against prepayment penalties contained in ~~G.S. 45-81(e),~~ G.S. 45-82.4, a bank may charge and collect prepayment fees or penalties following the borrower's voluntary exercise of a right or option to repay all or any portion of the outstanding balance of a variable interest rate equity line of credit at a fixed interest rate over a specified period of time, subject to the following limitations:

...."

SECTION 2. G.S. 45-10 reads as rewritten:

"§ 45-10. Substitution of trustees in mortgages and deeds of trust.

(a) In addition to the rights and remedies now provided by law, the holders or owners of a majority in amount of the indebtedness, notes, bonds, or other instruments evidencing a promise or promises to pay money and secured by mortgages, deeds of trust, or other instruments conveying real property, or creating a lien thereon, may, in their discretion, substitute a trustee whether the trustee then named in the instrument is the original or a substituted ~~trustee,~~ trustee or a holder or owner of any or all of the obligations secured thereby, by the execution of a written document properly recorded pursuant to Chapter 47 of the North Carolina General Statutes.

(c) If the trustee named in a deed of trust is also the beneficiary named in that deed of trust, the instrument shall be deemed to be a deed of trust, and any substitute trustee named under the authority of subsection (a) of this section shall succeed to all the rights, titles, authority, and duties of the trustee under the terms of the deed of trust."

SECTION 3. G.S. 45-36.4 reads as rewritten:

"§ 45-36.4. Definitions.

As used in this Article, the following terms mean:

(1a) Borrower. – A person primarily liable for payment or performance of the obligation secured by the real property described in a security instrument.

(1b) Credit suspension directive. – A notification given to a secured creditor pursuant to G.S. 45-36.7A directing the secured creditor to suspend temporarily a borrower's right and ability to obtain additional credit advances in anticipation of the imminent sale of, or the imminent making of a new loan to be secured by, real property then encumbered by an existing security instrument when the anticipated transaction will involve either the satisfaction of the existing security instrument or the release of the real property from the lien of the existing security instrument.

(5) Entitled person. – ~~A person liable for payment or performance of the obligation secured by the real property described in a security instrument, or the landowner.~~A person who:

a. Is a borrower;

b. Is a landowner;

2. A requirement of the sale or new loan transaction is or will be that the property be conveyed or encumbered free and clear of the lien of the existing security instrument.

...

(7) Landowner. – A person that, before foreclosure, has the right of redemption in the real property described in a security instrument. The term does not include a person that holds only a lien on the real ~~property.~~property or the trustee under a deed of trust.

...

(11) Payoff statement. – A document containing the information specified in ~~G.S. 45-36.7(d).~~G.S. 45-36.7(e).

...

(12a) Qualified lien holder. – A person who holds or is the beneficiary of a security interest in or lien on real property encumbered by an existing security instrument, but only if that person's security interest in or lien on the real property arises from a mortgage or deed of trust that is subordinate in priority to the lien of the existing security instrument. The term does not include a trustee under a deed of trust.

...

(19a) Short-pay amount. – The sum necessary to obtain the release of all or a specific portion of the real property from the lien of a security instrument without satisfying the secured obligation in full.

(19b) Short-pay statement. – A document containing the information specified in G.S. 45-36.7(e1).

(23) Trustee. – The trustee or substitute then serving as such under the terms of a deed of trust."

SECTION 4. G.S. 45-36.6 reads as rewritten:

"§ 45-36.6. Document of rescission: effect; liability for wrongful recording.

(a) ~~In this section, "document of rescission" means a document stating that an identified satisfaction or affidavit of satisfaction of a security instrument was recorded erroneously or that a security instrument was satisfied of record erroneously, the secured obligation remains unsatisfied, and the security instrument remains in force.~~Definitions. – The following definitions apply in this section:

(1) Document of rescission. – A document that rescinds either (i) a release that was recorded in error or (ii) the erroneous satisfaction of a security instrument.

(2) Release. – A document that either (i) releases property from the lien of a security instrument or (ii) indicates that an obligation is no longer secured by a security instrument.

(b) ~~If a person records a satisfaction or affidavit of satisfaction of a security instrument in error or if~~ If a release is recorded in error or a security instrument is erroneously satisfied of ~~record~~ record, ~~erroneously by any other means, the person or~~ then the secured creditor or the person who caused the release to be recorded in error or the security instrument to be erroneously satisfied of record may execute and record a document of rescission. The document of rescission must be duly acknowledged before an officer authorized to make acknowledgments. Upon recording, the document of rescission either (i) ~~rescinds an erroneously recorded~~ rescinds a release that was recorded in error and deprives the release of any effect or (ii) ~~satisfaction or affidavit and~~ rescinds the erroneous satisfaction of record of the security instrument and reinstates the security instrument.

(c) A recorded document of rescission has no effect on the rights of a person that:

(1) Records an interest in the real property described in a security instrument after the recording of ~~the satisfaction or affidavit of satisfaction of the security instrument~~ a release that was recorded in error or the erroneous satisfaction of record of the security instrument ~~by other means~~and before the recording of the document of rescission; and

(2) Would otherwise have priority over or take free of the lien created by the security instrument as reinstated under Chapter 47 of the General Statutes.

(d) A person that erroneously or wrongfully records a document of rescission is liable to any person injured thereby for the actual loss caused by the recording and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

(e) A document is a document of rescission if it does all of the following:

(1) Identifies the related security instrument, including the type of security instrument, the original parties to the security instrument, the recording data for the security instrument, and the office in which the security instrument is recorded.

(2) If the document of rescission is intended to rescind a release that was recorded in error, (i) identifies the release that was recorded in error by its recording data and the office in which it is recorded, (ii) states that the release was recorded in error, and (iii) states that the release is rescinded.

(3) If the document of rescission is intended to rescind the erroneous satisfaction of record of a security instrument, (i) identifies the satisfaction document that was recorded in error by its recording data and the office in which it is recorded, (ii) states that the security instrument was erroneously satisfied of record, and (iii) states that the satisfaction of the security instrument is rescinded and the security instrument reinstated.

(4) States that the person signing the document of rescission is either (i) the secured creditor or (ii) the person who caused the release to be recorded in error or the security instrument to be erroneously satisfied of record.

(5) Is signed and acknowledged as required by law for a conveyance of an interest in real property.

(f) The register of deeds shall accept a document of rescission for recording unless one of the following applies:

(1) The document is submitted by a method or in a medium not authorized for registration by the register of deeds under applicable law.

(2) The required recording fee is not paid.

(3) The document is not signed and acknowledged as required by law for a conveyance of an interest in real property by either the secured creditor or the person who caused the release to be recorded in error or the security instrument to be erroneously satisfied of record. The register of deeds shall not be required to verify or make inquiry concerning (i) the truth of the matters stated in any document of rescission or (ii) the authority of the person executing any document of rescission to do so.

(g) No particular phrasing is required for a document of rescission that rescinds a release that was recorded in error. The following form, when properly completed, is sufficient to satisfy the requirements of subsection (e) of this section:

"DOCUMENT OF RESCISSION
(G.S. 45-36.6(e))

The security instrument to which this Document of Rescission relates is identified as follows:

SECTION 5. G.S. 45-36.7 reads as rewritten:

"§ 45-36.7. Payoff and short-pay ~~statement;~~ statements; request and content.

(a) An entitled person, or an agent authorized by an entitled person to request a payoff ~~statement,~~ or a short-pay statement, may give to the secured creditor a notification requesting a payoff statement ~~for a specified payoff date not more than 30 days after the notification is given.~~ or a short-pay statement. The notification must contain all of the following:

...

(6) Whether the request is for a payoff statement or a short-pay statement.
(7) If the request is for a payoff statement, the specified payoff date, which may not be more than 30 days after the notification is given.
(8) If the request is for a short-pay statement, (i) the specified short-pay date, which may not be more than 30 days after the notification is given, (ii) a clear statement as to whether the request is for the short-pay amount required to release all of the real property described in the security instrument or only a portion of that property, and (iii) if the request is for the short-pay amount required to release only a portion of the real property described in the security instrument, a description of the specific real property to be released upon payment of the short-pay amount.

(b) If a notification under subsection (a) of this section directs the secured creditor to send the payoff statement or a short-pay statement to a person identified as an authorized agent of the entitled person, the secured creditor must send the statement to the agent, unless the secured creditor knows that the entitled person has not authorized the request.

(c) A person who gives to a secured creditor a notification requesting a payoff statement or a short-pay statement thereby represents that the person is an entitled person or the authorized agent of an entitled person. A secured creditor may rely on that representation in providing a payoff statement or a short-pay statement unless the secured creditor knows that the requesting person is neither an entitled person nor the authorized agent of an entitled person. A secured creditor has no duty to make inquiry as to whether, or to verify that, the person requesting a payoff statement or a short-pay statement is an entitled person or the authorized agent of an entitled person.

(d) Within 10 days after the effective date of a notification that complies with subsection (a) of this section, the secured creditor shall issue a payoff statement or a short-pay statement and send it as directed pursuant to subdivision (a)(3) of this section in the manner prescribed in G.S. 45-36.5 for giving a notification. A secured creditor that sends a payoff statement or a short-pay statement to the entitled person or the authorized agent may not claim that the notification did not satisfy subsection (a) of this section. If the person to whom the notification is given once held an interest in the secured obligation but has since assigned that interest, the person need not send a payoff statement or a short-pay statement but shall give (i) a notification of the assignment to the person to whom the payoff statement or a short-pay statement otherwise would have been sent, providing the name and address of the assignee, or (ii) a notification to the person to whom the payoff statement or a short-pay statement otherwise would have been sent, stating that the recipient claims no interest in the security instrument or the secured obligation, that the secured obligation was assigned, but that the identity and address of the assignee is not known.

(e1) A short-pay statement must contain:
(1) The information reasonably necessary to calculate the short-pay amount as of the requested short-pay date, including the per diem interest amount, if any;
(2) The payment cutoff time, if any, the address or place where payment of the short-pay amount must be made, and any limitation as to the authorized method of payment;
(3) Any conditions precedent that must be satisfied to obtain the release of the property identified in the request for the short-pay statement from the lien of the security instrument; and
(4) Confirmation of the specific real property to be released from the lien of the security instrument upon receipt of the timely payment of the short-pay amount and satisfaction of the other conditions precedent to the release of that property.

Unless the short-pay statement expressly provides otherwise, all persons liable for payment or performance of the obligations secured by the security instrument will remain liable for the secured obligations to the extent the short-pay amount is not sufficient to satisfy the secured obligations in full.

(f) A payoff statement or a short-pay statement may contain the amount of any fees authorized under this section not included in the payoff amount. A secured creditor may require the payment in full of any fees authorized under this section before issuing a payoff ~~statement.~~statement or a short-pay statement.

(g) A secured creditor may not qualify a payoff amount or state that it is subject to change before the payoff date unless the payoff statement provides information sufficient to permit the entitled person or the person's authorized agent to request an updated payoff amount at no charge and to obtain that updated payoff amount during the secured creditor's normal business hours on the payoff date or the immediately preceding business day. A secured creditor may not qualify a short-pay amount or state that it is subject to change before the short-pay date unless the short-pay statement provides information sufficient to permit the entitled person or the person's authorized agent to request an updated short-pay amount at no charge and to obtain that updated short-pay amount during the secured creditor's normal business hours on the short-pay date or the immediately preceding business day.

(h) A secured creditor must provide upon request one payoff statement or one short-pay statement without charge during any six-month period. A secured creditor may charge a fee of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) for each additional payoff statement and one hundred dollars ($100.00) for each additional short-pay statement requested during that six-month period. However, a secured creditor may not charge a fee for providing an updated payoff amount or short-pay amount under subsection ~~(f)~~ (g) of this section or a corrected payoff statement or short-pay statement under G.S. 45-36.8(a).

(i) Unless the security instrument provides otherwise, a secured creditor is not required to send a payoff statement or a short-pay statement by means other than first-class mail. If the creditor agrees to send a statement by another means, it may charge a reasonable fee for complying with the requested manner of delivery.

(j) Except as otherwise provided in G.S. 45-36.12, if a secured creditor to which a notification has been given pursuant to subsection (a) of this section does not send a timely payoff statement that substantially complies with subsection ~~(d)~~ (e) of this ~~section,~~ section or a short-pay statement that substantially complies with subsection (e1) of this section, the creditor is liable to the entitled person for any actual damages caused by the failure, but not punitive damages. A creditor that does not pay the damages provided in this subsection within 30 days after receipt of a notification demanding payment shall also be liable for reasonable attorneys' fees and costs.

(k) This section does not apply unless (i) the notification requesting a payoff statement is given on or after ~~October 1, 2005.~~ October 1, 2005, and (ii) the notification requesting a short-pay statement is given on or after October 1, 2011."

SECTION 6. Article 4 of Chapter 45 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read as follows:

"§ 45-36.7A. Credit suspension directives.

(a) A credit suspension directive may be given to a secured creditor by any of the following:

(1) Any borrower.

(2) The legal representative of any borrower.

(3) The attorney for any borrower.

(4) An attorney licensed to practice law in the State of North Carolina or a bank, savings and loan association, savings bank, or credit union, but only when (i) the attorney, bank, savings and loan association, savings bank, or credit union is responsible for the disbursement of funds in connection with the sale of, or a new loan secured by, real property then encumbered by an existing security instrument; (ii) a requirement of the sale or new loan transaction is that the property be conveyed or encumbered free and clear of the lien of the existing security instrument; and (iii) the credit suspension directive is given to the secured creditor contemporaneously with a notification requesting a payoff statement or a short-pay statement in anticipation of and in preparation for the imminent settlement of the sale or new loan transaction.

(b) A credit suspension directive must contain all of the following:

(1) The name and authority of the person giving the directive.

(2) Sufficient information to enable the creditor to identify the secured obligation, the identity of the borrower, and the real property encumbered by the security interest.

(3) The specified payoff date, which may not be more than 30 days after the notification is given.

(4) A clear and unambiguous directive to the secured creditor to suspend through and including the payoff date the borrower's right and ability to obtain any additional credit advances which, if made, would be secured by the security instrument.

(c) If the person who gives a credit suspension directive to a secured creditor is a person listed in subdivision (a)(4) of this section, that person shall also (i) give a copy of the credit suspension directive to the borrower and (ii) provide an additional notification to the borrower that provides substantially as follows:

"NOTICE TO BORROWER

You have a loan with (name of lender) secured by a mortgage or deed of trust on real property located at (address of property).

We will be responsible for disbursing funds in connection with a scheduled sale of the property or a new loan that will be secured by the property. A requirement of the sale or new loan transaction is that the property be conveyed or encumbered free and clear of the existing mortgage or deed of trust that secures your loan.

As permitted by North Carolina law, we are sending the (enclosed/attached/following/foregoing) notification to your lender directing that it temporarily suspend your right and ability to obtain credit advances in anticipation of the settlement of the sale or loan. The notification accompanies a request asking the amount that must be sent to your lender to pay your loan in full and cancel the mortgage or deed of trust that secures your loan (or, if your loan will not be paid in full, to release the property from the mortgage or deed of trust that secures your loan). The information your lender provides us may be inaccurate if you obtain additional credit advances before the scheduled settlement date of the sale or new loan transaction.

When your lender receives our directive, it will temporarily suspend your right and ability to obtain credit advances. The period of suspension will continue through and including (anticipated payoff date), the anticipated payoff date, regardless of whether the settlement of the sale or new loan transaction occurs as scheduled. The suspension will not affect your responsibility to continue making payments to your lender during the suspension period. You should not attempt to obtain additional credit advances from your lender during the suspension period.

You may instruct us at any time during the suspension period to withdraw the credit suspension directive we are sending your lender, and we are required by law to comply. However, if you do so, you may jeopardize the settlement of the sale or new loan transaction because the payoff or release information provided by your lender may become inaccurate.

When proceeds from a sale or new loan transaction are used to pay an existing loan in full, lenders typically close the loan account, thereby terminating their borrower's ability to obtain additional credit advances. You should contact your lender to determine whether you will be able to obtain additional credit advances after the settlement of the sale or new loan transaction.

If you have questions about this notice or our action, please contact (name of contact person or department) by calling us at (phone number) or writing to us at (mailing address).

(Name of attorney, bank, savings and loan association, savings bank, or credit union)"

(d) Upon receipt of a credit suspension directive, a secured creditor shall:

(1) Subject to subsection (e) of this section, suspend the borrower's right and ability to obtain credit advances which, if made, would be secured by the security instrument. The period of suspension shall continue through and including the payoff date stated in the credit suspension directive.

(2) Apply all sums subsequently paid during the period of suspension by or on behalf of the borrower in connection with the secured obligation, including sums paid to the secured creditor by a person responsible for the disbursement of funds in connection with the sale of, or a new loan secured by, real property then encumbered by a security instrument, to the satisfaction of the secured obligation, regardless of whether the amount or amounts paid are sufficient to pay the secured obligation and other sums secured by the security instrument in full. Sums paid to the secured creditor in excess of the amount required to pay the secured obligation and other sums secured by the security instrument in full shall be refunded by the secured creditor to or at the direction of the person who paid the excess amount.

(e) Notwithstanding a secured creditor's receipt of a credit suspension directive, a secured creditor may do any of the following, all of which shall be secured by the security instrument:

(1) The secured creditor may advance sums and incur expenses (i) for insurance, taxes, and assessments, (ii) to protect the secured creditor's interest under the security instrument, (iii) to preserve and protect the value or condition of the real property encumbered by the security instrument, or to complete the construction of improvements on the real property encumbered by the security instrument.

(2) The secured creditor may permit the borrower to obtain a credit advance, but only if the credit advance was initiated or approved before the secured creditor received the credit suspension directive.

(f) If the person giving a credit suspension directive is not a borrower, then the person giving a credit suspension directive shall be conclusively deemed the borrower's agent acting with full authority from the borrower to issue the credit suspension directive on the borrower's behalf.

(g) A credit suspension directive may be withdrawn at any time by the person who gave the directive. If the person who gives a credit suspension directive to a secured creditor is a person listed in subdivision (a)(4) of this section, that person shall promptly notify the secured creditor that the credit suspension directive is withdrawn (i) if instructed by the borrower at any time to withdraw the directive or (ii) if the anticipated sale or new loan transaction is cancelled. Upon receipt of a notice from the person who originally gave the credit suspension directive that the credit suspension directive is withdrawn, the secured creditor may reinstate the borrower's right and ability to obtain credit advances."

SECTION 7. G.S. 45-36.8 reads as rewritten:

"§ 45-36.8. Understated payoff ~~statement:~~statement or short-pay statement: correction; effect.

(a) If a secured creditor determines that the payoff amount it provided in a payoff statement or the short-pay amount it provided in a short-pay statement was understated, the creditor may send a corrected payoff ~~statement.~~or short-pay statement. If the entitled person or the person's authorized agent receives and has a reasonable opportunity to act upon a corrected payoff statement or short-pay statement before making payment, the corrected statement supersedes an earlier statement.

(b) A secured creditor that sends a payoff statement containing an understated payoff amount or a short-pay statement containing an understated short-pay amount may not deny the accuracy of the payoff amount or short-pay amount as against any person that reasonably and detrimentally relies upon the understated payoff ~~amount.~~amount or short-pay amount.

(c) This Article does not:

(1) Affect the right of a secured creditor to recover any sum that it did not include in a payoff amount or a short-pay amount from any person liable for payment of the secured obligation; or

(2) Limit any claim or defense that a person liable for payment of a secured obligation may have under law other than this Article."

SECTION 8. G.S. 45-36.9 reads as rewritten:

"§ 45-36.9. Secured creditor to submit satisfaction or release for recording; liability for failure.

(a) A secured creditor shall submit for recording a satisfaction of a security instrument within 30 days after the creditor receives full payment or performance of the secured obligation. If a security instrument secures a line of credit or future advances, the secured obligation is fully performed only if, in addition to full payment, the secured creditor has received (i) a notification requesting the creditor to terminate the line of ~~credit~~ credit, (ii) a credit suspension directive, or (iii) a notification containing ~~a~~ a clear and unambiguous statement sufficient to terminate the effectiveness of the provision for future advances in the security ~~instrument.~~instrument including, but not limited to, a request to terminate an equity line of credit given pursuant to G.S. 45-82.2 or a notice regarding future advances given pursuant to G.S. 45-82.3.

(a1) If the conditions stated in a short-pay statement are fully satisfied on or before the short-pay date stated in the short-pay statement, including the payment in full of the short-pay amount and the satisfaction of all other conditions precedent to the release set forth in the short-pay statement, then within 30 days after the short-pay date the secured creditor shall release the property which is the subject of the short-pay statement from the lien of the security instrument. The release of the property may be accomplished by a deed of release, an instrument of full or partial reconveyance, a partial release recorded pursuant to G.S. 45-36.22, the satisfaction of record of the security instrument by any of the means authorized in G.S. 45-37(a), or by any other lawful means.

...."

SECTION 9. Article 4 of Chapter 45 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read as follows:

"§ 45-36.22. Partial release: content and effect; form.

(a) A document is a partial release if it does all of the following:

(1) Identifies the type of security instrument, the original parties to the security instrument, the recording data for the security instrument, and the office in which the security instrument is recorded.

(2) States that the person signing the partial release is the secured creditor or, if the security instrument is a deed of trust, that the person or persons signing the partial release is or are the secured creditor, the trustee, or both the secured creditor and the trustee.

(3) Contains language releasing property or an interest in property from the lien of the security instrument.

(4) Is signed and acknowledged as required by law for a conveyance of an interest in real property by the secured creditor or, if the security instrument is a deed of trust, by the secured creditor, the trustee, or both the secured creditor and the trustee.

(b) The register of deeds shall accept a partial release for recording unless one of the following applies:

(1) The document is submitted by a method or in a medium not authorized for registration by the register of deeds under applicable law.

(2) The required recording fee is not paid.

(3) The document is not signed and acknowledged as required by law for a conveyance of an interest in real property by the secured creditor or, if the security instrument is a deed of trust, by the secured creditor, the trustee, or both the secured creditor and the trustee. The register of deeds shall not be required to verify or make inquiry concerning the truth of the matters stated in any partial release or the authority of the person executing any partial release to do so.

(c) Upon recording, a partial release shall release from the lien of the security instrument the property or interest in property as is expressly described and released. With respect only to the specific property or interest in property identified and released by a partial release, the partial release shall (i) operate and have the same effect as a duly executed and recorded deed of release or reconveyance of the property or interest in the property; (ii) release and discharge all of the secured creditor's interest in the property or property interest arising from the security instrument; and (iii) if the security instrument is a deed of trust, release and discharge all the interest of the trustee in the property or property interest arising from the deed of trust. The security instrument shall otherwise remain in full force and effect, and the remainder of the property and interests in property described in and encumbered by the security instrument shall remain subject to the lien of the security instrument.

(d) The recording of a partial release does not by itself extinguish any liability of a person for payment or performance of the secured obligation.

(e) The provisions of this section are not exclusive. Property and interests in property may be released from the lien of a security instrument by methods other than the filing of a partial release.

(f) Unless the deed of trust provides otherwise, the trustee in a deed of trust is not a necessary party to a partial release.

(g) No particular phrasing is required for a partial release. The following form, when properly completed, is sufficient to satisfy the requirements of G.S. 45-36.22(a):

"PARTIAL RELEASE
(G.S. 45-36.22)

The security instrument that is the subject of this Partial Release is identified as follows:

Type of Security Instrument: (identify type of security instrument, such as deed of trust or mortgage)

Original Grantor(s): (identify original grantor(s), trustor(s), or mortgagor(s))

Original Secured Party(ies): (identify the original beneficiary(ies), mortgagee(s), or secured party(ies) in the security instrument)

Recording Data: The security instrument is recorded in Book _____ at Page _____ or as document number _____ in the office of the Register of Deeds for _____ County, North Carolina.

The person or persons signing this Partial Release is/are: (check appropriate box)

[ ] The secured creditor.

[ ] The trustee or substitute trustee.

[ ] The secured creditor and the trustee or substitute trustee.

The following described property or interest in property (and no other) is released from the lien of the security instrument: (identify legal description of property or interest in property to be released)

Date: _____ _____

Signature(s) of secured creditor and/or trustee

[Acknowledgment before officer authorized to take acknowledgments]"."

SECTION 10. Article 4 of Chapter 45 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read as follows:

"§ 45-36.23. Obligation release: content and effect.

(a) A document is an obligation release if it does all of the following:

(1) Identifies the type of security instrument, the original parties to the security instrument, the recording data for the security instrument, and the office in which the security instrument is recorded.

(2) States that the person signing the obligation release is the owner and holder of the obligation or obligations to be released.

(3) Identifies one or more of the specific obligations that are secured by the security instrument and contains language confirming that, with respect to each such secured obligation, the obligation is no longer secured by the security instrument.

(4) Is signed and acknowledged as required by law for a conveyance of an interest in real property by the owner and holder of the specific obligation or obligations to be released.

(b) The register of deeds shall accept an obligation release for recording unless one of the following applies:

(1) The document is submitted by a method or in a medium not authorized for registration by the register of deeds under applicable law.

(2) The required recording fee is not paid.

(3) The document is not signed and acknowledged as required by law for a conveyance of an interest in real property by the owner and holder of the obligation or obligations to be released. The register of deeds shall not be required to verify or make inquiry concerning (i) the truth of the matters stated in any obligation release or (ii) the authority of the person executing any obligation release to do so.

(c) From and after the date an obligation release is recorded, the obligation or obligations specifically identified and released in the obligation release (and only such obligation or obligations) shall no longer be secured by the security instrument, without regard to whether the obligation has been paid in full and satisfied. Unless the obligation release states that the secured obligation has been paid in full and satisfied, the recording of an obligation release does not by itself extinguish any liability of a person for payment or performance of the obligation or obligations released.

(d) Secured obligations that are not specifically identified and released in an obligation release remain secured by the security instrument, and the recording of an obligation release does not extinguish any liability of a person for payment or performance of the remaining secured obligation or obligations. The recording of an obligation release has no effect on the lien of the security instrument on the real property described in the security instrument.

(e) Unless the deed of trust provides otherwise, the trustee in a deed of trust is not a necessary party to an obligation release.

(f) No particular phrasing is required for an obligation release. The following form, when properly completed, is sufficient to satisfy the requirements of G.S. 45-36.23(a):

"OBLIGATION RELEASE
(G.S. 45-36.23)

The undersigned is now the owner and holder of the obligation(s) to be released by this instrument. As used in this release, the term "Security Instrument" refers to the security instrument identified as follows:

Type of Security Instrument: (identify type of security instrument, such as deed of trust or mortgage)

Original Grantor(s): (identify original grantor(s), trustor(s), or mortgagor(s))

Original Secured Party(ies): (identify the original beneficiary(ies), mortgagee(s), or secured party(ies) in the security instrument)

Recording Data: The security instrument is recorded in Book _____ at Page _____ or as document number _____ in the office of the Register of Deeds for _____ County, North Carolina.

Secured obligations that are no longer secured. Each of the following obligations is no longer secured by the Security Instrument, without regard to whether the obligation has been paid in full and satisfied: (identify with particularity each secured obligation that will no longer be secured by the Security Instrument)

(Optional provision which may be used in addition to or in lieu of the paragraph above:)

Secured obligations that have been paid in full and satisfied. Each of the following obligations has been paid in full and satisfied and is consequently no longer secured by the Security Instrument: (identify with particularity each secured obligation that has been paid in full and satisfied and is consequently no longer secured by the Security Instrument)

Date: _____

_____
Signature of owner and holder of the obligation(s) to be released

[Acknowledgment before officer authorized to take acknowledgments]"."

SECTION 11. Article 4 of Chapter 45 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read as follows:

"§ 45-36.24. Expiration of lien of security instrument.

(a) Maturity Date. – For purposes of this section:

(1) If a secured obligation is for the payment of money:

a. If all remaining sums owing on the secured obligation are due and payable in full on a date specified in the secured obligation, the maturity date of the secured obligation is the date so specified. If no such date is specified in the secured obligation, the maturity date of the secured obligation is the last date a payment on the secured obligation is due and payable under the terms of the secured obligation.

b. If all remaining sums owing on the secured obligation are due and payable in full on demand or on a date specified in the secured obligation, whichever first occurs, the maturity date of the secured obligation is the date so specified. If all sums owing on the secured obligation are due and payable in full on demand and no alternative date is specified in the secured obligation for payment in full, the maturity date of the secured obligation is the date of the secured obligation.

c. The maturity date of the secured obligation is "stated" in a security instrument if (i) the maturity date of the secured obligation is specified as a date certain in the security instrument, (ii) the last date a payment on the secured obligation is due and payable under the terms of the secured obligation is specified in the security instrument, or (iii) the maturity date of the secured obligation or the last date a payment on the secured obligation is due and payable under the terms of the secured obligation can be ascertained or determined from information contained in the security instrument, such as, for example, from a payment schedule contained in the security instrument.

(2) If the secured obligation is for the performance of some obligation other than the payment of money:

a. If the secured obligation is required to be performed by a date specified in the secured obligation, the maturity date of the secured obligation is the date so specified.

b. If the obligation is to be performed on demand or before a date specified in the secured obligation, whichever first occurs, the maturity date of the secured obligation is the date so specified. If the obligation is to be performed on demand and no alternative date for performance is specified in the secured obligation, the maturity date of the secured obligation is the date of the secured obligation.

c. The maturity date of the secured obligation is "stated" in a security instrument if (i) the maturity date of the secured obligation is specified as a date certain in the security instrument or (ii) the maturity date of the secured obligation can be ascertained or determined from information contained in the security instrument.

(b) Automatic Lien Expiration. – Except as provided in subsection (g) of this section, unless the lien of a security instrument has been extended in the manner prescribed in subsection (c), (d), or (e) of this section, the security instrument has been foreclosed, or the security instrument has been satisfied of record pursuant to G.S. 45-37, the lien of a security instrument automatically expires, and the security instrument is conclusively deemed satisfied of record pursuant to G.S. 45-37, at the earliest of the following times:

(1) If the security instrument was first recorded before October 1, 2011:

a. If the maturity date of the secured obligation is stated in the security instrument, 15 years after the maturity date.

b. If the maturity date is not stated in the security instrument, 35 years after the date the security instrument was recorded in the office of the register of deeds or acknowledged as required by law for a conveyance of an interest in real property, whichever is later.

c. Without regard to whether the maturity date of the secured obligation is stated in the security instrument, 15 years from whichever of the following occurs last:

1. The date when the conditions of the security instrument were required by its terms to have been performed.

2. The date of maturity of the last installment of debt or interest secured thereby.

3. The date an affidavit or separate instrument was recorded pursuant to the provisions of G.S. 45-37(b), if any such affidavit or separate instrument was recorded before October 1, 2011, and before the lien of the security instrument expired.

(2) If the security instrument was first recorded on or after October 1, 2011:

a. If the maturity date of the secured obligation is stated in the security instrument, 15 years after the maturity date.

b. If the maturity date of the secured obligation is not stated in the security instrument, 35 years after the date the security instrument was recorded in the office of the register of deeds or October 1, 2011, whichever is later.

(c) Methods To Extend a Lien. – The lien of a recorded security instrument may be extended one or more times by recording (i) a lien maturity extension agreement or (ii) a notice of maturity date. If more than one lien maturity extension agreement or notice of maturity date is recorded, the most recently recorded lien maturity extension agreement or notice of maturity date controls in determining when the lien of a security instrument expires. A lien maturity extension agreement or notice of maturity date is ineffective unless recorded before the lien expires. The lien of the original security instrument may not be extended to a date more than 50 years after the date the security instrument was originally recorded in the office of the register of deeds without the written agreement of the then owner of the property encumbered by the lien of the security instrument.

(d) Lien Maturity Extension Agreement. –

(1) The lien of a recorded security instrument may be extended to a date specified in a lien maturity extension agreement, provided the lien maturity extension agreement is recorded before the lien expires. When a lien maturity extension agreement has been duly recorded, the lien of the security instrument will expire on the date specified in the lien maturity extension agreement.

(2) A document (including any document that modifies, amends, or restates a security instrument) is a lien maturity extension agreement if it does all of the following:

a. Identifies the type of security instrument, the original parties to the security instrument, the recording data for the security instrument, and the office in which the security instrument is recorded.

b. States the date to which the lien of the security instrument is extended.

c. Is signed and acknowledged as required by law for a conveyance of an interest in real property by the secured creditor and the then owner of the property encumbered by the lien of the security instrument.

(3) No particular phrasing is required for a lien maturity extension agreement. The following form, when properly completed, is sufficient to satisfy the requirements for a lien maturity extension agreement:

"LIEN MATURITY EXTENSION AGREEMENT
(G.S. 45-36.24(d))

_____ is now the secured creditor under the security instrument identified as follows:

Type of Security Instrument: (identify type of security instrument, such as deed of trust or mortgage)

Original Grantor(s): (identify original grantor(s), trustor(s), or mortgagor(s))

Original Secured Party(ies): (identify the original beneficiary(ies), mortgagee(s), or secured party(ies) in the security instrument) _____ is now the owner of the real property encumbered by the lien of the security instrument.

Pursuant to G.S. 45-36.24(d), the lien of the security instrument is extended to and including _____ (specify date).

Date: _____

_____ _____

Signature of Current Owner of Real Property Signature of Secured Creditor

[Acknowledgments before officer authorized to take acknowledgments]"

(e) Notice of Maturity Date. –

(1) The lien of a recorded security instrument may be extended by a notice of maturity date, provided the notice of maturity date is recorded before the lien expires.

(2) When a notice of maturity date signed only by the secured creditor has been duly recorded, the lien of the security instrument will expire at the earliest of the following times: (i) 15 years after the maturity of the secured obligation as stated in the notice of maturity date or (ii) 50 years after the date the security instrument was originally recorded in the office of the register of deeds. A document signed only by the secured creditor is a notice of maturity date if it does all of the following:

a. Identifies the type of security instrument, the original parties to the security instrument, the recording data for the security instrument, and the office in which the security instrument is recorded.

b. States that the person signing the notice of maturity date is the secured creditor.

c. States the maturity date of the secured obligation.

d. Is signed and acknowledged as required by law for a conveyance of an interest in real property by the secured creditor.

(3) When a notice of maturity date signed by the secured creditor and by the then owner of the property encumbered by the lien of the security instrument has been duly recorded, the lien of the security instrument will expire 15 years after the maturity date of the secured obligation as stated in the notice of maturity. A document (including any document that modifies, amends, or restates a security instrument) signed by the secured creditor and by the then owner of the property encumbered by the lien of the security instrument is a notice of maturity date if it:

a. Identifies the type of security instrument, the original parties to the security instrument, the recording data for the security instrument, and the office in which the security instrument is recorded.

b. States the maturity date of the secured obligation.

c. Is signed and acknowledged as required by law for a conveyance of an interest in real property by the secured creditor and the then owner of the property encumbered by the lien of the security instrument.

(4) No particular phrasing is required for a notice of maturity date. The following form, when properly completed, is sufficient to satisfy the requirements for a notice of maturity date signed only by the secured creditor:

"NOTICE OF MATURITY DATE
(G.S. 45-36.24(e))

The undersigned is now the secured creditor under the security instrument identified as follows:

Type of Security Instrument: (identify type of security instrument, such as deed of trust or mortgage)

Original Grantor(s): (identify original grantor(s), trustor(s), or mortgagor(s))

Original Secured Party(ies): (identify the original beneficiary(ies), mortgagee(s), or secured party(ies) in the security instrument)

Recording Data: The security instrument is recorded in Book _____ at Page _____ or as document number _____ in the office of the Register of Deeds for _____ County, North Carolina.

The maturity date of the secured obligation is _____ (specify date).

Date: _____ _____

Signature(s) of secured creditor

[Acknowledgment before officer authorized to take acknowledgments]"

(f) Exception. – The register of deeds shall accept a lien maturity extension agreement or a notice of maturity date for recording and index the document as a subsequent instrument in accordance with G.S. 161-14.1, unless one of the following applies:

(1) The document is submitted by a method or in a medium not authorized for registration by the register of deeds under applicable law.

(2) The required recording fee is not paid.

(3) The document is not signed and acknowledged as required by law for a conveyance of an interest in real property. The register of deeds shall not be required to verify or make inquiry concerning (i) the truth of the matters stated in the document, (ii) whether the parties to the document are in fact the secured creditor and the then owner of the real property encumbered by the lien of the security instrument, or (iii) the authority of any person executing the document to do so.

(g) Foreclosure Proceedings. – No proceeding may be commenced to foreclose the lien of a security instrument unless the proceeding is commenced prior to the date on which the lien of the security instrument expires. However, if a proceeding to foreclose the lien of a security instrument is commenced before the lien of the security instrument expires, the lien created by the security instrument shall continue until final disposition of the proceeding. This provision shall not be construed as extending the lien or the right to bring or maintain any action for which a shorter period may be provided by law.

(h) No Shortening of Lien Without Secured Creditor's Consent. – Subject to the provisions of G.S. 45-37, the duration of the lien of a security instrument may not be shortened without the consent of the secured creditor.

(i) No Release or Satisfaction Necessary. – No release, satisfaction, or other instrument is necessary to discharge the lien of a security instrument that has expired; however, nothing in this section shall be construed as affecting or preventing the execution and recordation of any such release, satisfaction, or other document.

(j) Trustee in a Deed of Trust. – For purposes of this section, the trustee or substitute trustee in a deed of trust (i) shall not be considered the owner of the property encumbered by the lien of the deed of trust and (ii) shall not be a necessary party to a lien maturity extension agreement or notice of maturity date.

(k) Applicability. – This section applies to all security instruments, whether recorded before, on, or after October 1, 2011, except the following:

(1) Any security instrument securing the payment of money or securing the performance of any other obligation or obligations conclusively presumed to have been fully paid and performed pursuant to the provisions of G.S. 45-37(b) prior to October 1, 2011.

(2) Any security instrument made or given by any railroad company, or any agreement of conditional sale, equipment trust agreement, lease, chattel mortgage, or other instrument relating to the sale, purchase, or lease of railroad equipment or rolling stock, or of other personal property."

SECTION 12. G.S. 45-37(b) reads as rewritten:

"§ 45-37. Satisfaction of record of security instruments.

...

(b) It shall be conclusively presumed that the conditions of any security instrument recorded before October 1, 2011, securing the payment of money or securing the performance of any other obligation or obligations have been complied with or the debts secured thereby paid or obligations performed, as against creditors or purchasers for valuable consideration from the mortgagor or grantor, from and after the expiration of 15 years from whichever of the following occurs last:

(1) The date when the conditions of the security instrument were required by its terms to have been performed, or

(2) The date of maturity of the last installment of debt or interest secured thereby;

provided that on or before October 1, 2011, and before the lien has expired pursuant to this subsection, the holder of the indebtedness secured by the security instrument or party secured by any provision thereof may file an affidavit with the register of deeds which affidavit shall specifically state:

(1) The amount of debt unpaid, which is secured by the security instrument; or

(2) In what respect any other condition thereof shall not have been complied with; or may record a separate instrument signed by the secured creditor and witnessed by the register of deeds stating:

(1) Any payments that have been made on the indebtedness or other obligation secured by the security instrument including the date and amount of payments and

(2) The amount still due or obligations not performed under the security instrument.

The effect of the filing of the affidavit or the recording of a separate instrument made as herein provided shall be to postpone the effective date of the conclusive presumption of satisfaction to a date 15 years from the filing of the affidavit or from the recording of the separate instrument. There shall be only one postponement of the effective date of the conclusive presumption provided for herein. The register of deeds shall record and index the affidavit provided for herein or the separate instrument made as herein provided as a subsequent instrument in accordance with G.S. 161-14.1. This subsection shall not apply to any security instrument made or given by any railroad company, or to any agreement of conditional sale, equipment trust agreement, lease, chattel mortgage or other instrument relating to the sale, purchase or lease of railroad equipment or rolling stock, or of other personal property.

The lien of any security instrument that secured the payment of money or the performance of any other obligation or obligations and that was conclusively presumed to have been fully paid and performed prior to October 1, 2011, pursuant to the provisions of this subsection is conclusively deemed to have expired and shall be of no further force or effect. No release, satisfaction, or other instrument is necessary to discharge the lien of a security instrument that has expired; however, nothing in this section shall be construed as affecting or preventing the execution and recordation of any such release, satisfaction, or other document.

This subsection shall apply only to security instruments securing the payment of money or securing the performance of any other obligation or obligations that were conclusively presumed pursuant to this subsection to have been fully paid and performed prior to October 1, 2011. All other security instruments shall be subject to the provisions of G.S. 45-36.24."

SECTION 13. G.S. 45-37.2 reads as rewritten:

"§ 45-37.2. Recording satisfactions ~~of~~ and other documents relating to security instruments.

(a) ~~When a satisfaction document, affidavit of satisfaction, or trustee's satisfaction is recorded pursuant to G.S. 45-37(a)(7), the~~The register of deeds shall record and index the ~~instrument~~ following instruments in accordance with ~~G.S. 161-14.1.~~G.S. 161-14.1:

(1) A substitution of trustee.

(2) A document of rescission recorded pursuant to G.S. 45-36.6.

(3) A deed of release or reconveyance.

(4) A partial release recorded pursuant to G.S. 45-36.22.

(5) An obligation release recorded pursuant to G.S. 45-36.23.

(6) A satisfaction document, affidavit of satisfaction, or trustee's satisfaction recorded pursuant to G.S. 45-37(a)(7).

(7) A lien maturity extension agreement or notice of maturity date recorded pursuant to G.S. 45-36.24.

No fee shall be charged by the register of deeds for recording a satisfaction document, affidavit of satisfaction, or a trustee's satisfaction.

(b) When a security instrument is satisfied of record by a method other than by means of recording a satisfaction document, satisfaction affidavit, or trustee's satisfaction pursuant to G.S. 45-37(a)(7), the register of deeds shall record and index in accordance with ~~G.S. 161.14.1~~G.S. 161-14.1 a record of satisfaction as provided for in this subsection. If the security instrument is being satisfied of record pursuant to G.S. 45-37(a)(2), the record of satisfaction may consist of either (i) all or a portion of the original security instrument rerecorded as described in subdivision (1) of this subsection or (ii) a separate instrument as described in subdivision (2) of this subsection. In all other cases, the record of satisfaction shall consist of a separate instrument as described in subdivision (2) of this subsection. No fee shall be charged by the register of deeds for recording a record of satisfaction.

SECTION 14. Article 4 of Chapter 45 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read as follows:

"§ 45-42.3. Automatic release of real property from ancillary security instruments.

(a) The following definitions shall apply in this section:

(1) Ancillary security instrument. – An assignment of leases with respect to the real property, an assignment of rents from or arising out of the real property, a financing statement covering fixtures on the real property that is filed in the office of the register of deeds in the county in which the real property is located, and any other document or instrument that assigns, or creates a lien on, an interest in the real property.

(2) Real property. – The real property described in and encumbered by the lien of a security instrument.

(b) Except as provided in subsection (c) of this section, (i) the expiration of the lien of a security instrument pursuant to G.S. 45-36.24 or the satisfaction of a security instrument of record pursuant to G.S. 45-37 shall be deemed automatically to release the real property from the operation of all ancillary security instruments that secure the same obligation or obligations secured by the security instrument and (ii) the recording of a partial release pursuant to G.S. 45-36.22 or the recording of a deed of release shall be deemed automatically to release the real property described in the partial release or deed of release from the operation of all ancillary security instruments that secure the same obligation or obligations secured by the security instrument.

(c) Subsection (b) of this section shall not apply to an ancillary security instrument if (i) the ancillary security instrument secures obligations other than, or in addition to, the obligation or obligations secured by the security instrument; (ii) the security instrument, the ancillary security instrument, or the document recorded in the office of the register of deeds to satisfy the security instrument of record expressly states that the satisfaction of the security instrument of record shall not release the real property from the operation of that particular ancillary security instrument or from ancillary security instruments in general; or (iii) the security instrument, the ancillary security instrument, the partial release, or the deed of release expressly states that the partial release or deed of release shall not release real property from the operation of that particular ancillary security instrument or ancillary security instruments in general."

SECTION 15. Article 5 of Chapter 45 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read as follows:

"§ 45-45.3. Trustee in a deed of trust.

(a) The following definitions apply in this section:

(1) Secured creditor. – The holder, owner, or assignee of the obligation secured by a deed of trust.

(2) Trustee. – The trustee or substitute trustee then serving as such under the terms of a deed of trust.

(b) Unless the deed of trust provides otherwise, all of the following may be done without the knowledge, consent, or joinder of the trustee:

(1) Pursuant to G.S. 45-36.23, an obligation may be declared by the owner and holder of the obligation to be no longer secured by the deed of trust.

(2) Property may be released from the lien of a deed of trust by the secured creditor.

(3) The lien of a deed of trust may be released or subordinated by the secured creditor.

(4) The terms of a deed of trust may be modified by the secured creditor and the then record owner of the property encumbered by the lien of the deed of trust.

(5) The deed of trust may be satisfied of record by the secured creditor.

(c) Except in matters relating to the foreclosure of the deed of trust or the exercise of a power of sale under the terms of the deed of trust, the trustee is neither a necessary nor a proper party to any civil action or proceeding involving (i) title to the real property encumbered by the lien of the deed of trust or (ii) the priority of the lien of the deed of trust. Examples of civil actions or proceedings in which the trustee is neither a necessary nor a proper party include, but are not limited to, civil actions or proceedings relating to:

(1) Condemnation.
(2) Bankruptcy.
(3) The establishment or correction of title to real property, including, but not limited to, actions to quiet title, reform land records, or resolve boundary line disputes.
(4) Fraudulent conveyances.
(5) The creation or enforcement of an attachment or judgment lien.
(6) The foreclosure of a lien other than the lien of the deed of trust, regardless of whether the lien is superior or subordinate to the lien of the deed of trust, including, but not limited to, the foreclosure of mortgages, other deeds of trust, tax liens, and assessment liens.
(7) The establishment, perfection, or enforcement of a mechanic's or materialman's lien.
(8) The creation or enforcement of a constructive trust, resulting trust, or equitable lien relating to the property.
(9) The partition of real property.
(10) The interpretation or enforceability of a will, trust, or estate.
(11) A subrogation claim or other equitable claim or defense involving the priority or enforceability of a deed of trust.
(12) Determination or enforcement of rights and obligations involving easements or restrictive covenants.

(d) If a trustee is improperly joined as a party to an action or proceeding when this section provides that the trustee is neither a necessary nor a proper party to that action or proceeding, then:

(1) Upon motion duly made by any party to the action or proceeding, the trustee shall be dismissed from the action or proceeding;
(2) Regardless of whether the trustee makes an appearance in the action or proceeding, no entry of a default or default judgment shall be entered against the trustee; and
(3) If the trustee makes an appearance in the action or proceeding, each person who improperly joined the trustee as a party to the action or proceeding shall be jointly and severally liable to the trustee for all the expenses and costs incurred by the trustee in the defense of the action or proceeding or in obtaining the trustee's dismissal from the action or proceeding, including the reasonable attorneys' fees actually incurred by the trustee.

(e) Except as expressly provided in this section, this section is not in derogation of case law and statutory provisions that vest legal title to property conveyed by a deed of trust in the trustee named therein."

SECTION 16. G.S. 45-68 reads as rewritten:

"§ 45-68. Requirements.

A security instrument, otherwise valid, shall secure the following so as to give priority as provided in G.S. 45-70:

...

(1a) Existing obligations that are specifically or generally ~~identified~~ identified, described, or referenced in the security instrument as being secured thereby, and all advances made at or prior to the registration of the security instrument.

(1b) Future advances and future obligations that are specifically or generally identified, described, or referenced in the security instrument as being secured thereby that may from time to time be made or ~~incurred under the security instrument,~~incurred, but only if the security instrument shows all of the following:

a. That the security instrument is given wholly or partly to secure future advances and/or future ~~obligations that may be made or incurred under the security instrument.~~obligations.

...."

SECTION 17. G.S. 45-69 reads as rewritten:

"§ 45-69. Fluctuation of obligations within maximum amount.

Unless the security instrument provides to the contrary, if the maximum amount secured by the security instrument has not been advanced or if any obligation secured thereby is paid or is reduced by partial payment, further advances may be made and additional obligations secured by the security instrument may be incurred from time to time within the time limit fixed by the security instrument. Such further advances and ~~obligations~~ obligations, together with interest thereon, shall be secured to the same extent as original advances and obligations under the security instrument, if the provisions of G.S. 45-68 are complied with. ~~However, if at any time the aggregate outstanding principal balance of the obligation or obligations secured by the security instrument exceeds the maximum principal amount that may be secured by the security instrument at any one time, then the excess shall not be secured by the security instrument.~~"

SECTION 18. G.S. 45-70 reads as rewritten:

"§ 45-70. Priority of security instrument.

(a) ~~Any~~ Subject to subsections (a1), (c), and (d) of this section, any security instrument that conforms to the requirements of this Article shall, from the time and date of registration thereof, have the same priority to the extent of all future advances and future obligations secured by it, and all interest accruing thereon, as if all the advances had been ~~made and~~ made, all the obligations ~~incurred~~ incurred, and all the interest accrued at the time the security instrument was registered.

(a1) Subject to subsections (c) and (d) of this section, if at any time the aggregate outstanding principal balance of the obligation or obligations secured by a security instrument that conforms to the requirements of this Article exceeds the maximum principal amount that may be secured by the security instrument at any one time, then, unless the security instrument provides otherwise, the amount in excess and the interest accrued on the amount in excess shall be secured by the security instrument, but (i) the amount in excess and the interest accrued on the amount in excess shall not be afforded the priority provided in subsection (a) of this section and (ii) the priority of the lien of the security instrument with respect to the amount in excess and the interest accrued on the amount in excess shall be determined by other applicable law.

(b) Repealed by Session Laws 1989, c. 496, s. 3.

(c) ~~Payments made by the secured creditor for fire and extended coverage insurance, taxes, assessments, or other necessary expenditures for the preservation of the security~~ All payments made, sums advanced, and expenses incurred by the secured creditor (i) for insurance, taxes, and assessments, (ii) to protect the secured creditor's interest under the security instrument, or (iii) to preserve and protect the value or condition of the real property encumbered by the security instrument, shall be secured by the security instrument and shall have the same priority as if ~~such payments had been made~~ they had been paid, advanced, or incurred at the time the security instrument was registered. The provisions of G.S. 45-68 shall not be applicable to such payments, advances, or expenses, nor shall accrued interest or such ~~payments~~ payments, advances, or ~~accrued interest~~ expenses be considered in computing the ~~maximum~~ principal amount ~~which may be~~ that is secured by the security ~~instrument.~~instrument at any one time.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Article, any security instrument hereafter executed which secures an obligation or obligations of an electric or telephone membership corporation incorporated or domesticated in North Carolina to the United States of America or any of its agencies, or to any other financing institution, or of an electric or gas utility operating in North Carolina, shall from the time and date of registration of said security instrument have the same priority to the extent of (i) all future obligations incurred by the membership corporation or utility to any mortgagee or beneficiary named in the security instrument, together with interest thereon, (ii) all future advances secured by ~~it~~ it, together with interest thereon, and (iii) all payments made, sums advanced, and expenses incurred by the secured creditor of the types described in subsection (c) of this section, as if ~~all the advances had been made~~ they all had been accrued, paid, made, advanced, and incurred at the time of the ~~execution~~ registration of the security instrument, regardless of whether ~~the making of such advances is obligatory or whether~~ the security instrument meets the requirements of G.S. 45-68."

SECTION 19. G.S. 45-74 reads as rewritten:

"§ 45-74. Article not exclusive.

The provisions of this Article shall not be deemed ~~exclusive, and no security instrument securing future advances or future obligations which is otherwise valid shall be invalidated by failure to comply with the provisions of this Article.~~exclusive. Nothing in this Article shall invalidate or overrule any rule of validity or priority applicable to any security instrument failing to comply with the provisions of this Article."

SECTION 20. G.S. 45-81 reads as rewritten:

"§ 45-81. ~~Definition.~~Definitions.

~~(a) The term "equity line of credit" means an agreement in writing between a lender and a borrower for an extension of credit pursuant to which:~~

~~(1) At any time within a specified period not to exceed 30 years the borrower may request and the lender is obligated to provide, by honoring negotiable instruments drawn by the borrower or otherwise, advances up to an agreed aggregate limit;~~

~~(2) Any repayments of principal by the borrower within the specified period will reduce the amount of advances counted against the aggregate limit; and~~

~~(3) The borrower's obligation to the lender is secured by a mortgage or deed of trust relating to real property which mortgage or deed of trust shows on its face the maximum principal amount which may be secured at any one time and that it secures an equity line of credit governed by the provisions of this Article.~~

~~(b) As used in subdivision (a)(1) of this section, "lender is obligated" means that the lender is contractually bound to provide advances. The contract must set forth any events of default by the borrower, or other events not within the lender's control, which may relieve the lender from his obligation, and must state whether or not the lender has reserved the right to cancel or terminate the obligation.~~

~~(c) At any time when the balance of all outstanding sums secured by a mortgage or deed of trust pursuant to the provisions of this Article is zero, the lender shall, upon the request of the borrower, make written entry upon the security instrument showing payment and satisfaction of the instrument; provided, however, that such security instrument shall remain in full force and effect for the term set forth therein absent the borrower's request for such written entry. No prepayment penalty may be charged with respect to an equity line of credit loan.~~

The following definitions apply in this Article:

(1) Authorized person. – Any borrower; the legal representative of any borrower; the attorney for any borrower; a title insurance company authorized pursuant to Article 26 of Chapter 58 of the General Statutes to issue title insurance policies in the State of North Carolina, but only when the company is acting in connection with a title insurance policy issued or to be issued with respect to property then encumbered by an existing equity line security instrument; or an attorney licensed to practice law in the State of North Carolina or a bank, savings and loan association, savings bank, or credit union, but only when (i) the attorney, bank, savings and loan association, savings bank, or credit union is or was responsible for the disbursement of funds in connection with the sale of, or a new loan secured by, property then encumbered by an existing equity line security instrument and (ii) a requirement of the sale or new loan transaction is or was that the property be conveyed or encumbered free and clear of the lien of the existing equity line security instrument.

(2) Borrower. – A person primarily liable for payment or performance of an equity line of credit.

(3) Equity line of credit. – An agreement in writing between a lender and a borrower for an extension of credit pursuant to which (i) at any time within a specified period not to exceed 30 years the borrower may request and the lender is obligated to provide advances up to an agreed aggregate limit; (ii) any repayments of principal by the borrower within the specified period will reduce the amount of advances counted against the aggregate limit; and (iii) the borrower's obligation to the lender is secured by an equity line security instrument.

(4) Equity line security instrument. – An agreement, however denominated, that (i) creates or provides for an interest in real property to secure payment or performance of an equity line of credit, whether or not it also creates or provides for a lien on personal property; (ii) shows on its face the maximum principal amount which may be secured at any one time; and (iii) shows on its face that it secures an equity line of credit governed by the provisions of this Article. The term "equity line security instrument" includes a deed of trust and a mortgage.

(5) Lender is obligated. – The lender is contractually bound to provide advances. The contract must set forth any events of default by the borrower, or other events not within the lender's control, which may relieve the lender from his obligation, and must state whether or not the lender has reserved the right to cancel or terminate the obligation.

(6) Notice regarding future advances. – A written notice submitted under G.S. 45-82.3 to a lender that prevents certain advances made pursuant to an equity line of credit from being secured by the related equity line security instrument.

(7) Owner. – Any person owning a present or future interest in the real property encumbered by an equity line security instrument, but does not mean the trustee in a deed of trust or the owner or holder of a mortgage, deed of trust, mechanic's or materialman's lien, judgment lien, or any other lien on, or security interest in, the real property.

(8) Person. – An individual, corporation, business trust, estate, trust, partnership, limited liability company, association, joint venture, public corporation, government, or governmental subdivision, agency, or instrumentality, or any other legal or commercial entity.

(9) Qualified lien holder. – A person who has a mortgage or deed of trust on property already encumbered by an existing equity line security instrument, where that person's mortgage or deed of trust was recorded after the existing equity line security instrument and it appears from warranties or otherwise that the person's mortgage or deed of trust was not intended to be subordinate to the existing equity line security instrument. The term does not include a trustee under a deed of trust.

(10) Request to terminate an equity line of credit; and termination request. – A written request submitted under G.S. 45-82.2 to a lender to terminate an equity line of credit. Each of the following shall be deemed a termination request: (i) a notification given pursuant to G.S. 45-36.9(a) requesting the lender to terminate the equity line of credit, (ii) a notification given pursuant to G.S. 45-36.9(a) containing a statement sufficient to terminate the effectiveness of the provision for future advances in the equity line security instrument, and (iii) a written request made by or on behalf of a borrower to a lender pursuant to G.S. 45-37 to satisfy a related equity line security instrument as a matter of public record."

SECTION 21. G.S. 45-82 reads as rewritten:

"§ 45-82. Priority of equity line security instrument.

~~A mortgage or deed of trust which~~ An equity line security instrument ~~shows on its face that it secures an equity line of credit governed by the provisions of this Article,~~ shall, from the time and date of its registration, have the same priority to the extent of all advances secured by it as if the advances had been made at the time of the ~~execution~~ registration of the equity line ~~mortgage or deed of trust,~~security instrument, notwithstanding the fact that from time to time during the term of the ~~loan~~ equity line of credit no balance is outstanding. ~~Payments made by the lender for insurance, taxes, and assessments and other payments made by the lender pursuant to the deed of trust shall have the same priority as if made at the time of the execution of the mortgage or deed of trust, notwithstanding the maximum principal amount set forth in the mortgage or deed of trust.~~Interest that accrues on the equity line of credit and all payments made, sums advanced, and expenses incurred by the lender (i) for insurance, taxes, and assessments, (ii) to protect the lender's interest under the equity line security instrument, or (iii) to preserve and protect the value or condition of the property encumbered by the equity line security instrument, shall be secured by the equity line security instrument and shall have the same priority as if they had been accrued, paid, advanced, and incurred at the time the equity line security instrument was registered. The accrued interest, payments, advances, and expenses shall not be considered in computing the principal amount that is secured by the equity line security instrument at any one time."

SECTION 22. G.S. 45-82.1 reads as rewritten:

"§ 45-82.1. Extension of period for advances.

(a) The period for advances agreed to pursuant to ~~G.S. 45-81(a)(1)~~G.S. 45-81(3) may be extended by written agreement of the lender and borrower executed and registered prior to expiration or termination of the equity line of credit or the borrower's obligation to repay any outstanding indebtedness. Any extended period shall not exceed 30 years from the end of the preceding period for advances.

(b) If a lender and borrower extend the period for advances by registering a certificate as described in subsection (c) of this section, ~~A mortgage or deed of trust that secures an equity line of credit to which the lender and borrower have agreed to an extended period for advances shall have priority with respect to~~ advances that are made after the ~~preceding loan period~~ period for advances provided in the original recorded equity line security instrument or any previously recorded extension shall have priority from a date not later than the date of registration of the certificate described in subsection (c) of this section.

(c) The priority provided in subsection (b) of this section shall be accorded only if the ~~grantor of the mortgage or the deed of trust securing the obligation,~~lender, the borrower, and, if different than the borrower, the then owners of the real property encumbered by the equity line security instrument ~~and other record owners of the real property therein conveyed,~~ execute a certificate evidencing the extension and register the certificate in the office of the register of deeds where the equity line ~~mortgage or deed of trust~~ security instrument is registered. The failure of any ~~record~~ owner to execute the certificate shall affect only that ~~record~~ owner's interest in the property, and executions by other owners shall have full effect to the extent of their interests in the property. ~~For purposes of this section, the term "record owner" means any person owning a present or future interest of record in the real property which would be affected by the lien of the mortgage or deed of trust, but does not mean the trustee in a deed of trust or the owner or holder of a mortgage, deed of trust, mechanic's or materialman's lien, or any other lien or security interest in the real property.~~

(d) ~~The certificate described in subsection (c) of this section may be in any form that fulfills the requirements of subsection (c) of this section, including the following:~~No particular phrasing is required for a certificate of extension under this section. The following form, when properly completed, is sufficient to satisfy the requirements of subsection (c) of this section:

~~"Certificate of Extension of Period for Advances Under Home Equity Line of Credit~~

SECTION 23. Article 9 of Chapter 45 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read as follows:

"§ 45-82.2. Request to terminate an equity line of credit.

(a) Upon receipt of a request from an authorized person to terminate an equity line of credit, the lender shall (i) terminate the borrower's right to obtain advances under the borrower's equity line of credit; (ii) apply all sums subsequently paid by or on behalf of the borrower in connection with the equity line of credit to the satisfaction of the equity line of credit and other sums secured by the related equity line security instrument; and (iii) when the balance of all outstanding sums secured by the related equity line security instrument becomes zero, satisfy the related equity line security instrument as a matter of public record pursuant to G.S. 45-37. A request to terminate an equity line of credit shall be conclusively deemed to have been submitted by or on behalf of a borrower if it is submitted by an authorized person.

(b) No particular phrasing is required for a request to terminate an equity line of credit. The following form, when properly completed, is sufficient to serve as a request to terminate an equity line of credit:

"REQUEST TO TERMINATE AN EQUITY LINE OF CREDIT

(c) If the person who gives a lender a request to terminate an equity line of credit is a title insurance company described in G.S. 45-81(1), that person shall give a copy of the request to the borrower accompanied by a notice that provides substantially as follows:

"NOTICE TO BORROWER

You have an equity line of credit with (name of lender) secured by a mortgage or deed of trust on real property located at (address of property).

We are a title insurance company that has issued or has agreed to issue a title insurance policy on that property. As permitted by North Carolina law, we are sending the (enclosed / attached / following / foregoing) request to your lender asking that your equity line of credit be terminated. Our reason for making this request is:

(specify reason it is appropriate for the title insurance company to request the termination of the borrower's equity line of credit)

When your lender receives our request, your lender will terminate and close your equity line of credit, and you will no longer be able to obtain credit advances. However, termination of your equity line of credit will not release you from liability for the account. All sums your lender subsequently receives in connection with your equity line of credit (including any sums we may send to your lender) will be applied by your lender to the satisfaction of your account. When the balance of your account becomes zero, your lender will be required to cancel the mortgage or deed of trust as a matter of public record.

If you have questions about this notice or our action, please contact (name of contact person or department) by calling us at (phone number) or writing to us at (mailing address).

(Name of title insurance company)"

(d) If the person who gives a lender a request to terminate an equity line of credit is an attorney, bank, savings and loan association, savings bank, or credit union described in G.S. 45-81(1), that person shall give a copy of the request to the borrower accompanied by a notice that provides substantially as follows:

"NOTICE TO BORROWER

You have an equity line of credit with (name of lender) secured by a mortgage or deed of trust on real property located at (address of property).

We were responsible for disbursing funds in connection with the sale of the property or a new loan secured by the property. A requirement of the sale or new loan transaction was that the property be conveyed or encumbered free and clear of the existing mortgage or deed of trust that secures your equity line of credit.

As permitted by North Carolina law, we are sending the (enclosed / attached / following / foregoing) request to your lender asking that your equity line of credit be terminated. Our reason for making this request is to ensure that the mortgage or deed of trust on the property will be cancelled once your equity line of credit is paid in full.

When your lender receives our request, your lender will terminate and close your equity line of credit, and you will no longer be able to obtain credit advances. However, termination of your equity line of credit will not release you from liability for the account. All sums your lender subsequently receives in connection with your equity line of credit (including any sums we send to your lender in connection with the closing of the sale of the property or the new loan) will be applied by your lender to the satisfaction of your account. When the balance of your account becomes zero, your lender will be required to cancel the mortgage or deed of trust as a matter of public record.

If you have questions about this notice or our action, please contact (name of contact person or department) by calling us at (phone number) or writing to us at (mailing address).

(Name of attorney, bank, savings and loan association, savings bank, or credit union)"."

SECTION 24. Article 9 of Chapter 45 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read as follows:

"§ 45-82.3. Notice regarding future advances.

(a) A notice regarding future advances may be submitted to a lender by an authorized person, an owner of the property, or a qualified lien holder.

(b) Except as provided in subsection (c) of this section, an advance made by a lender to a borrower pursuant to an equity line of credit will not be secured by the related equity line security instrument if the advance occurs after the lender receives and has had not less than one complete business day to act on a notice regarding future advances.

(c) Notwithstanding a lender's receipt of a notice regarding future advances, the following shall be secured by the equity line security instrument and shall have the same priority as if they had been owing, accrued, paid, advanced, or incurred at the time the equity line security instrument was registered:

(1) Sums owing to the lender under the equity line of credit at the time the lender receives the notice regarding future advances (including accrued interest), all interest that thereafter accrues on the equity line of credit, and all payments made, sums advanced, and expenses incurred by the lender before or after the lender receives the notice regarding future advances (i) for insurance, taxes, and assessments, (ii) to protect the lender's interest under the equity line security instrument, or (iii) to preserve and protect the value or condition of the real property encumbered by the equity line security instrument.

(2) Any advance made by the lender to a borrower pursuant to an equity line of credit that occurs within one complete business day after the lender receives the notice regarding future advances.

(3) Any advance made by the lender to a borrower pursuant to an equity line of credit that occurs more than one complete business day after the lender receives the notice regarding future advances, but only if the advance was initiated or approved before the lender received the notice regarding future advances.

(d) Receipt by a lender of a notice regarding future advances shall be conclusively deemed to be an action by the borrower adversely affecting the lender's security for the equity line of credit. Upon receipt of a notice regarding future advances, the lender may terminate the borrower's right and ability to obtain additional advances under the equity line of credit.

(e) No particular phrasing is required for a notice regarding future advances. The following form, when properly completed, is sufficient to serve as a notice regarding future advances:

"NOTICE REGARDING FUTURE ADVANCES
(G.S. 45-82.3)

To: (name of lender)

This is a notice regarding future advances submitted pursuant to G.S. 45-82.3. For purposes of this notice:

1. The borrower(s) is/are: (identify borrower(s))
2. The account number of the equity line of credit is: (specify the account number of the equity line of credit, if known by the person submitting the notice)
3. The street address of the property is: (provide the street address of the property encumbered by the security instrument identified in 4.)
4. The equity line of credit is secured by the security instrument identified as follows:

Type of Security Instrument: (identify type of security instrument, such as deed of trust or mortgage)

Original Grantor(s): (identify original grantor(s), trustor(s), or mortgagor(s))

Original Secured Party(ies): (identify the original beneficiary(ies), mortgagee(s), or secured party(ies) in the security instrument)

Recording Data: The security instrument is recorded in Book _____ at Page _____ or as document number _____ in the office of the Register of Deeds for _____ County, North Carolina.

Except as provided in G.S. 45-82.3(c), subsequent advances made by you under the equity line of credit will not be secured by the security instrument identified above.

I certify that I am:

[ ] The borrower (or one of the borrowers, if there is more than one).
[ ] The legal representative of a borrower.
[ ] The attorney for a borrower.
[ ] An owner of the property encumbered by the security instrument identified above.
[ ] A title insurance company that satisfies the requirements of G.S. 45-81(1).
[ ] An attorney licensed to practice law in the State of North Carolina that satisfies the requirements of G.S. 45-81(1).
[ ] A bank, savings and loan association, savings bank, or credit union that satisfies the requirements of G.S. 45-81(1).
[ ] A qualified lien holder as defined in G.S. 45-81(9).

Date: _____ _____

Signature of person submitting the request"

(f) If the person who gives a lender a notice regarding future advances is (i) a title insurance company described in G.S. 45-81(1); (ii) an attorney, bank, savings and loan association, savings bank, or credit union described in G.S. 45-81(1), (iii) an owner as defined in G.S. 45-81(7), other than an owner who is also a borrower, or (iv) a qualified lien holder described in G.S. 45-81(9), then that person shall give a copy of the notice regarding future advances to the borrower accompanied by a notice that provides substantially as follows:

"NOTICE TO BORROWER

You have an equity line of credit with (name of lender) secured by a mortgage or deed of trust on real property located at (address of property).

As permitted by North Carolina law, we are sending the (enclosed / attached / following / foregoing) Notice Regarding Future Advances to your lender. Subject to certain exceptions, the notice prevents any new credit advances you obtain under your equity line of credit from being secured by the mortgage or deed of trust that currently secures its repayment. Our reason for giving your lender the notice is to limit the amount secured by the mortgage or deed of trust that secures your equity line of credit and to prevent that amount from increasing.

When your lender receives our notice, your lender may elect to terminate your right and ability to obtain additional advances under your equity line of credit. However, termination of your right and ability to obtain additional advances will not release you from liability for the account. You should contact your lender to determine whether you will be able to obtain additional credit advances from your lender.

If you have questions about this notice or our action, please contact (name of contact person or department) by calling us at (phone number) or writing to us at (mailing address).

(Name of insurance company, attorney, bank, savings and loan association, savings bank, credit union, owner, or qualified lien holder)"."

SECTION 25. Article 9 of Chapter 45 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read as follows:

"§ 45-82.4. Prepayment penalty.

Except as provided in G.S. 24-9(c), no prepayment penalty may be charged with respect to an equity line of credit."

SECTION 26. G.S. 45-83 reads as rewritten:

"§ 45-83. Future advances statute shall not apply.

The provisions of Article 7 of this Chapter shall not apply to an equity line of credit or the equity line security instrument securing it, if the equity line security instrument shows on its face that it secures an equity line of credit governed by the provisions of this Article."

SECTION 27. G.S. 45-84 reads as rewritten:

"§ 45-84. Article not exclusive.

Except as otherwise provided in G.S. 45-83, the provisions of this Article are not ~~exclusive, and no mortgage or deed of trust which secures a line of credit or other obligation shall be invalidated by failure to comply with the provisions of this Article.~~exclusive. Nothing in this Article shall invalidate or overrule any rule of validity or priority applicable to any mortgage, deed of trust, or other security instrument failing to comply with the provisions of this Article."

SECTION 28. G.S. 161-14.1 reads as rewritten:

"§ 161-14.1. Recording subsequent entries as separate instruments.

(a) As used in this section, the following terms mean:

(3) Subsequent instrument. – Any instrument presented for registration that indicates in its title or within the first two pages of its text that it is intended or purports to modify, amend, supplement, assign, satisfy, terminate, revoke, or cancel a previously registered instrument. Examples of subsequent instruments include the ~~appointment or designation of a substitute trustee in a deed of trust; an affidavit extending the life of a deed of trust; the~~

~~cancellation of a Notice of Inactive Hazardous Substance or Waste Disposal Site registered pursuant to G.S. 130A-310.8(f); a record of satisfaction or other instrument purporting to satisfy a security instrument registered pursuant to G.S. 45-37 or G.S. 45-37.2; a notice of foreclosure registered pursuant to G.S. 45-38; an assignment of a security instrument or lease; a modification agreement; a release or partial release of property from the lien of a security instrument; an assumption agreement; a subordination agreement; an instrument terminating future optional advances registered pursuant to G.S. 45-72; the revocation of a power of attorney; any instrument authorized or directed by law to be indexed under the provisions of this section; and any instrument for which the register of deeds is authorized or directed by law to make a subsequent entry upon the margin of the record of an original instrument.~~following:

a. The appointment or designation of a substitute trustee in a deed of trust.

b. A corrective affidavit registered pursuant to G.S. 45-36.1.

c. A lien maturity extension agreement or notice of maturity date registered pursuant to G.S. 45-36.1.

d. A document of rescission registered pursuant to G.S. 45-36.6.

e. The cancellation of a Notice of Inactive Hazardous Substance or Waste Disposal Site registered pursuant to G.S. 130A-310.8(f).

f. A record of satisfaction or other instrument purporting to satisfy a security instrument registered pursuant to G.S. 45-37 or G.S. 45-37.2.

g. A notice of foreclosure registered pursuant to G.S. 45-38.

h. An assignment of a security instrument or lease.

i. An amendment or modification agreement.

j. A release or partial release of property from the lien of a security instrument, including a partial release registered pursuant to G.S. 45-36.22 or a deed of release or reconveyance.

k. An obligation release registered pursuant to G.S. 45-36.23.

l. An assumption agreement.

m. A subordination agreement.

n. An instrument terminating future optional advances registered pursuant to G.S. 45-72.

HOUSE BILL 707:
Register of Deeds/Directed Trustees/Estates

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary I	Date:	May 30, 2012
Introduced by:	Rep. Rhyne	Prepared by:	Bill Patterson
Analysis of:	PCS to Second Edition H707-CSTG-44		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: The PCS to House Bill 707 deletes obsolete references in statutes relating to the duties of Registers of Deeds, makes technical corrections to the laws governing trustees and decedents' estates, clarifies and limits the liability of trustees and other fiduciaries required by the governing instruments to take directions from others, modifies the amount local agencies charge for copies of vital records, and authorizes the Revisor of Statutes to publish explanatory comments of drafters of the amendments to the North Carolina Uniform Trust Code. The PCS replaces the original version of the bill in its entirety.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Part I of the PCS to HB707 (Sections 1.1 through 1.24) contains a number of technical amendments relating to the duties of the Registers of Deeds to eliminate redundant requirements and conform to current indexing standards resulting from advances in computer technology.

Part II of the PCS amends G.S. 130A-93.1 to modify the fee that local agencies charge when using databases maintained by the State Registrar.

Current Law: A local agency is authorized to charge a fee not to exceed $24 for issuing the first copy of a vital record or for conducting a routine search of the files for the record when no copy is made, and $15 for each additional copy requested from the same search, and is permitted to retain $10 of this fee to cover local administrative costs, forwarding the balance to the State Registrar.

The PCS makes the following changes:

- Section 2.1 permits the local agency to charge $14, and to retain $10 if a copy is made. It also permits the $10 charge to be waived if the requesting person is over age 62.
- Section 2.2 repeals G.S. 161-10(8a), thereby eliminating the $2.00 fee that Registers of Deeds are currently required to collect for any search requiring access to the Vital Records Computer Network.

Part III, Subpart A of the PCS (Sections 3.1 - 3.4) amends the North Carolina Uniform Trust Code and makes conforming changes to the law generally applicable to fiduciaries.

Part III, Subpart B (Sections 3.5 – 3.11) makes technical corrections to other statutes governing trustees and decedents' estates.

Current Law:

- The duties and powers of trustees are set forth in Article 8 of Chapter 36C of the General Statutes.
- G.S. 36C-8-808(b) provides that a trustee must follow the direction of a person other than the settlor of a revocable trust who is empowered to direct the actions of the trustee under the terms of the trust, unless the exercise of that power would be contrary to the terms of the trust or would breach a fiduciary duty owed by the power holder to the trust beneficiaries.

- G.S. 36C-8-808(d) provides that a person other than a beneficiary who holds a power to direct is presumptively a fiduciary of the beneficiaries of the trust who is liable for losses caused by breach of a fiduciary duty.
- G.S. 32-72 provides that when a fiduciary responsible for making investments is required by the terms of an instrument to follow the investment directions of the settlor or some other person in whose selection the fiduciary had no discretion, the fiduciary is not liable to the beneficiaries or to the trust for the decisions of the settlor or other person whose direction the fiduciary follows.

Section 3.1 amends G.S. 36C-8-808(a) to provide that:

- a settlor of a revocable trust has the power to direct or consent to the actions of the trustee regardless of whether the power is conveyed by the terms of the trust, and
- the trustee is not liable for any loss resulting from compliance with the settlor's direction, or from the settlor not responding to a trustee's request for consent to the trustee's actions within a reasonable time after receiving the request

Section 3.2 adds a new subdivision (e1) to G.S. 36C-7-703 setting forth the duties and liabilities that arise when one or more cotrustees are given, to the exclusion of another cotrustee, the power to take certain actions with respect to the trust, including the power to direct or prevent certain actions of the trustees.

Section 3.3 amends G.S. 32-72(d) to set forth the duties and liabilities of fiduciaries responsible for investments who are directed by others, in the same way that the duties and liabilities of trustees are set forth by the amendments to G.S. 36C-8-808 made in Section 3.1 of the PCS.

Section 3.4 enacts a new Article 8A to Chapter 36C, to:

- Define a "power holder" as a person other than a trustee with power to take certain actions concerning a trust (new G.S. 36C-8A-801)
- Set forth the powers of a power holder (new G.S. 36C-8A-802)
- Establish the fiduciary duty and liability of a power holder (new G.S. 36C-8A-803)
- Limit the liability of a directed trustee to intentional wrongdoing and absolving the directed trustee from liability for failure to act when a power holder fails to grant a request for consent that is required for the directed trustee to act (new G.S. 36C-8A-804)
- Establish procedures governing compensation and expense reimbursement of power holders, jurisdiction over power holders, appointment of a power holder, how multiple power holders make decisions, and resignation and removal of power holders (new G.S. 36C-8A-805 through 36C-8A-811)

Section 3.5 is a technical amendment to G.S. 36C-7-707(b), to eliminate language obligating a former trustee to execute documents transferring title to trust property to the successor trustee. Because the successor trustee is immediately vested with title under G.S. 36C-7-704(f) (added by S.L. 2011-339, s.3), there is no need to execute documents to transfer title. This section also adds a requirement that a former trustee must comply with a reasonable request for execution of documents acknowledging the transfer of title, to facilitate estate administration.

Section 3.6 amends G.S. 108A-70.5(c) relating to the priority of the State's Medicaid reimbursement claim against a decedent's estate, to conform to the change in this priority made by Session Law 2009-288's amendment of G.S. 28A-19-6.

Section 3.7 makes technical corrections and clarifications to G.S. 28A-13-3 relating to the powers of a decedent's personal representative.

Section 3.8 makes a technical correction to G.S. 28A-21-6 on notice of final accounts to clarify that a copy of an accounting must be attached to a written notice given to devisees or heirs by a decedent's personal representative, in order to bar a person from objecting to the accounting more than 30 days after receipt of the notice.

Section 3.9 makes a technical correction to conform G.S. 28A-25-1.1, which governs the use of an affidavit of collection for testate estates, to the corresponding provisions of G.S. 28A-25-1 used for intestate estates.

Section 3.10 amends G.S. 30-31 to delete a reference to involvement of a magistrate in returning a report relating to a surviving spouse's year's allowance, to conform to Session Law 2011-344, which eliminate the magistrate's involvement in this procedure.

Section 3.11 modifies the effective date of Session Law 2011-344, to correct a problem resulting from application of the effective date applicable to decedents' estates to matters unrelated to decedents' estates.

Section 4 authorizes the Revisor of Statutes to publish explanatory comments of the drafters of the act as the Revisor deems appropriate.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The changes made in Parts I and II of the act become effective July 1, 2012. The remaining sections of the act are effective when it becomes law.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO CREATE THE CRIMINAL OFFENSE OF TERRORISM.

Whereas, closed community compounds are located across the United States and near the borders of this State; and

Whereas, these compounds have limited public access and are reputed to be bound together by a common purpose or ideology; and

Whereas, there have been reports of weapons fire and military-type training occurring at some of these compounds; and

Whereas, a defendant who was convicted of the attempted murder of nine students at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill as an act of revenge for enemy casualties of war was not charged under federal domestic terrorism laws; and

Whereas, the current State criminal statutes do not sufficiently recognize the increased danger to the public and do not sanction appropriately acts of terrorism; Now, therefore,

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Chapter 14 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new Article to read:

"Article 3A.
"Terrorism.

"§ 14-10.1. Terrorism.

(a) As used in this section, the term 'act of violence' means: a violation of G.S. 14-17; a felony punishable pursuant to G.S. 14-18; any felony offense in this Chapter that includes an assault, or use of violence or force against a person; any felony offense that includes either the threat or use of any explosive or incendiary device; or any offense that includes the threat or use of a nuclear, biological, or chemical weapon of mass destruction.

(b) A person is guilty of the separate offense of terrorism if the person commits an act of violence with the intent to do either of the following:

(1) Intimidate the civilian population at large, or an identifiable group of the civilian population.

(2) Influence, through intimidation, the conduct or activities of the government of the United States, a state, or any unit of local government.

(c) A violation of this section is a felony that is one class higher than the offense which is the underlying act of violence, except that a violation is a Class B1 felony if the underlying act of violence is a Class A or Class B1 felony offense. A violation of this section is a separate offense from the underlying offense and shall not merge with other offenses.

(d) All real and personal property of every kind used or intended for use in the course of, derived from, or realized through an offense punishable pursuant to this Article shall be subject to lawful seizure and forfeiture to the State as set forth in G.S. 14-2.3 and G.S. 14-7.20. However, the forfeiture of any real or personal property shall be subordinate to any security interest in the property taken by a lender in good faith as collateral for the extension of credit and recorded as provided by law, and no real or personal property shall be forfeited under this section against an owner who made a bona fide purchase of the property, or a person with rightful possession of the property, without knowledge of a violation of this Article."

SECTION 2. G.S. 14-7.20 reads as rewritten:

§ 14-7.20. Continuing criminal enterprise.

(a) ~~Any~~ Except as otherwise provided in subsection (a1) of this section, any person who engages in a continuing criminal enterprise shall be punished as a Class H felon and in addition shall be subject to the forfeiture prescribed in subsection (b) of this section.

(a1) Any person who engages in a continuing criminal enterprise where the felony violation required by subdivision (c)(1) of this section is a violation of G.S. 14-10.1, shall be punished as a Class D felon and in addition shall be subject to the forfeiture prescribed in subsection (b) of this section.

(b) Any person who is convicted under subsection (a) or (a1) of this section of engaging in a continuing criminal enterprise shall forfeit to the State of North Carolina:

(1) The profits obtained by the person in the enterprise, and

(2) Any of the person's interest in, claim against, or property or contractual rights of any kind affording a source of influence over, such enterprise.

(c) For purposes of this section, a person is engaged in a continuing criminal enterprise if:

(1) The person violates any provision of this Chapter, the punishment of which is a felony; and

(2) The violation is a part of a continuing series of violations of this Chapter:

a. Which are undertaken by the person in concert with five or more other persons with respect to whom the person occupies a position of organizer, a supervisory position, or any other position of management; and

b. From which the person obtains substantial income or resources."

SECTION 3. This act becomes effective December 1, 2012, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date.

"Article 2D.
"Terrorism.

"§ 14-50.2. Terrorism.

(a) The following definitions shall apply in this section:

(1) Act of violence. – A violation of G.S. 14-17 or G.S. 14-18; any felony offense in Chapter 14 of the General Statutes that includes an assault, or use of violence or force against a person; any felony offense that includes either the threat or use of any explosive or incendiary device; or any offense that includes the threat or use of a nuclear, biological, or chemical weapon of mass destruction.

(b) A person is guilty of the separate offense of terrorism if the person commits an act of violence or is engaged in a continuing criminal enterprise with the intent to do either of the following:

(1) Intimidate the civilian population at large, or an identifiable group of the civilian population.

(2) Influence, through intimidation, the conduct or activities of the government of the United States, a state, or any unit of local government.

(c) A violation of this section is a felony that is:

(1) One class higher than the offense which is the underlying act of violence, except that a violation is a Class B1 felony if the underlying act of violence is a Class B1 or Class A felony offense. A violation of this section is a separate offense from the underlying offense and shall not merge with other offenses.

(2) A Class D felony if the violation is based upon a violation of G.S. 14-7.20.

(d) Any person who solicits, invites, recruits, encourages, or otherwise causes or attempts to cause another to participate in an act, or acts, of terrorism is guilty of a Class D felony.

(e) All real and personal property of every kind used or intended for use in the course of, derived from, or realized through a violation of this Article shall be subject to lawful seizure and forfeiture to the State as set forth in G.S. 14-2.3 and G.S. 14-7.20. HOUSE BILL 149:
Terrorism/State Offense

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary I	Date:	June 5, 2012
Introduced by:	Reps. Killian, Torbett	Prepared by:	Susan Sitze
Analysis of:	PCS to Second Edition H149-CSSA-77		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: The Proposed Committee Substitute for H149 would create the State offense of terrorism and provide an increased penalty for continuing criminal enterprise in commission of the offense of terrorism.

CURRENT LAW: Under federal law, a person engages in domestic terrorism if they do an act within the territorial jurisdiction of the United States that is "dangerous to human life" that is a violation of the criminal laws of a state or the United States, if the act appears to be intended to:

- Intimidate or coerce a civilian population;
- Influence the policy of a government by intimidation or coercion; or
- Affect the conduct of a government by mass destruction, assassination or kidnapping.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 of the PCS would create a State offense of "terrorism" if the defendant commits one of the described "acts of violence" with the intent to do either of the following:

(1) Intimidate the civilian population at large.
(2) Influence, through intimidation, the conduct or activities of the government of the United States, a state, or any unit of local government.

A violation would be classified at one offense level higher than the underlying offense. If the underlying offense is a Class A or Class B1 felony, then the terrorism offense is a Class B1 felony.

Real or personal property used in connection with a violation of the act is subject to seizure and forfeiture. Forfeiture is subject to prior security interests taken by a lender in good faith, and bona fide purchasers are protected from forfeiture.

Section 2 of the PCS would amend G.S. 14-7.20 to provide that participation in a continuing criminal enterprise while in violation of the terrorism statute is punishable as a Class D felony, rather than the Class H punishment for all other continuing criminal enterprises.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act becomes effective December 1, 2011, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO PROVIDE THAT AN INDIVIDUAL WHO HAS BEEN AWARDED UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE BENEFITS BY THE EMPLOYMENT SECURITY COMMISSION, BUT DOES NOT RECEIVE THOSE BENEFITS AS THE RESULT OF AN ACT OR OMISSION OF THE COMMISSION, IS DEEMED AN AGGRIEVED PARTY FOR THE PURPOSES OF JUDICIAL REVIEW WITHOUT THE REQUIREMENT TO EXHAUST ADMINISTRATIVE REMEDIES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 96-12(b)(1) reads as rewritten:

"(b) (1) a. Repealed by Session Laws 1977, c. 727, s. 52.

b. An individual who is totally unemployed shall be paid the individual's weekly benefit amount. The weekly benefit amount for an individual is the amount of the high-quarter wages paid to the individual in the individual's base period, divided by 26 and, if the quotient is not a whole dollar, rounded to the next lower whole dollar. If this amount is less than fifteen dollars ($15.00), the individual is not eligible for benefits.

c. Repealed by Session Laws 1981, c. 160, s. 17.

d. In any case where an individual has applied for weekly benefits and has been awarded benefits but fails to receive those benefits as the result of an act or omission on the part of the Commission, the Commission shall rectify the error and shall pay the benefits immediately. Any failure of the Commission to rectify and pay as required by this subdivision renders the individual an aggrieved party for the purposes of G.S. 96-15(h) who is not required to exhaust administrative remedies and who may obtain injunctive and other relief, including an order to compel the Commission to pay the benefits."

SECTION 2. This act is effective when it becomes law.

HOUSE BILL 597:
UI/Fix Aggrieved Party Definition

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary I	Date:	May 24, 2012
Introduced by:	Rep. Murry	Prepared by:	Brad Krehely
Analysis of:	PCS to Second Edition H597-CSRN-42		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 597 provides that an individual who is awarded unemployment insurance benefits, but does not receive them as a result of an act or omission of the Division of Employment Security, is deemed an aggrieved party for judicial review and is not required to exhaust administrative remedies. The Proposed Committee Substitute makes technical changes only (removing references to the "Commission" and "the Employment Security Commission" and substituting "Division" and "Division of Employment Security").

CURRENT LAW: Article 2 of Chapter 96 of the General Statutes governs the administration of unemployment benefits by the Division of Employment Security.

G.S. 96-15(h) provides that judicial review of a Division decision is only after a party exhausts administrative remedies under Chapter 96.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 597 amends G.S. 96-12(b)(1) to provide both of the following:

- In any case where an individual has applied for and been awarded weekly unemployment benefits, but has failed to receive them as the result of an act or omission of the Division of Employment Security, the Division shall rectify the error and pay the benefits immediately.
- Any failure of the Division to rectify and pay as required renders the individual an aggrieved party who is not required to exhaust administrative remedies, and who may obtain injunctive and other relief including an order to compel the Division to pay the benefits.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act is effective when it becomes law.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO MODERNIZE THE NORTH CAROLINA EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT ACT AND RELATED STATUTES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

I. CHANGES TO CHAPTER 166A OF THE GENERAL STATUTES

SECTION 1.(a) G.S. 166A-6.1 is recodified as G.S. 166A-29 and the remainder of Article 1 of Chapter 166A is repealed.

SECTION 1.(b) Chapter 166A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new Article to read:

"Article 1A.

"North Carolina Emergency Management Act.

"Part 1. General Provisions.

"§ 166A-19. Short title.

This Article may be cited as 'North Carolina Emergency Management Act.'

"§ 166A-19.1. Purposes.

The purposes of this Article are to set forth the authority and responsibility of the Governor, State agencies, and local governments in prevention of, preparation for, response to, and recovery from natural or man-made emergencies or hostile military or paramilitary action and to do the following:

(1) Reduce vulnerability of people and property of this State to damage, injury, and loss of life and property;

(2) Prepare for prompt and efficient rescue, care, and treatment of threatened or affected persons;

(3) Provide for the rapid and orderly rehabilitation of persons and restoration of property; and

(4) Provide for cooperation and coordination of activities relating to emergency mitigation, preparedness, response, and recovery among agencies and officials of this State and with similar agencies and officials of other states, with local and federal governments, with interstate organizations, and with other private and quasi-official organizations.

"§ 166A-19.2. Limitations.

Nothing in this Article shall be construed to do any of the following:

(1) Interfere with dissemination of news or comment on public affairs; but any communications facility or organization, including, but not limited to, radio and television stations, wire services, and newspapers may be requested to transmit or print public service messages furnishing information or instructions in connection with an emergency, disaster, or war.

(2) Limit, modify, or abridge the authority of the Governor to declare martial law or exercise any other powers vested in the Governor under the North Carolina Constitution, statutes, or common law of this State independent of, or in conjunction with, any provisions of this Article.

"§ 166A-19.3. Definitions.

The following definitions apply in this Article:

(1) Account. – The State Emergency Response Account established in G.S. 166A-19.42.

(2) Chairman of the board of county commissioners. – The chairman of the board of county commissioners or, in case of the chairman's absence or disability, the person authorized to act in the chairman's stead. Unless the governing body of the county has specified who is to act in lieu of the chairman with respect to a particular power or duty set out in this Article, this term shall mean the person generally authorized to act in lieu of the chairman.

(3) Division. – The Division of Emergency Management established in Part 8 of Article 11 of Chapter 143B of the General Statutes.

(4) Eligible entity. – Any political subdivision. The term also includes an owner or operator of a private nonprofit utility that meets the eligibility criteria set out in this Article.

(5) Emergency. – An occurrence or imminent threat of widespread or severe damage, injury, or loss of life or property resulting from any natural or man-made accidental, military, paramilitary, weather-related, or riot-related cause. For purposes of this Article, the term 'disaster' is synonymous with this term.

(6) Emergency area. – The geographical area covered by a state of emergency.

(7) Emergency management. – Those measures taken by the populace and governments at federal, State, and local levels to minimize the adverse effect of any type emergency, which includes the never-ending preparedness cycle of planning, prevention, mitigation, warning, movement, shelter, emergency assistance, and recovery.

(8) Emergency management agency. – A State or local governmental agency charged with coordination of all emergency management activities for its jurisdiction.

(9) Hazard risk management. – The systematic application of policies, practices, and resources to the identification, assessment, and control of risk associated with hazards affecting human health and safety and property. Hazard, risk, and cost-benefit analysis are used to support development of risk reduction options, program objectives, and prioritization of issues and resources.

(10) Mayor. – The mayor or other chief executive official of a municipality or, in case of the mayor's absence or disability, the person authorized to act in the mayor's stead. Unless the governing body of the municipality has specified who is to act in lieu of the mayor with respect to a particular power or duty set out in this Article, the term shall mean the person generally authorized to act in lieu of the mayor.

(11) Political subdivision. – Counties and incorporated cities, towns, and villages.

(12) Preliminary damage assessment. – The (initial estimate prepared) process used by State, local, or federal emergency management workers to determine the severity and magnitude of damage caused by an emergency.

(13) Private nonprofit utility. – A utility that would be eligible for federal public assistance disaster funds pursuant to 44 C.F.R. Part 206.

(14) Secretary. – The Secretary of the Department of Crime Control and Public Safety.

(15) Stafford Act. – The Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act, Pub. L. No. 93-288, 88 Stat. 143, codified generally at 42 U.S.C. § 5121, et seq., as amended.

(16) State Acquisition and Relocation Fund. – State funding for supplemental grants to homeowners participating in a Hazard Mitigation Grant Program Acquisition and Relocation Program. These grants are used to acquire safe, decent, and sanitary housing by paying the difference between the cost of the home acquired under the Hazard Mitigation Grant Program Acquisition and Relocation Program and the cost of a comparable home located outside the 100-year floodplain.

(17) State of emergency. – A finding and declaration by any of the following authorities that an emergency exists:

a. The Governor, acting under the authority of G.S. 166A-19.20.

b. The General Assembly, acting under the authority of G.S. 166A-19.20.

c. The governing body of a municipality or the mayor of a municipality, acting under the authority of G.S. 166A-19.21.

d. The governing body of a county or the chairman of the board of commissioners of a county, acting under the authority of G.S. 166A-19.21.

"Part 2. State Emergency Management.

"§ 166A-19.10. Powers of the Governor.

(a) State Emergency Management Program. – The State Emergency Management Program includes all aspects of preparations for, response to, and recovery from war or peacetime emergencies.

(b) Powers of the Governor. – The Governor is authorized and empowered to do the following:

(1) To exercise general direction and control of the State Emergency Management Program and to be responsible for carrying out the provisions of this Article, other than those provisions that confer powers and duties exclusively on local governments.

(2) To make, amend, or rescind the necessary orders, rules, and regulations within the limits of the authority conferred upon the Governor herein, with due consideration of the policies of the federal government.

(3) To delegate any authority vested in the Governor under this Article and to provide for the subdelegation of any such authority.

(4) To cooperate and coordinate with the President and the heads of the departments and agencies of the federal government, and with other appropriate federal officers and agencies, and with the officers and agencies of other states and local units of government in matters pertaining to the emergency management of the State and nation.

(5) To enter into agreements with the American National Red Cross, Salvation Army, Mennonite Disaster Service, and other disaster relief organizations.

(6) To make, amend, or rescind mutual aid agreements in accordance with G.S. 166A-19.72.

(7) To utilize the services, equipment, supplies, and facilities of existing departments, offices, and agencies of the State and of the political subdivisions thereof. The officers and personnel of all such departments, offices, and agencies are required to cooperate with and extend such services and facilities to the Governor upon request. This authority shall extend to a state of emergency declared pursuant to G.S. 166A-19.20, to the imminent threat of an emergency that will likely require an emergency to be declared pursuant to G.S. 166A-19.20, or to emergency management planning and training purposes.

(8) To agree, when required to obtain federal assistance in debris removal, that the State will indemnify the federal government against any claim arising from the removal of the debris.

(9) To sell, lend, lease, give, transfer, or deliver materials or perform services for emergency purposes on such terms and conditions as may be prescribed by any existing law, and to account to the State Treasurer for any funds received for such property.

(10) In an emergency, or when requested by the governing body of a political subdivision in the State, to assume operational control over all or any part of the emergency management functions within this State.

"§ 166A-19.11. Powers of the Secretary of Crime Control and Public Safety.

The Secretary shall be responsible to the Governor for State emergency management activities. The Secretary shall have the following powers and duties as delegated by the Governor:

(1) To activate the State and local plans applicable to the areas in question and to authorize and direct the deployment and use of any personnel and forces to which the plan or plans apply, and the use or distribution of any supplies, equipment, materials, and facilities available pursuant to this Article or any other provision of law.

(2) To adopt the rules to implement those provisions of this Article that deal with matters other than those that are exclusively local.

(3) To develop a system of damage assessment through which the Secretary will recommend the appropriate level of emergency declaration to the Governor. The system shall, at a minimum, consider whether the damage involved and its effects are of such a severity and magnitude as to be beyond the response capabilities of the local government or political subdivision.

(4) Additional authority, duties, and responsibilities as may be prescribed by the Governor. The Secretary may subdelegate his authority to the appropriate member of the Secretary's department.

"§ 166A-19.12. Powers of the Division of Emergency Management.

The Division of Emergency Management shall have the following powers and duties as delegated by the Governor and Secretary of Crime Control and Public Safety:

(1) Coordination of the activities of all State agencies for emergency management within the State, including planning, organizing, staffing, equipping, training, testing, and the activation of emergency management programs.

(2) Preparation and maintenance of State plans for emergencies. The State plans or any parts thereof may be incorporated into department regulations and into executive orders of the Governor.

(3) Coordination with the State Health Director to amend or revise the North Carolina Emergency Operations Plan regarding public health matters. At a minimum, the revisions to the Plan shall provide for the following:
a. The epidemiologic investigation of a known or suspected threat caused by nuclear, biological, or chemical agents.
b. The examination and testing of persons and animals that may have been exposed to a nuclear, biological, or chemical agent.
c. The procurement and allocation of immunizing agents and prophylactic antibiotics.
d. The allocation of the National Pharmaceutical Stockpile.
e. The appropriate conditions for quarantine and isolation in order to prevent further transmission of disease.
f. Immunization procedures.
g. The issuance of guidelines for prophylaxis and treatment of exposed and affected persons.

(4) Establishment of a voluntary model registry for use by political subdivisions in identifying functionally and medically fragile persons in need of assistance during an emergency. All records, data, information, correspondence, and communications relating to the registration of persons with special needs or of functionally and medically fragile persons obtained pursuant to this subdivision are confidential and are not a public record pursuant to G.S. 132-1 or any other applicable statute, except that this information shall be available to emergency response agencies, as determined by the local emergency management director. This information shall be used only for the purposes set forth in this subdivision.

(5) Promulgation of standards and requirements for local plans and programs consistent with federal and State laws and regulations, determination of eligibility for State financial assistance provided for in G.S. 166A-19.15 and provision of technical assistance to local governments. Standards and requirements for local plans and programs promulgated under this subdivision shall be reviewed by the Division at least biennially and updated as necessary.

(6) Development and presentation of training programs, including the Emergency Management Certification Program established under Article 5 of this Chapter, and public information programs to insure the furnishing of adequately trained personnel and an informed public in time of need.

(7) Making of such studies and surveys of the resources in this State as may be necessary to ascertain the capabilities of the State for emergency management, maintaining data on these resources, and planning for the most efficient use thereof.

(8) Coordination of the use of any private facilities, services, and property.

(9) Preparation for issuance by the Governor of executive orders, declarations, and regulations as necessary or appropriate.

(10) Cooperation and maintenance of liaison with the other states, the federal government, and any public or private agency or entity in achieving any purpose of this Article and in implementing programs for emergency or war prevention, preparation, response, and recovery.

(11) Making recommendations, as appropriate, for zoning, building, and other land-use controls, and safety measures for securing mobile homes or other nonpermanent or semipermanent works designed to protect against or mitigate the effects of an emergency.

(12) Coordination of the use of existing means of communications and supplementing communications resources and integrating them into a comprehensive State or State-federal telecommunications or other communications system or network.

(13) Administration of federal and State grant funds provided for emergency management purposes, including those funds provided for planning and preparedness activities by emergency management agencies.

(14) Serving as the lead State agency for the coordination of information and resources for hazard risk management, which shall include the following responsibilities:

a. Coordinating with other State agencies and county governments in conducting hazard risk analysis. To the extent another State agency has primary responsibility for the adoption of hazard mitigation standards, those standards shall be applied in conducting a hazard risk analysis.

b. Establishing and maintaining a hazard risk management information system and tools to display natural hazards and vulnerabilities and conducting risk assessment.

c. Acquiring and leveraging all natural hazard data generated or maintained by State agencies and county governments.

d. Acquiring and leveraging all vulnerability data generated or maintained by State agencies and county governments.

e. Maintaining a clearinghouse for methodologies and metrics for calculating and communicating hazard probability and loss estimation.

(15) Utilizing and maintaining technology that enables efficient and effective communication and management of resources between political subdivisions, State agencies, and other governmental entities involved in emergency management activities.

"Part 3. Local Emergency Management.

"§ 166A-19.15. County and municipal emergency management.

(a) Governing Body of Counties Responsible for Emergency Management. – The governing body of each county is responsible for emergency management within the geographical limits of such county. All emergency management efforts within the county will be coordinated by the county, including activities of the municipalities within the county.

(b) Counties May Establish and Maintain Emergency Management Agencies. – The governing body of each county is hereby authorized to establish and maintain an emergency management agency for the purposes contained in G.S. 166A-19.1. The governing body of each county which establishes an emergency management agency pursuant to this authorization shall appoint a coordinator who will have a direct responsibility for the organization, administration, and operation of the county program and will be subject to the direction and guidance of such governing body. In the event that any county fails to establish an emergency management agency, and the Governor, in the Governor's discretion, determines that a need exists for such an emergency management agency, then the Governor is hereby empowered to establish an emergency management agency within that county.

(c) Municipalities May Establish and Maintain Emergency Management Agencies. – All incorporated municipalities are authorized to establish and maintain emergency management agencies subject to coordination by the county.

(d) Joint Agencies Authorized. – Counties and incorporated municipalities are authorized to form joint emergency management agencies composed of a county and one or more municipalities within the county's borders, between two or more counties, or between two or more counties and one or more municipalities within the borders of those counties.

(e) Local Appropriations Authorized. – Each county and incorporated municipality in this State is authorized to make appropriations for the purposes of this Article and to fund them by levy of property taxes pursuant to G.S. 153A-149 and G.S. 160A-209 and by the allocation of other revenues, whose use is not otherwise restricted by law.

(f) Additional Powers. – In carrying out the provisions of this Article each political subdivision is authorized to do the following:

(1) To appropriate and expend funds, make contracts, obtain and distribute equipment, materials, and supplies for emergency management purposes and to provide for the health and safety of persons and property, including emergency assistance, consistent with this Article.

(2) To direct and coordinate the development of emergency management plans and programs in accordance with the policies and standards set by the Division, consistent with federal and State laws and regulations.

(3) To assign and make available all available resources for emergency management purposes for service within or outside of the physical limits of the subdivision.

(4) To delegate powers in a local state of emergency declared pursuant to G.S. 166A-19.21.

(5) To coordinate the voluntary registration of functionally and medically fragile persons in need of assistance during an emergency either through a registry established by this subdivision or by the State. All records, data, information, correspondence, and communications relating to the registration of persons with special needs or of functionally and medically fragile persons obtained pursuant to this subdivision are confidential and are not a public record pursuant to G.S. 132-1 or any other applicable statute, except that this information shall be available to emergency response agencies, as determined by the local emergency management director. This information shall be used only for the purposes set forth in this subdivision.

(g) County Eligibility for State and Federal Financial Assistance. – Each county which establishes an emergency management agency pursuant to State standards and which meets requirements for local plans and programs may be eligible to receive State and federal financial assistance, including State and federal funding appropriated for emergency management planning and preparedness, and for the maintenance and operation of a county emergency management program. Such financial assistance is subject to an appropriation being made for this purpose. Where the appropriation does not allocate appropriated funds among counties, the amount allocated to each county shall be determined annually by the Division. The size of this allocation shall be based in part on the degree to which local plans and programs meet State standards and requirements promulgated by the Division, including those relating to professional competencies of local emergency management personnel. However, in making an allocation determination, the Division shall, where appropriate, take into account the fact that a particular county may lack sufficient resources to meet the standards and requirements promulgated by the Division.

"Part 4. Declarations of State of Emergency.

"§ 166A-19.20. Gubernatorial or legislative declaration of state of emergency.

(a) Declaration. – A state of emergency may be declared by the Governor, or by a resolution of the General Assembly, if either of these finds that an emergency exists. A Type L emergency may only be declared by the Governor.

(b) Preliminary Damage Assessment. – When a state of emergency other than a Type L emergency is declared pursuant to this section, the Secretary shall provide the Governor and the General Assembly with a preliminary damage assessment as soon as the assessment is available.

(c) Declaration of Emergency Area and Emergency Type. – Upon receipt of a preliminary damage assessment, the Governor shall issue a declaration defining the emergency area and declaring the state of emergency to be one of the types defined in subsection (d) of this section. If the Governor declares the state of emergency to be a Type L emergency, then no preliminary damage assessment is required for that declaration and the declaration of type shall be made at the same time as the emergency is declared.

(d) Types of Emergency. –

(1) Type I Disaster. – A Type I disaster may be declared by the Governor prior to, and independently of, any action taken by the Small Business Administration, the Federal Emergency Management Agency, or any other federal agency, if all of the following criteria are met:

a. A local state of emergency has been declared pursuant to G.S. 166A-19.21 and a written copy of the declaration has been forwarded to the Governor.

b. The preliminary damage assessment meets or exceeds the criteria established for the Small Business Administration Disaster Loan Program pursuant to 13 C.F.R. Part 123 or meets or exceeds the State infrastructure criteria set out in G.S. 166A-19.41(b)(2)a.

c. A major disaster declaration by the President of the United States pursuant to the Stafford Act has not been declared.

(2) Type II Disaster. – A Type II disaster may be declared if the President of the United States has issued a major disaster declaration pursuant to the Stafford Act. The Governor may request federal disaster assistance under the Stafford Act without making a Type II disaster declaration.

(3) Type III Disaster. – A Type III disaster may be declared if the President of the United States has issued a major disaster declaration under the Stafford Act and either of the following is true:

a. The preliminary damage assessment indicates that the extent of damage is reasonably expected to meet the threshold established for an increased federal share of disaster assistance under applicable federal law and regulations.

b. The preliminary damage assessment prompts the Governor to call a special session of the General Assembly to establish programs to meet the unmet needs of individuals or political subdivisions affected by the emergency.

(4) Type L Emergency. – A Type L emergency may be declared if the Governor determines that an emergency exists in any part of North Carolina and further finds that local control of the emergency is insufficient to assure adequate protection for lives and property. Local control shall be deemed insufficient only if the Governor finds that at least one of the following is true: (i) needed control cannot be imposed locally because local authorities responsible for preservation of the public peace have not enacted appropriate ordinances or issued appropriate declarations as authorized by G.S. 166A-19.31; (ii) local authorities have not taken implementing steps under such ordinances or declarations, if enacted or declared, for effectual control of the emergency that has arisen; (iii) the area in which the emergency exists has spread across local jurisdictional boundaries and the legal control measures of the jurisdictions are conflicting or uncoordinated to the extent that efforts to protect life and property are, or unquestionably will be, severely hampered; or (iv) the scale of the emergency is so great that it exceeds the capability of local authorities to cope with it.

(e) Expiration of States of Emergency. –

(1) Expiration of Type I disaster declarations. – A Type I disaster declaration shall expire 30 days after its issuance unless renewed by the Governor or the General Assembly. Such renewals may be made in increments of 30 days each, not to exceed a total of 120 days from the date of first issuance. The Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations shall be notified prior to the issuance of any renewal of a Type I disaster declaration.

(2) Expiration of Type II disaster declarations. – A Type II disaster declaration shall expire six months after its issuance unless renewed by the Governor or the General Assembly. Such renewals may be made in increments of three months each, not to exceed a total of 12 months from the date of first issuance. The Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations shall be notified prior to the issuance of any renewal of a Type II disaster declaration.

(3) Expiration of Type III disaster declarations. – A Type III disaster declaration shall expire 12 months after its issuance unless renewed by the General Assembly.

(4) Expiration of Type L emergency declarations. – A Type L emergency declaration shall expire 10 days after its issuance unless renewed by the Governor one or more times. Renewals expire 10 days after issuance.

(5) Expiration of disaster declarations declared prior to July 1, 2001. – Any state of disaster declared or proclaimed before July 1, 2001, irrespective of type, shall terminate by a declaration of the Governor or resolution of the General Assembly. A declaration or resolution declaring or terminating a state of disaster shall be disseminated promptly by means calculated to bring its contents to the attention of the general public and, unless the circumstances attendant upon the disaster prevent or impede, promptly filed with the Secretary, the Secretary of State, and the clerks of superior court in the area to which it applies.

(f) Relation of Type L Emergency to Other Types of Emergency. – The declaration of a Type L emergency shall not preclude a simultaneous or subsequent declaration of a Type I, II, or III disaster in the same emergency area.

(g) Exercise of Powers Not Contingent on Declaration of Disaster Type. – Once a state of emergency has been declared pursuant to subsection (a) of this section, the fact that a declaration of disaster type has not yet been issued shall not preclude the exercise of powers that are otherwise conferred during a state of emergency.

"§ 166A-19.21. Municipal or county declaration of state of emergency.

(a) Declaration. – A state of emergency may be declared by the governing body of a municipality or county if either of these finds that an emergency exists. Authority to declare a state of emergency under this section may also be delegated by ordinance to the mayor of a municipality or to the chairman of the board of county commissioners of a county.

(b) Emergency Area. – The emergency area of a state of emergency declared pursuant to this section, or pursuant to an ordinance authorized by this section, shall be determined in accordance with the following:

(1) Unless another subdivision of this subsection is applicable, the emergency area shall not exceed the area over which the municipality or county has jurisdiction to enact general police-power ordinances, and unless the governing body declaring the state of emergency provides otherwise, the emergency area includes this entire jurisdiction, subject to the limitations contained in the other subdivisions in this subsection.

(2) The emergency area of a state of emergency declared by a county shall not include any area within the corporate limits of any municipality, or within any area of the county over which a municipality has jurisdiction to enact general police-power ordinances, unless the municipality by resolution consents to the state of emergency's application. Such an extension may be with respect to one or more of the prohibitions and restrictions imposed in that county pursuant to the authority granted in G.S. 166A-19.31 and need not be with respect to all prohibitions and restrictions authorized by that section.

(3) The chairman of the board of commissioners of any county who has been requested to do so by a mayor may by declaration extend the emergency area of a state of emergency declared by a municipality to any area within the county in which the chairman determines it to be necessary to assist in the controlling of the emergency within the municipality. The extension may be with respect to one or more of the prohibitions and restrictions imposed in that mayor's municipality pursuant to the authority granted in G.S. 166A-19.31 and need not be with respect to all prohibitions and restrictions authorized by that section. Extension of the emergency area pursuant to this subdivision shall be subject to the following additional limitations:

a. The extension of the emergency area shall not include any area within the corporate limits of a municipality, or within any area of the county over which a municipality has jurisdiction to enact general police-power ordinances, unless that other municipality consents to its application.

b. A chairman of a board of county commissioners extending the emergency area under the authority of this subdivision shall take reasonable steps to give notice of its terms to those likely to be affected.

c. The chairman of the board of commissioners shall declare the termination of any prohibitions and restrictions extended pursuant to this subdivision upon the earlier of:

1. The chairman's determination that they are no longer necessary.

2. The determination of the board of county commissioners that they are no longer necessary.

3. The termination of the prohibitions and restrictions within the municipality.

d. The powers authorized under this subdivision may be exercised whether or not the county has enacted ordinances under the authority of G.S. 166A-19.31. Exercise of this authority shall not preclude the imposition of prohibitions and restrictions under any ordinances enacted by the county under the authority of G.S. 166A-19.31.

(c) Expiration of States of Emergency. – Unless an ordinance adopted pursuant to G.S. 166A-19.31 provides otherwise, a state of emergency declared pursuant to this section shall expire when it is terminated by the official or governing body that declared it.

(d) Effect of Declaration. – The declaration of a state of emergency pursuant to this section shall activate the local ordinances authorized in G.S. 166A-19.31 and any and all applicable local plans, mutual assistance compacts and agreements and shall also authorize the furnishing of assistance thereunder.

"Part 5. Additional Powers During States of Emergency.

"§ 166A-19.30. Additional powers of the Governor during state of emergency.

(a) In addition to any other powers conferred upon the Governor by law, during a gubernatorially or legislatively declared state of emergency, other than a Type L emergency, the Governor shall have the following powers:

(1) To utilize all available State resources as reasonably necessary to cope with an emergency, including the transfer and direction of personnel or functions of State agencies or units thereof for the purpose of performing or facilitating emergency services.

(2) To take such action and give such directions to State and local law enforcement officers and agencies as may be reasonable and necessary for the purpose of securing compliance with the provisions of this Article and with the orders, rules, and regulations made pursuant thereto.

(3) To take steps to assure that measures, including the installation of public utilities, are taken when necessary to qualify for temporary housing assistance from the federal government when that assistance is required to protect the public health, welfare, and safety.

(4) Subject to the provisions of the State Constitution to relieve any public official having administrative responsibilities under this Article of such responsibilities for willful failure to obey an order, rule, or regulation adopted pursuant to this Article.

(b) During a gubernatorially or legislatively declared state of emergency other than a Type L emergency, with the concurrence of the Council of State, the Governor has the following powers:

(1) To direct and compel the evacuation of all or part of the population from any stricken or threatened area within the State, to prescribe routes, modes of transportation, and destinations in connection with evacuation; and to control ingress and egress of an emergency area, the movement of persons within the area, and the occupancy of premises therein.

(2) To establish a system of economic controls over all resources, materials, and services to include food, clothing, shelter, fuel, rents, and wages, including the administration and enforcement of any rationing, price freezing, or similar federal order or regulation.

(3) To regulate and control the flow of vehicular and pedestrian traffic, the congregation of persons in public places or buildings, lights and noises of all kinds, and the maintenance, extension, and operation of public utility and transportation services and facilities.

(4) To waive a provision of any regulation or ordinance of a State agency or a political subdivision which restricts the immediate relief of human suffering.

(5) To perform and exercise such other functions, powers, and duties as are necessary to promote and secure the safety and protection of the civilian population.

(6) To appoint or remove an executive head of any State agency or institution the executive head of which is regularly selected by a State board or commission.

a. Such an acting executive head will serve during the following:

1. The physical or mental incapacity of the regular office holder, as determined by the Governor after such inquiry as the Governor deems appropriate.

2. The continued absence of the regular holder of the office.
3. A vacancy in the office pending selection of a new executive head.

b. An acting executive head of a State agency or institution appointed in accordance with this subdivision may perform any act and exercise any power which a regularly selected holder of such office could lawfully perform and exercise.

c. All powers granted to an acting executive head of a State agency or institution under this section shall expire immediately:

1. Upon the termination of the incapacity as determined by the Governor of the officer in whose stead he acts;
2. Upon the return of the officer in whose stead he acts; or
3. Upon the selection and qualification of a person to serve for the unexpired term, or the selection of an acting executive head of the agency or institution by the board or commission authorized to make such selection, and his qualification.

(7) To procure, by purchase, condemnation, seizure, or by other means to construct, lease, transport, store, maintain, renovate, or distribute materials and facilities for emergency management without regard to the limitation of any existing law.

(c) In addition to any other powers conferred upon the Governor by law, during a Type L emergency the Governor shall have the following powers:

(1) To impose by declaration prohibitions and restrictions in the emergency area. These prohibitions and restrictions may, in the Governor's discretion, as appropriate to deal with the emergency, impose any of the types of prohibitions and restrictions enumerated in G.S. 166A-19.31(b), and may amend or rescind any prohibitions and restrictions imposed by local authorities. Prohibitions and restrictions imposed pursuant to this subdivision shall take effect in accordance with the provisions of G.S. 166A-19.31(d) and shall expire upon the earliest occurrence of either of the following: (i) the prohibition or restriction is terminated by the Governor or (ii) the state of emergency is terminated.

(2) Give to all participating State and local agencies and officers such directions as may be necessary to assure coordination among them. These directions may include the designation of the officer or agency responsible for directing and controlling the participation of all public agencies and officers in the emergency. The Governor may make this designation in any manner which, in the Governor's discretion, seems most likely to be effective. Any law enforcement officer participating in the control of a state of emergency in which the Governor is exercising control under this section shall have the same power and authority as a sheriff throughout the territory to which the law enforcement officer is assigned.

(d) Violation. – Any person who violates any provision of a declaration or executive order issued pursuant to this section shall be guilty of a Class 2 misdemeanor in accordance with G.S. 14-288.20A.

"§ 166A-19.31. Power of municipalities and counties to enact ordinances to deal with states of emergency.

(a) Authority to Enact Prohibitions and Restrictions. – The governing body of any municipality or county may enact ordinances designed to permit the imposition of prohibitions and restrictions within the emergency area during a state of emergency declared pursuant to G.S. 166A-19.21. Authority to impose by declaration prohibitions and restrictions under this section, and to impose those prohibitions and restrictions at a particular time as appropriate, may be delegated by ordinance to the mayor of a municipality or to the chairman of the board of county commissioners of a county.

(b) Type of Prohibitions and Restrictions Authorized. – The ordinances authorized by this section may permit prohibitions and restrictions:

(1) Of movements of people in public places, including directing and compelling the evacuation of all or part of the population from any stricken or threatened area within the governing body's jurisdiction, to prescribe routes, modes of transportation, and destinations in connection with evacuation; and to control ingress and egress of an emergency area, and the movement of persons within the area.

(2) Of the operation of offices, business establishments, and other places to or from which people may travel or at which they may congregate.

(3) Upon the possession, transportation, sale, purchase, and consumption of alcoholic beverages.

(4) Upon the possession, transportation, sale, purchase, storage, and use of dangerous weapons and substances, and gasoline. As used in this subdivision, the term 'dangerous weapon and substance' has the same meaning as it does under G.S. 14-288.1.

(5) Upon other activities or conditions the control of which may be reasonably necessary to maintain order and protect lives or property during the state of emergency.

The ordinances authorized by this section need not require or provide for the imposition of all of the types of prohibitions or restrictions, or any particular prohibition or restriction, authorized by this section during an emergency but may instead authorize the official or officials who impose those prohibitions or restrictions to determine and impose the prohibitions or restrictions deemed necessary or suitable to a particular state of emergency.

(c) When Ordinances Take Effect. – Notwithstanding any other provision of law, whether general or special, relating to the promulgation or publication of ordinances by any municipality or county, upon the declaration of a state of emergency by the mayor or chairman of the board of county commissioners within the municipality or the county, any ordinance enacted under the authority of this section shall take effect immediately unless the ordinance sets a later time. If the effect of this section is to cause an ordinance to go into effect sooner than it otherwise could under the law applicable to the municipality or county, the mayor or chairman of the board of county commissioners, as the case may be, shall take steps to cause reports of the substance of the ordinance to be disseminated in a fashion that its substance will likely be communicated to the public in general, or to those who may be particularly affected by the ordinance if it does not affect the public generally. As soon as practicable thereafter, appropriate distribution or publication of the full text of any such ordinance shall be made.

(d) When Prohibitions and Restrictions Take Effect. – All prohibitions and restrictions imposed by declaration pursuant to ordinances adopted under this section shall take effect in the emergency area immediately upon publication of the declaration unless the declaration sets a later time. For the purpose of requiring compliance, publication may consist of reports of the substance of the prohibitions and restrictions in the mass communications media serving the emergency area or other effective methods of disseminating the necessary information quickly. As soon as practicable, however, appropriate distribution of the full text of any declaration shall be made. This subsection shall not be governed by the provisions of G.S. 1-597.

(e) Expiration of Prohibitions and Restrictions. – Prohibitions and restrictions imposed pursuant to this section shall expire upon the earliest occurrence of any of the following:

(1) The prohibition or restriction is terminated by the governing body of the county or municipality.

(2) The state of emergency terminates.

(f) Intent to Supplement Other Authority. – This section is intended to supplement and confirm the powers conferred by G.S. 153A-121(a), G.S. 160A-174(a), and all other general and local laws authorizing municipalities and counties to enact ordinances for the protection of the public health and safety in times of riot or other grave civil disturbance or emergency.

(g) Previously Enacted Ordinances Remain in Effect. – Any ordinance of a type authorized by this section promulgated prior to [Date Bill Becomes Law], 2011, shall, if otherwise valid, continue in full force and effect without reenactment.

(h) Violation. – Any person who violates any provision of an ordinance or a declaration enacted or declared pursuant to this section shall be guilty of a Class 2 misdemeanor in accordance with G.S. 14-288.20A.

"Part 6. Funding of Emergency Preparedness and Response.

"§ 166A-19.40. Use of contingency and emergency funds.

(a) Use of Funds for Relief and Assistance. –The Governor may use contingency and emergency funds as necessary and appropriate to provide relief and assistance from the effects of an emergency and may reallocate such other funds as may reasonably be available within the appropriations of the various departments when the severity and magnitude of the emergency so requires and the contingency and emergency funds are insufficient or inappropriate.

(b) Use of Funds for National Guard Training. – In preparation for a state of emergency, with the concurrence of the Council of State, the Governor may use contingency and emergency funds as necessary and appropriate for National Guard training in preparation for emergencies.

"§ 166A-19.41. State emergency assistance funds.

(a) Governor May Make Funds Available for Emergency Assistance. – In the event of a gubernatorially or legislatively declared state of emergency, the Governor may make State funds available for emergency assistance as authorized by this section. Any State funds made available by the Governor for emergency assistance may be administered through State emergency assistance programs which may be established by the Governor upon the declaration of a state of emergency. It is the intent of the General Assembly in authorizing the Governor to make State funds available for emergency assistance and in authorizing the Governor to establish State emergency assistance programs to provide State assistance for recovery from those emergencies for which federal assistance under the Stafford Act is either not available or does not adequately meet the needs of the citizens of the State in the emergency area.

(b) Emergency Assistance in a Type I Disaster. – In the event that a Type I disaster is declared, the Governor may make State funds available for emergency assistance in the emergency area in the form of individual assistance and public assistance as provided in this subsection.

(1) Individual assistance. – State emergency assistance in the form of grants to individuals and families may be made available when damage meets or exceeds the criteria set out in 13 C.F.R. Part 123 for the Small Business Administration Disaster Loan Program. Individual assistance grants shall include benefits comparable to those provided by the Stafford Act and may be provided for the following:

a. Provision of temporary housing and rental assistance.

b. Repair or replacement of dwellings. Grants for repair or replacement of housing may include amounts necessary to locate the individual or family in safe, decent, and sanitary housing.

c. Replacement of personal property (including clothing, tools, and equipment).

d. Repair or replacement of privately owned vehicles.

e. Medical or dental expenses.
f. Funeral or burial expenses resulting from the emergency.
g. Funding for the cost of the first year's flood insurance premium to meet the requirements of the National Flood Insurance Act of 1968, as amended, 42 U.S.C. § 4001, et seq.

(2) Public assistance. – State emergency assistance in the form of public assistance grants may be made available to eligible entities located within the emergency area on the following terms and conditions:
a. Eligible entities shall meet the following qualifications:
1. The eligible entity suffers a minimum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) in uninsurable losses;
2. The eligible entity suffers uninsurable losses in an amount equal to or exceeding one percent (1%) of the annual operating budget;
3. For a state of emergency declared pursuant to G.S. 166A-19.20(a) after the deadline established by the Federal Emergency Management Agency pursuant to the Disaster Mitigation Act of 2002, P.L. 106-390, the eligible entity shall have a hazard mitigation plan approved pursuant to the Stafford Act; and
4. For a state of emergency declared pursuant to G.S. 166A-19.20(a), other than a Type L emergency, after August 1, 2002, the eligible entity shall be participating in the National Flood Insurance Program in order to receive public assistance for flooding damage.
b. Eligible entities shall be required to provide non-State matching funds equal to twenty-five percent (25%) of the eligible costs of the public assistance grant.
c. An eligible entity that receives a public assistance grant pursuant to this subsection may use the grant for the following purposes only:
1. Debris clearance.
2. Emergency protective measures.
3. Roads and bridges.
4. Crisis counseling.
5. Assistance with public transportation needs.

(c) Emergency Assistance in a Type II Disaster. – If a Type II disaster is declared, the Governor may make State funds available for emergency assistance in the emergency area in the form of the following types of grants:
(1) State Acquisition and Relocation Funds.
(2) Supplemental repair and replacement housing grants available to individuals or families in an amount necessary to locate the individual or family in safe, decent, and sanitary housing not to exceed twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) per family.

(d) Emergency Assistance in a Type III Disaster. – If a Type III disaster is declared, the Governor may make State funds available for emergency assistance in the emergency area in the form of the following types of grants:
(1) State Acquisition and Relocation Funds.
(2) Supplemental repair and replacement housing grants available to individuals or families in an amount necessary to locate the individual or family in safe, decent, and sanitary housing not to exceed twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) per family.

(3) Any programs authorized by the General Assembly.

"§ 166A-19.42. State Emergency Response Account.

(a) Account Established. – There is established a State Emergency Response Account as a reserve in the General Fund. Any funds appropriated to the Account shall remain available for expenditure as provided by this section, unless directed otherwise by the General Assembly.

(b) Use of Funds. – The Governor may spend funds from the Account for the following purposes:

(1) To cover the start-up costs of State Emergency Response Team operations for an emergency that poses an imminent threat of a Type I, Type II, or Type III disaster.

(2) To cover the cost of first responders to a Type I, Type II, or Type III disaster and any related supplies and equipment needed by first responders that are not provided for under subdivision (1) of this subsection.

All other types of emergency assistance authorized by this Part shall continue to be financed by the funds made available under G.S. 166A-19.41.

(c) Reporting Requirement. – The Governor shall report to the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations and to the Chairs of the Appropriations Committees of the Senate and House of Representatives on any expenditures from the State Emergency Response Account no later than 30 days after making the expenditure. The report shall include a description of the emergency and type of action taken.

"Part 7. Immunity and Liability.

"§ 166A-19.60. Immunity and exemption.

(a) Generally. – All functions hereunder and all other activities relating to emergency management as provided for in this Chapter or elsewhere in the General Statutes are hereby declared to be governmental functions. Neither the State nor any political subdivision thereof, nor, except in cases of willful misconduct, gross negligence, or bad faith, any emergency management worker, firm, partnership, association, or corporation complying with or reasonably attempting to comply with this Article or any order, rule, or regulation promulgated pursuant to the provisions of this Article or pursuant to any ordinance relating to any emergency management measures enacted by any political subdivision of the State, shall be liable for the death of or injury to persons, or for damage to property as a result of any such activity.

(b) Immunity. – The immunity provided to firms, partnerships, associations, or corporations, under subsection (a) of this section, is subject to all of the following conditions:

(1) The immunity applies only when the firm, partnership, association, or corporation is acting without compensation or with compensation limited to no more than actual expenses and one of the following applies:

a. Emergency management services are provided at any place in this State during a state of emergency declared by the Governor or General Assembly pursuant to this Article, and the services are provided under the direction and control of the Secretary pursuant to G.S. 166A-19.10, 166A-19.11, 166A-19.12, 166A-19.20, 166A-19.30, and 143B-476, or the Governor.

b. Emergency management services are provided during a state of emergency declared pursuant to G.S. 166A-19.21, and the services are provided under the direction and control of the governing body of a municipality or county under G.S. 166A-19.31, or the chair of a board of county commissioners under G.S. 166A-19.21(b)(3).

c. The firm, partnership, association, or corporation is engaged in planning, preparation, training, or exercises with the Division, the Division of Public Health, or the governing body of each county or municipality under G.S. 166A-19.15 related to the performance of emergency management services or measures.

(2) The immunity shall not apply to any firm, partnership, association, or corporation, or to any employee or agent thereof, whose act or omission caused in whole or in part the actual or imminent emergency or whose act or omission necessitated emergency management measures.

(3) To the extent that any firm, partnership, association, or corporation has liability insurance, that firm, partnership, association, or corporation shall be deemed to have waived the immunity to the extent of the indemnification by insurance for its negligence. An insurer shall not under a contract of insurance exclude from liability coverage the acts or omissions of a firm, partnership, association, or corporation for which the firm, partnership, association, or corporation would only be liable to the extent indemnified by insurance as provided by this subdivision.

(c) No Effect on Benefits. – The rights of any person to receive benefits to which the person would otherwise be entitled under this Article or under the Workers' Compensation Law or under any pension law and the right of any such person to receive any benefits or compensation under any act of Congress shall not be affected by performance of emergency management functions.

(d) License Requirements Suspended. – Any requirement for a license to practice any professional, mechanical, or other skill shall not apply to any authorized emergency management worker who shall, in the course of performing the worker's duties as such, practice such professional, mechanical, or other skill during a state of emergency.

(e) Definition of Emergency Management Worker. – As used in this section, the term 'emergency management worker' shall include any full- or part-time paid, volunteer, or auxiliary employee of this State or other states, territories, possessions, or the District of Columbia, of the federal government or any neighboring country or of any political subdivision thereof, or of any agency or organization performing emergency management services at any place in this State, subject to the order or control of or pursuant to a request of the State government or any political subdivision thereof. The term 'emergency management worker' under this section shall also include any health care worker performing health care services as a member of a hospital-based or county-based State Medical Assistance Team designated by the North Carolina Office of Emergency Medical Services and any person performing emergency health care services under G.S. 90-12.2.

(f) Powers of Individuals Operating Pursuant to Mutual Aid Agreements. – Any emergency management worker, as defined in this section, performing emergency management services at any place in this State pursuant to agreements, compacts, or arrangements for mutual aid and assistance to which the State or a political subdivision thereof is a party, shall possess the same powers, duties, immunities, and privileges the person would ordinarily possess if performing duties in the State, or political subdivision thereof, in which normally employed or rendering services.

"§ 166A-19.61. No private liability.

Any person, firm, or corporation owning or controlling real or personal property who, voluntarily or involuntarily, knowingly or unknowingly, with or without compensation, grants a license or privilege or otherwise permits or allows the designation or use of the whole or any part or parts of such real or personal property for the purpose of sheltering, protecting, safeguarding, or aiding in any way persons shall, together with his successors in interest, if any, not be civilly liable for the death of or injury to any person or the loss of or damage to the property of any persons where such death, injury, loss, or damage resulted from, through, or because of the use of the said real or personal property for any of the above purposes.

"§ 166A-19.62. Civil liability of persons who willfully ignore a warning in a disaster.

In an emergency, a person who willfully ignores a warning regarding personal safety issued by a federal, State, or local law enforcement agency, emergency management agency, or other governmental agency responsible for emergency management under this Article is civilly liable for the cost of a rescue effort to any governmental agency or nonprofit agency cooperating with a governmental agency conducting a rescue on the endangered person's behalf if all of the following are true:

(1) The person ignores the warning and (i) engages in an activity or course of action that a reasonable person would not pursue or (ii) fails to take a course of action that a reasonable person would pursue.

(2) As a result of ignoring the warning the person places himself or herself or another in danger.

(3) A governmental rescue effort is undertaken on the endangered person's behalf.

"Part 8. Miscellaneous Provisions.

"§ 166A-19.70. Ensuring availability of emergency supplies and utility services.

(a) Executive Order. – In addition to any other powers conferred on the Governor by law, whenever a curfew has been imposed, the Governor may declare by executive order that the health, safety, or economic well-being of persons or property in this State require that persons transporting essentials in commerce to the curfew area, or assisting in ensuring their availability, and persons assisting in restoring utility services, be allowed to enter or remain in areas from which they would otherwise be excluded for the limited purpose of delivering the essentials, assisting in ensuring their availability, or assisting in restoring utility services.

(b) Maximum Hours of Service Waiver. – As part of an executive order issued pursuant to subsection (a) of this section, or independently of such an order, the Governor may declare by executive order that the health, safety, or economic well-being of persons or property in this State require that the maximum hours of service prescribed by the Department of Crime Control and Public Safety pursuant to G.S. 20-381 and similar rules be waived for persons transporting essentials or assisting in the restoration of utility services.

(c) Certification System. – The Secretary of Crime Control and Public Safety shall develop a system pursuant to which a person who transports essentials in commerce, or assists in ensuring their availability, and persons who assist in the restoring of utility services can be certified as such. The certification system shall allow for both preemergency declaration and postemergency declaration certification and may include an annually renewable precertification. The Secretary shall only allow those who routinely transport or distribute essentials or assist in the restoring of utility services to be certified. A certification of the employer shall constitute a certification of the employer's employees. The Secretary shall create an easily recognizable indicium of certification in order to assist local officials' efforts to determine which persons have received certification by the system established under this subsection.

(d) Presence in Curfew Area Permitted. – Notwithstanding the existence of any curfew, a person who is certified pursuant to the system established under subsection (c) of this section shall be allowed to enter or remain in the curfew area for the limited purpose of delivering or assisting in the distribution of essentials or assisting in the restoration of utility services and shall be allowed to provide service that exceeds otherwise applicable hours of service maximums, to the extent authorized by an executive order executed pursuant to subsection (a) of this section. Nothing in this section prohibits law enforcement or other local officials from specifying the permissible route of ingress or egress for persons with certifications.

(e) Abnormal Market Disruptions with Respect to Petroleum. – If the Governor declares the existence of an abnormal market disruption with respect to petroleum pursuant to, G.S. 75-38(f), the Governor shall contemporaneously seek all applicable waivers under the federal Clean Air Act, 42 U.S.C. § 7401, et seq., and any other applicable federal law to facilitate the transportation of fuel within this State in order to address or prevent a fuel supply emergency in this State. Waiver requests shall be directed to the appropriate federal agencies and shall seek waivers of the following:

(1) The Reformulated Gasoline requirements throughout the State.

(2) The Federal and State Implementation Plan summertime gasoline requirements (low RVP) throughout the State.

(3) Any other waiver that will, if obtained, facilitate the transportation of fuel within this State.

(f) Definitions. – The following definitions apply in this section:

(1) Curfew. – Any restriction on ingress and egress to the emergency area of a state of emergency or any restriction on the movement of persons within such an area.

(2) Curfew area. – The area that is subject to a curfew.

(3) Essentials. – Any goods that are consumed or used as a direct result of an emergency or which are consumed or used to preserve, protect, or sustain life, health, safety, or economic well-being of persons or their property. The Secretary shall determine what goods constitute essentials for purposes of this section.

"§ 166A-19.71. Accept services, gifts, grants, and loans.

Whenever the federal government or any agency or officer thereof or of any person, firm, or corporation shall offer to the State, or through the State to any political subdivision thereof, services, equipment, supplies, materials, or funds by way of gift, grant, or loan, for emergency management purposes, the State acting through the Governor, or such political subdivision, acting with the consent of the Governor and through its governing body, may accept such offer. Upon such acceptance the Governor of the State or governing body of such political subdivision may authorize any officer of the State or of the political subdivision, as the case may be, to receive such services, equipment, supplies, materials, or funds on behalf of the State or of such political subdivision, and subject to the terms of the offer and the rules and regulations, if any, of the agency making the offer.

"§ 166A-19.72. Establishment of mutual aid agreements.

(a) Governor Authorized to Enter Agreements with Other States and Federal Government. – The Governor may establish mutual aid agreements with other states and with the federal government provided that any special agreements so negotiated are within the Governor's authority.

(b) Governor Authorized to Enter Agreements with Political Subdivisions. – The Governor may establish mutual aid agreements with political subdivisions in the State with the concurrence of the subdivision's governing body.

(c) Political Subdivisions Authorized to Enter Agreements with Other Political Subdivisions. – The chief executive of each political subdivision, with the concurrence of the subdivision's governing body, may develop mutual aid agreements for reciprocal emergency management aid and assistance. Such agreements shall be consistent with the State emergency management program and plans.

(d) Political Subdivisions Authorized to Enter Agreements with Political Subdivisions in Other States. – The chief executive officer of each political subdivision, with the concurrence of the governing body and subject to the approval of the Governor, may enter into mutual aid agreements with local chief executive officers in other states for reciprocal emergency management aid and assistance. These agreements shall be consistent with the State emergency management program and plans.

(e) Terms of Agreements. – Mutual aid agreements may include, but are not limited to, the furnishing or exchange of such supplies, equipment, facilities, personnel, and services as may be needed; the reimbursement of costs and expenses for equipment, supplies, personnel, and similar items; and on such terms and conditions as deemed necessary.

"§ 166A-19.73. Compensation.

(a) Extent of Compensation. – Compensation for services or for the taking or use of property shall be only to the extent that legal obligations of individual citizens are exceeded in a particular case and then only to the extent that the claimant has not been deemed to have volunteered his services or property without compensation.

(b) Limitation; Basis of Compensation. – Compensation for property shall be only if the property was commandeered, seized, taken, condemned, or otherwise used in coping with an emergency and this action was ordered by the Governor. The State shall make compensation for the property so seized, taken, or condemned on the following basis:

(1) In case property is taken for temporary use, the Governor, within 30 days of the taking, shall fix the amount of compensation to be paid for such damage or failure to return. Whenever the Governor shall deem it advisable for the State to take title to property taken under this section, the Governor shall forthwith cause the owner of such property to be notified thereof in writing by registered mail, postage prepaid, or by the best means available, and forthwith cause to be filed a copy of said notice with the Secretary of State.

(2) If the person entitled to receive the amounts so determined by the Governor as just compensation is unwilling to accept the same as full and complete compensation for such property or the use thereof, the person shall be paid seventy-five percent (75%) of such amount and shall be entitled to recover from the State of North Carolina in an action brought in the superior court in the county of residence of claimant, or in Wake County, in the same manner as other condemnation claims are brought, within three years after the date of the Governor's award.

"§ 166A-19.74. Nondiscrimination in emergency management.

State and local governmental bodies and other organizations and personnel who carry out emergency management functions under the provisions of this Article are required to do so in an equitable and impartial manner. Such State and local governmental bodies, organizations, and personnel shall not discriminate on the grounds of race, color, religion, nationality, sex, age, or economic status in the distribution of supplies, the processing of applications, and other relief and assistance activities.

"§ 166A-19.75. Emergency management personnel.

(a) Limitation. – No person shall be employed or associated in any capacity in any emergency management agency established under this Article if that person does or has done any of the following:

(1) Advocates or has advocated a change by force or violence in the constitutional form of the Government of the United States or in this State.

(2) Advocates or has advocated the overthrow of any government in the United States by force or violence.

(3) Has been convicted of any subversive act against the United States.

(4) Is under indictment or information charging any subversive act against the United States.

(5) Has ever been a member of the Communist Party.

(b) Oath. – Each person who is appointed to serve in any emergency management agency shall, before entering upon the person's duties, take a written oath before a person authorized to administer oaths in this State, which oath shall be substantially as follows:

'I, _____, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of North Carolina, against all enemies, foreign and domestic; and that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion; and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties upon which I am about to enter. And I do further swear (or affirm) that I do not advocate, nor am I, nor have I ever knowingly been, a member of any political party or organization that advocates the overthrow of the Government of the United States or of this State by force or violence; and that during such time as I am a member of the State Emergency Management Agency I will not advocate nor become a member of any political party or organization that advocates the overthrow of the Government of the United States or of this State by force or violence, so help me God.'

(c) No Violation of Dual Office Holding Prohibition. – No position created by or pursuant to this Article shall be deemed an office within the meaning of Section 9 of Article 6 of the North Carolina Constitution.

"§ 166A-19.76. Leave options for voluntary firefighters, rescue squad workers, and emergency medical service personnel called into service.

(a) Leave Without Pay. – A member of a volunteer fire department, rescue squad, or emergency medical services agency called into service of the State after a declaration of a state of emergency by the Governor or by the General Assembly, or upon the activation of the State Emergency Response Team in response to an emergency, shall have the right to take leave without pay from his or her civilian employment. No member of a volunteer fire department, rescue squad, or emergency medical services agency shall be forced to use or exhaust his or her vacation or other accrued leave from his or her civilian employment for a period of active service. The choice of leave shall be solely within the discretion of the member.

(b) Request in Writing Required. – For the volunteer member to be entitled to take leave without pay pursuant to this section, his or her services shall be requested in writing by the Director of the Division or by the head of a local emergency management agency. The request shall be directed to the Chief of the member's volunteer fire department, rescue squad, or emergency medical services agency and a copy shall be provided to the member's employer. This section shall not apply to those members whose services have been certified by their employer to the Director of the Division, or to the head of a local emergency management agency, as essential to the employer's own ongoing emergency relief activities.

(c) Definition of an Emergency Requiring Activation of the State Emergency Response Team. – For purposes of this section, an emergency requiring the activation of the State Emergency Response Team means an emergency at Activation Level 2 or greater according to the North Carolina State Emergency Operations Plan of November 2002. Activation Level 2 requires the State Emergency Operations Center to be fully activated with 24-hour staffing from all State Emergency Response Team members.

(d) Enforcement. – The Commissioner of Labor shall enforce the provisions of this section pursuant to Chapter 95 of the General Statutes.

"§ 166A-19.77. Division of Forest Resources designated as emergency response agency.

The Division of Forest Resources of the Department of Environment and Natural Resources is designated an emergency response agency of the State of North Carolina for purposes of the following:

(1) Supporting the Division of Emergency Management of the Department of Crime Control and Public Safety in responding to all-risk incidents.
(2) Receipt of any applicable State or federal funding.
(3) Training of other State and local agencies in emergency management.
(4) Any other emergency response roles for which the Division has special training or qualifications.

"§ 166A-19.78. Governor's power to order evacuation of public building.

When it is determined by the Governor that a great public crisis, disaster, riot, catastrophe, or any other similar public emergency exists, or the occurrence of any such condition is imminent, and, in the Governor's opinion it is necessary to evacuate any building owned or controlled by any department, agency, institution, school, college, board, division, commission, or subdivision of the State in order to maintain public order and safety or to afford adequate protection for lives or property, the Governor is hereby authorized to issue an order of evacuation directing all persons within the building to leave the building and its premises forthwith. The order shall be delivered to any law enforcement officer or officer of the National Guard, and such officer shall, by a suitable public address system, read the order to the occupants of the building and demand that the occupants forthwith evacuate said building within the time specified in the Governor's order.

"§ 166A-19.79. Severability.

If any provision of this Article or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the invalidity does not affect other provisions or applications of the Article which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Article are severable."

SECTION 1.(c) The title of Article 36A of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes reads as rewritten:

"Article 36A.

~~Riots and Civil Disorders.~~Riots, Civil Disorders, and Emergencies."

SECTION 1.(d) Article 36A of Chapter 14 is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 14-288.20A. Violation of emergency prohibitions and restrictions.

Any person who does any of the following is guilty of a Class 2 misdemeanor:

(1) Violates any provision of an ordinance or a declaration enacted or declared pursuant to G.S. 166A-19.31.

(2) Violates any provision of a declaration or executive order issued pursuant to G.S. 166A-19.30

(3) Willfully refuses to leave the building as directed in a Governor's order issued pursuant to G.S. 166A-19.78."

II. CONFORMING CHANGES

SECTION 2.(a) G.S. 14-288.1 reads as rewritten:

"§ 14-288.1. Definitions.

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the ~~definitions in this section apply throughout this Article:~~ following definitions apply in this Article:

(1) ~~"Chairman of the board of county commissioners":~~Chairman of the board of county commissioners. – The chairman of the board of county commissioners or, in case of his absence or disability, the person authorized to act in his stead. Unless the governing body of the county has specified who is to act in lieu of the chairman with respect to a particular power or duty set out in this Article, the term "chairman of the board of county commissioners" shall apply to the person generally authorized to act in lieu of the chairman.

(2) ~~"Dangerous weapon or substance":~~Dangerous weapon or substance. – Any deadly weapon, ammunition, explosive, incendiary device, radioactive material or device, as defined in G.S. 14-288.8(c)(5), or any instrument or substance designed for a use that carries a threat of serious bodily injury or destruction of property; or any instrument or substance that is capable of being used to inflict serious bodily injury, when the circumstances indicate a probability that such instrument or substance will be so used; or any part or ingredient in any instrument or substance included above, when the circumstances indicate a probability that such part or ingredient will be so used.

(3) ~~"Declared state of emergency":~~Declared state of emergency. – A state of emergency as that term is defined in G.S. 166A-19.3 or a state of emergency found and ~~proclaimed by the Governor under the authority of G.S. 14-288.15, by any mayor or other municipal official or officials under the authority of G.S. 14-288.12, by any chairman of the board of commissioners of any county or other county official or officials under the authority of G.S. 14-288.13, by any chairman of the board of county commissioners acting under the authority of G.S. 14-288.14, by~~ declared by any chief executive official or acting chief executive official of any county or municipality acting under the authority of any other applicable statute or provision of the common law to preserve the public peace in a state of emergency, or by any executive official or military commanding officer of the United States or the State of North Carolina who becomes primarily responsible under applicable law for the preservation of the public peace within any part of North Carolina.

(4) ~~"Disorderly conduct":~~Disorderly conduct. – As defined in G.S. 14-288.4(a).

(4a) Emergency. – As defined in G.S. 166A-19.3.

(5) ~~"Law enforcement officer":~~Law enforcement officer. – Any officer of the State of North Carolina or any of its political subdivisions authorized to make arrests; any other person authorized under the laws of North Carolina to make arrests and either acting within his territorial jurisdiction or in an area in which he has been lawfully called to duty by the Governor or any mayor or chairman of the board of county commissioners; any member of the armed forces of the United States, the North Carolina National Guard, or the State defense militia called to duty in a state of emergency in North Carolina and made responsible for enforcing the laws of North Carolina or preserving the public peace; or any officer of the United States authorized to make arrests without warrant and assigned to duties that include preserving the public peace in North Carolina.

(6) ~~"Mayor":~~Mayor. – The mayor or other chief executive official of a municipality or, in case of his absence or disability, the person authorized to act in his stead. Unless the governing body of the municipality has specified who is to act in lieu of the mayor with respect to a particular power or duty set out in this Article, the word "mayor" shall apply to the person generally authorized to act in lieu of the mayor.

(7) ~~"Municipality":~~Municipality. – Any active incorporated city or town, but not including any sanitary district or other municipal corporation that is not a city or town. An "active" municipality is one which has conducted the most recent election required by its charter or the general law, whichever is applicable, and which has the authority to enact general police-power ordinances.

(8) ~~"Public disturbance":~~Public disturbance. – Any annoying, disturbing, or alarming act or condition exceeding the bounds of social toleration normal for the time and place in question which occurs in a public place or which occurs in, affects persons in, or is likely to affect persons in a place to which the public or a substantial group has access. (9) ~~"Riot":~~Riot. – As defined in G.S. 14-288.2(a).

~~(10) "State of emergency": The condition that exists whenever, during times of public crisis, disaster, rioting, catastrophe, or similar public emergency, public safety authorities are unable to maintain public order or afford adequate protection for lives or property, or whenever the occurrence of any such condition is imminent.~~"

SECTION 2.(c) G.S. 14-288.4(a)(4)c. reads as rewritten:

"(a) Disorderly conduct is a public disturbance intentionally caused by any person who does any of the following:

...

(4) Refuses to vacate any building or facility of any public or private educational institution in obedience to any of the following:

...

c. If ~~a state of~~ an emergency is occurring or is imminent within the institution, an order given by any law-enforcement officer acting within the scope of the officer's authority."

SECTION 2.(c) G.S. 14-288.7 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(d) For purposes of this section, the term 'declared state of emergency' does not include a legislatively or gubernatorially declared state of emergency, other than a Type L emergency, as that term is defined in G.S. 166A-19.20."

SECTION 2.(d) G.S. 14-288.11 reads as rewritten:

"§ 14-288.11. Warrants to inspect vehicles in riot areas or approaching municipalities during emergencies.

(a) Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 4 of Chapter 15, any law-enforcement officer may, under the conditions specified in this section, obtain a warrant authorizing inspection of vehicles under the conditions and for the purpose specified in subsection (b).

(b) The inspection shall be for the purpose of discovering any dangerous weapon or substance likely to be used by one who is or may become unlawfully involved in a riot. The warrant may be sought to inspect:

(1) All vehicles entering or approaching a municipality in which ~~a state of~~ an emergency exists; or

(2) All vehicles which might reasonably be regarded as being within or approaching the immediate vicinity of an existing riot.

(c) The warrant may be issued by any judge or justice of the General Court of Justice.

(d) The issuing official shall issue the warrant only when he has determined that the one seeking the warrant has been specifically authorized to do so by the head of the law-enforcement agency of which the affiant is a member, and:

(1) If the warrant is being sought for the inspection of vehicles entering or approaching a municipality, that ~~a state of~~ an emergency exists within the municipality; or

(2) If the warrant being sought is for the inspection of vehicles within or approaching the immediate vicinity of a riot, that a riot is occurring within that area.

Facts indicating the basis of these determinations must be stated in an affidavit and signed by the affiant under oath or affirmation.

(e) The warrant must be signed by the issuing official and must bear the hour and date of its issuance.

(f) The warrant must indicate whether it is for the inspection of vehicles entering or approaching a municipality or whether it is for the inspection of vehicles within or approaching the immediate vicinity of a riot. In either case, it must also specify with reasonable precision the area within which it may be exercised.

(g) The warrant shall become invalid 24 hours following its issuance and must bear a notation to that effect.

(h) Warrants authorized under this section shall not be regarded as search warrants for the purposes of application of Article 4 of Chapter 15.

(i) Nothing in this section is intended to prevent warrantless frisks, searches, and inspections to the extent that they may be constitutional and consistent with common law and governing statutes."

SECTION 2.(e) G.S. 14-288.12 through G.S. 14-288.17 and G.S. 14-288.19 are repealed.

SECTION 2.(f) G.S. 14-288.18 reads as rewritten:

"§ 14-288.18. Injunction to cope with emergencies at public and private educational institutions.

(a) The chief administrative officer, or his authorized representative, of any public or private educational institution may apply to any superior court judge for injunctive relief if ~~a state of~~ an emergency exists ~~or is imminent~~ within his institution. For the purposes of this section, the superintendent of any city or county administrative school unit shall be deemed the chief administrative officer of any public elementary or secondary school within his unit.

(b) Upon a finding by a superior court judge, to whom application has been made under the provisions of this section, that ~~a state of~~ an emergency exists ~~or is imminent~~ within a public or private educational institution by reason of riot, disorderly conduct by three or more persons, or the imminent threat of riot, the judge may issue an injunction containing provisions appropriate to cope with the emergency then occurring or threatening. The injunction may be addressed to named persons or named or described groups of persons as to whom there is satisfactory cause for believing that they are contributing to the ~~existing or imminent state of~~ emergency, and ordering such persons or groups of persons to take or refrain or desist from taking such various actions as the judge finds it appropriate to include in his order."

SECTION 2.(g) G.S. 20-118.4(a) reads as rewritten:

"§ 20-118.4. Firefighting equipment exempt from size and weight restrictions while transporting or moving heavy equipment in an emergency; permits.

(a) Exemption From Weight and Size Restrictions During Emergency Response. – Any overweight or oversize vehicle owned and operated by a State or local government or cooperating federal agency is exempt from the weight and size restrictions of this Chapter and implementing rules while it is actively engaged in (i) a response to a fire under the authority of a forest ranger pursuant to G.S. 113-55(a); (ii) a county request for forest protection assistance pursuant to G.S. 113-59; (iii) a request for assistance under a state of emergency declared pursuant to G.S. 14-288.12, 14-288.13, 14-288.14, 14-288.15, and any other applicable statutes and provisions of common law; (iv) a request for assistance under a disaster declared pursuant to ~~G.S 166A-6 or G.S. 166A-8,~~ G.S. 166A-19.20 or G.S. 166A-19.21, when the vehicle meets the following conditions:

...."

SECTION 2.(h) G.S. 42A-36 reads as rewritten:

"§ 42A-36. Mandatory evacuations.

If State or local authorities, acting pursuant to ~~Article 36A of Chapter 14 or Article 1 of Chapter 166A~~ Article 1A of Chapter 166A of the General Statutes, order a mandatory evacuation of an area that includes the residential property subject to a vacation rental, the tenant under the vacation rental agreement, whether in possession of the property or not, shall comply with the evacuation order. Upon compliance, the tenant shall be entitled to a refund from the landlord of the rent, taxes, and any other payments made by the tenant pursuant to the vacation rental agreement as a condition of the tenant's right to occupy the property prorated for each night that the tenant is unable to occupy the property because of the mandatory evacuation order. The tenant shall not be entitled to a refund if: (i) prior to the tenant taking possession of the property, the tenant refused insurance offered by the landlord or real estate broker that would have compensated the tenant for losses or damages resulting from loss of use of the property due to a mandatory evacuation order; or (ii) the tenant purchased insurance offered by the landlord or real estate broker. The insurance offered shall be provided by an insurance company duly authorized by the North Carolina Department of Insurance, and the cost of the insurance shall not exceed eight percent (8%) of the total amount charged for the vacation rental to the tenant less the amount paid by the tenant for a security deposit."

SECTION 2.(i) G.S. 58-2-46 reads as rewritten:

"§ 58-2-46. State of disaster; automatic stay of proof of loss requirements; premium and debt deferrals; loss adjustments for separate windstorm policies.

Whenever a state of disaster is proclaimed for the State or for an area within the State under ~~G.S. 166A-6~~ G.S. 166A-19.20 or whenever the President of the United States has issued a major disaster declaration for the State or for an area within the State under the Stafford Act, 42 U.S.C. § 5121, et seq., as amended:

...."

SECTION 2.(j) G.S. 58-2-47 reads as rewritten:

"§ 58-2-47. Incident affecting operations of the Department; stay of deadlines and deemer provisions.

Regardless of whether a state of disaster has been proclaimed under ~~G.S. 166A-6~~ G.S. 166A-19.20 or declared under the Stafford Act, whenever an incident beyond the Department's reasonable control, including an act of God, insurrection, strike, fire, power outage, or systematic technological failure, substantially affects the daily business operations of the Department, the Commissioner may issue an order, effective immediately, to stay the application of any deadlines and deemer provisions imposed by law or rule upon the Commissioner or Department or upon persons subject to the Commissioner's jurisdiction, which deadlines and deemer provisions would otherwise operate during the time period for which the operations of the Department have been substantially affected. The order shall remain in effect for a period not exceeding 30 days. The order may be renewed by the Commissioner for successive periods not exceeding 30 days each for as long as the operations of the Department remain substantially affected, up to a period of one year from the effective date of the initial order."

SECTION 2.(k) G.S. 58-3-228(b)(2) reads as rewritten:

"(2) The covered person requesting coverage of the refill or replacement prescription resides in a county that:

a. Is covered under a proclamation of state of disaster issued by the Governor or by a resolution of the General Assembly under ~~G.S. 166A-6,~~ G.S. 166A-19.20, or a declaration of major disaster issued by the President of the United States under the Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act, 42 U.S.C. § 5121, et seq., as amended; or

b. Is declared to be under a state of emergency in a proclamation issued by the Governor under G.S. 14-288.15."

SECTION 2.(l) G.S. 58-33-70(e) reads as rewritten:

"(e) The Commissioner may permit an experienced adjuster, who regularly adjusts in another state and who is licensed in the other state (if that state requires a license), to act as an adjuster in this State without a North Carolina license only for an insurance company authorized to do business in this State, for emergency insurance adjustment work, for a period to be determined by the Commissioner, done for an employer who is an adjuster licensed by this State or who is a regular employer of one or more adjusters licensed by this State; provided that the employer shall furnish to the Commissioner a notice in writing immediately upon the beginning of any such emergency insurance adjustment work. As used in this subsection, "emergency insurance adjustment work" includes, but is not limited to, (i) adjusting of a single loss or losses arising out of an event or catastrophe common to all of those losses or (ii) adjusting losses in any area declared to be a state of disaster by the Governor under ~~G.S. 166A-6~~ G.S. 166A-19.20 or by the President of the United States under applicable federal law."

SECTION 2.(m) G.S. 58-44-70(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) This Part provides for a nonadversarial alternative dispute resolution procedure for a facilitated claim resolution conference prompted by the critical need for effective, fair, and timely handling of insurance claims arising out of damages to residential property as the result of an event for which there is a state of disaster declared within 60 days of the event. This Part applies only (i) if a state of disaster has been proclaimed for the State or for an area within the State by the Governor or by a resolution of the General Assembly under ~~G.S. 166A-6;~~ G.S. 166A-19.20; or (ii) if the President of the United States has issued a major disaster declaration for the State or for an area within the State under the Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act, 42 U.S.C. § 5121, et seq., as amended; and (iii) if the Commissioner issues an order establishing the mediation procedure authorized by this Part."

SECTION 2.(n) G.S. 58-44-75(2) reads as rewritten:

"§ 58-44-75. Definitions.

As used in this Part:

...

(2) Disaster. ~~As defined in G.S. 166A-4(1).~~As the term 'emergency' is defined in G.S. 166A-19.3(5)."

SECTION 2.(o) G.S. 75-38(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) A "triggering event" means the declaration of a state of emergency ~~pursuant to G.S. 166A-8 or Article 36A of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes, the proclamation of a state of disaster pursuant to G.S. 166A-6,~~ pursuant to Article 1A of Chapter 166A of the General Statutes or a finding of abnormal market disruption pursuant to G.S. 75-38(e)."

HOUSE BILL 843:
Modernize NC Emergency Management Act

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary I	Date:	May 17, 2012
Introduced by:	Rep. Martin	Prepared by:	Brad Krehely
Analysis of:	PCS to Second Edition H843-CSMD-22		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: The Proposed Committee Substitute (PCS) for House Bill 843 is a rewriting/recodification of the existing statutes dealing with emergency management, primarily Article 1 of Chapter 166A (North Carolina Emergency Management Act) and Article 36A of Chapter 14 (Riots and Civil Disorders). The bill centralizes the major provisions of the statutes dealing with emergencies and disasters, provides for uniform terminology throughout, and harmonizes the emergency management laws across the levels of government. The PCS puts into the law specific powers and duties which are currently handled by the Division, makes additional clarifying changes, corrects terminology, and corrects the effective date.

CURRENT LAW: Article 1 of Chapter 166A is the North Carolina Emergency Management Act. It defines the responsibilities within State government for the direction and control of the State emergency management program, the different types of disaster (dependent on damage assessments), and disaster assistance programs and funding. Article 1 authorizes counties to establish and maintain emergency management agencies, appropriate funds for that purpose, and, where such local programs meet State standards, receive State and federal financial assistance. Article 1 also provides that local states of emergency may be declared pursuant to Article 36A of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes.

Article 14 of Chapter 36A deals with riots, civil disorders, possession of weapons of mass destruction, looting, and assaults on emergency personnel. It also provides local governments authority to enact ordinances to deal with states of emergency. Such ordinances may restrict movement of people in public places, evacuations, possession of alcoholic beverages, weapons, and gasoline, and other activities to maintain order and protect lives and property during a state of emergency. The ordinances may also delegate to the mayor the authority to proclaim a state of emergency and impose the restrictions authorized. The chair of the county commissioners may extend the prohibitions contained in a mayor's declaration to parts of the county if requested by a mayor. The Governor is also authorized to impose restrictions in situations where local control has been deemed insufficient, such as where local authorities have not enacted appropriate ordinances, have failed to take steps to control the emergency, or the scope of the emergency exceeds the capacity of the locals to cope.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 843 is divided into 2 sections. The first part is the rewrite of the North Carolina Emergency Management Act as new Article 1A of Chapter 166A of the General Statutes. The second section of the bill contains conforming changes required by the rewrite.

Section 1.(a) of the bill recodifies the provisions of G.S. 166A-6.1 dealing with the fees paid by nuclear power facilities to the Department of Crime Control and Public Safety as G.S. 166A-29.

Section 1.(b) of the bill adds a new Article 1A to Chapter 166A of the General Statutes as follows:

Article 1A, Part 1. General Provisions.

G.S. 166A-19. The section sets out the title of the act: the North Carolina Emergency Management Act. It is a recodification of G.S. 166A-1.

G.S. 166A-19.1. This section sets out the general purposes of the act. It is a recodification of G.S. 166A-2.

G.S. 166A-19.2. Recodifies G.S. 166A-3 providing that the act shall not be construed to interfere with dissemination of news or comment on public affairs or modify or abridge the Governor's authority to proclaim martial law or exercise any other powers vested in the Governor.

G.S. 166A-19. Recodifies G.S. 166A-4, Definitions. Adds definitions from G.S. 14-288.1 for "chairman of the board of county commissioners" and "mayor". These terms include the person authorized to act in his or her stead when the chair or mayor is absent or disabled. Defines the term "emergency". The term has the same meaning as "disaster" under the old law but includes "weather-related" and "riot-related" causes. Also provides the term "emergency" is synonymous with the term "disaster". Adds a definition for "state of emergency" to include a declaration by the Governor , General Assembly, municipalities, or counties.

Article 1A, Part 2. State Emergency Management.

Part 2 rewrites the provisions G.S. 166A-5 and organizes them according to the entity (person) exercising the particular power.

G.S. 166A-19.10. Powers of the Governor. This section essentially recodifies (and rewrites stylistically) the provisions in G.S. 166A-5 dealing with the Governor's authority to exercise general direction and control of the State emergency management program. The new section adds that the Governor's powers do not extend to those powers and duties to carry out the provisions of Article 1A that are conferred exclusively on local governments.

G.S. 166A-19.11. Powers of the Secretary of Crime Control and Public Safety. This section rewrites the provisions of G.S. 166A-5 dealing with the Secretary. As with the Governor's powers, the Secretary is limited in rulemaking on matters that are exclusively local.

G.S. 166A-19.12. Powers of the Division of Emergency Management. This section rewrites the provisions of G.S. 166A-5 that deal with the Division of Emergency Management. The old law described the "functions" of the Division. G.S. 166A-19.12 refers to the "powers and duties" of the Division "as delegated by the Governor and the Secretary of Public Safety." Finally, this section puts into the law following powers and duties which are currently handled by the Division: (1) establishing a 24 hour Operations Center, (2) developing plans to emergencies at nuclear power facilities, (3) maintaining the State Emergency Operations Center to house the SERT, and (4) serving as the agency managing intrastate and interstate mutual aid planning.

Article 1A, Part 3. Local Emergency Management.

G.S. 166A-19.15 recodifies G.S. 166A-7. There are some stylistic changes such as the addition of subsection captions. These provisions deal with the authority of counties and cities to establish, fund, and maintain local emergency management agencies Article 1A, Part 4. Declarations of State of Emergency.

Part 4 deals with declarations of State of Emergency.

G.S. 166A-19.20. Gubernatorial or legislative declarations of state of emergency. The language of this section is a rewrite of G.S. 166A-6. The provisions regarding the declaration of a Type I, II, or III disaster remain the same.

The PCS removes references to "Type L" disasters to eliminate confusion. Part 4 of the PCS also differs from the prior edition of House Bill 842 because it makes a distinction between a "state of emergency declaration" (the thing that triggers the issuing authority's emergency powers) and a "disaster declaration" (which quantifies the severity of an emergency and facilitates the process of getting federal aid dollars).

Article 1A, Part 5. Additional Powers of the Governor During a State of Emergency.

Part 5 deals with other powers of the Governor during a state of emergency such as the use of all available State resources, evacuations, and economic controls. Part 5 also deals with municipal and county ordinances that impose restrictions and prohibitions on movement of people, possession of weapons and alcohol and control of other activities.

G.S. 166A-19.30. Additional Powers of the Governor. This section recodifies G.S. 166A-6(b) and (c). The PCS removes references to "Type L" emergencies.

G.S. 166A-19.30(d) adds a new provision that makes violation of a provision of a declaration or executive order issued pursuant to this section a Class 2 misdemeanor. Violation of a gubernatorial proclamation in a local state of emergency is a Class 2 misdemeanor under existing law, however, violations of declarations or executive orders under Article 1 of Chapter 166A is not a criminal offense.

G.S. 166A-19.31. Power of Municipalities and Counties to Enact Ordinances to Deal with States of Emergency. This section recodifies/rewrites portions of G.S. 14-288.12, 13, 16, and 17 dealing with the authority to adopt ordinances to prohibit and restrict activities during a state of emergency, when such ordinances take effect and when they expire. New language provides that officials need not impose all the restrictions or prohibitions allowed by the ordinances, but may impose only those deemed necessary to control a particular state of emergency. Violation of an emergency ordinance is a Class 2 misdemeanor, raised from a Class 3 misdemeanor under existing law.

Article 1, Part 6. Funding of Emergency Preparedness and Response.

G.S. 166A-19.40, Use of Contingency and Emergency Funds and G.S. 166A-19.41, State Emergency Assistance Funds. These sections recodify provisions in existing law including G.S. 166A-5(1)a.(9), G.S. 166A-6(d), G.S. 166A-6.01, and G.S. 166A-6.02.

Article 1A, Part 7. Immunity and Liability.

G.S. 166A-19.60. Immunity and Exemption. This section is a recodification of G.S. 166A-14. Adds subsection captions and updates internal citations.

G.S. 166A-19.61. No Private Liability. Recodifies G.S. 166A-15.

G.S. 166A-19.62. Civil Liability of Persons Who Willfully Ignore a Warning. Recodifies G.S. 166A-15.1.

Article 1A, Part 8, Miscellaneous Provisions.

G.S. 166A-19.70 recodifies G.S. 166A-6.03 regarding ensuring the availability of emergency supplies and utility services.

G.S. 166A-19.71 recodifies G.S. 166A-9 allowing the State to accept offers of services, equipment, supplies, and funds either as grants, gifts or loans, for the purpose of emergency management.

G.S. 166A-19.72 recodifies G.S. 166A-10 providing for mutual aid agreements.

G.S. 166A-19.73 recodifies G.S. 166A-11 providing for compensation services or for property used or taken during a state of emergency.

G.S. 166A-19.74 recodifies G.S. 166A-12 nondiscrimination in emergency management.

G.S. 166A-19.75 recodifies G.S. 166A-13 regarding employment of emergency management personnel and the taking of a written oath.

G.S. 166A-19.76 recodifies G.S. 166A-17 providing for leave options for voluntary firefighters, rescue squad workers and emergency medical service personnel called into service.

G.S. 166A-19.77 recodifies G.S. 166A-18 designating the Division of Forest Resources as an emergency response agency.

G.S. 166A-19.78 recodifies G.S. 14-288.19(a) regarding the Governor's authority to evacuate a public building.

G.S. 166A-19.79 recodifies G.S. 166A-16, the severability clause.

Section 1.(c) of the bill amends the title of Article 36A of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes.

Section 1.(d) of the bill provides that it is a Class 2 misdemeanor for violating (1) an ordinance or declaration issued by the Governor, local governments, or for willfully refusing to leave a building as directed by the Governor when an evacuation is ordered.

Section 2 of the bill makes conforming changes to the General Statutes to reflect new Article 1A of Chapter 166A. Section 2(c) of the bill removes language making it unlawful to transport or possess a dangerous weapon or substance in an area where a declared state of emergency exists.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act becomes effective October 1, 2012.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO MODERNIZE THE NORTH CAROLINA EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT ACT AND RELATED STATUTES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

I. CHANGES TO CHAPTER 166A OF THE GENERAL STATUTES

SECTION 1.(a) G.S. 166A-6.1 is recodified as G.S. 166A-29 and the remainder of Article 1 of Chapter 166A is repealed.

SECTION 1.(b) Chapter 166A of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new Article to read:

"Article 1A.
"North Carolina Emergency Management Act.
"Part 1. General Provisions.

"§ 166A-19. Short title.

This Article may be cited as 'North Carolina Emergency Management Act.'

"§ 166A-19.1. Purposes.

The purposes of this Article are to set forth the authority and responsibility of the Governor, State agencies, and local governments in prevention of, preparation for, response to, and recovery from natural or man-made emergencies or hostile military or paramilitary action and to do the following:

(1) Reduce vulnerability of people and property of this State to damage, injury, and loss of life and property;
(2) Prepare for prompt and efficient rescue, care, and treatment of threatened or affected persons;
(3) Provide for the rapid and orderly rehabilitation of persons and restoration of property; and
(4) Provide for cooperation and coordination of activities relating to emergency mitigation, preparedness, response, and recovery among agencies and officials of this State and with similar agencies and officials of other states, with local and federal governments, with interstate organizations, and with other private and quasi-official organizations.

"§ 166A-19.2. Limitations.

Nothing in this Article shall be construed to do any of the following:

(1) Interfere with dissemination of news or comment on public affairs; but any communications facility or organization, including, but not limited to, radio and television stations, wire services, and newspapers may be requested to transmit or print public service messages furnishing information or instructions in connection with an emergency, disaster, or war.

(2) Limit, modify, or abridge the authority of the Governor to declare martial law or exercise any other powers vested in the Governor under the North Carolina Constitution, statutes, or common law of this State independent of, or in conjunction with, any provisions of this Article.

"§ 166A-19.3. Definitions.

The following definitions apply in this Article:

(1) Account. – The State Emergency Response Account established in G.S. 166A-19.42.

(2) Chairman of the board of county commissioners. – The chairman of the board of county commissioners or, in case of the chairman's absence or disability, the person authorized to act in the chairman's stead. Unless the governing body of the county has specified who is to act in lieu of the chairman with respect to a particular power or duty set out in this Article, this term shall mean the person generally authorized to act in lieu of the chairman.

(3) Disaster declaration. – A gubernatorial declaration that the impact or anticipated impact of an emergency constitutes a disaster of one of the types enumerated in G.S. 166A-19.21(b).

(4) Division. – The Division of Emergency Management established in Subpart A of Part 5 of Article 13 of Chapter 143B of the General Statutes.

(5) Eligible entity. – Any political subdivision. The term also includes an owner or operator of a private nonprofit utility that meets the eligibility criteria set out in this Article.

(6) Emergency. – An occurrence or imminent threat of widespread or severe damage, injury, or loss of life or property resulting from any natural or man-made accidental, military, paramilitary, weather-related, or riot-related cause.

(7) Emergency area. – The geographical area covered by a state of emergency.

(8) Emergency management. – Those measures taken by the populace and governments at federal, State, and local levels to minimize the adverse effect of any type emergency, which includes the never-ending preparedness cycle of planning, prevention, mitigation, warning, movement, shelter, emergency assistance, and recovery.

(9) Emergency management agency. – A State or local governmental agency charged with coordination of all emergency management activities for its jurisdiction.

(10) Hazard risk management. – The systematic application of policies, practices, and resources to the identification, assessment, and control of risk associated with hazards affecting human health and safety and property. Hazard, risk, and cost-benefit analysis are used to support development of risk reduction options, program objectives, and prioritization of issues and resources.

(11) Mayor. – The mayor or other chief executive official of a municipality or, in case of that person's absence or disability, the person authorized to act in that person's stead. Unless the governing body of the municipality has specified who is to act in lieu of the mayor with respect to a particular power or duty set out in this Article, the term shall mean the person generally authorized to act in lieu of the mayor.

(12) Political subdivision. – Counties and incorporated cities, towns, and villages.

(13) Preliminary damage assessment. – The initial estimate prepared by State, local, or federal emergency management workers used to determine the severity and magnitude of damage caused by an emergency.

(14) Private nonprofit utility. – A utility that would be eligible for federal public assistance disaster funds pursuant to 44 C.F.R. Part 206.

(15) Secretary. – The Secretary of the Department of Public Safety.

(16) Stafford Act. – The Robert T. Stafford Disaster Relief and Emergency Assistance Act, Pub. L. No. 93-288, 88 Stat. 143, codified generally at 42 U.S.C. § 5121, et seq., as amended.

(17) State Acquisition and Relocation Fund. – State funding for supplemental grants to homeowners participating in a federal Hazard Mitigation Grant Program Acquisition and Relocation Program. These grants are used to acquire safe, decent, and sanitary housing by paying the difference between the cost of the home acquired under the federal Hazard Mitigation Grant Program Acquisition and Relocation Program and the cost of a comparable home located outside the 100-year floodplain.

(18) State of emergency. – A finding and declaration by any of the following authorities that an emergency exists:

a. The Governor, acting under the authority of G.S. 166A-19.20.

b. The General Assembly, acting under the authority of G.S. 166A-19.20.

c. The governing body of a municipality or the mayor of a municipality, acting under the authority of G.S. 166A-19.22.

d. The governing body of a county or the chairman of the board of commissioners of a county, acting under the authority of G.S. 166A-19.22.

"Part 2. State Emergency Management.

"§ 166A-19.10. Powers of the Governor.

(a) State Emergency Management Program. – The State Emergency Management Program includes all aspects of preparations for, response to, recovery from, and mitigation against war or peacetime emergencies.

(b) Powers of the Governor. – The Governor is authorized and empowered to do the following:

(1) To exercise general direction and control of the State Emergency Management Program and to be responsible for carrying out the provisions of this Article, other than those provisions that confer powers and duties exclusively on local governments.

(2) To make, amend, or rescind the necessary orders, rules, and regulations within the limits of the authority conferred upon the Governor herein, with due consideration of the policies of the federal government.

(3) To delegate any authority vested in the Governor under this Article and to provide for the subdelegation of any such authority.

(4) To cooperate and coordinate with the President and the heads of the departments and agencies of the federal government, and with other appropriate federal officers and agencies, and with the officers and agencies of other states and local units of government in matters pertaining to the emergency management of the State and nation.

(5) To enter into agreements with the American National Red Cross, Salvation Army, Mennonite Disaster Service, and other disaster relief organizations.

(6) To make, amend, or rescind mutual aid agreements in accordance with G.S. 166A-19.72.

(7) To utilize the services, equipment, supplies, and facilities of existing departments, offices, and agencies of the State and of the political subdivisions thereof. The officers and personnel of all such departments, offices, and agencies are required to cooperate with and extend such services and facilities to the Governor upon request. This authority shall extend to a state of emergency declared pursuant to G.S. 166A-19.20, to the imminent threat of an emergency that will likely require an emergency to be declared pursuant to G.S. 166A-19.20, or to emergency management planning and training purposes.

(8) To agree, when required to obtain federal assistance in debris removal, that the State will indemnify the federal government against any claim arising from the removal of the debris.

(9) To sell, lend, lease, give, transfer, or deliver materials or perform services for emergency purposes on such terms and conditions as may be prescribed by any existing law, and to account to the State Treasurer for any funds received for such property.

(10) In an emergency, or when requested by the governing body of a political subdivision in the State, to assume operational control over all or any part of the emergency management functions within this State.

"§ 166A-19.11. Powers of the Secretary of Public Safety.

The Secretary shall be responsible to the Governor for State emergency management activities. The Secretary shall have the following powers and duties as delegated by the Governor:

(1) To activate the State and local plans applicable to the areas in question and to authorize and direct the deployment and use of any personnel and forces to which the plan or plans apply, and the use or distribution of any supplies, equipment, materials, and facilities available pursuant to this Article or any other provision of law.

(2) To adopt the rules to implement those provisions of this Article that deal with matters other than those that are exclusively local.

(3) To develop a system to produce a preliminary damage assessment from which the Secretary will recommend the appropriate level of disaster declaration to the Governor. The system shall, at a minimum, consider whether the damage involved and its effects are of such a severity and magnitude as to be beyond the response capabilities of the local government or political subdivision.

(4) Additional authority, duties, and responsibilities as may be prescribed by the Governor. The Secretary may subdelegate his authority to the appropriate member of the Secretary's department.

"§ 166A-19.12. Powers of the Division of Emergency Management.

The Division of Emergency Management shall have the following powers and duties as delegated by the Governor and Secretary of Public Safety:

(1) Coordination of the activities of all State agencies for emergency management within the State, including planning, organizing, staffing, equipping, training, testing, and activating emergency management programs.

(2) Preparation and maintenance of State plans for emergencies. The State plans or any parts thereof may be incorporated into department regulations and into executive orders of the Governor.

(3) Coordination with the State Health Director to amend or revise the North Carolina Emergency Operations Plan regarding public health matters. At a minimum, the revisions to the Plan shall provide for the following:

a. The epidemiologic investigation of a known or suspected threat caused by nuclear, biological, or chemical agents.

b. The examination and testing of persons and animals that may have been exposed to a nuclear, biological, or chemical agent.

c. The procurement and allocation of immunizing agents and prophylactic antibiotics.

d. The allocation of the Strategic National Stockpile.

e. The appropriate conditions for quarantine and isolation in order to prevent further transmission of disease.

f. Immunization procedures.

g. The issuance of guidelines for prophylaxis and treatment of exposed and affected persons.

(4) Establishment of a voluntary model registry for use by political subdivisions in identifying functionally and medically fragile persons in need of assistance during an emergency. All records, data, information, correspondence, and communications relating to the registration of persons with special needs or of functionally and medically fragile persons obtained pursuant to this subdivision are confidential and are not a public record pursuant to G.S. 132-1 or any other applicable statute, except that this information shall be available to emergency response agencies, as determined by the local emergency management director. This information shall be used only for the purposes set forth in this subdivision.

(5) Promulgation of standards and requirements for local plans and programs consistent with federal and State laws and regulations, determination of eligibility for State financial assistance provided for in G.S. 166A-19.15 and provision of technical assistance to local governments. Standards and requirements for local plans and programs promulgated under this subdivision shall be reviewed by the Division at least biennially and updated as necessary.

(6) Development and presentation of training programs, including the Emergency Management Certification Program established under Article 5 of this Chapter, and public information programs to insure the furnishing of adequately trained personnel and an informed public in time of need.

(7) Making of such studies and surveys of the resources in this State as may be necessary to ascertain the capabilities of the State for emergency management, maintaining data on these resources, and planning for the most efficient use thereof.

(8) Coordination of the use of any private facilities, services, and property.

(9) Preparation for issuance by the Governor of executive orders, declarations, and regulations as necessary or appropriate.

(10) Cooperation and maintenance of liaison with the other states, the federal government, and any public or private agency or entity in achieving any purpose of this Article and in implementing programs for emergency or war prevention, preparation, response, and recovery.

(11) Making recommendations, as appropriate, for zoning, building, and other land-use controls, and safety measures for securing mobile homes or other nonpermanent or semipermanent works designed to protect against or mitigate the effects of an emergency.

(12) Coordination of the use of existing means of communications and supplementing communications resources and integrating them into a comprehensive State or State-federal telecommunications or other communications system or network.

(13) Administration of federal and State grant funds provided for emergency management purposes, including those funds provided for planning and preparedness activities by emergency management agencies.

(14) Serving as the lead State agency for the coordination of information and resources for hazard risk management, which shall include the following responsibilities:

a. Coordinating with other State agencies and county governments in conducting hazard risk analysis. To the extent another State agency has primary responsibility for the adoption of hazard mitigation standards, those standards shall be applied in conducting a hazard risk analysis.

b. Establishing and maintaining a hazard risk management information system and tools to display natural hazards and vulnerabilities and conducting risk assessment.

c. Acquiring and leveraging all natural hazard data generated or maintained by State agencies and county governments.

d. Acquiring and leveraging all vulnerability data generated or maintained by State agencies and county governments.

e. Maintaining a clearinghouse for methodologies and metrics for calculating and communicating hazard probability and loss estimation.

(15) Utilizing and maintaining technology that enables efficient and effective communication and management of resources between political subdivisions, State agencies, and other governmental entities involved in emergency management activities.

(16) Establishing and operating a 24 hour Operations Center to serve as a single point of contact for local governments to report the occurrence of emergency and disaster events, and to coordinate local and state response assets.

(17) Developing, maintaining, and implementing plans for response to any emergency occurring at a fixed nuclear power generating facility located in or near the borders of the State of North Carolina.

(18) Maintaining the State Emergency Operations Center as the facility to house the State Emergency Response Team whenever it is activated for disaster response.

(19) Serving as the agency responsible for the management of intrastate and interstate mutual aid planning, implementation, and resource procurement necessary for supporting emergency response and recovery.

"Part 3. Local Emergency Management.

"§ 166A-19.15. County and municipal emergency management.

(a) Governing Body of Counties Responsible for Emergency Management. – The governing body of each county is responsible for emergency management within the geographical limits of such county. All emergency management efforts within the county will be coordinated by the county, including activities of the municipalities within the county.

(b) Counties May Establish and Maintain Emergency Management Agencies. – The governing body of each county is hereby authorized to establish and maintain an emergency management agency for the purposes contained in G.S. 166A-19.1. The governing body of each county which establishes an emergency management agency pursuant to this authorization shall appoint a coordinator who will have a direct responsibility for the organization, administration, and operation of the county program and will be subject to the direction and guidance of such governing body. In the event that any county fails to establish an emergency management agency, and the Governor, in the Governor's discretion, determines that a need exists for such an emergency management agency, then the Governor is hereby empowered to establish an emergency management agency within that county.

(c) Municipalities May Establish and Maintain Emergency Management Agencies. – All incorporated municipalities are authorized to establish and maintain emergency management agencies subject to coordination by the county.

(d) Joint Agencies Authorized. – Counties and incorporated municipalities are authorized to form joint emergency management agencies composed of a county and one or more municipalities within the county's borders, between two or more counties, or between two or more counties and one or more municipalities within the borders of those counties.

(e) Local Appropriations Authorized. – Each county and incorporated municipality in this State is authorized to make appropriations for the purposes of this Article and to fund them by levy of property taxes pursuant to G.S. 153A-149 and G.S. 160A-209 and by the allocation of other revenues, whose use is not otherwise restricted by law.

(f) Additional Powers. – In carrying out the provisions of this Article each political subdivision is authorized to do the following:

(1) To appropriate and expend funds, make contracts, obtain and distribute equipment, materials, and supplies for emergency management purposes and to provide for the health and safety of persons and property, including emergency assistance, consistent with this Article.

(2) To direct and coordinate the development of emergency management plans and programs in accordance with the policies and standards set by the Division, consistent with federal and State laws and regulations.

(3) To assign and make available all available resources for emergency management purposes for service within or outside of the physical limits of the subdivision.

(4) To delegate powers in a local state of emergency declared pursuant to G.S. 166A-19.22.

(5) To coordinate the voluntary registration of functionally and medically fragile persons in need of assistance during an emergency either through a registry established by this subdivision or by the State. All records, data, information, correspondence, and communications relating to the registration of persons with special needs or of functionally and medically fragile persons obtained pursuant to this subdivision are confidential and are not a public record pursuant to G.S. 132-1 or any other applicable statute, except that this information shall be available to emergency response agencies, as determined by the local emergency management director. This information shall be used only for the purposes set forth in this subdivision.

(g) County Eligibility for State and Federal Financial Assistance. – Each county which establishes an emergency management agency pursuant to State standards and which meets requirements for local plans and programs may be eligible to receive State and federal financial assistance, including State and federal funding appropriated for emergency management planning and preparedness, and for the maintenance and operation of a county emergency management program. Such financial assistance is subject to an appropriation being made for this purpose. Where the appropriation does not allocate appropriated funds among counties, the amount allocated to each county shall be determined annually by the Division. The size of this allocation shall be based in part on the degree to which local plans and programs meet State standards and requirements promulgated by the Division, including those relating to professional competencies of local emergency management personnel. However, in making an allocation determination, the Division shall, where appropriate, take into account the fact that a particular county may lack sufficient resources to meet the standards and requirements promulgated by the Division.

"Part 4. Declarations of State of Emergency.

"§ 166A-19.20. Gubernatorial or legislative declaration of state of emergency.

(a) Declaration. – A state of emergency may be declared by the Governor, or by a resolution of the General Assembly, if either of these finds that an emergency exists.

(b) Emergency Area. – An executive order or resolution declaring a state of emergency shall include a definition of the area constituting the emergency area.

(c) Expiration of States of Emergency. – A state of emergency declared pursuant to this section shall expire when it is rescinded by the authority that issued it.

(d) Exercise of Powers Not Contingent on Declaration of Disaster Type. – Once a state of emergency has been declared pursuant to this section, the fact that a declaration of disaster type has not been issued shall not preclude the exercise of powers otherwise conferred during a state of emergency.

"§ 166A-19.21. Gubernatorial disaster declaration.

(a) Preliminary Damage Assessment. – When a state of emergency is declared pursuant to G.S. 166A-19.20, the Secretary shall provide the Governor and the General Assembly with a preliminary damage assessment as soon as the assessment is available.

(b) Declaration of Disaster. – Upon receipt of a preliminary damage assessment, the Governor is authorized to issue a disaster declaration declaring the impact or anticipated impact of the emergency to constitute a disaster of one of the following types:

(1) Type I Disaster. – A Type I disaster may be declared by the Governor prior to, and independently of, any action taken by the Small Business Administration, the Federal Emergency Management Agency, or any other federal agency, if all of the following criteria are met:

a. A local state of emergency has been declared pursuant to G.S. 166A-19.22 and a written copy of the declaration has been forwarded to the Governor.

b. The preliminary damage assessment meets or exceeds the criteria established for the Small Business Administration Disaster Loan Program pursuant to 13 C.F.R. Part 123 or meets or exceeds the State infrastructure criteria set out in G.S. 166A-19.41(b)(2)a.

c. A major disaster declaration by the President of the United States pursuant to the Stafford Act has not been declared.

(2) Type II Disaster. – A Type II disaster may be declared if the President of the United States has issued a major disaster declaration pursuant to the Stafford Act. The Governor may request federal disaster assistance under the Stafford Act without making a Type II disaster declaration.

(3) Type III Disaster. – A Type III disaster may be declared if the President of the United States has issued a major disaster declaration under the Stafford Act and either of the following is true:

a. The preliminary damage assessment indicates that the extent of damage is reasonably expected to meet the threshold established for an increased federal share of disaster assistance under applicable federal law and regulations.

b. The preliminary damage assessment prompts the Governor to call a special session of the General Assembly to establish programs to meet the unmet needs of individuals, businesses, or political subdivisions affected by the emergency.

(c) Expiration of Disaster Declarations. –

(1) Expiration of Type I Disaster Declarations. – A Type I disaster declaration shall expire 30 days after its issuance unless renewed by the Governor or the General Assembly. Such renewals may be made in increments of 30 days each, not to exceed a total of 120 days from the date of first issuance. The Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations shall be notified prior to the issuance of any renewal of a Type I disaster declaration.

(2) Expiration of Type II Disaster Declarations. – A Type II disaster declaration shall expire six months after its issuance unless renewed by the Governor or the General Assembly. Such renewals may be made in increments of three months each, not to exceed a total of 12 months from the date of first issuance. The Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations shall be notified prior to the issuance of any renewal of a Type II disaster declaration.

(3) Expiration of Type III Disaster Declarations. – A Type III disaster declaration shall expire 12 months after its issuance unless renewed by the General Assembly.

(4) Expiration of Disaster Declarations Declared Prior to July 1, 2001. – Any state of disaster declared or proclaimed before July 1, 2001, irrespective of type, shall terminate by a declaration of the Governor or resolution of the General Assembly. A declaration or resolution declaring or terminating a state of disaster shall be disseminated promptly by means calculated to bring its contents to the attention of the general public and, unless the circumstances attendant upon the disaster prevent or impede, promptly filed with the Secretary, the Secretary of State, and the clerks of superior court in the area to which it applies.

"§ 166A-19.22. Municipal or county declaration of state of emergency.

(a) Declaration. – A state of emergency may be declared by the governing body of a municipality or county if either of these finds that an emergency exists. Authority to declare a state of emergency under this section may also be delegated by ordinance to the mayor of a municipality or to the chairman of the board of county commissioners of a county.

(b) Emergency Area. – The emergency area shall be determined in accordance with the following:

(1) Unless another subdivision of this subsection is applicable, the emergency area shall not exceed the area over which the municipality or county has jurisdiction to enact general police-power ordinances. The governing body declaring the state of emergency may declare that the emergency area includes part or all of the governing body's jurisdiction. Unless the governing body declaring the state of emergency provides otherwise, the emergency area includes this entire jurisdiction, subject to the limitations contained in the other subdivisions in this subsection.

(2) The emergency area of a state of emergency declared by a county shall not include any area within the corporate limits of any municipality, or within any area of the county over which a municipality has jurisdiction to enact general police-power ordinances, unless the municipality's governing body or mayor consents to or requests the state of emergency's application. Such an extension may be with respect to one or more of the prohibitions and restrictions imposed in that county pursuant to the authority granted in G.S. 166A-19.31 and need not be with respect to all prohibitions and restrictions authorized by that section.

(3) The board of commissioners or chairman of the board of commissioners of any county who has been requested to do so by a mayor may by declaration extend the emergency area of a state of emergency declared by a municipality to any area within the county in which the board or chairman determines it to be necessary to assist in the controlling of the emergency within the municipality. The extension may be with respect to one or more of the prohibitions and restrictions imposed in that mayor's municipality pursuant to the authority granted in G.S. 166A-19.31 and need not be with respect to all prohibitions and restrictions authorized by that section. Extension of the emergency area pursuant to this subdivision shall be subject to the following additional limitations:

a. The extension of the emergency area shall not include any area within the corporate limits of a municipality, or within any area of the county over which a municipality has jurisdiction to enact general police-power ordinances, unless the mayor or governing body of that other municipality consents to its application.

b. A chairman of a board of county commissioners extending the emergency area under the authority of this subdivision shall take reasonable steps to give notice of its terms to those likely to be affected.

c. The chairman of the board of commissioners shall declare the termination of any prohibitions and restrictions extended pursuant to this subdivision upon the earlier of:

1. The chairman's determination that they are no longer necessary.
2. The determination of the board of county commissioners that they are no longer necessary.
3. The termination of the prohibitions and restrictions within the municipality.

d. The powers authorized under this subdivision may be exercised whether or not the county has enacted ordinances under the authority of G.S. 166A-19.31. Exercise of this authority shall not preclude the imposition of prohibitions and restrictions under any ordinances enacted by the county under the authority of G.S. 166A-19.31.

(c) Expiration of States of Emergency. – Unless an ordinance adopted pursuant to G.S. 166A-19.31 provides otherwise, a state of emergency declared pursuant to this section shall expire when it is terminated by the official or governing body that declared it.

(d) Effect of Declaration. – The declaration of a state of emergency pursuant to this section shall activate the local ordinances authorized in G.S. 166A-19.31 and any and all applicable local plans, mutual assistance compacts and agreements and shall also authorize the furnishing of assistance thereunder.

"§ 166A-19.23. Excessive pricing prohibitions.

A declaration issued pursuant to this Article shall trigger the prohibitions against excessive pricing during states of disaster, states of emergency, or abnormal market disruptions pursuant to G.S. 75-37 and 75-38.

"Part 5. Additional Powers During States of Emergency.

"§ 166A-19.30. Additional powers of the Governor during state of emergency.

(a) In addition to any other powers conferred upon the Governor by law, during a gubernatorially or legislatively declared state of emergency, the Governor shall have the following powers:

(1) To utilize all available State resources as reasonably necessary to cope with an emergency, including the transfer and direction of personnel or functions of State agencies or units thereof for the purpose of performing or facilitating emergency services.

(2) To take such action and give such directions to State and local law enforcement officers and agencies as may be reasonable and necessary for the purpose of securing compliance with the provisions of this Article and with the orders, rules, and regulations made pursuant thereto.

(3) To take steps to assure that measures, including the installation of public utilities, are taken when necessary to qualify for temporary housing assistance from the federal government when that assistance is required to protect the public health, welfare, and safety.

(4) Subject to the provisions of the State Constitution to relieve any public official having administrative responsibilities under this Article of such responsibilities for willful failure to obey an order, rule, or regulation adopted pursuant to this Article.

(b) During a gubernatorially or legislatively declared state of emergency, with the concurrence of the Council of State, the Governor has the following powers:

(1) To direct and compel the evacuation of all or part of the population from any stricken or threatened area within the State, to prescribe routes, modes of transportation, and destinations in connection with evacuation; and to control ingress and egress of an emergency area, the movement of persons within the area, and the occupancy of premises therein.

(2) To establish a system of economic controls over all resources, materials, and services to include food, clothing, shelter, fuel, rents, and wages, including the administration and enforcement of any rationing, price freezing, or similar federal order or regulation.

(3) To regulate and control the flow of vehicular and pedestrian traffic, the congregation of persons in public places or buildings, lights and noises of all kinds, and the maintenance, extension, and operation of public utility and transportation services and facilities.

(4) To waive a provision of any regulation or ordinance of a State agency or a political subdivision which restricts the immediate relief of human suffering.

(5) To perform and exercise such other functions, powers, and duties as are necessary to promote and secure the safety and protection of the civilian population.

(6) To appoint or remove an executive head of any State agency or institution the executive head of which is regularly selected by a State board or commission.

a. Such an acting executive head will serve during the following:

1. The physical or mental incapacity of the regular office holder, as determined by the Governor after such inquiry as the Governor deems appropriate.

2. The continued absence of the regular holder of the office.

3. A vacancy in the office pending selection of a new executive head.

b. An acting executive head of a State agency or institution appointed in accordance with this subdivision may perform any act and exercise any power which a regularly selected holder of such office could lawfully perform and exercise.

c. All powers granted to an acting executive head of a State agency or institution under this section shall expire immediately:

1. Upon the termination of the incapacity as determined by the Governor of the officer in whose stead the Governor acts;

2. Upon the return of the officer in whose stead the Governor acts; or

3. Upon the selection and qualification of a person to serve for the unexpired term, or the selection of an acting executive head of the agency or institution by the board or commission authorized to make such selection, and the person's qualification.

(7) To procure, by purchase, condemnation, seizure, or by other means to construct, lease, transport, store, maintain, renovate, or distribute materials and facilities for emergency management without regard to the limitation of any existing law.

(c) In addition to any other powers conferred upon the Governor by law, during a gubernatorially or legislatively declared state of emergency, if the Governor determines that local control of the emergency is insufficient to assure adequate protection for lives and property because (i) needed control cannot be imposed locally because local authorities responsible for preservation of the public peace have not enacted appropriate ordinances or issued appropriate declarations as authorized by G.S. 166A-19.31; (ii) local authorities have not taken implementing steps under such ordinances or declarations, if enacted or declared, for effectual control of the emergency that has arisen; (iii) the area in which the emergency exists has spread across local jurisdictional boundaries and the legal control measures of the jurisdictions are conflicting or uncoordinated to the extent that efforts to protect life and property are, or unquestionably will be, severely hampered; or (iv) the scale of the emergency is so great that it exceeds the capability of local authorities to cope with it, the Governor has the following powers:

(1) To impose by declaration prohibitions and restrictions in the emergency area. These prohibitions and restrictions may, in the Governor's discretion, as appropriate to deal with the emergency, impose any of the types of prohibitions and restrictions enumerated in G.S. 166A-19.31(b), and may amend or rescind any prohibitions and restrictions imposed by local authorities. Prohibitions and restrictions imposed pursuant to this subdivision shall take effect in accordance with the provisions of G.S. 166A-19.31(d) and shall expire upon the earliest occurrence of either of the following: (i) the prohibition or restriction is terminated by the Governor or (ii) the state of emergency is terminated.

(2) Give to all participating State and local agencies and officers such directions as may be necessary to assure coordination among them. These directions may include the designation of the officer or agency responsible for directing and controlling the participation of all public agencies and officers in the emergency. The Governor may make this designation in any manner which, in the Governor's discretion, seems most likely to be effective. Any law enforcement officer participating in the control of a state of emergency in which the Governor is exercising control under this section shall have the same power and authority as a sheriff throughout the territory to which the law enforcement officer is assigned.

(d) Violation. – Any person who violates any provision of a declaration or executive order issued pursuant to this section shall be guilty of a Class 2 misdemeanor in accordance with G.S. 14-288.20A.

"§ 166A-19.31. Power of municipalities and counties to enact ordinances to deal with states of emergency.

(a) Authority to Enact Prohibitions and Restrictions. – The governing body of any municipality or county may enact ordinances designed to permit the imposition of prohibitions and restrictions within the emergency area during a state of emergency declared pursuant to G.S. 166A-19.22. Authority to impose by declaration prohibitions and restrictions under this section, and to impose those prohibitions and restrictions at a particular time as appropriate, may be delegated by ordinance to the mayor of a municipality or to the chairman of the board of county commissioners of a county.

(b) Type of Prohibitions and Restrictions Authorized. – The ordinances authorized by this section may permit prohibitions and restrictions:

(1) Of movements of people in public places, including imposing a curfew; directing and compelling the voluntary or mandatory evacuation of all or part of the population from any stricken or threatened area within the governing body's jurisdiction; prescribing routes, modes of transportation, and destinations in connection with evacuation; and controlling ingress and egress of an emergency area, and the movement of persons within the area.

(2) Of the operation of offices, business establishments, and other places to or from which people may travel or at which they may congregate.

(3) Upon the possession, transportation, sale, purchase, and consumption of alcoholic beverages.

(4) Upon the possession, transportation, sale, purchase, storage, and use of gasoline, and dangerous weapons and substances, except that this subdivision does not authorize prohibitions or restrictions on lawfully possessed firearms or ammunition. As used in this subdivision, the term 'dangerous weapon and substance' has the same meaning as it does under G.S. 14-288.1. As used in this subdivision, the term 'firearm' has the same meaning as it does under G.S. 14-409.39(2).

(5) Upon other activities or conditions the control of which may be reasonably necessary to maintain order and protect lives or property during the state of emergency.

The ordinances authorized by this section need not require or provide for the imposition of all of the types of prohibitions or restrictions, or any particular prohibition or restriction, authorized by this section during an emergency but may instead authorize the official or officials who impose those prohibitions or restrictions to determine and impose the prohibitions or restrictions deemed necessary or suitable to a particular state of emergency.

(c) When Ordinances Take Effect. – Notwithstanding any other provision of law, whether general or special, relating to the promulgation or publication of ordinances by any municipality or county, upon the declaration of a state of emergency by the mayor or chairman of the board of county commissioners within the municipality or the county, any ordinance enacted under the authority of this section shall take effect immediately unless the ordinance sets a later time. If the effect of this section is to cause an ordinance to go into effect sooner than it otherwise could under the law applicable to the municipality or county, the mayor or chairman of the board of county commissioners, as the case may be, shall take steps to cause reports of the substance of the ordinance to be disseminated in a fashion that its substance will likely be communicated to the public in general, or to those who may be particularly affected by the ordinance if it does not affect the public generally. As soon as practicable thereafter, appropriate distribution or publication of the full text of any such ordinance shall be made.

(d) When Prohibitions and Restrictions Take Effect. – All prohibitions and restrictions imposed by declaration pursuant to ordinances adopted under this section shall take effect in the emergency area immediately upon publication of the declaration unless the declaration sets a later time. For the purpose of requiring compliance, publication may consist of reports of the substance of the prohibitions and restrictions in the mass communications media serving the emergency area or other effective methods of disseminating the necessary information quickly. As soon as practicable, however, appropriate distribution of the full text of any declaration shall be made. This subsection shall not be governed by the provisions of G.S. 1-597.

(e) Expiration of Prohibitions and Restrictions. – Prohibitions and restrictions imposed pursuant to this section shall expire upon the earliest occurrence of any of the following:

(1) The prohibition or restriction is terminated by the official or entity that imposed the prohibition or restriction.

(2) The state of emergency terminates.

(f) Intent to Supplement Other Authority. – This section is intended to supplement and confirm the powers conferred by G.S. 153A-121(a), G.S. 160A-174(a), and all other general and local laws authorizing municipalities and counties to enact ordinances for the protection of the public health and safety in times of riot or other grave civil disturbance or emergency.

(g) Previously Enacted Ordinances Remain in Effect. – Any ordinance of a type authorized by this section promulgated prior to October 1, 2012, if otherwise valid, continue in full force and effect without reenactment.

(h) Violation. – Any person who violates any provision of an ordinance or a declaration enacted or declared pursuant to this section shall be guilty of a Class 2 misdemeanor in accordance with G.S. 14-288.20A.

"Part 6. Funding of Emergency Preparedness and Response.

"§ 166A-19.40. Use of contingency and emergency funds.

(a) Use of Funds for Relief and Assistance. –The Governor may use contingency and emergency funds as necessary and appropriate to provide relief and assistance from the effects of an emergency and may reallocate such other funds as may reasonably be available within the appropriations of the various departments when the severity and magnitude of the emergency so requires and the contingency and emergency funds are insufficient or inappropriate.

(b) Use of Funds for National Guard Training. – In preparation for a state of emergency, with the concurrence of the Council of State, the Governor may use contingency and emergency funds as necessary and appropriate for National Guard training in preparation for emergencies.

"§ 166A-19.41. State emergency assistance funds.

(a) Governor May Make Funds Available for Emergency Assistance. – In the event of a gubernatorially or legislatively declared state of emergency, the Governor may make State funds available for emergency assistance as authorized by this section. Any State funds made available by the Governor for emergency assistance may be administered through State emergency assistance programs which may be established by the Governor upon the declaration of a state of emergency. It is the intent of the General Assembly in authorizing the Governor to make State funds available for emergency assistance and in authorizing the Governor to establish State emergency assistance programs to provide State assistance for recovery from those emergencies for which federal assistance under the Stafford Act is either not available or does not adequately meet the needs of the citizens of the State in the emergency area.

(b) Emergency Assistance in a Type I Disaster. – In the event that a Type I disaster is declared, the Governor may make State funds available for emergency assistance in the emergency area in the form of individual assistance and public assistance as provided in this subsection.

(1) Individual assistance. – State emergency assistance in the form of grants to individuals and families may be made available when damage meets or exceeds the criteria set out in 13 C.F.R. Part 123 for the Small Business Administration Disaster Loan Program. Individual assistance grants shall include benefits comparable to those provided by the Stafford Act and may be provided for the following:

a. Provision of temporary housing and rental assistance.

b. Repair or replacement of dwellings. Grants for repair or replacement of housing may include amounts necessary to locate the individual or family in safe, decent, and sanitary housing.

c. Replacement of personal property (including clothing, tools, and equipment).

d. Repair or replacement of privately owned vehicles.

e. Medical or dental expenses.

f. Funeral or burial expenses resulting from the emergency.

g. Funding for the cost of the first year's flood insurance premium to meet the requirements of the National Flood Insurance Act of 1968, as amended, 42 U.S.C. § 4001, et seq.

(2) Public assistance. – State emergency assistance in the form of public assistance grants may be made available to eligible entities located within the emergency area on the following terms and conditions:

a. Eligible entities shall meet the following qualifications:

1. The eligible entity suffers a minimum of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) in uninsurable losses;

2. The eligible entity suffers uninsurable losses in an amount equal to or exceeding one percent (1%) of the annual operating budget;

3. For a state of emergency declared pursuant to G.S. 166A-19.20(a) after the deadline established by the Federal Emergency Management Agency pursuant to the Disaster Mitigation Act of 2002, P.L. 106-390, the eligible entity shall have a hazard mitigation plan approved pursuant to the Stafford Act; and

4. For a state of emergency declared pursuant to G.S. 166A-19.20(a), after August 1, 2002, the eligible entity shall be participating in the National Flood Insurance Program in order to receive public assistance for flooding damage.

b. Eligible entities shall be required to provide non-State matching funds equal to twenty-five percent (25%) of the eligible costs of the public assistance grant.

c. An eligible entity that receives a public assistance grant pursuant to this subsection may use the grant for the following purposes only:

1. Debris clearance.
2. Emergency protective measures.
3. Roads and bridges.
4. Crisis counseling.
5. Assistance with public transportation needs.

(c) Emergency Assistance in a Type II Disaster. – If a Type II disaster is declared, the Governor may make State funds available for emergency assistance in the emergency area in the form of the following types of grants:

(1) State Acquisition and Relocation Funds.

(2) Supplemental repair and replacement housing grants available to individuals or families in an amount necessary to locate the individual or family in safe, decent, and sanitary housing not to exceed twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) per family.

(d) Emergency Assistance in a Type III Disaster. – If a Type III disaster is declared, the Governor may make State funds available for emergency assistance in the emergency area in the form of the following types of grants:

(1) State Acquisition and Relocation Funds.

(2) Supplemental repair and replacement housing grants available to individuals or families in an amount necessary to locate the individual or family in safe, decent, and sanitary housing not to exceed twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000) per family.

(3) Any programs authorized by the General Assembly.

"§ 166A-19.42. State Emergency Response Account.

(a) Account Established. – There is established a State Emergency Response Account as a reserve in the General Fund. Any funds appropriated to the Account shall remain available for expenditure as provided by this section, unless directed otherwise by the General Assembly.

(b) Use of Funds. – The Governor may spend funds from the Account for the following purposes:

(1) To cover the start-up costs of State Emergency Response Team operations for an emergency that poses an imminent threat of a Type I, Type II, or Type III disaster.

(2) To cover the cost of first responders to a Type I, Type II, or Type III disaster and any related supplies and equipment needed by first responders that are not provided for under subdivision (1) of this subsection.

All other types of emergency assistance authorized by this Part shall continue to be financed by the funds made available under G.S. 166A-19.41.

(c) Reporting Requirement. – The Governor shall report to the Joint Legislative Commission on Governmental Operations and to the Chairs of the Appropriations Committees of the Senate and House of Representatives on any expenditures from the State Emergency Response Account no later than 30 days after making the expenditure. The report shall include a description of the emergency and type of action taken.

"Part 7. Immunity and Liability.

"§ 166A-19.60. Immunity and exemption.

(a) Generally. – All functions hereunder and all other activities relating to emergency management as provided for in this Chapter or elsewhere in the General Statutes are hereby declared to be governmental functions. Neither the State nor any political subdivision thereof, nor, except in cases of willful misconduct, gross negligence, or bad faith, any emergency management worker, firm, partnership, association, or corporation complying with or reasonably attempting to comply with this Article or any order, rule, or regulation promulgated pursuant to the provisions of this Article or pursuant to any ordinance relating to any emergency management measures enacted by any political subdivision of the State, shall be liable for the death of or injury to persons, or for damage to property as a result of any such activity.

(b) Immunity. – The immunity provided to firms, partnerships, associations, or corporations, under subsection (a) of this section, is subject to all of the following conditions:

(1) The immunity applies only when the firm, partnership, association, or corporation is acting without compensation or with compensation limited to no more than actual expenses and one of the following applies:

a. Emergency management services are provided at any place in this State during a state of emergency declared by the Governor or General Assembly pursuant to this Article, and the services are provided under the direction and control of the Secretary pursuant to G.S. 166A-19.10, 166A-19.11, 166A-19.12, 166A-19.20, 166A-19.30, and 143B-602, or the Governor.

b. Emergency management services are provided during a state of emergency declared pursuant to G.S. 166A-19.22, and the services are provided under the direction and control of the governing body of a municipality or county under G.S. 166A-19.31, or the chair of a board of county commissioners under G.S. 166A-19.22(b)(3).

c. The firm, partnership, association, or corporation is engaged in planning, preparation, training, or exercises with the Division, the Division of Public Health, or the governing body of each county or municipality under G.S. 166A-19.15 related to the performance of emergency management services or measures.

(2) The immunity shall not apply to any firm, partnership, association, or corporation, or to any employee or agent thereof, whose act or omission caused in whole or in part the actual or imminent emergency or whose act or omission necessitated emergency management measures.

(3) To the extent that any firm, partnership, association, or corporation has liability insurance, that firm, partnership, association, or corporation shall be deemed to have waived the immunity to the extent of the indemnification by insurance for its negligence. An insurer shall not under a contract of insurance exclude from liability coverage the acts or omissions of a firm, partnership, association, or corporation for which the firm, partnership, association, or corporation would only be liable to the extent indemnified by insurance as provided by this subdivision.

(c) No Effect on Benefits. – The rights of any person to receive benefits to which the person would otherwise be entitled under this Article or under the Workers' Compensation Law or under any pension law and the right of any such person to receive any benefits or compensation under any act of Congress shall not be affected by performance of emergency management functions.

(d) License Requirements Suspended. – Any requirement for a license to practice any professional, mechanical, or other skill shall not apply to any authorized emergency management worker who shall, in the course of performing the worker's duties as such, practice such professional, mechanical, or other skill during a state of emergency.

(e) Definition of Emergency Management Worker. – As used in this section, the term 'emergency management worker' shall include any full- or part-time paid, volunteer, or auxiliary employee of this State or other states, territories, possessions, or the District of Columbia, of the federal government or any neighboring country or of any political subdivision thereof, or of any agency or organization performing emergency management services at any place in this State, subject to the order or control of or pursuant to a request of the State government or any political subdivision thereof. The term 'emergency management worker' under this section shall also include any health care worker performing health care services as a member of a hospital-based or county-based State Medical Assistance Team designated by the North Carolina Office of Emergency Medical Services and any person performing emergency health care services under G.S. 90-12.2.

(f) Powers of Individuals Operating Pursuant to Mutual Aid Agreements. – Any emergency management worker, as defined in this section, performing emergency management services at any place in this State pursuant to agreements, compacts, or arrangements for mutual aid and assistance to which the State or a political subdivision thereof is a party, shall possess the same powers, duties, immunities, and privileges the person would ordinarily possess if performing duties in the State, or political subdivision thereof, in which normally employed or rendering services.

"§ 166A-19.61. No private liability.

Any person, firm, or corporation owning or controlling real or personal property who, voluntarily or involuntarily, knowingly or unknowingly, with or without compensation, grants a license or privilege or otherwise permits or allows the designation or use of the whole or any part or parts of such real or personal property for the purpose of sheltering, protecting, safeguarding, or aiding in any way persons shall, together with his successors in interest, if any, not be civilly liable for the death of or injury to any person or the loss of or damage to the property of any persons where such death, injury, loss, or damage resulted from, through, or because of the use of the said real or personal property for any of the above purposes.

"§ 166A-19.62. Civil liability of persons who willfully ignore a warning in an emergency.

In an emergency, a person who willfully ignores a warning regarding personal safety issued by a federal, State, or local law enforcement agency, emergency management agency, or other governmental agency responsible for emergency management under this Article is civilly liable for the cost of a rescue effort to any governmental agency or nonprofit agency cooperating with a governmental agency conducting a rescue on the endangered person's behalf if all of the following are true:

(1) The person ignores the warning and (i) engages in an activity or course of action that a reasonable person would not pursue or (ii) fails to take a course of action that a reasonable person would pursue.

(2) As a result of ignoring the warning the person places himself or herself or another in danger.

(3) A governmental rescue effort is undertaken on the endangered person's behalf.

"Part 8. Miscellaneous Provisions.

"§ 166A-19.70. Ensuring availability of emergency supplies and utility services.

(a) Executive Order. – In addition to any other powers conferred on the Governor by law, whenever a curfew has been imposed, the Governor may declare by executive order that the health, safety, or economic well-being of persons or property in this State require that persons transporting essentials in commerce to the curfew area, or assisting in ensuring their availability, and persons assisting in restoring utility services, be allowed to enter or remain in areas from which they would otherwise be excluded for the limited purpose of delivering the essentials, assisting in ensuring their availability, or assisting in restoring utility services.

(b) Maximum Hours of Service Waiver. – As part of an executive order issued pursuant to subsection (a) of this section, or independently of such an order, the Governor may declare by executive order that the health, safety, or economic well-being of persons or property in this State require that the maximum hours of service prescribed by the Department of Public Safety pursuant to G.S. 20-381 and similar rules be waived for persons transporting essentials or assisting in the restoration of utility services.

(c) Certification System. – The Secretary shall develop a system pursuant to which a person who transports essentials in commerce, or assists in ensuring their availability, and persons who assist in the restoring of utility services can be certified as such. The certification system shall allow for both preemergency declaration and postemergency declaration certification and may include an annually renewable precertification. The Secretary shall only allow those who routinely transport or distribute essentials or assist in the restoring of utility services to be certified. A certification of the employer shall constitute a certification of the employer's employees. The Secretary shall create an easily recognizable indicium of certification in order to assist local officials' efforts to determine which persons have received certification by the system established under this subsection.

(d) Presence in Curfew Area Permitted. – Notwithstanding the existence of any curfew, a person who is certified pursuant to the system established under subsection (c) of this section shall be allowed to enter or remain in the curfew area for the limited purpose of delivering or assisting in the distribution of essentials or assisting in the restoration of utility services and shall be allowed to provide service that exceeds otherwise applicable hours of service maximums, to the extent authorized by an executive order executed pursuant to subsection (a) of this section. Nothing in this section prohibits law enforcement or other local officials from specifying the permissible route of ingress or egress for persons with certifications.

(e) Abnormal Market Disruptions with Respect to Petroleum. – If the Governor declares the existence of an abnormal market disruption with respect to petroleum pursuant to, G.S. 75-38(f), the Governor shall contemporaneously seek all applicable waivers under the federal Clean Air Act, 42 U.S.C. § 7401, et seq., and any other applicable federal law to facilitate the transportation of fuel within this State in order to address or prevent a fuel supply emergency in this State. Waiver requests shall be directed to the appropriate federal agencies and shall seek waivers of the following:

(1) The Reformulated Gasoline requirements throughout the State.

(2) The Federal and State Implementation Plan summertime gasoline requirements (low RVP) throughout the State.

(3) Any other waiver that will, if obtained, facilitate the transportation of fuel within this State.

(f) Definitions. – The following definitions apply in this section:

(1) Curfew. – Any restriction on ingress and egress to the emergency area of a state of emergency or any restriction on the movement of persons within such an area.

(2) Curfew area. – The area that is subject to a curfew.

(3) Essentials. – Any goods that are consumed or used as a direct result of an emergency or which are consumed or used to preserve, protect, or sustain life, health, safety, or economic well-being of persons or their property. The Secretary shall determine what goods constitute essentials for purposes of this section.

"§ 166A-19.71. Accept services, gifts, grants, and loans.

Whenever the federal government or any agency or officer thereof or of any person, firm, or corporation shall offer to the State, or through the State to any political subdivision thereof, services, equipment, supplies, materials, or funds by way of gift, grant, or loan, for emergency management purposes, the State acting through the Governor, or such political subdivision, acting with the consent of the Governor and through its governing body, may accept such offer. Upon such acceptance the Governor of the State or governing body of such political subdivision may authorize any officer of the State or of the political subdivision, as the case may be, to receive such services, equipment, supplies, materials, or funds on behalf of the State or of such political subdivision, and subject to the terms of the offer and the rules and regulations, if any, of the agency making the offer.

"§ 166A-19.72. Establishment of mutual aid agreements.

(a) Governor Authorized to Enter Agreements with Other States and Federal Government. – The Governor may establish mutual aid agreements with other states and with the federal government provided that any special agreements so negotiated are within the Governor's authority.

(b) Governor Authorized to Enter Agreements with Political Subdivisions. – The Governor may establish mutual aid agreements with political subdivisions in the State with the concurrence of the subdivision's governing body.

(c) Political Subdivisions Authorized to Enter Agreements with Other Political Subdivisions. – The chief executive of each political subdivision, with the concurrence of the subdivision's governing body, may develop mutual aid agreements for reciprocal emergency management aid and assistance. Such agreements shall be consistent with the State emergency management program and plans.

(d) Political Subdivisions Authorized to Enter Agreements with Political Subdivisions in Other States. – The chief executive officer of each political subdivision, with the concurrence of the governing body and subject to the approval of the Governor, may enter into mutual aid agreements with local chief executive officers in other states for reciprocal emergency management aid and assistance. These agreements shall be consistent with the State emergency management program and plans.

(e) Terms of Agreements. – Mutual aid agreements may include, but are not limited to, the furnishing or exchange of such supplies, equipment, facilities, personnel, and services as may be needed; the reimbursement of costs and expenses for equipment, supplies, personnel, and similar items; and on such terms and conditions as deemed necessary.

"§ 166A-19.73. Compensation.

(a) Extent of Compensation. – Compensation for services or for the taking or use of property shall be only to the extent that legal obligations of individual citizens are exceeded in a particular case and then only to the extent that the claimant has not been deemed to have volunteered his services or property without compensation.

(b) Limitation; Basis of Compensation. – Compensation for property shall be only if the property was commandeered, seized, taken, condemned, or otherwise used in coping with an emergency and this action was ordered by the Governor. The State shall make compensation for the property so seized, taken, or condemned on the following basis:

(1) In case property is taken for temporary use, the Governor, within 30 days of the taking, shall fix the amount of compensation to be paid for such damage or failure to return. Whenever the Governor shall deem it advisable for the State to take title to property taken under this section, the Governor shall forthwith cause the owner of such property to be notified thereof in writing by registered mail, postage prepaid, or by the best means available, and forthwith cause to be filed a copy of said notice with the Secretary of State.

(2) If the person entitled to receive the amounts so determined by the Governor as just compensation is unwilling to accept the same as full and complete compensation for such property or the use thereof, the person shall be paid seventy-five percent (75%) of such amount and shall be entitled to recover from the State of North Carolina in an action brought in the superior court in the county of residence of claimant, or in Wake County, in the same manner as other condemnation claims are brought, within three years after the date of the Governor's award.

"§ 166A-19.74. Nondiscrimination in emergency management.

State and local governmental bodies and other organizations and personnel who carry out emergency management functions under the provisions of this Article are required to do so in an equitable and impartial manner. Such State and local governmental bodies, organizations, and personnel shall not discriminate on the grounds of race, color, religion, nationality, sex, age, or economic status in the distribution of supplies, the processing of applications, and other relief and assistance activities.

"§ 166A-19.75. Emergency management personnel.

(a) Limitation. – No person shall be employed or associated in any capacity in any emergency management agency established under this Article if that person does or has done any of the following:

(1) Advocates or has advocated a change by force or violence in the constitutional form of the Government of the United States or in this State.

(2) Advocates or has advocated the overthrow of any government in the United States by force or violence.

(3) Has been convicted of any subversive act against the United States.

(4) Is under indictment or information charging any subversive act against the United States.

(5) Has ever been a member of the Communist Party.

(b) Oath. – Each person who is appointed to serve in any emergency management agency shall, before entering upon the person's duties, take a written oath before a person authorized to administer oaths in this State, which oath shall be substantially as follows:

'I, _____, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of North Carolina, against all enemies, foreign and domestic; and that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion; and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties upon which I am about to enter. And I do further swear (or affirm) that I do not advocate, nor am I, nor have I ever knowingly been, a member of any political party or organization that advocates the overthrow of the Government of the United States or of this State by force or violence; and that during such time as I am a member of the State Emergency Management Agency I will not advocate nor become a member of any political party or organization that advocates the overthrow of the Government of the United States or of this State by force or violence, so help me God.'

(c) No Violation of Dual Office Holding Prohibition. – No position created by or pursuant to this Article shall be deemed an office within the meaning of Section 9 of Article 6 of the North Carolina Constitution.

"§ 166A-19.76. Leave options for voluntary firefighters, rescue squad workers, and emergency medical service personnel called into service.

(a) Leave Without Pay. – A member of a volunteer fire department, rescue squad, or emergency medical services agency called into service of the State after a declaration of a state of emergency by the Governor or by the General Assembly, or upon the activation of the State Emergency Response Team in response to an emergency, shall have the right to take leave without pay from his or her civilian employment. No member of a volunteer fire department, rescue squad, or emergency medical services agency shall be forced to use or exhaust his or her vacation or other accrued leave from his or her civilian employment for a period of active service. The choice of leave shall be solely within the discretion of the member.

(b) Request in Writing Required. – For the volunteer member to be entitled to take leave without pay pursuant to this section, his or her services shall be requested in writing by the Director of the Division or by the head of a local emergency management agency. The request shall be directed to the Chief of the member's volunteer fire department, rescue squad, or emergency medical services agency and a copy shall be provided to the member's employer. This section shall not apply to those members whose services have been certified by their employer to the Director of the Division, or to the head of a local emergency management agency, as essential to the employer's own ongoing emergency relief activities.

(c) Definition of an Emergency Requiring Activation of the State Emergency Response Team. – For purposes of this section, an emergency requiring the activation of the State Emergency Response Team means an emergency at Activation Level 2 or greater according to the North Carolina State Emergency Operations Plan of November 2002. Activation Level 2 requires the State Emergency Operations Center to be fully activated with 24-hour staffing from all State Emergency Response Team members.

(d) Enforcement. – The Commissioner of Labor shall enforce the provisions of this section pursuant to Chapter 95 of the General Statutes.

"§ 166A-19.77. Division of Forest Resources designated as emergency response agency.

The Division of Forest Resources of the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services is designated an emergency response agency of the State of North Carolina for purposes of the following:

(1) Supporting the Division in responding to all-risk incidents.
(2) Receipt of any applicable State or federal funding.
(3) Training of other State and local agencies in emergency management.
(4) Any other emergency response roles for which the Division has special training or qualifications.

"§ 166A-19.78. Governor's power to order evacuation of public building.

When it is determined by the Governor that a great public crisis, disaster, riot, catastrophe, or any other similar public emergency exists, or the occurrence of any such condition is imminent, and, in the Governor's opinion it is necessary to evacuate any building owned or controlled by any department, agency, institution, school, college, board, division, commission, or subdivision of the State in order to maintain public order and safety or to afford adequate protection for lives or property, the Governor is hereby authorized to issue an order of evacuation directing all persons within the building to leave the building and its premises forthwith. The order shall be delivered to any law enforcement officer or officer of the National Guard, and such officer shall, by a suitable public address system, read the order to the occupants of the building and demand that the occupants forthwith evacuate said building within the time specified in the Governor's order.

"§ 166A-19.79. Severability.

If any provision of this Article or the application thereof to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the invalidity does not affect other provisions or applications of the Article which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this Article are severable."

SECTION 1.(c) The title of Article 36A of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes reads as rewritten:

"Article 36A.

~~Riots and Civil Disorders.~~Riots, Civil Disorders, and Emergencies."

SECTION 1.(d) Article 36A of Chapter 14 is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 14-288.20A. Violation of emergency prohibitions and restrictions.

Any person who does any of the following is guilty of a Class 2 misdemeanor:

(1) Violates any provision of an ordinance or a declaration enacted or declared pursuant to G.S. 166A-19.31.

(2) Violates any provision of a declaration or executive order issued pursuant to G.S. 166A-19.30

(3) Willfully refuses to leave the building as directed in a Governor's order issued pursuant to G.S. 166A-19.78."

II. CONFORMING CHANGES

SECTION 2.(a) G.S. 14-288.1 reads as rewritten:

"§ 14-288.1. Definitions.

Unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the ~~definitions in this section apply throughout this Article:~~ following definitions apply in this Article:

(1) ~~"Chairman of the board of county commissioners":~~Chairman of the board of county commissioners. – The chairman of the board of county commissioners or, in case of the chairman's absence or disability, the person authorized to act in the chairman's stead. Unless the governing body of the county has specified who is to act in lieu of the chairman with respect to a particular power or duty set out in this Article, the term "chairman of the board of county commissioners" shall apply to the person generally authorized to act in lieu of the chairman.

(2) ~~"Dangerous weapon or substance":~~Dangerous weapon or substance. – Any deadly weapon, ammunition, explosive, incendiary device, radioactive material or device, as defined in G.S. 14-288.8(c)(5), or any instrument or substance designed for a use that carries a threat of serious bodily injury or destruction of property; or any instrument or substance that is capable of being used to inflict serious bodily injury, when the circumstances indicate a probability that such instrument or substance will be so used; or any part or ingredient in any instrument or substance included above, when the circumstances indicate a probability that such part or ingredient will be so used.

(3) ~~"Declared state of emergency":~~Declared state of emergency. – A state of emergency as that term is defined in G.S. 166A-19.3 or a state of emergency found and ~~proclaimed by the Governor under the authority of G.S. 14-288.15, by any mayor or other municipal official or officials under the authority of G.S. 14-288.12, by any chairman of the board of commissioners of any county or other county official or officials under the authority of G.S. 14-288.13, by any chairman of the board of county commissioners acting under the authority of G.S. 14-288.14, by~~ declared by any chief executive official or acting chief executive official of any county or municipality acting under the authority of any other applicable statute or provision of the common law to preserve the public peace in a state of emergency, or by any executive official or military commanding officer of the United States or the State of North Carolina who becomes primarily responsible under applicable law for the preservation of the public peace within any part of North Carolina.

(4) ~~"Disorderly conduct":~~Disorderly conduct. – As defined in G.S. 14-288.4(a).

(4a) Emergency. – As defined in G.S. 166A-19.3.

(5) ~~"Law enforcement officer":~~Law enforcement officer. – Any officer of the State of North Carolina or any of its political subdivisions authorized to make arrests; any other person authorized under the laws of North Carolina to make arrests and either acting within that person's territorial jurisdiction or in an area in which that person has been lawfully called to duty by the Governor or any mayor or chairman of the board of county commissioners; any member of the Armed Forces of the United States, the North Carolina National Guard, or the North Carolina State Defense Militia called to duty in a state of emergency in North Carolina and made responsible for enforcing the laws of North Carolina or preserving the public peace; or any officer of the United States authorized to make arrests without warrant and assigned to duties that include preserving the public peace in North Carolina.

(6) ~~"Mayor":~~Mayor. – The mayor or other chief executive official of a municipality or, in case of that person's absence or disability, the person authorized to act in that person's stead. Unless the governing body of the municipality has specified who is to act in lieu of the mayor with respect to a particular power or duty set out in this Article, the word "mayor" shall apply to the person generally authorized to act in lieu of the mayor.

(7) ~~"Municipality":~~Municipality. – Any active incorporated city or town, but not including any sanitary district or other municipal corporation that is not a city or town. An "active" municipality is one which has conducted the most recent election required by its charter or the general law, whichever is applicable, and which has the authority to enact general police-power ordinances.

(8) ~~"Public disturbance":~~Public disturbance. – Any annoying, disturbing, or alarming act or condition exceeding the bounds of social toleration normal for the time and place in question which occurs in a public place or which occurs in, affects persons in, or is likely to affect persons in a place to which the public or a substantial group has access. (9) ~~"Riot":~~Riot. – As defined in G.S. 14-288.2(a).

~~(10) "State of emergency": The condition that exists whenever, during times of public crisis, disaster, rioting, catastrophe, or similar public emergency, public safety authorities are unable to maintain public order or afford adequate protection for lives or property, or whenever the occurrence of any such condition is imminent.~~"

SECTION 2.(b) G.S. 14-288.4(a)(4)c. reads as rewritten:

"(a) Disorderly conduct is a public disturbance intentionally caused by any person who does any of the following:

...

(4) Refuses to vacate any building or facility of any public or private educational institution in obedience to any of the following:

...

c. If ~~a state of~~ an emergency is occurring or is imminent within the institution, an order given by any law-enforcement officer acting within the scope of the officer's authority."

SECTION 2.(c) G.S. 14-288.7 is repealed.

SECTION 2.(d) G.S. 14-288.11 reads as rewritten:

"§ 14-288.11. Warrants to inspect vehicles in riot areas or approaching municipalities during emergencies.

(a) Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 4 of Chapter 15, any law-enforcement officer may, under the conditions specified in this section, obtain a warrant authorizing inspection of vehicles under the conditions and for the purpose specified in subsection (b).

(b) The inspection shall be for the purpose of discovering any dangerous weapon or substance likely to be used by one who is or may become unlawfully involved in a riot. The warrant may be sought to inspect:

(1) All vehicles entering or approaching a municipality in which ~~a state of~~ an emergency exists; or

(2) All vehicles which might reasonably be regarded as being within or approaching the immediate vicinity of an existing riot.

(c) The warrant may be issued by any judge or justice of the General Court of Justice.

(d) The issuing official shall issue the warrant only when he has determined that the one seeking the warrant has been specifically authorized to do so by the head of the law-enforcement agency of which the affiant is a member, and:

(1) If the warrant is being sought for the inspection of vehicles entering or approaching a municipality, that ~~a state of~~ an emergency exists within the municipality; or

(2) If the warrant being sought is for the inspection of vehicles within or approaching the immediate vicinity of a riot, that a riot is occurring within that area.

Facts indicating the basis of these determinations must be stated in an affidavit and signed by the affiant under oath or affirmation.

(e) The warrant must be signed by the issuing official and must bear the hour and date of its issuance.

(f) The warrant must indicate whether it is for the inspection of vehicles entering or approaching a municipality or whether it is for the inspection of vehicles within or approaching the immediate vicinity of a riot. In either case, it must also specify with reasonable precision the area within which it may be exercised.

(g) The warrant shall become invalid 24 hours following its issuance and must bear a notation to that effect.

(h) Warrants authorized under this section shall not be regarded as search warrants for the purposes of application of Article 4 of Chapter 15.

(i) Nothing in this section is intended to prevent warrantless frisks, searches, and inspections to the extent that they may be constitutional and consistent with common law and governing statutes."

SECTION 2.(e) G.S. 14-288.12 through G.S. 14-288.17 and G.S. 14-288.19 are repealed.

SECTION 2.(f) G.S. 14-288.18 reads as rewritten:

"§ 14-288.18. Injunction to cope with emergencies at public and private educational institutions.

(a) The chief administrative officer, or his authorized representative, of any public or private educational institution may apply to any superior court judge for injunctive relief if ~~a~~

~~state of~~ an emergency exists ~~or is imminent~~ within his institution. For the purposes of this section, the superintendent of any city or county administrative school unit shall be deemed the chief administrative officer of any public elementary or secondary school within his unit.

In addition to the North Carolina crimes listed in this subdivision, such crimes also include similar crimes under federal law or under the laws of other states."

SECTION 2.(ww) G.S. 143-215.94II reads as rewritten:

"§ 143-215.94II. Emergency proclamation; Governor's powers.

(a) Whenever any emergency exists or appears imminent, arising from the discharge of oil or other pollutants within the marine environment, the Governor shall by proclamation declare ~~the fact and that~~ a state of emergency ~~exists~~ in the appropriate sections of the State. Upon such proclamation, the Governor shall have all powers enumerated in ~~G.S. 14-288.15,~~ G.S. 166A-19.30(c) subject to the ~~provisions of G.S. 14-288.16.~~limitations contained in that subsection.

(b) If the Governor is unavailable, the Lieutenant Governor shall, by proclamation, ~~declare the fact and that a~~ declare a state of emergency ~~exists~~ in the appropriate sections of the State.

(c) In performing his duties under this section, the Governor is authorized and directed to cooperate with all departments and agencies of the federal government, the offices and agencies of other states and foreign countries and the political subdivisions thereof, and private agencies in all matters pertaining to an emergency described herein.

(d) In addition to the powers enumerated in ~~G.S. 14-288.15,~~ G.S. 166A-19.30(c), in the case of such an emergency described in subsection (a) of this section, the Governor is further authorized and empowered to transfer any funds available to him by statute for emergency use into the Oil or Other Hazardous Substances Pollution Protection Fund created pursuant to G.S. 143-215.87, to be utilized for the purposes specified therein."

SECTION 2.(xx) G.S. 143B-146.16(a)(1) reads as rewritten:

"(1) "Criminal history" means a county, state, or federal criminal history of conviction of a crime, whether a misdemeanor or a felony, that indicates the employee (i) poses a threat to the physical safety of students or personnel, or (ii) has demonstrated that he or she does not have the integrity or honesty to fulfill his or her duties as school personnel. Such crimes include the following North Carolina crimes contained in any of the following Articles of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes: Article 5A, Endangering Executive and Legislative Officers; Article 6, Homicide; Article 7A, Rape and Kindred Offenses; Article 8, Assaults; Article 10, Kidnapping and Abduction; Article 13, Malicious Injury or Damage by Use of Explosive or Incendiary Device or Material; Article 14, Burglary and Other Housebreakings; Article 15, Arson and Other Burnings; Article 16, Larceny; Article 17, Robbery; Article 18, Embezzlement; Article 19, False Pretense and Cheats; Article 19A, Obtaining Property or Services by False or Fraudulent Use of Credit Device or Other Means; Article 20, Frauds; Article 21, Forgery; Article 26, Offenses Against Public Morality and Decency; Article 26A, Adult Establishments; Article 27, Prostitution; Article 28, Perjury; Article 29, Bribery; Article 31, Misconduct in Public Office; Article 35, Offenses Against the Public Peace;

Article 36A, ~~Riots and Civil Disorders;~~ Riots, Civil Disorders, and Emergencies; Article 39, Protection of Minors; and Article 60, Computer-Related Crime. Such crimes also include possession or sale of drugs in violation of the North Carolina Controlled Substances Act, Article 5 of Chapter 90 of the General Statutes, and alcohol-related offenses such as sale to underage persons in violation of G.S. 18B-302 or driving while impaired in violation of G.S. 20-138.1 through G.S. 20-138.5. In addition to the North Carolina crimes listed in this subdivision, such crimes also include similar crimes under federal law or under the laws of other states."

SECTION 2.(yy) G.S. 153A-129 reads as rewritten:

"§ 153A-129. Firearms.

A county may by ordinance regulate, restrict, or prohibit the discharge of firearms at any time or place except when used to take birds or animals pursuant to Chapter 113, Subchapter IV, when used in defense of person or property, or when used pursuant to lawful directions of law-enforcement officers. A county may also regulate the display of firearms on the public roads, sidewalks, alleys, or other public property. This section does not limit a county's authority to take action under ~~Chapter 14, Article 36A.~~Article 1A of Chapter 166A of the General Statutes."

SECTION 2.(zz) G.S. 160A-189 reads as rewritten:

"§ 160A-189. Firearms.

A city may by ordinance regulate, restrict, or prohibit the discharge of firearms at any time or place within the city except when used in defense of person or property or pursuant to lawful directions of law-enforcement officers, and may regulate the display of firearms on the streets, sidewalks, alleys, or other public property. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit a city's authority to take action under ~~Article 36A of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes.~~Article 1A of Chapter 166A of the General Statutes."

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO CREATE THE CRIMINAL OFFENSE OF TERRORISM.

Whereas, closed community compounds are located across the United States and near the borders of this State; and

Whereas, these compounds have limited public access and are reputed to be bound together by a common purpose or ideology; and

Whereas, there have been reports of weapons fire and military-type training occurring at some of these compounds; and

Whereas, a defendant who was convicted of the attempted murder of nine students at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill as an act of revenge for enemy casualties of war was not charged under federal domestic terrorism laws; and

Whereas, the current State criminal statutes do not sufficiently recognize the increased danger to the public and do not sanction appropriately acts of terrorism; Now, therefore,

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Chapter 14 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new Article to read:

"Article 2D.
"Terrorism.

"§ 14-50.2. Terrorism.

(a) The following definitions shall apply in this section:

(1) Act of violence. – A violation of G.S. 14-17 or G.S. 14-18; any felony offense in Chapter 14 of the General Statutes that includes an assault, or use of violence or force against a person; any felony offense that includes either the threat or use of any explosive or incendiary device; or any offense that includes the threat or use of a nuclear, biological, or chemical weapon of mass destruction.

(2) Continuing criminal enterprise. – As defined in G.S. 14-7.20(c).

(b) A person is guilty of the separate offense of terrorism if the person commits an act of violence or is engaged in a continuing criminal enterprise with the intent to do either of the following:

(1) Intimidate the civilian population at large, or an identifiable group of the civilian population.

(2) Influence, through intimidation, the conduct or activities of the government of the United States, a state, or any unit of local government.

(c) A violation of this section is a felony that is:

(1) One class higher than the offense which is the underlying act of violence, except that a violation is a Class B1 felony if the underlying act of violence is a Class B1 or Class A felony offense. A violation of this section is a separate offense from the underlying offense and shall not merge with other offenses.

(2) A Class D felony if the violation is based upon a violation of G.S. 14-7.20.

(d) Any person who solicits, invites, recruits, encourages, or otherwise causes or attempts to cause another to participate in an act, or acts, of terrorism is guilty of a Class D felony.

(e) All real and personal property of every kind used or intended for use in the course of, derived from, or realized through a violation of this Article shall be subject to lawful seizure and forfeiture to the State as set forth in G.S. 14-2.3 and G.S. 14-7.20. However, the forfeiture of any real or personal property shall be subordinate to any security interest in the property taken by a lender in good faith as collateral for the extension of credit and recorded as provided by law, and no real or personal property shall be forfeited under this section against an owner who made a bona fide purchase of the property without knowledge of a violation of this Article."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective December 1, 2011, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. Chapter 14 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new Article to read:

"Article 3A.
"Terrorism.

"§ 14-10.1. Terrorism.

(a) As used in this section, the term "act of violence" means a violation of G.S. 14-17; a felony punishable pursuant to G.S. 14-18; any felony offense in this Chapter that includes an assault, or use of violence or force against a person; any felony offense that includes either the threat or use of any explosive or incendiary device; or any offense that includes the threat or use of a nuclear, biological, or chemical weapon of mass destruction.

(b) A person is guilty of the separate offense of terrorism if the person commits an act of violence with the intent to do either of the following:

A violation of this section is a separate offense from the underlying offense and shall not merge with other offenses.

(d) All real and personal property of every kind used or intended for use in the course of, derived from, or realized through an offense punishable pursuant to this Article shall be subject to lawful seizure and forfeiture to the State as set forth in G.S. 14-2.3 and G.S. 14-7.20. However, the forfeiture of any real or personal property shall be subordinate to any security interest in the property taken by a lender in good faith as collateral for the extension of credit and recorded as provided by law, and no real or personal property shall be forfeited under this section against an owner who made a bona fide purchase of the property, or a person with rightful possession of the property, without knowledge of a violation of this Article."

SECTION 2. G.S. 14-7.20 reads as rewritten:

"§ 14-7.20. Continuing criminal enterprise.

(a) ~~Any~~ Except as otherwise provided in subsection (a1) of this section, any person who engages in a continuing criminal enterprise shall be punished as a Class H felon and in addition shall be subject to the forfeiture prescribed in subsection (b) of this section.

(a1) Any person who engages in a continuing criminal enterprise where the felony violation required by subdivision (c)(1) of this section is a violation of G.S. 14-10.1 shall be punished as a Class D felon and, in addition, shall be subject to the forfeiture prescribed in subsection (b) of this section.

(b) Any person who is convicted under subsection (a) or (a1) of this section of engaging in a continuing criminal enterprise shall forfeit to the State of North Carolina:

(1) The profits obtained by the person in the enterprise, and

(2) Any of the person's interest in, claim against, or property or contractual rights of any kind affording a source of influence over, such enterprise.

(c) For purposes of this section, a person is engaged in a continuing criminal enterprise if:

(1) The person violates any provision of this Chapter, the punishment of which is a felony; and

(2) The violation is a part of a continuing series of violations of this Chapter:

a. Which are undertaken by the person in concert with five or more other persons with respect to whom the person occupies a position of organizer, a supervisory position, or any other position of management; and

b. From which the person obtains substantial income or resources."

SECTION 3. This act becomes effective December 1, 2012, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date.

HOUSE BILL 149:
Terrorism/State Offense

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary I	Date:	June 5, 2012
Introduced by:	Reps. Killian, Torbett	Prepared by:	Susan Sitze
Analysis of:	PCS to Second Edition H149-CSSA-77		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: The Proposed Committee Substitute for H149 would create the State offense of terrorism and provide an increased penalty for continuing criminal enterprise in commission of the offense of terrorism.

CURRENT LAW: Under federal law, a person engages in domestic terrorism if they do an act within the territorial jurisdiction of the United States that is "dangerous to human life" that is a violation of the criminal laws of a state or the United States, if the act appears to be intended to:

- Intimidate or coerce a civilian population;
- Influence the policy of a government by intimidation or coercion; or
- Affect the conduct of a government by mass destruction, assassination or kidnapping.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 of the PCS would create a State offense of "terrorism" if the defendant commits one of the described "acts of violence" with the intent to do either of the following:

(1) Intimidate the civilian population at large.
(2) Influence, through intimidation, the conduct or activities of the government of the United States, a state, or any unit of local government.

A violation would be classified at one offense level higher than the underlying offense. If the underlying offense is a Class A or Class B1 felony, then the terrorism offense is a Class B1 felony.

Real or personal property used in connection with a violation of the act is subject to seizure and forfeiture. Forfeiture is subject to prior security interests taken by a lender in good faith, and bona fide purchasers are protected from forfeiture.

Section 2 of the PCS would amend G.S. 14-7.20 to provide that participation in a continuing criminal enterprise while in violation of the terrorism statute is punishable as a Class D felony, rather than the Class H punishment for all other continuing criminal enterprises.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act becomes effective December 1, 2011, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO REMOVE THE MATCHING FUNDS PROVISIONS OF THE PUBLIC CAMPAIGN ACT AND THE VOTER-OWNED ELECTION ACT AND TO MAKE CONFORMING AND RELATED CHANGES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 163-278.62(18) is repealed.

SECTION 2. G.S. 163-278.66 is repealed.

SECTION 3. G.S. 163-278.67 is repealed.

SECTION 4. G.S. 163-278.64(d)(2) reads as rewritten:

"(2) From the filing of a declaration of intent through the end of the qualifying period, a candidate may accept only qualifying contributions, contributions under ten dollars ($10.00) from North Carolina voters, and personal and family contributions permitted under subdivision (4) of this subsection. The total contributions the candidate may accept during this period shall not exceed the maximum qualifying contributions for that candidate. In addition to these contributions, the candidate may only expend during this period the remaining money raised pursuant to subdivision (1) of this ~~subsection and possible matching funds received pursuant to G.S. 163-278.67.~~subsection. Except for personal and family contributions permitted under subdivision (4) of this subsection, multiple contributions from the same contributor to the same candidate shall not exceed five hundred dollars ($500.00)."

SECTION 5. G.S. 163-278.64A(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) Participation Provisions Modified. – Candidates involved in elections described in G.S. 163-329 may participate in the Fund subject to the provisions of G.S. 163-278.64 as modified by this section. The Board shall adapt other provisions of this ~~Article, including G.S. 163-278.67,~~ Article to those elections."

SECTION 6. G.S. 163-278:65(b)(2) reads as rewritten:

"(2) Contested primaries. – No funds shall be ~~distributed except as provided in G.S. 163-278.67.~~distributed."

SECTION 7. G.S. 163-278.68(d) reads as rewritten:

"(d) Board to Adopt Rules and Issue Opinions. – The Board shall adopt rules and issue opinions to ensure effective administration of this Article. Such rules and opinions shall include, but not be limited to, procedures for obtaining qualifying contributions, certification of candidates, addressing circumstances involving special elections, vacancies, recounts, withdrawals, or replacements, collection of revenues for the Fund, distribution of Fund revenue to certified candidates, return of unspent Fund disbursements, and compliance with this Article.

~~The Board shall adopt procedures for the distribution of matching money that further the purpose and avoid the subversion of G.S. 163-278.67.~~ For races involving special elections, recounts, vacancies, withdrawals, or replacement candidates, the Board shall establish procedures for qualification, certification, disbursement of Fund revenues, and return of unspent Fund revenues. The Board shall fulfill each of these duties in consultation with the Advisory Council on the Public Campaign Fund."

SECTION 8. G.S. 163-278.96(17) is repealed.

SECTION 9. G.S. 163-278.99A is repealed.

SECTION 10. G.S. 163-278.99B is repealed.

SECTION 11. G.S. 163-278.98(e)(2) reads as rewritten:

"(2) From the filing of a declaration of intent through the end of the qualifying period, a candidate may accept only qualifying contributions, contributions under ten dollars ($10.00) from North Carolina voters, in-kind party contributions as permitted in subdivision (4) of this subsection, and personal and family contributions permitted under subdivision (4a) of this subsection. The total contributions the candidate may accept during this period shall not exceed the maximum qualifying contributions for that candidate. In addition to these contributions, the candidate may only expend during this period the remaining money raised pursuant to subdivision (1) of this ~~subsection and possible matching funds received pursuant to G.S. 163-278.99B~~ subsection. If the candidate has any remaining money that was raised as contributions before August 1 of the year before the election, the candidate may not expend that money after filing the declaration of intent, except for purposes permitted under subdivision (2), (3), (6), (7), or (8) of G.S. 163-278.16B(a)."

SECTION 12. G.S. 163-278.98(e)(3) reads as rewritten:

"(3) After the qualifying period and through the date of the general election, the candidate shall cease campaign-related fund-raising activities and shall expend only the funds the candidate receives from the Fund pursuant to G.S. 163-278.99(b) plus any funds remaining from the qualifying ~~period and possible matching funds.~~period."

SECTION 13. G.S. 163-278.99(b)(2) reads as rewritten:

"(2) Contested primaries. – No funds shall be ~~distributed except as provided in G.S. 163-278.99B.~~distributed."

SECTION 14. G.S. 163-278.13(e4) is repealed.

SECTION 15. This act is effective when it becomes law.

SENATE BILL 908:
Matching Funds Repeal

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary I	Date:	June 4, 2012
Introduced by:	Sen. Brunstetter	Prepared by:	R. Erika Churchill
Analysis of:	First Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 908 would repeal the matching funds provisions in both the judicial and council of state public funding for campaigns programs.

CURRENT LAW: North Carolina currently provides two separate programs for public financing of elections – one for appellate judicial races and one for 3 of the 10 Council of State races (Auditor, Superintendent of Public Instruction, and Commissioner of Insurance).

To participate, the candidate must file a declaration of intent with the State Board of Elections BEFORE collecting any qualifying contributions. The declaration of intent has to be filed before or during the "qualifying period," which is September 1 of the year before the election until the day of the primary. After filing the declaration of intent, the candidate must collect qualifying contributions from a certain number of registered voters during the qualifying period. The State Board of Elections must then "certify" that the candidate has filed a declaration of intent, collected the appropriate contributions, and filed a notice of candidacy. Once certified, the candidate is entitled to receive distributions from the public financing fund. Distributions are as follows: none for an uncontested primary or general election; an initial distribution within 5 business days of certification by the State Board for a candidate in a contested general election; and matching funds, upon trigger.

If participating candidates are faced with "funds in opposition to a certified candidate or in support of an opponent to that candidate" exceed the trigger amount, the public financing programs provide for "matching funds" to be released to those participating certified candidates. In the case of a primary, the trigger amount equals the maximum qualifying contributions for participating candidates. In the case of a contested general election, the trigger amount equals the base level of funding available for the contested election for that office.

The opposition spending is subject to 24-hour expedited reporting so the matching fund provision can be administered. Matching funds are available in amounts matching the opposition spending, up to twice the trigger amount.

BILL ANALYSIS: The bill would repeal all of the matching funds provisions in the judicial public financing program (Sections 1-7 of the bill) and the council of state public financing program (Sections 8-14 of the bill), while making necessary corresponding conforming changes.

EFFECTIVE DATE: When it becomes law.

BACKGROUND: The United States Supreme Court found, in Arizona Free Enterprise Club's Freedom Club PAC, v. Bennett (2011), that a similar matching funds program was an unconstitutional restriction on free speech. Subsequent to that case, a lawsuit was filed in the 4th Circuit to declare the matching funds provisions in North Carolina law unconstitutional. The court found that the North Carolina matching funds statute is unduly burdensome and not sufficiently justified to survive First Amendment Scrutiny. NC Right to Life v Leake, May 21, 2012.

SENATE JUDICIARY I COMMITTEE
Thursday, June 7, 2012 at 10:00 AM
Room 1027, Legislative Building

MINUTES

The Senate Judiciary I Committee met at 10:00 AM on June 7, 2012, in Room 1027 of the Legislative Building. 15 members of the committee were present. Senator Brunstetter, presided.

The meeting adjourned at 10:35 AM.

HB 483-DNA SAMPLES/ADD'L FELONIES-Representative Burr was recognized to explain the PCS. The legislation would add to the list of offenses which require the taking of a DNA sample upon the arrest and appropriate funds to facilitate that expansion. Director of the state crime lab recognized to explain collections, hits and expunctions. Senator Brock moved for an unfavorable report as to original bill, but favorable as to the PCS, with referral to appropriations. The motion carried.

HB 614-VOLUNTEER HEALTH SVCS ACT- Senator Goolsby was recognized to speak on the bill and to present the PCS. The bill would permit health care professionals licensed in other states to provide free health care services in North Carolina without being subject to additional licensure requirements. The PCS would also limit the tort liability of volunteer health care services providers for injuries or death to acts or omissions constituting gross negligence, wanton conduct or intentional wrongdoing. Senator Goolsby moved for an unfavorable report as to the original bill, but favorable as to PCS and the motion carried.

HB 690-AMEND EVIDENCE & DNA EXPUNCTION LAWS- Representative Stevens recognized to explain PCS. The bill would amend the statutes regarding the disposition of blood evidence, the admissibility of analyst statements, and the expunction of DNA samples taken upon arrest. Senator Stevens moved for a favorable report and the motion carried.

SB 881-TRANSFER EVIDENCE WAREHOUSE TO DPS- Senator Goolsby was recognized to explain the bill. The bill would transfer responsibility for the evidence warehouse operated by the Law Enforcement Support Services Division of the Department of Crime Control and Public Safety prior to January 1, 2012 to the Office of External Affairs in the Department of Public Safety. The bill also amends Article 13 of Chapter 143B, establishing the Department of Public Safety, to add the provision of central storage and management of evidence to the duties of the Department. The bill was recommended by the Joint Legislative Oversight Committee on Justice and Public Safety. Senator Mansfield moved for favorable report and the motion carried.

HB 1066-PASSING TITLE BY WILL-Representative Blust was recognized to explain the bill. The bill separates and puts into a more logical order the provisions applicable to where and when a will may be submitted for probate and the provisions applicable to the effect of probating a will upon the property of a decedent. Senator Stevens moved for a favorable report and the motion carried.

HB 1067- CO-OWNERS/UNEQUAL SHARES/SIMULTANEOUS DEATH-Representative Blust was recognized to explain the bill. The bill amends G.S. 28A-24-3 to conform to the 2009 amendments to G.S. 41-2 with respect to the holding of unequal shares in a joint tenancy with right of survivorship. Senator Stevens moved for a favorable report and the motion carried.

HB 1069-INTESTATE PROPERTY/ CHILD'S YEAR'S ALLOWANCE- Representative Blust was recognized to explain the bill. The bill increases the amounts of intestate property that passes to a spouse and the amount payable as a child's year's allowance from a decedent's estate. The bill also reinserts references to a child's "next friend" in the statutes relating to the child's year's allowance to prevent the need of appointing a guardian of the estate for every child entitled to the allowance. Senator Stevens motioned for a favorable report and the motion carried.

There is appropriated from the General Fund to the Judicial Department the sum of forty-four thousand seven hundred sixty dollars ($44,760) for fiscal year 2012-2013 to be allocated to the Administrative Office of the Courts for the administration of the provisions of this act.

SECTION 3. Section 1 of this act becomes effective December 1, 2011, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date. The remainder of this act becomes effective July 1, 2011.

HOUSE BILL 483:
DNA Samples/Additional Felonies

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary I	Date:	June 7, 2012
Introduced by:	Reps. Burr, Pridgen, Ingle	Prepared by:	Susan Sitze Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	PCS to Second Edition H483-CSSA-72

SUMMARY: The PCS for H483 would add offenses to the list of offenses which require the taking of a DNA sample upon the arrest and appropriate funds to facilitate that expansion.

BACKGROUND: During the 2009-2010 Regular Session, the legislature passed the "DNA Database Act of 2010." The act made two significant changes to the State's laws on DNA sampling: DNA samples (for specified offenses) would be taken from persons upon arrest, and the general method of sampling would be changed from blood sample to cheek swab for all DNA sampling. Previously, any person convicted of a felony offense, assault on a handicapped person, stalking, or sexual battery had to provide a DNA blood sample.

DNA samples are analyzed and the DNA profile is entered into the State DNA Database. The sample is then searchable through the Combined DNA Index System (CODIS), a DNA database funded by the United States Federal Bureau of Investigation. The DNA profiles are searched against all other profiles in the system, which includes suspect samples, and samples taken from both solved and unsolved crime scenes. If a "hit" is obtained between a sample and an unsolved forensic unknown, a confirmation process is initiated, and a report is issued.

~~BILL ANALYSIS:~~

Section 1 of the PCS would add certain felony offenses to the list of offenses which require a DNA sample upon arrest.

Section 2 of the PCS would appropriate $69,934 to the Department of Justice for FY 2012-2013 to be allocated to the State Bureau of Investigation for testing and analysis of the DNA samples required by this PCS.

Section 3 of the PCS would limit the State Crime Laboratory to accreditation by a single accrediting body and prohibit the expenditure of State funds on a duplicative or unnecessary accreditation.

EFFECTIVE DATE: Section 1 of this act becomes effective December 1, 2012, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date. Section 2 of this act becomes effective July 1, 2012. The remainder of this act is effective when it becomes law.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO REQUIRE THE DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES TO PUBLISH ON ITS WEB SITE PUBLIC NOTICES OF CHANGES IN STATEWIDE METHODS AND STANDARDS FOR SETTING MEDICAID PAYMENT RATES.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 108A-55(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) The Department shall reimburse providers of services, equipment, or supplies under the Medical Assistance Program in the following amounts:

(1) The amount approved by the ~~Health Care Financing Administration~~ Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services of the United States Department of Health and Human Services, if that Administration approves an exact reimbursement amount;

(2) The amount determined by application of a method approved by the ~~Health Care Financing Administration~~ Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services of the United States Department of Health and Human Services, if that Administration approves the method by which a reimbursement amount is determined, and not the exact amount.

The Department shall establish the methods by which reimbursement amounts are determined in accordance with Chapter 150B of the General Statutes. A change in a reimbursement amount becomes effective as of the date for which the change is approved by the ~~Health Care Financing Administration~~ Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services of the United States Department of Health and Human Services. For any public notice of change required pursuant to the provisions of 42 C.F.R. § 447.205, the Department shall, no later than seven business days after the date of publication, publish the same notice on its Web site on the same Web page as it publishes State Plan amendments, and the notice shall remain on the Web site continuously for 90 days. The Department shall report to the Fiscal Research ~~Division of the Legislative Services Office~~ Division, ~~and to~~ the Senate Appropriations Committee on ~~Human Resources~~ Health and Human Services, and the House of Representatives ~~Appropriations Subcommittee on Human Resources or the Joint Legislative Commission on Health Care Oversight~~ Appropriations Subcommittee on Health and Human Services on any change in a reimbursement amount at the same time as it sends out public notice of this change prior to presentation to the ~~Health Care Financing Administration~~ Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services."

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO AMEND THE LAWS REGARDING DISPOSITION OF BLOOD EVIDENCE, ADMISSIBILITY OF REPORTS AFTER NOTICE AND DEMAND, AND EXPUNCTION OF DNA SAMPLES TAKEN UPON ARREST, AND TO CHANGE THE METHOD FOR DETERMINING THE SENIOR RESIDENT SUPERIOR COURT JUDGE FOR A DISTRICT.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 20-139.1 is amended by adding a new section to read:

"(h) Disposition of Blood Evidence – Notwithstanding any other provision of law, any blood or urine sample subject to chemical analysis for the presence of alcohol, a controlled substance or its metabolite, or any impairing substance pursuant to this section may be destroyed by the analyzing agency 12 months after the issuance date of the report of all examinations conducted, without further notice to the parties. However, if a Motion to Preserve the evidence has been filed by either party, the evidence shall remain in the custody of the analyzing agency or the agency that collected the sample until dispositive order of a court of competent jurisdiction is entered."

SECTION 2. G.S. 8-58.20(f) reads as rewritten:

"(f) If the defendant's attorney of record, or the defendant if that person has no attorney, fails to file a written objection with the court to the use of the laboratory report and affidavit within the time allowed by this section, then the laboratory report and affidavit ~~may~~ shall be admitted in evidence in any proceeding without the testimony of the analyst subject to the presiding judge ruling otherwise at the proceeding when offered. If, however, a written objection is filed, this section does not apply and the admissibility of the evidence shall be determined and governed by the appropriate rules of evidence."

SECTION 3. G.S. 8-58.20(g)(5) reads as rewritten:

"(5) If the defendant's attorney of record, or the defendant if that person has no attorney, fails to file the written objection as provided in this subsection, then the statement ~~may~~ shall be admitted into evidence without the necessity of a personal appearance by the person signing the statement."

SECTION 4. G.S. 20-139.1(c1) reads as rewritten:

"(c1) Admissibility. – The results of a chemical analysis of blood or urine reported by the North Carolina State Crime Laboratory, the Charlotte, North Carolina, Police Department

Laboratory, or any other laboratory approved for chemical analysis by the Department of Health and Human Services, are admissible as evidence in all administrative hearings, and in any court, without further authentication and without the testimony of the analyst. The results shall be certified by the person who performed the analysis. The provisions of this subsection may be utilized in any administrative hearing, but can only be utilized in cases tried in the district and superior court divisions, or in an adjudicatory hearing in juvenile court, if:

(1) The State notifies the defendant at least 15 business days before the proceeding at which the evidence would be used of its intention to introduce the report into evidence under this subsection and provides a copy of the report to the defendant, and

(2) The defendant fails to file a written objection with the court, with a copy to the State, at least five business days before the proceeding at which the report would be used that the defendant objects to the introduction of the report into evidence.

If the defendant's attorney of record, or the defendant if that person has no attorney, fails to file a written objection as provided in this subsection, then the report ~~may~~ shall be admitted into evidence without the testimony of the analyst. Upon filing a timely objection, the admissibility of the report shall be determined and governed by the appropriate rules of evidence.

The report containing the results of any blood or urine test may be transmitted electronically or via facsimile. A copy of the affidavit sent electronically or via facsimile shall be admissible in any court or administrative hearing without further authentication. A copy of the report shall be sent to the charging officer, the clerk of superior court in the county in which the criminal charges are pending, the Division of Motor Vehicles, and the Department of Health and Human Services.

Nothing in this subsection precludes the right of any party to call any witness or to introduce any evidence supporting or contradicting the evidence contained in the report."

SECTION 5. G.S. 20-139.1(c3) reads as rewritten:

"(c3) Procedure for Establishing Chain of Custody Without Calling Unnecessary Witnesses. –

(1) For the purpose of establishing the chain of physical custody or control of blood or urine tested or analyzed to determine whether it contains alcohol, a controlled substance or its metabolite, or any impairing substance, a statement signed by each successive person in the chain of custody that the person delivered it to the other person indicated on or about the date stated is prima facie evidence that the person had custody and made the delivery as stated, without the necessity of a personal appearance in court by the person signing the statement.

(2) The statement shall contain a sufficient description of the material or its container so as to distinguish it as the particular item in question and shall state that the material was delivered in essentially the same condition as received. The statement may be placed on the same document as the report provided for in subsection (c1) of this section.

(3) The provisions of this subsection may be utilized in any administrative hearing, but can only be utilized in cases tried in the district and superior court divisions, or in an adjudicatory hearing in juvenile court, if:

a. The State notifies the defendant at least 15 business days before the proceeding at which the statement would be used of its intention to introduce the statement into evidence under this subsection and provides a copy of the statement to the defendant, and

b. The defendant fails to file a written notification with the court, with a copy to the State, at least five business days before the proceeding at which the statement would be used that the defendant objects to the introduction of the statement into evidence.

If the defendant's attorney of record, or the defendant if that person has no attorney, fails to file a written objection as provided in this subsection, then the statement ~~may~~ shall be admitted into evidence without the necessity of a personal appearance by the person signing the statement. Upon filing a timely objection, the admissibility of the report shall be determined and governed by the appropriate rules of evidence.

(4) Nothing in this subsection precludes the right of any party to call any witness or to introduce any evidence supporting or contradicting the evidence contained in the statement."

SECTION 6. G.S. 20-139.1(e1) reads as rewritten:

"(e1) Use of Chemical Analyst's Affidavit in District Court. – An affidavit by a chemical analyst sworn to and properly executed before an official authorized to administer oaths ~~is~~ shall be admissible in evidence without further authentication and without the testimony of the analyst in any hearing or trial in the District Court Division of the General Court of Justice with respect to the following matters:

(1) The alcohol concentration or concentrations or the presence or absence of an impairing substance of a person given a chemical analysis and who is involved in the hearing or trial.

(2) The time of the collection of the blood, breath, or other bodily fluid or substance sample or samples for the chemical analysis.

(3) The type of chemical analysis administered and the procedures followed.

(4) The type and status of any permit issued by the Department of Health and Human Services that the analyst held on the date the analyst performed the chemical analysis in question.

(5) If the chemical analysis is performed on a breath-testing instrument for which regulations adopted pursuant to subsection (b) require preventive maintenance, the date the most recent preventive maintenance procedures were performed on the breath-testing instrument used, as shown on the maintenance records for that instrument.

The Department of Health and Human Services shall develop a form for use by chemical analysts in making this affidavit."

SECTION 7. G.S. 90-95(g) reads as rewritten:

"(g) Whenever matter is submitted to the North Carolina State Crime Laboratory, the Charlotte, North Carolina, Police Department Laboratory or to the Toxicology Laboratory, Reynolds Health Center, Winston-Salem for chemical analysis to determine if the matter is or contains a controlled substance, the report of that analysis certified to upon a form approved by the Attorney General by the person performing the analysis shall be admissible without further authentication and without the testimony of the analyst in all proceedings in the district court and superior court divisions of the General Court of Justice as evidence of the identity, nature, and quantity of the matter analyzed. Provided, however, the provisions of this subsection may be utilized by the State only if:

(1) The State notifies the defendant at least 15 business days before the proceeding at which the report would be used of its intention to introduce the report into evidence under this subsection and provides a copy of the report to the defendant, and

(2) The defendant fails to file a written objection with the court, with a copy to the State, at least five business days before the proceeding that the defendant objects to the introduction of the report into evidence.

If the defendant's attorney of record, or the defendant if that person has no attorney, fails to file a written objection as provided in this subsection, then the report ~~may~~ shall be admitted into evidence without the testimony of the analyst. Upon filing a timely objection, the admissibility of the report shall be determined and governed by the appropriate rules of evidence.

Nothing in this subsection precludes the right of any party to call any witness or to introduce any evidence supporting or contradicting the evidence contained in the report."

SECTION 8. G.S. 90-95(g1) reads as rewritten:

"(g1) Procedure for establishing chain of custody without calling unnecessary witnesses. –

(1) For the purpose of establishing the chain of physical custody or control of evidence consisting of or containing a substance tested or analyzed to determine whether it is a controlled substance, a statement signed by each successive person in the chain of custody that the person delivered it to the other person indicated on or about the date stated is prima facie evidence that the person had custody and made the delivery as stated, without the necessity of a personal appearance in court by the person signing the statement.

(2) The statement shall contain a sufficient description of the material or its container so as to distinguish it as the particular item in question and shall state that the material was delivered in essentially the same condition as received. The statement may be placed on the same document as the report provided for in subsection (g) of this section.

(3) The provisions of this subsection may be utilized by the State only if:

a. The State notifies the defendant at least 15 days before trial of its intention to introduce the statement into evidence under this subsection and provides the defendant with a copy of the statement, and

b. The defendant fails to notify the State at least five days before trial that the defendant objects to the introduction of the statement into evidence.

If the defendant's attorney of record, or the defendant if that person has no attorney, fails to file a written objection as provided in this subsection, then the statement shall be admitted into evidence without the necessity of a personal appearance by the person signing the statement. Upon filing a timely objection, the admissibility of the report shall be determined and governed by the appropriate rules of evidence.

(4) Nothing in this subsection precludes the right of any party to call any witness or to introduce any evidence supporting or contradicting the evidence contained in the statement."

SECTION 9. G.S. 15A-266.3A reads as rewritten:

"§ 15A-266.3A. DNA sample required for DNA analysis upon arrest for certain offenses.

(i) ~~Prior to June 1, 2012, upon~~Upon the occurrence of one of the events in ~~sub-subdivision d. or e. of~~ subdivision (1) of subsection (h) of this section, the defendant or the defendant's counsel shall provide the prosecuting district attorney with a signed request form, promulgated by the Administrative Office of the Courts, requesting that the defendant's DNA record be expunged from the DNA Database and that any biological samples in the DNA Databank be destroyed. ~~On or after June 1, 2012, upon the occurrence of one of the events in sub-subdivision d. or e. of subdivision (1) of subsection (h) of this section, no request form shall be required and the prosecuting district attorney shall initiate the procedure provided in subsection (j) of this section.~~

(j) ~~Prior to June 1, 2012, within~~Within 30 days of the receipt of the form required by subsection (i) of this ~~section or the occurrence of one of the events in sub-subdivision a., b., or c. of subdivision (1) of subsection (h) of this section; and on or after June 1, 2012, within 30 days of the occurrence of one of the events in subdivision (1) of subsection (h) of this~~ section, the prosecuting district attorney shall determine if a DNA sample was taken pursuant to this section, and if so, shall:

(1) Verify and indicate the facts of the qualifying event on a verification form promulgated by the Administrative Office of the Courts.

(2) Include the last known address of the defendant, as reflected in the court files, on the verification form.

(3) Sign the verification form or, if the defendant was acquitted or the charges were dismissed by the court, obtain the signature of a judge.

(4) Transmit the verification form to the SBI.

(k) Within ~~30~~ 90 days of receipt of the verification form, the SBI shall:

(1) Determine whether the requirement of subdivision (2) of subsection (h) of this section has been met.

(2) If the requirement has been met, remove the defendant's DNA record and samples as required by subsection (h) of this section.

(3) Mail to the defendant, at the address specified in the verification form, a notice either:

a. Documenting expunction of the DNA record and destruction of the DNA sample, or

b. Notifying the defendant that the DNA record and sample do not qualify for expunction pursuant to subsection (h) of this section.

..."

SECTION 10. This act becomes effective December 1, 2012. Sections 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, and 8 of this act apply to proceedings that occur on or after December 1, 2012.

HOUSE BILL 690:
Amend Evidence & Expunction Laws

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Ref to Judiciary I. If fav, re-ref to Finance	Date:	May 23, 2012
Introduced by:	Reps. Stevens, Jordan, T. Moore	Prepared by:	Susan Sitze Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	PCS to Third Edition H690-CSLH-10

SUMMARY: The Proposed Committee Substitute for House Bill 690 would amend the laws regarding disposition of blood evidence, the admissibility of analyst statements, and the expunction of DNA samples taken upon arrest.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 would authorize the destruction of blood or urine samples, taken upon arrest for an implied consent offense, for chemical analysis for the presence of alcohol, a controlled substance or its metabolite, or any impairing substance 12 months after the issuance of the report, without further notice to the parties. If a motion to preserve evidence has been filed by a party, the evidence shall be retained until a court issues a dispositive order.

Sections 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7 & 8 would amend various statutes relating to the admissibility of an analyst's report or a chain of custody report without the testimony of the analyst or the persons in the chain of custody to provide that after notice by the district attorney of the intent to submit the report as evidence, if the defendant or the defendant's attorney does not file written objection, the report shall be admissible as evidence without the personal appearance of the analyst or persons in the chain of custody.

Section 9 would allow the SBI 90 days, instead of the current 30 days, after receipt of a verification form to determine whether a DNA sample that was taken upon arrest of a defendant is eligible for expunction, remove the sample from the database if it is eligible for expunction, and mail notice to the defendant.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act becomes effective December 1, 2012. Sections 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, and 8 of this act apply to proceedings that occur on or after December 1, 2012.

SECTION 1. Section 19.1(cc) of S.L. 2011-145 is repealed.

SECTION 2. The evidence warehouse that was operated by the Law Enforcement Support Services Division of the Department of Crime Control and Public Safety prior to January 1, 2012, is transferred to the Office of External Affairs in the Department of Public Safety. All State-owned personal property located in or associated with the warehouse and all evidence of any type, including rape kits, located in the warehouse are reallocated to the Office of External Affairs in the Department of Public Safety. The warehouse shall be known as the "Victim Services Warehouse." The Department of Public Safety shall assume any lease to which the warehouse is subject at the time this section becomes effective.

SECTION 3. G.S. 143B-600(a)(7) reads as rewritten:

"(7) The Office of External Affairs, which shall be responsible for federal and State liaison activities, victim services, the Victim Services Warehouse and the storage and management of evidence and other contents housed in the warehouse, and public affairs."

SECTION 4. G.S. 143B-601 is amended by adding the following new subdivisions to read:

"(12) To provide central storage and management of evidence according to the provisions of Article 13 of Chapter 15A of the General Statutes and create and maintain a databank of statewide storage locations of postconviction evidence or other similar programs.

(13) To provide central storage and management of rape kits according to the federal Violence Against Women and Department of Justice Reauthorization Act of 2005 with specific protections against release of names of victims providing anonymous or "Jane Doe" rape kits without victim consent.

(14) To provide for the storage and management of evidence."

SECTION 5. This act is effective when it becomes law.

SENATE BILL 881:
Transfer Evidence Warehouse to DPS

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary I	Date:	June 7, 2012
Introduced by:	Sen. Goolsby	Prepared by:	Susan Sitze
Analysis of:	First Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 881 transfers responsibility for the evidence warehouse operated by the Law Enforcement Support Services Division of the Department of Crime Control and Public Safety prior to January 1, 2012, to the Office of External Affairs in the Department of Public Safety. The bill also amends Article 13 of Chapter 143B, establishing the Department of Public Safety, to add the provision of central storage and management of evidence to the duties of the Department. The bill was recommended by the Joint Legislative Oversight Committee on Justice and Public Safety.

[As introduced, this bill was identical to H968, as introduced by Reps. Randleman, Boles, which is currently in Unknown.]

CURRENT LAW: G.S. 143B-600 provides for 6 divisions within the Department of Public Safety including the Office of External Affairs (OEA). OEA is currently charged with responsibility for federal and State liaison activities, victim services, and public affairs.

BILL ANALYSIS: Section 1 repeals Section 19.1(cc) of S.L. 2011-145 which reallocated the evidence warehouse that was operated by the Law Enforcement Support Services Division of the Division of Crime Control and Public Safety to the NC State Crime Lab of the Department of Justice.

Section 2 transfers the evidence warehouse to the Office of External Affairs (OEA) in the Department of Public Safety. All State-owned personal property located in or associated with the warehouse is reallocated to the OEA. The warehouse is to be known as the Victim Services Warehouse. The Department of Public Safety shall assume any lease on the warehouse as of the effective date of the bill.

Section 3 amends G.S. 143B-600 to add the evidence warehouse and the storage and management of evidence and other contents housed therein to the responsibilities of the OEA.

Section 4 amends the powers and duties of the Department of Public Safety set out in G.S. 143B-601 to include:

- Provision of central storage and management of evidence according to the DNA Database and Databank Act of 1993 (Article 13 of Chapter 15A) and creation and maintenance of a databank of statewide storage locations of postconviction evidence or other similar program.
- Provision of central storage and management of rape kits according to the federal Violence Against Women and Department of Justice Reauthorization Act of 2005 with specific protections against release of names of victims providing anonymous rape kits without victim consent.
- Provision for the storage and management of evidence.

EFFECTIVE DATE: The act is effective when it becomes law.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO CLARIFY, MODIFY, AND CONSOLIDATE THE LAW APPLICABLE TO THE PASSING OF TITLE TO INTERESTS IN REAL AND PERSONAL PROPERTY DEVISED BY A WILL AND THE RIGHTS OF LIEN CREDITORS AND PURCHASERS FOR VALUE, AS RECOMMENDED BY THE GENERAL STATUTES COMMISSION.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 28A-2A-1 reads as rewritten:

"§ 28A-2A-1. Executor may apply for probate.

Any executor named in a will may, at any time after the death of the testator, apply to the clerk of the superior court, having jurisdiction, to have the ~~same~~ will admitted to probate. ~~Such will shall not be valid or effective to pass real estate or personal property as against innocent purchasers for value and without notice, unless it is probated or offered for probate within two years after the death of the testator or devisor or prior to the time of approval of the final account of a duly appointed administrator of the estate of the deceased, whichever time is earlier. If such will is fraudulently suppressed, stolen or destroyed, or has been lost, and an action or proceeding shall be commenced within two years from the death of the testator or devisor to obtain said will or establish the same as provided by law, then the limitation herein set out shall only begin to run from the termination of said action or proceeding, but not otherwise.~~"

SECTION 2. G.S. 31-39 reads as rewritten:

"§ 31-39. Probate necessary to pass title; rights of lien creditors and purchasers; recordation in county where ~~land lies; rights of innocent purchasers.~~real property lies.

~~No will shall be effectual to pass real or personal estate unless it shall have been duly proved and allowed in the probate court of the proper county, and a duly certified copy thereof shall be recorded in the office of the superior court clerk of the county wherein the land is situate, and the probate of a will devising real estate shall be conclusive as to the execution thereof against the heirs and devisees of the testator, whenever the probate thereof under the like circumstances, would be conclusive against the next of kin and legatees of the testator: Provided, that the probate and registration of any will shall not affect the rights of innocent purchasers for value from the heirs at law of the testator when such purchase is made more than two years after the death of such testator or when such purchase is made after the filing of the final account by the duly authorized administrator of the decedent and the approval thereof by the clerk of the superior court having jurisdiction of the estate. Such conveyances, if made~~

~~before the expiration of the time required by this section to have elapsed in order for same to be valid against the heirs and devisees of the testator, shall, upon the expiration of such time, become good and valid to the same effect as if made after the expiration of such time, unless in the meantime a proceeding shall have been instituted in the proper court to probate the will of the testator.~~

(a) A duly probated will is effective to pass title to real and personal property.

(b) A will is not effective to pass title to real or personal property as against lien creditors or purchasers for valuable consideration from the intestate heirs at law of a decedent, unless the will is probated or offered for probate before the earlier of (i) the date of the approval by the clerk of the superior court having jurisdiction of the decedent's estate of the final account filed by the personal representative of the decedent's estate, or (ii) the date that is two years from the date of death of the decedent. If the will is fraudulently suppressed, stolen, or destroyed, or is lost, and an action or proceeding is instituted within the time limitation set forth in this subsection to obtain that will or establish that will as provided by law, the time limitation under this subsection begins to run from the termination of that action or proceeding.

(c) A will duly probated in one county of this State is not effective to pass title to an interest in real property located in any other county of this State as against lien creditors or purchasers for valuable consideration from the intestate heirs at law of a decedent unless a certified copy of the will is filed in the office of the clerk of superior court in the county where the real property lies within the time limitation set forth in subsection (b) of this section.

(d) A conveyance made by the intestate heirs at law of a decedent before the expiration of the time limitation set forth in subsection (b) of this section shall, upon the expiration of that time, become effective to the same extent as if the conveyance were made after the expiration of that time, unless before the expiration of that time, a proceeding is instituted in the proper court to probate a will of the decedent."

SECTION 3. This act is effective October 1, 2012, and applies to estates of decedents dying on or after that date.

MEMORANDUM
June 5, 2012

TO: Senate Judiciary I Committee
FROM: General Statutes Commission
RE: HB 1066 (Passing Title by Will)

General Comments

This bill separates and puts into a more logical order the provisions applicable to where and when a will may be submitted for probate (in Chapter 28A of the General Statutes, entitled "Administration of Decedents' Estates") and the provisions applicable to the effect of probating a will upon the property of a decedent (in Chapter 31 of the General Statutes, entitled "Wills"). In addition, the bill consolidates in one section, G.S. 31-39, the provisions applicable to the effect of probate upon the rights of lien creditors and purchasers for value of a decedent's real property from the decedent's heirs at law, both for wills probated in the county where the decedent's real property is located and for wills initially probated in another county. The revisions to G.S. 31-39 eliminate from that section certain language that was confusing, archaic and vague. They also clarify the extent of the protections given lien creditors and purchasers for value from a decedent's heirs. When these protections apply, they are extended to all lien creditors and purchasers for value rather than just "innocent" purchasers for value, making these protections consistent with the current protections given to lien creditors and purchasers for value under the law governing the recording of deeds (as provided under G.S. 47-18).

Specific Comments

Section 1 deletes from G.S. 28A-2A-1 the following provisions which are modified and relocated to G.S. 31-39 by Section 2 of the bill:

- A will is ineffective to pass real or personal property as against innocent purchasers for value and without notice, unless the will is probated or offered for probate within two years after the death of the testator or before the approval of the final account of a duly appointed administrator, whichever time is earlier.

- If a will is fraudulently suppressed, stolen, or destroyed, or has been lost, and an action or proceeding has been commenced within two years of the death of the testator to obtain or establish the will, the two-year time limitation set out above begins to run from the termination of the action or proceeding.

Section 2 amends G.S. 31-39 to clarify, modernize, modify, and consolidate the law applicable to the passing of title to property devised by a will and the rights of lien creditors and purchasers for value.

Subsection (a) continues current law in providing that a duly probated will is effective to pass real and personal property.

Subsection (b) contains the substance of the provisions deleted from current G.S. 28A-2A-1 by Section 1 of the bill and the similar provisions of current G.S. 31-39. The language has been updated. In addition, the current phrase "innocent purchasers for value" has been replaced with the phrase "lien creditors or purchasers for valuable consideration." This change makes the protections given to lien creditors and purchasers for value from the decedent's heirs consistent with those under the statutes on the recording of deeds, specifically G.S. 47-18. Except for that change, no substantive change is intended.

Subsection (c) clarifies that a will duly probated in one county is ineffective to pass title to real property located in any other county as against lien creditors or purchasers for valuable consideration from a decedent's intestate heirs at law, unless a certified copy of the will is filed in the office of the clerk of superior court in the county where the real property lies within the time limit under subsection (b).

Subsection (d) restates and continues current law in providing that a conveyance made by a decedent's heirs before the expiration of the time limit under subsection (b) becomes just as effective, once that time limit has passed, as if it had been made after that time. This provision applies unless someone brings a proceeding to probate the decedent's will before that time expires.

Section 3 provides for the amendments to become effective October 1, 2012, and to apply to estates of decedents dying on or after that date.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO CONFORM THE LAW GOVERNING CO-OWNERS WITH RIGHT OF SURVIVORSHIP UNDER THE SIMULTANEOUS DEATH ACT TO THE LAW GOVERNING THE HOLDING OF UNEQUAL SHARES IN A JOINT TENANCY WITH RIGHT OF SURVIVORSHIP, AS RECOMMENDED BY THE GENERAL STATUTES COMMISSION.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 28A-24-3 reads as rewritten:

"§ 28A-24-3. Co-owners with right of survivorship; requirement of survival by 120 hours.

~~Except as otherwise provided in this Article, (i) if it is not established by clear and convincing evidence that one of two co-owners with right of survivorship survived the other co-owner by at least 120 hours, one-half of the property passes as if one had survived by at least 120 hours and one half as if the other had survived by at least 120 hours and (ii) if there are more than two co-owners with right of survivorship and it is not established by clear and convincing evidence that at least one of them survived the others by at least 120 hours, the property passes to the estates of each of the co-owners in the proportion that one bears to the whole number of co-owners.~~

Except as otherwise provided in this Article:

(1) If there are two or more co-owners with right of survivorship and it is not established by clear and convincing evidence that at least one of them survived the other or others by at least 120 hours, then, unless the governing instrument provides otherwise, each co-owner's pro rata interest in the property passes as if that co-owner had survived all other co-owners by at least 120 hours.

(2) If there are two or more co-owners with right of survivorship and it is established by clear and convincing evidence that at least one of them survived the other or others by at least 120 hours, then, unless the governing instrument provides otherwise, the pro rata interest or interests of the deceased owner or owners who are not established by clear and convincing evidence to have survived by at least 120 hours passes to (i) the remaining owner if only one or (ii) if more than one, then to those remaining owners according to the pro rata interest of each."

SECTION 2. G.S. 41-2(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) The interests of the grantees holding property in joint tenancy with right of survivorship shall be deemed to be equal unless otherwise specified in the conveyance. Any joint tenancy interest held by a husband and wife, unless otherwise specified, shall be deemed to be held as a single tenancy by the entirety, which shall be treated as a single party when determining interests in the joint tenancy with right of survivorship. ~~If joint~~Joint tenancy interests among ~~three~~ two or more joint tenants holding property in joint tenancy with right of survivorship are ~~held in unequal shares, upon the death of one joint tenant, the share of the deceased joint tenant shall be divided among the surviving joint tenants according to their respective pro rata interest and not equally, unless the creating instrument provides otherwise.~~subject to the provisions of G.S. 28A-24-3 upon the death of one or more of the joint tenants.

This subsection shall apply to any conveyance of an interest in property created at any time that explicitly sought to create unequal ownership interests in a joint tenancy with right of survivorship. Distributions made prior to the enactment of this subsection that were made in equal amounts from a joint tenancy with the right of survivorship that sought to create unequal ownership shares shall remain valid and shall not be subject to modification on the basis of this subsection."

SECTION 3. This act is effective October 1, 2012.

MEMORANDUM
June 5, 2012

TO: Senate Judiciary I Committee
FROM: General Statutes Commission
RE: HB 1067 (Co-owners/Unequal Shares/Simultaneous Death)

General Comments

This bill amends G.S. 28A-24-3 to conform to the 2009 amendments to G.S. 41-2 with respect to the holding of unequal shares in a joint tenancy with right of survivorship.

G.S. 28A-24-3 is part of the Revised Uniform Simultaneous Death Act. G.S. 28A-24-3 requires a co-owner of property with right of survivorship, e.g., joint tenants in a joint tenancy with right of survivorship, to survive the other co-owner or co-owners by at least 120 hours in order to inherit from the other co-owners. Otherwise, if there are two co-owners and neither survives the other by that amount of time, one-half of the property passes as if one had survived by 120 hours and one-half as if the other had survived by 120 hours. If there are more than two co-owners, the property passes in the proportion that one co-owner bears to the whole number of co-owners. This provision assumes that the co-owners have equal shares in the property.

G.S. 41-2, the basic statute dealing with the features of a joint tenancy, was amended in 2009 to clarify that interests in a joint tenancy with right of survivorship may be held in unequal shares. No conforming change was made at that time to G.S. 28A-24-3 to account for co-owners whose shares are not equal.

Specific Comments

Section 1 rewrites G.S. 28A-24-3 to conform to G.S. 41-2, which was amended by Session Law 2009-268 to clarify that interests in a joint tenancy with a right of survivorship may be held in unequal shares.

Section 2 amends G.S. 41-2(b) to provide that joint tenancy interests among two or more joint tenants holding property in joint tenancy with right of survivorship are subject to G.S. 28A-24-3 upon the death of one or more of the joint tenants. This provision replaces the current provision governing the division of joint tenancy interests upon the death of one joint tenant.

Section 3 provides for the amendments to become effective October 1, 2012.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO INCREASE THE MINIMUM AMOUNT OF INTESTATE PERSONAL PROPERTY PASSING TO THE SURVIVING SPOUSE AND THE AMOUNT OF THE YEAR'S ALLOWANCE FROM A DECEDENT'S ESTATE FOR A SURVIVING CHILD, TO REINSERT ERRONEOUSLY REMOVED REFERENCES TO A CHILD'S "NEXT FRIEND" IN THE STATUTES RELATING TO A CHILD'S YEAR'S ALLOWANCE, AND TO SPECIFY THAT THE CHILD'S YEAR'S ALLOWANCE MAY BE PAID TO A WIDOWER ON THE CHILD'S BEHALF AS WELL AS TO A WIDOW, AS RECOMMENDED BY THE GENERAL STATUTES COMMISSION.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 29-14(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Personal Property. – The share of the surviving spouse in the personal property is:

(1) If the intestate is survived by only one child or by any lineal descendant of only one deceased child, and the net personal property does not exceed ~~thirty thousand dollars ($30,000)~~sixty thousand dollars ($60,000) in value, all of the personal property; if the net personal property exceeds ~~thirty thousand dollars ($30,000)~~sixty thousand dollars ($60,000) in value, the sum of ~~thirty thousand dollars ($30,000)~~sixty thousand dollars ($60,000) plus one half of the balance of the personal property;

(2) If the intestate is survived by two or more children, or by one child and any lineal descendant of one or more deceased children, or by lineal descendants of two or more deceased children, and the net personal property does not exceed ~~thirty thousand dollars ($30,000)~~sixty thousand dollars ($60,000) in value, all of the personal property; if the net personal property exceeds ~~thirty thousand dollars ($30,000)~~sixty thousand dollars ($60,000) in value, the sum of ~~thirty thousand dollars ($30,000)~~sixty thousand dollars ($60,000) plus one third of the balance of the personal property;

(3) If the intestate is not survived by a child, children, or any lineal descendant of a deceased child or children, but is survived by one or more parents, and the net personal property does not exceed ~~fifty thousand dollars ($50,000)~~one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) in value, all of the personal property; if the net personal property exceeds ~~fifty thousand dollars ($50,000)~~one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) in value, the sum of ~~fifty thousand dollars ($50,000)~~one hundred thousand dollars ($100,000) plus one half of the balance of the personal property;

(4) If the intestate is not survived by a child, children, or any lineal descendant of a deceased child or children, or by a parent, all of the personal property."

SECTION 2.(a) G.S. 30-17 reads as rewritten:

"§ 30-17. When children entitled to an allowance.

Whenever any parent dies survived by any child under the age of 18 years, including an adopted child or a child with whom the widow may be pregnant at the death of her husband, or a child who is less than 22 years of age and is a full-time student in any educational institution, or a child under 21 years of age who has been declared mentally incompetent, or a child under 21 years of age who is totally disabled, or any other person under the age of 18 years residing with the deceased parent at the time of death to whom the deceased parent or the surviving parent stood in loco parentis, every such child shall be entitled to receive an allowance of two thousand dollars ($2,000) for the child's support for the year next ensuing the death of ~~such~~ the parent. ~~Such~~ The allowance shall be in addition to the child's share of the deceased parent's estate and shall be exempt from any lien by judgment or execution against the property of ~~such~~ the deceased parent. The personal representative of the deceased parent shall, within one year after the parent's death, assign to every such child the allowance herein provided for; but if there is no personal representative or if the personal representative fails or refuses to act within 10 days after written ~~request~~ application by a guardian or next friend on behalf of ~~such~~ the child, the allowance may be assigned by a magistrate or clerk of court upon ~~application of said guardian.~~ application.

If the child resides with the ~~widow~~ surviving spouse of the deceased parent at the time ~~such~~ the allowance is paid, the allowance shall be paid to ~~said widow~~the surviving spouse for the benefit of ~~said~~ the child. If the child resides with its surviving parent who is other than the ~~widow~~ surviving spouse of the deceased parent, ~~such~~ the allowance shall be paid to ~~said~~ the surviving parent for the use and benefit of ~~such child, regardless of whether the deceased died testate or intestate or whether the widow dissented from the will.~~the child. The payment shall be made regardless of whether the deceased died testate or intestate or whether the surviving spouse petitioned for an elective share under Article 1A of Chapter 30 of the General Statutes. Provided, however, the allowance shall not be available to an illegitimate child of a deceased father, unless ~~such~~ the deceased father ~~shall have~~has recognized the paternity of ~~such~~ the illegitimate child by deed, ~~will~~ will, or other paper-writing. If the child does not reside with a surviving spouse or a surviving parent when the allowance is paid, the allowance shall be paid to the child's general guardian, if any, and if none, to the clerk of the superior court who shall receive and disburse ~~same~~ the allowance for the benefit of ~~such~~ the child."

SECTION 2.(b) G.S. 30-20 reads as rewritten:

"§ 30-20. Procedure for assignment.

Upon the application of the surviving spouse, a child by the child's ~~guardian,~~guardian or next friend, or the personal representative of the deceased, the clerk of superior court of the county in which the deceased resided may assign the inquiry to a magistrate of the county. The clerk of court, or magistrate upon assignment, shall ascertain the person or persons entitled to an allowance according to the provisions of this Article, and determine the money or other personal property of the estate, and pay over to or assign to the surviving spouse and to the children, if any, so much thereof as they shall be entitled to as provided in this Article. Any deficiencies shall be made up from any of the personal property of the deceased, and if the personal property of the estate shall be insufficient to satisfy ~~such~~ the allowance, the clerk of the superior court shall enter judgment against the personal representative for the amount of ~~such~~ the deficiency, to be paid when a sufficiency of such assets shall come into the personal representative's hands."

SECTION 2.(c) G.S. 30-21 reads as rewritten:

"§ 30-21. Report of clerk or magistrate.

The clerk of court, or magistrate upon assignment, shall make and sign three lists of the money or other personal property assigned to each person, stating their quantity and value, and the deficiency to be paid by the personal representative. Where the allowance is to the surviving spouse, one of these lists shall be delivered to the surviving spouse. Where the allowance is to a child, one of these lists shall be delivered to the surviving parent with whom the child is living; or to the child's guardian or next friend if the child is not living with ~~said~~ the surviving parent; or to the child if ~~said~~ the child is not living with the surviving parent and has no ~~guardian.~~guardian or next friend. One list shall be delivered to the personal representative. One list shall be returned by the magistrate or clerk, within 20 days after the assignment, to the superior court of the county in which administration was granted or the will probated, and the clerk shall file and record the ~~same,~~list, together with any judgment entered pursuant to G.S. 30-20."

SECTION 2.(d) G.S. 30-23 reads as rewritten:

"§ 30-23. Right of appeal.

The personal representative, or the surviving spouse, or child by a the child's ~~guardian,~~guardian or next friend, or any creditor, devisee, or heir of the deceased, may appeal from the finding of the magistrate or clerk of court to the superior court of the county, by filing a copy of the assignment and a notice of appeal within 10 days after the assignment, and the appeal shall be heard as provided in G.S. 1-301.2, provided that the hearing on the appeal shall be at the next available session of superior court."

SECTION 2.(e) G.S. 30-27 reads as rewritten:

"§ 30-27. Surviving spouse or child may apply to superior court.

In addition to any support otherwise assigned to the surviving spouse or child ~~as above prescribed,~~under this Article, without application to the personal representative, the surviving spouse, or the child through the child's guardian or next friend may, after the date specified in the general notice to creditors as provided for in G.S. 28A-14-1(a), and within one year after the decedent's death, apply to the superior court of the county in which administration was granted or the will probated to have a year's support assigned at an amount other than prescribed in G.S. 30-15 and G.S. 30-17."

SECTION 3. G.S. 30-17, as amended by Section 2(a) of this act, reads as rewritten:

"§ 30-17. When children entitled to an allowance.

Whenever any parent dies survived by any child under the age of 18 years, including an adopted child or a child with whom the widow may be pregnant at the death of her husband, or a child who is less than 22 years of age and is a full-time student in any educational institution, or a child under 21 years of age who has been declared mentally incompetent, or a child under 21 years of age who is totally disabled, or any other person under the age of 18 years residing with the deceased parent at the time of death to whom the deceased parent or the surviving parent stood in loco parentis, every such child shall be entitled to receive an allowance of ~~two thousand dollars ($2,000)~~ five thousand dollars ($5,000) for the child's support for the year next ensuing the death of the parent. The allowance shall be in addition to the child's share of the deceased parent's estate and shall be exempt from any lien by judgment or execution against the property of the deceased parent. The personal representative of the deceased parent shall, within one year after the parent's death, assign to every such child the allowance herein provided for; but if there is no personal representative or if the personal representative fails or refuses to act within 10 days after written application by a guardian or next friend on behalf of the child, the allowance may be assigned by a magistrate or clerk of court upon application.

If the child resides with the surviving spouse of the deceased parent at the time the allowance is paid, the allowance shall be paid to the surviving spouse for the benefit of the child. If the child resides with its surviving parent who is other than the surviving spouse of the deceased parent, the allowance shall be paid to the surviving parent for the use and benefit of the child. The payment shall be made regardless of whether the deceased died testate or intestate or whether the surviving spouse petitioned for an elective share under Article 1A of Chapter 30 of the General Statutes. Provided, however, the allowance shall not be available to an illegitimate child of a deceased father, unless the deceased father has recognized the paternity of the illegitimate child by deed, will, or other paper-writing. If the child does not reside with a surviving spouse or a surviving parent when the allowance is paid, the allowance shall be paid to the child's general guardian, if any, and if none, to the clerk of the superior court who shall receive and disburse the allowance for the benefit of the child."

SECTION 4. Section 2 of this act is effective when this act becomes law. The remainder of this act becomes effective January 1, 2013, and applies to estates of persons dying on or after that date.

RE: HB 1069 (Intestate Property/Child's Year's Allowance)

General Comments

This bill increases the amounts of intestate personal property that pass to a spouse and the amount payable as a child's year's allowance from a decedent's estate. These amounts have not been increased since 1995. The bill also reinserts references to a child's "next friend" in the statutes relating to the child's year's allowance to prevent the need of appointing a guardian of the estate for every child entitled to the allowance; the term "next friend" was deleted throughout the statutes last year but had unintended consequences for these particular statutes.

Specific Comments

Section 1 amends G.S. 29-14(b) to increase the amount of personal property passing to a surviving spouse under the intestacy statutes. Currently, when a person dies intestate and has descendants, the surviving spouse inherits the first $30,000 of personal property and a percentage of the amount over that figure. If the decedent had no descendants but did have surviving parents, a surviving spouse inherits the first $50,000 of personal property and one-half of the remainder. The amendment in this section doubles those amounts to $60,000 and $100,000, respectively.

The last time these amounts were increased was in Chapter 262 of the 1995 Session Laws, which similarly doubled amounts previously set by Chapter 69 of the 1981 Session Laws.

Subsections 2.(a) through (e) amend G.S. 30-17, 30-20, 30-21, 30-23, and 30-27 primarily to reinsert references to a child's "next friend."

Meaning of "next friend": The term "next friend" refers to someone who acts for the benefit of a minor or incompetent person without having been appointed a guardian; it is also an archaic term for a guardian ad litem.

Last year's deletion of term throughout the statutes: The term "next friend" was deleted throughout the statutes last year in S.L. 2011-344 as part of a larger overhaul of estate law because, for the most part, it is an outdated term that is no longer needed.

Problem created: The removal of the term "next friend" from the statutes relating to the child's year's allowance leaves a guardian as the only person expressly authorized to apply for the allowance on the child's behalf.

The child's year's allowance is an amount of money payable on behalf of a minor child and certain other children up to the age of 21 or 22 from a deceased parent's personal property.

The allowance is intended to provide money for the child's support for the year following the deceased parent's death. Currently, the allowance is $2,000 per child.

Before last year's legislation, either a guardian or a "next friend" could apply to the deceased parent's personal representative (or to the clerk of court, as applicable) for payment of the child's year's allowance. The inclusion of "next friend" allowed, for example, the surviving parent to apply on the child's behalf rather than going through a separate legal proceeding to be appointed as the child's guardian of the estate. The statute can now be read as requiring a guardian of the estate to be appointed in every case where a child is entitled to the year's allowance unless a general guardian or guardian of the estate has already been appointed.

This bill restores the term "next friend" to avoid the need for this extra procedure.

Subsection 2.(a) makes an additional amendment to G.S. 30-17 to allow the child's year's allowance to be paid on the child's behalf to a widower as well as a widow if the child is living with that person.

Subsections 2.(a), (b), (c), and (e) also make stylistic changes to modernize the language.

Section 3 further amends G.S. 30-17 to increase the amount of the child's year's allowance from $2,000 to $5,000. This amount has not been increased since 1995, when it was doubled from the earlier figure by Chapter 262 of the 1995 Session Laws.

Section 4 provides effective dates for the bill. Section 2 is effective on becoming law. The remainder of the bill is effective January 1, 2013, and applies to estate of persons dying on or after that date.

SENATE JUDICIARY I COMMITTEE
Tuesday, June 19, 2012 at 10:00 AM
Room 1027, Legislative Building

MINUTES

The Senate Judiciary I Committee met at 10:00 AM on June 19, 2012, in Room 1027 of the Legislative Building. 10 members of the committee were present. Senator Thom Goolsby, presided.

The meeting adjourned at 10:11 AM.

HB 971-ACTIVE DUTY DEATH/LEASE TERMINATION-Representative Blust was recognized to explain the bill. This bill authorizes an immediate family member of a deceased armed services member, or a representative of the service member's estate, to terminate the service member's rental agreement if he or she dies while on active duty. Senator Brown moved for a favorable report and the motion carried.

HB 1068-AMEND UCC ARTICLE 9/SECURED TRANSACTIONS-Representative Blust was recognized to explain the bill. The bill was recommended by the General Statutes Commission. The legislation would codify the amendments recommended in 2010 for enactment in all states by the Uniform Law Commission and the American Law Institute. Generally speaking, the amendments address filing issues and other matters that have arisen in practice since the Article was last revised in 1998. Floyd Lewis and Bly Hall were present to recommend passage on behalf of the General Statutes Commission. Senator Tillman moved for a favorable report and the motion carried.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE LEASE TERMINATION FOR A SERVICE MEMBER WHO DIES WHILE ON ACTIVE DUTY, AS RECOMMENDED BY THE HOUSE SELECT COMMITTEE ON MILITARY AFFAIRS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 42-45 reads as rewritten:

"§ 42-45. Early termination of rental agreement by military ~~personnel.~~personnel, surviving family members, or lawful representative.

(a) Any member of the Armed Forces of the United States who (i) is required to move pursuant to permanent change of station orders to depart 50 miles or more from the location of the dwelling unit, or (ii) is prematurely or involuntarily discharged or released from active duty with the Armed Forces of the United States, may terminate the member's rental agreement for a dwelling unit by providing the landlord with a written notice of termination to be effective on a date stated in the notice that is at least 30 days after the landlord's receipt of the notice. The notice to the landlord must be accompanied by either a copy of the official military orders or a written verification signed by the member's commanding officer.

(a1) Any member of the Armed Forces of the United States who is deployed with a military unit for a period of not less than 90 days may terminate the member's rental agreement for a dwelling unit by providing the landlord with a written notice of termination. The notice to the landlord must be accompanied by either a copy of the official military orders or a written verification signed by the member's commanding officer. Termination of a lease pursuant to this subsection is effective 30 days after the first date on which the next rental payment is due or 45 days after the landlord's receipt of the notice, whichever is shorter, and payable after the date on which the notice of termination is delivered.

(a2) Upon termination of a rental agreement under this section, the tenant is liable for the rent due under the rental agreement prorated to the effective date of the termination payable at such time as would have otherwise been required by the terms of the rental agreement. The tenant is not liable for any other rent or damages due to the early termination of the tenancy except the liquidated damages provided in subsection (b) of this section. If a member terminates the rental agreement pursuant to this section 14 or more days prior to occupancy, no damages or penalties of any kind shall be due.

(a3) If a member of the Armed Forces of the United States dies while on active duty, then an immediate family member, or a lawful representative of the member's estate, may terminate the member's rental agreement for a dwelling unit by providing the landlord with a written notice of termination to be effective on the date described in subsection (a1) of this section. A copy of the death certificate, official military personnel casualty report, or letter from the commanding officer verifying the member's death must accompany the notice for this subsection to be effective. Termination of the member's lease obligations under this subsection shall also terminate the lease obligations of any cotenants who are immediate family members. If the member was a cotenant with a person who is not an immediate family member, then the termination shall relate only to the obligation of the member under the rental agreement. The prorated charges in subsection (a2) of this section and the liquidated damages provisions of subsection (b) of this section shall apply to any claims against the member's estate.

(b) In consideration of early termination of the rental agreement, the tenant is liable to the landlord for liquidated damages provided the tenant has completed less than nine months of the tenancy and the landlord has suffered actual damages due to loss of the tenancy. The liquidated damages shall be in an amount no greater than one month's rent if the tenant has completed less than six months of the tenancy as of the effective date of termination, or one-half of one month's rent if the tenant has completed at least six but less than nine months of the tenancy as of the effective date of termination.

(c) The provisions of this section may not be waived or modified by the agreement of the parties under any circumstances. Nothing in this section shall affect the rights established by G.S. 42-3."

SECTION 2. This act is effective when it becomes law.

HOUSE BILL 971:
Active Duty Death/Lease Termination

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary I	Date:	June 18, 2012
Introduced by:	Reps. Shepard, Cook	Prepared by:	Shelly DeAdder
Analysis of:	Second Edition		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: House Bill 971 authorizes an immediate family member of a deceased armed services member, or a representative of the service member's estate, to terminate the service member's rental agreement if he or she dies while on active duty.

CURRENT LAW: G.S. 42-45 currently provides that a service member may terminate his or her rental agreement in certain circumstances. There is currently no provision pertaining to termination of a rental agreement after the death of a service member.

BILL ANALYSIS: House Bill 971 adds subsection (a3) to G.S. 42-45. Pursuant to this subsection, if a service member dies while on active duty then an immediate family member or a representative of the service member's estate may terminate the deceased service member's rental agreement.

The individual terminating the rental agreement must provide a copy of the service member's death certificate, personnel casualty report, or a letter from the commanding officer verifying the service member's death.

The termination of the rental agreement is effective 30 days after the first date on which the next rental payment is due or 45 days after the landlord receives notice, whichever is shorter. The estate of the deceased service member is responsible for any liquidated damages and/or prorated rent that may be owed to the landlord.

Termination of the service member's rental agreement also terminates the lease obligations of any cotenants who are also immediate family members. If the service member was a cotenant with a person who is not an immediate family member, then the obligations of the cotenant are not affected by the rental agreement termination.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act is effective when it becomes law.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO AMEND ARTICLE 9 OF THE UNIFORM COMMERCIAL CODE RELATING TO SECURED TRANSACTIONS, AS RECOMMENDED BY THE GENERAL STATUTES COMMISSION.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

PART I. 2010 UCC ARTICLE 9 AMENDMENTS.

SECTION 1. G.S. 25-9-102(a) reads as rewritten:

"§ 25-9-102. Definitions and index of definitions.

(a) Article 9 definitions. – In this Article:

...

(7) "Authenticate" means:

a. To sign; or

b. ~~To execute or otherwise adopt a symbol, or encrypt or similarly process a record in whole or in part, with the present intent of the authenticating person to identify the person and adopt or accept a record.~~With present intent to adopt or accept a record, to attach to or logically associate with the record an electronic sound, symbol, or process.

...

(10) "Certificate of title" means a certificate of title with respect to which a statute provides for the security interest in question to be indicated on the certificate as a condition or result of the security interest's obtaining priority over the rights of a lien creditor with respect to the collateral. The term includes another record maintained as an alternative to a certificate of title by the governmental unit that issues certificates of title if a statute permits the security interest in question to be indicated on the record as a condition or result of the security interest's obtaining priority over the rights of a lien creditor with respect to the collateral.

...

(50) "Jurisdiction of organization", with respect to a registered organization, means the jurisdiction under whose law the organization is formed or organized.

...

(70a) "Public organic record" means a record that is available to the public for inspection and is:

a. A record consisting of the record initially filed with or issued by a state or the United States to form or organize an organization and any record filed with or issued by the state or the United States which amends or restates the initial record;

b. An organic record of a business trust consisting of the record initially filed with a state and any record filed with the state which amends or restates the initial record, if a statute of the state governing business trusts requires that the record be filed with the state; or

c. A record consisting of legislation enacted by the legislature of a state or the Congress of the United States which forms or organizes an organization, any record amending the legislation, and any record filed with or issued by the state or the United States which amends or restates the name of the organization.

...

(73) "Registered organization" means an organization formed or organized solely under the law of a single state or the United States ~~and as to which the state or the United States must maintain a public record showing the organization to have been organized.~~by the filing of a public organic record with, the issuance of a public organic record by, or the enactment of legislation by the state or the United States. The term includes a business trust that is formed or organized under the law of a single state if a statute of the state governing business trusts requires that the business trust's organic record be filed with the state.

...."

SECTION 2. G.S. 25-9-105 reads as rewritten:

"§ 25-9-105. Control of electronic chattel paper.

(a) General Rule: Control of Electronic Chattel Paper. – A secured party has control of electronic chattel paper if a system employed for evidencing the transfer of interests in the chattel paper reliably establishes the secured party as the person to which the chattel paper was assigned.

(b) Specific Facts Giving Control. – A system satisfies subsection (a) of this section if the record or records comprising the chattel paper are created, stored, and assigned in such a manner that:

(1) A single authoritative copy of the record or records exists which is unique, ~~identifiable~~ identifiable, and, except as otherwise provided in subdivisions (4), (5), and (6) of this section, unalterable;

(2) The authoritative copy identifies the secured party as the assignee of the record or records;

(3) The authoritative copy is communicated to and maintained by the secured party or its designated custodian;

(4) Copies or ~~revisions~~ amendments that add or change an identified assignee of the authoritative copy can be made only with the ~~participation~~ consent of the secured party;

(5) Each copy of the authoritative copy and any copy of a copy is readily identifiable as a copy that is not the authoritative copy; and

(6) Any ~~revision~~ amendment of the authoritative copy is readily identifiable as ~~an authorized or unauthorized revision.~~authorized or unauthorized."

SECTION 3. G.S. 25-9-307(f) reads as rewritten:

"(f) Location of registered organization organized under federal law; bank branches and agencies. – Except as otherwise provided in subsection (i) of this section, a registered organization that is organized under the law of the United States and a branch or agency of a bank that is not organized under the law of the United States or a state are located:

(1) In the state that the law of the United States designates, if the law designates a state of location;

(2) In the state that the registered organization, branch, or agency designates, if the law of the United States authorizes the registered organization, branch, or agency to designate its state of ~~location;~~ location, including by designating its main office, home office, or other comparable office; or

(3) In the District of Columbia, if neither subdivision (1) nor subdivision (2) of this subsection applies."

SECTION 4. G.S. 25-9-311(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) Security interest subject to other law. – Except as otherwise provided in subsection (d) of this section, the filing of a financing statement is not necessary or effective to perfect a security interest in property subject to:

(1) A statute, regulation, or treaty of the United States whose requirements for a security interest's obtaining priority over the rights of a lien creditor with respect to the property preempt G.S. 25-9-310(a);

(2) A ~~certificate of title~~ statute of this State covering automobiles or other goods that provides for a security interest to be indicated on ~~the~~ a certificate of title as a condition to or result of perfection of the security interest, including G.S. 20-58 and G.S. 75A-41; or

(3) A ~~certificate of title~~ statute of another jurisdiction which provides for a security interest to be indicated on ~~the~~ a certificate of title as a condition or result of the security interest's obtaining priority over the rights of a lien creditor with respect to the property."

SECTION 5.(a) The catch line of G.S. 25-9-316 reads as rewritten:

"§ 25-9-316. ~~Continued perfection of security interest following~~Effect of change in governing law."

SECTION 5.(b) G.S. 25-9-316 is amended by adding two new subsections to read:

"(h) Effect on Filed Financing Statement of Change in Governing Law. – The following rules apply to collateral to which a security interest attaches within four months after the debtor changes its location to another jurisdiction:

(1) A financing statement filed before the change pursuant to the law of the jurisdiction designated in G.S. 25-9-301(1) or G.S. 25-9-305(c) is effective to perfect a security interest in the collateral if the financing statement would have been effective to perfect a security interest in the collateral had the debtor not changed its location.

(2) If a security interest perfected by a financing statement that is effective under subdivision (1) of this subsection becomes perfected under the law of the other jurisdiction before the earlier of the time the financing statement would have become ineffective under the law of the jurisdiction designated in G.S. 25-9-301(1) or G.S. 25-9-305(c) or the expiration of the four-month period, it remains perfected thereafter. If the security interest does not become perfected under the law of the other jurisdiction before the earlier time or event, it becomes unperfected and is deemed never to have been perfected as against a purchaser of the collateral for value.

(i) Effect of Change in Governing Law on Financing Statement Filed Against Original Debtor. – If a financing statement naming an original debtor is filed pursuant to the law of the jurisdiction designated in G.S. 25-9-301(1) or G.S. 25-9-305(c) and the new debtor is located in another jurisdiction, the following rules apply:

(1) The financing statement is effective to perfect a security interest in collateral acquired by the new debtor before, and within four months after, the new debtor becomes bound under G.S. 25-9-203(d), if the financing statement would have been effective to perfect a security interest in the collateral had the collateral been acquired by the original debtor.

(2) A security interest perfected by the financing statement and which becomes perfected under the law of the other jurisdiction before the earlier of the time the financing statement would have become ineffective under the law of the jurisdiction designated in G.S. 25-9-301(1) or G.S. 25-9-305(c) or the expiration of the four-month period remains perfected thereafter. A security interest that is perfected by the financing statement but which does not become perfected under the law of the other jurisdiction before the earlier time or event becomes unperfected and is deemed never to have been perfected as against a purchaser of the collateral for value."

SECTION 6. G.S. 25-9-317 reads as rewritten:

"§ 25-9-317. Interests that take priority over or take free of security interest or agricultural lien.

(a) Conflicting security interests and rights of lien creditors. – A security interest or agricultural lien is subordinate to the rights of:

(1) A person entitled to priority under G.S. 25-9-322; and

(2) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (e) of this section, a person that becomes a lien creditor before the earlier of the time:

a. The security interest or agricultural lien is perfected; or

b. One of the conditions specified in G.S. 25-9-203(b)(3) is met and a financing statement covering the collateral is filed.

(b) Buyers that receive delivery. – Except as otherwise provided in subsection (e) of this section, a buyer, other than a secured party, of tangible chattel paper, tangible documents, goods, instruments, or a ~~security certificate~~certificated security takes free of a security interest or agricultural lien if the buyer gives value and receives delivery of the collateral without knowledge of the security interest or agricultural lien and before it is perfected.

(c) Lessees that receive delivery. – Except as otherwise provided in subsection (e) of this section, a lessee of goods takes free of a security interest or agricultural lien if the lessee gives value and receives delivery of the collateral without knowledge of the security interest or agricultural lien and before it is perfected.

(d) Licensees and buyers of certain collateral. – A licensee of a general intangible or a buyer, other than a secured party, of ~~accounts, electronic chattel paper, electronic documents, general intangibles, or investment property~~collateral other than tangible chattel paper, tangible documents, goods, instruments, or a certificated security takes free of a security interest if the licensee or buyer gives value without knowledge of the security interest and before it is perfected.

(e) Purchase-money security interest. – Except as otherwise provided in G.S. 25-9-320 and G.S. 25-9-321, if a person files a financing statement with respect to a purchase-money security interest before or within 20 days after the debtor receives delivery of the collateral, the security interest takes priority over the rights of a buyer, lessee, or lien creditor which arise between the time the security interest attaches and the time of filing."

SECTION 7. G.S. 25-9-326 reads as rewritten:

"§ 25-9-326. Priority of security interests created by new debtor.

(a) Subordination of security interest created by new debtor. – Subject to subsection (b) of this section, a security interest that is created by a new debtor ~~which is~~in collateral in which the new debtor has or acquires rights and is perfected solely by a filed financing statement that ~~is effective solely under G.S. 25-9-508 in collateral in which a new debtor has or acquires~~

~~rights~~would be ineffective to perfect the security interest but for the application of G.S. 25-9-316(i)(1) or G.S. 25-9-508 is subordinate to a security interest in the same collateral which is perfected other than by such a filed financing ~~statement that is effective solely under G.S. 25-9-508.~~statement.

(b) Priority under other provisions; multiple original debtors. – The other provisions of this Part determine the priority among conflicting security interests in the same collateral perfected by filed financing statements ~~that are effective solely under G.S. 25-9-508.~~described in subsection (a) of this section. However, if the security agreements to which a new debtor became bound as debtor were not entered into by the same original debtor, the conflicting security interests rank according to priority in time of the new debtor's having become bound."

SECTION 8. G.S. 25-9-406 reads as rewritten:

"§ 25-9-406. Discharge of account debtor; notification of assignment; identification and proof of assignment; restrictions on assignment of accounts, chattel paper, payment intangibles, and promissory notes ineffective.

(a) Discharge of account debtor; effect of notification. – Subject to subsections (b) through (i) of this section, an account debtor on an account, chattel paper, or a payment intangible may discharge its obligation by paying the assignor until, but not after, the account debtor receives a notification, authenticated by the assignor or the assignee, that the amount due or to become due has been assigned and that payment is to be made to the assignee. After receipt of the notification, the account debtor may discharge its obligation by paying the assignee and may not discharge the obligation by paying the assignor.

(b) When notification ineffective. – Subject to subsection (h) of this section, notification is ineffective under subsection (a) of this section:

(1) If it does not reasonably identify the rights assigned;

(2) To the extent that an agreement between an account debtor and a seller of a payment intangible limits the account debtor's duty to pay a person other than the seller and the limitation is effective under law other than this Article; or

(3) At the option of an account debtor, if the notification notifies the account debtor to make less than the full amount of any installment or other periodic payment to the assignee, even if:

a. Only a portion of the account, chattel paper, or payment intangible has been assigned to that assignee;

b. A portion has been assigned to another assignee; or

c. The account debtor knows that the assignment to that assignee is limited.

(c) Proof of assignment. – Subject to subsection (h) of this section, if requested by the account debtor, an assignee shall seasonably furnish reasonable proof that the assignment has been made. Unless the assignee complies, the account debtor may discharge its obligation by paying the assignor, even if the account debtor has received a notification under subsection (a) of this section.

(d) Term restricting assignment generally ineffective. – Except as otherwise provided in subsection (e) of this section and G.S. 25-2A-303 and ~~G.S. 25-9-407~~G.S. 25-9-407, and subject to subsection (h) of this section, a term in an agreement between an account debtor and an assignor or in a promissory note is ineffective to the extent that it:

(1) Prohibits, restricts, or requires the consent of the account debtor or person obligated on the promissory note to the assignment or transfer of, or the creation, attachment, perfection, or enforcement of a security interest in, the account, chattel paper, payment intangible, or promissory note; or

(2) Provides that the assignment or transfer or the creation, attachment, perfection, or enforcement of the security interest may give rise to a default, breach, right of recoupment, claim, defense, termination, right of termination, or remedy under the account, chattel paper, payment intangible, or promissory note.

(e) Inapplicability of subsection (d) to certain sales. – Subsection (d) of this section does not apply to the sale of a payment intangible or promissory ~~note.~~note, other than a sale pursuant to a disposition under G.S. 25-9-610 or an acceptance of collateral under G.S. 25-9-620.

(f) Legal restrictions on assignment generally ineffective. – Except as otherwise provided in G.S. 25-2A-303 and G.S. 25-9-407 and subject to subsections (h) and (i) of this section, a rule of law, statute, or regulation that prohibits, restricts, or requires the consent of a government, governmental body or official, or account debtor to the assignment or transfer of, or creation of a security interest in, an account or chattel paper is ineffective to the extent that the rule of law, statute, or regulation:

(1) Prohibits, restricts, or requires the consent of the government, governmental body or official, or account debtor to the assignment or transfer of, or the creation, attachment, perfection, or enforcement of a security interest in the account or chattel paper; or

(2) Provides that the assignment or transfer or the creation, attachment, perfection, or enforcement of the security interest may give rise to a default, breach, right of recoupment, claim, defense, termination, right of termination, or remedy under the account or chattel paper.

(g) Subdivision (b)(3) not waivable. – Subject to subsection (h) of this section, an account debtor may not waive or vary its option under subdivision (b)(3) of this section.

(h) Rule for individual under other law. – This section is subject to law other than this Article which establishes a different rule for an account debtor who is an individual and who incurred the obligation primarily for personal, family, or household purposes.

(i) Inapplicability. – This section does not apply to an assignment of a health-care-insurance receivable. Subsection (f) of this section does not apply to an assignment or transfer of, or the creation, attachment, perfection, or enforcement of a security interest in, a right the transfer of which is prohibited or restricted by any of the following statutes to the extent that the statute is inconsistent with subsection (f) of this section: ~~North Carolina Structured Settlement Act (Article 44B of Chapter 1 of the General Statutes); North Carolina Crime Victims Compensation Act (Chapter 15B of the General Statutes); North Carolina Consumer Finance Act (Article 15 of Chapter 53 of the General Statutes); North Carolina Firemen's and Rescue Squad Workers' Pension Fund (Article 86 of Chapter 58 of the General Statutes); Employment Security Law (Chapter 96 of the General Statutes); North Carolina Workers' Compensation Act (Article 1 of Chapter 97 of the General Statutes); and Programs of Public Assistance (Article 2 of Chapter 108A of the General Statutes).~~

(1) North Carolina Structured Settlement Act (Article 44B of Chapter 1 of the General Statutes).

(2) North Carolina Crime Victims Compensation Act (Chapter 15B of the General Statutes).

(3) North Carolina Consumer Finance Act (Article 15 of Chapter 53 of the General Statutes).

(4) North Carolina Firemen's and Rescue Squad Workers' Pension Fund (Article 86 of Chapter 58 of the General Statutes).

(5) Employment Security Law (Chapter 96 of the General Statutes).

(6) North Carolina Workers' Compensation Fund Act (Article 1 of Chapter 97 of the General Statutes).

(7) Programs of Public Assistance (Article 2 of Chapter 108A of the General Statutes).

(8) North Carolina State Lottery Act (Chapter 18C of the General Statutes).

(j) Section prevails over inconsistent law. – Except to the extent otherwise provided in subsection (i) of this section, this section prevails over any inconsistent provision of an existing or future statute, rule, or regulation of this State unless the provision is contained in a statute of this State, refers expressly to this section, and states that the provision prevails over this section."

SECTION 9. G.S. 25-9-408 reads as rewritten:

"§ 25-9-408. Restrictions on assignment of promissory notes, health-care-insurance receivables, and certain general intangibles ineffective.

(a) Term restricting assignment generally ineffective. – Except as otherwise provided in subsection (b) of this section, a term in a promissory note or in an agreement between an account debtor and a debtor which relates to a health-care-insurance receivable or a general intangible, including a contract, permit, license, or franchise, and which term prohibits, restricts, or requires the consent of the person obligated on the promissory note or the account debtor to, the assignment or transfer of, or creation, attachment, or perfection of a security interest in, the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible, is ineffective to the extent that the term:

(1) Would impair the creation, attachment, or perfection of a security interest; or

(2) Provides that the assignment or transfer or the creation, attachment, or perfection of the security interest may give rise to a default, breach, right of recoupment, claim, defense, termination, right of termination, or remedy under the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible.

(b) Applicability of subsection (a) to sales of certain rights to payment. – Subsection (a) of this section applies to a security interest in a payment intangible or promissory note only if the security interest arises out of a sale of the payment intangible or promissory ~~note.~~note, other than a sale pursuant to a disposition under G.S. 25-9-610 or an acceptance of collateral under G.S. 25-9-620.

(c) Legal restrictions on assignment generally ineffective. – A rule of law, statute, or regulation that prohibits, restricts, or requires the consent of a government, governmental body or official, person obligated on a promissory note, or account debtor to the assignment or transfer of, or creation of a security interest in, a promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible, including a contract, permit, license, or franchise between an account debtor and a debtor, is ineffective to the extent that the rule of law, statute, or regulation:

(1) Would impair the creation, attachment, or perfection of a security interest; or

(2) Provides that the assignment or transfer or the creation, attachment, or perfection of the security interest may give rise to a default, breach, right of recoupment, claim, defense, termination, right of termination, or remedy under the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible.

(d) Limitation on ineffectiveness under subsections (a) and (c). – To the extent that a term in a promissory note or in an agreement between an account debtor and a debtor which relates to a health-care-insurance receivable or general intangible or a rule of law, statute, or regulation described in subsection (c) of this section would be effective under law other than this Article but is ineffective under subsection (a) or (c) of this section, the creation, attachment, or perfection of a security interest in the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible:

(1) Is not enforceable against the person obligated on the promissory note or the account debtor;

(2) Does not impose a duty or obligation on the person obligated on the promissory note or the account debtor;
(3) Does not require the person obligated on the promissory note or the account debtor to recognize the security interest, pay or render performance to the secured party, or accept payment or performance from the secured party;
(4) Does not entitle the secured party to use or assign the debtor's rights under the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible, including any related information or materials furnished to the debtor in the transaction giving rise to the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible;
(5) Does not entitle the secured party to use, assign, possess, or have access to any trade secrets or confidential information of the person obligated on the promissory note or the account debtor; and
(6) Does not entitle the secured party to enforce the security interest in the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible.

(e) Section prevails over inconsistent law. – Except to the extent otherwise provided in subsection (f) of this section, this section prevails over any inconsistent provision of an existing or future statute, rule, or regulation of this State unless the provision is contained in a statute of this State, refers expressly to this section, and states that the provision prevails over this section.

(f) Inapplicability. – Subsection (c) of this section does not apply to an assignment or transfer of, or the creation, attachment, perfection, or enforcement of a security interest in, a right the transfer of which is prohibited or restricted by any of the following statutes to the extent that the statute is inconsistent with subsection (c) of this section: ~~North Carolina Structured Settlement Act (Article 44B of Chapter 1 of the General Statutes); North Carolina Crime Victims Compensation Act (Chapter 15B of the General Statutes); North Carolina Consumer Finance Act (Article 15 of Chapter 53 of the General Statutes); North Carolina Firemen's and Rescue Squad Workers' Pension Fund (Article 86 of Chapter 58 of the General Statutes); Employment Security Law (Chapter 96 of the General Statutes); North Carolina Workers' Compensation Act (Article 1 of Chapter 97 of the General Statutes); and Programs of Public Assistance (Article 2 of Chapter 108A of the General Statutes).~~

(1) North Carolina Structured Settlement Act (Article 44B of Chapter 1 of the General Statutes).
(2) North Carolina Crime Victims Compensation Act (Chapter 15B of the General Statutes).
(3) North Carolina Consumer Finance Act (Article 15 of Chapter 53 of the General Statutes).
(4) North Carolina Firemen's and Rescue Squad Workers' Pension Fund (Article 86 of Chapter 58 of the General Statutes).
(5) Employment Security Law (Chapter 96 of the General Statutes).
(6) North Carolina Workers' Compensation Fund Act (Article 1 of Chapter 97 of the General Statutes).
(7) Programs of Public Assistance (Article 2 of Chapter 108A of the General Statutes).
(8) North Carolina State Lottery Act (Chapter 18C of the General Statutes)."

SECTION 10. G.S. 25-9-502(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) Record of mortgage as financing statement. – A record of a mortgage is effective, from the date of recording, as a financing statement filed as a fixture filing or as a financing statement covering as-extracted collateral or timber to be cut only if:

(1) The record indicates the goods or accounts that it covers;

(2) The goods are or are to become fixtures related to the real property described in the record or the collateral is related to the real property described in the record and is as-extracted collateral or timber to be cut;

(3) The record satisfies the requirements for a financing statement in this ~~section~~ section, but:

a. The record need not indicate ~~other than an indication~~ that it is to be filed in the real property records; and

b. The record sufficiently provides the name of a debtor who is an individual if it provides the individual name of the debtor or the surname and first personal name of the debtor, even if the debtor is an individual to whom G.S. 25-9-503(a)(4) applies; and

(4) The record is duly recorded."

SECTION 11. G.S. 25-9-503 reads as rewritten:

"§ 25-9-503. Name of debtor and secured party.

(a) Sufficiency of debtor's name. – A financing statement sufficiently provides the name of the debtor:

(1) Except as otherwise provided in subdivision (3) of this subsection, ~~If~~ if the debtor is a registered ~~organization,~~organization or the collateral is held in a trust that is a registered organization, only if the financing statement provides the name ~~of the debtor indicated~~that is stated to be the registered organization's name on the public organic record ~~of~~ most recently filed with or issued or enacted by the ~~debtor's~~ registered organization's jurisdiction of organization which ~~shows the debtor to have been organized;~~purports to state, amend, or restate the registered organization's name;

(2) Subject to subsection (f) of this section, ~~If~~ if the ~~debtor is a decedent's estate,~~collateral is being administered by the personal representative of a decedent, only if the financing statement ~~provides~~ provides, as the name of the debtor, the name of the decedent ~~and~~ and, in a separate part of the financing statement, indicates that the ~~debtor is an estate;~~collateral is being administered by a personal representative;

(3) ~~If the debtor is a trust or a trustee acting with respect to property held in trust, only if the financing statement:~~

~~a. Provides the name specified for the trust in its organic documents or, if no name is specified, provides the name of the settlor and additional information sufficient to distinguish the debtor from other trusts having one or more of the same settlors; and~~

~~b. Indicates, in the debtor's name or otherwise, that the debtor is a trust or is a trustee acting with respect to property held in trust; and~~

If the collateral is held in a trust that is not a registered organization, only if the financing statement:

a. Provides, as the name of the debtor:

1. If the organic record of the trust specifies a name for the trust, the name specified; or

2. If the organic record of the trust does not specify a name for the trust, the name of the settlor or testator; and

b. In a separate part of the financing statement:

1. If the name is provided in accordance with sub-subdivision a.1. of this subdivision, indicates that the collateral is held in a trust; or

2. If the name is provided in accordance with sub-subdivision a.2. of this subdivision, provides additional information sufficient to distinguish the trust from other trusts having one or more of the same settlors or the same testator and indicates that the collateral is held in a trust, unless the additional information so indicates;

(4) Subject to subsection (g) of this section, if the debtor is an individual to whom this State has issued a drivers license or special identification card that has not expired, only if the financing statement provides the name of the individual which is indicated on the drivers license or special identification card;

(5) If the debtor is an individual to whom subdivision (a)(4) of this section does not apply, only if the financing statement provides the individual name of the debtor or the surname and first personal name of the debtor; and

~~(4)~~(6) In other cases:

a. If the debtor has a name, only if ~~it~~ the financing statement provides the ~~individual or~~ organizational name of the debtor; and

b. If the debtor does not have a name, only if ~~it~~ the financing statement provides the names of the partners, members, associates, or other persons comprising the ~~debtor.~~debtor, in a manner that each name provided would be sufficient if the person named were the debtor.

(b) Additional debtor-related information. – A financing statement that provides the name of the debtor in accordance with subsection (a) of this section is not rendered ineffective by the absence of:

(1) A trade name or other name of the debtor; or

(2) Unless required under ~~sub-subdivision (a)(4)b.~~sub-subdivision (a)(6)b. of this section, names of partners, members, associates, or other persons comprising the debtor.

(c) Debtor's trade name insufficient. – A financing statement that provides only the debtor's trade name does not sufficiently provide the name of the debtor.

(d) Representative capacity. – Failure to indicate the representative capacity of a secured party or representative of a secured party does not affect the sufficiency of a financing statement.

(e) Multiple debtors and secured parties. – A financing statement may provide the name of more than one debtor and the name of more than one secured party.

(f) Name of Decedent. – The name of the decedent indicated on the order appointing the personal representative of the decedent issued by the court having jurisdiction over the collateral is sufficient as the "name of the decedent" under subdivision (a)(2) of this section.

(g) Multiple Drivers Licenses or Special Identification Cards. – If this State has issued to an individual more than one drivers license or special identification card of a kind described in subdivision (a)(4) of this section, the one that was issued most recently is the one to which subdivision (a)(4) of this section refers.

(h) Definition. – In this section, the "name of the settlor or testator" means:

(1) If the settlor is a registered organization, the name that is stated to be the settlor's name on the public organic record most recently filed with or issued or enacted by the settlor's jurisdiction of organization which purports to state, amend, or restate the settlor's name; or

(2) In other cases, the name of the settlor or testator indicated in the trust's organic record."

SECTION 12. G.S. 25-9-507(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) Change in debtor's name. – If ~~a debtor so changes its~~the name that a filed financing statement provides for a debtor becomes insufficient as the name of the debtor under

G.S. 25-9-503(a) so that the financing statement becomes seriously misleading under G.S. 25-9-506:

(1) The financing statement is effective to perfect a security interest in collateral acquired by the debtor before, or within four months after, the ~~change;~~filed financing statement becomes seriously misleading; and

(2) The financing statement is not effective to perfect a security interest in collateral acquired by the debtor more than four months after the ~~change,~~filed financing statement becomes seriously misleading, unless an amendment to the financing statement which renders the financing statement not seriously misleading is filed within four months after ~~the change.~~the financing statement became seriously misleading."

SECTION 13. G.S. 25-9-515(f) reads as rewritten:

"(f) Transmitting utility financing statement. – If a debtor is a transmitting utility and a filed initial financing statement so indicates, the financing statement is effective until a termination statement is filed."

SECTION 14. G.S. 25-9-516(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Refusal to accept record; filing does not occur. – Filing does not occur with respect to a record that a filing office refuses to accept because:

...

(3) The filing office is unable to index the record because:

a. In the case of an initial financing statement, the record does not provide a name for the debtor;

b. In the case of an amendment or ~~correction~~ information statement, the record:

1. Does not identify the initial financing statement as required by G.S. 25-9-512 or G.S. 25-9-518, as applicable; or

2. Identifies an initial financing statement whose effectiveness has lapsed under G.S. 25-9-515;

c. In the case of an initial financing statement that provides the name of a debtor identified as an individual or an amendment that provides a name of a debtor identified as an individual which was not previously provided in the financing statement to which the record relates, the record does not identify the debtor's ~~last name;~~surname; or

d. In the case of a record filed in the filing office described in G.S. 25-9-501(a)(1), the record does not provide a sufficient description of the real property to which it relates;

...

(5) In the case of an initial financing statement or an amendment that provides a name of a debtor which was not previously provided in the financing statement to which the amendment relates, the record does not:

a. Provide a mailing address for the debtor; or

b. Indicate whether the name provided as the name of the debtor is the name of an individual or an organization; ~~or~~

~~c. If the financing statement indicates that the debtor is an organization, provide:~~

~~1. A type of organization for the debtor;~~

~~2. A jurisdiction of organization for the debtor; or~~

~~3. An organizational identification number for the debtor or indicate that the debtor has none;~~

...

(7) In the case of a continuation statement, the record is not filed within the six-month period prescribed by G.S. 25-9-515(d); or

(8) In the case of a record presented for filing at the Department of the Secretary of State, the Secretary of State determines that the record is not created pursuant to this Chapter or is otherwise intended for an improper purpose, such as to hinder, harass, or otherwise wrongfully interfere with any person."

SECTION 15. G.S. 25-9-518 reads as rewritten:

"§ 25-9-518. Claim concerning inaccurate or wrongfully filed record.

(a) ~~Correction statement.~~Statement With Respect to Record Indexed Under Person's Name. – A person may file in the filing office ~~a correction~~an information statement with respect to a record indexed there under the person's name if the person believes that the record is inaccurate or was wrongfully filed.

(b) ~~Sufficiency~~ Contents of ~~correction statement.~~Statement Under Subsection (a). – ~~A correction~~An information statement under subsection (a) of this section must:

(1) Identify the record to which it relates by the file number assigned to the initial financing statement to which the record relates;

(2) Indicate that it is ~~a correction~~an information statement; and

(3) Provide the basis for the person's belief that the record is inaccurate and indicate the manner in which the person believes the record should be amended to cure any inaccuracy or provide the basis for the person's belief that the record was wrongfully filed. ~~A correction~~An information statement that is subject to the provisions of subsection (b1) of this section shall include a written certification, under oath, by the person that the contents of the ~~correction~~ information statement are true and accurate to the best of the person's knowledge.

(b1) In the case of ~~a correction~~an information statement alleging that a previously filed record was wrongfully filed and that it should have been rejected under G.S. 25-9-516(b)(8), the Secretary of State shall, without undue delay, determine whether the contested record was wrongfully filed and should have been rejected. In order to determine whether the record was wrongfully filed, the Secretary of State may require the person filing the ~~correction~~ information statement and the secured party to provide any additional relevant information requested by the Secretary of State, including an original or a copy of any security agreement that is related to the record. If the Secretary of State finds that the record was wrongfully filed and should have been rejected under G.S. 25-9-516(b)(8), the Secretary of State shall cancel the record and it shall be void and of no effect.

(b2) Statement by Secured Party of Record. – A person may file in the filing office an information statement with respect to a record filed there if the person is a secured party of record with respect to the financing statement to which the record relates and believes that the person that filed the record was not entitled to do so under G.S. 25-9-509(d).

(b3) Contents of Statement Under Subsection (b2). – An information statement under subsection (b2) of this section must:

(1) Identify the record to which it relates by the file number assigned to the initial financing statement to which the record relates;

(2) Indicate that it is an information statement; and

(3) Provide the basis for the person's belief that the person that filed the record was not entitled to do so under G.S. 25-9-509(d).

(c) Record not affected by ~~correction~~ information statement. – The filing of ~~a correction~~an information statement does not affect the effectiveness of an initial financing statement or other filed record."

SECTION 16. G.S. 25-9-521 is rewritten to read:

"§ 25-9-521. Uniform form of written financing statement and amendment.

(a) Initial financing statement form. – A filing office that accepts written records may not refuse to accept a written initial financing statement in the following form and format except for a reason set forth in G.S. 25-9-516(b):

UCC FINANCING STATEMENT AMENDMENT ADDENDUM (Form UCC3Ad) (Rev. 04/20/11)

SECTION 17. G.S. 25-9-607(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Nonjudicial enforcement of mortgage. – If necessary to enable a secured party to exercise under subdivision (a)(3) of this section the right of a debtor to enforce a mortgage nonjudicially, the secured party may record in the office in which a record of the mortgage is recorded:

(1) A copy of the security agreement that creates or provides for a security interest in the obligation secured by the mortgage; and

(2) The secured party's sworn affidavit in recordable form stating that:
a. A default has ~~occurred;~~occurred with respect to the obligation secured by the mortgage; and
b. The secured party is entitled to enforce the mortgage nonjudicially."

SECTION 18. G.S. 25-9-625(c) reads as rewritten:

"(c) Persons entitled to recover damages; statutory damages ~~in consumer goods transaction.~~if collateral is consumer goods. – Except as otherwise provided in G.S. 25-9-628:
(1) A person that, at the time of the failure, was a debtor, was an obligor, or held a security interest in or other lien on the collateral may recover damages under subsection (b) of this section for its loss; and
(2) If the collateral is consumer goods, a person that was a debtor or a secondary obligor at the time a secured party failed to comply with this Part may recover for that failure in any event an amount not less than the credit service charge plus ten percent (10%) of the principal amount of the obligation or the time-price differential plus ten percent (10%) of the cash price."

PART II. TRANSITION PROVISIONS.

SECURITY INTEREST PERFECTED BEFORE EFFECTIVE DATE.

SECTION 19.(a) Continuing Perfection: Perfection Requirements Satisfied. – A security interest that is a perfected security interest immediately before the effective date of this act is a perfected security interest under Article 9 of Chapter 25 of the General Statutes as amended by this act if, when this act becomes effective, the applicable requirements for attachment and perfection under Article 9 of Chapter 25 of the General Statutes as amended by this act are satisfied without further action.

SECTION 19.(b) Continuing Perfection: Perfection Requirements Not Satisfied. – Except as otherwise provided in Section 21 of this act, if, immediately before this act becomes effective, a security interest is a perfected security interest, but the applicable requirements for perfection under Article 9 of Chapter 25 of the General Statutes as amended by this act are not satisfied when this act becomes effective, the security interest remains perfected thereafter only if the applicable requirements for perfection under Article 9 of Chapter 25 of the General Statutes as amended by this act are satisfied within one year after this act becomes effective.

SECURITY INTEREST UNPERFECTED BEFORE EFFECTIVE DATE.

SECTION 20. Security Interest Unperfected Before Effective Date. – A security interest that is an unperfected security interest immediately before this act becomes effective becomes a perfected security interest:
(1) Without further action, when this act becomes effective if the applicable requirements for perfection under Article 9 of Chapter 25 of the General Statutes as amended by this act are satisfied before or at that time; or
(2) When the applicable requirements for perfection are satisfied if the requirements are satisfied after that time.

EFFECTIVENESS OF ACTION TAKEN BEFORE EFFECTIVE DATE.

SECTION 21.(a) Pre-Effective-Date Filing Effective. – The filing of a financing statement before this act becomes effective is effective to perfect a security interest to the extent the filing would satisfy the applicable requirements for perfection under Article 9 of Chapter 25 of the General Statutes as amended by this act.

SECTION 21.(b) When Pre-Effective-Date Filing Becomes Ineffective. – This act does not render ineffective an effective financing statement that, before this act becomes effective, is filed and satisfies the applicable requirements for perfection under the law of the jurisdiction governing perfection as provided in Article 9 of Chapter 25 of the General Statutes as it existed before amendment. However, except as otherwise provided in subsections (c) and (d) of this section and Section 22 of this act, the financing statement ceases to be effective:

(1) If the financing statement is filed in this State, at the time the financing statement would have ceased to be effective had this act not become effective; or

(2) If the financing statement is filed in another jurisdiction, at the earlier of:

a. The time the financing statement would have ceased to be effective under the law of that jurisdiction; or

b. June 30, 2018.

SECTION 21.(c) Continuation Statement. – The filing of a continuation statement after this act becomes effective does not continue the effectiveness of a financing statement filed before this act becomes effective. However, upon the timely filing of a continuation statement after this act becomes effective and in accordance with the law of the jurisdiction governing perfection as provided in Article 9 of Chapter 25 of the General Statutes as amended by this act, the effectiveness of a financing statement filed in the same office in that jurisdiction before this act becomes effective continues for the period provided by the law of that jurisdiction.

SECTION 21.(d) Application of Sub-Subdivision (b)(2)b. to Transmitting Utility Financing Statement. – Sub-subdivision (b)(2)b. of this section applies to a financing statement that, before this act becomes effective, is filed against a transmitting utility and satisfies the applicable requirements for perfection under the law of the jurisdiction governing perfection as provided in Article 9 of Chapter 25 of the General Statutes as it existed before amendment, only to the extent that Article 9 of Chapter 25 of the General Statutes as amended by this act provides that the law of a jurisdiction other than the jurisdiction in which the financing statement is filed governs perfection of a security interest in collateral covered by the financing statement.

SECTION 21.(e) Application of Part 5 of Article 9 of Chapter 25 of the General Statutes. – A financing statement that includes a financing statement filed before this act becomes effective and a continuation statement filed after this act becomes effective is effective only to the extent that it satisfies the requirements of Part 5 of Article 9 of Chapter 25 of the General Statutes as amended by this act for an initial financing statement. A financing statement that indicates that the debtor is a decedent's estate indicates that the collateral is being administered by a personal representative within the meaning of G.S. 25-9-503(a)(2) as amended by this act. A financing statement that indicates that the debtor is a trust or is a trustee acting with respect to property held in trust indicates that the collateral is held in a trust within the meaning of G.S. 25-9-503(a)(3) as amended by this act.

WHEN INITIAL FINANCING STATEMENT SUFFICES TO CONTINUE EFFECTIVENESS OF FINANCING STATEMENT.

SECTION 22.(a) Initial Financing Statement in Lieu of Continuation Statement. – The filing of an initial financing statement in the office specified in G.S. 25-9-501 continues the effectiveness of a financing statement filed before this act becomes effective if:

(1) The filing of an initial financing statement in that office would be effective to perfect a security interest under Article 9 of Chapter 25 of the General Statutes as amended by this act;

(2) The pre-effective-date financing statement was filed in an office in another State; and

(3) The initial financing statement satisfies subsection (c) of this section.

SECTION 22.(b) Period of Continued Effectiveness. – The filing of an initial financing statement under subsection (a) of this section continues the effectiveness of the pre-effective-date financing statement:

(1) If the initial financing statement is filed before this act becomes effective, for the period provided in G.S. 25-9-515 as it read prior to the amendment by Section 13 of this act with respect to an initial financing statement; and

(2) If the initial financing statement is filed after this act becomes effective, for the period provided in G.S. 25-9-515 as amended by this act with respect to an initial financing statement.

SECTION 22.(c) Requirements for Initial Financing Statement Under Subsection (a). – To be effective for purposes of subsection (a) of this section, an initial financing statement must:

(1) Satisfy the requirements of Part 5 of Article 9 of Chapter 25 of the General Statutes as amended by this act for an initial financing statement;

(2) Identify the pre-effective-date financing statement by indicating the office in which the financing statement was filed and providing the dates of filing and file numbers, if any, of the financing statement and of the most recent continuation statement filed with respect to the financing statement; and

(3) Indicate that the pre-effective-date financing statement remains effective. '

AMENDMENT OF PRE-EFFECTIVE-DATE FINANCING STATEMENT.

SECTION 23.(a) "Pre-Effective-Date Financing Statement." – In this section, "pre-effective-date financing statement" means a financing statement filed before this act becomes effective.

SECTION 23.(b) Applicable Law. – After this act becomes effective, a person may add or delete collateral covered by, continue or terminate the effectiveness of, or otherwise amend the information provided in, a pre-effective-date financing statement only in accordance with the law of the jurisdiction governing perfection as provided in Article 9 of Chapter 25 of the General Statutes as amended by this act. However, the effectiveness of a pre-effective-date financing statement also may be terminated in accordance with the law of the jurisdiction in which the financing statement is filed.

SECTION 23.(c) Method of Amending: General Rule. – Except as otherwise provided in subsection (d) of this section, if the law of this State governs perfection of a security interest, the information in a pre-effective-date financing statement may be amended after this act becomes effective only if:

(1) The pre-effective-date financing statement and an amendment are filed in the office specified in G.S. 25-9-501;

(2) An amendment is filed in the office specified in G.S. 25-9-501 concurrently with, or after the filing in that office of, an initial financing statement that satisfies subsection (c) of Section 22 of this act; or

(3) An initial financing statement that provides the information as amended and satisfies subsection (c) of Section 22 of this act is filed in the office specified in G.S. 25-9-501.

SECTION 23.(d) Method of Amending: Continuation. – If the law of this State governs perfection of a security interest, the effectiveness of a pre-effective-date financing statement may be continued only under subsections (c) and (e) of Section 21 of this act or Section 22 of this act.

SECTION 23.(e) Method of Amending: Additional Termination Rule. – Whether or not the law of this State governs perfection of a security interest, the effectiveness of a pre-effective-date financing statement filed in this State may be terminated after this act becomes effective by filing a termination statement in the office in which the pre-effective-date financing statement is filed, unless an initial financing statement that satisfies subsection (c) of Section 22 of this act has been filed in the office specified by the law of the jurisdiction governing perfection as provided in Article 9 of Chapter 25 of the General Statutes as amended by this act as the office in which to file a financing statement.

PERSON ENTITLED TO FILE INITIAL FINANCING STATEMENT OR CONTINUATION STATEMENT.

SECTION 24. Person Entitled to File Initial Financing Statement or Continuation Statement. – A person may file an initial financing statement or a continuation statement under this Part if:

(1) The secured party of record authorizes the filing; and

(2) The filing is necessary under this Part:

a. To continue the effectiveness of a financing statement filed before this act becomes effective; or

b. To perfect or continue the perfection of a security interest.

PRIORITY.

SECTION 25. This act determines the priority of conflicting claims to collateral. However, if the relative priorities of the claims were established before this act becomes effective, Article 9 of Chapter 25 of the General Statutes as it existed before this act becomes effective determines priority.

PART III. APPLICABILITY, EFFECTIVE DATE, AND OTHER PROVISIONS.

APPLICABILITY.

SECTION 26.(a) Pre-Effective-Date Transactions or Liens. – Except as otherwise provided in Part II of this act, this act applies to a transaction or lien within its scope, even if the transaction or lien was entered into or created before this act becomes effective.

SECTION 26.(b) Pre-Effective-Date Proceedings. – This act does not affect an action, case, or proceeding commenced before this act becomes effective.

AUTHORIZATION FOR PRINTING OF COMMENTS.

SECTION 27. The Revisor of Statutes shall cause to be printed, as annotations to the published General Statutes, all relevant portions of the Official Comments to the 2010 Amendments to Article 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code and all explanatory comments of the drafters of this act as the Revisor may deem appropriate.

EFFECTIVE DATE.

SECTION 28. This act becomes effective July 1, 2013.

MEMORANDUM
June 5, 2012

TO: Senate Judiciary I Committee
FROM: General Statutes Commission
RE: HB 1068 (Amend UCC Article 9/Secured Transactions)

General Comments

This bill amends Article 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code, which governs secured transactions in personal property and fixtures in all 50 states. The amendments were recommended in 2010 for enactment in all states by the Uniform Law Commission (ULC) and the American Law Institute (ALI). Generally speaking, the amendments address filing issues and other matters that have arisen in practice since the Article was last revised in 1998.

To summarize, this bill:

- Provides greater guidance as to the name of an individual debtor to be provided on a financing statement (the UCC-1 and the UCC-3). If an individual debtor has a current drivers license or special identification card issued by the State, that name must be used. Otherwise, the name must be the debtor's individual name or the surname and first personal name. This is the single most important item in these amendments.
- Provides greater specificity as to the debtor's name on a financing statement when the debtor is a corporation, limited liability company, or limited partnership and when the collateral is held in a statutory or common law trust or in a decedent's estate. Essentially, the entity's name on the financing statement must be the name on its organizational documents (e.g., corporate charter).
- Provides greater protection for an existing secured party having a security interest in after-acquired property when its debtor relocates to another state or merges with another entity.
- Makes additional minor, clarifying, conforming, and technical changes to Article 9 as described more completely below.
- Includes transition provisions similar to those provided when Article 9 was last revised and includes specific authorization for the printing of official and drafters comments.
- Includes applicability provisions and an effective date of July 1, 2013. The ULC and the ALI have recommended that this date be uniformly adopted so that these amendments will be simultaneously operative in all 50 states.

According to the ULC, these amendments have already been enacted in 25 states and Puerto Rico. A draft of this bill was distributed to interested individuals and groups in this State for review, including the Department of Secretary of State, the Division of Motor Vehicles, the North Carolina Bar Association, the North Carolina Bankers Association, and various creditor and consumer groups. The General Statutes Commission is not aware of any opposition or controversy relating to the amendments.

Specific Comments

Section 1 amends G.S. 25-9-102 to add the definition of "public organic record" and to revise the definitions of "authenticate," "certificate of title," "jurisdiction of organization," and "registered organization."

The definition of "authenticate" in subdivision (a)(7) is conformed to the definition of "sign" in G.S. 25-7-102(a)(11) (dealing with documents of title such as warehouse receipts or bills of lading), which is drawn from the Uniform Electronic Transactions Act and the federal Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act (E-SIGN).

The definition of "certificate of title" in subdivision (a)(10) is expanded to include an electronic certificate of title (e.g., for an automobile). The amendment takes into account the fact that some state certificate of title systems now permit or require electronic records as an alternative to the issuance of written certificates of title, although North Carolina still issues written certificates of title only.

The definition of "jurisdiction of organization" in subdivision (a)(50) is amended to mean the jurisdiction under whose law a registered organization is either "formed" or organized.

The definition of "public organic record" in subdivision (a)(70a) is added to designate which public record is relevant to determining the name of a debtor that is a "registered organization" under G.S. 25-9-503(a)(1).

The definition of "registered organization" in subdivision (a)(73) is amended to clarify that:

- The term includes an organization that is created without the need for a public filing but that is "formed" only when a public filing has been made. For example, under Delaware law, a statutory trust is created by a governing instrument, but is formed at the time of the filing of the initial certificate of trust in the office of the Secretary of State or at any later date or time specified in the certificate of trust.
- A Massachusetts-type business trust is a "registered organization."

Section 2 amends G.S. 25-9-105 to conform the requirements for control of electronic chattel paper with those in G.S. 25-7-106 for electronic documents of title and in G.S. 66-326 for transferrable records under the Uniform Electronic Transactions Act. New subsection (a) provides a general test for establishing control of electronic chattel paper, and subsection (b), which is based primarily on current law, provides a safe harbor test that, if satisfied, establishes control under the general test in subsection (a).

Section 3 amends G.S. 25-9-307(f)(2) to clarify that the state of location of a registered organization organized under federal law can be its main office, home office, or other comparable office if federal law allows it to so designate.

Section 4 amends G.S. 25-9-311(a) stylistically to reflect the amendment to the definition of "certificate of title" in G.S. 25-9-102(a)(10).

Section 5 amends G.S. 25-9-316 to add new subsections (h) and (i). These new subsections address the effect on a security interest in after-acquired property when a debtor moves to a different state or a new debtor in a different state becomes bound by the security agreement. Subsection (h) provides that the financing statement filed in the original jurisdiction continues to be effective against newly acquired property for up to four months after the debtor's location changes. Subsection (i) provides similar protection for a security interest in after-acquired property if a new debtor, e.g., a successor by merger, becomes bound by the original debtor's security agreement and the new debtor is located in a different jurisdiction than the jurisdiction in which the original debtor was located.

Section 6 amends G.S. 25-9-317 in subsection (d) to expand the list of intangible property that will be taken free of an unperfected security interest by a purchaser for value who had no knowledge of the unperfected security interest. Section 6 also updates "security certificate" to "certificated security."

Section 7 amends G.S. 25-9-326 to make conforming amendments necessitated by new subsections (h) and (i) of G.S. 25-9-316.

Section 8 amends G.S. 25-9-406(e) and (i) and adds a missing comma in subsection (d).

Section 8 amends G.S. 25-9-406(e) to make subsection (d) apply to a sale, after default, of a payment intangible or promissory note held as collateral and to an acceptance of collateral in full or partial satisfaction of the obligation it secures (subsection (d) makes contractual restrictions on the assignment of accounts, chattel paper, payment intangibles and promissory notes ineffective).

Section 8 also amends G.S. 25-9-406(i), which contains a list of statutory provisions to which subsection (f) does not apply (subsection (f) makes legal restrictions on assignments ineffective). The amendments to subsection (i) reformat the subsection and make a conforming amendment adding the "North Carolina State Lottery Act (Chapter 18C of the General Statutes)" to the list of exceptions to subsection (f). That Act was enacted after the enactment of subsection (f); it provides in G.S. 18C-132(h) that "The right of any person to a prize shall not be assignable."

Section 9 makes amendments to G.S. 25-9-408 that are similar to those in Section 8.

Section 10 amends G.S. 25-9-502(c)(3) to provide an exception to the requirements for the name of an individual debtor in a mortgage filed as a financing statement for a fixture filing or to cover as-extracted collateral or timber to be cut. In this case, the individual's name is sufficient if the mortgage provides the debtor's individual name or surname and first personal name.

Section 11 amends G.S. 25-9-503 to provide more guidance on the sufficiency of a debtor's name to be provided on a financing statement. Because financing statements are indexed under the debtor's name, those who wish to find financing statements must know the correct name to search effectively.

Subsection (a) explains what the debtor's name is for purposes of a financing statement if the debtor is an individual, a registered organization (e.g., a corporation, limited partnership, or limited liability company), a decedent's estate, or a trust or trustee acting with respect to property held in a trust.. The amendments to this subsection provide as follows:

- Under subdivision (a)(1), if the debtor is a registered organization or the collateral is held in a trust that is a registered organization, the name must be the registered organization's name on the "public organic record" most recently filed with or issued or enacted by the registered organization's jurisdiction of organization which purports to state, amend, or restate the registered organization's name (e.g., a corporation's charter, an amendment to the charter, or a restated charter).
- Under subdivision (a)(2), if the collateral is being administered by the personal representative of a decedent, the name provided must be the name of the decedent and a separate part of the financing statement must indicate that the collateral is being administrated by a personal representative. New subsection (f) provides a safe harbor for the name of the decedent (name of decedent is sufficient if it is the name indicated on the order appointing the personal representative).
- Under subdivision (a)(3), if the collateral is held in a trust that is not a registered organization, the name must be the name of the trust if a name is stated in the trust's organic record; otherwise the name must be that of the settlor or testator. The financing statement must also indicate, in a separate part, that the collateral is held in trust and, if the name of the settlor or testator is provided as the name of the debtor, must provide sufficient additional information to distinguish the trust from other trusts having one or more of the same settlors or the same testator. New subsection (h) defines the term "name of the settlor or testator" for purposes of subdivision (a)(3).
- Under subdivision (a)(4), if the debtor is an individual who has an unexpired North Carolina drivers license or a special identification card issued under Article 2B (Special Identification Cards for Nonoperators) of Chapter 20 of the General Statutes, the name must be the name on the drivers license or card. If an individual has been issued more than one drivers license or special identification card, new subsection (g) provides that the one that was issued most recently is the one to which subdivision (a)(4) refers.
- Under subdivision (a)(5), if the debtor does not have an unexpired drivers license or special identification card, the name must be either (i) the individual name of the debtor (as required by current Article 9) or (ii) the surname and first personal name of the debtor.
- Under subdivision (a)(6), the debtor's name in other cases must be the organization's name or, if there is none, the names of the partners, members, associates, or other constituents.

Section 12 amends G.S. 25-9-507(c) to make conforming amendments. The amendments replace a reference to a change of the debtor's name provided on a filed financing statement making the financing statement seriously misleading with a reference to the debtor's name becoming insufficient as the name of the debtor under G.S. 25-9-503(a) so that the financing statement becomes seriously misleading.

Section 13 amends G.S. 25-9-515(f) to provide that a debtor may be designated as a transmitting utility only in an initial financing statement; the designation cannot be made by an amendment to a financing statement. Section 13 makes the transmitting utility provision consistent with the filing provisions for public-finance and manufactured-home transactions under G.S. 25-9-515(b).

Section 14 amends G.S. 25-9-516(b) to make conforming amendments by changing "correction statement" to "information statement" and "last name" to "surname" and to delete as a ground for a filing office to reject a financing statement the failure of the financing statement to provide the debtor's type of organization (e.g., a partnership or corporation), jurisdiction of organization, or organizational identification number or indication that the debtor has none. This ground is deleted because the information is not considered to be sufficiently useful in practice and often adds cost and delay to the filing process.

Section 15 amends G.S. 25-9-518, which permits a debtor to file a "correction statement" to indicate that a financing statement or other filed record is inaccurate or wrongfully filed. The amendments give the filing a new name (an "information statement") and also permit a secured party of record to file an "information statement" (e.g., if someone incorrectly filed a termination statement).

Section 16 amends G.S. 25-9-521 to replace the existing "safe harbor" national financing statement forms with the new forms that were approved, effective April 20, 2011, by the International Association of Commercial Administrators, the organization that prepares financing statement forms for adoption by the states. The forms have been updated to reflect the 2010 amendments to Article 9.

Section 17 amends G.S. 25-9-607(b)(2)a. to clarify that the phrase "a default has occurred" refers to a default with respect to the obligation secured by the mortgage in question.

Section 18 amends G.S. 25-9-625(c) to conform the heading of the subsection to the text of the subsection.

Sections 19 through 25 provide transition provisions that apply only to the amendments and that are modeled upon the transition provisions used in connection with the 1998 revision of Article 9.

Section 26 provides applicability provisions.

Section 27 authorizes the printing of official comments and drafters comments.

Section 28 provides that the amendments become effective July 1, 2013, the uniform effective date adopted by the ULC and the ALI.

The Senate Judiciary I Committee met at 10:00 AM on June 26, 2012, in Room 1027 of the Legislative Building. 18 members of the committee were present. Senator Brunstetter, presided.

The meeting adjourned at 11:54 AM .

HB 1052-MECHANICS LIENS/BOND PAYMENT REFORMS-Senator Goolsby moved that the PCS come before the committee for the purpose of discussion. Representative Stevens was recognized to explain the PCS. Bill Patterson of research was recognized to walk through the bill and explain changes in the PCS. The bill would make a number of changes to the current law governing liens and payment bond claims arising from improvements to real property, including:

- Clarifies when certain lien rights arise to address problems resulting from federal bankruptcy court decisions
- Requires persons working on a public construction project who did not contract directly with the contractor to give the contractor notice of their involvement as a condition to making a payment bond claim
- Clarifies when a former owner of real property is a necessary party to an action to enforce the lien.

Senator Nesbitt expressed concern about the time line for subs to give notice of lien. Several members of the public were recognized to voice their concerns. Senator Brown moved for an unfavorable report as to the original bill, favorable as to the PCS. The motion carried.

SB 42-MECHANICS LIEN/PVT LIEN AGENT-FOR CONCURRENCE-Representative Stevens recognized to explain bill. Bill Patterson recognized to further explain bill. S. 42 requires that persons furnishing labor or materials for improvements to real property costing at least $30,000 must give notice to a lien agent designated by the owner either before recordation of a deed or deed of trust, or within fifteen days of their first furnishing of labor or materials, in order to preserve their lien rights. These changes effective date to April 1, 2013. Senator Stein moved to recommend that the senate do not concur and the motion carried.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO MAKE VARIOUS AMENDMENTS TO NORTH CAROLINA'S MECHANICS LIEN AND PAYMENT BOND LAWS AS RECOMMENDED BY THE LEGISLATIVE RESEARCH COMMISSION'S MECHANICS LIENS ON REAL PROPERTY COMMITTEE.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 44A-7 reads as rewritten:

"§ 44A-7. Definitions.

Unless the context otherwise ~~requires in this Article:~~requires, the following definitions apply in this Article:

(1) Contractor. – A person who contracts with an owner to improve real property.

(2) First tier subcontractor. – A person who contracts with a contractor to improve real property.

~~(1)~~(3) ~~"Improve" means to~~ Improve. – To build, effect, alter, repair, or demolish any improvement upon, connected with, or on or beneath the surface of any real property, or to excavate, clear, grade, fill or landscape any real property, or to construct driveways and private roadways, or to furnish materials, including trees and shrubbery, for any of such purposes, or to perform any labor upon such improvements, and shall also mean and include any design or other professional or skilled services furnished by architects, engineers, land surveyors and landscape architects registered under Chapter 83A, 89A or 89C of the General Statutes, and rental of equipment directly utilized on the real property in making the improvement.

~~(2)~~(4) ~~"Improvement" means all~~ Improvement. – All or any part of any building, structure, erection, alteration, demolition, excavation, clearing, grading, filling, or landscaping, including trees and shrubbery, driveways, and private roadways, on real property.

(5) Obligor. – An owner, contractor, or subcontractor in any tier who owes money to another as a result of the other's partial or total performance of a contract to improve real property.

~~(3)~~(6) ~~An "owner" is a~~ Owner. – A person who has an interest in the real property improved and for whom an improvement is made and who ordered the improvement to be made. "Owner" includes successors in interest of the owner and agents of the owner acting within their authority.

~~(4)~~(7) ~~"Real property" means the~~ Real property. – The real estate that is improved, including lands, leaseholds, tenements and hereditaments, and improvements placed thereon.

(8) Second tier subcontractor. – A person who contracts with a first tier subcontractor to improve real property.

(9) Third tier subcontractor. – A person who contracts with a second tier subcontractor to improve real property."

SECTION 2. G.S. 44A-11 reads as rewritten:

"§ 44A-11. Perfecting claim of lien on real property.

(a) Perfection. – A claim of lien on real property granted by this Article shall be perfected as of the time provided in G.S. 44A-10 upon the ~~filing of the claim of lien on real property under G.S. 44A-12 and may be enforced pursuant to G.S. 44A-13~~occurrence of all of the following:

(1) Service of a copy of the claim of lien on real property upon the record owner of the real property claimed to be subject to the claim of lien, and if the claim of lien on real property is being asserted pursuant to G.S. 44A-23, also upon the contractor through which subrogation is being asserted.

(2) Filing of the claim of lien on real property under G.S. 44A-12.

(b) Method of Service. – Service of the claim of lien on real property pursuant to subsection (a) of this section shall not require proof of actual receipt by the listed recipient and shall be complete upon the occurrence of any of the following:

(1) Personal delivery of a copy of the claim of lien on real property upon the recipient.

(2) Deposit of a copy of the claim of lien on real property in a postpaid, properly addressed wrapper in either of the following:

a. A post office or official depository under the exclusive care and custody of the United States Postal Service.

b. An authorized depository under the exclusive care and custody of a designated delivery service authorized pursuant to 26 U.S.C. § 7502(f)(2).

(c) Service Address. – For purposes of this section, a wrapper addressed to a party required to be served under subdivision (1) of subsection (a) of this section shall be conclusively deemed properly addressed if it uses any of the following addresses:

(1) The address for the party to be served listed on the permit issued for the improvement.

(2) The address for the party to be served listed with the tax rolls for any county in North Carolina.

(3) The address of the registered agent for the party to be served listed with the North Carolina Secretary of State's office."

SECTION 3. G.S. 44A-12(c) reads as rewritten:

"§ 44A-12. Filing claim of lien on real property.

...

(c) Contents of Claim of Lien on Real Property to Be Filed. – All claims of lien on real property must be filed using a form substantially as follows:

CLAIM OF LIEN ON REAL PROPERTY

(1) Name and address of the person claiming the claim of lien on real property:
(2) Name and address of the record owner of the real property claimed to be subject to the claim of lien on real property at the time the claim of lien on real property is ~~filed:~~filed, and, if the claim of lien on real property is being asserted pursuant to G.S. 44A-23, the name of the contractor through which subrogation is being asserted:
(3) Description of the real property upon which the claim of lien on real property is claimed: (Street address, tax lot and block number, reference to recorded instrument, or any other description of real property is sufficient, whether or not it is specific, if it reasonably identifies what is described.)
(4) Name and address of the person with whom the claimant contracted for the furnishing of labor or materials:
(5) Date upon which labor or materials were first furnished upon said property by the claimant:
(5a) Date upon which labor or materials were last furnished upon said property by the claimant:
(6) General description of the labor performed or materials furnished and the amount claimed therefor:
(7) I hereby certify that I have served the parties listed in paragraph two above in accordance with the requirements of G.S. 44A-11.

A general description of the labor performed or materials furnished is sufficient. It is not necessary for lien claimant to file an itemized list of materials or a detailed statement of labor performed.".

SECTION 4. G.S. 44A-13 is amended by adding new subsections to read:

"§ 44A-13. Action to enforce claim of lien on real property.

...

(d) Former Owner Not a Necessary Party to Action. – In an action brought under this section, a former owner of the improved property at the time the lien arose, who holds no ownership interest in the property at the time the action is commenced, and against whom the plaintiff seeks no relief, is not a necessary party to the action.

(e) Subsequent Purchaser and Lender Not Necessary or Proper Parties to Action Filed After Claim of Lien is Discharged. – If a claim of lien on real property filed under this Article is discharged pursuant to G.S. 44A-16(5) or G.S. 44A-16(6) prior to the filing of an action to enforce the claim of lien under G.S. 44A-13, then neither a subsequent purchaser of the real property upon which the lien is claimed nor the subsequent purchaser's lender shall be a necessary or proper party to the action. However, nothing herein precludes the lien claimant from asserting any claims against any party that are separate and distinct from enforcement of the lien.

(f) Subsequent Purchaser and Lender No Longer Necessary or Proper Parties Upon Discharge of Claim of Lien After Action Is Filed. – If a an action to enforce a lien under G.S. 44A-13 is commenced before the claim of lien is discharged pursuant to G.S. 44A-16(5) or G.S. 44A-16(6), a subsequent purchaser of the real property upon which the lien is claimed and the subsequent purchaser's lender shall cease to be a necessary or proper party to the action, and any claim for lien enforcement asserted against the subsequent purchaser of the real property upon which the lien is claimed or the subsequent purchaser's lender shall be dismissed upon motion of any party upon a showing that the claim of lien was discharged pursuant to G.S. 44A-16. However, nothing herein precludes the lien claimant from continuing to pursue any claims against any party that are separate and distinct from enforcement of the lien.

(g) Bonds Prohibited From Requiring Subsequent Purchaser or Lender to Remain Parties to Action After Discharge of Claim of Lien. – The fact that a subsequent purchaser of the real property upon which the lien is claimed or the subsequent purchaser's lender is not a party to an action to enforce a claim of lien on real property subsequent to discharge of that claim of lien by the contractor under G.S. 44A-16 shall not invalidate the claim of lien under this Chapter nor shall it invalidate any bond filed under G.S. 44A-16 to discharge the claim of lien. Further, a bond filed under G.S. 44A-16(a)(6) shall not require that a subsequent purchaser of the real property upon which the lien is claimed or the subsequent purchaser's lender remain a party to an action to enforce a claim of lien after the claim of lien has been discharged pursuant to G.S. 44A-16.

(h) Definition of "Subsequent Purchaser." – For purposes of this section, a "subsequent purchaser" means a party whose record interest is protected under G.S. 47-18, including any beneficiary of a deed of trust or mortgagee of that party, the priority of whose interest is protected under the provisions of G.S. 47-20, and who was not the owner of the real property at the time of the improvements giving rise to the lien claim as defined in G.S. 44A-7(6)."

SECTION 5. G.S. 44A-17 is repealed.

SECTION 6. G.S. 44A-18 reads as rewritten:

"§ 44A-18. Grant of lien upon funds; subrogation; perfection.

~~Upon compliance with this Article:~~

~~(1)~~(a) A first tier subcontractor who furnished labor, materials, or rental equipment at the site of the improvement shall ~~be entitled to~~ have a lien upon funds that are owed to the contractor with whom the first tier subcontractor dealt and that arise out of the improvement on which the first tier subcontractor worked or furnished materials.

~~(2)~~(b) A second tier subcontractor who furnished labor, materials, or rental equipment at the site of the improvement shall ~~be entitled to~~have a lien upon funds that are owed to the first tier subcontractor with whom the second tier subcontractor dealt and that arise out of the improvement on which the second tier subcontractor worked or furnished materials. A second tier subcontractor, to the extent of the second tier subcontractor's lien provided in this subdivision, shall also be ~~entitled to be~~ subrogated to the lien upon funds of the first tier subcontractor with whom the second tier contractor dealt provided for in subdivision (1) of this section and shall ~~be entitled to~~ perfect it by service of the notice of claim of lien upon funds to the extent of the claim.

~~(3)~~(c) A third tier subcontractor who furnished labor, materials, or rental equipment at the site of the improvement shall ~~be entitled to~~have a lien upon funds that are owed to the second tier subcontractor with whom the third tier subcontractor dealt and that arise out of the improvement on which the third tier subcontractor worked or furnished materials. A third tier subcontractor, to the extent of the third tier subcontractor's lien upon funds provided in this subdivision, shall also ~~be entitled to~~ be subrogated to the lien upon funds of the second tier subcontractor with whom the third tier contractor dealt and to the lien upon funds of the first tier subcontractor with whom the second tier subcontractor dealt to the extent that the second tier subcontractor is ~~entitled to be~~ subrogated thereto, and in either case shall ~~be entitled to~~ perfect ~~the same~~it by service of the notice of claim of lien upon funds to the extent of the claim.

~~(4)~~(d) Subcontractors more remote than the third tier who furnished labor, materials, or rental equipment at the site of the improvement shall ~~be entitled to~~have a lien upon funds that are owed to the person with whom they dealt and that arise out of the improvement on which they furnished labor, materials, or rental equipment, but such remote tier subcontractor shall not be entitled to subrogation to the rights of other persons.

~~(5)~~(e) The liens upon funds granted under this section shall secure amounts earned by the lien claimant as a result of having furnished labor, materials, or rental equipment at the site of the improvement under the contract to improve real property, including interest at the legal rate provided in G.S. 24-5, whether or not such amounts are due and whether or not performance or delivery is complete. In the event insufficient funds are retained to satisfy all lien claimants, subcontractor lien claimants may recover the interest due under this subdivision on a pro rata basis, but in no event shall interest due under this subdivision increase the liability of the obligor under G.S. 44A-20.

~~(6)~~(f) A lien upon funds granted under this section arises, attaches, and is ~~perfected~~effective immediately upon the first furnishing of labor, materials, or rental equipment at the site of the improvement by a subcontractor. Any lien upon funds granted under this section is perfected upon the giving of notice of claim of lien upon funds in writing to the obligor as provided in ~~G.S. 44A-19 and shall be effective upon the obligor's receipt of the notice. The subrogation rights of a first, second, or third tier subcontractor to the claim of lien on real property of the contractor created by Part 1 of Article 2 of this Chapter are perfected as provided in G.S. 44A-23.~~ G.S. 44A-19.

(g) Until a lien claimant gives notice of a claim of lien upon funds in writing to the obligor as provided in G.S. 44A-19, any owner, contractor, or subcontractor against whose interest the lien upon funds is claimed may make, receive, use, or collect payments thereon and may use such proceeds in the ordinary course of its business."

SECTION 7. G.S. 44A-19 reads as rewritten:

"§ 44A-19. Notice of claim of lien upon funds.

(a) Notice of a claim of lien upon funds shall set forth all of the following information:

(1) The name and address of the person claiming the lien upon funds.

(2) A general description of the real property improved.

(3) The name and address of the person with whom the lien claimant contracted to improve real property.

(4) The name and address of each person against or through whom subrogation rights are claimed.

(5) A general description of the contract and the person against whose interest the lien upon funds is claimed.

(6) The amount of the lien upon funds claimed by the lien claimant under the contract.

(b) All notices of claims of liens upon funds by first, second, or third tier subcontractors must be given using a form substantially as follows:

(d) Notices of claims of lien upon funds under this section shall be served upon the obligor by personal delivery or in any manner authorized by Rule 4 of the North Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure. A copy of the notice of claim of lien upon funds shall be attached to any claim of lien on real property filed pursuant to ~~G.S. 44A-20(d) or G.S. 44A-23.~~G.S. 44A-20(d).

(e) Notices of claims of lien upon funds shall not be filed with the clerk of superior court and shall not be indexed, docketed, or recorded in any way as to affect title to any real property, except a notice of a claim of lien upon funds may be filed with the clerk of superior court under either of the following circumstances:

(1) When the notice of claim of lien upon funds is attached to a claim of lien on real property filed pursuant to ~~G.S. 44A-20(d) or G.S. 44A-23.~~G.S. 44A-20(d).

(2) When the notice of claim of lien upon funds is filed by the obligor for the purpose of discharging the claim of lien upon funds in accordance with G.S. 44A-20(e).

(f) Filing a notice of claim of lien upon funds pursuant to subsection (e) of this section is not a violation of G.S. 44A-12.1."

SECTION 8. G.S. 44A-20 reads as rewritten:

"§ 44A-20. Duties and liability of obligor.

(a) Upon receipt of the notice of claim of lien upon funds provided for in this Article, the obligor shall be under a duty to retain any funds subject to the lien or liens upon funds under this Article up to the total amount of such liens upon funds as to which notices of claims of lien upon funds have been received.

(b) If, after the receipt of the notice of claim of lien upon funds to the obligor, the obligor makes further payments to a contractor or subcontractor against whose interest the lien or liens upon funds are claimed, the lien upon funds shall continue upon the funds in the hands of the contractor or subcontractor who received the payment, and in addition the obligor shall be personally liable to the person or persons entitled to liens upon funds up to the amount of such wrongful payments, not exceeding the total claims with respect to which the notice of claim of lien upon funds was received prior to payment.

(c) If an obligor makes a payment after receipt of notice of claim of lien on funds and incurs personal liability under subsection (b) of this section, the obligor shall be entitled to reimbursement and indemnification from the party receiving such payment.

(d) If the obligor is an owner of the property being improved, the lien claimant shall be entitled to a claim of lien upon real property upon the interest of the obligor in the real property to the extent of the owner's personal liability under subsection (b) of this section, which claim of lien on real property shall be enforced only in the manner set forth in G.S. 44A-7 through G.S. 44A-16 and which claim of lien on real property shall be entitled to the same priorities and subject to the same filing requirements and periods of limitation applicable to the contractor. The claim of lien on real property is perfected as of the time set forth in G.S. 44A-10 upon the filing of the claim of lien on real property pursuant to G.S. 44A-12. A lien waiver signed by the contractor prior to the commencement of an action to enforce a perfected claim of lien on real property granted under G.S. 44A-23 waives the subcontractor's right to enforce the contractor's claim of lien on real property, but does not affect the subcontractor's right to a claim of lien on funds or the subcontractor's right to a claim of lien on real property allowed under this subsection. The claim of lien on real property as provided under this subsection shall be in the form set out in G.S. 44A-12(c) and shall contain, in addition, a copy of the notice of claim of lien upon funds given pursuant to G.S. 44A-19 as an exhibit together with proof of service thereof by affidavit, and shall state the grounds the lien claimant has to believe that the obligor is personally liable for the debt under subsection (b) of this section.

(e) A notice of claim of lien upon funds under G.S. 44A-19 may be filed by the obligor with the clerk of superior court in each county where the real property upon which the filed notice of claim of lien upon funds is located for the purpose of discharging the notice of claim of lien upon funds by any of the methods described in G.S. 44A-16.

(f) A bond deposited under this section to discharge a filed notice of claim of lien upon funds shall be effective to discharge any claim of lien on real property filed by the same lien claimant pursuant to subsection (d) of this section or G.S. 44A-23 and shall further be effective to discharge any notices of claims of lien upon funds served by lower tier subcontractors or any claims of lien on real property filed by lower tier subcontractors pursuant to subsection (d) of this section or G.S. 44A-23 claiming through or against the contractor or higher tier subcontractors up to the amount of the bond."

SECTION 9. G.S. 44A-23 reads as rewritten:

"§ 44A-23. Contractor's claim of lien on real property; perfection of subrogation rights of subcontractor.

(a) First tier subcontractor. – A first tier ~~subcontractor, who gives notice of claim of lien upon funds as provided in this Article,~~subcontractor may, to the extent of ~~this~~ its claim, enforce the claim of lien on real property of the contractor created by Part 1 of this Article. The manner of such enforcement shall be as provided by G.S. 44A-7 through 44A-16. The claim of lien on real property is perfected as of the time set forth in G.S. 44A-10 upon filing of the claim of lien on real property pursuant to G.S. 44A-12. When completing the claim of lien on real property form, the subcontractor may use as the date upon which labor or materials were first or last furnished on the real property either the date of the first or last furnishing of labor or materials on the real property by the subcontractor making the claim or the date of the first or last furnishing of labor or materials on the real property by the contractor through which the claim of lien on real property is being asserted. Upon the filing of the claim of lien on real ~~property, with the notice of claim of lien upon funds attached,~~ property and the commencement of the action, no action of the contractor shall be effective to prejudice the rights of the subcontractor without his written consent.

(b) Second or third tier subcontractor. –

(1) A second or third tier ~~subcontractor, who gives notice of claim of lien upon funds as provided in this Article,~~subcontractor may, to the extent of his claim, enforce the claim of lien on real property of the contractor created by Part 1 of Article 2 of the Chapter except when:

a. The owner or contractor, within 30 days following the date the ~~building~~ permit is issued for the improvement of the real property ~~involved,~~ involved or within 30 days following the date the contractor is awarded the contract for the improvement of the real property involved, whichever is later, posts on the property in a visible location adjacent to the posted ~~building permit~~ permit, if a permit is required, and files in the office of the clerk of superior court in each county wherein the real property to be improved is located, a completed and signed notice of contract form and the second or third tier subcontractor fails to serve upon the contractor a completed and signed notice of subcontract form by the same means of service as described in G.S. 44A-19(d); or

b. After the posting and filing of a signed notice of contract and the service upon the contractor of a signed notice of subcontract, the contractor serves upon the second or third tier subcontractor, within five days following each subsequent payment, by the same means of service as described in G.S. 44A-19(d), the written notice of payment setting forth the date of payment and the period for which payment is made as requested in the notice of subcontract form set forth herein.

(2) The form of the notice of contract to be so utilized under this section shall be substantially as follows and the fee for filing the same with the clerk of superior court shall be the same as charged for filing a claim of lien on real property:

"NOTICE OF CONTRACT

"(1) Name and address of the Contractor:

"(2) Name and address of the owner of the real property at the time this Notice of Contract is recorded:

"(3) General description of the real property to be improved (street address, tax map lot and block number, reference to recorded instrument, or any other description that reasonably identifies the real property):

"(4) Name and address of the person, firm or corporation filing this Notice of Contract:

"Dated:_____

_____

"Contractor

"Filed this the____day of _____, ____.

Clerk of Superior Court"

(3) The form of the notice of subcontract to be so utilized under this section shall be substantially as follows:

"NOTICE OF SUBCONTRACT

"(1) Name and address of the subcontractor:

"(2) General description of the real property ~~where~~ on which the labor was performed or the material was furnished (street address, tax map lot and block number, reference to recorded instrument, or any description that reasonably identifies the real property):

"(3)

"(i) General description of the subcontractor's contract, including the names of the parties thereto:

"(ii) General description of the labor and material performed and furnished thereunder:

"(4) Request is hereby made by the undersigned subcontractor that he be notified in writing by the contractor of, and within five days following, each subsequent payment by the contractor to the first tier subcontractor for labor performed or material furnished at the improved real property within the above descriptions of such in paragraph (2) and subparagraph (3)(ii), respectively, the date payment was made and the period for which payment is made.

"Dated:_____

_____

Subcontractor"

(4) The manner of such enforcement shall be as provided by G.S. 44A-7 through G.S. 44A-16. The lien is perfected as of the time set forth in G.S. 44A-10 upon the filing of a claim of lien on real property pursuant to G.S. 44A-12. Upon the filing of the claim of lien on real ~~property, with the notice of claim of lien upon funds attached,~~ property and the commencement of the action, no action of the contractor shall be effective to prejudice the rights of the second or third tier subcontractor without his written consent.

(c) A lien waiver signed by the contractor prior to the commencement of an action to enforce a perfected claim of lien on real property granted under this section waives the subcontractor's right to enforce the contractor's claim of lien on real property, but does not affect the subcontractor's right to a claim of lien on funds or the subcontractor's right to a claim of lien on real property allowed under G.S. 44A-20(d)."

SECTION 10. G.S. 44A-24 reads as rewritten:

"§ 44A-24. False statement a ~~misdemeanor.~~misdemeanor, an unfair and deceptive trade practice, and grounds for disciplinary action against a licensed contractor or qualifying party.

If any contractor or other person receiving payment from an obligor for an improvement to real property or from a purchaser for a conveyance of real property with improvements subject to this Article or to Article 3 of this Chapter shall knowingly furnish to such obligor, purchaser, or to a lender who obtains a security interest in said real property, or to a title insurance company insuring title to such real property, a false written statement of the sums due or claimed to be due for labor or material furnished at the site of improvements to such real property, then such contractor, subcontractor or other person shall be guilty of a Class 1 ~~misdemeanor.~~ misdemeanor and shall be subject to a claim for violation of G.S. 75-1.1 by any obligor, purchaser, lender who obtains a security interest in such property, title insurance company insuring title to such property, or any person who otherwise would be entitled to a claim of lien on real property under this Article and who suffers actual harm as a result of the misrepresentation. In addition, any person who knowingly signs or directs another person to sign such a written statement shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor and subject to a claim for violation of G.S. 75-1.1. Upon conviction and in the event the court shall grant any defendant a suspended sentence, the court may in its discretion include as a condition of such suspension a provision that the defendant shall reimburse the party who suffered loss on such conditions as the court shall determine are proper.

The elements of the offense herein stated are the furnishing of the false written statement with knowledge that it is false and the subsequent or simultaneous receipt of payment from an obligor or ~~purchaser, and in any~~ purchaser by the person signing the document, a person directing another to sign the document, or any person or entity for whom the document was signed. In any criminal prosecution hereunder it shall not be necessary for the State to prove that the obligor, purchaser, lender or title insurance company relied upon the false statement or that any person was injured thereby.

In addition to the criminal sanctions and civil liabilities created by this section, conduct constituting the offense herein stated and causing actual harm to any person by any licensed contractor or qualifying party, as that term is used in Chapter 87 of the General Statutes, shall constitute deceit and misconduct subject to disciplinary action under Chapter 87 of the General Statutes, including revocation, suspension, or restriction of a license or the ability to act as a qualifying party for a license."

SECTION 11. G.S. 44A-27 reads as rewritten:

"§ 44A-27. Actions on payment bonds; service of notice.

(a) Subject to the provision of subsection (b) hereof, any claimant who has performed labor or furnished materials in the prosecution of the work required by any contract for which a payment bond has been given pursuant to the provisions of this Article, and who has not been paid in full therefor before the expiration of 90 days after the day on which the claimant performed the last such labor or furnished the last such materials for which he claims payment, may bring an action on such payment bond in his own name, to recover any amount due him for such labor or materials and may prosecute such action to final judgment and have execution on the judgment.

(b) Any claimant who has a direct contractual relationship with any subcontractor but has no contractual relationship, express or implied, with the contractor may bring an action on the payment bond only if he has given written notice of claim on payment bond to the contractor within 120 days from the date on which the claimant performed the last of the labor or furnished the last of the materials for which he claims payment, stating with substantial accuracy the amount claimed and the name of the person for whom the work was performed or to whom the material was furnished. The contractor shall furnish a copy of the payment bond required by this Article within seven calendar days in response to a written request served by any claimant in accordance with the provisions of G.S. 44A-27(c). Subject to the exception set forth in subsection (e) of this section, unless the contractor has failed to satisfy its obligation to timely furnish a copy of the payment bond to a claimant upon proper request by the claimant, the claim of such a claimant shall not include labor or materials provided more than 75 days prior to the claimant's service, in accordance with subsections (c) and (d) of this section, of its written notice of public subcontract to the contractor.

(c) The ~~notice~~notices required by and any requests for copy of payment bond referenced by subsection ~~(b),~~(b) of this section, ~~above,~~ shall be served by ~~registered or~~ certified mail, or by signature confirmation as provided by the United States Postal Service, postage prepaid, in an envelope addressed to such contractor at any place where his office is regularly maintained for the transaction of business or to such agent identified in the contractor's project statement referenced in subdivision (1) of subsection (f) of this section or served in any manner provided by law for the service of summons.

(d) The form of the notice of public subcontract to be served pursuant to subsection (b) of this section shall be substantially as follows:

"NOTICE OF PUBLIC SUBCONTRACT

(1) Name and address of the subcontractor giving notice of public subcontract:

(2) General description of the real property on which the labor was or is to be performed or the material was or is to be furnished (street address, tax map lot and block number, reference to recorded instrument, or any description that reasonably identifies the real property):

(3) General description of the subcontractor's contract, including the names and addresses of the parties thereto:

(4) General description of the labor and material performed and furnished thereunder:

Dated: _____

_____

Subcontractor"

(e) Notwithstanding subsections (b), (c), and (d) of this section, the obligation to provide a notice of public subcontract shall not apply to claims of twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) or less and, for any claim exceeding twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), shall apply only to that portion of the claim in excess of twenty thousand dollars ($20,000).

(f) In connection with any construction contract for which a bond is required by G.S. 44A-26(a):

(1) The contractor shall provide to each subcontractor that it engages to perform labor or furnish materials in the performance of the construction contract a contractor's project statement containing all of the following information:

a. The name of the project.

b. The physical address of the project.

c. The name of the contracting body.

d. The name of the contractor.

e. The name, phone number, and mailing address of an agent authorized by the contractor to accept service of the requests for payment bond, the notice of public subcontract, and the notice of claim on payment bond referenced in subsection (b) of this section.

f. The name and address of the principal place of business of the surety issuing the payment bond required by G.S. 44A-26(a) for the construction contract.

(2) Each subcontractor shall provide each subcontractor that it engages to perform labor or furnish materials in the performance of the construction contract a copy of the contractor's project statement.

(3) No agreement entered into between a contractor and a subcontractor or between a subcontractor and its subcontractor shall be enforceable against the lower tier party until the contractor's project statement has been provided to the lower tier party."

SECTION 12.(a) G.S. 44A-4(b) reads as rewritten:

"§ 44A-4. Enforcement of lien by sale.

...

(b) Notice and Hearings. –

(1) If the property upon which the lien is claimed is a motor vehicle that is required to be registered, the lienor following the expiration of the relevant time period provided by subsection (a) shall give notice to the Division of Motor Vehicles that a lien is asserted and sale is proposed and shall remit to the Division a fee of ten dollars ($10.00). The Division of Motor Vehicles shall issue notice by ~~registered or~~ certified mail, return receipt requested, to the person having legal title to the property, if reasonably ascertainable, to the person with whom the lienor dealt if different, and to each secured party and other person claiming an interest in the property who is actually known to the Division or who can be reasonably ascertained. The notice shall state that a lien has been asserted against specific property and shall identify the lienor, the date that the lien arose, the general nature of the services performed and materials used or sold for which the lien is asserted, the amount of the lien, and that the lienor intends to sell the property in satisfaction of the lien. The notice shall inform the recipient that the recipient has the right to a judicial hearing at which time a determination will be made as to the validity of the lien prior to a sale taking place. The notice shall further state that the recipient has a period of 10 days from the date of receipt in which to notify the Division by ~~registered or~~ certified mail, return receipt requested, that a hearing is desired and that if the recipient wishes to contest the sale of his property pursuant to such lien, the recipient should notify the Division that a hearing is desired. The notice shall state the required information in simplified terms and shall contain a form whereby the recipient may notify the Division that a hearing is desired by the return of such form to the Division. The Division shall notify the lienor whether such notice is timely received by the Division. In lieu of the notice by the lienor to the Division and the notices issued by the Division described above, the lienor may issue notice on a form approved by the Division pursuant to the notice requirements above. If notice is issued by the lienor, the recipient shall return the form requesting a hearing to the lienor, and not the Division, within 10 days from the date the recipient receives the notice if a judicial hearing is requested. If the ~~registered or~~ certified mail notice has been returned as undeliverable and the notice of a right to a judicial hearing has been given to the owner of the motor vehicle in accordance with G.S. 20-28.4, no further notice is required. Failure of the recipient to notify the Division or lienor, as specified in the notice, within 10 days of the receipt of such notice that a hearing is desired shall be deemed a waiver of the right to a hearing prior to the sale of the property against which the lien is asserted, and the lienor may proceed to enforce the lien by public or private sale as provided in this section and the Division shall transfer title to the property pursuant to such sale. If the Division or lienor, as specified in the notice, is notified within the 10-day period provided above that a hearing is desired prior to sale, the lien may be enforced by sale as provided in this section and the Division will transfer title only pursuant to the order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

If the ~~registered or~~ certified mail notice has been returned as undeliverable, or if the name of the person having legal title to the vehicle cannot reasonably be ascertained and the fair market value of the vehicle is less than eight hundred dollars ($800.00), the lienor may institute a special proceeding in the county where the vehicle is being held, for authorization to sell that vehicle. Market value shall be determined by the schedule of values adopted by the Commissioner under G.S. 105-187.3.

In such a proceeding a lienor may include more than one vehicle, but the proceeds of the sale of each shall be subject only to valid claims against that vehicle, and any excess proceeds of the sale shall be paid immediately to the Treasurer for disposition pursuant to Chapter 116B of the General Statutes.

The application to the clerk in such a special proceeding shall contain the notice of sale information set out in subsection (f) hereof. If the application is in proper form the clerk shall enter an order authorizing the sale on a date not less than 14 days therefrom, and the lienor shall cause the application and order to be sent immediately by first-class mail pursuant to G.S. 1A-1, Rule 5, to each person to whom notice was mailed pursuant to this subsection. Following the authorized sale the lienor shall file with the clerk a report in the form of an affidavit, stating that the lienor has complied with the public or private sale provisions of G.S. 44A-4, the name, address, and bid of the high bidder or person buying at a private sale, and a statement of the disposition of the sale proceeds. The clerk then shall enter an order directing the Division to transfer title accordingly.

If prior to the sale the owner or legal possessor contests the sale or lien in a writing filed with the clerk, the proceeding shall be handled in accordance with G.S. 1-301.2.

(2) If the property upon which the lien is claimed is other than a motor vehicle required to be registered, the lienor following the expiration of the 30-day period provided by subsection (a) shall issue notice to the person having legal title to the property, if reasonably ascertainable, and to the person with whom the lienor dealt if different by ~~registered or~~ certified mail, return receipt requested. Such notice shall state that a lien has been asserted against specific property and shall identify the lienor, the date that the lien arose, the general nature of the services performed and materials used or sold for which the lien is asserted, the amount of the lien, and that the lienor intends to sell the property in satisfaction of the lien. The notice shall inform the recipient that the recipient has the right to a judicial hearing at which time a determination will be made as to the validity of the lien prior to a sale taking place. The notice shall further state that the recipient has a period of 10 days from the date of receipt in which to notify the lienor by ~~registered or~~ certified mail, return receipt requested, that a hearing is desired and that if the recipient wishes to contest the sale of his property pursuant to such lien, the recipient should notify the lienor that a hearing is desired. The notice shall state the required information in simplified terms and shall contain a form whereby the recipient may notify the lienor that a hearing is desired by the return of such form to the lienor. Failure of the recipient to notify the lienor within 10 days of the receipt of such notice that a hearing is desired shall be deemed a waiver of the right to a hearing prior to sale of the property against which the lien is asserted and the lienor may proceed to enforce the lien by public or private sale as provided in this section. If the lienor is notified within the 10-day period provided above that a hearing is desired prior to sale, the lien may be enforced by sale as provided in this section only pursuant to the order of a court of competent jurisdiction."

SECTION 12.(b) G.S. 44A-24.10 reads as rewritten:

"§ 44A-24.10. Lien extinguished for lien claimant failing to file suit or answer in pending suit within 30 days after service on owner.

If a lien claimant fails to file a suit to enforce the lien or fails to file an answer in a pending suit to enforce a lien within 30 days after a properly served written demand of the owner, lienee, or other authorized agent, the lien shall be extinguished. Service of the demand shall be by ~~registered or~~ certified mail, return receipt requested, or by personal service. The claimant shall file proof of properly served written demand with the clerk of the superior court. The provisions of this section shall not extend to any other deadline provided by law for the filing of any pleadings or for the foreclosure of any lien governed by this Part."

SECTION 12.(c) G.S. 44A-43 reads as rewritten:

"§ 44A-43. Enforcement of self-service storage facility lien.

...

(b) Notice and Hearing:

(1) If the property upon which the lien is claimed is a motor vehicle, the lienor, following the expiration of the 15-day period provided by subsection (a), shall give notice to the Division of Motor Vehicles that a lien is asserted and that a sale is proposed. The lienor shall remit to the Division a fee of two dollars ($2.00); and shall also furnish the Division with the last known address of the occupant. The Division of Motor Vehicles shall issue notice by ~~registered or~~ certified mail, return receipt requested to the person having legal title to the vehicle, if reasonably ascertainable, and to the occupant, if different, at his last known address. The notice shall:

c. State that the legal title holder and the occupant have a period of 10 days from the date of receipt of the notice in which to notify the Division of Motor Vehicles by ~~registered or~~ certified mail, return receipt requested, that a hearing is desired to contest the sale of the vehicle pursuant to the lien.

The person with legal title or the occupant must, within 10 days of receipt of the notice from the Division of Motor Vehicles, notify the Division of his desire to contest the sale of the vehicle pursuant to the lien, and that the Division should so notify lienor.

Failure of the person with legal title or the occupant to notify the Division that a hearing is desired shall be deemed a waiver of the right to a hearing prior to sale of the vehicle against which the lien is asserted. Upon such failure, the Division shall so notify the lienor; the lienor may proceed to enforce the lien by a public sale as provided by this section; and the Division shall transfer title to the property pursuant to such sale.

If the Division is notified within the 10-day period provided in this section that a hearing is desired prior to the sale, the lien may be enforced by a public sale as provided in this section and the Division will transfer title only pursuant to the order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

...

(c) Public Sale. –

(1) Not less than 20 days prior to sale by public sale the lienor:

a. Shall cause notice to be delivered by ~~registered or~~ certified mail to the person having a security interest in the property if reasonably ascertainable, and to the occupant at the occupant's last known address. Notice given pursuant to this subdivision shall be presumed delivered when it is properly addressed, first-class postage prepaid, and deposited with the United States Postal Service.

...."

SECTION 13. Sections 1 through 3 and Sections 5 through 11 of this act become effective January 1, 2013, and apply to improvements to real property for which the first permit required to be obtained is obtained on or after that date or, with respect to projects for which no permit is required, apply to improvement to real property commenced on or after that date. Sections 4, 12, and 13 of this act are effective when this act becomes law.

SECTION 2. G.S. 44A-11 reads as rewritten:

"§ 44A-11. Perfecting claim of lien on real property.

(a) Perfection. – A claim of lien on real property granted by this Article shall be perfected as of the time provided in G.S. 44A-10 upon the ~~filing of the claim of lien on real property under G.S. 44A-12 and may be enforced pursuant to G.S. 44A-13~~occurrence of all of the following:

(1) Service of a copy of the claim of lien on real property upon the record owner of the real property claimed to be subject to the claim of lien, and if the claim of lien on real property is being asserted pursuant to G.S. 44A-23, also upon the contractor through which subrogation is being asserted.

(2) Filing of the claim of lien on real property under G.S. 44A-12.

(b) Method of Service. – Service of the claim of lien on real property pursuant to subsection (a) of this section shall not require proof of actual receipt by the listed recipient and shall be complete upon the occurrence of any of the following:

(1) Personal delivery of a copy of the claim of lien on real property upon the recipient.

(2) Deposit of a copy of the claim of lien on real property in a postpaid, properly addressed wrapper in either of the following:

a. A post office or official depository under the exclusive care and custody of the United States Postal Service.

b. An authorized depository under the exclusive care and custody of a designated delivery service authorized pursuant to 26 U.S.C. § 7502(f)(2).

(c) Service Address. – For purposes of this section, a wrapper addressed to a party required to be served under subdivision (1) of subsection (a) of this section shall be conclusively deemed properly addressed if it uses any of the following addresses:

(1) The address for the party to be served listed on the permit issued for the improvement.

(2) The address for the party to be served listed with the tax rolls for any county in North Carolina.

(3) The address of the registered agent for the party to be served listed with the North Carolina Secretary of State's office."

SECTION 3. G.S. 44A-12 reads as rewritten:

"§ 44A-12. Filing claim of lien on real property.

(a) Place of Filing. – All claims of lien on real property must be filed in the office of the clerk of superior court in each county where the real property subject to the claim of lien on real property is located. The clerk of superior court shall note the claim of lien on real property on the judgment docket and index the same under the name of the record owner of the real property at the time the claim of lien on real property is filed. An additional copy of the claim of lien on real property may also be filed with any receiver, referee in bankruptcy or assignee for benefit of creditors who obtains legal authority over the real property.

(b) Time of Filing. – Claims of lien on real property may be filed at any time after the maturity of the obligation secured thereby but not later than 120 days after the last furnishing of labor or materials at the site of the improvement by the person claiming the lien.

(c) Contents of Claim of Lien on Real Property to Be Filed. – All claims of lien on real property must be filed using a form substantially as follows:

CLAIM OF LIEN ON REAL PROPERTY

(1) Name and address of the person claiming the claim of lien on real property:
(2) Name and address of the record owner of the real property claimed to be subject to the claim of lien on real property at the time the claim of lien on real property is ~~filed:~~filed, and, if the claim of lien on real property is being asserted pursuant to G.S. 44A-23, the name of the contractor through which subrogation is being asserted:
(3) Description of the real property upon which the claim of lien on real property is claimed: (Street address, tax lot and block number, reference to recorded instrument, or any other description of real property is sufficient, whether or not it is specific, if it reasonably identifies what is described.)
(4) Name and address of the person with whom the claimant contracted for the furnishing of labor or materials:
(5) Date upon which labor or materials were first furnished upon said property by the claimant:
(5a) Date upon which labor or materials were last furnished upon said property by the claimant:
(6) General description of the labor performed or materials furnished and the amount claimed therefor:
(7) I hereby certify that I have served the parties listed in paragraph two above in accordance with the requirements of G.S. 44A-11.

_____
Lien Claimant

Filed this ____ day of ____, ____

_____
Clerk of Superior Court

A general description of the labor performed or materials furnished is sufficient. It is not necessary for lien claimant to file an itemized list of materials or a detailed statement of labor performed.

(d) No Amendment of Claim of Lien on Real Property. – A claim of lien on real property may not be amended. A claim of lien on real property may be cancelled by a claimant or the claimant's authorized agent or attorney and a new claim of lien on real property substituted therefor within the time herein provided for original filing.

(e) Notice of Assignment of Claim of Lien on Real Property. – When a claim of lien on real property has been filed, it may be assigned of record by the lien claimant in a writing filed with the clerk of superior court who shall note the assignment in the margin of the judgment docket containing the claim of lien on real property. Thereafter the assignee becomes the lien claimant of record.

(f) Waiver of Right to File, Serve, or Claim ~~Liens as Consideration for Contract Against Public Policy.~~ Liens. –

(1) An agreement to waive the right to file a claim of lien on real property granted under this Part, or an agreement to waive the right to serve a notice of claim of lien upon funds granted under Part 2 of this Article, which agreement is in anticipation of and in consideration for the awarding of any contract, either expressed or implied, for the making of an improvement upon real property under this Article is against public policy and is unenforceable. This section does not prohibit subordination or release of a lien granted under this Part or Part 2 of this Article.

(2) Lien waivers denoted as "partial" lien waivers shall not alter or waive the lien claimant's effective date for any lien claim created by this Article. The sole manner of altering or waiving the effective date is by the lien claimant's executing a document expressly denoted as a "final" lien waiver.

(3) Unless expressly stated on the lien waiver form, the lien waiver shall be construed to be conditional upon the lien claimant's actual receipt of the specified funds.

(4) Lien waivers shall be substantially in the forms set forth below. Other forms may be used, but any substantive provisions that represent variations to the statutory forms affecting the lien rights created by this Article shall be unenforceable.

(5) The provisions of this section regarding lien waivers do not apply to lien waivers or subordinations obtained by closing attorneys, lenders, title insurance companies, or those acting on their behalf, as a part of any real estate or financing transactions. Nothing herein shall prevent partial or final lien waivers obtained by closing attorneys, lenders, title insurance companies, or those acting on their behalf, from containing subordination and/or release of lien agreements or from otherwise altering or modifying lien rights if agreed to by the signing parties.

(g) Partial lien waivers shall be in substantially the following form:

SECTION 4. G.S. 44A-13 is amended by adding new subsections to read:

"§ 44A-13. Action to enforce claim of lien on real property.

...

(d) Former Owner Not a Necessary Party to Action. – In an action brought under this section, a former owner of the improved property at the time the lien arose, who holds no ownership interest in the property at the time the action is commenced, and against whom the plaintiff seeks no relief, is not a necessary party to the action.

(e) Subsequent Purchaser and Lender Not Necessary or Proper Parties to Action Filed After Claim of Lien is Discharged. – If a claim of lien on real property filed under this Article is discharged pursuant to G.S. 44A-16(5) or G.S. 44A-16(6) prior to the filing of an action to enforce the claim of lien under G.S. 44A-13, then neither a subsequent purchaser of the real property upon which the lien is claimed nor the subsequent purchaser's lender shall be a necessary or proper party to the action. However, nothing herein precludes the lien claimant from asserting any claims against any party that are separate and distinct from enforcement of the lien.

(f) Subsequent Purchaser and Lender No Longer Necessary or Proper Parties Upon Discharge of Claim of Lien After Action Is Filed. – If a an action to enforce a lien under G.S. 44A-13 is commenced before the claim of lien is discharged pursuant to G.S. 44A-16(5) or G.S. 44A-16(6), a subsequent purchaser of the real property upon which the lien is claimed and the subsequent purchaser's lender shall cease to be a necessary or proper party to the action, and any claim for lien enforcement asserted against the subsequent purchaser of the real property upon which the lien is claimed or the subsequent purchaser's lender shall be dismissed upon motion of any party upon a showing that the claim of lien was discharged pursuant to G.S. 44A-16. However, nothing herein precludes the lien claimant from continuing to pursue any claims against any party that are separate and distinct from enforcement of the lien.

(g) Bonds Prohibited From Requiring Subsequent Purchaser or Lender to Remain Parties to Action After Discharge of Claim of Lien. – The fact that a subsequent purchaser of the real property upon which the lien is claimed or the subsequent purchaser's lender is not a party to an action to enforce a claim of lien on real property subsequent to discharge of that claim of lien by the contractor under G.S. 44A-16 shall not invalidate the claim of lien under this Chapter nor shall it invalidate any bond filed under G.S. 44A-16 to discharge the claim of lien. Further, a bond filed under G.S. 44A-16(a)(6) shall not require that a subsequent purchaser of the real property upon which the lien is claimed or the subsequent purchaser's lender remain a party to an action to enforce a claim of lien after the claim of lien has been discharged pursuant to G.S. 44A-16.

(h) Definition of "Subsequent Purchaser." – For purposes of this section, a "subsequent purchaser" means a party whose record interest is protected under G.S. 47-18, including any beneficiary of a deed of trust or mortgagee of that party, the priority of whose interest is protected under the provisions of G.S. 47-20, and who was not the owner of the real property at the time of the improvements giving rise to the lien claim as defined in G.S. 44A-7(3)."

SECTION 5. G.S. 44A-17 is repealed.

SECTION 6. G.S. 44A-18 reads as rewritten:

"§ 44A-18. Grant of lien upon funds; subrogation; perfection.

~~Upon compliance with this Article:~~

~~(1)~~(a) A first tier subcontractor who furnished labor, materials, or rental equipment at the site of the improvement shall ~~be entitled to~~ have a lien upon funds that are owed to the contractor with whom the first tier subcontractor dealt and that arise out of the improvement on which the first tier subcontractor worked or furnished materials.

~~(2)~~(b) A second tier subcontractor who furnished labor, materials, or rental equipment at the site of the improvement shall ~~be entitled to~~have a lien upon funds that are owed to the first tier subcontractor with whom the second tier subcontractor dealt and that arise out of the improvement on which the second tier subcontractor worked or furnished materials. A second tier subcontractor, to the extent of the second tier subcontractor's lien provided in this subdivision, shall also be ~~entitled to be~~ subrogated to the lien upon funds of the first tier subcontractor with whom the second tier contractor dealt provided for in subdivision (1) of this section and shall ~~be entitled to~~ perfect it by service of the notice of claim of lien upon funds to the extent of the claim.

~~(3)~~(c) A third tier subcontractor who furnished labor, materials, or rental equipment at the site of the improvement shall ~~be entitled to~~have a lien upon funds that are owed to the second tier subcontractor with whom the third tier subcontractor dealt and that arise out of the improvement on which the third tier subcontractor worked or furnished materials. A third tier subcontractor, to the extent of the third tier subcontractor's lien upon funds provided in this subdivision, shall also ~~be entitled to~~ be subrogated to the lien upon funds of the second tier subcontractor with whom the third tier contractor dealt and to the lien upon funds of the first tier subcontractor with whom the second tier subcontractor dealt to the extent that the second tier subcontractor is ~~entitled to be~~ subrogated thereto, and in either case shall ~~be entitled to~~ perfect ~~the same~~it by service of the notice of claim of lien upon funds to the extent of the claim.

~~(4)~~(d) Subcontractors more remote than the third tier who furnished labor, materials, or rental equipment at the site of the improvement shall ~~be entitled to~~have a lien upon funds that are owed to the person with whom they dealt and that arise out of the improvement on which they furnished labor, materials, or rental equipment, but such remote tier subcontractor shall not be entitled to subrogation to the rights of other persons.

~~(5)~~(e) The liens upon funds granted under this section shall secure amounts earned by the lien claimant as a result of having furnished labor, materials, or rental equipment at the site of the improvement under the contract to improve real property, including interest at the legal rate provided in G.S. 24-5, whether or not such amounts are due and whether or not performance or delivery is complete. In the event insufficient funds are retained to satisfy all lien claimants, subcontractor lien claimants may recover the interest due under this subdivision on a pro rata basis, but in no event shall interest due under this subdivision increase the liability of the obligor under G.S. 44A-20.

~~(6)~~(f) A lien upon funds granted under this section arises, attaches, and is ~~perfected~~effective immediately upon the first furnishing of labor, materials, or rental equipment at the site of the improvement by a subcontractor. Any lien upon funds granted under this section is perfected upon the giving of notice of claim of lien upon funds in writing to the obligor as provided in ~~G.S. 44A-19 and shall be effective upon the obligor's receipt of the notice. The subrogation rights of a first, second, or third tier subcontractor to the claim of lien on real property of the contractor created by Part 1 of Article 2 of this Chapter are perfected as provided in G.S. 44A-23.~~ G.S. 44A-19.

(g) Until a lien claimant gives notice of a claim of lien upon funds in writing to the obligor as provided in G.S. 44A-19, any owner, contractor, or subcontractor against whose interest the lien upon funds is claimed may make, receive, use, or collect payments thereon and may use such proceeds in the ordinary course of its business."

SECTION 7. G.S. 44A-19 reads as rewritten:

"§ 44A-19. Notice of claim of lien upon funds.

(a) Notice of a claim of lien upon funds shall set forth all of the following information:

(1) The name and address of the person claiming the lien upon funds.

(2) A general description of the real property improved.

(3) The name and address of the person with whom the lien claimant contracted to improve real property.

(4) The name and address of each person against or through whom subrogation rights are claimed.

(5) A general description of the contract and the person against whose interest the lien upon funds is claimed.

(6) The amount of the lien upon funds claimed by the lien claimant under the contract.

(b) All notices of claims of liens upon funds by first, second, or third tier subcontractors must be given using a form substantially as follows:

(d) Notices of claims of lien upon funds under this section shall be served upon the obligor by personal delivery or in any manner authorized by Rule 4 of the North Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure. A copy of the notice of claim of lien upon funds shall be attached to any claim of lien on real property filed pursuant to ~~G.S. 44A-20(d) or G.S. 44A-23.~~G.S. 44A-20(d).

(e) Notices of claims of lien upon funds shall not be filed with the clerk of superior court and shall not be indexed, docketed, or recorded in any way as to affect title to any real property, except a notice of a claim of lien upon funds may be filed with the clerk of superior court under either of the following circumstances:

(1) When the notice of claim of lien upon funds is attached to a claim of lien on real property filed pursuant to ~~G.S. 44A-20(d) or G.S. 44A-23.~~G.S. 44A-20(d).

(2) When the notice of claim of lien upon funds is filed by the obligor for the purpose of discharging the claim of lien upon funds in accordance with G.S. 44A-20(e).

(f) Filing a notice of claim of lien upon funds pursuant to subsection (e) of this section is not a violation of G.S. 44A-12.1."

SECTION 8. G.S. 44A-20 reads as rewritten:

"§ 44A-20. Duties and liability of obligor.

(a) Upon receipt of the notice of claim of lien upon funds provided for in this Article, the obligor shall be under a duty to retain any funds subject to the lien or liens upon funds under this Article up to the total amount of such liens upon funds as to which notices of claims of lien upon funds have been received.

(b) If, after the receipt of the notice of claim of lien upon funds to the obligor, the obligor makes further payments to a contractor or subcontractor against whose interest the lien or liens upon funds are claimed, the lien upon funds shall continue upon the funds in the hands of the contractor or subcontractor who received the payment, and in addition the obligor shall be personally liable to the person or persons entitled to liens upon funds up to the amount of such wrongful payments, not exceeding the total claims with respect to which the notice of claim of lien upon funds was received prior to payment.

(c) If an obligor makes a payment after receipt of notice of claim of lien on funds and incurs personal liability under subsection (b) of this section, the obligor shall be entitled to reimbursement and indemnification from the party receiving such payment.

(d) If the obligor is an owner of the property being improved, the lien claimant shall be entitled to a claim of lien upon real property upon the interest of the obligor in the real property to the extent of the owner's personal liability under subsection (b) of this section, which claim of lien on real property shall be enforced only in the manner set forth in G.S. 44A-7 through G.S. 44A-16 and which claim of lien on real property shall be entitled to the same priorities and subject to the same filing requirements and periods of limitation applicable to the contractor. The claim of lien on real property is perfected as of the time set forth in G.S. 44A-10 upon the filing of the claim of lien on real property pursuant to G.S. 44A-12. A lien waiver signed by the contractor prior to filing of the claim of lien on real property waives the subcontractor's right to a claim of lien on real property but does not affect the subcontractor's rights to a claim of lien on funds under this Article. The claim of lien on real property as provided under this subsection shall be in the form set out in G.S. 44A-12(c) and shall contain, in addition, a copy of the notice of claim of lien upon funds given pursuant to G.S. 44A-19 as an exhibit together with proof of service thereof by affidavit, and shall state the grounds the lien claimant has to believe that the obligor is personally liable for the debt under subsection (b) of this section.

(e) A notice of claim of lien upon funds under G.S. 44A-19 may be filed by the obligor with the clerk of superior court in each county where the real property upon which the filed notice of claim of lien upon funds is located for the purpose of discharging the notice of claim of lien upon funds by any of the methods described in G.S. 44A-16.

(f) A bond deposited under this section to discharge a filed notice of claim of lien upon funds shall be effective to discharge any claim of lien on real property filed by the same lien claimant pursuant to subsection (d) of this section or G.S. 44A-23 and shall further be effective to discharge any notices of claims of lien upon funds served by lower tier subcontractors or any claims of lien on real property filed by lower tier subcontractors pursuant to subsection (d) of this section or G.S. 44A-23 claiming through or against the contractor or higher tier subcontractors up to the amount of the bond."

SECTION 9. G.S. 44A-23 reads as rewritten:

"§ 44A-23. Contractor's claim of lien on real property; perfection of subrogation rights of subcontractor.

(a) First tier subcontractor. – A first tier ~~subcontractor, who gives notice of claim of lien upon funds as provided in this Article,~~subcontractor may, to the extent of ~~this~~ its claim, enforce the claim of lien on real property of the contractor created by Part 1 of this Article. The manner of such enforcement shall be as provided by G.S. 44A-7 through 44A-16. The claim of lien on real property is perfected as of the time set forth in G.S. 44A-10 upon filing of the claim of lien on real property pursuant to G.S. 44A-12. When completing the claim of lien on real property form, the subcontractor may use as the date upon which labor or materials were first or last furnished on the real property either the date of the first or last furnishing of labor or materials on the real property by the subcontractor making the claim or the date of the first or last furnishing of labor or materials on the real property by the contractor through which the claim of lien on real property is being asserted. Upon the filing of the claim of lien on real ~~property, with the notice of claim of lien upon funds attached,~~ property and the commencement of the action, no action of the contractor shall be effective to prejudice the rights of the subcontractor without his written consent. A lien waiver signed by the contractor prior to commencement of the action waives the subcontractor's right to a claim of lien on real property but does not affect the subcontractor's rights to a claim of lien on funds under this Article.

(b) Second or third subcontractor. –

(1) A second or third tier ~~subcontractor, who gives notice of claim of lien upon funds as provided in this Article,~~subcontractor may, to the extent of his claim, enforce the claim of lien on real property of the contractor created by Part 1 of Article 2 of the Chapter except when:

a. The owner or contractor, within 30 days following the date the ~~building~~ permit is issued for the improvement of the real property ~~involved,~~ involved or within 30 days following the date the contractor is awarded the contract for the improvement of the real property involved, whichever is later, posts on the property in a visible location adjacent to the posted ~~building permit~~ permit, if a permit is required, and files in the office of the clerk of superior court in each county wherein the real property to be improved is located, a completed and signed notice of contract form and the second or third tier subcontractor fails to serve upon the contractor a completed and signed notice of subcontract form by the same means of service as described in G.S. 44A-19(d); or

b. After the posting and filing of a signed notice of contract and the service upon the contractor of a signed notice of subcontract, the contractor serves upon the second or third tier subcontractor, within five days following each subsequent payment, by the same means of service as described in G.S. 44A-19(d), the written notice of payment setting forth the date of payment and the period for which payment is made as requested in the notice of subcontract form set forth herein.

(2) The form of the notice of contract to be so utilized under this section shall be substantially as follows and the fee for filing the same with the clerk of superior court shall be the same as charged for filing a claim of lien on real property:

"NOTICE OF CONTRACT

"(1) Name and address of the Contractor:

"(2) Name and address of the owner of the real property at the time this Notice of Contract is recorded:

"(3) General description of the real property to be improved (street address, tax map lot and block number, reference to recorded instrument, or any other description that reasonably identifies the real property):

"(4) Name and address of the person, firm or corporation filing this Notice of Contract:

"Dated:_____

_____

"Contractor

"Filed this the____day of _____, ____.

_____

Clerk of Superior Court"

(3) The form of the notice of subcontract to be so utilized under this section shall be substantially as follows:

"NOTICE OF SUBCONTRACT

"(1) Name and address of the subcontractor:

"(2) General description of the real property ~~where~~ on which the labor was performed or the material was furnished (street address, tax map lot and block number, reference to recorded instrument, or any description that reasonably identifies the real property):

"(3)

"(i) General description of the subcontractor's contract, including the names of the parties thereto:

"(ii) General description of the labor and material performed and furnished thereunder:

"(4) Request is hereby made by the undersigned subcontractor that he be notified in writing by the contractor of, and within five days following, each subsequent payment by the contractor to the first tier subcontractor for labor performed or material furnished at the improved real property within the above descriptions of such in paragraph (2) and subparagraph (3)(ii), respectively, the date payment was made and the period for which payment is made.

"Dated:_____

_____

Subcontractor"

(4) The manner of such enforcement shall be as provided by G.S. 44A-7 through G.S. 44A-16. The lien is perfected as of the time set forth in G.S. 44A-10 upon the filing of a claim of lien on real property pursuant to G.S. 44A-12. Upon the filing of the claim of lien on real ~~property, with the notice of claim of lien upon funds attached,~~ property and the commencement of the action, no action of the contractor shall be effective to prejudice the rights of the second or third tier subcontractor without his written consent."

SECTION 10. G.S. 44A-24 reads as rewritten:

"§ 44A-24. False statement a ~~misdemeanor.~~misdemeanor, an unfair and deceptive trade practice, and grounds for disciplinary action against a licensed contractor or qualifying party.

If any contractor or other person receiving payment from an obligor for an improvement to real property or from a purchaser for a conveyance of real property with improvements subject to this Article or to Article 3 of this Chapter shall knowingly furnish to such obligor, purchaser, or to a lender who obtains a security interest in said real property, or to a title insurance company insuring title to such real property, a false written statement of the sums due or claimed to be due for labor or material furnished at the site of improvements to such real property, then such contractor, subcontractor or other person shall be guilty of a Class 1 ~~misdemeanor.~~ misdemeanor and shall be subject to a claim for violation of G.S. 75-1.1 by any obligor, purchaser, lender who obtains a security interest in such property, title insurance company insuring title to such property, or any person who otherwise would be entitled to a claim of lien on real property under this Article and who suffers actual harm as a result of the misrepresentation. In addition, any person who knowingly signs or directs another person to sign such a written statement shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor and subject to a claim for violation of G.S. 75-1.1. Upon conviction and in the event the court shall grant any defendant a suspended sentence, the court may in its discretion include as a condition of such suspension a provision that the defendant shall reimburse the party who suffered loss on such conditions as the court shall determine are proper.

The elements of the offense herein stated are the furnishing of the false written statement with knowledge that it is false and the subsequent or simultaneous receipt of payment from an obligor or ~~purchaser, and in any~~ purchaser by the person signing the document, a person directing another to sign the document, or any person or entity for whom the document was signed. In any criminal prosecution hereunder it shall not be necessary for the State to prove that the obligor, purchaser, lender or title insurance company relied upon the false statement or that any person was injured thereby.

In addition to the criminal sanctions and civil liabilities created by this section, conduct constituting the offense herein stated and causing actual harm to any person by any licensed contractor or qualifying party, as that term is used in Chapter 87 of the General Statutes, shall constitute deceit and misconduct subject to disciplinary action under Chapter 87 of the General Statutes, including revocation, suspension, or restriction of a license or the ability to act as a qualifying party for a license."

SECTION 11. G.S. 44A-27 reads as rewritten:

"§ 44A-27. Actions on payment bonds; service of notice.

(a) Subject to the provision of subsection (b) hereof, any claimant who has performed labor or furnished materials in the prosecution of the work required by any contract for which a payment bond has been given pursuant to the provisions of this Article, and who has not been paid in full therefor before the expiration of 90 days after the day on which the claimant performed the last such labor or furnished the last such materials for which he claims payment, may bring an action on such payment bond in his own name, to recover any amount due him for such labor or materials and may prosecute such action to final judgment and have execution on the judgment.

(b) Any claimant who has a direct contractual relationship with any subcontractor but has no contractual relationship, express or implied, with the contractor may bring an action on the payment bond only if he has given written notice of claim on payment bond to the contractor within 120 days from the date on which the claimant performed the last of the labor or furnished the last of the materials for which he claims payment, stating with substantial accuracy the amount claimed and the name of the person for whom the work was performed or to whom the material was furnished. The contractor shall furnish a copy of the payment bond required by this Article within seven calendar days in response to a written request served by any claimant in accordance with the provisions of G.S. 44A-27(c). Subject to the exception set forth in subsection (e) of this section, unless the contractor has failed to satisfy its obligation to timely furnish a copy of the payment bond to a claimant upon proper request by the claimant, the claim of such a claimant shall not include labor or materials provided more than 75 days prior to the claimant's service, in accordance with subsections (c) and (d) of this section, of its written notice of public subcontract to the contractor.

(c) The ~~notice~~notices required by and any requests for copy of payment bond referenced by subsection ~~(b),~~(b) of this section, ~~above,~~ shall be served by ~~registered or~~ certified mail, or by signature confirmation as provided by the United States Postal Service, postage prepaid, in an envelope addressed to such contractor at any place where his office is regularly maintained for the transaction of business or to such agent identified in the contractor's project statement referenced in subdivision (1) of subsection (f) of this section or served in any manner provided by law for the service of summons.

(d) The form of the notice of public subcontract to be served pursuant to subsection (b) of this section shall be substantially as follows:

"NOTICE OF PUBLIC SUBCONTRACT

(1) Name and address of the subcontractor giving notice of public subcontract:
(2) General description of the real property on which the labor was or is to be performed or the material was or is to be furnished (street address, tax map lot and block number, reference to recorded instrument, or any description that reasonably identifies the real property):
(3) General description of the subcontractor's contract, including the names and addresses of the parties thereto:
(4) General description of the labor and material performed and furnished thereunder:

Dated: _____

_____
Subcontractor"

(e) Notwithstanding subsections (b), (c), and (d) of this section, the obligation to provide a notice of public subcontract shall not apply to claims of twenty thousand dollars ($20,000) or less and, for any claim exceeding twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), shall apply only to that portion of the claim in excess of twenty thousand dollars ($20,000).

(f) In connection with any construction contract for which a bond is required by G.S. 44A-26(a):

(1) The contractor shall provide to each subcontractor that it engages to perform labor or furnish materials in the performance of the construction contract a contractor's project statement containing all of the following information:
a. The name of the project.
b. The physical address of the project.
c. The name of the contracting body.
d. The name of the contractor.
e. The name, phone number, and mailing address of an agent authorized by the contractor to accept service of the requests for payment bond, the notice of public subcontract, and the notice of claim on payment bond referenced in subsection (b) of this section.
f. The name and address of the principal place of business of the surety issuing the payment bond required by G.S. 44A-26(a) for the construction contract.
(2) Each subcontractor shall provide each subcontractor that it engages to perform labor or furnish materials in the performance of the construction contract a copy of the contractor's project statement.
(3) No agreement entered into between a contractor and a subcontractor or between a subcontractor and its subcontractor shall be enforceable against the lower tier party until the contractor's project statement has been provided to the lower tier party."

SECTION 12.(a) G.S. 44A-4(b) reads as rewritten:

"§ 44A-4. Enforcement of lien by sale.

...

(b) Notice and Hearings. –

(1) If the property upon which the lien is claimed is a motor vehicle that is required to be registered, the lienor following the expiration of the relevant time period provided by subsection (a) shall give notice to the Division of

Motor Vehicles that a lien is asserted and sale is proposed and shall remit to the Division a fee of ten dollars ($10.00). The Division of Motor Vehicles shall issue notice by ~~registered or~~ certified mail, return receipt requested, to the person having legal title to the property, if reasonably ascertainable, to the person with whom the lienor dealt if different, and to each secured party and other person claiming an interest in the property who is actually known to the Division or who can be reasonably ascertained. The notice shall state that a lien has been asserted against specific property and shall identify the lienor, the date that the lien arose, the general nature of the services performed and materials used or sold for which the lien is asserted, the amount of the lien, and that the lienor intends to sell the property in satisfaction of the lien. The notice shall inform the recipient that the recipient has the right to a judicial hearing at which time a determination will be made as to the validity of the lien prior to a sale taking place. The notice shall further state that the recipient has a period of 10 days from the date of receipt in which to notify the Division by ~~registered or~~ certified mail, return receipt requested, that a hearing is desired and that if the recipient wishes to contest the sale of his property pursuant to such lien, the recipient should notify the Division that a hearing is desired. The notice shall state the required information in simplified terms and shall contain a form whereby the recipient may notify the Division that a hearing is desired by the return of such form to the Division. The Division shall notify the lienor whether such notice is timely received by the Division. In lieu of the notice by the lienor to the Division and the notices issued by the Division described above, the lienor may issue notice on a form approved by the Division pursuant to the notice requirements above. If notice is issued by the lienor, the recipient shall return the form requesting a hearing to the lienor, and not the Division, within 10 days from the date the recipient receives the notice if a judicial hearing is requested. If the ~~registered or~~ certified mail notice has been returned as undeliverable and the notice of a right to a judicial hearing has been given to the owner of the motor vehicle in accordance with G.S. 20-28.4, no further notice is required. Failure of the recipient to notify the Division or lienor, as specified in the notice, within 10 days of the receipt of such notice that a hearing is desired shall be deemed a waiver of the right to a hearing prior to the sale of the property against which the lien is asserted, and the lienor may proceed to enforce the lien by public or private sale as provided in this section and the Division shall transfer title to the property pursuant to such sale. If the Division or lienor, as specified in the notice, is notified within the 10-day period provided above that a hearing is desired prior to sale, the lien may be enforced by sale as provided in this section and the Division will transfer title only pursuant to the order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

If the ~~registered or~~ certified mail notice has been returned as undeliverable, or if the name of the person having legal title to the vehicle cannot reasonably be ascertained and the fair market value of the vehicle is less than eight hundred dollars ($800.00), the lienor may institute a special proceeding in the county where the vehicle is being held, for authorization to sell that vehicle. Market value shall be determined by the schedule of values adopted by the Commissioner under G.S. 105-187.3.

In such a proceeding a lienor may include more than one vehicle, but the proceeds of the sale of each shall be subject only to valid claims against that vehicle, and any excess proceeds of the sale shall be paid immediately to the Treasurer for disposition pursuant to Chapter 116B of the General Statutes.

The application to the clerk in such a special proceeding shall contain the notice of sale information set out in subsection (f) hereof. If the application is in proper form the clerk shall enter an order authorizing the sale on a date not less than 14 days therefrom, and the lienor shall cause the application and order to be sent immediately by first-class mail pursuant to G.S. 1A-1, Rule 5, to each person to whom notice was mailed pursuant to this subsection. Following the authorized sale the lienor shall file with the clerk a report in the form of an affidavit, stating that the lienor has complied with the public or private sale provisions of G.S. 44A-4, the name, address, and bid of the high bidder or person buying at a private sale, and a statement of the disposition of the sale proceeds. The clerk then shall enter an order directing the Division to transfer title accordingly.

If prior to the sale the owner or legal possessor contests the sale or lien in a writing filed with the clerk, the proceeding shall be handled in accordance with G.S. 1-301.2.

(2) If the property upon which the lien is claimed is other than a motor vehicle required to be registered, the lienor following the expiration of the 30-day period provided by subsection (a) shall issue notice to the person having legal title to the property, if reasonably ascertainable, and to the person with whom the lienor dealt if different by ~~registered or~~ certified mail, return receipt requested. Such notice shall state that a lien has been asserted against specific property and shall identify the lienor, the date that the lien arose, the general nature of the services performed and materials used or sold for which the lien is asserted, the amount of the lien, and that the lienor intends to sell the property in satisfaction of the lien. The notice shall inform the recipient that the recipient has the right to a judicial hearing at which time a determination will be made as to the validity of the lien prior to a sale taking place. The notice shall further state that the recipient has a period of 10 days from the date of receipt in which to notify the lienor by ~~registered or~~ certified mail, return receipt requested, that a hearing is desired and that if the recipient wishes to contest the sale of his property pursuant to such lien, the recipient should notify the lienor that a hearing is desired. The notice shall state the required information in simplified terms and shall contain a form whereby the recipient may notify the lienor that a hearing is desired by the return of such form to the lienor. Failure of the recipient to notify the lienor within 10 days of the receipt of such notice that a hearing is desired shall be deemed a waiver of the right to a hearing prior to sale of the property against which the lien is asserted and the lienor may proceed to enforce the lien by public or private sale as provided in this section. If the lienor is notified within the 10-day period provided above that a hearing is desired prior to sale, the lien may be enforced by sale as provided in this section only pursuant to the order of a court of competent jurisdiction."

SECTION 12.(b) G.S. 44A-24.10 reads as rewritten:

"§ 44A-24.10. Lien extinguished for lien claimant failing to file suit or answer in pending suit within 30 days after service on owner.

If a lien claimant fails to file a suit to enforce the lien or fails to file an answer in a pending suit to enforce a lien within 30 days after a properly served written demand of the owner, lienee, or other authorized agent, the lien shall be extinguished. Service of the demand shall be by ~~registered or~~ certified mail, return receipt requested, or by personal service. The claimant shall file proof of properly served written demand with the clerk of the superior court. The provisions of this section shall not extend to any other deadline provided by law for the filing of any pleadings or for the foreclosure of any lien governed by this Part."

SECTION 12.(c) G.S. 44A-43 reads as rewritten:

"§ 44A-43. Enforcement of self-service storage facility lien.

...

(b) Notice and Hearing:

(1) If the property upon which the lien is claimed is a motor vehicle, the lienor, following the expiration of the 15-day period provided by subsection (a), shall give notice to the Division of Motor Vehicles that a lien is asserted and that a sale is proposed. The lienor shall remit to the Division a fee of two dollars ($2.00); and shall also furnish the Division with the last known address of the occupant. The Division of Motor Vehicles shall issue notice by ~~registered or~~ certified mail, return receipt requested to the person having legal title to the vehicle, if reasonably ascertainable, and to the occupant, if different, at his last known address. The notice shall:

c. State that the legal title holder and the occupant have a period of 10 days from the date of receipt of the notice in which to notify the Division of Motor Vehicles by ~~registered or~~ certified mail, return receipt requested, that a hearing is desired to contest the sale of the vehicle pursuant to the lien.

The person with legal title or the occupant must, within 10 days of receipt of the notice from the Division of Motor Vehicles, notify the Division of his desire to contest the sale of the vehicle pursuant to the lien, and that the Division should so notify lienor.

Failure of the person with legal title or the occupant to notify the Division that a hearing is desired shall be deemed a waiver of the right to a hearing prior to sale of the vehicle against which the lien is asserted. Upon such failure, the Division shall so notify the lienor; the lienor may proceed to enforce the lien by a public sale as provided by this section; and the Division shall transfer title to the property pursuant to such sale.

If the Division is notified within the 10-day period provided in this section that a hearing is desired prior to the sale, the lien may be enforced by a public sale as provided in this section and the Division will transfer title only pursuant to the order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

...

(c) Public Sale. –

(1) Not less than 20 days prior to sale by public sale the lienor:

a. Shall cause notice to be delivered by ~~registered or~~ certified mail to the person having a security interest in the property if reasonably ascertainable, and to the occupant at the occupant's last known address. Notice given pursuant to this subdivision shall be presumed delivered when it is properly addressed, first-class postage prepaid, and deposited with the United States Postal Service.

SECTION 13. Sections 1 through 3 and Sections 5 through 11 of this act become effective January 1, 2013, and apply to improvements to real property for which the first permit required to be obtained is obtained on or after that date or, with respect to projects for which no permit is required, apply to improvement to real property commenced on or after that date. Sections 4, 12, and 13 of this act are effective when this act becomes law.

HOUSE BILL 1052:
Mechanics Liens/Payment Bond Reforms

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary I	Date:	June 25, 2012
Introduced by:	Rep. Stevens	Prepared by:	Bill Patterson
Analysis of:	PCS to Third Edition H1052-CSTG-54		Committee Counsel

SUMMARY: The PCS to House Bill 1052 makes a number of technical and substantive changes to the law governing lien and payment bond claims arising from improvements to real property, including the following:

- requires persons working on a public construction project who did not contract directly with the contractor to give the contractor notice of their involvement in the project in order to preserve claims under the payment bond in excess of $20,000
- increases a contractor's liability for making a false written statement of the amounts due for work increase a contractor's liability for making a false written statement of the sums due for improvements to real property
- clarifies when certain subcontractor lien claims arise to prevent loss of subcontractor lien rights under bankruptcy court interpretation of current statutory language
- clarifies the circumstances under which owners or their lenders are not necessary or proper parties to an action to enforce a claim of lien on the improved real property

The PCS makes technical and conforming changes to the bill, and removes provisions in Section 3 that would have added requirements pertaining to lien waiver forms.

[As introduced, this bill was identical to S864, as introduced by Sen. Brunstetter, which is currently in Senate Ref to Judiciary I. If fav, re-ref to Finance.]

CURRENT LAW:

Article 2 of Chapter 44A grants lien rights to contractors (those who contract directly with the owner) and subcontractors (those who contract with someone other than the owner) who improve real property to secure payment of debts owing for labor, professional design or surveying services, or materials or rental equipment furnished to improve the real property.[1]

Contractors are granted a lien on the improved real property to secure payment owed for their work. To preserve the right to enforce the lien, a contractor must file a claim of lien with the clerk of superior court within 120 days from the last date of furnishing of materials or labor to the real property, and must commence an action to enforce the lien within 180 days from the last date of furnishing of labor or materials. After the claim of lien is filed, the lien "relates back" to the date of the contractor's first furnishing of labor or materials for purposes of determining the lien's priority among other liens on the real property.

A subcontractor is granted a lien on any funds owed to the person who owes the subcontractor for labor or materials furnished to improve the real property. To pursue this claim, the subcontractor must deliver a "Notice of Claim of Lien on Funds" to the person owing the funds to the subcontractor's debtor (the

[1] The North Carolina Constitution requires the General Assembly to provide mechanics and laborers with "an adequate lien on the subject-matter of their labor" by "proper legislation." N.C. Const. Art. X, Sec. 3. To fulfill this mandate for persons providing labor and materials for real property improvements, the General Assembly has enacted Article 2 of Chapter 44A of the General Statutes.

"obligor"). If the obligor who receives this notice fails to retain any funds subject to the lien, and instead pays the funds to the person who owes the subcontractor, the obligor becomes personally liable to the subcontractor for the amount owed. Furthermore, if the wrongfully paying obligor is the owner of the improved property, the subcontractor is granted a lien on the real property.

Article 2 also provides a procedure under which first, second, and third-tier subcontractors can enforce the contractor's lien upon the real property of an owner who has not paid the contractor in full. A waiver by the contractor of its lien rights against the owner will destroy the subcontractor's right to enforce the contractor's lien on real property by subrogation, with one exception: if the subcontractor takes the required steps under G.S. 44A-23 to perfect its subrogated lien claim and commences an action to enforce that claim before the contractor executes a lien waiver, the waiver will not impair the subcontractor's lien rights.

Those who furnish labor or materials to improve public property are not entitled to a claim of lien. Instead, Article 3 of Chapter 44A entitles them to file a claim under a payment bond, which the contractor is required to procure for projects meeting the threshold dollar amounts specified in G.S. 44A-26.

A claim under a payment bond may be brought by any claimant who has not been paid in full within 90 days of the last furnishing of labor or materials. G.S. 44A-27(a). Claimants who did not contract directly with the contractor cannot make a claim under the payment bond unless they give the contractor notice of the claim within 120 days of the last date of furnishing, stating the amount claimed and the person for whom the labor or materials were furnished. G.S. 44A-27(b).

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 adds to G.S. 44A-7 all definitions in current 44A-7 (repealed by bill section 5) with no substantive changes.

Section 2 amends G.S. 44A-11 to require a lien claimant to notify the owner and contractor of the claim of lien on real property, and Section 3 makes conforming changes to the lien claim form prescribed by G.S. 44A-12(c).

Section 4 amends G.S. 44A-13 to provide that an owner of real property at the time a claim of lien arose but who does not own the property when the action to enforce the lien is commenced, is not a necessary party to that action unless the plaintiff is seeking relief against that person. In addition, Section 4 provides that subsequent purchasers of improved property and their lenders are not necessary or proper parties if the claim of lien has been discharged pursuant to G.S. 44A-16, and prohibits bonds from requiring that subsequent purchasers and their lenders remain parties to an action after claim of lien has been discharged.

Section 5 repeals G.S. 44A-17 (with all definitions from the repealed section moved to G.S. 44A-7 by Section 1 of the bill).

Section 6 amends G.S. 44A-18 to make it clear that a subcontractor's lien upon funds arises immediately upon the furnishing of labor, materials or rental equipment at the site of the improvement.

Section 7 amends G.S. 44A-19 to eliminate the requirement of attaching a copy of the notice of claim of lien upon funds to the claim of lien that is filed to enforce the contractor's claim of lien under G.S. 44A-23.

Section 8 and Section 9 amends G.S. 44A-20 and G.S. 44A-23 to clarify that a contractor's lien waiver signed before a subcontractor commences an action to enforce the contractor's lien rights waives the subcontractor's right to enforce the contractor's claim of lien on real property under G.S. 44A-23, but does not waive the subcontractor's claim of lien on funds or the subcontractor's direct right to a claim of lien on real property under G.S. 44A-20(d). Section 9 also amends G.S. 44A-23(a) to permit a subcontractor filing a claim of lien upon real property to use either its own date of first and last furnishing or that of the contractor through which the claim is being asserted.

Section 10 amends G.S. 44A-24 to increase a contractor's liability for making a false written statement of the sums due for work done on a project. The new sanctions will include liability for damages under Chapter 75 and disciplinary action relating to the contractor's license.

Section 11 amends G.S. 44A-27, relating to payment bond claims, to require claimants who did not contract directly with the contractor to give notice of their involvement in the project, and prohibits claims under the payment bond for work or materials provided more than 75 days before the notice is given. These requirements do not apply to claims of $20,000 or less, nor do they apply if the contractor fails to furnish copy of the payment bond within seven days of receiving a request for it from a claimant. Section 11 also requires the contractor to give each subcontractor a project statement with all information necessary to make a claim on the payment bond, and requires each subcontractor to provide a copy of that statement to each lower-tier subcontractor with whom it contracts for work on the project.

Section 12 deletes references to "registered mail" in various notice requirements contained in Chapter 44A.

EFFECTIVE DATE: Sections 4 and 12 of this act are effective when it becomes law. The remaining Sections of this act become effective January 1, 2013, and apply to improvements to real property for which the first permit required to be obtained is obtained on or after that date or, with respect to projects for which no permit is required, apply to improvement to real property commenced on or after that date.

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO REQUIRE PERSONS FURNISHING LABOR OR MATERIALS IN CONNECTION WITH CERTAIN IMPROVEMENTS TO REAL PROPERTY TO GIVE WRITTEN NOTICE TO THE DESIGNATED LIEN AGENT OF THE OWNER OF THE IMPROVED REAL PROPERTY TO PRESERVE THEIR LIEN RIGHTS.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 44A-7 is amended by adding new subdivisions to read:

"§ 44A-7. Definitions.

Unless the context otherwise requires in this Article:

...

(2a) Lien agent. – A title insurance company or title insurance agency designated by an owner pursuant to G.S. 44A-11.1.

...

(4a) Inspection department. – Any city or county building inspection department authorized by Chapter 160A or Chapter 153A of the General Statutes.

...

(6a) Potential lien claimant. – Any person entitled to claim a lien for improvements to real property under this Article who is subject to G.S. 44A-11.1."

SECTION 2. Article 2 of Chapter 44A of the General Statutes is amended by adding new sections to read:

"§ 44A-11.1. Lien agent; designation and duties.

(a) With regard to any improvements to real property to which this Article is applicable for which the costs of the undertaking at the time that the original building permit is issued is thirty thousand dollars $30,000 or more, the owner shall designate a lien agent no later than the time the owner first contracts with any person to improve the real property. The owner shall deliver written notice of designation to its designated lien agent by any method authorized in G.S. 44A-11.2(f), and shall include in its notice the street address, tax map lot and block number, reference to recorded instrument, or any other description that reasonably identifies the real property for the improvements to which the lien agent has been designated. Designation of a lien agent pursuant to this section does not make the lien agent an agent of the owner for purposes of receiving a Notice of Claim of Lien upon Funds or for any purpose other than the receipt of notices to the lien agent required under G.S. 44A-11.2.

(b) The lien agent shall be chosen from among the list of registered lien agents maintained by the Department of Insurance pursuant to G.S. 58-26-41.

(c) Upon receipt of written notification of designation by an owner pursuant to subsection (a) of this section, the lien agent shall have the duties as set forth in G.S. 58-26-41(b).

(d) In the event that the lien agent revokes its consent to serve as lien agent or is removed by the owner, or otherwise becomes unable or unwilling to serve before the completion of all improvements to the real property, the owner shall within three business days of notice of such event do all of the following:

(1) Designate a successor lien agent and provide written notice of designation to the successor lien agent pursuant to subsection (a) of this section.

(2) Provide the contact information for the successor lien agent to the inspection department that issued any required building permit and to any persons who requested information relating to the predecessor lien agent.

(3) Display the contact information for the successor lien agent on the building permit or attachment thereto posted on the improved property or, if no building permit was required, on a sign complying with G.S. 44A-11.2(e).

(e) Until such time as the owner has fully complied with subsection (d) of this section, notice transmitted to the predecessor lien agent shall be deemed effective notice, notwithstanding the fact that the lien agent may have resigned or otherwise become unable or unwilling to serve.

(f) Any attorney who, in connection with a transaction involving improved real property subject to this section for which the attorney is serving as the closing attorney, contacts the lien agent and requests copies of the notices received by the lien agent relating to the real property not more than five business days prior to the date of recordation of a deed or deed of trust on the real property, shall be deemed to have fulfilled the attorney's professional obligation as closing attorney to check such notices to lien agent and shall have no further duty to request that the lien agent provide information pertaining to notices received subsequently by the lien agent.

"§ 44A-11.2. Identification of lien agent; notice to lien agent; effect of notice.

(a) As used in this section, the term "contact information" shall mean the name, physical and mailing address, telephone number, facsimile number, and electronic mail address of the lien agent designated by the owner pursuant to G.S. 44A-11.1.

(b) Within seven days of receiving a written request by a potential lien claimant by any delivery method specified in subsection (f) of this section, the owner shall provide a notice to the potential lien claimant containing the contact information for the lien agent, by the same delivery method used by the potential lien claimant in making the request. A potential lien claimant making a request pursuant to this subsection who has not furnished labor at the site of the improvements, or who did so prior to the posting of the contact information for the lien agent pursuant to subsection (d) or (e) of this section, shall have no obligation to give notice to the lien agent under this section until the potential lien claimant has received the contact information from the owner.

(c) A contractor or subcontractor for improvements to real property subject to G.S. 44A-11.1 shall, within three business days of contracting with a lower-tier subcontractor who is not required to furnish labor at the site of the improvements, provide the lower-tier subcontractor with a written notice containing the contact information for the lien agent designated by the owner. Noncompliance with the notice requirements of this subsection shall constitute an unfair trade practice subjecting the noncomplying contractor or subcontractor to a claim for violation of G.S. 75-1.1 by any lower-tier subcontractor entitled to the notice who suffers actual harm as a result of the noncompliance.

(d) For any improvement to real property subject to G.S. 44A-11.1, any building permit issued pursuant to G.S. 160A-417(d) or G.S. 153A-357(e) shall be conspicuously and continuously posted on the property for which the permit is issued until the completion of all construction.

(e) For any improvement to real property subject to G.S. 44A-11.1, a sign disclosing the contact information for the lien agent shall be conspicuously and continuously posted on the property until the completion of all construction if the contact information for the lien agent is not contained in a building permit or attachment thereto posted on the property.

(f) In complying with any requirement for written notice pursuant to this section, the notice shall be addressed to the person required to be provided with the notice and shall be delivered by any of the following methods:

(1) Certified mail, return receipt requested.
(2) Signature confirmation as provided by the United States Postal Service.
(3) Physical delivery and obtaining a delivery receipt from the lien agent.
(4) Facsimile with a facsimile confirmation.
(5) Depositing with a designated delivery service authorized pursuant to 26 U.S.C. § 7502(f)(2).
(6) Electronic mail, with delivery receipt.

As used in this subsection, "delivery receipt" includes an electronic or facsimile confirmation. A return receipt or other receipt showing delivery of the notice to the addressee or written evidence that such notice was delivered by the postal service or other carrier to but not accepted by the addressee shall be prima facie evidence of receipt.

(g) When a lien agent is identified in a contract for improvements to real property consisting of a single-family residence entered into between an owner and a contractor for the improvements to the property, the contractor will be deemed to have met the requirement of notice under subsections (k) and (l) of this section on the date of the lien agent's receipt of the owner's notice of designation. The owner shall provide written notice to the lien agent containing the information pertaining to the contractor required in a notice to lien agent pursuant to subdivisions (1) through (4) of subsection (h) of this section, by any method of delivery authorized in G.S. 44A-11.2(f). The lien agent shall include the contractor in its response to any persons requesting information relating to persons who have given notice to the lien agent pursuant to this section.

(h) The form of the notice to be given under this section shall be substantially as follows:

"NOTICE TO LIEN AGENT

(1) Potential lien claimant's name, mailing address, telephone number, fax number (if available), and electronic mailing address (if available): _____

(2) Name of the party with whom the potential lien claimant has contracted to improve the real property described below: _____

(3) A description of the real property sufficient to identify the real property, such as the name of the project, if applicable, the physical address as shown on the building permit or notice received from the owner: _____

(4) I give notice of my right subsequently to pursue a claim of lien for improvements to the real property described in this notice.

Dated: _____

_____

Potential Lien Claimant"

(i) The service of the Notice to Lien Agent does not satisfy the service or filing requirements applicable to a Notice of Claim of Lien upon Funds under Part 2 of Article 2 of this Chapter.

(j) The notice to lien agent shall not be filed with the clerk of superior court. An inaccuracy in the description of the improved real property provided in the notice shall not bar a person from claiming a lien under this Article or otherwise perfecting or enforcing a claim of lien as provided in this Article, if the improved real property can otherwise reasonably be identified from the information contained in the notice.

(k) Except as otherwise provided in this section, a potential lien claimant may perfect a claim of lien on real property only if any of the following conditions is met:

(1) The lien agent identified in accordance with this section has received notice from the potential lien claimant no later than 15 days after the first furnishing of labor or materials by the potential lien claimant.

(2) Any of the following conditions is met:

a. The lien agent identified in accordance with this section has received notice from the potential lien claimant prior to the date of recordation of a conveyance of the property interest in the real property to a bona fide purchaser for value protected under G.S. 47-18 who is not an affiliate, relative, or insider of the owner.

b. The potential lien claimant has filed a claim of lien pursuant to G.S. 44A-12 prior to the recordation of a conveyance of the property interest in the real property to a bona fide purchaser for value protected under G.S. 47-18 who is not an affiliate, relative, or insider of the owner.

As used in this subdivision, the terms "affiliate," "relative," and "insider" shall have the meanings as set forth in G.S. 39-23.1.

(l) Except as otherwise provided in this section, the claim of lien on real property of a potential lien claimant that is not filed prior to the recordation of any mortgage or deed of trust shall be subordinate to the previously recorded mortgage or deed of trust unless any of the following conditions is met:

(1) The lien agent identified in accordance with this section has received notice from the potential lien claimant within 15 days after the first furnishing of labor or materials by the potential lien claimant.

(2) The lien agent identified in accordance with this section has received notice from the potential lien claimant prior to the date of recordation of the mortgage or deed of trust for the benefit of one who is not an affiliate, relative, or insider of the owner.

(m) With regard to an improvement to real property subject to G.S. 44A-11.1, a potential lien claimant shall not be required to comply with this section if the lien agent contact information is neither contained in the building permit or attachment thereto or sign posted on the improved property pursuant to subsection (d) or (e) of this section at the time when the potential lien claimant was furnishing labor at the site of the improvements, nor timely provided by the owner in response to a written request by the potential lien claimant made pursuant to subsection (b) of this section. The lien rights of a potential lien claimant who is given erroneous information by the owner regarding the identity of the lien agent will not be extinguished under subsection (k) of this section nor subordinated under subsection (l) of this section.

(n) Except as provided in subsections (k) and (l) of this section, nothing contained in this section shall affect a claim of lien upon funds pursuant to G.S. 44A-18.

(o) A potential lien claimant may provide the notice to lien agent required under this section regardless of whether the improvements for which the potential lien claimant is responsible are contracted, started, in process, or completed at the time of submitting the notice."

SECTION 3. Article 26 of Chapter 58 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 58-26-41. Registration as a lien agent.

(a) A title insurance company or title insurance agency authorized to do business in this State that consents to serve as a lien agent pursuant to G.S. 44A-11.1 shall register with the Department by providing the following information:

(1) Name of the title insurance company or title insurance agency consenting to serve as a lien agent pursuant to G.S. 44A-11.1.

(2) Physical and mailing address, facsimile number and electronic mail address to which notices may be delivered to the lien agent pursuant to G.S. 44A-11.2.

(3) Telephone number of the lien agent.

(b) Upon receipt of the notice of designation by the owner pursuant to G.S. 44A-11.1, a lien agent shall have the duty to do all of the following:

(1) Provide written notice acknowledging its designation as a lien agent to the owner within three business days of receipt of the owner's written notice of designation, by the same method of delivery used by the owner in delivering the notice of designation to the lien agent.

(2) Receive notices to lien agent delivered by potential lien claimants.

(3) Maintain a record of the date and time of delivery and the information contained in each notice to lien agent received.

(4) Within three business days of receipt of a notice to lien agent by a potential lien claimant relating to improvements to real property for which the lien agent has been designated as the lien agent, provide written notice confirming receipt of the notice to the person providing such notice, by the same method used by the potential lien claimant in delivering the notice to lien agent.

(5) Within three business days of receipt of any notice to lien agent by a potential lien claimant relating to improved real property for which the lien agent has not been designated as the lien agent, provide written notice to the potential lien claimant that it is not the designated lien agent for the improved property, by the same method used by the potential lien claimant in delivering the notice to lien agent.

(6) Within three business days of receipt of information relating to the contractor provided by the owner pursuant to G.S. 44A-11.2(g), provide a written notice to the contractor acknowledging receipt of this information, by any method of delivery authorized in G.S. 44A-11.2(f).

(7) Provide written notice of the potential lien claimants having delivered notice to lien agent pursuant to G.S. 44A-11.2, including the information relating to any contractor identified by the owner pursuant to G.S. 44A-11.2(g), within one business day of receiving a request from any of the following persons or their authorized agents:

a. An owner of the improved property.

b. A title insurance company or title insurance agency issuing a policy of title insurance on the improved property.

c. A contracted purchaser of the improved property.

d. A potential lien claimant.

e. A closing attorney, lender, or settlement agent as defined in G.S. 45A-3(15) involved in a transaction involving the improved property.

In responding to a request pursuant to this subdivision, the lien agent shall include the information provided by each potential lien claimant pursuant to G.S. 44A-11.2(h)(1) and G.S. 44A-11.2(h)(2) and, if specifically requested, a copy of each notice to lien claimant received by the lien agent.

(8) Transfer all notices received and other documentation thereof to any successor lien agent designated by the owner upon termination under subsection (d) of this section.

(c) A registered lien agent may revoke its consent and be removed from the list of lien agents by providing written notification of its revocation of consent to the Department of Insurance and to all owners by whom the lien agent has been designated pursuant to G.S. 44A-11.1 at least 30 days in advance of the effective date of its revocation of consent.

(d) For services rendered pursuant to each designation as a lien agent for improvements to real property comprising one- or two-family dwellings, a lien agent may collect a fee of not more than twenty-five dollars ($25.00) from the owner. For services rendered pursuant to each designation as a lien agent for all other improvements to real property, the lien agent may collect a fee not to exceed fifty dollars ($50.00) from the owner.

(e) The Department shall publish on its Web site a current list of lien agents registered pursuant to this section."

SECTION 4. G.S. 87-14(a) is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"§ 87-14. Regulations as to issue of building permits.

(a) Any person, firm, or corporation, upon making application to the building inspector or such other authority of any incorporated city, town, or county in North Carolina charged with the duty of issuing building or other permits for the construction of any building, highway, sewer, grading, or any improvement or structure where the cost thereof is to be thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) or more, shall, before being entitled to the issuance of a permit, satisfy the following:

...

(3) Any person, firm, or corporation, upon making application to the building inspector or such other authority of any incorporated city, town, or county in North Carolina charged with the duty of issuing building permits pursuant to G.S. 160A-417(a)(1) or G.S. 153A-357(a)(1) for any improvements for which the combined cost is to be thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) or more, shall be required to provide to the building inspector or other authority the name, physical and mailing address, telephone number, facsimile number, and electronic mail address of the lien agent designated by the owner pursuant to G.S. 44A-11.1(a)."

SECTION 5. G.S. 160A-417 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"§ 160A-417. Permits.

(a) No person shall commence or proceed with any of the following without first securing from the inspection department with jurisdiction over the site of the work any and all permits required by the State Building Code and any other State or local laws applicable to the work:

(1) The construction, reconstruction, alteration, repair, movement to another site, removal, or demolition of any building or structure.

(d) No permit shall be issued pursuant to subdivision (1) of subsection (a) of this section where the cost of the work is thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) or more unless the name, physical and mailing address, telephone number, facsimile number, and electronic mail address of the lien agent designated by the owner pursuant to G.S. 44A-11.1(a) is conspicuously set forth in the permit or in an attachment thereto. The building permit may contain the lien agent's electronic mail address. The lien agent information for each permit issued pursuant to this subsection shall be maintained by the inspection department in the same manner and in the same location in which it maintains its record of building permits issued."

SECTION 6. G.S. 153A-357 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"§ 153A-357. Permits.

(a) No person may commence or proceed with any of the following without first securing from the inspection department with jurisdiction over the site of the work each permit required by the State Building Code and any other State or local law or local ordinance or regulation applicable to the work:

(1) The construction, reconstruction, alteration, repair, movement to another site, removal, or demolition of any building.

(e) No permit shall be issued pursuant to subdivision (1) of subsection (a) of this section where the cost of the work is thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) or more unless the name, physical and mailing address, telephone number, facsimile number, and electronic mail address of the lien agent designated by the owner pursuant to G.S. 44A-11.1(a) is conspicuously set forth in the permit or in an attachment thereto. The building permit may contain the lien agent's electronic mail address. The lien agent information for each permit issued pursuant to this subsection shall be maintained by the inspection department in the same manner and in the same location in which it maintains its record of building permits issued."

SECTION 7. This act becomes effective April 1, 2013, and applies to improvements to real property affected hereby for which the first furnishing of labor or materials at the site of the improvements is on or after that date.

SENATE BILL 42:
Mech. Liens/Pvt Lien Agent

2011-2012 General Assembly

Committee:	Senate Judiciary I	Date:	June 25, 2012
Introduced by:	Sen. Mansfield	Prepared by:	Bill Patterson Committee Counsel
Analysis of:	Fourth Edition

SUMMARY: Senate Bill 42 requires that persons furnishing labor or materials for improvements to real property costing at least $30,000 must give notice to a lien agent designated by the owner either before recordation of a deed or deed of trust, or within fifteen (15) days of their first furnishing of labor or materials, in order to preserve their lien claims.

CURRENT LAW: Article 2 of Chapter 44A grants lien rights to contractors (those who contract directly with the owner) and subcontractors (those who contract with someone other than the owner) who improve real property to secure payment of debts owing for labor, professional design or surveying services, or materials or rental equipment furnished to improve the real property.[1]

Contractors are granted a lien on the improved real property to secure payment owed for their work. To preserve the right to enforce the lien, a contractor must file a claim of lien with the clerk of superior court within 120 days from the last date of furnishing of materials or labor to the real property, and must commence an action to enforce the lien within 180 days from the last date of furnishing of labor or materials. After the claim of lien is filed, the lien "relates back" to the date of the contractor's first furnishing of labor or materials for purposes of determining the lien's priority among other liens on the real property.

A subcontractor is granted a lien on any funds owed to the person who owes the subcontractor for labor or materials furnished to improve the real property. To pursue this claim, the subcontractor must deliver a "Notice of Claim of Lien on Funds" to the person owing the funds to the subcontractor's debtor (the "obligor"). If the obligor who receives this notice fails to retain any funds subject to the lien, and instead pays the funds to the person who owes the subcontractor, the obligor becomes personally liable to the subcontractor for the amount owed. Furthermore, if the wrongfully paying obligor is the owner of the improved property, the subcontractor is granted a lien on the real property.

Article 2 also provides a procedure under which first, second, and third-tier subcontractors can enforce the contractor's lien upon the real property of an owner who has not paid the contractor in full. A waiver by the contractor of its lien rights against the owner will destroy the subcontractor's right to enforce the contractor's lien on real property by subrogation, with one exception: if the subcontractor takes the required steps under G.S. 44A-23 to perfect its subrogated lien claim and commences an action to enforce that claim before the contractor executes a lien waiver, the waiver will not impair the subcontractor's lien rights.

The term "hidden lien" is used to describe a claim of lien to secure payment of money owed to the lien claimant for labor or materials provided prior to the closing date on the real estate transaction, but not filed until after the recordation of the deed or deed of trust. Such liens take priority over the previously recorded deed or deed of trust because they "relate back" to the date of first furnishing of labor or materials by the lien claimant.

BILL ANALYSIS:

Section 1 amends G.S. 44A-7 to define three terms used in the new sections enacted in Section 2 of the bill.

Section 2 enacts two new sections in Part 1 of Article 2 of Chapter 44A to impose requirements on owners and potential lien claimants applicable to improvements to real property costing $30,000 or more as of the date of issuance of the building permit.

- New G.S. 44A-11.1 requires the owner to designate a lien agent from among title insurance insurers or title insurance agencies registered with the Department of Insurance pursuant to new G.S. 58-26-41 under Section 3 of the bill.
- New G.S. 44A-11.2 requires a potential lien claimant to provide a prescribed notice to the designated lien agent either: 1) within fifteen days of the first furnishing of labor or materials; or 2) prior to the date of recordation of the deed or deed of trust.

The required notice includes the potential lien claimant's name and contact information, the name of the person with whom the potential lien claimant contracted, and a description of the improved real property.

The notice can be delivered by any of the following methods:

- Certified mail, return receipt requested
- USPS signature confirmation
- Physical delivery with delivery receipt
- Delivery by designated services such as Federal Express
- Fax
- Email

Under G.S. 44A-11.2(m), the new notice provisions will not apply to a potential lien claimant if:

- the owner does not timely respond to the potential lien claimant's written request for the lien agent contact information and
- the contact information is not posted on the jobsite.

The contact information for the designated lien agent must be included in the building permit and posted on the site of the improvements. G.S. 44A-11.2(d), (e). This information must also be maintained at the inspection department that issued the permit. (Sections 5 and 6 of the bill, summarized below).

If the potential lien claimant fails to give timely notice to the lien agent:

- the lien claimant will lose the right to enforce a claim of lien filed after recordation of a deed conveying the property to a new owner (G.S. 44A-11.2(k)); or
- if there is no change in ownership, a claim of lien filed after recordation of a deed of trust in favor of a lender will be subordinated to the previously recorded deed of trust (G.S. 44A-11.2(l))

Under the act, a closing attorney will have no professional obligation to check with the lien agent for notices by potential claimants less than five days before the deed or deed of trust is recorded. G.S. 44A-11.1(f).

The owner will be required to provide the contact information for the lien agent to within seven days of receiving a written request by a potential lien claimant. If the requesting subcontractor did not provide labor at the site of the improvement or did so prior to the posting of the contact information, then it will not be required to give notice to the lien agent until receipt of the requested contact information. G.S. 44A-11.2(b).

Any contractor or subcontractor who contracts with a lower-tier subcontractor that is not required to provide labor at the site of the improvement would be required to provide the contact information for the lien agent. Non-compliance with this requirement would expose the violator to liability under G.S. 75-1.1 to a subcontractor entitled to this notice who did not receive it, and who suffered actual harm as a result. G.S. 44A-11.2(c).

Section 3 enacts new G.S. 58-26-41 requiring title insurance companies and title insurance agencies consenting to serve as lien agents to register with the Department of Insurance.

Upon being designated by the owner, the lien agent must acknowledge receipt of notices from potential lien claimants within three business days of receipt, and must provide the names of any potential lien claimants who have given notice within one day of receiving a request for this information from any of the following:

- Owner of the improved property
- Title insurer or title insurance agency
- Contracted purchaser of the improved property
- Potential lien claimant
- Closing attorney, lender, or settlement agent involved in a transaction involving the improved property

The fee that a lien agent can charge an owner for serving as a lien agent is limited to:

- $25.00 if the improvements are to a one- or two-family dwelling
- $50.00 if the improvements are to any other type of property

Section 4 amends G.S. 87-14 to require the applicant for any building permit for improvements costing at least $30,000 to provide the contact information for the designated lien agent to the authority issuing the building permit.

Section 5 and Section 6 amend the statutes governing issuance of building permits by cities and counties to require that the designated lien agent contact information be included in the issued permit or in an attachment to it, and that this information be maintained by the inspection department in the same manner as the record of building permits.

EFFECTIVE DATE: This act becomes effective April 1, 2013, and applies to improvements to real property for which the first furnishing of labor or materials at the site of the improvements is on or after that date.
